

Family Dog's Last Act: Barking to Warn of the Fire

By JANICE KLOUSER
Sugar, a little mongrel dog lost his life in a Commerce Township house fire this morning but his frantic barking was credited with possibly saving the lives of his owners.

Township fireman Clifford Campion said the dog's barking aroused Mrs. Carol O'Toole who was able to get her three children, Ronnie, 10, Ricky, 9, and Michelle O'Toole, 5, out safely.

He said a fourth child was not at home.

Mrs. O'Toole was burned around the head and shoulders and is in satisfactory condition at Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital.

The children were not hurt, according to Campion.

Firemen apparently discovered the dog's body after the fire was put out about 5:50 a.m.

"It was apparently his barking that woke the mother in time," said Campion.

HOUSE DAMAGED
Campion said the fire at 3180 Brisbane, which broke out about 3:50 a.m., caused an estimated $5,000 damage to the house and about $2,000 damage to its contents. He said it destroyed the interior of the one-story home.

Cause of the fire was attributed to defective wiring in the kitchen.

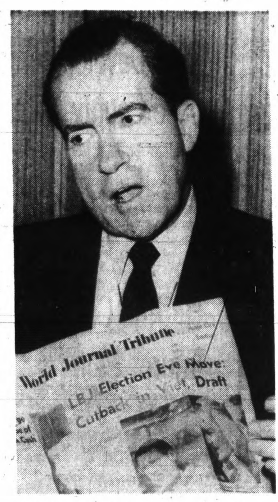

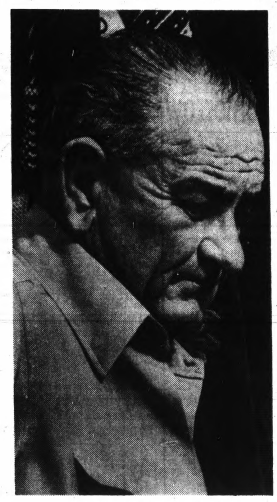

The Commerce Township Fire Department was assisted by Walled Lake.

In No Mood To Feud Romney, LBJ, Nixon Calls Aide 'Charlie McCarthy'

180,000 in County 50 Pct. Vote Forecast

By JIM LONG
Slightly more than half of Oakland County's 350,000 registered voters are expected to go to the polls in tomorrow's general election.

County Clerk - Register of Deeds John D. Murphy today estimated the turnout at 180,000, with the total possibly reaching 200,000 if weather conditions improve.

The estimated turnout falls far below the record 302,735 voters who cast ballots in the 1964 presidential election, and the 237,684 in the 1962 off-year general election.

State Elections Commissioner Robert Montgomery has estimated a statewide vote of about 2.7 million for tomorrow.

Murphy's estimate for tomorrow is only 60,000 to 80,000 more than the record turnout in the August primary of 120,000.

He said the total vote could go higher if voters show on a millage increase for a county park system.

A number of proposals in local communities, a few of them involving tax increases, could generate further interest and add to the total vote, said Murphy.

In Waterford Township, where there are 24,222 registered voters, property owners will be asked to decide a proposed one-mill tax increase to aid the fire department.

Pontiac has approximately 35,400 voters registered for tomorrow's election, about 400 less than in the 1964 election.

Voting machines will be used throughout Oakland County with the exception of the City of Orchard Lake Village and the townships of Brandon and Groveland, where paper ballots are used.

2nd Funeral in Tragic Case

Bizarre Events Saw Orion Girl, Man Die

By JEAN SAILE
ORION TOWNSHIP — A sense of tragedy hung over the area today as petite, dark-haired Mrs. Alfred B. Howey Jr. buried her husband in a service from the Bossard Funeral Home of Oxford.

2 Youths Arrested in Area Destruction

Two Avon Township youths were arrested by Oakland County sheriff's deputies early today in the wake of a $2,500 spree of destruction through Troy and Avon Township.

David H. Burnell, 17, stepson of Norman Pardike, 2550 Leach; and Martin L. Clason, 18, son of Harold Clason of 3031 St. Clair, face arraignment on charges of malicious destruction over $100.

Traffic Claims 4 From Area

Crash Kills City Man in Bloomfield Twp.

Weekend traffic accidents took the lives of four Pontiac area residents, including a Pontiac man who died Saturday when his car ran into a traffic sign in Bloomfield Township.

Dead are Glen D. Platt, 59, of 19 Salmer; Mrs. Ralph Seiling, 51, of 60 Edison; Mrs. Richard McBride, 39, of 931 N. Perry; and Mrs. Robert Young, 33, of 201 Maple, Almont.

Bloomfield Township police said Platt was fatally injured when his car apparently went out of control while entering a restaurant parking lot at Hunter Boulevard and Oak Street.

Report on 3 Political Big Guns

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson heads today for his old schoolteaching haunts halfway between his ranch and the Mexican border to deliver a day before election speech on education.

Later in the day, the President will drop by Brooke Army Medical Center in San Antonio for presurgical tests.

He hoped to have his operations there later this week — sooner than originally expected—because he said: "As long as you have a kind of curtain hanging over you, not knowing what is in your throat, what is going to be the result of it, the best way to do it is to just hit the cold water."

NEW YORK (AP) — Richard M. Nixon urges the American people to turn from President Johnson to Congress for new leadership and to fill Congress with "men who will stand up for the people when the President is wrong."

The former vice president, campaigning for Republican candidates in tomorrow's election, sounded the call to the voters yesterday as he made two half-hour national television broadcasts.

DETROIT (AP) — A possible 1968 presidential bid by George Romney may be on the line tomorrow when voters choose between the Michigan governor and his Democratic challenger, Zoltan Ferency.

Romney, 59, has been given a 2-1 margin in most polls to win a third term as a governor.

Ferency, 42, Democratic state chairman, has said Romney is considering a bid for the 1968 Republican presidential nomination. Romney has turned aside questions on whether he has White House ambitions.

Romney, former president of American Motors Corp., ended his campaign Saturday except for a news conference today.

It was the public windup to a sequence of bizarre events in which the lives of two persons were taken by self-inflicted gun wounds. The deaths apparently the result of an unthinking Halloween prank — the defacing of mailboxes.

In the death of Howey, the impulse which caused the hunter and fisherman to use his 20-gauge shotgun against himself was attributed to a series of harassing phone calls.

Sample Ballot

A sample ballot for tomorrow's election appears on pages B-6 and B-7 to acquaint Oakland County voters with the lineup of issues and candidates. Instructions are also included to show where and how to cast your vote.

Rain to Remain; Mercury to Rise

Everything's coming up showers in the Pontiac area for tonight and tomorrow.

According to the weatherman's predictions, temperatures are due to rise. Tonight's low is expected to be from 46 to 52 and tomorrow's high in the 50s.

Wednesday is expected to bring more showers with cooling temperatures.

Deputies said the pair was in a car parked near a battered mailbox — one of some 60 mailboxes bludgeoned and shattered with what investigators believe was a heavy iron bar.

Focal point of the destruction, which apparently began in Troy, were business and store windows smashed with thrown beer bottles in the Auburn-Livernois area south of Rochester.

Aides said the National Education Association suggested some time ago that Johnson mark National Education Week, which started today, with a speech at the 200-pupil Welhunsen School in Cottola, where he taught Mexican-American students in the late 1920s.

As it turned out, the President was looking for an opportunity to make a "nonpolitical" election eve appearance close to his ranch.

Nixon accused Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara of indulging in "political fakery" by making a pre-election announcement of a forthcoming slowdown in the dispatch of troops to Viet Nam.

He called the secretary "Lyndon Johnson's Charlie McCarthy," his political stooge" for flying to the political atmosphere of the LBJ Ranch in Texas as to say that next year's build-up would be less than the 200,000 men sent to Southeast Asia this year. McNamara also predicted a cut in draft quotas.

But Ferency continued today the active campaign he has been pressing among the normally Democratic labor movement in metropolitan Detroit.

LANDSLIDE POSSIBLE
Romney's potential to win in a landslide is deemed a factor in the election bid by Robert P. Griffin, named by the governor last spring to fill a vacancy created by the death of Sen. Patrick V. McNamara, D-Mich.

He was blamed by the callers for initiating a series of events which last Tuesday ended in the death of 13-year-old Charlotte Hinton.

Howey, the father of two daughters, apparently could no longer stand the accusations, even though he had not been responsible for the Hinton girl's apprehension prior to her death.

DEATH FOLLOWED TALK

The girl killed herself within an hour after being talked to by a deputy sheriff about the mailbox vandalism. Charlotte, the daughter of Edward G. Hinton of Metamora and Mrs. Ralph J. Bowen of 66 Goldengate, was (Continued on Page 2, Col. 7)

DAMAGE REPORTS

Damages in that area were reported by:

- Thomas Variety Store, 3345 Auburn, a $500 glass sign;
- Auburn Road Sales & Service, 1416 Auburn, a plate glass window valued at $300;
- Lloyd's Gulf Service, 1010 Auburn, a large window valued at $100;
- Malone's Mobile Service, 991 W. Auburn, two windows valued at $200;
- The $125 windshield of an automobile parked not far from where the youths were arrested.

Deputies said they also found a quantity of mail scattered across Grey Road in Avon Township where several mailboxes had been knocked over.

Red Chinese Walk Out at Russian Fete

MOSCOW (AP) — Communist Chinese diplomats walked out of the Bolshhevik Revolution celebration in Red Square today after the Soviet defense minister charged Peking with obstructing Communist aid efforts to North Viet Nam.

It was the second Chinese walkout in less than 24 hours.

NO NEW FEUD

Nixon said the move "impaired the integrity of the office of secretary of defense."

Johnson, questioned by reporters in Texas, refused to renew his feud with the former vice president.

Observers and polls have cited a close contest for the Senate between Griffin, 42, a former five-term congressman, and Williams, one of the state's most popular politicians in decades.

AFTERMATH OF FLOOD—Overturnd and upended automobiles lie in the street in downtown Florence, Italy, yesterday after a two-day torrential downpour sent the Arno River out of its banks. Water, to a depth of 10 feet, swept the streets, causing untold damage to buildings and art treasures. (See story, Page A-7.)

Banks, Offices Closed Tuesday

Banks and city and county offices will be closed tomorrow, election day. Most businesses will keep normal hours.

Community National Bank, Pontiac State Bank, First Federal Savings and Loan, and Capitol Savings and Loan Association will resume normal hours Wednesday.

After Fierce Fight

Cong Unit Eludes Pursuing GIs

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — A large Viet Cong force eluded pursuing U.S. infantrymen today, slipping away through the dense jungle of Tay Ninh Province near the Cambodian border after inflicting heavy casualties on some U.S. units over the weekend in one of the fiercest fights of the war.

About 200 South Vietnamese militia, aided by accurate artillery support, beat off an unusual daylight attack by 400 to 500 Communists on a government post 12 miles southeast of Quang Ngai, on the central coast. A scene said there had been only one isolated sniper fire during the day.

Three new operations were announced, two by American forces and one by several South Vietnamese battalions.

5 Face Exams on Gambling

Five persons arrested Saturday on raids on alleged gambling operations by Oakland County Grand Jury investigators face preliminary court examinations Nov. 17.

The hearings are scheduled before Novi Justice of the Peace Emory Jacques.

Grand Jury officials identified those arrested in the raids in Hazel Park as Roy L. Clark, his wife, Anna Lois, of 20809 John R.; George Herman Clark, 407 W. Muir; Donna Coultis, 1977 Blake, Detroit; and Sebastian DeVito of Phoenix, Ariz.

The five, released on $1,000 bond each following their arraignment, are charged with conspiracy to violate state gambling laws.

The warrants for their arrests were signed by one-man Grand Juror Philip Pratt, who is conducting his second grand jury probe. The present investigation was launched in August to investigate alleged criminal activities surrounding the Hazel Park Race Track.

Saturday's raids were conducted about an hour before post time at the Detroit Race Course, Livonia. It was the last day of the racing season at the track.

Meeting Is Set Ahead Because of Tuesday Vote

The City Commission will hold its regular weekly meeting tonight.

The commission normally meets at 8 p.m. on Tuesday, but the meeting has been rescheduled because of tomorrow's election.

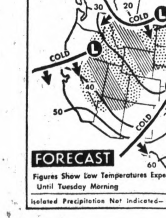

Among the items up for consideration tonight will be the presentation of an offer from Motor Freight Realty Co. to deed to the city a tract of land at the northeast corner of Jesse and Elm.

City officials report that this tract of land is the site of some dilapidated buildings.

The city is to acquire the land and demolish the buildings.

Area Contractor on Water Well Drillers Board

Gov. Romney has appointed Severn H. Nijedjelski, a Pontiac Township water well driller contractor, to the Advisory Board for Registration of Water Well Drillers.

Nijedjelski, of 2372 Dexter, is slated to succeed Glenn Miller of Brighton who resigned. The term expires March 30, 1969.

Senate confirmation of the appointment is required.

Nijedjelski has been a director of the Michigan Water Well Drillers Association.

2nd Funeral Is Held in Area Tragedy

buried Friday from Allen's Funeral Home in Lake Orion.

The mailboxes were defaced in the area just south of the Village of Lake Orion.

Neighbors near the Howes reported several such incidents occurring over a period of time.

The area is one of wide lawns long driveways and homes ranging from nearly new to aged.

Highly Regarded

The Howes house sits on top of a knoll — its pin nestled visible in the new gray paint job and the new garage, only recently completed where Howes' body was found slumped over the wheel of his car.

The Howes family is spoken of with high regard by residents of the area.

One 26-year-old resident said that while the Howes had lived there over the past 10 or 12 years the neighbors had never once found reason to complain.

"Why Mrs. Howes used to bring us fruit," said the elderly parents of a retarded son.

Authorities now say that the Hinton girl, who lived perhaps a half mile away, had often threatened to kill herself in the past. She was classed as an average student at Lake Orion Community High School by family friends.

Commerce Hunter, 14, Is Killed

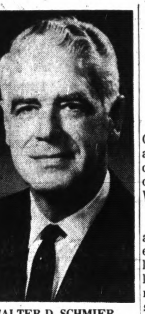

A weekend hunting accident claimed the life of a 14-year-old Commerce Township youth, shot in the chest with the gun of his best friend.

James H. Lange, son of Mrs. William Splan of 9509 Listeria and Herman Lange of 9209 Mandan, White Lake Township, died almost instantly Saturday afternoon after being struck by a single blast from a 20-gauge shotgun.

The Lange youth was pronounced dead at the scene of the mishap shortly before 5 p.m.

Hazen said Litzau told detectives he and Lange had seen each other "almost every day for two years," and were "best friends."

Oakland County sheriff's Capt. Leo R. Hazen said the victim's companion — Gary L. Litzau, 16, of 3265 Cheona, Commerce Township — told investigators the accident occurred while the two boys were hunting in a swampy

WALTER D. SCHMIER

Ex-Assistant to Bronson in Sticker Race

An assistant prosecutor who was fired when he decided to seek nomination for Circuit Court judge in the August primary election announced today he is running as a sticker candidate for a short term on the bench.

Walter D. Schmier, 58, said that he has distributed "several thousand" name stickers to be used in tomorrow's general election.

The post will be won by the attorney who receives the most write-in or sticker votes. No name appears on the ballot for the short term since no one filed nominating petitions for it.

The short term resulted from the death of Judge Stanton G. Dondero, and runs to Dec. 31.

Schmier of 8577 Hendrie, Huntington Woods, was dismissed in March by Oakland County Prosecutor S. Jerome Bronson, when Schmier announced he was a candidate.

Bronson, too, was a candidate, and successful in winning one of the six nominations to fill three full Circuit Court terms to be decided tomorrow.

Schmier, who today entered private practice with the Waterford Township law firm of Smith and Magnuson, finished eighth among the 22 candidates in the primary.

LBJ Plans Tied to New House

WASHINGTON (AP) — The future of President Johnson's "Great Society" could be largely determined Tuesday when voters select a new House of Representatives.

Although Democrats appear certain to retain control of the House, it seems equally certain the big majority that enabled Johnson to launch his far-reaching domestic program will be reduced.

The question, which can't be answered until the polls close, is how much?

On election eve, Democratic and Republican strategists, in separate assessments of House races, are in near agreement that Republicans stand to gain between 25 and 30 seats. They had 140 seats to the Democrats' 295 in the 89th Congress.

RELAYS ASSESSMENT

Johnson refused Sunday to predict election results, but passed along the assessment of Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien that Democrats would lose fewer than 40 House seats — the 32-year average loss in off-year elections for the party in power.

But there is an uneasiness among some Democrats and a bubbling hope in Republicans that the GOP pickup could be greater.

Hunt Continues at Saginaw Bay for Area Man

The search continued today along southern Saginaw Bay for a 43-year-old, Waterford Township duck hunter.

Coast Guardsmen and State Police are looking for Gerald Stinson, 2093 Briggs, who has School swimming pool last not been seen since Wednesday night, causing an estimated $2,000 damage.

Officials from the city's department of parks and recreation said broken glass in the pool area forced cancellation of a swimming program scheduled for tonight.

His boat, containing a few decoys and his shotgun, was found Thursday afternoon about a mile south of where his car was parked.

Birmingham Area News

Traffic Problem Will Be Aired

BIRMINGHAM — The City Commission tonight will be asked to consider the problem of what home owners call "excessive volume" of traffic on Willets.

In a letter to the commission, a spokesman for the home owners said the traffic is "excessive" and that the problem is aggravated by the narrow width of the street and its steep hills and sharp curves.

Residents say, these factors create safety hazards, the noise of squealing tires and loss of residential amenities.

Home owners are reportedly prevented from backing out of their driveways by congestion at the intersection of Chester and Willets.

They suggest several solutions including closing Willets any quarter mile over a five-year period for land acquisition, establishment of 15 to 20 recreation areas and their operation.

Passage of this proposal would mean an added yearly tax of about $1.50 for the average residential property owner. A total of $2.5 million in local taxes would be raised in five years.

State and federal matching funds, up to $3 for each $1 in county taxes, is anticipated for land acquisition if the tax wins voter support.

Hit-Run Crash Injures Man

A Southfield man is listed in serious condition at Pontiac General Hospital following a hit-run collision last night at a Pontiac intersection.

Henry G. Souter, 58, was injured, according to Pontiac police, when his automobile was struck by a car which ran a red light at the intersection of Montclair and Glenwood about 6:25 p.m.

Witnesses told police the second automobile stopped while the driver exchanged places with a passenger, then started up again.

When the car stalled a short distance from the corner, police were told, both persons jumped from the automobile and fled.

Police said they had traced the registration of the hit-run vehicle, but have been unable to locate the owner.

Gov. Romney has appointed Severn H. Nijedjelski, a Pontiac Township water well driller contractor, to the Advisory Board for Registration of Water Well Drillers.

Man Hospitalized After City Crash

Injured in a car-pickup truck collision, a Pontiac man is listed in satisfactory condition today at Pontiac General Hospital.

Melbourne L. Westover, 68, of Melrose, was the driver of a car which collided Saturday with a pickup truck driven by John S. Parr, 47, of 2859 St. Joseph, West Bloomfield Township.

Pontiac police said the accident occurred about 5:45 p.m. Westover entered North Perry from a supermarket driveway near Oliver Street.

A weekend hunting accident claimed the life of a 14-year-old Commerce Township youth, shot in the chest with the gun of his best friend.

"MODERATE VOLUMES" In a report on the situation, Police Chief R. E. Mosley said that traffic counts taken recently showed "moderate traffic volumes" for this type of residential street. He said it is normal for a street located adjacent to a business district.

He did say, however, that he was concerned about the speed of vehicles there and that speed limit signs will be posted and additional radar enforcement effort applied.

Stag Party Raid in Flint Brings Arrest of 161

FLINT (AP)—State and city police said they arrested 161 persons after a raid on a stag party at a Veterans of Foreign Wars hall near here Sunday.

Four were charged with felonies and 157 were charged with frequenting a gambling establishment.

Officers said liquor, gambling equipment, books and a movie film were confiscated.

Police said Harold Morrison, 38, and Elmer Timm, 41, were charged with violating state liquor laws; Earl Hammond, 46, and Robert Arnold, 45, were charged with maintaining and operating a gambling place. Arnold also was charged with carrying a concealed weapon.

They were held, officers said, while the others were freed on $20 bonds.

Hearings Set

WASHINGTON (AP)—Public hearings have been set for Nov. 14 in Cleveland and Nov. 15 in St. Louis on federal milk marketing orders affecting Michigan. The southern and upstate portions of Michigan will be covered by the Cleveland hearing and the Upper Peninsula will be covered by the St. Louis hearing. The hearings will be on fluid milk prices to be established for the December-June period.

ning for reelection, picked up the campaign cudgel for Gov. George Romney, who rested at home, and Sen. Robert P. Griffin, who celebrated his 43rd birthday. Milliken campaigned door-to-door in the Detroit suburb of Oak Park.

"Our party will make strong inroads in the Legislature and Congress," Milliken predicted. "But we are not taking anything for granted."

Williams, recovered from laryngitis which kept him on the sidelines for three days, dedicated the new John F. Kennedy High School in Warren. Williams attended a pizza party, then campaigned in St. Clair Shores, Utica, Birmingham and Detroit.

"LASTING PEACE"

Williams, running for the U.S. Senate against Griffin, told a statewide television audience Sunday night the two central issues of contemporary times are "How to achieve a true and lasting peace in the world and how to maintain a sound and prosperous economy that avoids both recession and runaway inflation."

The former six-term Michigan governor said, "Certainly an honorable end to the war in Vietnam is the most urgent matter before us."

"The President of the United States—as demonstrated by his recent peace mission to the Far East—is making every effort to achieve this goal," he said. "And all Americans—regardless of party—should support him in this effort."

Williams said that "until that time comes, we must maintain the military pressure that will bring our enemy in Vietnam to the conference table."

"ONLY THEN"

"Then, and only then, will the enormous productive capacity of our great nation be fully unleashed to provide an abundant life for all Americans."

Griffin was treated to a birthday party by his staff, then issued a statement on his proposed program if elected Tuesday.

law enforcement agencies in their endless war against crime and violence, and which will aid both the victims of crime and the good Samaritans who give them assistance."

TAX REFORM

Griffin said he would press for tax reform, including "an increase in the $600 tax exemption which the American taxpayers are allowed for every dependent."

He also advocated tax relief for parents of college-age children, tax relief for teachers furthering their education and establishment of a nationwide system of community colleges.

Meanwhile, Ferency said a recent poll indicating he would take less than 60 per cent of the Negro vote was inaccurate.

"We're going to get a higher percentage of the vote than the polls indicate," Ferency told a Negro audience. "Not only will Negroes but from retirees, union members, ethnic groups and for his home in Traverse City."

New Officials Face Long Wait

By HUDSON WILLIS
Once again, there will be a five-month interval between election and inauguration for Michigan's victorious township candidates. For new officials, it means a waiting period from Nov. 8 to April 10.

1-Party Control Is in Evidence

Talk about one-party politics in the South! How about western Oakland County?
Forty-three township office seekers on tomorrow's election ballots are unopposed, providing a distinct one-party flavor to local races.

The fortunate 43 include eight supervisors — the top administrative job in township government. In addition there is a flock of unopposed aspirants (beyond the 43) for lesser jobs on local boards or commissions.

In five area townships — Bloomfield, Novi, Rose, Springfield and Lyon, 80 percent of the township offices are unopposed.

Voters in 21 area townships go to the polls tomorrow to fill local, state and county posts.

LOCAL ISSUES
In some areas, the balloting will also include local ballot propositions. Voters in the cities of Bloomfield Hills, and Farmington, and the townships of Oxford, Shelby, Highland and Novi have local ballot proposals. Polls will open at 7 a.m. and remain open until 8 p.m.

Sewer Tie-Up Break Eyed at Hearing

LAKE ORION — Lake Orion officials looked hopefully toward today's scheduled Circuit Court hearing regarding pollution of Paint Creek as the means of breaking a deadlock regarding village sewers.

The village three months ago was ordered to present at today's hearing construction plans and a schedule of financing for a $1.4-million sewer system.

Nothing has been done along those lines, according to village attorney Robert Parenti, because the village has found itself caught in a round robin of legal red tape.

About the only way to break loose, he feels, is with the help of outside financing.

Litigation by homeowners who claim they do not want an expensive sewer system which would reportedly serve only half the village has stopped any efforts to sell bonds.

The home owners have said they won't drop their suit until federal help is obtained.

Meanwhile an order from the State Water Resources Commission to get started on cleanup sits and waits.

State's Road Toll at 16 for Weekend

By the Associated Press
Two accidents claimed a total of five lives as 16 persons died in mishaps on Michigan highways over the weekend.

The victims:
Mrs. Sidney Richards, 46, of Toledo, Ohio, when the car driven by her husband turned into the path of an auto Sunday night on U.S. 24, a half mile north of the Michigan-Ohio line.

Stanley Bugaiski, 61, of Detroit, in a two-car crash in St. Clair County Sunday.

William Benson Gardner, 53, of Caro, when his car ran off M24 in Tuscola County and struck a utility pole Saturday.

GENESEE FATAL
Robert James Babcock, 18, of Millington, when the car inquently, are lame ducks for almost one-half year.

This interim period stretches out to eight months for incumbents beaten in the Aug. 2 primary.

And there are more than a few of these eight-month lame ducks scattered around the state this year, claim state election officials.

Officers from most of Michigan's 1,200 townships favor a change in the existing setup which dates back to adoption in 1953 of a new state constitution which eliminated spring elections.

Prior to November 1964, Michigan townships held their elections the first Monday in April. Those elected to office, quite appropriately, assumed office within 10 days after the election.

Following the November 1964 election, victorious township candidates wandered around the state this year, claim state election officials.

Would the old statute which set the swearing-in ceremony within 10 days after the election still be in effect? Or would they take over in April as in the past?

The Michigan Legislature found it necessary to pass a special act early last year, specifying that terms for township officials would begin April 10 for 1965 only.

1966 LAW
This year, another law was passed setting April 10 as inauguration day for township officials until further notice.

Under provisions of the constitution, terms of office can be lengthened, but not shortened.

Therefore, this is the only solution to lessening the gap between election and inauguration.

It would require legislation which, quite possibly, could be enacted prior to the November 1968 election.

April 10 seems remote compared with inauguration dates for state legislators (Jan. 1), congressmen (Jan. 3) and the president (Jan. 20).

However, prior to 1933 when the 26th amendment to the U.S. Constitution was adopted, the president didn't take office until March 4.

Franklin D. Roosevelt was the last president to take office in March (1933) and the first to be inaugurated in January (1937).

The March 4 date was considered sufficient when the country was slower and less advanced, but an inconvenience in the bustling 20th Century.

CHANGE NEEDED
Likewise, change is needed in Michigan townships today.

Also mentioned prominently in township reform is lengthening from two to four years the terms of office of supervisors, treasurers and clerks.

This would also require new legislation.

Cocoa beans, source of chocolate and cocoa, come from the pods of the cocoa tree, an evergreen cultivated mainly within 20 degrees north or south of the equator.

which he was riding struck another vehicle from behind Saturday on M54 in Genesee County.

Elsie Mary Selling, 51, and Velma Louise McBride, 39, both of Pontiac, when their car was involved in a three-vehicle accident Saturday in Clinton Township of Macomb County.

Glen Allen McCracken Jr., 18, of near Bad Axe, when his car collided with another on M53 near Bad Axe Saturday.

Pauline Young, 31, of Almont, when her car was struck broadside at a Warren intersection Saturday.

DETROIT CRASH
Harvey Campeau, 70, of Detroit, in a two-car collision Saturday at a Detroit intersection.

Robert E. Eason, 26, of Pontiac, when struck by a car Saturday on a road in Waterford Township of Oakland County.

Glen D. Piat, 60, of Pontiac, when his auto hit a sign post Saturday on a Bloomfield Township road.

James Noah, 37, of Suttons Bay, when the car in which he was a passenger skidded on icy pavement and crashed into a tree Friday along M37, 10 miles south of Traverse City.

Mayer said some merchants were afraid of the long wait involved in federal aid and that a retail merchants' association fund pool is being considered.

DETROIT (AP) — Officials at Seaway Hospital in nearby Trenton reported Sunday that Joseph W. Buckwalter, 44, was in satisfactory condition after making an emergency landing of a small airplane Saturday night. Buckwalter landed the twin-engine Cessna in the backyard of a house near Belleville after the aircraft ran out of fuel near Detroit Metropolitan Airport on a flight from Sharon, Pa.

From Oakland Township, Low Whims, 1729 Buell, was awarded sixth prize for his senior Angus calf; his brother, Mark, took 17th place out of 40 for his summer yearling Angus.

Lapeer Seeks to Boost Police

LAPEER COUNTY — An attempt to meet the growing demand for additional law enforcement within the structure of the county budget is soon to be launched by the Lapeer County Sheriff's Department.

A field of applicants for the nonpaid, voluntary position of reserve officer is now being narrowed to seven, according to Sheriff Kenneth Parks.

The reserves, he said, will work a regular night-time weekend shift, riding with a deputy in a patrol car.

Parks says he has 14 men on the regular county force and it's not enough.

"The men have been on single patrol duty at night and this is neither safe nor smart," he reported.

WEEKEND DUTY

Reserves, who will be equipped with uniforms and guns from a reserve fund, will ride the patrol cars on Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights.

The seven-man reserve unit will allow assignment of two men each night with an extra on hand for substitution duty.

The department now has a force of about ten special deputies which Parks said he is able to call in on emergency, but that they are not able to work a regular shift.

He said the area citizens' band radio group has also helped out a great deal in emergency, but not on a regular basis.

PTA Will Mark Education Week

WALLED LAKE — As part of National Education Week, the Clifford Smart Junior High School PTA will present a panel discussion entitled "School and Community Services" at 8 p.m. Thursday.

Parents are invited to visit classrooms anytime during National Education Week which lasts through Saturday. They are asked to register first at the school office.

To raise money for the uniforms and equipment, estimated at $150 a man, a dance is scheduled Nov. 26 at the Imlay City Legion Hall. The department hopes to raise $1,000.

Ruling Due Nov. 15 on Incorporation

NOVI — The legality of incorporating the village as a home rule city will be ruled on in Oakland County Circuit Court Nov. 15.

Village officials have been waiting for a ruling before acting on petitions seeking a referendum on incorporation.

The court is to rule on Novi's legal right to incorporate as a home rule city. It was previously ruled the village did not meet the state statute provision requiring 500 persons per square mile to incorporate.

A village committee of citizens is hoping for a ruling that an incorporated entity, such as Novi, is exempt from this provision.

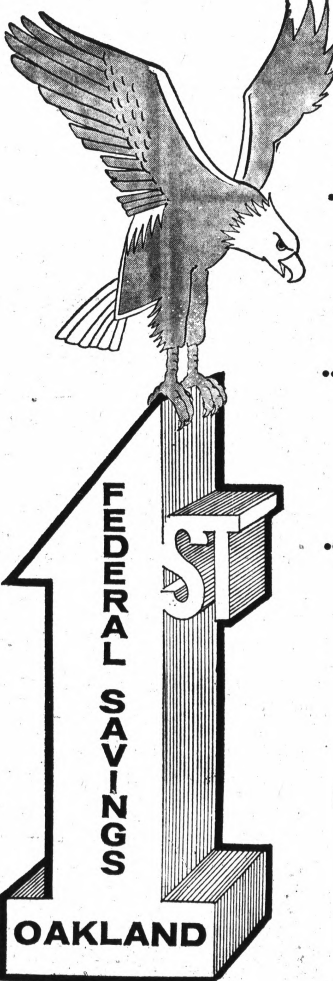

If the court approves the incorporation, the village council will take action Dec. 5 on the petitions for a vote.

If the village does incorporate it would absorb nearly the entire township surrounding it, according to village officials. Novi Township officials have said they would fight any attempt to incorporate.

Only 2 per cent of the township's land area that is not separate from the village would remain outside city control according to current plans.

At the village council meeting tonight, Village Manager Harold Ackley is to report on a recent meeting with the Water Resources Commission.

He said the village was cited for failure to control water pollution. This involved one drain on Grand River, he said, which village officials agreed to take care of within a year.

Junior Editors Quiz on LASER BEAM

QUESTION: Why is a laser beam so strong? —

ANSWER: We have had many amazing scientific inventions over the last few years. The laser is one of the most remarkable.

Think of a beam of light from the sun. In it are all kinds of colors, each vibrating at a different frequency or wave length (1).

These color waves, going in different directions, are interfering with each other, reducing each other's strength. In (2), ordinary light (white arrows) is introduced into a laser, a solid red crystal tube with mirrors at each end. Red rays bounce around inside the tube.

At first they go in all directions. But they finally straighten out so they are in step with each other, going in the same direction.

When enough have accumulated, they burst out of the tube in a beam which is small but enormously bright and powerful because the rays in it are coherent, all moving in the same direction.

Such beams do not spread out but remain concentrated. They have such power they might be able to destroy missiles or enemy planes. This wonder tool is being tested for use in communications and to fight disease.

FOR YOU TO DO: Keep a sharp eye open for mention of lasers in your newspaper, for this is where news about up-to-date things is sure to appear.

Officials Still Wary of Space Work Duplication

By Science Service
WASHINGTON — Under the shadow of the Air Force's spectacular success on the way to a long-term home for military men in orbit, high administration planners are worrying that two of the government's most powerful agencies still seem to be rocketing toward the same expensive goal in space.

The USAF Manned Orbiting Laboratory (MOL) and the National Aeronautics and Space Administration's (NASA) wide-ranging Apollo Extension Systems (AES) program have been battling it out for funds since December 1964, when Congress held up both projects while it tried to decide whether it was paying twice for the same merchandise.

Four years later, with fiscal 1968 budgets in the works, sharp eyes still scrutinize every little proposal for fear of duplication.

A space shot last week was one of the most elaborate in U.S. space history. Once in space, the Titan IIIC burned out and ejected an unmanned Gemini capsule, then restarted, burned out again, restarted again, went into orbit and ejected three satellites.

The MOL shot, and future shots, however, have an assist from the Gemini program. It was a NASA Gemini that was rammed down through the atmosphere to test the effect of air friction on a new heat shield. The shield was equipped with a trap door to allow astronaut crews riding Gemini spacecraft up from earth to enter the MOL.

Britain Eying an Animal Code

By Science Service
LONDON — The British government has announced plans to set up animal care standards for farmers aimed at preventing unnecessary suffering of livestock.

Existing legislation does not sufficiently safeguard the welfare of livestock, according to the Minister of Agriculture, who said new legislation will be introduced giving the government power to prescribe "codes of docking of pigs' tails practice" and to inspect animal farms.

No penalties will be included in the legislation, but non-compliance with codes could be used in evidence against any farmer accused of causing unnecessary suffering.

The codes are directed at half-farmer the practice of debeaking poultry; setting up minimum floor space standards for birds; introducing the government power to prescribe "codes of docking of pigs' tails

It Seems to Me:

Choose Romney and Griffin, Keep Michigan On the Move

Michigan faces many sharp races tomorrow, but Governor and Senator command the greatest interest.

Few doubt the outcome of the contest for Governor. Two years ago, Republican Governor ROMNEY carried this great commonwealth by 400,000 as Democratic President JOHNSON swept the same precincts by a million. This marked one of the greatest demonstrations of splitting ballots in the history of the nation.

Michiganders wanted Johnson over Goldwater. Make no mistake about that. The voters united. But they were also determined to have businessman Romney continue at the State's helm. He had brought order after more than a dozen years of financial chaos, confusion and inept management on the part of the Democrats.

The blame for the bulk of this dismal showing rested on the shoulders of G. Mennen Williams who rattled around in the gubernatorial chair for 12 of the 14 horrible years of financial nightmare. Businessman ROMNEY stepped into office with a staggering deficit staring him in the face, but today the State is solvent and we haven't heard of a payless payday since "SOAPY" departed. Governor ROMNEY is an odds-on choice. He has the ability, and the business training backed by a fine standing across the nation.

ROMNEY's the man by miles.

The question of U. S. Senator brings G. Mennen Williams against Robert P. Griffin.

The Pontiac Press feels Griffin will definitely contribute the most to Michigan. He has no stigma of past failures but enjoys a fine reputation as a "poor man" who fought his way to the top by sheer determination and ability. His opponent is a child of inherited wealth and while this is no disgrace, he has never been compelled to succeed personally in the ruthless marts of competitive trade.

When Governor WILLIAMS left Michigan, his associates expected him to land a choice appointive political plum, but it never materialized. Apparently, he was found wanting by his Democratic superiors who shunted him off to Africa.

Senator GRIFFIN is "self-made" in every sense. He worked from earliest childhood and was actually employed right here in Pontiac along the assembly line at one time. Pontiac and Oakland County can take a personal pride in his fine rise to success and splendid achievements. He knows about the problems of the workingman firsthand. And, he isn't clutched in the tightly closed palms of smiling labor leaders who can chuck him in their vest pocket and leave him there.

The Landrum-Griffin act bears his name and is virtually a "bill of rights" for the workingman, protecting him against possible injustices within and outside of a union. The original draft was sponsored by the late President KENNEDY when he was in the Senate.

At the outset, former Governor Williams figured he was a "shoo-in," and many of his associates and some of the opposition went along with this. But this picture has changed daily. As the lines became more clearly drawn, popular sentiment edged perceptibly towards Griffin until polls show him out in front. This race is attracting nationwide attention.

The Press indicated political choices Friday, tapping both Republicans and Democrats. But the top struggle is for the Senate and the Governorship.

The men are miles apart. Help your own State progress. Governor Romney and Senator Griffin are the outstanding choices.

Language Shortcut . . . .

An authority declares these are the nine words that encompass one fourth of all that we say or write:

And, be, have, it, of, the, will, I and you.

I believe "I" tops the nine stand-bys.

Then, says the same authority, add thirty-four more and you can account for one half of our normal usage.

And here they are:

About, all, as, at, but, can, come, day, dear, for, get, go, hear, her, if, in, me, much, not, no, one, say, she, so, that, there, they, this, time, though, we, with, write and you.

In other words, if your foreign pal learns these 43 words, he or she is "well on the road to learnin'."

And in Conclusion . . . .

Jottings from the well-thumbed notebook of your peripatetic reporter:

Chicago's post office has been so badly bogged down by a nine day's accumulation of third class mail, there has been a move to dump the whole thing. . . . . A British airline was making overtures to a U.S. firm for $100 million in new planes, but their government stepped in and flatly said "no." . . . . AP figures to use about 100,000 reporters in tomorrow's election.

President Disability Plan Weak

WASHINGTON—Every time a president gets sick or goes to the hospital for an operation, people become worried about what may happen if he were to be incapacitated for any length of time.

The American presidential system in this respect is plainly inadequate.

Although warning signals have often been given, nothing has been done to accomplish a satisfactory transition of presidential power whether it be one day or week or month or longer.

A constitutional amendment which now is pending, and which needs ratification by seven more states for adoption, deals with situations arising from temporary disability, but the plan projects a vice president suddenly into the executive power when he really isn't thoroughly familiar with the confidential documents and background relating to all the important problems which will face him immediately.

In contrast, the British and Canadian parliamentary systems take care of any similar emergencies because the Cabinet — and not one man — is responsible to the Country.

Inside the Cabinet, every member is familiar with the day-by-day operations of the government, and an acting prime minister can take over in a few minutes. This maintains public confidence and assures absolute continuity until such time as an election may provide a change of leadership or party.

Under the American system, the vice president has duties that are largely ceremonial or political. He is supposed to preside over the Senate, and does so infrequently. He may attend Cabinet sessions but, under Presidents Kennedy and Johnson, these meetings have been held only occasionally.

How can a vice president suddenly assume the duties of a president and acquire overnight an intimate knowledge of every important question on which a decision has to be made?

lenging ideas some time back. . . . . London planes are stepping up free flights for heavy gamblers leaving New York. . . . . Dept. of Cheers and Jeers: The C's — the workers and givers to the UF; the J's — the mugwumps responsible for stating the Detroit fluoride proposition in reverse so you have to vote "no," to mean "yes." — HAROLD A. FITZGERALD

In a nuclear age, action might have to be taken within minutes or hours, and it is not possible to familiarize anybody with the essentials of crucial matters in such a brief time.

Even apart from the problem of how to handle the transfer of presidential power in case of a long or short illness of the chief executive, a serious and unresolved question is whether any one man should ever wield the powers that a president of the United States does today.

If, instead, 10 of the best qualified men in the country within the president's party were chosen for the Cabinet and were not bogged down with administrative duties, the chief executive would have at his side constantly a group of advisors, well-informed on national policies.

The need for more attention to this reform is being demonstrated again today.

Racing Expert Whitney Picks the Perfect Horse

NEW YORK — Upon the occasion of his being awarded a plaque for paintings he and his gifted wife had done to raise some needed money for the Edward R. Murrow Foundation of the Overseas Press Club, I asked Cornelius Vanderbilt Whitney a completely irrelevant question.

"You've been in racing since you could walk," I said with the breezy inquisitiveness that has made me a toast of two continents — Antarctica and Atlantis.

"If you could pick one horse you would have wanted to own above all others, one horse that could fulfill everything an owner looks for — speed, endurance, ability to carry weight — which one would you have chosen?"

"I happened to have owned the horse," he said. "His name was Equipoise, by Pennant out of Swinging who was by Balance."

"My father, who died when Equipoise was in his first racing year, named him Equipoise from the grand sire, as you can see."

"No one can ever compute what Equipoise might have won if he were running today, with the big purses available. I doubt if he won a quarter of a million dollars over his entire career."

"Equipoise had that inflexible something that no computer will ever be able to discern: The competitive spirit. Horses have it just as humans do."

"Equipoise couldn't bear the thought of another horse passing him in a race. He was disquieted on several occasions for biting into the neck of a horse that tried to pass him."

"Sonny Workman, who rode him, was perfect for Equipoise. Sonny couldn't bear to be beaten either. They made a great team."

He became the greatest rider in the United States and probably the world.

He became a very rich man, and by all odds was the hero of our neighborhood when, in the first flush of his success, he drove up in a mighty Chrysler 80.

The Pembroke (Mass.) Silver Lake News

Fiscal Spending

The Holland Evening Sentinel

In the item headed "Governments Spent Nearly $200 Billion," the Tax Foundation, Inc., estimated government spending totaled $219,500,000 in the fiscal year ending June 30. The increase is about $13 billion over the previous year.

Federal spending of $137.8 billion accounted for slightly more than half of the increase. Total state spending was estimated at $38.2 billion and local government spending at $43.5 billion. Total government spending has increased each year since

Disapproves Union Goal of 1967 Wage Increases

Reuther called the price raise on '67 automobiles "scandalous and outrageous." Anyone who can afford a new car certainly won't be hurt by such a minute increase which is the first since '59.

In the next column of the Union newspaper was stated "67 Goal; Substantial Pay Raises for All!" I feel GM employees are already costing the company twice as much as they're worth, considering fringe benefits and wages.

Add up the price of LBJ's "Great Giveaway," and the Unions' increasing demands and what do you have? Skyrocketing inflation. To heck with raising pay! I'm satisfied.

'Downtown Needs Are Overemphasized'

Pontiac should plan how to keep people from moving out of the City. The development of housing should be in hand with the Taubman proposal. We overemphasize the priority of downtown needs while needs of the City are ignored. Now is the time for citizens to begin having their say in government plans intended to upgrade all parts of the City.

Pontiac should think about reevaluating some of the City codes which have discouraged contractors from coming into the City to help develop a very progressive, and beautiful community.

The Pontiac Police force is asking for a raise. It's about time. In some cities, militant forces have succeeded in creating riots and insurrection but they failed in Pontiac.

A writer asked why Ken Morris is so interested in City affairs when he lives in Troy. Mr. Morris holds high office in the UAW. He represents 31,600 union members in the three GM plants in Pontiac.

It is apparent the writer has not had to find housing in this locality. If he had, he would know what Mr. Morris is working toward. Oddly enough, his address is not Pontiac, either.

Reviewing Other Editorial Pages

1955 and is now almost exactly double the $110 billion total of that year, Tax Foundation said.

Compared with a growing population, government spending in the past year equalled $126 for every individual in the USA. In 1955 the total was equal to $677 per person.

The inflation factor in government costs—the decline in the purchasing power of the dollar since 1955 for the goods and services governments buy—would account for about 30 per cent of the nearly 100 per cent increase in total government spending in the period.

Epidemic Feared in Wake of Italian Floods

FLORENCE, Italy (AP) — Helped by clearing weather, and driven by fear of epidemic, a massive Italian-American rescue force worked today to pull a third of Italy from the chaos and misery of the nation's worst flood disaster.

More than 150 bodies were reported recovered and the estimated death toll went to 300. It was feared that the final count would be far greater.

Three days after the first floods and landslides struck in central and northeast Italy, rescue teams still had not reached all of the hundreds of stricken and isolated communities.

American military bases in the country sent men and machines to join Italian soldiers, police and civilian volunteers in a rescue force of 250,000.

The Weather Bureau reported rain, clouds and fog were generally diminishing. But the situation was still tense along sections of the Adige River in mountainous northern Trento Province and in the lowlands of the Po Delta.

Throughout the stricken area, from south of Florence to Venice, water contamination and hundreds of thousands of drowned livestock increased the danger of epidemics.

Belluno, north of Venice, reported an outbreak of measles. Officials feared typhoid. Army teams went into hardest hit areas to destroy animal carcasses with flamethrowers.

In mountain towns and villages in neighboring east Austria, an estimated 23 persons were dead after four days of blizzards and torrential rains.

Upstream river levels fell in Italy as billions of gallons of water from heavy rains and rampaging floods rushed seaward. That steadily raised the levels downstream.

Workers toiled through the earth levees at the mouths of the Piave River north of Venice and the Po, Adige and Brenta Rivers south of Venice.

Water spilled over reinforced embankments at new places in the broad Po Delta but the main current emptied into the Adriatic. Thousands were evacuated as a precaution from homes at San Dona, near the Piave's mouth, and at Porto Tolle, in the Po Delta.

Florence and Venice, mud-stained and thick with debris from waters that had swirled 10 feet deep for hours, tried to achieve a semblance of normal life through relief and cleanup operations.

Prof. Ugo Procacci, superintendent of Florence's art galleries and museums, said the most serious damage to Renaissance art treasures was in the Basilica of Santa Croce. Among the damaged works was a painting of Christ, by Cimabue, the 13th century painter.

Short Subjects About the Hollywood Set

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer
HOLLYWOOD — Around the lots: As with all oversized epics, "Hawaii" is getting a trim after its premiere — 15 minutes of excess footage is to be cut. Viet Nam GIs: Phyllis Diller.

Why, oh why don't the film companies bring their blockbusters down of size before opening and thus save the slings and arrows of benumbed critics? But he'll be taking some other charmers along, too. Bob writes of last year's companions in "Five Women I Love," his hard-cover tribute to the girls who gave up their Christmases to bring cheer to servicemen in Viet Nam.

Diller is hitting the personal appearance trail to plug her own new tome, "Phyllis Diller's Housekeeping Hints." Among them: "Don't taste food while you're cooking it — you may lose your nerve to serve it." "Never serve meals on time — the starving eat anything."

Savage Wave Not a Freak

By Science Service
SUITLAND, Md. — A huge, "freak" wave that severely damaged an Italian ocean liner last April, tearing apart heavy steel structures and killing three people, was not a freak at all, a U.S. Naval oceanographer has reported.

Waves were averaging about 30 feet high and coming every 12 seconds or so, said Dr. Richard W. James of the Navy's Oceanographic Office here — certainly rough seas, but not a full-blown storm.

The wave that did the damage was more than twice as high as the average.

In inundated the entire forward half of the ship, peeled back some steel flaring on the bow and broke windows high above on the bridge. Yet the chances of such a wave appearing were predictable, said Dr. James, and it could have been avoided.

If 1,000 waves pass a ship, he said, there is a chance in 20 that one of them will be 2.2 times taller than the average. This means that the Michelangelo faced a wave more than 66 feet high. In fact, the broken bridge windows were 81 feet above the waterline.

Vietnam Robert Vaughn displays courage off the "U.N.C.L.E." set as well. He is introducing Sen. Wayne Morse at a meeting in Santa Ana, heartland of California conservatism. The Oregon Democrat is a houseguest.

"The Taming of the Shrew," Pickford-Fairbanks style, proved a delightful excursion into film history, if dubious Shakespeare. Only fragments of the Bard's lines remained in the 1929 movie, but the mugging is brilliant. Both Mary and Doug demonstrate why they were stars.

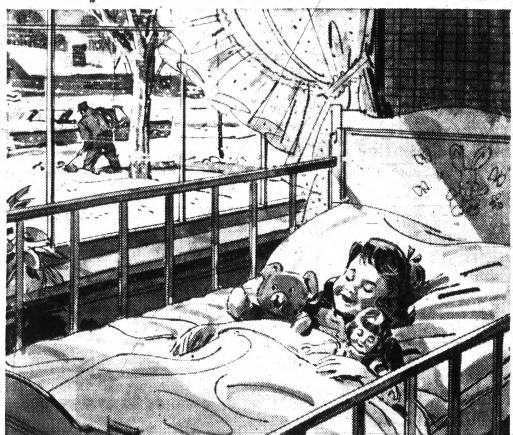

How much sillier can movie billing get? In recent times we've seen such absurdities as "special guest star," "also starring," and "costarring." Now comes "The Biggest Bundle of Them All" which lists four stars and then adds "with the participation of Vittorio de Sica."

STICKS TO FILMS

Richard Chamberlain chose a Broadway show to break his medic image, but Vincent Edwards is sticking to films. He hopes to land the Nicky Arstein role in "Funny Girl" with Barbra Streisand.

Vocal ghost Marni Nixon — she sang for Audrey Hepburn in "My Fair Lady," among others — now gets a chance to sing for herself. She stars next January in "Lady in the Dark" at the Pasadena Playhouse, where she first appeared as a 12-year-old actress.

This should qualify Candy Bergen for the Jet set: she flew home from Paris so she could go trick-or-treating with her 5-year-old brother on Halloween, then returned to begin a movie with Yves Montand.

The Underachiever - 7

Some Parents Prone to Ignore Problems

By LESLIE J. NASON, ED. D., University of Southern California
(EDITOR'S NOTE—This is the seventh in a 12-part series on the severe problem in today's schools—the underachiever—by Dr. Leslie J. Nason.)

Some parents, with the best of intentions, are prone to close their eyes to the problems of their underachieving child. They think, "Someone will strike the right chord and make him want to learn. He will grow up and eventually see the light."

While these seeming miracles DO occur, in the majority of cases the underachiever remains so until someone sets out to bring about a better result.

Occasionally a school assignment such as a special report or the lead in a class play is the spark that sets the student on fire.

The usual underachieving student needs adjustment and improvement in several areas and only a consideration of his whole pattern of thinking and learning can appraise one of the combination of changes needed to help him.

The pupil must try to learn! Otherwise he soon becomes an underachiever.

MINIMUM EFFORT

The most often repeated comment by parents and teachers in discussing underachieving students is that they seem to be satisfied with the situation as it is now and with the grades they are now making. They put forth a minimum of effort on homework.

What are the "blocks" that keep students from wanting to try for more learning and how can these blocks be removed so that students are willing to do an about face and make an effort to improve their school situation?

There is no single set of answers to these problems!!

One condition, especially in the primary grades, that starts a student off doing a mediocre job of learning is lack of challenge.

LACKS CHALLENGE

A second-grade pupil who can read at fifth-grade level but who is required to read at second-grade level not only lacks challenge but is rewarded for underachievement.

Apparent success comes to this pupil with little effort on his part.

If the problem is found immediately, the remedy is simple—provide the missing challenge, place him in a special group, give him special assignments, or advance him a grade.

The longer the condition is allowed to persist the more difficult the solution.

NO INTEREST

John was a third-grader who showed no interest in school. His father was a commercial artist with an excellent educational background; in fact, he taught some classes in a university.

In spite of the fact that the home seemed to provide plenty of stimulus toward John's success in school he made little effort.

Tests showed him to have a very high IQ, somewhere in the neighborhood of 160.

His parents tried tutors, a private school and, in one instance, he was advanced a grade, all to no avail.

SOMETHING LACKING

At his father's request I discussed learning procedures with John. He showed interest in the ideas but not in putting them into practice.

His statement was, "Dr. Nason, I know all the things

I should be doing—I just don't do them."

There was still something lacking—with his few acquiring skills he had even less challenge than before. But, at this point, a challenge was added—he was again advanced a grade and suddenly the miracle happened.

He began trying and soon was at the top of the advanced class.

SPECIFIC IDEAS

This time he was not only presented with a challenge but had specific ideas of how to meet it.

The earlier try at promotion alone had not brought about the desired result; yet, promotion was a necessary element in the solution of John's problem.

Buying a new car?
Remember—financing rates are on the way UP...

but not at your credit union

The total price you pay for your new car is determined by two things: (1) the cost of financing; and (2) the trade-in deal on your old car, or "discount" if you have no trade-in.

That first can run into hundreds of dollars—especially now, when interest rates are moving up just about everywhere except at your credit union. And what you pay for financing can make a BIG difference in the cost of your car.

There's a reason why the credit union rate doesn't move up along with others. A credit union is in business to help its members. It is owned by its members. There's no point in charging yourself higher interest rates.

And that's why credit unions offer still other advantages you find nowhere else. For example, loans to all qualified members are insured as an extra benefit at no extra cost. If you die or are totally and permanently disabled, your loan is paid up in full. Many credit unions give borrowers an interest rebate at the end of the year. And they're the only ones who do.

So look at the '67 models. You'll love them. But avoid '67 features on your financing. Go back to your credit union for the always low cost. You'll probably get the best deal in town.

For full details, contact the C.U. where you work—or the one in your parish or neighborhood—or write Michigan Credit Union League, 13235 Woodrow Wilson, Detroit, Michigan 48238

Conference at MSU*Enrollment Solutions Aired

EAST LANSING (AP)—More than 100 educators are discussing devices ranging from telephones to colleges-within-colleges to cope with rising enrollments at large universities.

More than 100 ideas were to be reported at a conference which opened Sunday at Michigan State University.

A number of universities, including MSU, reported success in efforts to combine the advantages of a small college with the facilities available only at a large school.

Representatives from the University of Illinois were to report on a system in which students

OTHER REPORTS

Some other reports will cover:

Florida Atlantic University at Boca Raton—Television cameras record the action in certain of the regular social science classes in an effort to cut the high costs of producing taped TV classroom lectures for future viewing by other students.

Purdue University — "Self-study stations" containing tape players, film projectors, microscopes and specimens are provided for botany students to use at times of their own choosing.

University of Massachusetts—A "small honors center" has been established at the University of Freiburg, West Germany, where University of Massachusetts students can prepare for careers that require "knowledge of the interdependence of Atlantic nations."

University of Texas — Computers are being used to grade examinations. Faculty members hope to speed up the grading process and design exams less restrictive than the usual multiple-choice type.

Gift of Tendon Helps Flutist

MOREHEAD CITY, N.C. (AP) — Margaret Roberts plays the flute in her high school band today with a little finger that flexes normally because of a tendon donated by a 65-year-old woman.

The transplant from the woman shortly after she died was performed two years ago with a surgical technique developed at the University of North Carolina school of medicine in Chapel Hill.

"Actually, I was playing the flute before the operation, but it sure helped tremendously," the Carteret High School sophomore said. "I do play much better."

She can play three keys of the flute with the little finger on her right hand. The finger, damaged when she was a toddler, had been stiff but not painful.

The entire digital sheath — containing the tendon, muscles, nerves and blood vessels — was transplanted as a unit to prevent any scar tissue from interfering with the free movement of the tendon inside the finger.

Service Vote Gain Expected

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Members of the armed forces at home and abroad may cast close to half a million absentee ballots in this year's congressional and state elections.

Despite the increased size of the forces, there appears to be no prospect that the total will equal the 1,009,311 votes cast by servicemen in the 1964 Presidential race.

A substantial gain is anticipated, however, over the 388,634 service ballots which were posted in the last off-year elections in 1962.

The Defense Department has conducted an intensive campaign to assure that voting by servicemen is made as easy as possible.

In most cases, casting his ballot requires less effort from the GI than from the civilian.

FREE DELIVERY

By Sept. 28, if not much sooner, each of the more than 2 million servicemen eligible to vote had received a postcard, entitled to free air mail delivery, and serving in all but three states both as a registration form and as an application for an absentee ballot.

Instructions from Washington require that these cards be placed personally in the hands of the eligible servicemen by voting assistance officers in each military unit. They cannot merely be left somewhere for the voters to pick up.

Sound trucks are used in the field, together with radio broadcasts, to urge servicemen to vote and provide information on registration deadlines and other requirements in the States.

Such campaigning is offset by the fact that, in this election, many of the GIs are unfamiliar with the candidates in their states, and have no wish to vote. They cannot be required to do so.

LBJ, GOLDWATER

In 1964, when the personalities of President Johnson and GOP candidate Barry Goldwater were well known, the services got out 51.3 per cent of the eligible vote.

The percentage breakdowns were Army, 44; Navy, 48.2; Air Force, 58; and Marine Corps, 65.5.

Golden Age of Penmanship Was Not Letter-Perfect

By DICK WEST
United Press International
WASHINGTON — Marietta College in Ohio has been reproducing and publishing a series of "letters from famous Americans" selected from its collection of more or less historic correspondence.

I was in Marietta recently in the student body to a state of torpor with one of my fiery orations, and while I was there someone gave me a set of the letters. I found them very impressive.

What impressed me most was the lousy handwriting.

I somehow had the notion that the early days of the republic were a sort of golden age of penmanship. It came about, I suppose, from hearing people say that penmanship is becoming a lost art.

These letters make me wonder whether the art ever existed at all.

I claim no expertise in calligraphy, but it is obvious to anyone that George Washington couldn't write any better than Lyndon Johnson does.

The other 12 famous Americans whose letters were included in this set also were Palmer Method dropouts. Which may have been a lucky coincidence. Had their letters been readderable, chances are they wouldn't have been preserved. Someone might have decided they weren't very significant and thrown them away.

But being unable to decipher them, the people who ran across the letters probably said to themselves: "This may be important. I guess I'd better save it." So they put it in an old trunk or something.

LANSING

GEORGE ROMNEY GOVERNOR

Dear Friend,

As a concerned citizen, I'm sure you're aware of the vital importance of the forthcoming November General Election. Basically, we must decide whether we want to keep Michigan on the move — or return to the policies of deadlock, decay, and decline of previous administrations.

To keep Michigan moving, I need an Action Team in the State Legislature — men of integrity, ability, and imagination who will act in the best interests of all the people.

Fortunately, there is such a man in your area — Don Bishop of Rochester, who is the Republican candidate for State Representative in the 63rd District. I know him well, and I can speak highly of his qualifications. He is young, vigorous, experienced, and trained in government and law.

I need Don Bishop on my Action Team — and I urge you to support him at the polls November 8th.

Sincerely,

George Romney

EXPERIENCE—An easy way for youngsters to acquire photo experience is to snap other youngsters while at play; at school or at work. This print by a 14-year-old opened the way to other photographic challenges.

Camera Angles

Early Start on Photography

By RALPH (Skipper) MILLER
Written for AP Newsfeatures

Victor Keppler, director of the Famous Photographers School, acquired his first camera at the age of 8.

Joe Costa was working as a teenage copy boy on the New York Morning World before acquiring his first camera. Harry Garfield was a middle-aged fabrics salesman when he acquired his.

Both Costa and Garfield are now members of the guiding faculty of the photographic school.

When should a youngster receive his first camera? There doesn't seem to be an inflexible rule but going-away-to-camp time seems to be a popular beginning.

*****
Ditto the Boy Scout, Girl Scout or 4-H Club phase of a youngster's life.

ACHIEVEMENTS

I recall hearing Associated Press photographer Irving Desfor (now vacationing in Europe) tell about the photographic achievements of one of his daughters while at girls' camp.

The next summer, Susan was appointed a camp counselor.

This obviously prompted me to tell Desfor about the camera capers of my lad, Gary, who began as Dad's darkroom helper at the age of 5. By teenager time, Gary headed the school photo staff.

A self-appointed summer assignment triggered more than 500 pictures during the construction of Shea Stadium, where the New York Mets watch other teams hit home runs.

At 17 came another summer opportunity, this one at the World's Fair, taking pictures of visitors at Sinclair's Dinoland.

Gary would shoot several rolls, dash home to process the negatives in the cellar darkroom, hang the films to dry overnight.

Next morning, he made 8x10 bank or busy arcade.

prints, typed captions, then mailed each photo to the editor of the visitor's home-town newspaper. Sinclair hoped editors would publish the pictures; they often did.

During this stint, the lad engineered what we more mature folks call a kid-size brainstorm... put a camera inside the dinosaur's mouth and shot a picture of fairgoers framed by the dinosaur's teeth.

KODAK INTERVIEW

Such achievements, plus a couple of medals in the National Scholastics Photo Competition, prompted Eastman Kodak Co. to interview Gary during his college freshman year for a possible 1966 summer job. He landed it. Assignment: shoot picture-taking pictures.

These, according to Kodak, are photogenic situations chosen as ideal by travelers as a background while snapshotting traveling companions.

After driving more than 10,000 miles through two dozen states from Massachusetts to Missouri — and exposing hundreds of pictures, it was to be expected another "brainstorm" might develop. It did.

STATE OF KANSAS

This one concerns the state of Kansas. Devoting a couple of free weekends to the project, and aided immeasurably by Kansas travel chief Dale McCollum, the lad flitted by air and auto from point to point, picturing scenes that would symbolize the photogenic aspects of the state.

Right now, a busy college sophomore is — between classes — readying a traveling show.

Exhibition-size color prints are to be mounted on panels that may be folded, tucked neatly into a case, then sent along to the next Kansas city or town for display at the town hall, library, bank or busy arcade.

Find Deuterium Beyond Earth

By Science Service
WASHINGTON—Deuterium—the heavy twin of hydrogen, which is by far the most abundant element in the universe—has been detected beyond earth for the first time. The measurements were made from IMP-III, a satellite circling earth in a far-reaching "yo-yo" orbit.

Scientists have for a long time been searching for evidence of deuterium outside the solar system, but until now they have found it only on earth.

The deuterium detected from the satellite measurements resulted from the collisions in space of high-energy cosmic rays with helium, which is the next most abundant element in the universe after hydrogen.

All but about 1 per cent of the mass of the Milky Way galaxy consists of hydrogen and helium and so, presumably, does the rest of the observable cosmos.

The cosmic-ray-deuterium, discovered by three University of Chicago scientists, is only the third direct observation of this element in nature.

The two other sources are hydrogen compounds on earth, mainly water, and meteorites, earth's only known visitors from space.

Knowing the relative amounts of hydrogen and helium, or of either of these and deuterium, is essential to understanding the structure of the universe and how stars are born.

IN THE PUBLIC INTEREST

Few men in public office have the courage to stand up and take a position contrary to that of their own associates, and demand a change in policy.

One man like that in the Michigan State Senate in Lansing is Carl O'Brien, Democrat.

A majority of his 37 colleagues in the Senate -- 18 Democrats and 2 Republicans -- voted a few days ago to raise their own salaries by 50 percent. . . and rushed the bill over to the House of Representatives.

Senator Carl O'Brien was not present when the vote was taken, but he has refused to take the "easy position of being 'not recorded'."

He sent a letter to the Senate leaders, asking them to recall the pay-raise bill from the House.

"It is apparent," the Senator noted, "that the legislative pay raise cannot pass the House and has little popular support. I also suggest that the Governor's recommendation for the Governor, Lieutenant-governor, Secretary of State and Attorney-general."

"I feel that the citizens of the State are content to keep legislators and State officials at their current pay level."

Senator O'Brien correctly read the thoughts of Michigan taxpayers. Many citizens raise for the Legislature and want the whole idea killed.

WJBK feels that Senator O'Brien deserves commendation both for his sensible view on legislative compensation and for his courage in speaking out on the subject.

We asked him how he felt, personally, about his salary.

He said this: "We are well paid. . . as well paid as any state Legislators in the country and better than most."

"I for one knew what the salary was when I ran for the Legislature. I promised to do my best for the salary offered, and that is that."

Senator O'Brien has given a good answer to those Legislators who have been clamoring for a 50 percent pay raise.

Permissible to Cross Date Out?

By ELIZABETH L. POST
Dear Mrs. Post: Shortly after I received my wedding invitations, I was forced to postpone the marriage for a month due to illness. The invitations were all addressed, but had not been sent out.

Must I order new ones, or would it be permissible to cross out the old date and write in the new? — Darlene

Dear Darlene: Under the circumstances, and because most people are well aware of the cost of engraved invitations, I'm sure no one and certainly not I, would criticize you for writing the new date in.

WAITER
Dear Mrs. Post: What is the best way to attract a waiter's attention? They invariably are staring fixedly in the other direction when I need something, and especially when I am ready to ask for the check. — J.K.

Dear J.K.: Although in Europe it is common practice to hit your glass with your knife, or in some Latin-American countries to hiss loudly, it is not done in the United States, and you must try to attract his attention with a wave or a nod.

If he refuses to look in your direction, you may call "Waiter," quietly. When he is too far away to hear you, ask any other waiter nearby, "Would you please tell our waiter to bring us our check?"

THEATER
Dear Mrs. Post: I know that a woman always goes ahead of a man going into a row in the theater, but what happens when they get up to leave? Does the man go out first, or does he push back and let her slide in front of him so that she goes out first? — F.L.

Dear F.L.: The man leads the way out of the row but when he reaches the aisle, he stands back so that the woman may go first, or he walks out at her side.

Objects to Certain Programs

Inform Network, Sponsors

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I have written to my congressman and to both my senators to protest a certain television program which I feel is a menace to our society. It shows a gang of young punks defying the law and attacking innocent people. And all of this on motorcycles to make it more daring and appealing to our teen-agers. Please tell me, and other mothers who are trying to raise decent children how to combat this disgraceful type of television program.

Please don't use my name. I don't want my head blown off by these motorcycle bums.

DEAR SEATTLE: The only way to effectively combat such programs is to write to the network which carries it and to state your objections vigorously.

Write also to the sponsor stating you refuse to buy their products in protest. And send copies to the Federal Communications commission, Washington, D.C.

DEAR ABBY: I know this will sound crazy, but I'm serious. I flipped over a guy named Alan, but he doesn't care a thing about me. He has never dated me, but he comes over sometimes and we "make out." (I guess the older generation called it "necking.")

Alan tells me not to get serious about him because he likes me only as a friend but he kisses me because he needs the practice for when the right girl comes along.

I have tried to refuse to let him kiss me, but I always weaken when I see him. Can you help me?

WEAK
DEAR WEAK: No one can help a person who can't help himself. Next time he comes over, refuse to let him in. Practice is making a perfect fool of you.

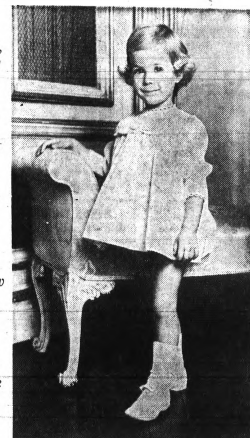

CONFIDENTIAL TO J AND D: Oftentimes the communion of bare feet in a double bed can say, "I'm sorry" more eloquently than sack cloth and ashes.

How has the world been treating you? Unload your problems on Dear Abby, c/o The Pontiac Press. For a personal unpublished reply, inclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

For Abby's booklet, "How to Have a Lovely Wedding," send $1 to Abby, care of The Pontiac Press.

For the "Boutique" set, an enchanting dacron and cotton voile "cage" worn over a fine cotton batiste yellow rose print dress. The neckline and cuffs of the long sleeves are edged in tating. A bow accents the high waist. This duo of dresses by Nannette. Line available locally.

Hair-Do How-To: 19

Is Problem Allergies?

By DOROTHEA ZACK HANLE
Editor of HairDo Magazine

Sooner or later everyone has a hairdo problem. Yours may be acquired — or you may have been born with it. In either case, there are extremely few hairdo problems that can't be solved, compromised, or compensated for.

Below are some of the most common hairdo problems:

Allergies: Frequently a problem that affects scalp and hair care, allergies should be treated by a physician. If you are prone to allergic reactions, be specially careful when you try any new hair product. Read labels carefully. Follow directions to the letter. Always make a patch test before using sprays, treatment shampoos, or hair coloring.

Baldness: Hair loss is measurably increasing among women. The abnormal loss of hair is medically termed alopecia, and there are five major types of it:

- Male-pattern baldness, characterized by receding hairline and thinning crown with the eventual meeting of the two areas, is permanent. There is, to date, no known way of preventing or retarding it. It is hereditary. So-called "cures," according to all reliable medical authorities are hoaxes.

- Post-infectious alopecia can happen to men, women and children. It may occur anywhere from eight to twelve weeks after an illness (usually an infectious disease accompanied by high fever, such as typhoid or influenza), and is generally temporary. Increased temporary hair loss following pregnancy is included in this category.
- Senile baldness is not true baldness. Late in life, production of new hair slows down. As hairs are lost in the normal process, they are not replaced in such quantity.
- Alopecia areata or patchy baldness may occur in either sex at any age. Hair loss is in localized patches of varying sizes and shapes and may occur gradually or literally overnight. One cause of patchy baldness may be physical — pulling out or destruction of hair. Too-tight ponytails, the wrong kind of hairbrush, severe stretching on hair rollers might cause bald patches at the hairline.

Another theoretical cause:

emotional disturbance, sudden or continuing to a degree to impair physical health. Medical treatment is indicated, and prognosis is most hopeful when the condition has not persisted for a long time.

- Female alopecia diffusa is characterized by gradual, nonlocalized hair loss — a widening of the part is noticeable, with "show-through" of the scalp and increasing numbers of hairs lost in brushing. The same causes as those for patchy baldness are attributed here with diet deficiency or glandular imbalance also playing a part.

Whatever type of abnormal loss of hair you might be suffering, the important thing is first, see your doctor. Clever hairdressing and styling, a chic hairdo and hairpiece can camouflage the condition until it can be arrested.

Chances are that hair with abnormally split ends is excessively dry, hence brittle and subject to breakage.

First, replace the oil necessary to supply, flexible hair. Conditioning treatments, a change of shampoo (to one that includes emollients — labeled "for dry hair"), cream rinses after shampooing and diligent brushing to distribute existing natural oils. Too frequent, too harsh bleaching can cause split ends. So, too, can overpermanencing with the wrong solutions for your hair type.

Real Glass in Fiberglass

If you use a washing machine, keep fiberglass articles separate from other laundry such as clothing, towels and bedlinens, the Greater New York Safety Council suggests. Then, rinse the tub thoroughly afterward.

The reason: tiny glass fibers may break off, cling to other fabrics and then be transferred to the skin. Similarly, when sewing glass fibers, or handling fiberglass insulation, protect the hands and arms and keep your hands away from face and eyes.

What Type of Bond Is Most Attractive?

By MARY FEELEY
Consultant in Money Management

An increasing number of people who habitually put their surplus money into Government E bonds are beginning to ask: What about other types of bonds?

Why are they said to be attractive investments right now? Which type of bonds are known as "tax exempt"?

Well, to start from scratch, it's the trend in interest rates which generally affects the bond market. When the Federal Reserve System is holding down the supply of money — the current situation — interest rates on money available naturally go up.

So people who already hold bonds which are paying, say, 3½ per cent interest, may want to sell at less than par value because they need cash, or sell because they want to put the proceeds into something that pays more interest. The prospective investor who is looking for bonds at below par prices is satisfied to get these offerings, because at maturity the bonds will pay off at par value and he'll realize a profit.

When money is "easy," the reverse situation prevails. Interest rates in general then tend to fall and bond prices tend to rise.

The pricing of bonds is different from that of stocks. Bond prices are usually expressed as a percentage rate of the par value. If, for example, you see a bond quoted at 95, this means the bond may be bought for 95 per cent of par value.

And, if it's bought at this price, it's termed "at a discount"—which is the difference between the purchase price and par. So the profits, or yield, from the bond is determined by the price you pay for it.

Bonds listed on financial pages of the newspapers and purchased from security brokerage houses are purchased in denominations of $1,000, $500, and $100.

You can't expect to receive any more for the bond at maturity than the value stated on its face. As a stockholder, you might benefit from earnings a company has left after paying expenses, interest, and preferred dividends. As a bond owner, you're a creditor of a corporation and not a part-owner of the corporation.

However, if you pay less than par for the bond, the yield will be more than the contract interest rate—because as you clip each of the coupons attached, you receive interest on the par value and not on the lower price it actually cost you. And if you hold it till maturity, you receive the difference between par and what you paid.

Some bonds, with a recognized high degree of safety, have yields of around 6 per cent, but might also be "call" market, corporate bonds issued by industrial companies, utilities, can call them in and redeem them prior to their maturity bonds, which are issued by state, date, at or above par value, and local governments.

Gemini Duo to Snap Eclipse

By RONALD THOMPSON
AP Aerospace Writer
MANNED SPACE CENTER,
HOUSTON, Tex. — As one spot three days deep into, their stands in his seat and the other aims the spaceship at a hidden sun, the Gemini 12 pilots hope next Saturday to snap man's most revealing pictures of a solar eclipse.
The four-day Gemini 12 flight, miles an hour, the astronaut's community it's first opportunity mile wide shadow in seven sec to obtain space photographs of orids.

Capt. James A. Lovell Jr. and Air Force Maj. Edwin E. Aldrin Jr. They must be at the right busy mission, then do the job in a matter of seconds.
On earth, the total eclipse can be seen for about 3½ minutes, with Gemini 12 whizzing around the globe 17,500 miles an hour, the astronaut's community it's first opportunity mile wide shadow in seven sec to obtain space photographs of orids.

"It won't give them too much time to work," said Richard Underwood, chief of the Manned Spacecraft Center's photogra split-second timing by Navy phic branch. "But there won't

NO EASY TASK—Space walking once seemed simple, as when astronaut Edward H. White ventured for the first time outside the Gemini 4 spaceship last year and bobbed around on his tether with a jet gun. Space officials since then, however, have discovered unexpected difficulties await astronauts performing EVA (extra-vehicular activity) and the four-day Gemini 12 mission will devote more study to the problems.

OTHER EXPERIMENTS

A variety of other experiments are planned. The Nimbus weather satellite will take pictures of the shadow created on earth while several small rockets and balloons gather data about.

The last total eclipse occurred May 30, 1965, but was only visible in remote areas of the Pacific Ocean.

Plans call for Aldrin to open his hatch and stand in his seat to click off quickly two pictures with a 70mm camera while Lovell aims the spacecraft directly at the sun during the seven-second period. Two strategically mounted movie cameras will run automatically.

Hopefully, the pictures will be more clear than any ever taken of such an event since at the altitude the astronauts fly, 185 miles, there is no atmosphere to mar the view.

Underwood said the pilots will be primarily investigating the sun's corona, the area around the giant body normally not visible, because of intense light. The corona will appear as a gray halo around the moon's black disc during the total eclipse.

Lovell and Aldrin also will take movies of the entire trip by the moon across the sun's disc—a passage lasting 1 hour and 57 minutes on earth but only about a minute at Gemini 12's speed.

Lake Plane Crash Kills Exec, Wife

PORT HURON (AP)—A building supply firm executive and his wife were killed Saturday in the crash of an airplane into Lake Huron near here. Authorities said Sunday that apparently no one else was aboard the aircraft.

Coroner R. D. MacKinlay of St. Clair County identified the victims as J. D. Oakes, 63, and his wife, Leona, 58, of Guelph, Ont.

He said that apparently no one else was aboard the five-passenger Cessna 265 when it went down about 1,000 yards off shore in Canadian waters in foggy, drizzly weather. J. D. Oakes & Sons Ltd. owned the plane.

Rats Eat Less but Do More

By Science Service
WASHINGTON — Eating less means doing more, or so it seems. In nutrition experiments with rats, a scientist has found that animals on a restricted diet exercised more than those that were well fed.

The animals were given diets balanced much the same as those eaten by an average person in the United States.

Some of the experimental animals were liberally fed. Others received only 60 per cent as many calories, but both groups were given the same amounts of proteins, vitamins and minerals.

Rats are normally active at night and these two groups were no exception. All of them were up and about, using their exercise wheel freely.

During the day, however, the well-fed rats rested while those on the restricted diet ran in the wheel almost as much as at night. They average 9,790 spins compared to only 5,870 by the less active.

The sleep patterns of the two groups were somewhat different too.

The active runners took naps around the clock instead of sleeping for long stretches during the daytime like the well-fed group.

80 Pct. Turnout Forecast

Brown, Reagan in Final Bids

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Re-congressional candidates and cheer President Johnson: Brown and Democratic Gov. Edmund G. is a loyal advocate of Johnson's policies.

Brown fly across California to-day enlisting uncommitted voters in the furious windup of their long campaign for the governorship.

Brown, a two-term incumbent, and Reagan, an actor in his first run for political office, scheduled visits to big cities and suburbs of the nation's most populous state.

An 80 per cent turnout of the state's 8,340,668 registered voters was predicted for Tuesday's election.

Democrats claim 58.5 per cent of the registered voters but Californians are fond of crossing party lines.

LOYAL ADVOCATE

If Brown surprises the pollsters and wins, he will become the first Democratic governor in California to be elected three times in California. Earl Warren, a Republican, was the only governor to accomplish the feat.

A Brown victory also would help the state's 24 Democratic who want to halt our progress in its tracks."

Buoyed by the polls, and already starting to select people he wants to take him to Sacramento, Reagan planned stops at the northern cities of Fresno, Sacramento and San Jose along with a speech in San Diego in the south.

TAX PROMISE

On a Sunday television program, Reagan again promised property tax reductions to home owners — as did Brown. Reagan blamed the governor for state policies he said are frightening away new businesses.

He also said Brown failed to cut government spending and reduce the welfare rolls.

Brown fired away at Reagan for inexperience. Reagan replied California has enough professional politicians.

Brown, 61, appearing spry after a campaign that began in January, aimed for a last-minute noon-hour appeal in his native city of San Francisco for one final effort to secure a victory in California.

Brown portrayed himself as a moderate and charged that a moderate opponent "stands shoulder to shoulder with the extremists

Tropical Storm Lois Moving Into Atlantic

MIAMI (UPI)—Tropical storm Lois, packing 60-mile-an-hour winds, continued to move slowly far out into the Atlantic today. The storm posed no immediate threat to land.

Weathermen at the Miami weather bureau said the 12th tropical storm of the year, late in the normal hurricane season that ends Nov. 30, would probably intensify today and gradually pick up forward movement.

The latest report centered the storm near latitude 23.5 north, longitude 53.0 west, or about 870 miles northeast of San Juan and more than 1,500 miles east of Miami. It was moving east southeast at about 7 m.p.h.

Highest winds were estimated at 60 m.p.h. near the center with gales extending out 100 miles.

The storm was expected to intensify in the next 24 hours and veer slightly toward the east at about 10 m.p.h. today and toward the northeast at a slightly faster rate tonight.

Non-rigid air ships were dubbed "blimps" during World War I by English soldiers. The military designation of the airship used by the British was "Ballon, Type B, limp," and the "B" was looked on to the "limp" for a new word.

Man has a right to provide for his own future, secure from adverse intervention. For thirteen days in the early spring of 1836, one hundred eighty-four men defended this precinct at the Alamo. Outnumbered twenty-to-one, the garrison led by Crockett, Bowie and Travis fought to the last life. Their struggle made the Mission San Antonio de Valero — the Alamo — a monument to man's determination to be free and secure.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR VOTING ON THE VOTING MACHINE

- 1. Move the RED HANDLE to the RIGHT until the bell rings. Leave the HANDLE there.
- 2. Turn down a VOTING POINTER over the word "YES" or "NO" of each proposition. Leave Voting Pointers DOWN.
- 3. Pull the LEVER of your party to the RIGHT. This votes a straight ticket for State Officers only.

To vote a split ticket: after you have pulled the party lever (thereby voting a straight ticket) turn up a voting pointer over the candidate's name you wish to cut out, and turn a voting pointer down over the name of any other candidate for the same office.

- 4. Turn a VOTING POINTER DOWN OVER THE NAME of each NON-PARTISAN CANDIDATE of your choice. Leave Voting Pointers DOWN.

To Correct a Mistake—Turn Up a Voting Pointer Voted in Error and Turn Down Another in Its Place

As no votes are registered until the Red Handle is moved to open the curtain you can make as many changes as you desire while the Red Handle is at the right side. The machine is so arranged that you can turn down only the proper number of voting pointers for each office; you cannot spoil your ballot by voting for too many candidates. Each candidate's voting pointer is located just above the name; a voting pointer must be turned down over the name of each candidate for whom you wish to vote. Leave the voting pointers down. No one will know how you have voted because the movement of the Red Handle returns the voted voting pointers to the unvoted position before the curtain begins to open.

- 5. To vote for a Candidate whose Name does not appear on this Machine: Raise the Metal Slide DIRECTLY over the Name of the Office for which he is a candidate and write or place the Name of such Candidate on the Paper exposed.
- 6. Move the RED HANDLE to the LEFT.

Common Troubles Linked to Nutrition

By DR. WILLIAM BRADY Right here we clash with the arbitrary assertions of the old-timers, that is, the doctors who are able to standard medical treatment as we would have people tremendous advances in nutrition. Hence simple correction of the deficiencies involved may work minor miracles in such cases when medicines prescribed by the physician prove ineffective.

Many followers of this DR. BRADY column know this, but many physicians do not, because, as the Council on Foods and Nutrition of the American Medical Association said in "JAMA," Mar. 16, '50, "medical education and medical practice have not kept abreast of the tremendous advances in nutritional knowledge."

Some of the minor miracles worked by correction of nutritional deficiencies have been the prevention of migraine (periodic sick headaches), spasmodic asthma, severe allergy, hives, angioneurotic edema. These are a few of the complaints that unquestionably are manifestations of nutritional deficiency, specifically calcium and vitamin D deficiency.

Injection Laser Given Patent

By Science Service
WASHINGTON — The "photographs" sent to earth from a future Mariner probe scanning Mars may be carried on the beam of light generated by a semiconductor laser.

A radar device held under secrecy wraps for some 16 years has finally been made public in patent 3,266,037.

A laser patent covering such injection lasers of a type that includes those made with gallium arsenide, the most widely used of the semi-conducting lasers, was granted here recently by the U.S. Patent Office.

A laser system for sending information from interplanetary space should allow transmission of a picture in a few seconds, compared to the eight hours required to transmit each of the Mariner 4 pictures by microwave radio.

Patent 3,265,990 for "stimulated emission of radiation in semiconductor devices" was awarded to Drs. Gerald Burns, Frederick H. Dill, William P. Dumke, Gordon J. Lasher and Marshall I. Nathan, five scientists working for International Business Machines Corp., to which patent rights were assigned.

Dr. Robert M. Page of the Naval Research Laboratory here granted the government royalty-free use of his invention, which provides a pulse-echo search system using signal integrating techniques.

LBJ Backlash Blast Sparks Campaign End

By JOE F. KANE
WASHINGTON (AP) — The campaign winds up today, sparked by a blast from President Johnson at "white backlash" voting.

Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon also added some homestretch steam, countering the President on the Viet Nam issue.

election — are expected to answer the call. An Associated Press survey completed five days before the voting indicates the voters are likely to give the Republicans five or six additional governorships, perhaps an additional Senate seat and fewer than 30 additional House seats. The "out" party usually makes congressional gains in off-year elections.

GAINS IN STATES

"Vote here" signs will be out across the land Tuesday, and an estimated 59 million Americans — a record for a nonpresidential election — are expected to answer the call. An Associated Press survey completed five days before the voting indicates the voters are likely to give the Republicans five or six additional governorships, perhaps an additional Senate seat and fewer than 30 additional House seats. The "out" party usually makes congressional gains in off-year elections.

At a Texas news conference Sunday, Johnson zeroed in on the backlash — the adverse reaction of some whites to violence in some Negro demonstrations and the feeling of some whites that Negroes are pushing too hard for equal rights.

The President declared "racism, whether it comes packaged in the nazi's brown shirt or in a three-button suit, destroys the moral fiber of a nation. It poisons public life."

He said: "I can think of nothing more dangerous, more divisive, or more self-destructive than the effort to prey on what is called white backlash. It is dangerous because it threatens to vest power in the hands of second-rate men whose only qualification is their ability to pander on other men's fears."

1960 GOP presidential standard-bearer, replying to Johnson's criticism of him last Friday for questioning the Manila conference's approach to any future troop withdrawal from South Viet Nam, said the President martyrdom.

An anvil and a sword are associated with St. Adrian. These were the instruments of his martyrdom.

POLICEMAN AIDED MINUTEMEN — Queens District Atty. Nat H. Hentel (left), flanked by his chief assistant Howard Cerny, tells newsmen at his office this weekend that for two years a New York state trooper aided the Minutemen organization by supplying information about police and FBI activities to the militant right-wing organization. Hentel said the trooper, whom he did not identify, sent the information to Milton Kellogg of Syracuse, who Hentel said is believed to be the eastern regional director of the Minutemen.

Foes Scatter in Alabama

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — across the nation again as a "white backlash" candidate for president in 1968.

Mrs. Wallace, accompanied by her husband, will conclude her campaign with a hometown rally tonight at Clayton in rural Barbour County. En route, she speaks in Elmore County, whose voters have supported the winning candidate for governor in every election since 1914.

Martin spends the day in Birmingham, the state's most populous city and a Republican stronghold in the past three presidential elections.

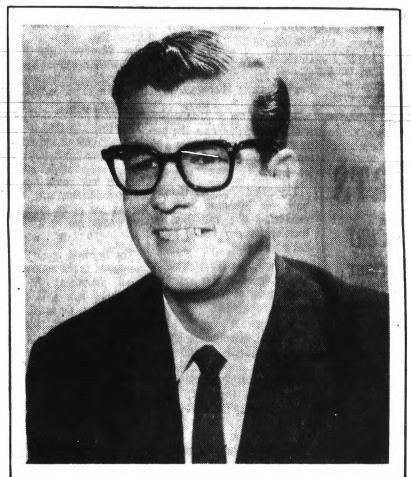

A third candidate, Dr. Carl Robinson, is still confined to a hospital bed with injuries suffered in an airplane crash. His wife and friends have taken over the campaign chores. Robinson, an attorney as well as a physician, is running as an independent.

Tragic Death for Virginia Sky Diver, 11

MANASSAS, Va. (AP) — Diana Rutledge, 11, spent half his young life around sky divers. He knew what it was all about.

So skilled and trustworthy was he that for the last 300 of 1,000 jumps his father has made. He was allowed to pack the chute.

The father, Carl A. Rutledge, is a classifier at the U.S. Patent Office in nearby Washington and lives in Vienna, Va. He has been jumping for five years and is president of "The Targeteers," a sky-diving club.

None of the 150 or so members of the club loves sky diving more than Dana did. He was said Rutledge, "very athletic and smart as a whip and quick in his response to things."

DAD GAVE IN
Yet, when Dana begged to be allowed to jump, Rutledge thought a long time. Finally, because of Dana's "over-all general knowledge" of sky diving, Rutledge gave in.

Dana made his first jump last summer. Sunday, he made his ninth and last. His chute failed to open properly and he fell to his death in a field on the family's farm near here.

On the ground, Rutledge saw it happen. He was in charge of the jump. A week before, another member of the club, O.L. Gates, 36, of Rockville, Md., died in a similar accident.

Another Rutledge son, Mark, 13, was just as interested as Dana at the start. But his interest waned. He made his first jump just last month. Afterward, he said he didn't want to jump anymore.

Mark disappeared about two weeks ago and hasn't been seen since. Asked whether something might have had something to do with the boy's disappearance, Rutledge said "it may have." But he said Mark decided on his own he wanted to jump.

BATTLE CREEK (UPI) — The Michigan Air National Guard will be taking your picture in the near future if you live in Southern Michigan.

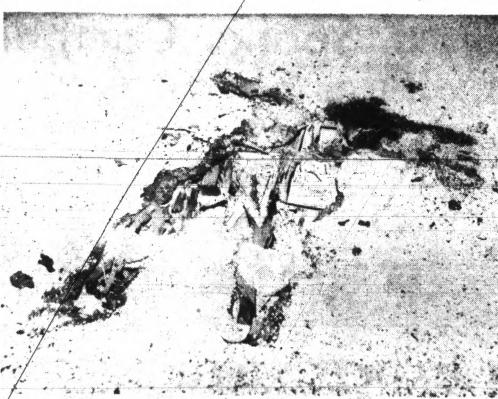

Don't ask for a family portrait, however, because the pictures will be taken from an altitude of about 500 feet by RB-57 aircraft.

The 172nd Tactical Reconnaissance Squadron will be conducting the missions as training for any future combat situations.

The new, low-level training route assigned to the squadron covers much of West and Central Lower Michigan.

The areas surrounding Battle Creek, Kalamazoo, Grand Rapids, Zeeland, Muskegon, Ludington, Cadillac, Midland, Saginaw, Clare, Mount Pleasant, Alma and Lansing are affected by the routing.

Residents in these areas were assured by the Air National Guard they would not have to worry about sonic booms as the planes will fly at about 415 miles per hour, well below the speed of sound.

6 Million Expected to Vote

N.Y. Race Considered Close

NEW YORK (AP) — Some six million New York State voters decide Tuesday what is considered a close gubernatorial race between incumbent Republican Nelson A. Rockefeller and Democrat Frank D. O'Connor.

Rockefeller is bidding for his third term. O'Connor, New York City Council president, has served in the New York Legislature and is a former district attorney of Queens.

Contributing to the uncertainty of the outcome are two other aspirants for governor: Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr., Liberal party candidate, and the Conservative party standard bearer, Paul L. Adams.

O'Connor has termed Roosevelt a "spoiler" — taking votes away from the Democratic column in the first gubernatorial breakaway by the Liberal party since they organized 22 years ago. Observers see Roosevelt, who withdrew from the race for the Democratic nomination, getting 10 to 15 per cent of the vote.

ABOUT 8 PCT.
Adams, expected to draw up to 8 per cent of the vote, could cut into the Rockefeller figures. The Conservative party was formed four years ago, mostly by Republicans, with Rockefeller as one of its main targets, contending that he is too liberal.

The current race is being compared to the contest in 1954, when Democrat W. Averell Harriman, now a U.S. roving ambassador, defeated the late Republican U.S. Sen. Irving L. Ives by 11,000 votes, but needed the Liberal party vote to win.

Apart from the selection of a governor and lieutenant governor, voters will elect an entire legislature, all 41 congressmen, 106 delegates to the 1967 constitutional (revision) convention, elect a variety of local officers, and express themselves on a state lottery to aid education.

New York City voters will decide the fate of the controversial civilian-dominated police review board.

OTHER CANDIDATES
The candidates for lieutenant governor are: Lt. Gov. Malcolm Wilson, Republican; Howard J. Simeels, Democrat; Donald S. Harrington, Liberal; Kieran O'Doherty, Conservative; Doris Ballantyne, Socialist Labor, and Richard Garza, Socialist Workers.

Ying for comptroller are incumbent Arthur Levitt, Democrat, who has held that office since 1955; Charles T. Lanigan Jr., Republican, and Benjamin R. Crosby, Conservative. Levitt was endorsed by the Liberals.

In the congressional races, Republicans hope to narrow the present standing of 27 Democrats and 14 Republicans.

In the race for attorney general are Republican incumbent Louis J. Lefkowitz, Simeon Goetz, Liberal, a deputy commissioner in the New York City department of relocation and the only Negro candidate for state office, and Mayor Frank A. Sedita of Buffalo, Democrat.

Falls to Death From Airplane

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP) — Daniel Janzen fell to his death just before his plane crashed and federal investigators say nothing in the wreckage indicates mechanical failure.

Investigators said today they didn't know why he fell from the single-engine aircraft Saturday.

Janzen, 21, a Stanford University graduate, landed on an apartment rooftop so hard that it left an outline of his body imbedded in the roof. He wore no parachute.

The plane, owned by the Garden City Aero Co., crashed between two apartment buildings on Meridian Street in San Jose but caused no damage.

Relatives said Janzen, a student pilot who received his degree in psychology from Stanford last June, had just returned from an around-the-world trip.

Yank Forgets to Declare His Polish Souvenir

DOVER, England (AP) — Ronald Gray, a Californian living in Britain, drove a small truck off the channel ferry at Dover Saturday night and told the customs men: "All I have to declare are 200 cigarettes and a bottle of perfume."

The customs men searched the truck. "I put my hand under a heap of clothing and felt something warm," one official reported. Out came Barbara Gryma, 22, a Polish blonde. She tearfully pleaded to be allowed to stay in Britain.

After questioning at the Dover police station, Gray, 37, was allowed to go. The girl was put on a ferry back to France since she had no visa. An immigration officer said he understood she was returning to Poland, and the home office said "no fond last June, had just returned from an around-the-world trip."

Science Finds New Healing Substance That Promptly Stops Itching and Pain of Piles

New York, N. Y. (Special) — One of the most common afflictions is a condition known as "itching piles." It is most embarrassing for the victim during the day and especially aggravating at night. No matter what you've used without results—here's good news. For the first time, science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to promptly stop the burning itch and pain. It actually shrinks hemorrhoids—without surgery. Medical science has proved this substance produces a remarkably effective rate of healing. Its germicidal properties also help prevent infection. In one hemorrhoid case after other "very striking improve-

Dr. Wayne G. Brandstadt Says:

Vitamin P Not Known as Aid to Hearing

Q — What is vitamin P? Does it improve one's hearing?

A — Very little is known about vitamin P or rutin, probably because of deficiency of this vitamin has yet been observed. There is no evidence that it improves hearing. It appears to be closely related to vitamin C, the vitamin that prevents scurvy.

BRANDSTADT

Q — Is rose hip tea of any value? Would its use over a long period have any bad effects?

A — Rose hips, the fleshy fruit of the rose, are a rich source of vitamin C and are widely used for this purpose in northern countries where citrus fruits do not grow.

Since this vitamin is quickly eliminated from the body, no vitamin poisoning results from taking more than the body's daily requirement.

Q — A recent newspaper article on vitamins stated that if vitamin E is taken daily for three months it will cause chronic cystic mastitis to disappear completely. Is this true? Elsewhere I have read that it is not essential in the human diet. Do you agree?

A — I know of no evidence that vitamin E will benefit cystic mastitis, but it has been used with some success in the treatment of cystic fibrosis, a hereditary disease of children. There is no daily requirement of this vitamin in human beings.

Q — Is vitamin C good for back trouble? Do you recommend vitamin C pills for everybody with back trouble, a one?

A — There are many kinds of back trouble but vitamin C would not be likely to cure any of them.

Schizophrenia Link Is Found

By Science Service
WASHINGTON—The blood of some schizophrenics contains an excessive amount of a substance that acts on a particular chemical found in the brain.

Reported by the National Academy of Sciences, the blood study represents an important step toward understanding the biological basis of schizophrenia, and eventually finding a chemical cure for this common mental disease.

Called a synergist (a substance which enhances the activity of another chemical), it acts on a substance called serotonin.

Serotonin is one of the chemicals that aids in the transmission of messages from one nerve cell to another; it has also been implicated in emotions.

Drs. D. W. Woolley and B. W. Gommi of Rockefeller University, who reported the work to the academy, said the blood serum of several schizophrenic patients was at least five times more potent in enhancing the work of serotonin than was the serum of normal people.

The two doctors were then successful in extracting and purifying the guilty synergist from their blood samples.

Though this substance is present in all people, it existed in excessive amounts in 10 of 28 schizophrenics, reported the scientists.

The case is stronger than the figures would indicate, however, because all the patients with an elevation showed the same type of symptoms. They had a recent history of agitation and assault.

FTTS WELL

This fits well, reported the doctors in the academy proceedings, with what has recently been found to be a sign of excess synergist, but the scientists discovered by change that most of these had been diagnosed as chronic alcoholics.

Locks on Star Guide

Lunar 2 Zooming for Moon

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Nine hours after an Atlas-Agena blasted it skyward from Cape Kennedy, Lunar Orbiter 2 — thanks to a bit of black paint — passed a test its predecessor flunked.

And scientists controlling it from Jet Propulsion Laboratory here hope it will be able to carry out a schedule far more ambitious than that of Orbiter 1 — taking, developing and sending back to earth more than 200 pictures of 13 possible astronaut landing sites on the moon.

As Lunar Orbiter 2 hurtled at 5,200 miles an hour toward the moon a quarter-million miles away shortly after 3 a.m. today, it responded to scientists' orders, rotated and locked on the star Canopus as a navigation guide, JPL spokesmen said.

The 850-pound vehicle was hurled into the sky at 6:31 p.m. EST Sunday from Cape Kennedy, Fla.

BALKED BY GLARE

Sighting devices on Lunar Orbiter 1 never found Canopus, apparently balked by glare from the craft's antenna framework. Lunar Orbiter 2 has a painted framework.

Scientists said they were in no hurry to order a midcourse maneuver to correct its trajectory, and set back the time for the maneuver until later today.

New Challenge in Bonn Crisis

BONN, Germany (AP) — The upsurge of an ultra-right nationalist party in the Hesse state election presented new problems today to West German politicians seeking to oust Chancellor Ludwig Erhard.

The National Democratic party, often attacked as neo-Nazi, took 7.9 per cent of the vote Sunday and won its first seats in a state Parliament, eight out of 96.

Hesse is an important state in the heart of West Germany, the area around Frankfurt and Wiesbaden.

The Socialists increased their share of the vote by a small fraction to 51 per cent and picked up an additional seat in the state Parliament. They will continue to have a clear majority. The Christian Democrats lost slightly but not as much as expected.

EX-MINISTER

The advance made by the NPD was likely to strengthen the hand of former Defense Minister Franz-Josef Strauss and others urging that the dominant Christian Democratic party take a more nationalist line, like President Charles de Gaulle's.

Plans call for Orbiter — which with its solar energy panels extended looks like a giant four-leaf clover — to approach the moon Thursday to begin a month of picture-taking. It will orbit at 125 to 1,150 miles above the moon.

It is scheduled to take a look at the crater where Ranger 8 crashed in February 1965 and to yield information about the texture of the moon's soil.

Orbiter 1 took the first American pictures of the back side of the moon, and returned 215 pictures from altitudes as low as 19 miles.

However, some key close-ups were blurred, making it impossible to certify that any area was suitable for astronauts.

Scientists hope Lunar Orbiter 2 will do better with its camera system, capable of discerning the moon, and returned 215 pictures from altitudes as low as 19 miles.

Hospital Releases Kidney Patient

Prof. Hisao Takayasu of the Tokyo University said Moriyasu Hasegawa was released from the university hospital Saturday, 100 days after the operation.

Yank Reports Bombing of Arab Towns

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Egyptian Soviet-made bombers from Yemen have bombed two towns in Saudi Arabia, killing or wounding at least 14 civilians, an American correspondent reported today.

The planes struck after dawn Oct. 14 while Saudi Arabian aircraft crews were asleep, said Lawrence Mosher, Middle East correspondent for the Co-ley News Service.

Royalist forces in Yemen. He damage in the town of Najran, flying four raids a day against Royalist tribesmen despite the cease-fire agreed to 14 months ago. He inspected the bomb attacks.

Peking Blasts U.S. on Asia Involvement

HONG KONG (UPI) — Communist China warned today that the Viet Nam conflict is only one of a series of Asian wars in which the United States will become deeply and dangerously involved.

A commentary in the official Peking Peoples Daily said this was because the United States is determined to destroy "all national liberation movements and struggles in Asia" — a move that will be countered on every front by China.

"A great Red power has already risen firmly on the mainland of China" and is the "revolutionary front and fortrass for Asian peoples and world peoples in waging their war against American imperialism," the commentary said.

"Today's Asia will witness more and more peoples being waged," the commentary warned. "The American imperialists will encounter and become embroiled in more and more peoples wars in Asia in the coming days."

The commentary, broadcast by Peking radio, gave the most thorough Chinese assessment yet of the Manila summit conference and President Johnson's Pacific tour.

3 MAIN POINTS

"All the numerous words that Johnson spoke during his recent Asian trip," it said, "boiled down to the following three main points:

"1. He is determined to destroy the national liberation movement of the Vietnamese people.

"2. The American imperialists are determined to oppose and destroy all national liberation movements and struggles in Asia.

"3. Under the disguise of words such as Asian and Pacific cooperation, the American imperialists are setting up an anti-China alliance. Therefore, the so-called Manila summit conference is only a new intrigue of aggression."

RUSSIAN ASSIST

The Chinese charged that America was "encouraged and assisted by the Russian revisionists" in this plan, but predicted it would ultimately lead to "defeat for the imperialists."

"The burial day of American imperialism is coming soon," it said. "National liberation movements and struggles are erupting everywhere in today's Asia... the American imperialist's plans to destroy national liberation movements is unreasonable."

Hare Cites Costs

Democracy 'Expensive'

LANSING (AP)—Democracy is expensive in Michigan, says the man in charge of running elections in the state.

Secretary of State James Hare notes Michigan has about $15 million worth of voting machines, and the state often must pay to store and transport them.

School Probe on Punishment

DETROIT (AP) — A Detroit school official said he would investigate reports that corporal punishment, including use of a sawed-off baseball bat by one teacher, has become an extensive practice at a Detroit public school.

Acting school superintendent Dr. Norman Crachler made the announcement Saturday after hearing reports from Dr. Michael A. Tucci, director of Active Community Teams. Dr. Tucci said his group discovered the practice while studying 300 young "casual offenders" in one of Detroit's precincts.

Crachler said corporal punishment is allowed by state law and school policy if it is "not cruel or excessive, not to inflict lasting pain" or "not in malice or passion."

None of the children suffered serious injuries or lasting bruises, Tucci said.

The Gulf of Mexico, with a shoreline of more than 3,000 miles, is the largest gulf in the world.

First Jump Fatal

ANDOVER, England (AP) — Kenneth Smith, 22, joined a local sky-diving club Sunday, made his first jump from a plane and plunged 3,000 feet to his death beside a busy highway. The parachute failed to open.

Americans Must Face the Facts or Riots in Cities Will Continue

By WHITNEY M. YOUNG JR.,
Executive Director
National Urban League

This summer, like the two previous ones, American cities were torn by riots in ghetto areas. Few cities were spared and those only through luck.

Why? Answers have come hot and heavy from all sides, but it is obvious that the riots were caused by long suppressed bitterness and frustration fostered by overcrowded slums, widespread unemployment, ineffective cooperation between the races, and the failure on the part of ghetto-dwellers to see any real immediate change in their bad living conditions.

Until Americans realize this and do something about these conditions, they can look for rioting to become a permanent fixture of American summers, in spite of the efforts of responsible civil-rights leaders urging restraint and condemning violence.

That they don't realize it or are unwilling to face the effort needed to change these conditions, is obvious from the reactions to the riots.

"We all know about the so-called "backlash" in which long-hidden racist thoughts have become plain for all to see.

"OUTSIDE AGITATORS"

Another response is to blame the riots on "outside agitators". People who talk this way sound very much like plantation bosses: "Our Negroes are happy, it's those outside agitators coming in here and making trouble."

If the cycle of rioting is to be broken, both government and industry must move immediately to alleviate conditions in the ghetto. These moves must be made before riots, not after them.

Riots in Chicago resulted in better recreational facilities and riots in San Francisco resulted in job openings. Had enlightened self-interest prevailed the commissions could have forestalled costly bloodshed.

Hives Linked to Menthol Excess

By Science Service
PHILADELPHIA — A teen-aged girl with a two-week siege of hives (urticaria) is reported to be the second case due to menthol. Lt. Cmdr. E. M. McGowan of the department of dermatology, U.S. Naval Hospital, says in the Archives of Dermatology.

The girl had been smoking a half pack of mentholated cigarettes a day, eating candy, using mint-flavored toothpaste and mentholated medication.

Increased exposure to cough drops, aerosol room spray and mentholated ointment was drinking iced tea with mint flavoring.

She also tried to use the mint. When the doctor ordered her flavored toothpaste but this menthol, she was free of hives, ting and general burning sensation in two days. Two weeks later, ting and general burning sensation she again developed hives after showed menthol to be at fault.

Year of Soul-Searching Follows Blackout

NEW YORK (AP) — In any given half-hour anywhere in the civilized world, millions of lights go on or off — a vast current made up of many small events, each one as unremarkable as flicking of the light on your back porch.

But in only 12 minutes on the night of Tuesday, Nov. 9, last year more than 30 million people in the Northeast thought it remarkable — and remark on it they did — when all the lights went out.

The worst electric power failure in history crippled, for many hours, the most populous sector of North America. It darkened 80,000 square miles in seven states and two Canadian provinces.

It also triggered a comparably massive soul-searching — one that is still going on — into man's relationship to his machines, his dependence on them and his vulnerability when they stop. More immediately, the blackout also gave rise to numerous studies and action designed to prevent a recurrence of such a catastrophe.

PLAN FOR INCREDIBLE

The blackout opened a sort of technological Pandora's box for the utilities' planning engineers, making of them a demand to imagine the unimaginable. As a spokesman for New York's Consolidated Edison Co. outlined the dilemma last week: "That according to one roll assessment, but also with a surprising minimum of tragedy. From 5:15 p.m., when the blackout over parts of Canada update New York and New England, to 5:27, when New York city was pitched into the dark, millions of workers were stopped at the height of the homebound rush hour."

In New York three deaths were attributed to complications arising from the blackout — an amazingly low figure, considering the possibilities. The crime rate was about normal. And there was little panic.

The blackout was caused by human failure. In 1963, at the Sir Adam Beck Plant No. 2 at Queenston, a southern Ontario village four miles west of Niagara Falls, someone set an automatic power relay device too low for what it would be called upon to handle in 1965.

When that moment of unforeseen demand came last Nov. 9, the self-protective relay shut down, and thousands of kilowatts were rerouted to the plant's four other lines. These also reacted to the overload by shutting down.

This in turn rerouted about 1.2 million kilowatts back to U.S. members of the grid, and obedient circuit breakers shut down, one after another like dominoes, to protect their plants as the electrical surge hit the overload point.

With the northern part of the grid blacked out, power from Con Ed in the south rushed north — much as air rushes to fill a vacuum or water seeks a level. Con Ed engineers decided quickly that rather than cut off from the collapsing grid, they would try to fill the sudden demand from the north. For a few moments their generators were making headway, but suddenly another northern area went down, and Con Ed quickly found itself being asked for 800,000 additional kilowatts. In seconds the demand had leapedfrogged ahead of the slow-growing supply, and Con Ed collapsed, too.

To prevent this sort of thing from happening again, says Con Ed's Charles Hopkin, "isn't a terribly expensive or hard thing to do."

Altogether, Hopkin said, about two million extra kilowatts were demanded to fill the power vacuum, on a moment's notice. Con Ed had about 1 1/2 million extra kilowatts to deliver then, he said.

"But we're ready now to meet a demand of between 2 to 2 1/2 million," he added.

Fireworks in Space

Lots Heading Up...and Down

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Kerp those which have "decayed" in watching and you, too, may see a great assortment of ob- a fine fiery sight in the sky. Objects ranging from tiny pieces of exploded fuel tanks to U.S. and Soviet spacecrafts recovered in orbit around the sun or its Space Administration (NASA) deliberately blew up an orbit- ing Saturn fuel tank in a pres- sure test of bulkhead strength.

A recent spot check showed or Soviet spacecrafts recovered that 1,164 man-made objects were orbiting in space.

In the meantime, as of Oct. 30, 1,354 objects orbited by man since the first spunkit went up Oct. 4, 1957, had come back down.

So a sort of equilibrium ap- pears to have been achieved. What goes up, unless it soars into orbit around the sun or its Space Administration (NASA) the moon or is otherwise dis- tracted, eventually returns to earth.

When it does, as it plunges into the atmosphere, it soars to incandescence by air fric- tion and glows like a marvelous meteor. The things still in orbit and into "decayed objects."

Not all of them have been of- ficially catalogued in the of- ficial "satellite situation report" and may never be.

As space launchings prolif- erate — to use an old atom- bomb term — the time may well come (around 2000 A.D.) when anybody looking up on a clear dark night will be able to see the bright glows signal- ling the death of a piece of space debris.

The United States keeps a sharp watch on all space launch- ings. Experts say it would be impossible for any nation to pull off a secret launch.

This country operates a radio "dark fence" stretching across the southern third of the United States which can pick up an ob- ject as small as a six-inch piece of wire which regularly crosses the fence in its orbital travels.

Age May Loom Large in Illinois Race

CHICAGO (AP)—An unstressed issue—age—may weigh heavily in the Illinois race for the U.S. Senate between Democratic Sen. Paul H. Douglas, 74, and Republican Charles H. Percy, 47.

Percy, once a student in Douglas' class, tells voters: "There's little joy in prosperity based on war that brings with it ruinous inflation."

SPAR OVER WAR

Both Douglas and Percy spar over the war in Viet Nam, but what comes across is only that they're concerned about it. Both discount the effect of white backlash, although it could figure in a shift of the Illinois delegation to Congress.

Late-comer, write-in candidate Robert Sabonjian, the black-browed Waukegan mayor, has backing of voters who want to contain the Negro. Sabonjian came to public notice when he took a tough stand to stop Negro rioting in his city, and then blamed Negro civil rights organizations for fomenting the disorders.

Douglas, fighting hard for a fourth straight six-year term, knows he's in an uphill battle. Administration leaders rallying to help Douglas have included Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey and Sen. Robert F. Kennedy of New York and Edward M. Kennedy of Massachusetts.

The age issue was underlined in a recent newspaper endorsement of Percy which termed both candidates "excellent and dedicated men" but said Percy was ready to meet "the long years ahead."

APPEARS WITH NIXON

Percy has sought no outside party help, although he has appeared with former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, called in by GOP candidates in congressional races.

Illinois Republican leaders are almost exuberantly optimistic about their chances this year, except in one face involving a magic Democratic name.

Adlai E. Stevenson III, 56, son of the late U.S. ambassador to the United Nations, Illinois governor and two-time Democratic presidential candidate, appears to be running well in his campaign for state treasurer. His opponent, Harris Rowe, 44, of Jacksonville, is the son of a late Republican stalwart, Richard Yates Rowe who was state treasurer and secretary of state. Both candidates are state legislators.

The congressional races find the Democrats' 13-11 majority in the delegation menaced. In at least one race, dissatisfaction with the Democratic administration's stand for Negro civil rights is palpable issue. Rep. Roman C. Pucinski, a Democrat, is working hard in the 11th District on Chicago's Northwest Side to fend off Republican John J. Hoellen, a Chicago alderman. Backlash also may figure in the 3rd District on the far Southwest Side of Chicago, but the Democratic incumbent, Rep. William T. Murphy, is not under as much pressure from his opponent, Albert F. Manion, as Pucinski is from Hoellen.

Two other Democratic congressmen and one Republican are in stiff races downstate, where the issues are centered in the economy.

Republicans stand an excellent chance of restoring the balance in the Illinois Legislature. The GOP lost heavily in the at-large election two years ago when an incumbent GOP majority was overwhelmed by a slate of Democrats picked for their standings in communities throughout the state.

The House had 99 Republicans and 87 Democrats in the 1963-64 legislature, but wound up on the short end of a 118-59 count after the 1964 at-large election which resulted from inability to reap-

The toughest man to play rubber bridge against is the "lucky" player. The lucky player seems to have more than his fair share of the cards and certainly bids more than his fair share of optimistic games and slams.

South was one of those lucky players. He counted 12 tricks when his partner showed him queen. Four club tricks gave South his grand slam.

♥ CARD SENSE ♦

Q—The bidding has been: West North East South

You, South, hold: ♠ A 10 8 6 ♦ 3 2 ♣ J 9 5 3

What do you do?

A—Double. If your partner leaves this in you should do very well. If he takes it out as you want him to do, you will bid again.

TODAY'S QUESTION

You double and your partner bids four hearts. What do you do now?

Answer Tomorrow

There was no point in giving up. He took the first heart and ran off four trumps. Maybe someone would make a wrong discard. No one did. West was under some pressure but he managed to hold on to all his spades and clubs by letting his jack and ten of hearts go.

South discarded the nine of hearts on the fourth trump, played the ace of spades, led a spade to dummy's jack and ruffed a spade.

Then he led out his last trump and West had run out of discards. He couldn't let his last spade go since that would establish dummy's seven. He checked a club in the vain hope that his partner would hold the

Hike Reward in Slaying

BATTLE CREEK (AP)—The Battle Creek Enquirer and News added $1,000 Saturday to a $250 reward for the arrest and conviction of the robber-kill of Christ Harold Simonds, 61, in his greenhouse last Oct. 14.

Publisher Robert B. Miller said the possibility of bringing forth additional information prompted the Enquirer and News to add its reward. Members of Simonds' family posted a $2,500 reward Oct. 26.

Police Capt. Paul Schoder appealed for anyone having shopped in Simonds' store Oct. 14 to contact police. He asked anyone receiving Canadian silver dollars in purchases or otherwise to report it. Four rolls containing $40 in Canadian silver dollars were taken in the $200 robbery in which Simonds was beaten to death.

The U.S. Dept. of Commerce lists more than 12,000 kinds of paper, and 100,000 uses for the various types.

January Senate Action

Transit Post Nominee Named

WASHINGTON (AP) — Alan S. Boyd, who says he "never had a master plan" for his career, is President Johnson's choice to head the new Cabinet-level Department of Transportation.

Johnson designated Boyd, 44, for the post Sunday. His nomination will go to the Senate next January.

The new department, 12th in the Cabinet, is a collection of 31 transportation-related units and nearly 100,000 employees plucked from throughout the government.

Boyd has worked with some of them as undersecretary of commerce for transportation.

'UNTANGLING'
The department's object, said Johnson: "Untangling, coordinating and building a national transportation system worthy of America."

His first task, said Boyd in an interview: "One of organization. That doesn't have a great deal to do with substance, but it's the thing that has to be done first."

The long-range challenge, said Boyd, "is to try to devise some way to assure ourselves we have the most efficient transportation system that we could have."

This, of course, has got to involve a method of dealing with the other values such as social and economic, with which transportation can conflict."

NATIONAL GOALS
Over-all, he said, this means "resolving problems in terms of national goals." In practice, it means answering questions like how much airport noise is tolerable to nearby residents and how the drug store owner should be compensated when a new highway takes his store.

The President called Boyd, in transportation, "the best equipped man in this country to give leadership to the country, to the President, to the Cabinet and to the Congress."

"We were all rooting for him," said one of Boyd's top Commerce Department associates. "He's a hard worker—he has an ability to get people to work together."

Another credited Boyd with "an ability to attract quality people to work with him—a maximum delegation of authority and responsibility, but a keen sense of what is important."

SENSE OF HUMOR
"A sense of humor is absolutely essential," said the balding Boyd, a 6 foot 3½, 196-pounder.

Boyd said that while he flew troop carriers over Europe during World War II, he became curious about the international aspects of aviation law.

He studied law after the war, entered private practice—"and never had an aviation client." But he did some aviation-related work during five years in the state government of his native Florida. He was born in Jacksonville July 20, 1922.

President Eisenhower named him in 1959 to a Democratic vacancy on the Civil Aeronautics Board. Boyd held that job, including four years as chairman, until Johnson moved him to the commerce undersecretaryship in June 1965.

Boyd said that during all those years, however, "I've just been living a day at a time. I never had a master plan."

He averages 12 hours of work a day—mostly in his shirt sleeves.

Georgia Foes Believed Neck and Neck

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Democratic gubernatorial candidate Lester G. Maddox and his Republican rival, Howard Callaway, are sprinting for the wire.

Many observers believe the two are running neck and neck, going into today's last-minute drive for votes.

Political switching such as Georgia had never known came after Maddox, self-styled "gregarious for all time," won the Democratic nomination for governor over moderate former Gov. Ellis Arnall.

Leading Democrats of former years formed "Democrats for Callaway." Many old-line Democrats who helped Republican Goldwater carry Georgia in 1964 are working just as hard now to help Callaway.

Callaway, a conservative who in 1964 became Georgia's first GOP congressman in nearly 100 years, is expected to carry the larger cities and Maddox the rural areas. Maddox appears to have a narrow lead.

The write-in for Arnall possibly could throw the election into the Atlanta post office indicates the January Legislature which that Secretary of State Ben Callaway, noting it is over 50 years old, says "today of about one million voters, may prove conservative."

A flood of absentee ballots at the Atlanta post office indicates the January Legislature which that Secretary of State Ben Callaway, noting it is over 50 years old, says "today of about one million voters, may prove conservative."

Auto Output Cheers Steel

CLEVELAND (UPI) — Auto production has hit record levels, brightening the outlook for the steel industry, Steel Magazine reported today.

Automotive companies, biggest users of the material, are stepping up their buying at an unusual time.

The auto industry generally orders at mid-month, but the pickup came in the last week of October. The orders call for December deliveries.

For several months, Detroit was buying sparingly as it reduced steel inventories and waited to see how 1967 cars would sell.

The metalworking weekly said the main beneficiaries of the business are producers of hot rolled and cold rolled steel sheets—products that have been lagging in demand because the car makers had put the brakes on buying.

NOT EQUAL
Mills did not share equally in the new buying. Steel reported one mill revealed its orders from auto makers were 2.5 times those of the preceding week.

Even mills that had no increase in volume noted more insistence on promptness of deliveries.

The periodical said the auto industry has lowered its steel inventories about as far as possible in relation to production. Passenger car production has since output of 967 models began in mid-August.

September production was a record 646,844 units, 12.9 percent over the previous September record of 572,846 in 1964.

Final tallies for October output will show it approximated the record 646,844 units made in October, 1965, according to steel.

The magazine said producers can look for auto industry orders for December delivery to exceed those for November shipment now that their steel stocks have been lowered.

Other steel users also are nearing the end of their inventory adjustments and a steady rise in demand can be expected from now on, Steel said.

"No longer can Charlie (the Viet Cong), operate as a phantom under the cover of darkness," declared Maj. Gen. M.C. Demier, the Air Force research chief, at a Washington conference in late September.

A spokesman in Saigon asked to see the new device in action aboard a plane. An Air Force spokesman said it wasn't operating.

It was tried out for about a month in July, the spokesman said, but "it developed a few bugs."

315-MILE AREA

The device is called AGIL — Airborne General Illumination Light. Demier said it puts out 6 million candlepower and from a 12,000-foot altitude can cover a 315-mile area with light "four times that of a full moon."

The spokesman here did not give details on the troubles which had developed. He said an evaluation report has been sent to Washington.

Two State Men Caught in Raid

CHICAGO (UPI) — Two Michigan men were arrested Saturday and a quantity of narcotics, pornographic photographs and Nazi literature were confiscated in a raid of the headquarters of the Chicago Outlaws, a motorcycle gang.

Police were holding Gerald C. Walters, 23, Detroit; Carl E. Reddick, 27, of Dearborn; along with Eddie Foley, 34, of Chicago.

The headquarters was raided by 10 police officers of the narcotics unit of the Chicago Police Department.

Two detectives had been investigating the itinerant motorcyclists' club for six weeks.

Police were tipped off by a mother of a 16-year-old girl who had been hospitalized after being initiated into the gang.

Police entered the house after bypassing a German shepherd watchdog, which they had befriended the previous week.

Attends Marygrove College

Coed Was Cook for Kennedys

DETROIT (AP) — "I cooked puddings, fresh fruit and berries and, on Fridays, lobster," says Marygrove College student Sharon Connors, "and had the most wonderful, most exciting summer ever."

The 23-year-old home economics major from Buffalo, N.Y., says she was hired as assistant cook at the Cape Cod home of Joseph and Rose Kennedy, parents and grandparents of the Kennedy clan.

"When I met Jackie, my hands were in dishwater," Miss Connors said.

She said the widow of the late President John F. Kennedy "spends much time with her children."

"And everything good you ever read about her is true," "Carolyn and John are unspoiled and unaffected," she said of Jackie Kennedy's two children.

SPECIAL DINNERS

Miss Connors said she helped prepare two special dinner parties, one to celebrate the 78th birthday of Joseph Kennedy, "who I call Papa," and one to celebrate the birthday of Rose Kennedy.

"Everybody was there," she said. "U.S. Sen. Robert and his wife, Ethel; Sen. Edward M. and his wife, Joan; Jean Kennedy Smith and her husband, Stephen; Eunice Kennedy Shriver and her husband, Sargent; Patricia Kennedy Lawford; Jackie; Ann Gargan, niece of the senior Kennedys who makes her home with them, and her brother Joe, who was drafted to make an even number."

She said the number at the table was made even because Joseph Kennedy "is superstitious about having 13 at the table."

"They're a meat, potatoes, vegetable and dessert family," she said. "Favorites are roast beef, chicken, custards, snow Kennedy does is shake hands," she said.

Miss Connors says she "went cruising on the Marlin and sailed on the Victoria, the boats the President used to use."

She also "had free time to swim, lounge on the beach, play with the children, go sight-seeing, take pictures of everybody and their homes and date the police (young law students) who guard the grounds."

KEEP TO SCHEDULE

She said everyone in the family lives pretty much on a schedule.

"The children's days are planned for them, and every minute is filled. They have lessons in swimming, riding, tennis, surfing, boating and water skiing," she said.

"Promptly at 6 every evening they go to see their grandfather," she said. "This a regular ritual."

Can you qualify in Pontiac?

It could mean a $50,000 income in your own business with one of America's most sought after franchises.

A marketing study just completed shows Pontiac is ready, and long overdue, for an AAMCO Transmission Center. Current registrations show 307,736 cars already in the county with an estimated $8 million dollars going for parts and repairs. Since most cars over two years old need some transmission work, an AAMCO center could possibly show annual earnings exceeding $50,000.

We are now seeking the one man in Pontiac to profit from this growing billion dollar market. No previous automotive experience is necessary.

The man who qualifies for the AAMCO transmission center will be completely trained in a four week intensive program. He'll learn every phase of the transmission business, including proven management and merchandising techniques and be backed by a year 'round advertising and promotion program. If you can invest about $17,500... AAMCO will put you in business, and show you the way to a rewarding future. Call, or wire collect, or mail coupon below.

Drifting Rig Taken in Tow

SYDNEY, Australia (AP) — An oil rig which has been drifting off the eastern coast of Australia since last Thursday was taken in tow early today.

The rig, Sedco 135E, broke loose from the American tug Alice L. Moran, and the tow rope fouled on one of the tug's propellers. The tug put into Sydney to have the propeller cleared, then returned to the rig and secured a line to it.

The rig is being towed from Hiroshima to Melbourne.

SLOSHING ALONG — Sophomore Larry Gilyard (43) of Pontiac-Northern skips through the mud at Wisner Stadium for 18 yards around right end against Kettering.

Saturday night. It was one of just a few times the PNH backs found enough room on the slippery turf to pick up some long yardage. Kettering won, 15-6.

Interceptions Hurt Huskies Opportunist Kettering Trips Northern, 15-6

By FLETCHER SPEARS

Kettering's Captains made the most of their scoring opportunities in handling Pontiac-Northern a 15-6 setback Saturday night in a muddy duel at Wisner Stadium.

The PNH defense permitted the Captains inside its 25-yard line on only three occasions, but Kettering came up with points each time to trim the Huskies and extend its unbeaten streak to nine games.

The victory also avenged a 6-0 loss the Captains suffered at the hands of the Huskies last year, and it gave Kettering its second win in the seven-game series.

While Kettering wasted little effort in gaining its 15 points, Northern wasted two golden scoring opportunities. Both drives came to a halt on pass interceptions deep in Kettering territory.

Quarterback Dick Miceli, junior fullback Gene Brunner and guard-linebacker Ken McLean sparked the Captains attack.

COLLECTS FG

Miceli hit on seven of 17 pass attempts for 101 yards, steering the captains to a pair of touchdowns and booted a 25-yard field goal.

Brunner scored twice and rolled up 101 yards rushing in 21 attempts, and teamed with McLean to check the ground offense of the Huskies.

The Captains scored the second time they had the ball, moving 91 yards in eight plays.

with Brunner bulling over the two with 5:43 left in the first quarter. Miceli's kick was wide.

The Huskies came up with their only scoring drive early in the second quarter after recovering a Kettering fumble at the PNH 36-yard marker.

PNH ate up the 64 yards and used most of the second quarter in running 16 plays en route to the six points. Fullback Dan Couture cracked over on third down from the one yard line for the TD. Al Morris' kick sailed wide.

FUMBLE HELPS

A fumble-recovery at the PNH 25 led to the second Kettering touchdown.

It took only four plays for the Captains to score with Brunner, ripping up the middle for the final 13 yards.

Kettering headed goalward again early in the fourth after taking over on the PNH 40 following a short punt.

Miceli guided the team to first downs at the 36 and 15, and after the drive stalled at the PNH eight-yard line, Miceli kicked a field goal from the 15 to put Kettering in front, 15-6.

Northern blew scoring chances in the third and fourth.

With the score tied at 6-6 early in the third, PNH moved from its 40 to the Kettering two-yard line, but the Captains' Bob VonBargen picked off a fourth-down pass at the goal line to end the threat.

Another interception by Von-

Bargen curtailed a PNH drive midway in the fourth. The Huskies moved to a first down at the Captains' 13-yard line, but Dana Goin's third-down pass fell into VonBargen's hands at the four-yard line and he ran it back to the 48.

The triumph pushed Kettering's overall record to 7-0-1, while the loss ended Northern's three-game win streak and left the Huskies with a 4-4 record. Kettering ends the season entertaining Waterford, and PNH closes the campaign Nov. 18 against Pontiac Center.

Spartans Race Past Hawkeyes in 56-7 Rout

Speedy Clint Runs for 268 Yards; Win Clinches Title Share

EAST LANSING (AP) — Strong, speedy Clint Jones, who felt he hadn't been doing his fair share this season, almost did more than the whole Iowa team Saturday.

As No. 2 ranked MSU demolished the Hawkeyes 56-7, Iowa rushed for 150 yards, Jones matched that with two scoring bursts—79 yards up the middle and then 70 yards around end.

The Hawkeyes had 270 total yards. Jones had 268—breaking the Big Ten record of 239 set by Illinois' Jim Grawowski last year and the MSU record of 207 set by Ron Rubick in 1962.

Another outstanding representative of Spartan speed — end Gene Washington—caught touchdown passes of 53 and 10 yards from Jimmy Raye. This gave him a career total of 15 TD catches, breaking the MSU mark of 14 set by Bob Carey in 1949-51.

CLUNCH TIE

The victory, MSU's eighth straight and sixth in the Big Ten, clinched at least a tie for the conference title. The Spartans need a victory over seventh-place Indiana next Saturday to become the first team in 12 years to win two straight Big Ten titles.

Two factors set off the Spartan outburst. MSU had to play without its leading ground game, injured fullback Bob Apisa, and Apisa's backfield mates told him, "Don't worry O.C., we'll try to run a little better."

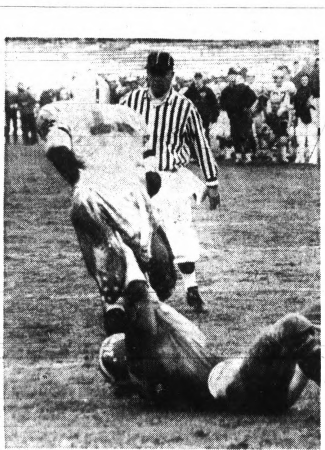

Iowa stung the Spartans by taking the opening kickoff and marching 90 yards in seven plays for a touchdown.

"That made our kids mad," said coach Duffy Daugherty of MSU. Apisa, who had 444 yards in 84 carries for a 5.2 average, sprained his right knee Oct. 22 and banded it again Oct. 29. Whether he'll be able to play against Indiana still is uncertain, said Daugherty.

But his replacement, sophomore Regis Cavender, picked up 32 yards and two touchdowns in 12 carries, boosting his season's rushing average to 4.8.

Jones, who now is the leading ground game with 674, explained: "I only had three carries left to go this year. I didn't want to end the season regretting," he said. "Duffy had said good things about me before and I didn't want to let him down, or let the team down."

SLIPPING AWAY — End Jack Clancy of Michigan makes a futile reach for Illinois' Bruce Sullivan who is starting downfield on a 98-yard touchdown run with an intercepted pass in Saturday's game. Clancy slipped and fell and Sullivan picked off the tipped pass to score the deciding TD in Illinois' 28-21 win.

One More Triumph Needed by Purdue

By the Associated Press
Purdue's Boilermakers have a habit of losing the big game season, five conference games are on tap this week including Michigan State's journey to Indiana and the showdown battle with a key game and it's between Purdue and Minnesota.

Once again they are faced with a key game and it's between Purdue and Minnesota.

Against the Gophers of Minnesota Saturday.

All the Boilermakers need to win the Big Ten championship is a victory over West on the New Year weekend is a triumph over Minnesota Saturday at Minneapolis.

Down through the years every Big Ten team except Purdue and Indiana has made it to the Rose Bowl. Purdue has threatened often but never accomplished the dream.

NEED WIN
Now the matter is in the laps of the Boilermakers. They can clinch the bowl bid with a victory over Minnesota, a team they defeated 35-10 last year.

A loss to Minnesota will not completely eliminate Purdue from the running but it would bring Illinois in the picture and give Minnesota the inside track. Purdue maintained its Rose Bowl bid, upset Michigan 28-21 last Saturday and Saturday victory over Wisconsin Saturday and Minnesota remained in the running with a 28-13 triumph over Northwestern.

Illinois, the only other team with a chance of getting the bowl bid, upset Michigan 28-21 last Saturday and Saturday victory over Northwestern.

Illinois, the only other team with a chance of getting the bowl bid, upset Michigan 28-21 last Saturday and Saturday victory over Northwestern.

Michigan Suffers Most in Game Played in Snow

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Both teams played in a wet snow, but Michigan suffered the most.

Robbed of one of their better offensive threats — pitchouts to Dave Fisher — The Wolverines still were leading Illinois 21-20. Then end Jack Clancy slipped and fell and a pass that was supposed to give Michigan a commanding lead fell into the hands of an Illinois defender.

Bruce Sullivan shook off a tackle at the two-yard line and galloped 98 yards for a touchdown. Illinois made a two-point conversion and won 28-21 Saturday.

"I slipped on that interception and didn't see the play," Clancy said.

TAKES BLAME

"It was my loss," said Dick Vidmer. "I threw the bad passes."

"I think Dick had trouble all day throwing the wet ball," Clancy said. His passes came to no softer than usual.

Dave Fisher, who had gained 564 yards in seven previous games, was held to minus three yards in two carries.

The first time Fisher was to handle a ball Vidmer laterated it over his head.

"It seemed that an Illinois linebacker followed me everywhere I went, so we concentrated on other plays," Fisher said. "The condition of the field and the ball were the main reasons we didn't use him more."

Michigan Coach Bump Elliott. "It was hard to run pitchouts."

Vidmer completed 13 of 27 attempts for 183 yards and a touchdown. Clancy caught 11 of them for 179 yards.

Clancy's 11 catches set a school record and his season's yardage of 932 is another record.

Other games find Northwestern at Michigan, Wisconsin at Illinois and Ohio State at Iowa.

Notre Dame will have another tuneup for its Michigan State battle by taking on Duke, a 9-7 winner over Navy last Saturday.

Selfridge Tourney Champ

Detroit Bible College pinned an identical beating on host Midwestern in the consolation contest.

Selfridge won its third straight in the tourney by overcoming a brief early lead by the Warriors from Rochester and then pulling away in the second half.

Led by the game's high scorer, Ray Hudson (37 points), Michigan Christian cut into the lead late but couldn't catch up.

Ralph Wingate hit 44 as Midwestern tried to overtake Detroit Bible, but Bud Presley's 36 for DBC offset the Falcon's efforts.

Presley and Wingate both made the All-Tournament team along with Gary Thompson of Selfridge, Jerry Olson of Michigan Christian and Jim Garza of Detroit Tech.

Washington Upsets UCLA

USC Eyes Rose Bowl

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Los Angeles, the candid conversationalist who coaches football at Southern California, emphasized that point of USC's efforts: "We mention Rose Bowl every time we play."

McKay's Trojans dominated California 35-9, Saturday in the Coliseum, putting USC within a step of a Jan. 2 date in Pasadena.

The Trojans, 4-0 in the Pacific-8 race, are idle next Saturday, giving them two weeks to prepare for their Coliseum showdown May 19 with neighboring UCLA. The Bruins, beaten by Washington Saturday 16-3, will be favored against Stanford here next weekend, making the USC-UCLA winner the likely Rose Bowl representative.

Ultimately, however, it is officials of the Pacific-8 Conference who decide the Rose Bowl entry.

Notre Dame's offense sputtered in the first half against Pitt, which has won just once, and the Irish left the field at 20-25.

Nebraska, 8-0, moved nearer its 31-0 defeat of Rice. The Razorbacks play conference leading Southern Methodist which topped Texas A&M 21-14, next Saturday. Arkansas is 7-1 over .86, New York beat Detroit 115-10 and 4-1 in the league. SMU is 105 and St. Louis edged San Francisco 122-120.

San Diego State Becomes Favorite

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Coach Don Coryell relishes the underdog role for San Diego State but his Aztecs are destined to be favorites in the future.

"We're No. 1," echoed shouts in jam-packed Balboa Stadium where a record paid crowd of 35,342 watched the Aztecs, ranked second in the nation in the college division, trounce top-ranked North Dakota State, 36-9, Saturday night.

It ended the Bison 24-game winning streak.

Western Wins
TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Western Michigan won the Mid-American Conference cross country championship for the eighth time Saturday on a snow-covered course at Toledo University. Western had 24 points to 45 for defending champion Miami of Ohio. Ohio University was third with 77 points followed by Kent State 99, Bowling Green 122, Toledo 168 and Marshall 195.

Kathy Whitworth Claims 'No. 1' Title

AMARILLO, Tex. (AP) — Kathy Whitworth won a head-to-head duel with Mickey Wright in the $10,000 Amarillo Open Sunday to strengthen her claim to No. 1 in women's golf.

Miss Whitworth beat Miss Wright, who was the top winner in women's golf until she dropped out for a year, in a sudden death playoff for $1,500 first money in the Amarillo Open.

To win the tournament, Miss Whitworth had to stage one of the great — come from behind drives in women's golf history.

She was nine strokes back at the start of the final round Sunday, but she fired a three-under-par 68 while Miss Wright had a 73 and they tied for first place with 215 for 54 holes. The latter had to eagle the final hole to gain the tie.

Then in the sudden death playoff, Miss Whitworth tapped a 20-foot birdie putt and Miss Wright had a par.

The Chicago Bulls just haven't learned their lesson, and the Bulls players are having difficulty teaching it to the Chicago Bulls.

Chicago, the National Basketball Association's newest member, opened the season by winning four of its first five games. Then it happened, just as everyone knew it would — the Bulls lost to the Chicago Bulls.

However, they trounced St. Louis 130-102 Sunday night for their third straight victory and a 7-6 record, good for sole possession of first place in the Western Division.

San Francisco nipped Baltimore 120-117 in the only other Sunday game and moved into a second-place tie in the West with Detroit. The Warriors have a 6-6 record. Detroit is 5-5.

In Saturday's action, Chicago shipped Cincinnati 113-99. Boston trounced Philadelphia 105-96. New York beat Detroit 115-105 and St. Louis edged San Francisco 122-120.

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Stock-ford race drivers apparently see James Hylton in either of two places — growing quickly in their rear view mirror or getting smaller in their front windshield.

This was the case Sunday when Hylton, the Inman, S.C., 1966 Rookie of the Year, won 50 starting cars in the $30,000 Atlanta Cracker 250.

Hylton, driving a 1963 Dodge Sportsman, finished two laps ahead of Donnie Allison of Hueston, Ala., and garnered a trophy and $4,050.

Engine trouble on his 1964 modified Chevelle, however, chased Bobby from the race after the 138th lap.

MFL All-Stars Are Next for Arrows

The victory gave the Arrows a final 9-0-1 record, their first unbeaten season in five MFL campaigns, and the championship was their fourth in five tries.

The league will wrap up the 1966 campaign next Sunday at 1:30 p.m. at Wisner Stadium when the Arrows take on the MFL All Stars.

In other games Saturday Dayton surprised Ypsilanti, 50-6 and Flint won its fifth in a row by downing Lansing, 27-7.

at halftime, boosted it to 32-14 with a pair of third-quarter touchdowns and pushed across the final six-pointer in the fourth.

Kansas City Whips Chargers, 24-14

By the Associated Press
All last week the San Diego Chargers attended Otto Taylor's film festival, but Kansas City's leading man turned out to be Chris Burford.

With the Chargers' defense double-teaming Taylor, the league's fifth leading pass, Burford was able to break loose for a couple of important catches that propelled the Chiefs to a critical 24-14 American Football League victory Sunday.

was shown on two of Burford's five catches.

In the first quarter, Burford got a step on defender Speedy Duncan and made a diving catch of Len Dawson's pass while Duncan was making a diving catch of Burford. Both men rolled for several yards before coming to a halt, the ball safely in Burford's arms. The play went for 38 yards to the San Diego 12 and Kansas City scored a moment later.

With 44 seconds remaining in the half, and the Chiefs 10 yards from the Charger goal, Burford ran into the end zone and then parallel to the goal line until he was nearly out of the playing area. Then he sliced back inside, bringing the ever-present Duncan with him. At the last moment, Burford cut to the sideline again where he conveniently found Dawson's pass awaiting him for a touchdown.

seconds left after Gino Cappelletti missed a 14-yard field goal. Jack Kemp tossed two scoring passes as the Bills ended Miami's brief winning streak in two games. The Buffalo defense blitzed Miami quarterback George Wilson, Jr. continually, and Booth Lusteg converted a pair of field goals.

Tom Flores connected on just 10 of 26 passes for Oakland, but he made them count for 26

Rozelle Stays on Safe Ground With Comments

KANSAS CITY (AP) — NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle attended his first AFL game Sunday, Kansas City's 24-14 victory over San Diego, and refused to be drawn into any comparison involving the two leagues.

"I enjoyed the game and both teams have fine personnel," Rozelle said in a press conference after the game. "Kansas City has the best kept and lined field I've ever seen in football."

"Beyond that, all comparisons are relative. That's why we're having the Super Bowl."

Rozelle sat in the press box with Chiefs' owner Lamar Hunt and AFL President Milt Woodard.

TOKYO (AP) — The Japanese All-Stars slaughtered the Los Angeles Dodgers 11-3 with 13 hits, including 3 homers Sunday in the 11th game of the Dodgers' exhibition tour in Japan.

Chapot Rides Three Horses Into Finals

WASHINGTON (AP)—Three brilliant jumpers, ridden by Frank Chapot, 34, veteran star of the U.S. Equestrian team, qualified Sunday night for the finals of the President's Cup event at the Washington International Horse Show.

Chapot, of Wallpack, N.J., scored clean rounds over a difficult course with Good Twist, a 10-year-old bay gelding, a son of Manon, and San Lucas, the horse with which he won the President's Cup last year.

In the final jumpoff against nine, Chapot found up with another sparkling round on Good Twist, a gray stallion which completed the course 10 seconds faster than his nearest rival, Carlene Blount's Silver Link.

Carol Hofmann, of North Branch, N.J., wearing the silver sash indicating that she is leading the international riders in jumping competition here, placed third with her own horse, Salem, representing the U.S. Equestrian team.
