OAKLAND FINISHES SECOND IN LARGEST AVERAGE ATTENDANCE INCREASE

The Golden Grizzlies nearly doubled attendance from 2007-08 in 2008-09. Oakland University posted one of its finest seasons in Men's Basketball history in 2008-09 and the attendance figures demonstrate that. OU finished second among individual schools in Division I for average attendance increase from the previous year, posting an average attendance of 4,156 in 14 games, nearly doubling the 2007-08 average of 2,082. "Our basketball programs had outstanding seasons," said Director of Athletics Tracy Huth. "This is a tribute to our fans that came out and showed tremendous support throughout the year."

TEAM HIGHLIGHTS

MEN

The Golden Grizzlies completed a stellar 2008-09 season with a Division I era best 23 wins, a school record nine straight wins (Feb. 5-March 10) and a bid to the inaugural CollegiateInsider.com Postseason Tournament. Oakland finished runner-up at the Summit League Tournament, falling in the final seconds to top-seeded North Dakota State, and suffered a similar fate in the quarterfinals of the CIT Tournament, losing on a 75-foot buzzer beater to Bradley. Head Coach Greg Kampe earned his 400th career win, Johnathon Jones led the nation in assists per game with 8.1, and the Golden Grizzlies boast the nation's 11th-best home winning streak with 14 consecutive wins inside the O'Rena.

WOMEN

The 2008-09 season saw the Golden Grizzlies post a Division I record 26 wins, and tie an all-time school record with 16 wins in league play. OU beat a nationally-ranked opponent for the second consecutive season, topping No. 21 South Dakota State 67-51. Head Coach Beckie Francis won her 200th career game, and guard Melissa Jeltema eclipsed the 1,000-point plateau during a highly-successful campaign. The Golden Grizzlies return an experienced lineup to the floor for the 2009-10 season, led by seniors Hanna Reising, Melissa Jeltema, and Riikka Terava.
