Local Deputies' Tip Pays Off in Bank Arrests

City School Budget Near $5 Million

Hits New High, Places Board $685,000 in Red

Lists Salary Raises of $300-$400 for 1954-55 Fiscal Year

Pontiac Board of Education Tuesday passed a record budget of $4,847,499.90 to run Pontiac Public Schools next year.

The budget, $411,905.29 higher than this year's, includes about $260,000 for pay raises for the school system's 800 employes.

Board members said they are convinced the higher budget will put the board about $685,000 in debt by the end of the 1954-55 school year.

The board added $300 a year to all teachers' salaries, plus an extra $100 to salaries for the first three years. Pontiac's starting salary is now $3,700, on a par with Royal Oak, Grosse Pointe and other nearby cities.

Principals will get a similar $300 raise, plus another $100 to widen the margin between teachers' salaries and their own.

All non-teaching workers—maintenance men, bus drivers and others—were given a $25-a-month raise. Certain supervisors, administrators and chief mechanics will get more.

Next year will be the second year that red ink has marred the school system's budget.

Last April, the school board passed a budget they knew would put them in debt, hoping things would look better by 1954. They don't. The school system will carry along a debt of $210,000 from this year when it starts the new school year July 1.

The new budget was another $210,000 short (total $420,000) before the board approved general wage increases.

Next year's instruction expenses (teachers' and principals' salaries, classroom supplies, and such) total $3,569,833.78 or three-fourths of the whole budget. These costs are up about $448,895 over this year's.

Administration will cost $101,632.22; operation, $656,514.99; maintenance of buildings, $314,750; and capital outlay for remodeling projects, classroom furniture and such, about $52,900 (less than a third of this year's capital outlay).

(The school system had to equip several large additions this year.)

The budget sets aside $21,518.50 for fixed charges, such as insurance. Auxiliary agencies, like school bus and health services, will cost $74,750.41; and athletics, $10,000. School men kept an emer-

SIGN OF SPRING—Pretty Carol Bump of 2608 W. Walton Blvd., tests the water temperature in Silver Lake as a rising mercury yesterday brought spring back to Pontiac. The highest temperature of the year was recorded as the mercury zoomed to 72.

Wind and Hail May Bring Colder Weather to Area

Special storm warnings went out for the Pontiac area today as cold weather threatened to end this week's warm temperatures.

The U. S. Weather Bureau said severe thunderstorms, strong winds and moderate to heavy hail are apt to batter lower Michigan until 5 p. m. today. Storms will usher in much colder weather and snow flurries.

Temperatures should drop to about 40 tonight and rise only to 42 to 46 Thursday.

Tuesday the Pontiac area sat out a two-hour tornado alert in temperatures that soared to a summery 72 degrees — the highest this year.

A warning bulletin, sent out about 12:30 p. m. yesterday said there was a chance of a tornado between Fort Wayne, Ind., and Port Huron that afternoon. The warning was withdrawn at 2:15 p. m. after the Pontiac Press, Pontiac Police and Oakland County Sheriff's Department answered 150 telephone calls from anxious citizens.

Tuesday's high — four degrees over this spring's former high of 68 degrees March 25 — came after a morning low of 44 degrees.

Only three days earlier, a blast of frigid air had sent local thermometers down to 14 above zero to set an all-time record low for April 3.

Temperatures didn't drop below 53 degrees last night. By 8 a. m. the mercury read 55 degrees and stood at 66 at 2 p.m. today.

Tornado Alert Issued in State

State Police Get Report of Twister at Bellevue; Warning Expires at 6

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Southern Michigan got a danger warning of tornadoes today. It was the second in 24 hours and the U.S. Weather Bureau said the alert would remain in effect until 6 p.m.

The Chicago weathermen warned shortly before noon "there is a chance for a few tornados in an area bounded by St. Joseph, Mich. to 60 miles southwest of Fort Wayne, Ind. to Sandusky, Ohio, to Detroit.

In Detroit the U.S. Weather Bureau said it had an unconfirmed report that a tornado was sighted 10 miles northwest of Battle Creek today.

In Battle Creek, the Enquirer & News reported the sun was shining and no sign of an ominous black tornado was on the horizon.

The News said it had checked communities in the area and was unable to track down the unconfirmed tornado.

State Police at Battle Creek said they had received a report of a tornado near Bellevue, 15 miles northeast of Battle Creek.

They reported that an unidentified person called saying he saw the tornado "high in the sky."

Senator Charges H-Bomb Delay

McCarthy Claims Work Held Up for 18 Months Despite Red Reports

NEW YORK (AP)—Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) says research on America's hydrogen bomb was deliberately stalled for 18 months in the face of reports that Russia was "feverishly" pushing a similar project.

"If there were no Communists in our government, why did we delay?"

McCarthy asked the question last night in a telecast billed as a reply to criticism of the senator by CBS commentator Edward R. Murrow.

The H-bomb reference was interjected into an attack in which McCarthy termed Murrow "the leader and the cleverest of the jackal pack which is always found at the throat of anyone who dares to expose Communists and traitors."

"Who caused it?" McCarthy demanded of the alleged H-bomb delay. "Was it loyal Americans or was it traitors in our government?"

"Our nation may well die because of that 18-month deliberate delay," he added.

McCarthy's statement was called "absolutely ridiculous" by Rep. Melvin Price (D-Ill).

Hydrogen Bomb Big Enough--Ike

Sees No Need to Build Mightier One; Refutes McCarthy on 'Delay'

WASHINGTON (INS) — President Eisenhower said today he knows of no military requirement for the United States to build a bigger hydrogen bomb than has already been produced.

The chief executive also told a news conference he has never heard of a delay in the hydrogen bomb program as Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis) charged last night.

Eisenhower declared the United States has no intention of going into a program [illegible] as big as H-bomb can be made.

Atomic Energy Commission Chairman Lewis Strauss said last week that an H-bomb can be made big enough to destroy any city in the world.

The President also said he knows of no direct application of the H-bomb principle to the peacetime development of the atom.

We Can't Afford Further Losses in Asia, Ike Says

President Hints U. S. Has Not Asked Allies to Join Anti-Red Bloc

From AP and INS Dispatches

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower said today the free world simply can't afford greater losses to the Communists in Asia.

Loss of Indochina and the rest of Southeast Asia would have incalculable consequences, he told a news conference.

Eisenhower said this country is conducting talks with its allies looking toward united action to keep Indochina free, but he said no detailed course of action has been set at this time.

He denied, in effect, widespread reports that the United States has asked six allies to join in a common warning against further aggression by Communist China in any part of Southeast Asia.

It wouldn't be right, Eisenhower said, for this country to propose an answer before there has been a joint study of the problem.

But the question of what to do in Indochina is of the utmost importance to the world, the President said, and is getting more attention than almost any other thing.

Eisenhower said he doubts if there is much chance of reaching a negotiated settlement of the Indochinese question at the Geneva conference to be held April 26.

Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) told the Senate yesterday that Dulles' statements on Indochina implied a willingness to go to war, if necessary.

Asked whether he agreed with Kennedy, Senate Foreign Relations Committee Chairman Alexander Wiley (R-Wis) told a reporter:

"Some folks are stopped in their tracks when told that if they take another step, they will get their head knocked off.

Without elaborating, Wiley added: "Think that over."

President Eisenhower revealed the pattern of American thinking, however, when he said in a radio-TV speech to the nation Monday that:

". . . Whether it's to protect the southwest Pacific or NATO in Europe or wherever it is, we believe that the interested nations should band together and in a cooperative spirit maintain the freedom of those countries against any kind of Communist aggression."

This was interpreted as being the real meaning of the "united action" which Secretary of State Dulles called for last week to save Indochina.

Lawyer Agrees to Serve in Probe, Mundt Reports

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Mundt (R-SD) said today a lawyer has agreed tentatively to serve as special counsel in the McCarthy-Army investigation. He refused to disclose the man's name.

Mundt said the lawyer is "not well known nationally," adding: "I'm sure Joe McCarthy never heard of this man."

Mundt said the man was interviewed secretly this morning by the Senate Investigations subcommittee, conducting the probe.

Mundt said he would not say that the man has been "tentatively accepted" by the Senate Investigations subcommittee, which will conduct the inquiry, but that the man has tentatively agreed to take the job.

"We were led to believe," Mundt said, "that if we could tell him that we made a complete check and are completely convinced that the man is the right one for the job he would say yes."

Equally, he said, the man made it clear that "he would not be available unless we make a further check" into his suitability, including the matter of his impartiality.

Mundt said he plans to call a news conference later. Asked whether he would then announce appointment of a counsel, he said "I certainly hope so."

Sen. McClellan of Arkansas, senior Democratic member of the subcommittee, told a reporter that "as of this minute nobody has been selected" for the job of special counsel.

"There is absolutely no news either way," he said when questioned about the identity of the lawyer referred to by Mundt.

8-Foot Octopus Slain in Fight With Fisherman

SANTA ROSA, Calif. (UP) — James (Big Jim) Antone, 265-pound Santa Rosa bulldozer operator, today displayed the carcus of a large octopus which he beat to death in a battle off the Sonoma County coast.

Antone, who was attacked by the creature while diving for Abalone Monday, said he "just got d—— mad when it wouldn't let go."

The octopus weighed more than 40 pounds and measured eight feet from tip to tip, with tentacles as big around as a man's arm.

The 50-year-old man said he was working neck-deep in the surf prying Abalones off the rocks when "I felt something like a muscled piece of wire wrap around my arm."

Before he could detach the tentacle, he said, several other suction cupped arms wrapped around his body.

"I never saw so many arms," Antone said. "I found it was useless to try to pry the arms loose, so I braced myself against the rock heaved back and the whole octopus came with me."

He said he waded ashore with the marine beast still clinging to him and succeeded in breaking its hold by slamming its head against a rock.

Dearborn Police Trap 2 Gunmen, Holdup Suspects

Hugh T. Cox of Pontiac Tries Getaway, Jumps Into Arms of FBI

Information given to Dearborn Police by two alert Oakland County detectives led to the arrest yesterday of two young gunmen charged with a $52,300 bank holdup.

The pair, one a flashy-dressing Pontiac man and the other a onetime University of Michigan student, was seized at a Dearborn home.

They are identified as Hugh T. "Buddy" Cox, 21, of 831 Inglewood St., Pontiac, and James J. Minder Jr., 24, of Dearborn.

FBI agents said about $45,700 of the loot taken last Friday in the mid-afternoon holdup of the Dearborn branch of the Manufacturers National Bank was recovered.

The money was found in a suitcase thrown from a window of their hideout by Cox in a final bid to escape.

Cox jumped 18 feet to the ground from their upstairs flat at 24900 Dunning.

He dislocated his shoulder in the leap and landed under the guns of FBI agents and Dearborn Police. Both Minder and 19-year-old Barbara Parker, identified by the agents as Minder's common-law wife, were arrested in a bedroom.

Oakland County Detective David Brann and his partner, Mahlon France, supplied the information that put Dearborn Police and FBI agents on the pair's trail.

Both detectives were assigned to the Cox case after the Pontiac ex-convict escaped from Oakland County Jail on March 25.

Cox, facing questioning on some robberies in Pontiac and Flint, walked away from the jail when a turnkey was checking in another prisoner.

He slipped from a telephone booth and lost himself in a crowd of weekly visitors.

Five days after his escape, Cox phoned Detective Brann at his home at 1 a.m.

Brann said he tried to persuade Cox to surrender, but the man replied:

"Not this time. I'm not going back to that 'tank' (prison) again."

The detective said he knew Cox had stolen three guns in a recent

Local Deputies' Tip Traps Bank Suspects

burglary, and said he told him to "lay those guns down and keep yourself out of trouble."

"Bud, it's going to become very dangerous," Brann told Cox. "Somebody is going to get hurt and most likely it will be you."

Brann said Cox apparently was "determined to shoot it out."

Later that same day, Brann got information from a tipster that Cox and someone else planned a "big" job.

"We were told from an informant that they (Cox and a cohort) were going to "take off something big' on Friday or Saturday," said Brann.

Brann said he called Dearborn Police immediately after he learned of the Friday bank holdup.

"We told Dearborn Inspector Dougher that we suspected Cox and Minder of the bank hold up and promised to send him a 'mug shot' of Cox at once," said Brann.

The detective said Dearborn Police got the photograph Monday morning and three witnesses to the bank holdup identified Cox as the unmasked bandit. Minder was masked, said the FBI agents.

Brann said Minder was suspected of being Cox' accomplice as Cox and Minder became chums while both were serving time in the Ionia State Prison.

Cox was sentenced in 1951 to 1½ to 15 years on a burglary charge. He was arrested in the home of Emerick Kocsis, 6354 Willow Rd., West Bloomfield Township, the day after fleeing police bullets during a dairy store burglary in West Bloomfield township.

Kocsis later was charged with receiving stolen property.

Minder also served time at Ionia for a $1,300 theft from a Detroit market. He attended the University of Rhode Island for a year before attending the University of Michigan briefly.

Minder was released on parole last December and Cox' parole was due to expire this month.

Brann said he and France expected the pair to stage the Friday or Saturday holdup in Oakland County.

"We thought it was going to be the Oakland County Sportsmen's Club in Waterford. At the same time Cox and Minder were holding up the Dearborn bank, we were waiting in the club for them," said Brann.

After learning of the suspects' identity, FBI and Dearborn Police surrounded the house shortly before noon.

Fred H. McIntire, chief agent in charge of the Detroit office, led the raiding party of six agents and two Dearborn police detectives.

When everyone was in place with drawn guns, one of the agents yelled, "We know you're in there. Come out with your hands up."

That was when Cox jumped. A .25 caliber automatic pistol was found in his pocket and three more guns were hidden in the suitcase tossed out the window.

Minder's father, James J. Sr., 47, accompanied the raiding party. He told agents his son had never been in trouble until the family moved to Detroit from Massachusetts four years ago.

The school system expects to get $2,246,060 from Michigan state aid money next year; $45,000 in delinquent tax payments; and $40,000 from other miscellaneous incomes.

This leaves a whopping $2,726,439.90 needed from local taxes.

The school board doesn't think it can get more than $2,041,000—leaving a $685,439.90 needed to balance the budget.

Superintendent Bidding Closed

Pontiac School Board Will Accept No More Applications for Post

No additional applications for the job as superintendent of Pontiac Public Schools will be taken, Pontiac Board of Education decided Tuesday.

At its special budget meeting, the board also voted to close a deal for a Kennett road school site and use Michigan's tenure law to run the teacher tenure program here.

More than 20 people have already applied for the school system's top job. The board plans to pick the new superintendent from these candidates sometime this month.

School board members voted Tuesday to buy 10½ acres of land on Kennett road from Oakland County for $5,500 for a school site. The county specified the board must use the property for a school within three years, or it will automatically go back to the county for the same price. If the school board wants to sell the land before then, the county will get a six-month option to buy it back at the same price.

The board's tenure committee, which includes Mrs. Lola B. King, board secretary, and members Louis H. Schimmel and Monroe M. Osmun, suggested the school system use the state tenure law to work out its program here "and develop local policies as the need arises."

The tenure program, approved by Pontiac voters, gives any fully-qualified teacher fired after two or three years of teaching the right to a hearing before the firing is final.

All fully-qualified Pontiac teachers who have taught here two years or more, and who get contracts to teach here next year, will be on tenure, unless their contracts state that they're still on probation.

Next year's teaching contracts should be issued this month, school officials say.

Jordan Reports 2 Israeli Raids

Arabs Beat Back 100 in 1st Raid on Border Village of Husan

JERUSALEM (UP) — Jordan charged today that strong, heavily-armed Israeli forces Tuesday night and early today twice invaded Jordan but were driven back by two sharp engagements.

The first attack, which the Jordan government said was carried out by a force of 100 or more Israelis allegedly was aimed at the Jordanian border village of Husan.

Husan is near the village of Nahalin where nine Arabs were killed in a March 29th Israeli raid for which the United Nations Mixed Armistice Commission strongly condemned Israel last week.

Today's angry Jordan announcement said the first of the new attacks was made at midnight with machine guns and hand grenades and was repulsed after a blazing two-hour battle with the Arab Legion and Jordanian national guardsmen.

The second Jewish attack, Jordan said, occurred at 2:30 a. m. It was beaten back after a 45 minutes battle with Jordan security forces.

McCarthy Says U.S. Delayed H-Bomb

member of the Joint Congressional Committee on Atomic Energy.

The H-bomb statement was a by-product of McCarthy's reply to charges by Murrow that he has abused his authority as a Senate investigator.

Murrow attacked McCarthy on March 9. He offered to turn his 30-minute See It Now show over to the senator for his reply. The answer was filmed over the weekend and telecast while McCarthy was in Arizona.

Although the film was kept secret until shortly before air time, Murrow, through sources he declined to divulge, obtained knowledge of the charges and drew up a reply which was released at the time of the telecast.

* * *

CBS said first listener reaction, via telephone calls and telegrams, was "overwhelmingly" in favor of Murrow.

The charges and answers included:

McCarthy: That Murrow "as far back as 20 years ago was engaged in propaganda for Communist causes . . . " The March 9 attack "followed implicitly the Communist line laid down in the last six months" by various Communist publications.

Murrow: "McCarthy's reckless and unfounded attempt to impugn my loyalty is just one more example of his typical tactic of attempting to tie up to communism anyone who disagrees with him."

McCarthy: That as acting director of the Institute of International Education in the 1930s Murrow "sponsored a Communist school in Moscow. In the selection of American students and teachers, who were to attend Mr. Murrow's organization, Murrow acted for the Russian espionage and propagandist organization known as VOKS—V-O-K-S. Many of those selected were later exposed as Communists."

Murrow: "In 1934, the Moscow University had organized an Anglo-American Institute which proposed holding summer sessions in Moscow for English and American students . . . I, as a representative of the institute . . . was one of the 24-member national advisory council which was set up to advise the director of the American group . . . The only contact which VOKS had with the American group was in connection with procuring living and travel facilities for the group while it was in Russia . . .Contact with it was necessary if the students were to sleep and eat . . . Soviets refused, after the 1934 summer session, to have anything more to do with the institute . . ."

Arthur A. Houghton Jr., chairman of the board of trustees of the institute, commented: "Sen. McCarthy's remarks . . . are so irresponsible and so far from actuality as to be undeserving of a reply . . ."

Unscrupulous Firms Are Falsely Diagnosing the Dutch Elm Disease

The Oakland County Foresters Assn. today warned property owners against unscrupulous tree companies who state trees are infected with Dutch elm disease when they actually are healthy.

The group discussed the problem at its monthly meeting last night in the Detroit Edison warehouse here, according to Pontiac City Forester William Aho.

Elm owners suspecting the disease should inform the county agricultural agent or their city forester, said Aho. A wood sample will then be sent to Michigan State College for analysis to reveal whether or not the tree is infected.

The foresters also heard a report from their brush disposal committee. The report said an incinerator now being built at 12-Mile Rd. and John R by the South Oakland County Garbage and Rubbish Authority may be available for disposing of brush, logs and stumps in the future.

The group's shade tree selection committee is preparing a report on trees best suited for growth in this area, Aho added.

Waives Examination in Knife-Point Theft

A 37-year-old Pontiac man yesterday waived examination on a charge that he robbed a local storekeeper of $325 Monday at knife point.

Herschel Brown of 30 Stout St., was bound over to Oakland County Circuit Court by Pontiac Judge Maurice E. Finnegan. Unable to furnish $5,000 bond, Brown is being held in Oakland County Jail until his arraignment in Circuit Court April 12.

Police say Brown hid in the rear of a car owned by Eugene Ketchel, 34, owner of Peoples Fish and Poultry Market at 82 S. Saginaw St., until closing time.

Ketchel, on his way home, said he was unaware of the bandit's presence until he was ordered to stop at Voorheis road. Ketchel said he made a grab for the knife, missed, and fled to a nearby grocery store to phone police.

Dets. Charles Hewitt and Thomas Mitchell, along with Ketchel, apprehended Brown 10 minutes later as Brown was entering a taxi at Orchard Lake road and Sylvan Ct. All of the money was recovered.

Menzies said "I am delighted like all Australians that these experiments are being conducted by our friends and not by our enemies."

Motorcycle Rider Is Injured in Crash

Ethel St. Croix, 19, of 730 Third Ave. is in good condition today at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital with injuries suffered when the motorcycle on which she was riding yesterday collided with a car.

Miss St. Croix, riding behind Donald E. Brice, 23, of 2231 Silver Lake Rd., Pontiac Township, suffered injury to her leg and face, as they attempted to turn left onto Glenwood avenue from E. Kennett road.

Adolph A. Nielson, 70, of 594 Wesbrook Ave. told police he was turning left from Glenwood avenue to park in front of the Motor Division office buildings.

Brice and witnesses said that while Brice, who had the traffic light in his favor, was making a left turn, Nielson, who was in the right hand lane, made a turn across the center line and the two vehicles collided.

Judge Lenient, Gives Probation

Ends Long Legal Battle Over Kalamazoo Man in Prison 15 Years

KALAMAZOO (AP) — John Wesley Johns, who recently pleaded guilty to felonious assault in a gun battle with Kalamazoo police 17 years ago, is on two years probation because the judge said he had been punished enough.

Johns heard Circuit Judge Lucien F. Sweet hand down the probation ruling yesterday. The ruling ended a legal battle that began last fall when Johns was released from Leavenworth Federal Penitentiary for a kidnaping connected with the gun fight.

Johns was returned to Kalamazoo last October following his release from prison to face a charge of attempted murder in the 1936 gun battle.

The legal scramble began when it was discovered that the warrant charging Johns with attempted murder had been lost. Johns then agreed to plead guilty to the lesser felonious assault offense.

During the gun battle, Johns companion, Theodore Burgstedt of South Bend, Wis., was killed and Dee Williams, Kalamazoo police captain was seriously wounded.

Johns made his escape by kidnaping Bernard Marthen, a Kalamazoo law clerk. He forced Marthen to drive him to Chicago.

Johns was arrested two years later. He was tried and found guilty of kidnaping and imprisoned at Leavenworth on a 15-25 year term. He was paroled after serving the minimum term.

Stagger System Backed for City

Dudley Says Picking All Commissioners at Once Shortsighted Policy

City Commissioner Harold W. Dudley last night directed citizens' attention to proposals to amend the city charter to provide staggered terms for commissioners and elect them on a city-wide basis.

Dudley, who did not run for re-election this year in District 2 spoke at the last regular meeting of the present city commission. He also said he thought commissioners should receive more pay.

Staggering terms of commissioners, Dudley explained, would prevent situations such as will develop next week when six new men take seats on the seven-member group.

It takes two years to become entirely familiar with city affairs, Dudley stated, and time is wasted. A heavy load is placed on the city manager, he added.

If commissioners took office at different times, Dudley pointed out, there would always be experienced men on the commission.

Dudley said he felt that commissioners should be nominated by citizens in their districts, but selected in a city-wide vote as municipal judges are now.

Many questions which commissioners decide once in office affect the whole city, Dudley stated, and said they should be responsible to the whole electorate.

"Many citizens think the commissioner's job is easy, but it isn't on all occasions," said Dudley. Much time must be spent studying proposals, investigating citizens' complaints and attending extra meetings besides the regular weekly meeting, he explained.

"The compensation in feeling you are doing your duty is the only reason why business and professional men enter public service," the commissioner said.

Under the charter a commissioner can't receive more than $300 per year.

Dudley pointed out that his proposals must come through charter amendments requiring a majority vote of the city electorate to pass.

He also said the present commission "leaves the city in extremely excellent condition" and commended City Manager Walter K. Willman for his cooperation and direction.

Mayor Arthur J. Law said that with the added 1½ mill tax for money to construct public improvements, "the city can see a golden era in the next 10 years."

However, Law said he considered it "inhuman and selfish" when property owners failed to approve the hospital bond issue in Monday's election.

The need for more medical facilities will grow more and more acute Law said "at the meager saving of a few dollars."

Auburn Heights Driver Hurt as Car Rolls Over

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP —John Francisco, 46, of Auburn Heights was treated for injuries yesterday after his car rolled over on South boulevard, west of Squirrel road.

Francisco told police he swerved to the side of the road to avoid striking a car which stopped suddenly in front of him. Police said his car was a total loss.

Bob Considine Says:

Ike Has Improved More Than Any TV Personality

NEW YORK (INS)—I thought President Eisenhower made every other commentator on television look fumbling and ill-at-ease, during his Monday night chat. I know of no television personality who has improved more than Ike.

This may be an indirect plug for Robert Montgomery, who has been around the White House in recent months trying to get the Prez more comfortably into the TV groove. But in all probability it is a combination of several things, including the determination of the President to master the new medium. That, he surely has done.

If he used a tele-prompter or cards the other night, as he sat casually on the edge of a desk and talked about the groundless fears of the country, it was hardly discernible.

This was man-to-man talk without a stumble, hesitation or doubt. The President has found the priceless knack of projecting his small-room personality into countless millions of small rooms.

His most reassuring note, I thought, was the matter-of-fact way in which he reduced the massive threat of the other great power in the world to terms of petty individuals and their preference to stay in power rather than risk losing it all.

"They've studied Mussolini, Hitler and even Napoleon," he said of the men in the Kremlin and the apprehension they spread through the U. S. When dictators over-reach themselves they, in time, lose the very power which they sought and gained as dictators, he went on.

This is a great counter-balance against World War III, the President said earnestly. So is the Russians' knowledge that they would have to use their captive satellite troops in any great war. Napoleon tried that once, invading Russia, and the desertions were appalling.

The President urged constant alertness, but said that Russia isn't likely to move because she knows (among other things) that we produced 2½ billion barrels of oil last year to her half billion, and twice as much steel.

Air Force Pushing for Base in State

TRAVERSE CITY (UP) — The Air Force is seeking an $8,600,000 appropriation to begin construction of a jet base near Traverse City, Rep. Ruth Thompson (R-Mich) said yesterday.

Miss Thompson made the announcement in a telephone call to Harry Running, Grand Traverse County Prosecutor and one of the supporters of the project.

She said if the Air Force succeeds in getting the appropriation, construction is scheduled to begin sometime next year. It will take nearly two years to complete the base.

Air Force surveying teams have selected a site approximately eight miles southwest of Traverse City on the Western edge of Long Lake.

Air Force plans call for construction of a base for a jet wing. The 25 planes will operate from two runways. They will be charged with protection of the vital Soo locks, Great Lakes shipping and industry in Michigan and neighboring states.

BURBANK, Calif. (UP)—An indefinite postponement has been called in Mrs. Dianna Bixbys projected round-the-world speed flight.

Teaches Piano to Handicapped

Music Center Directed by 'Sister Kenny of the Keyboard'

DENVER, Colo. (UP)—Mrs. Eva Welbourne, a Denver piano teacher who has found that the keyboard will respond to something besides agile fingers is devoting much of her time to making handicapped persons happy.

One of the students at the Welbourne Music Center for the Handicapped here has nither hands nor feet. But he learned to play the "Missouri Waltz" in a month.

This particular student, considerably encouraged by his newly acquired skill, uses hooks attached to his arms on the keys and operates the pedals of the piano by shifting his weight forward and backward on a board extended from the stool he sits on.

Similar contraptions and gadgets are used by Mrs. Welbourne to teach less extreme cases.

One student, for example, lacks the ability to do things with his fingers. But he can grasp and hodd onto things.

In his case, a potato is used. He holds a spud in both hands and strikes the keys with them. The result is music. A simple thing like a doorstop has been used in other cases.

Mrs. Welbourne explained her idea to help teach handicapped students—put to use that which they have to work with and make them forget about the physical faculties they don't have.

The "Sister Kenny of the piano keyboard," as she has been called, opened her unusual music center here last September.

She started with six students and six piano teachers. The teachers have no physical disabilities and are taught to spread Mrs. Welbourne's way of teaching the handicapped.

The idea of teaching handicapped persons to play the piano came to Mrs. Welbourne by accident—while she was playing one of her husband's favorite pieces.

Her husband, who was in an adjoining room at the time, was amazed to find out later she was using only two fingers, one in each hand.

Before coming to Denver last August, Mrs Welbourne worked with the handicapped in New York City, her birthplace. She tried her theory out on a small scale at Goldwater Memorial Hospital and at the Institute for Rehabilitation.

Mrs. Welbourne hopes to extend her work over the nation. She already has won support from leading musicians and those working in the rehabilitation of handicapped persons.

Juin and de Gaulle

France Facing Coalition of Two Political Generals

By CHARLES W. McCANN
United Press Staff Correspondent

Troubled France has another "political general" on its hands, the third in less than 15 years. He is Alphonse Juin, France's only living marshal.

The result is that France has a new political crisis. It could turn into a constitutional crisis. That is, a test between parliamentary government and authoritarian government—a dictatorship.

When Juin announced in a speech on March 27 that he opposes the European Defense Community pact one of the first United Press dispatches from Paris said:

"The blunt-spoken Juin sent a tremor through France with his unexpected assault upon the treaty."

Juin, a military officer, had rebelled against the civilian French government which is pledged to seek ratification of the pact.

The thought of a political general always sends a tremor through France. It means trouble.

And this time France had trouble enough already—a war in Indochina, riots by the independence-seeking Nationalists in North Africa, increasingly insistent demands by Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru that France give up its colonies on the Indian subcontinent.

Also, a cabinet dangerously divided on the issue of ratifying the EDC pact, which is to bring German troops into a West European army.

Juin at 65 retains his physical and mental vigor. He is old for a soldier but is young enough to become a power in politics.

He is medium height and powerfully built. He is hot tempered and outspoken. His disposition is jovial. He likes music and dancing and bridge.

He was graduated at the top of his class from St. Cyr, the French West Point, and served heroically in the two world wars.

He must have known when he he made his speech, and when he snubbed Premier Joseph Laniel who called on him to explain it, that he was jepoardizing his army career.

He has now lost all his posts, which included the vice presidency of the high French Defense Council and the command of North Atlantic treaty land, air and sea forces in Central Europe.

Juin is only one of a succession of political generals in France. Napoleon Bonaparte brought glory to France and left it drained of men and money.

Gen. Georges Boulander aspired to a dictatorship in the 1880s and came not very far from getting it before he was exiled and died a suicide in Belgium.

Marshal Henri Philippe Petain, hero of Verdun, became dictator of the Vichy government after the fall of France in World War II.

Gen. Charles de Gaulle, who became provisional president after World War II, has fought for an authoritarian government. He wants France to have a president with real power instead of a parliamentary government.

And yesterday Juin announced he was joining de Gaulle in a finish fight against the EDC. It looks as if the two political generals think alike on other things.

Modern Boone Proves to Be Feeble Daniel

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UP)—Daniel Boone came back to Kentucky recently but he had to use an automobile and a road map to follow the wilderness trail of pioneer days.

Daniel Boone, an attorney from Nashville, Tenn., realized an ambition of many years when he tried follow the path blazed by his famous great - great - great-grandfather. He found it impossible to follow the original Boone trail, since portions of it can only be reached by foot and the present Daniel Boone was handicapped by an old back injury.

Boone spent much of his time visiting every monument and marker along the trail commemorating his ancestor. He got an unexpected reaction when he signed the register at the Boone Tavern in Berea.

"What's the joke?" a clerk asked.

At the time of the Civil War, New York had a population of more than a million, and Philadelphia had 500,000.

Pontiac Election

Pontiac voters want a change.

Of five City Commissioners who sought re-election, four were gracefully led to the side lines. Only Dr. Roy V. Cooley was successful.

Municipal Judge Maurice E. Finnegan was returned to office but the Commission's temporary appointee was rejected by the voters who elected Cecil McCallum.

The two special issues presented a perplexing state of affairs. The tax limit change was approved but the hospital bond issue was defeated, although the vote was 6,240 for and 4,908 against. The hospital matter required a 60 per cent margin and it obtained 56 per cent.

★ ★ ★

Two City Commissioners of much more than average tenure in office were defeated. J. H. Patrick Glynn, who has been a Commissioner for more than a dozen years, was nosed out in a close contest in the sixth district. "Pat" has been a respected City Hall figure for more than a decade. Pontiac owes him a long standing debt of gratitude for faithful service and unquestioned integrity. Glynn was the current dean of the Commission. His successor, John E. Carry, is well regarded by voters in his own precinct and by the city at large.

★ ★ ★

The reason for His Honor's failure is more apparent. Mayor Law has served Pontiac creditably for a considerable period of time. He has a fine record of past service and dependability. But the Mayor ran afoul the electorate on the matter of more grog shops. The thoughts of the community were plainly indicated, but our long time friend was adamant and refused to harken to the public clamor.

★ ★ ★

The Press recognizes Arthur Law as a sturdy citizen and his over-all record is excellent. But he turned his back on the people at the wrong time. His successor, Floyd P. Miles, a highly respected citizen in his own right probably wouldn't have entered the lists at all, had the Mayor accepted the mandate of the people on the question of no more saloons for Pontiac.

Mr. Miles is an individual of sterling character and should prove a valuable addition to the City Commission.

John A. Dugan ran a top side race in his own district and was elected in face of the opposition of a former commissioner and a current office holder.

William W. Donaldson was returned to the Commission after an absence of several years and classifies as a veteran in Pontiac civic affairs. In all probability the mayoralty rests between him and Harcourt Patterson. Mr. Patterson is one of the city's fine attorneys and although he has never served on the Commission, he is an exceedingly capable man and sufficiently versed in public matters to act as mayor if the others prefer him.

★ ★ ★

All the supporters of the liquor clique were swept out of office except Dr. Roy V. Cooley. Personally, we don't think Dr. Cooley is wrong at heart on any vital public issue. We feel that in the liquor matter he was simply the victim of some unfortunate advice.

Harry W. Lutz won handily in the seventh district over Benjamin M. Gates.

The biggest question left since election is this:

What about the hospital?

Well, what about it?

Are we to accept defeat and leave the sick and injured without adequate protection? That doesn't seem logical. Personally, we feel the hospital issue can be renewed on a better platform and a more clear cut declaration of intent.

★ ★ ★

It was a reasonably clean cut election with no particular mud slinging and no bitter personalities. This is the democratic way of life. This is the world's champion political system in action.

Ferguson Honored

Well earned tributes to Senator Ferguson came to him from President Eisenhower and Vice President Nixon during a testimonial dinner tendered by Michigan Republicans.

The Vice President, who was the featured speaker, referred to our senior Senator as "an indispensable member of the Eisenhower legislative team." Predicting that Ike would get a substantial part of his program through Congress, Mr. Nixon added that one reason would be the splendid leadership of men like Sen. Ferguson.

President Eisenhower's letter to the chairman of the Senate Policy Committee said in part:

"All of us recognize that the perpetuation of the Republic, its increasing strength and prosperity and world influence for good are uppermost in your mind. Please count on me as one of those who salute you as a worthy son of Michigan and a Senator in the great tradition of the United States Senate."

★ ★ ★

We would like to be counted in, too, believing Sen. Ferguson is the kind of lawmaker the people need and will retain in the upper House.

H. Smith Opposes Letting Communist Clergymen Attend Conventions in U. S.

(Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests, unless the letter is critical in its nature.)

I believe every loyal American regardless of church affiliation should send a word of protest to our state department in Washington about granting visas to so called Communist clergymen to come into this country to attend the National Council of Christian Churches convention at Evanston, Ill., this August.

Communism trains men in their ideologies for the purpose of working into churches and taking over pulpits in Christian countries to propagandize there.

This is only another branch of fifth column work and these fake clergymen would be nothing more than a mouthpiece for Malenkov, using Christianity and the pulpit for a coverup.

Communism operates in any organization on a one per cent basis with a nine per cent following. If anyone doubts this take a look at countries under Russian control and they will realize, "so goes religion, so goes the country."

McCarthyism is a paradise compared to these churches which sponsor such men coming into our country under the guise of Christian conventions.

Trailer Dwellers Ask School Bus Service

We live in a house trailer at Square Lake Trailer Park and have two sons attending Pontiac schools. One is in the first grade at the Daniel Whitfield School (one mile from the park) and one is in the ninth grade at Washington Junior High (4 miles from the park).

There are no school busses for the children living in the park . . . they have to walk to school. Consequently, when it is storming and the weather is bad my boys and other children in the park miss school.

There are school busses that go down Telegraph Road, right past the park, but they won't pick up our children, only those living in houses. Why? Is it because they think people living in house trailers are not as good as the others?

We pay school taxes the same as home owners. The only difference is we pay ours once a month (included in our lot rent) whereas property owners pay theirs once a year.

All efforts of the park residents to secure a school bus for our children have failed.

Eisenhower Hits New High in TV Chat, Not in What He Said but How He Said It

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON—President Eisenhower made on Monday night the best television presentation any public man has made since the new medium has come to the American people.

It was an outstanding performance because it was natural, informal and simple.

Whether this was the result of careful coaching, or special training by the experts, the result offers a challenge to public speakers hereafter to match his style of delivery and simplicity.

Unlike some of the President's previous appearances when, with his eyes on a prompting device invisible to his audience, he has read lines that seemed to be poorly phrased from the standpoint of the hearers, this didn't seem to be a speech at all—it was just a talk.

In his informal conversations with callers the President has always seemed at ease, never lacking for a simple word or phrase to make a point. Now he has achieved the same sort of informality before the television cameras and that is an important feat.

Regardless of the content of the talk — and opinions will differ on the merits of some sections of it — the net impression left on a fair-minded or unpartisan listener was one of sincerity and earnestness. His words carried conviction.

The same kind of delivery in a political campaign would be tremendous on the vote-getting side. But it is precisely because Eisenhower wasn't asking for votes, and wasn't talking politics, that he attained the same kind of approval the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt won when he first delivered his non-partisan fireside chats.

There may be some question whether every public man can match the effect which Eisenhower's talk produced even if the informality of style in delivery were duplicated. There is something about the Eisenhower personality which is infectious.

Perhaps it is the prestige of the positions he has held in critical times in the past, and perhaps it is because everyone knows he isn't a self-seeking politician, but it is the Eisenhower personality after all which is the main reason for the effectiveness of the television style he now has mastered.

Curiously enough, there wasn't a lot of new information in what the President said, and some of the Democrats who have criticized the speech for that reason were perhaps disappointed because they expected some sort of profound utterance on the international situation.

Eisenhower, nevertheless, said many implicitly important things, especially as he analyzed Soviet weaknesses on the economic side and repeated the idea of massive retaliation in the event that "in a fit of madness or through miscalculation" the persons in the Kremlin should start a big war.

Everything that the President said showed that he didn't believe a world war was in the offing. Certainly, he made it clear no war would ever be started on American initiative, so the question as to whether the H-bomb will actually destroy any human lives rest with a small group of men in Moscow. By pointing up this fact the President focused attention on the real source of potential trouble.

When Eisenhower dealt with other subjects, especially on the domestic side, he was somewhat vague. Generally speaking, he was reassuring about the business outlook and rightly pointed to the large number of employed in contrast with the small number who are unemployed.

He did not attempt to give statistics, but it was quite apparent that the President exudes confidence about the readjustment in business now in progress.

One of the handicaps of the type of speech which the President tried is that in covering so many big subjects there isn't time enough to go into detail on any of them.

His treatment of the issue of Communist penetration in government, for example, was all too brief, as was his discussion of the role of congressional investigating committees. He properly stressed the fine job the FBI has been doing.

He omitted, however, mentioning that the FBI did an equally good job under the preceding administration. But this wasn't of as much avail because FBI reports were ignored or minimized by the White House, especially in the Alger Hiss and Harry Dexter White cases.

Nor did Eisenhower explain that sometimes when the statute of limitations has run, no prosecutions can be instituted even if FBI evidence is gathered.

Then the only way to deal with those who have been engaged in the Communist cause is to expose them through congressional hearings.

If it were not for a House committee, Alger Hiss would not be in jail today, even though the FBI had all the information in its files long before he was prosecuted for swearing falsely.

Eisenhower's talk on the whole has stimulated a lot of discussion in Congress — not so much because of what he said but how he said it. A new force in political campaigning has been perfected by Dwight Eisenhower.

Audience Participation Sparks Group Discussion

"Audience participation" is one secret of interesting meetings, whether of your PTA or church and social groups. So order some of the bulletins below and let your crowd rate each other. They are great fun but also serve as wholesome personality charts.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case K-369: Laurelina Miller, with a devoted husband and two boys, lives near Charleston, West Virginia.

"Dr. Crane, I really live at Teays, which is a small suburban community near Charleston," she said.

"Like most wives, I am happily married and active in PTA work, as well as the Sunday school.

"Our organizations would like to know which of your Rating Scales and educational bulletins you'd recommend for use at our meetings."

If you PTA groups are interested in the aid which parents can render to their children, as well as to the wearied teachers, then send for the bulletin "How to Tutor Your Child At Home."

It shows you how to pep up the interest, as well as the grades, of your youngster in reading, mathematics, etc.

And regardless of how smart your child may be, in some subject he may ultimately fall behind and thus require a little home assistance.

Mrs. Crane and I have helped all five of our children at one time or other, as when they were tackling multiplication tables, etc.

The "Test for a Good Teacher" is likewise a stimulating one to use for discussion purposes.

Many Principals have ordered it in quantity for use by all the teachers, and I have employed it in that manner when I've addressed various State Teachers' Conventions.

Dads seldom show up at PTA Meetings, so you wives have tact-fully set aside a special Father's Night in the PTA. You are to be complimented on this strategy.

On Father's Night, it is interesting to use the 100-Point "Test for Fathers."

There is a companion "Test for Mothers" which you can pass around on that night, too, to avoid isolating the Dads and making them the only self-conscious folks in the crowd.

The new "Behavior Test for Teen-Agers" is likewise a dandy to get even with your kids who have been grumbling and thinking you are too hard on them.

Let them rate themselves on this "Teen-Agers Test." And you can score them, too, if you are willing to let them rate you on the "Father's" or "Mother's" tests.

If you wish material for homework projects by your members, then try the "Compliment Club." It is perfect for Sunday Schools, Scout Troops, as well as the PTA.

If you want to diet, send for the bulletin, "How to Lose 10-Lbs. in 10 Days."

Many churches have used it for money raising purposes. A group of wives will weigh in, say at the beginning of Lent, and then agree to donate $2.50 per pound for each pound they lose by Easter.

Meanwhile, send for the bulletin "How to Quit Smoking," and let your husbands cut off their tobacco meanwhile. This will save about $1.50 per week, which you can add to your church fund.

The "Public Platform Strategy," bulletin is good for speakers, and the "How to Write Salable Copy" has an informative section on prize contesting that will fit the interests of many of your PTA or church society members.

These various bulletins require 10 cents apiece and a stamped return envelope, but in group lots they are sold at about half rates.

In fact, you always get them below cost, for I make up a deficit of about $15,000 per year on this mail service via my speeches each year, so take full advantage of such educational aids.

Dr. Brady Angry at Certain Druggists Who Call Old-Time Remedies Poison

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

Many readers have used with satisfaction the fool proof home made cough medicine I describe in the booklet Call It CRI (for which send 25 cents and stamped, self-addressed envelope).

Lately they complain when they try to purchase one of the ingredients for a batch of cough medicine for children or adults, they are rebuffed

The druggist or his clerk tells them that citrate of soda is no longer available or that it is "dangerous" and can be sold only on prescription.

This seems a contrived difficulty. Formerly citrate of soda was used in the modification of cow's milk for infant feeding — one or two grains added to each ounce of milk in the mixture prepared for feeding. It prevented formation of large curds.

This is not necessary or desirable in infant feeding today, but it shows that citrate of soda (sodium citrate) is at least not "poisonous."

A number of other medicines I have recommended for use in the home have lately become hard to get without a prescription.

The prescription dodge is an effective way to boop the druggist's profit from the ordinary 50 per cent to 200 or 300 per cent.

A medical colleague prescribed some fancy proprietary tablets for a member of my family. I handed the prescription to a druggist who didn't know me.

He looked at it and at me and said it would take alf an hour to compound . . . but I said never mind. I can purchase he tablets in 20 seconds elsewhere, and got out of the joint unclipped.

Formerly I recommended a home made blood tonic, the main ingredient of which was an ounce (2 tablespoonfuls) of an official preparation, Iron and Ammonium Citrates, described in the Pharmacopoeia as "thin, transparent, garnet-red scales or granules."

In Little Lesson No. 18, Blood and Health (25 cents and stamped, self-addressed envelope) I told how to mix up a batch of blood tonic, and a good many readers reported that this remedied their anemia.

But here we go again. First the druggists said the preparation came only in brown scales or granules or in green. Later that it didn't come at all—that is, was no longer obtainable.

This situation became so difficult that I gave up the fight and in the present edition of No. 18 I recommend only ready-made iron preparations for anemia, preparations they can't change on me.

Now the sudden authorities, like McCarthy branding as "5th amendment Communists" those who do not truckle, tell us, in various pretty-pretty magazines, that boric acid is "poison."

What, after 70 years of use of S. S, B. A. (saturated solution of boric acid in boiled water) as an all-around antiseptic in hospitals, dispensaries and real clinics throughout the land?

How about that? We'll consider this attack on boric acid in a screed to follow.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. Brady if a stamped, self addressed envelope is enclosed, etc.

Curbstone Analysts Feel Troubles Are Fair Game

By LAURA Z. HOBSON
(International News Service)

"Curbstone analysis" is a name I've heard for an indoor sport indulged in by many people when they discuss their friends and what's wrong with them.

"Joe has an inferiority complex," one of these amateur psychoanalysts says, to explain why some friend never opens his mouth in company, and gets damp palms if he meets anybody for the first time.

"Bill has an inferiority complex," is that same amateur's verdict a day later, about a loud mouthed braggart who won't let you get a word in edgewise. "He's just trying to cover up his basic insecurity with all that talk."

Or perhaps you're discussing Jessie, who's a good secretary but can't keep a job. Each time she lands a new one, it's a cinch that sooner or later she'll get into a hot scrap with the boss and get the pink slip and the severance pay.

"Jessie's unconsciously hostile," your know-it-all explains, "to any man in authority. That's because she hated her father for walloping her when she was 3 years old."

Could be. But it also could be that Jessie's difficulties come from something a million miles away from father's walloping.

Most people wouldn't dream of picking up a sharp knife and doing a little amateur surgery on their relatives and friends, but there are plenty around who feel that any ailment of the human personality is just their meat.

These self-appointed experts are loaded with easy lingo about defense mechanisms, anxieties, super ego, projection, infantilism, sublimation and the like, as if these terms were chessmen to be shoved around in a cozy little game.

But it's no cozy little game when a child can't make a go of his life, nor when an adult feels tied into knots too often. It's no fun and frolic for the sufferers themselves, nor for those who are closest to them and wonder helplessly what's at the bottom of their mysterious difficulties and failures.

Whether or not you yourself believe in psychoanalysts as one of the great new branches of medicine, or write it off for this or the other reason—that's a personal matter.

But either way you'll agree that all curbstone analysts deserve to be parked permanently at the nearest curb and given a few tickets.

Kalamazoo Board Shy $214,000 for Schools

KALAMAZOO (AP) — Kalamazoo's Board of Education Wednesday was looking for revenue to offset the $214,000 deficit created when the board adopted a $3,823,999 budget, a million dollars above operating expenses for the current year.

The budget includes an increase of $134,875 for the district's approximately 500 teachers and adds 35 more instructors at a cost of $129,500 per year.

Gun Accident Mars 23rd Wedding Date

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — John M. Westphal, 42, of Grandville, a former justice of the peace, was wounded Tuesday as he took a .38 calibre revolver from a drawer. It discharged accidentally, he said, the bullet hitting him in the left shoulder.

Westphal was treated at St. Mary's hospital.

The incident occurred while Westphal and his wife, Gertrude, were observing their 23rd wedding anniversary. Grandville Police Chief Bernard Skipper said a neighbor was entering Westphal's home and told of hearing the pistol discharge.

3-Story Suicide Dive Ends in Stomach Ache

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A 32-year-old unemployed man leaped from the top of a three-story hotel here last night but his suicide dive resulted in nothing worse than a stomach ache.

Officers said Daniel Rodriquez, after screaming "Don't try to stop me," took off from the roof and landed with a perfect "belly flop" on top of a parked car.

He was taken to emergency hospital for minor cuts on his nose and elbow and a very sore midriff and then was booked for drunkenness.

Jesus' Last 7 Days Told in News Style

Can you imagine what modern news dispatches would have been like during the last seven days of Jesus' life?

Starting Monday, the Pontiac Press is bringing you such reports, with a Jerusalem dateline, written by Ora Spaid for the Press.

The reporter takes an imaginary trip back more than 19 centuries to Jerusalem in the time of Christ's last seven days and reports the events of that week, written in the style of today's news.

He uses only the truth apparent at that time and none of the reverent knowledge that has grown through the centuries.

Spaid reports the events leading up to Jesus' Crucifixion, the reactions of the religious rebel's disciples, and the jeers of the mob.

Watch for these stories 'from Jerusalem' in the Press next week.

Hamlet Booms for Old Folks

Promoter Buys Ghost Town; Caters to Small Income Group

RYDERWOOD, Wash. (UP)—A few months ago, this remote hamlet in southwestern Washington was a ghost town — today it is a pensioners' boom town.

Logging trucks rambled through the streets at one time and lumbermen filled the nearby woods. Then it became quiet. Windows were boarded and weeds choked the main street.

Then Senior Estates, Inc., bought the town to "make it into a place for retired folks with small pocketbooks."

President and general manager of Senior Estates is W. F. Brandt, a retired army colonel.

He said Ryderwood is not a charity proposition. The corporation is in business and expects reasonable profits. A total of 183 houses is being sold for $2,500, $3,000 and $3,500.

Down payments and monthly installments are within easy range of average retirement incomes.

Brandt said a work crew paints the outside of houses and fixes up plumbing. The interior is up to the new occupants.

"We haven't come here to die," said Harry Jordan, a retired railroader and one of Ryderwood's new residents. "We are getting ready to live.

"I just work along at my own speed. When I get tired, right across the street is a brook full of trout, and from the windows we can see the deer grazing."

"I'm going to live here, but not as a dictator," Brandt said. "This will be an incorporated town and whatever activities the citizens want, we will have."

The ingredients of Ryderwood are home ownership at low prices, work, community life geared to the interests of older people and stimulating hobbies.

FALSE TEETH That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Hold false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTEETH at any drug counter.

Hal Boyle Says:

Daily Rut Seems Precious When H-Bomb Threatens

NEW YORK (AP)—What would you miss most if civilization were destroyed?

As I see it, the race of man, heading into the 10th year of the atomic era, is like a small child that awakens in a half-light, looks in sleepy doubt out the window and cries:

"Mommy, is the night coming down or the sun coming up? I can't tell."

None of us alive, from a baby in its cradle to wise old Winston Churchill, can say for sure whether the world stands in twilight or at the edge of a great dawn. Nobody knows. Nobody.

* * *

The odds are strong that there will be another war, simply because the tribes of mankind have fought more than 1,000 wars in a brief time on earth... because there is a war going on right now.

As an incurable optimist, I do not find the prospect of being hit between the eyes by a hydrogen bomb any more terrifying than the possibility of being struck by lightning. The real tragedy behind the use of atomic energy in war would be not the mass slaughter it could cause, or the death of cities, but that this same power, wisely employed, might bring a happier day for millions. You can't say that of a machine gun. Death is its purpose.

* * *

Pessimists fear that an atomic war would wipe out mankind. That's not likely, unless some scientist finds a way to set a match to this earth we dream and scheme on and turns it into a minor fireball in the sky. Men lived in caves before, and if the nations start tossing hydrogen bombs around like firecrackers, some men would still cral out of the caves alive when the explosions ceased.

The intricate civilization we live in now, however, could well become a casualty—and set mankind back on its haunches a couple of hundred years, giving us the problem of making the long painful crawl from darkness back to the half-light again.

What would you miss most if civilization were destroyed in your own lifetime? What do you really value in it? What would you yearn for most again, if you were suddenly forced back into a half-savage condition, fighting fiercely for food, shelter and safety?

* * *

There are so many things. My wife and I were talking this over the other night, and Frances said:

"Well, at least there's one thing you wouldn't miss—the daily rut you complain about."

The daily rut? I fell to thinking. What was the daily rut?

It was going to work, of course, and the long voyage home on the bus—to a nice meal at the end. It was a pleasant place to live in, and bills, bills, bills. It was income taxes, and teaching the baby a new game. It was the music of Beethoven, and a braying comedian on the radio.

* * *

Such a mixed-up rut. It was coughing in a fog, and being flooded by the moon on a summer night. It was worrying why friends sometimes act like half-enemies, enemies like half-friends, then getting a kind note from a complete stranger. It was a sense of getting older, and the youthful feeling that comes with spring.

Vacationing at the beach, sweating in the subway . . . buying a new suit, breaking an old shoelace . . . losing yourself at a wonderful new musical, finding yourself at the funeral of someone who couldn't afford to die . . . being bored at a banquet, window shopping at Christmas time . . . wine at night, aspirin in the morning . . . feeling sorry for a dwarf, admiring the Empire State Building . . . working and resting . . . and always wondering, wondering, wondering.

* * *

The daily rut? Suddenly it seemed infinitely precious to me—a channel between dead regrets and new opportunities.

* * *

Why, what is civilization but the collection of all our daily ruts, and the chance to plow fresh ones? Anything that destroyed our civilization would destroy them, the patterns we live by.

And that is what the average man would miss most—the daily rut he secretly loves and so often rebels against.

The United States is converting about a million acres of land to residential, commercial and industrial purposes each year.

Bay City Lady Loses 33 Lbs. With Rennel

(Advertisement)

"Ten years ago I had to have surgery done and was told that after this type of operation I would put on weight which I did and accepted as a natural result," writes Mrs. H. Loomis, R. No. 3, Bay City, Mich. "I went from 114 to 193 lbs. and was always tired and out of breath. My doctor told me I just had to take off some weight. To solve my reducing problem I placed my faith in Rennel Concentrate and with its help lost 33 lbs. Now I wear a much smaller dress size with plenty of style. I will never stop taking Rennel until I can again wear a size 14 dress. Wherever I go my friends tell me how nice I look and I feel ten years younger, thanks to Rennel."

It's amazing how quickly you can lose unsightly fat at home. Obtain liquid Rennel at your druggist, mix with grapefruit juice as directed and take two tablespoonfuls twice a day. That's all there is to it. If you do not lose weight with the very first bottle just return it for your money back. You need never know a hungry moment while reducing with Rennel.

Soldier Gives Self Up; Was AWOL 17 Years

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Pfc. John R. Steahwein walked away from Ft. Riley, Kan., and never went back.

That was 17 years ago—and the Army didn't catch up with the AWOL soldier from Arkansas.

Yesterday Steahwein, 40, called on the police.

"I'm tired of running," he said. He was turned over to Air Force police, who expect the Army to decide his fate.

Phone Number Mixup

CIRCLEVILE, Ohio (UP)—The clerk of the new municipal court wasn't sure if a telephone caller was serious or poking fun when he asked for somebody to remove a dead cow. It developed that the court had been given a telephone number formerly assigned to a fertilizer company.

Rhythm Band Helps Bring Mentally Ill Vets to Life

KALAMAZOO (AP) — Fifty Kalamazoo Gray Ladies are bringing back the "dead."

Some 2,025 battle-worn mentally ill patients are in the Veterans Administration Hospital at Fort Custer.

Of these, many are literally walking dead men. They are the regressives, men who have withdrawn from the outside world and ignore every attempt to pry them from their shell.

Twice a week these volunteer women gather the silent men together, drop a musical toy in each lap and start their work. The result: A rhythm band.

"This is not music therapy," says William Moore, chief of special service at the hospital. "Music therapy must involve recognized music.

"These women are shaking many of our worst cases from themselves with a combination of music and noise in which the patients can join."

The toys are handed to the men whether they are wanted or not. Often they are not.

One nurse begins on a portable piano. The others walk among the patients. They blow toy horns. They rattle tambourines and smile encouragement at any men who show signs of the least bit of interest.

After months of work with the rhythm band some 60 men come to life for this short session. Some nod their heads, others beat time with their hands or feet and some strum toy guitars or hum into plastic horns.

One of these men is a former West Pointer. He is a slim, erect professional soldier who won his appointment in battle. Then his mind snapped and he ignored every attempt to make him conscious of the present.

Today he stands on the outskirts of the band. He looks at the instruments. He taps his feet. He may play soon.

The group also includes a World War II veteran who was a former professional musician. A short time ago he spent hours with a towel pulled over his head. Then he was exposed to the rhythm band.

Today he gives public recitals.

Tel-Huron Center Invites Public to Opening

Ribbon Cutting to Be Highlight

Ten Stores Planning Three-Day Celebration Starting Tomorrow

Ten of Michigan's leading merchants will open their doors tomorrow morning at 9:30 for the three-day Grand Opening of the Tel-Huron Shopping Centre at Telegraph and W. Huron.

The 16-unit project has been under construction since last April. Of the six unaccounted-for shops, three have not been leased yet by Tel-Huron Centre Inc., owner of the project. Three others, which could not be completed in time, will hold separate openings.

They are: Winkleman's, specializing in fashionable women's wear, which is instituting a live-model display for the individual buyer; Wrigley's Stores Inc., a supermarket, and the Myer Jewelry Co., which handles first-line diamonds, watches and costume jewelry.

A main parking lot, lighted and paved for convenience of customers, and four auxiliary lots, will furnish parking for about 2,000 cars. Entrances to the main lot are on both Huron street and Telegraph road. Exits are provided at Glendale avenue and Telegraph road.

A dozen Pontiac policemen will be on hand to direct and control traffic for the opening and 15 to 20 older uniformed members of the Pontiac Boys' Club will be stationed in and near the lots to point out parking spaces and keep traffic flowing smoothly.

Mrs. Maud F. Turnbull of 99 Thorpe St., who sold the land to Tell-Huron Centre Inc. last year, will be on hand for the ribbon-cutting ceremony tomorrow morning along with government officials of Pontiac and Waterford Township.

Mrs. Turnbull and her husband, Harry, bought the six-acre farm on the southeast corner of Telegraph and Huron in 1900. After Mr. Turnbull's death in 1948 she continued to live there until new owners took over the property for the Shopping center.

The center, which at first included the original Turnbull farm, has been expanded to Glendale avenue with two land purchases which will supplement present close-in parking. Three houses along Glendale will be moved this summer to provide an additional 250 parking spaces.

One of the unique features of the multi-million dollar center is the depressed parking lot 4½ feet below store level so that passersby may see the window displays.

The single story glass, aluminum and brick units cover 50,000 square feet. Restocking and deliveries to the stores will be made in the rear via a 20-foot-wide alley running the length of the project, so that service trucks will not interfere with convenience and customer parking.

Retailers have been unrestricted in designing their own interiors and store fronts to their needs, according to Edwin Gage, president of Tel-Huron Centre Inc. Many of them have brought in high-paid specialists to lay out their designs.

"Paul Moffett, of Birmingham, designed the over-all project to be functional and at the same time give the attractiveness in keeping with the class of merchants leasing outlets," Gage said.

"The center, which for its size is one of the outstanding shopping centers in the country, was planned to service a substantial growth in western and southern Pontiac and the lake areas to the west of Pontiac," Gage added.

Wonderland Shop Has Apparel, Toys, Gifts for Babies, Children

The children's center at the Tel-Huron Shopping Center is the Wonderland Shop, owned and managed by Fred J. Niedelson, which will join in the grand opening tomorrow through Saturday.

Infants' wear, nursery needs, boys' apparel to age 4, girls' apparel to sub-teens, toys and gifts are specialties of the shop.

The modern store has 2,000 square feet on the first floor for retailing, with a 1,000-square-foot basement for receiving, marking and storing merchandise.

"We shall try to bring to the people of Pontiac a little better grade and distinctive type of merchandise in this particular field," said Niedelson, who has had 7 years of experience as a merchandising manager of infants' and children's wear.

Mrs. Ruth Andrews and Mrs. Phyllis Sturgis will serve as departmental assistants to Niedelson. Married and the father of two girls who have been "test models" for Niedelson's merchandising, Niedelson and his family live at 29 Rosshire Ct.

Sender of Poison Candy Is Unfit to Stand Trial

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — Mrs. Letha Della Overton, charged with sending poisoned candy to a score of Lake Wales residents, will be committed to a federal mental institution.

Judge William J. Barker signed an order to that effect yesterday after deciding from the reports of two psychiatrists that Mrs. Overton is mentally incompetent to stand trial.

About 20 persons who received the candy last December became violently ill but all recovered.

Town Forgets to Vote

Would Reserve H-Veto Rights

Senators Oppose Giving Britain Say Over Use of Vital U.S. Weapon

WASHINGTON (AP)—Key senators of both parties made it clear today they are opposed to giving Great Britain or any other ally a veto on American use of the hydrogen bomb.

Sen. Hickenlooper (R - Iowa) pointed up the issue with a declaration in the Senate yesterday that former President Truman was "not correct" in saying that a World War II American-British agreement not to use the atomic bomb without the other's consent still was in effect.

Truman, in Kansas City, had "no comment" on Hickenlooper's contradiction of his statement, but said, "The record speaks for itself." Truman and others agreed the 1943 understanding would not cover the H-bomb.

* * *

Asserting that Hickenlooper was "absolutely right," Sen. Knowland of California, the GOP floor leader, said in an interview that the agreement was "not satisfactory and was changed." He added that he wants no future agreement of that kind.

British officials have given their opinion that the former agreement no longer holds.

"Any agreement that gives any other nation a veto on our use of atomic weapons, on which our very existence may exist, cannot be justified," Knowland declared.

* * *

Sen. Byrd (D-Va), a member of the Senate Armed Services Committee, said that as he understands the Eisenhower administration's military policy "there will be no massive retaliation unless the Russians attack us."

"If we have time to consult with our allies, well and good," he said. "But if we are attacked, we will strike back and there will be no time for any consultation."

* * *

Secretary of State Dulles has indicated that a situation might arise in which such retaliation would be launched in response to communist aggression which did not involve a direct attack on this country.

Sen. Maybank (D-SC) said he thinks it proper to consult with allies about attempts to outlaw use of hydrogen weapons. But if war comes, he said, it will be all-out from the start "and we can't afford to have any commitments that would tie us down."

Chairman Wiley (R-Wis) of the Senate Foreign Relations committee said the 1943 agreements has served its purpose and he sees no reason to renew it now.

Wiley said it is obvious, however, that the British would have to be consulted on American use of their bases to launch H-bomb or A-bomb attacks in case of war, and Knowland agreed.

* * *

But Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn) said "I certainly think Britain should be consulted before we use the hydrogen bomb," and added:

"In fact, I think the decision on its use ought to be made through the North Atlantic Treaty Organization."

Kefauver's apparently was a minority voice among his colleagues.

Hot Rodders Seeking Public Understanding

NEWTON, Mass. (UP)—During a snowstorm, a woman's car got stuck in a snowbank on the Worcester turnpike.

As she pondered her plight, a hot-rodder pulled up behind her. He shoveled out her car. Got chains out of her trunk, put them on and maneuvered the car back onto the road.

Asked for his name, the youth handed her a card that read:

"You have been assisted by a member of the No-Mads of Newton —a hot-rod club interested in better understanding between the rodder and the public."

CHARLES MANKO

The Shoe Box Serves Family

Specializes in Needs of Children, but Sells Adult Wear Also

The Shoe Box, a family shoe store that gives specialized attention to the needs of growing children, is open for business in the new Tel-Huron Shopping Center on Telegraph road at Huron street.

Manager Charles Manko said experienced personnel are available to fill orthopedic prescriptions and are also qualified to assist children with orthopedic difficulties.

One of the features of the 22x120 foot store is a permanent file of each pair of shoes sold to children, to be used as a handy reference by the fitter.

Parents of growing children are reminded about every four months that their child should be brought to the store for a free examination to determine if the child's shoes have been outgrown.

Something of special interest for the youngsters is a free merry-go-round located inside the completely modern store.

The Tel-Huron unit of the Shoe Box is the third store in the fast-growing chain, established by Nathan Slawin of Detroit in 1950.

Socks, hosiery, bags and related items are also sold in the store with the "living room atmosphere." Recessed diagonal lighting brings out the pastel shades used in decorating the interior. Accessories are limed oak, and 32 seats are provided for customers.

A complete line of men's and women's nationally advertised shoes are also available and the same accurate and personalized service is extended to all customers, Manko stressed.

Assisting Manko is Ray Thornton of 24 Norton Ave., who has been associated with the shoe industry as salesman and fitter for a number of years, and Mrs. Molly Lane also of Pontiac.

Find Horsepower Costs About $.34 an Hour

ITHACA, N. Y. (UP) — Cornell University agricultural economists have figured out that one horsepower costs 34 cents an hour.

The figure is based on cost account records kept on 17 horses in use on upstate New York farms.

The professors found it costs $141 to keep a horse fed, stabled and harnessed. Much of the money goes for feed. The average horse, figures showed, eats 528 pounds of grain a year.

They found a horse costing $141 year to maintain is used only 424 hours a year. That figures out to 34 cents an hour.

Explosion Rocks Indiana Factory

Several Are Injured by Core Oven Blast at GM Fabricast Division

BEDORD, Ind. (AP) — An explosion in a core oven at the Fabricast Division of the General Motors Corp. yesterday caused extensive damage and injured a number of employes.

Seven of the injured were sent to a hospital but a plant spokesman said none was injured seriously. Forty-three others with slight injuries were treated at the plant dispensary and released.

The spokesman gave no estimate of the damage.

The plant makes aluminum castings which are shipped to other GM plants.

The explosion occured in a 200-foot-long gas-fired oven in which sands molds are cured and baked before molten aluminum is poured into them.

James Anderson, an employe who was just outside the oven when the blast occured, said he believed a pilot light went out during the noon hour and unburned gas accumulated in the oven. He said he was pouring some molten aluminum into a mold and he believed this set off the blast.

Anderson was hurled 50 feet but he was only shaken and did not require hospital treatment.

Windows were blown from the building and part of the roof collapsed. The force of the blast was felt five blocks away.

The plant employs about 2,000 workers.

Work was resumed in all but three departments soon after the explosion.

Congressman Would Trade Bull for Sables

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Democratic congressman from North Carolina has offered to swap Russia a young pedigreed bull and four pedigreed heifers from his farm for enough sable skins to make five fur capes.

Rep. Thurmond Chatham made the swap proposal in a letter to Soviet Ambassador Georgi N. Zarubin.

"I have continually said that international trade is one avenue toward international peace," he wrote.

Child Ruins Project

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — A complicated accounting machine was left unattended in the county auditor's office. It attracted a little child who was wandering about. The child had fun fingering the keys. The accounting staff got high blood pressure when it discovered a five-day project had been ruined.

First open hearth steel furnace was set up in 1868.

SANDERS' FIRST PONTIAC STORE—The first Sanders' store in Pontiac will join in the grand opening tomorrow at the Tel-Huron Shopping Centre at Telegraph road and W. Huron street. The interior of the store (above) shows the conservative decoration, the lighting and a tasteful display of baked goods and candy. Large glassed area and plenty of lighting will attract shoppers and also allow them to see clearly the varieties of sweet goods available to them.

34th Sanders Store Features Candy, Baked Goods and Fountain Service

A front of brick, maroon Macotta and aluminum trim distinguishes the new Sanders store located near the center of the new Tel-Huron Shopping Center.

FRICK

The traditional Sanders script appears over the marquee of the 34th store in the chain's history and the sales area occupies the front half of the 28x125 - foot unit. Food preparation areas and storage and locker facilities are located in the rear portion of the completely modern store.

Fountain service and a complete assortment of candy, bakery goods and ice cream are available in the new store which is finished with interior shades of brown, tango red and blue-green. These shades accentuate the oak display cases and stainless steel fountain.

Antique green display cases cover about 50 feet on two sides of the sales area, with a 16-stool fountain and carry-out section occupying a third side.

Light lunches, sodas and sundaes are sold at the fountain and the carry - out service includes soups, hot dishes, casseroles, baked baked foods and desserts offered on the fountain menu.

Robert C. Frick of Birmingham, former manager of the Royal Oak store, will take over the new establishment and Miss Florence Woods of Pontiac will act as night manager.

The 70-year-old confectionery firm produces more than 1,000 different food items and more than 500 kinds of candy during the year, with 140 regular bakery items and 20 specials being produced daily.

Special order business has resulted in the baking of 10,000 cakes a week during the Christmas season, and 20 to 25 girls are employed especially to decorate them.

The company's products are delivered fresh two or three times daily to the Tel-Huron store and to other units in the organization.

Three generations of the Sanders family are presently engaged in running the firm founded by Frederick Sanders in 1875.

Takes Efforts of 5,000

About 4,000 to 5,000 people were employed during construction of the Tel-Huron Shopping Centre in construction and service and selling fields, according to the company president, Edwin Gage.

Heustis Clarifies Polio Program

Health Commissioner Enumerates Conditions for Test in State

LANSING (UP) — Michigan's Health Department moved ahead today with plans to inoculate 136,000 Michigan children with Salk polio vaccine when it is declared "absolutely safe."

Dr. Albert E. Heustis, state health commissioner, said the mass inoculation of the children in the first three grades of all schools in 12 counties hinges on two things. They are:

1. The vaccine must be declared absolutely safe by the U.S. Public Health Service, the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis and the manufacturer.

2. The availability of the vaccine.

"Before a single child in Michigan is given the vaccine I must have before me three sets of statements on the vaccine," Dr. Heustis said.

"First, the Michigan Department of Health must receive a written statement from the national foundation, the manufacturer of the vaccine and the U.S. Public Health Service that every lot of vaccine and control substance for use in Michigan is safe for the use intended.

"Second, the Michigan Health Department must receive a written statement from the national foundation that every lot of vaccine for use in Michigan has been tested and found to be potent against the disease.

"And third, the health department must receive a clear statement from the national foundation as to who, if anyone, will accept responsibility for any untoward result that might occur upon the use of the vaccine and control substance.

"When I have all of these statements, we will be ready to start the experiment in Michigan," Dr. Heustis said.

Linda Lee Shop Second in City

New Store Features Women's Apparel and Maternity Department

A Linda Lee shop managed by Mrs. Ethel Timmerman of Pontiac is among the many new stores which comprise the Tel-Huron Shopping Centre at Telegraph Rd. and W. Huron St.

Timmerman

The 22x80 - foot store, decorated in blue and rose, features women's apparel including a complete maternity department. This is the first store in the chain of 34 throughout the state to feature a complete maternity line.

A New York buying office with a full-time staff makes all the purchases necessary to keep the stores selling the latest styles at reasonable prices.

Plans for six more Linda Lee shops to be opened this year have been made by owner Harry Galperin of Detroit. This newest store brings to two the number of Linda Lee shops in Pontiac, with the older shop being operated downtown.

Isn't That Nice

PARIS, Tenn. (UP) — Postmaster W. T. Vaughn and assistant Postmaster Frank Killebrew have an easy time remembering each other's birthday. Vaughn and Mrs. Killebrew have the same birthdate (Aug. 6), and so do Killebrew and Mrs. Vaughn (Sept. 18).

Bricks Up to 30,000

An estimated 30,000 bricks were used, primarily in the store fronts and exteriors, during the construction of the Tel-Huron Shopping Centre.

Musician Prefers Making Pizza on TV

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (UP) — Laurento Torno gave up his job as flutist with the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra to conduct a cooking program on television.

"My wife and three boys are amused at the idea, but my guests on the program ate my product and seemed to enjoy it," said the 51-year-old musician who is a specialist at making pizzas.

"You have to ad lib a lot while the pies are in the oven, but the studio engineers say the show is pretty smooth," he reported.

Another Torno favorite is eggs with onion sauce.

"You brown onions in butter," he said, "put them into a sauce of flour and milk, pour it over halves of hardboiled eggs, throw on grated Parmesan cheese, put it in the oven and wait."

Torno gave up his job in the orchestra when he realized he could not appear on a daily television program and still keep up the orchestra's schedule.

Tel-Huron Center Shop to Be Self-Serve With Open Cases

United Shirt Distributors, Inc., retailers of every type of men's clothing but suits and shoes, opens the most modern of its 39 stores tomorrow in the Tel-Huron Shopping Centre.

SHEFFIELD

Walls of the 20x120-foot store are papered with tan and gray tones on a white background and the most advanced lighting will be used.

Walter Sheffield, of 25 Henry Clay Ave., manager of the new unit, said the store will be primarily self-serve with all merchandise being displayed in the open.

Display cases will be glassless so that customers may examine merchandise with the least effort. Two full-time employes and four or five part-time workers will be available to assist customers in their selections.

The company, now in its 35th year, features merchandise in a popular price range and claims to be the largest chain of its kind in the world.

Four of five british automobiles are produced for export markets.

Cashier Demands Attorney General . . . and Gets Him

ARDMORE, Okla. (AP) — Cashier Opan Croxton wouldn't cash a check for a well-dressed young man.

"I'll swear the check's good," said the man, who was vacationing at the Lake Murray Lodge. He offered his Cadillac as security.

Miss Croxton told him sarcastically it would take the attorney general to get a check cashed at the lodge without identification.

The guest brought back Atty. Gen. Mac Q. Williamson, who happened to be spending an evening at the lodge.

James J. Blanton, vice president of the First National Bank of Pauls Valley, got his check cashed.

Coeds Campaign to Get Ministers as Husbands

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Oklahoma City University coeds have formed a club designed to help bring budding ministers to the altar—as husbands not preachers. They believe if they want to marry ministers they should be well trained for the job.

OES Temple Burns

COLDWATER (AP) — A fire that caused an estimated $100,000 damage Tuesday destroyed Coldwater's historic Masonic Temple, home of the world's oldest chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star. Firemen battle the flames for eight hours before bringing the blaze under control. The building housed Chapter I of the order.

ABE LAPIDES

Planning Committee Coordinates Opening

"It took a tremendous amout of work on the part of all members of the planning committee to organize and coordinate the Grand Opening of the Tel-Huron Shopping Centre," Abe Lapides, committee chairman, said this week.

"Publicity, traffic, parking and policy problems, which all had to be approved by the tenants, took about six meetings of the committee and many more hours by individuals who did the mechanics of the planning and coordinating," Lapides said.

Lapides was elected by the tenants at a meeting last fall, and selected the following men to serve on the committee:

John W. Hirlinger and John Riley, publicity; Monroe M. Osmun, parking and traffic control, and E. R. Sage, Irv Levinson and Charles Welsch who aided the sub-chairmen.

Distaff Surveyor Does Man's Job, Fills His Shoes

CHARLEVOIX (UP) — Mrs. J. Lawrence Feindt is the only woman land surveyor registered in Michigan and she says she has to fill men's shoes in more ways than one.

When toting her instruments in all kinds of weather, Mrs. Feindt says she prefers men's footwear.

"I find men's boots and shoes much more comfortable even than women's low heel shoes and boots," she said.

Mrs. Feindt said that she always wanted to be an engineer. Her father tried to discourage her by giving her a sample of what the profession had to offer. He got her a summer job with a surveying firm in 1936.

"My father thought that would cure me," she said. "I not only stayed at the job the entire summer but also discovered that I wanted to become a surveyor as well as an engineer."

Mrs. Feindt, now 37, holds a science degree in surveying from the University of Michigan.

She says she has no particular fear of wild animals. Her only fright came while she was a student on a field trip. A bull charged while she was setting up her transit in a farmer's field.

She beat the bull to the fence.

Commie Trade Far Below 1938

14 European Countries Export $478 Million in Goods to Red Nations

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (INS) — A U. N. survey of East-West trade disclosed today that 14 countries in Europe exported $478,000,000 worth of goods in 1953 to Russia and Eastern Europe and imported from the Communist group $547,000,000 in goods.

The survey rated the exports at only only 50 per cent of the 1938 figure and 38 per cent of the 1938 imports.

It estimated that normal expansion of East-West trade between 1938 and 1953 in the absence of the cold war and its embargoes would have put exports by now at $1,450,000,000 and imports at $2,000,000,000.

U. S. exports to the Iron Curtain countries in 1953 were listed at $1,000,000 in comparison to $282,000,000 in 1938. U. S. imports in 1938 stood at $216,000,000 and at $30,000,000 in 1953.

The survey rated British exports in 1953 with Communist-dominated countries in Europe at $73,00,000 and the imports at $203,000,000. The amounts for 1938 were $310,000,000 and $564,000,000.

France ran second highest in the NATO countries, with $46,000 exports and $44,000,000 imports in 1953. French exports to Russia and countries behind the Iron Curtain in 1938 totaled $83,000,000 and imports were $121,000,000.

Finald, the small border country hugging the Soviet Union, is listed with $166,000,000 exports and $166,000,000 imports. In 1938 they were a fraction of this amount.

Quittin' for Courtin' Time Is Ruled Compensable

SALEM, Ore. (UP) — Courtship is reason enough for a girl to quit her job, says the Oregon unemployment compensation commission.

An engaged girl resigned her hospital post because her irregular hours didn't give her enough time to see her fiance. The commission held that she quit her job for a good reason and was entitled to unemployment compensation. It observed:

"Any young woman is ordinarily entitled to reasonable opportunity to be properly courted during the engagement period."

Dien Bien Phu Has Quiet Night

Commies Again Fail to Hit French Fortress; Believed Regrouping

HANOI (INS) — The French high command reported today that, for the second consecutive night, there were no Vietminh attacks on encircled Dien Bien Phu.

The French commander, Col. Christian de Castries, was said to believe that the Communist-led rebels were preparing for phase three of their all-out assault on the French Union stronghold.

Previous Vietminh assaults, which begain on March 13, have failed to do more than dent the French defense line and have cost the enemy an estimated 13,000 killed and wounded.

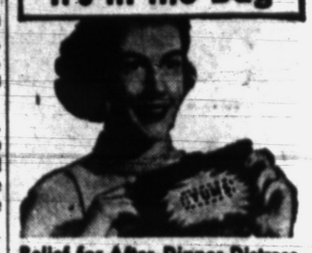

A reported 20,000 Vietminh troops are marching south to reinforce Gen. Vo Nguyen Giap's divisions. French planes attacking the rebel columns and dropping supplies and ammunition to the Dien Bien Phu defenders were caught in a violent thunderstorm yesterday.

Both sides used the lull in the fighting to repair their positions and strengthen installations.

State Engineers to Meet

BATTLE CREEK (AP) — The annual state convention of the National Assn. of Power Engineers is expected to draw some 200 Michigan members when it convenes at Battle Creek, May 15.

Pontiac's Leading Men's Store Expands!

Osmun's Smart New "Town and Country" Shop Opens at Tel-Huron Center Tomorrow

One of the Biggest Attractions of the New Tel-Huron Shopping Center . . . Open Every Night 'til 9 P. M.

Osmun's Boasts 25 Years in Pontiac!

Store Is One of Pontiac's Favorites!

In 1930, in the depths of the depression, Osmun's Men's Store hopefully opened the doors of their new store in the Riker Building. Thus began a policy of good value at moderate prices which was welcomed by Pontiac men and helped prove Osmun's faith in Pontiac.

By 1940, Osmun's expanded into a new and larger location at 51 N. Saginaw. The popularity of the store continued to increase and Osmun's was fast becoming a by-word for Pontiac men who wanted style and value.

LADIES' DEPARTMENT IN 1949

Soon, even the ladies were to make Osmun's their fashion center as 1949 brought the opening of an exclusive department devoted entirely to ladies' smart fashions and accessories.

PONTIAC AND OSMUN'S GROW

In the years since 1930, Osmun's has grown with Pontiac. Oakland County men and women have come to depend upon this fine store for the best in quality and service. Osmun's genuine interest in their customers easily accounts for the tremendous popularity the store now enjoys.

Many of Pontiac's leading citizens, civic leaders, sports figures and others find just what they are looking for when they come to Osmun's. The new Town & Country store promises to continue to give Oakland County the kind of quality and service they have come to expect from Osmun's.

Thursday Is the Big Opening Day of New Store!

One of the most modern men's wear stores in America, the new Osmun's will bring to Pontiac a new concept in men's clothing display. Designed for Osmun's by America's foremost store architects, Telchin & Campanella, the store features spacious glass areas, modern brick and blonde oak architecture and the most up-to-date displays and lighting.

MODERN DESIGN FOR SHOPPING EASE

Everything in the store points to easy shopping. Over 9,000 square feet of floor space gives the shopper wide, easily accessible aisles, where he can leisurely look over the hundreds of men's spring styles on display.

COVERED WALKS FOR CONVENIENCE

In keeping with the modern shopping-center trend, the public will reach the new Osmun's store by way of sheltered walks, covered to keep out the snow and rain as you window shop, and in summer shaded to make shopping more comfortable.

Every new innovation in styling, in selection, and in service has been incorporated in the new Osmun's Town and Country Shop. Oakland County men will find the same friendly service, the same nationally famous men's wear that has made Osmun's downtown store a favorite for so many years.

New Store Brings Smarter New Men's Clothing Styles

Casual Town & Country Atmosphere All Men Like!

When you visit the new Osmun's Town & Country Shop, the first thing that you will notice, after you've been impressed by the modern beauty of this new store, will be the newer, smarter styles that are being featured on every rack and counter.

KENNETH HOWELL

New to Osmun's is a custom tailoring department, with suits and coats made by hand. New, too, is a French Shriner shoe department.

Osmun's, winner of the Esquire Fashion Academy Award for the past five years, started in 1930 at the Riker Building.

By 1940 Osmun's expanded into a new and larger location at 51 N. Saginaw St., and increased their stock of brand-name clothing.

A ladies' department, with smart fashions and accessories, was opened in 1949.

The Town and Country Shop will open daily at 9:30 a.m. and for those who wish to visit the store at night, will stay open until 9 p.m.

Flies Are Raised to Study Immunity

RIVERSIDE, Calif. (UP)—Most people would like to get rid of house flies, but scientists at the University of California's citrus experiment station here are breeding and riasing them at the rate of 10,000 a week.

The scientists say these flies won't pester anyone, however, because they are doomed to die.

The flies will die in experimens to determine how they have learned to overcome the poisonous effects of the once-deadly DDT and other insecticides.

Like a man doomed to execution, the flies are fed well—being raised on a healthy diet of bran, alfalfa, meal, yeast and malt.

The scientists give them an anesthetic injected with one insecticide or another and analyze their bodies to find what chemical process takes place to make them immune to poison.

Clothier Opens Town, Country Shop at Center

"Osmun's Town and Country Shop is going all out to give Oakland County men the finest clothing styles and values in the finest surroundings to be found anywhere," according to Monroe M. Osmun, general manager of the new shop at Tel-Huron Shopping Centre.

Osmun, who manages Osmun's Men's Wear, 51 N. Saginaw St., which he opened 25 years ago, was born in Waterford Township and has lived in the Pontiac area all his life.

A member of several of the county fraternal organizations, Osmun also served as president of the Retail Merchants Assn. in 1937, and 10 years later was president of the Pontiac Board of Education.

Old Things Prove Best in This Case

STEELTON, Pa. (UP) — Grandpa — who always swore nothing could help his lumbago like that snake oil he bought from the traveling mendicant — would revel in one of Steelton's oldest establishments, Porr's durgstore.

Porr's specializes in the old-fashioned remedies for various ailments. Here you can get blood root for coughs, Indian turnip for diarrhea, skunk cabbage or dandelion root for indigestion.

John L. Porr, operator of the 65-year-old drugstore, also can supply unlucky recipients of a doorknob in the eye with leeches to reduce the swelling and vary the color.

It's not only in old-time remedies that Porr's stays with the tried-and true. Recently a power failure blacked out Steelton. Immediately coal oil lights blossomed in the drugstore.

"We were the only ones in Steelton that could stay open," Porr said.

Fluorescent Cloth Used by Marine Rescue Units

CHERRY POINT, N. C. (UP)—The fad for fluorescent cloth jackets worn by teen-agers has led the U. S. Marines to the solution of a problem.

In rescue work helicopter pilots often lose sight of the ground crews they direct. The Leathernecks now use vests made of brightest yellow fluorescent cloth.

It is against the law to annoy squirrels in Topeka Kansas.

MODERN SHOPPING CENTER—An aerial view of the new Tel-Huron Shopping Centre on Telegraph road at W. Huron street clearly shows the paved parking area which can accommodate 800 cars. The 13 stores located there offer shoppers a complete line of goods with each unit being finished in a distinctive and attractive motif. Nearby auxiliary parking lots offer space for about 1,000 more autos. The grand opening of the center is scheduled for tomorrow.

Police to Direct Shopper Traffic

Chief Straley to Assign 12 Officers to Opening of Tel-Huron Center

Completed traffic control plans for the Tel-Huron Shopping Centre's Grand Opening tomorrow through Saturday call for 12 policemen to direct the flow of vehicles in the Telegraph-Huron area, according to Pontiac Police Chief Herbert W. Straley.

Two shifts of police will be used for the opening, with as many reserve officers as can be mustered. Patrolmen may be called in during off-duty hours if congestion becomes too great, Straley said.

"Certain problems that we know of now, or that may come up later, will be ironed out at future meetings with Oakland County Sheriff Clare Hubbell and Waterford Township Police Chief Frank Van Atta. One thing we must discuss is traffic movement from outside the city limits," said Straley.

A three-phase light, to increase traffic flow at the interesection, is supposed to be installed by the Michigan State Highway Commission, according to Straley, and he added that signs pointing to the center will be posted by the commission.

The signs will include instructions to patrons as to which way to turn for parking places and will indicate which streets and alleyways are one-way.

"It looks like we will use policemen on Huron streets as well as inside the center so cars will not turn illegally or interfere with other traffic," said Straley.

The following driveways were labeled by Straley as exits, entrances, or both: On Huron street, entrance only; on Glendale Avenue, exit only; and on Telegraph, two driveways for both entering and leaving.

About 100,000 cement and cinder blocks were used in the construction of the Tel-Huron Shopping Center at the corner of Telegraph road and Huron street. Grand Opening of the center will be held tomorrow through Saturday.

2 Beauty Contest Winners to Open New Centre Salon

Two sisters who have taken top honors in several beauty contests in the past few years will open a beauty studio tomorrow with the Grand Opening of the Tel-Huron Shopping Centre at Telegraph Rd. and Huron St.

Sara Murray

Sara and Rosie Murray will open the fashionable Murray Sisters' Beauty Studio on the north, raised plaza of the center.

Seven operators will be employed at the beauty studio, and Mrs. Louella Murray, mother of the sisters and manager of the business, said today that plug-in telephone service and coffee and tea would be available to patrons without charge.

Rosie Murray

The Murray Sisters, who have had a studio in the Pontiac State Bank Building since 1949, completed a cosmetology course at Pontiac High School in 1947. They passed state examinations and worked for two years before establishing their own business.

Both girls have been winners or maid of honor in local and state beauty contests. Sara Murray won the "Miss Pontiac of 1948" contest and at Romeo defeated 12 other candidates to become maid of honor to the 1948 Michigan Peach Queen. She was chosen "Miss Oakland County" in 1949.

Her sister, Rosie was named "Miss Pontiac of 1950" and became the 1950 "Michigan Peach Queen" at Romeo, by defeating 19 other contestants.

In 1952 the two girls competed against each other for the "Elks Golden Jubilee Queen" title, won by Rosie, while her sister, Sara took the maid of honor award.

Both girls have received extensive training in hair styling. Sara recently completed an advanced hair-styling course at Virginia Farrell's Beauty Academy in Detroit.

Rosie, in 1951, won membership in the "Michigan Coiffure Group," through hair-styling competition.

The girls' mother, Mrs. Murray, a beauty operator herself for many years, said today that their first studio will continue to operate under the present management in addition to their latest studio at the center, designed by Mrs. Murray.

Coal Dredging Drops in River

Barges and Steamboats Mining in Susquehanna to End Operations

HARRISBURG, Pa. (UP) — The Downey brothers' underwater coal mine is about to end its long, picturesque and productive career.

The firm of F. H. Downey, Inc., is operator of a fleet of the last coal-dredging barges and steamboats plying the broad, shallow Susquehanna River in this area where once some 17 firms pumped up fine coal by the millions of tons from the river bottom annually.

The Downey firm was started by the late father of the five sons who now operate the slow-moving paddlewheel flatboats that still dot the Susquehanna wherever 14 inches of water flows.

At the peak of their operations the Downeys helped produce 1,500 tons of fine coal daily for a local steel mill. But those were the days when coal production in the fields to the north was at its peak, and the mining companies made no effort to reclaim any of the fine coal removed in the washing process.

E. L. Downey, 65, oldest of the five brothers, said the use of settling basins in the coal fields along the upper Susquehanna, coupled with increased enforcement of clean stream regulations, has cut the amount of coal carried downstream by the Susquehanna to a trickle.

"In another two years it may not be economically justifiable to operate these boats," Downey said.

"When that happens, the era of coal dredging rivermen that began the year after the big flood of 1889 will be over."

NEWEST KRESGE UNIT—An architect's drawing shows the ultra-modern Kresge store opening tomorrow in the Tel-Huron Shopping Centre on Telegraph at W. Huron. Rows of fluorescent lights under the contemporary gabled canopy spotlight a huge open-vision front, Kenneth C. Dunkel is the store manager of the latest addition to Kresge units. The store has 1,280 lineal feet of counter space and several self-serve departments.

C. E. HOLZWORTH

Bloomfield Resident Top Kresge Official

For the past 18 years C. E. Holzworth of Bloomfield Hills has served as vice president in charge of store management for the S. S. Kresge Co.

He has resided in the Pontiac area for more than 20 years and makes his home at Winningham House on East Long Lake road.

He has one of the longest records of active service with Kresge, having been employed by the company more than 35 years.

Holzworth was appointed a superintendent of stores in 1920 after having served as manager in six different stores in the East and Midwest.

After managing Chicago's State Street store for seven years he was put in charge of the Chicago district office which directs the administration of all Kresge stores in the Midwest.

Holzworth came to Detroit in 1934 and within a month was elected a director of the Kresge Co. Six months later he was elected vice president in charge of store management, his present position.

Streamline Kresge Store Features Air Conditioning, Deluxe Luncheon Fountain

S. S. Kresge company's latest addition to about 17 stores in this region is a streamline air conditioned unit in the Tel-Huron Shopping Centre at Telegraph and W. Huron.

The store will open officially with a tape cutting ceremony tomorrow with Kenneth L. Dunkel as store manager.

A deluxe luncheon fountain and more than 1,280 lineal feet of counters, half of which are set up for customer self-selection, are features of the new unit.

Dunkel said the Kresge store represents the latest in more than 50 years of variety store merchandising. A wide range of ready-to-wear and household items is offered in addition to the popular notions and novelties.

The 23-seat luncheon fountain is located along the south wall and boasts the latest stainless steel equipment. All food is prepared in adjacent kitchen and a continuous menu card rack above the mirrored and stainless steel wainscot is illuminated for easy reading.

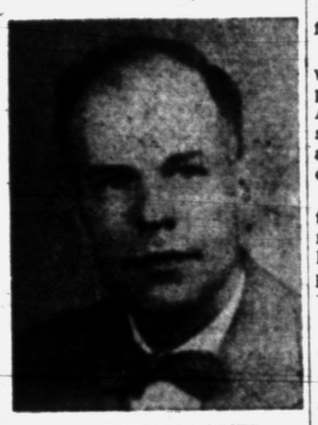

Fitting rooms for women shoppers have been provided in the dress department and the store office. Employes' lounges are located in the rear of the salesroom.

Tan and red squares of asphalt tile form an attractive checkerboard pattern on the floor and a contemporary design plastic wall-covering is used. Counters are covered with tan vinyl and self-selection counters are set back to back.

Departments featuring this method of shopping include ready-to-wear, men's and boys' wear, lingerie, toys, hardware and kitchenware.

The store's facade is of aluminum panels and the show windows are edged with face brick topped by porcelain enamel on steel.

A completely modern cantilevered steel canopy is the first of its kind adopted by a Kresge unit. It has rows of fluorescent lights flush on the ceiling and a large identifying sign hangs from the canopy.

KENNETH C. DUNKEL

Two entrances of four stainless steel doors each flank the open-vision front and a two-door rear entrance is also provided.

Dunkel, who has been with Kresge's since 1936, has been managing a Detroit store for the past two years.

State Might Change License Markings

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (UP) — California authorities are considering a change in license plates for the 5,000,000 autos in the state which could produce some surprising results.

California plates now bear one letter and up to six digits. A proposed switch would provide for three letters of the alphabet followed by three numbers.

The new system would provide for 12,000,000 different combinations and allow for the expansion expected in California in the next 10 years.

It would be possible under the proposal for a motorist to have his own initials on his license plates.

Crash Kills 13 in Korea

SEOUL (AP)—A truck loaded with young hikers careened over a cliff and carried 13 to death, police reported today. Twenty others were injured in the crash 20 miles north o Pusan port.

Marshal Has Unique Way to Serve Subpoenas

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Here's a tip for officers who serve subpoenas and folks who are served with them.

Deputy U. S. Marshal Ellis Binford works it this way:

When a secretary asks him to wait, Binford pulls a newspaper printed in Arabic out of his pocket. After glancing at it, he appears to spot an item of terrific interest and starts making strange, excited noises.

Usually the secretary rushes to tell her boss about the strange man. The boss comes out to see him and Binford serves the subpoena.

Man Thinks Wife's Schooling Important

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UP)—Many a wife has quit school and gone to work to help her husband finish his education. But a young Memphis couple has pulled a switch. The husband quit school so his wife, mother of four, could train to be a physician.

Mrs. Madalyn Heidelberg, 32, is attending the University of Tennessee College of Medicine. She completed her pre-med training and two years of medical school at the University of Mississippi.

The couple's four children range in age from 13 years to nine months, and their full care is up to Mrs. Heidelberg, because her husband is home only on weekends.

Husband Steve, who quit college with only six credits needed for graduation, holds a welding job at the Paducah, Ky., atomic energy plant. When the missus finishes her schooling he will stop work and continue his training in business administration.

The Heidelbergs say they dislike being apart so much. But Mrs. Heidelberg says at least she and the children see a lot of each other.

"We do our homework together," she said.

Man in 'Peck' of Trouble

ROSEVILLE, Calif. (AP) — Woodpeckers pecked more than 100 holes in his roof before Milton H. Kendrick appealed to Police Chief Emmet McCrary, who said "use your own judgment." Kendrick shot two woodpeckers with an air rifle. The others flew away.

Shopping Center Provides Plenty of Parking Space

There will be plenty of space for shoppers' cars tomorrow through Saturday at the Tel-Huron Shopping Centre Grand Opening, even though merchants and company officials expect a deluge of buyers and sightseers.

Four auxiliary lots with facilities for handling about 1,000 cars plus the main shopping center lot which allows for about 800 more autos, is expected to meet motorists' demands during the three-day opening.

Attendants, 15 or 20 older members of Pontiac Boys' Club, and direction signs, will be available for pointing out parking spaces or re-directing motorists to less-crowded lots. Pontiac Police will be on hand to handle possible traffic snarls on Telegraph road or Huron street.

The paved and lighted main lot has two entrances from Telegraph road, and one each from Huron street and Glendale avenue.

The center's beauty will be underscored by the tops of autos, which will be lower than the stores by four to five feet, and which will allow passers-by to see window displays.

Auxiliary lots are located at the Grace Lutheran Church at 809 Glendale Ave., the Community National Bank at 994 West Huron St., Washington Junior High School at 710 Menominee, and the 99 Club at 86 S. Telegraph Rd.

The school lot, largest of the auxiliaries, will accommodate about 750 cars, while others will handle from 50 to 100.

The main parking lot represents the foresight of the merchants and officials of Tel-Huron Centre Inc., and has been enlarged to twice its originally-planned size.

"At first we planned on space for 500 cars, running lots the length of the stores and then wrap around the center at the south end, in all about 650 feet," said Edwin Gage, company president.

"Soon after the development, we began to draw persons interested in the development, and this increased to such a degree that we knew we would need more parking spaces when the center opened.

"So we decided to expand to Glendale Avenue, another 350 feet, making room for about 250 more cars, but still giving the shoppers close-to-the-store parking that was our original intent.

"Soon after our first stores opened here we knew that, by the large number of shoppers being drawn by only a few stores, we would need a great deal more than we had planned. So the retailers and officials decided to acquire the first three houses and lots on the north side of Glendale for future parking.

"The houses will be moved away and parking on these three lots should be ready sometime this summer. With this addition our parking lot will be as deep as the center, and will still maintain it as close to the stores as possible for customer convenience."

When one cubic foot of natural gas is completely burned, it produces one cubic foot of carbon dioxide and two cubic feet of water vapor, according to findings by chemical analysis.

New Winkelman Store Spacious

Shop Displays Goods by 'Concealed Stocks' Method

Winkelman's new Tel-Huron store has a 40-foot front composed chiefly of glass and Tennessee Ledgerock. It is 150 feet deep with contemporary interior styling.

One of the newest features is a foundation department separate from sportswear. A total of 24 fitting rooms afford privacy for shoppers where the latest styles are brought for customer inspection.

Highly trained sales personnel select styles especially suited for individual customers with tasteful accessorizing being accomplished in the same fitting room.

The "concealed stocks" method of selling, usually restricted to exclusive shops in downtown areas, was employed by Leon and Isadore Winkelman when they founded their first store in Detroit in 1928.

Their belief that there was a definite need for a personalized high fashion specialty shop in each suburban neighborhood has been borne out by the establishment of 22 stores in greater Detroit and others in Saginaw, Flint and Cleveland, Ohio.

Winkelman employes are expected to offer sound, up-to-date fashion advice in addition to supplying asked for clothes in specific colors and styles.

An intensive and continuous program for salespeople keeps them abreast of the newest fashion developments. Daily meetings, schooling in basic principles and regular fashion showings are just a part of the program for employes.

Last year Winkelman employes received approximately 42,000 management-paid school hours of training in modern fashion and selling techniques.

Window displays interpret the latest fashions and are changed weekly. Management keeps prices in the moderate line while supplying all the advantages of a highly exclusive shop.

Winkelman's Tel-Huron store will delay its opening until the end of the month because of a delay in the shipment of necessary equipment and accessories.

"DEPARTMENT" DRUG STORE—Cunningham's new Tel-Huron Shopping Centre's Pic 'n' Pay super drug store is the corner drug store grown up to meet demands of changing, American buying habits. It is the 108th store in the Cunningham chain and is considered by company executives as "the best to date." Located on the northwest corner of the center, the one-story, ranch-style design is illuminated by recessed flourescent lighting and uses the most up-to-date building materials throughout. The Pic 'n' Pay was designed for shopping ease and additional merchandise has been added to the usual drug store items.

Tel-Huron Cunningham's Contains 26 Departments

LEONARD E. STONE

Something different in drug stores will be offered to the Pontiac-area consumers when Cunningham's Pic 'N Pay opens its doors for the Grand Opening of the Tel-Huron Shopping Centre Thursday morning.

The corner drug store, now grown up, has been changed to a "department" drug store where customers serve themselves.

The new store is of contemporary, ranch-style design with two all-glass fronts and sloping, overhang roof. Stainless steel, framed doors blend into the glass fronts.

Recessed flourescent lighting provides a non-glare, evenly distributed light. Ceramic tile floors have been expecially designed for Cunninghams and carry out the ranch-style theme.

Acoustical ceilings aid in eliminating shopping fatigue, and three check-out stands facilitate fast customer service.

All - weather air - conditioning provides shopping comfort winter and summer, with measured control of both temperature and air flow.

The store has 26 complete departments providing a comprehensive shopping service.

The design principle — shopping ease, is reflected in the specially designed, eye-level self-serve display units. The extra wide aisles avoid traffic jams and allow easy customer selection. The new store has a merchandising area of more than 6,000 square feet — approximately the combined size of 19 railroad box cars.

Cunningham officials, however, still feel that the heart of a drug store is still the prescription department. They have been making a year-long study of the needs of the modern pharmacy, incorporating findings in the hospital-type pharmacy of the Tel-Huron store.

A modern, stainless steel, 21-stool soda fountain is equipped to serve everything from a "Coke" to a complete luncheon plate.

Trained beauty consultants will be in attendance at the cosmetic department to offer expert advice and assistance.

"In keeping pace with the economical growth of Michigan our Cunningham corner drug store has truly "grown up" — grown into the super drug store you see here to best serve its customers' needs," said Leonard E. Stone, manager of the new store. Dale Fishwild has been appointed assistant manager.

Straight Course Steered Through Little Rocks

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Confusion had a chance to reign—but didn't—when these entries were noted on the birth list at St. Vincent's Infirmary here recently:

Mrs. R. E. Dougherty, Little Rock—a boy.

Mrs. R. V. Dougherty, North Little Rock—a girl.

The families aren't related.

Tattoo Bears Prophecy

LISBON, Ohio (UP) — The words on Frank Carroll's right arm are prophetic — if the law catches up with him. Officials sent out a circular for Carroll, 27, wanted for writing worthless checks, which noted that on his arm are tatooed the words, "Born to Lose."

The word "beaver" for hat was use as early as Chaucer's time.

Man May Depend on Solar Power in Years to Come

CHICAGO (UP)—Man one day may have to depend on the sun as his only source of power, according to a government engineering consultant.

Palmer Putnam, who does consultant work for the Atomic Energy Commission, said ordinary fuels may be uneconomically recoverable in 75 years and atomic fuels will run out in 175 more. That would leave man with only the sun for power.

Putnam, writing in Science Digest, said this nation must develop ways of using solar energy within the next 100 to 250 years, if it is to maintain its present standard of living.

Research on putting the sun to work has been going on for some time. In India, Putnam noted, a solar cooker to provide cooking facilities for average-sized families already has been put on the market.

In this country, he wrote, a small engine running on sunlight and capable of supply enough heat and light—and power for pumping and irrigation—to take care of a small farm is commercially feasible at a mass production cost of about $1,000.

Blacksmith Unaffected by Machine Onslaught

WATFORD, Ont. (CP) — Blacksmith Ernest Charlton says the automobile hasn't hurt his business one bit. And he's been pounding the anvil for 45 years.

There is always a pile of farm implements outside the shop waiting to be repaired. In the summer, show horses and racers keep the stocky, 63-year-old village smith busy.

Star Confesses to Friend Prayer Provides Comfort

By RUTH HUSSEY
Motion Picture Star

Recently a friend came to me in an hour of need. She was earnestly seeking something, anything that would lift her above the turbulent sea of her sorrow.

"Ruth," she said, "I know you have faith . . . but what do you get out of your religion?"

"Well," I said slowly, "I get a sense of purpose, a sense of place in the universe and among my fellow men."

She nodded, but there wasn't any answering light. Suddenly I wondered if I were offering "cold truth." Why was I holding back, reticent to speak of the warmth and experience that had been so close to me? Afraid of being misunderstood, misinterpreted?

If I loved my friend enough, why not explain to her how I "got" the feeling, even at the risk of sounding corny. Then I told her, "Joanne, I get comfort and inspiration."

Her face lighted up. "Those are the things I want. But are you sure?"

I told her a story I have always hesitated to tell — my experience at "playing" the Virgin Mary on the Family Theater for television. When Father Patrick Peyton called to suggest it, I was stunned. The idea of "acting the part" of the Blessed Mother seemed presumptuous.

I agreed to do it, but frankly was scared and felt inadequate for the job. There was even one line in the script I could never say. I didn't understand it.

It is my practice to commit my lines to memory by rote and, when letter perfect, to work out my concept of the character in detail. In this case once I had mastered the words, I simply could not bring myself to offer my personal interpretation to 20,000,000 viewers. Nor could I read that one "line."

In my secret heart I had never been able to understand how Mary could say in her humility: "My sould doth magnify the Lord."

As I waited in the wings, to do my first performance on Thanksgiving Day, I felt I had never been so ill prepared. I knew only the words and, unless the inspiration came, I didn't know what would happen. Over and over I prayed: "Be Thou my guide. Help me to forget myself."

It is hard to explain what happened then. I moved through the part on "feeling," on impulse rather than reason. I wasn't conscious of speaking words or lines, but instead concentrated on the impact, the spirit behind them.

The time came to say, "My soul doth magnify the Lord," but the way was with a kind of singing wonder . . . I had never thought of those words that way . . . but now I knew what the Virgin Mary meant. It was the purpose of a whole life.

"Yes," said Joanne. "I see. That is answered prayer."

A good way to start, I've discovered, is with thank-you prayers, little prayers offered many times throughout the day, for many things, big and small.

Most often when I pray for something it is for direction, for what I am supposed to do. For the wisdom to be a good mother and wife.

Before going on the stage or before cameras, I always pray . . . not to be a success, but that I shall remember what I have learned.

Tomorrow—Florence Chadwick learned something about faith.

Center to Have Boston Store

Shoe Chain Will Open 15th Shop on Thursday at Tel-Huron

The 15th store in the Boston Shoe Stores chain will open Thursday in the Tel-Huron Shopping Center at 31 W. Telegraph Rd., with Harry Allison as store manager.

Exterior design of the 24x150 foot store is related to the over-all plan of the new center with pleasing shades of soft colors being used in the interior.

Walls and ceilings are aqua with a mirror forming the store's rear wall. Above the hosiery and bag counter the ceiling is built at a lower level and painted in a contrasting shade of terra-cota.

The low ceiling dramatizes the counter and is an extension of the front display window ceiling. Concealed shelving extends the length of the interior on each side with pearl gray facing.

Off-white chairs contrast beautifully with a textured carpet of muted tones.

Allison, who has been with the Boston chain for five years, said the height of the interior of the new store is much lower than any of the company's other units. Fluorescent lighting has been used throughout the store for maximum illuminating benefit.

Woman Fly Casts Just for the Sport

CLEVELAND, Ohio (UP)—Joan Salvato can cast a fly with the best of male fishermen. But she never cooks her catch.

The pretty 27-year-old brunette is women's national fly casting champion. She says that casting is a sport for her and she never carries it any farther than just getting the fish off the hook. She throws most of them back.

She's a former dancing teacher and appears more of a natural in that part than with a fly rod in her hand. When she gives an exhibition at a sports show she wears an evening gown.

Miss Salvato says she's looking for a man who likes to "fish all day and dance all night."

Six miles of temporary wiring for electricity were used at the Tel-Huron Shopping Centre during the construction phase.

Iraq Allows Entry From Arab States

BAGHDAD (UP)—Iraqs project permitting the entry of citizen's of the Arab states without visa, on reciprocal basis, has brought with it a tide of new immigration to this country.

The measure, initiated by the cabinet of Ser. Jamil al-Madfai last year, has been endorsed by the governments of Lebanon, Hashemite, Jordan and the Persian Gulf Amirate of Kuwait. Iraq has approached the other Arab states, but their decisions are still pending.

Visas were abolished between Iraq and the Lebanon last August, then with Jordan and Kuwait. During the past five months some 15,000 Jordianian and Lebanese subjects entered Iraq, about 8,000 of them from Jordan, the bulk of the latter Palestine Arab refugees.

To avoid unemployment and other problems which may result from entry without visa, Iraq has issued a new regulation making it necessary for citizens of Arab countries entitled to "no visa" facilities to obtain department of labor permits if they wish to remain here for work.

Power for 800 Houses

The estimated amount of electricity that will be used at the Tel-Huron Shopping Centre in one day would provide enough electricity for about 800 average homes, according to E. L. Karkau, assistant to the division manager at Consumers Power Co.

THE DICTIONARY LISTS THE FOLLOWING DEFINITIONS FOR PLASTERING:

1. "The act of applying plaster, as to a wall"
2. "A coating of plaster"

To prospective builders, these two definitions mean a lot.

George Edwards follows the first definition. With him plastering is not just a matter of COATING your walls with plaster . . . instead it's the art of APPLYING it. THERE IS A DIFFERENCE!

Most any one can COAT a wall with plaster, but it takes a craftsman with the skill, the experience, AND THE PRIDE to apply plaster so that the finished job has that done-to-perfection look.

The proof that George Edwards does his work well, is found in the many satisfied customers he has served over many years.

We are proud to have had the opportunity to do all of the plastering in the NEW TEL-HURON SHOPPING CENTER . . . and we want to take this opportunity to extend our BEST WISHES to those persons who made this new center possible in Pontiac.

Fossils May Shed Light on Pre-History

WASHINGTON (UP) — Recent exploration in south-western Wyoming has shed new light on the vast span of time between the last of the dinosaurs and the appearance of animals similar to those living today.

Many of the fossils were collected and brought to the Smithsonian Institution here for classification and study. Previously unknown, they will help breech a gap of 55,000,000 years.

The largest and most interesting of the specimens was a vegetation-eating creature about the size of the present day bear. It's scientific name is the pantolambda. Although only its skull was found, scientists have determined that the pantolambda did not even remotely resemble any living animal.

If plate glass used in store fronts at the Tel-Huron Shopping Centre were stretched out one foot wide its length would reach more than two and one-half miles.

Presbyterians Forgive Pastor

Recommend Clemency for Confessed Former Communist

DETROIT (UP) — The Presbytery of Detroit today had extended "the hand of fellowship and forgiveness" to one of its ministers who recently admitted former membership in the Communist Party.

The minister is the Rev. Joseph Nowak. He is a former director of Hamtramck's Dodge Christian Community House and more recently a desk clerk at Detroit's downtown YMCA.

Nowak admitted former Communist membership to the House Un-American Activities Committee in Washington March 25. He said he was a member for three months in 1946 but quit in disgust with it and its philosophy.

He was suspended and later quit his YMCA job after testifying before the congressional committee.

The Presbytery adopted unanimously the report of a committee of three ministers and two elders (laymen), which reported:

"From the evidence submitted to the committee, at this time we do not feel that there is a basis for judicial action . . .

"We report the confession of the Rev. Joseph Nowak admitting his membership in the Communist Party. . . .He disavows and connection with the Communist Party or with its philosophy.

"He also reaffirmed his loyalty to Christ and the Church. We register our belief in the penitence of Mr. Nowak and reccommend clemency and forgiveness in the spirit of the confession of faith."

Puget Sound Floor Being Photographed

SEATTLE, Wash. (UP) — The oceanography department of the University of Washington is making a photographic study of the ottom of Puget Sound with a camera that can take pictures 300 feet below the surface.

The photographic gear is mounted on an eight-foot steel shaft that can be dropped into the water on a cable suspended from the university's oceanography vessel, the Brown Bear. Near the top of the shaft is a 35-millimeter rapid-sequenc camera in a pressurized case. Below it is a flashbulb attachment and a reflector.

Hanging from the bottom of th shaft is a weigh. When the weight hits bottom it sets off the flash and trips the camera shutter.

Pictures reproduce an area about three feet square.

Sauce Chef Handicapped After Burning Finger

CLEVELAND, O. (UP)—A minor catastrophe recently hit Jules Arnaud, a sauce cook here. He burned his finger!

To most persons this would have been nothing, but in Arnaud's case he was forced to take several days off.

As he explained it, "I burned the finger I lick to taste the sauces I cook."

Company Will Ship Ammonia by Sea

NEW YORK (INS) — America's first water transportation of anhydrous ammonia in bulk will be inaugurated this year by Shell Chemical Corporation, it was announced here by George R. Monkhouse of San Francisco, vice president in charge of the company's newly created Ammonia Division.

The company plans to ship the ammonia from its plant at Pittsburg, California, over a 900-mile ocean and river route to Portland, Oregon, and Pasco, Washington.

Together with this expanded transportation program new storage facilities capable of handling approximately 50,000 tons of ammonia per year will be installed in the Northwest to ensure adequate supplies for agricultural fertilizer and industrial needs there.

"GOURD" IDEA—Like operators of sewage disposal plants all over the country, Roy Binder, at Hays, Kan., is plagued by pesky psychoda flies. They snicker at DDT. But wrens, their natural enemy, really destroy them. The plot: Binder harvested a big crop of dipper gourds from his garden last fall. He decided that if wrens had attractively designed and furnished homes, they would come in greater numbers this summer and enjoy family picnics, with the psychoda fly as the main dish. So he made wren houses out of his gourds, painted them in attractive colors and hung them all around the grounds.

Tie Vote Halts Council

Reds Accuse Allies of Truce Violations

PANMUNJOM (INS) —The Communists formally accused the Allies today of sending two armed patrols across Korea's truce zone into Red territory but the United Nations Command rejected the charges as unfounded.

The "border incidents" were placed by the Reds before a Communist-summoned full dress meeting of the Allied-Red Military Armistice Commission in Panmunjom.

Two five-men "patrols" of South Koreans were alleged by the Communist to have crossed the two and a half mile-wide buffer zone by land and sea, the first on Saturday night and the second early Monday.

The chief of the Communist delegation to the joint armistice commission declared that one of the Koreans, captured in the neutral land area Saturday night, had "confessed" that the "patrol" was sent north by an American officer at the U. N. Base Camp in Munsan.

VA Office Bungles, Says Businessman

DETROIT (INS) — A Detroit businessman charged today that bungling in the Detroit office of the Veterans Administration is preventing Michigan veterans from obtaining GI home mortgages.

Benjamin Levinson, president of the Michigan Mortgage Co., dispatched a letter to Albert M. Cole, administrator of the housing and home financing agency in Washington, and asserted:

"If the thousands of veterans . . . in Detroit and throughout the state had first-hand knowledge of the lack of interest, inefficiency and apathy toward housing problems, I am certain your (administration) office would be swamped by protests."

We have a line the gals go for

(Have you seen our Spring Fashion Show?)

You can't fool the ladies when it comes to styling.

From clothes and hemlines, to cars and color schemes—they insist on a fresh new look and a fresh new change—and anything else won't do.

So it's easy to see why the gals—bless 'em!—have been going for Buick in a great big way—going for the glamorous modernity of these new-day automobiles ever since the first public showing a few short months ago.

From the beginning, they've been going for the sleeker, longer, lower lines—the futuristic shaping of the new windshields—the stunning décor of the striking new fabrics—the clean simplicity of the new instrument panels.

But you ought to see how they go for the gay new car models in Buick's Spring Fashion Show! Fresh new Convertibles, Rivieras and Estate Wagons never before available—and in gorgeous new summer colors never shown before!

And you ought to see how they go—as the men certainly do—for the thrilling new V8 power, the buoyant new ride, the superb new control, and the almost effortless handling ease that are all part and parcel of every new 1954 Buick.

Why not visit our Spring Fashion Show and see for yourself the fresh new tomorrow that's here now—in today's Buick? Then we can show you the prices that make this beauty the buy of the year.

THE WALKY GAWKY... she shops on fiery feet!

A WALKY GAWKY is a customer who shops before she reads a newspaper. She hot-foots it from store to store looking for the things she wants to buy.

Fortunately the WALKY GAWKY is a rare bird — almost extinct. Because practically all women read their newspapers before they shop. It's easier on the feet that way.

Independent research has shown that most women newspaper readers read the ads just as avidly as the news itself.

Naturally.

When a woman picks up the paper, she's looking for all that's going on in her town now. In the stores as well as in the streets and schools. At the counters as well as at the women's club and the court house.

That's why people who have something to sell depend on the newspaper to help 'em sell it fast.

All business is local . . . and there's nothing more local than the newspaper. It gets closest to a town's people because it's their own—planned for them, written for them, dependent on them.

And they're dependent on it — every day of the year. Not just a few people in town — but just about all the people. In fact, people are reading more newspapers today than at any time in history!

That's why the newspaper comes first — with the most people and with the most advertisers who want to make sales fast!

All business is local . . . and so are all newspapers!

O-JIB-WA BITTERS BROUGHT ME THE RELIEF I WANTED

"I used to sit up in bed at night and cry because the pains of arthritis were unbearable," says Mrs. Louise Busch, 111 W. Dakota St., Detroit.

"I must tell you how thankful I am for your wonderful O-JIB-WA BITTERS. It was about a year and a half ago that the terrible pains of arthritis struck me down. There were times that I couldn't walk and it just about killed me to use the stairs. It began in my feet by curling up my toes and then went into my legs and knees. Then before long, one finger on my hand would lock into place and I would drop a paring knife or whatever I was holding. Many nights I would sit up in bed and cry because I just didn't know what to do. It was so painful. I spent lots of money trying other medicines, but nothing would help me. I read in the newspapers about the amazing results that other people received by using O-JIB-WA BITTERS. I frankly doubted them, so I wrote a letter to one lady in Bad Axe, Michigan, asking about her story in the paper. She wrote and told me how it had helped her, and assured me that her story in the paper was absolutely true. Then I went to see another lady in Detroit whose name was also in the newspaper. She also confirmed her testimonial, and convinced me that O-JIB-WA BITTERS was worth a try. It took about six weeks before I could see much results, but after that I felt like a new woman. I continued taking it for several months and can truthfully say that I am well now. I can walk good, sleep well and feel better all around. I tell everybody that I know who suffers like I did to try O-JIB-WA BITTERS. I always have a large bottle of your wonderful medicine on hand, as I wouldn't be without it again. Because of the new lease on life it brought to me, I would say that O-JIB-WA BITTERS is certainly a remarkable medicine."

Victor Emmanuel III's Bequest to Italians Is Rare Historical Gift

ROME (UP) — Experts are busy inside Barberini Palace on the three-year task of arranging the fabulous coin collection of King Victor Emmanuel III, for display to the public.

Victor Emmanuel, who indulged in coil collection as the only hobby in his dry, soldierish life, willed his cherished collection to the Italian people in 1946 shortly after the referendum that ousted the Italian monarchy and about one year before he died in exile in Alexandria, Egypt. The collection totals 120,000 coins.

The collection has been kept for eight years in the former royal palace of the Quirinale—now the residence of President Luigi Einaudi—and only now has space been found to display it to the public.

The 23 oak cases, whose contents are value at about 2,000,000,000 lire ($3,200,000), were unloaded at Barberini Palace on Feb. 25. Actual cataloguing started in March after rooms of the palace were reinforced to stand the weight of the huge iron shelves on which the coins will be displayed.

The little king, who ascended the throne after his father was assassinated in 1900, devoted much of his lifetime to the precious collection. The only break came during World War I, when he untiringly toured the front to be with his soldiers through the defeat of Caporetto and up to final victory.

Then came the king's capitulation to Benito Mussolini's coup in 1922. After that Victor Emmanuel had even too much leisure to work on his collection in 21 years devoted to rubber-stamping the dictator's decrees.

When World War II broke out, the king did not forget his collection. He moved it to the royal castle of Pollenzo to protect it from possible bombings. From there it was moved to Bolzano by General Kesselring when his German armies occupied Italy after the king's attempt to oust Mussolini.

Experts said the collection—including Italian gold, silver and bronze coins from the early Roman republic to present times—is probably the most complete on earth, and provides a history of Italy for 2,400 years.

Army Keeps Alive Its Heroes' Names in Camps

WASHINGTON (UP)—The Army keeps the memory of its heroes alive long after their heroic deeds are forgotten by giving their name to forts and army camps.

For example, Fort Dix, N. J., honors Maj. Gen. John Adams Dix, who was commissioned at the age of 14 and later fought in the Battle of Lundy's Lane in the War of 1812. Dix went on to become secretary of the treasury in 1861.

Fort Lewis, Wash., got its name from Meriwether Lewis of the famous Lewis and Clark expedition. Fort Bliss, Tex., was named in 1854 in honor of Maj. William S. Bliss — known as Perfect Bliss" because of his efficency as Zachary Taylor's adjutant general in the war with Mexico.

Fort Crockett, Tex., took its name from Davy Crockett, the famous hunter and legislator who died at the Alamo.

Today there are about 52 camps and forts in the United States that bear the names of Army officers who devoted their lives to serving their country. There are four camps named to honor enlisted men.

A rental fee of one peppercorn a year is paid by a fraternal organization for use of the old State House at St. George, Bermuda. The island's governor receives the token payment at a formal ceremony every spring. To date 138 pepper seeds have changed hands.

Pitching Horseshoes

One Collects Painters, Another Gathers Wives

By BILLY ROSE

There's a relatively well-to-do man in New York who, for the past 18 years, has been having a lot of fun out of a heartwarming hobby at, I think, no great cost to himself.

His name is Hugo S. Stix, and during business hours he is sales manager of Seeman Brothers, the well-known wholesale grocers.

BILLY ROSE

Nights and weekends he runs The Artists Gallery on Lexington, a nonprofit setup where he exhibits and sells the paintings and sculpture of unknown artists.

Back in the early '30s, when Hugo was studying Art History at Harvard he realized how difficult it was for a painter to get started.

So Brother Stix, shortly after he got out of college, set out to do what he could to correct this situation. In 1936, he opened a gallery where only unknown artists could exhibit.

His gallery had only two rules: (A) If a painting or sculpture were sold, the artist would pocket every penny of the proceeds. (Commercial galleries usually cut themselves in for 30 per cent or better.)

(B) As soon as an artist "hit," and one of the uptown outfits was interested in taking him on, he was expected to leave, because the sooner he left the sooner the gallery could make room for another Joe Nobody.

Since 1936, Hugo has presented more than 100 one-man shows, and has introduced some 400 painters and sculptors to critics and art lovers.

Approximately 30 of his nonpaying proteges have become successful and solvent — James Lechay, Byron Brown and Saul Baizerman, to mention a few.

It's my best guess that few men in this country have had as much fun out of a hobby as this enlightened groceryman. For almost two decades he has not only enjoyed the prestige of directing an important art gallery, but has also had the fun of discovering talent and giving it the break it so seldom gets . . .

Another, and better known, hobbyist I'd like to discuss is Senor Porfirio Rubirosa, the Caribbean diplomat who collects wealthy wives.

As I see it, the best known of the Latin lovers doesn't quite rate the kicking around he has been getting because he walked out on Barbara Hutton.

To begin with, this husky, well-mannered gent has been living his life pretty much in the Horatio Alger tradition in which, as you know, the hero almost invariably married the boss' daughter.

The first of Rubirosa's four brides, as statisticians will recall, was the daughter of the President of the Dominican Republic.

His second or third wife, I'm not sure which, was Doris Duke, the daughter of the boss of American Tobacco. The father of his last bride, Miss Hutton, was boss of Woolworth's.

Recently, when accused of marrying for money, the Dominican diplomat, in a display of impeccable statesmanship, pointed out that he had divorced Doris Duke, worth $400,000,000, to marry Barbara Hutton, who has only $40,000,000.

Rubirosa added, with unassailable logic, that this was not the behavior of a mercenary man — and I think the figures speak for themselves.

Like Stix, Rubirosa seems to divide his time between business and his hobby. Days, he looks after the interests of the Dominican Republic as its Ambassador-at-Large.

After business hours he tries to make wealthy women happy by marrying them. Rubirosa's principal problem, like Mr. Stix's, is how to accommodate all the applicants who come knocking at his door.

And the diplomat's solution, it seems, is the same as the gallery owner's: to encourage his clients to move on so he can make room for fresh talent.

Everything, considered, I think Senor Rubirosa deserves well of the Republic.

The Dominican Republic, that is.

Watch Cleaning Altered by Gadget

CLEVELAND (UP) — Jewelers the world over for hundreds of years have been cleaning watches and items of jewelry in soap and way, but George Aultman, after employing this method for 45 year has devised a fast and simple way to do the job.

Instead of boiling the delicate machinery of watches or the fastenings and minute crevices of finly fashioned jewelyr in soap and water for half an hour and then brushing and pounding out the dirt, Aultman has worked out a miniature washing machine that sends a jet of steam and chemicals over the object to be cleaned.

He recently cleaned a diamond watch with 100 stones in it in one minute and said the job was better than "you could ever do by hand." Aultman, who has applied for a patent, plans to market the device for about $150. He said it would be useful to engravers, also to dentists for the cleaning of false teeth.

In Great Britain with a population of 50 million, more than 23 million are employed.

Doctors agree BED-WETTING can cause nervousness, stuttering and emotional disturbances in children, very often seriously affecting their future and character.

At last medical science has discovered a safe, new, easy way to stop BED-WETTING without electrical devices . . . without rubber sheets, alarms or special diets and without interrupting needed sleep. Yes, almost miraculously, amazing, safe DRY-TABS help stop functional BED-WETTING . . . relieve tension and strain, often the underlying cause in most cases. So don't wait . . . end the BED-WETTING habit this easy way or no cost.

SIMPLE SAFE TABLET DOES IT! DRY-TABS is the same safe, medical formula discovery that is prescribed and recommended by many doctors. Non-habit forming. No harmful drugs.

CHILD HAPPY NOW: Nervousness and stuttering curbed. Shame, discomfort gone forever! No more irritating rash. Can now enjoy overnight visits.

Don't wait another day. If your loved ones suffer the humiliation, the disgrace, insecurity and helplessness only BED-WETTING can cause, order DRY-TABS NOW! Easy to take, can be dissolved in water if necessary. Just follow simple directions.

ADULTS: Scientific tests actually prove DRY-TABS to be 75% effective in stopping this unfortunate habit — even after years of torment! Ends the constant worry of overnight hotel stops . . . napping on trains and buses for fear of public embarrassment.

New Freight Car May Cut Damage to Fragile Cargo

CLEVELAND, O. (UP) — The days when freight arrives at its destination battered and useless may be numbered.

The Erie Railroad has spent $76,500 for 10 rubber-cushioned freight cars to use as pilots in a test to determine the best means of minimizing breakage in transit which costs shippers, railroads, manufacturers, and ultimately, of course, the consumer, heavily each year.

The cars will be put into regular service, but Milton G. McInnes, vice president in charge of operations, said their cargoes will be those most susceptible to damage.

In addition to the rubber-cushioning, impact recorders will be installed on the cars to register shock and unusual handling the car may receive.

The experimental cars, built by Pullman-Standard Car Co., also have the conventional draft gear for absorbing heavy jolts.

The U.S. post office department issued 4,222,198,300 copies of the two-cent Washington bicentennial stamp in 1932, the most ever issued of a commemorative stamp.

Wants Scarlet Letters

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — A bill in the Arizona Legislature proposes to brand the cars of convicted drunk and reckless drivers with a scarlet letter. The bill would require the letter "D" for drunk and "R" for reckless to be placed on the rear windows of cars of offending drivers.

County to Open Bids on 3 Paving Projects

Oakland County Road Commission will open bids April 15 for blacktopping part of three gravel roads and blacktopping and widening part of Eleven Mile road.

Robert O. Felt, road commission chairman, says the commission plans to do all the projects this summer.

Commission will let two contracts for work on Eleven Mile road from M-150 to Dequindre — for one for blacktopping and one for widening.

Blacktop-over-gravel projects include almost a mile of Big Beaver road between Woodward avenue and Adams road; about two miles of Wixom road from M-218 to Glengary road; and 1800 feet of Hiller road north of Commerce, far enough to handle heavy traffic to Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Park.

Editor's Will Filed

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Property unestimated but believed to be of considerable value is bequeathed to the widow in the will of Jacquin L. (Jack) Lait, editor of the New York Mirror. Lait died April 1, at 72. His will was filed yesterday for probate.

Control of Gout May Be Near With New Drug

CHICAGO (AP) — The way may have been opened up towards eventual complete control of gout—one of mankind's oldest and peskiest afflictions—the American College of Physicians (ACP) was told today.

Dr. Elmer C. Bartels of Boston's Lahey Clinic said the possibility is suggested by promising results with a relatively new drug called "Benemid" although he did not say that that particular substance would be the final answer.

He told the ACP's annual meeting that there still are "many problems" associated with the use of the drug—chief of which is the fact that sometimes a patient may suffer recurring attacks of his gout during periods up to nine months after Benemid treatment is begun.

* * *

But he declared that "most cases" are eventually brought under control by the substance, sometimes in combination with other medicines.

The clear implication of his report was that the final answer to complete and relatively easy control of gout might come from improvements in the use of the present drug, or from the development of a better one having similar action. The drug works by drawing troublesome uric acid from the gouty tissues.

Bartels told the meeting:

"Those interested in gout have been waiting patiently for the discovery of a substance that would accomplish for gout what insulin has so brilliantly done for diabetes —that is, effectively control gout regardless of the severity of the disease."

Dr. Lillian Gilbreth to Get Award From Engineers

CHICAGO (AP)—Dr. Lillian Moller Gilbreth, 75, engineer, author and educator, tonight will receive the annual Washington Award from the Western Society of Engineers.

Dr. Gilbreth, of Montclair, N.J., is the first woman to be so honored since the award was first made to Herbert Hoover in 1919. She is being cited for her outstanding contribution to engineering and scientific management and for her devotion to the problems of the handicapped.

H-Ash Victims Still Critical

Japanese Doctor Not Optimistic on Recovery of Some of 23

TOKYO (AP)—A Japanese doctor said today he had "no optimism" for the recovery of some of the 23 Japanese fishermen burned by radioactive ash from the March 1 H-bomb blast at Bikini.

Dr. Kazuo Miyoshi said "the next week will tell" whether the men will live. He did not say how many are dangerously ill, but previously two of the 23 were listed as critical.

Dr. Miyoshi, chief physician at Tokyo University Hospital, where the fishermen are being treated, said their fate hinges on how seriously the radioactivity affects their bone marrow, producer of infection-fighting white blood corpuscles.

* * *

Some of the fishermen are running a fever as a result of frequent blood transfusions to wash the radioactivity from their systems, the doctor said.

All of the men are suffering from various degrees of radiation sickness caused by their exposure to radioactive ash which showered their boat, the Lucky Dragon, after the H-bomb blast. The crew said the boat was about 80 miles from the Bikini test site.

American scientists have expressed belief that all of the 23 ultimately would recover.

Striking Necklines Accent New Cashmere Collection

Cashmeres for spring and summer have many new necklines for daytime and evening wear.

A new version of the sweetheart neckline, underscored with a band of ribbing, provides a charming new topper for special occasions. Another dressmaker cashmere has a deep-V neckline set off by an inset of handmade chain link cashmere braid, giving a lacy touch to the sweater. Cashmere braid also appears on a new evening scoop, the braid hand-looped into scroll border for the neckline.

The cashmere pullover, long a favorite with smart women for their spring suits and summer resort costumes, is prominent in the spring and summer collection. The three-button front closing for the short-sleeved pullover appears in both collared and collarless cashmeres.

A new touch is given by a contrasting band around the neck or collar, along the front closing and around the little turned-back cuffs. Among the popular combinations for this two-toned sweater are champagne beige and cocoa souffle, French and smoke gray, navy or pastel colors with white.

Other short-sleeved pullovers, including a new turtle neck, have back zipper closings for a good fit to high-necked sweaters.

Long-sleeved cardigans are always a favorite for travel and resort wear and are shown with or without collars. A new cardigan with a contrasting woven band on the collar has three-quarter length sleeves, much in demand so the sweater can double for a blouse.

For the first time, designers have included a little cashmere bolero in their collections. Truly a clock-wise style, the short-sleeved bolero looks lovely over a matching or contrasting cashmere pullover and is perfect for a shoulder wrap with a summer evening gown.

The bolero takes very little space in a luggage case and is always fresh and ready for wear. You will see it everywhere this coming season in white, navy and a new flame coral.

Another wonderful summer wrap is the lacy cashmere stole, a long, graceful and most elegant wrap for wear with both casual and dressy costumes. It is charming in white or pastel colors for spring and summer travel.

All these cashmeres are moth-proofed for long wear and can be safely washed by hand in body-temperature water or dry-cleaned. They come in a wide variety of colors, white, pastel, neutral and deep tones. Newest shades this spring and summer include persimmon, iris green, flame coral, aqua, amethyst and Wallace blue.

They may be purchased locally.

Eagles Auxiliary Names Delegates

Delegates to the National Convention of Eagles Auxiliaries to be held in June were named at a recent meeting of the ladies' auxiliary to Eagles Aerie 1230.

Mrs. James Cloutier and Mrs. Cyril Burling were named delegates with Mrs. Albert Mallett as first alternate and Mrs. William Hollenbeck as second alternate.

In Detroit Hospital

Mrs. Arthur M. Bowen of Scott Lake has been admitted to Deaconess Hospital in Detroit for surgery.

A pure cashmere stole (left) is a delightful wrap for casual, dress or at-home wear. It has a charming lacy stitch and long, graceful self-fringe. The blouse-type cashmere sweater (right) can be worn with a spring suit or just a tailored skirt for town or country.

Self cashmere braid trims the neckline of a spring and summer scoop sweater. It makes an attractive cocktail or dinner costume.

Woman Learns to Cooperate

One woman we know does her washing in the public laundry in the apartment house where she lives. Happily, it's helped her to learn the value of community spirit even though it's not in a small town.

Generally, she and a friendly neighbor do their sudsing together and cooperate on handling large and bulky articles. It's a nice chatty time while the soap and water seem to do all the work.

Why they've even decided to use the laundry's ironing board as a game table—for a bit of quick relaxation while the washers are churning.

Feather Removers

A large pair of scissors or a strawberry huller can be put to good use plucking pin feathers from fowl.

New Comforter Ends Sneezing

Anyone allergic to the luxury of down comforters will be interested in a new non-allergic type which provides luxury without sneezes.

New Coat Lines Replace Flares

This spring while the fitted coat is a strong consideration, many other alternatives take the place of the loose flare of past seasons. Loose, straight on the lines of the modified cupola (stiffened though not rigid) is the newest, in the new high-bloom fleeces or softly nubby tweeds as well as fancies in silk or cotton.

Also on hand is the straighter, rounding tapered coat, full length, three-quarters or two-thirds.

The fitted princess coats get their personality from the crisp silk or alpaca fabrics (black, navy or gray) in which they are made, not to mention the fancy brocade-like cottons and silks. These are intended for wear early as coat-dresses, and later as ensemble coats with print or slim black or navy dresses.

Pumps Before Five

The bare look in shoes is stronger than ever this spring. But most of these shoes are destined for after-five wear. For daytime wear, closed pumps with pointed toes and contrasting trim get fashion's nod.

Mary Margaret McBride Says:

God May Answer Pleas With 'No,' as Well as 'Yes'

"Do you think God liked the Eisenhowers' prayer better than mine?" demands a Detroit reader, and adds, "If his family's prayers saved President Eisenhower from being crippled, as you intimated in your column, why didn't my prayers save me?"

Why are some prayers answered and others not? I asked a famous woman preacher that very question not long a go.

"I know, I too have cried out 'Why? Why?' and felt as if God and faith were lost because I didn't get what I asked for," said Margaret Blair Johnstone. "But God always answers prayers. Sometimes He says no. And when God says no it's time for faith to go to work. It's a mistake to believe that prayer is just a 'gimme' exercise."

MISS McBRIDE

Margaret Johnstone knows many others to whom God has said no, and so do I. Most of the ones I know have emerged from the experience with strong, unshakable faith in a greater wisdom. Often they've been able to turn their handicaps into advantages, not only for themselves but for the greater good of humanity.

In this connection, I think of Ethel Waters, the actress, one of the most deeply religious persons I know and one of the frankest about herself. Ethel's early life was one of incredible hardships, the least of which was that she was poor.

Nobody brought her up. Nobody taught her the difference between right and wrong. By the time she was 7 she had a grownup's knowledge of sin and crime.

She learned about God from the nuns to whom she briefly went to school. From then on, God was her friend to whom she talked regularly. I remember her telling me about an almost fatal automobile accident after which she suffered tortures through lack of proper care. Through all her agony she hung on to her faith.

"I had the conviction that there was a living God, good, all-powerful, who was loving me, watching over me and forgiving my trespasses," she told me simply.

At this season of the year one thinks of Jesus, "sorrowful and very heavy," in the Garden of Gethsemane, realizing that His trial was upon Him and praying, "Oh, My Mather, if it be possible, let this cup pass from Me. Nevertheless, not as I will but as Thou wilt."

Counseled Margaret Johnstone: "Pray for strength to bear whatever you must bear. Give thanks for the things you miss, for when God says no, He means these re things you shouldn't have.

"Don't turn to religion as a bribe or a last resort, and if you feel that you can't hold on for another day, do it for an hour, a minute, even a breath at a time."

I'm not a theologian, Detroit reader, but I believe with Mrs. Johnstone that no as well as yes is an answer to prayer, and that if God says no, it is part of His plan.

City Visitor Contributes Salad Rule

Mrs. McKush Uses Pineapple in Gelatin for Spring Dish

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

A weekend visitor from Canada, Mrs. O. E. McKush of Winnipeg, is today's contributor. She was pleased when we asked her to give us her favorite recipe.

With spring so definitely in the air—finally—you will enjoy serving Seafoam Salad.

Mrs. McKush has just completed a training course in civil defense work at Ottawa. She has been active in her local community club and a few years ago helped organize the Home and School Association (like the PTA) in her city.

SEAFOAM SALAD
By Mrs. O. E. McKush

1 package lime gelatin
1 cup coffee cream
1 small or ½ large can crushed pineapple (well drained)
½ cup chopped celery
1 carton cottage cheese
½ cup chopped walnuts
½ can pimientos, chopped

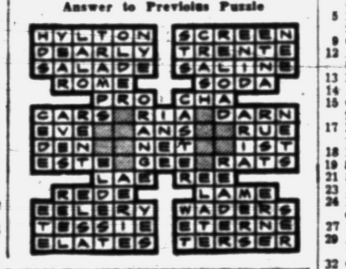

Dissolve gelatin in 1 cup heated pineapple juice that has been drained from the crushed pineapple. Cool and add the cream. Mix all the other ingredients together, fold into gelatin mixture and chill in refrigerator.

Be Certain in Buying Spring Print Dress

There is always a profusion of print dresses in springtime. Before you buy one, consider that you will tire of it more quickly than of a solid-color dress.

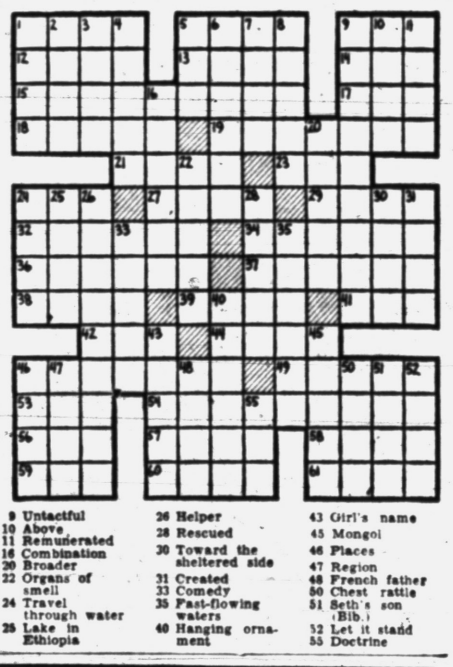

Consider, too, that you will have to choose the hat for it with great care.

Be Cautious in Treatment of Ladders

Check Condition to Prevent Dangerous Tumbles

By HUBBARD COBB

People are apt to do a lot of fool things come spring, and among them is to treat ladders lightly.

Now if you've ever come down a 14-foot ladder head first with a heavy storm window right behind, you'll know that ladders just can't be treated in this fashion.

The first rule about handling ladders is to be sure that the ladder you are going to climb is in first-class condition. Old beat-up ladders can probably be patched up to be as good as new, but we just don't trust 'em.

Wood laddgers that have been painted are especially dangerous because moisture can get into the joint between the rungs and the side pieces and rot out the rungs.

The best treatment for a ladder is a coat of clear wood preservative. This prevents decay and lets you see what sort of shape the wood is in.

When you set a ladder up, be sure that it sits on solid ground. Once you are at the top is no time to find one side of the ladder sinking into the ground.

The base of the ladder should be set about one fourth the length of the ladder from the wall. If you have doubts about the ladder slipping, use rope — it makes mighty good insurance.

We belong to the school that always likes to have someone at the base of the ladder holding—just in case.

Never try to work from the top of a ladder with both hands. Always keep one hand free to hold with—either to the ladder or some other secure object.

And this goes for painting just as much as installing window screens or removing storm sashes. If you can't do it with one hand, get someone to help you from inside the window.

Spray Makes Cologne Handy

The chance to be liberal in your use of a French fragrance without being extravagant is now being offered by one maker of these luxury perfumes.

The firm, which introduced its two French perfumes to the United States only a few years ago, has just made their colognes available in a new-type spray bottle.

And it has priced the new item low enough to offen no budget.

Because the spray mists a wide area with a small amount of cologne, it can be used economically in closets and on lingerie and handkerchiefs.

The bottle sprays such a fine mist that, according to the firm, you needn't worry about its staining clothing.

But now, thanks to Lanolin Plus LIQUID and this "Home Facial" method of application, you can do something for your skin at once. FIRST, apply a hot, wet washcloth to your face and neck to open the pores. SECOND, after warming your bottle of Lanolin Plus LIQUID under the hot water faucet, massage a small amount of this golden liquid into your skin, where it will leave a new supply of softening cholesterols and esters. Do this tonight and find dryness gone in the morning. Lanolin Plus LIQUID is $1 plus tax at all cosmetics counters.

Parents Who Trust Each Other Can Discuss Discipline Before Child

Girl Shouldn't Demand 'All or Nothing'

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

To some girls, the important part of being friends with a boy is that he shouldn't be friends with any other girls. Their own friendship should be it — quite enough to keep him satisfied and happy.

To be just one of the girls he knows, likes and dates is an ignominious thing. Enough to make a girl miserable with shame.

When confronted with the news that she's not the only girl in town, many a girl makes a scene of it. She wants for herself more than she's going to get. And she often winds up with nothing. As this girl did:

"Dear Miss Woodward: After knowing Pat for a year, I started going with him a week ago. We had three dates and I really fell for him.

"On our last date his other girl friend came into the conversation and he said he was afraid he couldn't give her up because of their two families. We parted with the understanding that we'd be friends and nothing more.

"I do like him better than any boy I've ever gone with. It would mean so much to me to get him back as a boy friend.

"I'm sure he wants to go with me, and I know he's not going steady with that other girl. What can I do or say to accomplish my purpose?"

You missed one chance to say something when that other girl's name came into the conversation. That wasn't exactly by accident, you know. It was undoubtedly to let you know early in the game that he didn't want to go steady, even with you. It was to let you know that he dated at least one other girl and intended to keep right on with it.

At that moment you could have bravely said that it was quite all right with you. And you could have hoped out loud that his relationship with her wouldn't interfere with your getting better acquainted and seeing a lot of each other.

Being friends on that basis gives you a chance to weld a few ties of your own. Gives you time to change a casual relationship into a real affection.

It's only been a week since you parted with that "friends and nothing more" understanding. Can't you be patient until he gives you another chance to be his friend?

"Dear Miss Woodward: I was going steady with Dick until I found out he was going steady with me and with another girl, too. This hurt plenty as I had trusted him and been true to him.

"He said he loved me still and we could go together, but not steady. But I took the 'all or nothing' attitude—and now I don't see him at all!

"Should I tell him I'm sorry—should I forget him? Remember, I love him."

You love him. He hurt you. You took your stand. It was all or nothing. You have nothing now but a memory.

If you can make yourself be content with a date now and then, let Dick know you still want to be friends. But if his other girl friends make you miserable, get yourself a new steady you won't have to share with anybody.

Typewriter May Disturb Office Caller

Should Secretary Stop Work When Boss Has Visitors?

By EMILY POST

A young woman writes me: "I am employed as a secretary. My employer and I share the same office which, incidentally, is not a very large one.

"When visitors come in to see my employer, is it considered rude for me to continue typewriting while they are trying to talk above the noise of my machine, or should I stop and wait until the visitor has left before continuing my work? I never know what to do."

Answer: If there is something else that you can do in the meantime, it would be a good time to do it. But if you are busily typing a piece of work that has to go out, you would not be expected to stop working. Why not ask your employer what he prefers?

Dear Mrs. Post: Somewhere I have gotten the impression that white gloves are required in most formal situations. I don't even know if this impression has come from an authentic beginning or if it is something I have taken for granted because of pictures I have seen of notable people wearing white gloves on formal occasions.

Will you please explain about the present-day use of gloves and whether at formal weddings and big important dances one should restrain any preference for color and wear only white?

Answer: White is, of course, the color of evening gloves for a man, with tan or dark gray for the street. On the other hand, a woman may wear gloves of whatever color goes best with her dress—or coat.

Dear Mrs. Post: The senior class of our school has decided to dedicate the class yearbook to the parents of one of the students, since they have done much toward helping our school in the past year.

We would like to know how their names should appear on the dedication page. Should it be "To Mary and John Doe," or "To Mr. and Mrs. John Doe."

Answer: Correctly, the dedication should read, "To Mr. and Mrs. John Doe."

Love is what makes a girl admire virtues in a fellow that he doesn't possess.

Getting all dressed up at Eastertime in pretty and practical blouses is lots of fun for little girls. Versatile and made with the same precision tailoring and details that are used in the women's blouses, these two classics in cotton broadcloth are shown here with a bouffant taffeta skirt and a tailored jumper. The little girl standing wears a sleeveless style with a Peter Pan collar and large patch pockets trimmed with bright red rows of saddle stitching. The other blouse in jonquil yellow has French pearl-buttoned cuffs and a convertible collar. Both are washable.

This Mom Uses Son as a Pawn

Asserts Her Own Rebellion Through Defense of Boy

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

One day when Billy was 3 his father punished him, and his mother protested. An argument in front of Billy followed.

As a result, his parents promised each other to settle all discipline disagreements thereafter in privacy.

But now that Billy is 7, his mother finds the promise hard to keep. For the whippings and slaps which his father administers for any infraction of rules are turning Billy into a sullen, unmanageable child.

When Mrs. G. puts this to her husband, he reminds her of her promise and tells her to mind her own business.

"I am at my wit's end. My husband absolutely refuses to release me from my promise," she writes.

What promise? The only one made was to settle discipline arguments in privacy. They've not been settled in privacy. As the conditions of the promise don't exist, the promise doesn't exist either.

Why hasn't Mrs. G. seen this for herself? Why has she tried to honor a nonexistent contract for so long?

Hasn't she been evading the realization that she is quite free to protest Mr. G.'s treatment of Billy because she fears where such protest may lead? Hasn't all this worry over the promise been dread of facing the reality that Mr. G.'s domination of his family is the real problem?

I expect so. And while I'm not in the least critical of Mrs. G.'s effort to escape from the implications of this reality, I think that in the end it is always best to know what we really fear.

Otherwise, like Mrs. G., we may get mixed up and use a child to assert our own rebellions and resentments at his other parent. That is unfair to everyone.

For when we assume the role of Billy's protector against his father, we join a family league of two against one. Mr. G. becomes the outsider. In such a position, his domination becomes vengeful — and increases.

But if we know that it's his domination of us as well as of Billy that we resent, we can speak for ourselves, instead of trying to fortify our cause by making an ally of a little boy who is his father's son as well as ours.

Personally, I see no reason at all why parents who trust each other cannot discuss children's discipline in their presence.

If we trust Billy's father, it is simple to say, "Of course, you're right, John. Billy, what daddy says changes my mind. Now I, too, think that you'd better put up your bike for three days."

Don't Waste Life in Wrong Career

By ANNE HEYWOOD

In college, Jane and Elizabeth both majored in chemistry.

Jane did it because she rather liked chem in high school and did not quite know what else to take; and, besides, her father said it was a field with a future.

Elizabeth had an even poorer reason for her choice.

"The boy I was crazy about," she told me sheepishly, "was a chem major, and I wanted to be near him in class."

Naturally enough, neither of these girls, five years later, was happy in the chemistry field.

They each took laboratory jobs and stuck at them for a year or two. But after that point, their stories began to differ.

Jane said: "Sure, I hate this lab job, but what can I do about it? That's what I majored in, and I'm stuck with it."

She grew more and more unhappy, and finally, in an effort to escape, she married a man she didn't particularly care for.

The marriage was a failure, and Jane is back at work now in the same kind of lab job, still hating it and muttering bitterly that: "The trouble with college is, they make you decide on your major too soon. There's nothing I can do."

But Elizabeth did do something. She decided that life was too short to spend it in a lab job she hated.

So, while she was in the job, she went to night school and learned typing and technical editing.

She got a list of publishers of scientific books, including those dealing with chemistry. She also made a list of manufacturers in the chemistry and plastics fields who prepare literature about their products.

Then she wrote letters applying for a job as editorial assistant, with good knowledge of chemistry, excellent typing and some knowledge of technical editing.

She got a job, at much less than the lab job paid, but she took it—made a success of it, loves it, and has been rewarded by several raises since.

Moral: If you hate the subject you majored in, don't spend your life blaming the high school or the college.

Find a skill which you can add to the one you have, and make yourself a new career.

How Short Is Short?

Many are asking about the length of hair this Spring. The term short hair or shorer hair is relative. It has to be. What is cute on one will be ghastly on another. The trend for the next few months is short. But in this trend are many variations and I wish to caution you in your choice of this year's mode. The proper choice for you depends on the texture and color of your hair, your features and height. Line is often more important than actual length of the hair. Length and style of hair is individual and a decision must be made by each person. But this is an advantage, for it keeps us from all looking alike. Imagine a whole Pontiac of Italian boy cuts!

Canadiens Beat Wings, 3-1, to Square Playoffs

AP Wirephoto

SO NEAR, BUT IT MISSED—Detroit Red Wing goalie Terry Sawchuk slides to the ice in the 1st period of the game with Montreal Tuesday night at Olympia, keeping a determined eye on the puck fired at him by Calum (Baldy) MacKay, left winger of the Canadiens. It was a good try by MacKay, but it failed to score. Nevertheless the Canucks won, 3-1.

Detroit Club's Jack Adams Blasts Referee Red Storey

By JOE FALLS

DETROIT (AP) — Furious over the officiating, the Detroit Red Wings blasted referee Red Storey with a verbal broadside today after Maurice Richard of the Montreal Canadiens had squared the Stanley Cup hockey finals at a game apiece.

Breaking out of a slump, Richard fired two goals in 31 seconds last night to lead the Canadiens to a 3-1 victory over the Red Wings.

But most of the fireworks took place in the steamy Detroit dressing room after the game. "I thought we were supposed to have impartial referees," boomed general manager Jack Adams. "How come Storey, who lives in Montreal, was allowed to officiate in this series?"

Adams, purple with rage, was incensed because he claimed Storey failed to call a penalty against Montreal in the 1st period for having too many men on the ice.

From the press box, it seemed clear that the Canadiens had more than six players on the ice at one time during a change of lines and actual play.

"But what did Storey do?" Adams asked. "He blew his whistle and put off our Gordie Howe for high sticking."

As it turned out, Howe's penalty was the start of Detroit's downfall. Just 19 seconds after Howe was sent off teammate Tony Leswick followed him into the penalty box for slashing. That gave the Canadiens a 2-man advantage for one minute and 41 seconds, and they scored all three goals within that time.

Dickie Moore clicked at 15:03. Then Richard, pointless in five playoff games, scored twice in 31 seconds, rapping in a 20-footer at 15:28 and a 10-foot backhander at 15:59.

Pressing the attack, Detroit was given a gift goal in the 2nd period when Butch Bouchard, Montreal's veteran defenseman, accidentally slapped the puck into his own goal while attempting to clear it. The goal was credited to Detroit's Alex Delvecchio.

But the Red Wings were unable to overcome Montreal's sizzling 1st-period drive.

"Storey never should have been the referee in the first place," Adams told newsmen in the Detroit dressing room.

Storey had to be assisted from the arena by a half dozen policemen as irate fans pressed around the officials' dressing room. Stepping head down from the darkened cubicle, Storey was whisked to an awaiting cab. Fans showered him with orange peels, paper cups and newspapers. He had no comment.

Richard took it all in stride. As usual, he was booed heavily on the ice. "I don't mind it," he said. "Every boo is a boost as far as I'm concerned."

Canadiens now are favorites as the best-of-seven series shifts to Montreal Forum for the next two games Thursday and Saturday.

What About Other Athletes?

Stigma on Out-State Gridders Miffs Coach

By ROBERT E. VOGES

EAST LANSING (AP) — A football coach was grouching in a "don't quote me on this — but . . ." kind of mood the other day.

He happened to be one of the football coaches at Michigan State. That isn't important to what he had to say.

Because this football coach, whose name won't be used, was speaking for all football coaches.

He had just been asked what kind of material he was getting for the next football crop. Then he was asked where they were coming from — with particular emphasis on state lines.

"That kind of gripes me," said the coach. "When any school, anywhere, brings a football player across a state line you'd think we were violating the Mann Act or something.

"Suppose I told you I had a player from Outer Mongolia — it would make headlines on every sports page.

"But look what's happening in other college sports."

Then the coach cited the number of exchange students that have been making college sports headlines recently.

"Some of the other sports rosters read like a regular league of nations," he cited.

The coach cited the Hawaiian swimming stars at Ohio State. He mentioned the Turkish wrestler who recently won a title for Purdue. He pointed to Canadian track stars at the various colleges, an Australian runner here, a Swedish shot expert there . . .

"And most of the college hockey players are Canadians," he said.

"But then we get a player from three states away," he said. "And if he's good, its news. Some day," he said, 'I'd like to bring in an Eskimo halfback and see what happens."

Davey Favored Over Dreyer in Bout on Coast

Ex-MSC Star Hopeful Bout Will Be Stepping Stone to Gavilan

OAKLAND, Calif. (UP) — Chuck Davey was a 9-5 favorite to defeat South Africa's Gerald Dreyer tonight when the welterweights tangle in a nationally-televised bout at the local auditorium.

The 10-round affair is scheduled to be carried over CBS-TV starting at 10 p. m. EST.

Davey, a seasoned trouper as far as television is concerned, views the bout as a stepping stone toward a rematch with Kid Gavalin for the world welterweight title.

The Cuban Keed agonized Davey's legion of fireside admirers early last year by stopping the stylish collegian in the 10th round at Chicago.

Davey goes into tonight's fight convinced he should be rated over Carmen Basilio as No. 1 challenger for the welter title. He scored a decision over Basilio the last time they met after the pair earlier had fought to a draw.

Dreyer, a body punching specialist who began fighting in his native Pretoria, S. A., at 13, recently was stripped of the British Empire's welterweight title by Barry Brown of New Zealand.

However, the blond-headed Dreyer has knocked out his last two opponents to bring his KO total to 19. Since turning professional after winning the lightweight title at the Olympic Games, Dreyer has been in 42 fights, won 36, lost four and drew two.

Davey dropped a controversial decision to Art Aragon in Los Angeles his last time out. It was his 4th defeat since he gave up fighting for Michigan State and began battling for gold. He has 41 triumphs.

Williams Says He'll Quit at Close of Season

Ted Feels He Is Near 'Downhill Age'; Korea Duty Upset Schedule

PHILADELPHIA (INS) — Boston slugging outfielder Ted Williams, the highest paid player in baseball, will quit the game after the 1954 season because "I'm getting near the age when a ballplayer begins to go downhill."

The 35-year-old Williams, who has a lifetime batting average of .348, announced his retirement in an article appearing in the current Saturday Evening Post. He declared:

"As much as I like the game—and it's the greatest thing that ever happened to me—I realize I'm getting near the age when a ballplayer begins to go downhill."

The tempestuous Williams revealed that, until he was called back into service for almost two years with the Marine Air Force, he had planned to quit baseball after the 1953 season.

He said his Korean hitch "set back my financial timetable" . . . that "my five years in service in World War II and the Korean War cost me $500,000 in salary and outside earnings . . ."

Williams, whose salary is believed to hover close to $100,000, said he plans to retire to his fishing tackle business in Miami.

Williams took a powerful swing at jeering fans and some sportswriters.

For "a lot of the regulars at Fenway Park who make a practice of giving me the business every time they come out to see a game," Williams said, "I can only extend my heartiest contempt."

Williams explained why he never acknowledged spectator applause for a home run by tipping his hat as he crossed home plate. "Why should I," asked Williams. "Does the pitcher tip his cap when he strikes me out?"

Derby 'Longshot' Race

HALLANDALE, Fla. (AP) — The Florida Derby is getting to be known as the race for longshots. Sky Ship won the first running in 1952 and returned $24.10 for a $2 mutuel ticket. Last year Money Broker won and paid $33.80. This year Correlation, with Willis Shoemaker riding, paid $17.20.

Bucs Release Bonus Baby Pettit to Hollywood Nine

BRUNSWICK, Ala. (UP) — Pittsburgh Pirates closed the books on one of the costliest ventures in baseball history today when Paul Pettit was released outright to Hollywood in the Pacific Coast League.

Action probably permanently severed the Pirates' relations with a pitcher for whom they paid a record $100,000 bonus in 1950 and who paid off with one big league victory.

It also marked the final disappointment over the Pirates' two greatest prospects in the post-war era. Ron Necciai, the pitcher who startled the sports world with a 27-strikeout, no-hitter in 1952, was placed on the voluntarily retired list last March 17.

Probably no team in baseball history ever expected more or received less out of two such brilliant prospects.

Pettit won one game and lost two in parts of two seasons with the Pirates and compiled a 25-27 minor league record. Neccial was a sensation wherever he went in the minor leagues but had a 1-6 record for the Pirates.

Under the terms of a unique contract with movie writer and producer Fred Stephani, the Pirates must pay Pettit $10,000 a a year through 1959 in order to pay off his $100,000 bonus.

Pirates already have paid Pettit about $18,000 in salary so they will take a bath in red ink to the tune of about $118,000 for their gamble.

Pettit was signed by the Pirates on January 31, 1950 after the 19-year old southpaw pitched six no-hitters for Narbonne High School of Lomita, Calif. It was discolosed after the signing that every big league club had bid for Pettit.

Rocky, Charles to Train Only 14 Miles Apart

NEW YORK (AP) — Heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano and challenger Ezzard Charles will train at Catskill Mountain resorts only 14 miles apart.

Charles' co-managers Tom Tannas and Jake Mintz today selected Kutsher's Country Club at Monticello, N. Y., as the spot where the former heavyweight king will prepare for his title fight with Marciano at Yankee Stadium June 17.

Marciano already has begun work at his long-time camp at the Grossinger Country Club.

Tannas said Charles will box an exhibition in Denver April 29 with Jack Nelson and another fighter, and then spend a week at Hot Springs, Ark. He will start working at Monticello on May 9.

Grid Star Paces GW to Victory Over UM

WASHINGTON (AP)—Catcher Steve Korcheck, a 3rd-string All America football player, paced George Washington University to a 3-2 victory yesterday over the University of Michigan's defending NCAA baseball champs.

Korcheck poled out two hits, including a game-deciding home run while lefty Steve Bauk limited Wolverine hitters to four hits and struck out 11.

It was Bauk's 3rd straight triumph.

Paul Lepley socked a home run for Michigan. It was GW's 6th victory in seven starts. Michigan now has a 3-2 record.

Joe Louis began his pro ring career in 1934 by knocking out Jack Cracken in the first round.

Approves $250,000 for Lamprey Fight

WASHINGTON (AP) — On motion of Rep. Knox (R-Mich), the House has earmarked $250,000 of the Interior Department's appropriation for research for lamprey eel eradication work in the Great Lakes.

The bill, carrying a toal of $364,337,989, now goes to the Senate.

A proposal by Rep. Metcalf (D-Mont) to add $1,200,000 to the Fish and Wildlife Service's appropriation was beaten. Metcalf wanted it used to develop wildlife and waterfowl refuges.

Cleveland Barons Even Up Calder Cup Series

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP)—It was all tied up today at one game apiece between the Cleveland Barons and the Hershey Bears as the American Hockey League Calder Cup playoffs moved to Cleveland.

Defending champion Barons pulled up even with the surprising Bears last night with a 2nd-period surge for a 4-2 victory. Series resumes Thursday night in Cleveland. Hershey won the opening game of the final round Saturday 3-0.

Dykes Scores Unpopular Win

Bobby Gets Decision Over Rindone Despite Hometowners' Boos

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (UP)—Middleweight contender Bobby Dykes was back on the winning trail today, but the victory that pat him there wasn't a popular one with his hometown fans.

The lanky Dykes, technically kayoed four weeks ago in Brooklyn by Ralph (Tiger) Jones, returned to the ring wars Tuesday night and scored a unanimous 10-round decision over Boston's Joe Rindone.

But the crowd of 2,444 booted at the verdict and barraged the ring with trash. Throughout the bout, they had cheered on Rindone as he marched steadily forward and occasionally booed Dykes as he backstepped and counter-punched.

For Rindone, the defeat apparently put a big roadblock in the way of his 2nd comeback campaign. The Boston belter retired once after being knocked out by Walter Cartier of New York and again when he was stopped by middleweight champion Bobo Olson.

Dykes, currently ranked 9th among the contenders for Olson's crown, entered the ring at 161 pounds and Rindone at 162½.

Famous Name Doesn't Help Prep Ballplayer

BROOKLYN (AP)—Outfielder Joe DiMaggio can't make the baseball team at Bushwick High School.

"Not strong enough at the plate," coach Art Radin reported.

Freckle faced Joe says he is no relation to another ball player of the same name.

Where DiMaggio failed Campanella made it. Joe Campanella will play the infield for Bushwick this spring.

Oakland Nine Wins for Dressen; Poor Turnout at Hollywood

(By The Associated Press)

Pacific Coast League is launched on its 53rd season of baseball, but yesterday's opening day crowds fell below 1953's inaugurals.

There were 39,967 onlookers for the five games as last season started and only 32,607 yesterday, including the Los Angeles-San Diego day-and-night twin bill.

Biggest disappointment was Hollywood. Turnout in the film capital was only 3,150 to see the Stars, Pennant winners for the last two years, lose a 6-4 decision to the Portland Beavers.

Oakland beat Sacramento 2-1 and made manager Charley Dressen's return to the PCL from Brooklyn a winning one.

Seattle spoiled San Francisco's opening before its home fans 8-5.

Los Angeles lost the day game at San Diego 5-0 but in the night game evened the count 4-0.

Tatum, Wilkinson to Lead Stars Against Lions

CHICAGO (UP)—Jim Tatum, of Maryland, the United Press "Coach of the Year" in 1953 and the only coach to beat him, Bud Wilkinson of Oklahoma were named today to lead the College All-Stars in their annual charity clash in Soldier Field, Aug. 13.

Tatum, who led the Terrapins to an undefeated season only to lose to the Sooners in the Orange Bowl 7-0 was named as head coach with the youthful ex-Minnesota halfback as his 1st assistant.

Tatum will lead a picked squad of college stars against the Detroit Lions, the National Football League champion for the last two years.

Haughton Has 32 Stalls for Horses

YONKERS, N. Y. (AP)—Bill Haughton, a 4-time leading driver at Yonkers Raceway, has 32 stalls for his standardbreds for the spring meeting here.

Promising 3-year-olds in Haughton's stable include Big Cannon, Dante, Cotton Blossom, Hickory Bill, Master Fingo and Belva Counsel.

Haughton, a resident of Massapequa, N. Y., is 30 and the youngest reinsman every to take both the money won and most winners titles.

OL Half-Miler Breaks Record in First Meet

Double-winners Bob Leszczynski and Walter Boguzki led St. Mary of Orchard Lake to a 79-30 victory over Southfield yesterday in the Eaglets' home track season opening dual meet.

Leszczynski won both the 100 and 220 yard dashes, in 11.1 seconds and 24.8 seconds, and Boguzki won the 120 low hurdles in 15 seconds and the 120 highs in 18.1 seconds.

Top individual performance was turned in by half-miler Vincent Pernicki, who lowered his own school record by three tenths of a second. He ran the 880 yards in 2 minutes 6.7 seconds.

It's Time Out

"Minus three inches!"

Coach Had Rookie Hurler Well-Pegged

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—It begins to look like Fred Fitzsimmons knows something about judging the talents of a rookie pitcher.

Last summer when Al Worthington was going well here the New York Giants asked Fitzsimmons, one of their coaches, if Worthington were ready for the majors. "Not yet," said Fitzsimmons in effect.

The Giants, however, brought Worthington to New York and he broke into the majors with shutouts against the Phillies and the Dodgers in his first two starts. Then he lost seven straight.

Just before the Giants broke camp at Phoenix, Ariz., they optioned Worthington back to Minneapolis.

"I can't pitch in the spring," said Worthington.

Brothers Plan Map Service for Anglers

SCHENECTADY, N. Y. (AP)—John and Robert Moran have combined their hobbies into a fishing service for anglers.

John, a fishing enthusiast, and Bob, an artist, are publishing a series of "Wilderness Fishing Maps," pin-pointing the best New York fishing waters, stocked streams and access routes.

They have traveled 8,000 miles in the Adirondacks to gather their information.

Eliot Faces Rebuilding Task With Illini Squad

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP)—Facing a "big rebuilding task," coach Ray Eliot of Illinois has begun sifting a group of 85 candidates for 1954 football material.

Spring practice began yesterday and only 13 lettermen, including star halfbacks Mickey Bates and J. C. Caroline, were available.

The squad lost 13 through graduation.

Chisox Advance Ticket Sale Is Record 800,000

CHICAGO (INS)—Chicago White Sox look forward today to a banner home attendance during the 1954 baseball season.

Ticket manager Tommy Maloney reports a record advance ticket sale of $800,000.

Maloney says that at least 30,000 fans will attend the Sox opening game on April 13 against the Cleveland Indians. Both the Indians and White Sox are strong contenders for the American League pennant.

The Yankees broke even in 1953 in games decided by a single run. They recorded 18 wins by a single tally and lost 18.

Travel Costs High

Travel costs of a major league baseball club comprise an important item. Some managers have contended air travel can save up to $5,000 during a season.

Fred Baczewski, Redlegs' southpaw pitcher, beat the New York Giants 4 for 4 in the past 1953 season.

Swing Is Only Minor Part of Golf, Says Ben

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—Ben Hogan, whose chief aim this spring is to win his 5th U. S. Open title at Baltusrol, Springfield, N. J., says a golf swing is only a minor part of the game.

"To me, a golf swing is minor," says the 41-year-old Texan. "Anybody can develop a golf swing. How they score is the story. And that is determined by whether they want to work at their game or not.

"You can't practice for nothing. You have to look forward to something. Golf is a game of misses. I consider myself lucky if I make one or two good shots a round."

Hogan will give the golfers of America another chance to "beat" him on National Golf Day on June 5.

Hogan will shoot from scratch at Baltusrol, 12 days before the national open. Golfers throughout the country will use their local handicaps or the Lionel Callaway system of handicapping on any course they choose to play.

It is estimated that 12 per cent will "defeat" Hogan and win "I Beat Ben Hogan" medals.

Cinches Opening Job

Fireballing Don Larsen Hurls 5-Hitter as Orioles Trample Chicago Cubs, 13-2

By BEN PHLEGAR
AP Sports Writer

Baltimore manager Jimmy Dykes has found an opening-day pitcher by the simple method of announcing the job was open.

Unless Dykes second guesses himself between today and Tuesday, it will be fireballing Don Larsen.

• • •

He clinched the job yesterday. Only hours after Dykes declared his starting lineup set except for the mound chores, Larsen stepped to the hill in Hattiesburg, Miss., and blew down the Chicago Cubs on five hits in a 13-2 victory. The handsome right-hander went the route for the first time this spring.

Baltimore will make its debut in Detroit against the Tigers.

The Tigers got beaten yesterday by the Philadelphia Phillies 4-0 after Ned Garver had held the Phils scoreless through six innings.

The Philadelphia Athletics and the Pittsburgh Pirates, both definite threats to last place in their own leagues, slammed each other's pitching for 37 hits, including nine homers, in a 17-10 contest won by the A's. Gus Zernial and Bill Renna of the A's and Frank Thomas of the Pirates hit two home runs each at Montgomery, Ala.

• • •

Base hits boomed in Lynchburg, Va., too as the Cincinnati Redlegs trounced Washington 18-1. The Reds slammed 20 hits, three of them home runs.

Chet Nichols, Milwaukee's big hope to strengthen its pennant bid, was blasted again, this time by the Boston Red Sox, who beat the Braves 10-5. The Red Sox hammered Nichols for seven hits before he gave way to Phil Paine in the third.

• • •

The New York Giants bowed to Cleveland 10-5 and contributed four errors to their defeat. A two-run home run by Al Rosen broke up a 2-2 tie in the fifth inning.

• • •

Stan Musial hit a home run with two aboard and Rip Repulski hit his fourth homer of the spring as the St. Louis Cardinals whipped the Chicago White Sox 9-2. Vic Raschi and Stu Miller checked the Sox on seven hits.

• • •

The New York Yankees were held at bay for six innings by Clair Parkin, a Red Sox minor leaguer, before coming to life for a 7-2 triumph over Greensboro of the class B Carolina League. Parkin gave the champs only five hits.

Baltimore Is Back in Majors, but Glory of Old Oriole Teams Will Be Lacking for Number of Years

By GRANTLAND RICE

NEW YORK—Baltimore is coming back to big-league baseball in a few days. But the glory that used to be the Orioles of the early 90's will have to wait a while.

The new Orioles may flutter out of last place by slipping by the Athletics or the Tigers, but it will take a desperate sortie to accomplish even this miracle. The Orioles will be better than the Browns, have been, which is the faintest praise you can slip them.

• • •

In looking back over some old Baltimore records made over 50 years ago, we ran across an amazing collection of facts. We had always thought of Iron Man Joe McGinnity as a Giant product, a hot aide of Christy Mathewson.

• • •

Here were the astonishing marks he left behind in his last complete year at Baltimore in 1901. He moved to New York in July, 1902.

Games won—26. Games lost—19. Games pitched—48. Complete Games—39. Inning pitched—378. Bases on balls—95. Strikeouts—72.

This was an amazing record for one pitcher in a single season where he set all the records that can be jotted down. The Iron Man pitched many double-headers in his career, and several of these were pitched for Baltimore.

• • •

He must have had an arm of steel, re-inforced by concrete and rawhide. The last we heard of Joe he was coaching the Dodgers in 1926. The year before that, at the age of 54, he had pitched for Dubuque, Iowa.

• • •

Baltimore's last year under the Big Tent was 1902. Baltimore was used to championship play. Ned Hanlon won three pennants in 1894, 1895, and 1896. Jack Dunn won several consecutive pennants from 1919 to 1925 in the International League.

• • •

Baltimore moves back again into the company it knew over 50 years ago. The team finished last in 1902, so the change from 1902 to 1954 won't be so sudden. Jimmy Dykes has had a good training season and he might surprise a number of rivals in 1954.

Garver Appears to Be Hitting Stride

Reports From Major Camps

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

WASHINGTON (AP) — There'll be grim earnestness tonight when the Washington Senators and Brooklyn Dodgers hook up in the 1st of a 2-game exhibition series here. Senators are starting their ace Bob Porterfield and Brooklyn is using Don Newcombe.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Rip. Repulski, who last year proved a reliable rookie for the St. Louis Cardinals, is stepping up the slugging pace as the club draws nearer to home. The young center fielder clubbed his 3rd home run in as many days and added a pair of doubles yesterday as the Cards defeated Chicago's White Sox 9-2.

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Sam Mele, Baltimore Oriole leftfielder, may be out for two or three days because of a badly bruised left knee.

Guggenheim Loses 3rd Injured Horse

NEW YORK (INS) — Harry G. Guggenheim was beset with double trouble today—the loss of both Kentucky Derby favorite Turn-To and 12-to-1 hopeful Big Crest through injuries.

The Cain Hoy Stable owner, who previously announced the retirement of Turn-To with a bowed tendon, said yesterday Big Crest has suffered a leg injury and that he was being withdrawn from the May 1 classic at Churchill Downs.

It was the 3rd horse Guggenheim lost through injury since Dark Star, surprise winner of the '53 Derby, was forced to retire with an injured tendon suffered in the Preakness.

Fall Injures Jockey in Race at Gulfstream

Smith, leading apprentice at the Hallandale track, fell from the saddle as the field of 12 approached the first turn.

Bowling Clinic

CASE—Get Full Reach.

Feel Arm Pit Pressure—Regardless of how much they vary in form—starting position, number of steps, length of push-away and swing—all top bowlers look almost alike at the foul line.

They are bent low, body resting on left leg at finish of slide. Junie

McMahon, Connie Schwoegler, Therman Gibson, Don Carter—the match king, Eddie Brosius, Ed Kawolics, Bud Bomar—all look the same at ball release.

As sketch of Gibson shows, arm reaches out into full stretch. "So far," says this Detroit star, "that I feel the pressure of the reaching pull in my arm pit when I'm bowling well." It's the top tip: Slide and reach. Practice it.

Tiger Pitcher Shines, but in Losing Cause

Ned Gives Up 5 Hits in Seven-Inning Stint Against Phils

DURHAM, N. C. (AP)—With less than a week to go before the umpire yells, "play ball!" at Briggs Stadium for the 1st time in 1954, Ned Garver, Detroit's curve-balling righthander, seemed to be hitting his pitching stride.

Garver, who once carried a $300,000 price tag after winning 20 games for the last-place, former St. Louis Browns in 1951, has been just another thrower with the Tigers for the last two years.

First it was arm trouble. And last year the handsome hurler was ineffective because of a trick knee.

Knee was operated on during the off-season and Garver said that he was again in fine physical shape.

But so far this spring, after a brief holdout, Garver had failed to live up to manager Fred Hutchinson's hopes. That is, until yesterday.

Although pitching in a losing cause—the Tigers dropped a 4-0 decision to the Philadelphia Phillies—Garver looked like a money winner.

He worked seven innings, and but for a 1-run lapse in the 7th, had the National Leaguers tucked safely away in his hip pocket.

He gave up only five hits and had the Phillies popping the ball into the air. In 15 previous innings, Garver had been tagged for 19 runs on 24 hits.

Detroit matched Philadelphia in the hitting department: Each team collected eight safeties. But Philadelphia bunched theirs while Murry Dickson and Jim Konstanty scattered the Detroit hits.

Konstanty, the eventual winner, was also helped by three double plays.

Jim Delsing was the only Tiger to reach 3rd base. But he died there twice after doubling in the 6th and singling in the 9th.

Garver had faced only 20 batters in six innings before the fatal 7th. Then he loaded the bases and Smoky Burgess singled home what proved to be the clinching run.

But the Phillies added three insurance runs. Two came at the expense of lefty Al Aber in the 8th and the 3rd on a bases empty homer by Willie Jones off Ralph Branca, the former Brooklyn Dodger hurler, in the last frame.

Tigers were scheduled to meet the Philadelphia team for the last time in exhibition play today when Steve Gromek, who has given up only one run in 20 innings this spring, faces the Philly combination of Curt Simmons and Steve Ridzik.

13 Lettermen on Hand for Badgers' Grid Drill

MADISON, Wis. (UP)—Wisconsin's University's football squad opened spring training yesterday with 13 lettermen among the more than 100 grid candidates.

Head coach Ivy Williamson announced that the squad will work out on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays with scrimmage session slated for Saturdays.

Spartan Squad to Open Baseball Slate April 17

EAST LANSING (UP)—Michigan State's baseball team opens its season at home against Wayne University April 17 after an unimpressive southern training trip.

Spartans returned to the campus today with three wins and four losses against southern teams. MSC had but one victory in nine pre-season games during 1953.

SPRINT FOR RECORD—University of Kansas' Wes Santee, right, begins the anchor leg in the Texas relays sprint medley rally at Austin, Tex., which gives the Kansas Jayhawks a world's record for the event—3:20.2. Santee made the win possible with his lightning-fast 1:48.3 half mile. Previous recognized record was 3:22.7, set by New York University in 1950. Jayhawks will seek more records in the Kansas relays, April 17.

Good Rest Could Bring Babe Back to Circuit

NEW ORLEANS (UP) — Babe Zaharias admitted today that she thought she still could make a comeback if she could just get enough rest.

"I got a whole week of rest before the tournament at Sarasota," she said. "I won that one by nine strokes.

"But I guess that win in Florida made me a little too eager," she said. "I get tired and don't play so good on the back nine. I've got to learn to pace myself."

The 38-year-old Babe, who decided last Sunday to call it quits after finishing 3rd (two strokes behind) at the Carrollton, Ga., Open, quickly changed her mind. She said Tuesday she still "wants to play golf for years" if she can get back on her old game.

That "if" is the determining factor. If she wins the $5,000 colonial open starting here Thursday, or maybe just "does well," and makes a good showing in her namesake Babe Zaharias Open at Beaumont, Tex., she may finish the tour.

At any rate, she intends to play in the Prince George Tournament at Landover, Md., May 13-16.

Stengel Helps Rookies Stop Being 'Suckers'

NEW YORK (AP)—Manager Casey Stengel of the New York Yankees was talking about the rookie camp he supervised in Florida this spring.

"Our preliminary camps have been so successful because competent specialists instruct in definite fields," says the only pilot to lead a team to five straight American League pennants.

"Do you know what appeals to most boys? Being shown how to avoid being suckered by the veterans. I showed the kids in our advance camp 24 ways to stop being suckers. What are the 24? I refuse to give out this information. It's very valuable.

"I always have spilled too much of my system for other clubs to pick up."

Sharp-Shooting Selvy

When Frank Selvy of Furman scored 100 points in the past basketball season, he made just 75 shots from the field, the record books show.

The Braves' home park, County Stadium, has a seating capacity of 44,091.

Chicago Five Replaces Stroh's

Wilman's Quintet Hits Near-Record Total for ABC Competition

SEATTLE (UP)—The Tri-Par Radio team of the Chicago Classic League were the men to beat at the American Bowling Congress tournament today.

The Chicago five, anchored by Joe Wilman, late Tuesday night rolled a 3,226 total to knock Stroh's of Detroit out of first place in open division team standings.

They posted the 2nd highest team total rolled in the 51 years the tourney has been held.

Carmen Salvino, with a 698 total, paced the Chicago squad which turned in game sof 1,115, 1,051 and 1,060 to come within eight pins of the all-time mark of 3,234 rolled in 1938 by Birk Brothers of Chicago.

Other standings—Singles: Tony Sparando, Rego Park, N. Y., 723; doubles: Terry Wheeler, John McGrew, Indianapolis, 1,307, and all events: Tony Lindeman, Detroit, 1,926.

Wilde 1st Champion

The first official flyweight boxing champion was Jimmy Wilde of England who knocked out Zulu Kid of the U. S. in 11 rounds in a match which was held December 19, 1916.

The Redlegs came up with the only triple play of the 1953 National league season in a game last August 30.

But He Has Time Yet

Magic of Yankee Uniform Has Failed to Transform Byrd Into Big Winner

NEW YORK (UP) — The mere process of donning a New York Yankee uniform, which is supposed in some baseball circles to make a Hall of Fame candidate out of a bush leaguer, hadn't as of today completed the comeback of big Harry Bird.

Not that Byrd is a busher. "Mister Muscles" was the American League rookie of the year just two brief seasons ago with the tattered Athletics and that feat alone, despite his collapse last year, is enough to mark him as a pitcher of distinction.

So much so that there were howls of anguish and rage around the league when he went to the Yankees in the winter's biggest trade.

But as of the moment the magic Yankee mantle of pin-striped gray hasn't done a thing more for the South Carolina strong boy than those old Philadelphia flannels did last season. Only the hitters have been just wild about Harry.

The man who won 15 games and pitched a winning one-hitter against the Yanks in 1952 has been touched up rather severely—and not always by a lineup of master batsmen.

Washington, as example, won't win the American League team batting title but its hitters all looked like Ted Williams against Byrd. Then, in his latest effort, Byrd was well-belted as he gave up three runs in six innings—against Charlotte of the Sally League.

This is not to say that Byrd won't come back this season from his record of 11 wins against a league-leading 20 losses of 1953. But that legendary uniform of Yankee gray hasn't as yet performed its touted transition from bust to hero.

Soph Leading Scorer

Mickey Bates, Illinois sophmore, was the Big Ten conference leading football score in the 1953 season piling up 54 points in six games.

Snead 'Forgotten Man' of Masters Tournament

But Phillie Is 1-A

Stance Change Brings Kazanski's Bat to Life

SPARTANBURG, S. C. (AP) —"All I know is I'm 1-A and hitting the ball," says Ted Kazanski, the good field, no hit shortstop of the Philadelphia Phillies who currently is clipping the ball at a .417 pace.

The 20-year-old Kazanski has 20 hits in 48 times at bat. He has had at least one safety in each of his last 14 games. It's mighty strange carryings on for a .217 hitter renowned for hitting 1-hop grounders at infielders. Kazanski hit .217 in 95 games last year.

What's the answer? Is Kazanski merely a spring camp hitter? Will he be a weak stick again once the regular season starts? Or has he learned something about the art of hitting major league pitching?

Manager Steve O'Neill and Coach Eddie Mayo belive Kazanski has learned to hit; that he'll add at least 50 points to his 1953 batting average, maybe more.

"It's all a matter of his left foot," said O'Neill. "It was too far from the plate. We got him to put that foot up closer to the plate and drop his right foot back a little. I don't believe in changing player's styles providing they are successful doing things their own way. But when a big, strong fellow like Ted can't do more than dribble the ball to infielders something has to be done."

Yonkers Calls Off Two Events

Scandal Causes Delay in Dates, so Gotham Trot, Derby Off

YONKERS, N. Y. (INS) —Yonkers Raceway announced today that it has cancelled two $25,000 stake events, the Yonkers Derby and Gotham Trot, because of delay in approval of 1954 racing dates.

Yonkers was one of the tracks involved in last winter's harness racing scandals, and approval of its dates was withheld until March 25 while the track complied with recommendations of the Moreland Act investigating commission.

Track president William H. Cane said many eligible stars had been staked elsewhere and were unavailable for the Yonkers events.

Meanwhile, in a move designed to placate horsemen angered by a cut in purse money, Cane announced that no entry fees will be required in the revised 1954 schedule.

A hike in state taxes on the sport cut Yonkers purses—based upon 25 per cent of the track's pari-mutual share — from an average $150,600 to $111,000 weekly.

Daugherty Has Replacements for 7 Seniors

Problem Appears to Be Finding Reserves for Strong Bench

By GEORGE WEEKS

EAST LANSING (UP) — Coach Hugh (Duffy) Daugherty said today he expected little trouble in finding "adequate replacements" for seven key seniors when spring football drills open for Michigan State Monday.

"We should have the men to fill holes left by graduation," Daugherty said. "Our problem is to find enough reserve strength to give us a strong bench."

Holes to fill and the top replacements:

Quarterback—Morrall and Matsock who played behind Tom Yewcic last year, are out for baseball. Al Fracassa and Bill Smiley will share spring duties with newcomers Clarence Peaks, Flint; Pat Wilson, Lapeer, and Jim Bigelow, Petoskey.

Right half—Bert Zagers, who understudied Billy Wells in 1953, will not be out for spring drills. Matsock was slated to be shifted to halfback but will be handicapped in the switch since he is missing the 20-day pre-season drills. Travis Buggs, MSC sprint star, is the likely spring replacement.

Fullback — Gerald Planutis worked most of last year behind Evan Slonac and is considered a good bet to fill the key spinning slot in MSC's multiple-attack offense.

Right end—Co-captain Don Kauth heads a strong core of contenders to replace Jim Neal.

Right tackle—Randy Schrecengost, out most of the season last year with a knee injury, will have no trouble plugging the hole left by Jim Jebb.

Left tackle—Larry Fowler's position on the strong side of the Spartan line probably will be taken by Ronald Dotch, who saw heavy action on the weak side last year.

All replacements are veterans from the 1953 squad.

Chisox' Jim Rivera Prefers Headlong Slide

SAN ANTONIO, Texas (AP) — You might say Jim Rivera, Chicago White Sox centerfielder, uses his head while sliding.

The Sox speedster always dives headfirst for the bag in a close play. Pays off, too, says Jim, taking note of a recent news story reporting that the Cleveland Indians' Mickey Grasso broke an ankle in a slide.

"They kid me about sliding into a base headfirst," says Jim, "but you notice I don't break no ankles. Besides, I can get into the base faster."

Writer Sees Yanks Winning AL Flag Again; Tabs Tigers for Cellar Spot

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP)—One of the most frequently heard sounds of spring out our way, running only second to the mating calls of the hot rods, is the urgent demand to know "What's chances of beating those blankety-blank Yankees this time? It is easy to gain the impression that the five-time world champions are not overwhelmingly popular.

* * *

In order to preserve a certain amount of professional standing in the neighborhood and at the same time leave an opening against the autumn, we have been using a sort of twopronged answer with good effect: (1) "Chances don't look bad at all. They got troubles and they're running down." (2) "But it's hard to pick the team that can beat 'em."

* * *

This answer represents the distillation of a month's hard, down-to-earth digging around the Florida training camps.

The truth is that, with the American League opener only a week away, the country is full of experts who are in a very perplexed state. They have a strong hunch that the Yankees have lost something important during the winter—besides Billie Martin—and might be taken at last. They wish heartily they could put their finger on the club capable of doing it — Cleveland, Boston or Chicago.

But they can't, and so, with a few exceptions to please the home folks they are going to pick Casey Stengel's outfit, aging mound staff and all, to hang on and make it six league titles, though not necessarily the same number of world championships. Many believe Brooklyn will wear them out in the next playoff. This is the case here as we make the annual stab at the order of finish:

* * *

(1) New York, (2) Chicago, (3) Cleveland, (4) Boston, (5) Washington, 6 Philadelphia, 7 Baltimore, (8) Detroit.

* * *

Cleveland, having tired and fallen back, finished second last year for the third straight time, though this time by the increased margin of 8½ games. The Chicago White Sox, are setting a sizzling early pace, faded to third, three more games away from the top. Boston was fourth, 4½ behind the White Sox and 7½ in front of the fifth-place Washington Senators, who nevertheless played .500 ball for the season.

Bowling Green Hires Scholosser

BOWLING GREEN, Ohio (AP) — Bowling Green State University today announced the appointment of Merle J. Scholosser, former All-big-10 end from Illinois, as assistant football coach.

Head coach Bob Whittaker said Scholosser, 26, would be an addition to the staff.

Scholosser, a 3-letter winner at Illinois, comes to Bowling Green from Monroe (Mich.) High School where he has been head football coach for the past two years. He graduated from Illinois in 1950 and earned a master's degree two years later. He served for a while as an assistant to Ray Eliot, Illinois head football coach.

Married and the father of a 3-year-old daughter, Scholosser was named All-Big-10 offensive end in his senior year.

Carl Erskine Gets Nod to Open for Brooklyn

RICHMOND, Va.—(UP)—Manager Walt Alston announced today that Carl Erskine, a 20-game winner last season, probably will pitch the opening game for the Brooklyn Dodgers when they face the New York Giants at the Polo Grounds, April 13.

Big Don Newcombe, the returning GI who won 20 games in 1951 before leaving for the army, will pitch the 2nd game which will be played at night at the Polo Grounds.

Rookie Sensation Earns Contract With Cleveland

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Rudy (The Rapper) Regalado, 23-year-old infielder who is hitting a sensational .425 in the current exhibition season, became a full-fledged member of the Cleveland Indians today.

The Tribe announced it had purchased the California rookie's contract from its Indianapolis farm club of the American Association.

"I've been praying every night for this to happen," the overjoyed Rudy said. "Back home (Los Angeles) my folks have been lighting a candle every day for me to stay with the Indians."

"Now I've made the squad," Regalado added, "but I won't be completely content until I prove I can play regularly."

Slammin' Sam Overshadowed by Ben Hogan

Jackie Burke Has Been Standout in Practice Rounds at Augusta

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—The forgotten man of the Masters Golf Tournament—the guy whose name hardly has been mentioned in the preliminary speculations—is just a golfer who has won the tournament twice and whose name is one to be reckoned with in any major event.

The name is Samuel Jackson Snead.

* * *

In what has approached a hysteria of guessing on Ben Hogan's chances of winning his third Masters title, and his second in succession, Snead hardly has been mentioned.

* * *

But he has won the tournament twice in the past five years, two of the three times Hogan couldn't make it. He was runner-up to Hogan in the National Open last summer and he actually has played more and better golf than Ben has during the winter season.

Neither has followed the tournament circuit, but while Hogan was limiting his appearances to a couple of minor events, Snead took in a few more.

* * *

Snead himself gave one concise reason why he hasn't had too much attention here. After scoring an approximate par 72 in practice yesterday, he said: "I've got the yips. I'm hitting the ball as well as I ever did, but those putts just go off wrong."

* * *

The "yips," a Snead-coined term, are nothing new to Sammy, but other observers say this is one of the worst cases he ever has had. Still, he could shake them off, as he has done before. The fact that Hogan is getting nearly all the attention has helped his rivals in one way. The pressure of being a favorite hasn't hit them.

As for Snead's chances, one observer put it this way: "I'll guarantee Snead will be heard from before the week is over—either because he'll shoot an 80 or because he'll be in the 60s and winning the tournament."

* * *

So far in the preliminaries, one tournament star has stood out among the crop of young players —the ones Gene Sarazen calls the "amateurs and near-amateurs."

Jackie Burke, who was runner-up to Snead in 1952, fired a round of 67 in yesterday's practice round with Hogan, Claude Harmon and Bob Sweeny. He had a 66 a week ago and has been consistently under par.

Garagiola Called by Senate Group

HATTIESBURG, Miss. (INS) — Chicago Cub catcher Joe Garagiola will fly to Washington today to testify before a Senate subcommittee investigating a tieup between beer and baseball.

Garagiola said he is mystified about his summons before the committee tomorrow morning. Hearings concerns the bill submitted recently by Sen. Edwin C. Johnson (R) Colo., to make the anti-trust laws applicable to baseball clubs affiliated with the alcoholic beverage industry.

Bill reportedly is aimed at August A. (Gus) Busch Jr., head of a St. Louis brewery which owns the St. Louis Cardinals.

Garagiola said, "I know of no reason why I was singled out."

Junius Kellogg Reported Still in Poor Condition

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (INS)—Basketball star Junius Kellogg, injured in automobile accident with four other professional players last Friday night, was reported still in poor condition today in Little Rock.

Four other players were not injured seriously when the car in which all five were riding overturned near Pine Bluff, Ark.

Kellogg's chances of recovering reportedly are slim.

Writer Predicts Olson Victory Over Giardello

Writer Expects Bobo to KO Next Challenger for Title

By PAT ROBINSON

NEW YORK (INS) — We felt confident Bobo Olson would beat Kid Gavilan.

We feel even more confident that in his next title defense Olson will knock out Joey Giardello.

While it lasts — probably 10 or 12 rounds — this should be more exciting than the Gavilan fight. Giardello may hit a little harder than Gavilan, but his midriff isn't too strong and that's where Olson will throw most of his punches.

Olson will have to chase Giardello because Joey is inclined to backtrack a lot when anybody starts pounding his spare ribs as Olson surely will.

We shudder to think of the amount of unadulterated tripe the International Boxing Club tubthumpers are going to hand out before this fight.

You will be told about the "dynamic" challenger and his "murderous" left hook — but nothing about Olson probably throwing a lot of stiff straight rights over that left hook — and all about how Giardello stopped Willie Troy in seven rounds.

And that brings us to some more of the facts of life, especially that one pertaining to easy or synthetic or phony knock-outs.

Pay no attention to a "great" record of KO's. The question is: Who was knocked out and how? Most early career knockouts are at the expense of bums your Aunt Emma could flatten.

These records look better in the book than they did in the ring. Thus you will find some in Giardello's early career. But last year, against stiffer opposition he fought eight times. He won six by decision and lost two to Billy Graham and Johnny Saxton and not a KO in the lot.

Lists of Game Law Violators May End

Commission's Order Slated to Expire Soon

Issue Hasn't Been Put on Agenda for April 11-12 Meeting

By TOM FARRELL

LANSING (UP)—Michigan Conservation Department's weekly list of game law violators may be discontinued soon.

Publication of the weekly list was first ordered last October after a state-wide controversy over the the names of 10 prominent sportsmen arrested for violation of game laws while duck hunting.

After a delay of several days, the department finally released the names.

First commission order ran until the end of 1953. At its January meeting, the commission ordered the list published for another three months. Department officials recommended it be discontinued because of the cost.

At the January meeting, representatives of the United Press, Associated Press and Michigan United Conservation Clubs urged the commission to continue publication to the weekly list of violators.

Commission's January order expires on April 15.

But as of last week, no steps had been taken to place the issue on the agenda for the commission's next meeting scheduled for April 11-12.

E. E. Tucker, an official in the department's law enforcement division and chief opponent of the weekly list, wasn't sure how long the department would continue to issue the list without a direct commission order to put it out each week.

Tucker contends the cost of continuing the list is not justified because it is not used by many newspapers or radio stations, for which it is primarily published.

He said it costs $3,000 a year to compile the list and that "only" 13 newspapers and wire services and two outdoor clubs receive the list each week.

Newspapers in Detroit, Lansing, Alpena, Monroe, Ironwood, Niles, Pontiac and Grand Rapids are on the mailing list, Tucker said.

Vic Beresford, editor of Michigan Out-of-Doors, the MUCC's official publication, urges newspaper editors throughout the state to request the list.

"The list isn't intended to be published in whole by every newspaper," he said. "It's primarily to tip off newspapers of men and women from their area who are violating game laws in other areas of the state.

"The punishment for violating a conservation law isn't the fine. It's the publicity the offender gets in his hometown that hurts because it labels him to all of his friends as a poor sportsman."

New Trout Rearing Method Being Tried

LANSING (UP)—A new method of trout rearing, originated in France, is being tried now in the United States in the hope it will materially cut the cost of artifically introduced trout.

It is so simple, the wonder is that no one thought of it before.

About 1,000 trout eggs are placed in a glass box about four inches square. Box has small slots in the sides. Box and eggs are then "planted" in a well-chosen spawning area of a stream, and nature is allowed to do the rest.

Current washes over the eggs and they hatch in the normal manner. When the fry are formed enough to move, they swim out of the slots and proceed to grow up normally in the stream.

Beaver Total Is Down From '53 Record Take

LANSING (UP)— Trappers took 2,124 beaver and 193 otter from the northern Lower Peninsula during the March 20-31 season, the conservation department said today.

Totals compared with 3,267 beaver and exactly the same number of otter taken in the region last year.

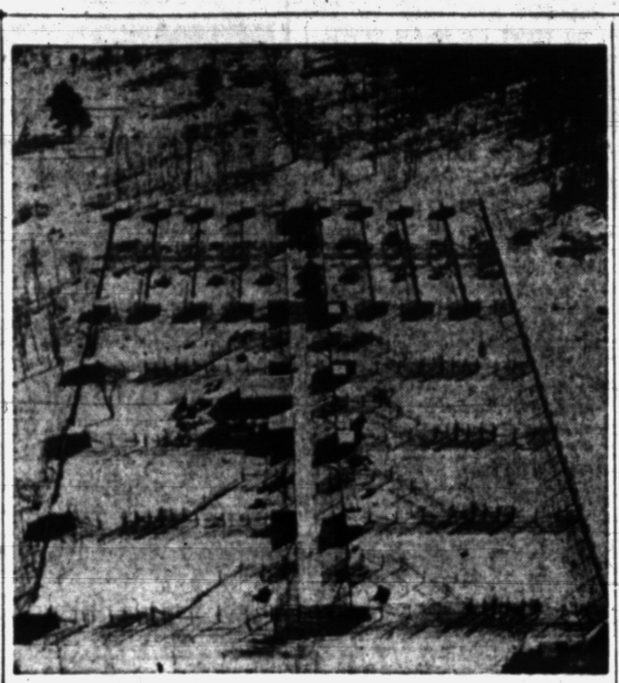

Drop in beaver was expected after last year's record take.

Smelt, Rainbows Provide Early Sport for Fishermen

By JACK PATTERSON

From now until real fishing starts (April 24)—the fisherman must pretty much content himself with the pursuit of a couple of anadromous species, the smelt and after April 10, the rainbow trout. Since smelt customarily take their cue as to when to spawn from water temperature rather than calendar observations, big runs are waiting for a little more sunshine. Now that the weather man woke up to the fact that it's spring and promised some seasonal weather for the rest of the week, weekend should see some decent runs in progress.

PATTERSON

Something smelt dippers might remember is that contrary to local superstition the fish frequently run in broad daylight, making it possible to get at them without risking the usual hazard of night fishing. They might also remember that a fishing license is required for smelt dipping.

Although smelt dipping is a lot of fun it doesn't bear much resemblance to fishing as we read the term, except maybe the exposure to cold water and the possibility of getting skunked gives it something in common with more conventional methods.

Early rainbow fishing, in streams where it is permitted, can be something else again. Note: we say can be. As commonly practiced, this early rainbowing bears more resemblance to a wilderness survival class on location than to fishing. Accepted procedure calls for a couple dozen men to build two or three bonfires around a pool in a stream, toss in a weighted worm apiece and sit there for the rest of the day. Just because they somethimes catch fish this way doesn't make it fishing, the way we see it anyway.

Trout are trout and early rainbows require trout fishing techniques, and mobility is one of them. It's true that rainbows don't as a rule do their major traveling in the daytime and good holding water deserves a patient try, but still-fishing a likely looking pool for the better part of a day strikes us as being too much of a good thing.

Early morning and late afternoon and evening, traditionally the "proper" time for sub-surface trout fishing, offer the best chances for hooking a big rainbow. The fish are on the move then and not so likely to be holed up in almost completely inaccessible log jams.

Probably the most important thing to remember in early fishing, when the water is cold, is to get the lure, whatever it may be, down to the fish. Migrating rainbows are apt to be hugging the contours of the bottom and won't rise to an offering drifting a few inches or few feet overhead. So to get down where they are weight and plenty of it is needed. Split shot probably are about as useful for this purpose as anything else, because they may be added or subtracted as conditions require. They do, however, have a regrettable tendency to get hung up and for that reason many prefer the wrap-around sinkers.

Worms or worms and spinners (and by worms we mean night crawlers) are probably used by more fishermen than anything else. Salmon eggs run a close second. Spinning gadgets are fast catching on and incidentally, if any type of stream fishing was specifically designed for the spin-fisherman, this early rainbowing is it. Aside from the wide variety of artificials at his command, the spin-fisherman can handle baits very handily.

For some reason or another Michigan spawning rainbows are generally believed not to take flies. Most probably because few people ever try to take them with flies. This is a field in which there's plenty of room for experimentation. Spawning rainbows take flies elsewhere, why not in Michigan?

Only 68 Fishermen at Trout Laws Hearing

By MORT NEFF

A few weeks ago about 200,000 Michigan trout fishermen were supposed to be vitally concerned —even incensed — with our Conservation Departments recommendations for changes in our trout fishing regulations. Such was the intensity of the alleged tumult that the Rackham Auditorium in Detroit was leased by the Department for a public hearing at which the walls were expected to bulge, jammed with voluble anglers.

NEFF

Sixty-eight fishermen showed up. Five or six of them had something to say, not all of which was pertinent to the problem at hand. Others were curious onlookers.

Was this a typical example of lack of organized effort on the part of Michigan sportsmen to defend conservation policies with which they agreed or disagreed? Or was it evidence of sufficient faith in the Deparment's Fish Division to permit them to go ahead and make the changes which they deemed would improve Michigan trout fishing in future years?

On the basis of this lack of interest—or let's say lack of condemnation on the part of the public, it is the belief of this writer that the Conservation Commission may logically proceed with their planning.

Rainbow Trout Legal Saturday

LANSING (UP) — A restricted, hardy crew will be out Saturday to be the 1st to legally catch trout this year.

Special spring season on rainbow trout only begins at 12:01 a.m. on specially-designated lakes and streams in 25 counties.

List has been revised and generally liberalized this year, so anglers should be sure to check the list with conservation officers, at sporting goods stores or wherever it is available.

Anglers, too, should be certain they have a 1954 fishing license and the $1 trout stamp attached to it.

Special season, which covers both peninsulas and all great lakes and connecting waters, will run until April 24 when alll trout fishing becomes legal.

Under-Sized Filly Twin Beats 100-1 Odds on Survival, Continues to Grow

RED BANK, N. J. (UP)—A little filly just 13 pounds and 20 inches at birth nine days ago stood on her own diminutive legs today—although unsteadily — and let the world know she was not going to die.

When she was foaled, one of a set of twins, she wasn't given a chance in a hundred to survive. Her bigger twin died within 24 hours.

But little filly would have none of that though she couldn't even reach her dame, Maize, for feeding. Now she's a mighty 24 pounds and 24 inches and can reach Maize for her daily vitamins.

She is owned by Tommy Heard Jr., a New Jersey horseman, and was born on the Woodland Farm of Amory Haskell, president of Monmouth Park. Her sire is Double Brandy.

Eddie Feakes, manager of Woodland, and his wife, Mary, are as happy as can be.

Said Feakes, "She's the cutest thing."

Mrs. Feakes sighed wearily.

"I am glad to turn the job of feeding her over to her mother," she said. "I'd like to get some rest. All I have been doing is mixing baby food the last week.

"We didn't think she had a chance. Then we began watching her. It was obvious she was trying darn hard to live. So I started feeding her. She couldn't reach the mare. Wasn't big enough. Normally, a foal weighs 75 pounds and is 40 inches high. So I began mixing a formula. Now she used the bottle only for supplementary feeding."

The little filly is coming along, but she still has her troubles standing. Her legs are too long and simply can't carry her the way she would like.

"When she was foaled, she was so weak, she couldn't even stand up for three days," Feakes said. "yet we've never even had a vet look at her. It wasn't necessary. She took to the bottle and hasn't had a thing wrong with her, as far as we can see, since she came into the world."

Now the big questiton is: Will she ever get hefty enough to get to the races? Old Double Brandy won $103,675 during his racing career.

"I doubt if she'll get big enough," Feakes offered. "Still, she's surprised me so much this far, I'll not make any predictions. She'll probably just be a pet."

But just in case, owner Heard has entered her in the 1956 New Jersey Futurity Stakes.

Air Pumped Into Lakes Saves Fish

PHOENIX (UP)—When a lake is bound by ice too long, and the snow cover blocks the light from aquatic plants, fish die from oxygen starvation.

Arizona Fish Chief Jack Hemphill says an experiment his crews tried on Big Lake might save some fish. A plastic pipe was laid in the lake last fall, and when the oxygen level reached a dangerous low, compressed air was pumped into the perforated pipe.

The air not only aerated water for hundreds of feet on either side, but it formed convection currents, sending the warmer water upwards. It thawed a wide channel in the ice.

Wild Turkey Is Found Dead in State Forest

LANSING (UP)—One of the wild turkeys released in late March in the Allegan State Forest has been found dead; conservation department game men said today.

The turkey, a female, was found under four inches of fresh snow. The body showed some evidence of mauling and it was believed the bird had failed to predators.

Fifty wild turkeys, imported from Pennsylvania, were released March 23 and 24 in hopes of re-establishing the species

Flanders Sees U.S. Sales Tax

Says Levy Probable if Democrats Succeed in Hiking Exemptions

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Flanders (R-Vt) said today that if the Democrats are successful in persuading Congress to cut income taxes again this year, the revenue loss will have to be made up by a general sales tax.

He made this comment in advance of the start of public hearings by the Senate Finance Committee on an administration-backed 85-page tax revision bill, already passed by the House. Flanders serves on the committee.

Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey was called as the first witness on the measure, which he has termed the most vital legislation before Congress this session.

The bill makes assorted tax cuts totaling $1,400,000,000 for individuals and businesses in its first year of operation, but it does not reduce personal income levies, which dropped an average of 10 per cent on Jan. 1.

The major fight promises to be on a Democratic move to slash income taxes by increasing exemptions of each taxpayer and dependent.

• • •

Flanders said in the interview that if this reduction is voted, the revenue loss will have to be made up since the budget for next year already is in the red by about four billion dollars.

"The only practical way this could be done is by a general sales tax," he said.

And he asserted such a levy would take away the added purchasing power which Democrats say would come by boosting exemptions.

However, he also made clear that Republicans on the Finance Committee are not backing the revision bill 100 per cent. He said he has doubts on a section cutting taxes on income from dividends.

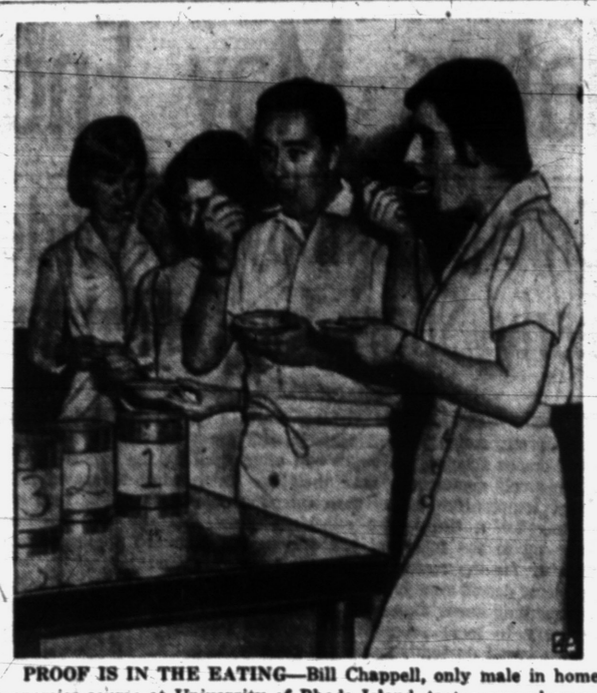

"I am not satisfied this is the right way to do it," he said. "But I am willing to listen to the arguments and to be convinced if they are convincing."

Survey Shows Youth Prefers Country Life

ITHACA, N. Y. (UP) — Teenagers from both the city and the farm prefer life in the country, according to a Cornell University survey.

The youths questioned said they preferred rural life because of the enjoyment of farming, healthful living and the chances of obtaining a high standard of living.

They also listed the country as a "good place for rearing children."

The survey was conducted by W. A. Anderson, professor of rural sociology, in the northwestern and the northeastern United States. He said the Northwest had the biggest majority of youths favoring rural life, and fewer in that region were undecided.

A majority of city teenagers preferred rural life, but Anderson said farm children were even more enthusiastic about life in the country. Results of the survey were similar for boys and girls.

10 Grass Fires Point Up Danger

Waterford Area Chief Warns of Responsibility in Burning Rubbish

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — Firemen here answered calls to 10 grass fires over the past weekend, Fire Chief Rudy Boss reported today.

Before last week's snow storm 18 such fires were reported in two days Boss added.

Boss urged township residents to cooperate and exercise more care when burning rubbish.

"We have been quite lenient in the past," he said. "But if these grass fires continue to increase we will have to use more drastic measures."

State law requires a permit for outdoor fires. These permits may be obtained free at any township fire station. Rubbish must be burned in containers.

Boss reminded residents that in case of fire spreading, the person who started it is responsible for any damage to neighboring property.

Waterford Township Building on Increase

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP—Building in Waterford Township continues to increase at a swift pace.

Permits totaled $503,734 in March compared to an estimated $337,750 in February, Supervisor Lloyd Anderson announced today.

Despite an expected spring setback in construction, building of 50 new homes in the township valued at $376,500 is ready to get under way.

In addition, 18 permits were issued in March for remodeling and additions; one for a breezeway and garage combination, eight for new garages and nine for commercial buildings.

WATERFORD'S TOP SPELLERS—There were two champions from one family in the Waterford Township School "silent bee" spelling contest this year. Seated are Connie and Sandra Lee, fifth and sixth graders from the Waterford Center School. Other winners, are, standing, Frances Goff, eighth grade champ and in the center, Kay VanHuizen, Pontiac Lake School, township seventh grade winner, and at the right, Karen Jenko, fourth grade winner from Lambert School.

Use Silent Bee 5 Years

Waterford Schools Prove Value of Written Spelling

By HAZEL A. TRUMBLE

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — Teachers and elementary principals in the Waterford Township School District are ready to blow their own horns—their "silent bee" has proved itself.

Having passed the five-year mark, educators in the system have seen their cooperative brain child graduate from the theory class into one of sound, result-getting educational practice.

Boys and girls from the third grade through the twelfth in Waterford are not only learning how to spell, they have learned to improve their penmanship.

Five years ago the old-fashioned spelling bee was laid to rest, but not before a new spelling technique had been devised and was ready to go into action.

William Shunck, superintendent of Waterford schools, said he had heard enough businessmen complaining about the graduates who could not spell; he had also listened to their laments about the penmanship of today's graduates.

Knowing he had a staff of people who knew how to tackle this type of problem, he presented the idea to them. He pointed out that if the oral spelling bee represented the pinnacle toward which each student was working each year, it was not completely satisfactory.

"In the first place the oral bee builds up extreme tension. Only about 10 per cent of the students ever succeed in spelling more than three or four words. It was always the same ones who won each year and many good spellers lost out because of nervousness," he said.

Although the initiation of the silent written bee in Waterford was only one phase of the new emphasis on spelling, it was the big event of the year towards which not only the students were working, but the teachers as well.

Mrs. Dorothy Selle, chairman of this year's spelling committee, said "it is amazing the amount of faculty interest that there now is in spelling. The teacher is more conscious of the importance of spelling. They are stressing word pronunciation, meaning and phonics is again in the picture; they have pointed out the historical and etymological pattern of words, their derivations and their changes. And of course the final bee itself gives youngsters a chance for real competition."

Word lists are selected by a faculty committee who each year drop the oldest member and add another person. In this way, every principal and teacher gets an opportunity to add further ideas to the spelling training program.

The words on these lists are known only to the committee. They guard them carefully until the beginning of the competition.

Thousands of students write in the bees each year. The first word wrong disqualifies the paper, but out of the several thousand written each year, less than ten will ever stop after they have misspelled a word. They finish the entire list.

Grade champions from each school compete with the same grade champion in all the other schools of the district.

This year, grades three through eight competed. However, spelling is taught right through the twelfth grade.

The papers are kept for one year, giving the committee an opportunity to make further study and annually find better ways of teaching this important tool subject.

"The paper is written proof to the teacher of not only the students' weak spelling points, but often reveals her own inadequacies in teaching spelling," said Mrs. Selle.

Working with Mrs. Selle on this year's committee are Mrs. Carrie Hubbell, principal of Williams Lake School; Henry Karwas, Jayno Adams School principal; and Mrs. Iva Kent of Waterford Village School.

Royal Oak OKs License Ruling

Tourist Homes, Motels, Hotels Have to April 26 to Obey New Law

ROYAL OAK — A new ordinance to license motels, tourists homes, courts and hotels was adopted by the City Commission here, Monday.

The law, which becomes effective in 20 days, impose a fine of $100 or 90 days in jail as the maximum penalty for violators.

Under the ruling every renter must register and a room cannot be rented more than once in every 24 hour period.

It prohibits smoking in bed, renting rooms to unmarried couples and requires that owners notify police, if they suspect that registration has been falsified.

An ordinance requiring Sunday closing of furniture and appliance stores also was adopted. Violators will be subject to a maximum fine of $100 or 90 days in jail. The ordinance will take effect in 20 days.

Pasage of the ordinance was protested by the Metal Master's Manufacturing Co. which specializes in chrome furniture, claiming the ordinance was discriminatory.

Commissioner Louis DeMute, who also opposed the ordinance, said he was in favor of a state-wide law covering Sunday closing of retail stores.

Waterford Slates Hearing on Two Zoning Changes

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — Shoppers here will get some relief from parking headaches if two proposed changes in the zoning ordinance are approved by the zoning board in a public hearing next week.

Supervisor Lloyd Anderson has proposed that whenever buildings are erected or altered for commercial purposes in the future adequate parking space be provided.

The proposed amendment asks that a parking space equivalent to three square feet for each square foot of floor space in the building be provided for shoppers.

It also provides that the parking space be easily accessible.

With this zoning change, the township board hopes to avoid a future parking problem such as that currently faced by numerous metropolitan areas, according to Anderson.

Also to be considered is an amendment involving business frontage requirements. It porposes that all buildings and structures abutting state or federal highways be set back at least 50 feet from the front property line or at least 100 feet from the center of the highway.

In other commercial districts the amendment proposes that buildings be set back 35 feet from the front property line, provided that no building or structure need be set back farther than existing buildings in the block.

Public hearing on the amendments will be next Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. in the Township Hall, the meeting of the zoning board.

"We urge the public to attend this meeting," said Anderson.

He pointed out that residents may contact either himself or zoning board members Adsit Stuart, Harley Stevens, James Devereaux, Henry Mehlberg, Burton Hilliker, Harry Bartram of Herbert Van Welt to comment on or state their objections to the proposals.

See Population at Four Billion

Expect Growth, Rising Since 1650, to Reach Mark by 2,000 A.D.

WASHINGTON (UP) — The world's population is growing at an unprecedented rate and may top the four billion mark by the year 2000, according to the Population Reference Bureau.

The bureau, a private research organization, estimates that there are now 2,500,000,000 human beings on this planet, and that about half of them are chronically underfed.

The present rate of population growth, slightly more than one per cent a year, means 70,000 more mouths to feed every day.

The earth's population climbed slowly until about 1650. Then followed a period of discovery—a new continent to the west, Galileo's compound microscope, Harvey's discovery of the blood circulation.

Medical research and the development of vaccines and bacteria control improved health and food and population jumped from an estimated 500,000,000 in 1650 to about five times that today.

Many heavily populated places such as China, India and Africa, have only recently begun to feel the benefits of modern medicine, and the bureau believes the growth of population will accelerate in the next few decades.

In an attempt to cope with the problem of providing adequate food for this swelling population, scientists have experimented in recent years with the possibility of producing synthetic foods from algae, plankton and chemical substances.

Experiments with the algae show that this green "pond scum" can produce 15 to 20 tons of dry matter, having a 50 per cent protein content, per acre of water.

It is also possible to add to the world's larder by increased agricultural production and more effective distribution.

But the bureau says it would take years for sufficient symthetic food supplies or increased yields to relieve the problem appreciably. Meanwhile, millions more hungry people will have arrived.

The bureau believes the only solution is to develop techniques of population control which will "prove as acceptable to the peoples of the world as are the tools and techniques of death control."

Detroit Firm to Study Industrial Use of Atom

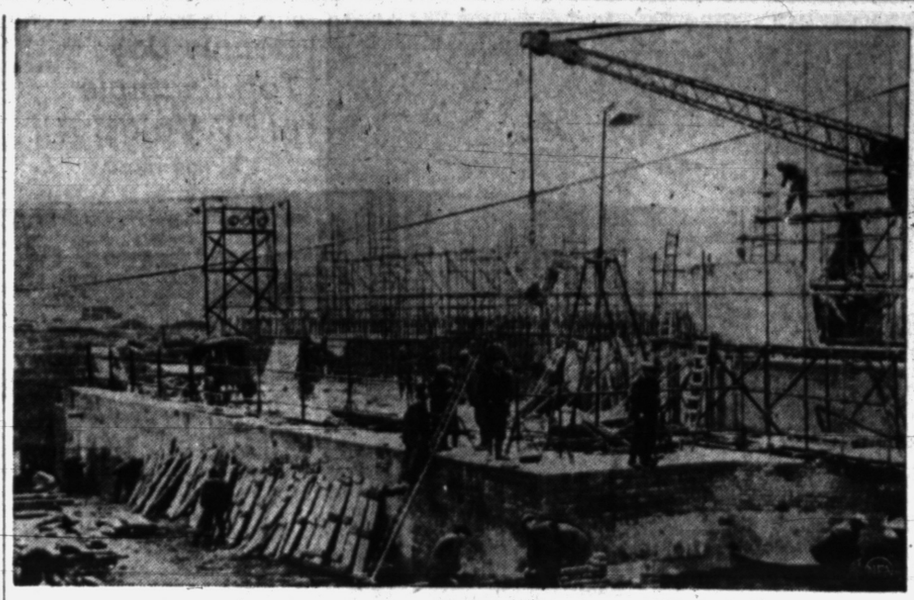

DETROIT (UP) — Bendix Aviation Corp., today announced plans for research on industrial uses of atomic power, radioactive isotopes and fission products.

The work will be done under an agreement with the Atomic Energy Commission.

A small, mobile atomic reactor "capable of producing sufficient horsepower to take over power requirements of disaster areas" will be one of the projects which Bendix will study.

5 Die in Bomber Crash

PALMA DE MALLORCA, Spain (UP)—A French bomber with engine trouble crash landed on the beach of this Mediterranean island today, killing five of the 12 persons aboard.

ATOMS WORK FOR BRITAIN—Construction is under way at Calder, England, where the British Department of Atomic Energy is building their first experimental atom power station. When completed, it will be one of two new stations constructed with the aim to help the free world keep its lead in research and use of the atom. Map, at right, shows where the two new experimental stations will be built. The one at Calder was started last May. Second power station is to be built at Dounreay, Scotland, in the near future.

Executive Likes Old Car Hobby

He Buys and Restores 1901-1933 Motorettes and Pierce-Arrows

LAKEVIEW, N. Y. (UP)—The slowest production line in the nation belongs to F. Robert Greene, a Buffalo advertising executive whose hobby is restoring old Pierce-Arrow automobiles.

Greene restores about one car a year with the deft care and patience that makes anyone realize why the Pierce-Arrow was once know as "the American Rolls Royce."

Greene's hobby started six years ago when he just "happened" to bid on an old Reo at a country auction.

Three years ago, he decided to devote his efforts exclusively to the Pierce-Arrow, as that automobile was manufactured in Buffalo until 1938 when the company folded.

An authority on Pierce-Arrow history, Greene noted that the company began in 1870 with the manufacture of bird cages, graduating, as the industrial revolution spread, to bicycles, motorcycles and in 1901, the Motorette. Greene has nearly completed restoration of a Motorette.

He also has restored and operates a 1933 Silver Arrow—one of two existing—and a 1931 double-cowl phaeton.

Price was not a Pierce-Arrow selling point in the car's hey day. In 1919 the auto sold for $5,500. Green paid $50 for one of these in rather rundown condition.

Greene's 1933 Silver Arrow, which cost $10,000 new, is his favorite. He said only five to 10 were made. It has 12 cylinders, a 175 horsepower engine, and a long low-slung body.

During the depression the company refused to lower its standards of elegance and luxury and eventually was forced to suspend operations for lack of a market, Greene said.

Greene does all his work in a garage at his home here and frequently enters the vehicles in competition.

Pontiac City Affairs

Commissioners Earmark Parts of Tract for Park

Pontiac City Commission last night moved to place parts of about 76 acres of city-owned land near the Hawthorne School on the master plan labeled for use as a park.

The Wever-Owen Community Club had requested that property be set aside for a park bounded by Telegraph road, the west city limits, Kennett road and Little Silver Lake.

City Engineer Lewis M. Wrenn said that parts of the land would have to be retained for city purposes, including the planned extension of Telegraph road.

Wrenn and City Manager Walter K. Willman said they would consult with the Parks and Recreation Department on where the exact location of the park can be.

The community club said the park is needed because there is none north of Oakland Park and the population in the Hawthorne School area is rapidly increasing.

In other action, commissioners renewed for two years a contract with Consumers Power Co., for supplying power to pump the city's water and sewage.

A bid of $1,150 was accepted from Hugh C. Lee for parts of lots 19, 20, 21, and 23 of Mount Clemens Hills Subdividion.

The city clerk was authorized to deed lots 861 and 862 of Perry Park Subdivision No. 1 to Albert A. Lee and wife.

A bid of $1,150 was approved from Edward C. Lee for Lot 1, except the west 30 feet, of Mt. Clemens Hills Subdivision and for lots 852 and 853 of Perry Park Subdivision No. 1.

A public hearing was held and a special assessment roll ordered for Tuesday on proposed construction of bituminous concrete recap on Walton from Perry to the west city limits.

Other work on the street will include widening to 22 feet, relocating curves at Stanley and Carlisle, graveling shoulders and related work.

A special assessment roll was accepted and public hearing set for Tuesday on proposed curb, gutter, drainage and related work on Wisner from Cass to Short.

A public hearing was held on intention to construct and a special assessment roll was ordered for Tuesday on proposed curb, gutter, drainage and related work on Hazel Bend from Belmont to Jessie.

Special assessment rolls were ordered for next week on planned construction of 2-inch bituminous recap on:

South boulevard from the Belt Line Railroad to Opdyke.
Montcalm from Baldwin to Perry.
Kennett from Baldwin to the west city limits.
Paddock from the Michigan Airline Railroad to Jessie.

Hot Shot With Horses Hustles Vegetables

DENVER (UP) — Although Genri Acierno calls himself a "hot shot," gasoline contrivances are not for him. He and his son James harness their two white horses, Buck and Silver, to a wagon every morning, load up with fruit and vegetables and go out to sell where they can.

Genri says he is a "hot shot hustler," meaning he has no regular route. If he nets $1,200 a year, he figures he has done all right. Acierno and his wife have reared five children. They have 13 grandchildren and 2 great grandchildren.

In winter months, when hustling doesn't pay, James makes miniature wagons to sell.

Group Barbecue Sauce Recipe Is Large Order

GREENSBORO, N. C. (UP) — For 25 years the Greensboro police department had kept its secret—the formula for the department's famous barbecue sauce.

The Greensboro Record's woman police reporter was determined to get it. But nobody among the cops would squeal. Finally somebody left the handwritten recipe where she could see—and copy—it.

Now she wonders what she'll do with it. It serves 2,000.

King Size Cuts Revenue

HARTFORD, Conn. (UP) — The growing popularity of king sized cigarettes is cutting into the tax receipts in Connecticut which collects two cents on each package, king sized or regular. Tax Commissioner William F. Connelly anticipates a $100,000 reduction in cigarette tax receipts for the current year. One of the reasons, he says, is that more smokers are buying king sized packages and getting more tobacco for their tax money.

Big Moving Job in Arctic Area

Two Whole Towns to Be Shifted Because of River Erosion

WASHINGTON — What is believed to be the biggest moving job in Arctic history will begin this year when two entire communities are shifted to new sites.

Aklavik, largest Canadian settlement north of the Arctic Circle, and Coppermine are the two villages scheduled for relocation, says the National Georgraphic Society.

River erosion and the danger of sinking though melting permafrost are forcing their abandonment.

Already many of Aklavik's buildings have crumbled before the waters of the Mackenzie River in the delta region south of the Beaufort Sea. Coppermine, 300 miles to the east at the mouth of the Coppermine River, has suffered similar damage.

Recent tests revealed that the ground beneath these settlements contains more than 50 per cent water in the form of ice crystals. The unstable earth has prevented installation of adequate underground water and sewage systems. Residents fear epidemics might result from the unsanitary conditions.

Aklavik is the center for fur trading, administration and missionary activities in a 50,000-square-mile area of the Mackenzie Delta. It has 400 permanent residents and twice that many in July and August. Coppermine has some 200 inhabitants.

About two-thirds of Aklavik's 150 buildings will be hauled by tractor along the frozen Mackenzie River to the new, as yet undetermined, site.

A small hotel, post office, radio and meteorological station, two missions, community hall and several trading posts are the village's main structures. The actual transfer may not begin until the winter of 1955-56. Building of roads and installation of water and sewage lines will precede the move.

New Aklavik will have a much-needed airfield. The community is now virtually cut off from the outside world during winter. In the summer diesel tugs make two round-trips between Aklavik and Waterways, Alberta.

Wood-fueled paddleboats formerly served the scattered outposts along the 1,700-mile water course.

Both Aklavik and Coppermine are in the Mackenzie District of the vast Northwest Territories, which embrace nearly one-third of North America.

One Armed Teacher Plays Pro Football

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (UP) — Jodie Connell is a young man with one arm and three jobs.

Connell is a grade school teacher during the first six hours of his day, an assistant athletic coach at a high school the next two, and first string guard on the St. Louis Knights professional football team in the evenings.

The young Alabaman lost the arm, an inch below the elbow, in a swing accident when he was 10 years old and learned to get along without it in his youth. He was the regular first baseman on his high school baseball team and then played four seasons on the Jacksonville (Ala.) State College football squad.

Would Create Travel Bureau

U. S. Agency Might Be Established to Promote Trips Abroad

NEW YORK (UP) — In coming months Congress is expected to consider forming its first government agency to promote foreign travel. This is a result of American tourism becoming a billion-dollar business.

American tourists have become a recognized force in international economics by spreading their dollars around the world. In traveling to foreign lands for fun or business, they spent over $1,000,000,000 in 1952, and $1,200,000,000 last year. That amounts to more than 10 per cent of the total dollar-value of goods imported from the free world.

Sixty-three nations around the world have government agencies to stimulate their tourist trade. Some American officials now believe the United States should recognize the part American travel dollars play in the economies of friendly nations and take a hand in promoting and easing travel.

Rep. Jacob K. Javits (R-L, N.Y.) is one of these and has introduced a bill in Congress to establish a United States Travel Commission.

Javits, chairman of a House foreign affairs sub-committee on private spending, sees in increased travel a circulation of dollars that do not come out of taxpayers' pockets which will partly replace foreign aid dollars which do.

"The effective promotion and stimulation of international travel is capable of resulting in the greatest single addition to the economy of free nations and the implementation of the trade-not-aid idea . . . of any of the means now open to the people of the United States," Javits said at a meeting of travel writers in New York.

Javits added that in 1953 more than 800,000 Americans visited foreign lands and some 400,000 of them went to countries which have received economic aid from the United States. He said he believes this number could be doubled by 1957 and that their spending would add about $1,300,000,000 a year to the economies of the countries visited.

Javits figures that families with incomes of $5,000 a year or more, after taxes, are the ones who can most easily afford foreign travel. He said estimates show that in 1952 there were 12,000,000 such families in the United States. These families, he said, offer a potential of 1,200,000 to 1,500,000 Americans who could afford foreign travel, almost twice the number who travel abroad now.

Big New Baler Tightens Squeeze on Old Autos

BUFFALO, N. Y. (UP)—A new sheet-metal baler, described by its marker as "the largest of its type in the world," can, in 60 seconds squeeze a whole automobile into a compact bundle ready for a steel plant furnace.

Exerting a compressing force of 2,000 pounds per square inch, the press easily handles a car in one operation where previous smaller balers required several turning operations to do the job.

Frank J. Dotterweich, president of the D. & J. Press Co., Inc., which developed the baler, said the new device saves much time for scrap-yard operators.

After an auto is dropped into a pit by a crane, the solid steel walls of the pit close in on the metal. The walls are driven by an hydraulic oil system operated by two 75-horsepower engines.

When the squeezing is completed, an automatic ejector throws out a 2,000-pound bundle 2 x 2 x 5 feet all ready for loading on a railroad car. All non-ferrous metals, upholstery, rubber and the like, are stripped from the car before it goes into the baler.

Hunted Turns Hunter, Scores Direct Hit

RIDGEFIELD, Conn. (UP)—Eugene Ridolfi, 17, went hunting and was "bagged" by his victim.

Ridolfi fired his .22-calibre rifle and wounded a squirrel in a tree. It fell to the ground and ran. Ridolfi placed the gun against the tree and gave chase.

The squirrel ran back up the tree and hid there until Ridolfi returned to retrieve the rifle.

Just then the animal dropped from a branch and fell on the rifle, which discharged a bullet into the youth's collarbone. The wound was not serious.

Duoscopic TV Rates Low as Entertainment Medium

By LAURA Z. HOBSON

NEW YORK (INS)—The dizziest invention I've ever heard of is a device to let a TV set deliver two programs at the same time.

It goes by the name of "Duoscopic."

It's a new type of receiver that brings in a scrambled image of two shows—which can be unscrambled with Polaroid glasses and earphones.

The sponsors say that it could end wrangles about whether to see the fights or the nice weepy drama that are on at the same hour.

"We'll see both," would be the cry, and no tug-of-war would be needed.

Though I'm against family wrangles, I hereby go on record as having a double-barreled reason for being an anti-Duoscopist.

One half of my resistance springs from visions of what could go on in an otherwise nice, sane American living room.

Just visualize pop in his glasses and earphones and mom togged out ditto. The fights are on. Pop keeps shouting, "kill him, nail him, finish him off."

Mom is suffering happily as a heel is about to leave his blind wife. "Don't do it," Mom begs.

Into this crossfire come the young of the family. Any child psychologist will tell you that kids are deeply scarred with insecurity when one parent pulls them one way and another a different way.

Another reason I'm opposed to Duoscopic is that I know that anything connected with any TV set on earth can suddenly go pfft.

Suppose you get a couple of crossed wires in the speaker. Then just as Rocky Marciano aims for the button, pop's earphones sob, "It's just a passing infatuation."

And as mom's eyes sting with tears her eardrums suddenly hear "A right hook to the chin, another, a left, a right." The very least that can result in that living room is sheer screaming madness.

I'm for progress, but against madness. So if a Duoscopic ever should enter my life, I'm going straight over to Broadway and take in the latest three-dimensional film instead.

Or would that be madness too?

Confusion Ended; Sunset Street Becomes Starlite

CHAPEL HILL, N. C. (UP) — The Board of Aldermen moved the clock for residents of Sunset street here. The residents explained that they were tired of their street being confused with Sunset drive.

The board changed the name to Starlite street.

"CALLING ALL PATROLMEN"—Patrolman Raymond Beardsworth of the Bridgeport, Conn., Police Department receives instructions from headquarters via the newly developed portable radio receiver he holds in his right hand. Developed by Clifford F. Frasher, police communications supervisor, the "cigarette pack" radio is operated by subminiature tubes from low battery current. Capable of reception up to 40 miles away from the transmitter, the new device will be used to maintain contact with patrolmen and plainclothesmen on their beats. The receiver is not designed for two-way transmission, hence the patrolmen must contact headquarters by land phone when necessary.

Sees Doctors' Need of Liberal Education

PHILADELPHIA (UP) — Dr. Aura E. Severinghaus, associate dean of Columbia University's College of Physicians and Surgeons, has called for a return to liberal education in training physicians so doctors can regain "the human touch."

Dr. Severinghaus told a special meeting of 800 doctors here that the "specializing physician as well as his education are being roundly criticized."

"The chief complaint seems to be that he has become competent in the scientific management of certain specific diseases but has lost the human touch and is no longer interested in the patient as a person," the physician said.

"The charge is advanced that the physician's professional education ignores the contributions of the social sciences and that he is not encouraged to develop any degree of social understanding or to bring his sense of social consciousness abreast of his scientific knowledge."

Dennis Day: Top Example of TV Valor

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Nominated for the bravest man in TV: Dennis Day.

"I wouldn't say I was the bravest," says Dennis. "Maybe the unluckiest."

I have selected Dennis for the video medal of valor because he is the fellow who has had to face Lucille Ball on an opposing network. In most locations, the Dennis Day Show is on at the same time on Monday night as "I Love Lucy." This took real nerve, since "Lucy" has drawn the biggest audience in TV for the past two years.

* * *

"Believe me, it wasn't my idea to go opposite Lucy," Dennis told me. "I wanted to do my show on film. My sponsor, RCA, didn't want me to. The only way I could get permission was to agree to take the spot opposite Lucy. So I did it.

"I took a chance and I failed. I think it was a mistake putting such a similar show opposite Lucy. We both have situation comedy. We had good mail from people who said they had switched over to watch us. Once they made the change, they seemed to like our show. But watching 'Lucy' is too great a habit for the majority of viewers. We just couldn't fight it."

The show has been dropped by RCA, which Dennis says is concentrating its fortune on the transition to color TV. Dennis still is under contract to NBC, and will be back next season—in a different time slot, you can bet.

"Still, I didn't do so badly," he added. "When I started out, the sponsor said if I hit a 7 rating, I'd be doing all right. If I made 14, I'd be a hero, and over 20 would be sensational. The show got up into the 20s, so they can't complain. In Canada, where we don't have to face Lucy, ours is the No. 1 show."

* * *

I asked Dennis why he insisted on filmed shows as against live, which he did in his first two years on TV.

* * *

"I think film is a lot better for a show like mine," he remarked. "Sometimes I play as many as eight different characters in one sketch, which would be impossible to do live.

"When I was doing the show live, it was nerve-wracking. One character I did required a one-minute costume change, so it always had to come after a commercial. Even so, I was always wondering, 'Will the zipper work?'"

British Actor Is Sued for $301,000 by Studio

LOS ANGELES (AP)—British actor Robert Newton has been sued for $301,000 by a movie company which charges he walked off a film being produced in Europe and flew back to the United States.

Plaintiff is Renown Pictures of America, Inc. Newton, the complaint charged, was signed last February for the role of Svengali in a movie version of George Du Maurier's novel "Trilby," and was to have received $40,000. He suddenly left his work March 31, the suit charges.

The U. S. military academy opened in 1802 with only 10 students.

House Passes Bonus for Vets

Measure Would Benefit GIs of War in Korea; Voters Must Approve

LANSING (AP) — A state bonus for Michigan residents who served in the armed forces during the Korean War rolled through the House yesterday and is now up to the people.

The proposal to issue an 80 million dollar bond issue to pay the bonus will appear on the November ballot. It has already passed the Senate.

The proposed constitutional amendment was opposed by only two representatives when the chips were down. The only no votes were cast by Reps. Lewis G. Christman (R-Ann Arbor) and Eugene C. Betz (R-Monroe).

Christman said the bonus was being approved "for vote-getting purposes only."

"Where is this going to end?" he asked. "Aren't the present benefits enough for veterans? This money ought to be put into the veterans trust fund where it can be used for those who need it, not as a handout to every veteran."

Betz objected to the proposal on the grounds that it made no provision for the six or seven million dollars it will take annually to pay off the bond issue plus the estimated 20 million dollar interest costs.

Rep. Louis C. Cramton (R-La-peer) objected to the "dictatorial" attitude of the veterans' organizations in backing the proposal.

He warned them that "the time will come when instead of dictation they will have to use conciliation and reason." He added that a proposition which does not fully justify itself financially is by no means sure of approval by the people.

The measure was defended vigorously by Reps. William S. Broomfield (R-Royal Oak), Peter J. Kelly (D-Detroit) and John D. Kruse (R-Manistee).

The proposed payment of $10 for each month of domestic service and $15 overseas up to $500 between June 27, 1950, and Dec. 31, 1953, was little enough for those who sacrificed their time in civilian life and placed their lives in jeopardy, they said.

Interior Department Cash Wins Approval

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House passed and sent to the Senate yesterday a bill to provide $364,337,989 for operation of the Interior Department for the 12 months beginning July 1.

Before passing the measure by voice vote, the House adopted three amendments adding $977,000 to the amount recommended by its appropriations committee.

The increases amounted to $527,000 for investigation of fishery resources by the fish and wildlife service, $350,000 for the southwestern power administration, and $100,000 for the President's emergency fund for repair of flood and storm damage to reclamation projects.

Senate in Tangle on Jobless Pay

Holding Back on Hikes and House Stands Pat; Adjournment Nears

LANSING (AP) — The House appeared today to be standing fast against Senate attempts to compromise on increased unemployment compensation.

With final adjournment scheduled for Friday, a caucus of Senate Republicans proposed an informal committee of seven senators and seven representatives to work out a compromise before the Senate attempts to act on a House-approved bill which is more liberal than the Senate previously passed.

The House Republican leaders vetoed the committee idea, leaving the Senate undecided, at least momentarily, what course to follow.

The Senate originally passed a bill increasing the present maximum jobless benefits for a man with four children from $35 to $39 a week, providing no increase for single men and containing a number of disqualification clauses objectionable to organized labor.

The House, rejecting the Senate bill, brought out its own version which provides single men's maxima of $31, a top of $43 for a family of four children and eliminates most of the disqualifications.

Sen. George N. Higgins (R-Ferndale), chairman of the Senate taxation Committee now handling the House bill, hinted he was seeking a compromise granting more money to single men with an adult dependent, possibly $1 more for all single men and possibly a slight reduction in the upper bracket.

The fact that the House refused to accept the informal committee plan suggested the House intends to stand pat on its bill.

Thus, the two big issues of the session—unemployment compensation and the budget—still were unresolved. The legisature voted to sit in session Thursday to meet these issues, rather than following a standing rule providing for a Thursday recess to work out last minute bill tangles.

PIN-WORMS MAY BE A FAMILY AFFAIR

Fidgeting, nose-picking and a tormenting rectal itch are often tell-tale signs of Pin-Worms . . . ugly parasites that medical experts say infest one out of every three persons examined. Entire families may be victims and not know it.

To get rid of Pin-Worms, these pests must not only be killed, but killed in the large intestine where they live and multiply. That's exactly what Jayne's P-W tablets do . . . and here's how they do it:

First—a scientific coating carries the tablets into the bowels before they dissolve. Then—Jayne's modern, medically-approved ingredient goes right to work—kills Pin-Worms quickly and easily.

Don't take chances with this dangerous, highly contagious condition. At the first sign of Pin-Worms, ask your druggist for genuine Jayne's P-W Vermifuge . . . the small, easy-to-take tablets perfected by famous Dr. D. Jayne & Son, specialists in worm remedies for over 100 years.

Wives of U.N. Diplomats Set Example of Harmony

NEW YORK (UP)—Diplomats at the United Nations could take a lesson in international relations from their wives.

The women have been meeting twice a month for six years and haven't had a squabble yet.

And, unlike a couple of the UN delegates, none of the wives has "ever taken a walk."

They are members of the United Nations Women's Guild, a sort of international sewing circle, made up of wives or relatives of UN personnel.

Membership is voluntary, and 25 of the 60 UN nations, including Yugoslavia and Czechoslovakia, are represented.

"We'd like to have Russia in too," said Mrs. Honorio Roigt, head of the Guild's coordinating board. "But we try not to run after people."

The 200 members include Mrs. Benjamin Cohen, wife of the assistant secretary general of the Department of Public Information; Mrs. Ralph Bunche, wife of a member of the U. S. Delegation, and Mrs. Andrew Cordier, wife of the executive assistant to Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold.

"We all wish Mr. Hammarskjold would get married," Mrs. Roigt said. "We need a patroness. When Trygve Lie was the S-G, Mrs. Lie worked with us."

The Guild, a charity and social organization, works in four groups in Manhattan and suburban Great Neck, Parkway Village and Westchester. The four are linked by the coordinating board, which Mrs. Roigt heads. She is the British-born wife of an Argentine, who is director of languages at the UN.

Mrs. Roigt, who worked for the League of Nations for 14 years, said the wives usually steer clear of political discussions.

"We know the thorny issues," she said. "We just talk around them. We've never had any dissention. And no one has ever taken a walk."

"We think," she added, with a smile, "that we set a good example for the men."

"I'm not a feminist, but we women do show that there is a common ground on which to meet. Women in the Guild have formed friendships with those of many lands, and all of us have helped each other."

World production of sugar is about 35 million tons annually. It is enough to fill a box the size of a regulation football field to a height of approximately six miles.

Navy Dredging Pearl Harbor

Uses Biddle to Clear Shallow Spots Where Bars Have Developed

PEARL HARBOR (UP)—A giant vacuum cleaner has been put to work here tidying up one of the Navy's dirtiest floors—Pearl Harbor in Hawaii.

The vacuum cleaner is really the Corps of Army Engineers' hopper-dredge, the Bidle. It has started the $260,000 job of spring house cleaning of Pearl Harbor's floor to clear away shallow spots where shoals, or bars, have developed through the shifting of sand, silt and mud.

The 351-foot hopper-dredge, with a crew of 80 men, is one of the largest of its kind. The operation of the Biddle, which has a 3,000 cubic yard capacity, acts much like a huge vacuum cleaner — but instead of picking up air and dirt, the dredge sucks up dirt and water.

Mud and sand are picked up by drag heads on the ends of drag pipes and deposited in the hoppers. The hoppers are then dumped far out at sea. For smaller dredging work, in and around the port's many docks, the Navy is using a clam-shell rig to clear obstacles.

The Navy says that, although the job of dredging Pearl Harbor's floor is a necessity, it is not an annual occurrence. This year is only the second time in the port's 53-year history that it has been undertaken.

Because Pearl Harbor is fed only by minor streams, deposits of sand and mud do not form bars and shallow spots as easily as other harbors in the world that are fed by rivers. Another reason governing the frequency of dredging operations is the disturbance of the harbor's floor by ships' propeller wash.

The Navy hopes to have Pearl Harbor's floor cleaned within two months.

Corn in Decline, Wheat Goes Up

CHICAGO (AP) — Corn suffered declines of as much as a couple of cents a bushel on the board of trade today. Wheat advanced, however, while soybeans continued their two way trend.

Government announcement of an offer to sell 170 million bushels of 1948 and 1949 corn at as much as 20 cents a bushel lower prices brought considerable selling into that pit.

Near the end of the first hour wheat was 1 to 1⅜ cents higher, July $2.16½, corn was ⅛ to 2 cents lower, May $1.49⅞, oats were ¼ to ½ lower, May 74⅝ and rye was unchanged to ¾ higher, May $1.06. Soybeans were ¾ higher to 1½ lower, May $3.46½ and lard was 2 cents higher to 22 cents a hundred pounds lower, May $19.42.

Market Spotty, Ranging Lower

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market was spotty today and somewhat lower in early dealings.

The lower trend was relieved by areas of firmness in several key sectors of the list.

Losses went to around a point at the most. Gains were usually in the smaller fractions.

All eyes were on the performance of the market today because of yesterday's severe fall that took the Associated Press average of 60 stocks down 90 cents at $116.60, the third heaviest decline of the year. Apprehension over developments in Indochina was the cause assigned for the drop.

Lower divisions today included the railroads, oils, utilities, distillers, farm implements, mail order issues, and rubbers.

The steels were unchanged to higher, and other divisions were mixed to steady.

One Maddening Rush

Gal Who Wins Will Earn 'Mrs. America' Crown

By LAURA Z. HOBSON

International News Service

"Mrs. America" for 1954 will be chosen this month, and whoever she turns out to be, she might feel at times that she needs a lifebelt even more than a bathing suit.

For an absolute "sink or swim" schedule will face the final contestants from all over the country, as they try for the 16th annual crown bestowed on "America's most attractive all-around homemaker."

In a villa furnished free, and stocked with canned goods and modern appliances, each busy little finalist will be following an hour-for-hour timetable, for the moment she arrives on April 20 to the moment she departs five days later, with or without crown.

This rent-free villa is located on "Mrs. America Drive," in Ellinor Village, Florida, just outside Daytona Beach, a fine spot to relax in.

But apart from some scheduled events like a get-together dance, a lunch at the country club, and of course the final grilling glamor of the judges' selections, there's going to be mightly little relaxing.

Not for the attractive all-around homemakers, anyway. Though the business sponsors of the whole affair permit each contestant to have her husband and children along, they won't mean any eager helping hands either.

"At no time," the official rules say sternly, "is your husband or any one allowed to help you in carrying out your cooking, baking and general housekeeping assignments."

Just to make sure, the daily schedule which tells each potential "Mrs. America" what to do from morn to night, contains daily marching instructions for the relaxing husband and kiddies.

They're to be safely out of the way, the poor banished creatures, at beaches or on sight-seeing trips to Silver Springs or Marineland, returning to their attractive all-around homemaker just in time for the prize-winning meals she's prepared in between a few thousand other assignments.

On her second morning, for instance, between 9:30 and 10:30, with breakfast, dishes, beds, and family already dispatched, she's to clean and polish her villa with certain special preparations and floor waxes.

That afternoon, within another specified 60 minutes, she's to show her skill with a steam iron on "cotton and wool items" previously checked by an official hostess to see that "all creases were removed beforehand."

On another day, in a precise 90 minutes, all aspiring crown-seekers in all the villas will be taking identical patterns and "cotton bag material" and stitching up garments on identical sewing machines.

In between, each grand finalist will be baking cakes and pies, preparing buffet dishes, shore food recipes, fish dinners—and fitting in a bit of pre-ordained paper work as well.

After each and every meal, the menu must be recorded on proper forms, with all ingredients and recipes duly listed. And somehow or other "Mrs. Would-Be-America" must compose a 500-word essay titled, "I Am A Good Homemaker Because . . ."

I do suppose that a little attention should be paid to hair, nails and make-up, but the official schedules make no mention of such giddy things.

You see, I trust, what I meant about that lifebelt. A life-raft that can travel 30 knots an hour might even be better.

10 Auto Firms Open Show in New York

NEW YORK (AP) — Ten of the nation's leading auto makers today put their dream cars and 1954 models on display at New York's second automobile show of the year.

The showing, sponsored by the Electric Auto-Lite Co., had all the car makers except General Motors and Ford participating.

Included among the "dream" models were Chrysler's newest, and gas turbine engine Plymouth.

Unlike the Firebird, General Motors' turbine powered car, the Chrysler model is a stock car type. GM's model looked more like a four-wheeled flying machine.

The current show in New York's Waldorf-Astoria Hotel will run through April 11.

Ferndale Considers $1,887,527 Budget

FERNDALE — A tentative budget of $1,887,527 for the 1954-55 year was submitted to city commissioners here this week by W. A. Laking, city manager.

A public hearing on the budget has been set for April 19. It will be approved by May 7.

The proposed budget, which calls for a tax levy of $984,817, is an increase of $107,108 over the current budget. Assessed valuation for the city is $43,990,000.

Although no general wage increases were recommended in the budget, a request for a 10 cent an hour wage increase plus fringe benefits was received from city employes.

Aid Praised for Routing Reds in Philippines

MANILA (AP) — A report on three years of U. S. economic aid says its "greatest single impact" was in routing communism in the Philippines.

The report was made by Placido L. Mapa, chairman of the Philippine Council for U. S. Aid (Philcusa). It summarized the work of Philcusa and the U. S. Foreign Operations Administrations (FOA).

Mapa said the two agencies "have built in our country conditions of peace under which man can walk in dignity, work and reach toward that moral and material advancement which freedom alone can bring."

City Youth Waives Auto Theft Charge

An auto theft charge was waived yesterday by a Pontiac youth who was bound over to Oakland County Circuit Court for appearance there Monday.

Robert R. Robinette, 19, of 55½ Whitfield St., unable to furnish a $1,000 bond set by Pontiac Judge Maurice E. Finnegan, will be held in Oakland County Jail until his arraignment.

The youth was arrested last Friday by Pontiac detective Thomas Mitchell and Lt. William Crisp in Baltimore (Mich.). The stolen auto, owned by Harry Merritt of Royal Oak, was recovered a few hours before Robinette's arrest by Baltimore Police.

Merritt reported the theft of his car to police here April 1. The car, Merritt said, was taken from West Alley and W. Huron St.

Order Chief Straley to Return Equipment

Pontiac Police Chief Herbert W. Straley yesterday was ordered by Circuit Judge George B. Hartrick to return radio equipment confiscated in a 1952 raid on Chief Pontiac American Legion Post.

However, Hartrick directed Straley to dispose of bingo equipment collected in the raid in the post at 85 Mt. Clemens St.

The post was ordered to pay $30 costs in the suit which the Legion brought in July, 1952, three months after the raid. The post charged that the radio equipment, including microphones and speakers; and bingo supplies, had been taken illegally.

Forgers Cash Thousands of Federal Checks

WASHINGTON (UP) — Forgers are cashing thousands of checks that the government mails out each month to federal employes, veterans, social security pensioners and others.

Secret Service Chief U. E. Baughman said the forgery racket is one of the toughest problems his agency has to deal with. He believes it could be almost eliminated, if banks, stores and others would obey the injunction printed on the back of every government check—"know your endorser."

The Secret Service last year investigated more than 31,000 forgeries of government checks worth a total of $2,187,376. It arrested about 2,500 forgers.

One of those arrested was a 64-year-old Chicago man who boasted that he could make a $20,000-a-year tax-free income by stealing government checks and cashing them with foreged endorsements.

He was caught when he made the mistake of cashing a stolen non-government check with the company that had drawn it. The girl whose pay check he'd stolen happened to be behind the cashier's window.

Baughman said one of the Secret Service's chief obstacles in forgery investigations is the lack of observation on the part of victims.

One man stole checks from six friends while he visited in their homes. The Secret Service had traced the forgeries to a short man wearing a bright blue jockey cap. None of the six mentioned him when questioned by agents about a man of his description.

And a Chicago tavern actually cashed a "notice of discontinuance of allotment pay" for a woman who also thought it was a check.

Some Collect Stamps, Others Prefer Tusks

TREGO, Mont. (AP)—Walt C. Ritter has a collection of mastodon bones. Included is a set of tusks, found in frozen Alaska tundra in 1899, which weigh 300 pounds each and are 10½ feet long. There are 13 smaller tusks, and a tooth which weigs 14 pounds. A leg and the backbone when connected stand 19 feet.

The bones now are beginning to deteriorate but Ritter says the ivory tusks apparently are impervious to time.

Battling With Colleagues Marks McCarthy's First Term

By BEM PRICE

WASHINGTON (AP) — Less than three months after he was seated, in January 1947, Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy tangled with his Bible-quoting Republican colleague from New Hampshire, the late Charles E. Tobey.

By the end of his first term McCarthy had in succession fought Senators Raymond E. Baldwin of Connecticut, Millard E. Tydings of Maryland, and William Benton of Connecticut. From Sen. Margaret Chase Smith of Maine and six colleagues his activities promoted a much-publicized "declaration of conscience."

McCarthy also attacked Gen. George C. Marshall, the man who masterminded U. S. strategy during World War II and later served as secretary of defense and secretary of state. President Truman had described Marshall as one of the greatest living Americans.

Marshall came in to the line of McCarthy's fire in 1950 by defending the integrity of Ambassador-at-Large Philip C. Jessup. McCarthy had said Jessup had an "unusual affinity for Communist causes."

On June 14, 1951, almost a year later, McCarthy in a 60,000-word speech linked Marshall's name to what he called "a conspiracy of infamy so black that, when it is finally exposed, its principals shall be forever deserving of the maledictions of all honest men."

At the time, McCarthy was discussing "the questions of why we fell from our position as the most powerful nation on earth at the end of World War II."

For all practical purposes Marshall ignored the attack.

Pal of McCarthy Opposes Sen. Smith

Of the five senators who crossed McCarthy, Republican Baldwin resigned, Democrats Tydings and Benton were defeated for re-election and Tobey died. Mrs. Smith, a Republican, is up for re-election this year and is opposed in the primary by a friend of McCarthy's who says that "McCarthyism" is an issue in the Maine senatorial campaign. In Maine, victory in the Republican primary is usually the same as being elected.

It was March 27, 1947, that McCarthy and Tobey clashed over sugar rationing. McCarthy, supporting a 20-pound increase in the annual ration, said he had been told by an Agriculture Department official this amount was feasible.

Tobey left the Senate floor and telephoned Secretary of Agriculture Clinton Anderson. Upon his return he said: "The Department of Agriculture's announced position was misrepresented by the senator from Wisconsin today."

McCarthy said: "I do not give a tinker's dam what Secretary Anderson says about the matter. The sugar is here."

Tobey retorted: "On a question of veracity I do not choose between the two gentlemen, but on a question of fact I take the secretary of agriculture any time."

In the end the Senate approved Tobey's proposal for a 10-pound increase, but with an amendment by McCarthy ending rationing five months earlier than then provided.

McCarthy Probes Massacre by Nazis

Until 1949 McCarthy remained relatively quiet. Then came the investigation of the series of massacres in Belgium in 1944 in which 350 American prisoners and 100 Belgian civilians were slaughtered.

Seventy-four Germans accused of participating in the horror were convicted. Forty-three were sentenced to execution.

Early in 1949 rumors made the rounds of the Senate cloakroom that the Americans who investigated the massacres had used mental and physical torture to extract confessions.

On March 29 a subcommittee of the Senate Armed Services Committee was set up to investigate the reports.

Three months later—July 26, 1949—McCarthy said in a Senate speech that he had studied the trials and had come to these conclusions:

"I felt very strongly that because of the actions of vengeance-minded, irresponsible and completely incompetent men representing this country in Western Europe, our government had been placed in the position of condoning a brand of brutaliarianism worse than any practiced by the morally degenerate in either Hitler's or Stalin's camp."

Two Army boards had reported no evidence of physical torture but had criticized some parts of the pretrial investigations, such as mock trials.

Baldwin was chairman of the subcommittee investigating the trials. While not a member of the subcommittee, McCarthy participated, with full rights of cross-examination.

McCarthy repeatedly impugned the motives of the committee, saying it was attempting to "whitewash a shameful episode in the history of our glorious armed forces."

McCarthy also questioned Baldwin's fitness to sit on the committee at a hearing at which Baldwin's former law partner, Maj. Dwight Fanton, appeared. Fanton had been one of the investigators.

Ultimately the subcommittee unanimously concluded, as had the Army, that the investigators had employed nonjudicial means to gain information but not physical torture.

The subcommittee said too that the agitation in Germany and America over the fate of the convicted Germans appeared to be part of an organized movement to discredit Americans abroad.

None of those sentenced to death has ever been executed.

Baldwin Leaves Post as Senator

Just before his row with McCarthy, Baldwin had been offered a seat on the Connecticut Supreme Court of Errors by Gov. Chester Bowles, a Democrat.

Baldwin agreed to accept, reconsidered and then took the appointment after all.

When he resigned from the Senate, he said it was for health and family reasons, and a desire to return home.

A friend reports Baldwin was very much upset by the McCarthy fight and that in all probability "It weighed much in his final decision to resign."

McCarthy started his next fight in February 1950, when he charged that the Democratic administration, especially the State Department, was riddled with Communists and fellow travelers.

He kept up a barrage of charges and countercharges that were to figure in the 1952 elections and which were to lead him into fights with Tydings and Benton.

Tydings Accused of 'Whitewash'

McCarthy led off by accusing Tydings of a "whitewash" in the investigation of McCarthy's charges of communism in the administration. Tydings accused McCarthy of making false accusations.

The bitter fight between McCarthy and Tydings, veteran of 28 years in Congress, evolved into a personal feud that spilled over into Tydings' campaign for re-election in 1950.

In that year Tydings lost to John Marshall Butler, a Republican.

McCarthy personally went into Maryland on Butler's behalf and there followed what a five-member Senate subcommittee described in a unanimous report as a "despicable, back street type of campaign."

There appeared in Maryland a composite photograph purporting to show Tydings talking to Communist leader Earl Browder. The fake picture showed up in a campaign tabloid which accused Tydings of "whitewash" in the communism - in - government investigation.

The elections subcommittee of the Senate Rules Committee said, "The implication of such tactics as a threat to our American principles should be obvious and frightening." Three Democrats and two Republicans made up the subcommittee. One of the Republicans was Mrs. Smith.

After the subcommittee report was submitted, McCarthy observed:

"I am not surprised at the action of the two Republicans. After all, they went on record last year approving the Tydings 'whitewash' and condemning me for getting tough with Communists."

McCarthy alone may not have swung the Maryland election, but whatever the reasons for Tydings' defeat—it gave McCarthy stature.

Tydings himself said in 1950 he believed the reason for his defeat was that the Maryland Democratic party was badly split by local issues. He added that he didn't think McCarthy personally did any damage."

"I think the issue raised and the propaganda about it had some effect, but it would be secondary," he said.

The Tydings campaign was to have echoes in McCarthy's bid for re-election in 1952. Tydings offered McCarthy $25,000 if he would go before any federal grand jury and offer evidence sufficient to convict anyone who was in the State Department in 1950 as a Communist. McCarthy did not accept.

Declaration Issued by Seven Senators

But even before McCarthy became embroiled with Tydings he was greeted in the Senate June 1, 1950, with a document that the author, Mrs. Smith, called "a declaration of conscience." It was signed by Mrs. Smith and six other Republican senators—Tobey, George D. Aiken of Vermont, Wayne L. Morse of Oregon, Irving M. Ives of New York, Edward J. Thye of Minnesota and Robert C. Hendrickson of New Jersey.

While the declaration did not mention McCarthy by name, it was almost universally conceded to be aimed at McCarthy and his methods.

The declaration said:

"We are Republicans. But we are Americans first. It is as Americans that we express our concern with the growing confusion that threatens the security and stability of our country. Democrats and Republicans alike have contributed to that confusion.

". . . Certain elements of the Republican party have materially added to this confusion in the hopes of riding the Republican party to victory through the selfish exploitation of fear, bigotry, ignorance and intolerance. There are enough mistakes of the Democrats for Republicans to criticize constructively without resorting to political smears . . .

". . . It is high time we stopped being tools and victims of totalitarian techniques . . ."

The gray-haired Mrs. Smith is running for re-election this year. Only opponent to announce against her so far in the Republican primary is Robert L. Jones, a personal friend of McCarthy's.

Jones' Definition of McCarthyism

Jones has said that McCarthyism will be the basis of his fight against Mrs. Smith. He defines his term:

"Americanism consists of McCarthyism. McCarthyism represents to me the ferreting-out of Communists."

The toughest of McCarthy's early fights in the Senate was the effort to unseat him.

On Aug. 6, 1951, Sen. Benton, Democratic successor to Baldwin, introduced a resolution calling for an investigation to determine whether expulsion proceedings should be instituted. McCarthy counterattacked with a resolution to investigate Benton.

The results were embodied in another report of an elections subcommittee.

McCarthy refused throughout to testify before the committee. Benton testified twice, once during investigation of himself and once when the subcommittee was delving into McCarthy's activities.

Benton Named in Libel Suit

On Sept. 28, 1951, Benton appeared before the committee and in a long statement cited 10 cases in which he accused McCarthy of lying, of accepting "influence money" and of practicing fraud and deceit upon the Senate.

Benton specifically waived his senatorial immunity both before the committee and later. Subsequently McCarthy filed a two-billion-dollar libel suit against him, but when trial neared, early this year, McCarthy dropped the matter.

McCarthy said he couldn't prove he had been damaged because he couldn't find anyone who believed Benton's charges. Benton said 2,000 persons had written him that they would volunteer to say they believed the charges.

In the end, the three-man subcommittee investigating McCarthy said the matter transcended partisan politics "and goes to the very core of the Senate body's authority, integrity and the respect in which it is held by the people of this country."

The subcommittee raised a series of questions which it said only McCarthy could answer. Since he had refused to appear, it said it could do nothing but report the matter to the Senate without recommendation.

Receives $10,000 for Housing Article

The subcommittee said McCarthy sat during the 80th Congress on committees which had jurisdiction over the Reconstruction Finance Corp. and the housing agencies.

One of the interested parties appearing before the subcommittee was the Lustron Corp., which was indebted to RFC. Lustron paid McCarthy $10,000 for an article on housing.

The subcommittee asked whether there was any connection between sale of the article and McCarthy's recommendation for government aid to housing prefabricators.

It found that McCarthy had sold 1,000 shares of Seaboard Air Line railroad stock for a net profit of $35,614.75 and that he still held 950 shares.

It asked whether there was a relationship between McCarthy's position on the Banking Committee and "his receipt of confidential information relating to the stock of the Seaboard Air Line Railroad, which was indebted to RFC for sums in excess of $15,000,000?"

The subcommittee asked, too, whether any of the funds received by McCarthy to fight communism had been diverted to his own use. McCarthy said "no" in a letter, but the subcommittee noted he had not made himself "available for further explanation."

The subcommittee asked the source of $17,600 reported as contributed by relatives to McCarthy in 1944 for his unsuccessful primary campaign against Sen. Alexander Wiley. These relatives did not appear to have that much money.

It wanted to know whether the $17,600 was in reality McCarthy's own money and, if so, was he in violation of state law setting a $5,000 limitation on personal campaign expenditures?

McCarthy denounced the subcommittee's report as a "new low in dishonesty and smear" and defied the subcommittee to challenge his seat. There was no challenge.

Accepts Improper $600 Contribution

As for the Benton investigation, the subcommittee found he had improperly accepted a $600 contribution from an ex-RFC member for campaign funds but called the charges "moot" since he no longer was in office.

The question immediately broached in connection with Benton's 1952 defeat was whether McCarthy contributed materially.

Benton said in an interview in New York, "My state chairman, John Bailey, thinks McCarthy had a small effect, possibly a few thousand votes. This was inconsequential when you consider that my margin of defeat was about 80,000 votes . . .

"I think the best explanation is that Eisenhower was the strongest factor in my state as in many others. I was defeated in the general swing to him.

"It is my opinion that I got more votes in Connecticut because of my stand against McCarthy than I lost because of that stand."

Benton said that in 1952 McCarthy went into five states where the man he opposed turned out to be the winner—Washington, Missouri, Montana, West Virginia and New Mexico.

The former Connecticut senator added that in the five other states in which McCarthy appeared in 1952 "the Democratic candidates for the Senate did better than could be expected."

In these 10 states McCarthy was campaigning on behalf of the party ticket rather than to support individuals.

CRASH CLOWNING FIELD—Bri Murphy, of Duncan, Wyo., left above, and Kay Mitchell, of Salt Lake City, Utah, sought jobs as clowns with the Ringling Brothers, Barnum and Bailey Circus when it opened in New York recently. Refused, they made home-sewn costumes, put on clown make-up and crashed the opening-night performance. After their turn in the ring, they vanished. Their bootlegged clowning made such an impression, the circus tracked them down and invited them to come back and do it again.

2 GIs Say Reds Kidnaped Them

Report Being Seized in U.S. Zone, Quizzed, Freed After 28 Hours

FULDA, Germany (INS) — Two American soldiers, held by the Russians for 28 hours after they were seized on the Iron Curtain frontier, said today they were kidnapped while in the U. S. Zone of Germany.

Pfc. Luther Gilbert Wood, 27, of Winona, W. Va. A Korean veteran, said there was "no doubt about it."

Wood and his companion, Sgt. W. Jack Young, 22, of Rochester Mills, Pa., pointed out that the "border is clearly marked with yellow and white markings. These cannot be mistaken."

The two GI's, captured Monday afternoon and released yesterday on the demand of U. S. authorities, said they were questioned several times by an English-speaking Red army officer.

Young said:

"He asked me about atomic bombers and atomic weapons and the name of my commanding officer and others. I gave him my name, rank, serial number and date of birth. That's all."

Wood charged that the Soviet officer threatened that "If you don't answer you will be considered a spy. I told them I still couldn't answer."

Young declared that he and Wood were treated well and not manhandled, told newsmen:

"They asked if I wanted to stay in the East Zone or would like to see Moscow but I think this was more in the line of kidding."

Truck Line Tests Two-Way Radios

AKRON, Ohio (UP)—A two-way radio system has been installed on a trial basis in six commercial trucks to test the money-saving and efficiency-improving features of motorized communications.

Motor Cargo, Inc., which operates in 14 states, has inaugurated the trial system locally, and early reports are that appreciable savings and improvements have already been realized.

Costly trips empty from a delivery back to a terminal have been reduced and rush deliveries have been speeded through this direct communications.

The firm hopes soon to put a 100-foot transmitter tower into operation which will send a signal some 45 miles, allowing a dispatcher to control traffic between here and Cleveland.

Pin Money

Selling pins in quantities didn't come into practice until 1844 when a small manufacturer in Derby, Connecticut, worked out a way to produce them by machinery at the rate of two million a week.

Up to the time ordinary pins sold for as high as twenty cents apiece and were looked upon as appropriate gifts for weddings and Christmas. They were also used as small change to supplement barter between individuals, which incidentally is the origin of the term "Pin Money."

And with some of the prices advertised you can buy an "A-1" Guaranteed Used Car with "Pin Money" at—

Elena Verdugo Prefers Career

Believes in Living It Up and Has Husband Who Understands Her

NEW YORK — Elena Verdugo, the saucer-eyed actress who plays the title role in television's "Meet Millie," is a descendant of one of the pioneer families of California and could readily take her place in society as such.

Instead, she chose to be a career woman, airily brushing aside her heritage as the daughter of a first family.

"My prime interest in life," she explains, "is searching for laughs. That's because I firmly believe that laughter is the key to happiness and if more people followed that theory, the world itself would be a much more pleasant place.

"Sometimes people think I'm somewhat daffy because of my intensive search for laughs, but if they do, then I'm mighty proud of the reputation."

Elena and her husband, Charles Marion, have enjoyed a married life of laughs, irregular meals, wealth, poverty and more than the usual amount of domestic ups and downs.

Elena's mother, who for years was secretary to the fiery Lupe Velez, always encouraged Elena in her ambitions to become an actress. At 16, Elena appeared in "Moon and Sixpence" and "Cyrano de Bergerac."

Then came the lean days. But even they failed to make her thrifty. She prefers living generously and operating, for the time being at least, on a no-saving plan. She doesn't as yet own her own home, but hopes to do so in the near future.

A native Californian, Miss Verdugo has been to New York only once—for a one-night stop. She is unaffected, and tries to believe that her 5 1-2 inch heels take her out of the petite class. Her only pronounced Latin characteristics are her unusually large brown eyes.

At 28, she has already attained the happiness she has always wanted. With a husband who understands, her many whimsical traits and a four-year-old son who worships her, and a television career that holds forth all sorts of promises for the future, Miss Verdugo goes blithely on her way, filling the air around her with endless laughter.

SAUCY SECRETARY — Wide-eyed Elena Verdugo plays the light hearted heroine in the saga of a Manhattan secretary, "Meet Millie," which returned to television recently. The petite, brown-eyed blonde is co-starred in the series with Florence Halop who plays Mama and Marvin Kaplan as a poetry-writing friend. As zany Millie Bronson, Elena is at her "dumb-blonde" best.

Two Kangaroos Sent Mrs. Tufty From Australia

LOS ANGELES (INS) — Mrs. Esther Van Wagoner Tufty of Washington, arrived in Los Angeles from a Far East vacation to learn that friends in Australia had shipped her a kangaroo as a gift.

She also learned that en route to the United States the gift had given birth to an unexpected gift.

The Washington Zoo came to rescue with a promise to take the two kangaroos off Mrs. Tufty's hands.

Break Ground for New Cadillac Guard Armory

CADILLAC (AP) — Ground for a $250,000 Michigan National Guard Armory was broken Tuesday by T. Walter Kelly, former Cadillac mayor. Kelly headed a citizens advisory committee which was instrumental in obtaining the new armory.

Col. Herbert F. Layle of the State Quartermaster's department spoke at a luncheon preceding the ground-breaking.

The federal government will contribute $128,000 to the cost of the structure.

Bishop Oxnam to Speak at Conference at MSC

EAST LANSING (AP) — Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam of Washington, D. C., will be the keynote speaker at the second annual Methodist All-State Leadership Conference April 10 at Michigan State College.

More than 800 Methodist laymen and ministers are expected to attend. Theme of the conference will be "Methodist Men on the March."

Michigan Boy Gets Arizona Prison Term

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz. (AP) — An 18-year-old Michigan youth faces the next 20 to 25 years in Arizona Prison today as the driver of a getaway car in a liquor store holdup last March 18.

Duane Roger, a Clare County escapee from a Michigan prison honor camp, was sentencer yesterday by superior Judge H. L. Russel. Roger pleaded guilty to armed robbery.

Roger and two other escaped from the Michigan camp together. One of Roger's companions, Ronald Taylor, 18 , of Midland, was killed in the crash of the getaway car at roadblock 45 miles north of Flagstaff.

The third secapee, David Totten, 20, of Fenton has waived a preliminary hearing on charges of robbery and assault. He is accused of firing at pursuing officers.

Japanese 'Peace' Envoy Died Today at Age 68

Setter Retrieves Lost Neckpiece; Gets Into Trouble

FLINT (AP) — When your Irish Setter trots up to you with a woman's fur neckpiece dangling from its jaw instead of a pheasant it's enough to worry a person.

Mrs. Robert Dolan banished her "Bridget" to the doghouse when just such a thing happened. Then she called police.

A few days later, police reported they had found the owner who said she lost the neckpiece on the way home from a party.

So, Bridget is out of the dog house once more — literally and figuratively.

Detroit Boy, 9, Killed by Car While Walking

DETROIT (INS) — A nine-year-old Detroit boy died early today in east side General Hospital of injuries suffered yesterday when he darted into the path of an oncoming auto.

Witnesses said Stephen Gross suddenly ran into the street as he and playmates were on their way home from school. The boy was hit by a car driven by Clement Sliwinski, 38, of Detroit. The motorist was released after police took his statement.

Mrs. Williams Resting After Wrist Operation

LANSING (INS) — Mrs. Nancy Williams, wife of the governor, rested comfortably in Sparrow Hospital at Lansing today after an operation on the nerves of her wrist.

A neuro-surgeon performed the operation yesterday to repair damage to nerves caused when Mrs. Williams was injured in a kitchen accident some months ago.

Apartment Encourages Parenthood With Bonds

SEATTLE (AP)—A Seattle apartment house has reversed traditions and urged its tenants to have babies—even offered a $25 defense bond to each new baby.

An additional bond will go to babies named after the apartment—the Grosvenor. Double money also will be paid for twins.

For triplets? Triple money—and an eviction notice, the management says, with tongue in cheek. (P.S.: But some of those bachelor units are pretty small for a family of five.)

Hold Brother-Sister Reunion After 37 Years

ENFIELD, N. H. (UP)—George Sprague thought his sister, Mrs. Lucy Mae Sawyer of Enfield, had been killed in a flood many years ago.

When Mrs. Sawyer was hospitalized several months ago, her daughter began a search for Sprague. It started with a letter to St. John, N. B., birthplace of Sprague and Mrs. Sawyer. It ended in Bangor, Me., where Sprague now resides.

A recent weekend was one of reunion for the brother and sister, a reunion after 37 years.

Caps Plea for Honesty for Taking Wrong Hat

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — Gov. Robert Crosby of Nebraska has under way a campaign to get all personal property in the state on the tax rolls. He calls it "Operation Honesty".

He went to Crete to tell about it—then after his talk, walked out of the hall with Mayor Fred Kerst's hat!

It was all straightened out before the governor left town.

Iowa was the first state to levy a tax on cigarettes, in 1921.

'Shooting' False Alarm

NORTH TONAWANDA, N. Y. (UP)—Police investigated a complaint that two youths were "shooting up" a street with rifles pointed out the window of their moving car. They discovered the "guns" were broomsticks and the "shots" were the backfiring of the car caused by turning the ignition off and on.
