LOUNGE TO BE PARTITIONED DURING Fitz Bitz RATES THE CANDIDATES SUMMER

FOR COMMISSION ON STUDENT LIFE

On the basis of the speeches before the student body and the qualifications and position statements published the staff of Fitz Bitz has prepared a rating list to help the voters elect a commission that won't dialogue us to death.

RATINGS ****cream of the crop deserves your vote
***highly qualified should be carefully considered
**GOOD
*fair

Two candidates received the top rating of 4 stars and one candidate 3½ stars, those receiving the top spots were:

CRAIG BARSUHN **** will bring to the commission good common sense so often lacking in the Berkley type radicals.

JOHN PODGURSKI **** practical philosophy with excellent ideas on RA's and SACC.

KEEN COLTON ***½ very impressive credentials the remainder of the candidates are rated in alphabetical order:

JOHN AUGER Qualifications state: commuter, Varsity Sports club, and unemployed. Three strikes and you're out.

ALEXANDER BENSKY * Maybe if its 102° in the shade and Tanzania has declared war on China at the time you vote.

DAVID BLACK *** every commission needs a radical and he has a logical coherence which is more than you can say for most.

FOLDING PARTITION TO BE PURCHASED BY HOUSING

After weeks of work by the House Council and after a meeting with the administration the partition for the lounge is about to become a reality. This summer when the new fiscal budget goes into operation the Housing office will purchase a folding partition (wood paneling) for the lounge to be installed before the residents return in the fall. Anyone who attended the discussion on sex realizes the value this addition will be in cutting down the noise <sup>from the</sup> interior sidewalk.

MONOPOLY SCRABBLE GAMES PURCHASED FOR USE OF HOUSE

The House council this past week purchased a monopoly and scrabble game which may be checked out from Jim Batchelor room 107 or from one of the R.A's

TRIVIA EXPERTS CLASH IN FITZ LOUNGE THURSDAY.

This Thursday at 7.p.m. the Fitz invitational Trivia Bowl will pit trivia experts from Van Wagener and Vandenberg against the Fitzgerald champ, Randy Riess.

DAVIS CATTON * doctrinaire new left
1 listed qualification Jr. High graduating class president. We doubt if similar problems exist.

CHARLES G CLARKE III ** unfortunately this is not a track meet although those elected may have to run far and fast
if nothing is accomplished.

BILL CONNELLAN *** the man who fits in
and works well everywhere

VINCE CORNELLIER * "I am a student with an opinion" We hope he is capable of forming at least another one.

WILLIAM DELAMARTER *** many worthwhile
ideas sprinkled among the rhetoric.

KIRK DUBLIN ** campaign effort shows willingness to work and strong desire to participate.

MIKE HONEY *** Most personable of the new left.

TROWBRIDGE KAST * We recommend he stay with the newspaper VB Tid Bits until he gets it right.

JUDITH LEVENSON ** Another doctrinaire
students rights advocate

KENNETH MELDRUM * Former frat man may try to push frats for O.U.

RANDALL MILLER "I have been a member of many varied organizations and have held office in a lot of them." If he is this vague in a meeting the commission will never do anything.

JANE RADKE **

SAMMY RICHARDS **

Viet Nam (continued from page 1)

hold a discussion on the problem of whether or not the United States should discontinue the bombing of North Viet Nam. Dr. Richard Tucker of the History dept will represent the affirmative in this dialogue. Dr.
Tucker was instrumental in gathering names for the petition to halt the bombing published in the N.Y Times.
Another professor who favors continuation of the bombing will also be invited.

WHY DOESN'T MAINTENANCE RATE NEW OFFICE FURNITURE?

This question greatly intrigues the editors of Tid Bits as we have been informed that while such organizations as the Big House House Council have received generous consignments of new office furniture the office of the Maintenance Department is still making do with some battered relics that were undoubtedly most modern when Calvin Coolidge was President. The desk in the office is a challenge to custodial ingenuity as it is missing a leg and has to be propped up with some convenient object. Why we ask does an agency that actually does do something for Oakland get slighted while various do-nothing student organizations receive an ample supply of new furniture? We hope this inequality will be eliminated in the new fiscal year.

ES, CHANCES ARE THERE IS A REAL LIVE CIA AGENT HERE AT OAKLAND. YOU MAY KNOW HIM AS HELPFUL ADVISOR, YOUR STIMULATING POLITICAL SCIENCE PROF OR THAT NICE CHAP WHO IS ADVISOR TO YOUR CLUB OR ORGANIZATION. PERHAPS A HEAD RESIDENT OR A DEAN, OR EVEN THE DIRECTOR OF STUDENT ACTIVITIES.

FITZ BITZ IN ITS SEARCH FOR TRUTH ANNOUNCES A CONTEST TO DISCOVER SOME INSIGHT INTO THIS PROBLEM. WHAT PERSON AT THIS UNIVERSITY DO YOU THINK IS MOST LIKELY TO BE A CIA AGENT? SIMPLY WRITE A SHORT STATEMENT OF 100 WORDS OR LESS STATE WHO YOU THINK IS THE MOST LIKELY TO BE THE CIA AGENT AND WHY. THE WINNER AND THE PERSON NAMED IN THE ENTRY WILL BOTH RECEIVE VALUABLE PRIZES. THE AUTHOR IF CORRECT IN HIS OBSERVATION WILL ALSO PROBABLY BE REWARDED WITH A SPECIAL DOSSIER IN THE CIA FILES AS A TROUBLE MAKER.

SUBMIT ALL ENTRIES BEFORE WED. MARCH 29. EVERYONE IS ELIGIBLE EXCEPT EMPLOYEES OF FITZ BITZ AND THERE IMMEDIATE FAMILIES. BRING YOUR ENTRY TO 107 FITZGERALD. WINNING STATEMENTS WILL BE PRINTED IN THE NEXT ISSUE OF FITZ BITZ.

In order to encourage and foster the growth of other student dorm newspapers, the staffs of Fitz Bitz will award at the end of the semester an Avis We Try Harder. button the the newspaper that is #2 behind Fitz Bitz. In each issue until the end of the semester we will print the rankings for this award. As of this printing the race is very tight. In the race to be #2 the VW holds a slim lead over the Vandenberg Tid Bits. The Hill Holler appears out of it. The VW holds the lead in spite of its "poetry".

TRAVEL SECTION

Are you an affectionate couple who is tired of the inconveniences of necking in Fitz Lounge, the cold icy winds when the door is left open, the cold stares of disapproval from the RA'S and head resident, the continuous disturbance from the indoor sidewalk, and the constant blaring of the boob tube? Well why not visit luxurious Vandenberg lounge, Oakland's most intimate passion spot. Located in the heart of 1st floor Vandenberg (turn left at the reception desk) Vandenberg lounge offers dim lights and climate controlled temperatures to aid you in your liesure time endeavors. The deep carpeting and harmonious blending of colors create an atmosphere most conducive to good indoor sports. The plush furnishing (numerous couches, no waiting) make Vandenberg lounge, set against the backdrop of bear lake, an ideal spot for an hour or a day. Join your friends and learn why they say "meet me at the Vandenberg!" Don't forget the multi purpose room for less formal occasions.

ote: all the first floor doors will be locked at 12p.m. After this time the only entrance will be by the 2nd floor door in the boys wing. The attendants at the reception desk are being paid 20¢ per hour more to keep a sharp eye out for non residents. We recommend about 11:45 taking up a position in the multi purpose room where you probably won't be disturbed.

SEYMOUR'S

PUBLIC GALLERY

Seymour this week, on the eve of the Irish holiday St. Patrick's Day, has intercepted a letter written to a student at Oakland. This letter brings the Irish character into true focus.

DEAR COUSIN:

COUNTY CORK, IRELAND

Your welcome letter received, and me and your aunt Bridget thank you for the money you sent up. We had nine masses said for your grandmother and grandfather. God rest their souls. You have gone to high places in America. God bless you. I hope you'll not be putting on airs and forget your native land.

Your cousin, Hugh O'Toole, was hanged in Londonderry last week for killing a policeman. May God rest his soul and God's curse be on Jim Callaghan the informer. May he burn in hell. God forgive him. Times are not as bad as they might be. The herring are back and nearly everyone has a hard time making ends meet. Thanks be to God.

We had a grand time at Pat Muldoon's wake. It looked good to see him stretched out with his big mouth shut. He was a blatherskite and is better off dead. And he will burn in hell till the damn place freezes over. He had too many friends among the Orangemen. God curse be on the lot of them.

Bless your heart I almost forgot to tell you Uncle Dinney took a shot at a turncoat from behind a hedge, but he'd had too much to drink and missed. God curse the dirty drink. I hope this letter finds you in good health and may God remind you to keep sending the money.

Your cousin, Biddy, had a baby by one of them Limey officers in fancy uniform who took advantage of her. He offered to marry her but her father said "NO". better to have a bastard in the family than a bloody Englishman.

Father O'Flaherty who baptised you is now feeble-minded. He sends his blessings. Nelly O'Mally, the brat you went to school with, has married an Englishman. They'll have no luck. God take care of you and keep you from sudden death.

Things look bright again. Every police barracks and Protestant church in County Cork has been burned to the ground. Thanks be to God.

Keep Sending Money

One of America's declining art forms is that of the insult, the lethal line. Whether you want to discourage a pest or just raise hell we highly recommend you cultivate some insults to be able to use at a moment's notice. Here are a few to get you started: I couldn't warm up to you if we were cremated together. LET'S PLAY HORSE. I'LL BE THE FRONT END AND YOU JUST BE YOURSELF. You make me believe that man's descent from the ape hasn't started yet. DON'T TELL ME WHO YOU ARE. I KNOW. YOU'RE THE REASON FOR BIRTH CONTROL. What happened? Did an undertaker do an incomplete job on you? SHE HAS EARLY AMERICAN FEATURES. SHE LOOKS LIKE A BUFFALO. I don't know what makes you tick but I hope its a time bomb.
