UAW Opens Confab, May Cut Off AFL-CIO Dues

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (UPI) — Organized labor's solid front began to come apart today as the United Auto Workers union opened its national convention with the threat to sever one of the last remaining ties with the parent AFL-CIO—the payment of $1.2 million annually in dues.

★ ★ ★

Top UAW officials have approved the move that would bring to a head the long dispute between UAW President Walter P. Reuther and AFL-CIO President George Meany over the direction the AFL-CIO should take in domestic and foreign affairs.

A UAW spokesman said the convention delegates would vote on the move to withhold seven cents per member per month to the parent organization and put the money into a special fund that would be used later by the UAW or paid to the AFL-CIO should the two groups come to some sort of settlement.

The AFL-CIO constitution calls for an affiliated union to be expelled from the parent labor organization if it falls more than three months behind in its dues, but no indication of what action the AFL-CIO might take was known.

About 50 delegates from the Pontiac area are attending the convention.

ELECTED LAST MONTH

Slates were elected last month to represent locals at Pontiac Motor Division, General Motors Truck and Coach and the Fisher Body plant. Leading the area group are Ken Morris, regional director, and Harold Julian, subregional director.

The 1.5-million-member UAW plans to take no action on endorsing any candidate for the presidency until after the national conventions this summer. But the convention is willing to listen to the contenders.

Vice President Hubert Humphrey and Sen. Robert F. Kennedy will address the delegates and President Johnson has been invited to appear. There was no word from the White House on whether the President would make an appearance.

★ ★ ★

Sen. Eugene McCarthy and former Vice President Richard M. Nixon have indicated they will be unable to attend and there was no immediate answer on an invitation to New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

84 Are Killed as Airliner Explodes, Crashes in Texas

DAWSON, Tex. (AP) — Eighty-four persons died in a Braniff International Electra that exploded and plunged to earth in blazing pieces yesterday as the crew bucked thunderstorms.

Chunks of wreckage and bits of bodies fell over an old farm—uninhabited and grown over by grass and brush—two miles east of this little central Texas town.

The high school gymnasium became a morgue as Dawson's 700 townspeople, engulfed by tragedy and joined by citizens of neighboring cities, turned to the task of finding and bringing in the bodies.

There were no survivors.

A special FBI team was flown in to help identify the bodies. The National Guard was summoned to control traffic and sightseers.

BEHIND SCHEDULE

The brightly painted, four-engine turboprop airliner, Flight 352, decorated in Braniff's Aztec Mexican motif, rolled to its takeoff from Houston at 4:11 p.m.—11 minutes behind schedule.

Three minutes after takeoff, at 4:14 p.m., one of the flight deck crew—Capt. J. R. Phillips, First Officer John W. Foster and Second Officer D. W. Crossland — estimated in a radio report that the flight's estimated arrival time was 5:03 p.m., only five minutes behind schedule.

That was the last word as the Electra headed into the turbulence between Houston and Dallas. Flight controllers said they had no further conversation with the plane.

The first indication of trouble to them came when the controller at Fort Worth's Great Southwest International Airport said at 4:51 p.m. that Flight 352 had vanished from his radar scope.

When the flight vanished from radar view, it flashed into the view of people in and near Dawson.

Dean Montgomery of Corsicana, a private pilot and operator of an electrical shop, said he saw a large explosion rip the plane. Then, he said, there were two smaller explosions, and the craft plummeted downward in two burning sections.

Officials Hopeful of Voter Approval

Waterford School Tax 'a Must'

By HUDSON WILLSE JR.

Waterford Township school officials hope their first try to renew the district's current 15-mill taxing authority for operation will prove successful in Monday's election.

The proposed renewal is for a 15-year period from 1969 through 1983.

If voters fail to renew the 15 mills ($15 per $1,000 of state equalized valuation) before Sept. 1, 1969, the district is in real trouble, school officials contend.

The district can levy the 15 mills again this coming December, but needs the approval of voters to assess the tax next year.

"Certainly it's got to continue if Waterford is to remain a school district at all," said Supt. of Schools Dr. Don O. Tatroe.

'CAN'T AFFORD EXPIRATION'

"It does not solve the financial conditions of the district. But it would go a long way toward giving the district a solid financial foundation," Tatroe emphasized.

"The community cannot afford to permit this tax to expire."

About 35 per cent of the district's total operating budget is derived from local tax sources. The 15 mills up for renewal represent a substantial portion of the district's present 23.6-mill local operating tax.

The remaining operating millage is allocated by the Oakland County Tax Allocation Board. Another 8 mills are levied locally for debt retirement.

BILL TO HELP DISTRICT

The new school-aid bill, signed into law this week by Gov. Romney, will help the district somewhat in 1968-69.

District school officials had estimated an increase of $270,000 in state aid next year or an additional $15 per student.

Four Face U.S. Charges in Detroit Riot Follow-Up

DETROIT (AP) — Three white policemen and a Negro watchman have been charged with conspiring to violate the civil rights of 10 persons in a motel in Detroit during the riot last July. Two of the 10 were slain at the motel.

The federal indictment says policemen Ronald W. August, Robert N. Paille and David Senak, along with Melvin Dismukes, 25, the watchman, detained two young white women and eight young Negro men last July 25 in the motel. The two slain were Negro teen-agers.

"The defendants would assault, threaten and intimidate the assorted victims to punish them and coerce them into making statements regarding the identity of alleged snipers and the location of firearms," the indictment said.

The four will be arraigned next week, U.S. Atty. Lawrence Gubow said, but no date has been set. Conviction on the charge carries a maximum penalty of 10 years in prison and a $5,000 fine.

August, 29, is scheduled to go on trial June 5 in Detroit Recorder's Court on a first-degree murder charge filed by Wayne County Prosecutor William Cahalan.

The charge was filed in the shotgun slaying of Aubrey Pollard, 19, who was found dead at the motel July 26. If August, a four-year Detroit police veteran, is convicted, Michigan law requires that he be given a sentence of life in prison.

Cahalan also charged Paille, 33, a Detroit policeman for two years, with murder in the fatal shooting of Fred Temple, 18, at the motel.

★ ★ ★

A Recorder's Court judge dismissed the charge, but it was reinstated when Cahalan appealed, and Paille's attorneys now are appealing the reinstatement. The murder charges were filed nine months ago and August and Paille have been free on bonds of $5,000 each since then.

Witness Found to Bold Robbery

Pontiac police and Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) agents said today they have scored a major breakthrough by contacting an alleged eyewitness to the $50,000 robbery Tuesday of two GMTC Credit Union employes.

★ ★ ★

Capt. Charles Gale, chief of city detectives, said the witness told officers he saw the holdup while on his way out of the credit union building.

The robbery took place in an adjacent parking lot as the employes returned from the nearby Community National Bank branch with the money in a canvas bag.

Gale said the witness reported seeing a lone gunman take the bag from the employes and then escape in a waiting car driven by an accomplice.

★ ★ ★

He described the car as a light green 1965 or 1966 Tempest.

The holdup took place about 11 a.m. when the gunman approached employes Richard Eldred and Louis Giddings and ordered them to hand over the money.

★ ★ ★

The bandit had apparently waited at a bus stop in front of the credit union at 939 Woodward until the employes made their return trip from the bank with money intended for the cashing of payroll checks.

3 Heart Recipients Watched

By The Associated Press

Laymen and surgeons alike today watched closely the progress of three men — two in the United States and one in London — who received heart transplants within about 24 hours.

The London operation, completed last night, was the world's 10th heart transplant.

At London's National Heart Hospital, 45-year-old Frederick West was reported "fit" and in "entirely satisfactory condition."

In Houston, Tex., pleasure, accompanied by a note of caution, was expressed at the outcome of the transplant on Everett Claire Thomas, 47.

At Stanford, Calif., where late Thursday 40-year-old Joseph Rizor received the heart of an older but athletic man, the patient's condition was announced as fair — with a wait-and-see attitude.

The London heart donor was named by London newspapers as Patrick Ryan, 26, who died of brain damage suffered in a fall from a scaffold.

Thomas, of Phoenix, Arix., was operated on yesterday by Dr. Denton A. Cooley, head of a 20-person team at St. Luke's Episcopal Hospital in Houston.

Cooley said later of Thomas, whose heart was damaged by rheumatic fever: "I don't want to be overly optimistic. Keep in mind he was a very sick man before undergoing this major surgery."

★ ★ ★

Airport Land Deals Halted

By JEAN SAILE

"We're not buying any more land out there until the Federal Aviation Administration approves the master plan for Oakland-Orion Airport."

Daniel T. Murphy, chairman of the Oakland County Board of Auditors, reviewed the situation in Orion and Pontiac Townships, where last Dec. 19 the County Board of Supervisors voted to spend $284,336 on the acquisiton of four land parcels.

The purchase of four separate scattered properties, Murphy feels, established a land value for use in the future if other land in the master plan area is to be purchased.

He said an agent was used to make the purchases, and Oakland County was not identified as the buyer.

★ ★ ★

Murphy said the airport master plan involves a total of 2,000 acres. Prior to December, the county owned 440 acres including the Allen Airport and the purchase last December added another 164.

TRANSACTIONS LISTED

Kenneth Van Natta, director of county parks and recreation who acted as land purchaser, described the transactions:

- 76.82 acres at the southwest corner of Brown and Giddings roads, purchased for $675 an acre from J. J. Jaburek, 774 Ledyard, Pontiac.
- Another 41 acres between M24 and Giddings, south of Brown, purchased at $1,073 an acre from Thomas McDonald, 9200 W. Fort, Detroit.
- Two parcels, zoned industrial and fronting on M24 in Orion Township, north of Brown, at $4,030 an acre.

Edward Turner, 325 Lexington, Royal Oak, and Dr. Raymond Suwinski, 90 Shorecrest, Grosse Pointe, were recorded as previous owners of the parcels, one 21.55 acres and the other 25.19 acres.

★ ★ ★

Quizzed by local residents about the high cost of the latter two land purchases, Murphy and VanNatta both said they had relied on the advice of John D. Millis, 43½ N. Saginaw, Pontiac, a private realtor and appraiser.

★ ★ ★

A letter from Millis to Murphy shows that the appraiser recommended a purchase price of $3,750 per acre for the land in question, but noted it was "zoned industrial and option price is in the $4,000 per acre range, including acquisition costs."

He continued, "Four parcels of industrial land in the immediate area have been recently sold for the following prices per acre: $3,000, $2,300, $1,770 and $1,397.

School Census Takers Busy

School census takers, who will be knocking on doors from now until the end of the month, are required for the first time to record the number of people over 19 years of age in each family.

Each year at this time the State Department of Education requires that every school district conduct the surveys.

★ ★ ★

In addition to the new item, information will be collected about children up to age 19 and about persons having teaching certificates but not currently teaching.

The census takers carry identification cards and are employes of individual school districts.

U.S. Expected to Press for Red Military Cutback

WASHINGTON (AP) — Officials expect the first U.S. move in Paris peace talks with North Vietnam will be to press for a cutback in Communist military activities in Southeast Asia.

They say this would clear the way for a total halt in U.S. bombing of the North.

The talks are due to open May 10 under an agreement reached yesterday by Washington and Hanoi through their embassies in Vientiane, Laos, ending almost five weeks of diplomatic sparring on a site.

Paris represents a compromise which, diplomats say, both Washington and Hanoi foresaw many days ago. Each side has shown itself prepared for hard bargaining, which means prolonged and often bitter negotiating in the months ahead.

★ ★ ★

North Vietnam said it wants talks "to decide with the U.S. side the unconditional cessation by the United States of its bombing and all other acts of war" against the North.

OTHER MATTERS

Other matters will be discussed when that issue is decided, the Hanoi statement said.

President Johnson imposed a partial bombing ban on U.S. planes operating over North Vietnam effective March 31. He limited their operations to the so-called panhandle area south of the 20th Parallel and called on North Vietnam for some similar show of military restraint.

Top administration officials agree that infiltration of men and supplies from North Vietnam into the South has been at peak levels since early March.

Some officials — and intelligence reports from Saigon — say the increase which began in early March has continued to grow since Johnson's March 31 limitation order.

Prior to being named to the new post, he was manager of planning for the division's plants, coordinating planning within the 10-plant group covering sales, engineering and manufacturing.

County Awaits FAA Approval of Airport Plan

"The $3,000 is most comparable, and in my opinion Parcels I and II (those purchased by the county) are approximately 25 per cent superior to the $3,000 sale, which would result in a fair cash market value of $3,750 per acre."

★ ★ ★

Asked why the county board of supervisors approved a $280 per acre increase over the recommended price, Van Natta said, "You must remember agreement must be achieved with the seller."

3 COMMITTEES BACKED PRICE

The $4,030 price was recommended to the board by the aviation, ways and means and buildings and grounds committees, according to board minutes.

Murphy said though only one appraisal is interpreted as being required by county rules, a new policy requiring two appraisals on purchases involving $25,000 or more has been initiated.

He said one of the appraisers must be a member of the American Institute of Real Estate Appraisers.

★ ★ ★

Asked what would happen to land prices where property in the master plan area continues to be improved by its present owners, Murphy said, "The people have been put on notice.

LAND VALUES ESTABLISHED

"We have established land values there at the time the master plan was announced, and we will probably have to proceed through condemnation to purchase such property if the FAA gives the go-ahead."

He stressed, however, that development of the airport is forseen as a 20-year project.

"At first, if the FAA approves, the county will only put in a paved north-south runway and a few necessary buildings," Murphy said.

★ ★ ★

"It will take years to purchase all the land necessary, both from a legal and financial point of view," he said.

Kidnap Suspect Mute to Second Set of Charges

Twice charged with kidnaping and raping Pontiac women, Laurence S. Moore of Pontiac stood mute to the second charges when he was arraigned yesterday before Waterford Township Justice of the Peace Kenneth H. Hempstead.

Moore, 24, of 499 W. Huron, is accused of abducting both women from the parking lot at the Pontiac Mall Shopping Center in Waterford Township.

He was returned to the Oakland County Jail, where he has been held in lieu of $50,000 since early Wednesday.

He was arrested Tuesday in Genesee County following the kidnaping and rape of Mrs. Norman Kinnison, 19, of 435½ University, last Monday.

Hempstead set bond in the second case at $10,000.

Moore's preliminary hearing on the Kinnison case is scheduled for next Friday, while the other hearing will be held May 14 at 2 p.m.

The Oakland County Prosecutor's Office ordered the second charges against Moore after a 21-year-old woman identified him as the man who had attacked her March 15.

Candidates View Peace Hopes

Nixon: Give LBJ a Chance

By The Associated Press

Now that the United States and Hanoi have found neutral turf for their peace talks, says Republican presidential contender Richard M. Nixon, there should be no grandstand quarterbacking by candidates.

"I for one say let's give the President a chance and let's wish him well so he can bring this war to a successful conclusion," Nixon said yesterday as he would up his campaign for Tuesday's Indiana primary.

Sen. Eugene McCarthy, however, seemed unwilling to withhold comment on how the negotiations should proceed.

The Johnson administration, he said, must be willing to accept Communist representation in a new South Vietnamese government.

★ ★ ★

Sen. Robert Kennedy, who is contending with McCarthy in the Indiana primary, said he hoped that, regardless of long-term results, the conferences in Paris might produce a cease-fire.

'EARLY AS POSSIBLE'

"I fervently hope both sides will seek to stop the killing as early as possible and that an international force might be brought in to supervise a ceasefire," the New Yorker said.

Speaking yesterday at Kent State University in Kent, Ohio, Humphrey lost part of his audiences as first a group of Negro students, then a groups of whites, apparently peace demonstrators, marched out of the fieldhouse.

But the thousands who remained booed those departing and appluded Humphrey, who said: "This is the most amazing thing. The last time anyone walked out on me was when I pleaded for civil rights in the 1948 Democratic convention in Philadelphia."

★ ★ ★

Nixon, who is unopposed in the primary Tuesday, planned to take in the Kentucky Derby today as a guest of Gov. Louie B. Nunn of Kentucky.

Waterford School Levy Called 'a Must'

However, the new program will amount to an increase of $458.00 or an additional $25.85 per pupil.

This will raise the district's total state aid to $5,761,000 for 1968-69, according to school officials.

Because of the increase, first-through-fourth graders will be able to attend classes full-time next school year instead of going on half-day schedules for one semester as had been previously planned.

However, other cutbacks are planned for next school year as a result of an election setback last Nov. 20 when district voters rejected a proposed 7½-mill property tax increase by more than a 2-1 margin.

Included are shortened school days for secondary students and the elimination of 93 teaching positions.

Even with the state aid increase, the district still is 5 to 6½ mills short of achieving a budget based on the needs to operate a full school program.

Tatroe stressed that for every dollar of added local taxes that comes in through additional property assessments, "we lose 83 cents in the state aid formula."

Voting will take place at the following eight precincts:

1—Grayson School, 3800 W. Walton; 2—Donelson School, 1200 W. 'Seagull' Oddly Fascinating

By DON BRAUNAGEL

Watching a Chekhov play is oddly fascinating.

As the players go through their everyday actions and words, you sit and squirm — especially in this television-oriented age — wondering when the plot twists and excitement will begin.

Suddenly, the play is over, and you realize there were no plot twists; in fact, few events out of the ordinary.

Yet you realize also that you became engrossed in these strangers' lives. What they did and what happened to them mattered because it was much like your own life.

So it was last night at the Meadow Brook Theatre premiere of "The Seagull," the John Fernald Company's last production of the season.

At first it seems as if the most worthwhile part of the production is Frank Masi's elaborate settings — especially the trees, bushes and background lake for the outdoor scenes.

Then the cast began giving life to Chekhov's lines with such uniform quality that it's a tribute to Fernald's direction. With any less, the play would have stayed at the level of soap opera melodrama.

The story centers on a famous actress's son, effectively played by Curt Dawson. Seeking his own identity as a writer, he falls victim to unrequited love of a young girl who wants only fame.

She becomes enamored of a successful but second-rate writer (George Guidall) too weak-willed to be true to himself and return the girl's love.

NEWCOMER IMPRESSIVE

A newcomer to Meadow Brook, pretty Lans Traverse, made an impressive debut as the young girl, starry-eyed, then matured by tragedy.

One of the best scenes in the play has her gazing at Guidall, saying how wonderful it must be to be successful, while he talks of being unfulfilled because he is not considered as good as Tolstoy.

Dawson's role is interesting in that it is somewhat autobiographical. He is scorned and abused as a playwright because of trying new techniques, much as Chekhov was. Ironically, "The Seagull" was a failure in its first performance at St. Petersburg.

Years later, it was reopened in Moscow where it became such a success it saved the Moscow Art Theatre and is now a classic.

"The Seagull" will be at Meadow Brook through June 2, then will move to the University of New Hampshire at Durham for five performances June 5-8.

Rusk Weighs Return of General to Czechs

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk faces the prospect of deciding whether to extradite a Czech general wanted in his country.

A decision should be made "in the not too distant future," one source said Friday.

★ ★ ★

The man in question is Maj. Gen. Jan Sejna, who fled from Communist Czechoslovakia Feb. 25 with his 18-year-old son and Evzenie Musalova, 22, described as the son's fiancee.

The three are in the United States where the general asked for permanent residence, a request still under consideration.

On March 7 the Czech government formally requested that Sejna be returned to be tried for embezzlement charges.

Ever since the State Department acknowledged Sejna is in this country he has been under wraps, undergoing what is described as extensive debriefings in one of the administration's "guest houses," officials said.

"The stuff is fairly interesting," one intelligence source said of the information Sejna has given.

Officials declined to disclose Sejna's location or which government agency is conducting the debriefing of such an important defector from a Communist country.

REJECTION HINTED

Officials said no decision on the extradition request is likely until the debriefings are concluded.

No one is publicly predicting how Rusk will decide on the Czech request. Privately, however, the expectation is he will turn it down and Sejna will be declared a political refugee who should not be extradited under the 1925 extradition treaty with Czechoslovakia.

The treaty bars extradition for charges of "political crimes or offenses or acts connected with such offenses."

★ ★ ★

The Czechs' extradition request, however, was based on the embezzlement charge accusing Sejna of misappropriating $20,000 worth of state-owned alfalfa and clover seed.

American officials would not comment on these charges but voice suspicion that Prague wants Sejna for political reasons.

Though the Prague government officially accused the general of common crimes only, Czech newspapers made it clear sometime ago he is sought for alleged participation in an attempt to keep President Antonin Novotny in power.

Novotny has since been ousted.

Should the United States return Sejna the Czechs would have to guarantee he would be tried only for the relatively minor embezzlement charge. Whether the Prague government would agree to give such a guarantee, is questionable.

Vice President Will Visit Detroit, Lansing May 14

LANSING (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey will visit Detroit and Lansing May 14, Michigan Democrats announced Friday.

Humphrey is to address a joint session of the Michigan Legislature in the morning and travel to Detroit later in the day for a Democratic party Century Club fund-raising reception, Democratic State Chairman Sander Levin said.

Other activities may be announced later, he added.

Humphrey's visit will be his first to Michigan since he announced his candidacy for the Democratic presidential nomination. Both of the other Democratic candidates, New York Sen. Robert Kennedy and Minnesota Sen. Eugene McCarthy, already have visited the state.

'OPEN STANCE'

"This visit is in line with the (party policy) of keeping an open stance on the candidates until we hear them develop their position on the issues," Levin said.

The Century Club reception, open to those who hold or buy $100 memberships in the Democratic party, will be held at 5 p.m. at the Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel.

OEO Is Plagued by Uncertainty About its Future

WASHINGTON (AP) — The war on poverty has a new foe to fight: uncertainty over its future.

Bertrand M. Harding, acting head of the Office of Economic Opportunity, met with his staff this week in an attempt to dry up what he called rumors the agency may be carved up and carted away.

★ ★ ★

"There are no plans other than to go forward," Harding said. "There are no hidden agendas. I was not put in this job to dissolve this agency."

But each time Harding promised OEO would not be dismantled, he was careful to begin, "As of today . . ."

FROM THE TOP

The uncertainty starts with the White House.

President Johnson, creator of and crusader for the antipoverty program, has said he will leave the White House after this year. Sargent Shriver, OEO's boss since birth, left the agency six weeks ago to become ambassador to France.

★ ★ ★

Harding has only caretaker status as acting director and Johnson has not indicated when or whether he will name a permanent successor.

Harding conceded OEO in recent weeks "has been in a state of turmoil, a state of uncertainty, sort of wandering." But he argued this is normal in time of change.

A TRYING TIME

Harding, 49, a Texan who once ran the Internal Revenue Service in another temporary job that lasted half a year, assumes command of OEO at a time when the nation's capital is confronted by plans for a massive march of protest by the poor.

Harding said in an interview he supports the Poor People's Campaign in its desire to dramatize the plight of the impoverished. But he said "I don't think we can give a blanket, advance enforsement" in view of threats to disrupt government if demands aren't met.

He said the campaign could backfire with such tactics.

OEO is not without its own pocketbook problems—a budget pinch that has forced cutbacks in Head Start programs and reduction of working hours in summer jobs under the Neighborhood Youth Corps. Harding is aware this has caused disappointment among both the poor and the poverty workers.

HAVING TO RETRENCH

"It's difficult to maintain a forward thrust when you're having to retrench in spots," he said.

But the career administrator said he is confident OEO not only will survive but will continue to cut new trails with its programs.

He listed imagination, creativity and efficiency as his goals for OEO and says he wants maximum impact from the programs.

"I think there is room to get more bang from the buck," he said.

CHARGE DISMISSED

Harding dismissed the charge by William F. Haddad, former assistant director of OEO, that the agency is being secretly dismembered.

Harding said, "I think he's misreading the tea leaves," and predicted OEO will go on regardless of which way political winds may blow.

The antipoverty official said, "I have a personal view that OEO, for better or worse, has become the symbol of the government's commitment to the problem of poverty. I think it would be unwise for any administration, Republican or Democrat, to do away with that symbol."

'Salesmen Use Fake Identities'

LANSING (AP) — A band of high-pressure magazine salesmen are posing as orphans and would - be nurses in Michigan, says Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley.

Kelley said the group includes young men who claim to be former residents of Nebraska's Boys' Town, and girls who say they are earning college money and plan to be nurses working with the handicapped.

★ ★ ★

Kelley said his office investigated and found the youths had never been Boys' Town residents and that claims many of the salesmen are formerly handicapped also are untrue.

The attorney general advised residents approached by the group to contact the consumer protection division of his Lansing office.

Nation Pays Tribute to Worthy Cause

Beginning tomorrow, the Nation will observe Goodwill Week.

Founded in Boston at the turn of the century, Goodwill Industries has built the largest network of private vocational, educational agencies in the world serving all types of handicapped people.

There are now 136 autonomous Goodwill Industries, 42 branch workshops in 178 cities in the United States and another 22 located abroad. The Pontiac facility on East Pike was established in 1957.

The purpose of Goodwill remains the same — to rehabilitate disabled lives and limbs. In recent years, the emphasis on the idea of service has been greatly expanded.

Of the 80,000 people being helped by Goodwill some 50,000 receive the traditional job opportunity and experience. But, half of these persons are also being helped by additional evaluation, counseling, psychological and medical care and therapy.

In 1967, the 50,000 employed handicapped persons earned $37 million instead of living on charity from friends or relatives, or on a dole from Government agencies. They paid a total tax bill of $3.5 million.

The importance of Goodwill, however, cannot be measured in money alone. Its most important contribution to the Nation's life lies in what it gives to those it helps in terms of hope, self-respect and a chance to build productive, interesting lives.

The Spirit of initiative and self-help represented by this fine organization is exemplary. This Nation could use large doses of the same spirit in the running of more of its affairs.

Rockefeller's Bid Tightens GOP Convention

The on-again, off-again and now finally on-again candidacy of NELSON ROCKEFELLER is the latest indication that the 1968 presidential nomination ball game isn't going to be over until the last man is in.

★ ★ ★

What promised only a short time ago to be a routine affair—the automatic renomination of President JOHNSON by the Democrats and, after the withdrawal of GEORGE ROMNEY, the inevitable selection of RICHARD NIXON by the Republicans, has turned into the kind of contest in which anything can happen.

The party conventions my yet be unexciting. Nixon, amassing a powerful core of delegates, may be unstoppable. Kennedy and McCarthy may dissipate their energies against each other, with Hubert Humphrey easily stepping over them for his party's endorsement.

But no one living is laying any bets. If the surprises of the past few months are a clue, 1968 may well be a year of the dark horse, of whom there are several undoubtedly beginning to prance nervously in the wings.

U.S. Generals Take Dim Look at Countrymen

Americans "have had it so good too long and have gotten soft," said Gen. JAMES H. DOOLITTLE the other day.

"On the average," continued the man who led the daring air raid against Tokyo 26 years ago, "we are not as courageous or as moral as our founding fathers. We are suffering from the ravages of prosperity. As a nation, we are inclined to laziness and immorality."

★ ★ ★

Another general once delivered a much more stinging criticism of his fellow Americans:

"Such a dearth of public spirit and want of virtue, such stock-jobbing and fertility in all the low arts to obtain advantages of one kind or another . . . I never saw before, and pray God I may never be witness to again . . . Such a dirty, mercenary spirit pervades the whole, that I should not be at all surprised at any disaster that may happen."

★ ★ ★

Thus wrote GEORGE WASHINGTON shortly after taking command of the army besieging Boston in 1775.

All of which suggests that the fiber of a people is to be assayed in the light of history rather than contemporaneously.

Our Mammoth Federal Government

By EVERETT DIRKSEN

DIRKSEN

At various points in time the wordmongers and lexicographers have enriched the English language with appropriate words to denote bigness — words like giant, mammoth, colossal, huge, massive, behemoth, enormous and gargantuan. And all of those words would apply in describing the size of your federal government today, whether in terms of scope, function or spending.

In no respect are they more appropriate than in terms of describing our brobdingnagian civilian manpower.

★ ★ ★

You can begin to get the picture if you come to Washington and gaze upon the behemoths of brick, stone and concrete that are used to house the civilians who work for us.

You would never have time to see all of the thousands upon thousands of people who work in those buildings, but you contribute to the salary of every one of them.

For every man in the Internal Revenue Service who works to extract taxes from you, there are hundreds of civilians in CAA, ICC, SEC, Civil Service, GPO, AEC, CAB, and so on, who spend those taxes. Hopefully, for your benefit, of course.

Some day there will have to be an easing up of the load that is strapped to the back of the patient taxpayer. You can get a picture of the future if you cast back in history and look at the way the public payroll grew:

When George Washington was president in 1792, the population of the new nation was estimated to be 4,192,000. The civilian payroll was 780 persons — about one person paid to work for the government for every 5,300 of the population.

Under Abraham Lincoln in 1861 — 69 years later — the population of the U.S. had grown to 32,351,000. The civilian payroll had gone to 36,372, about one person for every 900 in the population.

In 1909, when Theodore Roosevelt occupied the White House, the population had risen to 90,470,000 and the federal civilian payroll to 372,379. One payroller for every 250 Americans.

When the frugal Calvin Coolidge was president in 1927 the population was 121,770,000 and the civilian payrollers had gone to 579,159.

The population had grown to 60 per cent of what it is today and the work force had increased to one person per 210 in our population.

Our population today is nearly 200 million. The civilian work force is 2,903,000 — one worker for every 66 people in the land.

But we have been considering the federal payroll only. If we think about the salaries paid by townships, counties, cities, park districts, sanitary districts and states for the services of clerks, teachers, policemen, firemen and others the public payrolls get truly gargantuan in size. Why, teachers in one category alone would account for 1.75 million on public payrolls.

It might well be that if every person paid out of public funds at all levels for services rendered were counted it could mean one payroller for every 25 men, women and children in our population. When you think of it, the first word that comes out is "wow!"

There have been times when great effort was made to reduce the payrolls. For example, we took hundreds of separate units and made them into the GSA — General Services Administration — so the purchases of everything from pencils to trucks and glue to buildings could come out of one place. The GSA, of course, only gets bigger.

As new functions, programs and projects are added at all levels of government, the load grows. One answer to cutting the payroll would be to return some of the demands for service to the local community where perhaps greater and more penetrating attention would be paid to expenditures.

Otherwise, that load we are all carrying on our backs is going to break our backs.

The POWER of FAITH

By WOODI ISHMAEL

The Rev. Francis Goh has come halfway around the world from a variety of religious backgrounds to give a new dimension, as associate minister, to the Methodist Church in Mamaroneck, N.Y. Born in Singapore of Chinese parents, his father was a Diest, his paternal grandmother a staunch Buddhist, and his mother and maternal grandmother devout Catholics. As a boy he went to the Buddhist Temple with one grandmother and to the Catholic church with the other.

His education was similarly varied. First he went to a Presbyterian school in Singapore, then to a Catholic school in Penang, neither of which filled his needs. In a Methodist boys' school he found what he wanted.

After high school he decided to be a Methodist minister. Following one year of college in Singapore he came to West Virginia Wesleyan on a full scholarship and finished college in two and a half years. He went to Duke Divinity School on a full scholarship and was ordained in 1965.

The Rev. Goh's faith typifies the best of the East and the West. He says, "Faith comes partly through knowledge and enlightenment, and love and service are the fruits of one's faith." Recently married to an American girl of Danish background who is a social worker, he has broken every tradition of his family. But he is convinced that "the interchange and amalgamation of cultures and ideas will do much to bring world peace."

Confident Living:

Anyone's Life Can Be Improved

By NORMAN VINCENT PEALE

It is amazing how some people's lives improve and all because they realize a dynamic fact. The realization that works such wonders is that every human being has greater possibilities and potentials which have not yet been brought into action.

DR. PEALE

Every person has it in him to become a more successful, happier individual.

One Sunday evening a frustrated fellow was driving glumly from one New Jersey town to another on delivery pickups. His truck was not one of those mammoth high-powered vehicles that go zooming along superhighways. It was rattly, rickety and beat up.

This was not the kind of job he wanted anyway. But he did have a goal. He knew what he wanted to do. He had an ambition to be a social worker helping underprivileged people. But he was lacking in the required education to qualify. So here he was driving this truck.

The pay was barely enough to live on and he could not seem to save anything. So he wasn't getting anywhere. "I'm a washout," he thought bitterly. "A huge flop."

Dilapidated as it was, the truck did have a radio and he chanced to pick up a Sunday evening inspirational talk. "Have you a goal?" the voice was saying. "Some definite thing you want to achieve? Then with God's help you can do it — if you believe you can! Believe in life. Believe in yourself. Believe in the potentials you possess."

The man was not convinced. But anyway he took to listening to that radio program each Sunday. And finally one night he decided to go with a positive attitude "I am going to be a social worker. I believe I have it in me to reach that goal."

Once having made this decision things began to happen. He began to think creatively and take more initiative. He soon found a job where he could earn a living at daytime truck driving and have his evenings free. So he started going to high school.

It was a strenuous combination. But he kept at it. He discovered aptitudes he didn't know he had and did increasingly well at his studies.

He wrote me a letter telling of these experiences. It ended with this postscript: "I've got a motto. My motto is, 'I'll never quit. I will believe. I can do it.'"

Not long ago I heard from him again. He is now an accredited social worker. "Now," he writes, "I have the happiness of helping people who have let things get them down like I once did. I am so thankful. My motto is still the same: 'I'll never quit. I will believe. I can do it.'"

★ ★ ★

Now if some people's lives get so wonderfully changed because they started the process of believing in themselves, the same can happen to anybody. Actually there is no need for anyone to go through life frustrated and beaten.

I read somewhere about a man plagued with fears, weaknesses and resentments, who got to thinking one day that the average person lives about half a million hours in his lifetime. And it occurred to him that it might be worth investing 24 hours of a half-million in an all-out try to live for one day in every respect according to positive living principles, a day in which there would be no negative attitude, not even a negative expression.

This idea took hold of him and he decided to give it a try. He chose a day and resolved he would start that morning and live that way for 24 hours.

It took plenty of self-discipline. He had a lot of battles with old habits, some rough moments fighting off fatigue and "Oh, what's it all about." But he stuck it out. When the 24 hours were up he felt joyousness, a sense of release he had never known before. He felt free of anxiety and was full of new vitality and good will.

Indeed he felt so good that he decided to continue living on this basis permanently. But about the fourth day the downward pull of long-established personality patterns became too much for him. He took a nose dive and plummeted back to his old unhappy ways.

But now he was more miserable than before, for he had had a taste of what life can really be like at higher levels. And he knew he had the potentials for topdrawer living. So he started climbing back up. And while he frequently slips and stumbles, there has been dramatic improvement in his emotional condition, his job and in personal relationships.

Never forget it — you have real potential and you can activate it. Anybody's life can be improved.

'Many in Class of '68 Are Looking for Work'

Many of the class of '68 have gone to the business world willing to work. We have skills which we are most anxious to express, but we are told "no, you are inexperienced," "you are too young," or "you want to go to college." Many students have been confronted with this problem.

Our greatest aspiration is to attend college and prepare ourselves for the future on our own, financially and scholastically. We want to work, pay our own way, prepare ourselves for what is yet to come. Through The Pontiac Press, I ask the City of Pontiac, can you and will you help us?

Calls Attention to Anti-Vivisection Society

A Press editorial expresses concern over Vivisection. It sounds as though there are no groups currently fighting this in the U.S.

★ ★ ★

Perhaps you will be interested in an issue of the monthly magazine I receive as a member of the Anti-Vivisection Society. It is a very worthwhile cause and any publicity might help. The part that concerns me most is that our young people are actually encouraged to be so heartless with living beings. I abhor the entire idea.

'Three Requirements for Honor Society'

As the valedictorian whose name was omitted from last year's National Honor Society list, I feel qualified to reply to the question of "Student." The omission of my name was due to a mathematical error in the tabulation of ballots. Scholarship is but one of four requirements for admission to National Honor Society. The other three are character, leadership and service. It cannot be denied that more enters into the personality of a well-rounded person than good grades. An A and B student can be elected if he remembers the key word—involvement.

'Foreign Aid Enemy of Nation's Economy'

Foreign aid is 22 years old; including interest on the money we have borrowed to give away, its total cost can be calculated at $164 billion.

Annual interest on foreign aid expenditures is some $4 billion. Unexpended foreign aid dollars from prior years' authorizations total on the order of $15 billion. For fiscal '69, the President has asked the Congress to authorize more than $11 billion. If the Congress complies, AID officials will have a spending authority of approximately $26 billion.

★ ★ ★

There is nothing in the U.S. economy, balanced budgets at home and abroad would not cure. Foreign aid is the natural enemy of sound economy. Every foreign aid dollar spent at home for goods sent abroad is inflationary; every aid dollar spent abroad contributes to our foreign balance of payments deficits. In September 1949, our gold reserve stood at $24.3 billion; foreign purchases have reduced this gold reserve to less than $10 billion. In foreign hands remains $31 billion dollar credits redeemable in gold, $21 billion more than we possess.

★ ★ ★

Our European garrisons, sent on the pretext they would be withdrawn as soon as Europe could replace them, are a form of foreign aid. Except for our token forces in Berlin, they should be withdrawn. Withdrawal of our European surface forces would reduce our annual foreign balance of payments deficit by some $2 billion. These troops would serve us better were they strategically deployed in the U.S. and available to quell riots.

★ ★ ★

Ask your senators and representatives why foreign aid is sacrosanct. In the coming election, select and elect congressmen pledged to end foreign aid and bring the boys home from Europe. These would lead to fiscal sanity.

Answers Complaint About Treatment of Dog

In reply to a letter regarding "cruel and inexcusable treatment" of a dog, I offer details of what actually occurred. An employe of The Salvation Army observed this collie wandering in Lawrence Street, caught the dog and tied it to the parking lot fence at 7 a.m. The dog warden was called, the owner contacted and the dog claimed at 9 a.m. The dog was tied to the fence to protect him from injury in heavy traffic.

'Don't Forget Long-Time Friend of Pontiac'

Have people forgotten Ida who for many years had the concession at the old Pontiac Court House? I remember when I was a child how she was blind but happy, and know what a great insight she has of life and love for her fellow man. The echoing chatter which made her part of the busy world in the large corridor represented life; but at her partially hidden concession at the Pontiac Post Office, sounds and people are few. Let's let her know she's not forgotten. Stop and say hello.

Question and Answer

Why is it compulsory to pay $1.00 to the uninsured fund when you purchase your car license plates when you already pay into it through your insurance company?

L. C.

REPLY

Mr. Havey of the Uninsured Motorist office tells us it is partly to protect individuals who don't own cars and therefore aren't protected by insurance, but who may be traffic victims. These are primarily elderly persons and children. You also benefit from it because you can collect from it as well as your own insurance. If your insurance covers you up to $10,000 and the claim is more, you can collect up to $10,000 from the state on the amount your insurance doesn't cover. In case your policy doesn't cover all types of accidents, you can collect from the state. And if you have a second car on which you carry only liability, the state fund covers property damage to that car, minus the $200 deductible. So the dollar not only protects people who don't drive or own cars, but gives you added protection, too.

Williams Is Warned to Beware of Huks

WASHINGTON (AP) — G. Mennen Williams, nominated by President Johnson to be ambassador to the Philippines, was examined Friday by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and warned to beware of Huk rebels in his new post.

The former six-term Democratic governor of Michigan and former assistant secretary of state for African Affairs was warned by Sen. Karl E. Mundt, R-S.D.

★ ★ ★

Mundt called the Huk movement "very serious, well organized, a real invisible government."

"I suspect it's financed by the Chinese communists," Mundt said. "But I can't prove it."

Williams said he knows little of the Huks except that they are reputedly active in central Luzon. He said his State Department briefings on the subject have not been completed.

DIFFERENT VIEW

A different view of the Huks was offered by Sen. Clifford Case, D-N.J.: "I understand they are just brigands, financed by rich Filipinos as a kind of leach against the people."

Case said also he is concerned lest Philippine officials attempt what he called blackmail against the United States.

★ ★ ★

Case said that when he visited the Philippines he was "impressed with the feeling that they would bleed us for everything they could get with the threat they would go Communist unless we came across" with foreign aid.

Case said he believes that "90 per cent of American aid to the Philippines goes into corrupt hands."

DIRECT TO PEOPLE

Williams said that as ambassador he would attempt to see that U. S. aid "goes directly to the people."

Chairman J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., advised Williams to read the history of the American occupation of the Philippines.

"I always thought the war against the Philippines was, until recently the most disgraceful incident in American history," Fulbright said.

He indicated he believes the Vietnam war has now assumed that position.

Fulbright said there is no opposition to Williams appointment and that he expects the committee to approve the appointment and sent it to the full Senate in the next few days.

Williams told the committee he has asked the State Department for a month to wind up his affairs in the United States. He said he expects to attend Michigan's Democratic State Convention, but only "in the role of an elder statesman."

No Complaints

SALEM, Ore. (AP) — There were no complaints from delegates when an elevator was out of order during the convention of the Pacific Northwest American Water Works Association at a Salem hotel. The elevator is water-powered.

EXPANSION—The steel work going up is the framework for GMC Truck and Coach Division's new production warehouse in the division's manufacturing area in southeast Pontiac. The 472,000 square-foot production warehouse is one of several modernization projects being undertaken by the division.

GMC Truck Modernization On

GMC Truck and Coach Division is currently undertaking a modernization program involving the expenditure of several million dollars.

The building projects include expanding and updating engineering, manufacturing, material control and vehicle shipping facilities. A major improvement will be the 472,000-square-foot production warehouse currently being constructed.

Other projects include new buildings and facilities for shipping and delivering trucks by rail and highway carriers.

Additional administrative office space in the form of an addition to the present administration building is also in the works.

★ ★ ★

Martin J. Caserio, a vice president of General Motors Corp. and GMC general manager, said these and other projects will bring a new look to the truck and coach division.

"The outcome will be a modern truck and coach manufacturing plant that will add even more prosperity and prestige to the Pontiac area," he said.

★ ★ ★

The modernization effort, launched earlier this year, will continue over several years.

Waterford Will Get 2 Rezoning Requests

Two rezoning requests will be introduced at the 7:30 p.m. meeting of the Waterford Township Board Monday night.

- A request to rezone property on M59 at Paulsen from general business (C2) to multiple dwelling (R2) for apartments.
- A request to rezone property at Hatchery and Dixie Highway from C2 to extensive business (C3) for a storage lot for building materials.

Action on the two requests probably will be taken at the board's May 13 meeting.

In other business, the board will meet with representatives of the Waterford Township Police Officers' Association concerning 1968 police contract demands.

★ ★ ★

The police, reportedly, are seeking 1½-time-pay for overtime, a $200-across-the-board increase and additional pay for the captain and lieutenant.

Also Monday night, the board will consider a request for a lot split in Dixie Trail Subdivision.

Middle-Aged White Men Studied

Rural Area Is Best for Health

WASHINGTON (AP) — The place a man calls home can often mean the difference between life and death after he has reached middle age, a new federal study reports.

For the white man 45 to 64, it says, the death risk is twice as great if he lives in an Eastern city instead of a rural area of the central or western United States.

★ ★ ★

The highest-risk states it listed as Hawaii, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Nevada, northern Arizona, parts of Louisiana, southern Mississippi and east-central Pennsylvania.

States with the lowest risk: North Dakota, Nebraska, Minnesota, Kansas, New Mexico, Oregon, Colorado, Texas, Iowa and Missouri.

HIGHER RISK RATES

The findings were in a report released Thursday by the U.S. Public Health Service.

It said that in general, urban and other heavily populated areas have higher risk rates for middle-aged men than rural areas.

The reasons for these differences are not known, said Herbert I. Sour, a statistician for the National Center for Chronic Disease Control.

He said health experts are considering as possible causes such "risk factors" associated with heart disease as cigarette smoking, overweight, diet and the stresses and strains of life in various regions.

POPULOUS AREA

The heavily populated area between Boston and Washington, D.C., has a death-rate risk generally in middle to upper levels. The West Coast, other than Oregon, is mostly in the middle-risk rate range, the study said.

★ ★ ★

Sour said middle-aged white men develop cardiovascular disease three times faster than women of the same age and coronary heart disease five times faster.

Supervisor Sessions Target

Secret-Meeting Ban Nears OK

LANSING (AP) — The Senate moved 11 bills — including a measure that would prohibit county boards of supervisors from meeting in secrecy — to third reading Friday before adjourning for the weekend.

The House passed a Senate-approved bill providing that vacancies in county offices would be filled by midterm elections.

★ ★ ★

The upper chamber defeated an amendment to the county board bill that would have permitted boards to cast secret ballots in electing board chairmen, appointing public officials to commissions or in selecting employes.

Passage of the bill was urged on grounds that there was an increasing tendency for boards to conduct their meetings behind closed doors and thus remove themselves from public scrutiny.

OTHER ACTION

In other action, the Senate moved to third reading a bill that would permit youths under 14 years of age to work as golf caddies. Child labor laws presently forbid the practice.

The upper chamber also advanced a bill to increase the interest rate on municipal bonds from 5 to 6 per cent.

★ ★ ★

Given 83-4 approval and immediate effect by the House, meanwhile, was the county election bill introduced by Sen. Robert VanderLaan, R-Grand Rapids.

Currently, vacancies in such offices as county clerk, auditor or prosecutor are filled by appointment and the appointee serves the remainder of the four-year term.

ELECTION RULE SET

Under VanderLaan's bill, if the vacancy occurred within the first two years of the term and at least 120 days before the next general election, it would be filled in that election.

The House also voted to confirm an earlier action designed to limit chiropractors' use of machines other than x-ray devices. It deleted from a chiropractor regulation measure authorization for them to use "other analytical instruments generally used in the practice of chiropractic."

★ ★ ★

Members struck the reference to other instruments earlier this week after some charged that some chiropractors use "Buck Rogers gadgets" and "machines with flashing lights that don't do anything."

★ ★ ★

Film of 6 U.S. 'Deserters' Is Seen in Russia

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union, while noting only briefly the Hanoi-Washington agreement on preliminary peace talks, played up television interviews Friday with six Americans identified as deserters from Vietnam duty.

In a program apparently filmed earlier and saved to be used with maximum effect, the six men protested what they called U.S. aggression in Vietnamand one said U.S. trops used nerve gas and tortured prisoners.

★ ★ ★

The half-hour program devoted the most atention to one American, identified as Edwin Arnett, about 30, of Bradford, Pa., a photographer and former Marine.

The man said he saw a U.S. officer cut open a baby and throw it at its mother. He also said U.S. forces burned villages and blamed the destruction on the Viet Cong.

OTHER IDENTITIES

The other men were identified as Marine Joseph Knetz, about 27, home town not given; soldier Mark Alan Shapiro, 20, of St. Paul, Minn.; soldier Terry Whitmore, 21, Memphis, Tenn.; sailor Phillip Callicott, 20, Mansfield, Ohio, and soldier Kenneth Charles Griggs, 21, Boise, Idaho.

Knetz' name earlier had been

understood as Metz over the air.

In Washington, the Defense Department said it had no military record that men named Metz, Arnett, Whitmore and Callicott were missing, AWOL or had deserted. It said a preliminary check showed no one named Mark Alan Shapiro missing from Vietnam.

★ ★ ★

The department added that Army Pfc. Kenneth C. Griggs was listed as AWOL but another Kenneth Griggs from Boise is listed as present for duty in the Navy.

Woman's National Farm and Association

Eighth Annual Flower Show a Success

By JODY HEADLEE
Garden Editor, The Pontiac Press

Jewels, nature's and man's, highlighted the eighth annual Woman's National Farm and Garden Association's flower show sponsored by Wright Kay and Co., Detroit.

★ ★ ★

The recent exhibition of flower arrangements and table settings followed this year's theme "Floral Splendor." It was chosen from readings as a departure from traditional WNFGA travel and geographical motifs.

Occupying three floors of Wright Kay's main building, the show incorporated facets of artistic, social and historic awareness including the best and oldest in civilization from primitive handicrafts to continental table settings.

Pots of blooming chrysanthemums highlighted the main entrance to the store and show where the wall showcases honored national and state officers of the WNFGA.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Marvin L. Katke, state president and a member of the Birmingham branch, created an arrangement of white Dutch iris, fern and pearls to recognize the dedication of the national officers.

STATE OFFICERS

State officers were heralded in an arrangement of curved wisteria branches, white calla lilies and glossy monstera leaf in a white container. The simple yet dramatic portrayal of leadership was fashioned by Mrs. Fred Trickey of the Osage branch.

On the front display case a tall arrangement by Mrs. Arthur R. Stiller, past president of the Holly branch, welcomed visitors to the show. Mrs. Stiller chose interesting fronds of Scotch broom to frame the petals of chrysanthemum blossoms and glossy greens.

In memory of Mrs. Alfred G. Wilson, past national president of WNFGA, Mrs. Harvey Kresge of the Bloomfield Hills branch created a majestic pedestal display of white Phalaenopsis orchids and greens in a footed container.

An imaginative collection of miniatures by Mrs. E. A. Linder of the Osage branch highlighted the floral exhibit on the mezzanine. Utilizing buttons, slices of black walnut shells, small stones and minute sea shell halves as containers, Mrs. Linder assembled diminutive dried bouquets perfect in detail and design.

Candy pink carnations and fern accented silver pieces in Mrs. Arthur Cox' arrangement on the second floor. Mrs. Cox, a member of the Milford branch, served as the show's publicity cochairman with Mrs. Earle C. Heft, state publicity and calendar chairman.

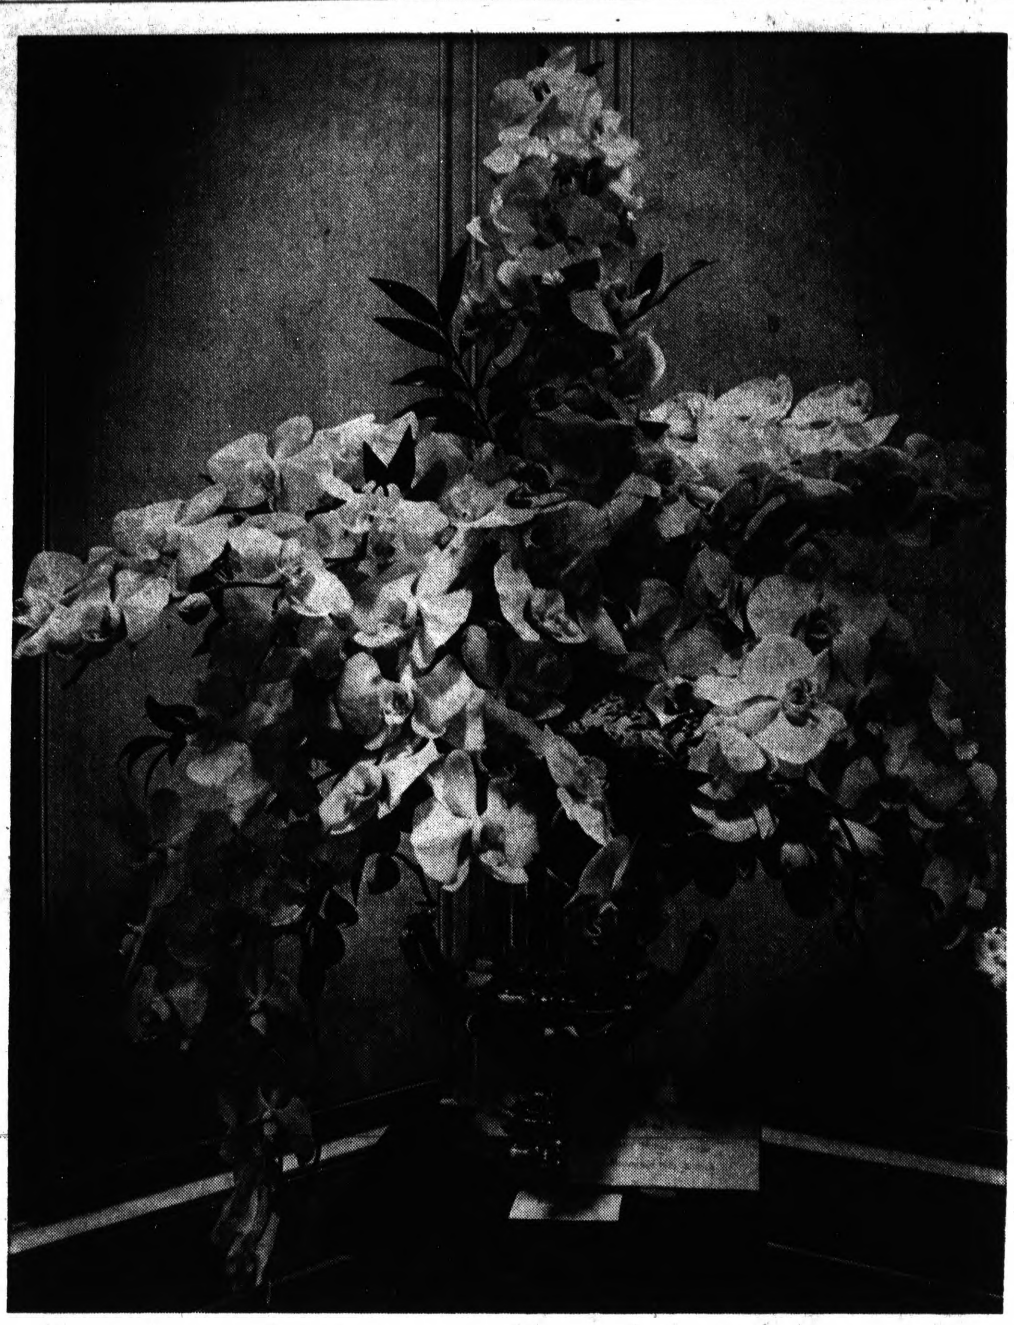
Pontiac branch member, Mrs. L. Jerome Fink displayed in the fourth floor handicraft nook a predominately yellow arrangement to capture the sunshine of spring in flowers.

★ ★ ★

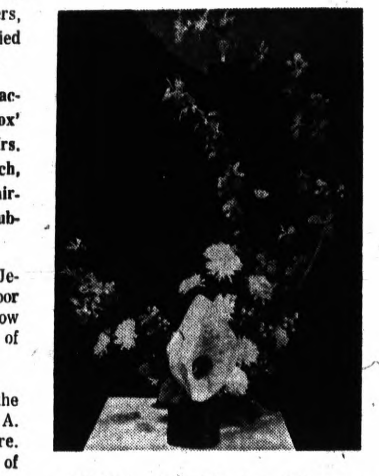
Among the hostesses serving for the two-day exhibit were Mrs. Joseph A. Watson Jr. and Mrs. Donald Scripture. Mrs. Watson is the current president of the Rochester branch.

★ ★ ★

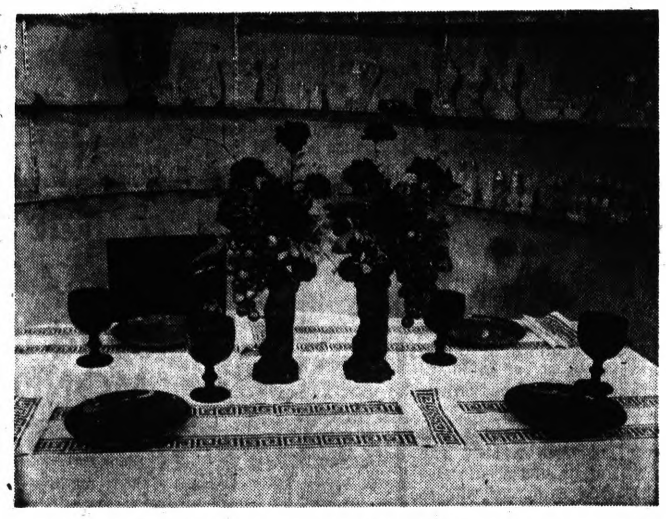
The entire flower show was staged by WNFGA members under the direction of Mrs. James C. Morrison, general chairman. In appreciation of the association's cooperation and to further its scholarship program, Wright Kay awarded a $1,500 contribution to WNFGA.



IN MEMORIAM — White Phalaenopsis orchids and greens shower from a silver urn in a pedestal arrangement created by Mrs. Harvey Kresge of the Bloomfield Hills branch in memory of Mrs. Alfred G. Wilson. Mrs. Wilson, the immediate past president of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association, served from 1964 to 1966.

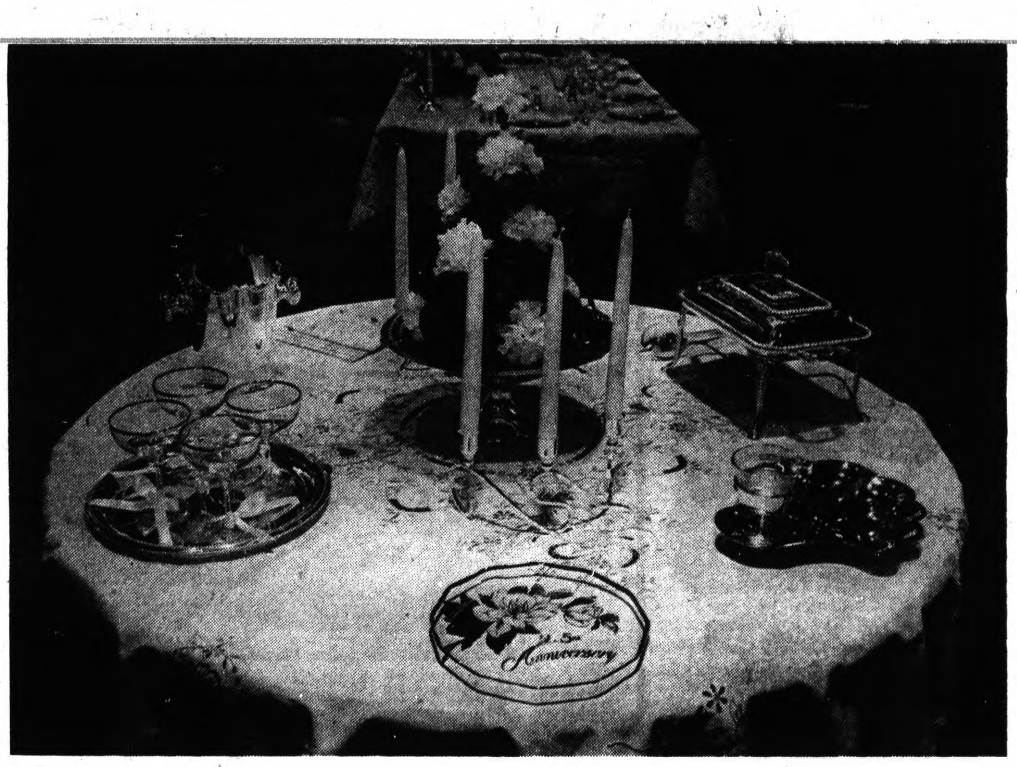


SPRING — Mrs. Theodore Satersmoen of the Wing Lake Shores branch chose apple blossom branches, white mums and greens to accent a wood base marble sculpture.



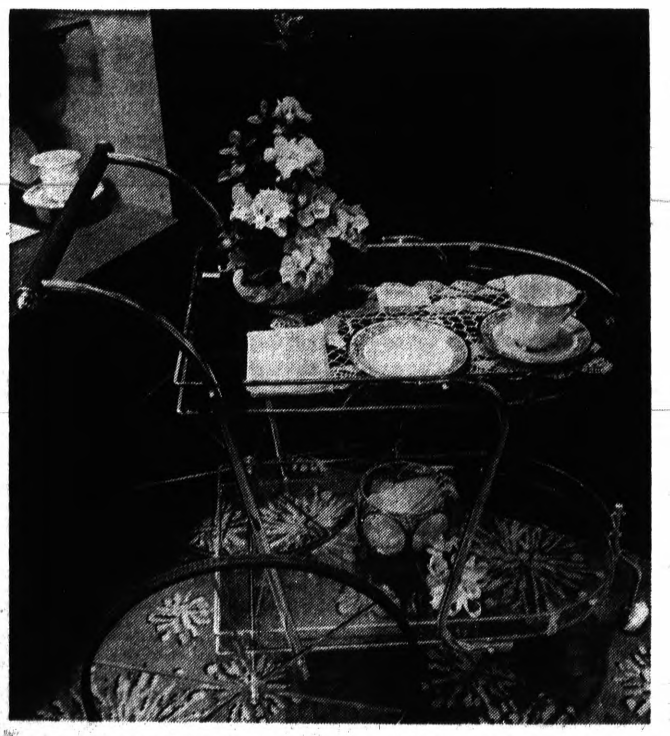
Pontiac Press Photos
by Edward R. Noble

FOREIGN FLAVOR — Relying on red and black, Mrs. Newton Skillman Jr. of the Lake Angelus branch created a Greek-influenced table setting. Black figurines hold balanced arrangements of red grapes, Red Osier dogwood and rhododendron and huckleberry leaves.

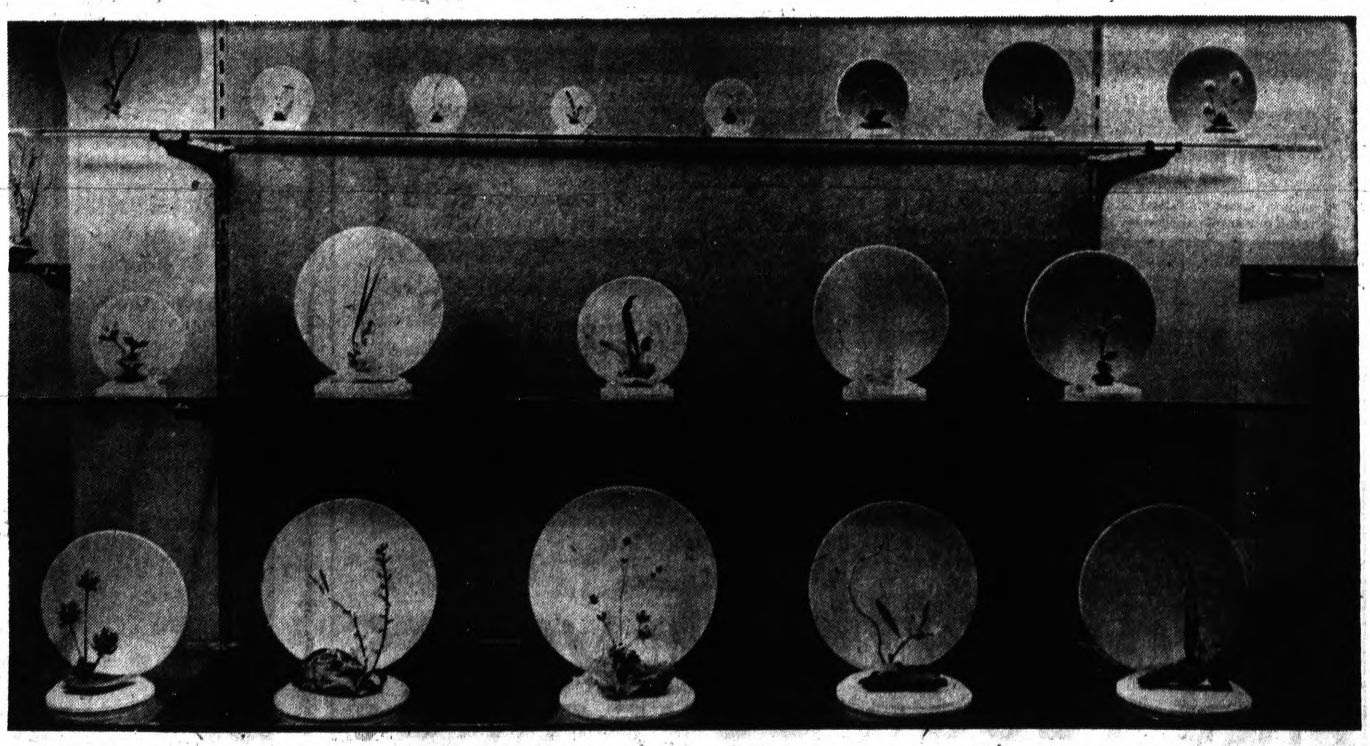


HAPPY ANNIVERSARY — Silver splendor marked the 25th anniversary table created by Mrs. Atwell Smith, Mrs. Fred Cowin and Mrs. Robert Kilpatrick, all of the Bloomfield Village branch. White carnations and ivy in a silver pedestal container flanked by matching silver candelabrum decorated the buffet table covered by a white cutwork cloth.

SPLASH PARTY—Mrs. Richard Kaltz of the Birmingham branch displayed a whimsical table ready for summer fun. A swim-suited Barbie doll prepares to slide down the ice bucket ramp into the blue linen pool edged with white pebbles. Spilling out of the Styrofoam container are perky yellow centered daisies, bright blue bachelor buttons and sleek green euonymus.



GOOD MORNING — Pontiac branch member, Mrs. Parker Rockwell showed how to insure happiness at your house on Mothers' Day, May 12. Fete the queen for a day with breakfast in bed, a pink geranium corsage and pearls. Pink geraniums and euonymus topped the tea cart tray.



BITS OF BEAUTY — The mezzanine exhibit of Mrs. E. A. Linder of the Osage branch proved beautiful bouquets come in small packages. Varying circles of white formed backgrounds for the diminutive beauty of nature. A single seed pod, a weathered twig, a berry cluster triggered Mrs. Linder's imagination and an exquisite arrangement in miniature was created. Each is perfect scale and balance.

Comic Paulsen Smash Hit in State Capitol Tour

LANSING (AP) — Comedian Pat Paulsen tailored his jokes to the Michigan scene at a news conference following his triumphant tour of the State Cpitol Friday.

Paulsen received standing applause for a surprise appearance before the House of Representatives. Romney in his office, accepted a campaign button and told the comedian:

"People have been asking me who I would support for president."

The deadpan comic smiled in anticipation.

"It won't be you," said the governor.

Paulsen, who is running a mock campaign for President, was asked if he was 'brainwashed' by Romney, the ex-candidate for the GOP nomination for president.

BRAINWASHED?

"I liked Mr. Romney very much," said Paulsen in his only serious moment. "He was very gracious to me.'

"As to being brainwashed, we didn't take a shower together or anything like that."

Paulsen was asked what candidate he would endorse if his own campaign failed.

★ ★ ★

"I'm just like Romney," he said. "Uncommitted. But if I ever did get out of the race I would throw my support to the guy I least liked. That would kill him."

Typical questions and answers at the press conference went like this:

"What is your greatest appeal?"

"My body."

"What would you do about crime in the streets?"

"Move it back into the homes."

CIVIL RIGHTS SOLUTION

"What is your solution to the civil rights problem?"

★ ★ ★

"Send all the Negroes back to Africa and all whites back to Europe and start all over again."

"How would you conduct the draft?"

"Draft everyone according to the size of their heads. The tiny heads would go into the military and the fatheads into government."

Paulsen arrived in Lansing Friday for a three-night club stand.

"I mostly am here to campaign," he said, "but I hope to pick up a little money on the side. After all, you don't want a president who is not economic-minded."

Paulsen gave Romney a handful of tickets for his performances. "we serve cider there," he told nondrinker Romney.

Detroit's War on Poverty 'a Gimmick'

LANSING (AP) — The president of a Detroit-based philanthropic group which worked with Detroit's antipoverty program charges the program involves a "disgraceful and wasteful expenditure of funds."

Mrs. L.G. Auberlin, president of World Medical Relief, Inc., made the statement in a letter to Rep. James Del Rio, D-Detroit. Del Rio chaired an investigating committee which blasted the Detroit program last week.

Gov. George Romney's wife is listed by World Medical Relief as honorary chairman of its executive committee.

Mrs. Auberlin said World Medical Relief began assisting the city's Total Action Against Poverty (TAAP) program in May, 1965.

Two months later, she said, "I requested that TAAP seek assistance elsewhere as we had no intentions of becoming involved — as it was becoming more apparent that it was just another political gimmick."

She quoted Dr. T. Alden Cockburn, TAAP medical director, as saying in 1965 that "$750,000 that had been allocated to the dental program was gone without any of the funds being used to extract, fill or treat a single tooth."

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Auberlin wrote Detroit could be "a model in the relief of human suffering with its inner-city problems instead of being held up in ignominy and disgrace by every paper in the country."

Voter Sign-Up Set for King Day

DETROIT (AP) — Democratic Rep. James Del Rio of Detroit says this year's Afro-American Freedom March Day and Martin Luther King Day, both to be held June 23, will have something new. The new feature will be voter registration, if the city goes along with the idea.

Del Rio says Election Director Bernard J. Apol has told him that voter registration on Sunday is legal and now Del Rio is asking the city to provide registrars to work that day. He said he expects 50,000 to 100,000 black and white citizens to be registered that day.

Japan plans to import about 4½ tons of platinum from the Soviet Union this year.

Most Lifelong Pals Are Honored to Be Asked as Wedding Attendants

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Since the wedding season is upon us once again, I would like to address a plea to all parents who plan big, showy weddings for their daughters.

ABBY

The bride who is the star of the show, asks several of her friends to be "attendants." And since they are usually lifelong friends, they can't easily refuse.

My daughter is a serious student and is making her own way through school. She now has FIVE useless bridesmaids' gowns hanging in her closet. They average about $30 each. She had no choice as to color or style, and no matter what the saleslady says, not one of these dresses is suitable to be worn later on.

Abby, since these big, flashy weddings are put on by the bride's parents as a "show" for their friends and relatives, don't you think it's only fair that the bride's parents should pay ALL the expenses—including the gowns?

MOTHER OF A BRIDESMAID

DEAR MOTHER: Few parents can afford to buy gowns for the entire wedding party, so whether a girl can stand the financial strain of being a bridesmaid once -- or five times, is up to the girl to decide.

★ ★ ★

Most "lifelong friends" who are invited to be attendants somehow manage to accept, expense and all. And I doubt if many have ever regretted it.

The Paul F. Droeges of Birmingham announce the engagement of their daughter, Susan Lee, to James Auten. He is the son of the James E. Autens of Melvindale. The bride elect is a graduate of Western Michigan University. Her fiance is a senior at Michigan State University where he is affiliated with Delta SigmaPi. They will wed Aug. 24.

DEAR ABBY: This may seem like a silly problem to you, but it is a very serious one to me.

I like this boy very much, but every time I kiss him I get a bad headache. This is very unusual for me (getting a headache, I mean, not kissing a boy) and I wonder if maybe it could be a sign that we are not meant for each other? Thank you. "HEADACHE"

DEAR "HEADACHE": I'm not qualified to analyze headaches, but any girl who deliberately asks for one ought to have her head examined.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: I am a mature 19-year-old working girl with a 45-year-old problem. My girl friend's father. He won't leave me alone.

It started last summer when I went to my girl friend's house and she wasn't home. Her father was there, feeling very lonely and depressed. (He's in the process of getting a divorce.) I sat down and we had a frank and honest discussion, in which I gave him my views on life as seen from the younger generation.

After that, I saw him occassionally with my girl friend, and then he told me he was very much attracted to me and wanted to see me alone. I didn't know what to do, so I just steered clear of him. Then he started calling me, and writing me letters saying he was "in love" with me, and had to see me.

So far I have discouraged him, but he is persistent. I don't want to hurt him, but I don't want to get involved with him either. Must I tell him bluntly that if he doesn't leave me alone I will tell my parents? Also I hate to risk losing his daughter's friendship. What do you advise? GENERATION GAP

DEAR GAP: Tell HIM that if he calls, writes or approaches you again, you will tell your parents. I doubt if he will. But if he does, go ahead and make good your threat.

★ ★ ★

Everyone has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply write to Abby, in care of The Pontiac Press, Dept. E-600, P.O. Box 9, Pontiac, Mich 48056.

Her lawyer, A. Leonard Bjorklund, asked a sheriff's deputy to go to her home in Marshall. A note was found. The San Francisco Chronicle quoted it as saying in part:

ORDINARY

"I am a very ordinary human being, but I did a good job at Redwood High. I have watched and listened . . . and I can no longer bear the strain."

Why Grow Old?

By Josephine Lowman

If women realized what a drastic effect mannerisms have on facial contour, they would gladly give serious thought to their facial movements. Often, women do not realize what they are doing to their faces. It's a good idea to check on ourselves once in a while.

★ ★ ★

Many defects in facial and neck contour would have occurred regardless of mannerisms. However, many are due to almost entirely to damaging facial gymnastics.

For instance, the horizontal lines on the forehead come almost entirely from the habit of raising the eyebrows. Very young people often have these deeply etched on their brow. When an older person acquires these lines it is very aging.

SCOWL LINE

Then think of the line between the eyes, or the "scowl" line. Many comparatively young people have this also—it is one line you need never have! The wrinkle is etched by frowning, and it becomes deeper the more often you scowl.

This is very apt to develop during times of emotional stress or worry. You are tense and frown without being conscious of doing so.

Those little vertical lines on the upper lip are also extremely aging. Very old people are likely to have these, although some escape them. Many, many younger women develop them with the habit of pursing the lips when thinking, smoking, or talking. This surely promotes the formation of these lines and may in some instances be the only cause.

A masklike, unexpressive face is most unattractive. A woman is much more interesting with a few wrinkles and some warmth and variety in her facial expression. However, sometimes the facial expressions which cause the lines are as unattractive as the results.

The lifting of the brows gives one a perpetually startled look, a frown not only creates a deep crease but makes one look severe or cross, and there is nothing pretty about pursing the lips.

After the damage is done exercise can help. Today let me give you an exercise the famous Dr. Charlotte Davenport taught me. She was 114 years old when I interviewed her, and she looked a well preserved 75.

Maybe you had better not sit in front of a mirror, because you will look sort of silly. However, Doctor Davenport was surely proof of the pudding!

Jaws slightly separated, purse your lips but not so tightly as to form lines on the upper lip. Now pull the corners of the mouth back and up as fas as you can. Continue pursing lips and pulling corners of mouth back and up. After becoming accustomed to these movements, continue them, but add an up and down chopping motion with your lower jaw while you do the first part of the exercise.

Case No. E-585

Can Love Second Time

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE E-585: Harry G., aged 37, is disconsolate.

"Dr. Crane," he began, "I lost my wife in an auto crash a few months ago.

DR. CRANE

"She and I were high school sweethearts, so I have felt devastated ever since.

"But we have two little girls, aged five and seven, so I have tried to act cheery to buoy up their morale.

"They need a new mother and I suppose I would be far better off with a second wife.

"But I wonder if I could fall in love again?"

LOVE MAGIC

Love is much like hypnosis.

If you have been hypnotized once, you can also be hypnotized a second time!

Most people have had teen-age romances that caused heartache if they were frustrated.

The participants often felt they could never love again.

Abraham Lincoln is a classical example.

Writers have pictured him as disconsolate at the death of Ann Rutledge.

Later, However, he proposed to Mary Todd and apparently was a normally happy husband.

For love can be developed, much as a child can be taught to relish a new food that wasn't attractive on his first contact with it.

★ ★ ★

True enough, sometimes people fall in love at first sight.

But most romances are not of that type. Instead, they develop from original causual contacts or even a blind date.

If the couple share many happy experiences together, then there is a joyous emotional "aura" that begins to develop around the sight and even the voice of the other person.

Ultimately, romance evolves and the couple then feel as thrilled by each other as in the case of love at first sight.

Remember, if you go through the proper motions, you will soon feel the corresponding emotions!

That's an axiom of Applied Psychology!

It works at the dinner table, too, when you wish to introduce a new food to the baby.

Children have a natural fondness for sugar, as proved by tests on babies, but not for meat or bread or orange juice or any other taste.

★ ★ ★

"Dr. Crane," you may protest, "then how does a child ever develop a fondness for hot dogs and other later delicacies?"

Well, when he contacts that new food, he should be in a jolly, joyous emotional state.

In the case of hot dogs (wieners), he may be romping at a picnic grounds and free from the usual city apartment restrictions.

★ ★ ★

Perhaps he has cousins of his own age for playmates, too, so he is bubbling over with happiness.

Then he is offered his first bite of a hot dog!

The generalized emotional delight of the moment casts an "aura" over the wiener.

After a few repetitions, he thinks the hot dog delicious, for each bite merely revives all those former picnic joys!

★ ★ ★

The same goes for love, for it can also be logically developed!

So I urged Harry to register with out interfaith, charitable Scientific Marriage Foundation, which he did.

He is now ideally happy in a second marriage and his daughters have a lovely new mother!

Handy Gadget Butters, Scrapes

Ekco Housewares Company has just introduced the "dual tool," a handy new gadget that scrapes and butters better than anything you ever dreamed possible!

The "dual tool" is a tarnish-proof stainless steel scraper-butterer-spoon. Its curved blade holds butter in space for corn buttering with the same ease that it extracts the last bit of goodness out of the tallest, narrowest jam jars.

So, if you're frustrated by left-over jelly crammed in the bottom of a jar, arm yourself for "bottle battle" with a "dual tool" from Ekco.

HOW CAN ONE BE DECEIVED?
Jesus said, "Born of water and spirit." The deceiver will say you are born again. When you receive Jesus into your heart! Jesus said, "Go preach the gospel, he that believeth; "believeth what?. Believeth the gospel, and is baptised she be. Not is saved but shall be saved. The deceiver says you are saved by just believing in Jesus as your Saviour. The Apostles preached the gospel just like Jesus commanded them. Peter said repent and be baptised every one in the Name of Jesus Christ and receive the spirit. Like Jesus said, water and spirit. Paul also preached, baptism in the name of the Lord Jesus and the spirit. As Jesus said: water and spirit from Romans II or through Revelations was to People, Baptised in the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ and received the Holy Ghost and all that don't preach this are deceivers.

He's Saddled With Hobby

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — Charles Osborne rebuilds very old saddles, but not to sell or give away. He says he can't bear to part with them.

His first job took about six months. It was a lady's sidesaddle of the type known as the Morgan Sidesaddle made prior to 1830.

★ ★ ★

Next he found a high-back saddletree in a junk shop. Research proved it was made by the Eddlemen Brothers of Graham about 1885. Since then he has redone a United States Cavalry saddle, a Mexican Charro saddle and many others.

Butterflies on the Move

AMES, Iowa (UPI) — Colorful Monarch butterflies migrate to the South each year from their summer homes in the northern United States and Canada.

The butterflies migrate south in September and October, leaving the northland in groups for the Gulf of Mexico and the eastern coast of Texas, entomologists at Iowa State University report.

They begin their return trip late in February and arrive back in Iowa in the middle of May.

Three generations of adult butterflies are produced each summer, and it is the third generation that returns south in the fall.

IN RE: COUNTY ROAD FUNDS
To the Oakland County Board of Supervisors
Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:

I offer the following resolution which was approved by your Roads Committee at its meeting on September 15, 1967.

WHEREAS the Road Commission's determination of August 11, 1967, whereby the said Road Commission requested that a tax in the amount of 0.8 of one mill should be raised in Oakland County for the year 1968, was not approved by this Board beoause a majority of the members are of the opinion that it would be a practical impossibility to include such a tax in the proposed 1968 Budget without curtailing other essential services and expenditures, and

WHEREAS, while it is not possible to include anticipated income to be received as the County's share of State Collected Income Tax monies in the 1968 Budget, it can reasonably be anticipated that substantial sums of general fund monies will be received by the County during the 1968 fiscal year from that source;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that this Board of Supervisors recommends the allocation of a portion of the County's anticipated share of the State Collected Income Tax monies to the Road Commission for County road construction purposes, and

Misc. 4769
By Mr. Levinson
IN RE: BUDGET FOR FISCAL YEAR BEGINNING JANUARY 1, 1968 TO DECEMBER 31, 1968
To the Oakland County Board of Supervisors
Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:

Your Ways and Means Committee herewith presents to the Oakland County Board of Supervisors the recommended budget for the operation of the County for the fiscal year beginning January 1, 1968 and ending December 31, 1968, in the amount of $21,134,162.00. Included in this amount is the sum of $9,937,624.00 to cover the recommendations as to Salaries and Fringe Benefits of the Personnel Policies Committee and the Board of Auditors for 1968.

A combination of several factors this year have allowed the Committee, together with the Personnel Policies Committee and the Board of Auditors, to place before the Board for the first time in several years, a budget which we believe will adequately carry out the expanding responsibilities of the County including a start in meeting some of the critical, long standing needs in the area building construction. These are:

1. An above average increase of 12.85% in State Equalized value.
2. The new State Income Tax with an estimated return to the County for 1968 of 1.2 million dollars.
3. An estimated revenue of $100,000 from the new State Land Transfer Tax.
4. Savings on overall County operations resulting from the operations of Title 18 and 19 of the Federal Social Security Act in the areas of General Relief and Hospitalization, together with savings as a result of the merger of the Social Welfare activities with the State of Michigan.
5. Savings through the conversion of an additional floor of the Oakland County Sanatorium to sub-acute care brought about through a lessening of the Tuberculosis case load.

In line with the practice established in 1967 a separate resolution is being presented to this Board to meet the County obligation in re: the East Wing and for the payment of certain Drain commitments authorized for spread above the 15 mill limitation.

Your Committee has carefully considered the best use of the expected County return from the State Income Tax and in that connection recommend that the proceeds from this tax for the year 1968, or the equivalent of such return in non-tax revenues, be placed in the County Building Fund toward the construction of the new critically needed County Jail. Plans for this facility are now being prepared for 1968 implementation. It is further recommended that the Board of Auditors submit recommendations for the planned financing of a long range capital program in time for inclusion in the 1969 Budget. Preliminary estimates would appear to indicate building needs of approximately $30,000,000 which should be met by 1973.

In establishing the Contingent Fund for 1968, your Committee has taken into consideration not only the necessity of meeting unpredictable expenditures which experience shows, do arise, but likewise a proposal under study by the Oakland County Retirement Commission to bring the County Retirement Plan into line with other Michigan Retirement Systems. This proposal, the costs of which it appears will be upward of $100,000, will be submitted to the Board of Supervisors prior to January 1, 1968.

The matter of the request of the Road Commission and Office of Economic Opportunity for County financing referred to this Committee, has been treated by separate resolutions to the Board.

To the best of our ability, based on our studies, the recommendation of the Board of Auditors, the Personnel Policies Committee, and interviews with County Department Heads, your Committee believes the recommendations therein present a properly balanced Budget and one which provides for the best operation of the County within the limits of funds available.

Mr. Chairman, I move the adoption of the above report and approval of the 1968 Budget as submitted, including in full, provision for the recommendations as to Salaries and Fringe Benefits of the Personnel Policies Committee and the Board of Auditors.

SALARIES PORTION OF 1968 BUDGET

To the Honorable Board of Supervisors

Your Board of Auditors and the Personnel Policies Committee recommend that the following amounts be placed in the 1968 Budget to cover the cost of salaries:

$8,959,226	For 1161 positions which have been previously approved
726,298	For 106 new positions
52,100	For emergency salaries
200,000	For overtime reserve
$9,937,624	Total Salaries Budget

On the following pages are a Summary Sheet showing the distribution of the total salaries amount to the various departmental budgets and explanations of the major changes in items covered by the Salaries Portion of the Budget.

The positions budgeted for each department, their classifications, present and recommended salary ranges and descriptions of the requested and recommended new positions are shown on the colored pages of the budget document.

With the exception of the salary rates recommended for elected and appointed officials, which are solely the responsibility of the Personnel Policies Committee, this report is the joint recommendation of that Committee and the Board of Auditors. It was arrived at after lengthy hearings with the County's Department Heads and Officials.

The total salaries budget represents a 16.5% increase over the 1967 Budget. The major reasons for this increase are the 106 new positions, some of which have been requested for four years or more and the salaries increase which are based on the County's Annual Salary Survey. These salary adjustments average $600 and account for $779,539 of the total salaries budget. This is an 8.9% increases in the cost of old and new positions.

Mr. Chairman, I move the acceptance of this report as the official recommendation from the Personnel Policies Committee and the Board of Auditors, for consideration as part of the total 1968 Budget as submitted by the Ways and Means Committee.

NEW POSITIONS

In recent budgets, the major emphasis has been on keeping salaries and fringe benefits on a competitive level so that the County could keep its present positions filled. The granting of new positions was given secondary importance even though it was recognized that most departmental requests were legitimate attempts to service a growing population and to staff new levels and areas of service which the County now provides.

Most of the 106 new positions are repeat requests. Some have been requested for the past four years. The two largest allocations of positions are in the Health Department and the Sheriff's Department.

The 33 positions recommended for the Health Department, out of the 42 requested are to cover long standing needs created by a growing population and to properly service some public health activities which have been passed on to the County level from the State and from local communities. Many of these essential services are barely provided for with the present staffing.

The 20 positions recommended for the Sheriff are to provide a more adequate coverage in several areas. Because of the heavy load in such fringe activities as transporting prisoners to prison, guarding prisoners in Court, testifying in Court and giving road tests to drivers license applicants, there are occasions when only one Sheriff's patrol car is on the road in the entire County. Six of the new positions are for additional jail guards. Presently there are occasions on two shifts where one guard must cover three floors of an often dangerously overcrowded jail.

POSITIONS RECOMMENDED FOR IMMEDIATE EFFECT

In their budget hearings some departments stressed the need for granting some new positions as soon as possible. The Personnel Policies Committee and the Board of Auditors recommend that the following positions be granted effective with the passing of the 1968 Budget.

For the Auditors-Personnel Division: One Typist I, one Stenographer I and one Personnel Technician II. These positions are necessary to adequately carry out the provisions of the Merit System which was approved last November. The total cost of these positions for the remainder of the year is $3,700.

For the Clerk-Register of Deeds: One Clerk I to act as deliveryman and coordinator of office supplies and mail for both divisions of the office. The cost for 1967 would be $975.

For the Prosecuting Attorney: One Assistant Prosecutor I. Under recent court decisions and legal interpretations applying to the legal rights of minors, it is imperative that the County be represented by an Assistant Prosecutor in all Juvenile Court cases in which minor is represented by counsel. The remaining 1967 cost would be $1,875.

All of these positions are included among the 106 new positions recommended for 1968.

SALARY ADJUSTMENTS

The salary adjustments included in this recommendation range from $200 per year up to one elected official at $4,000. The total cost of these raises to the 1267 old and new budgeted positions is $779,539 for an average raise of $600. This is 8.9% of the cost of the old and new positions.

The raises were based on the County's turnover and recruiting experience during the first eight months of the year; the wage patterns established and being established, both locally and nationally; and the results of the County's annual salary survey which this year covered the State of Michigan, seven Michigan Counties, ten comparable other counties elsewhere in the country, thirteen cities, seven hospitals, nine school districts and four firms in private industry.

Also considered was the effect the new State Income Tax, the proposed increase in Federal Income Tax, the possible Pontiac City Income Tax and a possible increase in Social Security deductions will have on the "take-home pay" of County employees.

The new salary schedule should make the County very competitive in its recruiting and retention of employees, at least temporarily, but the County is operating in a very competitive market.

EMERGENCY SALARIES

The reasons for granting "emergency salaries" are usually to allow a department to cope with a fluctuating case load, to cover vacation and sick leave absences or to cover special repetitive seasonal projects.

The largest amount of the $52,100 total is the $20,000 earmarked for Children's Village. This amount allows the Village to have a number of "on-call" employees to guarantee adequate coverage when the scheduled employee is unable to work because of illness or other emergencies. This has proved much less expensive and less permanently binding than having full-time staffing to cover all possibilities.

OVERTIME RESERVE

In the past, the County has budgeted funds for the payment of overtime only in the Sheriff's department. Overtime in other County Departments has been paid from funds made available when budgeted positions became vacant during the budget year, or were filled at a lower rate than they were originally budgeted.

From experience, since the County began paying overtime at the time and one-half rate, at the beginning of the current budget year, it appears that funds should be specifically earmarked for the payment of overtime.

The creation of an overtime reserve within the Salaries Reserve Fund will allow funds to be set aside for the payment of overtime without committing them to particular departments. Such funds would be transferred in departmental budgets at the end of each month, based on the actual cost of the overtime worked during that month. This is the way Emergency Salaries are handled and it has given a good control over such expenditures.

A twelve month projection of a detailed account overtime payments made during the first seven months of 1967 indicates that approximately $193,000 will be paid in overtime during 1967.

FRINGE BENEFITS

As major changes were made in the County's fringe benefit programs last year, only minor changes are recommended for 1968. Most of the changes are refinements brought about by experience with the programs.

COMPENSATION FOR COURT APPEARANCE TIME FOR SHERIFF'S DEPUTIES ON NON-SCHEDULED SHIFT TIME

Present Plan

$4.00 for each day appearing in Justice or Municipal Court on non-shift time, regardless of the number of length of such appearances that day.

$8.00 for each day appearing in Circuit Court on non-shift time, regardless of the number or length of such appearances that day.

In each case, the Court must have verified the appearance in writing before the payment was made.

Recommended Plan

Pay straight time pay for such non-shift Court appearances, for the time actually worked, as verified by the Court in writing before payment is made.

SERVICE INCREMENT PAY PLAN (Longevity)

Present Plan

The percent of Service Increment pay is applied to the base salary step of the salary-range for the employee's classification, regardless of the salary step the employee is currently receiving.

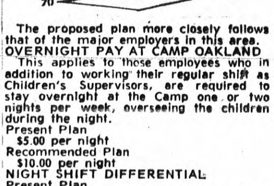
Recommended Plan.

Apply the Service Increment percentage to the actual salary step the employee is receiving. The increased cost to the budget in 1968 will be approximately $19,000.

The system will become much more equitable in its application as some classes have salary ranges of $4,000 difference between base and maximum steps. Those on a flat rate receive a definite advantage under the present plan as they already receive the percentage of the salary actually received.

ANNUAL LEAVE PLAN

In order to more adequately meet competition in recruiting, the following changes in the County's annual leave plan are recommended.



The proposed plan more closely follows that of the major employers in this area.

OVERNIGHT PAY AT CAMP OAKLAND

This applies to those employees who in addition to working their regular shift as Children's Supervisors, are required to stay overnight at the Camp one or two nights per week, overseeing the children during the night.

Present Plan
$5.00 per night
Recommended Plan
$10.00 per night

NIGHT SHIFT DIFFERENTIAL

Present Plan

Pays a bonus of 25 cents per hour to the employees of the Oakland County Sanatorium, Children's Village, Camp Oakland and Teletype Service for time actually worked on the afternoon and midnight shifts.

Recommended Plan

Add employees of the following departments to this coverage: Heating Plant, Garage, Airport, Maintenance and Building Operations.

SICK LEAVE REIMBURSEMENT

Present Plan

Allows for the half pay of all unused sick leave days in excess of 100, once a year or on separation from the County service. Last year this was amended to allow half pay for all unused sick leave on retirement.

Recommended Additions

1. Pay half pay for all unused sick leave to the survivor in the event of an employee's death.
2. Define retirement as "retirement with a pension" so that this provision does not apply to those retiring on deferred pension. In such cases, an employee may work for the County ten years, leave to work for another employer for many, many years, but leave his County retirement funds on deposit and get a County pension when he reaches retirement age. This change will save the County from having to keep track of the sick leave days over that period of time, which could be thirty years or more.

2. Change the wording of the second sentence on the second page of the report which now reads, "Plans for this facility are now being prepared for 1968 implementation" so that as amended it will read, "Plans for critically needed County Jail are now being prepared for 1968 implementation."

Mr. Chairman, on behalf of the Roads Committee, I move the adoption of the foregoing amendment and hereby request permission to read a resolution adopted by your Roads Committee at its meeting of September 29,1967.

IN RE: REPORT ON COUNTY 1967 LEGISLATIVE PROGRAM
To the Oakland County Board of Supervisors
Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:

The report by the County Legislative Agent to the Chairman of the Board of Supervisors, in accordance with his contract, has been received.

This Board, by Miscellaneous Resolution No. 4647, adopted a five-point County 1967 Legislative Program and your Legislative Committee herewith reports the following results:

1. Senate Bill No. 479, which would abolish the office of coroner and create the office of medical examiner in certain counties was introduced in 1966 and revived in 1967 and, after many conferences between Senate and House Conference Committees, the agreement was returned to the House minutes before final adjournment. The bill was not acted upon with final agreement or amendments and is still alive for the 1968 Session.

2. House Bill No. 3254, which would amend the so-called Hutchinson Act, to provide that employees of any Police Department or any agency engaged in, or having the responsibility for law enforcement work shall not join or belong to any labor organization or affiliate that admits non-police employees to membership, was introduced and held in Committee. A substitute Senate Bill No. 180 was introduced and passed by the Senate, sent to the House and referred to Committee on Appropriations. The bill is still alive.

3. H. B. No. 2183, which would amend Act 98 of the Public Acts of 1964 to provide that any Law Enforcement Officer also be included in the persons required to file reports of child abuse, was passed in both Houses and is now Act 219, Public Acts of 1967.

4. H. B. No. 2192 would amend Act 312 of the Public Acts of 1957 and provide additional funds to an Intermediate School District for the operation of and educational programs for wards of the Court. This bill was referred to the Education Committee which refused to put it out, and it also was opposed by various school people.

5. Senate Bill No. 132, which would increase the amount of matching funds from the State for foster children care, was referred to the Senate Appropriations Committee where no money was made available this year. The bill is alive for 1968.

The foregoing results show that three bills are still alive, one bill died in Committee and one bill passed and became law, for a total attainment of 20%

Mr. Chairman, on behalf of the Legislative Committee, I move the adoption of the foregoing report.

IN RE: REPORT ON 7TH DISTRICT SUPERVISORS REQUEST FOR EMPLOYMENT OF LEGISLATIVE AGENT
To the Oakland County Board of Supervisors
Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:

The Michigan State Association of Supervisors 7th District Legislative Committee, which is comprised of members from Oakland, Macomb, Genesee, St. Clair, Huron, Sanilac, Lapeer and Tuscola County Boards of Supervisors, referred a recommendation to your Legislative Committee that the eight county Boards of Supervisors comprising the 7th District adopt a plan to employ a legislative agent, with cost to be paid on a per capita basis, based on the most current census information available, to represent our legislative views in Lansing.

Your Legislative Committee, at its meeting on August 29, 1967, considered this matter at length and did not concur in the recommendation for the following reasons:

1. That the County of Oakland presently maintains its own paid full-time lobbyist.

2. The County of Oakland's membership in the State Association of Supervisors also includes the services of the Association's legislative lobbyist.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Oakland County Board of Supervisors does not concur in the recommendation of the 7th District Legislative Committee that a full-time legislative agent be employed to represent the eight counties of the 7th District of the Michigan State Association of Supervisors.

Mr. Chairman, I move the adoption of the foregoing resolution.

LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE
Carl F. Ingraham, Chairman
Vernon B. Edward, Wm. L. Mainland, Philip O. Mastin, Jr., Cyril E. Miller, Alexander C. Perinoff, John S. Slavens

Moved by Ingraham supported by Perinoff the resolution be adopted.

A sufficient majority having voted therefor, the resolution was adopted.

IN RE: LEGISLATIVE AGENT
To the Oakland County Board of Supervisors
Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:

Your Legislative Committee has considered the future direction of assistance to our Oakland County Legislators in support of our program. It was the consensus of the Committee that the Chairman of the Committee discuss with the Ways and Means Committee the possibility of adding a staff person to maintain contacts with the Legislature. This policy was suggested in an effort to meet the changing complexion of the legislative procedure by wider utilization of department heads, members of the Board and technical persons in the presentation to the Legislature of the needs of the County and the propriety of proposed legislation. It was also felt this Board would have closer and more direct contact with a staff person in the area of maintaining the policies established by this Board than is possible under a contract with an outside agency.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the duties of Legislative Agent be assigned to a County staff member.

Mr. Chairman, on behalf of the Legislative Committee, I move the adoption of the foregoing resolution.

LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE
Carl F. Ingraham, Chairman
Vernon B. Edward, Wm. L. Mainland, Philip O. Mastin, Jr., Cyril E. Miller, Alexande C. Perinoff, John S. Slavens

Moved by Ingraham supported by Edward the resolution be adopted.

A sufficient majority having voted therefor, the resolution was adopted.

Moved by Ingraham supported by McDonnell that part of Resolution No. 4688 regarding Local Refuse Dump Sites, be taken from the table and referred to the Legislative Committee.

A sufficient majority having voted therefor, the motion carried.

IN RE: AUDITOR GENERAL — LOCAL TAXES COMMITTEE REPORT
To the Oakland County Board of Supervisors
Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:

Your Auditor General-Local Taxes Committee has examined reports from the various townships and cities having taxes to be spread upon the County tax roll, and has checked these reports with the pertinent law (Sec. 37 General Property Tax Law), has caused corrections to be made where necessary, has held a public hearing on September 27, 1967 and now certifies that such reports are correct and in order.

Your Committee has tabulated te total amount of taxes to be spread on the tax rolls, which tabulation is attached hereto and made a part hereof.

Your Committee has prepared tax warrants showing the amounts authorized to be spread, which warrants are submitted herewith, and which are the basis for the tabulation above mentioned, and it is recommended that your Honorable Body authorize the Clerk to sign these warrants.

Your Committee offers the following resolution:

1. BE IT RESOLVED that this Board adopt this report of the Auditor General-Local Taxes Committee with the recommendations herein contained as a part of the permanent records of the Board.

2. BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Clerk be authorized and directed to sign the several tax warrants on which the attached tabulation was based, thereby authorizing and directing the various assessing officers to levy the amounts set forth therein for 1967.

Mr. Chairman, on behalf of the Committee whose signatures appear below, I move the adoption of the foregoing resolution.

AUDITOR GENERAL—LOCAL TAXES COMMITTEE
Ray R. Linley, Chairman
Edward R. Gallagher, Roy Wahl, Lee B. Valentine, Victor Woods

(Local Taxes Committee Report appears on pages 1261 and 1262)

The Chairman announced that a Public Hearing would be held at this time in accordance with state law, for anyone to object to the spread of taxes if they had objections.

There were no objections and the Chairman declared the Public Hearing closed.

The Oakland County Board of Supervisors, County Building, Pontiac, Michigan
Gentlemen:

It has come to the attention of the Oakland County Delegation in the Legislature that at the end of this year, your Legislative Agent, Jack Semann will no longer represent Oakland County.

The undersigned members of the Senate and House of Representatives wish to express appreciation of the devotion of Jack Semann to the interests of the people of Oakland County.

It is difficult for any such representative to become acquainted with 110 members of the House and 38 members of the Senate and to give each member information as to the problems of Oakland County in a complete nonpartisan manner. The services of Jack Semann have been invaluable to the undersigned in securing information to assist us in properly evaluating these problems and submitting suitable legislation to meet the needs of the people. His contact with the Senators and Representatives outside of Oakland County has assisted greatly in our legislative brethren being informed of our problems and in soliciting their support.

Many of us have known Jack long before he became the Legislative Agent and we consider that he has contributed much to the welfare and betterment of Oakland County. We regret that he will no longer be available to provide the communication between the officialdom of Oakland and the Legislature.

We wish to commend his service to the community and his assistance and understanding and we trust that our commendation may be spread upon the records of Oakland County.

Respectfully,
L. Harvey Lodge, Senator, 17th District
Loren D. Anderson, Representative, 61st District
Robert J. Huber, Senator, 16th District
George W. Kuhn, Senator, 14th District

IN RE: REPORT ON PROPOSED TELEPHONE SERVICE
To the Oakland County Board of Supervisors
Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:

At a meeting of this Board on September 18, 1967, a resolution was presented to the Board from the City of Hazel Park requesting the Board to make arrangements to provide toll-free telephone numbers to the Oakland County switchboard for the South Oakland County area; and again at the Board meeting on October 2, similar resolutions were presented from Brandon Township and the City of Lathrup Village requesting a toll-free telephone service also. These resolutions were referred to your Ways and Means Committee and the Board of Auditors.

The Ways and Means Committee and the Board of Auditors have met with various officials of the Michigan Bell Telephone Company to discuss the possibility of securing toll-free service to the County switchboard. The representatives of the Michigan Bell Telephone Company stated that they will conduct an investigation as to the possibility and feasibility of various types of telephone service that might be available and report back to your Committee in approximately 120 days.

In view of the foregoing, your Committee will make a further report after receiving the recommendations of the Michigan Bell Telephone Company.

IN RE: LEGISLATIVE REPRESENTATION — SUPPLEMENTAL HELP FOR CORPORATION COUNSEL'S OFFICE
To the Oakland County Board of Supervisors
Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:

For some time now, this Board member has been questioning the system of limiting our legislative representation to a singular individual to cover the problems of the County before the Legislature.

For this reason, based on my own past experience as a member of the House of Representatives and a former member of the Legislative Committee of this Board, and now a member of the Ways and Means Committee, it is my opinion that supplemental help be immediately provided to the Corporation Counsel's Office to implement the heretofor provided legislative representation provided by this Board of Supervisors.

This implementation to continue until such time as the Corporation Counsel's Office desingatee has attained experience, in order that we maintain the already existing report by providing whatever funds are necessary for continuance of this good relationship.

Therefore, I move, Mr. Chairman, that this be referred to the Ways and Means Committee for study and funding and that thereafter, it be referred to the Legislative Committee of this Board for implementation by the securing and continuing of proper representation of the Oakland County Board of Supervisors in the Legislature of the State of Michigan.

WHEREAS no other municipality in the Farmington Sewage Disposal District will be affected by the acquisition, construction and financing of said project at this time, and

WHEREAS in order to acquire and construct said project and to issue such bonds, it is necessary for the county and the said townships, parties hereto, to enter into this Agreement, and

WHEREAS the Oakland County Department of Public Works (hereinafter sometimes referred to as the "DPW") has obtained plans, specifications and an estimate of cost for the acquisition of Section 1 and Section 2 and for the construction of Section 3 of the 13 Mile Road Arm, prepared by Main Engineers, registered professional engineers, and a plan of the route of all three sections of said 13 Mile Road Arm and the areas to be served thereby, which plan is attached hereto as Exhibit "A" and which estimate of cost is attached hereto as Exhibit "B", each of which exhibits is by this reference made a part of this Agreement, and on which exhibits the said three sections are separately identified.

THEREFORE IT IS HEREBY AGREED BY AND BETWEEN THE PARTIES HERETO, as follows:

1. The plans and specifications for Section 3 of the 13 Mile Road Arm as prepared by Main Engineers, registered professional engineers, are hereby approved and adopted in the form initialed by the parties hereto under the date hereof, and the estimate of cost of the project is approved and adopted in the amount set forth on Exhibit "B" hereto attached, which amount includes the cost of acquiring Section 1 and Section 2 and the cost of constructing Section 3, less the amount of a Federal grant already received. The said Arm and the several sections thereof shall consist of sewers located approximately as set forth and generally shown on Exhibit "A" hereto attached. The said plans and specifications and estimate of cost shall be submitted to the county board of supervisors, together with an ordinance or resolution approved by the Oakland County Board of Public Works, providing for the issuance of bonds by the county as hereinafter provided, in an aggregate principal sum not exceeding the said estimated cost less the amount of any other Federal grant which may be offered to any party hereto in connection with such acquisition on construction of the several sections of said Arm. If such bond ordinance or resolution shall be adopted by said board of supervisors, then the DPW shall proceed to accept any further Federal grant offered, to secure bids for the construction of Section 3, to secure bids for the purchase of the bonds, to award the construction contracts and to issue the bonds, and shall cause the Section 3 to be constructed within a reasonable time thereafter.

2. The said 13 Mile Road Arm is designed for, and shall be used for, the collection and transportation of sanitary sewage only. Said project may be divided into sections by the DPW for purposes of construction and the letting of construction contracts.

3. Said Arm being an extension of that part of the Farmington Sewage Disposal System heretofore constructed and being a part of the ultimate county system to serve the Farmington Sewage Disposal District, as enlarged, the provisions of paragraphs 3 thru 5 and 11 thru 18 of the Base Agreement shall continue in full force and effect notwithstanding this Agreement. No areas not in the District and not in the area shown on Exhibit "A" shall be served by or connected to [illegible] parties hereto in writing. The county or the townships shall not permit the discharge into said 13 Mile Road Arm of any sewage in violation of the Base Agreement.

4. Each of the townships shall pay to the county, to cover the cost of the Arm, a sum equal to its share of the capital cost thereof less the amount of the Federal grant which has been received and less the amount of any such grant hereafter received by either party hereto and applied to the capital cost of the Arm, which share of each of the townships is set forth on Exhibit "C", attached hereto and by this reference made a part hereof.

The term "capital cost" as above used, shall include all items of cost set forth in Exhibit "B" attached hereto and any changes thereto and any other or additional items of cost, of a similar type or nature, as may be set forth in any revision of Exhibit "B" agreed to by the Arm. Also set forth in said Exhibit "C" is a schedule of the maximum population to be served in each of the townships by the 13 Mile Road Arm.

5. The principal amount to be paid by the townships shall be divided into annual installments, numbered in direct order of their maturities. The amount of each such installment for each of the townships is set forth in Exhibit "C", hereto attached and by this reference made a part hereof. Said principal installments shall be due in consecutive numerical order on the first day of April in each year, beginning with the year 1971, and all amounts thereof from time to time unpaid, shall bear interest from July 1, 1967 at the rate per annum paid by the county on its bonds issued to finance the project, payable on April 1, and October 1, 1968, and on the first day of April and October in each year thereafter. If either of the townships shall fail to pay any installment of principal or interest when the same becomes due, then the amount thereof shall be subject to a penalty, in addition to interest, of ½ of 1% for each month or fraction thereof that the same remains unpaid after the due date. Either of the townships may pay in advance of maturity all or any part of an annual principal installment by surrendering to the county bonds issued in anticipation of payments to be made under this contract, of a like principal amount maturing in the same calendar year, with all future due interest coupons attached thereto. Accrued interest upon the amount so paid upon any installment, and accrued interest upon the bonds surrendered, shall be adjusted to the date of surrender and any difference shall be paid in cash. All surrendered bonds and coupons shall be canceled.

6. The installments set forth in Exhibit "C" are computed upon the estimated cost of the Arm after allowance for the Federal grant already received with the understanding that the actual cost of constructing Section 3 as part of the Arm, and the amount of any additional Federal grant, have not been determined. If a surplus of bond proceeds results because the actual construction cost is less than the estimated cost, or because of a further Federal grant, then such surplus shall be placed in the 13 Mile Road Arm fund as hereinafter described and used as herein provided. The estimated cost of the Arm above referred to shall be that set forth in Exhibit "B" hereto or as revised prior to the issuance of bonds. If the actual cost shall be greater than the estimated cost, then the additional amount shall be allocated to the townships and the several then remaining installments shall be increased accordingly and the county shall issue additional bonds or shall, at the request of the townships, use moneys available in the 13 Mile Road Arm fund hereinafter described to defray such additional cost of the Arm as hereinafter provided.

7. There is hereby established by the county a separate fund, to be placed in a separate depository account, to be known and designated as the "13 Mile Road Arm Fund". In this fund shall be placed out of the proceeds of the county bonds the amount set forth on Exhibit "B" as the cost of acquiring Section 1 and Section 2 of the 13 Mile Road Arm and any surplus of construction funds and contingency funds remaining after completion of the construction of Section 3 as part of the Arm, as described in paragraph 6 above. The county hereby covenants and agrees to (1) maintain and keep said 13 Mile Road Arm Fund separate and apart from other funds of the county; and (2) disburse moneys from said fund only for the following purposes, to-wit:

A. Pay to the Township of Farmington (and charge to its share of the fund) the moneys advanced by it and by developers toward the cost of Section 1 and Section 2 of the 13 Mile Road Arm, in excess of the cost of the connection charge units assigned to each of the said developers.

B. Defray the share of each of the townships of the cost of all or part of any other extensions to the 13 Mile Road Arm as the parties hereto may hereafter agree but only to the extent of each township's share in said fund balance.

C. Reimburse to each of the Townships, but only after all three sections of the 13 Mile Road Arm and any other agreed extensions thereto are completed, the amount of the balance credited to the township in said fund.

In addition each township shall establish a "13 Mile Road Arm Connection Charge Fund" in which shall be placed and segregated all connection charges collected by each of the townships with respect to the 13 Mile Road Arm, and for this purpose each of the townships hereby covenants and agrees to (1) adopt and enforce the necessary ordinance or ordinances to impose such connection charges; (2) collect all connection charges when due under the terms of said ordinance or ordinances and deposit the same forthwith to the credit to its said fund; and (3) refuse and prevent connection, directly or indirectly, to the 13 Mile Road Arm without payment of the applicable connection charge.

8. The county shall acquire or construct Section 3 of the 13 Mile Road Arm, as shown on Exhibit "A", at the estimate of the cost of so doing substantially as shown on Exhibit "B" hereto, or as shown on revised Exhibits "A" and "B" hereto, in all respects as provided in this Agreement and the county shall use part of the proceeds of its bonds plus the proceeds of any Federal grant hereafter received applicable thereto, to pay the cost of the same.

9. Each of the townships does hereby pledge its full faith and credit for the prompt payment of the aforesaid obligations and shall each year levy a tax in an amount which taking into consideration estimated delinquencies in tax collections, will be sufficient for the prompt payment of any amount falling due before the time of the following year's tax collection, unless at the time of making such annual levy there shall be cash on hand (as provided for in paragraph (2), Section 12, of Act No. 185, Public Acts of 1957, as amended) earmarked for the payment of the current obligations for which the tax levy is to be made, or available in the 13 Mile Road Connection Charge Fund for this purpose as herein provided, or available out of the bond proceeds as capitalized interest, in which case the tax levy for that year or those years may be reduced by that amount. Funds for which credit may be so taken, shall be raised by one or more of the methods set forth in paragraph (2), Section 12 of said Act 185, Public Acts of 1957, as now existing or hereafter amended, primarily by the exaction of connection charges or by the levy and collection of special assessments on properties within the district specially benefited.

10. The county shall issue its negotiable bonds to defray the cost of said Arm which bonds shall be secured by the full faith and credit pledges of the townships under this Agreement, as provided for in Section 11 of said Act 185, Public Acts of 1957, as amended, and, if 3/5 of the members elect of the Board of Supervisors shall approve, the full faith and credit of the County of Oakland shall be pledged to the prompt payment of said bonds, principal and interest. Said bonds shall be issued pursuant to the provisions of said Act and the applicable general statutes of the state, where not in conflict with said Act.

11. The provisions of this Agreement shall not be modified or terminated so as to impair the security of any bonds issued by the county upon the full faith and credit pledges of the townships or the county. It is hereby declared that the terms of this Agreement, insofar as they pertain to the security of any such bonds, shall be deemed to be for the benefit of the holders of said bonds.

12. The townships consent to the use by the county of the public streets, alleys, lands and rights-of-way in each of the townships for the purpose of constructing, operating and maintaining the 13 Mile Road Arm and of any improvements, enlargements and extensions thereto. Each of the townships reaffirms its covenant and warrant that all sanitary sewage originating in its limits within the District shall be delivered only to the Farmington Sewage Disposal System, including extensions thereto, for transportation therein and ultimate disposal. Lands (other than highways) owned by or under the jurisdiction of the townships or the county, located within the Farmington Sewage Disposal District, shall be liable, if sanitary sewage emanates therefrom to the same extent as privately owned lands, to pay the charges for sewage disposal services with respect thereto.

13. No change in the jurisdiction over any territory in the townships shall in any manner impair the obligations of this contract. In the event all or any part of the territory of the townships served by this 13 Mile Road Arm is incorporated as a new city or is annexed to or becomes a part of the territory of another municipality, the municipality into which such territory is incorporated or to which such territory is annexed, shall assume the proper proportionate share of the contractual obligation of the townships to the county, and of the contractual rights of the townships to sewage disposal service hereunder, such proportionate share to be determined by the Board of Public Works. The determination by the Board shall be based primarily upon the proportion of the total design capacity of the entire 13 Mile Road Arm located within the area incorporated or annexed; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that in making such determination the Board shall take into consideration all factors necessary to make the division equitable. In addition, the Board shall in the case of partial incorporation or annexation, prior to such determination, receive a written recommendation as to the proper division from a committee composed of one representative designated by the governing body of the municipality from which the territory is taken, one designated by the governing body of the new municipality or the municipality annexing such territory, and one independent registered engineer appointed by the Board. Each municipality shall appoint its representative within fifteen (15) days after being notified to do so by the Board and within a like time the Board shall appoint the engineer third member. If any municipality shall fail to appoint its representative within the time above provided, then the Board may proceed without said recommendation. If the committee shall not make its recommendation within forty-five (45) days after its appointment or with any extention thereof by the Board, then the board may proceed without such recommendation. In the consideration of the matters herein provided, including the designation of the third member of the committee, any member of the Board who is also an official of either affected municipality shall be disqualified to act or vote. If territory in the townships not served by this 13 Mile Road Arm is incorporated as a city or annexed to another municipality, such territory shall remain subject to the levy of a tax to support the full faith and credit pledge of the townships to pay its obligations to the county at the same time and to the same extent as all other territory now or then in the townships.

14. This Agreement shall become effective upon being approved by the Township Board of each of the townships and by the Board of Public Works and Board of Supervisors of Oakland County and properly executed by the officers of the townships and of the Board of Public Works. This contract shall terminate when the Base Agreement terminates.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be executed and delivered by their respective duly authorized officers, all as of the day and year first above written.

RESOLUTION PROPOSED BY OAKLAND COUNTY BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS WITH RESPECT TO CLINTON-OAKLAND SEWAGE DISPOSAL SYSTEM AND THE CITY OF DETROIT

WHEREAS the Oakland County Board of Public Works, on November 6, 1967, did approve a form of City of Detroit, Board of Water Commissioners — County of Oakland Wastewater Disposal Agreement between the City of Detroit and the County of Oakland pertaining to the providing of sewage transportation and treatment services by the City of Detroit for the County of Oakland for the Clinton-Oakland Sewage Disposal System and did authorize the Chairman and Secretary of the Board of Public Works to execute said Agreement subject to the approval of this Board of Supervisors; and

WHEREAS the said Agreement has been prepared and approved by the Board of Water Commissioners of the City of Detroit,

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Chairman and Secretary of the Board of Public Works be and they are hereby authorized and directed to execute and deliver on behalf of said County of Oakland an Agreement between the City of Detroit and the County of Oakland, which reads as follows:

CITY OF DETROIT
BOARD OF WATER COMMISSIONERS
COUNTY OF OAKLAND
WATER DISPOSAL
AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT, made and entered into this ___ day of ___, 19___, by and between the City of Detroit, Michigan, a municipal corporation in the State of Michigan, by its Board of Water Commissioners, party of the first part, sometimes hereinafter referred to as the "BOARD"; and the County of Oakland, a public corporation in the State of Michigan, by and through its County Department of Public Works, party of the second part, sometimes hereinafter referred to as the "COUNTY",

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS pursuant to the provisions of Act No. 185, Public Acts of 1957, as amended, the Board of Supervisors, by miscellaneous resolution No. 4690, adopted March 9, 1967 (a copy of which is on file with the board) authorized the County of Oakland to enter into the Amended Clinton-Oakland Sewage Disposal System Contract, dated January 11, 1967, for the establishment of the Clinton-Oakland Sewage Disposal System for the purpose of disposing of wastewater from the district (hereinafter referred to as the DISTRICT); being set forth on Exhibit "A" to said Amended Contract (also hereto attached as Exhibit "A" and made a part hereof); provided however that the initial implementation of this contract contemplates a service area encompassing all or parts of the Townships of Avon, Pontiac, Waterford, West Bloomfield, Independence and Orion, as shown on exhibit "B" attached hereto, and

WHEREAS the City of Detroit, through the BOARD, operates and maintains a wastewater disposal system consisting of transportation and treatment facilities (sometimes hereinafter referred to as the DETROIT SYSTEM); and

WHEREAS the COUNTY desires wastewater disposal service through the DETROIT SYSTEM and the COUNTY has signed or will sign wastewater disposal service agreements with the several municipalities located within the DISTRICT (copies of which are to be transmitted to the BOARD for its files);

NOW THEREFORE in consideration of the premises and the mutual undertakings of the parties hereto, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. The BOARD agrees to provide wastewater disposal service to the COUNTY subject to conditions stated hereinafter.

2. The COUNTY agrees to utilize and pay for wastewater disposal service furnished by the BOARD subject to conditions stated hereinafter.

3. The parties hereto enter into this agreement for the purpose of serving the public health and welfare of the people of the State of Michigan, especially in the area affected hereby, and enhancing the water quality of the Great Lakes and its tributaries.

4. The BOARD shall collect or intercept wastewater at the point or points designated herein, or to be designated in the future by mutual agreement of the parties hereto, and transport the same through interceptors of the capacity needed to meet all reasonable requirements of the COUNTY's customers.

5. The BOARD will provide such wastewater intercepting and transporting facilities and treatment as may be necessary to meet the terms of this agreement with the understanding that the COUNTY and/or political subdivisions thereof shall provide the system of interceptors, trunks and laterals required to deliver the wastewater to the points of connection to the DETROIT SYSTEM.

6. The DISTRICT or the collection system of the DISTRICT shall not extend beyond the limits as herein delineated on Exhibit "A" except by mutual agreement of the parties hereto.

7. It is understood and agreed that communities outside the DISTRICT may be served by the BOARD through the DETROIT SYSTEM to be constructed within the DISTRICT, with the written consent of the COUNTY, except that the BOARD may serve communities in other counties through the DETROIT SYSTEM without such consent.

8. Wastewater from the DISTRICT shall be delivered to the Board at the locations noted on Exhibit "C", attached hereto and made a part hereof, and at such other points as may, from time to time, be mutually agreed upon by the parties hereto.

9. The COUNTY shall pay the BOARD for wastewater disposal service at such rates as the BOARD may establish from time to time, it being mutually understood that the portion of said rates for treatment shall be uniform throughout the entire DETROIT SYSTEM and that such rates shall always be reasonable in relation to the costs incurred by the BOARD for providing this service. The BOARD shall give 90 days written notice of any change in rates to the Board of Public Works of the COUNTY. All money collected by the BAORD from the COUNTY for providing this service under the terms of this agreement, shall be used for the construction, financing, operation, maintenance, renovation, repair, replacement and improvements of the DETROIT SYSTEM.

10. The charge, except as hereinafter provided for, for such wastewater disposal services shall be on the basis of the aggregate quantity of wastewater entering the DETROIT SYSTEM per year from the DISTRICT. The minimum charge for service for the DISTRICT for each calendar year shall be for an amount not less than that which is obtained by applying the effective rates to the quantities set forth in Exhibit "D" attached hereto and made a part hereof.

11. All wastewater flow entering the DETROIT SYSTEM from the DISTRICT shall be measured by meters installed at each point of interception. All required wastewater meters and meter pits shall be furnished and installed by the BOARD and billed as a separate expense to the COUNTY. The BOARD agrees to make such repairs, replacements, and/or adjustments of meters as may from time to time be necessary at no additional cost to the COUNTY; provided, however, additional meters or replacement of meters necessitated by the servicing of areas in addition to the initial service area set forth in Exhibit "B", shall be initially installed by the BOARD and billed as an operating item to the COUNTY. The COUNTY agrees to accept the BOARD'S estimates of quantities of wastewater flow during all periods in which the meters fail to measure the wastewater flow correctly, provided there is reasonable basis for such estimates.

12. The disposal charges as herein provided for shall be billed on a monthly basis by the BOARD to the COUNTY. Such billings shall be subject to 5 per cent penalty if not paid within 30 days of the billing date, except that for the first 2 years of this contract, 60 days shall be allowed without penalty. All delinquent balances remaining unpaid for one year or more shall be subject to an additional charge of 6 per cent per annum until paid.

13. All wastewater disposal charges herein provided for shall commence at the time services are made available for the acceptance of wastewater from the DISTRICT into the DETROIT SYSTEM, which time shall be based on a mutually agreed construction schedule.

14. The COUNTY agrees to conform to generally accepted standards and specifications established by good engineering practices in the installation of wastewater collection, pumping, and transportation facilities which the COUNTY and/or its municipal subdivisions will cause to have constructed in the DISTRICT, and further agrees that plans and specifications for such facilities shall be submitted to the BOARD for approval prior to installation in the DISTRICT'S wastewater collection system. The COUNTY further agrees to provide the BOARD with a copy of the location records of existing wastewater collection facilities located in the DISTRICT.

15. The COUNTY shall take such steps as may be required to insure the accuracy of any measuring devices other than those maintained by the BOARD, used in computing the charges to be paid by the COUNTY under the terms of this Agreement. The BOARD shall have the right, at its election, to inspect and check for proper installation and operation any wastewater collection facility, measuring device, regulator, diversion chamber, pumping station, and any other wastewater handling facility within the DISTRICT. This right shall include the inspection of records of the COUNTY wastewater disposal system, the Drainage System of the COUNTY, the Water System of the COUNTY, and the pertinent records of any municipality within the DISTRICT. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to deprive the COUNTY of jurisdiction over the DISTRICT'S wastewater collection system. It is further agreed that in the event any wastewater handling facility is found to be in an unsatisfactory condition, the COUNTY shall require immediate repair or replacement thereof. Nothing in this agreement shall be construed to deprive any municipality within the DISTRICT of jurisdiction over its local water and wastewater facilites. The objective of this section is to mutually assure optimum service to the customers of the DISTRICT.

16. In cases where the character of wastewater from the DISTRICT or any portions thereof or from any commercial, manufacturing or industrial plant, building or premises within the DISTRICT is such that it imposes an additional burden upon the services to be provided by the BOARD and the facilities of the DETROIT SYSTEM above that which would be imposed through adherence to standard limitations, as established after due notice from time to time by the BOARD or agencies of the State of Michigan for wastewater permitted to enter the DETROIT SYSTEM, any additional costs necessitated thereby shall be an additional charge over the rates herein provided. The COUNTY shall refuse any person, firm, or corporation the right to discharge its wastewater into the DISTRICT'S wastewater system if such wastewater violates the standard limitations established or to be established after due notice in writing.

17. The COUNTY agrees to establish rules and regulations for the DISTRICT to comply with all laws, ordinances, rules, regulations and orders of the BOARD and the State of Michigan with reference to wastewater characteristics, collection and disposal, and water pollution control; and the COUNTY further agrees to attempt to ascertain the party or parties at fault or in violation of said rules and regulations and to require same to desist and to pay the reasonable cost for repair of any damage resulting to the DETROIT SYSTEM for the violation of any of the aforesaid laws, ordinances, orders, rules and regulations.

18. The COUNTY agrees to limit the maximum rate of discharge through each interceptor connection to the DETROIT SYSTEM to 0.4 cubic feet per second per 1,000 population served through such connection or such other limit as may be mutually agreed upon to accommodate exceptional circumstances.

19. No failure or delay in performance of the executed wastewater disposal agreement by either party shall be deemed to be a breach thereof when such failure or delay is occasioned by or due to any act of God, strikes, lockouts, wars, riots, epidemics, explosions, sabotage, breakage or accident to machinery or lines of pipe, the binding order of any court or governmental authority, or any other cause, whether of the kind herein enumerated, or otherwise, not within the control of the party claiming suspension; provided that no cause or contingency shall relieve the COUNTY of its obligation to make payment for transportation and treatment of wastewater entering the DETROIT SYSTEM.

20. In the event proper operation of the system requires the BOARD to discontinue temporarily all or part of the service to the DISTRICT, no claims for damage for such discontinuance shall be made by the COUNTY against the City of Detroit, Board of Water Commissioners.

21. The COUNTY shall assist the BOARD to obtain permission to use streets, highways, alleys, and/or easements in the municipalities within the DISTRICT for the purpose of constructing, maintaining, and operating wastewater disposal facilities to adequately service the DISTRICT and other areas. This assistance shall include obtaining the consent of the municipalities, as provided for in Article 7, Section 29, Michigan Constitution of 1963. In the event of such construction, the BOARD shall request the COUNTY and municipalities within the DISTRICT to execute such separate instruments granting rights-of-way in its streets, highways, and alleys as may be reasonably required by the BOARD. The BOARD shall restore all existing structures and/or improvements lying in the right-of-way of construction, to as good a condition as before the construction took place, and shall save harmless the COUNTY and municipalities therein from any and all liability, claims, suits, actions, or cause of action for damages for injuries, including death, or otherwise by reason of the construction work herein above provided for "Provided that nothing in this section or in this agreement shall be construed to render the BOARD liable for acts of negligence by the COUNTY or any municipalities therein or any of their individual officers, employees or agents". Any such facilites constructed, maintained and operated under this section shall remain in perpetuity the property of the BOARD and shall not be operated or maintained by any other than employees of the BOARD or its authorized representatives.

22. The terms of this agreement shall be for at least 50 years from the date hereof, provided, however, that this agreement shall be renewed without further action by the parties hereto for successive terms of 10 years thereafter, unless either party hereto shall elect to terminate the same by written notice to the other party given one year prior to the date of termination of the original term or any renewal thereof. In the event of the willful cessation by either of the parties hereto of performance of and/or of compliance with the terms of this agreement, the other party hereto may elect to terminate this agreement at any time upon 90 days written notice. In the event of termination of this agreement the BOARD shall have the right by any employable means at its command to prevent continued introduction of wastewater into the DETROIT SYSTEM from the area contemplated to be served hereby.

23. The parties hereto shall comply with all applicable fair employment practices, laws and ordinances and require similar compliance by all non-governmental parties contracted with pursuant to this agreement.

24. This agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the respective parties hereto, their successors and assigns.

25. This agreement shall take effect upon its adoption and execution by the respective parties hereto, its approval by the Common Council of the City of Detroit, and its approval by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Oakland.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be executed by their respective duly authorized officers as of the day and year first above written.

By Mr. Levinson
IN RE: DELOS HAMLIN DAY
To the Oakland County Board of Supervisors
Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:

At this time, I would like permission to present a motion to this Board, and to preface my motion with a few brief remarks.

A recent edition of The Pontiac Press called the attention of its readers to the fact that our Chariman of this Board has served as a Supervisor of this County for the past 25 years, and as Chairman of this Board for upwards of 12 years.

During this period, our County has undergone many changes, shifting from mainly rural to an urban area. The increase in population has taxed the ingenuity of our officials in keeping pace with all the problems that this change has presented.

Suffice it to say, that we have been most fortunate in having as Chairman of our Board, a man who is not only well qualified, but has given unstintingly of his time and resources.

I believe, as the editorial suggested, a day should be set aside to honor our Chairman. If the members of this Board are in accord with these sentiments, recommend the adoption of this motion and its inclusion in the minutes of this meeting, to proclaim January 26, 1968 as a County-wide "DELOS HAMLIN DAY", and ask for a standing unanimous support of the Board.

WHEREAS there is now litigation pending on appeal from the Circuit Court for the County of Oakland instituted by the township against the city and the county concerning the relationship between said parties as related to the Base Agreement, the Arm Agreement and the Water Agreement, and

WHEREAS the aforesaid annexation and litigation makes it necessary and desirable for the city to enter into an agreement with the county, by which the said city agrees to pay its proportionate share of the cost of such acquisition of the Farmington Sewage Disposal System, of the Tarabusi Industrial Arm and of the Industrial Section No. 1, and of the operation and maintenance thereof in accordance with the terms and provisions of said Base Agreement, Arm Agreement and Water Agreement, and

WHEREAS said sewage disposal system and water supply system were each acquired and financed by the county pursuant to Act No. 185 of the Michigan Public Acts of 1957, as amended, which act grants to the board of public works in any county having a Department of Public Works the power to operate and maintain any system acquired pursuant thereto and to contract with any public corporation, such as the city, for the purchase of water or sewage services from the county through such system, and

WHEREAS the Department of Public Works (hereinafter sometimes referred to as the "DPW") has made calculations of per cent ratios from the plans and specifications and service areas used for the construction of said Interceptor, Arm and Section prepared by the respective registered professional engineers, a schedule of which calculations is attached hereto as Exhibit A and by this reference made a part hereof, and the DPW has prepared a map showing the actual route of said Arm and Section and the location thereof in the annexed area and in the township area (Exhibit B) and a map showing the sewer service areas for the city and the township (Exhibit C) and a map showing the water service areas for the city and township (Exhibit D) all of which maps are attached hereto as Exhibits B, C and D and by this reference made a part hereof.

THEREFORE IT IS HEREBY AGREED BY AND BETWEEN THE PARTIES HERETO, as follows:

1. The percentage ratio of the design capacity for the Farmington Interceptor sewer, the Tarabusi Trunk Arm sewer, and Industrial Section No. 1 water supply facilities as between the total service area for each project and the part thereof annexed to the city is approved and adopted as set forth on Exhibit A hereto attached.

2. The said Farmington Interceptor sewer and Tarabusi Trunk Arm sewer (herein sometimes referred to as the "sewers") and the sewers in the city (herein sometimes referred to as the "city facilities") are designed for, and shall be used for, the collection and transportation of sanitary sewage only. The said Industrial Section No. 1 water supply facilities (herein sometimes referred to as the "water lines") and the corresponding facilities in the city shall be used only for the distribution of City of Detroit water. The areas in the township shown on Exhibits C and D shall be serviced on a peak demand basis by the city through the city facilities from a point of connection at ——— for sewage disposal service and at ——— for water supply service and at such other points as may be mutually agreed upon.

3. Said sewers being part of the Farmington Sewage Disposal System heretofore constructed and being a part of the ultimate county system to serve the Farmington Sewage Disposal District, the provisions of paragraphs 3 thru 5 and 11 thru 18 of the Base Agreement shall continue in full force and effect notwitnstanding this agreement, it being understood, however, that the provisions of paragraph 14 of the Base Agreement are hereby modified as between the county, city and township by the agreement of the city herein to serve certain areas in the township and in the annexed areas to the city with sewage disposal services substantially as shown on Exhibits B and C hereto. The said Arm is designed so that by proper extensions and connections by laterals and sewer leads said Arm will serve the areas now annexed to the City of Parmington located in the Farmington Sewage Disposal District and the areas remaining in the Township of Farmington originally included in said District, but notwithstanding this, certain of said areas will now be served by the city. Properties within said city or said township shall be connected to the Tarabusi Arm or to the Farmingon Interceptor or to the sewage disposal facilities of the city only upon such terms and conditions as are prescribed by the city or by said township, as may be appropriate, in addition to the terms and conditions prescribed in the Base Agreement and the Arm Agreement, as may be appropriate. No areas not in said city or township shall be served by or connected to said Arm except by agreement of the parties hereto in writing. The county or the city or township shall not permit the discharge into said Tarabusi Arm of any sewage in violation of the Base Agreement.

4. Attached hereto as Exhibits E-1 and E-2 and by this reference made a part hereof, are two schedules showing the respective amounts to be paid by the township and by the city toward the capital cost of the Farmington Interceptor and the Tarabusi Arm, together with the interest payable with respect thereto. The city and the township agree to pay to the county the amounts shown on said Exhibits on or before the dates shown thereon.

5. The Industrial Section No. 1 to the Oakland County Water Supply System for Farmington Township has been separately established, acquired and financed by the county, to serve the specific areas in the township as described in the Water Agreement from direct connections to the Detroit Water Supply System, and specific rates and charges apply thereto. Said Section has been designed so as to serve by the addition of proper laterals and leads connecting thereto the areas now annexed to the city and the remaining areas in the township as set forth on Exhibit B hereto it being understood, however, that certain areas in the township and in the annexed areas will be served with water supply services by the city substantially as shown on Exhibits B and D hereto. Properties within said city or said township shall be connected to the Industrial Section No. 1 or to the water supply facilities of the city only upon such terms and conditions as are prescribed by the city or by said township as may be appropriate, in addition to the terms and conditions prescribed in the Water Agreement as may be appropriate. No areas not in said city or township shall be served by or connected to said Industrial Section No. 1 except by agreement of the parties hereto in writing. Attached hereto as Exhibit E-3, and by this reference made a part hereof, is a schedule showing the respective amounts to be paid by the township and by the city toward the capital cost of the Industrial Section No. 1 together with the interest payable with respect thereto. The city and the township agree to pay to the county the amounts shown on said Exhibit on or before the date shown thereon.

6. The amount to be paid by each, the city and township, on the basis of the revised percentages applied to the capital cost of the sewers and water lines has been divided into annual installments. The amount of each annual installment as to each the city and township and the division thereof between principal and interest are set forth in Exhibits E-1, E-2 and E-3 hereto attached. Included in the annual payments to be made by the city during the first ten years is the amount necessary to be paid by the city to pick up its share of the obligations heretofore, and on or prior to April 1, 1967, assumed and paid by the township with respect to the Farmington Interceptor, the Tarabusi Arm and the Industrial Section No. 1. Such pick up amounts are shown on the Exhibits E-1, E-2 and E-3, and as to those amounts the city has the option of prepayment, in whole or part, at any time at its option. Moneys received by the county subsequent to April 1, 1967, with respect to water connections in the annexed area shall, upon execution hereof, be turned over to the city within 30 days or credited to the obligations of the city hereunder, at its option. Said installments shall be due to consecutive numerical order on the date and in the amount set forth on Exhibits E-1, E-2 and E-3 as the aggregate of principal and interest due on each date. The interest shown thereon computed at the rate of six percent (6%) per annum, being the rate agreed upon between the county and the township. If the amount of interest due in any year on unpaid installments, shall be collected by the county in excess of the amount of interest which the county shall be required to pay upon its said bonds prior to the next contract principal installment due date, then any such excess in the amount so paid after deducting the annual fees and expenses connected with the payment of said bonds, shall be credited pro rata to the city and township in accordance with the several amounts of interest paid by them in such year, which credit shall be applied on the next interest becoming due. If the city or township shall fail to pay any principal installment or interest when the same becomes due, then the amount thereof shall be subject to a penalty, in addition to interest of ½ of 1% for each month or fraction thereof that the same remains unpaid after the due date. The city or township may pay in advance of maturity all or any part of an installment by surrendering to the county bonds issued in anticipation of payments to be made under this contract, of a like principal amount maturing in the same calendar year, with all future due interest coupons attached thereto. Accrued interest upon the amount so paid upon any installment, and accrued interest upon the bonds surrendered, shall be adjusted to the date of surrender and any difference shall be paid in cash. All surrendered bonds and coupons shall be canceled.

7. The city and the township does each hereby pledge its full faith and credit for the prompt payment of the aforesaid obligations and shall each year levy a tax in an amount which taking into consideration estimated delinquencies in tax collections, will be sufficent for the prompt payment of any amount falling due before the time of the following year's tax collection, unless at the time of making such annual levy there shall be cash on hand (as provided for in paragraph (2), Section 12, of Act No. 185, Public Acts of 1957, as amended) earmarked for the payment of the current obligations for which the tax levy is to be made, in which case the annual tax levy may be reduced by that amount. Funds for which credit may be so taken, may be raised by the city and the township in the manner provided in paragraph (2), Section 12 of said Act 185, Public Acts of 1957, as now existing or hereafter amended, it being understood, however, that areas now in the city to be served through the county facilities shall be subject only to such retail charges for connections, availability and services as the city in its sole discretion shall determine and areas now in the township to be served through the city facilities shall be subject only to such retail charges for connection, availability and services as the township in its sole discretion shall determine the corresponding wholesale rates to be established as provided in paragraph 12, hereof.

8. The provisions of this agreement shall not be deemed to have modified or terminated any agreement between the county and the township so as to impair the security of any bonds issued by the county upon the full faith and credit pledges of the township or the county. It is hereby declared that the terms of this agreement are additional security for any such bonds, and shall be deemed to be for the benefit of the holders of said bonds.

9. The City of Farmington consents to the use by the county of the public streets, alleys, lands and rights-of-way in the said annexed areas of the city for the purpose of constructing, operating and maintaining the Tarabusi Arm and Industrial Section No. 1 and of any improvements, enlargements and extensions thereto. Lands owned by or under the jurisdiction of the city or the township or the county, located within the Farmington Sewage Disposal District-Tarabusi Industrial Arm sub-district shall be liable, if connected to said Arm, to the same extent as privately owned lands, to pay the charges for sewage disposal services with respect thereto.

10. Wherever the county provides water supply service to the city hereunder, such service shall be metered by master water meters to be provided by the city at its expense. The county will read, maintain and replace such meters and the expense of so doing may be included in the calculations, as herein provided, of water supply rates to the city. There shall be no water meter at the point of take off of the Whitaker Street lateral on Industrial Section No. 1, but a sealed valve shall be installed at this point to provide emergency service only. On Grand River Avenue the master water meter readings will be divided between the city and the township on the proportions established by comparing the aggregate of the individual water meter readings in the areas served in the city with those in the areas served in the township. Wherever the County provides sewage disposal service to the city, hereunder, the extent of such service shall be determined by the individual water meter readings of premises so served.

11. Wherever the city provides water supply service to the township hereunder, such service shall be metered by individual meters to be provided by the township at its expense. The township will read, maintain and replace such meters. Wherever the City provides sewage disposal service to the Township hereunder the extent of such service shall be determined by the individual water meter readings of premises so served.

12. The rates to be charged the city by the county and the rates to be charged the township by the city for sewage disposal and water supply services shall be wholesale rates, calculated on an identical basis, to consist of the actual costs of sewage disposal and of water supply in the respective systems and facilities of the county and of the city through the facilities of the City of Detroit, plus the reasonable expenses of providing the services and of administering this contract in the form of inspection, meter reading maintenance and replacement, billing and collecting, and general administration proportioned to the respective volume of services at the points of connection. Any general increases in rates not related to changes in City of Detroit rates or reasonable expenses shall be made in both the county rates and the city rates or not at all.

13. This agreement shall become effective upon being approved by the legislative bodies of the city and the township and by the board of public works and board of supervisors of Oakland County and properly executed by the officers of the city and township and of the board of public works and upon the dismissal by the township, and prejudice, of its suit against the city and the county. This contract shall terminate when the Base Agreement, Arm Agreement and Water Agreement terminate, but such termination shall not result in denial of continued service to any area in the city served by the county or to any area in the township served by the city.

The city, not being an original party to the Base Agreement, Arm Agreement or Water Agreement, hereby acknowledges receipt of conformed copies of each, and hereby accepts the terms and provisions of each such agreement to the extent the same are incorporated herein and apply to the city and to the township. The township recognizes that the assumption by the city hereunder or a per cent apportionment of the unpaid cost of the sewers and water lines does not release or relieve the township of its full faith and credit obligations as set forth in the Base Agreement, Arm Agreement and Water Agreement to pay its full share therein apportioned except to the extent that the city actually makes payment to the county as herein provided.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the parties hereto have caused this agreement to be executed and delivered by their respective duly authorized officers, all as of the day and year first agove written.

PETITION TO CREATE AN INTERCOUNTY DRAINAGE DISTRICT, UNDER CHAPTER 21 OF THE DRAIN CODE OF 1956, AS AMENDED, TO REMOVE OR LESSEN HEALTH HAZARDS WITHIN THE SAGINAW RIVER BASIN

To Director of Agriculture, State of Michigan

The County of Oakland, a Michigan Public Corporation, subject to assessment to pay the allocated portion of the cost of work done pursuant to this petition, represents:

That with the removal of forests, the construction and improvement of County, Intercounty and private drains, including extensive field tiling, has resulted in the casting of greater quantities of water into the Saginaw River Basin, in a much shorter period of time and with greater force, which, combined with increased erosion, the filling in and obstruction of channels and the elimination of natural ponding areas, through extensive diking along channel banks, has resulted in an ever-increasing flood condition during periods of heavy precipitation and spring thaws. Developments and land uses within all parts of the Saginaw River Basin has resulted in an increased deposit of sewage and other pollution in the various parts of the drainage basin, which because of the limited dry weather flow, have resulted in dangerous accumulations and concentrations of pollution; which combined with the flood conditions have resulted in an increasingly serious flood and health hazard throughout the entire Saginaw River Basin.

NOW THEREFORE, your Petitioner requests that an Augmented and In-

WHEREAS it is necessary to extend the Evergreen and the Farmington Systems by construction of the so-called Southfield Sanitary Lateral System No. 7 in said City of Southfield under the provisions of Act No. 185 of the Michigan Public Acts of 1957, as amended, for the purpose of collecting and disposing of sewage originating within a part of the Farmington District and of the Evergreen District located in said City, and to issue bonds to finance said Southfield Sanitary Lateral System No. 7 in anticipation of the collection by the County of amounts to become due under this Agreement between the County and the City, parties hereto, whereby the City agrees to pay the entire cost of said Southfield Sanitary Lateral System No. 7, and

WHEREAS no other municipality in the Farmington or Evergreen Districts will be affected by the construction of said Southfield Sanitary Lateral System No. 7, and

WHEREAS in order to issue such bonds, it is necessary that the County and the City, parties hereto, enter into this Agreement, and

WHEREAS the Department of Public Works (hereinafter sometimes referred to as the "DPW") has obtained plans, specifications and an estimate of cost for the construction of said Southfield Sanitary Lateral System No. 7, prepared by Hubbell, Roth & Clark, Inc., registered professional engineers, and a map showing the approximate location and service area of said Southfield Sanitary Lateral System No. 7, which estimate of cost is attached hereto as Exhibit B and by this reference made a part hereof, and which map is attached hereto as Exhibit A and by this reference made a part hereof.

THEREFORE IT IS HEREBY AGREED BY AND BETWEEN THE PARTIES HERETO, as follows:

1. The plans and specifications for the Southfield Sanitary Lateral System No. 7 (herein sometimes referred to as the "Project") as prepared by Hubbell, Roth & Clark, Inc., registered professional engineers, are hereby approved and adopted in the form initialed by the parties hereto under the date hereof, and the estimate of cost thereof is approved and adopted in the amount of $1,200,000.00 as set forth on Exhibit B attached hereto. The said project shall consist of sewers located approximately as set forth and generally shown on Exhibit A hereto attached. The said plans and specifications and estimate of cost shall be submitted to the county board of supervisors, together with an ordinance or resolution approved by the Oakland County Board of Public Works, providing for the issuance of bonds by the County as hereinafter provided, in an aggregate principal sum not exceeding the amount of the capital cost as hereinafter defined. If such bond ordinance or resolution shall be adopted by said board of supervisors, then the DPW shall proceed to secure bids for the construction of the project, to secure bids for the purchase of the bonds, to award the construction contracts and to issue the bonds, and shall cause the project to be constructed within a reasonable time thereafter.

2. The said project is designed for, and shall be used for, the collection and transportation of sanitary sewage only. Said project may be divided into sections by the DPW for purposes of construction and the letting of construction contracts.

3. Said project being an extension of that part of the Farmington and Evergreen Systems heretofore constructed and being a part of the ultimate county system to serve the Farmington and Evergreen Districts, the provisions of paragraphs 3 through 5 and 11 through 18 of the two Base Agreements shall continue in full force and effect notwithstanding this Agreement. The said Southfield Sanitary Lateral System No. 7 is designed so that it will serve the parts of the City located in the Farmington District and located in the Evergreen District. Properties within the City to be served by said Southfield Sanitary Lateral System No. 7 shall be connected thereto or to the Evergreen or Farmington Interceptors only upon such terms and conditions as are prescribed by the City, as may be appropriate, in addition to the terms and conditions prescribed in the two Base Agreements. No areas outside the City shall be served by or connected to said Southfield Sanitary Lateral System No. 7 except by agreement of the parties hereto in writing. The County or the City shall not permit the discharge into said Southfield Sanitary Lateral System No. 7 of any sewage in violation of the two Base Agreements.

4 The City of Southfield shall pay to the County, the capital cost of the Southfield Sanitary Lateral System No. 7. The term "capital cost" as above used, shall include all items of cost set forth in Exhibit B attached hereto and any changes thereto and any other or additional items of cost, of a similar type or nature, as may be set forth in any revision of Exhibit B agreed to by the parties hereto, incurred by the County in acquiring and constructing the project.

5. A schedule of payments to be made by the City based upon the estimated cost of the project and the dates of such payments is attached hereto as Exhibit C and by this reference made a part hereof. Immediately upon the issuance of any bonds by the County to finance the cost of the project, the board shall notify the City, by written communication addressed to its treasurer, of any revisions in said Exhibit C and of the schedule of payments of the principal of and interest on the county bonds, and of the paying agent fees and financing charges with respect thereto, and the amount of such payments, fees and charges to be paid by said City. Said City hereby covenants and agrees, not less than thirty (30) days prior to the due date of any principal of or interest on any such bonds, to remit to the board sufficient funds to meet said payments in full and said fees and charges applicable thereto. The obligation herein expressed shall be applicable to all bonds issued by the County to construct and complete the project, as herein defined, whether issued at one time or at more than one time. It is assumed that the principal of the bonds represents the cost of the project. If the City should pay the project cost, or any portion thereof, or funds shall be received by grant or otherwise to apply against the cost of the project, prior to the issuance of bonds, then the obligation of the City shall be adjusted accordingly. If the City shall fail to make any of such payments when due, the amount thereof shall be subject to a penalty of one-half of one percent (½ of 1%) for each month or fraction thereof that the same remains unpaid after the due date. The City may pay in advance of maturity all or any part of an annual installment due the County, by surrendering to the County bonds issued in anticipation of payments to be made under this contract, of a like principal amount maturing in the same calendar year with all future due interest coupons attached thereto.

6. After completion of the project and payment of all costs thereof, any surplus remaining from the sale of the bonds therefor shall be used to purchase such bonds on the open market and in such event the contract obligation of the City in respect to the project shall be reduced by the principal amount of bonds so purchased, said reduction to be applied as to year, in accordance with the year of the maturity of the bonds so purchased. Any bonds so purchased shall be cancelled.

7. The City does hereby pledge its full faith and credit for the prompt payment of the aforesaid obligations and shall each year levy a tax in an amount which taking into consideration estimated delinquencies in tax collections, will be sufficient for the prompt payment of any amount falling due before the time of the following year's tax collection, unless at the time of making such annual levy there shall be cash on hand (as provided for in paragraph (2), Section 12 of Act No. 185 of the Public Acts of 1957, as amended) earmarked for the payment of the current obligations for which the tax levy is to be made, in which case the annual tax levy may be reduced by that amount. Funds for which credit may be so taken, may be raised in the manner provided in paragraph (2), Section 12 of said Act No. 185 of the Public Acts of 1957, as now existing or hereafter amended.

8. The County shall issue its negotiable bonds to defray the capital cost of the project, which bonds shall be secured primarily by the full faith and credit pledge of the City under this agreement, and secondarily, if approved by a 3/5ths majority of the members-elect of the Board of Supervisors, by the full faith and credit of the County of Oakland. Said bonds shall be issued pursuant to the provisions of said act and the applicable general statutes of the state where not in conflict with said act.

9. The provisions of this agreement shall not be modified or terminated so as to impair the security of any bonds issued by the County upon the full faith and credit pledge of the City. It is hereby declared that the terms of this agreement insofar as they pertain to the security of any such bonds, shall be deemed to be for the benefit of the holders of said bonds.

10. The City consents to the use by the County of the public streets, alleys, lands and rights-of-way in the City for the purpose of constructing, operating and maintaining the Southfield Sanitary Lateral System No. 7 and of any improvements, enlargements and extensions thereto. The City reaffirms its covenant and warrant that all sanitary sewage originating therein shall be delivered only to the Farmington or Evergreen Systems, including extensions thereto, for transportation therein and ultimate disposal. Lands (other than highways) owned by or under the jurisdiction of the City or the County, located within the Farmington or Evergreen District, shall be liable, if sanitary sewage emanates therefrom, to the same extent as privately owned lands, to pay the charges for sewage disposal services with respect thereto.

11. This agreement shall become effective upon being approved by the City Council of the City of Southfield and by the Board of Public Works and Board of Supervisors of Oakland County and properly executed by the officers of the City and of the Board of Public Works. This contract shall terminate when the two Base Agreements terminate.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this agreement to be executed and delivered by their respective duly authorized officers, all as of the day and year first above written.

Each bid shall state the annual interest rate or rates upon which it is submitted, expressed in multiples of ⅛ or 1/20 or 1% or any combination thereof. The interest on any one bond shall be at one rate only, shall be represented by one coupon only for each coupon period, and all bonds maturing in the same year shall carry the same rate of iterest. Accrued interest to date of delivery of such bonds must be paid by the purchaser at the time of delivery.

Said bonds will mature serially on July 1 in years and principal amounts as follows: $50,000 in the year 1969, $75,000 in the year 1970, $100,000 in the year 1971, $125,000 in each of the years 1972 and 1973, $200,000 in each of the years 1974 through 1976, $225,000 in each of the years 1977 through 1979, and $250,000 in each of the years 1980 through 1988.

Bonds maturing in the years 1980 through 1988 shall be subject to redemption prior to maturity at the oprion of the County, in inverse numerical order, on any one or more interest payment dates on and after July 1, 1979, at the par value thereof and accrued interest, plus a premium on each bond in accordance with the following schedule:

$100 if called to be redeemed on or after July 1, 1979 but prior to July 1, 1981
$75 if called to be redeemed on or after July 1, 1981 but prior to July 1, 1983
$50 if called to be redeemed on or after July 1, 1983 but prior to July 1, 1985
$25 if called to be redeemed on or after July 1, 1985.

Notice of redemption shall be given to the holders of the bonds to be redeemed, by publication of such notice not less than thirty (30) days prior to the date fixed for redemption, at least once in a newspaper or publication circulated in the City of Detroit, Michigan, which carries as a part of its regular service, notices of the sale of municipal bonds, or if any of said bonds shall be registered, notice of the redemption thereof shall also be sent by registered mail to the registered holders, at least thirty (30) days prior to the date fixed for redemption.

Both principal and interest will be payable at such bank or trust company qualified to serve as paying agent under the laws of the Federal Government or the State of Michigan, as shall be designated by the original purchaser of the bonds. A co-paying agent or agents so qualified may also be so designated. The paying agent or agents shall be subject to county approval.

The bonds are to be issued under Act No. 51, Michigan Public Acts of 1951, as amended (especially Section 18c thereof), for the purpose of defraying a part of the cost of constructing and reconstructing highways in the primary and local road systems of the county. The principal and interest on said bonds are payable primarily from Motor Vehicle Highway Funds derived from state-collected taxes to be returned to the Board of County Road Commissioners of said county pursuant to said Act and an irrevocable appropriation and pledge of an amount thereof sufficient to pay such principal and interest has been made by the County Board of Supervisors. Such appropriation and pledge is subject, however, to the priority of pledges heretofore made by contract with the State Highway Commissioner for payment of aggregate amounts not exceeding $105,000 per year to finance construction of the Farmington-Brighton Expressway and the Northwestern Expressway. Pledges of equal priority with the pledge for the bonds herein offered for sale have been made for payment of principal and interest on outstanding bonds and notes heretofore issued by the county, and such pledges of equal priority may be made for payment of future county bonds, notes or contractual obligations, within limitations prescribed by said Act No. 51. In the event that moneys pledged are not sufficient to pay principal and interest on the bonds herein offered for sale, the County Treasurer is obligated, under resolution of the Board of Supervisors, to advance the amount of the deficiency from general funds of the county.

For the purpose of awarding the bonds, the interest cost of each bid will be computed by determining, at the rate or rates specified therein, the total dollar value of all interest on the bonds from ——(here insert the first day of the month next following the date of receiving bids or the date of the bonds, whichever is later) to their respective maturities and deducting therefrom any premium. The bonds will be awarded to the bidder whose bid on the above computation produces the lowest interest cost to the county. No proposal for the purchase of less than all of the bonds or at a price less than their par value will be considered.

A certified or cashier's check in the amount of $80,000, drawn upon an incorporated bank or trust company and payable to the order of the County Treasurer, must accompany each bid as a guarantee of good faith on the part of the bidder, to be forfeited as liquidated damages if such bid be accepted and the bidder fails to take up and pay for the bonds. No interest shall be allowed on the good faith checks and checks of the unsuccessful bidders will be promptly returned to each bidder's representative or by registered mail.

Bids shall be conditioned upon the unqualified opinion of Dickinson, Wright, McKean & Cudlip, attorneys, Detroit, Michigan, approving the legality of the bonds. The cost of said legal opinion and of the printing of the bonds (with the legal opinion printed on the back thereof) will be paid by the county. There will also be furnished the usual closing documents, including a non-litigation certificate, dated as of the date of delivery of the bonds. Bonds will be delivered at Detroit, Michigan, New York, N.Y., or Chicago, Illinois, at county expense. Payment shall be made in Federal Reserve funds if so requested by the county.

The right is reserved to reject any or all bids.

Envelopes containing the bids should be painly marked "Proposal for Bonds."

To the Oakland County Board of Supervisors
Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:

Junior Editors Quiz on LADYBUGS

QUESTION: Are ladybugs any good?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: Insects help us in many ways, especially by spreading pollen from plants so that the flowers can become fertilized. Other insects help by eating harmful bugs.

Among these useful insects, the attractive little ladybug (sometimes called ladybird) holds a high place. These busy little beetles live by devouring the aphids which suck the juices from plants.

At one time, the orange and lemon orchards of California were threatened with ruin from a certain kind of aphid. One hundred and forty Australian ladybugs of a kind known to eat the aphids were imported, and within a few years had multiplied and eaten so many aphids that the orchards were saved.

There are many different kinds of ladybugs. Most of them are valuable to man, but there are some species which damage plants.

The value of ladybugs has been known since the Middle Ages. In fact, it is said that they were dedicated to the Virgin at that time, which is why the word lady is used in their name.

(You can win $10 cash plus AP's handsome World Yearbook if your question, mailed on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of this newspaper, is selected for a prize.)

Mace Warning Is 'Confused'

Ann Arbor Police Await Test Results

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Ann Arbor Police Chief Walter Krasny was skeptical today of a warning by the U.S. Surgeon General that the antiriot chemical Mace might be more harmful than once thought.

Dr. William Stewart, the surgeon general, said in Washington this week that because of Mace's ability to maintain its irritant activity "it clearly increases the possibility of more than transient effects to the exposed individuals."

★ ★ ★

Michigan State Police had announced previously they would not use the chemical, and the Ann Arbor Police Department has suspended its use temporarily.

Krasny said of the surgeon general's report that he believed Dr. Stewart was "a little confused about what we're talking about.

14 SPRAYS ON MARKET

"There are 14 chemical sprays used by police agencies now on the market. Seven are widely used. Some are dangerous, some even have a 'kerosene-lke substance' which Dr. Stewart mentions being in Mace.

"From our information, Mace does not have this substance."

★ ★ ★

Krasny said some of the most competent and highly regarded medical authorities in the nation are now giving extensive tests of Mace at the University of Michigan.

"Until these tests are completed and reports made on them," he said. "I think it would be advisable for everyone to sit back and await the results."

TESTS ARE URGED

The surgeon general's criticism of Mace was contained in a four-page letter to state, county and city health officers.

Stewart said he planned to encourage new studies by the Food and Drug Administration "to determine the possible chronic effects" of the antiriot chemical.

In a background report, Stewart described Mace as a solution of tear gas mixed with an aerosol agent and small quantities of a kerosene-like substance and another chemical known as 1,1,1, Trichloroethane.

"The function of the Trichloroethane is unknown," Stewart said. "The available evidence regarding the effects of this product on man is not complete and does not permit the drawing of final conclusions at this time."

Firm Defends Ads in Drug Hearing

WASHINGTON (AP) — Top officials of a leading drug manufacturing company Friday defended its advertising practices and the efficiency of a drug widely used in treating arthritic disorders.

Spokesmen for Merck & Co. testified in reply to extensive criticism by representatives of the Food and Drug Administration earlier in the week as the hearings by the Senate's Antitrust and Monopoly Committee went into their fifth day.

One FDA witness, Dr. Robert McCleery, had described as inadequately based claims by Merck for safe use of the drug indocin, marketed by Merck under the brand name Indomethacin.

Detroit Budget Is Cut; Mayor Vows Veto

DETROIT (AP)— Mayor Jerome P. Cavanagh today studied the remains of the budget he proposed for fiscal 1968-69 after Common Council chopped away great sections of it Friday.

The council pared of shuffled about $15.9 million of the spending proposals Cavanagh had in the budget.

The mayor had no comment on the council decisions, but he told newsmen he still has line-item veto power over the budget and intends to exercise it liberally.

The council, however, can overturn any Cavanagh vetoes, but not without seven votes against the mayor's changes.

Cavanagh's record $460 million budget proposal was based on planned increases in the city's property tax and income tax. The council rejected the proposed 2.8-mill property tax increase.

The income tax increase, awaiting legislative approval, would add about $30 million to Detroit's revenue.

Detroit Case Part of Crackdown

FBI Arrests 3 Alleged Madams

DETROIT (UPI) — Federal Bureau of Investigation agents, aided by local vice squad detectives, arrested three alleged madams — women who operate houses of prostitution — Friday as part of a nationwide crackdown on the illegal activity.

Altogether, seven women were arrested in Detroit, New York and Nevada on charges of promoting interstate crime in prostitution.

An FBI spokesman said a nationwide investigation was under way to determine if there is a combination of madams who swap across state lines for the purposes of prostitution.

Arrested in Detroit were Jewell C. Rouse, 51; Hazel Piazza, 69; and Michelle Williams, 29, who was wanted on a fugitive warrant from Ohio, FBI agents said. Indictments for their arrest were handed down by a federal grand

The section of the law the women allegedly violated under the federal antiracketeering statute describes their crime as the "unlawful, willful and knowing use of facilities of interstate commerce or travel in interstate commerce with the intention to promote, establish, carry or facilitate an unlawful activity, said activity being an enterprise of prostitution."

LBJ Sees Friday's Step Toward Peace as Historic Occasion

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson says May 3, 1968, is "a day we shall remember"—the day a site for preliminary all of us," the President said Friday night.

The negotiating phase of the war will "exact the best from all of ss," the President said Friday night.

★ ★ ★

"We often think about peace as an absence of war," Johnson said. "But in fact peace is a struggle, an achievement, an endless effort to convert hostility into negotiations, bloody violence into politics, hate into reconciliation."

★ ★ ★

Johnson announced the accord on Paris as a site for peace talks Friday morning at a nationally broadcast and telecast news conference. He then spent a busy day that took him to mid-America and back again and turned up unannounced in the evening at dedication ceremonies of the Old Patent Office Building, refurbished for a new life as an art museum.

FIRST MEETING

First peace-contact meetings are to be held next Friday or shortly thereatfer.

"I have sought this moment for more days and nights than you will ever credit," the President told some 2,000 art patrons and government officials, "and in enough places for historians to judge that we were fully credible when we said 'anytime, anywhere'."

★ ★ ★

This was a pointed reference to critics who said the President had promised more than he could deliver when he said he would go anywhere, anytime in the quest for peace and then turned down North Vietnam's proposals for meetings in Warsaw and Phnom Penh, Cambodia.

Natty in tuxedo and evening shoes with bows, the President drew applause from the audience in evening dress when he promised:

"With every fiber of my being I shall try to move us from fighting to peace, from enmity to brotherhood, from destruction to common efforts on behalf of the men, women and children of all Southeast Asia.

ASKS FOR PRAYER

"In this, I ask all of you for all of your prayers."

Johnson's day included a flight to Independence, Mo., and a visit with former President Harry S. Truman to talk about peace prospects with his old political friend.

He also brought along cuff links, a picture and other gifts for an advance celebration of Truman's 84th birthday, which comes next Wednesday.

Back in Washington, the President, Mrs. Johnson, and their older daughter, Lynda, attended the museum's opening ceremonies.

★ ★ ★

Johnson spent about 20 minutes browsing amid the Smithsonian Institution's major collection of American paintings, sculpture and decorative arts that make up the National Collection of Fine Arts, housed in its own home for the first time in more than 100 years.

Johnson took in everything from landscapes to a seductive nude.

GIs in Viet Happy About Site Accord

SAIGON (AP) — American servicemen generally welcomed today the agreement by the United States and North Vietnam to meet in Paris. But some expressed doubts over chances for success in the preliminary peace talks.

A canvass of GIs in Saigon showed many had not heard of the forthcoming talks by this morning, but most who had heard were glad.

★ ★ ★

"I think it's a good thing," said Sgt. 1.C. Russell Edwards of San Antonio, Tex., an adviser with the South Vietnamese 7th Division. "I don't think anything will come of these talks but at least its a start. Maybe something can happen later if things keep moving."

Another Army sergeant laughed and said, "That's the greatest thing since peanut butter."

'IT SOUNDS GREAT'

First Lt. George Hope of Parksley, Va., said: "It sounds great to me. I'll be glad to see this thing over with, but of course it is hard to say what will happen in Paris. The North Vietnamese probably have something up their sleeves."

★ ★ ★

"I think its a damned good thing," said a lieutenant who did not want his name used. "I'm ready to get out of this place."

M. Sgt. Willie Brunson of Willingboro, N.J., in charge of a truck company, said: "I heard the President on the radio this morning but no one told me to stop pushing this load so I guess the war is still on."

★ ★ ★

Army Cpt. Earl Luce of Hazelton, Pa., commented, "The guys were talking about it at breakfast but nobody got very excited."

'HERE WE GO AGAIN'

Said M Sgt. Wayne Sandez of Chandler, Okla., "I thought to myself, 'Here we go again.' I was in Korea when they started talking that time and I know how long it took. Maybe this time we'll get lucky."

The Korean talks lasted roughly two years.

Goodyear Plants in Ontario Struck

TORONTO (AP) — Nearly 2,500 at the Toronto and Bowmanville, Ont., plants of Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co. of Canada Ltd. went on strike Friday demanding wages equal to those paid in the American auto industry.

★ ★ ★

Close to 2,000 members of Local 232, United Rubber Workers Union, failed to show up for work at the Goodyear plant in the Toronto borough of Etobicoke. Another 410 factory and office workers at the Bowmanville plant, 10 miles east of Oshawa, did not arrive for work.

New York farmers produced 9 per cent more vegetables in 1967 but made almost one-fifth less money than in 1966, because of lower prices.

MODERNIZATION

Pontiac Press Photos by Rolf Winter

Designed By Gordon Finley Of Utica, The Rudy Schuler Home Was Built By Michael Chirco, Utica

Contemporary Mood Is Set

By JODY HEADLEE
Home Editor, The Pontiac Press

Contemporary styling wins a confidence vote from Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Schuler of Tanview Drive, Oxford Township.

"I like it," said Mrs. Schuler. "It's more informal, more warm and more comfortable. Besides, it's just what is needed for an easy maintenance home like ours.

"When we decided to move to the lake, we knew that we wanted a home that would let us enjoy the outdoors and not spend all the time working inside."

Completely air-conditioned for warmth in winter and cooler comfort in summer, the house features paneling throughout and plastic drapery panels.

"The draperies," said Mr. Schuler, "fold up so they don't hide the windows' view of the lake."

LIVING ROOM

In the formal living room with its cathedral ceiling, gold carpeting complements the rich walnut paneling. Custom pieces coordinate the furniture fabrics. Seat cushions on the sofa are upholstered in a gold material with the back cushions in a gold plaid. Chairs in the room repeat the fabric — one all gold, the other, plaid.

"Please note," said Mr. Schuler, "there are no table lamps in the house. We feel that table lamps are a necessary evil.

"So when we designed the house, we arranged light where we needed it. All artificial lighting is achieved by hanging or wall mounted lamps.

A dramatic semi-open staircase leads to the lake-level recreation center. Partitioning the room is a peninsula fireplace of split-rock brick. The pair of black masks decorating the fireplace's end were discovered in Jamaica by Mrs. Schuler's father.

★ ★ ★

In the master bedroom, paneled in Bacarra (African) mahogany, a high-low pile in sand-beige carpets the floor. Adding to the room's feeling of spaciousness is the beamed cathedral ceiling.

TRUE RANCH: All habitable area in this four-bedroom house is on a single floor, making it a real ranch in the true meaning of the word. Note how centrally located covered entryway gives balance to the entire front elevation.

'True' Ranch Allows Comfortable Living

Immediately after World War II, the very popular ranch house began to take on many different aspects.

It became the "raised ranch," the "splitlevel ranch" or any number of other manufactured names in which the word ranch was part of the description.

This quiet and restrained house is a true ranch in its intended meaning. That is, it is complete one-story living.

The house, designed by architect Samuel Paul, radiates around a central covered porch which is entered either from the entrance foyer or the family room.

★ ★ ★

The covered porch also acts as a separation between the quiet sleeping area and the active area.

FOYER

As one enters the house into a welcoming and gracious foyer, he immediately has a view that extends through the covered porch into the garden area and a swimming pool (optional) in the rear.

To the left of the entry is the living room, which merges but, at the same time, is well separated from the dining room — with a total length of 31'. The living room has a large window wall facing the front garden.

Also off the entry foyer is the family room, adjacent to the kitchen, which is equipped with a fireplace and a closet, and during good weather can be opened up to the covered porch where the two spaces can flow into one.

★ ★ ★

The "L" shaped kitchen is completely equipped with sink, dishwasher, counter-top range, wall oven, large refrigerator and an abundance of cabinets. Serving space is provided in one corner of the kitchen for breakfast or informal meals.

The laundry area, which in effect, is also a mudroom, has a lavatory, closets, washing machine and dryer. And just off it is a stairway to the basement.

The two-car garage has space for storage and a work bench. Adjacent to it are spaces for garden storage, sauna and shower which can be used in conjunction with the swimming pool.

★ ★ ★

There are four bedrooms and two baths to the right of the entrance foyer.

MASTER SUITE

The master suite and a secondary bedroom open on to the pool deck by means of sliding glass doors. All bedrooms are equipped with the equivalent of two closets. The master bedroom, however, has a huge walk-in closet and its own private bath with a shower stall, vanitory and water closet.

The second bath is conveniently located to the three bedrooms. It is equipped with a double vanitory in one compartment, and a water closet and tub in another.

A partial basement is underneath the kitchen, dining room, living room and family room.

★ ★ ★

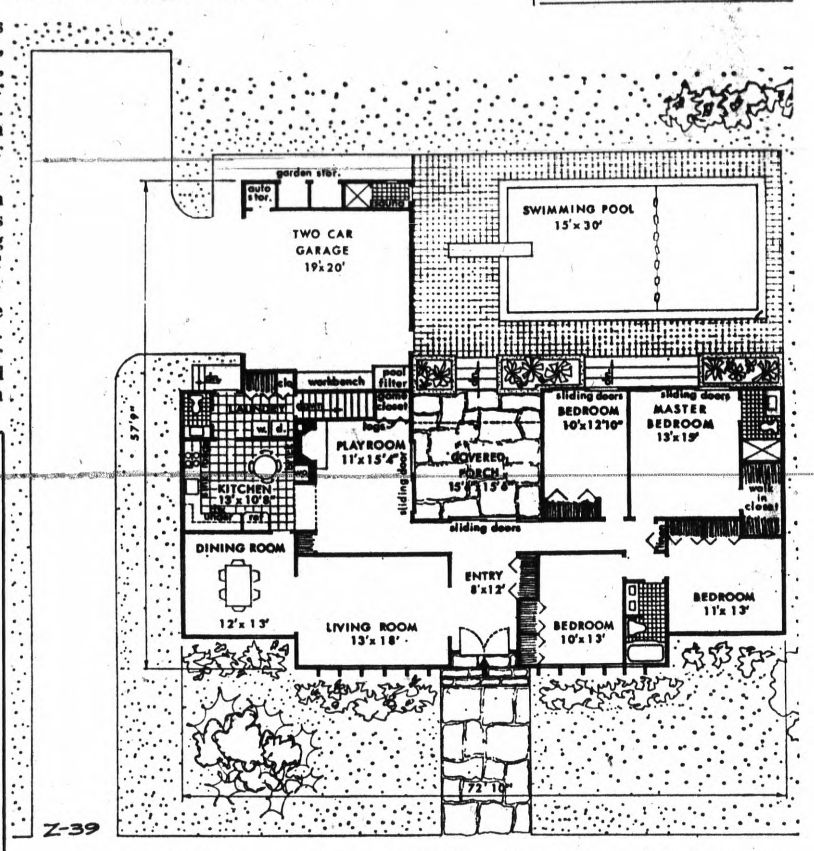
The exterior gives a long, low, horizontal feeling, typical of the true ranch house. The three hip roofs combine to break up the roof structure in a pleasant manner.

★ ★ ★

The exterior material is composed of thin horizontal wood siding and board and batten vertical siding which cause interesting shadows on the surface.

Z-39 STATISTICS

Design Z-39 has a living room, dining room, playroom or family room, kitchen, laundry room, three bedrooms, two baths, lavatory and a spacious front entry foyer, with a total livable area of 1998 square feet. There is a large covered porch between the sleeping and living sections, with a two-car garage and extra storage space. A partial basement is included in the plans. The swimming pool at the rear is optional. Over-all dimensions are 72' 10" by 57'9", including the garage and swimming pool area.



FLOOR PLANS: Entryway and covered porch form ideal combination to separate living and sleeping areas. Playroom, strategically located between porch and kitchen, with entrances to both, has a fireplace and can be utilized as a family room if desired.

Metal Doors for Safety

Sliding metal doors that close off the front of a fireplace can help to eliminate fears about fires that are still smoldering at bedtime.

Closed, the doors will not only smother the fire by shutting off the draft but also will prevent the chimney's drawing heat from the room during the night.

Flooring the area in front of the fireplace with fireproof ceramic tile will reduce worries about the tiny sparks that fly through the screen when the fire is burning briskly and doors are open.

Window Idea for Your Home

A fixed sash flanked by operating casement windows makes a dramatic bay window.

Save 160 Hours

The American Gas Association estimates that the woman without a gas dryer puts in approximately 160 extra hours of labor each year hauling about 45 pounds of wet wash to the clothesline, hanging it, taking it down and folding it for ironing.

Frame of Home Needs Strong Wood

The most important part of a home is the structural framework which holds it together. Safety and durability of the dwelling depend on the strength and cohesiveness of the framework.

★ ★ ★

Most U.S. homes are framed with lumber because of the latter's resilient strength — an ability to cushion the shock of heavy loads. But not just any kind will do.

★ ★ ★

Some species of lumber are much stronger and have greater nail-holding ability than others. Such differentials should be carefully weighted before choosing species.

★ ★ ★

Framing lumber should also be properly seasoned and pre-shrunk before being surfaced to final size. Nails will not loosen in pre-shrunk lumber as they do when unseasoned framing dries in service.

Home Owners Like Low Maintenance

What does the home buyer expect to receive for his money in 1968?

According to housing experts it is no longer enough to offer the home buyer a house that provides shelter. He wants more value for his money.

Experts say the home owner demands built-in conveniences, better building materials, and maintenance-free living. Homes must be designed with the entire family in mind.

Typical plans should include: children's playrooms, spacious living rooms, luxurious bedrooms, study areas, sewing centers, workshops, well-equipped kitchens, hobby hideaways and garages with ample wall storage.

★ ★ ★

Sensible room arrangements are a must and should provide good traffic patterns. Modern living also requires that there be plenty of convenient storage space located throughout the house.

The home buyer, who now spends so much of his time outdoors, also wants an atrium or sheltered patio for family gatherings and informal entertaining, and he also enjoys having a pool in the back yard.

He looks for a house that combines beauty, durability and low care. Many builders achieve this, say the experts, through the proper use of building materials.

Many new houses feature the luxury look of hardboard paneling, which is attractive and easy to keep clean.

★ ★ ★

Hardboard paneling is being used by many builders in family rooms, dens, dining areas, kitchens, bathrooms, bedrooms and living rooms, as well as in hallways and garages.

It comes in a wide range of rich woodgrains, decorator colors and exotic patterns.

Outside, buyers look for — and builders are providing — sound all-weather roofing, windows that give a house good proportion, doors that reflect and authenticate the style of the house, and durable, goodlooking, low-maintenance hardboard siding.

Do-It-Yourself Tips

Water Closet Repair

By ANDY LANG
AP Newsfeatures

The flush tank in the very large majority of residential bathroom differs very little from that used in the days when plumbing first moved inside. It fills with water, which is sent rushing into the toilet bowl when a handle is pressed. And each of these tanks has a loose cover on top, so that it can be easily removed whenever a repair is needed, which seems to be more often than anything else in a house.

Most common of the annoynaces resulting from trouble within the tank is the continuous dripping of water into the bowl.

After taking off the tank cover, see whether the water level is higher than the overflow, vertical tube you'll see there. If it is, water is going down that tube into the bowl.

The metal or plastic float at the end of a horizontal rod many have lost its buoyancy because it has sprung a leak. Unscrew it from the rod and shake it to see whether there is water in it.

If so, a new float is in order. If it appears to be in sound condition, bend the rod to which the float was attached. Bend it downwards, using both hands and working very carefully so as not to throw the entire tank mechanism out of alignment.

REPLACE FLOAT

Replace the float, flush the tank and the trouble may have disappeared.

Another cause of this dripping is a defective valve at the top of the supply pipe, by which water enters the tank. It may only need a new washer.

Before you attempt to replace it, shut off the water at the valve under the tank or — if it doesn't have one — at the main shut-off valve of the house.

★ ★ ★

If, when you took off the tank cover, the water level was not above the overflow tube, but below it, the chances are that water is leaking under the rubber ball or pear-shape object at the bottom of the ank.

You will find that it screws off the vertical rod to which it is attached. The leak is caused when that ball fails to drop perfectly onto the valve seat — or the valve seat has rust or grit on it — or the ball needs replacement. The valve seat can be cleaned by rubbing it with steel wool.

If the ball needs a replacement, you can get it at any hardware store. While you're there, you should consider the possibility of getting one of the new gadgets designed to guide the rubber ball so that it drops exactly on the valve.

★ ★ ★

Be sure, if you buy one, that it can be installed easily. Many hardware stores have the inside of a flush tank on display. If so, have the dealer show you exactly how the installation is made.

Extra Room Adds Comfort

Most of us dream of having "the extra room" — a place of privacy to escape the hubbub of family life . . . a special room to rest, write, sew or just plain unwind in.

Chances are you'll find space for the refuge in either your attic or basement. This means in most instances natural light will be in short supply.

What to do about lack of light? Depend on color to spark the room!

Select two strong, complementary colors — perhaps sapphire blue and persimmon red and add one neutral tone. Use the colors lavishly.

★ ★ ★

ILLUSION

This treatment will give the visual illusion of shortening a long, narrow room, flattering a squarish space, and raising the ceiling height.

For flooring choose a neutral-toned, vinyl travertine tile available in the lines of most leading flooring manufacturers and ceiling blocks in oyster white.

★ ★ ★

All the suggested products can be installed with basic carpenter tools as a do-it-yourself project.

Vertical Siding

Cedar bevel siding installed vertically makes an excellent acoustical wall for a music room.

PETITE PANTRY—Only a six-inch depth is needed for this great pantry, built floor to ceiling on the projecting end of a U-shaped kitchen. Sides and shelves are Douglas fir boards; louvered bi-fold doors won't block passageway when open. For fun, use the kitchen's accent color.

Construct False Beam

For a beamed ceiling in family or living room, false beams can be made easily by building long boxes of 1x4 or 1x6-inch Douglas fir boards.

Miter joining edges for the best appearance and, for an aged look, distress the beams by hitting them with chains or keys.

Then rub raw artist's umber into the beams' scars before finishing with stain.

Fireplace Unit Lower in Cost

Building or remodeling on a tight budget? It's still possible to have a handsome fireplace wall.

The fireplace itself can be one of the modern metal units. With the wide variety available today, one can be fond to suit nearly anyone's taste and pocketbook.

Some units are built to be "hung" on a wall. Others are free-standing and can be placed on an ankle-high hearth of quarry tile or brick.

A metal fireplace looks both more inviting and more permanent when the wall behind is wood-paneled. Decorator favorites are clear, straight-grained boards in woods like western hemlock and western red cedar.

A knotty grade of ponderosa or sugar pine, if stained dark, also makes a dramatic fireplace wall.

Marketing Survey Proves

Chain Saw Gains in Popularity

What's all this about chain saws?

Television commercials showing a suburbanite effortlessly pruning his apple tree with a power saw are becoming nearly as familiar as detergent messages. Chain saws now rate front-counter rather than back shelf display in tool supply outlets.

According to a recent marketing survey by Omark Industries, Inc., leading cutting chain producer, one household in 20 now owns a chain saw. The study also determined that more than 4 million Americans used a chain saw at least once last year.

What do people do with them? What do they cost? Answers to some typical questions the might-be chain saw owner has whirling about his head are provided by Omark's marketing director, Ashton Marcus...

First of all, what exactly is a chain saw?

★ ★ ★

"It's a saw powered by either a gas or electric engine on which the cutting edge is a length of chain that revolves around an oblong guide bar. The cutting action comes from sharp, precisely positioned steel cutters formed on the chain links, the cutters chip away at the wood as the chain turns at speeds of more than 35 m.p.h."

HARD TO HANDLE

Is the tool difficult to handle?

"Not any more. The first models intorduced weighed about 200 pounds and required two to three men to operate. Today there are compactly constructed models under 12 pounds that an operator can put to work after spending only a few minutes reading a manual."

What are the advantages of the tool?

★ ★ ★

"It's a tremendous labor saver, capable of sawing through a foot-thick log in just a few seconds. And, as far as the gas engine types is concerned, it is a completely portable implement that can be operated virtually anywhere."

Does it burn a lot of fuel?

"A gallon can of ordinary gas, mixed with a small quantity of oil, will run a saw engine more than an hour."

★ ★ ★

Are they a lot of trouble to maintain?

REASONABLE CARE

"Not really. Routine maintenance involves cleaning sawdust and pitch from the saw chain and guide bar after the saw is used, a task requiring a few minutes, and keeping the chain sharp for maximum cutting efficiency. A professional logger has to sharpen his chain every day, but the occasional user need only file his chain only once after every four tankfuls of fuel, on the average. Some saw models now are equipped with built-in sharpening systems by which chain is sharpened automatically in just five seconds.

"As with all gas-powered engines, the air filter, spark plug and carburetor on a chain saw engine need periodic cleaning."

'Are chain saws tough to start?

"One short, quick tug on a starting cord is enough to turn over a gas engine on a saw, if it is in good running order. Some oparators do tend to make things difficult for themselves by yanking furiously on the cord and wind up with a rewinding task on their hands. With the latter group in mind, no doubt, one major saw manufacturer recently introduced a pushbutton started engine."

Are chain saws dangerous?

"Hardly more than an ordinary hand saw — and in operating it many of the same types of safety precautions should be taken. For example, you should wear a hard hat to protect your head from falling branches if you are cutting a tree. And observers, particularly children, should be kept away from the sawing operation. The main safety rule in operating a power saw is keep both hands firmly on the saw and your feet firmly planted in a well-balanced position."

★ ★ ★

Are chain saws expensive?

They vary widely in price, some smaller, light-duty saws selling for about $90 and some heavy models running as high as $200."

Can you rent them?

"Yes, as a matter of fact, chain saws are one of the standard items at tool rental shops. It will cost you between $10 and $15 a day, so make sure, if you do decide to rent, you can put it to a lot of use. There usually is a weekend rush on power saw rentals and the tools are particularly scarce after a heavy windstorm when there is debris to be cleared."

★ ★ ★

What to people who aren't professional loggers do with chain saws?

"Lots of things. In fact, Omark has found that two out of three saw owners today are not professional woodsmen. The homeowner generally uses a chain saw to cut fence posts, prune trees and cut firewood.

"If you have a place in the country the saw can be used for clearing ground, cutting disks of wood for paths or patio floors, building a boat dock, and making rustic furniture pieces ranging from tables to bunk beds.

★ ★ ★

"Campers and fishermen often take a chain saw with them on trips, to cut firewood, make tent poles, rafts, cutting boards and lean-tos to protect their gear. And, if you happen to be an ice fisherman, you can use the tool to cut openings in the ice. You'll find it easier than chipping with an auger."

Kitchen Door Pantry Space

No space for a pantry? How about the back of the kitchen or basement door?

If the door is hung with a heavy-duty continuous hinge, it will support shallow shelves of canned goods.

Use shelves only for soup-size cans and run dowels horizontally an inch above each shelf to keep cans from tumbling off when the door swings.

Crop Is Varied

Besides growing wood for more than 5,000 articles used by Americans every day, tree farms produce other "crops": water, wildlife, recreation, soil stabilization and livestock forage.

Stars Worry About Game Show Shots

Stars seem to be more worried than ordinary mortals about going on game shows as guests celebrities.

"It's different from acting," said Tom Kennedy. "They have to be themselves on a game show and, being themselves, is one thing they fear.

"They know what they can do as actors, but they don't know how they'll come off as people. The common comment is, 'I hope I can live up to my image'."

Still they muster up their courage and take the plunge on such daytime game shows as the "You Don't Say!" series hosted by Kennedy and colorcast on NBC Television (Channel 2) Mondays through Fridays from 3:30 to 4 p.m.

"Stars do it because daytime shows give them the widest and quickest exposure possible," explained Kennedy.

THEY GET BOOKINGS

"One actress told me she gets bookings all over the country because of appearances on our show. One actor said fans comment more about his appearance on our show than his own highly successful series."

"You Don't Say!" began in 1963. More than 500 stars have appeared since then; among them: Jane Wyatt, Brian Keith, Ruta Lee, Jackie Coogan, Rose Marie, John Astin, Shari Lewis, Pat Crowley, Phyllis Kirk, Vera Miles, Tippi Hedren, Leonard Nimoy, Barbara McNair, Mike Connors, Lola Albright, Keely Smith, Buddy Greco and Richard Long.

"Pat Carroll has to be the most repeated and best guest player on our show," said Kennedy. "She's been back more than a dozen times. They love her.

★ ★

"She has a quality that appeals to people. She's been very successful as a performer but her feet have never left the ground.

TWO MONTHS LATER

"Two months after she was on our show recently, 50 per cent of our fan mail still concerned her."

Bobbie Gentry will sing her award-winning "Ode to Billy Joe" when she appears on "The Best on Record: The Grammy Award Show," to be colorcast Wednesday on Channel 4 at 9 p.m.

Universal Theme for Bobbie's Songs

HOLLYWOOD—Bobbie Gentry's "Ode to Billy Joe" was a short story once.

"I wrote short stories," she said. "Billy Joe was a short story which I condensed into verse. I still have the original notes which I wrote on an insurance pad."

There was some question initially whether to use this song as Bobbie's first release.

"Those involved felt it had a number of drawbacks," said the Mississippi-born singer-composer.

★ ★ ★

"They said it was too long, that it couldn't be categorized and aimed at specific audience, that I was a female vocalist and soloist and this was the day of group singers. In spite of all this, we agreed to release it. I was all for it."

3 MILLION SALES

Bobbie's "Ode to Billy Joe" has sold almost three million records. It's been recorded 32 times.

Bobbie will recreate her song, winner of four Grammys, in "The Best on Record: The Grammy Awards Show" to be colorcast on Channel 4 on Wednesday.

"I try to sing from a Southerner's point of view, both Negro and white," Bobbie explained. "I sing for the people of the South who love it for what it can be loved for.

★ ★ ★

"I figured the South would enjoy Billy Joe. I can't say I anticipated the immediate national acclaim and certainly not the international response."

RISE ABOVE SOUTH

While her songs are of the South, they rise above the South. The idiom is regional, but the themes are universal as in "Ode to Billy Joe," which deals with the casual unconcern of others toward someone else's tragedy.

Just as the Delta has left its mark on Bobbie, she, too, has left her mark on the Delta. Her town of Houston, population 5,000, recently celebrated a Bobbie Gentry Day.

ABC 'Wide World of Sports' Will Mark 7th Anniversary

Quickie Quiz: What weekly television series has been on the air continually since 1961 without repeating a single program?

The answer is "ABC's Wide World of Sports," which debuted April 29, 1961, and celebrates its seventh anniversary later this month.

In almost seven years (through March 1968), the 90-minute sports anthology series has presented 339 programs. It is the longest running series of any type on the ABC-TV network with the sole exception of the vunerable Lawrence Welk show.

Offering sports fans something interesting every week for seven years isn't easy. The task fell to ABC Sports President Roone Arledge, creator of the series; Chuck Howard, vice president in charge of program production for ABC sports; and Jim Spence, coordinating producer of "ABC's Wide World of Sports."

World and Olympic figure skating champion Peggy Ann Fleming participates in an international exhibition at Geneva and motorcycle racers compete in international cross-country competition in Simi, Calif., to highlight today's "Wide World of Sports" at 5 p.m. on Channel 7.

That inventive trio has come up with more than 100 different sports for "Wide World" over the years. The program format usually calls for two or three segments per week.

690 SEGMENTS

In all, 690 segments have been aired on the 339 programs with very few repeats and never has an entire show been repeated.

The 5-6:30 p.m. (DST) Saturday time slot has become a habit for millions of sports enthusiasts who look forward to such world-famous events as the LeMans 24-hour Grand Prix of endurance, world figure skating championships, the Indianapolis "500," NCAA and AAU national championship events and heavyweight boxing championships.

On other weeks, "Wide World" offers viewers such exciting "off-beat" sports as Acapulco cliff diving, ski flying, snowmobile racing, surfing, the demolition derby and the national air races.

"We know most sports fans want to see the big events," Arledge says, "but we feel if some people think enough of ski flying or driving a snowmobile to devote years of practice to them we can set aside 20 minutes on a Saturday afternoon to present that sport in an interesting manner."

Through the years "Wide World" has garnered a full complement of honors for its efforts.

The series has received "Emmys" for the last two years for TV sports programming; a George F. Peabody award for promoting international understanding through sports and the Cannes Film Festival grand prize for television reporting.

Reruns and Replacements

Networks Slip Into Summer Doldrums

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

NEW YORK (AP) — Television, which revolutionized the entertainment pattern of the nation, now is quietly rearranging the calendar. There are now, unofficially of course, two seasons: winter and summer.

Winter begins a few days after Labor Day, often in the middle of a heat wave, when the three networks unveil their new schedules. Summer starts — or at least it did this year — shortly after March 1 when repeat performances began to sneak quietly into the evening lineups.

Television's annual summer doldrums is dictated by economics. Over the seasons, the cost of producing programs has increased each year. A half-hour situation comedy that once was turned out for $40,000 per episode, today costs $75,000 or more. Hour-long and 90-minute dramatic shows routinely top $150,000, and the budget for many of the variety hours frequently soars over $250,000.

Thus, faced with the fact that audiences drop off by as much as 20 per cent, and that sponsors are less enchanted by the prospect of paying thousands of dollars for hot weather commercials, half of the television year has become TV's belt-tightening time.

The paradox of the situation is that although variety programs are the most expensive to produce and have almost no market for syndication after they have run their network course, the programs are rarely rerun and are most likely to be replaced during the off months.

NBC's "Rowan and Martin Laugh-In" will have a month of reruns, and then comes more than two months of action with "The Champions," international espionage stuff. While Dean Martin is away, Joey Heatherton and Frank Sinatra Jr. will mind the store.

ABC, as usual, is sticking mostly with reruns, but will give its "Operation: Entertainment" a breather while filling with a suspense show, "Man in a Suitcase."

★ ★ ★

One favorite summer device, beloved by producers, is to broadcast an assortment of crashed pilot programs, expensive shows turned out to demonstrate the potential of a series which was turned down. In this way, some small part of the gamble is recouped. This year, CBS' "Carol Burnett Show" will drop reruns during July and August, to make room for a group of these.

BRITISH SHOWS

Summer rarely has been used as a time for experiment or to introduce new faces. But it has shaped up recently as a period for invasion by British-made programs, often series made for English consumption and therefore less expensive to acquire for the American market.

This season, out of 10 replacement shows, four will be British imports. They are "CBS' "The Prisoner" and "Show Time," NBC's "The Champions" and ABC'S "Man in a Suitcase."

A host of British stars will help fill in television's prime time slots during the summer. NBC's "The Champions" will star (top, from right) Alexandra Bastedo, Stuart Damon and William Gaunt. Richard Bradford (bottom left) can be seen on "Man in a Suitcase" Fridays, from 8:30-9:30 p.m., on Channel 7; and Patrick McGoohan (bottom right) will be the central character in "The Prisoner" on CBS.

Maudie's Garb Is by a Top Designer

Grandma Maudie Frickert dresses in a style that vanished with the Stanley Steamer, but don't get the idea that her duds came from a Salvation Army thrift store.

Au contraire, the costume worn by CBS Television Network star Jonathan Winters in his frequent portrayals of that hilarious oldster on "The Jonathan Winters Show" Wednesdays (10 to 11 p.m. on Channel 2) in color on CBS television, was created by one of the most prominent couturiers in the business — Donfeld, the show's costume designer.

Winters did his Grandma Frickert characterization for years in nightclubs and on television, using a rather drab outfit of black trimmed in white lace.

When his present comedy-variety television series was developed late last year, Donald decided that a change was in order to make the costume more colorful.

★ ★ ★

"You'd never guess how expensive that new costume is," says Donfeld, "but, then, most of the costuming we use on the show is tremendously expensive.

GOWNS ARE EXPENSIVE

"The gowns and accessories I've designed for some of our female guest stars would cost these gals $1,700 if they were to get them on their own from a designer — and, mind you, that kind of an outfit is for a single performance on the show.

"Once a costume has been worn by the performer, that's it, brother. It goes into the CBS Wardrobe Department's stock, and it's never worn again on our show. For all I know, it may never be seen on any other show, either."

Trees Suffer From Drought

Trees suffer from drought in winter just as they do in summer, especially if there are strong, cold, drying winds that sap moisture through needles and bark.

★ ★ ★

When the soil is dry and air space around roots lack moisture, roots will shrivel and die. Shallow-rooted trees go first as twigs and branches dry out.

★ ★ ★

Leaves do not emerge or foliage is considerably less than normal, although fruit may be heavy. Then the tree will die.

Street trees, experts report, are very susceptible to winter drought.

★ ★ ★

Snow usually helps trees since it prevents freezing of roots. At least the upper soil is moist, reducing winter injury.

★ ★ ★

Without snow, a deep freeze — sometimes down two feet or more — will lock up moisture, preventing it from reaching tree roots.

If winter injury becomes apparent this spring, feed trees amply, prunning, spraying and watering carefully.

Home Need Up

About 1.1 million new families will be formed annually between 1968-70. To house them, as well as to provide needed replacement housing units, the home building industry must construct 1.75 million new units a year.

Here's Tip for Buying Oak Flooring

Whether you are specifying oak flooring for an entire house or buying a smaller amount for a little do-it-yourself project such as reflooring a single room, here is advice worth keeping in mind.

There are a number of grades of oak flooring, all boasting extreme durability, natural beauty and superior performance capabilities.

The difference among them are chiefly in appearance, the higher grades being more unitics, such as figure, pattern and coloring.

All are scientifically kiln-dried to promote dimensional stability.

★ ★ ★

The average person, however, cannot distinguish one grade from another.

ASSURANCE

Your best assurance of receiving the grade you order, according to trade sources, is to specify flooring which bears the lettering "NOFMA" on the underside of the pieces.

The letters stand for National Oak Flooring Manufacturers' Association.

They are your guarantee that the flooring conforms with the rigid requirements of the association and is of the grade stated.

★ ★ ★

Only manufacturers who adhere to the high quality standards of the group are admitted to membership and allowed to use the trademark.

Varnish—Prima Dona of Paint World

For extra good results in applying varnish, you should know something about tacking, picking and tipping — which have nothing to do with sail boats, fruit harvests and restaurants.

Tacking is the process of cleaning a surface with a sticky cloth preparatory to the application of the varnish. Picking is a simple method of removing specks of dust from wet varnish. And tipping is a smoothing-out operation.

Since dust is the big enemy of varnish, it is important that every bit of dust be removed from the surface before starting. This is done with a tack rag. It is a clean cloth sprinkled with turpentine and then moistened with varnish.

Wrung out until it is nearly dry, it becomes sticky or tacky; hence the expression a tack rag. Wiping the surface with a tack rag should be done immediately before varnishing, not 10 or 15 minutes later.

★ ★ ★

An ordinary wooden toothpick is the only tool needed for picking. While varnishing, you may notice that a speck of dust has settled on a part of the surface you have just finished. If you lightly touch the end of the toothpick to the piece of dust, it will adhere.

SMOOTH OUT

The moment you lift up the toothpick, with the dust on it, the wet varnish will close in on the disturbed spot and automatically smooth it out. Remember: this must be done while the varnish is still very wet.

Tipping is done with the regular varnish brush. After the varnish has been applied with flowing strokes — first against the grain of the wood, then with it — the brush is drawn very lightly across the surface a third time, but with two differences.

This third operation is done only with the tips of the bristles and only after excess varnish has been removed from the brush.

★ ★ ★

Unlike paint, varnish should not be shaken before using. Any disturbance of the contents will produce small bubbles which may show up on the surface of the material being finished.

Some persons warm varnish to make it flow more easily. Never do this over an open flame.

The proper way is to place the entire can of varnish in a pan of moderately hot water just before using.

There are so many different kinds of varnishes on the market these days, including several varieties of plastics with urethane or epoxy bases, that it is wise to read the label on the can—before you leave the store — to determine whether it is suitable for your purpose.

Library Wall Livens Room

A good library wall is hard to beat as a means of adding both storage and instant character to a room.

In a living room, it erases parlor stuffiness, and in a formal dining room, the effect can be cozy as the kitchen.

Of course no library wall is limited to book storage. Any thing from stacks of magazines to a bowl of cut flowers or the heirloom tea service fits in with ease and elegance.

Building in a library wall offers a rare opportunity to the creative soul, and just about anything goes.

Some families have worked magic with rough-surfaced lumber; others have found that a few two-inch-thick boards make quite an impact as shelving.

VERTICAL GRAIN

Color-toning vertical grain fir, pine or hemlock produces another intriguing effect, adding a hint of color to the texture of wood.

To color-tone lumber, use enamel thinned in at least a three-to-one proportion.

Brush on the paint, then wipe it off with a lint-free cloth so that only a small amount of color adheres to the wood. Practicing on scraps will soon perfect your technique.

Then sand the wood lightly with extra fine sandpaper or steel wool to remove raised grain. Complete the job with two coats of matte or satin finish varnish.

Double-Glass Gives Comfort and Beauty

Insulating glass, which was once a custom feature, is now obtainable in all styles and sizes of stock wood windows.

For homeowners this means:

- That wide-view windows can be practical as well as pretty.
- That every room in the house can be weathertight.
- That heat loss and fuel bills can be cut substantially.
- That the bother of hanging storm windows can be eliminated.

When insulating glass was available in only a limited number of window styles, homeowners who used wide-view units such as picture windows, bows and bays, or sliding glass doors, had to depend on cumbersome storm sash to protect against heat loss in winter.

In summer, they often overworked their cooling systems to compensate for heat gain through large glass areas.

★ ★ ★

Today, insulating glass can be had in all sizes and styles of stock ponderosa pine window units, including doublehungs, casements, awnings, sliders, and the popular wide-visibility windows and doors. They are readily available at local lumber dealers.

VACUUM

Insulating glass, also called double-glazing, is actually two panes of glass sealed at the edges to form a cushion of "dead" air space between.

Combined with the natural insulation of wood sash and factory-applied weatherstrip-insulating glass is considered the most effective deterrent to expensive and uncomfortable heat loss.

It also guards against condensation — moisture which forms when warm air strikes a cold window pane or cold metal sash — and eliminates the need for storm sash except in extremely cold climates.

★ ★ ★

The value of weatherstripped wood windows with insulating glass is attested to by electric utility companies which recommend their use in electrically-heated homes where full thermal insulation is a construction requirement.

★ ★ ★

Generally, wood windows with insulating glass cost only about 15 per cent more than single-pane windows with separate storm sash.

Tile Can Ease Traffic Problems

Replace worn-out, faded wall and floor coverings in such high-traffic areas of your home as the front and rear entries, the kitchen and the rec room with durable surfacings such as ceramic tiles.

★ ★ ★

Not only do tiles resist wear but their colors and designs are permanent; they cannot fade as the years pass.

Bathroom Vanity Area

Putting milady's vanity area in the master bathroom rather than the bedroom will probably maker her happier.

Most beauty and grooming care requires some source of water, and a vanity lavatory makes it readily available. The area should also include adequate counter and storage space.

Ceramic tile walls, floors and counters in the bath make clean-up of the area easy and prevent dropping or spilling damage.

Diversity Downtown Drawing Card

"Diversity is what makes any big city great and must be its principal weapon if it is going to lure trade back to the central city," Downtown Expert F. Lawrence Dow said addressing more than 450 participants in the "National Cleanest Town Conference" meeting in Washington, D. C.

★ ★ ★

Dow offered specific recommendations for how a downtown area can rehabilitate itself at the three-day conference sponsored by the National Clean Up — Paint Up — Fix Up Bureau.

More than 3,000 delegates to the conference represented a cross section of the nation's community leaders, city officials, beautification experts and private citizens interested in civic improvement.

Quoting Shakespeare to ask his audience "What is a city but the people?", Dow said the basic value of any downtown area is that it is a headquarters complex, as well as a cultural, civic, and entertainment center. It would keep drawing the people to the area if it were made easy enough for them to get to.

★ ★ ★

Dow, who is chairman of the Urban Land Institute's Central City Council, said that the first priority for cities is parking distribution. Pedestrians must be separated from vehicles and cars.

COMPETITION

"In fact," added the 25-year veteran Connecticut realtor, "central city areas have to pay at least as much attention to tenant selection, to good design and to convenience as their competing suburban areas do. The city shopping center must offer all the convenience and harmony of design as its suburban rivals."

Vetoing the bulldozer approach to the ills of the downtown business area, the managing partner of Hartford's Dow & Condon cited Washington's Georgetown and the Jackson Square area of San Francisco as proof that age alone does not permanently mar a specific downtown area.

"Cities do not automatically improve with age," he said, "Someone must do something constructive about them."

Dow concluded his remarks by saying that there are many ghost towns today that were "good enough" two decades ago but that today's downtown retail areas have to take a giant step. "Correcting errors is not enough; we must create opportunities that have the support of the citizens."

★ ★ ★

Involved for more than a quarter century in downtown Hartford, Connecticut, Dow has been active in the leadership of the Urban Land Institute for many years. As chairman of the Central City Council, he has helped conduct specific panel studies including recommendations that significantly influenced downtown renewal and rehabilitation of Boise, Idaho; Flint, Michigan; Pittsfield, Massachusetts; and other city redevelopment.

★ ★ ★

The Urban Land Institute is an independent research organization which studies, interprets and reports trends in modern land uses. The Institute derives its support principally from more than 4,500 dues-paying members. This nonprofit educational group was founded in 1936 to help improve the standards of urban planning and development.

Perforated Panels for Storage Space

To a homeowner, holes in the wall are often an eyesore. But, they can also be a boon.

The holes with a purpose are those found in perforated hardboard panels — one of the easiest and most effective ways to provide extra storage space anywhere in the house.

Perforated panels used to be considered strictly utilitarian. A familiar type is garage liners — ¼-inch thick unfinished hardboard panels with perforations which accept hooks, brackets and heavy-duty hardware to hold everything from ladders to lawn mowers.

Their advantage is that they provide neat, organized wall storage for all types of house and garden equipment and keep the garage floor clear for the car. This same type of panel is also popular for tool storage in workshops.

★ ★ ★

Perforated hardboard panels are also available in a variety of finished, textures and styles that make them suitable, serviceable and decorative throughout the home.

WOODGRAIN

For example, perforated panels in rich, woodgrained finishes can be installed in studies, dens, recreation and family rooms as storage and display walls for books, hobby equipment, trophies, photographs and the like.

The items can either be hung from hooks inserted in the perforations, or stored on bracket-mounted shelves.

Some of the perforated panels are prefinished to match regular woodgrained hardboard. There are combination panels which are perforated down to wainscot height, with regular hardboard below.

★ ★ ★

Perforated panels also come with colored finishes, or you can use unfinished panels and paint them yourself.

An extremely practical use for perforated panels is in play rooms and children's rooms. They're a handy, easily-reached storage wall for toys, games, clothes and the youngsters' favorite paraphernalia.

What's more, the panels are sturdy, won't dent, mar or scuff and can be wiped clean with a damp cloth.

★ ★ ★

For high-humidity areas like the kitchen and bath, perforated panels are now available with a plastic finish that resists moisture and stains and can be scrubbed clean.

MORE TOO

In addition to their obvious use as "open" storage space (pots and pans in the kitchen; towels and robe racks in the bath), panels can also be installed on the inside of closet doors for extra "hidden" storage.

In all instances, perforated panels must be installed over furring strips or studs to provide clearance behind the panels for insertion of hooks.

The panels can either be nailed to the strips or installed with special adhesive.

★ ★ ★

For further information on perforated panels and other hardboard paneling, send ten cents to SR&A, Dept. HP, Box 3498, Grand Central Station, New York, N. Y. 10017.

Establish Unity

Ceramic tile floors throughout can help to provide design unity in a house. Where plans call for indoor-outdoor living, ceramic tile can also be extended outside to pave a patio, terrace or deck.

China Closet to Suit Decor

Should china closets in the dining room be concealed or should they be designed as a decorative element of the room?

It depends on the furniture. In the room contains only table and chairs, the storage unit will add beauty as well as function if built out from the wall.

When the dining room is furnished with a buffet or server and a breakfront, in addition to table and chairs, it's often best to conceal china closets in the wall.

An effective method is to build closet doors of tongue-and-groove panel boards, setting them flush with the surrounding, paneled wall surface.

★ ★ ★

Using touch latches for the doors eliminates visible hardware and, when closed, the storage units will "hide" in the wall.

For both designs, prestige woods like vertical grain western hemlock and ponderosa pine are recommended.

These woods can be finished either clear or to match other woodwork in the room. They needn't be matched to the furniture.

Utilities Serve

More than 92 per cent of the nation's gas customers are served by utilities which also provide servicing for gas appliances.

Use Top Quality Paint Brushes

Just doing a small paint job this weekend? Need a brush? Figure you'll just buy a cheap one and throw it away?

Don't!

A few pennies worth of turpentine or mineral spirits is cheaper than buying a new paintbrush — even the cheapest available — every time you paint, even if it's only once a year.

But aside from the false economy, there is the matter of the job itself. A cheap brush will do a poor job and take longer to do.

★ ★ ★

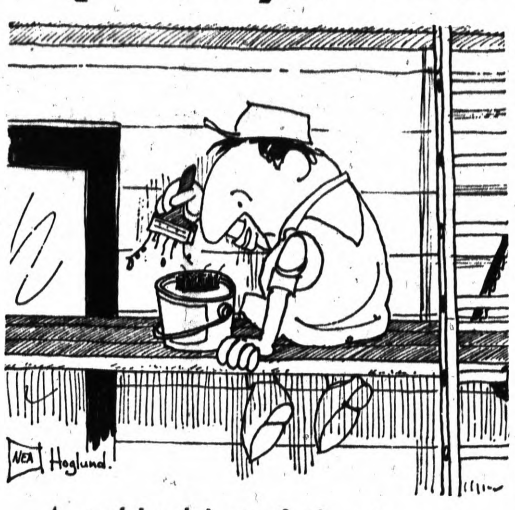
You don't need the most expensive, but spend enough. Imported Chinese bristles are for the painters who earn their living at it.

NATURAL BRISTLE

For home use, a good domestic natural bristle in a well-constructed brush or a quality nylon brush will do.

Generally speaking, buy natural bristle brushes for oil-base paints, nylon for latex paints. If you are watching your pennies, buy a good nylon for both.

Natural bristles get soggy in latex. Nylon won't give as smooth a job with oil-based paints but the difference isn't that great —especially outdoors.



A good brush is worth the extra cost.

If you are going beyond the use of paint you wil lhave to use both. Nylon will not do for lacquer, epoxy or paint removers or other solvents. And for varnishing, you will prefer the smooth job that natural bristle does.

For outside house painting get a four-inch brush. For indoors, two- or three-inch brushes are good for corners and woodwork. Since you will probably use latex paint for walls indoors, use a roller.

Among the special brushes which are useful is the sash brush which slants to one side and tapers to a chisellike edge. This is handy for working in around windows and other tight areas.

How do you pick a good brush from the vast assortment available? Thickness and length are the first things to look for.

Length is especially important in natural bristle brushes. The longer they are the better they are. Bend the bristles. If you find bunches of short bristles sticking out, pick another brush.

Making the brush look thicker than it is is a plug at the base of the bristles. This should not be more than a third of the thickness of the brush.

Stroke the brush a few times against your hand. Every brush will shed a few bristles. Avoid those with heavy shedding, however.

★ ★ ★

In a natural bristle brush, the ends of the bristles are flagged, that is, split. This indicates a good brush.

Care will make your investment worth-while. Clean your brush after using it. You can get away without cleaning between coats of paint by wrapping the brush tightly in several layers of aluminum foil. But don't leave it this way for more than a day.

Brushes used in oil paints can be cleaned in turpentine or mineral spirits. Those used in latex paints can be rinsed in water.

After cleaning off the excess paint (either kind) with the proper thinner, wash the brush in soap and water before storing.

Hanging is the best way to store a brush. If you wish to lay it flat, wrap the bristles.

Never leave a brush standing in a can of thinner. It will bend the bristles.

Housing Project Is Air Conditioned

NEW YORK (UPI) — The world's largest central air-conditioning, system built under a single contract has been installed at Co-Op City here, a giant cooperative housing project scheduled for completion in 1970.

Built on a 300-acre site where an amusement park once stood, the $285 million project will house 55,000 persons and offer schools, community centers, shopping centers and other services.

The central air-conditioning system built by Worthington Corporation provides 25,000 tons of cooling for the complex and offers individual controls in each of the 15,500 apartments in 35 high-rise buildings.

Cooling is handled by four giant chillers eight feet in diameter and 32 feet long that produce 6,250 tons of refrigeration each.

Heatlh Spa at Home

Modern appliances and the enlarged size of the modern bathroom have greatly simplified assembling a home health spa.

Compact saunas and steam rooms, whirlpool baths and whirling devices that fit any tub, sun lamps and exercise equipment are available in wide variety today.

Bathroom walls and floors of ceramic tile will create "spa" surroundings that won't be damaged by the added activity.

Bengals Fail to Produce in Clutch Situations

From the Press Box

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

You would have had to see the umpiring at Tiger Stadium Thursday night to believe it.

It was Major League umpiring at its worst. The antics of plate umpire Al Salerno were unbelievable and disgraceful.

Salerno ejected Tiger first baseman Eddie Mathews for using a cuss word after a third call strike. This was probably warranted, but when the fans continued their heckling in the late innings of the game, it got the best of Salerno.

He lost his poise and there should have been some higher authority who should have ejected Salerno for his behavior.

He accelerated the booing and heckling by getting into a contest of words and gestures with the fans and he obviously let the heat of the rhubarb affect his calling of balls and strikes.

TEMPER-BASED CALL

When he called Mickey Stanley out on strikes in the bottom of the ninth inning with the score tied 2-2, the third called strike must have been a foot from the ground and two feet away from the corner of the plate.

"You can take the blame for that one," he shouted back to manager Mayo Smith of the Tigers who protested the call.

Salerno, who was already steaming over the shouts, catcalls and protests which had transpired, became more angry when Smith protested the first call strike on Stanley.

He threw out his right arm wildly on the next two pitches evidently to prove to Smith and the fans that the pitches were strikes regardless of where they were and he was going to call them that way, whether they liked it or not.

At one point, he even went back to the screen behind the plate to ask the ushers to remove heckling fans and another time he walked toward third base and heightened the agitation by yelling something back at the fans.

FIRST RHUBARB

Pitcher Joe Sparma and the Tigers were upset when first base umpire William Haller called Ted Uhlaender safe at first on what looked like a sure double play.

It would have ended the 4th inning without a run, as a result Minnesota got a pair, leading to the victory.

★ ★ ★

Then Minnesota manager Cal Ermer got into it with the umpires in protest over Sparma's delay in pitching after this rhubarb.

Ermer got into it again in the bottom of the 10th when Salerno called a bouncing ball foul at third on what looked like a sure double play ball hit by Willie Horton which would have ended the inning.

Instead, Horton was then walked intentionally to load the bases with one out but the Tigers couldn't muster the runs which would have won the game and put an end to the chaotic contest.

A cold shower didn't even get rid of irate red color on Mayo Smith's face after the game.

"You all saw that exhibition out there, I don't think I have to comment on it all," Smith said angrily to reporters in the dressing room.

One veteran baseball observer said, "It is almost an accepted fact that this is the poorest of all the crews of umpires in the American League."

★ ★ ★

Comprising this crew with Salerno and Haller are Jerry Neudecker and Larry Napp.

Napp, who started umpiring in the American League in 1951, is the veteran arbitrator of this crew and he is considered as one of the better and more moderately tempered among the league umpires.

Umpiring is no easy job in any league and no one can argue and win an honest judgment call, but the point of self-control something Salerno didn't exhibit Thursday night can and should be questioned.

Canadiens' Tremblay to Miss Part of Series

MONTREAL (UPI) — The Montreal Canadiens will be without the services of left-winger Gilles Tremblay in the first part of the National Hockey League Stanley Cup finals playoffs.

Tremblay has been hospitalized for a week for a mild concussion suffered in a semi-final game with the Chicago Black Hawks last Sunday.

SOARING SHORTSTOP — Detroit Tigers' shortstop Ray Oyler leaps in an effort to retain his balance after taking a rolling block from California's Bob Rodgers during third-inning action last night in Detroit. The play came when Oyler took a toss from first baseman Mickey Stanley to force Rodgers at second. Bobby Knoop started the play with a grounder to Stanley. Knoop was safe at first. Angels won, 6-5.

Horton's Clouts Wasted in 6-5 Loss to Angels

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Tigers got more hits than they have produced in their last 10 games, including a pair of homers by Willie Horton, but couldn't hit a fly ball at the right time and it cost them first place.

The Baltimore Orioles, who beat Washington 6-1, moved into first place, one-half game ahead of Detroit, which dropped a 6-5 decision to the California Angels. Detroit outhit the Angels 12 to 9.

"We didnt' get the fly balls at the right time," said Tigers' Manager Mayo Smith.

Detroit had men in scoring position twice when a sacrifice fly could have produced a run. Bill Freehan led off the second with a triple off California starter Clyde Wright and was left stranded. Detroit had men on second and third with one out in the ninth and Angels' reliever Sammy Ellis got Don Wert on a pop fly before loading the bases with an intentional walk to Jim Northrup.

WRONG TIME

Jim Price, batting for Daryl Patterson, flied out to end the game.

Ellis, who pitched six innings as a starter against Boston Thursday, picked up the save for winner Jack Hamilton, now 3-1.

"I figured to challenge Price with fastballs," said Ellis. "He hit one right down the pipe. There's no sense in finessing a guy coming in cold off the bench."

Ellis said California Manager Bill Rigney told him "we'll gamble" by giving Northrup an intentional pass to load the bases with two out in the ninth.

"It never occurred to me that I could force a run in with a walk until Northrup walked," said Ellis.

The Angels got to Detroit starter Mickey Lolich, 1-1, for two runs in the third. Chuck Hinton drove in one run with a bases-loaded single and the other scored when Don Wert dropped Bubba Morton's two-out liner at third base.

Lolich was knocked out in the sixth following run-scoring singles by Bob Rodgers and Bobby Knoop. The third run came in on Paul Schaal's sacrifice fly off reliver Pat Dobson. Schaal singled another run home in the eighth.

"Lolich's control was off," said Smith. "But we had our chances and missed them."

Horton drove in three Tiger runs with two homers, his third and fourth this season. Tom Matchick's pinch single drove in Northrup, who had reached first after striking out on a wild pitch by Minnie Rojas, to cut California's margin to 6-5 in the eighth.

The Tigers were to meet the Angels again today with Earl Wilson facing California's Jim McGlothlin.

TIGER HONORED — Detroit Tigers' outfielder Al Kaline receives a special award and a handshake by American League president Joe Cronin last night marking Kaline's 2,000th game in the AL. The ceremony preceded the Tigers-Angels game at Tiger Stadium in Detroit. Kaline is now fourth among all Tigers in games played: Ty Cobb 2,804; Charley Gehringer 2,322; and Sam Crawford 2,114.

Blues' Goalie Hall Sparkles in 2-1 Win

ST. LOUIS (AP) — It was St. Louis Blue goalie Glenn Hall's game. Blue's coach Scott Bowman said it, and Minnesota North Stars coach Wren Blair agreed.

Hall, the Blues' prize pick in the National Hockey League's expansion draft, stopped all but one of Minnesota's 45 shots. Minnesota's goalie Cesare Maniago, was almost his equal, but there were two shots he couldn't handle.

Those two shots, one with less than three minutes in regulation play and one with almost three minutes gone in the overtime gave the Blues a 2-1 overtime victory Friday night over the North Stars in the West Division finals.

And those two goals, plus Hall's standout performance, put the Blues in the Stanley Cup finals against the East Division champion, Montreal Canadians. The first game will be played Sunday and the second Tuesday, both at St. Louis.

"Hall had his game tonight," Bowman said. "I think it was his best of the series."

DEFLECTED SHOT

With just over three minutes left in regulation play, rookie Bill McKechnie scored a deflected shot that seemed to lock up the deciding game in the best-of-light seven series for the North Stars.

Then 31 seconds later, veteran Dickie Moore scored a dramatic goal that sent the contest into overtime.

Ron Schock scored the winning goal at 2:50 of the second overtime.

"At least I'll be able to sleep tonight," said Hall.

"I've never played on a team that scrambled more to win than this one. This team just seems to thrive and win under adverse conditions."

★ ★ ★

Blair couldn't shrug off his team's defeat. They had fought the Blues down to the wire and then some. But he had only praise for Hall and the Blues.

★ ★ ★

"I thought Hall had the best game of the series," Blair repeated. "We had some good chances and he frustrated us several times. I thought we out-played the Blues a fair amount of the time, but you have to give them credit. They fought hard."

Toronto Under Ullman's Skin

DETROIT (AP) — Veteran hockey player Norman Ullman said Friday he would seek medical advice next week to determine why he apparently is allergic to Toronto, where he plays for the Maple Leafs.

"I think it must be something in the air in Toronto . . . I have noticed it for eight or 10 years," said the big center, who was traded to the Leafs in March after nearly 13 years with the Detroit Red Wings.

"The Leafs have been great to me and so have the fans at Toronto," said the National Hockey League veteran.

"I never had trouble breathing in any other NHL city but I do have troubles in Toronto, both breathing and sleeping," Ullman said.

★ ★ ★

"Sometimes in practice, I would go up the ice once or twice and wind up wheezing or get sick to my stomach. I recall some nights when I had trouble sleeping and had to sit up to get a good deep breath."

HE'S BUGGED

Ullman, who is affiliated with a printing company in the off season, added, "This thing is really bugging me. I am going to Ann Arbor, Mich., next week to see an allergist, and then maybe I will have to go to Toronto and have it checked out there.

"If they cannot fix it, I certainly do not want to give up hockey, but if it cannot be fixed, I will ask the Maple Leafs to trade me . . . I am no good to them this way," he said.

Ullman scored 35 goals and 36 assists for 71 points in the NHL last season.

Wild Pitch Produces Victory for Cranbrook

Sluggers' One-Base Blows Spark Giants Past Cards

By the Associated Press

Curt Flood, who usually plays the part of a singles hitter for the St. Louis Cardinals, made his debut as a slugger Friday night.

But two of San Francisco's power hitters, the Messrs. Mays and McCovey, rang down the curtain on the act with a couple of most timely one-base hits.

★ ★ ★

The Cards led the Giants 4-2 in the ninth inning Friday night, thanks to two home runs by Flood, who hit only five all last season. Steve Carlton was having little trouble disposing of the Giant batters.

But Ollie Brown led off the ninth with a pinch single and, after Jack Hiatt struck out, Brown moved to second on Jesus Alou's infield single. Orlando Cepeda threw out Ron Hunt, the runners advancing, and the Cards were just one out from victory.

Enter Willie McCovey. The big Giant slugger delivered a slow grounder up the middle into center field and suddenly the game was tied.

STOLEN BASE

Now Willie is not exactly the fastest man in the world. Last year, for example, he stole just three bases. Imagine the Cards' surprise, therefore, when they looked up and found McCovey grinning at them from second.

Mays' turn. Carefully, the fabled slugger worked Carlton to a 3-2 count and then sent a single through the third-base side of the diamond, scoring McCovey.

★ ★ ★

In other National League games Friday night, Los Angeles edged Cincinnati 4-3, Houston beat Atlanta 5-3 and Philadelphia nudged Pittsburgh 3-2. The New York Mets and Chicago cubs were rained out.

The Giants' victory cut the Cardinal's league lead to 2½ games over the San Franciscans. Juan Marichal, who went the distance, ran his record to 4-1. Carlton is now 2-1. Mike Shannon also homered for St. Louis.

Luis Alcaraz' tie-breaking single capped a three-run Dodger rally in the sixth before 50,506 Bat Night fans in Dodger Stadium. The reds missed a chance to tie in the eighth when, with none out, Alex Johnson left third too soon on Vada Pinson's fly to right and the Dodgers appealed.

Jim Wynn and Rusty Staub hit consecutive homers for the Astros in the third inning after Felipe Alou's mental error opened the gates to a four-run inning. Alou mistakenly thought he had caught the third out in center and by the time he discovered it was only the second, two runs had scored.

Mike Ryan's single in the ninth drove in the winning run for the Phillies after Rich Allen and John Briggs singled and Bill White walked, all with two out.

Calumet Stables Seeking to End Drought in Derby

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Calumet Farm sent Forward Pass against 13 other prime 3-year-olds today in a bid to win its first Kentucky Derby in 10 years.

In fact, it was the first Derby for Calumet since Tim Tam won in 1958.

★ ★ ★

Favored Forward Pass went into the race with four stakes victories this year, including the Florida Derby and the Blue Grass.

Post time was 4:38 p.m., EDT. CBS carried the 94th running of the Derby on national television from 4-5 p.m. and on radio from 4:20-4:50.

Although it was the 94th Derby, as always there was nothing old hat about it.

For instance, it was a new and unforgettable experience for 11 owners, eight trainers and four jockeys.

And, in a way—as only the Kentucky Derby can be — it was a new experience for those who have been involved in past derbies.

SEVERAL FIRSTS

The Derby not only provided first for individuals, there were also firsts for the race and for Churchill Downs.

Five gray colts were entered — Peter Fuller's Dancer's Image, C. V. Whitney's Gleaming Sword, Peter Kissel's Iron Ruler, Charles Engelhard's Jig Time and Mrs. Montgomery Fisher's Proper Proof.

The most grays in any previous Derby was two, and only two have ever won —Determine in 1954 and decidedly in 1962.

The track management came up with a first long before the race. The board of directors voted last winter to ban bringing alcoholic beverages onto the grounds. The move was a bid to curb rowdiness in the infield.

However, those who wished to celebrate or drown their bad luck were able to purchase drinks on the ground.

Orioles Win Fifth Straight

Chisox Miscues Help Yankees

By The Associated Press

Oops. The dropsy syndrome caught up with Tom McCraw and Jerry Stephenson but good.

McCraw, Chicago's smooth fielding first baseman, caught the disease worse than Stephenson, the young Boston pitcher, but both were stricken.

McCraw suffered through a nightmarish three-error third inning that set up three unearned runs for New York and helped the Yankees to a 3-2 victory over the White Sox Friday night.

Stephenson spent a good part of the second inning of Boston's game against Oakland on his knees, creeping around the mound searching for a contact lens. He never did locate it but the Athletics found him, all right. They battered Stephenson and four successors for 15 hits and a 7-2 romp over the Red Sox.

In other American League games, Cleveland shut out Minnesota 4-0, and Baltimore downed Washington. McCraw had contributed a double to a two-run White Sox rally that staked Joe Horlen to an early lead. Then came the fateful third inning.

FIRST MISCUE

Gene Michael opened with a grounder to first which McCraw fumbled. Error No. 1. Winning pitcher Bill Monbouquette sacrificed and Michael advanced to third on Horace Clarke's hit.

Roy White bounced to McCraw, who lost the ball as he started to throw it home. Error No. 2. Then he recovered it and flipped to first base when no one was covering. Error No. 3. Michael scored on the play, Clarke went to third and White to second. And McCraw had tied a record for errors by a first baseman in one inning.

Mickey Mantle was intentionally walked and Andy Kosco's single delivered two runs, enabling the Yankees to take the lead.

Stephenson fell to his knees after delivering a pitch to Rick Monday in the second inning against Oakland. Soon he was joined by other players and the umpires, looking for the lost contact lens. At one point, equipment man Don Fitzpatrick pitched in with a flashlight.

But nothing helped in the search for the lens or the battle to beat the A's. Catfish Hunter pitched a five-hitter and Reggie Jackson and Hunter smacked three hits apiece, leading Oakland's attack. Ken Harrelson's two-run homer in the ninth spoiled Hunter's bid for a shutout.

Luis Tiant hurled his second straight shutout—blanking the powerful Twins on just three hits. He struck out nine.

Curt Blefary socked a threerun homer and Mark Belanger had a bases empty shot helping Baltimore past Washington. It was the fifth straight victory for the Orioles.

Cranbrook Wins Third Straight CMU Relays Title

TUMBLING CATCH — Third baseman Sal Bando of the Oakland Athletics clutches the ball for an out despite this somersault triggered by a collision with shortstop Camp Campaneris while the two were chasing a pop fly off the bat of Boston pinch hitter Jose Tartabull in the fifth inning of their game in Boston last night. A's won, 7-2.

Phillie Manager Told:

'Wasting Your Time'

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Gene Mauch was in his oifce at Connie Mack Stadium Friday when the telephone rang. It was Warren Giles, president of the National League on the phone.

In effect, Mauch told the league president: "Funny you should call, Mr. Giles. I was just writing you a letter."

Giles told Mauch in so many words: "Tear it up, fellow. You're wasting your time."

Mauch, manager of the Philadelphia Phillies, was writing a protest of Thursday night's game between the Phils and New York Mets.

It all started in the last of the seventh inning at Shea Stadium when Phillies reliever John Boozer touched his lips while warming up. Umpire Ed Vargo shouted, "Ball one."

Boozer and Mauch charged the umpire. They told Vargo he couldn't invoke the new spitball rule on a warmup pitch.

★ ★ ★

Boozer touched his lips again and Vargo intoned, "Ball two." To make a long story short, Vargo called a third ball and then threw Boozer out of the game. Mauch also was given an early shower. Vargo was told the Phillies were playing the game under protest.

ENFORCED RULE

Mauch said Giles told him on the phone: "The umpires interpreted the rule to the broadest letter, perhaps too broad." He (Giles) said that while the umpires didn't exercise common sense, they enforced the rule the way it was written, Mauch said.

"He told me I was wasting my time writing a protest. So I tore it up."

Mauch said Giles told him he had instructed his umpires Friday that when a pitcher goes to his mouth during a warmup the rule doesn't apply, although the pitcher must dry his fingers before delivering a pitch to the batter.

The rule was invoked in the first inning of Friday night's Phillies-Pittsburgh game on a 3-2 count to the Phillies' Rich Allen. Pittsburgh pitcher Steve Blass put his hand to his mouth and umpire Bob Engle called ball four and awarded Allen a walk.

Hawks Sold; Squad Moving to Atlanta

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Ben Kerner is a man who knows his territory. He has been selling professional basketball for years and Friday he announced, "They just don't want our product here anymore."

★ ★ ★

With that, Kerner announced he had sold his National Basketball Association franchise to an Atlanta millionaire and a former Georgia governor. Next year, with the approval of the NBA board of governors, the St. Louis Hawks will be the Atlanta Hawks — provided the new owner like the name.

★ ★ ★

No sale price was disclosed.

Purchasing the club was Georgia real estate developer Thomas G. Cousins and former Gov. Carl E. Sanders. Cousins founded Cousins Properties Inc. in 1958 with capitalization of $3,000. Today, the firm lists assets in excess of $14 million. He says he bought the Hawks for Atlanta, not simply because he is a sport fan.

"The principal reason is that Atlanta deserves and needs pro basketball, as does the state, "Cousins explained." It looked as if the only way we could every do it was through an expansion team, but that route probably means 10 years of losing.

FAST MOVE

"This opportunity presented itself real quickly and Gov. Sanders and I decided we'd just buy the team and bring it to Atlanta."

Some of the Hawks players indicated they would have to do some thinking before accepting the move to Atlanta, although none said he would quit.

★ ★ ★

The Hawks moved to St. Louis from Milwaukee 13 years ago and almost immediately caught the fancy of St. Louis sports fans. In the first season the team finished second in the NBA's Western Division. The following year it won the first of five consecutive division titles.

In 1958, the Hawks won the NBA crown, beating Boston. During the past season St. Louis set a Western Division record of 56 wins against 26 losses, but lost in the first round of the playoffs against the San Francisco Warriors.

Spartans Down Indiana Twice

EAST LANSING (AP)—Michigan State evened its Big Ten baseball record at 2-2 by sweeping a doubleheader from Indiana by scores of 4-1 and 2-1 Friday.

Mel Behney fired a two-hitter in winning the first game. The Spartans wrapped it up in the third inning, scoring three times on Joe Gavel's bases loaded single and an Indiana error. Bruce Miller drove in the lone Hoosier run with a single in the first.

Dan Bielski, with relief help from Mickey Knight, won the nightcap. State scored twice in the third inning on a bases loaded fielder's choice on Steve Garvey's grounder and a passed ball.

PCH Thinclads Seek Class A Crown Today

Cranes Capture 'B' Championship; Win Two Events

MOUNT PLEASANT — Cranbrook captured its third straight Class B championship in the Central Michigan Relays here yesterday.

★ ★ ★

Pontiac Central's strong track team is seeking the Class A title today. The Chiefs won the CMU indoor invitational earlier this season. They are favored in the 29th annual outdoor event.

Cranbrook clinched its victory by winning the mile and distance medley relays.

The Cranes posted 43 points to 37½ for Bay City Glenn. Coloma finished third with 30 points, followed by Dowagiac 27⅓, Manistee 23, Detroit St. Anthony 18, Oxford 16, Vassar 13, Midland Bullock Creek 12 and Holt 10.

DOUBLE WINNER

Dick Reichenbach of Bay City Glenn was the only double winner, taking both the 180-yard low hurdles and the 120 highs. Jim Rogalski of Detroit St. Anthony was second in both races

Ron DeVries of Erie-Mason won the high jump with a record leap of six-feet, two inches in rainy, cold weather. The old mark of 6-1¾ was set in 1960 by Mike Baird of Alma and Walt Henry of Swartz Creek.

Unionville ran off with victories in three relays events in the cold rainy weather to sweep to its second straight victory in Class D.

★ ★ ★

Unionville runners sloshed to triumphs in the distance medley, 880 and 400 relays to seal its victory, scoring 58 points to 45 for runnerup Pickford.

★ ★ ★

Lake City finished third with 31 points, followed by Flint St. Matthew 28, Webberville 23, Pentwater and Brethren 18 each.

★ ★ ★

Gary Doan of Brethren turned in the best individual performance, winning the high jump, placing fourth in the 100-yard dash and tying for third in the pole vault.

Young College Pair Feels Net Pressure

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — Stan Smith and Bob Lutz, a pair of eager-beaver collegians, come to the biggest hour of their young tennis lives today with butterflies in their stomachs and glory on their minds.

★ ★ ★

In their first Davis Cup appearance, Smith, 21, and Lutz, 20, had the chance to score the victory-clinching point for the United States team in its first-round matches with the British Caribbean.

★ ★ ★

Both confessed to apprehension as they prepared to square off in doubles against Richard Russell and Lance Lumsden with the U.S. already in possession of a 2-0 lead.

★ ★ ★

The "other guys" were slam-bang hitters Arthur Ashe and Clark Graebner, who got the U.S. away to its rapid start Friday by giving Lumsden and Russell terriffic lacings in the two opening singles matches.

Nicklaus, Sikes Lead Golfers

Coleaders Card 134 in Houston Tourney

HOUSTON (AP) — Dan Sikes, the Jacksonville, Fla., golfing lawyer, believes autumn is the time to watch football, not play golf. And he's determined this fall to be watching passes, not making putts.

* * *

The 37-year-old pro tied Jack Nicklaus Friday for the second-round lead in the $100,000 Houston Champions International Golf Tournament.

* * *

Sikes fired a 33-35—68 to go with a first round 66 for a 36-hole total of 134. Nicklaus, one of golf's top money-winners, had a 69 to go with a an earlier 65. Their two-round total is eight under par.

MISSES CHANCE

Sikes, a lanky, slow-talking southerner, had a shot at a solo hold on the lead, but blew it on the final hole when his second shot found a bunker. He chipped to within four feet but missed the putt for a bogey.

* * *

Sikes is 12th among the season's money-winners with $34,014.

* * *

He said he likes to play in hot weather, starting with the Florida swing of the tour in the spring, but tries to make enough money to quit when the trees turn.

TEEING OFF

By FLETCHER SPEARS

A young golf assistant at Tam O'Shanter Country Club took his turn as a teacher yesterday and wound up getting a lesson.

Ed Brown III, who works under head pro Warren Orlick, took club member Jerry Rogers of Southfield out for a five-hole lesson and it turned out to be one of those pupil-teaches-teacher affairs.

Rogers proceeded to post a two-under-par score for those five holes, climaxing the brief stint on the course with a hole-in-one on the No. 8 hole, a difficult 238-yarder.

"It's the toughest on the course," said Brown. "It's only the second time for an ace on that hole."

Just before hitting his shot on the par-3 hole, Rogers turned and remarked to his caddy, "I feel a little nervous playing with Ed." He then cracked the 1-iron shot into the cup.

RULING/HUDDLE

A ruling on an obstruction forced a rules committee into a hasty huddle last year in the U.S.G.A. Junior Amateur. Recalling the situation at a Detroit Rotary Club luncheon earlier this week was Dr. Frank R. Lovell, president of the Golf Association of Michigan and a member of the U.S.G.A. Junior Championship Committee.

* * *

During the qualifying round, one of the players hit a shot beyond one of those portable outhouses. Relief of two club lengths because it was an obstruction didn't help.

He was stymied, so his playing partners grabbed hold of the bulky structure and carried it out of the way. After completing the round, the players informed the rules committee of the incident.

The committee scanned the rules book. There's nothing there on outhouses, as such, but committee members ruled that it was indeed an obstruction and that in the future, if the kids could carry it out of the way, that was okay with them.

Members of Oakland Hills Country Club will honor retired professional Al Watrous, who spent 38 years as head pro at the Birmingham course. Watrous, 69, was succeeded by Mike Souchak. The party for Watrous is strictly a club affair and is slated for Friday evening.

Cotton White, who plays in the Friday Night Classic at Pontiac Country Club, was kidding professional Gene Bone for bugging out on a golfing date they had last year.

* * *

"We had a date to play but Gene chickened out and went out to Denver to play in some dinky tournament," said White. Gene, head pro at Bay Pointe Golf Club, made the trip west to play in the National PGA.

News Briefs off the Wires

WASHINGTON (AP) — Leaders of the AFL-CIO Communications Workers of America were confident as voting continued today that striking telephone workers will accept the new contract offered by the Bell System and end a 17-day nationwide walkout. Joseph Beirne, CWA president, said wages and fringe benefits would rise nearly 20 per cent over three years under terms of the agreement. Voting on the offer began yesterday but results are not expected to be available until tomorrow.

Ike Reports Reduced

MARCH AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower's condition is so stable, five days after his third heart attack, that twice-daily hospital reports are being cut to one a day. A spokesman at the March Air Force Base Hospital said there had been no change in Eisenhower's recuperative state for 24 hours. "Due to his stable condition, there will be only one report daily," the spokesman said.

Yanks Pushing N. Viets

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. troops weary from five days of sharp fighting pushed through marshlands near the northeastern frontier today, trying to drive back more than 2,000 North Vietnamese threatening allied bases and supply lines. After repulsing one enemy counterattack near Dong Ha Thursday, the Americans beat back another one yesterday and reported killing 37 North Vietnamese. In six days of fighting around the Marine base, Gen. William C. Westmoreland's headquarters said allied forces have killed 750 enemy soldiers.

Students Hold Building

CHICAGO (AP) — Negro students protesting alleged racism at Northwestern University continues to hold the school's business office building today as a week marked by militant student activity at home and abroad came to a close. In Paris the Sorbonne — the University of Paris — was shuttered after students and police battled yesterday on the streets of the Latin Quarter with paving blocks and long clubs. Columbia University in New York City moved back toward normalcy as operations resumed on a small scale on the 11th day of a militant student protest.

Won't Block Rate Hike

WHASINGTON (UPI) — The Federal Communications Commission has no plans to interfere with scheduled rate increases Western Union Telegraph Co. will put into effect tomorrow, so long as the company lives up to its speed standards. The FCC said yesterday Western Union had made progress in improving its speed of transmission after a warning last June. For that reason, the agency said, it would not suspend or investigate a $2.7-million annual rate increase to go into effect tomorrow.

Bailey Ousted in Trial

PATERSON, N.J. (UPI) — F. Lee Bailey has been removed as a defense attorney in a double murder trial for what the judge termed "gross unethical conduct." The lawyer said he would appeal the decision. Bailey's ouster as defense attorney for wealthy publishing executive Harold Matzner, who was indicted for the 1966 murders of housewife Judith Kavanaugh and gambler Gabriel Defranco, stemmed from Bailey's demand last week for state and federal investigations of the prosecution's handling of the case.

Berrien Moves to DST

ST. JOSEPH (UPI) — Berrien County moved its clocks ahead one hour early this morning and stepped into line with the rest of Michigan on daylight savings time. Now empowered to give the test are Sgts. Herbert C. Cooley and Earl Skrobeck, who spent the week at Michigan State University for the 40-hour course.

★ ★ ★

Under the new Michigan "implied consent" law, a driver arrested for driving under the influence of intoxicating liquors automatically gives his consent for the Breathalyzer test unless he refuses, in which case his drivers licenses automatically may be revoked or suspended.

★ ★ ★

And an unidentified Negro male, about 40, was shot to death early today in an argument with the bouncer at a bar.

UNABLE TO PAY

Police said the man was unable to pay for his drink and, when the bouncer tried to eject him from the bar, he pulled a pistol and shot the bar employe, Earl Byas, 50, Detroit.

★ ★ ★

Byas pulled a pistol and fired several shots that struck the man in the chest, killing him. Byas was hospitalized in critical condition.

Mackinac Traffic Hits Record Level

ST. IGNACE (AP) — Traffic across the Mackinac Bridge reached record levels in April, Printiss M. Brown, Bridge authority chairman, said Friday.

★ ★ ★

Brown said 68,322 vehicles cross the bridge last month, an increase of nearly 17,000 vehicles over April 1967. The chairman attributed the increase to improved economic conditions and the fact that Easter was in April this year.

★ ★ ★

Bridge revenues last month totaled $309,147 with $856,882 collected during the first four months of this year, Brown said.

Forum Speakers Hit 'Open-Housing Myth'

Realtors and real estate agents in Pontiac help to perpetuate a housing market closed to Negroes, two speakers charged at a forum on racial aspects of housing problems last night.

★ ★ ★

The forum, conducted by the city's Human Relations Commission, was attended by 21 persons. The Rev. Jack H. C. Clark presided.

Donald Bauder, Oakland County director for the Michigan Civil Rights Commission, said the real estate business is part of a society which attempts to continue the "myth of open housing."

Bauder said there is no real open market for Negroes, and the white middle class society — instead of recognizing this failure — "uses euphemisms to justify" continuation of a closed market systems.

★ ★ ★

James Dyer of 668 Central, in a detailed statement to the commission, said in dealings with 18 realty firms he had been unsuccessful in obtaining housing he desired.

'COLLUSION' CITED

Dyer said there is collusion among some white and Negro real estate brokers to keep a system of closed occupancy in existence.

Bauder also stated proof exists that property values are not affected by racial change in a neighborhood, unless white residents panic and begin selling.

He said all studies show housing values are not only reestablished but, in most cases, rise above the market.

★ ★ ★

He said the majority of society tends to perpetuate a number of myths about Negroes in housing, including the idea that Negroes don't maintain their neighborhoods.

'INHERITED HOUSING'

Bauder said usually they have inherited the homes that other people have left.

He said this housing often is in a state of disrepair and advancing rapidly towards dilapidation well before Negroes move in.

Thief Takes Tray of Rings

A tray of men's rings valued at $1,000 or more was discovered stolen yesterday morning from a Pontiac jeweler, it was reported to city police.

A spokesman for Shaw's Jewelry Store, 24 N. Saginaw, told officers the tray apparently was taken from a showcase during store hours late Thursday.

★ ★ ★

Investigators said the thief probably entered the store, waited until employes were busy, then grabbed the tray and escaped unobserved.

Republicans Say LBJ Blast May Have Killed Tax Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — Top House Republicans say President Johnson dealt a crippling —perhaps fatal—blow to his tax bill by accusing some Congress members of trying to blackmail him into accepting deep spending cuts as the price for passage.

★ ★ ★

"Republicans are dismayed that the President is apparently unwilling to agree to a responsible compromise," said House GOP Leader Gerald R. Ford.

"Most unfortunate," said Rep. Frank T. Bow, R-Ohio, of Johnson's remarks. Bow is a leader in the House economy forces.

★ ★ ★

And as the long feud on taxes between the President and Congress reached a new height of animosity, a top administration official said privately that prospects are more remote than ever that Johnson will win enactment of his 10 per cent income-tax surcharge or any other form of tax hike.

★ ★ ★

In Congress, a high-ranking member on the Democratic side theorized that Johnson, anticipating defeat on the tax issue, decided to make clear to the nation he is blaming the Republicans.

Rep. John R. Byrnes, ranking Republican on the powerful Ways and Means Committee, said Johnson "killed the chances for a tax bill" with his remarks during a nationally televised and broadcast news conference Friday.

Woman, Hit by Car, Is Still Listed Critical

An Avon Township woman, struck by a car while walking near her home late Thursday, remains in critical condition in Crittenton Hospital.

Hospital officials said Mrs. Jack Pankey, 37, of 313 Avon, has received numerous transfusions of blood rushed from hospitals in Pontiac, Detroit and Macomb County since the accident on Avon Road just east of Rochester Road.

Oakland County sheriff's deputies, who transported the emergency blood supplies, said Mrs. Pankey was apparentiy walking in the roadway about 10 p.m. when hit by a car driven by Mrs. Boone Pace, 39, of 1581 Gravelridge, Avon Township.

Mrs. Pace told deputies that she did not see anyone, but stopped her vehicle after hearing a thud.

★ ★ ★

Investigators said Mrs. Pankey was wearing dark clothing when the mishap occurred.

2 Incumbents Seek School Board Jobs

Oakland Schools Board of Education's two incumbents are running for reelection. Deadline for filing nominating petitions was yesterday.

In addition to previously announced candidate President Raoul A. Ambrose of Oxford, Trustee Fred W. Smith of Royal Oak decided to run for the six-year term.

★ ★ ★

Smith, once a member of the County Board of Supervisors for 28 years, has been on the Oakland Schools board since 1957.

Representatives from the county school districts will elect two board members June 3.

Dancer Can't Be Topped as Campaigner

STANFORD, Calif. (UPI) — Vicky Drake's all-out campaign to be student body president at Stanford got down to the essentials yesterday. She campaigned topless before 450 men at a campus dining hall.

The reaction, said the topless dancer was "overwhelming. Some of them pledged to vote for me three times."

★ ★ ★

Vicky, 21, has completed three years of study in Spanish but is not now a student. If elected, she will reenroll next fall to serve her term. In the meantime, she dances topless in a spot called the Body Shop.

The purpose of her campaign, she says, is to show that "The office is a farce and student government is absurd."

In 1966, he served as chairman of the Jackson County Republican fall convention.

★ ★ ★

A graduate of Phillips Academy, Andover, Mass., Kendall attended Princeton and American University in Washington, D.C. He was employed by the Republican National Committee in research and fund-raising during 1963 and 1964.

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio (AP) — Among the items to come up at a Portsmouth City Council meeting was emergency repairs to a viaduct necessitated by deterioration of some of the concrete.

★ ★ ★

Councilman Al Ray commented, "I thought concrete got better as it got older.

★ ★ ★

"That only applies to bourbon," replied Councilman Don Kinker.

★ ★ ★

To that Ray retorted, "Maybe they should have paved the viaduct with bourbon."

Library Gets Small Return

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — A week of amnesty has ended for patrons with overdue books from the Las Vegas library. But the offer to forget and forgive produced only 15 books.

Librarian Mildrid Hoen said the oldest was checked out in 1965.

★ ★ ★

"We didn't get back nearly what we expected," she said Friday.

Recent surveys of teen-agers indicate that girls are smoking more and boys less in the past few years. Children also are more likely to smoke if older people in their families do.

It's Not As Easy As They Say

IT'S TOO MUCH HARD WORK

Believe me I've tried this "Do-It-Yourself" rug cleaning and it's real work . . . and I didn't get the results they claimed. I learned my lesson and now have my rugs cleaned by New Way Rug and Carpet Cleaners, real professionals in the field of carpet care.

Reflections

TO SERVE YOU BEST

Many people who visit our selection room for the first time are surprised to see clothing.

Under normal conditions the clothing used in life by the deceased is selected, however, in many cases where there has been a lingering illness these clothes are unsuitable due to loss of weight.

At the loss of a loved one there are so many decisions that must be made that we have clothing available to prevent unnecessary shopping.

Fred Karpin points out in "Winning Play in Tournament and Rubber Bridge" that part of good deceptive play is to create an illusion for your adversaries.

JACOBY

Today's hand is from the 1948 Masters Individual championship and shows how South created an illusion which saved him from a hazardous guess.

South's two diamonds was a slight overbid and we don't approve at all of his four no-trump call. We just don't bid four no-trump with a worthless doubleton in our hand unless our partner has bid that suit. However, there was nothing wrong with the final contract.

The play started out automatically. South took dummy's ace of hearts and cashed his ace and king and king of trumps. Then he led his four top clubs and discarded dummy's three of hearts on the fourth club.

Then he paused for a moment before leading out his deuce of spades. This pause gave West a good chance to count the hand. South had shown four clubs and the diamond play indicated six diamonds, so South had started with 6-4-2-1 distribution.

Had it included two spades and one heart or two hearts and one spade? If it had included two hearts, it behooved West to take his ace of spades and save the overtrick.

South would just be trying to sneak that spade through. Had it included two spades and one heart, South would be delighted to see the ace of spades appear and save the guess.

In rubber bridge West would duck quickly. He wouldn't mind the overtrick. But this was match point duplicate.

Furthermore South had played the hand just as if he had started with two hearts. West went right up with his ace of spades and South had eliminated his spade guess.

Q—The bidding has been:

West	North	East	South
	1 ♠	Dble	Rdble
2 ♣	2 ♠	Pass	?

You, South, hold:

♠A8764 ♥A10532 ♦54 ♣3

What do you do?

A—Bid four spades. Your partner's two spade bid has shown a minimum type hand with a decent suit. You want to be in game but have no slam interest.

TODAY'S QUESTION

The bidding has gone the same way except that East raised his partner to three clubs before you bid four spades. Now East bids five clubs. What do you do?

New Spirit Is Pervading Long-Suffering Czechs

WASHINGTON — Behind the liberal revolt that has ousted the highest and most rigid Communist leaders of Czechoslovakia lies a unique combination of historic, economic, and ethnic factors.

These factors take on human shape and significance in a National Geographic article describing this busy, scenic country in the heart of Eruope.

Written by assistant editor Edward Linehan, the story appeared recently — at the height of the revolution that is now reported to be bringing a new spirit of freedom to a people who have suffered much and long.

"Since Slavic tribes first pushed down from the north . . . their descendants have sought elusive nationhood," says Mr. Linehan. "Waves of fierce Avars and Magyars, Tatars and Turks spilled rivers of blood upon these lands; before them Roman legionaries skirmished here."

At this strategic spot, a Slavic empire once flourished — and died. From the tenth century, Slovaks chafed for a thousand years under Hungarian rule. The Czechs enjoyed their own kingdom, Bohemia, for a few centuries; then fell to the Austrian Habsburgs for 300 years. For "a grand and fleeting moment" the combined Czechoslovak Republic emerged between the two World Wars. Then came Hitler's Nazis, and after the last Germanic wave receded, the Communists gained control in 1948.

TALK HOPEFUL

How effective and lasting will be the present shift from authoritarian rule to more democratic ways remains to be seen. Wherever he went, however, Linehan heard hopeful talk of "new economic reform."

In Prague, the youthful director of the Institute of Economic Affairs spoke of plans to limit central control and give local management more scope; to encourage competition among factories, and close unprofitable ones. He warned, however, that reform did not mean return to capitalism. Enterprises are owned by the state and would remain so.

Traveling 4,000 miles through the three major regions of Bohemia, Moravia, and Slovakia, the writer found considerable evidence that the country (about the size of New York State) continues its long tradition as a "little industrial giant."

★ ★ ★

Coal and ore pour from mines, and from factories come impressive quantities of steel, machinery, arms, chemicals, glass, textiles, sugar, beer, and shoes. Among the many new plants built since World War II is the East Slovakian Iron and Steel Works in Kosice. The country's most modern steel mill, it is expected to become its largest.

NATION EATS WELL

Slovakia, once considered a "poor country cousin" compared to the more developed western regions, is eating well these days. At the Kosice steel works Linehan saw laborers consume huge bowls of soup, goulash, and dumplings — at 9:30 a.m. No, it wasn't an early lunch, he was told, "just a midmorning snack, something like your coffee break."

Today's four million Slovaks also share the nation's tourist boom, based on liberal exchange, historic sites, and scenery ranging from the hills and forests of Bohemia and Moravia to the High Tatras of Slovakia.

"How do Slovaks differ from Czechs?" Linehan once asked. "Czechs are very clever, more rational," answered his Slovakian guide. "Slovaks have softer hearts . . . Czechs may have more automobiles, but we have more fun out of life."

Wives of Wounded May Get Fare Cut

HONOLULU (AP) — Wives of wounded servicemen may soon fly to Honolulu from the mainland for $35 less than at present.

The Military Bureau of the Air Transport Command has asked the Civil Aeronautics Board for the discount.

The discount is available for family members of servicemen coming here from Vietnam on rest and recuperation leave.

A wounded helicopter pilot at Tripler Army hospital here complained recently that his wife couldn't get a discount because he was wounded seven days before he was due in Honolulu on leave.

Smithy Tradition Is Kept Alive

CHESTER, Vt. (AP) — Robert Hudson, whose forebears have been blacksmiths for generations, and his two sons are still in the trade, each with a shop in a different New England state.

Not only do the three Hudsons work as smithies, but all have the same registration plates on their cars operating in three states, "SHOER": Robert er. in states, "SHOER": Robert Sr. in Massachusetts and Roy in New Hampshire.

Diggings Sites to Be Guarded

By Science Service

European countries are taking steps to stop the plunder of archeological sites.

The Council of Europe in Strasbourg has drawn up a 20-nation scheme whereby national authorities would monitor excavation sites to ensure that work is carried out only by qualified people. Finds will be checked and protected and the countries will encourage traveling public exhibitions.

Land Change Alters Flow

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (UPI) —Changing the land-use pattern between forests and open land can influence the time needed to produce a given amount of water from streams, according to a Penn State professor.

★ ★ ★

Dr. William Sopper, associate professor of watershed management at Penn State, said a 15-year survey of 134 watersheds in the northeastern states indicates runoff is generally more available in the southern urbanized areas at times of the year such as summer when it is needed.

★ ★ ★

Sopper said this occurs because stream-flow from agricultural lands runs off more slowly in the spring than stream-flow from forested lands.

Big Beer Drinker

PARIS (UPI)—Claude Camard is the biggest beer drinker in Paris in more ways than one. Camard, a 21-year-old tapestry maker, who weighs in at 231 pounds, downed seven pints of beer in 10 minutes to take the title.

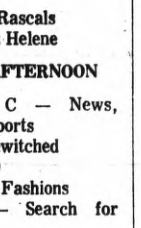
Impersonator Sees Cohan as Having Dual Personality

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — "People think of George M. Cohan as having had gargantuan charm," Joel Grey said, "but the fact is that when he wasn't on stage, the man was very driven and bitter and cranky and feisty . . ."

We were at L'Etoile the other midnight and the just-turned-36 Joel was describing the problems he's had making Cohan "more lovable" in "George M!"



WILSON

"I have compassion for the man," Joel said, "for he was tilting at windmills.

"He put all his faith in Show Business and let his personal relations go by the wayside, and when it turned its back on him, he died a very embittered, tragic man."

The true personality of Cohan, the hoofer, the song-and-dance man who so personified Broadway that there's a statue of him in Times Square, the only actor so honored, is much debated these days. Joel Grey knew of Cohan only from the Jimmy Cagney movie, "Yankee Doodle Dandy," and decided to erase that from his mind and learn all he could about him from Cohan's autobiography and from the late Ward Morehouse's biography.

THE WEEKEND WINDUP . . .

Fredric March requested black beans with his steak at Kippy's, so managing director Allan J. Ehrlich sent to a Spanish restaurant nearby for a plateful . . . The Childs restaurants get a fat plug in "Odd Couple"—it shows their billboard . . . Ray Bolger'll make his first Catskill appearance July 4, at the Concord . . . Movies Are Better Than Ever?: In "Hammerhead," Vince Edwards and Judy Geeson have a love scene in a coffin, and "A Stranger in Town" boosted business in one city with an ad calling it "the first perverted western."

Chicago Bears footballer Gale Sayers said at Gallagher's 33 he turned down a western film role—too busy learning the brokerage business here . . . Secret Stuff: A fading entertainer who announced her impending marriage did it for publicity — she didn't fill out the license.

Christopher Plummer, in "Look Up Your Daughters," may start a fad—beauty marks for men . . . Al Hirt discontinued flying lessons at the urgent request of his wife and eight children . . . Ellie Greenwich's new album is modestly titled: "Ellie Greenwich Composes, Produces and Sings."

EARL'S PEARLS: Page Morton claims that Dean Martin's the most relaxed singer on TV: "He never spills a word."

Author Mickey Spillane read in a gossip column for the third time that he'd been beaten up in a street fight, and wrote to the editor: "I don't mind you having me in fights—but at least let me win one!" That's earl, brother.

Radio Personality Dies at Hospital

BENTON HARBOR (AP) — Mary Alice Gerhard, the familiar radio voice of the Blossomsometime Festival, died Thursday at St. Joseph Memorial Hospital after a three-month illness. Miss Gerhard was a radio personality with station WHFB in Benton Harbor and broadcast the Blossomtime queen contest and other festival events the past 15 years. She joined the WHFB staff in 1951 and was women's editor and traffic director.

Drive to Raise 10 Tons of Food for Appalachia

BAY CITY (AP) — A project originating in St. James High School in Bay City is expected to raise at least 10 tons of food for people in the Appalachia section of Kentucky.

★ ★ ★

The idea grew out of a discussion among teachers last Thursday. Since then the teachers, both lay and religious, and the school's 420 students have been canvassing neighborhoods, business and professional firms in the county to get contributions. Farmers in Munger have contributed 1,200 pounds of potatoes. Most of the remaining contributions are in the form of canned goods.

★ ★ ★

The Glenmary Missionaries of Cincinnati, aided by two Kentucky agencies, will distribute the food in six counties in the vicinity of Bowling Green.

There are some 39 million overweight Americans.

UAW Opens Confab, May Cut Off AFL-CIO Dues

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (UPI) — Oragnized labor's solid front began to come apart today as the United Auto Workers union opened its national convention with the threat to sever one of the last remaining ties with the parent AFL-CIO—the payment of $1.2 million annually in dues.

★ ★ ★

Top UAW officials have approved the move that would bring to a head the long dispute between UAW President Walter P. Reuther and AFL-CIO President George Meany over the direction the AFL-CIO should take in domestic and foreign affairs.

A UAW spokesman said the convention delegates would vote on the move to withhold seven cents per member per month to the parent organization and put the money into a special fund that would be used later by the UAW or paid to the AFL-CIO should the two groups come to some sort of settlement.

The AFL-CIO constitution calls for an affiliated union to be expelled from the parent labor organization if it falls more than three months behind in its dues, but no indication of what action the AFL-CIO might take was known.

About 50 delegates from the Pontiac area are attending the convention.

ELECTED LAST MONTH

Slates were elected last month to represent locals at Pontiac Motor Division, General Motors Truck and Coach and the Fisher Body plant. Leading the area group is Ken Morris, regional director, and Harold Julian, subregional director.

The 1.5-million-member UAW plans to take no action on endorsing any candidate for the presidency until after the national conventions this summer. But the convention is willing to listen to the contenders.

Vice President Hubert Humphrey and Sen Robert F. Kennedy will address the delegates and President Johnson has been invited to appear. There was no word from the White House on whether the President would make an appearance.

★ ★ ★

Sen. Eugene McCarthy and former Vice President Richard M. Nixon have indicated they will be unable to attend and there was no immediate answer on an invitation to New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

84 Are Killed as Airliner Explodes, Crashes in Texas

DAWSON, Tex. (AP) — Eighty-four persons died in a Braniff International Electra that exploded and plunged to earth in blazing pieces yesterday as the crew bucked thunderstorms.

Chunks of wreckage and bits of bodies fell over an old farm—uninhabited and grown over by grass and brush-two miles east of this little central Texas town.

The high school gymnasium became a morgue as Dawson's 700 townspeople, engulfed by tragedy and joined by citizens of neighboring cities, turned to the task of finding and bringing in the bodies.

There were no survivors.

A special FBI team was flown in to help identify the bodies. The National Guard was summoned to control traffic and sightseers.

BEHIND SCHEDULE

The brightly painted, four-engine turboprop airliner, Flight 352, decorated in Braniff's Aztec Mexican motif, rolled to its takeoff from Houston at 4:11 p.m.—11 minutes behind schedule.

Three minutes after takeoff, at 4:14 p.m., one of the flight deck crew—Capt. J. R. Phillips, First Officier John W. Foster and Second Officer D. W. Crossland — estimated in a radio report that the flight's estimated arrival time was 5:03 p.m., only five minutes behind schedule.

That was the last word as the Electra headed into the turbulence between Houston and Dallas. Flight controllers said they had no further conversation with the plane.

The first indication of trouble to them came when the controller at Fort Worth's Great Southwest International Airport said at 4:51 p.m. that Flight 352 had vanished from his radar scope.

When the flight vanished from radar view, it flashed into the view of people in and near Dawson.

Dean Montgomery of Corsicana, a private pilot and operator of an electrical shop, said he saw a large explosion rip the plane. Then, he said, there were two smaller explosions, and the craft plummeted downward in two burning sections.

CRASH AFTERMATH—Townspeople from Dawson, Tex., carry a body from the wreckage of a Braniff airliner which crashed yesterday in central Texas killing all 84 aboard. The plane exploded and plunged to earth during a thunderstorm.

Officials Hopeful of Voter Approval

Waterford School Tax 'a Must'

By HUDSON WILLSE JR.

Waterford Township school officials hope their first try to renew the district's current 15-mill taxing authority for operation will prove successful in Monday's election.

The proposed renewal is for a 15-year period from 1969 through 1983.

If voters fail to renew the 15 mills ($15 per $1,000 of state equalized valuation) before Sept. 1, 1969, the district is in real trouble, school officials contend.

The district can levy the 15 mills again this coming December, but needs the approval of voters to assess the tax next year.

"Certainly it's got to continue if Waterford is to remain a school district at all," said Supt. of Schools Dr. Don O. Tatroe.

'CAN'T AFFORD EXPIRATION'

"It does not solve the financial conditions of the district. But it would go a long way toward giving the district a solid financial foundation," Tatroe emphasized.

"The community cannot afford to permit this tax to expire."

About 35 per cent of the district's total operating budget is derived from local tax sources. The 15 mills up for renewal represent a substantial portion of the district's present 23.6-mill local operating tax.

The remaining operating millage is allocated by the Oakland County Tax Allocation Board. Another 8 mills are levied locally for debt retirement.

BILL TO HELP DISTRICT

The new school-aid bill, signed into law this week by Gov. Romney, will help the district somewhat in 1968-69.

District school officials had estimated an increase of $270,000 in state aid next year or an additional $15 per student.

Four Face U.S. Charges in Detroit Riot Follow-Up

DETROIT (AP) — Three white policemen and a Negro watchman have been charged with conspiring to violate the civil rights of 10 persons in a motel in Detroit during the riot last July. Two of the 10 were slain at the motel.

The federal indictment says policemen Ronald W. August, Robert N. Paille and David Senak, along with Melvin Dismukes, 25, the watchman, detained two young white women and eight young Negro men last July 25 in the motel. The two slain were Negro teen-agers.

"The defendants would assault, threaten and intimidate the assorted victims to punish them and coerce them into making statements regarding the identity of alleged snipers and the location of firearms," the indictment said.

The four will be arraigned next week, U.S. Atty. Lawrence Gubow said, but no date has been set. Conviction on the charge carries a maximum penalty of 10 years in prison and a $5,000 fine.

August, 29, is scheduled to go on trial June 5 in Detroit Recorder's Court on a first-degree murder charge filed by Wayne County Prosecutor William Cahalan.

The charge was filed in the shotgun slaying of Aubrey Pollard, 19, who was found dead at the motel July 26. If August, a four-year Detroit police veteran, is convicted, Michigan law requires that he be given a sentence of life in prison.

Cahalan also charged Paille, 33, a Detroit policeman for two years, with murder in the fatal shooting of Fred Temple, 18, at the motel.

★ ★ ★

A Recorder's Court judge dismissed the charge, but it was reinstated when Cahalan appealed, and Paille's attorneys now are appealing the reinstatement. The murder charges were filed nine months ago and August and Paille have been free on bonds of $5,000 each since then.

Witness Found to Bold Robbery

Pontiac police and Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) agents said today they have scored a major breakthrough by contacting an alleged eyewitness to the $50,000 robbery Tuesday of two GMTC Credit Union employes.

★ ★ ★

Capt. Charles Gale, chief of city detectives, said the witness told officers he saw the holdup while on his way out of the credit union building.

The robbery took place in an adjacent parking lot as the employes returned from the nearby Community National Bank branch with the money in a canvas bag.

Gale said the witness reported seeing a lone gunman take the bag from the employes and then escaped in a waiting car driven by an accomplice.

★ ★ ★

He described the car as a light green 1965 or 1966 Tempest.

The holdup took place about 11 a.m. when the gunman approached employes Richard Eldred and Louis Giddings and ordered them to hand over the money.

★ ★ ★

The bandit had apparently waited at a bus stop in front of the credit union at 939 Woodward until the employes made their return trip from the bank with money intended for the cashing of payroll checks.

3 Heart Recipients Watched

By The Associated Press

Laymen and surgeons alike today watched closely the progress of three men — two in the United States and one in London — who received heart transplants within about 24 hours.

The London operation, completed last night, was the world's 10th heart transplant.

At London's National Heart Hospital, 45-year-old Frederick West was reported "fit" and in "entirely satisfactory condition."

In Houston, Tex., pleasure, accompanied by a note of caution, was expressed at the outcome of the transplant on Everett Claire Thomas, 47.

At Stanford, Calif., where late Thursday 40-year-old Joseph Rizor received the heart of an older but athletic man, the patient's condition was announced as fair — with a wait-and-see attitude.

The London heart doner was named by London newspapers as Patrick Ryan, 26, who died of brain damage suffered in a fall from a scaffold.

Thomas, of Phoenix, Arix., was operated on yesterday by Dr. Denton A. Cooley, head of a 20-person team at St. Luke's Episcopal Hospital in Houston.

Cooley said later of Thomas, whose heart was damaged by rheumatic fever: "I don't want to be overly optimistic. Keep in mind he was a very sick man before undergoing this major surgery."

★ ★ ★

Airport Land Deals Halted

By JEAN SAILE

"We're not buying any more land out there until the Federal Aviation Administration approves the master plan for Oakland-Orion Airport."

Daniel T. Murphy, chairman of the Oakland County Board of Auditors, reviewed the situation in Orion and Pontiac Townships, where last Dec. 19 the County Board of Supervisors voted to spend $284,336 on the acquisiton of four land parcels.

The purchase of four separate scattered properties, Murphy feels, established a land value for use in the future if other land in the master plan area is to be purchased.

He said an agent was used to make the purchases, and Oakland County was not identified as the buyer.

★ ★ ★

Murphy said the airport master plan involves a total of 2,000 acres. Prior to December, the county owned 440 acres including the Allen Airport and the purchase last December added another 164.

TRANSACTIONS LISTED

Kenneth Van Natta, director of county parks and recreation who acted as land purchaser, described the transactions:

- 76.82 acres at the southwest corner of Brown and Giddings roads, purchased for $675 an acre from J. J. Jaburek, 774 Ledyard, Pontiac.
- Another 41 acres between M24 and Giddings, south of Brown, purchased at $1,073 an acre from Thomas McDonald, 9200 W. Fort, Detroit.
- Two parcels, zoned industrial and fronting on M24 in Orion Township, north of Brown, at $4,030 an acre.

Edward Turner, 325 Lexington, Royal Oak, and Dr. Raymond Suwinski, 90 Shorecrest, Grosse Pointe, were recorded as previous owners of the parcels, one 21.55 acres and the other 25.19 acres.

★ ★ ★

Quizzed by local residents about the high cost of the latter two land purchases, Murphy and VanNatta both said they had relied on the advice of John D. Millis, 43½ N. Saginaw, Pontiac, a private realtor and appraiser.

★ ★ ★

A letter from Millis to Murphy shows that the appraiser recommended a purchase price of $3,750 per acre for the land in question, but noted it was "zoned industrial and option price is in the $4,000 per acre range, including acquisition costs."

He continued, "Four parcels of industrial land in the immediate area have been recently sold for the following prices per acre: $3,000, $2,300, $1,770 and $1,397.

School Census Takers Busy

School census takers, who will be knocking on doors from now until the end of the month, are required for the first time to record the number of people over 19 years of age in each family.

Each year at this time the State Department of Education requires that every school district conduct the surveys.

★ ★ ★

In addition to the new item, information will be collected about children up to age 19 and about persons having teaching certificates but not currently teaching.

The census takers carry identification cards and are employes of individual school districts.

U.S. Expected to Press for Red Military Cutback

WASHINGTON (AP) — Officials expect the first U.S. move in Paris peace talks with North Vietnam will be to press for a cutback in Communist military activities in Southeast Asia.

They say this would clear the way for a total halt in U.S. bombing of the North.

The talks are due to open May 10 under an agreement reached yesterday by Washington and Hanoi through their embassies in Vientiane, Laos, ending almost five weeks of diplomatic sparring on a site.

Paris represents a compromise which, diplomats say, both Washington and Hanoi foresaw many days ago. Each side has shown itself prepared for hard bargaining, which means prolonged and often bitter negotiating in the months ahead.

★ ★ ★

North Vietnam said it wants talks "to decide with the U.S. side the unconditional cessation by the United States of its bombing and all other acts of war" against the North.

OTHER MATTERS

Other matters will be discussed when that issue is decided, the Hanoi statement said.

President Johnson imposed a partial bombing ban on U.S. planes operating over North Vietnam effective March 31. He limited their operations to the so-called panhandle area south of the 20th Parallel and called on North Vietnam for some similar show of military restraint.

Top administration officials agree that infiltration of men and supplies from North Vietnam into the South has been at peak levels since early March.

Some officials — and intelligence reports from Saigon — say the increase which began in early March has continued to grow since Johnson's March 31 limitation order.

Kidnap Suspect Mute to Second Set of Charges

Twice charged with kidnaping and raping Pontiac women, Laurence S. Moore of Pontiac stood mute to the second charges when he was arraigned yesterday before Waterford Township Justice of the Peace Kenneth H. Hempstead.

Moore, 24, of 499 W. Huron, is accused of abducting both women from the parking lot at the Pontiac Mall Shopping Center in Waterford Township.

He was returned to the Oakland County Jail, where he has been held in lieu of $50,000 since early Wednesday.

He was arrested Tuesday in Genesee County following the kidnaping and rape of Mrs. Norman Kinnison, 19, of 435½ University, last Monday.

Hempstead set bond in the second case at $10,000.

Moore's preliminary hearing on the Kinnison case is scheduled for next Friday, while the other hearing will be held May 14 at 2 p.m.

The Oakland County Prosecutor's Office ordered the second charges against Moore after a 21-year-old woman identified him as the man who had attacked her March 15.

8 Die in Two Crashes; Weekend Toll Hits 12

By United Press International

Four persons were killed before dawn today in a head-on crash on I-94 near Paw Paw.

It was the second four-fatality accident of a weekend that has left 12 dead in traffic in Michigan.

Three of the victims in the Paw Paw crash were in a car headed the wrong way on the expressway. The fourth was in a second car.

The crash at Paw Paw followed by a few hours an accident that killed four teen-agers near Three Rivers when their car sideswiped a tree and plunged over an embankment.

Candidates View Peace Hopes

Nixon: Give LBJ a Chance

By The Associated Press

Now that the United States and Hanoi have found neutral turf for their peace talks, says Republican presidential contender Richard M. Nixon, there should be no grandstand quarterbacking by candidates.

"I for one say let's give the President a chance and let's wish him well so he can bring this war to a successful conclusion," Nixon said yesterday as he would up his campaign for Tuesday's Indiana primary.

Sen. Eugene McCarthy, however, seemed unwilling to withhold comment on how the negotiations should proceed.

The Johnson administration, he said, must be willing to accept Communist representation in a new South Vietnamese government.

★ ★ ★

Sen. Robert Kennedy, who is contending with McCarthy in the Indiana primary, said he hoped that, regardless of long-term results, the conferences in Paris might produce a cease-fire.

'EARLY AS POSSIBLE'

"I fervently hope both sides will seek to stop the killing as early as possible and that an international force might be brought in to supervise a ceasefire," the New York said.

Speaking yesterday at Kent State University in Kent, Ohio, Humphrey lost part of his audiences as first a group of Negro students, then a groups of whites, apparently peace demonstrators, marched out of the fieldhouse.

But the thousands who remained booed those departing and appluded Humphrey, who said: "This is the most amazing thing. The last time anyone walked out on me was when I pleaded for civil rights in the 1948 Democratic convention in Philadelphia."

County Awaits FAA Approval of Airport Plan

"The $3,000 is most comparable, and in my opinion Parcels I and II (those purchased by the county) are approximately 25 per cent superior to the $3,000 sale, which would result in a fair cash market value of $3,750 per acre."

★ ★ ★

Asked why the county board of supervisors approved a $280 per acre increase over the recommended price, Van Natta said, "You must remember agreement must be achieved with the seller."

3 COMMITTEES BACKED PRICE

The $4,030 price was recommended to the board by the aviation, ways and means and buildings and grounds committees, according to board minutes.

Murphy said though only one appraisal is interpreted as being required by county rules, a new policy requiring two appraisals on purchases involving $25,000 or more has been initiated.

He said one of the appraisers must be a member of the American Institute of Real Estate Appraisers.

★ ★ ★

Asked what would happen to land prices where property in the master plan area continues to be improved by its present owners, Murphy said, "The people have been put on notice.

LAND VALUES ESTABLISHED

"We have established land values there at thet ime the master plan was announced, and we will probably have to proceed through condemnation to purchase such property if the FAA gives the go-ahead."

He stressed, however, that development of the airport is forseen as a 20-year project.

"At first, if the FAA approves, the county will only put in a paved north-south runway and a few necessary buildings," Murphy said.

★ ★ ★

"It will take years to purchase all the land necessary, both from a legal and financial point of view," he said.

Waterford School Levy Called 'a Must'

However, the new program will amount to an increase of $458,00 or an additional $25.85 per pupil.

This will raise the district's total state aid to $5,761,000 for 1968-69, according to school officials.

Because of the increase, first-through-fourth graders will be able to attend classes full-time next school year instead of going on half-day schedules for one semester as had been previously planned.

However, other cutbacks are planned for next school year as a result of an election setback last Nov. 20 when district voters rejected a proposed 7½-mill property tax increase by more than a 2-1 margin.

★ ★ ★

Included are shortened school days for secondary students and the elimination of 93 teaching positions.

Even with the state aid increase, the district still is 5 to 6½ mills short of achieving a budget based on the needs to operate a full school program.

Tatroe stressed that for every dollar of added local taxes that comes in through additional property assessments, "we lose 83 cents in the state aid formula."

Voting will take place at the following eight precincts:

1—Grayson School, 3800 W. Walton; 2—Donelson School, 1200 W. Huron; 3—Crescent Lake School (Waterford Center), 1021 Airport; 4—Schoolcraft School, 6400 Maceday Drive; 5—Pontiac Lake School, 2515 Williams Lake; 6—Monteith School, 2303 Crescent Lake; 7—Leggett School, 3621 Pontiac Lake; and 8—Stringham School, 4350 Elizabeth Lake.

You Sit and Squirm

'Seagull' Oddly Fascinating

By DON BRAUNAGEL

Watching a Chekhov play is oddly fascinating.

As the players go through their everyday actions and words, you sit and squirm — especially in this television-oriented age — wondering when the plot twists and excitement will begin.

Suddenly, the play is over, and you realize there were no plot twists; in fact, few events out of the ordinary.

Yet you realize also that you became engrossed in these strangers' lives. What they did and what happened to them mattered because it was much like your own life.

So it was last night at the Meadow Brook Theatre premiere of "The Seagull," the John Fernald Company's last production of the season.

★ ★ ★

At first it seems as if the most worthwhile part of the production is Frank Masi's elaborate settings — especially the trees, bushes and background lake for the outdoor scenes.

Then the cast began giving life to Chekhov's lines with such uniform quality that it's a tribute to Fernald's direction. With any less, the play would have stayed at the level of soap opera melodrama.

The story centers on a famous actress's son, effectively played by Curt Dawson. Seeking his own identity as a writer, he falls victim to unrequited love of a young girl who wants only fame.

She becomes enamored of a successful but second-rate writer (George Guidall) too weak-willed to be true to himself and return the girl's love.

NEWCOMER IMPRESSIVE

A newcomer to Meadow Brook, pretty Lans Traverse, made an impressive debut as the young girl, starry-eyed, then matured by tragedy.

One of the best scenes in the play has her gazing at Guidall, saying how wonderful it must be to be successful, while he talks of being unfulfilled because he is not considered as good as Tolstoy.

Dawson's role is interesting in that it is somewhat autobiographical. He is scorned and abused as a playwright because of trying new techniques, much as Chekhov was. Ironically, "The Seagull" was a failure in its first performance at St. Petersburg.

Years later, it was reopened in Moscow where it became such a success it saved the Moscow Art Theatre and is now a classic.

"The Seagull" will be at Meadow Brook through June 2, then will move to the University of New Hampshire at Durham for five performances June 5-8.

Comic Paulsen Smash Hit in State Capitol Tour

LANSING (AP) — Comedian Pat Paulsen tailored his jokes to the Michigan scene at a news conference following his triumphant tour of the State Cpitol Friday.

Paulsen received standing applause for a surprise appearance before the House of Representatives. Romney in his office, accepted a campaign button and told the comedian:

"People have been asking me who I would support for president."

The deadpan comic smiled in anticipation.

"It won't be you," said the governor.

Paulsen, who is running a mock campaign for President, was asked if he was 'brainwashed' by Romney, the ex-candidate for the GOP nomination for president.

BRAINWASHED?

"I liked Mr. Romney very much," said Paulsen in his only serious moment. "He was very gracious to me.'

"As to being brainwashed, we didn't take a shower together or anything like that."

Paulsen was asked what candidate he would endorse if his own campaign failed.

★ ★ ★

"I'm just like Romney," he said. "Uncommitted. But if I ever did get out of the race I would throw my support to the guy I least liked. That would kill him."

Typical questions and answers at the press conference went like this:

"What is your greatest appeal?"

"My body."

"What would you do about crime in the streets?"

"Move it back into the homes."

CIVIL RIGHTS SOLUTION

"What is your solution to the civil rights problem?"

★ ★ ★

"Send all the Negroes back to Africa and all whites back to Europe and start all over again."

"How would you conduct the draft?"

"Draft everyone according to the size of their heads. The tiny heads would go into the military and the fatheads into government."

Paulsen arrived in Lansing Friday for a three-night club stand.

"I mostly am here to campaign," he said, "but I hope to pick up a little money on the side. After all, you don't want a president who is not economic-minded."

Paulsen gave Romney a handful of tickets for his performances. "we serve cider there," he told nondrinker Romney.

Detroit's War on Poverty 'a Gimmick'

LANSING (AP) — The president of a Detroit-based philanthropic group which worked with Detroit's antipoverty program charges the program involves a "disgraceful and wasteful expenditure of funds."

Mrs. L.G. Auberlin, president of World Medical Relief, Inc., made the statement in a letter to Rep. James Del Rio, D-Detroit. Del Rio chaired an investigating committee which blasted the Detroit program last week.

Gov. George Romney's wife is listed by World Medical Relief as honorary chairman of its executive committee.

Mrs. Auberlin said World Medical Relief began assisting the city's Total Action Against Poverty (TAAP) program in May, 1965.

Two months later, she said, "I requested that TAAP seek assistance elsewhere as we had no intentions of becoming involved — as it was becoming more apparent that it was just another political gimmick."

She quoted Dr. T. Aiden Cockburn, TAAP medical director, as saying in 1965 that "$750,000 that had been allocated to the dental program was gone without any of the funds being used to extract, fill or treat a single tooth."

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Auberlin wrote Detroit could be "a model in the relief of human suffering with its inner-city problems instead of being held up in ignominy and disgrace by every paper in the country."

Voter Sign-Up Set for King Day

DETROIT (AP) — Democratic Rep. James Del Rio of Detroit says this year's Afro-American Freedom March Day and Martin Luther King Day, both to be held June 23, will have something new. The new feature will be voter registration, if the city goes along with the idea.

Del Rio says Election Director Bernard J. Apol has told him that voter registration on Sunday is legal and now Del Rio is asking the city to provide registrars to work that day. He said he expects 50,000 to 100,000 black and white citizens to be registered that day.

Japan plans to import about 4½ tons of platinum from the Soviet Union this year.

Bengals Fail to Produce in Clutch Situations

From the Press Box

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

You would have had to see the umpiring at Tiger Stadium Thursday night to believe it.

It was Major League umpiring at its worst. The antics of plate umpire Al Salerno were unbelievable and disgraceful.

Salerno ejected Tiger first baseman Eddie Mathews for using a cuss word after a third call strike. This was probably warranted, but when the fans continued their heckling in the late innings of the game, it got the best of Salerno.

He lost his poise and there should have been some higher authority who should have ejected Salerno for his behavior.

He accelerated the booing and heckling by getting into a contest of words and gestures with the fans and he obviously let the heat of the rhubarb affect his calling of balls and strikes.

TEMPER-BASED CALL

When he called Mickey Stanley out on strikes in the bottom of the ninth inning with the score tied 2-2, the third called strike must have been a foot from the ground and two feet away from the corner of the plate.

"You can take the blame for that one," he shouted back to manager Mayo Smith of the Tigers who protested the call.

Salerno, who was already steaming over the shouts, catcalls and protests which had transpired, became more angry when Smith protested the first call strike on Stanley.

He threw out his right arm wildly on the next two pitches evidently to prove to Smith and the fans that the pitches were [illegible] and then [illegible] were told he was going to call them that way [illegible].

At one point he even went behind the screen behind the plate to gesture ushers to remove heckling fans and another time he walked toward third base and heightened the agitation by yelling something back at the fans.

FIRST RHUBARB

Pitcher Joe Sparma and the Tigers were upset when first base umpire William Haller called Ted Uhlaender safe at first on what looked like a sure double play.

It would have ended the 4th inning without a run as a result Minnesota got a pair leading to the victory.

★ ★ ★

Then Minnesota manager Cal Ermer got into it with the umpires in protest over Sparma's delay in pitching after this rhubarb.

Ermer got into it again in the bottom of the 10th when Salerno called a bouncing ball foul at third on what looked like a sure double play ball hit by Willie Horton which would have ended the inning.

Instead, Horton was then walked intentionally to load the bases with one out but the Tigers couldn't muster the runs which would have won the game and put an end to the chaotic contest.

A cold shower didn't even get rid of irate red color on Mayo Smith's face after the game.

"You all saw that exhibition out there, I don't think I have to comment on it all," Smith said angrily to reporters in the dressing room.

One veteran baseball observer said, "It is almost an accepted fact that this is the poorest of all the crews of umpires in the American League."

★ ★ ★

Comprising this crew with Salerno and Haller are Jerry Neudecker and Larry Napp.

Napp, who started umpiring in the American League in 1951, is the veteran arbitrator of this crew and he is considered as one of the better and more moderately tempered among the league umpires.

Umpiring is no easy job in any league and no one can argue and win an honest judgment call, but the point of self-control something Salerno didn't exhibit Friday night, can and should be questioned.

SOARING SHORTSTOP — Detroit Tigers' shortstop Ray Oyler leaps in an effort to retain his balance after taking a [illegible] block from California's Bob Rodgers during third-inning action last night in Detroit. The play came when Oyler took a toss from first baseman Mickey Stanley to force Rodgers at second. Bobby Knoop started the play with a grounder to Stanley. Knoop was safe at first. Angels won, 6-5.

Horton's Clouts Wasted in 6-5 Loss to Angels

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Tigers got more hits than they have produced in their last 10 games, including a pair of homers by Willie Horton, but couldn't hit a fly ball at the right time and it cost them first place.

The Baltimore Orioles, who beat Washington 6-1, moved into first place, one-half game ahead of Detroit, which dropped a 6-5 decision to the California Angels. Detroit outhit the Angels 12 to 9.

"We didnt' get the fly balls at the right time," said Tigers' Manager Mayo Smith.

Detroit had men in scoring position twice when a sacrifice fly could have produced a run. Bill Freehan led off the second with a triple off California starter Clyde Wright and was left stranded. Detroit had men on second and third with one out in the ninth and Angels' reliever Sammy Ellis got Don Wert on a pop fly before loading the bases with an intentional walk to Jim Northrup.

WRONG TIME

Jim Price, batting for Daryl Patterson, flied out to end the game.

Ellis, who pitched six innings as a starter against Boston Thursday, picked up the save for winner Jack Hamilton, now 3-1.

"I figured to challenge Price with fastballs," said Ellis. "He hit one right down the pipe. There's no sense in finessing a guy coming in cold off the bench."

Ellis said California Manager Bill Rigney told him "we'll gamble" by giving Northrup an intentional pass to load the bases with two out in the ninth.

"It never occurred to me that I could force a run in with a walk until Northrup walked," said Ellis.

The Angels got to Detroit starter Mickey Lolich, 1-4, for two runs in the third. Chuck Hinton drove in one run with a bases-loaded single and the other scored when Don Wert dropped Bubba Morton's two-out liner at third base.

Lolich was knocked out in the sixth following consecutive singles by Roy Rodgers and Bobby Knoop. The third run came in on Paul Schaal's sacrifice fly off reliver Pat Dobson. Schaal singled another run home in the eighth.

"Lolich's control was off," said Smith. "But we had our chances and missed them."

Horton drove in three Tiger runs with two homers, his third and fourth this season. Tom Matchick's pinch single drove in Northrup, who had reached first after striking out on a wild pitch by Minnie Rojas, to cut California's margin to 6-5 in the eighth.

The Tigers were to meet the Angels in Detroit with Jim Wilson facing California's Jim McGlothlin.

Blues' Goalie Hall Sparkles in 2-1 Win

ST. LOUIS (AP) — [illegible] St. Louis Blues goalie Glenn Hall's game, Blues coach Scotty Bowman said, and Minnesota North Stars coach Wren Blair agreed.

Hall, the Blues' ageless backstop in the National Hockey League's expansion East, stopped all but [illegible] of 45 shots [illegible] Maniago was almost his equal, but there were two shots [illegible]

Those two shots, one with less than three minutes in regulation play and one [illegible] Division champion, Montreal Canadians. The first game will be played Sunday and the second Tuesday, both at St. Louis.

"Hall had his game tonight," Bowman said. "I think it was his best of the series."

DEFLECTED SHOT

With just over three minutes left in regulation play, rookie Bill McKechnie scored a deflected shot that seemed to lock up the deciding game in the best-of-light seven series for the North Stars.

Then 31 seconds later, veteran Dickie Moore scored a dramatic goal that sent the contest into overtime.

Ron Schock scored the winning goal at 2:50 of the second overtime.

"At least I'll be able to sleep tonight," said Hall.

"I've never played on a team that scrambled more to win than this one. This team just seems to thrive and win under adverse conditions."

★ ★ ★

Blair couldn't shrug off his team's defeat. They had fought the Blues down to the wire and then some. But he had only praise for Hall and the Blues.

★ ★ ★

"I thought Hall had the best game of the series," Blair repeated. "We had some good chances and he frustrated us several times. I thought we out-played the Blues a fair amount of the time, but you have to give them credit. They fought hard."

Toronto Under Ullman's Skin

DETROIT (AP) — Veteran hockey player Norman Ullman said Friday he would seek medical advice next week to determine why he apparently is allergic to Toronto, where he plays for the Maple Leafs.

"I think it must be something in the air in Toronto . . . I have noticed it for eight or 10 years," said the big center who was traded to the Leafs in March after nearly 13 years with the Detroit Red Wings.

"The Leafs have been great to me and so have the fans at Toronto," said the National Hockey League veteran.

"I never had trouble breathing in any other NHL city but I do have troubles in Toronto, both breathing and sleeping," Ullman said.

★ ★ ★

"Sometimes in practice, I would go up the ice once or twice and wind up wheezing or get sick to my stomach. I recall some nights when I had trouble sleeping and had to sit up to get a good deep breath."

HE'S BUGGED

Ullman, who is affiliated with a printing company in the off season, added, "This thing is really bugging me. I am going to Ann Arbor, Mich., next week to see an allergist, and then maybe I will have to go to Toronto and have it checked out there.

"If they cannot fix it, I certainly do not want to give up hockey, but if it cannot be fixed, I will ask the Maple Leafs to trade me . . . I am no good to them this way," he said.

Ullman scored 35 goals and 36 assists for 71 points in the NHL last season.

Sluggers' One-Base Blows Spark Giants Past Cards

By the Associated Press

Curt Flood, who usually plays the part of a singles hitter for the St. Louis Cardinals, made his debut as a slugger Friday night.

But two of San Francisco's power hitters, the Messrs. Mays and McCovey, rang down the curtain on the act with a couple of most timely one-base hits.

★ ★ ★

The Cards led the Giants 4-2 in the ninth inning Friday night, thanks to two home runs by Flood, who hit only five all last season. Steve Carlton was having little trouble disposing of the Giant batters.

But Ollie Brown led off the ninth with a pinch single and, after Jack Hiatt struck out, Brown moved to second on Jesus Alou's infield single. Orlando Cepeda threw out Ron Hunt, the runners advancing, and the Cards were just one out from victory.

Enter Willie McCovey. The big Giant slugger delivered a slow grounder up the middle into center field and suddenly the game was tied.

STOLEN BASE

Now Willlie is not exactly the fastest man in the world. Last year, for example, he stole just three bases. Imagine the Cards' surprise, therefore, when they looked up and found McCovey grinning at them from second.

Mays' turn. Carefully, the fabled slugger worked Carlton to a 3-2 count and then sent a single through the third-base side of the diamond, scoring McCovey.

★ ★ ★

In other National League games Friday night, Los Angeles edged Cincinnati 4-3, Houston beat Atlanta 5-3 and Philadelphia nudged Pittsburgh 3-2. The New York Mets and Chicago cubs were rained out.

The Giants' victory cut the Cardinal's league lead to 2½ games over the San Franciscans. Juan Marichal, who went the distance, ran his record to 4-1. Carlton is now 2-1. Mike Shannon also homered for St. Louis.

Luis Alcaraz' tie-breaking single capped a three-run Dodger rally in the sixth before 50,506 Bat Night fans in Dodger Stadium. The reds missed a chance to tie in the eighth when, with none out, Alex Johnson left third too soon on Vada Pinson's fly to right and the Dodgers appealed.

Jim Wynn and Rusty Staub hit consecutive homers for the Astros in the third inning after Felipe Alou's mental error opened the gates to a four-run inning. Alou mistakenly thought he had caught the third out in center and by the time he discovered it was only the second, two runs had scored.

Mike Ryan's single in the ninth drove in the winning run for the Phillies after Rich Allen and John Briggs singled and Bill White walked, all with two out.

Calumet Stables Seeking to End Drought in Derby

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Calumet Farm sent Forward Pass against 13 other prime 3-year-olds today in a bid to win its first Kentucky Derby in 10 years.

In fact, it was the first Derby for Calumet since Tim Tam won in 1958.

★ ★ ★

Favored Forward Pass went into the race with four stakes victories this year, including the Florida Derby and the Blue Grass.

Post time was 4:38 p.m., EDT. CBS carried the 94th running of the Derby on national television from 4:5 p.m., and on radio from 4:20-4:50.

Although it was the 94th Derby, as always there was nothing old hat about it.

For instance, it was a new and unforgettable experience for 11 owners, eight trainers and four jockeys.

And, in a way—as only the Kentucky Derby can be — it was a new experience for those who have been involved in past derbies.

SEVERAL FIRSTS

The Derby not only provided first for individuals, there were also firsts for the race and for Churchill Downs.

Five gray colts were entered — Peter Fuller's Dancer's Image, C. V. Whitney's Gleaming Sword, Peter Kissel's Iron Ruler, Charles Engelhard's Jig Time and Mrs. Montgomery Fisher's Proper Proof.

The most grays in any previous Derby was two, and only two have ever won —Determine in 1954 and decidedly in 1962.

The track management came up with a first long before the race. The board of directors voted last winter to ban bringing alcoholic beverages onto the grounds. The move was a bid to curb rowdiness in the infield.

However, those who wished to celebrate or drown their bad luck were able to purchase drinks on the ground.

Orioles Win Fifth Straight

Chisox Miscues Help Yankees

By The Associated Press

Oops. The dropsy syndrome caught up with Tom McCraw and Jerry Stephenson but good.

McCraw, Chicago's smooth fielding first baseman, caught the disease worse than Stephenson, the young Boston pitcher, but both were stricken.

McCraw suffered through a nightmarish three-error third inning that set up three unearned runs for New York and helped the Yankees to a 3-2 victory over the White Sox Friday night.

Stephenson spent a good part of the second inning of Boston's game against Oakland on his knees, creeping around the mound searching for a contact lens. He never did locate it but the Athletics found him, all right. They battered Stephenson and four successors for 15 hits and a 7-2 romp over the Red Sox.

In other American League games, Cleveland shut out Minnesota 4-0, and Baltimore [illegible] Washington, McCraw had contributed a double to a two-run White Sox rally that staked Joe Horlen to an early lead. Then came the fateful third inning.

FIRST MISCUE

Gene Michael opened with a grounder to first which McCraw fumbled. Error No. 1. Winning pitcher Bill Monbouquette sacrificed and Michael advanced to third on Horace Clarke's hit.

Roy White bounced to McCraw, who lost the ball as he started to throw it home. Error No. 2. Then he recovered it and flipped to first base when no one was covering. Error No. 3. Michael scored on the play, Clarke went to third and White to second. And McCraw had tied a record for errors by a first baseman in one inning.

Mickey Mantle was intentionally walked and Andy Kosco's single delivered two runs, enabling the Yankees to take the lead.

Stephenson fell to his knees after delivering a pitch to Rick Monday in the second inning against Oakland. Soon he was joined by other players and the umpires, looking for the lost contact lens. At one point, equipment man Don Fitzpatrick pitched in with a flashlight.

But nothing helped in the search for the lens or the battle to beat the A's. Catfish Hunter pitched a five-hitter and Reggie Jackson and Hunter smacked three hits apiece, leading Oakland's attack. Ken Harrelson's two-run homer in the ninth spoiled Hunter's bid for a shutout.

Luis Tiant hurled his second straight shutout—blanking the powerful Twins on just three hits. He struck out nine.

Curt Blefary socked a threerun homer and Mark Belanger had a bases empty shot helping Baltimore past Washington. It was the fifth straight victory for the Orioles.

Phillie Manager Told:

'Wasting Your Time'

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Gene Mauch was in his ofifce at Connie Mack Stadium Friday when the telephone rang. It was Warren Giles, president of the National League on the phone.

In effect, Mauch told the league president: "Funny you should call, Mr. Giles. I was just writing you a letter."

Giles told Mauch in so many words: "Tear it up, fellow. You're wasting your time."

Mauch, manager of the Philadelphia Phillies, was writing a protest of Thursday night's game between the Phils and New York Mets.

It all started in the last of the seventh inning at Shea Stadium when Philies reliever John Boozer touched his lips while warming up. Umpire Ed Vargo shouted, "Ball one."

Boozer and Mauch charged the umpire. They told Vargo he couldn't invoke the new spitball rule on a warmup pitch.

★ ★ ★

Boozer touched his lips again and Vargo intoned, "Ball two." To make a long story short, Vargo called a third ball and then threw Boozer out of the game. Mauch also was given an early shower. Vargo was told the Phillies were playing the game under protest.

ENFORCED RULE

Mauch said Giles told him on the phone: "The umpires interpreted the rule to the broadest letter, perhaps too broad." He (Giles) said that while the umpires didn't exercise common sense, they enforced the rule the way it was written, Mauch said.

"He told me I was wasting my time writing a protest. So I tore it up."

Mauch said Giles told him he had instructed his umpires Friday that when a pitcher goes to his mouth during a warmup the rule doesn't apply, although the pitcher must dry his fingers before delivering a pitch to the batter.

The rule was invoked in the first inning of Friday night's Phillies-Pittsburgh game on a 3-2 count to the Phillies' Rich Allen. Pittsburgh pitcher Steve Blass put his hand to his mouth and umpire Bob Engle called ball four and awarded Allen a walk.

Hawks Sold; Squad Moving to Atlanta

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Ben Kerner is a man who knows his territory. He has been selling professional basketball for years and Friday he announced, "They just don't want our product here anymore."

★ ★ ★

With that, Kerner announced he had sold his National Basketball Association franchise to an Atlanta millionaire and a former Georgia governor. Next year, with the approval of the NBA board of governors, the St. Louis Hawks will be the Atlanta Hawks — provided the new owner like the name.

★ ★ ★

No sale price was disclosed.

Purchasing the club was Georgia real estate developer Thomas G. Cousins and former Gov. Carl E. Sanders. Cousins founded Cousins Properties Inc. in 1958 with capitalization of $3,000. Today, the firm lists assets in excess of $14 million. He says he bought the Hawks for Atlanta, not simply because he is a sport fan.

"The principal reason is that Atlanta deserves and needs pro basketball, as does the state, "Cousins explained." It looked as if the only way we could every do it was through an expansion team, but that route probably means 10 years of losing.

FAST MOVE

"This opportunity presented itself real quickly and Gov. Sanders and I decided we'd just buy the team and bring it to Atlanta."

Some of the Hawks players indicated they would have to do some thinking before accepting the move to Atlanta, although none said he would quit.

★ ★ ★

The Hawks moved to St. Louis from Milwaukee 13 years ago and almost immediately caught the fancy of St. Louis sports fans. In the first season the team finished second in the NBA's Western Division. The following year it won the first of five consecutive division titles.

In 1958, the Hawks won the NBA crown, beating Boston. During the past season St. Louis set a Western Division record of 56 wins against 26 losses, but lost in the first round of the playoffs against the San Francisco Warriors.
