Three Turncoats Returning to Face Charges

Agnes the Charmer Gets Ready for a Long Lake Dip

Pontiac Press Photo

DOWN FOR THE COUNT — Showing just what he would do if the famous Lower Long Lake alligator dared to rise to his challenge is Sarnia, Ontario 'gator wrestler Tuffy Truesdell. His sparring partner for the event, Agnes, takes the whole thing quietly. Truesdell made ready to do battle with the seldom-seen denizen of the lake Saturday, but only a few frogs took up the challenge. Sleepy-eyed Agnes had visions of perhaps grabbing the leg of a fat newsman who ventured too near, to interview her. No such luck. However, one thing is sure, the 'gator in Lower Long Lake is female. What male alligator could resist the charms of Agnes?

Pontiac Airport to Get $35,600 in State Funds

Money Will Be Used for Longer Runway, Other Improvements

The State Aeronautics Commission has allocated $35,600 in state matching funds for improvements at Pontiac Municipal Airport, it was announced today.

The action apparently clears the way for construction of a new 3,700-foot runway, said Homer Hoskins, airport manager.

Some $18,050 of the money will be matched by the city for clearing, draining and grading the 80-acre runway area.

The federal government will supply another $5,901, said Hoskins.

The Aeronautics Commission will open contract bids for the initial project July 20 in Lansing, said Hoskins.

The remaining $16,550 of state aid, if matched by the city, will be used to put a compacted gravel base on the new airstrip plus a prime and seal surface, he added.

The new runway will go from east to west and utilize city-owned land previously unused.

Hoskins said the longer landing strip would increase the safety factor for many twin-engine planes now operating from the airport.

"We have numerous twin-engine planes here now, but the runways are pretty short for them, especially for the larger ones," he stated.

The new project would also make the city airport a landing spot for many owners of larger planes who now shun it as too short, he concluded.

Lake Steals Children

GRIEF-STRICKEN FATHER — His features contorted in grief and anguish, and still clutching his sunglasses, Frank Koch of Muskegon collapses as the bodies of his twin 8-year-old sons and his 11-year-old daughter are removed from the Lake Michigan surf. All three children drowned simultaneously yesterday in Muskegon's worst beach tragedy. Both the father and mother were taken to the hospital and treated for shock.

Sail for Home Expecting U.S. Court Actions

Trio Declares Living in Red China Is Hell; Pleads Stupidity

HONG KONG (AP)—Three former American soldiers who changed their minds about living in Communist China sailed for home tonight.

The three men—William A. Cowart, 23, of Dalton, Ga., Otto G. Bell, 24, of Hillsboro, Miss., and Lewis W. Griggs, 22, of Jacksonville, Tex. — said they expect to be prosecuted but are ready to face the consequences in order to tell what happened to them.

Life with the Reds was hell, they all agreed.

Captured in Korea, they and 20 other Americans refused repatriation. Four months ago, Cowart said, the trio and two Belgian deserters began demanding that the Reds let them go. The Chinese announced in June that all five would be released.

The Americans crossed the border into Hong Kong territory Sunday afternoon. British immigration officials turned them over to U.S. counsular authorities who said they appeared to have retained their U.S. citizenship and prepared travel documents permitting their direct return to the United States.

The consulate paid their passage home on the liner President Cleveland, due in San Francisco July 29 after a stop in Japan. A consular spokesman said they would be "expected to repay the passage money at such time as they can."

For the voyage home, the State Department ordered the men restricted to the ship until it docks in California.

The American government has not indicated what is in store for the trio, except to say that they will "be responsible for any acts they might have committed."

Because all three and 17 other former prisoners of war still in China have been given dishonorable discharges, Secretary of Defense Wilson said last month he did not think the three returning would be tried by court-martial.

Griggs told a news conference last night "others want to come out" of Red China but he would not name them. The Chinese, in announcing that the three Americans and two Belgians would be turned loose, said any of the others could leave if they desired.

2 Detroiters Die in Truck Crash

Telegraph Road Smash of Car, Steel Hauler Injures Two Others

A Detroit husband and wife were killed and their 2-year-old son was injured critically when their car collided with a semi-truck this morning on Telegraph road at 10½ Mile road.

The dead, identified by Redford Post State Police were:

Henry Johansen, 38, and his wife, Betty Ann, 31, of 19950 Salem.

Their son, Kirk, about 2, was taken to Mt. Carmel Mercy Hospital in Detroit with critical injuries, as was the truck driver, Kenneth Roberts, 25, of Dearborn.

The victims were pinned inside their northbound car by the truck cab, which ripped from the trailer and smashed down on the auto.

Witnesses said the truck, carrying 33,000 pounds of sheet steel careened across the center line after sideswiping a smaller truck making a left turn. The trailer overturned into a ditch on the west side of the 4-lane highway.

A third truck, driven by Lonnie Thompson, of Ohio, which was following the Johansen car, was forced into the ditch to avoid the smashup.

Officers said Roberts' truck rammed the side of Johansen's car, hurling it into the ditch pinning the victims in the twisted wreckage.

Traffic was held up more than an hour while workmen, using a derrick and cable, removed the victims and cleared wreckage.

Anderson Resigning as Defense Deputy

WASHINGTON (AP)— Robert B. Anderson of Texas, resigned today as deputy secretary of defense, effective about Aug. 15

The White House, announcing the resignation, said President Eisenhower was accepting it "with the greatest reluctance."

It said no successor had yet been chosen. However, Murray Snyder, assistant press secretary, said the President would make a nomination to the post before Congress adjourns, possibly about Aug. 1.

There have been reports that Anderson would be succeeded by Reuber B. Robertson, Jr., Hamilton, Ohio, paper company executive.

Tax Collectors' Strike Gives Japanese Respite

TOKYO (AP)—Here's one strike the tax payers aren't kicking about.

Taxation workers, demanding summer bonuses and pay raises right in the middle of mailing income tax notices, struck today with sit-downs and refusals to work overtime.

'Gator Wrestler Arrives With Agnes, Charms Fail to Lure Monster Out

In steaming, jungle-like 95-degree heat, a Sarnia, Ont., alligator wrestler and a friend who plays football semi-professionally Saturday pulled up beside the murky channel connecting Lower Long Lake and Island Lake in Bloomfield Township.

From a shallow pool in the rear of the converted limousine owned by the wrestler, 37-year-old Tuffy Truesdell, emerged a 7-foot alligator, obviously unhappy.

It hissed quite loudly as Truesdell and his pal, John "Corky" DuChene, 26, halfback for the Sarnia Imperials, looped a clothesline harness around it.

As soon as Truesdell hopped off its back, the 'gator headed for channel, like an alligator to water.

A couple swishes of its 100-pound tail sprayed muddy water on the pants of a police officer, who has been looking for the 'gator reported seen in the channel. Several onlookers, newsmen and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. William O. Singleton, also got sprayed for their curiosity.

(It was the Singletons' 5-year-old son, Danny, you will recall, who first told of seeing an alligator in the channel.)

Truesdell left the 'gator in the water only a few minutes. He had planned originally to try to lure forth the mystery 'gator with his own reptile. But he changed his mind. "It's too muddy in there," he said.

After the 'gator, unhappier than ever, was hauled out, Truesdell wrestled with the beast a bit, just to show what he would do if the mystery 'gator, sought for a week, were caught by him.

A reporter interviewed Truesdell beside the 'gator and nearly got nipped.

So did a photographer who passed too close to the scaly thing.

Truesdell didn't help things. He kept asking, "Want to hear him snap?" and annoying the 'gator till he cracked shut its teeth-loaded jaws with lightning speed.

The 'gator finally was trundled back into the car, and Truesdell and DuChene went up near the Singletons' big English-style home to wash the sand off themselves in the spray of the lawn sprinkler.

Later, the Canadians climbed into the auto, marked "Danger," and headed for another point on Island Lake where somebody said somebody had seen something that looked like a 'gator three times that morning.

After that they went to scour the shoreline for signs of an alligator den or footprints, at least. At last report, they hadn't found any.

Turnpike Authority Meeting Tomorrow

Members of the Michigan Turnpike Authority will meet tomorrow at 1 p.m. in their Ann Arbor offices to elect a new chairman and secretary-treasurer.

The group's first chairman, William E. Slaughter Jr., was not renamed to the board by the Legislature. Former Oakland County Senator, George N. Higgins, of Ferndale, was appointed to Slaughter's position by Governor Williams.

Higgins is seen as the leading candidate for the chairmanship.

Other business scheduled by the turnpike commissioners includes reports on finances, court action involving the turnpike and meetings with city, village and township officials along the proposed toll road route.

Lost Airman Lands His Jet on Penn Turnpike

BEDFORD, Pa. (AP)—Air Force Maj. Leo Carboneau, lost and out of fuel in his F86D jet plane, badly needed a place to land yesterday and picked the Pennsylvania Turnpike.

Luckily he landed at a time when there was a lull in the usual heavy Sunday traffic. The major got his ship down in an eastbound lane near the Sideling Hill Tunnel in Fulton County about 30 miles east of here.

He was unhurt and the plane was only slightly damaged.

Maj. Carboneau is stationed at the Niagara Falls, N.Y., Air Force Base.

Meeting Moved Up

The City Commission will meet tonight at 8 p.m. in the new City Hall, rather than tomorrow night, the usual meeting time.

Father of Scout Lost From Camp Fears Kidnaping

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP) — The father of a 12-year-old Boy Scout missing in Michigan said today he feared the boy had been kidnaped.

"Anything could have happened," said Frederick A. Gorham of Evanston. "But I don't think he ran away.

"I don't like to use that vicious word, kidnaping, but everything seems to point to something like it."

Gorham's son, Peter, disappeared from a Boy Scout camp near Whitehall July 5.

Gorham said he would come to Michigan today to help State Police in the search for his son.

Peter's mother, Ruth, said the chance of finding him, "doesn't look good," but added:

"We won't give up hope."

Meanwhile an air search of Lake Michigan's shoreline from Whitehall to Michigan City, Ind., was planned today.

Tangled in Weeds, City Man Drowns

A 30-year-old Pontiac man drowned Saturday night when he became tangled in weeds while swimming in Lake Minnawanna, ten miles southwest of Lapeer.

The body of Earl B. Korvela, of 46 Park Place, was recovered Sunday, according to Lapeer County sheriff's deputies.

A farm worker, Korvela was not married. An Army veteran, he was a prisoner of war in Germany during World War II.

Surviving are his father, John, and mother, Katherine, of Detroit. Three sisters, Mrs. William Maki, Mrs. Robert Saari, Mrs. Reino Jokinen and a brother, Edwin, all of Detroit.

Funeral will be 2:30 p.m. Tuesday at Charles and Son Funeral Home, Detroit, with burial in Parkview Memorial Cemetery.

Cooler Weather Arrives After Peak of Heat Wave

What a relief!

After hitting a thermometer-busting 94 here Saturday, the mercury slid off yesterday to a high 86 and a low of 64 degrees.

The cooler, but still-sunny weather was forecast to continue through today.

Sunday's breezes signaled the end of a torrid first-nine-days of July which saw the temperature in or near the 90s every afternoon.

Pontiac escaped without the serious water shortages which occurred in parts of South Oakland County and Detroit.

However, another hot and dry spell could cause water troubles here, local officials point out.

A new air-conditioning ordinance was given credit last week for helping preserve water by causing waste from cooling units to be cut down.

Scattered rains throughout Oakland County during the hot period prevented much crop damage.

The mercury stood at 66 in downtown Pontiac at 8 a.m. today and had climbed to 84 by 2 p.m.

The prediction was for mostly fair and pleasant tonight and tomorrow. Low tonight 60-64, high tomorrow 82-86. North to northeast winds. Partly cloudy and warmer tomorrow night, low 66-70.

State's Waters Claim 15 Lives

Traffic Deaths Total 13 in Second Weekend of Many Drownings

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Michigan's waterways have taken more lives than its highways for the second weekend in a row. And among the 15 who drowned were all three children of a Muskegon couple.

Traffic mishaps claimed 13 lives. One man was killed in the crash of a homemade airplane and two others were electrocuted accidentally.

Drowned were:

Douglas and Donald Koch, both 9, and their 11-year-old sister, Judith, of Muskegon, Sunday in Lake Michigan.

Alvin Carnegie, 22, of Flint, Saturday in Kearsley Dam in Flint.

Leon Joe Priestley, 10, of Ludington, Saturday in Lake Michigan.

Nancy Rasmussen, 6, of Davison, Saturday in Otter Lake in Genesee County.

Mrs. Ruby O'Neill, 64, of Detroit, Sunday in Lake Huron.

O. D. Loring Hubbard, 18, of Willow Village, Sunday in Susterka Lake in Washtenaw County.

Leslie A. Cornell, 29, of Pinckney, Sunday in the Huron River.

Al McLaughlin, 30, of Coldwater, Sunday at Coldwater Lake.

Felix Aguilar, 55, of Detroit, Sunday in Crystal Lake, Benzie County.

Killed in highway mishaps were:

Howard Turnbloom, 36, and Mrs. Della Mae Osborne, 45, both of Toledo, and George Bible, 34, of

Turncoats Drink on Newsman, Say Little of Interest

By DAVID J. ROADS

HONG KONG (AP)—I took the three American turncoats out for $40 worth of drinks last night in a round of dance halls.

I agree with one of them, 22-year-old Lewis W. Griggs, that they "aren't very smart." But what else they are I couldn't say.

I spent their first evening of freedom with Griggs, William A. Cowart and Otho G. Bell in the line of duty, hoping they would reveal more than they had in evasive answers during the news conference following their arrival in Hong Kong yesterday.

Helped along by mambo music, double scotches, beer, Manhattans and plenty of American cigarettes, they appeared to talk freely. But they committed themselves on little.

All three kept repeating that things were hell in Red China.

Cowart, 23, of Dalton, Ga., was anxious to line up some "quick cash" and also talked vaguely about contacts with an anti-Communist underground in China.

Bell, 24, of Hillsboro, Miss., kept repeating that he couldn't wait to "see that beautiful little daughter of mine." The child, Paula, now 4, was born after he was sent to Korea. Her mother is working at a military base near Olympia, Wash.

Griggs, of Jacksonville, Tex., reckoned they had "outsmarted the Reds in getting out."

As the hours rolled on and the drinks went down, the talk boiled down to usual barroom chatter — sports, movie stars and sex. Finally everybody was yawning and I picked up the check.

Two Die in Telegraph Crash of Steel Truck, Car

TWO KILLED INSTANTLY — A Detroit man and wife were killed instantly and their 2-year-old son was injured critically this morning when their car collided with a steel truck on Telegraph road at 10½ Mile road. State Police of the Redford Post identified the victims as Henry Johansen, 38, and his wife, Betty Ann, 31, of 19950 Salem. Their son, Kirk, was taken to Mt. THOUSANDS HIT BEACH — An estimated 26,000 persons headed for the cool, clear water Sunday at Dodge State park on Cass Lake to seek breezes, nearly equalling the 30,000 record for the year set on July 4. This past week has set an all-time record with 121,000 persons visiting the park from July 4 to 10 inclusive, says Paul Rearick, park manager. Parking facilities were crowded to overflowing and many spent an hour or more fighting the traffic only to find every available parking space filled. By three p. m. there was a steady stream of traffic leaving the park after having tried fruitlessly to find parking space. Shown above is a view of the huge crowd on the beach.

Kin Talk Pair Into Giving Up

2 Fugitives Surrender Peacefully in Tuscola as Relatives Join Hunt

CARO, Mich. (AP)—Two futitives from the Tuscola County Jail were back in custody today after relatives of one of the escapees hunted down and captured the pair and talked them into surrendering to State Police.

The surrender ended a 48-hour police hunt through the brush area eight miles southeast of Caro for James Putnam, 17, and Donald Doyle, 21.

SLUG TURNKEY

They broke out of jail last Tuesday after slugging a turnkey.

Police were tipped by Putnam's grandmother, Mrs. Claude Putnam, that the pair had visited her farm home late Friday night.

By the time police got to the farm the fugitives had fled. They hid near the house while police, aided by a plane from Flint, combed the area.

Then, early yesterday, seven of Putnam's relatives drove up to a roadblock and asked for permission to hunt for the two.

Less than an hour later police got word to come and pick them up at Mrs. Putnam's home. Both surrendered peacefully.

Doyle was under a 7 to 15-year prison sentence for breaking and entering. Putnam was serving 60 days for parole violation.

'Greatest Airlift' Half Accomplished

ASHIYA AIR BASE, Japan, (AP)—History's greatest airborne movement of troops from America to Asia was half completed today and a massive lift back to the United States was about to start.

By Monday, 24 C124 Globemasters had brought more than 2,000 men of the 3,900-man 508th airborne regiment to Japan.

Nineteen more Globemasters, strung back across the Pacific, were hauling the rest from Ft. Campbell, Ky.

The first-arrived C124s were serviced, inspected and ready to launch the second half of Operation Gyroscope—the return to the United States of the Korean War-tested 187th.

Birmingham Man Hurt in Quarton Road Crash

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — Arnold Kottman, 19, of 47 Cloverridge, Birmingham, is in good condition at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Pontiac, after his car went out of control in front of 1219 Quarton Rd., yesterday afternoon, crashing broadside into a tree.

Police said Kottman, who suffered internal injuries, was traveling at a high rate of speed when he lost control on the freshly oiled road.

night that the two Belgians, Roger Devriendt and Louis Verdyk, would be released as soon as arrangements were completed with the Indian Red Cross.

After being questioned by consular officials, the Americans held a news conference. Then they made a drinking tour of Hong Kong dance halls.

All three returnees admitted at their news conference that while war prisoners they had committed acts which made them afraid to return home in the prisoner exchange after the Korean fighting. None would say specifically what they had done, although Griggs spoke vaguely of writing an article hostile to America.

The three also pleaded youth, stupidity and the appeal of clever Communist propaganda. "A child decided not to go home—a man decided to go home," said Cowart, who earlier had been reported anxious to return to Japan rather than to the United States.

State Drownings Claim Lives of 15

Leonard Bourdau, 39, of Wayne County, Sunday in Wayne County.

Grover C. Edmundson, 21, of Detroit, Sunday near Detroit.

Killed in miscellaneous accidents were:

Marion Church, 29, of Owosso, an airplane pilot who crashed testing a homemade plane Sunday at Charlotte.

Charles Eckerdt, 31, of Traverse City, electrocuted Saturday near Traverse City.

Oak Park Lad Dies in New York Mishap

A 10-year old Oak Park boy was killed Saturday near Utica, N. Y., when he was struck by a fast freight while standing on the track watching a troop train pass on another line.

John Jaksina, 12950 Oak Park Blvd., was thrown 75 feet against a telephone pole by the impact.

He was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Jaksina, who had been in the Utica area four days while visiting relatives.

John's cousin, 10-year old Peter Cary of nearby Whitesboro, said he heard the train at the last minute and yelled, throwing himself to safety down an embankment.

The engineer on the freight said he blew his whistle when he saw the boys, but the youngsters had their hands over their ears, apparently to shut out noise from the passing troop train.

AF Brass Attends Academy Opening

DENVER (AP)—Top Air Force officials were on hand here today for formal opening of the new air academy at its temporary location at Lowry Air Force Base.

Air Secretary Harold Talbott and Gen. Nathan Twining, Air Force chief of staff, were scheduled to be principal speakers.

The school's first class of 306 cadets was slated to register.

The academy's permanent home north of Colorado Springs won't be ready until 1957.

2-Car Telegraph Crash Places Six in Hospital

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — A fiery two-car auto crash on Telegraph road a quarter mile south of Long Lake road critically injured a 17-year-old Royal Oak girl and sent five others to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Pontiac, last night.

Mary Jo Hirt, driver of one of the cars, is listed in critical condition with severe head and face lacerations, a fractured jaw and leg and arm injuries.

Her sister, Donna, 21, is in fair condition with shoulder injuries and leg lacerations.

Police said Mary Jo Hirt was thrown about 12 feet when her car was hit broadside by an auto driven by Gerald Haynes, 19, of Detroit, as she attempted to pull out of a driveway at 4595 Telegraph Rd.

Haynes was traveling north on Telegraph, and the impact threw the Hirt car across the center curb and into the southbound lane, where it caught fire.

Bloomfield Township firemen heard the crash and saw the flames from their nearby station, and rushed to the scene immediately.

Haynes suffered a dislocated ankle and is listed in good condition.

Treated and released were other passengers in Haynes car: Faye Sandlin, 18, John Donovan, 20, and Pat Archer, 25, all of Detroit.

Police are still investigating the accident.

Foreign Aid Battle Rages in Congress

WASHINGTON (AP)—A $2,638,741,750 foreign aid money bill headed into a crossfire from budget-cutters and budget-boosters today in the House.

Already trimmed $627,900,000 below President Eisenhower's requests by the Appropriations Committee, the bill would finance for the current fiscal year the program of military and economic aid to non-Communist nations.

It would supplement an estimated $8,717,100,000 in unexpended balances from previous appropriations.

Some members don't think the Appropriations Committee hacked the bill deeply enough, while others contend it has been cut too deeply.

Russians Will Invite Graham to Moscow

LONDON, (AP)—A Russian church leader said today Billy Graham will be invited to Moscow in the near future as a guest of the Evangelical Christian Baptist Council of the Soviet Union.

The Rev. J. L. Zhidkov, president of the Russian Baptist movement, speaking in behalf of a group of visiting Russian church leaders, told a news conference "we all hope he will be able to come over."

Graham, the American evangelist now on a European tour, has said he would gladly visit Russia if he were given an opportunity to preach the Gospel.

Senate Okays Brucker as Secretary of Army

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The Senate today confirmed the nomination of Wilber M. Brucker to be secretary of the army. It acted on a voice vote.

President Eisenhower nominated Brucker on June 22 to succeed Robert T. Stevens, resigned.

The Day in Birmingham

To Discuss Elm Disease, Reduction of Supervisors

BIRMINGHAM — Discussion at tonight's City Commission meeting will turn to Dutch Elm disease which is taking a high toll among Birmingham's elm trees, and to reapportionments on the Oakland County Board of Supervisors.

Junior member, Clarence W. Blenman, will submit his resignation, due to Birmingham's cutback from five to four supervisors.

City Engineer L. R. Gare will recommend that the lone bid received for concrete construction work on Municipal Parking Lot No. 1 be turned down.

As an alternate proposal, he will recommend that the city ask for new bids which would also include the asphalt surfacing work and possible construction of a brick wall on three sides of the lot.

ACT ON APPOINTMENTS

Planning Board appointments are expected to be approved along with those to the Electrical Examining Board.

A hearing will be held to confirm the assessment roll for a pavement construction on Bird from Pierce to Edgewood, and Edgewood from Bird to Fourteen Mile road.

Talk also will turn to sidewalk construction on the north side of Bowers Street, between Elm and Adams. A request will be received asking that the Planning Board rezone a lot behind property fronting on Maple, at the southwest corner of Larchlea, to parking classification.

Service for Henry B. Royce, 56, of 1155 Quarton Rd., will be at 3 p.m. Wednesday at Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co., with burial in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

Mr. Royce died Sunday at William Beaumont Hospital, after collapsing on the golf course at Bloomfield Hills Country Club. He had been a manufacturer's representative for the Wolverine Carton Co., Grand Rapids and the Lowe Paper Co., New Jersey.

Survivors include his widow, Marjorie; one daughter, Josephine, and three brothers.

His body will be at the family home until noon Wednesday.

Charlotte Pappin Barry

Charlotte Pappin Barry, of 625 Williamsberry, died suddenly Saturday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Marvin Hahn. She had been a resident of Birmingham for three years, coming from Lansing.

Survivors include her daughter, Mrs. Hahn; a son, Harold Eldon of Duluth, Minn.; three sisters, Mrs. Neil Bennett of Mt. Clemens, Mrs. Theodore Olds and Mrs. Harry Weed, both of Rapid City.

Mrs. Barry was taken from the Manley-Bailey Funeral Home to Lansing, where service was held this morning in St. Marys Cathedral, with burial in Deep Dale Cemetery, Lansing.

Florence Kinney Clay

Florence Kinney Clay of 1364 Holland, died here Saturday, after a long illness, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lester Talbot.

Born Oct. 24, 1880, in Sheds, N. Y., Mrs. Clay had been a resident for 30 years.

She is survived by her daughter; one son, Clarence A. Long of Pontiac; a brother, Duane Kinney, of Sheds and five grandchildren.

Service will be Tuesday at 1 p.m. from the Manley Bailey Funeral Home, with interment in Oakview Cemetery, Royal Oak.

Since the railroads stepped up substitution of deisel for coal-fired locomotives, some plants making cinder building blocks have had trouble getting enough raw material.

Teacher Being Held in Husband's Death

Ferndale Police today held an ex-Pontiac school teacher, Mrs. Doris Noland, for investigation in the death of her husband who was found dead in their home yesterday.

Police said George Noland, 25, apparently shot himself. Doris, 24, said her husband beat her about the head and arms with a pistol after she told him she wanted a divorce. They had been married a year.

Noland apologized after the beating, then asked a telephone operator to call the police. He walked to a rear bedroom where he shot himself in the head with a German Luger pistol, Mrs. Noland said.

She was ordered held as a police prisoner in William Beaumont Hospital, where she was treated for cuts on her head and arms.

For the past two years, Mrs. Noland taught at Wever school and was known there by her maiden name, Doris Oliver. She resigned this year and plans on teaching in the Royal Oak school system, Pontiac Board of Education officials said.

Arrest Baritone of Prison Group

Leader of Escaped Convict Vocal Unit Nabbed at Phone

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—The baritone member of an escaped Alabama prison quartet called his Birmingham wife from Memphis last night and stepped from the telephone booth into the arms of FBI agents.

He was Walter Tidwell, 30, described by Kilby prison officials as the "tough guy" of the hymn-singers and probably the leader of last Friday's escape.

(At Birmingham, Ala., Tidwell's wife said he called to say he was taking "the next bus to Birmingham to see you, and then I want you to go to Kilby with me to turn myself in.")

Tidwell is serving a life sentence for murder.

The other three members of the quartet stopped briefly near Searcy, Ark., earlier yesterday, still driving the prison station wagon in which they escaped. Police said they apparently had left the state by the time their trails was picked up.

Orville Gray, 27, who had refused a parole a year ago to stay with the quartet, visited a father and an uncle at their homes at Griffithville, Ark.

A cafe operator reported Gray and his two companions, Bobby Tidwell, 22, and Bobby Cottrell, 22, of Roanoke, Va., had eaten breakfast at his cafe at Kensett, Ark.

The convicts overpowered a guard Friday night while en route to the prison at Montgomery, Ala., after a singing appearance at Linden, Ala.

Titoists Up Bread Cost to Spur Wheat Growing

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP)—Yugoslavia, which has been importing hundreds of thousands of tons of American wheat to tide over home shortages, has upped bread prices 33 per cent to spur domestic grain growing.

Vice President Svetozar Vukmanovic told the nation last night the government would also boost its purchase price for domestic wheat one cent per pound. He said low prices had discouraged farmers and Yugoslavia's wheat harvest has slumped below prewar levels.

6 Killed, 7 Injured in 2-Car Accident

JANESVILLE, Wis. (AP)—Six persons were killed and seven others were injured last night in a two-car collision five miles west of here.

The victims were Mr. and Mrs. James B. Tait and Mrs. Edward Litts, all of Janesville; Mrs. Virgil Lounsbury, 32, of Tiffany, Wis., and her two daughters, Cordia, 6, and Joanne, 5 months.

Conditions of the survivors were not available.

Authorities said the Tait and Litts couples were in one car and the Lounsburys in the other.

Capt. Townsend Gossip Subject Again in Britain

LONDON (INS) — England is floundering again in a new "Townsend debate."

Total confusion prevailed today as London newspapers contradicted each other on the future of Royal Air Force Capt. Peter Townsend.

The London Daily Express quoted the flyer, a reputed suitor of Princess Margaret, as telling members of the Royal Air Force Assn. in Brussels that he will be leaving his air attache post there soon.

But the Daily Sketch, in another dispatch from the Belgian capitol, said Townsend definitely is not leaving his embassay job. The newspaper quoted him as authorizing this statement:

"You may safely deny any such reports, so far as I am aware, the quesion of my leaving Brussels has not been discussed."

London newspapers have been carrying a wide range of reports on possibilities that the divorced Townsend may return to Britain before the Princess reaches her 25th birthday on Aug. 21.

The British Air Ministry, in what is the most official statement, said Townsend is on a minimum two and a half year tour as air attache and "will not leave his post this summer."

The rumors are expected to continue. Margaret will be free to marry without the permission of her sister, Queen Elizabeth II, after her birthday.

First Plane Arrives in Army's 'Gyroscope'

TOKYO (AP)—The first huge C124 Globemaster of "Operation Gyroscope" landed at Ashiya Air Base on Kyushu Island today.

Ashiya is 700 miles southwest of Tokyo.

The plane was the first of 43 Globemasters carrying some 3,800 paratroopers from Kentucky in the first of a series of large scale regimental rotations.

Other planes of the massive intercontinental flight will be landing at about two hour intervals the next 84 hours.

Baby Born on Sidewalk

CHICAGO (AP)—Mrs. John Purvis and her two-day-old son, James William, are doing fine today, none-the-worse for James' birth on a sidewalk in front of their North Side home Saturday night.

The Purvis' timing was off, and they barely reached the street on the way to the hospital when Mrs. Purvis murmured, "This is it."

FEUDIN'—If screen star Mamie Van Doren appears to be emitting a loud squawk, she is. Mamie is feuding with the movie censors. A song she sang, wearing a black negligee, was blue-penciled out of the movie, "The Second Greatest Sex." "It was my big scene," she protests.

Reds Rush to Don Ten Gallon Hats

CALGARY, Alta. (AP)—Looks like the 10-gallon Western hat is getting to be the trademark of the "new look" in Soviet diplomacy.

Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov acquired the first one during his June sightseeing trip across the United States to the 10th U.N. anniversary celebration.

Russia's Ambassador to Canada, D. S. Chuvahin, and the first secretary of his embassy, Nikolai Ostravosky, acquired theirs yesterday on arrival for the annual week-long Calgary stampede.

Find Time Bomb

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—A time bomb was discovered last night in the U.S. Information Agency building and destroyed. Experts said it could have blown up a large part of the three-story building.

BLUE SUNOCO DOES IT AGAIN!

MORE KNOCK-FREE POWER FOR EVERY MAKE OF CAR

TWO REASONS WHY SUN CAN GIVE YOU PREMIUM QUALITY AT REGULAR GAS PRICE

1 NEW CATALYTIC REFINING FACILITIES ...YEARS AHEAD OF THE INDUSTRY
New 360 ft. Houdriflow refining unit, one of several at Sun's refineries. Together with other advanced catalytic refining facilities they are keeping Sun years ahead of the industry. They enable your Sunoco dealer to offer a new gasoline—New Advanced Blue Sunoco—with more knock-free power for every make of car.

2 SUN PRODUCES ONLY ONE GRADE OF GASOLINE...HIGH-TEST, PREMIUM QUALITY AT REGULAR GAS PRICE
Sun Oil's single-grade policy results in savings on storage tanks, trucks, pumps...savings that are reinvested in research and new facilities. That's why Sun can produce a premium quality gasoline, New Advanced Blue Sunoco, that sells at regular gas price.

We save on tanks
We save on trucks

YOU SAVE EVERY MILE YOU DRIVE WITH NEW ADVANCED BLUE SUNOCO

It's ready now for next year's new cars

Available now! From the advanced refining facilities of Sun Oil Company comes a new advanced gasoline that delivers more knock-free power for modern high-compression engines—ready now for next year's cars.

In scientific laboratory tests the New Advanced Blue Sunoco outperformed typical premium-priced gasolines because of its cleaner burning. It maintained higher engine power longer under conditions duplicating the kind of driving you do most of the time. Testing method observed by an independent laboratory.

Yes, there's a difference in New Advanced Blue Sunoco, and a reason for the difference. Try New Advanced Blue Sunoco in your own car and feel the difference yourself.

Leaning Tower Nothing Compared to E. W.'s Pal

By EARL WILSON

PISA—I am used to people who lean a little bit in my business of covering the night clubs; so when I saw the famous tower here, I thought, "If they think that leans, they ought to see a famous pal of mine when he's leaning."

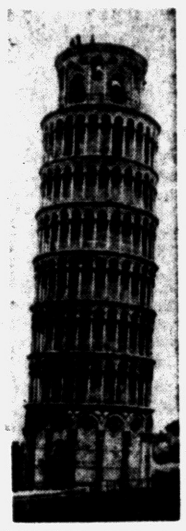
But actually you're shocked at how much it leans, and Slugger wrote in his travel diary.

"I was going to climb to the top of it but when I saw it, I was afraid it might fall over."



LEANING TOWER

We rode the bus over from Florence —as the auto rental prices here make you wince.

For a medium-sized car and a driver to take three of us on a trip of 155 miles would have been, for example, $120. For three days we'd have had a special price: $250

Our bus was full of Pennsylvanians and Californians—including several students—and in one popular restaurant we saw a sign proclaiming that the Nawarker restaurant in Newark was the best in the U. S. A.

By now I had "camera shoulder" from lugging so many cameras.

The Leaning Tower, which leans because the ground started to sink under it, leans most sharply on the first and second floors. Subsequent architects put on six more landings—and tried to straighten out the lean—but they didn't prevent it from becoming one of the greatest one-time tourist attractions in the world. Its story sounds like a great Hollywood movie to me.

It has 294 steps to the top; so I didn't make the ascent.

Climb was made, however, by many younger Americans, including a Missouri girl student who struck up an acquaintance with a young Italian soldier on the steps.

GWEN VERDON

"I suddenly realized," she said, "that my Italian vocabulary is much too limited. I have not learned the very important Italian word for 'STOP!'"

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

The Jerry Lewises are expecting . . . Bishop Sheil of Chicago arranged Red Buttons' audience with the Pope . . . Fred Allen, recovering from an emergency appedectomy, said, "Too bad I couldn't have had it done on 'Medic'."

Artie Shaw's heading for Europe to write a book—too many distractions here . . . Joe Louis has cleared up his tax problems with Uncle Sam . . . Danny Kaye's entire Palladium act will be recorded for release here . . . Gwen Verdon made a rare TV appearance on NBC's Variety Hour salute to Adler and Ross Sunday.

Edward Arnold may do "Devil and Daniel Webster" on B'way . . . Sammy Davis Jr. will be given a testimonial dinner here in September . . . Daily Double: Helen Fiske Smith (Miss Washington) and Tony Lavelli at Johnny Johnston's Charcoal Room . . . Aldo Ray's brother Dino eloped to Las Vegas.

Edger Bergan will film 39 color TV shows (about fairy tales) in Europe. CBS may show them. . . The Catskill borscht belt is being invaded by uranium hunters.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: "Of course the average man has faith. You can tell by the way he drives."—Town Journal. That's earl, brother.

Canadian Workers Battle Forest Fires

TORONTO (AP) — Canadians battled forest fires today covering thousands of rain-starved acres in Ontario and Quebec.

In Ontario, major outbreaks were being fought in the Muskoka area and in the Blind River region, 130 miles northeast of Sault St. Marie.

One blaze was stopped by 500 men and firebreaks only half a mile from Labrieville, 250 miles northeast of Quebec City. A fire 15 miles north of Baie Comeau, Que., destroyed at least 30 square miles of black spruce. Three fires were burning in the Baie Comeau region but no settlement was endangered.

Gradual Move Toward Peace Seen by Nehru

CAIRO, Egypt (AP)—India's Prime Minister Nehru said today he believes world peace will come gradually "but we do not expect miracles."

In one of a series of statements at stopovers en route home from his European visit, Nehru told reporters world leaders must use "a mixture of formal and informal methods" in seeking peace.

In Duesseldorf, Germany, he told reporters that during his Russian visit he got a "very good" impression of Premier Bulganin and his colleagues.

"They treated me as a friend," he said.

Nehru has been on a five-week tour of Soviet Asia and Europe. He was scheduled to stay in Egypt one day for conversations with Premier Gamal Abdel Nasser.

Automobiles Too Risky for Motorcyclist, 80

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—G. W. Wilkinson is 80 and wants no part of automobiles.

The operator of a truckers hotel says "none of those things for me. Don't feel safe."

When Wilkinson wants to get out he rides his motorcycle—just as he has been doing for 53 years.

American men aged 80 average six more years of life.

Report New Typhoon Nearing Okinawa Area

TOKYO (AP)—The Tokyo Central Meterological Observatory said today the seventh typhoon of the season, spawned in the Marianas, was heading northward and would near Okinawa tomorrow morning.

The observatory classed the typhoon as of considerable strength, with winds up to 123 miles an hour.

During Summer Sex Crimes on Upgrade

J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation recently summarized the summer crime situation for the United States.

The facts are startling, but they exist. Let's not be blind. Being aware of the circumstances and taking a few precautions certainly makes sense. Prompt reporting of all violations aids law enforcement.

This is the season of the year when a tidal wave of violence must be expected to break upon the American scene. Crimes of passion will reach a peak during the summer months. During 1954 two rapes and 10 aggravated assaults were committed each hour of every day and night.

During 1954 out of approximately 124,000 crimes committed against a person, one out of seven was a sex offense. Since the pre-war period 1937-39, these offenses, computed from reports of 363 cities reflect a shocking increase of 80 per cent in rape and 125 per cent in aggravated assault.

The tide of sex crimes leaves in its wake a tragic toll of misery in countless homes.

What are we to do?

Be on the alert and see that your family is. Young children should be advised and warned. This is not something to refrain from talking about.

Today the vacant lot, the alley, the park and quiet streets are traps for the unwary. With the summer deluge of crime upon us, public recognition of this danger is a vital necessity.

If we are to stem the tide and recover the ground lost in these post war years, we cannot be complacent. This is a problem that faces all citizens alike.

Let's stand up and fight.

A Job Well Done by National Guard

A word of thanks should go to the Michigan National Guard personnel for the work they did over the Fourth of July weekend patrolling Michigan highways.

The statistics provided by the State Police showed the total number of accidents to be 38 per cent below 1954 for the Independence Day weekend. Deaths this year resulting from accidents were 19 as compared to 35 last year. This is a drop of 46 per cent and certainly merits a word of praise.

Any method used that will save a life is well worth the effort. One suggestion that has been called to the attention of the Press is that people living right in the lake area try and stay off the highways on holiday weekends.

If the lakes and parks are right at your back door, try and use them during the week, or on weekends other than holidays. Many people are confined in the cities and the only opportunity they have is a long holiday weekend.

Looking back a few years one can see that the fewer the cars the fewer the accidents. Planning your holiday or vacation so as not to coincide with a crowded weekend would eliminate much of the traffic congestion.

How about it, neighbor.

Lets help each other.

It would be difficult for anyone to find a needle in a haystack, and impossible for a modern girl to do so, as she doesn't know what a needle is.

Changes at City Hall

Changes in three important city posts have been revealed this week.

Phillip G. Rowston was named by the City Commission to represent District 2 upon resignation of Harcourt J. Patterson, who retired because his residence soon will be outside city limits. Rowston is an attorney, as was the man he succeeds. His choice for the unexpired term was logical as he was the second candidate on the ticket with Patterson at the last election.

Walter A. Giddings, a city employe since 1921 and deputy city treasurer since 1953, has become treasurer succeeding Murray M. Ashbaugh who retired July 2 on his 70th birthday. Ashbaugh served at treasurer for the past five years.

Appointed to the Pontiac General Hospital Board by the City Commission is Harold B. Euler. A vacancy on the board resulted with the retirement July 1 of William F. Maybury, who served as the board's chairman since its inception three years ago.

The city is indebted to the three capable men retiring from public posts for their service and contributions to the general civic welfare;

We are fortunate in having available other well qualified and public-spirited citizens to step into their places.

The Man About Town

Looks Like a Record

Local Man Has Almost Twice the Descendants of TV Pair

Grown up: When in your family you're resembled instead of resembling.

Right here in Pontiac lives a man who makes that couple look silly with 100 descendants, who were given big publicity on a national television hookup. He is of 14 McNeil St., who has 186 living direct descendants. They recently held a family reunion at Dryden. On account of his age (he will reach the century mark next November) Mr. Ferrier was unable to attend.

Numbered among the 42 planes to complete the recent cross continent powder puff derby was that driven by our own

Janie Hart,

the very able aviation minded wife of

Lieutenant Governor Philip A. Hart

and she tells me she could have done much better, but has such a lovely husband and such adorable children that she takes no chances.

Two rattlesnakes, one 36 inches long with eight rattles, and the other 26 inches long with seven rattles, were recently killed by of 1285 Grove Pointe Drive, who also has a pet crow that gives the spotted reptiles a wide berth.

Lacking a few months of being 100 years of age,

Mrs. Martha K. Furman, who died last week at her home at 49050 Pontiac Trail, had been a resident of this county for over two-thirds of a century. She was a close observer of its development from pioneer days.

The foreman of a recent Oakland County Circuit Court jury tells me of a ditty they adopted after several hours' deliberation in the jury room:

"We cursed and swore and chewed the fat—
But we parted friends for all of that."

Again claiming the largest Independence Day celebration crowds of any community of its size in Michigan is Highland, where places the number above 5,000, and parking space was the only problem.

"Be sure to let me know when they catch that alligator," phones

of Rochester, who says he wants to order a handbag for his wife, if its skin is big enough to make one; if not, she'll be content with a purse—or powder puff—or postage stamp holder.

"I never before saw it so hot that the radishes in my garden split open," phones of Drayton Plains, who also asserts his hens have knocked off production.

More Than He Angled For

David Lawrence Says:

Gradual Inflation May Cut Dollar Value to 20 Cents

WASHINGTON — Sometimes there's a big news story developing right in front of our eyes but, because there's no single dramatic climax, it escapes headlines.

Today the biggest story in America is the creeping inflation that has set in. It may eventually bring the value of the dollar down from around fifty cents or even lower in the next two decades.

People wonder why the stock market is booming, but it should be no mystery. The stock market senses inflation faster nowadays than it does any other influence, and security values jump upward accordingly.

The most sensational piece of inflation news happened a fortnight ago. Just as soon as the CIO steelworkers' union held up the steel industry and forced it to pay a wage increase of around 15 cents an hour, the steel companies turned around and increased the price of steel by $7.50 a ton.

5 PER CENT HIKE

That's about a five per cent increase and anybody who thinks you can put into effect a five per cent increase in steel prices without affecting almost the entire manufacturing economy of America isn't looking facts in the face.

Big wage increases have just been forced on the auto and copper industries, too.

Nobody begrudges American labor the enjoyment of high wages, but there comes a time when stability is more important than selfishness and greed.

Union leaders are in a contest to get the most they can each year, and they are forcing wage increases in reckless disregard of their own labor-union members. For when inflation reaches its peak, the workers who have accumulated savings in the banks or in the form of pensions will suffer the greatest hardship.

The dollars of today look good at the time but, when they will buy only twenty cents' worth of goods, they will not look so good.

FREE ENTERPRISE

Time was when the free enterprise system in America functioned effectively because the government protected the public interest. It stopped when corporations fixed prices or engaged in monopolistic practices to stifle competition.

Today the government is faced with a dangerous monopoly—labor-union control of entire industries. Today price - fixing is being brought about by labor-union manipulation of wage rates. The government is afraid to act because the labor unions control the Democratic party and, with their huge campaign funds, can control the election of many members of Congress in both parties.

So, being fearful of political reprisals, the government takes no action to protect the public interest, while labor unions, on the one hand, and corporations, on the other, fix prices. Smaller units in business which used to cut prices because they didn't need to pay as high wages as their big competitors now are being gradually forced out of business. Monopolies and quasi-monopolies today are in command of the nation's economy.

In Europe, in order to hold labor unions and corporations at bay, either the corporate state of fascism or the state-controlled mechanism of communism is introduced. Both are instruments of totalitarianism and offer no solution for America.

NOTHING BUT TALK

Revision of the antitrust laws is often talked about in Washington, but nothing is done about it. Labor unions are today engaged in a "restraint of trade" in much the same way that corporations operated in the 1890's when the Sherman antitrust law was born. But there's no sentiment on Capitol Hill today to put through any important changes in the antitrust laws.

So the outlook is for more and more inflation, and, of course, more and more devaluation in the purchasing power of the dollar. Higher and higher prices and a gradual depreciation of the value of pensions and retirement benefits.

Labor-union leaders are forgetting tomorrow and living only in today's atmosphere of rivalry in which one labor chief vies with another to get the maximum. Strikes are too costly to be endured, so management gives in without a struggle. Then, as if convinced that the public will not mind, the price increases are announced almost immediately after the termination of the wage controversies with the unions.

Another cycle of price increases generally now is in the offing.

If profits of corporations are too high, the answer doesn't lie in turning the excess over to one industry, but in sharing it with the entire public in the form of price decreases. Today's system is a triumph for specially-privileged—the monopolistic unions and corporations.

The end result—economic depression — will not be apparent till it comes. For economic laws are never repealed, the inevitability of a price spiral and a consequent reduction in the dollar's value are as plain to see today as they have been in similar periods in the economic history of the world. Bad economic practices do not always make headlines — but they can make breadlines.

'Interested' Would Like Public Housing Put on Ballot for Citizens to Decide

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature

An article recently stated "the dormant" public housing program got a poke in the ribs by the annual report of the Pontiac Housing Commission.

I was led to believe by the City Commission that public housing in Pontiac was dead. There was a petition signed by no less than 6000 Pontiac citizens asking the Commission to put public housing issue to a vote by the people to see if the people of Pontiac wanted public housing.

The City Commission, rather than put this issue to a vote by the people, voted the issue out themselves.

Now, if they intend to vote public housing back into Pontiac, I for one believe that the citizens of Pontiac should have the right to vote on this issue.

THOUGHT FOR TODAY

Competitive Techniques May Help Ike at Geneva

By MERRYLE RUKEYSER
INS Economic Writer

If President Eisenhower and his advisers will take to the forthcoming meeting of the Big Four "at the summit" the attitudes and operating techniques of the competitive world, they may find them useful.

In analysing the strength of corporations or of governments, a first principle is to make a realistic audit of the men involved and the forces that motivate them.

Thus it is important to know What Makes Sammy Run—to borrow the title of a non-current play about show business. Specifically, it is essential to try to understand why Premier Bulganin of the Soviet Union is willing to meet peaceably with top spokesmen for three allies of World War II, and specifically, why Nikita S. Khrushchev, boss of the Communist Party, is in a palsy mood toward the United States.

We Americans sometimes err in lacking consistency in our appraisal of the Soviet system. Fundamentally, we must make up our minds as to whether we really mean it when we give lip service to the superiority of our free-choice economic pattern, which aims to provote individual self-expression and initiative.

CAUSE WEAKENED

If our concept of incentives and rewards is sound, then there are built-in elements of weakness in the whole Marxian conception. It seems to me that we weaken our case by fluctuating, like a cork on a wave, from the view that Communism is inherently self-frustrating to the opposite opinion that the Russian setup is so basically strong that the Soviet and its allies may engulf the whole free world.

In hard boiled Wall Street, the governing yardstick is that there is no substitute for character. The basic idea was expressed by the original J. Pierpont Morgan in the phrase: "The best collateral for a loan is character."

Great banks have refused to take even checking accounts for known financial swindlers, even though nominally the depositor trusts the bank rather than vice versa. The reasoning is that it is contrary to sound policy to permit a crook to deceive others by association in any way with a financial institution of high reputation.

Wise investment analysts, while looking at inanimate corporate assets, tend to withhold a favorable recommendation unless the human element—the management situation—is satisfactory.

Apparently the fatal error in the Communist Party is the failure to recognize a spiritual background in practical affairs. Thus, in connection with inadequacy of recent agricultural production in Russia, the Soviet arranged to send a mission to Iowa to study productive techniques there.

But this misses the point. Even if the Soviet precisely copied the mechanized agricultural tools in use in Iowa, it would omit a basic ingredient of success. The Iowa farmers work on an incentive system., and reap the benefits of their extra effort. Their success formula includes the human rights set forth in the Constitution and the Bill of Rights.

Smiles

You'd never know by the way some couples act that marriage is a civil contract.

The end of a tannery strike in the South sent all of the workers back into hiding.

At the race track most people are habitually poor guessers, and habitual guessers often wind up poor people.

Some folks should especially like drive-in theaters, where they can sit behind the wheel and not have to think.

The Oregon couple who started on their honeymoond on roller skates has a good chance of coming down to earth before most brides and grooms.

Most of most people's troubles are so small other people can't see them.

The big advantage in moccasins is that there are no shoestrings to break when you're in a hurry.

Deaf Grandfather Makes Family Shout Rather Than Buy Himself a Hearing Aid

Carl is at fault for his lack of popularity. For he irritates his relatives and their friends by his failure to wear a hearing aid. Actually, your deafness grows worse by disuse, so wear your hearing aid all the time. You can even sleep with it, for better hearing.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case O-379: Carl S., aged 63, is very hard of hearing.

"He should be wearing a hearing aid," his married daughter said, "but he says he's tried them and they make too much noise in his ears.

"But he is ruining the voices of my children, as well as of my husband and myself.

"For dad always likes to be included in the conversation. But we must then shout at the top of our lungs to make him hear.

"And this, constant screaming is becoming a habit with us, so the children tend to shout at each other.

"And I fear I am doing the same thing. So I'd like to get dad a hearing aid for his birthday, partly to protect the voices of the rest of the family. What kind should I purchase?"

GIFTS FOR AGED

One of the best gifts you can give to elderly folks include the aids to health and digestion, such as new dentures, hearing aids and new eye glasses.

Millions of people past 60 need these badly. And often they can afford them easily.

But it is typical of older folks that they may be very generous with their grandchildren, yet be miserly about buying themselves much needed conveniences.

So you grown children might profitably surprise your elderly relatives by taking them to a dentist for a new, properly fitting set of false teeth.

Or escort them down town and buy them an up-to-date set of eye glasses, for their present pair may be so far out of date that it fogs their vision until they can only half enjoy life. They may no longer be able to read the fine print in newspapers or thread a needle.

Thousands of other folks, like Carl today, should be wearing a hearing aid.

THOUGHTLESS GRANDPA

You folks past middle age should also have more consideration for your children and grandchildren.

"My daughter shuns me! She doesn't want me downstairs when she has a bridge party," Carl later informed me.

"That's largely your fault," I bluntly replied, "for you make everybody shout at the top of his lungs to make you hear. And that gets boring to guests.

"So why don't you look ahead and stop making it so unpleasant for your relatives and their friends.

"Get a hearing aid. Then wear it steadily. Don't try to economize by turning off the batteries when nobody is around.

"Leave the batteries on all the time, for the sounds of traffic or the chirping of birds, all stimulate your ears and keep your hearing more keen.

DEAFNESS INCREASES

"Unused ears tend to grow more hard-of-hearing and finally atrophy. In fact, we often urge hard-of-hearing folks to wear their hearing aids all night and to leave the batteries on, just to further stimulate their hearing by the vague night sounds of trucks, the milk man at dawn, etc.

"So get you a hearing aid and wear it till you get so used to it, you no longer are aware you have one in your ear.

"And test out such hearing aids for 10 days till you know you have one that is best suited to your deafness, for there are different kinds of hearing defects.

"Some people require bone-conduction aids. Others simply need louder amplification of normal air sounds."

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and a dime to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his psychological charts.

Dr. Brady Says:

Exposure to Cold and Wet Harmless, Brady Claims

By WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

Thanks to your writings and especially Little Lesson No. 5, writes an Iowan, no member of our family has had a cold in the past three years.

Having studied Little Lesson No. 5 an intelligent person must realize that it is stupid to call any ailment a "cold."

What would you think of a teacher, nurse or doctor who looked at Johnny's throat, pronounced it "just a cold" and told Johnny to remain in school, if your Gerald or Geraldine, in Johnny's class, presently came down with measles, meningitis, infantile paralysis or diphtheria?

Wisconsin sexagenarian with the ideas of a nonagenarian says a recent article in this column, in which I tried to insure readers that chills, wet feet, drafts, etc. have nothing to do with susceptibility to the cri (kree, common resporatory infections) was "the same old ballyhoo. You invite physicians to challenge you about this. Why should they? You are helping their business."

LOW RESISTANCE

Why don't I let my hair down (if I have any) and give in and admit I'm stubborn? How about one-third or more of the people who are 60 percenters and haven't the resistance that soldiers, sailors, explorers, hunters, fishermen, forest rangers and other vigorous young men have? And so on, yakety-yak.

Having needled me cruelly, the man parries the blow I was ready to deliver by adding that "we have been reading your articles for fifteen years or more. We hope you live forever and keep on writing. Use my name if you want to."

I don't like soft soap, mister. I don't really hanker after any kind of soap. So I beg to remind you that nobody has proved scientifically that ordinary "exposure" to wet feet, drafts, chills, insufficient clothing, sudden change of weather or environment or dampness causes or predisposes to illness.

I didn't invite physicians to challenge me. I merely promised to print the statement of any physician who desires to refute what I say about "resistance."

NO DEFINITION

I say no physician can define "resistance" or show that there is such a state, apart from immunity.

It would be so silly to imagine or imply that wet feet, drafts, etc. have any effect on any immunity one happens to have against a specific disease, that the lamebrains have to conjure up something elusive and intangible to yakety-yak about, and "lowered resistance" suits the requirement.

There are circumstances under which it should be comforting to know that, short of frostbite or freezing, exposure to cold and wet is harmless.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to the Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Mich.

Strike Ends at Only Tin Smelter in U.S.

GALVESTON, Tex. (UP)—A three-week-old strike at North America's only tin smelter was settled last night.

The government-owned plant, built during World War II by the government and operated by a private firm, is at nearby Texas City. Congress only recently voted more money for its continued operation.

The CIO Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers Union, representing about 370 workers, accepted a 10-cent hourly wage increase retroactive to May 31.

Jobless Pay Claims Take Dip Downward

Reflecting a high rate of employment, jobless pay claims at the Pontiac office of the Michigan Employment Security Commission this week dropped to the lowest point in almost two years.

The total—674—is the lowest since mid-August, 1953, when 562 checks were issued to unemployed persons, according to Fred Hanses, assistant office manager.

Camp Agawam Opened for Tour by Scouters

Police Hold Woman in Hubby Poisoning

CEDAR CITY, Utah (AP)—A woman whose husband died of poisoning faced a charge of first degree murder today. Her sister is serving a life sentence after being convicted of poisoning her own husband.

The complaint was lodged against Mrs. Raymond Ashdown, 35. Her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Lacey Ashdown, was convicted of murder in 1949 after her husband, Vivian, died of poisoning. Vivian was Raymond's brother and the Mrs. Ashdowns are sisters.

Sheriff Arthur Nelson of Iron County said the Cedar City woman told of putting "five or six grains of strychnine in a glass of lemon juice."

Her husband, the father of seven, died Tuesday. His brother died after strychnine was put in his hamburger during a party at Homedale.

Bob Considine Says:

Radio Radical Advocates Less Gab

NEW YORK (INS)—Sideglances: Ted Deglin, New York Public Relations Counsel (and former Army colonel) should endear himself to millions of radio listeners. He bought an FM station recently (WBAI in New York, 99.5 megacycles) and said as follows to his slim staff of announcers:

"Men, tell the people what number is coming up, or what number has just been played. Start yackety-yacking, hamming it up, or telling Ike what to do at Geneva, and you're canned on the spot. Understand?"

Deglin bought into FM radio at what might have been the nadir of that realm, where once it was felt great fortunes would be found. But the enormous new interest in high fidelity recording promises to bring FM back bigger than ever. FM is static free and capable of broadcasting the entire range of audible sound, from 20 to 15,000 cycles per second. One New York store which once had trouble giving FM sets away is now selling about 400 a week.

Deglin has put another rule into effect at WBAI which might someday cause a citizens committee to erect an equestrian statue of him in Central Park. He has cut his commercials to 30 second and permits no more than four of them an hour.

The man's obviously a radical.

A chicken in every pot and two cars in every garage was considered Utopia in the early 1930s.

Joseph Biargent, international representative of the champagne producers of France, describes the America of the middle 1950s as follows:

"Not only is prosperity everywhere, but the country's mood is one of success, happiness and gaiety. Even the most exclusive beverage of my native France—champagne—is being sold on a self-service basis from supermarket shelves."

Another sign of the times is the big plunge into swimming pools. This year Americans will spend $160,000,000 for new dunking places. Steelways, the magazine of the American Iron and Steel Institute, says "Anyone who can afford a good second car can probably afford a good swimming pool."

"Don't know about that, but pools are certainly pooling their strength. At the end of World War II there were 8,000 of them in the country. In 1947 the figure was 11,000, with four-fifths of them public. By the beginning of this year authorities estimated there were 33,000 pools in the U. S., half of them privately owned. Some 7,200 are being built this year, of which more than two thirds will be home pools.

A fire hydrant would have sufficed in New York this past week.

Herbert Hoover was complaining the other day that it is next to impossible to kill a U. S. government agency that is operating at a loss and in competition with private enterprise.

"One of our commission task forces came across a Mississippi barge company that had been established in 1917 and had lost money every year," he said. "Year in and out it hauled goods at less than cost.

"The shippers were all for it," he added with an eye a-twinkle.

Jailbreakers Held on Murder Charge

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—Two convicts who struck and fatally injured two persons while driving a stolen prison station wagon in a futile escape attempt Saturday have been charged with suspicion of murder.

The convicts, Luther J. Masters, 33, and Harry L. Nelson, 27, set off a wild chase through Atlanta's southside by taking the station wagon and fleeing while on a work detail at the Dekalb County prison camp.

They struck 17-year-old Johnny Howell, who was riding a motorscooter, and Atlanta Patrolman Clyde L. Ellsberry, 27, who attempted to stop them on a motorcycle. Howell was dead on arrival at a hospital. Ellsberry died yesterday.

Resort City Police Guard 23 Churches

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—Fearing a firebug may be on the loose, authorities ordered an overnight police guard at 23 Negro churches after mystery blazes destroyed one and damaged another.

Officials of the big resort city, working on the possibility the two fires were deliberately set, questioned five Negroes yesterday, but later released them.

A $200,000 fire leveled the Negro Baptist temple late Saturday night and a second, smaller blaze damaged the interior of the Negro Second Baptist church eight hours later.

The name of Hell-to-Pay, Wash., founded in 1889 as a railroad camp, has evolved into Eltopia.

FAMOUS CHILDREN'S PAINTINGS—1

Gainsborough's Blue Boy

Children have been models for some of the world's greatest paintings.

One of the best known is called The Blue Boy, painted by Thomas Gainsborough, an English artist who lived 200 years ago. It gets its name from the clothing of the boy — a pale blue suit and a large plume hat, also blue. This sketch is taken from the famous original.

A youngster named Jonathan Buttall posed for the picture. Actually, the suit is not one that Jonathan probably wore. He was the son of a hardware dealer, and—most likely wore the much simpler clothing of most other boys of his time.

The Blue Boy painting was purchased by the Duke of Westminster, then sold again and brought to the United States. Today it hangs in the Huntington Art Gallery in San Marino, Calif.

Color today's picture as you think it should be, and save it for a collection of famous paintings of children.

Death Has 3 Lives

by Brett Halliday

Distributed by NEA Service, Inc.

THE STORY: Deeply involved in a series of murders, private dective Michael Shayne and his reporter friend, Tim Rourke, go to the morgue to see the latest victim. Meanwhile, Lucy Hamilton, Mike's attractive secretary, has been kidnapped by the murderer.

XXIV

There was one night attendant on duty in the anteroom of the morgue when the detective and reporter got there. He sat dozing behind a scarred desk with a bright droplight directly overhead. He yawned widely and showed a gap where two front teeth were missing when he grinned recognition of Shayne and Rourke.

"You two ghouls again, eh? Been months since I seen either of you."

"You have got the woman who was drowned in Biscayne Bay tonight?" Shayne asked.

"O yeh. She's the only fresh un. You boys come down to identify her?"

"To take a look and see if we can."

"Have tuh put your names down right here." The attendant produced two cards and picked up a pen. "You know the rules good as I do. Lemme see, now. . ." He made a pretext of scratching his bald head in perplexity, glancing up shyly at the redhead.

"Seems like I had oughtta remember your name from somewheres. Seen your picture in the papers, maybe?"

Shayne said goodnaturedly, "President Eisenhower and the mayor of New York. That'll look good in your records. Which box is she in?"

"No. 4, Mr. President," said the little man gleefully. "I knew I'd seen that mug of yours somewheres."

Shayne shrugged and he and Rourke went down a passageway to a heavy door opening onto a flight of stairs leading down into the concrete-lined coldroom.

The air in the small square room was dank and very chill. Although it was pure and aircönditioned, it never seemed to lose its indefinable odor. There were two white enamel tables in the center of the room, a bank of white, oversize filing cabinets along one wall. Each cabinet had three drawers, six feet long and about three feet square, with consecutive numbers neatly stenciled on the front of each.

LOOK AT BODY

Shayne drew in a deep breath and seized the handle of the top drawer in the second row and pulled it out. A white cloth covered the naked body of the woman he had last seen in Rourke's company at the tourist cabin when she hesitanly disavowed recognition of Jack Bristow.

Neither man wasted more than one glance at the face. In the bright overhead light, a welt on her stomach showed clearly. Both had seen the scars left by an operation for appendicitis, and to their nonprofessional eyes, this looked typical and had the appearance of being rather recent.

Shayne pulled the cloth over the body and shoved the drawer shut. "So that really doesn't prove anything except that we can't say she isn't Mrs. Allerdice. Doc Martin will have made a preliminary investigation. We can ask him how long ago the operation was, but it's my guess it was about the right time."

"Mine, too," agreed Rourke as they turned back to climb the stairs. "What's our next move?"

This was decided for them before Shayne had an opportunity to reply. When they reentered the anteroom, they saw Chief Will Gentry and Doc Martin, ranking police surgeon of Miami, standing in front of the desk in conversation with the bald man.

Gentry rocked back on his heels and regarded them balefully as they approached.

"Where's Lucy Hamilton, Mike? I want her down here."

"Lucy Hamilton?" Shayne didn't have to simulate the surprise in his voice. "In bed, I guess. What you want her for?"

"I think you know, Mike." Gentry's voice was uncompromising. "And she isn't at home. At least, she doesn't answer her phone."

Shayne stiffened. He said, "I don't know, Will. Tim and I left her there half an hour ago, and I told her to get some sleep."

"Don't give me a run-around." Gentry's face was choleric, his voice heavy with suppressed anger. "If you're hiding her out so she can't come down here to tell us whether or not this woman is Arlene Bristow, it'll mean your license."

'HOLD IT, WILL'

"Hold it, Will." Shayne's voice was even, but it became hard to match the Chief's accusation. "I haven't lied to you. Certainly not about Lucy. If she isn't at home I'm more worried about her than you are."

Gentry pounded at him. "Why did you and Tim make a trip down here unless it was to see if she answered Lucy's description of Jack Bristow's sister?"

"Because we wondered if she might be someone else." Shayne looked past Gentry to the police surgeon. "You notice that scar on her tummy, Doc?"

"The appendectomy?"

"How recent would you say?"

Dr. Martin shrugged. "Within the last six months at least. I wasn't aware it was relevant when I examined her.

"Will you swear she isn't Arlene Bristow?" demanded Gentry.

"Why no. I never saw Miss Bristow.

"But Lucy could swear to it?"

"I presume so. I believe she knew the girl fairly well a few years back. See here, Will, what possible reason have you for thinking she might be Arlene?

"From now on, youre going to be answering questions instead of asking them," was the police chiefs uncompromising reply. He turned back to the man behind the desk. "You were just about to tell us about some other parties who have been in tonight to see her? (To Be Continued)

Important thought to keep in mind:

If you want to keep the new engine under that hood as clean as it is today, use that great new Super-Refined Gulf NO-NOX—the clean-burning gasoline . . . and its super-refined teammate, new Gulfpride H.D. Select Motor Oil.

New Gulf No-Nox Gasoline delivers not just the highest octane but full working octane...because it's super-refined to burn clean

NO GASOLINE, no matter how high the octane, will let your engine deliver full power performance—mile after mile—unless it burns clean.

That's why it pays to always use new Gulf NO-NOX. NO-NOX is the clean-burning fuel that gives you full working octane day in, day out. In addition, you get . . .

GULF

- more complete engine protection
- extra gas mileage in short-trip, stop-and-go driving
- freedom from vapor-lock, engine stumbling and stalling
- no knock, no pre-ignition—even in today's high-compression engines

See what a difference Gulf super-refining makes. Gulf takes out the "dirty-burning tail-end" of gasoline—at the refinery—to bring you new, clean-burning Gulf NO-NOX.

Now! For the ultimate in working octane performance, always use Gulf's super-refined gas-oil team...

New Gulf No-Nox Gasoline and

New Gulfpride H.D. Select Motor Oil

The only motor oil super-refined by the Alchlor Process for modern high-compression engines.

- Controls carbon
- Combats corrosive acids, rust and deposits
- Assures lower oil consumption
- Provides the toughest protective film ever developed in a motor oil

Available in 3 grades—SAE 10W, SAE 20/20W, SAE 30.

College Caretaker Slips 'Arty' Painting Into Traveling Exhibit; Fools 'Em Good

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Some people may excuse modern art—if it needs an excuse—on the art for art's sake theory, but there's one man at Peabody College who won't excuse it.

He calls it "art, for gosh sake?"

What's more, Roy Appleton, Peabody's superintendent of buildings and grounds, has taken exceedingly colorful action on the matter.

Herein hangs the solution of the case of the fake painting discovered last week replacing one of the paintings in a traveling exhibit which opened at the college museum June 17.

The work, signed "King Malusston 53," didn't fool everybody who saw it, but most visitors apparently accepted it as genuine.

Two students were told there was a fake in the lineup yesterday, and only one guessed correctly which it was.

A few visitors "thought there was something wrong" about the daubed canvas, and others thought it didn't belong with the rest of the exhibit.

One of Peabody's most famous professors quickly spotted the fake just as quickly guessed the artist and joined the fun.

He started visiting the gallery frequently sometimes accompanied by friends. At Appleton's painting, he would say seriously, "This one kind of does something to me."

He reported his companions would solemnly nod their heads, unaware that they were looking at an artful dig at sensitive artists, art critics and unknowing art lovers.

"I did it," Appleton said, "because I was tired of seeing this stuff they call art. Ninety per cent of the people who go in there and look at the stuff don't know what's good or bad about it.

"It's just like me. I go to the Grand Ole Opry (radio station WSM's Saturday night hillbilly show). Now I can't tell when those fellows stop tuning up their instruments and start playing."

Was this Appleton's first effort at painting?

"Oh, no," he declared. "I've painted roofs, signs, houses."

Appleton whipped up his painting Saturday, June 25, in less than a day, using yellow paint meant for highway centerlines, plus roof paint and numerous shades of house paint — plus some roof cement to give it that cracked look.

He had some help from his son, Charles, 17, who explained his part in the job this way:

"I stood behind him while he did the painting. Every time whatever he was doing started to look like something, I'd say, 'Stop there.' Then he'd go on to another part of the canvas with another color."

Appleton explains the signature on the painting this way:

"Roy, you know, means king in French, and Malus is the botanical name for the genus of trees typified by the apple tree. So all I had to do was add a 'ton.'

"The only fake thing about the picture is the date 53. I had to do that to give it some antiquity."

Will Discuss Layoff Pay

Hunters Creek Father of 9, Brother Drown

Tragedy Ends Picnic at Lake

Harry, Otto Schalau Dead, LaVern Rescued as Boat Overturns

HUNTERS CREEK—A gay family picnic came to a tragic end Sunday night when two Hunters Creek brothers, one the father of nine children, were drowned in the weedy waters of Lake Minnawanna, five miles west of here.

Otto Schalau, 50, and Harry Schalau, 40, died while trying to swim to shore when their rowboat overturned about 100 feet from land.

A third brother, LaVern, 35, escaped when onlookers rowed a boat to where he was struggling in the water and threw him a lifebelt.

Harry leaves nine children, all between the ages of one year and 17. An employe of Fisher Body Division, Pontiac, Harry and his wife, Mildred, had been living on and buying a 120-acre farm in order to provide a living for their large family.

Otto was a bachelor. LaVern, who escaped, also is married and the father of six.

PARENTS LIVING

The brothers are the first in a family of 11 to die. Their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schalau of Imlay City, are living.

"I don't know how the accident happened," LaVern said.

"We were fishing. I was baiting my hook and suddenly I found myself in the water.

"We all started to swim for shore. Otto was about 25 feet from land when I saw him look back for Harry. Then he went down.

* * *

"The water was very weedy—I don't think I'd have made it if someone hadn't rowed out and thrown me a lifebelt.

NINE CHILDREN WEEP

"Harry's wife was in a state of shock when she heard. The children are all crying. I don't know how they'll make out with their dad gone and nine mouths to feed.

"My six were luckier."

Authorities recovered the bodies of the two brothers after dragging the lake bottom for three hours.

Funeral services are pending at Smith Funeral Home, Imlay City.

Besides his wife and brothers and sisters, Harry Schalau leaves six sons and three daughers. Walter, 1½; Karen 4; Edward, 7; Linda, 8; Mildred, 10; Richard, 11; Gregory, 12; Paul, 14; and Harry, 16.

Officer Jails Wife; She Hangs Herself

HARRISON, N.J., (AP)—Arrested by her police lieutenant husband on his disorderly person complaint, Mrs. Edna O'Connor hanged herself in a jail cell yesterday.

Authorities said the 41-year-old woman, wife of Lt. Peter A. O'Connor and mother of two children, was found hanging from a bed sheet knotted on a window crank in the cell.

A police surgeon's efforts to revive her were futile.

Police said Mrs. O'Connor was lodged in the detention room early Sunday morning after her husband filed a disorderly complaint against her because of a noisy quarrel he said "caused lights to pop on all over the neighborhood."

County Deaths

Louis O. Wilson

WHITE LAKE TOWNSHIP — Service for Louis Oscar Wilson, 71, of 10444 Elizabeth Lake Rd., will be held at 2 p. m. Tuesday in the Kalamo Methodist Church, Kalamo, with burial in the Kalamo Cemetery. Mr. Wilson, who died Saturday night, will be at the C. J. Godhardt Funeral Home, Keego Harbor, until Tuesday morning.

MR. and MRS. HARRY GOODELL

Clarkston Couple Wed in Rites at Waterford

CLARKSTON—A recent morning ceremony at Our Lady of the Lakes Church, Waterford, united in marriage Carrol Ann Topham and Harry Allen Goodell, both of Clarkston.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roderick Topham of 6185 Paramus Dr., and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Goodell of 2516 Leach Rd.

Carrol Ann's costume was of white lace and tulle over satin, with the skirt caught at intervals with lilies of the valley. Lilies of the valley and tulle formed the fingertip veil, and she carried a prayer book with three green orchids and white roses in a fall-away arrangement.

Betty Goodell was maid of honor for her sister and Mona Keelean and Ila Grable were bridesmaids.

Attendants for the bridegroom were Ronald Jorgenson of Pontiac, best man, and Bill Maiers of Pontiac and Dean Parsons of Gingelville, ushers.

Some 350 guests attended the reception, held at the VFW Hall on Walton Boulevard, Drayton Plains.

The newlyweds will live at 5531 Clinton River Dr., Crescent Lake, after returning from a Northern Michigan honeymoon.

Royal Oak Man Pleads Innocent

Place John Wigle Under Bond for Examination in Joan Gizinski Death

DETROIT (AP) — John Wigle, 29, of Royal Oak, whose car was involved in the hide-and-seek game parking lot death of a girl, pleaded innocent to negligent homicide today.

Wigle, arraigned in traffic court, was placed under $1,000 bond for examination in September.

The girl, Joan Gizinski, 19, of Detroit, was killed at 4:45 a.m. Friday as she hid between two parked trailer vans in a truck lot.

Wigle's car backed into one of the vans. Wigle had taken Joan and two other girls for a ride. He said they were playing their game among the vans in the lot.

Holly Police Starting Car Safety Checks

HOLLY — Police Chief James Parker has announced that free automobile safety checks will be conducted on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week from 4 to 7 p.m. each day.

Assisted by his regular and reserve officers, he will cover all essential safety points on cars driven through the checking locations.

Plan New Well for Rochester

Village Taking Action on Trees Infected With Dutch Elm Disease

ROCHESTER—Village Manager Robert Slone was authorized to arrange for enginering plans for another water well for Rochester at a recent meeting of the Village Council.

The new well, to be drilled at Water Works Park, will be used primarily for emergency purposes, officials said. At present there is no acute water shortage in the village.

The council also announced that 17 trees in the village were discovered to have the destructive Dutch elm disease.

Three elm trees on village property already have been cut down. The remaining 14, belonging to private property owners, will have to be destroyed, Slone said.

In other action, the council authorized the installation of curb, gutter and storm sewer on Terry street.

Next regular meeting of the council will be at 7:30 p.m. Monday.

Milkman Adopting Japanese Children

YPSILANTI (AP) — A new life opened this week for two 7-year-old Japanese children adopted by a Michigan couple.

Kozo Yamaguchi, a boy, and Yoko Isono, a girl, were adopted by Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence I. Scott Jr. from a Catholic orphanage in Yokohama. The children arrived at their new home in Ypsilanti Saturday.

The Scotts, both 34, have three other children, one adopted.

They decided to adopt the Japanese youngsters after encountering difficulty in trying to adopt a second American child.

Scott is a milkman.

All wildlife is protected in the Great Smoky mountains national park where there are 50 fur-bearing species, 200 birds, 34 reptiles, 36 amphibians and 60 varieties of fish.

Rodeo Riders Shot to Death in Auto Court

WACO, Tex. (AP)—Two rodeo performers were shot fatally yesterday in a Waco motel.

A few hours later the estranged husband of one of the victims came to the Dallas County Sheriff's office with his attorney and was questioned until the early morning hours.

Bobby Royce Darby, 24, was killed instantly with two shots in the head from a small-caliber weapon. Mrs. Polly McGowan, 28, died several hours later from one gunshot wound in the head.

She recently had separated from her husband, Raymond F. McGowan, 49, and moved from Dallas to Waco.

Friends said Mrs. McGowan, a trick riding instructor, stopped at the motel about 10 a.m. to pick up Darby, one of her students.

* * *

The shooting occurred about noon, occupants of adjacent cabins at the motel said.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery

Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne*)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called *Preparation H. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug stores. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

Find Oxford Man Dead in Car

Business Leader, Former Township Treasurer, Is Victim of Heart Attack

OXFORD — Carl William Smith, 53, manager of a Lake Orion real estate office and former Oxford businessman, was found dead in his car parked off M24 just north of Indianwood Road in Orion Township Saturday afternoon.

Death was attributed to a heart attack. Smith, of 70 Pontiac St., Oxford, operated a hardware store here for 20 years and later a gas station.

He was a former Oxford Township treasurer. Smith was a member of St. Mary of the Hills Episcopal Church, the Knights of Pythias and held life membership in the Oakland County Sportman's Club.

He was born in Addison Township, the son of Thomas D. and Nettie Nash Smith.

He leaves his wife, Grace, one son, Jerry, and his mother, Mrs. Nettie Nash all of Oxford. Two sisters, Mrs. Harold Campbell of Oxford and Mrs. Herbert Berg of Lansing also survivie.

Service will be at 2 p.m. Tuesday, at the Flumerfelt Funeral Home, followed by burial in Ridgelawn Cemetery.

Pentagon Takes Fight to Senate

Defense Aides to Tell Why Reserve Program Should Be Okayed

WASHINGTON (AP)—Pentagon officials carried to the Senate today their fight for an expanded military reserve, including compulsory training for peacetime veterans.

The Senate Armed Services Committee, which is considering the measure, arranged to hear the Defense Department's arguments as it started a final day of testimony.

Carter L. Burgess, assistant secretary of defense for manpower, was first on the list of civilian and military witnesses called from the Pentagon.

A prime point at issue is a proposal by Chairman Russell (D-Ga) to eliminate compulsory training for veterans and offer instead a $400 bonus to those who volunteer for duty in Army and Marine Corps reserve combat units.

Burgess made it clear in advance of his appearance that the administration does not favor Russell's proposal.

"It does not provide the insurance we need at this time," Burgess said in an interview.

That remark followed a statement, made by Secretary of Defense Wilson before Russell announced his plan, that "we cannot leave to chance the supply of experienced personnel who will provide the hard core of our reserve."

As passed by the House, the bill would permit recall for 45 days of active duty of any reservist who failed to carry out the training requirements.

'Old Timers' Will Gather at Rochester

ROCHESTER — The "Old Timers" here will gather for their annual picnic at the Avon Park Pavilion Sunday.

Picnic dinner will begin at noon, with a short business session to follow. Persons attending are requested to bring their own table service, dish of food to pass, and sandwiches. Coffee will be served by the social committee.

Lewis W. Curtis, president of the group, is urging all old timers to attend. Attendance last year, he said, was 100.

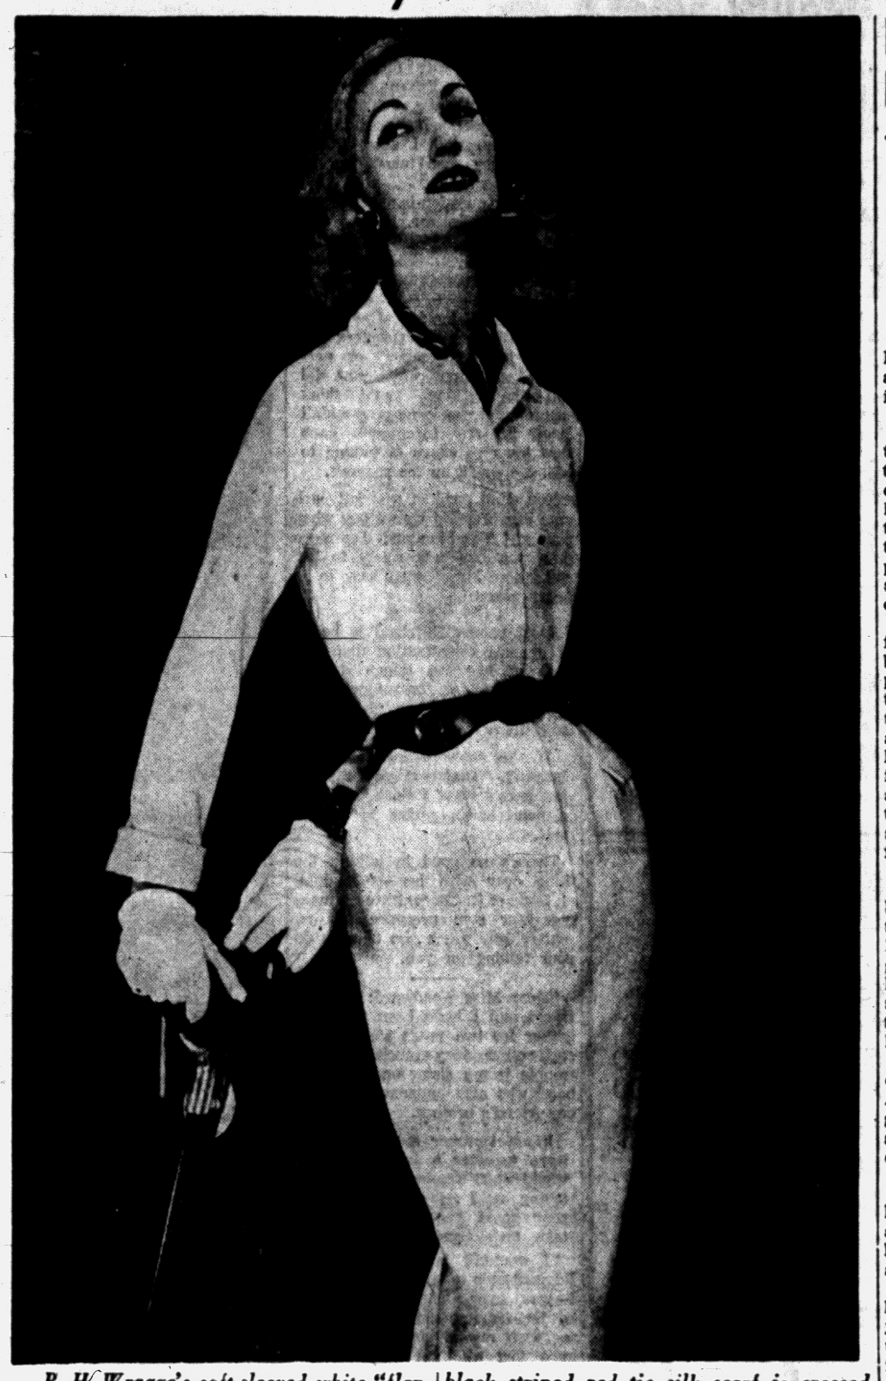
Lithe, Lissome Apparel Is Fall Keynote for Milady

Maurice Rentner presents in his fall 1955 evening collection, gowns worthy of a "command performance." Imported silk organza is used with a lavish hand for this creation and ingeniously draped into countless folds. The full, full skirt features a short front descending towards the back emphasizing the fluidity of graceful lines.



B. H. Wragge's soft-sleeved white "flannel cloth" day dress with fly front closing is designed for fall and winter. A gold and black striped red tie silk scarf is crossed in the neckline. The belt is black leather with English coins.

Long Lines Enable All to Seem Tall

Elongated Clothes Enhance Average Female Figure

By DOROTHY ROE
AP Women's Editor

NEW YORK (AP)—The long, lithe, lissome look is the thing for fall, and even pint-size women are going to have to start looking tall.

It's surprisingly easy to do with the new slim, elongated clothes that New York designers have cooked up for fashion buying public. Since there are few distractions to break the flowing lines of the new silhouette and since proportions have been carefully considered, it's possible to feel tall even if you are only five feet two.

Mrs. Five-by-Five may have difficulty with the new fall fashions, but the average woman will be pleased to discover she can wear the long-torso silhouette, the tunic, the tubular sheath and other standard equipment of the newest new look. The reason for the wearability of the new silhouettes, which at first looked strange and extreme, is the skill of American designers in adapting almost any new fashion to flattering lines.

The first furor over vanishing bosoms and waistlines has proved the usual tempest in a teapot. Bosoms are with us still, less exaggerated and slightly raised. Waistlines are slim and supple, skillfully sheathed and fully apparent, even though belts may be around the hips or under the bust.

Christian Dior changes the name of his A-line to the more scholarly Alpha Line this fall but the ingredients are the same—narrow shoulders, jacket and skirt sloping out toward the hemline.

The accent is on the costume look for fall, with sheath dresses and matching jackets or full length coats the accepted outfit for almost any time of day.

Jackets may be almost any length, from brief boleros ending just below the bust to ⅞ length tubular coats showing only a few inches of skirt below.

Some of the most striking evening gowns are full length sheaths with long tight sleeves and deeply scooped necklines.

Fur trimmings are all over the place, used on everything from suits to cocktail gowns.

Brown is important as a dress-up color for fall, in all tones, from tawny beige to deep black coffee shades.

Hemline interest is seen throughout New York designer collections for fall of 1955. Fashions of top designers are being previewed this week in New York.

Elongated but fitted at the waistline—Mollie Parnis' fall 1955 cocktail dress of black silk taffeta is beaded in jet around the wide-scooped neckline and again at the hipline. The hat is by Lilly Dache.

Hoods make day and evening news in New York collections for fall and winter of 1955. Fashion editors are previewing the collections of top designers in New York this week.

Straight-across necklines are seen throughout collections of New York's leading designers this week as fashion editors preview the fall fashions.

Slim Choker to Replace Heavy Ropes

NEW YORK (INS)—You'll have to shorten your "ropes" to stay in style with fall jewelry.

The "rope" necklace is out.

And the small choker or dogcollar is in.

The same "slim and elegant" motif which highlights new fall clothes also marks new jewelry. Instead of long ropes of beads and multiple strand necklaces, the emphasis now is on the delicate single necklace that fits high around the neckline.

The only bulky necklaces shown fashion editors by Trifari were those with an "oriental" motif—chunky gold bibs a la Cleopatra. But even those fit like chokers.

The new collection by Trifari features the "real jewel" look—fake gems and pseudo diamonds set in small, ladylike patterns.

Typical of the jewelry look for fall are the new versions of the favored pearl necklace. Instead of massive ropes, you have small, single-strand pearl necklaces gently spaced with pinpoint rhinestones. The few bigger, baroque type pearl necklaces shown emphasize color—black or gray pearls—rather than size.

Reading Gives Understanding

CHICAGO (UP)—Children must read with understanding or it's not reading at all, a speech expert believes.

"Insist on reading for meaning," Dr. Edward W. Delch, former professor of education of the University of Illinois, told a summer school class at National College of Education.

"Pronouncing letters or groups of letters is not reading," Delch said. "Reading means thinking the thought of the author after him."

Delch, author of several books in his field, said that above all parents and teachers must realize the enormous differences which exist between different children.

"There are variations not only in mental age but in the ability to hear sounds," Delch said. "Consequently the best way to teach reading to children is to use the method and go at the pace which each individual child requires."

Afternoon Bridal Shower Honors Carol Ann Doyle

Carol Ann Doyle, bride-elect of Gerald P. Arnold, was honored Sunday afternoon at a bridal shower given by Mrs. Raymond Howard of West Longfellow avenue.

Carol is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Doyle Jr., of South Cass Lake road and the prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Rowden of Hudson avenue.

First Methodist Church will be the setting for the wedding ceremony to be performed at 7:30 p.m. Aug. 6, by the Rev. Paul R Havens.

Marjorie L. Doyle will attend her sister as maid of honor and bridesmaids will be Gail Lewis and Charlotte Chamberlin.

Charlie Arnold Jr., brother of the bridegroom, will be best man. Seating the guests will be Tom Weber and Raymond Howard.

SHOWER GUESTS

Guests at the shower were Mrs. Doyle, Mrs. Rowden, Mrs. Steve Kyriacou, Sue Harrison, Mrs. William Hyde, Mrs. Frank Uden, Mrs. William Shepherd and Mrs. Vern Hicks.

Others were Mrs. Frank Hicks, Mrs. Orville Quick, Miss Doyle, Mrs. John Bridgewater, Sheena Grubb, Mrs. Maynard Newman, Betty Quick, Mrs. Leon Glynn, Miss Chamberlain, Miss Lewis Mrs. Henry Healy, Sue Healy, Mrs. John Sheridan, and Mrs. Charles Boshears.

Attend Funeral

Mr. and Mrs. Rick Thompson and children, Marsha and Sue of Elm street have returned from Crestview, Fla., after attending the funeral of Mr. Thompson's father, William E. Thompson.

Girls Naturally Resent Stepmother

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

Mr. W.'s two young daughters have been attending boarding school since their mother's death two years ago. Now he plans remarriage.

Several Sundays ago, he drove the lady to the children's school to meet them. Though he didn't introduce her as a future stepmother, they sensed that she might be. They went out of their way to slight her. His older child was frankly rude.

Mr. W. asks me: "Has this marriage, so opposed by the girls, any chance of happiness for us?"

A poor chance, I'd say—if Mr. W. is going to be so impressed by his children's opposition.

Why is he? Why is he so overawed by it? Why the resignation to the "No" of his youngsters as though they were granite gods, unchanging and immovable?

Perhaps Mr. W. doesn't want to marry this lady as whole-heartedly as he believes. And in the normal, initial opposition of his daughters has found the denial he wants to evade a marriage he himself opposes.

HIS OWN PROBLEM

If so, it would be wise to know it. Only then can he see that his problem is not the children's resistance, but his own.

There's nothing to fear in children's first resistance to a prospective stepparent.

Take these two. They have lost their mother to death. They see their father rarely—and do not share his life. But the hope of sharing it is what keeps them going.

Now, without warning, they're presented to a stranger who is also hoping to share his life. She has the advantages of sexual influence and adult experience.

HOW TO PROCEED

They'd be amazing children not to suspect this lady of intending the same, absolute separation from their father.

If we understand this, we know how to proceed. We take the steps that expose this fear of absolute separation as unfounded. For example, Mr. W.'s lady might make it her business to visit these future daughters of hers alone, refusing to intrude on their time with their father.

She would find other chances to efface herself as a fighting competitor for his total love and attention until the children have stopped seeing her as one.

But such action would, of course, have to presuppose such trust of happiness in this marriage that both adults could forget it—and to go to work on the children's trust.

It doesn't seem to exist, does it? Mr. W. seems doubtful of the lady's power to make him happy. This indicates doubt of his power to make her happy, and may explain his too-discouraged response to his children's critical judgment of the lady.

Don't Let Friend Do Your Talking for You

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

"Dear Miss Woodward: I travel around a lot with this girl—but she acts as if I'm a little child that she has to take care of. Every time we meet a boy that I'm interested in, and I start talking to him, she soon takes over the conversation.

"When a question is asked of me, she answers for me. It looks as if she's making sure I don't get into the conversation. Will you please give me some advice?"

Answer: If the two of you girls bumped into a boy (whether you liked him particularly or not) and kept mum while you did all the talking, you'd think something was wrong, wouldn't you? In any threesome, each has his own share of talking to do. So speak up for yourself.

You can't conduct a strictly private conversation with a boy when your girl friend is along. Any more than you can talk solely to her and ignore him. Things have to be fairly general.

So if your girl friend is better at general conversation than you are, let her get things started, while you add to the subject, comment on what she says, and bounce from there to something else.

If she answers for you, say brightly, "That may go for you, but here's what I think." Make a point of answering for yourself.

There's no good in talking the thing over with her—or making an issue of it. Concentrate on making your own presence felt no matter how much she tries to do your talking for you.

"Dear Miss Woodward: My boy friend and I have been going together for two years and we like each other very much. My big trouble is my sister and her husband who also happens to be my boy friend's brother.

"Last summer the four of us were together a lot. My sister would start fussing at me and telling me I was childish and a poor sport because I couldn't take their teasing.

"I wouldn't talk back to her, I'd just keep quiet, then she'd say I was mad. Then she'd tease harder, saying that she couldn't see what my boy friend could see in a girl who got mad all the time.

"I want to keep away from her as much as possible 'cause I'm not going to have her treating me like that again. Do you think we should go with them this summer, or keep our distance?"

Answer: It's going to be hard to avoid family dates this summer, so you may as well make up your mind to face the teasing and weather the storm. Your trouble is that you take yourself very seriously and you're concerned about the impression you're making on your boy friend.

So why not relax and ride along with the wave? Snap back cheerfully when you're teased instead of sulking in silence. Do a little harmless teasing of your own.

And don't forget that you're a year older—and just that much farther away from being a child.

Flora Shelly Group Holds July Meeting

The July meeting of the Flora Shelly Group of the First Presbyterian Church was held at the summer home of Mrs. Allan H. Monroe at Watkins Lake recently.

Dinner was served to 21 members and three guests, Mrs. William H. Marbach, Mrs. Gelston V. Poole and Mrs. Hugh A. Little.

Assisting the hostess were Jessie Axford, Florence Day and Amy Brackstone.

Sara L. Bridson Weds Donald H. Ball

Honeymooning for two weeks at Canada Creek Ranch in northern Michigan are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Harry Ball.

The bride is the former Sara Louise Bridson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo James Bridson of Oliver street. The bridegroom is the son of Harry E. Ball of Gladstone Place and the late Mrs. Ball.

First Congregational Church was the setting for the Saturday evening wedding ceremony performed at eight o'clock by the Rev. Malcolm K. Burton. Candelabra and arrangements of white flowers and palms decorated the altar.

A gown of Chantilly lace over satin was worn by the bride. The gown was fashioned in princess lines with empire waistline, sculptured "V" neckline and short, sweep train.

Seed pearls formed the headpiece which secured her illusion veil, edged with Chantilly lace. A cascade arrangement of white glamelias and variegated ivy, centered with Cavalier rosebuds, was carried by the bride.

BRIDAL ATTENDANTS

Mrs. Roy E. Ball was matron of honor wearing ballerina length gown of white Schiffli embroidered nylon organdy over peacock blue taffeta. She carried a fan arrangement of yellow rosebuds and white baby chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Charles R. Buell of Birmingham and Mrs. William Searle, cousin of the bride, wore identical gowns of white Schiffli embroidered nylon organdy over blush pink taffeta.

Their fan arrangements of flowers were red rosebuds and white baby chrysanthemums. They wore matching floral crownettes in their hair.

Kathleen Ball, niece of the bridegroom, wore a yellow, nylon dress trimmed with lace for her duties as flower girl. She carried a basket of red rosebuds and white chrysanthemums with matching crownette.

Roy E. Ball served as his brother's best man and seating the guests were Clarence E. Ball, also a brother of the bridegroom, and Robert C. Bridson and Frederick B. Bridson, brothers of the bride.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony in the church parlors.

WEARS PRINT SILK

The bride's mother wore a dove gray, navy and white print silk dress with white and navy accessories. Her white corsage was composed of rosebuds and carnations.

When the couple left on their wedding trip, the new Mrs. Ball was wearing a Moygashel Irish linen suit with toast and brown accent threads. White accessories and a corsage of Cavalier rosebuds completed her ensemble.

The couple will reside with the bridegroom's father until their new home on Silver Bell road is completed. Mrs. Ball is a graduate of Wayne University College of Nursing where she was a member of Sigma Theta Tau, national honor society in nursing.

MRS. DONALD HARRY BALL

Sara Louise Bridson and Donald Harry Ball were married Saturday evening at First Congregational Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo James Bridson of Oliver street, and he is the son of Harry E. Ball of Gladstone place and the late Mrs. Ball.

A poor appetite and a good expense account are seldom found together.

Housewife Finds Her Niche in Art

By ANNE HEYWOOD

"I have a fascinating hobby," a young mother writes, "and, while I am not yet making money out of it, it looks as though I will before I am finished.

"It came about in the most peculiar way. I always wanted to be an artist, a painter, so when I finished high school, I entered an art class.

"After the first year, I was told, in a nice way, that I wasn't particularly talented.

"I had dreamed of doing very modernistic paintings. I adore them. In the museum, they look so easy, but I learned, fast enough, that painting them isn't as easy as it looks.

"I gave up trying, but, in the back of my mind, I still thought I had the makings of a good modern painter.

HUSBAND, CHILDREN

"I soon married a wonderful guy and had two children. The youngest is now just 8 months old. And still the idea of painting didn't leave me.

"Once a week, John's mother comes over to look after the children and gives me a day to myself. Instead of going to a movie or shopping, I would haunt the museums. John kidded me about it, but I still couldn't get it out of my system.

"Then," she continues "one day I saw a wonderful collection of mobiles. They were so colorful, so modern looking, and they were just made out of plastics, wood, cork and metals.

"I decided then and there that I would make a mobile for the baby's room. I got odds and ends of materials around the house and sketched a design. Then I made it up—not too skillfully, but the effect was terrific.

"We hung it over the baby's crib and he adores it. It is a kind of modernistic circus, with silly looking animals, the like of which has yet to be seen. But the colors are good, if I say so myself, and everybody thinks it's exceptionally attractive.

"Next, I began collecting materials from all over and making more mobiles. I gave my sister's child one for her birthday. She loved it, too. My friends are beginning to ask for them for their children's rooms.

MOBILE SPECIALIST

"I know it sounds silly, but I'm beginning to be a specialist in mobiles for children and I love doing it.

"They can be as wildly modernistic as you want and the effects are charming. And I bet before long, somebody will be buying my mobiles for children's shops!"

MRS. ELMO C. JONES

Joyce Elaine Perry became the bride of Elmo C. Jones Saturday evening in the First Presbyterian Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Perry of State street and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jones Sr. of Collingwood avenue are the parents of the bridegroom.

Presbyterian Rite Unites Joyce Perry, Elmo Jones

Before an altar banked with bouquets of white flowers, palms and greens, Joyce Elaine Perry became the bride of Elmo C. Jones at the First Presbyterian Church Saturday evening.

Dr. William H. Marbach performed the ceremony at 7:30 in the presence of 200 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Perry of State avenue, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jones Sr. of Collingwood avenue.

The bride's floor length gown was of French lace over a voluminous skirt of nylon tulle. Shirred nylon tulle with scalloped lace motif fashioned the neckline. Her fingertip nylon veil was held in place by a Juliet cap of tulle and seed pearls.

Wearing pearl necklace and earrings, the bride carried a prayer book with a white orchid, ivy and stephanotis.

ATTEND BRIDE

Mrs. Bruce Ferguson was matron of honor and other attendants were Patricia Campbell and Cecil Harper, of Cleveland, Ohio. They were all in blue net, floor length gowns, with bouffant skirts, lace jackets and short white gloves. They carried carnations and roses in nosegay arrangements.

Robert C. Kelley was best man and the ushers were William F. Hook of Flint, Raymond Campbell, Robert Terry and Layne VanderHock.

Immediately following the wedding a reception was held in the church parlors.

CHANGES TO NAVY

Navy blue cotton with white accessories was chosen by the bride for a going - away costume. She was also wearing the corsage from her wedding bouquet.

The bride's mother wore a cocktail length gown of gray lace over pink taffeta and a pink carnation corsage. A white dress and pink carnations were worn by the bridegroom's mother.

Men Callers May Visit Sitting Room

Woman Residing in Hotel Asks Where to Receive Guests

By EMILY POST

A question of propriety is asked in this letter: "May an unmarried businesswoman of middle age, living in an apartment hotel, receive a man of her own age and station, with whom she has long been acquainted, in her own sitting room, and visit and have tea with him there, no one else being present, or should she receive him only in the public sitting room of the hotel, and dine or have tea with him only in the public dining room or restaurant?

"If he may be received in her apartment, may he take the elevator and go directly there, if he knows that she is at home, or should he go first to the desk and have the clerk announce him on the telephone?"

Answer: If you have a sitting room of your own you can receive both women and men friends in it, taking it for granted that your friends are proper. You cannot receive a man very late at night, but in the afternoon or early evening it is quite all right. He takes the elevator and goes directly there.

"Dear Mrs. Post: When two couples are in an automobile, is it not bad manners for the couple in the back seat to carry on a private conversation? Shouldn't the conversation at all times be general and loud enough for both couples to hear?"

Answer: No, as it is often difficult for those in the back to hear what those in the front are saying —and vice versa.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Is it improper for the mothers of the bride and bridegroom to wear the same color dresses? I have bought a very pretty blue dress for the wedding, and I understand from my son that the bride also is planning to wear blue. He seems to think that I should choose another color."

Answer: No, each mother wears whatever color she prefers. If the same, it doesn't make any difference as they never sit together at church and rarely stand together at the reception.

U. S. to See Prosperity . . . Sloan

More Progress Almost Certain

Board Chairman of GM Sure American Way of Life Still Strong

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN

NEW YORK (INS)—Alfred Sloan Jr., one of the nation's foremost industrialists, foresees continued prosperity for America.

The chairman of the board of General Motors Corp., in an interview, said that in his opinion the present upsurge of business will go on "indefinitely."

"In the next 10 or 15 years," he predicted, "the national economy will be much bigger than it is now, although there may be some ups and downs along the way."

Sloan emphasized his belief that technological progress, through scientific research, will prove the real source of future economic progress. In his words:

"There can be no ceiling on opportunity if science continues to move forward."

SCIENCE GETS CREDIT

He added that modern science "has brought within the reach of more and more people more comforts and conveniences and more leisure and better opportunities."

I interviewed Sloan in his office at 30 Rockefeller Plaza. An extremely modest man, he seldom grants interviews.

In spite of his 80 years, he has retained all of his physical and mental vigor. He sat at his desk in shirt sleeves, toying with horn-rimmed glasses which he had removed as he talked.

IS MR. AUTOMOBILE

No man in America typifies "the automobile age" more than Sloan. His life story parallels the span of years during which the automobile has enjoyed its spectacular development.

For decades he ran General Motors, biggest industrial corporation in the world.

He is still a leading policy maker of this company which employs 630,000 people and whose annual sales run into billions of dollars.

He is tall, broad-shouldered and well-built. His skin is clear and tanned, his hair gray. An indomitable worker, he is so busy he budgets his time.

In response to a question, Sloan said that practically all lines of business are currently "operating at a high level of activity."

"I thing this is going to continue indefinitely, especially if Gen. Eisenhower runs again and is re-elected President," he said.

At this point Sloan emphasized that in no sense is he interested in politics, as such, and that he was not talking from a political viewpoint.

"Presidnt Eisenhower has established confidence among businesmen because he believes in an expanding developing economy," said Sloan. "That encourages business men to plan bigger things, for a greater future.

"I believe the Eisenhower administration is intelligent and aggresive and that it believes in the American way of doing things. I am sure Gen. Eisenhower is that type of individual. When I say this I am talking about sound economic policies and the promotion of a sound economy."

RESEARSH IS ANSWER

Asked if he believes scientific research is the real source of economic progress, Sloan quickly replied:

"It's the only source of economic progress. It's what keeps things going: Increasing basic knowledge through research."

Did he think the capitalistic system is the best system?

"I don't see how anyone could think otherwise, if he compares conditions in our country with other countries," he answered.

As an after-thought he remarked that the capitalistic system must, of course, be "operated intelligently, with fairness to all."

Is there any danger that big business will become too big, killing off smaller business?

"I don't thing the size of business has anything to do with its efficiency," he replied. "The efficiency of business depends upon how it is organized, the type of management it has, and the principles to which it adheres."

Sloan, during his career with GM, has been a distinct contrast to the "sledge-hammer" business personality of another era. He has been a thinker as well as a doer. He smoothed human relationships on a vast scale.

General Motors was built into one of the greatest industrial enterprises of all time on the principles Sloan established — decentralization of activities and of responsibility, under a coodinated central policy.

He has been with GM 59 years. He rose to the position of president in 1923 and served in this capacity 14 years.

He has been board chairman since 1937, although in 1946 he gave up the responsibilities of running the company. Harlow H. Curtice, president of GM, now carries the heavy responsibility. Sloan is also a member of the financial policy committee, one of the corporation's two top governing committees.

CURE FOR HEADACHES? — Forty-two-year-old Waldo Corthes suffers no headaches, and maybe even cures a couple, as he lets a Volkswagen auto run over his head with only a couple of small pillows to protect him. Of course a Volkswagen is not the biggest car around, but is there anyone in the audience who cares to change places with the German variety entertainer?

Is Russian Peace Talk Camouflage?

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—Unless this country has a spy in the Kremlin, President Eisenhower will probably go into the meeting a puzzled man when he sits down in Geneva a week from today with the British, French and Russians.

He'll be well coached on the details of any proposals he makes to the Russians, or any they are likely to throw at him. But what is apt to mystify him, unless he has extraordinary inside information, is why Russia has sounded reasonable lately.

Every time something happens in the Kremlin—a death, a shift in power, a purge—there's a spurt of wishful thinking in this country that now there'll be an explosion and an end to communism.

There's been another spurt in recent months because the Russians talked of wanting to end the cold war. Various wishful reasons have been offered: that they needed peace, due to a critical food shortage, and so on.

REDS ADVANCING

For people supposedly that wobbly, the Russians have made amazing scientific and industrial progress since the war. In the past year some Russian leaders have made statements critical of their own agriculture and industry.

True, that might be a frank acknowledgement of serious internal trouble. But the very frankness can also be interpreted as showing marked strength and confidence on the part of the Kremlin leaders. If they were in bad trouble, would they want to acknowledge it to their own people and outsiders? Hardly, if they were in real danger.

Last week Eisenhower said he knew of no one in the government who was suggesting the Russians were seeking peace because of weakness. By coincidence, the next day a congressional committee released the record of a hearing, held a month ago, at which Secretary of State Dulles said the Russian economy was collapsing.

The White House lost no time soft pedaling that the next day. "Collapse" is a colorful word which, when used about Russia, could not help but please members of Congress. Dulles is sometimes given to colorful words.

RUSSIAN SOFT SPOTS

But many of the men around Dulles are reported to feel that while Russia may have some soft spots, they are not necessarily of the kind that would force her to seek peace.

It would be just as reasonable, and perhaps more realistic, to assume the Russians are talking peace—provided they're at all sincere—from quite other motives:

A realization that their tough tactics have solidified the Western Allies while soft talk may split them, since all are eager for peace; a realization that in a hydrogen war, which gets closer every time the Russians get tougher, no one can win; and perhaps hope that a shift in tactics will keep Germany disarmed, a result they failed to attain by swagger and bluster.

The real question, whose answer won't be known until after the Geneva conference, at least, is this: are the Russians sincere at all in wanting peace?

Argentine Truce Jarred by Riots

Thirteen Police Hurt as Catholics Stage Demonstration

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—Argentina's uneasy church-state truce was jarred yesterday as police and firemen routed Catholic rioters staging their second anti-Peron demonstration in 24 hours.

The riot landed 13 policeman and firemen in hospitals and brought condemnation of the demonstrators from Santiago Cardinal Copello, ailing archbishop of Buenos Aires who has urged a peaceful course in the dispute.

Sixty persons were arrested but many were released after questioning.

In the first violence since the bloody June 16 revolt against President Juan Peron, more than 500 demonstrators milled through the Plaza de Mayo near the Metropolitan Cathedral. Police trying to disperse the crowd were stoned.

Defying church appeals for peace and Peron's own call for "pacification," the demonstrators jeered police and shouted "he must go" in an apparent reference to the President.

One woman screamed at police: "Why didn't you come when they were burning the churches?"

Firemen sprayed the rioters with chemical foam and brown-tinted water as police wagons rushed to the square.

Most of the crowd fled from the Plaza, but some gathered a few blocks away and marched toward the Naval Club Building, singing the national anthem. Four firetrucks were rushed up to scatter the marchers again with water sprays.

Sunday's riot broke out shortly after priests finished reading from their pulpits a letter from Cardinal Copello urging Catholics to refrain from provocative acts.

Interviewed last night at a sanitarium where he is being treated for injuries suffered in a fall last year, the primate said "he condemned" the attitude of those who call themselves Catholic and disturb the peace.

The Catholics were already under fire in the pro-government press for the demonstration they staged Saturday—Argentina's Independence Day—in which some 10,000 marchers took part. The papers accused the marchers, who were noisy but orderly, of breaking the truce Peron had called for last Tuesday.

Church leaders said the march was "completely unauthorized."

Snooping Editor of Confidential Protests Fame

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—New York editor Howard Rushmore, complaining that publicity given a trip he wanted to be secret has made his sources "clam up" flew back to Chicago today.

It's like "working in a gold fish bowl," he said.

Rushmore, a 6-5 200-pounder who is editor of Confidential, a bimonthly national magazine, popped up in Butte, Mont., under an assumed name Saturday. He said he was searching for a man he described as a top Communist leader.

But by then publicity about his being missing from Chicago had caught up with him, and he flew to Salt Lake City looking for another man.

He said the reports about his being missing were "all a big mistake." They arose when he failed to keep an appointment Friday with a Chicago detective.

He denied his disappearance was a publicity stunt.

He refused to identify the men he was seeking.

Stuntman Swims Handcuffed From Alcatraz Prison

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Musclem Jack LeLanne who last year swam the Golden Gate underwater, capped his aquatic feats yesterday by swimming handcuffed from just off Alcatraz to San Francisco's famed Fisherman's Wharf.

The physical culturalist, picking an infrequent favorable current, negotiated the two-mile distance in 56 minutes. He used a modified sidestroke and scissors kick.

LaLanne, of Oakland, crawled out of the water and then did 30 one-arm pushups to prove he could have gone farther.

Alcatraz Warden Paul J. Madigan said LaLanne's feat didn't prove that the federal island prison is not virtually escape proof.

"The water's too cold and the currents too swift," Madigan said. said.

Farmer Gives Up Dairy Herd to Expand Facilities for Uranium-Sitting Clinic

COMANCHE, Tex. (AP)—Jesse F. Reese is taking greenbacks out of some very poor uranium dirt these days. At first he was reluctant, but now he's gotten rid of his dairy herd to make room for the old folks.

He charges people $2 for the privilege of sitting in his uranium dirt for two hours. About 150 a day pay for room to sit. It once took Reese a considerable amount of milking to get that sort of money from his cows.

Reese discovered uranium on his farm two years ago, but not in commercial quantities. He forgot the matter.

Last September a stranger asked Reese if he could sit in his ditch. Seems he'd been taking radiation treatments for pains for rheumatism and thought he could get some help from the ditch while visiting Comanche relatives.

Reese told him to go ahead. The word spread. Soon sitters were trampling his fields and leaving gates open.

Reese thought he'd stop that bother. He declared anyone could sit in his dirt for $2 for 2 hours. He built a shed big enough for six persons to sit on benches. On the floors and behind sheetrock walls he piled dirt.

That didn't stop them. By June of this year people were standing in line. He expanded the shed to 10 times its original size. He's sold his dairy herd and will convert wife can get some rest, he's its barn to sitting. So he and his planning a 9 p.m. curfew.

Reese makes no claims and never has. He has each sitter sign a printed pledge saying he visited the farm voluntarily.

Korea Calls on U.S. to Tell Off Russians

SEOUL (AP)—South Korea's Foreign Minister Y. T. Pyun called upon President Eisenhower to tell Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin at Geneva:

"You Communists, let go your victims."

This "logically, should be the first American utterance" at the Big Four chiefs of state meeting next week, Pyun told a news conference.

Ike Back in Capital

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower return to the White House last night after spending the weekend at his Gettysburg, Pa., farm home.

Ike Appoints Negro to Executive Post

WASHINGTON (AP) — Everett Frederick Morrow, a Negro, moved into a key managerial post in President Eisenhower's executive offices today. He is the first of his race to hold a job of that caliber there.

The White House announced Saturday Morrow's appointment as administrative officer for the special projects group, which includes units planning foreign policy, foreign economic policy, publicworks and disarmament. The post pays between $12,000 and $13,000 a year.

Morrow, a native of Hackensack, N.J., has been an adviser on business affairs to Secretary of Commerce Weeks since September 1953.

301 Young Men: Air Force Academy's First Class

LOWRY AIR FORCE BASE, Colo. (NEA)—Never will 301 young men stand better chances of ending up generals.

They are the members of the first class of the new Air Force Academy sworn in today.

The fact that they are the first officers trained and educated from the start in the tradition and missions of the U.S. Air Force will obviously weigh heavily in aiding their regular promotions.

More important, they are the pick of 6,350 applicants and as brilliant and stable a group of young men as scientific testing and selection techniques can produce in the U.S.

Included in the class is Richard E. Bachmann, of Walled Lake, a former aeronautical engineering student at the University of Michigan. He is one of nine Michigan men selected by congressmen for the school.

Statistically they average 18 years, 5-feet-10 and 160 pounds.

But beyond that they represent a cross-section of American life including sons of laborers, businessmen, generals and one son of a Medal of Honor winner.

Marine Pvt. Gregory N. Boyington, Jr., the son of the famed Marine Air ace of World War II, "Pappy" Boyington, is a member of the historic first class. His appointment is under a special law giving sons of Medal of Honor winners a chance to go to one of the service academies.

But they must pass all of the rigid requirements, which Pvt. Boyington did. He has been stationed at the U.S. Naval Training Center, Bainbridge, Md.

Two sons of Air Force generals are in the class. Walter Sweeny, III, is the son of Maj. Gen. Walter C. Sweeny, commanding general of March Air Force Base, Calif., and Richard Lindsay is the son of Maj. Gen. R. C. Lindsay of Bolling Air Force Base, Washington, D.C.

Both of these lads attended the Sullivan School in Washington, a prep school for all of the service academies. Both passed the entrance exams for Annapolis and West Point with exceptionally high grades but elected the Air Force Academy when they got the chance.

Their selection by Air Force Academy officials, however, was based less on the lads' scholastic achievements than upon all-around abilities in numerous fields. They were active in social and youth affairs and better in English and the social sciences than in geometry, for example.

RICHARD E. BACHMAN, of Walled Lake, is among nine men from Michigan who will attend the Academy.

GREGORY BOYINGTON JR., son of Medal of Honor winner, is noted member of first class.

WALTER SWEENEY III, is one of two sons of generals in class.

This emphasis on well-rounded men is going to be the keynote of the whole education program of the school. Twice as much time in school will be devoted to such subjects as history, political science, psychology and the arts as is spent at West Point and Annapolis. Flying instruction will be given the last two years.

It won't be before 1960 that the new academy will field a varsity football team ready for regular intercollegiate competition. But there is plenty of athletic talent among the members of the first class.

Varsity high school football letters were won by 127 members, while 73 got letters for basketball and 76 for track.

Forty-six of the boys were presidents of their senior classes in high school, 28 were flying members of the Civil Air Patrol and 136 were members of national honorary high school scholastic societies.

Purely because the records will be kept in alphabetical order, a lad named James Rivers Adams of Concord, Mass., is technically the first man in the class. Sandford Zeller of Puerto Rico is the last.

Zeller is already a lieutenant in the Air Force, having been stationed at Ramey Air Force Base, Puerto Rico. This will give him a regular commission, plus the prestige of being a member of the historic first class.

The boy who appears to have the inside track to end up with the highest scholastic honors is Bradley Hosmer of Alexandria, Va. He is the son of an Air Force colonel, has been educated all over the world where his dad happened to be stationed, and made the highest scores on tests for West Point and Annapolis entrance before deciding on the Air Force Academy.

Approximately 85 per cent of the class have regular appointments from their congressmen. The rest are under presidential appointment, except for the one special Medal of Honor appointment.

For the next two years the school's classes will be conducted at this base, about 60 miles from the permanent site at Colorado Springs, Colo.

Work on the $126,000,000 permanent building for the school has not yet begun, but will be started this summer.

AIR FORCE CADET UNIFORMS: — Lt. Richard A. Day and Lt. Kimbrough J. Bassett, members of first Air Force Academy class, wear tan summer outfit and blue winter uniform that will be interim uniform at academy until a permanent decision is made.

'Bonanzagram'

Have Fun! Win $100!

"Bonanzagram" is an exciting new puzzle in which the Pontiac Press offers both fun and a $100 cash prize. BUT before you try your hand at "Bonanzagram" be sure and read the rules at the bottom of this page. Solution will appear in the Press July 22.

CLAIM CHECK

Below is a duplicate of the "Bonanzagram" entry you send in to contest headquarters. It is ESSENTIAL that you fill it in and save it until the correct solution to "Bonanzagram" No. 19 is published Friday, July 22. Unless you do so, you will be unable to collect the prize if you should send in a winning solution. Check the rules below for further details.

Bonanzagram No. 19

Story Clues

Over a weekend when most of the populace of New Millton was attending a stock fair on the outskirts of town, the First National Bank was robbed. The vault had been opened without damage, and $90,000 in cash and negotiable securities were gone. The theft was not discovered until Monday morning, when Mr. A, the president, arrived at the bank. His tried and true cashier, who usually opened up, was not there and was reported missing from his boarding house. The sheriff sent out pictures and a description of the missing man, but three days passed without results. Late on the fourth night, a motorist drove up to Mr. A's home. He had picked up a man stumbling dazedly along the highway, and taken him to the nearest hospital. Before lapsing into unconsciousness, the man had scrawled a note, using his left hand because his right arm was injured, and asked that it be delivered to Mr. A without delay. The banker was able to fill in the painfully written message and took immediate action. Can you, too, figure out what the injured man wrote?

How To Play 'Bonanzagram'

Solve the "Bonanzagram" by filling in all the missing letters, as indicated by the underscores, in the message. Insert only one letter above each underscore. Many clues to the missing letters are hidden in the story or anecdote, accompanying the message itself, and, in a few cases, the contestant's general knowledge should provide the correct letter. The contestant will note that the message is unpunctuated. Punctuation will help solve the message but is not necessary to win.

All missing letters must be correctly inserted to win a Bonanzagram prize. Punctuation will not be considered in judging a correct answer.

When properly filled in, the "Bonanzagram" will spell out a clear message that will conform in every way with the clues. In many cases it will seem that more than one word would be the correct one. That's part of the fun! You should weigh the clues and select the BEST possible word in each case.

How to Submit Entries

1. After solution is completed, "Bonanzagram" should be clipped and pasted to a two-cent postcard with your name and address.

2. Entries will be received at the Pontiac Press office, 48 W. Huron St., until 5 p. m. Tuesday, July 19. Mail entries must be postmarked before midnight Tuesday, July 19 for Bonanzagram No. 19. Address "Bonanzagram, %, Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Mich.

3. Entries may be mailed in envelope but contestant's full name and number of puzzle must be printed in upper left corner of address side of envelope.

4. Copies of the Press need not be purchased to enter. Facsimiles made by hand and corresponding as closely as possible to the original "Bonanzagram" printed in the Press will be accepted but are limited one to a family. Mimeograph, duplicator or other unofficial mechanical reproduction is forbidden.

How to Collect the Prize

The entrant must work out and keep duplicate solution as a claim check. When the solution is published in the Press, he should compare his "claim check" with the published solution, and, if his claim check is identical, he should call in person with his claim check at the Press office, 48 W. Huron St., before 5 p. m. on the Monday following publication of the solution.

If a winner cannot call at the Press office in person, he should mail his solution to "Bonanzagram Editor." This letter must reach the Press not later than 5 p.m. the Monday after publication of the answer. Correct answers are void unless the contestant reports his claim by the deadlines listed here.

About Eligibility, Information, Etc.

1. Anyone is eligible for the "Bonanzagram" contest except employes of the Press and members of their immediate families. (Immediate family means all those living in an employe's household.)

2. No question as to winners will be answered by phone.

3. The Press will award a prize of $100 to the winner of each weekly Bonanzagram. If more than one winning answer is received, the prize will be divided equally among the winners. If no correct solution is received, the $100 will be added to the next week's prize. If the winner is a subscriber of record to the Press a $20 bonus will be added to the $100.

4. Only one winning entry from a family will be eligible for the prize, but there is no limit on number of entries.

5. The Press retains the right to correct typographical errors.

6. Judges' decision will be final and contestant's submission of entries indicates acceptance of these rules.

7. No liability is accepted for entries that fail to reach us.

8. The Press reserves the right to alter rules and/or discontinue the contest at its discretion.

She Crusades Against Cruelty to Animals

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS)—Madeleine Bemelmans, wife and inspiration of famed author-artist Ludwig Bemelmans, came to the door in the company of three friends—a big dog, a small dog and a bird that declines cages.

Madeleine said hello and her menage woofed, yipped and chirped, respectively.

"I guess you can see," she said, leading me into the high-arched airiness of her husband's studio, "why I wanted to talk to you."

She wanted to talk about animals. And the inhumanities they suffer at the hands of humans.

"Ever since I was 6 years old," began the tiny brown-haired woman who looks little more than 16 today, "I've shuddered at the things I saw happening to animals —all kinds of animals.

"The 6-year-old experience took place up in Mount Kisco, N. Y., where I saw some boys trapping a muskrat. I pleaded with them to let him go, but they wouldn't, of course, and my stomach was upset.

CALF SLAUGHTERED

"Not nearly so long ago, Ludwig and I were dining at a restaurant —one of those 'quaint little restaurants' people say you must go to—and we were having a veal culet. Suddenly, outside, we could hear the screams of a calf being slaughtered.

"I decided then, or as soon as I got well again, that I would do my best to fight this cruelty and injustice, if I could."

That was nearly 10 years ago, and since that time Madeleine Bemelmans has studied, written endless letters and devoted all her free time to the National Humane Society and similar institutions.

Her self-appointed task: To make people aware of their negligence to their own pets—as well as the 40,000,000 homeless cats and dogs in the U. S. And to fight every other form of inhumanity, and most particularly the barbaric killing of cattle and hogs in slaughter houses.

"Do you know how they slaughter cattle in this country?" she says, wide-eyed. "They slit their throats and allow them to bleed to death." When Madeleine saw me wince, she added, "Too many people say, 'Don't tell me about it; I can't bear it.'

PAINLESS METHOD

"What they should do is get mad. Most European countries outlawed this inhumanity 20 years ago and have a painless method of electrically stunning animals before they're killed.

"And this . . ." she said, absently stroking the small dog which had taken residence on her lap, "is the brave new world."

Madeleine blames "indifference" rather than "an urge for cruelty" among Americans, she says, but "it's inconceivable that people can close their ears to what is cruel, forever. If we are a civilized people, we care about the weak and helpless."

Mrs. Bemelmans doesn't believe she's an "extra-sensitive person, at least no more so than most women. It is just, perhaps, that I have traveled a great deal and have seen more."

For instance, she has seen so many animals, run over and lying on roadways, suffering, that she insisted Ludwig buy her a .22 and teach her to shoot.

Now when she travels in the country ("the dogs love their outings") she is prepared to do what she believes is her humane duty.

FROWNS ON SPORTS

Mrs. Bemelmans has strong feelings, also, against such highly touted sports as bullfighting, riding to the hounds and certain aspects of horse racing—as when on a thoroughbred in a handicap a back-breaking weight is loaded race.

* * *

"So many people try to tell me that ah, that is party of the beauty of the sport. But whether they call me silly or not, my answer is always that you cannot mix aesthetics and ethics. They are in entirely different spheres."

Automakers Finish Five Millionth Unit

DETROIT (INS)—Ward's Automotive Reports today said the highlight of this week's auto production was the completion of the five millionth car or truck for 1955.

Ward's, the industry's statistical agency, said the Independence Day holiday and work stoppages due to the heat have cut into production.

This week's car-truck output was estimated at 163,266 units, down 11 per cent from last week's total but almost 65 per cent higher than the same week in 1954.

Soaring temperatures have sent home many workers this week, with the latest disturbance hitting Chrysler Corp. yesterday.

The Lincoln Division of the Ford Motor Co. was still down due to a changeover.

Ward's estimated car and truck production thus far this year at 4,428,090 cars and 670,987 trucks. This figure is up 1,436,307 from last year.

Hal Boyle Says:

Hog-Calling Champ Relies on Loud Voice

MARYVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Hog calling isn't nearly as difficult as it sounds.

Yet people who probably would like to take up hog calling for a hobby have turned to painting instead because they felt hog calling took more real inborn talent.

Robert Clark, a champion in this vocal art form, feels such people are defeatists — and give up too easy. Clark last week won the hog calling contest at the National Hillbilly Homecoming here for the third straight season.

Never defeated in action, the 43-year-old hillborn farmer, a strapping 6-footer weighing 260 pounds, met and survived an expected challenge this year. One competitor tried to outdo him by appealing to porkies with a dulcet call blown simultaneously through two steer horns.

It was a musical triumph and the pigs appeared impressed. But they sat silent on their hams.

However, when Clark strode to the platform and lifted up his old familiar cry, they squealed and ran frantically after this big Pied Piper in overalls.

Modest in victory, Clark explained later that nothing really stirs the soul of a hog more than a loud promising human voice at mealtime.

"The main thing in getting a pig's attention," he said, "is to have a loud voice.

"Personally, I always found it hard to whisper. But if you got a loud voice, you have to learn to control it."

But Clark disdained the suggestion that to succeed as a hog caller a man needed any particular personality in his voice, although he felt that a high tenor had certain natural advantages over a bass.

"The pigs ought to be able to hear you at least a mile away and come a-runnin'," he said. "I've got a brother who can bray like a jack, and you can hear him for two miles."

* * *

Clark says you can get the best results with this cry:

"Piggy, piggy, piggy, o-o-o-oh-heeee. Pig."

The thrice-repeated word "piggy, catches the distant hog's ear. The "o-o-o-oh-heeee" stirs pleasant memories of home in his stomach. And the short crisp exclamation "pig" must be given quickly and affirmatively. This creates a doubt in the hog's mind as to whether anybody really cares whether he comes home or not. So he comes as fast as he can, hoping he'll still be slopped.

"But by and large, you just have to have a loud voice," said Clark, honestly.

Hog callers are among the cleanest livers of any sports champions. Clark, who still plays basketball at 43, says he never "had the habit of smoking or drinking in my life."

Anybody who wants to get into hog calling even as a part-time career had better hurry. It's a vanishing art.

Clark was one of seven sons raised on a 40-acre hill farm. He works now as a blacksmith in the Alcoa Aluminum plant and has a 12-acre farm and six children.

"They used to let hogs root in the woods and you needed a strong voice to reach them over hill and hollow. But now they keep them penned," he remarked. "Anybody can call a hog that can see him."

Reply to Mystery Ad Brings Gay Celebration

CHICAGO (AP)—A recent full page ad in a suburban newspaper read: "Why not call? Orchard 3-1117."

Fourteen persons, most of them women, telephoned. They were invited to a cocktail and dinner party last night at the Gold Coast Hotel and told they might bring a guest.

The ad was inserted by Richard Fuhr, 26, president of a lumber company, in suburban Morton Grove. Fuhr, a bachelor, said he did it as a "stunt" to see who would call. He picked up the sizeable check for the party of 22.

Lightning Hits Home Twice in Few Minutes

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — John Flynn says he doesn't believe the old adage about lightning.

Lightning struck his house yesterday and tore a hole in the roof.

'Tin Roof' Film Version Will Star Grace Kelly

By DOROTHY MANNERS
for Louella O. Parsons

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—Tennessee Williams' Pulitizer Prize winning play, "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof" has been bought by MGM to star Grace Kelly. Before the "how-can-they-make it?" wails start, studio head Dore Schary says quickly:

"We submitted a treatment of 'Cat on a Hot Tin Roof' to Geoffrey Shurlock and production code officials which was approved before we announced purchase of the controversial play."

He goes on to say, "We believe that this intense and mature emotional drama will give Miss Kelly one of her greatest opportunities as a young wife seeking to solve an emotional conflict in her marriage."

Like most of author Williams' strong, lusty plays, this has a background of the modern South.

"After ten years we could hardly believe the wonderful news that we were going to have another baby. Every morning I'd ask her, 'How do you feel, honey'? She's answer, 'Awful!' and I'd say, 'That's my good girl'!"

Best Friend Is Held in Death of Boy, 16

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — Herbert Driggers, 15, is being held in Richmond County jail today on an open charge in connection with the fatal shooting of his best friend and next door neighbor, 16-year-old Clanton Clemmons.

Sol. Gen. George Hains said Driggers would appear before the grand jury Wednesday to relate events surrounding the Saturday morning shooting.

Funeral services were held yesterday for Clemmons.

Richmond County sheriff's deputies quoted Herbert as saying he accidentally wounded Clemmons while showing the latter a shotgun. The youth was quoted as saying he reloaded the weapon and shot Clemmons again at short range because he couldn't stand to see his friend screaming in agony.

Escaped Convict From Road Gang Fighting Return

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Frank M. Beverly, who says he'll fight extradition to Alabama where he escaped from a prison road gang in 1947, has gone back to work as manager of a Sunset Strip restaurant.

He was working yesterday, two days after admitting to police that he was really Oscar Fred Twildahl and had served two years of a five-year sentence. He claimed he was convicted on a false charge of embezzling $200.

Police said the Alabama State Board of Corrections has indicated it will move this week to extradite Beverly.

Meanwhile, Beverly is free on a bond returnable Thursday. He is staunchly supported by his wife, Eunice, 36, whom he married here, and his employer, Sam Spiegelman.

Beverly lives in a $15,000 home with his wife and 6-year-old son, Michael.

City-County Building Will Have UM Plaque

DETROIT (AP) —Over one councilman's objections, a 35-pound bronze plaque commemorating the birthplace of the University of Michigan will be placed in the new City-County Building.

The university was founded in 1817 in a building on Bates street, half a block north of the City-County Building.

University President Harlan Hatcher and Leroy E. Neisch, president of the University of Michigan Club of Detroit, requested the plaque in the new building.

Hart Mexican Fiesta Slated Three Nights

HART (AP) — The eighth annual Hart Mexican Fiesta will be staged for three nights this year—July 14, 15 and 16—instead of the customary two-night program.

Gordon Osborn, fiesta chairman, said city council has granted permission for rides and concessions to begin operations next Thursday night. The regular program begins the following night.

The fiesta, one of west Michigan's most colorful summer attractions, drew upwards of 25,000 visitors last year.

Sunburn Pain Disappears
Smooth Tan Emerges
Without Peeling or Blistering

Science Discovers New Ointment That Instantly Stops Pain of Sunburn...Turns Redness Into Comfortable Tan

New York, N. Y. (Special): A leading research institution has discovered a new medical substance that instantly stops pain of sunburn . . . and prevents blistering or peeling, so angry redness may turn to handsome, comfortable tan.

Doctors know that sunburn affects skin just as any ordinary burn does. They also know the body needs oxygen for healing burns. The secret of this new substance is its astonishing ability to draw healing oxygen and nutrients directly from the blood-stream into the sunburned area. Thus, the sunburned skin heals completely and, except in unusual cases, smooth tan emerges.

This substance is known as Sperti® Ointment. Sperti Ointment does not sting or stain. It is now sold at all drugstores for 98¢ a large tube. Buy Sperti Ointment with the amazing guarantee that your sunburn will turn to a handsome tan, or your money is refunded.

Pitchers Well-Rested for All-Star Game

MILWAUKEE (AP)—For the first time in years, the American and National League squads come up for the annual All-Star Game tomorrow with "rested" pitchers and a minimum of injuries.

Whereas in other years, all-star pitchers were called upon within 48 hours after working a nine-inning game on Sunday, only five of the 16 saw action yesterday. A year ago, five of the seven National League pitchers and four of the eight American Leaguers had worked on Sunday.

Outside of Brooklyn's Roy Campanella, who was scratched several days ago because of a damaged knee, neither side reported any injuries. Last year, Al Rosen, Yogi Berra, Allie Reynolds, Mike Garcia, Campanella and Harvey Haddix all were crippled although some were able to play. In fact, Rosen, despite an injured index finger, hammered two home runs and drove in five runs to lead the Americans to an 11-9 victory in Cleveland.

Managers Al Lopez and Leo Durocher, who will direct the American and National League Squads, respectively, have a wide choice of pitchers. Most likely starter for the Americans is Early Wynn (11-4), Cleveland's strong-armed righthander, who probably will be opposed by either Don Newcombe (14-1) of Brooklyn or Robin Roberts (13-7) of Philadelphia.

Newcombe, the majors' biggest winner, has not worked since his three-inning stint Friday night. Roberts went the distance Saturday while Wynn hurled only five innings the same day. Of the others, Dick Donovan of the Chicago White Sox, Sam Jones of the Chicago Cubs and Haddix of St. Louis have been idle since Thursday. Frank Sullivan of Boston, Billy Pierce of the White Sox and Billy Hoeft of Detroit pitched Friday.

Bob Turley of the New York Yankees and Baltimore's Jim Wilson pitched Saturday. Sunday's pitchers included Whitey Ford of the Yankees, Herb Score of Cleveland, Luis Arroyo of St. Louis, Gene Conley of Milwaukee and Joe Nuxhall, who relieved in Cincinnati's last three games.

A sellout crowd of nearly 45,000 was virtually assured as Milwaukee's baseball-batty populace awaited the 22nd annual mid-summer spectacle with tremendous interest. To the fans in this frenzied metropolis, the game is something more than a mere exhibition.

The entire week of the game has been designated as an "All-Star Festival," including such attractions as a parade, fireworks, folk festival, golf and tennis tournaments, boat and stock car races, water frolic, polo game, horse show, drama, art exhibits, drum and bugle contests and other events.

The game, to be carried on network radio (Mutual) and television (NBC) is expected to gross $175,000 at the gate and $110,000 from radio-TV rights. The money goes into the major league central fund which supports the players' pension fund.

Starting time is 3 p. m. (EST)

The game figures to be a battle of National League power against American League pitching. Although the Americans boast a 13-8 edge in previous games, the Nationals have been installed as 13-10 favorite to win their fifth in the last six clashes.

Musial can set a record by playing in his 12th game. Mel Ott and Joe DiMaggio each played in 11. Ted Williams, despite a couple of hitches with the Marines, will appear in his 11th game. Ted has a .379 batting mark with 3 home runs and 10 runs batted in in all-star games. Musial is hitting .333 in all-star competition with 3 homers and 7 RBIs.

Tigers Sag, Not Boone

DETROIT (AP)—Baseball can be like this:

While the Detroit Tigers have sagged in recent weeks, 3rd baseman Ray Boone has flourished.

The veteran infielder has hit safely in 26 of his last 28 games, raising his batting average from .231 to .279—not a very robust figure, but certainly a lot more respectable than before.

Boone's hitting helped the Tigers gain an even split against the pesky Kansas City A's yesterday. He pounded two singles and a double in the 2nd game, driving in five runs to lead the way to a 10-1 romp.

Boone collected one single as the Tigers dropped the opener, 9-5.

"I've finally regained my batting eye," said Boone, who missed most of spring training and 15 games during the regular season because of a sore arm and leg ailments.

Boone has hit 11 home runs so far—nothing to apologize for. He has knocked in 56 runs, practically one for every hit he's made.

"I've been lucky with the RBIs," he said. "My hits have come just at the right time—and the runs have been scoring."

His hits fell at opportune times yesterday, saving the Tigers from a double disaster. He warmed up with a run-scoring single in the 1st as the Tigers jumped away to a 2-0 lead.

Then Boone drove home three more with a base-clearing double into the left field corner. That made it 7-0 at the end of two rounds, making it easy for righthander Ned Garver, who went all the way to record his 7th victory against nine losses.

For good measure, Boone drove home his 5th run with a 6th-inning single.

First game was another story—yes, indeed. The Athletics hammered 18 hits to all corners of Briggs stadium, including a pair of two-run homers by Vic Power and Elmer Valo.

Manager Bucky Harris poured six pitchers into the game, but couldn't save it.

AL Has .300 Hitters

Senior Circuit Boasts All-Star Power Margin

MILWAUKEE (AP)—The National League, seeking to close the 13-8 gap built by the American League in baseball's All-Star game, will have a decided edge in power over its rival circuit tomorrow.

Led by Ted Kluszewski of Cincinnati, Duke Snider of Brooklyn and Willie Mays of the New York Giants, who have walloped 84 homers among them, the National Leaguers have hit 288 home runs in regular season competition compared to 183 for the American Leaguers.

Five NL players — Kluszewski, with 29, Snider, with 28, Mays, with 27, Ernie Banks of Chicago, with 23 and Eddie Mathews of Miwaukee, with 22, have connected for more homers than Mickey Mantle of the Yankees, who leads the American League with 21. Except for Mays, the four National League pace-setters will be in the starting lineup.

And that's not all. The American League has no one to compare with Snider's 89 runs batted in or Don Newcombe's Brilliant 14-1 won-lost record.

The American League has some strong points, too. As a unit, it's batting .287, one point higher than the older loop. Al Kaline's leading average of .371 cannot be matched by a National Leaguer. Neither can the Detroit outfielders collection of 122 hits, Ted Williams' .394 mark for 29 games also is impressive.

The junior circuit also has more .300 hitters than the National — eight to six. In addition to Kaline and Williams, the American Leaguers over .300 are Nellie Fox of Chicago, the starting second baseman, at .326, Harvey Kuenn of Detroit, who will start at shortstop, with .320, Vic Power of Kansas City with .305, Al Smith and Larry Doby of Cleveland with .315 and Mantle with .318.

The American League, which has nine pitchers with an aggregate of 80 victories and 49 defeats, has five who've won at least 10 games.

Besides Newcombe, other NL all-stars with impressive records are Robin Roberts of Philadelphia, 13-7, Luis Arroyo of St. Louis with with 10-3 and the league's lowest earned-run average of 2.43 and Gene Conley of Milwaukee with 11-5.

Gene Andrews Has Par Round in Practice, as Miami Is Team Victor

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—The nation's top weekend golfers, their cards speckled with 8s and even one 10 in Saturday's Harding Cup Medal play, turned with considerable relief to match competition today in the USGA Public Links Tournament at Coffin Municipal Course.

Don Skrabulis of Kewanee, Ill., was the ony player who equaled par 70 in the three-man competition won by Miami.

Defending champion Gene Andrews of Pacific Palisades, Calif., stroked 70 in practice but didn't compete in the Harding Cup round.

Home pro Mike Pollack had predicted no one would match par on the 6,536-yard course, whose narrow fairways zig-zag through heavy woods on White River bluffs and bottoms.

Miami won with 224 strokes on a 72 by bartender Joe San Filippo, a 75 by accountant Marshell Carlson and 77 by plasterer Ralph Allen. Psychiatrist Jack Gregory had the second-best card of 71 for Detroit's fourth-place team, which totaled 229.

Andrews opened defense of his title today against Wallace Smith of Pontiac, Mich. The winner's second-round opponent will be 18-year-old Foster (Buddy) Bradley of Los Angeles. National Junior champion who drew a first-round bye.

Bolt Overtakes Barber to Win St. Paul Open

Patience, Hogan's Tip Help Tommy to Victory With 269 Total

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP)—Tommy Bolt raded his famed temper for some unspectacular patience and a tip from Ben Hogan to get back in the winner's circle today with a victory in the $15,000 St. Paul Open golf tournament.

The squaw-jawed Texan, fighting uphill throughout the tournament, overtook little Jerry Barber of Los Angeles Sunday to finish 19 under par for a 269 in what was one of the steadiest shows of his stormy career. It earned him $2,400.

Bolt resisted the temptation to gamble Sunday and kept his head in the face of a three-stroke deficit he carried into the final round.

His own 68 did part of the job and Barber's slow collapse did the rest. Tiny Jerry, the tournament leader for three rounds, slumped to a 73 and finished two strokes behind with 271.

Fred Hawkins, St. Andrew's, Ill., and Arnold Palmer, the 1954 National Amateur champion from Latrobe, Pa., tied for third with 273.

Bolt won with near flawless play from the tee that found him off the fairway only once during the four days. For this he credited some casual tutoring by Hogan in Texas a month ago.

"We played a round at Fort Worth and Ben talked to me about my driving," Bolt said. "I had been doing a lot of hooking. Ben changed my grip a little—and the trouble's gone."

Bolt caught Barber on the 10th hole Sunday with a birdie 3 while the Californian took a bogie. Bolt thereafter had birds on the 12th, 16th and 18th, and some brief misery on the 15th where he three-putted. After hitting nine straight pars before the turn, Barber had two bogies and a bird on the back nine.

Wally Ulrich, Rochester, Minn., was fifth with 276, Dow Finsterwald and Doug Ford tied for sixth with 277, and Bud Holscher and Bob Rosburg were knotted at 278.

Charlotte Gunner Captures State's Amateur Trap Title

L. F. Loucks of Charlotte carried away amateur honors over the weekend in the 1955 Michigan State Trap Championships at the Birmingham Gun Club.

Loucks captured the Michigan singles title, the 19-yard handicap diadem, and posted the highest all-around score to dethrone Ned Lilly, the Stanton defender. Lilly won the resident doubles crown Friday, but finished out of the running thereafter. However, his all-around score was 366, only one short of Loucks.

Loucks' winning total in the singles was 194 out of a possible 200. He tallied 93 x 100 in the 19-yard handicap and wound up with an all-around total of 367 x 400.

Shirley Schneider of Dearborn took the women's titles, scoring 69 in the 16-yard event and 73 in the 18-yard handicap. Billy Brown of Birmingham was the junior champion with a score of 81 x 100.

Lloyd Pierce of Saginaw won the professional singles championship with a score of 172 and the 100 doubles title with 59. Herb Albaugh of Farmington took handicap honors for the pros by shooting 88 x 100.

Player Group Plans Meetings With Owners

Winter Baseball, Spring Training, Salaries Are on Agenda

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Player representatives o fthe 16 major league clubs were scheduled to hold informal meetings with the owners today in an effort to iron out their differences over Caribbean winter baseball, spring training, minimum salary and other problems.

No decisions will be reached today. The owners will not hold a formal get-together until Aug. 1 in Chicago when the players' requests will be discussed.

The players will meet separately to agree on a definite platform. Then they will sit down for an informal luncheon discussion with the owners.

One of the main gripes of the players is that they are not permitted to deal directly with the Caribbean owners concerning winter ball. Under present rules, the Caribbean leagues must approach the club owners through the commission's office and can use no more than five players from each club.

GM Golfers, Shooters Qualify for Tourneys

Qualifying tournaments in golf and trapshooting were held at Bald Mountain Saturday and Sunday for employes of General Motors Truck and Coach.

Golfers qualifying over a 36-hole roue Saturday were Mike Andonian, medalist, with 69-71-140; Charlie Barker, 71-71—142; Charlie Cappell, 77-77-154; and Joe Adamczyk, 72-82-154. The four linksmen will compete in the national midwest golf tournament at Canton, Ohio, August 20-21.

Five shooters will represent GMC in the national trapshooting tourney at Middletown, Ohio, September 10-11. Dave Bryner will head the delegation after posting 49x50. Others qualifying were Walt Asher, 45; Milton Ott, 44; and Don Gegenhimer and Don Hazelett, 43 each.

Three Teams Victors in Little Softball Play

A triple-header was played Saturday in the Waterford Township Little softball league with Waterford Village, Union Lake Lumber and Del's Service taking victories.

Waterford Village won its 1st game of the season by dumping Maceday Gardens, 9-4; Union Lake tripped Puertas Service, 3-1; and Del's topped Pete's Service, 8-3, with Stan Austin getting a 3-run homer for Del's.

Ty Cobb played in 100 or more games for 19 straight years.

'Marathon' Tilt to St. Thomas 9

Pontiac's Old Timers blew a 7-1 lead Sunday afternoon at Wisner Field and lost to St. Thomas of Ontario in an International Old Timers League baseball game, 18-12.

Bud Leslie's Old Timers scored seven runs in the 1st two innings to appear headed for certain victory. But St. Thomas kept pecking away, finally exploding for eight big runs in the 8th stanza to ice the contest. The visitors collected 19 hits in the game, compared to Pontiac's 13.

"Lefty" Wolfe and Bruce Hetherington pitched for Pontiac in the free-swinging affair. Peterson went the distance for the winning St. Thomas nine.

ALMOST A RIOT — San Diego catcher Ed Bailey and umpire Pat Orr hold back Hollywood 2nd baseman Curt Roberts when the latter, with bat in hand, went after Padres' pitcher Eddie Erautt after a "duster" pitch in the 6th inning of the 2nd game at Hollywood Sunday. All hands from both squads streamed to the plate and milled around but there were no casualties.

Twin Victory Over Rochester Wins Legion Title for Waterford Post 431

18TH DISTRICT LEAGUE
Final 1st Half Standings

Waterford	8	2	Berkley	5	5
Birmingham	7	3	Huron Valley	3	6
Rochester	5	5	Clawson	1	8

Waterford Post 431's baseball tean. won the 1st half championship of the 18th District American Legion league Sunday to claim the district's berth in the Zone 3 tournament.

The zone tourney is scheduled July 22-23-24 at Whaley Park in Flint. Waterford will compete against the champions of the Flint, Saginaw and Thumb area districts.

A double victory over Rochester on the Waterford diamond Sunday clinched the title and tourney spot. Birmingham grabbed 2nd place by beating Huron Valley, 10-3, and Berkley tied Rochester for 3rd place by beating Clawson, 6-2, in a game played Saturday.

An earlier tie game was played off by Waterford and Rochester. The teams had played 10 innings previously and were tied 3-3. In the 5th inning of the playoff, Jack Swindeman was a hit batsman and scored the winning run on LeRoy Nicholas' double.

Chuck Gillis was the winner in the playoff after wiggling out of serious trouble in the 3rd inning. Rochester, playing as home team, put runners on 3rd and 2nd with none out, but one man was caught in a rundown on an attempted squeeze, and the Waterford lefty got off the hook with an infield out and a pop-up.

Gillis came back in the 5th inning of the second game to preserve a 7-4 victory when starter Jerry Kruskie faltered. Waterford piled up a 7-1 lead in the 1st 3 innings on key hits by Harry Darborn and Kruskie.

Kruskie weakened in the 5th, yielding 5 walks and a single to Karl Severance, so Gillis came back to fan 4 and walk 1 while facing 8 men.

At Birmingham, the host team scored 6 runs in the 4th inning to break a 1-1 tie and win its 7th game in 10 decisions. A walk, Jim Traa's double and singles by Bob Isbell, Arnie Issette, Bill Coons and Benny Wright were included in the rally.

This will be the first time that a Waterford team has participated in the Legion's zone tournament. All league teams will commence 2nd half play next Sunday.

Syron-Sharp Win Tourney

Two of Oakland County's finest young golfers, Lloyd Syron of Pontiac and Sally Sharp of Birmingham, teamed up Saturday to win the 11th annual mixed invitational golf tournament at Plum Hollow Country Club.

Eighteen-year-old Syron and the 17-year-old Pine Lake Country Club women's champion, fired a 36-39—75 in the alternate shot event to win by six strokes over Ken Carse and Mary Margaret Lovell, who had 42-39—81.

The Syron-Sharp tally was only one shot short of the tournament record of 74 turned in last year by Mr. and Mrs. John Hume. The Humes could do only 38-47—85 this time.

Tied for 3rd behind the Carse-Lovell team were Dick Wibel and Mrs. W. E. Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Holden, and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hightower. They all posted 82s.

Wings' Adams to Speak to Ortonville Rotary

General manager Jack Adams of the Detroit Red Wings is scheduled to make an appearance at the Ortonville Rotary Club meeting Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. at the Ortonville Hotel.

Included on the program are movies of the 1955 Red Wing Stanley Cup playoff games and a round-table hockey discussion. Harold Schmidt is chairman in charge of arrangements for the sports program.

Stan Musial has hit for 300 or more total bases 10 years.

Linscott to Get New Foe Tuesday

Michigan State Boxing Commission has ordered middleweight Guido Picone of Canton, Ohio to appear in Detroit tomorrow for a medical examination.

Picone claims to have sprained his ankle doing road work yesterday. The injury, he said, forced him to cancel a scheduled 8-round feature bout with Gene Linscott of Pontiac, Tuesday night at the Motor City Arena.

Motor City promoter Julius Piazza hollered foul. He asked the state boxing commission to prohibit Picone from fighting in Michigan for at least a year.

Piazza said Gerry Fowler of Chicago will substitute for Picone in the Linscott match. Flower has lost nine fights in 25 starts.

Grosse Pointe Boy Wins State Crown

KALAMAZOO (AP)—Sandy Weiner of Grosse Pointe won the junior singles championship in the Michigan State Junior Closed Tennis tournament yesterday.

He defeated Jon Erickson of Kalamazoo, 6-3, in a final set after leading Erickson, 6-1, 6-2, 5-7, Saturday.

Erickson and Wes Dodson, also of Kalamazoo, won the junior doubles.

Rangers Keep Winning

The Ivory Polo Rangers stretched their fabulous winning streak to 36 games Sunday by beating the Washington Polo Club, 8-4, at Ivory Polo Field. Jack Stefani collected 3 goals for Rangers, while Mac Stefani and Capt. Jack Ivory belted in 2 apiece.

Sports Figures Pay Tribute to Chicago Editor

CHICAGO (INS—Funeral services will be held tomorrow for Arch Ward, sports editor of the Chicago Tribune and founder of the All-Star baseball and football games, and the International Golden Gloves boxing tourney.

Meanwhile, sports figures from all parts of the country began converging on Chicago to pay final tribute to Ward who died of a heart attack Saturday at the age of 58.

Final service will be held at Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church at 10 a.m., just a few hours before the All-Star baseball game in Milwaukee.

Bishop Bernard J. Sheil will chant the solemn pontifical mass and the Rev. Theodore Hesburgh, president of the University of Notre Dame will preach the sermon.

Sports Stars, 'Ike' Discuss Delinquency

WASHINGTON (INS) — More than 30 past and present sports stars will lunch with President Eisenhower today and discuss a program for wiping out juvenile delinquency by encouraging wider participation in athletics.

Guests at the White House luncheon will range from the New York Giants' Willie Mays to all-time golfing great Bobby Jones and William Woodward, Jr., owner of racehorse Nashua.

Others invited include Wimbledon tennis champion Tony Trabert, football star Ralph Guglielmi, light heavyweight boxing champion Archie Moore, Olympic diving titleholder Maj. Sammy Lee, miler Wes Santee, National Open Golf champion Jack Fleck, professional basketball star Bob Cousy, baseball commissioner Ford Frick and others.

Hoyt Near Death Following Crash

Car Overturns During AAA Race at Oklahoma City Track

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Racing car driver Jerry Hoyt lingered near death here today after his car crashed into a wall on the first lap of the $5,000 AAA races and overturned.

The 26-year-old Indianapolis speedster was rounding a turn Sunday when a wheel grazed the fence, flinging the vehicle into a retaining wall and overturning it.

Physicians at an Oklahoma City Hospital pronounced Hoyt in critical condition after 3½-hour brain surgery. He was given but a slim change to survive.

The favorite of the race, Bob Sweikert, who won the 500-mile Indianapolis classic, pulled out of the feature race to be with Hoyt, a personal friend and racing stablemate.

Andy Linden of Manhattan Beach, Calif. won the feature event of the day. He sped over the 30 laps at the new fairground half-mile oval in 13:09.13.

DeMarco, Dupas Meeting Tonight in New Orleans

Former lightweight champion Paddy DeMarco, hoping to strike it rich again at Ralph Dupas' expense, meets the New Orleans youngster for the second time in a 10-rounder in New Orleans tonight.

Just 18 months ago, the Brooklyn veteran was a fading fighter apparently on the way out following three beatings in four fights. Then he met and edged Dupas in New Orleans and two months later won the lightweight crown from Jimmy Carter. Carter took back his "loan" eight months later by stopping bustling Paddy in the 15th round.

Dupas, now 19, has fought himself back into the top contender's position. His only loss since Demarco, was an eight-round decision to Frankie Ryff.

Beaten six times in his busy career, Dupas has avenged five of the losses. DeMarco represents the Tony Johnson and Tony Anthony, a couple of free-swinging New York light heavyweights, collide tonight in a television 10-rounder at New York's St. Nicholas Arena (DuMont-TV, 9 p.m., EST).

Ezzard Charles, another ex-champion on the comeback path, tackles landy Paul Andrews, a good-hit, no-defense light heavyweight contender, in a 10-rounder at the Chicago Stadium Wednesday night (ABC TV-radio, 9 p.m., EST). The 34-year-old Charles now is the sixth-ranking heavyweight contender. Andrews, of Buffalo, N. Y., is rated the No. 6 in the 175-pound division.

Willie Pep, the busy ex-featherweight champion, goes after his fourth straight victory Tuesday night in Bridgeport, Conn. When he meets Hector Rodriguez of Puerto Rico.

Swaps Lopes to Victory in Westerner, Now Heads East as Other Handicap Horses Run in Gold Cup

INGLEWOOD, Calif. (AP) — "Bill said he couldn't have galloped him much slower."

That, in reverse fashion, summed up Swaps' victory at Hollywood Park in a race two days ago that spelled adios to his home state before the brilliant California colt heads for the East.

And while the leading handicap stars, Determine, Rejected and a newcomer from the east, Alfred Vanderbilt's Social Outcast, take over the scene for the $100,000 added Gold Cup Saturday, the talk still concerned Swaps.

* * *

"Bill" was Willie Shoemaker, who rode the big fellow, and he was quoted after talking to the owner, Rex Ellsworth, and the trainer, Mish Tenney.

Gallop was about all the Shoe let Swaps do in the Westerner

Willie was merely following instructions, which were: Win the race. Nobody was trying to break a record. Swaps already owns a world record for a mile and one-sixteenth. His time for the mile and one-quarter was 2:00 3-5.

He went off at the unprecedented odds of 1-20 and paid the legal minimum, $2.10—five cents on the dollar.

* * *

The opposition admittedly consisted of some horses named Joe—Jean's Joe, for one, and not a bad colt, at that. There was nothing but win betting, but in case you care, Fabulous Vegas finished second, six lengths behind Swaps. Then came Jean's Joe, Hickory Stick and Brooksickle.

* * *

Swaps' next start will be in the American Derby over the grass at Washington Park in Chicago next month.

Can he run on the grass, a new experience?

"We think he can run anywhere," said Ellsworth, simply.

* * *

What about Nashua? What about horse of the year honors? Having already defeated the East's Nashua in winning the Kentucky Derby, Swaps is perfectly willing to meet him again if their respective paths cross. None is in sight at the moment.

Tennis Tourney Opens Without 2 Top Players

ATLANTA (AP)—The week-long National Clay Courts Tennis Championship opened today without Tony Trabert and Ham Richardson—top seeded entries in the men's division.

Trabert, Wimbledon champ from Cincinnati and the nation's No. 2 amateur, and Richardson, Rhodes La., and third-ranked nationally, are scheduled to arrive in time for their matches tomorrow. Both received first-round byes.

Richardson is flying in from Sweden, where he won the Swedish International tournament Sunday. Trabert is in Washington to attend a luncheon of sports dignataries at the invitation of President Eisenhower.

Riteway Upsets Coach 9; Jewelers Win Twin Bill

Riteway Softwater's softball team staved off a 7th-inning threat by General Motors to upset the Coachers, 4-3, in men's city league action Sunday night. The setback all but eliminated GMC from the loop race.

Roger Reynolds tossed a four-hitter while his mates were compiling a 4-1 advanage. Singles by Lynus Grant and Ron Jennings accounted for two runs in GMC's late rally and the tying run was on 2nd, but Reynolds fanned Jim Moore to end the game.

General Motors' girls helped the Coachers save face last night by smashing Shaw's girls, 18-6. GMC wrapped up the contest with 10 runs in the 6th frame.

League-leading Shaw's Jewelers in the men's American circuit, warming up for major tournament warfare, posted two shutouts Sunday in exhibition games at North Side Park.

The Jewelers blanked Drayton Drug, 3-0, and smothered Dick & Wes Sporting Goods, 15-0, in a five-inning nightcap. Both victims are members of the Waterford League.

Paton Clinches Title

FLINT (AP)—Third-seeded Andy Paton of Ann Arbor turned back unseeded Mark Jafee of Bay City, 6-2, 6-3, yesterday to win the singles title in the Michigan Closed Tennis tournament.

Paton and Len Brose of Detroit, defeated Jaffee and Wendell Chapin, also of Bay City, 6-1, 6-1, to win the doubles crown.

STATE PGA KING—King of the Michigan Professional Golfers for 1955 is Franklin Hills' Wally Burkemo, former national PGA titlist and the current State Open champion. Wally won his title at Owosso CC yesterday afternoon in a terrific finish, defeating a strong field, including John Barnum of Grand Rapids, who took him 2 extra holes in a playoff. Burkemo and Barnum had 138s at regulation time, but Wally banged in an eagle 3 on No. 2 to win, after each carded birdies on number one. It was Wally's 1st state PGA title.

By H. GUY MOATS

OWOSSO — Wally Burkemo of Franklin Hills CC didn't waste any time nailing his 1st Michigan Professional Golfers' association championship, yesterday at the beautifully laid out Owosso Country Club. That is, after he had staged a typical Burkemo finish in regulation (36 holes) to tie John Barnum of Grand Rapids with 138 blows.

That was the total defending champion Al Watrous figured would take the event. Al, playing with a sore right hand, made what amounted to only a token appearance, but he turned in a creditable pair of 73s for 146 and a tie for 14th place.

Burkemo clinched the crown, his 2nd of the season in state golf circles, with an eagle three on the par five 2nd hole after he and Barnum squared the 1st extra hole of the "sudden death" playoff with a pair of birdie fours.

After Wally's 2nd shot, and a bad break for Barnum, it was practically over, for Burkemo had only a 4-footer for his three. Barnum's tee shot hit a spectator on the adjoining fairway, wound up behind a clump of bushes. From there the big Grand Rapids pro banged one to the far edge of the green, and it was certain he couldn't match Burkemo's close one.

Burkemo came from back in the ruck at the finish of the last half of the regular distance to tie. He had to overcome a 70 in the 1st round while Barnum was firing a 67, along with defending national PGA champ Chick Harbert of Meadowbrook. Chick slipped on the final round to miss sharing the tie by a single stroke.

At that Burkemo almost closed out the playoff on the 1st extra hole when his 1st putt rolled around the back of the cup then fell away.

Harbert said after the tourney "I guess that bogey on No. 14 (a par four hole) cost me the tie. I play good golf and then run out of tournament."

On No. 27 green, Harbert missed another earlier chance to get into the finals act. His 20-footer ran up, appeared headed for an out. But the ball stopped on the very lip of the cup, rolled over once and hung there. Tommy Shannon, Orchard Lake pro, in Chick's threesome, sunk his try from almost the identical spot.

Burkemo's final 9-hole card was a sizzling 31. This kind of a finish is familiar to Burkemo. Just two weeks ago he won the Michigan Open after a similar come-from-behind splurge.

Winner took down $350 for his share of the $1,500 purse that was spread over 20 places. Barnum received $250 and Harbert $150.

Reggie Myles of Lansing, and Ray Malain of Detroit, tied for 4th place with 142s.

The 20 low scorers:

High Gun Is Easy Victor in Brooklyn

NEW YORK (AP)—High Gun, a $10,200 bargain basement beat, is back on the championship highway today after his smashing triumph in the $56,000 Brooklyn Handicap.

The tough King Ranch 4-year-old answered the big question Saturday at Aqueduct when he led all the way to grab the mile and one quarter classic under 132 pounds.

New York racing shifts this afternoon to the three weeks Saratoga-at-Jamaica meeting, but the next start for High Gun is expected to be in the $75,000-added Monmouth Park Handicap July 23.

Minimum distance for a home run in baseball is 250 feet.

Chisox and Tiger Chances Poor

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

No one won the American League pennant in the last 10 days, but it could be that the Chicago White Sox and Detroit Tigers lost it in that span.

With the All-Star game break at hand, the New York Yankees hold a five-game lead over the Cleveland Indians, who are a length in front of the White Sox. Ten days ago, the Yanks were 5½ games to the good with the White Sox second—1½ up on the Indians.

Detroit, fourth when the 10 days started and 9½ games behind, now is fifth, victim of the onrushing Boston Red Sox. The Bosox, with the incomparable Ted Williams, had a 9-1 record for the 10 days, taking over fourth place 7 games behind the Yanks and 5½ ahead of the Tigers.

The Yanks played .500 ball, meeting mostly second division clubs, for the 10 days. Cleveland won eight of 12. The White Sox and Tigers, who faded at the same time last season, lost six of 11 and nine of 12, respectively.

New York played at the same 50-50 pace Sunday, beating Washington 8-3 after losing the first game of the twin bill 6-4. Cleveland defeated Chicago 5-2, but lost the nightcap 4-2. Boston beat Baltimore 10-7 before rain washed out the second game. Detroit whipped Kansas City 10-1 after the A's had won 9-5.

In the National, Brooklyn's lead was trimmed to 11½ games in a 3-2 defeat by New York as second place Milwaukee split with Cincinnati. The Braves won 7-4, then lost 7-6. St. Louis whipped Chicago 7-2 and Philadelphia trimmed Pittsburgh 4-1 before losing 3-1.

The Yankees were beaten in a six-run fifth by the Nats that chased Whitey Ford. Carlos Paula homered to open the rally. In the nightcap, Mickey Mantle—whose two homers had gone to waste in the first game—whacked his 21st with a man on in the fourth as New York waltzed off to a 7-1 lead.

Virgil Trucks saved the day for Chicago, giving Cleveland four hits in eight innings of the second game. Bobby Avila's bases-loaded triple wrapped up the opener as Ray Narleski and Don Mossi proteced Art Houtteman's sixth victory.

The Red Sox collected a three-run homer from Williams, yet needed a five-run eighth to subdue the Orioles. A bases-loaded walk by Harry Dorish and two-run singles by Billy Goodman and Norm Zauchin did it.

The Giants won their three-game set with the Dodgers as Willie Mays' single drove in the winning marker in a two-run ninth inning.

Milwaukee won it's sixth straight in the opener before Cincinnati ended its own six-game losing streak. Ted Kluszewski belted his 29th homer in the first game, but two unearned runs in the sixth won for the Braves.

Luis Arroyo made his third try for No. 10 and won for the Cards. Switch-hitting Red Schoendienst slapped two doubles right-handed and a left-handed triple in support of the rookie southpaw.

Curt Simmons six-hit the Bucs in the Phillies victory with Marv Blaylock driving home two runs.

Don Mason, coach of Michigan State's freshman football squad, was a star guard for the Spartans in 1949.

Bennett, Howell Capture Week End Racing Honors

Versatile Harry Bennett of St. Clair Shores won the 50-lap mid-season sprint car-roadster championship of the Central State Racing Association, while Benny Howell of Pontiac was having a field day in hardtops over the weekend.

Bennett, a successful driver in all types of auto racing, took the CSRA title test at Pontiac Speedway Sunday by touring the 50 laps in 16 minutes, 7.25 seconds. Johnny White was 2nd and Ron Duman, 3rd.

Glen Rocky of Muskegon held the lead for 44 laps, but developed car trouble, finally dropped out and was awarded 6th place. Jack Goodwin, who was challenging the leaders early in the race, spun out of competition.

Meanwhile, at Gay-Day Speedway, Howell was winning his 3rd hardtop feature within 24 hours. The Pontiac driver took both ends of Saturday's "double feature" at Pontiac Speedway, then repeated Sunday at Gay-Day.

Johnny Wallace and Bill Schultz ran behind Howell in the rain-out, make-up 25-lapper Saturday. In the regulatly - scheduled feature, Howell was trailed by Schultz and Chuck Partello.

Marv Main and Carm Ragatz ran 2-3 behind Howell Sunday at Gay-Day as the feature was cut to 22 laps to permit the ambulance to cross the track to aid an injured spectator.

Americans Take Swedish Titles

BAASTAD, Sweden (AP) — American tennis players swept the Swedish International tournament today winning all five titles.

Hamilton Richardson, Davis Cupper from Baton Rouge, La., and Doris Hart of Coral Gables, Fla., won the men's and women's singles titles, respectively.

Richardson won his laurels by defeating Australia's Mervyn Rose, 4-6, 6-2, 6-4, 6-2 and Miss Hart defeated Switzerland's Ruth Kauffman, 6-3, 9-7.

Richardson then teamed with Vic Seixas, another Davis Cupper from Philadelphia to capture the men's doubles title.

Miss Hart took three titles—the singles, the women's doubles and the mixed doubles.

Robin Roberts got $25,000 for signing with the Phils in 1948.

Wheat Hedging Causing Losses

CHICAGO (AP) — Grains opened lower on the Board of Trade today and did not show much recovery power in subsequent dealings.

Losses in wheat and soybeans ran to more than a cent at one time. Feed grains and rye were down major fractions. Largest losses in wheat were in the nearby futures, reflecting hedging pressure.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was 1½ to 1⅞ lower, July $2.01¼; corn ½ to 1 cents lower, July $1.40⅜; oats ½ to ¾ lower, July 63⅝; rye ½ to ⅞ lower, July $1.01; soybeans ¾ to 1¼ lower, July $2.40½, and lard 2 to 10 cents a hundred pounds lower, July $11.85.

Consumers Asks OK on More Heating

LANSING (AP)—Consumers Power Co. asked the State Public Service Commission today for permission to add 30,000 natural gas space heating customers in its 30-county service area.

The company proposed to allocate the additional customers "on an equitable" basis throughout the area.

Dan E. Karn, company president, said that Consumers Power has a backlog of about 90,000 applications for space heating service.

The number receiving such service has increased more than 300 per cent in six and one-half years, Karn said. Of the company's 340,000 gas customers, 176,000 now use gas for space heating.

Karn said sufficient gas to add 30,000 customers will become available under a new agreement, effective Nov. 1 with its subsidiary, Michigan Gas Storage Co. and its major supplier, the Panhandle Eastern Pipeline Co.

Ether was being used throughout the civilized world as an anesthesia within six months after its first successful demonstration in 1846 in Boston.

Fix Army Strength at 578,000 Troops

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress has been told the Army is planning on a permanent strength of 578,000 men in the indefinite future.

Retiring Secretary of the Army Robert T. Stevens told a House Appropriations subcommittee in testimony released today that this is the maximum total for which the Army now intends to ask Congress to finance permanent construction.

Under President Eisenhower's disputed cutback program, the Army is scheduled to be down to 1,027,000 men by mid-1956.

Market Edging Slowly Higher

NEW YORK (AP) — The Stock market was higher today in early dealings.

Some gains went to between 1 and 2 points. At the same time, there were losses as great. Plus signs predominated, however.

General Motors opened on 1,500 shares off ¼ at 124⅜, and it continued to trade in the neighborhood of that price. Chrysler was up ¼ at 85⅞ on an opening block of 3,000 shares. Both stocks were active.

Steels were higher along with the mail order issues (especially Sears), aircrafts (especially Beech), utilities, railroads, oils, and building materials.

Chemicals were mixed. Du Pont was higher and Olin Mathieson lower. Olin had a block of 5,000 shares off 1¾ at 63.

Mahoning Coal lost 28 points at 250 on two trades involving 40 shares.

The market last Friday was mixed with railroads depressed. The Associated Press average of 60 stocks was up 10 cents at $174.000.

Royal Dutch Petroleum started on 1,200 shares up ½ at 80½, Decca Record 2,000 up ¼ at 17⅞, Alleghany Corp. 1,100 up ⅛ at 9⅞, United Fruit 1,200 up ⅛ at 58¼, and Baltimore & Ohio 2,500 up ¾ at 47¾.

Pontiac Deaths

Joseph Beals

Joseph Beals, 88, of 260 N. Johnson died today after a long illness. The body may be viewed at the Brace-Smith Funeral Home at 12 noon tomorrow. Funeral arrangements are pending.

Elmer O. Bixby

Mrs. A B Leddick of Pontiac Drive received word Sunday of the death of her brother Elmer O. Bixby of DeWitt, Michigan. He was a resident of Avon Township for many years.

He is survived by his wife, Maude, of DeWitt, two sons; Oliver and Lester Bixby both of Lansing; two daughters, Mrs. Bernice Cook and Mrs. Irene DeBoer, also of Lansing; a stepson, Vern Baden of Canada and three sisters, Mrs. Mina Locher of DeWitt, Mrs. Olive Neson of Sioux City, Iowa and Mrs. Delia Leddick of Pontiac.

Service will be held Wednesday at 2 p.m. in the Vincent's funeral Home.

Robert Cameron

Funeral service for Robert Cameron of 137 Raeburn Ct., who died Saturday at home after a long illness, will be conducted tomorrow at 1:30 p.m. by the Reverend James Luther of Silvercrest Baptist Church in the Huntoon Funeral Home Chapel.

Burial will be in Farmers' Creek Cemetery.

Mr. Cameron, a retired farmer, was born in Waterford, Ontario, and lived here 35 years.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Nellie Reed Cameron, brothers Colin Cameron of Battle Creek and Al Cameron of Youngstown, Ohio, and a sister, Mrs. Roy Griffen of Romeo.

Albert J. Fisher

Albert J. Fisher, 91, of Lake Worth, Florida, died yesterday in Lake Worth Hospital.

Mr. Fisher was self employed as a realtor here in the city for many years. He retired 31 years ago and had lived in Lake Worth ever since.

Surviving are four nieces and nephews; Irwin A. Gies, Mark Fisher, Mrs. Mae Faust, and Mrs. Ella Knott, all of Pontiac.

Mr. Fisher will arrive from Lake Worth, Fla., Thurs. morning and he will lie in state at the Sparks-Griffin Funeral Home after noon on Thursday. Funeral arrangements will be announced by the funeral home later.

Charles L. Kast

Charles L. Kast, 76, of 82 North Cass Avenue, former owner of the Kast Furnace Company here, died yesterday at home after a two year illness.

Born in Munith, he had lived in Oakland County for 15 years and leaves only his widow, Mrs. Grace Avery Kast.

Funeral service will be conducted Wednesday at 11 a.m. in the Donelson-Johns Funeral Home by Reader Mrs. Vera Benham of the Pontiac Church of Christ Scientist.

Burial will be in Parma Cemetery.

Frank Sturma

A High Requiem Mass will be offered tomorrow at 10 a.m. in St. Vincent de Paul Catholic Church for Frank Sturma, 70, of 736 Orchard Lake Ave. who died Saturday at home after a long illness.

Mr. Sturma came to the United States from Russia in 1913 and had lived in Oakland County for 42 years.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Joseph Lepolski Sturma, at home; a daughter, Mrs. Anna Vetrovee of Cicero, Ill.; and several brothers and sisters in Poland.

Private service will be conducted in the Melvin A. Schutt Funeral Home. Burial will be in Mt. Hope Cemetery.

Car Purrs Like Cat;

GREENSBORO, N. C. (AP)—When Jack O. Jones of Greensboro arrived here yesterday after an 180-mile drive from Conway, S. C., he remarked that his motor purred like a kitten.

Then he looked under the hood of his car and discovered a furry kitten.

Baby Kidnaped From Bedroom

Girl, 2, Taken Away While Parents Watch TV Program

SIOUX CITY, Iowa, (AP)—A 2-year-old girl apparently was kidnaped from her crib last night while her parents watched television in another room, police said today.

Mr. and Mrs. James Davis reported their daughter, Donna Sue, missing to police about 30 minutes after they had put her to bed at 9:30 p.m. The father said a screen had been removed from a window.

Davis, a clerk for the Chicago & North Western Railroad, and his family live on the first floor of a two-story duplex in a modest Sioux City neighborhood.

Police Capt. John Rispolje said he has learned no motive for a kidnaping. He said there apparently has been no family trouble and the parents knew of no one who would want to take the child.

The Davises have two other children, Mary Clair, 11, and Timmy, 7, who were asleep in another bedroom.

Several neighbors reported seeing a man come up to the duplex and go to the back where the bedroom is located.

Capt. Rispolje said Laif Sjeldos, who lives in the neighborhood, told of chasing a man with a bundle in his arms down an alley about a block from the Davis home.

Sjeldos said he cornered the man in some bushes but that he got away when Sjeldos went into his house to telephone police.

Back With Interest

GILMAN CITY, Mo. (AP)—For a year a razor-back hog rampaged around these parts, eluding dogs and would-be pig hunters. The sow escaped from Virgil Warren as he attempted to unload her after a trip back from Arkansas.

Finally, a dog cornered the grunter out in the woods and she was roped by the farmers at the end of a battle.

When captured she had seven husky piglets running 15 pounds apiece.

African Unionist Visiting Reuther for Labor Talks

DETROIT (AP) — The CIO United Workers' "Solidarity House" headquarters put out the welcome mat today for a special guest.

Francis E. Tachie-Menson, leader of 110,000 African trade unionists, planned to stop by to talk shop with UAW President, Walter P. Reuther.

Tachie-Menson is head of the Gold Coas Trade Union Congress, which represents workers in government, forestry, mining and agriculture.

The African labor leader is studying the American labor movement. He said Communists have infiltrated African labor unions and he is interested in how Americans are handling the problem.

Tachie-Menson said he also wants to learn more about the layoff pay plans the UAW recently negotiated with Ford and General Motors.

He brought along a gift of handmade gold studs and dress shirt buttons.

"Two years ago," he explained, "Mr. Reuther was thoughtful enough to place me on the UAW mailing list. We have learned many things by reading what they sent."

Court Fines Drivers After Guilty Pleas

Two wild drivers, one who led police a nine-block chase and another who struck a house, pleaded guilty to reckless driving and were fined $50 by Municipal Judge Cecil McCallum today.

Thornton H. Graham, 22, of 144 Norton Ave., was arrested by Officer Dave Slater early Sunday morning.

Slater had stopped Graham at Auburn Ave. and S. Paddock St. earlier and asked him to drive into the police station.

Instead Graham fled with lights out, Slater reported, at speeds up to 60 miles an hour, running four stop signs in Pontiac's east section before halting at the Fiddis-Tasmania Sts. deadend.

The other driver, Monroe H. Shepard, 21, of 2075 Auburn Rd., was arrested Sunday morning by Officers Marvin Blum, Fred Stormer and William LeMonde at Midway and Going streets.

The officers said Shepard ran two stop signs on Raeburn Street at speeds up to 80, then struck a house at 11 Baxter Alley and continued until a tire blew out against the curb at 471 Going St.

About 24 million U.S. households use natural gas.

WHEN EVERYTHING GOES KAPUT!

Bringing electric power to you is a big job. Sometimes high winds, ice, sleet or rain play havoc by breaking or bending trees so they in turn break the wires. Such serious inconvenience to you can be eliminated by systematic trimming or removal of trees growing directly under, or too close alongside, power lines.

That's the purpose of Edison's tree control program. Experienced crews, supervised by trained foresters, work round the calendar. Their job? The sometimes stupendous task of keeping 81,000 miles of lines in service!

You will find these men try very hard to maintain the beauty of trees. When they are in your area, they will contact you and request permission to work on any of your trees near lines that may need attention. The crew will work carefully—their interest and responsibility is minimizing interruptions to your electric service, and that of your neighbors.

PLAN BEFORE YOU PLANT A TREE

We've prepared a colorful 16-page booklet to help you select the best trees for your home and community. Ask for "Planting for Permanent Beauty" at your Edison office or write Detroit Edison, 2000 Second, Detroit 26, Michigan.

Old Radio Show Moving to Video

Adept Performers to Take Leading Roles in New Program

By JACK O'BRIAN

NEW YORK (INS) — "Joe & Mabel" is an old radio property which has been making admiring passes at TV for some time, for which a pilot film was made recently . . .

Stars are Nita Talbot, an adept young lassie of the TV dramas, and Larry Bleyden, an equally aspiring actor who recently married Carol Haney, the Cinderella-star of "The Pajama Game."

The happy ending came this week when CBS bought "Joe & Mabel" for a fall appearance Tuesday nights, right after the new and highly touted Phil Silvers comedy series, so good CBS-TV gets it opposite Hope-Berle-Raye.

Bleyden plays a returned Marine hero . . . he's an attractive young gent with a little of Orson Bean's appearance and appeal but less of Bean's stylized mannerisms.

Nita Talbot is a miss who can and does play virtually anything on TV from a neo-Brando girl tough to a proper finishing school product; can be homely or pretty almost at will, and has an unusual range of performance.

* * *

We have no idea of what "Joe & Mable" will be like, but it its script, direction and other parts coincide with the apt selection of performers, CBS may have another hit.

CHRISTMAS IN JULY

After a highly successful season on ABC-TV, the U.S. Steel Theater, produced for TV by the Theater Guild, has changed channels to CBS.

The first CBS play, a sort of neo-Dickens whimsy called "The Meanest Man in the World," contained the customary Theater Guild care and polish in a gentle little virtue-wins-in-the-end comedy-melodrama.

It was acted with recognizable affection by Kenny Delmar, as the piece's "Scrooge"; Josephine Hull as darling an expert elder comedienne as always, in what might be called the "Tiny Tim" role. Wally Cox was, we might say, Bob Cratchit; Betsy Palmer prettified the story for reasons of romance.

A white mouse joined in for added whimsy and a psychiatrist, played amusingly by Marcel Hillaire, was perhaps the premiere's nearest parallel to Marley's ghost.

It would be a good enough 60-minute success any time of year, although it smacked more of Christmas than July, and deserves redoing around the holidays.

* * *

Probably in this hungry TV era when any good script is a novelty, it was deemed best to rush it into the air and let Christmas go to Dickens.

Pilot Falls to Death in Homemade Plane

CHARLOTTE (AP)—A homemade airplane carried its pilot to his death yesterday when it crashed at the airport here.

Killed was 29-year-old Marion Church of Owosso, an employe of the Fitch H. Beach Airport, who was testing the plane built by Bud Harwood, the airport manager.

Witnesses said Church started looping at an altitude of 2,000 feet when halfway through the loop the plane's wings collapsed and folded toward the tail.

Invite Soviets to U.S. Festival

Ask Russia's Pravda to Cover Shakespeare Theater Event

STRATFORD, Conn. (AP)—Pravda has been invited to send a correspondent to cover the opening of the American Shakespeare Festival Theater tomorrow night.

But because Stratford is off-limits to Russian nationals the U.S. State Department may have to decide whether the invitation can be used.

The invitation was made last week by the Bridgeport Sunday Herald, a Connecticut weekly newspaper, which said it was made as a gesture of good will.

The paper said yesterday that it had received a reply from Deputy Editor-in-Chief Zhukov saying that the invitation arrived too late for the paper to send a writer from Moscow but that it had instructed its New York representative, Eseenti Litoshko, to attend.

Litoshko told the Herald that he had asked the U.S. State Department for a travel pass through the Russian Embassy in Washington.

However, the State Department in Washington reported it had not received the request.

The Shakespeare Festival Theater, similar to one in Canada, will devote itself to the classics of the theater.

Its first production will be Shakespeare's "Julius Caesar."

90,000 Shriners Making Merry in Chicago Now

CHICAGO (AP)—The Ancient Arabic Order of Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, 90,000 red fezzes strong, is off and funning today on its annual five-day convention.

As Shriners poured into the city yesterday from every state, Canada, Mexico, Hawaii and the Canal Zone, spontaneous revelry erupted throughout downtown Chicago.

Two former Presidents will participate in the convention.

Harry S. Truman, a member of Kansas City's Ararat Temple will arrive tomorrow afternoon, the personal guest of Frank S. Land, imperial potentate and a fellow Kansas Citian.

Herbert Hoover will be among those to receive a "salute from Shrinedom" Wednesday night at the Shrinerama show in Soldier Field.

Catholics Mob Brussels in School Policy Protest

BRUSSELS, Belgium, (AP)—An estimated 200,000 Roman Catholics poured into Brussels yesterday to protest school policies of Premier Achille Van Acker's Liberal-Socialist coalition. The only casualties were caused by the heat.

Demonstrators chanted slogans against the government's bill to tighten regulation of church and other private schools.

Mid-Summer Car Sales Gain

Models Cleanup May Build Up to 600,000 Per Month in Quarter

By DAVID J. WILKIE
Associated Press Automotive Editor

DETROIT (AP)—New car sales approximating 600,000 monthly for the July-September quarter are being predicted in automotive circles as the industry's biggest outgoing model cleanup gains momentum.

New car retailers now hold about 800,000 new cars. Another 650,000 are scheduled to be built this month. There should be a sharp production cut in August and September.

Then, from October through December, 1956 models should be pouring from the assembly lines in unprecedented final quarter volume.

Such is the widely accepted prospect ahead of the new car retailers. There have been few occasions when the nation's 40,000 or more new car retailers have sold 1,800,000 cars in the year's third quarter.

BONUS PLANS SPROUT

Probably they wouldn't do it this year but for the extraordinary sales promotion effort at the factory as well as at the retail level. Bonus plans are sprouting throughout the industry.

Manufacturers are offering their dealers cash bonuses of from $25 to as much as $250 for each sale above a certain percentage of their average quotas.

Some retailers say it will be hard to cash in on the bonuses; they say the tremendous sales volume of this year's first six months cannot be maintained through the current quarter.

And, they add, the January-June rate would have to be maintained if 1,800,000 new cars are to be sold in the three months ahead.

However that may be, the biggest sales push in industry history is immediately ahead. It undoubtedly will include continued price slashing at the retail level.

But some industry analysts say that in offering cash bonuses for sales volume the manufacturers are taking over some of the price cuts.

Nobody close to the industry questions that price concessions will have to be continued if the record-smashing output of 1955 model cars is to be even partly cleaned up before next year's models start coming from the assembly plants.

But nobody is that certain regarding the industry's pricing program for 1956. On almost every count—higher materials costs and higher wages—1956 model cars should cost the buyer substantially more than present models.

Japanese Shipbuilder to Teach Birth Control

TOKYO (AP)—Fewer babies, fewer dependent allowances, lower labor costs.

That's the theory behind a plan announced today by the Hitachi Shipbuilding Co. It's going to teach its 14,000 employes about birth control.

Estimated annual savings: $27,800.
