Soviet Union Unveils World Peace Program

Would Remove Foreign Troops From Germany

Calls for Arms Cuts by Big Powers and Ban on Atomic Weapons

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union unveiled a world peace plan today calling for the immediate withdrawal of most foreign troops from both East and West Germany, big power arms cuts and a controlled ban on atomic weapons.

The plan was made public a few hours before top Soviet officials gathered in Warsaw with leaders of their seven East European allied nations to establish a unified NATO-type alliance under a Russian commander.

The announcement also came shortly after the delivery of Western invitations for Soviet Premier Bulganin to meet with President Eisenhower, British Prime Minister Eden and French Premier Faure for an informal discussion of world problems.

There was no immediate Soviet reaction to the invitation, but it was believed here that Bulganin would accept.

The peace plan was circulated by the Soviet's Tass news agency, which said the proposals were contained in two declarations submitted as a resolution to the U.N. subcommittee on disarmament now holding closed sessions in London. Many of its provisions were similar to previous Soviet proposals.

The bid for the evacuation of foreign troops from Germany was contained in the first declaration, an eight-point general peace plan.

It called on the U.N. Assembly to declare that "a weakening of international tension can be achieved by the immediate evacuation of troops of the Big Four powers from German territory, leaving limited contingents and police forces."

The Russians said these remaining contingents should be allowed to stay "pending the conclusion of an agreement on their full withdrawal."

The second declaration, containing specific disarmament proposals, listed the following three points as necessary to "free humanity from the threat of a new destructive war":

1. Full prohibition of the use and production of nuclear and other weapons of mass destruction and the diversion of this potential energy to peaceful uses.

2. Substantial reduction of all arms.

3. Setting up of a control organ with right and authority guaranteeing effective observation by all countries of this prohibition and reduction.

There was no immediate comment from the State Department in Washington on the Russian disarmament proposals.

Tigers Sell Ray Herbert, Drop Souchock, Sanford

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Tigers cut their roster to 28 players today as they released veteran utility man Steve Souchock and infielder Ron Sanford and sold pitcher Ray Herbert to Kansas City. The move left the Tigers one man over the major league limit of 27 and they will have to cut to that mark by midnight tonight.

Souchock, who had been with the Tigers since 1951, was sent to their Buffalo farm club in the International League.

Sanford, who was acquired from the New York Giants via the waiver route earlier this season, was dropped from the roster as of midnight tonight.

The Tigers put him up for waivers, or claiming by other major league clubs, and his baseball status was left open pending outcome of the waivers.

Magsaysay, Ferguson Agree to Reopen Bases

MANILA (AP) — President Ramon Magsaysay and U. S. Ambassador Homer Ferguson agreed today to put American wartime bases in the Philippines back into active use.

The number of bases was not given. They are scattered throughout the Philippines.

Clean-Up Time Across the Nation

Mistrial Motion Is Denied in Raping, Kidnaping Case

Oakland County Circuit Judge H. Russel Holland this morning denied a motion for a mistrial in the case of four men accused of kidnaping and raping a Pontiac mother of three.

Under cross examination by defense attorney William Brusstar of Detroit, the woman said she contracted a "disease" as a result of the alleged assault.

Brusstar then asked the mistrial ruling on the basis that her testimony was prejudiced.

The woman yesterday identified the four defendants as the men she charges kidnaped and raped her last March 6. She took the stand following selection of an all-woman jury.

Accused are Oscar Chavers, 26, of Gary, Ind., his brother Richard, 23, of 38 Lake St., Joe Williams Jr., 22, of 38 Lake and Winston Johnson, 25, of 312 Hughes.

They are charged with criminally assaulting the woman during a 1½-hour car ride after Oscar Chavers allegedly dragged her from an auto stuck in mud off South boulevard. The defendants allegedly came upon the woman while she waited alone in the stalled car.

Under questioning by Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem and his chief assistant, George F. Taylor, the woman said she had acted as a bridesmaid at a friend's wedding.

Her husband was hospitalized at the time, she stated, and her mother was staying with the couple's children. Following the wedding, she said she saw a younger bridesmaid home in company with a man she had met twice before.

He asked the housewife if she "would like some fresh air" and they took a short ride, becoming stuck while attempting to turn around, she stated. The woman then described a lengthy series of events which led to her alleged abduction after her escort left to summon a tow truck.

The woman said she had not known any of the four defendants before the night involved and explained she learned their names at the police station after their arrest.

Dense Fog Prevents Frost Damage Here

Dense fog which covered this area and most of Michigan during the night prevented expected frost in all but a few widely scattered areas.

The general forecast today is for fair and warmer weather tomorrow, with the thermometer reaching a probable high of 72. Tonight's lowest will be 42-46, according to the weather bureau. Skies may be cloudy.

Yesterday's highest temperature in downtown Pontiac was 54 degrees and rainfall totaled .06.

Today, the mercury rose from a low of 40 at 5 a.m. to 70 degrees at 2 p.m.

Wilson Notes Signs of Peace

'Reasonably Optimistic' About the Prospect for World Calm

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Wilson is "reasonably optimistic" about the prospect for world peace.

In reply to news conference questions Tuesday Wilson said that "I sometimes feel the world is making progress" toward peace.

But he also commented that "I don't think we can judge by any one little thing" which may occur from time to time.

Wilson said that "if anyone seriously thinks of disarmament and of trying to cool the world off a little bit" he would favor it.

Wilson was asked whether he was alarmed about the latest shooting incident between United States Air Force fighters and Communist planes off Korea. American planes shot down two Communist fighters Tuesday and probably destroyed a third.

"I wouldn't say 'alarmed,'" Wilson answered. "I think it was just an isolated incident."

Wilson gave a broad hint that he has just about decided on a new Army chief of staff and will name him within the next two months.

Oh, Those Fly-Boys!

INDIANAPOLIS (UP) — The Air Force announced it will conduct a beauty contest to choose an Indiana "Air Princess." "All entries become the property of the judges," the publicity release said.

Big Expansion Being Planned at Parke, Davis

Million Dollar Project Will Boost Capacity for Polio Vaccine

Ground breaking was tentatively scheduled for Monday on a $1,000,000 new biological laboratory and expansion of existing facilities at the Parke, Davis & Co. polio vaccine producing center at Rochester.

The expansion, expected to be completed in four months, will enable the firm to turn out some two million doses of the Salk vaccine each week, according to Homer C. Fritsch, executive vice president. Current capacity is one million doses.

The new 100x200-foot cement block building will be attached to the present polio unit, and will include new laboratories and a possible cafeteria. The polio laboratory unit is one of a group of buildings on Parkedale road, just east of Rochester, located on a 700-acre site.

The firm is one of the biggest producers of polio vaccine in the United States. Currently the vaccine has been produced in two buildings, one of which houses several thousand monkeys which play an important role in the making of the vaccine.

Kidneys and other tissues from the animals are used to grow the three types of virus in test tubes. Final product is tested in live monkeys before it is pronounced safe and effective.

Established in 1908

Located on rolling countryside, the Parkedale biological and botanical laboratories were established in 1908, and have produced many types of antitoxins and vaccines.

Smallpox, rabies and influenza vaccines are currently being produced there in addition to the Salk polio vaccine.

The present polio unit was completed in October of last year for the purpose of producing the Salk vaccine.

Salk Check Begins at Parke, Davis Co.

DETROIT (INS) — Two U. S. public health Service officials arrived at Parke Davis & Co. today to apply the government's new "double check" on unreleased Salk polio vaccine and perhaps get the mass inoculations rolling again.

Approval of the Parke-Davis vaccine by Dr. William G. Workman, chief of the health service biological control laboratory, and his assistant would assure continuation of the immunizations in Michigan and many other states.

Virtually all of the vaccine used in Michigan was made by Parke-Davis, the first drug firm to enter mass production and hence the first of five currently-active producers to be subjected to the government's new safety check.

Unpaved Pontiac Streets Will Be Chloride-Coated

The City Commission last night approved a plan to put a chloride dust-layer on all unpaved Pontiac streets.

City Manager Walter K. Willman said it would cost $10,000 to put one coat of liquid chloride on the approximately 100 miles of dust-producing streets. Two and possibly three coats will be needed each summer, he said.

Cost of the yearly undertaking will be paid from city funds. This is the first time in Pontiac history a dust-coating program has been established on such a basis.

Formerly, if residents on dirt streets wanted a dust-preventative coating put on, they had to collect the necessary money themselves.

Upon receipt of the money, the city would prepare the streets and put on the chloride.

"This has not been a satisfactory solution of the over-all situation and has not really been completely satisfactory to the persons who have paid for the chloride," Willman said.

"The nuisance can often arise from a street area adjacent to their property but not abutting it," he explained.

May Start Next Week

Willman said it would take about 10 days to coat the 100 miles, adding that he hoped to get the work started next week.

In his report on the program Willman pointed out to the commissioners it would not be necessary to apply chloride on "unoccupied streets with little travel or on sparsely occupied streets with little travel, except immediately in front of houses where a nuisance might occur."

Willman said a savings of "at least 25 per cent" in gravel and maintenance costs would be realized thanks to the chloride program.

Strike Favored in Ford Voting

Early Returns Indicate Overwhelming Support for Walkout

DETROIT (AP) — First returns from a strike vote being conducted among Ford Motor Co. workers today showed overwhelming support for a possible walkout to support contract demands.

The CIO United Auto Workers Union, which resumed bargaining with Ford today, said the first returns were from Local 862 at Louisville, Ky. The vote was 1,663 to 28 in favor of a strike if the union's demands are not met. Some 93 workers did not vote.

Today's meeting between Ford and the union was the first in a week and the tempo was expected to pick up after more than a month of more or less preliminary conferences.

Negotiators planned to dig seriously into economic matters for the first time. Because of this, UAW President Walter P. Reuther was on hand for today's session.

The Ford-UAW five-year contract expires June 1. The union is expected to make its biggest pitch for a guaranteed annual wage at Ford.

The UAW's national Ford Council on Monday instructed local unions to take strike votes within the next two weeks. This is required by the UAW constitution before a walkout could be called.

The strike vote also is a move designed to put additional pressure on a company to meet union demands.

A strike vote also was called for among 325,000 General Motors employes across the nation. GM and the union will resume contract talks next Monday.

Rains Answer Prayers From Dry Southwest

By UNITED PRESS

The organized prayers of drouth-stricken Texas and Oklahomans were answered today with million-dollar rains.

The downpours were laced with winds and storms which were blamed for at least six deaths in Texas alone. But they seemed like an answer from heaven to dust-plagued farmers.

Meanwhile a May cold wave threatened the northern Midwest with frost and moved in on 90-degree temperatures in the Southeast.

The rains which began in Texas Sunday have been worth literally millions of dollars. Wide areas in the state's central, north and western sections received thorough dousings.

Meanwhile the Midwest "cold wave" moved slowly south and east, laying down rains in front of it. Cooler temperatures were predicted for the Southland, where the mercury hit 94 at Albany, Ga., and 93 at Doltham, Ala., yesterday.

Wilkowski Files Appeal

DETROIT (AP)—The U.S. Supreme Court today has an appeal from former State Sen. Anthony J. Wilkowski to reverse a Michigan Supreme Court decision refusing him a seat in the state Senate.

692 Are Saved After 2 Ferries Collide in Fog

Cold Waters of Inland Sea Swallow Up Many Schoolchildren

TAKAMATSU, Japan (AP) — Two big ferry boats crashed together in thick fog today, throwing 779 passengers — half of them schoolchildren — into the cold waters of Japan's inland sea.

With a gaping hole in its side, the Shiun Maru sank in only five minutes. There was panic and chaos in the mad scramble for life.

A total of 143 were listed as dead or unaccounted for.

Sixty-five bodies have been recovered. Six hundred ninety-two were saved, including 51 injured.

Willis Adams and his wife Bernadine, American missionaries, were among passengers saved.

It was Japan's worst sea disaster since last September's typhoon drowned 1,600 off Hokkaido in five sinkings. The capsizing of the huge ocean ferry Toya Maru cost 1,200 lives.

Today the 1,500-ton Shiun Maru apparently swerved in heavy fog to avoid a small fishing craft—right into the steel bows of the 1,200-ton rail car ferry Udaka Maru. The car ferry ripped a great gash in the Shiun Maru's steel plates.

The Shiun Maru's passengers—300 of them schoolchildren—clawed frantically for life jackets on the reeling decks.

Grade school girls from Hiroshima died in the disaster today because they didn't want to leave behind their trip souvenirs.

"Most of the boys were on deck with their belongings, and they quickly jumped. But the girls had left their things in the cabins.

"I shouted 'Leave your things! Jump! Jump!' but some cried 'Oh, the pretty things for mother!' And ran back inside.

"I ran after them, but the ship rolled over and sank.

"Somehow, I came to the surface, but about 20 of my girls went with the ship.

"This I can never forget."

"I suspect about 50 of them went down with the ship, or were pulled down with it," said Maj. Robert R. Dobson, Charlotte, N.C., commanding an American Army mercy mission.

Dobson led three Army ambulance helicopters and two liaison planes to help evacuate the in-

Public Turnpike Hearing Is Held

Senate Highways Body Hears Views of Toll Road Supporters

Supporters of the proposed 113-mile toll road from Rockwood to Saginaw voiced their views last night in Lansing before the Senate Highways Committee.

The committee held the hearing on a bill, sponsored by Rep. Lucille McCollough (D-Dearborn), which would permit local governments to prevent toll roads from going through their communities.

Chairman of the Michigan Turnpike Authority, William E. Slaughter, said the bill, already passed by the House, would kill toll roads in the state. "It is an indirect method of repealing the turnpike act rather than amending it," he asserted.

The measure would allow a coalition of communities to block construction of the proposed turnpike, he stated, "although no comparable free road could be built as fast."

Head of Consumers Power Co. Justin Whiting, a turnpike authority member, said the planned route actually was "pretty nearly defined by the Legislature in the bill which created the turnpike authority."

Mayor William Brown, of Ann Arbor, said, "Michigan's roads are 20 years behind where they should be, and we're not catching up with our free road program. It seems to me the toll road program is a sensible one."

1,200-Home Project in Southfield Area

Rodney Lockwood, a past president of the National Association of Home Builders, today announced plans for a 1,200-home development in Southfield Township.

He said the project, to be known as Cranbrook Village, will be the largest new home project ever built by one company in the North Woodward area. Site is a 400-acre tract between Southfield and Evergreen and 12 and 13 Mile Roads.

The development will cost about $25,000,000 and houses are designed to sell from $17,000 to $34,000.

Big 4 Envoys Hold Final Vienna Talks

VIENNA, Austria (AP)—The Big Four ambassadors planned a final session on the Austrian independence treaty today. If they still cannot agree on the reparations clause officials reported, the deadlock will be left for the four powers' foreign ministers to break.

Despite the continuing East-West disagreement, many Austrian officials are still confident that the four ministers—Russia's V. M. Molotov, U. S. Secretary of State Dulles, British Foreign Secretary Harold Macmillan and French Foreign Minister Antoine Pinay—would come here this weekend to conclude the long-delayed treaty.

'It Was Just Like a Horrible Dream'

Missionary's Wife Tells of Rescue in Ferry Collison

TAKAMATSU, Japan (AP)—"It was just a horrible dream. It all happened so fast. It was awful to see those people dying."

Mrs. Bernardine Adams, 33, of Junction City, Wis., her face drawn, spoke slowly from her hospital bed:

"I can't believe it really happened," she said, recalling a day that started out with a pleasant boat trip and ended in shipwreck and pain.

She and her husband, Willis, 34, of Pleasanton, Kan., were the only non-Japanese passengers aboard the ferry Shiun Maru that sank in Japan's inland sea today after colliding in heavy fog with the Udaka Maru.

The Adams' have been with the Evangelical Alliance Mission in Japan since 1950.

"We heard our ferry blow its whistle," she said. "Then we heard another ship whistle. The next thing we heard was the ships ramming together. It wasn't much of a jolt. Everybody started to run and shout."

She said she and Adams put on life jackets and went on deck. Then they realized the ship was tipping and about to sink.

"My life jacket was so tight I couldn't get over the rail," she continued. "Finally my husband pulled me over. The ship was tipping so far we just slid down its side into the water.

"My husband swam to the ship that hit us, with me holding on. He grabbed an outlet pipe in its side.

"We saw three lifeboats turn over. Some people crawled on these. Many were panicky. I'm afraid there were a lot of children who were not rescued."

Mrs. Adams said her husband held to the pipe for 15 or 20 agonizing minutes before someone passed him a rope ladder. He climbed to safety. She was pulled up after looping a fire hose around her waist.

"Children grabbed the fire hose too, but some of them dropped back. I don't know what happened to them. It wasn't very pleasant to see. Everybody was black with oil. I saw one woman just floating."

Mrs. Adams suffered pelvic injuries. Adams suffered from slight exposure and shock but did not require hospitalization.

"That was one place where you do a lot of praying," she said. "We prayed."

Brucker Backs Bentley on CD

Ex-Governor Believes State Should Not Rely on Federal Assistance

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Bentley (R-Mich) today claimed Defense Department backing for his stand in opposition to a proposal by Gov. Williams of Michigan that the department take over Civil Defense planning.

Bentley based his claim on a sentence in a long letter from the department's general counsel, Wilber M. Brucker, saying:

"It has always been considered that military leadership might be construed as unwarranted encroachment on civil authority and . . . might engender an unwarranted reliance on military performance in domestic emergencies."

Brucker is a former Republican governor of Michigan. Bentley has been rumored as a possible contender for the GOP gubernatorial nomination next year when the Democrat Williams will be winding up his forth straight term.

Williams urged some time ago that a secretary of civil defense be established in the Defense Department. The federal Civil Defense Administration headed by Val Peterson is now an independent agency.

"I am opposed," Bentley said, "to any such encroachment on civil authority by our military and am glad to see that the Department of Defense shares my views."

jured and search for the missing.

The search found no bodies, Dobson said.

Japanese planes and a swarm of small boats also searched.

The ferries collided between Takamatsu on Shikoku Island and Uno, the port of Okayama on the main island, Honshu. The Shiun Maru was 20 minutes out of Takamatsu and the Udaka Maru was coming from Uno across an 11-mile arm of the island-studded inland sea.

Both ships were using radar, said Japan National Railway officials.

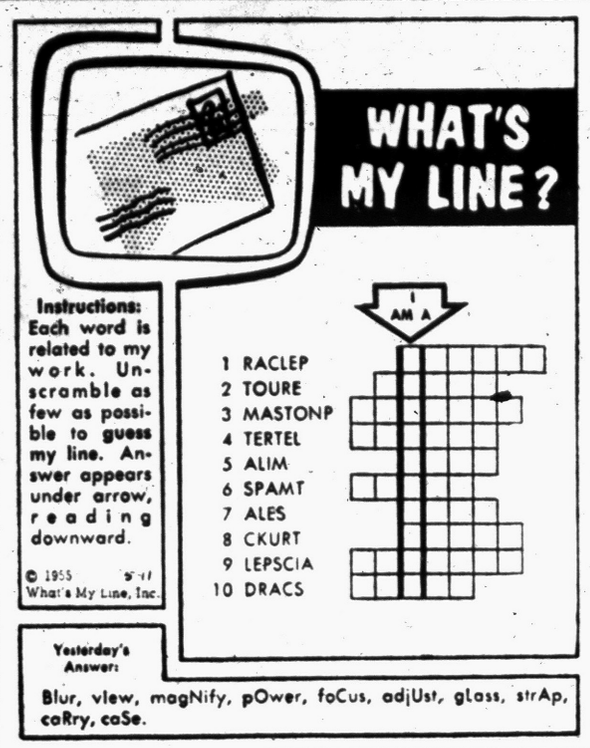

Capt. Minoru Miyake, master of the Udaka Maru, said he had been tracking the Shiun Maru for two miles.

Capt. Masao Nakamura, the Shiun Maru's skipper, went down with his ship, JNR said.

The Shiun Maru, an underwater tomb, lay on its side, barely submerged and clearly visible from the air.

Survivors said the ship heeled suddenly on its side before its final plunge. The violence and suction overturned life boats and life rafts.

L&N Railway Strike Ends as Men Report for Duty

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The Louisville and Nashville Railroad strike, one of the longest in recent history, ended today when workers reported for duty in 14 states.

The order in which workers will return was settled at a meeting here last night.

N. E. Lane, general chairman of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, declined to discuss settlement terms. He admitted, however, that some operating brotherhoods had recalled their members for picket line duty over this issue.

The L&N had taken the position it was "not feasible" to call all men back since its passenger trains will not resume operations until next Monday.

In Nashville, L. G. Clay, secretary of the local Brotherhood of Engineers, contended the plan to recall workers according to seniority as jobs came up "will make an extra board out of the entire roster of operators."

Clay said last night the unions want all members on the regular jobs they held before the nonoperators' walkout began March 14. The operating unions joined shortly thereafter.

In Washington tomorrow, Francis J. Robertson will begin closed hearings on issues which brought on the strike.

The 45-year-old attorney was selected as arbitrator yesterday by the National Mediation Board. Board Chairman Francis A. O'Neill Jr. said Robertson's decision, expected within a week, will be final and binding.

PTA at Bagley Plans to Hold Spring Festival

Bagley School PTA is presenting a Spring Festival Friday evening from 5:30 until 8:30 p. m. at the school.

Funds raised by this year's festival will serve two purposes. Although a portion of the money will be used for the PTA budget, a larger amount will be used for playground equipment.

The festival will serve as a kick-off for a two-week drive for playground funds.

Mrs. Ernest Johnson and Mrs. I. W. Lidell, co-chairmen, have planned a full evening of fun with the help of parents and teachers.

There will be various booths and games, including the Bagley bakery, white elephant sale, country story, make-up room, movies, fish pond and even a boxing match.

Refreshments will be on sale throughout the evening.

Extra School Aid Weathers Test Vote

A preliminary vote taken in the Michigan state legislature Tuesday endorses an extra $3 state aid per child for distressed school districts as part of the new state aid school bill. This has to be passed by Friday of this week.

The plan originally was proposed by Oakland county educators and presented at statewide meetings by William Shunck, Waterford Township superintendent of schools. It would provide more money for schools in Brandon, Clarenceville, Clarkston, Madison, Farmington and Waterford because of their financial need.

To qualify under the proposal, a district must be locally levying 20 mills or more for its total school operation and building program.

About 144 districts in the state are expected to qualify.

Historical Commission Ordinance Reading Held

First reading of an ordinance establishing a Pontiac Historical Commission was held by the City Commission last night.

The commission's duty would be to "collect, arrange and preserve historical material . . . relating to the history of the city of Pontiac; and to procure and preserve narratives of the early pioneers, their exploits, perils, privations and achievements."

Membership would be comprised of five commissioners and the mayor, who would serve in an ex-officio capacity.

Oakland, Macomb Scouts Weekend in Canada

Explorer Scouts from Oakland and Macomb Counties motored to Sarnia, London and Chatham, Ont. last weekend and were welcomed by Canadian Rover Scouts at a campfire meeting on the outskirts of Sarnia.

Twenty units, represented by 138 scouts, made a night tour of Sarnia's industrial plants along the St. Clair River.

The scouts were led by Ernest Lawrence of Mt. Clemens, chairman of the trek committee. He was assisted by David Vogt of Utica and Joe Vargas of Mt. Clemens.

Following breakfast Saturday morning, the group went to London where Rover Scouts conducted the group on a tour of the city and a visit to the University of Western Ontario and the Veterans Hospital.

Traveling on to Chatham, the Explorers found something new at a banquet given them by the Parke Street United Church—a toast to the Queen and the singing of the Canadian national anthem. In Chatham the scouts were welcomed by the mayor and the secretary of the Chamber of Commerce and saw 12-year-old Lucy McRae perferm several traditional dances of Scotland.

The group broke camp for home Sunday morning, after church services, stopping for lunch at Point Pelee National Park.

Pontiac units taking part in the trip were:

Explorer Ship Five of the Congregational Church; Explorer Post 56 of the Salvation Army and Explorer Crew Group 39 of Hawthorne School.

Other Oakland and Macomb County units were:

Troop 38 of South Lyon; Troop 30, Lambert School; Post 42, White Lake; Troop 112, Walled Lake; Troop 127, Lake Orion; Troop 138, Ortonville; Post 14, Oxford; Troops 80, 83, 140 and 141 of Utica; Troops 71, 96, 75 and Post 74, Mt. Clemens; Troop 87, Romeo, and Troop 89 of Countyline school.

Community Club Will Hear Reports

Members of the Wever-Owen-Hawthorne Community Club will hear reports by the group's Community Improvement Committee and a report on recent improvements when they meet Thursday at the Owen School.

City Commissioner Floyd P. Mills is the scheduled speaker for the 7:30 meeting.

Reporting on recent improvements the club has made on community playgrounds will be John Emerson. Mrs. Arnold Somson, Community Improvement Committee chairman, will file a report on her unit's progress.

Mrs. George Gray, club president, will conduct the business meeting. The session is open to the public and refreshments will be served.

Defense Budget Goes to House

Manpower Cuts Main Point of Controversy in $31 Billion Request

WASHINGTON (AP) — A bill to provide a whopping $31,488,206,000 for the nation's defense came before the House today. The administration's military manpower cuts loomed as the main point of controversy.

Indications were the final voting, scheduled for tomorrow, would find the House almost solidly behind the President's position—that of greater reliance of air and atomic power and less on manpower.

As approved by the Appropriations committee, the bill provides for an Army of 1,027,000 men, a Navy of 657,000, plus 193,000 Marines and 975,000 Air Force personnel by June 30, 1956.

This would be an over-all reduction of 102,000 from estimated strength as of this June 30.

The bill would appropriate $744,609,000 less than the President requested, but the cuts are largely technical.

The bill would allot the Army $7,329,818,000, the Navy $9,071,834,000, the Air Force $14,401,904,000 and miscellaneous Defense Department activities $684,650,000.

Pontiac Deaths

Nicholas E. Gotch

Service for Nicholas E. Gotch, 36, of 38 Delaware Dr. will be held tonight at 8 p.m. from the Donelson-Johns Funeral Home with the Rev. Soterios D. Gouvellis of the St. George Greek Orthodox Church officiating.

He will then be taken to the Kaprive Funeral Home in Masontown, Pa. for service and burial Saturday.

Mr. Gotch died Monday at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital from injuries received in an automobile accident Sunday.

Virgil T. Wagner

The funeral for Virgil T. Wagner, 62, of 115 N. Sanford St., will be held Thursday at 1 p.m. from the Sparks-Griffin Chapel with Dr. Milton H. Bank of the Central Methodist Church officiating.

Following the service Mr. Wagner will be taken to Columbus, Ind., for burial in Garland Brook Cemetery.

Mr. Wagner died suddenly Monday following a heart attack.

Pontiac Councilmen Get Gideon Bibles

Each city officer at last night's City Commission meeting was presented with a white Bible by the Gideon Society.

The society, an organization of Christian businessmen, places Bibles in hotel rooms and other public places. They also distribute them to service men and students.

During the past year, 6,600 testaments were placed with students in Oakland County schools. Last Wednesday, local Gideons placed more than 1,300 copies in the Rochester school system.

There are 25 Gideons in Pontiac and 45 in the county. They are members of 20 different churches.

duction in a great deal of maintenance."

He added that "at the conclusion of a season the money has been spent and we still have a gravel street."

But, he said, "it is my thought that this added service can be justified in the interest of a cleaner city and a better traffic condition."

Approximately 15 miles of streets are paved each year on the current capital improvements program. So within seven years, the chloride program should become unnecessary.

Big Conservation Budget OK'd by Finance Leaders

LANSING (UP) — A record $14,830,389 conservation budget calling for more park land, more game officers and more fish experiments gained approval of legislative finance leaders today.

Rep. Arnell Engstrom (R-Traverse City) said the budget, approved by the House Ways and Means Committee, "very likely" will survive House and Senate votes.

The budget is the biggest in the 34-year history of the Conservation Department—but $3,070,465 less than requested by the department.

Conservation Director Gerald Eddy said committee action in cutting $2,318,000 from the department's request for purchase of more parks will "seriously handicap" park development.

But park officials said they still hope to "step up" their park program with the $800,000 capital outlay appropriation for park development as approved by the House committee.

The department failed to get money to increase its trout planting program and its game habitat improvement programs, but the committee approved addition of 13 enforcement officers and money for increased research on warm water fishing.

The department wanted 28 more enforcement officers to bring its force to 200.

Some $250,000 was asked for game and acquisition. The committee approved $150,000.

Meanwhile, conservation officers said they have "lost all hope" of an extension of their dirscretionary deer herd powers.

Naval Reserve Week Scheduled for May 23-30

The week of May 23 to 30 has been set aside as Pontiac Naval Reserve Week according to a proclamation signed today by Mayor William W. Donaldson.

The proclamation, which honors local Naval reservists and their role in maintaining America's defense, reads in part:

"Whereas the local Naval Reserve . . . is making it possible for naval training to be given Naval reservists in this area, establishing Pontiac as an important part of the national reserve structure and . . .

"Whereas it is proper and fitting that recognition should be made of the fine record established by Pontiac naval reservists in discharging their obligations to our country . . . I, William W. Donaldson, hereby proclaim . . . Pontiac Naval Reserve Week in honor of Pontiac reservists who are doing their part to 'maintain America's Power for peace.'"

New Drainage Bill in Effect This Week

A new Michigan Drainage bill, signed recently by the Governor, takes effect as law this week, according to Ralph A. Main, Oakland County Drain Commissioner.

Act No. 44, dealing with county drains financed by assessing and general taxes among other revisions, gave to county drain commissioners the responsibility of appointing Boards of Determination.

Under the stipulations of the old law, the board was appointed by the Probate Judge. The Board of Determination investigates proposed county drains to determine if they are necessary.

Michigan drain commissioners and members of the legislative committee of the Michigan Association of County Drain Commissioners had worked several months to get various revisions in the law up to the House, Main said.

Red Cross Volunteers' Course to Open June 1

Persons interested in volunteer work for the Oakland County Chapter of the American Red Cross are invited to enroll in an orientation course opening at 10 a.m. on June 1.

The course, required for all Gray Ladies and Nurses Aides, may be taken now by women planning Gray Lady or Nurses Aide Courses in the future. Two hours credit will be allowed.

Instructor will be Mrs. F. M. Broock of Bloomfield Hills. Meeting place will be announced later.

Birmingham Doctor to Address Gardeners

ROYAL OAK — Dr. Raymond L. Girardot of Birmingham will be the guest speaker at the 7:45 p.m. Thursday meeting of the Royal Oak Organic Farm and Garden Club, at the Royal Oak High School.

His topic will be "Nutrition."

DAVID R. EWALT

Optimists Name Ewalt President

Members of Pontiac Optimist Club named David R. Ewalt, 386 Voorheis, new club president at its regular election meeting in the Elks Club, May 5.

Other new officers are: James A. Wright, first vice president; Harold Davis, second vice president; Elwood Brown, secretary-treasurer; Buhl Burt, sargeant-at-arms.

The Board of Directors are: Gay Herrington, Ralph Becker, Wayne Gabert, Russell Doolittle, Joseph Reisz and Everett K. Garrison.

City Barbers Vote to Close 3 Days

Pontiac Barbers' Local No. 50 voted Tuesday to close their shops three Tuesdays during the summer, this giving them three four-day vacations, according to Arthur Blankenburg, secretary.

Memorial Day, Independence Day and Labor Day fall on Mondays this year and since barbershops normally close Wednesdays, the barbers voted to close the Tuesdays of these holiday weeks.

Reason for the decision is the shortage of vacation help for barbers in this area. Otherwise many barbers would get no vacation this summer, Blankenburg said.

Ted Returns to Baseball, Reports to Bosox Friday

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Boston Red Sox general manager Joe Cronin said today that Ted Williams will report to the Boston team Friday.

Williams' divorced wife, Doris, was awarded $50,000 in cash alimony today. The settlement cleared the way for Williams' return to baseball. There had been reports that if his wife was given a percentage of his future earnings, he would remain out of the game.

Pontiac City Affairs

Ewart Told to Amend Peddling Ordinance

City Attorney William A. Ewart last night got City Commission authorization to write a regulatory amendment to the city's peddling ordinance, which has been slapped down by the Circuit Court.

Ewart argued at last week's meeting that precedent established that communities could only regulate, not prohibit, peddling of frozen ice cream confections by street vendors.

Last night, Ewart reiterated his previous statements and also gave an opinion on the State Veterans Preference Act, which had a bearing on the ordinance being called illegal by the court.

After hearing the opinion, the Commission unanimously agreed Ewart should draw up an amendment regulating street sales, thus qualifying the prohibitory ordinance.

Taxi Ordinance Delayed

Action on a new taxicab regulating ordinance was postponed a week and a public hearing for curb, gutter and drainage work on Fourth avenue was deferred two weeks.

Also tabled for two weeks was a rezoning request for a lot at the southeast corner of Lake and Houston Streets.

The Commission concurred with City Plan Commission recommendations rezoning the following:

Lots 591, 592, 593 Ferry Farm Subdivision to Commercial 2, providing alley is deeded from lot 592.

Lots 3, 4 and 5 and portions of lots 128 to 130, Merrimac Subdivision to commercial 1, providing alley is deeded.

The Commission also adopted an ordinance putting into effect the latter recommendation.

Given approval were an application for a carnival license for the Marine Corps League and AMVETS Post 16, a request for a new package beer and wine license at 924-926 Joslyn Ave., and transfer of an SDM license from Frank Rizzuto, 856 Oakland Ave.

Public Hearings Held

Public hearings were held and the city assessor authorized to prepare special assessment rolls for the following:

Curb, gutter and drainage on Peggy avenue from Voorheis to Hazel.
Curb, gutter and drainage on Gerdon avenue from Oakland to Corwin.

Hearings were held and confirmation deferred for the following:

Curb, gutter, drainage and 8-inch re-enforced concrete pavement on Portland avenue from Montcalm to Owen.
Curb, gutter, drainage, concrete pavement on Kennett road from Baldwin to Wing.

A special assessment roll for curb, gutter and drainage on Tennyson avenue from Baldwin to Hollywood was confirmed.

The Day in Birmingham

City Official, Tustin Head to Change Places Monday

BIRMINGHAM — James Allen, Birmingham mayor pro tem, will fly to the city of Tustin in Osceola County Monday to take over as mayor of that city for the day. And Tustin's mayor, Karl A. Anderson, will take the same plane back to Birmingham to fill in as this city's mayor.

The mayor exchange is part of the Michigan Week activities which began Monday.

The city of Tustin is on U.S.-131 between Cadillac and Reed City.

While in Birmingham, Anderson will be taken on a tour of the Ford Tractor Division. He also will attend a joint luncheon for other visiting mayors of South Oakland County communities at Northwood Inn.

City officials said he is scheduled to board the chartered plane for the return flight to Tustin at "about 3:30 Monday afternoon."

The mayor of Bloomfield Hills was scheduled to swap places with the mayor of a community in Manistee County. However, officials today said they doubted the exchange would take place since they had not yet received a letter indicating willingness of that city's mayor to go along with the plan.

In other Bloomfield Hills news, the city commission at its monthly meeting last night gave immediate effect to a proposal which some officials said privately "puts us into the 20th Century as far as work weeks are concerned."

The commission approved a resolution that all city offices be closed on Saturdays. Immediate effect means residents will meet only locked doors this Saturday if they try to visit city offices.

Claims Soviets Hate Iron Rule

Anti-Red Feeling Runs Deeper in Russia Than in U.S., Noble Says

BOSTON (INS) — A former Russian slave labor camp inmate says anti-Communist feeling is stronger in Russia than in the United States.

John H. Noble, 31, Detroit, held prisoner behind the Iron Curtain for nine years, told delegates to the 19th Diocesan Congress of the League of Catholic Women:

"The people in Russia realize what the Communists do to a person. That's why they hate communism. People in the United States do not realize how dangerous communism is because they have never seen it in action."

He said he was imprisoned by the Russians in Dresden, Germany, in 1945. He and his family had been interned in Dresden by the Nazis at the outbreak of World War II.

From Dresden he was moved to the infamous Buchenwald concentration camp, then sent to a slave labor camp in Siberia. He was finally released last January in Berlin.

Most of his knowledge of Communist methods, he said, came from fellow convicts who were mostly Russian political prisoners.

"Because of the secret police, persons outside the labor camps are afraid to say anything. That's why the prisoners know more of what is going on in Russia than the free citizens, Noble pointed out.

Senator Smith Believes Ike Wants to Retire

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Margaret Chase Smith (R-Maine) said today she has the impression President Eisenhower "prefers to retire after 1956."

Cautioning Republicans against basing party strength solely upon the President's personal popularity, she said in remarks prepared for some 1,500 GOP workers attending the Republican Women's National Conference:

"I'm not so sure that Dwight Eisenhower will seek re-election. My present impression is that he prefers to retire after 1956. I certainly would not blame him if he does. But I hope with all my heart that he doesn't."

Mrs. Smith is the first prominent Republican to voice public doubt that Eisenhower will seek a second term. The President has given no sign of his intentions.

Earlier in the conference, GOP National Chairman Leonard W. Hall repeated his asumption that Eisenhower would be nominated and re-elected.

Mrs. Smith continued:

"We have been lucky to have Dwight D. Eisenhower leading our party. But we don't want to push that luck too far.

"We don't want to put all our eggs in one basket—we don't want to lean too heavily upon the Eisenhower popularity.

"Instead, we must build up the popularity of our party as well. No one has said this more eloquently than President Eisenhower himself."

Parking Mystery Baffles Louisville Businessmen

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UP)—Louisville businessmen are just plain baffled.

Twenty-seven garages and parking lots recently offered free parking for the one night a week downtown stores remain open. The move was aimed at boosting sales, in competition with suburban stores.

The garages and lots were jammed with two or three times as many autos as on previous shopping nights, but store business was bad. One store reported fewer customers than on any previous shopping night this year.

Movies reported only normal business. Where did everybody go?

Plan Subway in Lisbon

LISBON (UP) — A subway transit system to be completed here late in 1957 will have a main branch from the business district up the central Avenida da Liberdade, whence it will form two separate lines to the outer suburbs.

Waits 60 Years to Get Checkup on 104th Birthday

TACOMA, Wash. (AP) — When Benjamin A. Trimble was 44 he had a physical checkup and the results were so good he waited 60 years for his next one.

He didn't exactly think it was necessary. He just wanted to be sure he was in condition—at 104—to fly over Seattle's Boeing Airplane Co. plant to "pray down on those men" in the interest of world peace.

The Virginia-born ex-slave got approval from Dr. J. Robert Brooke too. That stout old heart and blood presure would be the envy of a man half Dad Trimbles' age.

The aged Negro took the physical on his 104th birthday yesterday. But before he reported to the doctor, he chopped his day's supply of wood, just as he has done for years. Afterwards, he took a brisk walk and then engaged the neighborhood children in games and footraces.

"That's how I keep young," he said. "That and sassafras tea and putting my faith and trust in the Lord."

Make This 60 Second "Tablespoon Test" And GROW A LAWN LIKE THIS IN 7 DAYS!

Make This 7 Day Test on Your Lawn! See for yourself how fast-acting RX-15 can turn your sick-looking grass into a rich carpet of lawn. Dissolve 1 tablespoon of RX-15 in a gallon of water and write the letters of your name right on your lawn. It takes only 60 seconds . . . yet in 7 days from today you'll see that RX-15 treated lawn growing so much thicker, greener, faster than your untreated section, you'll actually be able to read your name in the grass. And if you don't get these amazing results, simply send back the unused portion of RX-15 and get back every penny you paid for it.

SCIENTISTS' FORMULA SHOOTS FANTASTIC GROWING POWER INTO LAWNS, PLANTS AND VEGETABLES INSTANTLY!

Now Grow Flowers, Shrubs, Trees In Virtually Any Soil—Even Sand. Watch "Dying" Lawns Grow Richer, Thicker, Greener In 7 Days! YOUR CHANCE TO TRY RX-15 WITHOUT RISKING A PENNY!

This season how would you like to make your flowers bloom by the thousands weeks ahead of your neighbors—double the growing power of undernourished shrubs, trees, hedges, vegetables? Grow a richer, thicker, greener lawn in just 7 days with just 1 sprinkle from a watering pail? Then read this article!

It tells how now, YOU who may know next-to-nothing about gardening can turn your garden into the show-place of the community with thousands of colorful, flaming blossoms—not five years from now—not next year—but this season even if right now you don't have a seed in the ground—even if your soil is undernourished.

How with normal garden care YOU can pick basketsful of meat-packed garden fresh tomatoes, luscious heads of lettuce—sweet, tender cucumbers, corn and peas from a vegetable patch right in your own backyard. How YOU can amaze the so-called experts in your neighborhood with a rich, thick carpet of lawn—and you won't even have to dirty your hands digging messy, evil-smelling manures into the soil.

"Why Won't Flowers Grow In My Backyard?"

If flowers won't grow for you—no matter how hard you try—in case after case it's been proven that your soil is to blame. Science tells us that almost 90% of all garden soils are deficient in at least one of the 10 vital minerals a plant needs to bloom and flourish. And if you starve a plant of even one of these life-giving soil minerals you won't get many flowers no matter how much sun and water you give it—no matter how many hours you slave in your garden.

Sprinkle With RX-15 Save Hours of Extra Digging!

Finally in 1951 scientists at one of America's leading plant experiment stations tested new types of concentrated plant foods that could be dissolved in ordinary tap water, and when sprinkled on lawns or plants could go to work in minutes. No more extra drudgery, no more manure digging. This water soluble plant food was proven so fast-acting that it is absorbed by roots and reaches into every leaf, stem and tissue in 60 minutes.

Thousands of Flowers For Only a Few Minutes Extra Work!

And now do you realize what RX-15 means to you? It means that today you can go out with a sprinkling can and in a few minutes start to shoot new life into your garden. Revitalize your whole undernourished lawn . . . give it results you never dreamed possible in 7 days.

It means that, whether you're an expert gardener or the greenest beginner now with normal garden care you can grow masses of beautiful roses, dahlias, phlox, gladiolus and chrysanthemums in your garden this season with a sprinkling of RX-15 once or twice a month. It means that no matter how starved your soil may be now, with a few sprinkles of RX-15 you can grow a thick, green lawn the very first time you try—and it will only cost you pennies to apply it! It means that you can grow hundreds of flowers in your window boxes—grow thousands of flowers this season from plants you already have in your garden, from seeds you can still put in the ground.

And because RX-15 instantly feeds plants all the life-giving soil minerals they need for healthy bloom, it means that merely sprinkling with RX-15 can make starved, undernourished lawns, trees, shrubs, houseplants start to spring back to new life instantly!

It means that very possibly you may still pick basket after basket of plump fruits from trees, that stopped producing years ago.

You'll be amazed at the way scraggly plants, seedlings, shrubs, bulbs and trees start shooting out new buds, stems, branches—the way they produce thicker, greener, bigger leaves and flowers even in the most mineral-starved soil, when you sprinkle them with a spoonful of RX-15 dissolved in water . . . and it goes to work instantly!

Make This No-Risk Test On Your Lawn And Garden!

Since 1951, when RX-15 was first introduced to the public, it has become the fastest-selling water soluble plant food in the world. In less than two years, over 500,000 gardeners, farmers and nurserymen have used RX-15.

Thousands can tell you about the amazing results. From every corner of the United States and Canada letters are pouring in from home gardeners who have used RX-15 where everything else they had tried failed—in starved, undernourished soil, in sand—even in cinders. And on the basis of the astonishing results reported by these gardeners, the Garden Research Laboratories feel safe in making this daring money back guarantee!

We want you to try RX-15 on your own lawn for 7 days at our risk. Test it on flowering plants, bulbs, seedlings. Test it on fruit trees, shrubs, hedges, vegetables . . . on anything that grows—on anything that's hard to grow. And if your lawn isn't richer, greener, thicker in 7 days—if those hard-to-grow plants don't start to take on new life—if the foliage isn't greener, more luxuriant—if this season you don't see more buds, sprouts, flowers shooting out on your RX-15 treated plants than you've ever had before—then send back the unused portion and get back every penny you paid for it.

Just Ask Your Neighbor Who Used RX-15 Last Year

Over 6500 satisfied customers bought RX-15 from Simms last year—ask any of them about it.

HERE'S PROOF Plants Double Size In 12 Days!

MAKE THIS COMPARISON TEST ON YOUR FLOWERS! Look at these two groups of young calla plants. Both were potted the same day, in the same soil and grew side by side under identical growing conditions. Group A received normal supply of water once a week. Group B, at right, received same supply of water with tiny trace of RX-15 added. Photos above show the amazing difference only 12 days later.

Bonanzagram No. 10

The Explorer Scouts were in trouble. A sudden, huge rockslide had penned them in the main canyon of a range they were exploring. After some worried consultation, Scout leader David Borden decided it was best to divide the group into two parties. He assigned one to their Indian guide and took the other himself. Using their maps and compasses, they set off in opposite directions in search of a "forked patch" which, according to Indian legend, provided the second means of escape from the canyon. After two foggy and strenuous days, Borden's group found the way out, but meanwhile lost contact with the others. That night one of the boys on night watch picked up a code message from a distant flashlight. He had missed some of the letters, but Borden was able to decipher it and form a plan for reuniting the two groups. Can you, too, figure out what happened to the others?

How To Play 'Bonanzagram'

Solve the "Bonanzagram" by filling in all the missing letters, as indicated by the underscores, in the message. Insert only one letter above each underscore. Many clues to the missing letters are hidden in the story, or anecdote, accompanying the message. Clues may also be found in the message itself, and, in a few cases, the contestant's general knowledge should provide the correct letter. The contestant will note that the message is unpunctuated. Punctuation will help solve the message, but is not necessary to win.

All missings letters must be correctly inserted to win a Bonanzagram prize. Punctuation will not be considered in judging a correct answer.

When properly filled in, the "Bonanzagram" will spell out a clear message that will conform in every way with the clues. In many cases it will seem that more than one word would be the correct one. That's part of the fun! You should weigh the clues and select the BEST possible word in each case.

How to Submit Entries

1. After solution is completed, "Bonanzagram" should be clipped and pasted to a two-cent postcard with your name and address.

2. Entries will be received at the Pontiac Press office, 48 W. Huron St., until 5 p. m. Tuesday, May 17. Mail entries must be postmarked before midnight Tuesday, May 10 for Bonanzagram No. 10. Address "Bonanzagram, % Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Mich.

3. Entries may be mailed in envelope but contestant's full name and number of puzzle must be printed in upper left corner of address side of envelope.

4. Copies of the Press need not be purchased to enter. Facsimiles made by hand and corresponding as closely as possible to the original "Bonanzagram" printed in the Press will be accepted but are limited one to a family. Mimeograph, duplicator or other unofficial mechanical reproduction is forbidden.

How to Collect the Prize

The entrant must work out and keep duplicate solution as a claim check. When the solution is published in the Press, he should compare his "claim check" with the published solution, and, if his claim check is identical, he should call in person with his claim check at the Press office, 48 W. Huron St., before 5 p. m. on the Monday following publication of the solution.

If a winner cannot call at the Press office in person, he should mail his solution to "Bonanzagram Editor." Postmark on this letter must be not later than 5 p. m. the Monday after publication of the answer. Correct answers are void unless the contestant reports his claim by the deadlines listed here.

About Eligibility, Information, Etc.

1. Anyone is eligible for the "Bonanzagram" contest except employes of the Press and members of their immediate families. (Immediate family means all those living in an employe's household.)

2. No question as to winners will be answered by phone.

3. The Press will award a prize of $100 to the winner of each weekly "Bonanzagram." If more than one winning answer is received, the prize will be divided equally among the winners. If no correct solution is received, the $100 will be added to the next week's prize. If the winner is a subscriber of record to the Press a $20 bonus will be added to the $100.

4. Only one winning entry from a family will be eligible for the prize, but there is no limit on number of entries.

5. The Press retains the right to correct typographical errors.

6. Judges' decision will be final and contestant's submission of entries indicates acceptance of these rules.

7. No liability is accepted for entries that fail to reach us.

8. The Press reserves the right to alter rules and/or discontinue the contest at its discretion.

Gossip Is Fact, When Men Tell It

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS) — For close to 2,000 years now, women have been known as the first-rank, top-flight, grade-A gossips of this world, and you know who spread the rumor?

Male gossips.

What else?

This will come as no surpriee to such self-analytical fellows as William Sutton and Charles Luciano, who have had occasion to observe how gossip spreads precariously around a mob of men. But it's stern views indeed for the rank and file. For when a fellow opens his mouth to emit words of unfounded wisdom against another fellow, he does not consider it gossip or even rumor.

"Listen," he will say, "I hear that Schultz is about to get the axe." And then, to take the onus off it, he will add: "Yeah, it's a fact."

Dozens of times each day, a cool and comely young lady named Adele — who runs an almost exclusively-male restaurant in New York — overhears words such as these, from the lips of her otherwise well-behaved clientele. "I laugh it off naturally, customers being customers," she says, "but boy, could I tell a thing or two. If I were a gossip, that is."

"Miss Adele," as she is known to the devoted clan who gather round the festive martinis at her "Scribe's" steak and chop emporium, says that men gossip most succulently about the following:

First — Women. This is a broad category covering the physical, emotional and mental variations of wives, secretaries and girl friends, excluding the gossiper's own.

Second — Fellow diners, generally two to six tables away.

Third — Employers. Sometimes referred to as bosses, as in "That blubberhead boss of mine, he . . ."

Fourth — Allied subjects, such as customers, attorneys, landlords, salesmen, doctors, etc. and their wives, secretaries and girl friends.

"It really is harmless gossip," says Adele, "in its content. But men have a rather positive way of putting gossip that makes it sound authoritative.

"Women lower their voices when they're gossiping, which makes them look guilty and unsure of themselves. Men stand up and speak it out, giving it the reverberating ring of truth."

Fortunately for Adele, she is not the least bit disillusioned. Her father, known simply as "Louie" ("we never stood on the formality of last names," she explains), was one of the calmest, most revered restauranteurs in town before his sudden death a year ago, and he taught daughter to take this dizzy business with a grain of aspirin and several grains of understanding.

He gave her one most important lesson: Understand the attitude of the working man, after a day at the office.

If it's been a bad day, you could serve him a steak with an 18-carat gold T-bone, and he'd growl. If it's been a good day, he's likely to sing with his scotch. If it's been a dull day, he's almost certain to gossip.

They're good rules for a wife to remember, too, Adele thinks. A man is sort of a boy with more complex problems; when he's been hit with a sling-shot in the afternoon, he'll be mad most of the evening. When he's been to the circus, he's not going to settle down just because you put dinner in front of him.

"And when nothing much happened, he is likely to gossip," concludes the expert, "harmlessly, you know — but lustily and long."

Pilots May Be Held Liable for Damages

LANSING (AP) — An attorney general's opinion held today that the Legislature may legally require aircraft operators to be financially responsible for accidents — the same as motorists.

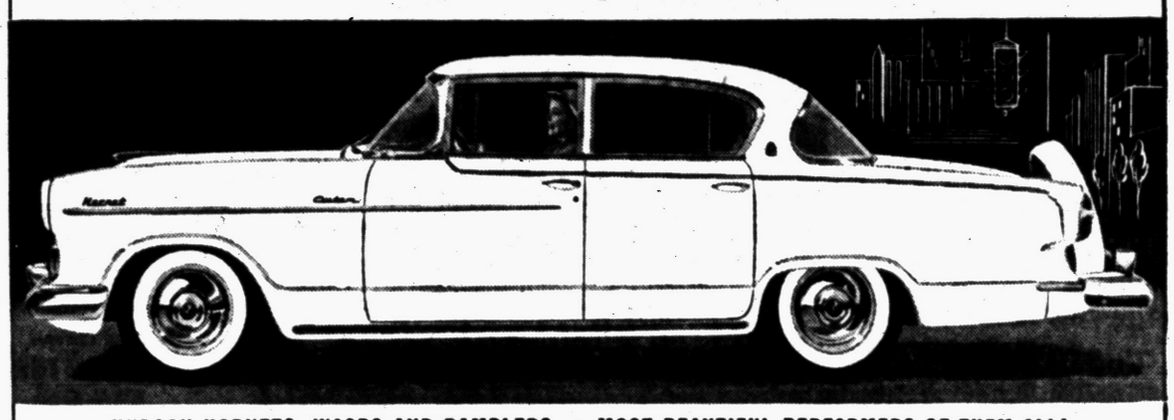

An opinion to the Department of Aeronautics said that a uniform aircraft financial responsibility bill now before the Legislature would be constitutional. The department may legally be given the right to enforce such a law, it added.

In another opinion, the attorney general said that the state has not waived the defense of governmental function in damage claims arising out of the operation of state-owned planes.

Under such a theory the state claims exemption from damage suits because "you can't sue the sovereign".

New Tests of Vaccine Will Reassure Public

The Press shares County Health Director Monroe's confidence that the air along the polio vaccine front will be cleared completely by Saturday.

It was inevitable that the sudden request of U. S. Surgeon General Scheele for a temporary halt in the mass inoculation program should cause confusion and disappointment.

But when the reasons for the delay became more widely known and understood, the effect was to make even critics realize that things were working out for the best.

Behind Dr. Scheele's sudden reversal of policy is a wholly sound aim. He and the Public Health Service are determined that from now on every batch of vaccine will be given even more rigid tests to prove its safety.

It cannot be emphasized too strongly that the vaccine itself is not suspect. Only testing procedures are being rechecked.

Additional evidence of faith in the vaccine comes from Dr. Scheele himself and State Health Director Heustis' decision not to halt the Michigan program without a direct order from the surgeon general. Health departments of several other States while delaying their programs have expressed complete confidence in the vaccine.

Further support comes from State statistics. So far 325,000 Michigan children have had shots with only one suspected case of polio. Added to all this is Dr. Monroe's announcement that he expects the postponed inoculations of 9,500 Oakland County children can be carried out next Saturday.

Dr. Scheele has stated that in the best judgment of the U. S. Public Health Service there is no cause for alarm. Let's get on with this war against polio!

Operation Brotherhood

A work of mercy, appropriately named Operation Brotherhood, is being carried on in South Viet Nam by the International Rescue Committee and the U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce.

A co-chairman of this effort is Adm. Richard E. Byrd of Antarctic fame who soon is to head another expedition to the South Polar area. In a letter to the Press he bespeaks public support for the committee and the junior chamber.

The human suffering they are trying to alleviate springs from the fact that Saigon is overwhelmed by the influx of refugees from the Communist north. By last month 600,000 persons had "voted with their feet" and fled Red rule. In less than another four weeks 400,000 more have joined them.

The situation daily becomes more pressing because of a May 16 deadline. After that date it will be impossible for non-Communists to escape from North to South Viet Nam.

Naturally South Viet Nam is in dire need of help in absorbing these refugees. Naturally, too, the most efficient help is coming from this country. It is being directed from the office of the International Rescue Committee at 62 West 45th St., New York 36, and from the U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce, P.O. Box 7, Tulsa, Okla.

Support of Operation Brotherhood is a sound investment in the maintenance of an important bastion of freedom in Communist threatened Asia.

High Parity Bill Stalled

There's more than meets the eye in the 206 to 201 victory of House Democrats for their proposal to return farm price supports to rigid 90 per cent of parity.

There also is far less likelihood than the vote suggests that the bill will make any further progress this session of Congress. The truth is that this was a victory achieved mainly by logrolling.

Partisan minded farm bloc Democrats, and Representatives of labor districts reportedly made a deal involving support of high parity in exchange for votes for a high minimum wage.

Fortunately, the Senate has decided to spend no more time this session on farm legislation thus stalling the bill until next year. This means that the common sense flexible price support program enacted last year will get the fair test President Eisenhower has urged for it.

In taking this stand the Senate has acted in the national interest. If any further argument against rigid high parity were needed, it can be found in the more than seven billion dollars worth of surplus farm products now owned by the Government.

Rigid high parity has been tried and has failed. Until flexible supports have been given a fair trial it would be economic folly to return to the rigid high parity system.

The Man About Town

City Hall Echoes

Brief Items Incidental to Its Opening to the Public

Safety slogan: Strive to drive to survive and arrive alive.

By official action of the City Commission, in a resolution passed a few months ago, the site of Pontiac's new city hall is designated as this having been done in honor of the city's founder,

Mack Square,

Colonel Stephen Mack,

and a suitable plaque will later be placed on the premises. In his first plat of the Pontiac settlement he provided for a public square near the site of the new city hall. Back around the turn of the century, when Pontiac had a young men's city government under the leadership of

Mayor Peter Meloy,

there was a move to build a new city hall. However it did not materialize until a few years later. Then it was completed under the administration of who served in 1908-1909, at a cost of $9,737.43. In its dedication story, the Pontiac Press said, "It is modern in all of its construction, arrangement and appointments." Celebrating his birthday at the same time the present new city hall was opened,

City Manager Walter K. (Bill) Willman

kept it quiet. He feared we might think he scheduled the event as a birthday present to himself. There were big doings around the Pontiac Parks and Recreation offices Saturday. It was moving day, but also was obliged to pass out several boxes of cigars, not in honor of that event, but because of the arrival of an eight pound daughter, the Ewalts' fourth child.

Although somewhat delayed by the recent cold weather, the wild flowers in the wooded areas are approaching their best condition. During the next couple of weeks the trilliums, violets and most of the others will be spreading their glory. The mandrakes will be at their tops a little later.

A parakeet has been missing from the home of

of Keego Harbor for several days. It can be easily identified as its sole vocabulary is "Keego Harbor."

A Pontiac political observer who usually has the right dope,

Clarence K. Patterson, calls attention to the fact that usually has his way after about so much arguing is done.

President Dwight D. Eisenhower

Among the many bouquets and brickbats coming to this column, we've selected a typical example of each kind. A letter from of Milford, says, "We like your column very much. We get so tired of hearing world-shaking news that your column is refreshing; nothing colossal; just every-day living. Thanks a lot." And of Lake Orion, writes, "We are not interested in football or baseball, and are glad when your contests are over. They take up the space of otherwise readable items."

Verbal Orchids to—

The Romeo Observer-Press entering its eighty-ninth year of publication.

"These Are My Next Year's Running Shoes"

David Lawrence Says:

Another Victory for Reds Seen in Big-4 Conference

PARIS—Communist Russia has won a big propaganda victory. She has brought it about that a president of the United States will go 3,000 miles to beg for peace in a meeting with the head of the Soviet state. For months the Soviets have been crying out that they want peace, without giving the slightest indication to the American ambassador at Moscow that they have in mind doing anything to terminate their aggression.

Now, due to the effectiveness of the pacifism crusades inside Britain, France and the United States which coincide with the purposes of the Communists, there is to be a conference "at the summit." It means that the heads of state will put on a show but will not agree to anything.

Indeed, if is announced beforehand that the object of the meeting isn't to negotiate an agreement or make any commitments but to arrange for a subsequent conference of the foreign ministers of the four powers to discuss any subjects that the heads of state might think advisable.

Could anything be more embarrassing than the spectacle of a president of the United States going all the way to Europe to sit down with the heads of other states and give the impression to the people that something real and substantial is being accomplished to relieve world tension?

If indeed, there is anything to agree upon, the ambassadors of all the other powers resident in Moscow would know it instantly.

When Soviet Russia really had something to negotiate with Austria, there was no four-power conference under klieg lights but a direct two-way conversation of an intimate character in Moscow, after which the Allies were told that Austria had agreed to the treaty.

Such changes as were made later were worked out by ambassadors, and the only thing that remains now to be done is for the foreign ministers of Britain, the United States, France and Soviet Russia to meet at Vienna and sign on the dotted line.

All this is to be reversed now. The heads of the four states are to meet—presumably in Switzerland—and, without any agreed-upon list of subjects or a formula for world peace, they are to talk briefly and then leave it to the foreign ministers and the ambassadors to work out.

What does this mean? It is part of a clever game designed to influence public opinion to veer more and more toward making the concessions which would permit Soviet Russia to chase American troops out of Europe and dominate the continent and give Red China a free hand in Asia.

Soviet Russia is putting the West on the spot and, curiously enough, though officials of the West know it is a game of deception, they do not venture to denounce it openly and to insist on taking the initiative themselves.

President Eisenhower has been caught in the maelstrom of political currents at home and abroad. So he is going to the conference in an effort to prove that America's president will do anything in his power to advance the cause of peace and that, if tension isn't relaxed, it will not be America's fault.

His position will not be enhanced in the world if he doesn't express the moral indignation of the United States at the continued aggression by the Communists and their refusal to terminate their invasion of the Western democracies with agents of infiltration and subversion.

As it is, the three foreign ministers will talk with Molotov at Vienna this week end and ask him what he thinks can be accomplished. On his answers to specific questions will depend what Eisenhower will finally do. It now is expected that Molotov will speak in generalities and that the three other powers have gone too far to stand on their own skepticism as to whether the four-power conference will prove useful.

The propaganda move of the Russians is designed to emphasize that the Soviets are the seekers after peace and that failure to accede to Soviet demands makes the Western powers the chief obstacle to peace.

This is what happens when the free world adopts a defensive posture and doesn't take advantage of its many opportunities to counter the Soviet propaganda in the court of public opinion.

'Postage Should Be Raised to Five Cents If Needed to Get Post Office Out of Red'

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature

There is some controversy going on in the minds of certain people in respect to a possible change in the price of a three-cent stamp, raising it to four cents.

Why not make it five cents as that might assist the Post Office Department get out of the red. Perhaps the reason for a deficit is that they aren't getting enough for government stamps.

How would you like to go back to the Pony Express? It cost a quarter to send a letter then, and at such a short distance compared to now. You can send a letter to Hawaii or Alaska via plane for six cents and if you can get along by the slower train method you can send one for the modest sum of three cents.

How could anyone object to four cents or even five, if it will help the Department get out of debt? If they could operate free of debt by increasing the price of postage to five cents, give them our sanction. I am certain we would not want to go back to the old way of letter transportation, especially if it should cost 25 cents a letter.

'Use Genetics on Humans to Produce Better Race'

"The insect can fly but ten paces, but, in the tail of a noble steed, it can go a thousand miles." Such Chinese wisdom is born of two score centuries of human experience.

Another bit of folk wisdom takes practical form when for some decades tellers in Japanese banks were Chinese. Asked why this was so, a horn-rimmed spectacled Chinese commented: "Our Chinese know that honesty is the best policy. A dishonest Chinese never gets another job. Hence he starves."

Have we not here a unique type of artificial selection? Darwin reminded us that Mother Nature was used, over untold ages, what the great evolutionist called "Natural Selection." Man has speeded that process in creating faster race horses, more beautiful roses. When will we commence really using human genetics toward a better race?

More Jobs, Not Idle Pay, Seen as Answer to GAW

By Merryle Rukeyser
Economic Commentator

WASHINGTON (INS)—A new national spokesman for management—A. Boyd Campbell, of Jackson, Miss., who became president of the United States Chamber of Commerce last week, decried in an interview the tendency of Walter Reuther's CIO-UAW union to depict business as the villain in the drama of job insecurity.

Discussing the current three separate collective bargaining groups in Detroit in which the United Auto Workers' demand for a guaranteed annual wage is being talked over with General Motors, Ford, and American Motors, I asked the new head of the national chamber whether he agreed with Reuther's view that the GAW demand is primarily aimed at forcing employers to stabilize production and employment.

Campbell countered: "The incentive for stabilization that the union talks about in the guaranteed annual wage has been present for most employers for years in the experience-rating provisions of the unemployment compensation program.

Yet, the CIO has fought for years against experience-rating, arguing that production and employment stability is impossible in some industries and geographic areas. This very argument by the CIO proves that a GAW would be so costly as to wreck some companies that undertake its liability."

I next asked Campbell about Reuther's complaint that businessmen are fellows of "little faith" and that they tend, almost as an occupational hazard, to resist new ideas.

The Mississippian denied that GAW was novel, but pointed out that most of these so-called GAW plans now in operation are in small wholesale or retail establishments in stable consumer goods industries.

"There have been no large successful guaranteed wage plan in basic durable goods industries. In some, workers sacrifice overtime pay, 'banking' long-work weeks in part of the year to balance short-work weeks at other times during the year," he said.

"Each of these plans, therefore, includes an essential element—an element of employe cooperation—which assists the company in stabilizing employment. The UAW has specifically rejected the characteristics which have permitted these GAW plans to operate successfully."

My next question bore on Reuther's opinion that the cost of UAW will be minimized by its effect in stabilizing production and maintaining full employment.

"I think," Campbell replied, "that here we get to the crux of the problem. After all, the problem is one of unemployment and the solution is more jobs, not payment for not working. Let us examine, therefore, how the GAW would go about creating jobs.

"Our dynamic free economy is subject to constant change. Even during the best of times there are individual industries and companies that are declining. How could a GAW provide a guaranteed market for any company's product?

Take an individual firm as an example. When a firm makes new jobs through expanding production or introducing a new product, it is gambling on public acceptance. In addition, if it were forced to take on a tremendous future liability in the form of a GAW for each new employe it hired, the organization would surely be much more conservative in its plans for new investment and plant expansion. Thus, we can see that instead of creating jobs, GAW would tend to deter new job making—the only real answer to unemployment."

Smiles

Just Co-operate

A well-known American author met an old man called Uncle Joe, who was always cheerful in spite of having had more than his share of life's troubles.

"How have you managed to retain your calmness and cheerfulness in spite of them all?" asked the author.

"Well, sah, Ah'll tell you," replied Uncle Joe. "Ah'se just learned to co-operate wid the inevitable."

You Go First

He was obviously a novice at boxing and as he entered the ring and saw his hefty opponent he felt far from happy.

As he went to his corner he saw a man with a towel thrown over his shoulder. "Who are you?" he asked.

"I'm your second," was the reply.

A look of relief flashed over the novice's face. "No," he said firmly, "you go first—I'll go second!"

Too Bad

David, aged six, lives over a mile from school and is allowed to make the journey on his tricycle. A few days ago a neighbor came across David standing forlornly beside his tricycle, the chain of which had come off. He soon fixed it but at some cost to his appearance.

"Now that you are six you will soon be able to put your chain on for yourself," he said to David.

"Oh, I can now," replied David, "but it makes my hands so dirty."

Add Out

Teacher: "Your history exercise was bad, and I told you to write it out twenty times. You've only done it seventeen times."

Pupil: "Yes, sir, my arithmetic is bad, too!"

His Job Counts

The minister returned the used car to the dealer, and was promptly asked, "What's the matter, Parson? Can't you run it?" And he got the sharp reply, "Not if I want to stay in the ministry."

Case Records of a Psychologist

Woman Wonders if Child Can Inherit St. Vitus Dance She Once Suffered

Josephine worries lest her future babies may inherit her former ailment. Study this case record carefully and mail it to distant members of your family who may be expecting new babies. It should clarify your knowledge of inheritance vs. environment and thus banish much needless worry.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case O-327: Josephine J., aged 27, has been married for two years.

"Dr. Crane, my married life has been wonderfully happy," she began, "except for one rather chronic fear that bothers me.

"When I was a child, I was in an auto accident. Soon after I had recovered from that, I developed St. Vitus dance.

"My doctor treated me for a long time and I finally got well, though I have always remained of a nervous temperament.

"But what troubles me is the dread that if I had a baby, it might inherit my St. Vitus dance. Could you enlighten me on this point?"

In this educational column we try to relieve your minds of all unnecessary worries. Pregnancy fears come under this broad psychological heading.

St. Vitus dance is not an ailment that is hereditary, so I can bluntly tell Josephine that her babies definitely will not inherit this condition.

That doesn't mean, of course, that they might not catch it after their birth, just as they might also catch measles or mumps which their mother had experienced in her earlier childhood.

St. Vitus dance is a variation of rheumatic fever where the nervous system instead of the heart is affected.

And germ diseases, as well as those produced by a virus, are not hereditary.

"But, Dr. Crane," you may protest, "then how do you explain the fact that a syphilitic mother may bear a baby that also has syphilis? Doesn't the baby inherit that venereal disease from the mother?"

Definitely not! It simply caught the disease from the mother while it was being carried in her uterus.

If the baby's father had syphilis, but the mother did not, and then if the baby were born with syphilis, that would obviously be due to heredity.

But that is not possible. A syphilitic father cannot procreate a syphilitic child through a non-infected mother.

Since mammals carry their young in the womb, their developing offspring can often catch diseases which their mothers have during that pregnancy.

Thus, a woman who contracts measles during the time she is carrying her unborn baby, may likewise infect it.

But such contagion is not a matter of heredity but of proximity of the infant.

It is quite similar to what would happen if a nursing baby contacted a disease from the mother while nursing at her breast.

Indeed, some babies have thus contracted syphilis by nursing at the breast of another woman besides their mother, for when a mother has inadequate milk, sometimes the baby is put on the breast of another nursing mother.

Diabetes is not a germ disease. It can be inherited. Tuberculosis is a germ disease. It cannot be inherited.

Your eye color and general bodily proportions are chiefly due to inheritance, though good feeding and vitamins can help modify such conditions.

Your intelligence (IQ) likewise is based on heredity. So is feeble mindedness.

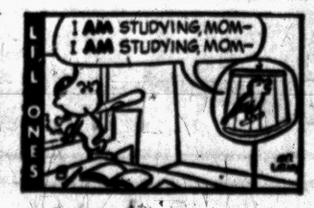

Your tendency to long life seems to be hereditary, too, as well as the early graying of the hair and baldness.

Cancer and insanity may indirectly pertain to heredity where they are due to some endocrine or glandular deficiency that follows hereditary lines.

In such cases, we say you may have a predisposition to cancer or insanity due to heredity, but you don't inherit those specific ailments.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and a dime to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his psychological charts.

Six Somersaults Each Day Keep Woman, 48, Healthy

By DR. WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

Young woman has been doing six forward rolls ("somersaults," as I called 'em for many years) first thing every morning for the past seven years, and she'll never stop till she turns up her toes (what dreadful language!).

She is 48 years old and her friends say she looks ten years younger — from the snapshot of the young woman and her husband, taken last year, I'd say Whee-e-wheeuh — if her husband were not so big. But age is not important, the young woman continues, what counts is how she feels.

She knows one thing. When she gets through with her somersaults every morning she feels like a million . . . "I see a lot of sickness in women of my age. You can't tell them anything — they're so obsessed with the "change of life."

No, I can't, but I keep trying, because once in a while a sensible idea gets in among the morbid notions and the poor soul sends a stamped, self-addressed envelope and asks for the pamphlet The Menopause.

Three or four years ago the young woman followed a restricted diet — not for the reason so many nitwits do, but simply because she didn't want anything but tea, toast and potato; she had no appetite for meat and it was hard for her to swallow solid foods.

The doctor told her she was anemic; her mirror told her she looked not just pale but sallow and gray. Gray — that was it. She sent for another pamphlet, The Gray Sickness, (my name for nutritional deficiency anemia) and began supplementing her poor diet with vitamins, minerals and iron as I direct in the pamphlet.

She does not say precisely how long she kept this up, but now she is "enjoying the best of health and believe me, Doctor, I owe you everything."

All right, I'll tell you what I'm going to do. I'll mark your account paid in full if you'll say a little prayer for me and ask St. Peter to keep it on file till I arrive at the gate. I have a foreboding that I'm going to need all the influence I can summon to get in.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to the Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Mich.

Brooklyn Eagle Goes on Block

Newspaper Closed by Strike Being Auctioned Today in New York

NEW YORK (UP) — The 114-year-old Brooklyn Eagle, closed since Jan. 29, will go on the auction block today in the newspaper's old building, 24 Johnson St.

O. Rundle Gilbert will wield the gavel when the newspaper, or its many parts, are offered to the highest bidders.

Seventy-five persons, ranging from dealers in second-hand machinery to housewives looking for a typewriter, wandered through the building yesterday in preparation for the bidding.

Gilbert said in an advertisement that as auctioneer of the historic paper he stands in the "unhappy role of executioner."

He said possible purchasers had expressed concern over the expense of starting a new paper from scratch "even though management has met every purchaser more than half way and even though labor has said to me that it will cooperate to the extent of reverting to the old wage scale and that a new person could hire the number of employes he deemed necessary, with seniority starting the day they were hired."

Surely labor could not be fairer, but still no one has come forward," Gilbert said. He suggested a plan he said was used by some newspaper "where employes participate in 50 per cent of the net profits before taxes.

The Eagle closed during a strike of the CIO New York Newspaper Guild in a dispute over a new contract.

This Poor Fish Even Deprived of Last Meal

For languid anglers who do not enthuse over worm-digging, this is good news. There is an artificial worm which can come to his aid.

It's made of plastisol which has been developed by the paint, varnish and lacquer industry.

When this plastisol is molded into the proper shape, it resembles a live worm. Furthermore, it's flexible, durable and re-usable.

Most important, it's appetizing to to unwary fish.

Labor Problem: How to Invest?

Ever-Increasing Wealth Gives Unions Financial Trouble

WASHINGTON (UP) — Labor unions are having financial worries. Their problem is what to do with their own burgeoning wealth.

Some buy banks. Some build housing developments or rest camps. A number are building impressive new headquarters.

Others have loaned money to employers. One bought enough stock to get into the Montgomery-Ward proxy fight (on the winning side).

But they still put most of it away in a sock, in cash and government bonds, waiting for a rainy day.

How much money is there in union treasuries and how much in pension and welfare reserves in which they have some voice? There are no overall statistics.

Estimates of assets in union treasuries range up to $2,000,000,000, and up to $3,000,000,000 when treasuries of union locals are included.

One expert estimates that unions have a voice in close to 10 per cent of the $15,000,000,000 to $20,000,000,000 in pension fund reserves and in nearly half of the perhaps $2,000,000,000 in welfare fund reserves.

Investment companies and consultants have been trying to talk union leaders into putting their money into stocks. But so far they have met with little success.

One union leader remarked: "Nobody was ever defeated in an election for investing in government bonds. But if I invested money in stocks and the stocks went down, I'd have two strikes against me."

Most union constitutions prohibit or severely limit the use of union money for anything other than government bonds.

A recent survey showed that the assets of the national treasuries of 42 large unions were invested approximately 75 per cent in government bonds, 10 per cent in cash, 10 per cent in real estate or mortgages and only 2 per cent in stocks.

Queen Receives Smallest Watch Made in Britain

LONDON, May 10 (UP)—Queen Elizabeth II today was given the smallest watch ever made in Britain. It measures ½ by ¾ inches and replaces one she lost last Christmas.

A leading watchmaking firm gave her the first production model of the new watch when she visited the British industries fair.

The queen lost her tiny, Swiss-made wrist watch in the snow-covered grounds of her Sandringham estate. A gift from former French President Albert Lebrun, the watch was one of the smallest in the world, with a face three-sixteenths of an inch wide.

About one million acres of land are converted each year in the United States to residential, commercial or industrial purposes, diminishing potential farms.

Judge Conducting Divorce Marathon

LONG BEACH, Calif. (UP) — A divorce marathon is being conducted in Long Beach Superior Court this week.

Judge George Francis started hearing divorce trials Monday and his goal is to complete 120 cases by Friday night. He is attempting to hear 24 cases a day, allowing about 13 minutes per case. The assembly line method is being used for divorce cases which are not contested and thus can be handled speedily.

Judge Fred Mille, acting presiding judge, explained yesterday the court is trying to clear up a heavy backlog of divorces which has led to a waiting period of two months.

BAKERSFIELD, Calif. (UP) — A rattlesnake with six rattles went out swinging in Bakersfield's downtown traffic. It hasn't been determined how the snake got into the traffic lanes, but he was coiled and striking from time to time at passing cars. Finally, Lewis Kuehnert, a forest ranger, drove his car over the snake's head and killed it.

Alloys Tell Age of Coins

COLUMBUS, Ohio (UP) — Ohio State University chemists have developed a method of telling the age of ancient coins by the proportion of their component metals. Dr. Earle R. Caley and Wallace H. Deebel explained that their studies have shown there are systematic chronological changes in the relative amounts of lead and tin in ancient Greek coinage bronze, with later coins containing more lead.

Ford Breaks Ground for Sterling Plant

Ford Motor Company today announced breaking ground for the new Chassis Parts Division plant at Seventeen Mile and Mound roads in Sterling Township, north of Detroit.

Contract for site preparation and substructure work has been awarded to W. E. Wood Company, Detroit, and construction of the new plant will begin at once, according to R. J. Hampson, divisional general manager. The plant is expected to be ready for production in June, 1956.

More than 7,000 persons will be employed at the new plant, Hampson said, as compared with current employment of about 5,700 at the division's present plant at Mound and Nine Mile roads.

Cancer Diagnosis Is 1st Step Toward Cure

(This is the third of four articles by a distinguished surgeon and authority on cancer, giving an up-to-the minute account of the battle against one of mankind's most destructive enemies.)

By DR. CHARLES S. CAMERON
Medical and Scientific Director, American Cancer Society

NEW YORK (INS) — About one out of every 320 people in the United States this year will find out that they have cancer. Sadly enough most of them will find out too late.

The most immediate problem in cancer control is finding cancer soon enough to save the patient's life. This is not a new problem of course. Celsus, the Roman physician more than 1,900 years ago, wrote: "Only the beginnings of cancer permit of a cure."

The only way in which cancer is accurately diagnosed is by a biopsy. This means taking a tiny specimen from the suspected area, slicing off a portion about 1,000th of an inch thick, straining it and examining it under a microscope. Only a trained pathologist is able to tell the difference between normal and cancer cells when thus observed.

But before the pathologist gets a chance to look at the microscope slides, a number of important events have to occur. First off, a person must be motivated to go to his doctor or a detection clinic. People who feel well or who have not made a habit of regular health examinations at least once a year can't see any reason for going.

When they do visit their doctor, he must have a high index of suspicion to find a hidden cancer. Only after a preliminary examination locates a swelling, lump or unhealed sore, is a biopsy called for.

A regular physical examination is the best insurance against discovering cancer too late for treatment. The American Cancer Society has promoted a public education program to teach cancer's seven danger signals which are symptoms that might mean cancer.

Knowledge of these danger signals has saved many lives. These are helpful in influencing persons to see a doctor and frequently disclose cancer that has not advanced too far for cure. The seven danger signals are:

(1) Any sore that does not heal.
(2) A lump or thickening in the breast or elsewhere.
(3) Unusual bleeding or discharge.
(4) Any change in a wart or mole.
(5) Persistent indigestion or difficulty in swallowing.
(6) Persistent hoarseness or cough.
(7) Any change in normal bowel habits.

In an effort to widen the margin of lives being saved today, the American Cancer Society has urged doctors to concentrate on examinations which will detect sites of cancer that are most curable.

Cancer of the lung, while still operable, usually can be detected by means of a chest X ray. Cancer of the uterus and the cervix are readily seen by a pelvic examination. Cancer of the prostate is detected by a digital examination.

Cancer of the skin, curable in just about 100 per cent of cases, can easily be detected by a thorough examination of the total body surface.

Cancer of the breast, the greatest killer of women, shows up most frequently as a tiny lump which may be felt by women themselves. This method of detection has been incorporated into a program called "Breast Self-Examination" which has been taught to about six million women in the last three years. It undoubtedly has saved lives. The goal is to have every woman over 35 employ this practice.

An important aid in detecting some sites of cancer early is the Papanicolaou smear method. This is based on the fact that early cancers shed cells into body fluids. Preparation of a microscope slide with material taken from body openings shows up cancer cells before growths are otherwise visible.

This method is now widely used as an aid in detecting cancer of the cervix at a very early stage. It is being tried in other sites — the bronchus, colon, bladder — and the latest being the breast from which secretions carry the tell-tale cells.

Cancer has given way before improvements in treatment in the last ten years, but the most fruitful progress has been in detection and diagnosis. The declining death rate among women is best proof of this.

Hopefully, we look forward to the next 10 years with good prospects that the long shadow of fear may be shortened and even dissolved under the light of a more informed public and better-equipped medical profession.

Automobile Sales Battle Continues

DETROIT (AP) — The race for top honors in passenger car sales continues one of the features of the hottest competitive era in automotive history.

The tabulation of actual retail deliveries usually requires up to two months to complete. Ford today reported registrations for January and February of this year showed it topped Chevrolet 198,418 to 192,732.

Ford emphasized the figures were "net" registrations, excluding all units registered in dealers' or manufacturers' names. This is the basis on which Ford said it led Chevrolet at the end of 1954 by 25,257 units.

Ford also announced that R. L. Polk & Co. statistical agency, has informed the company that effective April 1 its future tabulation of new car registrations will exclude all cars registered in dealers' names.

BLUE CHIP GMC TRUCKS
Your key to Blue Chip value

GMC's NEW HYDRA-MATIC V8 RUNABOUT

Here is your reputation-on wheels

HE'S a wise man who chooses a Blue Chip GMC to carry his business name around.

For the distinct suggestion it makes of a "blue chip" concern will spread among untold potential customers everywhere it goes.

But there's even more than an excellent public impression to be made by Blue Chip ownership. Prestige is matched by performance; smartness is backed by unusual stamina.

Notice the quiet, effortless way a Blue Chip GMC whisks off a load. The might of its powerful 6—or its super-powered V8—works at a whisper with its exclusive Silent Power Exhaust System.

Try the efficient ease of its Hydra-Matic Drive* — and think of the dollar savings it makes by ending engine strain, fuel waste and clutch costs.

Relax in the spacious cab, and see the Blue Chip way of building: the acoustic lining bonded to the roof—the valve under the seat that makes air, as well as springs, cushion your ride — the classic instrument panel — a dozen extra value touches.

That's the superior quality you'll find everywhere about a Blue Chip GMC. It is the very obvious distinction that the world sees and respects.

Isn't your reputation worth a Blue Chip GMC to represent it? We'd like to show you the real economies of a Blue Chip buy if you'll drop in.

Northern Hospitality

WARREN, N.H. (UP)—The citizens of this and nearby small communities certainly appreciate having a doctor around. When Dr. and Mrs. James Kidney came here to settle recently, 200 persons attended a reception. Among the gifts presented to the Kidneys were groceries and frozen foods and a Christmas wreath bearing 146 new one-dollar bills.

FALSE TEETH That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little PASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Hold false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get PASTEETH at any drug counter.

Prince Charles to Attend School With Other Tots

LONDON (AP)—British newspapers today cheered Queen Elizabeth's announcement that 6-year-old Prince Charles will mingle with other children at school instead of being royally tutored at home. The moarch asked newspapers to spare her son from too much publicity as a schoolboy.

"We applaud this decision," said the London Daily Mirror. "We applaud this sensible outlook on the role of a prince—and a king-to-be—in this day and age."

Disclosing the new plans for Charles, Elizabeth's press secretary wrote British newspapers yesterday that "Her Majesty and the Duke of Edinburgh have decided that their son has reached the stage when he should take part in more grown-up pursuits with other children.

"In consequence, a certain amount of the Duke of Cornwall's instructions will take place outside his home. For example, he will attend classes and will visit museums and other places of interest. The Queen trusts, therefore, that His Royal Highness will be able to enjoy this in the same way as other children can, without the embarrassment of constant publicity."

* * *

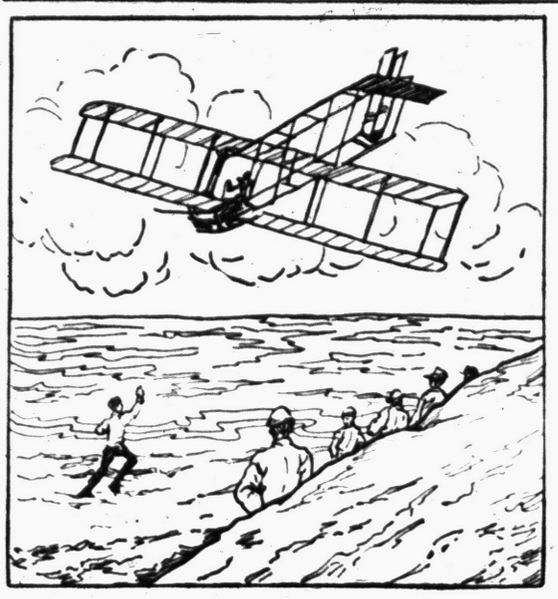

The announcement gave no hint of where he might go to school.

No Fried Chicken

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—Arson didn't work as a cover for chicken thievery. Firemen reached Elvira Hood's backyard so quickly they put out a chicken coop blaze before a feather was singed. But six of 15 hens were missing.

THE KITTY HAWK MIRACLE
The Story of the First Flying Machine

The Wright brothers, Orville and Wilbur, made the world's first successful airplane flight on Dec. 17, 1903, at Kitty Hawk, N. C. Orville piloted the plane. Only five persons watched, and only a few newspapers mentioned it. Many thought the brothers crazy. But this first flight—12 seconds long—changed the lives of people all over the world.

Wilbur was born in 1867 in Millville, Ind., and Orville four years later in Dayton, Ohio. Always interested in machines, the boys opened a bicycle repair shop. Several years later, they became fascinated by the problem of flying. To test airplane models, they set up a small wind tunnel in their shop.

Finaly, they were ready for the Kitty Hawk test. The brothers made four flights that day and although a guest of wind blew the machine over and wrecked it, they proved the airplane could work. They continued for several years to test and perfect the machine.

At first the United States government thought the plane impractical and dangerous. But when Wilbur went abroad to interest Europeans in it, the U. S. suddenly took note of the airplane and in 1909 the brothers formed the American Wright Company.

Wilbur died in 1912. Orville, lonely and unhappy without his brother, soon retired from the business. He died in 1948.

Rare Journal by Washington Brings $25,000

NEW YORK (AP)—A journal of George Washington, one of America's rarest books, brought $25,000 at auction last night. It will go on display at colonial Williamsburg, Va. Mrs. John D. Rockefeller Jr. provided the money.

The journal was published at Williamsburg in 1754. The colonial capital was restored largely with Rockefeller family funds as a public museum of Americana.

The book, written by Washington at the age of 21 while he was a major in the British Army, brought spirited bidding at the Parke-Bernet Galleries. Only seven other copies of the first edition of the book are known to exist.

In it, Washington reported on his expedition to the Ohio wilderness to investigate French encroachments there. It alerted the infant colony to the danger to its interests.

He Just Wanted to Sleep

MANILA (AP)—It wasn't attempted suicide, Julio Villareal Jr. told police on recovering consciousness at a hospital yesterday after an overdose of sleeping pills. He just wanted to sleep, he explained, for four straight days.

The 1950 census showed for the first time, more women than men in the U. S.

Longest verse in the Bible is Esther 8:9, which consists of 90 words.

A grenadier originally was a soldier whose special duty it was to throw hand grenades.

Casa del Rey will be the setting Friday for the 15th annual May breakfast of the Colonial Group to begin at 10 a. m. Going over last minute arrangements at the Euler home on Ottawa drive were (left to right) Mrs. Fred Voelker of Voorheis road, Mrs. Ross Tenny of Cherokee road and Mrs. Earl Treadwell of Lakeland avenue. Mrs. Voelker is president of the group.

Mrs. Harold Euler of Ottawa drive (right) was on hand to greet Mrs. Mac T. Whitfield of West Iroquois road when she arrived to discuss plans for a May breakfast being planned by Colonial Group of First Congregational Church.

BPW Elects Mrs. Salton President

Five Members Are Hostesses at the Annual Session

Officers were elected by the Pontiac Business and Professional Women's club when members gathered at Hotel Waldron.

Mrs. C. William Salton is the new president of the group. Other officers are Grace McLaughlin, first vice president; Mrs. John Dow, second vice president; Violet McCoy, recording secretary; and Marjorie Smith, treasurer.

Mrs. John Kish is corresponding secretary and directors are Mary Mitchell, Harriet Gates and Mrs. Melvin C. McPherson. Vera Bassett is auditor.

At the Monday meeting Mrs. McPherson, retiring president, reported on a recent district meeting in Detroit.

Annual reports were given and the club voted to buy two bonds for the Pontiac Foundation in celebration of Michigan Week, May 15 to 21.

The date of the emblem ceremony and installation of officers has been changed from June 27 to June 13.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Norman Dyer, Mrs. D. R. Wilson, Mrs. Frank Stout, Madeline Fox and Mrs. Sanford Craft.

A social meeting will be held May 24 at YWCA on Franklin boulevard. Helen Mercer and Mrs. Craft are planning a fun program and song fest for the occasion.

Mrs. Jalosky Has Top Post in State Sorority

Mrs. Frank Jalosky Jr., was installed as state president of Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority Sunday by Mrs. Vincent Jones, international parlimentarian from Beria, Ohio. Dee Brim was elected recording secretary for the state. Miss Brim and Mrs. Jalosky are members of the sorority's local chapter, Alpha Alpha.

The installation took place at Hotel Olds in Lansing. John Sweeney, administrative assistant to Governor G. Mennen Williams, spoke at the Saturday portion of the three-day convention on "19th Amendment and American Government."

Members representing Alpha Alpha chapter at the convention were Betty Lou DeGroot, Mrs. Elmer Johnson, Mrs. Edward Hummel, Mrs. Fred Baumgartner, Mrs. Reginald Rippberger, Mrs. Benjamin Sweeney, Mrs. L. L. Schiefler, Mrs. Glenn Wilson and Mrs. Alex Morris.

Shears Shown to Be Versatile

A manufacturing company has come out with a Flint kitchen shears which they claim is an entire tool chest in one unit. The saw-toothed shears can be used for preparing fowl, cutting fruit and even wire, says the manufacturer, as well as trimming fish and shredding vegetables.

It has special provisions designed for opening vacuum caps and bottles, hammering tacks and tightening screws.

All-City School Musicians Make Bow

By JAMES Y. VANDERSALL

The first complete concert by the Pontiac All-City Junior High orchestra and All-City Elementary string orchestra was heard last night in the Washington Junior High School gymnasium.

A near capacity audience heard the program which revealed outstanding achievement and attainment for these young groups within three years time.

Pontiac is fortunate to support not only a band program of distinction but also to have an orchestral program take its place in the educational curriculum.

The elementary orchestra displayed good bowing and full tone in "Music In the Air"; good balance and rhythm in the Slavonic and German folk songs and good quality of tone and intonation in the "Crusaders Hymn."

Eckroth Conducts

George Eckroth ably conducted this first part of the program ending with Courtney Drake's Chinese dance, "Jinrikisha."

The "Cantilena," unison solo for violins by Andre, was a feature of the program well played by the full bows and 11 girls and their violins.

Robert Peterson conducted the remainder of the All-City Elementary Orchestra program in three of his own arrangements of two Welsh songs, Lullaby and three French folk songs of Rousseau.

Reveal Good Training

Through these numbers and their excellent arrangements, this elementary group revealed good schooling in half, quarter and eighth-note rhythm, dotted quarter and eighth-note rhythms.

The pizzicato accompaniments in cello and bass in eighth-note rhythm to the flowing melody of the Lullaby by the violins, to the Martele bowings and unison legato bowings of the final Round ended this part of the program.

First part of the Junior High Orchestra program was conducted by Peterson. Mozart's "Prayer" proved a good number to begin with, expecially for the violins, as the required full legato tone helps the young violinist to obtain command of his bow.

An Outstanding Number

One of the outstanding numbers of the evening was the Andante from the Surprise Symphony by Haydn. "Papa" Haydn wrote this number for Prince Esterhazy's Court Audience to wake them up during the concert.

I couldn't help but hear parents near me remark about their Susie or Johnnie's playing since they were in the fifth grade and now in the Junior High Orchestra. There was no sleeping in this audience.

Mr. Peterson's arrangement of Mendelssohn's "On Wings of Song" for unison solo for violins and orchestra accompaniment was a credit to him as well as to the orchestra.

An impressive number was the "Petite Bource" in which the violins played double stops and the themes were thrown from one section to the other, much as a ball player throws the ball from one base to the other.

This number ended with a fugue type played by first violins, second violins, viola, cello and bass.

The last part of the junior high program was directed with a firm and distinct beat by Eckroth. In Kjerulf's "Lullaby" definite contract and good intonation throughout marked this as a number well to be remembered. The "Mighty Fondness Is Our God" by Luther is always a great number whether sung as the original intent, or played by orchestra or band.

Contrasting Rhythms

The various instruments of the orchestra from horns, trombones and cymbals, tambourine, triangle, and trumpet were given an opportunity in fast and slow contrasting rhythms in the "Russian Chovak and Overture" by Isaac.

Bon voyage to Pontiac's school orchestral program.

Sorority Attends Demonstration

Sixty-five members and guests of Alpha Sigma Nu sorority gathered Monday evening in Consumers Power auditorium for a food demonstration party.

Those present were welcomed by the sorority's president, Mrs. B. H. Ogden, who introduced Joan Fredericks of the company's home service department.

Miss Fredericks explained the aims and purposes of the department. With the assistance of Alicia Cumminskey she instructed the guests in the preparation of several casserole dishes and also broiler meals.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. T. P. Robertson, Mrs. Parks Smith and Mrs. D. J. Hackett. Mrs. W. T. Huntley was in charge of the evening's entertainment.

Former Residents Guests of Club

Members of the Hoedowners Square Dance Club were happy to welcome back into their activities the Donald Mattisons and the Norman Quicks who recently moved to Battle Creek.

The couples traveled to Pontiac for an annual hayride of the group. Other guests at the recent gathering were Mr. and Mrs. George Helzer and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Ladd.

Harvey Gilchrist was master of ceremonies and music was provided by talented members of the club. Callers at this last dance of the season were Cecil Elsholz, Roy Burch, Bob Grosjean, Dewitt Hart, Howard Fraley and Ralph Monroe.

Special Program Marks End of Season

The annual May luncheon of the Tuesday Musicale Club held at Devon Gables, Tuesday was the happy culmination of the 31st year of the organization. Blocks of pansies graced the tables.

Mrs. Harold Euler and Mrs. Helen Teitgen, hostesses, greeted guests and Mrs. Paul Kern, president, welcomed all, with an added word for the continuing success of the club next year, through the loyalty of its members. Including the junior clubs, there are now around 400 members, active and associate.

Mrs. H. Gordon Woolcock, first vice-president and program chairman introduced Mrs. Dora Dawson, who was chairman of the day.

Mrs. Dawson spoke of the development of talent, and of club cooperation in promoting music and the fine arts, through the organizing of a workshop, six years ago.

Members agreed to increase their effectiveness, through personal study, practice, and study meetings once a month. On the program, Tuesday, the workshop vocal ensemble, following its year of study of contemporary music, presented "Rosemary" by Randall Thompson.

Mrs. Putnam directs chorus

Tricky harmonies and interpretation held one's interest, under the direction of Mrs. George Putnam, and accompanied by Mrs. Howard Heldenbrand.

Delightfully tuneful was the playing of a string trio from the Birmingham Musicale Club, Mrs. Luella Elder, pianist; Jean Elder Hohmeyer, violinist; and Ruth Saunders, cellist.

They presented three movements of a trio by Bohm, "Salut D' Moor, Elgar and "The Swan," Saint Saens.

The blending of the three instruments, the sweetness of tone and harmony received an appreciative response.

The desire of the National Federation of Music Clubs that American Music be given more recognition was the response of the vocal ensemble, with six American songs. Arranged by Gladys Pitcher, they included songs of work, love, devotion and religious spirit..

Mary Louise Lindquist is Soloist

"Barbara Allen" southern mountain song, was used as a solo by Mary Louise Lindquist, who was accompanied on the zither by Mrs. Putnam.

The voices of singers, Alice Furlong, Lucille White, Marjorie Wiley, Rebecca Gould, Golda Hogue, Betty Foley, Florence Woolcock and Annabelle Marshbanks were a supple responsive unit to the interpretive direction of Mrs. Putnam.

A special guest was Mrs. Ralph Curtis of Oxford, who is president of the southeast district in the State Federation.

MR. and MRS. GERALD S. O'DEAN

Married Saturday were Shirley Ann VerStrate and Gerald S. O'Dean. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Wall of Hamilton street and his parents are the John O. Baders of Bald Mountain road.

Shirley Ann Ver Strate Wed to Gerald S. O'Dean

A trip to northern Michigan followed the Saturday wedding of Shirley Ann Ver Strate and Gerald S. O'Dean.

She is the daughter of the William M. Walls of Hamilton street, and he is the son of the John O. Baders of Bald Mountain road.

The Rev. Herbert E. Ryan performed the rite in the Baldwin Avenue Evangelical United Brethren Church in the presence of 200 guests.

For the ceremony the bride wore a strapless floor-length dress of imported French lace and net over taffeta with a matching jacket. She carried a bouquet of hyacinths and stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Attendants Wear Pink

Betty L. Mix served as maid of honor wearing a strapless ballerina-length gown of pink nylon tulle accented with a matching jacket.

Bridesmaid was Phyllis Ver Strate, sister of the bride. Her gown was identical to the maid of honor's.

Best man was Harry Hill Jr. of Lake Orion, and seating the guests were Elmer Stowell, cousin of the bridegroom, and John Bader Jr., the bridegroom's brother.

The bride's mother chose a beige silk dress with beige accessories and a corsage of yellow carnations and roses.

The bridegroom's mother's choice was a gray net over rose taffeta with black and rose accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations and roses.

Following a reception in the church parlors the bride changed to a light blue suit with navy accessories for the honeymoon trip.

Fit of Anger Puts Father Into a Rage

Reproaches Self, and Rightfully So, for Hitting His Son

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

One Saturday morning, Doug H. suddenly remembered an old pair of skates in the attic.

He needed their leather straps to make a handle for his express wagon, so he went to the attic to get them. He had struck a match to peer behind an old trunk when he heard his father's voice behind him.

"What are you trying to do—set the house on fire?" roared Mr. H. Furious with anger, he struck his son a hard clout on the side of his head.

Pushed off balance, Doug fell hitting his forehead against the trunk.

Whereupon Mr. H.'s anger turned around and knocked him off balance, too. Instead of perceiving that his son's bruise needed treatment, he started to abuse himself as the worst father in the world.

Half an hour later, the same anger provoked him into an argument with his wife. By mid-afternoon, it had given him a headache that was quite as painful as the clout it had administered to Doug.

But, of course, Mr. H. didn't realize that his original anger had gone underground to come back up in the form of this persecuting self-reproach.

Sometime rage may betray us into striking a child. We may hit Jimmy, not to teach him anything, but to hurt him.

Oh, yes, such a wish is possible. But because it's been permitted to hurt Jimmy is never a reason to permit it to hurt us, too. The self-reproach in which we often wallow at these times is just as bad.

It is the same poisonous thing that attacked Jimmy now recoiled in its snaky way to beat us up.

Today, because corporal punishment is so widely disapproved, parents have awful times with themselves when their anger strikes a child. Self-reproach hounds them mercilessly for their failure in understanding and love.

So I want to suggest that venting this form of rage upon ourselves is quite as immoral as venting another form of it on Jimmy. It is another failure.

And while we're on this subject, let me add that self-justification for the clout we gave Jimmy is the twin of the self-reproach.

The work in this situation is always self-forgiveness, not appeals for Jimmy's. A mistake is never the presence of good, but the absence of it.

Morally speaking, it is a zero. To cling to it is to cling to nothing. To get reality back under our feet, we work for self-forgiveness.

Doing right in this situation is strangling the anger before it gets its chance to put its poison to work.

Lining Can Help Your Wallpaper

Use of Liner First, Lends Experience and Covers Flaws

By HUBBARD COBB

We've run across a good many people who have made their first attempt to hang wallpaper and felt, when the job was finished, that if they could do it over again, they would do a 100 per cent better job.

This is probably very true because while hanging wallpaper is not too difficult, it does require a little experience and about the only way to get experience in hanging wallpaper is to hang it.

Now what these people should have done was to first cover the walls with lining paper.

Lining paper is just a plain uncoated type of paper that goes up just the way ordinary paper does with a butt joint and costs very little.

Aside from giving you a lot of good experience in handling the paper it also serves a good many other very useful purposes, for which it was primarily designed.

First, it provides a sort of cushion in back of the finish paper which helps prevent the finish paper being easily damaged by dents or blows.

It also covers up any small flaws in the wall which might, in the case of some type papers, show right through or at least produce uneven surfaces in the paper.

This would be true in the case of a rough textured wall that had been smoothed down to take wallpaper but which still had some of the rough surface left.

Another advantage of using a lining paper is that any flaws in the pasting or sizing operation will show up here where they can be easily dealt with.

It's lot easier and cheaper to replace the lining paper than it would to put the finish paper up and then have it fall down in your lap.

Dream Gown Made of Nylon

About the sweetest thing this side of a dream is a new cloud-soft nylon challis gown—sprinkled with pastel posies and styled for complete sleeping comfort.

Another sweet side of this nylon challis is that it's styled for complete washability, too. Just dunk it in lukewarm soapsuds and rinses and it will drip dry in a wink.

Give the gown a quick shake when almost dry and the soft nap will stay like new.

Shelving Is Easy

Cut out 3 ft. x 1 ft. strips of decorative laminate panelyte in one-tenth inch thickness, place ends between two regular cinder blocks. Repeat for second and third shelf or cut top strips short for stairway effect. Paint blocks to blend with any one of 25 decorator panelyte colors and you have smart new knick-knack shelving for your veranda, living room or porch.

MR. and MRS. DONALD FENTON

Honeymooning in Washington, D. C., are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Fenton. She is the former Barbara Jenkinson, daughter of the P. C. Jenkinsons of Bratton road. He is the son of the Jesse Fentons of Hazel Bend avenue.

Jealousy in Her Steady Scares a Lovesick Girl

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

It hurts so to fear that you're about to lose your girl. Every time she smiles or speaks to another boy it's a threat to a lad's self-confidence.

Great surges of downright pain choke his throat. He's miserable and he makes everyone know it.

No matter how much she tells him it's all in fun, that it doesn't matter, he's unconvinced. All he knows is that her attention has wandered from him.

She's too darned nice to everybody else!

And the gal in question looks at it like this:

"Dear Miss Woodward: My boy friend and I have been going steady for nearly a year.

"At first all went well. Now he gets furious if some boy speaks to me or walks down the halls with me at school.

"Yesterday, while he was at the house, a boy in my class called and we only discussed our homework, but my boy friend got so mad he went home.

"He called me later and said he couldn't take it any more. He says he loves me dearly, but he gets mad at every little thing. Is his insane jealousy a good or a bad sign?

"I love him very much and don't want to lose him! Please help me."

The beginning of your romance went well because you were both wrapped up in each other. You were as eager as he was to explore personality, draw closer in shared experiences.

When your love was new it filled your lives. Now, it may be that you're taking it a touch for granted.

You know him quite well now, so you're not so burning to please. You aren't on your toes with him every split second any more. After a year you've slid into a comfy little rut.

And in that rut you've relaxed your bubbling-over enthusiasm that made him feel he was the center of your very existence.

You haven't meant to, of course. It's just that you knew you could count on him. You thought it was safe to be "friendly" with other boys.

And he's jealous because he thinks he's missing something. He misses your whole-hearted attention, that's what. And he wouldn't get mad any more, if you'd give it to him.

How do you avoid being "friendly" with other boys? Be unconscious of them so that they have to speak first to attract your attention.

Develop a girl friend for walking in the halls. Talk to her so busily that there's no time to notice other boys. And when you're alone be so self-contained and self-absorbed that your eyes don't wander while you concentrate on your thoughts.

It's a protective wall you can build around yourself to ward off the attentions of other boys.

Bride-Elect Feted at Recent Shower

Thirty-five guests were entertained at a recent miscellaneous shower honoring Marguerite Levengood, bride-elect of John M. Novess.

Marguerite is the daughter of Mrs. Charles Levengood of Norton avenue and John is the son of Mrs. Clarence Novess Sr. of Drayton Plains. The couple will exchange nuptial vows on May 21.

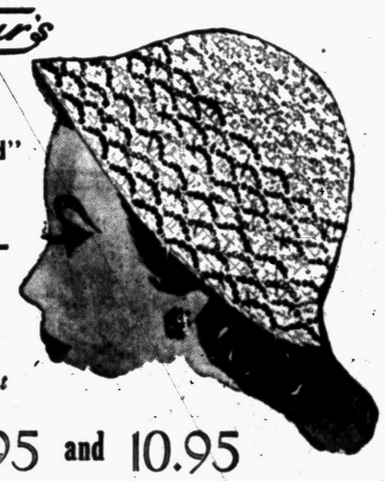

Mrs. Eldon Straton of Flint and Mrs. William Himmelspach were hostesses for the shower which was held in the South Marshall street home of Mrs. Henry Felice.

Use Thin Laminate

By using the new one tenth of an inch thickness panelyte, decorative laminate for your kitchen counter tops, you can save both time and money by having the job done quickly and neatly in your own kitchen. This laminate's extra thickness eliminates the need for lengthy-messy gluing.

Garbo: The Legend and the Lady

The Woman Behind the Wall Becomes Economical Too

By JOHN BAINBRIDGE

Upon her return from Europe, Garbo set out to build a new, independent existence. Packing her belongings, which were few, for she always believed in traveling light, she moved out of the Miramar Hotel, a residence that evoked many memories of Stiller.

She took a small suite in the large and fashionable Beverly Hills Hotel. Probably its most unobtrusive guest, she was never seen about the premises, except when she walked quickly through the lobby, her face shielded by the brim of her hat, to and from the elevator. Since she wasn't seeing Gilbert, about all she had to keep herself occupied was her work.

That came far from satisfying her. She was cast as Arden Stuart in The Single Standard, a work adapted from the novel by Adela Rogers St. Johns. The Single Standard was advertised as the picture giving Garbo her first "100 per cent American role." It also gave her more opportunities for silly love-making but little else.

While on location at Catalina Island during the shooting of The Single Standard, Garbo learned of John Gilbert's sudden marriage to the well-known actress Ina Claire. This event came as a considerable surprise not only to Garbo but to the entire movie colony. Gilbert had met his most recent bride one week after Garbo had returned from Sweden.

Garbo received the news of Gilbert's marriage from an eager reporter who chartered a plane and flew to Catalina with the first edition of the newspaper carrying the story under a banner headline reading "John Gilbert Weds Actress."

Encountering Garbo on the set, the reporter handed her the newspaper spread open to reveal the glaring headline. She glanced at it, scanned the story and returned the paper. "Thank you," she said. The reporter began pressing her with questions about her reaction to the news. "I hope Mr. Gilbert will be very happy," she said, and walked away.

The fact that Garbo declined ever to say anything further in public about Gilbert's marriage did not prevent the Hollywood columnists and fan magazines from speculating at great length on how she felt about it. But aside from her great annoyance at the continuing and ever more fanciful stories about the affair, Garbo was not, according to people who were close to her at the time, much affected by the denouncement of her friendship with Gilbert.

When the commotion stirred by Gilbert's marriage was at its height, Garbo made up her mind to remove herself as far as possible from the maddening crowd. The only person who knew where she had gone was Harry Edington, her business manager, who at Garbo's request had found her a private house.

While Garbo was living her reclusive existence on Chevy Chase Drive, her legend was growing apace. The journalists responsible for keeping the world informed on the thoughts and deeds of America's aristocracy were consistently thwarted in their efforts to discover why she had taken up these strange, hermit-like ways and how she spent her hours.

Some capitalized on their lack of information by explaining in a few thousand words what they had not been able to discover about the actress whom they variously described as "Hollywood's Number One Mystery," "The Woman Who Lives Behind a Wall," and so on.

More interesting were the articles that made no pretense of presenting mundane factual information but dwelt instead on the loftier plane of character analysis. Of the efforts in this latter category probably none was more richly rewarding, in its way, than one that was published in Pictorial Review, written by Palma Wayne and titled with clinical neatness "A Woman of Scandinavia."

"She is a woman about whom it is easier to feel than to speak," the article began, a trifle discouragingly. Making a stab at defining the unusual personality, the author went on: "There is no mystery here, unless it is that mysterious and unbearable ache that lies at the mainspring of humanity . . . She was born with the same thing Chopin came into the world with, and which his Slavonic mother called 'zoll' and the Germans 'veltschmerz.' A world-pain, life-hurt."

At length, after probing other corners of Miss Garbo's soul, the author concluded: "There you have her. This tall, white, Scandinavian woman, who marches to some unstruck music, inscrutable, authentic, and sure."

As a matter of fact, when this tribute was published, Garbo was listening, if not exactly marching, to the music of Sophie Tucker. The songs of "the Last of the Red-Hot Mamas" evidently helped to soothe Garbo's life-hurt, since she played them oftener than any others. Her taste in literature, as her Swedish couple observed, was also down to earth.

Though she occasionally read novels, her favorite reading matter consisted of movie fan magazines. Gustaf the butler had instructions to keep his employer supplied with the latest issues of all the screen magazines; Garbo pored over them by the hour, marking the articles about herself.

If, in his magazine shopping, Gustaf made a mistake and bought two copies of the same issue, Garbo sent him back to the stationery store with the duplicate to get a refund. Once in a while he was also given the chore of returning magazines in which Garbo had found no article about herself and negotiating a refund for them too.

Garbo displayed a highly developed sense of economy in other directions. The day Gustaf (Garbo's butler) went to work Garbo informed him that he was to be in charge of doing all the buying for the house and that the monthly budget for all household expenses, including food, was not to exceed a hundred dollars.

By using considerable ingenuity and shopping at cash-and-carry markets, Gustaf managed to hold the first month's expenditures down to eighty-five dollars. However, after Garbo had examined the bills at the end of the month, she called Gustaf in and complained that he had been extravagant. "We found we couldn't please her, no matter how we schemed," Gustaf said later. "She scolded on general principles. It was a comedy at the end of every month."

Gustaf was entrusted with other financial responsibilities. "A few days after we took charge of her house," he has recalled, "Garbo handed me fifty dollars in cash and a little black book. She said the money was to make purchases for her from time to time.

I was to get a receipt for everything I bought. Then I was to enter every purchase, with the date it was bought, in the little black book. Each receipt was to be pinned on the page of its entry. At the end of the month Garbo went over this book, drawing a line through each item and receipt as she checked them off. Believe me, I saw to it that they balanced to a cent."

Gustaf was not authorized to spend any of the petty cash fund for newspapers. Using his own money, however, he customarily bought a morning paper. At her request he left the paper in her bedroom after he finished with it. This sensible practice enabled Garbo to avoid a minor but regular daily expense. She availed herself of another economy by having Sigrid, the cook, put up her lunch, which Garbo carried to the studio in a brown paper bag.

Most of Garbo's recreations were solitary ones—swimming in her pool, lying in the sun, walking and horseback riding. She liked especially to walk in the rain, partly because it provided a kind of natural screen that isolated her from people. On Sunday afternoons she generally went to the movies, sometimes in Beverly Hills but more often in Pasadena, Long Beach or some nearby town, where she felt the chances of not being recognized were fairly good.

She was very much impressed by Gary Cooper's acting and seldom missed one of his pictures. She also made a point of seeing every film directed by Ernst Lubitsch and Erich von Stroheim and usually saw her own pictures two or three times, on different occasions.

Even on the help's day out Garbo usually took her meals at home, eating alone either in the garden or at the kitchen table. Her talent for cooking was extremely limited, so Sigrid usually left a cold roast and a vegetable salad in the refrigerator and some potatoes cooked and ready for frying on the stove. Having observed Garbo around the kitchen, Sigrid felt it useful to leave on the potatoes a note reading, "Stir often when over fire." As far as food was concerned, Garbo at that time had few eccentricities, though she occasionally treated herself to a cluster of raw garlic, being of the opinion that it was good for her health as well perhaps as for her zoll.

And then, after a long spell of being in virtual hiding behind the walls of her house on Chevy Chase Drive, Garbo gradually emerged.

Ham 'n' Eggs Are Starred in Casserole

Mrs. Dale Johnson Suggests Easy Dish to Serve Company

BY JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

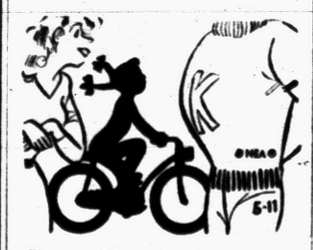

What shall I have for dinner? May we suggest Mrs. Dale P. Johnson's Scalloped Casserole for the main course? Add a gelatin salad, perhaps some rolls, and you're all set up, ready for your favorite dessert. Mrs. Johnson has used her recipe for a company meal where it proved very successful.

This tall, attractive young homemaker has a two-year-old son. She is interested in sewing and gardening. In her church she acts as treasurer of the general Guild and secretary of her own smaller group.

Scalloped Ham and Egg Casserole
By Mrs. Dale P. Johnson

3 tablespoons butter or margarine
¼ cup flour
½ teaspoon salt
2 cups milk
1 cup dry breadcrumbs
¼ cup melted butter or margarine
6 hard cooked eggs, sliced crosswise
1 cup cubed cooked ham
½ cup sliced mushrooms

Make white sauce of 3 tablespoons butter or margarine, flour, salt and milk. Moisten crumbs with melted butter. Alternate layers of crumbs, eggs, ham and mushrooms in greased caserole. Pour white sauce over top. Cover with crumbs. Bake in 350-degree oven 25 minutes. Makes 6 servings.

Junior High Will Present 'Melodies and Harmonies'

"Melodies and Harmonies," stories old and new, will be presented by the Vocal Music Department of Eastern Junior High School Thursday and Friday evenings at 7:30 in the auditorium.

This spring concert, directed by Connie Kolb and Henry Elling, will relate the spirit of America, past and present, as it might appear in the pages of books.

The Treble Clef Club and the Boys' Glee Club will open the covers of the Greatest Book ever written by presenting several familiar and beautiful religious stories.

Diane Beach will play a violin selection and Kay Harry will sing a solo. This section will be concluded with a number by the Boys' Alto Ensemble.

Childish fantasy and America's fairyland scenes will be disclosed when the covers of the book of Fairy Tales is opened.

The Treble Clef Club will sing several gay and happy songs to illustrate this phase in American childhood. Judy Young and John Westerman each have a solo number in this group.

To Sing of Adventure

Tales of Adventure, trips through outer space and visits with Men of Mars will seem very real as the Boys' Glee Club and Ninth Grade Ensemble sing the rollicking songs of adventure.

Tom Farmer will be soloist concluding this group of songs.

Stories of Romance will be told in song by the Ninth Grade Girls' Ensemble. Donna Pruett and Diane Beach will sing solos telling the story of American Youth.

Stories of Patriotism will be sung by the entire cast, and the program will close as it opens with Romberg's "Your Land and My Land."

Barbara Mitchell will announce the concert, and accompanists will be Julie Blank, Pat Brown, Margaret Cates, Sandra Sommerville, Lynn Thompson and Wanda Welch.

Others Will Assist

Others assisting in this presentation are John Allhouse and Mrs. Harry Hammerbeck and the Pontiac High School and Eastern Art Departments, Helen Lapisch and the Girls' Service Club and Lorna MacKellar.

Others are the library staff, Ellsworth Sturdy; stage crew, Roy Woods; print shop, Mildred Loper, and Speech Department, Francis Staley and Mrs. William Tompkins.

Job's Daughters Entertain Fathers

Roosevelt Temple on State avenue was the setting Monday evening when members of Job's Daughters, Bethel 40 entertained their fathers at an annual banquet.

The welcome was given by Honored Queen Gwendolyn Vernon. Sandra Clark gave a toast to fathers and Royal Clark toasted the daughters.

Entertainment consisted of a reading by Carol Venner, piano selections by Miss Clark and vocal selections by Marilyn and Gwendolyn Vernon.

Serving on the decorations committee were Sandra Langeland, Barbara Mitchell, Barbara Keilhorn, Virginia Taylor and Rita Lister.

May 23 is the date set for an election of bethel officers and council members.

To help an "over 30" complexion regain and retain the fresh glow of a younger skin, follow a thorough cleansing with the use of hormone cream or lotion daily, a beauty consultant advises. Cleanse throat and face with cold cream, using upward, outward motions. Remove it, then saturate a pad of cotton with an orange flower skin lotion, which is a mild freshener, and wipe it across the same area.

Bride-Elect Is Honored at Luncheon

Mrs. Fred Zittel of Navajo road entertained Tuesday at a luncheon and bridge party in Hotel Waldron honoring Corenna Morton.

June 18 is the date chosen by Corenna and James G. Aldrich for their wedding ceremony to be performed in Central Methodist Church.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Morton of Brookdale lane and the prospective bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Lee A. Kremer of Dwight avenue.

Four lighted tapers flanked an arrangement of white roses, iris, stephanotis and snapdragons, which centered the luncheon table.

Lillies of the valley, tied to the place cards with satin ribbon, carried out the all-white theme.

Guests included Mrs. Morton, Mrs. Kremer, Mrs. Ray Lyon, Mrs Earl L. Phillips, Marilyn Shearer who will attend Corenna as a bridesmaid, and Mrs Carleton Johnston.

When the liner Queen Elizabeth docks in New York, it lands up to 2,000 passengers, gets a thorough cleaning, takes on food for 100,000 meals, and embarks with 2,000 new passengers, all in two days.

Auxiliary Plans Week

Members of the St. Joseph Mercy Hospital Auxiliary gathered Monday afternoon at the student nurses home for the meeting of their organization.

Final plans for the auxiliary's participation in the National Hospital Week program were formed during the business meeting. Miss Marie Hickey, director of nursing service and chairman of St. Joseph Mercy Hospital Week, explained in what capacity auxiliary members were needed and asked their cooperation.

Each day during the week-long observance attention is to be focused on a different department of the hospital. A conducted tour through the building, an open house tea, and documentary movies are slated for Hospital Day, May 12.

Signed up as hostesses: Mrs. Fred R. Pickering, Mrs. James Q. Goudie, Mrs. Harold Brady, Mrs. Guy Moats, Mrs. John A. Reid, Mrs. Walter Williams, Mrs. Harwood Bacon and Mrs. R. L. Polk.

Mrs. Goudie, Mrs. Polk and Mrs. Moats comprise the nominating committee asked by the president, Mrs. Williams, to bring in a ballot for the June election of officers.

Group Entertained by Mrs. Spadafore

Mrs. Paul Spadafore opened her home on West Huron street Monday evening for a meeting of the Auxiliary to the Italian-American Club.

Plans were completed for a barbecue to be held June 18 at the Parcells circle home of Mrs. Robert J. Ranzilla.

Mrs. Verne Sinkler will be hostess for the next meeting at her home on Voorheis road.

Make Overskirt

Take a sheath with a scoop neck, you must have one. Give it a morale-raising change for practically no cost by adding an overskirt of organdy. Make it circular, with a cummerbund waist and you've got cheery wearing for prespring evenings.

Tell Theme for June 4 Workshop

"Polly Put the Kettle On" is the title that Oakland County Democratic Women have borrowed to use as the theme for their day-long workshop slated for June 4.

Mrs. G. Mennen Williams, wife of the governor, will be the featured luncheon speaker.

Spokesmen say the Mother Goose rhyme is being used inasmuch as the women hope to keep the "political kettle boiling."

Workshops will be conducted by Adelaide Hart, vice chairman of the State Central Democratic Committee; Mrs. Robert Philips, a member of the same committee, and Mrs. Paul Sutton, chairman of the Royal Oak Democratic Women's Club.

Pontiac residents serving on the planning committee are Mrs. George Hicks and Mrs. Jean Bowhall.

PEO Sisterhood Chapter Meets at Keasey Home

Chapter CL of PEO Sisterhood met Monday at the home of Mrs. Waldron Keasey on West Walton boulevard.

After a dessert luncheon and a short business meeting, reports were given on the state convention held recently in Flint. Mrs. W. Henry Sink, chapter president, and Mrs. Howard O'Toole attended as delegates.

Mrs. Harriet Gibson, a member of Chapter KJ of Marion, Iowa, was a guest at the meeting. Mrs. Gibson has been a houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. George Putnam of West Iroquois road for the past week. She is an aunt of Mr. Putnam.

The group made plans to entertain the husbands on Saturday evening with a dinner at Paul's and a film presentation by Tom and Arlene Hadley at the home of Dr. and Mrs. L. G. Rowley on Williams Lake road.

'Friends' Acid Remarks Deserving of Same

By MARY MARGARET McBRIDE

The successful female decorator was being rude and condescending to a friend who knew her when, and he was growing restive under the treatment.

Finally, after an especially tactless remark, he looked at her coldly and said softly but distinctly, "Haven't you put on quite a lot of weight lately?"

The effect was electrifying. The woman's mouth fell open, she flushed scarlet and actually began muttering something about a diet.

All my life I've been on the lookout for something to say that would gently insult a bore and at the same time be definitely the last word. I think now I've found it.

Under intolerable provocation I've felt tempted at times to use that famous squelch attributed to John Drew, the famous actor, confronted with one of those unspeakable creatures who catch you in a crowd and ask coyly, "You don't remember me, do you?"

"No," replied Drew coldly, "but say something wonderful now so that I'll never forget you."

Comedian Grouch Marx' mocking response to the same plaint was, "I never remember faces, but I'll make an exception in your case."

Sometimes, however, a shaft is so subtle it misses the mark. I've always enjoyed the story, probably apocryphal, about Beatrice Lillie, who listened patiently while a sharp tongued actress criticized their mutual friend and colleague for being conceited.

"Oh, I don't know," Miss Lillie murmured. "I think you should try to put yourself in the other fellow's shoes. She has a lot to be conceited about. And you have so much to be modest about!"

The sharp-tongued one never got it nor do many of those to whom I tell the story. "What did Beatrice Lillie mean?" they ask.

I like too, poet Carl Sandburg's retort discourteous when a playwright reproached him for nodding off in his aisle seat at the opening of a new production.

"I wanted your opinion of the play," the author said.

"Sleep," replied Sandburg, "is an opinion."

But best of all, I do believe, is the reply the acid and witty James Montgomery Flagg made to a woman who gushed at him, "Oh, I admire you so much for creating the Gibson girl."

"Why, no, madam," disclaimed Mr. Flagg genially, "that was Howard Chandler Christy."

Incidentally, anybody would do the theater a great service who could invent a crusher for middle-aged females who dash up to an actor or actress and insist, "I haven't miss one of your plays since I was a little girl!"

HAIR CARE

How does your hair look today? Compare its present condition with the way it looked a few years ago. Is your hair dry, seem to stop growing? Is it split or bleached on the ends? Are your permanents as good, and does your hair hold a fingerwave as well as it used to? Has your hair lost its lustre?

If any of these conditions exist . . . you should check the care you are giving your hair. Most important is the kind of shampoo you use. Synthetic shampoos are too strong for many heads of hair. Castile (or any good soap) followed with an acid rinse (vinegar) will keep the hair soft, lustrous and manageable. This type of shampoo can be used in hard water. A daily brushing is very beneficial to all hair, except the baby fine type. If you need further advice on the care of your hair, please call us for an appointment.

Baldwin Students Present Program

A musical program was presented by children of Baldwin School at the final PTA meeting Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Cyril Davis introduced Mrs. Harold Northon who directed the honor choir with Helen Barnett as accompanist.

Eldon Rosegart directed the advanced band in a group of choral numbers. A clarinet solo was played by Carol Beatty and a drum solo by John Berglund. Mrs. H. Mervyn Kline accompanied a violin duet by Sylvia Rofe and Linda Kline.

Mrs. Cyril Davis, retiring PTA president, installed the incoming officers. Mrs. W. H. Ruggles Jr. is president; Mrs. Daniel Peterson, vice president; Mrs. A. J. Cadieux, teacher vice president; and William Travis, father vice president.

Mrs. Roland Curtis is recording secretary; Mrs. Thomas White, treasurer; Mrs. Herbert Slaght, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Lyle Dusenbury, historian.

Mrs. Irene Albright, principal, was presented with a PTA life membership pin by Mrs. Davis.

Mrs. George Gaches was named chairman of costuming for a June 2 spring festival.

A kindergarten tea will be held June 7th at 1:30 p. m. for parents of children entering kindergarten this fall, with Mrs. Douglas Burleigh as chairman.

Picnic Is Planned

Safety patrols and service squads will be treated to a picnic at Walled Lake June 10 with Mrs. Stephen Dodge as chairman.

A 6-A graduates tea will be held June 14 at 2:00 p. m. with Mrs. Fred Kempe as chairman.

Mrs. Forest Glennie and Mrs. Donald Humphries are co-chairmen for the teachers and mothers luncheon to be held June 17.

Mrs. Roland Curtis, chairman for the Salk vaccine in the Baldwin district, reported that as soon as Pontiac gets the go ahead on the Salk vaccine dates will be announced.

Parents interested in a North End Branch of the Boys' Club are urged to attend a meeting May 20 in the evening at Lincoln Jr. High School's cafeteria.

Guest Feels Ill at Ease at Gathering

Does Etiquette Call for Introducing Self to Total Stranger?

By EMILY POST

A reader asks: "What is the proper behavior for a guest who finds herself a stranger at a large party?

"I was invited to a semi-business cocktail party last week and found that I knew no one at the party but the hostess. I felt very unnecessary and after about 15 minutes I left.

"I would like to know if it would have been proper for me to go up to other guests without being introduced, and start a conversation. I would very much appreciate hearing from you on this matter."

You can't very well walk up to two strangers who are talking together unless they speak directly to you. But you can quite properly start a conversation with either a man or woman who is seated next to you.

You must not, however, let it run on without response from your listener.

Dear Mrs. Post: My daughter is going to be married shortly and I would like to have something settled regarding the rehearsal dinner which my sister is giving for her.

The question has come up as to who should be invited. Is it necessary to invite the organist, soloist, the flower girl and her parents?

I think the only ones to be invited are the bridesmaids, ushers, maid of honor, best man, the minister and his wife and the bridegroom's parents.

Somebody else said that if the attendants are married their husbands (or wives) should be invited, too. Will you please set us straight on this?

Answer: As a rule, merely those who are actually to be in the processional are invited to the dinner. If some of these (possibly all) are married, their husbands (or wives) should be invited, too.

Plastic Carrier Made for Cats

You can forget about letting the cat out of the bag, because there's a new cat carrier that any feline will be perfectly content to travel in!

This clever carrier is domed with a strong sheet of clear plastic which allows kitty complete visibility in transit and curbs his claustrophobia.

It's finished in leather with a plaid lining—and the whole kit and caboodle is soap-and-water washable!

Norman L. Hunt, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis E. Hunt of Glenwood avenue, claimed Carolyn Marie Travnikar for his bride on Saturday. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Travnikar of Royal Oak. The couple was wed at St. Mary Magdalen Church in Hazel Park.

MR. and MRS. NORMAN L. HUNT

Couple Motors Through Canada Following Rite

Motoring through northern Canada are Mr. and Mrs. Norman L. Hunt, who exchanged their marital vows Saturday morning at St. Mary Madgalen Church in Hazel Park.

The Rev. Robert Zerafa officiated at the ceremonies, before an altar banked with basket sof white spring flowers.

The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Francis E. Hunt of Glenwood avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Travnikar of Royal Oak, are parents of the bride, Carolyn Marie.

White Chantilly-type lace over satin formed the bridal gown. Sleeves of the fitted bodice formed points at each wrist and the floor-length hoop skirt ended in a long train. Covering her jewelry neckline was the bridegroom's gift of a double strand of pearls. Her finger-tip veil was secured by a pearl tiara.

With her white Bible, she carried a white colonial bouquet of carnations and lily of the valley, centered with an orchid.

Gowns for her attendants were fashioned by the bride, who selected aqua nylon lace over taffeta, with hoop skirts. Queen Anne collars accentuated the sweetheart necklines.

Tiny yellow satin rosebuds were tucked into scallops formed by a white net ruffle at the bottom of the skirt of the maid-of-honor, the bride's sister, Dorothy. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Joseph Jozlin of Royal Oak, another sister; Mrs. Ernest Abney of Birmingham, sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. Dale Hunt of Auburn Heights, the bridegroom's sister-in-law, and Theresa Machones of Royal Oak.

For her duties as flower girl for her uncle, Dalena Hunt was dressed in the same dress as the bridal attendants, except for short puffed sleeves. She carried white rose petals in a white basket.

Serving as best man was Mr. Jozlin. Ushers were Mr. Hunt, Mr. Abney, Frank Poole of Birmingham and Charles Hunt, another brother of the bridegroom. Duties of the ring bearer were performed by little Frankie Travnikar, the bride's brother.

For her daughter's evening reception at Knights of Columbus Hall, Mrs. Travnikar selected a powder blue crepe dress with nylon inserts at the neck and side skirt panels. Her accessories were white and black.

The bridegroom's mother greeted guests in a dusty rose crepe dress with lace panels in the skirt and a nylon lace yoke. She chose navy accessories. Both mothers wore orchid corsages.

For their northern Canadian honeymoon, the new Mrs. Hunt changed to a grey suit with black and white accessories and pinned the orchid from her bouquet at her shoulder.

Lady Lost 106 Pounds

Models Rennel Perfectly

Size 48 Dress Goes To 18

Mrs. Lily Burris, Bloomingdale, Mich., generously reports her experience with the use of Rennel Concentrate over the period of one year. Mrs. Burris is blessed with good judgment, will power and usually succeeds with any project she undertakes. She writes, "A year ago I weighed 245 lbs. Today I am down to 139, a loss of 106 lbs. It's almost unbelievable, but true, and how grateful I am to lose all that weight. I feel like a new person in every respect. Not tired, not nervous, no sick headaches and that stomach trouble is all gone. Now I can do a hard day's work on a farm, not feel a bit tired, and that will always be a mystery to me. In fact I haven't felt so good in years. Why I have put off taking Rennel so long I will never know. But once I made up my mind I really went all the way; I was faithful to Rennel and to a choice of foods strong in protein. I obtained such wonderful results right from the first month. It was so encouraging to see those pounds slipping away day by day. But the most remarkable thing is not to feel nervous, run down or tired at any time while losing all that weight. I can't praise Rennel enough. Any product that will help you lose excessive weight and keep you feeling in tip top shape, that's for me. I used to wear a size 48 dress, now I wear size 18. My waist measurement is down 17 in., hips 17 in. smaller and bust measures 12 in. less. Now I am sure you can understand why I am grateful to the makers of Rennel Concentrate for putting on the market such a fine product."

Liquid Rennel goes to work quickly. If not pleased with the very first bottle return it to the manufacturer for your money back. $1.40 at your drugstore. Insist on and be sure to get Rennel.

Freemont Muchachos Learn to Roll R's in Elementary School Spanish Course

FREMONT (UP) — Spanish should be a snap for 33 Fremont fourth graders if they ever take it in high school or college.

The youngsters are learning to speak Spanish in an experimental class being conducted by Harold Saunders, Fremont High School Spanish teacher.

The class, similar to language experimental classes being conducted in elementary schools throughout the U. S., began in February following a thorough study of the program by Superintendent Paul Emerich, principal Julia Timmer and Saunders.

Each afternoon Saunders conducts a one-hour class for the nine-year-olds. When he arrives at their classroom, he is greeted by an enthusiastic, "Buenos tardes, Senor Saunders" or "Good afternoon, Mr. Saunders."

Saunders calls each child by their Spanish name — Roberto, Maria and so forth — and the lessons, which the children regard more as games, are entirely oral.

Saunders is teaching the children general greetings, how to talk about the weather and other social "chit chat" including how to tell time in Spanish. The children also sing Spanish songs and play Spanish games and many of the children, enthusiastic about their Spanish class, have come to school dressed in Spanish costumes.

Saunders said one of the biggest advantages in teaching a foreign language to youngsters at an early age is their spontaneity.

"They're not afraid, for example, to 'roll an r' and are eager to use their new knowledge whenever they have an opportunity," Saunders said.

"And their volcal mechanisms seem more flexible, too."

Saunders plans to prepare a brochure to explain the program and send it to all parents who have children in grade school before school resumes next fall.

The future of the program will be up to the response from parents. Response from the youngsters who are taking part in the experiment and their parents has been gratifying so far, Saunders said.

Saunders said a long-range language program for elementary school children would help them in later life when they might obtain better jobs because they are able to speak another language and will help them if they wish to travel abroad.

Mothers, Wives Ponder What Gifts to Send PWs

By UNITED PRESS

Wives, mothers and sisters were busy today jotting down lists of what they will put in gift packages for 44 American civilians and airmen held captive in Red China.

Their plans included everything from playing cards to books on how to play the accordion.

The Chinese Red Cross made the gifts possible last week by agreeing to distribute relief parcels to the American prisoners.

Up until now, packages to the prisoners were sent through international parcel post channels and the price was too high for many families.

Mrs. W. G. (Bud) Parks said in Omaha, Neb., that "I plan to take advantage of this offer to send my son some books."

She said her son, Air Force Lt. Roland W. Parks, "has asked for some of his college textbooks and seems particularly anxious to get an accordion instruction book."

Mrs. Parks explained that another prisoner, Air Force Lt. Lyle Cameron of Lincoln, Neb., is teaching her son how to play the accordion.

Col. John K. Arnold Jr. of Montgomery, Ala., can look forward to a batch of playing cards, pocket books, games and puzzles.

His wife said "the colonel is an avid card player and likes to read a lot, so now I'll limit most of my articles to small items of that nature.

Mrs. Harold Fischer Sr. of Swea City, Iowa, has been trying since last June to get weekly packages through to her son, Capt. Harold E. Fischer, but is afraid only a few reached him.

She will continue trying to keep her imprisoned son supplied with candy, gum, instant coffee, cocoa and cream, she said.

Trumps Up Charge to Get Into Prison

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. (UP) — A man had completed a term on the roads a week ago. When he came out he gave Sheriff Ernie Shore a solemn pledge he was through with whisky.

He was back in the sheriff's office today and announced, "I want to go back to the roads. Looks like I just can't make it on the outside."

There wasn't a charge against him, so the man fixed that. He grabbed an office phone and ripped it from the wall and smashed it on the floor. The charge: malicious injury to property and public drunkenness. About 60 to 90 days, the way the sheriff figures it.

Three Drown in Swell

BODEGA BAY, Calif. (UP) — A huge ground swell washed seven men off a chartered fishing boat yesterday. Pete Mancuso, Alvarano; Curt Rich, Boyes Springs; and Chelso Pedrechille, Sonoma, were drowned. Another fishing boat rescued the four others, including Capt. Roy K. Faught, owner of the chartered craft.

Teenagers Mob Akihito

TOKYO (UP)—Crown Prince Akihito, 21-year-old idol of Japan's bobbysoxers, was mobbed today by hundreds of screaming schoolgirls and amateur photographers. A near-riot took place at downtown Hibibya Park when the prince showed up at an auto show.

SO MUCH MORE CAR... AT SUCH A LOW PRICE!

Plymouth judged "America's Most Beautiful Car" by famous professional artists, the Society of Illustrators

Have you compared price tags on Plymouth and the other two cars in the lowest-price field lately? And, by the way, have you checked prices on the medium-price cars that claim they cost as little as Plymouth? If you have, you've discovered three facts of great importance to everyone planning to buy a new car:

BEST BUY NEW; BETTER TRADE-IN, TOO

Model for model, all low-price cars are priced about the same. The important thing is that the Plymouth price includes such items as electric windshield wipers, an oil bath air cleaner, resistor-type spark plugs, and a high-output generator; items you have to pay extra for on the other cars. (And don't be fooled by the claims of so-called medium-price cars that they cost as little as Plymouth; add total prices—you'll see the difference quickly.)

Prices of the big, beautiful Plymouth are surprisingly low! You get a car that's not only larger and roomier than all the other cars in Plymouth's field, but actually bigger than some cars costing many hundreds of dollars more! In its field, only Plymouth gives you the smooth, steady ride only a truly big car can give. And when it comes to endurance, Plymouth leads them all! That's why there are more Plymouths used as taxicabs than all other cars combined!

When you compare VALUE, Plymouth is like the high-price cars in everything but the price tag! It's the only low-price car this year with all-new, Forward-Look styling. (That means there'll be a good demand for this model when trade-in time comes.) In powerplants, Plymouth offers the thriftiest, smoothest six, and the most powerful standard V-8 in the lowest-price field. Inside, it's the roomiest, most comfortable car of "all 3," and has the greatest visibility.

A lot of people are finding out that Plymouth's low price offers the most value per dollar of any car in its field. So many people, in fact, that Plymouth sales have been record-breaking this year. This means a generous trade-in allowance on your big new Plymouth. See your dealer today, and you'll see why the big swing this year is to PLYMOUTH.

City Refuses to Rezone Residential Property

Auto Haulaway Firm Seeks Land to Store Cars

By a 5-2 vote, the City Commission last night supported a Plan Commission recommendation against rezoning residential land at Madison, Arlene and Perry streets.

An auto haulaway firm, Contract Cartage Co., had sought to have the property rezoned to commercial classification so it could be used as a car storage yard and loading station.

In the debate preceding the vote, the commissioners who subsequently voted against the request expressed confidence the company could find "sufficient land" in another section already zoned for commercial use.

Says Area Changed

"I feel that area has changed," said Mayor William W. Donaldson (District 3), "It has been estimated that 160 new homes could be built in that section."

Donaldson said school system officials have taken a stand against the rezoning. He added:

"To me it's a question of the dollar sign that enters in. I think the company can find sufficient land close to the (Pontiac Motor Division) plant.

"I feel we're not being obstinate in not wanting to make a Dort highway out of Perry street." (Dort highway is a busy, commercialized road outside of Flint.)

Commissioner John E. Dugan (District 5), in whose district the land is located said:

"There is property out Joslyn. I think there are all kinds of deals that can be made."

Commissioner Takes Issue

Dugan took issue with Commissioner Harry W. Lutz (District 7), who argued in favor of the rezoning. "Commissioner Lutz says the land is a swamp," Dugan said. "I'm sure if he looks it over he will see it is not all swamp."

Lutz, a builder in private life, said it was "just wishful thinking" to believe homes could be built on the land because "it's a lot of swamp."

Commissioner Harcourt S. Patterson (District 2), who also favored the rezoning, said:

"We have to acknowledge we're in a manufacturing city. If we make cars we have to have a place to store them.

Blind To The Facts

"We are being blind to the facts about this land. It is next to an auto parts establishment and across from a cemetery."

Pontiac Motor Division's bearing on the request came to the fore when Lutz commented that "General Motors pays, I think, 54 per cent of the taxes here." He later added:

"I feel the people helping pay the expenses of the city should be recognized."

Commissioner John A. Carry (District 5) rebutted:

"(Pontiac Motor) doesn't particularly care exactly where this place is put, just so it's near the plant . . . That's not the only commercial land available."

Donaldson said, "We have tried to be fair with Pontiac Motor. We refused to rezone the Glenwood Estates Subdivision from manufacturing to residential, as had been requested.

"I can also recall the Commission voting to rezone very undesirable land along the Belt Line Railroad to accommodate another trucking company."

'Getting Along Nicely'

Bobbie Dunn Learning to Balance on New Leg

By ARNOLD S. HIRSCH

Remember Bobby Dunn, the 13-year-old boy who lost his legs while trying to hop a ride on a freight train here last Christmas Day?

Well, Bobby, filled out and grown some, is now learning to balance on his first artificial limb at the Mary Freebed Hospital in Grand Rapids.

Getting Along Nicely

Hospital officials, who report the plucky youngster is getting along nicely, say the second limb has been fitted but isn't being used yet.

For the time being, getting used to one new leg is enough of a chore, they explain.

"We're sure he is going to look fine," Mrs. Eulodia Sawyer, director of nursing service, told the Pontiac Press.

"Some take to it just like ducks to water. Sometimes they are a little slower. We don't know which bracket Bobbie will fall into. But he's a pretty smart little boy."

Bobbie attends classes conducted at the hospital by the Grand Rapids public school system. He shuttles from his dormitory bed to the classroom on a wheelchair, using his new limb only part of the day.

Busy in Spare Time

In his spare time, the boy builds model plastic ships his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Dunn, take when they visit him on Sundays.

Although he is active in a special Boy Scout troop at the hospital, his parents think Bobby likes most the weekend visits they and his two sisters regularly make.

Sometimes Bobbie and the family go on fishing trips near the hospital.

In Good Spirits

"He's in good spirits, although sometimes when we go we can tell he's lonesome," Mrs. Dunn says. "But he says he'd rather stay there and learn to walk real good before coming home."

Although doctors won't say just when Bobbie will be released, his parents have moved from the two-room apartment where they lived when the accident happened.

"We knew when Bobby came home he'd need more room," his mother says. The Dunns now rent a seven-room house at 58 Union St.

When Bobby recuperates and learns to walk anew, trustees of the $11,900 fund raised for his education and future needs are preparing to ask the Probate Court to name permanent administrators.

The state is paying all current hospital bills.

Lawmakers Set for Tax Battle

Dems Seek to Write Corporation Profits Levy Into Bill

LANSING (AP) — The tax battle was on in the Michigan legislature today.

Democrats planned an attempt to write their pet corporation profits tax into a corporations franchise tax bill on the house floor.

The senate scheduled a vote on a revision of the business receipts tax which was amended out of all recognition but which will bring in more money than sponsors first intended.

House Republicans apparently counted on Speaker Wade Van Valkenburg (R-Kalamazoo) to shelve the corporations profits tax by ruling it not germaine to the franchise tax bill. Thus he could keep the profits tax from a floor vote.

The house taxation committee has refused to release the corporation profits tax, advocated for six years years by Gov. Williams.

When that issue is settled, the house will act on the bill to base the fanchise tax formula for multi-state business partly on sales destination. The law now bases the tax on just sales.

Revenue Not Altered

Rep. Rollo G. Conlin (R-Tipton), chairman of the house taxation committee, said the change would not alter the 38 million dollars which the tax produces annually.

In the Senate, Sen. Carlton H. Morris (R-Kalamazoo) removed all of his business receipts tax bill except the increase. He got the Senate to agree to increasing the levy from four to six mills, saying this would produce $22,500,000, enough to balance the budget next year.

Morris abandoned other features which had been endorsed by a citizens' advisory committee and which had awakened house opposition.

One would have permitted taxpayers to deduct depreciation and amortizations, the other would have set up a new multi-state taxing formula—sales destination and property—in the tax base. The formula now includes only sales destination.

Benefits Business

Morris contended that the present formula benefits Michigan business, especially small business.

The house planned to start debate today on its version of the business receipts tax. This would increase the tax from four to seven mills and set up a three-factor formula for multi-state businesses — sales destination, property and payrolls.

Van Valkenburg said a caucus indicated most Republicans favor the bill.

Discloses Disorder at Alcatraz April 25

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—An outbreak of violence in Alcatraz Prison on April 25 was disclosed yesterday by Warden Paul J. Madigan, who said "seven or eight men" had been placed in solitary confinement.

He described the outbreak as "a little disorder" involving only a few men.

He said the rioters already had been in a disciplinary section of the island prison in San Francisco Bay. He said the disturbance was based on demands for better food, newspapers and commissary privileges while being disciplined.

Statehood Dreams Blasted

By FRANK W. VAILLE

WASHINGTON (AP)—Alaska and Hawaii — their statehood dream blasted, ironically, by 48 votes—grasped for the bottom rung of the ladder again today.

In the wake of the 218-170 vote tally by which the House yesterday sent the joint Alaska-Hawaii bill back to committee, supporters were uncertain of their future course.

Chairman Engle (D-Calif) of the House Insular Affairs Committee said the margin of defeat made problematical consideration of separate legislation for either or both territories.

"I'm not going to fight a windmill," he said.

Both Engle and Rep. Saylor (R-Pa), another leading statehood backer, attributed defeat to opposition by the leadership in both parties.

Saylor said he would recommend the committee come back with separate bills for each territory, but he conceded there might be difficulty determining priority.

On this score, Delegate Bartlett (D-Alaska) said Hawaii should be considered first to "put the administration to the test."

Bartlett was referring to President Eisenhower's repeated recommendations that statehood be conferred on Hawaii. Eisenhower has made no such recommendation for Alaska.

Delegate Farrington (R-Hawaii) said she was "encouraged" by the outcome, adding that Hawaii's best chance for statehood rests in eventual passage of a separate bill.

The effect of the House action on prospects of statehood legislation in the Senate was hard to assess immediately.

Chairman Jackson (D-Wash) of the Senate Territories subcommittee has said often it would be "a waste of time" for the Senate to act in the face of House rejection. He said he is convinced the Senate would insist upon a joint bill. Such an Alaska-Hawaii bill passed the Senate last year. It died in the House.

Particularly discouraging to statehood supporters was the fact that yesterday was the first time the House ever rejected Alaska or Hawaii statehood legislation. The House previously had voted on three occasions to admit Hawaii as a state. It also voted once to make Alaska a state.

* * *

In yesteday's vote, Democrats split almost evenly with 105 voting to return the bill to committee and 107 opposing. Republicans divided 113-63 in favor of recommitting the bill.

State Solons' Votes:

WASHINGTON (AP) — Here's how Michigan's representatives voted yesterday when the House defeated a bill to admit Hawaii and Alaska to statehood. The vote was on a motion to recommit the bill, those voting "for" favored recommital, and those voting "against" opposed recommittal:

Republicans for recommittal — Bennett, Bentley, Cederberg, Hoffman, Johansen, Meader, Thompson, Wolcott.

Republicans against—Ford.

Democrats against—Diggs, Dingell, Griffiths, Hayworth, Lesinski, Machrowicz, Rabaut.

Paired for — Dondero, Republican.

Absent or not voting—Knox, Republican.

END OF LINE — Teensco, a Junior Achievement company sponsored by the Pontiac State Bank, last night ended its life cycle. Organized last October to give high school youngsters a chance to operate their own business, the company officially closed shop with a dinner at the Pine Lake Country Club. Above, Milo J. Cross, bank president (right), presents a JA club charter to Carolyn Brown (left) and Glenn Hartman, vice president and president, respectively.

Grocery Owner Forced to Break In Own Store

VANCOUVER, Wash. (UP) — August Greenlund complained to police yesterday that he has had to break into his own grocery every morning for the past several days.

Greenlund said some prankster has been putting cheap padlocks over his own locks on the front door.

30 Days for Paper Theft

DETROIT (AP)—Theft of a newspaper from a newsstand brought Winston Lee Brookins, 55-year-old Detroit laborer, a 30-day jail sentence Tuesday.

Scantily Clad Waitress Promises to Cover Up

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UP)—Shapely Ruth Reynolds, 22-year-old waitress, promised Judge Beverly Bousche to dress more formally when she enters taverns from now on.

She was haled into court yesterday by Police Lt. J. M. Agee who said her scanty shorts and halter distracted several bar patrons so much that they missed their mouths and poured beer all over themselves.

Pontiac Pastors Promise to Aid City Foundation

The Pontiac Foundation got a series of "booster shots" last night at the first City Commission meeting held in Pontiac's new City Hall.

Besides a number of checks from local organizations, Mayor William W. Donaldson, who heads the foundation, got a promise of help for the foundation from the pastors of the city and from the Chember of Commerce.

The Rev. Carl Nelson, president-elect of the Pontiac Pastors' Assn., read aloud a letter mailed to all members today.

It calls upon the clergymen to read from their pulpits on May 22 the mayor's proclamation naming that "Community Dedication Day."

Ralph T. Norvell, C. of C. president, who presented a check on his own behalf, pledged solid support for the foundation and said a committee had been formed, headed by C. K. Patterson.

The foundation is a trust for gathering funds to construct a community activities building-auditorium in time for the city's centennial in 1961.

Chief donation to the foundation last night was an $1,180 check from the Federation of Women's Clubs, presented by its president, Mrs. Paul Gorman.

Other checks came from the Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Pontiac Symphony.

Since last week, the foundation has collected $2,603.

Williams Will Speak

CADILLAC (AP) — Gov. Williams is scheduled as speaker at a ceremony Saturday for dedication of a $350,000 National Guard armory in Cadillac.

Rivers to Be Dredged for Seaway Opening

PORT HURON (UP) — The Detroit, St. Clair and St. Marys Rivers will be dredged to a depth of 27 feet in time for the scheduled opening of the St. Lawrence Seaway in 1959, according to the president of the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence Seaway Association.

The president, Dr. N. R. Danielian of Washington, told Port Huron business leaders that cost of the dredging project will approach $109,000,000.

He said legislation now before Congress is drawing "less opposition from sectional interest" than did the original seaway legislation.

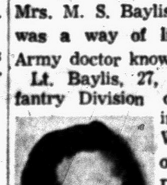

"The Great Lakes are the gold mines of the nation, and Michigan is the center of this great heartland," Danielian said. "Your state has a key role in the seaway picture."

The deeper channels will permit foreign ships of 8,000 to 10,000 tons to traverse Great Lakes waters.

Army Doctor From Pontiac Volunteers to Treat Entire Settlement in Korea

It's more than a long way from Pontiac to South Korea. For Lt. Shelby Baylis, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Baylis, 906 Spence, it was a way of life, as only an Army doctor knows it.

Lt. Baylis, 27, was a 24th infantry Division doctor stationed in South Korea. When the village of Tae Song Dong, cut off from the outside world by rules governing a demilitarization zone, asked for medical help, the request passed through channels of the Division's Civil Affairs Office.

BAYLIS

Dr. Baylis was the single volunteer. His first visit to the village saw nearly the entire settlement —110 persons—turn out to get a glimpse at their new "family doctor."

The two medical trucks Lt. Baylis had to work from certainly must have been different from facilities found at Detroit's Henry Ford Hospital, where he interned before Korea.

Sick Call on Porch

Sick call was held on the porch of a hut, where common ailments of the villagers—colds, arthritis and ear aches — were treated. Through an interpreter, patients told the doctor their trouble and he prescribed treatment. Lt. Baylis inoculated many of the townspeople against smallpox, a prevalent disease in Korea.

During the fighting, residents of Tae Song Dong stayed on the land their ancestors had farmed for hundreds of years. They hid in caves to avoid the combat that raged in the fields.

The infantryman's job was finished when the truce was signed. Dr. Baylis now had his job—one of healing.

The truce stipulated that the residents could remain but the population cannot marry and remain in Tae Song Dong nor are they permitted to bring in a wife or husband, because each villager is related to the other.

Lifeline to Outside

The town's only lifeline to the outside is the weekly visit by Dr. Baylis and his two medical trucks. Besides the medical treatment, the people depend upon the trucks to bring supplies in and take produce out to market.

After a year in Korea, Lt. Baylis left Korea Tuesday, bound for the U.S. He will join his wife and two baby girls in Windsor, Ont., late this month.

He will serve four years as resident surgeon at Wayne County General Hospital beginning July 1. A 1953 University of Michigan graduate, Dr. Baylis has a brother, Henry, in his second year of pre-medical school at that university. A sister, Shirley, graduates from the University of Michigan in June, with an education degree. All three are Phi Beta Kappa members.

AUTO INSPECTION IN THIRD DAY — Hundreds of Pontiac motorists are cooperating with the Chamber of Commerce Safety Committee's annual vehicle maintenance program by driving into one of the five reserved lanes throughout the city for an auto safety check. The above photo shows autos being checked in the city's downtown lane next to the Oakland County Courthouse. Members of the Pontiac Optimist Club and Police Dept. are conducting the inspections in the lane shown. Assisted by five other groups besides the Optimists, the committee checked 1,973 autos in the first two days of this week.

It Won't Be Just a 'Detroit Affair'

Auto Strike Would Be Felt Throughout U. S.

DETROIT (UP)—A strike in the automobile industry, if it comes this year, won't be a "Detroit affair" this time.

It will be something directly affecting Cleveland, Chicago, Buffalo, Milwaukee, St. Paul, Los Angeles, and many other cities around the nation.

It would idle thousands of workers in communities across the nation directly, and many others indirectly.

The past five years of labor peace have seen the automobile industry push its greatest expansion program in history. It has extended its plants and operations across the nation to the greatest extent in history.

It now is a nationwide industry in every sense of the word.

For example of the 184,000 Ford workers now employed, only 104,000 work in the Detroit area. The rest are spread out like the 1,500 at Atlanta, Ga., and 1,500 at Buffalo, the 2,200 at Chester, Pa., and the 1,600 in Kansas City, Mo., who assemble Ford cars, and those like the 700 at Green Island, N. Y., who make radiators and transitional springs.

Detroit still is the heart of the automobile industry. But Michigan itself makes only some 40 per cent of all automobiles now. And suppliers by the thousands and parts plants by the dozens spread out into every state in the nation.

General Motors has 127 plants, but only 40 of them in Michigan. They are spread out to five in Cleveland, four in Newark, four in Dayton, Ohio, and three in suburban Cincinnati, three in Indianapolis and three in Los Angeles. There is a proving ground in Mesa, Ariz., and a fabricast plant in Jones Mill, Ark.

The impact of a strike would hit thousands of other plants which supply the industry, almost immediately.

General Motors alone has 21,000 suppliers, spread through all 48 states.

Akron with its rubber plants of course would be hit hard. The auto industry gobbles up 65 per cent of all rubber products. The steel industry, which sells about a fifth of its products to the auto industry, would be affected.

But if a strike comes, some tiny communities, whose supplier plants are the biggest industries in the community, could suffer even more.

What happens in Detroit at the wage negotiations in the coming weeks will have more effect on more communities than ever before. The auto industry always has been a keystone of the national economy. What happened in Detroit, always affected the nation indirectly. This time, if there is a strike, it will slap at many areas much more directly.

Moving Jets to Japan

TOKYO (UP)—The U.S. Air Force says it will move jet bombers to Japan to replace obsolete twin-engine B26s based here. All heavy bombers were moved to Okinawa and other bases last year to relieve Japan of the worry of retaliatory bombing in case of war.

3rd Inoculated Child Succumbs in Idaho

BOISE, Idaho (UP)—A U.S. Public Health Service virologist hurried to Idaho Falls today to examine the body of 6-year-old Danny Eggers, the third Idaho child to die of polio after receiving the Salk antipolio vaccine.

He was the 15th Idaho child to come down with the disease after inoculation. He died yesterday of bulbar polio.

State Health Director L. J. Peterson asked Dr. Carl Ecklund of the Rocky Mountain Laboratory in Hamilton, Mont., to fly to Idaho Falls as soon as possible.

Danny was vaccinated April 19 and became ill Saturday.

Like the other Idaho cases, he had been inoculated with serum manufactured by the Cutter Laboratories of Berkeley, Calif.

The state's mass vaccination program for schoolchildren has been halted pending a federal check of the vaccine.

Hit-Run Colorado Deer Reported by Student

BOULDER, Colo. (UP)—Colorado University student Don Ehrenkrook, of Sugar Loaf, Colo., tells this story of a hit-and-run deer.

Ehrenkrook said he was driving up Boulder Canyon at night when a deer, apparently startled while drinking from the creek, attempted to flee by jumping over the car.

He said the deer smashed into the windshield, shattering it, jumped off the hood and disappeared into the hills.

Hal Boyle Says:

Low Pay Forces British MP to Quit Post

By STANLEY GODFREY
For Hal Boyle

LONDON (AP)—Capt. Robert Ryder, story book hero of World War II, is quitting the House of Commons. He cannot afford to be a member.

Ryder is one of many British MPs who, for financial reasons, could not run again for the May 26 general election.

"I just can't live on the salary," he said in announcing he would not try to succeed himself.

Instead, the 47-year-old hero—he commanded naval forces in the 1942 commando raid on St. Nazaire—plans to go into private business, where employers are more generous.

Ryder, who won the Victoria Cross, Britain's highest military award, is a Conservative, but money worries niggle at members from all parties.

Tom Driberg, a popular Socialist broadcaster and freelance journalist, also confessed openly that financial considerations kept him from running again.

Britain's MPs earn 1,000 pounds ($2,800) a year, with an expenses allowance of 2 pounds ($5.60) for each full day they attend the House of Commons.

This works out to roughly 24 pounds ($7.20) a week for full time attendance.

Out of that, an MP has to keep himself in London when the House is in session, hire secretarial help, entertain the constituents who "look in" at the House—and generally live up to being a member of Her Majesty's Parliament.

Most look longingly toward the United States, where members of Congress increased their pay to $22,500 a year under a bill passed in the current session.

After income tax, social security deductions and expenses are paid, legislators here have less to keep a family on than the average bank clerk, or the shorthand writers taking down their speeches in the House of Commons.

Altogether, 40 legislators will not be running again for re-election. Some claim ill health, pressure of business or purely domestic reasons, but underlying the resignations, party leaders from both sides admit, is a lot of financial worry.

Even Cabinet members and junior ministers have to watch the pennies.

A parliametary undersecretary, who answers run of the mill questions in the House of Commons for his minister, draws a total of 2,000 pounds a year.

A Cabinet minister earns 5,000 pounds and pays back an average of 2,000 in taxes.

Last year, an all-party committee recommended a 500 pound raise for MPs. But Prime Minister Churchill said the government "did not feel justified" in raising MPs' pay while urging the nation's trade unions not to press for increases. Instead, he handed out the expenses allowance.

Several members combine their Westminster duties with other jobs. Laborite George Strauss inherited a big fortune and still manages to keep a watchful eye on the family metal broking business.

On the Conservative side, Sir Beverley Baxter, drama critic, broadcaster and lecturer, makes a lucrative living by his pen. Foreign Minister Harold Macmillan heads the famiy publishing business.

But it's only men with nonfixed outside jobs who are able to combine earning and ruling. Its virtually impossible for any MP to carry out an ordinary job and still attend the House.

Because of the acute financial loss entailed, many men prominent in their own communities refuse to run for Parliament.

Though apparently formless, the oyster is a creature with heart, stomach, liver, intestine, gills, mouth, and a simple nervous system.

Bob Considine Says:

TV Guest Gets the Air Without Being on It

NEW YORK (INS)—The phone rings and the voice says, "This is the Zeke Ezekial show, on WZZZ. Zeke would like you to go on the air to talk about your new book, 'Man Drinks Water Sometimes.'

"It's a great break for the book, I needn't tell you. Zeke rates well up there, as you probably know if you read Zit's. You probably saw him in the audience on the Pinky Lee Show."

So you say, "Fine, I'd be thrilled." You wouldn't be, really, but the publicity department of the book publisher has called just a few minutes before and said, "What a break for the book! We've talked Zeke Ezekial into having you on the air to talk about it.

"You know what he did with the 18th microfilm edition of 'Gone With the Wind.' Gave it one plug on the air and it sold like hotcakes to libararies in towns under 400."

In time a young man comes to see you from Zeke Ezekial's office. Fine young man, actually. He's just breaking in and is eager to make good. But more than that he wants you to know that he's no greenhorn.

He whips out a pad and says, "Well?" You say, alarmed, "Well, what?" And he says impatiently, "The book—whatever its name is. What about it? Start talking about it, so I can make some notes."

So you say, lost like, that you got the idea during the war in North Africa, when you couldn't get anything to drink except malted sterno, and, well, the book just simmered through the years, but finally the man from the internal revenue place needed some more money, quick, and so you wrote it, and a close relative at the publishing house took a chance and printed it.

"Did your mother come from Brooklyn or some place that will get a laugh?" the young man asks. You say no, sorry, and he's good enough to accept the apology.

Then he asks you so many other questions you gain the idea that when you go on the air with Zeke it is going to be one of the longest programs since the last overnight telethon.

So the great day arrives and you show up at the Zeke Ezekial Show, which is broadcast from a two-table hamburger joint off Broadway. You've practiced your lines and are repeating them, as if in front of a mirror when you suddenly run into one of the largest crowds outside of a bad accident.

You try to wade through because there's hardly time to meet Zeke before going on the air. Then you realize that the people you've been brushing aside are also guests on Zeke's program.

They are all much more important. One is a separated Siamese twin. Another is the poet laureate of the Burma Shave Company. A third repairs divots in ponies between chukkers during a polo match. A fourth, a college man, mends split infinitives.

You watch the clock after all of them have been on the air and realize it's going to be a close squeeze so far as you are concerned.

Now it's exactly your time and Zeke says, "Here he is, the author of 'Women Drink Wine Occasionally,' and now Mr. Constantino welcome to WZZZ and let's hear all about it . . ."

"Well, folks, it seems . . ."

"But first a word from our sponsor," Zeke cuts in, decisively.

There follows a considerable period devoted to commerce, concluded by Zeke who says, "Before we sign off, a word from John Carradine. Go on, quick. Say something."

"Well, folks . . ."

"And thank you, Joe Cassanova, well-known author of 'Children Prefer Milk.'"

You hang around later, waiting for phone calls from adoring fans. But nothing happens for a long time. Then, as a rule, the phone rings. You buff your nails as somebody answers it, knowing that somebody wants to tell you that you were dreamy. But, without fail, it is the wife of one of the engineers who leaves the following message: "Tell that bum to bring home a quart of milk for the baby."

Zeke? He went to El Morocco, leaving word at the door not to admit any guests.

Haystack Protective

ST. LOUIS (UP) — Lt. Col. Bernard Trum of the Atomic Energy Commission told a state convention of veterinarians here that a haystack would protect both man and beast from fallout of radioactive particles from an atomic explosion. In fact, he said, a haystack would provide the most practical shelter for rural dwellers.

Pepper-Throwing Bandit Confesses

DETROIT (AP) — Police said yesterday a four-time ex-convict had admitted he was the pepper-bandit who robbed a flower shop manager of $5,000 yesterday.

Police said the man was Joseph Brandenberry, 48, of Detroit. Detective Lt. Joseph Kellner said Brandenberry admitted he threw pepper in the eyes of Charles Rapaport yesterday and snatched a corsage box containing $3,000 cash and $2,000 in checks.

Rapaport was en route to a bank when he was accosted by two men. Both escaped. Police said a witness noted the getaway car's license and it was traced to Brandenberry. Kellner said $3,000 cash and remnants of burned checks were found in Brandenberry's flat.

A second man is hunted.

Kellner said Brandenburry had served two terms for car theft and two for armed robbery. Kellner also said Brandenberry had admitted the $4,332 holdup of a Detroit bar last April 16.

How to Avoid Dentist While Waiting for Him

BATAVIA, N. Y. (UP)—When 10-year-old Karen Tundo failed to appear at her dentist's office for an appointment, her parents, neighbors and city police began an intensive search for her.

Four hours later she returned home, tired and bored. When asked where she had been, Karen replied she had been to the dentist. She complained that the dentist never did get around to her.

Seems that Karen had misunderstood her mother's instructions and had spent the afternoon in the wrong dentist's waiting room.

Three different strains of "pedigreed" hops bring to life the Goebel "new live taste." Their certificates—from Bavaria, the Yakima Valley, and California—are shown above.

We treat our hops like honored guests

Expensive "pedigreed" hops are the secret of our new live taste

There is a difference in the taste of beers—and here's the story behind the new live taste of Goebel.

In the castled, green lowlands of Bavaria's Tettnang district, in gardens two centuries old, grow tiny, gossamer-leaved hops, aristocrats of the vine. Their market price is high. Only Goebel uses them in such generous proportion to bring you the tempting aroma and delicacy of the live taste.

These "pedigreed" hops—each shipment accompanied by a certificate of origin—are carefully, even artfully blended with America's finest—plump, green hops from sunny California gardens, rich, aromatic hops from the cool heights of Washington's Yakima Valley—to create the piquant character of Goebel.

They're special. Chosen for unique qualities. That's why from the moment they leave the garden, we protect them, cool them carefully—treat them like honored guests, if you will—then blend them in special proportions to bring you the new live taste you find in every glass of Goebel.

It's an experience in beer pleasure worth going out of your way to try. It's worth insisting on—at home or at your tavern. It's Goebel, with the live taste.

Go for the new live taste - GO GOEBEL!

Woman Routs Mock Officer

Detroiter Accosted in Own Garage by Man Posing as Cop

DETROIT (INS) — A 50-year-old Detroit woman screamed and leaned on the horn of her car today to frighten away a man who posed as a policeman and tried to assault her in her own garage.

Mrs. Elsie Kubbe told police she noticed a car following her as she drove home from a restaurant early today.

She said she was getting out of the car in the garage when a well-dressed man, about 30, approached her, stated he was a police officer and said she had been speeding. She denied the charge and demanded to see the man's credentials.

With this, the man grabbed Mrs. Kubbe, she said, and tried to force her into the car. Her screams and the horn roused neighbors and put the man to flight.

Detectives believe Mrs. Kubbe's assailant may be the same man who posed as a policeman last April 23 and stabbed Mary Louise Noble, 19, seven times in the stomach and hand.

REHEARSAL MAYHEM — The combination of Friday the 13th, and cats, black or otherwise, is bound to produce some results, faculty members of the Isaac E. Crary Junior High School, Waterford Township believe. They're presenting "Aunt Cathie's Cat" a three-act comedy-mystery, at the Crary gym at 8 p. m. Friday. Running through a menacing scene are Olive Gustafson, Helen Valentine and Paul O'Neill.

Admits Assault, Battery Charge Before Judge

Roy Ray Jr., 22, of 117 Center St., charged with assault and battery of a young woman early yesterday, pleaded guilty before Municipal Judge Cecil McCallum and was sentenced to 50 days in the Oakland County Jail.

Patrolman Albert W. Foster Jr. who said he saw Ray molesting the woman in front of 67 S. Saginaw St., finally tackled the suspect after a brief chase. Foster and his partner, Billy F. Jones, had just turned a corner in a patrol car when the woman started screaming, said Foster.

Karl Marx, "father of Russian communism," was a German who spent much of his life in Great Britain and never visited Russia.

Lapeer Auto Dealer Succumbs in Home

LAPEER—Daniel P. Sullivan, believed to be one of the oldest Buick dealers in Michigan, died at his home at 1141 Genesee St. yesterday, following a year's illness. The 75-year-old Lapeer resident had been owner of the D. P. Sullivan Motor Co. here for 34 years, since 1921; and an automobile dealer since 1914.

Born Sept. 9, 1879 in Elba Township, Mr. Sullivan married Elizabeth Harrigan in 1908. Two years after her death in 1916, he married Mary A. Yorker, who survives him.

He was a member of the Church of the Immaculate Conception Holy Name Society, the Flint Chapter of the Knights of Columbus, and a charter member of the Lapeer Rotary Club. He was a graduate of Hadley High School and Cleary Business College, Ypsilanti.

Surviving, besides his widow, are one son Parnell of Lapeer; four daughters, Mrs. William Tracy of Seattle, Wash., Mrs. Wayne Croxton of Lansing, Mrs. Mary Smith and Mrs. James Eastman, both of Lapeer; two brothers, John and Francis, and one sister, Mrs. Claude Stock all of Lapeer; and nine grandchildren.

Requiem High Mass will be sung at the Church of the Immaculate Conception at 10 a. m. Friday, with burial in Mt. Loretto Cemetery. Rosary will be recited at 8 p. m. Thursday at the Baird Funeral Home.

3 Take Petitions for School Vote in Waterford

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — Three residents have picked up petitions for the forthcoming board of education election June 13.

Deadline for submitting the petitions with the secretary of the school board Marshall Smith is Saturday.

The term of James Donaldson Jr. is expiring. He is seeking re-election. The other two have been taken out by Fred Poole and John Bell.

Mrs. Charles Elder of Union Lake road will entertain the Webford Club Thursday at a 1 p.m. luncheon.

3-Day Festival to Open June 24

Dean, Beebe Will Head Affair to Pay Mortgage on Community Center

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP—Richard Dean has been named general chairman of the annual CAI Fair to be held June 24, 25, and 26 at this community center on Williams Lake road.

Co-chairman for the affair will be Alfred Beebe, president of Community Activities Inc. All proceeds will be applied on the mortgage.

The fair will feature exhibits by merchants, civic and cultural displays, entertainment, and a midway.

A special children's program has been scheduled for the afternoon of June 25 when there will be reduced prices on the rides and two bicycles will be given away.

The three big door prizes this year will be an automatic washer, and outboard motor, and a power mower.

Assisting Dean and Beebe will be Fred Thompson, in charge of finance and records; George McClanahan, building and construction; Robert Poorman, traffic; Jack Goshen, building maintenance; and Robert Beatty Jr., fair prizes.

Mrs. Lester Patton and Mrs. Warren Allen will handle the civic and cultural displays; Mrs. George Dean is chairman of the fair queen contest; Lee Kaines, rides and midway; Fred Barrett, booths and sales; Claud McKinnan cafeteria and refreshments; and Mrs. Patrick Wolfe, entertainment.

Merchants interested in securing exhibit space should contact Robert Beatty Sr., commercial display chairman, as soon as possible, officials said.

Drayton PTA to See Pictures, Install Officers

DRAYTON PLAINS—Pictures of India will be shown by Miss Frieda Huggett when the Drayton Plains PTA holds its final meeting of the year in the school auditorium.

The meeting is scheduled to begin at 7:45 p. m. Thursday when the revised bylaws will be presented for approval.

Mrs. E. T. Johnson, retiring president of the Oakland County Council of Parents and Teachers will install the new officers for 1955-56.

Waterford Senior Takes First in Oratory Contest

MYLES WATKINS

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP—The Detroit area grand champion of the Hearst tournament of orators was won last night by Myles Watkins, Waterford Township High School senior.

His presentation of "Robert E. Lee" took the honors.

In the Mid-west zone finals Monday night in Detroit he will meet winners from Chicago, Milwaukee and Pittsburgh. A winner there is flown to Albany, N. Y. to compete in the national contest.

Last Monday night he captured a local crown with a presentation entitled "What Youth Can Do for Highway Safety" in the Knights of Pythias contest. He will enter the state contest May 21 in Lansing.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Mortyndale Watkins, 4312 Lotus Dr.

Last year he won first place in the state and regional Knights of Pythias contest, and then captured second place in the national contest in Washington.

Troy Approves Sale of School

Will Allow Clawson to Purchase Building Near Its Boundary

TROY TOWNSHIP — The Troy Township board of education last night passed a resolution to allow the Clawson school district to purchase the Log Cabin School, between 14½ and 15 Mile Roads.

A committee will be appointed, consisting of two representatives from each area and from the county superintendent of school's office, to meet and decide the cost.

A tentative figure of $74,597 would include $28,086 for a new Troy school, $12,700 for its site, and $33,811 for indebtedness.

Troy board members feel that the district would lose money during the next school year, but would gain in the long run by not having the area.

Ninty-seven per cent of the property owners in the area affected had petitioned for the changeover. There will be more than 100 children remaining in the Troy school area.

They will be disbursed through other schools, until the new school bond issue is voted on in October, for a $900,000 school building program.

Dance Festisval Slated at Oxbow Lake Pavilion

UNION LAKE — The annual dance festival of the Union Lake Fire Department and the Women's Auxiliary will be held Friday at the Oxbow Lake Pavilion.

Thurman Farlow is the general chairman.

Kindergarten Tots to Enroll Thursday

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP—Kindergarten registration will be held at the Waterford Center and Sashabaw Schools tomorrow.

Registration and open house will be held at the Waterford Center building from 9-11 a.m., and 1-3 p.m.

The Sashabaw School will begin activities at 1 p.m.

Child must be five years old by Dec. 1, 1955 to be enrolled. Birth certificates establishing this fact must be presented. Health and immunization records are also necessary.

The meeting will provide an opportunity for the parents to meet the teachers and others who will be working with their children during the first year of school.

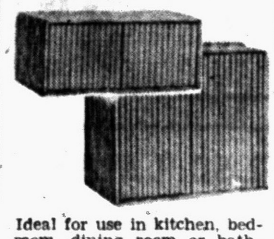

Refreshments will be served.

Linotypist Makes Devil Look Like a Nice Guy

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—I met the Devil last night—and he turned out to be a linotype operator.

Knowing a few linotype operators, I wasn't surprised. Ray Walston—who plays the Devil in the hit show, "Damn Yankees"—told me he was a linotypist in New Orleans and on the Houston Post while working his way up on the stage.

"I still have my union card," he said. "I've never been sure . . ."

To say he gives a h—l of a performance would be vulgar, I suppose. Assisted by wonderful Hollywood-born Gwen Verdon; Russ Brown, the Johnny Ray of 1912," and Stephen Douglass of Mount Vernon, O., and Teaneck, N. J., he makes the Devil seem like a fairly nice guy.

Hollywood Headlines

Dean, Jerry Go Western in 'Where Men Are Men?'

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

The title is "Where Men Are Men?" The story, an original by Jerry Davis, has been turned over to Sidney Sheldon to script with Paul Jones producing.

Here's the plot, and it sounds very funny to me: Jerry will be seen as an Eastern playboy who inherits a ranch. He decides to visit the ranch where Dean is foreman, hard working and intent on his job.

They'll make the picture in Arizona on a ranch near Kingman.

You'll see Dorothy Lamour on the Columbia lot rehearsing for her first Screen Gems TV film, "Harry, the Hustler," by Damon Runyon.

Dottie will play the wife of a con man, and it's a very amusing story, because when the con artist comes into some real money he, himself, falls prey to the Broadway sharpies who talk him into backing a show.

Lou Breslow, the producer, signed Dottie, who's right in the midst of moving into Betty Hutton's former house.

Bing Crosby was so happily surprised he almost lost his famed nonchalance when all four of his sons, including Phillip and Dennis (now in the Army), showed up at the birthday party given for the groaner and Alice Faye by Jimmy Van Heusen and Pete Pettito Saturday night in Palm Springs.

Bing thought Dennis was still at his Army camp down South, but the boy had obtained a leave.

The only thing wrong with the soiree was the weather which blew the luau planned for outdoors right back indoors.

Among those who wished "Happy Birthday" to Bing and Alice were Phil Harris (of course), Frank Sinatra, Jeanmaire, the Stan Donens, William Perlbergs, Bill Morrow with pretty Mary Henderson, Dr. and Mrs. Arnold Stevens and more and more.

Producer Buddy Adler is not necessarily trying to make a liar out of Kipling, but in his picture, "House of Bamboo," the twain shall meet! Bob Stack is going to wind up married to Shirley Yamaguchi.

After watching Bob do a torrid love scene with Shirley he told me, "A new ending has been written for the picture. It was figured that since there are many happy marriages between GIs and Japanese girls, it is time for Hollywood to shelve 'Madame Butterly' endings."

Speaking of Shirley, she may accept an offer for a Broadway musical when she goes to New York to visit her sculptor husband, Isamu Noguchi. She was in musical comedies in Japan.

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random: David Schine will be released from the Army Aug. 21 and 'tis whispered that he will take charge of the Ambassador Hotel here, which his father owns. Maybe then he'll use that marriage license to wed Piper Laurie.

The dinner party Anita and Buddy Adler are giving May 21 is really in celebration of their 15th wedding anniversary.

Lemon Closing Personal Deficit Against Yanks

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Like the gent said, all things come to them what waits. And Bob Lemon finally is catching up with the New York Yankees.

They're the only team that has an edge over the big Cleveland righthander, building it up during that five-year world championship kick from 1949 through 1953.

Lemon, the 34-year-old ace of the Indians' pitching staff, has himself six seasons of 20 or more victories since switching from third base in 1946. But he's only 22-24 lifetime vs. the Bombers.

Lemon has split even in two tries against New York this season by beating the Yanks 9-6 last night, with the help of Don Mossi.

The victory was his sixth of the season, against that lone defeat by the Yanks last week. It tumbled New York into third, three games behind the pace-setting Tribe. Chicago took over second by defeating Boston 4-2 in a day game.

In other night games, Washington moved into fifth place by knocking off Detroit 7-4 while Baltimore was living it up, 11-1, over Kansas City.

It was the same old story with a new twist in the National. Brooklyn won another, but Don Newcombe tossed himself a one-hitter in beating the Chicago Cubs 3-0. He faced just 27 men, the minimum.

Pittsburgh surprised Milwaukee 9-6 while St. Louis nudged Philadelphia 5-3 in 10 innings and New York beat Cincinnati 8-4.

Lemon had the Yanks grabbing at straws for six innings last night, giving up four of their six hits over that period in the fourth inning. The four singles scored two runs, but Lemon was still one up 4-3.

His lead was 8-4 by the seventh, when two singles sandwiched around Andy Carey's triple brought in two Yank runs. That's when Mossi, a fellow Californian, strolled in and fanned Elston Howard and Bob Cerv in pinch-hit assignments to end the threat.

The Tribe got 14 hits off five New York pitchers, getting rid of loser Don Larsen on Dave Pope's leadoff homer in the fourth, and rocking Whitey Ford for four runs in the fifth. Pope and Larry Doby, back from 10 days on the bench with a strained muscle, each had three hits as the Tribe extended its streak to five straight while nipping the Yanks' at four.

At Chicago, Brooklyn had a romp winth Newcombe showing his stuff after getting off the suspended list last week. Big Newk, who refused to pitch batting practice, now has pitched to only 33 men in 11 innings. Gene Baker's single in the fourth yesterday was the only hit off him in that string. And Baker was erased trying to steal.

Duke Snider homered for the Dodgers' first run off loser Warren Hacker to start the Brooks to their 11th straight success and 22nd in 24 games. It left Newcombe at 4-0 for the year and gave him his first shutout since Sept. 29, 1951. (He spent '52-'53 in the Army.)

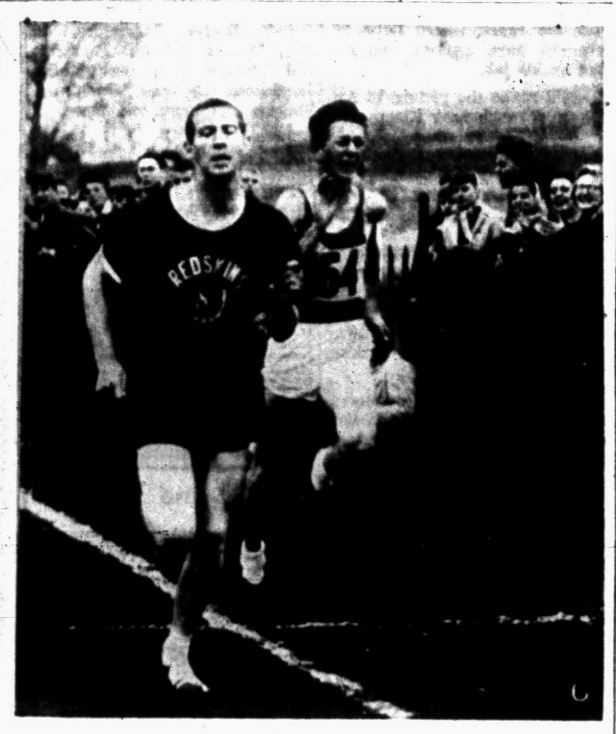

The White Sox made the jump past the Yankees on George Kell's two-run homer in the eighth, giving Harry Dorish his first victory of the year. Jim Rivera and Chico Carrasquel also homered to give Tom Brewer his fifth setback without victory and send Boston to five straight defeats.

Johnny Antonelli and Willie Mays, a pretty potent combination as the Giants won the pennant last season, got together again to knock off the Redlegs.

Baltimore hasn't had as big a time as it did against the Athletics since rejoining the AL last season, running across eight runs in the sixth inning. Gus Triandos started the wild frame with a homer and capped it with a double.

Death Takes Tommy Burns, Colorful Old-Time Fighter

VANCOUVER, B.C. (AP)—Tommy Burns, a rugged little Canadian who held the world heavyweight boxing championship from 1906 to 1908, died in a hospital here yesterday, apparently from a heart attack. He was 73.

Burns fought on three continents shortly after the bare-knuckle era, lost his crown to the great Jack Johnson and then, after retiring at 39, entered a checkered career which ranged from pub owner to evangelist.

The old-time fighter, born Noah Brusso in the little western Ontario home of Hanover, was visiting a former faith healer here when he was stricken. He came here a month ago from his home at Coalinga, Calif.

Burns, a 5-foot-7 175-pounder, won the heavyweight title by beating Marvin Hart in a 20-round bout at Los Angeles Feb. 23, 1906.

He lost it to Jack Johnson in Sydney, Australia, Dec. 26, 1908. Police leaped into the ring and mercifully stopped the bout in the 14th round with Burns badly beaten but still fighting.

At that time Burns was 27. He campaigned around the world after that and at 39, knocked out by Bill Beckley of England in the seventh round at London, he quit the ring.

He became a pub owner in London, then operator of a New York speakeasy, later became an added attraction in a burlesque show. He "got religion" in 1935 after an attack of arthritis and spent the rest of his life "fighting the Devil," touring the United States and Canada with his testimony.

Polly Shoots for 6th Title

SHREVEPORT, La. (AP) — Polly Riley of Fort Worth, Tex., seeking her sixth title in the Women's Southern Amateur Golf Tournament, met 15-year-old Joanne Bruni of Laredo, Tex., in the second round today.

Miss Riley beat another Texan, Mrs. H. C. Riedel of Dallas, 5 and 3 in the first round play yesterday. Miss Bruni eliminated Mrs. Claude Vaughn of Edinburg, Tex., 8 and 7.

Sixteen-year old Clifford Ann Creed of Opelousas, La., medalist for the 40th annual tournament, met Marge Burns of Greensboro, N. C., runner-up to Miss Riley in the 1954 tourney.

Millington Retains Its SCC Track Title

Millington High School successfully defended its South Central Conference track championship Tuesday at Imlay City with a winning total of 51 points.

The host team was 2nd with 42½, while North Branch and Ortonville tied with 40½ points. Mayville trailed with 10½.

Millington gained 5 firsts, while Imlay took 4. Leon Gibbard paced Imlay with a win in the broad jump and a 1st place tie in the high jump. Ortonville's lone 1st was taken by Duane Porter in the quarter-mile.

North Branch hurdler Phil Olekszyk won both races in his specialty, tying the league mark of 17.5 seconds in the highs and breaking his own league mark in the lows in 21.95 seconds.

Duke Harris Promised Bout With Al Andrews

DETROIT (UP) — Welterweight Duke Harris, Detroit, was assured today of a 10-round outdoor bout next month at Saginaw with Al Andrews of Superior, Wis.

He insured the June 9 match with Andrews last night by scoring a 7th round knockout over Rudy Gwin, Cleveland, O., in a scheduled eight-rounder at Motor City Arena.

Practice for Union 9

All persons playing baseball for Local 594 team are asked to report for practice Thursday night at 5:30 p.m. at the Columbia-Joslyn south field.

Ted Williams Not Yet Sure He'll Be Back

Bosox Slugger Is Non-Committal After End of Divorce Hearing

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Ted Williams, Boston Red Sox baseball star, will learn today how much he must pay in final settlement to his divorced wife, Doris.

Circuit Judge George E. Holt, studying Williams' financial statements between cases yesterday, said he would enter an order fixing the amount of final settlement today.

The order also will set attorneys fees and provide for disposition of the $42,000 South Miami residence held jointly by the couple.

The divorce decree, signed Monday and filed in court yesterday, granted a divorce to Doris Soule Williams and gave her custody of their 7-year-old daughter, Barbara.

The court found Williams guilty of "wilful continued and obstinate desertion of more than one year" and reserved to the tall slugger the right of "reasonable visitation."

During the 30-minute divorce hearing, Williams offered statements showing his income last year was $85,000 from baseball, plus $17,000 from his fishing tackle business in Miami which he owns in partnership with golfer Sam Snead and others.

After the divorce was granted Monday, Williams said 'I'm not sure I'll play baseball."

Berkley, Skipper 9s Keep Pace in Inter-Lakes

Standings were unshaken in the Inter-Lakes Baseball league Tuesday although the pace-setting Berkley Bears got a scare from Van Dyke. However, the south Oakland County club slipped in, 3-2, to take a half-game lead over Southfield, which was rained out with Walled Lake.

Waterford remained in the race by clipping Farmington, 9-2. Chuck Gillis hurled a steady 4-hitter, fanning 8. Jerry Kruskie paced the Skippers' 11-hit assault with a double and single. Dick Ryan, Dave Larkin and Gillis all banged out 2 singles.

Berkley's Herb Duncan took a no-hitter into the 7th inning along with a 3-1 lead, but after fanning the first batter, he yieled a double and 2 walks to load the base. When a hit batsman forced in a run, Duncan gave way to reliefer Larry Parker who squelched the Van Dyke uprising with 2 strike outs. Duncan had fanned 15 himself.

Erratic Satterfield in Heavyweight Go

CHICAGO (AP) — Do-or-don't Bob Satterfield, of Chicago, and Archie McBride, of Trenton, N.J., tangle in a heavyweight bout tonight that doesn't figure to go the full 10 rounds.

The odds are about 6-5, take your choice. The big question seems to be how long it will last. CBS will telecast at 9 p.m. EST.

County Men at Ferris

Alston Called Pilot of Year By Big 'Newk'

Brooklyn Pitcher Hails Boss After Great 1-Hit Mound Effort

CHICAGO (AP)—Even if the Brooklyn Dodgers don't win all their remaining games, Walt Alston will be "Manager of the Year" as far as Don Newcombe is concerned.

"With the start we've got, I don't see how he can miss being named Manager of the Year," said big Newk, who last week was suspended by Alston for refusing to pitch batting practice and 24 hours later was reinstated after a $100 fine.

"I've always liked Alston," continued the strapping righthander who faced a minimum of 27 batters in a one-hit 3-0 victory over the Chicago Cubs yesterday.

"This is a great club and I didn't feel I was much a part of it pitching in batting practice instead of in games. I didn't want to appear to be defying Alston. I just wanted a chance to help the club keep winning.

"It has always been my personal opinion that a ball club makes the manager. The manager doesn't make the ball club. This is a great club!"

PHS Team Wins 5th Golf Match, Fourth in Row

Maturo's Squad Trips Port Huron Five for an 8½-6½ Victory

Pontiac High School's improving golf team won its 4th straight meet and 5th of the season in eight starts Tuesday afternoon with an 8½-6½ decision over Port Huron at the Municipal course. It was PHS' 2nd victory this spring against the Big Reds.

Although Port Huron's Jerry Provost gained medalist honors with a 41-37—78, John Maturo's Chiefs produced steadier shooting to get the nod.

Bill Martin's 42-37—79, giving him runnerup honors, was tops over Don Radike's 83, 3-0. Dick Singleton shot 83 to down Bill Repitcke, 2-1, and Walt Larson's 93 was good enough to beat George Gough, 2½-½. Medalist Jerry Provost nipped Tom Cross, 2-1, and the Big Reds' Bill Moore blanked Art Scott, 3-0.

Parnell Gets Knee Exam on Thursday

BOSTON (AP) — Boston southpaw pitcher Mel Parnell will get another examination of his troublesome right knee tomorrow at Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore.

Dr. George Bennett at the hospital examined Parnell last week and said he could go out and pitch. But Mel says he's still pained by the knee.

Parnell received the injury March 31 and has made no appearance since.

The Sox said Parnell's name would not be placed on the disabled list.

Bosox Sell Pitchers to Near Player Limit

BOSTON (AP)—The Boston Red Sox moved closer to tonight's midnight cutdown limit by selling two pitchers—Herschel Freeman to Cincinnati of the National League and Hector (Skinny) Brown to Oakland of the Pacific Coast League.

This leaves three players to be cut loose by midnight. When the season opened Boston had 34 men on the roster.

Cranes Extend Unbeaten Mark

Add St. Mary's to List of Track 'Victims' on a 75½-33½ Win

Orchard Lake St. Mary's track team ran into an unbeaten, veteran Cranbrook squad Tuesday afternoon in a dual meet at Cranbrook and wound up on the short end of a 75½-33½ count.

Cranes had two double winners, Dick Canfield and Dwen Fett. Canfield won the 100-yard dash and the 220, while Fett captured the high jump and the shot. The lads garnered 11¼ points each to lead both schools.

Gerry Leszczynski was the only double winner for the Eaglets, winning the 440 and the broad jump.

Cranes captured nine 1st places, seven seconds, and six thirds for their effort. St. Mary took three firsts, three seconds, and three 3rd spots. A tie resulted in the pole vault.

Overall Power Gives Milford W-O Crown

Milford had far too much overall power for its Wayne-Oakland League rivals Tuesday as Russ Gabier's Redskins piled up a meet-winning total of 73 points on the Milford track.

A fine crowd watched despite the poor weather as Milford raced off with 9 1sts, including both relays, and scored heavily in all events.

It was the 2nd league crown in 3 years for Milford, which won in 1952. Clarkston fought off a determined bid by Clarenceville to finish 2nd with 41 9/10 points and preserve the Wolves' record of never having wound up worse than runnerup in the 5-year history of the Wayne-Oakland.

Dom Mauti's Clarkstonians grabbed 3 1sts, while the other 1st place went to West Bloomfield as Gary Rogers won the broad jump.

Clarenceville was 3rd with 38½ points, followed by West Bloomfield, 28 1/5; Brighton, 8 1/5 and Holly, 5 1/5. Northville failed to score a point.

Lee Averill was the meet's only double winner as he swept the dashes and also ran the lead-off leg on the victorious half-mile relay team for Milford. Due to a foul-up in the timing of the 100-yard dash, he was caught in 12.7 seconds, but was believed to have done considerably better.

Redskins won the hurdles as stocky, but swift Bill Cook took the lows and basketball ace Jim Davidson won the highs. Sophomore Del Munson won the quarter-mile and won 2 field events as Jim Green upset West Bloomfield's Doug Fraiser in the shot put, and Don Perkuchin took the high jump.

The meet's lone record came in the pole vault as Bob Yahnke, versatile Clarkston star, cleared 10 feet, 3 inches to better the mark set last year by Al Warman of Clarkston and Lamar Burgess of Northville at 10 feet.

Only repeating winner from last year also came from Clarkston as Gordon Casaddan retained his half-mile title.

Another upset was recorded in the mile, which was one of the best races of the evening.

Milford's favored freshman ace, Jim Cook, led most of the way, but Doug Fortin of Clarkston refused to yield, then kicked home in the last 50 yards to beat Cook by about 4 yards. The time was 5 minutes, 2.8 seconds, creditable for the soft Milford oval.

With the exception of baseball, which of course is not yet decided, the sports picture in the Wayne-Oakland is pretty much dominated by Milford and Clarkston. In addition to their 1-2 finish in track, they did the same in basketball, and Clarkston took the football crown.

The summary of Tuesday's meet:

120-yard high hurdles—Won by Davidson (M); 2nd, Campbell (CK); 3rd, Rogers (WB); 4th, Jones (CV); 5th, Moren (CV). Time: 17.1 seconds.

Shotput—Won by Green (M); 2nd, Frasier (WB); 3rd, Perkuchin (M); 4th, Tebo (CK); 5th, Dewitt (CV). Distance: 41 feet, ¼ inch.

Pole vault—Won by Yahnke (CK); 2nd, tie between Westerberg (CV) and Campbell (CK); 4th, Van Rossen (M); 5th, Branchau (WB). Height: 10 feet, 3 inches. (Betters record of 10 feet set in 1954 by Warman (CK) and Burgess (NV.)

High jump—Won by Perkuchin (M); 2nd, 3-way tie between Roselle (M), Campbell (CK) and Green (M); 5th, 5-way tie between Berman (M), Branchau (WB), Yahnke and Tebo (CK) and Ward (B). Height: 5 feet, 3½ inches.

Broad jump—Won by Rogers (WB); 2nd, Averill (M); 3rd, Cascaddan (CK); 4th, Green (M); 5th, Carmean (CK). Distance: 18 feet, 4½ inches.

Key: M—Milford; CK—Clarkston; CV—Clarenceville; B—Brighton; WB—West Bloomfield; H—Holly. Northville failed to score.

Boo Charlie Grimm

Milwaukee Fans Are Starting to 'Grow Up'

MILWAUKEE (AP)—The Milwaukee Braves, opening a home stand after an unhappy road trip, took a beating from Pittsburgh's Pirates last night and Milwaukee fans gave Manager Charlie Grimm an unprecedented booing during the height of the licking.

The Bucs won, 9-6.

The expression of dissatisfaction appeared to demonstrate that the Milwaukee fans have come of age. The Braves are three years old in Milwaukee and the spectators are no longer inclined to be happy merely because they are seeing major league baseball.

From now on they'll apparently cheer when their team wins and boo when it loses, like the fans at every other park in the major leagues where the teams have been established long enough for the glow to wear off.

Criticism of the Braves, and their manager, was high as they lost five in a row last week. But even the criticism engendered support locally. As it turned out, the team won its last three games at St. Louis on the trip and came home at 12:30 a.m. Monday to find some 2,000 fans waiting at the railroad station in temperatures near freezing to cheer the Braves home.

Said Grimm when he arrived home: "I've gone through losing streaks before and survived."

Ex-Yankees on Oriole Club Finally Come Through With Top Performance

BALTIMORE (AP)—The New York Yankee deal is beginning to look at least a little better for the Baltimore Orioles.

So far this season, it had seemed that Manager Paul Richards had been hornswoggled in his daring nine-for-nine deal with the Yanks last winter.

Bob Turley, the big gun given up by the Orioles, reeled off five straight pitching triumphs for the New Yorkers. While the shortstop trade of Bill Hunter for Willie Miranda appeared even-stephen, the other ex-Yankees making up half of the Oriole lineup were still "promising," if that.

Last night, they bloomed in an 11-1 trouncing of Kansas City. Big Gus Triandos, the first baseman reputed to be a slugger, finally began to look like one.

He opened the sixth inning with a homer and before the frame was over he doubled in the eighth run. It was Baltimore's biggest inning in two seasons.

The first baseman also singled in the fourth and scored a run.

He was driven in by Gene Woodling, the long reliable ex-Yankee who went into the game with a sorry batting average of .193.

Hal Smith, catcher and best looking of the lot from the Yankees, also doubled during the sixth inning outburst and sacrificed in a run in the fourth with a long fly.

Harry Byrd, one of the pitchers obtained in the Yankee swap, wasn't around for the finish, but got creudit for his second victory against one defeat.

He gave up only one run and six hits, but was taken out in the sixth after giving up two singles. Ray Moore got the Orioles out of the hot water and kept the Athletics scoreless the rest of the way.

Tigers Let Bucky Down on Plans for Triumphal Return to Washington, as Senators Win, 7 to 4

WASHINGTON (AP) — Bucky Harris had high hopes of returning to Washington in triumph but his Detroit Tigers let him down.

They bowed to the Senators 7-4 last night in their 1st eastern game. And they didn't look very good in losing.

The Tiger manager was fired from his job here at the end of last season. He later signed on with Detroit and when his fuzzy-cheeked charges roared into 1st place at the end of April while the Senators explored the lower reaches of the 2nd division it looked as if Harris had been done a great favor.

But on his 1st visit back here his Tigers turned into docile kittens.

What hurt the most was the failure of Frank House and Fred Hatfield to hit in the clutch.

House flied out with runners on 1st and 3rd in the 2nd and ended a Tiger rally in the 4th with two in and a man on base. Hatfield broke up a Detroit threat in the 7th by grounding into a double play. And he left two more stranded as he ended the game with a little roller to 1st baseman Mickey Vernon.

It was a rough night, too, for rookie pitcher Duke Maas who failed to get through the 2nd inning when Washington scored four runs. Senators never were behind after this flurry.

Vernon opened the 2nd with a single and took 3rd on Jim Busby's single. The throw went to 3rd so Busby took 2nd. Rookie Juan Delis drove in both with a single and stole 2nd. Ed FitzGerald walked but Maas got Bob Kline to hit into a force play. Bob Porterfield followed with a double and in the best Tiger play of the night Al Kaline nipped Kline at the plate as he tried to score from 1st base.

A walk, a single by Tom Umphlett and an error produced the 4th run.

Bill Tuttle was the only Tiger to hit consistently, driving in three singles in three official times at bat. He singled home Detroit's 1st two runs in the 4th after Ferris Fain had walked and Jim Delsing doubled.

Washington got these two back in the 6th off Leo Cristante, 3rd of four Detroit pitchers.

Tigers ended their scoring in the front half of the 2nd. Tuttle and House singled and pinch hitter J. W. Porter walked with one out. Harvey Kuenn drove in a pair with a single but Hatfield's double play grounder ended the rally.

Rocky, Cockell Get Back to Work

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano and the challenger for his title, Don Cockell of England, ended brief vacations today and went back to work. This may not be exciting information for you, but it was bad news for their sparring partners.

The champ apparently was getting a bit too sharp a little too soon and his manager, Al Weill, gave Rocky two days off.

Actually it was Marciano's spar mates who got the two days off.

Rocky's idea of a day of rest is to walk 12 miles. He meandered through the rolling hills 75 miles north of here at Calistoga in the Valley of the Moon country made famous by novelist Jack London. The sparring mates just slept in.

Cockell, the 26-year-od ex-blacksmith, is headquartered at San Rafael, north of San Francisco.

He has trained down from a rotund 220 or so to a purported 207. Thats about the weight he will carry into the ring Monday night for his 15-round date with Rocky in Kezar Stadium.

No one has identified the British Empire champion as a picture fighter, particularly in the gym. But they do say big Don has looked some better in the past few engagements, and at least once he practically growled at his less fortunate working companion.

Cockell's manager, John Simpson, indicated this was a sure sign that Don is nearing razor-temper form, if not perfect fighting shape.

Thirty-year old Rocky will have his now famous nose surveyed Sunday by the man who knows his nose better than anyone, Rocky included.

The man is Dr. Irving Ruben of Beverly Hills, a place 400 miles south of here. Dr. Ruben is the specialist whose plastic work repaired the damage inflicted on Rocky's nose last September by Ezzard Charles.

The damage, as all students of the Marciano nose well recall, was rather wide and deep, much like separating the sections of a tangerine; peeled before hand, of course.

It took a great deal of effort, time and many thousands of printed words to patch up. Presumably it was patched up for keeps, but as the erudite Mr. Weill explained, in far more time than it takes to repeat here:

"We can't take no chances."

Cockell's camp, meanwhile, scored a negative victory. The California Athletic Commission agreed to meet with Simpson, Teddy Waltham, secretary of the British Boxing Board of Control, and Marciano's advisors Friday to discusss California's boxing regulations.

Strange Pitchers Keeping Kiner's Hit Average Down

NEW YORK (AP)—Former National League home run king Ralph Kiner, outwardly undisturbed about his anemic .238 batting average, believes his hitting will pick up as soon as he familiarizes himself with American League pitching.

The veteran outfielder, purchased by Cleveland last winter after nine years in the senior circuit, confessed today he knows "absolutely nothing" about the pitchers he has been hitting against this season. That, the big Californian explained, is the reason for his low state at the plate.

Kiner always has been a notoriously poor spring hitter. His four home runs in the first 25 games is about par for him. Even during the years he slammed 50 or more home runs, he never averaged more than that in the first month.

Up to now the Indians have had no cause to regret parting with some like $60,000 as well as a couple of players to obtain Kiner. Although he has not hit up to expectations, Ralph has surprised everyone with his fine defensive work. So good, in fact, that he has drawn praise from Manager Al Lopez.

Sam Snead's Golf School

Can you call up a mental picture of these suggestions: Keep your head in fixed position throughout the swing; rotate your body around your spine as an axis; never shove your weight back to the dotted line position shown in the illustration? If you sway to the dotted line position things will happen the least of which will be that you'll top the ball or miss it. Don't sway with your swing. Instead rotate, or revolve, from the address position. Remember that the head never moves throughout the backswing and downswing until the ball is away. Some of our very best golfers do use a slight, sliding-forward hip-action at the bottom of the downswing. But it's such a delicate maneuver and so filled with potential disaster for the average golfer that he should stick to the idea of no body swing. Revolve, don't sway.

Olympic Champs at Coast Meet

Santee and O'Brien, Whitfield Are Among Many Stars There

FRESNO, Calif. (AP)—World record holders, Olympic champions and a long-legged gazelle named Wes Santee headline the 29th West Coast Relays Saturday.

Santee, who holds the world indoor and American outdoor records for the mile, is entered in a special four-lapper against Len Simpson of the San Francisco Olympic Club and Jim Hunt of San Diego State and possibly two others.

Santee arrives tomorrow for two days of pre-meet workouts. He set the American record of 4:005 in the Texas Relays last month. In 1954 he did 4:00.6 and 4:00.7 outdoors.

World record holders to compete here include Parry O'Brien in the shot put (60 feet, 10 inches), Bud Held in the javelin (263 feet, 10 inches) and Mal Whitfield in the 880 (1:48.6—Lon Spurrier's 1:47.5 pending).

White Sox, Gray to Part Company

BOSTON (UP)—Lefty Ted Gray, obtained in the Ferris Fain winter deal with Detroit, will be disposed of by the Chicago White Sox to bring the squad down to the 25 player limit, General Manager Frank Lane said yesterday.

Gray, who did not make the Eastern trip with the White Sox, is reported to have been claimed by the Philadelphia Phillies on waivers.

EVANSTON—Miami of Ohio will play Northwestern in the football season debut in 1955.

Donelson Team Wins

Donelson Baptist Church scored a 15-11 victory over Sunnyvale Chapel Monday night at the Hudson Covert School diamond in the 1st game of the season for the Waterford Township Church Softball League. MacArthur and Ballard pitched for the winners, with Miller and Lackie behind the plate. Gidcumb and Carr comprised the Sunnyvale battery.

Honor Shamrock Athletes at Annual Sports Banquet

Robert Anderson and Georgiana Gunnerson were the recipients of Steve Griffin awards at the annual St. Michael High School "all sports" athletic banquet, Tuesday night, in St. Michael Hall.

Steve Griffin awards, authored by Rose Griffin, are given each year to the senior boy and girl voted the outstanding athletes by their classmates. Rev. Roman Narkun, former athletic director of St. Michael, presented the trophies.

Letters were awarded to boys competing in football, basketball, baseball, and track. Girls received letters for basketball and cheer-leading. Mrs. Ted Goemeere, girls' coach, and Bob Mineweaser made their respective presentations. All seniors were honored with small trophies.

In a gesture of appreciation for their outstanding service, coach Mineweaser gave gift plaques from the St. Michael Athletic Association to Rose Griffin and Drs. John Bookie and George Petroff. Rev. Narkun received a Shamrock athlete's jacket.

Guest speakers included Wally Fromhart, head football coach at U. of D.; Ray Null, U-D athletic director; Sam Madden, physical education administrator of parochial schools; and Bob Morris, parochial sports writer. Also in attendance was Bob Dove, former Detroit Lion, now at U-D.

Andrew Bertoni, secretary of the Meadowbrook Country Club, was toastmaster.

Evening's festivities were concluded with motion pictures of a University of Detroit-St. Louis University basketball game.

Fast Field Set for Greenbrier

Snead, Hogan Headline $10,000 Event on Sam's Home Course

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va. (UP)—The biggest and perhaps the best field of 50 pros is aligned for the eighth annual Greenbrier Open Golf Tournament starting tomorrow and continuing for 18 holes daily through Sunday.

The old arch rivals, Sam Snead and Ben Hogan, top the list lined up by Chris Dunphy, tournament chairman.

The field for the $10,000 tourney being held a week later than usual has several other well known pros capable of knocking off the two masters.

In this group are Jackie Burke Jr., Mike Souchak, Shelley Mayfield, Arnold Palmer, Mike Fetchick, Dick Mayer, Ed Oliver, Dave Douglas, Dutch Harrison, Peter Thomson and Herman Scharlau.

Scharlau did take the measure of Snead and Burke last year after they finished in a three-way tie at the end of the 72 holes. Burke dropped out at the second overtime hole and Scharlau then beat Snead on the next.

Judge Rules for Sox; Tells Lady No Danger Now

BOSTON (UP)—Judicial notice of the Boston Red Sox hitting slump was taken Tuesday by Suffolk Superior Court Judge Thomas H. Dowd.

Mary Sullivan of Holyoke had brought a $25,000 suit against the Boston American League Baseball Co. for injuries she said she suffered when struck by a foul ball.

"What date was this?" Judge Dowd asked.

"July 16, 1951," he was told.

Judge Dowd directed a verdict in favor of the club, ruling there was no liability on its part.

Then he observed:

"The lady could go up there today and be perfectly safe. They can't even hit a foul ball."

Race Groups Make Working Agreement

Final arrangements were made Monday night for a working agreement between Michigan Modified Stock Car Racing Association and area race tracks operated under the sanction of the National Association for Stock Car Auto Racing.

It was voted at a recent general membership meeting of the Michigan Modified group to work with the NASCAR tracks. Details of the agreement were worked out by MMRA officials and Sheldon Hayes, NASCAR representative for this area.

Michigan Modified membership cards will be honored at any of the 3 area tracks running under NASCAR sanction, namely Pontiac, Motor City and Flat Rock Speedways. Members will start running Thursday night at Motor City Speedway.

Land O'Lakes Racing Association and any other racing groups in the state are offered the same setup, according to NASCAR officials.

Laycock Given Game Post in State U.P.

LANSING (UP) — William E. Laycock has been placed in charge of game division operations in the Upper Peninsula, the conservation department has announced.

Laycock will replace Max Wakeman, former regional supervisor who died in March.

A department employe for 11 years, Laycock has spent four years with the department in the Upper Peninsula. He has served at the Cusino Wildlife Station and as a game supervisor at the Escanaba river state game area.

Doctor Reports Fighter Johnson Was 'Drugged'

Tests Show Traces of Barbiturate; Probe to Be Pushed

PHILADELPHIA (UP) — A state athletic commission doctor reported yesterday Harold Johnson was drugged before his nationally televised fight last Friday. Gov. George M. Leader promptly suspended all professional boxing in the state for 90 days, except for bouts already arranged.

Dr. Alfred S. Ayella, Jr., commission physician, turned in a report to Leader and the athletic commissioners which said a barbiturate, such as seconal of annembutal, caused Johnson to collapse after two rounds of his heavyweight match with Julio Mederos.

Ayella said other possible causes of Johnson's collapse were ruled out in the four days of tests, adding "there was no evidence of any pre-existing medical condition which could account for Johnson's symptoms."

Leader termed the whole affair "shocking" and said the report "leaves no doubt that Johnson was drugged and . . . further that knowledge of Johnson's condition was available to his handlers prior to his entry into the ring."

Leader said the commission was starting at once to look into all the circumstances surrounding the affair. Police reported that Johnson was a 4-1 favorite the day before the fight but at ringtime the odds had dropped to 2-1.

A Philadelphia police source said three members of the narcotics squad had been assigned to work on the case. Meanwhile, Johnson was still confined to his hospital room at Hahnemann Hospital under 24-hour police guard.

The police source said Philadelphia authorities were inclined to discount Johnson's post-fight story that an orange given him by a stranger was the cause of the trouble. Johnson said the stranger gave him the orange after the weight-in ceremonies and he didn't eat it until shortly before fight time.

Dr. Ayella's report said "a short acting barbiturate such as seconal or annembutal would cause" such a condition. He said urine tests showed the presence of such a drug and asserted that since no such drugs were administered after Dr. Ayella took charge at ringside, the only conclusion must be that the drug was administered before the fight.

Tommy Watrous Just Misses Course Mark

An eight-foot putt that failed to drop on the home green at North Hills, yesterday afternoon cheated Tommy Watrous out of a share of the rugged course's record. Tommy's dad, veteran Al Watrous of Oakland Hills, just across the road from North Hills, and NH's pro, Leo Conroy share the mark at 63. However, Tom's 64 equalled the course amateur record of 64, which a half dozen players have carded.

Tommy plays with the U. of D. golf team this year. His round included five birdies and an eagle on the long (528 yards) 11th hole.

Little Rain Not Unwelcome to Stream (Trout) Fishermen

By JACK PATTERSON

This cool, rainy weather is a mixed blessing to the fishermen. Dry fly work for trout is hampered to a considerable degree and perch fishing suffers a little, although most of the suffering is on the part of the fisherman. Lake fishing for rainbows is not particularly affected and real benefactors of the rain are stream fishermen who seek big rainbows and browns.

PATTERSON

According to Harold Davidson, 147 Josephine, who regularly goes after big bows on the Sturgeon, a bit of rain is very welcome because that stream has been too clear for effective fishing. In this connection it should be remembered that the Sturgeon is primarily a bait stream and some discoloration is a definite help to that kind of fishing.

Before leaving the subject of rainbows, here's a word of advice from Walter Krause on the general usefulness of liye wriglers as bait for big trout. These unwholesome looking gadgets took some very nice fish for Walt on a recent trip to the Manistee, while his companions failed to score in the same waters with worms.

Although one hates to give any more publicity to Bill Cashin and his husky muskie, thereby running the risk of making him harder than ever to get along with, one can't think of any other handy way to get into the subject of muskie fishing on Lake St. Clair.

Although there are some local residents who spend a fair share of their time on the flats, muskie fishing has never seemed to really catch the imagination of fishermen in this area.

Why that is it's hard to say because each year it becomes more apparent that Lake St. Clair from Windmill Point up to Anchor Bay provides the world's best fishing for Esox Maskinongi.

Other areas, notably the Hayward Lakes region of Wisconsin get more publicity, but for best chances of hooking a muskie one needn't travel any farther than Lake St. Clair, which by any method of computation isn't much of a journey.

Contrary to popular opinion, muskies are not particularly hard to catch. Not being too particular in their tastes, they'll take a crack at most any moving object that comes into view, including, sometimes, outboard motor propellers.

Finding the fish is something else again and we suppose it would be possible to troll the wrong sections of the lake for a lifetime without getting a hit.

The area is loaded with guides who make it their business to keep tab on muskie migrations, so the 1st timer who takes advantage of this service stands a fair chance of getting into fish.

Locally, Orchard Lake continues to be unexpectedly good for rainbow fishing. Most fish are being taken on cowbells in fairly deep water off the drop-offs, but we recently noticed some pretty decent fish hanging around in shallow water at the inlet from Pine Lake.

A flatfish on a spinning rod should be about the right ticket for these boys. If you don't beat us to it and clean them out, we'll have a try at them ourselves one day soon.

Spearing Legal for Carp, Gars

Dogfish May Also Be Taken With Spear, Bow During May

Twenty lakes in the Oakland County area are open for spearing during May, conservation officer Howard Johnson reports.

Lakes where spearing is permitted are Bass, Cedar Island, Cass, Commerce, Cranberry, Crescent, Lotus, Maceday, Oakland, Otter, Oxbow, Lower Pettibone, Pine, Sylvan, Walled Lake, White, Woodhull, and Lower, Midde, and Upper Straits.

Fish considered legal for spearing are dogfish, garpike, and carp. Fishermen may use either spears or bows and arrows. They may also fish with or without artificial light.

Spearing season will re-open in the same lakes from July 15 to Aug. 15, Johnson said.

LOS ANGELES—Sam Snead began his golf career as a shop boy in the clubhouse.

Perch Grabs Minnow, Pike Seizes Perch

'Chain Reaction' Ends With Fisherman Taking the Last 'Grabber'

Here's a story of a fishing incident that could easily have been told in any barber shop. That's where it came from—but it's the gospel truth.

Alden W. Haydel, who does his barbering at Herb's Barber shop, Saginaw and Pike streets, relates his experience of last Sunday.

Haydel fixed up a cane pole, with a minnow on the hook at the end of his line, to fish from the dock at Carpenter Lake. Finding little action after a long wait, he left the pole and went back to the cottage.

Later, after working in the garden, he returned to the dock. The pole was gone. Soon he saw it floating in the lake. Taking a boat he retrieved the pole, was surprised to find a 18-inch pike on the hook. Examination of the pike disclosed that it had grabbed a perch that first grabbed the minnow. The perch's dorsal fin stuck in the pike's throat.

Angler Lands Eel Infested Brown Trout

But Sweeney Wonders How Lampreys Invaded Stream Above Dam

Pontiac trout fisherman Ben Sweeney, 221 Linden road, came home 1st of the week from a trip up around the Manistee river, with a story of an unusual condition involving lamprey eels.

Ben was fishing the Manistee, ABOVE the Tippy dam. He was with Rainbow Jim's grandson, Frank, and others in the fishing party were Jerry Young of Lake Orion, Carl Penn of Birmingham and Jim Hrusko of Flint. Frank's grandfather is one of the area's well-known trout authorities.

Here's where the unusual facts come in. Ben took a fine brown trout on a 5-ounce glass flyrod. The fish didn't give much trouble, although several runs took out line. Finally it was brought in.

When the fish was taken from the net it was found to be carrying 6 lampreys, each about 6 inches in length. Three were attached to the dorsal point and the others were fastened to the trout's sides.

"The fish was fat and full of night-crawlers," Ben reported. "But it didn't give much fight. The lampreys had slowed it down."

"I'd taken fish that size before on casting gear," Sweeney pointed out, "and had a lot more trouble."

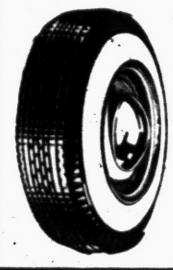

What bothers the Pontiac fisherman is "how did the lampreys get above the dam?"

Named on Rifle Squad

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two Michigan student sharpshooters have been named to the 2nd team of the All-America Intercollegiate Rifle squad. They are Casimir Gogulski of the University of Michigan and Edwin Johnston of Michigan Tech.

Selections were made yesterday by a board of coaches and National Rifle Assn. officials.

Pee Wee Reese of the Dodgers holds the record for the fewest errors by a shortstop in the National League (150 or more games). Reese erred only 18 times in 1949.

Good Luck Attends Trout Fishing Trip

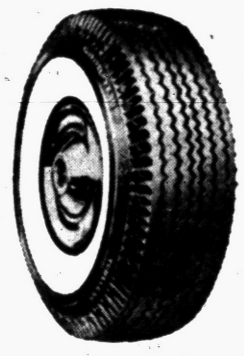

There's at least one spot in the upper part of the Lower Peninsula, where a fisherman can take his limit of trout. That's the word of Wayne Francisco, Oxford schoolman, who spent the last weekend in the Hunt Creek section, near Lewiston. All three days Francisco got his limit—of good-sized brookies, he said on his return.

"They were all taken on dry flies that eventually became soggy," Wayne said, "but that didn't bother. The trout took them while the wet flies were brought across the current. These fish were apparently 'Natives', with firm, pink flesh and a lot of scrap." One carried a tag, however.

Stumping Oklahoma in Search of Stumps

NORMAN, Okla. (UP)—An anthropologist from the University of Oklahoma is stumping the state for stumps in a scientific filing project. Dr. Robert E. Bell wants to set up a master file of tree rings in Oklahoma.

Bell said the tree ring may become a system of age determination nearly as accurate as birth certificates for the prehistoric dwellers in the state.

Certain trees within a given climate add rings that have much the same shape each year, Bell explained. When a master file is compiled of the shape of these rings, you can take a tree that was found in that area and compare it with the file until the rings correspond exactly. Then you know how old your particular tree is.

Stomach Ache Cut Out

WICHITA, Kan. (UP) — Surgery was required to relieve Marvin Hefner's unusual stomach ache. A needle was removed from the 34-year-old Wichitan's abdomen. Seems he slipped in his bathtub, grabbed a shelf, knocked the needle from it into the tub and then fell on the sliver of steel.

Veterinary Enrollments Rise in Canada, U.S.

CHICAGO (UP) — Nearly 3,900 students are now enrolled in 19 veterinary colleges in the United States and Canada, according to a survey by the American Veterinary Medical Association.

The current freshman class is the largest since World War I, the association said. It totals 1,026 students, selected from 2,614 who sought to enroll.

This year's freshman class included 253 with bachelor degrees, compared with 235 a year ago.

Heavy Selling Hits Wheat, Rye

CHICAGO (AP) — Fairly heavy selling hit wheat and rye in early dealings on the Board of Trade today.

Prices were down in all pits early, but a subsequent rally got most soybeans and feed grain contracts back above the previous close. Losses in wheat and rye were reduced. Trading in all pits was quite active.

Main reason for the early selling, brokers said, was a government crop report which did not reduce estimated wheat and rye production as much as many people had expected.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was unchanged to ¾ lower, May $2.18½; corn unchanged to ½ higher, May $1.45⅞; oats ¼ lower to ¼ higher, May 73¾; rye 1 to 1¾ lower, May $1.02½; soybeans ¾ lower to ½ higher, May $12.54; and lard 13 to 15 cents a hundred pounds lower, July $12.77.

Kanzler Pledges Funds for Ford Hall Organ

DETROIT (INS) — A member of the Ford family today pledged funds necessary to purchase an organ "as fine as any in the world" for the new Ford Auditorium in the Civic Center.

The gift from Ernest C. Kanzler, vice chairman of the board of the Universal CIT Corp., was made to the city's Memorial Hall Commission in memory of Henry and Edsel Ford.

Kanzler said the gift was from himself and his late wife, Josephine, a sister of Mrs. Edsel Ford.

Stocks Show Little Change

NEW YORK (AP) — Prices in the stock market in early dealings today were mostly unchanged to lower.

Both gains and losses with few exceptions were fractional. Continental Motors lost around a point, an exception, following news of a dividend declaration of 15 cents as against 20 cents previously paid.

The steels had the benefit of a record boom in that business, and some small gains appeared in the group. Other major groups were mixed or lower.

Stocks backing down included American Telephone, Baltimore & Ohio, General Motors, Goodrich, Anaconda Copper, Montgomery Ward, Boeing, American Cynamid, Du Pont, United Aircraft, RCA, and Westinghouse Electric.

Higher were U.S. Steel, Republic Steel, Pennsylvania Railroad, Kennecott Copper, Allied Chemical and Loew's.

Used Cars Also in High Demand

Record Set Last Week in April May Stand for Some Time

By DAVID J. WILKIE

DETROIT (AP) — The nation's auto builders have rolled out approximately 3,150,000 passenger cars so far this year. The total is nearly a million units ahead of last year's volume for the corresponding period.

Industry analysts who have been watching production and retail deliveries since Jan. 1 are agreed some kind of a leveling off will develop after midyear. But there is no unanimity among them as to the extent of the output reduction.

April Has High Week

The factories built 184,114 passenger cars in the week ended April 30, for a new record mark. Some industry authorities say that figure is likely to stand as the record for some time to come.

Many things will interrupt production from time to time during the weeks ahead.

Among these will be what the industry calls "heat losses." excessive heat in the foundries occasionally causes walkouts in midsummer. The manufacturing division has come to expect these interruptions.

The industry's car output fell off slightly last week, partly because of minor labor difficulties, but also because of a shortage of sub-assemblies in some plants.

The shortages have been called temporary, but they caused several plants to curtail Saturday overtime operations that have been almost general throughout the industry during recent record-breaking months.

"Breather" Needed

Many dealers undoubtedly would agree the factories need a breather from the terrific production pace that has been maintained almost since the start of the current model year.

However, company heads say the dealer inventories are not excessive in the light of present high retail demand.

An encouraging development accompanying the tremendous volume of new car sales has been the mounting demand for used cars. Most of the new car retailers reporting new record sales also seem to be setting high marks in the disposal of tradeins.

This is of major significance. It releases a heavy amount of capital tied up in the tradeins. A good example is provided in figures by General Motors. It reports that its dealers sold a record 1,243,214 new cars in the January-April period and at the same time disposed of 1,536,923 used cars.

Used Car Demand High

Most new car sales currently being made involve a tradein and there is no present indication of a leveling off of new car demand.

Some industry experts insist there will be an easing in the new car sales volume after midyear. But their convictions are based chiefly upon tradition in the industry.

Retail sales volume has been of record proportions through most of the year to date. The experts who predict 1955 will be the biggest sales year in auto industry history say the level of retail deliveries will be even higher in May and June than it was in March and April.

Buick Still in Third Place in Registrations

FLINT (AP) — Buick Motors reports it still holds third place in new car registrations with 171,537 units during the first three months of 1955. The total is 15,886 units ahead of the fourth place car.

Chrysler's Plymouth Division, until recently the perennial third place seller, announced Monday its April retail deliveries numbered 69,865. It did not announce registrations for the January-March quarter.

Ivan L. Wiles, Buick general manager, said his company's first quarter share of the market represented 11½ per cent of the industry's total registrations.

Bowers Named Director of Chrysler Personnel

DETROIT (INS) — Robert F. Bowers today was appointed director of management personnel of Chrysler Corp. by Robert W. Conder, vice president in charge of industrial relations.

In the newly-created position, Bowers will be responsible for central coordination, planning and research in Chrysler management and executive development programs, salary administration programs and over-all management personnel relations, Conder said.

Bowers was an attorney on the corporation's organization staff at the time of the appointment.

Mission Board to Meet

WATERFORD — The Mission board trustees and the council of the Waterford Community Church will meet at 7:30 p.m. Thursday at the church.

Speedway Fourth Firm to Boost Gasoline Price

DETROIT (INS) — Speedway Petroleum Corp. today became the fourth oil company to boost its gasoline prices in Michigan.

Speedway upped the price of its one grade ¾ cent a gallon.

Monday, Standard Oil led the way by raising prices one cent on premium and a half cent on regular. Gulf and Sinclair duplicated this hike yesterday, while Shell boosted its price a half-cent on each grade.

As a result of the new round of higher prices, state Atty. Gen. Thomas Kavanagh plans to summon representatives of the major gasoline companies to Lansing for a quiz.

All remaining gasoline firms are expected to follow suit and up prices shortly.

Steel Workers Deciding Raise

Union Leaders Meeting Today to Settle on How Much They'll Demand

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Top policy makers of the CIO United Steelworkers convene today to set the exact amount of a raise they'll seek for 600,000 workers in the basic steel industry.

Steelworkers now average $2.33 an hour.

Meetings of the union's 39-member Executive Board and 170-member Wage Policy Committee were scheduled.

The meetings came as the steel industry was booming along at near-capacity production. More steel was made last week than in any previous week in history. Most companies reported sharp increases in first-quarter income.

The industry is operating under a two-year contract with the USW, signed last June. Though 1954 was a poor year for production, USW members won a 12-cent hourly package, including a 5-cent an hour pay hike. The union has the right to reopen discussions this year on wages only.

The guaranteed annual wage, prime issue in current contract talks between the CIO United Auto Workers and Ford and General Motors, will not be discussed in steel negotiations.

Past practice of the policy committee has been to keep the amount of raise being sought a closely guarded secret, at least until negotiations were well under way.

The wage talks are expected to start late this month with U.S. Steel Corp., the world's largest producer. A settlement with Big Steel usually sets the pace for the rest of the industry.

Industry officials say any wage hike would be offset by an increase in the price of steel.

Observers feel there is little likelihood of a steel strike.

Port Huron Man Heads Shoe Retail Association

DETROIT (AP) — G. Cooper Johnson of Port Huron is the new president of the Michigan Shoe Retailers Assn. Johnson was elected at the group's annual meeting Tuesday to succeed Morton Hack, Detroit, who will become board chairman.

Other officers elected are Herbert F. Burr, Birmingham, first vice president; Tom Mueller, Grand Rapids, second vice president; and Sam Plotler, Detroit, secretary-treasurer.

'Climax' Is Gaining Among TV Dramas

Goat Curiosity Leads to Toadstool Poisoning

CHICAGO (UP) — The "inherent curiosity" of dairy goats has made toadstool poisoning a problem in the livestock industry, according to the American Veterinary Medical Association.

The association said curiosity drives the goats to graze in areas favorable to toadstool growth, where they apparently become stricken.

Toadstool poisoning has "oftentimes been considered only a human problem," the AVMA says.

Teachers Eat Doughnuts Kids Saved Up to Buy

GRAND ISLAND, Neb. (UP)—The sixth grade students had saved their pennies for days for refreshments as an after-school treat.

When the sum was large enough, two students went to a grocery and came back with 29 doughnuts, which were left on the school principal's desk.

Teachers, thinking the doughnuts were left over from a PTA meeting, ate 23.

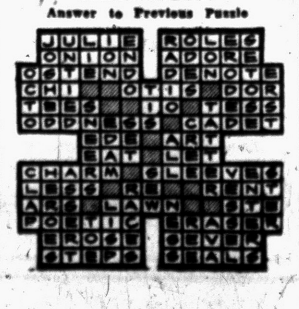

The teachers hurriedly made up the deficit when they discovered whose doughnuts they had been eating.

Colbert Excellent in Sister Cecilia

Show Makes a Steady Climb Following Rough Beginning Last Fall

By WAYNE OLIVER

NEW YORK (UP)—Among dramatic TV programs that have improved most—and one that had plenty of room to do so—is Climax on CBS.

Its latest offering, The Deliverance of Sister Cecilia, was good drama, good TV and historical fact. Claudette Colbert of film fame, lately almost a TV regular, played the role with sensitivity and good taste, and to the satisfaction of the real Sister Cecilia whom she introduced at the end.

"After watching, I'm not sure which is the real Sister Cecilia, you or me," the heroic nun told Miss Colbert.

The story of Sister Cecilia's flight from Communist police in Czechoslovakia and eventual escape through the Iron Curtain illustrated again that truth can be more exciting than fiction.

And it demonstrated the gains made in a series which had a very rocky beginning.

The first Climax production last fall included torture scenes that brought floods of criticism in reviews and in letters from angry viewers.

The sponsor stuck by his guns, however, and subsequent shows have shown steady, if slow improvement. Now Climax has been booked right through the summer, traditionally the time for low budget replacements, with the same budget as for the winter months of peak viewing.

After June 9, Climax will go on a straight weekly basis.

One aspect of the series has been successful from the start—the delivery of commercials by tall, personable William Lundigan, veteran of many movie roles.

The British are moving along with plans for commercial TV to rival the government-operated British Broadcasting Corp. Sol Cornberg, director of studio and plant planning for the National Broadcasting Co., will spend July in England helping in the design of a commercial station at Manchester to be operated by Granada Television Ltd.

* * *

Henny Youngman and Rocky Graziano have a new TV show of their own coming up on ABC June 1 when the Wednesday night fights switch to that network from CBS. The new program, to be called Henny and Rocky, will follow the fights.

East Germany Eager

BERLIN (UP)—Communist East Germany has asked to be invited to the international conference on peaceful uses of atomic energy in Geneva starting Aug. 8. Only members of the U.N. and its specialized agencies are now eligible.

Trade More Vital Than Tariffs in Most Communities

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—In more and more American cities and states, industry and labor appear to have a bigger stake in foreign trade than in tariff protection.

That's the broad conclusion drawn from half a dozen official studies and scores of unofficial surveys which were inspired by the debate over President Eisenhower's foreign trade bill. The bill, which empowers the President to reduce tariffs gradually over a three-year period to spur world commerce, passed the Senate last week.

Though varied in scope and approach and scattered from Atlantic ports to Clatsop County, Ore., the surveys showed that:

More workers drew pay checks by producing directly for export than are employed in firms hurt by low-wage foreign competition. A greater majority are employed by firms which export some of their output or depend on foreign raw materials. Possibly even a greater majority isn't affected either way, except as the general health of their communities is helped or hurt by foreign trade.

Last year the United States exported goods worth 15 billion dollars. Imports totaled 10 billion dollars and most of that was in raw materials which help produce factory jobs here.

The Commerce Department estimates more than four million Americans, including farmers who have been selling about a quarter of their wheat, cotton and tobacco abroad, depend on international trade for their livelihood.

Industrially, the prospect of even greater foreign trade has excited many Midwest cities which, four years hence, will be made seaports by the St. Lawrence seaway. From Oswego, N.Y., through Cleveland and Chicago, to Milwaukee and Duluth, more than a score of cities may pour a total of a billion dollars into harbor and dock improvement in a race for inbound and outbound cargoes.

Most of the industries suffering from low-wage foreign competition are relatively small—glass, pottery, carpets, cutlery, lace and others. Coal and textiles, already suffering from domestic factors, also fear foreign competition could make their situation worse.

The major oil companies backed the tariff reduction bill while the smaller "independents" fought it. Some segments of the chemical industry were for it; others, bucking German competition, opposed.

Transportation generally was for it—except railroads, which haul coal.

But many of the nation's biggest job providers—like steel, autos and farm machinery—lined up solidly in favor of lower tariffs. Their reasoning was simple: since they sell much abroad they favor reduced tariffs which enable foreign nations to sell more here, increasing their purchasing power.

Thus, organizations as diverse as the CIO and AFL on one hand and the U.S. Chamber of Commerce on the other supported the trade agreements program.

Trying to determine the best interests of their own constituents, various congressmen asked the Legislative Reference Service of the Library of Congress to make cross-sectional studies in their districts.

Wisconsin's Rep. Zablocki, a Democrat, learned that only 3½ per cent of the 195,000 factory workers in his district work for companies which feel import competition. Nearly 53 per cent work for companies which export.

In Buffalo, Rep. Pillion (R-NY) learned that in a survey of 220 firms the firms which export or feel no impact from foreign competition outnumber, by 25 to 1, the firms which suffer directly from foreign sales here.

A survey by the Commerce Department in Ohio showed that foreign trade represented almost twice as much income for the state as Ohio's construction industry and nearly as much as all its agriculture.

In the Cincinnati area, the League of Women Voters checked 89 companies and found that 62 favored expanded foreign trade. Of 26 firms with foreign competition, 18 said they were not hurt by it, 8 said they were.

The League of Women Voters also made spot checks in such diverse areas as Baltimore County, Md., Newark, N. J., and sections of Connecticut. They found that only a minority of firms were convinced they would be hurt by reduced tariffs; the rest either expected to benefit or predicted no effect on them either way.

And far across the country in Astoria, Ore., where lumber, fish, dairying and flour are the big industries, the league's survey concluded:

"Clatsop County firms think the United States should expand its trade with other nations and stressed that they preferred competition to government controls."

But in Baltimore, where they found that a "very large percentage of Baltimore County firms have a direct stake in foreign trade," the league's survey team observed:

"Many firms, themselves not suffering from foreign competition, nevertheless saw a need for some form of government aid to injured industries and for protection of industries vital to the national defense.

"No firms were in favor of 'free trade'; most favored a gradual lowering of tariff rates, allowing American industry time to adjust."

Tomorrow—Tariffs and national security

61 Teachers Fight Contract Canceling

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Sixty-one Irving teachers appealed cancellation of their 1955-56 contracts to the Dallas County School Board yesterday.

They were part of 161 teachers who made a similar appeal in mid-April and had it denied by County Supt. L. A. Roberts.

Most of them entered the Irving school system in March when the Irving School Board fired Supt. John L. Beard and precipitated a walkout of about 200 school personnel.

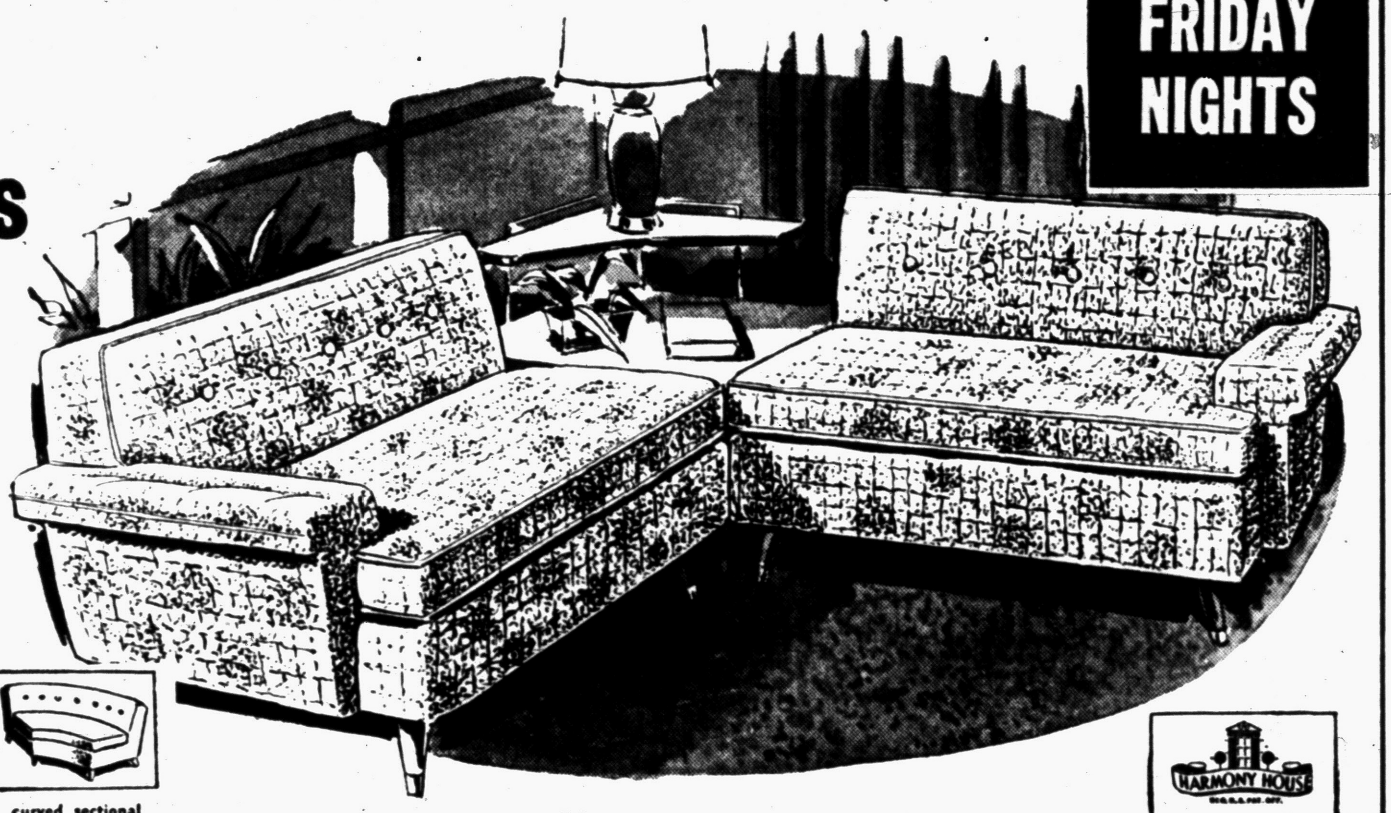

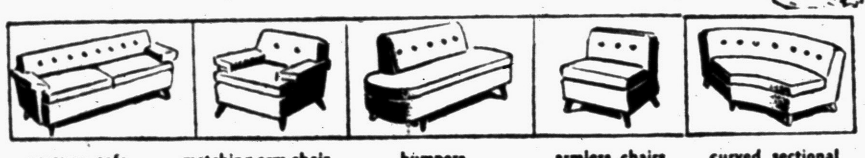

Since then, the board that fired Beard has been dissolved and a new board favorable to him elected by Irving voters. Most of the striking personnel have been rehired.

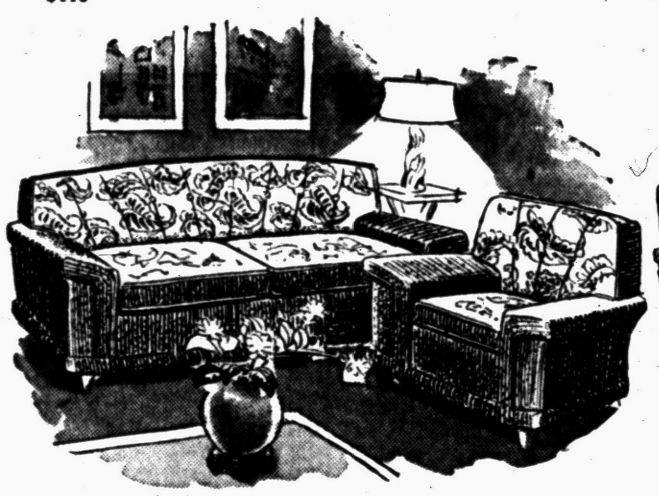

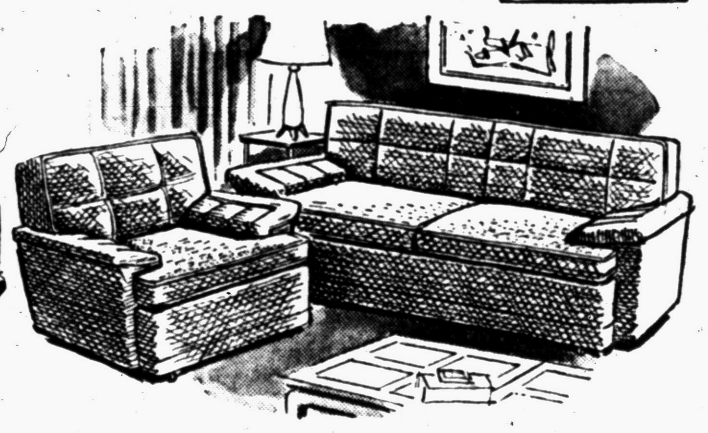

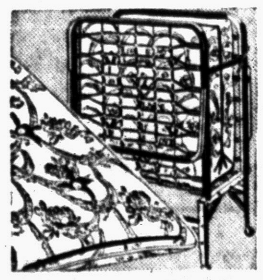

• About 10 per cent of U.S. farms produce more than 50 per cent of all the country's commercial farm products.
