Oakland County Teachers Will Attend Two-Day Regional Education Meeting

By HAZEL A. TRUMBLE

City and county schools will close Oct. 14 and 15 while educators of Oakland, Macomb and St. Clair counties join in their annual two-day regional conference sponsored by the Michigan Education Association.

A combined conference will be held Thursday at the Masonic Temple, Detroit, with Friday set aside for educational clinics offering meetings on every phase of education.

These will be held in Pontiac, Bloomfield Hills and Royal Oak.

Mrs. Mildred Porritt, teacher in Pontiac's Willis School, will serve as general chairman of the conference this year.

Assisting her are Henry Elling, Eastern Junior High School; Mary Ruth Heil, Royal Oak; Kathryn Quick, Rochester; Irene Olczak, Waterford Township Schools and Richard Gibboney, Ferndale.

About 3,500 Oakland county teachers will attend the two-day meetings with as many more from the other two counties.

Dr. Clair L. Taylor, state superintendent of public instruction, will speak on Thursday morning on "Opportunities Unlimited" before the entire assembly.

He will be followed by John Furbay, director of air world education for TWA, New York City. His topic is "Forty Hours to Anywhere."

At noon on Thursday the joint districts will hear a talk by their new state MEA president, Ellen Solomonson of Sault Ste. Marie. She will speak on "You Hold America's Wealth in Your Hands."

A double-symposium in the afternoon will present two current topics of both interest and controversy among educators: "The United Nations," and "Are We Developing Citizens for a Free Society?"

Paul E. Johnson, executive secretary of the Detroit mayor's committee on children and youth, will moderate the latter symposium.

Jurist Accused of Prejudging Lattimore Case

Asked to Disqualify Self Due to 'Fixed Opinion' Defendant Is Innocent

WASHINGTON (AP)—U. S. Attorney Leo A. Rover today accused Federal District Judge Luther W. Youngdahl of "a fixed, personal bias and prejudice" in favor of Owen Lattimore, and asked the judge to disqualify himself from presiding at Lattimore's perjury trial.

Rover made the request in an affidavit filed in the U. S. District Court.

Trial of Lattimore, a lecturer and writer on Far Eastern affairs, has been tentatively set for Jan. 10. He is accused of lying when he swore to a Senate committee that he was never a follower of the Communist party line or a promoter of Red causes.

Youngdahl declined to comment on Rover's action. Court officials said it was up to the judge to decide for himself whether to take himself out of the Lattimore case.

If he should fail to do so, Rover could ask the U. S. Court of Appeals for an order directing Youngdahl to disqualify himself.

Youngdahl is a former three-term Republican governor of Minnesota and a former judge of the Minnesota Supreme Court who was appointed to the federal bench by former President Truman.

Rover based his affidavit on Youngdahl's rulings and comments seven months ago on a defense motion to throw out the original indictment against Lattimore.

See earlier story on page 46.

Youngdahl dismissed four of the seven counts of the original 1952 indictment. Two subsequently were reinstated by the Court of Appeals.

Last week Lattimore was indicted again.

Rover said he "has the greatest respect for the honor and integrity" of Youngdahl but said Youngdahl "has a fixed opinion" that Lattimore is innocent of the charges.

Rover particularly objected to Youngdahl's statement that the three counts against Latimore which he sustained were of doubtful materiality.

Tropical Storm Loses Power in Mountains

Food and Medical Aid Hurried to Victims of Hurricane

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Hurricane Hazel moved into the southeastern Bahamas today, while food and medical aid was rushed to stricken Haiti in the wake of the big tropical storm.

At 8 a. m. the Miami Weather Bureau reported the hurricane was centered near the eastern end of Great Inagua Island. A hundred miles ahead of the storm lies Mayaguana, site of a U. S. guided missile tracking station.

Mathew Town, on the west end of Inagua, has a population of about 2,000, mostly natives employed in extracting salt from sea water for the fisheries of New England, Norway, Sweden and Japan.

Also on the island is a colony of 7,000 to 8,000 flamingoes, one of the largest groups of these colorful birds in this part of the world.

Hazel's windpower had diminished after its passage through the mountains of Haiti and eastern Cuba and the highest winds now are estimated at 80 to 90 miles per hour over a small area near the center. Gales extend outward 75 miles in all directions.

Before it tangled with these mountains, the hurricane packed a 115-mile-an-hour punch. Some of this power may be regained as it passes over the Atlantic.

Now 575 miles southeast of Miami, the storm is moving on a north-northeast course pointed away from the mainland and toward open Atlantic waters.

The villages of Cazeau and Crio des Missions were reported flooded and the mayor of Aux Cayes, third largest city in the republic, said most of the homes in the area were damaged.

Eastern Cuba apparently escaped major damage.

Florida appeared safe from the hurricane but Walter R. Davis, storm forecaster in the Miami Weather Bureau, said, "We can't be certain of that yet."

A radio message from Jeremie, the hub of a rubber district on the southwestern Haiti peninsula that took the heaviest beating, said the hospital was wiped out, most of the houses were flattened and a settlement of the Marfranc rubber experimental station of the U.S. Department of Agriculture was washed away.

The Marfranc station itself remained intact and the supervisor's home is still standing, the message said.

The information was transmitted by radio from Scipa. Scipa is a Point Four agency, the Inter-American Cooperatove agricultural service.

Five Scipa employes, including three Americans, were marooned in Damiens College five miles north of Port-au-Prince yesterday while establishing radio communication with Aux Cayes.

Wilson Plans Chicago Talk Despite Bird-Dog Tempest

From Our Wire Services

Secretary of Defense Charles E. Wilson indicated today that he will speak at a $100-a-plate GOP fund raising dinner in Chicago tonight despite Illinois Republican Gov. William G. Stratton's suggestion that he cancel his address.

"The governor has not called me, nor has anyone else in Chicago," Wilson said this morning. "As of this moment, I am still going to the dinner."

Stratton, also listed as one of the speakers at the dinner, issued a statement in connection with Wilson's press conference remarks in Detroit Monday which have been interpreted as a slap at unemployed people, a meaning Wilson says he did not mean to convey.

Stratton, in his statement, said, "I cannot understand how any man, including Secretary of Defense Wilson, could treat this unemployment problem so lightly."

"Let me say that in view of his unfortunate statement, which is actually opposite to the attitude of my administration and which is obviously contrary to the views of the President, I do not believe he would be in a position to represent properly the viewpoint of this administration at the meeting tonight.

"Consequently, I suggest that his scheduled appearance be canceled."

The governor, it was made known later, was ready to snub Wilson. William W. Downey, the governor's assistant, quoted him as saying "I won't be there" if Wilson appears.

It was the latest development in the cross-country storm kicked up by the defense secretary's remarks about dogs and unemployment at a Detroit news conference Monday.

A spokesman for sponsors of the dinner, scheduled for Chicago's Conrad Hilton Hotel, said a statement will be issued to settle the question of whether Wilson's talk will be called off.

The sponsors are the Republican Citizens Finance Committee of Illinois, the state and Cook County Chicago GOP Central Committees and the Illinois Republican County Chairman's Assn.

U. S. Asks Talks on Red Proposal

Suggests in U. N. That Big 4, Canada Discuss Soviet A-Control Plan

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (INS) —A U. S. resolution proposing that Russia's controversial nuclear arms control plan be referred to a conference of the Big Four atomic powers and Canada was circulated today in the U.N.

The draft resolution in effect would shift the entire subject of disarmament and nuclear weapons control to the 12-nation disarmament commission, which has a standing sub-committee of the five atomic powers.

Suspicion and mistrust of Soviet motives in holding out olive branches on the deadlocked problem of nuclear arms control impelled the U. S. to "make haste slowly" in response to Andrei Vishinsky's call for quick action on his so-called "new" proposals.

The U. S. is decidedly opposed, on the other hand, to a resolution offered by Philippine Delegate F. M. Serrano proposing that the political committee suspend current debate on disarmament pending closed-door talks by the five atomic powers.

Serrano's resolution ran into stiff opposition from the majority of western powers almost immediately, leaving little prospect of majority support by the committee.

The U. S. proposal, on the other hand, rapidly gathered endorsement and co-sponsors even before the resolution was ready for introduction.

Tabby Caught in Clutch Shifts Into High Yowls

CLEVELAND (AP)—At first, Mrs. Helen Matczak didn't believe her ears. Every time she shifted gears, she heard a meow.

"It just couldn't be a cat," she convinced herself as she drove home from her factory job with four other women.

Later, after the last of her passengers had left, Mrs. Matczak again started to shift gears. With no talking in the car, the noise was not to be denied. It was plainly the meow of a distressed cat.

The cat was trapped between the arm of the clutch pedal and the floorboard, and had been literally taking it on the chin every time the pedal moved.

Freed from the trap by a man from the Animal Protective League, the slightly wobbly cat lapped up a saucer of milk.

Red A-Bomber Is Supersonic

Navy Secretary First in U. S. to Admit Soviet Planes So Fast

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Secretary of the Navy Charles S. Thomas said today Russia has atom bomb carrying airplanes that fly faster than the speed of sound.

His statement apparently was the first by a qualified American official to attribute such speed to Russian bombers.

The Air Force has said only that Russian jet bombers, unveiled last spring, have given the Soviets the ability to wage intercontinental air warfare with fast planes comparable with the B47 all-jet bomber and the even larger and more powerful B52.

Thomas gave no elaboration in a speech prepared for the Greater Philadelphia Delaware South Jersey Council.

Thomas declared that the Russian navy, now second in size among world fleets, is engaged in a "fast but silent effort" to challenge U.S. naval supremacy. Asserting that the Russians have a submarine force of a size never before equaled in history, Thomas said the whole purpose of Soviet emphasis upon sea power since World War II has been to "nullify our command and use of the seas."

Michigan Beans Are Damaged by Heavy Rains

LANSING (AP)—Heavy rains during the past week have been damaging to the state's bean crop, the Federal-State Crop Reporting Service said today.

Corn was mature and ready to pick when it dried out. Potato and sugar beet fields were mostly too wet to be worked. Soils were mostly too wet to plant the remaining fall-sown grains.

In its monthly crop report, the service noted that the field bean harvest was about two-thirds completed before the rains started.

The late potato harvest was about one-half completed and about one-third of the soybean crop has been combined.

Molotov Ends 8-Day Visit With East German People

An honor guard of police and a police band playing the Internationale and the East zone anthem lent a military aspect to the scene.

Top-ranking generals of the 300,000-man Red army stationed in East Germany also were on hand.

As he waved farewell, Molotov said: "For further success, auf weidersehen."

Grotewohl and Ulbricht pledged "firm ties" with the Soviet Union for the 18 million East Germans.

During his protracted visit, Molotov visited farms, factories, steel mills and the uranium mines. The visit, officially to celebrate the fifth anniversary of the East German government, came just as the nine-power conference in London was agreeing to rearm West Germany as a sovereign partner in the Western alliance.

In a major speech to an East Berlin rally on the eve of the anniversary, Molotov warned that West German membership in such an alliance would end all chances of the reunification of the divided country.

The West German Bundestag the next day approved in principle the London accords.

In a farewell statement made public by the official East German news agency ADN, Molotov said he was certain that efforts to reunify Germany "will be supported by all peace-loving peoples," and "we are convinced that the friendship of the Soviet and German people will grow ever stronger."

Gen. Clark Rips 'Limited' War

Ann Arbor Crowd Told U. S. Problems Rooted in Korea Restrictions

ANN ARBOR (UP) — Many of the problems facing the United States would have been avoided if the United Nations would have fought an all-out war in Korea, Gen. Mark Clark, former commander of United Nations forces in Korea, said Tuesday night.

Clark unleashed a stinging criticism of the "limited" war policy carried on by the United Nations in Korea before almost 5,000 persons at the opening session of the 100th University of Michigan lecture series.

"If we had won a decisive military victory in Korea—and we could have—many of our current problems would not exist," the famed general said.

"From my experience it makes no matter where you meet the Russians—they are the same bunch of bandits. We are in a gigantic poker game with Russia with the opponent cheating while we play by the rules. I can't think of a better way to lose your shirt."

Minimizing factors which limited the Korean conflict to a police action, Clark said, "We need the favorable opinion of our Allies but we also must know which of our Allies will stand up and be counted when the chips are down."

He urged that America think in terms of western hemispheric solidarity as a key factor in meeting the Communist "menace."

The general said he was not an advocate of a preventive war and would hold out for a "tough" policy which would be more likely to prevent a shooting war.

Crash Injuries Kill Youth, 18

Eighteen-year-old Charles R. Toth, of 273 Brambles Dr., White Lake Township, was injured fatally last night when his car rammed a tree on a Cedar Island road curve, Pontiac Post State Police said.

He died at 1:21 a.m. at Pontiac General Hospital, about 1½ hours after the White Lake Township crash.

Two passengers, Charles Nix, 20, of 272 Lookout Dr., Pontiac, and Virgil Presnell, 21, of 9925 Sunset Dr., Bloomfield Township, were injured.

Presnell, who suffered bruises in the accident, pleaded guilty to a charge of furnishing beer to minors this afternoon and was sentenced to 90 days in the Oakland County Jail by White Lake Township Justice Frederick R. Stephan.

The officers said the car, traveling east on Cedar Island Lake road near Round Lake road, failed to round a curve, skidded on the wet pavement and smashed into the tree.

Church Loudspeaker Blares at 2 A. M.

GRAND HAVEN (UP) — The time clock at the First Reformed Church had some electrical circuit trouble a couple of days ago.

Then, in the early hours of the morning, a loud speaker system at the church began blaring "Abide With Me." Most residents who heard it were puzzled because the music is supposed to play only on Sunday. Others thought it was a dream.

Rev. Harland Steel pulled a fuse to stop the music at 2:30 a.m.

Feikens Blasts Reuther at Birmingham GOP Rally

John Feikens, Republican state chairman, said last night CIO President Walter Reuther was "yapping and barking like a rabbit" in the Wilson dog controversy. . .

He criticized Reuther for the labor leader's demand that Secretary of Defense Charles E. Wilson resign or retract an off-the-cuff statement.

The Republican chairman addressed 275 Oakland County party workers at a rally at the First Baptist Church in Birmingham.

Wilson, in a Detroit press conference Monday, said that while he had a lot of sympathy for the jobless, he always liked bird dogs better than kennel-fed-dogs.

"I agree with President Eisenhower that Mr. Wilson is not indifferent to human misfortune," Feikens said. "You test these things in deeds not words."

"When have you ever heard Reuther commend the Eisenhower administration for ending the Korean War or any of the sound Republican achievements?" Feikens asked.

Feikens said the CIO President instead kept "potshooting at such Republican accomplishments as a reduction of income taxes, cuts in federal spending, extension of social security, and farm price program."

The state Republican chairman said the choice of Michigan voters balloting for governor was between Donald E. Leonard, the GOP candidate, and Reuther, who Feikens

Police Officers Warning Women of Purse Thefts

From Our Birmingham Bureau

BIRMINGHAM — "Women beware!" These are the words of Police Chief Ralph W. Moxley and Det. Lt. Merlin Holmquist, addressed to any women who has ever carried a purse.

Case after case appears in the record books, showing that someone has made off with a purse or a wallet that was laid down on a store counter "for just a moment."

Or left by an employee in an unattended back room. Holmquist mentioned that only a couple of weeks ago a young women lost her watch and a wallet containing $150, money to pay for part of her wedding expenses three days hence.

The wallet had been left in a back room of the shop where she worked. This points up the fact that employers should provide a spot for the safe-keeping of purse and other valuables, the two law men agreed.

Probably considered the least vulnerable spot, churches are often the prey of purse and wallet-snatchers, as proven by the local police records, Holmquist said.

Corroborating Holmquist's words in pointing up women's responsibility, Moxley gave what he considered "a conservative estimate," in stating that "in 75 per cent of these cases, the person who loses a a purse or wallet in this manner, is really a contributor to that loss."

A letter of objection from mayor Charles Renfrew to the Troy Township Zoning Board proved of no avail last night, as the board voted 3-2 to recommend the rezoning of a 2.5 acre parcel from residential to commercial. The land, at the northwest corner of Derby and Coolidge roads, abuts Birmingham's Pembrook Manor subdivision.

Troy Township Supervisor Norman Barnard said no date has been set for the township board to discuss the rezoning, but that the Oct. 25 regular meeting agenda was full, and the matter would not be discussed then.

He added that the developer, William S. Dohaney, has been asked to provide additional plans and data for the proposed neighborhood shopping center he wants to erect.

City commissioners had instructed Renfrew to notify board it was premature to take any action on rezoning, since plans did not call for any specific development, and no actual demands exists for a shopping center at the northwest corner of Derby and Coolidge Road.

Furthermore, the lawmakers felt that a development on such a small scale might be of an inferior quality. Dohaney owns some 65 acres there.

It was also pointed out that nearby local residents did not feel such a shopping center would be in the best interests of the area, and might in fact set a precedent for future development.

Renfrew said today he did not see how the city could intervene in the zoning board's decision, but added that he presumed abutting property owners here had a legal right to object to the zone change.

Woman Saved From Molester

Suspect Flees as Men Attracted by Screams Fire at His Car

A young man who attempted to attack a 31-year-old mother of two children last night fled in his car after two filling station attendants pursued him and fired once over his head.

Mrs. Ann Puckett, 31, of 598 E. Tennyson Ave., whose screams attracted the two men, told Pontiac Police she was walking on Joslyn road near LeBaron avenue when the man jumped from his car and grabbed her about 9 p.m.

Robert Dodt, 27, who operates the filling station at Madison and Joslyn Rd., said he and Bernard Smith, 30, of 152 N. Jessie St. heard the screams and chased the man, but were unable to catch him.

Dodt said he fired a .38 caliber revolver once and yelled "halt" but it didn't seem to scare the man.

Mrs. Puckett said the man, who attempted to drag her into his car, was wearing a blue sport jacket and grey trousers. She said he was between 20 and 24 years of age and had blond hair.

Dodt described the fleeing auto as a 1951 or '52 model, either dark blue or black.

GRAND RAPIDS (UP) — Uncle Sam, long in favor of government economy, is getting a paint job at the main Grand Rapids postoffice without labor cost. The work is being done by the building's custodial staff which is using 60 gallons of paint supplied by the government.

Japanese Ferry Toll Now Tabulated at 1,218

TOKYO (UP)—The raging typhoon that capsized and sank five ferries at Hakodate Sept. 26 took a confirmed death toll of 1,218, with 196 still missing, the Japanese National Railways said today.

The announcement said there were only 241 survivors.

Indiana Rivers Creep Upward

Many Are Homeless as Water Threatens to Spill Over Dikes

HAMMOND, Ind. (UP)—The Little Calumet River still swirled perilously close to the top of sandbag dikes in suburban Highland today.

At Plymouth, halfway across northern Indiana, the Yellow River crept almost imperceptibly upward toward an expected crest of 17.5 feet.

Authorities expected the Little Calumet to drop as the Weather Bureau forecast a day free of rain. But a Red Cross spokesman said the sandbag walls could not stand a rise of more than three or four inches.

Hundreds of volunteers worked throughout the night reinforcing the dikes. About 2,000 homes at the south edge of Hammond and in the suburbs of Highland, Munster and Dyer had been flooded after last weekend's heavy rains.

Upstream, near the southwest edge of Gary, the Little Calumet swept through a small farm area, isolating more than 50 families on car tops and roofs. Sheriff Jack West and 21 deputies carried them to safety in three outboard-powered boats.

The Red Cross set up a state disaster headquarters at Michigan City, halfway between Hammond and Plymouth, to direct disaster work in both areas.

Four hundred families were homeless in Plymouth, a city of 6,700 population, and 200 other homes were flooded around Lake of the Woods, northeast of Plymouth.

Traffic still was banned in Plymouth, and the schools remained closed. Sandbag dikes protected the electric and water utilities.

Wilson Carries On With Chicago Talk

Committee, said the program, if carried out, would present "an impossible situation" with both the governor and Wilson there.

Gov. Stratton, in fact, was scheduled to introduce Wilson.

"I doubt if the governor has read the complete transcript of what I did say in Detroit," Wilson said.

"He doesn't know me well enough to realize my real concern for the unemployed. He is making a mistake by letting the opposition interpret my attitude toward unemployment."

At Denver, President Eisenhower and his political lieutenants today kept a sharp eye on the stormy repercussion to Secretary of Defense Wilson's unemployment "dog" story and hoped to counteract Republican, Democratic and labor criticism.

The White House clearly is worried about what effect Wilson's remarks — which he says were distorted and are being used for political advantage by the Democrats—will have on the Nov. 2 congressional elections.

The concern at the President's vacation headquarters here became evident yesterday when Eisenhower himself came to Wilson's defense and sought to soften the impact on the hard-fought Republican campaign to keep control of Congress.

The chief executive acted as criticism of Wilson came from a few GOP candidates for Congress, from Democratic opponents, and from CIO President Walter Reuther and AFL chief George Meany.

In effect rejecting Reuther's demand that Wilson be made to retract his statements or be ousted from the Cabinet, Eisenhower expressed confidence in his Cabinet member in these words:

"I never have found him in the slightest degree indifferent to human misfortune."

The furor the President was attempting to quiet was touched off by Wilson at a Detroit news conference Monday. He said then he has "a lot of sympathy" for the unemployed, but always had "liked bird dogs better than kennel-fed dogs."

Then he added: "You know, one who'll get out and hunt for food rather than sit on his fanny and yell."

* * *

Wilson, former president of General Motors Corp., fired back yesterday with a statement that he intended "no invidious comparisons, nor insinuations likening people to dogs in any sense." He added:

"I am sure that the distorted version of what I said is being used by the people of the adverse political party trying to capitalize on a misinterpretation of the full meaning of what I actually said."

The secretary said he related the "bird dog vs. kennel dogs" story to underscore that "I admired spirit and initiative" in hunting for jobs.

At Eisenhower's headquarters here the reaction on the part of his aides seemed to be to regard the Wilson episode as one of the bad "breaks" that turn up in almost every campaign.

A presidential associate who asked not to be named said it would take several days to evaluate the extent of the impact. He said the situation would be watched carefully and dealt with as its develops.

According to ancient superstition, white heather brings good luck.

THE FIRST—Marian Anderson became the first Negro to sign a contract to sing with the Metropolitan Opera Company. Acclaimed by critics as one of the greatest singers of the century, she will make her first appearance in January.

AF Investigates 4-Death Crash

Jet Pilot, Mother and 2 Tots Perish as Plane Plunges Into Yard

WASHINGTON (UP)—An Air Force investigation was under way today into the crash of a jet plane yesterday which cost the lives of the pilot, a mother and her two children and seriously burned the children's father.

The plane, an F86D from Andrews Air Force Base, Md., crashed into the backyard of the family's home near Clinton, Md., some 10 miles southeast of Washington.

The body of the pilot, 2nd Lt. Robert B. Sandberg of Wenatchee, Wash., was found two miles away.

There was no apparent explanation for the crash. Gen. Nathan F. Twining, Air Force chief of staff, said the 26-year-old pilot was experienced and that the plane "had been inspected recently and had been flown since inspection.

"The loss of lives in this accident is a matter of grave concern to me and to the Air Force," Twining added. "An investigation is being conducted by a board of qualified Air Force officers."

The plane crashed and burned shortly before noon yesterday, taking the lives of Mrs. John J. Vaughn Jr., 24, and her two children, John W. Vaughn III, 2, and Rose Ann, 4. Mrs. Vaughn was an expectant mother.

Waives Examination in Stolen Goods Case

Kenneth McClintock Sr., 34, of 63 S. Jessie St., charged with receiving stolen property from his two sons, waived examination and was bound over to Oakland County Circuit Court yesterday when he appeared before Municipal Judge Cecil McCallum.

He was returned to the county jail when he failed to post a $1,000 bond, pending his arraignment Oct. 18.

Pontiac Police yesterday said they learned from McClintock that he sold 30 gallons of auto paint for $50 and gave his 14-year-old son $20 after the sale.

The two boys said they and two other boys stole 200 gallons of paint from the warehouse of the Schram Auto Parts, 321 Auburn Ave., and stored it in McClintock's garage.

Detective Sgt. John A. DePauw said a major quantity of the paint has been recovered.

Midway Area Fish 'Hot'

YOKOHAMA, Japan (UP)—Ten per cent of a 50-ton catch of tuna brought in today from an area 600 miles southwest of Midway Island will be thrown away as radioactive, authorities announced.

They said it was the first time fish from that part of the Pacific had tested "hot."

Army Develops Anti-Tank Rifle

New Infantry Weapon Has Twice the Power of Former Guns

WASHINGTON (UP)—The Army has developed a powerful new recoilless rifle which it said will enable infantrymen to "defeat any tank in the world today."

Called the BAT (for battalion anti-tank), the new lightweight, 106-mm. gun has double the penetrating power and more than double the effective range of any individual anti-tank weapon now available to the infantryman.

The Army said the gun "greatly increases the soldier's effectiveness against armored vehicles" and makes "a long-range sniper against tanks."

The gun was put through its first public demonstration Tuesday before the Cleveland post of the American Ordnance Assn. at the Erie Ordnance Depot in Lacarne, Ohio.

It has been under development for more than three years as a joint project between the Army's Ordnance Corps and private firms to find an effective anti-tank weapon for the infantry.

Mendes Looks for Agreement on Saar Future

PARIS (UP) — French Premier Pierre Mendes-France and Saar Premier Johannes Hoffmann met today for a talk on the future of the Saar, a question France wants settled before West Germany is rearmed.

Mendes-France got a 350-113 vote in the National Assembly yesterday, authorizing him to go ahead with the London accord on bringing West German troops into the West's defense against communism. He wants to be able to present an agreement on the Saar, the coal bearing border state whose German-speaking people are linked economically to France. Germans regard the Saar as a part of Germany.

* * *

A compromise, whereby the Saar might be internationalized, has been discussed. The French Premier and West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer are to confer here Oct. 20 in a new effort to achieve agreement on means of doing this.

West German newspapers cautioned today that the 3-to-1 vote of confidence for Mendes-France does not insure final French acceptance of the London agreement.

78 Traffic Accidents Reported for September

The present figures compare with 123 accidents and 55 injuries during a similar period last year.

The report notes that 986 accidents, 412 injuries and five fatalities occurred up to Oct. 1. During the first nine months last year, 412 accidents were recorded with 440 injuries and six fatalities.

Van Buren Deputy Dies

BANGOR (UP) — Phillip Richards, 49 Van Buren County chief deputy, died Tuesday of a heart attack. Richards was formerly a member of the Pennsylvania mounted patrol. He had been a Van Buren deputy 15 months.

Group Picks Directors

HASTINGS (UP)—The Barry County Resort Assn., a division of the Hastings Chamber of Commerce, has named three new directors. They are Leon Ball, Robert Brooks and William Buckley, all resort operators in the area.

Children to Swap Crime Comics for Good Books

INDIANAPOLIS (UP)—The American Legion Auxiliary announced today a nationwide "Operation Book Swap" to give children a chance to trade crime and horror comics for good books.

Mrs. Carl Zeller of Gibsonburg, Ohio, the auxiliary's national child welfare chairman, announced the program in a letter to all state departments.

Mrs. Zeller said community experiments in Canton and Sylvania, Ohio, have proved that "the millions of objectionable comic books now in the possession of the children of America can be eliminated by Operation Book Swap."

Feikens Hits Reuther at Republican Rally

Feikens said the CIO and other labor groups have poured $1 million into a campaign to re-elect Democratic Governor G. Mennen Williams. But it's Reuther who is the boss," Feikens emphasized.

Feikens said the election campaign was similar to last Saturday's Michigan-Iowa football game.

"Our party has been slow in getting its campaign going. Like Michigan, we saw the Democrats (whom he likened to Iowa) score a few points at first, but now we are rolling in high gear and we're going to win a smashing victory Nov. 2," Feikens said. (Michigan defeated Iowa 14-13).

Rep. George A. Dondero spoke briefly, listing the "solid achievements" of the Eisenhower administration. He stressed the Republican party had secured an income tax reduction averaging $50 per person.

He warned that if the Democrats win control of Congress the inevitable result would be "inaction, confusion, and a stalemate in Congress that would tie President Eisenhower in chains."

State Rep. William Broomfield, Republican candidate for state senator, said that "every good piece of labor legislation in the last decade in Michigan has been passed by a Republican legislature."

Edward Wilson, Oakland County GOP chairman, presided at the meeting and quipped as the session opened, "I am a bird dog."

Wilson, who is the son of Secretary of Defense Charles E. Wilson, made his comment in connection with his father's off-the-cuff comment on dogs and unemployment.

"I hadn't expected to preside at this meeting tonight," the younger Wilson said. "There has been enough Wilson on the pan today."

Chaplin Will Give Some of Red Prize to Charity

PARIS (UP)—Charles Chaplin arrived here today to present part of his $14,000 peace prize from the Communist sponsored World Peace Council to Abbe Pierre, a Roman Catholic charity worker.

Suffers Attack in Court

CADILLAC (UP)—Harry Phillip, 71, suffered a heart attack Tuesday and collapsed when he appeared before Circuit Judge Howard Campbell for sentence on a morals charge. Phillip, who lives near Boon in Wexford County, was described in critical condition at Mercy Hospital.

Air Academy Aspirants Few

AF Says Applications for First Plebe Class Number Only 500

WASHINGTON (INS)—Pentagon officials reported today that applications for admission to the U.S. Air Force Academy—expected to be one of the world's most glamorous institutions of higher education—are far below anticipated numbers.

The Air Force High Command had believed that thousands of American youths would eagerly seek enrollment in the "West Point of the Skies," which opens in temporary quarters at Lowry Air Force Base, Denver, next July 1, and goes into the permanent installation at Colorado Springs in 1957.

But the applicants so far total only 500. The country's top military airmen, perhaps misled by their own burning devotion to their profession, had predicted there would be at least 5,000 aspirants to the pioneer plebe, or freshmen, class, which will be limited to 300.

Despite this, the men who will direct the school which will be a prime source of supply for the nation's jet-age, supersonic pilots insist they are unworried.

Lt. Gen. Herbert R. Harmon, who will be the academy's first superintendent, says with a grin: "There's nothing to be upset about. When the time comes, we'll have plenty of boys asking to get in."

Mt. Clemens Names Former Pontiac Man

Robert D. Heitsch, 41, has accepted appointment as city manager of Mt. Clemens. Appointment of a city manager was authorized four months ago by voters.

Heitsch currently is a city manager at Farmington, Conn., where he has been for six years.

Mt. Clemens's new city manager is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Heitsch of Pontiac and attended schools here. His father is a Pontiac attorney.

Deadly Plaything Kills 4 Korean Youngsters

SEOUL (UP)—Four small Korean children uncovered a deadly plaything Monday in a neighborhood playground at Chungju, 80 miles southeast of here.

The children, two boys and two girls ranging in age from 3 to 10, touched off the delicate trigger of a land mine, buried in the war. All were killed.

Pontiac Deaths

Haward L. Cate

Howard L. Cate, 75, of 526 W. Huron St. died Tuesday at 10:25 p.m. in Pontiac General Hospital. He had been in ill health for several years.

Born at Effingham, N. H. Dec. 19, 1878, he was the son of Royal and Minetta Leavitt Cate. He married Molly B. Morse who died in 1942. Mr. Cate, who was a hotel manager, had resided in Pontiac since that time.

Surviving are a son, Howard L., Jr. of Pontiac; two sisters, Mrs. Arthur L. May and Mrs. Albert Possner of Providence, R. I., and four grandchildren.

Funeral will be Friday at 10 a.m. from Sparks-Griffin Funeral Home. Burial will be in Vicksburg.

Legislation for Extension of Seaway Vital to State

EAST LANSING (UP) — "Every port city in Michigan is a potential world port," John C. Beukema of Muskegon, a member of the President's St. Lawrence Seaway Commission, told the third annual Real Estate Appraisal Conference at Michigan State College yesterday.

Beukema said every Michigan community is within easy transportation distance to the ports of Michigan.

"None of us have the slightest conception of what water-borne commerce can mean to Michigan," Beukema said. "World trade will bring us many new types of business and industry."

Beukema predicted that many branch factories will spring up in Michigan, a boom in ship-building activities, great expansion in chemical industries and many new commercial businesses such as importing firms.

"Don't think these developments will come tomorrow, though," he added. "It will take time to develope our potentitialities."

Beukema said that businessmen and others must work to obtain an extension of the present St. Lawrence Seaway plans.

"We must work to obtain the construction of the seaway through the Detroit River and Sault Ste. Marie areas so big ocean-going vessels can reach all our Michigan ports," he said.

"Legislation for this added work, estimated to cost about 125 million, will be presented at the next session of Congress."

Work Resumes at 15 Coal Mines

U. S. Steel Employes Vote to End Two-Day Strike That Idled 9,800

WAYNESBURG, Pa. (AP)—Eleven hundred miners at the U.S. Steel Corp.'s Robena mine voted unanimously to return to work today, ending a two-day walkout which idled 9,800 area coal diggers.

The mine's 2,700 workers struck Monday in a dispute with the company over seniority.

A three-man United Mine Workers commission — appointed by UMW president John L. Lewis— guaranted the striking workers the seniority question will be settled with the company.

* * *

The strike tied up 14 other mines in southwestern Pennsylvania as workers from Robena set up picket lines at the other pits. Nine mines owned by U.S. Steel were closed. The company said they produced about 48,000 tons of coal daily. The six other pits turned out an estimated 20 to 30 thousand tons a day.

Most of the mines were scheduled to work five days this week. A few of the mines had scheduled four days of work.

Airman Admits Crushing Baby

Tells Texas Authorities About Slaying of Son 2 Months Old

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—An airman admitted to police last night he crushed his 2-month-old son to death with his bare hands.

Officers reported the 22-year-old Carswell Air Force Base serviceman said he had crushed the baby's chest "about 10 times" in the weeks leading up to the Monday night slaying.

"There must be a reason why I did it," he said.

* * *

His wife stood by him as he talked. She did not know that her young husband had killed their only child until sheriff's deputies E. N. Buie and Ed Max talked to him last night in the couple's home near Lake Worth.

The child, dead on arrival at the base hospital Monday night, had six ribs broken on one side and four broken on the other side. The autopsy revealed the lung and stomach cavities filled with blood. Bruises were on the baby's body.

The airman made a written statement to Asst. Dist. Atty. Randell C Riley. He will be charged with murder.

* * *

Drafted into service less than a year ago, the airman said he was a premedical student in Pennsylvania before entering the service but had switched to prelaw work when he entered the Air Force.

To Serve Under Ex-Foes

Afrika General Returns

BONN, Germany (UP) — The new German Wehrmacht probably will be led by ex-Gen. Ludwig Cruewell, 64, former deputy commander of the Afrika Korps.

Through one of history's ironic quirks, his troops will be trained by the man who shattered the Afrika Korps, Britain's Viscount Montgomery, the hero of Alamein.

And Cruewell's superior officer will be France's Marshal Alphonse Juin, captured by the Germans in the retreat to Dunkirk but later commander of free French forces in North Africa and Italy.

German government officials here believe Cruewell is far and away the likeliest choice to head the 12 divisions Germmany would arm under the London pact.

Now a bustnessman working for industrial firms in the Ruhr, the almost bald, bespectacled ex-officer is acceptable both to the government coalition parties and the Socialist opposition. He is known as a "democratic" soldier as opposed to the stiff-necked Prussian type.

Gen. Cruewell was deputy to Gen. Erwin Rommel in the Afrika Korps. He was captured in May 1942 when his helicopter pilot mistook British troops for Italian and landed in their midst. He was held prisoner the remainder of the war.

Marshal Juin, as Central European Front commander in NATO, will have overall control of the German forces.

Juin is one of France's outstanding military brains. After his capture in Belgium in May 1940, he was released by the Germans at the request of Marshal Petain and assigned to command the Vichy French forces in Morocco.

When the Allies invaded North Africa, Juin switched his allegiance and led French troops in Tunisia and Italy.

MEMBER OF AUDIT BUREAU OF CIRCULATIONS

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 13, 1954

To Dr. John A. Hannah

In a Saginaw appearance Monday, Dr. John A. Hannah charged our schools with another responsibility — that of preparing youth for military service.

The Pontiac Press is proud to point out to the Michigan State College Prexy that the Waterford Township Schools are doing the very thing he so heartily advised.

A special course which will acquaint boys with their rights and their responsibilities while serving under our military training program has been initiated with Waterford the "pilot" school in this area. Eighteen other State schools are proposing similar courses.

It can be modestly pointed out, Mr. President, that because Waterford High School Principal Roy A. Larmee became concerned about the lack of objective information for boys in this vital field, the program was initiated in the first place.

While searching for information to give his students, Principal Larmee found mutual concern among other school people.

In conjunction with the U. S. Defense Department, the Michigan Secondary School Association established a guidance course to help prepare boys factually and psychologically for service to their country.

You also said, Dr. Hannah, "that our country will never be truly secure until the great majority of our people hold some clear convictions on some fundamental issues, and hold them closely and fiercely."

May we ask, sir, that teacher training institutions, such as the one you are working so hard to develop at MSC, do a thorough job in teaching young people to teach boys and girls about these basic American ideals.

Justice Jackson

When death suddenly claimed U. S. Supreme Court Justice Robert H. Jackson it terminated 20 years of faithful public service.

It was in 1934 that his friend, the late FDR, persuaded him to give up his small town law practice in Jamestown, N. Y., for a post in the Bureau of Internal Revenue.

From there he was transferred to the Justice Department and in 1938 became U. S. Solicitor General. Two years later he was Attorney General. In 1941 he was appointed to the Supreme Court by President Roosevelt.

★ ★ ★

At the outset he was considered in some quarters to be a radical. This opinion changed, however, as his work on the court unfolded. Actually, he was the only member of the Nation's highest tribunal who never attended college. His preparation for the law, however, did include a year at Albany Law School and he was known generally as an able jurist who could brush aside irrelevancies to get at the core of any case.

Perhaps Justice Jackson is best known to most people for his work as Nurnberg prosecutor of the Nazi war criminals. His legal skill in those trials helped send Hitler's top aides to the gallows.

It has been well said of him that he was a warm hearted jurist whose honesty and friendliness were matched by his eminence in the law. His death at 62 leaves the high court made up of six Democrats and two Republicans.

Note to those who produce the "Medic" television program: How about showing a physician wrestling with the common cold — for the laughs?

Mr. Powell and FHA

Testimony before Senator Capehart's committee leaves no doubt about the need for a complete investigation of the Clyde L. Powell case and windfall profits on FHA mortgages.

Powell, until he was ousted last April as assistant FHA commissioner, was accused directly by testimony given before the committee. One witness told of having paid him $10,000 for his help in getting an FHA mortgage on a Negro housing project increased from $2,800,000 to $3,509,000 in 1946.

Other testimony was to the effect that during his 10 year FHA employment, Powell's bank deposits exceeded by $143,000 the total of his salary.

Another witness testified that on a capital stock investment of $200 his firm reaped a $250,000 windfall profit. The firm wound up owning the land on which the project was built and was guaranteed $8,000 a year rent for 99 years.

The ugly implications in this and other testimony made submission of the case to the grand jury imperative. The need to investigate a scandal which dates back into the two previous Democratic Administrations was increased by Powell's resort to the Fifth Amendment to avoid incriminating himself.

In the public interest the Department of Justice has no choice but make a complete investigation. Its duty not only is to determine the guilt or innocence of an accused ex-official, but to assure the people that the FHA cleanup is thorough.

As usual, following the change from daylight saving time to standard, farmers experienced some difficulty in setting their roosters back an hour.

If we ever have to live through another Summer as tough as the one just past, we doubt that we'll be able to do it.

The Man About Town

Gulls Are With Us

Birds From Great Lakes Driven to New Grounds

Large flocks of gulls now are making daily visits to open spaces in the Pontiac area. Usually confining their activities to the Great Lakes, they now are being forced inland, mostly because there is better picking here—and less competition. It only is a recurrence of an annual pre-winter condition when their usual forage grounds have been so thoroughly picked over that new fields must be sought. The Pontiac Municipal Golf Course, where recent rains have brought ground worms to the surface, is visited every day by hundreds of these birds.

who says he was working in the Anderson Grocery in Pontiac 40 odd years ago, and was the man who introduced grapefruit into our city. A traveling man induced the store to attempt to sell two dozen, but most of them rotted before they could be sold. Says Unions' Strikes for Higher Wages Main Cause of the High Cost of Living (Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.)

Mr. Stevenson and Governor Williams are making some very strong, erratic statements. I also see the Democrats have a $700,000 campaign fund from the unions. Is that legal?

Without the consent of Congress, Truman scuttled our boys off to Korea and now we have unemployment again. Is this to be the future of our youth?

Through the continual strikes for higher wages our necessities have risen in price. Fuel is 3 times higher, food much higher, milk is 3 times higher although the farmer still gets less than 8 cents a quart, which I paid in the 1920's.

Union labor has stepped milk up to 23 cents to 25 cents so parents can't afford it as in the case of other food. Go to a grocery store early and see the fruit and vegetables going into the garbage.

The high cost of living means too many wives work who formerly never did, especially in factories. Reduce the food and fuel prices by bringing down wages, keep the women home where they belong and see how delinquency goes down.

Take the threat of war from our boys and that will help too. Without war less money can be taken from paychecks.

So mothers, vote for the ones who will keep your boys home. Aren't they worth more than two paychecks?

A MOTHER

Christianize Our Country Before Converting Others

I was brought up in the Methodist Church and was taught that if I were not a Methodist I would be a lost sinner.

I had a cousin who was a Methodist minister, also a brother who was a minister and when I got out into the world and met people of different religions, I found they weren't bad people at all. I do not care what a person's religion is; it is the person himself who counts.

I see by your valuable paper that the Methodists are going to spend money to try to keep the citizens of Michigan from voting on the bingo question.

If they would spend that money to get some of our very unjust laws rescinded, like the one that took the farm away from those old people in Lapeer and other laws that should not be on the statute books of any nation, how much better it would be.

We are the wickedest nation on earth and yet we have the nerve to send missionaries to other countries to convert them to our way of living. Christianize this country first and set other countries an example!

'Mrs. C' Enjoys Press Religious Discussions

The religious discussions that have lately been appearing in this column are wholesome, interesting and often amusing. I'm sure we can trust the editor to keep them in good taste.

My only comment is this, that when such remarks are brought into the open, one can see a sharp division.

On the one side is hatred, the other love. These are distinguished by certain characteristics. The virulent, antagonism of hate is obvious, the calm serenity of love is equally so and I have an idea that the gentle Christ can only approve love.

Mrs. C.

(Editor's note — Despite the gentle note of encouragement in the letter above, this letter will close the current discussion of religion in this column. Unfortunately such a discussion usually develops into acrimonious argument and attack, and the current discussion is approaching that phase. Therefore the pilot of this column will give precedence to writers on other subjects, man, of whose letters have been delayed unduly during recent weeks because of the numbers of letters pertaining to religion.)

Says Officials Powerless to Sell Courthouse Site

It is my opinion that the county supervisors have no power to sell the present site of the courthouse.

This land is of the past, present and future. The property of the dead, the living and the unborn of Oakland County.

Do you not think that a 12 or 14 story building covering most of the site is the best investment?

Suppose a large office was erected and the unused portion, not necessary now for county business, could be rented to the Board of Education for use as class rooms, commercial and otherwise, and then when growth requires revert to the county.

Did I hear someone say, "Congestion of downtown streets" was a drawback? The answer to that one is to have larger units of transportation.

John Taxpayer

Joan Latwinski Voices the Teenagers' Situation

Regarding the recent letter from Clarence Utley, I say, Teenagers, indeed! Why must we be the butt of malicious and often unjustified accusations?

The public is well aware of the deeds committed by a few unstable or maladjusted teenagers and well that it is for this is, in reality, a problem worth seeking an end to.

Yet the nation's population under the age of nineteen, those who are responsible for the present bad reputation of teenagers are indeed a minority.

Mr. Utley, may I ask whether you know what percentage of the approximate 350,000 hospital beds occupied by the mentally deranged are used by—here's that expression again — teenagers?

The main problem here is one that appears daily—that of all individuals in a certain classification, religious group, racial group, etc., being grouped together and considered equal in intelligence or morals.

Do you not realize that there are many of us God-loving, law-abiding individuals in this group you term as "delinquent teenagers"?

Remember, please, that we are individuals before you begin your debasement of the youth of America.

Why Fight the Unions? They Protect You!

I cannot understand why some people want to fight against the unions when they are formed only to protect the working people.

I believe these people have forgotten or don't want to admit when there was no union of how a foreman could fire a man over nothing and have another man ready to take his place.

When people have plenty they seem to forget that we progress over well-learned and bitter experiences. As for a man doing more than his share of work in factories, well most factories have a production set for each and every job and they certainly don't slap a man on the back for doing more but OK brother, just keep coming up under production and see what happens!

David Lawrence Says:

Many Men Are Suitable for Supreme Court Seat

WASHINGTON — If, as reported from Denver, President Eisenhower is planning to appoint this time someone with judicial experience to the vacancy on the Supreme Court of the United States, then Chief Judge Harold M. Stephens of the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia is the logical choice.

Judge Stephens was the selection recommended for the Supreme Court by the Department of Justice when Homer Cummings was attorney general, but President Roosevelt thought he wasn't liberal enough and appointed a new dealer.

Actually, Judge Stephens, who has now been on the bench here for nearly 20 years, has made a truly great record and is widely respected by the bar of the nation, especially the judiciary. He is neither conservative nor liberal but one of those rare individuals who is intellectually honest and decides cases on their merits.

Judge Stephens happens to be a devout Catholic, and that's another consideration which — while not talked about out loud, because it is rather delicate — is often a factor just the same.

President William Howard Taft appointed Edward Douglas White, a Catholic, to be chief justice. Taft was a Unitarian and won wide acclaim for his action.

Since then, presidents have tried, when they could, to take into account that in the highest court in the land all religious faiths should be represented. Justice Butler of Minnesota and Justice Frank Murphy, former governor of Michigan, were the last Catholics to sit on the Supreme Court.

When Justice Murphy died, it was generally assumed that President Truman would appoint a Catholic to the vacancy but he was reported at the time to have brushed the suggestion aside with the alleged remark that he felt under no compulsion to take religion into account. It was understood nevertheless that he was impressed with the criticism and actually promised the next vacancy to Howard McGrath, then attorney general, who is a Catholic. No vacancy occurred for that pledge to be fulfilled.

Judge Stephens, moreover, is "geographically right," as the saying goes in politics. There is at present no justice on the Supreme Court from the Rocky Mountain region and Judge Stephens hails from Utah, where he served on the bench before coming to the Department of Justice as an assistant attorney general in 1933.

Judge Stephens is an independent Democrat, and that's the group from which Mr. Eisenhower is seeking support nowadays.

If the President feels he must choose a jurist who originally was a Republican, then Chief Judge Orie L. Phillips of the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals at Denver is a natural selection. He is one of the great judges of today and was up for consideration when Chief Justice Warren was appointed.

If, however, the president follows another tradition and looks to the Department of Justice, he is expected to give consideration to the appointment of his attorney general. Herbert Brownell. The following men, each of whom was an attorney general, were appointed to the Supreme Court of the United States in the last 40 years.

James McReynolds appointed by President Wilson in 1914.

To this list might be added Solicitor General Stanley F. Reed, appointed to the Supreme Court by President Roosevelt in 1938.

The dispatches from Denver saying Attorney General Brownell is controversial, and hence shouldn't be appointed, reflect neither knowledge of the past nor fairness on the part of those who originated such an objection.

For most all men who serve at the head of the Department of Justice become involved in public controversies.

The late Justice Jackson, when serving as assistant attorney general, made speeches defending President Roosevelt's plan to pack the Supreme Court, yet it was not held against him by the Senate. His appointment to the Supreme Court was confirmed by the Senate on July 7, 1941, without even a record vote.

Just what are the controversies that are associated with Mr. Brownell? By order of the President, he had one of his attorneys appear for the department in the segregation case. He also made a speech last year exposing the neglect by the Truman Administration to fire Harry Dexter White after receiving FBI reports pointing plainly to his contacts with the Communists.

This speech was deliberately distorted by Trumanites to make it appear that Mr. Brownell attacked the loyalty, rather than the administrative efficiency, of the Democratic president.

Certainly it would be tragic irony if President Eisenhower allowed this episode to block the appointment to the Supreme Court of a man of the integrity and fairness of Herbert Brownell. The attorney general is an able lawyer. His recent speech giving due weight to both sides of the controversy over fifth amendment witnesses was a judicial document of true impartiality.

Best of Dr. Brady's Home Remedies Are Now Sold Only With Prescription

By WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

It seems as though the best of the home remedies I have been recommending to our readers ever since Tony was a pup are one by one becoming either unavailable without prescription or hard to find in the larger emporiums where the clerk peers out at you from behind a pile of Dr. Starling's Quicklift and informs you that citrate of soda is too dangerous to use without a prescription.

It is not at all that it is so cheap that the profit on the sale would scarcely pay the clerk's wages. There is some sort of regulation or ordinance prohibiting the sale of sodium citrate without a prescription.

This is a new idea, but it will take a better man than Brady to invalidate it. Not so many years ago sodium citrate was used in the modification of milk for infant feeding. A few grains in each bottle prevented formation of large curds. It is seldom so used today.

A tablespoonful or two of lime water mixed with each feeding is more satisfactory, or still better, a healthy infant needs no such help to digest straight milk, watered down a bit at first, but right out of the cow or goat after the first few months.

I'm sorry that the interests have put a crimp in the preparation and use of the Fool Proof Cough Medicine at home, as directed in Little Lesson No. 5, Call It CRI, for which send 25 cents and stamped self-addressed envelope. For all I know a person may still be able to purchase an ounce of citrate of soda without a prescription in some communities.

No, I don't know of any substitute that would serve quite the same purpose as this mildly alkaline, diuretic, diaphoretic, expectorant in the cough medicine for adults or children, and if I did it probably would not take the municipal, state or federal authorities long to crack down and require a prescription.

An Iowa druggist says a lady handed him a clipping in which William Brady, M. D., said a solution of 30 grains of salicylic acid in one-half fluidounce of flexible collodion is a good remedy for corns, warts and calluses—paint the corn or wart or callus once a day for a week or ten days, when it will be soft enough to wipe away.

The druggist points out that selling salicylic acid for such a "cure" (the druggist's term, not mine) without a prescription is against the state law.

I suppose all the Iowa housewives who ask whether the use of a dash of salicylic in the jar when canning is all right use bootlegged salicylic acid. My answer is that if the food is fit to eat when it is canned and the canning process is correct no chemical preservative is necessary.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. Brady if a stamped, self addressed envelope is enclosed, etc.

Puerto Ricans Are Convicted

13 Involved in Shootings in Washington Guilty of Seditious Conspiracy

NEW YORK (AP)—Thirteen Puerto Rican members of the Nationalist party involved in two Washington shootings in recent years have been convicted of seditious conspiracy against the United States.

The 13, plus four others who pleaded guilty earlier, now face possible maximum sentences of six years in prison and a $5,000 fine.

* * *

Federal Judge Lawrence E. Walsh fixed Oct. 26 for sentencing after the jury's verdict last night.

Four of those convicted last night are already under heavy prison sentences for shooting into the House of Representatives from its visitors gallery in Washington last March 1. Five congressmen were wounded.

* * *

Another of the convicted Nationalists is Mrs. Rosa Collazo, 43, whose husband Oscar is now serving a life sentence for an attempt to assassinate former President Truman in November 1950.

The Nationalist party seeks total independence for Puerto Rico, now a commonwealth of the United States, even though its people have turned down in referendum voting offers of full independence. Puerto Ricans are citizens of the United States.

* * *

The 13 party members were tried on charges of conspiring to bring about Puerto Rico's independence by force and violence and armed revolution.

In his summation, U.S. Atty. J. Edward Lumbard declared, "every one of these defendants has his moral fingerprints on the guns that were used in Washington, and those who participated were praised as martyrs."

Secret Explosive Factory Found by Havana Police

HAVANA, Cuba (AP)—Police Chief Rafael Salas Canizares said today his agents discovered a secret explosive factory in Havana's Chinatown. He charged it was set up as part of a terrorist plot to disrupt Cuba's Nov. 1 presidential elections.

Salas reported more than 100 suspects have been arrested in connection with the alleged plot. Although none was identified, the police chief said all are members of the National Revolutionary Movement (MNR).

* * *

Salas said police agents uncovered the factory last night, finding documents relating to the alleged plot and unspecified quantities of dynamite and other explosives.

Salas accused MNR chief Rafael Garcia Barcenas, a University of Havana professor, of heading the plot. He said Garcia left Cuba two days ago for Miami, Fla.

4 Groups Unite to Move Critical Polio Sufferer

Four organizations, two hospitals and several volunteers resorted to Yankee ingenuity yesterday to move a critical polio patient between hospitals.

The patient, Barbara Lake, 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Lake, 1551 E. Collier Rd., was admitted to Oakland County Contagious Hospital Sunday afternoon when it was thought she was suffering from meningitis.

It was discovered later that the girl had polio and would have to be moved to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital since the contagious hospital has no facilities for caring for polio patients.

The girl was in a critical stage and a move of this type had not been attempted before without the use of a specially equipped truck. When patients are moved to University Hospital in Ann Arbor, the hospital sends its portable respirator. But usually when patients are moved they are past the acute stage.

This move had to be made immediately.

Gaukler Storage Co. furnished a van to carry the respirator Barbara was in. Consumers Power Co. provided a portable generator to power the respirator in transit, as well as an extra generator and two mechanics in case of trouble.

The Pontiac Police Department furnished an escort for the move, and St. Joseph's provided a doctor and nurse to ride with the patient.

The move was arranged with the Oakland County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, who furnished volunteers to operate the polio equipment.

Self-Service 'Store' Just a Refrigerator

SOUTH HAVEN (UP) — Something new in self-service has been devised by Otto Zamponi, who operates a 10-acre poultry farm near South Haven.

Each day Zamponi stocks an old electric refrigerator standing beside the highway with eggs from his farms. Customers may pick up a dozen eggs simply by opening the refrigerator door and making change from a box that sits inside.

The idea has paid dividends.

Through his self-service "store" Zamponi sells all the eggs which are too large to pack for shipping to regular outlets.

New York Communities Like Their Celebrations

ALBANY, N. Y. (UP)—New York communities are becoming more and more celebration-minded.

Scotia, in the Mohawk Valley, celebrated its golden jubilee, and Poughkeepsie will mark its 100th anniversary this summer. Albany is planning to observe the 200th anniversary of the 1754 Congress at which Benjamin Franklin proposed his "plan of union" for the American colonies.

The sesqui-centennial of the founding of Amsterdam was observed July 3-9. Haverstraw, on the lower Hudson river, had its centennial in July, and a week of parades and pagentry marked the sesqui-centennial observance of the city of Olean.

Cop Happy to Learn Dog Was Not Really Driving

COCKEYSVILLE, Md. (UP)—A local policeman thought surely he had succumbed to the heat recently when he saw a car rolling down the street with a dog behind the wheel.

He watched the auto swerve out of the path of an oncoming bus, and then come to a stop after brushing a sign reading, "No Stopping or Parking at Any Time."

The policeman was relieved to learn there was a logical explanation for it all. It seems the dog, a collie, had been locked in the car, parked on an incline in a parking lot. Somehow the animal had tripped the emergency brake.

Meat Eating Varies, U. S. Survey Shows

BOSTON (UP) — This city is only 89 miles from Hartford, Conn., but the Bureau of Labor Statistics reports a world of difference in meat-eating habits.

For instance, Bostonians eat more than twice as much veal and nearly twice as many center cut pork chops as do Hartford residents. Hartfordians eat about 10 per cent more pork and 25 per cent more sausage.

The difference can be attributed to the difference in nationality groups and per capita incomes rather than availability of meat supplies, the bureau said.

Chicago Traffic Survey Will Just Have to Wait

TORONTO (AP)—Two members of the Metropolitan Council went to Chicago on a traffic survey and came back reporting about the only things they could find were water and rowboats.

Leslie Allen and Reeve John Bick picked a rough time to visit the city last weekend. Chicago had its worst rainstorm in 69 years.

Chicago street officials were too busy to work on a survey and promised to mail a report when things get cleaned up.

28 Oakland County 4-H'ers Honored at 25th Annual Kiwanis Crop Show

Twenty - eight members of the Oakland County 4-H Club drew high praise Tuesday during the 25th annual crop show, sponsored by Pontiac Kiwanians for the past quarter of a century.

Highlighting the affair in the Hotel Waldron, two brothers and their sister captured the three top honors of the main event during the "premium potato contest."

Calvin Voorheis, 14, of 6700 Brendel, Davisburg, the youngest of the three, was awarded the blue ribbon and a weekend trip to Chicago.

His brother, Roger, 16, received the red ribbon, and their 18-year-old sister, Marilyn, a freshman at Michigan State College, was given third prize.

Jack Worthington, county 4-H boys and girls agent, said the winning potatoes were the "most symmetrical he had ever seen," when making the awards.

The three Voorheis all belong to the White Lake 4-H Club. Their family, old-timers recall, has always been a winner in the crop show.

This year's show included a fruit contest for the first time, won by Marvin Middleton.

Other boys and girls honored for growing "outstanding varieties of corn, barley, oats, wheat and potatoes," are:

Warren Austin, Betty Gardner, Bruce Johnson, Donald Hickmott, Jim Ogden, Donald and Stanley Owens, Bill Middleton, Earl and R. D. Perry, Don Winner, Floyd Vanderhoof, Harold Owens, Frank Lessider, Lynn Walton, Paul Ballow, Dick and Larry Scramlin, Jane Booth, Robert Middleton, Ross Waite, Larry Middleton, Glenn Marble, and Ed Braid.

Following the awards ceremoney, the youngsters proudly exhibited their crops," the result of plenty of hard and careful work during the warm months," commented Worthington.

Senate Committee to Sift Profits in Coffee Boom

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Beall (R-Md) said today his Senate Banking subcommittee intends to find out who reaped the profits from soaring coffee prices which cost American consumers an estimated 293 million dollars.

"We're going to find out where these profits in coffee went," Beall told newsmen, adding there is "a good possibility" the search will involve looking at some income tax returns.

* * *

As his subcommittee resumed hearings yesterday into the coffee price boosts of last winter and spring, Beall estimated that the increases cost the U.S. public 293 millions in the first eight months of this year. He said there is no evidence of a coffee shortage to justify the increases.

* * *

Douglas B. Bagnell, assistant administrator of the Commodity Exchange Authority (CEA) in the Agriculture department, was called as the main witness at today's session.

Beall said in an interview the testimony taken in the probe so far indicates to him that coffee trading on the New York Coffee and Sugar Exchange should be brought under CEA. Twice this year the Senate voted for such regulation, but the House refused to go along.

* * *

Sen. Payne (R-Me), the other subcommittee member attending the sessions, said he still is seeking a satisfactory explanation of the big rise in coffee prices in view of statistics indicating there was a worldwide surplus.

* * *

Payne cited the figures in a Federal Trade Commission complaint Monday which accused the Exchange of unlawfully fostering coffee price boosts.

These statistics indicated there never has been an excess of demand for coffee over supply in recent years. They showed a world supply of 42,100,000 bags for the current crop year, 1954-55 as compared with an anticipated demand of 29,200,000 in 1955.

Reaume Tries to Set Reuther-Ford Talks

WINDSOR (INS)—Windsor Mayor Arthur Reaume said today he is attempting to arrange a meeting between UAW-CIO President Walter Reuther and Ford of Canada President Rhys M. Sale in an effort to end a strike of 5,700 workers at the Windsor Ford plant.

Reaume was instrumental last week in having the strike postponed a week while Labor Minister Daley of Ontario attempted to work out a settlement of the dispute.

Daley's efforts failed, however, and the strike began Sunday. The walkout was unanimously approved by the membership of Local 200, UAW-CIO.

Work May Begin Here Thursday

Commission Approves Lease of Bank Building Roof for Site

Installation of Pontiac's first postwar air raid siren atop the Pontiac State Bank Building may begin tomorrow.

The City Commission last night approved a no-cost lease with the building's owner for use of the pent house roof as a site for the 180-horsepower siren.

City Manager Walter K. Willman told the commission the siren emits 135 decibels of sound, expected to be sufficient to cover most sections of the city.

The siren, which costs $5,500, is built by the Chrysler Corp., and is a duplicate of the 20 which are placed throughout Detroit.

"We may have to support it with two smaller ones in fringe areas," Willman said, but added that only tests of the installed siren could determine whether "boosters" were needed.

Contract for constructing the 16x16-foot platform for the warning device was awarded to the J. A. Fredman Co. of Pontiac, pending signing of the lease by the building owners.

Since the owners helped draw up the lease which was presented for commission approval, it is expected there will be no hitch in signing.

Fredman's low bid was $3,780. Both the cost of the siren and its installatoin are shared equally by the city and the Office of Civil Defense.

Willman indicated that installation of the siren, expected to be completed in two to three weeks, would spark increased civil defense planning and activity.

"Until we have some device for warning the people, our civil defense is stymied," he said after the meeting. "That's why we are concentrating on this.

"After the budget work is out of the way, we are going to get the city department heads together and really work on civil defense."

Court to Decide on Readmitting 11 Negro Pupils

GEORGETOWN, Del. (AP)—The question of readmitting 11 Negro children to the previously all-white high school in Milford, Del., rests with the State Court of Chancery today.

Arguments were presented yesterday in the court before Vice Chancellor William Marvel, who did not indicate when he would announce his finding.

Meanwhile, State Atty. Gen. H. Albert Young said he would issue new subpoenas today through the Court of Chancery to obtain the financial and membership records of the National Assn. for the Advancement of White People.

* * *

Bryant Bowles, national president of the NAAWP, has refused to turn them over to Young, contending that they must be subpoenaed through a court.

Bowles and the NAAWP have been in the forefront of the move for segregated schools. As a result of pressures brought by the NAAWP, Negro pupils who attended the Milford High School for the first three weeks of the fall term this year were ordered to be returned to a Negro school in Dover.

Mala Powers Married

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Movie actress Mala Powers, 22, and Monte Vanton, 36, North Hollywood real estate dealer, were married last night.

Instead, they'll be learning how the oil industry operates at the local level. The three will gather firsthand information on bulk plant operations, service station operations and home fuel oil delivery operations.

Later this week, they will report to their classmates what they have seen.

The three oil men for a day are Raymond May, Leon Frayer and Ed Covington.

They are making the visits as a part of Oil Progress Week, being celebrated through Saturday.

In addition to the "Oil Men for a Day" project, the local Oil Progress Week committee has scheduled a series of talks and demonstrations before civic groups.

"Any industry should report to the public occasionally," said Byron Cole, representing the Standard Oil Co. of Indiana on the local committee. "This is our way of doing it."

"We are trying to show how competition is keeping petroleum quality at a high level," Cole said.

Ross P. Tenny, representing the L. H. Cole Oil Co. on the committee, reports there are 42,000 separate producing, manufacturing and distributing firms in the oil industry today.

"And competition among this group is what produces a better product," he stated.

Tenny said the industry has spent 28 billion since World War II on expansion and development.

H. L. McCann, of Socony Vacuum Co. is chairman of the committee, and Richard Clark, of the Pure Oil Co., is vice president.

Secret-Stealing Suspect Freed

Petersen Out on Bail While U. S. Prepares Grand Jury Case

WASHINGTON (INS)—Joseph S. Petersen Jr. was free on $10,000 bail today while the Justice Department prepared its grand jury case on charges he "improperly obtained" government secrets while working at the National Security Agency.

Petersen was released on bond yesterday over the protest of department attorneys who termed his alleged crime "one step short of treason."

The 40-year-old Arlington, Va., man was accused of obtaining secret documents from 1948 through 1952 with the intention of using them to the injury of the U.S. or the aid of an unnamed foreign power.

Triple Ace Killed in Jet Testing Blast

LANCASTER, Calif. (AP)—George Welch, World War I triple ace who shot down four Japanese planes at Pearl Harbor, lost his life yesterday while testing a jet plane high above the Mojav Desert.

Just what happened to his F100 Super Sabre isn't known. Witnesses said it exploded with a terrific blast and plummeted to the ground like a ball of fire. But officials at North American Aviation, Inc., where Welch was chief test pilot, said the blast might have been a "sonic boom" caused when a jet pulls out of a dive at high speed.

Welch, 36, managed to eject himself from the plane and parachuted, landing about two miles from where his plane crashed. But he was suffering from multiple injuries and was dead on arrival by helicopter at Edwards Air Force Base.

2 Election Inspectors Acquitted at Bad Axe

BAD AXE (AP)—Two Paris Township election inspectors have been acquitted on charges of failure to keep a record of persons who were assisted in voting in the April 6, 1953 township election.

A Huron County circuit court jury returned its verdict on the charges against John Hill, 60, and Joseph Trepowski, after seven minutes of deliberation yesterday.

Circuit Judge Timothy C. Quinn of Caro, dismissed a count of failure to administer an oath to persons assisted in voting before he sent the case to the jury.

G. Kirk Haley, defense counsel, conceded Hill and Trepkowski failed to keep a record of persons they helped but contended they acted without criminal intent.

Judge Quinn, in his charge to the jury, said election laws are intended to assure purity of elections but that there was no impurity in the election in this case.

These Issues Divide GOP, Dems

PUBLIC POWER — GOP will help devplop power projects but wants to avoid government monopoly. Democrats claim the GOP wants a dim-out of public power and plans give-away to private power interests.

ECONOMY—GOP admits 3.2 million unemployed but says economy well adjusted due to huge tax cut. Democrats say due to short hours, layoffs, our unemployment is five million, weakening the economy.

PEACE—GOP claims it ended Korea War, formed SEATO, promoted growing strength of NATO. Democrats claim the GOP just stole all the Democratic policies and ruined their execution.

COMMUNISM—GOP still keeping Communists-in-government issue alive, despite Ike's plea not to. Democrats, highly incensed, accuse the Republicans of trying to foster class warfare in the U.S.

FARM—GOP proud of flexible price supports which would give farmers full parity in the market place. Democrats say farmers' prices aren't in line with prices he pays, claim farm income dropping.

First Degree Murder Retrial Postponed

The retrial of Walter Banks, 45, formerly of 116 Wessen St., on a first degree murder charge has been postponed from Oct. 19 to sometime in the November term of Oakland County Circuit Court.

Banks was previously convicted of the May 2, 1951 killing of Alexander Bell, 53, a Pontiac pool hall owner, according to County Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem. The case wil be retried because of an error in the first jury's findings.

Farmhouse Cut in Two by Trieste Settlement

TRIESTE (UP)—When the new frontier between Trieste and Yugoslavia was set down by the London Italo-Yugoslav settlement, it cut through a farmhouse, it was discovered today.

The yellow painted line set down by U.S. and British Army engineers cut the farm in two leaving an olive grove, one room and kitchen under Italian administration and two rooms, stables and a backyard under Yugoslav rule.

Ultimatum Ends Prison Rioting

South Dakota Inmates Free Guards, Give Up on Governor's Order

The revolt stopped late yesterday, only 25 minutes after the nearly 300 milling rioters in a large cell block were ordered to release the guards they held as hostages or else "face the consequences."

The ultimatum by Gov. Sigurd Anderson and Warden G. Norton Jameson came as some 200 armed National Guardsmen, sheriff's deputies and other officers stood outside the block.

* * *

The hostages, George Read and E. F. Lambertson, were freed and escorted to safety by 25 highway patrolmen, who were sent unarmed to the block gate.

The guards said they hadn't been hurt or even seriously threatened.

Gov. Anderson called the outbreak an "unnecessary riot" and said he will order an investigation into its cause.

* * *

The revolt started as the prisoners were finishing their evening meal Monday. Using tear gas, guards herded the rioters into the cell block and snapped the heavy doors shut.

At first there were three hostages, but one of them, guard Melvin DeYoung, was released in the afternoon. The convicts said they freed him to show their "good faith" in their dealings on grievances over prison conditions.

Gov. Anderson, in announcing the riot had ended, said, "We made no concessions."

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A congressman says, "It is conceivable that in the not too far distant future our merchant marine ships will be powered with atomic engines and will be built under government subsidy."

Sparkman Reports Europe Healthier

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala) said today that on a 10 weeks' overseas tour he found increased prosperity in Western Europe and saw no trace of "anti-Americanism."

Just back from a trip into 12 countries, Sparkman said, "It was clearly evident that Western Europe is definitely on the upside and improving economically."

He said he found Europeans "just are not agitated to the same extent we are" about the possibility of a Russian attack. He said one factor may be that "they are used to a war in every generation, and just less prone to become agitated."

"I saw nothing of anti-Americanism," he said. 'I never saw a sign of unfriendliness, nor resentment against U.S. air bases in Europe."

Pretzel Has New Twist: Machines Replacing Men

NEW YORK (AP)—Everything has to have a new twist today, and the pretzel is no exception.

Since this is National Pretzel Week (as if you didn't know!), I went to a national convention of the industry and found that pretzels are flourishing like crabgrass.

The hand-twisted pretzel is a slowly vanishing art from. Lady pretzel twisters are crowding out the men from the field, and new pretzel-typing machines are replacing them both.

"Only about 20 per cent of our pretzels are now made by hand," said Alex V. Tisdale, executive secretary of the National Pretzel Bakers Institute.

A real expert can still twist pretzels as fast as a machine can tie them—about 60 to a minute. But the machines seem to like the work better. Human pretzel twisters sometimes get knots in their stomach after a few years. The best pretzel twisters are usually nervous people, and the more pretzels they twist the more nervous they often become. They get the bends.

The industry had a 6 million dollar output. This year America's 90 pretzel manufacturers expect a 60 million dollar business, next year 70 million.

"That means about 18 billion pretzels, or a pound and a half for every person in the United States," said Tisdale happily.

"People sometimes get the idea that pretzels are only for beer drinkers. That isn't true at all. Housewives and children are a big market.

"Pretzels are fine for stuffing poultry, making crumb pie and pretzel bread, and they go well with raw oysters.

"They have a relatively low calorie content — only about 16 calories to a pretzel.

"If the beer drinkers were our only customers, we'd have gone out of business during prohibition."

In Philadelphia, known for its brotherly love, they even have a pretzel sundae — made of ice cream, thick chocolate sauce, and crumbled pretzels.

Here are a few historical facts about the pretzel:

It was invented, according to legend, by a monk about 610. He baked bits of dough, molded in the form of arms folded in an attitude of prayer, and gave them to children who had learned their lessons well. He called them "pretiolas"—or "little rewards," and Austrians converted the name to pretzels.

In the 16th century besieging Turks thought up a half-baked scheme to capture Vienna by burrowing beneath its great walls at night.

They overlooked the fact that bakers twisted pretzels and baked bread during those hours. Hearing the scraping of the tunneling Turks, the bakers quit work in their cellars, dug tunnels themselves until they met the enemy and routed them.

"If all the pretzels produced this coming year were poured into one cellophane bag," said Tisdale, shaking his head, "it would weigh 180 million pounds. Think of that."

Why just think of it? Let's do it!

Frenchwoman Reports Spying

Ex-Code Expert Tells of Commie Infiltration, Fears for Her Life

PARIS (INS) — A former coding-decoding expert in the General Secretariat of the French National Defense Committee charged today that the organization was infiltrated with Communists.

Mme. Lucienne Metivier Lasseron was afraid to open the door of her Paris apartment when this correspondent arrived to talk to her.

Cowering, she finally admitted the first news representative to interview her "because you're an American."

"No one is supposed to come in here," she said. "They've threatened to kill me.

"They've said they were going to kill me."

Mme. Metivier Lasseron said she even had police protection for a few days after testifying Oct. 4 before the military magistrate investigating the leaks from the top-secret defense committee.

She added that she's been advised officially not to receive strangers.

Her one-time boss, Jean Mons, the secretary-general of the defense group, is under indictment for negligence. Two of his chief aides allegedly have confessed to leaking secrets of the Indochina War.

The fiftyish, blonde woman asserted there was a "crypto-Communist" clique among her fellow workers in the vital message center of the defense secretariat.

Mme. Metivier Lasseron said she was fired because for almost two years she'd been trying to warn the authorities that the leaks were coming from the transmission center.

"I'm related to (Georges) Clemenceau (the World War I French Premier). You can say I've got my diploma in patriotism.

Show Cause Order Hits at Zoning Law

A show cause order was issued yesterday in Oakland County Circuit Court requiring the City of Oak Park to show why a permanent injunction should not be issued preventing the city from obtaining a public vote Nov. 2 on two proposed amendments to the zoning ordinance.

Seeking the injunction are Lewis A. Smith, Bernard Lickerman and Oscar Genser owners of land near Greenfield road and Northwestern Highway which they want continued as a multiple family residence zoning.

They say the amendments, petitioned for by over 600 Oak Park residents, would force their property to be rezoned to single family residence use and cause them financial loss.

The three claim in a bill of complaint that amendments to the zoning ordinance by public vote are illegal. No date has been set for a hearing on the show cause order.

Green School PTA Schedules Panel Talk

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — The October meeting of the Green School PTA will be held Thursday at the school on Walnut Lake Road, with a panel discussion, "Discipline For Our Children" slated.

Wallace Watt, consultant for the Department of Mental Health Education will be the moderator. A film, "Fears of Children" will also be shown.

Curriculum Coordinators Study Human Relations

Seventy Oakland County curriculum coordinators convened at the Birmingham Community House Tuesday to hear and participate in a discussion on a topic of current mutual concern—good human relations.

"This intangible quality in human relationships has industry so concerned it is spending millions of dollars each year in research and study," said George Rideout, director of the Institute for Economic Education, Inc. He was a guest panel member at the meeting.

"It is important enough that we educators are constantly probing to find new and better ways of creating good human relations," stated Dr. Eugene Johnson, Bloomfield Hills superintendent of schools.

Questions asked were: What can I do as a teacher? What can I do as a parent?

Answers were: It is a joint responsibility. Good human relations in the classrooms stems from good human relations in the home. Both parent and teacher must get together on a common ground of understanding in order to help the child.

Dr. Johnson declared that the best way to teach about good human relations was by "setting example."

"Too long, our way of life has been, don't do as I do, do as I say. It is time to take a good searching look at the kind of a teaching example we are for these children," he continued.

"Our own attitudes and our own system of values is important," said Dr. Albert Perrelli, curriculum coordinator from the Ferndale Schools. He urged that administrators as well as teachers and parents tell the why and wherefore of policy decisions in order for people to understand why they are required to do certain things.

Paul Carter, assistant superintendent of Birmingham schools, served as moderator and in his summary declared that although the group had just scratched the surface, they must remember that each had a tremendous responsibility in this area.

Chairman of the group, John Bro, elementary coordinator from Troy Schools, presided and introduced the other officers who will work with the organization this year. They are Mrs. Lydia Lear, superintendent of instruction, Clarenceville Schools; Mrs. Hazel MacGirr, principal of Vaughn School, Bloomfield Hills and Noah Blosser, principal, Adams School, Birmingham.

Rapid Growth Basis for Waterford Law

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — Rapid growth of Waterford Township was listed today as the main factor in bringing about the new water supply requirements set up by the Township board Monday, Supervisor Lloyd Anderson explained.

"We are anxious to get all the water mains in the township we possibly can," he stated.

The board has adopted an ordinance requiring a central water system in all new subdivisions.

Individual wells currently supply water for most of the subdivisions with the exception of the south eastern part of the township, where the township water supply system is available.

Hereafter subdividers will provide a single pump system, installing all necessary mains, thus doing away with individual wells, Anderson pointed out.

However, subdivisions now being developed are not affected by the new requirements.

Other officers of the district include Cleon Boussum, of Avondale Schools, second vice president; Arthur Rowe, of Madison Schools, corresponding secretary; Mildred Williams, of Oakland County Superintendent's office, recording secretary; and Doris Pugsley, treasurer.

The Oakland County District of MEA is composed of all schools in the county that have 100 or less teachers. This year the district will represent more than a thousand teachers in the schools of the county.

Troy Zoning Board Approves Rezoning

TROY TOWNSHIP — The Troy Township Zoning Board last night voted 3-2 in favor of the rezoning the property of William and Emmett Dohoney, on the northwest corner of Derby and Coolidge.

They will recommend this to the township board.

The Dohoneys plan to erect a shopping district, 237 feet on Derby, and 500 feet on Coolidge.

The Zoning Board also voted unanimously in favor of rezoning the property on the northeast corner of Stephenson Highway and Maple. Leonard Brooks plans a 1,000 car drive-in theater for the site.

Film Showing Slated at Williams Lake

WILLIAMS LAKE — A film, "The Fascinating Fours and the Frustrating Fives", will be shown to the P.T.A. child study group Thursday evening at 8 p.m.

Frieda Huggett, visiting teacher for the Waterford Township school system, will be the discussion leader. Mrs. Frank Sparker is in charge of the program.

Pontiac City Affairs

Three Retired Employes Honored by Commission

Three of the four city employes who retired this year were presented with certificates and lapel pins by Mayor William W. Donaldson at the City Commission meeting last night.

On hand to receive the retirement awards were James H. Curran Sr., who spent 32 years with the Pontiac Police Dept.; Archie Rodenbough, who served the engineering department 21 years, and Bert Fler, who was a public works department employe for 13 years.

E. Albert Evans, who retired June 1 from the water department after 28 years service, did not attend the ceremonies.

In regular commission business, City Attorney William A. Ewart reported that 98 per cent of the property owners on Palmer drive had deeded that private roadway to the city.

Ewart said condemnation suits would be started against the remaining six owners next week.

When the drive becomes city property the city will become responsible for its maintenance as it does for every other city street.

The commission approved a plan offered by the Kiwanis Club to set up concrete and wood benches at bus stops in the city as a fund raising project.

A firm which now handles such operations in other communities will furnish and maintain the benches, with the club receiving a flat rate for each bench placed. The benches will carry advertising messages.

A public hearing was held on vacating part of Hill street and part of Chandler avenue to provide parking facilities and easier access to the new City Hall.

Under the plan, Hill street will swing behind the present city hall annex, which will be demolished when the new City Hall is completed.

By a 5-2 vote, the new SDM (package beer and wine) licenses were approved. One is for Steve Csizmadia and Rose Szekerkai, at 1019 Joslyn Ave., the other for Nellie Cole, at 522 S. Saginaw St.

Two leases for portions of West Huron street were approved. Pontiac Federal Saving Assn. was authorized to install radiant heating under a sidewalk, and the Pontiac Press was given permission to use a portion of sidewalk in front of its building.

Engineer's cost estimates were accepted and public hearings were set for Oct. 19 on intention to construct the following projects:

Grading, graveling and related work on Pleasantview, from Hillsmont to the east line of lot 181, Woodward Estates subdivision;

Curb, gutter, drainage and related work on Drexel, from Paddock to South Boulevard;

Curb, gutter, drainage and related work on Hamilton and McNeill, from Baldwin to Rundell.

Resolutions were passed to receive special assessment rolls for the following projects:

Curb, gutter, drainage and related work on Central, from Saginaw to Paddock; Edith court, from Wilson to Michigan Air Line Railroad, and Edith street from Osmun to Michigan Air Line Railroad;

Eight-inch reinforced concrete pavement, eight-inch reinforced concrete widening, curb and gutter, two-inch asphaltic recap and related work on Paddock, from Bellevue to Mt. Clemens;

Curb, gutter and drainage on West Hopkins, from Baldwin to Stanley;

Combined sewer on Fourth, from Joslyn to Highwood.

Two new ordinances were passed. The first amends the sidewalk ordinance to provide for curb cuts for driveways. The second deals with rezoning to Residential 2 lots 20 and 21 of Crystal Lake subdivision.

A request transferring ownership of a class B hotel license from Pontiac Hotel, Inc. to a group of individuals was approved.

The commission accepted bids

The building will be owned by the Motor City Investment Corp., and leased to the government under terms of the new "Lease-Purchase" act, authorized by legislation proposed by Congressman Goerge A. Dondero and enacted this year.

The 12,000 square foot one story building will be constructed of brick veneer, and will be leased to the government for ten years. It will serve 26 routes north of the Twelve Mile Road area.

Holly Council Debates Annexation Plan

By DOUG ROUNDS
(Pontiac Press Correspondent)

HOLLY — Annexation of township property was reconsidered for the second time this year at the regular meeting of the village council last night.

Ted Creque, Holly township resident and businessman appeared before the council as spokesman for a group of north end residents to object to what he termed "a movement begun by a minute group of citizens to break off relations with the village of Holly by incorporating another village north of the preesnt village limits."

"This pressure group," Creque stated, "has definitely voiced their resentment of the annexation of any property into the village."

"New speed laws in the area will be all the group will gain, if they incorporate," Creque told the lawmakers in the 90 minutes session.

Anders Hustvedt, village manager, agreed, "the group will gain nothing, and lose money." He continued, "as it is now, we can give them police and fire protection, and sewer and water services at a much cheaper rate than you could imagine."

"The greatest percentage of the residents in that area have had the misconception of 'who would pay for what' for quite a while. The only thing visible to them is 'taxes, how much will we get, when will we get it, and how,'" he said.

The proposed area to be annexed into the village includes the area one fourth mile north of Quick Road, and one fourth mile east of Falk Road, one fourth mile south of the South Holly Road, and one fourth mile west of Fish Lake Rd.

The village council was forced to rescind the proposed annexation April 13, 1954, when 35 irate village and township residents crowded into the village council room to fight the move.

The village council agreed unanimously last night to Creque's suggestion of annexation of the property because of the community's expansion needs, but decided to hold off on the move for two weeks.

A public hearing on the problem has been scheduled for Oct. 26, the next regular meeting of the council.

In other action, a requested transwer of the Holly Tavern liquor license to Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Kosky, from Thomas Scott, was granted by the council.

GEORGE D. HICKS

FRANK IRONS

Know Your Candidates

Frank Irons, George Hicks Seek County Sheriff Post

This is the sixth in a series on political candidates in Oakland County. Republican Frank Irons is opposing Democrat George Hicks in the race for county sheriff. Brief biographies on the two men and their statements on how they will perform their duties, follow:

GEORGE D. HICKS

Hicks was educated in Pontiac schools and was a member of the Pontiac Police Dept. for 22 years. He is employed as a plant protection officer in a local factory.

Hicks is married and the father of two boys and a girl.

He is a member of the Elks, Eagles and Moose; a member and past president of the Metropolitan Club, UAW Local 594 and AFL Local 614. He belongs to the Pontiac City Democrat Club, United Plant Guards Workers of America Local 116 and the All Saints Episcopal Church.

His statement:

"If elected sheriff, I pledge to make every effort to establish the Sheriff's Department as one of the most efficient and outstanding law enforcement agencies in the State by providing:

"Honest, capable and efficient staff of officers and personnel.

"Increased road patrols to outlying districts with prompt, efficient service and improved special deputy protection.

"Close, harmonious cooperation with the prosecutor's office and all law enforcing units of the state and county.

"Rigid enforcement of the liquor laws relating to minors.

"Expanded driver's licensing service to townships.

"Trained personnel to handle juvenile cases.

"Fair and impartial distribution of the services required in the operation and maintenance of this office.

"To present the idea of, and cooperate with the Board of Supervisors in establishing a trial board of similar means, to protect the members of the sheriff's department from politics.

"The sheriff's department, properly administered, is the guardian of the rights and privileges of all the people.

"Not merely to detect the crimes of violence committed against the state, but to likewise protect the unsuspecting and unwary citizens against all types of crimes that they may directly or indirectly become a victim of.

"I have made no commitments political or otherwise to any person or persons."

FRANK IRONS

Irons has lived in Oakland County for 31 years and presently is Berkeley police chief, a post he has held for 28 years.

Married and the father of two children, he is president of the Southeastern Michigan Police Assn., a member of the Berkeley Lions Club and a life member of the Chamber of Commerce and the American Legion.

Born and educated in Atlanta, Mich., he worked for six years on the Michigan Central Railroad.

His statement:

"I am interested in closer work with the juvenile court to help make better citizens out of the juveniles who do not have proper home life.

"Some of the improvements that I would put into effect if elected are:

"Better patrol car service in the unincorporated areas.

"A new filing system in connection with civil papers and criminal warrants.

"A complete new plan to furnish drivers' licenses to those who do not reside in cities and villages.

"Closer cooperation with Michigan State Police.

"Personal attention by the sheriff in the investigation of all major cases.

"No officers will be allowed to frequent places where liquor is sold except in line of duty.

"Better assignment of patrol cars on main highways on Sundays and holidays and other times when there is heavy traffic."

Philippine Proposal Hits Snag in U. N.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—A Philippine proposal to recess the general U.N. disarmament debate for a month ran into sharp Western opposition today.

U.S. circles voiced concern over the Philippine plan calling for suspension of the debate until Nov. 15 while a working group composed of the United States, the Soviet Union, Britain, France and Canada study East and West arms proposals.

One American informant said the United States would throw its support behind a Canadian move to continue the disarmament debate in the 60-nation Political Committee and in the Assembly, and then turn the problem over to the same five powers after the Assembly closes shop in December.

Canada was slated to present its proposal formally in the Political Committee today.

Cole Fails to See Cause for Over-All FHA Probe

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Administrator Albert M. Cole of the Federal Housing and Home Finance Agency says he knows of nothing that would call for an over-all investigation of the Federal Housing Administration.

But he said in an address here yesterday that he did expect criminal charges would be brought against a number of persons in connection with the FHA "windfall" profits investigation.

Operation Moves Newborn's Heart Back Inside Body

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Willy Lawrence Chester, 4 weeks old, is home from the hospital today with his heart back inside his body.

And the only thing he has to show for the operation, performed three hours after birth, is a small scar on the chest.

* * *

The heart, half inside and half outside the body, was enclosed in two fine gelatine-like membranes. The breast bone was only partly formed and several ribs, instead of joining the breast bone at the front, joined each other across the chest.

"In 8 or 10 hours the membranes around the heart would have become like old parchment," said the surgeon who performed the operation. "By that time, it probably would have been too late."

He declined to be identified but said that during the one hour in surgery, the heart was forced back into its cavity while the lungs, which had filled the cavity, were pushed aside to make room.

Wiley's mother, Mrs. Palmer Chester says her new son is "doing just fine. He's gained over a pound since birth."

Alaska Shows Trend to Dems

Early Election Returns Indicate a Swing Away From GOP

JUNEAU, Alaska (AP)—Democrats who lost control of Alaska's Legislature in the 1952 election, showed resurgent strength in the first overnight returns from yesterday's general election.

Almost all the early returns were from southern Alaska, which went heavily Republican in 1952.

The first sprinkling of votes from other divisions also showed a Democratic trend. It was especially strong in the first five precinct reports for the Legislature from normally Republican Fairbanks.

* * *

The Alaska results were being watched nationally because of the accuracy in recent years of the political adage: "As Alaska goes, so goes the nation." The legislative results have been an accurate indicator of the national trend to follow in November, although a Democrat has been sent to Congress without a break since 1932.

Returns from 30 of the 263 precincts gave Bartlett 1,642, Mrs. Dimock 887.

OLDENBURG, Germany (AP)—Prof. Hermann Oberth, West German rocket expert, says he believes inhabitants of other planets watch atomic developments on the earth from flying saucers.

In a public lecture, Oberth said he thought inhabitants of outer space, whom he called "Uranides," have "technically advanced further than we."

"We constitute a threat to the whole universe," he said.

Rheumatism-Arthritis
SUFFERERS

IT'S NOT "NOW OR NEVER," BUT common sense tells you that the longer you put off treatment of rheumatism, arthritis or sciatica, the more tormenting pain you will suffer and the longer it will take to drive these horrible pains from your system.

For over 40 years, O-JIB-WA BITTERS has been Michigan's leading medicine for these conditions. O-JIB-WA aids the blood, stomach, liver, kidneys and nervous system, and being made entirely from herbs gathered from many countries of the world, contains no salts, alcohol, harmful drugs or dope.

O-JIB-WA BITTERS will probably do more for your rheumatism or arthritis than any other medicine, so do as over two million other sufferers have done, and get a bottle of O-JIB-WA BITTERS at once. REMEMBER — the quicker you start on O-JIB-WA BITTERS, the sooner you will be free of pain and stiffness, and can enjoy good health again. Insist on genuine O-JIB-WA BITTERS, available in three economical sizes at all drug stores in Michigan.

Bob Considine Says:

Reds Form Group to Vie With Veterans at Vienna

NEW YORK (INS)—Around the world in 80 seconds.

VIENNA—Imitation may be the sincerest form of flattery, but when the Cominform goes to the trouble and cost of trying to duplicate an existing international organization like the World Veterans Federation, a lot more than flattery is involved.

The WVF for the past five years has been increasingly successful in winning the spirit of veterans all over the world to the cause of peace with freedom. It has in its fold 112 different vet organizations (doesn't include the American Legion) from 25 countries, including a number of one-time enemies.

The fourth largest non-governmental organization in the world, has 18,000,000 members on its rolls, active and otherwise, and has been given its biggest lift through American leadership.

Former PT-boat commander Alfred Gwynn Vanderbilt is a leading figure, as is Harold Russell, the handless boy in Sam Goldwyn's "Best Years." President Eisenhower has endorsed its aims.

The fifth general assembly of the federation will be held in Vienna November 29 through December 5. The Reds have formed something called the "European Federation of Resistance Fighters" and have scheduled a conclave of its people in Vienna during the same period. Purpose: To confuse world opinion. Vienna should be an interesting city around convention time!

TOKYO — Katsuo Okaziak, foreign minister of Japan, has written Maj. Gen. Charles A. Willoughby, MacArthur's long-time G-2 and author of "MacArthur, 1941-1951," as follows:

"I look forward to the publication of your book, which I believe will contribute much to deeper understanding and appreciation of Japanese-American relations as well as to the elucidation of many a wartime question which still remains obscure.

"The section devoted to his majesty's role in terminating the war is, to my mind, a clear and precise presentation of pertinent facts. You may quote me to that effect, if you like. I do not think there is anything to be added to it.

"The book will, I am sure, be in great demand here. I will do my part in helping its circulations in Japan. With warm regards. . ."

The Willoughby book goes deeply into the back-stage palace politics, deliberations and protocol leading up to the historic decision to surrender rather than fight to the death—a decision which saved millions of lives and billions of dollars on both sides.

FRANKFURT, Germany—"The State Department sponsors lots of trips and groups to come over here and spread our culture," INP man Irwin M. Tress writes to this column, "but sports are way back on the list.

"Whoever picks the people for the trips must have the idea that unless a ballet dancer, historian or abstract painter is chosen, we are not properly interpreting the United States.

"They're fine and dandy, but we're missing something by overlooking sports. You'd be surprised how well the Russian athletes are doing in events through Germany in track and field, gymnastics, cycling, swimming and, coming up, ice hockey.

"Another thing, Germans are crazy for American jazz. A team of American jazz artists, sponsored by the State Department, would outdraw any other culture-spreader (except sports) ten to one. After all, jazz is inherently American and, it seems to me, more a part of our culture than much that we do send over here."

To Delve Vision Mystery

LOS ANGELES (INS) — The University of California at Los Angeles has launched an intensive study into the mechanics of human vision in belief science still is somewhat "in the dark" as to exactly how and why we see.

The study, planned as a five-year project, is supported by the U. S. Health Department and is under the direction of Dr. Frederick Crescitelli professor of zoology.

Dr. Crescitelli points out that the key to the vital seeing process lies in the pigments stored in the visual sense cells—the rods and cones, so-called because of their distinctive shapes.

The scientist says that much is known about pigments in the rods —whose function is concerned with seeing in dim light. Visual purple is the primary rod pigment.

A series of color chemical changes, initiated when light strikes this sensitive pigment, apparently furnishes energy to send impulses to the brain, via the optic nerve.

Dr. Crescitelli adds that virtually nothing is known about the behaviour and function of the cone pigments which are believed responsible for color vision and seeing in bright daylight.

The study will get under way with a survey of a broad range of animals in an effort to isolate and pin down different types of visual pigments to determine their role in visual processes.

Best Scientists Not Odd, Study Reveals

CHICAGO (UP)—The notion that scientists are an eccentric and retiring lot is all wrong, a survey says.

The study, which took a year to complete, analyzed the personality traits of 514 scientific and technical staff members at Illinois Institute of Technology and the Armour Research Foundation.

The psychologists who made the study found that, contrary to popular belief, the best scientists are "original and enthusiastic leaders."

They also found that the more brilliant the scientist, the more outside activities he is likely to enter. The more "retiring" scientists are apt to be the "less productive" laboratory workers.

Progress Dooms Dogs' Usefulness to Alps Climbers

ZURICH, Switzerland (INS) — The famous St. Bernard dogs, which with their little kegs of rum saved thousands of stranded travellers atop Mont Blanc in the Alps, are now jobless ... victims of progress.

A newly-installed chair lift now takes tourists in safety and comfort to a height of 8,400 feet into the regions of eternal snow atop the mountain, removing the previous hazards of travel.

The St. Bernard monks and their dogs, who for a thousand years have lived in the lonely Hospice, will not disappear from the scene. A traditional attraction for travellers, they will remain at their post, ready to share their modest lodgings with any passer-by.

About 67 per cent of American adults wear eyeglasses.

Texan Harvests Seaweed for Owners of Aquariums

For 30 years Lucious Parish, of San Marcos, has plowed the San Marcos River and a nearby creek collecting and shipping moss to fish hatcheries and aquarium jobbers all over the country.

Parish started his $20,000 a year business when he was working for the Bureau of Fisheries and someone asked him where he could get some aquatic plants—"so I went out and got some for him."

Ten years ago he retired from government service to concentrate fulltime on river agriculture.

Parish and his crew of six to ten men gather the moss from a rowboat, using forked sticks or scythes. At a shed on the water's edge the moss is sorted and banded in bunches before it is packed for shipping.

The moss grows wild in water from one to seven feet deep, but at stated intervals. Parish and his crew replant the underwater fields.

"We just take a few cuttings and push them in the silt with a forked stick," the moss cultivator explained. "In a few weeks the moss multiplies four or five times.

Once a year he drags the river bottom to clear out the unwanted varieties.

Manitoba Oil Output Is Spurting Upward

WINNIPEG (UP) — Manitoba, always considered a distribution center for both manufactured goods, and agricultural produce, has developed a new field, and present indications are that it will be twice as valuable in 1954 as it was last year.

The monthly production for the Manitoba fields was not high for the first 10 months of 1953—it amounted to only 440,000 barrels—but in November of last year the wells spurted 100,000 barrels.

Manitoba's Premier Douglas Campbell said he expects the 100,000-barrel-a-month figure to remain all through 1954. This rate would double last year's total.

By EDDIE CANTOR

At the Hillcrest Country Club in Los Angeles there is more laughter between the hours of 12 noon and two than in all the theaters and television shows in the country. It all takes place at a round table.

Small wonder. The daily diners are Groucho Marx, Danny Kaye, Jack Benny, George Jessel, Jerry Lewis, and now and then, Bob Hope. I, too, visit the table occasionally.

If I could only remember the things I've heard during my days at the round table. Once the funny men got on the subject of poverty. I think it was Groucho who said, "When I was a kid we were so poor we had no money for a sled, so I had to slide downhill on Harpo."

I can recall Bob Hope pointing to Milton Berle, saying, "Fellas, did y'a know Milton has witty ears?" Milton laughed it off, and ad libbed, "After all, what has Bob Hope got that I haven't got a week later?"

We all know that Jack Benny is the biggest worrier in the business. If he is not chewing on a cigar, he's chewing his nails right up to the elbow. An early riser, he's usually up at six o'clock in the morning.

Georgie Jessel remarked that Jack Benny is the only man in Hollywood who, at 8 a. m., has already been worrying two hours longer than anyone else.

What happens at the comics' table is contagious. Even the help at the Hillcrest Club are funny. A few weeks ago I called out, "Waiter, what time is it?" He answered, "I'm sorry, this is not my table." It broke up everyone around me. And after a round of golf, funny man Danny Kaye asked his caddy, "How do you like my game?" Funny man caddy deadpanned, "What game are you playing, sir?"

Diver Scouts Lake Depths to Locate Fish

With this he covers the lake bottom while being towed behind an outboard motorboat driven by his father.

"Dad likes to fish, so while I'm under—sometimes as deep as 20 feet—I scout the prospects for him," says Harold.

"It's really amazing what you run into a few feet under water when you're scouting along at four miles an hour," says Harold.

"One day I nearly had a head-on collision with a snapping turtle out for an underwater dip. He zigged, I zagged—and the next minute I was snarled up with a school of pan fish."

Harold, equipped only with a set of diving goggles, finds when he gets too deep his ears hurt. But otherwise he says no ill effects are derived from his underwater explorations.

How about the water pressure moving that fast? "I don't have any trouble," he says, "but my uncle, Harvey Seilheimer, tried my undersea sled and he lost his swimsuit."

Red Cross Unit to Meet

A meeting of the American Red Cross Oakland Chapter Home Service Group Oct. 18 has been announced by Harold F. Brady, chairman.

The group will discuss staff replacement, placement of recently trained social welfare aides and the financial assistance program.

Yule Trimming Contest Vetoed by MSC Groups

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP)—Local merchants proposed that fraternities and sororities at Michigan State College construct Christmas displays on the traffic islands in the main campus highway. An award for the best display was promised.

Both the Pan Hellenic Council and the Interfraternity Council decided against the contest.

"We feel that cooperation instead of competition would be more in keeping with Christmas spirit," the Pan Hellenic Council, sorority governing body, said.

Here is a special non-group Blue Cross-Blue Shield plan for you if you live in Michigan and are under age 65. You do not have to belong to a group! Offer expires October 16.

Your ticket to worry-free recovery!

Chances are one in three that someone in your family will have to go to the hospital this year. And, if you have a hospital bill, you will probably have a surgeon's bill, too. So you need protection for both.

Now's your chance to get special non-group Blue Cross - Blue Shield protection against hospital and surgical bills.

But you must act now . . . because this is your one chance this year to enroll as an individual. Offer expires at midnight, October 16.

How Special Non-Group Plans Protect Your Family on Hospital and Surgical Bills

This special Blue Cross plan provides as much as $10 a day toward room and board for 30 days of hospital care for each enrolled member of your family. You are entitled to another 30 days of care when you have been out of the hospital for six months.

Plus the use of operating room, anesthesia administered by hospital employees, laboratory examinations, drugs and dressings, physical therapy, oxygen, basal metabolism examinations and other benefits listed in your certificate.

Even chronic and pre-existing conditions and removal of children's tonsils and adenoids are covered, after only six months' waiting period under the Non-Group Plan.

Maternity coverage pays specified amounts toward your hospital bill, plus a generous allowance toward your doctor's delivery fee, after nine months' enrollment under the Non-Group plan.

All benefits under the Non-Group Contracts are available in more than 200 participating hospitals in Michigan alone . . . with 99% of the general hospital beds in the state.

Benefits in non-participating hospitals anywhere in the world provide for payment to the hospital of up to $6.50 per day for room, plus up to $65 per admission for other hospital services. This covers you when you are traveling, too.

One of the wonderful things about this protection is the fact that no physical exam is required . . . and you can keep it for life. At no time will benefits be cancelled because of age or physical condition. And, should you join a company offering Blue Cross - Blue Shield group coverage, your non-group protection can be easily transferred.

NATO May Get New Command

WASHINGTON (AP)—A new commander may take over direction of Allied Powers in Europe next summer at about the time when — according to the present schedule —those forces will be expanded through addition of German troops.

The recent visit to Washington and the Summer White House at Denver of Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther, who currently holds the post, has brought renewed speculation that he may be called home to become either Army chief of staff or chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

* * *

That in turn would open the question of whether the European Allies would again ask the United States to supply a supreme commander for Western Europe or whether this country would accept the proposal. The first three Allied commanders have been Americans.

Britain or France may feel that one of their military men should have the command. Or the United States, which lost the case for the European Defense Community plan but endorsed the substitute produced at the London conference, may step away from another invitation to command.

* * *

The terms of both Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, Army chief of staff, and Adm. Arthur Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, expire next August. Either or both could be reappointed, but before Ridgway could complete a second term he would reach the statutory point of 62 at which general officers must retire.

Lipstick Firm Fails to Turn Clouds Red

CLEVELAND (AP)—An attempt to publicize a new lipstick by "painting" clouds over Cleveland red went awry yesterday when the clouds came out a very sickly pink.

According to the plan, a chemical solution sprayed from an airplane by pilot Tom Oti swas to have turned the clouds into the same color as the lipstick.

Instead, the spray produced long streaks of red which rapidly faded into pink and disappeared completely in brisk winds.

A disappointed local press agent, who handled the arrangements here, said the lipstick manufacturers are looking for calmer skies elsewhere for their stunt.

Army Again Accepting Two-Year Enlistments

Two-year enlistments in the Army will be accepted again for a limited time, according to Sgt. Charles Harris of the local recruiting office at 53 W. Huron St.

The minimum enlistment has been three years, Harris explained. The Army's pack mule units are now accepting new enlistments, he stated, with men able to enlist directly in them.

Vacationers Won't Admit That They Like to Work

By LAURA Z. HOBSON

NEW YORK (INS)—"You poor thing," people always say when our vacations are over, "back to the daily grind for another whole year."

What a phony remark!

I've just been getting a belated earful of it because I took my vacation late, but all of us who work for our living have heard this poor-thing talk, and will keep right on hearing it until we're using hearing aids.

If you hadn't ever realized it's phony, take a fast gander at somebody out of work or on a long seasonal layoff or somebody who was retired from the daily grind when he didn't want to be!

Vacation is great, of course, and any working man or woman who didn't build up a huge head of steam waiting for the annual one to roll around certainly should have that absent head of steam examined by a psychiatrist.

But it's not 100 per cent normal either, to act as if they'd revoked the Emancipation Proclamation, each and every time your annual break ends, and you go back to the office or factory, the ledger or test-tube, the drill or drafting board or drygoods counter.

Even when we're what we call well-adjusted, with jobs or professions we enjoy, lots of us feel honor-bound to squawk like mad and kick like steers at the hind end of any vacation.

And as part of our code, we have to go around pitying everybody else who's getting back in harness.

How's for starting a new campaign to get folks admitting right out in the open that they like their work and think they're real lucky to be doing it?

It's high time for some such campaign, I think, and if we got it rolling right away, we might put it across from coast to coast before next year's vacations rolled around.

"Lucky me — I like my work," could be our slogan. But those red-blooded Americans who'd rather die than say that right out loud, could use it for their secret password instead!

Atlanta Phones Increase

AUGUSTA, Ga. (INS) — A telephone may be the index to the Hell Bomb city of Augusta's tremendous growth since World War II, W. O. McDowell, Southern Bell Telephone manager, said there were only 17,000 'phones in the city in 1946. Today there are more than 40,000.

Woman Is a Salesman for Safety

By MARY MARGARET MCBRIDE

The average housewife, experts say, runs as much risk from accidents as a ski instructor, a fireman or a baseball umpire! But not in Hickory, S. C., where a woman with passionate convictions about safety has altered the pitch.

Lane Soutar is the understanding human in Hickory and the Beacon Safety Council of which she is executive director has made the city a safer place for all its people, from infants-in-arms to adults. It took the steamed-up Miss Soutar two years to score, however. Safety, oddly enough, seems difficult to make interesting even though the outcome of carelessness is often so tragically dramatic.

"I was sure that safety like everything else had to be sold—not by hackneyed phrases and practices—but with as exhilarating ideas as one could conceive," Miss Soutar explains. "I finally decided to follow the example of the soap companies with their operas that appeal to millions. It works, too."

Among the Soutar projects is a "Wacky Walker" campaign which has Hickory children on the lookout for "Dodging Dan" and "Impulsive Ivan," reprehensible jaywalkers. For older pedestrians there are haunting "Shame on You" signs. When drivers take the "I Drive Lawfully" pledge they are entitled to proud membership cards in the council and boastful stickers for their cars.

Hickory clergymen include home and traffic safety advice in premarital instruction to young couples and suggest that "I Drive Lawfully" be part of pre-nuptial agreements. The Safe Baby Club for Hickory's new born infants includes a debut party for each member and a set of rules for parents to observe so that the baby will have good standing in the organization. Beacon lights at the school flash on when any child is injured so that the whole community may know and be warned.

"The program is of a permanent nature," Miss Soutar says proudly. "Only the trimmings glitter . . . Any community can have safety if it really wants it. Of course that means, among other things, that leading citizens will have to obey the safety regulations and be brought to court and justice the same as the little fellows."

Actress Dorothy Stickney was telling me not long ago about how one of her favorite causes, Eyes for the Needy, in Short Hills, N. J., came into being when a volunteer relief worker, Mrs. Arthur Terry, observed that many relief applicants couldn't sign their names because they needed glasses they couldn't afford. Mrs. Terry started collecting old eyeglasses, alerted friends—and an organization resulted that has provided new eyes for thousands.

I'd like to hear about other warm, understanding humans who have started good things.

Housework Homework

FRESNO Calif. (UP) — Besides the usual scholarship and athletic honors given at an awards assembly at a Fresno high school, a girl was presented a certificate for being able to iron a man's shirt faster than her classmates.

A dash of black lends depth to brown, dark red and light gray used in this handsome wool tweed sports coat. This man chooses a light yellow shirt and low-textured wool tie of dark green and blue to complement the rich coloring of the coat.

Keep Paint Away From Certain Spots

By HUBBARD COBB

There are two good spots to keep paint away from and one is radiator air valves and hot water relief valves. When you paint in these areas, keep away from these units for a small amount of paint in the wrong spot will put them out of order.

* * *

When outside woodwork repairs are made about the house, either give the new wood a prime coat of paint or a coat of wood preservative just as soon as possible. If you don't, the weather will roughen up the wood surface and make finishing it later that much more difficult.

* * *

It's best to give varnish as much time for drying as you can. Even when it looks and feels hard it may still be soft under the hardened surface. For floors it's best to give 48 hours for drying.

* * *

If you don't have storm windows for all the windows of your home, place them on those windows which face north or which get the maximum amount of exposure.

* * *

A chimney fire in a chimney connected to a fireplace or coal burning furnace can be put out in most cases if salt is thrown on the fire.

* * *

If you can hear the sash weight hit the bottom of the frame when you open the sash, it means that the sash cord is too long and should be taken up an inch or so.

High Fashion Designers Can Take It Easy Now

By ELIZABETH HILLYER

High fashion interior design has a special talent today, a talent for taking it easy.

Here, for example, is a news-making setting from the recent National Home Furnishings Show in New York which has great style and is full of ideas — but which makes a point of practicality and easy care.

Light from a big window is controlled by cane-covered panels that tilt, nine of them, three rows of three. The floor is clay tile, spark for the color scheme that stays handsome indefinitely with no more than soap and water upkeep.

The wide stripe pattern is in turquoise, marine blue, and white. A hanging lamp spreads light more widely than a table lamp and leaves the table top free.

John Wisner, A. I. D., designed both the setting and the furniture, which is rattan in a new platinum gray finish and features large brushed chrome casters on the settees to make them easily movable. (Furniture, Far Horizons by Ficks Reed.)

1 Free Pound of Coffee Fails to Get Subscribers

STROUD, Okla. (AP) — The Stroud American has come to the conclusion hard times are not here yet.

"We offered to give away a pound of coffee with each subscription," the paper said. "People called to see what kind it was before they came in, or if they came by and didn't like the brand, just passed by the offer."

Be Buying Wise

It may look like a saving, but be rational when you buy in quantity. If you never bake, a lot of flour at once is no bargain—it will get weevils before you use it. Spices dry out quickly, too.

Writer Asks How to Avoid Visit if Folks Are Retired

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: How can a young woman avoid asking a young man into the house without going into explanation that her family won't let her if they have gone to bed? It sounds as if they doubt her, which impression she dislikes giving to someone she doesn't know well. A further complication is that her family usually goes to bed early."

I see no reason for taking the semidarkened apearances of the house self-consciously and hesitating to say frankly: "I'm sorry I can't ask you in, my family have evidently gone to bed!" The more matter-of-fact your tone, the better.

Dear Mrs. Post: Is it affected to sit in a restaurant wearing one's fur piece? As a rule I slip off my coat and throw it over the back of my chair but keep the furs on because otherwise they are likely to be caught by someone passing, or slide to the floor if I put them over my lap. My husband thinks it looks silly to keep them on. Your opinion on this will be much appreciated.

There is no rule concerning the wearing of a fur piece at a restaurant table further than keeping it away from your mouth. Its two ends should fall from the middle of your shoulders, and not from close against your face.

Dear Mrs. Post: On a contribution envelope put in the collection plate in church on Sundays, is it proper to write the name of a married woman as Mrs. John Smith, Mrs. Jane Smith, or just her signature, Jane Doe Smith?

"Mrs. John Smith" is correct when name is required.

Dear Mrs. Post: Please tell me if it is bad taste to hold a cigarette with gloves on?

One may light a cigarette with gloves on, but they should be removed if more than a few puffs are to be smoked.

Our Bodies Have the Real Wisdom

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

This summer Mr B.'s vacation was a visit to his family. None of its members had ever seen his younger child. At first everyone enthused over Buddy. Later they decided that he was "spoiled." And began to say so with increasing irritation.

Mrs. B. writes me: "The child got out of control because he was overstimulated by too much adult attention. But my husband can't see it. He says that we have been too 'soft' with both the children. He has become so critical of them since we got home that they are growing afraid of him . . ."

I guess, Mr. B.'s family hurt him. Is he going to hold on to the bruise? Isn't he going to do any work at all to recover his original joy in his children.

My littlest toe is an insignificant weak thing compared to Mr. B. Last week I stubbed it. It became angry, swelled to twice its size, and protested my cruelty in an infuriated black and purple bruise.

I gave it no assistance whatever. Yet two days later that smallest toe of mine had entirely recovered its original size, pinkness — and was going cherfully about its busines.

To Mr. B. I commend the efficiency with which that toe registered, protested and disposed of its hurtful experience.

Sometimes I wonder if we are not unworthy of bodies. When someone seeks to enhance his prestige by attacking us, we cling to our bruise for days, weeks, years.

Unlike my smallest toe, we do not register that we have been attacked. We don't make our protest clear, even to ourselves. Instead we have to hold on to the congestion and confusion imposed by the attack.

Bodies have unlimited wisdom How truthful they are when they are angry! Yet how quickly they settle down to pull together the cut that interferes wth their wholeness.

Why, our bodies' treatment of a burn has more to tell parents than all the experts lumped together. How tenderly it maintains the burn's blister until it is certain that the young untried skin beneath is sure enough of itself to take over! Always, the moment for its independence is precisely known.

But we, our bodies' scornful and arrogant masters, get bruised on a summer holiday and come home to make everyone around us miserable.

Boucle yarn highlights this smart window-pane check skirt that every teenager will want to own. Made in all wool, it is detailed with its own self belt and the V shape set-in pockets are bound in capeskin for added interest.

While Young, Unsettled

Avoid Talk of Marriage

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

"Dear Miss Woodward: I've been going with a boy for about four weeks. We are going steady and we've talked about getting married when I finish school. I was all for the marriage because I was sure we really loved each other.

"But now I find I no longer love him. He is still deeply in love with me. Please tell me how I can tell him of my change of heart and still keep from hurting him."

In four short weeks you've settled into going steady with a boy, assured your heart that it was lodged in the right place, talked of getting married — and changed your mind about the whole thing. That's too fast for comfort!

The trouble is that your present state of mind may reverse itself completely and with great rapidity. Temporarily you think you're not deeply in love. Such cnanges in temperature happen to many a young romance.

You and your boy friend are still making discoveries about each other. You're finding out things that make you glow — you're running into boibles and traits that make you uneasy. Your closeness is too new to have proved itself.

While you're in this unsettled state it would be a mistake to talk to him about your feelings. Marriage is a subject you can avoid. That's for so much later that there's no point in discussing it now. The depth of your affection is something you can skip over lightly — in fact, the less you talk about yourselves the better.

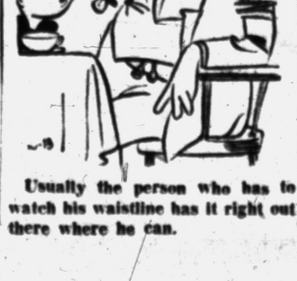

But keep on going with him — he has many qualities that have attracted you. Have fun with him because he's the nice boy he is. Say nothing about any change of heart. Such statements are incredibly difficult to take back. And you might change your mind. A hasty word now might hurt you both. For a boy you've sent away is mighty hard to get back!

"Dear Miss Woodward: While I was going with Tom, I told him I'd never go out again with my previous boy friend, Jack, because of things he had done to me. I've broken off with Tom now, and I've been thinking things over and have decided that Jack didn't do anything wrong after all.

"I'd like to go out with him again. But do you think Tom will think it peculiar and have a strange opinion of me?"

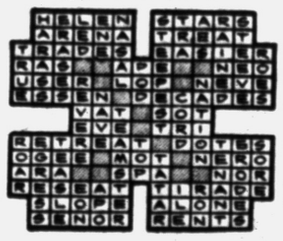

You'll have to stand pat on a change of mind, and let Tom think what he wants to about you. It's too late to snatch back that announcement you made in haste.

But perhaps going again with Jack is just wishful thinking — you don't mention that he has asked you. If you're tossing around for somebody new to go with, why not forget Jack and pick a boy who is untried — but might be true?

Usually the person who has to watch his waistline has it right out there where he can.

Red Hots Put Spicy Glaze on Fall Fruit

Mrs. W. B. Dean Cooks Apples in Cinnamon Syrup

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

Cinnamon Apples are so versatile. Use them for a colorful salad, serve them as a spicy dessert, or put them on your relish tray. With apples in ample supply at the present time, do make up a batch now, using the recipe given us by Mrs. William B. Dean.

Mrs. Dean devotes all the time at her command to church and related activities. As a past president of the League of Catholic Women, she is now on its advisory board. She is also a past president of the Rosary Altar Society. Along with the rest of the Dean family, she is a member of the Pontiac General Hospital Auxiliary.

CINNAMON APPLES
By Mrs. William B. Dean

1 cup sugar
1 cup red cinnamon candies (Red Hots)
1 cup water
18-18 Jonathon or Winesap apples.

Boil sugar, candies and water together to form a syrup. Peel and core the apples. Cook 4-5 at a time until tender when pierced with a fork, about 10 minutes. Turn while cooking. When the apples are done, cook down the rest of the syrup until thick like jelly. Spoon over the top of each apple to make a glaze.

Young Artist Trio Thrills Musicale

By DORA DAWSON

Pontiac Tuesday Musicale Club started its 31st season of eight programs Tuesday afternoon in Grace Lutheran Fellowship Hall with Mrs. Paul Kern presiding.

Mrs. H. G. Woolcock, program chairman, presented the "Young Artist's Trio," Ruth Meckler, pianist; Jerome Rosen, violinist, and Robert Newkirk, cellist from Detroit and Cleveland who range in age from 15 to 17.

They were organized seven years ago and with separate abilities have combined through practice and mutual understanding to bring their playing to the verge of genius.

The cellist and pianist opened the program with a concerto by Boccherini. Then followed a Franck sonata for violin and piano in four movements.

The three instruments combined in a Mendelssohn trio of four parts in D minor which brought their work to a close and revealed a capacity and aptitude for a delicacy of execution and subtlety of tone dynamics that was unusual.

In listening, one felt that their music flowed together in a soulful understanding, theme answering theme, and sudden modulations of tone bringing out contrasts that held much beauty. It is seldom that one hears a more perfected ensemble.

Mrs. Ralph Curtis, of Oxford, director of the southeast district of the state Federation of Music Clubs was a guest. She announced a district meeting to be held in Rochester on Thursday.

Burnished brass and chrysanthemums combined to create an autumnal setting for the tea table which was arranged by Mrs. C. F. Rhodes and Mrs. M. L. Buck; Mrs. E. H. Sommer and daughter, Mrs. Ralph Norvell served at the urns.

Associated with Tuesday Musicale is a workshop, limited in number, which has chosen contemporary music as its course of study this year. There is also a chorus under the direction of Mrs. Ferdinand Gaensbauer and four junior clubs whose coordinator is Mrs. Norvell.

Overstreets Will Speak in Pontiac

Emotional Health Will Be Discussed on October 20

Man would do better both as an individual and as a member of society if he only knew how.

This is the shared conviction of Harry Allen Overstreet and Bonaro Wilkinson Overstreet, whose writings on psychological insight have been a benefit to millions.

Those who have known the Overstreets only through their books will have a chance to hear and meet them personally when the University of Michigan Extension Service presents a team lecture on "What Emotional Health Looks Like."

Tickets for the lecture may be obtained from Everett Russell at the Adult Education Office for the Oct. 20 event to be held in the auditorium of Pontiac High School.

Presidents of local PTAs will also be handling tickets or they may be obtained at the door at the time of the lecture.

This is an unusual opportunity to hear two of America's most distinguished leaders in the field of human relations.

A warm interest in their fellow man as well as a sincere desire to share their own psychological insight in such a way as to be useful to their listeners characterizes their work, both as speakers and as writers.

Wonders Can Now Be Done For Skin of Any Age!

by Grace George

The great benefits that have been brought to all mankind as the result of research in the fields of specialized medicine and physicotherapy include important new knowledge of the human skin and its care. For example, it is now established that the condition known as "dry skin" need no longer plague a woman's very existence and add unwanted years to her appearance. Also, out of this new knowledge has come a successful treatment for those age-adding lines at the corners of the eyes called "Crow's Feet."

This condition is often directly related to excessive skin dryness. The indicated treatment for "Crow's Feet," therefore, is the same as for dryness. Results are most satisfying. The skin gains new elasticity overnight from just one treatment, and as it becomes more and more elastic, softer and more supple with continued treatment, those "Crow's Feet" and many other tiny lines become softer and less noticeable. The face appears fresher, smoother and younger looking.

The Treatment Is Simple

This very desirable change in one's appearance is quickly accomplished. A special liquid solution containing pure lanolin, with a PLUS in it, is applied to the surface of the skin. Certain components of this special lanolin solution (known as cholesterols and esters) then penetrate the skin to alleviate the condition of dryness and to make the skin softer and more elastic.

This wonder liquid is LANOLIN PLUS Liquid and is only $1, plus tax, wherever cosmetics are sold. It is best used at night, first as a make-up remover, then a few drops gently massaged in just before retiring. Results can be speeded up if the skin pores are first opened with a hot, wet towel. Used as a powder base, it keeps the LANOLIN PLUS in contact with the skin during the day, thereby still further accelerating its beauty action. In any event, LANOLIN PLUS Liquid used in this manner does wonders for dry skin and "Crow's Feet."

Important Shampoo Improvements Have Been Made, Too

The action of soap and synthetic detergents on human hair has been carefully studied, with a view to developing a shampoo that would cleanse thoroughly and beautify, too. Such a shampoo would have to rinse out completely (with one rinsing) so that no dulling residue or film would remain on the hair. It must not dry out the hair or cause the ends to split. LANOLIN PLUS Shampoo meets all these requirements, and as a plus, it beauty-treats the hair by giving it a high sheen—millions of dancing highlights. LANOLIN PLUS Shampoo is economical, too. $1 (no tax) for the large 6-ounce bottle.

Good News For Those Who Prefer Cleansing Cream

Now there is a cleansing cream that makes available to the skin new cholesterols and esters each time it is used. But this wonderful softening action is not at the expense of cleansing thoroughness. LANOLIN PLUS Cleansing Cream for Dry Skin seems to remove every tiny speck of dirt. So, dry skin victims who prefer a cleansing cream will get immediate and beautiful results from LANOLIN PLUS Cleansing Cream for Dry Skin. $1 plus tax wherever cosmetics are sold.

Softer Hands Than He Ever Held Before

LANOLIN PLUS Hand Lotion actually MAKES hands smoother by making them actually softer. Not greasy at all, LANOLIN PLUS Hand Lotion performs its miracles by supplying penetrating, lubricating cholesterols and esters to the skin. Results are unbelievable, until one sees them for herself. Then, when the user finds out he can't leave her hands alone, she'll KNOW how truly wonderful LANOLIN PLUS Hand Lotion really is. $1 plus tax wherever cosmetics are sold. Applicator pump free of extra charge is very handy. No cap to take off and put back on.

Between Shampoos
Hair Can Now be Kept Shining and Perfectly Manageable

Date tonight? No time for a shampoo? Brush in a few drops of LANOLIN PLUS For The Hair and look more than lovely. Its lanolin action, too, of course, does wonders for the hair. Before or after shampoo, it makes and keeps hair gleaming and more easily manageable than you ever believed it could be. Men find it a wonderful grooming aid, too. LANOLIN PLUS For The Hair is $1 plus tax.

Be a Smoothie All Over

Every inch of the body will feel silky-smooth when caressed—after the bath—with LANOLIN PLUS All Over Body Lotion. Imparts a softness, smoothness and exquisite loveliness that is new. The ease and feeling of luxury that follows somehow makes clothes seem smarter than before. The large 12-ounce bottle of LANOLIN PLUS All Over Body Lotion is only $1.50 plus tax wherever cosmetics are sold.

Remove the Stain

If you avoid looking in the bottom of the coffeepot, take a glance. That brown stain can be taken off and will make the coffee taste better. Be careful in scouring ones with built-in electric elements.

Woman Gives Her Views on Armed Forces School

WASHINGTON (INS)—The first service woman to be admitted to the top level Industrial College of the Armed Forces views the honor as a "process of evolution."

Lt. Col. Hortense M. Boutell, pretty blue-eyed native of Minneapolis, Minn., pointed to her enrollment as a sign of "things to come . . . the evolution of women in military service."

She was invited by the Joint Chiefs of Staff to attend the college at Fort McNair in Washington because she met rigid qualifications.

Selection is primarily based on military experience and a certain number of years in the field of logistics.

Some civilians — including women — also are accepted at the school for special courses dealing with industrial mobilization.

The WAC officer rushed from Paris to report for the 10-month course with about 135 students from the Army, Navy, Air Force and Marine Corps.

In Paris she was assigned to the Joint Staff of European Command, the highest U. S. headquarters in Europe. Her specialty is logistics, one of the basic requirements for the Industrial College. The pretty Colonel explained:

"Logistics — or G-4 as we call it — is concerned with the support of combat operations. It involves manpower, supply, production and procurement, medical and transportation facilities."

The Colonel, who shied away from admitting that she planned to make the Army a "life-long" career joined the WAC's first Officers Candidate School in 1942. She is accustomed to being the only woman in a world of men.

She laughed:

"Everybody here at the Industrial College feels that my presence is not such an exceptional thing. The acceptance of women was just slow in coming about."

The WAC Colonel is a distinguished example of how women can contribute in the service of their country.

She wears the Legion of Merit ribbon, highest service award, earned for her command of a WAC battalion at Allied Force headquarters in Caserta, Italy, during World War II. She also received the Commendation Award for her work in logistics after the war.

More than 150 million motor vehicles have been made in the United States.

Dora B. Whitney WCTU Elects New Officers

Mrs. Andrew Stimer was elected president of the Dora B. Whitney group of WCTU when it met Tuesday afternoon in the Traver Room of Bethany Baptist Church.

Mrs. John McCormick led the singing and was accompanied by Mrs. John Wilson. Mrs. David Gee used the 84th Psalm for her devotional message.

Officers assisting Mrs. Stimer for the coming year will be Mrs. John Trumbull, vice president; Mrs. Walter Willson, secretary, and Mrs. Basil Hartt, treasurer.

Mrs. John Webb gave a report on the 80th annual convention of the WCTU held at Lexington, Ky., in September.

It was announced that on Oct. 22 the 18th district annual convention will be held in the First Baptist Church of Birmingham.

TRUE OR FALSE?

In recent weeks my attention has been drawn to some misinformation about hair and permanent waving

"My hair is getting very thin. I have been told this is caused by permanent waving."

I do not believe this can be true. In 20 years of experience, I have only seen a few heads of hair get get dangerously thin and this could not be attributed to permanents because it happened to an older woman. Baldness is more prevalent among men than women.

Another woman said, "I am told that too many permanents are harmful to the hair." It isn't clear to me just what she meant; a new permanent is only necessary when the old permanent is mostly grown out. Then you are waving a new hair. If permanents were greatly over-processed, the ends might become dry.

Synthetic Fibers to Star in Men's Fall Wardrobes

CHICAGO (INS)—The man of the house can dress himself from head to toe and for any occasion in the newest of materials—those woven from man-made fibers—this fall.

Men's clothing and accessories previewed in Chicago, courtesy of a chemical company which manufactures synthetic fibers, included everything but hats and shoes. All the items will be in stores throughout the country this fall.

Many articles, including all-dacron ties that look and feel like silk surah, can be washed at home, saving cleaning bills.

There are heavier-weight suits in combinations of wool and orlon, an acrylic fiber, or dacron, a polyester fiber, but none are completely tailored in synthetic materials, so they can't be dunked in the washing machine.

However, the suits are becoming available in a greater variety of weaves and patterns — herringbones, diagonals, tweeds and even glen plaids. Among the new colors are charred shades of blue, brown and gray.

There even is a tuxedo tailored from dacron and wool worsted in midnight blue.

To go with it, there is a formal shirt of batiste, woven from dacron and Egyptian cotton, with a pleated front, that comes in white and also in light blue which photographs white on television.

Batiste, incidentally, is the newest shirting material to contain a synthetic fiber which owes its origin to chemicals instead of nature.

The same manufacturer who is introducing it in the formal shirt is bringing out another, also with pleated front, that can be worn with an ordinary business suit from the cocktail hour on. This shirt comes in pink, a pale wicker-like yellow and white.

In sports shirts, the news is knit jersey — sometimes completely of orlon or combined with a small portion of wool. These are washable, do not need blocking to keep shape and come in vivid colors and a variety of patterns.

Sweaters in man-made fibers are showing up in bright reds, maroons and black that are colorfast for the first time. One black all-orlon sweater felt and looked much like expensive cashmeres.

Socks, too, are getting more colorful and almost any pattern is available in combinations of nylon and cashmere, dacron and lamb's wool or in solid dacron or nylon.

Newly introduced are knee-length socks to go with Bermuda walking shorts of cotton which have dacron in them.

Besides warmth, new jackets for the outdoors are guaranteed not to hang heavy on an active man's shoulders.

For instance, a yellow fleece jacket that looks like a sheepskin is actually orlon, completely washable, and light enough to be picked up by the index finger.

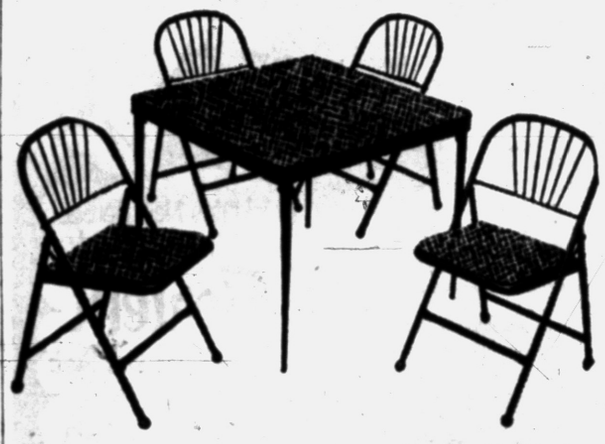

There is a trench coat for rainy weather of a material that contains dacron and poplin. It can be laundered 10 times before the plastic coating that keeps it rainproof has to be renewed.

A gentleman of distinction can even wear mink come winter without being hooted at. The mink is 10 per cent of a camel's hair colored topcoat that also contains 10 per cent nylon and 80 per cent wool.

Parisians Dressed Up for Autumn

PARIS (INS)—The same fabrics that are making clothing fashion news this season are dressing up stylish Parisian homes, too.

Corduroy in warm autumn-like tones also gives a new stylish coziness to your home. One decorator suggests covering the chairs of a light wood dining room set with old rose corduroy. Despite the light shade it looks warm as well as elegant.

You can replace the summery cotton cushion covers by corduroy slips in vivid autumn colors such as orange, rust, purple and burgundy red.

Plaid patterned materials are often used as trimming in Paris. It is simple, for instance, to give a new touch to white curtains. They look French if well starched, draped to a side and fixed by a large tartan ribbon bow. You could use a matching plaid patterned plastic or fabric tablecloth.

Book shelves can be given the new look by fixing a red or any other colored felt sheet on the wall behind them. Between the books the felt will show as bright spots of color.

French women like to give an autumn touch also to their dinner tables. A plate piled high with white and blue grapes, for instance, can look more autumn-like than a centerpiece of flowers on the table. They also use the plastic leaves in autumn colors as a stylish and simple dinner table decoration.

BPW Discusses Projects

Money raising projects for the ensuing year were discussed when the Pontiac Business and Professional Women's Club met for their regular dinner and business meeting Monday at Hotel Waldron.

Nora Day, chairman of the finance committee, announced plans for a gadget party to be held Nov. 8 at the hotel, to which the Keego Harbor and Waterford Business and Professional Clubs are to be invited.

Mrs. Charles Barrett introduced Mrs. Donald Noggle, who displayed a collection of hand made aprons and Mrs. Melvin C. McPherson gave a report of the district meeting held recently in Mt. Clemens.

Hostesses for the evening were Mary Eleanor Lockman, Violet McCoy, Helen Mercer and Mrs. Sanford Craft.

Sacramento to Preserve Old Pony Express Station

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (UP) — Preservation of the old Pony Express station, the last stop on the 2,000-mile run from St. Joseph, Mo., has begun here by a special committee.

The color, danger and continual hardship of the relay horseback rides across the desert and mountains to bring the mail to the far west has been uncovered in some of the mementoes found in the dark, dusty building part of Sacramento's "skid row."

The Historic Landmark Commission, created by Sacramento's city council to catalogue contents of the old building and decide the feasibility of turning it into a museum, has turned up several old maps outlining the original route of the Pony Express.

Each point on the maps, from St. Jo via Salt Lake City and over the Sierra Nevada to California, has its own stories of heroism and super-human effort of the men bringing the mail to California in 10 days.

One of the most legendary of these tales is the story of the 380-mile ride of Pony Bob Haslam, one of the most famous of the riders.

Haslam started at Reeds Station on the Carson River, Nev., and rode round trip across most of the state to Bucklands, Nev., now known as Ft. Churchill. He made the ride on the offer of a $50 bonus after other men refused to try to get through stepped-up Ute Indian raids in the area.

At each of the stations between the two points Haslam found the bodies of station-keepers, sometimes freshly scalped. At one stop even the horses were missing, so Haslam rode his tired mount on another 30-odd miles to the next station where he found a change.

After a few hours rest he made the return trip. And back at Reed's Station 380 miles, two days and many horses later, Haslam remarked, "If it hadn't been for the doggone excitement, I'd be tired."

Buffalo Bill Cody held the record for the longest non-stop ride, however. Cody rode 322 miles, stopping only to change mounts, on a round trip between Red Butte and Rocky Ridge, Wyo., on another Pony Express route. At one point he crossed the North Platte River three times in less than a mile to avoid desperadoes. He averaged 15 miles an hour on the run.

The move to preserve the Pony Express station here comes after one failure. The building, a two-story brick and stone structure, was given to the city in 1939. It was kept open by a series of old city pensioners.

But it was closed a year ago because "only two or three persons a week came to see it," City Manager Bart Cavanaugh said.

Bootleggers Trying Impersonal Wrinkle

OKLAHOMA CITY (UP) — Police have found a new wrinkle in the bootleg whisky business in constitutionally dry Oklahoma. Scout car officers noticing "a large amount of foot traffic" entering and leaving a domino parlor got a search warrant and found a door with a sign reading "Please knock or ring the bell."

A slot in the door received money. The lower part had a sliding tray. You paid your money and the whisky was slipped out on the tray. The bootlegger could see the customer through a one-way glass. The officers got behind the door by showing the search warrant; found 6½ pints of tax paid liquor.

Accident Blamed on Cat

CHESHIRE, Conn. (UP) — A Cheshire cat ran in front of Henry Antoinolfi's automobile. The motorist's foot slipped from the brake pedal to the accelerator and his car sped into a tree. He and his wife were injured. The cat escaped.

Skipper Skipped Out

BRIDGEPORT, Conn. (UP)—A sand barge sank in Bridgeport Harbor and it was feared the skipper, Frank Meade, had gone down with his ship. As the harbor bottom was about to be searched, Meade arrived and explained he had spent the night on shore.

Scientists can now harness the sun's energy with a battery that directly converts light into electric current. Its working parts are thin strips of specially coated silicon, a common element found in sand. A square yard of silicon surface can power a desk lamp.

Russia's Little Theaters Need More New Dramas

MOSCOW (INS) — Russian and American little theater groups have at least one thing in common—their critics complain they don't try out enough new plays.

U. S. school, college and amateur stage producers have been ticked off frequently for being too timid about putting on untried works.

Last season, for instance, 30 Moscow little theater clubs staged "Naming No Names" by Ukrainian playwright V. Minko.

The reason for the play's popularity with the little theaters off Gorky Street is easy to spot.

"Naming No Names" has received the stamp of approval on the story it tells and the message it carries. And it has been a commercial success.

Two of Moscow's professional theaters included it in last season's repertories.

The cast is loaded with upright Soviet-style heroes! Wickedness—survival from the bad old days before the Revolution — takes it on the chin and Soviet virtue triumphs.

Heroine of "Naming No Names" is the playgirl daughter of a prominent family in Kiev, the Ukrainian capital.

She turns down marriage proposals by two clean-cut Soviet heroes—a tomato grower and an engineer—because they have been assigned to work in the provinces, far from the relatively bright lights of Kiev.

Then daughter takes up with a zoot-suitor who dances the tango and whispers, sweet, non-political nothings and foreign phrases in her ear.

He turns out to be a swindler. The family is disgraced.

Father is booted out of his high government job and reassigned to a minor post in a small town. Daughter refuses to follow her parents to the country and takes a job at the registry office.

The tomato grower and the engineer she had known in happier days turn up in Kiev again and drop by the office—but this time they don't propose.

One comes to be married to a right-thinking Soviet girl. The other to register the birth of a little Soviet hero.

As the curtain falls, the unrepentant heroine—who still refuses to take her place in Soviet society—has been reduced to picking up men in taverns.

The chief of Moscow's amateur dramatics, V. Meerovsky, says "Naming No Names" and half a dozen or so other plays monopolize the little theater spotlight because playwrights just aren't turning out enough good scripts on present-day Soviet life.

Meerovsky also takes a swipe at the little theaters who start on a play and then don't stick to it.

Weaving Rugs Is Hobby of Colorado Coal Miner

TRINIDAD, Colo. (AP) — Weaving rugs, blankets and sweaters is a profitable hobby for a husky coal miner, Gilbert Fernandes, who learned his avocation in the depression days of 1931, when he attended a weaving class at the Valdez, Colo., YMCA.

Since then, Fernandez has woven about 1,600 articles—nearly all of which he sold. One rug went for $150. His work is patterned after the Chimayo Indian style of weaving. His patterns are in his mind—never on paper.

He uses nearly $50 worth of wool yarn and from 250 to 300 hours in completing a 5 by 7 foot rug or blanket. He has won high awards at the Colorado State Fair and Los Angeles County Fair for his weaving.

Gov. Williams Plans County Tour Friday

Gov. G. Mennen Williams will make a campaign tour through Oakland County this Friday, according to County Democratic Chairman Willis M. Brewer.

The governor will breakfast at the Holly Hotel in Holly at 8:30 a.m., then proceed to Oxford and visit the Syncro Corp. plant there.

We will have lunch at the 99 Club, 86 S. Telegraph Rd., and end the day's activities with a trip through the Wilson Foundry plant.

Kearsage, site of two New Hampshire state parks, was seen by the first explorers of the Merrimack Valley wilderness and recorded under the name of "Carasarga" in 1638 on Gardner's Survey Map authorized by the Massachusetts General Court.

LANSING (UP) — Distribution of the second edition of the 1954 official state highway map is underway, Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler said today.

The new map may be obtained by writing to the public information division of the Highway Department at Lansing or by calling at Michigan Highway Department tourist information centers.

Deborah Kerr Going on Road With 'Sympathy'

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — Deborah Kerr long distanced me from New York to tell me that she's going on tour with "Tea and Sympathy" and opens in Baltimore Nov. 6.

"I won't see my home in California until next May," Deborah said, "and you cannot imagine what that's going to mean—I've so looked forward to home.

"But I think it's a good thing for me to tour because it will give me a chance to see America. Christmas I am taking off two weeks to go to Florida where I can be with my children. Tony is remaining in the East with me and we will keep the children in school in New York."

Joan Fontaine remains with the New York company in the role which Deborah originally created. Joan will open in Los Angeles in April, possibly in the new Huntington Hartford Theater. The play is still going strong.

Pamela Mason says that she and James Mason got around to seeing "A Star Is Born" only last Friday. I asked her what she thought of her husband in the picture, and she said, "I thought he was good, didn't you?" "That's the understatement of the year," I told her.

When I inquired about the best selling book, "The Reason Why," by Woodard-Smith, she said, "It's true that James has taken an option on it for six months.

"It's the debunking of 'The Charge of the Light Brigade', which was glorified and made remantic in a poem by Alfred Lord Tennyson. It's pretty grim, but it's a true account, and if James can get a good script out of it he'll make the picture independently."

Speaking of the Masons, precocious tales about their small daughter, Portland, are legion, but I think this one tops them all.

Nobody but Portland thought anything about her middle name being Allen. But she remembered and called it to her father's attention.

"Daddy," she said, "Speak to Mr. Burns about renaming this show. Surely for this production it should be called the George Burns-Portland Allen show."

P. S. Portie is named for Mrs. Fred Allen.

Rubber Boots Send Workman to His Death

YUCAIPA, Calif. (AP)—Apparently it was Cyris Stoneham's rubber boots that cost him his life yesterday.

Stoneham, 43, was putting a purifier in the Yucaipa Water Co's reservoir when his raft tipped and he fell into the water. He sank so fast when his boots filled with water that fellow workers could not rescue him.

Man Dies Fighting Dog in Back Yard

KALAMAZOO (AP)— The body of Albert A. Diekema, badly cut and scratched, was found yesterday in the backyard of his home where he apparently had suffered a heart attack while fighting off an attacking dog.

Diekema's wife told police her husband had left his bed during the night to investigate a scratching noise in the back yard. She said she did not realize he had failed to return until she found his bed unoccupied this morning, then discovered his pajamapclad body in the back yard.

Coroner Ralph G. Cook of Kalamazoo County said scratches and cuts on Diekema's body and pawprints around the body indicated he had been attacked by a dog. However, Cook said, a heart attack apparently was the cause of death.

Diekema, 58, a commercial artist, had been afflicted wih a heart condition for a number of years.

Butcher Hands Patron $5,500 Instead of Meat

SAN FRANCISCO (UP)—Butcher Willie Lee reported to police Tuesday he mistakenly gave an unidentified customer a paper-wrapped bundle containing $5,500.

Lee said he held off reporting the incident 24 hours hoping the customer would return the receipts.

United Lutherans Adopt Budget, Centralize Work

TORONTO (AP)—The United Lutheran Convention went into its final session today after approving a record-breaking new budget and a closer-knit governing structure for their church.

The changes in the church government, bringing its scores of agencies under central control, were seen as setting a far-reaching new pattern in the running of the 2,150,000-member church.

"It will make for greater solidarity," said Dr. Franklin Clark Fry of New York, the church president. "It means the total work of the church will have more united impact."

* * *

Adoption of the revamped procedures came yesterday as the climactic event of the eight-day biennial meeting of more than 1,000 church representatives from the United States and Canada.

The church is America's largest Lutheran body.

The changes, still to be ratified by two-thirds of the church's regional synods, give a 21-member executive board the power of review and veto over all church-wide agencies and officers.

* * *

These agencies, including mission, education, evangelism, lay auxiliaries and many other departments, previously have been subject only to control of the convention.

The convention also adopted a record church budget of $15,221,513 for the 1956-57 biennium, a 21 per cent increase over the current figure.

It provides for expanded foreign and domestic missions, parish education, radio-television programs and other activities, including a half-million-dollar, two-year evangelism drive.

Lost Man Helped by Mountain Lore

ASPEN, Colo (AP)—His knowledge of the mountains served Leonard Thomas, 43-year-old sportsman, well during the two days he was lost in the snowbound Rockies.

The former New Yorker, who owns a swimming pool in this mountain resort, was found late yesterday, "hungry but in remarkably good condition." He was hospitalized overnight for a checkup.

Thomas lost his way after leaving a hunting camp Sunday afternoon to investigate interesting rock formations with a Geiger counter. He found no uranium but saw "a lot of good elk."

On the first night in the open, he used pine boughs to build a shelter against a six-inch snowfall.

The United States uses more than eight million tons of sugar every year.

IDA GROVE, Iowa (AP)—M. A. Jensen, 63, has had a quiet career as Ida Grove police chief. During his 17 years on the town's two-man police force, he has found it unnecessary to use his gun on anybody.

2 English Papers Attack U. S. Comics

LONDON (AP)—U.S. crime and horror comics have come under fresh attack from two British sources which don't often get riled up about the same things.

A recent issue of Church of England Newspaper gave most of its front page to an effort to "stop this torrent of poison." The weekly is an unofficial publication for the Anglican Church.

"To read some of these 'comics' is to be lost in a labyrinth of Freudiana, a sickening reminder of the depths to which human imagination can sink," said the article in the church paper.

2 Prep Gridders 'Marked'

By JACK SAYLOR

Ed Leach and Dennis Singleton will be marked men this week following their performances in last week's prep football games.

Leach is the man Oxford will have to stop to keep their untarnished record intact. Lake Orion prepped for the Oxford clash by knocking Romeo from the unbeaten ranks, 12-6. Running of Leach and Dick Johnson and the blocking of Lynn Hazelett stood out for Orion.

Leach, a 5-10, 165-pounder, ran 23 yards, then scampered 45 yards for a touchdown. In the 3rd period, with the score tied, 6-6, Leach reeled off a 50-yard run and followed with a 12-yard advance for the winning touchdown.

Meanwhile, Singleton was sparking Keego Harbor to a 31-19 victory over Holly. An outstanding trackman, the 6-1, 155-pounder showed his heels to Holly on touchdown runs of 50 and 65 yards.

Opposition of Leach and Singleton have one consolation . . . each is playing his last season. Leach is an 18-year-old junior who will miss next fall since he turns 19 just prior to the season's start.

Singleton had plenty of help in Keego's win. Mike Victor's running excelled and end Billy Nicholson tallied twice. He took a pass from Charlie Ploe for a 55-yard touchdown play and scored another on a 15-yard end-around.

In the line, tackle Leo Hess, guard Gary Rogers and linebacker Walt Goetz starred. Holly's Jerry Hunter was a one-man offensive show for Holly, scoring all 3 Bronco TD's on runs of 53, 35 and 12 yards.

Clarkston's "pony" backs had a good night in the 21-6 victory over Milford. Pat Thompson, a 140-pounder, scored on a 45-yard end run and a brilliant 47-yard punt return, while 135-pound George Lang got the Wolves off flying by going 68 yards for a TD on the 2nd play of the game. Co-captain Dick Johnston was a Clarkston standout at defensive end.

Dick Woodworth was Walled Lake's key performer in the Vikings' 19-13 win over Waterford. He went 35 yards for WL's 1st touchdown, then with his team trailing, 13-12, punched over from the 1-yard line with 2½ minutes to play.

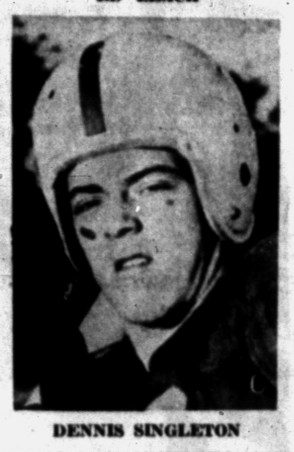

Moments later, he intercepted a pass to end any Skipper hopes. His play at safety was outstanding all night. The passing of junior quarterback Tom Bryce sparked Waterford in the 2nd half.

Tommy Wilson of Lapeer and Marv Evans of Avondale both stood out as their teams dueled to a 0-0 tie. The Auburn Heights' squad displayed a rugged defense led by tackles Albert Hill and Jack Greenlees and linebacker Toby Aldrich.

Oxford prepped for the Orion game with an easy win over Ortonville. Dale Spiker scored twice, once on a 45-yard run. Clyde Groves, Mike Benedict and sophomore Ruben Reyes added touchdowns. Rochester played poorly in its 32-13 rout by Utica. Only bright spot was the work of Walt DeBaene. He collected all 13 Falcon points after Rochester trailed, 32-0.

Hayward-McConkey Air Combination Clicks for 13 Points

Eastern evened its City Junior High Football League record at 1-1 yesterday, downing Wever 20-6 at Wisner Stadium.

Eastern's passing combination of Bill Hayward to Dennis McConkey clicked for 13 points in Tuesday's game. McConkey took a 25-yard pass and raced 35 yards to score in the opening period, and caught another in the end zone in the 2nd quarter. Hayward ran for one extra point and passed to McConkey for another.

Fullback Ken Beattie plunged two yards for Eastern's final touchdown in the 4th quarter. Wever's lone tally came on a 1-yard reverse by Bill Hoisington in the 3rd stanza.

Oxford's Star Sets Pace for Prep Scorers

Pat Thompson of Clarkston and Jerry Hunter of Holly made the biggest gains in the Oakland County prep football scoring race last weekend, but Oxford's Larry Spencer still holds the lead.

Spencer made one extra point to raise his total to 38 points. Hunter accounted for all of 18 of Holly's points against Keego Harbor to bring his season's total to 37. Thompson tallied 2 touchdowns, making his total 5 for 30 points.

Al Belanger of RO St. Mary and Rochester's Buzz DeBaene are newcomers to the top 10. Belanger bows in a 6th place tie, while DeBaene shares 4th place with Mike Benedict of Oxford.

Hunter is tops in touchdowns with 6. Spencer has added 8 extra points along with his 5 touchdowns.

Mack Family Passes From Baseball Power

Arnold Johnson's Bid of $3,375,000 for Philly Club Accepted

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN

CHICAGO (AP) — A milestone in baseball was passed late last night. American League club owners ended a hectic nine-hour meeting with a unanimous vote to shift the 54-year-old franchise of the Philadelphia Athletics to Kansas City.

* * *

The decision all but broke up the once-esteemed position in baseball of the Mack family. It signalled the finish of one vivid chapter in the national pastime that was etched by the pioneering Connie Mack and opened what should be another under Chicago financier Arnold Johnson.

It was Johnson, 47, a top man in a business that grossed $70,000,000 last year—the Automatic Canteen Co. of America—who found that money on the barrel-head speaks loudest.

In the final analysis, his bid of $3,375,000 to buy out the Macks—Roy, Earle and Connie—including Connie Mack Stadium, was irresistible, Will Harridge, president of the American League, said it was the only "sound" offer made.

Officially, the deal will not be closed until Monday. In what was assumed to be merely a gesture, Roy Mack was given until 11 a.m. EST on that day to announce if he will sell his stock to Johnson.

This was regarded only a small technicality and a league spokesman said that Roy "told the meeting that he wanted the sale to Johnson completed."

* * *

This admission removed the only block, for Roy strongly had opposed his brother Earle and 92-year-old father, Connie, in the sale, and tried desperately, but vainly, to raise enough capital to keep the debt-mired club in Philadelphia.

Roy was an emotional, pathetic figure of a man when he hurried from the meeting room an hour before the session ended and headed back to Philadelphia.

* * *

Johnson, who huddled more than once during the day with Roy, was completely satisfied that the deal was closed. He said he would order engineers to start work today doubledecking the Kansas City Stadium to boost seating capacity from 16,000 to 36,000 by the start of the 1955 season.

He said he plans to sell Connie Mack Stadium to Bob Carpenter, owner of the Philadelphia Phillies, who has been leasing it from the Macks, and probably will close this transaction in Philadelphia this weekend.

* * *

"As for Roy Mack, I plan to offer him a responsible position in the Kansas City organization," John added. "And I also must give thought to hiring a general manager and field manager. I'll do the selecting of them, myself."

The Athletics reportedly were in debt to the tune of about $1,900,000—a figure broken down to include a $1,200,000 mortgage, $300,000 in current bills and $400,000 to the Jacobs brothers, concessionnaires.

In the sale, Connie Mack will receive $604,000 and Earle and Roy each $450,000 for a total of $1,504,000. Added to the indebtedness, this would just about take care of Johnson's $3,375,000 price.

Four other parties appeared at the meeting to make offers, but Harridge stressed that Johnson's was the only solid one.

Another offer presumably was made from Leo de Orsey and Joe Tucci of Washington, D. C., who also wanted the A's to remain in Philadelphia.

The expected switch to Kansas City was the third major league franchise move in 18 months. The St. Louis Browns were transferred to Baltimore Sept. 29, 1953, and six months earlier the Boston Braves of the National League went to Milwaukee.

Most of Philly Is Asleep When News Breaks of Removal of Athletics

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The nation's third largest city woke up today as a one-league city—and the National League, at that.

* * *

Most Philadelphians were asleep when it was announced in Chicago that American League club owners have approved the proposed transfer of the Philadelphia Athletics to Kansas City after efforts to work out a deal to keep the team here had failed.

Though the National League entry, the Phillies, was here first, this city's fan sentiment has traditionally been cast with the American League.

A charter member of the league, the Athletics in 54 years—50 of them under the direction of Connie Mack—won nine league and five world championships. Only the New York Yankees have done better among American League teams.

* * *

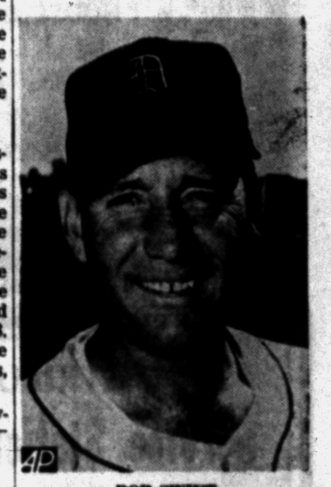

And it was just 25 years ago yesterday that the club had what was probably its finest hour. That was Oct. 12, 1929, in the fourth game of the World Series against the Chicago Cubs. The A's led the series, 2-1, but were down 8-0 to the National League champions in the seventh inning when they scored 10 times and won the game 10-8. The series ended the next game with the A's defeating the Cubs, 3-2.

The news that the club was moving West reached Philadelphia after midnight. Reports less than an hour before indicated a deal had been reached to keep the team in Philadelphia.

Mayor Joseph S. Clark Jr., who in July had formed a businessmen's committee to "Save the A's", said he was "terribly disappointed" to learn the city was losing the Athletics. He added: "The economic situation made it almost impossible to keep the club here."

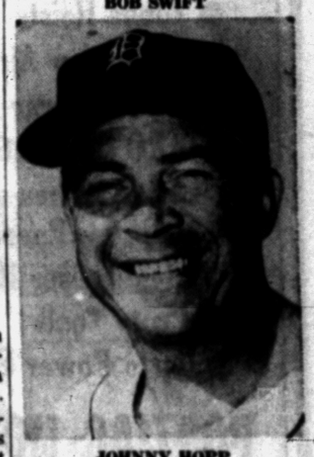

* * *

Philadelphia newspapers and radio stations said they received no calls after the news broke here. None of the citizenry awake at that hour seemed concerned about it.

Spartans Drill on Air Attack Against Irish

By ROBERT E. VOGES

EAST LANSING (AP) — Michigan State has been rehearsing its passing game this week looking for a needed assist against Notre Dame.

In the Iowa and Wisconsin football games the running attack was nearly stopped and MSC lost. But there were some not quite complete passes in both games that could have made the difference.

Purdue, the team that upset Notre Dame this season, used passes with telling affect, and MSC hopes to do the same. With three quarterbacks in the backfield Michigan State has a lot of passing power.

Earl Morrall, the working quarterback, is the No. 1 thrower. Clarence Peaks and Johnny Matsock, now halfbacks, both are converted quarterbacks who can throw passes. And Pat Wilson, a sophomore substitute, also has been doing well.

Dale Foltz, reserve center from Flint, went down with a knee injury and probably will be out for the season.

Navarra Retains Lead in Billiard Tourney

BUENOS AIRES (AP) — Ezequiel Navarra of Argentina maintained his slim lead in the World three-cushion billiard tournament by defeating Masako Katsura of Japan 60-28 in 46 innings.

The victory over the slim Japanese star gave Navarra 10 points in 5 games, one more than Juan Navarra, also of Argentina. Juan trounced Welker Cochran of San Francisco 60-31 in 46 innings for a total of nine points.

Horned Frog 'Back of Week'

Ronald Clinkscale Is Honored for Brilliant Play Against USC

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Ronald Clinkscale, a tall Texan who can make plenty of speed without the help of a horse, engineered one of the major upsets in college football last week end when Texas Christian beat Southern California 20-7 Friday night. And by doing this he earned the designation as Associated Press Back of the Week.

Clinkscale's one - man raid on the Southern California defenses put him ahead of another upset producer, Navy's Joe Gattuso, and Washington's Bob Cox, who almost got an upset, in ballots cast by the nation's sports writers and broadcasters.

One Word Fits Kaycee's Reaction Today: Wonderful

By SKIPPER PATRICK

KANSAS CITY (AP)—"Wonderful."

That one word best fits the feeling of Kansas City baseball fans who woke up this morning to the realization this solid baseball town of the midlands was in the act of going major league.

* * *

Most of the city was asleep when the news broke late Tuesday night that American League owners had voted unanimously to permit Arnold Johnson, Chicago financier, to buy the financially decrepit Philadelphia Athletics and move the club to Kansas City.

Many of the fans who had a part in pledging the purchase of more than a million tickets for the 1955 season in event the deal went through, lost hope earlier in the evening when reports had it that Kansas City's chances of getting the franchise were "about 50-50."

* * *

The Kansas City Star, which usually reserves such headlines for world wars or truces, streamered the news "Kansas City Goes Big League."

Mayor William E. Kemp commented "it's a great day for Kansas City." He said he felt the club owners have vindicated "our own appraisal that big league baseball is feasible in Kansas City."

Karl Koerper, president of the chamber of commerce, sees the acquisition of the A's as a "fitting climax to the growth of the city the last five or six years."

"It will be of tremendous economic importance," Koerper said.

* * *

Johnson said here a few weeks ago he felt the A's could be built into a first-division contender in about three years. He noted that Cleveland, New York and Chicago were too strong to battle for a pennant for some time, but contended there was little reason why the club shouldn't be able to cope with the other American League teams.

Boxing Experts High on Powell

Despite Loss, Ex-49er Gridder Looks Like Future Great

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Charlie Powell, the 22-year-old ring giant who was stopped here last week, is still the best prospect the heavyweight division has produced in this country since Rocky Marciano.

Who says so? Fight experts who saw Powell suffer a seventh-round technical knockout at the hands of Charley Norkus say so.

Evaluation of the former San Francisco 49ers football player was still going on a week later.

J. J. "Moose" Taussig, whose Willie Meehan thumped out a four-round decision over Jack Dempsey in 1918, said he thought Powell had a brilliant future.

"Powell may be champion in a year or two," Taussig observed. "He's the best I've seen come along since Marciano."

Johnson Plans to Be Active in Operation of KC Team

CHICAGO (AP) — Arnold Johnson, 47-year-old financier who jumped from Chicago sandlot baseball to apparent major league owner, says he'll have an active part in the Kansas City Athletics.

* * *

American League club owners last night voted unanimously for a switch of the Philadelphia Athletics to Kansas City.

Indicating he'll be no figurehead, Johnson said, "I'll operate the club."

* * *

"My first interest was in acquiring the club," Johnson said. "You build the plant first and then put the machinery in it."

In addition to his newest position in baseball, Johnson owns Yankee Stadium, home of the New York Yankees, and has an interest in the Chicago Blackhawks hockey team.

Johnson was born in Chicago. He is a 1928 business administration graduate from the University of Chicago. His only present participation in sports is hunting and fishing.

Johnson, a lieutenant commander in the Navy, who served as a beach master for seven landings on South Pacific islands during World War II, became interested in owning a major league team by chance.

"The Kansas City stadium was part of the Yankee Stadium deal," he explained. "When I was looking over the property there, Ernest Mehl, sports editor of the Kansas City Star, suggested that while I was at it why didn't I get a major league franchise and move it to Kansas City. Sounded good to me. So I did."

Gonzales Easy Winner in Lightweight Scrap

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Johnny Gonsales, 135, Oakland, Calif., Tuesday night won a unanimous 10-round decision from Babe Mathis, 133, of Tucson, now fighting out of Los Angeles.

Gonsales, fourth-ranked lightweight in the world, was in complete control of the bout throughout. Two of the officials gave him every round while the third called two rounds even.

Former Major League First Baseman Dies

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Walter Holke, 62-year-old former National League first baseman for four clubs, died at Missouri Baptist Hospital yesterday.

Holke, who served as a coach for the St. Louis Browns in 1939, started in the majors with the New York Giants in 1914 and also played with the Philadelphia Phillies, Boston Braves and Cincinnati Redlegs.

During a 26-inning, 1-1 tie game with Brooklyn in 1920, Holke played first base for Boston and handled 44 chances, 43 of them put outs. He had a lifetime batting average in the majors of .287 and played in the 1917 World Series with the Giants.

Jimmy Brooke Favored for Featured Pace

JACKSON (UP) — Jimmy Brooke, although beaten in two starts at the Jackson Raceway, was expected to be the favorite as eight pacers take the post tonight for the Saugatuck pace.

Bob Whitlow will drive Jimmy Brooke, who is meeting lesser competition tonight that in previous starts.

You Be the Quarterback

By Warren Gaer
Head Football Coach
Drake University

Rutgers and William and Mary are 14-14 in the third quarter.

Rutgers has advanced to the William and Mary 40-yard line, center of the field, 2nd down and one. A T-formation team, Rutgers has shown a balanced offense and has gained well on quick openers, off tackle slants, pitchouts, passes and quarterback sneaks.

On 1st down, Rutgers has run a quick opener off the Indians' left guard for nine yards, and as the defensive guard slowly gets to his feet, you, the Rutgers' quarterback, remember the coach's instructions for a spot such as this.

Rate these plays 1, 2, 3 and 4 for this situation:

Pitchout around end
Long forward pass
Quick opener off that tiring left guard

Texas Tech Ace Specialist at Wiping Out Foe's Lead

LUBBOCK, Tex. (AP) — Texas Tech's Lonnie Graham is called the Lone Ranger because of the mask-like goggles he wears while playing football and the fellow is living up to the deeds of his radio namesake.

* * *

He has made it a habit to wipe out in a single play an opponent's touchdown drive.

Graham leads Texas Tech's unbeaten Red Raiders into action this week at Baton Rouge against Louisiana State and the Tigers better watch out about getting ahead of the Raiders. That's where Lonnie comes in.

Last week Texas Western was leading Tech 7-0. On Tech's first play after the kickoff, Graham raced 65 yards for a touchdown.

The Lone Ranger had to step in again after Western had marched 77 yards to knot the score at 14-14. He carried the kickoff back 15 yards, then on the first play from scrimmage raced 66 yards for the touchdown that put the Raiders ahead for keeps.

West Texas State could have warned Western. The Buffs slipped 7 points ahead. That lead lasted just 30 seconds. In that period the Lone Ranger of Texas Tech had taken the kickoff back 34 yards and then dashed 66 yards for a touchdown on the first play from scrimmage.

In Tech's first game, the Texas Aggies were leading 3-0 when Graham smashed 17 yards deep into A&M territory to set up the first of six Raider touchdowns.

Bruising Ground Attacks

College Grid Offenses Have 'New Look'; Power Plays, Punting Get Emphasis

By BOB HOOBING
The Associated Press

Power plays and the punting game are getting more emphasis this year than at any time since college football offenses were thrown wide open at the start of World War II.

In this second season of the return to one platoon play, the success of a bruising ground attack combined with an alert defense is the one consistent thread running through an upset-studded campaign.

* * *

Those who watched the nationally-televised Wisconsin-Rice game last week got a good look at the "new" grid game as it has developed after the '53 season of readjustment.

* * *

It was booked as a contest between the lighter, faster, Southwesterners sparked by breakaway Dickie Moegle and the solid Badgers behind crashing fullback Alan (The Horse) Ameche. Ameche scored with 50 seconds remaining to give Wisconsin a 13-7 victory.

* * *

Rice fought it out with the Badgers in a rugged line struggle, never shaking its long gainers loose. Ameche slammed into the Owls 21 times for 90 yards and both Wisconsin touchdowns.

In a surprise last week underdog Harvard marched 77 yards in the closing moments for a 13-12 margin over Cornell. The Crimson stuck to the ground with football's basic play, the off-tackle smash.

* * *

Oklahoma and UCLA are other leading teams to date. They've played a clever tactical game, awaiting breaks and capitalizing on them.

The Bruins set the tenor of the season by defeating defending national champion Maryland 12-7 Oct. 1. Fullback Bob Davenport, who bulled 87 yards in 23 carries, bucked it over. Guard Jim Salsbury's fumble recovery led to the first score.

* * *

Oklahoma ball-hawked its way to victory over California by turning two fumbles into touchdowns while outpunting the Bears by nearly 10 yards a kick.

* * *

South Carolina stunned Army in its opener 34-20 by grinding out 446 yards on the ground. The Cadets then turned on Michigan 26-7 with the same weapon. And Navy blanked Stanford 25-0 by blocking a kick, recovering a fumble, unleashing fullback Joe Gattuso for 153 yards and averaging 40 yards a punt to Stanford's 22.3.

New Bengal Pilot Announces Shakeup

Unbeaten Lions May Be 'Down' Against Colts

Detroit to Face 49ers, Rams in Next 2 Games After Baltimore

DETROIT (UP) — What goes up must come down. That's the problem which confronts the Detroit Lions this week.

Lions were "up," as they say, in Sunday's crucial victory over the Los Angeles Rams.

Now the question is: How far will they come "down" Saturday when they meet the weak Baltimore Colts in Briggs Stadium?

Therefore, it'll be Coach Buddy Parker's job to keep his team sharp enough for Baltimore, yet not to such a degree where it will lose its edge for the following two games which are against San Francisco and Los Angeles.

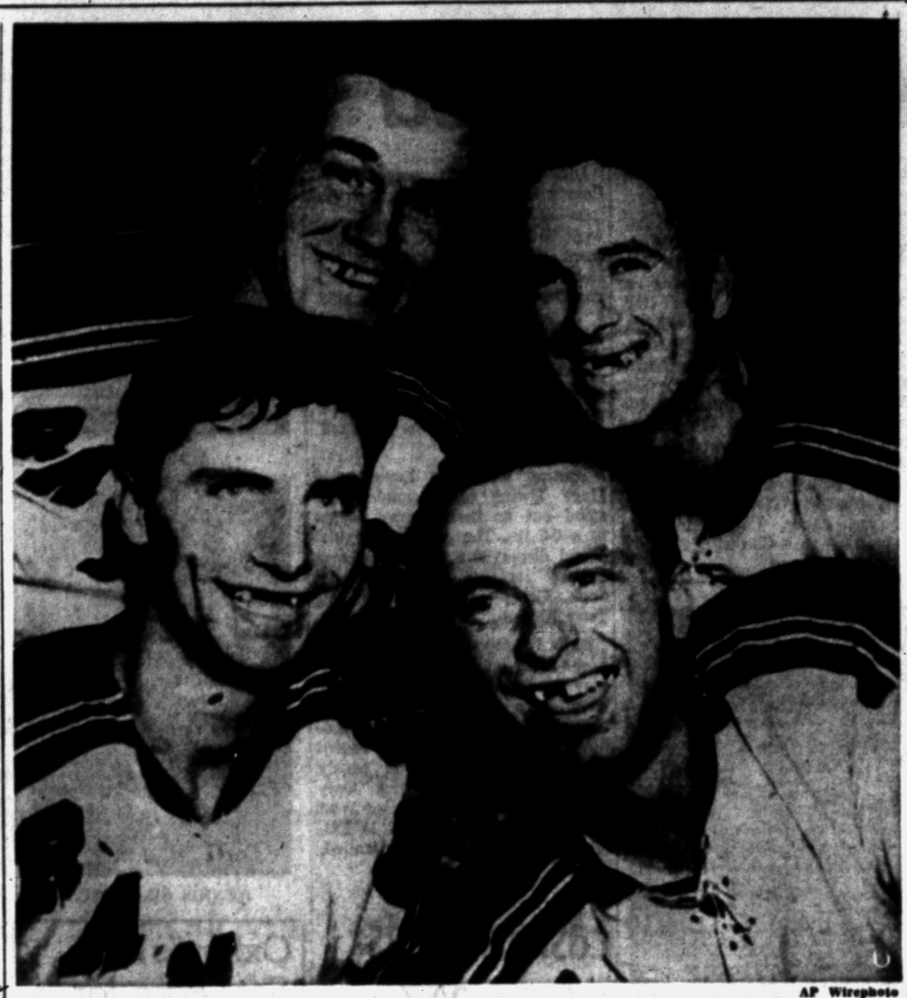

Parker had this difficulty last year. He survived both times, but only by the thinnest of margins.

Last season the Lions played Baltimore in the 2nd game of the season. Four straight games with San Francisco and Los Angeles were to follow.

Lions, perhaps a bit overcautious, trailed Baltimore 17-7 at halftime. An upset seemed definite. But Lions bounced back in the 2nd half and blanked the Colts and won the game, 27-17.

Almost the same thing happened after those four rugged games against the two West Coast teams. Lions again met the Colts, and again they had difficulty. Detroit eventually won, 17-7, but it was a struggle all the way.

Lions still have 10 games to go this season, and the players know it. That's a big item in Parker's favor.

'Moscow' Track Stars in London

Russians Are Favored in All Events Except 800, 1,500 Meters

LONDON (UP) — The Soviet Union parades its athletic might in the chill October air tonight before some 50,000 British track and field fans at the White City Stadium.

The 69-member "Moscow" squad —it really is made up of just about the top men and women culled from the vast reaches of the Soviet Union—takes on a London team in the first visit ever of a Russian track and field team to this island.

In the men's events the Russians have four world record holders and six European champions. They actually stand a chance of taking every first place in the long program.

Britain's great Roger Bannister has put up his track shoes for the season and perhaps for good. Missing also are several other British stars in the middle distances—but ironically the 800 and 1,500 meters are about the only events in which the British could be termed favorites.

Hub Scribes to Meet 'Pinky' Higgins Today

BOSTON (UP) — Michael (Pinky) Higgins, newly appointed manager of the Boston Red Sox, is slated for his first interview with the Boston baseball writers late today after driving from his home in Dallas, Texas.

So sudden was the announcement last Monday of his promotion from manager of Boston's Louisville farm club in the American Assn. to the Red Sox that the eager scribes have been unable to contact him.

At the time General Manager Joe Cronin announced that Lou Boudreau was out and the 45-year-old Higgins in, Higgins was reported enroute by car from Louisville to Dallas. Higgins was to have flown to Boston, but decided to motor instead.

Among the obvious queries due to be put to him are these:

What does he plan to do about the Red Sox weakness on double plays that has plagued the club since retirement of Bobby Doerr?

What about Ted Williams' plans for retirement? Will Higgins try to stop him from leaving?

What about the coaches who were on Boudreau's staff—Buster Mills, Del Baker, Oscar Melillo, George Susce and others? Will he bring in former Red Sox pitcher Dave (Boo) Ferris, who coached for him at Louisville?

Many New England fans are wondering whether Harry Agganis, the Lynn, Mass., product who had a great rookie season, or Norm Zauchin of the Louisville club will be at first base for Boston in 1955.

Can Higgins make stars out of such bright prospects as bonus baby Billy Consolo and outfielder Karl Olson?

Mexican Star Upsets Art Larsen, Gains Net Finals

MEXICO CITY (UP)—The 13th Pan American Tennis tournament entered its next to last day Wednesday with Art Larsen reconciled to his upset loss to Mexico's flashy Mario Llamas.

The 22-year-old Mexican champion defeated the California star 1-6, 10-8, 9-7, 6-3 yesterday to become the first from his country ever to enter the finals of the tournament.

The refereeing and heckling from the partisan crowd appeared to upset Larsen and immediately after the match the Californian admitted "I'm mighty unhappy." He also complained about one decision.

Pressed for comment on refereeing, Larsen turned the questioners over to Hugh Stewart of Los Angeles.

"I think the audience sort of pushed him at times," Stewart said. "Got on his nerves. But Llamas played inspired ball and the audience helped him as much as it hurt Larsen. The referees were doing the best they could. However, I think Artie can beat Llamas four out of five times."

In Brother's Steps

The record for 18 holes in PGA tournament play was established by Al Brosch in the Texas Open in 1951. He shot a 60 in the third round but was fourth at the finish. Four other pros also have had 60s.

Tigers Release Swift and Hopp; Rowe Survives

Billy Hitchcock, Tighe Given Coaching Jobs With Detroit

By JOE FALLS

DETROT (UP) — In a somewhat surprising move, Johnny Hopp and Bob Swift were released last night as coaches of the Detroit Tigers, and replaced by Billy Hitchcock and Jack Tighe.

Last week, president Walter O. (Spike) Briggs Jr. said Harris would be permitted to name his own coaches, but added that "we hope he follows our semi-policy of Tigers picking Tigers."

In the new setup, Harris said, Hitchcock would replace Hopp at 3rd and Tighe would take over Swift's duties in the bullpen. Rowe will remain as 1st base coach, Harris said.

Dismissal of Hopp, who had served only one year, had been expected. But Swift's removal came as a surprise. He had been associated with the team for the last 11 years.

Tighe comes to the Tigers with a lengthy baseball background. A former catcher, the 41-year-old Tighe has been in organized baseball for 19 years — 17 with the Tigers.

An infielder, the 36-year-old Hitchcock played with five teams in the American League—Detroit, Washington, St. Louis, Boston and Philadelphia. As a member of the Tigers in 1953, he was well liked by his teammates.

Hopp, who was lured out of baseball retirement, probably will go back to his golf driving range in Hastings, Neb. As for Swift, he'll probably search around for another job in baseball.

Paul Richards Asked to Leave Meeting on A's

Harridge Rules New Oriole Official Not Qualified to Attend

CHICAGO (UP)—Paul Richards of the Baltimore Orioles might be baseball's only general manager and field pilot but that doesn't give him the right to sit in at a meeting of American League club owners.

That, anyway, is how American League President Will Harridge sees it.

CASE—Late Thumb Release.

Must Come Out First — You will find, as you go along in bowling, that the thumb is a very significant digit. It has much to do with what your bowling future holds for you. You will soon enough hear the expression "frozen thumb."

Chances are you will be troubled with it — for a little time, at least. Frozen thumb means that the thumb comes out of the hole last, or late.

then will the fingers remain to do their share of applying "hook spin" on the ball. And hook spin, no matter how much it is used, is important.

It's what you've got to have to spill the pins around and drop them for big totals. To avoid thumb freezing, let me give you this helpful pointer: Insert the fingers (or finger, in case of a two-fingered ball) into the hole or holes first. The thumb goes in last.

Hamilton Becomes Coach Temporarily

PITTSBURGH (UP) — Athletic director Tom Hamilton returned to the head football coaching position at University of Pittsburgh today as interim replacement for ailing Red Dawson in Saturday's game against Navy.

A physician ordered Dawson, whose Panthers have lost the 1st three games of a "suicide" schedule, to stay away from football for at least a week because of a slight "heart irregularity" and a persistent head cold infection.

Rain Cheers Duck Hunters

By JACK PATTERSON

"Good weather for ducks" is an expression much heard lately. As a matter of fact it has been. Rain has always been looked upon by the duck hunter with the same enthusiasm the miser works up at the sight of gold. And rain, or at least its side effects, can be a useful tool to the wild - fowler. Ducks, like private airplane pilots, like to keep in visual contact with the ground, or water, as the case may be, and the low ceiling and limited visibility during a rainy day tend to keep flocks low enough to see and be interested in decoys.

PATTERSON

* * *

Getting slapped in the face with raindrops while cruising at 40 m.p.h. plus, presumably is as uncomfortable to ducks as it would be to man, and under such conditions they're much less likely to give the hunter's set-up the usual searching inspection before dropping in for a visit.

Of course, sitting out all day in such weather isn't the most comfortable way for a hunter to put in his time, either, but the confirmed bayman relishes each cold trickle of water down his neck as evidence that he is really living.

Wildfowl Bay is producing good redhead shooting, according to Lloyd Fay and Ralph Austin, who have been operating in the Rose Island area. Some bluebills are in but most activity right now is with redheads.

* * *

* * *

Somewhat further north, Howard Fitzgerald, Noyce Strait Jr., and Erwin Wilson found goose hunting only fair at James Bay because the weather was too sunny, a climatic condition which only a few of the older Oakland County residents remember.

Bright days, coupled with a scarcity of young geese, which are highly susceptible to calling, kept the bag limit down but the party returned with some 20 geese and 30 ducks, so their efforts weren't entirely wasted.

The same wet weather which wrings gleeful chuckles from wildfowlers has greatly impeded the activities of upland hunters and archers.

Grouse are not disposed to move about much when it's wet and have an annoying habit of sitting tight in spruce or cedar trees so that the best dog in the world can pass close below in ignorance of their presence.

Deer hunters have much the same problem in that deer don't roam much in the rain and the archer who elects to take a stand in a likely spot (as most successful bow hunters do) finds his opportunity for a shot greatly decreased.

The roving hunter has a somewhat better chance when cover is wet and quiet, but walking up within shooting distance of a deer is far from a sure thing.

Beagles Run at Sashabaw in 4-Day Sanctioned Trial

By H. GUY MOATS

Only licensed field trial of the year for Oakland County Beagle Club has been set for this weekend, starting Thursday. The club conducts "fun" trials at other times, but this one is where the smart little hounds get their chance to compile points towards AKC championships. It takes 180 points and two 1st places to achieve championship status.

The event will run four days, with a championship to be decided each day.

Trophies and cash awards go to winners. Opening trial will be for 13-inch males. This running with take place Thursday morning, following the draw at 8 a.m. sharp at Oakland County Sportsmen's Club. All runnings are scheduled at the Beagle Club's grounds at Sashabaw Ranch on Waldon road, two miles east of Sashabaw.

Friday's trial is for 13-inch bitches; 15-inch bitches run on Saturday and the final event, Sunday, is for the 15-inch dogs.

Field for the trial is expected to include many of the country's top hounds. They will come here from many sections of the Midwest as well as other parts of the nation, according to OCBC officials. Between 30 and 40 dogs will take part in each day's event.

Two qualified judges will handle the runnings. They will operate on horseback. Public is invited, and there is no charge.

Fish Licenses Sale on Par With 1953

LANSING (AP)—Fishing license sales are running almost exactly at the same level as last year, the conservation department said Tuesday.

Sales so far this year totaled 759,069 resident licenses, compared to 759,011 at the same time last year. Non-resident license sales total 244,843 compared to 243,434 last year. This year, trout stamp sales so far total 164,744, against 164,996 last year.

Walled Lake Wins 12th Harrier Contest

Walled Lake runners took the 1st three positions as Rollie Langerman's Viking cross country team won its 12th straight win Tuesday afternoon. Southfield was the victim, 19-42.

Don Pounds was the individual winner in 11 minutes, 14 seconds, followed by Gerald Avery and Joe Bailey.

Lion Collects Fish

'FISH FINDER'—Harold Brant holds his portable swimmer — he calls it a "fish finder." Towed behind an outboard motorboat driven by his father, he explores the bottom of the lake, scouting the fishing prospects.

26 Law Violators Arrested Recently

It is also illegal ot carry a loaded firearm in a vehicle.

Reports were received in conservation department headquarters early this week that 26 persons were apprehended violating those two laws during recent days.

Pontiac Woman Shoots First Deer With Bow

Mrs. Omer Vaught, 346 North Cass Avenue, shot her 1st deer with a bow and arrow last weekend while hunting in Roscommon County.

Mrs. Vaught, who was trying her 2nd year of bow hunting, brought down a 155-pound doe at a range of 25 yards. She was hunting with her husband.

Director May Extend Deadline

Eddy Might Re-Open Applications for Dec. 1 'Any Deer' Season

LANSING (AP) — Conservation director G. E. Eddy said he will make a decision later in the week about extending the deadline for applications to hunt in the Dec. 1 any deer season.

The original deadline fell on Sunday, but since that is a legal holiday, Eddy said he would accept applications postmarked Monday. Even this slight extension, however, was not expected to swell the total of applications over 45,000.

The conservation commission two months ago set the total to be permitted to hunt in part of the northern 3rd of the Lower Peninsula at 81,000.

Migration of Ducks, Geese Is Under Way

Canada's Three Prairie Provinces Say Annual Flights Have Begun

Annual southward migration of ducks and geese has begun in all three prairie provinces, Ducks Unlimited, reports. Widely dispersed populations of waterfowl are reported across the southern prairie region with the build-up increasing daily.

Making these revelations of current waterfowl activity in the October issue of the Ducks Unlimited "Duckological," Chief Naturalist Bert W. Cartwright concludes with a summary which should be welcomed by all sportsmen. "Overall waterfowl population at same high livel as last year. Alberta up, Saskatchewan the same and Manitoba somewhat down."

Bags Hefty Honker

Yeoman Was Versatile

Rules Remain Unchanged for Annual Contest

Pre - Season Checkups Indicate Outlook Is Excellent

Pontiac Press' annual "big pheasant derby" will get under way one week from today, Oct. 20, concurrently with the opening of a 22-day pheasant hunting season in the Lower Peninsula.

Shooting on opening day cannot start until after 10 a. m. Thereafter the usual times are in effect. Bag limits remain two per day and four in possession. Season's limit is eight.

Contest will close with the end of the season on Nov. 10.

Edward Keith of 5640 Oster Drive, Pontiac Lake, won last year's contest with a 3-pound 11 ounce bird. He surprised two roosters fighting, and bagged one as they took flight.

Outlook is excellent for pheasant hunters this year. Michigan's pheasant population appears well above last year's and possibly near a record high, according to the conservation department.

Conservationists predict that hunters will bag more than the 1,200,000 birds taken last fall. However, the total will probably not exceed the record bag of 1,400,000 birds taken in 1944.

1—Only FULL-TIME Oakland County residents are eligible.
3—Birds may be shot anywhere in Michigan where such hunting is legal.
4—All entries must be brought to the Pontiac Press for weighing, measuring and photographing.
5—Entries must be made during the hours of 8 a. m. and 3 p. m., except that NO entries will be received after 12 noon Saturdays, and none on Sundays.
6—Winner receive $50 U. S. Savings bond. In case of tie, duplicate awards will be made.

Dufek Reports 'Cats Could Jell Against UM

By JOHN BARBOUR

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Michigan's Wolverines have had three games to see just what Northwestern's Wildcats can do. They get their fourth and last chance Saturday at Evanston, Ill.

Their sole victory was over Iowa State in the first game of the season at Dyche Stadium on their home campus. The following week they hosted USC and lost 13-7. Last week they traveled to Minnesota and limped home after a 26-7 shellacking.

The Wildcats took an early lead over Minnesota. But they wilted under the heavier Gopher line and the speedy backfield work of Bob McNamara and John Baumgartner, Minnesota's fullback.

If luck goes with Oosterbaan, he will have the services of an expert fullback, too. That man will be Lou Baldacci, who missed the Iowa game with a stomach disorder and an injured shoulder.

At the beginning of the season, Wildcat coach Bob Voights expected his team to be close to a title contender in the Big Ten. However, things haven't worked out that way. He has received fine play from some individual players. But as a unit, the Northwestern team has been ineffective.

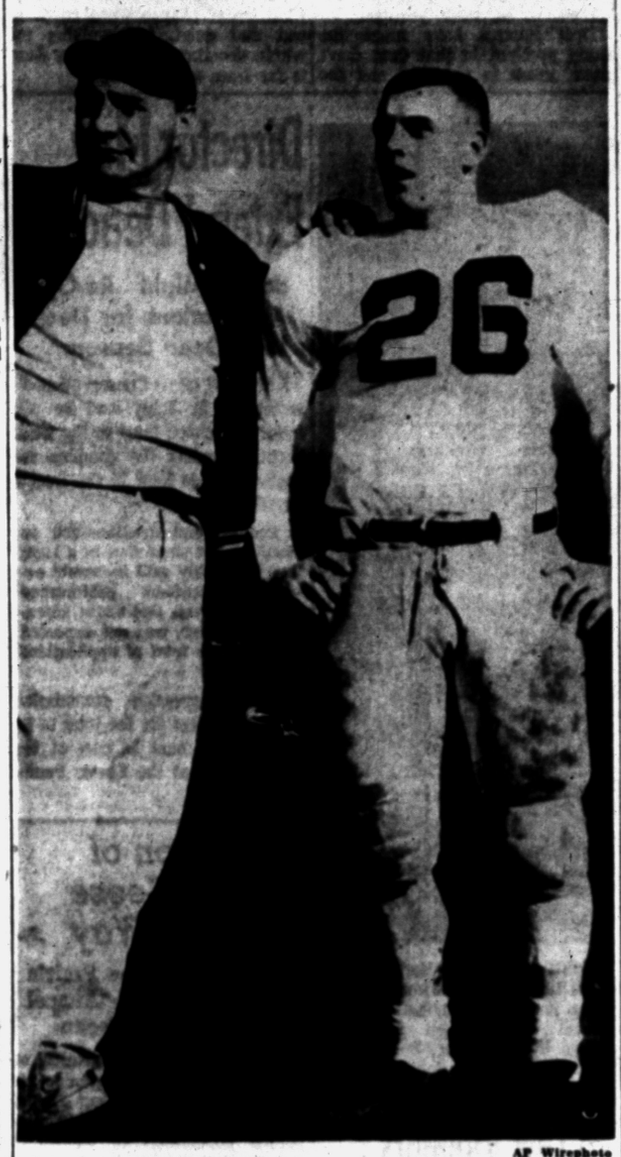

Dufek and Bob Hollway, who both saw the Wildcats in action, believe Northwestern can find itself anytime this season. Dufek also points out that the Wildcats always have been a stubborn opponent for Michigan.

* * *

This season, the Wildcats apparently have found a quarterback in John Rearden. Rearden has gained much poise and his work has been improving.

On a T-formation squad such as Northwestern has, Rearden could be at least part of the answer.

Ole Miss Leads in Aerial Game for College 11s

Oregon, Southern Cal, 2nd and 4th in Passing, in TV Game Saturday

NEW YORK (AP) — Colorado and Mississippi, two of the October nominees for January 1 bowl games, have the most potent football attacks in the country so far this season.

* * *

Colorado leads in rushing offense with an average of 381.3 yards per game and in total offense with 435.8 per game, while Mississippi is tops in passing with 211 yards per game and second in total offense with 423.3. Mississippi's attack is almost perfectly balanced between land and air, with 211 passing and 212.3 running.

Only other teams in the "400" set are Boston University, with 410.7 yards per game; Denver, 410.3; Wichita, 402.5, and Texas Tech, 401. Tech ranks second to Colorado in running, having piled up 336.5 yards per game on the ground.

* * *

The nation's television football fans will see some of the best passing in the country Saturday when Oregon, No. 2 passing team meets Southern California, No. 4. Oregon is averaging 188.8 yards per game, Southern Cal 162.8. Purdue, whose passing was stymied by Duke last Saturday, is third with a 163.3 mark.

Colorado is averaging 7.40 yards a try on the ground, 7.61 yards a try including passes, leading the country in both respects.

Owens Predicts His Broad Jump Mark Will Go

Olympic Mark Holder Says Record-Breaking Comes in Cycles

NEW YORK (AP) — Jesse Owens, holder of the oldest of the world track and field records, predicted today his 19-year-old broad jump mark will be broken before it gets much older.

"Record breaking comes in cycles," the former Olympic star declared in an interview, "this year it was the mile. They set their sights on the four-minute-mile and once somebody ran it everybody found out it could be done.

"The same goes for broad jumping. I think we'll come up with some boys soon who will regularly jump better than 25 feet. Then 26 feet. And then it will be only a matter of time before my record is broken."

Although Owens is confident the day will come, it will never dim the luster of his own greatest day—May 25, 1935. That afternoon in Ann Arbor, Mich., Owens tied the 100-yard dash world record and set three world marks, for the 220 yard dash, for the low hurdles and his 26 feet 8¼ inch broad jump.

A year later the lithe Negro invaded race-conscious Berlin for the Olympic games and swept the 100 meters, the 200 meters, the broad jump and also ran on the winning 400 meter relay. His jump of 26 feet 5⅜ inches still is the Olympic mark and observers say he took off a full foot early, just to make sure he did not foul.

Dr. S. J. "Sam" Morris has been physician for the West Virginia University athletic teams for 37 years.

Chiefs Meet Bay City Here Friday

By BILL MARTIN

The Chiefs-Wolves scrap is the only Saginaw Valley Conference action listed for the night. Arthur Hill goes to Grand Rapids Catholic Central, Saginaw travels to Midland and Flint Northern plays host to Muskegon in non-league games. Flint Central is idle.

Bay City, expected to be on the rebound after a surprising 21-20 loss to Saginaw last week, will provide rugged opposition for Pontiac.

High-scoring Wolves boast the Valley's leading scorer in halfback George Stevenson, who has raced for eight touchdowns in four games. Half of his markers came on passes from quarterback Bill Chesney, who personally scored all three Bay City touchdowns against Saginaw.

The Saginaw defeat snapped a 3-game winning string for Central, which had overpowered Midland (26-13), Muskegon Heights (33-7) and Bay City Handy (51-0) in three previous starts.

Watkins, a 180-pound sophomore, currently is pacing the team in rushing. He has carried 28 times for a net total of 197 yards and a 7.03-yard average. Watkins and Poe are tied for scoring honors with 24 points each.

Spartans Out for 4th Straight Win Over ND

'Three Quarterback' Setup in Backfield Again for MSC

CHICAGO (AP) — Michigan State will toss aside its season's record Saturday and shoot for a fourth successive victory over Notre Dame, a feat no school has accomplished in 42 years.

* * *

If the Spartans, who have beaten only Indiana in thre games succeed, it might well be by passing, the same weapon Purdue used to overcome the Irish, 27-14.

Michigan State publicator Fred Stabley told the Chicago football writers yesterday the Spartans will line up a starting backfield against Notre Dame which will include three quarterbacks.

"And all three can pass," Stabley said. The reason for the three quarterbacks is the loss of Leroy Bolden, star halfback who is not expected to play because of a leg injury.

* * *

Peaks Converted to Q-back

"Because of injuries," said Stabley, "Coach Hugh Daugherty gave Peaks a chance to run at halfback and he's been in there since."

The last time the Irish suffered four or more successive losses to any one team was from 1887 to 1912 when Michigan beat them eight times in a row. During that same span, Notre Dame was beaten four straight by the University of Chicago.

* * *

MSC rolled over Notre Dame 36-33, 35-0, and 21-3 from 1950 to 1952. They did not play last year. The 35-0 beating was one of the worst suffered by Notre Dame under Frank Leahy's coaching regime.

'Lineman of Week'

Another Burris Stars for Oklahoma Sooners

NORMAN, Okla. (AP)—The Burris family of Muskogee, Okla., has its second contender for All America football honors in brother Kurt, the 6-foot-1, 205-pound University of Oklahoma center.

* * *

His raging play as center and linebacker Saturday against Texas in the Dallas Cotton Bowl has already won him the title of Associated Press lineman of the week.

* * *

Dutch Meyer, former TCU coach who scouts opponents for the Frogs, summarized Burris' play after scouting him in the California game with these terse words:

"He just shows up from nowhere and makes the tackle. You never know where he comes from. He's quick, but more than that he has the knack of being in the right place at the right time. And man, how he can hit 'em."

* * *

Until this year Kurt had played at Oklahoma under the shadow of his brother Paul (Buddy) Burris, the Sooners' 1948 All-America guard. But Kurt has made Oklahoma followers almost forget Buddy's legendary feats.

* * *

Younger brother Bob is a junior halfback this year and twins Lyle and Lynn, 16-year-old backfield stars, are sparking the unbeaten Muskogee High School team.

Sunday, Holiday Radio, TV Out for Home Games

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Southern Assn. clubs have been barred from radio broadcasting or televising home games played on Sundays and holidays and playoff games.

Directors of the Class AA baseball league, in adopting the rule yesterday, left the home club authority to decide whether to permit other home games to be broadcast or televised: Atlanta was the only one of the eight clubs to televise games last season.

Perry Starts Off Fast in Defending Title

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Joe (Jet) Perry, member of the San Francisco 49ers is off to a fast start in defense of his National Football League ground-gaining championship.

The NFL's first statistical report of the young season showed today that Perry leads the runners after three weeks of 1954 competition with 237 yards on 39 attempts for an average gain of 6.1 yards per carry.

Only 20 yards behind the former Compton Junior College star is his teammate, hurrying Hugh McElhenny with an average 6.2 for his 217 yards, on 35 attempts. McElhenny, former University of Washington flash, finished seventh in last year's ground-gaining race. Floyd (Breezy) Reid of Green Bay is third with 170 yards for 27 carries and a 6.3 average.

Both have averaged 9.67 yards per pass.

On the receiving end, San Francisco's Billy Wilson, in 3 games, has caught 21 passes for 276 yards and one touchdown.

The Eddie-Debbie Story:

Love Boosts Confidence of Once-Bashful Crooner

Editor's Note: Louella O. Parsons, in this third article telling of the Debbie Reynolds-Eddie Fisher romance, reveals how the pert little actress has helped Fisher become a more polished performer than ever.

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — Eddie Fisher and Debbie Reynolds came to my house to watch Eddie's kinescope of a TV show.

They sat very close together on the sofa. Eddie was very critical of himself and said he wasn't good.

"Don't you think you are as pretty as usual?" Debbie said kiddingly. But when she saw that he was really disturbed, she leaned over and kissed him and gave his hand an extra squeeze and said, "I think you are all an MC should be. As for your voice —well, you can sing for me anytime."

Each time I have been with Debbie and Eddie I have noticed they were more and more in love with each other. This is not just an overnight infatuation. It's a deep, beautiful love. Neither has ever been married.

Debbie has had boy friends—by the dozens—Tab Hunter, Bob Wagner, Richard Anderson, who is now engaged to Alan Ladd's daughter, Carol Ann; Carleton Carpenter and other youths in their early 20s.

But none of these boys meant anything to Debbie other than as an escort to take her to a premiere, a party or a nightclub. Marriage never entered her head.

But with Eddie it's a different story. Whenever he sings, Debbie listens and knows it's for her.

As for Eddie, Debbie is the only girl he has ever thought of giving a wedding ring.

What is it that attracts these two young people to each other?

As I sum it up, their early struggle for success, their loyalty to their old friends and their unspoiled, unaffected attitude on life are the big characteristics both have in common.

The night before I left for Europe, I gave a dinner. I had put Eddie and Debbie at the head table. Time went on and it grew late, but no Eddie and no Debbie. Finally a telephone call came from Eddie.

"Mom, we're lost. We went to Mapleton drive instead of Maple drive."

After dinner had been served they arrived with stars in their eyes and, to this day, I've never been sure wether they were really lost on Mapleton drive or just lost in each other.

While I was in London Eddie broke all known records at the Hollywood Bowl. A friend of mine says that Debbie went backstage to hold Eddie's hand before he faced the 20,000 people gathered to hear their idol sing. They both looked through a peephole into the sea of faces—Debbie turned to Eddie and said:

"Well, Edwin, is the room intimate enough for you?"

It is this terrific sense of humor that Eddie loves, because he is shy and bashful. Debbie gives him self-confidence. She understands music, she understands Eddie.

In the months that he and Debbie have been romantically linked, there's been an enormous change in this boy.

When I think he was too frightened to talk when he first started as an entertainer, it seems unbelievable that today he is a gracious, poised master of ceremonies who is able to introduce other performers and to sing himself with ease and confidence.

In my next article I'll tell you more about this boy who has come such a long way, more about his love for Debbie.

Lively Lives Up to Name on Great Lakes' Vessel

DETROIT (UP)—Herbert Lively, a Great Lakes seaman for more than half a century, is a lively old salt.

"I've been on water ever since," he said.

Story on Speed Timer Costs Newsman $19.75

COLUMBUS, Ind. (AP) — Stuart Snyder, 31, news director of radio station WCST, got the feature story he went after yesterday—sooner than he expected, and at a higher price.

Snyder heard that Columbus police had a new electric traffic speed timer. He was driving around looking for it when a policeman pulled alongside.

"Thirty-nine miles an hour by the new timer," the officer said. It was a 30-mile zone, and the story is going to cost Snyder $19.75 —his fine for speeding.

Oxygen Lack Kills Baby

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—A girl born after her mother's death died in St. Vincent's Hospital late last night.

The infant, weighing 5½ pounds, lived less than 30 hours after the death of her mother, Mrs. Colleen Williams, 24, Franklin. The baby was delivered Monday night, two weeks prematurely.

Mrs. Williams was struck by a falling tree limb in the yard of her home Monday during a tornado. The attending physician said the baby suffered brain injury from lack of oxygen between the time of the mother's death and the birth.

Stock Prices Move Slightly

Movement of prices in either direction was small with few stocks changing as much as a point.

Tobacco shares were lower, the second day of decline in the midst of renewed discussion of the causes of lung cancer and its relation to cigarete smoking.

Aircrafts did well as a group. Glenn Martin, yesterday's most active issue with a gain of ¾, opened today on 5,000 shares up ¼ at 32¼.

Oils were mixed. Royal Dutch Petroleum, second most active yesterday up 2⅝, opened today on 11,000 shares up ¼ at 67⅞.

The rails, steels, motors, and coppers were mixed. Other sections were quietly steady.

Higher stocks included Nickle Plate Railroad, Standard Oil of California, 20th Century-Fox, International Telephone, Phelps Dodge, Texas Instruments, Youngstown Sheet & Tube Chrysler, United Aircraft, Schenley Industries, and Radio Corp.

GEORGE W. ROMNEY

Romney Named to Mason's Post

New American Motors Head Spikes Rumors of Further Mergers

DETROIT (AP) — George W. Romney, executive vice president of American Motors Corp. has been named president, board chairman and general manager of the corporation.

He succeeds George W. Mason, who died suddenly last Friday.

One of Romney's first statements was to deny any negotiations for a merger of American Motors and Studebaker - Packard Corp. have been under way. He also said Mason's plans for the company built out of a merger of Nash-Kelvinator and Hudson Motors will be pursued.

"We will continue efforts launched by Mr. Mason to develop a product reciprocity between American Motors and other companies," Romney said. This, he added, would be designed to "minimize tooling costs and should result in lower production costs through fuller and more economical use of existing manufacturing facilities."

American Motors' growth, prosperity and future, Romney said, "does not depend upon a further merger with any automobile company."

Romney, born in Chihuahua, Mexico, July 8, 1907, was graduated from the University of Utah. In 1929 he became a tariff specialist for U. S. Senator David I. Walsh. Subsequently he was managing director of the Automobile Manufacturers Assn.

During World War II he was managing director of the Automotive Council for War Production and had an active part in coordinating the production activities of the entire auto industry.

Mason took him to Nash-Kilvinator as an executive vice president in 1953. He was named to the same post when the merger of Nash-Kelvinator and Hudson Motor Car Co. was effected last spring.

Expects to Keep Industry Lead

Hails New Cars as Most Complete Change Ever Made in Single Year

By ROBERT B. TARR

Pontiac Press Managing Editor

DETROIT — Production needs incident with extensive changes in the new Chevrolets, and anticipated high sales volume, have necessitated establishment of three new manufacturing plants and involves 25 per cent expansion in the productive capacity of the division.

This was revealed last night by T. H. Keating, general manager of the division after a press showing of the new cars. The cars will be introduced to the public late this month.

Chevrolet expects next year's car market to be as good as or better than the 1954 market and it also expects to maintain its production and sales leadership.

W. E. Fish, Chevrolet's general sales manager, told newsmen from throughout the United States previewing the new Chevrolets at the General Motors Proving Grounds near Milford, that he believes "our new model itself should greatly increase" Chevrolet's share of the 1955 market.

Engineering and styling details of the 1955 models are being withheld until their public introduction about Nov. 1. It already is generally known, however, that the new models have been entirely redesigned and that a V-8 engine has been added to the line for next year.

Discussing comments regarding the Chevrolet - Ford battle for top place in the industry, Fish said:

"We have maintained our leadership this year and increased it. We will continue to do that in 1955."

Fish said he had heard it observed that the 1955 market would be a "free-for-all."

"I think the market will be free but it isn't to be for all," he said.

The industry, the sales executive said, should sell from 5,200,000 to 5,300,000 new cars in 1955. That would make 1955 the industry's third best year.

"It could also be Chevrolet's third best year," Fish said.

He estimated that at Dec. 31, 1954 there will be 54,954,000 vehicles in use in this country, and that 13,500,000 of them will be Chevrolets, a traditional one-in-four ratio.

Owen Lattimore Pleads Innocent

Freed on $2,000 Bail Until Perjury Trial Set Tentatively for Jan. 10

WASHINGTON (INS) — Former State Department Far Eastern expert Owen Lattimore has pleaded not guilty to the government's second series of perjury charges against him—that he falsely denied following the Communist Party line and promoting Red interest.

Lattimore made the denial before Federal District Judge Bolitha J. Laws, who set Jan. 10 as the tentative date for a trail on the two-count indictment returned last week by a federal grand jury.

Lattimore was freed on $2,000 bail after the preliminary hearing.

In the first indictment returned in December 1952, Lattimore was cited for perjury on seven counts. Two of them were dismissed in court—one of them the key charge that he falsely denied "symyathy" with the communists—and the remaining five were consolidated in the new indictment.

Sang as a Child in Synagogue

He's Sung Ever Since Except Three Years—His Voice Changed

NEW YORK — Nineteen-year-old Steve Lawrence, the youthful baritone who ambles so easily about the set of Steve Allen's Tonight show, began his singing career as an assistant to his father, a cantor. One of three brothers, all of whom had outstanding voices, Steve was taught to sing in the synagogue when he was only eight years old.

Despite a three-year layoff (from the time he was 11 until he was 14, while his voice was changing) Steve's entire life has centered about music and the development of his voice. An accomplished pianist and saxpphonist, the boy spent his non-singing years learning, arranging and composing.

When he entered Thomas Jefferson High School in New York City he was a logical candidate for the glee club. During one of their concerts a Jefferson alumnus heard the boy and told New York disc jockey Ted Brown about his remarkable talent. Upon hearing for himself, Brown was tremendously impressed and sent the boy to see vocal coach Fred Steele, who had trained singers such as Kitty Kallen and Eddie Fisher.

After months of concentrated training with Steele, young Steve appeared on a local New York show singing with full orchestra. He had a record made of the show and returned to Ted Brown to show him the progress he had made, as evidenced in the record. Brown was greatly pleased that his initial judgment had been verified and suggested that Steve audition for the Arthur Godfrey show.

On the first try, Godfrey's production staff decided the youngster was not quite ready, so he returned to his vocal studies and several months later tried again. This time, Steve went on the program and won.

A recording contract was the next step, then the singing spot on The Steve Allen Show. When the Allen show became TV's "Tonight" show, Steve was retained in the vocal spot—a network entertainer at the age of 19.

TOP YOUNG FARMER—Burd W. Schantz, 20, is the nation's top young farmer. He won the title and a $1000 check from the Future Farmers of America. Schantz is a dairy farmer near Alburtis, Pa., and already has a sizeable investment in farm machinery.

Seeks Carrier of Infant Illness

Gary Hospital Reports 7 Deaths and 24 Others Stricken With Djarrhea

GARY, Ind. (INS) — Medical authorities in Gary were looking today for the "carrier" who caused a diarrhea outbreak at Methodist Hospital in which seven babies died and 24 others became ill.

Officials at the hospital said the diarrhea outbreak began in the nursery for premature babies. The deaths occurred between Friday night and Sunday and no new cases have been reported since that time.

The 24 ailing babies have been placed in isolation and none appeared to be in great danger.

Everett A. Johnson, Methodist Hospital superintendent, said the problem was one of "human contacts and carriers" and it is important that we find the "source of the trouble." He added:

"The hospital did not have the disease prior to Friday, so someone had to bring it into the hospital."

Bacteriologists were conducting studies to see if the person or persons who carried the disease into the hospital can be located.

When the first symptoms of the illness were discovered, the nursery was closed and the Gary Board of Health notified. A larger nursery also was closed when it appeared that the disease might spread there.

New nurseries were established and visitors to the obstetrical ward were limited.

Johnson said the hospital is equipped to prevent the spread of diarrhea to newborn babies and "obstetrical cases will continue to be admitted to the hospital."

To Rule on Macomb Disaster Assistance

MOUNT CLEMENS (INS)—A representative of the Civil Defense Administration was to arrive in Mount Clemens today to determine whether flooded portions of southern Macomb County are eligible for disaster relief.

More than 5,000 basements were flooded by storm water overflow last week in Roseville, Center Line, East Detroit, St. Clair Shores and Warren Township.

President Eisenhower ordered the Civil Defense Administration to act after requests had been made by Governor Williams, Sen. Ferguson and Rep. Wolcott.

Officials in the flooded areas contend the federal government's insistence that the nine mile drain be extended during World War II caused the flood conditions.

Leaders of 2 Churches Mull Possible Merger

CLEVELAND (AP) — Administrative groups of the Evangelical and Reformed Church and the General Council of the Congregational Christian Churches are meeting here to discuss a possible merger.

A union of the two churches was voted originally several years ago, but court proceedings in New York state halted the action. Higher courts later approved the merger plans.

John Knight Hits Argentine Press

U. S. Publisher Claims Papers Grovel Before Dictator Peron

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (UP) —John S. Knight, publisher of the Knight newspapers, says the press in President Juan D. Peron's Argentina "crawls on its belly before the dictator for the dubious privilege of earning a living."

"The oppressive hand of the (Argentine) police state . . . completely throttled freedom of expression, made a farce of the legislative procedure and violated the sanctity of the courts," the publisher said in a speech here Tuesday night.

Knight spoke at a banquet winding up the 1954 convention of the Inter-American Press Association after former Argentine publisher Alberto Gainza Paz had given him an award for "furthering inter-American understanding and good will."

Knight said the future prospects for Argentina are not entirely black.

"A nation which has known freedom can rise again to break its chains and repudiate the subjugation of liberty," the American publisher said.

More Dockers Strike in Britain

Wildcat Bus Walkout Upsets Transportation in London

LONDON (AP)—Britain's mushrooming dock strike spread to Southampton and Glasgow today and a wildcat busmen's walkout cripled teeming London's surface transport system.

More than 2,000 Southampton longshoremen downed tools in a one-day token stoppage supporting the 30,000 men already out in London. At Glasgow, 1,000 dockers staged a lightning strike following a local dispute over pay rates for handling certain types of cargoes.

* * *

Of about 100 ships in London, only seven were being fully worked by 500 "permanent" dockers who have no part in the dispute. The strikers are casual workers, hired from job to job.

Close to 1,200 of the capital's 7,600 doubledeck and trolley buses were idle after 5,500 conductors and drivers walked off the job.

* * *

The busmen are protesting new emergency schedules introduced to improve services already depleted by a ban on overtime. The overtime ban is part of a busman's campaign for a hike in wages.

The striking dockers want more pay and a ban on compulsory overtime.

Only 20 Years Old

America's Star Farmer Builds $30,000 Enterprise

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Success story, American style:

Seven years ago Burd W. Schant's father died, placing much of the burden of operating the family farm on his son. At the time, Burd was 13.

Today the farm is a $30,000 enterprise and young Schantz, now 20, is the 1954 Star Farmer of America.

He was named Star Farmer last night at the annual Future Farmers of America convention. His selection as the outstanding youth in the 371,000-member organization culminated a long struggle.

* * *

After his father's death he and his mother decided to operate the 65-acre farm near Alburtis, Pa., jointly. The farm had been devoted mainly to poultry production.

Burd decided to add dairying. He purchased a registered Holstein heifer for $150 in 1947 as the start of a herd. Today the herd numbers 42 head, including 22 registered animals.

"Every time I'd get some money from the chickens," he said, "I'd put it into the dairy."

By working long hours in addition to finishing his scholing, Burd also converted the farm from a horse-power operation to machinery. He has two new tractors plus considerable other equipment.

* * *

"Why, I'll reinvest it in the farm," he said, "that's what I've tried to do all along—plow my earnings or a good part of them back in the place.

Holland Lady Loses Weight Praises Tonic In Rennel

"Rennel Concentrate to me is a health promoter," writes Mrs. C. W. Starr, 141 Coolidge Ave. "I am 52 years old and weigh 120 lbs. In the past I have reduced at least three lbs. per week with Rennel, but at present I am using it as a health builder. I am recuperating from major surgery and on arriving home from the hospital had to take enemas every day. It sure was a relief to start taking Rennel again. It insures good elimination and gives me a satisfied feeling of well being. I keep my weight under control eating quite normally, less on sweets and starches. I take Rennel after meals, in fact it takes the place of dessert with me. I eat what I like, only less of it, and am never hungry after taking Rennel."

Just another satisfied user of Rennel Concentrate who has made it do for her what she wanted it to do. If not pleased with the very first bottle return it to the manufacturer for your money back. Priced at $1.60.

SUPERSONIC JET—This needle-like supersonic jet, named Fairey Delta II, has been successfully test flown in England. A single-seater, it is powered by a Rolls Royce "Avon" turbo-jet engine, and has an unusually thin delta midwing described as "sword-edged." The elongated nose section, which has an air speed indicator in the end, lowers in flight like a drawbridge to permit visibility while landing and taxiing.

Students' Vices Outlawed at Straight-Laced School

ZAREPHATH, N. J. (UP) — Drinking, smoking, dancing—even lipstick—are unheard of at Alma White, a college Shangri-la where the professors wear black bowler hats, frock coats and stiff white collars.

The beautiful 1,000-acre campus, nestled peacefully beneath the Watchung Mountains, is a far cry from the "average" American college where the professors dress like businessmen, co-eds wear jeans and social life centers about Saturday night dances.

There are no week-end high-jinks at Alma White, a spiritual haven for 30 young men and women and the six unpaid teachers who comprise the entire college populations.

There are no stadium-jammed football games, no shrieking cheer leaders to whip up student "spirit," no fraternities, no sororities, no social teas, no gala "float" parades and annual homecomings here. There is only a quiet peace.

The Rev. Arthur K. White, president, whose mother, Bishop Alma White, founded the institution in 1921, said the school was set up to develop more fully the students' mental, physical and spiritual faculties.

The college, only 30 miles from Newark, the states largest city, was founded and supported by the Pillar of Fire, a Methodist order. It is accredited by the state and confers degrees of bachelor of science and bachelor of arts.
