Comfort or Misery!

—This is how we were.

—This is how we will be.

HIS HONOR, PREZ — Pictured above is Paul A. Sparrow. Paul was unanimously elected President of the Pontiac Press sport-shirt-and-no-tie summer club by the special IBM electric computator The Press had designed for this one purpose. Paul is a mere shadow of his former self as he has taken off 30 pounds. "I'm down to 295," said President Sparrow, "and I feel lean and gaunt."

All members of the club are privileged to raise their hand in greeting any time they see Paul on the street and say: "Hi, Prez." Paul will reply, "Hi, pal," unless you are wearing a tie, in which case he will ignore you with every one of his 295 pounds.

Relief for Wilted Males

Fifth Freedom Proclaimed: No Collars, No Neckties

How about those neckties?

How about sport shirts?

How about ninety degrees Fahrenheit in the shade?

How about the summertime emancipation of the poor, downtrodden male?

Last summer The Press advocated sport shirts without neckties on all days when the mercury hit 90.

The army of converts was enormous.

Adams Apples bobbed shamelessly all over the place and a more comfortable and a happier masculine population in the Pontiac area faced those days with new hope, a big smile and three loud cheers for summer.

In the past few days, The Press has been approached again by many sufferers who suggested—nay, implored—for a campaign in 1956. Well, sir, the gray beards around this institution went into a protracted huddle.

They debated the question.

They consulted the Oracle at Delphi.

They read a cup of assorted tea leaves and gazed into a two dollar crystal ball.

It is "YES."

Gentlemen, you are cordially invited to join the sport shirt club without a necktie on all days when the thermometer hits 90. This means in your office, on the street, in your biggest customer's palace and at the soda fountain or cocktail lounge.

Search began for a president of the club.

Thousands and thousands of names were submitted to the IBM Machine which we installed for this very purpose. On each name lights flashed, wheels whirled and gears ground.

But the answer was "no"—always "no."

Finally, one of the committee dropped in the name of Paul F. Sparrow. Immediately the machine started playing, "Oh, What a Beautiful Morning." The odor of rare incense reached the nostrils of the anxious committeemen. A soft, alluring feminine voice began reciting, "What Is So Rare As A Day in June."

The machine itself trembled ever so slightly and the name of Paul F. Sparrow was suddenly

Heat Wave Frying Area, Nation

Mercury Remains in 90's Snapping 2 City Records

TODAY'S TEMPERATURES

7 a. m.	76	11 a. m.	92
8 a. m.	79	noon	94
9 a. m.	84	1 p. m.	94
10 a. m.	88	2 p. m.	96

The Pontiac area continued to bake with the rest of the nation today as Old Sol burned down, turning most of the country into a giant oven.

A 62-year-old heat record was snapped in Pontiac yesterday when a blistering 95 degrees was recorded at 4 p.m. The old mark was registered June 12, 1894 when the mercury climbed to 94.

And today marked the second consecutive day, a heat record had been broken. A 1920 record of 90 degrees fell by the wayside at 10:30 a.m. when it reached 91.

And the only relief the Weather Man can dig up for this early June heat wave, is a forecast of possible showers this evening. The heat will stay on for a fourth day with the thermometer expected to reach a high of 96 tomorrow.

Pontiac area residents were flocking to county lakes to escape from this, the third day of 90-degree temperatures. Four drownings were reported in the state yesterday.

While city folks suffered, farmers welcomed the heat wave as a boon to crops.

Several streets and highways around the Detroit area buckled under the intense heat, causing traffic to be rerouted.

WHOLE U. S. SUFFERS

And Michiganders sweltered with the rest of the nation as the heat rolled eastward across the country. Temperature in Chicago yesterday reached 97, breaking a 36-year-old record.

Los Angeles braced for another attack of smog and scorching heat in the 90's. The third smog alert in three days caused many residents to suffer eye and throat irritation.

Colorado and New Mexico expected temperatures in the 100's. Wyoming looks for 95; Montana, east of the Continental Divide, 92; Kansas, 100; Oklahoma, 90; Nebraska, 100 and Missouri 95.

HEAT HALTS FIREMEN

In New Mexico, heat hampered fire fighters battling 40 small forest fires in the Gila National Forest set off Sunday by lightning.

Only northern Minnesota, South Dakota and Northern Maine escaped the heat as it simmered over the central, southern and eastern portions of the nation.

And there's one bright spot along the boiling report—a welcome cool front moved into the Northern plains, dropping temperatures and offering the far-off hope of cooler breezes.

But the Midwest is expected to

Resolution Is Adopted by Commission Asking Prompt Action

The Pontiac City Commission last night unanimously adopted a resolution requesting the special session of the Michigan Legislature take action to bring relief to unemployed in Pontiac and the rest of the state.

The resolution was offered by Commissioner John A. Dugan, (District 5) who attended a UAW-sponsored meeting Friday at which a 13-man "task force" was created to investigate the state unemployment situation. Mayor William W. Donaldson was appointed a member of this group.

The resolution asked the Legislature to extend the duration and increase the benefit levels of the State Employment Compensation to aid the unemployed.

Dugan cited two examples of unemployment in Pontiac plants and declared the city "should be classified as a critical unemployment area." He said Pontiac Motor Division, where he is employed, has laid off 6,260 workers while Fisher Body Division has close to 3,000 out of work.

A spokesman for the Pontiac Motor Division reported today that 5,160 workers have been laid off since Jan. 1.

Highway Bill Faces Delay

Williams Asks Approval of Jobless Pay Hike Plan; GOP Opposition Evident

LANSING—Gov. Williams today urged the Legislature to step up jobless pay benefits without delay. He said the unemployment situation in the state will "worsen considerably before it improves."

Williams, in a message opening a special legislative session, drew a picture of mounting financial distress in the state, and declared adequate unemployment compensation is good business."

He said unemployment as of May 15 had reached 207,000 and was still rising.

As a result, he said, retail sales and retail employment are down, and state revenues are suffering accordingly. Relief spending is mounting, he said.

"We cannot afford to let our unemployed and their families drift for themselves," the governor declared. "We cannot afford to let the neighborhood merchants nor any others, for that matter, suffer needless setbacks."

VAN DUSEN CRITICAL

Rep. Richard C. Van Dusen, Birmingham Republican, called Williams' program "a bare-faced attempt to buy votes with the unemployment compensation fund."

Van Dusen said the money involved represents the insurance protection of 2½ million workers.

"Seemingly he wants to cut a hole in the bottom of the barrel and let the money run out quickly to those first in line without regard for the needs others may face later," Van Dusen said.

The Williams measure is almost identical with the one sponsored by all House Democrats. It died in

Ohio Minister to Speak at Pontiac High Graduation

Tennyson Guyer, minister and humanitarian from Findlay, O., will give the main address to Pontiac High School graduates in commencement exercises at Wisner Stadium at 8 o'clock Thursday night.

Louis Schimmel, president of the Board of Education, will preside over exercises. participating in the program will be Dr. Milton Bank, pastor of Central Methodist Church; Tom Cross, senior class president; Francis Staley, principal; Dr. Dana P. Whitmer, superintendent of schools.

The Pontiac High School band, under the direction of Dale C. Harris, will provide music.

Guyer will speak to the 381 seniors on "How High Is Your Star?" He began his speaking career at 19 and has spoken before 7500 audiences.

Guyer is author of two books, has been awarded five honorary doctor's degrees.

Staley will present the class and awards to students and Dr. Whitmer will award diplomas.

Band numbers to be played include the "Processional" by Savino, "The Southerner," by Alexander and the "University March" by Goldman.

'Gator Grabbed in City Lake

Here's a happy thought as the swimming season gets into full swing. An alligator was captured yesterday, within the city limits.

Power shovel operator John Darling lead the expedition after sighting the creature swimming. He was assisted by Oliver Prudhomme, Arnold Smith and Richard Davenport.

The alligator was to be questioned today about relationship to the alligator of Lower Long Lake which stirred considerable interest last summer. Officials theorized he may have run away from home.

Solons Endorse Foreign Aid Plea

Ike's Appeal for More Funds Gathers Support of 10 GOP Senators

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ten Republican senators rallied today behind President Eisenhower's sickbed plea for more foreign aid money, appealing to their colleagues to uphold what they called his "staunch leadership for peace."

They took their stand in a joint statement a few hours before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee was scheduled to begin work behind closed doors on a House-approved $3,800,000,000 foreign aid bill.

This measure is $1,104,000,000 smaller than Eisenhower asked for economic and military assistance to free nations.

Committee Chairman George (D-Ga) led in a move aimed at increasing the House total by 500 millions. Senate sources said passage of this proposal would be "difficult, but possible."

The advocates were Senators Clifford Case, N.J.; Allott, Colo.; Bender, Ohio; Duff, Pa.; Bush, Conn.; Flanders, Vt.; Ives, N.Y.; Kuchel, Calif.; Payne, Maine, and Purtell, Conn.

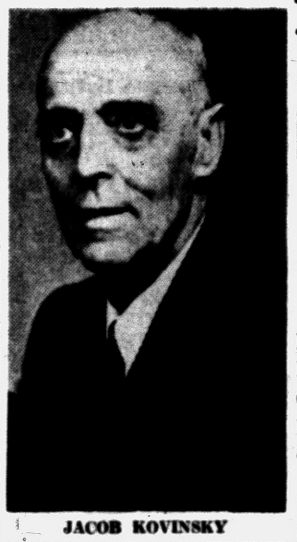

Weather Halts Duffy; U.S. Team Eliminated

The American team was eliminated when Frank Duffy (Birmingham, Mich.) failed to finish the gruelling course. Heavy rain also caused elimination of at least five other teams.

Dies Today

Jacob Kovinsky Taken by Death Following Stroke

JACOB KOVINSKY

Business Leader Came to City 54 Years Ago; Was 72 Years of Age

Jacob Kovinsky, 72, well-known Pontiac business leader and retired realtor, died this morning at Pontiac General Hospital after a brief illness.

He was born Sept. 18, 1883 in Russia and came to this country when he was 12. His wife, Ida Sterling, died in May 1953.

After settling in Detroit, he came to Pontiac 54 years ago and entered the metal business. He later branched out into the real estate field.

Mr. Kovinsky completed the building of the Pontiac State Bank building in 1929, and at the time of his death was owner of the Riker building.

He was one of the founders of Temple Beth Jacob in the city and he was honored by having the temple named after him.

He was a life member of the Elks, a charter member of the City Club, Pontiac B'nai B'rith, a charter and life member of the Board of Directors of the local temple. He was also on the building committee of the temple.

He is survived by three daughters: Mrs. Harold S. Goldberg, of Pontiac, Mrs. David Jacobs of Harrisburg, Pa., and Mrs. Oscar C. Brenner of Albany, N. Y., five grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Survivors also are three sisters, Mrs. Max Soloman, Mrs. Harry Serling and Mrs. Max Lebster, all of Detroit.

The late Mrs. Kovinsky was born in Poland and came to this country when she was 13. She had lived in the city for 51 years before her death. The Kovinskys celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in December 1951.

Mr. Kovinsky's body will be at the Ira Kaufman Chapel, 9419 Dexter at Edison Sts., Detroit until 10 o'clock Thursday evening. His remains may be viewed from 11:30 Friday morning until time for service at 1 p.m. in Temple Beth Jacob, 79 Elizabeth Lake Rd., Pontiac.

Interment will be in Cloverhill Park Cemetery, Royal Oak.

President Busy; Signs 27 Bills

Eisenhower held a 25-minute meeting with key White House staff members, signed 27 bills and other official documents.

He also arranged to meet tomorrow in his Walter Reed Hospital room with West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer.

An aide said Eisenhower "looked and sounded quite chipper," and did some personal dictating to his secretary, Mrs. Ann Whitman.

This included a message of thanks to Mixican President Ruiz Cortines, who telephoned good wishes earlier in the week.

"We did a lot of work this morning," White House press secretary James C. Hagerty said. He spoke to a news conference about an hour before the lunch-time medical bulletin was scheduled to be issued.

The 8 a.m. medical report said the President spent a fairly comfortable night and that his blood pressure and other physical symptoms were about what could be expected at this stage of recovery from an intestinal operation such as he underwent Saturday.

The bills signed ranged from a $424,624,100 appropriation for the Interior Department to private relief bills and other minor measures such as the transfer of a few acres of land in Muskogee, Okla.

Olympic Stables Burn

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP)—The training building of the stables for the Olympic equestrian games caught fire tonight. The entire area was turned into chaos with whinnying horses running wildly about. None of the champion horses was trapped.

Three Escape Sandy Death

Cave-in Buries 6 Gotham Children

NEW YORK (AP)—With a whispering rush, a wall of sandy earth swept down on a group of children playing in a Brooklyn excavation last night. Six of them—two girls and four boys—were smothered and crushed to death.

Police and the Brooklyn district attorney began an investigation to determine if negligence was involved.

DIGGING TUNNEL

Nine youngsters apparently were digging a tunnel in the soft sand at the foot of the 30-foot wall of the excavation, which was for a highway underpass.

Eleven-year-old Marie Stanikunas had been sent to call her brother and sister home for supper. She saw them in the hole. Just then the earth moved.

Marie screamed and grabbed another sister, Dolores. The cascading sand swirled around her ankles and sucked off her shoes, but the two girls escaped.

* * *

A post office employe heard the screaming and arrived in time to pull out 9-year-old Anatole Bykov alive, but seriously injured.

Marie pulled a fire alarm box. Soon the pit was swarming with police and fire rescue workers. The six children were pulled out soon, but they could not be revived.

'DON'T LOOK'

She heard a wailing cry from the mother, Mrs. Theresa Stanikunas, as her children, Michael, 10, and Lorraine, 5, were uncovered.

"Don't look. Don't look," the grandmother told Marie, turning her away. "Which one?" she called down.

"Both," came back the cry and the family burst into wild sobbing.

* * *

The other dead children were John William McKenzie, 9; John T. Kotov, 7; Anna Ortiz, 8; and Louis Nitti, 6.

Shoppers See Waitress Killed

Factory Worker Shoots Fiancee He Never Dated in Downtown Detroit

DETROIT (INS)—A 50-year-old Detroit factory worker last night shot and killed a waitress he had never "dated" but intended to marry.

Chrisman told police he had given Mrs. Winfrey $1,600 over a 15-month period ending last Christmas and that he expected her to marry him, although they had never went out together.

Mrs. Winfrey, who was separated from her husband, worked at a restaurant which Chrisman frequented.

Chrisman said he intended the money to be used to buy a house after they were married.

The factory worker bought a .38 caliber revolver last week after learning Mrs. Winfrey intended to go to police and complain he was annoying her. He said he rarely even spoke to her.

Chrisman entered Mrs. Winfrey's car last night as it was parked at the rear of the store and said he wanted to talk to her. She jumped out and ran to the front of the store, where Chrisman fired the fatal shots before a crowd of shoppers.

Detroit Murder Trial Witness to Be Grilled

DETROIT (INS) — The attorney for Maurice Hamilton today was expected to grill the man his 20-year-old client has accused of being the killer of Aziz Hermiz.

Hamilton and Hermiz' wife, Victoria, 25, are on trial for first degree murder in the fatal stabbing last Feb. 10 of the 35-year-old Detroit grocer.

The youth, a native of Baghdad, startled the courtroom of Recorder's Judge Frank G. Schemanske Monday by leaping to his feet and declaring the actual killer was Azzawi Haisha, Mrs. Hermiz' brother.

Hamilton's attorney, Michael Kranson, will get an opportunity to cross-examine Haisha today when the man re-takes the stand to give further evidence.

Legislator to Seek Second State Term

Pontiac's State Representative, Leslie H. Hudson, 34, has filed petitions seeking renomination to his office on the Democratic ticket, he announced today.

A former member of the Oakland County Board of Supervisors, Hudson is a World War II veteran, past president of the Lions Coub, and former Waterford Township clerk.

Hudson was first elected to the State Legislature in 1954. He represents Pontiac, Oakland County's 2nd district.

Hudson, of 59 W. Colgate Ave., is married and has four children. He is a graduate of Pontiac High School and the University of Michigan.

Boy, 6, Receives Cuts in Accident With Auto

A Waterford Township boy was treated for cuts and bruises of the face at Pontiac General Hospital yesterday after being struck by a car at Walton and Ironton Roads.

Peter Vidlund, 6, of 2465 Fairbanks St., was released following treatment.

Father Thompson L. Marcero

Father Maurice Veryser

Father Marcero Named as Local Church Pastor

The appointment of Father Thompson L. Marcero, a native of Pontiac, as pastor of St. Vincent de Paul Catholic Church on S. Parke street, was recently announced by Edward Cardinal Mooney, archbishop of Detroit archdiocese.

He succeeds the present administrator, Father Maurice Veryser who is being transferred to organize a new parish in Dearborn. The changes will be effective June 22.

Father Marcero was born in Pontiac and attended St. Frederick's School and Sacred Heart Seminary in Detroit. He took his theology studies at St. Thomas Seminary in Denver, Colo. and was ordained to the priesthood May 31, 1931.

Following ordination, Father Marcero was assigned to St. Francis de Sales, Detroit as assistant pastor. He also served in a similar capacity at St. David's in Detroit and St. Charles in Newport.

His first full pastorate was at Sacred Heart in Yale following which he was named to his present assignment as pastor of Guardian Angels in Clawson.

Father Veryser was an assistant pastor at Immaculate Conception in Anchorville and at Precious Blood and St. Luke's, both in Detroit.

He came to Pontiac as assistant pastor at St. Vincent de Paul in June 1951. In March 1956, he was named administrator of the parish upon the transfer of Bishop A. M. Zaleski to the pastorate of St. Alphonsus, Dearborn.

In his new assignment, he will become pastor of an unnamed parish which he is to organize and establish in the vicinity of Ford and Telegraph Rds.

The parishioners of St. Vincent's are planning a farewell party for Father Veryser in the parish hall Friday evening, June 22.

suffer through the heat through Saturday.

Pontiac City Manager W. K. Willman and a Birmingham official said the heat had not forced a lawn sprinkling ban. While Willman said he did not expect one this summer, the Birmingham spokesman added there was no ban "as yet."

NO CASUALTIES REPORTED

Although both hospitals were on the alert for heat prostration cases, none had been reported as of 10 a.m.

The U. S. Weather Bureau predicts the temperature to drop slightly to around 70-74 tonight.

Drownings in the state yesterday included Mrs. Maxine Mays, 38, of Smyrna, northwest of Ionia, who drowned yesterday in a creek while swimming.

Other high temperatures yesterday were: Fargo, N. D. 99; El Paso, Texas 98; Milwaukee and Minneapolis 95; Des Moines, Denver and Kansas City 94; Boston 91; Cleveland 90; Washington and Philadelphia 88; and New York City 86.

The lowest temperature preceding 8 a.m. in Pontiac was 71 degrees. The mercury boiled to 96 at 2 p.m.

Shocialized Medichine—Blimey, Thatch th' Shtuff

LONDON (INS) — Hardly anyone appreciates the joys of socialized medicine better than Alojzy Gradek, who claims he was given 72 bottles of Scotch on prescription from the Ministry of National Insurance during the past six months.

The 41-year-old Polish chef told his story to a London magistrate whom he was facing on drunkenness charges. Gradek said his doctor told him to drink spirits because his circulation was bad so "I had nearly a bottle daily."

Jail Detroiter in Theft of Household Furniture

Edward Ridge, formerly of Pontiac Township and now a Detroit resident, is being held in Oakland County Jail after waiving examination on a grand larceny charge. He failed to post $10,000 bond.

Ridge is charged with stealing furniture valued at over $50 from a rented apartment at 2628 Lapeer Rd., Pontiac Township. The losses were discovered when he moved out Dec. 5, 1955.

Harold Grant Seeks Nomination of Dems

Harold A. Grant, fourth - term president of Fisher Body Local 596, UAW-CIO, today announced he will seek the Democratic nomination as Pontiac's State Representative.

Grant, 39, of 481 East Blvd. N., attended St. Frederick High School and Pontiac High School and graduated from Lee High School in Jacksonville, Fla. He studied electrical engineering at the University of Oklahoma for two years.

A veteran of World War II and the Korean conflict, Grant has spent eight years in the U.S. Navy. He is married and has two children.

Girls Suffer Injuries as Car Leaves Highway

Two teenagers suffered minor injuries when the car in which they were riding went off the road at Pontiac Lake and Watkins Lake roads yesterday.

Jackie M. McGrady, 15, of 2264 Airport Rd., Waterford Township, received chest bruises and Barbara L. Brownell, 16, of 554 Madison Ave., had a bruised left arm. Both were treated and released by Pontiac General Hospital.

Gerald L. Hagemeister, 17, of 726 Crescent Lake Rd., Waterford, was the driver of the car, according to Waterford Township police.

Faith Healer Causing Rift

Possible Abdication Seen for Juliana, Says Report

LONDON (INS) — The London Daily Mirror reported from Amsterdam today that Dutch parliamentary circles are discussing the possible abdication of Queen Juliana because of her friendship with a "faith healer."

The Mirror said Juliana has quarreled with her husband, Prince Bernhard, and has caused so much consternation in the government that she may give up her throne in favor of her daughter, Princess Beatrix, 18.

Several other morning papers mentioned the Amsterdam rumors which were first noted in the German magazine "Der Spiegel."

The Daily Sketch said the "faith healer," Mrs. Greet Hofman, was being called publicly "a female Rasputin."

CENSORSHIP FAILS

The Mirror said The Netherlands government was making frantic efforts to prevent the Dutch people from learning about the rift between Juliana and Bernard.

"Twice within the past few days," the Mirror said, "The premier has asked editors of Amsterdam newspapers to give their word they would not print any mention of the matter. Dutch newspaper distributors have been requested not to handle foreign papers carrying a story about the rift."

The Mirror claimed cabinet meetings have been held to discuss Mrs. Hofman's friendship with the queen and that foreign affairs committee was convened for the same reason.

• • •

A general election is being held in The Netherlands today but observers were uncertain as to whether the rumored split in the royal family would have any effect on the outcome.

• • •

Bernard, who is in Stockholm for the Olympic riding events, reportedly told newsmen he would not comment in any form on the rumors.

Native of India Visiting Missionaries in Pontiac

David Jambayya, visiting in the United States from India, arrived in Pontiac yesterday for a side trip to visit the A. Bruce Coates, 99 E. Iroquois Rd.

The Coates were missionaries who started a school thirty years ago in Raichur, a town of 60,000 in southern India and Jambayya's home.

Jambayya, completely in his native dress, speaks excellent English, having studied it at the University of Bombay where he obtained his bachelor of arts degree.

He came to the United States in April as a lay delegate from southern India to the General Methodist Conference in Minneapolis, Minn.

When the conference was over, Jambayya found himself elected for a year's scholarship at Boston University to gain his master's degree.

June 11 was the day he set to be home in India again but said he had written his wife and let her know it would be a year from June 11.

From Minneapolis, he went to Indiana where he has spent some time touring that state.

He came to Pontiac to look up the missionary who started the school he attended in India. Coates left India when Jambayya was a small boy.

Jambayya said he had heard much about the Coates and was anxious to meet them.

Jambayya is married and has six children. He is head master of a teacher's training school in Raichur.

DAVID JAMBAYYA

Jambayya says he likes the United States. The people are different than he expected . . .but "very nice and hospitable."

Hence, Paul is the new club president and he was immediately sworn into office. The oath was administered by a Representative of President Eisenhower who was unable to appear in person for well established reasons. Paul solemnly swore never to wear a necktie and to leave his collar open on all days when the mercury touched ninety.

He was immediately photographed in his quaint, old fashioned collar and choker and then re-photographed after the change. The Press presents these for your inspection.

Do likewise if you wish to be comfortable. If you prefer to swelter, perspire, grouse, sweat, gripe, find fault, feel depressed and unfit, continue the way you are.

All members of the club are privileged to speak to President Sparrow whenever they pass him. Paul will expect a friendly "Hi, Prez." He will wave cheerily in return and answer: "Hi, pal."

But if it's one of those 90-and-above days and you wear a collar, President Sparrow will have no truck with you or any similar hoi pollois. He reserves his greetings for the elite — for those in the know — for those who share the fellowship of our 1956 version of the club that battles for the comfort of the forgotten man.

He was born in Au Gres, and Married Viola Elves in Pontiac, June 18, 1913.

Surviving besides his widow are two daughters, Mrs. Viola Payne of LaPort, Ind., Mrs. Virginia Hubner of Forest Park, Ill., two sons, Gerald of Batavia, Ill., Richard of Cleveland and 11 grandchildren, along with a sister, Mrs. Ruby Wismer of Grand Blanc.

Funeral service will be held at 1:30 p.m. Friday at the Huntoon Funeral Home with burial in Oak Hill Cemetery. The Rev. William Hakes of the First Baptist Church will officiate.

Battle of the Ages

CHICAGO (INS)—Louis Gansel, 70-year-old clerk, became so enraged when a robber nearly strangled him that he overpowered and captured his attacker, James Kenny, 25, who begged him to call police.

Police Nab 16-Year-Olds for Theft of Clothing

A cardboard box led to the arrest of two 16-year-old boys in the theft of miscellaneous clothing from a variety store last Thursday night, Pontiac police said.

Police were tipped by telephone Friday night that part of the loot could be found in the box at a downtown street corner, Det. Olin Hoffman said.

He said the youths had been questioned earlier about the break-in at 1214 N. Perry St. and later confessed making the telephone call to remove suspicion from themselves.

Ferry Run Dries Up

BATCHTOWN, Ill. (INS)—Ferry boat owner Ellis Inman had this to say after service across the Mississippi River from Batchtown, Ill., to Winfield, Mo., was suspended for the first time in 78 years: "We just ran out of water."

Muskegon Fire Razes Building

MUSKEGON (AP)—A spectacular mid-day fire destroyed a store and apartment building in downtown Muskegon yesterday with losses estimated by Fire Chief Wallace A. Gannon as "upwards of $80,000."

Five fire compaies, with 30 firemen and a command officer, converged on the intersection of Pine street and Webster to battle the blaze which broke out minutes before noon in a ground floor restaurant.

The roof and second floor collapsed into the basement during the height of the blaze, sending up a huge shower of flame and debris. When the fire was brought under control about 1:15 p.m., only the front and side brick veneer walls remained standing.

Gannon said they would be demolished as a safety precaution.

The adjacent Liquidating Sales and Service Co., a flooring material agency, suffered only smoke and water damage. The building destroyed today was the lone structure salvaged from a fire in January, 1954, which leveled the Home Furniture Co., with loss of $350,000.

Jim Hoffa Subpoenaed by Racket-Probing Jury

NEW YORK (AP) — James R. Hoffa of Detroit, a vice president of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, has been subpoenaed to appear as a witness before a racket-probing federal grand jury here.

An official in the U.S. attorney's office confirmed that Hoffa was subpoenaed yesterday. The official, who declined use of his name, would not reveal what information is sought from Hoffa.

Hoffa is expected to appear before the jury in about two weeks.

Plain Damn Lie, Says Truman of Stalin Claim

Moscow radio made the claim yesterday in a Japanese language broadcast heard in Tokyo.

The touring former president took up the subject again today just before he and Mrs. Truman boarded a train for Brussels. He said:

"The first atom-bomb was exploded at Los Alamos July 16, 1945. As soon as I got the report, I informed Churchill (Sir Winston Churchill who then was British prime minister). He knew of our work because the British had given us all their knowledge and spent 20 million dollars on it.

"After the explosion, I informed Stalin that we had the key to one of the most powerful explosives in the history of the world. I told Stalin this explosive would end the war against Japan.

"Stalin told us to go ahead and drop it.

Truman added that Hiroshima and Nagasaki were picked as targets because they were devoted entirely to war work or for use as a military base.

But Push the Right Button

The Store of Tomorrow — an Electronic Waiter

E. B. Weiss, New York merchandising expert, made this prediction to some 1000 delegates to the meeting in Philadelphia:

They will be revolving stores, with customers sitting in front of merchandise conveyed to them for push-button recording of purchases, and moving sidewalks that bring shoppers from parking lots direct to the shops.

CHECK GIRL GONE

Weiss forecast self service in the future will extend to practically all categories of merchandise. The present check-out girl, he said, will give way to an electronic computer, and the vending machine principle will be extended.

"With atomic-radiated food freed from spoilage problems," Weiss said, "food will be sold in mounting volume from electronically-controlled batteries of vending machines.

"Some shopping will be done electronically from the car—the car will pull up to a huge electronic bulletin board on which merchandise will be featured, and remote controls in the car will permit the shopper to record her purchases."

The Day in Birmingham

Citizens Committee Eyes School Staff Potentials

BIRMINGHAM — Personnel conditions of Birmingham School District are being eyed in a current study by the Citizens' Committee on Education, the same group which last year recommended the five new schools and two swimming pools that voters later authorized.

A comprehensive appraisal of the district's personnel program, with the aim of determining whether its excellent reputation can be improved in any way, is subject of the study.

"The study does not necessarily imply adverse criticism of existing policies," said Louis A. Bauer, 3140 Bradway Boulevard, Bloomfield Village, the committee chairman.

"Rather, it represents an evaluation to determine whether they are adequate to attract and retain the kind of staff members to provide the quality of instruction, leadership and service we all want for our children," he said.

Organized in 1954 under sponsorship of the PTA Council, the committee represents all schools in the sprawling district.

A steering committee and three study committees compose an independent fact-finding body. It is strictly advisory and reports its findings and recommendations to the PTA Council and the Board of Education, but only the school board may legally act on them.

Last year the committee studied physical facilities in the district and recommended that voters authorize five new schools, additions to five others, rehabilitation of existing elementary schools and completion of swimming pools at Birmingham high school and Derby junior high school.

The school board placed the proposal before the voters and it was approved overwhelmingly.

The third principal study area — curriculum — will be undertaken at a later date, perhaps this year.

Major emphasis of the personnel study logically will focus on the teaching personnel, but its scope encompasses all other classifications, including administrative and custodial staffs.

A corollary activity will be study of financial requirements.

Study group 1 will look into current conditions such as basic salary and economic benefits and will make comparisons with other districts; Study Group 2 will try to determine needs, and group 3 will work with financial aspects.

• • •

At commencement exercises tomorrow morning at 10, Dr. Clifford E. Erickson will be guest speaker. Dr. Dwight D. Ireland, superintendent of Birmingham schools, will present diplomas to the 356 seniors in the auditorium ceremonies. Dr. Erickson became dean of Michigan State University's college of education in 1953, after having the deanship of its Basic College for several years.

He took his training at Illinois State Teachers College and Northwestern University, and held posts at Northwestern on the guidance and education staffs. He has written or co-authored eleven books.

Promises Study of Water Offer

Port Huron Proposal to Supply Region Eyed by City Officials

Commenting on yesterday's offer by Port Huron to supply 30 to 40 million gallons of water a day to Wayne, Oakland and Macomb County communities, Pontiac City Manager Walter K. Willman said the proposal "will have to be considered."

This summer, Willman said, Pontiac will reach a peak consumption of "25 or 26 million gallons a day."

He said any use of Port Huron's facilities by area communities would mean "we'd have to go up there and pipe it down here." The major advantage, he said, would be use of an established intake and pumping system at the source of the new water supply.

"Of course, we'd have to install booster pumps along the pipeline to keep the pressure up," he added.

• • •

Willman explained the Port Huron intake system already is adequate to handle the additional water. The pumping system, he said, might have to be re-arranged and expanded, "but that's purely a mechanical job."

Area officials generally are waiting for a report from the recently formed Southeastern Michigan Water Authority before taking definite action toward solving individual water problems.

Holly Passengers Hurt in Two-Car Smashup

Juanita F. Gonzales, 49, of Holly, is in good condition at Pontiac General Hospital after suffering four fractured ribs and a possible chest injury in a two-car accident early last night.

Guadalupe G. Alvarado, 50, of Holly, was treated and released at the hospital for possible rib fractures. Both were passengers in a car operated by Francisco Alvarado, 31, of Holly. The other vehicle was driven by Wallace L. Cooley, 29, of Holly.

Reports Gasoline Theft

Fifty gallons of gasoline was stolen from an outside tank at a Holly Township farm early Tuesday morning, the Oakland County Sheriff's Department said today.

The larceny took place at the Lester Helmbaldt farm at 1055 Kurtz road.

Sexton Pleads Guilty to Charge of Assault

Ex-Pontiac patrolman James B. Sexton, 30, yesterday pleaded guilty to felonious assault in the Jan. 27 shooting of two companions after an off-duty drinking spree.

Sexton, of 686 E. Tennyson Ave., will be sentenced by Oakland County Circuit Judge George B. Hartrick June 25. His bond of $1,000 was continued.

Originally charged with assault with intent to murder, Sexton pleaded to the reduced charge after Pontiac Municipal Judge Maurice E. Finnegan ruled no specific intent to murder was shown in the pre-trial examination and dropped the words from the charge.

Sexton admitted shooting James B. Stephens, 30, of Oxford, and Archie McCowan, 28, of 180 Norton St., with his service revolver. Both recovered.

Pair Makes Restitution After Passing Bad Check

Two Waterford Township men made restitution for a $180 false check and paid $15 in court costs when arraigned on an uttering and publishing charge yesterday. The case was dismissed following payment.

John Manning, of 5908 Jerose St., and Clarence Ayohe, of 1400 Sugdon Rd., appeared before Justice Emmett J. Leib of Springfield Township. The check had been passed at a city store.

After Two-Year Service, Milford Dentist Returns

The village of Milford has one of its dentists back today, one that residents fought hard to keep two years ago.

Commander Robert J. Lawrence has been released from active duty, after serving two years at Great Lakes Naval Training Center and with a touring dentistry program.

In June, 1954, residents of Milford set up a howl when Lawrence, the father of five children, was called to active duty in the Navy. Besides the large number of dependents, he had been a victim of a bone disease, which, after numerous operations, had left one leg shorter than the other.

An additional factor was that Dr. Lawrence was one of three active dentists in the large Milford area, and was needed by the community, it was felt.

To many, it did not make sense that a handicapped man who was forced to work from a stool was that vital to the armed service.

Appeals to senators and congressmen and the selection service commission were fruitless, however.

For much of the two years, Dr. Lawrence headed a "dentist's office on wheels," a converted semi-trailer fitted out as a dentist's office. It brought dental service to Navy men at isolated stations and posts.

However, Milford will have to get along without his services for a couple more weeks. Dr. and Mrs. Lawrence left for a vacation in Colorado, and a rest.

For $2, Noisy Willie Can Be Persistent

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (INS)—Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cohen were awakened one midnight by a noise at the door of their dry cleaning shop.

Cohen looked out and saw a man trying to open the door. Cohen called police. Officers arrested the late visitor and Cohen went back to bed without confronting him.

* * *

Half an hour later, came a telephone call from the police station. It was Willie Bradley who said he was just trying to return $2 he had borrowed from Cohen.

Cohen explained the loan had taken place and the prisoner was released.

Magazine Official Dies in Gotham Hotel at 57

NEW YORK (INS) — Richard M. Bennett, manager of the western offices of the American Weekly, died yesterday of a heart attack in his New York hotel room at the age of 57.

Bennett, who formerly was advertising manager for Kimberly-Clark's cellucotton division, had been in charge of American Weekly sales operations in Chicago, Cleveland, St. Louis and Minneapolis since April 15.

Mother of Three at 40 Becomes Singing Star

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—You middle-aged gals will love this.

A mother of three who's forty and forgets to take her glasses off has become a sensational singing hit at the great glamourama, the Copacabana.

Roberta Sherwood—who has a sick husband down in Miami—you've seen her on TV's "Stage Show"—made an opening night audience of Kim Novak and such folks stand up and applaude.

"I thank you and if my children were here they'd thank you," she said.

"I've been playing the tank towns for 30 years, but the closest I ever got to the Big City before was Elizabeth, N. J."

"More!" they screamed.

"I got ham in me and don't want to stop but you can get too much of my kind of singin'," she warned. She stroked a bent and battered old cymbal as she made remarkable rhythm with her left foot.

ROBERTA SHERWOOD

I followed her to her room.

"I got to get these tight shoes off," she said. She phoned husband Don Lanning, ex-actor and bandleader in Miami, to give him a report.

Why hadn't she made Broadway before?

"I never could come in and wait on something to happen . . . I had to keep working." She was born in St. Louis, daughter of Bob Sherwood, theater and circus guy. "I was hanging by my teeth at 12.

"I trouped . . . and one time I did sit here for four days, but I couldn't stick it out. That was, oh boy, 22 years ago!

"Then the kids were comin' on—and I played bass fiddle to keep workin'. It covered me up pretty well. And you can sing like a lark because you're happy."

- At my age you can't belt all the time, so I got some restin' songs," she said. "Somebody was telling me today about singers gettin' polyps. What's them? I'll never get any. That's my opinion, but I'm from the sticks."

"Poor girl," said an agent. "You had to hit New York as a star."

Connelly, Caudle Wait Jury Decision

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Closing arguments were completed in the trial of two former Truman administration officials accused of sidetracking prosecution of a tax dodger and the case was to go to the jury today.

The jury of eight men and four women will start deliberating after instructions from Federal District Judge Rubey M. Hulen.

* * *

Attorneys for Matthew J. Connelly and T. Lamar Caudle told them yesterday they should acquit the defendants. They said the prosecution had failed to prove they conspired to defraud the government.

* * *

Connelly, White House appointments secretary under former President Truman, and Caudle, who headed the Justice Department's Tax Division, are charged with fixing the income tax case of Irving Sachs, St. Louis Shoe manufacturer.

John J. Hooker of Nashville, Tenn., a defense attorney, told the jury "the overwhelming weight of the evidence points to Caudle's innocence."

Thief Given Sentence

James Ambrose, 18, of Detroit, who pleaded guilty June 4 to stealing $68 from a Royal Oak service station, was sentenced yesterday to three years' probation and payment of $100 court costs by Oakland County Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty.

Eisenhower, Dulles United in Opinions Despite 'Dual-Purpose' Talk on Neutrals

By J. M. ROBERTS

Associated Press News Analyst

People can hardly be blamed this week if they feel about America's policy toward the neutral nations something like the man who found himself on a train after a brief spell of amnesia.

He didn't know where he was going or what he was going to do when he got there.

* * *

President Eisenhower made a statement last week that sounded like he felt some sympathy and understanding for nations which wish to remain neutral under present world conditions. He said the United States used to feel that way when it was younger.

Next day the White House "amplified." The President didn't mean to say that a nation could find a better way than to be allied with the United States.

That night Vice President Nixon said the neutrals couldn't be bought, they had to be converted.

ALLIES DISTURBED

Several of America's allies were disturbed by what the President said. Was he actually saying that by joining America and American-sponsored alliances, they were sticking their necks out?

Several of the neutrals were disturbed by the Dulles reference to immorality. Was it official that the United States considered everyone who wasn't formally lined up with her to be against her? The President had seemed to be talking against that very attitude.

* * *

Eisenhower and Dulles have run before into this difficulty of saying, or seeming to say, contradictory things. It usually stems not from actual disagreement, but from the fact that they are addressing themselves to different factors simultaneously.

The President doesn't want the neutrals to get the idea that the United States considers them outcasts.

Dulles doesn't want them to get the idea they can always play both ends against the middle, as Tito is doing.

The President was plugging the forthcoming Dulles speech. Dulles was plugging foreign aid but reminding both the foreigners and Congress that America expected certain qualifications to be met.

* * *

Both were talking about a policy which hasn't yet jelled.

Russia is following America's original example in adopting politico-economic warfare, and doing so at a time when the United States was beginning to slow it down. It's caused confusion, like trying to get a car into forward gear while moving backward.

Nighttime Breakin Draws Probation Term

Douglas W. Whitt, 20, of 515 Second Ave., was sentenced to three years' probation and payment of $100 in court costs yesterday for the nighttime breakin May 11 of a Pontiac tavern.

Whitt pleaded guilty to the breakin May 16 before Oakland County Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty.

Best Way to Kill Roaches and Ants

Best Way to Kill Roaches and Ants

COCKROACHES and ants are the most difficult household pests to control. Now you can kill these pests with Johnston's Super No-Roach.

No-Roach is a white viscous substance which you apply with a brush. Within minutes it dries to form a colorless, odorless contact insecticide, that stays effective for months.

Cockroaches

Apply No-Roach to cupboard walls, baseboards, near sink and cabinets, on pipes, and wherever you see cockroaches.

Ants

Brush No-Roach around table legs and counter tops, across window sills and door sills, and across ant trails. Ants will not cross the coating. Pour a few drops into ant hills.

No-Roach is also effective against resistant roaches, spiders, silverfish, waterbugs, bed bugs and other crawling insects.

Common Sense Way

Remember, when you use Johnston's Super No-Roach, you don't have to move dishes, pots and pans, or breathe harmful vapors, as you must with contaminating sprays. Apply No-Roach just where you want it, the invisible coating stays effective for months.

Canadian Heroes to Attend Fete

England Honors Victoria Cross Winners

MONTREAL (INS) — The Advance Guard of a group of Canadian heroes of two wars sails from Montreal tomorrow for the centennial celebration in London of the founding of the Victoria Cross, Britain's highest award for military valor.

Thirty-six Canadian holders of the honor — from private to a major-general—will be guests of honor at the ceremonies opening June 25.

Accompanying them, with expenses paid by the Dominion government, are one relative for each living or deceased Canadi- VC holder, and two for each Canadian who received the an VC holder, and two for each award posthumously.

The Canadian contingent, including two VC holders now living in the U.S. and one in Denmark, is the largest from any British Dominion. The advance guard sails aboard the liner Homeric; the others will fly the Atlantic later.

MPS IN GROUP

Two members of parliament, Labor Minister Milton F. Gregg, and Maj. Gen. G. R. Pearkes, of the oppoition Conservative Party, are in the group.

The celebrations mark the 100th anniversary of the institution of the award by Queen Victoria after the Crimean War.

On June 25 the centennial will be opened by a service in Westminster Abbey. Next day Queen Elizabeth will review the medal holders in Hyde Park, and Queen Mother Elizabeth will receive them at a garden party at Marlborough House.

GREGG'S HEROISM

Labor Minister Gregg, for instance, at Cambrai, France, in September, 1918, led an infantry platoon through a barbed-wire gap and captured an enemy trench. Wounded, he crawled back for more ammunition, then regrouped his dwindling force, and routed a counter-attack. He personally killed or wounded 11 Germans, and took 25 prisoners and 12 machine guns. He was wounded three times in the engagement.

• • •

The last substantial gathering of VC's was at the coronation of Queen Elizabeth three years ago this month. Previously, 22 Canadian winners were guests at a dinner given in London in 1929 by the then Prince of Wales, later King Edward VIII and now Duke of Windsor.

Seeking Way to Safeguard State's Commercial Fishing

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Michigan's failing commercial fishing industry, once one of the most lucrative in fresh water areas, has hopes of solving its problems.

Now, the fishermen say, we are hemmed in by restrictions, by sportsmen and by lack of legislative interest.

• • •

Bay Port, once called by fishermen the largest fresh water fishing port in the world, now has less than 25 commercial fishing vessels at work.

The same situation prevails all along other Saginaw Bay ports. Only one boat operates out of Caseville. Tawas no longer has try at Bay City is all but at a standstill.

This was the report of an article in a recent Michigan Journalist, laboratory newspaper of the University of Michigan's journalism department.

CATCH 'RULED OUT'

The story, jointly bylined by students Patrick J. Kelley, Ralph R. Watts Jr. and Gene Labelle, said fishermen were complaining that state rules tell them when, where and how to catch fish.

There has been some hope, however. Fishermen say that last year's meetings between the Fish and Wildlife Service, Conservation Department and a governor's committee were valuable.

It was generally agreed at these meetings that the state should reestablish its hatcheries for yellow pickerel, white fish and lake trout. The hatcheries were closed in 1943.

• • •

Henry Englehard, an official of the Bay Port Fish Co., said his firm used to send out 12 boats, now uses only four. Fishermen were sold down the river, he said, when the hatcheries were closed.

LAWS UNFAIR

Furthermore, he said, "Our laws compared to neighboring states are very unfair."

In Lake Erie, he said, both Ohio and Michigan fishermen can begin catching all kinds of fish on March 15. But elsewhere in Michigan, he said, there are various closed seasons on different species of fish and there are stricter measurement restrictions.

It used to be, fishermen say, that commercial catches amounted to 90 per cent of Michigan's total. Now, they say, it is only 10 per cent.

Englehard argues, "We're not in this business for sport; we're in it as a full time business. The point we'd like to get across to the public is that any fish they want to enjoy can be made available for them by everyone working together toward improving both commercial and sports fishing."

Kaiser Cables Offer to British Magnate

LONDON (INS) — Sir Bernard Docker, fired ten days ago as chairman of the huge British small arms industrial group, has received a name-your-own-salary cable signed "Henry J. Kaiser."

The cable said Kaiser needed the millionaire British industrialist to "revamp my auto interests. Name your own salary and expenses. No deal without the lady. Letter follows."

The "lady" in question is Docker's flamboyant wife, Lady Norah Docker.

Asked if he thought the cable was genuine, Docker told a newsman, "Your guess is as good as mine."

He said he would give it no consideration pending arrival of the letter.

Kaiser is in Hawaii.

ANN ARBOR (INS)—Ann Arbor police today were investigating the possibility that a University of Michigan student from Brooklyn, N.Y., may have committed suicide because of a broken romance.

• • •

William Brann, 24, of Brooklyn, N.Y., was found dead last night in his room at a campus cooperative house. Authorities said he apparently had shot himself through the head with a .375 Magnum rifle while standing in a shower stall.

Friends told police that Brann skipped his final examinatons last week because of a broken romance with an unidentified Korean co-ed.

Calls for Original Ads

DETROIT (AP)—Criticizing "stereotype" ads, Barrett Brady, a New York advertising executive, called for originality in advertising in a speech Tuesday night before the Michigan Council of the American Assn. of Advertising Executives. He said there are "great ads in your future if you have the boldness to challenge worn - out rules and find out whether they still apply to today's people."

Plant Opening Slated

MIDLAND (AP) — Continental Can Co. will stage a two-day "grand opening" of its new Midland plant June 21-22. The event will feature an open house. Continental Can officials who come here for the opening also will tour the Dow Chemical Co. plant and be guests at a dinner and luncheon given by Dow Chamical and Dow Corning Corp.

Attorney General Rules on Appeal Case Fines

LANSING (AP) — Atty. Gen. Kavanagh has held that fines assessed and collected by a circuit court belong to a city when the case involves an appeal from a municipal court conviction for violation of a city ordinance.

The costs are to be apportioned between the city and county in proportion to prosecution expense incurred by each. Kavanagh advised Joseph L. Bauer, prosecuting attorney at Charlotte, in response to Bauer's inquiry.

To Draw Lots for Job

MIDLAND (AP) — Floyd E. Wetmore, Midland attorney, and Mrs. Raymond Duddleston, a housewife, will draw lots Thursday night for a seat on the city school board. The two tied in a special school board election Monday, each collecting 354 votes. Incumbent Charles A. Fink was elected to a fourth term.

President Adds to Plaudits

Washington Admen Laud Work of Jim Hagerty

WASHINGTON (INS)—President Eisenhower expressed today "enthusiastic admiration" for his news secretary, James C. Hagerty.

Hagerty, who twice in the past year has shouldered the task of keeping the nation fully informed on the President's sudden illness and dramatic recovery, was hailed by his chief for "mastery of his field and constant devotion to the public interest."

The President's tribute was read by Maj. Gen. Wilton B. Persons, a top White House aide, to the Advertising Club of Washington, which bestowed its achievement award upon Hagerty.

Eisenhower wrote: "I am of course delighted that on June 12 the Advertising Club will honor Jim Hagerty. I welcome the evidence that the members of the club share my enthusiastic admiration of him for his mastery of his field and his constant devotion to the public interest."

SHOWS NO STRAIN

Hagerty, showing little evidence of the strain to which he had been subjected since the President was stricken last Friday, added sparkle to his acceptance speech with a droll story giving a light touch to the drama at Walter Reed Hospital.

The news secretary, a New Yorker, related he has a constant bet on with Treasury Secretary George M. Humphrey, a Clevelander, on the results of New York Yankees-Cleveland Indians ball games.

He said the first words Humphrey spoke to him at Walter Reed last Saturday, after the President's successful operation, were, "you owe me a dollar." The Indians had blanked the Yanks the night before, 9-0.

Hagerty remarked ruefully: "And I paid him."

The news secretary, who has been feeding avid reporters thrice-daily medical bulletins on the President's condition, read a "bulletin" on his own condition. It went this way:

"Your patient is fairly satisfactory; temperature normal—almost; blood pressure, 320/160; pulse isn't; respiration, about 80. He had slightly swollen head but will return to normal as soon as he returns to his work. Doctors recommend he gets back to Walter Reed as soon as he can."

STREAMLINED UTILITY CAR — Designer Gilbert D'Andrea of New York City models his low-slung creation, a three-wheel, 400-pound auto less than three feet wide. Designed as a utility runabout, it has package room on rear deck. It's fashioned of molded glass fiber over a frame of heavy tubular steel.

OK New Form on Assessments

4-3 Commission Vote Passes Formula After Earlier Deadlock

By a 4-3 vote last night, the City Commission established a new assessment formula for water mains and sewers for side lots in the city.

• • •

Due to the absence of Mayor William W. Donaldson, who was on vacation, a vote last week on the proposal ended in a 3-3 deadlock.

Donaldson cast an affirmative vote last evening with Commissioners John Carry, Dr. Roy Cooley, and Philip Rowston to carry the proposal.

Commissioners John Dugan, Floyd Miles, and Gilbert Long cast "no" votes as they did last week. Both Dugan and Miles have repeatedly voiced opposition to any added assessment because a person owns a side lot.

Under the new formala, 25 per cent of the first 150 feet of side lots will be assessed for installation of mains and sewers. The city will pay the remaining 75 per cent of the cost.

The old formula placed 60 per cent on the owner and 40 per cent to the city.

Congress Hears Report on Soviet Bomber Output

WASHINGTON (INS) — Defense leaders have reportedly informed Congress that Russia has 800 long-range bombers compared with America's 47 B-52s.

This was disclosed today by Rep. Daniel J. Flood (D-Pa.) a member of the House Appropriations subcommittee on defense.

The Pennsylvanian said in an interview that his subcommittee has been advised (1) That in two years the Soviet Union "will have 1,000 more long-range bombers than we will have" and (2) "The Russians are now outproducing us 2 to 1 per month."

Flood declared: "The Russians are a year ahead of us in their production of heavy bombers." He said the Soviets decided two years ago to begin mass production of their B52-type plane known as the Bison, while the U. S. reached a similar decision only a year ago.

LeMAY ALSO TESTIFIES

Gen. Curtis LeMay, head of the Strategic Air Command, testified last month that 78 B52s, each costing eight million dollars, had been built, and 47 had been accepted by the Air Force. Present U. S. plans reportedly call for the building of 500 B52s.

Both the B52 and the Bison have the capacity to carry nuclear weapons on round-trip flights between the two countries.

The Bison is a jet bomber on the order of the B52. The Russians also have another long-range threat — the Bear — a slower turboprop bomber which uses jet power to turn propellers.

Flood also said his committee has been advised that Russia has perfected a 1500-mile intermediate ballistics missile with a fixed mechanism directed at U. S. bases around the Soviet perimeter.

U. S. VULNERABLE

He said: "They're zeroed in. Their mechanisms are fixed so that when they are launched they will head straight for designated American air bases in North Africa, Saudi Arabia, and other places. They're way ahead of us on this type of weapon."

Flood contended the Soviet long-range bombers "don't have fancy do-dads and don't have built-in safety devices like ours." But, he added, "they can make the round trip with bombs and that's the thing that's important."

The congressman added that two years ago Russia had no all-weather and night interceptors. He said: "We had many of the best in the world. We could have sent our bombers in at night or during bad weather and the Russians would have had no protection other than anti-aircraft. Now they have plenty of both and they're good."

UM Helps Develop New Weapon System

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Researchers at the University of Michigan are helping to develop "one of this country's most advanced weapon systems," the Air Force stated.

Joining in the high priority project are two other universities, a group of industrial organizations and the Air Force Air Research and Development Command.

Dr. Richard G. Folsom, director of the university's engineering institute, said the work is being carried out at the Willow Run laboratories. Keeve M. Siegel, an authority on electromagnetic wave theory, is directing the research.

Dr. Folsom said the nature of the work could not be disclosed. The research, however, is not a part of Project Michigan, the institute's multi-million dollar study of battle area surveillance methods for the signal corps.

Dr. Folsom said the institute during 1954-55 conducted 409 research projects valued at $8,609,000.

More Voters Sought

DETROIT (AP) — Wayne County election officials will conduct a three-day registration drive Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Officials said they expect a 15 per cent increase in the county's 1,175,000 registered voters. They estimated Detroit alone has a least 20,000 qualified electors who have not registered to vote.

U.S. Spending Money—$787,600,135 for Year

LANSING (AP) — A tally by the State Department of Administration shows that the 1956 regular legislative session appropriated a total of $787,600,135 out of operating funds for spending in 1956-57.

Of the total, $329,602,582 was from general revenues, the department reported.

The department said its totals do not include numerous permanent or continuing legislative authorizations to spend from earmarked or restricted accounts an extra 200 million dollars annually.

College Campus Fire Razes Two Buildings

MORGANTOWN, W. Va. (INS)—Fire destroyed a four-story brick building on the West Virginia University campus early today and raged uncontrolled through an adjoining armory.

A university spokesman in Morgantown said only the first floor walls were standing in Mechanical Hall. Firemen from surrounding communities were fighting to protect the campus.

A strong wind, started at 5 a.m., further complicates the tense situation. Firefighters said the water has had little effect. The armory houses laboratories and machinery. Some light ammunition also is believed stored there for ROTC use.

Men's hall, a dormitory near the blazing building, was being doused with water to prevent further damage.

British Antarctic Base Threatened by Penguins

LONDON (INS) — Another trouble spot in the revolt-ridden British empire was reported today — penguins are threatening a British base in the Antarctic.

A dispatch received by the admiralty says thousands of penguins have gathered on the outskirts of a geophysics base near Dehalley Bay and are threatening to overrun it.

Old Glory's Birthday

Tomorrow, June 14, is Old Glory's 179th birthday and this Nation of 165,000,000 should unite in honoring our national emblem.

Perhaps it is because the day is one of our newest official anniversaries that it is observed more in forgetfulness to display the Flag than as intended by Congress. It was not until August 3, 1949, that the lawmakers officially proclaimed June 14 to be Flag Day. Actually Old Glory dates back to the earliest days of the Republic.

★ ★ ★

It was on June 14, 1777, that Congress approved a design whose origin is a matter of historical doubt. Some sources say GEORGE WASHINGTON, BENJAMIN FRANKLIN, ROBERT MORRIS and GEORGE ROSS had a hand in it. Others give credit to FRANCIS HOPKINSON, who was the designer of some of our earliest coinage.

★ ★ ★

Certainly we owe it to ourselves and to the Flag to show tomorrow that we appreciate the rights and privileges it symbolizes. Let's show the world by displaying the Stars and Stripes our belief that wherever it flies Liberty and Justice prevail.

Senate Should Ratify Regional Radio Treaty

Since 1951 a proposed North American Regional Broadcasting Agreement (NARBA) has been languishing in the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

The treaty is important to our radio relations with Canada and Latin American countries. To prevent anarchy in the ether, broadcasting stations in the United States must operate on frequencies assigned by the Federal Communications Commission.

Obviously, similar conditions should govern, through bilateral agreements, broadcasting between the United States and nearby countries. For example, the service of some Southern and East Coast radio stations is being destroyed by interference from Cuban stations. Even weak stations on the islands cause interference hundreds of miles away.

It is true that this NARBA doesn't satisfy all broadcasters. Nonetheless in many of its features it is more favorable to the United States than any previous agreement. Actually only 15 of the more than 2,500 AM stations in this country find fault with it.

★ ★ ★

At present the United States has no radio agreement with Mexico and negotiations have been started to remedy that condition. Agreement with other countries through NARBA, of course, would strengthen our Government's hand in this matter.

FCC Chairman MCCONNAUGHEY is right in urging the Senate to ratify NARBA before adjournment.

France and Germany Reach Accord on Saar

The free world has good reason for gratification over the Saar agreement reached by French Premier MOLLETT and German Chancellor ADENAUER.

This agreement still must be embodied in a treaty requiring parliamentary approval of both countries. It is reported, however, that the terms are so carefully drawn and detailed that little difficulty is anticipated.

Actually, there is a widely held feeling that the terms agreed upon will have the effect of eliminating the explosive Saar issue as a source of Franco-German friction. At the same time it is felt that new impetus will be given the European unification movement.

France agrees that this tiny coal-rich area again shall revert to Germany by the end of this year. In this matter the French have acceded as they did in 1935, to the expressed wishes of the Saarlanders.

In recognition of its reparations obligation Germany has agreed to provide France with fixed amounts of coal to help build an international canal joining the Rhine and Moselle Rivers.

Purpose of the waterway is to give France cheaper transportation of its own steel and Germany's coal and coke. Also provided for is a three year transition period to allow for orderly termination of the present customs and monetary union between the Saar and France.

★ ★ ★

The agreements stands out because upon it depended French consent to German rearmament. Moreover, German concessions in it were made against the opposition of that country's industrialists. Both Premier MOLLETT and Chancellor ADENAUER deserve credit for the statesmanship they displayed in negotiating the accord.

The Man About Town

Worth of a Smile

A Precious Possession, but Should Be Passed Around

Stupe: Anybody who doesn't vote, but kicks on who's elected.

Those good residents of Pontiac, Oxford and Fort Ogden, Fla.,

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Taylor, who do a lot of smiling themselves, send me a card on which speaks volumes. It says: "A smile costs nothing but creates much. It enriches those who receive it without impoverishing those who give it. It happens in the flash of a memory, sometimes lasting forever. It is blessed to the weary, delight to the discouraged, sunshine to the sad, nature's vast antidote for trouble. It cannot be bought, begged, borrowed or stolen, for it is something that is no earthly good to anyone unless it is given. If in the hurry of life you meet someone who is too weary to give you a smile, leave one of yours, for there is no one who needs a smile so much as the one who has none to give."

"The Value of Your Smile,"

A parakeet in the home of

Mr. and Mrs. Burridge Burman of Auburn Heights can say "Ike Eisenhower" in perfect form, but stumbles on "Adlai Stevenson" or "Estes Kefauver." The bird quite evidently is a rugged individualist, as the Burmans are Democrats.

From that authority on such matters,

"Petroleum Week."

I learn that by 1959 most automobiles will have joints that need no lubrication. Slippery fabric-lined sockets will be standard equipment.

Oakland County's dean of newspapermen,

A pressure cooker blew up in his home at Oxford, and he escaped with some bad burns. Hank also is a crack shot with a rifle, but should quit monkeying with such dangerous things as pressure cookers and atom bombs.

The Act's Smash Finish

David Lawrence Says:

National Safety of U. S. Barely Protected by Mere 5-4 Ruling of Supreme Court

WASHINGTON—It is rare indeed to find justices of the Supreme Court in their formal opinions giving incomplete quotations from the remarks of the President in order to support a rationalization of their own.

But that's what Justices Frankfurter and Douglas regrettably did in seeking to cite the President's speech of November 23, 1953, as an argument against the use of confidential information by government officials when they deal with security matters and refuse to disclose such data to the person accused.

The case itself was decided against that point of view by the Supreme Court this week with a 5-4 vote. Justices Harlan, Burton, Clark, Reed and Minton constituted the majority. They ruled that, when the attorney general was refusing to suspend the deportation of an alien who had admittedly been a member of the Communist party, this was a discretionary right granted by Congress. The majority said that, while there was a full hearing given, still it does not follow that a right exists to sit in on the making of "the ultimate decision—the exercise of discretion."

ACTION REJECTED

This was the action by the attorney general in reviewing a lower board's judgment and in declining to suspend the deportation which had been ordered. The majority of the Supreme Court held that confidential information could influence the attorney general's final decision after the hearing and that there was no obligation on his part to disclose such information to the accused.

* * *

President Eisenhower had been asked at the press conference whether what he said in his speech could be applied to proceedings in the executive branch of the government, as, for instance, in security cases. The authorized quotation of the President's reply was printed in the press of December 3 as follows:

"Well, the one point I must make clear, employment in the federal government is not a right of citizenship, it is a privilege; and if there is real justifiable belief and conviction that a person is a risk, you certainly cannot keep them in a delicate position, and in certain instances probably couldn't keep them at all.

"In other words, when you are looking into the fitness of an individual to work for the federal government, it is not the same as assassinating a man's character or charging him openly with being a spy. So, one thing I have insisted upon—that there be no effort in this security program to assassinate anybody's character, and to damn him forever as a spy or anything of that kind.

DIFFERENCE CONTENDED

"But I do believe that there is some difference between determining whether or not a man should work for the federal government and charging any one of us here with a heinous crime of any kind."

This distinction — between the prosecution of a crime in the courts and the conduct of an administrative proceeding inside the executive branch of the government—was clear from a reading of the President's first comments before the Anti-Defamation League. For he was denouncing the theory that, through anonymous accusers, anyone could be "suddenly thrown into jail to rot there without charges and with no recourse to justice."

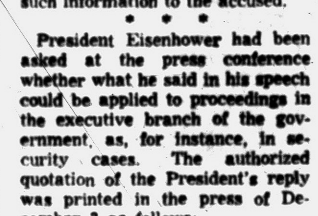

The President had plainly indicated in his public speech that he had court proceedings in mind, for he added a reference to court procedure: "We have the Habeas Corpus Act, and we respect it."

Chief Justice Warren didn't quote either of Eisenhower's statements but held that "any hearing" in the administrative or judicial process which denies relief to an accused on the basis of "confidential information" is "no hearing."

The Chief Justice is not impressed—nor is Justice Black—with the fact that in a "cold war" and in times of international danger, the law-enforcement branch of the government has to gather vital information from all kinds of sources and that the high officials of the executive branches must be trusted to use every effort to determine conscientiously whether the information is mere gossip or really damaging.

Often undercover agents who sit in on Communist meetings cannot be publicly revealed lest their future usefulness be impaired. The Communist underground is anxious to drive all FBI informants into the open and, if the view of the Supreme Court justices who would bar "confidential information" were to prevail, it would aid the Communist strategy. The 5-to-4 decision helps the FBI and the President to protect the national safety.

Today's American Youth Lacks Muscular Fitness

By WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

According to a piece in Newsweek, Sept. 26, '55, 16,707,000 men from 18 to 25 years old were registered for the draft; and between June '48 and June, '55, 4,321,000 of them were called for pre-induction physical examinations.

More than half of the men examined were rejected on physical and mental grounds.

Well, I wasn't happy over missing three days of bowling lately because of wet greens—when I pulled the old magazine out of one of the crates where I file stuff like that. Ah-ha, I thought, maybe I can take it out on the youth of today.

The piece further told how 50 per cent of American children 6 to 16 years of age failed to pass the muscular fitness tests called Krauss-Weber tests, and only 10 per cent of European children aged 6 to 16 failed to pass the tests.

When I was a boy on Chapel Street in Canandaigua every kid on the street could chin himself at least once, some half a dozen times. Thomas McDonough, physical education director at Emory University says, "We've found so few boys can chin now that we've discontinued the test."

How come we could chin, turn cartwheels, handsprings and flips? Was physical education so good in Canandaigua schools? Don't be facetious.

We took phys. ed. after school, Saturdays and in vacation time, stumping each other on our way to and from school—for instance Charlie Bradburn had us all stumped for a season when he turned airsprings (flips, somersaults) on the lawn of the Gregg mansion, right across from where the Academy now stands on North Main street. But before another season I had learned to follow Charlie's lead — and nowadays sometimes when I go tearing out to chastise the school children who commit such misdemeanors as cutting the corner or pluckling a pansy or something as they go by, I recall what I did to the lawns and gardens of Main Street people, and I stop in my tracks.

Every schoolboy or schoolgirl nowadays knows what physical education is. Without committing themselves too far, teachers of mathematics, history, language, science, etc., too often manage to implant in the minds of their pupils the idea that it is a regrettable waste of time. And so the youngsters employ every stratagem to get "excused" from gym and physical training.

"They still have leg muscles," says the Emory University man, (but) "muscles in the shoulder girdle and in the arms have almost disappeared."

Cadets with the lowest physical fitness are most likely to resign from West Point before completing the four-year term. The mollycoddles can't take it.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Readers Speak Pro, Con About Men's Bermudas

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

In answer to Respectable Lady's opinion on men wearing Bermuda shorts, what's the difference in a man wearing shorts on the street or a person who calls herself a lady wearing shorts and above the waist nothing but nearly bare skin, or perhaps just a halter?

Another Respectable Lady

To the woman who was griping about men wearing Bermuda shorts and showing their legs, when women and girls dress so there is nothing covered up.

I think one is decent as the other. I'll take the man with Bermuda shorts; he is partly covered. And I call myself a lady.

Gertrude L. Johnson

Walled Lake

With admiration and respect I address Respectable Lady through this column.

I surely agree with you 100 per cent. But let's look at it this way. Young girls from 16 to 30 or more go downtown in shorts, younger girls in shorts only.

Now it must be older women who allow these girls to leave home dressed this way. Why? Well, it may be too warm or they want a suntan. Now most women want to be equal to men. Why, then, deny them the same privilege of being comfortable? You still feel the same way?

Then get behind your clubs, homes and churches. They run our lives and should be able to correct this, too.

Respectable but Fair

I was thoroughly disgusted when I read about that woman who wrote about men's Bermudas. I think it's nice that they can be very cool and comfortable. But I think it's really a disgrace that women are allowed to go downtown wearing shorts and halters that just barely cover them.

There should be a law against that. I know. I work in a store downtown shopping center and I see a lot of women come in and it's just awful the way they come down here looking.

It just makes my blood boil. I think Respectable Lady is far in the wrong. I'm all for men wearing Bermudas, but please pass a law so women can't wear such short shorts and such skimpy halters.

Youthful Ruler of Jordan Faces Growing Troubles

By JOHN H. MARTIN
INS Foreign Director

* * *

Maj. Gen. Radi Innab recently resigned suddenly. He had succeeded British Brig. Gen. Sir John Bagot Glubb, whose ouster as Arab Legion commander shocked Britain.

Hussein named Lt. Col. Ali Abu Newar a major general and put him in Innab's place. This young officer, who is still in his 30s, was one of the prime movers in securing the dismissal of Glubb.

He is also known to be an admirer of Egyptian Premier Col. Gamal Abdel Nasser, who is buying arms from the Communist bloc and who recently recognized Communist China.

* * *

Newar's promotion must be taken as a sign that the more extreme Arab Legion officers have gained the ascendancy in the struggle for power.

DISTURBING SIGNS

Whether this latest development will bring a threat to the position of the British-educated King remains to be seen, but the portents are disturbing.

* * *

If the King does not find himself thrust aside in favor of a military dictatorship on the Egyptian model, he may be driven into rash policies in the attempt to retain popular support.

Hussein must be fearful of Nasser's influence. There does not seem to be room for both him and Nasser as the champions of the Arab cause. This is because many of Hussein's subjects and a part of his army look to Egypt for orders rather than to the King.

Glubb drew attention to the "tragic position" in which British-financed Jordan was placed after he was dismissed. One-third of the population is formed of destitute refugees and there is an active enemy along Jordan's 400-mile frontier.

* * *

He also warned of the King's threatened position in a situation where the Egyptian revolutionary government is ideologically opposed to monarchy and would form an extremely unreliable ally for King Hussein.

Simultaneously another foe of Britain, King Saud of Saudi Arabia, is a hereditary enemy of Hussein for reasons of dynastic rivalry. Hussein therefore may need much help if his throne is to survive.

* * *

The turmoil inside Hussein's army, the Arab Legion, is such that there is the temptation among some officers to copy the revolution brought about by the junta in Egypt and to dispense with the King entirely.

Case Records of a Psychologist

Sexual Conflict Can Sometimes Cause Unusual Symptoms in Disturbed Victim

Hilda went berserk when she saw the devil standing at the foot of her bed. Drug therapy calmed her disturbed mental outlook. But the final cure came when the cause for her sexual conflict was eliminated. Send for the sex booklet mentioned below. It not only helps prevent divorce but also insanity.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case R-381: Hilda K., aged 29, is a pretty wife and mother of two small boys.

"Dr. Crane, she has been rather neurotic for some time," her husband informed me.

* * *

"But last week she woke up in the middle of the night and screamed that the devil was standing at the foot of her bed.

"So she ran outdoors and raced down the street in her nightie before I could stop her.

"Later, she wouldn't pay any attention to me or the doctor, so we sent her to the hospital. They gave her sedatives and the new drug called reserpine.

DRUGS VS. PSYCHOLOGY

Suppose a patient were sitting on a pin and suffering steady pain therefrom. We might give drugs to such a degree that the pain would not be evident.

But if the pin were still there and penetrating the skin, what would happen when the effect of the drugs finally wore off?

* * *

Well, the situation would be much like that of a person with headache due to astigmatism. An aspirin tablet may mask the headache for a few hours.

But the real cure must involve properly fitted eye glasses to relieve the astigmatism.

And so it is for the most part with shock treatment and other new, magical drugs. They can allay nervous tension and even temporarily erase memory of fearsome "devils."

But sooner or later the patient may confront those "devils" again when the effect of the drug has worn off.

So the proper treatment of cases

FACE YOUR DEVIL

Whatever secret terror or sexual complex you may have, it will produce devilish effects on your personality till you finally face that hidden dread and dissect it cold bloodedly under the light of logical analysis.

* * *

Such inner conflicts can't stand the spotlight of conscious analysis, so face your fear; name it and even try to date its onset.

That strategy will immediately relieve you to a large degree even before you do anything more to banish it permanently.

What do you regular readers of this column think was the "devil" that kept Hilda neurotic for months prior to her sudden attack of screaming at that horned monster who seemed to stand at the foot of her bed?

Well, it was a sexual conflict. Indeed, if there were no such thing as sex in this world, there would probably be little or no insanity.

"But how does the Devil enter into the picture?" you may inquire.

SATAN TEMPTED HILDA

Satan is linked with sin. Hilda had been sexually frustrated ever since her marriage because her husband didn't know the proper marital technique.

She felt restless and jittery. So she flirted with various ideas about satisfaction. But she regarded them as sinful; hence, as a product of the devil.

* * *

On this particular night she was so excessively tempted that she imagined the Devil was standing at her bed in person. She screamed against him and required drug therapy to regain calm rationality.

But the underlying treatment that finally banished her Devil permanently, came when her husband ordered the booklet "Sex Problems in Marriage."

Enclose a stamped, return envelope with 20 cents in coin for your copy. It helps banish divorce and even insanity.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Oregon Selects Dem Barmaid

Committeewoman Uses Glamor Picture to Win Political Office

PORTLAND, Ore. (INS)—Dismay is spreading through the Democratic Party leadership in Oregon because the voters chose a comely waitress with no political experience to be national committee—woman.

* * *

Nobody knew much about Mrs. Virginia Grant before the May 18 primary. To everybody's surprise, she defeated Mrs. Gladys Last, a tireless party worker who had campaigned over the state while Mrs. Grant just kept on carrying drinks at a Portland cocktail lounge.

After the election, a Portland newspaper photographer found Mrs. Grant carrying cocktails as usual. She was clad in the uniform of her establishment, a shapeless flowered dress which someone dubbed a "sarong," although from the armpits down it looks like a house dress.

* * *

ON GLAMOR PICTURE

One newsman spent 12 hours trying to find Mrs. Grant and ask how she likes her new office. He didn't get close.

Party leaders are privately unhappy that Mrs. Grant has done no political work, has no preparation for the post and was elected strictly on the basis of a glamor picture.

But they are most unhappy over the fact that she presumably will be influenced decisively by her husband, a perennial candidate who has run for something at almost every election and never been elected.

HUBBY LIKES OFFICE

At the May primary, he lost bids for two offices: delegate to the Democratic national convention and the nomination for county clerk.

How did Mrs. Grant get elected? She is 33, and looks younger, photogenic and not talkative. In her page in the state voters' pamphlet, she avoided issues and told nothing about herself.

Mrs. Last is 46 and used an ordinary portrait photograph of herself. Mrs. Grant entered a glamor shot.

* * *

In 130 words of explanation about herself, Mrs. Grant called attention to her comparative youth and called herself "an experienced member of civic and fraternal organizations and an active Democratic worker." She used the rest of her space to urge five times that voters "help build a greater Democratic Party in Oregon."

Quiz Masters Confounded by Danish Answer

NEW YORK (INS) — For a change, it's the folks who ask the questions on the "$64,000 Question program who are stumped today.

* * *

They've got an answer, but they don't know if it fits the question.

The problem arose when veteran sailor, explorer and whaler Peter Fruechen of Greenland was asked to name all the sails on a full-rigged, three-masted sailing ship.

He did—in his native Danish.

After the answer is translated into English, and provided it is correct, Freuchen will be invited to return to the program next week and try for $16,000. He has answered his other questions in English.

Air Force Capt. Thomas O'Rourke of Fairborn, Ohio, and his wife, Bobbye, took home $64,000 from the program last night after announcing they would settle for the $32,000 each had accumulated in the "Sherlock Holmes" question category.

* * *

The O'Rourkes, who were separate contestants, each turned down chances to try for an individual $64,000.

Official Blasts Security Setup

Members of Subversive Unit Says Ike Showed Concern Over Change

WASHINGTON (AP) — Harry P. Cain said today President Eisenhower showed "deep concern and interest" in Cain's proposals for overhauling the government loyalty-security program.

Cain, in further testimony prepared for a Senate Judiciary subcommittee on constitutional rights, charged that "Fascist" type abuses have marked the program to an extent where application for a federal job he said "becomes a terrifying and inhumane trap."

* * *

Resuming testimony he began yesterday, he said innocent men and women may be tabbed as security risks without ever learning why, or having a real chance to defend themselves.

Cain, a Republican and a former Washington state senator, has indicated he expectsto be dropped from his $15,000-a-year-job as a member of the Subversive Activities Control Board because of his outspoken criticism of the loyalty-security program.

RIPS PRACTICE

He denounced anew the practice of automatically suspending those against whom derogatory information is turned up. He said, "The wants this practice stopped." He said that before Congress adjourns it should pass a law abolishing the practice.

Eisenhower, he said, did not seem to know, until their face-to-face talk at the White House last Thursday, that under the present system a spy and a drunk are counted alike in the over-all tabulation of those fired as security risks.

"The President had thought that a clear distinction was being made between loyalty cases and security cases," he said.

Actually, he said, that was the case until Eisenhower's 1953 executive order setting up the program now in effect. He said this change made the program an which mixes loyalty, security and suitability indiscriminately" with some times "disastrous" results.

* * *

This, he said, has resulted in 3,600 employes being fired as security risks and 6,000 others who "resigned because, so it is reported, their files contained derogatory information." He termed those figures so misleading as to constitute an "unattractive numbers game" that he said could become a "racket" unless Congress intervenes.

YMCA Dormitory Committee Planning

Plans for the proposed addition to the Pontiac Y.M.C.A. were discussed at a meeting of the association's dormitory committee this week. A subcommittee is being named by Chairman John W. Cowe to study costs, determine the amount needed and campaign procedure.

No time has been set for the campaign. The new unit will adjoin the present building at Seneca and Mt. Clemens Streets on the east. It will include facilities for all adult activities, and 150 dormitory rooms. At the same time provision will be made for parking facilities on the property.

A site of two and a quarter acres is available and owned by the association. It has a frontage of 187 feet on Mt. Clemens street with a depth of 800 feet. Thus in addition to the parking and buildings, there will still be ample room for a baseball field.

Need for the new building has been apparent for some time, officials say. During a three month period in which a record was kept of the requests for rooms received at the Y.M.C.A. office, these ran from 75 to 92 a month. One group of college students from a western state, coming here to seek summer work, had to sleep in their car for three nights when they were unable to find rooms in Pontiac.

Recent transformation of the Pontiac Hotel into a hospital has left the city more short than ever of rooms for new arrivals and transient visitors.

* * *

Every city of Pontiac's size in Michigan has dormitory rooms available, and all new Y.M.C.A. buildings approved by the national association include dormitory rooms. Thus young men coming to Pontiac from other cities naturally head for the "Y" when they look for a room.

Not only do the rooms provide a real service to young people temporarily in the community. They also provide a source of financial income for the association. This income is tax exempt as the "Y" is a non-profit association, and income from rooms will help pay for other activities that bring in no income.

The new unit, in addition to the dormitory rooms, will provide facilities for all adult activities except the pool, which will continue to serve both adults and younger members.

The present building is so overcrowded that activities of the high school age group, for example, have been seriously curtailed. With the transfer of adult activities to the new unit, the adult area in the present building will be freed for youth activities. Then there will be much more room for the high school group.

* * *

The dormitory committee includes, in addition to Chairman Cowe, Walter K. Willman, Judge H. Russel Holland, Glenn Griffin, Conrad N. Church, Hazen Atkins, Norman Buckner, L. H. Cole, Milo McLintock, Philip J. Monaghan, Ralph T. Norvell, Gelston Poole, Ralph Cromis, Goodloe H. Rogers, Martin J. Rummel, Fred G. Haggard, Leslie Ware, Arthur Rosenthal and E. R. Pettingill.

LINDA HAS A TOOTHSOME FUTURE — There's a gleaming prospect behind the tiny dentures of Linda Dorin, 5, of South Fork, Pa., who exhibits her laboratory-made smile at right and the cause of it at left. Linda lost her baby teeth due to infection. The Johnstown, Pa., dentist who fashioned her miniature choppers will remove portions of them as Mother Nature completes Linda's permanent dental job. The envy of less fortunate adults, she "eats anything" according to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Dorin.

Hal Boyle Says:

Forced Thinking Could Prove Dangerous

• • •

Harrison Gouch, a University of California psychologist, says "think breaks" should be added to the daily or twice-daily coffee breaks now customary in many offices.

HIDDEN PERILS

"Workers should be given a think time so that they can sit down and think out their problems without interruption," he said.

The idea soupds attractive on the surface, but it holds hidden perils.

For one thing it might hurt rather than help office morale. A boss who told his employes, "now we'll all just sit still for 30 minutes and think real hard," might end up with a strike on his hands. If there is anything the average person resents, it is being forced to think.

• • •

The virtues of thought on the ordinary job are sometimes exaggerated. Too much thinking in an office could create bedlam. Look at the cow. It is a perfect factory, and delivers a perfect product. And it doesn't think at all. It merely ruminates, which is much more fun than thinking.

BOUND TO CHEAT

There is another objection to the idea of having the whole office force think at once about how to improve the business. Some sneak is bound to cheat. He is going to think, "now, I wonder how I can get the boss's job." And he might figure out a way, too—on office time.

• • •

By and large, it might be better to have a "daydream break," a period during which everybody can relax and dream uninterruptedly about anything he likes. The chances are at least even he'll wind up with ideas at least as good as those he'd get furrowing his brow in the agony of thought.

A correspondent writes to ask whether we agree with Henry David Thoreau's observation that most men lead lives of "quiet desperation."

No, indeed, Thoreau made his remark in the era of strong silent men. Times have changed. Most men today insist on leading lives of quite noisy desperation. A man with a despair now likes to go to a cocktail party and brag out loud about it.

DISEASE—DROPPER

The name-dropper is giving way to the disease-dropper. Folks nowadays like to share the ailments of famous people.

Since President Eisenhower's illness, half a dozen fellows have complained to us of symptoms of ileitis, a malady they never even knew existed until Ike came down with it. In another month it should be as popular as appendicitis.

Mrs. Gonzalez, who can sew all day and doesn't need glasses, likes a nip of wine before breakfast. Later in the afternoon she prefers something "that rasps the throat, like tequila." She also smokes three packs of cigarettes a day.

Some bluenoses may look askance at Mrs. Gonzalez, who has outlived five of her seven children, and insist her bad habits will surely shorten her life.

• • •

But at 106 a girl certainly can afford to gamble a bit, and all we'd like to know is what brand of tequila she recommends and whether she thinks filtered cigarettes are better than the ordinary kind.

An average adult person breath about 17 times per minute.

Helen Hayes Given Degree at Princeton

PRINCETON, N.J. (AP)—Actress Helen Hayes and composer Aaron Copland received honorary degrees at Princeton University's 209th commencement today.

Miss Hayes, often called "America's leading lady of the theater," was awarded the degree of Doctor of Fine Arts as a "brilliant artist and outstanding citizen."

Copland received a Doctor of Music degree. He was cited as "one of the eminent figures in the development of music in the United States during a period when it has become a force . . . in all parts of the musical world."

Princeton President Harold W. Dodds awarded the honorary degrees after 653 graduating members of the Class of 1956 received their bachelor degrees.

Eisenhower May Place Among Great Presidents

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower, nearing the end of a White House term while recovering from an operation, has time to think of a question which must have occurred to every man who ever held his job:

"What will be my place among the presidents?"

* * *

It would be no wonder if Eisenhower felt history might assign him one of the high places among the presidents if he went on to a second term.

"No one-term president except the martyred Lincoln has been honored with the accolade of greatness," says Clinton Rossiter in his book "The American Presidency." He is professor of government at Cornell University.

'STIRRING TIMES'

Like Lincoln, the two-term men at the top of the presidential list faced crises or struggles, internal or foreign, and lived in what Rossiter calls "stirring times."

Eisenhower's White House stay have been placid in comparison with the turbulent years of his immediate predecessors, Presidents Roosevelt and Truman.

They met headon on more major crises and struggles, at home and abroad, then Eisenhower has encountered so far.

Roosevelt led a depressed country back into self-confidence and then into an almost through a world war. Truman saw the end of that war, reconversion to peace, the start of the cold war, the Marshall plan. He guided the country from isolation into the United Nations, formed armed alliances against Russia and finally made the decision to fight in Korea.

INHERITED POLICY

Eisenhower ended the Korean War. But he did not have to create a foreign policy. He inherited Truman's, and has followed it steadily with no new one of his own.

In the long view of history—if he should quit after one term—his greatest contribution may have been in thawing the cold war by creating among friends and foes confidence that the United States is peaceful.

The Democrats may argue it was the Truman policy of strength which thawed the cold war by forcing the Communists into less aggressiveness.

And they may try to brush off as luck, or as a natural result of the legacy left by Truman, the greater feeling of peace and tranquility.

BUILT GOOD WILL

But they cannot deny that Eisenhower, by his friendliness and restraint in dealing with people at home and abroad, has built up a general good will everywhere toward the head of the American government.

In short, Eisenhower has helped the country catch its breath after an age of reform, war and repeated postwar crises. His great personal popularity is pretty good proof he gave the country what it thought it needed.

* * *

If Eisenhower did not have to face the crises which pursued his predecessors, it is because they did not occur. How many were prevented by his calmness and judgment may never be known.

Eisenhower's White House years have been unsensational but, as Rossiter says: "The times are the kind in which a president may win fame and gratitude but not immortality."

HE MAY PLACE

Rossiter guesses Truman will rank with Jefferson and Theodore whom he now places above Polk and Cleveland, may yet move into the same company.

He puts Franklin D. Roosevelt beside Jackson and Wilson," a small step above Jefferson and Theodore Roosevelt." He reserves top billing for Washington and Lincoln.

On an average winter day it is estimated that six million men, women and children are incapacitated by some form of illness or injury.

Cincinnati Blast Kills 1, Hurts 14

Three Critically Injured as Boiler Explodes in Apartment House

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — An explosion that burst out two sides of a Cincinnati apartment house from cellar to roof late last night killed one man and injured 14 other persons, three of them critically.

The body of Robert Swarts, 31, was found in the wreckage. He had been in the basement when the blast went off.

Among the seriously injured was a 2-month-old baby, Dorothy Miller, who was blown out of her crib. Her skull was fractured.

The blast piled up a hill of rubble behind the four-story brick and frame building in which seven families lived.

The explosion was heard over several miles around the building on Reading Road—which also is U.S. 42, a main route to Cincinnati.

Fire officials said it was likely much of the rest of the building would collapse.

Ed Bowling, caretaker of the building, said the explosion was directly under his first-floor apartment and apparently was caused by the basement boiler.

He was not injured, but his wife was taken to the hospital.

Frank Brown, 45, said he was watching television about 10:30 p.m. when suddenly "there was a big roar and our whole dining room floor went out."

The Funeral of Madame Chase

Damon Runyon first became known outside his native Southwest through verses he contributed to first-rank magazines such as Harper's Weekly, Century and others. Some were extraordinarily prophetic.

The Funeral of Madame Chase, a Runyon story poem of those early days, has the quality which critics found and hailed a few years later in Edgar Lee Masters' Spoon River Anthology. The Ballad of Queenie Mulqueen is in a similar vein. Runyon recorded similar stories in acid prose in the collection published as In Our Town.

THE FUNERAL OF MADAME CHASE
By DAMON RUNYON

A big black hearse; 'twas Dougal's hearse,
Creaked down through Union street,
And old, old echoes were aroused
By the horses' heavy feet.
And all our town knew Dougal's hearse
Bore to some resting place
The last of her who once was known
As Madame Sarah Chase.

• • •

Were on the street that day.
With senile stealth, it seemed to me,
They tried to hide away.
They did not meet, and stand, and gas,
As old men love to do,
But seemed to slink, each by himself,
And why nobody knew.

• • •

One lone hack; 'twas Pitkin's hack,
With Pitkin on the seat,
Was all that followed Dougal's hearse
As it creaked through Union street.

• • •

One lone hack, and in that hack
Was one lone man, and he
Was Banker George S. Hamerslough,
As all the town could see.

So slim, so gray, so very old,
He sat erect, and stern.
And glanced about from left to right
With eyes that seemed to burn.
And wagging tongues of gossip stopped.

• • •

And none that glance could meet,
As slowly passed the hearse and hack
Along through Union street.

• • •

And my old man who hadn't bowed
To Hamerslough for years,
And leaked some senile tears.
"I know him for a skunk," he said,
"And my hate'll never quit —
A liar, cheat, two-thirds a thief —
But he's no hypocrite!"

• • •

One lone hack; 'twas Pitkin's hack;
With Pitkin on the seat,
Was all that followed Dougal's hearse
As it creaked through Union street.
One lone hack, and in that hack
Was one lone man, and he
Was Banker George S. Hamerslough,
For all the town to see.

Tomorrow: Another story of My Old Man and Grandpap, "At Dead Mule Crossing" is typical of Runyon reminiscing inventively but realistically about "my own kin."

New Views on Sickness

Some illnesses may not be "just your nerves" simply because there's no readily apparent physical cause. Deeper checking sometimes turns up a real physical cause — Dr. Robert L. Faucett, Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minn., psychiatrist.

There's new evidence of an abnormal chemical change in the red blood cells of patients with schizophrenia, the most common form of mental illness. It's found in the way certain digestive enzymes in the blood of schizophrenic patients react to radioactive phosphorus. It might be significant in diagnosing such patients sometimes — Dr. Ivan Boszormenyi, Navy.

An age of "atomic medicine" is fast approaching, as part of peacetime uses of atomic energy. More use of atomic or nuclear radiation, in power plants, industry, industry, medicine, will increase the amount of radioactivity in our life. Physicians should be given data to help guard against radiation sickness from accidents, and bad effects upon future generations—Dr. I. Phillips Frohman, Washington, D. C.

A new anesthetic given by vein puts you to sleep in a matter of seconds, but permits fully coordinated alertness 10 to 30 minutes after it is stopped. It promises to be useful in surgery and also dental anesthesia. It is named Methitural sodium (trade name Neraval) — Dr. Irving M. Riffin and Dr. Max Block, Montclair, N. J.

Charge of Breakin Brings Guilty Plea

Charged with the nighttime breakin of a business establishment in Ferndale, Robert R. Romaine of Hazel Park pleaded guilty at his arraignment in Oakland County Circuit Court.

Romaine, who will be sentenced June 18 by Judge George B. Hartrick, was returned to jail under bond of $2,000.

Possession of Knife Brings Probation Term

A 17-year-old Detroit youth who pleaded guilty May 28 to possessing a switch-blade knife in Ferndale April 16 was sentenced by Oakland County Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty.

Gerald Youmans was placed on probation for three years and ordered to pay $100 in court costs.

FRIENDLY NEIGHBORS

Have you ever heard the expression "he never meets a stranger"? Such is the case when you shop at any one of National's 750 supermarkets. National folks are friendly folks, from H. V. Hoffmann, our president, to any one of the 5,655 teenagers who are an important part of the National family. Wherever National operates, from Canada to the Gulf, throughout mid-America, we strive to be part of the community we serve, taking part in community activities, and employing people to operate our stores. We like to be called Neighborly National Folks, for we are your neighbors —so come on in, we guarantee you'll meet no strangers — just friendly folks.

MORE MEAT FOR YOUR MONEY

Every good cook I know tells me that the food she buys, especially meat, is the very best. But do you know how to buy the very best meat and still pay less for it? Here's the solution —buy National's Value Way Trimmed Corn Fed Beef. It gives you extra value for your food dollar because you take home more eating meat. No excess fat and bone—it's trimmed off BEFORE your meat is weighed. At National, too, your meat is U. S. Government inspected to protect your health—U. S. Government graded to protect your wealth. We'd say that's getting not only the best—but the VERY BEST.

Bob Considine Says:

U.S. Sky Divers Determined to Face Reds

NEW YORK (INS)—America's newest sport is sky diving. With two unopened chutes strapped fore and aft and an altimeter and stopwatch attached to his chest, the sky diver leaps out of the plane, stretches his arms like a soaring bird, and subtly maneuvers as he gracefully falls.

* * *

At a modest height above the earth, and death, he opens a chute and flutters down to the spot which amounts to a bullseye in this gripping new combination of sailing, pinpoint bombing, and fallen arches.

We've just had a talk with one of the nation's top sky divers, Paris-born, Princeton-trained, Korean vet Jacques Andre Istel of Bedford Village, N.Y. He is as lean, strong and sharp-eyed as the eagle he emulates.

But troubled:

The eight-man U.S. sky diving team of which Jacques is a member is entered in the world's championship competition in Moscow next month.

* * *

It has raised enough money to get to France, where it will undergo instructions under some of the world's best fliers. But it has no funds to continue on to Moscow or return.

DEDICATED MAN

"We'll go the distance even if we have to hock our lives," Jacques told us with the air of the dedicated man. "We're determined not only to show our faces against the Russians and the 12 other nations but to do well.

* * *

"The huge crowds which will watch the sport should know that America isn't backward about anything, even if we have only about 500 people who chute for fun as opposed to Russia's 800,000."

The team needs $12,000, none of it to go for personal gain of any member. Contributions are tax-free when made out to the National Aeronautical Assn. of Washington, D.C.

The American sky diving team is an amateur organization. It may be the only 110 per cent pure one.

It is made up of the likes of a carpenter, Lew Sanborn of Fort Lauderdale, Fla.; a sign painter, Bob Fair of Athens, Tenn.; an auto mechanic, Floyd Hobby of Elyria, Ohio; an upholsterer, Lyle Hoffman of Seattle; a sewing machine repairman, George Bosworth of Buffalo, and a steeplejack from Cleveland named George Stone.

Their ages range from 23 to 42. Hobby won the parachuting test at the National Air Races in 1952, Fair in 1953. They've all undergone Spartan training at Trenton-Robbinsville (N.J.) Airport for this first all-out assault on the entrenched sky diving nations.

COUNTRY FAIR NAME

"Americans don't understand much about what to do," Jacques told us. "The U.S. pioneered in parachuting but the game got a bad name here—a kind of country fair name.

* * *

"As a result, we were unprepared when we needed lots of paratroops in the war, troops that could be dropped from low levels and land where they were supposed to land. We glamorized paratrooping as rough and tough, which it was, but that in turn discouraged people from going in for it.

"Sky diving is safer than any other sport," Jacques said earnestly. "It's infinitely safer than skiing, let's say. We don't jump if the wind isn't right, and naturally we don't jump with a heavy military pack on our back.

"Our chutes are packed to open slowly, which cuts out that particular jolt. We land as if we had jumped off a five-foot table."

* * *

At Moscow the Americans will be called up to do such things as figure eights in the air, using only their hands as airfoils.

SOME RULED OUT

A soarer who flips over on his back while falling is disqualified. One who tilts unduly is penalized. He falls generally at about 125 m.p.h. but, like a child in a dream, there is no sensation of dropping.

* * *

The longest free falls in the Moscow competition will be of 30-second duration (two figure eights!) after which the flier must "sail" his then opened chute in such a way as to land on the bullseye.

"The Russians have been training two years for this show," Jacques said with dark intensity.

"We, on the other hand, have lived on hamburgers and pop."

Charged with feloniously assaulting another Pontiac man with a jackknife May 18, Charles Shedd of 22 W. Chicago Ave., stood mute yesterday at his arraignment in Oakland County Circuit Court.

The farm silo is said to have originated in central Europe in 1875 and was introduced to the U.S. a year later.

U.S. Emphasizes Accuracy as Paramount

Boasts by Russians and squabbles between the U. S. military services have focused attention on the newest weapons of 20th century warfare—guided missiles. Just where does the U. S. stand in its efforts to develop a diversified arsenal of missiles as deterrent to war? How have these new weapons changed American strategic thinking? Here is the first of three articles answering these, and many other, questions.

By DARRELL GARWOOD
INS Staff Writer

Russia's Niktia S. Krushchev declares:

"I am quite sure we will have the guided missile with an H-bomb warhead which can land anywhere in the world."

"The intercontinental missile has the top priority."

Behind these two statements are the industrial and technical might and skills of the world's two great powers, concentrated on producing the intercontinental ballistics missile (ICBM)—the latest in a long list of death-dealing items to be dubbed "the ultimate weapon."

Thurs far, Soviet claims of leadership have not been backed up—in public at least—by any proof. Nontheless, there is no disposition in Washington to discount Soviet claims as propaganda.

THE SPECIFICATIONS

The U. S. tendency is to credit the Soviet with the greatest possible achievement, because this accelerates work at home.

The American view is that if the Russians say they can build rockets that will go 1,500 miles or even 5,000 miles this is probably true. But U. S. experts emphasize building a missile with the required velocities and distances is a far step from building a missile with proper military specifications. These specifications include:

1. The missile must have a better chace of hitting a target than an existing weapon, such as a manned bomber.

2. The missile must carry appropriate-sized warheads. In the case of ICBM, its probable inaccuracy at best will be so great that it must carry hydrogen-bomb warheads.

3. It must be reliable and safe.

Air Secretary Donald A. Quarles has announced the Air Force is building two 5,000-mile rockets, designated the "Atlas" and "Titan," and one with a 1,500-mile range, designated the "Thor." The Army has chosen the name "Jupiter" for its project 1,500-mile rocket.

NOT ACCURATE

There is speculation that early prototypes of one or more of these four will be tested next year. Standing from 60 to more than 100 feet high, they will dwarf the size of the V-2, the largest rocket of World War II, and will contain revolutionary improvements for greater accuracy.

Imperfect missiles, U. S. leaders believe, would have only propaganda significance. They point out that the German V-2, although of enormous scientific interest, had almost no military significance in World War II because it was not sufficiently accurate.

Specifically, 1,300 V-2's were launched and 2,700 Britons were killed. The cost to the Germans per killing at a rate of two per missile, was about $10,000 each. No targets of outstanding military importance were hit.

By the standards prevailing the U. S. missile effort today, the V-2 was brought out much too soon.

FOUR-TENTHS OF MILE

One general U. S. standard is that missiles will not be manufactured except in experimental prototypes, unless they have at least a degree of accuracy described as two tenths of one per cent.

This means, in the case of missiles that travel 200 miles, that at least half of them strike within four-tenths of a mile (200 X .002) of the pinpointed target.

Thus Americans can know when a missile is ordered into production that it has attained at least this much accurancy. And there is a feeling at the Pentagon that, for longer range, the accuracy must be considerably better than the minimum.

WON'T BE CHEAP

Missiles Czar Murphree, who took office on April 3 in the midst of charges and countercharges about the status of the program, disagrees "with the public impression that our missiles operation has been poorly organized."

Shortly after he took over, the 57-year-old president-on-leave of the Esso Research & Engineering Co. described his job this way:

"If the Soviets are ahead of us in any phase of the missiles race, the gap will have to be closed. It will be my goal to accelerate our own program, assure proper coordination between the three armed services, and waste as little money as possible while achieving our objectives.

(Tomorrow: U. S. missiles arsenal today.)

"I'm 78 years old and thanks to O-Jib-Wa, my arthritis is gone and I'm able to do all my own work around the house."

Mr. James E. Benjamin
West Branch, Mich.

"I'm a retired farmer in good health, but did suffer a great deal in the past. I had arthritis in my ankles, knees, hips, arms and shoulders for about 5 years. I hurt all over when I first got up in the morning, but after I warmed up and began sweating, the pain wasn't as bad. At night though, when I quit working, the pains would come back. I could tell when it was going to storm, because my arthritis would start acting up. I had an awful time trying to sleep, as the pains would keep me awake most of the night. I often read of O-JIB-WA BITTERS helping others, so tried it, and in two weeks the pains began going away and I was able to sleep good again. Now, I get out and take care of my garden and do all my work around the place without having those awful pains. I'm still able to go deer hunting and bring back my buck, so I guess I'm in pretty good shape for my age. I'm glad to have this chance to recommend O-JIB-WA BITTERS because it has brought me such good health." At SIMMS, CUNNINGHAM, THRIFTY DRUG STORES in PONTIAC and ALL LEADING DRUG STORES in MICHIGAN.

GLAMOROUS, SURE—

but a tomboy at heart!

Turn Chevy out on the road to discover its real charm! For this is the beauty that raced 2,438 miles in 24 hours to set a new round-the-clock competition track performance record!

It happened at the famed Darlington Raceway, Darlington, S. C. A new Chevrolet, with 225 h.p., poured it on for 24 straight hours, averaging 101.58 miles per hour, to top the Indianapolis stock car record by 280 miles!

Add that to Chevy's Pikes Peak record, to its great show at the Daytona Beach time trials, to its unparalleled record in stock car competition—and you come up with the low-priced beauty that outshines everybody!

Here's proof of performance that means safer, happier highway driving. Few cars at any price can hold the road with Chevrolet's grace. And it's got the stamina to stand the gaff for 24 straight scorching hours at a pace that few other cars would even attempt to match! Drop by soon for a sample!

Latest Thing in Relaxing Living

Medical Men and Interior Decorators Join to Produce Peace of Mind Room

"the peace of mind room"—the latest thing in relaxing living—something homes of the future may have.

The peace of mind room, a combination of medical research and interior decorators' skill, was unveiled today on the eve of the annual convention of the American Medical Assn. in Chicago.

It's designed to show the most restful combination of colors, furniture, carpeting, a room temperature, music and reading.

Purpose of the room is to provide peace of mind for the doctors attending the hectic and taxing week-long medical meeting.

A MODEL FOR ALL

Sponsors of the room, the Chicago pharmaceutical firm, J. B. Roerig and Company, say the room is a "model of what could be done in other places where harried and in-a-hurry people congregate."

Peace of mind rooms for department stores, business offices, industrial plants and hospitals for expectant fathers were suggested as possible applications of the take-it-easy theme.

Air conditioning — temperature moisture content and air movement are all controlled "to contribute to a sense of well being."

Music — a phonograph with a selection of romantic compositions that "gives an emotional relief" and classical works which "can boost feelings of security."

Detroiters Plead Guilty to Theft

Raymond Cornell and Albert Carter, who will be sentenced June 18 by Judge George B. Hartrick, both were returned to jail under bonds of $500.

Breakin of Garage Brings Probation

Dale Richmond, 21, of 334 Voorheis Rd., who pleaded guilty May 28 to the nighttime breakin April 6 of residential garage in Pontiac, was sentenced yesterday by Oakland County Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty.

Richmond was placed on probation for two years and ordered to pay $100 in court costs. In addition, he will make restitution for the tools he admitted stealing from the garage.

Bad Check Writer Given Probation

Hershal M. Roberson, 33, of Hazel Park, Who pleaded guilty June 4 to writing a bad check for $15 March 24 in Farmington, was sentenced by Oakland County Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty.

Roberson was placed on two years' probation and ordered to pay $100 in court costs. He will spend the first 30 days of his probation in Oakland County Jail, and must make restitution of the $15.

Intruder Slays Mother of Four

Killer Rapes Woman at Baltimore Home in Brutal Assault

BALTIMORE (AP)—The mother of four children of a well-to-do family was raped and murdered in her home yesterday by an intruder who used two butcher knives, a Japanese saber and a heavy brass figurine to beat and stab her.

Mrs. John H. Bopst, about 47, apparently was surprised as she was eating a bowl of ice cream in her suburban home by someone. Baltimore County police called the crime the "most brutal assault" they had ever seen.

They found the broken bowl of ice cream with its contents spattered about the room. Bloodstains on a table in another room and elsewhere indicated a fierce struggle.

Mrs. Bopst's husband, about 55, a vice president and partner of Mechanical Engineering, Inc., a local contracting firm, found the body when he returned from work.

Police found a blue suit coat of medium size near the home, with a beer bottle cap in one pocket and two empty beer bottles outside the house.

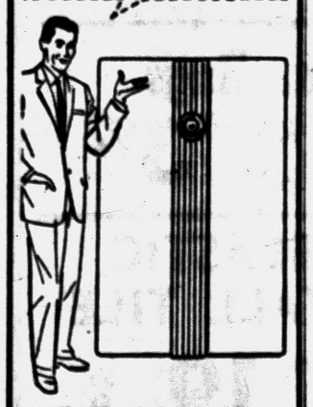

The murderer had evidently taken the keys to the family's 1955 sports coupe from Mrs. Bopst's handbag and escaped in the car, later recovered. No money was found in the bag.

Police said Mrs. Bopst, described by friends as "quiet" and a "delightful mother," apparently was beaten with the brass figurine of a man on a horse, and stabbed with the two knives.

Fishing by Apron

DEL MAR, Calif. (AP) — The grunion — little fish that swarm onto California beaches in their spawning season to leave eggs in the sand — were running. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dixon didn't have anything to catch them with. They dug a hole in the sand and scooped up grunion falling into it. Mrs. Dixon carried enough home in her apron for a nice meal.

Aramburu Government Pushing Hunt for Second Top Peronista Rebel Chief

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP) — Authorities pushed a dogged hunt today for a second top leader of last weekend's rebellion after seizing and speedily executing his chief in the uprising.

Executed by a firing squad last night was Gen. Juan Jose Valle, who had hoped to become president if the revolt succeeded.

An army spokesman said police were in hot pursuit of Tanco but gave no details. The government earlier asserted Tanco had been selected to take over as vice president under Valle.

Also cut down by a firing squad in the latest executions was Juan Alberto Abadie, an army reserve lieutenant who was second in command of the uprising within the 7th Infantry Regiment at La Plata.

A government communique announced the two executions but did not say where or when they were carried out. Unofficial sources reported Valle was put to death at the national penitentiary. He was seized in a police raid on a downheadquarters of Provisional President Pedro Aramburu.

CONFESSES SLAYING

Abadie was reported executed in the kennel area of provincial police headquarters at La Plata. A government statement said he had confessed the slaying of Federal Police Inspector Rafael Fernanzed last Sunday morning.

Firing squads earlier had executed 25 persons as participants in the rebellion which broke out Saturday night and was put down after a bloody 12-hour fight.

A source close to the government said death sentences imposed on 150 to 200 rebels had been commuted to life imprisonment. Military courts still were sitting in secret sessions to deliberate the fate of others seized.

The executions — carried out under martial law imposed Saturday night—have no precedent in Argentina's modern history. The usual practice has been to imprison conspirators and perhaps later let them flee to foreign asylum.

MINISTERIAL TEST RUN — Arno Hennig, Hesse Minister of Culture, enjoys a slide like a youngster during ceremony opening children's playground in Frankfurt.

Algeria-French Peace Depends on Self-Rule

STOCKHOLM (AP) — Algeria's warring nationalists are ready for immediate peace talks with France if the French concede the right of the Algerians to self-government, a top rebel leader told a Swedish newspaper today.

Ferhat Abbas, chairman of the Algerian National Liberation Council, said the promise of self-government was the only condition necessary for the opening of negotiations to end the bloodshed in the North African territory.

In an interview with the Stockholm Expressen, Abbas said the Algerian people "still want cooperation and friendly relations with the French people."

Since 1900 the percentage of older people — over 65 years of age — has doubled in the United States, says the U.S. Census Bureau.

Teacher Has a Problem

PUEBLO, Colo. (AP) — Theodore Colton has a choice between two professions: Teaching school or tending bar. Colton has been teaching by day and bartending by night. But a member of the Board of Education protested Colton's part-time occupation, and the teacher's contract for next fall requires him to give up bartending. Colton hasn't decided which job he'll take.

And Serve Wilted Lettuce

Cook by Atom Radiation

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Ladies, in about five years you just might be able to serve your family a meal with foods preserved through atomic radiation.

• • •

The process was described today to a meeting of the Institute of Food Technologists. It is intended to supplement present-day methods of canning and refrigeration.

Capt. Reuben Pomerantz, radiation preservation officer of the Quartermaster Food and Container Institute of Chicago, said results of the program might be available to the general public in about five years and it could reduce prices somewhat.

WON'T HARM FOOD

He said a limited amount of radiation could permit keeping some foods to a long time at regular refrigeration temperatures. He said the food doesn't become radioactive.

• • •

Army research now constitutes most of the work being done on the new approach. Plans for a pilot plant capable of turning out 30 tons of radiated food daily are in the works.

A group of 10 volunteers, all former conscientious objectors, are now on a 100 per cent radiated food diet at Fitzsimmons Army Hospital in Denver.

LETTUCE WILTS

Capt. Pomerantz said "there is no difference at all in their behavior" when on the radiated diet.

He said some foods, such as green, leafy vegetables, fresh fruits and dairy products, don't lend themselves to the process. Strawberries turn white. Lettuce wilts and milk comes out with a burned taste.

• • •

Pork products, poultry, brussel sprouts, broccoli and fish were termed the most promising foodstuffs for radiation. Capt. Pomerantz said the process could introduce a "new but acceptable taste."

Jaycee Auxiliary Prepares for Dance on Saturday

Pontiac Press Photos

Helping their mothers decide which gown to wear for the party to be held Saturday at Westacres Community Club are Darlene Fox (left) and Janet Langford. Mrs. Les Langford (seated) of Tilden avenue is a cochairman of the dance and Mrs. William Fox (right) of Edgefield drive is a member of the patron committee.

Getting help from Jaycee members was a goal of the auxiliary. Henry McCandless of East Pike street gives Mrs. McCandless a helping hand with decorations for the event to be held Saturday evening.

Couple Wed in Eastern Ceremony

Judith K. Robinson Becomes Bride in Army Chapel

Judith Kay Robinson became the bride of John Francis Lochtefeld in a ceremony at the Army Chapel at Ft. Monmouth, N. J. The Rev. Dominic J. Altieri celebrated the nuptial service.

• • •

There are five pages in today's Women's Section

Given in marriage by her father, Judith wore a gown of Chantilly lace and nylon tulle with iridescent sequins and seed pearls accenting the appliqued lace of the scoop neckline.

Her headpiece was of lace and tulle in a calot styling with a shoulder-length veil. She carried a bouquet of white carnations, roses and lilies-of-the-valley.

• • •

Darlene Bailey was maid of honor for the June 3 ceremony. She wore an Alice blue shantung dress of ballerina length and carried pink carnations and baby's breath. James Crecca served as best man.

A reception was held at the Crystal Brook Inn in New Jersey.

MSU GRADUATE

The bride is a graduate of Michigan State University. He received his degree from the University of Notre Dame.

• • •

John has left for the Hawaiian Islands where his bride will join him within a month. They plan to make their home there for the next year.

The new Mrs. Lochtefeld was honored at a post-nuptial shower given by Mrs. Joseph Atwell, Mrs. Ray Hetherington and Mrs. Stuart Hutchinson. The shower was held at the Atwell home on Menominee road Monday evening.

• • •

Mothers Schedule Blue Daisy Days

Members of Blue Star Mothers Chapter Four are holding Blue Daisy Days on Friday and Saturday. Proceeds from the project will be used to aid patients in the veterans' hospitals and their families.

Mrs. Frank Schmidt is serving as general chairman with Mrs. Alma Cowley as cochairman.

Graduates Must Build Own Lives

By ANNE HEYWOOD

This is the time of year when worried parents write me letters about their graduating sons and daughters.

• • •

"Mary has her degree in such and such," they'll say, "but it seems to me it was a great waste, as she must take a secretarial job anyway."

Or, "She majored in liberal arts and now she doesn't know what she wants to do. What good is an education if she isn't prepared to step into a specific job?"

Again, "John has a college degree, yet he wants to be a salesman! He could have been a salesman without going to college."

• • •

What is the answer? Well, there are several.

THEIR BUSINESS

First of all, we cannot live our children's lives for them. That's strictly their business.

• • •

Secondly, we shouldn't expect immediate results from the investment in college.

The child has been taught to think and now he has to bring that ability into the practical world.

It may take some time before he finds the dream niche and we must keep hands off and let him have the time.

• • •

The girl with a college degree may have to start in a secretarial job, but in many ways that's better for her than a too-ambitious first step.

She can learn the ropes and pay her way as she learns. And her college education will eventually pay off.

TRUE OF MEN, TOO

The same is true of the men. College may not enable them to step into a big job right off the campus, but it will enable them to advance more rapidly once they get going.

But the important point—and one which it is difficult for me, as a parent, too, to say—is this:

Your child has his own life to live now and if he—or she—is worth his salt, he's going to live it. This means making mistakes and learning from the mistakes.

Your child is not answerable to you. Your child is answerable to himself and to his God.

It is best if a mother faces the fact that she has her own life to live from now on. It is never easy, but it is the surest way to happiness and the affection of her children.

• • •

If you are in this dilemma and would like help in working out a life of your own, send me six cents in postage, care of The Pontiac Press, and I'll send you my Housewives Career Guide.

It will help you make a plan for your own interests, your own life.

Medicines Constantly Get Better

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

A few years ago Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, one of the top engineering colleges in the United States, launched a most interesting and progressive program which is called the Industrial Council.

The idea of this council is to bring science and education closer together. Each fall the council is sponsored by one of the big industries. High school social science teachers come as guests from all over the country to hear what the leaders of industry have to say.

This gives industry an opportunity to inform the teachers of its accomplishments and its goals.

Last fall the program was sponsored by the pharmaceutical industry and I believe that many of the facts which were presented during those three days in Troy, N. Y., will be interesting to you.

Few of us realize the tremendous service the pharmaceutical industry has rendered to mankind. Some of the finest research is being carried on in its laboratories in an effort to keep pace with the great public interest in disease, long life and prolonging the youthful part of life. Here are some facts which I am sure will surprise you as they did me.

More than half of the new drugs used generally today were unknown 17 years ago.

* * *

It can be said that over 90 per cent of the prescriptions written by physicians today could not have been filled even 25 years ago because the medications prescribed were not in existence.

In the late '30s penicillin was still an almost unknown laboratory curiosity. Since penicillin more than 4,000 antibiotics have been discovered in the United States, of which 17 have been placed on the market.

The pharmaceutical industry's record of getting penicillin into large-scale production during World War II was acclaimed everywhere as a great achievement.

After the discoveries of healing medication in the research laboratories, the next step is to get the product into production. It is not until hundreds of thousands of small vials and ampules and tablets pour out of some pharmaceutical plant that the course of history can be truly influenced.

Today the United States pharmaceutical industry is not only largely self-sufficient but supplies a major portion of medication to the entire civilized world.

Mrs. Omar MacNutt gave the devotions and Howard Tanner conducted the business meeting. Following the program arranged by Mr. and Mrs. Tanner, refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Koch, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. William Bray, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Tanner and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wilson served on the social committee.

Chopin Music Club Sponsors Recital

* * *

Future Events Are Discussed by Soroptimists

Annual reports were presented by committee chairmen, and the club voted to give a donation to the Oakland County Convalescent Home for use in the therapy program.

Arrangements were completed for the June 25 installation of officers and plans were discussed for a July picnic and an August dinner and evening at Will-O-Way Playhouse.

When moving large household objects, be sure to hold or push them in a way which allows you to see where you're going.

Club Holds Installation on Tuesday

The annual installation dinner of the Pontiac Toastmistress Club was held Tuesday evening at Hotel Waldron, with committee reports given to Mrs. Milton Freet, president.

Newly installed president is Mrs. Robert Bunce. Mrs. W. Arthur Vernon is vice president, Mrs. Lou Davidson, treasurer; Mrs. Evelyn Cole, recording secretary; Mrs. Orben Wilkins, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Robert Sutton, club representative, aided by Helen Lapisch.

Mrs. James Webb of Farmington installed the officers.

Table topics were conducted by Mrs. Howard Wheatley, and the Oscar was won by Mrs. Emil Mailahn. Mrs. Clayton Tibbals was a guest.

Don't paint over peeling paint. Scrape off the peelings with a putty knife. Otherwise, the new paint will flake off in a short time.

SHIRLEY ANN LONG

Shirley Ann Long, daughter of Mrs. E. F. Cochrane of Scott Lake road and Don Long of Lexington drive, graduated from Detroit's Mercy School of Nursing, St. Lawrence Unit, Saturday in exercises at the Detroit Memorial Building.

HAIR COLOR CAN BE BEAUTIFUL

Time was, you know, when a lady lifted her morale by choosing a new hat. Now she goes a step further, and gets much more personal satisfaction by choosing a new hair color.

The change need not be drastic of course, just a new warmth to brighten brown, and a bit of sparkle for the dishwater-blond and glory restored to red hair.

You need not wait until your hair turns grey before changing its shade. Beauty authorities tell us that hair color is fast becoming as easily selected as make-up and its possibilities are even greater. There is a shade which will enhance your natural coloring and bring new loveliness to you. May we advise you about your hair coloring problems?

Shirley Diana Snell and Dale Edward Perrett were married Saturday at Ascension Lutheran Church. Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond V. Snell of Exmoor road. Dale's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Perrett of Close street.

MR. and MRS. DALE E. PERRETT

Shirley D. Snell Speaks Vows in Candlelight Rite

The Rev. William LaFountain of Ascension Lutheran Church presided at the candlelight service uniting Shirley Diana Snell and Dale Edward Perrett. The double-ring ceremony was read Saturday evening at 8 o'clock.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond V. Snell of Exmoor road. Dale's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Perrett of Close street.

* * *

Joan Bennett was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Vera Murphy, and Mary Forsyth of Windsor. They Joanne Valcheck, Shirley Friedly were gowned in pale blue crystalette with small bustle bows and wore matching Juliet hats. They carried cascade arrangements of pink and white carnations with ivy.

Mrs. Perrett wore blue lace with white accessories. She also wore a corsage of white cymbidium orchids.

Lola Strom Is Elected by Sorority

* * *

Other officers who will serve with Miss Strom are Mrs. Merrill D. Petrie, vice president; Mrs. Kojima, recording secretary, and Mrs. Leo Halfpenny, treasurer.

Still others are Mrs. Harold Frack, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Elmer Lea, auditor, and Mrs. Louis D. Livingston, chaplain.

The members voted a donation to Camp Oakland which will make it possible for some boy to spend a week's vacation at the camp.

* * *

Ruth Johnson Feted at Shower in Birmingham

Mrs. Charles Buell of Birmingham was hostess at a bridal shower for Ruth Ann Johnson Monday evening. Mrs. Harvey McClure was cohostess.

* * *

Ruth Ann is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam T. Johnson of Oliver street. She will marry David L. Cobb in the First Congregational Church June 23. David is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Leon S. Cobb of Maplewood avenue.

The Buell home was decorated in pink and white for the shower. A white umbrella flaiked by pink tapers was the centerpiece for the refreshment table.

Sister Blamed for Mom's Injustice

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

Elsie's mother died in the home of her married daughter Grace.

Several months later, Grace sent Elsie a share of the furniture, silver and linen. But she failed to send the diamond ring their Mama had promised to leave to Elsie when she graduated from secretarial school.

* * *

Elsie wrote Grace, asking for it. Her sister replied that she had no knowledge of the 30-year-old contract made with Elsie; that the ring was hers given by their mother in gratitude for the care she'd received in her last illness.

When Elsie read this letter, terrifying bitterness welled up. She thought, "I hate Grace. Always she's cheated me out of my rights. She could nurse Mama and get my ring because she has a husband to support her. I have no husband, so I had to work—and lost the ring."

Since then she has not seen her sister. Instead of spending last Christmas with her young niece and nephews, she spent it at a movie with an office acquaintance.

* * *

Her estrangement from Grace is unnecessary and wasteful. But it's inevitable—until she is ready to see that what cheated her of her diamond ring was not treachery in her sister but carelessness in the mother who made a promise—and broke it.

ROMANTIC VIEW

* * *

Like others among us, Elsie often imagined she felt great bitterness at her sister, when Grace snatched her crayons or otherwise inflicted injustice on her.

But if she will examine that old bitterness, she'll find it was really felt, not for the other child who had mistreated her, but for the parent who had allowed her to be mistreated.

Again like others of us, she'll begin to understand what she did with that forbidden accusing finger at the Mama who claimed to love her—and then refused to protect her against injustice. She began to see how convenient it was to imagine she felt it for Grace.

Unless we are willing to know for whom our childhood angers were basically felt, we can grow up using our brothers or sisters as their socially acceptable butt. Like Elsie we can lose a sister to our childish wish to make her responsible for her mother's broken word.

What's worse, our resentful state is perpetuated by our romantic view of our parent's character so that we cannot come to any final understanding peace with its inevitable human flaws.

From a long way back the Cain in us makes our brothers pay for his father's partiality and injustice.

Salvation Army Notes Changes

'Unwanted' Babies Today Soon Find New Parents

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor

There is never any trouble finding homes for babies, says Col. Ruth Pagan, national child welfare consultant of the Salvation Army.

In 35 years as a Salvation Army officer, this slender, white-haired grandmother with a wise and kindly face has seen many major changes in the ancient human problems that pass through her hands and those of her fellow workers.

FEW ORPHANAGES

"There is very little need for orphanages these days," says Col. Pagan. "There are several reasons for this. One is the great decrease in industrial accidents. Another is the great advancement in childbirth care — few babies lose their mothers at birth. And perhaps the biggest reason is the great demand for babies by adoption."

* * *

The Salvation Army cares for some 8,000 unwed mothers a year in 34 maternity homes throughout the country.

"It seems that every couple wants a baby," says Col. Pagan. "Of the babies born in our homes, about 75 per cent are placed with qualified agencies for adoption. The others stay with their mothers who for various reasons don't want to give them up.

"It is a problem that is difficult to solve, this question of whether an unmarried mother should keep her baby. If the mother is very young and if she is not able to support the baby, we usually advise that she allow it to be adopted, for the baby's sake as well as her own.

MORE TOLERANT

"In some cases, however, the grandparents want to keep the baby. And in others a professional woman who is able to support herself and the child wants to keep the baby with her. This situation is easier these days, too. Society, I believe, is a little more tolerant than it used to be. If the mother is qualified to hold down a good job, employers do not inquire too deeply into her private life. If she has a child and no husband, the natural supposition is that she is a widow or divorcee."

* * *

Another change that Col. Pagan has noted is that the mothers who come to the Salvation Army for help are so much younger nowadays.

"We even have many 12-year-olds," says she. "The average age of the mothers in these homes has dropped from 23 to 18 in the last 15 years. The situation is such that we have public schools in most of our maternity homes these days, so that a girl may continue her studies while she waits for her baby.

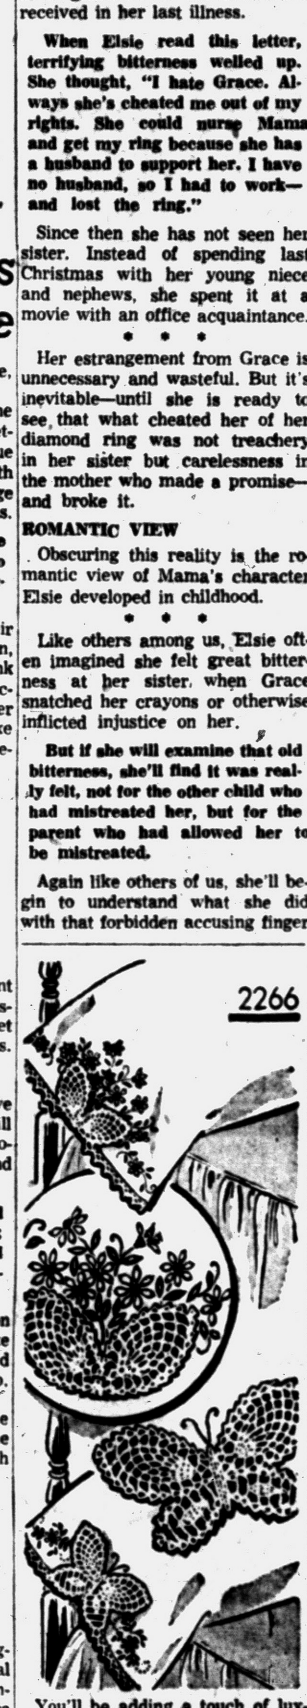

TRAGIC CHILDREN

"Our most recent figures show that half of the girls who come to the maternity homes are under 21 and a fourth are under 16. These young girls are much more sophisticated than girls of the same age even 10 years ago. A 12-year-old girl frequently looks and acts as if she were 16. But of course she is really only a child with tragically grown-up problems."

50 Years Marked by Patriotic Society

Michigan Chapter of the National Society of Daughters of Founders and Patriots of America observed its 50th anniversary today at a luncheon at Grosse Pointe Country Club. Mrs. Henry B. Joy served as hostess.

Local members attending the luncheon were Mrs. E. G. Clark, Mrs. Harry D. Chapman, Mrs. L. L. Dunlap, Mrs. R. S. Falk, Mrs. Harry Going, Mrs. E. V. Howlett and Mrs. Robert B. Tarr.

You'll be adding a touch of luxury to your linens by trimming them with these crocheted and embroidered designs of pretty butterflies and flower baskets. (So nice to keep or give!)

Pattern No. 2266 contains hot-iron transfer for 4 flower motifs—two of each design; crochet and embroidery directions; stitch illustrations.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Edward Myre were married Saturday at St. Michael Church. The bride is the former Yvonne Sharon Andrews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Andrews of Drayton Plains. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Myre of Northfield avenue.

MR. and MRS. THOMAS E. MYRE

Yvonne Andrews Speaks Vows in St. Michael Rite

A gown of nylon tulle over satin was worn by Yvonne Sharon Andrews for her wedding Saturday to Thomas Edward Myre. The ceremony was performed at St Michael Church.

* * *

Yvonne is the daughter of Mr and Mrs. Charles J. Andrews of Drayton Plains, and Thomas is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Myre of Northfield avenue.

A square neckline and cap sleeves accented the bodice of the bridal gown, which featured white and gold embroidery. The bouffant skirt extended into a sweeping chapel train. The bride's only jewelry was a strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

Wanda Fogal was maid of honor. She wore pink crystalette over taffeta with a boat neckline and floor-length hoop skirt. Andrea Andrews, bridesmaid, wore a similar gown in blue crystalete. They carried colonial bouquets of carnations and roses.

John Beauchamp served as best man, and ushers were Richard Dalby, Norman Lewis of Milford and Charles K. Andrews of Drayton Plains. Michael Myre was ringbearer.

Mrs. Myre chose a dress of gray lace over pink with pink accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

* * *

Couple Repeats Wedding Vows in Parsonage

Mrs. John Cahill of Woodbine drive became the bride of C. H. Graham of Detroit Saturday in a ceremony performed in the First Methodist parsonage. The Rev. Paul R. Havens performed the rite.

* * *

Attending the couple were Mrs. Thomas Phelan and Fotis Takis.

* * *

Following the wedding, a reception was held at the Bloomfield Hills home of Mr. and Mrs. Takis. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Esler and Mrs. Phelan.

* * *

Others taking part will be Paula Dodge, Sandy Triestch, Bernadine Williams, Barbara Carrick, Claudia Edwards, Judy Kemp, Audrey Presson, Joalyce Peterson, Michael Carson, Mary Ellen Oltesvig, David Austin, Mary Ellen Cote, Linda Clarkson, Lois Arndt, Carol Henderson and Marilyn Drummer.

All Set for Summer?

You've probably got your summer wardrobe in hand by now. But what about the lingerie that goes with it? Do you have the right half-slips, bras and slips for your summer dresses? This is the time to check.

LEONARD BIALLAS JR.

Leonard Biallas Jr. was graduated recently from Holy Cross Seminary at Notre Dame, Ind., after four years of study. On Aug. 5 he will leave for Jordan, Minn., to begin his novitiate year. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Biallas of Montcalm street.

Chapter Plans Installation

Iota Eta Chapter of Pi Omicron national sorority will hold its installation of officers following dinner at the Elks Temple Thursday.

Officers to be installed are Mrs. Leon Skelley, president; Mrs. Buhl Burt, vice president; Mrs. Dudley Moore, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Paul Hoskins, recording secretary, and Mrs. G. A. Flessland, treasurer.

The invocation will be given by Mrs. William Hotham, and mistress of ceremonies for the evening will be Mrs. E. Verne McCall, retiring president of the chapter.

The decorative theme for the event will be in keeping with the song, "June Is Busting Out All Over," and a large musical score of the song will decorate one wall of the dining room.

* * *

Favors and programs in the musical theme will complete the decorations. Entertainment will be provided by a local dance studio.

Guests will include Mrs. Edward Wallin of Midland, first vice president, who will be the installing officer.

Assisting will be Mrs. Leo Zurow of St. Clair Shores, state president, and Petronella Sullivan, district first vice president. Also attending will be the state corresponding secretary, Grace Morrow of Detroit.

* * *

Mrs. Hoskins is chairman of the committee arranging the affair. Assisting are Mrs. Skelly, decorations; Mrs. Burt, properties, and Mrs. Moore, tickets.

Man Sends Too Little for Tickets

Girl Doesn't Know if She Should Pay Extra Amount

By EMILY POST

Today's first letter tells me: "A young man I know has written to me and asked me to go to the theater with him when he comes to this city soon. He asked me to get the tickets to whatever play I want to see and also enclosed a check to pay for them.

"The tickets are quite expensive and the amount he sent does not cover the cost. Would it be proper for me to assume this additional expense, or might this hurt his feelings?"

Answer: If the amount he gave you is only a little less than the ticket price, you would pay the difference and say nothing. On the other hand, if the money he gave you was much too little, you should send him word that the tickets are much too expensive and you have not bought them. Then he can tell you what to do.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Would you say that it was improper to leave a liqueur set standing on a table in front of my sofa? It is not only a very pretty set, but we use it quite often to serve liqueur after dinner. Someone told me that it was not in good taste to keep it there. I would like to have your opinion."

Answer: It is not in good taste to give it this permanent position. It should be brought in when liqueurs are to be served.

"Dear Mrs. Post: I am going to announce my engagement shortly and would like to know if it would be proper to send a picture of myself along with the notice to the newspaper.

"Someone told me that unless the engaged girl is a well-known person, it would be presumptuous to send a picture. I would appreciate hearing from you on this matter."

Answer: It is entirely proper to send your picture with the announcement. But don't feel bad if the paper does not publish it. If it has space, it will. If it doesn't, it won't.

Lemon Gold Cake Uses Citrus Juice

Mrs. Fauble Frosts Her Chiffon Cake With Orange Icing

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

A delightful dessert in the warm weather is an airy chiffon cake, such as this one called Lemon Gold Cake. Mrs. Ward Fauble makes it often and says it's always popular.

Working full-time five days a week leaves Mrs. Fauble with few leisure hours. During the summer she and her husband spend a great deal of time in their yard.

LEMON GOLD CAKE
By Mrs. Ward Fauble

2¼ cups sifted cake flour
1½ cups sugar
1 tablespoon baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
½ cup salad oil
6 eggs, separated
¾ cup cold water
2 teaspoons lemon juice
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
½ teaspoon cream of tartar

Make a well in the dry ingredients and add salad oil, egg yolks, water, lemon juice and rind. Beat until smooth.

Add cream of tartar to egg whites and beat very stiff. Pour yolk mixture gradually over the whites, carefully folding in. Use a rubber scraper and fold until just blended. Do not stir.

Pour at once into an ungreased 10x4 tube pan. Bake in a 325-degree oven for 70 minutes, or until top springs back. Remove from oven and reverse until cool.

Orange Icing

¼ cup butter or margarine
2 cups sifted confectioners sugar
2 tablespoons orange juice
Grated rind 1 orange
⅛ teaspoon salt

Cream butter or margarine, add sugar and rest of ingredients. Beat until right consistency to spread.

Xi Pi Chapter Has Breakfast at Long Home

Mrs. Charles J. Long opened her home on Pine Lake Sunday morning to members of Xi Pi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority. Fifteen members were present for breakfast.

* * *

Assisting Mrs. Long were Mrs. Harold A. Cousins, Mrs. Alphonse Fowler, Mrs. Carl Needy, Mrs. William Thomas and Mrs. Andrew Vitt.

* * *

A brief business meeting was conducted by Mrs. George W. Thurber, newly elected president, and plans were announced for a picnic to be held at Williams Lake July 18.

'Last Resort' No Longer

Dust of Asbestos Powder May Aid Coronary Victims

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
AP Science Reporter

CHICAGO (AP)—An operation that aids ailing hearts could be used to prevent serious heart damage before it occurs, a heart specialist said today.

Some 1,200 persons with sick hearts have had this surgery, said Dr. Bernard Brofman, Mount Sinai Hospital, Cleveland. He called it safe and effective for a majority of patients who have had coronary attacks.

It should no longer be considered a "last resort" step after other treatments have failed, he said. "Ideally, it should be performed before any significant muscle damage has occurred," he told the American Medical Assn.

ASBESTOS POWDER

The operation is one method of helping people whose arteries bringing life-nourishing blood to the heart muscle have become plugged.

It involves dusting asbestos powder over the surface of the heart to stimulate new channels of blood flow, and carrying out other steps. It was developed by Dr. Claude Beck of Western Reserve University, Cleveland.

* * *

Ninety per cent of 185 persons operated since 1951 have been freed from all or most pain, and 90 per cent have returned to full or part-time work, including some doing heavy labor, Dr. Brofman said. None among the last 58 patients succumbed to the surgery, even though a fourth were in bad condition.

MUSCLES STAY YOUNG

Dr. Brofman proposed it could help some persons, suffering from the artery plugging, before they got into serious trouble.

Most persons dying of coronaries still actually have enough heart muscle left to keep the heart beating if enough of the muscle could be kept nourished, he said. In only 20 per cent does the life pump fail because of extensive destruction of heart muscle tissues.

* * *

Sigler Estate Suit Settled Out of Court

LANSING (AP) — A $100,000 suit against the estate of the late Gov. Kim Sigler has been settled out of court for a reported $23,000.

The suit was brought by the Central Trust Co. of Lansing, Administrators of the estates of John and Virginia Schuyler.

Sigler and the Schuylers were killed Nov. 30, 1953 when Sigler's plane struck a guy wire near Battle Creek.

The court action was started in behalf of the three Schuyler children, Judy Ann, then 12; Terry, 9, and Virginia Jean, 7. The suit said Sigler was negligent and contended that the children suffered financial loss through their parents' death.

Defendant in the case was Victor C. Anderson, Sigler's law partner who is acting as administrator of his estate.

The settlement was approved by Circuit Judge Louis E. Coash. Coash, acting probate judge, ordered the circuit court actions dismissed.

* * *

Robert Drake, probate court register, said records place the value of Sigler's real and personal property at $54,000, not including insurance and any property held jointly.

Gotham Property Value Equals 45 Pct. of State

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—About 45 per cent of the real estate value of New York state's 47,944 square miles is in the 359.4 square miles which make up New York City.

The State Board of Equalization and Assessment revealed today that of the $92,700,000,000 worth of taxable property in the state, $23,700,000,000 is in New York City and $29,000,000,000 is in the rest of the state.

Kay Albridge's Spouse Not to Contest Divorce

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — Wealthy oilman Arthur C. Cameron, 56, will drop his divorce cross complaint against former actress Kay Aldridge, 38, and allow her to obtain a decree by default.

Miss Aldridge will retain custody of their four children, with Cameron to have them during summer vacation. A proposed financial settlement will be submitted to the court Friday.

Inspired Kiss Drives Motorist Into a Tizzy

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A pharmacist who claimed he wrecked his auto when he became "inspired" and returned the kiss of his girl friend has been freed in a damage suit filed against him by the girl friend.

Judge Thomas M. Marshall refused a new trial to Mary Lyons, 29, of nearby McKeesport. She had charged Alex Wargo, Glassport, Pa., with negligent driving.

Wargo testified Miss Lyons kissed him while the car was moving and that he became "inspired" and responded in kind "for a period between 30 seconds and a minute" during which time his car hit a pole.

Los Angeles Brags Again —Now Third in Phones

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The city of Los Angeles, claiming to rank third in the nation in population, has a new boast today: third nationally in telephones.

* * *

* * *

Washington, D. C., has the most, 64.2 telephones per 100, followed by Atlantic City, 62.8 per 100, while Tuscaloosa, Ala., has the fewest, 20.4 per 100 residents, the survey showed.

Window Thief Draws Probation Sentence

Jay Richmond, 28, of Detroit, who pleaded guilty May 21 to stealing $500 in windows from an Independence Township contractor, was sentenced by Oakland County Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty.

Richmond was placed on probation for three years and ordered to pay $150 court costs.

NEW STATE UNIVERSITY — Wayne University in Detroit, with nearly 19,000 students, has joined the University of Michigan and Michigan State University as the third state university. Wayne's campus of 80 acres is located in the heart of the city's cultural center. The Detroit Public Library, Historical Museum, Institute of Arts and International Institute are within a two-block walk of the campus. Not pictured in the artist's drawing of Wayne's main campus is the College of Medicine campus of 16 acres located at the edge of downtown Detroit. Effective July 1, the University will be known as Wayne State University.

Aquarama Ends Maiden Voyage

MUSKEGON (AP)—Something new in Great Lakes excursions—the SS Aquarama—already is a success, judging by the enthusiasm of some 5,500 patrons on the vessel's three sorties over the weekend.

* * *

Her first "paying" voyage Saturday night—a five-hour junket past Grand Haven and return to Muskegon—christened Aquarama as a "happy ship."

A crowd of 1,899 passengers —600 under capacity—brought an infectious holiday spirit aboard, despite waiting on the dock for an hour while a last-minute docking arrangement was changed.

While waiting, most contented themselves with admiring the $8,000,000 queen, a former cargo vessel with 10,000 miles logged in ocean voyages during World War II.

STREAMLINED SHIP

Topped by a red and black "false" stack which encloses the navigating bridge and officers' quarters, the Aquarama is a series of streamlined white promenade decks and stainless steel fittings. A mist green hull holds other transport decks with space for 170 autos.

She is owned by Sand Products Corp. of Detroit and under charter to the Michigan-Ohio Navigation Co. Her new beauty is credited to George G. Scharp, naval architect, of New York.

* * *

Once aboard and under way only a glance over the side convinces the passenger that the rock-steady Aquama is a moving vessel.

* * *

On her first passenger cruise, however, few seemed to notice as excursionists surged in waves through Aquarama's lobby, lounges, bass, cafeteria, snack shop and dance decks.

* * *

Early boarders quickly took over spaces at the observation windows. Two elevators and a set of escalators kept the between-decks movement constant.

After 8 Days on Lizard Diet

2nd Prospector Rescued

MOAB, Utah (AP)—When a boat carrying two uranium prospectors capsized in the raging, muddy Colorado River, one of the men took off "over the rim" to the west.

The other, 43-year-old Charles L. Robinson of Hot Springs, Ark., elected to work alongthe river and eat berries to stay alive.

Instead of berries, he ate raw lizards and cactus, and he lost 42 pounds during his ordeal.

* * *

"Lizards taste a lot like dardines or tuna when a guy is good and hungry," he said as he recuperated in a Moab hospital.

* * *

Of his adventures, he commented:

"This was a stupid, idiotic thing . . . I was rescued alive only by a divine act of God.

"There is nothing heroic about going through there. Those rapids are fantastic. . . . You can't imagine how hot, precipitious the cliffs. . . .

"You can feel your neck and wrists getting skinny . . . That stuff about living a month in the forest with a knife is bunk. Not in this country. The lizards are too small. . . ."

Robinson declared he is going straight home to Hot Springs, Ark., "where there are trees and water. I've had enough of the Colorado."

Deputy Sheriff Bill Wells of Hanksville, known as Utah's "Flying Bishop," spotted Waelder from the air and rescued him.

Time—What's That?

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (INS) — Mrs. Nancy Arthusia Robery, 100, a pipe smoker since she was 18, was asked her secret for longevity and replied: "Oh, I don't know—have I lived so long?"

Liquid Miracle! No washday powder ever made can give you the concentrated washing power of new blue instant liquid Wisk

You will pour Wisk into your washer. It will get your family wash so clean and white that you will never use a powder detergent again!

LIQUID MIRACLE! Wisk washes clothes whiter than any powder ever made!

LIQUID MIRACLE! Wisk removes more stains than any powder ever made!

LIQUID MIRACLE! Wisk is safer, much safer, than any powder ever made!

New, blue WISK is completely different from anything you ever tried. In the first place, it is a liquid you pour into your washing machine. It goes to work instantly. No waiting for powders to dissolve.

But, more important, new WISK is concentrated. It does three times as much wash as the same amount of powder. And does it better, too. For it gives you a concentrated washing power unequaled by any powder. Besides, new WISK is safe for hands, safe for fabrics—safe as only a liquid can be.

MAKES ANY WASHER TURN OUT A CLEANER AND A WHITER FAMILY WASH

Never again need you find a gravy spot left in a just-washed napkin, or a lipstick stain in a hand towel, or a grease spot in a suit of coveralls. For concentrated liquid WISK penetrates deep down into cloth fibers in a way no powder can. Safely, but thoroughly, it pulls out stubborn stains, removes hidden dirt, gets everything clean.

And wait till you see what WISK does for shirt collars and cuffs! Without bluing or bleach, it gets white things up to three shades whiter with the first wash. In fact, WISK gets all your family wash so clean it even smells clean.

FIRST REALLY ALL-PURPOSE DETERGENT!

You will use WISK for just about every cleaning job in your home! It makes quick work of dishes: Soaks them clean. Concentrated WISK wipes grease off a stove or kitchen wall. It makes old, discolored linoleum look new. It gets yellowed kitchen cabinets white and shiny again.

WISK does the toughest jobs quicker, easier, more safely than products designed for these tasks. Now you can throw away those harsh and dangerous chemicals!

NO MORE MESSY, SNEEZY POWDERS!

And what a blessing WISK is. It does away with "washday hay fever"... with clumsy, soggy boxes... with messy powders that spill. And because WISK does so many jobs so well, you don't have to clutter your shelves with a box for this, a bottle for that, and all those packages a woman used to need.

WISK IS UNCONDITIONALLY GUARANTEED!

We've promised a good deal for WISK and we mean it. In fact, we guarantee it! If you don't agree WISK is the best detergent you ever used—not just as good, but BEST!—Lever Brothers will return the purchase price to you . . . plus postage!

GAMES FOR SUMMER — 3

Boxem

Just imagine that all animals you see here are side by side in a zoo where all the bars have fallen down. You must box them in as fast as possible before the tiger eats the rabbit, or the mouse scares the elephant.

The players should have pencils, and take turns drawing straight lines, one at a time, from dot to dot until all the animals are neatly boxed. Each time a player succeeds in boxing a square he puts his initials in it, and has another turn as a reward. The aim of the player must be not only to finish as many squares as possible, but also to prevent his opponent from finishing many. At the end, the player with most squares to his credit is the winner.

If you want to use this game again, lay a piece of fine paper over it, so that you can see through, and mark the lines and initials on that.

(For submitting this idea first, Kearney Howe, of Vermontville, Mich. wins $10. Send in your idea for Junior Editors care of this newspaper and it may win you $10. Violet Moore Higgins; AP Newsfeatures.)

Freeze-Drying Eye Bank May Prove Boon to Blind

CHICAGO (AP)—A revolutionary new kind of dry-storage eye bank is giving sight to 10 once-blinded humans, a physician said yesterday.

They are seeing the world again through borrowed corneas or "windows" of the human eye. But these corneas were first dehydrated and then stored very simply for weeks or months.

Present eye banks can keep corneas in good shape under refrigeration for only a few days before they deteriorate. Blind patients sometimes spend expensive hospital stays until corneas, donated from dead persons, can reach them to try to restore sight.

NEW METHOD

Untold thousands of persons in this country and over the world are blind simply because their own corneas in the front of the eye have been clouded, scarred or damaged by disease or accident. Other thousands appear willing to donate their own eyes after death to help these blind.

The new method takes the water out of the cornea tissue, permitting simple storage in a test-tube, under vacuum, for months. Corneas presumably could be shipped anywhere needed.

The new technique, still in research stage, was described to the American Medical Assn. by Dr. John H. King Jr., associate professor of opthalmology at Georgetown University Medical Center, Washington, D.C.

FREEZE DRYING

The dehydration method, without freezing, was developed in research at the Army Ocular Research Unit at Walter Reed Hospital, of which Dr. King was a member. He retired very recently as an Army Medical Corps colonel.

Freeze-drying can preserve corneas for up to nine months. But they must be kept cold, and specially packaged for movement.

Simple drying offers great advantages. The watery fluid in the corneas is driven out or replaced by glycerin. Just before use, the cornea is soaked in a special salt solution, with normal watery fluids replacing the glycerin.

• • •

Ten persons have been given the dried-eye windows during the last three years, said Dr. King, who performed many of the transplants. All the windows are still clear. Some had been preserved for nine months.

Child Fire-Walkers Unharmed in Flame Rite

By LLOYD MORGAN

IPOH, Malaya (INS) — Two pretty little Chinese girls, grasping the hands of a Taoist priest, stepped with him into a pit of red hot coals and walked uninjured to the other side.

* * *

They were child firewalkers, found only in Ipoh, the capital of Perak State. While adult firewalkers can be seen in Singapore and many parts of Malaya, a few Europeans have watched the boys and girls of Ipoh perform this mysterious rite.

This correspondent was the only European present when the two little girls and the priest stepped almost casually onto the glowing coals. Their feet disappeared into the embers which had been spread to a depth of 12 inches or more.

Unhurriedly they walked the 60 feet to the other side and stepped onto the hard bare ground.

FOOTPRINTS BLAZE

They had set up showers of sparks on their fiery crossing. Tongues of flame still played about the footprints they had left. Yet, their feet were unmarked and cool to the touch.

In a moment they turned about and recrossed the pit, making a fresh path. Again their feet were unmarked, and the two children showed no signs of pain.

Afterwards I saw 17 women and 30 men and boys walk or run across the stoked-up pit. Between crossings, stokers prodded the white and red embers with long rods and tossed in stacks of paper which flamed instantly.

A fat woman, built on the lines of a Japanese wrestler shrieked with laughter as she waddled ankle deep across.

NOT A SCORCH MARK

A few walkers were reluctant to step in. These the priests urged on with screams and cracks of a rope whip.

For two hours the walking continued. No one was harmed. I looked closely at the feet of half a dozen youngsters. There was not so much as a scorch mark.

I asked the priest for an explanation of his own and his followers' immunity from the fires of the pit. This is his story, told in perfect English:

AN EXPLANATION

"All who would walk across the pit of fire must first purify themselves in mind and body.

"The goddess of birth approves or rejects candidates for the pit crossing . . . those who are rejected have not abstained wholly from earthly pleasures in preparation for the ordeal. Faith alone protects those who are chosen. Once the goddess has approved the walkers no harm can befall them."

Beckoning a man and two boys to his side the priest pointed to big raw burns on their legs. The priest explained "they had burned themselves when passing lighted sticks about their bodies and limbs during the time of purification before the ceremonies."

"They did not have sufficient trust," he said, "they became frightened. They were reluctant to make the walk. But later they became reassured. The goddess said they should walk, and they did. Look at their legs and feet."

The leg burns were still raw but the feet of the man and the boys were unblemished.

Lost Raccoon Caught; Captors Still Puzzled

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP) — Two special agents battled and captured their prey on the ledge of a 10th floor office building in the downtown business district.

Then the two agents from the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals asked: "How did the raccoon get to the 10th floor of an office building?"

Man Pleads Guilty in Royal Oak Theft

Charged with stealing $110 from a house in Royal Oak last week, James Showers of no fixed address pleaded guilty at his arraignment in Oakland County Circuit Court.

Showers, who will be sentenced June 18 by Judge George B. Hartrick, was returned to jail under $2,000 bond.

Oil Tank Truck Awaits Arrival of Baby Robins

OSHAWA, Ont. (AP)—A huge oil tank-truck has been put in the garage to ensure the safe arrival of two baby robins.

* * *

Three eggs were laid 10 days ago in a nest on a towing hitch at the rear of the truck. They traveled the 260-mile route that driver Keith Moffat followed daily.

The mother robin, satisfied with the life of travel, became so tame that Moffat could stroke her head. But when the jolting of the truck broke one of the eggs, owner Harry Perry decided to put a spare vehicle on the run until the baby birds hatch. They are expected in about 10 days.

Meanwhile, the mother lets only Perry and Moffat approach the nest. If strangers come arond, she tries to lure them out of the garage.

With Two May Fatalities City Still Below '55 Pace

May counted two traffic fatalities in Pontiac.

The toll now stands at three deaths this year, two less than last year's record at this time.

A summary from the Pontiac Police Traffic and Safety Bureau shows that 34 injuries last month brings the total this year up to 234 persons injured in 491 non-fatal accidents.

The figures are slightly higher than during the first five months of 1955, when 217 persons were injured in 448 acci-

To date, 33 pedestrians have been injured and four bicyclists. Autos stuck trains six times, hit fixed objects 59 times and rolled over three times.

* * *

Say U.S. Servicemen Involved in Smuggling

MANILA (AP) — Philippine police charged today that American service personnel are involved in a smuggling ring with a Chinese jewelry. The Navy had no immediate comment.

The police said they nabbed the jeweler last night outside the U. S. Sangley Point Naval Base near Manila with $50,000 worth of assorted jewelry in a suitcase.

Police officials claimed the suitcase had arrived aboard a Navy plane from Hong Kong and that a U.S. Coast Guard employe had delivered it to the Chinese.

207,000 PEOPLE OUT OF WORK!

YOUR NEIGHBOR NEEDS YOUR BACKING NOW!

In nearly every block in most cities of this state, somebody is out of work. Right now, in Michigan, 207,000 people are unemployed. The automobile industry has announced additional cuts in production in the months ahead.* That means still more layoffs, not just in auto, but in supplier firms all over the state.

Already you can see the effects of unemployment just by looking around you. In Detroit, for example, about one out of every 11 workers is laid off. Conditions are almost that bad in many other communities. But statistics don't really tell the story. It's your friends and neighbors who are unemployed. What does unemployment mean to them?

It means that they are forced to get by on utterly inadequate unemployment compensation benefits, if they qualify for them at all. The average weekly unemployment compensation check in Michigan is just a few dimes more than $33. Imagine trying to keep your family going on $33 a week!

And remember this . . . after 26 weeks — often much sooner — even this check stops. Right now, in Michigan, more than 30,000 people have used up all their unemployment compensation benefits since the beginning of this year, either because they were out of work for more than 26 weeks or because they did not have even that much eligibility.

Each week, another 2,000 people lose their unemployment compensation because they have exhausted all the benefits they have coming under the present law.

These people are family breadwinners. What happens to them and their families when they no longer have any money coming in?

Many are forced to go on relief. This means a mounting relief burden on the communities where these people live . . . a mounting burden on your community.

Already in Michigan there are reports that foreclosures and evictions and repossessions are on the rise. Unless we act immediately, some of your friends and neighbors may lose their homes . . . their cars . . . the household equipment they are buying.

Obviously, something needs to be done promptly to meet this serious human problem.

U. S. NEWS and WORLD REPORT ON JUNE 8 SUMMED UP the SITUATION:

"Already, Detroit and her sister industrial cities are being hurt by the layoffs. Savings are being depleted. Evictions are increasing. Some workers buying homes are losing them.

"Cars, home appliances and TV sets purchased on credit are being repossessed, although some jobless workers are being permitted to keep these items on their promises to pay when they get back on a payroll again.

"Neighborhood merchants generally appear to be hard hit. So do dealers in new and used cars . . . Sales of home appliances and television sets are off."

A COMMUNITY CRISIS IS EVERYONE'S CONCERN!

Because unemployed workers get so little under the present law, they have little to spend with the butcher and the baker and the grocer, let alone the doctor and dentist.

Improving our unemployment compensation law is the first line of defense against the present down spiral in our economy. We'll have a crucial period for the next 90 days, till the automotive plants get busy with their model changeover. Providing a uniform duration of 39 weeks of unemployment compensation for all covered unemployed workers would carry them through this time of crisis.

Today, the Michigan Legislature starts a special session, principally to consider changes in Michigan's unemployment compensation laws. These changes could help your neighbor immediately by increasing the amount and duration of his unemployment compensation benefits right now. That's why it is so important that you act at once!

TODAY, WRITE OR WIRE YOUR STATE SENATOR OR STATE REPRESENTATIVE AT LANSING

You can do your part to help your unemployed neighbor by urging your state senator and your state representative to work and vote for an increase in the length and amount of unemployment compensation benefits.

If you don't know the names of the people who represent you in Lansing, just wire or write the State Legislature, Lansing, Mich. The more messages that come in, the more likely we are to get an adequate unemployment compensation law immediately . . . while the job crisis is still growing.

* The projected third quarter schedule calls for auto makers to produce at a rate 58 per cent under the production rate for the peak quarter last year.

 Home owners and local businesses pay the cost of city relief. (Detroit, for example, already has had to increase its relief appropriation). On the other hand, unemployment compensation is paid for entirely by industry.

As of June 1, there was over $340,000,000 in Michigan's unemployment compensation trust fund.

Reporter's Job Often Calls for Treachery

Invasion of Men's Bar Recalled With Guilt

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS)—To every reporter comes the day when, in the interests of headlines, he must act the heel.

* * *

Sometimes he must badger an already beaten soul for news.

Occasionally he must, heartlessly, tell a family of a tragedy. And frequently he must lie, straight-faced, to his best friend to protect an exclusive story.

Only one in 100 years, however, does he have an assignment like mine, the day I invaded a grand, olde, male, ale house named McSorley's.

* * *

No femme had every stepped foot in McSorley's and there remained. For a century, it had stood in masculine dignity—with a pot-bellied stove and a prestige and swinging doors closed to the world of skirts and girl-pitched voices.

CRASH THE JOINT!

Then on Feb. 17, 1954, just 100 years after old John McSorley of County Tyrone had built his haven of wood and brick and bliss, an editor said:

* * *

"Go down to McSorley's and crash the joint."

It was a cruel order for a female reporter who has never questioned the ban on women in press boxes and who always has felt that men deserve some solitude in this world, even of only on Wednesday nights.

But, as editors say, orders is orders; and at 12 noon, when the foam was high, I bounced through the swinging doors and stood there. Looking, to the startled assemblage of males at the bar, like a breath of cold air on a cold day.

It was several seconds before the habitues of McSorley's appeared to take it all in. They glared mildly at my stolid form and it was as if they were adding it up: "It's got yellow hair. Plus high-heeled shoes. Plus a skirt and earrings. This equals a woman."

The reaction started with a low rumble, as of a mass indigestion. It raised to a crescendo of murmurs of "Who let her in?" and finally reached a rather refined pitch of "Toss her out."

I stood my ground, unfeeling, and focused on the dim middle of the big barroom, where the stunned old men slumped helpless around the crackling stove. For five minuutes, no one made a move and only an occasional monotonous "Toss 'er out" rent the quiet.

In 10 minutes, one of the white-coated bartenders, an Irishman, approached me with his hands clasped. "Lady," he said hoarsely, and there were tears in his eyes, "will you please go home?"

It was touching, unbearable. I walked out 10 minutes, 50 seconds after entering, having set a world's record in McSorley's. And feeling I had set, also, a world's record in despicability.

It is now believed that McSorley's will be torn down from its old location on East Seventh street. There is sadness in the Bowery, at the thought.

But not so much in the Bowery as in me, still feeling like I snubbed out a cigarette on the Statute of Liberty.

Seventy-three per cent of the United States has been mapped by the Geological Survey.

Major cities of the U. S. have increased 3.8 per cent in population the past five years, suburban areas increased by about 27.8 per cent.

Rate of increase of the number of people in the U. S. is about 1.7 per cent per year, compared with the world average of 1.3 per cent.

Hoeft Pitches Tigers Back Into 5th Place, 8-1

BALTIMORE (AP)— Billy Hoeft, who led the Detroit Tiger Pitching Platoon last season with a record of 16 victories and seven defeats, shows every sign that he'll wind up at the top of the list again this year.

The 24-year-old southpaw from Oshkosh, Wis., scored his 7th triumph of the season last night in hurling the Tigers to a lopsided 8-1 victory over the Baltimore Orioles.

The win ended a three-game losing streak for Detroit and pulled the club back to fifth place in the American League stand ings, 18 percentage points in front of the Orioles.

Hoeft, who has dropped two decisions so far, scatered five singles and a pair of doubles and accounted for two of Detroit's 13 hits, one a double that scored two runs.

Al Kaline turned in a sparkling performance before his hometown crowd of 13,461, batting in two runs with two of his three singles in five appearances at the plate.

Detroit suffered a setback in the 8th inning when infielder Jim Brideweser and outfielder Bill Tuttle both raced after Hal Smith's looping fly into short centerfield. Both had to be helped off the field but their injuries were not reported serious.

Detroit started the scoring in the third inning, pushing two runs across after a throwing error by shortstop Willie Miranda. Brideweser started the inning by singling to center and moving to second on a sacrifice by Hoeft. Jack Phillips then hit deep to Miranda for a single and the Oriole shortstop threw wild to first, allowing Brideweser to come home.

Detroit put the game on ice in a wild 8th inning when Baltimore committed three errors, helping the Bengals to tally four unearned and two earned runs.

The Orioles ruined Hoeft's shut out in the 8th on the 3rd straight hit by Hoot Evers and a double by Bob Nieman.

Baltimore manager Paul Richards said he would start Billy Loes, former hurler for the Brooklyn Dodgers, in today's game against the Tigers. Paul Foytack (4-4) got the nod from Tiger manager Bucky Harris.

Loes, who has been troubled by a sore shoulder since spring training, was sold to Baltimore May 14 after he was waived out of the National League. He has an 0-1 record this season.

Pirates Back in 1st Place

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

One of those clubs in the National League race is prime for a pennant pushoff in this hectic month of June, but which one?

Pittsburgh? The Pirates are still hot, winning seven of the 12 games they've played this month. But so have the Cincinnati Redlegs.

Brooklyn? The world champions are looking real healthy, winning eight of 13 since June opened. But that's nothing compared to the Chicago Cubs. They've won nine of 12.

It's been a confused month so far. The lead has changed hands three times in 12 days. Pittsburgh has a half-game edge at the moment, after knocking the Redlegs into second with a 4-3 decision last night. And to give you some idea of just how close and screwy this race is, the Pirates have won only four of their last nine.

The Dodgers kept edging toward the top, banging St. Louis 6-4 and dropping the Cardinals, who have lost seven of 13 this month, to fourth. Chicago, hustling out of the cellar in its hot streak, knocked New York loose from sixth place by whacking the Giants 8-5.

Milwaukee, in first May 31, is a solid fifth at the moment. Losing its ninth in the last 12 in a 5-2 pasting by Philadelphia, the cellar dweller.

The American League race is easier to figure. The New York Yankees are 4½ games to the good after making it six out of six against the third-place Chicago White Sox 4-2. Runner-up Cleveland was beaten at Boston 9-7. Detroit beat Baltimore 8-1 to regain fifth from the Orioles and Kansas City broke out for six runs in the 15th inning to take Washington 9-3.

A pinch two-run homer by Jack Shepard and a followup two-run smack by Roberto Clemente hoisted the Pirates back into the lead. Both came in the fifth inning and Elroy Face relieved Buc ace Bob Friend at that point to three-hit the robust Redlegs until Nelson King came on to get the last two outs.

Andy Carey drove three Yankee runs home, with a home run and one of his two singles, while Whitey Ford kept the White Sox hitless until the seventh, when they bunched their four hits—all singles—for two runs. Ford, winning his eighth, struck out six.

Boston uncorked five runs in the seventh on Ted Williams' RBI double that tied it 5-all, a three-run homer by Ted Lepcio and a solo poke by Pete Daley. Williams, who had 3-for-4, lined his tying double into the left-field corner to cross up the shift. Early Wynn lost his third while Frank Sullivan won his fifth.

LEAGUE LEADERS AGAIN — The Pittsburgh Pirates whoop it up after regaining first place in the National League by beating the Cincinnati Redlegs, 4-3 last night. Left to right are manager Bobby Bragan, pitcher Nelson King who saved the game in the 9th, Roy Face, winning pitcher who relieved Bob Friend in the 5th, and homer hitting Roberte Clemente and Jack Shepard.

Cards Lead in All-Star Balloting

NEW YORK (AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals lead the field with four Redbirds on top in the balloting for the National League team for the 1956 All-Star baseball game at Washington July 10.

Red Schoendienst is the leader at second base with a 5,194-vote margin over Cincinnati's Johnny Temple. Ken Boyer has a 2,593-vote edge over Milwaukee's Eddie Mathews at third; Rip Repulski leads Philadelphia's Del Ennis by 807 for left field, and Stan Musial has a 4,692-vote lead over Milwaukee's Hank Aaron for right field.

Schoendienst has polled the most votes in the National League with 6,348 while Mickey Mantle, the New York Yankees' young slugger, is the over-all leader with an 8,635 count and a 7,970-vote edge over boston's Jim Piersall for the American League's centerfield position.

The voting, conducted by newspapers, radio stations and television stations and tabulated by the office of Commissioner Ford Frick, ends June 26.

Two Pontiac Men Get Conservation Posts

Donald Bego, 43 Delaware Street, has returned to his work as lifeguard at the Dodge 4 State Park and Robert H. Lake, 228 Florence Street, has accepted a position as ranger at the Pontiac Lake Recreation Area.

Conservation Department Director Gerald E. Eddy announced the moves today. Bego has been with the department since 1954.

Both are former Pontiac High School students.

Boys' Club Nine Seeks 2nd Victory

Second straight victory in the new campaign for Junior American Legion baseball honors is the target for tonight for Pontiac Boys' Club. The East Side outfit meets Birmingham Junior Legion at Washington Junior High field at 6 o'clock in a district contest.

Boys' Club defeated Clawson last Sunday 11-3 for its opening win.

Bob Reeves, southpaw, will go for the Pontiac club tonight. Fred Blakely is Birmingham manager Herb Kelly's choice for pitching duty. Birmingham lost its opener on Sunday to Berkley.

Hitters Feast in City Play

Girls Also Provide Distance Clouts in Softball Action

It was a profitable night for hitters Wednesday as Walled Lake Market, Richard's Tavern, North Side Auto Parts and GMC triumphed in City League softball games at Beaudette and North Side parks.

The winning teams amassed a combined total of 64 runs and 59 hits, including four home runs.

Walled Lake Market collected a dozen safeties to drub Oxbow Pavilion, 17-5, and Richard's Tavern made nine hits while trimming the North Side Merchants, 7-2, in men's National League games at Beaudette. A. E. Weiss pitched 6-hit ball for Richard's.

The girls provided all the long distance clouting in their league scraps at North Side in addition to scoring the most runs.

Margaret Liddy and Mary Lou Carruthers homered for North Side and Maxine Deel smacked a round-tripper for Michigan Bell as the Auto Parts team lambasted the opposition, 25-8. The winners collected 23 safe blows while Barbara Heflin was hurling a 3-hitter.

GMC walloped Gingellville, 15-6, with Billie Snell blasting a home run for the Coachers.

Mets Baseball Team Plans Two Workouts

Race Drivers Predict New Trotting Record

WESTBURY, N. Y. (AP) — Roosevelt Raceway drivers are predicting a world record for the mile and one quarter tomorrow night when 10 speedy trotters hook up in the $25,000 American trotting championship.

Foremost Ringmaster Horse Show Official

A familiar figure will be present when the 39th annual Detroit Horse Show opens a 5-day run on Wednesday, June 20, at the Bloomfield Open Hunt Club in Bloomfield Hills.

Clarence L. (Honey) Craven of Boston, Mass., one of America's foremost ringmasters, will preside over the Detroit show again this summer for the 28th consecutive year.

Craven, who uses a variety of colorful costumes in his jaunts around the country, owns a musician's card in order to blow his bugle at the numerous programs he governs.

Several of the nation's most skilled horsemen will again be on hand.

Charles and Wilson Dennehy of Lake Forest, Ill., are scheduled to make return appearances. Charles carried away a major share of honors in 1955 with Altmeister and Black Watch.

Also putting in a repeat appearance will be veteran horseman Max Bonham, D. R. (Bobby) Motch of Keeneland, Va., is expected to enter his talented stable in the 1956 competition and the August Busch stables from St. Louis, Mo., will bid for honors with able rider Robert Egan.

GM, Griffs Win

Pitchers' Day in Class A

Strong pitching highlighted Wednesday night's City Baseball League action as Griff's Grill and General Motors scored wins in Class A games at Wisner Field and Columbia-Joslyn's south diamond.

Bob Johnson hurled 5-hit ball to spark Griff's 4-1 conquest of Oliver Buick at Wisner. August Eichhorn also pitched a 5-hitter for the Buick club, but six errors, a passed ball and a timely double by Johnson proved his undoing.

GMC whitewashed the CIO, 6-0, for its 8th straight victory. Dick Goldsworthy and Chuck Gillis combined to toss a 3-hit shutout on the C-J field. Gillis, Waterford High School mound ace, hurled the last two innings.

The unbeaten Coachers supported Goldsworthy and Gillis with a 10-hit attack against Jim Wagner. Gene Cox and Judge Booker each garnered three safeties and catcher Wes Roberts added two.

Four Qualifiers for Olympics in Sailing Finals

MARION, Mass. (AP) — George O'Day of Dover will lead the four eastern qualifiers into the U.S. Olympic finals in monotype sailing starting tomorrow.

O'Day topped the scorers in the eastern eliminations which concluded yesterday on Buzzards Bay. He ran up 125½ points on two firsts, two seconds, a third and a fourth. He was allowed to discard his worst performance—a fifth in yesterday's final race.

CAGE DAYS ENDED — All-America basketball star, Robin Freeman, of Ohio State, was to leave the hospital in Cincinnati today where he was treated after suffering the loss of parts of two fingers on his left hand in a wood-chopping accident. "Basketball and dentistry is out, so I guess I'll have to be a lawyer," he said.

THE POWERHOUSE

By Jimmy Powers

Lloyd Mangrum is a lean, hard-bitten gent with a tooth-brush moustache, and gimlet eyes. He looks like a Mississippi riverboat card shark. Actually he is a cool competitor and a truly authentic war hero. He brought a tank onto Utah beach when you could hardly find sand to step on, on account of it was littered with all them there hot pieces of shrapnel.

Quite a lot of the shrapnel lodged in Lloyd Mangrum's skinny frame, his knee, and his elbow. A few divots were taken in his shoulder and backside.

He was given Purple Hearts and medals and came back to the U. S. In an unguarded moment he asked why everyone was making such a big fuss over another golfer who was doing his best to recover from a collision with an ordinary highway bus.

Mangrum is like that. Blunt, hard-boiled and honest. He maintains our applause and respect should go to men who fight and die under enemy fire.

He has to excuse his queasy stomach when he reads of how "brave" a man is who stands in the ring facing a pair of padded knuckles or who stands at the plate and "courageously" swings an ash bat at a flying horsehide.

Well, in the Saturday Evening Post, Mangrum has a literary gem entitled "I Say Pro Golf Isn't So Tough."

A GOLFER IS NO ATHLETE, SAYS OFFICER JOE

I must hide my copy and pray my pal, Officer Joe Bolton, the WPIX weatherman, doesn't read it. It will supply Joe with too much ammunition. It's bad enough now. Joe insists the greatest hoax ever perpetrated in the sports world is the silly idea that golfers are athletes.

"You take some pot-bellied manufacturer of sewer pipe, or an overstuffed stock broker (am I being redundant?), or some little squirt of an accountant and he will blandly tell you he is an athlete because he 'competes' in a blind bogey tournament, a kickers, or a terrific $1 Nassau somewhere.

"Look in your dictionary. The definition of an athlete is anyone trained to contend in exercises requiring physical agility, stamina, and often strength," said Officer Joe.

"Golf requires about as much agility as reaching for the last Martini on your host's tray. One of your contemporaries, Gordon Cobbledick of Cleveland, is my authority for the belief golf demands somewhat less stamina than a man needs to accompany his wife on a shopping expedition.

If strength were a requisite, Mike Souchak and Porky Oliver would always beat Sam Snead and Cary Middlecoff.

"Golf hasn't been termed 'pasture pool' for nothing. It calls for substantially the same qualities required of a billiard player—rhythm, timing and steady nerves.

"If golfers are athletes—so are pool players.

"If golfers qualify because they walk a 'grueling' 6,000 yards a round—so does the mailman, the wife who takes care of a half dozen kids and hangs up the washing, and the grass cutter in Central Park.

"The hard working lad who walks the subway tracks turns in more mileage in a month than a golfer does in a year. And how about the cop on the beat?"

U. S. Equestrians Trail

STOCKHOLM (INS)—It will take some super riding for the United States' Equestrian team to right itself in the Olympic tests.

On tap for today for the trailing American horsemen is the 22-mile cross country endurance test, and they don't figure to do too much better than they did in the dressage competition yesterday, first part of a three-day event.

The cross country course is regarded as one of the toughest ever in Olympic history.

The Americans, third in the three-day competition in the 1952 games, were charged with 500.0 penalty points.

Maj. Jonathan Burton of Berwyn, Ill., placed 47th while 19-year-old Frank Duffy of Birmingham, Mich., was 50th. To Walter G. Staley Jr., of Mexico, Mo., fell the dubious distinction of finishing last in a field of 56.

Britain's three riders totaled 313.2 points. Germany was second with 330.4, Sweden third with 346.4, Russia fourth with 359.2 and Switzerland 5th with 366.8.

Germany's Otto Rothe retained the individual leadership with 98.4 points.

Behind Rothe were Britain's Maj. Arthur Laurence Rook with 101.6 points, Klaus Wagner of Germany with 102.4 points and Lt. Col. Frank Weldon of Britain with 103.2 points.

Predict 280 Score in Open

Burkemo Fires 64 in Tuneup Round Tuesday

Middlecoff Rated One of Top Favorites in National Meet

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (INS)—Dr. Cary Middlecoff, the Memphis dentist who is rated as one of the favorites, predicted today that a 280 or 281 may be good enough to win the U. S. Open Golf Championship which begins tomorrow.

Middlecoff, a former champion, said the winning total could be higher in the event of "winds and rain."

Cary, and the rest of golf's top stars, planned final tuneups for the big test and there was almost universal disagreement with a statement by Ben Hogan that the Oak Hills Country Club course is an easy one.

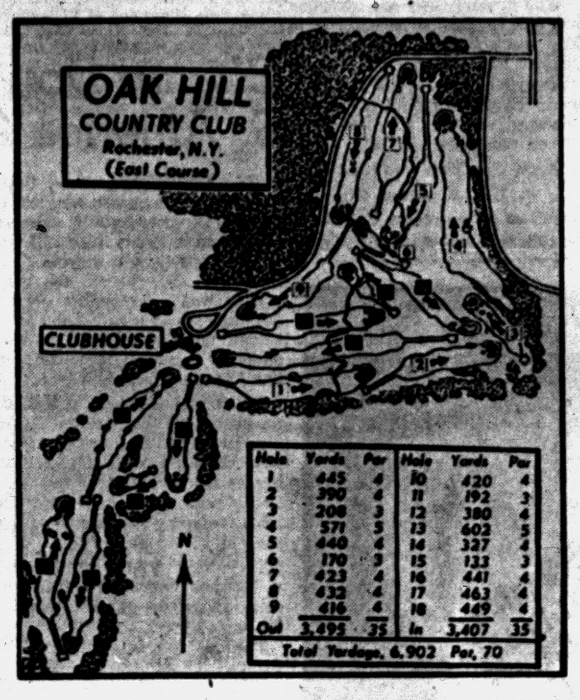

Middlecoff commented that "there are 162 players in the tournament. One hundred and sixty-one say the course is great. One says it isn't."

Middlecoff, one of the top threats to gain the title won last year by Jack Fleck of Davenport, Ia., had a practice round of "about par" yesterday, which is 35-35—70 for the open.

Burkemo, the pro from Franklin Hills who led Michigan and the nation in qualifying last week, continued his red hot pace by shooting a 6-under-par 64. Furgol carded a 67.

The day's biggest gallery followed a best ball practice scrap which paired Hogan and Master's champ Jack Burke against Mike Souchak and Shelley Mayfield. The Burke-Hogan team won both nines for a three-up margin.

56-Year-Old Senior Leads

NEW YORK (AP) — Franklin G. (Fritz) Clement of Lake Forest, Ill., held a one-shot lead today going into the second round of the U. S. Seniors Golf Tournament.

The 56-year-old Clement, who never has played in the tourney before, sports a plus-2 instead of the usual handicap and the rest of the seniors will have their hands full trying to catch him.

He fired a 36-37—73 over the Apawamis course yesterday. One stroke back going into the final 18 holes were Joe Wells, of Newell, W. Va., the 1949 champion; Jack Ahern of Hamburg, N. Y., and Roy Moore of Waterville, Maine, who lost in a playoff for the title last year.

NCAA Favorites Advance

OMAHA (AP)—Minnesota and Arizona, the pretourney favorites, will battle it out for the 1955 NCAA College World Series baseball championship.

They meet tonight at 6 p.m. CST in what could be the final game. Minnesota is 4-0 in the tourney and Arizona 3-1.

It will be their second meeting of the double elimination series. The first last Sunday went to Minnesota by a 3-1 score and a Gopher win tonight would end matters.

Minnesota advanced last night on an 8-3 win that eliminated Bradley. The Big 10 champions actually won the game with four first-inning runs, one on Darrell Cochran's homer and two on Gene Martin's triple.

Arizona eliminated Mississippi, 7-3, as Don Lee won his 15th straight game of the season. A home run by Lee and triples by Tom Tomooka and Don McGinnis were the big blows for the winners.

Women College Golfers Begin 12th Annual Meet

LAFAYETTE, Ind. (AP) — One-sided scores were in prospect today in the first round of the 12th annual Womens Collegiate Golf tournament on the basis of qualifying scores.

There was a spread of 10 or more points between the opponents' qualifying scores in six of the eight matches.

The qualifying totals in the championship bracket ranged from the 73s posted by co-medalists Marlene Stewart of Rollins College and Ann Quast of Washington up to the 88s of Florida's Patsy Reece and Arizona's Connie Caldwell.

Champ-Studded Field for PL Event

By H. GUY MOATS

Another of those hot, closely contested best-ball battles that have marked the Pine Lake CC Invitational series ever since its inception back in 1950 is apparent today, for the 1956 event.

Starting Thursday morning a Metropolitan Area's best amateur shotmakers will set off on a four-day round of action in the 7th annual tourney. Thursday is qualifying day, when the two-man teams will go 18 holes of medal play. Match play begins on Friday, with entries set down in a championship and other flights.

With probably only one exception all former champions will be in this year's field. Pat Sawyer, who teamed with Blaine Eynon for the tourney's 1st title, is now pro. However, Eynon will play with Dave McHarg, who was champion with Bruce Studebaker in 1952. Howie Nielson, champion with Glen Johnson in 1951 is paired this time with one of the recent U. S. Open qualifiers, Ed Ervasti. Ed is making his 1st try in the Pine Lake test.

Tom Draper, a recent contender for the French Amateur title, and a two-time champion at PL expected to return home in time to play with Perry Byard in defense of their 1955 crown. Draper was champion, with Bob Whiting, in 1953. Whiting teamed with Tony Skover in 1954 to win the title. All are expected to again be in the field.

Draper and Byard fired par and subpar golf at their opponents in last year's tourney, to grab the title. They qualified with a 4-under par 68, then rolled along without ever going over par figures. On the way to the top they eliminated Skover and Whiting, the '54 titlists. They were rated today among the top favorites for this test.

Championship will be settled Sunday afternoon, after continuing match play, Friday and Saturday. Play in all other flights will follow the same pattern.

Although the summer of 1955 was Novia Scotia's driest in 27 years, anglers reported catching 2,942 salmon. In 1953, a record year, 6,386 salmon were taken.

Ex-Notre Dame football tackle Wayne Edmons and guard Gene Martell have been signed to play pro football for the Pittsburgh Steelers club, starting in the 1956 season.

Champ Don Cagers Make S. America Goodwill Trip

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Uncle Sam's tallest ambassadors, one of them a skyscraping 6-10, take off Friday on a 55-day good-will trip to South and Central America.

* * *

They won't be taking formal evening attire but rather the basketball uniforms of the unbeaten national champion University of San Francisco Dons.

Coach Phil Woolpert and senior members of this year's NCAA championship team and some who were with the 1954-5 outfit are going at the invitation of the State Department to demonstrate the roles the sport and sportsmanship play in U. S. life.

Their visit comes shortly after a Russian basketball squad has demonstrated its game in many of the same areas.

NCAA regulations permit only seniors to make the trip. With Russell go Capt. K. C. Jones, Warren Baxter and Bill Bush of this year's club plus Bob Wiebusch, Stan Buchanan, Ray Healy and Don King from the previous season. Willie Naulls of UCLA also joins the group. Rudy Lopez, a City College of San Francisco player, goes along to act as an interpreter.

Jasper Gains Split Decision

System Giving Score After Each Round Is Used in Windsor

WINDSOR, Ont. (AP)—The fans, the fighters and the officials all had a different opinion today about a scoring system that lets everyone in on the score at the end of eachr ound.

By almost a five to one margin, those among the 954 patrons who attended a pair of heavyweight contests here last night voted in favor of the system. Officials called it everything from "senseless" to a "really good thing for boxing."

To the fighters themselves, it didn't seem to matter.

For the record, Don Jasper, former Duluth railroad worker now fighting out of Detroit, won a split 10-round decision over Gene White of St. Paul, and George (King) Moore, former AAU champion, won a unanimous 10-round verdict over Marty Marshall. Both Moore and Marshall are from Detroit.

* * *

In the altered preliminary card, Len Richards, 180, of Van Dyke, won a split decision in four rounds from Ray Griggs, 180, Detroit, and Chuck Craig, a Toledo boy fighting out of Monroe, drew with Leffie Walker of Saginaw. Craig, who has had only four professional bouts, weighed 162. Walker weighed 160.

The crowd of 954 paid $1,695.

Good Turnout for 'Y' Track

Former PHS Stars in First Practice Session; Meet Thursday

With the 2nd workout of the season for the newly formed YMCA track and field squad set for Wisner field Thursday night, 'Y' officials today hoped for an even bigger turnout Thursday. Drills run from 6 to 7:30 p.m.

About 15, including former PHS stars, along with a number from nearby communities, took part in Monday's 1st drill. Workout consisted principally of easy conditioning practice. Work and other affairs have kept the complete squad from being together at one time. There are 28 signed altogether.

Among those working out Monday were former Chiefs' ace gridder and sprinter, Walt Beach, only recently returned from Germany, where he competed in army sports. Walt is a 9.6 second century, 21.5 second 220-yard man, Alonzo Harris, another ex-Chief star sprinter (9.9 and 21.7); Bill Douglas of this year's state championship track team (1.59.9 for the 880); Russ Gabler of Milford (4:19 mile, 1:58.0 half mile, 9:25.0 for 2 mile), and George Johnson of the 1951 unbeaten PHS Cross-Country team.

Plans are being made to appear in the Aug. 4-5 Detroit Police Field day at Detroit, plus other events dur ingthe summer.

Press 'Derby' Begins June 16

By H. GUY MOATS

Pontiac Press "big fish derby," an annual piscatorial event of many years standing, gets under way on Saturday with the official start of Michigan's bass fishing season. This date (start of the bass season) has always signalized beginning of the "derby," for which lucky anglers will receive rewards of United States $50 savings bonds.

"Derby" ends on Labor Day. This date also has been the traditional conclusion of the three-way fishing contest that has produced some exceptional specimens.

Divisions for the contest are:

Black bass — both large and smallmouth being classed in the same division (some of the derby's biggest entries have been smallmouth bass).

Bluegill—there has never been a year in which the top fish did not hit better than a pound.

There are no changes in regulations.

1—All entries must be from FULL-TIME residents of Oakland County. Summer residents or other part-time residents are not eligible. Employes of this newspaper and their families also are excluded.

2—All fish must be taken in Oakland County waters, by hook and line. Weight only to count in the contest.

* * *

3—Entries must be brought to the Pontiac Press sports department for weighing, measurement and photographing. Where it is impossible to bring in entry immediately weight slips, signed by the weigher (may be weighed on any regular approved, inspected store or market scales), by the fisherman taking the fish and by at least one disinterested person.

4—Any fish cleaned prior to entry, is excluded.

* * *

The 1955 winners: Ray W. Reed of Pontiac, bluegill (one pound, one ounce); bass, James N. Shivas, Walled Lake (22 inch, 5 pounds 12 ounces), and pike, Willard Kennedy, Pontiac (7 pounds 9 ounces).

A FISHERMAN'S DREAM — This is enough to make any fisherman drool. It's a 30½ pound bull striper caught by Ronald E. Tobias (holding fish) of South Boston, Mass. He hooked the fish in Cape Cod Canal in Bournedale, Mass. Admiring the catch is Les Hebblethwaite a nearby fisherman. Tobias used herring for bait.

Bass Fishermen Mark Time for Saturday Opening Day

By JACK PATTERSON
Pontiac Press Outdoors Writer

June 16 looms up as a big day in the lives of fishermen who are too lazy to work for trout and too sophisticated to get a boot out of pan fishing. It marks the opening of the bass season.

PATTERSON

Such fishermen have a point, too, because black bass, largest of our local sunfishes, are usually willing to tangle with any and all comers. Surly by nature, strong of fin and wind, bass can be counted on to put up a first-rate performance at the end of a line.

While record bass don't, unfortunately, make their home in Michigan waters, the fish do get big enough to make life interesting. More important, there are lots of them. It's probably safe to say that except for the TVA impoundments, the Florida lake region and a few other relatively local areas, the bass fisherman in Michigan is about as well located as he could be.

Both large and smallmouth, bass are distributed throughout the state. The largemouth likes soft bottoms, lily pads, weeds; can stand very warm water, abounds in southern Michigan lakes. And generally gets bigger than his cousin.

The smallmouth prefers clear, cooler water, likes sand bottoms, rocks and doesn't have much use for weeds other than bulrushes. Plentiful in local sandy, spring-fed lakes, and some streams, smallmouths are perhaps best fished for in the Great Lakes.

From the Detroit River, up through Lake St. Clair, around the Thumb, all the way up the east coast, around the islands in northern lake Huron and Lake Michigan and down the west coast there are prime smallmouth grounds. Sand, offshore rock ledges and reefs, are the things to look for.

Trout fishing, which has been on a day-to-day basis, depending on you-know-what, has taken a real turn for the better the last few days. The Jim Jenkins', who took their four boys up on the Rifle the other day may take exception to this, because they found poor fishing, but that was a case of "you should have been here tomorrow."

Canadian trout fishing holds steady and good, with black flies just beginning to organize their legions for a late June attack. Recently returned from Kwagama Lake are Ben Jerome Jr., Dr. Felix Kemp, Marvin McInally and Dr. Joseph Gadbaw of Farmington. Good fishing was the rule according to this group.

* * *

Kwagama Lake is well known to a number of local fishermen, and stay-at-homes like Bob Eldred and Howard Huttonlocher will be happy to know that Eber Roberts, who runs the camp there, is as independent as ever.

Another group just back from Mashagama Lake, north of Thessalon, includes Dr. Bruce Hubbard, Dr. Don Bergeron and Ralph Austin. They found the fishing for specs very good.

Weekend prediction: For bass openers fair to good; many fist still on spawning beds, hence shallow fishing should be the rule. Outlook for trout fishing excellent in major northern streams.

One of Nature's Little Tragedies

One of those little tragedies of nature that are seldom witnessed by humans, interested a number of passersby on Birmingham's main thoroughfare the other day.

A pair of small sparrows had set up housekeeping in an awning cover above the entrance to a Woodward avenue store. Four eggs had hatched and a quartet of hungry little sparrows were scrambling about the nest. One of the sparseley feathered birdlets toppled over the edge and died in the fall to the sidewalk.

VFW, Lakeland 9's Waterford Winners

The VFW and Lakeland Pharmacy were victorious in Waterford League softball games last night at Drayton Plains.

Third baseman Jerry O'Shaughnessy and pitcher Jerry Thomas led the VFW to a 4-3 decision over Emmanuel Baptist in the opener.

O'Shaughnessy made three hits in three trips to the plate, stole three bases including home, and scored the eventual winning run in the 5th inning on a wild pitch by "Whimpy" Johnson. Thomas hurled a 5-hitter for the VFW.

Don Herr twirled a 7-hit shutout as Lakeland Pharmacy defeated Gidley Electric, 3-0. The winners tallied all of their runs in the 5th inning on two walks, a single, wild pitch, outfield fly, error and passed ball.

Two Hold 'Key' to Belmont Test

Needles, Career Boy Top Field of Eight for Rich Stakes Race

NEW YORK (AP) — Two tardy horses, Needles and Career Boy, apparently hold the key to success or failure in the 88th running of the famous Belmont Stakes Saturday. That seemed to be the general impression today as a field of about eight shaped up for the $100,000 gallop for 3-year-olds.

Needles, the Florida-bred pride of Bonnie Heath and Jack Dudley, and C. V. Whitney's Career Boy, usually lay so far back off the pace that they seem to be in another race.

In the 17-horse Kentucky Derby field May 5, Needles came from 16th to run down the Calumet Farm's Fabius with a brilliant stretch dash. Career Boy, recovering from a foot injury, moved up from 15th, finishing sixth.

Two weeks later Fabius held off the late rush of Needles, and won the Preakness, a race Career Boy skipped. The Derby is a mile and a quarter, the Preakness distance a mile and three-sixteenths.

Recreation Starts at Waterford

Tell Leisure Time Plans for Residents

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — The Recreation Department here announces its summer plans for township residents leisure time enjoyment.

Particularly focusing attention on youth activity, the summer activities will include swimming instruction, playground programs, day camping, softball leagues and social clubs.

"We feel a responsibility of helping parent answer the question asked frequently by children following the close of school of "What can I Do?" said states recreation superintendent, Tom Belton.

"With this in mind," continues Belton, "plus the realization that children's abundance of leisure time in the summer can be put to either a beneficial or harmful use, we are planning activities best suited for our youths' enjoyment and health while keeping within the limits of our finances."

Activities are planned so they will not be in competition with the children's leisure time. Swimming instruction will begin June 18, at designated beaches in Waterford. Playground programs will be conducted beginning June 25 at six elementary school grounds, while the day camp will run the last five weeks of summer vacation.

A twilight, little and junior softball league will be in operation through most of the summer.

Boys and girls who are interested and can meet the age requirements will have an opportunity for participation in all of these programs during the summer months at little or no cost.

PLANNED WITH PURPOSE

"All activities are planned with the purpose of helping people realize the most possible from their leisure time in terms of fun, and growth. All recreation staff members are qualified for their position and programs are designed not only for individual enjoyment but for education in an informal fun atmosphere," concludes Belton.

Recreation booklets describing these activities in detail were distributed through the schools and other organizations the first week of June. Additional booklets may be obtained at the recreation office, in the Community Activities Building on Williams Lake Road.

SWIM INSTRUCTION MONDAY

Classes for swim instruction for beginners and advanced swimmers will begin at six lakes in Waterford Township next week.

Registration is open to all youngsters seven years and older, with special adult classes being conducted Saturdays.

Youngsters and adults desirous of registrating for instructions should select the lake and beach nearest their homes. Registration may be made at the beach during the first lesson. Registration fee is $2.25 for fourteen lessons.

"It is hoped this year's registration will exceed last year's total of 600 people," said Belton. We are fortunate in having our last year's instructional staff return for this summer. They are highly qualified instructors and with last year's fine experience, should be even more effective this year."

The beach location and time of first class will be as follows:

CRESCENT LAKE—Highland Civic Assoc., 4050 Elizabeth Lake Road, Pontiac (norts side of lake) Monday, June 18 at 1 p.m.

ELIZABETH LAKE—Family Beach, 4290 Cass-Elizabeth Lake Rd., Pontiac, (south side of lake) Monday, June 18 at 9 a.m.

WATKINS LAKE—Watkins Lake Assoc., 4671 Forest Ave., Pontiac (M 59) to Forest, (west side of lake) Tuesday, June 19 at 9 a.m.

LOTUS LAKE—Williams Lake Rd. to Maceday Drive, north of Lotus Drive to Mountain View Beach Association, Wednesday, une 20 at 9 a. m.

Special Adult Class will be Saturday, June 23 at 9 a.m.

Area Pre-Dental Man Sails for Adventure

ROYAL OAK (AP) — Victor E. Nelson Jr. learned to follow the directions in a cookbook and now he's going to follow the sun around the world aboard a full-rigged sailing ship.

Victor, a 21-year-old pre-dental senior at the University of Michigan, has hired on a cook aboard the brigatine Yankee, which will set sail in November on its seventh annual globe-circling voyage.

The Yankee will carry 23 adventure lovers who will pay $4,800 each for the trip. Victor will earn his way with pots and skillets in the ship's galley.

The idea for the trip was born when Victor's brother, John, returned from last year's 40,000-mile cruise. With him he brought a fascinating array of souvenirs and equally fascinating tales of adventure. Tales of New Hebrides natives who dive onto land from great heights, the huge turtles of the Galapagos Islands, the comely maids of Tahiti, temple dancers in Siam and Bankok, calm and stormy nights in the vastness of the Pacific, the glow of phosphorus in blue-green waters.

Victor, eager for adventure but short on funds, decided to become a cook so he could work his way on the Yanke.

Today, after months of practice, he's an accomplished chef, good enough, at least, in the eyes of the Yankee's skipper, Cmdr. Irving M. Johnson, author, lecturer and veteran sailor.

Victor, son of Dr. and Mrs. Victor Nelson of Royal Oak, will leave this month for Gloucester, Mass., home port of the Yankee, Girl Scouts on summer cruises.

For Victor there are certain shortcomings in the trip. For one thing, he'll have to postpone his dental training for a year. As a member of the crew he'll rate a bank in the bow of the Yankee where the pitching is the greatest. And, of course, he'll be turning to in the galley while others are at leisure. On the stormiest of days he'll be expected to turn out palatable meals.

But the promise of adventure, the thrill of watching the bow of a sturdy two-master cutting a clean wake in the sea, strange new sights in faraway lands—these are the stuff that memories are made of, well worth a year of any man's life.

Ask Extra Coverage for Crash Victims

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP) — The National Assn. of Mutual Insurance Agents (NAMIA) has recommended that standard automobile insurance policies provide protection for owners of cars whose occupants suffer injury in collisions with uninsured motorists.

A resolution adopted at the NAMIA's mid-year meeting urged that the uninsured motorist endorsement, now provided by Mutual companies in New York State only, be made part of standard auto insurance policies.

City Okays Purchase of Land for Runway

The City Commission last night approved the lease for a hangar and formalized payment for a 40-acre land parcel at Pontiac Municipal Airport.

The lease was approved for a single-plane hangar to be built by Marshall Wells, of Detroit.

A payment of $46,000 was approved by the commissioners to Carlos Richardson for the purchase of the land in Waterford Township needed for the expansion of the east-west runway at the local field.

The transaction had previously been approved on a land contract but the Federal Government required a copy of a one-payment deed and photostat of the check.

Bicycle Theft Wave Brings City Warning

A series of bicycle thefts occupied Pontiac police yesterday, causing juvenile officers to urge owners to keep their bicycles locked when not in use.

Two boys' bikes were reported stolen from the grounds of the Elks Temple, where a c arnival opened yesterday.

Another was stolen in the afternoon from a rack at Crofoot School, police said, while a fourth was reported taken from in front of a store at 263 Auburn Ave. at noon.

Boy, Girl Awarded Keego High Prizes

Sue, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Zimmerman, 2227 Maddy Lane, was president this year of the school's student council and of the Wayne-Oakland League council. She was among those who worked for an exchange student for the school for the coming year.

In the glee club, Triple Trio and the student council four years each, she was also in the a cappella choir and on the annual staff a year.

Pete is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David Bege, 4300 Orchard Lake Rd., and was valedictorian.

He has been the class treasurer for two years, president of the a cappella choir, and co-editor of the annual staff. Pete was in cross country, glee club on the track team.

Defense Witnesses Testifying at Trial

Defense witnesses began testifying yesterday in the malpractice suit filed against two local doctors by relatives of a Pontiac woman who died after the doctors reportedly removed her only kidney under the impression it was a tumor.

Motions for dismissal of the case offered by defense attorney H. A. Desenberg of Detroit were denied yesterday by Oakland County Circuit Judge H. Russel Holland.

Dr. William Heitsch of Lapeer, a Pontiac General Hospital staff member who was consulted by Doctors A. J. Zujko and Wilfred Green during the operation, testified for the defense.

Dr. Heitsch said in his opinion the operation was conducted in accordance with the usual standards of practice in Pontiac. He said five doctors were present when the kidney was removed from Mrs. Yvonne Pilgrim, 20, of 13 Crawford St.

Generosity Brings Trip After Senior Class at Merrill Helps Buddy

MERRILL (AP) — At Merrill High School, the senior class has given a lesson that the whole town will remember. When one of their classmates, William J. Knapper Jr., 17, was killed in a traffic accident last October, the class remembered that he was the sole support of his family.

* * *

* * *

Their elders, impressed by this act of giving, held a fish fry to raise funds to send the class on a three day cruise. Then Milton Boersma of Ann Arbor, head of Boersma Youth Travel, heard the story.

Boersma's agency, which organized the trip, and E. J. Goebel of of the Georgian Bay Lines, gave the class a check for $1,038 — the cost of the trip.

As a result the senior class found it had a total of $1,360 left over. They began giving again. Knapper's sister, Carol, got a $500 college scholarship. The school gymnasium got a new $400 score board The remaining $460 was split evenly between the Cerebral Palsy Assn. and the Saginaw local cancer clinic.

MACHINE MAID — "Edith," the mechanical monster is star of the forthcoming performance by the Township Players, set for 8:30 p.m. Saturday night at West Bloomfield High School Auditorium. In "back-stage" bit, Robert Thompson cringes as Dorothy McArthur threatens him with a monkey wrench. In the play, Thompson is murdered with the wrench by "Edith." Tickets for the performance are still available, and may be secured at the door. Refreshments will follow the performance of the story of the machine, as well as two other one-act plays.

Ivan's a Wolf— So Russian Gals Shun Sex Appeal

LONDON (INS) — Do Russia's drab and tank-shaped girls look that way on purpose?

Yes, says Russian-speaking Olga Franklin in her London Daily Sketch column today, because they don't have to take the trouble to attract men the way British and American girls do.

Baby Locks Self in Clothes Dryer

2-Year-Old Crawls Into Washing Machine but Dad Comes to Rescue

Randy was dozy for a few seconds. Then he became alarmed and started shouting. But no one heard the muffled shouts.

About a half hour later, his father, Don Green, noted that Randy was not in sight and began looking.

Randy was rescued in the nick of time. He was out of breath but otherwise unharmed.

Thankful that the machine didn't turn on, the father said that as a precaution from now on he will keep the master switch pulled to be sure it won't be operating if Randy crawls in again.

Green said that closing the door doesn't start his dryer operating. But he added, "Somebody might have turned it on."

Postpone Trial of MMPA Today

ROMEO—The lawsuit involving Michigan Milk Producers Assn. directors and Harold H. Fritz, president of the Romeo Local of MMPA, struck an unexpected snag yesterday.

Trial was scheduled to begin at 10 a.m. today in Wayne County Circuit Court, Detroit, but additional preliminary hearings have caused a two to three day postponement.

Hubbard to Run for Circuit Judge

Seeks Better Paying Job but Will Go for Mayor if He Loses in County

DEARBORN (AP) — Mayor Orville Hubbard who will rate a whopping salary increase if re-elected next year, says he's going to make another try at election to the Circuit Court.

* * *

Hubbard, an unsuccessful candidate for judge in 1954, said last night he would run for Circuit Judge in Wayne County.

A circuit judgeship pays $35,000 a year. If Hubbard wins re-election to his ninth term as mayor he'll collect a $17,500 yearly.

Dearborn taxpayers voted to boost the mayor's salary from $6,500 to $17,500 in an election Monday while turning down increases for nine other city officials.

Hubbard, an outspoken advocate of racial segregation, said he did not believe the vote was a reflection of his stand on segregation.

"I think it was an expression of confidence," he said. "I'm a lawyer but I don't practice. I devote full-time to this job."

* * *

He indicated he probably would run for mayor next year if he fails in his bid for the Circuit Court.

Book Club Slates 'Drama Day' at Waterford

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — The Book Review Club will meet Monday, at the home of Mrs. Paul Herbst, 2913 Landsdowne street.

Mrs. Leland Bunyan is in charge of the program, announced as "Drama Day." Mrs. William A. Shunck will be cohostess.

Township residents interested in books are invited to attend.

Fire Bug Committed

ADRIAN (AP) — A 23-year-old Adrian man who admitted setting 11 fires in this area has been committed to the Ionia State Hospital. Circuit Judge Rex Martin ordered the commitment of Selmar M. Purnell after ruling him insane at a sanity hearing Tuesday. Among fires Purnell admitted starting were a $70,000 blaze at the Lenawee Country Club and a $35,000 fire at the American Legion Home last year.

Ancestral Home of Cal Coolidge Given to Vermont

MONTPELIER, Vt. (AP) — The state of Vermont has taken over the white clapboard house where the late Calvin Coolidge was sworn in as President of the United States by his father.

The property was given to the state by John Coolidge, son of the former President, and his wife, Florence, daughter of former Gov. Trumbull of Connecticut.

The Vermont Historical Sites Commission said the first floor of the house in Plymouth Village will be made into a Coolidge museum. An apartment will be built on the upper floor, for Aurora M. Pierce, housekeeper for the Coolidge family for 48 years.

Lake Orion Archers Schedule 'Fun Shoot'

LAKE ORION—The Lake Orion Archery Club will sponsor a "Fun Shoot" Thursday at 7:30 p.m., at 27 S. Broadway. A committee of six will devise targets with unknown values for scoring.

* * *

Prizes will be offered anyone interested may attend. Refreshments will also be served.

* * *

Summer tournaments will begin July 1 at the club room. Anyone interested in this or learning archery should visit the club room on Tuesday or Thursday nights from 7:30 on or call Mrs. Arthur Stone, MY 3-2842.

LAPEER—Prayer service for Joseph Edward, the two and one-half months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Edward Sr., 3017 Imlay City Rd., was to be held today at 3 p.m., at the residence. Burial will be in Mt. Loretto Cemetery. The baby died Monday at University Hospital, Ann Arbor.

He is survived by his parents; two sisters, Linda, and Kathleen; his grandparents, Mrs Evelyn Butler, Royal Oak and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Belanger, Emmett.

Reroute M-90 While Blacktop Is Begun

NORTH BRANCH — State highway engineers are preparing the section of M-90 from the east village limits to M-53 for a black-top surfacing job.

This opens a new thoroughfare from the curve of M-90, four miles east, two miles further, to M-53.

Red Cross Heads Return

Rev. Hamm reports that the keynote of the conference, concerning regional planning for chapters and the necessity for mutual aid between chapters due to the changing American community, was particularly valuable to the Red Cross program in Oakland County.

BUILDS AT 81 — Although he'll be 82 years old in July, this does not stop Howard Hillman, former Springfield Township Supervisor, from appreciating a busy, purposeful life. During the past year Hillman helped to build his new home (pictured above). He put on the siding and built all his cupboards, lining the clothes closets with cedar. In addition, the busy octogenarian has built 37 solid oak, walnut and cherry dining room chairs. Included were three sets for his grandchildren and two sets for his daughters-in-law. Recently he completed a beautiful, modern desk for his daughter, Mrs. Martin Parker of Pontiac. He also built the pulpit and chairs for the Community Bible Church at Davisburg. At his new home, located at 8071 Marquoit, Davisburg, Hillman is raising a large garden this year, including 625 sets of sweet onions and 395 strawberry plants. He's also trying his hand at sweet potatoes, starting with 50 plants which were given to him. Neighbors helped him to prepare the land for his garden. Hillman, who was Springfield's supervisor for 23 years, also served as road commissioner of the township for almost six years.

Cherry Producers Meet

The annual meeting of the Michigan Assn. of Cherry Producers will be held June 25 at Ludington when prospects for the 1956 crop will be discussed further and new directors and officers are elected. Roy Ostlund of Traverse City is among the directors whose terms expire.

Avondale OKs Increases

AVON TOWNSHIP —Voters in Avondale School District, in a record high vote of 599 yesterday, passed an $850,000 bond issue and approved a three mill increase.

On the request for a two mill increase to finance the $350,000 bond issue for added school rooms, voters approved, 335 to 254.

Proposed additions in the district school building program include classrooms for Avondale High and Avondale Junior High Schools and also for Stiles and Stone Elementary Schools.

The three mill operational increase, passed by a 331-268 vote, will provide funds for expenses such as teachers' salaries and building maintenance.

According to Supt. Raymond Baker, Avondale's 1956 school tax was estimated at 19 mills as compared with a 28.6 mill levy in 1955. The increase now sets the '56 rate at approximately 24 mills.

The reason, he says, for the drop in taxes this year is the retiring of the bonded debt on Avondale High.

Baker pointed out also that the district will gain an extra $38,000 in operating expense from the state under the Distressed School Act through the voters' approval of the increases.

Rhonda Fleming to Play in 'Buster Keaton Story'

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — The very first appearance Rhonda Fleming has made since she and Dr. Lew Morrill parted company was at the Spike Jones gay opening at the Moulin Rouge. Her escort was Alan Chase, a non-professional, good looking, man-about-town, whom she has known for a long time.

Rhonda says she is playing the movie star in "The Buster Keaton Story" opposite Donald O'Connor. She'll be seen as a real oldtime glamor gal with the leopard skin rug, beaded eyelashes and all the trimmings.

When "What Makes Sammy Run?," the Budd Schulberg novel about Hollywood, reaches the screen it will have a parade of academy award winning stars. This, Freddie Finklehoffe, the producer, told me at the Judy Garland dinner.

Said Freddie: "I've started negotiations for Ernie Borgnine and Jack Lemmon, last year's Oscar winners. I've also talked with Mercedes McCambridge, who won an award for 'All the King's Men,' and to Paul Lucas, who won honors for 'Watch on the Rhine'."

In Ruth Waterbury's travels in Europe she visited the set of "Notre Dame of Paris" in Paris and talked with both Gina Lollobrigida and Anthony Quinn.

Gina told Ruth that she and her husband, Dr. Skovic, own 50 per cent of "The Most Beautiful Woman in the World," which Howard Hughes has bought for U. S. distribution, and that they have earned enough from this one picture to be financially secure for life.

When asked if Sophia Loren worried her, Gina replied with a smile, "Oh, let her have all the good publicity. All I want is all the good parts!"

There had been a little trouble, a misunderstanding, shall we say, between the Fords, but now it looks as if their troubles have been bridged over, which is as it should be.

They have been married for many years, have a wonderful son, and it would be too bad if two such nice people decide to break up. Once, a long time ago, there was talk of a separation, but of late I thought they seemed closer than ever.

Jersey Boa Constrictor Sneaks Off for a Change

* * *

When Conrad came up missing, Hofmann, a student of reptilian habits, decided he must have sneaked away to shed its skin.

A likely place for the undertaking, Hofmann thought, was the deeper recesses of the flooring where Conrad normally lay near an opening.

So he tore up sections of the floor and there was Conrad, only half shed and a sorry sight.

* * *

The Hofmanns were so happy to see Conrad all they could think of was a good meal for their pet—and no scolding.

Mazey Demands Dem Stand on Race Issue

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — A top official of the United Auto Workers wants organized labor to help draw up a civil rights plank that would drive Southern advocates of racial segregation from the Democratic party.

* * *

Emil Mazey, UAW secretary-treasurer, addressing the annual Michigan CIO Convention yesterday, said, "The Democrats can't have us and the solid South too...

He criticized Republican and Democratic leaders whom he said are reluctant to oppose politicians who are blocking moves toward integration in Southern schools.

"At the Democratic convention I hope we can mobilize sufficient strength to get a civil rights plank that will drive the Eastlands and Talmadges out of the Democratic party," he said. "Let the Republicans have them. Let's have a Democratic party based on a liberal, progressive program."

Mom Congrats Daughter, 17, —a Stowaway

PALO ALTO, Calif. (AP) — How would you react if suddenly informed: Your daughter is on a ship nearing Honolulu, and apparently a stowaway?

* * *

Mrs. Nadine L. Damon radioed 17-year-old Joan: "Fare paid. Graduation present. Have fun."

And she told reporters:

"I applaud her deep down if she actually did stow away. I've wanted to do that all my life."

* * *

Joan and Dudley Taylor, also 17, were discovered on the Lurline after it departed from San Francisco Friday. Ship's officers didn't make it clear whether the youngsters stowed away, or simply failed to heed "all ashore" warnings.

* * *

The Lurline reaches Honolulu today.

Salmon Facing 'Loss of Home'

British Columbia River Seen as Future Source of Cheap Electricity

VANCOUVER, B. C. (AP) — The roaring 700-mile Fraser River is the source of 70 per cent of British Columbia's 50-million-dollar annual salmon fishing industry.

But some industrialists say bigger price tags can be put on the churning waters of the Fraser, which tumble more than 5,000 feet from the Rocky Mountain snowfields to the sea.

* * *

They see the Fraser as a potential source of more than 10 million horsepower in cheap electricity which could be the key to a multibillion-dollar industrial empire.

The big question is whether British Columbia will have to choose between power and salmon. Construction of power dams could interfere with the gigantic salmon runs up the river and spell the end of the salmon fishing industry.

Howard T. Mitchell, a Vancouver trade expert and business magazine publisher, estimates the province's power needs are increasing 17 per cent a year. He says that by 1970 all rivers near Vancouver — except the Fraser and Columbia—will be fully developed.

"Many people depend on the salmon run for their livelihood, but we must not forget our power needs," he said. "We shall just have to choose between salmon and power."

* * *

There is hope of a solution. Both sides have pledged informally to a 5-to 10-year truce while scientists probe whether salmon and power dam interests can live together.

Colorado Governor Has His Problems at Home

Stevie, 13, broke his arm in a neighborhood scuffle Friday. Robert 9, fractured his arm in a kickball game Saturday. Bill, 6, sprained his ankle Sunday in a jump from a tree.

McNichols adds that so far, Mary 4, and Marjory, 1, have escaped injury.

Air Force Increases New Academy Costs

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Air Force is trying to hold the costs of its new academy in Colorado to 126 million dollars, but there's a chance that it may go as high as 155 million.

This was brought out in testimony of Air Force officials before the House Appropriations Committee. The testimony has just been made public.

Active Grains Work Upward

CHICAGO (AP)—In active dealings grains worked thier way higher despite quite a bit of selling competition on the Board of Trade today.

* * *

Soybeans registered the largest gains but oats showed surprising strength, the March contract jumping about two cents. This was a big gain for oats, normally a slow mover.

* * *

Wheat near the end of the first hour was 1⅝ to 1⅝ higher, July 2.01⅛; corn ¼ to 1 cent higher, July $1.53; oats ⅝-1⅛ higher, July 67⅝; rye 1½-2 cents higher, July 1.26½; soybeans 1½-3½ higher, July $3.17⅝; lard 10 to 15 cents a hundred pounds higher, July $12.15.

Gov. Williams Asks Jobless Pay Hike

* * *

An attempt to revive it by discharging the committee failed less than three months ago on a straight party vote.

It will cost about $75,000 to have the measure reconsidered now.

That is because previous regular and special sessions have exhausted funds voted for the House of Representatives this fiscal year.

CITES NEGLECT

Rep. George M. Van Peursem, Zeeland Republican and chairman of the Labor committee, said Williams has neglected so far to provide his committee with a requested fiscal background for the changes proposed.

"Everyone knows that higher insurance benefits call for higher premium payments," Van Peursem said. "I have asked the governor for information as to where the money is coming from and have received no reply.

"As things stand now, each of the 38,500 covered employers and 2½ million workers still on the job has a stake in the unemployment compensation fund.

"We will want to make sure that there is no impairment of the insurance rights of the many in any changes considered."

On jobless pay, Williams recommended that the duration of awards be lengthened from a maximum of 26 weeks to 39 weeks, the latter figure applying to all who qualify for benefits.

* * *

He recommended that benefits be computed at 65 per cent of the employe's average wage, but not to exceed 66 2-3 per cent of the state's average wage, plus $5 for each dependent, provided the total does not exceed 90 per cent of the employe's average wage.

ANSWERS GOP

He answered Republican arguments that the present maximum weekly benefit rate of $54 is the highest in the nation.

* * *

"This is true as far as it goes," he said, "—but less than 4 per cent of job insurance claimants are collecting this maximum.

"It is paid only to those whose earnings averaged at least $108 a week, and who have four or more dependents."

"The overall average benefit for all of the unemployed, moreover, is only $34 a week, roughly one-third of the average wage of $96 a week in covered employment."

* * *

ROAD PROBLEM

On the road problem, Williams said he had been advised by Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler that projects involving "an ultimate total" of 218 miles of construction would be delayed unless bonds issuable under the 1955 law were made salable.

* * *

He said why the "bug" in the law was notu discovered sooner "is an interesting but moot question."

BLOW LID OFF?

A Republican senator said today that Gov. Williams had "threatened political reprisals against certain senators" if you "blow the lid off the state liquor commission."

Sen. Edward Hutchinson (R-Fennville) made the statement on the Senate floor in explanation of a resolution he presented for an investigation of the state liquor control agency.

His speech was the first of a special legislative session called primarily to consider unemployment, which had opened a few minutes before.

Stock Recovery Enters 3rd Day

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market extended its recovery today to three straight sessions.

* * *

Prices in the early afternoon were up around 2 points at the best and losses went to a point. By far the majority of changes were minor.

Most major divisions were definitely higher including the steels, aircrafts, chemicals, railroads and oils. Motors were unchanged to higher.

A narrow series of gains were shown at the start, and these widened and spread in later trading. Progress was slow. There were few individual features.

Among higher stocks were Baltimore & Ohio, Phillips Petroleum, Loew's, Johns-Manville, American Telephone, Anaconda Co., Allied Chemical, International Paper, Armour, General Precision Instrument, U.S. Steel, Chrysler, Montgomery Ward, Boeing and General Dynamics.

At noon the Associated Press average of 60 stocks was up 60 cents at $181.60.

Currently the stock market is out in the clear in its recovery from a sharp three-week reaction that started in April from record high levels. The recovery was interrupted last Friday with a sharp break on news of President Eisenhower's illness.

Stress Aid Training as Disaster Factor

Natural disaster preparedness received a boost from Pontiac volunteer Red Cross first aid instructors Monday night when a new training program began at Pontiac General Hospital.

Sixteen Pontiac residents were among the 31 members of Oakland County Chapter's First Aid Instructors' Club who turned out for this first session designed to acquaint first aiders with hospital procedures and techniques.

Experience in the hospital is necessary for volunteers to handle disaster work effectively, first aid officials said.

Wallet and $30 Taken in Burglary of Home

A billfold and $30 were reported stolen in the breakin Sunday night of a home at 200 Sanderson St., Pontiac police said.

Hearing Postponed on Drug Violations

Pre-trial examination of 14 persons charged with violation of state narcotics laws in an alleged drug conspiracy in the southwest area was postponed a week yesterday.

Pontiac Municipal Judge Cecil McCallum granted the postponement until June 20 at the request of Chief Assistant Prosecutor George F. Taylor.

The delay means another week in Oakland County Jail for half of the suspects, who have been unable to furnish $10,000 bonds set after their arrests May 14 to 18.

ANYONE FOR CHESS? — Margaret Smith, 23-year-old secretary from Manchester, England, ponders her next move among giant wooden chessmen, as her opponent, a five-ton crane controlled by a tape recorder, moves a knight. The idea of the weird chess match was to show application of this type of equipment to automation at the Mechanical Handling Exhibition and Convention in London.

Minimizes Bank Rate Boost

Upturn in Auto Industry Seen by Treasury Official

WASHINGTON (INS)—Treasury Secretary George M. Humphrey said yesterday there should be an upturn in automobile industry sales and employment "in a relatively short time."

Humphrey told a joint Congressional economic subcommittee he is not alarmed over the tight money market which has resulted from the Federal Reserve Board's recent boost in bank borrowing rates, its fifth such increase in a year.

However, he repeated a previous statement that he thinks the latest hike in the discount rate was "unnecessary." He added that he considered the four previous increases "wise" at the time they were made.

Humphrey and Chairman William McChesney Martin Jr., of the Federal Reserve Board were summoned by subcommittee Chairman Wright Patman (D-Texas), to answer questions about the latest boost in the discount rate.

In reply to questions by Patman, Humphrey said that the tight money situation may have had "something to do" with auto industry lay-offs and low car sales. But he declared that many other factors were involved.

He said: "As it looks now, conditions are proceeding in a very satisfactory way. Over a relatively short time some of these difficulties should be behind us and we can progress."

Humphrey described as "ridiculous" an assumption by Patman that the total increase of one per cent in interest rates in the last year would cost each American taxpayer 40 dollars and thus would "slow down purchasing power."

He said he thinks a decline in the rate of installment buying would be "very good for the country."

Martin declared there were differences of opinion over the latest discount rate increase. "He said it was questioned not only by Humphrey but by Arthur F. Burns, chairman of President Eisenhower's Council of Economic Advisers.

He added, however, that "there is no feuding between the Federal Reserve and the Treasury," as has been intimated in some quarters.

Martin said the Federal Reserve "can lean against the wind in either direction"—that is, against either inflation or deflation. But he did not indicate that any decision has been made as yet to relax the reins on money.

He said that member-bank reserve requirements "may be too high," and that the matter would have to be studied. A cut in reserve requirements would be a credit-easing move.

Coalmen See Uptake in Industrial Usage

WASHINGTON (INS) — President L. C. Campbell of the National Coal Association declared today that "coal may well be entering its golden years."

* * *

Campbell told the association's annual convention that there is an increasing awareness "of the industrial might of coal and its well-deserved place in the economic life of America."

He warned, however, against over-optimism in the remarkable comeback the soft coal industry has made in the last two years. This comeback, he said, has seen bituminous coal production rise from 392 million tons in 1954 to an expected 500 million tons in 1956.

Campbell said there is need for caution in the industry. He pointed out that replacement of plant and expansion of capacity "must be met with adequate financial return."

* * *

Tom Pickett, executive vice president of the association, said the bituminous industry can expect to share fully in the rapidly expanding energy market created by rising demands for goods and services.

Pontiac City Affairs

Commission Approves Condemnation of Lots Needed in Parking Project

City Attorney William A. Ewart was instructed by the City Commission last night to begin condemnation proceedings to acquire two privately-owned lots needed for the new municipal parking lots.

The first step, Ewart said, will be to file a petition in Oakland County Circuit Court asking that a 12-member jury be impaneled.

The lots in question are owned by Pearl M. Merriman. They are lot 100, assessor's plat 119 and lot 20, assessor's plat 35. Both are needed for the Jacokes street off-street parking lot.

In other action involving the $600,000 parking program, the commissioners accepted a low bid of $3,000-plus for the demolition of some homes owned by the city on which no bids of sale were received. They too will be razed to make way for parking lots.

City Manager W. K. Willman was authorized to negotiate for further demolition in connection with this program.

The city purchased a lot on Pike street from Robert Oliver for $62,500 and deeded another to Oliver for $7,500. Both involve the parking project. Funds will come from the parking lot treasury.

Further business taken up on a long 58-point agenda, included the adoption of an ordinance to rezone Commercial 1 part of lots 62,66 of the Hillside Manor Subdivision.

A similar rezoning ordinance concerning part of lots 8 and 9 of Elkins Addition Subdivision was deferred, pending a public hearing on vacating an alley necessary for the rezoning.

* * *

Deeds were awarded to Ward E. Partridge for recently purchased lots 1-3 and 5 and 20-28 of Robert Herndon's Pontiac Apartment Subdivision. A request from Partridge that bids for nine other lots in the subdivision be withdrawn was accepted by the commissioners.

Deeds were also awarded to James R. Leon and Robert Amori for lots 11-12 of the same subdivision.

Commissioners formally set next Monday for their weekly meeting to accept bids for the sale of $2,900,000 bonds to finance the Pontiac General Hospital addition.

Commissioner Philip E. Rowston moved that a City Planning Commission recommendation that the north side of Golf drive from Canterbury west to the alley be rezoned to Residential 3, be tabled one week.

Most of the other business taken up at last night's session involved further steps on public improvement projects in the city.

Three engineer estimates were accepted while a fourth was tabled one week. Hearings will be held on the three June 18.

Public hearings were conducted on eight projects of intent to construct sidewalks and grading, graveling, and related work. There was no one in the audience that spoke for or against the proposals.

But when a hearing on a special assessment roll for a storm drain in the block bounded by Glendale, Menominee, Genesee and Telegraph was held, three citizens requested action be deferred.

The hearing was closed after a brief discussion and confirmation was deferred.

Further business saw acceptance of two rolls for two other proposed jobs.

* * *

Confirmation was approved and payments established on 12 special assessment rolls for other work.

The commission approved two requests for changes in tavern licenses at 352 Oakland Ave. and 18-20 Perry St.

A contract for $46,554.25 for the A& A Asphalt Paving Co. for recapping State and Osmun streets was approved by the commissioners.

Auto Dealer Bill Rapped by Ford

Proposed Law Unfair, Threat to U.S. Economy Automaker Asserts

DETROIT (AP) — Henry Ford II, Ford Motor Co. president, today joined other top automakers in assailing Congressional bills aimed at protecting auto dealers.

In a letter to members of Congress, Ford asserted that the measure, if enacted, "would have serious adverse effects on the automotive industry, the consuming public and the general economy."

Spokesmen for General Motors, Chrysler and Ford all criticized the bill yesterday.

Sponsored by Sen. Monroney and introduced into the House by Rep. Priest (D-Tenn) the bill is designed to protect auto dealers from dictation by manufacturers and cut-rate competition in sales of new cars.

It would also provide Federal Trade Commission protection against factory "coercion" and place limits on the right of factories to cancel dealer franchies.

"Our selling efforts would be impeded," Ford's letter continued. "With decreased sales, our unit costs would be increased, thereby causing all buyers of new cars to pay higher prices. Thousands of suppliers would be adversely affected; employment in our industry and many allied fields would be reduced, and the national economy would be harmed."

22 Aides Receive Diplomas in First Hospital Capping

In last night's program were Howard Estes, manager of the infirmary; Mrs. Margaret Partick, director of the school; Mrs. Alma Oakley, superintendent of nurses, and Dr. R. G. Rowley, medical director.

Detroit Banks Agree on Merger

Second City Combine to Consolidate Stocks at August Meeting

Detroit's second billion - dollar banking institution, formed by the merger of four banks, is expected to start business on Sept. 1.

* * *

The merger, announced yesterday, combines the Detroit Bank, the Detroit Wabeek Bank and Trust Co., the Birmingham National Bank and the Ferndale National Bank.

The new bank will be known as the Detroit Bank and Trust Co.

Joseph M. Dodge, special assistant to President Eisenhower and board chairman of the Detroit Bank, will become chairman of the Detroit Bank and Trust Co.

Seldon B. Daum, Detroit Wabeek chairman, will be vice chairman.

The Detroit Bank, the city's second largest behind the National Bank of Detroit, had assets of 840 million dollars as of last Dec. 31. Detroit Wabeek had 187 million dollars, Birmingham National 40 million and Ferndale National 16 million.

STOCK SHARE

National Bank of Detroit resources total slightly more than two billion dollars.

The merger will take place through an exchange of stock on the basis of one share in the new institution for one share each of the Detroit Wabeek, the Detroit Bank and the Birmingham National and nine-tenths of a share of the Ferndale National.

The Detroit Bank, established in 1849, is the oldest bank in Michigan.

Nine City Kiwanians to Attend Convention

Nine Pontiac area Kiwanians will represent four clubs in the annual Kiwanis International Convention at San Francisco at the end of June, it was announced today.

The delegates and the clubs they will represent are: Horace H. Hatfield, president, and William D. McGlashen, of Pontiac North; Dr. Peter Hoogerhyde, Richard S. Clark and Arthur Compton, of Pontiac; Webster Francis, W. Bloomfield president; Lt. Gov. Richard C. Scribner, Floyd H. Baker, president, and Peter Metes, all of the West Pontiac club.

The Pontiac Council of Kiwanis Clubs were among 4,200 Kiwanis clubs which turned in their greatest record of community service in 1955. Eight service fields were covered through donations and help during the year.

These included agriculture and conservation, public and business affairs, supports of churches, boys and girls work, Key Clubs, underprivileged children and vocation guidance.

$50,000 Fire Destroys Owosso Pioneer Plant

OWOSSO (AP)—A fire following an explosion destroyed the Pioneer Wagon Works Inc. in Owosso today. The loss was estimated at $50,000.

Slaying Suspect Sits Out Dispute

Florida Courts Wrestle on Jurisdiction in Trial of Former Local Man

The opening of the second-degree murder trial of a former Pontiac man in Miami is still pending today as the result of a Florida Supreme Court ruling made last week.

* * *

The high tribunal ruled that all homicide cases must be tried in the Criminal Court of Records instead of circuit courts as provided under a 1955 Legislative act —declared invalid by the Supreme Court.

Sam Trimble, who worked for a Pontiac floor sanding company last fall before going to Florida, is charged with the Dec. 3 killing of a friend's wife, Mrs. Clara Jean Bass, a former Pontiac waitress.

Trimble was indicted Jan. 5. The case has been pending along with 50 others, some two years old, because of the hassle over who will assume the jurisdiction.

The ruling means prosecution of second-degree murder and manslaughter cases must be handled by the Dade County solicitor, instead of the state attorney, who was designated as prosecutor in the now invalid act.

Angus Stephens, assistant Dade solicitor, said it might be necessary to set up two or three weeks of jury trials in September or October to dispose of the backlog of cases.

Commissioners OK School Speed Signs

The Pontiac Board of Education was given city Commission approval last night to place restricted speed limit signs in heavily traveled school zones.

The move was prompted by Commissioner Philip E. Rowston (District 2), who along with other commmissioners, saw similiar signs in Flordia while attending a conference earlier this year.

Rowston said he understood the signs, place in the center lane during school hours, will be donated to the city.

While the commission approved the new signs, City Manager W. K. Willman said: "I haven't any objection to a trial but the State Highway Dept. frowns on these signs."

He said he agreed with the department that most major school crossings are "well covered" with traffic signals.

The steel signs are unsually in the form a minature guard with arm upraised warning motorists to lower their speed to 15 m.p.h. while passing through the school zone.

Business Notes

Five Pontiac district employes of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. were in Atlantic City, N. J., this week for a four-day conference with company officials.

The five, all top-ranking associates of the firm, include assistant managers Frank Grosse and Robert Benedict, and agents Fred Ritchie, Maurice Schlussel and Joseph McCoy.

5 Lots Rezoned Over Objections

Residents Fight Change Which Would Allow Multiple Dwellings

The City Commission overruled objections of some 15 residents of Anderson's Western Addition Subdivision and adopted an ordinance last night to rezone five lots in the area.

• • •

Voting against the change was District 1 Commissioner Dr. Roy V. Cooley.

The citizens have carried on a long fight in an attempt to block the rezoning on the city's southwest side. The change will allow for construction of a multiple-dwelling apartment building on lots 85-89 of the addition.

They have claimed in several commission meetings that this type construction would lower the value of their abutting property.

Both parties involved in the transaction have agreed to file a restriction, upon the recommendation of the commission, that the type of apartment shown to the residents will be the edifice that will be constructed on the site.

"The people living in the area have a certain community pride which I believe the commission should have helped stimulate by not rezoning," Dr. Cooley said explaining his negative vote.

Ike's Food Bill $1.05 Per Day at Hospital

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower is paying $1.05 a day for food at Walter Reed Army Hospital. That is the regular "subsistence rate" for officers.

So far, all the President is getting for his money is a glucose and water solution, injected intravenously.

Mrs. Eisenhower, occupying a room adjoining the presidential suite, is paying $1.55 a day, the subsistence charge for dependents of servicemen and non-military patients.

Wiggles, Wails Cause Criticism

But Belligerent Fans See Singer Becoming Another Como or Bing

By JACK O'BRIAN

NEW YORK (INS)—The recent appearance of Elvis Presley on Milton Berle's program seemed to upset and discourage many viewers. Our mail has throbbed with the anger of the many missives written in protest.

* * *

The sight of young (21) Presley caterwauling his unintelligible lyrics in an inadequate voice, during a display of primitive physical movement difficult to describe in terms suitable for a family newspaper, has caused the most heated reaction since the stoneage days of TV when Dagmar and Faye Emerson's necklines were plunging to oblivion.

You may expect to find an occasional apology for Presley's "style" of entertainment, or lack of it—though all our mail was hotly critical of him—maintaining he is merely typical of the times, a glorified mobile image of the juvenile delinquent with ducktail haircut, resentfully pouty face, mouth twisted into a bored sneer, wearing outrageously pegtopped pants and too-long, zoot-suit jacket with over-wide shoulders flopping all over the place.

The novelty of his popularity is freakish but nonetheless there for all to see. He has three records selling well, and two of them ("Heartbreak Hotel" and "Blue Suede Shoes") near the top of the phonograph's popularity parade.

* * *

His belligerent cult of fans insists he's as certainly on his way to enduring success as were Frank Sinatra, Perry Como and Bing Crosby; but in Presley's case, his singing career seems based on the same crude, basic physical contortions that arouse a burlesque stripper's fans. He uses rhythm, but with a vigorous disrespect for melody or tone.

From our mail, mixed with outrage at Presley's performance on the Berle show and fear that such displays might spread and grow, there is no respect shown for any musical ambitions, if Elvis has any.

Presley's exhibition brought double criticism of the Berle show, which also had Debra Paget gyrating through a Georgia Southern-style bump and grind demonstration supposedly banned on TV.

* * *

Many of the letters of protest against Presley's presence on Berle's hour included a hefty spate of heckling for everyone and anyone concerned in or with that fast-paced burlesque-for-all.

Dutch Vote Today in Parliament Ballot

By NEL SLIS

THE HAGUE, Netherlands (AP)—Some six million Dutch citizens were expected today to elect a new lower house of Parliament. No major foreign policy issues were involved.

The general elections for the 100-member second chamber will again bring an affiance government. None of the country's political parties can win enough seats to rule alone.

Front runners in the ballot contest were the Labor party and the Roman Catholic People's party. Each held 30 seats in the chamber elected in 1952 and hoped to pick up increased totals today.

The Catholic People's party, a middle-of-the-road group, has taken in a right-wing Catholic party and expected to gain two or three seats from that action. The Labor party hoped to attract some of the votes that elected six Communist members in the last elections.

Detroit Dogs Are Bribed Not to Bite Postmen

DETROIT (AP)—Mailmen are going to offer something in the way of a "before-dinner" mint to Detroit dogdom this week in hopes of deterring the dogs from taking a chunk of leg.

James H. Rademacher, president of the Detroit branch of the National Assn. of Letter Carriers, decided to act after hearing a report that more than 100 local carriers were nipped last year.

Supermarket to Open, but Nothing to Be Sold

ROME (AP) — A big "American way" supermarket will open here Sunday but nothing will be sold.

The exhibition project is sponsored by the U.S. Department of Agriculture in cooperation with the National Assn. of Food Chains. It takes place while 1,500 European food distributors meet here to study the self-service system.

The supermarket will cover about 10,000 square feet and have more than 2,500 items. It will be opened on the ground floor of the marble-studded Palace of Congresses, south of Rome, a building built by Mussolini.

Hersholt Leaves Rare Collection to U.S. Library

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The love of Danish-born actor Jean Hersholt for his adopted country, America, is reflected in his will disposing of his famed and valuable Hans Christian Andersen collection.

* * *

The estate attorney said Hersholt, 69 when he died June 2, and his wife, Mrs. Petra Via Hersholt, decided several years ago to give the Hersholt collection of Andersen's original writings in Danish to the U. S. Library of Congress, which did not have any of them.

Similarly, said Atty. L. B. Kornblum, they decided to give translations in English, which Hersholt made, to the Hans Christian Andersen Museum at Odense, Denmark.

* * *

The gifts, which already have begun, were legally formalized in Hersholt's will, filed for probate yesterday. The rest of the estate, believed to exceed $250,000, was left to the widow.

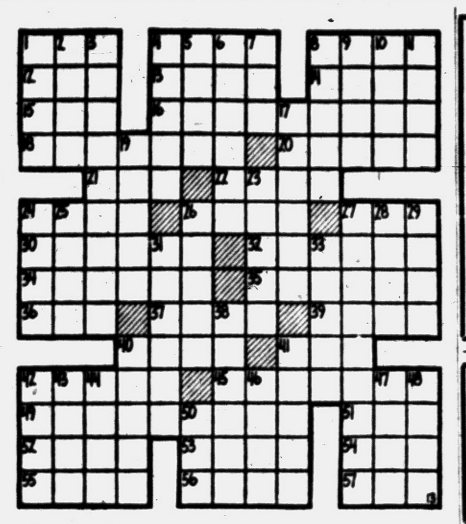

ROK Officers Killed

SEOUL, South Korea (AP)—Five Korean officers were killed yesterday in the South Korean air force's fourth crash in two days. The air force blamed the crash on engine trouble.

Yugoslavia Charges U.S. With 'Cold War' Objective

By BORIS BOSKOVIC

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP) — The chief organ of the Yugoslav Communist party charged today that certain "reactionary circles in the world" prefer the cold war of the Stalin era to the "significant contribution of the present Soviet leadership to the lessening of world tension."

* * *

The three-column front-page story in the newspaper Borba was the first public Yugoslav reaction to the demand in some U.S. quarters that American aid to Yugoslavia be cut off because of President Tito's friendly statements to the Soviet government during his current visit to Russia.

Borba blamed these American demands on a campaign against the Tito government it said was organized by former Yugoslav Vice President Milovan Djilas. It called him the "hireling" of "certain reactionary American circles" and accused him of writing an anti-Tito article in Time magazine.

* * *

Once one of Tito's closest associates, Djilas was ousted from office in January 1954 for deviating from the party line. A year later he was convicted of making statements to foreign correspondents here which "slandered" the government and was given an 18-month suspended sentence.

* * *

Djilas has been living in Yugoslav since his fall. The New York Times published a letter from him May 30 complaining that the Tito regime had prevented him from publishing a book he had written.

* * *

The party paper said articles by Djilas involved "slanders and dirty allegations toward prominent leaders and democratic forces which at present are fighting for world peace and friendly relations among peoples."

Certain "reactionary and not peace-loving circles in the world," the party organ said, do not like the "present favorable development of international relations."

Big Battle Expected Over Public Housing

WASHINGTON (AP)—A big house fight over public housing was in prospect today after the House Banking Committee approved a bill that goes far beyond the program President Eisenhower has requested.

* * *

The committee yesterday okayed a measure that would provide for 180,000 new public housing units, plus 30,000 units designated for elderly persons. These would be erected over a three-year span, starting Aug. 1.

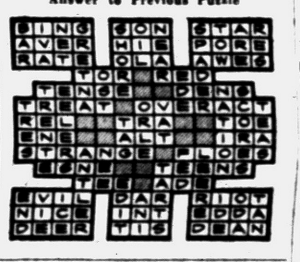

Other sections of the general housing bill call for a three-billion-dollar increase in federal Housing Administration mortgage insurance authority, special credit and loan insurance features applying to housing for older persons, veterans and military personnel, broadened slum clearance aid to the states, and bigger home improvement loans.

* * *

A New Chance to Win $100 -- Puzzle No. 3

POT-O-GOLD, the Pontiac Press' exciting new summer word game, begins its third week with Puzzle No. 3, below. It's fun—read the directions carefully, fill out your entry and send it in. It can mean ta least $100 to you every time you win.

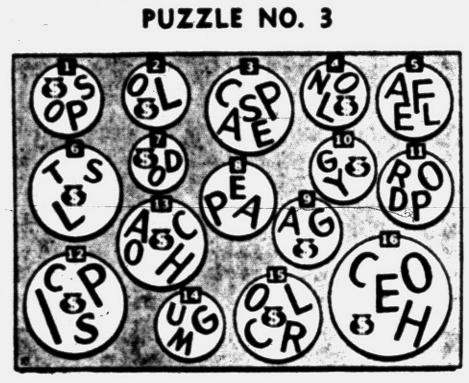

The puzzle consists of (1) a number of circles which contain a few scrambled letters, and (2) a orresponding list of clues to these words printed below. The object is to arrange each group of circled letters into a word that best fits its clue. The word which you select for Circle No. 1, then, would be the one which you would print in the space to the right of (1) below.

You'll notice that some circles contain $ signs in pots of gold. You may use such a symbol as any letter you wish. However, it and all letters in that circle must be used. The $ sign, of course, can represent ANY letter in the word.

Do the same in all the other circles. Study the clues carefully and arrange all the letters into words that you believe best conform to these clues. Use your $ signs to help you spell out the right words.

That's all there is to it. Good luck!

OFFICIAL CONTEST RULES

1. Anyone is eligible to enter the POT-O-GOLD contest with the exception of Pontiac Press employes or their immediate families.

2. A contestant may submit as many entries as he or she wishes but they must be on official entry blanks printed in this newspaper.

3. To submit an entry the contestant must print his answer words in the proper spaces, cut out the area enclosed by dotted lines and attach it securely to a 2-cent postcard. No entries will be accepted if they are in envelopes. Entries for Puzzle No. 3 must bear a Tuesday, June 19, postmark (or before). No entries received after that time, whether mailed or delivered by hand, will be declared eligible. The Press is not responsible for entries lost or delayed in the mail.

4. Sorry, telephone calls or mail concerning details of the contest cannot be answered or acknowledged.

5. The Pontiac Press will award a cash prize of $100 a week to the winner of each weekly POT-O-GOLD contest. If more than one winning answer is received the prize will be divided equally among the winners. If any week or weeks should pass without any winners, the prize will be added weekly until a winning solution is submitted.

6. Winners will be awarded an extra cash bonus of $25 each if they are Pontiac Press subscribers of record on the day winners are announced. Only one such bonus can be awarded to each prize-winner, no matter how many weekly prizes may accumulate.

7. Each week's puzzle will be published Monday, Wednesday and Friday until the contest's end, Labor Day. Either or all will be considered as official entry blanks.

8. Winners and correct solutions will be announced each Friday of the week following individual contests. Official keeper of answers will be Frederick C. Ziem, prosecutor for Oakland County. Only the General Features Corp., originators of the puzzles, will konw the solutions until after each contest is over. Answers will be delivered to the Press judges by Mr. Ziem after the final deadline.

9. There is only one correct solution to the POT-O-GOLD puzzle, and only that correct answer can win. The decision of the judges is final and all contestants agree to abide by the judges' decision. All entries become the property of The Pontiac Press and none can be returned.

10. Completed puzzles must be addressed to POT-O-GOLD, POST OFFICE BOX 58, Pontiac, Michigan. Winners will be notified either by telephone or in the mails.
