2 Youths Die on Dixie Hwy.

Chase Ends in Fiery Death

Carried Boy and Girl to Deaths

WHERE TWO WERE KILLED — Reduced to rubble, this car carried two youths to their deaths last night on Dixie Highway when it collided head-on with a semitruck, passed under the truck trailer and burst into flames. The car was speeding in an effort to elude a pursuing sheriff's patrol car near Clarkston.

Two Others in Hospital; Hot-Rodder Pursued by Officer at 90 M.P.H.

By DICK HANSON

A 20-year-old youth and one of his two young female passengers from Pontiac were killed last night when his souped-up convertible crashed head-on into a semitruck and burst into flames on Dixie Highway near Clarkston.

The fiery crash shortly before 11 p.m. climaxed a 90-mile-an-hour chase by a sheriff's patrol car.

Dawn Rivenberg, 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Laverne W. Beatty, 48 Hazel Ave., was killed instantly when the hot-rod convertible skidded under the trailer of the truck. She suffered a crushed skull.

The driver of the car, Jerry R. Winebarger, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Leach, 6181 Ascension St., Independence Township, was burned to death in the flaming wreck.

Winebarger's other passenger, Caroline B. Jenks, 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jenks, 771 Wing St., was admitted to Pontiac General Hospital with multiple cuts and bruises. Her condition was listed as fair today.

TRUCKER IN HOSPITAL

The truck driver, Clair T. Cook, 38, of Alma, was kept in the hospital for observation. He has a possible head injury.

The car clipped off a saddle gas tank from the truck and careened under the trailer. The car knocked off the rear wheels and axle of the heavy rig and kept going more than 100 feet.

Deputy Jack Lawrence, who was pursuing the car, said a rise in the road ahead obscured his view of the collision.

"Next thing I saw were flames 30 feet high enveloping the car," said Lawrence. He summoned the Independence Township Fire Department.

Hopes Run High for a Peaceful Congo Solution

Capital Awaits Answer From Tshombe on JFK's Cease-Fire Offer

WASHINGTON (AP)—Hopes ran high in Washington today for a peaceful solution of the Congo dispute.

The hopes depended on acceptance by Katanga President Moise Tshombe of an offer which the White House press secretary, Pierre Salinger, said President Kennedy sent to Tshombe Thursday night.

Kennedy's letter may be made public today.

U. S. authorities regarded as a potential major breakthrough in the Congo muddle a cable which Tshombe sent Kennedy Thursday.

Informants said Tshombe indicated a willingness to negotiate with Congolese Premier Cyrille Adoula and—as reported by the Brussels radio—asked Kennedy to "appoint a worthy negotiator and stop immediately this useless bloodshed."

Kennedy personally moved into the ensuing diplomatic maneuvering. While Adlai E. Stevenson, U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations, cleared moves with acting U.N. Secretary-General U Thant in New York, Kennedy notified Adoula and named the U.S. Ambassador in the Congo, Edmund Gullion, as his personal representative in the Congo situation.

Kennedy's proposal to Tshombe was said to be sufficiently precise about getting negotiations with Adoula under way so that Tshombe could not pull out of the negotiations while taking advantage of a U.N. cease fire.

U.S. sources figured Adoula

Seem Unconcerned Over Protests

Kennedys Leave for S. America

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy and his wife took off today on the first leg of a flying weekend visit to Puerto Rico, Venezuela and Colombia to point up U.S. pledges of aid for Latin-American development.

As they boarded their plane, the President and First Lady were smiling and apparently unconcerned about protest demonstrations in Venezuela—some of them violent—against their visit.

The presidential jet lifted at 12:14 p.m. from Andrews Air Force Base, Md., bound for San Juan, Puerto Rico, and an overnight stop.

The presidential party, which includes several U.S. officials, will fly on Saturday to Caracas, the Venezuelan capital, scene of armed anti-U.S. outbreaks in recent days. On Sunday, the Kennedys will go on to Bogota, Colombia.

This is Kennedy's first trip to Latin America as president. The aim is to dramatize the Alliance for Progress, his 10-year, $20-billion program for economic and social advancement in the nations to the south.

The official view is that the "Kennedy No" demonstrations are actions of radical minorities which will be controlled by stable governments and overwhelmed in a popular welcome.

Shortly before Kennedy left the White House, it was disclosed he had talked by telephone with Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, who is in Texas, and had arranged for Johnson to be kept posted on all matters of importance while the President is away.

But officials said no significance was to be attached to this in relation to the anti-United States demonstrations.

The President shook hands with the dean of the diplomatic corps, Ambassador Guillermo Sevilla-Sacasa of Nicaragua, and representatives of the embassies of Venezuela and Colombia.

The President had on a gray suit and carried a dark gray hat. Mrs. Kennedy wore a long off-white coat. A black hat was perched on the back of her head.

They waved goodby from the entrance of the plane to those who had come to see them off.

Ginn Accepts Southfield Post

New City Attorney to Resign Chairmanship of Dem Committee

James M. Ginn yesterday accepted the post of Southfield city attorney and will resign as chairman of the Oakland County Democratic Committee within 45 days.

The $15,000-a-year post, vacated by another Democrat, James C. Allen, was offered to the 33-year-old Franklin Village attorney by a 5-2 vote of the City Council Monday night. Ginn refused immediately to accept the offer—the second time it has been his—until he read the terms of the contract.

"With the draft I read yesterday the terms are acceptable to me," Ginn, of 30135 Woodside Drive, said.

He said, however, that he found the contract stipulation that he step down as county chairman "personally" objectionable. He said he wouldn't have accepted the top paying city job had he had to resign immediately.

"Other terms are attractive enough to outweigh that consideration," Ginn said.

Southfield Mayor S. James Clarkson, who appointed Ginn first in April, said it was the "general consensus" of the council that Ginn should resign as chairman "to

Eichmann Gets Death Sentence

Ex-Nazi Stands Erect While Court Condemns Him to the Gallows

JERUSALEM (AP) — Adolf Eichmann, Nazi Germany's expediter of Jews to the gas chambers, was sentenced today to hang in Israel for "a crime of unparalleled enormity."

Moshe Landau, president of the special three-man Israeli court which tried and convicted the former Gestapo colonel, intoned: "This court sentences Adolf Eichmann to death for crimes against the Jewish people, crimes against humanity and war crimes."

Eichmann, now 55 and balding, stood stiffly erect for 15 minutes while the tribunal first gave its reasons and then condemned him to the gallows. Six hundred persons packing the courtroom were deathly silent throughout the brief session, then filed out with hardly a sound.

Still the "block of ice" Jewish survivors of the Nazi pogrom called him, Eichmann never even gulped visibly. He quieted the facial nervous twitch evident during the trial, and his hands hung loose and unclenched by his side.

Eichmann, who had scornfully refused to plead for mercy before the sentence was pronounced, was told he has 10 days to file notice of appeal with the court and an additional five days to draft his reasons.

Chief defense counsel Dr. Robert L. Servatius from West Germany was advised if he felt the time given him was too short, he could ask the president of the Supreme Court or his deputy for an extension.

Dr. Servatius, already at work on Eichmann's appeal, told the court: "Thank you for the guidance and I shall think it over."

Decision on the appeal is not expected before March. If it goes against Eichmann, he can apply to Israeli President Izhak Ben-Zvi for clemency.

Eichmann is the first Nazi to be tried in this state which holds itself as the protector of all Jews in the world.

Israeli legal authorities say he may be the last one brought to judgment here.

Santa Working Hard for Good Area Kids

By JANET ODELL

Santa sends word from his North Pole workshop that he and his helpers are working overtime to get ready for Christmas. He also comments on the letters he has received from children in the Pontiac area. He says every one comes from a "good" child.

Santa also says that little girls haven't changed much over the years; they still want dolls and clothes and toys that encourage them to play house.

Boys don't ask for space ships, rockets and mechanical monsters. They want trucks and cars and bull dozers and cowboy guns. Both sexes want bikes and games.

We know that mothers and fathers always help Santa out so we've been watching for interesting gift items for the youngsters.

For the little girl who delights in playing nurse there is a nurse's bag, together with a complete medicine chest. Other kits to use with dolly are a "feeding closet" and tiny store kits. You might give the young lady a doll's scrub board just so she'll know what the article is.

If you can't have a cat or dog, and your child wants a pet, consider a hamster, guinea pig or rag mop. Or even a chameleon. Any-one needs only a small home and is not difficult to care for.

At a certain stage children are fascinated with their own pens. We saw a set of 4, each a different color, that would please the young student. If he has graduated to the stage of carrying a key, an initial key ring with attached pencil will make him feel big.

Tired of stepping on crayons? There's a hanging container that resembles an old time salt box. This is a crayon minder. Another store carries crayon holders that grip even broken crayons and crayon sharpeners.

Mercury Should Dip to 10 Above Tonight

Temperatures will dip to a bone-chilling 10 above tonight but the weekend will be warmer. Tomorrow's high is expected to hit near 33.

The weather bureau forecasts temperatures will average slightly below the normal high of 35 and normal low of 22 for the next five days.

Precipitation will total less than .3 of an inch occurring as snow flurries Monday and Monday night, and again Wednesday.

The lowest recording in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. was 12 degrees. The thermometer reading at 2 p.m. was 26.

Trustees Accept Gifts of $81,000 for MSUO

The Michiagn State University Board of Trustees this morning accepted for Michigan State University Oakland two gifts totaling $81,000 which will furnish a dormitory, add books to the campus library, support the science-engineering program and establish scholarships.

The windfall of support came from former Pontiac Motor Division Chief Engineer Benjamin H. Anibal, who donated 1,000 shares of GM stock worth $56,000, and from MSU Board of Trustees member C. Allen Harlan who donated $25,000.

Anibal's gift will be used for the dormitory at MSUO and for the science-engineering program.

Harlan's $25,000 will be divided into $10,000 for a trust to be used for the Mrs. C. Allen Harlan Scholarship and $15,000 to be used for MSUO library acquisitions specifically in the reference and humanities areas.

MSUO Chancellor D. B. Varner today hailed the gifts as "another instance of the dedication of the donors to help make MSUO a great university."

Harlan previously has been listed as a scholarship donor. He also donated 5,000 trees last month to help beautify the campus.

Anibal House, named after the donor, will be dedicated at 5:30 p.m. Sunday.

The dorm is located on the MSUO campus to the northeast of the main group of classrooms and administrative buildings.

The board of trustees met today to name the Anibal House officially.

Chancellor Varner will unveil a plaque in the house and will deliver short addresses during the dedication ceremonies.

The Anibal House will open for resident women in January for the start of the second semester.

LONG ASSOCIATION

Anibal's interest in the university stems from a long association with Michigan State University, from which he graduated in 1909 in mechanical engineering.

Anibal started as a young engineer with the Olds Motor Co. in 1909. He was with the Cadillac Motor Car Co. from 1911 until 1921 and pioneered in producing the country's first eight-cylinder car as well as the industry's first

12-Town Drain Suit Dismissed

Construction Co. Loses Effort to Halt Contract to Competitor

Circuit Judge William J. Beer today dismissed a lawsuit brought against the 12-Town Drainage Board by an Ecorse construction company seeking to stop a competitor from being awarded a $1.3-million contract for a section of the South Oakland drain.

Mole Construction Co., Inc., contested awarding of the contract to the Greenfield Construction Co. of Detroit on the grounds that its bid was incomplete inasmuch as it did not include $2,000 for a manhole.

Judge Beer ruled that the exclusion was an understandable oversight and did not constitute a "substantial deviation."

The manhole item accounted for only 1/685th of the whole bid and, even included, did not raise the winning bid over that of the Mole Construction Co., he noted.

Drain Commissioner Daniel Barry said the board plans to begin construction of the $39-million storm drain next month regardless of any appeal to a higher court.

Satellite Reports Outer Van Allen Belt Not Hazard

WASHINGTON (AP)—Explorer XII has indicated that there are fewer deadly protons in the outer Van Allen radiation belt than previously believed and that they will not be a hazard to manned space travel.

Earlier satellites had disclosed that there are two doughnut-shaped belts of radiation around the earth, one about 600 to 4,000 miles high and the other much farther out at 20,000 miles or more.

The new information was reported by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration today in an announcement that Explorer XII, launched from Cape Canaveral, Fla., last Aug. 15, suddenly stopped transmitting Dec. 6, many months sooner than had been expected.

Irish cranes his neck to inspect the 10-foot Christmas tree atop the 50-foot silo at the Irish-Carlson Farm, 1100 Clyde Road, Highland Township, that took him and four other men a half day to get in place for the holidays. This was the first year that Irish, 23, has attempted the "floating tree in the sky" decoration, which is the illusion it gives when lighted at night. Poor Visibility Possible Factor

Seeking Cause in Bus-Train Crash

GREELEY, Colo. (AP) — Colorado officials searched today for the cause of the school bus-train collision that killed 20 children Thursday.

An official of the Colorado Highway Safety Council said poor visibility resulting from frosted windows may have contributed to the accident.

The council's executive secretary, Merl Evans, said in a report to Atty. Gen. Duke Dunbar that "90 per cent of all school buses in Colorado are overloaded."

That was not a factor in the Greeley tragedy, however. The load was 23 passengers below its capacity at the time of the crash.

13 IN HOSPITAL

Thirteen children are in a hospital. Four others among the 37 children aboard were treated and released. The driver, Duane Harms, 23, suffered minor injuries and shock.

They were in a late model, 60-passenger bus sliced apart at 8:05 a.m. by the Union Pacific's 16-car passenger train, City of Denver, at a rural crossing near here.

* * *

The streamliner, 90 minutes late because of Christmas baggage delays en route from Chicago to Denver, was traveling 79 miles an hour. Railroad officials said that was normal speed.

'STEPPED ON THE GAS'

Herbert F. Sommers, 64, a Union Pacific engineer for 22 years, said the bus did not stop at the crossing, marked by wooden crossarms and a road sign.

Harms, a school bus driver since last September, said "I think I did (stop). Well, I'm quite sure, because I usually do."

Fireman Melvin C. Swanson, 48, said "I thought he (Harms) was going to stop—hoping he was going to stop. Then he drove right in front of the train."

'THE BUS STOPPED'

Jerry Hembry, 16, a bus passenger, said, "The bus stopped and then started up again."

Colorado law requires a school bus driver to stop within 50 feet, but not less than 10 feet from the nearest rail, look and listen for trains.

State patrolmen said the diesel locomotive struck the rear of the bus near the dual wheels. Those wheels and four rear seats were dragged 455 feet down the railroad. The main section of the bus was hurled 192 feet.

BROTHER, SISTER DIED — Bob Brantner, 12, turns away after taking a close look at the ripped bus in which 20 children perished Thursday when the bus was hit by a train. Bob's sister Kathy, 9, and brother Mark, 6, were among those killed. The older boy attends another school and was not aboard the doomed bus.

South Viet Nam to Get More Aid

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy today ordered increased assistance for the defenses of South Viet Nam in its desperate efforts to repel Communist aggression from the North.

Government officials said this will not mean sending any American combat troops to Viet Nam.

Kennedy acted in response to an appeal from President Ngo Dinh Diem of the Vietnamese Republic.

Diem said his country "now faces what is perhaps the gravest crisis in its long history" and "we must have further assistance from the United States if we are to win the war now being waged against us."

TOO MUCH

Diem said the forces of international communism which are arrayed against his country are "more than we can meet with the resources at hand."

Kennedy reacted with word that: "We shall promptly increase our assistance to your defense effort as well as help relieve the destruction of the floods which you describe. I have already given the orders to get these programs under way."

The exchange of messages between the two presidents was made public simultaneously here and in Saigon.

Kennedy didn't spell out what he meant by increased assistance to the Vietnamese defense effort. Other administration sources said that this must not be taken to mean that U.S. fighting men will be dispatched to the area. There has been frequent speculation on this possibility in the past.

Weather Wallops U.S.; Punches Cold Midsection

By The Associated Press

Snow, sleet, rain and cold dominated the nation's weather pattern today.

A fresh batch of cold air from Canada dispelled any hope of an immediate end of the current cold wave in the Midwest. The icy air dipped into the north central region, dropping temperatures far below zero in Minnesota and Wisconsin.

It was 26 below zero in International Falls, Minn. on the Canadian border, where Thursday's highest reading was -4.

The zero and below cold extended into Iowa, with -7 in Cedar Rapids, and in northern Missouri.

In areas near the severe cold belt, temperatures were mostly in the teens, with the 20s and 30s most widespread across other sections in the eastern two-thirds of the country.

Hospital to End Year in Black

Euler Tells Trustees Pontiac General Now Showing Profit

Pontiac General Hospital Administrator Harold B. Euler had some good news for the hospital board of trustees at its December meeting last night.

"Pontiac General will end the year in the black for the second consecutive year," he revealed.

"We won't know by how much until figures are compiled after Jan. 1, but our twelfth accounting period totals show income exceeded expenses by $2,300.

"That should put us in the clear."

The board and administrators had hoped to "break even" on their 1961 budget. After several years of finishing in the red, the hospital is now showing profits.

"Occupancy during the first 11 days of our thirteenth and final accounting period this year has been 96 per cent," Euler added.

The hospital's occupancy was expected to be about 87 per cent this year. It has been considerably higher.

City Hospital Trustees Approve 1962 Budget

The Pontiac General Hospital Board of Trustees last night approved a $5,886,150 operating budget for 1962.

The budget, some $863,000 above the current budget, will be forwarded to the City Commission for final approval.

The board usually approves the budget by Nov. 15 but it delayed approval in hopes that salary negotiations with employe groups could be concluded first.

Negotiations are still in progress. The budget as presented does not allocate funds for salary increases. The $5,023,120 budget for 1961 allowed a five-cent-an-hour pay hike totaling some $65,000.

For 1962, employes are asking another five-cent increase, plus added fringe benefits. The salary increase would total $82,000 in 1962 with more employes.

Total employe requests not budgeted amount to $240,000 according to Harold B. Euler, administrator.

"There are no increases in expense in the 1962 budget that are not accounted for by more capacity and more employes," Euler said. "This budget is based on current operating costs. Our bed complement is 27 more now than it was when we approved the 1961 operating budget."

UP OCCUPANCY FORECAST

The 1962 budget is based on an expected occupancy of 91 per cent for the year and 126,550 patient days. The 1961 budget was based on an expected occupancy of 87 per cent.

Total income from patients next year is estimated at $6,094,150. Deducting for reserves for county, state and cases not covered by Blue Cross, it is expected to be $5.7-million.

Other operating income is expected to total $143,000.

The budget allocates $3,762,700 for salaries and wages; $320,470 for fees; $234,000 for depreciation; and $1,568,980 for other operating expenses and supplies.

It is subject to revision, particularly in the salary area, before final adoption next month.

He said all three of the others were sitting in the front seat of the convertible.

AT 90 M.P.H.

Lawrence estimated the fleeing car was traveling 90 m.p.h when the crash occurred a mile south of Clarkston.

He said he began chasing the Winebarger car when it was doing 65 m.p.h. in a 50 m.p.h. zone, headed south. Winebarger, in an apparent effort to elude the patrol car turned in a restaurant driveway and then headed north. The truck was southbound from Saginaw to Detroit.

Deputies were uncertain as to what caused the car to suddenly swerve into the truck unless due to excessive speed.

They said sparks must have ignited fuel in the gas tank.

The car engine was found on the road 80 feet from the molten ruins of the car body. Rear wheels of the truck were carried 72-feet from the truck. Auto parts littered the scene over a hundred feet.

Adult Education Program Expanded for Next Term

BIRMINGHAM — An expanded adult education program for the new term starting next month was announced today by Howard Malwitz, coordinator of the Birmingham school department.

He said that there is a strong indication of increased community interest in continuing education.

This is reflected, he said, in the enrollment this year of 1,150 persons, an increase of 88 per cent over the 1960 fall term.

The program, therefore, is being expanded to include more offerings, Malwitz said, and plans are now in the making for the new term which will begin Jan. 8.

NEW OFFERINGS PLANNED

Some of the additional courses to be offered plus the regular courses will be Russian, existentialism, Italian, humanities, psychology, continuing German, tailoring, creative stitchery and creative writing.

Courses that will continue because of the past interest include electronics, French, Italian, German, Spanish, public speaking, water colors, oil painting, drawing, interior decorating, sewing, upholstery, catering tips, accounting, income tax, dancing, bridge and woodworking.

Malwitz said the department will offer any course where facilities and instruction are available and which a minimum of 12 are enrolled even if the course is not presently being offered.

For further information, he said to phone the Birmingham Board of Education, extension 69.

All residents in the area will be receiving a brochure later this month that will include a complete listing of courses and suggestions and comments will be welcomed, Malwitz said.

Let SOME Churches Do 'Rock and Roll of Ages'

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK — Dartmouth College's professor of religion, Wilson Wade, has come out in favor of jazz in our churches.

He believes jazz could fill the churches.

He also contends that jazz is appropriate to a house of God, because it is "honest" music which more truly reflects our age than the traditional church music which organists and choirs perform — too often unfeelingly, from long habit.

As a graduate of 18 years of church choir singing, and daughter of the best of all choir directors, I feel qualified to comment on this unorthodox suggestion.

The comment: It's a fine idea, it would add vitality and reality to many a church service which has become stodgy, dull and unbelievable in its attitude of clearcut black and white to a good many intelligent, disillusioned believers in God.

But I doubt that jazz would fill the churches. Not, at least, many churches. And not, at least, for many years. It surely would help bring new parishioners into the church, but it would drive at least as many old parishioners away.

I am not a connoisseur of jazz, and the meter, rhyme and mes-

I have not studied its techniques, its forms and variations. But I do feel its (as Prof. Wade put it) honesty.

It passionately mirrors the feelings of man; it arouses the emotions, happy and sad; it is music that melts all people

(who will stop to listen to it) together, jazz brings many to an understanding of man's no other form of music can.

Compare this with the hymns and anthems heard in church. Many are lovely, an occasional one is great.

But the bulk of our church hymns have less likeable melodies than singing commercials, sage of their lyrics is either antiquated or appallingly written.

As a fairly intelligent child, I remember shuddering at the bad poetry of many hymns and at their clumsy mating with music patterns which put the accent on the wrong syllable.

As an adult, I was no longer amazed. Like most other adult church-goers, I simply sang the awkward stuff from habit and memory, no longer thinking (what a blessing) of the words.

I can think of fewer than a handful of hymns that are imbued with a spirit of — what shall I call it? — good-humored joy. Too many are pious to the point of being dirges. Too many were written with the feeling of fear for, rather than love of, God.

And people do not go to church to be depressed, but rather to be revived.

Most choral directors and church organists probably would agree that our hymnals could be vastly improved and updated, in both melody and message, yet in the last century little has been done to update church music.

But today's church elders, I'm afraid, are not as ready to accept new blood and rhythm in the traditional ritual. Mention bringing jazz into the choir loft and they would visualize a drastic distortion — "Rock and Roll of Ages," perhaps, or "Bark the Herald Angels Swing."

For them, jazz would not represent the honest image of man in search of himself—as I believe Professor Wade interpreted its value to the religious spirit of our time. It would appear to be heathen music, disrupting the reverent, devotional atmosphere in which, through long years of church attendance, they have found comfort.

I believe jazz should be introduced to churches — but new, experimental churches, not old, established ones. In that way, religion might win over some new open hearts, without losing some faithful closed minds.

HEARING CONSULTANT EXPLAINS NEW APPROACH TO CORRECTION OF HEARING PROBLEMS

"Every hearing problem is different and must be treated as an individual situation." Through the many years I have devoted to helping people overcome hearing losses, my every experience confirms this fact; for example:

1. Some people can understand conversation with one person, but are confused in larger groups.
2. Some hear men's voices clearly but cannot understand women or children.
3. Some hear naturally in a small room, but miss everything in church or at lectures.

I have my instruments custom built at the AUDIOTONE laboratories to specifically overcome each of my patients personal hearing problems. The results are phenomenal. I cannot conscientiously recommend any other method. AUDIOTONE is the only manufacturer who FACTORY CERTIFIES each instrument to be truly CUSTOM FITTED.

Call or write me today! If you prefer, I will arrange for a free demonstration in your own home.

Paul L. Adams Gets Judgeship

Atty. Gen. Appointed to Succeed Edwards on Supreme Court

A former mayor of Sault Ste. Marie and an ex-University of Michigan regent, Adams has been the state's top legal officer since 1958.

He was twice elected to the job.

His appointment maintains the Democrats' 5-3 majority on the high court.

Swainson called Adams "a notable addition to the Supreme Court" and commended "his knowledge of law and his demonstrated concern for the rights of individuals."

The attorney general led a list of some eight men who were under consideration for the Supreme Court vacancy.

He was twice passed over for an appointment to the high court bench when Justice John Voelker and Talbot Smith resigned.

Former Wayne County Circuit Judge Theodore Souris got the Voelker vacancy and Aud. Gen. Otis M. Smith was named to replace Talbot Smith.

Confused Caller Turns Up Two Main Speakers

BINGHAMTON, N.Y. (AP)—General manager Harry S. Milligan of the daily Binghamton Sun-Bulletin was asked to address a service club in nearby Nichols.

The man who made the request called three weeks later to remind him of the date. But he called the wrong man — Harry F. Milligan, vice president of the Marine Midland Trust Co.

The Marine Midland's Milligan checked his calendar, saw that he had nothing scheduled, and said he'd be there.

Back in the Saddle; Has Feeling for It

NETCONG, N.J. (AP) — Robert Card, 27, has refused to let his blindness stop him from engaging in the business he likes best — riding horses.

An auto accident took his sight three years ago and he sold his stock. Subsequently he learned how to be a machine operator.

Now he's confident he can operate a riding stable again and has been given a concession at an amusement park near here. He's

Staying on Traffic Island

Lonely Dog Just Waits

SALMON, Idaho (AP)—About a month ago a little black dog—owners and ancestry unknown—took up residence on a mid-street traffic island in the center of town.

He has spent most of his waking hours and all of his sleeping hours on that small, unsheltered island. Temperatures as low as 14 below zero haven't made him move.

Employes of a nearby grocery take him food. He retreats when they approach but always returns for the food.

He never barks at passing automobiles. Once in a while he looks up expectantly, as though hoping for loved ones to pick him up.

If the loved ones should return before Christmas, they'll find him under a lighted Christmas tree which has been erected on the island — sleeping by night, just watching by day.

Pentagon to Release Reservists

New Army Divisions to Free Callups

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Defense Department, convinced that Reserve callups are not the answer to Cold War emergencies, is proceeding rapidly with formation of two new regular Army divisions.

Informed sources said today the Army would organize the two new divisions at Ft. Hood, Tex., and Ft. Carson, Colo.

Creation of these divisions was expected to clear the way for releasing some time next spring of the National Guard's 32nd Division of Wisconsin and 49th Division of Texas, both called up in the Berlin crisis.

The time for releasing the two guard units, totaling 73,000 men, will depend also on the international situation in the spring. The 32nd is at Ft. Lewis, Wash., and the 49th at Ft. Polk, La.

The two regular divisions being reactivated are the 8th Infantry and the 1st Armored, assigned respectively to Ft. Carson and Ft. Hood. When they are combat ready by late spring or early summer, the standing Army will have 16 divisions and total manpower of about 960,000.

Nucleus for the reactivated 5th Division, authorities said, probably will be the 2nd Infantry Brigade at Ft. Devens, Mass., while an armored combat command at Ft. Hood will be expanded into the 1st Armored Division.

The divisions will be filled out from the greatly increased rolls of men drafted into service this fall.

Deputy Defense Secretary Roswell L. Gilpatric spelled out the Pentagon's admittedly revised thinking on Reserve callups in a news conference Thursday.

He was asked whether Reservists would not be recalled in future emergencies.

"It may be that we might have to have more regular forces to deal with that type of recurrent crisis and use the Reserve for larger-scale crises," he said.

G-Men Seize Alleged Crooks

Grab Papers Burning in Stove in Raid on Den of Suspected Gamblers

DETROIT (UPI)—Government agents clambered up a ladder, squeezed through a narrow second story window and pulled burning papers from a pot-bellied stove with a padlock on it in a raid in Clinton Township Thursday.

Two men were arrested at the building. Three other men were arrested simultaneously at their homes in St. Clair Shores. The seizures were part of a nationwide strike against alleged gamblers by the Internal Revenue Service.

The government men were assisted by local and state police.

Charles W. Gorman, 67, of St. Clair Shores, and Lyle M. Clune, 48, of East Detroit, were arrested in the Clinton Township building. Edward Betz, 43, Nicholas Bosch, and Charles Gebell, 49, were arrested at their St. Clair Shores homes.

John Olszewski, chief of the intelligence division of the Internal Revenue Service here, said his men smashed the padlock off the burning stove and managed to pull enough papers from the fire to prosecute their case.

The five men arrested were taken before U.S. District Judge Wade H. McCree Jr. at Detroit and released on bond, pending examination Jan. 10.

Gorman was placed on $5,000 personal bond and the others on $1,000 personal bond.

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (UPI) — A medieval custom is brought to life on the University of Rochester campus each Christmas when men students hold their annual boar's-head dinner.

Teen-Agers Argue, One Gets Stabbed

DETROIT (UPI)—Ruben Trice, 16, 16, a junior at Detroit's Central High School, was stabbed and wounded seriously Thursday in an argument about an arithmetic book.

Trice told police he and Claude Sweeney, 14, were arguing about the book in a school corridor; Trice claimed Sweeney had taken the book from him.

He told officers Sweeney dropped the book to the floor and that when he stooped to pick it up Sweeney stabbed him in the chest. Police said they were seeking the younger boy.

Two Methods Are Used in Drilling Oil Wells

DALLAS — Oil-well drillers use "cable tools" or rotary drills to tap subterranean pools.

The cable tool consists of a string of tools headed by a heavy bit that is alternately raised and dropped. At intervals the tool is taken from the well and the hole is water-flushed.

The rotary drill has an auger-like bit on the end of rotating steel "drill pipes" through which a specially prepared chemical mud flushes the well.

Each State Responsible for Own Needs Says Ike

Speaking in his honest and forthright manner former President DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER addressed the State Constitutional Convention and in so doing made it emphatically clear that if you want states' rights you must take on the responsibilities.

He pointed out that the Federal Government is not out to grab off state functions, but if the states fail to accept the local needs, the Federal Government will step in. And furthermore, he said that's exactly what has been happening.

At one point Ike prefaced his remarks by explaining that the reason he had agreed to come to the convention was because he hoped the publicity would encourage other states to take similar action.

During his speech, and also during the question period he emphasized again and again that he felt it a state responsibility to take care of its own needs.

Mr. EISENHOWER did not mince words when he pointed to the inadequacy of many states in handling local problems.

We agree with Ike's reasoning that it is up to the individual states to take action, otherwise any excuse that the Federal Government is expanding its role is flimsy.

His message to the assemblage needs more than lip service, and we hope the con-con delegates will give it some honest soul-searching study.

Now Our Area Needs a Covering of Snow

'Twas a delightful November in this area, with scarcely a fleck of snow. And December is furnishing the proper pre-Christmas weather.

But, according to nature's always good plans, we now need more snow.

To be sure, this may sound disagreeable, but it's a part of a great system on which mere man has never been able to improve.

Most of their forage crops also are carry-overs, and need snow protection.

October and November were conducive to giving these crops a good start.

The fields assumed a green verdage that resembled well-kept lawns.

The crops got well-rooted, but must now have a proper coverage to get them in readiness to battle the lifting of their roots, always engendered by the alternate spring thaws and freeze ups.

They're getting the cold weather, but the snow is a necessary adjunct.

So we must face the facts, even if it means sloppy walking and exercise with the snow shovel.

It all is a part of a system that makes life worth living.

Lecturer Has Little Use for Horoscope Features

Hunting seasons come and go, but the open season on newspapers goes on forever. For this we are eternally grateful; it shows people are reading the product and have opinions about it.

The latest sniper is a visiting lecturer at the University of Michigan who draws a bead on newspapers who publish horoscopes and astrological forecasts. We do not publish such a column, but we don't see much wrong with running one. It's just another amusement feature.

Perhaps his future hadn't looked too good the morning he was supposed to speak. You know—"Beware of contacts with strangers today, refrain from business decisions, remain constant to friends."

The Man About Town

Bells and Sleighs

Several Come to Light in Response to Request

Love: An itchy feeling around the heart that you can't scratch.

Our quest on behalf of a Pontiac merchant for a set of jingle bells and a one-horse open sleigh has brought a large number of answers. Among them,

DeWitt Helferich

of Rochester has a set of 18 bells and the prescribed sleigh or cutter, while

Mrs. Marie Rose,

also of Rochester, has a turtle shell cutter or "swell body," which old-timers will remember as a vehicle in which you rode "lying down while sitting up."

Former Chief of the Pontiac Fire Department of 81 North Johnson Ave., has a long string of old-fashioned sleigh bells, and of Davisburg has a two-horse open sleigh, and two sets of jingle bells.

John Schroeder

From over Milford way,

Pearl Burrington

sends word that he has the bells from a cutter driven by the late

Dr. John D. Riker

of Pontiac before the automobile days.

A set of bells worn by the fast trotting horse of

Bradley Swinton

in the races which were held on the ice on Orchard Lake around the turn of the century are owned by

From his home at Farmington,

Ralph Alleman

sends word that he has the bells that once jingled on the driving horses of

Fred M. Warner,

Governor of Michigan early in the century.

Recently moving to the Clarkston area,

Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Meldrum

send word that they have a string of sleigh bells, said to have been used by the late

Dr. C. J. Sutherland

of that village on his horse when he made country calls before the auto era.

And from our beautiful suburban Franklin,

Mrs. Roger Evanson

phones that in an old barn on her premises is an old-fashioned one-horse open sleigh, with upholstered seats, foot warmers and other winter luxuries.

Surely ringing the bell for goofiness are the recent daily weather predictions. We'll stick by the Old Farmer's Almanac.

'I Told the Sucker It Wasn't Loaded'

David Lawrence Says:

Inequities in Industry Fact of Life

WASHINGTON—The public reads about big strikes and suffers acutely from them. But what the public doesn't know is the truth about the hooey and misleading claims that convince millions of wage-earners that they are being bamboozled and deserve wage increases even when management really can't afford them.

LAWRENCE

So it is pertinent to take note of a significant pronouncement just made by the secretary of labor, Arthur Goldberg.

Goldberg discusses the subject of financial benefits from "productivity" and avows what labor leaders rarely avow—that these gains should be divided three ways, that is, they should be shared by the workers, the owners, and the public in the form of lower prices.

But who is to say what the division should be? Certainly stockholders should be given at least a fair return on their investments, and they will not furnish more capital to companies that don't have good earnings.

The public should be given lower prices wherever possible. The workers should be given in increased wages a part of the money saved through their own increased "productivity."

It turns out, however, that the labor unions usually demand almost all of the benefits from increased "productivity."

Much is heard, too, about the "average rate of productivity." One company may have a 10 per cent increase, and another may have only 1 or 2 per cent or none at all, but the "average" for the industry becomes the yardstick for wage increases according to labor union leaders.

Also, if the steel industry is loaded with orders in the months before a threatened strike the total volume goes up. "Productivity" measured by such a year is then used as a basis for computing the wage wages for a succeeding year no matter how low production itself might fall. Profits may go down later, but wages never.

In the light of such conditions, the latest statement by the secretary of labor is germane to the discussion.

. . . "Every economist believes that economic gains for both labor and management must be earned by increases in productivity. This means that these gains should be shared by the workers, the owners and the public. Within the framework of our potential national productivity, all three can benefit.

"Further, we must keep competitive in world markets and keep our money sound. This means that we cannot afford the luxury of restrictive practices on the part of labor or management which impair efficiency and productivity. It also means that automation must be encouraged.

"In addition restrictive and protectionist trade policies must be avoided since they will retard our economy, not stimulate it. Also, we must be careful not to throttle business profits from which new enterprises and plants grow and provide new jobs. . . .

INEQUITIES PRESENT

". . . Even wage and price controls have recognized in war time the fact that all industries and companies do not progress at the same rate and that there are inequities present in both industry and labor at any given point in history. . . . I also believe, as I stated, that they can be adjusted within the framework of over-all increases in productivity. . . ."

One point in the above needs to be underlined and repeated again and again: "The fact that all industries and companies do not progress at the same rate and that there are inequities present in both industry and labor at any given point in history."

But labor union negotiators do not accept this as a "fact of life." The present system of industry-wide bargaining, moreover, virtually destroys all opportunity to remove inequities between companies, thus aiding the larger units and often forcing the smaller ones out of business.

Dr. Harold Hyman Says:

Many Ways in Existence to Help Fight Off Boredom

I don't know how you feel about it but I'm getting fed up with these frantic efforts to treat senior citizens as if they were all entering into their second childhood. As if our society had made no advances since the time when Shakespeare defined our later years as a time when we become "sans teeth, sans eyes, sans taste and sans everything."

I'll grant the need for dentures, bifocals, trifocals and maybe even a cane. And I'll grant that it's pleasant to spend a few hours of each day playing cards, golf, shuffle board, bingo, checkers and chess or even to while away time sitting in the sun and engaging in idle gossip.

But all day? And every day? And every week? And all year? I feel myself age at the very prospect.

The unending pursuit of pleasure is about the most boring of all human endeavors.

You have only to look at the faces on TV of most of the dancing couples, young and middle-aged, to get a visual image of that boredom which is "the great sickness of our age" in the words of Dr. Dana L. Farnsworth, director of health services at Harvard University.

So many activities exist for self-satisfaction, and so much can be done to assist the less fortunate and to promote community welfare, there is little excuse for leading a life of aimless boredom. An existence that lacks meaning and purpose inevitably produces distressing symptoms such as restlessness, sleeplessness, depression, loss of appetite, irritability and the like.

'FOLLY TO FOLLY'

To treat these symptoms with tranquilizers, pep-up pills, gland shots for rejuvenation and complex mixtures of vitamins and minerals is to add folly to folly.

Just because you've never had educational advantages is no reason you shouldn't help with some activity that doesn't requre anything more that the teaching and application of some skill you've picked up during your wage-earning career.

Maybe it's just mowing the lawn at the hospital, waiting on table at an orphan's home, pinch-hitting as a den mother for a neighbor trying to hold down a job and still maintain her home or keeping an eye on a cook-out of Boy Scouts.

I don't mean to suggest any of these activities will add to your income. But they will cut down some of the money you may have been wasting trying to cure boredom with something that comes out of a bottle or is injected by syringe.

Commends Press Carrier for Doing Excellent Job

Clifford Pigman has been my paper boy for almost two years and has never once been late with the paper. His route covers Alma, Irwin and Harger streets and part of M59.

CLIFFORD

Whether it rains or shines he always puts the paper inside the door and does not cut across my lawn as other boys have done. He always collects promptly and is very polite.

In school he is a good student and often goes back to help some of his customer's children with their school work. He even helps his customers' children fix their toys.

I used to be a carrier for another paper and I thought I was a good one, but Clifford makes me look mediocre.

Says He's Available for Football Team

I guess I'm the guy what's born 20 years too soon. If Avondale can't get enough guys out for football, I'm available. I might have a chance to make their team. I never could make the team when I was in school. Maybe it's not too late to teach an old dog new tricks. By the way, extend a hearty bow-wow to those coaches before they forfeit any games. I'm past 40, fat, cowardly, and hard headed, but the memory of getting cut from the squad still lingers. My girl, who was a cheerleader, threw me over for a fullback and I had to settle for my wife.

Yellow-Belly Has-Been

(Editor's Note: We feel that the athletic program in Avondale has been thoroughly discussed. Since future letters would merely be repetitious, after today we will not print letters on this topic.)

'Attendance Low at Band Concert'

The poor attendance at the well-performed concert given by the combined bands of Pontiac Central High School, Jefferson, Eastern and Washington junior high schools makes one wonder if it averaged even one parent per band member.

Having gladly attended all concerts during the years my daughter was in elementary, junior high and Pontiac Central's band, I know the expression of pride on the children's faces when applause follows their efforts. I know, too, how hard everyone worked in preparation for the concert.

Interest in an activity is what keeps many boys and girls in school until graduation, and music in particular can become a lifelong pleasure.

Interest shown by the parents helps create understanding on the part of their child.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Take Precautions to Avoid Insanity

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE K-477: Howard B., aged 23, is engaged to be married.

"Dr. Crane, my sweetheart is a lovely girl and I am ardently in love with her," he began, "but her father had a nervous breakdown a year ago and now has lost his mind. At present he is in a mental sanitarium.

CRANE

"My question, Dr. Crane, is simply this: can insanity be inherited? Do you think my sweetheart might lose her mind in later life? And would it be safe for us to have children?

"These problems worry me a great deal. It would certainly be a great relief to have some reassurance in this matter."

FACTS ABOUT INSANITY

There is no disease which is so dreaded as insanity. And thousands of people needlessly live in terror lest some day they will succumb to this malady.

Young people, however, will freely marry into a family where diabetes, cancer and other ailments seem to be fairly well entrenched. But if there is a single instance of mental abnormality in the family, they may grow unduly fearful.

Yet it is wrong for us to regard mental sickness in any different light from physical sickness. Most of you readers have worries, fears, peculiar traits, neuroses and moodiness.

Those are mental problems. Often we can call them mental ailments. But just let somebody, even in jest, say you are "a little off," and then you grow unduly upset.

NEWSPAPER MEDICINE

Your progressive editor is running this column partly to relieve the worries and emotional tensions which fetter our happiness and prevent our enjoying the more abundant life during the 66 years the average person lives.

The scientific information in this column is really mental medicine. It helps cure various ailments from wallflowerism to stuttering, menopausal complexes and sex problems of the middle-aged, to marital difficulties of the newlyweds.

Many of you write to me in terror, because your problem is so new to you that you think it is incapable of being solved. Actually, I seldom encounter a problem which I haven't met hundreds of times before.

Howard's problem is common to thousands of young people. Insanity may result from syphilis, which is a germ disease. This kind cannot be inherited. Insanity can also occur in young people who are too introvertive. The shy, wallflower with few friends but a great sense of conscientiousness, may sometimes retreat abnormally into his shell like a turtle.

Such a condition is termed schizophrenia, formerly called dementia praecox. It seems to be a product of the social environment, for no physical or brain disease can be shown to account for it.

IS INSANITY HERITABLE?

Insanity sometimes shows up in several members of the same family. But it is a moot question today, whether the insanity is a matter of inheritance or a product of an abnormal social environment.

Many topnotch psychiatrists and psychologists nowadays are becoming dubious about saying insanity can be inherited.

We know that much of it definitely cannot be inherited. Alcoholism, hardening of the arteries, poisons, syphilis, etc., may produce insanity, which obviously is NOT inheritable.

Moreover, many people who seem to lose their minds for a period of time, as at the menopause, may recover in a year of so, either with or without shock treatment, though shock treatment seems to be of great aid in restoring such patients to normalcy.

I advised Howard to go ahead and marry, banishing his worry and dread. You cannot lose your mind, incidentally, by worrying about it or even by fearing insanity, so you jittery folks can feel relieved.

And I personally don't believe insanity is ever hereditary! It is environmental. Send for my bulletin "How to Prevent Nervous Breakdowns and Vaccinate Against Insanity," enclosing a 4 cent stamped, self-addressed envelope, plus 20 cents.

Use it to vaccinate your family against any future attack of insanity.

Gas Companies Take Scolding

Rep. Waldron Angry at Firms Scrapping Over Sales to Industries

LANSING (AP) — "You both are more concerned about your own special interests than you are of the State of Michigan," a key legislator told two rival gas firms about their fight over the sale of natural gas to industry.

Waldron is chairman of the House committee studying the battle over gas sales and profits between Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. and Panhandle Eastern Pipeline Co.

"I wanted to turn off the tape recording machine and hear you people," said Waldron at the close of the hearing that went until the dinner hour Thursday night. "I wanted you to sit down at this table and see what we could do by discussing it."

Waldron said later he thought the fight was sure to continue.

His committee, he said, will meet around Jan. 10 to discuss and make recommendations to the 1962 legislature on the control of sales of natural gas to industry.

"We'll try to figure it out then," he said. "We're also asking both firms to come up with their own proposals. Meanwhile, I fully expect there will be other proposals from the floor of the House and that this fight will keep going on as long as the legislature is in session."

Panhandle wants to make direct sale of natural gas to Ford Motor Co. in Dearborn at a reduced rate. The pipeline company says Michigan Consolidated is trying to stifle competition and that the lower rate would benefit Michigan industry.

Michigan Consolidated says the average householder will be hurt if such sales are allowed. It will mean a rise of rates for everyone using gas, the utility said.

Halsey Claims Wife Threatened Suicide

LOS ANGELES (AP)— Television actor Brett Halsey testified Thursday that his estranged wife, Italian actress Luciana Paluzzi, once threatened to commit suicide by jumping 60 feet from a water tank.

The accusations were exchanged during a temporary support hearing involving the couple's pending divorce and separate maintenance suits.

Superior Judge Alton Pfaff directed the actress, 24, to have their son, Christian, brought here from Italy by Jan. 1. And he ordered Halsey, 28, to pay his wife $200 a month for support of the 6-month-old boy and $400 a month temporary alimony.

Santa and the Flying Shoes

Copyright 1961 By LUCRECE BEALE (AP)

SYNOPSIS: Santa Claus arrives in Fairtown to find King Fartheart in the right with the chief problem and the hassle in his palace. Santa nearly arrives when the Pineapple Upside Down Cake disappears!

CHAP. ELEVEN

As Santa and the King pondered what to do next, the little red-headed fairy slipped from Santa's boot and danced across the room.

"What on earth is that?" asked the King, hardly able to believe his eyes.

"Ah," said Santa. "He's the fellow who brought me the torn up pieces of your letter. He lives in your palace and he has been having trouble lately finding crumbs in the kitchen."

"But not any more," cried the little fellow. He drew out the soft rubbery magnet Santa had given him and pulled it across the floor. Instantly the magnet was covered with crumbs.

"Why it's crumbs from my Pineapple Upside Down Cake!" exclaimed Santa leaning down and licking the magnet.

"Then whoever took the cake must have left a trail of crumbs!" said the King.

"Clues!" agreed Santa. "We've only to follow the trail and —"

"We'll find the thief!"

The red-headed fairy, dragging the magnet, led the way as the three of them crept out of the room in the corridor they turned to the right but no crumbs appeared. They turned back and went to the left.

Immediately a sprinkling of crumbs gathered on the magnet. They turned into the East Wing. The magnet drew no crumbs. They turned into the West Wing and there the crumbs, flying to the magnet, led them past room after room until they came to the closed door of a private apartment.

HE LIVES HERE

"Here lives the thief!" whispered Santa.

The King shook his head. "Impossible."

"Why? Whose room is this?" asked Santa.

"The minister of science. A most worthy man. Furthermore he has a poor stomach and never eats rich food. He certainly would never dream of touching Pineapple Uside Down Cake even if it were served to him at a royal banquet."

"Nevertheless," said Santa. "The Pineapple Uside Down Cake came to this room. That we know."

The King scratched his head thoughtfully. "If only we could set up a watch at the door."

"Ah," said Santa, "That reminds me!" He pulled his Seeing Eye from his pocket and explained it to the King. "We will set the Eye here in the wall facing the Minister's door and then watch from your own room." He set up the Eye and laid the wire under the carpet back to the King's room. Then the two of them settled back to watch through the glass at their end.

They had just gotten comfortable when they saw the door to the Minister's room slowly open. The next instant a small wet red blob waved at the far end of the glass.

"Good Heaven! It's a tongue!" cried Santa. "I believe someone is sticking his tongue out at us!" He shook the glass to see if something else wouldn't appear. But now the Eye was a blank. "Extraordinary!" mused Santa. "That's the littlest tongue I ever saw."

"The minister of science is a very big man," said the King thoughtfully.

"Perhaps he can shrink himself," said Santa. "I once read a story about —"

But he got no further for suddenly the lights went out; there was a muffled cry in the dark and then a crash. Santa stumbling around in the dark cried, "What's happening? Where are you?"

An instant later the light went on. But now Santa was alone. The King had disappeared.

Directs Plan to Get Boys, Girls in Church

Newhouser Seeking to Aid Youths

By GEORGE T. TRUMBULL Jr.

Hal Newhouser has a new pitch.

The one-time Detroit Tigers southpaw pitching great is directing a new program to get underprivileged boys and girls in Oakland County into church and out of court.

He's asked some help from other Detroit professional athletes. Today Newhouser and his boss, Probate Judge Arthur E. Moore, were to explain their plan, called "child protection through religious assistance," to Detroit Red Wings star Gordie Howe and his boss Jack Adams.

A troubled youth might tag along to church with Howe or Newhouser with a little less persuasion than when invited by someone less known, the judge believes.

He asked Newhouser, who splits his year between Juvenile Court as a public relations man and recreation director and the Cleveland Indians, to pilot the program. The judge became alarmed from reports which showed 97 per cent of the wayward youths which come before him have had no religious or moral training.

WOULD NEVER RETURN

If the youth is made aware of the value of this training he or she would never be summoned before his court, he said.

"Religion is the basis of their spiritual life, it is the foundation of morality and it affords them warm acceptance and participation in good community living," the judge said.

The program, to be integrated into the county's "youth protective services," has received the blessing of many of the clergy of all faiths, Newhouser said.

The lay people of the different churches have been invited to learn about it at a Jan. 7 meeting at Camp Oakland.

"It will be these people who will make the plan work as they will be the ones who will accompany the youths to church," said Newhouser, 40, of Franklin.

Intensive research by the mound ace and case workers has produced lists pinpointing where the boys and girls benefiting from the "protective services" live. These lists will also help find the nearest church of their choice.

'FIRST BENEFICIARIES'

They will be the first beneficiaries when the program moves out of the discussion stage.

When the youth and the parents agree to which church they desire the boy to attend, his "protective services" counselor talks to the church pastor who in turn visits the family.

Then a lay member of that church "adopts" the youth and starts by attending with him and seeing to it that other functions of the church are made available.

"This will be the start of taking the boy away from the environment he's been living in and allows him a better way of life, at least a cleaner way of thinking," said Newhouser.

Age of Specialization Enters Cow Pasture

NEW YORK (UPI) — The cow—a highly complex milk factory—soon may be specialized to meet specific consumer needs, it was reported at the 139th national meeting of the American Chemical Society.

By proper feeding, the first stomach — or rumen — of the cow might be made to produce milk specifically for nutrition of adults or children or to make better cheese or ice cream, R. D. McCarthy of Pennsylvania State University, who made this point, said the cow's rumen is like a vat.

She's Off to the Races Without Welfare Check

Increased Consumer, Federal Spending Seen for '62

By NATE POLOWETZKY
AP General Business Editor

NEW YORK — The U.S. economy, its health restored, moves into 1962 in a buoyant and confident mood—certain of good things ahead.

What's in store?

Increased consumer and government spending — the twin props of the economy—a modest increase in corporate profits, and more jobs and less unemployment.

While there were some predictions of new records for all segments of the economy, the general feeling was there would be no runaway boom.

There was always the possibility a revival of creeping inflation could throw a spanner in the works or that a steel strike in midyear could turn things sour.

That's the way the experts see it for the first half of the year, at least, with a possible contraction setting in thereafter.

A sign of this optimism was the plan of the giant auto industry to build more cars in the first quarter of 1962 than in any single 1961 quarter.

CONVINCED ON SPENDING

That means the automakers are convinced the average American is going to spend more in 1962 than he did in 1961.

Leading industrialists who gathered here in December for the annual meeting of the National Association of Manufacturers generally agreed there would be a continuation through 1962 of the business upswing that began in the spring of 1961—provided a steel strike didn't pop up.

The gross national product (the total value of all goods and services) may be running at an annual rate of $580 billion by the end of 1962, compared to the annual rate of $540 billion in the last three months of 1961.

Federal purchases of goods and services are expected to total at least $62 billion, a sharp increase from a 1961 level of $56.9 billion. And some experts think the level of purchases may go as high as $63 billion.

In Washington, a big legislative battle was shaping up over President Kennedy's proposal to seek authorization to cut tariffs over a wide category of goods.

Manufacturers, feeling the pinch of increasing foreign imports, took a cautious attitude, some seeking assurance of some sort of government aid to help them compete better.

The swift start for 1962 was in sharp contrast to what occurred in 1961, when the year started in the dumps, in a recession that finally bottomed out in the early spring. It wasn't until the last quarter of the year that the recession psychology ended.

Despite record unemployment—the average over the year was an estimated 4.8 million or 6.7 per cent of the labor force—there was plenty of money around.

EXTRA CASH

The average citizen, his old age worries taken care of by built-in social security provisions, found a lot of extra cash to pour into the stock market.

The government authorized the biggest probe into the nation's securities markets in some 30 years to make sure the ordinary investor was adequately protected.

When the recovery began, it wasn't as good as expected. The main reason: The consumer remained cautious. It wasn't until the end of the year that purse-strinks unloosened and purchases zoomed.

Record auto sales were chalked up in the last two months—raising confident hopes for continued spending in 1962—and a splurge of Christmas shopping hit all time highs.

Retail sales for the year were estimated at $226.1 billion compared to $219.5 billion in 1960.

The dark spot on the economy throughout 1961—and a continuing one for 1962—was joblessness.

Continuing automation and demands for higher skills hit the older worker and the younger jobseeker with little education or unneeded, or nonexistent skills.

For many observers, the biggest challenge for 1962 was an expanding economy that would be able to create enough jobs to absorb a constantly increasing labor force.

Kennedys May Get Heated Reception

By FRANCES LEWINE

WASHINGTON (AP) — America's First Lady, Jacqueline Kennedy, who has charmed crowds in Europe and Canada, faces an uncertain reception in Puerto Rico, Venezuela and Colombia.

As the Kennedys embark today on a weekend trip south of the border, leftist, Communist and pro-Castro forces are mustering to demonstrate against them.

The political heat is thrust at the President and the United States, but the 32-year-old First Lady also may feel some of the anti-U.S. emotion.

Precautions are being taken all along the route on behalf of Mrs. Kennedy, especially when she goes off on her own for brief special visits in Caracas and Bogota, the Venezuelan and Colombian capitals.

The Secret Service, which traditionally guards the first family at home and abroad, is ready to send along extra men with Mrs. Kennedy if conditions warrant, a spokesman said.

On the very first stop, at San Juan, Puerto Rico, Mrs. Kennedy like the President, will have a special bullet-proof bubbletop car to ride in a motorcade with Puerto Rico's first Lady, Mrs. Louis Mmoz Marin, wife of the governor. A pro-independence movement in San Juan is threatening demonstrations there.

Mrs. Kennedy will join the President in all the motorcades and official ceremonies of the four-day trip. On her own, she will visit a kindergarten in Caracas and a museum of ancient gold treasures and a children's hospital in Bogota.

For her, the trip will end at Palm Beach, Fla., where she will leave the big presidential jet in the early hours of Monday to join her children for the Christmas-New Years holiday there. The President will join them later.

DISCUSSES CD PROGRAM—Deputy Secretary of Defense Roswell Gilpatric discusses the new federal civil defense program at a Washington news conference Thursday. Gilpatric said it will include incentive payments for construction of fallout shelters in schools, hospitals and public welfare institutions.

Juror Dismissed for Deafness After 3 Trials

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP)—Judge William Johnstone Jr. of Lancaster County Quarter Sessions Court dismissed a juror for deafness Thursday after the juror had been sitting for most of the week.

He was one of the members of a jury empaneled to sit for the December term of court and had participated in three trials already.

He was dismissed after Assistant district attorney Harold Budding noticed he did not respond when his name was called. He was questioned by Budding, but did not answer.

Budding then asked for Shirk's dismissal and Johnstone agreed.

Shirk later told a newsman he thought he had heard all the testimony in the cases he helped judge.

Crossing Crash Kills Mother, 2 Daughters

FARMINGDALE, N.Y. (AP)—A Christmas shopping trip ended in death Thursday night for a mother and her two daughters when their car was smashed by a Long Island Railroad train at a crossing here.

The Hoffman apartment is only about 100 feet from the crossing. The father, Edward Hoffman, heard the crash and went to the accident scene. When he learned who the victims were, he had to be put under sedation.

Congregation Scattered Over World

Minister Delivers Sermons Via the Mails

The Pitts family and Dr. Schweitzer are among more than 4,000 members of the Unitarian Universalist Church of the Larger Fellowship, which has a congregation scattered across the United States and 62 foreign countries.

A 'MAIL' CHURCH

There is no church building. Most of the members have never met the Rev. George N. Marshall, spiritual counselor of the church.

A packet of church material, including a sermon, mailed twice a month to members of the congregation is the only contact most of them have with their church.

The Rev. Mr. Marshall said membership in his church appeals to persons "who live where there is no one with whom they can share beliefs, converse freely, and exchange ideas." The Rev. Mr. Marshall's mail, he said, covers an endless variety of topics, including questions of theology, family relationships, books and education.

HAS EDUCATION PROGRAM

Chartered in 1944 by the board of directors of the American Unitarian Association, the Church of the Larger Fellowship has operated a home religious education program for more than a decade.

"As the church program developed, some parents realized that their children needed to belong to the church too," the Rev. Mr. Marshall said. "The problem was worked out through correspondence with the children themselves."

The Junior Fellowship was organized for children over 6 years old and a Junior Fellowship Youth for children over 14.

WANTS PEOPLE TO LEAVE

The Rev. Mr. Marshall, who said his church is the largest and fastest growing in the Unitarian Universalist Association, encourages its members to leave the fold.

Members usually leave, he said, to join or help found Unitarian and Universalist societies when they find persons with similar religious views.

His correspondence church, the minister said, "serves the settled churches and also the members of the denomination who are on the move.

"The frail link of paper and pen brings to the individual a sense of belonging, a safe pole for the orientation of life—no matter what great distances might separate members from one another."

Blame Death on Cold, Fall

Woman's Body Found on Street, Could Have Been Foul Play

LEWISTON (AP)—A woman whose body was found lying on a street in this Montmorency County community apparently died of a skull fracture and exposure.

However, authorities said they had not ruled out the possibility of foul play in the death of Mrs. Mildred Kurtz, 55, of Olney, Ill.

Coroner Donald G. Green said the woman, whose body was found Thursday, may have slipped and fallen on an icy road. He said she was dressed only in slacks and a sweater when her body was found about a mile from her cottage.

Mrs. Kurtz last was seen alive about midnight Wednesday. The temperature dropped to about five degrees during the night and police said they did not know why the well-to-do divorcee was out without a coat.

Members of her family in Olney told authorities that Mrs. Kurtz had telephoned them earlier Wednesday to say that she planned to return to Olney next week after closing her summer home in Lewiston.

6 Cities to Share U.S. Renewal Grant

LANSING (AP) — Six Michigan cities will share a $49,500 federal grant to aid in comprehensive urban planning, Gov. Swainson said Thursday.

The Urban Renewal Administration will turn over the money to the State Department of Administration, supplementing $22,950 in local funds, the governor said.

Slated for federal assistance are Allegan, Benton Harbor, Big Rapids, East Lansing, Rogers City and South Haven.

The survey work, to be completed in a year, will include studies of population growth and trends, economic base, land use, community facilities and major thoroughfares.

Tin Cans Keep Birds From Pond of Minnows

COLERAIN, N.C. (UPI) — The owner of Davis' minnow pond, bait supplier for fishing on the Chowan River, has rigged up a homemade bird "spook" to keep birds away from the minnows.

A pipe at the pond spillway ejects a stream of water onto a balanced board from which a string is tied to a high pole topped with two loose tin cans. The water shakes the board, which jiggles the string and shakes the pole, which rattles the cans and frightens the birds away.

Allies Balk at Washington Policy

U.S. Aligned With Russia in Katanga Dispute

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

In lending its support to United Nations action in Katanga, the United States finds itself in unusual alignment with the Soviet Union against three of its Western Allies — Britain, France and Belgium.

The differences among the Allies came sharply into focus this week in Paris, London and Brussels.

In Paris, Premier Michel Debre attacked U.S. Congo policy in a speech which also realled United States refusal to support the ill-fated Anglo-French invasion of Suez.

In London the British pulled back on a promise to deliver bombs to U.N. forces in Katanga, and called for a cease fire which the United States promptly rejected.

In Brussels, foreign minister Paul-Henri Spaal accused the U.N. forces of "intended and well-organized" bombing attacks on hospitals and civilian buildings.

FEAR ANARCHY

In Katanga the United States was following a foreign policy based upon support for the United Nations and the belief that failure to end Katanga's secession would be to let the whole of the Congo slip into anarchy opening the door to a take-over by communism.

The risks were great.

Failure would inflict inestimable damage on the United Nations as a world force. Success not only would enhance U.N. prestige, establishing it as a real international police force, but also should open the way to settlement of other Congo ills, both political and economic.

A risk also was the possible effect of the United States' decision on its own Allies with whom there already was disagreement over Berlin.

Among U.S. policy makers there apparently also was the belief that Tshombe himself was not so reliable as painted.

There had been unprovoked physical attacks by Tshombe troops on U.N. officials. There had been twists and turns of policy toward the central government and there had been broken promises first to fire his mercenaries and then to remove roadblocks against U.N. forces.

'NO QUICK VICTORY'

This week it appeared that any hope of a quick U.N. victory had vanished.

Both sides were building their forces and, if Tshombe carried out his threats, there was the possibility of house-to-house fighting and a scorched-earth policy.

Inseparable from the Katanga story has been the $300-million Belgian mining company, the Union Miniere du Haut-Katanga, from which Tshombe has drawn most of his income.

Fifty-four per cent of its stock is held by individual Belgians and French in a ratio of about three to one. British owners come into it through Tanganyika Concessions, Ltd.

A U.N. victory in Katanga would place the company under control of the central Congolese government and bring with it the possibility of nationalization.

Michigan Man Among 1st Five Space Test Pilots

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Michigan man was one of five schedule to graduate today from the Air Force's first class of space test pilots.

The Air Force said Capt. James A. McDivitt of Jackson, Mich., would be the only one of the five members of the first graduating class at the Aerospace Research Pilot School at Wards AFB (Calif.) to go into the test pool from which future space pilots would be selected.

It said the other four men would remain at the school as its first regular instructors.

The course was described by the Air Force as "a postgraduate school for test pilots, designed to provide a pool of highly qualified space-oriented pilots from which pilots for future aerospace projects can be drawn."

City Clubs Feel Pinch

NEW YORK (UPI) — Fashionable city clubs are feeling a financial pinch as soaring costs are outstripping increases in dues, according to Horwath & Horwath, accountants to the hotel industry. The only type of club that is doing moderately well is the luncheon club.

Covered, but Aching

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—Working atop his carport, Charley R. Miller said it suddenly occurred to him that such repairs were covered by his insurance. He quit working and started down the ladder, but slipped and broke an arm. The arm was insured too, he said.

Says Governor Erred in Pollution Charge

SARNIA, Ont. (AP)—Gov. Swainson apparently erred when he blamed Sarnia for polluting the St. Clair River.

L. F. Oerning of Flint, chairman of the Technical Advisory Committee of the International Joint Commission Waterways, says a statement by Swainson which named Sarnia was in error.

Sarnia Mayor Iven Walker said the pollution referred to by the governor was confined to the Detroit River and came from Detroit and Wayne County.

With only about 6 per cent of the world's population, the United States has an estimated 75 per cent of the world's motor vehicles, according to current records.

TV Beep, Blink, Buzz Blamed on AF Base

The unwanted reception comes from nearby Selfridge Air Force Base. A giant radar antenna went into operation at the base six months ago. At first it completely messed up every TV picture within four miles.

That was fixed but the technicians still haven't figured out how to eliminate the beep which comes out of the TV speaker, and the thin gray line which zips across the picture tube every 12 seconds.

The beep also is picked up by radios and a secretary at the county courthouse claims she get gets it on her dictaphone.

He's Bound to Go Far - - but Not for Waffles

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—A young man entered Lew Lipton's restaurant, said he was broke and asked for a free meal.

Lipton said, "What'll you have —name it."

"Waffles," said the young man.

"No waffles at this time of day," said Lipton.

"I'll go somewhere else then," said the young man. And he left.

Your Yearly Food Bill

NEW YORK (UPI) — The average U.S. family spends $938 a year in grocery stores, according to the Nielsen Food Index. The index also indicates low-income families spend nearly as much as high-income families on groceries.

Air Guardsman Makes Long Trip to Answer Roll

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Once a month 1st Lt. Paris Eugene Smith travels 3,200 miles round-trip from Arizona just to make roll call in the Tennessee National Guard. It takes a five-day weekend — from Thursday through Monday.

Smith left his job at Sewanee, Tenn., to enroll in the American Institute for Foreign Trade at Phoenix. But the Arizona fighter unit had no opening for Smith — a navigator — and Tennessee still needed him.

So now Smith catches a commercial flight from Phoenix to Yuma on Thursday, hops a regularly scheduled Air Force flight from there to Smyrna, Tenn., the next day, and a fellow navigator provides a lift to Berry Field at Nashville where the two answer roll call at 8:30 a.m. Saturday.

Like Sweet Spirits

DAVIS, Calif. (UPI)—Americans have a taste for sweets and it shows up in their preference for wines, according to a University of California wine expert.

Dr. Maynard Amerine said 70 per cent of the wine consumed in America is of the sweet, dessert variety.

Dehoco Run by a 'Tough Cop' Who Wants to Help

(Editor's Note: The Detroit House of Correction, now its centennial, has come a long way from the days of the old West when such notorious outlaws as Belle Starr were inmates at the prison.)

By EVELYN AUGUST

PLYMOUTH (AP)—Albert Shapiro rose to the rank of deputy superintendent of detectives during his 37 years with the Detroit Police Department. He described himself as "a tough cop."

During his long service as a policeman he often wondered what happened to the people who went to prison. He wondered if they came out worse than when they went in.

His appointment in 1957 as superintendent of the Detroit House of Correction gave him a chance to—in his words—"do something for those who need help."

Since Shapiro became superintendent the reorganization of Dehoco has been directed away from the policy of imprisonment for punishment to one of rehabilitation.

Each inmate—man or woman—who enters Dehoco is treated as an individual.

He is not coddled, however. "We won't stand for monkey business," explains Dr. Maurice Floch, chief of inmate rehabilitation. But the inmate is given individual attention as to his needs for re-entering society when he has paid the penalty for his crime.

The rehabilitation program for women at Dehoco is more extensive than that for men because the women usually are at the prison for longer terms.

ORIENTATION FIRST

Each woman inmate entering the prison is housed first in the orientation residence for a period of from one to two weeks. During this time, she is interviewed by the medical director, psychiatrist, chaplains, vocational supervisor, academic teacher and custodial officers.

She is given a complete physical examination and receives immunizations at the hospital while her social history is prepared from her interviews with staff personnel.

Her program while at the institution—her daily routine, both work and recreation—is mapped by the classification committee which meets with Superintendent Shapiro and Dr. Floch.

The staff in charge of rehabilitation includes a medical director, dentist, nurses and specialists—some of whom donate their services free.

A plastic surgeon and an oral surgeon from prominent Detroit clinics visit the prison regularly each week.

Dr. Floch reports there has been tremendous success with the plastic surgery done at the prison. In some cases, corrective surgery has changed a rebellious person into a cooperative individual who no longer feels rejected by society, he says.

REFRESHER SCHOOL

For those inmates who do not know how to read or write, there is a refresher school.

Inmates who have finished high school or have some college background are used as instructors in the men's division. In the women's division, there is a full-time school teacher, assisted by inmate instructors and some paid teachers from schools in neighboring communities.

There are now 120 women inmates studying 12 subjects. These include English and literature, reading, arithmetic, spelling, handwriting, family living, creative writing, art, corrective speech, public speaking, music and geography.

Vocational training includes cooking and housekeeping, typing and bookkeeping, dressmaking, knitting, handcrafts, laundry and medical and dental assistants' work.

A beauty culture school soon will be established—and upon completing such a course, a woman leaving Dehoco would be qualified to gain employment as a beautician.

The male inmate may be assigned to one of the shops where he will learn a useful trade, such as furniture reupholstering and refinishing, radio and TV repair work, or he may be assigned to a job in the laundry, cannery, farm buildings, commissary or kitchen.

SENSE OF DIGNITY

To give them a sense of human dignity, Shapiro revamped the policies of Dehoco.

Where once prisoners were forced to greet their families and friends on visitors' day through wire screens, they now mingle freely at picnic meetings on the prison grounds or, when the weather is bad, in auditoriums.

Two honor residences have been established in the women's division. After six months at Dehoco, a woman inmate who has shown both good conduct and a willingness to cooperate can be assigned to one of these residences.

The two white-washed, green-thatched cottages are maintained by the women inmates themselves. There is no matron on duty and the women generally are free to come and go as they please.

The atmosphere of Dehoco is so unlike that of the penitentiary most people visualize when they think of prison that it is almost unreal.

Vocal Cast to Present Final Performance of 'Amahl, Night Visitors'

By PAM MORRIS

The vocal music department under the direction of Melvin Larimer will present their final performance of "Amahl and The Night Visitors" tomorrow evening.

The story concerns a peasant woman and her crippled son, Amahl, on the night of Christ's birth. They are visited by three wise men who journey to visit the Christ Child.

During the wise men's visit, Amahl's mother attempts to steal some of the king's gold. When the kings tell the mother who the gold is for, the magic of Christmas sheds its light on king and peasant alike.

"Amahl and the Night Visitors" was presented Thursday evening, and in two matinee performances — Wednesday and Friday.

DOUBLE CASTING

Double casting for the part of Amahl are Peter Pratt and Earl Meyers. His mother is portrayed by Cheryl Mongomery and Pat Wampler.

Three kings are played by Albert Monroe, and Ron McDonell, King Kasper; Jerry Brabant, King Melchior; and King Balthazar is played by Elgin Peterson.

The chorus of the shepherds and villagers will be portrayed by Cynthia Curtis, Diana Haines, Edna Hammond, Pamela Jones, Pam Pruett, Jan Starkey and Sharon Sticle — all sopranos.

Altos are Lynne Anderson Mary Jane Hoisington, Flora McCartney, Jackie Morris, Colleen Richardson, Olga Salas and Linda Spangler.

MORE SHEPHERDS

Dramatics director is Anthony Chiarilli, musical director Melvin Larimer and associate director, Sandra Sommerville.

Snowy Fantasy, Royalty Frosts Kettering's Senior Class Dance

By SHERYL LEHIGH

Fantasy and royalty added the finishing touches to "Snow Mist," the senior class dance Saturday at Waterford-Kettering High School.

At 10 o'clock that evening, the six candidates for king and queen, Ellen Goral, Jerry Goff, Cynthia Kruchko, Tom McKinnon, Sharon Martin, and Dick Shipman, gathered around an old fashioned sleigh awaiting the announcement of the reigning king and queen.

PRESENTED HONORS

Two ten-year-old children, Sheryl and Darryl Bouden, presented a bouquet of yellow and white mums to Queen Sharon and a scepter to King Dick. Sheryl and Darryl, twins, were dressed as elves in white leotards and blue costumes and hats.

Because this is Waterford-Kettering's first school year, it was impossible to have a homecoming dance. To replace this dance, and also select a king and queen who could return for the homecoming dance next fall, it was decided to choose a king and queen to reign over the seasonal dance "Snow Mist."

Members of the Senior class nominated students to run for king and queen during homeroom Dec. 1. After narrowing the candidates to the reigning six seniors, the entire student body voted Dec. 6 to select the final two. The results of the last voting were kept secret until the final moment.

Combining their musical talents last Wednesday evening in the Waterford-Kettering gymnasium were the members of the Waterford-Kettering and Waterford Township High School bands and choirs.

Directing the two choirs were Mrs. Janice Hendin from Waterford-Kettering and Robert Crumpton from Waterford Township. Donald Pirrin instructed the WKHS band while the WTHS band was led by Robert Preston.

Folk carols from France and Spain, and traditional carols and works by Russian composers were presented during the concert and the bands played holiday selections including "White Christmas."

To promote Waterford-Kettering enthusiasm, Pep Club presented a pep assembly today during sixth hour.

Members of the club, dressed in plaid bermudas, men's white shirts and knee socks with nylons on their heads, joined forces as a comic band to play "Twinkle, Twinkle Little Star."

Joe Duby, coach of the basketball team, introduced the Waterford-Kettering varsity players, and the cheerleaders led the student body in a round of spirited cheers.

Twelve students rated all "A" report cards last Wednesday during the second marking period.

Central Songsters Ready for Yule Concert Sunday

By WADE WILKISON

Pontiac Central High School is in the midst of the Christmas rush. With the ominous approach of the final marking period, the students find themselves busy with research papers, other schoolwork and Christmas shopping all at the same time.

Vocal groups such as the senior girls' ensemble, the senior boys' ensemble, and the Caribbeans are singing many of the old tunes that have become a part of Christmas for various clubs and organizations in and out of school.

All of the musical groups at Pontiac Central and Pontiac Northern are preparing for the annual Christmas musical program which will be held in the school gymnasium Sunday. The Art department has designed the decorations that will be used.

COMEDY'S COMING

Playcrafters, a dramatics group, is planning a formal initiation and preparing for the coming musical comedy, "Li'l Abner." Future Teachers' club is preparing Christmas baskets and will sing at the TB Sanitorium.

The Dolphin Club has decided on the theme for this year's annual water show. April 25, 26, 27 and 29 the Dolphins will present a "South Seas" type of program complete with music and costumes.

The dry-land Dolphins will be in charge of this aspect of the show. Music committee co-chairmen will be Nancy Nicholls and Janet Jackson. Other members of the committee are Sharon Brady, Linda Clancy and Mickey Chappell.

Ticket committee with Kathy Fitchett and Regina Hughes as chairmen will be assisted by Dana Munsik, Pam Wooster and Joan Blair.

HANDLING PROGARMS

In charge of the programs are Sandy Baird, Leonette Sharette, and Charlotte Aldinger. The costume and scenery committee will be headed by Linda Nicholl, and Joyce Livingstone, with Margie Swan, Marilyn Paholek, and Carole Rider assisting.

The fine finners are practicing regularly and have set as their goal to be in condition by the time show time rolls around and to have their routines perfected by the end of Christmas vacation.

Michaelites Vie for Math Prizes in State Testing

By SHARON RODDEN

All mathematical-minded students at St. Michael's High School were lined up on schedule Thursday morning when Sister Mary Euphrasia administered the fifth annual Mathematics Prize Competition.

The competition has the purpose of promoting interest in mathematics and of "spotlighting" its importance in education, and its necessity in almost every profession or trade.

Approximately 60 college scholarships ranging in value from $100 to $600 will be rewarded to the outstanding students.

The contestant who accomplishes the highest possible score will receive a gold medal and the next five top ranking students will be awarded silver medals. A certificate of merit will be awarded to the highest ranking contestant in each high school.

Combining the old with the new the girls choral group presented a variety of selections Wednesday afternoon when they appeared at Pontiac State Bank for the 10th consecutive year.

Smiling Seniors Eying Camera at St. Frederick

By SUE POLMEAR

"Smile!" is the key word at St. Frederick's this week as seniors are being photographed for their senior pictures in street clothes and cap and gown.

Juniors were feted by Moms and Dads' Club at a party this week for winning the rag drive with a grand total of 156 per cent participation. The party was even more enjoyable due to the fact it was held on school time!

Freshmen are pondering choices for class officers and student council representatives. All other classes elected their officers and representatives last spring but the freshmen wait until after the first quarter so they are better acquainted and the eligibility list is posted.

Propose New Legislation Allocating Aid to School

New legislation to determine the allocation of state aid to local schools in New York was proposed by the New York State Educational Conference Board, representing the state school boards association, state congress of parents and teachers, New York State Teachers Association, and other groups concerned with public policy affecting education.

Conference Board would do away with present state-aid formula which requires annual legislative action and substitute a permanent formula designed to equalize local tax burdens, based on actual school budgets and relative ability of each district to support its budget. One effect would be to increase state aid to larger cities and expanding suburbs.

Emmanuel Christian Sparks Enthusiasm

By JANIE MERCER

Cheerleaders of Emmanuel Christian High School are sponsoring a pep club this year, striving to increase interest in the games.

The officers are Louise Wiedeman, president; and Joann Ostrander, vice- president.

Goal of the cheerleaders this year has been to obtain new uniforms for themselves. The new uniforms are maroon cotton twill culottes with white inserts. Maroon V-neck sweaters make the uniforms look very distinctive.

To pay for their uniforms these girls had bake sales and candy sales. They sold pennants at the football games, and they had a Slave Day.

Pontiac State Bank Building corridor will be the destination of the a cappella choir and the chorus Wednesday afternoon. They will entertain the passersby with many of their old time Christmas favorites.

'TV, Newspapers Not in Conflict'

Lansing Journalist Says Electronic Media Only Arouse Interest

LANSING (AP) — Peaceful coexistence is possible between radio and television news and newspapers, a spokesman for "electronic news media" said here.

There is no conflict between the two, news director Don Ross of WJIM and WJIM-TV, Lansing, told a meeting of the Central Michigan Chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalistic society, last night.

Ross was part of a panel on "Electronic vs. Printed News," including news director Rob Runyon of radio station WILS, Lansing; Kenneth West, managing editor of the Lansing State Journal, and James Robinson, state capital reporter for the Detroit Free Press.

Radio and television news does no more than whet the appetite of the listener, sending him to the nearest newspaper for the details, Runyon said.

Robinson, who criticized the quality of television news handling, admitted the medium forced newspaper reporters to do a better job.

"When I'm covering an event that's being televised, I know that many of the people who will read my story were watching the event over my shoulder on television," he said.

Youth, 15, Kills Friend in Accidental Shooting

DETROIT (AP)—James Lacki, 15, was shot and killed accidentally Thursday at the home of a friend, Richard Smigelski, also 15.

Police said Smigelski told them he and Lacki were playing at the Smigelski home with a pistol that belonged to his late father.

They said that during the course of a game Smigelski pointed the gun at Lacki and the weapon discharged.

Sault Gas Co. Customers to Get Refund Checks

Detroit (AP) — Some 500 customers of the Sault Gas Co. will get an unexpected present totaling $8,026 due to some sharp figuring by members of the State Public Service Commission and the Michigan Consolidated Gas Co.

Consolidated bought out the Sault Gas Co. last spring and now serves the Sault Ste. Marie area. Checking their books, the commission and Consolidated auditors discovered overcharges by the Sault Gas Co. to certain classes of customers between January 1958, and May 1961.

The commission ordered $10,000 of Sault Gas Co. money to be held in escrow at the time of the sale to cover the refund. Consolidated has since computed all of the individual bills.

The refund amounts per individual customer range from less than a dollar to $75, depending on the time the customer was billed under the erroneous rates.

Electricians Leave Jobs at Missile Site

MOUNTAIN HOME, Idaho (AP) —The firing of a supervisor resulted in a walkout of 112 electricians at a Titan missile base construction site near here, a Martin Co. spokesman said Thursday night.

Ed Rosenlund, an industrial relations representative for Martin, called it an unauthorized walkout. The name of the supervisor was not disclosed.

Other officials could not be reached to clarify the issues.

Rosenlund said he didn't think the walkout would delay construction.

Plan in Accord on Area College,

Pontiac School Board Told No Conflict Yet Between 2 Blueprints

Two different plans for community colleges — one by the Oakland County school board and another by the Pontiac board — were described last night as not being in conflict at this time.

Pontiac Schools Supt. Dana P. Whitmer reported to the Pontiac Board of Education on support by the Oakland County Association of School superintendents for a countywide community college.

Such a college is now being studied by the county superintendent of schools.

Board member Victor P. Sutt asked Whitmer if he saw that the countywide proposal "in any way conflicted with what we're working on here."

Whitmer replied, "No, not at this point. We could always join forces if necessary."

He added, "I did not bring this up at this time with any sense of conflict."

A plan for a Pontiac area community college financed by the Pontiac district was given the green light by the Pontiac board in November. A study of this proposal is now being made by the Pontiac schools.

The local plan could be put into operation without vote by the people.

The countywide plan, however, would have to be approved by the State Legislature and then in a countywide referendum by the people, since taxes would be paid throughout the county for its support.

WARD S. NEWMAN

Ex-Grocer Dies of Heart Ailment

Ward S. Newman, 74, Came to Pontiac at Age 14 From Davisburg

Ward S. Newman, who owned and operated a grocery store at Huron Street and Johnson Avenue, unexpectedly died of a heart ailment at Pontiac General Hospital yesterday.

Mr. Newman came to Pontiac 60 years ago from Davisburg to attend Pontiac Business Institute.

He then took over, with his father, the grocery store at 452 West Huron St., where he served the public for 30 years. The business was first known as Newman & Son.

Trying to Iron Out Racial Problem by Negotiation

ALBANY, Ga. (AP)—White and Negro leaders met again today seeking a solution of differences that led to mass demonstrations against segregation practices.

This south Georgia city was quiet as the three-member negotiating teams met in executive session.

Negro leaders set three conditions for calling off the demonstrations that led to the arrest of more than 550 persons since Sunday night.

They are asking dismissal of charges against all those arrested, including about 200 still in custody; immediate and total desegregation of bus and railway terminal facilities; and appointment of a biracial committee.

Although there has been no violence, Mayor Asa Kelley was authorized by Gov. Ernest Vandiver to place the local National Guard unit on standby alert.

Cold Memory, Not Cold Motor, Was to Blame

Like a lot of other motorists, Pontiac fireman Gerald Buckmaster has had trouble getting his car started on these cold mornings.

Actually, Buckmaster, 26, of 601 N. Perry St. has two cars, neither of which would start this morning in spite of his efforts last night to repair both vehicles.

Returning to the house in disgust, he found the battery to one of the cars on a kitchen table — where he had left it. Later he found the rotary of his other car in his pants pocket.

Mayor Fixes Tickets for Town's Visitors

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP)—Mayor Dominick J. DeLucco has a system for fixing parking tickets for other people—he pays them himself.

He tells people at every state and national convention he addresses that he'll take care of any tickets they get in Hartford. He says he sympathizes with their parking problems.

He figures the policy has cost him more than $140 since he put it into effect last January.

PROTESTERS MARCH—Some 50 residents of Royal Oak Township picketed the township offices yesterday to protest the apparent lack of action on the township's urban renewal program. Their chief target was Raymond O. Hatcher, project director for seven years. At a special township board meeting, hurriedly called at noon, Hatcher's resignation was accepted and the appointment of Edward A. Wilson as township police chief, made Monday night, rescinded. There was no picketing today.

Royal Oak Twp. Fires Police Chief

Urban Renewal Head Quits

ROYAL OAK TOWNSHIP—The political turmoil which gripped this township yesterday ended with the resignation of the director of the urban renewal program and the firing by the Township Board of its new police chief.

Raymond O. Hatcher resigned under pressure after seven years as housing director and head of the urban renewal program.

The board fired Edward A. Wilson yesterday by a 4-2 vote in an hastily called meeting.

Both actions stem from pressure of a citizens group, led by Justice of the Peace Lonnie C. Cash, which met Monday night and decided on a one-day crusade against the alleged do-nothing job of the urban renewal program and to force the township to fire Wilson.

The citizens committee claimed that Hatcher, as head of the renewal project, has spent a half-million dollars in seven years with nothing to show for it but plans and that not a single new home had been erected during that time.

Hatcher has been with the township since 1944 when he started as manager of the newly built, federally constructed war housing project.

ACCEPTS JOB

He has accepted a job in Philadelphia in intergroup relations in the regional office of the public housing administration there.

Wilson was hired only three days ago to succeed William Ware who resigned under pressure last month after losing a libel suit to Time magazine which had accused him of stealing Goodfellow Christmas Funds.

Hatcher, in answer to the charge of the citizens group that nothing is being done in the township, pointed out that 38 new homes are under construction east of Wyoming, at a total valuation of $400,000.

He said another $200,000 is going into individual home improvement projects.

Also east of Wyoming, streets have been paved at a cost of $276,000 and sewers have been installed at a cost of $271,000, the program director stated.

He added that west of Wyoming the federal government only this week advanced the township funds to purchase a wartime cooperative housing project for demolition.

In addition, several Detroit firms have shown interest in developing commercial and industrial sites in the urban renewal area, according to Hatcher.

In response to a charge that he is spending $50,000 a year for salaries in his office, Hatcher said that the money does not come from the township budget.

The Township Board members who voted to fire the police chief said they wanted the department to start again with a "clean slate."

They said there had been too much discussion about the appointment because, as they were told, Wilson quit the department in 1956 amid accusations that he stole money from a prisoner.

Wilson said he resigned because of a conflict over administrative policies.

Police Officers Win Diplomas

Oakland Men Put In Hours of Study to Get Special Certificates

Policemen from 19 Oakland County departments were among the 190 law enforcers from Southeastern Michigan who graduated yesterday from special training courses at a ceremony in Bloomfield Township.

The commencement exercise, sponsored by the Southeastern Michigan Association of Chiefs of Police and the FBI, is believed to be the largest event of its kind ever held in the state.

The graduation and a luncheon was held at Devon Gables.

Those receiving certificates had completed courses given at three basic police training schools, two detective schools and a fingerprint school.

More than 200 hours of study, 120 of them in class, were required of the men to receive their diplomas.

INTRODUCES TEACHERS

Birmingham Police Chief Ralph W. Moxley, chairman of the association's training committee, stressed the team effort that is needed to make these courses successful by introducing the 39 instructors, many of them professional men, who have taught officers in a half-dozen schools throughout the area.

"These schools have gained considerable respect because of these men," Moxley said.

Donald S. Hostetter, special agent in charge of the FBI office in Detroit, was the featured speaker at the program.

He told the audience of nearly 300 policemen and guests that: "Law enforcement is as much of a profession as the recognized professions even though it is not listed as such.

"A police officer must learn a variety of skills though he receives pay not in keeping with the knowledge he must possess," he added.

Hostetter said law enforcement should be divorced from politics.

"A police officer should be a servant to the people, all the people," he said.

Shelby Twp. Plant Purchase Welcomed

Optimism Greets Ford Act

It's too early to tell how the Ford Motor Co.'s purchase of Curtiss-Wright Corp.'s Shelby Township plant will affect the area but township officials and businessmen are enthusiastic about the move.

Will Ford's soft-trim operation bring new jobs or new residents with it?

The township board hopes to see employes of the operation move to Shelby, clerk Mae Stecker said, but Ford hasn't made any commitments about bringing jobs. A Ford spokesman announced the company intended to transfer some 2,400 Highland Park employes to the new quarters.

Mrs. Stecker suggested most of these were women who may not want to move here if their husbands work in Detroit.

The board hasn't had time to figure out how a considerable increase in commuters from Detroit would affect the township's road or other building programs, she said.

How will the move affect the township's tax base?

Township assessor Donald Holland said it is still early to tell about that. Much will depend on the amount of personal property Ford moves in and whether they intend to expand the present plant facilities.

Curtiss-Wright operations have been curtailed for some time, he said. A good deal of their equipment was tied up in government contract work making it exempt from taxes, he added.

Other machinery was being stored and thus was assessed at a lower rate than if it had been producing, he said.

The plant will certainly be reassessed. If it runs full-time with all its machinery and without government exemptions, the personal property assessment will probably be raised, he said.

According to Holland, real property belonging to the Curtiss-Wright plant is presently assessed for $2,151,560. This figure is approximately 20 per cent of the appraised value of the land and permanent buildings which is roughly $12 million.

The plant had been offered for sale in late summer by Curtiss-Wright through a New York real estate firm for about $6 million, Holland said. "If Ford obtained it for that price," he said, "they got an excellent bargain."

The assessment on Curtiss-Wright's personal property was set at about $500,000 taking into account their exempted equipment and the lowered assessment on stored machinery, he said.

"Ford's agreement to purchase the plant fits in beautifully with this area's future plans," Holland added. "Maybe Ford's name will accomplish what we've been unable to do so far."

'OPERATION WILL ATTRACT'

"The new operation probably will attract smaller industries and people who will buy homes in the area and spend their money here. It will take some time," he said. "But eventually I think this will build up our industry, business and population."

Firemen Will Entertain Pontiac Township Tots

PONTIAC TOWNSHIP — Young Santa fans in the township will be entertained within the next week at firemen-sponsored Christmas parties at the three township fire stations.

Station No. 2, at 2060 Opdyke Road, will hold its party at 1:30 p.m. Sunday for children from the area between Giddings Road and the eastern township line, Squirrel Road.

Youngsters from the region between Giddings Road and the western township line, Rohr Road, will be hosted at Station No. 3, 3253 Joslyn Road, beginning at noon Sunday.

Due to the lack of space in the fire halls, firemen have asked that parents drop the children off and pick them up when the parties are over, in about two hours. Firemen expect about 300 youngsters at each affair.

The parties will feature a variety show, an appearance of Santa Claus, and candy, refreshments and gifts for the youngsters.

The entertainment is supported by the recent Goodfellows paper sale, during which some 30 volunteers sold copies of The Pontiac Press in the township.

Donations also go toward Christmas food, shoes and fuel for needy families. Firemen and members of the Metropolitan Club assisted in the drive.

AT 7 IN AUBURN

Santa Will Pay Visit to Davisburg Dec. 21

DAVISBURG — Santa will visit youngsters here Dec. 21, passing out candy at his headquarters in the Springfield Township Hall. He will arrive in the village about 7:30 p.m.

Also Fined for Drunkenness

Area Man Found Guilty of Driving Car Recklessly

A six-man jury found Robert H. Hickey guilty on charges of driving under the influence of intoxicating liquor and reckless driving yesterday in Ferndale Municipal Court.

Municipal Judge Earl N. Nash sentenced Hickey, 22, of 9245 Half Acre Road, White Lake Township, to pay a $100 fine or spend 30 days in jail. He also revoked Hickey's driver's license for a period of 90 days.

Ferndale patrolman Patrick T. Sullivan testified Hickey was arrested early Nov. 4 for backing his car two blocks around a corner and through a red light on 9 Mile Road east of Woodward at Bermuda St. Hickey admitted this action on the witness stand.

Hickey's attorney has started a $150,000 lawsuit against Sullivan, charging Hickey lost his left eye as the result of a beating from Sullivan as he was being booked in the Ferndale police station.

Sullivan testified yesterday he was forced to strike Hickey in order to subdue him. He said Hickey struck him first.

Hickey has appealed the jury's decision and has posted a $100 appeal bond. He will be arraigned in Oakland County Circuit Court 1:30 p.m. Jan. 15.

Responsibility Humbles and the President Is Learning

(Editor's Note: Discussing world problems is one thing, trying to solve them another. John F. Kennedy, after making the transition from candidate to president, was not the first to discover this truism — though his lesson may have been unusually dramatic. This is the last of five articles.)

By ARTHUR EDSON
AP Staff Writer

WASHINGTON — During his presidential campaign John F. Kennedy often pointed out that, while the Republicans were in control of the White House, the Iron Curtain had been rolled down in once friendly Cuba.

"If you can't stand up to Castro," Kennedy said in Johnstown, Pa., "how can you be expected to stand up to Khrushchev?"

LACKS UNDERSTANDING

This is repeated not as a reproof—if presidents were judged by their campaign talk they would all be failures—but as an illustration of how far Kennedy may have underestimated the difficulties in modern international relations.

Not that Kennedy, even when the campaign was hottest, ever took these problems lightly. But example after example can be cited to show that he believed that, with proper diligence, answers favorable to the United States could be found.

Let's look at just a couple more from 1960.

NOT SATISFIED

"I am not satisfied with the drift of events today," he said in Granite City, Ill. "I am not satisfied to be reading every day that Khrushchev and Castro and the Chinese are on the upward march. I want to read that the United States is once again asserting its leadership as a great and free country, which offers a ray of hope to all those who wish to follow our example."

For a man who had hoped to control the tides of history, the Cuban fiasco must have been as bitter a blow as any president ever received in what, theoretically, was a time of peace.

It shocked and dismayed his friends.

AMMUNITION

It loaded his enemies with ready-made ammunition, although a few rushed out to shoot during such a critical time for the nation. One prominent Republican, who never has liked the Kennedy picture of infallibility, commented recently that "Cuba was a godsend."

Those who believed that U.S. intervention in Cuba was immoral blamed Kennedy for being mixed up in it.

Those who wanted action blamed him for not following up with the strength that would have made the invasion successful.

Communist — and many who weren't Communists at all — claimed this as fresh evidence that Uncle Sam is an imperialist meddler, never to be trusted.

Out of this, one haunting question continues to arise: Hit with such a disaster so early in his term, has Kennedy been more timid, afraid of even mild risks, than he might otherwise have been?

A man close to Kennedy insists the answer is no, but that he has made sure it never happens again.

POINTS LISTED

Those around Kennedy maintain this nation is doing much better internationally than is generally thought.

They make these points:

If Laos and the Congo remains as dangerous as ever, at least the Communists haven't taken over.

If Castro is still boss of Cuba, a more active interest in South America has helped to stem the spread of Castroism there.

If Berlin remains unsolved, intricate probings for solutions continue. Or, in the words of a White House assistant: "We're a long way from out of the woods, but at least we have some basis for negotiations."

If the international situation remains critical, the military has been in this area—and a start has been made on civil defense.

Yet even in its most favorable light, all this isn't seizing the initiative. And nearly all these explanations could have been made a year ago as well as now.

As Sen. Margaret Chase Smith, R-Maine, said in the Senate on Sept. 21: "What has happened that permits Khrushchev to act as he does? Let me repeat: What has happened that lets him do it?

ASKS WHY

"Understand me, please. Not what he is doing. We know that only too well. Our national honor bears the scars and stains of what he is doing now and has done in the past. And he has warned us, arrogantly, of what he intends to do in the future, which is even worse. These things we know.

"But today—now—why does he feel free to do as he does Why?"

ANSWERS TOUGH

Mrs. Smith's questions sound like a paraphrase of Kennedy's campaign talk. That they still are asked a year after the campaign shows how hard it is to find acceptable answers.

Perhaps none of us fully realizes how radically the presidency has changed.

William McKinley once commented to a visitor that, since he hadn't looked at the map, he had no idea where Manila was.

All our recent presidents have had to operate in a new, exciting and often bewildering world.

It has turned into a world of megatons, of moon shots, of new nations popping into existence so must be in difficulties.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS!

Whereas foreign affairs once took little of a president's time, they now threaten to consume all of it.

Whenever administration officials are asked why Kennedy has not pushed harder for his domestic program, or why he has not explained his—and the nation's—problems to the people more fully, the answer always is: The President is too tied up with foreign affairs.

There's no way to determine whether Kennedy really is this occupied, or whether this reply is designed to cut off further questioning. After all, Eisenhower had heavy foreign burdens, too.

But no one can doubt the enormity or the complexity of the problems created by an implacable foe and by Allies of widely differing aims and hopes.

"We must face problems," he said in Seattle, "which do not lend themselves to easy, quick or permanent solutions.

"And we must face the fact that the United States is neither omnipotent nor omniscient, that we cannot always impose our will on the other 94 per cent of mankind, that we cannot right every wrong or reverse each adversity, and that therefore there cannot be an American solution for every world problem."

USES NEW TONE

This is a far different tone than he used while campaigning in Johnstown or Granite City or Fargo.

But responsibility is often humbling.

And to close this evaluation of the President let's turn to a top Republican, harshly critical in other areas, who said: "In times of crisis, you're first concerned existence. He is the President of us all, and his success is your success. You have got to wish him well."

Thief Peels Off $240; Just What He Needed?

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—The victim called the thief a lot of things—but he didn't call him greedy.

Con-Con Warned Against Ad Board Shift

LANSING (AP) — Delegates to the constitutional convention have been warned that Michigan voters are not going to be impressed if parts of the present constitution have been changed just for the sake of change.

"Proposing changes the voters don't want may jeopardize adoption of changes they do want," State Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie told the executive branch committee Thursday.

Mackie contended that the convention should leave Michigan's present system of an elected administrative board the way it is — if not strengthen it.

Declaring that he favors election of all members of the ad board for four-year terms with no limit on the number of consecutive terms, Mackie commented: "You don't increase democracy by decreasing the number of elected state officials."

DEFENDS ELECTION

Mackie, the nation's only individually elected state highway chieftain, told the committee that the distinction "is something to be proud of."

"As highway commissioner, I am under great pressure from time to time to make exceptions in the highway program — to cut back the program in one part of the state to accommodate pressure for more roads in another part.

"It's a far easier matter for me to decide highway priorities strictly on state-wide needs than it would be for a governor because a governor has other programs he must achieve, and he would be tempted to yield on roads to gain something else."

Mackie's testimony agreed with that of a witness who appeared before the committee last month — Murray D. Van Wagoner, the only man to have served as both highway commissioner and governor.

Van Wagoner testified that enormous pressure would be brought to bear on a governor to trade roads for other parts of his program under the appointive system.

However, two other former governors — Harry Kelly and Wilber Brucker — have advised the committee that they believe the highway commissioner should be appointed.

FACED SHARP QUESTIONS

Mackie came in for some sharp questioning by committee members, one of whom wanted to know how much money was contributed to his last campaign and whether any of it came from road builders, contractors and the like.

The commissioner said that he had given only a casual glance to the list of contributors, recognized a few but gave it no further attention.

Another witness before the committee was William Palmer, a former state senator. He also favored the idea of electing most of the top state officials, rather than having them appointed by the governor. He said:

"I submit that efficiency in governmental operation is important — but its importance should be subordinate to maintaining of the people's voice in the choosing of their governmental officials."

The education committee heard the heads of two state institutions of higher learning ask for constitutional status to match that of the two largest — the University of Michigan and Michigan State University.

Victor Spathelf, president of Ferris Institute, said his board of control had directed him to seek such status.

At the same time, he declared, the operation of the state's institution of higher learning should not be subjected to the control, supervision and financial or administrative direction of an overall governing board.

Spathelf's recommendations were similar to testimony of Dr. Clarence B. Hilberry, president of Wayne State University.

Hilberry said the Wayne State Board of Governors should have the same authority granted under the constitution to the U. of M. and MSU. Wording in the present constitution leaves the status of the Wayne Board doubtful.

They'll Make Daddy Happy

What? Shoes in Stocking?

To reverse things this Christmas, put a shoe in his sock. A pair of highly styled leather shoes are a gift that will surprise and delight him.

With the holiday social season ahead, he'll need new, bright shoes to give him just the right fashion footing. There are dozens of new styles in glove-soft smooth and grained leather shoes that look as good afoot as they feel.

There are new deep tones of brown and combination of olive, ivy and even maroon, tinting the traditional shiny blacks.

It's no chore to give him a new foothold on fashion. All you have to do is copy off the size numbers from a pair of his shoes. The sales clerk at your shoe or department store will do the rest.

GIFT CERTIFICATE

However, if you feel uncertain in the face of the new men's shoe styles, you can always play it safe by getting him a shoe-gift certificate from his favorite shoe store.

They come wrapped or packaged and can be placed under the tree together with a pair of colorful socks.

And —since it's a gift—he can take advantage of your thoughtfulness and indulge in a luxurious pair of patent leather shoes for The Big Party when he dances in the New Year with you.

He may use your gift to get himself a pair of the newest shoes to walk onto the menswear scene—the "hi-light" or "high-riser." Cut higher in front and back, the new shoe teams neatly with the higher, narrow cuffs of this year's suits.

Even if he's well stocked with business and dress shoes, your gift can't go amiss. This season, there's a wealth of new casual shoes for every taste.

Whether he leans to the tailored British look, Continental styles, or is of the Ivy League school of thought, he'll find his preference in the newest leather shoes.

Whatever his preference, however, don't overlook the surprise element of finding smart footwear in his Christmas stocking.

Little risk in involved because exchanges can be made for size, color or style.

An average motorist in the U.S. in 1929 used 550 gallons of gasoline and today uses 700 gallons a year and averages about 30 per cent more miles to the gallon.

Met Satisfied With Arbitration

Labor Chief's Decision Binds on Opera Group, Musicians' Federation

NEW YORK (UPI) — The Metropolitan Opera Association, whose season was almost canceled before it began because of labor trouble, indicated relief today at Labor Secretary Arthur Goldberg's arbitration award in the dispute with musicians.

Goldberg Thursday handed down his binding decision, giving the musicians a $20-a-week pay raise spread over the three-year life of the contract.

At the same time Goldberg urged government subsidies for the performing arts as well as a combined action program by industry, labor, the public, wealthy benefactors and all strata of government to help support the arts.

The Met's president, Anthony A. Bliss, said he believed Goldberg's ruling supported the stand taken by the Met in its contract discord with Local 802 of the American Federation of Musicians.

He pointed out that Goldberg called for a three-year contract. The union had been insisting on a one-year pact and the Met on one for five years.

No One Wants to Join Grawn School Board

GRAWN (AP)—Two of the three places on this Grand Traverse County community's school board may have to be filled with state aid.

When Ralph Vanderley and Melvin Bonebrake quit the board after a month's service, Harold Kuhlman, the only remaining board member, called a special election to fill the vacancies. No one wanted to be a candidate.

Byron C. Anger, county school superintendent, now has asked the state attorney general's office for help.

Anger said the county school board might be able to fill the openings by appointment. He said annexation proceedings to join another district also might be started.

Red Trawlers in Atlantic Halt U.S. Radar Testing

BEDFORD, Mass. (AP) — The appearance of a vast Soviet fishing fleet off the New England Coast has disrupted vital testing of experimental radar equipment for the nation's air defense.

An Air Force official, who asked that his name be withheld, said Thursday that "many tests of experimental equipment have often shut down because of the Russian fleet."

Some 100 Soviet trawlers and several mother ships as large as freighters have been seen off the coast for months. Some have been observed within 20 miles of Cape Cod. Others were near enough to be visible from Nantucket Island, 30 miles off the Massachusetts Coast.

The pioneer system for radar defense is the SAGE complex developed by Lincoln Laboratory of Massachusetts Insitute of Technology.

Both sides in the cold war use devices known as ferrets in planes and ground installations to detect radar emissions and thereby discover the source, wavelength and other features of the opposing radar system.

Claims Negroes Want Equality, Not Integration

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — A member of the Mississippi State Sovereignty Commission says many of the Negroes in his state do not want integration but only equality.

Erle Johnston Jr. told the Civitan Club that "we have our problems and we've done some things wrong. We've been lax in our acceptance of responsibility for the colored and we're trying to correct it, but we believe wholeheartedly in the individual and in the individual right of choice. . ."

Johnston concluded "we're doing our best to provide education for the Negro; that, I think, is the big answer."

Latin Nation Attacked by Right and Left

Struggling Venezuela Awaits Kennedy's Visit

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP) — President Kennedy arrives Saturday in this nervous capital of shining skyscrapers, superhighways and super-slums to talk about an ambitious Alliance for Progress.

Venezuela's moderate coalition government, under President Romulo Betancourt, is a prime target for abuse and political attack from the combined forces of Castroism and communism.

It is struggling with the vestiges of a recklessly wasteful military dictatorship whose spendthrift leader, Marcos Perez Jimenez, was toppled three years ago. It is trying to fight problems of disease, starvation, poverty and ignorance. It is beset by economic depression and a budget chronically out of balance. It is plagued by complicated and often violent politics.

JFK CHECKING UP

Only a month ago, Betancourt's government broke diplomatic relations with Fidel Castro's Cuban regime. President Betancourt, the butt of violent Castro-Communist propaganda, accused the Cubans of the "most ignoble and insulting language" against Venezuela and of actions—such as interference in Venezuela's domestic affairs—which passed "all limits of tolerance in international relations."

Despite attacks, Betancourt has kept his office 34 months. That is a record for any elected president in Venezuela.

The president has rightist enemies who hanker for the old days of the wasteful, get-rich-quick dictatorship, but their attempts at military coups have failed for lack of support in high places. They have been relatively quiet in recent weeks.

MUCH HARASSMENT

The left gets support from those who see vast disparity between rich and poor, who believe that the Yankees take the nation's wealth out of the country, who are told that Venezuela's vast oil wealth has been plundered by the "North American imperialists."

Venezuela is the second largest oil-producing nation in the world and the largest exporter of petroleum.

The dictatorship spawned a wasteful, highly impractical boom in construction of enormous buildings. When the dictatorship fell, the boom was punctured.

Now economists profess to see indications of recovery. Bank loans are up. More money is in circulation than this time a year ago.

Venezuela expects to get $10 million from the Agency for International Development, an Alliance for Progress agency, to help finance a land reform program. It has asked the Inter-American Development Bank for $32 million and the development loan fund for $10 million to finance low-cost housing projects. It has asked the World Bank for $40 million for road building.

There are about four million dogs in Britain, more than six million cats, and about eight million pet birds.

Kalamazoo Has Master Plan

CD to Use Contracts, Services

KALAMAZOO (AP)—This Western Michigan city Thursday introduced a new approach to civil defense, mobilizing both public and private agencies in the event of enemy attack or natural disaster.

The project calls for the awarding of contracts for goods and services to firms and labor organizations, while at the same time utilizing local resources.

Needed supplies, such as food, medical items and transportation equipment, and services would be drawn from cooperating organizations. They would be paid for after the emergency was over.

So far, 65 Kalamazoo organizations—including Teamsters Local 7—have accepted tentative contracts from the city.

ALREADY SKILLED

One of the biggest advantages of the programs, planners say, would be that civil defense work would be done by persons already skilled in the jobs they would perform.

Carpenters and builders, for example, would be put to work constructing emergency housing.

Reimbursement would cover wages, fringe benefits, equipment rental, plus a 5 per cent management fee. Payment for goods will be based on wholesale prices in effect 30 days before the emergency.

The Teamsters have agreed to pay participating members on a straight-time basis.

The project, the result of a year-long study conducted by the Kalamazoo Municipal Research Bureau and financed by $11,000 from the U.S. Office of Emergency Planning (OEP) gives top priority to medical treatment, feeding and sheltering of refugees in the metropolitan Kalamazoo area.

"We can feed and house 75,000 refugees—everyone, in fact, who comes to us for help," said city manager Clarence H. Elliott.

Junior Miss Entries Sought by C. of C.

The area semifinals will be held at 1 p.m. Jan. 6 at Pontiac Northern High, publicity chairman Charles J. Brouillet announced today.

Winner of the area contest will compete in the state finals Feb. 3, also at Northern High, and has a chance to compete for the America's Junior Miss title March 24 in Mobile, Ala.

Official Sicks Owners on Mailman-Eating Dogs

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — December traditionally is "bite the postman season," said Postmaster James E. Workman Jr. in asking Jacksonville residents to keep their dogs penned until after Christmas.

Dogs familiar with regular mailmen often bite temporary carriers employed to help with the heavy holiday mail, he said. Last December 16 Jacksonville postmen required medical treatment for dog bites.

We Dine With Windsors in Candlelight and Small Talk

(Editor's Note: Would you like to share an evening with the Duke and Duchess of home outside Paris? On the 25th anniversary of Windsor's abdication as King Edward VIII of England, Bob Considine visited the Windsors.)

By BOB CONSIDINE

PARIS — One of the scarce servants of the Duke and Duchess of Windsor tapped on the door of the upholstered former cowshed which was my quarters at their country place, lighted his flashlight to part the cold wet night, and led me across the ankle-threatening stones of the courtyard to the "big house" for dinner.

The Duchess was in the cozy little reception room. The light from the blazing fireplace was flattering, though she still needs no such flattery — from either the logs or the writer. She was in something black, with green shoes, green-stone bracelet and five strands of pearls.

The Duke came down from the second floor of the 17th century miller's abode, accompanied by a couple of their four pug dogs, an all but extinct species, as dog styles go.

The Duchess, a fine hostess, had said offhandedly earlier in the day that the Duke usually dressed for dinner, whether there were guests or not.

I had brought along a dinner jacket with crazy mixed-up horizontally pleated skirt and secretly expected some little recognition from a couple prennially mentioned among the best dressed persons in the world.

The Ducess had not noticed, nor did the Duke when he sat down and ordered a predinner drink. It was understandable.

The Duke's tuxedo was done in one of his family plaids. His socks were Argyle. His "black tie" was as thick and broad as the mustache of a red-headed RAF ace. We had a drink and, rather wildly, the talk turned to television again.

LIKED TELEVISION

"I got interested in your television because I like baseball very much," the Duke said, looking into a little bowl of Polish vodka. "I was having a manicure at our place in the Waldorf, actually, and on came the series. Fascinating. I got so interested in television, in time, that I began watching the late, late Westerns. That's shameful, of course. I even picked up some of your commercials."

I was about to ask a question when it became apparent that he was not finished with the thought. He cleared his throat and then in the most jovial manner said: "Double your pleasure, double your fun, Doublemint, Doublemint, Doublemint gum."

The Duchess smiled.

"I learned another one during the TV golf matches," the Duke continued. Then he sang the Miller's High Life theme.

"French television is so bad," the Duchess said. "The news is excellent, but before you get it and sometimes after you get it there's a play or a sad song. French television women stars usually throw themselves into the Seine at the end of each show. Shall we dine?"

The dining room at the Windsors' palace is on the lower level, candle-lighted and in great taste; the great taste includes the grub.

"The French oysters are much better," the Duchess, a renowned authority on haute cuisine, said during that course. "They have a copper taste. I can't bear American oysters. They're so mushy. Dungeness crab. That's different. There's nothing better than the Dungeness at '21' in New York.

The Duke said something about the main course, grouse sent to him by the Duke of Buccleuch.

"It's spelled Bookloosh and pronounced Baklush," he added. "Very old and I might say very rich family."

REMEMBERED A NAME

The Duchess placed a fastidious index finger on the button of a metal turtle near her plate and a bell-buzzer rang with startling clarity. She noticed that the guest, who had been about to take a sip of Scotch, had poured it in his eye.

"When the Duke remembers a name at dinner I always ring the buzzer," the Duchess said merrily. "Women are so much better than men at remembering names, haven't you noticed? Time and time again a husband fumbles around at a party and finally, in desperation, whispers to his wife, 'What's his name?' The wife always remembers. Women also make very good executives."

There was a pause at the table.

"Name ten," the guest said, after a bit. The Duchess wasn't faxed.

"Well," she said stoutly, though she still fits into a size eight, "There's Mrs. Ulrich Bay, now Mrs. Raul, a member of the New York Stock Exchange. And Mary Roebling, president of a bank in Trenton, New Jersey. I think Mary Lasker is a fine business woman. So were Peggy Joyce and Marion Davies. Then there's Mrs. Mortimer Davis, Margaret Biddle certainly was a good one, and so was Dorothy Shaver of Lord and Taylor's. I don't even know the people in the Middle West and the West, but I'm sure there are dozens of fine businesswomen there.

"Oh, and what about Marjorie Post? Marjorie keeps tabs on everybody who eats a Post Toastie. She tests new products at General Foods. She's terrific at meetings. If I had a fortune like Marjorie's, I'd taste the products, too."

It was as pleasant after dinner as before and during. The talk was about travel, mainly, and Switzerland inevitably came in.

"A terrifically well-ordered place, Switzerland," the Duchess said. "The Swiss have no show of wealth. They have developed the art of being inconspicuous. We know a couple of Swiss bankers who must be among the richest men in the world, but they always stay at small, cheap places."

The Duchess went into the adjoining room, the bar-TV room, and soon called out that the news was on. The Duke and I went through the low-slung door, stooping. Chancellor Adenauer was on screen, arriving for his talks on Berlin with President De Gaulle.

"Adenauer's a fine man," the Duke said, settling into his chair in the little room, and talking above the commentator.

"Shhh" the Duchess said. "I want to hear the news." She halfturned to the guest. "He talks during the news," she said.

"I do, at that," the Duke agreed amiably.

As De Gaulle and Adenauer went through their paces and the commentator gabbed in French, I looked about the pleasant place and was struck by an embroidered cushion in one of the chairs. On the cushion was sewn this legend: "Don't look now, somebody may be gaining on you." (In my room was a cushion reading, "Smile at the poorest tramp as you would at the highest king.")

Scenes from the war in the Congo were on when I looked back at the TV screen. The Duke picked up Disraeli, one of the pugs.

"We're living in terrible times," he said. He was about to go on, but the scene changed into a discussion on French labor-management problems and the Duke, whose French is uncertain, said, "Terrible. Now if they had Social Security in the states. . ."

"They certainly do have Social Security in the states," the Duchess said without turning her head from the screen. "Wait a minute. This is marvelous."

"The Duchess knows French so much better than I," the Duke said regretfully.

(Next: Conclusion of the Duke's story, and some thoughts on his family.)

Dems Switching to Be Conservative Republicans

By RUTH MONTGOMERY

WASHINGTON — Conservative Republicanism would seem to be a dynamic new force, judging by the number of recent converts who have switched sides to run for high public office on the GOP slate in 1962.

The probable Republican nominees for the Senate in Missouri and New Hampshire, and for governor in Texas are former Democrats who have taken up the banner of GOP conservatism.

The man voted most likely to win the GOP senatorial nomination in Missouri next summer is R. Crosby Kemper, a young, wealthy conservative who hails from a long line of prominent Democrats.

Six feet 7½ inches tall, the 34-year-old candidate used to be an enthusiastic money raiser for Sen. Stuart Symington, until he made a study of Stu's voting record and decided that it was "100 per cent left-wing."

The shock sent him head-long into the Republican party, despite the fact that his grandfather, William Kemper, had been a Democratic national committeeman, and his entire heritage is dyed-in-the-wool Democratic.

President of the City National Bank of Kansas City, young Kemper has made thousands of speeches as president of numerous civic, charitable and professional organizations.

He's a joiner, and an articulate conservative. As such he could do much to buck up the flagging spirits of the diminishing band of in recent years has become far more liberal than the House. If Kemper wins the nomination, his Democratic opponent will probably be incumbent Sen. Edward V. Long, who is serving out the term of the late Thomas C. Hennings. Kemper says he has not "deserted" his family by turning Republican, but "the Democratic party has left me."

He adds: "I want to do something for my country, and I believe the Republican party offers the only substantial something the country can rally around."

The successor to the late Styles Bridges' Senate seat, New Hampshire Atty. Gen. Maurice J. Murphy Jr., will run for election next fall.

Like Kemper, he is 34 and a Republican convert. Son of a Democratic mayor, he switched his own political affiliation in 1953, and will run as a right-wing Republican "in the Bridges tradition."

AN ULTRACONSERVATIVE

The only Republican who has declared for the Texas governorship next year is Jack Cox, a former Democratic candidate for governor who is an ultraconservative.

Having found that his political heart belonged to Republicanism, Cox switched sides only a few months ago. His most likely Democratic opponent will be John Connally, protege of Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, who resigned this week as secretary of the Navy in order to make the race.

Inasmuch as Texas twice went Republican for Dwight D. Eisenhower, and only this year elected GOP Sen. John G. Tower, Lone Star state politicians are no longer so sanguine about the internecine strife that has long plagued the Democratic party there.

Republican conservatives cheered the news this week that Sen. Bourke Hickenlooper will seek his fourth term from Iowa, but they shuddered at the thought that Welfare Secretary Abraham Ribicoff may quit Washington to run against Sen. Prescott Bush in Connecticut.

BEST VOTE-GETTER

Ribicoff in time past has proved to be the state's best vote-getter. If he abandons hope of an early appointment to the Supreme Court, he may be persuaded to plunge back into state politics.

After all, senators have considerably more independence than Cabinet officers, and former Gov. Ribicoff was used to being his own man.

They were not cheered when some liberal Republicans advanced the name of Milton Eisenhower, president of Johns Hopkins University, as his possible successor.

Milton, youngest of the five Eisenhower brothers, is the one that Edgar Eisenhower once publicly accused of pushing President Eisenhower "too far to the left to suit me."

Gagarin's Flight Voted Top News Story of '61

NEW YORK (UPI) — Man's first space voyage around the earth — Soviet Maj. Yuri Gagarin's orbit and safe return — headed the list of "ten biggest news stories of 1961" announced today by United Press International.

The space age and international tension dominated the list. The Gagarin flight was far ahead in voting for the top spot. The dealing of the Berlin East-West border was second; the U.S. astronaut flight took third.

The annual poll is taken among editors representing hundreds of UPI subscribing newspapers in the United States and Canada; in many cases the ballots were a staff consensus.

Here is the 1961 list:

1. Major Gagarin of Russia becomes first man to orbit earth and return.
2. East Germany seals border between East and West Berlin.
3. Cmdr. Alan B. Shepard Jr. becomes United States' first astronaut.
4. U.N. Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold killed in airplane crash.
5. Anti-Castro exiles land in unsuccessful attempt to overthrow Castro government.
6. Soviet Union ends A-test moratorium.
7. Kennedy inaugrated 35th president.
8. Russia detonates nuclear explosion of more than 50 megatons.
9. Portuguese and Spanish exiles hijack Portuguese cruise ship Santa Maria.
10. Roger Maris sets home run record.

Runners-up included: Adolph Eichmann tried and convicted by Israel; Hurricane Carla hits Texas; Security Council authorizes U.N. troops to use force in Congo; U.S. marshals move in after mobs attack "freedom riders" in Montgomery, Ala.; Kennedy tells U.N. West is prepared to fight over Berlin; and Kennedy and Khrushchev confer in Vienna.

Important facts about a Savings Bond that pays you current income

United States Series H Savings Bonds never fluctuate in value—and pay you interest by check twice a year

Every year the Treasury Department writes interest checks totalling some $175 million and mails them out to U.S. Series H Savings Bond owners.

If you buy an H Bond today, you'll get your first check in the mail in just six months. You'll keep on getting interest checks twice a year thereafter, at an average 3¼% rate, until the bond matures 10 years from now. The U.S. Government guarantees it. Meanwhile your bond is redeemable at par anytime after the first six months, on one month's notice.

Why buy Series H Bonds?

Series H Bonds are especially good if you're retired, or if you're simply looking for a completely safe way to receive regular income. Many folks invest inheritance funds or insurance proceeds in H Bonds, secure in the knowledge that both principal and interest are guaranteed.

Another nice thing about H Bonds is the fact that you can "buy" them by trading in your E Bonds. And you can defer paying the tax on accumulated E Bond interest until you cash the H Bonds.

20 interest checks—guaranteed

Here's how H Bonds work: When you buy a $500 H Bond, your first three checks will be $4.00, $7.25 and $8.00. Thereafter, you'll receive $10.00 every six months to maturity. H Bonds also come in $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000 denominations.

Every Savings Bond you buy is a share in a stronger, safer America. Why not ask your banker for the details now?

Bonds are burglar-proof! Once you buy a Bond, you own it for keeps. Uncle Sam will replace it free if it's stolen, destroyed, or just plain lost.

You save more than money with LEADERS CONFER — Detroit's major-elect, Jerome Cavanagh calls on Gov. John B. Swainson in Lansing Thursday to talk over mutual problems. Cavanagh said later he is behind Swainson's plan for a state income tax. He added a city income tax may be necessary if the governor's plan fails.

State Income Tax Plan Backed by Cavanagh

Any income tax should be enacted and administered at the state level, he said Thursday, but added:

"If the legislature does nothing to meet the very serious needs of the City of Detroit, I may have to support a city income tax."

The 33-year-old mayor-elect and the governor, three years his senior, conferred for an hour in private, discussing matters of mutual concern.

Cavanagh said he is studying and analyzing Detroit's financial troubles and "early in the year" will decide what should be done to bring in more revenue. A city income tax, if the state doesn't help out, is one of several tax proposals under consideration, he said.

Cavanagh told newsmen that Supreme Court Justice George C. Edwards is the only state official who has been approached for a job in the new Detroit administration. Edwards will leave the bench at the end of the year to become the city's police commissioner.

Swainson met Cavanagh several years ago when he was practicing law in Detroit.

The mayor-elect, describing himself as "a practical-minded liberal Democrat," said he is strictly nonpartisan on matters that concern his duties as mayor.

Rev. King Asks Executive Order

Integrationist Is Urging Second Emancipation Proclamation

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — The Rev. Martin Luther King Jr. has appealed to President Kennedy for a "second emancipation proclamation" to end segregation.

The Negro integration leader made his plea Thursday night after New Orleans officials canceled a Municiple Auditorium mass meeting he was to have addressed.

"You may cancel a meeting," King said, "but you can't cancel the date New Orleans and the South has with destiny. You can't cancel our determination the Negro has to be free in this day and age."

King, who said he would go today to the scene of mass Negro arrests in Albany, Ga., labeled charges he was an agitator as "trumped-up."

A church packed with about 1,000 persons gave King a standing ovation. The Consumer's League, a New Orleans Negro group, announced a boycott against white merchants starting Saturday, and a registration march to the vote registrar's office Tuesday.

"The hour has come for the President of the United States to issue an executive order declaring segregation unconstitutional on the basis of the 14th Amendment," said King.

Negroes have been freed only of "physical" slavery, he said. King urged President Kennedy to complete the job with a second emancipation proclamation.

Thomas J. Heier Jr., the city's chief administrative officer, revoked the Consumer League's permit for the 5,500-seat auditorium. Segregationist groups had protested the meeting, calling King an agitator, and city officials said they feared violence.

The league got a court order blocking the cancellation but the State Circuit Court of Appeal later upheld the city's action.

The meeting was switched to the Union Bethel Church.

The President last met the press on Nov. 29.

U.N. Voting Today on Red China Seat

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —The General Assembly headed for a showdown vote today on Communist China's annual bid for United Nations membership. The United States was still confident the Reds would be kept out.

Balloting was expected late today on whether to give Nationalist China's seat in the world organization to the Peiping regime. The assembly for two weeks has debated the issue the United States had managed to keep on the shelf for 10 years.

Four votes were anticipated.

1. On a motion to give priority to a U.S. resolution declaring the China issue a question of substance requiring a two-thirds majority for adoption. But the priority resolution itself is procedural and requires only a simple majority for passage.

2. On the U.S. "substance" resolution itself, another procedural issue requiring only a simple majority.

3. On a neutralist amendment to give the Chinese seat to Peiping but to drop the Soviet demand for expulsion of the Nationalists.

4. On the Soviet resolution to expel the Nationalists and seat Peiping.

In a final round of assembly debate Thursday night, chief U.S. delegate Adlai E. Stevenson warned that adoption of the Soviet resolution would arm the Peiping regime with "a United Nations license to make war."

He recalled a statement by Soviet Delegate Valerian A. Zorin insisting on Peiping's right to liquidate President Chiang Kai-shek's regime on Formosa by force.

The United States is believed to have the support of most of the 13-nation Brazzaville group of former French African colonies as the result of a deal in which the Nationalists lifted their veto threat against Communist Mongolia to secure U.N. membership for Mauritania, another former French colony.

The United States also is reported to have the support of nearly all the 20 Latin-American nations except Cuba, plus a scattering throughout Western Europe and Asia.

ATOMIC-POWERED BUOY — The Atomic Energy Commission released this drawing of what it termed the world's first atom-powered buoy. The buoy will be placed in Curtis Bay, southeast of Baltimore, Md., this week. Storage batteries located in the upper section of the buoy are recharged by a strontium 90 fueled power system in the base.

Panama Breaks Ties With Castro Regime

PANAMA (AP)—Panama broke diplomatic relations with Fidel Castro's government Thursday night leaving only 8 of the 21 nations in the Western Hemisphere —including Canada—still on talking terms with the Red regime in Cuba.

Castro in a speech Saturday had invited Panama to cut ties by denouncing it as "another government of traitors and accomplices of the Yankee imperialists.

Batteries May Replace Today's Electric Cords

NEW YORK (UPI) — The electric cord may be about to go the way of the buggy whip.

The secret of this new scientific phenomenon is the rechargeable nickel cadmium battery, first used in America for a multiple-head shaver by Remington Electric Shavers. This new invention means portable electricity — say an iron that heats without being plugged in.

Nike-Zeus Fires Successfully for the Seventh Time

POINT MUGU, Calif. (UPI) — The slender, 48-foot Nike-Zeus rocket was fired successfully for the seventh consecutive time Thursday.

The object of the test was to see if the missile could withstand sharp, radio-command maneuvers in heavy atmosphere. Friction caused the missile to glow red hot but Nike Zeus performed well, the Army said.

Only the two main stages of the three-stage Zeus were tested. No target was involved. The third stage will carry a nuclear warhead designed to destroy nuclear weapons without detonating them.

Executive Talks in Chrysler Suit

Head of Freight Lines Tells of Poor Service From New Carrier

CATLETTSBURG, Ky. (AP) — The President of one of the nation's major freight lines testified Thursday, in a $1.5-million suit against Chrysler Corp., that the plaintiff's Interstate Commerce Commission permit was worth $180,000-$225,000 at one time.

S. H. Mitchell, Winston Salem, N.C., president of Dennis Freight Lines, testified in behalf of Crawford Transport Co., whose owner, E. S. Crawford of Ashland, is suing Chrysler and Commercial Carriers, Inc. He contends the defendants conspired to put his firm out of business.

Crawford's ICC permit was worth between $180,000-$250,000 as of Aug. 31, 1957 when Chrysler ceased to deal with Crawford, Mitchell testified before Judge Mac Swinford.

Mitchell said the permit now is dormant and that rights without customers are worth nothing.

Embry Lagrew, Lexington, operator of Lagrew Motors, testified that after Commercial Carriers replaced Crawford as a carrier of automobiles, delivery service became very bad.

"It costs us $10-$15 more per car from Commercial than from Crawford," he said.

Dies in Trailer Fire

DETROIT (AP) — The body of Mrs. Helen Barker, 47, was found Thursday night in her trailer home Dearborn Township. Police said the woman apparently was burned fatally when her clothing was set afire by a cigarette.

An old Vermont law once required that conductors on railway trains must read passages of the Bible to those travelers who chose to take their trips on Sundays.

Car Checks Out Tracks

CHICAGO (UPI)—A laboratory car introduced by the NCG Division of Chemetron Corp., moves along a railroad track recording on a roll of paper complete information on the level, spacing, tilt, curve and smoothness of the track.

A new method of fingerprinting has been demonstrated. It is an optical system which projects the image on a screen for observation or photographs it for filing.

Latin Nations Hard for U.S. to Understand

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON — President Kennedy's goodwill trip to Colombia and Venezuela is a journey to lands hard for Americans to imagine.

Venezuela has had about two honest elections in its history and more than 20 constitutions. For the rest of the time this country of seven million people has lived under dictators, some of them savage.

20 CONSTITUTIONS

Neighboring Colombia, with about 14 million people, has had more than 20 constitutions, more than 20 civil wars. The dictatorships were relatively few but some were beauts. For Colombians elections have real significance.

* * *

Right now both countries have fairly middle-road presidents: Romulo Betancourt in Venezuela and Alberto Lleras Camargo in Colombia.

Betancourt has been a punching bag for Castroites and Communists — both groups consider him their chief enemy in Latin America—and for extreme right-ists who want the get-rich-days of dictatorship back.

Betancourt's election in 1958 was one of the two honest ones. The first was in 1947 when Romulo Gallegos was chosen president but lasted only 10 months. A military junta threw him out.

UNDER DICTATORS

In those 11 years Venezuela had some of its worst dictatorship, most notoriously under the brutal Marcos Perez Jimenez whose graft-ridden regime loaded the jails with political prisoners.

The fact that President Eisenhower presented him with the Legion of Merit didn't sit well with Venezuelans who got so fed up that the various political parties joined forces with the army and navy to throw him out in 1958.

Betancourt is trying to cope with Venezuela's ancient problems of disease, starvation, poverty, ignorance, joblessness and lack of housing. In Venezuela there is tremendous concentration of land in the hands of a comparatively few families. A year ago Betancourt set forth on a big land reform program.

* * *

There the big industry is oil and the big oil companies are foreign. The anti-American forces accuse them of draining away Venezuela's wealth. The best-paid Venezuelan workers are in the oil fields. But there's a big gap between what they earn and what other workers get, when they can find a job.

TWO POINTS OF VIEW

In Colombia there has been almost endless struggle between two main groups, Liberals and Conservatives, and two dominating points of view.

For most of its history there was little communication between the cities of Colombia. The country is broken up by mountains, plains and plateaus.

The result has been struggle between the Conservatives who wanted a strong central government and the Liberals demanding sovereign rights for the various Colombian states.

That's been one point of struggle. The second big one was between both groups over the power of the Catholic Church, with Conservatives insisting on traditional privileges for the clergy and the Liberals wanting complete separation of church and state.

JOINED FORCES

Colombia's President Lleras was elected in 1957 when Liberals and Conservatives, perhaps to their own astonishment, got so fed up with the dictatorship of his predecessor that they were able to join forces to throw him out.

* * *

For years before Lleras took over, the struggle between Conservatives and Liberals — and sometimes guerrillas adopted both names—cost hundreds of thousands of lives.

* * *

Guerrillas are extremely busy killing now particularly on the highways and farms. A recent Associated Press story from Colombia described how the guerrillas stop a highway bus, force the passengers off, take their money and then chop their heads off.

The story said this kind of murder takes a toll of 100 lives a month.

Bandit Assists in Own Capture, Blows Out Tire

LEANDRO, Calif. (AP) — A holdup man speeding away from a supermarket robbery fossed a shotgun out the car window Thursday and as it struck the pavement it discharged and blew out his own tire.

Pursuing police captured the man and a companion.

The two had bad luck from the start.

A customer in the store was Betty Peters, wife of an Oakland police sergeant. She carefully studied the man, looked over his companion in a waiting car, took down the car license and notified police. In nearby Oakland, Sgt. George Rothacher saw the car whiz by and gave chase.

Police said the $269 loot was found in the pocket of William L. Brown, 37, of Oakland. He and his companion, Cecil D. Moore, Oakland, were booked on robbery charges.

'Hold Up Funds for Nike-Zeus'

Chicago News Story Alleges Administration Turns Down Request

CHICAGO (AP)—The Chicago Daily News said Thursday it has learned that production funds for the Army's long-sought Nike-Zeus missile killer system have been withheld by the Kennedy administration.

The News said in a copyrighted dispatch by James McCartney from Washington that a multimillion-dollar allotment for initial production of the Nike-Zeus was turned down in an effort to trim the nation's defense budget.

McCartney said that as late as Wednesday night, Army officials had not been informed of the decision. He said they felt after a budgetary session at the President's summer home in Hyannis Port, Mass., 2½ weeks ago that Kennedy was sympathetic to their cause.

"He was," the story said, "but apparently the burgeoning defense budget had to be clipped somewhere."

McCartney said he had learned exclusively "on unquestionable authority" of the decision last weekend by top budget and defense officials in Washington.

Milk Dispensers Boost People's Drinking Quota

BURLINGTON, Vt. (UPI) — "Families with milk dispensers tend to drink more milk," according to James Sykes, University of Vermont assistant agricultural economist.

He said refrigerated dispensers protect the milk from the light and keep it at a constant temperature which preserves the milk.

FIRST AND LAST—Grandma Moses, primitive painter who died Wednesday at the age of 101, turned out 'Sugaring Off' (top) in 1939 at the start of her late-in-life career as an artist. The country workmen were shown drawing maple sap from the trees on a snowy landscape. The bottom painting, done in June of this year, was her last artistic effort. It is titled 'Rainbow.'

Board OKs Estimate for Stadium Lights

The Pontiac Board of Education last night approved a preliminary study and cost estimate of installing new lights in Wisner Stadium.

The study is to be made by Eberle M. Smith, Inc., of Detroit.

The firm also was given a contract to study needs for new boilers and give cost estimates of conversion of present coal furnaces to gas or oil at Pontiac Central High School.

This contract was approved only after the board whittled down the architect-engineer firm's percentage of the total expected cost to 6 per cent.

The firm had asked 7 per cent because of additional engineering-drawing work involved in tracing conduits in two existing 34-year-old stand-by boilers.

A new publication issued by the school district made its debut on board tables last night.

It is called the School District City of Pontiac "Quarterly" and is intended to serve primarily as a newsletter to teachers and other district personnel, according to Dr. Philip J. Proud, assistant superintendent.

Copies will be sent also to others interested in the schools.

The board praised the appearance of Volume 1, Number 1 of the Quarterly, which is printed by students in the Central High School print shop.

In other business, the administration asked guidance from the board on the theme for the 1962 annual report to be issued in the spring.

Board members expressed preference for two themes, already favored by principals and supervisors. These are:

1—Your Child in Our Schools—"Individualized Learning."

2—Our Heritage and Our Schools.

Jet Fuel Use Sets Mark

NEW YORK (UPI)—Consumption of jet engine fuel surpassed that of regular aviation gas back in 1955, according to industry sources. It said consumption of jet fuel is expected to reach the impressive total of one million barrels a day by next year.

Set Program for Children

Dance, Puppet Shows Slated at Institute of Arts

A vacation program for children, featuring the Dance-A-Long Company of Wayne State University and the Pinwheel Puppets of Gordon Westphal, will be given Wednesday, Dec. 27, at 10:30 a.m. and 2 p.m. in the Lecture Hall of the Detroit Institute of Arts.

The Dance-A-Long Company, members of the WSU Dance Workshop directed by Harriet Berg, will present "The Story of Pepito," based on the children's book written and illustrated by Eugene Fern.

Pepito, a boy who loves to dance, is teased about it by his friends, until they discover how his dance brings happiness to an unhappy friend. The children's dance-drama includes a funny-bone mayor and two talking flowers in its cast.

Gordon Westphal, Detroit puppeteer who writes his own plays and designs and constructs the puppets and scenery as well as performing all the parts in the shows, will present a fantasy entitled "The Christmas Knight." Hero of the play is Filbert, a shy frog who wants to be a knight in shining armor.

Tickets are available at Grinnell's downtown Detroit and at the museum's publications desk. The program is sponsored by the museum's education department and the Detroit Puppet Theater.

Holds Party

Mrs. Richard DeShetler opened her home on Lakewood Drive, Watkins Lake, Wednesday, for the Christmas buffet dinner and gift exchange for members of the Zeta Phi Zeta Sorority.

Plans were discussed for the coming year.

Cards Set Yule Tone

NEW YORK — The miracle of Christmas, its origin in Bethlehem and the universal reverence paid to it today, is dramatically portrayed on this year's religious Christmas greeting cards.

Many of the new designs were inspired by familiar Biblical passages. Scenes of the Nativity are especially popular — guardian angels attend the Infant Jesus; humble shepherds again worship at the manger.

On one card, the Three Wise Men bring their symbolic gifts to the Christ Child — gold to acknowledge His worldly reign; frankincense as a token of the reverence due Him; and myrrh, with its bitter-sweet scent, to prophesy sadness.

There is, in fact, a Christmas card to retell each event in sequence — from the time Mary and Joseph were turned away at the inn, until the Holy Family made their Flight into Egypt.

Reproductions of religious paintings of the Renaissance are also included in the Christmas card illustrations.

Modern attitudes toward this holy season make up another popular theme. Whimsical little cherubs from celestial symphonies, or come to earth to hang holly wreaths and decorate fabulous Christmas trees.

Churchgoers attend Christmas services, and surpliced choirs sing joyous hymns on many other handsome creations.

There are other religious Christmas cards, too, that convey special messages, such as, "The Prayer of St. Francis of Assisi," and "The Legend of the Christmas Rose." One unusual card includes "The Little Bible," a miniature volume that has selections from every book of the Bible in it.

Christmas card publishers report that in recent years, the number of these truly reverent Christmas cards has been increasing tremendously.

Ten years ago, only about 10 per cent of the Christmas cards were religious in character. Recent surveys indicate that during the 1961 Christmas season approximately 30 per cent of the three billion Christmas cards going through the mails will be religious in design and message.

Commenting on this remarkable increase in the sending of Christian Christmas greeting cards, Rev. Dr. Jesse M. Bader, general secretary of the World Convention of Churches of Christ, with headquarters in New York, recently said: "We need now even more than any other time in this century to rediscover the rich and full meaning of Christmas and how best to observe it. We need to recover the real meaning of Christmas as told in the stories of the birth of Christ given in the New Testament."

Dr. Bader said further, "One way to appropriately celebrate the birthday of Christ on Christmas is to send Christian Christmas greeting cards which carry the Christmas message and which honor Christ."

Dr. Bader believes that in spite of the critical world situation we are facing today, the 1961 Christmas season will be one of the best America has ever known. When there are "wars and rumors of wars," the Prince of Peace has a message for the world.

"It is my prediction," said Dr. Bader, "that there will be more Christmas music and sermons in the churches, on the radio and on the TV this Christmas than ever before. There will be more window displays with Christmas scenes and more carol-singing in communities across our land; there will be a much greater exchange of appropriate religious Christmas cards. Why? Because our world needs the Christ of Christmas now more than ever."

Dr. Bader then made this significant statement, "Last year, 4.3 million babies were born in America. We have never had so many children in our land who are under 12 years of age. They need to be told the real meaning of Christmas and how to celebrate it appropriately. Many children learn rather soon in their Christian experience that one of the things people do is to send and receive Christmas cards. Parents can be helpful to their children to be sure that the Christmas cards they send honor Christ whose birthday they are helping to celebrate in their homes and in their churches."

ANN BAUMGARTNER

June vows are planned by Ann Baumgartner, daughter of the Max Baumgartners of Berkley, to James A. Corwin Jr., son of the James A. Corwins of Bloomfield Hills. She attends Albion College where her fiance received his degree. He is enrolled at Babson Institute, Babson Park, Mass.

Women's Unit Meets Tonight

A Christmas cooperative dinner is planned this evening at Roosevelt Masonic Temple by Esther Court No. 13, Order of the Amaranth. Mrs. E. A. Pearson is dinner chairman; and Mrs. Laura Walte, program chairman.

At Monday's meeting in the temple arrangements for a Christmas philanthropic project were made.

Mrs. John Balch announced committees for a Jan. 5 card party at First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Oakland's building. Mrs. Earl Ross, ticket chairman, will be assisted by Catherine McCrindle.

Community Concert Sunday at 3

Pontiac's annual Community Christmas Concert is slated for 3 p.m. Sunday in the Pontiac Central High School gymnasium.

The event, featuring the 700 voices of the combined vocal departments of Pontiac Central and Pontiac Northern High schools, plus the MacDowell Male Chorus and Pontiac Women's Chorus, is one of the area's highlights of the Christmas musical season.

In addition to the choruses The Pontiac Youth Symphony Orchestra will perform this year, playing "A Christmas Festival" by Leroy Anderson. The orchestra also will appear with the vocalists in two other selections, "A Little Christmas Cantata" and the "Hallelujah Chorus" from "The Messiah" by Handel.

Numerous groups will perform. Local ensembles including the Chrystalaires, Caribbeans, Choralaires, Scarlettones and Senior Girls' Ensemble will be heard. Larger groups appearing will be the Pontiac Northern Choir, directed by Melvin Larimer; the Pontiac Central A Cappella Choir, led by Jerry Libby; and Pontiac Central's Selective Girls' Glee Club, directed by A. Michael Dempsey.

AUDIENCE TO SING TOO

Robert Stasiuk, Lincoln Junior High School vocal instructor, will conduct familiar carols for audience participation. These will be accompanied by a small brass ensemble from Pontiac Central High School.

Traditional special segment of the program is singing of the last three numbers. Former members of the schools' vocal departments again will be invited to join the vocal groups in offering two chorales from Bach's "The Christmas Oratorio." They are "Beside Thy Cradle Here I Stand" and "Break Forth, O Beauteous, Heavenly Light."

The program will conclude with the "Hallelujah Chorus," directed by George H. Putnam, secondary music supervisor.

The public has been invited to attend the program. There will be no admission charge.

Pontiac Northern High School's choir will present several selections at Sunday's annual Community Christmas Concert. Northern vocalists who will be among the 700 voices joining for the concert include (from left) Herb Grant, Jackie Vallad, Patricia Largent and Gilbert Carlisle.

Don't Object, Abby Advises

Go to Family Yule Dinner

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: For 18 years my husband, our children and I have gone to his parents for Christmas dinner. He comes from a large clannish family, and all his sisters and brothers and their children attend this dinner.

ABBY

The whole gang totals 44 so you can picture the commotion.

This year I want to have my own Christmas dinner with just my husband, our three children and myself.

When I suggested it, my husband blew his top. He said his parents were getting on in years, and after they are gone we can have our own Christmas dinner, but while they are living we should go to their home.

Abby, I do not care to wait until his parents die to enjoy a quiet Christmas dinner at home. What is your suggestion?

HATES MOB SCENES

DEAR HATES: Button your lip, put cotton in your ears and go! If you yearn for a quiet Christmas dinner at home, make your own on Christmas Eve.

DEAR ABBY: I am 12 years old and need your help desperately. I like this one boy very much but I don't think he likes me. I call him up, write to him and have all my friends ask him what the thinks of me but it isn't doing much good. I am fairly cute. Could you please give me some advice on how to get this certain boy without being a pest? Thanks loads.

LOSING OUT

DEAR LOSING: No wonder you are "losing out." No boy wants to be stalked like an animal. Leave him completely along. And in the future, if you want a boy to become interested in you, let HIM do the chasing.

DEAR ABBY: My problem is my 14-year-old son, who still wets the bed. I have talked to him, but it does no good. I have taken him to our family doctor, and he says there is nothing wrong with the boy.

I've threatened to use diapers, and in a couple of days I just might. Do you think that would stop him? But even if it doesn't would it be a good way to keep the bed in good condition?

FRANTIC

DEAR FRANTIC: No 14-year-old boy wets the bed because he "wants to." It is unpleasant for the boy.

When the doctor said "there is nothing wrong with him," he meant "physically." Bed wetting is frequently an emotional problem. Don't shame, scold or lecture your son. Wash the sheet, say nothing, and eventually your problem will disappear.

CONFIDENTIAL TO M. M. K.: You are mistaken. The only all white dress at the wedding should be the bride's. It's HER day. Wear something else.

Don't Force Your Child Into Hypocrisy

MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Dear Mrs. Lawrence:

Our 7-year-old son attends the Sunday school of my husband's church. Several weeks ago he was tripped by another boy as he was going downstairs to his Sunday school class.

He hit the other child and was reprimanded by his teacher for not seeing the other boy with "eyes of love."

Now he doesn't want to go to Sunday school. My husband can't see that he is afraid of this boy. Please discuss this problem because my husband respects your opinions.

ANSWER: All right.

Sir, "loving" our enemies requires a spiritual development that is rarely achieved by 7-year-old people, let alone the rest of us.

The sentimental lady who has demanded this developemnt from your little boy is less likely to produce Christian feeling in him than a lowered self-confidence.

As Jesus encountered enmity in others, your son will repeatedly comeup against the kind of hostility that tripped him on his way down to Sunday school class. If every time he meets it, he feels obliged to love it, the fact that he resents it will make him feel himself to be morally deficient, a disappointment to God.

The difference between the anger he does feel and the "love" he's been taught he ought to feel can result in an abiding contempt for what he is — a state too deeply discouraging to provide solid root to genuine religious feeling.

When we teach a child that everyone is well-intentioned toward him, we compel him to credit himself with all the blame for anything that goes wrong with his human relationships. Many grownups suffer from the effects of this romantic teaching. As registering the presence of hostility in others has been forbidden to us, we are not only unable to take steps to protect ourselves against it but must also condemn ourselves for the inevitable resentment it arouses in us.

In my Biblical concordance, the Pharisees are described as "hypocritical and proudly self-righteous." As you know, the master Christian had no use for their claims to virtue that they had not dveveloped.

Now your little boy is afraid of the aggressor in his Sunday school. That is sad. But things can become a lot sadder if "love" for the enemy continues to be imposed on him without regard to his ability to give it.

If you don't want to teach him the Pharisee's skill in pretending to virtue he doesn't possess, leave him alone until he makes the choice to return to Sunday school.

Men Still Thinking of Wives as Girls

BY RUTH MILLETT
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Several pert and pretty teenagers were discussing the attitude of their fathers to the teen-agers' experiments with extréme hairdos, eye make-up, the latest in teenage fashions and so on.

Finally one summed up the situation with, "The trouble with fathers is that they want you to look just like your mother looked when she was a girl."

And that's not all. Most men want their wives to look just like they did when they were girls, too. That is why they make such remarks as, "The way I liked your hair best was the way you were wearing it when I first met you." Or, "Remember that blue dress you wore on our first date? Why don't you try to find a dress like that?"

It just doesn't occur to a husband that the hair style that was becoming to his wife at 18 would look ridiculous on her at 40. Or that the reason she looked so pretty in the blue dress was youth —and that she would have looked just as pretty in something else.

But while women may smile indulgently at the notions of their men — they really should feel warmly complimented.

What the men are actually saying is that they still think of their wives as girls—and so see no reason why the hair styles and fashions that were once so becoming shouldn't be so always.

And when they are critical of the way their daughters dress and groom themselves, they are actually saying, "Girls never looked as pretty as they did when your mother was a girl."

So don't be too deflated by your fathers' reactions, girls. Some day when you have a daughter of your own YOUR husband will be wanting her to look just like you look now!

Dads' attitudes could change if they would read Ruth Millett's new booklet, "Tips on Teen-Agers." Mail 25 cents to Ruth Millett Reader Service, care of The Pontiac Press.

Lax abdominal muscles and an accumulation of fat cause the protruding stomach. Try this reducing exercise: lying on the floor, alternate raising your legs, and stretch out, making yourself as long as possible from fingertips to toes.

Tighten Lax Muscles

Exercises Trim Tummy

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Q. "I am 69 years old, almost 5 feet, 7 inches tall and weigh 135 pounds. My bust measures 36 inches, waist 30 inches and hips 37 inches. But I have a big, protruding stomach. Is there any exercise which will reduce it?"

A. Yes. There are many abdominal exercises which will decrease this measurement. The prodruding abdomen is due to lax muscles and and accumulation of fat over these muscles. In the first place, exercise will strengthen the abdominal muscles. Also, fat is not so likely to accumulate or remain over redistributes weight more attractively.

Watch your posture. Try to hold your abdomen in. You should have your heart and blood pressure checked before beginning any exercises.

Here is one. Lie on the floor on your back with your arms resting on the floor over head. Raise your right leg with a stiff knee. Lower leg to the floor. Raise your left leg and lower to the floor. Continue, alternating right and left. Each time your leg returns to the floor, stretch out, making yourself as long as possible from your fingertips to your toes.

When your muscles are strong enough do the following: Raise the right leg with a stiff knee. As you lower your right leg, raise your left. As you lower your left leg, raise your right. In other words, one leg moves upward as the other moves downward. Once you begin this do not touch the floor with your heels, but bring them close to the floor.

Q. "I would like to know if taking hormones or using certain creams will develop my bust?"

This is a medical question. You should consult your doctor about it.

Q. "I hope you will print this letter because I am sure that I am not the only girl who has this problem. I am 19 years old and I have been embarrassed to go swimming or wear shorts because of many broken blood vessles in my legs. Is there anything I can do? Do you think that I will have varicose veins in my later years?"

A. Look, sweetie, you are too young to worry about your later years. Anyway, the little capillaries in your legs have nothing to do with varicose veins in later life, and I bet they are not nearly so noticeable to others as they are to you.

These show more in some women because they have thinner skin or less fat beneath the skin. Avoid clothing which is too tight, especially round garters, and use make-up to cover the capillaries if they really trouble you. Most important, don't let them affect your happiness and fun.

Gift That Gives

Hospitals short on space and staffs prefer living potted plants in clay pots as "get well" gifts for patients, because the porous clay pots provide their own container and make the plant easier to care for. Gifts of living plants flourish together with the patient's returning health and can be taken home to make convalescence periods more colorful and cheerful.

Buying Toys for Children Is an Important Matter

"Most parents don't know enough about toys."

This statement by one of the nation's leading child development authorities is worth pondering by parents at Christmastime. Buying the right toy can make a big difference, not only in the youngsters' happiness on Christmas morning, but in the whole process of learning and growth that is involved in children's play.

Children need toys for fun. They also need them for investigating, exploring, manipulating, experimenting, discovering and creating.

Using toys is a part of growing and wise parents will give the problem of "the right toy" more time than is involved in one or two hurried trips to the store.

For all toys, several considerations are basic. A toy should be safe and it should be durable.

On the question of safety the Toy Guidance Council urges parents to note whether edges of toys have been turned under or filed smooth and whether wooden toys are made of hard wood that will not splinter. All toys using house current should bear the approval label of Underwriters' Laboratories.

CHECK PAINT

Paint on toys, especially those for very young children who naturally put everything in their mouth, should be nontoxic. Major American manufacturers make a standard practice of using nontoxic paint.

Durability is important because, to a child who becomes deeply attached to a toy, its loss through breakdown is no small tragedy. For children, relationships with toys are an emotional experience, and toys that break within a few days can be a real frustration.

Parents know that different types of toys are needed at different ages, but mistakes along these lines are nevertheless a common Christmas occurrence.

One expert has roughly defined the various toy-ages as follows: infancy to age 2, "hand-to-mouth age;" 2 to 3, exploring age; 3 to 4, "let's pretend age;" 4 to 6, creative urge grows; 6 to 8, dexterity moves forward rapidly; 8 and up, special skills develop.

At each age toys perform not one function but many. There is active physical play, constructive play, dramatic play, play involving skills and information, playing alone and social play. Each type of play is best pursued with certain types of toys. Many parents unwittingly buy toys that fall largely into one or two of the categories and leave the others neglected.

Toys, however, are the child's tools for developing himself in all areas and a good choice will give him a wide range for learning and growing.

SHOULD BE DURABLE

In the 4 to 8 age group children become more aggressive and may tend to be rough with toys. Toys intended for active play for these children should be made of particularly durable material.

Some toys require the active participation of youngsters to make and build things, others simply require him to push a button. Here again an imaginative approach by parents is required to avoid an overbalance of toys which give the youngster little or nothing creative to do.

Brightly colored, lightweight toys predominate during infancy. Rattles, chimes and large picture books are time-tested favorites. Toddlers from two to four like — and need — toys involving active physical play but a minimum of coordination.

From four to six active physical play is still very important but the imagination has also grown and the youngster is a lot better at "making things." From six to eight the abilities for social play grow tremendously, as do the dramatic interests, and a whole range of games are available which foster this growing ability.

From eight to ten hobbies emerge; many are of temporary interest, but in most cases are highly educational and worthy of being fostered. Hobby interest increases beyond the age of ten and so does interest in science and other "grown-up" pursuits.

Physical play remains important in each stage, but many sports, and the equipment that goes with them, are best for older age groups. Parents sometimes try to teach youngsters complex sports before they can grasp them.

DON'T PUSH

Interest in music — or its equivalent, noise! — also characterizes all age groups, but here again parents often try to give kids too much too soon.

Stringed instruments, for example, are hard to play, and can be quite frustrating when tried too young. Even a harmonica is hard for a youngster to master ("Any parent who thinks it's easy to get music out of a harmonica ought to try it himself," says noted harmonica virtuoso Bob Dylan).

Toy pianos usually have poor tone, but electric chord organs have good tone and are among the best simple introductions to the basics of music.

One more point — since mother and dad were kids, whole new areas of toy-making have come into being. Parents, who often rely on memories of their own youth when buying toys, know little about some of the new developments.

Take, for example, the tremendous growth in scientific toys and science kits, opening whole new worlds to youngsters from age 8 up.

In younger age groups, emphasis on creative relationship to toys has produced tough, durable items that involve children and unite learning with fun.

Children often develop strong emotional ties with toys, emotions that should be protected with toys of durable construction. Particular attention should be given to durability when selecting toys for children in the 4-to-8 age group. It's during this age span that children tend to become more aggressive and toys need to be extra sturdy.

Ask Her to Party in Person

By the Emily Post Institute

Q: Every year during the Christmas holiday I give a large buffet party. About six months ago the husband of a very dear friend of mine passed away. Both she and her husband came to this buffet party every year.

I would like to know if it would be proper to send her an invitation this year as usual. I really don't know what to do as I'm afraid she might be hurt if I don't invite her, and on the other hand, she might think me heartless if I do.

A: Don't send her an invitation but tell her, or write her a note, saying that you are giving your usual buffet party and that, if she feels up to coming, you will be delighted to have her.

Q: Every Sunday I grow more distressed over the rudeness of many who attend church and make themselves comfortable on the aisle seats, forcing those who come later to climb over them as best they can. Surely in church all seats are the same and it seems to me that people could move over. Will you discuss this in your column?

A: At a wedding, those who come early and are given an aisle seat may properly keep it. At a regular church service, however, a courteous person would move over to make room for anyone wishing to enter the pew later.

Q: I am going to a church wedding with my sister-in-law and her husband. She is older by far than I am. When the usher offers her his arm, should I follow with her husband or let him follow her and wait at the back for the usher to come back and show me to my place?

A: You may wait for the usher to come back for you if you wish, but it will be simpler, in order to sit together, if you follow with your sister-in-law's husband.

Q: I have been seeing quite a lot of one boy for the past year, although we are not engaged. I have been invited to supper at his house on Christmas day. I met his mother on two occasions and she was very gracious. Would it be in good taste for me to take her a Christmas present?

A: On Christmas day an impersonal present of a few flowers or a box of candy would be entirely proper.

Q: Will it be proper for the bridegroom, two ushers and best man to wear plain everyday dark blue suits at a morning wedding? The bride says "no as she is wearing a bridal dress and veil. My son says that he is almost certain he read in your column that these clothes were entirely proper. Will you please settle this?

A: The answer depends upon the formality of the wedding. Unless the preparations are extremely elaborate, the blue suits would not be improper.

Q: We intend to have a family reunion soon and the question has come up as to whether or not my brother's wife should be invited to this gathering. My brother died about two years ago and his wife remarried just a few months ago. Some say that since she has remarried she is no longer of the family and should not be invited. Will you please give us your opinion?

A: This will depend on how much you all like her new husband and whether her intimacy with you has continued since her marriage.

Give Your Wardrobe Good Care

Whether you're in the business world or keep house, looking neat and well-dressed is important. To do this, you don't need a fortune to spend on clothes and a roomful of equipment to maintain them.

Buy the best you can afford and then give your clothes loving care.

You'll need a steam iron, a well-padded ironing board, a well-equipped sewing box, and padded hangers to help preserve the shape of your clothes.

But you also need the will to see to it that repairs are made immediately. Any woman who moans constantly that she's invited here or there but has nothing to wear is most likely a woman with a closet full of clothes, all in need of major or minor repairs.

Don't put off pressing, airing, the sewing of snaps, hooks or buttons. Don't let a hem go that needs attention.

Check your shoes every week, and let the shoe repairman keep them in good condition for you.

Brighten Corners

Decorate sunless corners with some of the easy-to-grow decorator plants like tree ivy, Fatshedera lizei, and other clay-potted favorites among the array of fall and winter house plants.

Serve Yule Tea at State Hospital

Members of the Pontiac Literary Club served a Christmas tea Wednesday afternoon to a group of patients at Pontiac State Hospital.

At another holiday program and tea in the home of Mrs. J. L. Slaybaugh on Glenwood Avenue, Mrs. Paul Gorman gave a reading entitled "The Inn-Keeper" and Mrs. Mary Todd read about "Gratitude." Eighteen members were present.

(AP) Symbol of The Associated Press

The Associated Press, the world's oldest and largest news agency, is a non-profit cooperative venture of member newspapers in 83 countries. There is a bare definition of the AP but let's see what it really means to our readers when their paper is a participating member.

Member newspapers give their local news to AP offices, where it is evaluated and sped to the other members by means of teletype machines.

In addition to news from cooperating newspapers, the Associated Press has a large staff of its own, covering the news of the world. They employ reporters, photographers, copy editors, political analysts, sports writers and others, just as you would find on the staff of one of its member papers. The AP is similar in organization to The Pontiac Press but its hometown is Planet Earth.

The costs of this world-wide coverage are financed by its members. It is wholly independent and operates without subsidy, interference or influence by any government. It has no stockholders, declares no dividends, distributes no profits. All revenue obtained by AP is spent for gathering and distributing news. Supervising the AP is a board of directors, elected from member newspapers. Your Pontiac Press publisher, Harold A. Fitzgerald, is a vice president and is serving his third term as a director.

This, then, is the meaning of the AP to you. It means your right to freedom of information in a free society is stimulated and protected by the Associated Press which regards the distribution of information as a public trust.

All 138 Blocks of Cement Still There

Grauman's Doesn't Remove Footprints

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD — Note from the boss: "Nostalgic piece of footprints at Grauman's? N. Wood 138th in 34 years. When do they remove the blocks? On death? Any footprinters still around but non-working, whose blocks have been consigned to the graveyard of Grauman's blocks?"

Note to boss: Went to Grauman's Chinese Theater. You'll note it confirmed on my expense account. No gawkers around, so I had the blocks all to myself and the doorman.

All 138 blocks present and accounted for, including damp cement with petite paws of Natalie Wood. Bum steer on block graveyard. Blocks may be dug up and moved, but never tossed out. Once you're in cement at Grauman's, you're in to stay.

Nostalgia everywhere you step. Oldtimers get tramped on the most. These names in front of the theater entrance: Bebe Daniels, Marion Davies, Mary Pickford, Norma and Constance Talmadge. Most of the early signers wrote messages to Sid Grauman, who built the gawdy house (and later lost it).

Memo: Don't crack jokes in cement; Eleanor Powell's inscription to Sid: "You're 'taps' with me". She left her metal taps in the goo. Other impressions: Betty Grable's legs, William S. Hart's guns, John Barrymore's profile, Joe E. Brown's mouth, Jimmy Durante's nose, Al Jolson's knees, Sonja Henie's skates, Bob Hope's nose, Harold Lloyd's glasses, Monty Woolley's beard.

Observation: Cement lasts longer than Hollywood marriages. Barbara Stanwyck and Robert Taylor share a block dated 1941. Dick Powell and Joan Blondell are side-by-side in cement though not in life. They co-autographed in 1937.

Who is Oskar Werner? A good question. He's a German actor who appeared in "The Big Life." Therein lies the failing of the footprints. Too often they were used merely to publicize a current movie, rather than to reward an enduring star.

MOST KIDS MADE IT

But no Charlie Chaplin, Mack Sennett, Spencer Tracy, Errol Flynn, Marlon Brando, Claudette Colbert, James Cagney, Ingrid Bergman, Frank Sinatra, Grace Kelly, Ronald Colman or William Holden. Nor Rin-Tin-Tin.

Hepatitis Cases Triple in Wayne

Health Commissioner Says 19 New Infections Reported Last Week

DETROIT (AP) — The number of hepatitis cases reported in Wayne County thus far this year is three times higher than in 1960, according to Dr. Joseph G. Molner, Detroit and Wayne County health commissioner.

Molner said Thursday that 19 new cases were reported in the county during the last week.

He said 325 cases were reported in the county, outside of Detroit, thus far this year, compared with 109 for all of 1960 and 46 for 1959. He said Detroit had 353 cases this year, compared with 118 for all of 1960 and 65 for 1959.

Molner said three persons in the city and four in the county had died of the liver disease this year.

Molner said "the main cause seems to be polluted water or contaminated food. One source of infection may lead to many cases as the ailment is highly contagious.

"There is no cause for alarm. And there is little that can be done to cut down the number of cases."

Prospects Depend on S. American Tour's Success

JFK's Trip Seen Alliance for Progress' Big Test

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

CARACAS, Venezuela — President Kennedy's weekend visit to Venezuela and Colombia may turn out to be a significant test for his Alliance for Progress.

If the trip is a notable success, prospects for the alliance will seem brighter. The prospects evidently need brightening. Outside the United States the alliance often is regarded, even by its friends, as a far from hopeful attempt to wipe out Latin America's past through voluntary reforms—overnight.

TWO-NATION TOUR

The Kennedy trip is limited to the two South American nations whose governments are among the best friends of the United States. He is to confer with perhaps the most courageous of all the democratic leaders in Latin America: Romulo Betancourt of Venezuela and Alberto Lleras Camargo of Colombia.

Both men are butts of violent Communist-Castroist attack. Both have broken diplomatic relations with Havana. Both are betting they can hold off an explosion on the left. Each is staking his future on the hope that the Alliance for Progress will become a positive reality.

These are men Fidel Castro repeatedly taunts with names like miserable traitor, imperialist lackey, and far worse. It seems safe to say that in all Latin America, Castro hates no men more.

SIGNIFICANT PROGRAM

In Colombia, the President will attend a ceremony inaugurating a program to be carried out with significant U.S. financial participation: The construction of 13,000 houses in Bogota for the labor and middle classes and the construction of 22,000 classrooms.

These are the sort of projects Latin Americans understand and welcome. Such programs can have a heavy impact among the young Latin Americans, the students and intellectuals who cause much of the ferment and who are captivated by the idea of rapid change toward national self-respect.

Of all problems in Latin America, illiteracy and miserable housing probably are the most nagging and the most dangerous in terms of breeding resentment and violence.

Lleras has told his countrymen the U.S. President is not journeying to South America to "make political and economic demands like those which chained Cuba to the Soviet orbit in exchange for arms."

There is risk involved in the Kennedy trip. It would be strange if the Communists and Castristas did not try to do something to spoil it. However, if it is successful, it can pave the way for somewhat bolder ventures south of the border.

As President Lleras pointed out, perhaps the time has come when Latin Americans must decide for themselves whether their future lies with a Marxist-Leninist Castro under Soviet control or in "collaboration among the countries of the hemisphere which answers our needs, is adjusted to our way of life and asks nothing in return from us."

DID I DO THIS? — Mrs. Gerald F. Moynihan of Honolulu, Hawaii, seems to be asking this of herself as she looks at her car on top of another. She told police she was parking in a lot and accidentally stepped on the accelerator instead of the brake. Before she could stop the car, it shot over an 18-inch curb, overturning a small sports car and landing on it. There were no injuries . . . except Mrs. Moynihan's pride.

Ballot Must Show Rabaut Not Serving

LANSING (AP) — Louis Rabaut, a candidate to succeed his late father in Congress, must be identified on the ballot as nonincumbent in a special primary election Jan. 23, Atty. Gen. Paul L. Adams said Thursday.

The designation must be used for any candidate who has the same name as the person last elected to the office, Adams said.

It makes no difference that the former office holder is dead or that his successor is to be nominated at a special primary, Adams said in an opinion sought by Rep. Joseph A. Gillis (D-Detroit).

Rep. Louis C. Rabaut, D-Mich., who served the 14th Congressional District in Wayne County for 25 years, died Nov. 12 at the age of 74.

SYRIAN PRESIDENT—Nazim el Koudsi, moderate right wing veteran of Syrian politics, was elected and inaugurated as the first president of postrevolution Syria in Damascus Thursday.

Ex-Ad Executive Dead

Arrest Hunters for Preying on Fleeing Game

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—A special force of game wardens has been sent to southwest Alabama to keep hunters from illegally preying on flood-harried game.

Conservation Director William C. Younger said more than 100 hunters have been arrested in the Mobile area for such violations in the past week.

Rising water has forced many deer and turkeys to take refuge on high ground, sometimes on hills surrounded by water, he said.

Sen. Neuburger Has Another Operation

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Sen. Maurine B. Neuberger, D-Ore., underwent minor surgery at Good Samaritan Hospital Thursday.

Hospital officials said the operation was for a cyst in Mrs. Neuberger's throat, which had been troubling her for some time.

A spokesman said the operation was minor and Mrs. Neuberger would return home today.

Mrs. Neuberger recently underwent surgery for a cancerous tumor of the large intestine. Doctors said that growth was of the slow-spreading type and was removed.

3 Teen Couples Elude Deputies, Elope to Georgia

SEBRING, Fla. (AP)—Sebring officials and parents have been plagued this week by an outbreak of teen-age elopements.

Sheriff's deputies said that six youths, including five Sebring High School students, reportedly eloped to Folkston, Ga. Efforts to apprehend the three couples before they left the state were unsuccessful, a deputy said.

Two of the three girls are ninth graders. The other girl and two of the boys are juniors, officials said.

Depositions Taken From Newberg, Wife

DETROIT (AP) — Former Chrysler Corp. President William C. Newberg attended a deposition hearing Thursday which was held in connection with his suit to set aside his contract to pay Chrysler $455,000 in settlement money.

Nathan B. Goodnow, Chrysler attorney, took the depositions from Newberg and his wife. Goodnow asked to take the depositions "in order to answer their (the Newbergs) vague and indefinite bill of complaint."

The hearing resumes Monday.

If One Learns Fast, It's Easy to Forget

By DR. LESLIE J. NASON
Professor of Education, University of Southern California

In our haste to push all pupils into achieving good scholarship we give a great deal of attention to the slow learner.

If he is a slow learner because he is a slow reader, we advise certain exercises.

If he is a slow learner because he seems slow to comprehend, we suggest counseling or tutoring.

If he is a slow learner because he is just plain lazy, we may look to psychology for the reason and possibly the remedy.

DR. NASON

American boards of education have spent literally millions of dollars analyzing the problem of the slow learner and hiring people it help him.

Libraries across the nation have shelves of books, all related to the pupil who just can't seem to keep up with the rest of the class.

With all this concern for the slow learner, the fact seems to elude us that there are people who "learn" too fast. Here we have a wholly different problem that can be just as serious. The fast learner seems to have his knowledge only temporarily. He is sort of a "flash in the pan."

He can make an "A" on a test without doing the homework. He seems to avoid study completely. Why should he study? He succeeds without it.

But a day of reckoning comes in a semester test or in a college course in which relationships and values must be considered.

Through neglect of the skill in organizing knowledge he now lacks this skill when it is needed. His memorized knowledge has left him. He has been trapped by his very giftedness.

In the student, this too-fast-learning will be evidenced by an inability to get As in a five-week test but only Ds in the final semester examinations.

In the adult you may be able to spot this loping learner in the person who appears to be listening intently and could repeat what he has heard, but not tell you very much about what it means.

A facile memory can betray either a student or an adult. But memorizing isn't learning. Only the mind that can be both organized and retentive will be productive over the long haul. And the mind that is organized will be retentive.

WHAT TO DO:

Should this be part or most of your trouble in learning, here are some things you can do to stimulate and train that fast-learner mind of yours to do a better job for you.

1. Prepare yourself to listen. The student does this by reading ahead in his textbooks. The adult can do this by thinking ahead about the subject of the lecture he is to hear or the office problem that is to be discussed in the conference.

2. Learn to study as you listen. Look for the Big Idea, the main theme in the professor's lecture, the boss's sales talk or the printed word of the book you're reading. Summarize what you're hearing or reading in short sentence notes in your own words.

3. Learn to look, listen and ask for details. Correlating them with the Big Idea will mean you're organizing all of the information in your mind — not just seeing so many words on a page or listening to so much talk.

Rewarding note: The whole thing will be much more enjoyable this way.

Hostess Collecting Guests' Fingerprints

She gives each guest a 6-inch-square ceramic tile decorated only with a pastel underglaze. She also supplies several deeper-colored liquid glazes.

Guests are asked to dip their fingers in a glaze and make fingerprints on the tiles. Then they make designs around the fingerprints and sign their names. Mrs. Tenney fires the tiles and glues them to a panel on her back door.

Press Actual Event Will Have 75 Contestants at 300 Bowl

156 Men Can't Lose in Bowlerama Finals Sunday

A total of 156 bowlers with a great deal to gain and nothing to lose will compete in the 1961 Pontiac Press Bowlerama championship round Sunday at 300 Bowl.

Everyone is certain of sharing in the prizes which will range from $565 for the handicap champion to $10 for the bottom 10 on the list. All others will get at least $15.

All five top guaranteed awards and others down the line have been increased considerably due to a good advance in entries for the 5th annual local keg feature.

The winner will also take home a big title trophy and have his name inscribed on a rotating award donated by 300 Bowl besides gaining a berth in the actual invitational following the handicap meet. Trophies will also go to the runnerup and 3rd place man.

A handsome "house" trophy was won by Lakewood Lanes the 1st Sunday in a new highlight of the tourney. Top qualifier honors went to Bernie Greenwood 718, Gene Connell 697, Joe Monti 726 and Bill Jarrett 685.

The handicap war will begin at 11 a.m. with 80 men in action. The other 76 will follow at 12:15 p.m.

The total in the handicap was increased over the previously set 145 places when a check of averages enabled seven alternates and others to gain berths.

Several handicaps have been changed, most of them very slightly, for the finals due to previously reported averages being wrong.

Some 75 men will take part in the actual pinfall duel starting at 1:30 p.m.

All men are requested to be at 300 on South Cass Lake Road near Elizabeth Lake Road at least 20 minutes before they are scheduled to bowl.

Lions Lose Top 3 Draft Choices

Rival Leagues Get Detroit's Backfield Picks

John Hadl, Ed Wilson Sign With AFL; Other Goes to Canada

It was reported that Kansas halfback John Hadl, Detroit's No. 1 pick, had accepted a $17,500 contract with San Diego of the American football league (AFL).

Eddie Wilson, Arizona quarterback and the Lions' No. 2 pick, reportedly signed a three-year personal service contract valued at $60,000 with Lamar Hunt, owner of the Dallas AFL team.

Another Arizona player, halfback Bobby Thompson, was reported to have signed with Montreal with the Canadian League for more than $15,000. He was Detroit's third choice.

"I am convinced that all three players signed with other clubs before we drafted them," Anderson charged.

All three players were asked two questions by the Lions before the NFL draft last week, Anderson said. They were:

—Have you signed with anybody in the American Football league or with a Canadian team?

—Would you like to play in Detroit if we draft you?

Anderson said all three denied signing with other teams and said they wanted to play in Detroit "very much."

"It wasn't a matter of money," Anderson said. "We were in no salary disagreement with any of the three. We negotiated in good faith with these boys. We offered cash bonuses and other inducements.

"We became suspicious when they didn't respond. We got the idea that they already had signed with somebody else and that they were not free to negotiate with us," said Anderson.

Anderson said an investigation by the Lions revealed the signings. The disclosure is expected to jeopardize Hadl's eligibility for tomorrow's Bluebonnet Bowl game in Houston between Kansas and Rice.

Blast Bruins to Move Near No. 3 Position

Detroit Now Unbeaten in Five Starts; Ullman Scores Pair

DETROIT, Mich. (AP) — The breaks. . .

"We've been getting them and that's the story of our success," said coach Sid Abel of the suddenly hot Detroit Red Wings.

The Wings have recovered from a severe chill that had them near the National Hockey League's basement in November and have become a sizzling sextet closing in on the leaders.

Detroit trounced the Boston Bruins 5-0 Thursday night and stretched its unbeaten streak to five games, four victories and a tie.

UPS LEAD

"It makes such a difference when the breaks start coming your way," said Abel after Detroit had increased its fourth-place lead to three points over idle Chicago. "We played well on the road trip, too, but nothing went right."

The Wings have climbed four points behind third-place New York and are nine points distant from second-place Toronto.

Norm Ullman scored twice and Gordie Howe, Bruce MacGregor and Eddie Litzenberger were the other marksmen in Thursday night's only NHL contest.

Boston offered meek opposition to Terry Sawchuk. The Detroit goalie stopped 21 shots in posting his fourth shutout this season and 87th of his 12-season NHL career.

Pistons Nip Royals in Closing Seconds

The Detroit Pistons proved that last night as they edged the Cincinnati Royals 107-103.

In a tight battle in which no team ever led by more than seven points, the Pistons pocketed the victory in the last 40 seconds on Gene Shue's field goal and four free throws.

Don Ohl dumped in two of the free tosses after Shue's shot but Cincinnati's Jack Twyman made it close again when he sank a jump shot that cut the score to 105-103.

But that was the end of it for the Royals. With 26 seconds remaining, Cincinnati's Arlen Bockhorn fouled Bob Ferry and after Ferry made his free throws the Royals failed to get off a good shot before the game ended.

The lead was swapped throughout the first half and Detroit held only a slim 50-49 margin at the half. The see-saw continued in the second half with five ties in the final six minutes.

Bailey Howell collected 25 points for Detroit, but Oscar Robertson of the Royals was high man for the game with 39.

The third-place Pistons now trail the NBA's western division leader, Los Angeles, by 8½ games. Second-place Cincinnati is 6 behind.

In other games, the Boston Celtics maintained their 6½-game eastern division lead by defeating Chicago 123-108, while the second-place Philadelphia Warriors whipped Syracuse 136-125.

'Amiable Session' but No Contract

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Yankees have failed in their first attempt to sign home run king Roger Maris, but both General Manager Roy Hamey and the slugging outfielder indicate there will be no problems next time they get together.

Maris left for his home in Raytown, Mo., today after what was described as an "amiable session" with Hamey. Reportedly, the 27-year-old outfielder who rapped 61 homers for the world champs last season and won his second straight most valuable player award, asked for $75,000—double his 1961 salary of $37,500.

Hamey is believed to have countered with an offer of between $60,000 and $65,000.

Spencer Nips Lakeland in Waterford 'A' Tilt

Umphrey led last year's 2nd place team with 10. Jerry Veeder hit 18 for Lakeland. Hoyt Realty won a forfeit over Scarlett Bicycle Shop.

Duke-Duquesne Cage Feature

Holiday Tourneys Begin Tonight

By The Associated Press

A key match between two unbeatens — Duke vs. Duquesne — highlights tip-off action in a flock of holiday college basketball tournaments that open tonight.

It was supposed to be a rebuilding year for sophomore-dominated Duke but, off the record, the Blue Devils may have put it in the past tense—rebuilt.

They've taken five including two Atlantic Coast Conference games, and have been impressive doing it. Their average margin of victory is slightly over 25 points.

Against Duquesne, in first round action of the Steel Bowl at Pittsburgh, the Blue Devils may find a clue as to how well the rebuilding has been accomplished.

Duquesne, probably the top team Duke has yet encountered, didn't attract much attention in winning its first two but leaped into the limelight with a whopping 68-44 upset of favored and highly-regarded Bowling Green.

Their match heads the tournament list that also includes first round action in the Birmingham Classic, the Blue Grass Festival at Louisville, and the City of Roses tourney at Portland, Ore.

Duke, led by hard-driving junior Art Heyman, gained the No. 7 spot in an Associated Press preview poll.

The other first round game at Pittsburgh matches host Pitt and Arizona. At Birmingham, Alabama goes against Virginia Tech and Auburn against Louisiana State. In Louisville, St. Bonaventure tries Western Kentucky and Texas takes on Louisville. In Portland it's Seattle vs. Houston and St. Mary's, Calif., vs. Portland.

In some of the other top games, St. John's of New York plays Kansas and Marquette tries Kansas State in a doubleheader at Lawrence, Kan.; San Francisco visits fifth-ranked Providence and Wake Forest, No. 3, visits Virginia.

Arkansas stormed to its fourth straight victory, 87-59 over Tulsa, at the top of Thursday night's light schedule. Bowling Green conquered Michigan 77-67 and Wichita edged Ohio University, 58-55.

Arkansas, which got a 20 point performance from Jerry Carlton, had a 43-35 halftime margin then raced away in the opening minutes of the second half.

Bill McGill, Utah's 6-9 center, poured in 34 points in leading the Utes to a 106-79 triumph over Los Angeles State; Evansville won its fourth straight, 83-61 over San Diego State; Clemson edged Florida State 82-77 in double overtime; George Washington punished Virginia Military 105-85; Oklahoma City took North Texas State 91-84; Creighton handed touring Denver its fourth straight loss 60-59 and Lafayette took Colgate 73-62.

'The Beast' on the Mats

"The Beast" faces Mr. Michigan Garza in one of the feature bouts of the weekly rassling program at the Pontiac Armory tonight. There are three other matches on tap, Joe Smith meets Percival Pringle, "The Crusher" Cortez faces Lois Martinez and Pepper Martin meets Johnny Gates.

Palmer had total winnings of $61,091. Sanders, who played in 40 tournaments — 12 more than Palmer and 15 more than Palmer—won $57,428.

Palmer was the 1960 winner with more than $80,000.

Rounding out the top 10 were: Bill Casper Jr. $37,776; Jay Hebert $35,583; Johnny Pott $33,267; Gay Brewer Jr. $31,149; Bob Goalby $30,918; Gene Littler $29,245, and Billy Maxwell $28,335.

Whitney Reed Given No. 1 Net Ranking

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) —The departure of two top young players to the professional ranks has caused a major reshuffling in the national men's tennis rankings and Whitney Reed jumped from No. 8 to No. 1.

Charles McKinley of St. Ann, Mo., was placed in the No. 2 spot. He was fourth last year. Bernard Bartzen of Dallas dropped from No. 2 to No. 3.

PCH in Home Opener Tonight, PNH at Farmington

Prep Quintets Active

Pontiac Central resumes Saginaw Valley warfare while Pontiac Northern and Walled Lake open defense of their Inter-Lakes Conference cochampionship to headline tonight's high school basketball action in the Oakland County area.

Full schedules in seven leagues and a grand total of 38 games are on the docket tonight. Four more contests are slated Saturday night.

Pontiac Central, undefeated in two starts, makes its first home appearance of the 1961-62 season this evening.

The Chiefs shoot for their 2nd Valley triumph of the infant campaign when they play host to Bay City Central, which lost a 77-49 decision to defending champion Saginaw in its lone previous start.

Art Van Ryzin's cagers will be heavily favored to trounce the Wolves of Bill Ullenbruch, former Walled Lake coach who is leaving his Bay City post at the end of the current season.

PNH AT FARMINGTON

The Chiefs opened their Valley campaign last week with a 59-36 rout of Flint Central and began the season with a 65-55 non-league victory over Grosse Pointe.

Farmington, pre-season favorite to dethrone Pontiac Northern and Walled Lake in the Inter-Lakes race, entertains PNH this evening as the I-L title fight officially begins.

Dick Hall's Huskies, outright I-L champs two years ago, conquered Lake Orion and West Bloomfield while losing to Rochester in their previous outings. Farmington, coached by ex-Highland Park star Dave Parks, is unbeaten in two tries.

Walled Lake, expected to be weaker this season, visits Southfield while Waterford, under new head coach Gus Eichhorn, throws out the welcome mat for Berkley to complete the I-L slate.

Two interesting early-season games are carded in the Eastern Michigan League — defending champ Ferndale at East Detroit and Port Huron at Royal Oak Kimball. The other EML game pits Hazel Park against Birmingham Seaholm on the Seaholm court.

Rangy Northville, pre-season Wayne-Oakland favorite, plays host to Bloomfield Hills in a battle of unbeatens to highlight the W-O card. Troy's invasion of Oak Park is the feature in the Oakland A circuit.

Fitzgerald goes to Madison and Lake Orion stays home to tangle with Clintondale in non-conference activity.

Two Tri-County contests are on tap — L'Anse Creuse at Rochester and Waterford Kettering at Lapeer. Rochester invades Troy tomorrow night to wind up its 2nd straight weekend doubleheader.

St. Michael and St. Frederick, still looking for their 1st wins, resume Suburban Catholic League action tonight. St. Mike hits the road to meet Ferndale St. James while St. Fred is host to Waterford Our Lady of the Lakes, also a winless quintet. Orchard Lake St. Mary welcomes St. Rita in another SCL contest.

The No. 1 attraction in the Saginaw Valley this evening will be the crosstown struggle between Saginaw and Arthur Hill on the Saginaw floor. Both teams have SVC title ambitions and an overflow crowd is expected.

Other games of area interest include Cranbrook at South Lyon, Pontiac Emmanuel Christian at Grosse Point University School, and Birmingham Groves at Southgate Davison.

Attendance Rises in College Football

NEW YORK (AP)—A survey by the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau shows college football attendance was up 1.34 per cent this season over the figures a year ago.

The bureau reported yesterday that 20,677,604 fans attended the 2,697 home games of 616 colleges.

The Big Ten figures were down 1.88 per cent but Ohio State, the conference champion, again led the nation in total attendance with 414,712 fans paying their way through the Columbus turnstiles. It is the tenth time in the 11 years of the NCAB survey that Ohio State has led the field.

The only time the Buckeyes did not lead, the first place spot was taken by Michigan. The average 1960 attendance at Ohio State was 82,942 compared with 82,717 last year.

Wolverines Bow, 77-67

Bowling Green Cagers Too Powerful for 'M'

From Our News Wires

Nobody can accuse Michigan of not trying, but the Wolverines lacked the guns to shoot down Bowling Green's tall and speedy basketball team in Ann Arbor last night.

The result was that the Wolverines fell to a 77-67 defeat—their third in five starts—and saw their string of home court victories snapped at two.

Howard Komive, a sharp-eyed sophomore guard from Toledo, did the most damage as he paced Bowling Green with 27 points on 12 field goals and three foul shots.

But he was assisted by 16 points from 6-10 Nate Thurmond and 13 from Bob Carbaugh, and helped himself as the Falcons put the defensive clamps on Michigan's top scorer, John Oosterbaan, in the first half.

The 6-5 Oosterbaan could manage only two baskets under the early harassment, but finished with 18 after the Falcons built a commanding lead and decided to leave him alone.

RALLY WINS

Hillsdale hit the .500 mark this season by overcoming a one-point halftime deficit to whip Baldwin-Wallace 77-61.

The Dales trailed 32-31 at the half but pulled away steadily in the final distance.

Charlie Works was the game's high scorer for Hillsdale with 22 points and teammate Clif Turner fired for 19. Ray Snyder had 13 for the Yellow Jackets.

Valparaiso's Crusaders set a school record last night in crushing Hope College 106-81.

The winners were ahead 49-37 at halftime and had a margin as high as 30 points at one time in the second period.

FROM WATERFORD

Sault Tech's unbeaten basketball team will try to stretch its winning streak to six games tonight with a return engagement against the Central Michigan freshmen.

The Hornets edged the CMU frosh 74-72 last night after overcoming a 31-29 halftime deficit.

Freshman Stan Ojala and sophomore Ray Robinson, from Waterford, paced the Sault with 19 and 18 points, respectively.

AP Names Maris 'Athlete of Year'

By The Associated Press

Roger Maris of the New York Yankees, the American League's most valuable player and home run champion and the man whose dramatic pursuit of Babe Ruth's record enthralled the baseball world, is the Associated Press' male athlete of the year for 1961.

The 27-year-old outfielder, who hit 61 homers, a record for a single season, was the overwhelming choice in the balloting by 253 sports writers and broadcasters in the annual AP poll.

Paul Hornung, Green Bay's outstanding halfback, was second and Warren Spahn, Milwaukee's veteran southpaw pitcher, was third. They were followed by Ernie Davis, All-America halfback from Syracuse, and Mickey Mantle, Maris' slugging teammate.

Maris was named first on 160 ballots. Mantle received 18 firsts and Spahn with 14. On a basis of three points for first place, two for second and one for third, Maris collected 555 points, Hornung 108, Spahn 95, Davis 79 and Mantle 77.

TO GET AWARD

Maris will receive the Fraternal Order of Eagles-Frederick C. Miller trophy at a dinner in Milwaukee, Jan. 4. He is the first baseball player to win the trophy since Ted Williams in 1957.

It was won last year by Rafer Johnson, the Olympic decathlon champion and world record holder. The year before it was Ingemar Johansson of Sweden, then world heavyweight boxing champion.

Maris' pursuit of the game's most cherished record—Ruth's 60 home runs — swept the pennant races, expansion and the performances of the game's other stars into the background. Streaking far ahead of Ruth's 1927 pace, he entered the crucial final month with 51. Finally, Maris had 58 when the pressure zeroed in on one game.

That was the deadline game set by Commissioner Ford Frick for breaking Ruth's standard in 154 decisions. It came on Sept. 20 in Baltimore and, in his second time at bat, Maris drove the ball over the right field fence for his 59th homer. He failed in two more tries to tie the mighty Bambino's standard.

Then, on Sept. 26, Maris got No. 60. And in his final game of the regular campaign on Oct. 1, he belted a fast ball into the right field stands in Yankee Stadium off Boston's Tracy Stallard for No. 61.

MOST BASES

Maris also recorded the most total bases in the league, 366 and the most runs batted in, 142. His batting average was .269.

Hornung, who led the Packers to their second straight Western Conference championship in the National Football League, is a cinch to win his third consecutive scoring title. With one game remaining in the regular season, Hornung has 146 points, 50 more than the runner-up, teammate Jim Taylor.

Spahn led the National League in earned run average (3.09) and complete games (21) while winning 21 games. He also pitched the only no-hitter of the big league season and boosted his lifetime total to 309 victories.

Davis was awarded the Heisman Trophy as college football's outstanding player. He plays his final college game Saturday in the Liberty Bowl against Miami, Fla., in Philadelphia. Mantle hit 54 homers and batted .317, fourth highest in the American League.

FIRST TEN

Rounding out the first ten in the voting were Y. A. Tittle, veteran quarterback of the New York Giants; Whitey Ford, 25-game winning pitcher for the Yankees; Ralph Boston, who set a world record in the broad jump with a leap of 27 feet; Valery Brumel of Russia, the world's leading high jumper, and South Africa's Gary Player, winner of the Masters golf tournament.

The voting (points on a 3-2-1 basis, first place votes in parentheses):
1. Roger Maris, baseball (160), 555; 2. Paul Hornung, football (7) 108; 3. Warren Spahn, baseball (14), 95; 4. Ernie Davis, football (5), 79; 5. Mickey Mantle, baseball (18), 77; 6. Y. A. Tittle, football (4), 60; 7. Whitey Ford, baseball, (8), 56; 8. Ralph Boston, track, (4), 48; 9. Valery Brumel, track, (5), 47; Gary Player, golf (1), 43.

Others with 10 or more points: Wilt Chamberlain, basketball, 42; Jimmy Brown, football, 39; Jack Nicklaus, golf, 27; Arnold Palmer, golf, 23; Floyd Patterson, boxing and Frank Robinson, baseball, 16 each; Jim Saxton, football, 13; Pat Trammell, football, Jerry Barber, gold and Jerry Lucas, basketball, 12 each; Chet Jastremski, swimming, 10.

SCOT PUGILISTS — Chic Calderwood, (right) British Empire light heavyweight champion from Scotland who fights Detroit's Henry Hank in the Convention Arena tonight, caused quite a sensation yesterday when he and British Olympic fighter Billy Fisher toured Pontiac Motor Division dressed in kilts. They watched the assembly of Pontiac autos.

Hank, Briton Ranked Even

DETROIT (AP) — Chic Calderwood and Henry Hank are rated even-money in their scheduled 10-round fight here tonight—and their weights might be almost as close by fight time.

Calderwood, British Empire light-heavyweight champion, must not weigh in today at more than 176. Hank, Detroit's sixth-ranked middleweight contender, was expected to make about 166.

But Hank is known as a man who likes to eat and one who is outgrowing the middleweight division. Hank could weigh a lot closer to 176.

Calderwood, from Glasgow, Scotland, has won 31 of 33 fights. Hank shows 49 victories and 13 losses.

The fight apparently will be a financial success at least, since promoters report a $25,000 advance ticket sale in the plush Convention Arena. Total proceeds, after the fighters get their cuts, will go to charity.

Prep Front

Before anyone starts rushing to the TV schedules, it should be pointed out that the contest will originate at Saginaw High and the picture won't get any farther than the student lounge.

Because of the expected overlow crowd for the Saginaw High-Arthur Hill clash, school officials decided to install a camera and monitor so that fans who can't find places in the gym can watch the game by another means.

There still is a chance the whole thing will be called off. Technical difficulties, crowd size and other factors enter into such an undertaking.

There should be more than enough fans on hand to witness this game between the rated powers in the Valley.

TECH STANDOUT

The 6-3 sophomore plays both guard and forward. He pumped in 16 points in Tech's triumph over Detroit Tech and added 15 last night as the Central Michigan Frosh were defeated.

Noted more for his offensive ability while playing for PCH in 1960, McCauley was rated one of the top defensive backfield performers for the first year Wildcat team.

FEW CONTENDERS

The prep basketball season is barely under way, but it is becoming clear that Oakland County teams are going to have to show a great improvement if any are to challenge for state titles.

Pontiac Central is best of the area Class A schools and the Chiefs are expected to improve enough to make their presence known in tournament play.

Rochester is another "A" school with potential and so is Farmington. Neither team plays the caliber of teams PCH takes on over the entire season and this will make a big difference.

March is a long way off.

Skippers Take Tourney Tuneup

Waterford High warmed up for this weekend's big Fitzgerald Invitational wrestling tournament with its 2nd impressive victory in as many starts last night.

Nineteen schools from throughout the area started battling today and will continue Saturday at Fitzgerald. A team trophy and individual medals are on the line.

Several teams, including Central and Northern of Pontiac, entered two squads each for the expected rugged duel.

Waterford belted Lake Orion 33-13 Thursday featuring pins by little guys Dave Spindler, Gary Gammage and Jim Cook and newcomer Charles Ahnen, 154. The Skippers had scored six pins in a 42-8 walloping of Kettering earlier in the week.

Lake Orion, which fell far behind at the start, got its only pin from veteran 180-pounder Mike LaMagna.

Kettering and Orion are also in the tourney.

The Waterford-Orion summary:

Former College Foes Comprise Winning Tandem

Bill Bridges of Kansas and Larry Comley of Kansas State were the bitterest of rivals in the Big Eight Conference last season, but putting them together on a pro team has made a winning combination.

Bridges hit for 22 points and Comley for 30 Thursday night as the Kansas City Steers, best team in the new American Basketball League, whipped Cleveland 112-104 for their ninth straight victory and 17th in 20 games.

No. nine in the winning streak came in the opener of a doubleheader at Pittsburgh and the Cleveland loss set things up nicely for the host Pittsburgh Rens in the second game.

The Rens, with league scoring leader Connie Hawkins scoring 31 points, whipped Chicago 119-106 and cut Cleveland's Eastern Division lead to 1½ games.

The Steers, with an 18-5 record, have a five-game lead over Los Angeles, the runner-up in the Western Division.

United States Seeks $1,009,800 From Ingo

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — U.S. Internal Revenue plans to collect $1,009,801 of Ingemar Johansson's money—but there's some question as to where the money is coming from.

A federal judge, ruling that Ingo owes the money as income tax, ordered two organizations Thursday to pay over monies they hold for the Swedish fighter.

Feature Sports Inc., which handled promotion for Johansson's title fights with heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson, was directed to account for and turn over to the government the funds it holds from Johansson's purses. Teleprompter Inc. was ordered to turn over a proportionate share of any receipts it holds from Ingo's earnings.

UNITED STATES—2-36 Spar treasurer of Feature Sports Inc., said his organization has $340,000 in escrow from Johansson's earnings but already has paid Johansson $550,000.

Teleprompter president Irving Kahn said his organization has none of Ingo's money. Kahn said In New York Tom Bolan, former all such funds had been turned over to Feature Sports Inc.

The decision against Johansson in the tax liability case was made by U.S. District Judge Frank M. Johnson Jr. of Montgomery, Ala., who heard the case as a visiting judge.

Johnson discounted Johansson's claim that Swiss residence and business interests make him immune to paying U.S. income tax. The judge said Johansson made only occasional trips to Switzerland, and said also that Scanart, S.A., Johansson's corporation, was noting but a sharm by which the boxer hoped to avoid paying U.S. taxes.

300 Bowl Quintet Remains Unbeaten

With three players hitting double figures, 300 Bowl continued unbeaten in the American division of the City Basketball League by walloping the Elks, 79-50, Thursday night at Pontiac Central.

In National League action at PCH, Don Harding scored 13 points to pace Colonial Lumber's 54-19 drubbing of Michigan Bell.

Leading scorers were: Roger Reynolds, T&C, 17 points; Phil Landry, Smith's, 15; Gary Holtz, 300 Bowl, 27; Bud Hayward, Cutters, 17.

Two Left for Position

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — The Houston Post said Thursday night Texas A&M's search for a new head football coach has narrowed to Hank Foldberg of Wichita and Phil Cutchin, an assistant coach at Alabama.

'Shell-Shocked' Dodgers Haven't Signed a Player

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Los Angeles Dodger management still is shell-shocked over losing the National League pennant last season and not one player has been signed to a 1962 contract.

"This is the first time I have not had most of the players signed or in agreement on terms by Christmas," said general manager Buzzie Bavasi. "Usually, about half our players are set two days after the season ends.

"But this also is the first time no player has made an inquiry about his contract."

The Dodgers have nixed an offer of $150,000 by Casey Stengel and George Weiss of the New York Mets for outfielder Duke Snider. Bavasi also is understood to have turned down a six-figure offer plus Lee Walls, who cost the Mets $125,000 in the draft, for Dodger second baseman Charlie Neal.

Thursday's Fights

TACOMA, Wash.—George Wright, 160½, Tacoma, knocked out Mel Ferguson, 157, Los Angeles, 1.

Big Ten Step Closer to Rose Bowl Renewal

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Renewal of a Rose Bowl football pact between the Big Ten and the Big Five moved a step closer to realization today.

The Big Five appointed a negotiations committee to meet with a similar group from the Big Ten at a date and site to be decided soon.

Last week in Chicago, the Big Ten voted 6-4 to renew the negotiations and appointed its committee. The previous pact, starting in 1947, expired after the 1960 Rose Bowl game and was not renewed when the Big Ten deadlocked 5-5.

Seaholm Sinks Thurston

Birmingham Seaholm fought off Detroit Thurston in their swim battle yesterday in the Maple pool with two big team relay victories to add to five individual firsts. The score was 63-42.

Rich Riccardi's victory in the starting 400 freestyle event surprised Thurston as the visitors were figured to win this event.

Ken Weibeck, probable state champion in the backstroke missed the state record one 1.4 seconds as he defeated Birmingham's Bob Wolfe in a time of 57.4.

The 200 medley relay team event was the most thrilling with Seaholm winning in 1:48.4. Thurston's time was 1:48.5. Weiback gave Thursday a big lead in the backstroke part of the relay but All-America butterfly ace Tom Spencer zoomed in his part of the relay in 23 seconds to put the Maples ahead.

Bowl Parade to Resume Saturday

Orange, Miami Liberty Rivals at Philadelphia

Ernie Davis, Syracuse Clash With Air-Minded Hurricanes

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Syracuse, a ground-minded team led by All-America halfback Ernie Davis, clashes with air-minded Miami Saturday in the third annual Liberty Bowl with the Orange favored to win.

Gustafson said passing star George Mira, a sophomore from Key West, Fla., who was held out of drills all week because of a slight case of flu and tonsilitis, definitely would start Saturday.

BOTH PRACTICE

Both teams arrived Thursday and worked out in the 100,000-seat Philadelphia Stadium, site of the nationally televised (NBC) game which is expected to draw between 15,000 and 20,000 fans.

Promoter Bud Dudley hoped for a good sale of tickets at the gate to hike the attendance. A small turnout could mean the end of the Liberty Bowl even though Dudley has vowed to keep it in Philadelphia. Last year the game drew only 16,000.

Mira, who has completed 74 of 151 passes for 896 yards and 8 touchdowns, will arrive here today. He was kept in the infirmary an additional day as a precautionary measure.

"We got a tough one," said Schwartzwalder, noting that his Orange had been favored. "They've got a good ball club. You never know how the ball is going to bounce."

BEST BACK

Naturally conceding that Davis who gained 823 yards and scored 15 TDs, was the best back he had, Schwartzwalder then quickly added:

Asked to compare Mira with Syracuse quarterback Dave Sarette, Schwartzwalder said, "We'll have to see. The game will be a good chance to test.

"Sarette is not as quick or hard but he has good accuracy."

Mira's favorite target is all-America end Bill Miller, of McKeesport, Pa., who also plays defensive halfback. Miller has grabbed 43 passes for 640 yards and two touchdowns.

Jim Taylor Shows Good Rushing Form

NEW YORK (AP) — Jim Taylor's bid to dethrone Cleveland's Jimmy Brown as the top rusher in the National Football League reaches the climax stage Sunday, last day of the regular season.

The gifted Green Bay Packer fullback will enter Sunday's game against the Rams at Los Angeles trailing Brown, league rushing leader each of the last four years and No. 1 this season, by 71 yards. Brown, in turn, will be busy in New York against the Eastern Conference pace-setting Giants.

Taylor gained 6 yards on Brown last Sunday as the teams of both players went down to defeat. The Browns bowed to the Chicago Bears 17-14 and the Packers to the San Francisco 49ers 22-21.

Brown has rushed an even 1,300 yards this season and Taylor 1,229. No other player is even close, the Giants' Alex Webster lagging far behind in third with 837.

Cleveland's quarterback Milt Plum continued to set the passing pace, according to NFL figures released today. He has completed 170 of 277 tosses for 2,325 yards, or 61.4 per cent, and 17 touchdowns. Philadelphia's Sonny Jurgensen is second and Green Bay's Bart Starr third.

Except in kickoff returns, all other races for individual honors remained unchanged. Dick Bass of the Los Angeles Rams stepped ahead of rookie Pat Studstill of Detroit as the No. 1 kickoff return specialist. Bass has an average of 31.8 yards to 29.7 for Studstill.

Injured McGee Wants to Keep Record Going

And he doesn't plan to miss the final regular National Football League game of the year at Los Angeles between Green Bay and the Rams.

"I still haven't given up on this one," the former Tulane star said Thursday while watching his teammates work out in the rain and mud for the Ram game.

"I am planning to at least punt, although I haven't tried to do anything yet."

McGee was injured in the third quarter of the Packer-San Francisco game last Sunday, cracking a rib when he caught a touchdown pass as he was smashed into the goal post.

He has a fantastic streak of consecutive games that dates back to his junior high school football days in 1943.

McGee, now in his sixth year in the National Football League, has had an excellent season. He ranks fifth among the NFL receivers with 51 catches for 883 yards and seven touchdowns. He also is one of the team's best punters.

Packer coach Vince Lombardi said that he was not sure whether he would use McGee even to punt.

Three of the Packer regulars, Paul Hornung, Boyd Dowler and Ray Nitschke, are at Army camps but have been obtaining passes to play in most of the Packer games. Dowler and McGee have been sharing punting chores.

If Dowler does not get to Los Angeles and McGee is told to sit it out, handyman Lew Carpenter is expected to take over an offensive end post and reserve quarterback John Roach probably will handle the punting.

'Y' Gang Basketball Tourney Planned

The YMCA Gang Basketball Tournament co-sponsored by the North Pontiac Kiwanis and the Pontiac YMCA will be held this month at the YMCA and a total of 16 teams will be invited.

A Prep division will be for boys 9-11 and Junior division for boys 12-14. All teams must have a minimum of 7 players and a maximum of 10 along with adult manager or coach. Entry blanks should be picked up at the Y and deadline is Friday, December 27th. The Preps will play Dec. 28 and the Junior the next day with the finals set for Dec. 30th.

Bluebonnet Foes Similar, Jayhawk Coach Believes

HOUSTON (AP) —Jack Mitchell said today his Kansas Jayhawks and the Rice Owls, opponents in Saturday's Bluebonnet Bowl game, are very much alike.

"I'd say they are about even," said the Kansas coach. "It ought to be a good offensive game."

Mitchell arrived Thursday, a day ahead of his Big Eight conference team. He was worried because his Jayhawks have had only two practice sessions outdoors and we really don't have a place to work indoors," he said. "We need work on blocking and pass defense. I really don't know what to expect."

The former Oklahoma quarterback said neither Rice nor Kansas has an explosive-type player who can break up a ball game in a hurry.

"Rice has Butch Blume and we have Curtis McClinton but they aren't James Saxtons, Doak Walkers, or Billy Cannons," he said.

"Each of those teams has to be at maximum to win. That is obvious from their records, but I'd say that Rice, at maximum, is as good as any team in the country."

Kansas, with a 6-3-1 record, accepted its second bowl game invitation in history after finishing in a second place tie with Missouri in the Big Eight. Rice was third in the Southwest Conference with a 7-3 record.

He said his quarterback, John Hadl, has good and bad days as a passer.

"But I'd say he's the most versatile back I've ever coached," he said. "He can run and kick as well as pass. He's only been a quarterback two years. With more experience, I'd say he could be a fine pro quarterback."

Lake Oakland Holds Slim Volleyball Edge

First-place Lake Oakland Heights and runner-up Lotus Lake continued to run nip-and-tuck in the Waterford Township Recreation Department men's volley ball league second-half race this week, remaining one game apart.

Unbeaten Lake Oakland stretched its streak to nine games with a 15-12, 15-13, 15-13 sweep over Wilson Street, while Lotus Lake, first-half-season champ, shut out Scott Lake, 15-6, 15-6, 15-8.

Other results: Williams Lake blanked Stumble Bums, 15-6, 15-2, 15-13; Comets took two of three from Pontiac Lake, 7-15, 15-9, 15-8; and Highland Estates was awarded three victories over the Bouncers via the forfeit route.

Mart Treads Cautiously

Lower Blue Chips Firming Up

NEW YORK (AP)—Blue chips showed a steadier tone in a mixed stock market early this afternoon. Trading was fairly active.

Most gains and losses were fractional.

The "big" highly-capitalized issues which have laced the latest rally and then declined sharply on profit taking were mostly firm.

The British and Dutch issues of Unilever, which made their debut this week with a strong rise followed by a steep decline, showed minor plus signs as they met support.

Yearend cross currents still prevailed. Volume was substantially lower than in any session this week. The market was treading cautiously and little group leadership was shown.

The aerospace issues, however, were generally higher. Mail order-retail stocks also improved. Most coppers, drugs and chemicals declined.

Unilever Ltd., traded on tremendous volume in the past two days, recovered ⅜ at 28⅝ on an opening block of 20,000 shares, then pared the gain. Unilever N. V. held a fractional gain.

General Motors, American Telephone and Standard Oil (New Jersey) held fairly steady. U. S. Steel and some other leaders in this group eased.

Schering was off more than a point as drugs continued soft. Carter Products fell 1½ to 61 on 15,900 shares, then reduced the loss.

Prices on the American Stock Exchange were mixed in heavy trading. Gulf American Land dropped about a point in active dealings. Acme Missile "A", Mead Johnson and Stop-&-Shop were off about 2 apiece. Syntex dropped about a point and Webb & Knapp was heavily traded and fractionally lower

Corporate Bonds Slow

There were few changes among corporates amounting to a full point. An exception were New Jersey Power & Light 3s, off 1⅜ at 81⅛. Lionel convertible 5¼s lost 1¾ at 103.

Fractional gainers included: West Shore Railroad 4s at 50¼, American Tobacco 3s of 1962 at 100 1/16 and Commonwealth Edison 3s of 1977 at 84.

Off fractions were: Southern Pacific Railroad 5¼s at 101, Standard Oil (New Jersey) 2⅝s at 83½ and Public Service Electric & Gas 3s of 1963 at 98.

Sees Increase in Construction

Architect Says '62 Should Bring Moderate Boost in Activity

"During 1961 the construction industry has experienced a modest increase in activity over the previous year, and 1962 should see a continuation of this trend," comments Paul B. Brown, 2785 Ayrshire Drive, Bloomfield Hills, president of the Detroit chapter of American Institute of Architects, and a vice president of Harley, Ellington, Cowin and Stirton, Inc., Detroit architects and engineers.

"Although the upturn was small and somewhat spotty this past year, and may improve only moderately during 1962, economic factors in general are sound and encourage us to believe that this will be a period of increasing activity in the construction field," he said.

He continued: "While the past four or five years have been a period of comparatively moderate construction activity, they have brought a greater realization to architects, as well as to the public, of the problem of economic and social waste caused by the decay of our metropolitan centers.

"Increased activity in urban renewal should prove to be a stimulus to the construction industry."

Story of Japan Today Is Told in Its Architecture

HONOLULU (AP) — Architecture is playing a leading role in Japan's social passage "from feudalism to industrialization," an American architect believes.

Antonin Raymond, who first went to Japan in 1919 to assist the late Frank Lloyd Wright in designing Tokyo's Imperial Hotel, told a conference of architects in Honolulu:

"Structures in Japan are huge today. The architects who design these buildings seem to be carried away by a vision of permanence, solidity, power and enormity of scale as an end in itself.

"They have opened the door for a number of social changes in Japan and have helped bring the country into the industrial age."

Raymond has designed a number of buildings in Tokyo, including the U.S. Embassy, St. Luke's Hospital, Women's Christian College, St. Anselm's Church and Gunman Music Hall.

Man Commandeers Miami Cabin Cruiser

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A 39-foot cabin cruiser tied to a Miami beach pier was commandeered today by an armed man, who ordered the captain to put to sea.

A Coast Guard 40-foot patrol boat and helicopter were sent in pursuit.

The Coast Guard said Miami Beach police reported the gunman pulled a pistol on the captain of the Sandona, and ordered him to head through Government Cut into open Atlantic waters.

The captain, whose name was not immediately learned, was the only one on board the Sandona.

All-Time Record Seen

Yule Buying on the Rise

By JACK LEFLER
AP Business News Writer

NEW YORK — Shoppers' dollars are falling like snowflakes into cash registers as the Christmas buying season swirls toward what may be an all-time record.

Merchants across the country generally report that crowds started jamming the stores on the day after Thanksgiving and have kept coming.

A trend toward buying fallout shelter equipment as household gifts was noted by some merchants.

"It's wonderful!" chortled Joe Falk, owner of a big Kansas City toy store. "People are looser with their money than last year. They're buying the good stuff and don't care what they have to spend."

SOME ABOUT PAR

In some areas, however, buying was about on a par with last year or a little lower. Apprehension over the international situation and anxiety over further call-up of reserves made some people cautious about heavy buying.

The United States Chamber of Commerce predicted Americans would spend $23 billion this Christmas, up 4 per cent from record 1960. The National Retail Merchants Association forecast a 2 per cent gain.

An Associated Press survey of merchants in major cities indicated that in most areas people are buying more and better merchandise, have lost much of the caution that marked their shopping last year and are splurging somewhat on luxuries.

Merchants feel that general business improvement is reflected in the attitude of their customers.

Prices are generally holding close to last year with increased competition from discount houses being a factor.

"Saturday, Dec. 9, was the biggest day we've ever had," said Cyril Magnin, president of Joseph Magnin Co. with stores in San Francisco and Reno and Lav Vegas, Nev. "Christmas shopping started out slow but it sure picked up and I think we'll roll along for a top year now."

"Georgians are spending with enthusiasm," said Harold Brockey, president of Rich's Department Store in Atlanta.

'GO AHEAD AND BUY'

Wallace Dreyfoos, president of another Atlanta department store, Davison-Paxon Co., added that "the buyers don't seem to have the price consciousness that you expect from cautious shoppers. If they want something, they go ahead and buy it."

Arthur L. Manchee, president of Macy's, biggest store of all, predicted its sales would be 5 to 6 per cent ahead of last year.

"December is exceeding all of our expectations," said Melvin E. Dawley, president of New York City's Lord & Taylor.

In Los Angeles, Maggie Paxton, sales promotion manager for the May Co. department stores, commented:

"We're ahead in transactions but behind in dollars. We're selling more toys but there's less profit margin. It takes 15 per cent more business to get the same dollar profit."

The buying season started out strong in Dallas and some major store owners said they expect total sales to be substantially above a year ago.

Miami, Fla., department store managers predicted a record buying season. "The public is in a mood to buy," said Murray Turetsky, general manager of Jackson's-Byrons Department Store.

Washington, D. C., department stores expect a modest 2 to 3 per cent increase over last year and are wondering why it isn't better.

One merchant has his own answer: worry over the international situation.

"I feel that people are holding back on big instalment purchases — younger people especially," he said. "I believe there is much apprehension over the possibility that more reserves, and possibly the National Guard might be called up."

Tentatively Agree on Two-Year Pact

DETROIT (AP) — American Metal Products Co., of Detroit, and United Auto Workers Union Local 174 reached tentative agreement Thursday on a new two-year contract.

The company has been closed by a strike since Dec. 6 affecting 1,500 employes.

Federal and state mediators said the proposed pact would be submitted to union members Saturday. A previous contract proposal was rejected by workers Dec. 3.

Wind Up Purchase Talks at Du Pont Montague

MONTAGUE (AP)—DuPont Montague workers say negotiations have been completed for purchase of the Union Carbide Olefins Co. acetylene plant here.

DuPont said that after the purchase early next year the approximately 13 Union Carbide employes would be allowed to move with their jobs.

Wall Street Chatter

NEW YORK (UPI)—Tax transactions involving both profits and losses continue to dominate the stock market as prices chase each other around in strange convolutions without any discernible trend, says the Investograph stock survey.

However, it adds, some patterns are beginning to emerge. The long-liquidated oils are beginning to get support and last week impressive buying developed in the auto group "where things seem to be getting better and better."

L. O. Hooper of W. E. Hutton & Co. says this is the time of year when it sometimes pays to look around for unpopular issues under severe tax selling pressure. He says if the stocks show further weakness in the next two weeks, it might be a good idea to take trading positions in some of the better electronics and vending machine shares.

Recently granted rate increases call attention to the fact that carefully selected utilities are still legitimate purchases despite the long and steady rise of the group as a whole, according to Thomson & McKinnon.

Joseph E. Granville of E. R. Hutton & Co. says that despite little spots of weakness and intermittent phases of irregularity which occur from time to time, the market as a whole continues to perform well and there is no change in the current opinion which is a bullish one, calling for new highs on year-end strength with a good spillover into the new year.

The Shields survey says the President's program to liberalize our trade policies, however badly needed, "is anything but certain to go through. If it does, its final form is now beyond foreseeing."

6.4 Million Cars Seen Next Year

Ford's Subcompact Due to Increase U.S. Output, Says Commerce Dept.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — At least one auto maker is expected to offer a subcompact car in 1962 to compete with small imported European models, the Commerce Department said today.

The department made only a passing reference to the subcompact in its annual review of the auto industry's past year and outlook for the year ahead.

The Business and Defense Service Administration cited the expected introduction of a subcompact as one of the factors on which it based a prediction of an increase of at least one million in auto production in 1962.

There have been reports from Detroit for some time that Ford Motor Co. planned to market a small car in 1962 in an attempt to compete with such foreign makes as the Volkswagen.

The Commerce Department statement, however, is the closest anyone has come to date to making Ford's plans official.

The department said auto production in 1962 should range from 6.4 million to 6.8 million. Scheduled 1961 production, it said, is 5.5 million, a 17.6 per cent drop from the 1960 figure of 6,674,796.

The 1961 production, the lowest since the 1958 recession, was adversely affected by a general economic decline, severe weather conditions during the first quarter of the year, and strikes in the auto industry, the report said.

New Car Sales Down This Month, but Best Since '56

DETROIT (AP) — New car sales slowed during the first 10 days of this month but sales for the period still were the best since 1956.

Ward's reports said Thursday that sales during the period averaged 18,582 daily, the slowest selling rate since the introduction of the 1962 models in late September. But, it added, despite the drop, the rate was the best for the period since 1956.

It said total deliveries were 148,654.

The selling rate during the first 10 days of November was a record 21,800 and for the first 10 days of October it was 20,875.

He was graduated from Clark University and received advanced degrees at the University of Michigan.

Grain Futures Mart Steady to Easier

CHICAGO (AP)—The grain futures market was generally steady to easier in initial dealings today with gains few and small.

Losses in rye ran to major fractions as speculators liquidated long positions acquired Thursday on an erroneous report that Poland had been granted a large credit for purchase of the grain from the United States. Distant soybean contracts also were weak.

Ringing In Christmas

It's Music Everywhere

THESE MILWAUKEE, Wis., carolers are typical of America's more than 32 million amateur musicians who will make this the most musical Christmas ever. In churches and outdoors, they will tell of the meaning of Christmas.

Music is as important to Christmas as holly, mistletoe and gaily wrapped packages. Even more important, music recreates the true meaning of the holiday season for all who listen.

Of course, Christmas is celebrated musically in different ways in different parts of the country.

For instance, bells have a special Christmas meaning in Boston. On Christmas Eve, the Beacon Hill Bell Ringers present their special Christmas concert for thousands of Bostonians who visit Louisburg Square.

STARTED IN 1952

These programs began in 1952 with musical settings for pantomime reproductions of Christmas paintings. More recent presentations have included "Hansel and Gratel," and "Cinderella."

The entire production is performed by members of the South Bay-Torrence Civic Symphony Orchestra, St. Cecelia Choir, and amateur singers, dancers and actors from the surrounding area.

Perhaps the largest gathering of yuletide music makers is in Detroit, where more than 3,200 singers from church choirs in the area gather to sing carols and relive the Christmas story.

Take Potluck Playing Pinata

Colorful Mexican Yule Game Can Be Enjoyed Anywhere

South of the border, down Mexico way, the pinata is to Mexican children what the Christmas tree is to their Northern neighbors. Yet this colorful Mexican custom can be the highlight of a children's Christmas party anywhere.

In Mexico, pinatas are large clay pots elaborately decorated with tissue paper of various colors. Oftein they are designed in the shape of birds, animals or comic faces.

HAPPY SCRAMBLE

They are then allowed to swing three times for the pinata, hoping to shatter the clay pot and send its contents spilling over the floor. A happy scramble follows.

Next, take a long piece of cord and pass it through the drainage hole in the bottom of the pot, knotting it inside the pot so that the pot may be suspended upside down. Then select the goodies with which to fill your pinata.

After filling the pot to the brim with these, glue the saucer firmly to the rim of the pot and let dry overnight. As for decoration, you can paint your pinata with cheerful, bright designs, add streamers, or let your imagination run riot with stiff construction paper and cellophane tape, to add wings, ears, or whatever you want.

The pinata may be suspended directly from the ceiling or from another cord run from one wall to another. Just be certain that it is well out in the center of the room so that the stick-wielding youngsters shatter nothing but the pinata.

Scientist Heads MSUO Program

Dr. William Hammerle Approved as Director of Engineering Studies

DR. W. G. HAMMERLE

Dr. William G. Hammerle, 34, associate professor of physics at Michigan State University Oakland, today was named director of MSUO's engineering program.

Hammerle's appointment was approved this morning by the Board of Trustees.

A member of the MSUO faculty since the university opened in September 1959, Hammerle received his doctor of philosophy degree from Princeton University. His bachelor of science degree is from California Institute of Technology.

Prior to his appointment to the MSUO faculty, he was, for three years, assistant professor at Michigan State University, East Lansing. From 1954 to 1956, he was a research assistant in chemistry at Yale University.

Selection of a scientist rather than an engineer to head this program is in keeping with MSUO's plans to offer a new kind of engineering education to undergraduates, Chancellor D. B. Varner said.

"We must eschew vocationalism; give relatively little attention to tration on preparing the innovator and director of the future by giving him a broad grounding in principles. This engineer will also get a liberal education, because the needs of the future demand it," Varner said.

Dr. Hammerle resides at 431 Bay St.

Robbers Kill Guard, Get Cash, Escape

NEW YORK (AP)—Two robbers, one described as a wild, trigger-happy tommy gunner, invaded a Brooklyn bank today and killed a guard, sprayed the walls with bullets and fled with an undetermined amount of money.

They also exchanged shots with a foot patrolman who raced to the scene, Salvatore Accardi. A bullet from the robbers struck the officer's badge and knocked him through a glass door, causing cuts on his leg and wrist.

Hospital attaches said later that the badge saved the officer's life by deflecting the bullet.

Board Promises Aid to School Study Unit

The newly formed Pontiac School Study Group last night was promised the cooperation of the Pontiac Board of Education.

The citizens' group had sent a letter to the board outlining its purpose—to improve communications between schools and community.

"We certainly appreciate your interest in the schools, and I'm sure I'm speaking for the rest of the board when I say we commend such interest."

Supt. Dana P. Whitmer promised to provide a speaker on the proposed Pontiac-area community college for the group's 8 p.m., Jan. 9 meeting at the Teamsters Hall, Orchard Lake and Telegraph roads.

A speaker had been requested by Brown "to give us some education about such a college."

U.S. Astronauts to Follow Glenn Every 60 Days

CHICAGO (AP) — The United States plans to rocket another man around the earth every 60 days next year if the orbital flight by astronaut John H. Glenn Jr., now scheduled for January, is a success.

The 1962 U.S. space program was outlined Thursday by Dr. Walter T. Olson, scientist with the National Aeronautics and Space Administration Lewis research center in Cleveland, Ohio.

One of the big parts of the program is an ion engine, no bigger than a woman's hat box, that theoretically can push an already rocketing object closer to the speed of light.

Psychological Study of Eichmann Urged

NEW YORK (AP)—Pearl S. Buck, the novelist, suggested today that Adolf Eichmann be kept alive and subjected to scientific study that might show how 'such degeneration can take place in human beings."

In a cable to Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion of Israel, she said such a study by psychologists and others might help in preventing and possibly rehabilitating other cases.

Johnson Handles Weekend Extras

Both Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara are attending conferences in Paris through the weekend. Officials said this was a factor in announcing special arrangements for Johnson to receive frequent briefings during this period.

Press Secretary Pierre Salinger said "special communications have been set up so that Johnson can be in touch when needed with the Defense Department, the State Department, and the White House."

Salinger said Kennedy talked this morning to Johnson, who is in Texas for the funeral of an aunt and expects to remain in his home state this weekend.

The call went through shortly before Kennedy was scheduled to take off on a journey that will carry him to Caracas, the Venezuelan capital, where disturbances and demonstrations against his visit have been popping up. This is the city where former Vice-President Richard M. Nixon was stoned by riotous mobs two and a half years ago.

Informed U.S. officials said no significance should be attached to this background in connection with the arrangements to keep Johnson abreast of all important matters over the weekend.

Allies Shaping Policy on Berlin

Work on Wording of Message to OK Talks on Compromise

Informed diplomats said the declaration also would include a reaffirmation of the West's readiness to fight for its war-won rights in the divided city if Moscow refuses an honorable agreement.

The Berlin dispute dominated seven days of consultation in Paris which began with a meeting last weekend between French President Charles de Gaulle and West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer and continued at meetings of the Western foreign ministers and the North Atlantic Treaty Organization ministerial council.

Experts drafting the communique until the early hours sought to give an impression of solidarity at the windup of the annual meeting of the NATO foreign, defense and finance ministers. But it was well-known that De Gaulle had refused to line France up with the 14 other NATO nations which, in varying degree, expressed a wish for immediate negotiations on Berlin with the Soviet Union.

Swainson Urges Con-Con to Adopt 'Bill of Duties'

LANSING (AP) — Gov. Swainson called upon the constitutional convention today to adopt a strong statement in support of freedom and the right to express unpopular or controversial ideas.

In a message to the convention, Swainson recognized bill of rights day by urging the adoption not only of a new declaration of rights but of a "bill of duties."

"Our state constitution should point out in unmistakable language that respect for the individual means respect for every individual—not just those with whom we happen to agree," Swainson said, adding:

"We have achieved our present position of greatness because—as a people—we have rejected the idea that unpopular or controversial ideas of people must be throttled."

Pontiac General Accredited by Hospital Board

Pontiac General Hospital has been given full accreditation for a three-year period by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals.

The announcement was made by Hospital Administrator Harold B. Euler at Thursday night's Board of Trustees meeting.

Representing the accreditation commission, Dr. Theodore J. Hughes made a thorough investigation of Pontiac General operation Oct. 23 and 24.

Yesterday, Euler was informed by Dr. Kenneth B. Babcock, director of the commission, that Pontiac General had passed the inspection with flying colors.

"This is very important to us," Euler said. "Accrediatation is a mark of quality and almost essential to contiuned growth and success."

Total output of diamonds amounts to 2.5 tons per year in the world. About 90 per cent is sent to the U.S. to be used for jewels, but mostly for industrial purposes.

Buying Gold Can Be Legal

However, U.S. Exerts Warn Against It Because Ounce Price to Be Held

WASHINGTON (UPI) — If you are a frustrated gold bug seeking to speculate against the dollar, there is a legitimate way to do it.

Be warned, however, that U.S. Treasury officials and most other responsible financial experts advise against it.

A little known section in the Treasury gold regulations permits Americans to own gold coins made before April 5, 1933, and those made later — all foreign — which are officially deemed to be rare.

Coin dealers have been advertising this to people interested in buying gold coins. The dealers sell them from stock or buy them abroad and charge a fee or commission.

The advertising literature of one such dealer urges people to buy gold coins on the assumption that eventually the United States will have to raise the price it pays for gold, $35 an ounce since 1933.

Such a step is unlikely for far into the future.

This is the opinion of experts both in and out of the government.

SCORES OF tiny twinkling Christmas lights lend glitter and glamor to a Christmas party table cloth of felt. Easy to make, it will add a festive note to the party when tiny lights peek out from slits in the felt cloth.

Sparkling Cloth Easy to Make

Light Cord Run Around on Wrong Side Lets Candles Glow

To make a sparkling felt Christmas tablecloth, measure across the center top of the table. Add to this 12 inches for overhang. Then double the overhang measure.

Fold resulting large rectangle in half crosswise and then in half lengthwise. Now, to a pencil, tie a string that is exactly one-half the diameter of the finished cloth. Secure other end of string with a thumb tack to folded corner of cloth. (This would be exact center of cloth.)

Use pencil to mark a curve along edge of cloh. Cut through four thicknesses along this penciled curve. Open cloth.

Draw on brown wrapping paper, patterns for holly leaf, poinsettia petals and candles. Transfer to green and red felt for leaves and petals and yellow felt for candles.

Cut out, allowing one-inch seam allowance around candle and baste in position on cloth.

Set your sewing machine for a narrow satin stitch and applique candles in position; cut off excess fabric at stitching line. Stitch petals through the center.

Cut small slits where Christmas lights are to sparkle, and on wrong side of cloth secure light cords with masking tape.

Board Accepting Special Funds

But School Group Goes on Record Against U.S. Aid, in Principle

The Pontiac Board of Education last night turned down a resolution to back general and increased federal aid to education but accepted a $47,000 contribution through the National Defense Education Act.

A stand on the resolution had been requested by the Oakland County School Boards Association, from all school boards in the county.

Board members unanimously agreed they were against additional federal activity in local schools but that they accepted existing programs like the help received through NDEA.

The $47,223.34 is the sum approved by the Department of Public Instruction out of a total of $47,399.19 requested by the district under its eligibility in NDEA.

The greater part, $34,433.38, will go to pay guidance personnel salaries. The provision of the act reimburses school districts after they have upgraded their counseling programs.

In War and Peace

NEW YORK (UPI) — An Ohio manufacturer has developed a "radiation arkmobile" which can be used either as a fallout shelter or as a mobile trailer or house boat. The 12-foot aluminum cylinder sells for less than $3,000 installed underground.

Church, Minister Honored for Aid to Refugees

NEW YORK (UPI)—Guideposts magazine has presented its 1961 Church Award to the Rev. Harold E. Buell and his White Temple Methodist Church of Miami, Fla., in recognition of its three-year-old program to aid Cuban refugees.

Guideposts, of which the Rev. Dr. Norman Vincent Peale is editor-in-chief, selected the White Temple Church for having excelled in showing "conspicuous initiative and spiritual creativity."

Since Fidel Castro came to power in Cuba in 1959, the congregation of the church has offered aid to refugees from the island.

Committees were formed to deal with refugee problems, money was contributed and emergency food and clothing were provided.

The Sunday schoolrooms have been used on weekdays for relief projects. An apartment in the rear of the sanctuary serves as a men's dormitory.

Professor's Doodles Solve Mayan Symbols

AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI) — Doodles scrawled during a dull meeting have given history an explanation of how to work with ancient Maya Indian arithmetic symbols.

Dr. George I. Sanchez, University of Texas professor of history and philosophy of education, said he discovered the meaning of interactions between the dot, dash and closed shell—the three symbols in Mayan arithmetic—as he doodled. He has published "Arithmetic in Mayan" expanding his ideas.

Development Board Seeks Budget Boost

LANSING (AP) — The State Economic Development Commission has announced it will ask the legislature for an appropriation of $461,722 for the next fiscal year, most of the increase asked to establish an office at Washington, D.C., and to add staff members.

The commission budget for the current fiscal year is $307,272.

The increased appropriation, if granted, would permit the filling of an industrial agent vacancy, add three members to the staff of the research division, provide a fund for brochures and exhibits, finance a survey of foreign trade opportunities and establish the office in Washington.

Lull at Quemoy Now Stretches Into 95th Day

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) —An unprecedented lull in Communist action against the Nationalist-held Quemoy Islands stretched into its 95th day today.

The Nationalist defense ministry said the Reds might be trying "to create the illusion that they are not so belligerent after all" or "to lure the defenders into dropping their guard."

The lull is the longest since Chinese Communist forces began shelling the little islands in 1949.

2 Hours Reflected Man's Best, Worst

By FRED DANZIG

NEW YORK (UPI) — In two tastefully produced, glowing and affirmative hours, CBS-TV Thursday night mirrored the best and worst of our 20th century civilization.

First came "A Joyful Noise," representing those whose truths are obtained from music. And then came "CBS Reports" with "Can We Disarm?" representing man's search for the answer to the terrors of his technology.

Leonard Bernstein and the New York Philharmonic took charge of nourishing the soul with a program of joyous, even swinging, Christmas music by Francis Poulenc, Olivier Messiaen, Lukas Foss, Handel, Bach and Benjamin Britten.

Bernstein, in the music hour, explained that religious music needn't be symmetrical, sober and squared-off with all the usual organ sounds. He reminded us that the psalmists called for joyful noises unto the Lord and went on to devote the program to fulfilling that invitation.

The music, of course, was no less fervent or pious for all its exultant designs. Bernstein narrated his own meaty script and used the music for illustration and punctuation.

Despite a couple of camera lapses, it was a most joyful and pleasurable hour. Helping the bright-eyed and bushy-haired conductor make his point were boys from the choir school of St. Thomas Church in New York and William Jonson's Choral Art Society.

Bernstein concluded the program with what could be construed as an impassioned introduction to the "CBS Reports" program. Pointing to the boys in the choir, he said, "For their sake, let there be peace in the world."

LAST OF SERIES

Which brings us to "Can We Disarm?" last of the two-part "Balance of Terror" series on CBS-TV.

The hour ranged from the Baruch Plan to this week's moves at the United Nations as it explored the 16-year history of on-again off-again disarmament talks.

Film clips showing wartime nuclear and non-nuclear destruction and the latest weaponry doodads were woven into the report for added emphasis. There were excerpts from recent eloquent speeches by President Kennedy and Gen. Douglas MacArthur which dealt with the urgent need for a workable system of disarmament.

Our Actresses Excluded From Rennie's List

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Women got so drooly over Michael Rennie that I finally had to tell them, "Personally, I consider Yogi Berra is prettier . . ."

WILSON

After the ensuing riot had quieted to tornado proportions, I said:

"Is that his real hair color? . . . How come he doesn't call himself 'Mike' Rennie instead of Michael?"

Actually, Rennie's a nice English bloke — and everything that these silly biddies claim he is. He's something of a Brain. He'd been brooding about the Congressional probe of "foreign import" actors taking the caviar out of American actor's mouths—and made up a list of the world's greatest and most attractive actresses, to wit:

Ingrid Bergman (Swedish) Sophia Loren (Italian)
Simone Signoret (French) Melina Mercouri (Greek)
Audrey Hepburn (Belgian) Jean Simmons (English)
Elizabeth Taylor (English)

"How about Marilyn Monroe?" I asked loyally.

"She hasn't been nominated for an Oscar; she isn't of their stature," Rennie said.

"Don't knock her stature to me," I warned. Then to the fan club babes I said, "How do you like him slurring Americans, saying there aren't any great, beautiful American actresses?"

"He's perfectly right," they said.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Jack Carter and his wife Paula Stewart are pricing a five-story Manhattan town house . . . Christmas packages mailed to Havana from the U.S. are being opened for inspection . . . Benny Goodman was signed for the Seattle World's Fair . . . Remember Madman Muntz? His current interest is stereo for autos.

The latest Nielson TV ratings show "Wagon Train" leading "Bonanza" and Ed Sullivan. Then it's Perry Mason, Mitch Miller, Disney and Perry Como.

EARL'S PEARLS: Sign spotted in a liquor store: "New Year's Eve Is Coming—Don't Be Quart Short."

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: A lazy fellow said he'll obey Pres. Kennedy's plea to be more active in sports: "I'll shout louder when I'm watching football games."

WISH I'D SAID THAT: Some people are easily entertained. All you have to do is sit down and listen to them.—Quote.

A Hollywood producer (according to Mike Connolly) said it in a studio conference: "Will somebody please think of some ideas I can have?" That's earl, brother.

'Few Complain of Packaging'

Food Firm Executive Tells Senate Probers Mail Belies Testimony

WASHINGTON (AP) — An executive of one of the nation's largest food firms said today her company gets less than five letters a day complaining about its packages.

The executive, Ellen-Ann Dunham, vice president of General Foods Corp., compared the small number of letters received to the 15 to 16 million packages of products sold each day by the firm.

She told the Senate Antitrust and Monopoly subcommittee in prepared testimony that her company's experience is "contrary to opinions you have heard about consumers being considerably upset about what has been termed deceptive packaging."

Like other industry witnesses before her, Miss Dunham questioned the practicality of writing rigid legislative standards for the $70-billion worth of market basket items sold yearly.

Nonetheless, she said she felt the inquiry being conducted by Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., has proved beneficial and served the public interest.

"Quite candidly," she said, "it prompted us to take another look at all our packages and labels and, we suspect, other companies are taking another look at theirs."

Two Die in Flaming Crash on Dixie

WHERE TWO WERE KILLED — Reduced to rubble, this car carried two youths to their deaths last night on Dixie Highway when it collided head-on with a semitruck, passed under the truck trailer and burst into flames. The car was speeding in an effort to elude a pursuing sheriff's patrol car near Clarkston. A lone survivor in the car and the truck driver were admitted to Pontiac General Hospital.

Pontiac Girl, 16, Killed Instantly; Driver Burned

Two Others in Hospital After Souped-Up Car Smashes Into Truck

By DICK HANSON

A 20-year-old youth and one of his two young female passengers from Pontiac were killed last night when his souped-up convertible crashed head-on into a semitruck and burst into flames on Dixie Highway near Clarkston.

The fiery crash shortly before 11 p.m. climaxed a 90-mile-an-hour chase by a sheriff's patrol car.

Dawn Rivenberg, 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Laverne W. Beatty, 48 Hazel Ave., was killed instantly when the hot-rod convertible skidded under the trailer of the truck. She suffered a crushed skull.

The driver of the car, Jerry R. Winebarger, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Leach, 6181 Ascension St., Independence Township, was burned to death in the flaming wreck.

Winebarger's other passenger, Caroline B. Jenks, 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jenks, 771 Wing St., was admitted to Pontiac General Hospital with multiple cuts and bruises. Her condition was listed as fair today.

TRUCKER IN HOSPITAL

The truck driver, Clair T. Cook, 38, of Alma, was hospitalized for observation. He has a possible head injury.

The car clipped off a saddle gas tank from the truck and careened under the trailer. The car knocked off the rear wheels and axle of the heavy rig and kept going more than 100 feet.

Deputy Jack Lawrence, who was pursuing the car, said a rise in the road ahead obscured his view of the collision.

"Next thing I saw were flames 30 feet high enveloping the car," said Lawrence. He summoned the Independence Township Fire Department.

TWO ARE DEAD

Firemen extricated Winebarger from the charred ruins of his car but he already was fatally burned. The dead girl's body was pinned under one of the car wheels.

The surviving girl, a life-long companion of the other, was thrown eight feet from the car.

A fourth youth, Lawrence Loehne, 18, of 4841 Kempf Drive, Drayton Plains, had gotten out of the car near his home minutes

Pay No Attention to Agitation

Kennedys Off for Puerto Rico

By WHITNEY SHOEMAKER

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy, undeterred by agitation against him and the United States in Venezuela, sets out today on his first Latin American journey as chief executive.

With Mrs. Kennedy, he scheduled a noon takeoff from Andrews Air Force Base, Md., for San Juan, Puerto Rico.

The Kennedys will spend the night with Gov. and Mrs. Luis Munoz Marin, then point Saturday for the scene of armed anti-U. S. outbreaks in Caracas, the capital of Venezuela.

They fly from there to Bogota, Colombia, on Sunday.

Mobs prodded by Communists stoned, spat upon and battered cars bearing former Vice President and Mrs. Richard M. Nixon in Caracas on their goodwill trip to Latin America in 1958.

Gun-waving leftists seized a radio transmitter Thursday near Caracas and broadcast attacks against Kennedy.

Echoing the charges of Communist Prime Minister Fidel Castro of Cuba, they declared Kennedy was plotting another Cuban invasion with Venezuelan President Romulo Betancourt. Earlier, 50 persons were arrested on charges of painting "Kennedy No" on walls in Caracas.

STONES TOSSED

Riot police had to break up demonstrations last week, and stones were tossed at a group of U.S. senators visiting Caracas.

The White House has taken scant public notice of the Communist-inspired protests. Pierre Salinger, press secretary, said in advance of the President's takeoff that absolutely no thought had been given to canceling the trip. He said the Caracas demonstrations had caused no uneasiness at the White House.

U.S. authorities have covered the route the Kennedys will follow throughout the weekend. Venezuelan officials have reinforced the Caracas military garrison and promised to summon additional troops if deemed necessary to guarantee the Kennedys' safety.

DON'T WANT KENNEDY—Among the demonstrators in Caracas, Venezuela, agitating against the visit of President Kennedy this weekend are these two girls. With "Kennedy No" sashes across their shoulders they parade in front of the Government Palace. Police launched a roundup of those trying to stir up trouble.

Hopes Run High for a Peaceful Congo Solution

Capital Awaits Answer From Tshombe on JFK's Cease-Fire Offer

WASHINGTON (AP)—Hopes ran high in Washington today for a peaceful solution of the Congo dispute.

The hopes depended on acceptance by Katanga President Moise Tshombe of an offer which the White House press secretary, Pierre Salinger, said President Kennedy sent to Tshombe Thursday night.

Kennedy's letter may be made public today.

U. S. authorities regarded as a potential major breakthrough in the Congo muddle a cable which Tshombe sent Kennedy Thursday.

Informants said Tshombe indicated a willingness to negotiate with Congolese Premier Cyrille Adoula and—as reported by the Brussels radio—asked Kennedy to "appoint a worthy negotiator and stop immediately this useless bloodshed."

Kennedy personally moved into the ensuing diplomatic maneuvering. While Adlai E. Stevenson, U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations, cleared moves with acting U.N. Secretary-General U Thant in New York, Kennedy notified Adoula and named the U.S. Ambassador in the Congo, Edmund Gullion, as his personal representative in the Congo situation.

Kennedy's proposal to Tshombe was said to be sufficiently precise about getting negotiations with Adoula under way so that Tshombe could not pull out of the negotiations while taking advantage of a U.N. cease fire.

U.S. sources figured Adoula would be agreeable to meeting Tshombe if Tshombe accepts.

EXPECT NO TRUCE

Diplomats at the U.N. expressed belief, however, that no cease fire is likely soon between the United Nations and secessionist Katanga despite the intervention by Kennedy.

They predicted Kennedy would back up U Thant's determination to continue the U.N. military action in Katanga until Tshombe showed a readiness to negotiate in good faith for a unified Congo.

Elisabethville, U.N. troops and Katangans fought only a quarter mile from the heart of the city.

Both sides had consolidated their positions during the night.

Katangan infantrymen were reported battling hard, but edging back in the face of a determined assault by Gurkhas, the Nepalese professionals in India's U. N. units.

Paul L. Adams Gets Judgeship

Atty. Gen. Appointed to Succeed Edwards on Supreme Court

A former mayor of Sault Ste. Marie and an ex-University of Michigan regent, Adams has been the state's to legal officer since 1958.

He was twice elected to the job.

His appointment maintains the Democrats' 5-3 majority on the high court.

Swainson called Adams "a notable addition to the Supreme Court" and commended "his knowledge of law and this demonstrated concern for the rights of individuals.

The attorney general led a list of some eight men who were under consideration for the Supreme Court vacancy.

He was twice passed over for an appointment to the high court bench when Justice John Voelker and Talbot Smith resigned.

Former Wayne County Circuit Judge Theodore Souris got the Voelker vacancy and Aud. Gen. Otis M. Smith was named to replace Talbot Smith.

Eichmann Gets Death Sentence

Ex-Nazi Stands Erect While Court Condemns Him to the Gallows

JERUSALEM (AP) — Adolf Eichmann, Nazi Germany's expediter of Jews to the gas chambers, was sentenced today to hang in Israel for "a crime of unparalleled enormity."

Moshe Landau, president of the special three-man Israeli court which tried and convicted the former Gestapo colonel, intoned: "This court sentences Adolf Eichmann to death for crimes against the Jewish people, crimes against humanity and war crimes."

Eichmann, now 55 and balding, stood stiffly erect for 15 minutes while the tribunal first gave its reasons and then condemned him to the gallows. Six hundred persons packing the courtroom were deathly silent throughout the brief session, then filed out with hardly a sound.

Still the "block of ice" Jewish survivors of the Nazi pogrom called him, Eichmann never even gulped visibly. He quieted the facial nervous twitch evident during the trial, and his hands hung loose and unclenched by his side.

10 DAYS TO APPEAL

Eichmann, who had scornfully refused to plead for mercy before the sentence was pronounced, was told he has 10 days to file notice of appeal with the court and an additional five days to draft his reasons.

Chief defense counsel Dr. Robert L. Servatius from West Germany was advised if he felt the time given him was too short, he could ask the president of the Supreme Court or his deputy for an extension.

Dr. Servatius, already at work on Eichmann's appeal, told the court: "Thank you for the guidance and I shall think it over."

Decision on the appeal is not expected before March. If it goes against Eichmann, he can apply to Israeli President Izhak Ben-Zvi for clemency.

Eichmann is the first Nazi to be tried in this state which holds itself as the protector of all Jews in the world.

Israeli legal authorities say he may be the last one brought to judgment here. They reason the case has served to chronicle what happened to the Jews during Hitler's Third Reich, how the plot to exterminate the race came into being, and how 6 million Jews died.

Santa Working Hard for Good Area Kids

By JANET ODELL

Santa sends word from his North Pole workshop that he and his helpers are working overtime to get ready for Christmas. He also comments on the letters he has received from children in the Pontiac area. He says every one comes from a "good" child.

Santa also says that little girls haven't changed much over the years; they still want dolls and clothes and toys that encourage them to play house.

Boys don't ask for space ships, rockets and mechanical monsters. They want trucks and cars and bull dozers and cowboy guns. Both sexes want bikes and games.

We know that mothers and fathers always help Santa out so we've been watching for interesting gift items for the youngsters.

For the little girl who delights in playing nurse there is a nurse's bag, together with a complete medicine chest. Other kits to use with dolly are a "feeding closet" and tiny store kits. You might give the young lady a doll's scrub board just so she'll know what the article is.

If you can't have a cat or dog, and your child wants a pet, consider a hamster, guinea pig or rag mop. Or even a chameleon. Any one needs only a small home and is not difficult to care for.

At a certain stage children are fascinated with their own pens. We saw a set of 4, each a different color, that would please the young student. If he has graduated to the stage of carrying a key, an initial key ring with attached pencil will make him feel big.

Tired of stepping on cayons? There's a hanging container that resembles an old time salt box. This is a crayon minder. Another store carries crayon holders that grip even broken crayons and crayon sharpeners.

Ginn Accepts Southfield Post

New City Attorney to Resign Chairmanship of Dem Committee

James M. Ginn yesterday accepted the post of Southfield city attorney and will resign as chairman of the Oakland County Democratic Committee within 45 days.

The $15,000-a-year post, vacated by another Democrat, James C. Allen, was offered to the 33-year-old Franklin Village attorney by a 5-2 vote of the City Council Monday night. Ginn refused immediately to accept the offer—the second time it has been his—until he read the terms of the contract.

"With the draft I read yesterday the terms are acceptable to me," Ginn, of 30135 Woodside Drive, said.

He said, however, that he found the contract stipulation that he step down as county chairman "personally" objectionable. He said he wouldn't have accepted the top paying

MSUO Receives Gifts of $81,000

The Michigan State University Board of Trustees this morning accepted for Michigan State University Oakland two gifts totaling $81,000 which will furnish a dormitory, add books to the campus library, support the science-engineering program and establish scholarships.

The windfall of support came from former Pontiac Motor Division Chief Engineer Benjamin H. Anibal, who donated 1,000 shares of GM stock worth $56,000, and from MSU Board of Trustees member C. Allen Harlan who donated $25,000.

BENJAMIN H. ANIBAL

C. ALLEN HARLAN

Anibal's gift will be used for the dormitory at MSUO and for the science-engineering program.

Harlan's $25,000 will be divided into $10,000 for a trust to be used for the Mrs. C. Allen Harlan Scholarship and $15,000 to be used for MSUO library acquisitions specifically in the reference and humanities areas.

MSUO Chancellor D. B. Varner today hailed the gifts as "another instance of the dedication of the donors to help make MSUO a great university."

Harlan previously has been listed as a scholarship donor. He also donated 5,000 trees last month to help beautify the campus.

Anibal House, named after the donor, will be dedicated at 5:30 p.m. Sunday.

The dorm is located on the MSUO campus to the northeast of the main group of classrooms and administrative buildings.

The board of trustees met today to name the Anibal House officially.

Chancellor Varner will unveil a plaque in the house and will de-

Goodfellows at Oxford Crying: Paper! Paper!

Oxford Lion's Goodfellows are selling copies of The Pontiac Press today from 3 to 9 p.m. to raise funds to buy clothes for needy children in the area.

The club hopes to collect $1,500 in this year's drive. Last year the group sent clothes to over 100 youngsters.

Floating Yule Tree

Pontiac Press Photo

NO PRANK — William G. Irish cranes his neck to inspect the 10-foot Christmas tree atop the 50-foot silo at the Irish-Carlson Farm, 1100 Clyde Road, Highland Township, that took him and four other men a half day to get in place for the holidays. This was the first year that Irish, 23, has attempted the "floating tree in the sky" decoration, which is the illusion it gives when lighted at night. The outline of the tree can be seen 1½ miles away but further away it looks like a "ball of fire."

Vehicle Overloaded?

Seeking Cause in Bus-Train Crash

GREELEY, Colo. (AP) — Colorado officials searched today for the cause of the school bus-train collision that killed 20 children Thursday.

The Colorado Highway Safety Council was investigating the possibility that overloading and poor visibility may have contributed to the accident. The council's executive secretary, Merf Evans, said in a report to Atty. Gen. Duke Dunbar that "ninety per cent of all school buses in Colorado are overloaded."

AP Photofax

BROTHER, SISTER DIED — Bob Brantner, 12, turns away after taking a close look at the ripped bus in which 20 children perished Thursday when the bus was hit by a train. Bob's sister Kathy, 9, and brother Mark, 6, were among those killed. The older boy attends another school and was not aboard the doomed bus.

13 IN HOSPITAL

Thirteen children are in a hospital. Four others among the 37 children aboard were treated and released. The driver, Duane Harms, 23, suffered minor injuries and shock.

They were in a late model, 60-passenger bus sliced apart at 8:05 a.m. by the Union Pacific's 16-car passenger train, City of Denver, at a rural crossing near here.

The streamliner, 90 minutes late because of Christmas baggage delays en route from Chicago to Denver, was traveling 79 miles an hour. Railroad officials said that was normal speed.

'STEPPED ON THE GAS'

Herbert F. Sommers, 64, a Union Pacific engineer for 22 years, said the bus did not stop at the crossing, marked by wooden crossarms and a road sign.

"He stepped on the gas and drove right in front of the train," Sommers said.

Harms, a school bus driver since last September, said "I think I did (stop). Well, I'm quite sure, because I usually do."

Fireman Melvin C. Swanson, 48, said "I thought he (Harms) was going to stop—hoping he was going to stop. Then he drove right in front of the train."

'THE BUS STOPPED'

Jerry Hembry, 16, a bus passenger, said, "The bus stopped and then started up again."

Colorado law requires a school bus driver to stop within 50 feet, but not less than 10 feet from the nearest rail, look and listen for trains.

State patrolmen said the diesel locomotive struck the rear of the bus near the dual wheels. Those wheels and four rear seats were dragged 455 feet down the railroad. The main section of the bus was hurled 192 feet.

South Viet Nam to Get More Aid

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy today ordered increased assistance for the defenses of South Viet Nam in its desperate efforts to repel Communist aggression from the North.

Government officials said this will not mean sending any American combat troops to Viet Nam.

Kennedy acted in response to an appeal from President Ngo Dinh Diem of the Vietnamese Republic.

Diem said his country "now faces what is perhaps the gravest crisis in its long history" and "we must have further assistance from the United States if we are to win the war now being waged against us."

TOO MUCH

Diem said the forces of international communism which are arrayed against his country are "more than we can meet with the resources at hand."

Kennedy reacted with word that: "We shall promptly increase our assistance to your defense effort as well as help relieve the destruction of the floods which you describe. I have already given the orders to get these programs under way."

The exchange of messages between the two presidents was made public simultaneously here and in Saigon.

Kennedy didn't spell out what he meant by increased assistance to the Vietnamese defense effort. Other administration sources said that this must not be taken to mean that U.S. fighting men will be dispatched to the area. There has been frequent speculation on this possibility in the past.

Weather Wallops U.S.; Punches Cold Midsection

By The Associated Press

Snow, sleet, rain and cold dominated the nation's weather pattern today.

A fresh batch of cold air from Canada dispelled any hope of an immediate end of the current cold wave in the Midwest. The icy air dipped into the north central region, dropping temperatures far below zero in Minnesota and Wisconsin.

It was 26 below zero in International Falls, Minn. on the Canadian border, where Thursday's highest reading was -4.

The zero and below cold extended into Iowa, with -7 in Cedar Rapids, and in northern Missouri.

In areas near the severe cold belt, temperatures were mostly in the teens, with the 20s and 30s most widespread across other sections in the eastern two-thirds of the country.

city job had he had to resign immediately.

"Other terms are attractive enough to outweigh that consideration," Ginn said.

Southfield Mayor S. James Clarkson, who appointed Ginn first in April, said it was the "general consensus" of the council that Ginn should resign as chairman "to make sure there would be no conflict of interest between his new nonpartisan job and the partisan chairmanship."

HARVARD GRAD

Ginn, who emerged as chairman in August, 1960, after a split in the county party, will serve as long as Clarkson holds office. The mayor will be up for re-election in 1963.

A 1952 Harvard Law School cum laude graduate, Ginn will be able to continue his law practice in Detroit, as well as his role as public administrator for Oakland County. He is also attorney for the Small Business Administration.

He said he would probably call a special January meeting of either the executive committee or full county committee to elect his successor.

His new work starts Jan. 2.

"This is not necessarily a partisan appointment," Clarkson said. "Our relationship is one of friends. This man has a really fabulous background."

The Anibal House will open for resident women in January for the start of the second semester.

LONG ASSOCIATION

Anibal's interest in the university stems from a long association with Michigan State University, from which he graduated in 1909 in mechanical engineering.

Anibal started as a young engineer with the Olds Motor Co. in 1909. He was with the Cadillac Motor Car Co. from 1911 until 1921 and pioneered in producing the country's first eight-cylinder car as well as the industry's first electric lighting and starting equipment.

In 1925 he came to the Oakland Motor Car Co. as chief engineer, continuing in that position until his retirement in 1947.

He is credited with some 200 automotive and engineering advances including the remote-control gearshift, multibeam headlights, mechanical fuel pump and automatic spark control.

He and his wife live at 1435 N. Cranbrook Road, Bloomfield Township.

Leland F. Lyons, who also is vice president of the New York Life Insurance Co., said Thursday production and sales on a national level will increase 7 per cent for all goods and services and unemployment will show a great decrease.

Lyons said his estimates and opinions are based on personal observations and business and industrial surveys.

Allies Shaping Policy on Berlin

Informed diplomats said the declaration also would include a reaffirmation of the West's readiness to fight for its war-won rights in the divided city if Moscow refuses an honorable agreement.

The Berlin dispute dominated seven days of consultation in Paris which began with a meeting last weekend between French President Charles de Gaulle and West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer and continued at meetings of the Western foreign ministers and the North Atlantic Treaty Organization ministerial council.

Experts drafting the communique until the early hours sought to give an impression of solidarity at the windup of the annual meeting of the NATO foreign, defense and finance ministers. But it was well-known that De Gaulle had refused to line France up with the 14 other NATO nations which, in varying degree, expressed a wish for immediate negotiations on Berlin with the Soviet Union.

City Hospital Trustees Approve 1962 Budget

The Pontiac General Hospital Board of Trustees last night approved a $5,886,150 operating budget for 1962.

The budget, some $863,000 above the current budget, will be forwarded to the City Commission for final approval.

The board usually approves the budget by Nov. 15 but it delayed approval in hopes that salary negotiations with employe groups could be concluded first.

Negotiations are still in progress. The budget as presented does not allocate funds for salary increases. The $5,023,120 budget for 1961 allowed a five-cent-an-hour pay hike totaling some $65,000.

For 1962, employes are asking another five-cent increase, plus added fringe benefits. The salary increase would total $82,000 in 1962 with more employes.

Total employe requests not budgeted amount to $240,000 according to Harold B. Euler, administrator.

"There are no increases in expense in the 1962 budget that are not accounted for by more capacity and more employes," Euler said. "This budget is based on current operating costs. Our bed complement is 27 more now than it was when we approved the 1961 operating budget."

UP OCCUPANCY FORECAST

The 1962 budget is based on an expected occupancy of 91 per cent for the year and 126,550 patient days. The 1961 budget was based on an expected occupancy of 87 per cent.

Total income from patients next year is estimated at $6,094,150. Deducting for reserves for county, state and cases not covered by Blue Cross, it is expected to be $5.7-million.

Other operating income is expected to total $143,000.

The budget allocates $3,762,700 for salaries and wages; $320,470 for fees; $234,000 for depreciation; and $1,568,980 for other operating expenses and supplies.

It is subject to revision, particularly in the salary area, before final adoption next month.

Lawrence estimated the fleeing car was traveling 90 m.p.h when the crash occurred a mile south of Clarkston.

He said he began chasing the Winebarger car when it was doing 65 m.p.h. in a 50 m.p.h. zone, headed south. Winebarger, in an apparent effort to elude the patrol car turned in a restaurant driveway and then headed north. The truck was southbound from Saginaw to Detroit.

Deputies were uncertain as to what caused the car to suddenly swerve into the truck unless due to excessive speed.

They said sparks must have ignited fuel in the gas tank.

The car engine was found on the road 80 feet from the molten ruins of the car body. Rear wheels of the truck were carried 72-feet from the truck. Auto parts littered the scene over a hundred feet.

Adult Education Program Expanded for Next Term

BIRMINGHAM — An expanded adult education program for the new term starting next month was announced today by Howard Malwitz, coordinator of the Birmingham school department.

He said that there is a strong indication of increased community interest in continuing education.

This is reflected, he said, in the enrollment this year of 1,150 persons, an increase of 88 per cent over the 1960 fall term.

The program, therefore, is being expanded to include more offerings, Malwitz said, and plans are now in the making for the new term which will begin Jan. 8.

NEW OFFERINGS PLANNED

Some of the additional courses to be offered plus the regular courses will be Russian, existentialism, Italian, humanities, psychology, continuing German, tailoring, creative stitchery and creative writing.

Courses that will continue because of the past interest include electronics, French, Italian, German, Spanish, public speaking, water colors, oil painting, drawing, interior decorating, sewing, upholstery, catering tips, accounting, income tax, dancing bridge and woodworking.

Malwitz said the department will offer any course where facilities and instruction are available and which a minimum of 12 are enrolled even if the course is not presently being offered.

For further information, he said to phone the Birmingham Board of Education, extension 69.

All residents in the area will be receiving a brochure later this month that will include a complete listing of courses and suggestions and comments will be welcomed, Malwitz said.

Let SOME Churches Do 'Rock and Roll of Ages'

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK — Dartmouth College's professor of religion, Wilson Wade, has come out in favor of jazz in our churches.

He believes jazz could fill the churches.

He also contends that jazz is appropriate to a house of God, because it is "honest" music which more truly reflects our age than the traditional church music which organists and choirs perform — too often unfeelingly, from long habit.

As a graduate of 18 years of church choir singing, and daughter of the best of all choir directors, I feel qualified to comment on this unorthodox suggestion.

The comment: It's a fine idea. It would add vitality and reality to many a church service which has become stodgy, dull and unbelievable in its attitude of charcut black and white to a good many intelligent, disillusioned believers in God.

But I doubt that jazz would fill the churches. Not, at least, many churches. And not, at least, for many years. It surely would help bring new parishioners into the church, but it would drive at least as many old parishioners away.

I am not a connoisseur of jazz, and the meter, rhyme and mes-

I have not studied its techniques, its forms and variations. But I do feel its (as Prof. Wade put it) honesty.

It passionately mirrors the feelings of man: it arouses the emotions, happy and sad; it is music that melts all people (who will stop to listen to it) together. Jazz brings man to an understanding of man as no other form of music can.

Compare this with the hymns and anthems heard in church. Many are lovely, an occasional one is great.

AP Photofax

REINDEER RUSTLED—Dasher, Dancer, Prancer and Santa's five other reindeer are still pulling his sleigh today but sad over the loss of their red-nosed leader, Rudolph. Someone lacking the Christmas spirit stole Rudolph from his lead position in the display at a Huntington, W.Va., bakery.

But the bulk of our church hymns have less likeable melodies than singing commercials, sage of their lyrics is either antiquated or appallingly written.

As a fairly intelligent child, I remember shuddering at the bad poetry of many hymns and at their clumsy mating with music patterns which put the accent on the wrong syllable.

As an adult, I was no longer amazed. Like most other adult church-goers, I simply sang the awkward stuff from habit and memory, no longer thinking (what a blessing) of the words.

I can think of fewer than a handful of hymns that are imbued with a spirit of — what shall I call it? — good-humored joy. Too many are pious to the point of being dirges. Too many were written with the feeling of fear for, rather than love of, God.

And people do not go to church to be depressed, but rather to be revived.

Most choral directors and church organists probably would agree that our hymnals could be vastly improved and updated, in both melody and message, yet in the last century little has been done to update church music.

But today's church elders, I'm afraid, are not as ready to accept new blood and rhythm in the traditional ritual. Mention bringing jazz into the choir loft and they would visualize a drastic distortion — "Rock and Roll of Ages," perhaps, or "Hark the Herald Angels Swing."

For them, jazz would not represent the honest image of man in search of himself—as I believe Professor Wade interpreted its value to the religious spirit of our time. It would appear to be heathen music, disrupting the reverent, devotional atmosphere in which, through long years of church attendance, they have found comfort.

I believe jazz should be introduced to churches — but new, experimental churches, not old, established ones. In that way, religion might win over some new open hearts, without losing some faithful closed minds.

HEARING CONSULTANT EXPLAINS NEW APPROACH TO CORRECTION OF HEARING PROBLEMS

"Every hearing problem is different and must be treated as an individual situation." Through the many years I have devoted to helping people overcome hearing losses, my every experience confirms this fact; for example:

1. Some people can understand conversation with one person, but are confused in larger groups.
2. Some hear men's voices clearly but cannot understand women or children.
3. Some hear naturally in a small room, but miss everything in church or at lectures.

It's obvious from the above that one instrument cannot correct all hearing difficulties.

I have my instruments custom built at the AUDIOTONE laboratories to specifically overcome each of my patients personal hearing problems. The results are phenomenal. I cannot conscientiously recommend any other method. AUDIOTONE is the only manufacturer who FACTORY CERTIFIES each instrument to be truly CUSTOM FITTED.

Staying on Traffic Island

Lonely Dog Just Waits

SALMON, Idaho (AP)—About a month ago, a little black dog—owners and ancestry unknown—took up residence on a mid-street traffic island in the center of town.

He has spent most of his waking hours and all of his sleeping hours on that small, unsheltered island. Temperatures as low as 14 below zero haven't made him move.

Employes of a nearby grocery take him food. He retreats when they approach but always returns for the food.

He never barks at passing automobiles. Once in a while he looks up expectantly, as though hoping for loved ones to pick him up.

If the loved ones should return before Christmas, they'll find him under a lighted Christmas tree which has been erected on the island — sleeping by night, just watching by day.

PROTESTERS MARCH—Some 50 residents of Royal Oak Township picketed the township offices yesterday to protest the apparent lack of action on the township's urban renewal program. Their chief target was Raymond O. Hatcher, project director for seven years. At a special township board meeting, hurriedly called at noon, Hatcher's resignation was accepted and the appointment of Edward A. Wilson as township police chief, made Monday night, rescinded. There was no picketing today.

Royal Oak Twp. Fires Police Chief

Urban Renewal Head Quits

ROYAL OAK TOWNSHIP—The political turmoil which gripped this township yesterday ended with the resignation of the director of the urban renewal program and the firing by the Township Board of its new police chief.

* * *

Raymond O. Hatcher resigned under pressure after seven years as housing director and head of the urban renewal program.

The board fired Edward A. Wilson yesterday by a 4 2 vote in a hastily called meeting.

Both actions stem from pressure of a citizens group, led by Justice of the Peace Lonnie C. Cash, which met Monday night and decided on a one-day crusade against the alleged do-nothing job of the urban renewal program and to force the township to fire Wilson.

The citizens committee claimed that Hatcher, as head of the renewal project, has spent a half-million dollars in seven years with nothing to show for it but plans and that not a single new home had been erected during that time.

Hatcher has been with the township since 1944 when he started as manager of the newly built, federally constructed war housing project.

ACCEPTS JOB

He has accepted a job in Philadelphia in intergroup relations in the regional office of the public housing administration there.

Wilson was hired only three days ago to succeed William Ware who resigned under pressure last month after losing a libel suit to Time magazine which had accused him of stealing Goodfellow Christmas Funds.

Hatcher, in answer to the charge of the citizens group that nothing is being done in the township, pointed out that 38 new homes are under construction east of Wyoming, at a total valuation of $400,000.

He said another $200,000 is going into individual home improvement projects.

Also east of Wyoming, streets have been paved at a cost of $276,000 and sewers have been installed at a cost of $271,000, the program director stated.

* * *

He added that west of Wyoming the federal government only this week advanced the township funds to purchase a wartime cooperative housing project for demolition.

* * *

In addition, several Detroit firms have shown interest in developing commercial and industrial sites in the urban renewal area, according to Hatcher.

In response to a charge that he is spending $50,000 a year for salaries in his office, Hatcher said that the money does not come from the township budget.

The Township Board members who voted to fire the police chief said they wanted the department to start again with a "clean slate."

They said there had been too much discussion about the appointment because, as they were told, Wilson quit the department in 1956 amid accusations that he stole money from a prisoner.

* * *

Wilson said he resigned because of a conflict over administrative icies.

Police Officers Win Diplomas

Oakland Men Put In Hours of Study to Get Special Certificates

Policemen from 19 Oakland County departments were among the 190 law enforcers from Southeastern Michigan who graduated yesterday from special training courses at a ceremony in Bloomfield Township.

The commencement exercise, sponsored by the Southeastern Michigan Association of Chiefs of Police and the FBI, is believed to be the largest event of its kind ever held in the state.

The graduation and a luncheon was held at Devon Gables.

Those reciving certificates had completed courses given at three basic police training schools, two detective schools and a fingerprint school.

More than 200 hours of study, 120 of them in class, were required of the men to receive their diplomas.

INTRODUCES TEACHERS

Birmingham Police Chief Ralph W. Moxley, chairman of the association's training committee, stressed the team effort that is needed to make these courses successful by introducing the 39 instructors, many of them professional men, who have taught officers in a half-dozen schools throughout the area.

"These schools have gained considerable respect because of these men," Moxley said.

Donald S. Hostetter, special agent in charge of the SBI office in Detroit, was the featured speaker at the program.

He told the audience of nearly 300 policemen and guests that: "Law enforcement is as much of a profession as the recognized professions even though it is not listed as such.

"A police officer must learn a variety of skills though he receives pay not in keeping with the knowledge he must possess," he added.

Hostetter said law enforcement should be divorced from politics.

"A police officer should be a servant to the people, all the people," he said.

* * *

Shelby Twp. Plant Purchase Welcomed

Optimism Greets Ford Act

It's too early to tell how the Ford Motor Co.'s purchase of Curtiss-Wright Corp.'s Shelby Township plant will affect the area but township officials and businessmen are enthusiastic about the move.

Will Ford's soft-trim operation bring new jobs or new residents with it?

The township board hopes to see employes of the operation move to Shelby, clerk Mae Stecker said, but Ford hasn't made any commitments about bringing jobs. A Ford spokesman announced the company intended to transfer some 2,400 Highland Park employes to the new quarters.

Mrs. Stecker suggested most of these were women who may not want to move here if their husbands work in Detroit.

The board hasn't had time to figure out how a considerable increase in commuters from Detroit would affect the township's road or other building programs, she said.

How will the move affect the township's tax base?

Township assessor Donald Holland said it is still early to tell about that. Much will depend on the amount of personal property Ford moves in and whether they intend to expand the present plant facilities.

Curtiss-Wright operations have been curtailed for some time, he said. A good deal of their equipment was tied up in government contract work making it exempt from taxes, he added.

Other machinery was being stored and thus was assessed at a lower rate than if it had been producing, he said.

The plant will certainly be reassessed. If it runs full-time with all its machinery and without government exemptions, the personal property assessment will probably be raised, he said.

According to Holland, real property belonging to the Curtiss-Wright plant is presently assessed for $2,151,560. This figure is approximately 20 per cent of the appraised value of the land and permanent buildings which is roughly $12 million.

The plant had been offered for sale in late summer by Curtiss-Wright through a New York real estate firm for about $6 million, Holland said. "If Ford obtained it for that price," he said, "they got an excellent bargain."

The assessment on Curtiss-Wright's personal property was set at about $500,000 excluding their exempted equipment and the lowered assessment on stored machinery, he said.

"Ford's agreement to purchase the plant fits in beautifully with this area's future plans." Holland added. "Maybe Ford's name will accomplish what we've been unable to do so far."

'OPERATION WILL ATTRACT'

"The new operation probably will attract smaller industries and people who will buy homes in the area and spend their money here. It will take some time," he said. "But eventually I think this will build up our industry, business and population."

Firemen Will Entertain Pontiac Township Tots

PONTIAC TOWNSHIP — Young Santa fans in the township will be entertained within the next week at firemen-sponsored Christmas parties at the three township fire stations.

Station No. 2, at 2060 Opdyke Road, will hold its party at 1:30 p.m. Sunday for children from the area between Giddings Road and the eastern township line, Squirrel Road.

Youngsters from the region between Giddings Road and the western township line, Rohr Road, will be hosted at Station No. 3, 3253 Joslyn Road, beginning at noon Sunday.

Due to the lack of space in the fire halls, firemen have asked that parents drop the children off and pick them up when the parties are over, in about two hours. Firemen expect about 300 youngsters at each affair.

The parties will feature a variety show, an appearance of Santa Claus, and candy, refreshments and gifts for the youngsters.

Donations also go toward Christmas food, shoes and fuel for needy families. Firemen and members of the Metropolitan Club assisted in the drive.

AT 7 IN AUBURN

The Auburn Heights Fire Hall, Station No. 1, at 3426 Auburn Road, will hold its Christmas party at 7 p.m. next Wednesday in front of the building for children and parents in the Auburn Heights area.

Firemen will light the Christmas tree and community singing will highlight the evening. Refreshments will be served.

A six-man jury found Robert H. Hickey guilty on charges of driving under the influence of intoxicating liquor and reckless driving yesterday in Ferndale Municipal Court.

Municipal Judge Earl N. Nash sentenced Hickey, 22, of 9245 Half Acre Road, White Lake Township, to pay a $100 fine or spend 30 days in jail. He also revoked Hickey's driver's license for a period of 90 days.

Ferndale patrolman Patrick T. Sullivan testified Hickey was arrested early Nov. 4 for backing his car two blocks around a corner and through a red light on 9 Mile Road east of Woodward at Bermuda St. Hickey admitted this action on the witness stand.

Hickey's attorney has started a $150,000 lawsuit against Sullivan, charging Hickey lost his left eye as the result of a beating from Sullivan as he was being booked in the Ferndale police station.

Sullivan testified yesterday he was forced to strike Hickey in order to subdue him. He said Hickey struck him first.

Hickey has appealed the jury's decision and has posted a $100 appeal bond. He will be arraigned in Oakland County Circuit Court 1:30 p.m. Jan. 15.

Press Actual Event Will Have 75 Contestants at 300 Bowl

156 Men Can't Lose in Bowlerama Finals Sunday

A total of 156 bowlers with a great deal to gain and nothing to lose will compete in the 1961 Pontiac Press Bowlerama championship round Sunday at 300 Bowl.

Everyone is certain of sharing in the prizes which will range from $565 for the handicap champion to $10 for the bottom 10 on the list. All others will get at least $15.

All five top guaranteed awards and others down the line have been increased considerably due to a good advance in entries for the 5th annual local keg feature.

The winner will also take home a big title trophy and have his name inscribed on a rotating award donated by 300 Bowl besides gaining a berth in the actual invitational following the handicap meet. Trophies will also go to the runnerup and 3rd place man.

A handsome "house" trophy was won by Lakewood Lanes the 1st Sunday in a new highlight of the tourney. Top qualifier honors went to Bernie Greenwood 718, Gene Connell 697, Joe Monti 726 and Bill Jarrett 685.

The handicap war will begin at 11 a.m. with 80 men in action. The other 76 will follow at 12:15 p.m.

The total in the handicap was increased over the previously set 145 places when a check of averages enabled seven alternates and others to gain berths.

Several handicaps have been changed, most of them very slightly, for the finals due to previously reported averages being wrong.

Some 75 men will take part in the actual pinfall duel starting at 1:30 p.m.

All men are requested to be at 300 on South Cass Lake Road near Elizabeth Lake Road at least 20 minutes before they are scheduled to bowl.

Sizzling Wings in 5-0 Breeze

Blast Bruins to Move Near No. 3 Position

Detroit Now Unbeaten in Five Starts; Ullman Scores Pair

DETROIT, Mich. (AP) — The breaks. . .

"We've been getting them and that's the story of our success," said coach Sid Abel of the suddenly hot Detroit Red Wings.

The Wings have recovered from a severe chill that had them near the National Hockey League's basement in November and have become a sizzling sextet closing in on the leaders.

Detroit trounced the Boston Bruins 5-0 Thursday night and stretched its unbeaten streak to five games, four victories and a tie.

UPS LEAD

"It makes such a difference when the breaks start coming your way," said Abel after Detroit had increased its fourth-place lead to three points over idle Chicago. "We played well on the road trip, too, but nothing went right."

The Wings have climbed four points behind third-place New York and are nine points distant from second-place Toronto.

Norm Ullman scored twice and Gordie Howe, Bruce MacGregor and Eddie Litzenberger were the other marksmen in Thursday night's only NHL contest.

Boston offered meek opposition to Terry Sawchuk. The Detroit goalie stopped 21 shots in posting his fourth shutout this season and 87th of his 12-season NHL career.

Lions Lose 3 Draft Choices to Rival AFL

Top Players Selected Sign Contracts With Other League

From Our Wire Services

DETROIT — Edwin J. Anderson, general manager of the Detroit Lions, said today Kansas halfback John Hadl has admitted he signed a contract with San Diego of the American Football League after the "secret draft" conducted by owners of AFL clubs.

Hadl was the No. 1 draft choice of the Lions at Chicago Dec. 4 and told Anderson at that time he had not signed a contract with any other team.

Anderson said the Lions have also lost their second and third draft choices, quarterback Eddie Wilson and halfback Bobby Thompson, both of Arizona, and "I'm convinced they had both signed before we drafted them."

"We had a telephone on our desk at the draft meeting and called each player we were considering drafting," Anderson said. "We asked them two questions. Have you already signed with any other team? Would you be interested in playing for Detroit if we are fortunate enough to draft you?"

Anderson said Hadl, Wilson and Thompson said they had not signed any contracts and would be interested in playing for the Lions.

"Looking back on it now," Anderson said, "I'm convinced all three of these players were pulling my leg. The thing that concerns me most is the lack of moral fiber. There was no reason for these players to tell us they hadn't signed with some other club. We could have drafted other players who were free to sign with the Lions."

Pistons Nip Royals in Closing Seconds

The Detroit Pistons proved that last night as they edged the Cincinnati Royals 107-103.

In a tight battle in which no team ever led by more than seven points, the Pistons pocketed the victory in the last 40 seconds on Gene Shue's field goal and four free throws.

Don Ohl dumped in two of the free tosses after Shue's shot but Cincinnati's Jack Twyman made it close again when he sank a jump shot that cut the score to 105-103.

But that was the end of it for the Royals. With 26 seconds remaining, Cincinnati's Arlen Bockhorn fouled Bob Ferry and after Ferry made his free throws the Royals failed to get off a good shot before the game ended.

The lead was swapped throughout the first half and Detroit held only a slim 50-49 margin at the half. The see-saw continued in the second half with five ties in the final six minutes.

Bailey Howell collected 25 points for Detroit, but Oscar Robertson of the Royals was high man for the game with 39.

The third-place Pistons now trail the NBA's western division leader, Los Angeles, by 8½ games. Second-place Cincinnati is 6 behind.

In other games, the Boston Celtics maintained their 6½-game eastern division lead by defeating Chicago 123-108, while the second-place Philadelphia Warriors whipped Syracuse 136-125.

'Amiable Session' but No Contract

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Yankees have failed in their first attempt to sign home run king Roger Maris, but both General Manager Roy Hamey and the slugging outfielder indicate there will be no problems next time they get together.

Maris left for his home in Raytown, Mo., today after what was described as an "amiable session" with Hamey. Reportedly, the 27-year-old outfielder who rapped 61 homers for the world champs last season and won his second straight most valuable player award, asked for $75,000—double his 1961 salary of $37,500.

Hamey is believed to have countered with an offer of between $60,000 and $65,000.

Spencer Nips Lakeland in Waterford 'A' Tilt

Joe Umphrey's three points in the last 33 seconds broke a tie and gave Spencer Floors a 48-45 verdict over defending champion Lakeland Pharmacy in Waterford Class A basketball Friday night.

Umphrey led last year's 2nd place team with 10. Jerry Veeder hit 18 for Lakeland. Hoyt Realty won a forfeit over Scarlett Bicycle Shop.

Former Middie Coach Applies for Cadet Job

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Eddie Erdelatz, who practically made a career of upsetting the Army, wants to be head football coach at West Point.

He said Thursday he has applied for the Army job from which Dale Hall was fired Saturday.

Erdelatz, 47, was fired this season by the professional Oakland Raiders of the American Football League.

Erdelatz coached the Naval Academy from 1950 to 1958, resigning after his ninth season. His Navy teams made a record of 50-26-8, beating Army five times, losing three to the Cadets and tying one.

Hall never beat Navy in his three years as Army's head coach. That was considered the principal reason for his dismissal.

Duke-Duquesne Cage Feature

Holiday Tourneys Begin Tonight

By The Associated Press

A key match between two unbeatens — Duke vs. Duquesne — highlights tip-off action in a flock of holiday college basketball tournaments that open tonight.

It was supposed to be a rebuilding year for sophomore-dominated Duke but, off the record, the Blue Devils may have put it in the past tense—rebuilt.

They've taken five including two Atlantic Coast Conference games, and have been impressive doing it. Their average margin of victory is slightly over 25 points.

Against Duquesne, in first round action of the Steel Bowl at Pittsburgh, the Blue Devils may find a clue as to how well the rebuilding has been accomplished.

Duquesne, probably the top team Duke has yet encountered, didn't attract much attention in winming its first two but leaped into the limelight with a whopping 68-44 upset of favored and highly-regarded Bowling Green.

Their match heads the tournament list that also includes first round action in the Birmingham Classic, the Blue Grass Festival at Louisville, and the City of Roses tourney at Portland, Ore.

Duke, led by hard-driving junior Art Heyman, gained the No. 7 spot in an Associated Press preview poll.

The other first round game at Pittsburgh matches host Pitt and Arizona. At Birmingham, Alabama goes against Virginia Tech and Auburn against Louisiana State. In Louisville, St. Bonaventure tries Western Kentucky and Texas takes on Louisville. In Portland it's Seattle vs. Houston and St. Mary's, Calif., vs. Portland.

In some of the other top games, St. John's of New York plays Kansas and Marquette tries Kansas State in a doubleheader at Lawrence, Kan.; San Francisco visits fifth-ranked Providence and Wake Forest, No. 3, visits Virginia.

Arkansas stormed to its fourth straight victory, 87-59 over Tulsa, at the top of Thursday night's light schedule. Bowling Green conquered Michigan 77-67 and Wichita edged Ohio University, 58-55.

Arkansas, which got a 20 point performance from Jerry Carlton, had a 43-35 halftime margin then raced away in the opening minutes of the second half.

Bill McGill, Utah's 6-9 center, poured in 34 points in leading the Utes to a 106-79 triumph over Los Angeles State; Evansville won its fourth straight, 83-61 over San Diego State; Clemson edged Florida State 82-77 in double overtime; George Washington punished Virginia Military 105-85; Oklahoma City took North Texas State 91-84; Creighton handed touring Denver its fourth straight loss 60-59 and Lafayette took Colgate 73-62.

Attendance Rises in College Football

NEW YORK (AP)—A survey by the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau shows college football attendance was up 1.34 per cent this season over the figures a year ago.

The bureau reported yesterday that 20,677,604 fans attended the 2,697 home games of 616 colleges.

The Big Ten figures were down 1.88 per cent but Ohio State, the conference champion, again led the nation in total attendance with 414,712 fans paying their way through the Columbus turnstiles. It is the tenth time in the 11 years of the NCAB survey that Ohio State has led the field.

The only time the Buckeyes did not lead, the first place spot was taken by Michigan. The average 1960 attendance at Ohio State was 82,942 compared with 82,717 last year.

Whitney Reed Given No. 1 Net Ranking

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) —The departure of two top young players to the professional ranks has caused a major reshuffling in the national men's tennis rankings and Whitney Reed jumped from No. 8 to No. 1.

Reed replaces Barry MacKay of Akron who turned pro along with last year's No. 3 ranked Earl Buchholz of St. Louis.

Charles McKinley of St. Ann, Mo., was placed in the No. 2 spot. He was fourth last year. Bernard Bartzen of Dallas dropped from No. 2 to No. 3.

Reed and Dennis Ralston of Bakersfield, Calif., were ranked No. 1 in doubles. Gardnar Mulloy of Miami took top spot among the seniors.

PCH in Home Opener Tonight, PNH at Farmington

Prep Quintets Active

Pontiac Central resumes Saginaw Valley warfare while Pontiac Northern and Walled Lake open defense of their Inter-Lakes Conference cochampionship to headline tonight's high school basketball action in the Oakland County area.

Full schedules in seven leagues and a grand total of 38 games are on the docket tonight. Four more contests are slated Saturday night.

Pontiac Central, undefeated in two starts, makes its first home appearance of the 1961-62 season this evening.

The Chiefs shoot for their 2nd Valley triumph of the infant campaign when they play host to Bay City Central, which lost a 77-49 decision to defending champion Saginaw in its lone previous start.

Art Van Ryzin's cagers will be heavily favored to trounce the Wolves of Bill Ullenbruch, former Walled Lake coach who is leaving his Bay City post at the end of the current season.

PNH AT FARMINGTON

The Chiefs opened their Valley campaign last week with a 59-36 rout of Flint Central and began the season with a 65-55 non-league victory over Grosse Pointe.

Farmington, pre-season favorite to dethrone Pontiac Northern and Walled Lake in the Inter-Lakes race, entertains PNH this evening as the I-L title fight officially begins.

Dick Hall's Huskies, outright I-L champs two years ago, conquered Lake Orion and West Bloomfield while losing to Rochester in their previous outings. Farmington, coached by ex-Highland Park star Dave Parks, is unbeaten in two tries.

Walled Lake, expected to be weaker this season, visits Southfield while Waterford, under new head coach Gus Eichhorn, throws out the welcome mat for Berkley to complete the I-L slate.

Two interesting early-season games are carded in the Eastern Michigan League — defending champ Ferndale at East Detroit and Port Huron at Royal Oak Kimball. The other EML game pits Hazel Park against Birmingham Seaholm on the Seaholm court.

HILLS AT NOTHVILLE

Rangy Northville, pre-season Wayne-Oakland favorite, plays host to Bloomfield Hills in a battle of unbeatens to highlight the W-O card. Troy's invasion of Oak Park is the feature in the Oakland A circuit.

Fitzgerald goes to Madison and Lake Orion stays home to tangle with Clintondale in non-conference activity.

Two Tri-County contests are on tap — L'Anse Creuse at Rochester and Waterford Kettering at Lapeer. Rochester invades Troy tomorrow night to wind up its 2nd straight weekend doubleheader.

St. Michael and St. Frederick, still looking for their 1st wins, resume Suburban Catholic League action tonight. St. Mike hits the road to meet Ferndale St. James while St. Fred is host to Waterford Our Lady of the Lakes, also a winless quintet. Orchard Lake St. Mary welcomes St. Rita in another SCL contest.

The No. 1 attraction in the Saginaw Valley this evening will be the crosstown struggle between Saginaw and Arthur Hill on the Saginaw floor. Both teams have SVC title ambitions and an overflow crowd is expected.

Other games of area interest include Cranbrook at South Lyon, Pontiac Emmanuel Christian at Grosse Point University School, and Birmingham Groves at Southgate Davison.

Wolverines Bow, 77-67

Bowling Green Cagers Too Powerful for 'M'

From Our News Wires

Nobody can accuse Michigan of not trying, but the Wolverines lacked the guns to shoot down Bowling Green's tall and speedy basketball team in Ann Arbor last night.

The result was that the Wolverines fell to a 77-67 defeat—their third in five starts—and saw their string of home court victories snapped at two.

Howard Komive, a sharp-eyed sophomore guard from Toledo, did the most damage as he paced Bowling Green with 27 points on 12 field goals and three foul shots.

But he was assisted by 16 points from 6-10 Nate Thurmond and 13 from Bob Carbaugh, and helped himself as the Falcons put the defensive clamps on Michigan's top scorer, John Oosterbaan, in the first half.

The 6-5 Oosterbaan could manage only two baskets under the early harassment, but finished with 18 after the Falcons built a commanding lead and decided to leave him alone.

RALLY WINS

Hillsdale hit the .500 mark this season by overcoming a one-point halftime deficit to whip Baldwin-Wallace 77-61.

The Dales trailed 32-31 at the half but pulled away steadily in the final distance.

Charlie Works was the game's high scorer for Hillsdale with 22 points and teammate Clif Turner fired for 19. Ray Snyder had 13 for the Yellow Jackets.

Valparaiso's Crusaders set a school record last night in crushing Hope College 106-81.

The winners were ahead 49-37 at halftime and had a margin as high as 30 points at one time in the second period.

FROM WATERFORD

Sault Tech's unbeaten basketball team will try to stretch its winning streak to six games tonight with a return engagement against the Central Michigan freshmen.

The Hornets edged the CMU frosh 74-72 last night after overcoming a 31-29 halftime deficit.

Freshman Stan Ojala and sophomore Ray Robinson, from Waterford, paced the Sault with 19 and 18 points, respectively.

Gains, Losses Fractional

Mart Steadies in Heavy Trade

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market steadied in heavy early trading today. Prices were mixed.

* * *

Most gains and losses of key stocks were fractional.

A number of the blue chips which fell back under profit taking Thursday were easy but their steep decline was stopped.

Unilever Ltd., the British company, which dropped 3⅛ as the most active stock Thursday, rose ⅜ at 28⅝ on an opener of 20,000 shares, then erased the gain.

Unilever N.V., the Dutch firm, rebounded ⅞ at 54⅞ on an initial transaction of 3,600 shares and held part of the gain in later dealings.

* * *

General Motors, American Telephone and Jersey Standard eased. U.S. Steel, Ford, General Electric and Union Carbide dropped fractions. Bethlehem, Royal Dutch and Montgomery Ward were firm.

Moderate gains were made by DuPont, Goodrich, Boeing, United Aircraft, Chesapeake & Ohio, Johns-Manville and Liggett & Myers.

Rhodesian Selection Trust was unchanged at 1⅜ on 25,000 shares. Roan Antelope, heavily traded Thursday, was unchanged.

Prices were irregular on the American Stock Exchange.

Gainers included Aerojet-General, Loral Electronics and Creole Petroleum. Among losers were Molybdenum, Sherwin - Williams and Arkansas Louisiana Gas.

Corporate Bonds Slow

There were few changes among corporates amounting to a full point. An exception were New Jersey Power & Light 3s, off 1⅜ at 81⅛. Lionel convertible 5¼s lost 1¾ at 103.

Fractional gainers included: West Shore Railroad 4s at 50¼, American Tobacco 3s of 1962 at 100 1/16 and Commonwealth Edison 3s of 1977 at 84.

Off fractions were: Southern Pacific Railroad 5¼s at 101, Standard Oil (New Jersey) 2⅜s at 83½ and Public Service Electric & Gas 3s of 1963 at 98.

Sees Increase in Construction

Architect Says '62 Should Bring Moderate Boost in Activity

"During 1961 the construction industry has experienced a modest increase in activity over the previous year, and 1962 should see a continuation of this trend," comments Paul B. Brown, 2785 Ayrshire Drive, Bloomfield Hills, president of the Detroit chapter of American Institute of Architects, and a vice president of Harley, Ellington, Cowin and Stirton, Inc., Detroit architects and engineers.

"Although the upturn was small and somewhat spotty this past year, and may improve only moderately during 1962, economic factors in general are sound and encourage us to believe that this will be a period of increasing activity in the construction field," he said.

He continued: "While the past four or five years have been a period of comparatively moderate construction activity, they have brought a greater realization to architects, as well as to the public, of the problem of economic and social waste caused by the decay of our metropolitan centers.

"Increased activity in urban renewal should prove to be a stimulus to the construction industry."

Story of Japan Today Is Told in Its Architecture

HONOLULU (AP) — Architecture is playing a leading role in Japan's social passage "from feudalism to industrialization," an American architect believes.

Antonin Raymond, who first went to Japan in 1919 to assist the late Frank Lloyd Wright in designing Tokyo's Imperial Hotel, told a conference of architects in Honolulu:

"Structures in Japan are huge today. The architects who design these buildings seem to be carried away by a vision of permanence, solidity, power and enormity of scale as an end in itself.

"They have opened the door for a number of social changes in Japan and have helped bring the country into the industrial age."

Raymond has designed a number of buildings in Tokyo, including the U.S. Embassy, St. Luke's Hospital, Women's Christian College, St. Anselm's Church and Gunman Music Hall.

All-Time Record Seen

Yule Buying on the Rise

By JACK LEFLER
AP Business News Writer

NEW YORK — Shoppers' dollars are falling like snowflakes into cash registers as the Christmas buying season swirls toward what may be an all-time record.

* * *

Merchants across the country generally report that crowds started jamming the stores on the day after Thanksgiving and have kept coming.

A trend toward buying fallout shelter equipment as household gifts was noted by some merchants.

"It's wonderful!" chortled Joe Falk, owner of a big Kansas City toy store. "People are looser with their money than last year. They're buying the good stuff and don't care what they have to spend."

SOME ABOUT PAR

In some areas, however, buying was about on a par with last year or a little lower. Apprehension over the international situation and anxiety over further call-up of reserves made some people cautious about heavy buying.

The United States Chamber of Commerce predicted Americans would spend $23 billion this Christmas, up 4 per cent from record 1960. The National Retail Merchants Association forecast a 2 per cent gain.

An Associated Press survey of merchants in major cities indicated that in most areas people are buying more and better merchandise, have lost much of the caution that marked their shopping last year and are splurging somewhat on luxuries.

* * *

Merchants feel that general business improvement is reflected in the attitude of their customers.

Prices are generally holding close to last year with increased competition from discount houses being a factor.

"Saturday, Dec. 9, was the biggest day we've ever had," said Cyril Magnin, president of Joseph Magnin Co. with stores in San Francisco and Reno and Lav Vegas, Nev. "Christmas shopping started out slow but it sure picked up and I think we'll roll along for a top year now."

"Georgians are spending with enthusiasm," said Harold Brockey, president of Rich's Department Store in Atlanta.

'GO AHEAD AND BUY'

Wallace Dreyfoos, president of another Atlanta department store, Davison-Paxon Co., added that "the buyers don't seem to have the price consciousness that you expect from cautious shoppers. If they want something, they go ahead and buy it."

* * *

Arthur L. Manchee, president of Macy's, biggest store of all, predicted its sales would be 5 to 6 per cent ahead of last year.

"December is exceeding all of our expectations," said Melvin E. Dawley, president of New York City's Lord & Taylor.

In Los Angeles, Maggie Paxton, sales promotion manager for the May Co. department stores, commented:

"We're ahead in transactions but behind in dollars. We're selling more toys but there's less profit margin. It takes 15 per cent more business to get the same dollar profit."

The buying season started out strong in Dallas and some major store owners said they expect total sales to be substantially above a year ago.

Miami, Fla., department store managers predicted a record buying season. "The public is in a mood to buy," said Murray Turetsky, general manager of Jackson's-Byrons Department Store.

* * *

Washington, D. C., department stores expect a modest 2 to 3 per cent increase over last year and are wondering why it isn't better.

One merchant has his own answer: worry over the international situation.

"I feel that people are holding back on big instalment purchases — younger people especially," he said. "I believe there is much apprehension over the possibility that more reserves, and possibly the National Guard might be called up."

DETROIT (AP) — American Metal Products Co., of Detroit, and United Auto Workers Union Local 174 reached tentative agreement Thursday on a new two-year contract.

The company has been closed by a strike since Dec. 6 affecting 1,500 employes.

Federal and state mediators said the proposed pact would be submitted to union members Saturday. A previous contract proposal was rejected by workers Dec. 3.

Wind Up Purchase Talks at Du Pont Montague

MONTAGUE (AP)—DuPont Montague workers say negotiations have been completed for purchase of the Union Carbide Olefins Co. acetylene plant here.

DuPont said that after the purchase early next year the approximately 13 Union Carbide employes would be allowed to move with their jobs.

Wall Street Chatter

NEW YORK (UPI)—Tax transactions involving both profits and losses continue to dominate the stock market as prices chase each other around in strange convolutions without any discernible trend, says the Investograph stock survey.

However, it adds, some patterns are beginning to emerge. The long-liquidated oils are beginning to get support and last week impressive buying developed in the auto group "where things seem to be getting better and better."

L. O. Hooper of W. E. Hutton & Co. says this is the time of year when it sometimes pays to look around for unpopular issues under severe tax selling pressure. He says if the stocks show further weakness in the next two weeks, it might be a good idea to take trading positions in some of the better electronics and vending machine shares.

Recently granted rate increases call attention to the fact that carefully selected utilities are still legitimate purchases despite the long and steady rise of the group as a whole, according to Thomson & McKinnon.

Joseph E. Granville of E. R. Hutton & Co. says that despite little spots of weakness and intermittent phases of irregularity which occur from time to time, the market as a whole continues to perform well and there is no change in the current opinion which is a bullish one, calling for new highs on year-end strength with a good spillover into the new year.

The Shields survey says the President's program to liberalize our trade policies, however badly needed, "is anything but certain to go through. If it does, its final form is now beyond foreseeing."

6.4 Million Cars Seen Next Year

WASHINGTON (UPI) — At least one auto maker is expected to offer a subcompact car in 1962 to compete with small imported European models, the Commerce Department said today.

* * *

The department made only a passing reference to the subcompact in its annual review of the auto industry's past year and outlook for the year ahead.

The Business and Defense Service Administration cited the expected introduction of a subcompact as one of the factors on which it based a prediction of an increase of at least one million in auto production in 1962.

There have been reports from Detroit for some time that Ford Motor Co. planned to market a small car in 1962 in an attempt to compete with such foreign makes as the Volkswagen.

The Commerce Department statement, however, is the closest anyone has come to date to making Ford's plans official.

The department said auto production in 1962 should range from 6.4 million to 6.8 million. Scheduled 1961 production, it said, is 5.5 million, a 17.6 per cent drop from the 1960 figure of 6,674,796.

The 1961 production, the lowest since the 1958 recession, was adversely affected by a general economic decline, severe weather conditions during the first quarter of the year, and strikes in the auto industry, the report said.

New Car Sales Down This Month, but Best Since '56

DETROIT (AP) — New car sales slowed during the first 10 days of this month but sales for the period still were the best since 1956.

* * *

Ward's reports said Thursday that sales during the period averaged 18,582 daily, the slowest selling rate since the introduction of the 1962 models in late September. But, it added, despite the drop, the rate was the best for the period since 1956.

It said total deliveries were 148,654.

The selling rate during the first 10 days of November was a record 21,800 and for the first 10 days of October it was 20,875.

The grant, to be administered by the Michigan State Department of Administration, will be supplemented by $22,950 in local funds.

Check Car Before You Take Trip

NEW YORK (NEA) — Motorists, have a careful Christmas!

The Christmas season is a time of good cheer, but, unfortunately, it ends on a note of tragedy each year for thousands of people who disregard cold weather driving precautions.

Before your holiday travels take you over the hills to Grandmother's house or to visit friends where you have to leave your car standing outdoors for hours at a time, here are some pre-cautions you should take.

1. Have fresh, effective anti-freeze put into your radiator. Don't try to get by with last year's.

2. Check the condition of your heater and defroster. To work properly, they depend on a winter thermostat. Have your serviceman install one.

3. When a car is left outdoors during cold weather, frequently the windshield becomes glazed with ice. If you remove the ice by defrosting rather than scraping, lower car windows while running the motor. If you don't asphyxiation may result.

4. If you must drive at night, remove snow and ice from your lights before you start. Otherwise they will be too dim to add much to your visibility or to warn other motorists of your presence.

5. If there is ice or snow on the road, never make sudden moves either stopping, starting or changing directions. Even on warm, sunny days, watch out, too, for those ice patches that linger in shaded areas of roads.

6. Winter road emergencies require special equipment. Your car trunk should contain the following: shovel and sand, tire chains, spare fan belt and tire, tow rope, lug wrench for wheel nuts and a first aid kit.

Ford Announces New 406 V8 Engine

DETROIT (AP)—Ford Motor Co.'s Ford Division says a 406 cubic inch V8 engine, the most powerful ever built by the auto firm, now is available with either six or four barrel carburetor.

The six barrel delivers 405 horsepower and the four gives 385 horsepower.

The engines will be installed in the Ford Galaxies and probably will cost $250 to $280 above the standard V8.

Local advertisers spent an average of nearly $8 million each day of 1960 for ads in their local daily newspapers.

Ringing In Christmas

It's Music Everywhere

Music is as important to Christmas as holly, mistletoe and gaily wrapped packages. Even more important, music recreates the true meaning of the holiday season for all who listen.

Of course, Christmas is celebrated musically in different ways in different parts of the country.

For instance, bells have a special Christmas meaning in Boston. On Christmas Eve, the Beacon Hill Bell Ringers present their special Christmas concert for thousands of Bostonians who visit Louisburg Square.

STARTED IN 1952

These programs began in 1952 with musical settings for pantomime reproductions of Christmas paintings. More recent presentations have included "Hansel and Gretel," and "Cinderella."

The entire production is performed by members of the South Bay-Torrence Civic Symphony Orchestra, St. Cecelia Choir, and amateur singers, dancers and actors from the surrounding area.

Perhaps the largest gathering of yuletide music makers is in Detroit, where more than 3,200 singers from church choirs in the area gather to sing carols and relive the Christmas story.

THESE MILWAUKEE, Wis., carolers are typical of America's more than 32 million amateur musicians who will make this the most musical Christmas ever. In churches and outdoors, they will tell of the meaning of Christmas.

'Go American,' Judge Advises R.I. Speedster

EAST PROVIDENCE, R.I. (UPI) — Judge Eugene J. Sullivan Jr., had some advice for a 29-year-old Providence engineer who appeared at district court to answer a speeding charge.

Robert A. Anderson, who was fined $5 after pleading guilty to the charge, told the judge his small foreign car has a "free-wheeling device" and that he's constantly on the defensive on the highway against bigger vehicles.

"You look like an intelligent man and you ought to know what to do," the judge told him. "If these foreign cars are so hard to handle and you have to drive on the defensive and you can't keep it under control — go American."

Scientist Heads MSUO Program

Dr. William Hammerle Approved as Director of Engineering Studies

Dr. William G. Hammerle, 34, associate professor of physics at Michigan State University Oakland, today was named director of MSUO's engineering program.

Hammerle's appointment was approved this morning by the Board of Trustees.

A member of the MSUO faculty since the university opened in September 1959, Hammerle received his doctor of philosophy degree from Princeton University. His bachelor of science degree is from California Institute of Technology.

Prior to his appointment to the MSUO faculty, he was, for three years, assistant professor at Michigan State University, East Lansing. From 1954 to 1956, he was a research assistant in chemistry at Yale University.

Selection of a scientist rather than an engineer to head this program is in keeping with MSUO's plans to offer a new kind of engineering education to undergraduates, Chancellor D. B. Varner said.

"We must eschew vocationalism, give relatively little attention to tration on preparing the innovator and director of the future by giving him a broad grounding in principles. This engineer will also get a liberal education, because the needs of the future demand it," Varner said.

Dr. Hammerle resides at 431 Bay St.

Board Promises Aid to School Study Unit

The newly formed Pontiac School Study Group last night was promised the cooperation of the Pontiac Board of Education.

The citizens' group had sent a letter to the board outlining its purpose—to improve communications between schools and community.

"We certainly appreciate your interest in the schools, and I'm sure I'm speaking for the rest of the board when I say we commend such interest."

Supt. Dana P. Whitmer promised to provide a speaker on the proposed Pontiac-area community college for the group's 8 p.m., Jan. 9 meeting at the Teamsters Hall, Orchard Lake and Telegraph roads.

A speaker had been requested by Brown "to give us some education about such a college."

Confused Caller Turns Up Two Main Speakers

BINGHAMTON, N.Y. (AP)—General manager Harry S. Milligan of the daily Binghamton Sun-Bulletin was asked to address a service club in nearby Nichols.

The man who made the request called three weeks later to remind him of the date. But he called the wrong man — Harry F. Milligan, vice president of the Marine Midland Trust Co.

The Marine Midland's Milligan checked his calendar, saw that he had nothing scheduled, and said he'd be there.

Take Potluck Playing Pinata

Colorful Mexican Yule Game Can Be Enjoyed Anywhere

South of the border, down Mexico way, the pinata is to Mexican children what the Christmas tree is to their Northern neighbors. Yet this colorful Mexican custom can be the highlight of a children's Christmas party anywhere.

In Mexico, pinatas are large clay pots elaborately decorated with tissue paper of various colors. Oftein they are designed in the shape of birds, animals or comic faces.

HAPPY SCRAMBLE

They are then allowed to swing three times for the pinata, hoping to shatter the clay pot and send its contents spilling over the floor. A happy scramble follows.

Next, take a long piece of cord and pass it through the drainage hole in the bottom of the pot, knotting it inside the pot so that the pot may be suspended upside down. Then select the goodies with which to fill your pinata.

After filling the pot to the brim with these, glue the saucer firmly to the rim of the pot and let dry overnight. As for decoration, you can paint your pinata with cheerful, bright designs, add streamers, or let your imagination run riot with stiff construction paper and cellophane tape, to add wings, ears, or whatever you want.

The pinata may be suspended directly from the ceiling or from another cord run from one wall to another. Just be certain that it is well out in the center of the room so that the stick-wielding youngsters shatter nothing but the pinata.

Prefab Homes Gain in Sales

Save Money and Time for Busy Buyer With Loans Also Easier

NEW YORK (UPI)—The all factory-built home that is delivered to the site in only two to four pieces will be sold to a lot more families in a lot more communities this year.

But local building codes and the determined opposition of plumbers, electricians and other labor unions still are keeping the prefab house companies from achieving real mass production.

At least seven manufacturers will push hard in the East, the Midwest, and Southwest and the Far West this year to overcome local objections to the fall factory-built home.

Unlike prefabs being put up by the thousands in new subdivisions, the all factory-built house is completely finished inside and out at the factory, with wiring and plumbing fixtures in place.

It is hauled to the homeowner's lot in two, three or four pieces and then set on the foundation by a crane. The sections are bolted together and the plumbing lines joined by pipe sleeves and connected to the ground water, gas and sewer lines.

Aside from the obvious time saving, the all-factory-built house can save money for the buyer and increase the manufacturer's profit at the same time, according to Philip Duff, vice president of Guerdon Industries of Marlette, Mich.

Put Some Props in Your Christmas Card Picture

By KAY SHERWOOD
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Time to start thinking about Christmas cards? It is if you're going to send personalized cards or family photographic greetings. Some stores offer discounts on early orders—a fact of importance if your list is long.

There's another reason for being aware, at least, that the holidays approach. This is the Christmas card list. The sensible, well-organized homemaker will have filed neatly in her desk her list with names and addresses of those to whom she sends cards.

The rest of us will have to dig out the list from return addresses torn from envelopes, from last year's cards, telephone books and memory. This takes longer and usually entails hasty post cards to scouts in distant cities asking for cousin Edith's address and to where did aunt Lucy move?

The sending and receiving of Christmas cards comes in for a good deal of discussion when we sit down to figure a list. Some families see little reason to send cards to the close friends and neighbors they'll be talking to often during the holidays. Others think the gay or beautiful greeting is a tangible expression of friendship as much appreciated by near friends as distant ones.

PERSONAL TOUCH

Whichever way you think, few cards are more appreciated by the friends and family whom you seldom see than those that contain a personal note and-or a picture of your brood. The note may be the briefest resume of your activities and the snapshot a casual record of how the children have grown in a year.

A more festive greeting and one more of us will try this year is the colored photograph taken in a holiday setting and printed on one of the standard cards. Bright red and green are wonderful colors photographically and traditionally.

Inexpensive props can get the greeting into the picture and set the holiday stage. You may already have a welcome mat with Merry Christmas on it. If not, white felt or cardboard can be inscribed with bold letters with a colored marker.

A clever picture idea is a variation of the old amusement park photograph. A cardboard front, sketched to look like an angel, or a choir boy or a Santa's helper, over which a youngster's head smiles is easy and inexpensive.

HERE'S HOW

To make an angel prop for example, the dress shape and wings are first sketched on the cardboard or heavy paper. Then metallic green Christmas plastic tape and holly design tape are stuck down along these sketched lines making a bold, clear outline. The halo for the angel is made from a paper plate banded in gold tape and held on the child's head with bobby pins.

I also like the idea for a tall Christmas tree shape made from two tall triangles of cardboard. One triangle is slit through the center halfway up from the bottom; the other halfway down from the top. Then you slide one over the other to make a freestanding "tree" which can be painted and decorated with gold, red, silver or white tape snowflakes or stars. Put the tree on the center of a Christmas rug and you'll still have room for two or three children around it.

Gondoliers May Have to Battle Autos in Venice

VENICE, Italy (UPI) — The gondoliers of Venice are always complaining bitterly about competition from the motorboats. What will they say when they see the cars.

Yes, automobiles. A tentative zoning plan calls for a highway linking the outer lagoon islands, and opponents of the scheme charge that this would inevitably lead to opening Venice's eastern waterfront to automobile traffic.

This, to any lover of Venetian tradition, is like adding cubist details to a Raphael painting or shaving off the beard of Giuseppe Garibaldi.

The zoning plan, worked out by city authorities and currently under study at the Public Works Ministry, calls for construction of a highway on the long and narrow sandy islands of Pellestrina and of the Lido, which extend almost in a straight line, closing the Venice Lagoon and leaving the city inside.

The island road would provide a new and fast link between the Bologna-Venice and Trieste-Venice highways, which currently join on the mainland at the town of Mestre.

"Just think," said critic Emilio Lavagnino in the Rome Newspaper Il Messaggero, "the hallucinating sight of a car in St. Mark's square . . . will very soon be a reality if we go on this way. And the gondolas in Venice will look like those false old fishermen in Capri, put there to provide folklore color for the foreigners."

Buying Gold Can Be Legal

WASHINGTON (UPI) — If you are a frustrated gold bug seeking to speculate against the dollar, there is a legitimate way to do it.

Be warned, however, that U.S. Treasury officials and most other responsible financial experts advise against it.

A little known section in the Treasury gold regulations permits Americans to own gold coins made before April 5, 1933, and those made later — all foreign — which are officially deemed to be rare.

Coin dealers have been advertising this to people interested in buying gold coins. The dealers sell them from stock or buy them abroad and charge a fee or commission.

The advertising literature of one such dealer urges people to buy gold coins on the assumption that eventually the United States will have to raise the price it pays for gold, $35 an ounce since 1933.

Such a step is unlikely for far into the future.

This is the opinion of experts both in and out of the government.
