Receptions welcome incoming freshmen

By Jeff Samoray, OU Web Writer

Newly admitted Oakland University students and their families are invited to join OU faculty, staff and students for a reception to congratulate the 2004 freshmen class on their acceptance. Admitted Student Receptions will be held Wednesday, Feb. 4; Thursday, Feb. 5; Tuesday, Feb. 10; and Wednesday, Feb. 11, from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. in the Oakland Center Banquet Rooms. An additional reception is scheduled for Thursday, Feb. 19, from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. at the Karas House at 23632 Plymouth Road in Redford.

Sponsored by the Undergraduate Admissions Office, the receptions offer information on academic programs and the enrollment process, panel discussions led by current OU students, alumni guest speakers, entertainment provided by students from the Department of Music, Theatre and Dance, and refreshments.

"The receptions serve dual purposes," said OU Admissions Adviser Brian Bouwman. "We want to congratulate incoming freshmen on being admitted to Oakland and inform them about orientation and the next steps in the enrollment process. We also want those who have yet to decide which college to attend to have all their questions about Oakland answered."

Though space is limited, spots still are available for those who wish to attend a reception. To register, visit OU's Special Events Web site or call (800) OAK-UNIV. You also can obtain more information by contacting the Admissions Office at ouinfo@oakland.edu.
