

Optimistic Jaycees Predict Large Vote on Charter Proposal

Pontiac Area Junior Chamber of Commerce officials yesterday said they were optimistic there will be "an excellent turnout of voters" at next Monday's special election in Pontiac.

"Judging from the number of people who have volunteered to help us in our current campaign, I'd say community interest was high," said Richard C. Fitzpatrick, Jaycee president.

Barry Begins His Campaign

Grand Rapids Start for GOP Candidate

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater launches his campaign for the White House tonight — after vowing that if he gets there and finds it "to our advantage" he will renounce the limited nuclear test-ban treaty.

The Arizona senator, his sights trained on the Republican presidential nomination, makes his first speech as a candidate to-night before a GOP fund-raising dinner at Grand Rapids, Mich. Tomorrow he turns to the top target in his quest for the nomination: New Hampshire. Goldwater plans to spend three days there campaigning for votes in the March 10 presidential primary that will be the nation's first of 1964.

Goldwater got in a dig Sunday night at his only announced rival for the nomination, New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

"Gov. Rockefeller is used to giving money away and I'm not, that's the difference," Goldwater said in calling for revision of the U.N. charter to force its members to pay their dues or lose their votes.

Goldwater also took a crack at President Johnson, calling his government economy drive a show with little substance.

A GOOD FRONT

"He is putting up a good front," the senator said. "The neon lights are blinking and the tilt balls are rolling, but he is not an economizer."

Goldwater, one of 19 senators who voted against ratification of the treaty that outlaws nuclear tests in the atmosphere, under water and in outer space, said in the television interview that his vote on the test ban was sound.

"I still think it is of no advantage to the United States," he said. "The treaty had more accrual of good to the Soviets than it did to the United States."

"But if you were president and you were able to renounce the treaty, would you do it?" he was asked.

"If it appeared to be to our advantage to test in the atmosphere, yes, I would do it," he said.

A red carpet reception was being prepared for Goldwater in Michigan by Kent County Republicans.

Pontiac voters will vote on a proposed charter amendment which would change the procedure of electing city commissioners.

The junior chamber sponsored the drive to petition for the special election last August.

They submitted petitions containing some 11,500 signatures, more than twice the number needed to force a special election on the issue.

REOPEN OFFICE

Fitzpatrick said the Jaycees would reopen their charter amendment campaign office in the Community National Bank Building some time this week to coordinate campaign activities.

"We also plan to offer transportation to persons who want to vote but have no way of getting to the polls Monday," Fitzpatrick said.

Details on this service and how to contact the office will be announced tomorrow or Wednesday, he added.

Some 5,000 bumper stickers urging people to vote for the amendment are available at the (Continued on Page 2, Col. 8)

Probe Slaying of Millionaire

Found Murdered in California Home

man was his brother's wife, Carmen Gallardo Bartholomae, 25, a former Spanish dancer.

Hospitalized with a severely cut hand was Carmen's sister, Minola Gallardo, 32.

Bartholomae, whose cattle, oil and mining fortune was estimated at $11 million, was found Sunday morning with two stab wounds in his abdomen.

BY HIS SIDE

On the floor beside him was his sister-in-law, who later told police she had fainted.

Between them lay the blood-smeared blade of an eight-inch butcher knife.

Police said Carmen told them that when Bartholomae, wearing a bathrobe and pajamas, entered the kitchen she was standing at the kitchen sink preparing breakfast.

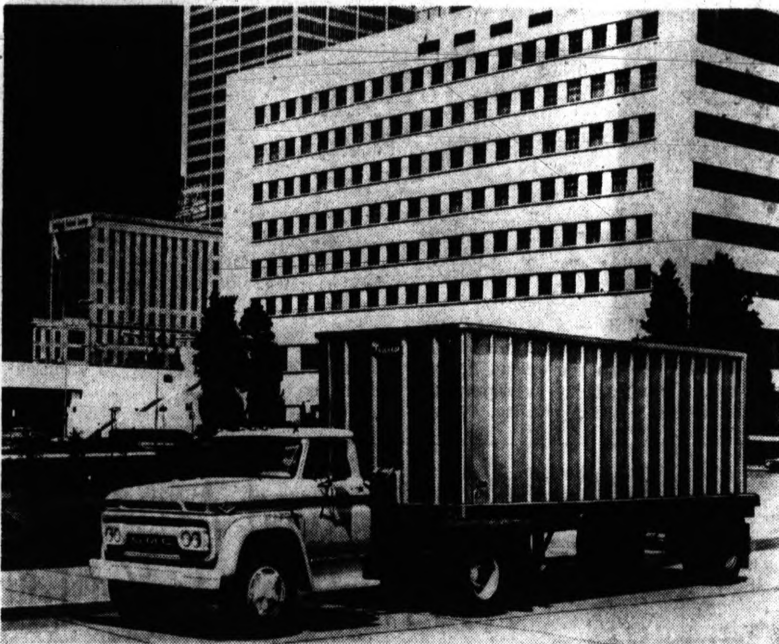

"He didn't look good," she said.

She said she remembers holding two knives and seeing Bartholomae "tumbling" before she fainted.

She remembers nothing more until she awoke later in a hospital.

Adding to the mystery was a coroner's report which said that Bartholomae, in addition to the stab wounds, had numerous scratches, "possibly from fingernails," on his neck, face, arms, hands and chest.

GMC's New Truck Engine Is Breakthrough for Industry

By JOHN W. FITZGERALD
Editor, The Pontiac Press

A brand new "Toro-Flow" V6 diesel engine was announced today at a press conference by Calvin J. Werner, vice president of General Motors and general manager of the GMC Truck & Coach Division.

Automotive writers attending the meeting at the engineering building at the local plant were told by Werner that this major engineering development was a new breakthrough for engines.

The new line of GMC trucks powered by these four-cycle "Toro-Flow" engines are scheduled for production here later this month. At that time they will be on display at the GMC Retail Branch, 675 Oakland Ave.

The "Toro-Flow" V6 diesel engine includes these features:

- 1—Lowest possible cost to haul medium-tonnage loads.
- 2—Greatly improved combustion efficiency.
- 3—Simplified fuel system.
- 4—Rugged V6 structure.

After an outstanding year at GMC, these new engines should add impetus to the rapidly expanding operations of the local GM plant.

PROVEN BY TESTS

"Laboratory and proving ground tests as well as actual fleet performance convince us that "Toro-Flow" is the most significant advance in truck engine development since the introduction of our exclusive line of V6 gasoline truck engines nearly five years ago," Werner said.

He pointed out that the engines have achieved outstanding performance and economy records in actual fleet operation in more than a dozen different trucking applications across the country.

These covered a variety of uses, such as city pickup and delivery, bottling, furniture moving, meat packing, auto hauling, dump and concrete mixing.

Other "Toro-Flow" equipped vehicles were at the same time undergoing grueling desert and mountain tests in the west and at the General Motors Proving Ground at Milford.

LOWEST FUEL USE

Werner said test results indicate the medium tonnage engines have the lowest fuel consumption of any diesel engine in its class.

A unique toroidal air flow in the combustion chamber provides the breakthrough, as well as the new engine's name.

Werner said "toroidal" refers to a three dimensional motion of air when fuel is injected. The air motion provides a better air-fuel mixture and greatly improves combustion.

The "Toro-Flow" 478-cubic-inch diesel comes in two gross horsepower ratings: 150 and 170, both at 3,200 revolutions per minute.

STANDARD ENGINE

The 150-horsepower engine is standard in GMC models up to 24,000 pounds gross vehicle weight.

Christian Unity Emphasized on Holy Land Trip

Asks for World Peace in Climactic Speech
at Christ's Birthplace

ROME (AP)—Pope Paul VI returned tonight from his "unforgettable pilgrimage" to the Holy Land, where he took bold steps along the path toward Christian unity.

In a climactic speech from Bethlehem, where Christ was born, Pope Paul appealed to world leaders to keep the peace and called on Christians to unite.

Then he returned to Jerusalem for a second historic meeting with Patriarch Athenagoras I, spiritual leader of world Orthodoxy. There they issued a joint communique praying that their meetings will be "a prelude of things to come for the glory of God."

The ruler of 550 million Catholics took off for home from Amman, capital of Moslem Jordan, to the cheers of crowds shouting "Baba, Baba!" — the Arab equivalent of "popo."

Rome had arranged a colorful reception for the 66-year-old Roman Catholic ruler, home after three days amid the shrines of the life and passion of Jesus Christ.

BANNERS, TORCHES

Banners fluttered along the Pope's route into the city, and torches lighted the way.

Despite the fanfare and the homecoming fever, the Pope's trip retained its aspect of a pilgrimage to the last.

His chartered American-built DC8 brought him down at Ciampino military field, alongside the ancient Appian Way.

Supreme Court to Rule on Virginia School Case

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court agreed today to decide whether Prince Edward County, Va., must reopen its public schools on a desegregated basis by next September.

In 1955 the Supreme Court returned the case to lower federal courts with instructions that they enforce with all deliberate speed the 1954 decision outlawing school segregation. More litigation followed in federal and Virginia state courts.

The Supreme Court, in an unsigned order, said that "in view of the long delay in the case" since the 1954 decision, and the importance of the questions presented, it will hear arguments March 30 on the case.

The Supreme Court's order noted it was taking this step without waiting for final action in the case by the U. S. Circuit Court.

Negro parents had petitioned the Supreme Court to dispose of all issues "in such convenient haste" as to give the county school board time to reopen schools next fall.

"The closing of the schools in Prince Edward County, in callous disregard of public responsibility, marks one of the most shameful chapters in the history of American race relations," the petition said.

Supporting the Negro parents, the Justice Department in a memorandum to the Supreme Court said, "This case is ripe for decision now."

"However the issues be decided," the department said, "there can be no question but that they are of fundamental importance not only to the children of Prince Edward County but also to the United States and its system of justice."

Arson Flames Hit Astor Hotel

400 Guests Leave
as Ballroom Blazes

NEW YORK (AP)—An arsonist set a fire that swept the Astor Hotel's grand ballroom today, then fled when chased by hotel employees, officials said.

About 400 guests left their rooms as heavy smoke poured through the 11-story hotel, attracting a huge crowd outside the Times Square landmark. Damage was estimated at $1 million.

"Thank God nobody was hurt," said William Zeckendorf Jr., an official of the Zeckendorf Hotel Corp. chain of which the Astor is part.

Zeckendorf said the heavily damaged ballroom was renovated about two years ago at a cost of nearly $1 million.

ARSON CERTAIN

Fire Commissioner Edward Thompson said the fire definitely was set.

"We have two witnesses who actually saw the man start the fire, and we have a good description of him," Thompson said. "These witnesses chased the man, but they lost him."

Police and fire officials questioned a man who answered the general description of the suspected arsonist, but he was released.

Police described the firebug as being between 30 and 35 years old, about 6 feet tall and wearing a trench coat and glasses.

Brave Fisherman — Sammy Hall, 12, of 2584 Silver Lake was the only angler to brave Saturday's raw, cold wind that swept across Pontiac Lake. Other fishermen hovered near stoves in shanties on the lake. Sammy, meanwhile, hunched against the wind while waiting for the bobber to plunge downward. Yesterday was a "nice" day for ice fishing, but the fish failed to cooperate on most area lakes.

Plan Diet, Stay Active

(EDITOR'S NOTE — This is the fourth article in a six-part series on dieting, written by nutrition expert Gaynor Maddox.)

The old-fashioned mother's advice to the bride, "Feed the brute," is outdated. Today's young wife needs to be more than a fancy cook.

To keep her youthful husband in peak physical condition and to prevent circumstances that might lead to heart attacks at an early age, the modern bride needs the guidance of medical and nutrition research.

Thanks to the nutrition and health columns of newspapers and magazines and to reliable popular books, this guidance is easily available.

Theodore B. Van Itallie, M.D., director of medicine at New York's St. Luke Hospital, says research studies now in progress will help young adults find out whether heart attacks can be avoided or delayed through intelligent diet planning and regular physical activity.

Cong Guerrillas Slip Out of Trap

TAN AN, South Viet Nam (AP)—An estimated two battalions of Communist guerrillas slipped through encircling South Vietnamese troops before dawn today after battering back a day, long airborne assault.

The Viet Cong sent a wall of machine-gun fire against U.S. helicopters and knocked out an armored personnel car before melting away from their fortifications. The crew of the car was killed by a shell from a recoilless cannon.

American pilots in rocket-firing helicopters believed they killed about 60 guerrillas, although only two bodies were found. The Viet Cong usually remove the bodies of their dead when they retreat.

Olympics Supporter Succumbs

Charles H. Mayne of Bloomfield Hills, who for 12 years worked to bring the 1968 Olympic Games to Detroit, died yesterday of a heart attack at the age of 49.

Mr. Mayne, 320 Vaughan, was general chairman of the U.S. Olympic swimming and diving trials in 1956 and 1960.

Service will be 11 p.m. Wednesday at Vasu-Lynch Funeral Home in Royal Oak. Entombment will follow at Woodlawn Cemetery, Detroit.

During the past year, he devoted much time to European travel preparing for the fruitless Detroit bid for the Olympics. He served as executive director of the Detroit Olympic Committee.

MANUFACTURING EXEC

Mr. Mayne was a manufacturing executive and manufacturers' representative. He was a graduate of the University of Michigan.

His memberships included the Detroit Athletic Club, Detroit Golf Club and Recess Club.

Wall in Berlin Sealed Again

Reds End 17 Days of Joyous Reunions

BERLIN (AP)—The East German Communists sealed the Berlin wall again today, ending 17 days of joyous, family reunions and heart-breaking partings.

A record number of more than a quarter million West Berliners poured into the Communist zone yesterday—the last day for visits under a Christmas agreement negotiated between the West Berlin city government and the Communist East German regime. The crossings started Dec. 19.

The crush was so big that tens of thousands returning to West Berlin were still waiting at the snow-covered Communist checkpoints when the visiting period expired at midnight.

Authorities said 1,318,000 permits were issued for crossings, but many West Berliners made several trips.

"The honeymoon is over," observed a Westerner.

FLICKERING HOPES

There were flickering hopes that West Berlin government could negotiate a new agreement with the Reds in talks scheduled to start this week.

The Western allies, who are responsible for the security of West Berlin, have given their blessings to the talks. But they have warned Mayor Willy Brandt not to jeopardize the Western stand against recognition of the East German Communist regime.

in view of passengers in buses and cars along the main north-south highway.

It was the third time since New Year's Day that Viet Cong units of battalion strength or more have fought off an attack and escaped.

Most of the U.S. Army helicopters in the operation were hit. One returned with 19 holes.

SLOW REINFORCEMENT

Some officers said reinforcements were slow in arriving.

"It was heartbreaking," an American adviser said. "We came within a hair of smashing a really big unit—maybe part of the Viet Cong's 506 battalion, but they got out of it."

Government forces suffered another setback in a five-day operation that ended this weekend in heavily wooded Binh Duong Province, northwest of Saigon. U.S. military advisers said the operation was a total failure.

"We must do much better than this to make any impact on the Communists this year," one adviser commented. "We are still pussyfooting around defensively against the Viet Cong."

ALMOST WIPED OUT

The operation began with a near debacle on New Year's Eve when a Ranger battalion came close to being wiped out despite nearby.

In Saigon, the chief of state, Maj. Gen. Duong Van Minh, reshuffled the military high command to centralize authority in a few key officers and reduce the authority of others.

because of its historic symbolism. Through the centuries millions of European Christians returned from Holy Land pilgrimages over the Appian Way, which led to Rome from the heel of the Italian boot.

TRADITION

And tradition says St. Peter used the Appian Way when he came to Rome from the Holy Land.

Pope Paul had taken off from Rome's seaside commercial airport, on his departure Saturday.

His meeting with Athenagoras last night was the first between two spiritual leaders of Catholicism and World Orthodoxy in 500 years.

Today, in a rare joint communiqué by a pope with a non-Catholic, the Vatican said:

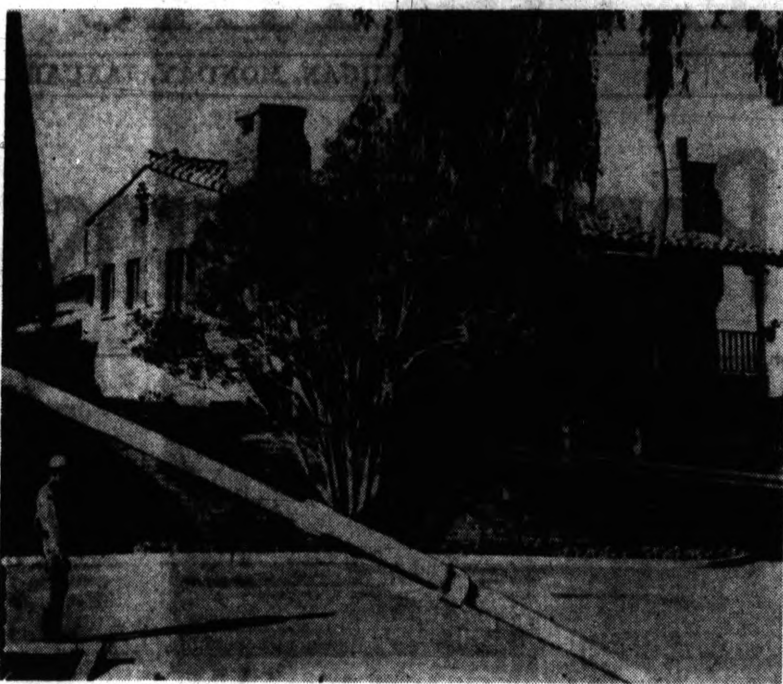

"The two pilgrims, with their eyes fixed on Christ, the Exemplar and Author, with the Father, of unity and peace, pray God that this meeting may be the sign and prelude of things to come for the glory of God and the illumination of his faithful people."

IN SPEECH

In the Pope's moving speech at Bethlehem, he declared that governments "must hear this cry" for peace "and assure humanity the peace to which it earnestly aspires." He said the problem of Christian unity "cannot be put on one side."

Taking his leave at Amman, he told King Hussein:

"The time has come for us to take leave of his blessed land after our unforgettable pilgrimage... Forever in our heart, we shall bear the consoling memories of this humble visit to the holy places, and of the warm welcome extended to us by the inhabitants of this sacred land."

Eight Miles of Freeway Open Soon

Nearly eight miles of I-696 and the Lodge freeway in Oakland County will be opened to traffic at 2 p.m. Wednesday, the State Highway Department announced today.

The Lodge freeway will be opened from a point just north of Nine Mile Road to its intersection with I-696 at Telegraph Road.

The westbound portion of I-696 from there to Orchard Lake Road will be open. I-696 from Orchard Lake Road west to its junction with I-696 has been open for several months.

The eastbound lane of I-696 from Orchard Lake Road to Telegraph, and of the Lodge freeway from Telegraph to Lahser Road, also has been opened for several months.

FOLLOWS HIGHWAY

The Lodge freeway follows the route of Northwestern Highway.

I-696, located on a new east-west route, will be extended 18 miles eastward through Oakland and Macomb counties parallel to 10 Mile Road to connect with I-94 at Roseville beginning in 1967.

After Wednesday's opening of the new Lodge and I-696 sections only a two-mile gap will remain to be completed in a continuous freeway from downtown Detroit to Muskegon via the Lodge, I-696 and I-94 freeways.

That gap — the Lodge freeway between Seven and Nine mile roads — is scheduled to be opened to traffic later this year.

County Road Accidents Add Two More to '64 Toll

A young Flushing father and a Flint woman were killed in weekend traffic accidents in the area.

Lorne T. Statia, 25, died of a skull fracture after his car rammed into the rear of a stalled truck on Lapeer Road in Orion Township yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Carole Hesse, 26, was dead on arrival at Pontiac General Hospital Saturday following a head-on crash on the Dixie in Independence Township. She was eight months pregnant.

Statia, formerly of Royal Oak and Madison Heights, was driving north when he smashed into the disabled vehicle of Willard Murphy, 61, of 40 Greenshield, Orion Township.

Murphy was recently released from the hospital after being beaten, allegedly, by three men who have been charged with the unarmed robbery of his store.

Neither Murphy nor his passenger, Norman Davis, 20, of 2605 E. Walton, Orion Township, was injured in the 3:37 p. m. accident north of Greenshield. A passenger in Statia's car, Christian Stevenson, 17, of 16951 Georgina, Beverly Hills, was treated and released.

SURVIVORS

Statia is survived by his wife and two children.

Mrs. Hesse was a passenger in a car driven by her husband, Robin, 29.

Their car crossed over the center line and collided head on with a car driven by Michael Postula, 23, of 1918 Clifton, Royal Oak, according to state police from the Pontiac post.

Police said Hesse was attempting to pass a truck turning into a driveway near Foster Road when the accident occurred at 5:45 p. m.

Hesse is in satisfactory condition at Pontiac General with facial, nose and jaw injuries. Postula was treated and released.

Ex-Mental Patient Held in Death

NILES (AP)—A former mental patient was being held today in the shotgun slaying of his estranged wife, the mother of six children.

Police say that Larry Paul Hutchison, 26, formerly a patient at mental hospitals in Kalamazoo and Plainwell, led them to the body of his wife, Patricia, 28, after surrendering at the Cass County home of Mrs. Raymond R. Young near Niles.

Cass County Coroner Rollo Schoff said the woman had been struck by five blasts from a 12-gauge shotgun.

Jaycee Offices Moved to Community House

BIRMINGHAM — The Junior Chamber of Commerce has become the first local organization to officially adopt the Community House as its headquarters.

The Jaycees have moved their desks, files and other office equipment into the building at 380 S. Bates.

This is the first step in the Community House's effort to establish a central office for civic and service organizations in the Birmingham-Bloomfield area.

In welcoming the Jaycees, Community House Executive Director Robert Bogan commented on plans to expand the program.

FILL REQUIREMENTS

"Plans for our new building reflect space and facility requirements to accommodate many community organizations that have a common desire to pool and share various office services," he said.

The Jaycees will be a pilot group in determining needs of other nonprofit organizations that may join them in the facilities, according to Bogan.

As reasons for the move, Jaycee President Gerry Dudley listed the Community House's central location and provision for duplication and mailing, as well as telephone answering service and availability of meeting places.

The University of Michigan's center for adult education will offer six courses at Cranbrook Institute of Science this winter.

Preregistration can be made from 5 to 9 p.m. Jan. 14 at the Institute. University credit will be given for two of the courses, one in anthropology and the other in mineralogy.

The 15-week anthropology course, Major Cultural Developments in Prehistory, will be taught by Dr. Richard O. Kesslin. Beginning Jan. 21, it will meet from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. Tuesdays.

Minerals and Rocks, designed for students not concentrating in geology or mineralogy, will meet from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. Thursdays beginning Jan. 23. Instructor will be Dr. William C. Kelley.

NONCREDIT COURSES

Both of these courses can be taken by those not working for credit.

Eight-week noncredit courses will include Birds in the Field, taught by nine instructors, and Geology and Water Resources of Michigan, with Dr. Andrew J. Mozola as instructor.

These classes, scheduled for 7:30-9:30 p.m. Tuesdays, will begin Feb. 11.

Offered on Saturday mornings as well as Thursday evenings will be Lapidary Techniques, taught by Donald E. Tompkins.

FIRST SESSION

The 7-10 p.m. Thursday session will begin Jan. 30, and the Saturday group will start work Feb. 1 from 9 a.m. to noon.

Elementary Astronomy for Teachers and Others will be taught by Doris N. McMillan from 4 to 5:30 p.m. Tuesdays beginning Feb. 4.

William A. Hathaway

Service for William A. Hathaway, 57, of 1175 Chapin will be 1 p.m. tomorrow at the Manley Bailey Funeral Home. Burial will follow in Franklin Cemetery, Franklin.

Mr. Hathaway, a plant protection employee of Federal Mogul Co., Detroit, died Friday after a long illness.

He was a member of the Christian Temple Church. Surviving are his mother, Mrs. William Hathaway of Birmingham; a sister, Mrs. Ed Fox of Pontiac; and a brother.

"We're very pleased with the number who have volunteered to telephone voters urging them to vote next Monday," Fitzpatrick said.

Presently, commissioners are nominated and elected by district vote alone, each voter casting only one vote for a candidate from his own district.

The amendment doesn't propose to change the method of nomination by district.

It does propose that each voter be allowed to vote for seven candidates, one from each district, at the final election each April.

tivity from early adulthood on, or even earlier, since coronary heart disease often has its beginnings in the teens."

Although diet is believed to be the major environmental factor affecting the blood level of cholesterol and other fats implicated in heart disease, physical activity also may be important, Dr. Van Itallie adds:

"There is evidence that a physically active person can eat richer and higher calorie diets with greater safety than can a sedentary one."

He cites studies made in Switzerland of hard-working farmers. Their diets were high-scientists do — evidence and believe it possible to delay the rate of progression of heart trouble by keeping the cholesterol low then the earlier you start the better."

Because young persons with high cholesterol levels have a greater risk of developing heart disease than individuals of the same age and sex with low levels, the doctor believes the determination of blood cholesterol levels can be a useful part of the annual physical examination.

"If a young person's cholesterol is high, he should consult his doctor about a suitable table diet and other measures to help reduce it," advises Dr. Van Itallie, who is also associate clinical professor of medicine at Columbia University.

EXERCISE DESIRABLE

There are many reasons why regular physical activity is desirable from the health standpoint, but such exercise must be part of the daily program and not merely reserved for occasional weekends and vacations.

To young wives, Dr. Van Itallie says, "Encourage your husband to get regular exercise by walking more, playing golf, swimming, bowling — whatever form of activity he gets most fun out of.

"Join him as often as possible. Make planned physical activity a way of your married life."

The promise in Dr. Van Itallie's advice, as well as that of many other leading medical and nutrition researchers, is this: Intelligent diet and regular physical activity can keep young hearts younger longer.

DON'T WORRY

Don't worry about any probable bad effects of exercise on your heart. "Exercise and Health," published by the American Medical Association researchers, state:

• Despite the popular belief to the contrary, the life expectancy of athletes (persons exposed to vigorous exercise) is as high as the average expectancy, and excluding accidents, is probably higher than the average.

• The percentage of athletes who are afflicted with degenerative diseases is probably lower than for the general population.

• Vigorous exercise reasonably applied under rational conditions will not damage healthy young hearts. Proper exercise as a way of life helps to keep healthy hearts healthy and to prevent the onset of cardiovascular disease.

NEXT: Inactivity begets overweight.

What Exercise Will Do

By Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

To burn up through exercise 100 calories of the food he has eaten, a 180-pound person can do any of the following:

- Walk at 2 miles an hour for 30 minutes.
- Bicycle at moderate speed for 21 minutes.
- Dance the waltz for 18 minutes.
- Walk downstairs for 14 minutes.
- Saw wood for 11 minutes.
- Swim for 10 minutes.
- Walk upstairs for 4.6 minutes.

The heavier one is, the more calories are used in any given time in activities involving the use of the entire body. A 250-pound person would spend 100 calories in walking at 2 miles an hour for 21 minutes instead of the 30 minutes required by the 180-pounder.

is an option for these models but standard on trucks rated up to 39,000 pounds G.V.W.

The new diesels will power the widest selection of medium-tonnage diesel trucks currently offered in the industry.

They will be available in full conventional cab models, full conventional tandem - axle models, short-cab conventional models and steel-tilt cabs.

LIGHTER TRUCK USES

For lighter truck uses, such as pickup and delivery operations, the engines provide new economy, while tilt cabs will benefit from maximum front-axle loading, balanced weight distribution and greater maneuverability.

Besides the inherent V6 "Toro-Flow" features a simplified fuel system, positive rotation of intake and exhaust valves, and heavy-duty main bearing caps with side bolts.

Parts and service for the new engine will be available through GMC's nationwide dealer network.

While primarily for medium-tonnage truck use, GMC officials say the basic "Toro-Flow" engine has advantages in many marine and industrial applications.

Book Relives GM's Past

Industry Leader Tells 'Fascinating Story'

My Years With General Motors, By Alfred P. Sloan Jr.

By CORENNA ALDRICH
It's hard to picture General Motors as once a disorganized concern facing financial disaster, but that is part of the fascinating story of the corporation's evolution, as told by Alfred P. Sloan Jr., in "My Years With General Motors."

Not just another business history, this book is written from the standpoint of a man who for 45 years has helped direct GM destiny, as president, chairman of the board and now honorary board chairman.

His past contributions are directly responsible for much of the corporation's enormous success today. Many practices taken for granted in all business operations now were innovations instituted by Sloan at General Motors.

Sloan's book should be of particular interest in the Pontiac area, which owes the bulk of its prosperity to General Motors. Readers here will again be reminded how many really great men in the automotive industry were or still are residents of this area.

Familiar names take on important historical significance in light of their connection with GM growth and consequently with the industrial growth of the country as a whole.

"My Years With General Motors" is not light reading and involves many complicated business and financial concepts. However, Mr. Sloan's simplifications help make these complexities understandable to the uninitiated. The concentration required to absorb technical parts of the book is well worth the effort.

For both the student of business and industry, and for the reader interested in an absorbing story of the world's largest manufacturing company, this book will prove informative and stimulating.

And all readers will feel a certain poignancy in recollections of a man who has dedicated his life to this great corporation and who, at 89, ends his book with: "The responsibilities we have discharged for so long . . . have been or soon must be assumed by others . . . The work of creating goes on."

Park Your Money Here, Says Industrious Thief

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP)—A young man broke into a downtown parking lot office. Cars began to pull into the lot. Pretending he was an employee, he parked the cars and collected 50 cents from each driver.

Police said Sunday the man fled with about $20 in parking fees and the change from a soft drink machine.

State Highway Toll Hits 11 in First Weekend of '64

By The Associated Press
At least 11 persons died in traffic accidents in Michigan during the first weekend of 1964.

The Associated Press weekend traffic fatality count began at 6 p.m. Friday and ended at midnight Sunday.

The dead included:
Loren Statia, 25, of Flushing was killed yesterday when his car struck the rear of a small truck on M24 in Oakland County, sheriff's deputies said.

Louis Little, 41, of Detroit died yesterday when his car veered off the eastbound lane of the Edsel Ford Expressway in Detroit and hit a bridge support.

Clara Hughes, 50, of Clio was killed yesterday while riding with her husband, George. The couple's car struck another auto on M57 in Saginaw County.

LODGE CRASH

James L. Milson, 42, of Detroit was killed Saturday night when his car ran off the Lodge freeway in Detroit and hit a cement bridge support.

Nathaniel Coleman, 76, of Arch Run was killed Saturday night near Saginaw when a car in which he was riding collided head-on with another auto. State Police said the driver, Louis J. Keating, 49, of Saginaw lost control. Keating was injured.

Amelia Fortino, 34, of Lansing was killed Saturday when a taxi in which she was riding collided with another vehicle which, police said, ran a red light.

Mrs. Carole Hesse, 26, of Flint was killed Saturday in a two-car, head-on collision north of Pontiac on Dixie.

STRIKES TREE

Byron Gainsforth, 37, of Unionville was killed Saturday when his car hit a tree off M25 in Tuscola County.

Michael D. Wright, 17, and Scott Eagleson, 18, both of Gladwin were killed Friday night in a collision of their car and a truck on M61 about four miles west of Gladwin.

Pete McQuarter, 68, of Pinconning was killed Friday night when struck by a truck as he was walking on U.S.23 near Pinconning.

Pontiac Voters Can Improve Method of Electing Leaders

Pontiac votes next Monday.

Our Junior Chamber of Commerce wants a fairer election system. So do other close students of Pontiac affairs.

Originally, all city commissioners were voted upon at large. That meant that all seven could live in the same section. They could reside in the same block. Many felt this was unfair, so the plan was changed.

Today each sector nominates several of its own group and selects one. This guarantees every part of Pontiac will be represented.

No section can claim an advantage.

But even this can be strengthened. A very assertive group in any sector can elect its own choice.

The Junior Chamber members suggest that we make use of the best points in both systems. They want each section represented as it is now. Therefore, they retain the plan of having a commissioner from each division. However, to prevent the small block system from putting a weak hand-picked candidate in office for personal gain, they propose that the entire City vote on the men in each sector. In other words, if the City at large is sick of MILTON HENRY and the name he is giving Pontiac, the voters of the entire City can toss him out, although the district is absolutely guaranteed a commissioner from its own section.

When Jones runs against Smith in District "Z," all the voters in the City will cast a ballot on that race — and all others. Each of us has an equal interest in the makeup of the whole commission. We want men from all parts of the City.

But we want STRONG men. We want capable people. Experience proves we NEED them.

Pontiac requires qualified men who have no obligations. We want commissioners who are free and clear of all entanglements. We want men who will always vote for the best interests of the City and never for the best interests of themselves and their pals.

As Abe Lincoln said: "You can fool some of the people all the time and all of the people some of the time, but you can't fool ALL of the people ALL of the time." Let's have "all of the people" vote for each candidate. It's a guarantee of better men. It means more experienced commissioners.

That's what we need.

That's what we want.

We can incorporate the strong parts of each system in the Jaycee's proposed plan. Vote "yes."

Speaks Again . . .

It's a good thing newspapers don't pay much attention to Sen. WAYNE MORSE. The West Coast call him a howler brays at the moon regularly as he unsheathes the dullest hatchet in Congress. Just now he's attacking the newspapers—again. He charges that his own speeches are ignored.

And, the West Coast pipe-squeak magnanimously concedes that his colleagues are treated in the same manner. He thinks every utterance deserves faithful reproduction. However, this opinion is uniquely his own. No one wants anything from Congress except the important matters and that's precisely what the great news services and special correspondents deliver.

Often "great" speeches are delivered to empty benches and some aren't delivered at all. They're just printed in the Congressional Record.

By the way, MORSE, have you decided yet whether you'll be a Republican or a Democrat in 1964? But take your time. It isn't important.

The 'Turnabout' Club

David Lawrence Says:

Much at Stake in Barry's Bid

WASHINGTON — More than the statement of a single individual's intention is involved in the announcement just made by Sen. Barry Goldwater that he will seek the Republican presidential nomination.

It marks indeed the beginning of a critical period in the life of the Republican party.

This is because many Republicans feel that the Arizona senator is the only one of their party's presidential aspirants who is committed to principles which are substantially different from those of the Democratic party.

The Republican party has always been predominantly a conservative party.

It has fought vigorously against what it considers abuses of power and centralization of government. It has opposed efforts to put the government in business in competition with private enterprise. It has for decades insisted on fiscal soundness.

But in recent years the Republican national platforms to a large extent have resembled those of the Democrats. Deficit spending has been acquiesced in, and there has been no concerted effort by either Republican or Democratic administration.

It's meaningless, anyway. . . . Dr. L. Warren Gatley has already put two patients on The Press diet — and he's on it himself.

Overheard: "With all this talk of heavy funeral expenses in the U.S., KHRUSHCHEV may not want to bury us after all."

In 1962, Japan made 150,000 TV sets that sold in the U.S. In 1963 the number leaped to 500,000 because of cheaper labor.

Currently, the most popular male name is DAVID, followed by PETER, JOHN and MICHAEL. With gals, SUSAN is first followed by ELIZABETH, JANE and SARAH.

Only one baseball umpire has ever been fired for collusion with gamblers — and that was in 1882.

Dept. of Cheers and Jeers: The C's—Dr. L. WARREN GATLEY; the J's—that lady driver who burst out of Onida Thursday and blocked Huron Street traffic both ways — but good.

trations to keep expenses or taxes down.

BETTER OFF

There are those politicians who say the Republicans would be better off to woo the independent or so-called "liberal" vote and to forget about the conservatives, as they would vote Republican anyhow.

The conservative Republicans, on the other hand, argue that the independents, who today think largely along the lines of the Democrats, are bound to support the Democratic nominee rather than the Republican.

It is the conservative vote, however, which has not been fully mobilized in any recent election by the Republicans.

Many of the conservative Republicans have felt that there was not much difference between the candidates and have failed to vote. Many of the Southern conservatives have continued to vote Democratic for local reasons.

If Sen. Goldwater is nominated, can he win?

Oddly enough, this is of less concern to most of the conservative Republicans than would seem logical. For if there is a continuing prosperity and a mood of international peace, no Republican candidate is likely to win.

In the face of such a contingency, and looking toward future elections, the strategy of the Republican conservatives will be to make as strong a race as possible this time in the hope of indoctrinating as many voters as possible with what they term an intelligent conservatism as opposed to what they describe as a reckless liberalism.

Another prime objective would be to elect more conservative Republicans in both houses of Congress.

DECISIVE BLOW

If Sen. Goldwater is rejected by the national convention, a decisive blow will be dealt to the spirit of militancy which in recent years has grown among young conservatives as well as old.

So more is at stake in the possible nomination of Sen. Goldwater than the fortunes of a particular individual. It could fundamentally affect the future of the two-party system itself.

The Almanac

By United Press International
Today is Monday, Jan. 6, the sixth day of 1964 with 360 to follow.

The moon is at last quarter.

The evening stars are Venus, Jupiter and Saturn.

American poet Carl Sandburg was born on this day in 1878. On this day in history: In 1759, George Washington married Martha Dandridge Custis.

In 1898, Simon Lake sent the first telephone message from a submarine.

In 1912, New Mexico was admitted to the Union as the 47th State.

DEFEATED

In 1959, Charles Halleck defeated Joe Martin for the post of House Republican leader by a vote of 74 to 70.

A thought for the day—American paleontologist Henry Fairfield Osborn said: "We do not live to extenuate the miseries of the past nor to accept as incurable those of the present."

Portraits

By JOHN C. METCALFE

When an empty day is ending
And the shades of night appear
Memories of you, my darling
Are forever present here

In the golden glow of twilight
When the wind is passing by
All my dreams of you, beloved
In the nearing darkness sigh

All my thoughts of you are turning
To the light within your eyes
When each time the amber moonlight
Fills the blue upon the skies

And there are the recollections
Of the smile upon your face
When my youthful heart was longing
For a warm and long embrace

Oh, whenever night approaches
After emptiness all day
In those dreams of you, my sweetheart
Loneliness is swept away.

U. N. Problem

The London Daily Herald

Responsibility over the Cyprus problem should be transferred to the United Nations. Britain is being pushed into the position of an arbitrator because the Greeks and Turks are bitterly at loggerheads. For Britain to accept this position would be fatal, for she would be accused of seeking to creep back into her old role of colonial power.

If Greece and Turkey are unwilling to refer the dispute to the United Nations, Britain should take the initiative. Sir Alec Douglas-Home should ask a United Nations conciliation team to fly out at once.

Change at Annapolis

The St. Louis Post Dispatch

The winds of change are having a healthy effect on the Naval Academy where the teaching system has been revolutionized in the last two years. There is still a basic curriculum but not an ironbound one. A validation and electives program permits an entering midshipman to take an extra course for any one in which he can demonstrate proficiency. A talented midshipman can carry a heavier workload than others.

A few, in their last year, are permitted to devote their full time to research projects in which the Navy is inter-

Voice of the People:

'Study Civil Rights Bill Before Giving Approval'

The civil rights bill should be examined carefully. The Coordinating Committee for Fundamental American Freedoms claims that it is a blueprint for total regimentation of the American people. In other words, legislation is being written to usher in the totalitarian government and the slave state.

It will extend federal control over all business, industries and individuals (with a corresponding destruction of state power). The civil rights aspect is but the cloak and uncontrolled executive power, the body.

President Johnson is going to veto the federal aid bill because he says it curbs executive power. He's trying to have his way no matter what Congress wants. To keep freedom we must keep the balance of power in the three branches of government.

It looks as if the executive branch is teaming up with the judicial branch to destroy representative government. If they succeed, the executive branch will assume total power over all legislation.

Give Views on Charter Amendment Vote

Pontiac should vote against the proposed charter amendment because:

1 — Your vote will be so spread among the seven commissioners that you will not get action from any one. You used to be a full vote for the man from your district, now six-sevenths of that vote is spread all over town. Therefore, you are no longer a threat to that commissioner. You are only one-seventh as strong as you used to be.

2 — Most candidates will not be able to cover the whole city in a campaign without outside financial help. This will put a commission seat out of the reach of most unless they borrow, are financially independent, or seek help from special interest groups.

3 — No two districts are the same as to income, density of population, land usage, or neighborhood problems. How can a voter from another district know which candidate is best for you? They may vote in the wrong man regardless of how the majority of your district voted.

Each district is the best judge of its own candidate.

Robert Jackson

The proposed charter amendment in the City of Pontiac special election on Monday will permit the electors to vote for a commissioner in each one of the seven city districts rather than only voting for the one commissioner that represents their own district.

As each commissioner's vote counts for a full city vote on the seven-member commission, therefore, it should represent the vote of a man elected by the full city and not by districts. Vote on this amendment so that we may equalize the Pontiac vote to the fullest extent possible.

Library User Unhappy With New Hours

Pontiac has a public library. But, if these new hours for the main library are adopted, we may as well not have one at all.

These new hours are ridiculous. They are most inconvenient for everyone. If the library is going to be open at all, the evening is the time — not the middle of the morning.

The city cut the library's budget because it is complaining it can't afford to run it. If the city really is in such bad financial shape, why did they build this huge new building to keep it closed over half the week? If a cut must be made, why can't it be made someplace else?

ested. These have included such things as nuclear physics, space navigation and laser, that entirely new concept of what light beams can do.

In addition, there is a continuing effort to increase the number of civilian instructors and cut the number of officer instructors who do not have at least a master's degree or higher.

The technological revolution in warfare has radically changed the Navy since World War II. The revolution made necessary the changes now under way at Annapolis, cradle of the Navy, and it is probable that many more will be necessary.

Open Hearings

The Chicago Tribune

Senate investigators have decided that open hearings, televised to the Nation are essential to dissipate the clouds of doubt and suspicion which have gathered about the Kennedy assassination.

Certainly, there is more to these Communist-connected circumstances which surround the murder of President Kennedy than is meeting the eye and ear of the American public.

Why are these circumstances being ignored, if indeed they are not being actually suppressed? Ten days after the President's assassination J. Edgar Hoover repeated what he has been saying for years, namely, "We are at war with Communism and the sooner every red-blooded American knows that the better."

If the Communist enemy is now behind our lines, and in a position to order and obtain the destruction of our leaders, why should this fact be withheld from the American people?

Immediately after the assassination, a prominent United States Senator went on record favoring a prompt public disclosure of all of the relevant facts of the assassination.

Fallout Shelters

The Washington Post

The fallout shelter bill now in the Senate "deserves a certain future in the ashen . . ." The burden of realistic opinion on the matter is that an attack on the U.S. would be massive, and that shelters would give only limited and temporary protection against one kind of menace, fallout, and little or none against firestorm or blast.

Planes Back in Mackinac

Island Flight Service Allowed to Resume

MACKINAC ISLAND (AP)—Airplanes were flying to Mackinac Island today, ending a five-day isolation caused by questions over whether use of the icebound island's landing strip was legal.

The air strip was declared unsafe and closed Dec. 3, and possibilities of a food emergency for the island's 640 residents developed when ferry service halted Tuesday.

Straits Aviation Inc. flew the mail to the Mackinac Straits island Saturday after receiving a go-ahead from Walter J. Murray, island park commissioner. Murray had just received a ruling from Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley that the island park commission had authority to take the action.

RULED UNSAFE

State aeronautics officials had ruled the air strip unsafe, citing the primary hazard as tall trees in the area. Thus, Murray said, reactivation of the air strip is only temporary and the next legislature will be asked to provide for landing strip improvements. He said funds are available for this.

Straits Aviation serves the island with single-engine, four-seat planes operating from Mackinac County Airport at St. Ignace.

A spokesman for the flying service said island residents fly to the mainland to purchase their own supplies.

Realty Firm to Integrate Muskegon

MUSKEGON (AP) — Home Equity, Inc., a newly organized, nonprofit real estate company, says it intends to sell homes to Negroes in areas where Negroes never have lived before.

In its articles of incorporation, Home Equity proposed creating a housing market in Muskegon and adjacent counties "free of all or any unreasonable restrictions."

Officers include Dr. Frank Howard, Muskegon Heights councilman, president; the Rev. John J. Sheehy of the Catholic Church, vice president, and Henry T. Jordan, Negro real estate broker, assistant secretary.

Dr. Howard, a civil rights leader, said Greater Muskegon has been "totally segregated" and it has been impossible for the Negro to "escape the ghetto regardless of his financial or professional standing."

Dr. Howard said target areas will be chosen for desegregation. He said once a Negro family has moved into a white area other Negroes will be discouraged from going to the same area until all areas are integrated.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations. Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place. And most amazing of all — this improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H®. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H Suppositories or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters.

2 State Solons Plan Drive to Classify Paregoric as Narcotic

(Editors Note: Among the bills expected to be introduced in the 1964 legislature is one to make paregoric a narcotic in the eyes of the law and hence subject it to the stringent rules applied to such drugs. The following story, by Lansing Correspondent Ken Siner tells of legislative efforts to classify paregoric as a drug.)

By KEN SINER

LANSING (AP) — Lawmakers will face a strong bipartisan effort during the coming months as a Democratic senator and a Republican representative campaign to have paregoric classified as a narcotic.

Sen. Charles Youngblood Jr., D-Detroit, is collecting pictures and testimony to support his claim that hundreds of Michigan residents, many of them youngsters, are mutilating their bodies and destroying their wills.

Youngblood and Rep. John Toepp, R-Cadillac, who made a similar effort in the 1963 session, will work together through both houses, trying to make a doctor's prescription necessary for the purchase of the depressant drug.

Both hope to present figures, confirmed unofficially by Detroit and state police, showing that drug addiction through paregoric is on the increase. Youngblood hopes to demonstrate that as many as 1,000 Detroiters are "on" paregoric.

HEROIN TRAFFIC

The problem's growth is the ironic result of good police work and city-state-federal cooperation which has greatly reduced the heroin traffic, according to Ross Ellis, Federal Narcotics Bureau supervisor for Michigan, Ohio and Kentucky.

Deputy George Kerr of the State Police Narcotics Division says that outstate "our biggest problem is the heroin addict who can't get heroin any more." Such persons often turn to paregoric.

Kerr said almost every county in Michigan has recorded recent violations of the restrictions on paregoric. Present law outlaws buying more than two ounces within 48 hours without a prescription. And violating this is only a misdemeanor crime.

"The user will get the maximum at several drug stores, using a different name every time," says Kerr. "We'd be eager to get paregoric under the prescription law."

STATE LAW

Kentucky went through the same cycle when it virtually wiped out illicit heroin traffic, said Ellis, and then a state law similar to the Youngblood-Toepp proposal helped police cut back the resultant upsurge in non-medical paregoric use.

"The Kentucky law forces the user to resort to forging prescriptions, which is a felony," Ellis said.

"In Ohio, local pharmacist associations got together and agreed, in the absence of a state law, not to sell paregoric to strangers without a prescription, and this helped cut addition down," he said.

Youngblood has arranged to interview a prisoner at Southern Michigan Prison whose arms and legs are disfigured by abscesses resulting from injecting paregoric into his veins.

BOIL IT DOWN

Some users simply drink the drug as it comes from the pharmacy, but others boil it down to extract the opiate content. This is more habit-forming than illicitly sold heroin, which usually is cut by more than 95 per cent.

Another incident Youngblood plans to use in the hearings concerns a 13-year-old daughter of a wealthy Detroit area family.

She became a Probate Court ward after a police investigation disclosed she was engaging in a kind of prosecution — her fee being one one-ounce bottle of paregoric.

Youngblood, 31-year-old son of a former state senator, took an interest in narcotics control when, as a Wayne County Deputy Sheriff, he first saw a withdrawal case.

SCREAMING IN PAIN

"They brought in a woman one midnight — a young woman — and she was screaming in pain, something like a woman in labor pains.

"She didn't know what she was doing. They had to give her more narcotics to keep her from hurting herself — she would have done anything to herself or anyone else. It was pitiful," he said.

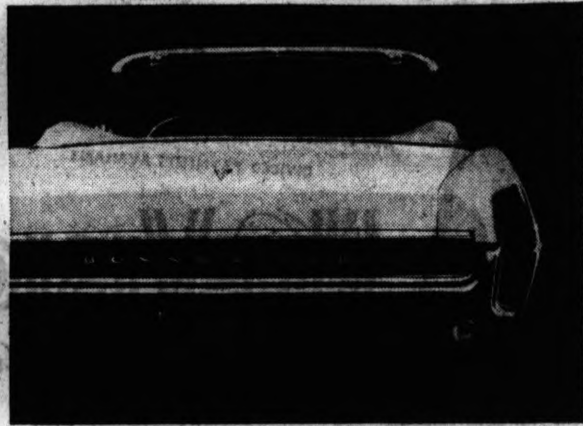

Youngblood continued looking into statutory and enforcement problems with narcotics and learned of Toepp's unsuccessful effort last year.

The two will make a concerted bipartisan push in the coming session, with bills on file already in both houses, Youngblood said.

'Didn't Steal From Charity'Thief Upset at Paper's Error

RUTLAND, Vt. (AP)—The Rutland Herald reported that a burglar who looted a laundry took a Salvation Army collection box.

The story drew a letter to the editor, which said, in part:

"In that article, the proprietor of the laundry states that a Salvation Army container was taken by the thief. Well, this is entirely untrue as I had no intention of stealing any such charity box.

"I brushed it off the counter upon leaving. The Salvation does good work with almost nothing in the way of funds.

"If you would be so kind as to print a retraction I would be eternally grateful."

The letter was unsigned.

Fingerprints Found in Boston Strangling

BOSTON (AP)—Fingerprints found in the apartment of 19-year-old Mary Ellen Sullivan apparently offer the only solid clue to the 11th unsolved sex strangling in this area since June 1962.

Miss Sullivan's nude body was found Saturday night in her second-floor apartment on Charles Street, at the foot of Boston's Beacon Hill. Like the victims in the other 10 unsolved cases, she had been sexually molested.

The fingerprints found in Miss

Sullivan's apartment, which she shared with two other young women, were sent to Washington for check with FBI files.

Police Commissioner Edmund McNamara assigned 30 detectives to a house-to-house check of the Beacon Hill area. The killer throttled Miss Sullivan with a nylon stocking and two nylon scarves.

YOUTH QUESTIONED

An 18-year-old boy from suburban Newton was questioned for hours after two young women reported he forced them at knife point to drive him to Newton Saturday night from the Boston Common underground garage. The garage is only a short distance from the Sullivan apartment.

Miss Sullivan, a clerk in a Boston finance company, moved into the apartment Jan. 1. She had been living in Whitman, Mass.

The manner of Miss Sullivan's slaying bore many similarities to the other unsolved stranglings. Only one woman had been strangled manually. The others were killed with articles of clothing, usually stockings. In each case, there was no evidence of forced entry into the victims' homes.

Miss Sullivan was the youngest victim. The oldest was Ida Irga, 75, slain Aug. 19, 1962, in her apartment, only a few blocks from Miss Sullivan's home.

Spy Executed in Red CountryBulgarian Convicted of Work With CIA

VIENNA (AP)—A former Bulgarian diplomat who claimed he spied for the United States in exchange for a life of wine and women, died before a firing squad in Sofia yesterday.

The one-time United Nations delegate, Ivan-Asen Georgiev, appealed for pardon from his conviction for high treason, but the Bulgarian National Assembly rejected it.

The official Bulgarian Telegraph Agency, which reported the execution, said Georgiev submitted the appeal despite his court statement that he deserved no mercy.

Before his New Year's Eve death sentence by the Bulgarian Supreme Court, the 56-year-old ex-diplomat and lawyer requested the "heaviest punishment" for admitted Cold War crimes which read like a paper back spy thriller.

SEVEN YEARS

For seven years until his arrest Sept. 7 in a Moscow hotel room, Georgiev claimed, he supplied the U. S. Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) with Communist political, military and economic secrets.

In return, he said, he received $200,000 which he spent on a "luxurious life" surrounded by "loose women" and a variety of mistresses supposedly flown to him by the CIA.

Georgiev's trial touched off a demonstration by 3,000 Bulgarians who smashed the windows of the U. S. legation in Sofia and damaged four American diplomatic automobiles.

SERVED AT U. N.

Georgiev served as deputy chief of the Bulgarian U. N. Mission in New York for five years until 1961. He told the court he had access there to all secret documents and codes and had met often with CIA agents in hotel rooms and apartments.

Georgiev pleaded guilty to supplying information to the United States on the Moscow-Peking rift and on Soviet tactics at the United Nations.

Details of these confessed activities and presumably others were handled in closed court sessions because they were matters of "state security," the Bulgarians said.

Congress — I

LBJ Faces Tough Battle on the Hill

(Editor's Note: This is the first of four dispatches in which United Press International's national reporter takes a close look at the 88th Congress, its relations with the executive branch and some of its personalities.)

By HARRY FERGUSON

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson is in much the same position today as a new animal trainer venturing for the first time into a cage filled with 535 wild beasts. Congress reconvenes this week and it may be that the nation is about to witness another knock-down fight between the executive and legislative branches of the government.

The prestige of Congress has hit one of its all-time lows. Some of its members realize this and are bold enough to say so: "The country," remarked Sen. George D. Aiken, R-Vt., the other day, "is disgusted with us."

Sen. Clifford Case, R-N.J.: "Congress is becoming the laughing stock of the nation."

An old saying by Mark Twain suddenly has become a current wisecrack in Washington: "Suppose you were an idiot. And suppose you were a member of Congress. But I repeat myself."

COMMITTEE TYRANNY

The serious critics of the 88th Congress are not primarily concerned with which bills have passed or not passed. What they denounce is the "tyranny of committee chairmen"—a system under which one man can deny Congress its right, privilege and duty to vote on a piece of legislation.

If a committee chairman personally disapproves of a bill, he simply bottles it up in his committee.

Walter Lippman, an even-tempered journalist, writes:

"It cannot be denied, I think, that the 88th Congress has been paralyzed by furtive filibuster in the committees, by what may fairly be described as a conspiracy to suspend representative government."

A stranger entering the Senate or House galleries usually is either surprised or shocked. He expects to see a group of intelligent men debating an issue and preparing to take a vote. What he usually sees is a few men lounging in their chairs, reading newspapers and paying no attention to what is being said by the man on his feet.

VERY STRANGE

A visitor from Europe described the House: "It is very strange. A man gets up to speak and says nothing of importance. Nobody listens and then everybody disagrees."

President Johnson already has had his first brush with Congress and he won it.

He compelled members of the House to return from Christmas vacations, meet at 7 a.m. on Christmas Eve and pass a foreign aid appropriations bill.

He cracked the whip over the Senate on the same bill with somewhat less success. Only 11 of the 100 senators showed up and the vote had to be postponed, but eventually the Senate yielded and passed the bill.

GOODWILL

Johnson assumed the presidency with a vast reservoir of good will among congressmen.

He has been a representative, a senator and Democratic leader of the Senate. He was personally popular on what is known here as "the Hill," a name given to the Capitol because it is built on land 88 feet above the level of the Potomac River and towers over the flatlands of Washington.

A president can use up his credit on the Hill very fast, and Johnson's problem, starting this week, is to decide how rapidly to demand payment for favors done in the past.

Eventually every president has to make a basic decision — whether to drive his legislation through Congress or sit back and hope for the best. Either way he is likely to be in trouble.

DRIVERS

Woodrow Wilson and Franklin D. Roosevelt were driving presidents. Congress finally rebelled and defeated them on the issues of the League of Nations and increasing the size of the Supreme Court.

Harry Truman was a driving president and suffered defeat after defeat in the 80th Congress, dominated by Republicans. He turned this to political advantage by storming up and down the country denouncing "this no good Congress, this worst Congress in the history of the United States," thereby winning an upset presidential victory over Thomas E. Dewey.

Dwight D. Eisenhower was pretty much a "hands off" president so far as Congress was concerned, but the time came when he lost his temper because the Senate refused to confirm his choice for a subordinate government office.

"He pounded his huge desk in wrath against 'those damn monkeys on the Hill,'" writes Emmet John Hughes in "The Order of Power" . . . "loudly exclaiming 'I simply will not have those monkeys telling me what I can and can't do.'"

CAUTIOUS APPROACH

John F. Kennedy had a cautious approach to Congress. In public he resisted criticizing even when there was provocation, and he was careful to point out that the legislative branch of the government had its prerogatives and duties.

What he said about certain members of Congress in private has not yet been made public, but there have been reports that occasionally he described them in colorful language.

The Senate and House operate under strict rules. Some of these rules were written to legislate for an America which depended for its transportation on horse-drawn vehicles moving across mud roads. They have no logical bearing on today's problems and conditions.

But it is the unwritten rules that occasionally give the country the impression that Congress exists in a wildly unreasonable, Alice-in-Wonderland environment. One of these is the rule on seniority.

FRESHMEN SENATORS

Freshmen senators are not supposed to make speeches on the floor, and Donald R. Matthews describes a weird performance on the occasion of the birthday of the late Sen. William E. Borah:

"The older senators made speeches about Borah. Then a freshman senator got on his feet and started a similar eulogy . . . but between each of his laudatory references, Borah loudly whispered: 'That S.O.B., that S.O.B.' He didn't dislike the speaker; he just didn't feel he should speak so soon."

Discuss News Agency

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—Education ministers and officials from 24 African nations in a meeting here discussed formation of an all-African news agency and exchange of radio programs.

Cape Kennedy a Hard Place to Leave

By ALVIN B. WEBB JR.

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI) — Cape Kennedy is more than just another place to live. It is a way of life, a sort of 20th Century pioneering.

Our days at Spaceport, U. S. A., are accomplished. This family of Webbs is trekking out to Houston, Tex., to open a new United Press International bureau at the federal space agency's manned spaceport center.

But we found what others who have gone before have found—that departing the unique environs of Cape Kennedy is difficult indeed.

One wonders why.

The residential areas could hardly be considered attractive in the spotty communities—Cocoa Beach, Cocoa, Rockledge, Titusville, Cape Canaveral City, Satellite Beach, Melbourne and so on—that dot the flat countryside within a 30-mile radius of the missile testing center.

FABULOUS PRICES

Fairly attractive apartments can run as high as $300 or more for two or three bedrooms. And about the only thing fabulous about many of the houses is the price—$27,000 and upwards for three bedrooms. Waterfront is extra.

The whole pace is in a "boomtown" orbit, and the prices are right there too. Food and merchandise are New Yorkish in cost. Schools are too few and often too far away, and there is not a full four-year college within 50 miles.

The tap water is so bad that even the normally unfinicky Webb cats will not drink it. Snakes of the rattling variety abound and occasionally choose to sun their 5-foot length in one's front yard.

Mosquitoes feed lavishly every year on the 150,000 hapless residents.

The rate of alcoholic consumption is high, possibly because of the constant tension and the instant planning of activities for a restless populace.

DIVORCE RATE HIGH

The divorce rate is high because of high-pressure working conditions that can demand a man's presence on the job for upwards of 100 hours a week.

Roads are too few and too crowded, and a drive from Cape Kennedy to one's home 10 miles away can turn into a one-hour proposition at the wrong time of day. The accident rate is high and getting higher.

The weather at Cape Kennedy borders on the atrocious. The

3 Fishermen Caught on Ice

GLASTONBURY, Conn. (AP)

—Three perh fishermen spent several frantic minutes floating down the Connecticut River on a giant cake of ice.

Charles Gilmore, 64, Hartford Peter H. Phillips, 56, Glastonbury, and an unidentified man were fishing from an outcropping of ice Sunday when an oil tanker came around a bend in the river.

"We grabbed our things and headed for shore," Phillips said "but before we could make it there was a big boom and the ice broke off from the shore."

Phillips said the floe was about 12 inches thick and a quarter of an acre in area. He said they floated down the river for about 200 yards before two men in a motorboat rescued them.

Despite the scare, Phillips said it was a pretty good day, explaining: "We caught five gallons of perch."

summer's humidity seeps into the very marrow of one's bones. Winter temperatures can run a 60-degree gamut in 24 hours. And there is the monsoon season, about three times a year, when it rains almost horizontal.

Even a quiet evening at home can be trying. The nearest television stations are 60 miles away, and it's a toss-up as to whether you will get Dr. Kildare or a screenful of snow.

The mail service is slow, and the telephone is a gamble, particularly if it rains over one-half inch.

HATE TO GO

The residents cuss, fuss, scream, argue, rant and rave. But still they come, and still they hate to go.

And one still wonders why.

Some have left Cape Kennedy without a second thought. One missile worker, now in Denver, said succinctly: "I just don't want to see that damned place again."

Others have left, and bitterly regretted every minute of it. A top flight aerospace company executive, now at the firm's headquarters on the West Coast, said "Come back? Hell, I'd be here tomorrow if someone would offer even just enough money to live from day to day."

Still another, now further up the East Coast near Washington, is still trying to convince himself: "Oh, we like it fine. The work is great. Still, we sort of miss all this ..."

And some flatly refuse to leave, no matter how bad life becomes for them at Cape Kennedy.

One, once a top project official on a now-dead program, has been scouting around for a job, almost any job, that will keep his family fed, clothed and sheltered.

And for him, that job has to be at Cape Kennedy.

There is a peculiar, almost deadly fascination about the boisterous, booming spaceport that is its gift to you—in return for what seems like a chunk of your heart, or maybe a little of your soul.

Probably no one will ever define this strange tie. And only those who break it—or who try—could ever know its strength.

Public Hearing Tonight

Romeo to Air Zone Hassle

ROMEO — One thing is certain about the public hearing tonight on the controversial apartment building proposed for construction on Main.

There definitely will be some conflicting opinions presented.

J. Gerald McLean, attorney representing neighbors of the site at 377 Main, contends his backers are "uniformly opposed to the multiple dwellings."

Local builder Harold Fritz, who wants to construct the two-story, 16-unit apartment, is positive "the people of the community are in favor of this."

Village Clerk Mrs. Dorothy Carl said the hearing is "the only thing on the agenda."

FIRST PRESENTATION

Fritz first presented his proposal for erecting the colonial-style apartment in November.

Under current zoning rules only one-family or two-family dwellings can be built in that area.

When Fritz first presented his proposal, McLean turned over petitions bearing 48 signatures of residents opposed to the idea. He argued then, and still contends, that rezoning for apartments will open the door to further changes. McLean says the area is basically residential.

"I think it's a matter of zoning practice to have certain areas kept for certain uses," he argues.

"In the long run deviating from an acceptable zoning pattern produces a community where there is no protection for homeowners in any part of town."

Fritz doesn't think so.

He points out that within two blocks there is a school yard, doctor's office, gas station, state police headquarters, and a convalescent home.

"State Highway Department statistics show 4,200 cars pass here every day," he argues. "Professional appraisers say the apartment will enhance the value of surrounding property."

The builder says he will cater to retired couples, charging them $150 a month for up-to-date apartments which feature air conditioning, disposals and built-in ovens.

"We already have a waiting list," Fritz says.

The usefulness of the list, to anybody, will be decided at tonight's council session.

THE WINNAH! — Michael Glover checked in at 9:29 a.m. Saturday to be the first baby born in 1964 at the Community Hospital near Almont. The winner of the annual Baby Derby at the hospital is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Almeron E. Glover, 160 Bancroft, Imlay City. He is shown here with his mother who has just been told of the many gifts the family will receive from area merchants in recognition of her baby's timely arrival. The hospital also is foregoing the delivery charge.

College Aide Departs for Viet Mission

AVON TOWNSHIP — Maurice Hall, admissions director and assistant to the president of Michigan Christian College since its opening five years ago, departs today for mission work in Viet Nam.

Hall, who lived at 1913 Dawes while working at the college, is leaving with his family for four years of service in Saigon, under sponsorship of Royal Oak's Church of Christ.

In addition to his administrative duties at Michigan Christian College, he taught French and Missions there.

Prior to working with President Otis Gatewood, Hall was a missionary in France for eight years.

BRIEFING PERIOD

Today he leaves for a short briefing period in Washington. He will travel to Paris and Moscow on his way to Saigon.

Fire Damages Home in White Lake Twp.

WHITE LAKE TOWNSHIP — Extensive damage to the contents of the Frank Hoff home at 7645 Highland was caused by a Saturday afternoon fire.

The blaze of undetermined origin was confined to one bedroom of the five-room wooden frame house, but heat and smoke damaged all of the contents, according to White Lake firemen.

Markers Urged for Slow Vehicles

EAST LANSING — Travelers along county roads and highways may begin seeing triangular shocking-orange markers attached to tractors and other slow-moving vehicles this year.

The marker, developed at Ohio University, hopefully is becoming the nationwide symbol for a vehicle that hums along at less than 25 miles an hour.

The student chapter of the American Society of Agricultural Engineers at Michigan State University is promoting the use of such markers in Michigan.

ATTACH EASILY

They may be attached to the seat of a trailer, or, through use of a special mount, on the back of an implement pulled by a tractor, and may be shifted between vehicles easily.

The center area of the marker is fluorescent yellow-orange and, according to tests, is visible more than one-half mile away.

The outside area is dark red and reflective and may be sighted 2,000 feet away with bright auto lights at night, or 1,500 feet away with normal lights.

The colored areas are patches of adhesive material attached to an aluminum-alloy plate. Tests have shown there is no natural deterioration problem with the red areas although the orange fluorescent film does deteriorate through exposure to sunlight.

POLICE, DEALERS

The student organization has approached state police and heavy farm machinery dealers in the state so far in its drive to put the markers into use.

Truman Surbrook of Rives Junction, president of the student group, said some machinery dealers have agreed to display the markers in showrooms.

Surbrook added the ag engineers will show the emblems at Farmers' Week at MSU Feb. 3-7 and will make them available to farmers who wish to try them.

The need for a slow-moving vehicle symbol was emphasized when accident studies showed two out of three slow vehicle accidents were rear-end collisions and also indicated flags or lights did not solve the problem.

NOT ELIMINATED

The ag engineers stress, however, that use of the marker does not eliminate the need for rear-end lights at night.

Proposal in Walled Lake Asks New Court System

WALLED LAKE — Final approval of a municipal court proposal which will appear on the April ballot is expected at tomorrow night's City Council meeting.

The proposal has been prepared by City Attorney Howard I. Bond.

The proposition will ask voters to approve conversion from a justice of the peace to municipal court system.

Gene Schnelz, attorney now serving as Walled Lake's justice of the peace, is backing the proposed change.

Tomorrow night's meeting is scheduled for 8 in the municipal office.

B'Nai B'rith Seeks Parts for Glasses

Suburban chapter B'Nai B'rith this month is responding to the plea of overseas doctors for eyeglass frames and lenses.

Members have placed boxes for the collection of these items at three locations.

The used glasses will be sent to Viet Nam, Korea and wherever else the need exists.

Throughout January the collection boxes will be at the Big D Super Market, Middle Belt and 14 Mile; the A & P Food Store, 13 Mile and Orchard Lake Road; and Mayfair Market, Northwestern and Orchard Lake Road.

Antitax Group Plans Appeal

Will Ask High Court to Rule on Petitions

BERKLEY — The Vigilance Committee today agreed to appeal to the State Supreme Court a ruling by the State Board of Canvassers nullifying their petitions seeking legislative action against city income taxes.

The committee, made up primarily of officials of Detroit suburbs, selected its legal subcommittee chairman, Southfield Mayor S. James Clarkson, to carry the appeal to the Supreme Court.

The group also said it plans to file a grievance petition with the legislature asking the lawmakers to call for the petitions directly.

REJECTED PETITIONS

The Board of Canvassers rejected petitions bearing some 53,000 signatures on the grounds that the names were obtained before the last governor's election, which determined the number of signatures necessary.

The petitions seek voter approval before a community can impose an income tax and also would prohibit a city income tax from being levied on nonresidents working in the city.

Supper Set in Thomas

THOMAS — A turkey and ham supper will be served Thursday at the Thomas Community Hall, beginning at 5:30 p.m. Proceeds will go into the church building fund of the Thomas Methodist Church.

Colleen Kelly Wed to Ronald G. Cimini

LAKE ORION — The Lake Orion Methodist Church was the setting for the recent marriage of Colleen Kelly and Ronald G. Cimini.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Lawless, 311 North Shore. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. George T. Cimini Jr., 357 North Shore.

For her wedding, the bride chose a floor-length gown of taffeta that featured a bouffant skirt, trimmed at the bottom with three tiers of Chantilly lace and ending in a chapel train.

A rose headpiece, studded with seed pearls and crystals, held her shoulder-length veil of French illusion. She carried a white orchid surrounded with red roses.

ATTENDANTS

Jennifer Hannan was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Carolyn Stevens and Melanie Kelly, sister of the bride.

Serving as best man was Richard Warrington of Warren. The guests were seated by Fred Parton and Thomas Cimini, brother of the bridegroom.

Little Sandra Cimini, sister of the bridegroom, was flower girl.

'64 Sirens Set Traps for Opposite Sex

NEW YORK (AP) — Setting the tender trap was the subject of study Sunday by more than 200 Leap Year — minded fashion writers here for the opening sessions of Press Week.

The varied program of man-lures included big flirtatious hats, siren hairpieces, shadowy black stockings, fast track shoes and a web of intriguing costumes woven by romantic little silk worms.

The New York Couture Group and the American Designers Group are conducting competing spring previews for the writers.

Somehow everybody got enough of the messages to pass them along to the girls back home.

Busts of Cleopatra watched from pedestals in a Cairo night club atmosphere as stylist Lilly Dache explained that the siren of '64 has replaced the sweet young thing of 1963.

PALE LOOK

The 1964 siren will avoid tans at all costs, says Miss Dache. Her skin will be pale in contrast to strong eye shadow and bright lips.

Black and brown stockings will create the smoky, tantalizing leg effect under black dresses with tch-tch necklines and fluttery short skirts.

A reminder that the married woman should not be less a temptress during Leap Year, either, was "the other woman" dress — black, of course, bare-shouldered, with two tiers of clingy crepe.

However, the show ended appropriately with a wedding dress, giddy with white, ostrich feathers symbolic that it's the early Leap Year bird who catches the worm.

David Kidd designs a three part 'weskit' suit for the Spring 1964 collection of Arthur Jablow. The Iris blue skirt and jacket are of Leseur wickerweave, the sleeveless weskit blouse of imported rayon.

Roxane designed this urbane three-piece suit of black and white silk and wool tweed for Samuel Winston. The brisk little jacket closes in a single file of white buttons up to a narrow collar set away from the neckline. Its white overblouse is rimmed with matching tweed.

Shetland wool knit interprets a pale pink Chanel-type suit by Junior Sophisticates from their Spring 1964 collection. The jacket, detailed with scalloped crochet trim, is worn above a slim skirt. Buttons are self-fabric.

A three-piece suit in imported from France linen. The skirt and jacket in navy with brass button closing — the weskit in white with brass buttons.

She May Be Crooked

Beware Fortune-Teller

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: A friend took me to a card reader yesterday just for fun, and I haven't been able to sleep a wink since.

Although I don't have any confidence in this woman's ability to read the future, she knocked me right off my feet.

She said that my husband was going to die shortly, that he had been having blackouts at work but didn't want to tell me for fear of worrying me.

She said I shouldn't let on that I know because it might upset him and he might die sooner.

She also said someone wished me bad luck and she could break the spell by selling me some good luck charms at $10 each for myself and my children. (I didn't buy any. I think she's nuts.)

She charges $5.00 a reading. I'd like to report this woman. But where?

DISTURBED

DEAR DISTURBED: Start with your local District Attorney. The "reader" sounds like a public nuisance. The "friend" sounds like an enemy.

DEAR ABBY: I am a 14-year-old girl who has been wearing eyeglasses since I was 6.

I have to wear them all the time now, for reading, writing, watching TV and for seeing things far away, too.

My problem is the ugly red marks I get on my face. Do you know of any creams or treatments that will take off those terrible red marks?

MARKED
DEAR MARKED: Go to your optician and ask him to check your eyeglasses. If they fit properly, they should not make ugly red marks on your face.

Reply Cards Are Not in Good Taste

By The Emily Post Institute

Q: I have received quite a few wedding invitations of late containing printed reply cards and pre-stamped envelopes. Am I wrong in thinking these cards in bad taste?

Soon I will also be sending out wedding invitations. I would like to adhere to what I think is right and print RSVP on each invitation.

However, I'm afraid I will be criticized for trying to save money if I don't enclose stamped, reply cards. What do you think I should do?

A: Reply cards are not in good taste for social invitations and I would definitely suggest that you follow your impulse and include RSVP on the invitations and not worry about what others may think.

Q: My husband and I were in a hospital elevator the other evening along with several women passengers. We were closest to the door.

When we reached the main floor I got out first, but my husband stepped aside to allow all the women to leave first. I think this was wholly unnecessary but he insists it was only common courtesy to do so. What is your opinion?

A: If the elevator was crowded, he should have followed you and not blocked the way of others by waiting for all the women to leave before him.

MRS. JAMES E. ZINK

After Honeymoon

Pair to Live in Pontiac

The James Edward Zinks (Beverly Jean Segedi) who were wed Saturday in St. Michael Church will reside in Pontiac after a honeymoon at Niagara Falls.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mathew Segedi of Sylvan Lake, the bride chose a gown of white tulle with front panel and bodice detail of Chantilly-type lace.

Her bubble veil of illusion was fitted to a double crown of pearls and crystals. Sweetheart roses centered her cascade of Stephanotis and Pittosporum.

Alumnae Help WSU Chapter

Betty Hayes of Beverly Hills will open her home for the 8 p.m. Thursday meeting of Delta Zeta, group II.

Assisting Miss Hayes as co-hostess will be Mrs. James M. Dobie Jr. and Mrs. Jerry D. Stephenson.

Mary Jo Kurk will direct the alumnae group in the construction of party favors and name tags for the Wayne State University chapter.

wore royal blue brocade with matching taffeta overskirts. Coronets of blue velvet leaves and white carnations tipped in larkspur blue completed their ensembles.

Jeriann and Keith Staley attended their aunt as flower girl and ring-bearer, respectively.

BROTHER

Thomas Zink stood as best man for his brother. They are the sons of John C. Zinks of East Columbia Avenue. Jerry Staley ushered with the bridegroom's cousin Charles Johnson.

A reception in the V.F.W. Hall followed the nuptial ceremony.

Mrs. Ross Tenny opened her home on Cherokee Road for the January meeting of Rho chapter, Alpha Delta Kappa Sorority. Mrs. Theodore Fauble was cohostess.

Dr. Edith Roach Snyder and daughter Sharon guided the group on an armchair tour of Europe. Margaret Scott provided audio-visual equipment for the colored slides taken by Dr. Snyder on her recent trip.

Drink Last Dregs of Mug With Dog

Youngsters might drink to the very last drop with a mealtime show — right from the mug.

OU to Show Paintings

A reception will be held from 2 to 5 p.m. Sunday in the Oakland Center at Oakland University for Robert A. Thom and George A. Bender, artist-authors.

The reception will open a two week exhibit of their series of medical history pictures. The Oakland County Medical Society and the University's Division of Continuing Education are sponsors of the event.

Thom, of Birmingham, was commissioned in 1955 by a pharmaceutical firm to do a series of 45 medical pictures as a tribute to the medical profession. Forty-two have been prepared and the rest are expected to be completed this year.

VIEWING HOURS

The exhibit, open to the public free of charge, has never been shown in the area of the artist's home. The hours are from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. Monday through Friday and 1 to 10 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

Receiving visitors to the exhibit Jan. 12 will be officers of the Oakland County Medical Society; Dr. Robert M. Bookmyer, president; Dr. Harry Arnkoff, past president and Dr. Robert J. Mason, counselor, 15th district of the Michigan Medical Society.

University official greeting guests will be Chancellor D. B. Varner and Dean Donald D. O'Dowd.

As new as Chicago's Marina City, where it was photographed, is the Newport inlay pattern of a 41-inch round pedestal table by B. Brody Seating Co., Chicago. Shown here in cheery Pumpkin and Frost White high pressure laminate, the petal-like design also comes in other colors and woodgrain pattern combinations. A matching leaf expands the top into a 59-inch oval. Chairs, also available in many colors and patterns, have comfortably high backs and channel seats. Available in February through department, furniture, and kitchen specialty stores across the nation, the five-piece group will cost around $254.

For a fresh approach to contemporary dining elegance, try a cool blend of white, vivid blue, and a touch of brass for sparkle. In this new metal group a white oval table with split pedestal base and high pressure laminate top expands from 41x54 inches to 41x71 inches. A single leaf does it. Pedestal chairs, softly upholstered in El Dorado Blue fabric-backed vinyl, have smooth swivel action. Available in widely assorted colors and patterns, the seven-piece set is priced at under $280.

Now is the time to put the whole family on a pedestal, at least for mealtime. Tip-proof bases on slim swivel chairs and a surfboard-shape table with 30x42-inch solid top make this new metal dining set a good bet for young families. There's emphasis on practicality with fabric-backed vinyl upholstery and a high pressure laminate table top, both available in a wide range of colors and patterns. Price about $126.

Pastel Flowers, Frocks Set Scene for Wedding

The Gingellville Baptist Church was the setting on Saturday for the vows of Ruth Ellen Freeman and Paul Leo Motdoch.

A church reception followed the afternoon ceremony performed by Rev. Frank Racine of Bethany Tabernacle, Rochester.

Daughter of the Joseph C. Freemans of Georgia drive, the bride chose a bouffant gown of Chantilly lace over white satin, styled with tiered floor-length skirt.

A double pearl crown held her fingertip illusion veil and a corsage of pink roses centered her circular bouquet of white carnations and pink feathered carnations.

Penelope Jo Hart, maid of honor, appeared in larkspur blue silk brocade and carried a round bouquet of blue-tipped carnations.

John Motdoch attended his brother as best man. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Leo J. Motdoch of Baldwin Road. Joseph Howey and Dees Hendley Jr. seated the guests.

After a brief honeymoon, the couple will reside in Pontiac.

New Year Challenge: Save More Money

By MARY FEELEY
Consultant in Money Management

Everybody's wishing you a prosperous 1964, with an unexpected windfall and pie right out of the sky. But what I wish most of you is a new attitude toward your same old income! You may be living with it for quite a while.

Most of us split our seams trying to earn more money. The wonder is that we don't make better use of what we already have.

If you're looking for a new challenge for the New Year, see how much more you can get out of what you earn than you got out of the same amount last year.

It will almost inevitably build some savings in the bank, too. And you know the old saying—money attracts money. Hold onto that thought.

Take a new attitude toward small savings. Therein lies the secret of stability. There are quite a few ways of putting aside a dollar, without even feeling the pinch. And if you want to contest that fact, try the ones listed here before you holler:

REASSESS THAT BUDGET

Make just one more payment on that installment loan after you've paid up—only put this extra payment in a savings account. You're already in the habit of meeting that obligation. So this additional payment won't upset the budget.

This is a good time to re-evaluate your budget and see if you can't continue to put some portion of this amount aside as a regular savings.

If you receive overtime pay occasionally, bank it. Deposit something—even a dollar—in your savings account as soon as you get your pay check. Make it the first "expenditure." Carry only the running money you actually need in your pocket.

Re-evaluate your insurance.

This can lead to more protection perhaps, more borrowing potential when you need it.

Plan two specific "economy" dinners in every week's menus. Take care of your clothes—and urge the rest of the family to do the same. Buy more washables.

You spend more on upkeep than you realize. Use household equipment with care—follow the maker's instructions. You'll cut down on repair bills.

TRY A JUG BANK

Remember you're paying transportation every time you use the car. If you had to drop money in the coin box each time, how many times would you walk rather than ride? It's a good question to ask the family. Try keeping a household family bank. A family vacation might be one good objective.

This last idea proved a real

"find" for one family, who used an old jug for a bank. No doubt the container suggested a high old time, so everybody contributed. Anyway, in a matter of months the jug collected $147.

Each member dropped in a coin whenever he thought about it or had an extra piece of change in his pocket. The whole family was happily stunned to see how much could be accumulated with so little pain.

Discovery is always exciting. So discover how much more you can have than you thought you could. Start off with the assumption that you haven't been getting the full benefit of your earnings. But this year you're going to—or know the reason why.

(You can write Mary Feeley in care of The Pontiac Press. She will answer questions of widest interest in her column.)

Mrs. J. J. Guglielmello Jr.

Local Girl Married in New Jersey

Janet Irene Miller, recently of Orchard Lake, and Jerry Joseph Guglielmello Jr., were wed Saturday in the Church of the Ascension, New Milford, N. J.

The couple will reside in Spring Valley, N. Y. after a honeymoon in the Pocono Mountains.

Their parents are the Clinton M. Wrights of New Milford and the senior Guglielmellos of Piermont, N. Y.

With her gown of white bouquet taffeta appliqued with Alencon lace, the bride wore a bouffant French illusion veil. She carried white orchids, Stephanotis and variegated ivy.

Mrs. Richard Mohill, Jean Wright, and Anne and Katherine Guglielmello attended the bride.

Rocco Guglielmello was best man for his brother. Richard Wright, John Leone and Carl Codello ushered.

Husband "too tired" for good times?

If your husband keeps coming home too "beat" to be gay and stimulating, too worn out to take you out, remember—the hectic "rat race" of today's business requires men to perform like human dynamos day after day, which builds up churning tensions that rob literally millions of husbands of energy and vigor, they might otherwise enjoy!

What can you do to help counteract this tension-caused loss of vitality?

Many leading nutritionists recommend augmenting the daily diet with America's great "bounce-back" food, famous Kretschmer Wheat Germ. Made from the nutrition-rich, germinating heart of the kernel, wheat germ is one of the most healthful foods known.

KRETSCHMER

Kretschmer Wheat Germ actually supplies a whopping 30 nutrients helpful to good health and youthful vigor!

Serve your husband this remarkable food every day and see how much more pep and vitality he has! Use these delicious, tiny toasted flakes as a cereal, on cereal, or add to pancakes, waffles, scrambled eggs, etc.

Thrifty, tasty Kretschmer Wheat Germ is great for the entire family, so be sure to get some. Look for it in vacuum-sealed glass jars in the cereal section of your food store. Choose either regular or Sugar 'N Honey.

GUARANTEE—(1) Kretschmer Wheat Germ is one of the most healthful foods known; (2) Your family will like its nut-like flavor. If not satisfied, just write your name, address, and price paid on back of label and mail to Kretschmer, Carrollton, Mich., for full refund.

Dr. Wayne G. Brandstadt Says:

Home Care Plan Cuts Costs, Lifts Morale

If you were sick where would you rather be — at home or in a hospital? Most of us would rather be at home.

Recognizing this fact, hospitals in many communities have inaugurated home care plans whereby patients in some categories can be treated at home without any sacrifice of adequate medical care.

Although the Boston Dispensary has had such a plan for 167 years, the plan has not yet been adopted by more than a small percentage of hospitals but the idea is becoming more popular as appreciation of its advantages increases.

Some patients in hospitals who would otherwise have to remain there for many months are sent home under this plan but are still carried on the hospital records as patients for whom the hospital is responsible.

Others may be admitted to the hospital's home care plan without entering the hospital at all.

This type of service is particularly applicable to persons with chronic heart disease, paralysis, various kinds of rheumatism, cancer (after operation) and some mental illnesses.

CAN EXTEND SERVICES

This plan makes it possible for a hospital to extend its services to a larger number of persons without the necessity of building a new wing.

Treatment is still supervised by a staff doctor and the patients are attended by nurses, interns, dietitians, physical therapists and laboratory technicians as the occasion demands.

The services vary with the hospital using this plan. Some are limited to making a diagnosis and providing drugs.

Others add minor operations and consultations with staff specialists.

Nurses may change dressings, give hypodermic injections or demonstrate to the patient's family procedures for his care.

The home atmosphere gives a distinct boost to the patient's morale and in that way speeds recovery.

The presence of the patient at home also relieves the family of worry, allows them to share in his care and eliminates a sometimes difficult trip to the hospital.

Also the cost of treatment is reduced to about one-fourth of what it would be were the patient in the hospital.

Only those patients whose recovery will not be hindered by such care are selected.

EXTEND COVERAGE

In some states where home care programs have been rapidly increasing in popularity the Blue Cross and other voluntary health insurance plans are extending coverage to recipients of home hospital care.

As the times change, methods of providing medical care change.

When such changes represent an improvement they are received with enthusiasm as the home care programs of an ever-increasing number of hospitals have been.

SAN JOSE, Costa Rica (AP)—Irazu volcano, whose constant activity has brought this Central American republic to the edge of a national emergency, erupted anew this weekend.

The fresh eruptions Saturday and late Friday thickened the cloud of volcanic ash that makes this capital city of 250,000 seem wrapped in fog. Its noisy, fiery eruptions could be seen and heard from San Jose, 30 miles away. Hundreds of rocks too hot to touch were showered down the mountain-side.

San Diego Charges to AFL Title, 51-10

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—The San Diego Chargers have established to the eminent satisfaction of most precincts, and to the acute dissatisfaction of Boston, that they are the finest team in the American Football League.

And San Diego Coach Sid Gillman declared Sunday—after the chargers won their first AFL title by demolishing Boston 51-10—that his club wouldn't disgrace itself in a game with the National Football League champions.

To which AFL Commissioner

Joe Foss added that a football World Series between the AFL and NFL champions may be only a year or two away.

For the present, the suggestion that the Chargers are ready for the Chicago Bears is likely to provoke nothing more than an interminable debate. But it was clear Sunday that the Chargers were ready for something substantially better than Boston.

TOP PERFORMANCE

The Chargers gained 610 yards rushing and passing. San Diego's Keith Lincoln, in the greatest performance ever given by an AFL running back, made 206 yards as a rusher, 123 more as a pass receiver and 20 as a passer. That gave him the astonishing sum of 349 yards gained in a single game and made him almost the unanimous choice as the game's outstanding player.

Foss, asked about the possibility of a title game between the AFL and NFL champions, told the Associated Press:

"It wouldn't surprise me if such a game were to come about within a year or two. And it wouldn't surprise me if we started playing exhibition games next summer."

Reminded that NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle only recently dismissed the idea of inter league competition, Foss said: "He's only reflecting what they used to think. There are NFL players—they won't let you use their names because they don't want to stick their necks out—who want to start playing exhibitions against our teams right now."

"It would be to their benefit. It would increase the size of the crowd because Gillman used to coach the Los Angeles Rams. Those people would fill the LA Coliseum to see Sid up there again."

Foss was asked if he thinks NFL club owners may be more sympathetic to a union of the two leagues than has been indicated.

RED FACES

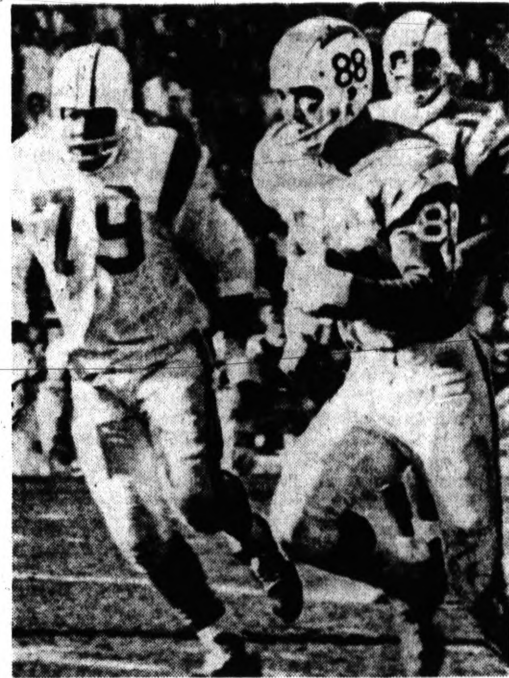

Foss expected a close game Sunday. But it took the Chargers less than five minutes of the first quarter to score enough points to win.

What happened was that Boston's defense started with a red dog and wound up with a red face.

The Patriots led the league in total defense this season and had great success with the red dog or blitz rush. On a sloppy field in Boston, the Patriots contained Lincoln and Charger half-back Paul Lowe and lost to San Diego by a single point, 7-6.

But the field was dry Sunday and the Chargers quickly neutralized the blitz by using pitch-outs and lob passes to the outside.

LONG TD PLAY — Green Bay quarterback Bart Starr fires a pass from his own end zone yesterday (top) to half-back Tom Moore (middle) who races 99 yards down the sidelines for a touchdown in the first period of the Playoff Bowl game against Cleveland. The Packers won, 40-23.

Starr, Ryan Steal Fullbacks' Thunder

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The heralded "battle of the fullbacks" turned instead into a fight for control of the air when Bart Starr passed Green Bay to a 40-23 victory over Cleveland in the Pro Playoff Bowl game Sunday.

Starr rattled the Browns with three first-half touchdown passes, breaking the record for the four-year-old series and sweeping the Packers into a big early lead.

The margin was too big for Cleveland's quarterback Frank Ryan to overcome, but he connected with 18 aerial shots for 310 yards to break the game's mark for completions and total yardage.

During this aerial bombardment, Jim Brown of the Browns and Jim Taylor of the Packers, the No. 1 and No. 2 ground gainers of the National Football League, were called upon to run the ball only 25 times between them.

Brown gained 56 yards and Taylor 44. Both were overshadowed by Earl Gros of the Packers who netted 80 yards in 11 carries for a 7.3 average, the best of the game.

STARR STARS

Starr, voted the day's outstanding player, hit Tom Moore with a touchdown pass that went for 99 yards to break the series record, and connected with Ron Kramer on an 18-yard scoring throw in the first quarter.

The 99-yard play was launched after the Browns failed in four plays to score from the Packers' two.

Brown and Ernie Greene gained only one yard in four smashes at the Green Bay line. Then Starr, from his end zone, threw to Moore who had worked his way into the clear and ran all the way untouched.

South Wins Senior Bowl; North Triumphs at Honolulu

By The Associated Press

The North received the kickoff after every touchdown, it rained in Honolulu and Duke Carlisle played defense.

That just about sums up the final day of the extended college football season Saturday, on which three all-star contests were played.

The South downed the North 28-21 in the Senior Bowl at Mobile, Ala.; the North whipped South 20-13 in the Hula Bowl at Honolulu and the Nations' trampled the Southwest 66-14 in the Challenge Bowl at Corpus Christi, Texas.

The Senior Bowl introduced the kickoff or receive option, which permits the trailing team to receive the ball after it scores. The North, behind all the way, took advantage of the innovation and nearly pulled out a victory in the final quarter.

"It (the rule) almost killed us," South Coach Tom Landry of the National Football League Dallas Cowboys said. "It makes for a much better game, but it sure puts a terrific strain on your defense and they just got tired. It caused us to lose momentum."

Behind 28-7, the North roared back in the fourth period on two

City Quintets to Open Season Tuesday Night

The Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department's basketball program will swing into its regular season beginning Tuesday night.

The men's National League will be under way first with two games at Madison Junior High. Town & Country will play the Pontiac Police at 7 p.m. and Wilson's All Stars will clash with Messiah Baptist Church at 8:30 p.m.

The men's American League will start play Wednesday night at Pontiac Northern with Southwest Community Club (defending city champions) meeting the Bachelors' Club at 7 p.m.

Corr's Fuel & Oil will play West Bloomfield Heating at 8:30 p.m. The Class D league will also start the same night at Lincoln Junior High.

touchdown passes by Utah State's Bill Munson, who was one of a number of star quarterbacks in the game.

Miami's George Mira passed for one touchdown for the South as did Billy Lothridge of Georgia Tech.

Lothridge's scoring aerial came on a bizarre play. Lothridge was set to attempt a field goal, but Larry Rakestraw, Georgia quarterback, fumbled the snap back. Lothridge scooped up the ball and fired a six-yard pass to Tech end Billy Martin.

In Honolulu, rain bothered just about everyone except Pete Liske. The Penn State quarterback led the North to two touchdowns and was named the game's outstanding back.

After Liske led the North on an 85-yard scoring march,

Lion Halfback Hurt in Crash

Faces Court Charge as Woman Dies

CHICAGO (AP)—Larry Ferguson, 23, Detroit Lions halfback, has been charged with reckless homicide in connection with the death of a woman in an auto accident Saturday night, police said today.

Ferguson was injured when he was thrown from the car in a near head-on crash in suburban Park Forest. His condition was reported as good by a doctor at St. James Hospital in suburban Chicago Heights. He said Ferguson probably would be able to leave the hospital today or Tuesday.

Earlier police had charged Ferguson with improper lane usage.

ANOTHER HURT

Mrs. Renee Birch, 21, of Chicago, was killed in the crash. Her husband, Frederick, was injured. Also injured was Jerry Foster, 24, of Madison, Ill., who was riding with Ferguson.

Ferguson, also of Madison, told police he was headed for Chicago to see about an off-season job in a boys' camp in Ottawa, Ill.

Charlie Taylor of Arizona State tallied on a 26-yard run. That and the extra point gave the South a 7-6 lead. But Liske came right back, engineered another successful drive and ran for the two-point conversion.

Emmitt Augustus Carlisle III, the Duke who brilliantly passed and ran Texas to the big Cotton Bowl victory over Navy, played for the Southwest in the Challenge Bowl but only on defense in the losing cause. The Texan preferred defense because that's the position he's aiming for in the pros.

Neither Carlisle nor any of his defensive mates, however, could stop the Nations' George Bork, Hugh Rohrschneider, Matt Snell and George Byrd.

Bork passed for three touchdowns, ran for another and set up two more as he completed 20 of 27 tosses for 243 yards. Rohrschneider, Bork's Northern Illinois teammate, caught 10 passes for 207 yards and helped set up four touchdowns.

Snell, of Ohio State, scored four times while Byrd, of Boston University, tallied three times.

Sullivan Award Won by Pennel; Jones Fourth

NEW YORK (UPI) — Pole vaulter John Pennel, who admits he had a "jumping complex even when I was little," today was jumping with joy over his selection as winner of the 1963 James E. Sullivan award.

Pennel received 165 first place votes and a total of 1,115 points in the balloting of 524 sportsmen, who were asked to select the American amateur athlete who "by performance, example and good influence did the most to advance the cause of good sportsmanship" in 1963.

Hawaiian weightlifter Tommy Kono was runnerup in the voting for the third straight year, totaling 140 first place votes and 931 points.

Sprinter Bob Hayes of Florida A.&M., garnered 54 first place votes and 628 points to finish third.

Fourth in the voting was hurdler Hayes Jones from Pontiac followed by gymnast Mrs. Muriel Davis Grossfeld of New Haven, Conn.

Samardzija Tops Keglers in Tourney

Pontiac's Mike Samardzija Jr. made his first stop on a three-city tour that will end up in Dallas, Tex. a successful one yesterday.

The Huron Bowl kegler took first place in the individual competition and led Huron Bowl to second place ($500) behind the Harper Tire team of Detroit in a star-studded tournament at Calumet City, Ill.

Other members of the Huron squad were Joe Bonfiglio, Steve Nagy, Morrie Oppenheimer and Murray Ross. Billy Golembiewski led the Harpers team effort.

Samardzija had the top three-game score at 716 (including a 279). For four games his total was 906. Oppenheimer had 821 and Bonfiglio 817. The team score was 4046 to 4099 for Harpers.

The St. Louis Professional Bowlers' Association Open this weekend is the next stop on the tour and then Samardzija will be one of the Michigan delegation at the National All Star Tournament in Dallas.

of the $50,000 Los Angeles Open golf tournament.

People, mostly money hungry fellow professional golfers, were peering down his neck as play resumed over the par 36-35-71 Rancho Club Course Sunday.

Undoubtedly the most prominent peeper was Arnold Palmer. The money-winning king was just three strokes back of 34-year-old Harney.

By sheer coincidence, this was exactly Palmer's position one year ago when Art Wall, Jr., was the leader. Palmer made up the difference en route to victory, and did it by three shots, with Wall somewhat shaken back five strokes in arrears.

Immediately behind the greying golfing pride of Worcester, Mass., were Bobby Nichols and Jimmy Clark. Harney had a 54-hole score of 209, Nichols and Clark 210.

ALONE AT 211

Jay Hebert was alone at 211 and then came Palmer, along with Al Geiberger and Al Balding.

Harney fired a brilliant 66 Sunday which included the biggest shot of the day, a seven-iron blast that traveled 155 yards and plopped in for an eagle two on the 14th hole.

Record Loss, Tie in NHL Weekend Play

Deadlock Canadians With Goal in Third; Boston Moves Up

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Red Wings once again are fighting to stay in fourth place in the National Hockey League, after picking up only one point in two weekend games.

The Red Wings blew a two-goal lead but managed a 3-3 tie with Montreal Sunday night after losing to New York 5-2 Saturday afternoon.

The Rangers downed Toronto 3-2 Sunday for their third straight victory. They are only three points back of Detroit.

Toronto had shut out the league-leading Chicago Black Hawks 3-0 Saturday night, while Montreal skated to a 5-1 triumph over Boston. Chicago upped its lead over Montreal to three points with a 5-3 victory over Boston Sunday.

FIRST GOAL

Bill Gadsby opened the scoring for Detroit Sunday when he beat Montreal goalie Charlie Hodge on a shot from the left point with a little more than six minutes gone in the game.

The Detroit defenseman later struck his head on the glass and was taken to a hospital for x-rays. He had been hit in the head by a puck in Saturday's game, and bumped his head on the same spot Sunday. Gadsby recently was sidelined with a back injury.

Parker MacDonald steered Doug Barkley's point shot past Hodge on a power play less than two minutes after Gadsby's goal to put the Red Wings ahead 2-0.

The Canadiens got one goal back midway in the opening stanza when Jean Beliveau fed a perfect pass to Bernie Geoffrion and the Montreal right winger went in alone and slapped one past Terry Sawchuk.

Montreal went ahead on second period goals by Beliveau and Claude Provost, and was carrying the play in the final period until Norm Ullman scored the equalizer at 14:18.

Beliveau's goal also came on a power play as Ron Ingram was sitting out the first of two penalties called against him in a three-minute span.

13 PENALTIES

In all, referee Frank Udvari called 13 penalties, with the Red Wings drawing eight of them.

Alex Faulkner returned to the Red Wings lineup after missing 16 games because of a broken bone in his left hand.

Floyd Smith was cut on the arm when a skate ripped through his shirt as he fell to the ice. The wound, which took nine stitches was not expected to sideline Smith.

At New York, rookie Dave Richardson scored his first NHL goal midway in the first period to give the Rangers a 3-1 lead.

Earl Ingarfield and Al Langlois scored the other New York goals as the Rangers picked up their fourth victory in their last five outings.

Frank Mahovlich and Carl Brewer tallied for Toronto. Beliveau grabbed a temporary lead in the individual scoring race with his two points against Detroit, but Chicago's Stan Mikita got a goal and two assists against Boston to take the lead alone with 52 points.

Detroit will be at Boston Tuesday to play the game postponed from Nov. 24.

Michigan on Top, MSU on Bottom in Big 10

U-M Downs Northwestern in Loop Debut

Illini Trim Spartans; Bronco Five Loses to Miami of Ohio

By The Associated Press
Michigan was at the top of the Big Ten basketball standings today, while Michigan State was at the bottom and Western Michigan was last in the Mid-American Conference. But this was after just one league game.

Sill, the Wolverines, who beat Northwestern 85-73 Saturday, are favored to stay on top. And Michigan State, after an 87-66 loss to Illinois, has a chance to climb tonight, when it plays host to Wisconsin.

Western dropped to the bottom temporarily by losing 86-77 to Miami (Ohio) Saturday. Calvin downed Kalamazoo 96-92, Denison clobbered Adrian 81-48, Northwood trimmed Detroit Tech 99-79, Albion lost to Western 100-68 and Lawrence Tech beat Waterloo (Ont.) in other games.

Tonight's schedule has Central Michigan at Hillsdale, Detroit at Xavier and Aquinas at Findlay. Northwestern coach Larry Glass joined the other Big Ten coaches in predicting a league title for Michigan after his squad became the Wolverines' 10th victim in their 11 games.

"I would rate Michigan right along with the other top teams we have faced this year, and we've met Kentucky and NYU," said Glass.

FAT LEAD
Michigan twice held 14 point leads before leaving the floor with a 45-33 halftime bulge.

Northwestern rallied early in the second half and closed to within four points before Cazzie Russell scored on a jump shot and added two free throws to pull the Wolverines ahead again. Russell scored 23 points in his Big Ten debut to lead Michigan.

Bill Buntin added 22, while Larry Tregoning pitched in 18. Buntin, the conference rebound king last season, hauled down 13 to lead both teams.

Rick Loposa of Northwestern topped all scorers with 29 points, with 22 of them coming in the second half.

The Wildcats now 2-6, kept in a tight zone defense for most of the game, hoping to keep Russell and Buntin away from the inside.

Michigan is idle until next Saturday, when it journeys to Lafayette, Ind., to meet Purdue.

Michigan State held a 41-40 lead at halftime against Illinois, but Tal Brody scored 14 of his 29 points in the second half to lead the comeback by the Illini, defeating Big Ten co-champions.

Brody was assigned to guard Stan Washington after the MSU star had netted 18 points in the first half. Washington got only two free throws in the final 20 minutes and paced the losers with 20.

HIGH SCORERS

Western Michigan's Manny Newsome scored 34 points in the Broncos' loss to Miami.

The game was nip and tuck during the first 20 minutes, with Miami taking a 39-36 lead at halftime. But the winners held an 18-point lead with five minutes remaining as they recorded their second straight league triumph.

Jim Frederichs scored 27 points and Bill Knoester 20 for victorious Calvin, while Jim Peters got 23 and Tom Crawford 20 for Kalamazoo.

Kalamazoo's loss was its first in MIAA play after three straight victories. Calvin is 2-0 in league play.

Boxing Secretary Out

Cavanaugh dismissed Vaughn Saturday and is open to new applicants for the post. Cavanaugh recently was appointed chairman by Gov. George Romney.

Old Man Upset Whistles Defeat for Dixie Powers

By the Associated Press

Old Man Upset whistled Dixie Saturday night and led the Southland's top basketball powers, Kentucky and Vanderbilt, into the sea for the first time this season.

The spectre, playing havoc with national rankings for the second successive week, drew assists from Kentucky-killer Georgia Tech, 76-67 over the top rated Wildcats, and Tennessee, surprise 57-55 winner over sixth-ranked Vandy.

The Kentucky and Vanderbilt setbacks in Southeastern Conference openers left UCLA, Davidson and DePaul with the only perfect records among major college fives and vaulted the Bruins, No. 2 in last week's Associated Press poll, into the heir-apparent role.

STILL UNBEATEN

UCLA walloped Washington State, 121-77, for victory No. 11 and its 13th straight in a carry-over from last season. The Bruins' unbeaten string is the longest in the nation after Vanderbilt's run of 15 was broken by Tennessee.

Seventh-ranked Davidson defeated West Virginia, 93-82, and unsung DePaul thumped Western Kentucky, 99-82, in a bid for national acclaim.

Loyola of Chicago, replaced by Kentucky in the No. 1 spot last week, got back into the 100-plus point groove with a 127-85 romp over Morehead State. The Ramblers, No. 3 and 10-1, equalled their all-time scoring output as Vic Rouse, Jack Egan, Les Hunter and Ron Miller all hit for 20 points or more.

Fifth-ranked Michigan defeated Northwestern, 85-73, in a Big Ten opener, and Duke, No. 9, overpowered North Carolina State, 91-70, while two other members of the top ten, Cincinnati and Oregon State, were knocking each other off in a weekend set.

The fourth-ranked Bearcats, now 8-3, edged the eighth-ranked Beavers, 57-53, Friday. OSU's seven-foot Mel Counts evened matters Saturday with a 38-point performance that helped riddle Cincinnati, 82-61. Oregon State's record is 11-2. Villanova, No. 10 and 9-1, was idle Saturday.

RAMBLING WRECKERS

Georgia Tech, a thorn in Baron Adolph Rupp's side for some time, made a wreck of Kentucky for the third straight time and sixth in the teams' last nine meetings. The Wildcats, weary after their two-game Sugar Bowl set earlier in the week, managed a two-point halftime lead but fell behind to stay early in the final period. Tech captain R. D. Craddock was the game's top scorer, with 25.

Tennessee's collapsing zone defense held Vanderbilt in check and R. W. Davis and Larry McIntosh hit free throws in the final seconds to sink the Commodores.

Washington State ran into a buzz-saw in UCLA's ball-hawking, hot shooting nifties, who piled up a 61-28 halftime margin and breezed to a school-record point total. The Bruins hit 60 percent of their shots.

Duke buried Atlantic Coast State behind Jeff Mullins' 23-Confidence foe North Carolina point leadership. The Blue Devils have won eight and dropped three.

Davidson star Fred Hetzel scored 19 of his 30 points in the second half as the Southern Conference powerhouse ran its season string to 10-0 and dropped West Virginia below the .500 mark at 6-7 for the first time in 10 years.

Unranked DePaul shot a torrid 62.5 percent, including Jim Murphy's 10 straight points to open the second half, and rolled to its ninth straight victory.

CAPTAIN CORNERED — Kettering's John Salisbury (white shirt) was in trouble early in this 138-pound match with Waterford's Dick McDowell but rallied to decision his opponent, 6-2. Salisbury won the 138-pound crown in the Kettering Invitational Wrestling tournament Saturday, but Waterford wrapped up the team title, edging Kettering, 87-86. Southfield placed third and L'Anse Creuse fourth.

Skippers Win on Mat

Waterford came through with victories in the final two matches Saturday to take a one-point decision over Kettering in the Waterford Invitational Wrestling Tournament.

The Skippers wound up with a point total of 87, followed by Kettering (86), Southfield (65) and L'Anse Creuse (22).

Waterford trailed Kettering, 67-75, going into the final two classes, but picked up first places in both for 20 points while Kettering could master only a second and third for 11.

The winners' Dale Jones took an 8-5 decision from Kettering's Bob McGregor in the 180-pound class. Heavyweight Gerry Gebrowsky then accounted for the winning points by getting a referee's decision in an overtime match against Southfield's Bob Budman.

Kettering picked up first place points in five events.

Joe Allen was first in the 95-pound class and other victories were racked up by Don Gray (127), Mike James (133), John Salisbury (138) and Bill Guthrie (165).

The Skippers had two other individual winners in Randy

Rhodes (112) and Ron Potter (120).

Gary Peraino (145) and Joe Crawford (154) came through with victories for Southfield, and L'Anse Creuse's lone 10-point winner was Joe Martinez in the 103-pound class.

BLOCKED OUT — St. Louis Hawks' Richie Guerin is blocked out of the play by Detroit's Dennis Butcher during last night's National Basketball Association game. The Hawks, however, rolled to an easy victory.

Fast Start by St. Louis Sends Pistons to Defeat

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — Bob Pettit fired up the St. Louis Hawks by scoring 18 points in the first quarter and the surge lasted to a 116-99 victory over the Detroit Pistons Sunday night.

A scoring spurt by Bailey Howell and Bob Ferry in the fourth period came too late in the National Basketball Association game. With the gap narrowed to 99-90 with 3:55 to play, Pettit pitched in with his teammates to protect the Hawks' lead.

Pettit finished with 31 points. Howell, Detroit's high scorer, hit for 28.

BOSTON LOSERS

Meanwhile, the Los Angeles Lakers seemed to have been following a New Year's resolution never to lose to Boston again. After losing all three games played with the Celtics in 1963, the Lakers took their second clash of this year, 97-95. Dick Barnett's two free throws with five seconds remaining gave Los Angeles the victory.

Bob Boozer's 26 points sparked New York to a victory over Philadelphia as the Knicks hit 54.8 per cent of their field goal attempts.

Cincinnati outlasted Baltimore 111-106, remaining three games out of first place in the Eastern Division. The Royals held a victory margin despite a hot fourth quarter by the Bulls' Rod Thorn, Walt Bellamy and Terry Dischinger.

Rocky Promises Clear Alternative to Dem Philosophy

By ROBERT T. GRAY
ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller says that if the Republican party nominates him for president, he will offer voters a clear alternative to Democratic party philosophy. "There are fundamental differences between my views and (Democratic) views," he said in reply to a charge by Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona that Rockefeller is a "me-too" candidate.

Rockefeller and Goldwater are the only declared candidates for the Republican nomination.

Goldwater announced his candidacy Friday and opened his campaign by saying Rockefeller's views sound more like a Democratic platform than Republican philosophy.

Goldwater, chief spokesman for GOP conservatives, said no other Republican candidate — meaning Rockefeller — could offer voters a genuine alternative to the Democratic administration of President Johnson.

NO APPLICATION

Rockefeller, who resumed his campaign in the New Hampshire presidential preference primary over the weekend, told news conference in Concord, "I don't think that 'me-too' label has any application (to me). I think that was just a political statement on his part."

Goldwater begins his New Hampshire campaign Tuesday.

His assertion that Rockefeller espouses a New Frontier philosophy could become an issue in New Hampshire, where Republican ranks include a substantial bloc of conservatives.

Rockefeller knows his reputation as a liberal could be troublesome in New Hampshire. His first major political speech in this campaign contained a detailed analysis of his "fundamental differences" with Democrats on such issues as balanced budgets and centralized government.

DANGEROUS MISSION

Rockefeller also has cast himself in the role of the first volunteer for a dangerous mission who now sees others joining him.

He pointed out in his first major speech of the weekend that he was the only declared candidate for the Republican nomination at a time when many thought President John F. Kennedy would be unbeatable.

News Analysis

There was a revival of interest in the Republican nomination after Kennedy's death. Some observers believe the Republicans have a better chance of defeating Johnson.

But, Rockefeller said, he looks upon the nomination now as he did then.

GOLDWATER BLAST

"I am neither a summer soldier" or a "sunshine patriot."

Goldwater, avoiding specific criticism of the Johnson administration. He said Johnson had not produced concrete results on which to make a judgment.

Rockefeller will turn his attention to the home front this week.

The New York Legislature

convenes on Wednesday and the governor is to deliver his sixth annual message.

Rockefeller will return to New Hampshire Thursday night for a speech at Manchester. He will fly to Washington to speak at the National Press Club on Friday.

Link Arrest to Missing U.S. Papers

DETROIT (UPI) — What happened to irreplaceable documents taken from the National Archives in 1962 in Washington may have been answered with the arrest of a man and woman here last week.

Robert B. Murphy, 45, and his wife, Elizabeth, 32, were arrested by agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation on charges of fraud by wire.

The pair was arraigned before U.S. Commissioner Fred Johnson Friday on four counts of fraud by wire in warrants issued at Pensacola, Fla.

Murphy, his wife and their five children moved to Detroit five months ago. With them, according to the FBI, they had seven suitcases of old papers, including documents containing priceless autographs taken from the National Archives.

DOCUMENTS SOLD

A government spokesman said a couple answering the Murphy's description sold a New York man three documents, including a letter from Gen. U.S. Grant to President Andrew Johnson and a letter by Andrew Jackson written in 1821 to Secretary of War John C. Calhoun, for only $325.

Most of the stolen documents from the archives have been recovered, the spokesman said.

The documents were stolen by a man posing as a scholar from the University of Chicago.

Commissioner Johnson ordered Murphy held in lieu of $25,000 bond, while Murphy's wife was released on $10,000 personal bond.

Eye Operation Set for Infant With Cancer

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — Scotty Carpenter, 9 months, undergoes an eye operation today. Doctors say he may never see again.

Scotty, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Carpenter of Graniteville, S.C., is suffering from cancer of the eye. Doctors say he will lose his left eye due to the malignancy and that his right eye also is affected. Only surgery can determine the extent of damage to the right eye.

Scotty's father, 30, is a foreman in a Graniteville cotton mill.

Call Cheers Student After 3rd-Floor Fall

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — A telephone call to his Leningrad home has cheered a Russian exchange student granted political asylum in the United States after a plunge from a third-floor apartment.

Doctors said a friend of Yuri A. Asseyev called the home of the former professor at the University of Leningrad and learned that Asseyev's family is well.

The 35-year-old Asseyev, in this country to study at Harvard, was told Saturday that the U.S. State Department will allow him to stay in this country permanently. He had asked for asylum Dec. 29, two days before the Thursday fall police described as a leap from the apartment of a friend.

Asseyev is still on the danger list with injuries suffered from the plunge.

DESPONDENT

Robert Owen of the State Department's Division of Russian Affairs said Asseyev must have been despondent.

"It is a complex matter," Owen said. "This has been a hard and difficult decision to make. To desert your own country and choose another country over it. Naturally it must have been followed by mixed emotions."

Celebration Marks Adenauer Birthday

BONN, Germany (AP) — Former Chancellor Konrad Adenauer of West Germany marked his 88th birthday yesterday with a champagne party and an all-day celebration.

"An 88th birthday is a serious day in a man's life," said Adenauer, leader of West Germany's recovery after World War II.

"It was a great gift of God that I was allowed after the war to help with the reconstruction of Germany," Adenauer told Ludwig Erhard, who succeeded him as chancellor. Adenauer stepped down last October after more than 14 years in office.

Erhard was among the hundreds of politicians, diplomats and friends who attended a champagne party for Adenauer at the Redoute, a building in nearby Bad Godesberg used for formal government functions.

MORE VIGOROUS

Adenauer exchanged pleasantries with his well-wishers and looked even more vigorous than during the 1950s.

Congratulatory telegrams poured in from all over the world. One was from French President de Gaulle, who last year negotiated a German-French reconciliation pact with the former chancellor. Adenauer considers the pact his greatest achievement.

"You know how warm the wishes are that I hold for you," de Gaulle said.

The celebration included a morning band concert in Rhodorf, the Rhine River Valley town where Adenauer lives, a traditional birthday visit to a Bonn hospital, and a special Mass before lunch with his seven children and more than 20 grandchildren. In the afternoon, he was serenaded by a hunter's chorus.

WRITING MEMOIRS

Adenauer, who is working on his memoirs, is still a member of parliament and national chairman of his Christian Democratic party.

In a birthday interview, he urged the West to force Premier Khrushchev to accept a disarmament agreement in exchange for western economic aid to the Soviet Union.

"Western capitalists are ready to help Khrushchev without any real evidence of peaceful intentions, and that is capitalistic stupidity," he said. He was apparently referring to western sales of grain to the Soviet Union.

Shot Himself for 'Attention,' Police Claim

ALLEGAN (AP)—Authorities now say that 29-year-old Wallace Borden of Schoolcraft dreamed up that gangster attack on himself, though his bullet wound was actual.

As a result, the former Kalamazoo factory worker faces charges of making a false report to officers and carrying a concealed weapon. He is being held for court appearance.

Police of Otsego and Allegan County sheriff's men said Borden admitted Saturday cooking up his story of being pursued in his car by a gunman Thursday and then being shot when overtaken.

Police and sheriff's men said Borden declared he fired the shots into his car himself and then shot and wounded himself in a lower part of his body only in an effort to attract attention. He was not seriously hurt.

British Eye Malaysia Rift

Report Is Awaited on Indonesia Threat

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaysia (AP) — British Defense Secretary Peter Thorneycroft awaited a first-hand report today from Malaysian Prime Minister Tunku Abdul Rahman on the gravity of the Indonesian military threat to the troubled federation.

Tunku was expected back today from a flying weekend visit to the tense North Borneo area bordering on Indonesia. He told a news conference there that he considers the situation serious but "will not ask for military assistance from either Australia or New Zealand."

But Malaysia's deputy prime minister and defense minister, Tun Abdul Razak, reportedly told Thorneycroft at a meeting last night both Australia and New Zealand should give direct aid to Borneo's defense.

Thorneycroft said on arrival Saturday that Britain would "honor to the hilt" its commitment to defend Malaysia, a union of Malaya, Singapore, Sarawak and Sabah.

REINFORCE TROOPS

Britain has already reinforced its armed strength to meet the crisis caused by President Sukarno's threat to smash the federation.

Australian newspapers have accused Britain of pressuring the Canberra government to join in the defense of Sarawak and Sabah, where there have been numerous attacks on jungle defense posts by infiltrators from Indonesian Borneo.

Thorneycroft told newsmen any request for Australian and New Zealand assistance depends upon the Malaysians.

Sukarno meanwhile made final preparations in Jakarta for his trip tomorrow to Manila for talks with Philippine President Diosdado Macapagal.

ECONOMIC PROBLEMS

Informed sources said talks during Sukarno's five-day visit would concentrate on Indonesia's economic problems resulting from Sukarno's economic boycott of Malaysia.

Singapore and Malaya formerly were the chief processing point for Indonesian rubber and the chief transit points for its trade.

Air Freighter 'Joy to Handle'

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) — Britain's biggest air freighter, the 100-ton Short Belfast, made a successful maiden flight yesterday.

"It was the easiest flight I've had for some time," said Denis Taylor, test pilot. "The aircraft was a joy to handle."

The Belfast is designed to carry more than 200 fully armed troops. Alternative loads are three tanks or 24 light helicopters.

A civilian version is on the drawing boards. The makers claim it could take 250 passengers across the Atlantic and bring fares down to $85 for a one-way trip.

To Reveal Candidacy

DETROIT (AP) — James Del Rio, civil rights leader, will announce his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for the 4th State Senatorial District Friday, a "draft Del Rio" committee said Sunday. Del Rio, 39, an insurance man, will seek election to the seat now held by Sen. Charles Blondy. Blondy has indicated he will not run again.

Today in Washington

Kennedy Widow, Children Back in D.C.

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the news from Washington:

MRS. KENNEDY: Mrs. John F. Kennedy and her two children are back in the capital after 18 days at Palm Beach, Fla.

The former first lady and Caroline, 6, and John Jr., 3, returned Sunday to the Georgetown home of Undersecretary of State and Mrs. W. Averell Harriman, where they have been living since leaving the White House.

On her way to the Harriman house from Andrews Air Force Base, Mrs. Kennedy made a brief visit to her husband's grave in Arlington Cemetery.

POSTAL JOB CUTS: Postmaster General John A. Gronouski plans to carry out a 5,000-employee reduction in postal service employment by leaving vacant jobs unfilled.

Gronouski announced reduction quotas for the department's 15 regions Saturday and said that no regular employee would lose his job. The cuts are scheduled to go into effect by June 30 and will save $30 million annually.

ECONOMIC EFFECTS: Two Cabinet members have warned that congressional failure to pass the pending $11-billion tax cut bill would have serious effects on the nation's economy.

Secretary of Commerce Luther Hodges said that if the tax cut is not approved, "we would lose $10 billion or $15 billion in our gross national product increase."

Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz added that "it would mean about two million jobs fewer than with the tax cut."

Appearing on ABC's radio and television program Issues and Answers, Hodges and Wirtz indicated they expected the tax cut to be enacted and 1964 to be prosperous.

The two secretaries suggested that most of the more than five million teen-agers in the work force should go back to school, thus improving the employment outlook.

DRAFT STUDY: A Pentagon civilian staff is making a continuing study of the nation's draft laws.

The study is being directed by William Gorham, deputy assistant secretary of defense for special studies and requirements, who said Sunday that the study "will put us in better position" when the present draft law expires in 1967. Gorham said that the Army faces a need of replacing 500,000 men annually and that voluntary enlistments are not the answer.

Reports Plastic Surgeon

Father Was Raised as Girl

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (UPI) — A man who was brought up as a girl became a father after surgery changed him into a normal male, according to a Washington University plastic surgeon.

Dr. James Barrett Brown, a professor of clinical surgery who performed the operation, said it was the first time to his knowledge that a man undergoing such surgery had achieved fatherhood.

Brown said the operation was performed on the unidentified St. Louis man at the age of 13. The man recently became a father at the age of 23.

Brown said the young father had not undergone a "sex change."

'DIDN'T KNOW IT'

"He was always a boy, but his parents didn't know it," Brown said in an interview. "He had a congenital anomaly which occurs quite frequently. The operation was an anatomical change which completed the male sex for him."

Brown reported on the operation with Dr. Minot P. Fryer, also of Washington University, in the current Journal of Surgery, Gynecology and Obstetrics.

They said the child was mistakenly identified as a girl at birth, dressed and looked as if he were a girl and was accepted socially as one. But, they said "The patient's normal feelings and personal feelings prompted medical consultation."

After consultation with other physicians, Brown said it was decided that surgery should be undertaken. He said the operation consisted of constructing genitalia and correcting malformation of the anatomic appearance that was more female than male.

NOT A CHANCE

Brown said in the interview the operation "was necessary for the child's sake. It was not made for a change."

Healing was complete in 10 days and the patient immediately changed his haircut and his name, the report said. "He could now express previous suppressed, normal male actions and make long-term and decidedly masculine plans."

Marriage followed, and the patient's wife recently gave birth to a girl.

HST Says Dems Will Beat Anyone

NEW YORK (AP) — "I don't care who the Republicans nominate, the Democrats will beat him."

That was what former President Harry S. Truman said when asked by newsmen to comment on Sen. Barry Goldwater's declaration as a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination.

Truman arrived in New York to resume work on a television film highlighting major events of his administration.

Does BLADDER IRRITATION MAKE YOU NERVOUS?

After 21, common kidney or bladder irritations affect twice as many women as men and may make you tense and nervous from too frequent, burning or itching urination both day and night. Indianapolis Bus Walkout Strands 1,500

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP)—About 1,500 travelers were stranded in the Indianapolis bus terminal up to 22 hours Sunday when 200 Greyhound drivers walked off the job.

By the time drivers agreed to return to work Sunday night, all but 100 of the passengers had been accommodated by rival lines. Most of the buses tied up had left by midnight.

Many of the stranded travelers were service men and women, college students and parents with dozing babies returning from long holiday vacations.

"I could just scream," said Mrs. Richard Hoveland, 18, St. Paul, Minn., after she had been waiting seven hours. She and her 13-month-old daughter were returning from a trip to Charleston S.C.

ABSOLUTELY STRANDED
"I was absolutely stranded with no money," the young mother explained. "Somebody stood in line for me a good hour or more to get a ticket transfer."

R. S. Armstrong, New York Utilities clerk from Denville, N.J., complained, "If I don't get to work by Monday morning, I'll lose my job." Armstrong was returning from a vacation trip in San Francisco.

There was no warning of the walkout. About 100 baggage clerks, ticket agents and other terminal employees joined the drivers in the work stoppage shortly before midnight Saturday. All are members of Local 1211, Motor Coach Employees Division. Both union and management officials blamed the walkout on disputed working conditions and rules interpretations.

Passengers expecting a few minutes layover found it stretching into hours. Card games sprang up to while away the time. Some passengers milled around sipping coffee to stay awake. Others slept.

Indianapolis is the crossroads for major east-west and north-south routes. "This is the hub," said driver Jim Larent. "It's the criss-cross point for all over. They feel it."

Ann Longwell, University of Wisconsin freshman from Knoxville, Tenn., was en route to the campus. "I started early," she said, "because I was worried about the snow."

Navy Electrician 1. C. Donald Moog of Chicago was traveling to Jacksonville, Fla., to join the aircraft carrier Franklin D. Roosevelt before his leave expired today. "There's not a chance of making it anymore," Moog said Sunday.

JUST A MEETING
Maurice T. Horton, president of Local 1211, said the walkout was not a strike but "just a union meeting." He said under a two-year contract running to Oct. 31 members are entitled to time-off to attend union meetings.

The daylong meeting didn't actually resolve any of the disputed working conditions, Horton said. But members decided to end the tieup in the interests of the public.

WAITING FOR TICKETS — Stranded bus passengers wait in line for tickets in Indianapolis, Ind., last night, as a walkout by local drivers interrupted service for about 22 hours. The delay affected about 1,500 going through the town.

New Marine Boss Says No Cut-Back

TOKYO (AP) — Gen. Wallace M. Greene Jr., new commandant of the U.S. Marine Corps, told a news conference in Tokyo there are no plans to reduce or redeploy the 190,000-man corps.

He was asked about possible changes in connection with last week's announcement that the U.S. Air Force will realign and reduce its forces in Japan.

Greene arrived in Tokyo today on a tour of Marine units in the western Pacific. He'll also visit South Viet Nam.

Liz-Burton Lawyers Talk

NEW YORK (AP)—Lawyers for Elizabeth Taylor, Richard Burton and Eddie Fisher confer here today on steps to clear the way for Miss Taylor and Burton to marry.

Attorneys Milton Rudin of Los Angeles and Aaron Frosch of New York, who had been meeting with Liz and Richard in Puerto Vallarta, Mexico, left there yesterday for New York to discuss the situation with Fisher's attorney, Louis Nizer.

Rudin, apprised in Mexico of Fisher's expressed desire to expedite a divorce from Miss Taylor, said, "That's fine. Let's hope he gives the same message to Mr. Nizer."

Arcadio Estrada, a civil court judge in Puerto Vallarta, said after conferring yesterday with Rudin and Frosch: "At the moment, there is no financial agreement between Miss Taylor and Fisher."

THE HOLDUP

"That," he added, "is what is holding up the divorce."

Rudin said plans for Miss Taylor to file suit in Puerto Vallarta with or without Fisher's consent have been abandoned.

"Without his consent," Rudin said, "there could be months of litigation." And even with his consent, he added, it would be at least two weeks before she and Burton could be married.

"There's at least that much time needed to file and get the divorce," he explained, adding that the State of Jalisco, in which Puerto Vallarta is located, has more stringent divorce requirements than some U.S. states.

MUCH IN LOVE

"And they want to get married, preferably before Richard goes to Toronto on Jan. 23 for rehearsals for Hamlet." The play is scheduled to open on Broadway in April.

Burton has been on movie location in Puerto Vallarta, with Miss Taylor constantly at his side.

Burton's wife, Sybil, recently got a Mexican divorce.

Burton suggested this past weekend that Miss Taylor play Ophelia opposite his Hamlet, but Liz balked. She said, "It would look like we are making a gimmick out of our romance and coming marriage."

Father of 12 Dies at Home During Fire

GIBRALTAR (AP)—The father of 12 children died, apparently of suffocation, when fire burned out the upper story of his small frame home in this downriver Wayne County community Sunday.

Dead was Carlyle G. Faunce, 37, a railroad worker. Seven of the Faunce children were home when the fire broke out—possibly from a cigarette Faunce's wife Theresa Ann said he was smoking when he went to bed late Saturday.

Also in the house were Mrs. Faunce, 38, her mother, Catherine Robisch, 56, and Mrs. Robisch's grandson Joseph Harding, 4, both visiting from New Jersey.

The only other person harmed by the fire was the 4-year-old boy. Firemen said he was not breathing when found upstairs, but was revived.

Still Has Her Latin Beauty

Delores Del Rio Returns to Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD — "The ones who worry about growing old — they are the people who age."

This bit of wisdom came from Dolores Del Rio, whose classic Latin beauty seems little affected by her 58 years. Her face remains unlined, her figure trim, her attitude toward her work as enthusiastic as a starlet's.

"Oh, there was a time when I worried about growing old," she laughed. "I was fighting it, all the time. But little by little I decided it was no

MRS. ESTHER TUFTY
Ex-Resident Gets Award

Reporter Is Named for Handicap Work

A former Pontiac woman has been named as one of seven recipients of the Distinguished Service Award for 1963 from the President's Committee on Employment of the Handicapped.

The award is presented to an individual, organization or firm which has contributed continuous outstanding service, national in scope, to the hire-the-handicapped program.

Among those named to receive the award was Mrs. Esther Van Wagoner Tufty, Washington newspaper correspondent for her work in molding the awards program of the president's committee into an effective means of giving recognition to persons who have made outstanding accomplishments in the hire-the-handicapped program.

She also was selected for her work as chairman of the membership unit of the president's committee.

NUMEROUS ARTICLES

In addition, she was cited for her numerous articles on employment of the handicapped which are widely circulated and which contribute to the public's understanding of the work capabilities of the handicapped.

Mrs. Tufty was formerly from Pontiac. She is the sister of J. L. Van Wagoner and Murray D. Van Wagoner.

use. Now I am content to be my age. And why shouldn't I? The best roles are written for mature actresses, not young girls."

Miss Del Rio is making one of her periodic returns to Hollywood where she starred for 15 years. This time she is playing an Indian woman in John Ford's big Western, "Cheyenne Autumn." It marks a return to Warner Brothers, where she was under contract in the 1930s. "I did so many pictures here," she recalled, "but I can remember the names of only a few. There was 'Madame Du Barry,' which I remember for the beautiful costumes. And 'Wonder Bar' with Al Jolson, Kay Francis and Dick Powell.

"Most of the others I have forgotten. The memory is kind that way. The pictures were very bad."

Miss Del Rio's Hollywood career goes back to 1926, a vintage year for the star markers.

"A lot of us started in 1926—Joan Crawford, Constance Bennett, Norma Shearer, Gary Cooper," she said. "Those were the days of the silents, and I couldn't speak a word of English. I spoke Spanish and French because I had been educated in a French convent. All my instructions had to be replayed from the director to an interpreter.

"I did such films as 'What Price Glory,' 'Ramona' and 'Resurrection' speaking Spanish. In 'Evangeline' I sang four numbers, but there was no sound dialogue.

"Then I was in trouble. Sound came in, and my English was horrible. What English I had picked up on the sets was slang worked for two years with Oliver Hissendell, a coach MGM had brought out from New York to teach actors diction, and then I was able to get by."

After "Journey Into Fear" in 1941 she turned her back on Hollywood and returned to her native Mexico for a whole new career as star of Spanish-language films. Five years ago she turned to the stage, and she wonders why she didn't try it sooner.

"It has been an exciting new career for me," she said. "The stage is the medium for actresses. Movies

Do Testing Programs Hide School Flaw?

By LESLIE J. NASON, Ed. D.

Failure of a child to master the fundamentals in school often is hidden, rather than revealed, by testing programs.

For example, Sam's plight was not made clear to his parents over a period of six long years, in spite of all the testing to which he was subjected.

As required by law, Sam had attended school regularly. Now in the 11th grade, and 16 years old, he could no longer be compelled to attend.

I asked Sam, "What happened, perhaps in the fifth grade?"

"It was in the fifth grade," he answered, "and I remember deciding the whole thing was too much effort, I quit trying."

Since then, Sam had coasted. He had done his homework after a fashion when his parents insisted, but he had not really tried to learn and understand. He had just gone through the motions.

HOW IT HAPPENS

How could this happen in our "modern" schools? Here, at least, are some explanations.

• Compulsory school attendance does not mean compulsory learning.

• Testing programs hide the failure. Comparisons with National norms are made with the median or middle scores. But these comparisons do not take into account how far down some of those in the bottom half are.

• Automatic promotions eliminate the necessity of meeting the issue of competence headon at the end of each school year. At no time was it necessary for the school to report to Sam's parents the actual grade level at which he was performing.

Recent results of California's first year statewide testing program have started bitter arguments. But here, as elsewhere, the arguments center on the progress of the middle student.

No one seems to ask, for example, "Do the tests indicate that the lock-step system of promotions produced a sizable group of laggards?"

The state superintendent of public instruction, Max Rafferty, who reported on the testing results to the State Board of Education, emphasized they indicated that California children, while superior in achievement to national norms, should do better in view of their higher average intelligence quotient.

No report was made on how many are leaving school with a reading ability below the fifth grade, which might well make them unemployable. In fact, there are indications that less than eighth-grade reading ability may be a severe handicap in seeking employment.

The issue should be faced well before the end of the compulsory attendance period. At least by the start of the seventh grade, while there is still time, students should be grouped on the basis of their actual performance in arithmetic, reading, and English, and parents should be accurately informed.

Promotions from this point on should be based on performance only. Junior and senior high school years are the last preparation years for many students. Educators and parents should insist that children face up to their individual shortcomings and make the necessary effort to overcome them.

One point very hard to bring home to the general public is that while you open the bidding primarily on high cards you overcall principally on playing strength.

In particular after your opponents open with a major suit it is the height of folly to get into the bidding with a five card minor suit merely because your hand would have been worth an opening bid if an opponent had not opened ahead of you.

Even if not vulnerable South should not have overcalled. True, he had 13 points in high cards and a biddable five card suit, but he had three probable tricks against an adverse contract and not too many more as declarer.

Vulnerable, his overall was just short of suicidal and the result was as might be expected.

JACOBY

ASTROLOGICAL FORECAST

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19): Face should be slower. Avoid legal, business disputes. Bide your time. Permit EXERCISE to be your guide. Especially in sales or efforts to "sell yourself."

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20): Gifted individual may receive help. Maintain attitude of acceptance. Don't permit false pride to stand in way of progress. Fine evening for attending club meeting.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21): Key is service. Self-expression. Overcome less feeling by catching up on mail, getting details out of way early. Fine time to get into the top. There is room for you. Make plain that you intend to receive credit that's due.

CANCER (June 22 to July 21): Good lunar aspect encourages romance, creative endeavors. Try to make basic changes. Discuss ideas. Study programs for advancement. Check details with higher powers.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21): You may hear from "competition." Be charming, diplomatic. But don't commit yourself. Key is maturity, sophistication. Pay heed to needs of family members.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 21): Avoid scattering forces. Make bold, direct proposal. Aim high for the top. There is room for you. Make plain that you intend to receive credit that's due.

LIBRA (Sept. 22 to Oct. 21): Share spotlight. Resist tendency to over-emphasize obvious point. A smile will win over reluctant family member. An argument does the opposite.

SCORPIO (Oct. 22 to Nov. 21): Personal cycle high. Level of awareness amplified. Be specific, confident. Now is time to contact important people. Present ideas for projects. Others are ready to listen.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21): Stress originality, independence. Many simply do not want to be bothered with details. You will have to take initiative "on your own." Aid due from unexpected source.

West doubled and while East thought for a moment about taking out the double he finally passed and West opened the queen of diamonds.

South won the trick and saw no future anywhere. His best hope seemed to be to do something about clubs right away so South played the ace and queen of clubs.

This was a wise decision. After that start the best defense could do was to cash nine tricks for an 1,100 point profit. Had South adopted some other line of play he would probably have gone down 1,400.

Tape Runs Behind

Heavy Steel Buying Hits Mart

NEW YORK (AP) — Steels were in demand as the stock market maintained an irregular advance early this afternoon. Trading was heavy.

The market was stronger early in the morning than it was later. Many recent high flyers were clipped by profit taking.

The ticker tape ran late consistently, and brokers reported a pent-up demand by investment funds of various types to establish positions in common stocks. A parade of sizable blocks, mostly at higher prices, marked the opening. Once the initial wave of demand had been satisfied, however, the list backed away sharply from its peaks.

Profit taking was sharp in some issues.

STEELS HIGHER

Steels remained higher following a report of surprising strength in steel orders during the usually sluggish holiday weeks.

Nonferrous metals, rails and utilities also were on the up-beat. Motors turned mixed. Tobacco, airlines, chemicals and aerospace issues also were irregular.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .7 at 287.9 with industrials up .4, rails up .7 and utilities up .6. Both averages were above record closing highs they established Friday.

FIRMS ADVANCE

U.S. Steel was up about a point while Bethlehem, Republic and Jones & Laughlin added fractions. McLouth Steel kept more than a point of an early 2-point rise.

AMERICAN EXCHANGE

Prices moved higher in active trading on the American Stock Exchange. Sinclair Venezuelan Oil ran up 8 points or better.

Corporate bonds were mixed. U.S. Government bonds were unchanged in moderately active trading.

Negro in Class at Auburn U.

School Is Integrated With No Incidents

AUBURN, Ala. (AP) — A Negro graduate student attended his first class today at Auburn University. His appearance for a Russian history class was marked by the same air of routine procedure which was evident when he arrived Saturday.

The student, Harold A. Franklin, strode up the walk to Samford Hall while a few state and city policemen watched from a distance. The tall, slender Franklin walked past about a dozen students on the steps.

The 31-year-old student went inside the building and white students followed him through the door. Newsmen were not allowed inside the building, since the campus was under tight restrictions imposed by the university.

A newsmen spoke to Franklin, but he replied without breaking his long stride, "no comment."

Following his class in Russian history, Franklin had a class in the history of England on his first day at Auburn's first Negro student.

Earlier, he began his day with breakfast in a dormitory cafeteria and then bought some books at a campus bookstore.

Everything appeared entirely normal and routine on the sprawling campus as the segregation barriers tumbled.

Franklin, who registered without incident Saturday, spent a quiet weekend at his dormitory. A university spokesman said he had several visitors, including some white students.

"Everything is fine," Franklin told an Associated Press reporter who telephoned him Sunday night.

The tall, slender Negro who previously had shunned any comment for newsmen, said there had been no difficulties in his arrival and enrollment.

Four Auburn students were suspended Sunday after state troopers caught them removing campus signs warning unauthorized persons to keep off the grounds. The university disciplinary committee meets today to act on the suspensions. Names of the students were withheld.

Buyers Cautious at Board of Trade

CHICAGO (AP) — Speculators became a bit cautious today after prices in the grain futures market started off in a firm to strong range on the board of trade.

Nearly all commodities backed away slightly from the opening peaks on offerings described as profit cashing. However, dealers said the demand continued active and that the offerings were rather easily absorbed. Wheat derived additional strength from sales to Russia.

$5,000 Damage to Waterford Home

Fire Saturday afternoon caused an estimated $5,000 damage to the house of Mrs. Gretchen Williams, 3490 Floretta, Waterford Township, and an additional $1,500 damage to contents.

Reported at 5:16 p. m., the fire was caused by a defective extension cord in a front bedroom, according to firemen.

Walter Williams, the owner's son, was asleep in a rear bedroom when the smell of smoke awakened him. His mother is vacationing in Florida.

Death Lister Is a Suicide

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The name of Richard R. Gray, San Francisco coroner's clerk who recorded suicides and autopsies, was entered on the list of Golden Gate Bridge suicides Sunday.

Gray, 42, a bachelor, parked his car midway on the span. He left his coat and wallet on the front seat, but no note.

The Coast Guard recovered the body. Gray was the 254th known suicide off the bridge.

State of Union Is Opener

LBJ Braces for Tough Year

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson was back at his White House desk today, preparing for what may be a grueling January to December job: trying to get Congress to enact his legislative program.

Johnson will outline his objectives in a State of the Union message Wednesday. He is expected to urge passage of key elements of the Kennedy administration program carried over from the last session — civil rights, tax reduction and health care for the elderly — and add some requests of his own.

Relaxed after a 12-day work-and-play vacation at his Texas ranch, the President scheduled a conference with Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and McGeorge Bundy, presidential adviser on national security 61, of 434 Sutton will be 1:30 p.m. tomorrow at Muir Brothers Funeral Home, Lapeer. Burial will be in Oakview Cemetery, Royal Oak.

A son, Richard of Okemos, survives.

Man Leads Police on a Wild Chase

ALPENA (AP) Raymond J. Nowicki dodged bullets, ran roadblocks and led police on a chase through three counties Sunday night, but finally was arrested — on the roof of a policeman's home — police reported.

Nowicki, 47, of Alpena is in city jail here today, charged with breaking and entering and unlawfully driving away in two cars.

Officers told the following story:

A break-in was discovered at an Alpena lumber firm Sunday night and officers found the loot, $145 worth of power tools, in the snow nearby.

BREAKS AWAY

Officers waited and tried to arrest Nowicki, who drove up later in a car. However, police said he broke away, despite shots fired by officers, and stole a pickup truck.

The truck was abandoned west of Alpena and Nowicki hitchhiked a ride with an Alpena couple as far north as Rogers City, where he jumped from the car as it approached a roadblock.

Police said Nowicki stole a car in Rogers City and headed for Cheboygan, where he ran a roadblock set up at the city limits on U. S. 23.

Officers said Nowicki then fled on foot into a residential area, where police followed footprints in the snow to the home of Cheboygan policeman Willis Taylor.

Nowicki, spotted on the roof, surrendered meekly, police said.

Jackson Man Killed

JACKSON (AP) — Harold M. Williams, 23, of Jackson was killed by a blast from a 12-gauge shotgun Sunday night in an alleged argument with a next-door neighbor, police said.

The neighbor, Deek Morgan, 58, was held for investigation.

Dems Rapped on Tax Defeat

Romney Attack Says Politics Killed Bill

LANSING (AP)—Gov. George Romney today made his most direct attack yet on Michigan Democrats' role in the death of his fiscal reform program last fall in a special legislative session.

"They killed a program similar to one they had previously supported," Romney said. "And they killed it for purely political reasons."

The Republican governor said recent attacks on him by Democrats focus around the death of the program, but have not criticized the program's content.

"The Michigan Democratic party is embarrassed politically," he said. "These attacks are attempts to alibi the Democratic failure to support the program."

"And now the Democratic party is in deep trouble," Romney said. "I don't think the people will let them alibi to save themselves from the political consequences."

Immediately after the program died, Romney had said this was a failure both of Republicans and Democrats in the legislature. But he noted that Republicans had given his program more support than they had any fiscal reform program in the past.

Republicans have the majority of votes in both houses of the legislature.

Teen-Agers Riot at Movie in N. Y.

ROCHESTER N.Y. (AP) — Violence broke out last night at a downtown theater after police arrested a teen-aged girl.

Teen-agers tipped over a vending machine, smashed a glass candy counter and swarmed around a police cruiser, trying to release the girl, police said. Other officers were summoned and dispersed the crowd.

The girl, whose identity was not disclosed, was charged with assault and disorderly conduct.

Police said she had struck a patrolman when he ordered her to leave the theater. Theater officials said she had been causing a disturbance during a showing of "Twist Around the Clock."

At Goat Farm

Sandburg Plans Quiet 86th

FLAT ROCK, N.C. (AP) — Carl Sandburg, winner of the Pulitzer Prize in history and poetry, plans to lay aside his pencil for a moment today, his birthday, "and make a little address to God, thanking him for the 86 years."

Then, said Sandburg, he'll go back to work on the second volume of his autobiography and perhaps on some poetry.

The quiet day on Sandburg's goat farm near Flat Rock, N.C., contrasts sharply with his 85th birthday, when he was honored at a party in New York City.

Sandburg won the Pulitzer Prize for history in 1940 for "Abraham Lincoln, the War Years," and for poetry in 1951 for "Complete Poems."

Ike Dinner Spurs Area Republicans

Some 500 Oakland County Republicans are expected to attend the Jan. 29 "Dinner with Ike" at Detroit's Cobo Hall, according to Frederick Colombo, chairman of a 45-man committee selling tickets for the dinner in the county.

Colombo of 1115 County Club Bloomfield Hills, says Eisenhower's appearance at the $100-a-plate dinner should "fire the party's organization and fund-raising forces to get off to an early start" for the 1964 campaign.

The dinner will be linked with similar dinners in 34 other cities throughout the nation by closed-circuit television.

Several other nationally prominent Republicans will participate in the televised program, speaking from other cities.

OTHER DIGNITARIES

They include Gov. Romney, New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller, Pennsylvania Gov. William Scranton, U. S. Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona, former Vice President Richard M. Nixon and GOP National Chairman William Miller.

Romney will appear in Washington, D.C.

Colombo said tickets for the dinner can be obtained by contacting him or county Republican headquarters in Birmingham.

Students Urge Export Boycott of Formosa Goods

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—The National Students Union of Formosa has urged Nationalist Chinese to boycott Japanese exports to protest Tokyo's decision to deport Red Chinese defector Chou Hung-ching to his homeland.

The union, which represents all college and university students on Formosa, also asked the public not to attend Japanese movies or travel by Japanese transport.

Chou, 44-year-old interpreter for a Red Chinese scientific mission, sought asylum at the Soviet Embassy in Tokyo Oct. 7. The Russians turned him over to Japanese authorities.

The Japanese government announced it would send Chou to Red China because he changed his mind and wanted to return. Japan has sent a diplomatic troubleshooter to Taipei to explain its position to the angry Nationalist government.

State Finals in Pontiac

Judges Picked for Junior Miss Contest

The Michigan Junior Miss Pageant Committee today announced names of judges who will select the high school senior girl to represent the state in national competition.

The Michigan finals are being staged in Pontiac Jan. 24-25 under auspices of the Pontiac Area Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The five judges include Durward B. Varner, chancellor of Oakland University; Robert Erwin, Detroit bureau manager of United Press International; and Maxwell Gail, president of Gail and Rice, an entertainment booking agency in Detroit.

Others are Romona Dahlberg, instructor at the Interlochen Music Camp; and Marian Goodale, head mistress at the Kingswood School for girls in Bloomfield Hills.

TWO EVENINGS
For the first time, the pageant, to be held at Pontiac Northern High School, will be conducted on two different evenings, beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Richard Jorgensen, pageant director, said that half the girls will model sportswear while the other half will present their talent specialty on one night.

The program will be reversed the next evening. All girls will appear in formals both days.

To date, 23 girls have been entered in the contest, with possibility that there may be four more before the Jan. 10 deadline, according to Jorgensen.

SCHOLARSHIPS
The girls will be competing, in addition to the title, for $1,500 in scholarships, $1,000 of which will go to the Michigan Junior Miss. Scholarships of $250 each will go to the first and second runner-up.

The Michigan title holder will travel to Mobile, Ala., to compete in the national contest March 14-21. America's Junior Miss will receive a $6,000 scholarship.

Diane Girard, Michigan's Junior Miss for 1963, will crown her successor. A resident of Lincoln Park, she represented the city of Southgate last year.

She is now a student at Central Michigan University.

Some Nuts! Peanut Play Routs Thief

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP)—It could only happen in a nut house. A female clerk wielding a pound of peanut brittle routed a holdup man.

Police said Gladys McKinney of Covington, Ky., was working at Morrow's Nut House downtown Sunday night when a man came and asked for two pounds of peanut brittle.

She put one pound on a scoop scale. The man pulled a revolver and told her to forget the rest of the candy and open the cash register.

Mrs. McKinney threw the scoopful of peanut brittle in the man's face and screamed. He fled.

Cole Drugs Robbed by Masked Gunman

A masked gunman held up Cole Drugs, 501 S. Saginaw, Saturday night and escaped with an undetermined amount of money.

The owner, Eugene Cole, 56, told police that the man came into the store shortly after 7 p. m. and ordered him and two employees to lie on the floor while he emptied the cash register.

Asks to Pray Before Being Taken to Jail

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—Robert Lee Pruitt, 36, father of eight, was being taken to jail on two charges of armed robbery when he asked officers to let him stop at his home to hold a prayer service with his family.

Detective Capt. E. E. Pappas said Sunday that he and Patrolman J. T. Newsome waited in the living room while the family assembled for the regular evening service. After it was over, Pruitt was escorted to jail.

When the officers asked Pruitt why he had twice held up a grocery store near his suburban East Point home, he replied, "I don't know."

France Okays Cambodia Aid

Assistance to Fill Gap
Left by United States

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP) — France has pledged military and economic aid to its former territory of Cambodia, filling some of the gap left by Cambodia's rejection of U.S. aid.

French Defense Minister Pierre Messmer, speaking at a dinner in his honor last night, said the aid would include tanks, trucks and planes for the Cambodian armed forces and professors for schools.

Princ Norodom Sihanouk, expressed gratitude that France has decided "to fulfill the role in Asia which its prestige and the present situation make appropriate."

"We are convinced that only France can build a bridge between East and West," he added.

ENDED AID

Sihanouk last Dec. 13 decided to end U.S. aid to his South-East Asian nation and ordered American military, economic and cultural missions to leave Cambodia by Jan. 15.

France, which granted Cambodia independence in 1955, already gives Cambodia about $3 million annually, most of it to support a French military training mission of 200 to 300 men.

NOTICE OF HEARING On Establishing Normal Height and Level Water in Upper Straits Lake in West Bloomfield Township, Oakland County, Michigan.

To Whom It May Concern: All owners of property fronting on, abutting or having access to rights of way, easements or other interests in having filed and maintained the normal height and level of said lake as of the date of said Section 145 of the Public Acts of 1961, as amended, said lake being located in Sections 15, 16 and 17, of West Bloomfield Township, Oakland County, Michigan.

You are hereby notified that the Oakland County Board of Supervisors has caused to be filed in this Court an amended complaint praying for the establishment of the normal height and level of Upper Straits Lake, said lake being located in Sections 15, 16 and 17, of West Bloomfield Township, Oakland County, Michigan.

A hearing on the matter will be held in the Circuit Court for the County of Oakland, Michigan, on Monday, the 27th day of January, A.D. 1964, at 1:30 p.m. or as soon thereafter as counsel can be heard on said date. The Plaintiff intends to ask this Court to establish the normal height and level of said lake at 535.00 feet above sea level, and if you desire to oppose the establishment of said normal height and level, you should then and there appear and show cause, if you have any.

(A) The normal height and level of said lake should not be established; (B) That 535.00 feet above sea level should not be the level fixed by the normal height and level of said lake; (C) Why such other and further relief as to the Court seems fitting and proper should not be granted to the Plaintiff.

Barber Shop-Bar Burns

FENTON (AP) — A fire destroyed a tavern and barber shop Sunday. Mel Waldon, operator of the tavern and owner of the building, estimated the loss at $50,000. The cause was not determined.

NEWLYWEDS — Movie star Troy Donahue and his leading lady, Suzanne Pleshette, cut their wedding cake at a supper party which followed their wedding in Beverly Hills, Calif., Saturday night. The ceremony, one of the quickest in Hollywood history, took only three minutes.

Carol Sees Lincoln Bed:
'Sorta Old Now, Isn't It?'

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Carol Channing finally got to see the Lincoln bed in the White House. Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson arranged it when Carol was in Washington with the show "Hello, Dolly!" Carol had been a guest of the John F. Kennedy at the White House about a year ago, and the late President had asked his guests if they'd like to see where Lincoln slept. All had replied enthusiastically that they would. But when they got there, President Kennedy said, "Sssh! My mother's sleeping in there."

Recalling their disappointment, the present First Lady arranged to have an aide take Carol to view the Lincoln bed while the Johnsons were in Texas. Carol's comment was: "In such a modern city, I didn't expect to see 100-year-old furniture."

WILSON — "The Wild-Game": A parrot, alone in the house, and not feeling well, decided to phone a veterinarian. He chortled to himself about how surprised the vet would be to hear him calling. He dialed with his beak and this conversation followed: "Hello" . . . "I would like to speak to the veterinarian" . . . "He is not home" . . . "Then who is speaking?" . . . "His parrot."

Did you hear about the benevolent boss who wanted to start the New Year right with his habitually-tardy secretary? So he greeted her, "Congratulations, Marie! This is the first time that you have come to work so late so early." . . . Oscar Homolka about Hollywood's No. 1 hypochondriac: "If he could just become fatally ill, he would die happy" . . . Old but still good: "Dean, sir, you have such a wonderful campus, such a beautiful college. How many students do you have?" . . . "About one to a thousand."

I think you'll be glad to know that this is "the National Indigestion Season" (The Baking Powder people told me) . . . "I feel sorry for people who don't drink, smoke or stay out all night, 'cause when they get up in the morning, that's the best they'll all day" (Clem Stein, Jr.) . . . Little Tommy must have come from shifty parents. Telling about his first day of school, he said, "The teacher asked me where I lived, and just to be on the safe side, I gave a false address."

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

A "Save the Judy Garland show" drive is on, with petition-signing, etc., aimed at CBS TV brass. . . Pearl Bailey wilder than ever, stood outside the Americana Royal Box signing autographs after her opening. Pearl May sang half a dozen new songs. . . Hilly Elkins, who'll produce a musical about the Rothschilds, had to agree no living member of the family'd be mentioned in the script. . . Boxing champ Joey Giardello signed with a Broadway agent for a fling at show biz. . . Dick Haymes says he'll give up his home here and move permanently to England.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: An operation is something that took a doctor an hour to perform — and the patient years to describe.

REMEMBERED QUOTE: "The trouble with some people who have nothing to say is that they usually meet someone who persuades them to say it."

EARL'S PEARLS: The best way to remember your anniversary always is to forget it just once.

That's earl, brother.

Heart Attack Kills Pioneer Radio Man

SHERMAN OAKS, Calif. (AP) — Pioneer radio entertainer Ralph Dumke is dead of a heart attack at 64.

Dumke, who appeared in many phases of show business, died Saturday at his Sherman Oaks home. He began his radio career in the 1920's in Chicago and New York after appearing as a vaudeville song and dance man.

One of his radio shows was "Sisters of the Skillet." Other roles included the 1946 Broadway revival of "Showboat."

$21-Billion Budget
for Nation's SchoolsBy G. K. HODENFIELD Associated Press Education
Writer

WASHINGTON — The nation will spend more than $21 billion to educate the 41.7 million youngsters enrolled in the public schools in 1963-64, the National Education Association (NEA) reported today.

The NEA's annual report on school statistics estimated there are 26,814,754 pupils enrolled in public elementary schools, 14,907,911 enrolled in public high schools, and 35,000 unclassified enrollees in grades kindergarten through 12.

The total of 41,757,665 is almost 1.5 million greater than the 40,390,049 enrolled last year.

The NEA noted there is some inflation in this figure because pupils enrolled in two or more states during the school year were counted more than once.

OUTLAY FIGURES

The total outlay of $21,201,199,000 includes $16,896,948,000 in current expenditures, $413,679,000 for other programs such as community services, summer schools, community colleges and adult education, $3,211,735,000 for capital outlay and $678,837,000 for interest on school debts.

Total expenditure on the public schools for the 1962-63 school year was $19.7 billion.

Other highlights from the report:

• Cost per pupil on the basis of average daily attendance is $455 annually, $22 higher than last year's $433. This is in current expenditures only, and does not include capital outlay, interest on school bonds and other programs.

• Number of classroom teachers has increased by 4.1 per cent, from 1,512,653 in 1962-63 to 1,574,818 this school year.

• Average salary of classroom teachers has increased by $231 to an annual figure of $5,963.

• Number of high school graduates is nearing the 2 million mark. The NEA estimates there will be 1,947,318 graduates this year, compared with 1,732,243 in 1962-63.

Alaska, with an average of $8,150, leads all the states in teacher salaries. The NEA said, however, that because of higher living costs in the newest state, the Alaska figure is about equal to $6,113 elsewhere.

Other leading states in average salaries are California $7,375, New York $7,200, Connecticut $6,775 and Illinois $6,645.

The lowest teacher salaries are in the south: Mississippi $3,830, Arkansas $4,031, South Carolina $4,350, Kentucky $4,400.

The state-by-state figures on and Alabama $4,615.

expenditures for pupils in average daily attendance range from a low of $241 in Mississippi to a high of $705 in New York.

State Teachers
Get Average of $6,503 Yearly

DETROIT (AP) — Michigan's teachers are paid an average salary of $6,503 a year to teach the state's 1,852,528 public school pupils, the National Education Association reported today.

The NEA's annual report on school statistics said Michigan's total current expenditure for public education adds up to $770 million and provides for a $452 expenditure per pupil in average daily attendance.

Alaska, with an average of $8,150, led all the states in teacher salaries, the NEA said.

SECOND IN AREA

Michigan salaries ranked second among the Great Lakes states and were topped only by Illinois with an annual average of $6,645.

Bulgarians Get Tough

VIENNA (AP) — Bulgarian newspapers report authorities in that Communist country have introduced summary punishment of 15 days in special labor camps or fines to combat juvenile rowdiness.

The newspapers contend juvenile delinquency is a remnant of bourgeois morality.

Junior Editors Quiz on "TEDDY"

QUESTION: Why do they call a toy bear "teddy"?

ANSWER: There have been few American leaders more popular than Theodore Roosevelt, 26th president of the United States, whose terms of office lay between 1901 and 1909.

People admired him because, although a sickly child, he built himself up by determination and will power into a rugged and forceful man.

They admired him during the Spanish American war when he organized a cavalry regiment called the "Rough Riders" and led a gallant charge in Cuba which helped break the spirit of the enemy.

Later, as president, people liked him for his straightforward honesty, concern for the people and sense of fair play. They spoke of him affectionately as "T.R." or "Teddy."

Roosevelt had a great love for the outdoors and animals. Cartoonists of the time like to caricature him somewhat as shown by the figure to right.

One such cartoon showed him with a bear cub. Toy makers saw the opportunity and produced cute little stuffed bears called teddy bears because of the president's nickname.

We still call them that, even if we have forgotten the connection between them and a greatly loved president.

FOR YOU TO DO: See how well you can draw our teddy bear, making it look like a toy. Then find a picture of a real bear and draw that. The real bear won't have button eyes like the teddy; his legs and feet will be bigger and have more shape, also long claws.

In Washington Speech

Romney to Urge GOP: Take Offensive

By JAMES S. BROOKS
LANSING (UPI) — When Gov. George Romney goes to Washington tomorrow to begin his self-appointed task of trying to mold national Republican opinion he is certain to urge the GOP to take the offense in 1964's political wars.

The governor, a dark horse presidential prospect, is convinced the GOP has "a tremendous opportunity in 1964," but to capitalize on it he feels Republicans must do more than just be against Democrats.

"I don't think the 1964 campaign should depend on what position President Johnson takes," Romney said in an interview.

The governor, who is due to address the National Press Club tomorrow, continued, "I think one of the things that creates the Republican opportunity is the fact that the Republican campaign may be forced to depend on an approach that is other than just 'anti' the administration of whoever has been in the White House four years or three and a half years."

WRONG APPROACH
"The Johnson program may not be sufficiently developed to permit that approach — and furthermore I don't think that is the right approach anyway," Romney said.

"Due to the assassination of President Kennedy and the relatively brief time President Johnson will have been in a position of responsibility, it makes it all the more desirable for the Republicans to develop their own program: to develop a positive program, a program that will put the nation back on the main road of Americanism and the road of progress."

Romney, who ended 14 years of Democratic domination of the governor's office in Michigan in 1962 with a campaign that stressed his leadership abilities, said "I think the Republican party should have a positive program. I don't think they should simply react on the basis of what President Johnson does between now and next summer."

The governor repeatedly emphasized his belief that issues and not candidates must be the focal point of the 1964 presidential battle.

CERTAIN POINTS
"There are certain points in the history of this country at which a political party has taken the initiative to provide the leadership — and I don't mean in terms of an individual, I mean in terms of a party position and its ability to meet the needs of the situation — to become the dominant political party and the party that led the nation forward in the direction the people wanted it to go."

"I think we're at such a point essentially at the present time," Romney said.

The speech in Washington tomorrow will be Romney's first appearance in a campaign which he said last week would attempt to influence national Republican policy.

Wed Twice; Same Man

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The 16-year-old daughter of actress Bette Davis was married twice in the same week — both times to the same man.

Barbara Sherry married Jeremy Hyman, 29, of London, in a civil ceremony last Tuesday. Saturday they said formal vows in All Saints Episcopal Church in Beverly Hills.

Hyman is a vice president of Seven Arts Productions, London film makers.

Pravda Says U. S. Meddling in India

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Communist organ Pravda says U.S. Ambassador Chester Bowles has been preaching free enterprise in India, and that constitutes interference in India's domestic affairs.

Bowles recently gave a series of lectures at the University of Delhi on the merits of private capital.

Pravda said in an editorial the lectures constituted an attack on state economic planning and provided right-wing political parties in India with support for attacking Prime Minister Nehru's planned economy policies.

In New Burroughs Contract

UAW to Fight for Benefits

DETROIT (AP) — Leaders of the United Auto Workers union pledged a fight for seniority rights and severance pay benefits Sunday to its newly organized Burroughs Corp. workers.

Emil Mazey, secretary-treasurer, and Joseph McCusker, UAW regional 1-A codirector made the pledge in speeches to a meeting of 2,000 Burroughs employees.

The UAW won bargaining rights for Burroughs' 5,000 hourly employees last September. The business machines company recently announced a decision to close its Second Avenue factory within two years in connection with a plan for overseas production. About 1,500 jobs will be affected.

Mazey and McCusker said seniority and severance pay will have top priority when the UAW begins contract negotiations with Burroughs about Feb. 1.

Both unionists assailed Burroughs' reorganization plan. Mazey said management made its announcement at the time it did in an attempt to "soften" the union's bargaining position. McCusker said Burroughs' plans to produce its adding machines overseas reflected poor management since other companies show a profit from similar production in the United States.

Pope Asks for Unity, Peace

Optimistic Jaycees Predict Large Vote on Charter Proposal

Pontiac Area Junior Chamber of Commerce officials yesterday said they were optimistic there will be "an excellent turnout of voters" at next Monday's special election in Pontiac.

"Judging from the number of people who have volunteered to help us in our current campaign, I'd say community interest was high," said Richard C. Fitzpatrick, Jaycee president.

His comments followed a meeting of the charter amendment steering committee yesterday afternoon.

Pontiac voters will vote on a proposed charter amendment which would change the procedure of electing city commissioners.

The junior chamber sponsored the drive to petition for the special election last August.

They submitted petitions containing some 11,500 signatures, more than twice the number needed to force a special election on the issue.

REOPEN OFFICE

Fitzpatrick said the Jaycees would reopen their charter amendment campaign office in the Community National Bank Building some time this week to coordinate campaign activities.

"We also plan to offer transportation to persons who want to vote but have no way of (Continued on Page 2, Col. 8)

Probe Slaying of Millionaire

Found Murdered in California Home

NEWPORT BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Police today probed the slaying of multimillionaire William W. Bartholomae, seeking to unravel the chain of events that left him stabbed to death in the blood-spattered kitchen of his luxurious bayfront home.

Booked on suspicion of murdering the 70-year-old yachtman was his brother's wife, Carmen Gallardo Bartholomae, 25, a former Spanish dancer.

Hospitalized with a severely cut hand was Carmen's sister, Minola Gallardo, 32.

Bartholomae, whose cattle, oil and mining fortune was estimated at $11 million, was found Sunday morning with two stab wounds in his abdomen.

BY HIS SIDE

On the floor beside him was his sister-in-law, who later told police she had fainted.

Between them lay the blood-smeared blade of an eight-inch butcher knife.

Police said Carmen told them that when Bartholomae, wearing a bathrobe and pajamas, entered the kitchen she was standing at the kitchen sink preparing breakfast.

"He didn't look good," she said.

She said she remembers holding two knives and seeing Bartholomae "tumbling" before she fainted.

She remembers nothing more until she awoke later in a hospital.

Adding to the mystery was a coroner's report which said that Bartholomae, in addition to the stab wounds, had numerous scratches, "possibly from fingernails," on his neck, face, arms, hands and chest.

MORE UP FRONT — Beneath the hood of this DH-5000 highway tractor is GMC Truck & Coach Division's new "Toro-Flow" V6 diesel engine. Offered in a number of medium-tonnage trucks, the new engine gives greater economy and durability. Full-scale production is slated to be under way later this month.

GMC's New Truck Engine Is Breakthrough for Industry

Editor, The Pontiac Press

A brand new "Toro-Flow" V6 diesel engine was announced today at a press conference by Calvin J. Werner, vice president of General Motors and general manager of the GMC Truck & Coach Division.

Automotive writers attending the meeting at the engineering building at the local plant were told by Werner that this major engineering development was a new breakthrough for engines.

The new line of GMC trucks powered by these four-cycle "Toro-Flow" engines are scheduled for production here later this month. At that time they will be on display at the GMC Retail Branch, 675 Oakland Ave.

The "Toro-Flow" V6 diesel engine includes these features:

- 1—Lowest possible cost to haul medium-tonnage loads.
- 2—Greatly improved combustion efficiency.
- 3—Simplified fuel system.
- 4—Rugged V6 structure.

After an outstanding year at GMC, these new engines should add impetus to the rapidly expanding operations of the local GM plant.

PROVEN BY TESTS

"Laboratory and proving ground tests as well as actual fleet performance convince us that "Toro-Flow" is the most significant advance in truck engine development since the introduction of our exclusive line of V6 gasoline truck engines nearly five years ago," Werner said.

He pointed out that the engines have achieved outstanding performance and economy records in actual fleet operation in more than a dozen different trucking applications across the country.

During the next five days, temperatures will average four to six degrees above the normal high of 33 and low of 21.

Precipitation will total a quarter inch or less in a few periods of light snow or snow flurries late Thursday or Friday.

The low prior to this morning was 33. By 1 p.m., the temperature had reached 40.

Makes Appeal From Church in Bethlehem

Pontiff Ends Trip After Return Visit to Orthodox Patriarch

BETHLEHEM (AP)—From the birthplace of Christ, Pope Paul VI appealed to world leaders today to keep peace in the world and for Christians to unite.

Packing history into the last day of his three-day pilgrimage of peace to the Holy Land, the pontiff of 550 million Roman Catholics returned then to Jerusalem to join Patriarch Athenagoras I, spiritual leader of world Orthodox.

They prayed that their meetings will be "a prelude of things to come for the glory of God."

These were the final highlights of the Pope's unprecedented visit to the Holy Land, for then he drove to Amman, the Jordan capital, and flew back to Rome.

At Bethlehem, the 66-year-old Pope departed from his prepared text to call upon the leaders of the world to avoid war.

CELEBRATED MASS

He spoke after celebrating Mass in the Grotto of the Church of the Nativity, where tradition holds that Christ was born.

He appealed here also for unity among all Christians of the world.

"Today the will of Christ is pressing upon us and obliging us to do all that we can, with love and wisdom, to bring to all Christians the supreme blessing and honor of a united Church," he said.

The meeting in Jerusalem with Athenagoras was the second of the pilgrimage. Until their first meeting last night, no

Barry's Bandwagon Hits Trail Tonight

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater launches his campaign for the White House tonight — after vowing that if he gets there and finds it "to our advantage" he will renounce the limited nuclear test-ban treaty.

The Arizona senator, his sights trained on the Republican presidential nomination, makes his first speech as a candidate tonight before a GOP fundraising dinner at Grand Rapids, Mich.

Tomorrow he turns to the top target in his quest for the nomination: New Hampshire. Goldwater plans to spend three days there campaigning for votes in the March 10 presidential primary that will be the nation's first of 1964.

Goldwater got in a dig Sunday night at his only announced rival for the nomination, New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

"Gov. Rockefeller is used to giving money away and I'm not, that's the difference," Goldwater said in calling for revision of the U.N. charter to force its members to pay their dues or lose their votes.

A red carpet reception was being prepared for Goldwater in Michigan by Kent County Republicans.

Goldwater, one of 19 senators who voted against ratification of the treaty that outlaws nuclear tests in the atmosphere, under water and in outer space, said in the television interview that his vote on the test ban was sound.

"I still think it is of no advantage to the United States," he said. "The treaty had more accrual of good to the Soviets than it did to the United States."

"But if you were president and you were able to renounce the treaty, would you do it?" he was asked.

"If it appeared to be to our advantage to test in the atmosphere, yes, I would do it," he said.

A red carpet reception was being prepared for Goldwater in Michigan by Kent County Republicans.

Arson Flames Hit Astor Hotel

400 Guests Leave as Ballroom Blazes

NEW YORK (AP)—An arsonist set a fire that swept the Astor Hotel's grand ballroom today, then fled when chased by hotel employees, officials said.

About 400 guests left their rooms as heavy smoke poured through the 11-story hotel, attracting a huge crowd outside the Times Square landmark. Damage was estimated at $1 million.

"Thank God nobody was hurt," said William Zeckendorf Jr., an official of the Zeckendorf Hotel Corp. chain of which the Astor is part.

Zeckendorf said the heavily damaged ballroom was renovated about two years ago at a cost of nearly $1 million.

ARSON CERTAIN

Fire Commissioner Edward Thompson said the fire definitely was set.

"We have two witnesses who actually saw the man start the fire, and we have a good description of him," Thompson said. "These witnesses chased the man, but they lost him."

Police and fire officials questioned a man who answered the general description of the suspected arsonist, but he was released.

Police described the firebug as being between 30 and 35 years old, about 6 feet tall and wearing a trench coat and glasses.

Plan Diet, Stay Active

(EDITOR'S NOTE — This is the fourth article in a six-part series on dieting, written by nutrition expert Gaynor Maddox.)

By GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

The old-fashioned mother's advice to the bride, "Feed the brute," is outdated. Today's young wife needs to be more than a fancy cook.

To keep her youthful husband in peak physical condition and to prevent circumstances that might lead to heart attacks at an early age, the modern bride needs the guidance of medical and nutrition research.

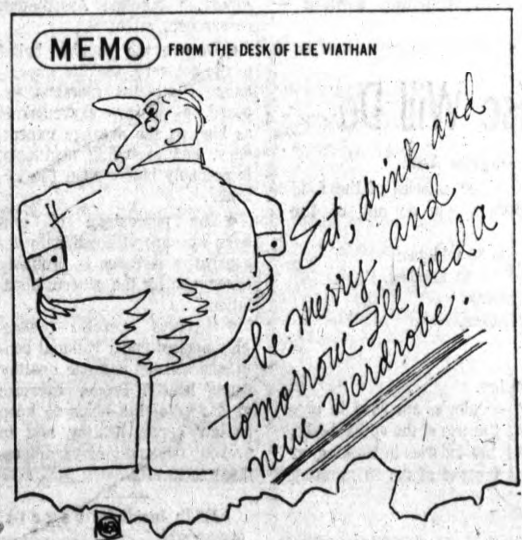

Thanks to the nutrition and health columns of newspapers and magazines and to reliable popular books, this guidance is easily available.

Theodore B. Van Itallie, M.D., director of medicine at New York's St. Luke Hospital, says research studies now in progress will help young adults find out whether heart attacks can be avoided or delayed through intelligent diet planning and regular physical activity.

Viet Red Guerrillas Escape Death Trap

TAN AN, South Viet Nam (AP)—An estimated two battalions of Communist guerrillas slipped through encircling South Vietnamese troops before dawn today after battering back a day long airborne assault.

The Viet Cong sent a wall of machine-gun fire against U.S. helicopters and knocked out an armored personnel car before melting away from their fortifications. The crew of the car was killed by a shell from a recoilless cannon.

American pilots in rocket-firing helicopters believed they killed about 60 guerrillas, although only two bodies were found. The Viet Cong usually remove the bodies of their dead when they retreat.

The engagement, only 30 miles southwest of Saigon, was fought in view of passengers in buses and cars along the main north-south highway.

THEY SLIPPED BY

"As usual, they slipped by us last night," a Vietnamese officer said. "We just didn't have enough men to seal them in."

Government troops suffered eight killed and nearly 30 wounded.

It was the third time since New Year's Day that Viet Cong units of battalion strength or more have fought off an attack and escaped.

Most of the U.S. Army helicopters in the operation were hit. One returned with 19 holes.

SLOW REINFORCEMENT

Some officers said reinforcements were slow in arriving.

"It was heartbreaking," an American adviser said. "We came within a hair of smashing a really big unit—maybe part of the Viet Cong's 506 battalion, but they got out of it."

Government forces suffered another setback in a five-day operation that ended this weekend in heavily wooded Binh Duong Province, northwest of Saigon. U.S. military advisers said the operation was a total failure.

"We must do much better than this to make any impact on the Communists this year," one adviser commented. "We are still pussyfooting around defensively against the Viet Cong."

ALMOST WIPED OUT

The operation began with a near debacle on New Year's Eve when a Ranger battalion came close to being wiped out despite nearby.

In Saigon, the chief of state, Maj. Gen. Duong Van Minh, reshuffled the military high command to centralize authority in a few key officers and reduce the authority of others.

Maj. Tran Van Don, the No. 2 man on the revolutionary junta, was put in over-all command of the armed forces, a post that has been vacant since the overthrow of the late President Ngo Dinh Diem Nov. 1. Don will continue as defense minister.

The decree replaced outspoken Maj. Gen. Ton That Dinh, 37, as commander of the 3rd Army Corps which is responsible for the protection of the area around Saigon.

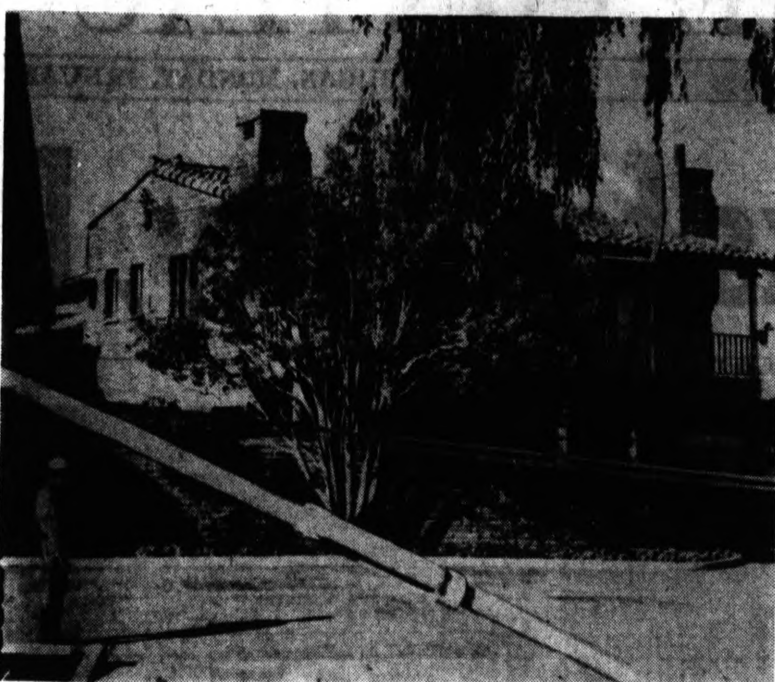

Dinh, who commanded the battle that overthrew Diem, retains his government post as security minister.

MOST LIKELY

Dinh, a spellbinding speaker who had toured the provinces to drum up support for the new regime, is the junta member considered most likely to be a potential political force.

Command of the Saigon garrison is a key post, and it was believed that his replacement resulted from a junta decision to trim his potential.

The Saigon military command was given to Maj. Gen. Tran Thien Khiem, who has been an adviser to the junta since the coup.

Olympics Supporter Succumbs

Charles H. Mayne of Bloomfield Hills, who for 12 years worked to bring the 1968 Olympic Games to Detroit, died yesterday of a heart attack at the age of 49.

Mr. Mayne, 320 Vaughan, was general chairman of the U.S. Olympic swimming and diving trials in 1956 and 1960.

Service will be 11 p.m. Wednesday at Vasu-Lynch Funeral Home in Royal Oak. Entombment will follow at Woodlawn Cemetery, Detroit.

During the past year, he devoted much time to European travel preparing for the fruitless Detroit bid for the Olympics. He served as executive director of the Detroit Olympic Committee.

MANUFACTURING EXEC

Mr. Mayne was a manufacturing executive and manufacturers' representative. He was a graduate of the University of Michigan.

His memberships included the Detroit Athletic Club, Detroit Golf Club and Recess Club.

Surviving are his wife, Barbara; a daughter, Mrs. Herschel Post of Cambridge, Mass.; a son, Charles H. Jr., at home; and a brother.

Contributions can be made to the Heart Fund.

Pope Asks Unity, Peace

Pope and no leader of the Orthodox Christians had met since 1439 in an attempt then to reunite the two religions separated since 1054.

The pontiff, who had received Athenagoras at the Apostolic Delegation in the first meeting, returned the visit at the patriarchal headquarters in the villa "Galatia" on the Mount of Olives.

The meeting produced a communique in which the two said their contacts "cannot be considered otherwise than a fraternal gesture inspired by the charity of Christ."

The pontiff at Bethlehem expressed his joy at the meetings. "We are profoundly pleased that the meeting we had here in these blessed days, with the Ecumenical Patriarch of Constantinople, has been realized in a most amiable way and revealed itself full of the best hopes. We thank our Lord for it with all our hearts and we pray Him that He himself who started in us this good word of peace and unity wishes to carry it to a good end," the Pope said.

From the meeting, the Pope went to Amman where thousands waited to shout their farewells.

"Baba! Baba!" they called out. This is an Arabic approximation of the Italian word for Pope.

King Hussein I of Jordan who had met him there Saturday returned to bid the Pope goodbye. The Pope came to Bethlehem this morning, journeying the winding road from Jerusalem on the Feast of the Epiphany, commemorating the visit of the wise men to the manger and the first manifestation of Christ to the Gentiles. Pope Paul is the first Roman pontiff known to have visited the spot of the nativity.

Eight Miles of Freeway Open Soon

Nearly eight miles of I-696 and the Lodge freeway in Oakland County will be opened to traffic at 2 p.m. Wednesday, the State Highway Department announced today.

The Lodge freeway will be opened from a point just north of Nine Mile Road to its intersection with I-696 at Telegraph Road.

The westbound portion of I-696 from there to Orchard Lake Road will be open. I-696 from Orchard Lake Road west to its junction with I-96 has been open for several months.

The eastbound lane of I-696 from Orchard Lake Road to Telegraph Road, and of the Lodge freeway from Telegraph to Lahser Road, also has been opened for several months.

FOLLOWS HIGHWAY

The Lodge freeway follows the route of Northwestern Highway.

I-696, located on a new east-west route, will be extended 18 miles eastward through Oakland and Macomb counties parallel to 10 Mile Road to connect with I-94 at Roseville beginning in 1967.

After Wednesday's opening of the new Lodge and I-696 sections only a two-mile gap will remain to be completed in a continuous freeway from downtown Detroit to Muskegon via the Lodge, I-696 and I-96 freeways.

That gap — the Lodge freeway between Seven and Nine mile roads — is scheduled to be opened to traffic later this year.

County Road Accidents Add Two More to '64 Toll

A young Flushing father and a Flint woman were killed in weekend traffic accidents in the area.

Lorne T. Statia, 25, died of a skull fracture after his car rammed into the rear of a stalled truck on Lapeer Road in Orion Township yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Carole Hesse, 26, was dead on arrival at Pontiac General Hospital Saturday following a head-on crash on the Dixie in Independence Township. She was eight months pregnant.

Statia, formerly of Royal Oak and Madison Heights, was driving north when he smashed into the disabled vehicle of Wilford Murphy, 61, of 40 Greenfield, Orion Township.

Murphy was recently released from the hospital after being beaten, allegedly, by three men who have been charged with the unarmed robbery of his store.

Neither Murphy nor his passenger, Norman Davis, 20, of 2605 E. Walton, Orion Township, was injured in the 3:37 p. m. accident north of Greenfield.

A passenger in Statia's car, Christian Stevenson, 17, of 16951 Georgina, Beverly Hills, was treated and released.

SURVIVORS

Statia is survived by his wife and two children.

Mrs. Hesse was a passenger in a car driven by her husband, Robin, 29.

Their car crossed over the center line and collided head on with a car driven by Michael Postula, 23, of 1918 Clifton, Royal Oak, according to state police from the Pontiac post.

Police said Hesse was attempting to pass a truck turning into a driveway near Foster Road when the accident occurred at 5:45 p. m.

Diem's Mother Dies at Hospital in Saigon

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — The 92-year-old mother of former President Ngo Dinh Diem of South Viet Nam died Friday at a hospital in Saigon, a Vietnamese press report said today.

The long bed-ridden Mrs. Ngo Dinh Kha was taken to the hospital from her home in Hue sometime after the Nov. 1 coup, in which Diem was killed.

tivity from early adulthood on, or even earlier, since coronary heart disease often has its beginnings in the teens."

Although diet is believed to be the major environmental factor affecting the blood level of cholesterol and other fats implicated in heart disease, physical activity also may be important. Dr. Van Itallie adds:

"There is evidence that a physically active person can eat richer and higher calorie diets with greater safety than can a sedentary one."

He cites studies made in Switzerland of hard-working farmers. Their diets were high-scientists do — evidence and believe it possible to delay the rate of progression of heart trouble by keeping the cholesterol low then the earlier you start the better."

Because young persons with high cholesterol levels have a greater risk of developing heart disease than individuals of the same age and sex with low levels, the doctor believes the determination of blood cholesterol levels can be a useful part of the annual physical examination.

"If a young person's cholesterol is high, he should consult his doctor about a suitable table diet and other measures to help reduce it," advises Dr. Van Itallie, who is also associate clinical professor of medicine at Columbia University.

EXERCISE DESIRABLE

There are many reasons why regular physical activity is desirable from the health standpoint, but such exercise must be part of the daily program and not merely reserved for occasional weekends and vacations.

To young wives, Dr. Van Itallie says, "Encourage your husband to get regular exercise by walking more, playing golf, swimming, bowling — whatever form of activity he gets, most fun out of.

"Join him as often as possible. Make planned physical activity a way of your married life."

The promise in Dr. Van Itallie's advice, as well as that of many other leading medical and nutrition researchers, is this:

Intelligent diet and regular physical activity can keep young hearts younger longer.

DON'T WORRY

Don't worry about any probable bad effects of exercise on your heart. "Exercise and Health," published by the American Medical Association researchers, state:

• Despite the popular belief to the contrary, the life expectancy of athletes (persons exposed to vigorous exercise) is as high as the average expectancy, and, excluding accidents, is probably higher than the average.

• The percentage of athletes who are afflicted with degenerative diseases is probably lower than for the general population.

• Vigorous exercise reasonably applied under rational conditions will not damage healthy young hearts. Proper exercise as a way of life helps to keep healthy hearts healthy and to prevent the onset of cardiovascular disease.

Jaycee Offices Moved to Community House

BIRMINGHAM — The Junior Chamber of Commerce has become the first local organization to officially adopt the Community House as its headquarters.

The Jaycees have moved their desks, files and other office equipment into the building at 380 S. Bates.

This is the first step in the Community House's effort to establish a central office for civic and service organizations in the Birmingham-Bloomfield area.

In welcoming the Jaycees, Community House Executive Director Robert Bogan commented on plans to expand the program.

FILL REQUIREMENTS

"Plans for our new building reflect space and facility requirements to accommodate many community organizations that have a common desire to pool and share various office services," he said.

The Jaycees will be a pilot group in determining needs of other nonprofit organizations that may join them in the facilities, according to Bogan.

As reasons for the move, Jaycee President Gerry Dudley listed the Community House's central location and provision for duplication and mailing, as well as telephone answering service and availability of meeting places.

The University of Michigan's center for adult education will offer six courses at Cranbrook Institute of Science this winter.

Preregistration can be made from 5 to 9 p.m. Jan. 14 at the institute. University credit will be given for two of the courses, one in anthropology and the other in mineralogy.

The 15-week anthropology course, Major Cultural Developments in Prehistory, will be taught by Dr. Richard O. Kestlin. Beginning Jan. 21, it will meet from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. Tuesdays.

Minerals and Rocks, designed for students not concentrating in geology or mineralogy, will meet from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. Thursdays beginning Jan. 23. Instructor will be Dr. William C. Kelley.

NONCREDIT COURSES

Both of these courses can be taken by those not working for credit.

Eight-week noncredit courses will include Birds in the Field, taught by nine instructors and Geology and Water Resources of Michigan, with Dr. Andrew J. Mozola as instructor.

These classes, scheduled for 7:30-9:30 p.m. Tuesdays, will begin Feb. 11.

Offered on Saturday mornings as well as Thursday evenings will be Lapidary Techniques, taught by Donald E. Tompkins.

FIRST SESSION

The 7-10 p.m. Thursday session will begin Jan. 30, and the Saturday group will start work Feb. 1 from 9 a.m. to noon. Elementary Astronomy for Teachers and Others will be taught by Doris N. McMillan from 4 to 5:30 p.m. Tuesdays beginning Feb. 4.

William A. Hathaway

Service for William A. Hathaway, 57, of 1175 Chapin will be 1 p.m. tomorrow at the Manley Bailey Funeral Home. Burial will follow in Franklin Cemetery, Franklin.

Mr. Hathaway, a plant protection employee of Federal Mogul Co., Detroit, died Friday after a long illness.

He was a member of the Christian Temple Church. Surviving are his mother, Mrs. William Hathaway of Birmingham; a sister, Mrs. Ed Fox of Pontiac; and a brother.

Details on this service and how to contact the office will be announced tomorrow or Wednesday, he added.

Some 5,000 bumper stickers urging people to vote for the amendment are available at the Nichol Insurance and Real Estate Agency, 49 Mount Clemens, and at the Fitzpatrick Pharmacies at 33 W. Huron and 880 Woodward.

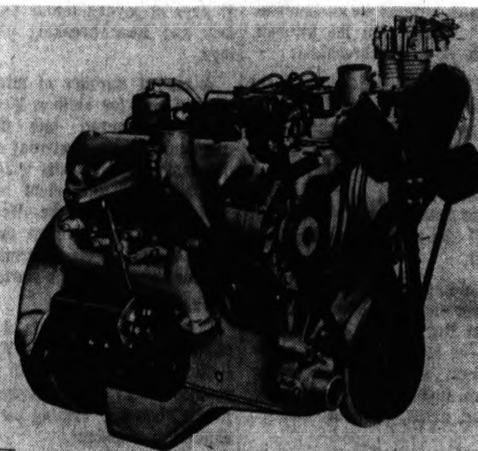

TELEPHONE VOTERS

"We're very pleased with the number who have volunteered to telephone voters urging them to vote next Monday," Fitzpatrick said.

Presently, commissioners are nominated and elected by district vote alone, each voter casting only one vote for a candidate from his own district.

The amendment doesn't propose to change the method of nomination by district.

It does propose that each voter be allowed to vote for seven candidates, one from each district, at the final election each April.

They will be available in full conventional cab models, full conventional tandem-axle models, short-cab conventional models and steel-tilt cabs.

LIGHTER TRUCK USES

For lighter truck uses, such as pickup and delivery operations, the engines provide new economy, while tilt cabs will benefit from maximum front-axle loading, balanced weight distribution and greater maneuverability.

Besides the inherent V6 "Toro-Flow" features a simplified fuel system, positive rotation of intake and exhaust valves, and heavy-duty main bearing caps with side bolts.

Parts and service for the new engine will be available through GMC's nationwide dealer network.

While primarily for medium-tonnage truck use, GMC officials say the basic "Toro-Flow" engine has advantages in many marine and industrial applications.

State Highway Toll Hits 11 in First Weekend of '64

By The Associated Press
At least 11 persons died in traffic accidents in Michigan during the first weekend of 1964. The Associated Press weekend traffic fatality count began at 6 p.m. Friday and ended at midnight Sunday.

The dead included:
Loren Statia, 25, of Flushing was killed yesterday when his car struck the rear of a small truck on M24 in Oakland County, sheriff's deputies said.

Louis Little, 41, of Detroit died yesterday when his car veered off the eastbound lane of the Edsel Ford Expressway in Detroit and hit a bridge support.

Clara Hughes, 50, of Clio was killed yesterday while riding with her husband, George. The couple's car struck another auto on M57 in Saginaw County.

LODGE CRASH
James L. Milson, 42, of Detroit was killed Saturday night when his car ran off the Lodge freeway in Detroit and hit a cement bridge support.

Personal jet

Your own personal jet to transport you in seconds anywhere you want to go... that's one of the many roles the telephone plays in your life.

Your telephone is always ready to speed your voice for a friendly chat with family or friends, to take you on a whirlwind shopping trip around town, or to help make last-minute plans. Your telephone jet is always ready in an emergency, too, when speed is so important.
