Rescuers Hunt Victims of N.J. Plant Explosions

HAWTHORNE, N.J. (AP) — Two bodies of the 11 men missing in a chemical plant explosion were discovered shortly after dawn today by searchers using a German shepherd dog.

★ ★ ★

At 9:30 a.m. police headquarters said they believed a third body had been found.

Rescuers continued to pick through the destroyed plant for the other men believed buried in the ruins.

They worked in snow and subfreezing temperature while police kept away curiosity seekers.

The series of explosions, followed by a fire that leveled the large building yesterday, also injured at least 18 persons, two seriously.

20 FEET APART

The first two bodies were found 20 feet apart. They were identified as those of Thomas Carroll of Clifton, a father of five, and Gus Tilstra of Paterson.

During the night 300 volunteer firemen had worked under floodlights, pulling apart rubble and knocking down foot-long icicles, while wives and children of the missing men shivered nearby waiting for news.

"Don't leave me. Please don't leave me," pleaded Sandy Kanter, 19, a pretty laboratory worker, when she was discovered yesterday pinned in the debris shortly after the initial, big explosion.

★ ★ ★

Two rescuers, despite the imminent possibility of another explosion, got her free and carried her to safety.

SMALLER EXPLOSIONS

There were numerous smaller explosions in the building in the first few hours of the tragedy.

At Paterson General Hospital Peter Kanter later planted a kiss on the forehead of his daughter. She was reported in good condition after being treated for burns.

Most of the employes were in a new wing of the plant, which was badly damaged but not leveled like the other main section.

★ ★ ★

Three members of one family were involved in the disaster. Joseph Alnemy, 44, of Newfoundland was among the missing. His son, William, and the son's wife, Susan, both also plant employes, were injured. She was admitted to the hospital; her husband was treated and released.

'Policeman of Year' Named

A 34-year-old patroiman was named Pontiac's "police officer of the year" yesterday at the Pontiac Exchange Club's annual award luncheon at the Waldron Hotel.

★ ★ ★

The award was presented by Exchange Club President Ray A. Ulseth.

Pontiac Police Chief William K. Hanger told club members that Solwold, with the department since 1956, has received five meritorious service citations within the past two years.

Solwold was cited for breaking up an auto theft ring, stopping a holdup in progress and capturing the two persons responsible, helping capture a mental patient barricaded in her home with a shotgun, capturing two armed bandits just after a burglary and helping solve a robbery case at a local bank.

ROCHESTER GRAD

A graduate of Rochester High School and the academy of the Detroit Police Department, he is now enrolled in a police service course at Oakland Community College.

He was promoted to senior patrolman in February of 1966.

Student Leaders Tell of CIA 'Trap' for Young Men

WASHINGTON (AP) — With money, draft deferments and the threat of jail the Central Intelligence Agency laid "an ethical trap for young men of great integrity," say leaders of the National Student Association.

To the CIA it was a valuable weapon in the back alley struggle of international espionage. To the students involved it became an agony and a horror.

In the end, the moral strain on the students became too great and it shattered the 15-year secret relationship between the government spy agency and the nation's largest student organization.

Meanwhile, a top official of the American Newspaper Guild (ANG) said today his union is checking to determine whether it may have received CIA funds through grants from private foundations.

Charles Perlik, secretary-treasurer of the ANG, said he did not know whether three foundations which have contributed as much as $240,000-a-year to the guild were passing along money from the supersecret spy organization.

SCENE OF EXPLOSIONS—Heavy smoke rises from a flaming three-story chemical plant in Hawthorne, N.J., yesterday after a series of explosions set off a fire at the Morningstar Paisley Division of International Latex Corp., which manufactures paper and textile coatings and glue. One man is known dead and 10 others are missing and presumed to be buried in the ruins.

Viets Can Settle Affairs if U.S. Leaves--Cong

TOKYO (AP)—The Vietcong said today they made contacts with South Vietnamese officers during the lunar new year truce and that the contacts proved the Vietnamese can settle their own affairs.

This assertion was made by the spokesman for the Vietcong's National Front for Liberation and broadcast by Hanoi Radio.

It was the first disclosure that there had been such contacts.

"The contacts between a number of officers and men of the puppet army and the people and cadres of the NFL proved that the Vietnamese people are fully able to settle themselves all their internal affairs provided the United States stops its aggression against South Vietnam and withdraws its troops from there."

LBJ Tax Plan Finds Trouble at 1st Turn

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's tax increase proposal is in trouble with the first congressional committee to consider it.

★ ★ ★

That Senate-House Economic Committee is a study unit without legislative power. But three of its members sit on the House Ways and Means Committee and three on the Senate Finance Committee, the two that do have legislative power over taxes.

One source close to the Joint Economic Committee predicted flatly that its report would kill Johnson's proposal for a 6 per cent surcharge on most income taxes effective July 1.

Others would not go as far. The trend of questioning at still-incomplete hearings on the President's economic report indicates a number of members have not made up their minds.

The weight of testimony by nongovernment witnesses has been against a tax boost.

CONCLUSION QUESTIONED

Most outside economists questioned the conclusion of the President's Council of Economic Advisers that the economy is due for another big spurt in the latter half of 1967.

To restrain the inflationary possibilities of such a situation, the advisers recommend what Chairman Gardner Ackley calls the "mild restraint" of the surtax — which mainly is advocated, however, to reduce deficits caused principally by Vietnam war spending.

At a closed hearing yesterday of the Senate Appropriations Committee, Secretary of the Treasury Henry H. Fowler said if Vietnam war costs were eliminated, the government "would be running large and increasing surpluses" in the three years ending with 1968.

★ ★ ★

Fowler's figures were based on simple subtracting from spending all war-related expenses.

★ ★ ★

They did not take into account any change in Treasury revenues that might have resulted had there been no war.

White Lake Boy Is Killed on Road

A 7-year-old White Lake Township boy was injured fatally yesterday afternoon when struck by a car in front of his home at 8541 Elizabeth Lake near Hurondale.

Dead on arrival at Pontiac General Hospital was Daniel R. Miller, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller.

The motorist, Minard D. Jones, 56, of 1608 Windemere, Royal Oak, told township police he was traveling east on Elizabeth Lake Road at 35 miles per hour when the boy darted from behind a driveway snowbank into the path of the car.

Romney Hits War 'Politics'

OLYMPIC, Wash. (AP) — Decisions regarding the war in Vietnam are being made "on a basis of political considerations," Republican Gov. George Romney of Michigan said last night.

★ ★ ★

Romney spoke at a reception at the governor's mansion during a brief stop here on a six-state western tour. He met with Gov. Dan Evans and GOP county chairmen.

"Whether it be with regard to the war in Vietnam, Medicare or other matters," he said at the reception, "decisions are made on a basis of political considerations and not on the basis of promoting the welfare or economic well-being of the people."

Romney drove here with Gov. Walter Hickel of Alaska, who met him at the Seattle-Tacoma airport when his plane arrived from the Midwest.

★ ★ ★

After the reception, Romney and Hickel returned to Seattle for an overnight stay and a scheduled 7:20 a.m. (PST) flight to Anchorage.

TALK IN ANCHORAGE

On Romney's schedule tonight is a talk at a Republican fund-raising dinner in Anchorage. During the day he was to speak at a luncheon and view sled dog races held as part of the annual Anchorage Fur Rendezvous.

The Michigan governor will leave tomorrow for Salt Lake City, Utah. His speaking tour will also take him to New Mexico, Arizona and Idaho.

At a news conference in Seattle, Romney said he has not decided whether to be a candidate for the Republican nomination for president.

Hanoi Confirms Offer on Talks

LONDON (AP) — A North Vietnamese Foreign Ministry spokesman in Hanoi has confirmed that talks can commence if the Americans stop the bombings of North Vietnam, the Communist Morning Star reported today.

In an undated dispatch, Freda Cook, its correspondent in Hanoi, quoted the spokesman as saying:

"This is not a new line but a new approach to the question of talks. The United States has protested often enough that it wants to talk as soon as there is the slightest indication that Hanoi is willing.

"Very well, let the bombing of the north stop definitely and talks could commence, without, however, any suggestion that Hanoi will budge one iota from the four-point stand which is the only basis for a correct settlement."

North Vietnam's four points include withdrawal of U.S. troops from South Vietnam and dismantling of U.S. bases, adherence to the Geneva agreements on Vietnam, settlement of South Vietnam's internal problems without outside interference and eventual peaceful unification.

Heart Patient Knows Value of Walking

(EDITOR'S NOTE — This is the last in a series of articles in conjunction with National Heart Month, written from personal experience of a Press staffer.)

By DICK SAUNDERS

How long has it been since you took a walk of a mile or more?

If someone had asked me this last August, I would have been at a loss for words. I used to do very little walking.

SAUNDERS

In September I suffered a heart attack, at age 32.

Naturally, for several weeks I had to remain physically quiet. But by early November I was walking a mile a day.

A year ago I'd drive to the grocery store a block from my house.

★ ★ ★

Today I walk home from work every day the weather permits (that's 1.5 miles). I walk a mile to a shopping center frequently.

★ ★ ★

In short, I'm trying to divorce myself from a way of life that fosters heart trouble through lethargy. We are a people who sit and eat.

Dr. Paul Dudley White, a founder of the American Heart Association, properly describes our excessive food intake as "a serious health hazard—an intoxication with a slow and insidiously harmful effect, not so acute or dramatic as intoxication by alcohol or drugs, but almost as damaging."

He feels that a walk of four miles a day, or a comparable activity, is the minimum needed for good health.

I fall short of his standard by about 2 miles, but I'm doing far better than most people I know.

★ ★ ★

Right-of-Way Damage Policy Told

Due to excessive invalid claims and complaints, the Oakland County Road Commission has adopted a policy concerning mailboxes, sod, grass and other objects damaged within its right-of-way.

The position taken by the road commission will be as follows:

"In general, the public has the basic right to use public roads and right-of-ways which takes precedence over the right of an individual.

"When a mailbox is knocked down in the process of snow removal or seasonal maintenance work, it can be assumed we are acting in the best interest of the public and the damages are unavoidable.

★ ★ ★

"As such, neither the public nor the road commission, who is acting on behalf of the public, is liable or responsible for any damages. In many cases, the mailboxes are in poor condition to begin with, improperly located, or sod has been improperly placed within the right-of-way.

WILL NOT REPAIR MAILBOXES

"Therefore, effective immediately, the Oakland County Road Commission's policy will be it will not repair damaged mailboxes, replace sod or recognize any similar claims. Mailboxes, sod and grass are allowed on the public-right-of-way for the convenience and benefit of the public.

★ ★ ★

"Therefore, the road commission cannot assume any responsibility for any damages to them.

CONTINUE PAST POLICY

"The road commission will continue its past policy in taking every precaution it can with regard and respect for the property of others within its right-of-way."

Top Chinese Rebels Remain Influential, Mao Aide Admits

TOKYO (AP) — As rebellion in Red China's remote vastness-es continued to plague Mao Tse-tung's forces, an aide to the Communist chairman was quoted today as saying the influence of Mao's chief adversaries remains strong.

Opposition was reported in Inner Mongolia, Tibet, Manchuria and Szechwan Province, as well as Fukien Province opposite Formosa.

Japanese newsmen reported that Chi Pen-yu, a member of Mao's purge committee, said Communist Secretary General Teng Hsiao-ping and Deputy Premier Tao Chu have "failed to blow their heads and admit their crimes." Their influence after six months of the purge was described as still "very deep-rooted."

Chi reportedly also told a discussion group that President Liu Shao-chi still refuses to admit that he opposed Mao and has "only admitted proposing a reactionary line."

REMAIN DEFIANT

Based on wall posters in Peking, the Japanese dispatches indicated that Liu, Teng and Tao remained defiant as recently as nine days ago. Wall posters said late last month that Tao, reportedly purged as Communist propaganda chief, had died of a heart attack but Premier Chou En-lai was later quoted as denying it.

* * *

Parts of the nation appeared threatened by epidemics and food shortages. Meningitis reportedly has broken out in Canton. Maoists in Shanghai appealed to medical men this week to return to work and asked that health rules be observed.

Travelers reaching Hong Kong from Canton reported food shortages and hoarding, although food stores in areas open to foreigners were said to be well stocked.

3 Robbed at Area Bar, 4th at Mall

Four men were victimized in two armed robberies last night and early today in Waterford and Shelby townships.

William Emeigh of 1715 Warwick, Sylvan Lake, was accosted in the Pontiac Mall parking lot at 8 last night by a lone knife-carrying bandit who escaped with Emeigh's wallet, containing $15, and an $85 watch.

Emeigh told Waterford Township police the man approached him as he was about to enter his car parked near Telegraph Road.

Two custodians and a painter were robbed at gun point about 4 a.m. today at a bar in Shelby Township.

* * *

The bandit, whose accomplice remained in the getaway car, escaped with $61 but was unable to open a cash register at the Shelby Inn, 45660 Mound at West Utica.

ROBBED OF $12

The painter, Bernard Wilczynski of Detroit, was robbed of $12 in the parking lot just after he arrived for work.

He was forced to knock on a door, allowing the bandit to gain entry when one of the custodians responded.

The bandit took $44 from Harold Martin of Utica and $5 from John Harris of Detroit.

Before leaving he told the three men to lie face-down on the floor for 10 minutes or he would kill them. They complied with the demand, then phoned Utica police who contacted Shelby Township police.

'X' Is Not Enough on Village Ballots

LANSING (AP)—Voters in at least 100 Michigan villages will have to write in the name of their favorite candidate rather than just make an "X" on the ballot next Monday, the state's election chief says.

Robert Montgomery said Friday that under a new law, only state parties are eligible to be listed on village ballots.

But, he said, some villages persisted in listing candidates for village offices under the old Federalist, Unionist, Citizens' and other party labels.

In those villages, write-in voting will have to be used, the state elections director ruled.

Last November, only the Republican, Democratic and Socialist Labor parties qualified for the state ballot.

GOP Gathering Will Hear Pratt

Circuit Judge Philip Pratt will be the speaker at an 8 p.m. public meeting Tuesday of the Oakland County Young Republican Club at the Kingsley Inn, Bloomfield Hills.

Pratt currently is conducting a one-man grand jury investigation in Oakland County.

BOYS' CLUB CHIEF—Little Randy Moshier, a member of the Pontiac Boys' Club, proclaimed Joseph Bane honorary chief of the club after placing a headdress on the president of Teamsters Local 614 last night.

300 Fete Teamster Exec, Get Report on Boys' Buses

Some 300 persons attended last night's testimonial dinner at Kingsley Inn honoring Teamster Local 614 President Joseph Bane and heard a favorable progress report on the local's "Buses for Boys" fund drive.

Just two months ago Clyle R. Haskill, president of the Pontiac Boys' Club, wrote a letter to Bane which said that the club's two buses were no longer safe to use and asking for help.

Bane immediately began enlisting support of the Teamsters membership and set a goal of $15,000, enough to buy two shiny new buses.

Plans for the annual dinner were geared to the bus campaign and all proceeds from the $25 banquet tickets were earmarked for the drive.

* * *

Robert Holmes, international vice president of the Teamsters Union, said that more than enough funds already had been collected to buy one 52-passenger GMC bus and that the final goal would surely be reached.

$11,000 COLLECTED

John Parris, vice president of Local 614, later tallied the proceeds and reported that over $11,000 had been collected.

* * *

A host of speakers showered praise on the Local 614 president for his accomplishments as a labor leader and humanitarian.

Bane also received several awards including a miniature key to the City of Pontiac from Mayor William H. Taylor Jr. and three presentations from members of the Boy's Club.

Aussies Skirt Ambush, Kill 70 Vietcong

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) — Australian troops bypassed an enemy ambush and killed 70 Viet Cong in a six-hour battle Friday, spokesman for the 1st Australian Task Force announced today.

It was the fourth straight day allied units — South Vietnamese, Koreans, Americans and Australians — have clashed with guerrillas or North Vietnamese regulars. They have claimed an over-all enemy death toll exceeding 1,000.

* * *

This week's battles raged from the Mekong Delta to northern Quang Ngai Province and although the action tapered off today, allied troops continued hunting for their fleeing adversaries.

NO PATTERN

There was no pattern to the week's outbreak of major fighting, the heaviest so far this year. Several battles were initiated by Communists trying to overrun allied positions or blocking posts — the others started when probing allied units found the enemy and hemmed them in.

The Australians swept through the coastal swamps 47 miles southeast of Saigon today and said they had killed 70 men of the Viet Cong's veteran D445 Mobile Battalion.

* * *

The action capped these major fights that started Tuesday:

South Vietnamese rangers and infantrymen killed 331 guerrillas in two days of fighting in the delta southwest of Can Tho.

Apollo 1 Panel Hears Reports

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — A board of review today began hearing interim reports from specialists investigating the Apollo 1 fire.

The interim findings will be presented through Tuesday by 21 work panels assigned to different study areas. Wednesday, the board will make a summary presentation to Dr. Robert C. Seamans, deputy administrator of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration and to Dr. George Mueller, associate administrator for manned space flight.

* * *

Mueller will report Thursday of the impact of the accident on the Apollo man-to-the-moon program.

The flash fire swept through the Apollo 1 craft during a ground test, killing Air Force Lt. Cols. Virgil I. Grissom and Edward H. White II and Navy Lt. Cmdr. Roger B. Chaffee.

Little Man Feeling Auto Slump

DETROIT (UPI) — Slumping auto sales are beginning to have their effect on the little man, the worker who mans the assembly lines in the nation's auto factories.

More than 25,000 auto industry employes will have been affected by the end of the month.

Ford Motor Co. and Chrysler Corp. yesterday said 3,000 workers would be laid off for an indefinite period later this month. Another 5,000 employes were scheduled for an indefinite period later this month. Another 5,000 employes were scheduled for temporary layoffs, 4,800 at Chrysler plants.

A parts shortage caused by a strike at General Motors' body plant in Ontario, Ohio, caused the company to put two Michigan plants, at Detroit and Lansing, on short shifts this week.

GM said 4,850 employes will be affected by the reduced week and warned the situation would worsen next week unless the wildcat walkout is settled.

13,000 IDLED

American Motors Corp., which already has laid off 4,100 workers indefinitely this year, finished the first week of a two-week suspension of all car production at its Wisconsin plant. At least 13,000 employes have been idled by the current production halt at AMC.

As an indication of the lagging sales, Ward's Automotive Reports, the industry's statistical publication, noted the industry built its one-millionth car of the year Thursday, but the day was eight days later than last year.

News Briefs at a Glance

DETROIT (AP) — The whereabouts of Anthony J. Volante, 28, of Westland remained a mystery today after his disappearance Wednesday night. Birmingham Area News

Lenten Services Held in Homes

BIRMINGHAM — An unusual form of Lenten services in the homes of congregation members of Lutheran Church of the Shepherd King in Birmingham is being favorably received, according to Rev. Karl Boehmke.

The idea of the services is to observe the anniversary of the church which, back in 1957, prior to construction of the building at 5300 W. Maple, traveled from home to home for devotions and Bible study.

"Though many of the present members are new to the congregation, they have joined in the spirit of the observance well," said Rev. Boehmke.

During the weeks of Lent, gatherings are held at a different member's house on four days of the week, Monday through Thursday.

* * *

The gatherings begin with the setting up of an altar by the host family in their living or recreation room, according to Rev. Boehmke.

The altar cross and communion vessels are carried from the preceding home. A tape recorder with hymns and responses recorded by the church choir provides the music.

After worship the circle gathers informally for coffee and an hour of discussion. This season the study is church history. Christianity in the Middle Ages and the rise of modern churches is the present topic, Rev. Boehmke said.

Lenten devotions are also conducted in the chapel Wednesdays at 4:45 and 7 p.m. for those unable to attend the circle gatherings.

The third Lenten dinner program of the First Baptist Church at 6:45 p.m. Wednesday will feature "Christ in Instrumental Music."

Narrated by Pauline Sampson, the program will explore the development of instrumental music as an art within the framework of worship.

County Youth Corps Gets $201,370 Federal Grant

A federal grant of $201,370 for the Neighborhood Youth Corps program of the Oakland County Commission on Economic Opportunity (OCCEO) was announced yesterday by U.S. Rep. Jack H. McDonald, R-19th District.

The grant plus local funding of $37,000 will provide work experience opportunity for up to 185 in-school enrollees. Summer enrollees will boost this total to 300.

Boys and girls in the 16-through-21 age group who are from low-income families are eligible for the Neighborhood Youth Corps program.

Part-time employment at $1.25 hourly for in-school enrollees will be provided by the OCCEO in such categories as nursing aides and library book repair aides.

* * *

Besides providing for payment to enrollees, the grant also will permit the hiring of three additional OCCEO employes for the program, an assistant director and two counselor aides.

* * *

Last November the OCCEO received a grant of $108,350 to carry on a Neighborhood Youth Corps program for 100 out-of-school enrollees.

Heart Patient Tells Value of Daily Walks

Dr. White points out that "regular exercise of the large muscles of the body is essential to positive health.

"During active use of the legs, for example, their muscles act as circulation boosters, relieving the heart of 30 per cent of its load."

* * *

The key is moderation. In almost everything you do, avoid excesses.

RELIEVES TENSION

Walking is also good for relieving tension and stresses.

Your ability to handle tension and stresses is a heart risk factor.

A boxer who leads with his chin is going to get tagged a lot sooner in the fight than one who has learned to roll with the punches.

* * *

It's the same in life. You've got to learn how to roll with it.

PRESSURE JOB

If you have a pressure job, get up and walk to the water cooler at least once an hour. Just a short respite like this will break that building tension.

This whole area of employment after a heart attack is dependent largely on the seriousness of your attack, your employers and your doctors.

I was very curious about why my heart faltered. I was blessed by doctors who eagerly fed my curiosity with information and answers — not just rules.

They now tell me that if my recovery continues on its present course, my electrocardiogram a year from now won't indicate I ever had any heart trouble.

THREE MONTHS

I was hospitalized about three weeks after my attack. It was a little more than three months until I returned to work.

In that time I found out that my heart is a fantastically strong, resilient machine.

It can take lots of punishment. It has to.

In our overfed, mechanized society, most people begin punishing it early in life.

I'm going to see to it that my kids don't make that mistake. How about you?

State House Nixes Raises for Secretaries

LANSING (AP) — Determined to avoid "this jerkwater race," "this annual whipsaw," the House rejected Friday an attempt to raise the pay of its secretaries to the level of those in the Senate.

Members favoring rule amendments offered by Rep. James Bradley, D-Detroit, said House secretaries do at least as much work as Senate secretaries and should not be paid $600 a year less.

* * *

But other representatives said that in the past, when the House raised its employes' salaries to Senate levels, the Senate promptly raised its levels even higher.

Introduced Friday were measures requiring diesel buses to have exhaust pipes sticking above the vehicle bodies, forbidding camping, drinking, selling and loitering in roadside parks and rest areas, requiring hourly for in-school enrolles will nonpublic laborers be paid at least once a week, and banning topless waitresses.

Rep. Josephine Hunsinger, D-Detroit, sponsored a bill to abolish the state's one-man grand jury system and Rep. James O'Neill, D-Saginaw, introduced one to repeal the three-year-old property tax exemption on special manufacturing tools such as dies, patterns and gauges.

Dems Gather for Convention

Districts Caucusing in Grand Rapids Today

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Michigan's Democrats, battered after their worst defeat since the 1930s, converged on Grand Rapids today to elect officers, take positions on various issues and talk about what went wrong last November.

Delegates to the party's state convention were expected to re-elect chairman Zolton Ferency, fight over Vietnam and tax reform and pick a replacement for one of their most respected and hardest working leaders — vice chairman Adelaide Hart of Detroit.

* * *

Miss Hart announced this week she would not seek re-election to the post she has held for 14 of the last 16 years. She added she was not willing to be "drafted" for another term.

First to announce interest in the vice chairmanship was Patti Knox, wife of Detroit housing director Richard Knox. Delegates arriving at the crowded Pantlind Hotel Friday night were greeted by a six-foot sign urging her election.

BEHIND THE GLITTER

Behind the glitter of the convention, which officially will be held Sunday following district caucuses today, is each delegate's recollection of the Nov. 8 election.

The party lost its majorities on Michigan's congressional delegation and in both houses of the Legislature; saw Justice Otis Smith, whom the party had nominated, ousted from the State Supreme Court; lost every statewide partisan race but two and watched helplessly as Republican Gov. George Romney moved into the national spotlight.

* * *

Ferency, who lost the gubernatorial race to Romney by more than half a million votes, faced token opposition from two announced candidates — former State Agriculture Commissioner Richard Stout and Ann Arbor attorney Peter Darrow.

What Lent Means to Me

(EDITOR'S NOTE—This is the ninth in a series of articles through Lent writ'en by prominent Pontiac area citizens.)

MRS. PAUL GORMAN

By MRS. PAUL GORMAN
United Fund Leader, Women's Division

As a child, I believed Lent was the season for "giving up" some cherished possession, food or activity. When I grew up, the true concept of the Lenten period became very clear.

The material symbol of fasting by "giving up" something was replaced by the spiritual idea of fasting from the belief in the power of materiality to influence me and my activities.

Lent, to me, is a period of rededication to this idea, to refresh one's thinking with higher, spiritual views and to work to overcome the material through faith in and obedience to the spiritual.

The Ten Commandments serve as my guideposts in this rededication and help me to gain the sense of security that comes from turning to God with my problems, knowing that He will solve them for me.

CIVIL WAR SHIP FOUND—A buoy (circle) marks the location of the sunken Civil War ironclad Tecumseh at the mouth of Mobile Bay. Morgan are in the background.

New Try Planned to Unseat Sukarno

JAKARTA (AP) — Fearing that congressional ouster of President Sukarno might ignite the nation, Indonesia's military leaders were reported preparing to try again Sunday to persuade him to quit.

The announcement that strongman Gen. Suharto will lead a military delegation to meet with Sukarno came four days after Suharto's staff coordinator, Maj. Gen. Alamsjah, said there would be "no more missions, no more talks" with the 66-year-old president.

★ ★ ★

It stirred speculation that an agreement had been reached between Sukarno and the armed forces commanders, although Foreign Minister Adam Malik was quoted as telling a Moslem youth group Friday there would be no compromise with Sukarno.

Sukarno rejected last Tuesday a military proposal that he formally transfer his powers to Suharto and leave the country before Congress meets March 7.

DISMISSAL EXPECTED

Congress is expected to dismiss Sukarno and investigate his part in the Communist-inspired coup in October 1965. Sukarno has denied any responsibility for the coup.

The investigation could bring the president to trial. Some of the military leaders who suppressed the coup and subsequently reduced Sukarno to a figurehead fear the millions who still believe in him as the father of Indonesian independence would precipitate a bloody civil war.

Maj. Gen. Alamsjah said today talk of a civil war led by underground Communist forces was "only wishful thinking."

Although the military leaders say privately their units could overcome any armed resistance by Sukarno's supporters in a few weeks, some have been disturbed by the president's continued refusal to resign.

★ ★ ★

"Sukarno is too shrewd, too experienced to simply take this," one source said. "He must have something up his sleeve."

Outwardly calm, Sukarno left Friday for a weekend at his palace at Bogor.

Two-fifths of the inhabitants of the United States and Canada are under 25 years old; the corresponding figures for Latin America is three-fifths.

'M' Unit Takes Advice on Film

ANN ARBOR (AP) — University of Michigan President Harlan Hatcher Friday convinced the school's Board of Regents to take no action in the confiscation of the film "Flaming Creatures."

Hatcher advised the regents to allow "no corrective agencies" on the campus to deal with the problem of the "degeneration of art into indecency."

★ ★

The film was siezed by Ann Arbor police last month on grounds that it violated state obscenity laws. The case, involving the arrest of three students and a faculty member, is pending in Circuit Court.

"We don't want censorship by a board," said Hatcher. "Yet there is a feeling that people in the university must show taste and care in the selection of artistic works."

He said that the case would be left between the students and the city of Ann Arbor unless the regents were drawn into it.

"We have often said that students are citizens like all others," said Hatcher. "When they run counter to the law, they are in the same position as other citizens who do likewise."

★ ★ ★

The regents expressed unanimous approval.

Johnson Fears Arms Race Escalation

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson says earlier U.S. and Soviet steps toward disarmament "can be swept away overnight by still another costly and futile escalation of the arms race."

In a letter to Congress Friday accompanying the annual report of the U.S. Arms Control and Disarmament Agency, Johnson said, "There is abundant evidence that our (U.S.-Soviet) mutual antagonism is beginning to ease."

★ ★ ★

But he pointed to recent Soviet buildup of strategic forces and deployment of an antimissile system around Moscow and said he believes the two countries "have reached a watershed in the dispiriting history of our arms competition. Decisions may be made on both sides which will trigger another upward spiral."

CONSIDERING SYSTEM

The United States now is considering whether to build an antimissile system but at the same time is attempting to negotiate an agreement with the Soviets to not pour billions of dollars into such weaponry.

Again Johnson spoke of hope for negotiating a treaty to prevent the further spread of nuclear weapons to other countries.

★ ★ ★

But the report held out no great hope for general and complete disarmament at any foreseeable time.

The President cited as tension-lessening developments of recent years the installation of a direct Washington-Moscow communications link to forestall accidental war, a limited nuclear test ban treaty and agreement on Antarctic and outer space freedom from weapons of mass destruction.

This law was enacted by Congress in order to protect the public health—your health.

4 Dead, 75 Hurt in India Voting

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — India's stormy, week-long national elections entered their fourth day today with at least four persons dead and 75 injured in scattered clashes.

The continuing violence brought a warning from Prime Minister Indira Gandhi that her administration "will deal firmly with these acts of lawlessness.

★ ★ ★

"It is a matter for regret that instances of violence and assault continue," Mrs. Gandhi said.

★ ★ ★

Her comments were contained in a statement thanking hundreds of persons who had sent messages wishing her speedy recovery from facial injuries, including a broken nose, received when struck by a stone as she addressed campaign rally in eastern India last week.

TROUBLED AREA

Most of the violence has been concentrated in drought-stricken Bihar where at least 30 persons were injured in clashes in two days.

Numerous reports of rioting, stone throwing and stabbings in Bihar appeared to have political overtones not related with food shortages.

★ ★ ★

The election has been bitterly contested, with several state ministers facing stiff challenges from opposition candidates trying to oust the ruling Congress party from power in the state.

Consular Pact Foes Are Heard

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Opponents of the U.S.-Soviet consular treaty are describing it as a "Pandora's box" that could open the Western Hemisphere to a new Russian spy ring.

Sen. Karl Mundt, R-S.D., an outspoken foe of the treaty, said yesterday the Soviet Union undoubtedly will seek similar agreements with Latin American countries if the Senate ratifies the pact.

"If they can sell us that bum deal, they can sell it to others," Mundt told the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Lev E. Dobriansky, chairman of the National Captive Nations Committee, testified earlier, "We may well wind up with several hundred additional Russian operatives cloaked with diplomatic immunity" if the U. S. ratifies the treaty.

Dobriansky said the treaty would "open up a Pandora's box of Soviet pressure against every free government in Latin America."

Adm. Arleigh Burke, retired chief of naval operations, submitted a letter opposing the treaty. He said:

"While the U.S.S.R. encourages and supplies aggression in the world, it is incongruous that the United States should at the same time avidly seek a treaty containing clear disadvantages and potential dangers in the hope that this gesture will somehow pacify and civilize the aggressor."

Sen. Margaret Chase Smith, R-Maine, said the State Department informed her yesterday it would not agree to postpone the effective date of the treaty until the fighting ends in Vietnam.

Check Draws Blank Look From the IRS

YPSILANTI, Mich. (AP) — "Boy, could we have a ball," grinned Laura Oestreich, eyeing a signed blank check from the Internal Revenue Service.

"I love this antipoverty program!' she giggled. "Who needs medicare?"

Mrs. Oestreich, 24, and her husband, Larry, an electronics technician, said they were due an income tax refund of about $450.

★ ★ ★

"When I opened the mail this morning, I couldn't believe my eyes," she said Friday.

But James Reilly, director of Chicago's IRS regional center, said the entire bankroll of the U.S. government really isn't at the disposal of the Oestreichs.

"It's obviously worthless," he said hastily. "It couldn't be cashed."

He said the check would have to be returned — "I'll have the Secret Service out there in the next few minutes" — and the proper check forwarded to the couple.

Reilly, whose name was on the check, said he couldn't imagine how it got through the IRS.

New Talent Sprouts From Commercials

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD — The perennial problem in show business: where to find new talent. Here's one answer: television commercials.

The decline of such proving grounds as repertory, vaudeville nightclubs and B movies makes it ever more difficult for newcomers to train themselves and be discovered for the bigtime. Lately, the much-maligned television commercial has produced a clutch of young, imaginative film directors in London and New York.

Barbara Feldon is further evidence that something good can come out of commercials.

★ ★ ★

She is a Pittsburgh, Pa., girl who studied drama at Carnegie Tech, later graduated from the Copacabana line to perform in commercials. She became famous as the tiger girl with her sultry pitch for a men's hair cream. "Sic 'em, tiger," she murmured, and sales mounted.

Her fame led to an offer to costar as Don Adams' loyal sidekick, Agent 99, in the NBC series, "Get Smart." That, in turn, led to a costarring role with Dick Van Dyke in a new film, "Garden of Cucumbers."

Only now is she earning as much as she did as the tiger girl.

Says she: "I made more money working three days a year for Revlon than I did working 30 weeks at 13 hours a day during the first season of 'Get Smart.'"

"Once I reported for a commercial in which they wanted to use only one of my eyes," she recalled. "All I had to do was close the eye and open it. I worked a half-hour and for a whole year I collected $200 a week as the commercial was played."

The big money in commercials, she observed, comes when a girl is signed to a contract as spokeswoman or symbol for a certain product. Only a few have been so fortunate, among them: Edie Adams, Betty Furness, Barbara Britton — and Barbara Feldon.

If the work was so lucrative, why did she turn to acting?

"You have to be well-adjusted to handle a commercial contract," she said. "You work so little that you must find ways to occupy your time. I managed pretty well, but sometimes the inactivity became wearing. Besides, I felt that I needed to progress in my career. I couldn't be the tiger girl forever."

1966 Crime Report a Jolt to City

The Pontiac area has gratifyingly become known as a record-breaking one in a variety of activities. One new high, however, evokes deep anxiety.

It is the City's Crime Report for 1966 that shows a shocking 15.1 per cent increase over the previous year —an increase approximately 5 per cent higher than for the Nation as a whole.

★ ★ ★

The local crime picture reflects increases in seven of eight categories of major crime, with the biggest jump in robberies. These were up 50 per cent from the 154 reported for 1965. Actual and attempted rape was the only crime to show a decrease.

In assessing the rise in criminality, Police Chief WILLIAM K. HANGER pointed out that the police department is seriously undermanned. The force, he said, has not increased in 11 years while the department's work load has risen 700 per cent.

Although the shortage of police personnel undoubtedly bears heavily on the City's state of lawlessness, HANGER cited as a contributing cause the restrictions imposed on law enforcement agencies the Country over by the U.S. Supreme Court.

Two landmark decisions of the high court have so restricted the police in the apprehension and establishment of suspects' guilt, the chief said, that in many cases "we know who committed a crime but are powerless to make an arrest."

HANGER's ominous analysis of the judicial trend that protects the lawless at the expense of the lawabiding is by no means an individual opinion. It is generally shared by the Nation's keepers of the peace.

★ ★ ★

Until our once-respected Supreme Court comes down to earth and realism from the Cloud Nine bemusement that now guides it, the outlook for effective law enforcement in the United States is indeed grim.

Drivers the Key to Most Auto Thefts, Accidents

The National Automobile Theft Bureau reports two facts of compelling interest for auto owners:

- Theft of cars amount to $500 million annually.
- Carelessness on part of drivers in leaving keys in ignition locks accounts for 75 per cent of thefts.

With automobile manufacturers bending every effort toward improvement of door and ignition locks for protection against illegal manipulation, it would seem that the least motorists could do would be to observe ordinary care in the handling of their keys.

The remissness on the part of auto drivers that accounts for the majority of car thefts has its corollary in the current tug of war related to traffic safety. Exhaustive surveys have shown that it is driver fallibility that causes the preponderance of highway accidents. Despite the breast beating of our self-appointed traffic experts, vehicle malfunction accounts for but an insignificant number of them.

★ ★ ★

On old proverb, a bit tortured for the purpose, well applies to auto drivers in the theft and accident categories. It is "Driver, heal thyself."

Future of Farming Seen on Firm Ground

Future Farmers of America Week, which begins tomorrow, seems a little anachronistic. The fact is that there will be even fewer farmers in the future than there are now. In a special survey of American agriculture a decade hence, Farm Journal asserts that "the farm population, now 6 per cent of the Nation's people, may be only 3 per cent in 1976."

On the other hand, persons who choose to stay on the farm can look forward to a prosperous future. Farm size, income and productivity have all been rising.

Ten years from now, the survey shows, farming will still be the Nation's biggest businesss; the Country's biggest buyer and supplier; furnishing the most vital product that the Nation needs; with more private ownership than in any other place in the economy.

Moreover, Farm Journal sees farmers as "the largest group of private management entrepreneurs in a sea of amorphous job holders."

Farming long ago ceased to be exclusively family operated. The big, money-making farms have all the characteristics of industrial production; large outlays for machinery, fertilizer, herbicides and pesticides, as well as for land, are required for profitable operation.

★ ★ ★

ROBERT B. TOOTELL, governor of the Farm Credit Administration, has estimated that the capital investment needed to make a farm pay its way in 1980 will range between $100,000 and $250,000.

Small wonder that agriculture is often referred to nowadays as "agribusiness."

FBI, CIA Do Thankless Jobs

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON — The FBI years ago thoroughly infiltrated the American Communist party and, through the information and exposure which followed, was the major factor in reducing the party to a shell.

MARLOW

But suppose the FBI had not infiltrated — after all, the party represented itself as a political grouping — and today communism here had a far greater membership and was considered a menace to national security.

The FBI would have been publicly condemned — and by now might have been replaced by some new agency — for it is responsible for obtaining information essential to the nation's domestic interests.

The FBI's job is in this country. It's opposite number, the Central Intelligence Agency, has the same responsibility as the FBI but it's field is the world outside the United States.

Now it is being criticized for subsidizing the National Student Association, the oldest and largest student organization in the United States, with perhaps as much as $3 million between 1952 and 1965.

Eugene Groves, NSA president, said the CIA funds had been used to help finance the group's international activities, including sending student representatives to student congresses abroad and funding student exchange programs.

Groves said "the relationship apparently originated because the CIA believed that a strong American national union of students acting internationally was in the national interest."

Some of the CIA money went as undercover payments to past NSA officials in yearly sums of $500 to $2,500. But NSA has now severed connections with the CIA.

Officials of the CIA, the most secretive government agency, are saying nothing. But a former CIA director, Allen W. Dulles, who knew all about the arrangement, said, "We obtained what we wanted" in return for payments to NSA.

He said NSA representation at international student conferences threw a damper on Communist influence at such meetings.

Nevertheless, CIA is being criticized for infiltrating the campus. President Johnson has instructed some government officials to form a policy that would prevent CIA or any other government agency from endangering the integrity and independence of American educational institutions.

The POWER of FAITH

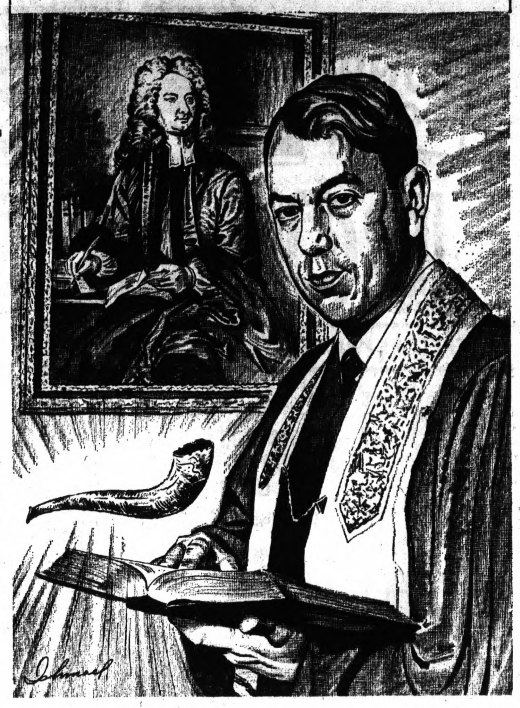
By WOODI ISHMAEL



Cantor Edward Graham of the Larchmont Temple has been called a one-man Ecumenical Movement because of his many activities in both the Jewish and Christian communities.

Possessing a magnificent voice, he learned his first Jewish sacred music at his grandfather's knee and earned his first money singing in a Jewish Orthodox synagogue

During his service in the army he was an assistant to a Southern Baptist chaplain. Also he sang for two years in a Radio City Music Hall Glee Club and toured the country with an opera company. Then he turned again to sacred music and enrolled in Hebrew Union College's School of Sacred Music.

To augment his credits for a degree he went to Iona College, a Roman Catholic institution, and took every English course offered. The life of Jonathan Swift, the great English author who was also an Angelican priest, had a profound influence on him and was the subject of his doctoral thesis. He received his Ph.D last June.

Now back at Iona College he teaches English as Dr. Graham. At the Larchmont Temple, he supervises music, as Cantor Graham.

He enjoys dialogue with the Catholic members of the faculty at Iona concerning the positions of their religions on many subjects. He says, "As a religious person I am happy to be an instructor where religious idealism lies behind the educational process."

Confident Living:

Mystic Inner Power Can Lift Us

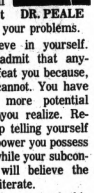
By NORMAN VINCENT PEALE

Got a tough situaton? One that seems full of insurmountable problems? Tell you what —give me the blackest picture you can conceive and I'll tell you with absolute assurance that there is a way to come up with fresh new ideas that will bring you out on top of all your problems.



DR. PEALE

First, believe in yourself. Don't ever admit that anything can defeat you because, actually, it cannot. You have within you more potential power than you realize. Release it. Keep telling yourself of the inner power you possess and after a while your subconcious mind will believe the thing you reiterate.

The second aspect of this miraculous lifting of your personal burdens is power from without. Did you ever hear of a simpler outline than that?

There is a mystic force from without that plays upon human life — and I believe this power is as real as electrical or atomic energy. I believe that all around us this mystic power is waiting to lift us up.

Never does it depress you; always it is a lifting power. If you will beleve in it, and cooperate with it, you can be lifted over any difficulty in this world. And what is this mystic power or force?

An engineer who had done an excellent job in two or three large industries, being in his fifties, found himself in a difficult unemployment situation. He faced repeated failures to make another connection.

He went to a prominent business man in Pittsburgh, and said to him, "You have always been kind to me and because of this I do not want to hurt you. I don't want you to pick up the paper some morning and see that I have jumped off one of the river bridges."

My friend looked at him searchingly, "I'm certainly disappointed in you," he said. "I always considered you a man of guts and courage and apparently I was wrong. You are instead a spineless individual. However, I'm glad you have told me because now when I read that you've jumped off the bridge, while of course I will be sorry, I will know you are no great loss to the world because there is not much to you."

★ ★ ★

The engineer's face turned scarlet with hurt pride and indignation, and then my friend, seeing his reaction, put an arm around his shoulder and said, "Boy, you're O.K. You have got what it takes after all. You reacted strongly. Spineless people don't."

He then walked over to the window and beckoned the other man to his side. "Look at those great steel mills. What are they using?"

"They are using power," was the reply.

"You are right," said my friend. "This is one of the greatest centralizations and manipulations of power in the United States. But listen! You have never really seen power, and I'm going to tell you about a power that lifted me out of feelings like yours and put me in business and gave me power over all defeat.

"I want you to realize that there is a tremendous spiritual power and it's called prayer. I haven't a single thought about your situation, not one, but for one day I want you to practice getting yourself into contact with spiritual power."

So the two men sat down beside the desk and prayed silently. "Come see me tomorrow," the engineer was told.

The next day he said, "I don't know why but I feel better. Here I am, no job and none in sight, but somehow I feel confident and unafraid."

Each day the two men worked on the operation of the mystic power, until one day there came into the businessman's mind an idea. And it proved to be the answer to the engineer's problem. The impression he had received was followed up with the result that the engineer secured a position of more importance than he had ever held before.

He said later: "I have been an engineer for years and I recognize power when I see it. But this mystic force about which you taught me, it is the real power. I can almost codify the laws by which it operates and believe me it proved its workability in my personal problem."

We all have periods of depression, of let-down, of defeat. But remember that the most powerful fact about life is that in you is a reservoir of power that has never been released. The mystic power of prayer has released it for many people.

'Program for Pre-Schoolers Is Expensive'

I am concerned over the possibility of turning the Head-Start program into a compulsory program to include all three- and four-year-old children. It is the duty and right of all parents to train their children until age five or six. I consider it a pleasure and don't want the State taking my job away from me. They can't afford all the programs they have in school. Imagine the expense in providing classrooms and teachers for all these little ones.

'Proposed Bill Give Voters Protection'

In last fall's campaign, Senator L. Harvey Lodge brought forth the idea that political candidates and public officials should file their fingerprints and police records with the State. As a member of the three-man legislative responsibility committee which subsequently prepared a resolution to the same effect (unanimously approved by the Oakland County Republican Convention), I urge every citizen to support Senator Lodge's bill. It will protect all voters from legislative "bad apples."

Foreign Aid Spending Should Be Cut First

President Johnson resists reductions in foreign aid. What passion incites this mad foreign spending orgy when our debt is approaching $336 billion? Is it a Socialist urge to redistribute the wealth of the world with a view to world government? Is it a futile attempt to buy friends and allies? Until foreign aid is drastically reduced our dangerous balance of payments deficits will continue. From among all other indicated cuts in spending, foreign aid cuts should come first and be the deepest. Recipients will cry out but they will respect us.

Expresses Views on Romney's Maneuvers

Governor Romney has to have a state income tax so the surplus will grow. When he decides to announce he has always intended to run for President and used his job as a stepping stone, this big surplus he squeezed out of us will give him all the credit. Why can't he take his chances of running for the nomination of president like everyone else has done? Instead, he has to have committees set up in other states to sell him to residents there. He slides from one side to the other on the political fence, making sure he gets on the side that will benefit George Romney most.

Questions Our 'Progress' in Vietnam War

To President Johnson: I agree to an extent that U.S. involvement in Vietnam is justified, but it appears that this war is in a state of chaos. I read of the progress that comes from it but our casualty lists get larger. This is progress? Our men are dying for something they believe in. They don't want to fight an enemy knowing that if he is captured he'll be set free to fight our men again.

Mr. President, if you are confused and don't know what to do, let someone help you. Please don't use our men as though their lives were nothing to bother with.

Suggests Citizens Examine Needs in Home

The home, say philosophers, is the basic unit of society and the sum total of living in homes is what happens in the community. If that is true, we've got some home building to do. Not the walls, the roof, or the chimney, but the people in the home need building. Our unsafe streets declare it; our burgeoning skid rows yell it; our bulging mental institutions scream it.

★ ★ ★

Feb. 18-25 is Christian Home Week for members to carefully examine the "building" needs in their homes. What about the rest of Pontiac? Could it stand a little home building examination, too?

'Nation Must Work With God for Results'

I agree that many worry and complain over petty problems, making much ado about such things as snowstorm gripes. There's a lot to be said and accomplished on the ever-troublesome three: war, race and government. Our great expectancy for what will be solved in this nation lies in our unwavering faith in God, because He requires our cooperation.

Question and Answer

Feb. 7 Avondale High School had heating problems. Permission to go home wasn't given students who were terribly cold, so they took the situation in their own hands and left school anyway. Most had parents' consent. (These students were given heavy detention hours the next day.) About midmorning school doors were locked so students couldn't leave. What kind of a school would lock doors and force students to stay in a cold school all day? Wouldn't this violate safety rules and create hazard in case of fire?

CONCERNED STUDENT

REPLY

School Principal Ruggles gave us this story: The maintenance man arrived to discover the boiler was off, but he got it started by the time buses brought the first load of students, about 7:30. About ten minutes later it went out again but buses were picking up another load and couldn't take the students home. However, in about 15 minutes the boiler was back on for the day and by 8:30 rooms were at 52 degrees and halls were 60. Students were allowed to stay in the halls until temperatures returned to normal about 10 a.m., at which time classes were resumed. Mr. Ruggles tells us the maintenance man was busy working on the boiler and forgot to unchain two back doors, but at least eight others were open, and no attempt was made to lock in students. Disciplinary was taken against students who left without permission, because school officials believe you can't run a school with students taking the situation into their own hands.

Pacifists Sail on Viet Voyage

1st Stop for Medical Supplies to Aid North

TOKYO (AP) — Six Americans and a Japanese sailed today from Misaki, south of Tokyo, aboard a 50-foot ketch to pick up a $10,000 cargo of medical supplies for North Vietnam.

The pacifist group, most of them Quakers, plan to stop first at Hiroshima, southern Japan, to pick up the supplies, then sail to the North Vietnam port of Haiphong by way of Hong Kong.

★ ★ ★

The U.S. State Department has indicated it disapproves of the voyage.

The group has received a message from North Vietnam Red Cross President Dr. Vudinh Tung urging them not to sail their ketch, the Phoenix, into Haiphong "because of the danger of intensified bombing" by U.S. planes.

'OUR DUTY'

Phillip Drath, of San Rafael, Calif., the group's spokesman, said he and his companions "are willing to brave dangers" and "feel it our duty" to make the trip, not only to deliver the supplies but as a gesture of opposition to U.S. involvement in the Vietnam war.

About 130 citizens turned out to watch the Phoenix sail out of Misaki harbor.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Earle L. Reynolds, 59, formerly of Antioch, Ohio, owner of the Phoenix, said the Quaker action group in Philadelphia was still negotiating with Hanoi for official permission for them to enter North Vietnam.

Besides Drath and Reynolds, the group includes Reynolds' Japanese wife, Akie; Betty Broardman, 40, Madison, Wis.; Horace Champney, 61, Yellow Springs, Ohio; Ivan Masser, 40, Boston, Mass.; and Robert Eaton, 23, Philadelphia, Pa.

Cancer Victims Aroused by Vaccine Court Battle

CLEVELAND (UPI) — They're dying and they don't understand.

They say "to hell with the legalities, give us the vaccine."

The 20 cancer patients, their cases all said to be terminal, watched quietly yesterday as the government began its attempt to make permanent an injunction banning the manufacture of Rand cancer vaccine. The 20 will not be called to testify.

But when the first day in U.S. District Court ended, they swarmed around U.S. Attorney Merle McCurdy, the government prosecutor.

Why, they asked, was the vaccine supply shut off? They said it was helping keep them alive.

"I symphathize with you," McCurdy replied. "I have had cancer in my family. I don't know what to tell you."

In his statements to the court, McCurdy said the vaccine was unsafe, misrepresented, mislabeled and manufactured under unsanitary conditions.

"I don't care if it was made in a pigpen," said 50-year-old Michael Settino, a Boston steelworker. "It put me back on my feet."

Carlos Arboledo of New York, who had been a judge in his native Colombia before settling in the United States, remarked: "I'd rule for the people. To hell with the legalities. Both sides are playing basketball with our lives."

Dr. Roderick Murray, director of biological studies at the National Institute of Health, was the government's first and only witness. He will return Monday for cross-examination.

Murray testified the procedure used in manufacturing the vaccine "may produce side effects of a nature most unpleasant and should (first) be tried on animals."

Wife Asks Court to Declare Mate Legally Dead

DETROIT (AP) — The wife of a Detroit gambler who disappeared seven years ago has asked that he be declared legally dead.

Mrs. Virginia Karamanos, 41, filed the petition in Wayne County Circuit Court Friday.

Karamanos vanished Jan. 14, 1960, after a dinner party with friends at a suburban Dearborn nightclub.

At the time, police feared foul play because of underworld reports that Karamanos, a reputed Greektown gambler, operated his own gambling den after being thrown out of the gambling syndicate.

William Gossett Feted in Detroit

By SIGNE KARLSTROM

Thursday evening some 700 citizens paid tribute to William T. Gossett, president-elect of the American Bar Association, at a dinner in Cobo Hall.

For some time people in all walks of life have wanted to honor Mr. Gossett, but he refused to consent to anything until he was assured that one of his favorite charities would benefit. So it came about that the United Negro College Fund of which Mr. Gossett is the national chairman became the beneficiary from the dinner which was arranged by his friends.

Mr. Joseph C. Coles with Messrs: Malcolm L. Denise and Damon J. Keith were co-chairmen of the William T. Gossett dinner committee and Mesdames: Frank W. Wylie and Elvest Jordan were program chairmen.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Stephen J. Wright, president of the United Negro College Fund was the principal speaker of the evening. He spoke of the great ideals on which this nation was founded, the history of great men and he emphasized the noble view of man which sets this nation apart from others. He wished there was a kind of Nobel prize

Language Preference May Lead Young Girl Along Wrong Paths

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: While looking for a pen in daughter's purse, I found some notes she and another girl had exchanged in class. Abby, the language was unbelievable!

I don't know where she learned such filthy words! She never talked that way around the house. She is only 15. I wonder if she uses that kind of language with boys? If she does, they surely can't respect her. What if a teacher got hold of them?

I can't understand it. I've tried to raise her right. We go to church and say grace at meals so it can't be a lack of moral or religious training. I thought she was a nice girl. Right now I feel so lost and disappointed. I am sick inside. What should I do?

HER MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: Don't do anything. All children, no matter how carefully reared they are, eventually are exposed to "filthy" language. To use such words makes them feel "sophisticated," grown up and a little wicked and daring, but it's only a phase which they pass through quickly.

Believe it or not, your daughter can still be a "nice" girl. Your "shock" and disappointment are understandable, Mother, but somehow you survived hearing and reading such language in your youth, I'm sure, and so will she.

Meanwhile, without revealing your discovery, comment casually that boys feel justified in making indecent advances to girls who use "dirty" language.

DEAR ABBY: What does a "gentleman farmer" raise?

KNOWS ONE

DEAR KNOWS: Would you believe his hat?

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: My husband's brother and his wife got a brand new spinet piano, so my husband and I went over to see it. I took piano lessons myself when I was a girl, and I know how to play fairly well, so I said to my brother-in-law, "Is it O.K. if I play a few tunes on it?" He replied, "All right. Just make sure your hands are clean."

Abby, I am no kid. I happen to be 45 years old. I was never so insulted in all my life. What would YOUR reply have been?

INSULTED

DEAR INSULTED: I'd have said, "Don't worry, I'll only play on the black keys."

Floating Campus Is Really Work

By BEA SWORDS

Nice you think, floating over the sea in a beautiful ship with other people your age — stopping from time to time to meet the natives ashore and to be entertained by perhaps a prime minister?

We recently spoke with Judy Hoffman of Clarkston who has returned from a seven-month term aboard the "Campus Afloat," a division of Chapman College in Orange, Calif.

It was not, she tells us, all fun, fun, fun — in fact it was more like study, study, study.

The floating campus is a regular ship of the Holland-American Line, chartered by Chapman College for the purpose of allowing humanities students to view first hand marine biology and oceanography.

Another motive might be to enable the students to meet people of other nations and to study, if only on field trips, in other lands.

★ ★ ★

Ports are worked into the study program to correlate with what is being studied at that particular time. Trips ashore, while they do include some time for souvenir shopping and visiting, are spiced with field trips and study-ins at local universities.

IN CEYLON

In Ceylon the American students were greeted with the news that a famous marine biologist was also visiting and wouldn't everyone just love to spend the day in the mangrove swamps? (To a marine biologist a day in a Ceylonese mangrove swamp is a rare opportunity not to be missed.)

Upon returning to their ship, the students learned that the prime minister of Ceylon was having a dinner party in their honor and their presence was hopefully requested.

★ ★ ★

The group did what they could to repair swamp damage before going to the prime minister's mansion. It was their debut into Ceylonese society.

However, the host couldn't make it. He was fasting in honor of a sacred Ceylonese holiday and cheerfully sent his regards to the guests.

"We learned a lot about other cultures," Judy told us, "without really trying to."

★ ★ ★

We asked about practical things. If you have 420 students and 80 faculty members aboard ship for some seven months, what do you do about laundry?

WASH AND WEAR

"Mostly wash and wear," Judy said, "The students are allowed to dress casually when in classes."

The topics were incredable, she explained, there was no way to avoid the humidity and heat. The air conditioning aboard ship went awry and sleeping quarters were temporarily moved onto the decks.

Langauge barriers ashore were no real problem. The students stopped in Marseilles, Rome, Athens, Lisbon, Barcelona, Japan — just to mention a few places, but many of the people they met were also students and they could get along in English.

★ ★ ★

Judy learned about the unusual campus while a student at Colorado State University.

Anyone interested in participating in the program may call Judy at her Whipple Lake Drive residence for further information.

Greek Theater Sees Trouble

YPSILANTI (AP) — The Ypsilanti Greek Theater, which opened its first season last year, may have seen its last season.

★ ★ ★

Sponsors of the theater, the world's first major professional group regularly producing Greek drama in English, said today they need pledges totaling $500,000 before March 1 if they are to make plans for this year.

One promise of $50,000 already has been made, the sponsors said, but another $450,000 is needed by the end of this month. They hope to get nine more "angels" contributing $50,000 apiece.

★ ★ ★

The theater opened to a generally critical acclaim last year, but failed to meet expenses and wound up the season with a debt of nearly a quarter of a million dollars.

★ ★ ★

Included among the creditors is the U.S. government, which is suing for some $80,000 in withholding taxes it charges were not collected from employe paychecks.

Gray Fabric Is Restored

The tendency of polyester fabrics to become gray after repeated laundering may be eliminated in the near future.

A new chemical process, currently being tested by textile companies for use during the manufacture of fabrics, is said to prevent the redeposition of soil which causes graying — thus insuring constant whiteness.

An added advantage is the compatibility of this treatment with durable press processes.

Bleaches Clean

To remove tea stains on china cups, soak them in one quart of warm water to which one tablespoon of chlorine bleach has been added.

This does not harm the color in the pattern, yet it gives the china a new look.

Make Reports Friday Evening

The needs of the Michigan Veterans Facility and the success of birthday gifts sent to hospitalized veterans were heard Friday evening at a meeting of the Oakland County Chapter No. 34, American Gold Star Mothers.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Cecil Briggs of Nelson Street was hostess.

★ ★ ★

It was decided at the meeting that Mrs. Clarence Sutton will represent the chapter at the State Board meeting in Lansing next month.

Chapter Plans for Convention

Lambda Chi Omega sorority's Beta Theta chapter elected Mrs. Melvin Small as business delegate to the March state convention in Ann Arbor at their Thursday night meeting. Mrs. James Davis will be social delegate with alternate Mrs. Lloyd Thrower.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Don Wilson of Sylvan Village was hostess for the social and business meeting at which Mrs. Keith Kiplinger was a guest.

She Offers U.S. Home to Japanese

HUNTSVILLE, Ala. (AP) — Mrs. Ophelia Mitcham, who recently retired after 24 years of Federal service at Redstone Arsenal, is known as unofficial hostess of Japanese Air Force and Army officers studying at the Arsenal.

She originally entertained a group of officers assigned to Redstone who came with a letter of introduction from her daughter, then teaching in a Japanese college. She was so impressed by their conduct that she wrote a letter to the Emperor of Japan, which was published in Tokyo newspapers.

Since then every Japanese officer who has come to Huntsville has made a point of visiting her. Next year she and her sister plan to tour Japan, visiting some of the people who were her guests.

Honor Guest at Cobo Hall With Dinner

to award Mr. Gossett in his salute to him.

In Detroit Mayor Cavanagh had proclaimed February 16 as the William T. Gossett day and this proclamation was read. There were numerous other proclamations read from various leading associations all lauding Mr. Gossett for his outstanding leadership.

Governor Romney in his tribute spoke of the quiet dignity and courageous voices of both Mr. and Mrs. Gossett. He remarked on how they had moved forward in areas that in times past did not have today's popular support. Both Mr. and Mrs. Gossett were given a standing ovation.

In his response Mr. Gossett said "It is I who should give thanks for the opportunity I have had of being of service and the satisfaction I have received for the past 18 years." He recalled how he in his early years had decided to do something about equality in education. Further he said, "as we look back we can only look forward to greater accomplishments." He complimented his wife on her aid to him.

At the speakers table there were two women, Mrs. Gossett and Mrs. Romney. In the audience were also Mr. and Mrs. William T. Gossett, Jr., who a few days ago returned from a vacation in Florida. Among those attending from this area were: The Reverend Gerald B. O'Grady who gave the invocation; Mrs. O'Grady, Mrs. R. Jamison Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Wright Tisdale, Mr. and Mrs. George Jacoby, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Katke, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Darragh, Mr. and Mrs. James Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Perring, Mrs. Abner Heggen, Ben Mills, Alan Gornick, William Baldwin and Edward Lerchen.

Eying Conservative Crusade

Wallace Warns Parties on '68

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — States-rights advocate George C. Wallace says if the two national parties "don't swing around and fly right in 1968," he will be preaching the conservative cause from coast to coast.

"In reality we have a one-party system in this country," the former Alabama governor said in a rousing, off-the-cuff speech to leaders of the Citizens Council of America Friday night. "The people deserve something better than meetoism."

* * *

While stopping short of announcing he would be a presidential candidate on a third-party ticket, Wallace criticized figures in both national parties, including former Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Gov. George Romney of Michigan.

About 800 Citizens Council members cheered lustily as Wallace lambasted federal desegregation guidelines, "the liberal press," and the federal courts.

LOUDEST APPLAUSE

But the loudest applause came as Wallace ended his talk with this comment on the national parties: "If they don't swing around and fly right in 1968 — because the iron is hot — then we're going to see them all the way from Maine to California."

Reminiscing about his entrance into the presidential primaries for the 1964 election, Wallace said that "We got our share of the support in 1963 and 1964. It has doubled and tripled since that time."

* * *

After zeroing in on President Johnson, Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey and Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., Wallace lambasted Nixon.

"The first time troops were sent into the South," he said, referring to the Little Rock desegregation crisis, "it was a Republican administration . . . and Nixon endorsed the decision."

'NIXON BOAST'

He said Nixon boasted after the first Civil Rights Act was approved in 1957 that he was instrumental in its passage.

Romney, mentioned as a possible GOP presidential candidate in 1968, has "marched up and down every avenue with anyone who will march," Wallace said. "He will march in the daytime, he will march in the nighttime and he'll march in the winter and summer."

Wallace said Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, R-Ill., voted for the 1964 Civil Rights Act which he said mainly applied to the South but "he ain't got what it takes inside to vote for one when they try to put one on Illinois such as the open housing bill."

Junior Editors Quiz on CHESS

QUESTION: Why was chess invented?

* * *

ANSWER: Chess is often spoken of as a royal game, of kings, or the king of games. We don't know how it was invented, but it seems to have originated in ancient Asia as the sport of kings and courts. The very word chess comes from the Persian shah or king.

In the old days, kings spent a lot of time warring against each other. Chess became popular because it reflected these battles in miniature.

There was one king at the rear, his queen by his side, the two bishops representing the authority of the church, his trusty fighters the knights, and the castles or rooks representing the strong protection of his castle home.

In front were the pawns, who were the serfs under the king's protection and who fought for him in battle. On the other side was the similar array of another king.

The top pictures show how the pieces started out as being elaborate with knights on horses, ets., then turned into the more easily made pieces we use today.

People play chess because it gives them bloodless battles which call for imagination and are filled with surprises and thrills.

Waterford Board to Mull Vehicle Purchase Report

The Waterford Township Board will consider a vehicle committee recommendation Monday night regarding the purchase of five vehicles for township use.

Bids were opened at the Board's Feb. 6 meeting for the purchase of two one-half ton pickup trucks for the water department, a tractor and station wagon for the cemetery department and a station wagon for the fire department.

Matthews-Hargreaves Chevrolet of Pontiac submitted the apparent low bids for the two station wagons and the pickup trucks.

The firm's quotations consisted of $1,691 each for the pickup trucks, $2,200 for the cemetery department station wagon and $2,501 for the fire department station wagon.

* * *

Pontiac Tractor and Equipment Co. was the apparent low bidder for the tractor with a porposal of $6,087.

SPRINKLER ORDINANCE

In other business Monday, the board will consider a fire department request for introduction of a sprinkler ordinance affecting new apartment buildings in the township occupied by more than eight families.

The firemen recommend sprinkling systems be required in basements, storage rooms, locker rooms and boiler rooms in such establishments.

Action is expected on a request to change the zoning from single-family residential (R-1A) to local business (C-1) property on Walton Boulevard at Clintonville Road for retail shops.

The board tabled the request at its Feb. 6 meeting for evaluation of a report submitted by the Michigan Water Resources Commission regarding a sewage disposal plan for the proposed development.

NEW YORK—An experimental step toward control of air pollution was taken here today with the first runs of 10 specially equipped buses manufactured by GMC Truck & Coach Division.

The buses, among 682 ordered from GMC by the New York City Transit Authority, are equipped with catalytic mufflers.

GMC Chief Engineer Harold O. Flynn said the new mufflers aim at control of exhaust odors thrown off by burning diesel fuel.

The catalyst, Flynnn said, consists of chemically coated ceramic pellets, which not only promote oxidation of unburned hydrocarbons, but also reduce carbon buildup.

* * *

The mufflers are also being used in Detroit, where GMC officials say some buses have run up to 40,000 miles without limiting engine performance or requiring additional catalytic pellets.

The Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York covers an area of nearly 7 acres of interconnected buildings with 700 full-time and 300 part-time employes.

Site for Inter-American Summit Is Set

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP) — Western Hemisphere foreign ministers gathered for an unusual weekend session today to hammer out details for an inter-American summit conference.

Informal agreement was reached Friday to hold the meeting at the resort city of Punta del Este, Uruguay.

The main goals of the summit will be to launch a Latin American common market and bolster the lagging Alliance for Progress, which was launched at Punta del Este in 1961.

Argentine Foreign Minister Nicanor Costa Mendez, chairman of the foreign ministers' meeting, said a formal resolution on the summit may be ready Monday or Tuesday, following informal, closed-door sessions over the weekend. The conference is expected to wind up Wednesday.

The biggest hurdle in drafting an agenda for the presidents is the desire of each country to gain as much and lose as little as possible in a common market. The market would provide the basis for economic integration of 230 million people.

The less-developed countries, such as Colombia, Chile and Peru, have the most to gain and favor rapid integration. The more industrialized nations — Argentina, Mexico and Brazil — have the most to protect and want a more gradual approach.

★ ★ ★

The burgeoning Central American common market also is afraid of losing its identity in a larger body.

But diplomats say they have found "a remarkable attitude of cooperation."

The United States has encouraged the completion of a common market program by 1980, coupled with advances in education, health, agriculture and technology. It has promised financial aid without setting specific figures.

The decision to move ahead on summit plans came after a closed session Friday which Costa Mendez described as "an excellent meeting and very cordial."

The session helped patch over the few open disagreements that have arisen at the conference, which has proceeded in an atmosphere of unusual harmony.

Chile, Peru and Costa Rica, all of which had hopes of hosting the summit, came out in favor of Punta del Este; and Colombia, which formerly opposed an early meeting, suggested the April 14 date.

Former White House aide Bill Moyers inspected the proposed site last month and pronounced it ideal. A major communications company has moved in thousands of dollars worth of equipment, and Punta del Este's small harbor has been termed adequate for a U.S. Navy communications ship for use by the White House and the Pentagon.

Guaranteed Income No Pie-in-Sky Fantasy

WASHINGTON (AP) —A few years ago, the idea of the government guaranteeing to everyone an income sufficient to keep him from the clutches of poverty usually was dismissed as pie in the sky fantasy of far-out social dreamers.

But now the White House has stamped the idea as a social philosophy deserving the attention of a full-fledged presidential commission. And a budding national debate on the issue could lap over into future political campaigns.

In his economic report to Congress last month, President Johnson took note of the varied proposals for guaranteeing minimum incomes.

★ ★ ★

"I intend to establish a commission of leading Americans to examine the many proposals, reporting in two years to me and the American people," he said.

DETAILS VARY

Details of the plans vary, but the idea behind each is to guarantee, through government payments, a minimum annual income to families and individuals.

Johnson has said such schemes "almost surely are beyond our means at this time."

★ ★ ★

But some economists disagree. They contend a guarantee income plan could replace many present welfare and public assistance programs and do the job at less cost to the taxpayers.

Another facet of the issue is automation. Unions are becoming more concerned about the rate jobs are being gobbled up by machines and electronic devices. Union leaders have turned to guaranteed income maintenance as one possible way to aid workers affected by automation.

ECONOMIC ADVISER

One champion of a guaranteed income is Prof. Milton Friedman of the University of Chicago, who was economic adviser to Rep. Sen. Barry Goldwater in the 1964 presidential campaign.

Friedman estimated the cost of existing state, federal and local welfare programs at about $50 billion a year, excluding veterans' payments and educational expenditures.

★ ★ ★

His plan, he said, would give more aid to those who need it most, and would cost less than the present "rag bag of welfare schemes."

Friedman says one level of payments he proposed would have cost $7 billion to $9 billion in 1964 but would have eliminated public assistance payments of $5.1 billion. A modest reduction in other welfare programs, he said, would have meant his income guarantee proposal would have cost no more than welfare but would have done a better job.

The closest known precursor of man on the time scale, Ramapithecus, lived some 14 million years ago. He was first found in India, but a similar creature, Kenyapithecus, lived in Africa.

PCH Romps, 85-59; Title for Kettering; Northern Triumphs

Chiefs Impress Chemics With Good Shooting

Remain in Deadlock for Saginaw Valley Basketball Lead

Pontiac Central closed its home basketball schedule Friday afternoon with the type of performance any coach would relish in a team's next to last outing before the state tournament.

The Chiefs completely dominated Midland, 85-59, with overwhelming shooting and bewildering team speed.

★ ★ ★

They jumped, drove, spun, twisted, passed and tipped the visiting Chemics into submission. The PCH regulars scored impressively from everywhere in their offensive zone except 15 feet directly out from the hoop.

The only way coach Fred Zittel could hope to have Central (12-3) any more prepared for next week's important visit to Flint Northern and the ensuing Class A District at Clarkston is to practice free throws.

While bombing away at a 39 of 71 pace (55 per cent) from the field, the Chiefs also made less than 50 per cent from the free throw line (7 of 15).

PCH didn't have one quarter under 50 per cent from the field in a display made more impressive by the fact Zittel utilized many substitutes even in the first half.

Sparked by Prentice Hill (three baskets) and Jewel Stephens (two), who made his starting debut, PCH jumped into a 10-4 lead that grew to 19-11 by the period's end.

Then the Chiefs really began to sizzle. Alton Wilson made six of six (eight for eight in the half) in the second quarter and the team notched 10 of 15 tries in building a 42-26 bulge by the intermission.

FELL BEHIND

Midland tried to stay with Central as the second half began, each team making three of its first four shots, but the Chemics faded and the hustling home quintet poured in 12 of 22 baskets to register a 60 per cent marksmanship in the middle two periods.

Stephens notched four of eight and Hill three of five in the third session. The score was 67-41 at the break.

The shooting was the story in the game. Midland managed to stay close in the rebounding (50-39), the total field goal tries (71-64) and floor violations (6-10) — the Chiefs' advantage in each period was slight.

But the visitors (who've now lost three straight Saginaw Valley Conference games in a 5-9 campaign over-all) only made 35 per cent from the floor. They were outshot, 39-22, in baskets.

Wilson finished with 9 of 13 for 23 points and Hill made 10 of 20 for 21 points. This sustained their unique record of combining for at least 32 points in all 12 PCH victories and 29 or less in the three defeats.

★ ★ ★

In retaining its share of first place in the SVC with one game left, Central led by as many as 29 points and never trailed.

The contest was a distinct contrast to the first meeting in January when the Chiefs squeaked out a 77-73 overtime verdict at Midland. Ironically, in that game Hill and Wilson also combined for 44 points.

Zittel started Frank Russell and Stephens for the first time — rewarding them for strong performances against Pontiac Northern earlier in the week and also attempting to give them playing time prior to the tournament.

BIG NIGHT — Kettering's Joe Raczyinski had his best game of the season last night, producing 17 points on 8 of 16 field goal tries, grabbing 17 rebounds and passing off for three other baskets in the Tri-County League title victory over Romeo.

'Raczyinski's Night' Disaster for Romeo

By JERE CRAIG

Kettering's clinching of the Tri-County League basketball crown Friday night developed into a "Redemption of Joe Raczyinski" affair.

The Captains routed visiting Romeo off the court, 77-39, as Raczyinski — who didn't play Tuesday night in the close win over Waterford—did everything a coach could want on offense.

★ ★ ★

The 6-2 senior started at a forward although he hadn't hit double figures in the team's last four games.

Although missing four shots in the opening quarter, he grabbed five rebounds in the session, then found his shooting eye in the second quarter.

He hit four straight field goals and notched eight more rebounds.

With Kettering ahead, 27-19, as the decisive third quarter opened, Raczyinski gave the Captains a fast start by sandwiching two more field goals around Bob VonBargan's free throw for a fast 32-19 edge that had Romeo coach Larry Randall quickly calling time out to reorganize the Bulldogs.

But there was no stopping the home team, spurred on by another capacity crowd. With Raczyinski making four of six, Jack McCloud three of four and Dave Cox five of seven and nabbing four rebounds, WKHS sizzled for 31 points.

MORE TIME

It made an amazing 15 of 22 attempts from the floor while outscoring the Bulldogs by 21 points. Randall even called another time out (the visitors' fourth) in the quarter but he couldn't cool off the winners.

The fourth period was turned over to the reserves for both teams and Kettering posted a 19-10 edge to register 50 points for the half on 21 of 36. Bill Penoza and Dan Larkin posted 14 of the last period points to control the action.

The contest started with the host Captains continuing their poor floor play from Tuesday's Waterford visit. They had nine turnovers in the initial session before settling down to outclass Romeo.

Romeo, though outrebounded 15-8 in the opening quarter, had a 14-13 shooting advantage in the stanza and only trailed, 11-7, at the buzzer. Then WKHS corrected its errant ball handling and Raczyinski found the range.

He hit the winners' first four field goals in the second quarter, interrupted only by Pete Evans' two charity tosses, as the Captains went on a 10-1 spree for a 21-8 lead.

The Bulldogs' slim chances to stay close were hurt by their missing 7 of 12 at the foul line in the half, and being outscrapped, 32-19, in the rebounding phase of play.

Cox, Kettering's strongest player, finished with seven of 13 for 17 points and had 11 rebounds. McCloud hit six of 13 for 16.

They were overshadowed, however, by Raczyinski.

Skippers Drop Livonia Five; Falcons Win

PNH vs. Farmington Tuesday; Fogle Hits 27 for Vikings

Pontiac Northern warmed up for next Tuesday's Inter-Lakes League basketball championship game by rolling past nonconference Port Huron Central, 75-63, last night.

The Huskies face Farmington in the winner-take-all contest in the PNH gym.

★ ★ ★

Farmington prepped for the clash by disposing of Walled Lake, 80-70, last night. Waterford sewed up third place with a 70-64 decision over Livonia Stevenson.

"We are just going through the motions out there tonight," said PNH coach Dick Hall. "The boys are letdown after losing to Central and are looking ahead to that Farmington game."

The visiting Big Red, however, are probably wondering what the Huskies are like when they are "up" for a game.

The Huskies raced to a 24-14 first period lead and were never in serious trouble the remainder of the game. Included in the hot shooting opening quarter were seven straight field goals by PNH players.

★ ★ ★

Paced by the sharpshooting of Jim Jones, who led all scorers with 28 points, Port Huron managed to pull within six points twice in the second quarter, but Northern's precision playmaking took care of the situation both times.

BOARD CONTROL

Dana Coin, Don Hayward, Stan Allison and Bob Traylor dominated the backboards.

Mike Clancy topped the Huskies with 16 points. PNH now has a 11-3 over-all record and is 5-1 in the league, a half-game behind Farmington. The Northern game will be the last in I-L play for Farmington while PNH must finish at fast-improving Stevenson.

"They (Stevenson) are a better team than their record (4-9) indicates," said Waterford's Bob Taylor, "and getting better all the time."

Stevenson proved this point last week by sacking Farmington, but the Spartans couldn't quite come up to Waterford's firepower and dropped out of a tie for third with the Skippers—now 3-4 in league play and 7-7 for the season.

Taylor praised the rebounding of sophomore Bill Foley, Paul Thomas and Karl Arrington as being instrumental in the victory.

"Stevenson played a zone defense and we've had trouble against a zone because of a lack of rebounding," said the coach. "But these three players gave of the necessary board play to win."

Arrington topped all scorers with 22 points while Thomas

Oak Park Defeated by Thurston Five

North Farmington stayed close to Birmingham Groves for three quarters Friday night but the Falcons put their attack in high gear in the final period and clinched the Northwest Suburban AA cage title, 80-57.

A 28-15 last closing spurt put the second straight title firmly in the Falcons' talons after they led, 52-42, as the last quarter began.

As usual, Mike Rafferty led the Groves' attack, scoring 25 points. He had double-figure help from Roy Iceberg (17), Craig Love (15) and Lane Brown (10).

The game point honors, however, went to North Farmington's Ron Flutur, who tallied 26. The winners dominated the backboards and had 77 field goal attempts to only 45 for the Raiders.

★ ★ ★

The victory was the 14th straight this year for Groves and 31st straight over three regular campaigns.

In other Northwest action, Detroit Thurston dumped Oak Park, 87 - 60; and Livonia Franklin nudged by Wayne John Glenn, 64-59.

Nets Smoking Hot at Lapeer, 93-92

That smoke filtering out of the Lapeer gym last night wasn't caused by a fire in the stands.

The Panthers and Oxford had the nets smoking hot in their Tri-County League basketball battle. A missed free throw with six seconds remaining enabled Lapeer to outlast the Wildcats, 93-92.

★ ★ ★

The victory was the fifth in 15 starts for the Panthers who took over third place from Oxford with a 3-4 record. The Wildcats are 2-5.

Oxford's Roger Miller, who was the top scorer with 32 points, had a chance to deadlock the contest.

The 6-4 senior had a one-and-one with six seconds to play and Oxford trailing 93-91. He made the first and then Lapeer coach Gene Hepinstall called time out. When play resumed, Miller's second try bounced off the rim into the hands of a Lapeer player and the Panthers were home safe.

Phil Thick and John Beattie poured in 26 points apiece for the Panthers and Bill DesJardins added 26.

[illegible]dins added 22.

Thick fouled out late in the third quarter and Dennis Running departed on fouls early in the fourth with Lapeer holding a 13-point lead.

Oxford started to cut into the margin and came within a charity toss of pulling even.

Lapeer used a press to upset the Wildcats and collected enough turnovers to take 28 more shots than the Wildcats. The Panthers hit on 35 of 95 and the Wildcats had a 30 of 66 mark.

Second Division O-A Teams Lose Grudgingly

Rochester Tops Avon, 58-48; Orion Loses

Fitzgerald Survives Two Overtime Game With Madison

Warren Fitzgerald may be en route to an Oakland A Conference basketball championship, but it has discovered that even the second division teams are now giving ground grudgingly.

The Spartans (11-1), who lost in double overtime to second place Warren Cousino a week ago, had to play two extra sessions again last night before nipping Madison (4-8) by a 51-48 margin.

★ ★ ★

In other loop action, Rochester (7-6) kept an upper hand in the race for third with a 58-48 decision over Avondale (4-8), Lake Orion (1-12) had its woes mount in a 54-50 loss to Troy (6-6), and Cousino (11-2) posted a 66-52 triumph over Clawson (6-7).

Fitzgerald and Madison battled on even terms to the end of regulation time when Tim Blach's field goal at the buzzer forged a 41-41 deadlock for Madison. The two were tied 8-8 after one period, 23-23 at halftime, and 32-32 going into the finale.

The first overtime period saw each score three points before Fitzgerald won the thriller in the second.

Blach was high with 22 points for Madison, and Dave Dubowski, with seven in the two overtime periods, led Fitzgerald with 11.

★ ★ ★

Rochester took a 31-28 lead over Avondale into the second half, stretched the margin to 47-37 at the three-quarter mark, and then coasted home.

Three Falcons took turns in stinging Avondale. Mike May poked in eight points in the 17-14 first period, Don Golding scored 10 in the second, and Jim Burton 10 in the third.

SCORING BURSTS

The alternating bursts gave Golding 16 points, Burton 15, and May 13. Bob Burt finished with 20 for Avondale after a 16-point first half, while Lee Saunders collected 16.

Lake Orion outshot Troy 19-17 from the floor, but found skill at the free throw stripe, especially by John Popovich, too much to overcome.

Popovich canned 14 of 19 attempts in a 30-point performance. The Colts were 20-for-27 from the line, and made their four-point, 31-27, margin at the half stand up, although Orion did lead briefly, 36-35, in the third. Bill Foss tallied 15 points for the Dragons.

★ ★ ★

Cousino pulled away from Clawson after leading, 32-28, the first half. Dave Classen's 17 and Randy Hayes' 14 led the Patriots. Dave Williams scored 15 and Joe Dillon 14 for Clawson.

Behind Schedule

ANN ARBOR (AP)—The University of Michigan Board of Regents said Friday that the Wolverines' new $6.7 million basketball stadium will not be ready before 1968. The new building, designed to replace aging Yost Fieldhouse, was to be completed this year but regents said a construction strike and adverse weather conditions have held up the work, begun in 1966.

In W-O Cage Play

Battle for 3rd Place

The Wayne-Oakland League basketball race now has dwindled into a three-way fight for third place with Bloomfield Hills having a slim advantage.

The Barons trimmed Brighton, 55-49, Friday night and slipped ahead of Holly who was a 49-47 surprise loser to Clarenceville, the third team in the scrap.

Loop champion Clarkston dropped Milford, 70-53, and runner-up Northville slipped by West Bloomfield, 58-54.

Hills could lose its grip on the third rung tonight since it entertains Northville while Clarenceville is host to improving West Bloomfield.

The Barons at the moment are 6-6, Holly is 6-7 and the Trojans 5-6.

REVENGE

Hills avenged an earlier loss at Brighton by taking an early lead and just staying ahead of the visiting Bulldogs. The win was decided at the foul line as Brighton outshot the home team, 17-14, from the floor.

★ ★ ★

Holly and Clarenceville had a sloppy duel on the Broncos' court with the visitors taking the lead in the third period and staving off Hollys' rallies. The losers missed four one-and-one foul shots, several of them in the last half.

Dad Fife ripped the chords for 32 points and grabbed 10 rebounds to pace Clarkston's 13th straight W-O success. Now 14-1 for the season, the Wolves had a 30-22 field goal edge.

Basement-bound West Bloomfield made a gallant try at Northville before succumbing to its 13th loss this season. The Lakers trailed by only one at halftime and took a two-point lead in the third quarter.

But Glenn Diebert's rebounding and scoring carried the Mustangs to the win. He finished with 19 points and 11 rebounds. Steve Westjohn (15) and Ted LaPratt (14) paced the visitors.

Berkley Pulls 69-64 Upset on Seaholm

Royal Oak Kimball couldn't slow down Ferndale and Birmingham Seaholm didn't halt Berkley Friday night, and the Eagles clinched the Southeast Michigan Association basketball titles.

★ ★ ★

Coach Roy Burkhart and the defending state Class A champions dumped Kimball, 50-36, for their eighth straight SEMA victory after an opening defeat.

Runner-up Seaholm, meanwhile, was surprised by a hot-handed Berkley quintet, 69-64, and lost all chance for a share of the cage crown. Southfield trimmed Hazel Park, 74-58.

Seaholm, who lost 6-5 center Rick Copeland with a broken arm at Ferndale earlier this month, rallied from a 19-14 deficit to a 38-33 halftime edge. It still led entering the final period.

BALANCE

Four of the Bears' five starters reached double figures, though, in a closing surge and Seaholm couldn't stem the uprising. The Maples' Dave Cook and Berkley's Bob McNab had 22 each.

The winners had a 28-23 margin in field goals.

Kimball wanted to play ball control at Ferndale, but the Knights weren't hitting and the home team took a quick lead. The Eagles were ahead, 26-10, by halftime and coasted from there.

★ ★ ★

The height advantage and defensive quickness of the victors forced Kimball into bad shots. It made only 31 per cent of its floor tries while the Eagles connected at a 47 per cent rate.

★ ★ ★

Bob Kirsten of Ferndale grabbed 12 rebounds to lead its backboard control.

Broncos Routed in Hockey, 15-1

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — Bert de Hate scored three goals and collected three assists to power Wisconsin to a 15-1 hockey victory over Western Michigan Friday night.

★ ★ ★

Mark Fitzgerald and Mike Cowan collected two goals each for the Badgers, now 13-8 for the season. Western Michigan is 4-6.

UCLA Just Stalls Around

Slow Down Produces Win Over Oregon

Princeton, Tar Heels Triumphant; Arizona Bumps New Mexico

By the Associated Press

For a coach who abhors the stall in college basketball, Johnny Wooden of the unbeaten UCLA Bruins showed them how to do it.

He had his team, No. 1 in the country in The Associated Press poll, hold the ball for nearly 10 minutes at the start of the second half enroute to a 34-25 victory over Oregon at Eugene Friday night.

★ ★ ★

Not until Lew Alcindor tapped in a rebound on a missed free throw by Mike Warren was there any scoring in the second half as the Bruins won their 24th straight game, including a carryover of four from last season.

It was the only shot Alcindor took in the entire second half and the 7-foot-1 super-sophomore finished with 12 points, his low of the season.

"It seems evident that this type of play isn't in the best interest of basketball," Wooden said several weeks ago after Southern California used a stall and almost upset the Bruins in a 40-35 overtime game.

MAY REPEAT

Why, then, did he use the stall himself against the Webfoots?

"We were ahead," Wooden said. "I'll never do it when we are behind and it's unlikely I'll do it in the first half. But we might do it all the time in the second half when we are ahead."

The Bruins led 18-14 at the half.

The UCLA stall overshadowed the 12th straight victory of the third-ranked Princeton Tigers over Columbia 55-41 and the 80-55 conquest of South Carolina by the fourth-ranked North Carolina Tar Heels.

★ ★ ★

Brigham Young edged Utah 61-60, West Virginia trounced Richmond 105-93, Washington State defeated California 85-81, Southern California took Oregon State 72-63 in overtime, Arizona downed New Mexico 70-64, Washington squeezed by Stanford 85-82 and Wyoming beat Arizona State 78-72 in other games.

Ed Goldstone's 31 points led Yale over Harvard 84-78 at Cambridge and Alan Fishman's jump shot in the last four seconds gave Brown a 79-77 overtime triumph over Dartmouth at Hanover in other Ivy games.

★ ★ ★

Bob Lewis, with 23, and Larry Miller, with 20, combined for 43 points to pace North Carolina over South Carolina for the Tar Heels' 10th straight ACC victory. The game was the first of a doubleheader at Charlotte. Clemson made it five in a row by beating North Carolina State 62-50 in the second game.

Pistons Replace Baseball Retiree

NEW YORK (AP) — Ron Reed, who has retired to concentrate on his career as a pitcher with the Atlanta Braves, will be replaced on the Detroit Pistons' roster by Bob Hogsett, the National Basketball Association club said Friday.

The 6-foot-8 Hogsett had worked out with the Pistons before joining the Lansing Capitols in the North American League, where he averaged about eight points a game and led the team in rebounds.

He will join the Pistons for their game against Baltimore Sunday in Detroit. They play Baltimore here today.

Depaul Clips Aquinas Five

CHICAGO (AP)—Depaul, hitting on 60 percent of its shots, waltzed to a 114-64 victory over Aquinas of Grand Rapids, Mich., Friday night for its 13th victory of the season.

Aquinas, whose record is now 12-10, was led by Paul Jagels who finished with 19 points.

The Blue Demons, who have lost seven games, moved to a 57-30 halftime advantage as senior Errol Palmer scored 18 of his 21 points.

Abel Sidelines Five Players in Move to Get 'More Drive'

DETROIT (AP) — "We just can't go flat right now," Detroit Red Wing Manager-Coach Sid Abel said as he shook up the National Hockey League club.

"It's a minor shake-up for the weekend. I'm not sending anyone down. But I thought our club looked tired. "We've been playing a lot of hockey and some tough games.

★ ★ ★

"By bringing up a few new ones I thought we might get more drive going," Abel said.

The Wings have lost three straight and fallen two points out of fourth place, the last spot for the Stanley Cup playoffs. Detroit meets Montreal tonight at Montreal while Toronto, now in fourth, plays last-place Boston. Two points for a Detroit victory, coupled with a Toronto loss, would lift the Wings back into a tie for fourth.

Abel benched five members of the team Friday and called up three players from Pittsburgh of the American Hockey League.

STAYED HOME

Andy Bathgate, Val Fonteyne and Pete Goegan are regulars who stayed in Detroit.

Pete Mahovlich, a first-year man who has seen little duty, and reserve goalie Hank Bassen also remained behind. Bassen had a back injury.

After tonight's game, the Wings come home for a 4 p.m. Sunday matinee against Montreal.

"We're only two points out of fourth and four out of third and the other clubs are having trouble, too," said Abel.

"I'd think we'll get back to normal on Monday. I might even dress one of the men I benched for Sunday's game in Detroit," he added.

★ ★ ★

"I still think we've got a very good chance to make the playoffs," we just can't afford to go flat right now. We've got to keep our drive going.

Detroit has only 19 games remaining on a 70-game schedule and 11 of them are on the road, where the Wings have won just three matches and tied one while losing 20.

This Jones Stays Ahead

Philadelphia's Wally Holds Upper Hand

By the Associated Press

Wally doesn't want to keep up with the Joneses — he wants to keep ahead of them.

So, Wally, who also is a Jones, did his bit Friday night by scoring 10 points in the last quarter, four of them in five seconds, as the Philadelphia 76ers defeated the Cincinnati Royals 127-118.

★ ★ ★

The victory kept the 76ers 7½ games ahead of the Boston Celtics, the team with the only other Joneses in the National Basketball Association — K.C. and Sam — in the Eastern Division race.

The Celtics kept pace with Philadelphia, edging the Lakers 120-119 in Los Angeles on a pair of clutch field goals in the last two minutes by John Havlicek.

In the only other game, St. Louis came from 21 points behind to nip Baltimore 133-132 as rookie Lou Hudson scored 24 points in a last-quarter rally.

★ ★ ★

The Philadelphia victory at Cleveland overshadowed another milestone reached by Cincinnati's great Oscar Robertson. The Big O, now in his seventh NBA season, scored 27 points for a career total of 15,852, putting him seventh ahead of former Royal Jack Twyman on the all-time scoring list. He also replaced Twyman as Cincinnati's greatest scorer.

No 2nd Guess After 3:59.3 Mile Time

NEW YORK (AP) — Villanova Track Coach Jim Elliott now gets to second guess the second-guessers.

A week ago Elliott was roundly criticized for standing at the side of the track while his star miler, Dave Patrick, was making a bid for a four-minute mile and waving and shouting for Patrick to slow down. He finished in 4:00.6.

★ ★ ★

Friday, Patrick followed what Elliott said was his exact plan and ran a 3:59.3 in the New York Athletic Club meet, the first sub-four-minute mile of the indoor season and of Patrick's life.

★ ★ ★

Patrick covered the three quarters in precisely 3:02 and ran off to a 20-yard victory, dragging the rest of the field along to excellent times. Richard Romo of the Southern California Striders was second in 4:01.9, and the next four finishers made it in under 4:02.6.

Michigan Sextet Overtime Victor

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Right winger Bob Boysen fired in the tying and winning goals as Michigan nipped Minnesota-Duluth 6-5 in overtime Friday night in a Western Collegiate Hockey Association game.

The Wolverines, holding second place in the league, over came a 3-0 lead taken by the Bulldogs in a first-period streak.

Michigan, breaking a three-game losing streak, ran its record to 9-4 in the league. Minnesota-Duluth is 5-11.

Win Recorded by Waterford

added 13 and Foley 12. Dave Mastny led Stevenson with 15.

Stevenson tied the score at 21 in the second quarter, but that was the closest the Spartans could come to the Skippers who built a 13-point lead once in the second half.

Poor foul shooting hampered both Farmington and Walled Lake. The winning Falcons made 22 of 40 while the Vikings managed only 14 of 30.

Greg Fogle continued to be the bright spot in Walled Lake's attack with 27 points. He hit 10 of 21 field goal tries and hauled down 16 rebounds.

As a team, Walled Lake made 28 of 72 while Farmington chalked up 29 of 76.

CROWNING A QUEEN — Mary Kolassa of Dearborn, Nazareth College's 1967 Snow Queen, won the receiving end of this impromptu coronation ceremony at Kalamazoo yesterday. Doing the honors is runner-up Jeanie Olach of Flint. Miss Kolassa will compete for the State Snow Queen title next month in Marquette.

Tucson Open Golf

Palmer Leading by 3

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Most observers agreed that the Tucson National Golf Club course was made to order for Arnold Palmer and after two rounds of play he's shown they are right.

"Driving on these fairways is as tough as any course we've played this year," said Palmer, who held a three-stroke lead going into Saturday's third round of the $60,000 Tucson Open Golf tournament.

★ ★ ★

Palmer, who has been experimenting with aluminum shaft clubs, carded a five-under-par 67 Friday to go with an opening round 66 to hold a three-stroke lead over scrambling Chuck Courtney.

The all-time top money winner on the pro tour from Latrobe, Pa., recorded seven birdies and a single bogey in the first round play and added six birds and only one bogey Friday.

Courtney, 26, of La Jolla, Calif., was finding the 7,200-yard, par 36-36—72 desert course more of a puzzle than Palmer and has to scramble to stay in close contention.

He fell off from only one stroke behind Palmer after 18 holes to three strokes going into Saturday's play when he shot a second round two-under 69.

Play was cut short Friday by darkness with several threesomes still on the course. The players completed their rounds before Saturday's third-round play began.

In third place, four strokes behind Palmer at seven-under 137, were Bob Charles, the 1965 Tucson Open winner, and John Schlee, the 1966 rookie of the year. One stroke behind them in the race for the $12,000 winners purse were long-hitting Paul Bondeson and Bruce Crampton.

Peace Edict Fails

Track Feud Still Warm

NEW YORK (AP) — The status of 11 foreign athletes caught in the AAU-NCAA cross-fire — eight of whom were scratched from two track meets Friday night — remained uncertain today after the apparent failure of mediator Theodore Kheel's latest peace edict.

★ ★ ★

The refusal of both the Amateur Athletic Union and the U. S. Track and Field Federation, an arm of the NCAA, to heed a directive issued Friday by Kheel's Sports Arbitration Board left the foreign stars ineligible, according to the AAU, for the New York AC meet in New York and the Golden Gate meet in San Francisco.

RETROACTIVE

Friday, Kheel ordered the USTFF to apply to the AAU for retroactive sanction of the meet and directed the AAU to grant sanction — also retroactively — and to lift the suspensions. He accused both factions of violating the spirit of a moratorium they agreed upon last June 16.

★ ★ ★

The USTFF, however, claimed it had not received Kheel's directive. "We advised Kheel by letter last Dec. 17 of our Federation meet and explained who would be in it," said Father Wilfred Crowley of Los Altos, Calif., president of the USTFF. "We don't feel it necessary to ask sanction of a purely college event, which this was."

★ ★ ★

The AAU also hedged. "Even should the USTFF send us a wire requesting sanction and should we grant it," said Col. Don Hull, executive director of the AAU, "there would be no assurance that foreign athletes would be eligible.

Handicap No Problem for Farmington Skier

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—Chris Mills of Farmington is the kind of guy who can make any average skier feel confident.

Just watching him once as he swishes around the slopes, almost effortless and with nary a spill, will do it.

Chris, you see, has only one leg. But he skis with the best of them and even is considering racing.

William Goff, manager at the Cannonsburg Ski Area, said:

"I wish he would come around more often. It's amazing how beginning skiers with two sound legs react when they see him in action. You can almost see their confidence soar.

SKIER 'ASHAMED'

"One person told me he was ashamed of ever being afraid of falling after seeing how Chris keeps his balance with only one leg."

Chris takes the compliments in stride.

"It's easier for me," he jokes, "I never have to worry about getting my legs tangled up."

Chris, 23, is in his junior year at the University of Michigan Law School.

★ ★ ★

He learned to get along with only one leg at age 14 after he was struck by a car while riding a farm tractor near his grandparents' farm in Maryland.

LEG AMPUTATED

His left leg had to be amputated above the knee, but the youngster wasn't one to despair.

He promptly learned how to do things with one leg and now "there aren't many things I can't do," he said.

Chris is such an accomplished skier that he finds Michigan slopes "tame." He has conquered some of the most challenging slopes in the nation, even the steep and dreaded Ascon runs, and seldom takes a spill.

The only extra help he gets is from small 20-inch ski-like attachments at the bottom of his poles to give him additional support. He also uses these for sudden stops and for balance.

For the most part, though, he makes one ski do for two — and makes do with near-perfect form.

He wears out a set of the extra ski attachments every season and the Head Ski Co. provides new ones by cutting down a set of rejects and selling them to him at nominal cost.

As for competitive racing, he, along with many others, thinks he is fast enough.

However, Central Ski Association rules, which ban special aids, may prohibit him from entering area competition.

He does plan to go to Mt. Hood, Ore., next March to race in the National Amputees Ski meet.

Seeks Repeat of Net Title

SALISBURY, Md. (AP) — Charles Pasarell, seeking to become the first repeat titlist in 31 years, takes on hard-hitting Clark Graebner tonight in one of the all-American semifinals of the U.S. Indoor Tennis Championships.

The other match, scheduled for this afternoon, pitted second-seeded Arthur Ashe against Cliff Richey. Ashe appears at the top of his game and should be able to handle the fourth-seeded Richey and his retrieving tactics.

A quarter-final doubles match went a total of 75 games and into this morning before Roger Taylor and Bobby Wilson, both of England, defeated Marty Riessen of Evanston, Ill., and Gene Scott of St. James, N.Y., 3-6, 11-9, 24-22.

Opening lead—♥ 5

By OSWALD & JAMES JACOBY

When you miss both the queen and jack of a suit, you don't really go after all the tricks if your hand and dummy don't hold as many as nine cards in it.

Of course, you will accept all the tricks if things go just right but, in general, your plan of action is to avoid losing tricks to both those cards if you possibly can.

JACOBY

With 18 points, North is justified in jumping all the way to six no-trump without checking for aces. He knows that the partnership holds more than 32 high card points so that two aces can't be missing.

Of course, North might check to see if South holds four spades but this time there is no 4-4 spade fit and six no-trump is the correct final contract.

When South looks over dummy, he counts 11 top tricks. He is sure of a twelfth if clubs break 3-2. There also is a possible squeeze if one opponent holds four clubs and four spades.

In any event, South should start by playing clubs, so he leads out dummy's ace of clubs at trick two. Assuming that both opponents follow with low cards, South leads a club from dummy and if East plays low it is up to South to play his ten spot.

This is an example of a play that can't possibly lose a trick but may mean the difference between making the slam and going down.

The defenders have played three small clubs so that the only clubs left are the queen and jack. If West holds both of them, he must make a club trick. It doesn't hurt to let him make it right away. If West holds one of them, it also won't hurt to give it to him.

South can pick up the other one from East any time. Only when East holds both is the ten spot play essential. This isn't likely, but it can happen and any successful declarer should guard against that chance.

Crutches, Soap on Way

"Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these My brethren, ye have done it unto me."

It was a letter from Dr. John Glatz with the U.S. Army in Vietnam that inspired families of Trinity Methodist Church, Waterford Township, to collect and give crutches, medicine, soap and other articles for wounded Vietnamese soldiers and children.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Glatz is a son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Burton Thorn, members of the Trinity Church, 6440 Maceday.

"When I arrived in Vietnam and visited young Vietnamese soldiers who were being released from government hospitals as amputees, my heart bled for these men and boys, wrote Dr. Glatz.

"They had no crutches or wheelchairs, no means of moving about. Those who were legless had no choice but to sit on the ground in an upright position and push themselves along —if they had arms and hands."

CALL FOR CRUTCHES

Immediately the call went out to World Vision headquarters and soon 100 wheelchairs and 1,200 pairs of crutches were on the way, he said.

Dr. Glatz went on to write: "Currently 40 wheelchairs and 120 pairs of crutches are being sent every month as money comes in. World Vision also has made arrangements for crutches to be made in Vietnam which, in turn, helps provide jobs for needy people there.

"A gift of $75 sends a wheelchair to some disabled young man in Vietnam and provides him with constant assurance that someone cares. A pair of sturdy crutches can be provided for only $4.

"More than 150,000 Viet kits have been distributed in Vietnam hospitals and refugee centers. Containing soap, towel, comb, mirror and other items for personal hygiene, they have opened the door to ministry among the wounded in hospitals and a growing friendship between missionaries, pastors and refugees.

KITS FOR CHILDREN

"Thousands of school kits give Vietnamese children a means to carry on their schooling in refugee camps. There is simply no way to measure the amount of good and the influence for Christ of these Viet kits.

Young people of Trinity Church make kits and send them to Dr. Glatz. Adults also pack and send needed articles.

"Requests for the kits come in faster than they can be filled. Just recently a request was received from the wife of General Thieu, Vietnam for 100,000 Viet kits, Dr. Glatz said in his letter.

He closed his correspondence with "the gift of a wheelchair or a pair of crutches, a Viet kit or medicine, is a gift from the heart straight to the empty, lonely heart of some bewildered, suffering one half a world away. Through showing loving Christian concern for him, we can open the way to tell him of the One who first loved us — and him."

World Vision Inc., a religious organization headed by Missionary Bob Pierce, is located in Pasadena, Calif., 91109.

PACK KITS—Sorting soap, towels, combs, mirrors and other items for personal hygiene to place in Viet kits are Sid Graves of 6841 Longworth and Kathy Banks of 3629 Percy King, both of Waterford Township. Members of Youth Fellowship at Trinity Methodist Church, Waterford Township, the young people will pack the kits for shipping to the Vietnamese people.

St. Benedict Pupils Offer Priest Coins

Students of St. Benedict Catholic School conducted their annual mission drive a week early so they might offer the gifts on Valentine's Day to the Rev. Francis Vervenne, missionary to the Congo.

★ ★ ★

It was after the students saw slides of the Congo and its people presented by Father Vervenne that they became inspired to give the offering to him for his "Wings Over the Congo Fund."

★ ★ ★

The entire student body attended the 9 a.m. Mass. During the offertory, representatives selected by each class proceeded to the Communion rail to offer the sacrifices given by their classmates.

The gifts of pennies, nickels and dimes amounting to $600 were presented to Father Vervenne for his work.

★ ★ ★

He has just completed his flight training and hopes to obtain sufficient funds to purchase a small plane when he returns to the Congo in June as supervisor of the schools in the diocese.

★ ★ ★

"A plane would be so useful because of the bad condition of the roads. To travel 100 to 125 miles in a jeep takes a complete day," he said.

★ ★ ★

"Many missions are completely isolated for three or four months during the dry season. With a plane to transport the sick to a distant hospital many lives could be saved. The plane would also be used to visit the distant churches and schools all over the diocese."

★ ★ ★

Father Vervenne is living at the St. Benedict rectory, 1160 Myrtle.

CHILDREN'S OFFERING — Children of St. Benedict Catholic School gather in the church sanctuary for early morning Mass this week to bring offerings to the Rev. Francis Vervenne, a missionary to the Congo. Mark Chuey is shown presenting pennies, nickels and dimes to Father Vervenne from pupils in his schoolroom. Behind him, waiting their turn, are Amy Seaton and Paul Talaga. The money will be used to partly pay for a small airplane so Father Vervenne can fly to outposts of his diocese in the Congo.

Dutch Colonial Of The J. R. Stump Family In Independence Township Built By Martin Engler Of Ortonville

Dutch Colonial Style Favored

By JODY HEADLEE
Home Editor, The Pontiac Press

Trips through the eastern United States introduced Mr. and Mrs. John R. Stump to their dream home on Stevens Road in Independence Township.

"We like the barn - type roof," said Mrs. Stump, "and the convenience of the floor plan.

"When we were ready to build my husband got out his drawing board and designed our own plans."

Typical of the Early American farm home, the master bedroom and bath open off the kitchen.

The upstairs is devoted to the children's (Jan, 13, and Jon, 15) bedrooms and bath. The Stumps have one married son, Jay, who makes his home in Clarkston.

Fruitwood cupboards provide ample storage space in the white kitchen. A built-in telephone desk proves especially convenient for Mrs. Stump.

For informal snacks, the Stumps created a barrel table with rust cushioned keg seats.

"But," said Mrs. Stump, "all meals are served in our dining room. My husband doesn't even like to have breakfast in the kitchen."

And, it's no wonder. The dining room features a raised fireplace which when its cheery fire is lit snaps and crackles in time with the breakfast cereal, setting the mood for a pleasant day.

Green candles in brass candlesticks complement the rubbed pine of the Colonial drop-leaf table.

Copper pieces and mementoes highlight the mantel beam. A pine deacon's bench adds to the room's seating capacity.

White walls, a braided rug which matches the living room's floor covering and draperies in an antique gold and beige set the room's homey background.

Lighting the area is a drop lantern in brass and amber.

CONTEMPORARY BILEVEL: The elements on each side of the front door give a feeling of calculated balance in this four-bedroom, two-level house, even though the entranceway actually is off-center; balance is further enhanced by judicious combination of masonry and wood.

Bilevel Combines Style and Comfort

One of the most difficult design problems is that of the exterior for a bilevel house.

This type of house, because of its somewhat standard layout, has a tendency to resemble other residences with two levels, regardless of over-all size.

The bilevel, often confused with the split level, is actually a one-story house.

Its basement, however, has been raised far enough out of the ground to allow for habitable rooms downstairs.

★ ★ ★

Thus, only the entrance foyer is at ground level; the main living quarters being slightly above the ground; the lower living quarters being slightly below it.

OFF-CENTER DOOR

In the case of the latest House of the Week, architect Herman H. York took the floor plan and deliberately produced an asymmetrical layout to enable him to design into the exterior an off-center doorway for an interesting effect.

But the doorway's covered entry is tied to four windows on the left side of the house, balancing the cantilevered bedroom wing on the right.

And balance, of course, is one of the important ingredients that go to make up good exterior design.

★ ★ ★

Although the over-all dimensions of this house are only 58'4" by 29'8", its bilevel construction provides a habitable area of 1,669 square feet on the

FLOOR PLANS: Layout of these two floors shows how much living space can be included in a well-designed bi-level house. Added luxury feature is the rear dining deck or balcony, which can be reached through the dining room or kitchen or outside stairway.

Dingy Basement Is Transformed

The transformation of a dingy basement into bright new rooms can take the pressure off an overcrowded home.

In some instances, the available living area may be doubled.

Materials such as rough sawn Southern Pine lend charming natural character.

They can be applied directly to existing walls or structure.

main or upper level and 972 square feet on the lower level, none of which includes the balcony or two-car garage.

An interesting entrance hall, with a diagonal stair system and triangular planters, gives an immediate first impression of luxury.

A large clothes closet at the front door (often not found in bilevel plans) provides enough room for the coats, hats, overshoes, etc., of the family as well as guests.

A cathedral ceiling in this area, extending beyond into the living and dining rooms, gives added height to the interior.

REAR BALCONY

The balcony at the rear of the house can be reached from the dining room, the kitchen or an outside stairway.

There are four bedrooms and two bathrooms on this same level, plus two bathrooms, one of which has a twin lavatory arrangement.

Bedroom No. 4 is so located that it could be used as a den if desired.

G-76 STATISTICS

Design G-76 has a foyer, living room, dining room, kitchen, four bedrooms and two baths on the upper level, with a total habitable area of 1609 square feet. On the lower level are two hobby rooms, a family room, a bath, hall, foyer, laundry area and large storage room, with 972 square feet of livability, in addition, there is a two-car garage on the lower level and an outdoor balcony on the upper level. Over-all dimensions are 58' 4" by 29' 8", including the garage.

On the lower level, we find (honest) two hobby rooms designated as "His" and "Hers."

★ ★ ★

Also on the lower level are a large laundry area, an equally spacious storage room, a hallway, a bathroom and a two-car garage that is about 80 square feet larger than normal — providing room for power equipment, tools, toys, etc.

FOYER CLOSET

An added convenience is the closet in the lower foyer. Members of the family can enter through the garage and dispose of their coats immediately should they wish to remain on the lower level.

The exterior has a good, clean architectural design, restrained yet elegant in its simplicity.

★ ★ ★

A glance at the artist's rendering shows that this house is pleasing to the eye. A glance at the floor plan shows that it is practical for good living.

Deck Extension Adds to Room

Real indoor-outdoor living can be achieved by adding a deck extension to any room of the house.

A trellis roof over part or all of the deck will control sunlight and wind. Douglas fir 2x4s laid flat or on edge are tops for the deck.

Placemats for the Table

Aluminum screening, available in several colors, can be easily turned into unusual table place mats.

★ ★ ★

A two-foot square piece of screening is enough to scissor-cut two mats of any desired shape, says The Aluminum association.

Cloth or felt edging can be applied with glue or by sewing.

Tile Patterns Now Exotic

One of the best words to describe new 1967 designs in vinyl asbestos floor tiles might be "exotic."

Inspirations for designs include bamboo from the Far East, marble from ancient Rom East, marble from ancient Rome and terrazzo from the Mediterranean.

These unusual tiles can be combined with plain colors for unique designs to fit a particular room.

Duplicate Brick in Floor Tile

If you have a brick patio outside the family room or kitchen, you can now bring the brick's natural look indoors with vinyl asbestos floor tiles.

There are several new patterns in embossed brick tile which capture the beauty of the original with the added benefits of easy maintenance.

Forest industries employ 1,375,000 persons full-time. Their annual payrolls amount to $5,682,000,000.

Gardens, Homes for Everyone

Cobo Hall Show Opens Today

The winter-weary thronged today's opening of the 1967 Home, Furniture and Flower Show at Cobo Hall to catch a preview of spring.

"Our accent's on blossoms," said James C. Scott of James C. Scott Associates, 27 W. Long Lake, Bloomfield Hills, landscape architects who helped design and coordinate gardens for the multimillion-dollar spectacular.

"There are gardens to suit every taste and need, from the traditional to the contemporary including town house plantings," he added.

"The Detroit Department of Parks and Recreation's display will feature a 12-foot waterfall in a naturalistic setting."

★ ★ ★

The Michigan Horticultural Society is presenting "The Garden Path" which will include a judged flower show, "Sharing Design for Living."

PARTICIPATING

Organizations participating in The Garden Path include the Michigan State African Violet Society, Michigan and Detroit Audubon Society, Detroit Cactus and Succulent Society, Detroit Chrysanthemum Society, Detroit Iris Society and the Federated Garden Clubs of Michigan.

Mrs. Lloyd L. Hughes, MHS executive secretary, said that the garden club achieving the largest number of blue-ribbon points in the competitive events would be awarded the Chrysler Sweepstakes Gold Cup.

Founded in 1932, the society's membership includes garden enthusiasts from all parts of Michigan and 18 other states and four foreign countries.

The society is affiliated with the American Horticultural Society and the Royal Horticultural Society of England.

A special exhibit by the Faculty Wives Flower Arranging Club of Ann Arbor, directed by Mrs. Spencer J. Fairhead, will demonstrate the four basic designs of the Sogetsu School of Japanese Flower Arrangement.

For prospective home buyers and browsers, there are home-oriented exhibits, everything from new homes to the latest in equipment and ideas for modernizing existing homes, inside and out.

★ ★ ★

Grand prize of the 49th annual show is the $20,000 prize for the person who correctly guesses the number of nails in a three-by-three-foot plastic model house.

The Builders Association of Metropolitan Detroit and the other sponsors expect upward of a half-million people to view the show.

Show hours, daily through Feb. 26, are from 11 a.m. to 11 p.m. except Sundays, when the hours are 10 a.m. to 11 p.m. On the last Sunday of the show, doors will close at 9 p.m.

World Orchids in Spotlight

"Orchids Around the World" is the theme of the Michigan Orchid Society garden at the Michigan Flower and Garden Show which will continue through tomorrow at the Detroit Artillery Armory, 15000 W. Eight Mile.

The garden will be a patio of log rounds surrounded by lush tropical foliage from which orchids of all sizes, shapes and colors peek. A central fountain of rock will cascade water to a pool below with bright orchid blooms reflected in the water.

Few people realize the variety of color and shapes of flowers which make up the orchid family, one of the largest of the plant kingdom.

Those unfamiliar with orchids have no conception of the numbers of different orchids and think only in terms of the corsage orchids used by the florist.

Orchids grow natively in every part of the world, from the Artic to the Equator. Of course, more species are found in tropical and sub-tropical climates.

Sizes of plants vary from 3 inches high to more than 20 feet. Michigan has probably better than 30 or 40 different species of orchids which are native to the state. Probably the best known is the Lady Slipper or Indian Moccasin flower.

Flowers used in the exhibit will come from the windowsill, gardens and greenhouse of Michigan Orchid Societ members.

The garden will be attended by members of the society to supply literature on orchid culture and answer questions.

DECORATE TRAYS, boxes and glass with beautiful designs. Paint tin ware, old or new. Turn discards into treasures. Dear Mr. Farrell;

Thanks for a job well done.

It's a real pleasure to be able to compliment a company for their integrity and workmanship.

When signing the contract with you for the construction of our new building on Wide Track Drive in Pontiac, we were a little apprehensive about the completion date you gave us. 120 working days is not very many when it comes to erecting a building of this calibre. Needless to say .. we were amazed when you completed it in only 67 working days.

We are pleased. The building is exceptional. You can rest assured that Coca-Cola will continue to grow, andwe will need new buildings. Schurrer Construction Co. will be at the top of our list of contractors.

Thanks again, Mr. Farrell, feel free to use us for a reference at anytime.

Sincerely yours,

3 Men Hold Up Auburn Hotel

Three men — one of them with a 22-caliber revolver—took between $40 and $75 in a holdup at the Auburn Hotel, 464 Auburn, last night.

★ ★ ★ ★

Douglas Frey, 62, hotel clerk, said a man came in about 9 p.m. and asked for a room.

After being told there were no rooms, Frey said, the man pulled a pistol from his coat and demanded money from a cash box at the front desk.

Two other men held their hands in coat pockets at the doorway, acting as if they were armed, Frey said.

★ ★ ★ ★

The three, described as Negroes in their 20s, then fled, Frey said.

Collision in Troy Hospitalizes Man

A 24-year-old Mount Clemens man, who was pinned in his truck following a collision with a car last night at 14 Mile and Stephenson in Troy, is listed in satisfactory condition today in Royal Oak's William Beaumont Hospital.

★ ★ ★ ★

Sustaining a fractured right leg in the accident was Gary L. Bright.

★ ★ ★ ★

Driver of the car was Randy L. Stephenson, 16, of Warren. He and two passengers were treated at the hospital and released.

The accident occurred just after 10:30 p.m.

Conyers Praises Sports in City Negro Week Talk

Congressman John Conyers Jr. went back beyond the memories of youngsters in his audience for his part in Negro History Week observances at two Pontiac junior high schools.

He told them about Jackie Robinson.

"Now we have men and women who are really Jackie Robinsons in business, industry and schools," he said.

Conyers, a Democrat from the 1st District in Detroit, told Eastern and Jefferson junior school pupils yesterday that in 1947 Jackie Robinson became the first Negro baseball player in the major leagues.

★ ★ ★ ★

Robinson, and those of his race who followed him, made modern history in an area now taken for granted, he said.

"The sports world set the pace in breaking down discrimination," Conyers said.

He described Michigan's civil rights laws as "excellent."

★ ★ ★ ★

Nevertheless, segregation does exist in both the North and South, he reminded the youngsters.

BECOME AWARE

"Until we become aware of it, it's going to be extremely difficult for America to move ahead to our full potential," he said.

Conyers traced the history of slavery in the United States, of the emancipation of the Negro and of the civil rights movement.

He outlined civil rights legislation since 1957 and the defeat of the 1966 civil rights bill.

★ ★ ★ ★

"This year the President realized to his credit — and my surprise — that he would have to continue to send in bills," he said.

"Now Congress is trying to make sure everyone gets the right to develop himself to his greatest potential," he said.

Avon Man Faces Charge

An Avon Township man faced arraignment today on a concealed weapons charge following his arrest last night by Pontiac police.

★ ★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★ ★

Carrier said Burch, driving a car when arrested, had in his possession a partly loaded 22-caliber rifle.

★ ★ ★ ★

Both pair of robbers escaped in cars.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF OUR dear wife and mother, Vida M. Fennell who passed away Feb. 18, 1965.

I have lost my soul's companion,
A life linked with my own;
And day by day I miss her more,
As I walk through life alone.
My heart still aches with sadness,
We pray and shed a tear;
God alone knows how I miss her,
In this second sad year.
—Sadly missed by husband, Fred; daughter and son-in-law.

A STORY OF THE HEAVENS

As each newer and more powerful telescope is developed, we find millions more stars and "groups" beyond.

On a clear night, 6,000 stars can be seen by the naked eye. Through a small telescope more than two million are sighted, and with the giant 200-inch telescope scientists can see countless billions of stars. If the star Sirius were to explode tonight, (52 trillion miles away), it would take 9 years for the flash to reach us. Thus when astronomers see changes in distant worlds, they are looking back into time, seeing things that happened many thousands of years ago.

A Roseville Marine, Pfc. Steven R. King, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clairborn King, and Pfc. Pedro A. Smith, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Smith of Sturgis, also were listed.

He Tackled the Wrong Box

FORT MYERS, Fla. (AP) — A thief who likes to fish must have been surprised when he opened the fishing tackle box stolen from the car of Robert Daubenspeck.

The tackle box contained piano tuning instruments. Daubenspeck, who has been tuning pianos most of his life, valued the tools at $300.

Best Things in Song Titles Are Free: Song-Writing Pro

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — The easiest way to get a good song title, Johnny Mercer says, is to have somebody give it to you.

Johnny, who has no criticism of today's young songwriters ("Maybe us old folks ought to listen to them"), remembers that he once had a hit titled "Accentuate the Positive."

"That title was told to me by a guy who'd heard it in a Father Divine sermon. Three or four or 15 years later I used it as a title. Harold Arlen liked it. We put it in a movie and it got pretty big. I never heard from the guy who told it to me nor from Father Divine either."

WILSON

Several years ago, Mrs. Sadie Vimmerstedt of Youngstown, O., sent Johnny a clipping of a story about Frank Sinatra.

"Mrs. Vimmerstedt was terribly upset about Frank being broken up from Nancy Sr. She thought they'd get back together.

"She suggested a song titled 'I Want To Be Around to Pick Up the Pieces When Somebody Breaks Your Heart,' dedicated to Nancy.

"I'd heard the expression," Johnny said, "but I thought immediately that it was a great title. I wrote to Mrs. Vimmerstedt that I liked it and I'd write it some time in the future.

"Two years later I wrote it and it got bigger than I expected."

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Vimmerstedt, who shared in the song's royalties, became a celebrity, coming to New York to do TV and going to Hollywood to attend a "Grammy" songwriters' award session. She was besieged for autographs at her notions store in Youngstown. All this attention eventually became a little wearying.

"I'll tell you something," she wrote to Johnny finally, "I'm getting tired of Show Business."

★ ★ ★

REMEMBERED QUOTE: "More minds are changed through experience than through persuasion."—Arnold Glasow.

EARL'S PEARLS: Kids are learning so much at school nowadays that some of them are almost as smart as their parents say they are.

Burgess Meredith, directing the Broadway show "Of Love Remembered," told the cast, "I consider a director much more important than actors—and I'll continue to feel that way until the next time I act!" . . . That's earl, brother.

Actor Accuses Wife of Adultery in Divorce Suit

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Actor Nick Adams, in a cross-complaint to his wife's divorce suit, has accused her of adultery with two men, including his own press agent.

★ ★ ★

Adams, 35, claimed that since last Aug. 1, his wife, actress Carol Nugent, committed adultery with psychologist Paul Rapp and press agent Jay Bernstein.

Miss Nugent, 29, filed suit for divorce last Nov. 25, accusing Adams of cruelty.

Adams' cross-complaint, filed yesterday, said the couple was married May 10, 1959 in Las Vegas, separated Aug. 1, 1965, and reconciled last April only to separate again Nov. 21.

★ ★ ★

At a hearing last month, Adams was granted custody of the couple's children, Allyson, 6, and Jeb, 5, pending trial of the divorce case.

Cash receipts to the nation's farmers in 1966 approximated $42 billion, a rise of about 2.5 billion over 1965.

Slipped Disc Hospitalizes James Hare

LANSING (UPI) — Secretary of State James Hare was hospitalized yesterday with a slipped disc which is causing him "a very great deal of pain in his back and legs," according to an aide.

Hare cancelled plans to attend the Democratic State Convention in Grand Rapids today.

Peter Bommarito, Hare's public information officer, said Hare has been in constant pain for several days.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Richard C. Bates of Lansing, Hare's personal physician, said Hare probably will be able to carry out his official duties while in the hospital.

'Policeman of Year' Named

A 34-year-old patroiman was named Pontiac's "police officer of the year" yesterday at the Pontiac Exchange Club's annual award luncheon at the Waldron Hotel.

★ ★ ★

Patrolman Raymond V. Solwold received the club's crime prevention trophy in the ceremony which each year coincides with National Crime Prevention Week.

The award was presented by Exchange Club President Ray A. Ulseth.

Pontiac Police Chief William K. Hanger told club members that Solwold, with the department since 1956, has received five meritorious service citations within the past two years.

Solwold was cited for breaking up an auto theft ring, stopping a holdup in progress and capturing the two persons responsible, helping capture a mental patient barricaded in her home with a shotgun, capturing two armed bandits just after a burglary and helping solve a robbery case at a local bank.

ROCHESTER GRAD

A graduate of Rochester High School and the academy of the Detroit Police Department, he is now enrolled in a police service course at Oakland Community College.

He was promoted to senior patrolman in February of 1966.

Solwold, his wife Claudanne and daughter Jamie, 6, reside in Avon Township.

One Dead, 10 Missing in N.J. Plant Explosions

HAWTHORNE, N.J. (AP) — "Don't leave me! Please don't leave me!" pleaded Sandy Kanter, a pretty 19-year-old laboratory worker pinned in the debris from a series of explosions that ripped a chemical plant.

Two workmen, despite the possibility of another explosion at any moment, freed the girl in the aftermath of the blast yesterday that left at least one man known dead and 10 others missing and presumed by authorities to be buried in the ruins.

Eighteen persons were injured, two seriously.

Sifting through the rubble under floodlights and knocking down foot-long icicles that had formed during the day, nearly 300 volunteer firemen searched through the night for the missing men.

★ ★ ★

Wives and children of some of the missing men shivered in freezing temperatures waiting for news.

IN GOOD CONDITION

At Paterson General Hospital, Peter Kanter planted a kiss on the forehead of his daughter, where she was reported in good condition after being treated for burns.

George Decker, 43, one of the workmen who helped free Miss Kanter, was at work some distance from the apparent center of the explosions in the block-square complex of the Morningstar Paisley Division of the International Latex Corp.

Decker made his way through the dust and rubble to the exit, where he saw other workers fleeing one of the three red brick, four-story buildings. Some were crying out in terror, some bleeding, some holding handkerchiefs to their faces.

★ ★ ★

One girl was screaming, "oh, my god! Where's my mother, where's my mother!"

Decker was told that someone was trapped on the third floor. He raced back into the flaming building with several other workers and policemen.

He found Miss Kanter pinned by a cabinet and a pile of bricks that had fallen on her leg.

★ ★ ★

"Don't leave me! Please don't leave me!" she pleaded.

★ ★ ★

"Don't worry, honey, we won't leave you," Decker assured her.

SCENE OF EXPLOSIONS—Heavy smoke rises from a flaming three-story chemical plant in Hawthorne, N.J., yesterday after a series of explosions set off a fire at the Morningstar Paisley Division of International Latex Corp., which manufactures paper and textile coatings and glue. One man is known dead and 10 others are missing and presumed to be buried in the ruins.

Student Leaders Tell of CIA 'Trap' for Young Men

WASHINGTON (AP) — With money, draft deferments and the threat of jail the Central Intelligence Agency laid "an ethical trap for young men of great integrity," say leaders of the National Student Association.

To the CIA it was a valuable weapon in the back alley struggle of international espionage. To the students involved it became an agony and a horror.

In the end, the moral strain on the students became too great and it shattered the 15-year secret relationship between the government spy agency and the nation's largest student organization.

That was the story told last night by leaders of the NSA as they emerged from three days and nights of nearly continuous discussion of the crisis that disclosure of the relationship had created for them. But they plan to continue the student organization.

★ ★ ★

Much of what they said already had come out in the days since Ramparts magazine spotlighted the undercover link early this week.

Viets Can Settle Affairs if U.S. Leaves--Cong

TOKYO (AP)—The Vietcong said today they made contacts with South Vietnamese officers during the lunar new year truce and that the contacts proved the Vietnamese can settle their own affairs.

This assertion was made by the spokesman for the Vietcong's National Front for Liberation and broadcast by Hanoi Radio.

It was the first disclosure that there had been such contacts.

"The contacts between a number of officers and men of the puppet army and the people and cadres of the NFL proved that the Vietnamese people are fully able to settle themselves all their internal affairs provided the United States stops its aggression against South Vietnam and withdraws its troops from there."

Hanoi Confirms Offer on Talks

LONDON (AP) — A North Vietnamese Foreign Ministry spokesman in Hanoi has confirmed that talks can commence if the Americans stop the bombings of North Vietnam, the Communist Morning Star reported today.

In an undated dispatch, Freda Cook, its correspondent in Hanoi, quoted the spokesman as saying:

"This is not a new line but a new approach to the question of talks. The United States has protested often enough that it wants to talk as soon as there is the slightest indication that Hanoi is willing.

"Very well, let the bombing of the north stop definitely and talks could commence, without, however, any suggestion that Hanoi will budge one iota from the four-point stand which is the only basis for a correct settlement."

North Vietnam's four points include withdrawal of U.S. troops from South Vietnam and dismantling of U.S. bases, adherence to the Geneva agreements on Vietnam, settlement of South Vietnam's internal problems without outside interference and eventual peaceful unification.

LBJ Tax Plan Finds Trouble at 1st Turn

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's tax increase proposal is in trouble with the first congressional committee to consider it.

★ ★ ★

That Senate-House Economic Committee is a study unit without legislative power. But three of its members sit on the House Ways and Means Committee and three on the Senate Finance Committee, the two that do have legislative power over taxes.

Once source close to the Joint Economic Committee predicted flatly that its report would kill Johnson's proposal for a 6 per cent surcharge on most income taxes effective July 1.

Others would not go as far. The trend of questioning at still-incomplete hearings on the President's economic report indicates a number of members have not made up their minds.

The weight of testimony by nongovernment witnesses has been against a tax boost.

CONCLUSION QUESTIONED

Most outside economists questioned the conclusion of the President's Council of Economic Advisers that the economy is due for another big spurt in the latter half of 1967.

To restrain the inflationary possibilities of such a situation, the advisers recommend what Chairman Gardner Ackley calls the "mild restraint" of the surtax — which mainly is advocated, however, to reduce deficits caused principally by Vietnam war spending.

At a closed hearing yesterday of the Senate Appropriations Committee, Secretary of the Treasury Henry H. Fowler said if Vietnam war costs were eliminated, the government "would be running large and increasing surpluses" in the three years ending with 1968.

★ ★ ★

Fowler's figures were based on simple subtracting from spending all war-related expenses.

★ ★ ★

They did not take into account any change in Treasury revenues that might have resulted had there been no war.

White Lake Boy Is Killed on Road

A 7-year-old White Lake Township boy was injured fatally yesterday afternoon after being struck by a car in front of his home at 8541 Elizabeth Lake near Hurondale.

Dead on arrival at Pontiac General Hospital was Daniel R. Miller, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller.

The motorist, Minard D. Jones, 56, of 1608 Windemere, Royal Oak, told township police he was traveling east on Elizabeth Lake Road at 35 miles per hour when the boy darted from behind a driveway snowbank into the path of the car.

Romney Assails 'Politics' in War

OLYMPIC, Wash. (AP) — Decisions regarding the war in Vietnam are being made "on a basis of political considerations," Republic Gov. George Romney of Michigan said last night.

★ ★ ★

Romney spoke at a reception at the governor's mansion during a brief stop here on a six-state western tour. He met with Gov. Dan Evans and GOP county chairmen.

"Whether it be with regard to the war in Vietnam, Medicare or other matters," he said at the reception, "decisions are made on a basis of political considerations and not on the basis of promoting the welfare or economic well-being of the people."

Romney drove here with Gov. Walter Hickel of Alaska, who met him at the Seattle-Tacoma airport when his plane arrived from the Midwest.

★ ★ ★

After the reception, Romney and Hickel returned to Seattle for an overnight stay and a scheduled 7:20 a.m. (PST) flight to Anchorage.

TALK IN ANCHORAGE

On Romney's schedule tonight is a talk at a Republican fund-raising dinner in Anchorage. During the day he was to speak at a luncheon and view sled dog races held as part of the annual Anchorage Fur Rendezvous.

The Michigan governor will leave tomorrow for Salt Lake City, Utah. His speaking tour will also take him to New Mexico, Arizona and Idaho.

At a news conference in Seattle, Romney said he has not decided whether to be a candidate for the Republican nomination for president.

Heart Victim Knows What Walks Mean

(EDITOR'S NOTE — This is the last in a series of articles in conjunction with National Heart Month, written from personal experience of a Press staffer.)

By DICK SAUNDERS

How long has it been since you took a walk of a mile or more?

If someone had asked me this last August, I would have been at a loss for words. I used to do very little walking.

SAUNDERS

In September I suffered a heart attack, at age 32.

Naturally, for several weeks I had to remain physically quiet. But by early November I was walking a mile a day.

A year ago I'd drive to the grocery store a block from my house.

★ ★ ★

Today I walk home from work every day the weather permits (that's 1.5 miles). I walk a mile to a shopping center frequently.

★ ★ ★

In short, I'm trying to divorce myself from a way of life that fosters heart trouble through lethargy. We are a people who sit and eat.

Dr. Paul Dudley White, a founder of the American Heart Association, properly describes our excessive food intake as "a serious health hazard—an intoxication with a slow and insidiously harmful effect, not so acute or dramatic as intoxication by alcohol or drugs, but almost as damaging."

He feels that a walk of four miles a day, or a comparable activity, is the minimum needed for good health.

I fall short of his standard by about 2 miles, but I'm doing far beter than most people I know.

★ ★ ★

Right-of-Way Damage Policy Told

Due to excessive invalid claims and complaints, the Oakland County Road Commission has adopted a policy concerning mailboxes, sod, grass and other objects damaged within its right-of-way.

The position taken by the road commission will be as follows:

"In general, the public has the basic right to use public roads and right-of-ways which takes precedence over the right of an individual.

"When a mailbox is knocked down in the process of snow removal or seasonal maintenance work, it can be assumed we are acting in the best interest of the public and the damages are unavoidable.

★ ★ ★

"As such, neither the public nor the road commission, who is acting on behalf of the public, is liable or responsible for any damages. In many cases, the mailboxes are in poor condition to begin with, improperly located, or sod has been improperly placed within the right-of-way.

WILL NOT REPAIR MAILBOXES

"Therefore, effective immediately, the Oakland County Road Commission's policy will be it will not repair damaged mailboxes, replace sod or recognize any similar claims. Mailboxes, sod and grass are allowed on the public-right-of way for the convenience and benefit of the public.

★ ★ ★

"Therefore, the road commission cannot assume any responsibility for any damages to them.

CONTINUE PAST POLICY

"The road commission will continue its past policy in taking every precaution it can with regard and respect for the property of others within its right-of-way."

Best Things in Song Titles Are Free: Song-Writing Pro

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — The easiest way to get a good song title, Johnny Mercer says, is to have somebody give it to you.

Johnny, who has no criticism of today's young songwriters ("Maybe us old folks ought to listen to them"), remembers that he once had a hit titled "Accentuate the Positive."

WILSON

"That title was told to me by a guy who'd heard it in a Father Divine sermon. Three or four or 15 years later I used it as a title. Harold Arlen liked it. We put it in a movie and it got pretty big. I never heard from the guy who told it to me nor from Father Divine either."

Several years ago, Mrs. Sadie Vimmerstedt of Youngstown, O., sent Johnny a clipping of a story about Frank Sinatra.

"Mrs. Vimmerstedt was terribly upset about Frank being broken up from Nancy Sr. She thought they'd get back together.

"She suggested a song titled 'I Want To Be Around to Pick Up the Pieces When Somebody Breaks Your Heart,' dedicated to Nancy.

"I'd heard the expression," Johnny said, "but I thought immediately that it was a great title. I wrote to Mrs. Vimmerstedt that I liked it and I'd write it some time in the future.

"Two years later I wrote it and it got bigger than I expected."

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Vimmerstedt, who shared in the song's royalties, became a celebrity, coming to New York to do TV and going to Hollywood to attend a "Grammy" songwriters' award session. She was besieged for autographs at her notions store in Youngstown. All this attention eventually became a little wearying.

"I'll tell you something," she wrote to Johnny finally, "I'm getting tired of Show Business."

★ ★ ★

REMEMBERED QUOTE: "More minds are changed through experience than through persuasion."—Arnold Glasow.

EARL'S PEARLS: Kids are learning so much at school nowadays that some of them are almost as smart as their parents say they are.

Burgess Meredith, directing the Broadway show "Of Love Remembered," told the cast, "I consider a director much more important than actors—and I'll continue to feel that way until the next time I act!" . . . That's earl, brother.

Slipped Disc Hospitalizes James Hare

LANSING (UPI) — Secretary of State James Hare was hospitalized yesterday with a slipped disc which is causing him "a very great deal of pain in his back and legs," according to an aide.

Hare cancelled plans to attend the Democratic State Convention in Grand Rapids today.

Peter Bommarito, Hare's public information officer, said Hare has been in constant pain for several days.

"He planned to go to the convention, but this thing got real rough," Bommarito said.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Richard C. Bates of Lansing, Hare's personal physician, said Hare probably will be able to carry out his official duties while in the hospital.

Actor Accuses Wife of Adultery in Divorce Suit

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Actor Nick Adams, in a cross-complaint to his wife's divorce suit, has accused her of adultery with two men, including his own press agent.

★ ★ ★

Adams, 35, claimed that since last Aug. 1, his wife, actress Carol Nugent, committed adultery with psychologist Paul Rapp and press agent Jay Bernstein.

Miss Nugent, 29, filed suit for divorce last Nov. 25, accusing Adams of cruelty.

Adams' cross-complaint, filed yesterday, said the couple was married May 10, 1959 in Las Vegas, separated Aug. 1, 1965, and reconciled last April only to separate again Nov. 21.

★ ★ ★

At a hearing last month, Adams was granted custody of the couple's children, Allyson, 6, and Jeb, 5, pending trial of the divorce case.

Cash receipts to the nation's farmers in 1966 approximated $42 billion, a rise of about 2.5 billion over 1965.
