

Wednesday, July 23, 2008

Former student arrested in graffiti case

Today, the OUPD announced the arrest of a former student, Tory Dantuma, age 21, for writing a threatening message in a rest room of Van Wagoner House on April 15, 2008. The subject was later arraigned on the felony charge of False Report or Threat of Terrorism before Judge Lisa Asadoorian of the 52-3 District Court. Bond was set at one million dollars.

A second investigation involving threatening messages discovered on April 12, 2008, is continuing. The OUPD is again asking anyone with information regarding that investigation to please contact them at (248) 370-3331.

SUMMARY

Today, the OUPD announced the arrest of a former student, Tory Dantuma, age 21, for writing a threatening message in a rest room of Van Wagoner House on April 15, 2008. The subject was later arraigned on the felony charge of False Report or Threat of Terrorism before Judge Lisa Asadoorian of the 52-3 District Court. Bond was set at one million dollars.

Created by CareTech Administrator (webservices@caretechsolutions.com) on Wednesday, July 23, 2008

Modified by CareTech Administrator (webservices@caretechsolutions.com) on Monday, August 25, 2008

Article Start Date: Wednesday, July 23, 2008