Blaze Strikes Yankee Store

Firemen Battle Blaze At Miracle Mile Shopping Center

No Reported Injuries, but Damage Heavy

Miracle Mile Fire Is Spotted in Rear Room by Two Stock Boys

Fire raced through the Yankee store at the Miracle Mile Shopping Center just before noon today, apparently causing a heavy damage toll to the large 36,000-square-foot building.

About 75 to 100 customers and employes, who were in the store at the time, managed to escape. No one was believed injured.

Store Manager Paul E. Meeker said the fire originated in a rear room, used for stocking purposes.

Two stock boys first noticed the fire and ran out, yelling warnings to others in the store, according to Meeker.

★ ★ ★

By that time, the flames were high, said Meeker, who told reporters he had been in the back room 10 minutes before the fire erupted.

CUSTOMERS CALM

Meeker said the customers and store employes were calm and orderly in making their way to safety.

Bloomfield Township firemen received the alarm at 11:57 a.m. and were still right ing the blaze at 2 p.m.

Using three pieces of equipment fire fighters managed to keep the fire from spreading to nearby buildings including the Foy-Johnson Paint Store, next door to the Yankee store.

But smoke was billowing heavily from the Yankee store, which was opened Feb. 28, 1963.

The Bloomfield Township assessor's office estimated the actual value of the building at about $200,000.

STABBING SUSPECT—Roger B. Shaw of Huntington Woods listens intently as Detective Charles Whitlock of the Oakland County Sheriff's Department informs him of his rights and charges he faces in connection with yesterday's stabbing of an Oakland University coed. Shaw is accused of assault with intent to commit murder. The victim, Janice E. Leveranz of 2077 N. Opdyke, Pontiac Township, is in satisfactory condition in Royal Oak's William Beaumont Hospital.

Man Charged in OU Knifing

A 23-year-old Huntington Woods man has been charged with assault with intent to commit murder in the stabbing of an Oakland University coed in a campus parking lot at noon yesterday.

The victim, Janice E. Leveranz, 20, of 2077 N. Opdyke, Pontiac Township, is listed in satisfactory condition at Royal Oak's William Beaumont Hospital.

Miss Leveranz, the daughter of Mrs. Genevieve Leveranz of Detroit, underwent abdominal surgery yesterday afternoon after being stabbed with a six-inch ceremonial dagger.

The suspect, Roger B. Shaw of 26116 Wyoming, was arrested by Oakland County sheriff's deputies at the hospital where he had driven Miss Leveranz for treatment.

At his arraignment before Pontiac Township Justice R. Grant Graham yesterday, Shaw demanded examination which was set for 1:30 p.m. Feb. 3.

He is being held in Oakland County Jail in lieu of $10,000 bond.

PARKING LOT

Miss Leveranz and Shaw, reportedly a former boyfriend, became involved in an argument in his car in the parking lot at North Foundation Hall.

A witness said he heard a scream and saw a man and girl struggling in a car.

He said the car then backed up and struck another vehicle.

GOP Urges War Step-Up, Hits Tax Plan

Appraisal by Dirksen, Ford Heard in Capital by 250 Colleagues

WASHINGTON (AP) — Appraising the state of a "vexed and troubled" union, Senate Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen has prescribed reinforced U.S. determination and "a more vigorous effort on land, sea and in the air" to end the war in Vietnam.

And House GOP leader Gerald R. Ford has vowed Republican opposition to a wartime tax increase until President Johnson makes "a convincing case" for the boost he seeks.

The two minority leaders delivered their joint appraisal last night before some 250 Republican colleagues in the Capitol's hot, crowded old Supreme Court chamber.

Ford said November's election victories gave the GOP a mandate to chart "a new direction for America. As we look ahead, Republicans see a program of sensible solutions for the 70's," he said.

★ ★ ★

"Why don't we come up with some positive solutions for the 60's?" Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansfield asked later.

MORE CAUSTIC

Another Democrat was more caustic in his assessment of the appraisal.

"I gather that Messrs. Dirksen and Ford are strongly in support of the Vietnam war, but strongly opposed to paying for it," said Sen. Albert Gore, D-Tenn.

"This would have those who

Says Visitor to Hanoi

'Bombing of North Vietnam a Failure'

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP) — The bombing of North Vietnam has been a failure, a recent U.S. visitor to Hanoi reports. He said the question of a halt in the bombing of the Communist North may be critical for the chances of peace talks.

ASHMORE

Harry S. Ashmore, executive vice president of the Center for Study of Democratic Institutions, presented this opinion to a news conference yesterday.

At the same time he reported that North Vietnamese President Ho Chi Minh was quite interested in an invitation to send a representative to a convocation on world peace in Geneva in May.

Ashmore, who returned Monday from North Vietnam, stressed that the May meeting would be official and could by no means be considered a forum for Vietnam peace negotiations.

But he expressed hope that Ho's interest meant that "something tangible" was developing in the way of a changed Hanoi attitude toward peace negotiations.

Ashmore told the news conference that "my own judgment is that I consider the bombing a failure" and that from what he had seen and heard, the type of bombing now going on would not end the war. Instead, he said, it was strengthening North Vietnam's unity.

The North Vietnamese officials, he said, seem aware that alone they can never muster strength enough to push U.S. forces into the sea, but he said he had the impression they felt they could not lose the war either.

"We should take any step possible to end the war. If I were president, I would certainly stop the bombing. I am not one of those who is critical of the President's policies, but I feel that if there are to be any negotiations, it will call for concessions on both sides."

Ashmore said that without

GIs Find Documents in Possible Cong HQ

IRON TRIANGLE, South Vietnam (AP) — U.S. infantrymen today explored a massive tunnel that may have served as headquarters of the Vietcong's 4th Military Region, which includes Saigon.

Brig. Gen. Richard T. Knowles of Columbus, Ga., commander of the 196th Light Infantry Brigade, said his men found maps, detailed plans, weapons, booby traps and even some Vietcong in the long, winding tunnel.

Among the documents were plans for the Dec. 4 attack by guerrilla suicide squads on Saigon's Tan Son Nhut airport; French and American maps and diagrams of hotels and billets that house Americans in Saigon.

The tunnel is deep in the Ho Bo Woods 25 miles northeast of Saigon within the Iron Triangle where the 196th and American and Vietnamese units are in the 13th day of Operation Cedar Falls—the largest offensive of the war.

"Tunnel Rats" of the 196th had penetrated 600 yards into the tunnel by nightfall and the end was nowhere in sight.

Among the men probing the blackened shaft and dozens of side entrances was Sgt. Ronald Payne of Atlanta, Ga., who twice fired his silencer-equipped pistol at guerrillas scurrying through the tunnel ahead of him.

"I don't know if I hit any of them or not," Payne said. "But they definitely are down there."

As the Tunnel Rats, directed by Capt. William H. Pelfrey, 26, of Tulsa, Okla., spread through the winding tunnel their war booty mounted. It included medical supplies, typewriters, a dozen rifles and 14 pistols. The pistols, Pelfrey said, probably were officers' sidearms and supported the belief that the tunnel had served as an important Vietcong center.

Cook School Ready to Start Monday

Stoves, refrigerators and a complete kitchen unit were moved into Pontiac Central High School auditorium today in preparation for Monday's opening session of The Pontiac Press Cooking School.

Consumers Power Co. put special gas lines into the building in 1960 when the first cooking school was held.

Doors will open at 6:30 p.m. Monday. If any seats are vacant at the start of the program, they may be used by people without tickets.

The school will run for four nights and two afternoons.

Baker: I Told Woes to LBJ

'Best Friend I Had Around the Capitol'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Bobby Baker testified today that around July 1962, he went to see "the best friend I had around the Capitol," the then vice president, about his financial problems.

Baker did not mention the name, but President Lyndon B. Johnson was vice president at the time.

Testifying in his own defense at his trial on income tax evasion and other charges, Baker said also that he had overpaid his 1961 income taxes rather than underpaying them by $1,504 as the government alleges.

"I was in very serious financial difficulty," Baker related concerning the 1962 incident.

★ ★ ★

"I went to the best friend I had around the Capitol. I went to see the then vice president and told him I had a very serious problem."

ASKED ADVICE

Baker said he asked the vice president's advice, and he picked up a telephone and called "his friend and my friend," the late Sen. Robert S. Kerr, D-Okla.

Baker said he, meaning the vice president, "advised me to go immediately to Sen. Kerr's office, which I did."

Baker said he told Kerr about his financial problems, and Kerr made arrangements for a $250,000 loan from the Fidelity Bank & Trust Co. in Oklahoma City, Okla.

Kerr alo said he would make a personal loan to Baker for $50,000, Baker said.

City Airport Facilities Trail Growth

(EDITOR'S NOTE—This is the first of a three-part series.)

By DICK SAUNDERS

Pontiac Municipal Airport has new prestige, new parents and the same old facilities.

One owner of locally based aircraft put it this way: "We're No. 3 in traffic. Not bad for a 10th or 11th rate facility."

SAUNDERS

The Pontiac air facility's total operations (arrivals and departures) for 1966 rank behind only Detroit Metropolitan and Detroit City airports in Michigan.

When the Federal Aviation Agency released fiscal year data (July 1965-June 1966) last summer, Pontiac ranked fifth in the state in total operations.

★ ★ ★

While air traffic has been booming, local airport facilities have been the victim of a custody case.

CHANGE SLATED

After more than two years of governmental bartering, Oakland County has come up with custody of the city-owned airport. The final papers should be ready for signatures within a month.

During the trade talks, the city budget was tight and local officials were hesitant to commit funds for improvements at a facility they were trying to sell or trade.

Thus, the airport's two most glaring deficiencies three years ago are still the top priorities in whatever improvement and expansion program the county may choose to initiate:

- A new 5,000-foot north-south runway.

During the lengthy city-county airport discussions, Pontiac Municial Airport hasn't been marking time in the bulk of air traffic.

J. DAVID VANDER VEEN

TOP 6 AIRPORTS

Here's how the state's top six airports ranked in total operations for the fiscal year ending last June 30 and the calendar year ending Dec. 31.

Fiscal Year Ending June 30, 1966
(Arrivals and departures)

Detroit City	224,834
Detroit Metro	208,895
Willow Run	146,910
Lansing	145,785
Pontiac	145,281
Flint	139,259

Calendar Year 1966
(Arrivals and departures)

Detroit Metro	249,220
Detroit City	233,606
Pontiac	172,684
Flint	159,109
Lansing	149,201
Willow Run	136,321

"Traffic is up all over the state," said Airport Manager J. David VanderVeen, "but our increase over the past year has been terrific."

Pontiac reported 27,403 more operations in the past calendar year than in the 12 months ending last June 30.

★ ★ ★

"But the jump is even greater from year to year," VanderVeen noted. "Operations for 1966 here ran about 48,700 higher than during calendar 1965.

OPTIMISTIC

"That's a jump of 39.2 per cent. We had optimistically projected a hike of 37 per cent."

Air traffic is split into three

2 Leaders' Suicides Reported in Peking

TOKYO (AP) — A wall newspaper put up in Peking by a unit of Red China's army reported today that purged general staff chief Lo Jui-ching and Vice Premier Po I-po committed suicide.

Japanese correspondents in the Chinese capital said the "extra" issued by the 235th army detachment also reported Communist party general secretary Teng Hsiao-ping — one of the chief targets of Mao Tse-tung's purge — and Yang Hsiu-feng, president of the Supreme People's Court, attempted suicide.

Earlier today one of Mao's mouthpieces, the theoretical journal Red Flag, disclosed that some nominal followers of the party chairman have become alarmed by the turmoil sweeping the Chinese mainland, saying, "You are going too far" and "You are making a mess of it."

But the official Peking People's Daily quoted a Shanghai Red Guard as saying, "We will give the enemy no quarter and will not quit until complete victory."

SOURCE NOT GIVEN

The army wall paper did not give its source for the suicide reports. There have been several such from Hong Kong recently. Rumors swept Peking in mid-December that Lo had killed himself, and a Red Guard who defected said in Taipei Dec. 27 that Lo jumped off a building but only broke a leg.

Man 'Critical' After Cave-In

Workman Is Buried at Project in Lapeer

A workman was critically injured this morning while at work on construction of the new Hamady Bros. Market in Lapeer.

A 15-foot section of frozen ground caved in on Wymond Thrasher, 36-year-old Flint man, as he worked at laying water mains in a 7-foot ditch around the market.

Lapeer police said he was completely buried for a period of a few seconds, but that his head was soon freed.

His body remained trapped, however, for 20 minutes.

★ ★ ★

One of two witnesses to the accident was the injured man's brother, Carli Thrasher, also of Flint, who used the power shovel he operated to partially free the trapped man.

Thrasher was taken to Lapeer County General Hospital where he is listed in critical condition.

Beautification Project Launched by Committee

BIRMINGHAM — If you seek a more beautiful Birmingham, a current campaign should be right up your alley.

"Operation Beautiful Alley" was kicked off Wednesday morning by the Beautify Birmingham Committee.

Chairman Ruth McNamee, a city commissioner, said "We're starting in the alley, but we hope to spread the campaign all over the city.

"We don't want the alleys to be a dead end," she said.

"We're not seeking beauty in the narrow sense, a few flowers here and ornaments there, but we hope to improve our whole environment."

★ ★ ★

A workshop on how to go about prettying up alleys was held yesterday morning — appropriately at a restaurant called "The Alley Door," which is located, you guessed it, in an alley off West Maple and Woodward, the rear of Machus Pastry Shop.

URBAN DESIGNER

The committee of service club members and business men and women heard advice from Cy Paumier, an urban designer from Ann Arbor.

He stressed the need for coordination and restraint in decoration.

Mrs. McNamee said "What we learned in the workshop will help us in other ways in the future. Our object is not only to improve alleys, but our whole way of life.

★ ★ ★

"If coming to Birmingham is pleasant and rewarding, this is broadening and a contribution to life," she said.

MAJOR ALLEYS

Mrs. McNamee stresses that six major alleys in the downtown district have become important passageways. She points out that beautification is an endeavor that can't be legislated and is a matter of individual responsibility.

Success is based on personal contacts and persuasion," she said.

Another workshop is scheduled for March 22. Meanwhile, don't be surprised if a committee member with beautification ideas comes knocking at your door. Perhaps the back door.

Mental Health Decision Eyed

Two Officials Express Optimism on Accord

Officials of both the Oakland County Community Mental Health Service Board and Pontiac State Hospital today expressed optimism over the progress of discussions on mental health jurisdiction.

At issue is a proposed agreement that would give the hospital primary jurisdiction over about one-fifth of the county population in a 14-township area.

A decision on the agreement by the mental health board may be made at the board's meeting next Friday.

Dr. Robert E. Walden, psychiatric director for the mental health board and Dr. Donald W. Martin, medical superintendent of the hospital, held a second administrative level meeting on the issue yesterday.

Both agreed that progress is being made.

ISSUES BEING RESOLVED

"Some of the issues in the agreement appear to be resolving themselves," Dr. Martin said. "I feel we have reached the basis for a real compromise and understanding."

Dr. Walden shared the optimistic outlook but noted that the 12-member mental health board has the decision responsibility on the proposed pact at the local level.

"We have had a good meeting of minds at the two meetings this week," Dr. Walden said.

Five Arrested in Local Raid Draw Fines

Five men were ordered this morning to pay fines ranging from $50 to $1,000 for their involvement in a Pontiac gambling operation.

The five were among 29 persons arrested by Pontiac and State Police in a raid on the Seaway Civic and Social Club at 118 S. Paddock on Oct. 2, 1965.

Fined $1,000 each and ordered to pay $500 court costs by Circuit Judge William J. Beer were Odus Tincher, 50, of St. Clair Shores and Anthony Bacharowski, of Highland Park.

Tincher pleaded guilty Dec. 23, 1966, to two counts, conspiracy to violate gaming laws, and violation of state gambling lawes.

★ ★ ★

Bacharowski and Thomas Misko, also of St. Clair Shores, pleaded guilty last month to violating state gambling laws.

ORDERED TO PAY

Misko was ordered to pay a $500 fine and $500 court costs.

George Mekras, 48, and Casey Harrod, 38, both of Pontiac, were fined $50 and $100, respectively, for frequenting a gambling place.

Judge Beer also invoked a conservator of the peace bond for each and said that any violation would mean a forfeiture of $2,500 of their property.

★ ★ ★

Tincher was one of three men found guilty last June of conspiring to bribe a Pontiac police officer to keep the gambling operation from being raided. The officer was working undercover for the department.

★ ★ ★

Tincher, who was sentenced from 1-to-5 years in the state prison at Jackson, and one of the other two are appealing the bribery conviction.

Sheriff Tells 3 Changes in Department

Sheriff Frank Irons announced today that three members of the department have either been promoted or reclassified.

Henry Hensen, 35, of 1895 Greenmeadow, Walled Lake, was promoted from deputy to sergeant. He has been with the department since 1958.

Promoted from deputy to sergeant and placed in charge of skin divers was Medward Tessier, 34, of 1520 Beverly, Walled Lake. He is a 10-year veteran of the department.

★ ★ ★

Lewis M. Doyle, 26, of 4401 Baywood, Waterford Township, was reclassified as chief identification technician. He joined the department in August 1965.

Avon Matter in Committee

Petitions requesting the incorporation of the Avon Township into the "City of Avon" were accelerated through the County Board of Supervisors today, and have been referred to the group's boundaries committee for study.

★ ★ ★

Filed only yesterday, the petitions have to be reviewed as to authenticity and form by the county clerk, the register of deeds and the corporation counsel before they can be acted upon by the committee.

★ ★ ★

Supervisor Cyril Miller said the board would probably act on the boundaries committee's recommendation at its February meeting.

But there were only Republicans to cheer, no Democrats to chide, when Dirksen and Ford delivered the twin speeches they said were neither replies nor rebuttals to the State of the Union message Johnson took to Congress 10 days ago.

ON GUEST LIST

Dirksen and some of his Republican colleagues were on the White House guest list for a buffet and reception a few hours before the speech.

The Republican show was produced with a minute-by-minute timetable, designed for live, network television. There was none, although the speeches were filmed and recorded for later showing.

Two radio networks — NBC and Mutual — broadcast the speeches.

★ ★ ★

Ford spliced into his speech a call for legislation "requiring television and radio to provide free and equal treatment to major parties and their spokesmen" between, as well as during, political campaigns.

★ ★ ★

Dirksen said Johnson spent 70 minutes on the air. "Tonight, we have but 27 minutes. That's not quite equal time," he said.

Ford outlined Republican domestic proposals, listing a stream of GOP offerings which have been advanced before.

He advocates increased Social Security benefits, higher payments to veterans and their families, a system of tax sharing to return some federal revenues to the states, an overhaul of the antipoverty program and the streamlining of government.

★ ★ ★

"The Republicans put their best foot backwards," said House Democratic Leader Carl Albert. "Their record is there for all to see, and it is a record of sheer indifference."

★ ★ ★

Albert said the Republican offering was "the old broken record of fear, alarm, distrust and futile carping."

2-Year Study Period Seen for Metro Transit System

It will be at least two years before recommendations are made by the comprehensive Transportation and Land Use Study (TALUS) regarding a mass transit system for metropolitan Detroit.

★ ★ ★

That's how long it will be before all the information gathered to date can be correlated and reviewed, according to Irving J. Rubin, TALUS director.

The progress of the study was reported by Rubin last night to some 100 planners from a seven-county area meeting in the supervisors auditorium at the County courthouse.

Rubin explained that data accumulated in the first 18 months of the study reveal that auto trips have increased 48 per cent since a transportation survey was taken in 1953.

★ ★ ★

Fewer trips are being made between home and work, but many more are made for shopping, personal reasons and recreation, said Rubin.

TREMENDOUS VOLUME

The tremendous volume of data, derived in interviews with 80,000 motorists and in 42,000 households, makes it impossible to arrive at any conclusions now, Rubin said.

★ ★ ★

The interviews represent a 4 per cent sample of the seven-county area. The counties are Oakland, Wayne, Macomb, Monroe, Washtenaw, Livingston and St. Clair.

When one discouraged planner asked why a mass transit plan wasn't forthcoming, Rubin answered, "If it was easy it would have been discovered a long time ago."

Fishing Slayer of Wife Gets 1½ to 15 Years

An Avon Township man who went fishing after killing his wife was sentenced yesterday to 1½-to-15 years in the state prison at Jackson.

★ ★ ★

The prison term was ordered for Jack W. Young, 34, of 3940 Crooks by Oakland County Circuit Judge Arthur E. Moore.

Young was allowed to plead guilty to manslaughter Dec. 14 rather than stand trial on a first-degree murder charge. The prosecution could not establish that the crime had been premediated.

Mrs. Young, 30, was found bludgeoned to death in her home June 20 last year.

★ ★ ★

Young was arrested the following day in Unionville in Tuscola County by detectives from the Oakland County Sheriff's office. They said he had gone fishing with a friend.

★ ★ ★

Moore recommended to authorities that Young undergo psychiatric treatment while serving his sentence.

Architects Get Go-Ahead

Concept Plans on New Facility OK'd

The Waterford Township Board of Education last night approved concept plans for the proposed new Crescent Lake Elementary School and directed architects O'Dell, Hewlett and Luckenbach, Inc., of Birmingham to proceed with further preliminary design.

★ ★ ★

Approved by school district voters last June 13 as part of a $4.8-million bonding proposal, the school is earmarked for a 10-acre site fronting on Prentis Street.

The property has yet to be acquired, but school officials are taking steps in that direction.

Budgeted for the new building is $594,500.

★ ★ ★

The plans call for 12 classrooms, two kindergartens, a gymnasium-multipurpose room, a learning center, a lecture center and two conference rooms.

Related Story, Page A-8

GROUP FACILITY

The learning center, conducive to large group functions, is to be centrally located to all classrooms.

According to concept plans, it will adjoin the lecture center, with a sound-proof folding door separating the two facilities.

Equipped with a stage, the lecture center would cater to a conversational type of educational program. It could accommodate about three classrooms of pupils.

The multipurpose room complex is to consist of a stage, a PTA kitchen, storage space and offices.

★ ★ ★

The architects suggested carpeting the hallways of the building pointing out the educational advantages.

Also mentioned for future consideration was an addition behind the main building, possibly to house the upper elementary grades.

School officials are hopeful the one-story structure will be completed by next January.

In addition, federal funds are bejng applied for to develop an exemplary elementary school program in the building.

Apparent Low Bid Way Over Estimates

A local firm submitted the apparent low base bid of $105,479 last night for an interior remodeling project at Waterford Township High School.

Outbidding three other companies was Leon Blachura builders of Waterford Township. Base bids ranged upwards to $142,439.

A representative from the architectural firm of Wakely Kushner Associates, Inc., of St. Clair Shores said bids were about 30 per cent higher than the estimated cost of the project.

Alternate bids for additional optional construction, if accepted by the administration and board of educatoin, would add another $15,000 to the cost.

★ ★ ★

The project includes creation of a second floor art center and homemaking facilities.

CONVERT FIRST FLOOR

The first floor space, now occupied by the art and homemaking departments, will be converted into offices and a storage space:

Corridors also will be electrified and a new stairwell will be constructed.

The bids were referred to Wakely Kushner for study and recommendations.

★ ★ ★

Bids will be opened at the board's Feb. 2 meeting for football bleachers at Waterford Kettering High School.

PLANS APPROVED

The board approved final plans last night and directed Wakely Kushner to advertise for bids.

Estimated to cost $45,000, the bleachers will be equipped with 1,800 seats. The existing stands will be relocated to the west side of the field.

To be constructed of a steel underframe with a concrete deck, the structure is earmarked for completion prior to next football season. There will be 17 rows with five exits.

★ ★ ★

Optional construction sought, if and when sufficient funds are available, include a pressbox, drainage improvement, blacktopping a driveway, a concession stand and toilet facilities.

Storage space for driver education cars and athletic equipment also is planned for under the stands.

Take Care of Teeth, Heart Next Month

LANSING (AP) — February should be the month to teach children to take care of their teeth and adults to take care of their hearts.

Gov. George Romney Thursday proclaimed February as Heart Education Month in Michigan and Feb. 5-11 as Children's Dental Health Week.

He also proclaimed February as Apprenticeship and Training Month, Feb. 12-18 as Independent Grocers Week, and Feb. 16 as Lithuanian Independence Day.

Hart Boosts Poverty War

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Administration's War on Poverty should continue even if it means a tax increase, Sen. Philip A. Hart declared Thursday.

★ ★ ★

Rebuffing Republican suggestions that a tax boost can be avoided by trimming domestic programs, the Michigan Democrat told a news conference a long-range perspective places the War on Poverty in a class with that in Vietnam.

★ ★ ★

"And it's a long war we face against poverty," Hart added. "We can no more afford to lose it than any other war we have ever fought in our history.

★ ★ ★

"It ought not to require fear of going out on the streets at night before the public awakes to the need for corrective action," he continued. "This is a situation which builds up for years, and it will take years to remedy."

State Faces Fiscal Reckoning Day

Although Gov. ROMNEY has yet to submit his fiscal 1967-68 budget to the legislature, it is clear that this is the year of truth for Michigan's financial well-being.

ROMNEY

The State is now spending money faster than it is taking it in, and the $167 million treasury surplus on hand last July 1 will, according to estimates, have melted down to $45 million by the end of fiscal 1967.

Spending for fiscal 1968 (beginning July 1) is seen approximating a record $1.2 billion. Unless the estimated $925 million income for the current fiscal year is substantially increased, Michigan will wind up with a whopping $230 million deficit on July 1, 1968 (the maximum permitted by the 1963 constitution).

Faced with so grim an outlook, it is imperative that the State find new sources of revenue. This leads directly to the Governor's twice-rejected tax reform program that is keyed to an income tax.

★ ★ ★

The program, if past proposals are a guide, would embrace plusses and minuses in the State's tax structure. With the adoption of a corporate and personal income tax, a reduction in property tax, repeal of the business activities tax and repeal or revision of the intangibles tax are probabilities. An expected increase in cigarette tax would be softened by likelihood of a credit to individual income tax payers related to sales tax paid.

Michigan's future financial solvency is dependent to great extent on the Governor's success in selling his tax package to the Legislature. If it takes past form, we consider it a sound program meriting the support of legislators and the citizenry at large.

Federal Highway Act Sets Safety Price on States

As part of implementing the 1966 Highway Safety Act, the Government has proposed a nine-point program, including such things as:

- Eye examinations for all drivers;
- Helmets for motorcyclists and their passengers;
- Mandatory checking of drivers' prior records before issuing new licenses;
- Driver training programs and yearly auto inspections.

In connection with the latter, it is interesting to note that while only 20 states have any kind of motor vehicle inspection requirement, every one of the 50 has severe laws against pornography. Although pornography is reprehensible, it hardly poses the threat to life that does presence on our highways of unqualified or irresponsible drivers.

The states are going to have to comply, however. If they don't, not only will they continue to lose lives unnecessarily but they will also stand to forfeit a portion of their Federal highway aid.

Money talks, even if dead drivers don't.

Sees Need to Repair Divorce-Broken Lives

At least 400,000 couples annually turn from matrimony to divorce. Six out of seven eventually remarry, most of them permanently.

That being a fact, what we need as much as marriage counselors are divorce counselors, argues writer MORTON M. HUNT. He suggests that our belief that there is no such thing as a bad marriage and that all of them should be saved is archaic. It is like a doctor refusing to consider surgery to remove an ulcer when all other cures have failed.

Hunt cites a survey in one midwestern county where, in 1965, 11,000 couples filed for divorce and were offered counseling. Only 401 couples accepted the offer, and only about a quarter of these were reconciled.

But no counseling was available to the 10,599 others to help smooth the often bitter process of divorce and provide follow-up aid during the wrenching adjustment to single life.

Divorce counseling, he believes, could avoid much of the misery involved in marital breakups and maximize the chances of success in a second marriage.

★ ★ ★

But it will take, says HUNT, "a courageous—perhaps even foolhardy—legislator, philanthropist or agency director to violate our national shibboleths and publicly sponsor a Division of Divorce Counseling. But such a man would deserve the gratitude of his society for an act genuinely contributing to the American ideal of a happy marriage."

Do we hear a second to the motion?

1967 Is a Conservative Year

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON — The liberal impulse in this new 90th Congress already looks beaten. Not that it won't keep trying to prevail. But the odds are against it.

MARLOW

The mood of liberalism had its most shining hour, perhaps for years to come, in the 89th Congress. There the Democrats completely dominated, thanks to the 1964 elections which swept in a wave of liberals.

But in this 90th Congress, this time thanks to the 1966 elections, the mood and the people are more conservative.

Three recent events show it.

★ ★ ★

The vote to keep the playboy-preacher-politician Democrat from Harlem, Rep. Adam Clayton Powell, from taking his House seat until he can be investigated; the vote making it tougher to get action from the House Rules Committee; and the obvious defeat of an attempt to make it easier to kill a Senate filibuster.

REPUBLICANS GAIN

In the 1966 elections the Republicans gained 47 House seats and three in the Senate where Democrats outnumber them 64 to 36.

Although they still look vastly outnumbered there, the Republicans' leader, Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, is a powerful voice and influence, both of them highly conservative.

As the year goes on Dirksen will be the dominant conservative force in the Senate where a coalition of Republicans and Southern Democrats could stymie a lot of Johnson programs.

★ ★ ★

But in the House that coalition has already been in operation.

On opening day Jan. 10 the coalition deprived Powell of his seat, which he had held 22 years, until a special committee investigates his qualifications. This action did not specifically spell out the complaint against him.

But the argument related to two main questions: The findings of a House committee that he had many personal trips at taxpayers' expense; and a criminal contempt of court charge against him in New York after a verdict against him for defamation of character.

On the key vote 126 Democrats, almost all outside the South, and no Republicans were on his side. Against him were 119 Democrats, mostly from the South, and 186 Republicans, for a total of 305.

★ ★ ★

Then the coalition of Republicans and Southern Democrats teamed up to abolish a rule requiring the House Rules Committee, often a bottleneck for liberal legislation, to report out a bill within a reasonable time.

'You Have A Visitor From Moscow, Mr. Chairman!'

David Lawrence Says:

Oswald Red Link Is Overlooked

WASHINGTON—The Soviet press has been getting away with a lot of misleading comments about the motives of Lee Harvey Oswald, and seems to have ignored completely the fact that the assassin of President Kennedy was deeply influenced in his thinking by Marxism and communism.

LAWRENCE

The Literary Gazette, published in Moscow, had the effrontery this week to charge that Gov. Ronald Reagan of California is "controlled by the forces which took John Kennedy's life."

So far as American observers are concerned, they have been inclined for a long time to believe that Oswald was just a "crackpot." But if there is to be a reexamination of what really influenced Oswald's life, the facts can be found in the Warren Commission report.

They show clearly that there was no Hitlerism or Fascism involved — as is now claimed by the Soviet newspaper.

The Warren Commission report says it could not make any "definitive determination" of Oswald's motives, but it mentions this factor:

"His avowed commitment to Marxism and communism, as he understood the terms and developed his own interpretation of them; this was expressed by his antagonism toward the United States, by his defection to the Soviet Union, by his failure to be reconciled with life in the United States even after his disenchantment with the Soviet Union, and by his efforts, though frustrated, to go to Cuba."

LITTLE ATTENTION

Very little attention has been given in the American press to the impact on Oswald's mind which resulted from his identification with communism.

Recently Henry J. Taylor, the newspaper columnist who was American ambassador to Switzerland under the Eisenhower administration, published a series of articles which reported that Oswald had a key contact with an officer in the Soviet intelligence service and had written letters to Soviet Embassy officials as late as Nov. 9, 1963.

Taylor pointed out that Oswald received preferential treatment in the Soviet Union and declared that he was affiliated "with the Communist cause and its personnel up to the very moment he died."

At the time Oswald was in Moscow, he wrote to his brother:

"In event of war I would kill any American who put a uniform on in defence of the American government — any American."

There is no doubt that Oswald had an unbalanced mind. But responsibility for unbalancing it rests to some extent on the Communist philosophy in which he was indoctrinated during his two-year stay in Russia.

Capital Letter:

Sen. Curtis Is Bubbling With Legislative Ideas

By RUTH MONTGOMERY

WASHINGTON — Nebraska GOP Sen. Carl T. Curtis, fresh from a third-term reelection triumph by the biggest margin of his political career, is bubbling with fresh legislative ideas.

Ruth Montgomery

One piece of Curtis - sponsored legislation would require uniform closing of the nation's polls in a presidential election, to prevent TV computers from proclaiming the victor before many West Coast and Hawaiian voters had even cast their ballots.

Another would replace the war on poverty's strife-ridden Job Corps with a federally supported program for expanded vocational and technical schools, to be locally administered by the existing school systems.

The conservative Republican thinks both measures accurately reflect the prevailing sentiment of the Midwest and much of the nation.

The American people, he says, are "totally dissatisfied with the war on poverty.

"I do not believe that they lack desire to help the unfortunate," he declares, "but they see that despite enormous expenditures and bureaucratic centralization of authority, very few poor people are actually being aided."

The senator's smashing reelection seems indicative of a growing disenchantment with Great Society projects in his area.

Curtis says he is convinced that state and local governments would make good use of federal funds to expand vocational and technical training programs for potential dropouts, because competition for attracting new industries is so great.

"It would be in each state's interest to make a success of the program," he reasons, "since industry goes where trained manpower is available."

Curtis is directing careful research before drawing up the final legislation which he will introduce next month.

A decision is yet to be made on whether the Head Start program could also be incorporated, by having local school boards administer the preschool training program for 4- and 5-year-olds.

Congress will probably lend a far more attentive ear, however, to the uniform poll-closing bill that Curtis dropped in the hopper last week.

Concern is mounting over the effect that electronic computer findings, broadcast from New York shortly after Eastern and Midwest polls close, may have on later voters in the Mountain, West Coast, and Alaska-Hawaii time zones.

'Recent Copy of Press Traveled Many Miles'

A copy of the December 13 issue of The Pontiac Press has made a safe return from its trip around the world. My son, Gerald B. Griffiths A.N., is aboard the aircraft carrier U.S.S. Coral Sea, stationed somewhere in Far East waters. He was pleased when he found it was possible to have The Pontiac Press sent overseas. "Like a little bit of home, mom," he says.

He recently sent a package home with souvenirs of Hong Kong. Two carved wooden figurines were cafefully wrapped in the December 13 Pontiac Press.

★ ★ ★

The Coral Sea crew recently had a five-day stay in Hong Kong. My son states that while the Far East is exciting and interesting, he "saw a lot of poverty and terrible living conditions." He said, "it sure makes a guy appreciate being an American, being from the good old U.S.A."

'Appreciate Cooperation in Public Service'

This is to let everyone know that we are no longer connected with the parking lot at Huron and Saginaw. We appreciate the cooperation while we were operating the parking lot for the Oakland County Board of Auditors. It was a pleasure to serve the public of the Pontiac area.

'Goodwill and Kindness Left Warm Glow'

With Christmas 1966 over and forgotten by many, there still remains others who are left with a warm glow that will last a lifetime. Through the goodwill and kindness of many wonderful people, my nine children were provided with heat, food and toys for a never-to-be-forgotten Christmas.

'Working Class Can't Afford Another Tax'

Romney says tax reform, which means personal income tax, is the first order of business. Johnson says a surtax is a necessity to pay for Vietnam. I say we Americans are taxed to death and we can't afford to pay another tax and make ends meet.

★ ★ ★

Why didn't either of these honorable men bring up this subject before election? Can't anyone find a way to cut spending? The burden of taxes is breaking America's back.

THE WORKING CLASS THAT PAYS THE BILL

Question and Answer

Is there anything, other than having an unlisted telephone number, to keep magazine and construction company salesmen from calling all hours of the day for the purpose of advertising and selling?

NO NAME PLEASE

REPLY

Mr. Greek of Michigan Bell Telephone Public Relations says no. So long as a number is listed, anyone can dial it. Unless the government passes a law prohibiting telephone soliciting, your only recourse is to have an unpublished number.

Strike Control

Chicago Tribune

Republican leaders in the Illinois Senate have introduced a bill which would deprive public employes of their pension rights if they go on strike. Sen. W. Russell Arrington, the majority leader, said the measure was prompted by the recent strikes and strike threats by public school teachers in Chicago.

★ ★ ★

"Public employes must find different ways to register discontent," he said. "The common good demands this because uncontrolled striking by nurses, teachers, policemen, firemen and the like could result in an awful anarchy which would leave the public defenseless.

"To prevent future public strikes, we suggest a suspension of retirement benefits. If flagrant disregard of the public interest continues, more stringent regulation will come."

★ ★ ★

Strikes by public employes have been declared illegal by the Illinois Supreme court, but there is no statute on the subject in this state. Repeatedly the General Assembly has refused to pass bills authorizing collective bargaining by public employes. In the last session such a bill was shelved in the House committee on municipalities, controlled by the Democrats. The measure would have established a fact finding procedure for use if negotiations reached an impasse.

★ ★ ★

Fifteen other states and the federal government have laws forbidding strikes by public employes. The federal law makes participation in a strike a felony. Some state laws declare that engaging in a public employe strike amounts to a forfeiture of the striker's job.

★ ★ ★

Virginia prohibits reinstatement of a striker in public employment for 12 months. The laws of Minnesota, New York, Ohio, and Pennsylvania stipulate that a striker shall not be rehired at a higher wage than the one he was getting when he struck. Other penalties include forfeiture of a union's bargaining rights and fines directed against the union treasury.

Experience here and in other states indicates that legislation in this field is worthless unless public officials have the courage to enforce it. When a strike involves a public service that requires the special skills of a large number of employes, the strikers must be rehired, if normal service is to be restored. The transit strike which crippled New York City early in 1966 was ended by giving the strikers what they wanted, although this action violated the state's antistrike law. When a court held the settlement illegal, the state legislature enacted an emergency law relieving the union members from the penalties.

The legislature should forbid organized work stoppages of all kinds and should impose penalties which do not require action by local government officials. They are inclined to be timorous mollycoddles in dealing with labor unions. The legislature should try to protect the taxpayers.

Ky's Image on the Rise in Australia

BRISBANE, Australia (AP) — Premier Nguyen Cao Ky's image has improved considerably in Australia's press since he arrived two days ago to thank the Australians for sending troops to South Vietnam.

★ ★ ★

Newspapers which before Ky's arrival intimated he wasn't wanted took a friendlier line as he completed a 42-hour stay in Canberra and flew to Brisbane to visit a jungle training camp.

★ ★ ★

Ky's visit to Canberra, the capital, was marked by sparse turnouts for demonstrations against the dapper premier. Arthur A. Calwell, leader of the opposition Labor party, has promised to lead massive demonstrations against Ky, but so far the demonstrations have been small, and hecklers often have been drowned out by the applause of friendly crowds.

BIG TEST

However, the big test will come when Ky visits Sydney and Melbourne, Australia's two biggest cities.

★ ★ ★

The newspapers made much of Ky's statement at a news conference Thursday that he would prefer to mingle with the people rather than be whisked from place to place.

Auto Safety Unit Sworn In

WASHINGTON (AP)—The 17 members of the National Motor Vehicle Safety Advisory Council were sworn into office Thursday by Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, who said the group can provide "invaluable perspective" for highway safety.

★ ★ ★

The council is composed partly of automotive industry representatives, but the majority are public members. The chairman is Dr. Thomas Malone, vice president and director of research for the Travelers Insurance Companies, Hartford, Conn.

★ ★ ★

The swearing-in came as the department continued to draft the final safety standards it must publish by Jan. 31 for 1968 model cars.

★ ★ ★

The industry already has said it is unable to meet some of the 23 proposed standards. The department's only comment thus far is that it is evaluating all comments from the industry and other statements it has received and plans to meet the Jan. 31 deadline fixed by law.

NATION'S ECONOMY

Humphrey said the nation's economy will be a major beneficiary of the highway safety program. The protection of human lives, the nation's most precious resource, adds very measurably to society's wealth, Humphrey said.

Old Pro Sees LBJ Win in '68

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Former Democratic National Chairman James A. Farley called on President Johnson yesterday and said afterwards that Johnson "is bound to run and bound to win" in 1968.

Farley said Johnson's likeliest Republican opponents would appear to be former Vice President Richard M. Nixon or Michigan Gov. George Romney.

Farley said he thought "it would be a great thing for the Democratic party if either one of them is the nominee."

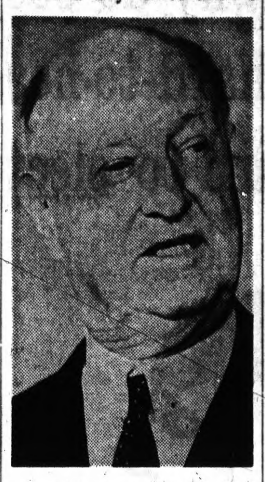

Farley, 78, a top executive of the Coca-Cola Co., said he did not discuss with Johnson the prospect of the president running for reelection.

He said they talked about a wide range of matters, including visits both he and the president had made to New Zealand and Australia last year.

Farley said that despite his decline in public opinion polls and other setbacks, Johnson was "in good shape" politically.

As for Romney, Farley said that "sooner or later, Gov. Romney has got to make known his position on certain issues on which he seems to be stalling."

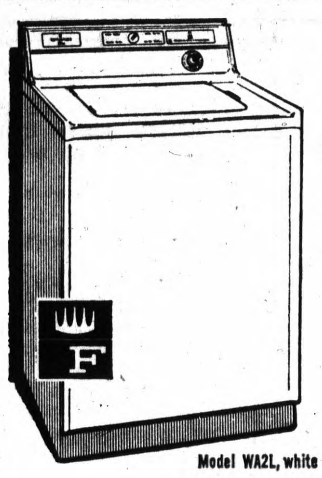

Nixon has "made the strongest contribution" to the Republican party and "there isn't any doubt he is the strongest candidate among those fellows now," Farley said.

Citizens' Finance Study Committee Will Be Formed

Formation of a citizens' school finance study committee to recommend a course of action for future local financing of Waterford Township schools was authorized last night by the board of education.

The action followed a recommendation by Supt. of Schools Dr. Don O. Tatroe.

The committee will be asked to study the financial condition of the district and to consider a long term plan for reasonable local support.

Existing and anticipated state and federal funds, trends in property tax valuations and the growth of the district and its education program also will be examined.

★ ★ ★

Tatroe pointed out that in 1968 the district's present 15-mill operating tax authority will expire.

Waterford School Affairs

"In the 1968-69 school year, a new high school will open to serve the community and additional funds will be required to operate this new facility," said Tatroe.

"The committee should suggest a time for renewing its taxing authority and consider the need for the authority to encompass the new school as well," he added.

Target date for completion of the study is May 4.

★ ★ ★

In other business last night, board member Eldon C. Rosegart was unanimously elected chaplain, succeeding Robert Field who became president of the group Jan. 5.

8-YEAR VETERAN

An eight-year veteran of the school board, Rosegart of 2983 Shawnee, Waterford Township, is employed with Oakland Schools as assistant superintendent for state and federal affairs.

Robert Lawyer, acting director of the Township Recreation Department, resigned from the community school and recreation advisory board. No replacement was immediately named.

In other business, the board accepted a quotation of $2,800 from Harry G. Hayes, Inc., of Hazel Park for 20 window and sash replacements at Drayton Plains Elementary School.

★ ★ ★

The board set Feb. 2 to conduct a union grievance hearing for three school district employes who have lodged complaints about the way the food service program is administered.

In still other business, two resignations were accepted and a teaching contract was approved.

Italian Art Fund

DETROIT (AP) — A total of $67,400 has been contributed by Michigan residents to the Committee to Rescue Italian Art Inc., cochairmen Mrs. Henry Ford II and F. Hartz Cinelli said Thursday. The money will go toward salvage and repair work of Renaissance documents and works of art damaged in the November floods in Florence and Venice, Italy.

Why do people with hard-to-heat rooms turn to electric heat?

It's pure and simple

Electric heat is the clean, modern heat—no flame, no fumes. It's a snap to install—costs less, too—because it's more compact and needs no flue. And only electric heat is 100% efficient; the heat is created right where it's used.
It's also economical. You can buy an attractive, low-operating-cost unit for as little as $35-$40 (plus thermostat and installation). And we're talking about a unit that can turn a 12′ x 20′ polar region into a tropical delight. Just dial the exact warmth you want, and you get it. Comfortable heat from head to feet.
So why shiver your timbers in a chilly bedroom, den, or basement any longer? There's a low-cost electric heating unit for every situation, including yours. Give us a call. We'll send an Edison Heating Specialist to discuss equipment, installation, and operating cost with you. There's no obligation, of course.

W. A. Goodman Resigns as Manager of State Fair

DETROIT (AP) — Walter A. Goodman, 40, general manager of the Michigan State Fair, announced his resignation Thursday, effective at a date convenient to the Michigan State Fair Authority. He said he would not serve beyond the Sept. 1 expiration date of his five-year contract.

A new general manager will be named for the 1967 State Fair Aug. 25-Sept. 4, the Fair Authority said.

★ ★ ★

In a report to the Fair Authority, Goodman said that under his administration the Fair reversed a loss trend in 1962 and has turned a profit each year since. The 1966 profit was $178,444. All profits were turned back to the Fair for improvements, Goodman said.

DR. ANTON BRENNER

Interest Is High in Preschoolers

Teacher Response to Talks Overwhelming

Oakland County teachers are interested in preschoolers — overwhelmingly interested. Oakland Schools officials can testify.

They scheduled for tomorrow a half-day workshop on "Prekindergarten Identification of Children Who Become Reading Problems."

Response was so enthusiastic, they've been forced to slate another session for Feb. 18 to handle the overflow in registrations.

With room for 155 at the workshop in the Oakland Schools headquarters, more than 250 teachers registered.

★ ★ ★

Featured speaker at the 9 a.m. program will be Dr. Anton Brenner of the Merrill-Palmer Institute in Detroit.

DETERMINING FACTORS

Brenner, a member of the human development faculty at the institute, will discuss factors which determine whether a preschooler is ready to learn reading and number skills.

★ ★ ★

He has developed a brief test which predicts with a high degree of reliability the success a preschooler will achieve in the next two or three years.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Virginia Svagr, director of the Oakland Schools reading clinic, will discuss "Prekindergarten Measurement and Evaluation."

U.S. Confirms N-Warhead Multiplicity

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Official disclosure that the latest American missiles will have multiple nuclear warheads adds a significant new figure to the balance sheet of East-West might.

Though the U. S. officials who revealed the development yesterday would go no farther than bare confirmation, the introduction of multiple-warhead weapons appeared clearly linked with Russia's current deployment of missile defenses.

Just how much U.S. officials expect the resulting increase in missile striking power to offset Moscow's stronger defenses in the balance of power is not being discussed in public.

But it is certain to weigh heavily in the administration's present study of whether to go ahead with an enormously costly antimissile defense system here.

★ ★ ★

The missile U. S. officials specifically mentioned as a multiwarhead weapon was the Poseidon.

This intercontinental ballistic missile ultimately will be carried by nuclear-powered submarines of the type now armed with Polaris missiles.

Jets Pound N. Viet Rail Yards, Lines

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) — American bombers hammered at North Vietnamese rail yards and main rail lines Thursday for the fourth straight day but two of the planes and four fliers did not return, U.S. military headquarters reported today.

Many of the strikes were against the northeast line, along "MIG Valley" in the Red River Delta, but there was no report of any MIGs rising to challenge the American raiders.

Ground fighting in South Vietnam was confined to small, scattered engagements, but allied commanders reported a series of clashes from the southern tip of the country through the northern provinces.

South Vietnamese headquarters reported a government force of regimental size — about 1,500 men — launched a search-and-destroy sweep in southernmost An Xuyen Province and in the first day killed 16 Vietcong. This was one of five scattered operations in which the Vietnamese command said a total of 43 Vietcong were killed. Casualties to government troops were reported light in all five.

Vietnamese headquarters also reported that government troops repulsed a mortar and ground attack against a military post 60 miles southwest of Saigon in the Mekong Delta. A spokesman said 15 Vietcong were killed and government casualties were light.

In the northern province of Thua Thien, the U.S. Marine base camp and airstrip at Phu Bai, 10 miles southeast of Hue, was hit by 30 to 35 mortar rounds today, but U.S. headquarters said U.S. casualties and damage to equipment were light.

The two planes that went down Thursday raised the total reported lost in the air war against the north to 462. North Vietnam claimed three planes were shot down Thursday.

One of the planes lost was a carrier-based Navy A6 Intruder and the other was an Air Force F4C Phantom jet. Each carried two men who were listed as missing. U.S. headquarters said the cause of the crashes was not known.

Air Force jet bombers pounded three railroad yards 50 to 60 miles northeast of Hanoi, and pilots report damage to rail lines and boxcars.

Airport Facilities Trail Growth

categories: Airline, general and local.

About 57 per cent of Pontiac's total air traffic is general and 42 per cent local. Airline traffic accounts for less than 1 per cent.

★ ★ ★

General air traffic covers both commercial and private, nonairline flights which are not locally based craft.

SECOND IN STATE

Pontiac is second in the state in general air traffic.

Possibly the most outstanding feature of Pontiac's traffic is that total operations remain among the highest in Michigan while the airline traffic is miserably low.

No breakdown is available yet for the 1966 calendar year, but figures for the fiscal year last summer showed Pontiac with 1,392 airline takeoffs and landings.

★ ★ ★

This was lowest of the eight top airports in Michigan. The only other airport with less than 10,000 was Kalamazoo with 7,706.

SHOULD IMPROVE

"This should improve when we complete our breakdown of the 1966 calendar year total," VanderVeen said. "The new airline taxi service (Standard Airways) runs about 12 flights daily compared to two offered by its predecessor (North Central Airlines)."

North Central suspended operations here Aug. 1. Standard started its air taxi service to Detroit Metropolitan Airport about two months later.

The Pontiac airport has also gained in locally based aircraft, according to VanderVeen.

★ ★ ★

There are approximately 350 aircraft based here now. About 225 were based here one year ago.

MAJOR IMPROVEMENTS

Which brings us back to the need for major improvements at the airport.

"Oakland County has more registered aircraft and aircraft owners than any county in the state according to the Michigan Aeronautics and Space Association," VanderVeen said.

★ ★ ★

Yet it still lacks an ILS and a major runway system that would eliminate having to land in a crosswind. These are facilities offered by most other major airports in Michigan including many that rank below us in traffic.

Cherry Bill Passage Eyed

AP REGIONAL SERVICE

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Philip Hart, D-Mich., says there s a good chance the present Congress will pass legislation o permit establishment of a national marketing order on cherries if a two-thirds majority of growers favor it.

Hart made the comment Thursday in reintroducing a bill to let the farmers make the determination. Processors now have a voice in the decision.

★ ★ ★

"Hearings were held on the bill in the House last year and I think its chances in this Congress are good," said Hart.

Legalized Liquor Boon to Mississippi

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Legal liquor is a financial bonanza to Mississippi, compared to the state's old "black market tax" on bootleggers.

The Alcoholic Beverage Control Division reports the state received $6,140,570 in liquor income during the six months since statewide "prohibition" ended.

★ ★ ★

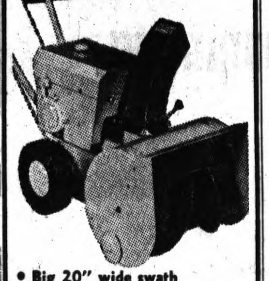

The old black market tax, a levy imposed by the state on products which could not be sold in the state legally, yielded Mississippi about $2.5 million a year.

Thailand, Viet Red Movements Differ

EDITOR'S NOTE — Thailand's battle against a Communist insurgency in its northeast has raised the specter of another Vietnam. But AP writer Fred Hoffman has found promising differences.

By FRED HOFFMAN

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP) — Striking similarities exist between the Communist insurgent movement now being fought in Thailand and that in South Vietnam, which grew into a major military struggle.

But the differences between the two are more numerous — and in every case favor the West against the Communists.

★ ★ ★

As in Vietnam, the rebellion in Thailand is supported and fostered from North Vietnam and Red China.

Red China began trying to bring off a Communist takeover in Thailand 17 years ago with the establishment of the "Free Thai Movement" and has greatly intensified its efforts in the last three years.

NORTH VIET SUPPORT

Thai Premier Thanom Kittikachorn asserted in mid-December that his government has "definite evidence" to prove that North Vietnam is supporting and nourishing the Communist terrorism.

Most U.S. and Thai authorities say the insurgents, whose numbers are generally estimated at about 1,000, are largely indigenous, as they were in South Vietnam at the start.

★ ★ ★

The Thai dissidents are using methods tried and proven effective by the Vietcong. They have set out to terrorize the villagers and cow them into submission and support. They are striking at authority by assassinating and molesting local officials and teachers.

In both countries, the central government has a history of being remote and to a considerable extent disinterested in the well-being of peasants upcountry.

CORRUPTION

Local police and government functionaries in both countries have a history of corruption and exploitation of villagers and peasants.

But there are fundamental differences, some of which are rooted deep in centuries of tradition, history and institutions.

★ ★ ★

The Thai insurgents lack the patriotic glamor of the Vietcong — they cannot, like the Vietnamese guerrillas, claim to be carrying forward a war for independence.

Thailand never was a colony, as Indochina was under the French for a century. Thai institutions evolved over 600 years of nationhood.

A COUNTRY

"This is a country — not a bunch of people in search of an identity," one student of Thailand's history observes.

"Nobody ever came in and ripped up the political and social values and institutions by the roots."

★ ★ ★

Although there is discontent in the northeast, observers say the villages are not in ferment, "a seething mass of discontented people just is not here."

The Thai government is an authoritarian one, run by a military oligarchy. But it is not a "hell-on-the-neck" dictatorship.

NO ENTHUSIASM

While there appears to be no great enthusiasm for the military-led government, there seems to be no great resentment either.

In short, the Thais are politically passive.

Even students, normally the most volatile elements in many countries, are seemingly docile.

★ ★ ★

At a recent soccer game between two national universities, some students carried placards saying: "We are waiting for the constitution" — an appointed assembly has been drafting a constitution for eight years.

Government leaders forecast completion of the new document by midyear, with elections to follow in about six months.

SOME OPPOSITION

There is some opposition to this idea among powerful elements of the military oligarchy ruling Thailand. The last elections more than nine years ago were nullified by the military leaders.

★ ★ ★

Although King Bhumibol, 39, is only a constitutional monarch, he is a unifying influence among the people and a tempering influence on the military government chiefs.

★ ★ ★

Not even the Communist insurgents criticize the royal family.

"There is in being a very effective government that recognizes the problem in the northeast and is moving to meet it at a very early stage," said an American political expert.

In Vietnam, the government of President Ngo Dinh Diem was only about three years old when the Vietcong began the campaign of assassination and terror.

Diem never exercised more than slight political control over most of South Vietnam — and there were sizable Communist strongholds, entirely denied to him and his forces.

★ ★ ★

The apparatus of Vietnamese local government, such as it was, was ripped apart after the Vietcong began open armed attacks in 1960.

The reverse is true in Thailand, although local government certainly has been deficient in the northeast.

'NATION BUILDING'

In Vietnam, the difficulty of accomplishing "nation building" while the country is racked by war still defies solution.

Apart from all these factors, there is one more whose importance cannot be dismissed — religion.

★ ★ ★

"Buddhism here is a cohesive, a binding presence—over there, it was divisive," said an American who lived through the Buddhist-fomented unrest in Vietnam.

Obese Persons Said Incurable

Control Lies in Diet, Nutrition, Education

NEW YORK (UPI) — Obesity not only has been classified as a disease but as an incurable disease. However, the medical classifier, Dr. S. K. Fineberg, who is recognized as a scientific authority, holds out some hope for the obese.

The disease can be controlled, as diabetes and hypertension can be controlled, but as with them, a lifetime of treatment is required, he said, and unlike them, relatively simple drug treatment is not enough.

Obesity is the medical term for the body state most people call being overweight or being fat. Medically, when a person's weight is 10 to 20 per cent above the average for age, height and sex, that person is obese.

Medical authorities consider obesity America's No. 1 low-key public health problem because an always increasing number of Americans become obese, due almost entirely to eating too much while exercising too little. Obesity leads to heart trouble and other life-shortening conditions.

The control of obesity requires the obese to accept a permanent new way of living and "without mental adjustment to this fact the lifetime control of obesity is not possible," Fineberg said in the Technical Journal of the American Geriatrics Society.

"The foundation of successful weight reduction is the indoctrination or education of the patient in diet, caloric dietetics and good nutrition," he said.

"The patient must learn from his physician what the essential food groups are and the approximate caloric values of everything he eats. He must also learn from experience the daily caloric allowance which he must not exceed to maintain his reduced weight," Fineberg said.

Aussies War Against Dogs

By Science Service

SYDNEY, Australia—War has been declared on the wild dogs called dingoes in the Blue Mountains of New South Wales, 50 miles from Sydney.

More than 20,000 poisoned baits in the form of strychnine-impregnated brisket fat have been dropped from the air over otherwise inaccessible parts of the area.

This is the first time aerial poisoning has been tried in the mountains. More than 200 of the dingoes, that prey on sheep flocks for miles around, have been destroyed there by trapping since 1962.

WHO WILL IT BE?—Groves High School American Field Service student Patcheree Vattanakul from Thailand checks the costumes of Mr. Groves contestants. The boys are (from left) Dan Balchunas of 30860 Rock Creek and John Otto of 19781 Cherryhill, both of Southfield; Ted Felker of 5895 Raven, Bloomfield Township; and Mark Crorey of 5450 Putnam, West Bloomfield Township.

Help Finance AFS Students

Groves Homerooms Begin Fund Drives

By LEESA MATTHEWS

Groves High School homerooms are preparing for their American Field Service (AFS) earning ventures.

Each year homerooms compete for the honor of earning the most toward helping finance the next year's AFS students.

The three Junior homerooms that raise the most money will have the three students in their classes.

During the week of Feb. 13, homerooms sell just about anything that will bring in a profit, including candy (tons of it), doughnuts, bagels (they really bring in the dough), cafeteria tray service and game tickets for turtle races.

★ ★ ★

One of the most unusual projects for this year is the Mr. Groves contest sponsored by homeroom A-4.

ONE NOMINATION

Each homeroom has been asked to nominate one boy to participate.

Judging is to be based on originality of attire (each boy must dress for the occasion), talent (in something), and beauty.

Semifinals will be held Feb. 6, at which time a panel of judges will decide on the 10 finalists.

★ ★ ★

These 10 boys will compete the night of Feb. 7 before an audience.

WINNER'S PRIZE

The winner's prize is a 1968 Cougar. (Unfortunately, it is just a model car. A-4 doesn't expect to earn that much!)

Money will come in by selling tickets to the performance.

Although this is the most original idea, the homerooms that expect to earn the most are the ones sponsoring sock hops.

★ ★ ★

Two have done so already, and each took in well over $100 profit.

YULE DECORATIONS

One homeroom sold Christmas decorations outside of school. Another, during the lunch hour, sold booster buttons with either '67, '68 or '69 for the different classes.

For a small charge anyone who'd like to see the movie "The Cardinal" may do so. It will be presented Feb. 15 and 16 in the Groves Little Theater.

A list of a few of the homerooms projects:

- A shoe shine is available for a nominal fee during lunch hour.
- A Combo Clash is to be held tomorrow with nine bands participating and D.J. Pat Murphy.
- The physical education teachers will be in favor of the gym clothes washing service.
- In the same vein as the Mr. Groves contest there will be a beauty contest.
- Besides candy and other edibles, voodoo dolls resembling students' most hated teachers, all-occasion cards, magazines and yo-yos will be sold.

The Student Council has launched a program to increase its effectiveness.

STUDENT WISHES

It is attempting to discover what students would like to see accomplished. The council is also trying to strengthen communications between students and administration.

Currently all council business is being carried out by committees.

The four committees are finance, which handles all funds; social and publicity, which is responsible for all student activities; school improvement, which works to better conditions in school; and student directory.

★ ★ ★

The council sponsors a milk shake machine during lunch time to earn money.

★ ★ ★

Members also take part in exchange days with other schools, so that they can observe the activities and daily routine at the Northwest Suburban League schools.

St. Michael's Juniors at Banquet Saturday

By LYNN BAUER

Stouffers at the Northland Inn will be tomorrow night's setting for St. Michael's Junior-Senior Banquet.

This is the second year the dinner-dance will be held, and as before, it is open only to juniors, seniors and faculty members of St. Michael's High School.

The banquet, which will be held from 7:30 until 1, is planned and paid for by the junior class. The seniors and faculty are invited guests.

Formal invitations to the affair were previously sent out and an RSVP requested.

★ ★ ★

Richard Land, Harry Cook, Mike Fitzgibbon, Jane Heitjan and Joe Cassabon were the junior class officers in charge of making the arrangements for the dinner-dance.

FACULTY ADVISERS

Faculty members Sister M. Gerald and Donald Guertin served as advisers.

Group and class pictures for the 1967 yearbook were taken yesterday. Arrangements for the athletic pictures will be made later.

The only group picture still to be taken is that of the National Honor Society because membership in the society will not be known until the close of the semester.

★ ★ ★

Noon-hour dances that began last month are being continued this month under the sponsorship of the Student Council. The dances seem to be working out quite well as all the rules have been complied with and most of the high school students are taking an active part in them.

St. Fred's Seniors Slate 'Tom Jones'

By TIM HALL

This week at St. Frederick High marks the beginning of tryouts, planning, and rehearsals that precede the annual senior play.

The first of two sets of tryouts was held for a one-act play to be given before a student assembly to test acting ability.

★ ★ ★

After this initiation, the second tryouts for the three-act play, "Tom Jones," will be scheduled.

Both plays will be directed by Geoffry Todd and Arthur Arata, members of the faculty.

New at Northern

3 Latins Arrive

By DEBBIE KILLEN

Pontiac Northern has three new foreign exchange students, all from South America. Northern is now hosting a total of five.

Carmen Briones lives in Santiago, Chile. She is 18 and has two brothers. Carmen came to us through the International Student Exchange. She can speak Spanish, English and French. She would like to become a nurse.

Carmen enjoys reading and playing the guitar. Carmen's American sister is Cindy King.

Guillermo E. Maisuls is from Santiago del Estero, Argentina. He is a 17-year-old senior and is staying with Jim Harrison. He has one brother at home. He also came to the United States through the International Student Exchange.

★ ★ ★

Guillermo speaks Spanish, English and French. He plans to go into some area in atomic physics. He enjoys playing the guitar, singing, playing basketball and generally all sports.

FROM BRAZIL

Regina Kuntz comes to us from Sai Paieh, Brazil. She is 17 and has one sister at home. Regina is sponsored by the Youth For Understanding Program.

She can speak Portuguese, English and French. She would like to become a psychologist or physicist. Regina enjoys music and detective stories.

Attending the cooperative educational Club's recent Congress as representatives of PNH were Gail Barton, Janice Figurski, Barbara Williams, Doyle Evans and Ron Langevin. They were accompanied by faculty coordinators Harlan Green and Donald Friebe.

★ ★ ★

Northern's Debate Team is having a good season. The varsity record so far is 10 wins and four losses.

Bands Battle at Oxford High

By CATHY OBERG

The battle of the bands has come to Oxford High School.

Saturday night at the dance "Snowflake Stomp," the juniors will present this extra feature.

The battling bands are the Roustabouts and the London Tymes. Both have local talent in them.

The dance will be held from 8-11 in the Student Center.

★ ★ ★

An air of victory prevailed in the school Monday morning. Its source was the Wildcat victory over Lapeer at the Snow Queen game.

EXTRA HAPPY

The freshmen looked extra happy because their candidate, Cathy Volant, won the title.

This afternoon, seniors are sponsoring another bake sale. With their dreams of Bermuda pretty well realized, they are working hard for the money. Baked goods may be purchased at Fritch's Real Estate.

The Ski Club is planning its annual ski trip. The date of departure is set for Wednesday.

★ ★ ★

The skiers will leave immediately after exams are over. Thunder Mountain near Petoskey is the destination and they will have a chance to ski at many of the surrounding resorts.

HOME BOUND

★ ★ ★

They will arrive home Jan. 27. The senior parents are sponsoring an auction Feb. 6 in the evening. The auction will take place in the junior high school auditorium.

Waterford Sophs Plan Rec Night

By CONNIE PHILLIPS AND MARY JERGOVICH

Sophomores of Waterford Township High School are sponsoring a recreation night on Wednesday from 7 to 10 p.m., to be held at the school.

Students may participate in basketball, badminton, dancing and other activities. Casual sportswear is the appropriate dress.

General chairman of the event is Bruce Carlson, vice president of the class. Larry Hemerly is in charge of equipment, Sheryl Williams, publicity; Mary Jergovich, refreshments; and Debbie Wright, entertainment.

Judy Jostock was elected secretary of the Cooperative Education Club of Michigan last weekend.

★ ★ ★

Other students who attended the conference at Clear Lake are Bob Weddle, John Voelpel, Marilyn DeBarr, Bill Franklin, Janet Reynolds, Terry Frisch, Debby Lutzkiw and Colleen Campbell.

THESPIAN CLUB

Thespians initiated five new members Monday, bringing total membership of the society to 15.

New members are David Bowmaster, Linda Byrd, Brenda Clemens, Linda Geror and Tempa Jones.

Membership is contingent on earning a total of 20 points for acting in plays, working on various committees for production, or ushering at school plays.

★ ★ ★

Thespian officers are Ann Voydanoff, president; Rachel Schettling, vice president; Jane Marsh, secretary-treasurer; and Lynda McLaughlin, sergeant-at-arms.

The weekend of the semester break, Jan. 27-29, will find the WTHS Ski Team at Caberfae Ski Lodge.

The team will meet with Cadillac and Walled Lake High Schools' ski teams Saturday morning.

Teaching Help at Walled Lake

By MARK EICHER

Nine student teachers from Michigan State University arrived at Walled Lake High School last week.

Suzanne Clark, Cynthia Gillespie, Sara Hamilton Dean, Stephane Lill, Judy Hendrickson, Charles Lyon, Rosemary Renwick, Mary Schofield, and Kristi Verhuizen are helping teachers in subjects ranging from English to physical education.

The student teachers will be at Walled Lake for 11 weeks.

They will receive 15 credits for their work and it will count as one complete term of school at Michigan State.

Two South American exchange students have joined the Walled Lake student body.

Carmen Santoni, from Chile, is staying with the Nelson Rich family in West Bloomfield Township.

Jose Sousa, from Brazil, is staying with the W. M. Wagers of Walled Lake.

Alexander Yerban, vocal instructor, and A. A. Han, instrumental instructor, have announced plans to produce Rodgers and Hammerstein's "Flower Drum Song" April 13, 14 and 15.

Tryouts will continue through the week in reading, singing, and dancing abilities.

The cast will be announced on Feb. 3.

Lake Orion Drive Marked by Challenge

By LINDA DAVIS

The Lake Orion Community High School has accepted a challenge from the Junior High School.

To win the challenge the high school must raise more funds for the March of Dimes Drive than the junior high does.

Sophomores have chosen their class rings. Their choice has a square setting.

The Ski Club is sponsoring a dance tomorrow night. It will be held in the high school cafeteria and will feature a live band.

The Junior Class steering committee met Wednesday to begin plans for the junior-senior prom to be held in May.

The Future Nurses' Association recently attended an open house held at the Mercy School of Nursing.

In the near future the club will visit the Hurley Hospital in Flint.

The Girls' Athletic Association has chosen its basketball team.

On the team are seniors Shari Gallaher, Linda Dehart, Debbie Hotra and Alyse Doty; junior Mary King; and sophomores Alice Washington, Janet Doolin, Debbie Stolze and Denise Carrothers.

At Our Lady

Yearbook Deadline Met

By CONNIE MAYWORM

The yearbook staff of Our Lady of the Lakes High School successfully met its first deadline Jan. 13.

The staff now begins work on its next deadline, pictures of all group activities and of the football and basketball teams.

Mary Nolen, editor, and Caesar Weston, photography editor, are planning the layout.

Diane Green, assistant editor, and the copy staff are working on the introduction and divider pages.

The theme this year is "In and Around Laker Country."

The date of the senior class dance has been set for Valentine's Day.

After winning its first game at Royal Oak St. Mary, the girl's basketball team will meet the defending champion Sunday.

Under Anne H. Leahy, coach, the Lakers will play St. Rita at 3 p.m. in the high school gymnasium.

The starting six for the Lakers are Mary Nolen, Terry Douglas, and Rose Ann Mariucci, forwards; and Cathy Chad, Pat LaBrie, and Janice Shotwell, guards.

Tonight, there will be a sock hop held in the gym after the basketball game.

SO LONG, PAL—Dominican Academy senior Linda Lee Kaiser plays with New York, alias Lover. The gray and white cat is responsible for many an incident at the academy from eating yearbook proofs to using the school's press table as a runway. He will be going to his new home shortly, and boarders and yearbook staff members are sure to miss their mascot and four-footed friend.

Cataclysmic Catastrophe: Frisky Feline Must Go

By KATHIE DeRYCKE

"I've heard about the relationships between animals and man, but this 'human cat' is ridiculous."

So goes the description of the half-cat, half-human mascot of the boarders and yearbook staff at Dominican Academy. The mascot must find a new home.

New York (alias Lover) belongs to Linda Lee Kaiser, a senior at DA.

Knowing Linda's big ambition has always been to own a kitten, a fellow classmate, Carol Fohey, brought back a 6-week-old, short-haired and skinny, gray and white kitten from a recent trip to New York City.

Boarders at St. Dominic's Hall quickly accepted having dishes of tuna fish in the basement.

And New York quickly accepted the yearbook staff as coinhabitors of the basement press room.

EXCELLENT QUALITIES

New York has many excellent qualities to his credit.

He is very economical. Food does not appear half as appetizing as a box of juicy, delicious yearbook proofs.

He has a religious background. Nothing is quite as satisfying as playing Tarzan on Sister Anne Vincent's rosary beads.

New York won't climb on furniture. He would much rather shinny up a person's leg instead.

VERY AFFECTIONATE

He is very affectionate. Lover lives up to his name by throwing his paws around his friends' necks and lapping them with his little, pink tongue.

He is an athlete. He especially adores daring sports. For example, he uses the long press table as a takeoff strip.

After a brisk charge down the runway, he leaps on yearbook layouts and-or pictures and skids off onto the floor.

Deciding to take life in his own paws, New York repeats the process again and again.

CLERICALLY INCLINED

He would be excellent in an office position. Why, already he knows how to change the typewriter ribbons — or at least take them out.

He is cultural. When a slow, dreamy record is played, Lover takes full advantage by stretching out full length on the couch until the music stops.

He would make a great dramatist. New York is especially noted for his imitations of a kangaroo and "Cleopatra."

His last accomplishment is that of being a meticulous housekeeper. He spreads out the contents of the wastebasket every day to make sure that you don't throw "valuables," like empty candy wrappers, away.

New York is going through a "teething stage," and he is only happy when he has a finger to chew on.

Also, he is afraid of the dark and cries when someone unthinkingly turns the light off.

Yes, St. Dominic's and the Woodlander press room is going to be strangely silent now. Papers will not be ripped, pictures will not be missing, boarders will have hands without teeth marks, and no one will trip over Lover's milk dish. But DA is going to feel deeply the loss of its mascot and pal — that skinny, human cat — New York.

Avondale Prom Theme Is 'Red Roses in Night'

By LINDA BOWEN

"Red Roses in the Night" will be the theme for this year's junior prom.

Cochairmen Vicki Sheldon and Sally Thompkins head the committee planning the traditional dance to be presented Jan. 28 at the high school.

A new twist planned to add color and excitement to the prom will be the selection of a king and queen.

Roger Davis is king.

His queen will be chosen from five girls nominated for the honor. The nominees are: Sally Thompkins, Carole Ash, Sally Featherston, Gayle Stevens and Vicki Sheldon.

★ ★ ★

Music for the dance will be furnished by the "We Who Are" band.

Pam Stone, a senior at Avondale won the title of Homemaker of Tomorrow. She is now eligible to be named Homemaker of Michigan. If she wins this title she will be eligible to win the Betty Crocker Scholarship.

Tuesday, students at Avondale started their campaign for the March of Dimes. It will continue through Jan. 31.

Seniors Meet, Plan for Trip

By MARGIT MISANGYI

The senior class of West Bloomfield High School held a meeting in the study hall Monday of this week to get a committee together to begin planning a senior trip.

Everyone's ideas were put together and now will be looked into by the selected committee.

Hopes of New York, Washington D.C., and other out-of-state trips were discussed.

There will also be another meeting to further discuss this issue, and to plan fund-raising activities.

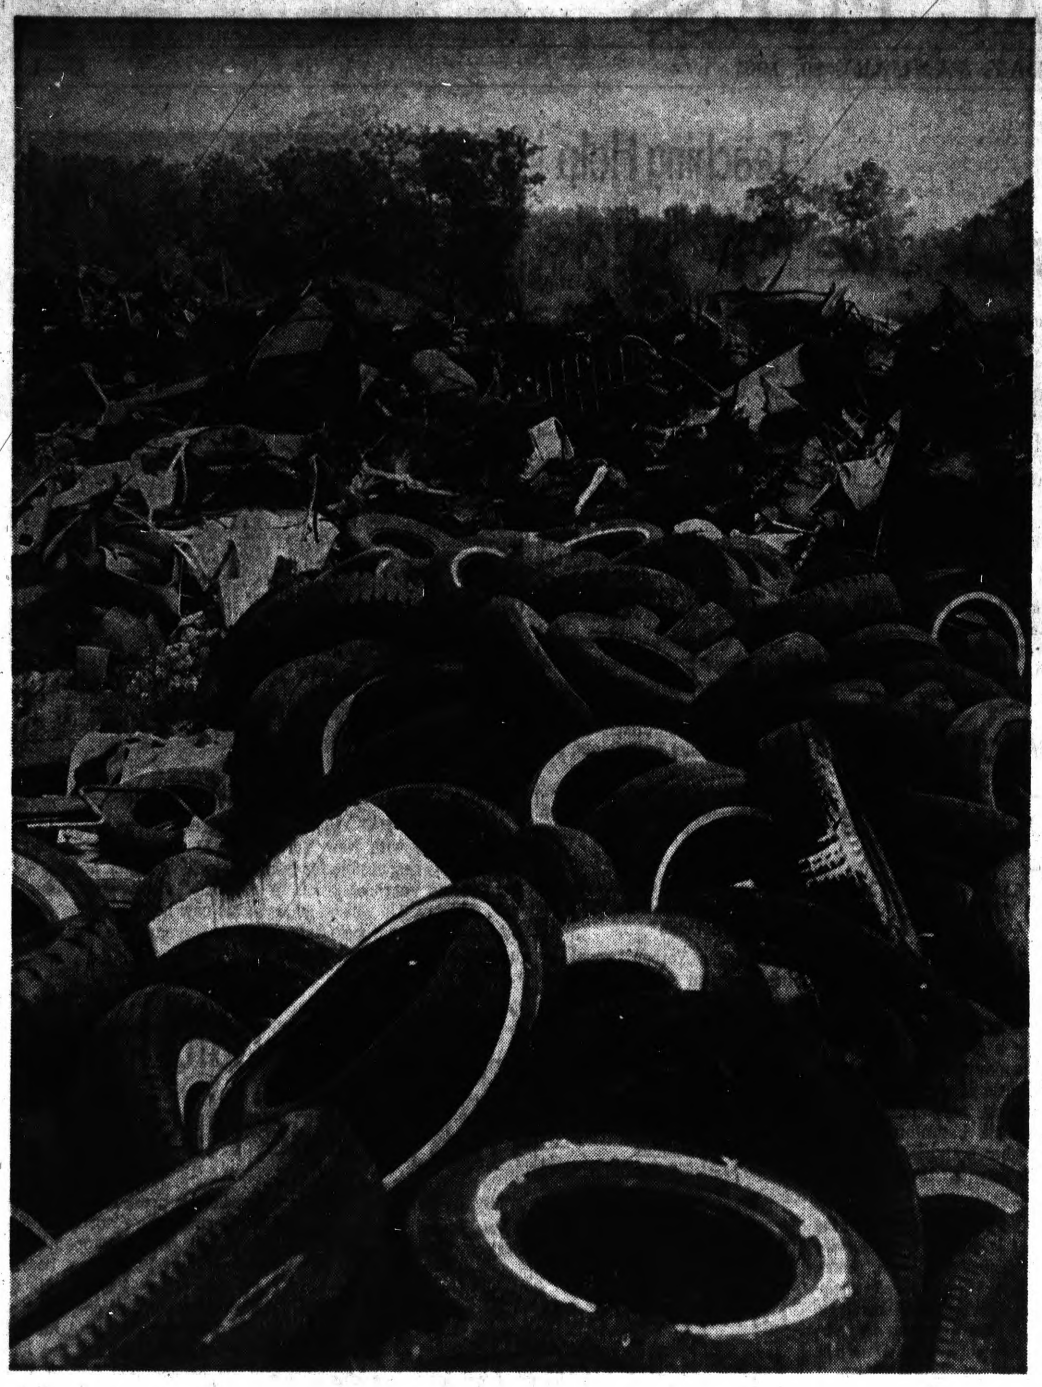

★ ★ ★

The seniors will try to get a large sum of money together and pool it among the interested trip-going seniors.

EXAMS NEXT WEEK

West Bloomfield students are having their exams on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. The rest of the week will be included in a four-day vacation for the school.

Cheerleaders at WBHS are planning a special pep assembly for tonight.

This Sight At White Lake Township Will Be A Thing Of The Past Under New State Laws

State Act 87 Is Cause

County in Disposal Crisis

By ED BLUNDEN

Oakland County is caught in a refuse disposal crisis. Lawsuits, criminal charges and a shutoff of service may effect nearly every household.

Creating the crisis is a new state law—Act 87—on solid waste disposal. The Oakland County Health Dept. has the responsibility of applying the 1966 law and has found most of the area disposal sites in violation.

★ ★ ★

The state law, in principle, calls for a complete change of thinking on refuse disposal. The problem, actually national in scope, is what to do with the increasing amount of debris left behind by an affluent society.

Area News

This is estimated at about three pounds per person per day. Or for the 800,000 persons in Oakland County, 2.4 million pounds per day.

The new law is designed to promote the "land-fill concept." In this, otherwise unusable land is made a disposal site.

After the land has served its purpose it is covered over, landscaped, and in time made available for use.

★ ★ ★

A land-fill being used by the City of Pontiac on Kennett Road conforms to this idea and it is hoped in the future that the site will be used for a golf course.

SPECIFICATIONS

However, in most of the disposal sites in the county, operators have not been able to meet specifications of the state law and some have closed and others face action by the county prosecutor's office.

Two of the locations already closed are Perry Disposal, 4916 Cedar Island Road, White Lake Township, and Cooley Lake Disposal, Cooley Lake Road, Waterford Township.

County health officials explained that it is their duty to see that state laws regarding land-fill operations are complied with before licenses are issued or reissued.

★ ★ ★

"We have a duty to the public to see that in trash disposal operations public health is protected," they state.

PLACES VITAL

In regards to the need to conform to the land-fill concept, they stated, "In today's way of life, the places for proper trash disposal are as vital and as necessary to clean living and clean communities as are approved sources of drinking water.

"Properly operated solid waste disposal sites do not feed nor shelter rats; they do not create conditions conducive to fly breeding; they do not create hazards to public health," claim county officials.

Householders in the county have been solving their disposal problems by several methods.

★ ★ ★

Those in the southern portion are fortunate in having the services of the Southeast Oakland County Incinerator Authority, an incineration and land-fill operation that conforms to state laws.

PAY A FEE

In other parts of the county, local government or home owners pay a fee to a hauling service which in turn buys disposal land. Some firms combine the service.

While a long-range plan will hopefully solve the disposal problem eventually, county officials say it won't be accomplished without considerable work and expense to residents.

Steps are under way to insure that in the future, Oakland County can solve its trash disposal problems.

★ ★ ★

An application for $66,000 for a solid waste disposal study has been made to the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

ENGINEERS TO REVIEW

Engineers will review the entire problem and come up with a plan that will not only be countywide, but will tie in with Detroit metropolitan area and state planning.

The Oakland County study has the endorsement of the Detroit Metropolitan Area Regional Planning Commission, which states it will be a "contribution toward a regionwide solution of solid waste disposal problems."

★ ★ ★

Planners are confident once the sanitary land-fill program is fully in effect, disposal of trash will actually be cheaper for each household. And the shameful waste of land and threat of pollution will be ended.

Rules for Land-Fill Setup

Listed here are some of the rules contained in Act 87 governing land-fill operators in Michigan. Regulations in the act are minimal. Additional rules of local governing bodies alos must be complied with.

- Refuse disposal facilities shall be designed by a professional engineer.
- The director of health department having jurisdiction shall make routine inspections.
- Cover material must provide a tight seal.
- Land-fill operations shall be designed and operated so that conditions of pollution will not be created.
- Properly maintained equipment used.
- Roads on the site shall be designed so that traffic will flow smoothly.
- Operations must be under the direction of a responsible person at all times.
- Access can be allowed only when attendant is on duty.
- Refuse should be spread in compact layers of not more than two feet to be covered by at least six inches of cover material at the end of each day.
- Final cover shall be maintained for two years.
- Hazardous materials or burning are not allowed at land-fill.
- Insect and rodent control measures shall be instituted by health authorities.

A person, corporation or governmental unit may obtain a land-fill operation license. Private agencies must pay $25 per year with the funds to be spent for carrying out provisions of the act.

The act does not prohibit a person from disposing of refuse on his own land, providing there is no nuisance or hazard.

New Concept of Land-Fill Brings Various Reactions

Those responsible for trash disposal in the county, some of them officials, some of them private citizens, have varied reactions to the new land-fill concept.

All of them agree the added costs present a problem.

Lloyd Marlow, who operates a disposal site at Rose Center Road, Rose Township, said, "I have over $100,000 tied up in equipment. It would be a hard business to get out of now. Besides, what would my customers do with their stuff if I closed down?

"Every family has something to throw away," he added. Marlow said he is paying $900 to have a soil boring test performed by an engineer, a requirement under new licensing rules.

★ ★ ★

Buel Starr, trustee for Springfield Township, said, "It's going to take a lot more tax money to handle the big operations required."

The township operates Davisburg Disposal and costs are met from the general fund, Starr said.

"It's going to require more equipment and the hiring of extra men. Our site is back off the road where it can't be seen, but some of them are a real mess.

"It will be interesting to see how it all works out," he added.

★ ★ ★

Clarence Lester, president of Holly village, said, "This is a sore subject, it's going to cost a lot more money, but we must obey the law."

LONG-RANGE PLANNING

Holly operates Holly Landfill on Falk Road. Lester said, "We must find a place to get rid of our trash. I hope long-range planning finally solves it."

Lester said a big problem was the requirement to cover each day's accumulation with fill in the winter when the ground was firmly frozen.

A private operator, Mrs. Ben Powell of 6440 Orion, Clarkston, who has fully complied with state law, has been granted a license and has received the praise of county health authorities.

★ ★ ★

Ben Powell Disposal serves residents of Independence and Waterford townships.

COMPLIES WITH LAW

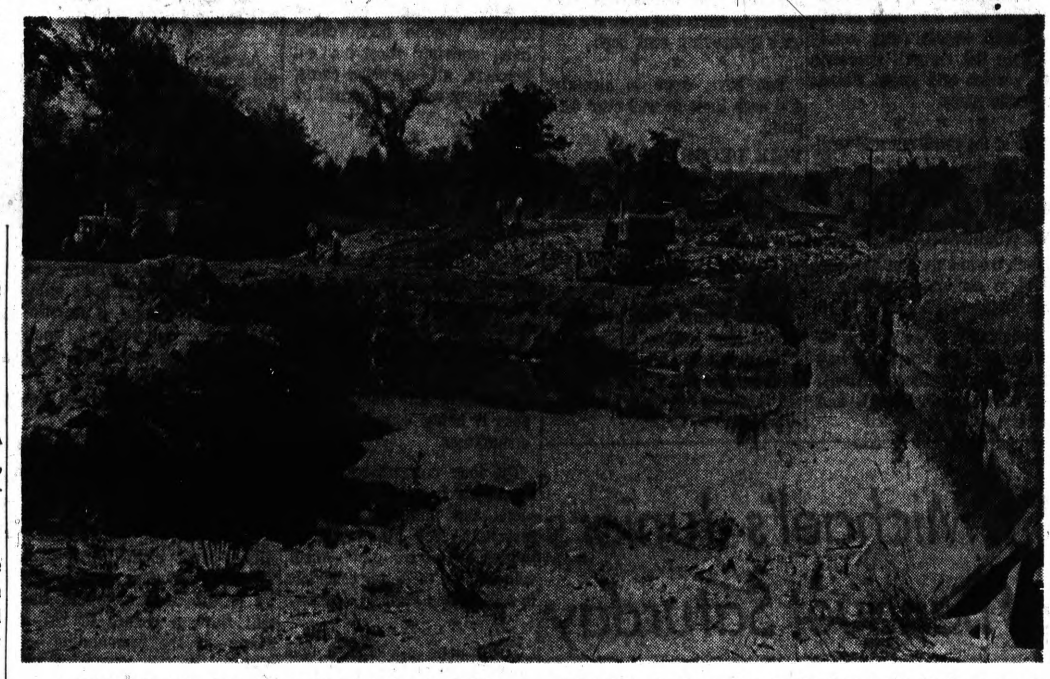

Mrs. Powell, a widow, said, "I had to comply with the law, this is my livelihood. We have always tried to keep our area in good condition.

"My place is hidden from view by an orchard and in the covered area, you would hardly know what it was. They tell me some day the covered part could be made into a playground," she said.

Mrs. Powell said she recently paid $923 for the engineering survey requirements. Other added cost did not effect her greatly as she had the equipment and the type of operation that met the land-fill concept all along, according to health authorities.

★ ★ ★

"We have no bother with rats," she said. "I know this surprises people, but it seems they can never get started. I guess the dirt would smother any," she said.

A DANGER—This operation on Teeple Lake Road, Highland Township, is illegal under new state laws, say county officials. The G. C. W. Disposal operation serves Highland, West Bloomfield and Commerce townships. Exposing ground water to trash disposal poses the threat of pollution, according to health authorities. The practice will no longer be allowed in the county, they said.

LAND THAT CAN BE SAVED—This gravel pit in Waterford Township is the kind of area where state and county officials would like to see a sanitary land-fill project. Properly executed, the now gaping and dangerous excavation would be filled in, covered with topsoil and eventually ready for reuse.

New Fire Chief for Metamora

METAMORA TOWNSHIP — The 12 men of Metamora's volunteer fire department have elected Donald Brady as chief to succeed Harold Turner.

★ ★ ★

Also elected were LaVerne Haver, assistant chief; Wayne Hildebrant, secretary; Robert Lassen, treasurer; and Clarence Shellenger, Alfred Brady and Ed Brecht, trustees.

★ ★ ★

The department has a new 700-gallon pumper on order, according to Brady.

'Walk-Around' Set at School in Milford

MILFORD — Parents, teachers and pupils of Johnson Elementary School in the Huron Valley School District will stage a "walk-around" the school property tomorrow to familiarize themselves with the area and make suggestions for future development.

Tours of the site are scheduled for 8, 10 and 11 a.m.

The "walk-around" is the high point of a year-long study by a committee on ways to develop the 17-acre school site to the best advantage.

"It's more effective if the community is involved in the planning," said Fredrick Forsythe, school principal.

★ ★ ★

"I think it will also help to cut down on vandalism if the pupils can take pride in something they have helped to plan."

Current plans are to utilize the rolling terrain rather than level it as was first suggested.

A pond is to be created in a natural valley behind the school building to give children a first-hand look at nature.

If the pond becomes a reality, it will be up to the pupils to decide what to put in it and to keep it free of stagnation. Benches will be placed near the pond to permit outdoor classes.

The pupils will also help plant the trees and then study them and will study and label rocks used in a natural stone fence.

SCATTERED OVER AREA

Also scattered throughout the area will be weather stations, bird feeding areas and plant life.

It won't be all work and study, though, as numerous recreational areas are planned. There will be a sled and toboggan hill, an archery range, softball and football fields, blacktopped play areas for the younger children, and basketball, volleyball and tennis courts.

Forsythe said the interest in the project has been "overwhelming."

The principal, who has been a moving force in the planning, has seen to it that every child in the school is aware of the project.

TALKED TO CLASSES

He has talked to each class and tried to obtain ideas from all of the children.

There have been field trips to Ann Arbor which has a similar development plan and offers of help from professional people in the area.

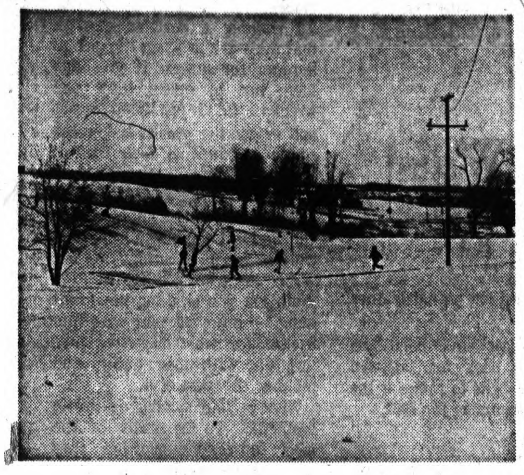

By the end of the month, Forsythe hopes, plans will be ready to give to the architect who will put them into a workable form.

If all goes well, the site should be ready for use by September. By that time, teachers will be involved in a workshop learning how to make the best use of the site.

Money for the site development which is to be repeated in varying degrees at other schools in the district, was approved as part of an $8.3 million bond issue last June.

"We've tried to reflect the community's thinking in this," said Forsythe. "In the future, schools will serve the community for longer periods of the year then they do now and we have to plan for this."

He explained that the entire community will be able to use the facilities.

Petitions Filed

AVON TOWNSHIP — Wheels were put in motion yesterday for incorporation of the township into a proposed "City of Avon."

★ ★ ★

Petitions containing 340 signatures were filed with the Oakland County Clerk by Harold Pepper, 325 Hillview. The petitions were accompanied by a $500 filing fee which will be held in an election expense fund.

Signatures must be checked by the clerk and register of deeds office as to authenticity and number. More than 1 per cent of the residential voters of the area must have signed the petitions.

Avon Township's population in the 1960 census totaled 15,946 outside the village of Rochester. Supervisor Cyril Miller said a new census may have to be taken.

★ ★ ★

The petitions will be checked as to form by the county corporation counsel and will be submitted to the County Board of Supervisors at its February session, the county clerk feels.

If accepted by the board, hearings and a vote will be scheduled in the township.

Dedication of Children's Unit

Library Will Honor 2 Women

ROCHESTER — Hard work and good deeds have paved the way for community honors to be accorded Mrs. Bert E. Norton of 316 W. University and Mrs. Edward W. Williams, 171 Tree Top Lane, Avon Township.

Their contributions to the field of children's literature have made them the community's choice in the dedication of facilities at Woodward Memorial Public Library Sunday at 4 p.m.

Sunday's dedication of the children's unit to be known as Margaret C. Norton Unit is in reality the outpouring of community affection for a woman who has served widely as civic and political leader.

While Mrs. Williams has not resided as long in Rochester as Mrs. Norton, she has brought with her an expert's reputation in the field of children's literature.

Her Book Stall at 436½ Main is sought out by people living throughout the Detroit metropolitan area.

FUND STARTED

In her name a fund has been started to build the Helen S. Williams Children's Book Collection in Rochester.

The dedication is jointly sponsored by the Avon Township Library Board of Trustees and the Friends of the Woodward Memorial Public Library, Inc.

Dr. Sarah VanHoosen Jones former Michigan State University Trustee and former member of the Rochester Board of Education, will dedicate the Helen S. Williams Collection.

Former village president John Boeberitz will dedicate the Margaret C. Norton Children's Unit.

WILL PRESIDE

Howard L. McGregor Jr., president of the library board, will preside. Rev. Robert Jacobson of First Congregational Church will deliver thie invocation.

Committee chairmen are Harlan Johnson, program; Mrs. Peter Vernia, invitation; and Mrs. Bernard Vosteen, Friends' president, coordinating.

Silent Movie to Be Shown

WALLED LAKE — A silent film, first shown in the Protestant Pavilion at the World's Fair in New York City will be shown at St. William's Church Sunday and Monday at 7:30 p.m.

The film, entitled "The Parable," will be followed by a discussion period. The picture, which lasts about 20 minutes, will then be rerun.

The Rosary Altar Society is sponsoring the public showing of the film.

Township Denies Rezoning Request

WHITE LAKE TOWNSHIP — A request to rezone 6.8 acres at Williams Lake Road north of Elizabeth Lake Road has been denied by the Township Board.

The request to zone from single family residential to multiple dwelling had also been recommended for denial by the township planning commision.

Township Clerk Ferdinand C. Vetter said that several residents had submitted a petition protesting the proposed change.

WOMEN'S SECTION

This Actress Betrays 'Wicked Woman' Image

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Women's Editor

Mothers of teen-age daughters who want a theatrical career are sometimes upset at the image they have of actresses.

★ ★ ★

If they were to meet and talk with Lorna Lewis of the John Fernald Company at Oakland University's Meadow Brook Theatre, they would change their minds.

★ ★ ★

Lorna is refreshingly wholesome (and she'll probably never speak to me again after that remark), the kind of daughter any mother would delight to have.

While there are no stars in the Meadow Brook Theatre, there are actors who play leading roles. Lorna has the leading feminine role in "The Caucasian Chalk Circle," now being presented.

★ ★ ★

By nature, really quite domestic, this tawny-haired lithe young actress is enjoying her trailer home on the OU campus. She loves people, but wants to live by herself.

★ ★ ★

However, one trailermate is acceptable, a talkative Siamese cat she obtained last week from the Michigan Animal Rescue League. Pyewacket is a privileged character.

EARLY AMBITION

Lorna likes all animals and wanted to be a veterinarian at one time. She was a science major in college, although she took part in all the campus theatricals.

★ ★ ★

A palmist once told her she had no talent but lots of determination. It is this determination, plus talent the fortune teller couldn't see, that got Lorna where she is.

★ ★ ★

Born in England of an Irish mother and an English father, she was named for a grandmother who lived in the Lorna Doone country.

★ ★ ★

She first came to America when her father, an RAF officer, was assigned to Washington. She loved this country from the start.

★ ★ ★

"I could go to school and live at home instead of going to a boarding school. And I had lots to eat; I was always hungry in England.

"Everyone and everything has been so good to me here. Also, I'm a questioner and one can ask 'why' in America."

COLLEGE FIRST

Lorna wanted to become an actress right out of high school. Her father disapproved so she went to a teachers' college in upper New York State and graduated, getting good grades along the way.

★ ★ ★

Her older sister had auditioned for the Royal Academy of Dramatic Art in London, but was not accepted. Lorna was.

★ ★ ★

After two years of study under the direction of John Fernald, Lorna played in an English repertory company. She was allowed to act in England because she had been born there.

★ ★ ★

She played in New York with Albert Finney in "Luther" and went on tour with the play. She also acted in Pittsburgh for six months.

★ ★ ★

To her great delight, Fernald contacted her last summer and asked her to join the Meadow Brook group. She had no objections to moving to a rural location in the middle west.

★ ★ ★

The young actress likes it here. Her first car, bought second hand, but running like a jewel, gives her mobility.

She has friends in the area who make it possible for her to ride horseback. There's really not much free time.

LIKES TO COOK

Her trailer has a good kitchen where she can indulge in one of her hobbies — cooking. (We'll give you her cheesecake recipe later on).

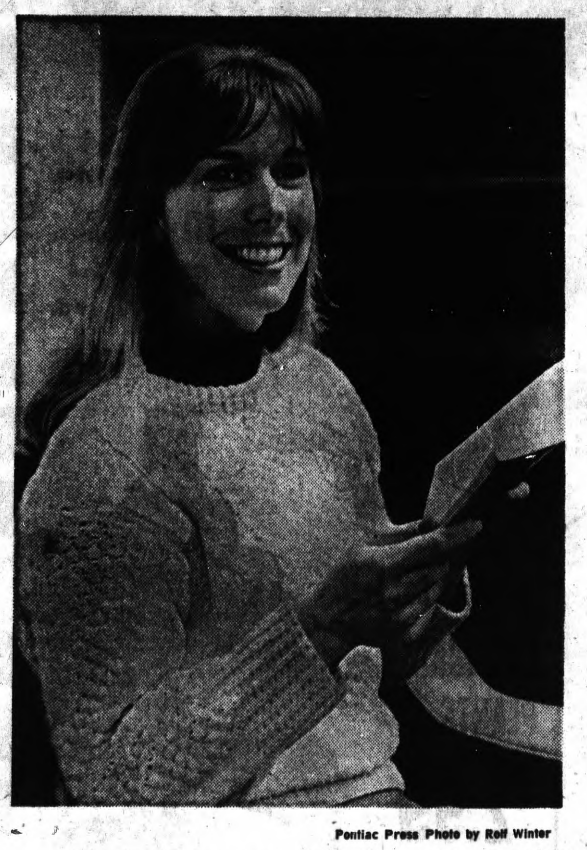

★ ★ ★

She had a crowd in for Thanksgiving dinner. And when her parents visited her last weekend, they took all their meals in Lorna's home. Her father is now an executive with Westinghouse in New York.

"I'm doing what I like to do; I'm making enough to live in comfort; and I like it here."

Does this fit in with the popular image of the typical actress?

Lorna Lewis, a member of the John Fernald Company at Oakland University's Meadow Brook Theatre, studies her lines. In the present production, "The Caucasian Chalk Circle," she has the leading feminine role. In February's production of "Love's Labour's Lost," by Shakespeare, she plays only a small part. Lorna, a naturalized American, came here from England as a youngster.

Keeps Quiet as Guests Light Up

By ELIZABETH L. POST

Dear Mrs. Post: I certainly wholeheartedly agree regarding the "Non-Smokers Urged to Unite." When I first started my own home, I did not place ash trays on my tables because I wanted to discourage smoking.

I get a sinus headache after being in a smoke-filled room. But I had guests, mostly relatives, who lit up regardless and I would have to get out the ash trays, anyway. Finally I decided that smokers will not take a hint and so placed the ash trays around in convenient places.

I wonder if smokers realize that they are polluting the air in a room for others. If you ask them not to smoke, they are wrecks. So I just keep quiet and enjoy the people, but later suffer because of their habit. Well, that's life . . . Mrs. D.H.E.

Dear Mrs. E.: I really do have the deepest sympathy for you and all the others who are truly bothered by smoke. At the same time, I would like to congratulate you on doing the right thing — enjoying your smoking friends for what they are—putting up with their habit and making the best of it.

What is your puzzling etiquette problem? To the sender of the most interesting question that we receive each week, we'll send a free copy of Emily Post's Etiquette, revised by Elizabeth L. Post.

Send your question to Elizabeth L. Post, in care of The Pontiac Press, and don't forget to include your name and address.

Norell Cinches Waist for Feminine Look

NEW YORK (AP) — Slit skirts and cinched waistlines are as sexy as short skirts.

That was the lesson Norman Norell had for his fashion cult at his spring collection opening this week.

★ ★ ★

The dean of American couturiers, one of the few feared by the French, chose to introduce his style ideas more than two months after most U.S. designers, and in the midst of the European style presentations.

Far more provocative than a sliced-off skirt was a slither of a sheath slashed vertically, exposing startling amounts of stemwork.

★ ★ ★

There were also belted trench coats, double-breasted and in bold horizontal stripes worn over pure white or soft pastel dresses.

★ ★ ★

Norell, the pacesetter, was bad news for the millinery industry and accessory makers as well. His models wore bright hued shoes with black dresses and parasols with skimmer shifts, but they were hatless, jewelless, and scarfless.

★ ★ ★

His square-shouldered manikins, with two exceptions, had abandoned their boy haircuts for softer, French twist-style coiffures.

ROMAN SHOW

Fabiani stood head and shoulders above the rest as the Rome presentation of Italian spring and summer fashions entered their final day.

★ ★ ★

The other houses that showed with him Thursday night offered some very fine clothes but Fabiani outshone them all for expetise and elegance.

★ ★ ★

He put smart little suits back on the fashion map. His models wore them with barmen's white gilet.

★ ★ ★

Fabiani tent coats were, as always, terrific. There were spinning tent dresses, too, some of them very spirited with side slits that showed bermudas nestling coyly underneath.

★ ★ ★

He gave flower prints a boost, styled in crepe sweater tops and long pleated skirts. Tortoise shell trimmed low patent leather shoes.

Other houses have used this tawny hard back for buttons, buckles and belts to make it the most "in" trimming for 1967.

FONTANA

The Fontana Sisters had fun with resort clothes. Their play suit had odd legs — one short one long.

For town, their princess dresses and matching coats followed the prevailing line for a small-shouldered shape that sweeps into fullness.

This two-piece bathing suit was presented in Rome yesterday by the three Fontana sisters. The cape is turquoise linen inside and green, orange and turquoise stripes outside.

Designer Mila Schon offered, at the Rome showings of Italian spring and summer fashions, a long-bodied, belted outfit with a brief bounce of skirt topped by a cardigan jacket in white ottoman wool held in with a leather tie belt.

PSH Expert Is Speaker at Luncheon

Some 30 members of the Better Home and Garden Club gathered for a cooperative luncheon and guest day, Thursday, in the YWCA parlors.

Mrs. Robert McCurry, director of occupational therapy at Pontiac State Hospital, showed slides of both interior and exterior of the buildings where therapy projects are carried on.

"Many patients recover, return to their homes and normal routine, or even to work" she says.

★ ★ ★

Exhibit plant for the month was the Hoya, a rather brittle, fleshy, tropical vine of the milkweek family, native from Asia to Australia.

Mrs. Irl Williams described the waxy flowers of the plant named for Thomas Hoy, 18th century gardener to the Duke of Northumberland.

An article on litterbug control to help beautify America was read by Mrs. Guy Tubbs.

★ ★ ★

Assisting Mrs. William H. Powell, chairman, were Mrs. Donald Barker, Mrs. Vernon Spencer, Mrs. George Alexander and Mrs. Edward Mann.

Hostesses were Mrs. William Sovey, Mrs. Wallace Morgan and Mrs. Alfred Rothweiler. Guests included Mrs. Ray Linabury and Mrs. Albert Barnett.

Yale Club Plans a Dinner Dance

Several cocktail parties, preceding the Feb. 4 dinner dance of the Yale Club Alumni Association of Michigan, will lend a festive air to this annual occasion.

Area hosts planning to entertain before the whole group meets at the Bloomfield Open Hunt, include: the Michael Davises, the Fred Mallenders, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Whiting and the Taylor Overpecks.

Others are Mr. and Mrs. David Lawrence, the Fred Bahrs, the Kenneth Cunninghams and the Ross Hansons.

Wendell's No Prize

Send Him Back to Mama

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of a 55-year-old mama's boy who gave his girlfriend an engagement ring in 1959, but she can't show it to anybody because he doesn't want his mother to find out?

ABBY

Well, I am the girl friend. I have gone with Wendell for 10 years and I am pretty sick of this setup. I met his mother just once, when Wendell carried her to the foot doctor. He let me go along for the ride. He never told her I was his girlfriend, though. The problem is, Wendell's mother has money and she says if he marries she will leave it all to the church.

He was so confused two years ago he wrote to you, and you told him to talk to his pastor. He said he did and the pastor told him he was lucky to have such a wonderful mother.

What am I supposed to do now? I am 48 and not getting any younger.

WENDELL'S GIRL

DEAR GIRL: Put the ring through Wendell's nose and send him to his mother.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: I am 22, have been working for four years and feel that I am ready to settle down. I have been dating a successful 28-year-old business man. He owns his own home, car, boat, and seems to have plenty of spending money. We have dated for more than a year and his family tells me I am the only girl he has dated more than once.

He says he "cares" for me, but he has never said, "I love you." He seems to enjoy my company, but he has never spoken in terms of the future as far as "we" are concerned. My mother says I am wasting my time with him. Should I pin him down and ask him what his intentions are?

PUZZLED

DEAR PUZZLED: No! If his intentions are to marry you, he doesn't need any prompting. If his intentions are to go with you as long as you'll go with him without committing himself, he'll drop you before he admits it. Don't count on this one. And don't pass up any other good bets if they appear.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: I hate alcohol and my son knows it. Yet when we go to their homes for parties, the boys and their wives and their guests drink hard liquor right in front of us. One boy is 52 and the other is 55, so they don't need our permission to drink, but it wouldn't hurt them to abstain when we are present.

My husband is on the boys' side. He says the younger generation is living in an entirely different world. Should I tell the boys that as far as I am concerned, they can live in their world and I will live in mine?

BLOOMINGTON, ILL.

DEAR BLOOMINGTON: If you want to remain on speaking terms with your sons, I suggest you stop fighting the battle of the bottle and try living in the same world as long as possible. You'll be living in different worlds soon enough.

The crowning of this year's "Sweetheart of Sigma Chi," Rebecca Sulfridge, 20-year-old freshman from Freeland, is performed by Mrs. William Sliger of Northville, the first "sweetheart" chosen by the Albion College chapter of Sigma Chi in 1946. The Alpha Pi chapter of Sigma Chi at Albion, where the song "Sweethearts of Sigma Chi" was written in 1911, has new quarters this year for the first time in 80 years.

This Adopted Child Needs to Face Reality

DEAR MRS. LAWRENCE: Last spring we told our 5-year-old daughter that she was an adopted child. Since then she has become very attention-demanding. She pushes past me at the door to hug and kiss my husband when he comes home at night and even gets ugly and sullen if I spend any time talking to a neighbor.

We haven't scolded her for this as we do not want her to feel unloved and rejected. But it is becoming a real problem . . .

ANSWER: Why are you afraid to "reject" her demands for continual attention? Because she now knows that her natural parents "rejected" her? By indulging all her demands, are you now trying to persuade her to forget it? Are you trying to erase memory of that original denial by now denying her nothing she demands?

If that's what you're up to, I must insist that you have no right to do that. The truth that her natural parents discarded her is one she's got to learn to live with just as you have to live with the truth that you can bear no children.

It is your your own feeling that desertion of her by those natural parents was a terrible thing that has also convinced her that it's terrible—so terrible that she has to keep reassuring herself that you won't abandon her, too. She uses this over-demanding behavior to do it.

Next time she pushes past you at the door, put your arm around her and say, "No, tonight it's my turn to kiss daddy first. Tomorrow it will be your turn again."

There's nothing especially awful in being an adopted child, you know. Indeed, if one's adoptive parents are brave and self-accepting people, you are extremely fortunate to be free of the scared, self-distrusting people who begot you.

You're much more fortunate than millions of children who grow up with natural parents who don't like them. So you'd better get over this notion that possession of one's natural parents guarantees us perfect happiness.

★ ★ ★

It does not. To be born is to begin to experience limitations on our demands, no matter whom we grow up with. So seeing an adopted child's "rejection" by his natural parents as especially brutal experience is sentimental and out of touch.

These natural twins are also scholastic twins, although in different nursing classes at University of Michigan. From left, Melissa and Rebecca Hickes, Springfield, Ohio, keep coming up with identical grades.

Student Nurses Just 'Two' Much

ANN ARBOR — A pair of brown-eyed twins from Springfield, Ohio, seem well on their way toward setting a new scholastic record at the University of Michigan School of Nursing.

★ ★ ★

Now winding up their junior year, student nurses Melissa and Rebecca Hickes have won identical grade averages: 3.91 out of a possible 4.00.

"We have never seen anything quite like it," says a U-M nursing professor who has counseled the girls during their three years at Michigan.

"We have gone out of our way to put the twins in different class sections, with different instructors in order to avoid any 'halo' effect, but they keep coming up with the same grades: all A's."

Since 1964, when the Hickes twins enrolled at the U-M, each has received only three grades less than an A; each was in a liberal arts course. And each was a B. In all their nursing and science courses, Melissa and Rebecca have won straight A's.

How do the twins themselves account for their similar records?

"We used to live and study together. I guess that helped," said Rebecca.

"But lately," continued Melissa, "we've been living in different rooms, so we're getting away from that."

INDEPENDENCE

Rebecca explained, "We decided we would have to be completely independent and self-reliant to be good nurses."

"So," Melissa picked up, "we're purposely trying to become independent."

It won't be easy.

Of the 150 total credit hours the twins need for graduation, 84 must be in prescribed nursing courses. Both have just entered their 15-week "rotation" in obstetrics at the U-M's Women's Hospital.

Both were elected to Sigma Theta Tau, honorary nursing sorority, and both are members of Alpha Lambda Delta, the freshman honorary sorority.

The girls spent their 20th birthday last week on duty in Women's Hospital. Among other things, they were waiting to greet any twins that might arrive.

Abnormal Jealousy Case

By GEORGE W. CRANE

DR. CRANE

CASE B-549: Norman G., aged 27, is married.

"But, Dr. Crane," his wife began, "Norman is making my life miserable.

"For he is so jealous, he will not even let me go to the super market alone to buy groceries.

"And he constantly accuses me of infidelity.

"In fact, I really believe the only reason he goes to church with me on Sunday is to prevent some other man from sitting beside me.

"For he has actually warned me to sit by another woman when we select a pew.

"Once when I sat beside a man and this stranger offered me a hymn book, Norman made a scene as soon as we arrived home and said I was having an affair with that man.

"Yet, Dr. Crane, I had never even seen him before in all my life!

"What makes a husband so insanely jealous of his wife?"

Remeber the old adage that "It takes a thief to catch a thief?"

Meaning that it is often a guilty person who accuses others of his own faults.

Sometimes, of course, a husband is justified in being jealous, for he may have evidence of his wife's two-timing.

But that is definitely not the case here, for Norman's wife is devoted and faithful.

So why should he be conjuring up these wild accusations and charge her with having affairs with other men?

Is he just projecting upon her the criticism that really should be directed at himself for his own clandestine affairs with other women?

That is a very plausible suggestion. It fits under that heading of the thief who catches another thief.

But Norman was not unfaithful to his wife; yet he was tearing his heart to pieces by his insane jealousy. Why?

Because Norman had cherished the false belief that all women are wildly passionate creatures, even exceeding the male in eroticism.

Such a notion is still rather widespread.

It was aided by the Kinsey data, which were entirely wrong in saying that women are passionate creatures, for they aren't!

You wives reading this column know very well that you are not ardent in the manner that men are.

And you husband chronically complain at the evasive tactics of you wives regarding sexual matters.

So how did the Kinsey interviewers make such a grave error?

Well, they took the "opinions" of the wives and immediately treated those "opinions" as if they were scientific "facts."

Yet we medics don't take a patient's "opinion" that she has an inflamed appendix and then operate without checking on her "opinion."

We thus never use a patient's unproved "opinion" as a basic fact in medicine, but this grave error underlies the Kinsey data.

* * *

Women definitely do NOT have as much erotic hunger as men, but they do have some — maybe 25 per cent as much.

If they then received only 5 per cent of that limited 25 per cent, obviously they would tell a Kinsey interviewer they were always sexually hungry.

But that still wouldn't mean their erotic need equaled that of the usual husband!

(Always write to Dr. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, enclosing a long stamped, addressed envelope and 20 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.)

New Salt on Way to Prevent Most Automobile Rust

NEW YORK (UPI) — Auto body rust is being attacked on two fronts. Increasing use by auto makers of an automatic welding system that welds trim attachments to auto bodies, eliminating the bolt holes around which corrosion often forms, is reported by Omark Industries, Inc., of Portland, Ore.

In Minneapolis, Minn., Cargill Inc., a major salt producer, reports development of treated salt for removing snow from roads that, according to tests on streets there and in Milwaukee, Wis., gives 99 per cent protection against salt-caused galvanic corrosion.

Unbeaten Groves Faces Toughest League Test

Ron Kramer, veteran tight end of the Detroit Lions weighs 240 pounds and today he stands 10 feet tall.

In this day and age when money is so often used as a symbol of status, Kramer makes it a personal issue when the suggestion is even implied that he must have some regret for leaving the Packers, a team which has hit the jackpot in playoff money for the past two years.

"Yes, I'm going to go back to Green Bay and plead a hardship case," Kramer said in jest at the annual Elks Father-Son banquet last night.

★ ★ ★

It was evident Kramer has been presented with the question more than once. We figured as much but ventured the opportunity to ask the question anyway to hear his answer.

THEORY OF FANS

Many sports fans are theorizing that "Kramer must be sorry to have missed out on almost $35,000 in Packer playoff money in two years."

This year alone, each Packer made a haul of $7,500 in the NFL championship game and $15,000 more in the Super Bowl.

One can't really blame the average fan for rationalizing this way. After all, the pros play the game for the money and being a pro Kramer could have had a share of the Green Bay gravy.

Kramer doesn't hesitate with his answer. "It's a matter of which is more important, the $25,000 which I supposedly lost or my family. Can I put any kind of monetary value on being with my family and seeing them happy."

"Green Bay didn't just happen to trade me. I asked to be traded to Detroit. I wanted to be with my family and especially with my son who needed extensive surgery and medical care.

"I made the choice. It was a choice of being with my family or staying in Green Bay where the prospects of championship money certainly seemed apparent.

"My boy is doing fine and my family is happy. Can anyone dare challenge my decision and say I was wrong for putting them first?"

★ ★ ★

A football star at East Detroit High School and a two-time All-America end at the University of Michigan where he was one of a select few to ever win nine varsity letters in three sports, Kramer started with the Packers in 1957 and played with the championship teams of 1960-61-62.

The Lions gave up a No. 1 draft choice to get Kramer in time for the 1965 season. For the draft choice the Packers picked bonus baby Jim Grabowski.

The past season was one of the best in Kramer's NFL career. He caught 37 passes, matching his highest total with the Packers in 1962.

He also had the longest single yardage play in the final game of the 1966 season with the Lions when he teamed with Karl Sweetan for a 68-yard completion. His previous single play high was a 55-yarder in 1964.

PULLS FOR PACKERS

Kramer admitted he was pulling for the Packers in the Super Bowl against Kansas City.

"Sure, I've got a lot of friends on the Packer team and besides I'd naturally be pulling for the NFL to win," he said.

"They were a little flat in the first half and it was a good thing for Kansas City or the Packers would have scored 60 points."

Kramer would not comment on the recent coaching changes of the Lions.

"I'm looking forward to the 1967 season and if Joe (new head coach Joe Schmidt) can use me, I think I can help the team and I feel we could have a real good season," he said.

"And besides as long as I'm with my family and there's a chance I can still pick up any extra playoff money, should the Lions have a good year, there's nothing wrong with that. My family is still first."

From this we might gather that if traded Kramer would probably retire from the game.

But who would want to trade a 10-foot tall tight end anyway?

NSL Tie Certain to Be Broken

Birmingham Groves' basketball team has had only one real test in rolling up an 8-0 record, that coming in its opener in a 62-61 win over Birmingham Seaholm.

Now, as the team heads into its final eight games of the regular campaign, it's faced with another test: Livonia Franklin.

Franklin, sharing the lead in the Northwest Suburban League with Groves at 4-0, is no major threat but still the toughest, record-wise, that the Falcons have faced of late.

Heading into the game, Franklin owns a 6-2 record and has had a little trouble with a couple teams that Groves routed.

★ ★ ★

This game is slated for the Groves floor, with the rematch slated for Franklin in the season finale, Feb. 24.

DEFENSE STINGY

With its high-scoring offense and stingy defense, Groves is expected to win this one easily.

★ ★ ★

Pacing the Groves attack is Mike Rafferty, a 6-4 forward, who is averaging 17.0 points a game. Center Craig Love (6-8) gives the Falcons rebounding strength and he, along with guard Roy Iceberg, are averaging more than 10 points a game.

Other games in the Northwest loop tonight have North Farmington (2-2) at Detroit Thurston (2-2) and Wayne John Glenn (0-4) at Oak Park (0-4).

Some fireworks are in the offing in the Oakland A League this evening and they'll be touched off when Warren Fitzgerald visits Rochester.

★ ★ ★

Rochester, unpredictable in a 5-5 season, is apparently the only team standing between Fitzgerald (9-0) and an unbeaten season.

Fitzgerald, which has given up more than 50 points only once this season (70-53 win over Avondale) may be pressed to stop the Rochester offense which has been potent at times.

TOP SCORERS

Rochester has two of the top scorers in the county in Don Golding (19.8) and Jim Burton (17.3).

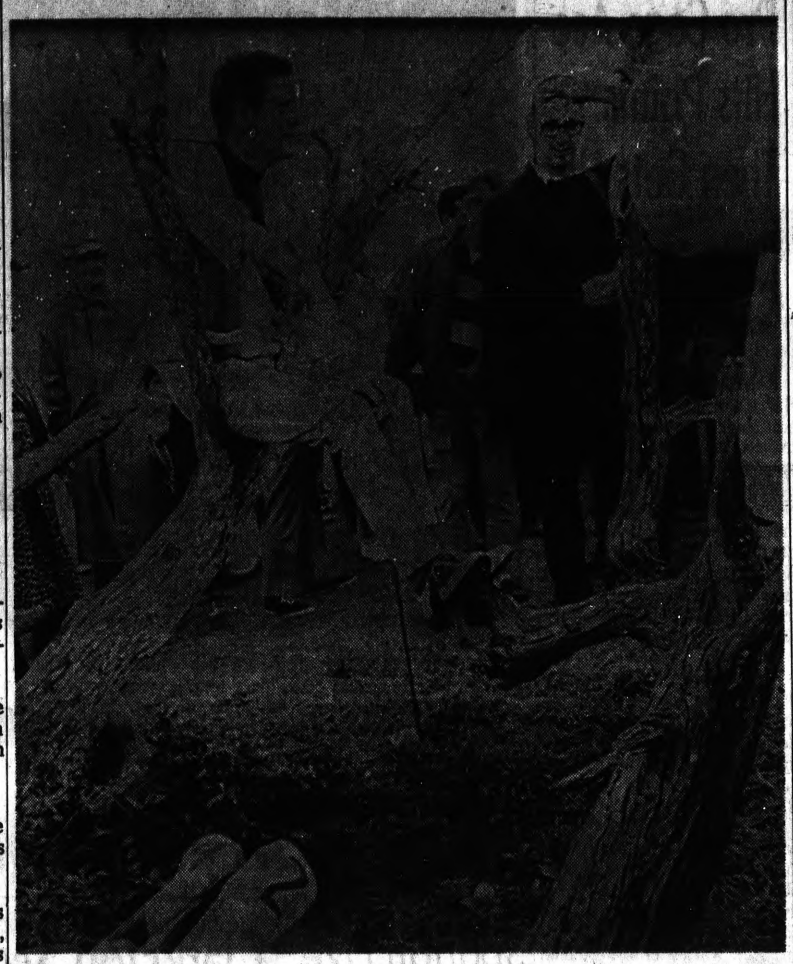

Other games in the O-A have Avondale (3-5) at Warren Cousino (6-2), Lake Orion (1-7) at Clawson (4-4) and Troy (4-4) at Madison (2-6).

Of Avondale's three wins, two have come at home, so the odds are against the Yellow Jackets in their journey to Cousino.

A key game is on tap in the Southeastern Michigan Association tonight at Ferndale where the Eagles will entertain Southfield.

Ferndale, the 1965-66 state champion, owns a 3-1 record in league play, 5-2 over-all, and must to win to remain in contention for the league title and to retain some prestige among the state's Class A family.

Other SEMA games have league-leading Birmingham Seaholm (4-1) at Hazel Park (0-4) and Berkley (2-2) at Royal Oak Kimball (1-3).

TAKING HIS TIME — Doug Sanders of Cleveland is in no hurry to face this shot Thursday at the 17th hole on the Cypress Point links at Pebble Beach, Calif. After a free drop, he double bogied the hole and finished at 73 in the opening round of the Crosby National Pro-Am Tournament. AP Wirephoto

'Spyglass' No Monster for Pros

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP) — Spyglass Hill's budding reputation as a super monster among golf courses took a beating just as soon as the big name pros began attacking in Bing Crosby's $104,500 tournament.

Four of the leading seven going into today's second round had fired over Spyglass, the course built along the beach and through the forest in the area where the Treasure Island novel was written.

Joe Carr, a 28-year-old from Worcester, Mass., who won only $50 in official money last year grabbed the lead with a 68 at Cypress Point and big Jack Nicklaus carded a 69 at Pebble Beach. Al Geiberger, the PGA tournament champ, had a 70 there.

Also at 70, two under par, were four who shot at Spyglass — New Zealand's southpaw Bob Charles, Jack Burke Jr., Jerry Pittman, and little known Jim Colbert of Kansas City, Kan.

LONG JOHN

"It's one of the really good courses already," commented Charles, but others weren't so generous in descriptions of the new 6,972-yard layout where holes have such nicknames as Billy Bones and Long John Silver.

Defending champion Don Massengale walked the plank at Spyglass with an 80 while Miller Barber scribbled himself out of what might have been a treasure. After shooting a 72, he incorrectly inscribed his nine-hole total of 34 in the box where he should have put his 4 for the 18th.

★ ★ ★

He had to accept a 34 for the single hole, 64 for the nine and 102 for the 18.

Carr dropped a 40-foot birdie putt at the first hole and then went another stroke under par with an eight-footer at the second. At the fifth, he dropped from five feet, after hitting the green on the 471-yard hole in 2.

He protected the subpar round with eight and 15-foot putts at the 10th and 12th although going over regulation figures on both the ninth and 18th.

ALL THREE

Under Crosby's plan, each pro-amateur team plays each of the three courses and then the low 40 teams and pros in contention shoot in Sunday's final. A $16,000 prize awaits the low scoring pro and the one on the winning team gets $2,700.

Leading the pro-am sector, where the handicaps of the amateurs count in the scoring, were three teams — Dick Crawford and Wheeler Farish, Jack Rule and Ed Lowery and Dale Douglass and Joe Dyer, tied at 62.

Hills Skate Ace in 3rd Place

OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — Two-time winner Scott Allen, 17, Smoke Rise, N. J., finished strong in the compulsory figures to take a precarious lead in defense of his men's singles title in the National Figure Skating Championships Thursday.

Allen barely shaded Garry Visconti, 21, of Detroit, Mich., and 18-year-old Tim Wood, of Bloomfield Hills, in the six-figure compulsory test at the Ak-Sar-Ben Coliseum.

The deciding free-skating competition will be held Friday night and it could be touch-and-go for Allen.

The handsome New Jersey high school lad won three first place votes from the five judges, two of them coming on the last two figure tests. Allen also won the opening figure, but then Visconti and Wood scored firsts on the next two figures.

All three are regarded excellent free skaters so the Friday night showdown could bring a dethroning of Allen, who won his first national senior title in 1964. The following year he was unseated by the diminutive Visconti.

The 145-pound Allen, who turns 18 on Feb. 8, executed brilliant loops a maneuver in which he is particularly skilled, and that proved the turning point in the compulsory figures showdown.

Allen, pointing for a world title next month at Vienna and a possibly strong Olympic showing in the 1968 games at Grenoble, France, is competing in his ninth national championship meet.

Including senior and lower divisions, the graceful Allen has never finished lower than second in seven of his eight previous national attempts.

★ ★ ★

Wood, a son of Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wood of Mayflower Court, is an 18-year-old freshman at John Carroll University.

He finished third in this same event last year but finished 4th overall and failed to make the U. S. team.

Visconti, who stands only 5-3 and weighs 120 pounds, said that he also was happy over his performance. "As usual I started well, but this time I also kept up the pressure in the later and harder figures," said Visconti, who attends a Detroit junior college and plans to transfer soon to Michigan State or Wayne State of Detroit.

Tam's Brion Advances in PGA Event

PALM BEACH GARDENS, Fla. — Stan Brion, Tam O'Shanter Country Club assistant pro, moved into the quarter finals of the PGA National Golf Club's match championships Thursday with a pair of victories.

Brion whipped former PFA champion Bob Hamilton of Evansville, Ind., 1-up and came back to eliminate Harold Williams of Tuscaloosa, Ala., 2 and 1.

Cliff Settergren of Alma, was ousted 2 and 1 by Freddie Haas Jr. of Metarie, La., in the second round.

Brion goes against Phil Krick of Ellenville, N.Y., today in the quarter-finals.

Former PGA national champion Chandler Harper, of Portsmouth, Va., faces Marty Furgol, of Eldorado, Ark.

Harper moved into today's play by scoring a close sudden-death win over co-medalist Butch Baird of Galveston, Tex., on the 19th hole Thursday.

The PGA's stroke play champion, Claude King of Norfolk, Va., was to go against Ron Howell of North Caldwell, N.J.

Capacity Audience Hears Sports Figures at Elks

A capacity banquet audience of fathers and sons listened at the Elks Temple last night as various sports celebrities gave short talks at the annual event.

The laughs were provided by former American League umpire Red Jones; the serious thoughts on football were made by Dan Boisture, MSU assistant coach; and the plight and future of the Pistons were explained by player-coach Dave DeBusschere.

The hope for the return of amateur boxing was made by state boxing commissioner Chuck Davey and a short talk was given by Ron Kramer tight end of the Detroit Lions.

Sonny Grandelius, ex-MSU All-America, was master of ceremonies, making introductions of the 25 other sports celebrities in attendance.

Ted Cowdrey, chairman of the event, said all 1,100 seats, a new record, were sold.

PCH Track Coach on Panel of Clinic

Pontiac Central's Dean Wilson, who has coached two of the finest hurdlers in the nation, will have charge of this event tomorrow during the Michigan Interscholastic Track Coaches Association Clinic at Central Michigan University.

The veteran mentor was instrumental in starting Hayes Jones to an Olympic gold medal and currently is tutoring Bill Tipton, state prep and National Jaycee hurdles champion.

Coach Jack Boughton of Hazel Park will have charge of the distance running. The clinic will start at 8:30 a.m. with registration.

QB Has Surgery

DETROIT (AP) — Detroit Lions quarterback Karl Sweetan underwent surgery Thursday at Ford Hospital to correct a muscular defect in his left eye. A team spokesman said the operation is expected to allow Sweetan more lateral vision to his left.

SPEAKERS' HUDDLE—There was a big list of sports celebrities at the annual Father and Son banquet at the Elks last night. Sharing in the speaking role were left to right Ted Cowdrey, banquet chairman; Earl Morrall, New York Giants quarterback; Sonny Grandelius, ex-coach and former MSU All-America; Red Jones, former American League umpire and Dave DeBusschere, current player-coach of the Detroit Pistons. A record crowd of 1,100 attended the event.

Pro Cage Ace Hits Points: Then Gets Hit

D. Van Arsdale Drops Warriors' Barry, but Knicks Drop Game

BALTIMORE (AP) — Rick Barry gets points on the basketball court by being elusive, but he becomes an easy target when fists start to fly.

Barry got open for 10 field goals Thursday night, helping San Francisco defeat New York 123-102 in a National Basketball Association game. He also left himself wide open for a punch from Dick Van Arsdale of the Knicks.

★ ★ ★

In Baltimore, at least, Barry's fistic defense doesn't match his basketball offense. When he was floored by Van Arsdale, it was the second loss in two seasons at the Civic Center for the NBA's leading scorer.

The Baltimore Bullets defeated the Cincinnati Royals 122-118 in the second game of the doubleheader. No punches were thrown in that one, but the officials called 56 personal fouls and Ben Warley of the Bullets was tossed out after incurring two technical fouls.

TOOT . . . TOOT

For the twin bill, the whistles were tooted for 107 personal fouls and the players walked to the line for 157 free throws.

There were 89 foul shots in the second game.

The fist fight erupted in the first quarter after Barry fouled Van Arsdale. Players from both benches dashed into the court, but order was restored after Barry hit the deck. Last season, in another game here against the Knicks, Barry suffered a bloody nose at the hands — or fist — of Howie Komives.

San Francisco dealt New York a knockout blow in the second half, pulling away for an easy victory. Tom Meschery, who scored 11 consecutive points for the Warriors during one stretch of the second quarter, led his team with 28. Barry, who declined the mandatory eight count, finished with 22 and Fred Hetzel had 20.

Dick Barnett led the Knicks with 21 points. New York's big men, Walt Bellamy and Willis Reed, totaled only 13 between then while hitting four of 19 shots.

Bingaman Rejects Offer From Lions

DETROIT (AP) — Les Bingaman, a former Detroit Lions' star, said Thursday he had turned down an offer to join the National Football League club's coaching staff.

Bingaman was an All-Pro defensive star when the new Lions' coach, Joe Schmidt, joined the club as a rookie in 1953.

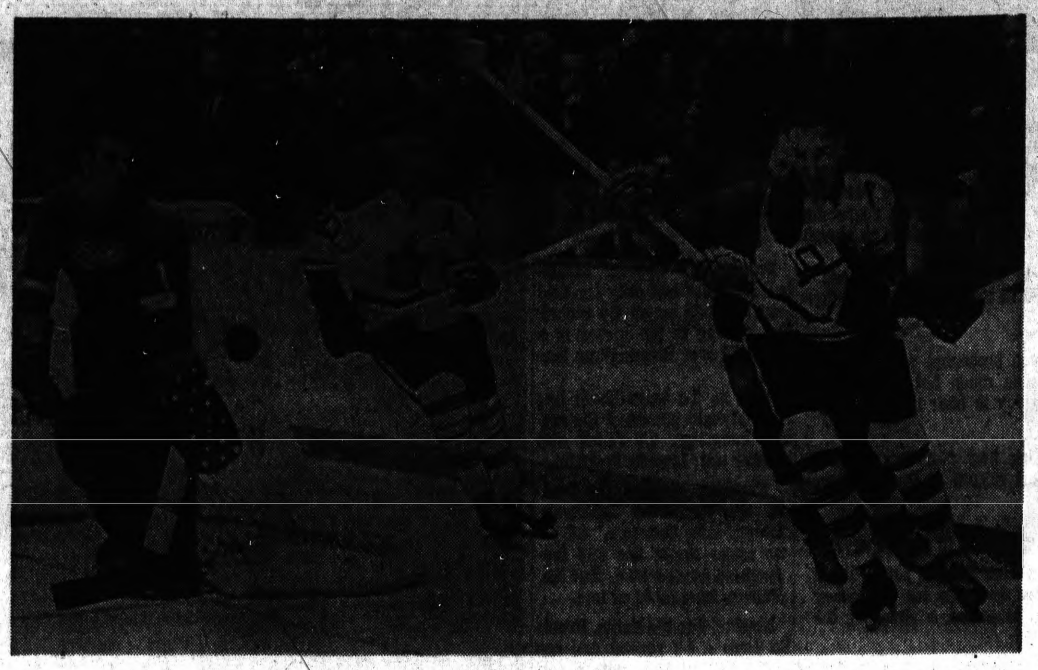

"We never got down to terms," Bingaman said. "I told Joe I didn't feel I could leave George (Wilson.)"

Bingaman was defensive line coach for five years under Wilson and joined him on the Miami team in the American Football League.

GWU Quits Grid Program

WASHINGTON (UPI)—George Washington University today set out to become a national basketball power, its hopes for grid glory abandoned along with its intercollegiate football program.

The university's board of trustees voted unanimously Thursday to drop football after 58 years of varsity competition.

Detroit Gives Maple Leafs 6-2 Drubbing

14 Victories to Date Have All Come on Olympia Ice

DETROIT (AP)—Home cooking and a "grandmother" goal helped give the Detroit Red Wings a walloping 6-2 National Hockey League victory over the Toronto Maple Leafs Thursday night.

The Wings, who have earned all of their 14 victories and two of their three ties on home ice, had a couple of bad minutes in the first period but otherwise skated like world-beaters.

★ ★ ★

"They must like their home cooking. Maybe we ought to take all the wives with us, or have them cook up a batch of food for the road," said Manager-Coach Sid Abel, trying to explain the erratic Wings.

The winning goal, by Paul Henderson, came in the second period. It was his fourth winning goal of the year and gave him the club leadership in that department.

Norm Ullman dug the puck out from the boards and snapped it to Henderson, open on the left wing. Henderson cracked it on the fly and gave the Wings a 3-2 lead with his 15th goal of the season.

"He just threw it out there perfect," said Henderson. "All I had to do was skate into it. My grandmother could have put that one in."

QUICK LEAD

Detroit had jumped to a quick 2-0 lead in the penalty-riddled first period on goals by Bruce MacGregor and Ray Cullen, just called up from the minors.

But Tim Horton and Ron Ellis tied it before the end of the first period in a span of one minute and 34 seconds, largely on Detroit mistakes.

After Henderson put the Wings ahead again MacGregor got his second goal of the night and 12th of the year and Alex Delvecchio and Pete Goegan added scores. Detroit goalie Roger Crozier was unbeatable after the two first-period Toronto goals.

"I got a little luck after those two, that's all," Crozier said. "The first slap shot I couldn't see until too late and it hit the post and went in. The second one hit the post, too, and bounced in."

The victory left Detroit five points behind idle Montreal and the last playoff berth.

BRUINS FALL

Chicago beat Boston 4-2 in the only other NHL action of the night. Doug Mohns scored the three-goal hat trick as Chicago moved into sole possession of first place, breaking a tie with idle New York.

Gil Marotte and Murray Oliver scored for Boston and Ken Wharram scored his 20th goal of the season for the other Chicago tally.

On Saturday, Detroit is at Toronto, Chicago is at Montreal and New York plays at Boston.

Michigan-MSU Meet on Court

Spartan Five Unbeaten in Big 10 Race

By United Press International

The "ups and downs" of the Big Ten basketball race will take the court at Ann Arbor Saturday afternoon when Michigan State meets the Michigan Wolverines.

★ ★ ★

The Spartans currently rank as the team to beat in the conference race, "up" in first place with a 2-0 record while defending champion Michigan is "down" in last place with a 0-3 mark.

★ ★ ★

But despite the difference in records, the Spartans are favored by only three points since the showdown takes place in Yost Fieldhouse, the Wolverines friendly home court.

Coach John Benington, who has watched his Spartans take victories over Illinois and Iowa in Big Ten play, calls Michigan the best "0-3 team in the country in a conference race.

"They have good scoring and excellent personnel."

★ ★ ★

Michigan State has three men shooting in double figures. Center Matthew Aitch is shooting at an 18.8 point per game clip while sophomore Lee Lafayette is averaging 16.9 and junior guard Steve Rymal is averaging 10.6.

TOP SCORER

Center Craig Dill is leading the Wolverines, averaging 19 points per game while Dennis Stewart is averaging 17.1, Bob Sullivan 12.3 and Dennis Banley 5.8.

In another spotlight game Northwestern, which is tied for first place with Michigan State with a 2-0 record, will take on Iowa at Evanston, Ill.

★ ★ ★

Ohio State entertains Minnesota in the third Big Ten game Saturday and the Buckeyes are nine-point favorites. The game will be an early rematch since the same two teams met in Minnesota on Jan. 7 with Ohio State winning, 78-65.

Clay's Claim Rejected

LOUISVILLE (AP) — Local draft Board 47 yesterday rejected Cassius Clay's claim he is a minister and classified the heavyweight champion 1-A. Clay's attorney said he will appeal.

Clarkston Scoring Star Now Has New Challenger

Clarkston's Dan Fife now has a challenger in his bid for the Oakland County scoring championship.

Well in front of the pack most of the season with a 31.0 average, Fife now finds himself just a couple notches ahead of senior Tim Doyle of Farmington Our Lady of Sorrows.

Through eight games, Fife has tossed in 248 points for his 31.0 mark, while Doyle, a 6-3 forward-center, has collected 318 points through 11 games for an average of 28.9.

Sitting in the No. 3 spot on the scoring ladder is Rod Sherman of Royal Oak St. Mary with a mark of 26.0.

RANKS FOURTH

Don Hill of Milford holds the fourth spot and Mike Charette of Royal Oak St. Mary is No. 5.

Continuing to pace the Saginaw Valley Conference is Tom Thon of Saginaw Arthur Hill, who has collected 161 points in seven outings for an average of 23.0.

Pontiac Central's Prentice Hill and Alton Wilson rank four-five on the SVC list.

In the area race, George O'Hara holds down the top spot with a mark of 24.8 through seven games. In the runner-up spot is Armada's Lee Thompson (22.6).

Upset Shakes Cage League

Lakeland Holds First in Waterford Play

Lakeland Pharmacy (3-0) took over sole possession of first place in the Waterford Township men's recreation National League basketball race Thursday night aided by an upset.

Dixie Square Deal rallied to hand Struble Realty its first loss, 55-53, and then Lakeland remained undefeated by holding off winless Zilka Heating, 51-47.

Howe's Lanes joined Struble and Dixie in a tie for second place with a 63-48 decision over winless O'Neil Realty.

Bruce Hazen tallied 10 of his 26 points in the fourth quarter and sank the clinching basket with about 1½ minutes to play as Dixie overcame a 44-39 Struble lead. The winners had a 19-5 advantage from the free throw line

Lakeland broke a 24-all halftime with Zilka to take a 39-34 lead after three periods, then held off the heating quintet. Mickey Forsythe of the losers led all the marksmen with 17 points.

Mike Reed tallied 18 as Howe's led all the way in defeating O'Neil. The game was close for three periods, but the winners opened up a big lead in the late going.

Horton's Leg Put in Cast

DETROIT (AP) — Detroit Tigers outfielder Willie Horton is back home, with his left leg encased in a plaster cast.

Horton, injured while playing winter baseball, hopes to have the cast off in 10 days. He received a heavy shot of cortisone Thursday to try and break up a spur of bone chips discovered while under treatment.

"But if I hadn't sprained my ankle in Puerto Rico, maybe wouldn't have found the bone chips until the season started," said Horton. "Then I would have missed two weeks of games."

Ex-'M' Grid Ace Dies

BRADFORD, Pa. (UPI) — Funeral service will be held here Saturday for Edward J. Phillips, who had been one of the blocking backs for All-American Tommy Harmon of the University of Michigan.

Unitas Starts for West in NFL Contest

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Baltimore's Johnny Unitas got the starting call today over Green Bay's Bart Starr for Sunday's 17th annual National Football League Pro Bowl at Memorial Coliseum between East and West All-Stars.

West Coach George Allen of the Los Angeles Rams explained his choice of the Colt quarterback as lead-off man by saying:

"Bart is coming off the pressure of the Super Bowl game. Unitas has more pro bowl experience and he's been named player of the game three times."

★ ★ ★

Starr led the Packers to a 35-10 win over the Kansas City Chiefs, champions of the American Football League, last Sunday at the coliseum.

East Coach Tom Landry of the Dallas Cowboys, said he will start his own quarterback, Don Meredith in a unit including Cleveland's Leroy Kelly at halfback, Gary Collins, also of the Browns, at flanker and Cowboy Don Perkins at Fullback.

Landry has Cleveland's Frank Ryan as backup quarterback.

Teaming with Unitas in the starting unit for the West will be Dick Bass of the Rams at fullback, Gale Sayers of the Chicago Bears at halfback, and Pat Studstill of Detroit at flanker.

PROPER BILLIARDS

by Jim Lidey

No. 19 — USE OF POWDER — You will find that most pocket billiard parlors have some sort of hand powder that is available to players.

This is supposed to improve your stroke and cause your cue stick to slide easily through your fingers.

★ ★ ★

I have never had to use powder. My hands do not perspire normally. When they become a little moist, I have found the best way to overcome this is to wash and dry them thoroughly.

The continued use of powder when mixed with perspiration, form a kind of pasty surface on your hands, which at best is not desirable.

IT ONLY LOOKS ROUGH—Spyglass Hill, the new "monster" at Pebble Beach, Calif., lost some of its reputation as a tough course Thursday in the opening round of the Bing Crosby National Pro-Am Tournament. Jack Burke Jr., shown putting (in lower center of photo), was one of four pros to fire two-under-par 70s there and is two strokes behind leader Joe Carr's 68. Carr played his round at Cypress Point and Jack Nicklaus had a 69 at Pebble Beach, the third links in the $104,500 tournament. Spyglass Hill only opened recently after being built through the forest and along the Pacific coastline.

PNH Matmen Score Rout

Unbeaten Pontiac Northern smashed Livonia Stevenson in an Inter-Lakes League wrestling match Thursday, 55-3, taking 11 pins in a row after dropping the opening match.

Pontiac Central dropped Waterford Kettering, 33-11, in a nonleague encounter, scoring five falls.

Oakland A League action saw Rochester post the biggest mat win of its first season, 47-3, over Avondale; and Lake Orion won its second league match without a loss, 31-19, with a strong finish against Troy in the heavier weights.

Heavyweight Jim Corr capped PNH's win (that saw five Huskies pin their opponents in the opening period) by downing Stevenson's Harry Cadieux in 47 seconds.

Rochester's Falcons had seven falls in their sixth victory. Lake Orion's fourth win featured Chris Shell's 16th straight triumph and Shelby Largent's seventh in a row in dual meets.

By JERE CRAIG

Ray Wadley of Pontiac had a date in front of the bright lights of television this morning, and although he couldn't see the glare he undoubtedly felt some of the "heat" of competitive bowling.

Wadley is blind—though he can distinguish variances of light, particularly out of the corners of his eyes—but it didn't prevent him from entering and winning the Huron Bowl qualifying for the "Beat The Champ" video series.

This morning he and two competitors met in what will be the 1 a.m. Thursday show. The filming is done at Troy's Thunderbird Lanes.

A member of the Pontiac League of the Blind, Wadley bowls regularly in the group's Monday Morning League at Huron. In fact, he has the top average among the blind and partially sighted keglers, maintaining a mark in the low 150's.

He shares his success with team captain Ruth Lohr, the sighted member of the squad. She tells him what pins are standing when he doesn't get a strike.

Wadley, who lives at 494 Third, has the added handicap of being an amputee, having no left hand. Nonetheless, he takes a quick, confident approach and delivers a hard ball on the lanes.

The slender bowler took up the sport during the early 1940's. He lost his sight due to an infection after the war and didn't resume bowling until the blind leaguers decided to start in 1963.

He states with a grin he has a higher average now than when he could see, and admits last Saturday's efforts in the qualifying have given him his biggest bowling thrill.

He bowled a 549 actual series, plus his 100 per cent handicap, with individual games of 177-178-194.

"Shirley had the patience to work with us," Wadley says, in acknowledging the help of Huron Bowl professional Shirley Pointer.

Many of the league leaders are cheering for Ray. They are proud of his accomplishments, naturally, and happy with the sport in general. In fact, the Pontiac Blind Bowlers are now beginning work on their duties as hosts for this spring's State Blind Tournament.

Pontiac Woman Bowlers' Association members are reminded the extended deadline for entering this year's City Women's Tournament will end midnight Sunday.

Pontiac Press Photo

FINDS JOY ON LANES—Ray Wadley of Pontiac lost his sight nearly 20 years ago and stopped bowling. He returned to the game four years ago. He's had a few 200 games despite not being able to see the pins, and last weekend he led the Beat The Champ qualifying at Huron Bowl.

BOWLING

The pins have been falling at a faster clip lately with one house getting its first 700 and classic league bowlers posting season highs for individual and team efforts.

Co-owner Dick Viles broke the ice finally at Cooley Lanes with a 254-255—730 for the initial 700 at that site. He did it in the Wednesday night Senior House League.

Adding to the night was a team season high 3006 (1044-1043) by Farm Maid Dairy. Roger Overmyer hit a 252 (629) and Lee Doyon 223-234—639.

Farm Maid team member Bill Stobart rolled a 299 game last week at Westland Bowl, leaving an eight-pin on his final ball.

Monday night's West Side Lanes Classic saw Bill Bull set a new high series mark for the season, hitting 215-248-255—718 for Sport Center Trophies.

Jerry Perna rolled 212-239-644 for Atlas Food Market and teammate Ed Avadenka had 214-221—643. The team took eight points as did Gorman Golf Products.

★ ★ ★

The Veterans' Disposal team recorded a 3130 a new high series and Herk's Auto Supply hit 1122 for a new high game in last week's Huron Bowl Classic action.

Cracking the 700 circle was Doug Swords of Herk's with 238-222-246—706. Herk's Pat Sweeney had 223-234—642. Veterans' was led by Harold Pennell's 237-226—668, Bob Lawson's 246-233—663 and Neil Ricketts' 222-212—634.

2 Michigan Bowlers in Semifinals

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI) — Two Michigan bowlers were among the leaders today as the Las Vegas Open Bowling Tournament began semifinal play.

Defending champion Skee Foremsky, El Paso, Tex., topped the list with a 60-pin lead in the $50,000 contest. He rolled a three-round total pinfall of 3,889.

Vic Iwiew of Kalamazoo, held the No. 4 spot with a pinfall of 3,802, while Bob Stampe of Detroit was No. 6 with 3,790.

Bob Collatos of Santa Monica, Calif., was second with 3,829, and Dave Davis of Phoenix, Ariz., third with 3,828.

★ ★ ★

It took an average of 195 to qualify for today's fourth round and 72 bowlers made the cut. The five survivors of today's action go for the $10,000 first prize Saturday.

Biathlon in Finals

MARQUETTE (AP) — The U.S. National Biathlon finals were scheduled here today through Sunday. About 20-25 competitors were expected to take part in the cross-country skiing and target shooting competition.

City Unbeaten Rec Teams Improve League Records

Two of the city's unbeaten men's recreation cage teams improved their perfect records last night while the third one wasn't scheduled.

In the American League, Perry Drugs spurted in the final quarter to drop Oxford Hills, 83-72. The winners (4-0) only led, 57-55 entering the final quarter.

International League leader Coulacos Insurance withstood a strong closing period by Orchard Lanes for a 42-38 victory, the defending champs' third without a loss.

The other IL contest saw Country Chef trim Town & Country Lounge, 67-53. The Amigo Celts dumped the Oxford Merchants, 62-46, in the second AL game.

National League play found once-beaten Acker Construction moving within a half game of first place by topping the Unbeatables, 80-64; and McDonald's Drive-In tripped Highland Lakes, 63-50.

★ ★ ★

The night's individual scoring action included 26 and 24 points, respectively, by Acker's Jim McDonald and John Slavin, Archie Phillip's 24 for the Unbeatables, Sammy Soles' 25 for Perry Pharmacy, and 21 by Dennis Diehm of McDonald's.

The high-point honors, however, went to Gene Lee of Oxford Hills who had 27 in a losing cause.

FIGHT RESULTS

TOKYO—Antonio Herrera, 126¼, Colombia, knocked out Rokuro Ishiyama, 126¾, Japan (7).

BOGOGNA, Italy — Nino Benvenuti, 162½, Italy, knocked out Manfred Graun, 161½, Germany (2).

PORTLAND, Maine—Willie Ray Richardson, 190½, Boston, stopped Indian Tony Burwell, 182½, Philadelphia (8).

ZANESVILLE, Ohio—Gene Young, 128, Moundsville, W. Va., outpointed Johnny Flash Howard, 130, Richmond, Va. (8).

LOS ANGELES—Claudio Adams, 135, Mexico, stopped Allen Syers, 135, England (5).

By OSWALD & JAMES JACOBY

Eric Murray of Toronto who will be playing for America for the third time is the only member of this year's team who has no connection at all with the bridge business. Eric is a prominent and hard-working lawyer.

JACOBY

As an excellent bridge player, he tends to overbid a trifle. Not that we disapprove of overbidding. You get set sometimes when you overbid, but you pick up a lot of extra game and slam bonuses.

He and Sammy Kehela like to open light as may be noted from Sammy's one heart bid in the South seat.

Eric's four club response was a specialized Murray-Kehela bid showing a strong heart raise. East doubled and after South passed Eric went to five clubs in the vain hope that South might have the right cards to produce a slam.

Kehela had a tough hand to play but he worked things out. He ruffed the opening club in dummy, led a trump to his hand and returned a spade to dummy's king. East was in with the ace and led a second spade which Sammy ruffed.

Then he ruffed clubs and spades back and forth and wound up in dummy with a high trump and three diamonds. He led the high trump to leave West who had discarded one diamond on the last club, with three diamonds and nothing else.

Then he led dummy's queen of diamonds and let it ride to West's king. West had to lead back a diamond to give Sammy his contract.

Looks simple enough but the only other expert to play five hearts went down one trick while at the other three tables East and West went down two or three tricks doubled at either four spades or five clubs so that this hand was worth seven IMP's to Murray and Kehela.

♥♣CARD Sense♠♦

Q—The bidding has been:

West	North	East	South
1 ♦	Pass	Pass	1 ♠
Pass	3 ♠	Pass	?

You, South, hold:
♠ A Q 7 6 5 ♥ 4 3 ♦ K 8 3 2 ♣ 7 6

What do you do?

A—Bid four spades. This bid is slightly doubtful but you should try to score the game bonus. You might well have reopened with a weaker hand.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Instead of bidding three spades your partner bids three clubs. What do you do then in this case?

Answer Tomorrow

Funds for MSU

LANSING (AP) — Gifts and grants totaling $1.69 million have been accepted for the university by the Michigan State University Board of Trustees. Major grants included $150,000 from the Atomic Energy Commission for studies in plant biology and $102,796 from the Air Force office for scientific research for a study of magnetic fields under low temperature conditions.

Incident Spurs Hannah Action

EAST LANSING (AP)—Michigan State University president John Hannah says he plans a meeting with the Lansing Chamber of Commerce to stress the need for courtesy to foreign students at MSU.

In a recent incident, Hannah said Thursday, three students from Thailand were ordered out of a Lansing area store. He did not identify the store.

★ ★ ★

"There was no reason for it," Hannah said. "They weren't stealing or being objectionable."

Generally, he said, area merchants cooperate to make the foreign students feel welcome.

VERY IMPORTANT

"This is very important in our foreign relations," Hannah said, "particularly in the case of Thailand where we have strong ties."

Base-Closing Plan Brings Mild Reaction in Congress

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Pentagon's latest move to close military installations in 18 states and phase out six overseas bases is drawing an unusually mild congressional reaction.

Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara yesterday announced a new program of 39 military base closings, partial shutdowns and consolidations designed to save $47.4 million a year.

McNamara said 4,358 jobs, half of them civilian, would be eliminated by the new cutbacks. He said the reductions would not affect the Vietnam war effort.

When McNamara announced a program of 149 base closings and reductions in December 1965, there was a storm of protest from Capitol Hill.

★ ★ ★

But there was little criticism in congressional quarters of the latest economy move. Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., whose state will lose 292 jobs under the new order, backed McNamara.

APPROVE ECONOMIES

"If the secretary says this is good, I'm for it," Hart told newsmen.

Hart, noting that members of Congress enthusiastically approve economies for all but their home areas, said he was in no position to quarrel with McNamara's judgment that the 6th Army Headquarters in Battle Creek, Mich., is no longer needed.

Since McNamara took office in 1961, he has closed or partially shut down 917 bases and other military installations, eliminating 205,000 jobs and saving $1.5 billion annually by his estimate.

★ ★ ★

Despite the congressional uproar over his last round of cutbacks, he noted yesterday that none of them had been canceled. Only one — discontinuance of activities at Hunter Air Force Base in Savannah, Ga.— was postponed.

WILL ELIMINATE

McNamara's new plan, scheduled for completion by December 1968, will eliminate all 14 Army Corps headquarters now serving the Army's civilian reserves.

The Navy's seaplanes and seaplane tenders will be phased out by July 1, 1969, closing out a chapter in the history of naval aviation.

McNamara said the seaplanes were "expensive, difficult to support and relatively inefficient" compared to land-based planes used for antisubmarine patrols.

Active seaplane bases at North Island Naval Air Station, San Diego, Calif., and at Sangley Point Naval Air Station, P.R., will be abolished, along with 10 others on a standby basis.

PHASED OUT

All seaplanes and three seaplane tenders will be phased out, with crews reassigned to land-based P2 and P3 patrol planes and facilities.

Naval District commands will be abolished at San Juan, P.R.; Pearl Harbor, Hawaii; the Panama Canal Zone and at Kodiak, Alaska.

Six Naval District headquarters will be consolidated into three commands — New York and Boston, Philadelphia and Norfolk, and Seattle and San Francisco.

★ ★ ★

The Army Corps headquarters to be eliminated are located at Ft. Wadsworth, N.Y.; Birmingham, Ala.; Battle Creek Mich.; Austin, Tex.; Ft. Lawton, Wash.; St. Louis, Mo.; Atlanta, Ga.; Ft. Devens, Mass.; Minneapolis, Minn.; San Francisco, Calif.; Omaha, Neb.; Ft. Chaffee, Ark.; Ft. Hayes, Ohio, and Indiantown Gap, Pa.

In addition, the naval supply center at Bayonne, N.J., will be closed, saving $3.5 million annually.

About 5,640 of some 10,000 employes affected by yesterday's plan will have to move to a new location. Their expenses will be paid by the government, the Pentagon said. Those whose career positions are abolished will be offered new positions.

The states affected in yesterday's announcement are Alabama, Alaska, Arkansas, California, Georgia, Illinois, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Texas and Washington.

McNamaga did not identify the six overseas base closings and reductions, which will save $9 million a year, pending consultations with foreign governments involved.

'Cardio-Scan' Spots Heart Ills in Young

NORFOLK, Va. (AP) — A suitcase-sized device is helping housewives conduct a massive electronic dragnet for schoolchildren with hidden heart defects.

The device is called the phono-cardio-scan. It is simple to operate, but sophisticated enough to tell — by means of its programming — whether a heart murmur is normal.

★ ★ ★

Under the direction of Dr. William F. Murphy, a Norfolk pediatrician, and Dr. Douglas Moore, director of the heart-lung laboratory at Norfolk Area Medical Center, the Cavalier Junior Women's Club staged the first screening program Thursday at Young Park school.

Members of the club, who learned how to operate the machine in about three hours, examined 118 children during the morning, many times the number a trained doctor could examine using ordinary methods.

The phono-cardio-scan records both the electrical impulses and sounds of a person's heartbeat — taking about three minutes per patient.

★ ★ ★

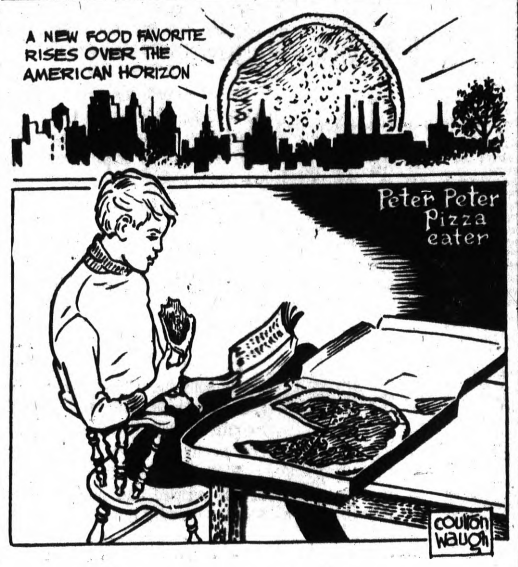

The 18-pound machine ignores "innocent" heart murmurs, but draws attention to possibly serious irregularities with a series of flashing lights and a reading on a numbered scale. The patient is then referred to a physician for further examination.

Junior Editors Quiz on PIZZA

QUESTION: Did pizza originate in Italy or America?

ANSWER: In Italy, each province is apt to have its own food specialties. Pizza originated as such a specialty of the area around the city of Naples. Some say American soldiers stationed in Italy liked it and brought the idea of it back to America. People often speak of pizza pie, but it is not a pie, since its shell is made, not of pie crust but bread dough.

There are many fillings for pizza, but here is one widely popular: a layer of tomato sauce is spread first, then comes pieces of mushroom or sausage, with oregano spice added. Now olive oil is applied, the filling is sprinkled with grated Italian cheese and strips of solid Mozzarella cheese are laid on top. The pizza is baked and served hot.

Why is pizza so popular, especially with the younger set? We interviewed some pizza fans. Jack said: "It's neat to eat. You can pick it up by the crust and the gooey stuff doesn't drip on you." Cathy: "It's exciting. There are so many different kinds." Jerry: "It's companionable. A gang can surround a pizza and have fun while eating it."

FOR YOU TO DO: Have a pizza party and check on some other reasons for eating it. Maybe you'll find it just tastes good!

German Movie Stirs Up Storm

Shows Son of Brandt Wearing Iron Cross

BONN, Germany (AP) — A political storm is brewing over a movie in which a son of Foreign Minister Willy Brandt playfully wears an Iron Cross on his bathing suit.

Lars Brandt, 16, toys with one of Germany's highest wartime decorations in the film version of Guenter Grass' novel "Cat and Mouse." The decoration is the knight's cross, one of the higher grades of the Iron Cross.

★ ★ ★

The film, to be premiered in Berlin in February, received a $75,000 subsidy from the Interior Ministry. That was before Brandt's Social Democratic party joined the government last month and before Brandt became foreign minister and vice chancellor.

Producer Hansjuergen Pohland says the government wants its money back unless he cuts some scenes, including the one in which young Brandt wears the decoration.

"We have no intention of complying with these demands," a spokesman for the film company said.

He added that Brandt had requested deletion of some scenes earlier and Pohland complied, but the Iron Cross scene was not among them.

★ ★ ★

"Mr. Brandt had a right to ask this because he is the father of our two stars," the spokesman said. "But under the West German constitution, the government is not supposed to censor films."

Lars and Brandt's son Peter, 18, play the hero of the film at different ages.

The Interior Ministry says the Iron Cross scene was not in the script on which it gave the subsidy.

Powell Hopes LP Will Pay Judgment

WASHINGTON (AP) A long-playing record entitled "Keep the Faith, Baby" is going to be one of Rep. Adam Clayton Powell's major weapons in his fight for his House seat.

The record, a collection of statements and observations about his congressional colleagues and sermons by the Harlem politician-preacher, is coming out next week. If it's a hit, Powell hopes he will have solved one of his big problems.

He plans to turn all royalties from sales of the record over to Mrs. Esther James, the Harlem widow who holds a $164,000 slander judgment against him. His failure to pay or to respond to other court orders in connection with the suit has led to his being ordered jailed for contempt of court if he appears in New York.

Powell's chief aide, C. Sumner Stone, said persons who have heard the record describe it in such terms as "fantastic," "unbelievable" and "wild."

ROYALTIES

The record was made last week by Jubilee records, Stone said, and will be given an intensive publicity campaign and nationwide distribution. Powell is to get 22 cents per record as both the author and performer, which means a sale of 750,000 records would bring in enough to pay the court judgment.

Stone also said a publishing company is to bring out a book of Powell's sermons, from which the royalties will go to Mrs. James.

★ ★ ★

Powell's New York court troubles, along with a House committee's accusation of deception in his handling of congressional travel funds, are responsible for the challenge to his House seat that has kept him on the sidelines since the 90th Congress opened.

★ ★ ★

Rep. Lionel Van Deerlin of California touched off the controversy by announcing his intention to try to keep Powell, a fellow Democrat, from being seated as long as he was in contempt of court and subject to arrest.

OBSTACLE

If Powell, a Negro, can pay the judgment and get Mrs. James to withdraw the many other actions she has filed against him in an effort to make him pay, he will have removed a major obstacle to his being seated.

★ ★ ★

He also will have considerably eased the problem of the special committee named Thursday to investigate his qualifications to be seated. The panel is to report back to the House within five weeks, at which time the House will determine whether Powell is to be seated or barred.

City JA Representatives Attending Ball Tonight

Chosen to represent the Pontiac Junior Achievement Business Center in tonight's Mr. Executive and Miss Achievement contests at the JA Executive Ball are Sharon Upton, 16, and Berch Berberoglu, 18.

The ball, to be held at Detroit's Cobo Hall, officially opens programming for Junior Achievement Week.

JA Week will be observed throughout the United States and Canada from Sunday through Jan. 28.

This annual observance salutes young men and women in Junior Achievement and the 30,000 business firms in the United States which support the organization.

★ ★ ★

In conjunction with JA Week, the Pontiac Business Center, 20½ E. Pike, will hold an open house from 7 to 9 p.m., Monday through Thursday. Ted Villella is center director.

GENERAL CHAIRMAN

Serving as general chairman of JA Week is Henry J. Moses, president of Performance Measurements Co., Oak Park. Moses lives at 4751 Cove, West Bloomfield Township.

Keynote speaker for the JA Presidents' Banquet will be Virgil Boyd, Chrysler Corp. president.

Boyd of 376 Dunston, Bloomfield Hills, will address some 420 presidents of miniature JA companies at Detroit's Statler-Hilton Hotel Tuesday.

★ ★ ★

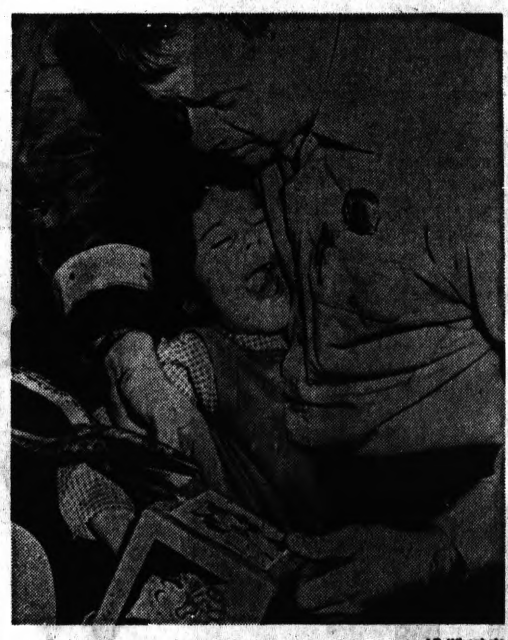

Selection of the best JA product in various categories, including metal, wood and ceramics, will be made at the JA headquarters in Detroit Thursday.

★ ★ ★

More than 8,000 high school students in southeastern Michigan participate in the eight-month JA business education program sponsored by local business and industry.

Antifilibuster Rule Vote Near

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate votes next Tuesday on whether to choke off debate on a move to modify its antifilibuster rule.

A cloture petition filed Thursday will come up for action then, with a two-thirds majority of senators voting required to end debate and proceed to act on a motion to bring up the rules change proposal.

★ ★ ★

Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansfield filed the petition bearing signatures of 31 senators, almost twice the 16 required.

Sen. George McGovern, D-S.D., is chief sponsor of the proposal to permit filibusters to be terminated by a three-fifths majority of senators voting, instead of the two-thirds majority now required.

McGovern said he fears it may not be possible to get the necessary two-thirds majority Tuesday to bring up his proposal, which he described as "a conservative, moderate, middle-of-the-way procedure."

Tuition Clash Nears Climax

Reagan Against Vote by Regents on Issue

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — A clash shaped up today between Republican Gov. Ronald Reagan and the powerful California's higher education institutions.

The two face each other, on opposite sides of the tuition fence, at a closed session of the University of California Board of Regents, which held an open session Thursday.

★ ★ ★

Reagan, pressed by an expected multimillion-dollar state budget deficit, turned over his tuition plan to regents for a month of study. Later, asked about plans to bring the tuition issue to a vote in today's session, Reagan said he was against it.

Thursday night, it was learned that Unruh, who is against tuition, will push for a vote on the issue which has ignited statewide controversy.

SWELLING ENROLLMENT

Reagan and the other regents are squeezed between swelling University of California enrollment and a $473-million budget deficit. Thursday, the board voted to keep enrollments open while trying to cut expenses.

Facing mounting criticism over his economy proposals, Reagan agreed to restore $5-million to finance year-round classes at UCLA and Berkeley.

★ ★ ★

Still undecided is the size of the university's 1967-68 budget, which Reagan has proposed to cut by 10 per cent. The university has 87,000 students on nine campuses, with more than 6,000 teachers.

Reagan, attending his first regents meeting since his election, assured the university his budget plans are temporary. "This is in no way a change in permanent policy," he said.

"Nobody in state administration has in mind reducing the goals of quality in education that have been the glory of California."

In turn, the regents agreed to urge administrators of the university to "continue to make every effort to economize."

Reagan is president of the Board of Regents by virtue of his office. Unruh also is a regent via his position.

Appeals Made in Liuzzo Case

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Attorneys for two Alabama klansmen have asked a Federal Appeals Court to set aside their convictions on federal charges stemming from the fatal shooting of Viola Gregg Liuzzo.

Mrs. Liuzzo, wife of a Detroit Teamsters Union official, was shot and killed March 24, 1965, following the Selma-to-Montgomery, Ala., civil rights march.

★ ★ ★

Eugene Thomas of Bessemer and Collie Leroy Wilkins of Fairfield were convicted and sentenced to 10 years each on a federal charge alleging they conspired to violate her civil rights.

The convictions "were persecutions outside the law rather than prosecutions within the law," defense attorney Fred Blanton Jr., told the 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals.

INDICTMENT

Blanton said the indictment under which Thomas and Wilkins were tried was defective in that it did not sufficiently inform the defendants of the charge against them.

Applications for Draft Test

Applications for the Selective Service college qualification tests, scheduled for March 11, 31 and April 8, are now available at the three Pontiac draft boards.

★ ★ ★

They must be postmarked no later than Feb. 10.

The test may be taken by any registrant who has not taken it before and who wishes to request deferment as a student.

The three-hour exam will be administered at 15 colleges in the state on each of the scheduled dates.

★ ★ ★

Test results are forwarded directly to the registrant's local board.

Pollution Production Car-eening Upward

By DICK WEST
United Press International

WASHINGTON — America's productive capacity has long been one of the marvels of the world. Everybody knows that.

WEST

At current rates, to cite a couple of the more impressive figures, this country is producing about 131 million tons of air pollution.

The fact that air pollution production now outranks iron and steel putput is a source of concern to many people, particularly those who like to breathe regularly. Among these is Rep. Richard L. Ottinger, D-N.Y.

On Wednesday, Ottinger tooled up to the Capitol in a Yardney Silvercel, a demonstration model electric car that runs on four rechargable batteries and maybe a dozen or so transistors.

There are scoffers in the audience, internal combustion types mostly, who were amused by the vehicle and shouted rude remarks, such as "Get a Volkswagen!"

★ ★ ★

But Ottinger pointed out that gasoline-powered autos are responsible for about 73 million tons of our annual air pollution production.

LONG WAY

He is convinced that electric cars can go a long way toward clearing up the atmosphere — if electric cars can be made to go a long way.

At present, they don't get enough miles to the kilowatt to provide practical transportation.

For this reason he introduced a bill to authorize a federal program aimed at improving their performance.

Being a habitual breather myself, I wish him well. At the same time, however, I would like to see some thought given to another approach to the problem.

★ ★ ★

Apart from the harm they do, those 133 million tons of air pollution that we produce each year are totally wasted. They are so economically inefficient they are not even counted as part of the Gross National Product (GNP).

If some practical use for air pollution could be developed, along with a feasible electric car, it would certainly be a giant step forward.

I am thinking in terms of a machine that would extract pollution from the air and package it in sacks or bundle. In its raw state it might make good lawn fertilizer. Or chemists could perhaps transform it into a new type of plastic.

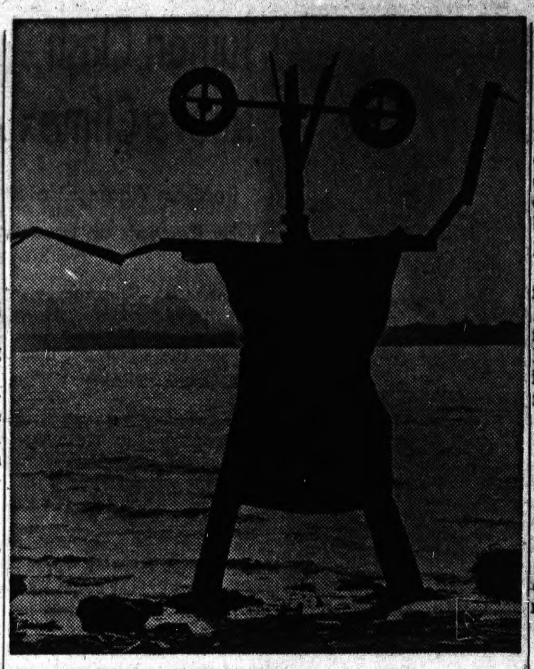

If not, the pollution could be compressed and molded into bricks for building highways to accommodate the new electric cars.

Med Schools Graduate 7,574

By Science Service

CHICAGO — U. S. medical schools during the past year graduated 7,574 new doctors — 163 more than the preceding year, an alltime high.

Fifteen countries now provide 75 per cent of all the foreign graduates serving residencies in this country.

ARTY SCARECROW — Mudflat art in the mire of San Francisco Bay resulted in this goggle-eyed creature that appears to wave cheerily at passing motorists. Tongue-in-cheek student artists used discarded tires for eyes and driftwood for body, arms and legs, and clothed their creation in an old carpet.

Reaching 56 a Hollow Victory

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — A glance at the calendar reminds me that next month I'll be 56 years old.

What other blows can mankind take and still endure?

The prospect of being 56 inevitably inflicts philosophic thoughts on a fellow.

Reaching that age may be a hollow victory, but it is still a victory. A majority of the human beings who have teemed the earth never lived to be 56.

FROST AHEAD

Once you go beyond 55 you are getting into winter territory. You have an instinctive realization that there's frost ahead. It hits you somewhere inside like the blow of a mammoth hammer.

You have to face up to the fact that in many ways you are definitely over the hill. This has a glad as well as a sad side.

It is pleasant to know that you are still young enough to run for the presidency, if your country should call you, but too old to have to run for a post in the local P-TA.

There are other erosions and compensations at 56:

- You no longer have to read the morale messages the boss pins up on the company bulletin board.
- The doctor has a pretty definite idea what's wrong with you, and you know pretty well what's wrong with him. You enjoy exchanging symptoms.
- If you donate a pint to the office blood bank, everybody tells you that you are a hero—something you've known for a long time.

Daily Rocket Flights Predicted

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI) — A committee of space experts predicts that in the next 20 years or so daily rocket flights to orbit and back will be commonplace.

The group also predicts that future countdowns will be no more complicated than the preflight checks on present-day jetliners and that the cost of reaching orbit will be only about four times the price of the fuel used.

The key to this advanced stage of space development, the committee said, is to reduce the high cost of space transportation.

And the group said this can only be done by developing a new generation of launchers and spacecraft that can be recovered and used over again like the airplanes of today.

★ ★ ★

The arguments for making at least a concerted effort to resolve some of the technical questions surrounding such reusable rockets were made in a report to the American Institute of Aeronautics and Astronautics (AIAA) by its launch vehicle and missile committee.

The panel, headed by Brig. Gen. Joseph S. Bleymaier, commander of the Air Force Western test range, said it is not too early to examine what the characteristics of the next generation of boosters should be.

The group pointed out that the average cost per flight of a typical long-range jetliner today is about $1,500. The cost per flight of a Titan 3 or Saturn 1 rocket is about $20-million.

The committee said there are two outstanding reasons for this vast difference.

One is that rockets need enormous amounts of propellant and therefore are very large in proportion to the payload they carry. The second is that each present-day launcher is brand new and is used only once.

State's Senators Sign Cloture Bid

WASHINGTON (AP) — Both Michigan Sens. Philip Hart, a Democrat, and Robert Griffin, a Republican, have signed a cloture petition which if successful would lead to a vote on a move to change the antifilibuster rule.

Chief sponsor of the proposal to permit filibusters to be choked off by a three-fifths majority of senators voting, instead of the present two-thirds majority, was Sen. George McGovern, D-S.D.

14 Missing in AF Plane, Navy Helicopter Crashes

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

An Air Force KC135 jet tanker with nine persons aboard and a naval helicopter, manned by five crewmen, were still the object of searches today at opposite ends of the United States.

The jet tanker presumably crashed in a mountainous area northeast of Spokane, Wash., according to officials.

Search parties were dispatched after the plane, a military version of the Boeing 707, flipped off the radar screen at Fairchild Air Force Base while preparing for a landing.

Mount Kit Carson and Mount Spokane were immediate search targets after residents reported "loud thumps." Parties later moved into the nearby Idaho foothills.

★ ★ ★

The Navy helicopter was last heard from 15 miles off Bogue Inlet, N. C., over rough Atlantic waters.

DELIVERED PATIENT

Coast Guard officials said the helicopter had delivered a patient to a Marine hospital on shore and was headed back to its command ship.

In addition to a host of surface vessels scouring the area, a number of Marine and Navy planes and helicopters were involved in the search for the men of the B-19 craft.

There was a near tragedy in Norfolk, Va., where a United Airlines plane with 50 aboard and a snowplow collided. The plow had just cleared the runway when hit by the landing plane.

★ ★ ★

The plow operator was badly injured. Seven aboard the plane were treated for minor injuries.

Death Claims Publisher of Dallas Paper

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — John W. Runyon, publisher of the Dallas Times Herald, died today. He was 79.

The newspaper executive and civic leader also was chairman of the board of the Times Herald Printing Co.

★ ★ ★

He had been ill only a few weeks. Death came at 4:10 a.m. in Baylor Hospital.

Runyon rose from clerk to publisher over 55 years with the afternoon newspaper. He completed a long term as a director of the Associated Press recently.

BORN IN IOWA

Born at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, he came to Dallas in 1906. His long association with the Times Herald began in 1911.

His first job with the newspaper was as display advertising collector and, a year later, he was made one of its two advertising solicitors.

★ ★ ★

He was named advertising manager in 1918 and held that post 23 years before advancing to vice president after the death of the Times Herald's founder and publisher, Edwin J. Kiest.

Runyon became president of the Times Herald in 1952. He was named chairman of the board and publisher in 1960.

DOUBLE ROLE

Starting in 1943, he had worked in a double capacity as advertising manager of the Times Herald and president of its broadcast facilities — KRLD-AM-FM-TV. Two years later, he was elected chairman of the KRLD board.

Survivors include his wife, the former Grace Dowd of Dallas; a son, John W. Runyon Jr., and a granddaughter, Mrs. Bob Still, of Dallas.

OK'd by MSU Board

2 to Join Faculty at OU

The appointment of two faculty members, one change of status and three leaves of absence at Oakland University were approved yesterday by the Michigan State University Board of Trustees at its monthly meeting.

Both appointments were of new assistant professors of psychology who will join the faculty Aug. 15.

They are Dr. Richard L. Sprott, now a postdoctoral fellow at the Jackson Laboratory, Bar Harbor, Maine, and Dr. David W. Shantz, presently an assistant professor of psychology at Wayne State University.

Sprott holds bachelor of arts, master of arts and doctor of philosophy degrees from the University of North Carolina.

★ ★ ★

Shantz received his bachelor of arts degree from Bethel College and his master of science and doctor of philosophy degrees from Purdue University.

ACTING CHAIRMAN

Donald Hildum, 424 Gunder, Avon Township, associate professor of psychology, was appointed acting chairman of the psychology department until Aug. 14.

The regular chairman, Harvey Burdick, 190 Ottawa, is spending this semester in Paris as one of three faculty members teaching 44 OU Charter College students on a study tour of Paris, Madrid and Mainz, Germany.

Leaves of absence were approved for Walter S. Collins, 2955 Heidelberg, Avon Township, dean of the Meadow Brook School of Music, from Aug. 20 to Feb. 20, 1968, to study in New York City; James C. Haden, 7100 Wing Lake Road, Bloomfield Township, chairman of the philosophy department, from Sept. 6 through April 20, 1968, for study, and Robert Simmons, 700 Cambridge Drive, Avon Township, chairman of modern languages and literature, from Sept. 6 through Dec. 20, to study in Germany.

2 Riders Rob 'Samaritans'

Two men were robbed at about 3 a.m. today at Lake and Houston by two males they had given a ride on the pretext their car was out of gas.

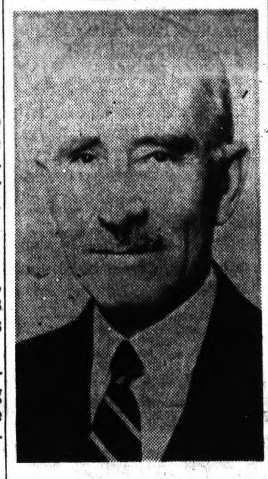

The victims were Kenneth L. Cummings, 44, of 2191 Greer, Sylvan Lake, and Kenneth E. Johnson, 34, of 53 James.

Taken from Cummings was a $142 check, a $75 watch and a cigarette lighter. Johnson was robbed of $1.

Cummings told Pontiac police he and Johnson had just left work at Pontiac Motor Division when they were approached by two subjects in a plant parking lot.

They asked for a ride to a friend's home.

The bandits threatened Cummings and Johnson with a gun and knife, robbed them and escaped on foot.

Two Detroiters to Stand Trial

Withdraw Guilty Plea in $8,600 Robbery

Two Detroit men, who last month pleaded guilty to holding up the Fox & Hounds Inn in Bloomfield Hills, yesterday withdrew their pleas and will now stand trial.

★ ★ ★

The pair, James L. Ingram, 20, and James A. July, 18, withdrew their pleas just before they were to be sentenced by Circuit Judge Arthur E. Moore for assault with intent to rob and steal while being armed.

Moore said they will stand trial in about three weeks for armed robbery, the offense for which they were originally charged.

Ingram and July had been allowed to enter a guilty plea to the lesser offense Dec. 14.

★ ★ ★

July was arrested Aug. 4 in Riverside, Calif., a month after the $8,600 robbery of the restaurant.

Ingram, who was implicated in the robbery by July, was arrested in Detroit Aug. 16.

County Adds 46,179 Pupils in Five Years

Oakland County has added the equivalent of two new Pontiac School Districts to its total of schoolchildren in the last five years.

Public school officials in the county's 30 districts counted 221,339 students Sept. 30, 1966 according to figures released today by the Oakland Schools office.

The figure marks a gain of 10,702 over the official count date of 1965 and 46,179 over 1961.

The 59 nonpublic schools operating within the districts of Oakland County reported a total enrollment of 29,191 children.

For the first time since 1960, the first-grade classes do not outnumber all others.

CLOSE SECOND

There are 18,039 boys and girls in the fourth-grade classes, with the third grade pacing a close numerical second at 17,933.

The number of first graders is 17,796, slightly below the 17,868 children counted last year.

The relative load on the high schools is increasing, according to the summary figures.

During the 1966-67 academic year, the percentage of students in senior high schools is 18.9 per cent as against 15.1 per cent in 1961.

12,182 SENIORS

The 12th-grade enrollment this year is 12,182, or 5.5 per cent of the total enrollment, compared to 7,478 or 4.2 per cent of the total in 1961.

Three Grants Are Accepted by Trustees

Three federal grants, totaling $29,959, to support programs under the direction of three Oakland University faculty members were accepted yesterday by the Michigan State University Board of Trustees.

The U. S. Office of Education awarded $7,500 for preparatory costs for a summer institute for high school and junior high school teachers of French.

The summer program at OU, one of 48 institutes in various modern languages set up across the country under the National Defense Education Act, will be directed by Don R. Iodice, assistant professor of modern languages.

The Office of Education also awarded a $9,449 grant to Donald C. Hildum, associate professor of psychology at OU, to finance research in the prediction of college performance and personality.

★ ★ ★

The third grant, $11,010 from the National Science Foundation, went to John W. Dettman, professor of mathematics, for a summer mathematics enrichment program for talented high school students.

New Governor a Sleepyhead

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. (UPI) — Oklahoma's new governor, Dewey Bartlett, says he plans to maintain several of the policies of his predecessor, Gov. Henry Bellmon. He will change one policy, he said.

★ ★ ★

Bellmon, a farmer, used to arrive at the Capitol before dawn. City-bred Bartlett goes to work at 8 a.m.

Ex-Gridder Appointed by Urban League

A former football player, Leroy F. Moore, has been appointed director of health, welfare and housing for the Pontiac Area Urban League.

Moore, 29, of 370 W. South Blvd. will succeed Lonnie Threadgill, who recently resigned.

A native of Pontiac and a professional football player with the Buffalo Bills, Denver Broncos and the Boston Patriots, Moore served on the Urban League staff during the off-season in 1964.

He is married and the father of one child.

★ ★ ★

Moore did undergraduate work at Fort Valley State College and further graduate study at Boston University in the social sciences.

WORKED WITH YOUTH

He previously has worked with the Denver Youth Council, Denver, Colo.

★ ★ ★

Moore's appointment was announced by Clarence E. Barnes, executive director of the Urban League.

Barnes also announced that Miss Marion J. Busbee had been added to the Urban League staff as a clerk-typist.

Two at MSU Eye Viet Meeting

EAST LANSING (UPI) — Two Michigan State University student leaders said yesterday they will join the National Students Association's meeting in Washington Jan. 28 to question U.S. policy in Vietnam.

James Graham of Detroit, chairman of the Associated Students of Michigan State, and Kyle Kerbawy, 21, Bloomfield Hills, editor in chief of the campus newspaper, said the meeting plans to draft letters to President Johnson questioning whether the United States should be involved in the Vietnam war.

Body of GI Killed in Viet Will Be Sent to Pontiac

EDINBURG, Tex. (UPI) — The Army will ship the body of Sgt. Mario Ramirez to Pontiac rather than the Texas Lower Rio Grande Valley, where a search for the soldier's relatives proved to be fruitless.

Ramirez, 23, was killed in Vietnam Monday.

He had been in Vietnam for six months. He joined the Army in March 1965.

Ramirez was an employe of the Pontiac Motor Division prior to entering the Army.

It was found Ramirez had lived with his father, Pablo Ramirez, of 38 Close in Pontiac.

★ ★ ★

Earlier, a telegram was sent to the District Court of Hidalgo County, Texas, asking for information about the soldier's mother, Mrs. Consuelo Ramirez.

WAS DIVORCED

Mrs. Ramirez was divorced from the sergeant's father in 1949, the telegram said. The Army needed to know whether she was given custody of Ramirez.

However, the telegram did not mention the father's name and in Hidalgo County, near the Mexican border, there are many Ramirez families.

"We checked everywhere through our books," Mrs. Peggy Stephens, a deputy district clerk said.

★ ★ ★

"I checked every Ramirez recording in the book for 1949, but it would be impossible to find her without the former husband's name."

★ ★ ★

By that time, the soldier's father had already been found in Michigan.

Pythian Heads Are Installed

James Elliot of 4526 South Shore, Waterford Township, has been installed as chancellor commander for the Knights of Pythias No. 19.

★ ★ ★

Others installed were vice chancellor, Lester Avis of 1570 N. Opdyke, Bloomfield Township; secretary, Andrew McEvoy of 890 Southampton, Pontiac Township; financial secretary, A. J. Roy Sr. of 4861 Cimarron, Bloomfield Township; and treasurer, Carl Ainge of 114 Pine Grove, Waterford Township.

STATE OF MICHIGAN — In the Probate Court for the County of Oakland, Juvenile Division

In the Matter of the Petition Concerning William Knapp aka Pollington, Minor

TO Charles Knapp, father of said minor child

Petition having been filed in this Court alleging that said child comes within the provisions of Chapter 712A of the Compiled Laws of 1948 as amended, in that the present whereabouts of the father of said minor child is unknown and said child has violated a law of the State, and that said child should be continued under the jurisdiction of this Court.

In the Name of the People of the State of Michigan, You are hereby notified that the hearing on said petition will be held at the Court House, Oakland County Service Center, in the City of Pontiac in said County, on the 30th day of January, A.D. 1967, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, and you are hereby commanded to appear personally at said hearing.

It being impractical to make personal service hereof, this summons and notice shall be served by publication of a copy one week previous to said hearing in The Pontiac Press, a newspaper printed and circulated in said County.

Witness, the Honorable Norman R. Barnard, Judge of said Court, in the City of Pontiac in said County, this 16th day of January, A.D. 1967.

Cause No. 20982

STATE OF MICHIGAN — In the Probate Court for the County of Oakland, Juvenile Division

In the Matter of the Petition Concerning Joseph Andrew Fabian Carevic, Minor

TO Andrew Carevic, father of said minor child

Petition having been filed in this Court alleging that said child comes within the provisions of Chapter 712A of the Compiled Laws of 1948 as amended, in that the present whereabouts of the father of said minor child is unknown and said child has violated a law of the State, and that said child should be continued under the jurisdiction of this Court.

In the Name of the People of the State of Michigan, You are hereby notified that the hearing on said petition will be held at the Court House, Oakland County Service Center, in the City of Pontiac in said County, on the 30th day of January, A.D. 1967, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, and you are hereby commanded to appear personally at said hearing.

It being impractical to make personal service hereof, this summons and notice shall be served by publication of a copy one week previous to said hearing in The Pontiac Press, a newspaper printed and circulated in said County.

Witness, the Honorable Norman R. Barnard, Judge of said Court, in the City of Pontiac in said County, this 16th day of January, A.D. 1967.

Recount Adds to GOP Win

FLINT (AP) — Republican James F. Smith has defeated Democratic incumbent Bobby D. Crim by 154 votes in the race for 79th District state representative, a recount showed Thursday.

The original count declared Smith the winner by 109 votes. But Smith picked up another 45 votes in the recount conducted by a 10-member, bipartisan House committee.

★ ★ ★

The recount settles one of the two disputed races in Genesee County. Recounting of returns in the 82nd District, where Democratic incumbent Albert Horrigan had an 81-vote edge over Republican Paul Calvin Vissler, began today.

Basin Work Set

BAY CITY (AP) — Construction of a turning basin in the Saginaw River will begin April 15, reports the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers. The basin will cost $119,102, and will be built by the Capitol Dredge and Dock Co. of Lorain, Ohio.

In Memriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF ANNA Denk, who passed away January 20, 1964.
The depths of sorrow I cannot tell,
And while she sleeps a peaceful sleep,
Her memroy I shall always keep.
Sadly missed by husband Norman.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF ZULAH I. Drake who passed away one year ago today, January 20, 1966
Time turns away the edge of grief,
But memory turns back every leaf.
Sadly missed by cousins, Gertrude and Dorothy Dawson.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF OUR dear father Leroy J. Tindall who passed away Jan. 19, 1965.
It seems like only yesterday
We heard you speak our names
And daddy since you left us
Things have never been the same.
Gone is the voice we knew
Gone is the face we loved
You had labored long
God took you home
To rest with him above.
Sadly missed by Marilyn, Ida, and Eileen and our families.

YOUR TV AND YOU

Your TV set and you are probably inseparable companions on most of these cola winter days and evenings. This means extra hours of operation for your set and that is like putting extra miles on your car. It generally means that additional maintenance will be required. When this need arises, be kind to your TV set by giving it competent professional service. Eliminate guesswork and experimenting, call a reliable and experienced TESA of Oakland County Service Dealer.

The Sage of the 'Stage' on Stage at Miami Beach

By EARL WILSON

MIAMI BEACH — Max Asnas, the Sage of 7th Av., the New York delicatessen owner whom Fred Allen called the pastrami pundit, lies back here in the sun at the Fontainebleau pool, in his pulging swim trunks, and spouts the profundities that have made him a celebrity.

WILSON

"You're 'in' if the plump, grey-haired, Russian-accented Max accepts you in his circle of listeners.

"I vent from heartburn to sunburn," he suddenly announces, lying stretched out on a beach chair.

A woman bursts over and asks, "Aren't you Max Asnas from the Stagedoor Delicatessen?" Max nods, though the correct name is "Stage Delicatessen." The woman says she'd like to have an autograph.

"You vouldn't like it better on a salami?" Max asks.

"I met you years ago," the woman says. "You weren't as gray as you are now."

Max ignores the opportunity to say "You weren't either." He nods again and pats his stomach, which is overflowing his swim trunks.

"I got a hangover and I don't even drink," he says.

★ ★ ★

"How do you keep away from the racetrack?" we ask Max. He is an incurable horseplayer who, at the most, manages to stay away from the track two days in a row.

"I tell you how I stay away from it," Max says, "I don't stay away from it."

Team Investigating Fatal Plane Crash

SAULT STE. MARIE (AP)—A team headed by Noel D. Lawson, Civil Aeronautics Board air safety investigator from Des Plaines, Ill., Thursday began investigating the crash of a private plane in which a Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., man lost his life.

The team, accompanied by Chippewa County Sheriff Roy Guest, went to the crash scene on the ice of Sugar Island's Baie de Wasai.

E. S. (Ted) Stack, 40, was killed when his plane crashed on the ice Tuesday night shortly after he radioed the Canadian Soo airport for landing instructions on a flight from Sudbury, Ont.

STABBING SUSPECT—Roger B. Shaw of Huntington Woods listens intently as Detective Charles Whitlock of the Oakland County Sheriff's Department informs him of his rights and charges he faces in connection with yesterday's stabbing of an Oakland University coed. Shaw is accused of assault with intent to commit murder. The victim, Janice E. Leveranz of 2077 N. Opdyke, Pontiac Township, is in satisfactory condition in Royal Oak's William Beaumont Hospital.

Man Charged in OU Knifing

A 23-year-old Huntington Woods man has been charged with assault with intent to commit murder in the stabbing of an Oakland University coed in a campus parking lot at noon yesterday.

The victim, Janice E. Leveranz, 20, of 2077 N. Opdyke, Pontiac Township, is listed in satisfactory condition at Royal Oak's William Beaumont Hospital.

Miss Leveranz, the daughter of Mrs. Genevieve Leveranz of Detroit, underwent abdominal surgery yesterday afternoon after being stabbed with a six-inch ceremonial dagger.

The suspect, Roger B. Shaw of 26116 Wyoming, was arrested by Oakland County sheriff's deputies at the hospital where he had driven Miss Leveranz for treatment.

At his arraignment before Pontiac Township Justice R. Grant Graham yesterday, Shaw demanded examination which was set for 1:30 p.m. Feb. 3.

★ ★ ★

He is being held in Oakland County Jail in lieu of $10,000 bond.

PARKING LOT

Miss Leveranz and Shaw, reportedly a former boyfriend, became involved in an argument in his car in the parking lot at North Foundation Hall.

★ ★ ★

A witness said he heard a scream and saw a man and girl struggling in a car.

★ ★ ★

He said the car then backed up and struck another vehicle. The witness recovered the knife in the parking lot and later turned it over to sheriff's deputies.

State Leaders Vary on Ferency Substitute

LANSING (AP) — Does the Democratic party of Michigan want or need a full-time chairman?

Its leaders have "varied" opinions, reports full-time Chairman Zolton Ferency, who announced yesterday he would not seek reelection to what is normally the state party's top job.

Ferency said both Secretary of State James Hare and Neil Staebler, the state's Democratic national committeeman, look with favor on State Sen. Sander Levin of Berkley.

Levin has said he hasn't made up his mind. But few believe he will resign from the Senate to devote all his time to overseeing the State Central Committee.

The only announced candidate for the chairmanship so far is Richard K. Stout, a State Agriculture Commission member, who has indicated he would be willing to work full-time at the job.

U.S. Gives OK to $1,100,000 Sewer Grant

Construction Funds Set for Joint Effort of Walled Lake, Novi

A federal grant totaling $1,100,000 has been approved for construction of Walled Lake's joint sanitary sewer project with the village of Novi.

Announcement of the grant by the Department of Housing and Urban Development was made yesterday by Congressman Jack H. McDonald, R-19th District.

Construction of the system, which includes a sewage treatment plant, a trunk line sewer and an internal sanitary sewer system, is scheduled to begin in about six months.

Completion is scheduled for a year after that.

★ ★ ★

"The entire city government is extremely happy to reveice this," said City Manager Royce is extremely happy to receive this," said City Manager Royce Downey.

ASSURANCE

"We have been assured that no matter what appropriation cuts are made, our money is safe."

He lauded McDonald and former Congressman Billie S. Farnum for their part in obtaining the grant.

Novi Village Manager Harold N. Ackley has said the village has been ready for some time to proceed with plans.

As its last meeting, however, the Village Council asked for more time to study the proposal which, councilmen said, was higher than originally anticipated.

The State Water Resources Commission has given Walled Lake until June 1, 1969, to correct a water pollution problem.

VOICING VIEWS — Senate Minority Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois speaks during his segment of the Republican rebuttal to President Johnson's State of the Union message. House Minority Leader Gerald Ford (seated) preceded Dirksen to the rostrum last night.

Ford Voices Opposition to LBJ Tax Plan

Two Minority Leaders' Outlooks Not Carried by Live Network TV

WASHINGTON (AP) — Appraising the state of a "vexed and troubled" union, Senate Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen has prescribed reinforced U.S. determination and "a more vigorous effort on land, sea and in the air" to end the war in Vietnam.

And House GOP Leader Gerald R. Ford has vowed Republican opposition to a wartime tax increase until President Johnson makes "a convincing case" for the boost he seeks.

The two minority leaders delivered their joint appraisal last night before some 250 Republican colleagues in the Capitol's hot, crowded old Supreme Court chamber.

Ford said November's election victories gave the GOP a mandate to chart "a new direction for America. As we look ahead, Republicans see a program of sensible solutions for the 70's," he said.

★ ★ ★

"Why don't we come up with some positive solutions for the 60's?" Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansfield asked later.

MORE CAUSTIC

Another Democrat was more caustic in his assessment of the appraisal.

"I gather that Messrs. Dirksen and Ford are strongly in support of the Vietnam war, but strongly opposed to paying for it," said Sen. Albert Gore, D-Tenn.

"This would have those who are fighting and dying make the only sacrifice."

★ ★ ★

But there were only Republicans to cheer, no Democrats to chide, when Dirksen and Ford delivered the twin speeches they said were neither replies nor rebuttals to the State of the Union message Johnson took to Congress 10 days ago.

ON GUEST LIST

Dirksen and some of his Republican colleagues were on the White House guest list for a buffet and reception a few hours before the speech.

The Republican show was produced with a minute-by-minute timetable, designed for live, network television.

Says Visitor to Hanoi

'Bombing of North a Failure'

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP) — The bombing of North Vietnam has been a failure, a recent U.S. visitor to Hanoi reports. He said the question of a halt in the bombing of the Communist North may be critical for the chances of peace talks.

ASHMORE

Harry S. Ashmore, executive vice president of the Center for Study of Democratic Institutions, presented this opinion to a news conference yesterday.

At the same time he reported that North Vietnamese President Ho Chi Minh was quite interested in an invitation to send a representative to a convocation on world peace in Geneva in May.

Ashmore, who returned Monday from North Vietnam, stressed that the May meeting would be official and could by no means be considered a forum for Vietnam peace negotiations.

But he expressed hope that Ho's interest meant that "something tangible" was developing in the way of a changed Hanoi attitude toward peace negotiations.

Ashmore told the news conference that "my own judgment is that I consider the bombing a failure" and that from what he had seen and heard, the type of bombing now going on would not end the war. Instead, he said, it was strengthening North Vietnam's unity.

★ ★ ★

The North Vietnamese officials, he said, seem aware that alone they can never muster strength enough to push U.S. forces into the sea, but he said he had the impression they felt

GIs Find Key Documents in Possible Vietcong HQ

IRON TRIANGLE, South Vietnam (AP) — U.S. infantrymen today explored a massive tunnel that may have served as headquarters of the Vietcong's 4th military region, which includes Saigon.

Brig. Gen. Richard T. Knowles of Columbus, Ga., commander of the 196th Light Infantry Brigade, said his men found maps, detailed plans, weapons, booby traps and even some Vietcong in the long, winding tunnel.

Among the documents were plans for the Dec. 4 attack by guerrilla suicide squads on Saigon's Tan Son Nhut airport; French and American maps and diagrams of hotels and billets that house Americans in Saigon.

The tunnel is deep in the Ho Bo Woods 25 miles northeast of Saigon within the Iron Triangle where the 196th and American and Vietnamese units are in the 13th day of Operation Cedar Falls—the largest offensive of the war.

"Tunnel Rats" of the 196th had penetrated 600 yards into the tunnel by nightfall and the end was nowhere in sight.

Among the men probing the blackened shaft and dozens of side entrances was Sgt. Ronald Payne of Atlanta, Ga., who twice fired his silencer-equipped pistol at guerrillas scurrying through the tunnel ahead of him.

"I don't think if I hit any of them or pot," Payne said. "But they definitely are down there."

As the Tunnel Rats, directed by Capt. William H. Pelfrey, 26, of Tulsa, Okla., spread through the winding tunnel their war booty mounted. It included medical supplies, typewriters, a dozen rifles and 14 pistols. The pistols, Pelfrey said, probably were officers' sidearms and supported the belief that the tunnel had served as an important Vietcong center.

City Airport Facilities Trail Growth

By DICK SAUNDERS

Pontiac Municipal Airport has new prestige, new parents and the same old facilities.

One owner of locally based aircraft put it this way: "We're No. 3 in traffic. Not bad for a 10th or 11th rate facility."

SAUNDERS

The Pontiac air facility's total operations (arrivals and departures) for 1966 rank behind only Detroit Metropolitan and Detroit City airports in Michigan.

When the Federal Aviation Agency released fiscal year data (July 1965-June 1966) last summer, Pontiac ranked fifth in the state in total operations.

★ ★ ★

While air traffic has been booming, local airport facilities have been the victim of a custody case.

CHANGE SLATED

After more than two years of governmental bartering, Oakland County has come up with custody of the city-owned airport. The final papers should be ready for signatures within a month.

During the trade talks, the city budget was tight and local officials were hesitant to commit funds for improvements at a facility they were trying to sell or trade.

Thus, the airport's two most glaring deficiencies three years ago are still the top priorities in whatever improvement and expansion program the county may choose to initiate:

- An instrument landing system (ILS).

J. DAVID VANDER VEEN

- A new 5,000-foot north-south runway.

During the lengthy city-county airport discussions, Pontiac Municial Airport hasn't been marking time in the bulk of air traffic.

TOP 6 AIRPORTS

Here's how the state's top six airports ranked in total operations for the fiscal year ending last June 30 and the calendar year ending Dec. 31.

Fiscal Year Ending June 30, 1966
(Arrivals and departures)

Detroit City	224,834
Detroit Metro	208,895
Willow Run	146,910
Pontiac	145,281
Lansing	145,785
Flint	139,259

Calendar Year 1966
(Arrivals and departures)

Detroit Metro	249,220
Detroit City	233,606
Pontiac	172,684
Flint	159,109
Lansing	149,201
Willow Run	136,321

"Traffic is up all over the state," said Airport Manager J. David VanderVeen, "but our increase over the past year has been terrific."

Pontiac reported 27,403 more operations in the past calendar year than in the 12 months ending last June 30.

★ ★ ★

"But the jump is even greater from year to year," VanderVeen noted. "Operations for 1966 here ran about 48,700 higher than during calendar 1965.

OPTIMISTIC

"That's a jump of 39.2 per cent. We had optimistically projected a hike of 37 per cent."

Air traffic is split into three

2 Leaders' Suicides Reported in Peking

TOKYO (AP) — A wall newspaper put up in Peking by a unit of Red China's army reported today that purged general staff chief Lo Jui-ching and Vice Premier Po I-po committed suicide.

Japanese correspondents in the Chinese capital said the "extra" issued by the 235th army detachment also reported Communist party general secretary Teng Hsiao-ping — one of the chief targets of Mao Tse-tung's purge — and Yang Hsiu-feng, president of the Supreme People's Court, attempted suicide.

Earlier today one of Mao's mouthpieces, the theoretical journal Red Flag, disclosed that some nominal followers of the party chairman have become alarmed by the turmoil sweeping the Chinese mainland, saying, "You are going too far" and "You are making a mess of it."

But the official Peking People's Daily quoted a Shanghai Red Guard as saying, "We will give the enemy no quarter and will not quit until complete victory."

SOURCE NOT GIVEN

The army wall paper did not give its source for the suicide reports. There have been several such from Hong Kong recently. Rumors swept Peking in mid-December that Lo had killed himself, and a Red Guard who defected said in Taipei Dec. 27 that Lo jumped off a building but only broke a leg.

The wall paper said Lo, 60, once China's dreaded secret police chief and a member of the ruling party politburo, died after his second suicide attempt "because he was afraid of his crimes."

A CHANGE AT JOHNS HOPKINS—Lincoln Gordon, assistant secretary of state for Inter-American affairs, was named yesterday to be president of Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, Md., effective July 1. Gordon (right) will succeed Milton S. Eisenhower, holding a cigarette. Eisenhower, brother of the former president, announced last April he would retire. Ambassador Sol M. Linowitz and Peace Corps Director Jack Hood Vaughn are being mentioned as possible successors to Gordon.

Mental Health Decision Eyed

Two Officials Express Optimism on Accord

Officials of both the Oakland County Community Mental Health Service Board and Pontiac State Hospital today expressed optimism over the progress of discussions on mental health jurisdiction.

At issue is a proposed agreement that would give the hospital primary jurisdiction over about one-fifth of the county population in a 14-township area.

A decision on the agreement by the mental health board may be made at the board's meeting next Friday.

Dr. Robert E. Walden, psychiatric director for the mental health board and Dr. Donald W. Martin, medical superintendent of the hospital, held a second administrative level meeting on the issue yesterday.

Both agreed that progress is being made.

ISSUES BEING RESOLVED

"Some of the issues in the agreement appear to be resolving themselves," Dr. Martin said. "I feel we have reached the basis for a real compromise and understanding."

Dr. Walden shared the optimistic outlook but noted that the 12-member mental health board has the decision responsibility on the proposed pact at the local level.

"We have had a good meeting of minds at the two meetings this week," Dr. Walden said.

Five Arrested in Local Raid Draw Fines

Five men were ordered this morning to pay fines ranging from $50 to $1,000 for their involvement in a Pontiac gambling operation.

The five were among 29 persons arrested by Pontiac and State Police in a raid on the Seaway Civic and Social Club at 118 S. Paddock on Oct. 2, 1965.

Fined $1,000 each and ordered to pay $500 court costs by Circuit Judge William J. Beer were Odus Tincher, 50, of St. Clair Shores and Anthony Bacharowski, of Highland Park.

Tincher pleaded guilty Dec. 23, 1966, to two counts, conspiracy to violate gaming laws, and violation of state gambling lawes.

★ ★ ★

Bacharowski and Thomas Misko, also of St. Clair Shores, pleaded guilty last month to violating state gambling laws.

ORDERED TO PAY

Misko was ordered to pay a $500 fine and $500 court costs.

George Mekras, 48, and Casey Harrod, 38, both of Pontiac, were fined $50 and $100, respectively, for frequenting a gambling place.

Judge Beer also invoked a conservator of the peace bond for each and said that any violation would mean a forfeiture of $2,500 of their property.

★ ★ ★

Tincher was one of three men found guilty last June of conspiring to bribe a Pontiac police officer to keep the gambling operation from being raided. The officer was working undercover for the department.

★ ★ ★

Tincher, who was sentenced from 1-to-5 years in the state prison at Jackson, and one of the other two are appealing the bribery conviction.

Late Senator's Baker Tie Told

Disputed Funds Went to Kerr, Says Lawyer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The name of the late Sen. Robert S. Kerr of Oklahoma has moved to the forefront as Bobby Baker erects his defense against charges of income tax evasion, larceny and conspiracy.

Defense Attorney Edward Bennett Williams told a U.S. District Court jury Thursday he would prove that Baker turned over to Kerr in late 1962 about $100,000 in senatorial campaign contributions.

★ ★ ★

The government charges Baker, former secretary to Senate Democrats, kept $80,000 of this sum for himself and spent it on his financially troubled Carousel Motel at Ocean City, Md.

Baker returns to the witness stand today as his trial moves into its 10th day.

ACTUALLY OVERPAID

Testifying Thursday after the prosecution rested its case, Baker said that instead of underpaying his income taxes by $22,000 in 1961 and 1962, as the government alleges, he actually overpaid.

★ ★ ★

Testimony has shown the $100,000 in cash was raised in the fall of 1962 by California savings and loan executives who had just successfully opposed a tax provision in pending legislation.

★ ★ ★

The money was intended, Williams said, to be delivered to Kerr for distribution among various Democratic senators.

Sheriff Tells 3 Changes in Department

Sheriff Frank Irons announced today that three members of the department have either been promoted or reclassified.

★ ★ ★

Henry Hensen, 35, of 1895 Greenmeadow, Walled Lake, was promoted from deputy to sergeant. He has been with the department since 1958.

Promoted from deputy to sergeant and placed in charge of skin divers was Medward Tessier, 34, of 1520 Beverly, Walled Lake. He is a 10-year veteran of the department.

★ ★ ★

Lewis M. Doyle, 26, of 4401 Baywood, Waterford Township, was reclassified as chief identification technician. He joined the department in August 1965.

Avon Matter in Committee

Petitions requesting the incorporation of the Avon Township into the "City of Avon" were accelerated through the County Board of Supervisors today, and have been referred to the group's boundaries committee for study.

Filed only yesterday, the petitions had to be reviewed as to authenticity and form by the county clerk, the register of deeds and the corporation counsel before they could be taken before the board.

★ ★ ★

Supervisor Cyril Miller said the board would probably act on the boundaries committee's recommendation at its February meeting.

they could not lose the war either.

'END WAR'

"We should take any step possible to end the war. If I were president, I would certainly stop the bombing. I am not one of those who is critical of the President's policies, but I feel that if there are to be any negotiations, it will call for concessions on both sides."

Ashmore said that without question the U.S. bombings of the North had caused severe dislocations there.

He said: "Certainly North Vietnam has been inconvenienced, but not in the sence of reducing its war effort. My own judgment is that I consider the bombing a failure. The damage done has had an effect, but it has been offset by the unity it has given the country.

★ ★ ★

"The morale is extremely high. The people have been solidified behind the government. The problem, in military terms, is that to be really effective, theoretically, would mean it would be necessary to disrupt communications, but that would require escalation of the bombing effort.

GOP: Boost Effort on War

There was none, although the speeches were filmed and recorded for later showing.

Two radio networks — NBC and Mutual — broadcast the speeches.

★ ★ ★

Ford spliced into his speech a call for legislation "requiring television and radio to provide free and equal treatment to major parties and their spokesmen" between, as well as during, political campaigns.

Dirksen said Johnson spent 70 minutes on the air. "Tonight, we have but 27 minutes. That's not quite equal time," he said.

Ford outlined Republican domestic proposals, listing a stream of GOP offerings which have been advanced before.

He advocates increased Social Security benefits, higher payments to veterans and their families, a system of tax sharing to return some federal revenues to the states, an overhaul of the antipoverty program and the streamlining of government.

★ ★ ★

"The Republicans put their best foot backwards," said House Democratic Leader Carl Albert. "Their record is there for all to see, and it is a record of sheer indifference."

Albert said the Republican offering was "the old broken record of fear, alarm, distrust and futile carping."

Ford not only challenged Johnson's proposed 6 per cent surcharge on corporate and most individual income taxes, he called for reinstatement of a tax break that had been offered to business which invest in new equipment.

That is the 7 per cent investment tax credit, which Congress has suspended until next year.

MSU Trustees Board Stalls Over Choice for Chairman

EAST LANSING (AP) — The Michigan State University Board of Trustees was without a chairman today and there appeared little chance that one will be elected in the near future.

Although Democrats hold a 5-3 majority on the board, the trustees split 4-4 Thursday in attempting to choose between Democrats Don Stevens of Okemos and Connor Smith of Pinconning.

★ ★ ★

Board bylaws make no provision for a tie.

Stevens, choice of the Democratic majority, said that although he thought the board should have a chairman he would not raise the question again and doubted that his supporters would be willing to change their votes.

UAW OFFICIAL

Stevens, an education director for the UAW, was backed by fellow Democratics C. Allen Harlan of Southfield, Frank Hartmen of Flint and Clair White of Bay City.

Smith, an independent Democrat and former board chairman, was supported by Republicans Frank Merriman of Deckerville, Kenneth Thompson of Detroit and Stephen Nisbet of Fremont.

★ ★ ★

Stevens said past practice has been for the majority party to caucus and pick a candidate who then was elected unanimously.

He said he did not know why Smith chose to oppose his candidacy.

NOT AVAILABLE

Smith was not available for comment.

The former Democratic 6-2 margin on the board was shaved to 5-3 in the Nov. 8 election in which Thompson defeated Democrat Warren Huff, the former chairman.

Fishing Slayer of Wife Gets 1½ to 15 Years

An Avon Township man who went fishing after killing his wife was sentenced yesterday to 1½-to-15 years in the state prison at Jackson.

The prison term was ordered for Jack W. Young, 34, of 3940 Crooks by Oakland County Circuit Judge Arthur E. Moore.

Young was allowed to plead guilty to manslaughter Dec. 14 rather than stand trial on a first-degree murder charge. The prosecution could not establish that the crime had been premeditated.

Mrs. Young, 30, was found bludgeoned to death in her home June 20 last year.

★ ★ ★

Young was arrested the following day in Unionville in Tuscola County by detectives from the Oakland County Sheriff's office. They said he had gone fishing with a friend.

Moore recommended to authorities that Young undergo psychiatric treatment while serving his sentence.

DETROIT (UPI) — The Michigan ALF-CIO launched its drive yesterday to quash a flat-rate state income tax which Gov. George Romney is expected to recommend.

Birmingham Area News

Beautification Project Launched by Committee

BIRMINGHAM — If you seek a more beautiful Birmingham, a current campaign should be right up your alley.

"Operation Beautiful Alley" was kicked off Wednesday morning by the Beautify Birmingham Committee.

Chairman Ruth McNamee, a city commissioner, said "We're starting in the alley, but we hope to spread the campaign all over the city.

"We don't want the alleys to be a dead end," she said.

"We're not seeking beauty in the narrow sense, a few flowers here and ornaments there, but we hope to improve our whole environment."

★ ★ ★

A workshop on how to go about prettying up alleys was held yesterday morning — appropriately at a restaurant called "The Alley Door," which is located, you guessed it, in an alley off West Maple and Woodward, the rear of Machus Pastry Shop.

URBAN DESIGNER

The committee of service club members and business men and women heard advice from Cy Paumier, an urban designer from Ann Arbor.

He stressed the need for coordination and restraint in decoration.

Mrs. McNamee said "What we learned in the workshop will help us in other ways in the future. Our object is not only to improve alleys, but our whole way of life.

★ ★ ★

"If coming to Birmingham is pleasant and rewarding, this is broadening and a contribution to life," she said.

MAJOR ALLEYS

Mrs. McNamee stresses that six major alleys in the downtown district have become important passageways. She points out that beautification is an endeavor that can't be legislated and is a matter of individual responsibility.

Success is based on personal contacts and persuasion," she said.

Another workshop is scheduled for March 22. Meanwhile, don't be surprised if a committee member with beautification ideas comes knocking at your door. Perhaps the back door.

Union Wins Vote

CENTREVILLE (AP)—Workers at the Denton Sleeping Garment Mills, Inc. of Centreville and its subsidiary, the Lamb Knit Goods Co. of Colon, have voted 249-130 to be represented in contract negotiations by the Almagamated Clothing Workers of America.

14 Missing in AF Plane, Navy Helicopter Crashes

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

An Air Force KC135 jet tanker with nine persons aboard and a naval helicopter, manned by five crewmen, were still the object of searches today at opposite ends of the United States.

The jet tanker presumably crashed in a mountainous area northeast of Spokane, Wash., according to officials.

Search parties were dispatched after the plane, a military version of the Boeing 707, flipped off the radar screen at Fairchild Air Force Base while preparing for a landing.

Mount Kit Carson and Mount Spokane were immediate search targets after residents reported "loud thumps." Parties later moved into the nearby Idaho foothills.

★ ★ ★

The Navy helicopter was last heard from 15 miles off Bogue Inlet, N. C., over rough Atlantic waters.

DELIVERED PATIENT

Coast Guard officials said the helicopter had delivered a patient to a Marine hospital on shore and was headed back to its command ship.

In addition to a host of surface vessels scouring the area, a number of Marine and Navy planes and helicopters were involved in the search for the men of the B-19 craft.

There was a near tragedy in Norfolk, Va., where a United Airlines plane with 50 aboard and a snowplow collided. The plow had just cleared the runway when hit by the landing plane.

★ ★ ★

The plow operator was badly injured. Seven aboard the plane were treated for minor injuries.

Death Claims Publisher of Dallas Paper

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — John W. Runyon, publisher of the Dallas Times Herald, died today. He was 79.

The newspaper executive and civic leader also was chairman of the board of the Times Herald Printing Co.

★ ★ ★

He had been ill only a few weeks. Death came at 4:10 a.m. in Baylor Hospital.

Runyon rose from clerk to publisher over 55 years with the afternoon newspaper. He completed a long term as a director of the Associated Press recently.

BORN IN IOWA

Born at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, he came to Dallas in 1906. His long association with the Times Herald began in 1911.

His first job with the newspaper was as display advertising collector and, a year later, he was made one of its two advertising solicitors.

★ ★ ★

He was named advertising manager in 1918 and held that post 23 years before advancing to vice president after the death of the Times Herald's founder and publisher, Edwin J. Kiest.

Runyon became president of the Times Herald in 1952. He was named chairman of the board and publisher in 1960.

DOUBLE ROLE

Starting in 1943, he had worked in a double capacity as advertising manager of the Times Herald and president of its broadcast facilities — KRLD-AM-FM-TV. Two years later, he was elected chairman of the KRLD board.

Survivors include his wife, the former Grace Dowd of Dallas; a son, John W. Runyon Jr., and a granddaughter, Mrs. Bob Still, of Dallas.

OK'd by MSU Board

2 to Join Faculty at OU

The appointment of two faculty members, one change of status and three leaves of absence at Oakland University were approved yesterday by the Michigan State University Board of Trustees at its monthly meeting.

Both appointments were of new assistant professors of psychology who will join the faculty Aug. 15.

They are Dr. Richard L. Sprott, now a postdoctoral fellow at the Jackson Laboratory, Bar Harbor, Maine, and Dr. David W. Shantz, presently an assistant professor of psychology at Wayne State University.

Sprott holds bachelor of arts, master of arts and doctor of philosophy degrees from the University of North Carolina.

★ ★ ★

Shantz received his bachelor of arts degree from Bethel College and his master of science and doctor of philosophy degrees from Purdue University.

ACTING CHAIRMAN

Donald Hildum, 424 Gunder, Avon Township, associate professor of psychology, was appointed acting chairman of the psychology department until Aug. 14.

The regular chairman, Harvey Burdick, 190 Ottawa, is spending this semester in Paris as one of three faculty members teaching 44 OU Charter College students on a study tour of Paris, Madrid and Mainz, Germany.

Leaves of absence were approved for Walter S. Collins, 2955 Heidelberg, Avon Township, dean of the Meadow Brook School of Music, from Aug. 20 to Feb. 20, 1968, to study in New York City; James C. Haden, 7100 Wing Lake Road, Bloomfield Township, chairman of the philosophy department, from Sept. 6 through April 20, 1968, for study, and Robert Simmons, 700 Cambridge Drive, Avon Township, chairman of modern languages and literature, from Sept. 6 through Dec. 20, to study in Germany.

2 Riders Rob 'Samaritans'

Two men were robbed at about 3 a.m. today at Lake and Houston by two males they had given a ride on the pretext their car was out of gas.

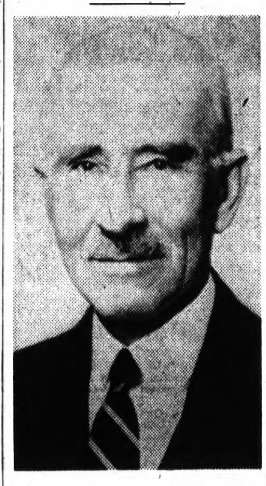

The victims were Kenneth L. Cummings, 44, of 2191 Greer, Sylvan Lake, and Kenneth E. Johnson, 34, of 53 James.

Taken from Cummings was a $142 check, a $75 watch and a cigarette lighter. Johnson was robbed of $1.

Cummings told Pontiac police he and Johnson had just left work at Pontiac Motor Division when they were approached by two subjects in a plant parking lot.

They asked for a ride to a friend's home.

The bandits threatened Cummings and Johnson with a gun and knife, robbed them and escaped on foot.

Bashful People

LIMA, Peru (UPI — A club for bashful people has been formed here, known as the Club of the Timid Ones. Its object is to help members overcome their shyness.

An average of four persons a day have been signing up for the club. An equal number make inquiries but apparently are too bashful to join.

Two Detroiters to Stand Trial

Withdraw Guilty Plea in $8,600 Robbery

Two Detroit men, who last month pleaded guilty to holding up the Fox & Hounds Inn in Bloomfield Hills, yesterday withdrew their pleas and will now stand trial.

★ ★ ★

The pair, James L. Ingram, 20, and James A. July, 18, withdrew their pleas just before they were to be sentenced by Circuit Judge Arthur E. Moore for assault with intent to rob and steal while being armed.

Moore said they will stand trial in about three weeks for armed robbery, the offense for which they were originally charged.

Ingram and July had been allowed to enter a guilty plea to the lesser offense Dec. 14.

★ ★ ★

July was arrested Aug. 4 in Riverside, Calif., a month after the $8,600 robbery of the restaurant.

Ingram, who was implicated in the robbery by July, was arrested in Detroit Aug. 16.

County Adds 46,179 Pupils in Five Years

Oakland County has added the equivalent of two new Pontiac School Districts to its total of schoolchildren in the last five years.

Public school officials in the county's 30 districts counted 221,339 students Sept. 30, 1966 according to figures released today by the Oakland Schools office.

The figure marks a gain of 10,702 over the official count date of 1965 and 46,179 over 1961.

The 59 nonpublic schools operating within the districts of Oakland County reported a total enrollment of 29,191 children.

For the first time since 1960, the first-grade classes do not outnumber all others.

CLOSE SECOND

There are 18,039 boys and girls in the fourth-grade classes, with the third grade pacing a close numerical second at 17,933.

The number of first graders is 17,796, slightly below the 17,868 children counted last year.

The relative load on the high schools is increasing, according to the summary figures.

During the 1966-67 academic year, the percentage of students in senior high schools is 18.9 per cent as against 15.1 per cent in 1961.

12,182 SENIORS

The 12th-grade enrollment this year is 12,182, or 5.5 per cent of the total enrollment, compared to 7,478 or 4.2 per cent of the total in 1961.

Three Grants Are Accepted by Trustees

Three federal grants, totaling $29,959, to support programs under the direction of three Oakland University faculty members were accepted yesterday by the Michigan State University Board of Trustees.

The U. S. Office of Education awarded $7,500 for preparatory costs for a summer institute for high school and junior high school teachers of French.

The summer program at OU, one of 48 institutes in various modern languages set up across the country under the National Defense Education Act, will be directed by Don R. Iodice, assistant professor of modern languages.

The Office of Education also awarded a $9,449 grant to Donald C. Hildum, associate professor of psychology at OU, to finance research in the prediction of college performance and personality.

★ ★ ★

The third grant, $11,010 from the National Science Foundation, went to John W. Dettman, professor of mathematics, for a summer mathematics enrichment program for talented high school students.

Ex-Gridder Appointed by Urban League

A former football player, Leroy F. Moore, has been appointed director of health, welfare and housing for the Pontiac Area Urban League.

Moore, 29, of 370 W. South Blvd. will succeed Lonnie Threadgill, who recently resigned.

A native of Pontiac and a professional football player with the Buffalo Bills, Denver Broncos and the Boston Patriots, Moore served on the Urban League staff during the off-season in 1964.

He is married and the father of one child.

★ ★ ★

Moore did undergraduate work at Fort Valley State College and further graduate study at Boston University in the social sciences.

WORKED WITH YOUTH

He previously has worked with the Denver Youth Council, Denver, Colo.

★ ★ ★

Moore's appointment was announced by Clarence E. Barnes, executive director of the Urban League.

Barnes also announced that Miss Marion J. Busbee had been added to the Urban League staff as a clerk-typist.

Two at MSU Eye Viet Meeting

EAST LANSING (UPI) — Two Michigan State University student leaders said yesterday they will join the National Students Association's meeting in Washington Jan. 28 to question U.S. policy in Vietnam.

James Graham of Detroit, chairman of the Associated Students of Michigan State, and Kyle Kerbawy, 21, Bloomfield Hills, editor in chief of the campus newspaper, said the meeting plans to draft letters to President Johnson questioning whether the United States should be involved in the Vietnam war.

Body of GI Killed in Viet Will Be Sent to Pontiac

Army will ship the body of Sgt. Mario Ramirez to Pontiac rather than the Texas Lower Rio Grande Valley, where a search for the soldier's relatives proved to be fruitless.

Ramirez, 23, was killed in Vietnam Monday.

★ ★ ★

He had been in Vietnam for six months. He joined the Army in March 1965.

Ramirez was an employe of the Pontiac Motor Division prior to entering the Army.

It was found Ramirez had lived with his father, Pablo Ramirez, of 38 Close in Pontiac.

★ ★ ★

Earlier, a telegram was sent to the District Court of Hidalgo County, Texas, asking for information about the soldier's mother, Mrs. Consuelo Ramirez.

WAS DIVORCED

Mrs. Ramirez was divorced from the sergeant's father in 1949, the telegram said. The Army needed to know whether she was given custody of Ramirez.

However, the telegram did not mention the father's name and in Hidalgo County, near the Mexican border, there are many Ramirez families.

"We checked everywhere through our books," Mrs. Peggy Stephens, a deputy district clerk said.

★ ★ ★

"I checked every Ramirez recording in the book for 1949, but it would be impossible to find her without the former husband's name."

★ ★ ★

By that time, the soldier's father had already been found in Michigan.
