EDWARD E. WILSON

Birmingham auto dealer Edward E. Wilson, 31, was renamed Oakland County Republican Committee chairman last night at a meeting of GOP county candidates. Also named were Mrs. Robert A. Sutton of Pontiac, vice chairman; Chad Ritchie of Bloomfield Township, treasurer; and Mrs. John Schock of Berkley, secretary. Assistant chairmen are Ben Jerome Jr. of Pontiac, John Emery of Birmingham and Ritchie.

Chinese Refuse Second Protest

Turn Down Complaint by U. S. Over Aircraft Shooting Incident

LONDON (AP)—Red China has refused even to accept a second American protest against the shooting down of a British airliner off Hainan last month, diplomatic officials said today. Three Americans were among the 10 persons killed in the attack.

The U. S. State Department disclosed July 29 that the Peiping regime had contemptuously turned down American protests on both that incident and a subsequent fighter attack on two American rescue planes in which the attackers were shot down.

The protests were relayed by the British charge d'affaires, Humphrey Trevelyn. The Chinese would not accept them from his hand.

Informants here said Trevelyn had sought anew to deliver Washington's protest, but the Communists refused for the second time even to consider it.

Unheralded Golfer Leads All-American

CHICAGO (AP) — Unheralded Harold Williams, golf course owner in Tuscaloosa, Ala., knocked five strokes off Tam O'Shanter's par with a 34-33—67 today to grab the early lead in the All-American tournament.

Williams, playing his 1st season on the PGA tourney circuit, missed a hole-in-one by an inch on the 150-yard No. 11. He salvaged a par 4 on the 18th after blasting from a sand trap and dropping an 8-foot putt.

Homes Ordered Evacuated Near Distillery Blaze

Fire Fighters Retreat as Blast Threatens; 8 Feared Dead, 30 Hurt

PEKIN, Ill. (AP)—Homes were evacuated today near a distillery fire and civil workers were summoned for fear new blasts might knock over other storage buildings "like dominoes."

Fire fighters were ordered back from a flaming whisky rackhouse of the American Distilling Co. because a huge store of alcohol might ignite and explode.

Eight persons may have been killed. One person was known dead, seven are missing and feared dead, and more than 30 were injured in two explosions and fires since Wednesday morning.

The threat that the fire might spread and touch off new blasts prompted Pekin air raid wardens to ask all civil defense workers to be ready to report for emergency action.

Many civil defense workers from Pekin and nearby communities already had reported for duty at the fire scene.

Some 110,000 barrels of aging whisky—the equivalent of 17,325,000 fifths—have been destroyed. This loss, plus the plant and equipment destruction, sent the cost of the fire into the millions of dollars.

The section of the plant burning this morning is only 70 feet from a building where 600,000 gallons of alcohol are stored.

The danger area was roped off. Firemen were pulled back.

The continuing fire, capped by a dazzling, nighttime, atomic-like explosion seen 75 miles away, destroyed much of the company's sprawling plant facilities in this central Illinois city.

Damage already is well into the millions of dollars.

The explosion last night lifted the roof and walls of one rackhouse—a six-story brick building—high into the air. The debris rained down on firemen and plant workers fighting to halt the fierce, whisky-fed blaze touched off 17 hours earlier during a severe electrical storm.

Bricks buried two fire trucks and a fire chief's car.

Firemen who were drawing their water from the Illinois River and reportedly handicapped by a lack of sufficient pressure, were order-

City Buses Cut Waiting Time

Will Pick Up Riders Before Turning Around Under New Policy

Pontiac City Lines, Inc., has inaugurated a new policy reducing the time passengers near the end of routes must spend in waiting on corners for buses.

The plan permits passengers to board outbound buses, ride to the end of the route, and then return on the inbound trip without paying an additional fare.

E. W. Dreasher, transportation superintendent, said the practice will permit the passengers to sit in the coach out of the snow, rain or sun and ride rather than stand on the corner waiting for the coach to return on its downtown trip.

He termed the practice "revolutionary" departure from normal scheduling, as it requires more stops for passengers.

"In recent months," Dreasher said, "the number of passengers has declined to the extent that now the schedules contain sufficient time to warrant this move."

Only passengers near the end of routes will be picked up for the return trip. Outbound boarding of coaches will be permitted on outlying ends of each route as follows:

Huron Route 1, beyond intersection of Huron and Telegraph; Sanford Route 1, beyond Elm and East Blvd.; Joslyn Route 2, beyond Kennett and Joslyn; South Blvd. Route 2, beyond Raeburn and Sanford; Baldwin Route 3, beyond Baldwin and Tennyson.

St. Joseph Route 3, beyond Franklin and South Blvd.; Franklin Route 3, beyond Franklin and South Blvd.; Oakland Route 4, beyond Oakland and Montcalm; James K Route 4, beyond Orchard Lake and Voorheis; Perry Park Route 6, beyond Kennett and Joslyn; and Bagley Route 6, beyond Branch and Wessen.

Six Will Study Senator's Ways, Act on Censure

3 Republicans, 3 Dems Asked for Opinion by Adjournment Date

WASHINGTON (AP)—Vice President Nixon today appointed a six-member Senate committee to make an investigation of the conduct of Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) and consider proposals that he be censured.

The members:

Sen. Arthur V. Watkins (R-Utah).

Sen. Frank Carlson (R-Kans).

Sen. Francis Case (R-SD).

Sen. Edwin C. Johnson (D-Colo).

Sen. John C. Stennis (D-Miss).

Sen. Sam J. Ervin (D-NC).

Quickly after the appointment of the commitee, McCarthy arose and asked who would be the committee's chairman. Nixon replied that "the committee will select its own chairman."

McCarthy asked for a meeting this afternoon with the committee.

McCarthy said he wished, among other things, to get an understanding with the group which would avoid any conflict between its possible requirements on his time and his own plans for conducting hearings before his Senate investigations subcommittee.

While Nixon announced the appointees, the actual selections were made by party leaders.

The Senate Democratic Policy Committee had an early morning meeting to decide finally on the Democratic members.

At its conclusion, Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, Democratic floor leader, said, without disclosing the names, that his party's selections "are men who are symbols for patriotism, integrity and judicial temperament."

Johnson added:

"Two of them have had eminent careers as jurists. The third is one of the most beloved and respected senior senators on the minority side of the aisle."

Colorado's Edwin Johnson is the

Dock Workers, Police Clash Over 25 Homes to Be Torn Down

BREMERHAVEN, Germany (AP)—A thousand angry dock workers clashed with German police riot squads here today in a fight against the U.S. Army's project to build military apartments on the site of 25 German homes.

Fists and clubs flew as police reserves were rushed to this port from nearby Bremen to quell the anti-American demonstration. Waterfront Communist leaders were rumored to have helped incite the violence.

Police arrested a number of demonstrators.

Some injured required first-aid. Trouble started brewing when owners of the 25 houses received eviction notices recently. The U.S. Army had requisitioned their property under occupation law to construct a $7,140,000 housing project for American personnel in the Bremen enclave. In turn, the Army offered to release 741 requisitioned homes in Bremen to German authorities. When police attempted to enter one of the requisitioned Bremerhaven dwellings late yesterday, 40 occupants of the area stood them off with clubs and pitchforks.

More than 100 police were sent back today with orders to protect an assessment commission.

American officials privately expressed regret over the dispute. They said there was good reason to believe that all the families due for eviction would receive satisfactory quarters elsewhere from German housing authorities.

Leonard Goes in Training to Meet Champ Williams

By JACK I. GREEN

DETROIT (AP) — Republicans threw their November campaign machinery into gear today within hours of the voters' decision that Donald S. Leonard shall go up against Gov. G. Mennen Williams in the general election.

Leonard snatched a few hours blissful sleep after he had smashed the governorship hopes of three Republican veterans and then flew to Lansing for a quick huddle with officers of the Republican State Central Committee.

In conformity with the "unity pledge" the party took before the primary, Leonard walked at once into party councils with a promise to conduct a "no mud-slinging" campaign.

"I think one of the reasons the voters nominated me," he said, "is because I refused to throw mud. I have worked with Soapy (nickname for Williams) and like him. I see no reason why it can't be a clean campaign even though we differ in political philosophy."

Leonard said he will take no post-primary vacation but "will start campaigning at once" for the big engagement with the champ, Williams.

If any Republicans thought the champ was slipping, Tuesday's primary showed he was not.

With only one state contest on the Democratic side of the ballot, Williams unopposed polled an estimated 300,000 or more votes, purged Georke S. Fitzgerald, former Democratic national committeeman, and led his party to a new record share of populous Wayne County's total vote—an estimated 70 per cent.

Williams really had staked his political prestige on the Democratic lieutenant governorship nomination and the party backed him up.

It gave Williams what he wanted, Phillip A. Hart of Birmingham, as his running-mate in a decisive and crushing victory over Fitzgerald, the candidate of James S. Hoffa's powerful AFL Teamsters Union.

Fitzgerald, for whom the teamsters poured out the cash bountifully, carried only six counties, losing even those teamster fortresses, Wayne and Oakland Counties, by large margins.

Williams appeared touched at the size of the "in memoriam" vote cast by his party for their fallen comrade, the late Blair Moody who sought a comeback as U. S. senator. Moody drew votes

Iran to Put Oil Back on Market

25-Year Deal With the West to End Industry's Long Shutdown

TEHRAN, Iran (UP)—Iran and the West announced officially today a 25-year agreement putting Iranian oil back in the world market for the first time in three years.

The agreement ended a struggle that had cost more than 1,000 lives and for many uncertain months threatened to swing Iran into the Soviet orbit.

It also restored to Iran her major source of revenue.

The agreement reached between Iran and a western oil combine was the second major Middle East settlement in a week. It followed an Anglo-Egyptian pact for evacuation of British troops from the Canal Zone.

The deal made here relieved Britain from one of the worst tail-twistings it has suffered since World War II and stabilized a country that lies under Russia's soft Middle East underbelly on a frontier regarded as a likely Soviet invasion route westward in event of war.

Spokesmen for the oil combine said it will require about two months to put the agreement into legal form, sign it, get it ratified by Iran and approved by the Shah.

Only then can tankers begin

Voting Is Heavy in Tennessee

Kefauver - Sutton Race for Senate Seat Draws Big Dem Turnout

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—An apparent record turnout of Tennessee Democrats voted today in a primary election highspotted by a hot dogfight between Sen. Estes Kefauver, 1952 presidential aspirant who is seeking a second Senate term, and challenger Pat Sutton, who represents the state's sixth congressional district.

Long lines of voters perspiring in broiling heat were on hand at the 7 a.m. polls opening in many city precincts over the state. The lines grew longer as the morning wore on with wilting temperatures climbing towards a predicted 100 degrees.

They were coaxed out not only by the Kefauver-Sutton battle but by another torrid scrap between incumbent Gov. Frank Clement, up for re-election, and Ex-Gov. Gordon Browning.

Browning was trying to recapture the governor's job he lost to Clement two years ago. This time, due to a constitutional change, they are running for a four-year term.

Kefauver voted at his home precinct atop Lookout Mountain at Chattanooga. He then headed for the airport to catch a plane for Washington to be on hand to vote against the Benson flexible price support program. He planned to return to his Nashville headquarters tonight to watch returns come in.

New Antibiotic Routs Disease in Mexico Tests

Michigan Laboratories Hope to Make Royalty Agreements

LANSING (AP)—Dr. Albert Heustis, state health commissioner, announced today that the Michigan State Health Laboratories have developed the first known cure for typhoid fever.

He told the State Administrative Board that the cure is a new antibiotic called synnematin which the laboratories have been developing for more than five years.

He said the new drug has been under test on human beings in Mexico for the past two months and has produced complete cures in 16 cases.

"This is the first known specific for typhoid fever and the most effective drug yet found," Dr. Heustis said.

The commissioner made the disclosure after the State Administrative Board requested Gov. Williams to submit to the Aug. 18 special legislative session a bill authorizing the board to enter into royalty agreements with commercial drug firms for mass production of the antibiotic.

The Pfizer Company of New York City has asked for a royalty agreement and Dr. Heustis said he assumed that the Parke-Davis Co. of Detroit and the Upjohn Company of Kalamazoo would also seek patent rights.

The two Michigan firms have had development agreements with the state for two years.

Dr. Heustis said the state had been disappointed in the slowness of its progress and did not have the equipment for large-scale production for experimentation of human beings.

He said Dr. G. D. Cummings, director of the State Health Laboratories, took a small quantity to Mexico two months ago because that was the nearest place which had large amounts of typhoid fever.

"We had only enough to treat 16 cases under controlled conditions," Dr. Heustis said. "We had only two cases of recurrence of the disease and when we increased the dosage the disease disappeared in 72 hours."

Other recent biotics used for typhoid have only succeeded in reducing the fever, he said.

Grace Early Leader in Pine Lake Test

Joe Grace of Detroit Golf Club was the early leader in today's qualifying round for the Detroit District Golf Association championship at Pine Lake Country Club. Grace posted a 73.

Dr. A. LaCroix had a 75, while bracketed at 76 were Dick Whiting of Red Run Country Club and Roy Iceberg, public links star from Pontiac and runner-up for the title last year.

Low 32 today qualify for championship match play starting Friday.

Bares Rebuff Determined Preacher Trying to Cover Up the Naked Facts

BATTLE CREEK, Mich. (AP) — A crusading preacher, rebuffed in his initial effort to visit Sunshine Gardens yesterday, vowed to return today and resume his fight against "the national threat of nudism."

Dr. Braxton Sawyer, of Fort Smith, Ark., went to the Battle Creek Area Sunbathing Club armed with an invitation to attend the American Sunbathing Assn. convention. He also carried a movie camera.

He was asked to remove his clothes before entering the nudist camp — a requirement for all visitors.

"Never," stormed Dr. Sawyer, who says he's a Baptist minister.

The closest Sawyer got to the bare facts yesterday were 20 barechested nudists who stopped him at the gate and scuffled with him.

After charging into a male nudist, who like the minister was big, Rev. Sawyer picked himself from the dust and said: "Somebody stomped on me."

He then prowled back and forth in front of the gateway and challenged the nudists to a fight:

"There comes a time when Samson has to take the jawbone of an ass and whip a pack of fools," thundered the preacher.

Rev. Sawyer was told by Elmer J. Adams, Garden proprietor, that his invitation stood, but that taking off his clothes was part of the rules and everybody follows the rules.

Sawyer said they'd better call the police if they intended to keep him out. They did. Township police and deputies arrived.

"Go on . . . evict me," said Rev. Sawyer furiously while he ground away at everything in sight with his movie camera. "I have come a thousand miles for this affair and nobody is going to make a fool of me," he cried.

Rev. Sawyer said he has been broadcasting since Monday over 27 stations in Arkansas, Oklahoma, Kentucky and Missouri. He said he is attempting to help pass anti-nudism bills in the states. His broadcasts were heard in the colony's clubhouse.

Sawyer missed showgirl Evelyn West's keynote address to the association convention. Miss West, who gained publicity in 1946 when she insured her chest with Lloyds of London for $50,000 gave the address clothed only in a pair of high-heeled shoes.

Sawyer said his following was expecting him to finish the crusade.

"My flock is expecting me to keep faith and make a full report on this place—but take my clothes off? Never!" he said.

Starlings Squawk Defiance at City

Sturnus Vulgaris Plague Once Again Infects Pontiac

The sturnus vulgaris plague has returned to Pontiac and officials admit they are unable to combat it.

At this time of year the vulgaris malady is more common than the common cold. But it is almost impossible to cure.

For sturnus vulgaris is the high-brow Latin name for a very low-brow nuisance: The starling.

Those messy birds which flock in trees in residential areas have returned en masse. They probably will remain here unmolested until cold weather sends them south.

Their freedom from danger is not by design. City officials would like to chase them away, but, they can't. Even their most potent weapons have proved virtually worthless.

Several years ago city officials tried to scare them away with stuffed owls. Owls are starlings' natural enemies, so it was hoped the artificial birds would give the starlings the bird.

The store owls were placed in roosting trees and for a few days frightened the starlings. Then the starlings wised up, realized the owls were harmless and returned.

At wits' end, officials resorted to violence. They started shooting the birds. They shot a lot, but found this didn't even dent the total number.

Next they figured the best way to rid the city of the blue-black

Birmingham Clerk Lists 31 Per Cent Vote; Invites Registration for November

From Our Birmingham Bureau

BIRMINGHAM—City Clerk Irene Hanley's tabulations show that over 31 per cent of the city's registered voters availed themselves of the opportunity to vote in Tuesday's primary election. Votes cast numbered 3,832 out of a possible 11,971.

"But as always, some people were disappointed because they had neglected to register," Miss Hanley commented.

To those who did fail to do so, Miss Hanley stated they may register for the general election anytime between now and the Oct. 5 deadline.

She reminded that the city clerk's office (in the Municipal Building) will be open from 7 to 9 p.m. each Monday, for the convenience of those who do not work in Birmingham.

Registrations were halted for 30 days prior to this week's election.

In addition to the Monday evening office hours, the city clerk's office is open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. weekdays.

Meeting this week, the Zone Board of Appeals postponed a hearing over screening requirements for a portion of the Wabeek-Jacobson off-street parking lot, adjacent to property owned by Adolph Meyers, of Detroit.

The board will get an opinion from City Attorney Forbes Hascall on whether front-, rear- or side-yard limitations apply in the set-back requirements, before issuing its decision.

Wabeek-Jacobson has requested a five-yard set-back, while Meyers is holding out for 12 yards.

In another case, Frank Pero, of 1491 S. Eton, won his appeal, since neighbors had no objections and may build a detached garage at the rear of his property. Because of the triangular shape of the lot, it would be impossible to maintain the set-back requirements of 15 feet.

Before permission is granted for an addition to be constructed at the rear of Forbes Printing Co., 415 E. Frank St., the board will discuss with the Fire Department the advisability of permitting a variance in the rear yard set-back requirement of 10 feet.

"We are still waiting for more transcripts of our testimony," James Spencer, chairman of the board of inquiry investigating the actions of the fire and police departments at a June fire which cost two lives, said yesterday.

"The board will still meet this week, but there probably will be no more hearings," he said.

Hoping to end the investigation soon, the boards' final step will be to draft and file a completed report with the City Commission, he stated.

Principal points of the agreement were:

1. The western oil combine will operate the rich oil fields and explore for new deposits.

2. A second company formed by the combine will operate the huge Abadan oil refinery which will again become the biggest producer in the mid-east after three years of idleness.

3. Money-short Iran, long denied revenue from her idle oil fields, will get an estimated income of $420,000,000 from oil in the first three full years of operation, following a three-month period required to get the giant industry in operation again.

4. The combine will market Iran's oil abroad.

5. The agreement will run for 25 years, with provision for three five-year extensions.

Edwin C. Johnson, 70, has been in the Senate since 1937 and is outranked by only seven senators in point of service.

A former Colorado governor (1933-37), he has announced his intention to retire from the Senate and run again for the governorship.

Stennis, 55, is a former Mississippi circuit judge. He has been in the Senate since 1947.

Ervin, 57, was appointed to the Senate only last June 5 on the death of the veteran Sen. Clyde Hoey (D-NC). Ervin stepped down from his state's Supreme Court bench to accept the appointment.

Sen. Knowland of California, the Republican leader, described his task in advance as one of selecting men of judicious temperament who had not become deeply involved in the controversy over McCarthy.

Watkins, 67, is a former judge in Utah. He was elected to the Senate in 1946.

Carlson, 61, is a former governor of Kansas. He was elected to the Senate in 1950.

Carlson had previously served six terms in the House, 1935-47.

Case, 57, has been in the Senate since 1949. Previously, he had served 12 years in the House where he was a member of the Un-American Activities Committee.

Case is a rancher and former newspaper editor and publisher.

Vice President Nixon made the announcement of appointment in a quiet, matter-of-fact voice, after calling a quorum of the members of the chamber.

Behind-the-scenes maneuvers to line it up had been going on steadily since the Senate voted Monday night to create the committee.

The vote ended a bitter debate in the Senate touched off by a resolution by Sen. Flanders (R-Vt) calling for censure of McCarthy.

The motion for creation of the committee, offered by GOP leader Knowland, includes a provision that the committee should report before this session of Congress adjourns.

There appears to be a strong possibility, however, that any report by that time—since congressional leaders are driving for adjournment by next weekend—could not go much further than to say the committee would need more time for its study.

Sen. Mundt (R-SD), speaking from his own experience of presiding over the McCarthy-Army hearings, told reporters his guess was that the new inquiry could last "two or three months."

As soon as Nixon read off the names, Sen. Fulbright (D-Ark) said he felt it was up to the Senate itself rather than the committee to make any recommendations for censure.

He asked Knowland what the purposes and functions of the committee would be.

Pontiac Deaths

Mrs. Henry Alyea

After a prolonged illness, Mrs. Henry (Mildred) Alyea, 85, of Pontiac died Wednesday.

Born Sept. 21, 1868, she was the daughter of George and Emma Green Hilliker. She married in Pontiac in 1914 and had lived her entire life in Oakland County.

She was a charter member of the Walled Lake Civic Club.

Mrs. Alyea is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Evelyn Mitchell of Lapeer County; a son, Stephen A. Bone of Pontiac; eight grandchildren; 20 great-grandchildren, and two great-great-grandchildren.

Funeral will be Saturday at 1:30 p. m. at the Huntoon Funeral Home. The Rev. Edward D. Auchard of the First Presbyterian Church will officiate and burial will be in East Farmington Cemetery.

Mrs. John E. McLaughlin

Mrs. John E. (Eleanor) McLaughlin, 41 of 1067 Canterbury, died suddenly at 2 a.m. today in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

Born in Detroit Mar. 17, 1913, she was the daughter of Stanley and Marian Elwart Priebe. She came to Pontiac 23 years ago and was a member of St. Vincent de Paul Church.

Besides her husband and mother, Mrs. Marian Gates of Toledo, she is survived by a son, Ronald in the Air Force; a daughter, Mrs. Donald Giordano and a grandchild. Also surviving are a sister, Mrs. Howard Finch of Pontiac and a brother, George Priebe of Olathe, Kan.

The body is at the Donelson-Johns Funeral Home.

Mary Ann Peltier

Graveside service was held this morning at Perry Mount Park Cemetery for Mary Ann Peltier. The Rev. Malcolm K. Burton officiated.

She died at birth at Pontiac General Hospital yesterday.

She is survived by her parents Lyle and Helen Noll Peltier of 3733 Lincolnshire Rd.; and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Peltier, Lake Orion, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Noll of Pontiac.

Arrangements were by Sparks-Griffin Funeral Home.

Mrs. Frank F. Rand

Funeral for Mrs. Frank F. (Mamie) Rand, 71, of 4224 Lanette Rd., Elizabeth Lake Estates, will be held Friday at 3:30 p.m. from the Donelson-Johns Funeral Home. The Rev. Malcolm K. Burton of First Congregational Church will officiate and burial will be in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery.

Born in Detroit Aug 1, 1883, she died Monday in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital after an illness of two weeks.

Besides her husband she is survived by a son, Frank Jr. of Reading, Mass., and a daughter, Mrs. Arne Andersen of Green Castle, Pa., and five grandchildren.

F. George Ruby

F. George Ruby, 78, of 205 S. Jessie St. died suddenly this morning at his home.

Born in Ontario Jan. 6, 1876, he married Edna Bailey at Oxford July 29, 1903. He came to Pontiac to live 33 years ago and was a retired groceryman.

He had managed A & P stores in various locations. Previous to that he was in the farm implement business in Oxford and Armada.

Mr. Ruby was a member of First Methodist Church, and a life member of Lodge 84, F&AM, at Oxford and OES of Armada. He also was a member of the Pontiac Sunset Club.

Besides his widow he is survived by several nephews and nieces.

Funeral will be held Saturday at 2 p.m. from Farmer-Snover Funeral Home. The Rev. Paul R. Havens, his pastor, will officiate and burial will be in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery.

Starlings Squawk, Officials Shudder

birds was by eliminating their roosts. So foresters started thinning out trees.

They chopped down shade trees on West Iroquois road between Voorheis and Algonquin and routed the starlings. Instead of solving the problem, the bird nuisance became even more acute in other parts of the neighborhood.

The starlings flew away from the thinned-out area and joined their pals in other trees left untouched. Complaints poured into the city.

So officials abandoned the city-wide tree-thinning plan. Now they remove trees only when residents demand it.

Raymond C. Keller, city parks supervisor, admits he's stumped. "Frankly," said Keller, "we don't know what to do. We've tried about everything and have failed.

"Maybe we'll find a secret weapon. Until then, though, I guess our only weapon is patience."

Boy, 11, Suffers Bruises in Motorcycle Scrap

An 11-year-old Independence Township boy was treated at Pontiac General Hospital yesterday for face and foot bruises sustained when he was struck by a motorcycle on Dartmouth road near Whipple Lake road.

John Parks of 9556 Yale, the accident victim, dashed from behind some bushes into the path of a motorcycle driven by William Gerrow, 39, of 9881 Marmora, Clarkston, according to Oakland County sheriff's deputies.

Justinian, Byzantine emperor, succeeded in getting the silk secret from China by bribing two monks to smuggle some of the silkworms out of the country in their bamboo staffs. Afterward, silk became more widely used, although it remained expensive.

4 Youths Held for Arraignment

Birmingham Foursome Suspected in Several Business Breakins

Four Birmingham youths are in Oakland County Jail today after waiving examination on breaking and entering charges before Farmington Township Justice Allen C. Ingle yesterday.

None was able to furnish the $500 bond each set by Ingle. The four are scheduled for arraignment in Oakland County Circuit Court Aug. 16.

They are George R. Smith, 17, of 28405 Mattroit; his brother, Robert, 19; Donald L. Chandanais, 18, of 25559 Farmbrook, and Theodore T. Huesing, 18, of 28405 Mattroit.

According to Michigan State Police of the Redford Post, Chandanais is accused of breaking into Spencer's Service Station at 30400 Grand River, Farmington Township, July 24, and taking a camera and flashlight.

The others are accused of taking $30 and cigarettes from Dodo's Drive-Inn at 26431 Northwestern, Southfield Township, Tuesday.

They also have been connected with a breakin of the Gaffney's Buttermilk Stand at Haggerty and Grand River in Farmington Township Tuesday, in which thieves took cigaret lighters and change. Police said the four are involved in two breakins in Hillman, one in Pinconning and one in Ypsilanti.

The Smith brothers are also serving a 60-day jail sentence for assault and battery of David G. Clark of 23900 Inkster Rd., Farmington Township, June 30.

They pleaded guilty to assaulting Clark at Nine Mile and Telegraph Rds., as Clark was waiting for a friend. Information picked up by troopers after a routine check of the youths' car Tuesday led to their arrest.

State GOP Throws Campaign Into Gear

in every county and polled 117,704 ballots.

This was about 50 per cent of the vote for the winner, Patrick V. McNamara of Detroit, whom the Democrats must now build up quickly to go against U. S. Sen. Homer Ferguson, renominated unopposed.

Republicans began buzzing at once about the chances of State Treasurer D. Hale Brake and Secretary of State Owen J. Cleary holding on to their present jobs after their defeat at Leonard's hands.

Brake's chances for a convention nomination seemed fairly good in view of his long vote-getting record and his second place run against Leonard.

He glumly refused to discuss his political future, but politicians noted that he had carried 31 counties to 30 for Leonard, 12 for Cleary, nine for Dr. Eugene C. Keyes and one tied.

Brake men said the party's desire for a "glamor" candidate to rival Williams cost their chief the nomination, but they pushed for Brake to get a consolation nomination.

The big buzz was over Cleary's future. A former Republican state chairman and ruler of an empire of politically powerful branch offices, Cleary ran a poor third. He trailed Leonard by 90,570 and Brake by 16,762.

Cleary said he had not decided whether he would seek the secretary of state nomination again, but he added, "I've always been very responsive to the wishes of my party."

Politicians noted that Oakland county gave Leonard a whopping four-to-one, 14,000 majority over Cleary. They recalled that Oakland is the home county of Sen. George N. Higgins of Ferndale, who withdrew from the governorship race and made no secret of his hope to become secretary of state.

They noted also that Auditor General John B. Martin of Grand Rapids is supposed to be wanting the secretary of state post for a stepping stone to higher things and they suspect Martin has convention strength.

They noted also that Upper Peninsula Republicans are demanding a spot on the ticket this year and traditionally the auditor general post has gone north of the Straits.

They wondered whether all this spelled a squeeze play on Cleary.

Leonard refused to say whether either Brake or Cleary would be acceptable on the state ticket.

It was recalled that Leonard, in a Grand Rapids speech six weeks ago, promised to find a place in state government for both Brake and Cleary. Some wondered whether that implied he was thinking of an appointive job.

Earthquakes Recorded

NEW YORK (AP)—Two "fairly sharp" earth tremors, believed about 4,700 miles in an undetermined direction from New York, were recorded today on the Fordham University seismograph.

Birmingham Dog Owners Get Time to Quiet Pets

BIRMINGHAM—To give the defendants time to work out a method of silencing their two dogs, Justice John J. Gafill yesterday took the disturbing the peace case against Mr. and Mrs. Irving A. Taylor under advisement until Sept. 8.

Complaint against the Taylors, who live at 756 Abbey, was brought by the Richard Wagners of 660 Abbey, who charged that the dogs—a terrier and a collie—create a neighorhood disturbance.

Police said there haye been 10 other complaints against the dogs.

4 Gls Drown in Hainan

SEOUL (AP)—Four American soldiers drowned yesterday when an assault boat capsized while crossing the Hainan River in a training landing exercise, the 8th Army said today.

Automotive industry payrolls reached $3.5 billion in 1953.

Business Booms at City Library Month of July

Pontiac City Library loaned 15,635 books last month, the second largest July business in the institution's history, exceeding July 1953 by 3,000 books.

Nearly 80 per cent of the book lending was done from the main library at 47 Williams St., with the bookmobile and branch libraries accounting for the rest, said Librarian Adah SHELLY.

Two new bookmobile stops have been added in Washington Park and Bloomfield Terrace, Miss Shelly stated, with an accompanying rise in users by 423 last month.

Man Impaled on Rod for Thirty Minutes

LONG BEACH, Calif. (UP) — A workman was impaled for 30 minutes on an iron rod yesterday after he fell from a girder on a bridge construction project.

Fellow workers and an ambulance crew worked for 30 minutes to free Francis Snorak, held by a one-inch rod which penetrated his thigh and hip for four inches.

Snorak, 42, was taken to a hospital for surgery.

School Board Gets Bids on Repairing Bus Garage

Five bids have been accepted from local area contractors on repair of the front wall of the Pontiac schools bus garage at 40 Patterson St., according to the superintendent of schools' office.

Bricks in the wall are bulging forward and must be re-aligned. The contract for the work will be awarded at a school board meeting Aug. 11.

Nab Young Car Thieves

GRAND RAPIDS (UP) — Robert L. Starns, 19, and his brother Raymond, 18, both of Negaunee, pleaded guilty in federal court Wednesday of transporting a stolen car from Ohio to their home town in July. They will be sentenced Aug. 20.

CIO Hits Strike at Square D Co.

Union Publication Raps Walkout as Communist Leadership Job

DETROIT—Today the CIO joined a United States Congressman in condemning the "Communist leadership" behind the eight-week strike against the Square D Company, UEW Local 957 called out 1200 workers on June 15.

On Tuesday, Charles J. Kersten (R., Wis.) said it was a "push-button" strike engineered by UEW headquarters in New York City, in a speech entered in the Congressional Record. Kersten said a leader in the strike was Philip Saba, "a prominent Communist functionary from Philadelphia."

The CIO blast against the UEW today took the form of a four-page tabloid, detailing Saba's record. The publication was entitled "an official publication of Local 945, IUE-CIO," which has a contract with Vickers, Inc., Detroit manufacturer.

The publication has been distributed to several thousand CIO members in Detroit, including all members of the Vickers local plus CIO International Committeemen and other union officials.

"The Communist leadership of the Square D strike can become a rallying point for fighting Reds on a local level for veterans organizations, educators, government officials and for all citizens interested in preserving our way of life."

Dissatisfied With Will, Heir Sets Fire to Home

SAND LAKE (UP) — State Police said Harold Kilts, 44, had admitted pouring gasoline on a home owned by his father's estate and setting it afire because he was dissatisfied with settlement of the estate.

Kilts waived examination Wednesday in municipal court on a charge of arson and was held for circuit court.

Minister Visits Jailed Doctor

Says Detectives Keep Showing Dr. Sheppard Photos of Dead Wife

CLEVELAND (UP)—A minister says Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard complains detectives keep "thrusting before him pictures of his murdered wife."

The Rev. Alfred C. Kreke, pastor of Bay Village Methodist Church, visited county jail yesterday to take a Bible to the 30-year-old osteopath accused of clubbing his pregnant wife, Marilyn, 31, to death in their home July 4.

Dr. Sheppard stopped talking to detectives because they kept asking the same questions and showing him pictures of his wife's body, the minister told a reporter. The doctor believes police are only interested in convicting him, Rev. Kreke added.

Police Chief Frank W. Story has announced the osteopath, charged with first degree murder, would be quizzed no longer because "it's just a waste of time." Dr. Sheppard sat reading a Bible while detectives tried to question him, and occasionally would say that "on advice of counsel" he would not discuss the murder.

On a volunteer basis, detectives began taking the finger prints and palm prints of anyone in Bay Village who might have been in the Sheppard home about the time of the slaying.

One palm print, found on the desk in the Sheppard home, never has been identified.

Antartica, averaging 6,000 feet in altitude, is higher than any other continent. The south pole rests on a plateau 9,800 feet in height.

One Killed in Attempt on Publisher's Life

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (UP)—Carlos Lacerda, publisher of the independent Tribuna da Imprensa and an outspoken critic of the government, narrowly escaped an assassination attempt last night. A friend with him was shot dead.

Lacerda and his companion, an air force officer, were stepping from their car when three cars passing along the street let loose with five shots. Lacerda was not hit.

The publisher is a candidate for congress on an anticorruption platform.

Police Fingerprint Baby, but Only for Passport

GRAND HAVEN (UP) — Thomas Charles Overholt is only a month old but already he's been picked up by police and had his fingerprints taken.

The infant's prints were required for a visa. Tommy will accompany his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Overholt, to Mexico where Overholt will study silversmithing on a year's scholarship.

Car Stealer Travels

GRAND RAPIDS (UP) —Donald Burdges, 24, of Jacksonville, Fla., was given a three-year sentence in federal court Wednesday for transporting a stolen auto from Portland, Ore., to New Buffalo.

Men Who Climbed K2 Remain Unknown

NEW DELHI (UP) — The Italian expedition which climbed the world's second highest peak, K2, has decided not to disclose the name of the men who made it to the top—at least not for some time.

A brief radio message received at the base camp at Skardu said the climbers feel their July 31 success was the result of a collective effort and that none of them should get special acclaim.

No doubt they had in mind the furor which followed the climb to the top of Everest by Sir Edmund Hillary and the Indian Sherpa Tenzing. Indian and Nepalse Communists and Nationalists whipped up considerable anti-European sentiment with charges that Tenzing got to the top first and the British wouldn't give him credit.

Alfalfa is one of the oldest and most valuable forage plants.

MEMBER OF AUDIT BUREAU OF CIRCULATIONS

THURSDAY, AUGUST 5, 1954

Leonard an Easy Winner

Republicans can look ahead to November with confidence that in DONALD S. LEONARD they have chosen their strongest candidate to oppose Gov. WILLIAMS' bid for a fourth term.

As expected, LEONARD ran well in Wayne County, his home community. He also showed remarkable strength in Oakland County and outstate. Voter appeal plus his experience and reputation as a police executive and his legal training undoubtedly helped him emerge a decisive winner over three well qualified rivals.

Democrats had good reason to cheer the nomination of our Birmingham neighbor, PHILIP A. HART, for lieutenant governor. His victory over GEORGE S. FITZGERALD not only was a personal triumph for HART but for the Governor who had given him unprecedented support.

In Oakland County the primary produced two surprises with all other incumbents being renominated, several without opposition. The surprises were the defeat of the veteran Republican sheriff CLARE L. HUBBELL, who was seeking a fifth term, and of Democratic State Representative LEAUN HARRELSON, who was seeking his fourth nomination.

HUBBELL lost out to FRANK IRONS, Berkley's chief of police. He will be opposed in November by the Democratic nominee GEORGE D. HICKS. HARRELSON was retired to private life by LESLIE H. HUDSON, Pontiac druggist, who will be opposed in November by Republican nominee ERNEST HUTHWAITE.

We consider it a good omen that Leonard isn't wasting any time in launching his gubernatorial campaign. Already he has arranged conferences with his defeated rivals who have pledged him their loyal support.

He and they realize that victory in November won't be easy but that it can be won by the tireless efforts of a united party.

Housing Bill Signed

In the presence of several lawmakers and FHA officials, President EISENHOWER ceremoniously signed the recently enacted compromise housing bill.

Though this measure, which was high on the President's "must" list falls short of his desires in its public housing section, it is viewed as a boon to the home building industry. It also will make home ownership far easier for low and medium income groups.

For example, the down payment on a $10,000 FHA insured home has been cut from $1,250 to $700. On a $15,000 unit the down payment would be $2,400 instead of $3,000. Prospective buyers also are aided by the new law's longer amortization period — up to 30 years.

On a $7,000 Title I, or suburban housing unit, the buyer now will be able to get a mortgage of $6,650 reducing his down payment to $350.

While going along with the Administration most of the way, Congress balked at the request for 140,000 public housing units in the next four years. As enacted, the bill provides for 35,000 units this fiscal year. But this type of building must be devoted only to families displaced by Federal slum clearance work.

Nonetheless the measure is a noteworthy part of the EISENHOWER legislative program. It will provide more money for more people to buy more homes than ever before.

Public in Buying Mood

There is good news for business in general and the automotive industry in particular in a copyrighted Report to Executives just made by the magazine Business Week.

The report is based on data collected by the University of Michigan's Survey Research Center. Outstanding is its statement that consumers are in a mood to increase their purchases of automobiles and other durable goods.

The Research Center has had three years experience in collecting and evaluating such data. It is worth noting that the Center's report of last November predicting continuance of consumer demand despite threats of a recession, has proved accurate.

While saying that most of the indicators are lower than toward the end of 1952, the report views it as significant that the downward trend of 1953 has not continued and adds:

"Businessmen have every reason to believe that their sales efforts will meet with favorable reactions on the part of consumers."

In short, the report contains very good news for industrial Michigan. The fact that the people are much interested in the car makers' latest creations gives promise of more jobs and better business for everybody in the great automotive centers.

WHEN you are thinking of the many things you would buy if you had a lot of money, it should occur to you that it is on account of this very propensity that you don't have a lot of money.

The Man About Town

Keep Record Good

Pioneer Society Asks Old Members to Be More Prompt

Daffynition

Fight: Something either on the family TV or over it.

The appeal made in this column a few weeks ago for new members in the Oakland County Pioneer and Veterans Historical Foundation brought good results. I am informed by chairman of the membership drive, that several new members have enrolled. She states, however, that a number of the older members are delinquent in their dues of one dollar per year. Early renewals from them will enable the foundation to continue its improvements on the

Mrs. Harry F. Going,

which it owns, and which it hopes to soon be able to open to the public as a county historical shrine. Mrs. Going's address is 214 West Pike St., phone FE 2-6087.

From a point near the corner of Dixie Highway and Telegraph Road to the Detroit River, a distance of 29 miles on Oakland Ave., Saginaw St. and Woodward Ave., there now is only one-half mile not within the limits of some city.

The other day a visitor stepped on the first tee at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club with Fisher Body's and hit a drive 220 yards straight down the middle of the first fairway.

"Doctor," queried a bystander, "what's your handicap at your home club in Purdue?"

"Seven," replied Dr. Frederick L. Hovde, President of Purdue University. Personally, I'll take him against any university president in the U. S.

The view from the wooded hill back of the Oakland County Tuberculosis Sanatorium, according to its executive director, unfolds a vista that covers a good part of the county, including several lakes.

In business on the same corner for 30 odd years, and elsewhere in the city for several more,

Andrew W. Dickinson

says he begins to feel like a pioneer in local mercantile circles.

of Cass Lake, who writes: "The flagrant violation of the law in the operation of motor boats on our lakes has become a positive menace to life and property."

Voice of the People

A National Religious Revival Is Needed to Awaken Our Country, Says Mr. Carter

(Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests, unless the letter is critical in its nature.)

This country needs a religious revival, even the President thinks so. But it looks like the people get more wicked every day. The reason is that the preachers of today won't tell the truth. One preacher said Hollywood, California is spiritual. I agree with that preacher. In the Bible, John says, "We are of God: he that knoweth God heareth us; he that is not of God heareth not us. Hereby know we the spirit of truth and the spirit of error."

Hollywood is spiritual but the spirit of error and this spirit has spread all through the nation! They use this modern age as an excuse to justify themselves to go around near nude and quit one man or woman and take up with another, etc. No shame at all. That is the revival that is sweeping the world, the spirit of error.

In the Bible, Paul says, "For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. And no marvel, for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore, it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works." Also John says, "Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God; because many false prophets are gone out into the world."

August Has Its Share of Historical Dates Too

June, July and September have historical dates which most people recall quickly. However, the month of August has its share too.

August 2, 1776, The Declaration of Independence was signed by 54 delegates to the Continental Congress. August 5, 1884, the cornerstone of the Statue of Liberty was laid at Bedloe's Island, New York Harbor. August 15, 1812 Detroit surrendered to the British. August 24, 1814, during the night, numerous government buildings in Washington were burned by the British.

The last date could be a warning. We may not have a fire but, we can be undermined in other ways. Let us all do our share to keep America alert.

Case Records of a Psychologist

Don't Accept Defeat After the First Try; Attack Your Objective From New Angle

Rev. John is discouraged for he is a failure after 25 years. But Christ's Apostles failed one night to catch any fish, yet all they needed was a 90-degree shift in their point of view. Then they were eminently successful. So follow Sir William Lever's motto below.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case L-376: John J., aged 46, has been a clergyman all his life.

"Dr. Crane, I am so discouraged that I feel like leaving the pulpit," he gloomily confessed.

"For my parishioners don't like me. Every year or two I have had to move to a new pulpit. Yet I work hard and have had three years of post-college training in a leading theological seminary.

"My wife wants me to stay in religious work, but after 25 years, I see such little progress I want to quit.

"Don't you think it is futile for me to go on?"

No, a man with specialized training, should not quit his profession. He should simply try a new point of view.

"If at first you don't succeed, try, try again," is a motto that Sir William Lever has altered to read:

"If at first you don't succeed, try another method."

In other words don't bullheadedly butt your head against the same problem all your life. Instead, come at it from a new angle.

Most of our clergymen are excellent orators and very popular with their parishioners.

But a sizable minority unfortunately still haven't hit upon the simple psychological technique for superlative pulpit success.

It is so simple, they apparently have missed it on that account, for many scholarly people refuse to accept simple formulae. They somehow imagine science involves baffling complexity.

When a clergyman like Rev. John wants to improve, he should simply pattern after other clergymen in his area who are outstandingly successful.

"You can't fill a church till you first fill the pulpit," runs an axiom of religious psychology that is still true.

If the pews are half empty and people are listless about attending religious services, it usually means your oratory is punk.

So scrap your past method and get wise to public platform psychology. Here's the basic formula:

Select your text or central idea that will serve as the motif for your 20-minute sermon.

Then document it with actual cases, preferably from your local area. For the narrative or story-telling method is of most interest to your listeners.

Jesus employed it constantly. His stories were called parables but he never spoke without clarifying his abstract ethical points with cases, stories, anecdotes, etc.

Yet many modern preachers still never use narration at all! They expound in dry, expositional sentences that put even a college professor to sleep.

So how in the world do they even hope to maintain the interest of teen-agers and average parents?

It takes a livewire in the pulpit to electrify a congregation.

And a livewire is physically dynamic. He radiates pep and enthusiasm. He smiles and is jolly.

He tells an appropriate witty story or two. And he employs narration of stories or cases to maintain the interest of his congregation.

He also tactfully names at least three parishioners in every sermon, thereby making them partners to that service and more avid rooters.

He uses stage materials, plus magic stunts for children's sermons. He often refers to the daily newspaper and the comic pages. For he can talk the language of his audience instead of staying highbrow for the full 20 minutes.

David Lawrence Says:

Is Sen. McCarthy the Butt of Unwritten Standards?

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON—An unprecedented challenge to constitutionlism—and one that can curtail the right of a member of Congress hereafter to express freely and without fear of intimidation his views on public questions — has been projected by the vote of the Senate to create a special committee of six to consider certain charges made by other senators against Sen. McCarthy.

The issue is not whether what the Wisconsin senator has said in his speeches about Gen. Marshall or anyone else was or was not meritorious, but whether the Senate is about to try a United States senator for conduct which it has never heretofore prescribed as a violation of its rules.

The Supreme Court of the United States has set aside as unconstitutional many a law passed by Congress because it did not specify "standards" for the application of the law in question.

What are the "standards" by which the new Senate committee is to judge the conduct of the Wisconsin senator, and can a rule be applied now which refers to acts allegedly committed before the rule was ever adopted?

If it be "ethics" that now are to be defined, there is the charge that Sen. McCarthy received a fee for the preparation of a book on housing of veterans, published by a housing company. Sen. Fulbright says the fee was not paid for "comparable services."

Then what shall be said of those senators who—as Sen. Knowland pointed out in the debate—have received fees for public speaking in excess of those normally paid? Also, what of the fact that labor unions, trade associations and corporations having business with the Congress paid out such huge fees to members of Congress?

If it be "unethical" for a senator to accept a fee for writing a book derived from information received from his own committee or from executive agencies of the government, what shall be said of the "ethics" of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt who, while he was in the White House, had published for private profit and put a personal copyright on information that belonged to the government of the United States?

Thus, the transcripts of press conferences from 1933 to 1940 — which the newspapermen of America were forbidden to quote in the first person—were published for gain, and the copyright which Roosevelt held has prevented the press from reprinting all those transcripts as a matter of right and it can be done today only with the permission of the book publisher.

As for making "classified information" public, what is the rule or standard? Is it a matter for "centure" when one senator makes it public and no violation when another does?

Not long ago a western senator on television told facts about the hydrogen bomb which were supposed to be top secret. Should he have been "censured" for that?

If so, where is the rule which says that a member of the coordinate branch of the government is not authorized to use any information which he deems in the public interest?

Again, it has been charged that the Wisconsin senator urged federal employes "to violate their oaths and the law" by encouraging them to give him information which, it has been argued, they should not transmit.

Conceding that a federal employe should be fired for doing it—and maybe if he suspects corruption or treason, he may feel justified in risking his job for the public welfare—is there any rule of conduct by either house of Congress which says the members cannot use in hearings information of any kind which they receive? If so, it hasn't been written yet anywhere in the rules.

One of the charges now has blown up in the faces of the accusers—the Army has just suspended for the second time, Annie Lee Moss, whom Sen. McCarthy charged was a Communist, and this time it is stated some new information has been uncovered by the FBI.

Supposing the resolution of "censure" for his having made the charge in the Moss case had passed the Senate when the anti-McCarthy senators were pressing for a vote last week—would they today be revoking their action?

Could they undo the damage done the Wisconsin senator by such a resolution of "censure" impugning his integrity and his fidelity to his duty, as he sees it in trying to rid the government of Communists?

The select committee of senators can make a report promptly and briefly—namely, that it cannot try Sen. McCarthy because there are no rules of conduct covering his speeches or alleged attitudes in his committee hearings and that, if there are to be rules, then all members should be subject to them hereafter and not retroactively.

Baering Down

By ARTHUR "BUGS" BAER
(International News Service)

Up until right here our Republican Congress has appropriated $6,600,000,000 less than the last two semesters of the Democratic parliament.

Which averages $3,300,000,000 a year in hypothetical escrow. If that's hay it's all clover.

Don't expect to get your share of money that isn't spent. The government hasn't got it, either.

That's because it hasn't been printed yet. There is no stockpile of green and gold unless it's autumn leaves. The important ingredient in financing a government is getting an economy we can afford.

There are 67,000 fewer civilian employees in Washington and nepotism has been reduced from blood relatives to transfusions. More than 3,563 people lost their jobs when it was decided to let people fold their own money.

Comet-spotters, seismograph apprentices, multiple dog-housing, train announcers for the Senate underground railway, hoss-holders for carousel zebras, clock-watchers for near-sighted stenographers, car-hoppers for curb lip service, tea-bag dunkers for cross-eyed plenipotentiaries and score-keepers for old grudges have all been given a vote of confidence without pay.

The money saved cannot be counted. They never did anyway. It's what we call the intangibles. Money is saved in summer because overcoat pockets are much larger.

The Truman Democrats claim the Republicans are duplicating their efforts. They farmed the indoor alfalfa for twelve pay-crops a year.

Dr. Brady Is Quite Sure Vitamin 'Shots' Are No More Powerful Than by Mouth

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

Feeling tired all the time, I went to see a doctor. "That's understandable," he said, as soon as I told why I had come.

"It is evident you are anemic. You need ——— shots, which will be $7.50 a shot. . . . . "

But I can't afford . . . (Miss K. D.)

If that doctor made no examination of your blood he was just guessing.

The medicine he said you needed costs approximately 30c per ampule—and a charge of $7 for injecting a dose of medicine is outrageous, in my opinion.

It may be justifiable to administer liver extract via "shots" in some cases of pernicious anemia and in exceptional circumstances it may be necessary to administer vitamins or iron injections.

But in my opinion there is no good evidence that medicine so administered is more effective than the same medicine is when taken by mouth.

To be sure, simple souls are impressed by "shots." They imagine the medicine or vitamin has a more powerful influence when injected than when ingested. The poor idiots!

One doctor, irked by my teaching about "shots," assured me that he is really convinced that thiamin (vitamin B-1) injected under the skin, into a muscle or directly into a vein, gives a greater "lift" than an equal or larger dose of thiamin gives when taken in the natural way.

Well, if his patients are gullible enough to pay a tremendous premium to him or his office girl who gives the "shots," you and I needn't care. The man runs a kilinick racket and caters to the $400 snobs.

Let no reader infer that I don't believe in the injection of medicine. On the contrary I believe physicians should employ the needle much more frequently than they generally do, in the treatment of hemorrhoids, hernia, varicose veins, and in the emergency or first aid treatment of sprains and strains.

We (oh, well, all right, maybe I should say the medical profession) should be ashamed of this exploitation of simple minded people with "shots."

But, come to think of it, the swindle is not prepetrated by members of the profession. It is one of the slick tricks practiced by men and women in medical business.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. Brady if a stamped, self addressed envelope is enclosed, etc.

Reveals Threat of Pacific Subs

U. S. Admiral Believes Soviets May Have 90 in Area Now

TOKYO (AP)—The Russian Navy may have as many as 90 submarines in the Pacific area, Vice Adm. William Callaghan, commander of U.S. naval forces in the Far East, estimated today.

"These submarines definitely would be a threat to maintaining sea lines of communication," said the tall, grey-haired admiral, whose job would be to fight them in the event of war with the Soviets.

"Russia has a total of 375 submarines," Callaghan said in an interview, "and we feel it would be reasonable to expect that one-quarter of them are in the Pacific."

He estimated the Russian Pacific fleet also has 50 destroyers and two cruisers, but no aircraft carriers or battleships.

"Submarines and air power are their greatest threat, so far as Soviet capability is concerned," Callaghan said.

Two weeks ago, Gen. Earle E. Partridge, Far East Air Forces commander, said combined Soviet, Chinese and North Korean air forces had 7,500 planes, most of them Russian.

Russian ground strength in the Far East has been estimated at 35 combat divisions by a high-ranking officer on the staff of Gen. John E. Hull, Far East commander.

Callaghan, the first skipper of the famed battleship Missouri, is a veteran of both world wars. He was in charge of the Military Sea Transportation Service during the Korean War.

His present command includes the U.S. 7th Fleet, made up of destroyers, cruisers and aircraft carriers, but presently no battleships. The 7th Fleet is charged with preventing a Chinese Red invasion of Formosa, Chinese Nationalist redoubt.

Callaghn also is in charge of the Amphibious Force, West Pacific, made up of attack transports, cargo ships and landing craft. He also is in command of fleet activities in the Navy yards at Yokosuka and Sasebo, Japan, and Inchon and Pusan in Korea.

Many modern highways follow old buffalo trails. Before the 19th century, American bison ranged as far east as the Carolinas. In their migration westward, they pounded out trails followed by the Indians and by later settlers.

U. S. Views Soviet Moves as Drive to Weaken West

WASHINGTON (AP)—Russia's new proposal for a Big Four foreign ministers meeting is officially regarded here as part of a persistent drive to wreck Western anti-Communist defenses and to destroy eventually American leadership of the free world.

Officials said today Britain and France stand firmly with the United States in opposition to this Kremlin campaign. They forecast that the Russian proposal for new talks on European security will be turned down by joint decision. Three-power talks on a reply are now getting under way in London.

However, further Soviet moves are expected. The belief here is that the Russians may try to devise proposals of increasing attractiveness to Western Europe. Their immediate major aim is to block West German rearmament.

Their proposal for an over-all European security system has been put forth as an alternative to the Western-sponsored European Defense Community proposing to rearm Western Germany as part of a six-nation army. EDC is due to come up for action soon in the French Assembly.

Russia's over-all campaign aimed at destroying U.S. leadership and isolating the United States is being developed along two main lines.

One is directed toward convincing non-Communist nations not only in Europe but all over the world that the Communist bloc wants only peace. The agreement of the Reds to end the war in Indochina fits into that line, as does their European plan.

The other line is directed toward convincing the free nations that the United States is not peaceful but is committed to starting a new war.

President Eisenhower told his news conference yesterday the Soviets are "spending literally billions in different kinds of propaganda" and using subversion and bribery to drive this contention of theirs toward acceptance by millions. The President declared the United States must "be more imaginative in finding ways to combat" the Soviet campaign.

The latest Soviet maneuver was made yesterday when Russian ambassadors in Paris, London and Washington delivered notes proposing the foreign ministers of the Big Four powers should meet in August or September to discuss the calling of a big all-European conference on European security and on some German problems.

The Russians had made like proposals earlier, most recently on July 24, urging creation of a European-wide security system which would include Russia and the Iron Curtain countries. They have frankly offered this as an alternative to EDC. They have suggested that the United States should be a member, that Red China should be an observer and that Russia might be taken into the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

The whole concept of such a security system clashes with the systems in being and proposed by the Western powers with the goal of blocking any future Soviet aggression.

Red Army Rumored Opposite Formosa

TAIPEH, Formosa (AP) — A former Chinese Nationalist news agency said today a Communist army has been shifted to China's coastal Fukien Province opposite Formosa.

There was no official confirmation of the report distributed by the Interior Ministry's Tatao News Agency. It said the information came from underground contacts on the Red-held mainland.

The U.S. 7th Fleet guards Formosa from attack and top officials in Washington reportedly agree privately that the United States would go to war in the event of a major Red attack.

Court Upholds Will of Famed Comedian

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A brother and a niece of the late Hugh Herbert have lost their claims to the comedian's $163,342 estate.

The Superior Court upheld yesterday Herbert's 1950 will, which left $10,000 to Rose Herbert, Fort Worth, Tex., his former wife, and the remainder of his estate to the Motion Picture Relief Fund, Inc.

The brother, Edward F. Herbert, 57, of Brooklyn, N.Y., and the niece, Mrs. Grace Van Schyndel, 42, of East Weymouth, Mass., contended unsuccessfully that a 1952 codicil invalidated the bequest to charity.

The share of the U.S. in world income increased from 26 per cent in 1938 to about 41 per cent in 1948.

Helpful Friend Talks His Way Into Jail

LONG BEACH, Calif. (UP) — "I'm worried about my buddy," Earl D. Bucher, 21, told police. "He hasn't come home and I think he may have had an accident. His name's Jerry Shore."

Lt. C. J. Novotny said Shore was not reported in any accident. "Maybe he was arrested then?" suggested Bucher. Novotny found that was true.

"Well, I think you got the wrong guy. I'm the one you want on that traffic warrant," offered Bucher. Sure enough, the officer discovered Bucher actually was the man wanted.

"Then you'll let Jerry go now?"

"Now, we can't do that. He's wanted in Denver on a forgery rap. That's why we picked him up. You just talked yourself into jail, my boy."

West Germany Discovering Oil

Five New Fields Found This Year; Drillers Searching for More

BONN, Germany (AP)—Bustling West Germany is outplacing all its neighbors in oil discoveries.

Five new oil fields have been discovered this year, pushing annual production to 2½ million tons. This is about one-third of the nation's requirements.

By 1955, oil experts predict West German wells will sput three million tons a year. Hitler's Germany produced only 450,000 tons of oil in 1936.

West Germany's crude oil production already is the biggest in West Europe. With estimated reserves of 60 million tons, the nation may be able to supply all its oil needs within 10 years, oil men say.

Since the war, about 40 new oil fields have been discovered in West Germany. The biggest of these are in the Ems Valley along the Dutch frontier and in the northernmost state of Schleswig-Holstein.

Drillers are now boring along the Baltic coast, along the Upper Rhine between Frankfurt and Basel and in many other areas in search of new fields.

German refining capacity is expanding along with oil output. Investments of 750 million marks (178½ million dollars) in new plants have pushed capacity to over 10 million tons a year.

Foot Soldiers Still Keystone in U. S. Defense

NEW YORK (UP) — Atomic artillery, guided missiles and similar weapons provide a terrifying prospect for future warfare, but they will not replace the lowly foot soldier and his rifle, an expert on shoulder arms believes.

The role of the rifleman in the past and the weapons made available to him from colonial times to today are described in a book, "From Flintlock to MI," by Joseph W. Shields, Jr., just published.

"A-bomb or no A-bomb, the rifleman is the keystone around which all military operations are constructed," Shields wrote.

"Every large-caliber weapon is designed to support him, and similar enemy weapons are directed towards killing him. Why, then, should a dwarf be the target of a battle among giants?"

He explained:

"Not until a rifleman plants his GI boots on a piece of soil and begins to dig in do we hold that piece of ground."

Shields says that the rifleman and his weapon form a unique combination in warfare—he can operate his weapon and carry his ammunition all by himself, he fires by direct observation and is one self-sufficient combat team.

He suggests that in addition to atomic weapon research, the nation should seek ways of making its infantrymen more effective.

The 9.5 millions trucks in use in the U.S. during 1953 comprised only a little less than one-half all of the trucks used in all the world.

Bob Considine Says:

Omaha Marks Centennial With Culture, Not Bumps

OMAHA (INS)—Omaha is doing a very daring thing this year. It is celebrating its centennial without the services of Sally Rand and papier-mache honky-tonks supposedly depicting frontier days. Few cities observing their birth in a wilder and woolier age would dare go in for such an innovation.

Under the watchful eye of the Omaha World Herald, General Chairman Morris E. Jacobs, and such business and civic leaders as V. J. Skutt, Arthur Stoddard and Ed Pettis, Omaha, is celebrating its rugged birth of a century ago with such events as these:

An inter-faith rally at the ballpark, featuring a speech by Dr. Ralph Bunche (at one point the lights were extinguished and all 12,000 in the audience lighted candles); a jubilee of American music over the past 100 years, due Saturday; vast forums with such topics as "Tomorrow and Education," "Tomorrow and Science" and "Tomorrow and Religion:" U. N. Day, with Trygve Lie coming over from Norway and Nebraskans of foreign extraction appearing in their old country dress: historical spectacles and parades, and a cavalcade of human welfare.

This latter will trace and pay tribute to enormous strides made by public and private humane, charitable and research organizations since a man named William P. Snowden and his good wife rowed across the Missouri from a place named Kanesville and became the first permanent white settlers of the fur-trading post named for the Omaha Indians.

Of course, the centennial celebration isn't all heavy thinking and sackcloth. Jacobs, who left a perfectly good $40-a-week newspaper job to become one of the country's top advertising agency men, is in New York discussing a championship boxing match for Omaha and other non-academic matters.

But the centennial will not be marred by a single bubble, fan, burp or bump. The revolution is here, not the convolution.

Nebraska has another curious claim to fame. On Tuesday its voters may nominate three—count them—U. S. senators.

Two is par, of course. But the astonishing mortality rate among the Nebraskans in the Senate is behind these unusual primaries.

Briefly, the voters must nominate a man to serve the final two months of the six-year term to which the late Republican Kenneth Wherry was elected in 1948; must nominate a four-year term senator to serve out the unexpired term of the late Republican Hugh Butler, who was elected in 1952, and must nominate a senator to serve a standard six-year term.

Wherry, Dwight Griswold and Butler died within a period of 31 months. Including interim appointments, Nebraska will have been represented by nine senators in a bit more than three years when the polling booth dust settles.

The race is hottest for the two-month term, which will begin with the November elections and end in January when the winner of the six-year term takes office.

There are 16 Republicans and three Democrats in the gallop, many of them interested in winning the spring-like term only so that hereafter in life they can be called by one of the noblest names in political history—senator.

Monsignor Wegner, the man who succeeded Father Flanagan at Boy Town, Neb., and is carrying on that great work, has just returned from a five-month tour of the world, studying youth problems.

He told us one especially chilling story of a teenage Chinese. The lad was indoctrinated night and day with Communist teaching, but his masters would not "graduate" him.

Finally, in the hope of stopping the teaching, the boy swore he was a confirmed believer in the Red ideology.

"Prove it," he was instructed. "Kill your mother and father."

Methodist Women Still Utilize Quilt-Making

HOMER (UP)—The Methodist women's society is still making money from quilting.

Some of the quilts are given to the needy. Others are sold.

The group says it has been quilting since it was organized in 1875 and the old-time art has been handed down from generation to generation.

Encouragement

KALAMAZOO (UP) — Borgess Hospital here is doing its part to encourage large families. The hospital will provide free hospital care to mothers who have a fifth, sixth, seventh or eight child this year.

Worm Hobby Grows Into Thriving Business

WILLOW SPRINGS, Mo. (UP)—M. A. Dickman started growing earthworms as a hobby. Now it's getting into the big business class. In one year he raised and shipped more than a million worms to all parts of the nation and several foreign countries.

He sells them to farmers, fishermen, bait dealers and other worm growers.

Ithaca Proves Motion Picture Center Past

ITHACA, N. Y. (UP) — This quiet upstate New York college town was once a motion picture producing center.

The city's film past is recalled in of course on motion picture history taught by Cornell University Prof. Walter H. Stainton. To illustrate his lectures, he uses films shot in Ithaca when the industry was at its height, 1914-20.

A popular film with his class is a 1917-20-episode serial, "The Eagle's Eye." It starred King Baggot and Marguerite Snow in a script by Courtney Riley Cooper.

The only exception to the law requiring signing one surname in official documents in England is the royal family who sign only their acknowledged baptismal names.

Interlocking Directorate

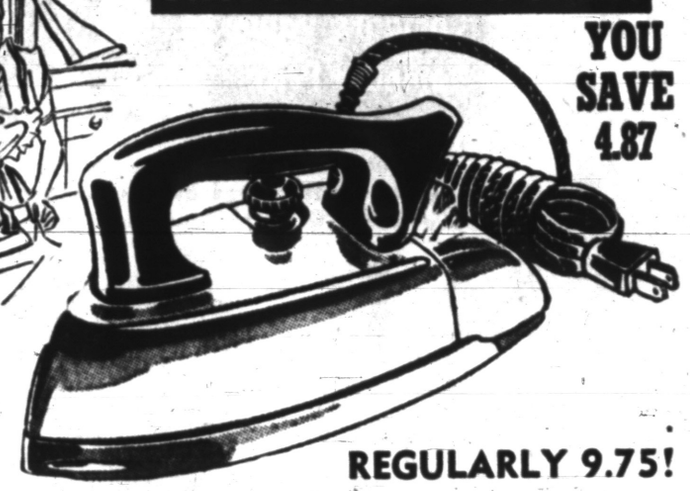

FOSTER, R. I. (UP)—A ban on dual office holding would just about wipe out the government of this northern Rhode Island town. Edward B. Winslow is town tax assessor, health officer, tax collector and social welfare director.

New Air Force Academy Needs Appropriate Name

DENVER (INS) — A name is needed for the new military academy which the U. S. Air Force is going to build 50 miles south of Denver.

The Army has West Point, and the Navy Annapolis, both hallowed by more than a century of custom and tradition.

West Point, officially the U. S. Military Academy, was a military post in 1778 and the first cadets started training there in 1802. Annapolis was started only 43 years later.

Both names sound appropriate. Whether by chance or because of long usage, they fit; they have become meaningful and could not be altered or changed or improved upon.

But the Air Force Academy will be new. Historically, it has no precedent. Chronologically, the final choice of a site for its construction was made only recently by Air Secretary Harold E. Talbot.

No ground has been turned. The 15,000 acres at the foothills of the Rocky Mountains is still untouched, rolling ranchland, covered with sparse grass, pinon pine and sagebrush.

Land must be purchased and plans, embodying an entirely new concept of military education and training, must be drawn and checked and approved even before the work can begin. And, 1957, the year when the first class is to start, is still a target date. But a start has been made.

Thus far, the academy has been called just that. Or: The U. S. Air Force Academy; the West Point of the Air. Prosaic or trite.

The choice of names is litle better, geographically. Pike's Peak Colorado's most famous but no highest mountain, is a few miles to the southeast.

Colorado Springs (pop. 60,000) 10 miles south, is the nearest community of any size. It is widely known as a resort town.

The village of Husted (pop. 6) is right across U. S. Highway 85-87 from the site. Others in the vicinity include Woodmen, Pikeview, Crystola, Woodland Park, Green Mountain Falls and two with the improbable names of "Pring" and "Breed."

Much of the academy area is currently occupied by Cathedral Rock Ranch which, while euphonious, seems more theological than military.

Many Air Force bases were named for the men who made notable contributions to aviation, or outstanding combat records. Would this custom be applicable?

U. S. Rep. Byron Rogers, (D-Colo), suggested this name for the academy: "Wild Blue Yonder, Colo."

Under the circumstances, there is one logical solution, and the suggestion why not conduct a nation-wide contest to pick a name for the new academy?

New York in 1626 had only about 200 inhabitants.

Pacifist to Stage Atonement Day

Navy Veteran Believes He's Personally Guilty in A-Bombing, H-Tests

GREAT BARRINGTON, Mass (AP) — A 30-year-old Navy veteran says he will walk the streets of this town Saturday in a "personal proclamation of guilt" for the atomic bombing of Japan and the U.S.

Hollis J. Wyman Jr., a harvard graduate, said today he is guilty of "burning his fellow human beings, first as a naval officer in Japanese waters, and secondly as a United tates citizen during the bomb tests." He is a member of the Fellowship of Reconciliation, a world-wide pacifist organization. He said he chose Saturday for his day of "atonement" because it falls between the anniversaries of the Hiroshima and Nagasaki bombings.

Wyman applied to the selectmen of this western Massachusetts town of 6,712 for permission to stage his "proclamation." It was granted after considerable debate.

He will carry placards and distribute pamphlets throughout the day.

Wyman entered the Navy in July, 1943, and served as an officer until June of 1946, when he resigned his commission to join the Fellowship of Reconciliation and begin a career of social work.

The Fellowship of Reconciliation started in England about 40 years ago. The purpose of the organization, which claims 11,000 members in this country, is to "work to abolish war and to foster good will among nations, races and classes," according to the New England secretary Richard. D. Hathaway.

Wyman spent two years in France and Germany with the group doing rehabilitation work. His mother, Mrs. Hollis J. Wyman of Auburndale, said he was "revolted" by the destruction caused by the bombings of Europe and "feels guilty about having been in the armed service."

Wyman said the day of atonement was his own idea and was not sponsored by any organization.

Wyman is married and has two children.

Recommendation Goes Too Far; Employer Pays

VEREENIGING, South Africa (AP) —A 17year old girl typist has been awarded $70 damages in Maistrate's Court because her employer gave her this testimonial:

"To whom it may concern:

"This is to certify that Miss ... has been in our employ since 1953 to March 31, 1954, to our extreme regret. During her employment with this company she did everything in her power to demoraliz our san way of thinking, at tims driving us almost on the verge of insanity.

* * *

"Her method of typing and keeping of books was utterly disgraceful. The type of languae she used to the public was most shocking, resulting in clients taking defamatory action against us with the result that in being sued for damages we have been driven bankrupt, hence the reason for her termination of service, as we found we were not in a position to support her and her children any longer.

* * *

"Please don't feel sorry for us as we won't feel sorry for you if you desire to accept her into employment. We no longer remain, yours faithfully ..."

The judge commented: "The defendant intended it to be a jest, but he went too far."

Trade Pact Signed by Red China-Indonesia

TOKYO (AP) — Moscow radio today said a barter trade agreement was signed between Communist China and Indonesia.

The broadcast heard in Tokyo quoted a Jakarta dispatch as saying negotiators reached an agreement in Jakarta.

It said Red China will export cotton, textiles, light industry machinery, and Indonesia copra, coffee, quinine and other raw materials.

Thirsty Cats Claw Holes in Garden Hose to Drink

LEOTI, Kan. (AP) — If the heat and dry weather continue, Mrs. Violet Appl, will either have to buy some extra thick garden hose or stand guard over her present supply.

Three times this summer Mrs. Appl has purchased new lengths of plastic hose. Each time it developed leaks.

A night vigil gave the answer.

Humphrey Thrust Parries Welker in Senate Debate

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn) was lambasting the administration farm bill in the enate last night when Sen. Weler (R-Idaho), who supports it, broke in to ask:

"How many acres do you farm?"

"We farm about 800 acres," Humphrey replied. Welker, who had said he runs a farm, asked who "we" included. "The family," Humphrey' said, adding that he owns "about 10 acres."

Humphrey said it would be rough if only farmers could debate a farm bill. Sometimes the Senate must act on maritime legislation, he told Welker, and —

"Not many of us are sailors."

Primary Vote Defeats 13 State Congress Veterans

Hart Soon to Campaign With His Successful Corny Puns

DETROIT (AP) — The old campaigners said puns like "Take Hart" were too corny.

The campaign song "Hart of My Heart" was too juvenile, they said.

But corny, juvenile or not, such puns and songs caught the voters' ears and contributed to Philip A. Hart's capture of the Democratic nomination for lieutenant governor in Tuesday's primary.

Hart, at 41, one of the youngest and friendliest of the candidates for top Michigan political office, planned a 10-day rest from the campaign after his near 3-to-1 victory over his opponent George S. Fitzgerald.

But when the vacation with his wife and six children ends, Hart will be back on the campaign tour, with maybe even some more "corny" puns and "juvenile" songs.

Hart, vice president of the Detroit Tigers and a director of the Detroit Lions, entered the race last April 15, putting an end to a rumor that he had eyes on the post of his boss, backer and friend, Gov. Williams.

Once in the race, Hart traveled to all parts of Michigan, in the Williams' manner of campaigning.

"Certainly the experience was a rich one," he said. "Of course I would like to thank the people of Michigan who voted for Gov. Williams and me. I am sure I can win in November and will have a chance to show them that their trust was well placed."

What are Hart's chances this fall against Republican incumbent Clarence A. Reid, unopposed in the primary?

Hart has been connected with Williams in various capacities —the latest as legal adviser—for the past six years. He is extremely loyal to the governor and pledged in his campaign that he would support the governor's "Build Michigan" program.

Hart said he was certain Williams and many more Democrats will be elected in the fall.

"In going across the state in both Republican and Democratic communities," he said, "I have found things have changed. This November will be different from two years ago."

Hart, before entering public service, graduated with honors from both Georgetown and the University of Michigan. He is a veteran of World War II, serving as an infantryman when wounded at the Normandy beaches on D-Day.

He is a former U. S. district attorney for Eastern Michigan and state corporations and securities commissioner. He also served as state director for the Office of Price Stabilization. The family resides in Birmingham.

GOING THROUGH THE MOTIONS—It was only make-believe this time (top photo) as Howard Estes (foreground) and James F. Abbott handle the controls at headquarters for Oakland County's amateur radio emergency network in St. James Episcopal Church, Birmingham. Estes, president of the Catalpa Amateur Radio Society, takes data over the police-fire frequency and prepares to dispatch information. Abbott, emergency coordinator for the county and a club member, sends a message to "hams" over the amateur frequency. Below, Abbott raises a Richmond, Ind., "ham" on his mobile unit as he shows the Press photographer how the radio would operate in a crisis situation.

THE GUESTS WERE INVITED—The lions were well behaved when tamer Bubie Miers, 49, and Numeri Killian were wed in an unusual ceremony recently in Aberdeen, South Africa. Wants Hearing for Mrs. Moss

Lawyer Says Alleged Security Risk Would Be Glad to Take Stand

WASHINGTON (AP)—An attorney for Mrs. Annie Lee Moss said today Mrs. Moss would welcome "wide open" hearings on whether or not she's a security risk.

Mrs. Moss' case figured in one of the charges on which a Senate committee will study a move to censure Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis). She was suspended from her Army Signal Corps job for the second time yesterday.

Mrs. Moss swore before McCarthy's Investigations subcommittee earlier this year that she had never been a Communist. Under suspension at the time, she was returned to work while her case was reviewed.

The Army announced it had reopened her case on the basis of information "not previously available" and not "satisfactorily resolved" by an investigation. The nature of the fresh "information" was not revealed.

George E. C. Hayes, the woman's lawyer, said if the new suspension gives her a chance to be heard "we will welcome it and meet it." Hayes said he hadn't been told of any new iformation on Mrs. Moss.

The Army announced Mrs. Moss would have 30 days to present her side to a security hearing board.

McCarthy called the new suspension a "healthy indication they are tightening up security regulations" in the Army.

Casualties Hurt Reapportioning

Broomfield and Hudson Victories Top Pontiac Congressional Races

DETROIT (AP)—Michigan voters sent four state senators and nine representatives tumbling to defeat in the Tuesday primary.

The casualty list was expected to affect the legislative reapportionment initiated last year.

To take effect next Jan. 1, the reapportionment plan increases the House to 110 members from 100 and adds two more to the new 32-man Senate.

Among the casualties was veteran Republican Sen. Milo A. Johnson of Greenville, who was defeated for the Republican nomination in the 25th District by former Rep. Bert J. Storey of Belding.

A bid for a sixth term by Rep. Hugo A. Nelson (R-Indian River) went awry when the nomination went to John Kilborn of Petoskey. Kilborn is the Emmet County Sheriff.

Dominic J. Massoglia of Laurium defeated Rep. Harry Hermann (R-Larium) in a four-cornered race. Hermann was seeking an eighth term.

Republican Rep. John D. Kruse of Manistee lost to Charles A. Boyer, also of Manistee. Kruse, a veteran of six terms, is chairman of the House Labor Committee.

Pontiac's Democratic Rep. Leann Harrelson, a three-term veteran, was defeated for renomination by Leslie M. Hudson, a Pontiac druggist.

Three Democrats lost in Wayne County—Sen. Patrick J. Walsh and Reps. Chester A. Lawandowski and Theodore Wilk.

Among the Republican Senators who fought primary renomination battles to victory were Charles A. Prescott of Prescott, Frank Andrews of Hillman, Charles P. Feenstra and Perry W. Greene of Grand Rapids, Leo H. Roy of Hancock and Don Vander Werp of Fremont.

A hot six-man battle in Oakland County for the Republican nomination to succeed Sen. George N. Higgins of Ferndale went to Rep. William S. Broomfield of Royal Oak, House Speaker Pro Tem. Higgins had resigned to run for governor, then withdrew from the race.

Broomfield will meet Fred Elias of Hazel Park, who won the Oakland County Democratic nomination.

Lewis G. Christman, Republican representative from Ann Arbor, a five-term house veteran, easily captured the Washtenaw County Republican senatorial nomination. Lewis G. Reimann of Ann Arbor was not opposed for the Democratic nomination.

The Macomb County GOP senatorial contest sent Walter C. Stellfens of Fraser to victory in a three-man race. County prosecutor Fred Nicholson of Warren captured the Democratic nomination over a field of seven.

Incumbent representatives who won included Alvin E. Richard (R-Marquette), Roy H. Brigham (R-Battle Creek), Kenneth O. Trucks (R-Baldwin), Clyde E. Cooper (R-White Cloud) Walter G. Nakkula (R-Gladwin), George A. Gillespie (R-Gaines), Richard C. Van Dusen (R-Birmingham), W. G. Bassett (R-Jackson), Thomas M. Burns (R-Saginaw), Holly Hubbell (R-Saginaw), Clayton T. Morrison (R-Pickford), Adrian De Boom (R-Owosso), Willard I. Bowerman (R-Lansing) and Harold Hungerford (R-Lansing).

Three Kent County representatives also survived renomination battles. They are Reps. Andrew Bolt, Edward A. Borgman and Harry T. Emmons.

GOP Nominee Leonard Rose From Ranks

DETROIT (AP) — A man who rose from a state trooper's motorcycle to head all Michigan State Police—that's the choice of Republican voters to challenge the fourth-term bid of Gov. G. Mennen Williams.

He's Donald S. Leonard roundfaced, unassuming politican who quit his $16,500 job as Detroit police commissioner to reach for the Republican nomination against three other candidates.

Before his Detroit law enforcement job, Leonard had been state police commissioner, a job he took when his boss, Oscar G. Olander, was relieved by the late Gov. Kim Sigler.

Today, winner over his nearest opponent by about 40,000 votes, Leonard said:

"I feel very humble. I am grateful to the people of Michigan for this expression of confidence. I am appreciative too for the many workers in every part of the state who campaigned in my behalf."

Few of those workers ever saw Leonard in his uniform days in the State Police.

Leonard first turned to the State Police while attending Wayne University. When he left the school, he worked as a State Trooper. He took law courses at the University of Michigan until he won his law degree.

But in spite of his law degree, Leonard chose to continue law enforcement work. He worked in the State Police until he became commissioner.

He had tried once before for the Republican Governor nomination. That was in 1952. He was runner-up.

When State Treasures D. Hale Brake, runner-up this time, called Leonard early this morning to congratulate him, Leonard said: "Thanks, and if it had been the other way around I would have been calling you."

Leonard, who campaigned on a platform calling for more teamwork between a Republican governor and a Republican legislature, said:

"I think one thing that won friends for me was that I did not throw mud at Gov. Williams. I know the governor and have worked with him. I do not intend to throw mud in the coming campaign."

His wife, Kay, said, "I've been proud of Don's achievements before, but this time, I'm prouder than ever."

Australia to Support Asia Defense Pact

CANBERRA, Australia (AP) — Prime Minister Robert Menzies committed Australia tonight to give military support to the proposed Southeast Asia defense alliance—SEATO.

In so doing Menzies broke with historic Australian tradition that such commitments are not made in advance but determined by Parliament after a war starts.

"We cannot properly put forward our principles of foreign policy," Menzies said, "and enter into mutual arrangements with other nations unless we are prepared to support them with arms, men, ships, instruments of war and supplies, as we in turn would wish them to support us."

Menzies spoke before a crowded House of Representatives.

Vote Charter Change

SOUTH HAVEN (AP) — Voters Tuesday decided to revise the city charter and named a nine-member commission to do the job.

Dikes Threatened as Yangtze Rises

TOKYO (AP)—The mighty Yangtze River, already at a record height, surged several inches nearer the top of sodden dikes in the Wuhan area today, Peiping radio announced.

The broadcast said the river is more than seven feet above the level at which it broke through the dikes at Wuhan in the devastating flood of 1931.

Peiping said thousands of workers are piling stones, sacks of mud and other materials on top of the dikes to hold back the river.

125 Radio 'Hams' Waiting to Sound SOS in Event of Disaster in Oakland County

By ARNOLD S. HIRSCH

Some 125 radio "hams" are ready to sound the SOS and relay vital messages if a disaster should snarl routine methods of communications in Oakland County.

The amateur radio men are members of the Oakland arm of the Inter-County Amateur Radio Club, a six-county organization designed to become an emergency "task force" in times of distress.

If necessary, aid could be summoned almost immediately from any or all of the organization's counties.

Center of the radio network in the county is located in St. James Episcopal Church, Birmingham.

The Oakland County Center, in turn, is in contact with its counterparts in Wayne, Macomb, Livingstone, Washtenaw and Monroe counties. Main headquarters for the six-county set-up is in the Red Cross Building in downtown Detroit.

Should an emergency arise here, the Red Cross and the Office of Civil Defense would be notified and Oakland County Club members would swing into action, using home radio sets or mobile units in their autos.

Nucleus of the county group is the Catalpa Amateur Radio Society, based in Birmingham. Of the 64 "hams" in the city, 40 are active members of the club and take part in Civil Defense activities, according to James F. Abbott, emergency coordinator for the county.

The six-county club was organized seven years ago "just so we would be organized in case of emergency," said Abbott.

"In an emergency, we would send mobile units and walkie-talkies into the area. Our primary purpose would be to offer communications for the Red Cross because it has none in emergencies."

The Office of Civil Defense stepped into the picture three years ago, when it told the inter-county group its services would be invaluable. The club agreed and has since become an important part of the agency's activities.

All members of the club are amateurs, holding down regular employment and going through practice drills on their own time. A county drill is held monthly; an area drill every two to three months.

Seventy per cent of the members have taken civil defense courses in first aid and fire fighting, Abbott said.

All equipment in the county headquarters is owned by the members, except for two police receivers and a transmitter furnished by the City of Birmingham to tie in with fire and police frequencies.

The "hams" are prepared to help in less than emergency conditions, too. On July 4, they provided mobile units to patrol the crowded highways. In the cars were trained first aid workers and when an accident call came a mobile unit hurried to the scene and provided first aid.

Abbott said there are approximately 1,500 men and women in the six-county organization, with 300 mobile units ready to go into the field should calamity strike.

Lansing Motorist Killed in Fight With Hitchhiker

CHARLOTTE, Mich. (AP)—A 30-year-old Lansing motorist was shot to death last night in a scuffle with a hitchhiker in a cornfield off Lacy Lake road between Lansing and Charlotte.

The hitchhiker, Paul R. Spinner, 26, of Lansing, was stabbed in the stomach during the fight with Liscombe. He was in serious condition at Hays-Green-Beach Hospital in Charlotte.

They told deputies Liscombe picked up Spinner outside Lansing on M78.

Spinner climbed into the back seat of the car. A short distance from Lansing he pulled a gun and ordered Liscombe to drive on the Lacy Lake road. At the cornfield, Spinner ordered the car halted and the Liscombes to get out.

While Liscombe was walking ahead of Spinner, he managed to draw a pocketknife.

Mrs. Liscombe said her husband whirled and stabbed Spinner in the stomach. During the scuffle, Liscombe was shot in the left lung. Spinner then fled down the road toward Charlotte.

State Representatives Vote on Immunity Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Michigan delegation in the House Wednesday voted for a bill to provide immunity for witnesses before congressional committees and grand juries. The house passed and sent the bill to the senate.

Republicans for — Cederberg, Dondero, Ford, Hoffman, Knox, Meader, Oakman, Shafer, Thompson.

Democrats for — Dingell, Rabaut.

Earl E. Aurand Wins Drum-Bugle Contest

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Pvt. Earl E. Aurand Drum and Bugle Corps, Post 1086, Harrisburg, Pa., won first place in the Senior Open Drum and Bugle Corps Competition feature of the Veterans of Foreign Wars 55th annual encampment.

Drum and Bugle Corps paraded and played into the early morning hours today in Philadelphia's vast Municipal Stadium.

Other winners included Senior band—1. Lt. Col. Bugler Post, Fostoria, Ohio; 2. Francis B. Arcadia Post 2823, Newark, N. J.; 3. Morely S. Oates Post 701, Lansing, Mich.

HELP FROM UNCLE SAM—With the Communists taking over the northern part of Indochina under the Geneva peace terms, the Red shadow lies darker than ever upon the adjacent free countries such as Laos. Russia Complaining of U. S. 'Spy' Planes LONDON (AP)—Russia has renewed its complaint that U.S. military planes are shadowing Soviet merchant ships in Far Eastern waters.

The Moscow radio said last night that Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov had fired off a note to the United States chargig American planes with violating freedom of the seas by flying over Soviet merchantment in the Formosa area.

Poland recently accused U.S. military planes of strafing one of her vessels in the Far Eastern area. The United States denied the charge.

Check Passing Flops

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Thomas Jefferson Jones, 34, of Idlewild, Lake County, was sentenced to prison for 18 months Wednesday in federal court for taking and passing a $65 U. S. Treasury check.

MAN-MADE COMET—The sleek new DeHavilland Comet III zooms over Hatfield, England, on its maiden flight. It is designed for long-range hops of 2,500 miles and has a cruising speed of 500 miles per hour. Britain expects to sell many of the planes to world-girdling airlines.

Rhee Talks Plenty Tough; Was This Setup Planned?

By CHARLES M. McCANN
United Press Staff Correspondent

When President Syngman Rhee insists that the Korean War must be renewed, the question always arises whether he really thinks of starting the fighting himself if necessary.

The 79-year-old president of the Republic of Korea has talked pretty tough during his present visit to the United States.

He has said that Korea must be unified and that it can not be unified peacefully. He has urged that the United Nations attack North Korea instead of waiting for a possible Communist attack.

He has said that United States policy is short-sighted and that "Americans have not got common guts enough to face the problem."

Addressing Congress, Rhee even asked that United States planes and warships support an invasion of Communist China by a 2,000,000-man Asiatic army.

This, of course, is only talk. At the time of Rhee's departure for the United States, dispatches from Korea said he seemed to be reconciled to waiting for a further development of the world situation before taking any action.

But in Korea, during Rhee's absence, things have started to bubble up.

Last Friday Lt. Gen. Won Yong Duk, provost marshal of the South Korean army, who is called Rhee's "hatchet man," demanded that the Polish and Czechoslovak Communist members of the Armistice Supervisory Commission leave the country at once. He says they are really spies.

Won threatened "appropriate measures," which he did not specify, if they remained.

Won is quite capable of following up his threat. It was he who, before the armistice was signed, turned loose more than 27,000 anti-Red Chinese prisoners.

On Saturday, South Koreans fired two pistol shots at four Communist truce inspectors while they were entering their mess hall in Pusan. The same day, American military policemen turned back 250 South Koreans who tried to enter the billets of the Communist truce inspection team at Inchon, near Seoul.

On Sunday, three crudely made bombs were thrown into a truce inspection team enclosure at Kunsan, on the west coast.

There have been demonstrations against Red truce team members in Kangnung, Pusan and Taegu.

The American military police guard for the inspection teams has been heavily increased.

Dispatches from Korea suggest the Won Yong Duk's threat, the shooting, the bombing and the demonstrations were planned in advance to coincide with Rhee's visit to the United States.

So far, no damage has been done. But such incidents always are dangerous. One day, if Rhee is serious enough about trying to unify Korea by force, something really serious might happen.

KNIFE CUTS STEEL—Secret forging and tempering methods have enabled blacksmith Leo F. Baker, of Chicago, Ill., to make knives that supposedly cut through steel. The tough blade culminates a dream Baker possessed during 40 years of blacksmithing. He claims the knife can be driven through thick steel without damaging the blade.

City's "Crazy" Drivers Due for Examination

CHICAGO (UP)—Chicago courts have ordered the setting up of a psychiatric laboratory to examine "crazy" automobile drivers. When the laboratory is opened next year, judges will send suspects there for mental analysis.

"Logical suspects" will include the habitual traffic offender, those who repeatedly evade court summonses and those whose traffic conduct could use a short course on etiquette.

Psychiatrists have found, said Chief Justice Edward S. Scheffler of municipal court, "that screwball motorists are really a little off in the head. We want to ban these nuts from autos on our streets."

Beirut May Curtail Automobile Imports

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—Beirut may lose its reputation as the "garage of the Arab world" if a bill to curtail automobile imports passes the Lebanese parliament.

The bill aims at saving foreign exchange for Lebanon, which spent 14 million dollars on imports of automobiles, spare parts and gasoline last year. This represents 11 per cent of Lebanon's expenditure on imports.

Beirut's narrow streets, designed for slower traffic of another age, are jammed with shiny new automobiles. Beirut's taxi drivers boast that theirs is the most modern fleet of cabs in the world.

Honest Roscoe Robinson Cashes Personal Checks

By LAURA Z. HOBSON

DENVER, Colorado (INS) — "Didn't you ever have a check bounce?" I asked Roscoe Robinson, owner of the Ranch House Motel on St. Santa Fe Drive.

After a two-day stay in this famous 80-unit, 105-room place, I was at the front desk, asking for my bill and fishing around for my folder of traveler's checks, official coinage of most cross-country tourists.

"If you'd rather write your personal check," Mr. Robinson said, "we take them all the time."

Roscoe Robinson's offer caught me by surprise. That was when I asked about bouncing — my look must have struck him as naive, for he laughed.

"Back in 1951," he said, "I had a check bounce—it was for $49.81. Is that right?" he turned to the young couple who are the motel's general managers, Rita and Larry Ellermeyer.

"Right," Mr. Ellermeyer agreed. "Then in '52 we had a rubber one for $115, and last year one for $45."

"That's about the size of it," Mr. Robinson said. "Most people are honest, and you find that out fast, running a place like this."

"How many people visit here yearly?" I asked.

"About 50,000, and that's from all 48 states and 8 or 10 foreign countries and Canada.

"So with about 200,000 people in four years," I said, "Only three checks have bounced?"

"Lots of folks pay cash, of course — especially one-nighters. But that's the record."

Out of curiosity, I asked if he'd cash my check even if I made it out for more than the amount on my bill.

"Up to about $1,000," he said, casually, "I've taken checks that size plenty of times. When the racing season's on, with centennial track just 10 minutes away, why, I've got to—these big oil boys blow in from Texas or Oklahoma, or movie folks from the coast—I've just got to."

How long or short, I wanted to know, was the touring season in Denver. "Our only slow months," he said, "are November and December. People read that Loveland Pass, or Vail, are closed because of snow, they think the whole state's blocked off. January, though, is big again—the stock show lasts three weeks. So the 'season' is a good ten months—you saw the cars parked yourself and that's how it looks most of the time."

By that time, I had written out my own check on my own bank back home. "Want any identification of the signature?" I asked. "I've got all my credit cards for gasoline and things like that."

But Roscoe Robinson took the slip of blue paper and handed it over to Rita Ellermeyer without even glancing down at it. I guess he really does believe most people are honest.

Calls Protien Use Solution to World Food Problem

CHICAGO (UP)—Both shortages and surpluses of food would disappear, if people made better use of high quality protein foods, according to Prof. Milton E. Parker, of Illinois Institute of Technology.

"There is increasing evidence that our world food shortages are, in reality, shortages of protein with the proper nutritional qualities," he said.

Food processors have made considerable progress in refining, processing, storing and distributing carbohydrates, fats, oils, vitamins and minerals but have fallen behind in dealing with food proteins, he added.

"When nutritionally efficient food production is encouraged and implemented, we probably will find that many of our present day nutritional shortages will disappear," Parker said.

Farmers, he added, have not solved the problem of producing foods rich in protein as economically as they have the crops basic to production of many refined foods.

"The time is rapidly approaching when food protein will prove the controlling economic constituent of our foods," he said. "The pressure of population alone will force it."

Whereas, the more highly publicized vitamins make up only a fraction of the daily diet, about five per cent of the bulk intake should be in proteins, he concluded.

Although the northern boundary of Indochina touches the Tropic of Cancer, the area itself extends 1,000 miles into the tropics.

Prison Housing Estimate Jumps

Corrections Commission Views Plan for Million Dollar Ionia Addition

LANSING (AP) — The estimate of the cost of a new emergency prisoner housing unit at the Ionia State Reformatory today had been jumped to more than one million dollars.

The original estimate for the unit was $225,000. The estimate later was upped to $330,000.

Gov. Williams called a special session of the legislature for Aug. 18 to consider the proposal after the "little legislature," or Emergency Appropriations Committee, refused to approve the prison plans.

The million dollar figure was reached when the State Corrections Commission told Gov. Williams it has now decided it wants a permanent installation at the prison.

The commission originally talked in terms of a temporary, barracks-type unit.

Legislators opposed the barracks-type unit, however, when Ionia Warden Garratt Heyns told them such construction would encourage sexual perversions among inmates.

The commission told Williams it agreed the present 80-man temporary unit should be enlarged to house an additional 150 men.

The commission said it thought the entire 230-man unit should consist of individual cells with wash bowls and toilets. It also recommended the construction of a permanent kitchen, dining room and recreation facilities.

Commission members said the project should have priority over any other prison construction. The commission said another dozen guards would be needed for the unit.

State Guard Hits New High of 10,862

LANSING (AP) — The Michigan National Guard reported today that guard strength reached its highest mark on record as of mid-July.

The Guard now has 10,844 officers and men enrolled, Brig. Gen. George C. Moran, state adjutant general, reported.

The previous high was reached in December of 1949 when Guard strength totaled 10,826 officers and men.

Gen. Moran said the rise in Guard enlistments has been steady during the past two years. In January of 1952 the Guard had an enrollment of 7,623 and in January of 1953 the enrollment reached 9,020, Moran reported.

Odds and Ends Found Behind Phone Booths

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Workmen cleaning behind a brace of 30-year old telephone booths in City Hall yesterday found some articles apparently discarded by telephone callers over the years.

They included:

A dozen newspapers dating back to 1935, three bottles of what appeared to be Prohibition-type rum and a flag of the Philadelphia Sesquicentennial Exposition held in 1926.

Kidney Infection Blamed in Death of Andy's Son

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The 7-year-old son of Charles Correll, Andy of radio's Amos 'n' Andy, died of an acute kidney infection, the county autopsy surgeon said yesterday following completion of toxicological tests.

John Correll succumbed July 5 in a Santa Monica hospital. It was believed at first he might have died of poison used in a paint sprayer at his home.

Fred Astaire Dances Out 10 Pair of Shoes for Just One Movie

By EDDIE CANTOR

In 1915, at the Palace Theater in Chicago, a boy and girl opened the show. They were unhappy about their spot. The audience was still dribbling in when they were halfway through their act.

ASTAIRE

One night, outside my dressing room, I spoke to the young man. He told me his life's ambition was to be number four on a vaudeville bill.

Pretty modest goal for a brother and sister who, a few years later, were the number-one dance team in Broadway musicals like: "Funny Face"—"Smiles"—"Band Wagon."

When Adele Astaire broke up the team to marry, Fred went on to become the leading song and dance man in the world. His singing success still puzzles him.

"I've got a 'when-is-he' voice," he told me one time. "Whenever people hear me sing, they say, 'when is he going to dance?'"

Sophie Tucker once kidded him with: "Freddie, you haven't got much of a voice—why, I breathe louder than you sing!"

In 40 years, I can't recall seeing Fred in a night club. I asked him about it. He said, "Eddie, night clubs keep me up too late. I like to be down at my stables early in the morning." I would, too, if I owned his horses.

A few seasons ago, one of Astaire's thoroughbreds, "Triplicate," won a $50,000 race at Santa Anita. I collected a little money on him and was all smiles when I ran into Fred.

"Gosh, how that horse of your ran!" Fred said, "He should! I wear out a hundred pairs of shoes a year to keep him in oats."

I found out that in just one movie, Fred uses up 10 or 12 pairs of shoes. Ah, well, "there's no business like shoe business!"

Thief Ignores Hospitality

NAUGATUCK, Conn. (UP)—After thieves entered his gasoline station four times by smashing a window, James Braziel hung a key next to the door because it cost less to replace the stolen merchandise than the glass. Unaccustomed to such hospitality, a thief later entered the place—by smashing the window.

House Passes Immunity Bill

Government Witnesses to Be Given Protection When Testifying

WASHINGTON (INS)—The House has passed a bill giving immunity from prosecution to witnesses who cooperate with the government by testifying about subversion.

The measure was approved yesterday by a roll call vote of 293 to 55 and sent to the Senate which passed a different version of the bill last year.

The bill, a key feature of the administration's Communist-control program, would empower the federal courts, at the request of a congressional committee or a U. S. attorney, to grant immunity to a witness provided that the attorney general is notified in advance of the action.

If the witness balked at testifying after he had been granted immunity he would be subject to possible contempt proceedings.

In another action taken yesterday, the House moved to speed up the handling of contempt cases before congressional committees.

The measure, sent to the Senate by voice vote, would allow a committee by majority vote to get a court order compelling a witness to testify. If the witness then refused he would be in contempt of court.

Solicitous Patron

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (UP) — A housewife was unconcerned when she found a milkman, Casimer S. Holewczynski, 49, lying injured near his milk truck after a traffic accident. She said only, "Is it all right if I take my milk?"

Michigan Pipe Line Asks More Permits

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Michigan-Wisconsin Pipe Line Co. asked the Federal Power Commission (FPC) yesterday for permission to furnish natural gas for 19,584 addition home customers in Michigan, Wisconsin, Iowa and Missouri.

The company told the FPC an affiliate, the Michigan Consolidated Gas Co., Detroit, has been ordered by the State Public Service Commission to take on 14,000 new heating customers.

The pipeline firm said this would be 4.6 per cent increase and told the FPC it wants to allow the 15 other utilities it serves to increase their customer load proportionately.

Michigan - Wisconsin's proposal will go into effect automatically Sept. 4 unless suspended by the commission.

FBI Checking Victim's Identity

Dead Gunman May Be Last of 7 Who Escaped From Marquette in '53

SPOKANE, Wash. (AP) — Sheriff's officers awaited an FBI report today on whether the gunman they killed Tuesday was one of the nation's "10 most wanted men." They feel sure he was.

They believe the man known in this area as Raymond M. Kidd, 35, was really Lloyd Reed Russell, 33, who wounded an officer while fleeing from a Michigan prison two years ago.

Carl Zibulka, the sheriff's fingerprint expert, said an examination of the dead man's prints checked on 28 points with those of Russell. The Federal Bureau of Investigation said, however, it could not confirm the identification immediately.

Kidd and his companion, Norman J. Wyatt, 22, were both wearing stocking masks when found in a stolen Cadillac Tuesday night. They fired when the sheriff's deputies approached, and Kidd was killed in the resulting battle.

Wyatt, who was charged with robbery, said he had known Kidd only a year and knew nothing of his past.

Russell was one of seven inmates who cut their way out of Marquette Prison in 1953. He had been serving a 9½ to 10-year sentence for assaulting a Michigan State Police trooper in 1950.

The seven escaped by overpowering two guards and taking an acetylene torch to cut their way out of the cellblock.

Most of the men were recaptured within 48 hours. Russell and others fled into dense woods near the prison and were reported at various points in the Upper Peninsula.

The escape was the first from within the prison proper since 1938.

Pan Peddler Hits Balky Customer With Merchandise

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP) — This salesman literally beat his prospect over the head—with the merchandise.

Erwin E. Hunter told police the salesman came to his door yesterday and sought to interest Hunter in some pots and pans. Hunter said he declined politely, whereupon the pot merchant banged Hunter on the noggin with a pan.

Hunter said that, when he recovered from his surprise, he floored the peddler with a right to the jaw. The salesman got up and fled, taking his wares with him. Police are looking for him on an assault charge.

Teen Contest Victors Take World Jaunt

NEW YORK — A couple of French teen-agers have arrived from South America on a trip around the world in 80 days" to commemorate the 80th anniversary of the Jules Verne novel.

The pair, Francoise Haurie, 16, and Jean Francois Bernede, 14, won a soap company contest.

They confided last night that language difficulties sometimes make things confusing.

In Peru, for instance, they asked for a deck of playing cards and got peanuts.

"But the peanuts were good," they said.

Inexperienced Driver Killed in Auto Mishap

NEW YORK (AP) — Mrs. Anna Sommer, 55, driving on a learner's permit, was fatally injured yesterday when her car went out of control.

The car hurtled onto a sidewalk, grazed a tree, knocked over 15 feet of wooden fence, smashed through a closed metal garage and plunged down a 35-foot embankment.

TO HOUSE TALENTED YOUTH — The I. J. Reuter estate, east of Lansing, has been purchased as a research center for the Youth Unlimited Foundation. The foundation will study exceptionally talented children and try to guide them into channels where they can use their greatest potential.

Russian Vodka Stands Closed

Communist Bosses Tell Ivan Only Capitalists Should Imbibe

MOSCOW (AP)—The Communists have coined a new name for drunkenness—"the worst survival of the capitalist past." Temperance lecturers are going about saying heavy drinking "cannot be tolerated in our Socialist society."

The campaign against excessive drinking—especially among young workers in the city and collective farmers who indulge in illegal home-brewing — has been taken up by Pravda, the Communist party organ, by the Literary Gazette and other publications.

The closing of drink-and-run street vodka stands, especially around the factories, had made it harder to get drunk in Moscow. But no full-scale prohibition appears intended.

Pravda recently took up the campaign against the "worst survival of the capitalist past—alcoholism" with a prominent report of a lecture on the subject given at the all-union society on spreading political and scientific knowledge.

The lecturer said people who drink excessively "violate the rules of Socialist life, disorganize work, damage the interests of our society, poison the rest and cultural life of workers, undermine family life, spread moral corruption." Not only that, they ruin their health and cause accidents.

Literary Gazette printed a complaining letter from a Donbas miner who charges that drinking among miners around Rutchenkovo in the Don basin is causing absenteeism, inefficient work and reduced production. He also blamed drinking for brawls in the mines.

Pert Palefaces Create Big Stir

Young Girls Perform Ancient Indian Dances and Rise to Fame

CHEBOYGAN (AP) — A tribe of 24 pretty paleface girls, who started dancing Indian style for fun, are finding themselves as No. 1 box office attraction.

The girls call themselves the Chic-A-Ga-Mi Tribe, and they're actually the latest group of a 17-year-old tribe. They wear feathers, deer hide costumes and sun tan makeup to look the part.

Actually the tribe is the brainchild of Mr. and Mrs. Myrton M. Riggs, publishers of the Cheboygan Daily Tribune. They wanted a special entertainment feature when they entertained the Michigan Press Assn. convention 17 years ago.

So Mrs. Riggs got together some of her former campfire girls. She made them costumes and taught them Indian steps. From the convention on the tribe was a success. All of that first tribe are married now.

The present members are 16 to 19 years old. They've put a little ginger in the old Indian dances. But their honorary chiefs would make even old Chief Pontiac proud.

Former Senator Prentiss M. Brown is Chief St. Ignace, Detroit Banker Charles T. Fisher Jr., is Chief Mackinaw and Gov. Williams is Chief Michigan.

But for a queen, the tribe picked one of its own squaws. She's pretty 19-year-old Catherine Shewchuck, who was last year's Miss Michigan State Fair.

Record Player Causes Couple Consternation

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — Charles Cogan was in the signal corps during the war and knows the difference between a radio and a record player. He told his wife she could not hear police radio calls on their record player. She insisted she heard them. It was a source of marital dispute for some days until one day Cogan, too, heard the calls.

Before deciding they were both crazy, Cogan checked with a radio repair shop where he was told it could happen in rare cases. The crystal in the arm of the record player sometimes acts as a receiver for a nearby station in a favored location. The signal, amplified by the record-player tubes can be heard if volume control is properly adjusted, he learned.

Puff Snuff Stuff

NORTH KINGSTOWN, R. I. (UP)—Rhode Island has installed a new water wheel for the snuff mill in the kitchen of artist Gilber Stuart's birthplace. The snuff mill—built by the famed colonial painter's father—has been restored to running order.

Two-Family Home Isn't 'One-Family' Home Now

NUTLEY, N. J. (AP)—Peter Scarpelli built a two-family house here 10 years ago in an area that has since become restricted to single-family units. But he wasn't affected until the Garden State Parkway came along and forced Scarpelli to move his house about 300 yards. Now the town says his house can no longer claim exemption from the one-family rule.

Scarpelli hopes the courts will see it differently.

Wash Machine Wringer Speeds Sheet Folding

POMPTON PLAINS, N. J. (AP)—Several members normally work a full day to fold some 2,000 voting information sheets the League of Women Voters mails out annually. This year Mrs. J. W. Worden Sr. did it all herself by feeding the sheets through her washing machine wringer.

Mrs. Worden got the idea from her grandson, Donald Worden, who uses the same method to fold church bulletins.

Nathan Hale One Soldier Who Opposed Furlough

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP) — Yale University has documentary proof that Nathan Hale, who regretted that he had but one life to give to his country, was an intensely patriotic soldier. He didn't want a furlough. Among the Yale library's rare manuscripts is a letter from young Hale to Miss Betsey Christophers of New London. He said he was anxious to see her, but "in the present situation of things I would not accept a furlough were it offered me."

Publicize Johnson

ALBANY (UP) — The state division of archives and history, has announced the publication of the 11th volume of the papers of Sir William Johnson. The volume covers Johnson's work in Indian affairs for the British in 1764-65.

Central Volunteer Bureau to Be Established to Serve Social Agencies

To Be in Operation This Fall

Organization Will Handle Recruitment of Workers

Pontiac will soon have something entirely new—a Central Volunteer Bureau, as result of plans started by a group of representative citizens who met Wednesday in the YWCA.

This bureau, to be initiated by the Pontiac Area United Fund in response to repeated requests, will act as a central clearning house and recruitment center for all volunteer workers in this area.

The need for such a bureau was pointed out by a United Fund representative, Mrs. Lucile Dennison, who has just completed a survey of local agency needs.

"Many people are anxious and eager to turn some of their spare time to worthwhile work," Mrs. Dennison said, "and so many agencies really need help, that a Central Volunteer Bureau for Pontiac seems to be a natural."

Twenty agencies dealing with health, recreation and child care, including state and county organizations as well as private, indicated specific needs for workers, the United Fund survey shows.

"These jobs cover a tremendous range of interests, including everything from specialized skills and hobbies to the demand for work-a-day jobs requiring no particular training," Mrs. Dennison explained.

The greatest needs brought out by the survey were for group work with children, teenagers and adults. Requests for office-type work ran a close second.

These were almost paralleled by the need for motor-aides—people to transport children and ill or handicapped adults to clinics, dentists and hospitals.

An advisory committee will soon be appointed and it is hoped that the new bureau may begin active operation soon after Sept. 1.

Those attending the meeting Wednesday were Mrs. B. B. Roush of the Pontiac Federation of Women's Clubs, Marguerite Parrish and Richard Arthaud of Pontiac State Hospital, Mrs. Mildred Bennett of the American Red Cross and Mrs. Edward A. Proctor of Christ Church Cranbrook Social Service.

Others were Mrs. Ross Tenny of the YWCA, Mrs. C. B. Shelton, a volunteer worker, and a representative from the Birmingham Junior League.

Anyone interested in offering or obtaining volunteer services may contact Mrs. Dennison.

Group Awaits Fall Activities

A full schedule of fall activities is eagerly awaited by members of the Temple Beth Jacob Youth Group who met Monday evening in the Cherokee road home of Marilyn Goode.

On the agenda come autumn will be debating, religious field trips, speakers from other youth groups, socio-drama, stunt night and religious movies.

The group will celebrate Jewish Month. The group will also participate in activities at the new temple and at the installation dinner.

Add Vinegar to Fat

Sunny summer mornings at Orchard Lake Country Club mean hours on the golf course for Sheila Flannery (left) and Kay Justin, both of Orchard Lake, who take time out before teeing off to discuss the purchase of a new putter.

Shower Given for Jane Hursey

Mrs. James Hursey was hostess Tuesday evening at a household shower given for her sister-in-law, Jane Hursey, at the YWCA.

Jane, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hursey of Spence street, will become the bride of Clinton C. Lippard Jr., son of the C. C. Lippards of Oakland avenue, Aug. 28 in the Central Methodist Church.

Relatives of the couple who attended the shower were Mrs. Hursey, Mrs. Lippard, Mrs. Russell Harris, Betty Lippard, Mrs. Bruce Wile, Mrs. Julia Howell, Mrs. Harlan Boyce and Mrs. Lyle Crowley.

Others were Mrs. Andrew McEvoy, Mrs. Jack Alcock, Beth McEvoy, Betty Jane Berg, Mrs. William Giles, Virginia Lippard, Mrs. Odell Lippard, Mrs. Clifford Lippard, Mrs. J. W. Lippard and Mrs. R. C. Lippard.

Hang Clothes Neatly

Clothes neatly hung are said to be half ironed. So shake out everything as you put it on the line and it will dry as smoothly as possible. Remember, too, to hang garments by their firmest sections, as the waistland of shorts and slacks.

Reports Are Given for General Guild

Reports were read by Mrs. Michael Glisky, Mrs. Sam Hoffman, Mrs. Edward Smith, Mrs. William Barnds and Mrs. John Gottschalk.

It was announced that Unit Six will conduct an old-fashioned ice cream social Sunday in conjunction with the open house at the recently completed school and convent. The public is invited to attend this event.

Plans are under way for a fall festival scheduled for Oct. 3. Mrs. Earl McHugh is chairman of the event. Mrs. Joseph Smith will assist her.

Alter Your Face With Boudoir Magic

By ANITA COLBY

Day to lay a good foundation. Today we'll take up the secret process of changing your old face for a new one. And this is a secret process—a private experiment, not a parlor trick.

It's strictly for the boudoir, where you do as much practicing as any magician has to. Don't think a quick flick of the wrist—a sleight-of-hand—will fool your public.

You will work and study and experiment, and finally perfect the type, usages and application of your foundation.

Study your face as critically as if you were going to buy it. Decide what changes you'd like made in it.

Is your skin too pink? Does your forehead bulge? Is your nose shiny—does it turn up? Is your upper lip too long, your chin too small?

Fix this in your mind—with foundation you can change the color, texture, and seeming contours of your face.

Feel your face with your fingertips, feeling for texture; surface smoothness. (And you should be baby smooth by now.) Press into the bones, and into the hollows.

In the ideal face, bones are where highlights should be—like high cheekbones; hollows, where natural shadows fall.

But maybe you're round as an apple—no shadows? Perhaps your jaw is more prominent than your cheekbones?

Three Foundations

Exactly what is foundation? The preparation you use before powder, the basis of all makeup.

Depending on what you want it to do, you will buy yours in one of these three forms: Liquid, creams or pastes, dry cake.

I myself use the simplest, basic theory in foundations: A pure emulsified lotion, soothing, softening, milky in the bottle, colorless when on the skin.

There are many similar types on the cosmetic market—and excellent surgical or medicated lotions in case you have disturbed skin.

Select the proper type—for dry skins: Creamy pastes or liquids—clear or colored; for oily skins: Astringent-based liquids, dry cake, or vanishing creamy type, colored or not; for combinations: Use an astringent on oily areas, under a creamy base. Now do you see: Why a foundation?

It gives your skin smoother, softer texture—adds the depth to makeup which, combined with powder, gives the look of "bloom"—or transparency.

It helps to cover small blemishes and wrinkles. It holds makeup much longer than your own skin, and much more evenly, without turning powder yellow as your own skin oils may.

Rules for Color

The general rule, for skin that needs a little covering up is:

Buy foundation in the same color family as your skin, but just a shade darker. This provides better coverage for small imperfections, plus creating that "depth" under a lighter powder.

However, if you are fair—a clear glowing alabaster—match your skin exactly, or use colorless foundation. A darker tone makes this skin look muddy.

Also if you are sallow, yellow—use a pinker foundation.

In other words, buy your ideal skin color, correcting your own with the color you lack. Here's where you mix your own basic palette.

In addition to improving texture and color by using two or three tones you can create the illusion of a perfect oval face by working on these basic principles:

Lighter Foundation used on any feature brings it forward—emphasizes it.

Darker Foundation used on any feature pushes it back—minimizes it.

Therefore, you buy a smaller amount of lighter, and of darker, if you want to really change the seeming contours of your face.

How to Apply

1. Spot Face and Neck with little supply dots of foundation. Put a good-sized blob at base of throat (about size of a quarter) . . . little less on cheeks and forehead (nickel) and small dabs on nose and chin (dime).

2. Now blend and smooth it out, always stroking gently with first two fingers, always up and out. Under eyes use only first finger, very gently. You must learn to treat this skin always with extreme care.

If you get too much on the first time—if it looks heavy or mask-like—practice until you apply it like an expert. The merest film of foundation that will add a natural bloom, not an artificial caked effect, is what we're after.

Be Own Masseuse

Right now, let's study up on the surest technique for correcting any of your body contuors that are "contouring" the wrong way.

I want you to learn to do it for yourself, at home. If you have special spots that need slimming, this is one of your best weapons.

The best time for your private massage is after a warm evening bath, using baby oil or any rich creams, to make hands glide on your skin. Work on your bed so you can fall right to aleep afterward.

Legs and Feet: "Stripping" is the massage for fatty ankles or tired legs. For rest purposes cream first, starting with the toes. Work cream into balls of feet, along the tendon of each toe and into heel.

Now pinch the back of ankle with thumb and finger on either side of Achilles tendon, and pull up in parallel lines, clear into the calf, digging hard into muscles. Repeat as often as you can, feeling the muscles slide under your pressure.

"Wringing"—You work with both hands, one going east, the other west, just like wringing out clothes.

Squeeze and twist all the way from ankle to knee. If it's fat you're after, do it with the leg in air—blood runs out of it and you get right at the fatty tissue.

Thighs and Hips: "Kneading"—Grab deep into flesh at side of thigh with fingers close together, and push against them with heel of hand, just like kneading dough, using both hands. Now alternate pressure of hands—push with right, pull with left, hard as you can.

Floorwork—Lie on back, knees bent halfway up, turn body so hip bulge receives impact, and bounce up and down. Turn to pound worst bulges, but avoid banging base of spine.

"One-Spot Roll" — Lie with knees taut, feet straight out, and roll body back and forth. Clear around until you pass your hipbone, then push back with elbows for the other side. (This is fine for the small-sized bedroom situation.)

Waist, Abdomen, Diaphragm: "Wringing" and "Kneading" for all these sections.

"Creeping": Sink heel of hand into flesh, feel ahead with fingers, pull up to fingers, and so progress all across area. Keep hands moving ahead—don't concentrate pinching in one spot and bruise yourself.

Upper Arm: "Stripping" and "Wringing" with one hand using the counterforce of thumb against fingers sunk into flesh to get the twist.

Keep Heels Smooth

A small amount of baby oil used daily at the back of the heel will prevent roughness caused by constant rubbing against the back of your shoe. A daily scrubbing with a soapy complexion brush will help keep your heels smooth, too.

Ideal in the Playroom

New Use for Round Table

By ELIZABETH HILLYER

An old round dining table makes an excellent playroom table, roomy enough for big art projects on one side and a dolly tea party on the other.

Mrs. E. B. plans to convert an old oak table in her mother's attic to the uses of her three small children.

"The table has a pedestal base," she writes, "so will be easy to cut down, but what height should it be? Should we cover the top with linoleum or give it a coat or two of spar varnish?"

Twenty-four inches is a good height for the table, Mrs. B., and linoleum would make a good top.

Make a paper pattern of the actual table top and have the linoleum cut when you buy it. Secure it to the table top with the adhesive used for floors.

If you decide on a wood finish, alkyd resin varnish will provide a hard, mar-resistant finish which will serve very well. It is preferable to spar varnish, which is chemically compounded for outdoor use.

Mrs. W. C. "I'd like to use natural color bamboo blinds on 10 windows of a sun porch, but am wondering if they are appropriate throughout the year.

"Should curtains be used with them? I'd rather use the blinds alone, but the sun porch is on the front of the house."

Bamboo blinds are used the year 'round, but it is all too easy to see through them from the outside when there is light indoors.

Since the porch is on the front of the house, you will need curtains which can be closed or cloth blinds hung behind the bamboo blinds to pull down at night.

Mrs. J. F. Y. "What color should I paint the walls of my living room? The rug is gray, a chair and sofa are blue and and red floral.

"The furniture wood is light and lamps are chartreuse and red. The walls of two adjoining rooms are yellow and salmon color."

Gray is the best choice to go well with all the other colors. Make it a warm rather than a cold gray. But, of course, it must echo the shade of the rug.

A cool weather suit (left) of three pieces in vibrant Peruvian-inspired colors is handwoven in glorious tweed by John Barr. The box cardigan jacket and pencil-slim skirt are in tweed and the wool jersey blouse has a tweed collar.

John Barr tweed (right) has full skirt of coral and cocoa brown, topped by a bellboy jacket in coral with contrasting roll collar and cuffs in the plaid of skirt.

Cites Good Prospects

Broker Encourages Her

By ANNE HEYWOOD

"I am a sophomore in college," a young woman writes. "That is, I'll be entering my sophomore year this fall.

"This summer I have been working as a typist in a brokerage firm, and I just love it. I plan to visit Wall street the week before school opens, because I am dying to see it.

"I read all the financial news in my local paper and am seriously considering being an investment salesman when I finish school.

"My family and friends think I'm crazy, because it isn't supposed to be a woman's field, but I think it would be fascinating.

"Can you tell me what you think, and what is the best way to get into such a field?"

Well, according to George J. Scully, president of the Investors Club and partner of a brokerage firm, the prospects for women are excellent in the world of finance.

Some 7 per cent of his own sales staff are women, and there are approximately 550 women representatives in the field. And Mr. Scully thinks the trend is on the upswing.

"The career of registered representative," he says, "or, in less technical terms, salesman, is in many ways naturally adapted to women.

"Today, women control a large portion of the wealth of this country, and perhaps the greatest part of the spending, either directly or indirectly.

"They know how to work within a budget. In many instances they play a large part in directing financial activities."

As for the best way for you to enter the field, Mr. Scully mentions several possibilities.

After college, you might take the course given by the New York Institute of Finance, which covers all phases of the securities industry and will qualify you for a job as salesman with any brokerage firm which is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

Or you might do as you've been doing this summer—start with a job after college in the "back office," handling bookkeeping, accounting and all the details.

Because women are increasingly needed in this field, your employer will most certainly underwrite your course at the Institute of Finance, and see that you get an opportunity at the selling eventually.

Don't Reply to Questions on Divorce

Just Indicate That Subject Is Painful to Discuss

By EMILY POST

A reader asks: "Will you suggest a reply to make to those who ask questions about my separation or divorce — such as the reason for it, grounds I expect to claim, what I am going to do about settlement of property, etc.?

"You may find it hard to believe, but I have had a number of casual neighborhood acquaintances ask me these very personal questions. I find this very annoying but I can't think of a polite reply."

Answer: Don't reply, just say "Please let's change the subject. It makes me very unhappy to talk about it."

Dear Mrs. Post: My husband has a habit of holding his fork in the left hand and pushing food onto it with his knife. He does this constantly throughout the meal.

I think this looks horrible, and in my opinion, it is bad manners. He says that it is just as correct to use the knife as a pusher as it is to use a piece of bread. I would like to hear from you on this matter.

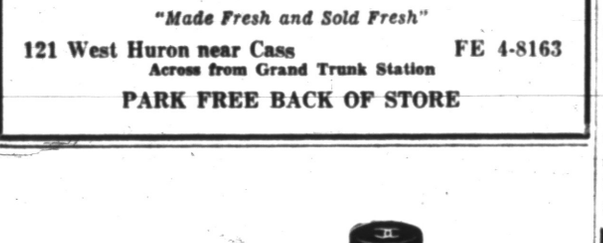

Answer: I agree with your husband that the knife is more suitable than the bread. But neither knife nor bread should be used to load food onto the fork. The fork may be pushed slightly against the knife which is used to keep a morsel of food from sliding away.

Dear Mrs. Post: I will be going on a business trip to the coast shortly and will be there for several months. I don't know a single person out there, but several of my friends have given me the names and addresses of their friends or relatives living on the coast and have told me to look them up.

Would it be proper for me to do this, or might these strangers think me very pushing?

Answer: They should give you letters to their friends to take with you and not expect you, as a total stranger, to call on them. I agree with you that it would seem pushing.

Mary Margaret McBride Says:

Donation Parties Kept Preachers Fed

The other day I met a preacher who can afford to belong to a golf club! It startled me to think how times have changed.

Many modern preachers add to their incomes by writing books, doing radio and television programs and running counseling services. Certainly their parishioners never need to organize donation parties for them and their families.

MISS McBRIDE

But if it hadn't been for donation parties and faith, ministers like my Grandfather Craig would have had a hard time bringing up their children.

Those good men got much of their pay in hams, chickens, vegetables and preserves, and while the method was sometimes galling to the pride and rather inconvenient besides, it was either that or change occupations. But most preachers managed somehow—or, more often, their wives did.

I remember Lloyd C. Douglas, author of "The Robe," one of the best-sellers of all time, telling a story about his minister-father who never made more than $600 plus donations any year.

The senior Douglas was working on his sermon one morning when his wife tapped at the study door to announce: "We have 18 gallons of apple butter."

The minister, intent on his sermon, suggested soberly: "Let's paint the house with it."

I'm sure there were times in my childhood when my Grandfather Craig also had enough apple butter on hand to paint his house (which stayed paintless, alas) for this was a sweet not highly thought of in our apple country where it could be cheaply and easily made. So the annual donation party always brought in many new jars to be added to those already on the cellar shelves from past handouts.

What my fastidious grandmother probably minded most was the fact that the one or two bad cooks in a community of superb ones always decided to make something to bring—and sometimes even the family cat and dog turned up their noses at the resulting dishes. Another cross was the mean neighbor who invariably culled from her provision closet jars of preserves that had begun to work.

A perennial "surprise" in the early spring when all the men had been out with their fishing rods was an enormous supply of fresh-water fish—uncleaned, of course. If there was anybody who hated more to clean fish than my mother it was my grandmother.

In fact, though she was the most frugal of housekeepers, she would rather let a mess of fish go to waste than, as she said, have her hands smelling of fish for days. Sometimes she could manage quietly to pass along to others part of the perishable supplies, but it was hard to be secretive about fish.

A nice, generous woman was disliked by me for a long time because I inherited a feather bed which she gave my grandfather.

Feather beds have personalities of their own and this one was of the stubborn, even malignant type. and neat on one side than the

No sooner had I made it smooth other bulged and billowed. But I had to keep wrestling with it anyway, for years, because my mother insisted that I slept sounder on it.

I hope and pray the donation party has joined high-button shoes and long woolen underwear in whatever limbo is reserved for such disagreeable institutions.

And I also hope that as time goes on, more and more preachers will find they have enough hard cash on hand to join golf clubs.

Familiar Oilcloth Good Table Cover

In all the excitement about new types of table coverings, don't overlook a familiar one that's practical as can be—oilcloth. New styling includes smart plaids, pretty fruit and floral designs, a flower and check motif.

You'll even find cushions, scarfs, and shelf width and edgings to match. All come clean in a jiffy when wiped with a soapy cloth.

Stylish Cotton Dresses Need Best of Care

High styled cotton dresses, suits, coats, and evening dresses deserve and need the finest care!

Because fashion is now built into our cotton garments, we must take steps to preserve it — cottons are no longer meant to be routed to the wash basin in the bathroom or relegated to the basement for laundering. They require professional cleaning service.

Cotton is a very versatile fabric, and designers have run the gamut of color, texture, finish, and design this season. You may have noticed that stores and shops are flooded with high polished cottons, with colors gay and lustrous. Be sure to give consideration to garment design when you select a high polish cotton for summer wear, because they can be very warm on hot, humid days.

The new "patent leather prints" are a designer's delight. Some of these are imported; others are American made. The design is usually black and lustrous like patent leather. Color may be added. The designs may dull slightly with wear and cleaning, but not sufficiently to make you unhappy.

You'll love the smart flattery of that scooped neckline! You'll love the brief sleeves and flaring 4-gore skirt. Best of all, you'll love to sew this—it's so easy! Make it in crisp cotton, faille, or a pretty nylon novelty. It's sew thrifty!

Pattern 4712: Misses' sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20; 30, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42. Size 16 takes 4⅛ yards 39-inch fabric.

This pattern easy to use, simple to sew, is tested for fit. Has complete illustrated instructions.

Send 35 cents in coins for this pattern—add 5 cents for each pattern for first-class mailing. Send to Anne Adams, care of 137 Pontiac Press Pattern Dept., 243 West 17th St., New York 11, N.Y. Print plainly name, address with zone, size and style number.

Keep in Taste! Playclothes Not for Office Wear

On particularly hot days, some girls feel that the humidity offers sufficient excuse for wearing summer playclothes to the office.

The last thing an executive wants to see a woman employe wearing on the job is a backless, halter-type print dress. Off-the-shoulder blouses may look fine at a picnic, but they are absolutely taboo for the office.

Dressy summer dresses, with several petticoats, clash violently with a business background. These dresses should be saved for after-office hours.

Simple cotton dresses in a becoming color are the smartest bet for the career girl.

If she feels she must wear jewelry, a plain chalk-white necklace, with earrings to match, will lend a note of coolness and femininity to her office costume.

Business-wise, one of the biggest mistakes a girl can make is to appear at the office with her hair set in pin-curls.

This is the pet peeve of both coworkers and executives, who think that a girl who ties a turban around her hair to preserve her hairdo is advertising, quite frankly, that she doesn't care for her job and puts her social activities first.

Name Delegates for Convention

American Gold Star Mothers, Inc., met Tuesday evening in the American Legion Home on Auburn avenue.

Mrs. Sybella Stevens, Mrs. Loretta Stockwell, Mrs. Julia Thomas, Mrs. Lola Herb, Mrs. Adam Masalski and Mrs. Louise Gutson were named to attend the state convention at Kalamazoo.

Alternates to the convention are Mss. Verdi Weatherbee, Mrs. Edna Almstead, Mrs. John Bray and Mrs. Anna olson.

A wiener roast and picnic is planned for the first week in September and will be held at Cass-Dodge Park.

Comfortable Office Shoes Now Suitable for Dates

Shoes play an important part in keeping you looking pretty—and feeling pretty—in the summertime, especially if you're a working girl. And you don't have to sacrifice appearance to comfort, either. Gone are the days when the only comfortable office shoes were ones you wouldn't be caught out in.

Today, you can get any number of good-looking leather shoes which will keep your feet happy all day long in the office, and still be smart for an after-office date.

Two popular varieties are: (1) The smooth or suede leather pump, with a mid heel—high enough to be fashionable. (2) The so-called "walking" shoe with a smart flexible leather upper perched on a slim leather sole.

In many models this year, the heel is of the "stacked leather" type—consisting of layers of shining leather in varied shadings.

When you buy summer shoes, make sure they are leather, both top and bottom. Leather serves a double purpose. It provides the correct amount of support for your feet, yet is soft and supple and will not bind. In addition, the tiny pores in leather allow air to circulate all around your feet, keeping them cool and comfortable in hot weather.

A. C. Spittles Mark 40th Anniversary

Violet Spittle of Fargo, N. D., was on hand Sunday to help her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Spittle, celebrate their 40th wedding anniversary.

Beauty, Comfort Fruitful Results of Bathing Often

Several daily baths or showers are perfect medicine for hot, tired bodies on sizzling summer days. For beauty as well as comfort, why not recondition your complexion as you indulge in frequent, cooling baths?

Your skin may have become dry as a result of days spent at the beach, where sun and wind take their toll of your complexion.

But, no matter how dry your skin is, it will respond to daily treatment. So, before you climb into the tub, set up a small tray or table near it to hold your cosmetics. You'll need a complexion brush, cleansing cream, dry-skin cream, facial tissues and a small face towel.

As soon as you settle in the tub, you can start your facial. First, wash you face with a mild soap and lukewarm water. Lather it well, then wet your complexion brush. Rub plenty of soap on your brush before using it on your face.

Rinse you face several times in lukewarm water. Dry it carefully and then you're ready for your cold cream cleansing.

The indispensable spring into summer wrap is as much at home over a dance frock as a town suit. It is completely washable and comes in all pastel colors.

Silver dollars are rare in most of the U.S., but still are found in western states such as Nevada and Montana.

Consider Light When Applying Party Makeup

Whenever you apply makeup for evening wear, remember that your face will be seen in lighting which may give your skin a yellowish tone.

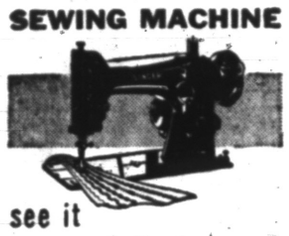

Be sure your foundation is matching or in harmony with your own skin tone. Then, apply powder with a clean puff. If your gown has neckline cut low, apply powder to your face and shoulders so that the skin is completely covered.

Your evening rouge should always be a pastel or true red. Never choose one with a blue cast. This blue-red shade causes shadows which make the cheeks look sunken or old.

Your lipstick, too, should be a true red, one that will remain brilliant in all lighting conditions. Apply it with a brush, blot, then reapply for a lasting lipine.

Next, penci in your eyebrows. If you want to experiment with different shapes, the hour before an important party isn't the correct time. In any case, following the natural browline is always the rule in making your eyebrows look thicker.

Many-Use Baking Soda Should Go Along on Trip

Whether you're contemplating a motoring trip, summer cruise, or a few quiet weeks at that cabin, vacations take a lot of planning. What to take is always one of the greatest problems.

Besides a comfortable summer wardrobe, there are a million and one little things which take up suitcase room and take a long time to collect, to say nothing of how they cut into your vacation budget.

It's a thrifty planner who can save on such little necessities by packing a single item which has many uses. For instance, a box of baking soda can be one of your greatest helps.

Baking soda, which is pure mild USP bicarbonate of soda, with its myriads of medical and households uses, costs just a few cents. Here are some of its special vacation uses:

As a dentifrice, baking soda cleans and whitens teeth, leaves your mouth fresh and sweet, and is the softest, smoothest of cleansers.

Acid indigestion, or any slight stomach upset, can be quickly and effectively relieved by taking one-half teaspoon baking soda in one-half glass water.

To soothe the itch and sting of poison ivy, burns, insect bites and stings, apply a paste of baking soda and water to the affected area.

Tingling sunburns, aching muscles from tennis, gardening and similar strenuous activities are quickly relieved by baking soda baths. Just add one-half pound soda to a tub of water — relax and be refreshed

Automobile and grease fires are quickly extinguished by throwing baking soda on the blaze. Baking soda, when heated by a fire, creates carbon dioxide. Since carbon dioxide is heavier than air, it settles around the blaze, cutting off the oxygen necessary for combustion.

Soda's cleaning uses are many. A solution of 3 tablespoons soda to a quart of water will sweeten combs and brushes, vacuum bottles, lunch boxes and the like.

These are just a few of the many ways baking soda will help you to economize on both time and pennies during the sweltering summer months.

Give Hubby Chance to Know New Baby

When you bring Baby home from the hospital, guard against the feeling that you're the only person who can do things for him.

Let your husband share him by giving him his bottle, holding him or talking to him when he cries. It isn't enough for him to take over other household jobs so that you can give more time to Baby, who needs to feel close to both of his parents.

Fast Way Furniture to Refinish

By HUBBARD COBB

When it comes to refinishing furniture, most people are in a terrible hurry. If it can't be all done in the morning and ready to use that evening they don't seem interested.

Well, for the benefit of those who are in a hurry, here is a finish for furniture that takes practically no time at all and works out pretty well.

After the wood has been sanded smooth, a coat of shellac is applied. This should be a pretty thin coat as it is supposed to go into the wood pores and act as a seal.

As soon as the first coat is dry, apply a second one of shellac and when this is dry, sand lightly with a very fine grade of sandpaper. If all goes well you should end up with a pretty smooth surface.

Dust it clean and then apply a coat of lacquer. If you apply the lacquer with a brush, be sure to use a brushing lacquer which dries more slowly than lacquer intended for use with a spray gun.

It's usually best to apply two coats of lacquer, but one coat will do if you are in a big rush. After the lacquer is dry, it should be smoothed down with some fine steel wool.

In spite of the fact that both lacquer and shellac dry very rapidly, it's best to apply them where there is as little dust in the air as possible.

No bulky knits, deep sleeves, turtle neck. Choose shorter cardigan this season, V neckline, simple sleeve.

Housework Helper Big Aid to Mothers

If it's at all possible, hire someone to help with the housework for the first few weeks after Baby's arrival. Help for even half a day will enable both you and Baby to adjust. But if this isn't possible, try to work out a schedule with your husband to get the necessary things done for Baby.

And don't worry about the household things that remain undone during these months. You, your husband and Baby will be much happier if you're relaxed not harried.

Let Bride and Her Mother Help With Shower Plans

"Dear Miss Woodward: The first daughter of my very dear friend is about to be married and I would like to give her a shower.

"I would like to know how to go about it. I'd appreciate it if you could help me make the party a success."

Your very generous thought can take the form of one of many kinds of parties. I like an afternoon gathering. You could have a luncheon - bridge shower; you could have a dessert - coffee - bridge shower; you could have a shower - tea a bit later in the afternoon.

The form your party takes will depend on the number of guests you plan to invite. And this is something you should talk over with your friend and her daughter. In fact, I'm all for talking over all your plans with them. Surprise parties can be fun — but anticipating a party is fun, too.

Decide among you whether you want to invite just friends of the daughter — young girls whom you may not know, but who would be pleased to come to your home in honor of their friend. Or friends of the girl's mother. After all, you want this party to give the maximum pleasure to the bride-to-be.

The shower - tea formula would give you a chance to invite a larger group and include some of the older women as well as friends of the prospective bride.

Send out your invitations well ahead of time, saying when, where, at what time, for whom and what kind of shower it is to be. It could be linens, lingerie, kitchen or miscellaneous, or anything specific the engaged girl prefers. If there's a color scheme to be followed, mention it.

If you decide on a luncheon, you can seat a smaller number at your dining room table, or a larger number at bridge tables. If you decide on a tea, you'll want to set your table with your loveliest cloth, prettiest flowers, china and silver.

Have two friends pour — one at each end. Serve tea and coffee, dainty sandwiches and fancy cakes, candies and nuts. Or if your garden is in bloom and if there is room for a gathering, you could go outdoors. In that event, substitute iced punch for the tea.

The shower gifts can be displayed in a conspicuous spot in your living room. Or they can be presented in a stunt, kept out of sight until the appropriate moment, then "unveiled" to everyone's delight.

It's nice to get the shower part over with early in the party so the lucky recipient of all the lovely gifts can have time to thank their donors enthusiastically. She's not expected to write thank-you notes, so give her time to express her thanks individually and collectively.

Such a party is sure to be a success. It will be doubly so if you take your guest and her mother into your confidence and plan the occasion that will make them the happiest.

Sweater Packing

Corned Beef Used as Base for Salad

Mrs. Dalley Builds Meal Around Tasty Gelatin Mold

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

A delicious and hearty salad is this Corned Beef Mold, a recipe of Mrs. Stanley J. Dalley's. Serve it for you rfamily's dinner some hot night. With a fruit salad, hot rolls and a simple dessert it will make an ample meal.

With two of her children in college and one in junior high school, Mrs. Dalley is not so tied down by home responsibilities. Maybe that is why she is embarking upon a project of a three-yard cutwork tableclothe with matching napkins. Mrs. Dalley is an active member of the Junior Child Study Club and Tuesday Musicale.

CORNED BEEF MOLD
By Mrs. Stanley J. Dalley

1 tablespoon unflavored gelatin
¼ cup water
1½ cups boiling water
2 beef bouillon cubes
1 can corned beef, shredded
1 cup chopped celery
2 tablespoons chopped green pepper
2 tablespoons chopped onion
3 tablespoons chopped cucumber
¾ cup salad dressing

Dissolve gelatin in cold water. Dissolve bouillon cubes in hot water, then add gelatin. Mix beef and vegetables and add to first mixture. Add salad dressing last. Mold.

Serve on lettuce. Sweet pickles make a good garnish for this salad.

CHAPTER 32

The Court Martial: Second Day, afternoon.

"Dr. Bird will be my last witness, sir," Challee said to the court, as the orderly went out to call the psychiatrist.

"Very well," said Blakely, glancing at the clock. It was five minutes past two. The lieutenant who came in was an extremely slender, youthful - looking man with dark hair, sallow skin, and sharp sensitive features.

His eyes were brown, deep-set, large, and penetrating. There was something of the fanatic in his look. He was quite handsome.

Under Challee's questioning, in crisp, clear, yet gentle tones, he asserted that Queeg was fit for command now and had never been unfit. Challee said, "Did the other psychiatrist who examined Capt. Queeg concur with you in this opinion?

"He did."

Challee paused, then said, "Did you find any indication that the commander had what is know as a paranoid personality?"

"Well, I would prefer to call it an obsessive personality with paranoid features."

"But this did not indicate mental unfitness?"

"No, it did not."

"Do the terms 'paranoid personality' or 'obsessive personality occur in your board's report?"

"No."

"Why not, Doctor?"

"Well, terminology is far from exact in psychiatry. The same term may mean different things even to men of the same school. 'Paranoid personality' sounds disabling and really isn't, at least not for me or the members of the examing board.

"Then Commander Queeg was pronounced fit from several different psychiatric viewpoints?"

"Yes."

"No further questions."

Greenwald approached the witness. "Doctor, in the Freudian analysis is there such a thing as mental illness?"

"Well, there are disturbed people and adjusted people."

"But disturbed and adjusted correspond roughly, don't they, to the terms sick and well as laymen use them?"

"Very roughly, yes."

Greenwald continued, "Doctor, did you note any peculiar habit Commander Queeg had? Something he did with his hands?"

"Do you mean rolling the marbles?"

"Yes, did he do that in your presence?"

"Not for the first week or so. Then he told me about it and I recommended that he resume the habit if it made him more comfortable. And he did so."

"Describe the habit, please."

"Well, it's an incessant rolling or rattling of two marbles in his hand — either hand."

"Did he say why he did it?"

"His hands tremble. He does it to steady his hands and conceal the trembling."

"Why do his hands tremble?"

"The inner tension. It's one of the surface symptoms."

"Doctor, you have testified that the commander is a disturbed, not an adjusted, person."

"In laymen's terms, then, he's sick."

Bird smiled, "I remember agreeing to the rough resemblance of the terms disturbed and sick. But by those terms an awful lot of people are sick—"

"But this trial only has Commander Queeg's sickness at issue. If he's sick, how could your board have given him a clean bill of health?"

"You're playing on words, I'm afraid. We found no disability."

"Could his sickness, greatly intensified, disable him?"

"Very greatly intensified, yes."

Greenwald said with sudden sharpness, "Have you ever had sea duty, Doctor?"

"No."

"Have you ever been to sea?"

"No." Bird was losing his self-possessed look.

"How long have you been in the Navy?"

"Five months — no, six, I guess, now—"

"Have you had any dealings with ships' captains before this case?

"No."

"On what do you base your estimate of the stresses of command?"

"Well, my general knowledge—"

"Do you think command requires a highly gifted, exceptional person?"

"Well, no—"

"It doesn't?"

"Not highly gifted, no. Adequate responses, fairly good intelligence, and sufficient training and experience, but—"

"Is that enough equipment for, say, a skilled psychiatrist?"

"Well; not exactly — that is, it's a different field—"

"In other words, it takes more ability to be a psychiatrist than the captain of a naval vessel?" The lawyer looked toward Blakely.

"It takes — that is, different abilities are required. You're making the invidious comparison, not I."

"Doctor, you have admitted Commander Queeg is sick. The only remaining question is, how sick, You don't think he's sick enough to be disabled for command. I suggest that since evidently you don't know much about the requirements of command you may be wrong in your conclusion."

"I repudiate your suggestion." Bird looked like an insulted boy. His voice quivered. "You've deliberately substituted the word sick, which is a loose, a polarized word, for the correct—"

"Pardon me, what kind of word?

"Polarized — loaded, invidious — I never said sick. My grasp of the requirements of command is adequate or I would have disqualified myself from serving on the board—"

"Maybe you should have."

Challee shouted, "The witness is being badgered."

"I withdraw my last statement. No more questions." Greenwald strode to his seat.

"It's three o'clock," said Blakely. "Is the defense ready to present its case?"

"I have only two witnesses, sir," said Greenwall. "The first is the accused."

Drivers Change Seats; Cause Complete Chaos

MILFORD, Conn. (UP) — Mrs. Phyllis White moved over to let her husband drive the family automobile. According to police, here's what happened:

She accidentally stepped on the gas.

Her husband fell out, injuring his leg.

The car roared across the street.

It traveled across Joseph Benedoso's lawn and smashed through his concrete-block-and-stucco garage, tearing a 10-by-10 foot hole in it.

Tore down two doors before stopping.

Cardinal Is Favorite Bird Among States

Seven states, beginning with Kentucky in 1926, have officially designated the brilliant red songster as their ornithological mascot.

A close second is the meadowlark, honored by six states. The mockingbird has been chosen by five states and the bluebird and goldfinch four times each.

Generally, sentiment is the deciding factor in the choice of a state's residents, but admiration for a bird's practical usefulness also can enter into the selection.

In a recent contest in Rhode Island, the Rhode Island red hen, famous as an egg-producer, received the majority of the 20,783 votes cast and was thereupon "elected" the state "bird."

Delaware, similarly practical, picked the blue hen in 1939.

Sentiment was the guiding factor in Utah's selection. Inhabitants of the landlocked state chose the seagull in memory of its aid in saving wheat crops of the early settlers in 1848. The crops were being attacked by swarms of crickets when the gulls came from the islands of the Great Salt Lake and devoured the insects, saving the vital wheat. A monument to the gull now stands in Salt Lake City.

Alabama is the only state to have chosen the woodpecker. The yellowhammer woodpecker, or flicker, was named in 1927 after a unit of Alabamians in the Civil War who adopted the nickname "Yellowhammers."

The only seacoast state to choose a seabird is Louisana, which selected the pelican. Florda and California favored land-based fowl, the mockingbird and valley quail.

The ruffed grouse, honored by Pennsylvania and South Dakota's ring-necked pheasant are the only other game birds officially adopted.

Youngsters 'Kidnaped' but by Their Brother

PEORIA, Ill. (UP)—Police got a report that two boys were kidnaped by a man who grabbed and locked them in the trunk of an automobile. The car was traced to Harold Walker who said the youngsters were his brothers.

He searched for them when they failed to return home on time. To teach them a lesson he locked them in a trunk of the car while driving them home.

Worried Father Halts Wet Business Scheme

MOLINE, Ill. (UP)—A 16-year-old youth, attired in swim trunks and greased from head to foot, was ready to swim across the Mississippi River to collect a pool put up by a group of his high school classmates. He was poised on the river bank when his father arrived and took him home.

Riveter's Gun Hammers Life Into War-Torn Bonn

By BILL BECKER

MUNICH, Germany (UP) — Nine years after war's havoc, West Germany is a sobering study in contrasts. The land's beauty and the people's industry are gaining on the ravages, but it may take another decade before life returns to normal.

Yet good and bad, Germany is worth seeing.

Like other Americans, we were struck by 'round-the-clock activity. From Hamburg to Munich the jackhammer and riveter's gun sound the dominant note. Construction crews are out from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m., and later.

Storekeepers were generally friendly but not too tolerant of our awkward stabs at their language. Finally, the man behind the counter would ask, "Do you speak English?" putting a quick end to our linguistic fling. After all, we had to eat.

Prices are reasonable. Some of the best cherries we've ever tasted were brought by the roadside, 60 pfennigs (14 cents) for a huge bag. The best wurst dinner we've had, plus beer for Papa, came to only $4 for five in Munich

And roads are good. The splendid system of autobahns is being steadily improved.

The good life is on its way back. On a Saturday night, our first in Germany, we walked along Hamburg's beautiful Lake Alster, watched gaily lighted excursion launches, and stumbled over spooning couples on the bank, much to the delight of our three girls.

Hamelin, the Pied Piper's town, affored a nice picnic place by the Wester. The only rates we found were made of bread or marzipan. We bought one of each, ate the Marzipan and saved the baked rodent for a rainier day.

That evening in Wuppertal we ate at an outdoor cafe. Ruins gaped across the street, but the cafe was crowded with well-dressed, well-fed customers. Overhead sailed Wuppertal's famed monorail system.

The first half of our trip had been through the British zone. War's devastation was apparent in whole blocks lying cleared in Hamburg and Cologne. But the worst ruins had been removed.

The French zone was something else. Stopping at Mainz, we chose a hotel on the river. It was one of three buildings standing in a block; the rest were in ruins. The view was equally appalling for several blocks.

Mainz families are still living in cellars and first floors of bombed-out buildings. Faces are not happy, yet we heard a boy whistling in a rubble-strewn alley and radio music coming out of cellars. That night a jazz band kept us awake playing for dancers in the battered auditorium behind the hotel.

In the American zone, Frankfurt and Munich are abustle with construction. Modern glass and concrete buildings are replacing bombed-out Gothic. But enough old landmarks and cathedrals survive to keep the ancient flavor.

Locked Out of Home by Broken Leg Cast

PORTLAND, Me. (UP) — Frank J. Cipriano, 41, was a man in a pickle.

He had just been released from a hospital where doctors had set his broken leg and put the leg in a cast. The key to his apartment fell through a hole in one of his pockets into the cast.

Cipriano returned to the hospital and an intern probed without success with forceps for the elusive key. The intern decided to x-ray the cast to discover where the key was hiding.

At that point, Cipriano, who was lying on a bed on his back, tried raising his leg. The missing key slid out.

Make Short Work of Sandwiches

Assembly Line Technique Best

Prepare Fillings Ahead, Line Up Bread Slices for Speedy Results

Don't let the making of a large batch of sandwiches scare you. It's merely a matter of organization. Use mass production methods for them.

Have all the fillings prepared. Margarine, butter and cream cheese should be softened, meat slices trimmed to fit. Lettuce, mayonnaise and mustard may be carried to the picnic site in separate containers for guests to help themselves.

Line up the bread in rows—for twelve sandwiches, four rows of six each. Spread all the bread with margarine or butter—lightly, but right to the edge.

Add the fillings, next—to every other row—and be generous. Filling up to the crust line insures no dry edges. You'll find a spatula makes quick work of the spreading job. Now add the covers to the sandwiches. Trim crusts, if you wish, then cut into halves or quarters.

Slide the finished sandwich into a sandwich bag or wrap in waxed paper or foil. There's a new foil sandwich bag that looks good.

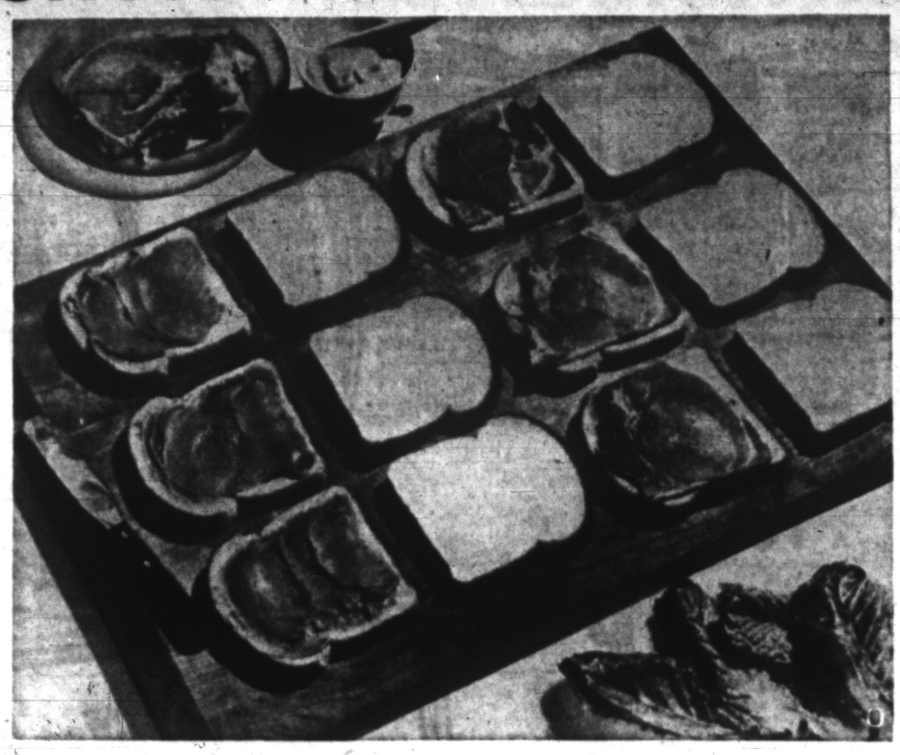

When you pack the sandwiches, group them according to fillings for easy selection and pack on top of the picnic basket.

Chickenette Sandwich Filling

1½ quarts ground cooked pork
1½ cup chopped celery
1½ cups chopped sweet pickle
1½ cups chopped peanuts
1½ cups mayonnaise
1½ teaspoons salt
100 slices bread

Combine pork, celery, pickle, mayonnaise and salt. Spread on half the bread. Top with remaining slices. Makes 50 sandwiches.

ASSEMBLY LINE SANDWICHES—Sandwiches for a crowd don't have to be a day-long job. Just use mass production assembly-line techniques. Makes six almost as easy as one! When fall and school-lunch time comes along, remember this procedure.

Chickenburger Just Right for Super Outdoor Party

For that something which is different at your next party, try serving chickenburgers from the outdoor grill. Chances are none of your guests will have encountered a chickenburger, for chickenburgers, unlike their humble cousin the hamburger, are only to be found in the most rarefied circles.

Strange to say, the chickenburger really is made of chicken, whereas no one has ever been able to discover even the most infinteximal piece of ham in a hamburger.

For your chickenburgers you can use either a whole chicken or chicken parts, fresh or frozen. A 3½ to 4 pound chicken will yield 2 cups of chopped raw meat.

Here's your recipe:

Chickenburgers

2 cups raw chicken meat, chopped medium fine
1 beaten egg
⅔ cup soft bread crumbs
¼ teaspoon finely chopped onion
½ teaspoon crushed dried rosemary (optional)

Mix all ingredients together until they are well blended. Form into small, flat cakes, brush with melted butter and broil on the grill until cooked through—from 3 to 5 minutes on each side depending on the thickness of the cakes.

Brush again with melted butter, sprinkle with salt and pepper to taste and with finely chopped parsley. Serve on toasted split hamburger buns.

With the chickenburgers serve a crisp all-green salad of bite-sized pieces of chicory, lettuce, escarole and watercress and thinly sliced cucumbers, all tossed together lightly with your favorite French dressing.

Apples baked in foil on the grill add a delicious touch. Use baking apples either whole or cut up for quicker cooking. To each apple add a tablespoon of honey, a half teaspoon of butter and ¼ teaspoon of cinnamon. Wrap securely in the foil so that no juice can escape and bake on the coals, allowing about an hour for a large, whole apple.

Special Treats Are Easily Made With Lemonade

For special treats and parties, dress up fresh lemonade with a dash of charm:

One tablespoon crushed berries in a glass of icy cold lemonade turns it into a luscious pink cooler.

For a new sweetening trick, try using honey for sugar in your standard lemonade. Wonderful flavor note!

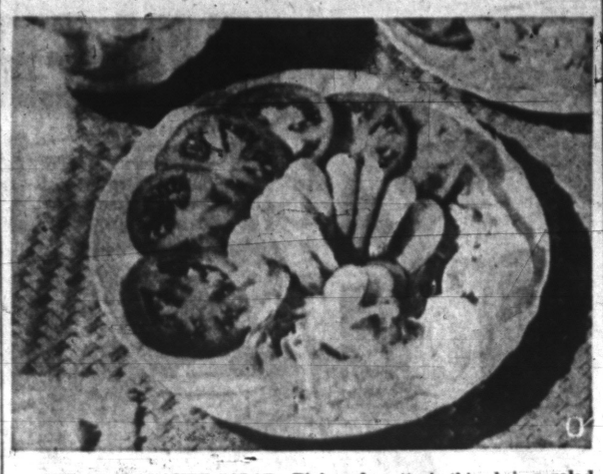

A light, frothy soda is yours in a minute when you substitute carbonated water for tap water in lemonade and add your favorite ice cream.

A California Julep will buoy up your guests with its delightful flavor of fresh mint and the zing of pungent lemons.

Crush a sprig of fresh mint with two tablespoons sugar in a tall glass. Add two tablespoons fresh lemon juice and stir until the sugar dissolves. Pour in one cup cold water and fill glass with ice cubes.

Ham waffles and pancakes are easy as scat, and delicious, when you add contents of a family size can of Deviled Ham to regular batter.

Whole Shrimp, Tomatoes Make an Attractive Salad

To make an easy and attractive salad use cooked whole shrimp, sliced tomatoes and radish slices. Arranged on a bed of lettuce, the salad is complemented with a tangy dressing.

Served with hot rolls and a dessert, this salad makes an ideal luncheon main dish.

Shrimp Bouquet Salad

1 pound shrimp, fresh or frozen
4 medium tomatoes
3 radishes, sliced
Lettuce
Coral dressing

Cook and clean shrimp. Chill. Arrange tomatoes, shrimp and radishes on beds of shredded lettuce to form red and pink bouquet. Serve with Coral Dressing. Makes 3 generous salads.

Coral Dressing

½ cup mayonnaise
2 tablespoons catsup
½ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
1 teaspoon horseradish
Dash of Tabasco
¼ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon black pepper
1 tablespoon lemon juice

Blend ingredients. Chill.

Potatoes, Beef Combine

Team diced potatoes with creamed dried beef for Sunday brunch or lunch or supper during the week. Sprinkle with finely chopped chives from your garden, or parsley, before serving.

Wheat Germ Adds Flavor to Meats

Healthburgers

1 pound ground beef
⅓ cup wheat germ
⅓ cup milk
⅓ cup milk
1 tablespoon finely grated onion (pulp and juice)
1 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper.
1 tablespoon butter or margarine for frying

Mix beef, wheat germ, milk, onion, salt and pepper thoroughly. Form into 6 patties; make them just wide enough so you can cook them all at the same time in a large skillet. Melt butter in skillet, add patties and cook quickly so both sides are well browned and centers are faintly pink. Serve at once, pouring drippings in pan over patties. Makes 6 servings.

Old Book Has Quaint Way of Dispensing Information

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

We have before us an antique book, dated 1830. Its title is "Five Thousand Recipts in all the Useful and Domestic Arts: Constituting a Complete Practical Library."

Below that are listed some four dozen different sub - headings. Among them are Confectionary, "Dying," Food, Inks, Pickling, Tanning. The book came to us from Mrs. Fred N. Wiest; it has been in her family for years.

MRS. ODELL

After looking this book over, we've decided that it's somewhat like the Lincoln Library of Essential Information, with a few extra "receipts" thrown in for good measure.

Do you have "head-ache in bed?"

"If the head is much disturbed, wash it with cold water, and discontinue the night cap: But wear worsted stockings in bed."

Have flies in your house? "Take half a teaspoonful of black pepper, in powder, one teaspoonful of brown sugar, and one tablespoonful of cream; mix them well together, and place them in the room, on a plate where the flies are troublesome, and they will soon disappear." Why?

Cramp in bathing? "For the cure of the cramp, when swimming, Dr. Franklin recommends a vigorous and violent shock of the part affected, by suddenly and forcibly stretching out the leg, which should be darted out of the water, into the air, if possible." Benjamin Franklin is quoted often and voluminously.

Want your clothes perfumed: "Take of oven-dried best cloves, cedar and rhubarb wood, each one ounce. Beat them to a powder and sprinkle them in a box or chest, where they will create a most beautiful scent, and preserve the apparel against moths." Sounds good.

Should you want to make a road on M'Adams's system (the present macadam road); rear silk worms; construct a barometer; freeze quicksilver; walk on water (!); or make imitation Spanish snuff—just look in this handy little volume.

Since this is a food column, let's have a "receipt" or two about food. How about Tomatas Catsup?

"Cut up the tomatas, and between every layer sprinkle a layer of salt, let them stand a few hours before you boil them, which do very well, then strain them through a cullender on some horse radish, onions or garlick, mustard seed, beaten ginger, pepper and mace; cover it close, let it stand a day or two, then bottle and seal it for use."

Shrewsbury Cakes would seem to be simple to make, even with measurement by weight.

"Mix half a pound of butter well, beat like cream, and the same weight of flour, one egg, six ounces of beaten and sifted loaf sugar, and half an ounce of caraway seeds. Form these into a paste, roll them thin, and lay them in sheets of tin; then bake them in a slow oven."

Warm Frozen Fruits Lose Shape and Juice

Using some of those summer fruits you put into your freezer? If they are to go into fruit cups they need be defrosted only a short time before serving so they will still be icy cold.

If frozen berries are allowed to stand after they are thawed, they tend to become flabby; other fruits tend to lose their shape and juice.

Jon's Mocha Cooler Is Smooth Drink

Teenagers, as well as older members of the family, will enjoy this rich delicious drink.

Jon's Mocha Cooler

8 teaspoons sugar
6 teaspoons instantly-dissolving powdered coffee
½ cup commercially-prepared chocolate syrup
4 cups milk
1 pint coffee ice cream

Put sugar, coffee, chocolate syrup, milk and half of the ice cream in a bowl; beat with rotary beater or whisk until blended.

Pour into 4 tall glasses; spoon a fourth of the remaining ice cream into each glass. Serve at once with iced-tea spoons. Makes 4 servings.

Molded Salad Pretty

A molded cottage cheese salad makes a pretty buffet table addition when it is put in a ring mold and its center is filled with cubes of fresh fruit. Surround the cheese-and-fruit ring with water cress or curly chicory.

Delicious Nut Bread Offers Appealing Toasty Truimph

Toasty Nut Bread achieves a real taste triumph. Flavors of toasted coconut and almonds are complemented by a faint suspicion of lemony tang. Makes a perfect carrier of cheese-rich Jewel Filling.

Eye-appealing and taste-captivating finger sandwiches of this bread and filling combination make a tempting team for afternoon tea.

Raisin-Studded Filling is another variation designed for an extra-easy company fix-up. Flavor's grand!

Toasty Nut Bread

2 cups sifted enriched flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
¼ cup toasted coconut
¼ cup chopped toasted almonds
2 teaspoons shredded lemon rind
1 egg, beaten
¼ cup brown sugar
1 cup applesauce
¼ teaspoon almond extract
¼ cup melted shortening

Sift together flour, baking powder and salt. Add coconut, almonds and lemon rind. Combine egg, brown sugar, applesauce, almond extract and shortening, mixing well.

Add liquid to flour mixture, stirring only until flour is moistened. Pour into greased paper-lined loaf pan (4½x8½ inches). Bake in moderate oven 350 degrees about 50 minutes. Makes 1 loaf.

Jewel Filling

3-ounce package cream cheese
1 tablespoon milk or cream
1½ tablespoons currant jelly

Combine cream cheese and milk or cream, mixing until smooth and creamy. Add currant jelly, beating well. Makes 2/3 cup filling.

Raisin-Studded Filling

3-ounce package cream cheese
2 tablespoons orange or pineapple juice
¼ cup chopped raisins

Combine cream cheese and orange or pineapple juice, mixing until smooth and creamy. Add raisins, mixing well. Makes 2/3 cup filling.

Metal Pots Dangerous in Making Pickles

Brass, copper, iron and galvanized kettles should not be used when making pickles as these metals are likely to cause undesirable color changes or react with the acid or salt to produce unwholesome substances.

Use enameled ware, glass, aluminum, stainless steel or stoneware utensils for your pickle making.

Cook in Small Amounts

It is wise to cook only the amount of vegetable your family will eat at one meal. Holding a cooked vegetable and then re-warming it or keeping it hot for any length of time result in loss of quality and of vitamin C.

Here's Foolproof Recipe for Ice Cream Dessert

The U. S. Department of Agriculture reports that every year in the heat of summer, tens of thousands of requests come in for a foolproof recipe for homemade ice cream.

This year there's a brand new technique for making refrigerator ice cream. By following a few set rules and using this basic recipe, you can't miss making a creamy smooth ice cream. The secret behind the success is homogenized instant pudding, the very same pudding you've been serving your family all winter long.

By using instant pudding to make ice cream, you cut down the mixing time to a minute, and the freezing time to 2 to 3 hours. In addition, it completely eliminates the beating usually called for after the mixture has partially frozen.

Here is a basic recipe, plus an inexpensive way of making ice cream sandwiches. In using both recipes follow these general rules:

The colder the milk, the better the ice cream.

Cream in place of milk gives smoother results.

Fast freezing and proper storage are important.

In a refrigerator set for fast freezing, ice cream should be firm in 2 to 3 hours, and remain firm when control is normal.

Refrigerator Ice Cream

1 cup light cream
1 cup cold milk
1 package homogenized instant pudding (any flavor)

Pour cream and milk into a deep mixing bowl. Add pudding (homogenized instant pudding comes in four flavors — chocolate, vanilla, butterscotch and coconut cream). Beat until well mixed, about 1 minute.

Pour into a refrigerator tray. Freeze until firm, 2 to 3 hours, in refrigerator freezing compartment with control set for fast freezing, or in freezer. Turn refrigerator control to normal for storage. Makes 4 to 5 servings.

Ice Cream Sandwiches

8 double graham crackers
1½ cups cold milk
1 small can (⅔ cup) evaporated milk
1 package homogenized instant vanilla pudding

Cut 4 graham crackers to fit in bottom of refrigerator tray. Cut remaining crackers to fit same size. (To keep crackers from crumbling, before cutting place a moist paper towel over the crackers for a second or two.)

Pour cold milk and evaporated milk in a deep mixing bowl (a two-quart measuring cup is ideal). Add pudding. Beat until well mixed, about 1 minute.

Pour over 4 graham crackers in refrigerator tray. Top with remaining 4 crackers. Freeze until firm in refrigerator freezing compartment with control set for fast freezing, or in freezer.

To serve, cut around each sandwich and lift out with pancake turner. For 8 smaller servings, cut each sandwich in half. Makes 4 or 8 servings.

Sometimes when homemade mayonnaise is stored in the refrigerator, it gets too cold and separates. If this happens, gradually beat the mayonnaise into a fresh egg yolk.

Peanut Butter, Date Sandwiches Tasty

Pack a lunch and take it to the beach or the park—or just into your own backyard.

Peanut Butter-Date Sandwiches

½ cup peanut butter
½ cup chopped pitted dates
2 tablespoons orange juice
8 slices bread
Butter or margarine (soft)

Mix peanut butter, dates and orange juice. Spread bread with butter or margarine, then make 4 sandwiches with the peanut-butter mixture. Cut sandwiches in half diagonally; wrap individually in waxed paper, using drugstore fold.

Tin Can Cuts Bread

Use the open ends of tin cans, in various sizes, when you want to cut rounds of bread for pretty summer sandwiches and canapes. You can make the sandwiches interesting by using one round cut from white bread along with one round cut from whole-wheat or rye bread.

Fresh Peach Crisp Is Quick-and-Easy

This quick-and-easy fresh peach desert is extra good!

Fresh Peach Crisp

¾ cup sifted flour
1 cup sugar
Dash of salt
⅓ cup (⅓ pound) butter or margarine
2 pounds peaches
¼ teaspoon cinnamon

Sift together flour, sugar and salt. Cut in butter with pastry blender or rub in with fingers until blended. Peel peaches by dipping in boiling water until skin will rub off; pit and slice thin; there should be about 4 cups. Arrange sliced peaches in baking pan (about 8 by 8 by 2 inches). Sprinkle flour mixture over peaches; dust with cinnamon. Bake in hot 400 degree oven 30 to 40 minutes or until top is lightly browned. Serve warm with cream. Makes 8 servings.

When you are planning to serve steamed hard-shell clams, it is a good idea to allow at least two dozen clams per person.

Toast That Sandwich

Vary that chopped corned beef sandwich! Make the sandwiches as usual, then dip into a mixture of lightly beaten egg and milk—just as you do for French toast—and fry in butter or margarine until golden brown. The corned beef filling may be mixed with a little sweet pickle relish if desired.

Plaid Hamburgs a Double Treat

Picnic meals on the patio or back porch are festive occasions when you serve a special sandwich like Pickle Plaid Hamburgers. They make two big impressions—first when you see them, second, when you taste them.

Sweet pickle relish in the hamburger filling adds tang and texture, and sweet gherkins and sweet fresh cucumber pickles served as a garnish contribute more good pickle flavor.

Pickle Plaid Hamburgers

¾ pound ground beef chuck
2 tablespoons chopped onion
2 tablespoons chili sauce
1-3 cup sweet pickle relish
1½ tablespoons horse-radish
½ teaspoon prepared mustard
¼ teaspoon garlic salt
½ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
4 slices white bread
Processed cheddar cheese strips, ¼-inch wide

Combine beef, onion, chili sauce, pickle relish, horse-radish, mustard, garlic salt, salt and pepper; mix well. Spread beef-pickle mixture on 4 slices of bread. Place hamburgers on broiler rack and broil 4 inches from source of heat 5 minutes. Remove from broiler and arrange cheese strips over hamburgers in a plaid design. Broil 2-3 minutes, or until cheese is melted and lightly browned. Makes 4 servings.

Make Hearty Sandwich With Chicken and Ham

Here's a hearty Down-On-The-Farm Sandwich that will command repeat performances. Combine 1 cup diced chicken, 1 cup ground ham and ¼ cup chopped celery, mixing lightly. Add ¼ cup mayonnaise, 2 teaspoons horseradish, ½ teaspoon salt and a dash of pepper, mixing well.

The mixture makes six tempting sandwiches.

Plain, Grilled, in a Cake, Bananas Are Good Eating

Bananas could have been made just for picnics. Nature designed such a perfect package for the fruit that they needn't even be wrapped to be ready for the picnic basket. Picnickers depend upon bananas for a portable dessert with a flavor everyone likes.

But did you know that bananas are just as delicious hot as cold? Did you know they make a perfect food to grill whole right along with the frankfurters, the hamburgers, or with that steak sizzling on the outdoor grill?

For Grilled Bananas, a less ripe banana is best, the kind that has all yellow peel or yellow peel that is slightly green-tipped. This banana is less sweet and it will stay firm during cooking.

Of course, for bananas to eat out of hand, you want the fully ripe kind that have all yellow peel flecked with brown. These are bananas at peak of flavor, sweetness, and digestibility.

If it's cake you're in quest of for the picnic, you couldn't do better than bake a Banana Cake. The fresh fruit flavor is popular with everyone, and the natural moisture in the bananas helps the cake to keep better, with that good, characteristic banana flavor.

When including bananas in cakes as part of the liquid, the technique is to mash them until they become a thick, smooth liquid. Just slice them into a bowl and mash with a fork, or beat with a rotary egg beater. Or you can break the bananas into chunks, and beat them with an electric mixer.

Banana Layer Cake
(1-Bowl Method)

Before Mixing: Have shortening at room temperature. Grease pans. Set oven at 375.

2¼ cups sifted cake flour
1½ cups sugar
2½ teaspoons double-action baking powder
½ teaspoon baking soda
½ teaspoon salt
⅓ cup shortening
1½ cups mashed ripe bananas* (4 to 5 bananas)
2 eggs, unbeaten
1 teaspoon vanilla
*Use slightly green-tipped or all-yellow bananas.

Sift together flour, sugar, baking powder, soda and salt into large mixing bowl. Add shortening, ½ cup of the bananas and eggs. Beat 2 minutes at slow to medium speed with electric mixer or 2 minutes by hand. Scrape down bowl and beater or spoon frequently during mixing.

Add remaining 1 cup bananas and vanilla. Beat 1 minute longer. Turn into 2 well-greased, 8-inch layer cake pans. Bake in a moderate 375 oven about 25 minutes, or until layers are done. Frost with your favorite frosting. Makes 1 cake.

Grilled Bananas

4 to 6 firm bananas*
Melted butter or margarine
Salt
*Use slightly green-tipped or all-yellow bananas.

Peel bananas. Place on rack or into pan. Brush bananas well with butter or margarine. Sprinkle lightly with salt. Grill about 5 minutes on each side or until bananas are browned and tender . . . easily pierced with a fork. Serve hot with grilled hamburgers, sausages or frankfurters. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Fry Summer Squash

To pan-fry summer squash, heat a small amount of butter or margarine in a large skillet. Add the squash cut into thin crosswise slices; cover and cook until tender and lightly browned on one side. Turn the vegetable pieces and brown lightly on the other side. Watch so as not to scorch. Season with salt and pepper and serve at once.

Pretty Up Canned Ham

Pretty up that canned spiced ham. Score the top of the ham in diamond-shape, stick a whole clove in each diamond, sprinkle with brown sugar and bake in a hot oven until thoroughly heated through.

Grate Onion With Ham

Sugar, Syrup Good With Berry Cakes

We serve our Blueberry Griddle cakes with powdered sugar, but you may prefer maple syrup.

Fluffy Blueberry Griddlecakes

- 1½ cups sifted flour
- 1½ teaspoons baking powder
- ½ teaspoon salt
- 4 teaspoons sugar
- 2 eggs
- 2/3 cup milk
- 2/3 cup blueberries (picked and washed and well-drained)
- 2 tablespoons butter or margarine (melted)

Sift together flour, baking powder, salt and sugar. Add eggs and milk. Beat until dry ingredients are just moistened; batter should have tiny lumps. Fold in blueberries and melted butter with a few strokes. Bake 3 pancakes at a time on lightly greased griddle, pouring about 3 tablespoons of the batter for each; if you have a ladle that holds about 3 tablespoons, use it for pouring. Turn griddlecakes when they are golden-brown on underside and bubbly on top. Makes 12 to 14. As pancakes are done, slather each with butter and sprinkle generously with powdered sugar, stack in piles of 3 and keep warm in low oven.

TOASTED CORN AND CHEESE SANDWICHES—An open face sandwich like this is a handy idea to keep in mind for lunch or supper. Corn and cheese make the zippy mixture that puffs and browns in a jiffy under the broiler. It's a good suggestion for Friday menus.

New Idea for Breakfast

Creamed dried beef makes a delightful Sunday breakfast when it is served with hot popovers. Use a quarterpound of the dried beef to one to two cups of white sauce that is on the thin side.

Try adding a cup of moist shredded coconut to a standard white cake recipe for a pleasant flavor change.

Beef Sandwich Hardy Enough for August Meal

Finnigan's Favorite Beef Bake, developed especially for August—National Sandwich Month, is a sandwich of main dish proportions.

Arrange 4 slices bread in bottom of 9-inch square baking pan. Spread with butter or margarine. Spoon 2 cups corned beef generously over bread. Spread 4 more slices bread with mustard. Place the bread, mustard side down, on corned beef.

Combine 1¼ cups condensed tomato soup (10½-ounce can), ½ cup water, ¼ cup chopped onion and ½ teaspoon horseradish. Mix thoroughly. Pour over sandwiches.

Bake in moderately hot oven (400 degrees F.) 20 minutes. Makes 4 sandwiches.

Cheese Flavors Puffy Sandwich

Open face sandwiches always make a hit, but you can count on Toasted Corn and Cheese Sandwiches to bring applause for two reasons.

First, they're mighty good eating . . . you'll find the corn-cheese mixture has real zip.

The second winning point is that these sandwiches are so quick and easy to do.

The teen-age crowd will enjoy fixing them for get-togethers, and you'll team them with a salad for a satisfying lunch or supper. Garnished with bacon curls or olives they make an eye appealing plate.

Toasted Corn & Cheese Sandwiches

- 4 slices bread
- 1 egg
- 1 12-oz. can whole kernel corn
- ¼ cup sliced pimiento
- ¾ cup grated sharp cheese
- ¼ teaspoon dry mustard
- ½ teaspoon baking powder

Toast bread on one side in broiler. Beat egg well. Add rest of ingredients to egg and pile on the untoasted side of the bread. Cook in the broiler about 15 minutes, until puffy and lightly browned.

Garnish with crisp bacon curls, parsley or olives. Four servings.

Goin' Fishing? Bulletin Offers Cooking Recipes

Going fishing? Will you need some help with the catch? You can obtain the 31-page bulletin, "Recipes for Lake Trout and Whitefish," by writing the Bulletin Office, Michigan State College, East Lansing.

The right sauce or relish is important to complement fish flavor. Fat fish requires a sauce or relish that helps "cut" the fat in the fish, say home economists at MSC. A lean fish needs a rich sauce.

Fish that is deep fat-fried, pan-fried or larded during baking needs a tart contrast.

Fat fish, for the most part, are fish with colored flesh. Lean fish are generally those with white flesh. Since fish is one of the most tender protein foods, it is important not to overcook it, advise home economists.

Three Agricultural Experiment Station folders of fish recipes—smelt, carp and burbot—are available from the Bulletin Office, Michigan State College, East Lansing.

Want to give your brown gravy zip? Add a little prepared horseradish to it.

This Is the Season for Shrimp and Rice

Shrimp and Rice Dish

- 1 pound shrimp (fresh or frozen and thawed)
- 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 1 teaspoon paprika
- ¼ cup butter or margarine
- ½ cup chopped celery
- ½ cup chopped green pepper
- ¼ cup minced onion
- 3 cups hot cooked rice
- 4 slices bacon
- Salt and pepper

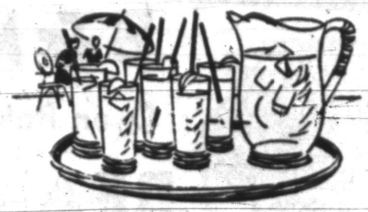

Clean and devein shrimp; sprinkle with Worcestershire; roll in flour mixed with paprika. Melt butter in large skillet; add celery, green pepper and onion; cook over low heat about 5 minutes. Add shrimp, increase heat, and cook about 5 minutes more or until flour browns and shrimp is pink. Add hot rice. Fry bacon until crisp; crumble and add with bacon drippings if desired; mix well. Add salt and pepper to taste and, if mixture seems dry, 2 tablespoons water. Makes 4 servings.

Serve Plums for Lunch

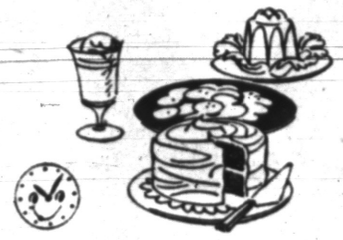

When it's time for the youngster's mid-morning lunch, lay two red-ripe plums on the plate that holds his glass of milk, and one cook book quality doughnut. Be sure to call attention to his napkin because plums are v-e-r-y j-u-i-c-y.

Van Atta Files Hearing Petition

Meeting Is Scheduled for Monday Evening in CAI Building

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP—Former Police Chief Frank Van Atta filed a petition for hearing with Township Supervisor Lloyd Anderson last night.

Anderson said the request will be presented to the Township Board, as specified when the governing body Monday night voted to hold a hearing for the ousted chief if he requested it by noon today.

The hearing will be held at 8 p.m. Monday in the CAI Building on Williams Lake road, Anderson said.

Van Atta was fired last month by the board for "insubordination, disloyalty and incompetence and disregard for instructions." He denied all the charges.

Postmaster Position in Romeo Confirmed

ROMEO — The appointment of Almon Schock as Romeo's new postmaster was announced this week by Postmaster General Arthur Summerfield.

Schock served as assistant postmaster under John L. Lucas since 1942. He began his postal career as a substitute clerk in Oxford in 1920, coming to the local postoffice in 1924.

Lucas is retiring after 19 years of service as postmaster, having been appointed in 1935.

Jail Driver on Return

MUSKEGON (AP) — Kenneth Sutton, 20, sought by police since February on a hit-run driver warrant, was nabbed by police Wednesday when he returned to Muskegon to attend the funeral of his brother, Elwin, killed in an auto accident Saturday.

Kenneth pleaded guilty and was fined $50 and sent to jail for 10 days.

Crash Kills Indiana Girl

NILES (AP) — Judy Ann Cowles, 19, of Elkhart, Ind., was killed in a head-on collision six miles north of Niles on U.S. 31 last night. Her car and one driven by Elmer Keller, 68, of Butler, Ind., were involved.

UNION VOLUNTEERS—Laying the sub-floor at the new home being built for Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Keel in Avon Township are Bert Sutherland of 22026 Springbrook, Farmington and Floyd Gauthier of 3958 Seeden St., Drayton Plains. The men are members of a local carpenters union, which later "roughed-in" the house. The Keel home was destroyed by fire May 5 in which their three boys were killed.

Building Home for Keels

AVON TOWNSHIP—Going up on St. Clair street, just off Auburn road, is a home being built by volunteer workers using supplies and materials purchased with voluntary contributions.

When completed the home will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Keel, the parents of three sons who died when the original Keel home went up in flames May 5.

For the time being, the Keels are staying with relatives in Pontiac.

Keel, unable to work for another month because of the serious burns suffered in trying to save the boys, comes to visit the new home and watch the volunteers work.

Neighbor Lewis Schutz, with the help of other neighbors, laid the block foundation for the house.

Saturday, a crew of volunteer carpenters from a local union moved in on the neighbors' foundation and laid sub-flooring and "roughed-in" the shell of the house.

Right now, the committee of neighbors behind the project is seeing a mason to construct a chimney. volunteers may call Mrs. William Harmon at FE 4-0038.

Funds for the property and the house materials—and the cemetery lots — came from three sources: General Motors Corp., where Keel worked; the Avon Community Fund, and mail and local donations. The pool now contains $5,645.09.

Milk Local Meets; Elects New Officers

MARLETTE — Approximately eighty people attended the annual meeting of the Marlette Local of the Michigan Milk Producers Association in the community school Monday evening.

Emerson Teal, supervisor of testing and production of the Quality Milk Control at East Lansing and Arthur Youse, vice-president of production of the Borden Company of Detroit, were guest speakers.

Members of the organization discussed current milk production problems, which included the question of milk prices.

In other business, officers were elected for the coming year. Chosen president was Bruce Ruggles of Kingston; vice-president, Harold Wood of Marlette and secretary-treasurer, Neil Boyne of Marlette.

New delegates are Miles Sullivan, Harry Prouse, C. A. Palmer and Floyd Dale of Marlette and William Moore of Snover.

U. S. Renting Melon Land

Florida Farmers Plant Crop in Forest Areas Before Reclamation

WASHINGTON (INS) — Scarcity of good watermelon growing land in the South has led Florida farmers to rent land in national forests to grow their crops.

Under the plan, watermelon growers help improve the Florida national forests by clearing nonproductive scrub oak lands for planting.

The land is used for one year for watermelon production. Then it is planted to pine trees.

Watermelon growers have paid fees for the past three years to clear out suitable national forest land for their crop. Included in growth cleared from the land were scrub oak, black jack, palmetto and gallberry.

The Agriculture Department reports that good watermelon growing lands have been scarce for some time in sections of the South.

Reasons for this scarcity are:

1. Land can be used only once in seven years for most watermelon varieties because the spores of fusarium wilt stay in the soil for that long a period, and ruin any new crop.

2. After watermelons are harvested, the land often is planted to citrus trees.

Arrest Gang of Nine Linked to Flint Theft

DETROIT (INS) — Nine men were arrested in Detroit early today in a police roundup of a gang believed responsible for the theft in Flint recently of 25 new rifles and shotguns valued at about $900.

The investigation was launched on a tip by 27-year-old Harry Moore of Southfield Township that he had been approached by two men offering to sell him the guns.

Booked for investigation are Edward Salameto, 34; Ted King, 36; Henry L. Varner, 36; Herschel Fenwick, 33; Norman Paquin, 32; Willis Edwards, 29; and Jacques Cane, 29. Held as police witnesses are Moore and John Sabitini.

Paquin was arrested in a car in the driveway of Salamento's home where he had been sleeping. Twenty-four of the guns were found in the car. The other was in Fenwick's home.

Keego Baton Twirler 3rd in National Contest

Miss Dreyer represented the Heart of the Lakes VFW Post, Keego Harbor.

Sharon and her sisters, Arlene, 12, and Marilyn, 10, won first place at the state VFW convention which preceded the national convention.

In Candlelight Rites

Norma Braun Becomes Bride off Norwood Balko

SOUTH LYON—Norma Arlene Braun exchanged nupital vows with Norwood N. Balko, Saturday in a candlelight, double-ring ceremony performed in the First Presbyterian Church.

Norma is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond W. Braun of Whipple boulevard, and Norwood is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Balko Sr., of Napier road, Northville.

The bride approached the altar in a gown of white Chantilly lace and net over satin, designed with a fitted bodice and full length, pointed sleeves.

Her double illusion veil fell from a lace calotte and was garnished with Chantilly lace. Norma carried a white Bible, orchid and stephanotis.

Serving as maid of honor was Marjorie Scheel, cousin of the bride, and bridesmaids were Jeanette Bowen and Kay Anne Braun, the bride's sister.

Zolie Visnyat of Northville was best man. Uushers were Neil Braun, the bride's brother, and Dwight Miller.

2 New Potatoes Recently Bred

Disease-Resistant Saco and Merrimack Grow Easily in New England

WASHINGTON (INS)—Farmers in New England have a break in the development of two new varieties of high-yielding and disease-resisting white potatoes. The varieties are known as Saco and Merrimack.

They were developed by plant breeders of the agriculture department and the Maine and New Hampshire agricultural experiment stations.

The department says cooperating certified seed producers now are increasing production, and limited quantities of seed stock will be available to New England growers next spring.

Saco is said to be superior in many ways to standard Maine varieties, while Merrimack is ideally suited to growing conditions in New Hampshire. Both can be grown successfully, however, throughout New England.

Both also take the form of large, spreading bushes, and their late-maturing potatoes are short, round, smooth-skinned and shallow-eyed.

The department reports Saco is immune to the common race of late blight fungus, to mild mosaic, latent mosaic, and is highly resistant to net necrosis.

The Merrimack variety is practically immune to the common late blight fungus and to mild mosaic. It also is highly resistant to net necrosis and ring rot, and is moderately resistant to early blight.

Farm Legislation Vote Uncertain

Flowing Oratory Stalls Senate Action on Plan for Price Supports

WASHINGTON (AP) — A bumper crop of election-year oratory made it uncertain today how soon the Senate would get around to voting on controversial new farm legislation.

* * *

Sen. Young (R-ND), floor leader for a bipartisan group of senators who are bucking the Eisenhower administration plan for flexible farm price supports, said in an interview:

"If we can pick up three more votes we can win."

Young favors a one-year extension of present rigid supports on five basic crops — cotton, wheat, corn, rice and peanuts. He said a long list of speeches probably would prevent any major votes today.

Sen. Aiken (R-Vt), floor manager for the administration proposals, insisted in a separate interview that the Senate would back flexible supports when the showdown comes.

"We've not lost a vote," Aiken added.

Both Aiken and Sen. Anderson (D-NM), former secretary of agriculture and a longtime backer of flexible supports, said they hoped for a vote before the Senate quits tonight.

In a speech prepared for Senate delivery, Young recounted repeated statements by Secretary of Agriculture Benson in opposition to continued rigid price supports, and he added:

"This is not what we promised to farmers two years ago during the election campaign.

"I challenge anyone in the Senate of the United States to point to a single speech by President Eisenhower during his campaign two years ago in the Midwest where he ever mentioned flexible price supports."

Hungry Angler Catches Octopus, $20 Bank Roll

NARUTO, Japan (AP)—Kameichi Matsumoto, 58, broke and hungry, went fishing for his supper.

He got a bite, and hauled in a big octopus. The octopus was clutching tightly in its tentacles a purse containing more than 7,000 yen (about $20).

Matsumoto ate the octopus and reported the money to police. If no one claims it, he can have it.

Trailer-Camper Demands Billing for City Taxes

LINDEN, N.J. (AP)—Stephen Sember was a tax collector's dream come true today.

Sember, who lives in a trailer, lodged a formal complaint with the City Council demanding to know why he hasn't been billed for taxes.

Sember said yesterday he had lived i trailer camps in various parts of the country for the past 10 years and always had been obliged—and happy—to pay his taxes.

Why, he asked, should it be any different in Linden?

Drunk Cyclist Draws Fine, 3-Day Jail Term

PIQUA, Ohio (AP)—Even though he hadn't even been inside an automobile, Elton M. Morris of Piqua drew a three day jail sentence and a $100 fine for drunk driving.

Municipal Judge Charles Lynch acted after Morris pleaded guilty to the charge. Officers had reported they found Morris "weaving all over" Main Street on his bicycle.

Swimming Pool Sinks, Kids Safe

LONGMEADOW, Mass. (AP)—Nobody sank in the swimming pool when the swimming pool sank yesterday.

Swimming instructor Vernon Cox guided 20 children out of the pool when he noticed the water begin to "bubble and flutter as if there was terrific presesue." Shortly afterward the pool sank in several feet of earth.

* * *

Authorities said the concrete pool was built over the foundation of an old ice plant and there was a filling of loose dirt between the foundation and the bottom of the pool.

Bishop Sherrill Seeks Realism

Speaks at Opening of World Anglican Parley in Minneapolis

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — An upset world calls for a spirit of realism from all churchmen, one of its leaders told the World Anglican Congress, opening its first global conference in 46 years here today.

"If there is no room for despair, certainly there is no room for ease," The Right Rev. Henry Knox Sherrill of New York, presiding bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church of America, told the 600 church and lay delegates. "The ivory tower is a luxury which cannot be afforded in the world of the hydrogen bomb."

Dr. Sherrill said world evils could not be overcome by any marginal faith and that isolationism, both within and without the church, is a thing of the past.

"God works His will in many ways and through many groups," the bishop continued. "Take out of this world every communion but the Anglican and we should be in a parlous state. We must have a view of the wholeness of the Christian church."

The bishop emphasized that this 10-day session would be given over entirely as a forum for current Anglican thought and information for delegates from 14 national churches on every continent.

"We must deal with the great theme of God's redemptive purpose and the world wide mission of the church," Dr. Sherrill said.

In a solemn and colorful procession last night, churchmen and lay delegates paraded into the Minneapolis Auditorium in a service consecrating it as a meeting place. All Anglican churches but the Chinese were represented. Leaders said the Communist government had refused permission for delegates to leave that country.

Dr. Geoffrey Fisher, archbishop of Canterbury who, with Bishop Sherrill, led the procession, told the assembly afterward that the sense of truth was being distorted by the evils of propaganda and atrophied by moral decay.

Accountant Charged in Fund Shortage

HANCOCK (AP)—An auditor general's request for an investigation led yesterday to the arraignment of Walter W. Katka, Houghton County social welfare department accountant, on a charge of embezzlement.

Department Director Elwin T. White told Justice Frank McKindles an estimated $1,500 in department funds is missing. He said an investigation still is incomplete.

Katka was released under $2,500 bond to appear for examination Aug. 26.

Lansing Woman Killed

Coast Guard Seeks Woman on St. Clair

ANCHOR BAY, Mich. (UP)—The Coast Guard resumed its search of Lake St. Clair today for Mrs. James A. Burns, 42, wife of a Wayne County Civil Service Commission member.

Mrs. Burns disappeared on the lake late Wednesday in a crippled outboard motorboat. A neighbor, Jimmy Gentry, 13, told the Coast Guard he had climbed out of the boat about two miles from the woman's summer home when she managed to get the boat to a dock.

He said Mrs. Burns had had trouble with the motor twice Wednesday and she apparently drifted back out into the lake while he was trying to find help.

12 Pakistani Refugees Killed as Hut Collapses

KARACHI (INS) — Twelve persons were killed today when the wall of a hut, weakened by monsoon rains, collapsed and buried 47 Pakistani refugees. The other 35 were dug out safely.

The hut was located on an old industrial exhibition ground where, according to Agnece France Presse, 15,000 Moslem refugees from the partition of India are living.

There are approximately 53 million cars, trucks and buses in operation in the U.S., one for every three persons.

French Forces Leaving Hanoi

1,500 Will Be Flown South on First Day of Airlift, More to Follow

HANOI, Indochina (UP) French forces pulled out of their last defense posts west of Hanoi today and work crews began dismantling installations in the area.

As the withdrawing columns filed into the city, planes started the first flights of around-the-clock airlift of refugees from the doomed Red River delta southward to free Viet Nam.

Civil authorities said 1,500 persons would be flown south during the day in the first phase of the giant airlift that is to evacuate some 40,000 anti-Communist Indochinese from Hanoi this month.

While the airlift goes on, some 45,000 other evacuates will go south by ship from the port of Haiphong.

French residents were in no hurry to leave Hanoi, the "pearl of the Orient." About 1,250 will fly out this month but another 5,000 have indicated they would prefer to leave later.

The French high command reported a minimum of fighting. A Communist Indochinese was killed in a brief skirmish in Laos, where the cease-fire does not become effective until next Monday. The Communists captured a French union post in south Viet Nam, where the shooting stops on Aug. 11.

Communist truce delegates at the village of Trung Gia north of Hanoi assured newsmen Wednesday night that Brig. Gen Christian de Castries, the "General Dean" of the Indochina War, is in good health.

The Communists would not say when de Castries, commander of fallen Dien Bien Phu, will be repatriated.

Hoodlum Is Denied Habeas Corpus Writ

DETROIT (UP)—Federal Judge Ralph M. Freeman has denied former Detroit hoodlum Sebastian Vermiglio a writ of habeas corpus in his attempt to escape deportation to his native Italy.

Vermiglio, 41, had sought the writ on grounds that he did not have a fair hearing on his deportation in Chicago.

Judge Freeman also ruled that a presidential pardon which Vermiglio is seeking cannot keep him in the United States. The judge said such a pardon does not exempt narcotics violators from deportation.

GI Wives Wrathy at Dress Order in Germany

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP) — A battle-scarred U.S. Army colonel ducked behind his combat ribbons today as the wrath of a thousand American women poured down on him.

"I had no idea it would cause such a fuss," smiled Col. John H. Dilley, commander of the Frankfurt detachment, who issued an order advising Army wives and daughters here to spruce up and tone down their dress.

His directive said "the attire being worn in public by some American women is not in good taste," and warned that if they didn't do something about it "positive action" would be taken.

Outlawed were:

Bare-back, halter-type sunsuits worn without a jacket or wrap.

Bare mid-riff costumes.

Strapless, low-cut dresses (except in clubs or at social functions).

Shorts on teen-agers or women.

Pin curlers, unless neatly covered.

The colonel, a West Point graduate who distinguished himself in the African campaign in World War II, said some women were going to and from the Post Exchange looking awful.

One of the women who likes her Levis said:

"I used to wear blue jeans to the commissary to buy groceries. Now I can't. I have two kids and keep house. I can't change clothes every time I want to go out of the house."

* * *

Another said stoutly:

"Our freedom is being threatened."

Col. Dilley (of 1510 Armstrong Ave., Kansas City, Kan.) remained good-naturedly firm.

"They've already shown a big improvement. Somebody just had to tip them off how they looked."

The Holy Alliance was signed by all European rulers except the Pope and King of England when it was formed in 1815 after the Congress of Vienna. This alliance agreed to uphold the Ten Commandments.

Pfeffer Freed After Jail Term

Man Confesses Crime That Imprisoned Youth Eleven Months Ago

NEW YORK (AP) — Paul A. Pfeffer is free on bail after more than 11 months in jail for a murder which another man has confessed.

Pfeffer, now 22, had insisted that police forced him to confess the crime. At his trial his girl friend, Helen Anderson, 16, testified Pfeffer was with her until 4:30 a.m. the night Bates died.

Last January Pfeffer was convicted of second degree murder and sent to prison for 20 years to life. He had been held without bail since his arrest.

Two months ago John Francis Roche, arrested for the rape-slaying of a schoolgirl, confessed to four murders in Manhattan and also admitted the Bates killing.

Pfeffer's court-appointed attorneys immediately went to work. He successfully passed a lie detector test.

Pfeffer's conviction recently was set aside by a judge who granted him a new trial, which may be held in the fall.

Bail of $10,000 was allowed last Monday. Pfeffer lacked the money to pay a bail bond fee, and the law banned his attorneys from posting bail.

Yesterday, an anonymous benefactor guaranteed the posting of the bail by a professional bondsman and Pfeffer walked out of jail.

In the arms of his girl friend, Helen, Pfeffer beamed and said:

"I was never so happy in all my life. This has changed me in every way. I can't explain it, but it has."

Pfeffer, an orphan, said that when he is cleared he will go to live with a married sister in Buffalo. The sister was not identified.

Pfeffer and Helen refused to discuss marriage plans.

"My father doesn't want me to marry until I'm 18," Helen said.

Hal Boyle Says:

Mother of Bataan Hero Finds Peace in Black Hills

HILL CITY, S. D. (AP)—How can a middle-aged woman who has lost her husband and reared her children adjust to a world that suddenly seems empty?

That was the problem that faced Mrs. Arthur Wermuth, mother of Maj. Art Wermuth, the famous "one-man army of Bataan."

She found the answer by turning her back on the busy social life of Chicago and settling down in a cabin in this old small (pop. less than 500) mining town in the Black Hills. She lives alone with her 8-year-old Dalmatian watchdog, "Sissy," and says she has found here a new peace and purpose in life.

"Ever since I came here," she said, "I have loved these hills so much that I could kiss the ground for the happiness they brought me."

Sitting in the living room of her log home, Mrs. Wermuth, a vivacious, dark-eyed woman whose age is still her own secret, told the story of her life.

"When I was in the third year in high school I had my appendix out," she recalled. "The surgeon had a son, who was also a doctor and helped him.

"I started hollering for the young doctor, and wouldn't let the old man take care of me. Before I left the hospital the son and I were engaged.

"I guess he fell in love with my insides," said Mrs. Wermuth, laughing, then added quietly:

"But for more than 24 years no woman ever had a finer husband. He was a good man."

The young doctor became a famous overworked surgeon. In 1925 his wife talked him into coming to the Black Hills on a fishing trip, and each year after that they returned.

"In Chicago he belonged to the people, and the city finally killed him," she said. "But out here he belonged only to me—and here we found peace together."

Widowed shortly before the war, Mrs. Wermuth spent 9 years traveling about the country with her daughter, Talia, who had become a professional dancer. They were tiring, anxious years.

Her son had won fame by killing more than 100 Japanese single-handed in patrol actions on Bataan before being taken prisoner.

"For more than 3½ years I worried every night that they would kill him in prison camp," she said.

After the war she settled here with her daughter, who is married to a businessman in nearby Custer. Her son is now in the insurance business in Denver.

"To this day we have never talked about the war," she remarked. "'Some day, mother, I'll tell you about it,' he said, and some day, when he is ready, he will tell me. But it is over, and now he doesn't want even to hear about it.

"So far he hasn't even looked at the scrapbook I collected about his heroism, but some time he will. I also still have the gavel used in the House of Representatives to declare war on Italy and Germany. It was given to me by Rep. Sam Rayburn of Texas. He said the gavel used to declare war on Japan had been stolen."

The shelves of her four-room cabin are crowded with souvenirs of her travels. The shelf above the fireplace holds the bronzed first baby shoes of her two children—and the skull of a gorilla, given to her in Seattle.

Mrs. Wermuth now is a familiar figure in the Black Hills, and held in high affection for her acts of kindness. Even the crustiest old prospector waves as she wheels by on a trout fishing trip.

"No, I don't miss the city social life I used to know," she said. "Here they have something much better than society—a neighborliness you don't find in many places.

"The Rocky Mountains are so big they give you a feeling of loneliness. But the Black Hills give you a feeling of serenity and peace."

"I don't know whether you know what I mean by that, but you will when you are older."

She reached down and patted Sissy, and the big spotted dog glanced up and looked at her thoughtfully. The two understand each other.

This Old Gray Mare Is What She Used to Be

UXBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — Princess, 33-year-old mare owned by Mrs. Lillias Farnum Daigle, wouldn't stand still, Mrs. Daigle apologized:

"Princess always wants to be on the go once she's saddled and you ought to see her run in the corral. It's hard to believe she's so old, but my father bought her in 1926 at an auction in the Chicago stockyards. She was five years old."

Dr. Royce Simpson of the Angell Memorial Hospital in Boston says "It's an exceptional age for a horse, even if it doesn't break any records." He says horses may live into the 40's. And the way Princess frisks and canters now, she may be heading for a record.

Without Nagging Backache

Nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness may be due to slow-down of kidney function. Doctors say good kidney function is very important to good health. When some everyday condition, such as stress and strain, causes this important function to slow down, many folks suffer nagging backache—feel miserable. Minor bladder irritations due to cold or wrong diet may cause getting up nights or frequent passages.

Don't neglect your kidneys if these conditions bother you. Try Doan's Pills—a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. It's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief from these discomforts—help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today!

Army Drivers to Be Examined for Personality

WASHINGTON (UP) — Your personality has a lot to do with your ability to drive a car safely, the U. S. Army has decided.

If you're the happy-go-lucky type, good at bluffing or a devotee of gambling, chances are you couldn't qualify as a driver in the Army.

Ten years ago the Army selected its drivers primarily on the basis of driving skill measured in road tests. But recent research has changed the picture. A man's protential safety record is now determined by his personality traits.

Before a candidate for a driver's classification is put behind the wheel, the Army hands him a questionnaire to fill out. More than 65 per cent of the questions deal with personality.

The Army believes this is the best way to eliminate the horn-honkers, impulsive and quick-tempered drivers and the ones who take too-long chances. Records show the new method has cut down on accident risks.

Family Is Sporty One

PONTOTOC, Miss. (UP) — The family of Mr. and Mrs. Early Swanson is large enough to make up almost any sort of a team—and toss in a coach also. Daughters Dorothy, Norma, Leuvenia, Faye, Kathleen, Nona and Frances make up a basketball team coached by brother, Marlin. The Swanson's have a total of 20 children, 12 girls and eight boys.

Dog Turns Robber, Steals Stuffed Poodle

SAN DIEGO (AP)—Mable Whitsitt's hat shop was spick and span and ready for the first customer. When the door was opened a big Dalmatian dog slipped inside, snatched a stuffed poodle from the show window and then made his getaway.

Startled clerks followed him for half a block but quit the chase when the Dalmatian had placed the poodle gently beside a tree and turned to defend his fuzzy friend against any attackers.

Inaugural Purse Opens 29-Night Wolverine Meet

Dozen Top Pacers in Tonight's Feature at Detroit Track

DETROIT (UP) — A dozen top pacers will see action tonight in the $5,000 Inaugural Purse as the Wolverine Raceway lift the lid on its 39-night meeting.

The field includes such speedsters as Poplar Doll, Taylor Direct, Knox Hanover, Stormyway, Dominion Boy, Ed Wilson, Hillcrest Attorney, Hi-Lo's Starwa, McNamara, Mighty Brewer, Miss Abbe Cash and Russet Hal.

Poplar Doll, raced by the Poplar Hill farm, has the fastest time for a mile, the distance of the Inaugural, with a 1:59. However, that was over a mile track, twice the distance of the Wolverine Raceway oval.

For the 2nd time this year, a Detroit area track will host the famed Grand Circuit with Wolverine flying the banner for five days starting next Tuesday.

The Grand Circuit spent one week at the Hazel Park harness track in June.

Wolverine president Fred L. Van Lennep said he was hopeful that the track can equal or surpass the record $303,000 nightly mutuel handle average of last year. Even though no other Michigan harness or thoroughbred track has been able to avoid a decline in betting this year.

2 Outs to Go, Rain Falls to Save HV Nine

Berkley Just Misses Victory; Birmingham Tops Clawson

Just 2 outs stood between Berkley and another American Legion 18th District baseball league victory, but rain intervened, wiping out a 3-1 advantage over Huron Valley for the south Oakland club.

Game was rained out in Berkley, yet in nearby Clawson, the host team and the Birmingham Blues completed their full 7 innings with the Blues winning, 7-5.

5 Sports Pages in Today's Pontiac Press

Blues broke a 3-3 tie with a 4-run splurge in the 6th featured by Ray Podulka's 2-run homer. Moore bagged a homer and 2 singles for Clawson.

Bob Blackwell was working on a 1-hitter and had fanned 6 at Berkley. In the top of the 5th, Huron Valley scored once and had a runner on with one out when the rains came.

Birmingham Blues	210	004	0	7	6	5
Clawson	110	010	2	5	9	0

Title Favorite Ousts Pine Lake Youngster

Pine Lake County Club's representative in the Women's Western Junior Golf Tourney at LaGrange, Ill., yesterday bowed out of the title race.

Sally Sharp, 17-year-old Birmingham High student, was eliminated by Berri Long, title favorite, from Huntington, W. Va., 3 and 2. Sally had won her way through the first round on Tuesday, but was unable to match the favorite's game, in the second round of match play.

Bannister and Landy Run Mile Heats Today

By JACK HEWINS

VANCOUVER, B.C. (UP) — Dr. Roger Bannister has a slight head cold today but says it isn't bothering him and he has prescribed a brisk mile canter in preference to a glass of hot lemonade.

He'll take his preferred tonic this afternoon about five o'clock, Pacific Daylight Time, in the second heat of the British Empire Games mile trials.

Before his turn comes, John Landy of Australia must qualify in the first heat, programmed for 4:50 p.m.

Although he has only six opponents to Bannister's nine (four will qualify from each heat), Landy might be due for a slight pressing. Victor Milligan of Northern Ireland has gone the route in 4:06.7, Ian Hugh Boyd and Chris Brasher of England in about 4:09, and defending champion Bill Parnell of Canada in 4:11. Bill Baillie of New Zealand and Ed Morton of Canada complete the first heat field.

Straw-hatted Hec Hogan of Australia, who was figured a cinch for three gold medals when he came to the games, will try to salvage one in the broad jump. He has made 25 feet, 1 inch in this event and none of the other 14 entrants is within a foot of that mark.

Although Hogan shares the world record of 9.3 seconds in the 100 he could finish no better than third in that event. He barely qualified for the 220 finals and now he isn't expected to win that event today.

Yesterday was one of rest for the trackmen and the main interest shifted to swimming and rowing. England, favored to overpower everybody with the oars, was completely shut out. The biggest surprise was the victory of Canada's eight-oared shell over the highly regarded English.

England landed only one gold medal at Empire Pool, when Phyllis Ann Long won the women's springboard event, but it collected heavily on placement points in the unofficial team standings.

When these were totaled for the day the English were setting a torrid pace with 260½ points. Australia was running second with 185½ and Canada third with 166.

Horseshoe and 'Shuffle' Title Tourneys Set for Aug. 17-19

Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department again announces its annual horseshoe and shuffleboard tournament on Aug. 17, 18, and 19, at Oakland Park, "under the lights." All residents of Oakland County may participate.

This year a junior division has been added in horseshoes and shuffleboard. Any boy or girl who has not reached his or her 16th birthday by August 21 is eligible to enter.

There will be singles and doubles events and all winners will receive trophies. It will be a single elimination tournament with two divisions.

Senior Division—For men and women who are 16 years of age or older—with an entry fee of $1 per person, per event.

Junior Division—boys and girls who have not reached their 16th birthday by Aug. 21 with an entry fee of 25 cents per person, per event.

All entries should be made at the Parks and Recreation Department, 35 Hill Street, and should be accompanied by an entry fee.

Entries must be in by 5 p.m. Friday, Aug. 13. For all doubles events, entries must provide their own partner.

There must be eight entries in each event before a tournament will be held in that event. Official rules will govern all play.

Local winners in the horseshoe tournament will be eligible to participate in a state-wide amateur horseshoe pitching contest, held during the Michigan State Fair on Sept. 4 and 5.

Each local winner will receive two free passes to the Fair Grounds and will be a guest of the Fair at the Coliseum and Grandstand shows.

15 Persons Convicted of Poaching State Deer

LANSING (UP) — There were 15 convictions for deer poaching during the past week, one of the highest totals in recent weeks, the State Conservation Department said today.

The department said most of the convictions were for "shining" deer at night. Night patrols are being increased to combat the poaching, game men said.

During the past week, there also were 36 convictions for fishing without a license, 16 for other fish law violations and 8 for miscellaneous game and forest fire law violations.

Pontiac Shooter Enters National Rifle Matches

Fred T. Mayer, 532 Franklin Rd., Pontiac will fire for the top high-power rifle titles in the nation when he competes in the 69th renewal of the National Highpower Rifle Matches at Camp Perry, Ohio, Aug. 16-24, it was announced today by the National Rifle Association of America.

Mayer joins a field of the nation's top thousand civilian and military highpower rifle marksmen who will shoot against the defending national champions, Staff Sergeant Don L. Smith, USMC, national match rifle title-holder, and Master Sergeant Maxim R. Beebe, USMC, present owner of the national service rifle crown.

The smallbore rifle and pistol national matches also will be held on the world famous Lake Erie shooting site during the same period.

WEDNESDAY'S HOME RUNS

Play Double Round for 16 Places Today; South Carolinan in Front

LOS ANGELES (UP) — Sixty-four survivors of 1st round play set forth today in a double round of the United States Golf Assn. Junior Amateur Championship with galleryites hard pressed to pick a favorite in the field.

By nightfall the field will be trimmed to 16 as play unfolds on the par 36-35—71, 6,820-yard Los Angeles Country Club course.

Interest was divided, but the logical choice was George Warren III, Hampton, S. C., who reached the finals—and lost — a year ago at Tusla, Okla.

Warren got a scare before winning, one up on the 19th hole, in yesterday's 1st round over Jimmy Bell of Little Rock, Ark.

Rain Stops Hardtoppers

Rain washed out Wednesday's hardtop activities at the Pontiac M-59 Speedway. Two weekend shows are scheduled at the suburban track with the running of late model stocks Saturday night and another Land O'Lakes Racing Association hardtop program Sunday.

George Bayer Has Incredible Power Off Tee

Faces 35 Rival Pros in All-America 1st Round Today

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN

CHICAGO (UP)—Mammoth George Bayer, the Paul Bunyan of the links, may never strike it rich in the $205,000 Tam O'Shanter golf jamboree starting today, but he is a pro set apart from the others because of his incredible power.

His colleagues—such as Doug Ford, Dutch Harrison, Jimmy Demaret and Lloyd Mangrum — claim that the 240-pound 6-5½ Bayer is the longest hitter in golf history.

The tank-like Bayer was among 36 pros teeing off today in the first round of the All-American tourney, the first phase in promoter George S. May's fabulous extravaganza that runs 10 days and is climaxed by the "world championships" next week.

The "world" champion receives $50,000 in cash and a $50,000 exhibition contract. The All-American meet is a mere warmup, with a top prize of $3,420.

Bayer, a varsity tackle on the University of Washington football teams from 1946-50, is not expected to win, but he is bound to draw attention of the swarming galleries for his feats off the tee.

That is the main reason May listed him among 76 pros exempt from qualifying.

About 300 others had to shoot for 60 qualifying spots. Leading the survivors with six-under-par 66's yesterday were four club pros—Tom Burke Jr., of Chicago; Paul McGuire, Wichita; Jay Hebert, Woodmere, L.I., and Mike Sipula, Ottawa, Ill.

In the meantime, the big shot players were talking about Bayer's practice round drives. For instance, on the 495-yard second hole, Bayer's drive was so great he needed only an easy No. 9 iron for his second shot.

"My control is improving a lot since I've been taking some lessons from Walter Keller (former Chicago driving range operator) who now is in Los Angeles," said Bayer.

A former caddy, he said he started playing golf at the age of seven, gave it up at 16 then resumed three years ago when he was 25. He turned pro last January and is now at the Glen Head, L.I. Country Club.

Russians Chide Tukalov

MOSCOW (UP)—Yuri Tukalov, Russia's Olympic champion sculler has become a "swelled head" Soviet Sport, the country's leading sports magazine complained today.

And, it added, he must change his attitude and get back to work seriously. He must rid himself of vanity and self-conceit and start winning again, the magazine said. After his Olympic victory in 1952, he was beaten both at the European championships last year and the Royal Henley Regatta this year.

Williams Catching Up

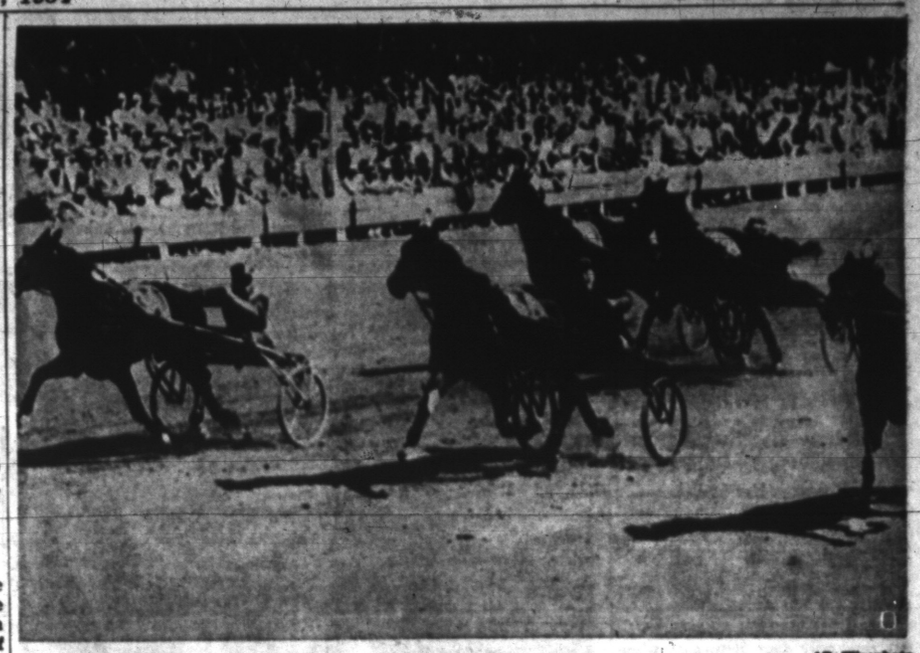

CHICAGO (UP)—Thumpin' Ted Williams today was only four home runs behind Cleveland's Lary Doby, the American League leader, although he's played in only 64 of the Boston Red Sox' 103 games.

Wiliams drove out his 19th circuit blow of the campaign yesterday against the Chicago White Sox. Ted is batting .365 and has driven in 59 runs.

Yesterday's Stars

PITCHING — Robin Roberts, Philadelphia Phillies, won his 16th game as he held Milwaukee to five hits while striking out nine in a 2-1 triumph.

BATTING — Jackie Robinson, Brooklyn Dodgers, hit a two-run homer with one out in the ninth to give the Dodgers an 8-7 victory over St.Louis.

Lame Newport Dream Victor in Hambletonian

By JOHN CHANDLER

GOSHEN, N.Y. (UP) — Newport Dream has caused Del Cameron a lot of lost sleep in recent months, but the determined little harness racing driver must have laid his head on the pillow with a broad smile last night.

For with all his aches, pains, bandages and liniments, Newport Dream tossed away the crutches and went out to defeat 15 rivals in the $106,830 Hambletonian yesterday.

Newport Dream has been, and still is lame, with a mystery ailment in the left foreleg, swollen knees on both forelegs, and a swelling in the right hock.

But the 2-year-old champion of 1953 chilled the opposition in two consecutive heats, whirling around Good Time Park's triangular mile in 2:02 4-5 both times to grab off the top prize of $57,581.

A month ago Cameron said it was 50-50 whether he could get the colt ready for the Hambletonian. At winter quarters in Pinehurst, N.C., Newport Dream began showing lameness in the left foreleg during mid-March. Three veterinarians were called in and none of them could determine whether it was centered in the ankle or shoulder.

Finally they blocked a nerve to try and pinpoint the spot, but that worsened things—an infection developed.

Cameron, who trains for owner Octave Blake, master of the Newport Stock Farm, South Plainfield, N.J., never gave up.

"He's got a heart as big as that bucket of oats," said Cameron. "He's an amazing colt. He seldom breaks stride—has done it only twice in his races, both last year when he lost. Why, I've only had to hit him once with a whip to keep him from losing.

"We have worked night and day with him, using diathermy, bubble baths, injections and everything trying to locate the trouble. I think he has some sort of virus or infection in his system." Del said the day before the Hambletonian.

As he talked, Cameron unwrapped four bandages from the Dream, and it required 15 minutes. It must have taken an hour to put them back after the colt was taken from his stall for some exercise.

Newport Dream defeated Princess Rodney, Walnut Hall Stud, Donerail, Ky., by three lengths in the first heat yesterday. Stanley Cooper's Vicki Hanover, Port Jervis, N.Y., was third. The favored Stenographer, owned by Max Hempt, Camp Hill, Penn., finished sixth.

4 Michigan Pros in Qualifying List

CHICAGO (UP)—Four pros from Michigan have qualified for the All-American Golf Tournament which gets underway today at George S. Mays' fabulous Tam O'Shanter Country Club.

John Barnum, Grand Rapids; Mike Dietz and Larry Tomasino, both of Detroit, and Jimmy Johnson, Northville, Mich., were among 60 who posted scores of 72 or better in two-day qualifying tests.

Barnum and Dietz each carded 68, Tomasino had 71 and Johnson squeezed in with 72.

The quartet will join other qualifiers and 76 exempted players in the $25,000 All-American which precedes next week's $100,000 World's Championship at the same course.

49ers Trade Collins for Redskins' Williams

MENLO PARK, Calif. (UP)—The San Francisco 49ers, in training here, announced yesterday the acquisition of defensive halfback Johnny Williams of the Washington Redskins in a trade for Ray Collins, veteran tackle.

Williams, a former star at the University of Southern California, has already reported to the 49ers and is expected to play in the exhibition game against the Ft.Ord Warriors here Sunday.

Jim Greengrass, Cincinnati Redlegs' outfielder, played third base and pitched in the minor leagues.

Junior Playoffs Resume Action

Final Series Starts in Class E; Losers Play in Other Loops

Pontiac's junior baseball leaguers resume their quest for city championships today with the feature action centered on Class E, already in the finals stage.

Rosebud Market hurdled Boys Club twice, 5-0 and 14-4, to gain the finals, while Lytell-Colegrove qualified automatically by winning the regular season title. The Lytell club was unbeaten in 7 games, but played a 7-inning scoreless tie with the Rosebud nine.

In Class D, Griff's Grill rests in the final bracket to await the winner of the loser's bracket survivor, Don Nicholie Realty or Pontiac Police. This game is scheduled tonight at 5:30 on Columbia-Joslyn's south diamond, while the 1st Class E final test goes on the north field.

Loser's bracket games in Class F between Avondale and Boys Club and in the Knothole league between Boys Club and Senators were listed this morning. Lunsford Market (F) and Avondale (Knothole) already are in the finals.

Pontiac Boys Will Operate Traps for Big Skeet Shoot

By H. GUY MOATS

Among preparations for the forthcoming national skeet shoot at Oakland County Sportsmen's Club headquarters at D. R. Wilson Sportsman's Park is the arrangement for staffing the traps from which the "birds" will be flown.

OCSC prexy, Jerry Woolever, has arranged with the Pontiac Boys' Club to provide 50 of its huskiest, biggest youngsters to handle the tough job. The boys will work the machines that throw out the clay targets at which hundreds of expert shotgunners will shoot in the week-long tournament, Aug. 30 through Sept. 5.

These "bird tossers" will begin work Aug. 30, and continue through daily shooting sessions until the close of the national event. Forty will be used at a time, on the 20 fields. Rest will stand by as reliefers.

All activities around OCSC's big skeet field these days is based on the national shoot. All skeet houses have been erected and this week were given coats of brown paint. Fences surrounding the areas have been erected, and the entire setup is rapidly nearing the stage of completion.

Discussion of tournament plans and ironing out of minor questions occupied club officials Wednesday night.

More than $8,000 worth of trophies which will go to the numerous championship divisions, have arrived. However, according to OCSC officials, none will be removed from cases and put on display until the big shoot gets under way.

Indicative of the scope of the shoot, from a geographical viewpoint, is the fact that Puerto Rico will send a team of shooters from its police department. A half dozen shooting reservations were received by mail first of the week. Entries are also expected from Canada, Mexico, and perhaps France and other counties. The overall list may be the biggest in the National Skeet Shooting Association history.

Negro Hurls No-Hitter in Piedmont Circuit

PORTSMOUTH, Va. (UP)—Winston (Panama) Brown, a Negro right-hander who joined the team only last week, pitched the second no-hitter of the Class B Piedmont League season here last night as the Portsmouth Merrimacs defeated the league-leading Norfolk Tars 5-2.

The first Piedmont no-hitter was a seven-inning 1-0 victory over Hagerstown by Gene Weglarz of York on June 22.

Mickey Mantle's cousin, Max, is a star for McAlester, Okla., in the Class D Sooner State League. Of course, the club is a farm team of the Yankees.

Many Things Change But Hambletonian Site Still Has Air of Country Fair

GOSHEN, N.Y. (UP)—The Hambletonian, seen for the first time since Greyhound won in 1935, still has the sprawling air of a country fair without the ferris wheel.

The ladies still serve dinner on the lawn in front of the church on Main Street and folks stroll over to the track from the Orange Inn, the Occidental Hotel and the Railroad House (Chez Choo-Choo) where the Erie trains rattle the bottles on the back bar.

Right outside the side door of the Goshen Inn is the half mile Historic Track where they operate (never say run) a week-long meeting every July. Willie Mays could throw a ball from Historic Track to Good Time Track with its odd kite-shaped mile layout where the Hambletonian is held.

Years ago this festive day in Orange County was a combination farmer's picnic, church social and lawn party for the social elite. A sprinkling of the horsey set from Saratoga used to drift down for the day and a few fugitives from Empire City came up for the air.

Somehow, the crowd seems to have changed since harness racing became a big-time operation under the lights at Roosevelt and Yonkers (the old Empire City flat track). No longer do the bookmakers sell their pools under the stands. The days are gone when you could "steal" a horse at 10 to 1 on the slates and watch with glee as the price shortened and your horse went off as the favoirte.

They have had the mutuels up here for many years with a tote board in the infield and long lines waiting at the windows back of the low rambling wooden stands.

For years, you have been reading about the "Corn Tassel Derby," the cliche coined to describe this most important test for three-year-old trotters. But there wasn't a Suspender Sam or Sunbonnet Sue in the crowd this year. The sport shirt, cord jacket and loafers was a common uniform.

Things have changed in 19 years since Greyhound. But the original "grey ghost" would have been right at home in the 1954 field.

A's Franchise Almost Sure to Leave Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Speaking in terms of cold cash, says Vice President Earle Mack of the Philadelphia Athletics, "there isn't a chance" of keeping the ball club in Philadelphia.

That was the most forthright statement made yet on the plight of the American League club that is dying from lack of money, fans, and a winning record.

Earle made the statement yesterday, confirming that a 4½ million dollar offer has been made for the A's by a Kansas City syndicate headed by Arnold Johnson of Chicago.

The statement was the latest in a series of exchanges between Earle and his older brother, Roy, the team's executive vice president. Roy has been one of those behind the movement to keep the A's in Philadelphia and has said he has high hopes of raising enough money to buy out his brother and their father, Connie Mack.

"Roy talks big," said Earle, "but we don't have a dime."

Latest developments on the A's tremulous future showed conclusively that both 91-year-old Connie Mack, builder of the Athletics' empire, and his son, Earle, despair of keeping the club here and both are resigned to selling out. Only Roy clings to the hope the franchise can be saved for Philadelphia.

Connie, who has been in Chicago, presumably to discuss the crisis with William Harridge, president of the American League and longtime personal friend, is quoted as admitting sadly:

"The Athletics are through in Philadelphia."

Earle said the Johnson bid "is an awfully good offer, a half million dollars more than was published in the papers. I think he'd go more, if they kept bidding."

Johnson said previously in New York that he wanted word from the Athletics' front office on his offer within a week or two.

"Dad and I certainly want to keep the team in Philadelphia," said Earle, "but there isn't a chance as far as finances are concerned.

"We prefer to sell to a Philadelphia group. We hoped someone would make a bid for the club. So far, with the exception of one young fellow, they haven't."

Under the Johnson offer Connie and his sons would get $700,000 each with the remainder of the money cancelling debts reported at more than $800,000.

A spokesman for the Connecticut General Life Insurance Co.—which holds a $1,200,000 mortgage on the team and Connie Mack Stadium—said "we have not been contacted," when asked about the rumored sale.

Mays Not Given Great Chance at Ruth's Mark

Babe's Big September Output Is Drawback to 4-Bagger Record

By PAT ROBINSON

NEW YORK (INS) — Records of course, are made to be broken, but some of them withstand many an assault before cuccumbing.

Joe Adcock of the Braves cracked one only last Saturday when he hit four homers and a double for 18 total bases in a game against the Dodgers.

Babe Ruth hit 60 homers 27 years ago, and that one still stands although if club owners keep shortening the fences that record also will go.

Willie Mays of the Giants is a little ahead of Ruth's record pace but he will have to hit a homer at least every other game until the end of the season to pass Ruth's mark.

The Babe had a comparatively poor month in August, 1927, when he hit only nine homers. But he hit 17 in the last 27 games in September.

Mays entered August with 36 homers and it behooves him to hit plenty this month for if he goes into September with 17 to go to tie we doubt that he will make it.

Incidentally, if you are wondering what kind of pitching Ruth faced in September 1927, we have only to name a few then at their peak to show you Babe could hit 'em off the best. Among his victims were Left Grove, Rube Walberg and Ted Lyons.

Ruth's home run record, fine as it was, is by no means the toughest record in the books to beat.

There is, for instance, that same Ruth's life-time record of 2,209 runs batted in over a 22 year stretch.

Another one that may never be broken is Ty Cobb's life-time mark of 2,244 runs scored in 24 years and an even tougher one is Cobb's record of 4,191 hits made in the same time.

Toronto Citizens Seek Major Club

TORONTO (AP)—This city today began looking ahead to the day when it will have major league baseball.

The Board of Control authorized the formation of a citizens committee to attempt to bring a major league team here as soon as possible. The committee will look over ways and means of enlarging the present International League park and sound out major league interests on the possibility of moving here.

Russians Won't Get Olympics Very Soon

HELSINKI (AP)—Olympic chief Avery Brundage said today he did not believe the Russians would make a bid for the 1960 Olympic Games.

"I believe they will apply for the games some time and that they will get them, but I don't think they are now prepared to receive the giant influx of tourists or handle world-wide news problems connected with the games," he said on his arrival here after a three-week visit in Russia.

Brundage said he had planned to stay only one week but lengthened his visit to three weeks because of the Russians' hospitality.

Rivers was a great fighter in his day. His world championship fight with Ad Wolgast in Vernon, Calif., July 4, 1912, is one of the most controversial in boxing history. Referee Jack Welsh awarded the fight to Wolgast on a knockout in the 13th round after helping him to his feet when both fighters were on the floor. Rivers had delivered a hard blow to the head and Wolgast sent Rivers to the canvas immediately afterward, but he fell over the outstretched Rivers.

Rivers' adherents claimed it should have been a double knockout but the Referee said Wolgast stumbled and was injured as he fell on Rivers' knee. Physicians examined Rivers after the fight and said he had been fouled.

Wolgast has been in the Camarillo State Mental Hospital for years.

Mystery Grips Brooklyn Club

By ED CORRIGAN

BROOKLYN (AP)—All-Star catcher Roy Campanella of the Dodgers, continued his war of nerves with the Brooklyn front office today with the complaint that his injured hand is still bothering him.

"But," he hastened to add, "I never asked out of a game in my life. If my name's in the lineup I'll play. If it's not I won't."

That's how one of the most baffling mysteries to grip the National League champions this year stood today. The management and doctors have said the hand that was injured, then operated on, is all right.

Campy, who is hitting a poor .197 going into today's game with the St. Louis Cardinals said, the hand is bad.

"If the manager puts me in, I'm in," Campanella said. "If he doesn't, I'm out. It's up to Walt Alston. One thing is certain. I won't see any more doctors. No matter what they say, the hand is not getting any better."

This is an infernal rhubarb that has reached marathon proportions with both Campanella and the club holding fast to their views. Before last night's game, it was thought that Campy might be on the bench, but Manager Walter Alston sent him in against Harvey Haddix, a lefthanded pitcher of the St. Louis Cardinals. He got a double off Haddix and caught the whole game in the Brooks' 8-7 victory.

Alston, of course, is worried about the situation but he has only one other available catcher—Rube Walker, a good worker and fair hitter, but as Jackie Robinson said: "No Campanella. Who is?"

* * *

"I know Campy is anxious to play," said Alston. "But I don't know the future of his hand. How can I if the doctors themselves don't know? All I know is that I want him in there and he has to be the sole judge."

From his place in the field, Robinson said he could see that Campanella was not operating as well as he has in the past.

"We can tell by his action behind the plate," said Robinson. "He seems to have lost a lot of glove control. He smothers many outside pitches that he used to catch with one hand."

1,500-Meter Grind Opens National AAU Swimming Meet

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—It was the field versus the champs today in 1500-meter free-style events opening the four-day combined Men's and Women's National AAU Swimming and Diving championships at Broad Ripple Pool.

Ford Konno of Honolulu and Ohio State, never beaten by an American at the distance, headed an entry list of 27 in the men's "Metric mile." He holds the Olympic American Citizen's record and won the AAU event last year.

Carolyn Green of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., AAU Women's winner last year when the event was at a mile, also was ready to defend her championship. She holds American and AAU records at both a mile and 1500 meters.

TOPS AT 3 MILES—Chris Chataway (left) and Fred Green relax with deep breaths at Vancouver Tuesday after placing 1st and 2nd, respectively, in the 3-mile event of the British Empire Games. Chataway, who earlier this year paced John Landy and Roger Bannister to the only mile runs in history under 4 minutes, set a new Games mark of 13:35.2 for the 3 miles.

Use your clubs by ED FURGOL

The 4 wood is, for the average player, the greatest club there is. If I were a day-off duffer, I'd be thinking of this club every chance I got.

It is used practically the same as the 3 wood—in other words, when you need distance on a fairway shot.

And like the 3 wood, you play the shot off your left heel. The club is a half inch shorter, too, so you still use that slight dip to compensate.

As a rule, I would have the average player go to the 4 wood before taking out the 2 or 3 iron. Those two irons are tough clubs for the average golfer to master and require more difficult execution of the shot.

The 4 wood gives you power and distance off the fairway and can be used in short rough, too.

Romeo Youths Win 2nd Game Over Richmond

Romeo's recreation softball team won its 2nd victory over Richmond at the Romeo Memorial Park. Romeo's team, composed of boys 10 to 14, met Richmond under the lights at the Richmond Athletic Field a week ago and handed them an 11-8 defeat.

Wednesday's victory, 19-5, was highlighted by a grand slam homer by Ray Ritter, who batted "five for five" for the day.

Recreation program, which also featured a supervised play period, handicrafts and dramatics instruction, is sponsored by the Romeo Community Council.

Minnesotan Is Leader for U. S. Archery Title

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — Bob Rhode, Minneapolis, a comparitive unknown in archery circles, yesterday shot his way into the lead for the National Archery Association's men's championship.

Rhode, with a final day of shooting left, has a two day total of 1,834. Joe Fries, South Pasadena, Calif., was in 2nd place with 1,797.

Bill Glackin, national champion from St. Louis, is 3rd with 1,775.

All-Stars Lose Back, but Gain Another

LAFAYETTE, Ind. (AP)—The College All-Stars, getting ready for their charity football game with the pro champion Detroit Lions at Chicago Aug. 13, lost one fullback and regained another yesterday.

X-rays showed that Stan Wallace, Illinois ball-carrying and defensive standout, suffered a fractured left wrist in scrimmage. All-Star Coach Jim Tatum said it was unlikely that Wallace will see action in the joust with the Lions, even with a cast on his wrist.

Meanwhile, Neil Worden, Notre Dame's great fullback, returned to practice. A muscle injury had kept him on the sidelines for last Saturday's intra-squad game.

Belardi's Homer in 7th Helps Garver Win No. 9

By JOE FALLS

DETROIT (AP)—Wayne Belardi has the promise to become the Detroit Tigers' best hitting 1st baseman since the days of Rudy York—but understand it is only promise at this point.

The handsome 23-year-old slugger has many flaws. Maybe too many. But he has the ability to hit home runs, and this is one of Detroit's biggest needs.

Belardi came up with the key hit in the Tigers' 6-2 victory over Washington yesterday—a two-run homer in the 7th inning. It broke a 1-1 tie and gave Ned Garver enough cushion to rack up his 9th victory against seven losses.

Belardi has been to bat 121 times and has nine home runs. Figures are deceiving but at that pace, he'd hit 45 for the season if he'd played full time.

A $50,000 purchase from the Brooklyn Dodgers, Belardi plays only when a righthanded pitcher is working. Walt Dropo plays against lefthanders but it is no secret around Briggs stadium that Dropo has been a big disappointment.

One of the hardest workers on the team, Dropo nonetheless has hit only four home runs—and he has been to bat 244 times, or twice that of Belardi.

Don't get the wrong impression of Belardi. Despite his nine home runs, his batting average is .256 and he has knocked in only 15 runs. The latter is significant. It means he has been hitting home runs with nobody on base.

One Tiger official, who asked to remain nameless, said Belardi is far from an accomplished hitter. For one thing he hits too many bad balls, the official said.

And when he played for the Dodgers—which was only part time—his teammates dubbed him "footsie." It was not a compliment to his fielding, although his defensive work has improved with the Tigers.

Still, he hit 11 more runs for the Dodgers in 176 times at bat. That's power and the Tigers are very much aware of it.

When Belardi came to the plate in the 7th inning yesterday, Tigers were fighting a frustrating battle with Connie Marrero, Senators 39-year-old righthander. They had belted the Cuban cutie for 10 hits but had only a 1-1 tie for their efforts.

But one swing of Belardi's bat on Marrero's 1st pitch—and the Tigers were ahead 3-1. They added three more in the 8th on a run scoring single by Frank Bolling and Ray Boone's looping two-run double.

That was more than enough for the Tigers to take a 2-1 lead in the important four game series and stretch their lead over the 5th place Senators to 2½ games.

'A' Runnersup Finish Regular Season Action

Defeat Oliver Squad, 4-2, in Abbreviated Six-Inning Tilt

Second-place General Motors completed its City Class A Baseball League regular season yesterday with a 4-2 victory over 4th-place Oliver Buick. Game was called at the end of six innings because of rain and darkness.

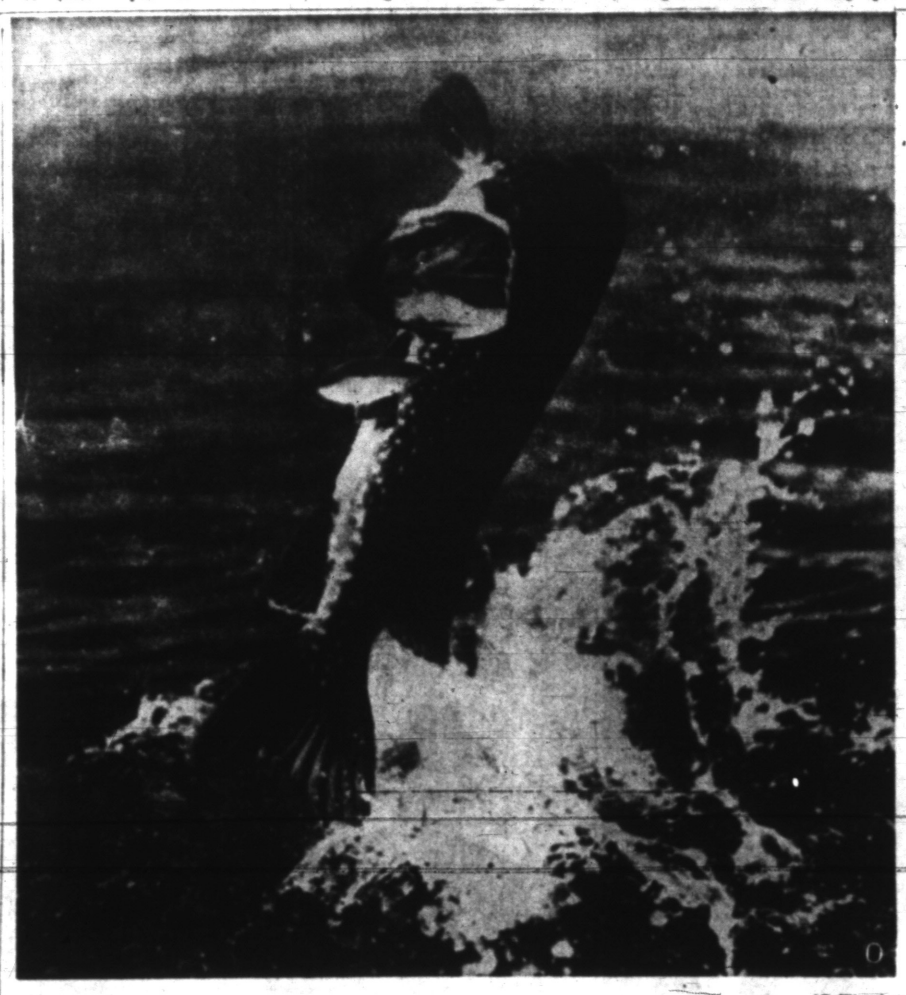

Buickmen outhit the winners, 9-4, but committed four costly errors afield.

GMC held a 4-0 lead at the end of three innings, but Oliver scored single runs in the 5th and 6th to cut the final margin. Coaches used three pitchers, with starter Herm Bishop giving way to Don Ernst in the 4th and Roy Bone coming in in the 6th.

Dick Goldsworthy went all the way on the mound for the losers.

Carter Wins Unanimous Decision Over Flanagan

By CARL BELL

CHICAGO (AP)—Jimmy Carter, fresh from a unanimous decision over clever Glen Flanagan, figures he's ready to become the first fighter to win the world lightweight championship for the third time.

The durable, 30-year-old New Yorker is scheduled to meet champion Paddy De Marco at San Francisco Sept. 22.

"This fight with Flanagan," said Carter after his convincing but unsensational victory before national TV cameras at Chicago Stadium last night, "should help me against De Marco.

"For one thing, I had to go a full 10 rounds tonight and I needed that. Then, Flanagan boxes a lot like De Marco but he's much more clever than De Marco."

But Flanagan, a product of St. Paul, Minn., felt enough of Carter's blows to proclaim:

"He's the next lightweight champion of the world."

The fight, for the most part, resembled a huge wagonwheel, with Flanagan dancing in a circle and jabbing and Carter throwing his punches from the hub. Occasionally Carter broke the circle pattern to drive Flanagan back with hard rights and lefts to the body.

Referee Frank Sikora scored the fight 98-91 for Carter. Judge William O'Connell made it 100-93, and Judge Howard Walsh 99-90.

Detroit Junior Wins

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Frank R. Lovell, Detroit, defeated Gene Cardi, Columbus, Ohio, 2 and 1 in yesterday's 1st round of match play in the United States Golf Assn. Junior Amateur Golf Championship.

Welterweight champion Kid Gavilan gave up a promising baseball career for professional boxing.

City Men's Playoff Field Reduced to Three Teams

City Men's Softball League playoff field was cut to three teams last night, when Moose forfeited its scheduled game to Stadium Inn.

League rules state that a team forfeiting a playoff game is automatically eliminated from further action in the playoffs.

Milford Merchants defeated Birmingham Riteway, 7-4, to advance into the semifinals. Jack Ganzel paced the Merchants' 8-hit attack with three singles in four trips.

Girls' League playoff games were rained out at Northside Park and will be played tonight.

Eight Top Young Net Stars Put Under Jack Kramer's Guidance

NEW YORK (AP)—Eight of the most promising young tennis players in the country today were placed under the guiding wing of Jack Kramer with one thought in mind—to win back the Davis Cup from Australia.

The United States Lawn Tennis Assn. announced the plan—the Junior Davis Cup training program and the idea is to beat the Aussies at their own game. They begin training youngsters early.

The lads range from 13 to 17 and will make the entire Eastern swing under the watchful eyes of Kramer, one of the country's greatest players. Kramer is donating his time and Holiday Magazine is underwriting the expenses of the youngsters.

Archie Moore's Weight Being Kept Deep Secret

SUMMIT, N.J. (AP)—The weight of light heavyweight champion Archie Moore was being kept a deep secret today.

"We don't have to weigh-in until the day we fight Harold Johnson for the title," said his manager, Charlie Johnston. The fight is scheduled for Madison Square Garden Aug. 11.

The champion must make 175 for the title defense. He was 189½ for his last fight, on June 7.

Money Talks at Track

OCEANPORT, N. J. (AP)—A pair of horses named Cute Way and Locked In paid the largest daily double, $2,000.20 for $2, last season at Monmouth Park. But this fantastic payoff didn't set a record. In 1952 Violinist and Landlocked combined their racing blood to pay the record double of $3,962.60 for $2.

Wandering Elephant Sought Fresh Grass

CONCORD, N. H. (AP)—Conservation Warden Bill Brownell is accustomed to telephone calls informing him that a deer or fox has wandered out of New Hampshire's countryside and gotten lost in the streets of a village or city.

He got a reverse on this the other day when a telephone call informed him that an elephant was roaming free in New Hampshire's verdant countryside. The elephant had strayed from a nearby circus and preferred the fresh green leaves of the countryside to the dry hay which is its normal circus diet.

Walking Coon, No Fish

CAMDENTON, Mo. (AP)—Kenneth Dillon left his rod and reel on a Lake of the Ozarks dock one night and next morning found the plug and line far up the bank.

But it wasn't one of those "walking fish" gags. Turned out a raccoon had gotten tangled up in the tackle and dragged it up the hill.

Five Complete Qualification for Gold Cup

Cantrell's Attempt in Gale IV Halted When Fire Hits Speedster

SEATTLE (AP)—Mechanics worked against time today to ready Slo-Mo-Shun IV and five challengers seeking her Gold Cup speedboat racing crown for their turn at the qualifying course.

Deadline for qualifying for Saturday's 90-mile race on Lake Washington was 4:30 p.m. (PST) and only five of the expected field of 11 had completed the required three laps at 85 miles an hour plus.

Slated to make their bid today were Slo-Mo IV, after installation of a new motor, John Francis' My Sweetie, Wha Hoppened Too, Breathless, Gale IV and Hurricane IV.

Four joined Slo-Mo-Shun V in the select circle yesterday but a flash fire put a temporary end to the attempt of Wild Bill Cantrell to qualify the Gale IV.

The blaze, blamed on faulty carburetion, flared out as Cantrell neared a turn. It died as suddenly as it started and Cantrell took the Gale IV to the pits. He said it would be ready for another try today.

Gale V, sister-ship of the Cantrell craft, easily qualified yesterday although its 99.901 miles an hour was far under the record set by the Slo-Mo-Shun V during its run Monday. Lou Fageol piloted the Seattle entry to a new qualifying record of 111.632 in that run.

Others qualifying yesterday were Horace Dodge's Dora My Sweetie, at 98.829 miles an hour; Miss United States, 96,497, and Miss Cadillac, 88.428.

Miss Chadwick Set for Stiff Swimming Test

PORT ANGELES, Wash., (AP)—Florence Chadwick is all set for what may be her stiffest swimming test—bucking cold and treacherous Pacific currents in the strait of Juan De Fuca.

The famed distance swimmer, the only woman to swim the English Channel both ways, yesterday tested the water at what, if she is successful, will be the end of her swim across the 18.3-mile barrier separating the United States and Canada at this point.

She agreed the waters were cold (they average 49 degrees) but indicated she was ready to go ahead with her attempt to become the first person to conquer the strait.

Miss Chadwick plans to leave Victoria, B.C., about 2 a.m. (PDT) Monday.

Michigan's Fish-Eaters Seldom Get Native Catch

By ROBERT E. VOGES

LANSING (AP)—Chances are when you order fish in a restaurant, or your wife buys it at the market, that the Friday menu feature was caught outside of Michigan.

The sea lamphrey deserves a lot of the blame for cutting into Michigan's commercial fishing industry.

But the deep freeze and modern methods of selling quick frozen fish also are changing the nation's fish-buying habits, Fred A. Westerman, head of the Conservation Department's fish division reported.

Anyone who sells trout, for instance, has to be licensed by the State Conservation Department. This is just as true of the little restaurant around the corner as of the big wholesaler.

"The idea is to make sure that the fish doesn't come from public waters," Westerman explained.

"In a large city like Detroit," Westerman said, "it's a safe bet that most of the fish on the market was shipped in from somewhere else."

New methods of freezing fish have greatly expanded the marketing possibilities, Westerman said:

"Your average housewife doesn't want to buy fresh fish any more," he said. "She doesn't want the mess of cleaning it in her kitchen. She'd much rather buy it in a neatly frozen package."

The Michigan fisheries industry is getting stiff competition from Canada. Whitefish, lake trout, perch, walleyes and blue pike all are sent into Michigan in heavy volume—this to the irritation of Michigan commercial fishermen.

"Labor costs and other expenses are a lot lower in Canada so even with the import charge they are able to meet our prices."

When the perch and smelt runs are on in the spring it's a safe bet that if you enjoy a fish fry you'll be eating native fish.

But during the rest of the year most of the people in Michigan, famous for its fishing, will be eating imported fish.

Robin Roberts Again Eyes 20-Game Mark

By BEN PHLEGAR
Associated Press Sportswriter

Robin Roberts is about ready to knock on that 20-game door again. If he gets inside, he will be the first to do it five seasons in a row since Carl Hubbell was the meal ticket of the New York Giants.

* * *

The Philadelphia strong boy has been coasting along most of the year on the fringe of the spotlight, yielding the center of the stage to the exciting pennant races. But he's been winning just the same.

When he handcuffed Milwaukee on five hits last night for a 2-1 triumph, he ran his victory total to 16, against 9 losses. Two seasons ago when he won an amazing 28, exactly a dozen of the victories came after Aug. 4.

Roberts isn't quite up to his pace of last year when he won his 19th game on Aug. 4. But the right-hander still remembers with dread the rough going he encountered once he reached 20 in 1953. He ran his record to 20-8 on Aug. 12 but staggered through the last seven weeks of the season with only three more victories.

Roberts struck out nine and walked one in beating the Braves last night. Bob Morgan's bases-empty homer in the third gave the control artist the run he needed to win after both sides had scored in the first.

The victory moved the Phils into fourth place, half a game ahead of the St.Louis Cardinals who bowed 8-7 to Brooklyn. The Giants shaded Chicago 4-3 in 11 innings and Pittsburgh beat Cincinnati 4-3. The Dodgers, Giants and Pirates all won in their last time at bat.

Cleveland evened its current series with the New York Yankees with a 5-2 triumph. Chicago edged Boston 6-5 in 10 innings. Detroit defeated Washington 6-2 and Philadelphia and Baltimore swapped last place as the Athletics whipped the Orioles 6-4.

The Giants beat Chicago on an 11th inning single by Hank Thompson that brought in Wes Westrum from second base after two were out. Westrum's single and a sacrifice by winner Don Liddle set up the run which ran the New Yorkers' winning streak to six.

In Brooklyn the Cardinals grabbed a 7-6 lead with three runs in the ninth only to have the Dodgers pull it out on Jackie Robinson's homer with Junior Gilliam on base in the last of the ninth.

Pittsburgh won with a dramatic finish. There were two out and one aboard in the last of the ninth when Gerry Lynch smashed a Frank Smith pitch into the seats for the winning margin.

The Cleveland Indians turned on Allie Reynolds, one of their former Tribesman, and handed the veteran his third defeat of the season. Bobby Avila's three-run homer in the third inning gave Bob Lemon the cushion he needed for his 14th victory. When Lemon tired after seven innings, Mike Garcia mopped up.

The Chicago White Sox cut into the National League monopoly on last-gasp triumphs as they downed Boston on Matt Batts' bases-loaded single in the 10th after the Red Sox had come from five runs back in the eighth and ninth innings. Ted Williams drove in three runs with his 19th homer in the eighth and two more scored on a pinch double by Don Lenhardt in the ninth. Phil Cavarretta hit a grand slam homer for the White Sox in the first.

Chief Pontiac Winner Lauds OCSC Skeet Setup

Just how does the expanded and vastly improved Oakland County Sportsmen's Club skeet fields appeal to the shooters?

An indication of the fine job that has been done out at the Waterford range may be noted in the comment of Ed Scherer of Waukesha Wis., winner of the recent Chief Pontiac tournament at OCSC.

Scherer topped a big, and fast field of shotgunners in this tuneup event to the National Skeet Championships, Aug. 31 - Sept. 1 - 5. He said afterwards that the layout was the "finest in the country." He has shot over most of the best ones.

Marciano Is Sought for Havana Match

HAVANA, Cuba (AP) — All Rocky Marciano needs to do to pocket another $200,000 is meet Nino Valdes of Cuba and defend his heavyweight title in Havana.

President Batista of Cuba made the offer yesterday, but Marciano's manager, Al Weill, said he never books another match with one coming up. Marciano's next defense is against Ezzard Charles in the Yankee Stadium on Sept. 15. "Valdes is a good boy and if he keeps doing okay, he'll get his chance just like anyone else," said Weill.

Boy Falls in Flames; Touched Live Wire

KALAMAZOO (INS) — A five-year-old boy was critically injured near Kalmaazoo yesterday when he touched a high tension wire atop a Consumers Power Co. tower and fell 35 feet to the ground.

The victim, Charles Lamb, wandered away from a baby sitter and apparently climbed a 10-foot wire mesh guard fence topped by barbed wire in order to reach the tower.

There were no witnesses to the accident but a passerby, attracted by outcries, told police the boy was covered with flames when he plunged to the ground.

The youngster was rushed to Bronson Hospital where he is in serious condition with first and second degree burns over 75 per cent of his body.

Cary Prefers Placid Travel on Freighters

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—"I love my fans," gushes many a movie star. Not so Cary Grant.

He says bluntly what most stars probably feel: Fans can be a nuisance.

There's a certain irony about actors. When they are young, they work like the dickens to be recognized. Then, when they reach stardom, they try to conceal themselves. After talking to Grant, I can understand why.

It all began quietly enough when I visited the set of "Catch A Thief." The elegant Grant, who has more style than any male star you can mention, was lounging in his dressing room. So I asked him about the freighter trips he and his wife take. She's Betsy Drake, the actress.

The Grants have traveled to all parts of the world on freighters, and I wondered why he favored them. He became eloquent as he described the voyage of a movie star on one of the luxury liners.

"To begin with," he began with, "there are 2,500 crew members on one of those ships. Each one of them has an autograph book of his own, or else he is carrying one for his daughter or son. You have to sign each one of them.

"Then there's the ship's photographer. He sees to it that you pose for pictures with every other passenger obtainable. Then he sells them to the passengers for five bob or fifty cents or whatever. He makes his living that way.

"And of course every passenger has two cameras criss-crossed on their chests and they want a picture with you. If you're in the shade, they want you out in the sun; if you're in the sun, they want you in the shade.

"You try to get sleep, but the drunks are beating on your stateroom all night, wanting to buy a drink for you. Then at seven in the morning, the small fry are up and pounding the door for autographs.

"The result is that you either have a miserable time or you're rude. I'm rude. I tell them I never sign anything."

"Why should you be concerned about them? They never worry about me. They don't say, 'let's go to this movie so good old Cary Grant can buy a meal.' One bad picture and they'll drop you like a hot potato."

Contrasting the hectic life for a celebrity on a big liner is the pleasure aboard a freighter.

"There are generally 12 people aboard, and they're fascinating persons," he observed. "Real people—doctors, biology professors, a couple of Japanese girls. People I can learn something from."

Grant said the food is generally excellent aboard the freighters, the pace slow and the conversation congenial.

Father James Marquette was buried twice. His first grave was near Ludington, Mich., where he died in 1675. Two years later, Indians removed the remains to St. Ignace, Mich., where they were reinterred at the mission.

Met's Munsel Enjoys Operetta Musical Work

DALLAS (AP)—Singing opera "is like playing football all afternoon and having to do all the running with the ball," says Patrice Munsel, slim, glamorous young soprano of the Metropolitan Opera.

And singing the title role in an operetta such as "Naughty Marietta" at the state fair musicals is "fun—like having a party in my living room."

Bu the vivacious Miss Munsel is not ready to do a Broadway musical show next winter.

"Everything in opera depends on making the music perfect and beautiful," she explained to an interviewer. "It makes you do your best. That is why I like singing opera best of all. It gives me the feeling of greatest satisfaction.

"I am in love with Marietta. There is wonderful music to sing. I can be gay, sad and maybe a little wacky. There are beautiful clothes to wear. Two men chase Marietta and she gets her man. What more can a girl ask for?"

"Do a Broadway musical?" Miss Munsel echoed the question. Her mood turned serious.

"I would love to do a musical comedy sometime," she said. "I thought about doing one this year. They brought me some beautiful music. But I feel I belong in opera. That is what I want to do.

"There is also the serious question whether I should endanger my voice for opera by singing eight performances a week in a Broadway show. Most opera and concert people sing only two, three or four times a week."

State Stork Flying Jet, Office Reports

LANSING (AP) — The stork is flying a jet-propelled tour of duty in Michigan this year, figures from the State Health Department showed today.

The Health Department said that according to the trend of birth registrations for the first six months of the year, 1954 will top even the record 1953 high in births.

A new high of 181,518 births was recorded in Michigan last year. In the first six months of 1954, 87,913 births were registered, an increase of 6,012 during the same period last year.

The Health Department said the increase is part of a trend that started before World War Two. Since 1940, when 99,106 births were registered, the total has nearly doubled, the department said.

Wayne Dengate, president of the Oakland County chapter, will be a member of the educational panel which meets during the Saturday ssession. All other chapter presidents will meet on this panel.

Several members of the Oakland County Chapter will attend the conference. Miss June Newcombe and Mrs. Douglas S. Baker will represent the Community National Bank of Pontiac.

Mrs. Charles Stark will attend from the Pontiac State Bank. Wayne Oakland Bank will send Charles Hroch and William Noyes. Mrs. Cecil Attic represents the Birmingham National Bank. Oxford Savings Bank will be represented by Robert Dick.

Navy Plane Rises 150 Feet in Test Vertical Takeoff

WASHINGTON (INS) — The Navy announced today that its vertical-flying Convair fighter plane reached a height of 150 feet before backing down to a landing in untethered take-off tests at Moffett Field, Calif.

The plane previously had been tethered to the ground while making such tests.

The new delta-wing fighter, which flies straight up on the take-off and then levels off to high-speed horizontal flights, is being readied for more extensive tests to be conducted at Brown Field, near San Diego, Calif.

The test pilot, J. F. Coleman, kept the plane in vertical flight in the tests this week and on one of them climbed to 150 feet.

Coleman declared that the vertical-flying craft "responded beautifully" and predicted that "there just isn't any limit to its future."

Insurance Agent Fails to Follow Own Advice

CONCORD, N.C., (AP)—George Douglas Cordell, an insurance agent, parked his car in front of a client's house here yesterday.

A few minutes later he came out and the car was gone.

He found it crashed against a tree 200 feet down the street where it had rolled. Damages $250.

Cordell said remorsefully he had no collision insurance.

Recalls Builder in FHA Probe

Senator Capehart Asks Marcus About Rental Scandal in New Jersey

WASHINGTON (INS) — A New Jersey builder who accused Senate Banking Chairman Homer E. Capehart (R-Ind) of "shooting off your mouth" was recalled today for further questioning in the housing scandal probe.

Capehart said George I. Marcus of Hackensack, N. J., would be asked about complaints from tenants about rental practices he followed in several New Jersey apartment projects insured by the government.

Marcus, described as the biggest apartment lawyer in New Jersey, was threatened with a contempt of Congress citation for the insult he hurled at Capehart at a hearing three weeks ago.

But in an executive session with the committee Monday, Capehart said Marcus apologized and it now appears that moves to prosecute him for contempt will be halted.

Asked about the recalling of Marcus, Capehart said: "He made rude, unwarranted and unjust statements which indicated he had something to cover up."

Marcus and his partner Sidney Sarner of Tenafly, N. J., rocked the committee's probe of the Federal Housing Administration when they refused to testify regarding profits totaling $2,500,000 collected on the Linwood Park Apartment Project, Fort Lee, N. J.

Alcoholics' Art Key to Troubles

Patients at Washington Clinic Illustrate Their Turmoil, Progress

WASHINGTON (INS)—Alcholics, armed with a paint brush, are literally thrashing out their problems on canvas in possibly the first and only such art school in the nation.

Classes in drawing are part of the therapeutic program at the District Alcoholic Rehabilitation Clinic in Washington.

An exhibit of the works of the troubled patients disclosed the initial turmoil, then the gradual improvement accomplished by months and sometimes years of psychotherapy.

Psychiatrists interpreted the aimless spirals of the new patient as an expression of frustration. The splashings of yellow and pink said to denote fear, and a heavy line jutting down was the sign of guilt.

Loneliness took the shape of a listless doodle at the edge of the canvas.

ance as evidence the artist was

Her first drawing was a crayon smudge of swirls and crossing lines.

Although not completely cured —the woman admitted she still goes on "some horrible binges" —she is no longer tortured by feelings of guilt and she enjoys human companionship.

Torricelli invented the first barometer in 1643.

Most Older Retired Folks to Be Free of Income Tax

By CHARLES F. BARRETT

WASHINGTON (AP)—Most elderly retired persons probably won't have to pay any federal income tax from now on.

That is one of the far-reaching effects of the giant tax revision bill just passed by Congress. Some of its biggest benefits will go to retired persons.

When you're 65 or over, the law already permits you to exempt $1,200 of your income from taxes. If you're married and file a joint return, the exemption is $2,400.

From now on, in many cases, retired persons will be permitted in effect to deduct an additional $1,200 of retirement income. That would be a tax cut of $240. If both husband and wife have retirement income, they can get an additional $2,400 deduction, or a $480 tax cut. Retirement income is defined as income from pensions, annuities, interest, rent and dividends.

With other standard deductions, the new provisions boil down to this:

If you and your wife both have retirement income, you can get up to $5,333 a year without paying taxes; if only one of you has income, you can get $4,000 tax free; if you're a retired single person, you can get $2,666 without paying any tax.

Experts believe these cutoff figures will cover most retired persons, except a few in upper income brackets.

They estimate the new bill will give tax cuts to almost two million taxpayers, totaling about 141 million dollars the first year. The number to benefit, and the revenue reduction, will increase later as millions more retire.

Technically, the new provision works like this, if you qualify:

You figure your tax bill just as in the past, taking all regular exemptions and deductions. Then you apply the first bracket tax rate (now 20 per cent) to your retirement income, up to $1,200. Next you subtract that figure, say $240, directly from the tax payment you otherwise would make.

But there's one important limitation. If you get income that is already tax free—as from social security, railroad retirement, military or veterans' pensions—you must subtract this from your $1,200 retirement income before you figure your tax credit. In other words, you can't exclude the same income twice. For example, if you get $700 a year from social security, you could count only $500 of other retirement income; and you would get a new tax cut of only $100. However, you don't have to subtract military or veterans' disability payments from your retirement income.

First, most persons must be 65 or over. But if you retire under a public pension system—if you're a retired schoolteacher, policeman or other federal, state or local government worker—you can subtract 20 per cent of your income from that system even before you are 65. But you can't count other retirement income until you are 65 or over.

Second, to be counted as a retired person and get the full benefit, you must make $900 or less from work. Any earned income above $900 must be subtracted from your $1,200 retirement income before figuring your tax credit. So if you make $2,100 or more from work, you are not considered to have retired and you get no benefit. But at age 75 or over, you can get the full benefit regardless of your earnings.

Third, to qualify, you also must have made as much as $600 a year in earned income, for any 10 years before you retire. The theory is that the benefit should go only to persons retiring from active work. But note that you don't have to earn $600 for the 10 years immediately before your retirement. You can count any 10 years — even those long before you retire —and they don't have to be consecutive. A widow can qualify under this so long as her husband did.

Fourth, you can't get this benefit if you use the short-form tax return, under which you merely list your income and exemptions and take your tax from the table on the back of the return. Only taxpayers with $5,000 or less income may use this return.

Wheat Only One to Be Optimistic

CHICAGO (AP)—Wheat extended its advance of the previous session in early dealings on the board of trade today. But, as was the case yesterday, other grains were reluctant to follow the leadership of the bread cereal.

After an easier opening soybeans firmed a bit although dealings were less active than they have been in recent sessions. A little export business was reported in corn. More moisture fell in a good part of the northern section of the main corn and soybean belt overnight.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was ⅞ to 1 cent higher, September $2.10, corn ⅜ lower to ⅛ higher, September $1.60⅞, oats unchanged to ¼ lower, September 72⅝, rye ¾ to 1 cent higher, September $1.15, soybeans ½ lower to ½ higher, September $3.09½, lard 5 to 37 cents a hundred pounds higher, September $15.40.

Profit Takers Lower Market

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market turned downward today after a firm start.

Trading began fast with prices higher. Aircrafts and a wide variety of low priced issues found good early support. Shortly after the opening the high speed ticker tape fell behind the brisk trading pace as the market spurted upward. The type cleared in a minute and a more selective tone prevailed.

Toward the end of the morning, losses began to appear among stocks which have been market leaders in recent sessions. By early afternoon, it was apparent that many investors were taking profits on many issues. The trading pace continued rapid.

Low priced stock tended to hold early gains. But seels, motors, rubbers, railroads and chemicals declined. Some losses extended to three points, but most were around a point. Aircrafts became irregular while radio-television and airline issues steadied.

Others on the downgrade were U.S. Steel, General Motors, Chrysler, Goodrich, American Telephone, American Smelting, International Paper, General Dynamics, Athison, Baltimore & Ohio and Loew's.

Holding firm were Radio Corp., Boeing, Chance Vought, American Woolen, Consolidated Natural Gas, Western Union, Paramount, Twentieth-Century Fox, Pan American Airways and Bullard.

Quiz 3 in Attempted Breakin of Market

Three Pontiac youths were arrested last night for investigation of an attempted breaking and entering of a market at 517 Luther St., according to Pontiac Police.

In Oakland County Jail today are: David C. Shelton, 21, of 406 Bloomfield Ave.; Percy Buckley, 23, of 504 Highland Ave.; and Joseph D. Johnson, 19, of 293 South Blvd.

They were arrested by Patrolmen Peyton Johnson and Guy White Jr., as the three walked away from the store. In possession of one of the youth's was a hatchet police believe was used in attempting to enter the store.

The three were identified by a neighbor who called police and later identified the trio as those she saw attempting to break into the store.

Conditions Don't Yet Warrant Retirement at 65

CHICAGO (UP — If the time comes when a shortage of jobs replaces a shortage of men, popular opinion toward compulsory retirement at the age of 65 will grow, according to Robert K. Burns of the University of Chicago.

Burns, executive director of the university's Industrial Relations Center, said fixing a specific retiremen age is also necessary for pension planning.

However, he wrote in an article in The Journal of Business that "compulsory retirment will be resisted, if employment, earnings, and the cost of living remain at high levels."

He reported that industrial pension reserves are growing rapidly, at the rate of $1,500,000,000 per year.

He pointed out that nine of 10 persons in civilian work today are earning retirement protection. He said nearly eight of 10 are covered by the federal program of old age and survivors insurance under the Social Security Act, and that of these, one of five is covered by an industrial pension.

He said that less than one-fourth of all employees covered by private industrial plans make contributions to them, Unions, he added, oppose contributory pensions in industry on grounds that it is the employer's obligation, and that employee participation would reduce wages.

FOUR DAUGHTERS SHARE BIRTHDAY — Mrs. Mary Ann Wohlford, of Freeport, Ill., holds her daughter, Susan, born Aug. 3 at the St. Francis Hospital there. Three previous daughters have been born to Mrs. Wohlford on Aug. 3, in 1949, 1951 and 1952. Each time the mother has occupied the same room at the hospital. Mrs. Wohlford and her husband Walter operate a grocery store.

Business Briefs

E. B. Bennett and E. R. O'Neill Jr., have been promoted to department managers at Ford Motor Co.'s Tractor and Implement Division in Birmingham. The appointments were announced today by E. S. Rumely, manager of the division's product planning and programing office.

BENNETT

Bennett has been named manager of the programing department and O'Neill is manager of the competitive analysis department. He holds a master's degree in business administration from Harvard University. Before his second tour of duty as a naval officer, he was employed in the product planning and programing department.

O'NEILL

A Ford employe since 1947, O'Neill was appointed supervisor of the competitive products section of the product planning and programing office in 1949. He has a bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering from West Virginia University.

The appointment of G. B. Hogan as Pontiac zone manager in Cincinnati has been announced by H. E. Crawford, general sales manager of Pontiac Motor Division. He succeeds D. R. Stuart who has resigned to go into business for himself.

HOGAN

Hogan has had long experience in the automotive field and has had many positions of responsibility with Pontiac, including district manager and management manager in Dallas, assistant zone manager in Denver and has been assistant sales promotion manager in the Division's Central Office since May, 1953.

United Aircraft Corp. reported today in New York net income for the six months ended June 30 of $13,266,584, equal to $3.91 a common share. This compared with $12,330,314 or $3.66 a common share, in the same period last year.

Edwin C. Klotzburger, who has been manager of General Motors' Buick-Oldsmobile-Pontiac Assembly Division plant at Arlington, Texas, is joining Fisher Body as a member of the general manager's staff on special assignments.

Announcement of the appointment, which is effective immediately, was made today by James E. Goodman, vice president of General Motors and general manager of its body-building division. The announcement states that Klotzburger will aid in the expansion of Fisher Body facilities.

Card of Thanks 1

MR. & MRS. ROBERT SINGLETON wish to express their appreciation to everyone who was so wonderful.

IN GRATEFUL APPRECIATION for the kindness and sympathy shown us during our recent bereavement, the family of the late Hazel Fraizer wishes to publicly thank all whose messages, cards, flowers and offers of assistance helped to lighten our sorrow. William Fraizer & Family.

THE FAMILY OF JOHN RACE wished to express their appreciation to all their friends and neighbors for their thoughtfulness and kindness during his illness and in the hour of bereavement.

THE FAMILY OF CLARENCE MELOling sadly miss the departure of their loved one, who passed away 1 year ago. Mrs. Amy Meloling.

WE WISH TO THANK ALL OF our friends and neighbors whose kindness and sympathy offered comfort at the untimely death of our husband and father. We are especially grateful to those responsible for the many floral tributes which will be treasured by us as an honor to our departed loved one. It is said we must believe when falls the blow that, wisely, God has willed it so. We thank you Rev. Orrin VanLoon for everything. Mrs. Gordon Wyrick and family.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF OUR daughter, Mrs. Fay M. Gillette, who died August 5 1953.
No one knows the silent heartache
Only those who love can tell.
The grief we bear in silence
For the one we love so well.
Some day, some time our eyes shall see
The face we keep in memory
And God will bind the broken chain
Still close when we meet again.
Sadly missed by Mr. and Mrs. George Jackson, her children, Joan, Otis Jr., and Burley and sisters, Fern, Leta, and Evelyn.

Stars and Lions Play August 13

Dumont Put the Game on TV in '46 When Sets Were Small and Few

By TED SMITS

NEW YORK (AP) — One of the strongest arguments on the side of those who claim television builds sports audiences is presented by the Dumont network's television of professional football.

This will be the fourth year Dumont has televised National Football League games, and the program for 1954—embracing Saturday nights and Sunday afternoons—is the biggest ever.

Last year the NFL set an attendance record of 2,164,585, up five pre cent from the previous high mark of 1952.

Sports observers find that the interest in professional football, once virtually confined to the cities where the games are played, has now spread across the nation.

Dumont's televising of pro football, for which contracts amounting to more than $4,000,000 in gross time sales have been signed, rivals ABC's schedule of college games.

However, there is no conflict in time between the two, nor with NBC's televising of Canadian football Saturday afternoons.

Dumont starts its football program by televising the All-Star game in Chicago Friday night, Aug. 13, between the ex-collegians and the Detroit Lions.

Altogether there will be 12 weekend telecasts of more than 60 NFL games, coast-to-coast and regionally, from Sept. 25 through Dec. 11.

Each week four to seven pro games will be shown with one "top game of the week's going on a coast-to-coast hookup. More than 100 cities will be reached.

The Saturday night games, which start at 8 p.m., EST, except the last two from the coast at 5 p.m. EST, will be on regional hookups, depending on the teams playing and the sponsors, all games will be blacked out in the cities where they are played.

The Sunday afternoon schedule is complicated, with five or six games available on a regional basis.

A typical Sunday, Sept. 26, shows Cleveland at Philadelphia, New York at Chicago Cardinals, Los Angeles at Baltimore, Pittsburgh-Green Bay at Milwaukee, Chicago Bears at Detroit, and Washington at San Francisco.

Dumont began televising professional football in 1946, when receiving sets were few and small. Last Dec. 27 the championship game between the Detroit Lions and the Cleveland Browns was shown throughout the nation over 134 stations, the largest live coverage of a sports event by a single network.

NLRB Decision Draws CIO Fire

Rules Employers May Question Workers on Union Status

WASHINGTON (AP) — A National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) ruling that employers may question workers about union affiliation and activity drew quick criticism last night from a CIO attorney.

A long-established rule forbidding such questioning was overturned yesterday by a 3-2 NLRB ruling, which specified that the interrogations are legal if an employer doesn't imply that workers will be subject either to reprisal or benefit because of their answers.

Tom Harris, associate general counsel for the CIO, called the decision "an outrageous backward step." He said it "opens the door to intimidation of workers and to espionage by employers—so long as it is done with a wink in order to satisfy the Labor Board."

The majority opinion held that questioning would violate the law if it "reasonably tends to restrain or interfere with" rights guaranteed workers by the Taft-Hartley Labor Relations Act.

Dissenting votes were cast by the two board members appointed by former President Truman.

The ruling was made in a case involving the Blue Flash Express, Inc., New Orleans, and Local 270 of the AFL Teamsters Union. The union accused the firm of unfair labor practices for questioning employes about union membership.

Gal Dons Shorts; Bakery Making Doughnuts Only

BUCHANAN (UP)—The Quality Bakery was making only doughnuts today because a young lady was wearing shorts.

Police said that Rosemary Jezek, 17, lost control of her car and slammed into the bakery when ashes from her cigarette fell on her bare legs.

Miss Jezek said she was about to stop when the car went out of control but instead of stepping on the brake, her foot hit the accelerator and she crashed into an 8-inch thick brick wall at the rear of the bakery.

The crash moved the bakery's 18-ton oven 10 inches. Dale Burrows, owner of the bakery, said the oven cannot be used because it is not level and its revolving shelves don't revolve any more.

The bakery is still making its own doughnuts but is getting other baked goods from a Niles bakery until the oven is repaired.

Demands Return of Stowaway

Poland Wants Britain to Repatriate Seaman Who Fled Freighter

LONDON (AP)—Charging "brutal disregard of the rights of a foreign ship," Communist Poland has demanded the return of the stowaway the British freed last week from the Polish freighter Jaroslaw Dabrowski.

A protest note handed last night to the British ambassador in Warsaw also demanded damages and punishment for those responsible for the incident.

London police snatched the Polish stowaway, 24-year-old Antoni Klimowicz, from the freighter after halting it last Saturday in the Thames. The seaman, seeking asylum in Britain, hid on the ship when it left Poland. Crewmen caught him before he could escape in London and were hauling him back to his homeland.

Following a hearing Tuesday, Britain's lord chief justice granted Klimowicz his freedom. He was told he could have a permit to work in Britain, and there appeared little likelihood the British would hand him back to the Poles.

The Polish government charged in its note that he was a criminal who twice had been punished by the British authorities for smuggling.

Safety Bed Board Acts to Strangle Child of 4

CHICAGO (AP)—A retaining board intended to keep a 4-year-old boy from falling out of bed figured in his death last night.

The boy, Charles Gohn Jr., managed to wedge his head between the board and mattress but couldn't get loose. In desperation, he threw his body over the board.

When his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Gohn, 27, found him he had strangled.

TV to Bring Top-Flight Talent Into Small Clubs

NEW YORK (AP)—Smaller night clubs and restaurants throughout the country may get top-flight floor show acts via closed circuit television.

Plans to televise famous acts from the bigtime clubs were announced yesterday by William Rosensohn, executive vice president of Box Office Television, Inc.

He said his firm expects to begin operation of the closed network service early in 1955.

Canada's Navy Plans Helicopter to Track Subs

OTTAWA (AP)—Canada's Navy plans to form an anti-submarine helicopter squadron, using "dunking sonar" to track the undersea craft.

Informants said the helicopters will hover close to the ocean surface and lower the sonar listening gear beneath the waves. If they hear no subs, the sonar is wound up and the aircraft moves to another spot.

So far the navy hasn't been able to find the helicopter for the job. It needs one that can carry more equipment—depth charges as well as the sonar—and with greater endurance than present models.

The Canadians expect U.S. manufacturers to come up with the answer.
