Loses Fight in Court

APPEAL UNDECIDED — Dr. Neil H. Sullenberger, whose suit against Pontiac General Hospital was dismissed in Oakland Circuit Court yesterday is shown with his attorney, Harry Dell and his wife. He has 20 days in which he may appeal the decision to the Michigan Supreme Court.

...and Then Suddenly the Trial Was Over

By PETE LOCHBILER

Suddenly, it was all over—for the time being, at least.

The case of Dr. Neil H. Sullenberger versus Pontiac General Hospital, one of the most sensational chancery suits in recent Pontiac history, in theory did not exist any more.

There was a chance—how good a chance no one was sure—that new life could be breathed into it by the Michigan Supreme Court.

The Supreme Court seemed a long ways away yesterday.

In the afternoon, a few hours after Circuit Judge Timothy C. Quinn had dramatically dismissed the controversial suit, a tension seemed to be lifted at the hospital and at the Sullenberger home, 208 E. Iroquois Rd.

The 42-year-old chest surgeon, who had dared drag the medical world into court, now was relaxing comfortably in his living room.

He had donned slippers and the kind of old clothes he feels most comfortable in, perhaps — one of the flimsy "scrub-suits" which surgeons wear when operating.

"I was surprised by the decision and I still feel surprised," he told a couple reporters. "I think I have more of a case than the decision would indicate."

TO CONTINUE FIGHT

He went on to say he has not yet given up his fight to practice again at the hospital.

"As soon as possible, I want to take advantage of whatever kind of appeal hearing the Board of Trustees has to offer."

And if the board suspends him permanently?

"Then I'll talk to my attorney about a Supreme Court appeal of

Warmer for Sunday Here; High in 50s

The outlook for the Pontiac area through tomorrow is partly cloudy with a low tonight of 30-34.

Sunday will be slightly warmer with the high reaching 50-54 degrees. Showers are predicted again for Monday and Tuesday.

The lowest reading in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. was 38. The mercury rose to 52 at 1 p.m.

Surgeon Will Seek Reinstatement

Plans to Ask Hospital Board for a Decision

Says Charges Against Him Must Be Settled, One Way or Another

With four months of bitter court battling "deliberately" suspended by a circuit judge anxious to avoid the "sensational publicity and degradation of open trial," Dr. Neil H. Sullenberger will take his fight to practice again at Pontiac General Hospital back to the enemy's home ground.

The ousted staff surgeon said he would request a hearing by the hospital Board of Trustees "as soon as possible" and leave it up to them whether he should be reinstated or permanently suspended.

"I'm not going to leave Pontiac until I have the charges hanging over me settled, one way or another," the 42-year-old chest surgeon asserted.

If Dr. Sullenberger's request for a hearing by the board of trustees is granted—and the hospital by-laws say it has to be—it would return the controversy to the status it had Dec. 2, the date the board had a final hearing scheduled and Dr. Sullenberger filed suit preventing it from being held.

Hospital Director Carl Flath ventured the opinion that a hearing should be put off until the Supreme Court question was settled. But Willis M. Brewer, board chairman, believed it should be called before that.

Yesterday, it was not expected the board would take any action at its next regular meeting, April 17. But it may be obliged to, if Dr. Sullenberger makes his request before then.

Circuit Judge Timothy J. Quinn yesterday abruptly dismissed Dr.

MSU Oakland Adds 7 to Board of Advisers

Michigan State University Oakland has added seven more members to the Advisory Board. Judge Howard Carroll and Major General Robert E. L. Eaton are from Macomb County, while the others are from Oakland: Christian F. Beukema, Miss Marion Goodale, Mrs. Lillian Nogvell, Walter K. Willman and Coy G. Ekelund.

Towards the end of April, the entire board will hold a meeting and watch President John A. Hannah turn the first shovel of dirt in an informal ceremony marking the official beginning of work on the Oakland County branch.

Thirteen Years Ago, Truman Took Command

WASHINGTON (AP) — Harry S. Truman was back on familiar stamping grounds today for the 13th anniversary of his rise to president of the United States.

It was on April 12, 1945, that Franklin D. Roosevelt died at Warm Springs, Ga., and the responsibilities of a wartime presidency fell on the shoulders of the one time farm boy from Missouri.

The former president celebrates the anniversary tonight with a foreign policy speech to a banquet of the American Veterans of World War II.

Truman, approaching his 74th birthday next month, is much changed from the man who went prayerfully to the White House 13 years ago.

Nearly eight years in the presidency and the applause of fellow Democrats have given him increased confidence, and even a trace of cockiness. He has become one of the most sought after speakers on the political stage.

Probe Beatings in 2 Hospitals

State Legislature Sends Troopers After Records of Mental Homes

LANSING (AP)—Angry charges of beatings at Coldwater State Home and Training School exploded on the House floor last night and touched off a legislative investigation of two mental hospitals.

Minutes after Rep. Carroll C. Newman (R-Delton) denounced treatment given his brother-in-law at the Coldwater Hospital, state police were dispatched to impound records in the case.

These developments quickly followed:

1. Rep. Edward H. Jeffries (D-Detroit) reported complaints of maltreatment at Caro State Hospital for epileptics.

2. Lawmakers authorized subpoenas ordering Charles F. Wagg, state mental health director; Dr. E. J. Rennell, medical superintendent at Coldwater, and Dr. W. W. Dickerson, Caro superintendent, to appear before the House Ways and Means Committee for a hearing next Thursday.

3. Rennell and Dickerson acknowledged occasional scuffles involving patients and employes at their hospitals, but said attendants guilty of any abuses are discharged.

Newton, suddenly interrupting House debate over appropriations for mental health programs, told lawmakers his brother-in-law, Ivan Tobias, had been severely beaten on several occasions by a 260-pound attendant at Coldwater.

Hospital records showed Tobias, who lived on a farm near Hastings, died in 1955 after seven years in the hospital. Newton did not link the beatings with the man's death, however.

Actress Weeps at Coroner's Inquest

TEARFUL LANA ON STAND — At Los Angeles, a tearful Lana Turner tells a coroner's jury about events leading up to the fatal stabbing of Johnny Stompanato in her home the night of April 4.

Daughter May Be Taken From Lana

Cheryl's Penalty in Doubt

By LEE BELSER

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — The penalty—if any — that Cheryl Crane ultimately will pay for slaying Johnny Stompanato remained an unknown quantity today, although the district attorney suggested she be taken away from her mother.

But the threat of life imprisonment no longer hangs over the head of Lana Turner's only child.

A coroner's jury made that certain yesterday when it ruled that the 14-year-old schoolgirl's fatal stabbing of the handsome gigolo was "justifiable homicide."

Later, District Attorney William B. McKesson said if, by some remote chance, the case was turned over to the Superior Court for trial he would not prosecute "on the basis of the coroner's verdict and the information I have at present."

McKesson said the main problem at the forthcoming April 24 hearing, when Cheryl's fate will be determined, is the question of "placement."

"I don't feel she has ever had a home," he said, "either with her father or her mother. And I think it's about time she has one."

DENIES ROMANCE

Meanwhile, the child's actress mother Lana Turner, violently denied any romantic attachment between her daughter and Stompanato, the shadowy underworld figure who became the star's feared lover.

In an exclusive statement to this reporter, Miss Turner sobbed:

"It's ridiculous. It's monstrous—horrible!"

The words fell from the actress' trembling lips following the jam-packed inquest, and after a man who identified himself as Steve Trusso, a pal of Stompanato's, wildly cried from the center of the courtroom:

"She (Cheryl) was in love with him (Stompanato) and her mother was jealous!"

Later, Lana said it was true Cheryl went horseback riding with Mickey Cohen's ex-bodyguard, but "that's all it was. That's all!"

Asked his reaction to Trusso's remarks, Stephen Crane, the girl's father, snapped:

"I'd rather forget what he said."

PRAYERS ANSWERED

In her quarters at Juvenile Hall, the willowy young girl, told of the coroner's verdict, said: "My prayers have been answered."

In contemplating the fate of their child both Lana and Crane have declared they will cooperate "to the fullest" with juvenile authorities, whatever their decision.

The girl was made a ward of the court last Saturday and since

Ain't Supposed to Write It

Ain't Wrong to Say Ain't

EAST LANSING (AP) — It ain't wrong to say ain't. But you ain't supposed to write it.

That's the advice of Dr. Austin J. Freeley, director of speech at John Carroll University, Cleveland, Ohio.

Speaking before a National Forensic Student Congress at Michigan State University, Dr. Freeley said that the word "ain't" represents an effective, emphatic means of communication.

It should be used only in speech, he said, not in writing and only on suitable occasions.

13 in GOP Bolt to Hike Funds for Universities

Leaders in Legislature Call 5-Day Cooling-Off Period for Conferences

By ROGER LANE

LANSING (AP) — A rebellious House blew the lid off austerity budgeting last night, and legislative leaders whistled a five-day cooling off period.

Lawmakers will return Thursday for an overtime meeting to make final spending decisions on House-Senate compromises to be worked out by special committees in the interim.

Thirteen House Republicans bolted party lines yesterday to vote with Democrats in jacking up higher education appropriations by $2,322,146.

Eight lawmakers declined to vote.

If the House has its way, the 1958-59 general fund budget will balloon to nearly 345 million dollars. This would compare with the starting figure of about 331 millions and Gov. Williams' revenue estimate of 333 millions.

That the House position will prevail seemed unlikely even though the Senate GOP economy line gave some signs of weakening.

While the Senate marked time yesterday, the House:

1. Added $2,322,146 to allotments for state colleges and universities, raising the higher education bill to $90,144,887. It was introduced at $87,423,891.

BILL RECALLED

2. Recalled the capital outlay bill, and put in an extra $1,200,000 for rebuilding Jackson Junior College, which burned. The bill left the House at $6,483,000 compared with $4,651,726 at introduction.

3. Confirmed Ways and Means committee recommendations Wednesday which added $2,300,000 to the mental hygiene, junior college operations and adult corrections money allotments, and for miscellaneous other purposes.

4. Approved a three year, 120 million dollar bonding program for new buildings at state universities and other institutions, provided voters okay it in a statewide referendum this fall.

5. Again deferred action, at the motion of majority Republicans, on Gov. Williams' proposed 20 million dollar increase in the state intangibles tax to balance income and outgo. The bill remains ready for a passage vote.

6. Recalled a bill to supply operating fund deficiencies for the current year and inserted $1,500,000 to finance a return to 50-50 state-local expense sharing of direct relief costs.

While the welfare item was not a charge against the new budget, House members vowed to fight in conference for 50-50 expense sharing in 1958-59 at added state expense of nine million dollars.

The Legislature in 1957 changed the formula on division of welfare costs. Seventy per cent of the burden was put on local governments, which have been swamped with rising unemployment.

Call for Precinct Delegates

Political Parties Look to Fall

First steps in organizing the party political machinery of the state and nation are being taken this month and next, with the filing of nominating petitions for precinct delegates to county conventions. Petitions must be filed by May 27.

County Clerk Lynn D. Allen expressed disappointment today that "very few" petitions had been requested from his office so far.

At 4 p.m. on May 27 persons aspiring to be delegates to the Oakland County Republican and Democratic conventions must have their petitions on file. "And no later," Allen warned.

Blanks are available now at Allen's office and at both party headquarters in the county.

One delegate from each of the county's 292 voting precincts represents his or her precinct at the two conventions which will be sometime between Aug. 13 and 25. Delegates will be elected at the Aug. 5 primary.

"These delegates are some of the most important persons in the political machinery," Allen said. "They indirectly have a say toward state and national officers."

Any qualified elector is eligible to become a delegate.

Those signing the petitions must be a qualified elector residing in the precinct the candidate wishing to represent, the clerk explained. The candidate too must reside there.

Although law only requires a minimum of 15 signatures on a petition, Allen's office recommends 20 so that in case some invalid names are stricken, the nominee still will make the required number.

The clerk's office hopes for a large number of petitions due to increase in precincts. "The growth of the county is evident in that we only had 248 precincts at this time in 1956," Allen said.

Ships to Tackle Lake Ice Anew

Cutter Mackinaw Will Try to Bring Freighters Through Again Today

PORT HURON (INS)—A new assault on the Lake Huron ice pack was expected today as the icebreaker Mackinaw tries to convoy freighters through the barrier.

The 5,700 ton ship has been working for days trying to break the 20-25 foot thick pack and allow upbound freighters to continue through.

Captain Evor S. Kerr of the Mackinaw said the wind velocities have a bearing on how many of the six waiting ships he will try to escort through the ice. Predictions of 20 mph winds today were not considered favorable.

A small segment of the ice pack was broken off yesterday by the Mackinaw and raised the water level in the St. Clair River more than a foot.

Three smaller Coast Guard cutters, the Acacia, the Kaw and Ojibway, worked through the night breaking the ice, thus averting jams below Port Huron.

Rebellious House Fights Tight Budget

nancing levels granted for this fiscal year but leave them about 10 million dollars under the governor's recommendations.

In effect, the House voted still another $195,000 to the schools — other than the University of Michigan and Michigan State, which already do so — by granting authority to carry forward year end balances.

The major boost for education came in an amendment that squeaked through. It drew the bare minimum 56 votes required for adoption, with 44 lawmakers, all Republicans, opposing it.

As it goes to the Senate, the bonding proposal calls for 75 million dollars in four-year college and university construction, 7½ millions for junior colleges on a matching basis with local governments.

The other 37½ million would go for mental health, social welfare and prison projects.

Nine Chevy Plants to Close for Week

DETROIT (AP) — General Motors says it will close nine of its Chevrolet Division manufacturing plants Monday for one week and will close nine assembly plants for a similar period the following week.

The company said yesterday the shutdowns were part of an effort to readjust production to new car inventories.

GM said it did not know how many workers would be affected.

Manufacturing plants scheduled to close Monday are at Toledo and Cleveland, Ohio, Buffalo and Tonawanda, N. Y., Bay City and Livonia, Mich., and three at Flint, Mich.

Holding Two in Theft of Record Albums Here

A Detroit man and woman were arrested yesterday at the Kroger Store, 178 S. Saginaw St., and charged with stealing 12 record albums valued at $47.50.

Jessie P. Flowers, 27, and Shirley J. Guiden, 28, were accused by the store manager of taking the records during store hours yesterday.

The manager, Jack Refus, apprehended the pair with the records concealed on their persons and held them for police.

Highway Safety Group Visits GM Tech. Center

DETROIT (AP)—The Governors Conference Special Committee on Highway Safety concluded a 2½-day meeting with leading auto makers today with an inspection of General Motors Technical Center.

Feature of the Technical Center visit was demonstration of a car controlled almost completely by a single four-inch stick. Short movements of the stick control steering, acceleration and braking. The stick operates electronic computer and hydraulic power supply.

Members of the committee left with the industry a distinct indication there is sizable sentient in favor of legislation to make most safety devices standard equipment on automobiles.

Gov. Abraham Ribicoff of Connecticut, chairman of the committee, told industry leaders he would support any legislation to make the devices standard equipment. Industry spokesmen told the committee such legislation would hamper engineering development and industry progress rather than solve the basic problems.

Among these problems, they said, were highway design and reluctance of car owners to take full advantage of safety features and safety practices.

Paul G. Ackerman, director of Chrysler's engineering staff, told the committee a Plymouth model car would cost the customer $550 more if a number of safety features now offered as optional items were made standard. He included automatic transmission, power brakes, power steering, padding, safety door locks and safety belts in his list of safety features.

Safety belts, industry executives reported, have had poor acceptance. Ackerman said the percentage of new car buyers ordering them has been extremely small. J. O. Wright, general manager of Ford division, said only two per cent of Ford's nearly 1½ million buyers last year bought seat belts.

Marsilid Recalled After Woman Dies

WASHINGTON (AP) — The manufacturer of the drug Marsilid is recalling all packages of the product recommending a daily dose of 150 milligrams.

The Food and Drug Administration announced yesterday the Hoffmann-Laroche Co. of Nutley, N.J., was taking the action after a coroner's jury in San Francisco attributed a woman's death to the drug, which the manufacturer describes as a "mood stimulant."

The jury said Mrs. Frances Simpson, 55, died after taking daily amounts of Marsilid as recommended by the manufacturer. Coroner Henry W. Turkel's ruling was the same as that of the jury.

Turkel said Hoffmann-Laroche has since reduced the 150 milligram dose recommendation to 50 milligrams. Associate FDA Commissioner John L. Harvey said his agency regards the 50 milligram recommendation as safe.

Nab Juvenile in Theft

A juvenile, identified as an escapee from the Boys Vocational School, was arrested yesterday by Pontiac Police in the theft of $1,500 in cash and checks from the Pontiac Boys Club Thursday.

Seven Volunteers to Implement Drive for Observance Here

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — Seven volunteer leaders to co-ordinate observance of Michigan Week in Oakland County were appointed Friday by Ernest A. Jones and John R. MacManus, co-chairmen of Michigan Week for the County.

Named to implement the intensive May 4 to 10 drive to promote Michigan in the county's seventeen cities are the heads of the following Chambers of Commerce: Birmingham, Charles Mortensen; Ferndale, William R. Tarsney; Keego Harbor, Leon Windsor; Pontiac, John W. Hirlinger; Rochester, Jack Taylor; Royal Oak, Roland B. Powers; Farmington, Ronald Pullen.

At an organizational meeting held Friday at Bloomfield Hills Country Club, John R. MacManus, executive vice president of MacManus, John and Adams, Inc., national advertising agency, reminded the group that "nothing is more important than selling Michigan at home."

He said, "Our aim is to develop greater knowledge of Michigan and still greater pride in Michigan among its people, at the same time using this observance to attract favorable attention to Michigan across the nation."

Paul Carnahan, president of Great Lakes Steel Corporation and Southeastern Michigan regional chairman of Michigan Week, told the group that a large part of the program will be the featuring of state products, displays of local business and industry, advertising features of Michigan, use of banners and placards with the Michigan Week emblem and slogan, display of the state flag and wide use of photos of Michigan scenes.

Holly Man, 60, Dies of Wound

Accidentally Shot Self When Tripping Over Door Shield at Home

A 60-year-old Holly man died at St. Joseph Hospital, in Flint, Thursday night after tripping over a door shield of his own making and accidentally shooting himself.

Ernest Holmes, of 5323 Evans Rd., installed a 20-inch board across the lower part of his basement door to act as a shield against cold air last winter.

Thursday he was going out to shoot some muskrats which had built a dam in an outside drain. He tripped over the shield and fatally wounded himself in the chest, said Flint State Troopers.

Holmes died about three hours after the 12 gauge automatic shotgun accidentally went off. He was pronounced dead by Oakland County Medical Examiner Dr. M. V. Michaelson.

Holmes was a night watchman at the Pontiac State Hospital.

Lana May Lose Custody

Cheryl's Fate Eyed

then there have been repeated indications that she would not be returned to her mother, but would be placed in someone else's care, possibly the care of her grandmother, Mrs. Mildred Turner.

The court has the privilege of turning the girl over to the State Youth Authority; releasing her in the custody of her parents or a court-appointed guardian or turning her over to the district attorney for prosecution.

However, the latter is a very remote prospect. McKesson said he "assumes" Juvenile Court will retain jurisdiction over Cheryl.

The child's parents, both of whom testified at the inquest, wept when the jury returned the verdict. Shortly before the jury returned to the courtroom, Lana, near collapse, was taken from the crowded, humid courtroom and rushed home to bed. When told of the verdict, she sighed a profound, "Thank God!"

During the noisy, disorderly hearing in Los Angeles' Hall of Records, Miss Turner, shaking with emotion, told of violent arguments between her and Stompanato that led to the fatal stomach stabbing April 4 in the pink boudoir of her luxurious Beverly Hills home.

Some inquest spectators called Lana's witness stand appearance the "greatest performance of her life." She referred to it as "the hardest thing I've ever had to do."

The actress testified that both she and her mother, Mrs. Mildred Turner, tried to breathe life back into the body of Stompanato after he fell lifeless to the floor.

She told a 10-man, 2-woman jury that the long series of disagreements between her and her underworld suitor began in London last March. She said Stompanato once choked her and threw her on the floor and on another occasion threatened her with a razor. She quoted him as saying:

"I'll only start with a little one now to give you a taste of it but it'll be worse later." She added: "He said he did that just to let me know he wasn't kidding."

The actress said Stompanato repeatedly told her she'd never get away from him and that the argument prior to the killing concerned his opposition to a dinner appointment she nearly made with friends.

However, in Cheryl's confession which was introduced at the hearing, the girl said her mother and Stompanato were arguing over "age."

"Mother found out," the statement read, "that Johnny was 10 years younger than he said he was."

the decision. At the moment, I'm inclined to make an appeal."

AIR CHARGES

His attitude changed to one of dead seriousness.

"The thing I want most is a hearing on the charges," he said, in reference to the 25 allegations of professional misconduct made by hospital director Carl I. Flath in answer to the suit.

"I will never leave Pontiac with those bad conduct charges hanging over me. I want them decided, one way or the other.

"If I'm found guilty, I'll probably have to quit medicine. But I still want the record made clear."

STANDS ON RECORD

Saying he had "confidence" his professional record would stand up, the surgeon suddenly smiled as he remembered Flath had also charged him with personality conflicts with hospital personnel.

"I know I'm hot-tempered," he conceded with a grin.

At the hospital, the man whose charges brought national attention to the case sat in his office dictating a few letters.

Carl Flath had not had much time for dictating recently. He was too busy worrying about the case, preparing the hundreds of hospital records Dr. Sullenberger had subpoenaed, acting as a "clearing-house" for the many other defendants in the case.

Now he was smiling, reading newspaper accounts of the dismissal, clipping them out for the hospital scrap-book.

"It's a happy day for us today," he said simply. "It wouldn't have been had the judge ruled the other way."

USED TO CRISES

How did he feel, now that the crisis was past?

"No different from usual. We're used to crises here. This is a hospital, remember. We deal with crises all the time."

As for the rest of the hospital, it had begun to quiet down.

But at noontime, even before officials were able to get back from the trial, word had gotten around.

The hospital cafeteria was soon buzzing with excitement. There were a couple of cheers. Whether you were for or against Dr. Sullenberger's fight, it seemed that the air had been cleared for the first time in several months.

The hospital was about to relax and devote its full attention now to the big job of moving into the new addition.

In mid-afternoon, attendants brought the four-drawer filing cabinet of subpoenaed records back from the courthouse.

The cabinet was wheeled into an office. It stood there as a symbol of what might lie ahead. The hospital was not going to put each of the subpoenaed records back in its proper place. It left them together, in the one cabinet, just in case they have to go back to court again.

Discover Indian Burial Pit

ST. IGNACE (AP)—Workmen excavating gravel have uncovered an Indian burial pit believed to be several hundred years old.

Orr Greenless, a member of the Michilimackinac Society which is interested in the history of the Straits of Mackinac area, said yesterday at least 52 complete skeletons have been removed.

Circumstances indicate the skeletons were of persons who died in an epidemic or massacre, Greenless said.

Greenless estimated the pit to be 250 to 300 years old.

Sullenberger to Ask for Reinstatement

Sullenberger's controversial suit for reinstatement and $250,000 damages with the observation that the case should go straight to the Michigan Supreme Court instead of being heard in a long, drawn-out trial here.

He frankly stated that he had "deliberately" pushed the suit out of circuit court to the higher court "so that it may be (settled) unequivocally on appeal."

He indicated his belief that for the sake of the community and the litigants, it would be better to avoid "the sensational publicity and degradation necessarily incident to a public trial of the charges contained in these pleadings."

He said that he saw "implications" in the case that went far beyond Pontiac, its hospital and Dr. Sullenberger.

He said he had tried to find a basis for an out-of-court settlement, but found none.

"That was to be expected with conditions and tempers as they are," he noted.

In effect, his handling of the case and his dismissal of it separated the legal aspects from the sensational before the latter could be aired in public.

If Dr. Sullenberger appeals, the high court would have before it only the legal issues, which appear academic in comparison with the charges of professional misconduct and jealousy on the other side of the case.

The surgeon said he would discuss with his attorney Harry N. Dell, next week whether to appeal or not. He has until 2¢ days after the order to dismiss is filed to make up his mind.

A high court ruling upholding the dismissal would end the case. A reverse ruling, Judge Quinn observed, would put it "right back where it should have been settled in the first place in the hands of the profession involved and the management of the hospital."

The Caro, Mich., judge, called into the case only last Monday, settled it with a suddeness that took breaths away on both sides.

Hospital attorney Glenn C. Gillespie argued that the suit was brought "prematurely." He said Dr. Sullenberger had not exhausted "all administrative means" available to him at the hospital to remain on the staff. By this, Gillespie meant the doctor had a right under the hospital by-laws to a hearing by the Board of Trustees on a previous recommendation by the staff's executive committee that he be suspended "because of his conduct in and about the hospital."

"Although Dr. Sullenberger asked for such a hearing, and one was granted and rescheduled for his convenience several times, he never showed up," Gillespie said.

The thesis, as advanced by Dell, was that in Michigan only the State Board of Registration in Medicine, which licenses physicians, has powers governing their professional activities and qualifications.

Hospital attorneys argued the hospital has the right, since there was no statute, they said, that specifically spelled out that it didn't.

Judge Quinn agreed that this was "the heart of the case" and permitted Gillespie to bring the issue out before any testimony got under way.

Special Meaning Locally for 'Brand Name Week'

BIRMINGHAM — Brand Names Week, which begins tomorrow, will have special meaning for one Birmingham resident.

He is Samuel Reeves of 6425 Golfview Dr., who operates the Standard Service Station at W. Maple and Telegraph roads.

Reeves, selected as one of the nation's outstanding retailers in his field, will be honored at a dinner Wednesday in New York City by the Brand Names Assn.

His service station is one in the true sense of the word. Reeves' neighbors and customers who needed assistance on cold, winter days will vouch for this.

In closing out his term of office, Mayor William Roberts didn't hesitate to proclaim Brand Names Week in Birmingham.

Roberts will preside briefly at his last meeting Monday evening at which another commissioner will be elected mayor.

The annual meeting of the Birmingham League of Women Voters will be held Monday at Rotunda Inn. The group will meet at 10 a.m. for coffee and a business session, with a luncheon scheduled for 1 p.m.

Nominations for office include Mrs. Herman Hilverkus, second vice president; Mrs. Gordon Harrison, secretary; Mrs. John Ericson, treasurer; Mrs. Ray Hohman, Mrs. Walter Jackson, Mrs. Harold Roehm, Mrs. Cleveland Walcutt and Mrs. Atwell Smith, directors.

Birmingham's Congregational Church will host the "Friendly Service Workshop" of the Detroit Association Friday from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Films, a skit, talks and exhibits will make up the program. Among the speakers will be State Friendly Service chairman, Mrs. John Terry of Detroit, and past state president, Mrs. D. R. Olson of Birmingham.

Members have been asked to contribute summer clothing for distribution in disaster-stricken Micronesia.

Mrs. Arthur I. Philp

Service for Mrs. Arthur I. (Claudine) Philp, 78, who died last night at the home of her son, Arthur S. Jr., 4105 Cumberland St., Berkley, will be held at 1 p.m. Tuesday at the Manley Bailey Funeral Home. Entombment will be in Woodlawn Mausoleum, Detroit.

Her late husband was a pioneer automobile manufacturer who at one time was associated with the Durant Company. He later was sales manager for Dodge.

Besides her son, Mrs. Philp is survived by two grandchildren.

Mrs. Edward D. L. Miller

Service for Mrs. Edward D. L. (Adeline) Miller, 77, of 724 Glengary Rd., Birmingham, will be at 2:30 p.m. tomorrow at the Manley Bailey Funeral Home. Burial will be in Stockton, Ill., at 2 p.m. Tuesday.

Mrs. Miller, who died yesterday at her home, was a member of the Universalist Church, Stockton.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Al Workman of Iowa City, Iowa; four sons, Vaughn E. of Detroit; William E. of Palm Springs, Calif., Woodrow W. of Birmingham and Norman J. of Royal Oak; and a sister, Mrs. Ralph Groff of Minneapolis, Minn.

Mrs. John P. Hobart

Service for Mrs. John P. (Bertha) Hobart, 63, of 7215 Parkhurst Dr., was held at 2 p.m. today at St. James Episcopal Church, under the direction of Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton company. Burial will be in Batavia, Ohio, Monday morning.

Mrs. Hobart died Thursday in William Beaumont Hospital, after a brief illness.

Mrs. Hobart came to Birmingham 10 years ago from Buffalo, N. Y. She attended Mt. Holyoke College at Holyoke, Mass., and was a member of St. James Church and the Berkshire branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Assn.

Mrs. Hobart is survived by her husband; a daughter, Ann Moore Hobart; son, John P. Hobart Jr., at home, and a sister, Mrs. William Goodman of Ft. Pierce, Fla.

THE WORLD'S MOST MANAGEABLE PAINTS

We want you to get acquainted with the sensational new paints that save you up to 50% in decorating time. Here's how: buy one gallon of Jelled Rev Satin or Jelled Magic flat finish, at regular, low price . . . it's enough to paint a large room. Then we'll hand you free a quart can of Jelled Magic semi-gloss, sufficient for all trim and woodwork. (If you prefer, we'll give you a free quart of Liquid Granite, world's clearest, most durable varnish.)

Jelled Rev and Jelled Magic, the new miracle paints, won't drip, spatter or run. Use them jelled or, if you prefer, a quick stir turns them to liquid for delicate brush work or "cutting in." You'll never go back to old fashioned slow-motion painting!

No stir! Stirring once took 10 to 30 minutes. Jelled paints are homogenized, ready to use instantly.

No drip! Even when you work on ceilings. Jelled Rev and Jelled Magic cling to brush or roller—won't drip.

Less dip! Because these paints are "jelled," you can load more on brush or roller—paint longer without dipping.

Orphans Often Have Payments Due

By RAY HENRY

From F. G. of Waukegan, Ill.: "My wife worked as a hairdresser until about five weeks ago when she had a heart attack and passed away. We had two children, age 8 and 10, whom I'm now supporting. Is it possible for the children to collect any Social Security?"

Yes, if your wife worked for at least half of the three years before her death, they can collect Social Security payments until they reach 18. The fact that you're working doesn't make any difference.

From Mrs. H. M. of St. Petersburg, Fla.: "I had a Social Security number before I was married, but that was nine years ago. Since then, I've lost my card and have no record of my number. How can I find out what my number is?"

Any Social Security office will get the number for you. While you're at it, you also should ask to have your number changed from your maiden name to your married name.

From W. D. of Mitchell, S. D.: "Could you tell me how many people are now drawing Social Security payments?"

The total is something over 11 million.

From Mrs. B. N. of Washington, D. C.: "My unmarried brother who was the sole support of our widowed mother was killed on a construction job last month. His job was covered by Social Security. Since our mother is only 60 she can't apply for parent's dependency benefits now. Is there anything she should do now in connection with her claim for future Social Security payments?"

Yes, your mother should file within two years after the date of your brother's death to establish that she was a dependent parent.

From M. M. of Council Bluffs, Iowa: "My mother is 58 years old and is an invalid. My father died a year ago and my mother received a lump sum death payment of $255. Is there any way for her to collect monthly payments before she's 62?"

Monthly payments are paid only (a) to widows age 62 or older; (b) to widows under 62 who have children under 18 in their care, or (c) to widows under 62 who have a disabled child over 18 in their care, providing the child was disabled before reaching 18.

From R. T. E. of Knoxville, Tenn.: "I'm a mechanical engineer. Next January, I'll be 65 and I'd like to retire. But, I expect to be called on a couple times a year as a consultant. My fees on these occasions will exceed $2,000 —but for the rest of the year I will earn nothing. Will I be barred from collecting Social Security?"

No. Men between 65 and 72 whose earnings aren't spread evenly over the year may collect Social Security for the months when they're not working, regardless of how much they earn during the other months. Keep a record of your earnings — the amount, and when earned — and show it to your local Social Security officer. He'll figure out how much you're entitled to.

(Questions on Social Security problems may be addressed to "Social Security," care of The Pontiac Press. Questions will be answered by mail from the Pontiac office of the Social Security Administration. There is no charge for this service. You may obtain Ray Henry's new social security handbook by sending 35 cents in coin to this newspaper and requesting "Security for You" booklet.)

It Seems to Me . . .

Stronger Methods Necessary in Handling Young Hoodlums

Stabbings, arson, stealing, beatings and even deaths have marked altogether too many escapades in schools. This is a sobering and frightening thought.

Has authority collapsed?

What must we do?

Also too many automobile accidents involve young drivers who are traveling at terrific rates of speed. And, unhappily, they sweep the innocent to tragic deaths along with themselves.

When school authorities have to go to the police and ask for protection, we have passed the breaking point. We will have to take the ship of state into port and scrape away the barnacles. If this means the penitentiary, then it means the penitentiary.

What other solution is there?

Lesser methods have failed.

Judge Paul E. Krause in Detroit dealt out prison sentences to the leaders of a young hoodlum outfit. He sent seven more to jail. After reading the offenses that these young punks had committed, we feel the punishment may have been too light. Teenage criminals express nothing but contempt and scorn for law and order. It's time they were taught respect — the hard way — if that's the only language they understand. It's time to speak to them in their native tongue.

And what have the parents of these bums been doing to allow them to reach such a stage of depravity?

Where is their responsibility?

What has society to say to them?

The other day when I expressed regret at the freedom granted murderer LEOPOLD, an Episcopal rector wrote in and suggested I was "vindictive" and "guided by pagan vengeance." I'm not clear where a "vindictive spirit" and "pagan vengeance" begin and the collapse of law and order leaves off.

But when hoodlums around the country attack feminine school teachers, fellow students and others with knives, baseball bats, pipes, fists, chains, and allied weapons, it calls for the administration of swift, corrective justice. Are women teachers just straw men that society will continue to set up for scum like this to abuse?

When does real punishment assert itself?

When are decent people protected?

In my book, merited punishment doesn't come under the heading of "pagan vengeance."

The other day a small time punk was taken into custody AFTER HE HAD DELIBERATELY DROWNED TWO LITTLE CHILDREN. He admitted the crime. Is life simply a process of forgiving and forgetting? Should we encourage greater depravity?

"Every child on this globe must be punished on occasions in the spirit of righteous indignation."

The man that uttered this sentence from the pulpit was one of the greatest Episcopal clerics of this or any other age. It was the late Reverend Bates G. Burt of Pontiac who stood second to no one in kindliness, sympathy, forgiveness and understanding.

Yet he sought an orderly society.

When deliberate juvenile defections send victims to the hospital and the morgue, I believe it's time the house falls in on the guilty. New York schools expelled several hundred of these fringe characters at ONE TIME to restore order and peace.

Others went to jail.

If this is "pagan vengeance," it's time we rolled the clock back to paganity and tried to guarantee law abiding people the peace and security that God meant all of us to have. Even He lost patience with evil doers. I am certain that He means for us to protect ourselves against civil rebellion and cave man lust.

This even surmounts and antedates pagan vengeance.

And in Conclusion . . . . . .

Jottings from the well thumbed notebook of your peripatetic reporter:

A scientist predicts that in a few years you'll only go to bed every other night. A small pill will handle the "night up." What would you personally do every other night between 11:00 and 7:00 if you didn't go to bed? . . . . . More than 30 TV shows will feel the descent of the ax within the next 60 days. The total by September will be double that.

John Kennedy's presidential aspirations suffered a blow. Eleanor Roosevelt thumbed him down again. She brushed him off summarily in 1956. . . . . Some 67 New York State small cities voted on Bingo. Bingo won in 66. Big cities vote in November . . . . . Fortune says the percentage of men taking a drink before lunch is steadily decreasing. . . . . Overheard at a baby shower: "So many children are on the streets at night because they're afraid to stay home alone."

March is the low month of the year for marriages. . . . . "Happy Hunting" with ETHEL MERMAN ran 52 weeks on Broadway and yet the angels were $74,000 short of getting their original money back. (JEAN and PEGGY, please note) . . . . . Whoops! Eighteen pheasant scurried across Evergreen road last week as two Pontiac autoists gaped in disbelief . . . . . Over 150 small magazines have folded since last fall . . . . . London comes up with a new one: a mobile red light district, housed in trailers.

Northwest Airlines has an experimental phone and you can call anywhere when you're within 175 miles of Chicago or Detroit. The charge is $1.50 plus tolls . . . . . Just plain class sticks out all over some people — like Annie Olson at the GMC Truck plant — plus real good looks. . . . . Department of Cheers and Jeers—The C's: Perry Como singing The Lord's Prayer on TV; The J's: Lana Turner.

—HAROLD A. FITZGERALD

BESIDES producing maple syrup, sugar maples are also highly prized to supply sturdy lumber for bowling alleys and ballroom floors.

WORK on the St. Lawrence Seaway will be completed in 1959, allowing larger size ocean vessels to load in ports of the Middle West.

The POWER of FAITH

by Howard Bredle

In greater numbers than ever, little children are coming to Christ in their own individual ways, in the earliest grades of Sunday school.

I sketched this class recently: A fidgety boy stretched his suspenders, two others good naturedly poked each other, a girl mothered her doll as they sang, "Oh, be careful little hands what you do, do, do . . . There's a Savior up above and He's looking down in love . . ."

The power of faith is evidenced in the 6.56 per cent increase in total Sunday school enrollment of all faiths throughout United States in one year. The latest total on enrollment was nearly 39 million.

Days of All Faiths

Bernadette Was Modest, Sickly

By DR. HOWARD V. HARPER

Wednesday is the anniversary of the death, in 1879, of the humble peasant girl, Bernadette Soubirons, to whom the Blessed Virgin Mary appeared at Lourdes. Bernadette was only 35 when she died. She was ill all her life.

She had asthma chronically, and in the epidemic of 1854 she almost died of cholera, but beyond that she was just a delicate, sickly person. Malnutrition must have had a lot to do with it. The father, Francis, was a miller, but he was one of those people who can't make a go of anything. He finally lost his mill, and there must have been many times when Bernadette and her five younger brothers and sisters did not have enough to eat.

Of course none of them had any education. Bernadette herself, according to the records, was a dull sort of child, but good, obedient and kind. It was this unprepossessing little girl the Blessed Virgin chose as her intermediary when she wanted to establish the famous Lourdes shrine at which so many people have been miraculously restored to health.

The general excitement over the child's visions was of great help to the Soubirons family. People began to take an interest in them and find work for the father. But to the shy Bernadette it brought a prominence that terrified her. People swarmed around her, asking questions, begging her to bless them or some sick person they had brought. They even went so far as to cut pieces from her clothing. It was a shattering ordeal. As soon as she could gain admission she left home and entered the order of Notre Dame. This was in 1866.

When, 10 years later, the great new church at Lourdes was consecrated, Bernadette, who should have been the central figure in the celebration, did not go at all. She just couldn't face the publicity.

Bernadette had said that during her visions the Blessed Virgin had imparted to her three secrets. These she never revealed, although everyone constantly asked her what they were. Her life makes it appear that one must have been—never do anything to draw attention to yourself.

She was canonized in 1933, as St. Mary Bernarda, but her canonical name has never been much used. She is still popularly called Bernadette.

ANCIENT SHRINE

Friday in the Greek Orthodox Church is the Feast of the Living Spring. It is always celebrated on the Friday after Easter, and Easter in the Greek church was last Sunday.

The feast commemorates the consecration of the Church of the Holy Virgin, which took place on the Friday after Easter, 450, in what was then the city of Byzantium (later Constantinople and now Istanbul). Behind this festival and the building of this church lies an extraordinary story, part legend, part recorded history.

The spring is still there. This was only the first of its hundreds of miracles.

The Country Parson

"One thing I've never heard of a fellow being unable to find if he hunted for it — good in people."

Dr. William Brady's Mailbag:

Jury Service Convinces Teetotaler He Is Right

"I'm a rabid teetotaler. Twice I served on a jury in murder cases. I used to wonder whether I should be more tolerant toward alcohol, but never again . . . (G. O.)"

DR. BRADY

Answer — Come to think of it, I never heard of total abstinence disqualifying a juror.

"Do not remember seeing anything regarding hay fever in your column . . . (L. F. W.)"

Answer — Send stamped, self-addressed envelope for pamphlet on Hay Fever. Now is the time to begin building your calcium reserve to strengthen your natural immunity. If you want also the booklet The Calcium Shortage, inclose 35 cents in addition.

"Have had so much help from following advice in the pamphlet on Menopause. No more depressed feeling and no more hot flashes . . . I am confused about the price of various . . . 'How to Lose Weight,' 'Calcium and Rheumatiz,' 'What to Eat and Why.' (Mrs. B. C. C.)"

Answer — One pamphlet (leaflet or folder) is free if you provide stamped, self-addressed envelope. For additional pamphlets, inclose 25 cents for each two. For any booklet (such as What to Eat and Why) send 35 cents and stamped, self-addressed envelope.

"My husband will be 40 tomorrow and I'm not far behind. We thought it might be due to our five children, this old, tired-out feeling, I mean . . . (Mrs. F. S.)"

Answer — Not likely. Probably due to malnutrition. Send stamped, self-addressed envelope and ask for the pamphlet Young Folks and Old Folks. And please remember, the tablets I suggest in the pamphlet are not medicine. They are food, essential for good nutrition. So, if you take 'em, take 'em as regularly as you do bread and butter or meat and potatoes.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Simple Speech Wins Followers

Mark went "highhat" after he graduated from seminary. He started using five-syllable words and imitated Don Quixote. He attacked Sin and Satan in the abstract. His sermons were very logical, but so dry his congregation couldn't follow him for five minutes. He won his arguments but lost his audience! So study this case carefully; then send for the booklet described below.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case X-378: Mark W., aged 27, is a recent seminary graduate.

"Dr. Crane, Mark is a very talented clergyman," the head of his Pastoral Relations Committee admitted.

DR. CRANE

"But something has gone wrong. Actually, he used to make a more interesting sermon before he went to the seminary than he does now.

For in the earlier days, he used homely examples from within the experience of the farmers and townspeople comprising our congregation.

"Now he has lost that art and has begun to use 5-syllable words instead of simpler language.

"And he preaches about broad social issues instead of the practical needs of our people. Dr. Crane, why has this happened?"

LIVEWIRES NEEDED

It takes a livewire in the pulpit to electrify a congregation.

The pastor thus must be fully charged with religious zeal and have a vital message for the immediate needs of his listeners.

Advanced education should be helpful to a preacher. But, alas, it sometimes works in reverse.

"The more college degrees a preacher has, the quicker his listeners go to sleep," runs an old adage.

And that is often true, for young ministers frequently become enamoured of their professors' 5-syllable words and rhetorical attacks on impersonal Satan.

They glibly select a sermon topic on the United Nations or far off Africa when the average parishioner is much more concerned with Junior's misbehavior in high school or Betty's infatuation with a drinking teenager.

The center of human interest lies within our own epidermis! Every inch that a speaker moves away from our skin, we become less concerned.

DON QUIXOTE PREACHERS

Some clergymen are also like Don Quixote. They set up a target in the form of Capitalism or Sin and then boldly launch a formal rhetorical atttack.

Dr. Roy L. Smith, one of America's topnocht theologians and orators, warned young preachers about this.

"Beware lest you win your argument," he said, "but lose your audience."

Many clergymen deliver erudite discourses on Sunday morning. These may be logical works of art.

Yet the audience may either be snoring or daydreaming about some more personal problem.

The clergyman may thus have verbably demolished Sin or Satan, but his audience doesn't realize that fact, for it hasn't been following his "essay" type of sermon.

Most of America's clergymen are talented orators. But, alas, a sizable minority still are poor speakers. And a dry, dull speakers soon empties church pews.

Bishop Richard C. Raines realizes this fact acutely. He is a great orator himself, and follows Christ's own anecdotal or parable formula for speaking.

So he invited me on three occasions to address all three Methodist Conferences in Indiana to tell his clergymen the psychological strategy for making an interesting speech.

All great orators have hit upon this narrative formula by rule of thumb.

For people wake up and lean forward when listening to story telling, but settle back into indifference during the essay or expositional address.

Jesus would thus start out with a moral principle; then document it with cases or parables. That is still the best formula for public speaking ever devised.

So send for my booklet, "Public Platform Strategy," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents (non-profit).

It is of vital importance to speakers, musicians and other public platform entertainers. It is also widely used in public speaking classes and by members of the Toastmaster's Clubs.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Congratulates City Pastors on Service for Good Friday

Pontiac pastors deserve a vote of thanks. Due to their combined efforts, the Good Friday service at Central Methodist Church was one of the best I've ever attended. The verse "Well done, good and faithful servant," could well apply to each participant.

'Taxpayers Must Demand Quality'

If pupils are being passed through our grammar schools without being made to read and write and to do simple sums, it's obvious teachers aren't teaching.

And since teachers have bosses who are paid to see that teachers teach, it's equally obvious that the bosses aren't bossing. Boards of education must realize they have a moral responsibility to those who elected them, and voters and parents should never allow them to forget it.

Furthermore, un-education weakens the nation. Many a bright boy who might grow up to be an accountant never will because nobody is making him recite the multiplication tables. If Johnny can't read he'll never know his ohms and amps and therefore won't ever become an electronics expert although he might have been ever so talented.

Multiply these and other examples by thousands and the fundamental importance of sound education at the level of elementary grades will become evident. The basic flaw in our educational system lies with people who own it and pay the bills—the taxpayers. They simply don't demand a dollar's worth of teaching for each tax dollar. If they ever get mad enough things will change, and change fast. But I often wonder if they'll get mad enough soon enough.

These Police Are Doing Fine Job'

Some time ago someone wrote about being ticketed by Orchard Lake police. In these days when so many are condemning everything in general, I'd like to congratulate openly the police departments of Keego Harbor and Sylvan Lake as well as Orchard Lake. They're doing an excellent job.

I've been driving 30 years, here and other states, and got one ticket 22 years ago. I was speeding and deserved it. It makes my blood boil to drive the limit and have someone whiz by me, and it happens almost everywhere. However, in Sylvan Lake or Keego Harbor it's a different story. They drive the speed limit or else.

Let the speeders cry. If they're speeding they should get a ticket and pay a fine. It's a pleasure to live in a community where it's safe for children to cross the street. Three cheers for these policemen. Keep up the good work.

Well, Lent's over. I think the idea of "giving up something" for Lent is an ancient custom and has no part in today's living. A few of my friends who followed the old idea act very virtuous and are a pain in the neck. And I'm not a heathen.

Poor Susan Strasberg — She's Now Getting Old

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — "I'm getting old," said Susan Strasberg—who'll be 20 on May 22.

"I realized it not long ago when I said 'Well, when I was young'—and nobody laughed.

WILSON

"So," Miss Strasberg continued, "We'll have to hurry and do all the teenage stories before May 22."

We were having lunch where the menus are works of literature. Susan was having some "Very Well Bred Chicken"—not any old other-side-of-the-tracks chicken — and I was starting in on some "Belgie Pate With Wild Boar." They brought in some flaming sword specialties and set fire to a couple of millionaire customers but otherwise everything went smoothly.

"Are you an adult yet?" I asked her.

"Well, I hope I'm on my way.

What to you is an adult?

"You sort of become an adult when you stop thinking you know everything about everything."

SUSAN

Peppery little Susan—5 feet-1 and 95 pounds—was positively a delight for an old gaffer like me.

People often think it's surprising that she's never had the benefit of acting tutelage from her famous father, Lee Strasberg, coach and inspiration of Marilyn Monroe, Marlon Brando, Joanne Woodward and other Actors Studio graduates.

"I have vague memories of sitting in father's class when I was little and they didn't have any baby-sitter," Susan said. "So I got an early start but I got sidetracked—I wanted to be a nurse for a while.

"I haven't had the nerve yet to be one of my father's students. He might forget I'm his daughter but I couldn't forget. I'm girding myself, though."

"So who was your teacher?" I asked the young lady who burst on the world as an accomplished actress at only 15 in "The Diary of Ann Frank."

"I had no teacher — but I was surrounded by teachers. I listened a lot. I will study eventually. I've read just enough to confuse me."

One of Susan's longings is to be taller.

"I'm about the same as Helen Hayes" (with whom she appears in "Of Time Remembered"), "but her hair stands up and makes her look taller!" Susan mentioned.

"What's your slant on all the accusations against teenagers?"

"Every generation has to have a scapegoat, and it's usually teenagers," Susan answered. "Adults always worry about the younger generation that is going to take over, but very rarely look at what they've created for them to take over!"

"Are you in love?" was my last question.

"Yes—with the world in general."

Expects Sputnik to Fall Tonight

Observatory Predicts Dog-Carrying Satellite Will Die in Glow

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (UP) — Sputnik II, the giant Soviet dog-carrying satellite, is expected to come to earth in a friction-caused glow some time today or tonight, says the Smithsonian Astrophysical Observatory.

Its dying passages over North America may be visible.

The Smithsonian Astrophysical Observatory gave these approximate times of passage—all Eastern Standard:

7:40 p.m.—Northwest to southeast in northeastern Canada from Hudson's Bay eastward and possibly the northern extremity of Maine.

9:10 p.m.—Northwest to southeast, Hudson's Bay and northern Great Lakes.

9:20 p.m.—Northwest to southeast, over New England and down, over West Indies, possibly visible from Florida if it glows, when it would be low and far to the east, virtually on the horizon.

10:40 p.m.—Northwest to southeast, southwestern Canada and Monatan.

10:50 p.m.—Northwest to southeast, over the middle of the Gulf of Mexico, far to the west of Florida and "very probably the final pass."

2nd AF Jet to Try Tokyo-Madrid Hop

YOKOTA AIR BASE, Japan (UP) —With hopes of a push from jet streams all the way, a second U.S. Air Force plane will try to set a world distance record by flying from Tokyo to Madrid.

The KC135 Stratotanker commanded by Maj. Jack N. Fancher of San Jose, Calif., is scheduled to take off tomorrow on an 11,487-mile non-stop jump without refuelling. The Air Force said today jet stream winds are very favorable.

The first plane on Tuesday lost the jet stream over Hawaii but managed to get as far as the Azores, 1,259 miles short of Madrid, after setting a speed record from Tokyo to Washington.

Junior Editors Quiz on FOOD

QUESTION: Where did Irish potatoes originate?

ANSWER: The Irish potato is about as Irish in origin as Don Quixote. It was first found in the New World. Cortez and Pizarro took it back to Europe with them when they returned from their voyages of discovery in Mexico and Peru. Spain welcomed the potato and made it a leading item of food. From there it spread to Holland, Italy and other European countries. John Hawkins, an English sea captain, introduced the potato to England from South America in 1563. About 20 years later, Sir Walter Raleigh took the potato to Ireland where the Irish peasantry were in desperate need of food. It became so much a part of the Irish life that it became known as the Irish potato.

The potato you eat actually is the root of a flower. Potatoes are grown by cutting a potato into pieces—each piece with an eye—and planting the pieces in small "hills" of soil. The potato grows from the eye. It is one of the easiest vegetables to grow. Two hundred to three hundred bushels of potatoes can be grown on a single acre of land.

FOR YOU TO DO: Take a piece of potato, place it in a shallow dish of water several days and watch the eyes sprout. In our picture, Sir Walter Raleigh shows an Irish boy how to plant the pieces of potato.

Rep. Roosevelt Asks $50 Tax Rebate

ATLANTA (UP) — A California Democrat last night called for an across the board rebate of $50 on federal income tax returns for 1957 as a means of stemming the recession.

Rep. James Roosevelt, son of the late President, urged that Congress take immediate and direct action to halt the recession.

In proposing the tax rebate Roosevelt said in an interview that "a feasible formula would be to give each taxpayer $50 back on every dependent." Such a move, he added, would temporarily restore purchasing power in the lower and middle income brackets.

LOS ANGELES (UP)—Three electronic engineers have been accused of impersonating Russia's Sputnik I.

The men built a radio transmitter that broadcast on the same frequency as the Soviet earth satellite, Asst. U.S. Atty. T. Conrad Judd said yesterday. They did it, Judd said, as a prank on amateur radio operators attempting to track Sputnik.

Named in a criminal information filed by the U.S. attorney's office were Rulon D. Jensen, 30, Deal L. Hanson, 29, both of Los Angeles, and Fred W. Field Jr., 29, of suburban Torrance.

The phony signals were heard by monitoring stations as far away as Alaska, Georgia and Hawaii, Judd said.

Refugee Doctor Going to Assist Dr. Schweitzer

ST. LOUIS (UP) — A lifelong dream is coming true for Dr. Alexander Haraszti, a physician who fled from his native Hungary with his wife and five children during the Hungarian revolution last year.

Dr. Haraszti, 38, has been invited by Dr. Albert Schweitzer to join the staff of the famed medical mission in French Equatorial Africa. He plans to leave in July.

"Dr. Schweitzer has been my hero since early youth," Dr. Haraszti said. "I tried to do about the same work — theology, philosophy and medicine. . . . I know Dr. Schweitzer only through his work and his books. I have been in Africa only in my dreams and my reading."

Dr. Haraszti's wife and their children will remain in St. Louis, where she will serve as a resident physician at City Hospital.

The invitation from the 83-year-old Dr. Schweitzer included detailed instructions such as "bring three pairs of socks."

Let the Baby-Sitter Keep Powder Dry

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My neighbor across the hall has a baby who is 8 months old. She hires a sitter who is only 13 to come in and look after the baby for maybe three or four hours at once.

ABBY

The sitter is a nice girl but I can tell the way she handles that baby that she doesn't know much about babies so I run in about every half hour to see if the baby is wet. If he is, I change him because I am always so afraid that child will pin the diaper on him.

The little sitter resents this but I can't help it. I can't be across the hall and not worry about that baby. Would you call this meddling?

GOOD NEIGHBOR

DEAR NEIGHBOR: Your heart is in the right place, but you are out of order. Most 13-year-old sitters know how to keep their powder dry.

DEAR ABBY: My husband works nights and I have the worst time getting him up for work. I have pulled the covers off him, thrown cold water on him, yelled at him, turned the light on in his face, tickled his feet and even kissed him, but he doesn't budge.

About an hour later he wakes up and asks me how come I didn't call him! Now, what do you do with a man like that?

THE WIFE

DEAR WIFE: First I'd test his hearing—and then his reflexes.

DEAR ABBY: I am 10 years old going on 11. I asked a boy in my room to write in my autograph book and he wrote: "Dear Sharon. I hate you." I felt so bad I cried and then I showed it to my mother when she asked me why I was crying.

When she saw it she said it means he loves you. Please tell me, Abby, if my mother was just trying to make me feel good or does it mean he loves me? I love him.

SHARON

DEAR SHARON: This 10-year-old boy is normal and your mother is probably 100 per cent correct.

Check Health, Massage and Brush

Hair Reflects Condition of Scalp

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

The condition of your hair depends to a great extent on the condition of your scalp. It is just about as impossible to grow beautiful tresses when the scalp is tight and tense, and the bloodstream is devitalized, as it would be to grow flowers from worn-out soil.

There are many factors which affect the hair. An excessively oily or an extremely dry scalp is believed by many experts to be the forerunner of thinning hair, drabness and perhaps even graying. Such conditions should not be allowed to continue.

Remember always that the important, living part of the hair is underneath the skin. Your topknot is fed by your bloodstream. There is a little bulb at the end of each hair through which your tresses receive their nourishment.

If you are having trouble with your hair, you certainly should investigate your diet. Like other parts of the body, hair reflects anemia or poor health.

While no one food will create beautiful locks, an adequate intake of vitamins and minerals is essential. Be sure to get lots of calcium, phosphorous and iron. These are found in lean beef, liver, oysters, milk, celery, carrots, eggs, oranges, prunes, greens and other foods.

Massage and brushing are necessary in order to overcome either dry or oily hair and, along with one of the splendid tonics available, will bring you lovely results if you will indulge in them regularly.

Massage and brushing are necessary in order to overcome either dry or oily hair, and along with one of the tonics available, will bring you lovely results if you will indulge in them regularly.

The hair often becomes very oily after times of worry or strain. At these times the scalp may become tight and tense and the pressure created may cause the little oil glands to work overtime. Massage and brushing tend to normalize this condition and also provide stimulation which brings more blood to the hair roots.

The oily head should have frequent shampoos. The tonics for oily scalps are astringent.

The woman who has extremely dry hair should shampoo her hair infrequently since soap and water, and especially the dryers, diminish the natural oils in the scalp.

Talk on Nigeria Given for Guild

Life and habits of Nigerian natives were shown on slides to the Women's Guild of St. Trinity Lutheran Church by the Rev. E. A. Westcott Jr. of Redford. He spoke on his experiences as a missionary to Nigeria, Africa.

Guild members and their husbands heard Rev. Westcott speak at a cooperative dinner Wednesday evening. It was announced that April 20 is the deadline for donation of clothing to the World Relief Fund.

Institute Set for Church Instructors

An area interdenominational Vacation Church School Institute, to train workers for the summer vacation Bible schools, will be conducted on April 24 in Central Methodist Church.

Sponsored by the Pontiac School of Religion in cooperation with the Michigan Council of Churches, the institute is one of 30 being held in the state.

Pastors and church school workers will be coming from churches from Oakland, Macomb, St. Clair and Wayne Counties.

The Rev. Frank Dennis of Imlay City will give instruction in workshops dealing with kindergarten, primary junior, junior high and administrative work.

The institute will open for registration at 9 a.m. followed by a coffee hour. A luncheon will be served at noon by women of Central Methodist.

Dr. Milton H. Bank is host pastor and the Rev. Calvin C. Rice is chairman of the Pontiac Area Vacation Church School Institute.

Guild to Entertain

Mrs. George Bussard and Mrs. William Bussard were hostesses when Women's Guild of United Church of Christ met Thursday evening in Fellowship Hall.

Committees were selected and plans made for a May mother and daughter banquet. Elizabeth Gorden was in charge of the program.

Church Group Holds Meeting at Covert Home

Meeting Friday for luncheon in the Scott Lake road home of Mrs. James C. Covert were members of February-December Group of First Presbyterian Church. The hostess was aided by Mrs. Clark J. Adams, Mrs. Harold Smead and Mrs. Philo Nye.

* * *

Participating in the program were Mrs. W. H. Marbach, Mrs. Covert and Mrs. Adams. Plans were made for the annual congregational dinner April 23 and a cooperative dinner meeting of Women's Association in May.

Herrington PTA Hears Speakers

Gerald White, coordinator of elementary education, Mrs. Wendell Green and Mrs. Melvin Johnson, helping teachers, spoke to Herrington School PTA on the duties of their offices.

Also speaking Wednesday was Harry Avesian, supervisor of the adults recreation program sponsored by the PTA. He reported that the program will begin a trial period next week.

Presbyterian Units Hold Meetings

Women's groups of Oakland Avenue Presbyterian Church gathered throughout the month of April.

Lucille McBane Group met at the home of Mrs. Noble Meredith with Mrs. Howard Tanner acting as co-hostess.

Gathering at the church were members of the Eleanor Van Llerop Group, with Mrs. Carl Buckner as hostess. Articles for a baby layette were worked on when the Eleanor Creswell Group met at the church.

The Ann McGough Group met at the home of Mrs. Lexie Williams, with Mrs. George Marien and Mrs. David DuVall as co-hostesses. The home of Mrs. Milton Blood was opened to the Margery Peters Group, with Mrs. Earl Shepherd as co-hostess and Mrs. Betty Henry participating in the program.

Church Circle Names President

Mrs. Joseph Wagley was elected president of WSCS of Oakland Park Methodist Church Thursday evening. Serving with her are Mrs. Robert Gallagher, vice president; Mrs. John Lamont, recording secretary and Mrs. William Sherwood, treasurer.

Ticket chairman for the May 1 mother-daughter banquet is Mrs. Emerson Brown.

Owen PTA Sees Scouts Perform

Girl Scout Troop 207, under the direction of Mrs. Robert Baldwin, entertained Owen School PTA Wednesday evening with a square dance. Brownie Troop 451, under the leadership of Mrs. Robert Roberts, sang several songs.

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Dutcher presented their Cub Scout groups in several skits. Mrs. Ross Tenny and Mrs. Michael Twichel presided at the tea table.

Servant's Heroism Spurs World-Famed Ministry

By NORMAN VINCENT PEALE

Almost a hundred years ago, in the eastern Berkshires of Massachusetts, a boy named Johnny Ring tried to enlist in the Union forces. But Johnny Ring was undersized and underdeveloped; the Army wouldn't have him.

PEALE

Then he heard of a 19-year-old neighbor, young Russell Conwell, fresh from Yale, had been commissioned a captain and empowered to raise an artillery battery. He persuaded Conwell to take him along as his servant because he couldn't be a real soldier.

So, off to war went these New Englanders, their captain proudly wearing a magnificent gilt sword his men had presented to him bearing an inscription in Latin that "True Friendship Is Eternal." Johnny Ring was proud of his captain's sword and spent all his spare time polishing it and keeping it bright.

One day in North Carolina the battery's position was overrun and the young captain and his men fled across a bridge, setting fire to it so they could not be followed. They were safely across when Johnny Ring realized that the captain's sword had been left behind. He didn't wait to ask permission; he went back for it.

Somehow, he got back to the campsite, found the sword and returned to the bridge, now blazing furiously. Plunging through the flames, the sword held high, he crossed to emerge in flames and collapse at Conwell's feet. He lingered for a day or two, then he died.

Not long after, Conwell himself was wounded and lay all night on the battlefield. In his agony he kept seeing the flaming body of his faithful friend, Johnny Ring, holding his sword. He vowed then, that if he survived, he would live not only his own life but the life of Johnny Ring as well.

RETURNED FROM WAR

Russell H. Conwell did survive. He went back to New England to become a lawyer, a lecturer, an editor, a correspondent, but none of these seemed to satisfy him—or to satisfy Johnny Ring.

Finally, at 36, he decided to enter the ministry and was ordained. Here he found that he could live his own life to the fullest—and live the life of Johnny Ring as well.

For Conwell became not only one of the most renowned ministers of his time, he became one of the world's most famous lecturers. His lecture "Acres of Diamonds" remains a great inspirational classic. It was given probably more times and in more places than nearly any lecture in American history.

It earned more than $4,000,000 and he used this money to found Temple University in Philadelphia and finance the college careers of hundreds of young men. He justified his own life—and the life of Johnny Ring.

It can truly be said that Johnny Ring did not die on that long-ago battlefield, but lives today in the continuing influence of Dr. Conwell's great ministry and the University he founded.

This is Easter and we commemorate One who died on a cross that men might live eternally. And when Russell Conwell vowed to live the life of Johnny Ring, he was only following in the path and in the steps of the Master who said, "Because I live, ye shall live also." Conwell found that he could do this only when he found that same path and those identical steps.

And none of us can live our own lives or the lives of those to whom we owe devotion until we find that very same path and those very same steps.

New Member Drive Activities Tonight, Sunday

Climaxing an enrollment drive conducted during the month of March, the Parkdale Church of the Nazarene Sunday School is sponsoring social activities at 5:30 tonight in the Owen School auditorium.

Following the family basket supper, Dr. E. W. Martin of the First Nazarene Church of Detroit, will speak and show pictures of his recent trip to Europe and the Holy Land.

George Kent will present a program of magic for the Sunday School students.

At 9:45 a.m. Sunday, the 60 new members of the Sunday School will be presented by their teachers, said James E. Hibbs, superintendent.

The Rev. Wayne E. Welton, pastor, will begin a series of sermons from the Acts of the Apostles in the worship service at 10:45 a.m. He will continue the sermons in the evangelistic hour at 7:30 p.m. through Pentecost Sunday.

Tomorrow morning his subject will be "The Identifying Spirit of the Early Church." Special music is planned for each service.

Nine New Members to Be Received Sunday

The Rev. Ralph C. Claus will receive nine adults into communicant membership of St. Trinity Lutheran Church at the 11 a.m. service Sunday.

Those to be confirmed will be Billy Condon, Mrs. Donna Drake, Mrs. Mabel Erickson, Mrs. Mary Foreman, Douglas Hahn, Mrs. Augusta Hopp, Daniel Leach, Dorsey Underwood and Janette Weber.

Missionary From Thailand Speaker for Meetings

REV. CLARK L. GARDNER

The Rev. Clark L. Gardner, returned missionary to Thailand, is speaking at the evangelistic meetings being held at 7:30 each night in Christian and Missionary Alliance Church, North Cass Lake road at M59.

A graduate of Pontiac Central High School and St. Paul Bible College, he was pastor of Yellowstone Community Church in Savage, Mont., for two years before sailing for Thailand.

Under the Christian and Missionary Alliance denomination, the Rev. Mr. Gardner spent five years in Norteast Thailand.

For the past three years, he has been engaged in pioneer evangelism in Buritam Province.

With their three sons, the Gardners plan to return to their field of service in July with the local congregation, their sponsors.

Currently they are staying with Mr. and Mrs. William C. Bower of 2415 Denby Dr., Drayton Plains.

What are the things a home does that marks it as being Christian?
Grandfather's strict homes banned the Sunday paper and forbid playing cards. Should the family gather in the living room while Dad reads a passage from the Bible and everyone sings while Mother plays the piano? THE SEDER — Passover has come again to the Jews. Leah and Mark Berg of 2960 Middlebelt Rd. portray the ancient customs of Seder as they eat Matzo, the unleavened bread. The eating of other symbolic foods is also a part of Seder. Passover marks a period long before the Christian era when the Jews were delivered from Egyptian bondage under their leader, Moses. Mr. and Mrs. Karl C. Berg are parents of Leah and Mark.

'The Carpenter,' Sermon Topic

Japanese Professor to Describe Industrial Evangelism Program

The Rev. Edward D. Auchard will preach on "The Carpenter" at the 9 and 11 a. m. services tomorrow in the Orchard Lake Community Church, Presbyterian.

Shirley Carpenter will sing "A Spring Prayer" by Caldwell at both services. The prelude will be "Awake, Thou Wintry Earth" and the offertory number will be "Spring Flowers," by Nordek.

"Hosanna" and "Easter Is Forever" will be presented by the Crusader Choir.

Following the executive board meeting of the Women's Association, Wednesday, the pastor will present the Bible study. The program will consist of a panel discussion.

The women of Orchard Lake Church recently presented a gift to the Rev. and Mrs. Henry Jones, missionaries to Japan to help the Osaka Presbyterial of the United Church of Christ. The gift will assist in the program of evangelism for girls working in textile mills.

Professor Masao Takenaka of Japan will describe the program of the Japanese Church at the Quadrennial Meeting of Presbyterian Women's Organizations in Purdue.

Sixty-five per cent of the funds to operate the program is raised by the Church in Japan. The remaining 35 per cent comes from Christians in other lands.

Dr. William H. Marbach will preach on "Confidence Amidst Change" at the 9:30 a. m. service Sunday. Ruth Ann Tower will sing "Thou Wilt Keep Him in Perfect Peace."

"Make Disciples" will be the subject of the sermon by the Rev. Galen E. Hershey at 11 a. m. with the choir presenting "Holy Lord of All," a chorale by Williams.

Junior High and Senior High young people will meet at 5:30 p. m. Sunday to see the film, "The Miracle of Love." Assisting at the gathering will be Ronald Newman, Gill Miller and Gary Miller.

From 10 a. m. through the luncheon hour Monday, United Church Women will hold the monthly meeting. In the evening, the board of deacons will have a business session followed by the sorting and packing of clothing for Church World Service overseas.

Mrs. J. J. Brown will open her home to the Women's Prayer Group on Tuesday morning. On Thursday, Mrs. Avery Shearer will direct cancer pad sewing at the church.

State Has Buildings for More Industry

LANSING (AP)—Michigan has 292 buildings available for industrial occupancy, the State Economic Development Dept. reported today.

The department said the list of available buildings, scattered through 155 communities, will be mailed to some 8,000 industrialists and others who might be interested in locating in the state.

Representatives of railroads and utilities also plan to write personal letters to industrial prospects telling them of buildings in the areas they serve.

Lapeer Woman Injured by Shotgun Blast

A Lapeer County mother of three is in "very critical condition" at Lapeer County General Hospital after being wounded early this morning by a shotgun blast during a drinking party.

Lapeer County Sheriff W. J. Porter said Mrs. Gerald Chapman's husband shot her at the home of a woman friend when she failed to return home when expected. He is being held.

The Chapmans, who live at 3712 Peters Rd., Columbiaville, near Lapeer, had spent the earlier part of the night at a Columbiaville tavern. Mrs. Chapman is 30 and her husband 31.

Bagwell to Run for Governorship

LANSING (AP)—Today was the day for Prof. Paul D. Bagwell's coming out party as a Republican candidate for governor.

Formal disclosure of his political plans was set for a 3 p.m. meeting at the Lansing Civic Center of about 300 friends and supporters from throughout the state—preceded a few hours by a news conference.

Bagwell, 44, on leave as head of the Michigan State University Department of Communications Arts, was expected to attract unofficial but important support from elements of the Republican organization.

He was the GOP nominee for state auditor general in 1956, losing to Democrat Frank S. Szymanski by about 32,000 votes. All other Republican statewide candidates lost by larger margins.

The only rival in the field against Bagwell for the GOP nomination in the Aug. 5 primary is Richard I. Moore, Wayne auto dealer and a former state commander of Michigan Amvets.

Although he has not yet formally announced, Democratic Gov. Williams is expected to bid for a sixth two-year term and become the Democratic nominee.

Some conservative Republicans have talked of a more conservative standard-bearer than Bagwell, but thus far none of stature has stepped forward—or shown really serious inclinations.

To help make ends meet in family finance, Bagwell's wife, Edith, planned to continue her job as a Lansing public school teacher while her husband is on leave without pay.

In taking his second leave from MSU, Bagwell probably has forfeited his high-level job. University officials indicated he would be taken back, in the event of political misfortune, in a lower academic rank.

Peace Prospect Seen Improving

Menshikov Calls for Willingness to Meet on Both Sides

CLEVELAND (AP) — Mikhail A. Menshikov, Russian ambassador to the United States, said last night that prospects for peace look slightly better.

"There must be a willingness on the part of both sides to get together and try to come to some sort of understanding and exchange of views," he said on his arrival here for a weekend social visit with industrialist Cyrus S. Eaton.

In a stopover en route here from Washington, the 55-year-old gray-haired ambassador said the ending of United States atomic tests would be a "very important step toward peaceful co-existence with Russia."

The ambassador said he did not see anything unusual in visiting a wealthy American capitalist like Eaton. "We are prepared to deal with anyone," he remarked.

The Soviet party including Menshikov's wife and Vladimir S. Lavrov, Soviet embassy counsellor, will visit Eaton's Acadia Farm at Northfield, about 15 miles south of here.

Blast Highlights Guerrilla Raids

Cuban Rebels Set Off Dynamite in Warehouse at El Cobre

HAVANA, Cuba (AP)—Widespread attacks by Fidel Castro's guerrillas in the wake of unsuccessful general strike calls were punctuated yesterday by a 30-ton dynamite bast near Santiago.

Rebels raided the copper mining center of El Cobre, 12 miles west of Santiago, and touched off the dynamite in a construction company supplier's warehouse. The explosion apparently was funneled down a valley to Santiago, where it shattered windows.

In Santiago itself, President Fulgencio Batista's troops maintained tight patrols after crushing a rebel attempt to touch off a general strike.

Scattered clashes of rebels and government forces continued across Cuba, but Havana, where an attempted uprising failed Wednesday, was quiet.

A spotty and ineffective attempt at a general strike in Camaguey Province ended yesterday. The government said seven rebels were killed at Sagua la Grande in Las Villas Province, where 200 rebels had been reported fighting Batista's forces.

Rebel raiders from Castro's strongholds in the Sierra Maestra invaded El Cobre before dawn. They reportedly burned the city hall but left after residents pleaded that further burning would destroy the town, one of Cuba's most holy places. As they left they set off the dynamite.

Reports on the uprising in Santiago indicate it was more widespread and tenacious than the one quickly snuffed out in Havana. The Santiago death toll was put at 17 rebels and 2 government troops. There was no estimate of the wounded.

2 County Men Injured in Two-Car Collision

Two Oakland County men were injured in a two-car collision, Friday afternoon, at Walton Rd. and Old Perch Rd., Avon Township, according to Oakland County Sheriff's Deputies.

Admitted to Pontiac General Hospital was Fred Phillips, 70, of 2335 Emmons Rd., Rochester. He is reported in satisfactory condition.

Phillips was riding in a car driven by Harold D. Warnes, 30, of 1400 Hilltop Rd., Lake Orion, who was treated for minor injuries and released. The other driver, Ross C. Eggers, 58, of Royal Oak, was uninjured, said deputies.

Dentist's Patient Fit to Be Tied, Has Tooth Pulled

NEW YORK (AP)—James Fox was bound, gagged and blindfolded before he surrendered his tooth to a dentist yesterday.

Dr. Lee J. McGinnis was preparing for the extraction when two bandits, with drawn knives, entered his office.

McGinnis, Fox and the dentist's wife, who was in an adjoining room, all were robbed. The McGinnises also were bound and gagged.

An hour and a half later McGinnis freed himself. He called police, untied his wife and patient and then pulled Fox's troublesome tooth.

The thieves escaped with loot totaling $1,000.

Pontiac Couple Injured in Two-Car Collision

A couple was injured last night in a two-car collision at Willard and Perkins streets.

Louie S. Hine, 61, and his wife, Bessie, 60, of 148 Perkins St. were driving north on Perkins when a car ran a stop sign and hit their auto.

The other driver, Jessie Mae Lewis, 28, of 337 Howard McNeill St., told police she did not see the other car and slowed but did not stop at the intersection.

Mrs. Hine was admitted to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital with possible rib and jaw fractures. Her condition is satisfactory. Her husband was treated for lacerations of both legs.

Police Vice Squad Raid Nets Nine in Pontiac

Nine persons were arrested early 447 Branch St., Russell Clifton, 43, vice squad raid at 220 Rockwell Ave.

Charged with loitering in an illegal gambling place were:

Davis Johnson, 43, of 224 Rockwell; Jimmie C. Fowlkes, 45, of 522 Fildew St.; John DeFlora, 58, of 380 Highland St.; Brooks Newton, 39, of 220 Rockwell; and George Preston, 50, of 220 Rockwell.

Others were: Ben Bailey, 53, of 447 Branch St., Russell Clifton, 43, and Nellie Clifton, 46, both of 176 Dickinson St., Romeo; and Walter Drake, 46, of 392 Ditmar St.

All pleaded guilty in municipal court and were fined $10 or two days in jail by Judge Maurice E. Finnegan.

Guest Speaker at Missionary Meet

To Tell of Forgotten Hungarian Tragedy

SASHABAW PLAINS—Dr. Sidney Correll, director of the United World Mission and editor of the Missionary Digest magazine, will be guest speaker at the Missionary Conference opening Sunday at the New Hope Bible Church.

Dr. Correll, who recently returned from a tour around the world, will give an eyewitness account of "The Forgotten Hungarian Tragedy." He will show an on-the-spot documentary film.

While on his tour, Dr. Correll attended the Communist Industrial Fair at Leipzig, behind the Iron Curtain.

He was on the scene at the time of the flight of Hungarian refugees to Austria, and was in the Gaza Strip the day Israeli troops were withdrawn from the narrow corridor.

The four-day conference will begin at the 11 a.m. service Sunday with the Rev. Walter Ackerle, missionary to Bolivia, speaking on "Fruit of the Years."

DR. SIDNEY CORRELL

1. Refuse to do business with any company not known as dependable — deal with reliable local firms.
2. Ascertain that the salesman is the authorized representative of the company he claims to represent.
3. Understand the terms and conditions of the papers BEFORE signing them. Be sure all guarantees and promises are written, not verbal. Keep a copy of the contract.
4. Don't sign a completion certificate unless the job has been completed to your satisfaction.
5. Pay by check or money order made out to the firm. Check quoted price with other estimates to make sure the charge is reasonable.
6. Beware of inferences that because a loan is insured by FHA the Federal government guarantees materials and workmanship.

Hollywood Headlines

Scott Forbes Will Quit 'Jim Bowie' Program

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Scott Forbes, the only British-born Western star in TV, is quitting as Jim Bowie. Among his reasons: they wouldn't let him use his bowie knife.

After two seasons and 78 films on ABC Friday nights, Forbes has bowed out of the Bowie series. A major factor is money. He says the producers didn't come up with enough of an improvement in salary for a third season.

"But an important reason in my decision was that they wouldn't let me use the knife," he added. "After the opening show, the knife was a mere ornament. The producers and the sponsors decided it would be dangerous for kids to see a knife used on TV.

"I think such reasoning is ridiculous. Any normal kid knows the difference between an adventure on television and real life.

"I believe that is a major reason why the show hasn't reached a top rating. People feel cheated because they don't see the knife used. And I couldn't use a gun very often because the period was 1828-30, when only flintlock muzzle loaders were used. So it was an action show with little action."

Forbes admitted that his casting as Bowie was "a bit of a stretch" in the first place. Born in England he lived part of his youth in South Africa. He still had a slight British accent when he came to Hollywood, and he played in costume pictures.

A role in the Frontier series caught the eye of the Jim Bowie producers. Much to his surprise, he won the role.

"One of the reasons I'm bowing out is because I don't want to be typed as a Western star," he said. "One more year might do it. Sure, the money would be nice, but I think I would be accepting a false value. My whole career might be harmed.

The Bowie producers have introduced a new hero, played by Joe Patridge, at the end of the second series. If the show is renewed, he'll take over in Forbes' place.

OKs Increased Facilities for Michigan Gas Firm

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Power Commission has given Michigan Gas Storage Co., Jackson, temporary authority to build about $3,990,000 worth of natural gas pipeline facilities in central Michigan.

Michigan Gas said the project in Gratiot and Isabella Counties is required to meet the 1958-59 peak day requirement of its sole customer, Consumers Power Co., also of Jackson.

The commission withheld authority to operate the new facilities.

Ninety-five per cent of Haiti's three million people are pure-blooded Negroes, according to census figures.

Alger Hiss Left $15,000 Estate by His Mother

BALTIMORE (AP) — Alger Hiss, convicted of perjury when he denied passing official papers to a Communist spy ring, will get about $15,000 from his mother's estate.

Mrs. Mary L. Hiss also wrote off a $9,500 promissory note Alger owed her and left him $750 as a separate bequest. Her will was filed in Orphans Court yesterday.

Hiss, a former State Department adviser, now of New York, was convicted eight years ago of perjury. He was sentenced to five years in federal prison at Lewisburg, Pa., but was released early for good behavior.

The $750 bequest was made "in recognition of his success in winning a scholarship at Johns Hopkins University three consecutive times, thus saving that amount in tuition fees."

Medical Researcher Reports:

Xray Causes Leukemia

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Xrays administered by doctors to the pelvic area of pregnant women apparently are playing a part in the rise of leukemia among young children, a Tulane University medical researcher reports.

Twice as much leukemia, which is cancer of the blood-forming organs, was found in children of X-rayed mothers as in mothers who received no medical radiation to the lower abdomen.

About one in every five expectant mothers received radiation during late pregnancy as a matter of routine examination. More than 25 per cent of the leukemia uncovered during the survey was found in the children of these irradiated mothers.

Nearly a third of the other kinds of malignancy occurring among the surveyed children came from mothers who had been subjected to diagnostic radiation. This represented the findings in searching the records of 300 children of unradiated mothers against those of 80 leukemic children and 70 other young ones who had other kinds of malignancy.

The findings were presented to science writers on the American Cancer Society's tour of research centers. They were made and reported by Dorothy Ford, a senior medical student.

Commenting on the survey results Dr. Charles C. Sprague, assistant professor of medicine, said Xrays probably are being overused on pregnant mothers in this country generally.

Miss Ford's study followed one made by a British researcher, Alice Stewart of Oxford University, and the findings in the two surveys agreed. But Miss Ford found that in Louisiana at least, pregnant women are X-rayed 2½ times as often as in England. In Britain only one in every 14 mothers were subjected to diagnostic Xrays.

Asked why they used radiation to examine pregnant mothers, Louisiana doctors said it was a routine matter. Usually an expectant mother has a series of four or five films taken. This added up to a total of 12 to 20 roentgens, or about what the average person received by the time he is 40.

Your Neighbor's House

Country Living Delights Robert Kusse Family of Six

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

One pleasant Sunday afternoon the Robert Kusses went for a ride in the country. Northeast of Rochester they saw an old farmhouse; it was just the sort of house they had always wanted. If it were for sale, they decided right then and there to buy it.

That is the story of how the Kusses came to live on Washington road. (You pronounce that name Q-C, incidentally). The house they fell in love with at first sight had been the summer home of two school teachers. Then a couple bought it and did some remodeling. In July of 1956 the Kusses moved in and have been remodeling almost ever since. Except for refurnishing the family room, they are about done.

The Kusse family comprises four daughters: Karen, a poised brown-eyed junior high student is 13; next in line comes merry-looking Pat, aged 10; Jacqueline and Jennifer are twins, aged 8—an impish looking pair. Buff, the Siamese cat and Hans, the German shepherd, are also members of the family.

Like many country homes, the Kusse home has the main entrance through the kitchen. There are three other outside doors, one of which leads from the driveway into the family room. But it seems more normal to go in through the kitchen.

And what an interesting kitchen! The former residents would scarcely recognize it. Mrs. Kusse showed us pictures of the room before it was remodeled. It took five months to get it into its present shape, but she thinks it worth while.

The floor has spatter print linoleum, yellow with blue, coral and black dots. Walls are cream. The soffit is papered in a Pennsylvania Dutch design. Matching material borders the white organdie cafe curtains and makes the valances.

Under the windows there's a long counter with birch cupboards and drawers below. These were built with specific storage in mind. There is, for instance, one cupboard devoted to soft drinks; it is tall enough to take cartons and cases of bottles. Other cupboards have pull-out shelves on ball bearings.

Defining the work area is another Formica topped counter. All counters are aqua. This one contains the sink and extends around to make a passageway to the living room. Opposite the sink is the range with small work spaces on either side.

What was once a closed-in storage room is now the laundry room. Open shelves above paneled dividers mark it off from the kitchen proper. The kitchen decorating scheme is carried into this area.

Next to the door is the breakfast room with windows on the porch. One wall is bricked and has a pass-through to the family room. The other walls are paneled in pine. Both a corner cupboard and a corner desk are built in. There's a drop light over the plastic breakfast table.

From the corner windows in the living room there is a delightful view of trees and hills. Down in the ravine Stony Creek wends its way. Part of the Old Winkler Mill Pond is on the Kusse property; there are neigh-

"WE'LL COME OUT" — Karen Kusse closes the door behind her as she follows her sisters out of the house. That's Jenny in the blue jeans and Jacquie in the checked dress. The middle sister is Pat. This part of the Kusse house is the rear, just outside the family room. At the left, part of the living room windows can be seen and above them the window in the twins' room. Gray clapboard with white trim is used on the exterior. This house, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kusse, is on Washington road, just out of Rochester.

EXTENSIVE REMODELING — For five months the Kusses lived in a mess of paper, paint, plaster and carpenters' tools. But this convenient kitchen and laundry room was the result. This picture was taken from the laundry room, looking toward the breakfast room. The long counter at the left tops birch cupboards and drawers designed for special purposes. At the right is the sink and farther to the right (out of picture range) is the stove.

Many Uses Forecast for New Heat Unit

A new kind of radiant heating unit with a score of possible uses from heating homes to drying clothes will soon be on the market, and may take over jobs from older devices. Essentially, the unit is a panel of porcelain enamel with an electric heating grid fused to the back of it. Heat passes through the panel and radiates from the porcelain surface.

As described in a recent issue of a science monthly, the panel can be made in virtually any shape or size, for almost any application where heat is require. Among its potential uses:

Room heater, warming a house faster, more evenly and possibly more cheaply than a conventional furnace;
Oven;
Water heater;
Clothes dryer, possibly costing as little as $25;
Cooking pot;
Heated bathtub.

---

Don't overlook the use of perforated hardboard as one wall of a workshop, since it makes an excellent place for hanging tools when used with special metal hooks.

Split Level Home Caters to All Ages

By JOHN O. B. WALLACE

This side to side split level residence, based on the results of three separate nationwide surveys, adds up to an American family's dream house.

Its design, size and room plan are a composite of the features most wanted by teenage boys and girls, and women and men.

Designated X-1 in the House of the Week series, it was designed by famed architect Rudolph A. Matern, who says:

"Our goal was to design a house to meet all of these varied desires. We can say, therefore, that this home should satisfy the wants of every American."

The facts for X-1 were gathered in a national youth survey by Eugene Gilbert, in a poll of men conducted by a national magazine, and at the Women's Congress on Better Living conducted by the Federal Housing Administration.

The chief feature wanted by the teenage boys and girls was a room of their own. Their other basic requirements, in the order of their importance, were an adequate number of spacious rooms, good appearance and design, good locality, a recreation room, a spacious kitchen, adequate closets and good construction.

DEN WANTED BY MEN

The features most wanted by the men included a private master bath, work shop space and a den, or some other similar area, for the proper storage of papers.

The women wanted three bedrooms, a separate dining room, a mud and laundry room, a half bath in the mud room, a family room separated from the living area, no cross room traffic, separate eating space in the kitchen, a separate entrance for the family room from the outdoors, access to the family room without going through the living room and a conservative modern exterior with some brick veneer.

A separate dining room was not particularly important to the teenagers but the percentage was close so a dining room was included in X-1 and left open to the living room.

The work shop space, requested by the men, may be placed at the end of the recreation room or in the basement in X-1, and the den is a part of the master suite.

The women's requirements for bedrooms are more than met in X-1. There is a minimum of four — and a fifth should the study be dispensed with.

All other chief features of the three surveys, plus additional ones, are included in this plan which has nine main rooms: four bedrooms, a study or fifth bedroom, living room, dining room, kitchen and recreation - family room. There are two full baths and two half baths.

FIVE CURVED STEPS

The main entrance opens to the lower foyer from which the garage, recreation room or the upper foyer are directly accessible. The lower floor is tile on a concrete base. The recreation room has the same type of floor for easy cleaning from outdoor traffic, and sliding glass doors provide easy access to the porch.

The lower and upper foyers are only five curved steps apart, yet the separation gives privacy to the upper area. The ceiling is 1½ stories high and slants upward for a dramatic approach to the living quarters. The bedroom level has a balcony at the rear with access from the master suite.

One wall of the living room is finished in natural wood and has a raised, offset fireplace. A bow window facing the garden adds additional interest to the 20-foot-long living room.

The mud room is located at the side service porch. A combination, one-above-the-other washer and dryer are used in the mud room-laundry to save space. The mud room lavatory is handy to the kitchen.

A reverse curve stairway connects the lower foyer, upper foyer, living room and bedroom level. The master suite may be used in its entire 20-foot length or closed off by a folding wall into two areas, sleeping and study.

The closed-off area would be perfect for a nursery; it also could be used as a fifth bedroom or as a guest room. There also is a folding wall between the third and fourth bedrooms. A dressing room, bath and fireplace are other bedroom area features.

If you are interested in seeing a study plan of this house, send 35 cents in coin (no stamps accepted) to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac 12, Michigan and ask for House of the Week plan HW X-1.

The "Decorule," a slide-rule device that helps determine color combinations for walls, draperies, floor coverings and furniture prices is available from The Seng Company, 1450 N. Dayton Street, Chicago 22, Illinois at 25 cents postpaid.

Apartment Builder Shows Confidence

Allan Stein, owner of Stein Building and Lumber Company, expressed his firm's confidence in the future when he announced the completion of 36 new apartments in Pontiac.

Located on Salmer street, just south of Orchard Lake avenue, the new units are companions to the Orchard Court apartment houses built last year by Stein.

Several new features have been included in the latest building. Louvered, slimfold closet doors make for more room in the bedrooms. All bathroom fixtures are colored. One and two bedroom units are available.

Each apartment has its own individual entrance. Second floor units have balconies outside. The building is face brick with wrought iron stair railings.

Unify Color Schemes

"One of the most common mistakes made by amateur interior decorators is the use of too many unrelated colors in various rooms. This can be avoided and a harmony achieved throughout the house by using a uniform floor covering for all rooms. Individuality in rooms is then attained by the use of harmonious color accents."

More Than Million Homes Needed Yearly

Number of households and occupied homes in the United States passed the 50 million mark late in 1957, according to the Housing and Home Finance Agency.

This is quadruple the number in 1890, and twice the figure in 1920.

However, warns the West Coast Lumbermen's Association, the nation must build 1.25 million homes a year for the next decade just to keep even with the burgeoning population, and at least 1.6 million for the decade starting with 1965.

New families are forming at a rate close to 900,000 a year, the lumbermen pointed out, but an expanding and changing economic pattern in our cities to make way for highways, parking lots and super markets is leveling tens of thousands of homes. In addition, thousands more homes are destroyed annually by fire, flood and storm, or become uninhabitable as they fall into slum category.

In contrast, our population is climbing at a phenomenal rate, the lumber experts point out, and our housing needs with it.

Use asbestos cement board when you want a wall material which is water resistant and fire-proof and thus ideal for laundry rooms, bathrooms and furnace enclosures.

Home ownership among farm families is the highest since the Bureau of Census started gathering figures in 1890, with 70 per cent of all farm families living in their own homes.

Wood, Not Steel, Stronger in Fire

Are wood timbers safer than steel in cases of fire? The answer from the West Coast Lumbermen's Association is a strong yes.

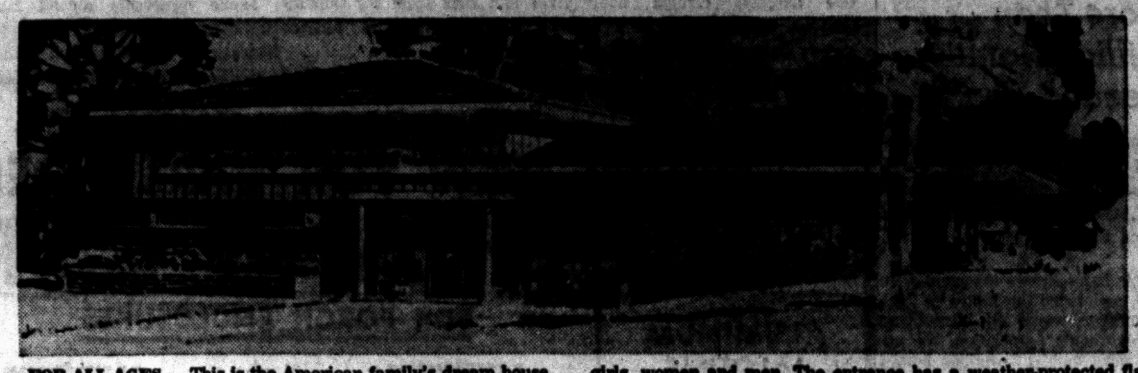

The fact that wood is combustible, the lumbermen say, while steel is non-combustible, has led to the popular misconception that steel is safer.

Actually, say these lumber experts, a fire can cause steel framing to expand, distort and fail. Wood in timbers and heavy sections, when exposed to fire, retains its load-carrying capacity long after unprotected steel members have collapsed.

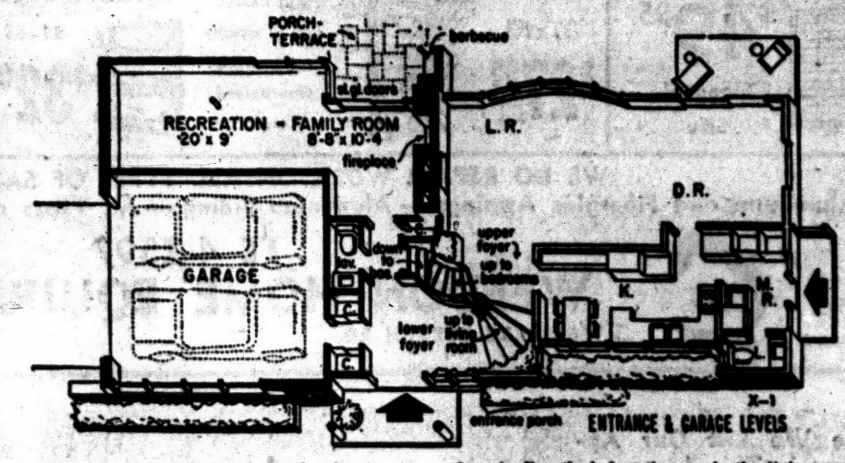

The reason? Wood, with its relatively low ratio of conductivity, resists heat penetration and heavy timbers char slowly. Records of great fires where wood and steel have been combined in building, such as a California race track fire, shows charred but solid wood beams actually supporting steel girders which became so warped by fire that they collapsed.

Use Correct Flooring

Asphalt and vinyl asbestos are the only types of resilient tile for use on concrete basement floors below grade say flooring engineers. They effectively seal moisture that may be attracted through concrete by capillary action.

FOR ALL AGES — This is the American family's dream house, based on three separate national surveys of teen-age boys and girls, women and men. The entrance has a weather-protected flat deck over it, supported by two large columns.

LOWER LEVEL—In this lower level entrance and garage are shown. Behind the garage is the family room complete with fireplace. The fireplace is directly below the one in the living room which saves on costs.

UPPER LEVELS — The bedroom and living areas of the house are shown in the floor plan above. Depending on the size of the family, there can be three, four or five bedrooms. The living room and dining room are across the back of the house with a terrace outside.

That's a Lot of Workers

Census Bureau estimates say that 1,780,000 people work in forest products industries making lumber, pulp and paper, plywood, shingles and hundreds of other items. More than one third of the nation's lumber and all Douglas fir plywood comes from western Oregon and Washington.

Home Building Rise Expected

FHA Official Believes Expansion to Continue Through Most of Year

WASHINGTON (INS) — FHA commissioner Norman P. Mason predicted today that private home construction will pick up sharply in the next two months and expand throughout most of this year.

Mason said a higher level of residential building is needed and could be carried over into next year if money to finance the mortgages is available to home buyers at "reasonable rates."

The FHA chief said in an interview that May and June will be "big" home building months with a "valley" in August and a new expansion in construction volume toward the end of the year.

Asked if the industry was in for another "boom and bust" period, Mason said chances are "excellent" for steady growth in the future.

He explained that it would depend on the availability of mortgage money at "reasonable rates" and good employment. He said "no major lack of jobs" is anticipated this year.

Mason pointed out that in Detroit, with its concentration of jobless automobile workers, FHA-insured work is double the level a year ago when financing arrangements were hard to obtain.

Although FHA mortgages are selling at face value in parts of New England, he said FHA's 5¼ per cent rate is less competitive in proportion to the distance from the traditional money markets.

Remodeling Pays Kusses' Dividends

borhood plans to dig this out for everyone's use.

WEATHERED BEAMS

The owners before the Kusses put in the weathered ceiling beams. Mrs. Kusse's job was to scrub them all and put a special finishing coat on them. They are purely decorative, not weight bearing. The walls have been painted a cream color, a shade that does interesting things for the fireplace brick. Carpeting is beige tweed.

All the windows around one corner of the room were replaced by the Kusses. Where once there were small panes of glass there is now a big expanse of it. This is curtained in sheer white fibreglas with gold overdrapes.

The large sofa is gold; one lounge chair and matching ottoman is beige; a pair of lounge chairs is rust. Between the latter is a round coffee table. Against the north wall is a maple tilt-back table.

The wall opposite the fireplace is unusual. It is paneled in pine that has been sandblasted to remove the soft parts. This same paneling makes bookcases and cupboards.

When a plasterer was called in to repair areas around the new windows, Mrs. Kusse asked him to match the original plaster as closely as possible. He said, "You mean, you want me to go out and catch a deer to use some of the hair?"

When she expressed amazement, the plasterer went on to tell her that this was an old method of preparing plaster. Hair from deer was actually used. And Mrs. Kusse had been carefully pulling it out every place she found it, thinking the last painter had had a poor brush!

But the room is done now and is a charming, informal comfortable place. It represents many hours of work on the part of Mrs. Kusse.

A louvered door separates the living room and family room. Two brick steps down make one think this room was added on some time after the house was built; it was.

One wall and the studio type ceiling are paneled in pine. One wall is brick; the other two are pale green. The floor has squares of green, beige and black tile. Matchstick bamboo, floor length draperies cover the large window area.

This is dining room, game room, television room, rumpus room. It is still to be furnished in a way that will allow all of these activities to be carried on.

Hidden behind the kitchen is the steep stairway to the second floor. These stairs and the slanting bedroom ceilings presented a problem to the carpenters. The Kusses needed a wardrobe in their bedroom. The only way the framework could be gotten in was up a ladder and through the window — all of this on a bitter cold day with the wind whistling around the house.

The Kusses' room is blue and white with blue walls and a white ceiling. Furniture is mahogany. Curtains are sheer ruffled ones throughout the upstairs.

There are two minute lavatories, back to back, between this bedroom and Karen's room. At the other end of the hall is a larger bathroom for all the girls.

Karen has pine paneled walls and built-in bookcases in the wall under the slanting ceiling. She has a studio couch in her room which provides for overnight guests. Her bedspread is pale pink hobnail. She has a small pine dressing table.

Pat has a leather headboard for her bed just like Karen's; her spread is also hobnail. Instead of paneling, her walls have rosy beige paper with tiny white flowers and a gold spider web design. Woodwork is painted white. Both girls have corner closets with old fashioned hardware on the doors.

The twins share a larger room. Here the pale blue wallpaper has pink and yellow flowers on it. Twin chests are painted pink. The bed frames are black.

Frank Rewold and Son of Rochester did all the carpenter work in the Kusse house. The exterior is gray clapboard with white shutters and fieldstone trim. There's a circular drive in front of the house.

Oak Distinctions Explained in Book

Among the choices available in beautifully grained oak flooring nowadays is that of quarter-sawed or plain-sawed stock. There is considerable difference in appearance.

The distinctions are explained and illustrated in a handy 32-page booklet, "Oak Floors for Your Home," now offered to readers free of charge. Also contained in the booklet is helpful information on grades and sizes of oak flooring, together with tips on installation, finishing and care.

Pitching Concerns Detroit Brass

McHale Claims First 30 Days Will Be Gamble

Bunning Gets Hit Hard in 14-6 Loss to Braves

DETROIT (AP)—General Manager John McHale admits that the Detroit pitching staff "is by no means top notch." He says the Tigers will be forced to gamble for the first 30 days of the season.

Although the Tigers have several other possible trouble spots, the belief is that the club will go just about as far in 1958 as its pitching will carry it.

Right now the Tigers are going to open the season with five front-line hurlers and a reserve corps that looks woefully weak.

"I think our pitching staff is better now than it was at this time last season," said McHale, "but it is by no means top notch. We're concerned about our pitching."

"The first 30 days are going to be crucial ones for us," said McHale. "Our second line has to come through for us. These fellows will show in that time whether they can stick. If they can't, we'll have to hope that we can get some help from our kids."

McHale said he is pretty well satisfied with the rest of the team but would like to get another regular left-handed hitter in the lineup.

"I doubt if we'll solve that problem," he added, "unless we make a major deal—and chances for that are not very good."

Milwaukee blasted 18 hits off four Tiger hurlers yesterday and won an exhibition game played amid snow showers at Denver, 14-6.

Eddie Mathews, Harry Hanebrink and Felix Mantilla hit home runs for the Braves.

It was the seventh consecutive setback for Detroit on the exhibition circuit and gave the club a 6-18 record.

Milwaukee collected seven runs off starter Bunning in the first three innings, got another in the fourth off Foytack and six more off Aguirre in the eighth. George Spencer pitched the seventh for the Tigers and held the Braves in check.

Warren Spahn and Gene Conley divided the pitching chores for Milwaukee. Five of Detroit's six runs were unearned as the Braves committed three errors.

The Braves and Tigers close out the exhibition season in Milwaukee today and Sunday. Detroit opens the American League season in Chicago Tuesday.

Pontiac Stables' Truck in Accident

Four Horses Killed

BEAUMONT, Calif. (AP) — Four harness racing horses valued at more than $25,000 by their owners were lost today in a pre-dawn accident involving two trucks.

The horses which were killed or had to be destroyed were Dr. Webb, Judy Hanover, Beverly Might and Tycoon, all of the F & M Stables of Pontiac, Mich.

A fifth horse in the truck, a colt, escaped death. The California Highway Patrol said the owner, Gerald Lee McIlMurray of 2980 Voorheis St., Pontiac, Mich., stopped the truck with the horses because of a mechanical failure near here on highway 9. He left two men with the truck and went for help.

Another eastbound truck crashed into the rear of McIlMurray's truck, the highway patrol said.

The highway patrol said one man in the McIlMurray truck was injured slightly but his name was not obtained.

2-TIME WINNER—Here's Danny Sowell, PCH hurdles ace, who won two events in the heart-breaking loss to Flint Northern in the Central Michigan College invitational track meet, last night. Dan won the low hurdles, tied for the high hurdles and was 3rd in the broad jump. Pontiac lost to Northern by less than one point, 42 9-14—41 11-14.

Buckeye Davis Quantico Star

QUANTICO, Va. (AP)—Glenn Davis, Ohio State's husky Olympic champion, stood out today as the first act hero of the rain-splashed Quantico Relays.

Ron Delany, Villanova's great miler, made his first outdoor appearance of the season to the delight of a chilly crowd at this Marine Corps base.

But he was overshadowed by sophomore teammate Bob Godesky as the Wildcats bettered the distance medley relay record another Villanova unit set here in 1956. Godesky made up more than 50 yards in the third leg of the run in sections of half, quarter, three quarters and one mile.

After Godesky's brilliant run, Delany chugged his mile in a laggardly 4:17.3 for a comfortable triumph. Michigan State was second.

Aided by Ouija Board; Williams Gets 1st Hit

Casey Making Shifts Early

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The New York Yankees blew back into their home town today for an exhibition game with the Philadelphia Phillies and Manager Casey Stengel stared intently at his ouija board.

The Phillies are taking the place of the Los Angeles Dodgers, who engaged the Yanks in the two-game pre-season set for lo, these many years.

Stenegl, who never fails to surprise one and all, including his own players, came out of his ouija conference with the announcement that Elston Howard probably will be his left fielder when the official season opens in Boston Tuesday.

This move no doubt surprised Howard as much as anyone, for Ellie hasn't played an inning in the outfield this spring. He's been strictly a catcher.

But, Stengel has decreed, if Yogi Berra's ailing hand is in shape, Howard plays left field and Yogi will be behind the bat against Boston.

Furthermore, said Stengel, Andy Carey is his third baseman. That pronouncement, too, must have left Jerry Lumpe slightly bewildered. A couple of days ago, Lumpe was listed as the regular third baseman.

Incidentally, today's game was the eighth between the Yanks and Phils since the start of training and left Philadelphia Manager Mayo Smith in a good position to analyze the merits or lack of same of the American League champions.

Said he:

"I'll swap personnel with Casey any time he's ready. Seriously, I don't see how the Yanks can lose. The club has balance and that's the stuff pennants are made of. They have all the ingredients, the most important being maneuverability. If a key man gets hurt, there's always another to fill in."

On that subject, shortstop Tony Kubek pulled his left thigh muscle in yesterday's 14-2 shellacking of Richmond of the International League. It just may keep him out of the opening day lineup. So what will Stengel do? Take a look at his ouija board and switch Gil McDougald back to short and install Bobby Richardson at second base.

But while the Yanks were surveying their riches, the Dodgers, who are hoping to give Milwaukee a run for the National League flag, ran their losing streak to five games at Mesa, Ariz. The Chicago Cubs whipped them 5-3 when Ernie Banks crashed a three-run homer off veteran Carl Erskine in the 11th.

Elsewhere, the Chicago White Sox turned back the St. Louis Cardinals 3-1 at Omaha; the Braves pasted the Detroit Tigers 14-6 at Denver; the San Francisco Giants outlasted the Cleveland Indians in 10 innings at Tulsa, and the Boston Red Sox shut out their Raleigh (North Carolina State League) farmhands 6-0 at Raleigh.

Dick Donovan continued his fine pitching (as expected) for the White Sox. Stan Musial hit a homer for the Cards' only run in the eight innings Donovan toiled. That makes a total of one run Donovan has yielded in 13 innings.

The Giants licked the Indians when Don Taussig singled home Whitey Lockman in the 10th. The Indians not only lost the ball game but they may have lost Herb Score, their opening day pitcher, who suffered a stomach ailment.

Ted Williams got up to the plate as a pinch hitter for the third time this spring in Boston's triumph over Raleigh. He singled home a run.

Dodgers Seek Lopata in Six-Player Trade

MESA, Ariz. (INS) — The Los Angeles Dodgers were reported dickering today for Philadelphia catcher Stan Lopata as the key figure in a six-player deal.

The Dodgers have been casting about for a first string catcher ever since Roy Campanella was put out of action by an automobile accident earlier this year.

The Dodgers reportedly are seeking two players — Lopata and an outfielder able to sub for the ailing Duke Snider.

The Phils need infield strength, including a replacement for Lopata, if he goes, and a substitute for first baseman Ed Bouchee.

2 Weekends for State Golf Test

Publinx Tourney Extended

By BILL CORNWELL

The Michigan Publinx Golf Association has changed the set-up for its annual state tournament to avoid a conflict of dates and in so doing has run smack into another.

June 13, 14, 15 and 16 were the original dates for the MPGA tourney, slated at Pontiac Country Club. Unfortunately, the 18-hole semifinals and final of the match play test fell on Monday, the 16th.

That date had already been reserved for the National Public Links sectional qualifiers at Oakland Hills and Knollwood. This obviously wouldn't do, so the MPGA decided to hold the semis and title round the following weekend.

The decision to make the tournament a double-weekend outing produced a snag just as inconvenient as the first. The Publinx semis and final are now scheduled June 21-22, the same weekend that the $50,000 Buick Open is in full swing at Warwick Hills near Grand Blanc.

This extension of the Publinx tourney fits the MPGA's needs, but it is not at all convenient for either sports writers or the golfing public.

Under the MPGA's new arrangement, 18-hole qualifying rounds will be conducted Friday, June 13. Those who make the grade will hold match play on the 14th and 15th, with two 18-hole eliminations each day.

Four golfers will survive the 1st weekend. After a recess of five days the two semifinal matches will run off Saturday, June 21. The two survivors meet in the championship affair on Sunday, the 22nd.

This year's semis and final will be played over a 36-hole route, also a change in tournament procedure. It has been 18 holes all the way in the past.

Mike Andonian, Pontiac Central High School mathematics teacher, is the defending champion. Andonian has won the crown for the last two years at Saginaw's Rolling Green Golf Club.

The state Publinx tourney should be a most interesting event, maybe more so than in previous years. Its conflict with the Buick Open is indeed unfortunate.

California Girl Seeks 3rd AAU Crown Tonight

DALLAS (AP)—The Women's National AAU Indoor Swimming meet ends tonight with prospects of three double winners, but Sylvia Ruuska, the strong young lady from the Berkeley, Calif., YMCA, already has her pair of titles and might make it a triple.

Miss Ruuska became the first to win two events last night as she beat Chris Von Saltza of the Santa Clara, Calif., Swim Club in the 500-yard freestyle simply by having more stamina. Her time of 5:44.9 was an AAU record.

Derby Hopefuls 'Silky' and Nadir Bow

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Hopes of other 3-year-old horses for a trip to Churchill Downs for the May 3 running of the Kentucky Derby were somewhat brighter today following defeats of the colorful Silky Sullivan and the well rated Nadir.

Silky Sullivan, making his final appearance before heading for the blue grass country, could do no better than third in a mile race at Golden Gate Fields in California. And Nadir also wound up third in a 6-furlong affair at Keeneland in Kentucky.

Silky, famed for his come-from-far-behind style, was unable to make up 29½ lengths as Gone Fishin' carried 110 pounds over the mile in 1:34 4-5. Silky carried 122. Gone Fishin', ($15.90) was 5½ lenghts in front of Furyvan. Silky a neck farther back.

Nadir, who with Silky Sullivan, Tim Tam and Jewel's reward compose the Derby's Big Four, was beaten by 4½ lengths in a betless race. Benedicto won in 1:10 3-5 over a sloppy track with Roman Bow second.

Gone Fishin' also is expected to run in the Derby.

Important races for other Derby eligibles headlined the program at Jamaica, Laurel and Gulfstream Park today.

3-Way Preliminary Fight for West. Amateur Places

DELRAY BEACH, Fla. (AP) — A threesome made up of Dr. Edgar Updegraff, defending champion; James "Billy" Key and Martin Stanovich holds the spotlight in the final two qualifying rounds of the Western Amateur Golf Tournament today.

The 16 low scorers for the 72 holes start match play for the championship tomorrow at The Country Club of Florida course.

The field of 104 was cut to 50 at the end of the second medal round yesterday, with Key, a 27-year-old bank vice president from Columbus, Ga., low man at 71-71—142, a stroke ahead of Jack Penrose of Miami.

Stanovich's record 69 yesterday did not stand long. Late in the showery afternoon Penrose came in with a 68 to grab the runnerup spot.

Busso Awarded Win After 8th Knockdown

BOSTON (AP) — Johnny Busso of New York planned a weight battle to remain in the lightweight division today as former contender Larry Boardman went into another extended layoff after an eight-knockdown brawl.

"I'm going to try to keep campaigning as a lightweight, but we'll just have to see," Busso said after stopping Boardman at 2:59 of the ninth round of a scheduled 10-rounder last night at Mechanics Building.

The 24-year-old Busso, recently discharged from the Army, floored Boardman seven times before Referee Tommy Rawson called a halt just before the bell ending the ninth in the nationally televised clash.

Mishap in Relay Costs Chiefs Title

FN Takes CMC Meet by Less Than a Point

Hawkins Falls Trying to Get Baton to Dan Sowell

By H. GUY MOATS

MT. PLEASANT — When Jim Hawkins fell trying to pass the baton to Danny Sowell on the 2nd leg of the 4-lap relay last night in Central Michigan College fieldhouse here, the mishap cost Pontiac Central High an important prep track title.

Chief thinclads were leading Flint Northern by a slim margin at the time, and as things turned out, even a 2nd place would have assured a victory in the seventh annual CMC indoor invitational meet.

But, instead of placing in the event, won by Flint Central, with Northern 2nd, Chiefs were disqualified. Hawkins had a 10-yard lead when he fell, and with Sowell, Joe Hill and Bob Manning running in that order would have had little trouble winning.

Flint Northern's balanced club was the victor, 42 9-14 to 41 11-14 for Chiefs. Flint Central was 3rd with 25 1-7 points.

Other standings:

Lansing Eastern 18; Traverse City 10 1-7; Muskegon 8½; Saginaw High 8 1-7; Midland and Bay City Central 8; BC Handy 5; Arthur Hill 4 and Alpena 1-7 point.

Four records fell, one by Rog Coats in his first half-mile test, a 2:05.0, bettering the old mark of 2:05.9. Bob Manning equalled the meet 60-yard dash mark of 0:6.3. Other new marks were Saginaw's Al Hinton's 54 feet 6¼ inch shot; a 12-3 pole vault by Muskegon's Dick Cahill and Flint Northern's medley relay time of 6:08.6.

The meet was a nip and tuck affair from the start with a big audience keyed to the Pontiac-Northern rivalry. Vikings led in the early stages, but Chiefs pulled into a 4½ point edge with the 1-2 finish of the 65-yard low hurdles, won by Sowell with Manning 2nd. The margin disappeared after the 4-lap mishap and Fred Brooks' miss for a 1st in the high jump, which he shared with Lansing Eastern and Northern at 6-1½.

Chiefs loomed very strong in the dashes and hurdles, the mile and half mile, and Valley coaches were looking forward to a continuing red-hot rivalry with PCH and the two Flint teams. Chiefs meet Central at Flint next Tuesday. Neither Coats nor Beamer were pressed in their events, lack of competition cost Beamer the top spot.

CLOSE RUNNING — Gene Bone of Pontiac was one of five golfers tied with rounds of 68, just one stroke behind the leader Don Whitt, in the Greenboro Golf Tournament after yesterday's first round. Bone with a 35-33 was tied with Jerry Magee, Johnny Pott, Tommy Bolt and Al Badling.

Prep Front

By CHUCK ABAIR

A brand new season has begun for the spring sports teams around the Oakland County area with Pontiac Central in track and Romeo in baseball seemingly already starting to take up where they left off as powers a year ago.

The Chief thinclads drew early raves as another state title contender by winning the Huron Relays two weeks ago. Romeo, which has an amazing record of 22 home runs while winning 10 straight last spring, opened up Thursday with two circuit blasts in an easy romp. One was by Ray Ritter who swatted five in 1957.

Rain, snow and cold during the past week put a crimp in workouts for teams in all sports. Coaches are hopeful the sun will fight its way back with the more heavy schedules starting Monday.

"It certainly was cold during our opening games. It even snowed during one inning," commented Pontiac Central baseball coach Ed Heikkinen when asked about his thoughts on the weather. Ed, incidentally, is might happy about his recent appointment to coach football at the new Pontiac Northernbut not too pleased with his 0-2 baseball mark thus far.

SKIPPING AROUND

ontiac's baseballers have been as frigid as the weather with a total of four hits in 14 innings. . . Wayne-Oakland should have excellent balance in baseball with all hands anxious to prevent Clarenceville from winnig its 7th straight crown. . .Madison may have one of the top players in the Oakland B this spring in catcher Larry Kaminski. . .All prep players are now required to wear head protectors while batting.

Avondale's capable hoop boss Dick Bye back directing track after previously planning to give up that post. . .Walled Lake expecting more great things from thinclad Frank Fink during next two months. . .Former Clarkston star George Lang dropped out of Western Michigan due to sickness in the family. He may switch to Eastern next fall.

John Coleman is undecided about continuing as Waterford golf coach due to such a busy schedule. . .Joe Tinson, the 1957 Press Bowlerama champ who won the title on a day he was supposed to be pitching a game, is not playing ball this year due to a part-time job.

Will Brighton drop out of the W-O loop? If so where can the Bulldogs go? That problem see to be holding the league together. . .Waterford's baseball win over Pontiac evened the series between the schools at 6-6. . . Seems strange to see a Chief tennis team without Vic Lindquist in charge.

The Tri-County League will operate in track and baseball.

Wolves, 'Skins Track Winners

In three prep track meets in the Oakland County area yesterday, all non-league affairs, Clarkston dumped Ortonville 86-23 on the latter's field, Milford edged Walled Lake in a surprise victory, 55 2-3—53 1-3 at Milford, and West Bloomfield (Keego Harbor) dropped a 66-43 dual to Thurston on Thurston's field.

Clarkston took all firsts, including Jim Jansen's broad jump, 440 win, tie in high jump and a leg on the winning relay team. Mal Joseph won the 100.

The Thurston meet was fairly close, with freshman Jack Newton of Keego taking the 100, finishing 2nd in the 220.

Andre Lavoy led Milford's win, with three firsts (high hurdles, (record 16.2, broad jump, high jump).

Lakers' Frank Fink won the vault, the 100 and ran a leg of a winning relay.

Special Feature of Tidbits for Preps & Golfers

Starting today and running on alternate days each week will be a special feature for high school sports and golf enthusiasts.

Press sports staffer Chuck Abair will carry his prep notes and roundup each Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday in the column "Prep Front."

On Monday, Wednesday and Friday of each week Bill Cornwell, also of the Press sports staff, will carry the odds and ends from the tees and greens of Oakland County's golf courses in his "Teeing Off" column.

Prep coaches and athletes, golf clubs and golfers are invited to submit their tidbits for column use.

Pontiac Golfer Tied for 2nd at Greensboro

Bone Starts Strong

GREENSBORO, N.C. (AP) — Don Whitt, a golf professional for almost 10 of his 27 years, says he plays his best in the summer.

He used the official opening of the PGA summer tour to back up his contention by taking a one-stroke lead into today's second round of the $15,000 Greater Greensboro Open Tournament.

Whitt, a soft-spoken Alameda, Calif., pro touring with his wife and their two children, bettered par by four shots with a 34-33—67 first round effort yesterday.

He dropped five putts of 10 to 20 feet in gaining the lead by a single shot over five rivals. Five more were two strokes behind at 69 and 11 others trailed by three with 70s.

Twelve others equalled the Starmount Forest Country Club Course's 35-36—71 par figures.

Whitt has had two big moments in his nearly three years of steady tournament golf. Last year he lost to Dow Finsterwald in the semi-finals of the PGA Championship. A few months earlier he had lost a playoff to Finsterwald in the Tucson Open.

He needed that hot putter yesterday as Jerry MaGee of Toronto, a pro only nine months; Al Balding of Markham, Ontario; Johnny Pott of Shreveport, La.; veteran Tommy Bolt of Chattanooga, and Gene Bone of Pontiac, all but burned up the easier back nine to finish with 68s. Pott bagged an eagle three on the 18th for an incoming 32, four under par. The five other top men finished with 33s.

Finsterwald, Tequesta, Fla., and Bob Wylie, Calgary, Alta., were the hottest on the back nine, however. Each carded a 31 to join the group at 70 that included Sam Snead of White Sulphur Springs, W.Va., a six-time winner of this tournament. Another stroke back was Stan Leonard of Vancouver, the defending champ, and Ken Venturi of San Francisco.

After today's play the field will be cut to the low 60 pros and ties and 10 amateurs for tomorrow's final 36 holes.

GREENSBORO (AP)—The low scores:

State Championships Here

Lifters at 'Y' Tonight

Weightlifters will vie for honors in the 1958 State YMCA meet which will be held at the Pontiac YMCA on Mt. Clemens street tonight.

Competition will be held in six weight classes and activities are slated to get started at 7:30 p.m.

The Pontiac YMCA weightlifting club will have eight entries in five different divisions.

Gerry Bunch will compete in the 132 pound class with Larry Blain, Ken Howell and Gary O'Neil lifting in the 148 pound class.

Bud Copeman is a 165 pound lifter and in the 181 pound class, Pontiac will have its state AAU champion John Rhodes. Doug Mills will also compete in the 181 pound division.

Dick Wisniewski is slated for action in the 198 pound class. Only class which will not have a Pontiac entry will be among the heavyweight lifters.

Other state AAU champions will be competing in the meet including Roy Lipanski, 165 pound lifter from Detroit Northeastern YMCA, John Wasacz, 198 pound champ also from Detroit Northeastern and Art Lappin, heavyweight champ from Detroit Western YMCA.

Leonard Rivera, of Detroit Northern is the 148 pound YMCA champion of last year.

This is the first time that Pontiac has hosted the state YMCA meet. Tickets can be purchased at the door tonight.

Boat, Sports Show Concludes Sunday

Another big crowd jammed the Miracle Mile Shopping Center boat and sports show last night. The event winds up Sunday with an afternoon program. tonight's features include an archery demonstration and a style show.

Between 6 and 8 p.m. Friday, show officials said they checked more than 600 visitors.

Hawks Heavily Favored to Clinch Title Tonight

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The odds appear heavily in favor of the St. Louis Hawks to wrest the world championship of pro basketball from the Boston Celtics tonight, but Hawks' Coach Alex Hannum isn't so sure.

St. Louis, with a 3-2 edge in the best-of-seven series for the National Basketball Assn. championship, will be playing on its home court, and several key Boston players are ailing.

"I think we've done great work in getting the edge on them," Hannum said as he put his charges through a workout yesterday. "But it doesn't mean a thing that we have won three out of five games unless we can get this next one."

Bill Russell, the Boston rebound ace, was given little chance to play because of a severe ankle sprain suffered in the third playoff game April 2.

Backcourt ace Bob Cousy of Boston reported his injured foot still bothers him. Bill Sharman said his knee is better and Arnie Risen is recovering from a heavy cold.

The Hawks, although heartened by Bob Pettit's apparent return to regular season scoring form, joined Hannum in taking a cautious attitude. They can't forget the playoffs of a year ago when they lost to the Celtics in a seventh game that went into double overtime.

If the Celtics win tonight, a seventh and deciding game will be played at Boston Monday night. The winning team takes a $12,000 pot for the championship series, with $7,000 going to the losers.

Hannum drilled his players yesterday against a full-court press that Boston has employed effectively since losing the services of Russell. The St. Louis coach said he hopes the Celts try it again.

"After all, we did all right against it the other night in Boston until the last two minutes when one bad call upset us and they closed in," Hannum said. "So we should be much better off now that we expect it."

Mat Tournament at High School

Wrestlers from Pontiac's five junior high schools will compete in a tournament today at Pontiac Central High School.

The tourney will feature competition in all classes under the direction of Pontiac Central wrestling coach Bill Willson and assistant Steve Szabo.

Medals will be awarded to the winners in each division. About 60 boys will participate.

The tourney will start at 1 p. m. and continue to 6 p. m.

Baseball Practice

Local 594, UAW-CIO Class A City League ball club will practice Sunday at 2 p.m. at the south diamond at Columbia-Joslyn field.

Griff's Grill, another City League club, has a workout set for Monday at the No. 1 Jaycee field, starting at 5 p.m.

No Slipped Disc for Klu

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Pittsburgh Post-Gazette said today that Ted Kluszewski apparently never suffered a slipped disc and that the Pittsburgh Pirates will pay $55,000 to the Cincinnati Redlegs if he is still with the club at the start of the season.

Al Abrams, Post-Gazette sports editor, said the money will be paid to complete the trade in which the Pirates exchanged Dee Fondy for Kluszewski. The trade had been announced as an even swap.

Kluszewski had been complaining of back pains the past two seasons. The ailment was diagnosed as a slipped disc and there was some speculation whether he would play again.

In another story, baseball writer Jack Hernon said "Perhaps it was not such a calculated risk Joe Brown (Pirate General Manager) took last December when he acquired Kluszewski for Fondy."

Hernon said examination by a Pirate medical specialist "showed there was no slipped disc."

Oxford's Galba Paces Central With 5 Hits

NORMAL, Ill. (AP)—Central Michigan, defending co-champion in the Interstate Intercollegiate Athletic Conference, opened the conference baseball season yesterday with a 10-1 victory over Illinois Normal.

Ray Millis went the route for the Chippewas, yielding five hits. Wally Galba of Oxford led Central's 11-hit attack with five safeties including a double and a triple.

Doctoring Your Golf

By Dr. CARY MIDDLECOFF

Patient's Complaint: All Confused.

Diagnosis: Not Much Doubt of That

Treatment: Focus Your Thinking. I'm thinking of a famous golf cartoon. The central figure is a harried looking man with a golf club in his hand and a ball teed up before him. The lettering shows that he's trying to keep in mind a dozen or more pieces of golf advice at once: "Head down . . . left arm straight . . . slow back . . . turn hips . . . right elbow in . . . follow through . . . etc."

The whole point of the cartoon is, of course, that the man can't possibly hit the ball right with all that stuff running through his mind at once. The point is well taken.

The thing to do is concentrate first on the grip and the stance. Then, for the swing itself, concentrate on only ONE point. And I suggest, especially for beginners, that this single point be: KEEP THE HEAD STILL.

School Board OKs Purchases

New Romeo High Bldg. Being Readied for June Needs Equipment

ROMEO — The Romeo School Board has authorized purchase of much of the equipment and furnishings for the new Romeo High School scheduled for completion in late June.

Pupils' study-top desks, teachers' desks and chairs, wardrobe cabinets for each classroom and homemaking equipment were among the items to be ordered.

Supt. T. C. Filppula said at the board meeting Thursday night that contractors expect to lay the cement floor in the gymnasium next week. And while work proceeds on schedule inside the building, grading is in progress outside.

Board members signed teachers' contracts for next year and learned that 14 new teachers still remain to be hired. Ten will be needed to staff the new high school and four more will serve in other capacities in the system.

* * *

Next summer's music program, under band director E. C. Ojala, was approved. It will be in operation between June 23 and Aug. 8 and each week will feature three student practices and a concert.

Action Awaited on Airport Bill

Williams to Decide on Oakland, Macomb and Wayne Authority

Airport authority supporters in Oakland and neighboring counties waited for a last step today before their hopes for such an authority could be realized.

A bill was laid on Gov. Williams' desk which would allow Wayne County to join with Oakland and Macomb counties to form such an authority.

But Rep. William Romano never take effect, claiming the move is unconstitutional.

(D-Van Dyke) predicted it will

The measure amends the airport authority act enacted last year to remove a ban prohibiting cities or counties with more than one million population to join an authority.

Backers of a Northeast Airport to serve the Detroit metropolitan area hope to build it on a site in Sterling Township. Groups in Oakland, Wayne and Macomb Counties have voiced interest in joining an authority to build it.

TV Commercials to Boast 'Feelies' and 'Smellies'

ATLANTIC CITY (INS)—If TV commercials bother you now, don't complain. "Feelies" and "smellies" are coming.

In the "brave new world" viewers will not only be able to see and hear the commercials — but probably feel and smell them.

That was the "good" news disclosed today by Rodney Erickson, vice president and supervisor of TV accounts for Young & Rubicam, in an address to more than 250 attorneys at the 51st annual meeting of the United States Trademark Association.

He said that "inventors are now working on an electronic impulse device which would send odors into a room." He referred to this innovation as "smellies."

Erickson said inventors also are perfecting a glove device for the edge of the chair in front of the TV set which would allow the viewer to feel fabric or furs or any other pleasant sensation. These he said could be termed "feelies."

'Wide Wide World' Calls on Newsmen Tomorrow

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—Believing that nearly everybody is fascinated by the reporting and dissemination of news, Wide Wide World (NBC-TV) will visit Washington Sunday at 4 p.m. to examine working newsmen and their organinzation.

Producer Ted Rogers says the program, "Headline City," will "show viewers just what it means to be a working newsman in the world's most newsworthy city."

There was a time when the average newspaper city room was as sacrosanct as a hospital operating room. But no more. Now some even contain glassed observation booths for visitors.

There's one man I wish was still alive to view Sunday's program and grumble and snort at this invasion of a newsman's privacy. He was my city editor on a paper whose management suddenly began encouraging tours of the plant by bands of schoolchildren.

When the children appeared, the city editor always retired to the men's room, muttering about being a trained seal.

A BIT OF HAM

There's a bit of the ham in everybody, but it's a mighty thin slice in today's ablest newsmen. Dozens of them demonstrate this frequently on television.

A good newsman respects his profession and he insists that others treat it with respect.

In general, with the exception of a few half-baked entertainment programs, the medium of television has treated the medium of news-gathering without distortion. Probably that's because television is a news medium itself.

As a result, today's serious newsmen have far greater respect for television's treatment of their profession than yesterday's serious newsman had for the movies' versions.

Ends His Trial Abruptly

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Luther R. Thompson, 31, on trial for the $87 dollar robbery of a gasoline station, was given permission to speak at his trial. He astonished the court by declaring: "The robbery happened exactly as it was described and I am guilty." Common Pleas Judge Charles L. Mills immediately sentenced Thompson to 10-25 years in prison.

There are 67 over-water bridges in New York City.

ECONOMY and TV SERVICE

Economical TV Service does not mean getting the "cheapest" repair job from a friend who "tinkers" or a neighbor who would like to learn at your expense on your receiver.

True economy is getting the most service for your money. Oakland County Electronic Association members have the best equipment and training and the "know how" gained from years of experience to do a professional job on your TV and other electronic equipment. Don't settle for less. Call an O. C. E. A. member for quick, efficient service.
