Rockefeller, Wife Parted for Divorce

NEW YORK (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and his wife have parted in the first step toward a divorce to end 31 years of marriage.

The decision to dissolve the union of the Philadelphia heiress and the wealthy, potential Republican presidential candidate was announced Friday night in a terse statement issued on behalf of both.

A spokesman said the agreement to separate was "amicable."

A political aide to the governor said the divorce would "absolutely not" affect Rockefeller's plans to run for re-election next year.

No divorced man ever has been elected president of the United States.

Although Rockefeller has not publicly acknowledged it, he is considered a strong possibility for the 1964 GOP nomination for president.

"WIFE'S INITIATIVE" — The New York Post said the initiative for the separation and impending divorce came from Mrs. Rockefeller and that the governor "apparently had hoped until the last moment" to dissuade her.

The newspaper said Rockefeller had intended to take a 15-day vacation at his ranch in Venezuela after the Nov. 7 elections and that it was assumed his wife would accompany him.

However, it said, the governor canceled the trip and tried to persuade her to drop or delay divorce plans.

The terse announcement of the separation and divorce plans was issued from the Rockefeller family offices in Rockefeller Plaza and said:

"It was announced today that Governor and Mrs. Nelson A. Rockefeller have arrived at an agreement of legal separation."

"It is anticipated that the terms of the agreement will be incorporated into a subsequent decree of divorce."

CHILDREN — Gov. and Mrs. Rockefeller were married in 1930. They have five adult children.

"There has been an agreement of property settlement and Mrs. Rockefeller will continue to have a New York apartment at 810 Fifth Avenue, Gov. Rockefeller will reside at the apartment of his brother, Laurence S. Rockefeller."

Area Resident Faces Charges; 9 Hunters Die in State Friday

A Pontiac Township man was to be arraigned today in the Upper Peninsula on a charge of negligent discharge of a firearm which resulted in death after an Upper Peninsula man was shot and killed yesterday in a hunting accident.

Lawrence E. Smith, 52, of 3441 Baldwin Ave., Pontiac Township, reported to Newberry state police that he had accidentally shot at and killed Ernest Owen, 68, of Curtis, Mackinac County.

Mackinac County Asst. Prosecutor Pauline Brown said today Smith would be arraigned before Portage Township Justice of the Peace Harry Wickham.

Six hunters died yesterday apparently of a heart attack. Three others died in shooting accidents.

In the Upper Peninsula mishap, Smith told police he had been hunting about 8 a.m. yesterday three miles northeast of Gould City in Mackinac County, when he thought he saw a deer and fired his custom-made rifle.

STRUCK IN STOMACH — Police said Owen, who was wearing a red jacket and a red vest, was hit in the stomach and died. Owen was a retired woodman.

After the accident, Smith made his way through a mile and a half of woodland to reach a road and get help, police said. However, Owen died where he fell about an hour after he was hit.

Heavy weather in the Upper Peninsula also resulted in another five hunters being reported lost yesterday. Three were from Alger County and the other two from the east end of Upper Michigan.

A sixth hunter who was reported lost Wednesday was found yesterday.

The other hunters killed by gunfire were: Myron Thelen, 31, of Menominee, and Edwin Barve, 26, of Route 1, Athens, in Calhoun County.

Police said Thelen was mistaken for a coyote by his brother-in-law, Ronald Pickel, 32, of Menominee, as the two were hunting Thursday about 20 miles north of Menominee.

Barve was fatally shot late Friday while hunting in Matten Township, Branch County. State police said Thomas Duckworth, 32, of Battle Creek told them he fired at a deer and Barve seemed to get into the line of fire.

Terry Jo Gains Strength After Ordeal on Liferaft

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — An 11-year-old girl, orphaned in a shipwreck she barely survived, was off a hospital's "critical" list today and apparently gaining strength that may enable her to tell what happened on the ill-fated Ketch Bluebell.

A lot of people—including FBI and Coast Guard investigators—want to know. Attaches at Mercy Hospital said no one would be allowed to question sunburned, blonde Terry Jo Duperrault of Green Bay, Wis., until she feels up to par.

The child, taken semi-conscious from a liferaft bobbing on the Atlantic Ocean off the Bahamas, is now the only witness to the Bluebell's breakup with seven persons aboard.

The skipper, Julian A. Harvey, survived the Fort Lauderdale charter boat's destruction as he had several other brushers with death in the air and afloat. But he committed suicide Friday leaving a note that said: "I got too tired and nervous. I couldn't stand it any longer."

Harvey said after being taken to Nassau Monday that the Bluebell's mainmast snapped, yanked down the smaller mizzenmast and tore holes through the deck. Then, he said, fire broke out and he had time only to launch a boat and a raft before the 60-foot ketch sank.

With Harvey's death by razor slashes in a Miami motel, the Bluebell tragedy's toll rose to six. The dead body of Terry Jo's sister, Renee, was in the boat in which Harvey was picked up Monday. Presumed drowned were the child's father, Dr. Arthur (Continued on Page 2, Col. 7)

Escaped...but Not Himself

'COULDN'T STAND IT' — Capt. Julian Harvey, skipper of the ill-fated charter boat Bluebell which sank Sunday near the Bahamas, killed himself Friday in a Miami motel room. A suicide note said he "couldn't stand it any longer." He is shown when he was an Air Force pilot flying jets in Korea in 1953.

Bodily is Moved From Library to Church for Simple Funeral Rite

BONHAM, Tex. (UPI) — The body of House Speaker Sam Rayburn was moved today from the memorial library where it had lain in state since Friday and taken to the First Baptist Church for funeral services.

The body, dressed in blue suit, white shirt and dark blue tie, was to have been removed from public view in the foyer of the Sam Rayburn Memorial Library at 10 a.m. (Pontiac time).

But so many people were lined up in front of the library when 10 a.m. came that the lying-in-state period was extended.

The crowd cleared away, however, and it was not necessary to extend the viewing to noon, as had been contemplated.

President Kennedy, ex-Presidents Truman and Eisenhower and as many as 150 congressmen and U.S. senators will be present for the final rites in the First Baptist Church at 2:30 p.m. (Pontiac time).

Rayburn, 79, died at 7:30 a.m. Thursday of cancer. He had been a member of the House of Representatives 48 years and speaker more than 16 years — longer than any other man.

Body in Library

The body has been lying in state in the foyer of the library since 10 a.m. Friday.

The funeral in the First Baptist Church should take about 30 minutes. Rayburn then will be buried in the family plot in Willow Wild Cemetery.

In addition to the president and two ex-presidents, Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, House Majority Leader John W. McCormack of Massachusetts, 122 congressmen, including the Texas delegation, and 25 U.S. senators are scheduled to attend the funeral. McCormack may succeed Rayburn as speaker.

The service will be nationally televised by the three major television networks.

Memorial services for Rayburn will be held simultaneously in the nation's capital at the Washington Cathedral.

U.N., Congo Probe Death of 13 Italian Airmen

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—The United Nations pushed forward today in a joint investigation of the Congo government to root out and punish the mutinous Congo soldiers who slaughtered 13 Italian airmen.

Congo Premier Cyrille Adoula agreed Friday to an encirclement and disarmament plan aimed at what the U.N. command called a "fair investigation and stern punishment" involving the 80 Congolese troops at Kindu, in Kivu Province.

Adoula also agreed to cooperate in an investigation to determine whether leftist Vice Premier Antoine Gizenga, political heir to the late Patrice Lumumba, had anything to do with the slayings.

The Leopoldville government appeared to have accepted the U.N. Nations proposed an inevitable. Adoula promptly agreed to name four members to the joint commission that will seek to apprehend the guilty. A similar number of men represent the United Nations.

Gizenga's whereabouts were not known, but government sources said he was in Kindu prior to the outbreak of the mutiny.

U.N. commanders plan to seal off the airport area and disarm an estimated 1,000 Congolese troops there. The troops at one time were in a private army that Gizenga based when he set up a rebel government in Stanleyville with Soviet backing.

In Italy, outraged countrymen of the slain Italian airmen mourned the deaths with bitter protests.

Angry Italian Crowd Turns on 3 Negroes

ROME (AP)—Three Negroes — at least one of them American — fled to shelter in a downtown Rome shop today from an angry crowd aroused over the Congo slaying of 13 Italian members of the U.N. Congo force.

Police took the American man and two women from the shop in a police automobile and escorted them to safety.

Police said none was injured. They said they did not obtain their names.

A number of American, European and African Negroes are in Rome these days as dancers in the 20th Century Fox film "Cleopatra" and as artists in various theatrical performances.

The mercury fell to 22 at Marquette. In the Lower Peninsula, Grand Rapids reported 23.

Clear weather with temperatures in the 20s and 30s chilled much of the nation today. The snappy autumn air extended as far south as Georgia.

Some heavy snow was reported in the central Rockies, including a five-inch accumulation at Denver. This storm, which was moving eastward, also brought rain to parts of central Texas.

Temperatures dropped in the East and South as cold air, accompanied in places by snow flurries, streamed southeastward across the Great Lakes region and northern Appalachians.

N.Y. Would Back Rocky in Spite of Split, Says GOP

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—The pending divorce of Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller should have no effect on his reelection as governor of New York in the opinion of Republican National Chairman William Miller.

Miller commented today that the divorce "is a family matter and a personal matter and there is nothing in it that would reflect on his (Rockefeller's) moral character or integrity."

The GOP chairman added that "if he continues to be the good administrator he has been as governor of New York, I expect that if he seeks re-election he will get it."

In Albany, Republican State Chairman L. Judson Mohrhouse declined comment. "This is a purely personal matter," he said.

Addressing a two-day southern strategy conference, Goldwater called for "more and more Republican victories in the South to bolster the forces of constitutional government and individual freedom in the Congress."

"You give us the kind of strength we need in Congress and we turn on some real heat for a foreign policy that speaks from strength and promises more than foreign aid and worldwide giveaways," he said.

Ban Seven Airlines From Carrying Gls

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Seven nonscheduled airlines are barred from carrying military passengers until Air Force experts can investigate details of their operations, the Defense Department said today.

One of the lines affected by Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara's safety crackdown is Imperial Airlines, operator of the airliner that crashed at Richmond, Va., Nov. 8 with a loss of 74 Army recruits.

A spokesman said survey teams of the Military Air Transport Service (MATS) would be ready to begin checking nonscheduled airlines waiting government business by next Monday.

He said an inspection takes three to five days.

McNamara announced new regulations to govern the use of commercial airlines for carriage of military personnel.

The rules, made public Friday, were framed in the wake of the Richmond crash and had two chief aims.

—Nonscheduled air carriers, now known as supplemental carriers, can be hired by the Defense Department for military flights only after they have passed inspection by MATS. That is in addition to the regular inspection.

The operator, Joy Buckner, 19, was freed after more than an hour from the 77th floor. Flames and smoke rose up the elevator shaft. She was reported not seriously hurt.

Cause of the flames in the skyscraper was not immediately learned. The flames knocked out elevators. Firemen had to climb 77 floors to reach the source of the flames in the building of about 30 floors.

Three alarm bells rang. Firemen and policemen to the scene in the heart of downtown Dallas. Off-duty firemen were called back.

A maintenance man discovered the trapped operator.

"I'm trapped, save me," he shouted the operator as screaming over the elevator telephone.

The building, one of the tallest in Dallas, houses the Mercantile National Bank on the first floor and hundreds of offices on upper floors.

Thick grey smoke poured from the upper rim of the skyscraper.

Downtown traffic was snarled as firemen and police blocked off streets around the scene.

Oak Park Dem Gets State Post

Sherwood Coleman Is Appointed by Swainson as Insurance Chief

LANSING (AP)—Sherwood Coleman, a 33-year-old Democrat from Oak Park, was named state insurance commissioner today by Gov. John R. Swainson.

Coleman, of 2642 Sofia St., Oak Park, will succeed Frank Black, who has been state insurance commissioner Nov. 30. Black resigned recently, presumably to accept a federal appointment not yet disclosed.

Coleman has operated a Detroit insurance agency with his brother, Erle, since 1957, and has been in the insurance business 11 years.

He was a radio and television announcer while a student at Wayne State University and has been active in Oakland County's Democratic politics since 1955.

He is a regional vice chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee for Oakland County.

Honorary pallbearers will be the President, vice president and members of the Senate and House.

Elder H. G. Ball will conduct the simple service. Rayburn joined Ball's Primitive Baptist Church of Togo, Tex., in 1957.

Many of the 45 members of Ball's congregation will be present.

Church Collection Box in Area Robbed of $25

A collection box containing about $25 was stolen yesterday from St. Anne Catholic Church in Brandon Township, according to Oakland County Sheriff's deputies.

Officers said a thief apparently entered the unlocked church during the day and ripped the metal container from a wall. The church, located at 825 Ontario Road, is left open during the day.

Delegates Differ on Congo Crisis

U Thant Sure of Getting Added Power, but U.N. at Odds on Its Scope

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—A move to give acting Secretary-General U Thant stronger authority to deal with the Congo crisis appeared sure today of U.N. approval. But delegates differed on how far it should extend.

Corridor predictions were that the Security Council would approve a resolution calling for vigorous U.N. action to end secessionist activities in the province of Katanga and deal with other trouble spots in the Congo.

The Western powers objected that a resolution by Ceylon, Liberia and the United Arab Republic dealing with Katanga alone was too narrow in scope.

They insisted that U Thant and empowered to deal with other "trouble areas," such as Kivu Province where Congo troops have been leveled by leftist leader Antoine Gizenga killed and butchered 13 Italian airmen.

U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson asked that council action be postponed until Monday to give time for consultations on a "suitable" resolution.

Meanwhile, a request by the U.N. commander in the Congo for more soldiers to deal with the increasing violence was questioned by India, whose 5,700 troops make up more than a third of the entire U.N. force in the Congo.

Krishna Menon took issue with the request made by Maj. Gen. Sean McConville, head of the 15,400-man force, at a private session of the 18-nation Congo Advisory Committee summoned Friday by U Thant.

Menon told the Security Council "if 15,000 troops are not enough to police the Congo, then there is something wrong with the troops."

Mrs. Rockefeller was reported staying in New York Friday night and her husband at their estate in Tarrytown, N.Y.

Although neither was available for comment, a family spokesman said the divorce would be sought outside New York where the only ground for such action is adultery.

He said it also would be reasonable to assume that Mrs. Rockefeller would petition for the divorce. The spokesman admitted the couple were living apart when the announcement was made but declined to say when the decision had been reached to seek a divorce.

The spokesman said a separation agreement was signed this week in New York.

Mrs. Rockefeller, the former Mrs. Todhunter Clark, is an heir to a railroad fortune.

The Rockefellers were married soon after the governor was riding over the elevator telephone at a wedding attended by 1,500 guests. In addition to the 20-room duplex apartment on Fifth Avenue, the Rockefellers also maintain the Tarrytown residence, one in Seal Harbor, Maine, and another in Washington, D.C.

Word of Mrs. Kennedy's mishap was quickly passed along to President Kennedy, who was attending a testimonial dinner for Sen. Carl Hayden in Phoenix, Ariz. Alder said the President called Middleburg to check with Mrs. Kennedy. Then, White House press secretary Pierre Salinger dismissed the incident as "a very minor mishap."

The White House said Mrs. Kennedy, who has been riding horses since she was a child, got up, remounted quickly and rejoined the footmen.

On Dec. 11, city commissioners and department heads will honor Mr. and Mrs. William at a dinner at the Pontiac City Hall.

The Day in Birmingham

Professor to Discuss Modern Drama at Library

BIRMINGHAM — The problems of defining modern drama and the progress of the off-Broadway movement will be discussed Monday when the Friends of the Baldwin Public Library meet at 8:15 p.m. in the library auditorium.

A 10-week course in rapid reading is being offered at the Community House with the first class scheduled to begin today.

The adult course is designed to improve the efficiency of reading skills and will include training in accelerating individual reading speeds and in comprehension.

Anthony P. Witham, reading consultant and supervisor for Genesee County, will be the instructor. The fee for the course will be $30. Classes will be held Saturdays from 1 to 2:30 p.m.

The Thanksgiving service tomorrow at the First Baptist Church of Birmingham will be televised and the tape replayed that afternoon at 2 p.m. on Channel 7.

A feature of the service will be a procession by the children bringing food gifts and a financial offering for the Baptist Childrens Home, 13-Mile and Greenfield roads.

George G. Ross Memorial services are being arranged for George G. Ross, 67, of 1660 Apple Lane, who died Sunday at Veterans Hospital in Battle Creek following a long illness.

Mr. Ross, a professor of landscape architecture at the University of Michigan until his retirement two years ago, was known in the area for his sculpture of a bronze bust and 12 full-size Apollos at Kirk in the Hills.

He was a member of the U. of M. faculty for 25 years and had served as a planner for Federal and state agencies in various cities for many years.

He served on the Detroit Planning Commission from 1923 to 1925 and was a landscape architect for Wayne County Park commission in 1927.

He was a planning engineer for the City of Pontiac in 1930-31 and was director of Michigan Planning Commission from 1941 to 1942.

Surviving are his wife Mabel; father, Garrett Ross of Chillicothe, Ohio; and a brother.

Harvey, tall and ruggedly built, had survived two previous ship sinkings, two airplane crashes and an automobile plunge off a bridge into water.

He apparently was married at least four times.

One of his wives, Joan, drowned with her mother, Mrs. Myrtle Boyen of Washington, D. C. when he was dropped into a northwest Florida bay near Eglin Air Force Base, where Harvey was stationed in 1949 as an Air Force lieutenant colonel. Harvey told of the base that he was thrown clear during the plunge but the two women were trapped inside the car.

Rusk's Ready for Adenauer

Shows Administration Willing to Reach Terms on Berlin Issues

WASHINGTON (AP) — With Chancellor Konrad Adenauer due here Sunday, the Kennedy administration hopes to work out in the next few days a U.S.-West German agreement that would lead to Western negotiations with Russia on a Berlin settlement.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk displayed administration readiness at a news conference Friday to try to come to terms with German views on Berlin issues during Adenauer's visit here. The West German chancellor and President Kennedy will open talks Monday.

Rusk declared the Communist wall sealing off East Berlin from West Berlin "certainly ought not to be a permanent feature of the European landscape." He branded the wall as a "monument to Communist failure in East Berlin and East Germany."

Rusk stopped short of saying—as Adenauer said earlier this week—the removal of the wall must be a condition of any Berlin agreement with Russia. Authorities here see little prospect the Soviets will even consider tearing the wall down.

Rusk also said on another point publicly raised by Adenauer that the United States still stands by its offer to supply the North Atlantic Treaty Organization with a fleet of nuclear-missile Polaris submarines. They would operate under NATO command and could be used by NATO decisions.

Yugoslav Freighter Greeted by Pickets

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—A Yugoslav freighter moved quickly in and out of San Diego Harbor Friday, picking up U.S. trainer jets and a storm of protests.

The freighter Gundulic left with five Navy TV2 planes pulled by the United States to Yugoslavia.

A fleet of 22 light boats belonging to "Patriots Unlimited" met the Gundulic when it arrived. The Coast Guard said the picketing boats weren't on hand when the freighter left.

Helicopter Pilot, Physician Agree It's Small World

SAULT STE. MARIE, Mich. (AP)—A physician who became lost while deer hunting and the pilot who found him have concluded it is indeed a small world.

Dr. Earl Cantwell, 42, had been missing more than 48 hours in a heavily wooded, swampy area of the eastern Upper Peninsula when he was spotted Friday by an Air Force helicopter.

The pilot, Capt. Chet Rateliff, hoisted the Sault Ste. Marie obstetrician aboard in a sling, then discovered Cantwell was the doctor who delivered his last baby.

Both men are natives of Buffalo, N.Y.

Minuteman Rocket Launches Program

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—An accelerated Minuteman testing program is on tap following the first successful launching of the missile from an underground silo.

The 58-foot rocket, a weapon geared for the split-second demands of pushbutton war, darted from the 96-foot-deep pit Friday and raced 3,000 miles downrange.

Brig. Gen. Sam Phillips, the Minuteman program director for the Air Force, reported the launching was "totally successful. It completely verifies our confidence in the Minuteman design."

It Seems to Me . . .
India's Prime Minister Nehru's Friendship Is a Bit Clouded

India's Prime Minister, JAWA-HARLAL NEHRU, is too unpredictable.
He's an international opportunist.
That's an unenviable role.
But it's his by election.

For 14 years he has been the head of one of the two largest nations in the world in population. He professes to be a friend of the United States and has chiseled billions of dollars from us. At the same time, he wheedles a fair amount from the Soviets.
They've never fallen for his blandishments as completely as we have; but they kick in.
His people are absolutely poverty-stricken and the proper objects of international pity and aid. But when a showdown comes along, this pious Socialist slides into the Russian column with a barefaced apology that fools no one.

V. K. KRISHNA MENON, his defense minister, never strikes as much as a feeble blow in our behalf. Even on the nuclear tests, he stated baldly that the Russians and the Americans "were equally to blame." And did he receive a rebuke from home?
He did not.
The remark stood.
Nehru longs for world leadership. Well, Herman, you can never exercise it as long as you straddle the fence and lean toward Russia on critical matters. A lot of Americans are getting sick of the whole deal and it's time John F.
Kennedy recognizes the situation.

Mr. Miller Says . . .
Shamelessly, I filch a little gem from PAUL MILLER, Head Man in the big Gannett newspaper group, and one of the country's most distinguished and accomplished publishers:

"It is a gloomy moment in history. Not for many years, not in the lifetime of most men has there been so much grave and deep apprehension. Never has the future seemed so incalculable as at this time. In France, the political cauldron seethes and bubbles with uncertainty. Russia hangs as usual like a cloud dark and silent upon the horizon of Europe, while all the energies, resources and influences of the British Empire are sorely tried and are yet to be tried more sorely. It is a solemn moment, and no man can feel indifference, which happily no man pretends to feel. Of our own troubles, no man can see the end.

"And now," concludes MR. MILLER earnestly, "you will be interested to learn that this appeared in 'Harper's Weekly' in 1857—104 years ago."

Voice Is Heard . . .
Current studies indicate the Voice of America is reaching 20 million people outside of Russia and "several million" within the Soviet homeland.
These estimates are based upon talks with tourists, refugees and world travelers.

It's fairly well established that the Reds are spending $150 million a year and employing 2,000 people to nullify these broadcasts.
They do a tolerable job but they're far from perfect. When I was in Moscow, we heard several programs end abruptly. As long as these air waves were occupied by innocuous news and music they continued. But once the announcements began to compare Russian conditions with those in the free countries, the blitz began.

Jamming simply consists of producing a constant hum that is so powerful every spoken syllable is lost.
Nothing gets through.
And you tune out the station.

Personally, I wonder if we may not be accomplishing more in this manner than by entering a megaton free-for-all. If a small but substantial part of our messages creeps into various areas, we are sowing the seeds of doubt and disbelief. It must be very, very difficult for the Russian homeland to "explain" why some broadcasts are completely blocked.

Even a faithful, trusting soul would eventually begin to ask: "why?"

And in Conclusion . . .

The POWER of FAITH by Howard Brodie

Mrs. Sarah J. Hale wrote in 1863:
"Go your way and eat the fat and drink the sweet and send persons unto them for whom nothing is prepared; for this day is holy unto the Lord" . . . Can we not then . . .
establish our yearly Thanksgiving as a permanent American National Festival . . . Putting aside the sectional feelings . . . would it not be more noble, to become national in unity when we offer to God our tribute of joy and gratitude. . . .
For 17 years, the Ladies' magazine editor fought for a uniform Thanksgiving, believing it would unify the nation. She urged it on governors and Presidents. Later that year, President Lincoln issued the first national proclamation since Washington: "I do, therefore, invite my fellow citizens in every part of the United States . . . to set apart and observe the last Thursday of November next as a day of Thanksgiving and praise to our Beneficent Father. . . ."

Days of all Faiths:

Churches Give Surplus to Needy

By Dr. Howard V. Harper
Churches Give To Needy
During 'Bargain Week'
November 19-26 is called 'Share
Our Surplus' (S.O.S.) Week, but it could as well be called "bargain week." The bargain—300 pounds of food for a dollar—is made possible by the combined action of the United States Government and a Church World Service. The food, every gigantic dollar's worth of it, goes to undernourished members of God's family in all parts of the world.
Every year, during Thanksgiving week, when America is thanking God for the fruits of the earth, Church World Service sponsors this attention to lands that are not blessed with such abundance. And the Government cooperates, making available — out of what we ourselves don't need and indeed can't even use —such staples as milk, wheat, rice and beans. Did you know that countries like Japan and the Philippines, where rice is the basic food, cannot raise enough of it to meet their needs? Thanksgiving week is a good time for Americans to be "mindful of the needs of others."
All through this week there will be offerings in individual churches and in joint services for the purpose of sharing our surplus at the unbelievable bargain rate. The biggest of these services will be in Washington Cathedral, but the biggest is no more important than the one you have in your own church or the one all the churches have in your town. The Lord said
"I was hungry and ye gave me food" (Matthew, chapter 25, version 35). That is what is really important.
GREAT SALES LETTER
Nobody on Madison Avenue has ever turned out, nor probably ever will, a sales letter as good as the one St. Paul wrote to Phil-
mon. Read the Epistle to Philmon —preferably in the J. B. Phillips translation. It is absolutely irresistible.
In this letter St. Paul is writing to Philmon about Phillemon's slave, Onesimus, who has run away. St. Paul is sending the runaway back, knowing that Philmon, if he were so minded, could punish him by death.
And without the letter, that is what might well have happened.
With the letter, although there is no definite record, tradition says Philmon not only took Onesimus back and forgave him, but also set him free.
Wednesday in the Christian calendar is St. Onesimus' Day, honoring both the runaway slave and his wife, Apphia.
According to legend, Onesimus, after gaining his freedom, became Bishop of Colosse, and was martyred there with Apphia (by stoning) on November 22. The year is not known, but of course it had to be in the first century.
Besides being Thanksgiving Day in the United States, Nov. 23 is also St. Clement's Day, in honor of the third Bishop of Rome—the first Christian writer outside the New Testament, the first man ever to put shoes on a horse, and, of course, the patron saint of blacksmiths.
St. Clement was martyred in the year 100 by being bound to an anchor and thrown into the sea. According to legend the worries of his people, who wanted to give him a Christian burial, were allayed when they saw the sea roll back and angels came and build him a tomb. The same legend says that the sea also rolled back every November 23 and enabled the faithful to go over dry land to pay their respects at the tomb.
This does not happen on November 23 any more, but who is to say it did not happen in the times when the legend began.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

We Need Emotional Calisthenics

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE CASE K-454: Lon J., aged 42, is an executive in a large bank.
"Dr. Crane, I haven't had anything to do with my wife for over two years," he stated, morosely.
"We have drifted apart. She says it is due to my jealousy of her, for I used to criticize her a lot.
"Now we are much like two strangers who happen to live under the same roof.
"Dr. Crane, I should divorce her and marry somebody else.
She is 38, and an attractive woman, but I haven't even kissed her for two years."
EMOTIONAL CALISTHENICS
A few years ago America was addicted to morning setting-up exercises. They became quite a fad.
And physical exercises are really very healthful, in moderation. But what we need far more in this country is emotional calisthenics.
For our good emotions of love and charity and generosity and kindliness will become dwarfed or stunted unless they are exercised frequently.
And that is doubly true of married people who are close to the age of 40. So don't let your marriages degenerate into platonic affairs.
For the less you indulge your emotion of love, the less appetite you will have for love tomorrow.
Love is not something that grows greater by disuse. In fact, it is much like gastric hunger, for when you go too long without food, you are well aware that your appetite tends to disappear. You feel squeamish and even disinclined to eat.

To maintain a healthy appetite, you need to train the glands of the stomach to secrete gastric juice on a regular schedule.
PROSTATE INSURANCE
Poets have maintained a monopoly on love far too long. Now we physicians and psychologists are beginning to invade that field with sensible scientific findings.
If married people grow platonic, they will often find that the husband soon becomes impotent. This result is chiefly psychological. He simply becomes afflicted with a sexual inferiority complex.
And it is then essential that his wife banish his fears by taking the initiative and becoming more seduc-tively aggressive.
There is also a good medical reason for this fact, for we medics are of the opinion that prostate trouble may often develop from cessation of regular exercise of that gland.
The prostate is much like the mammary glands of a young mother. It secretes a milky fluid that comprises the bulk of the sex fluid in the male.
If a young mother suddenly stops nursing her baby, her breasts may swell up and "caked." They become painful. We medics prescribe ice packs and drugs to relieve her of the discomfort.
In similar manner, a man who loses his wife suddenly by death, or whose marriage becomes platonic, may find that his prostate gland likewise gives him trouble.
In physiology we have a rule that regular function of the bodily organs and glands, seems to insure their future good health and productivity.

Voice of the People:

Tells Steps U.S. Must Take to Deter Russia's Conquest

Since the Bolshevik Revolution of 1917, Russia has had the green light to bludgeon its brutal way to conquest of the world.
Unless President Kennedy switches the light to red, it will do just that—within the next five years.

We must: 1. Sever diplomatic relations with Moscow and all Communist dominated countries; close their embassies and consulates as Roosevelt did to Hitler in 1940. 2. Cut off all trade with the Soviets and all Communist countries. 3. Withdraw from the United Nations and get that fungus of world government out of the United States. 4. Use the billions we are squandering on "foreign aid" to build an impenetrable Fortress America.

These acts by President Kennedy would turn the light from green to red within a week. They would win for us the respect of the neutral and uncommitted world, which we now do not have. And—there would be no war!

The very first thing that Carlos Julio Arosemena did when he became president of Ecuador was to place his government squarely alongside Communist Cuba. Speaking of Cuba, he said, "I did not know relations had been broken with Cuba; but if they had been broken, they are renewed as of former vice-president of Ecuador was totally ignorant of his country's position with regard to Cuba.

Arosemena also waved a cheery

Three years ago, I started tak-

Iodin returns hair color to gray hair.
All I say is that it can do no harm to try. I have many followers who really tried the Iodin ration until you

Grateful if you would devote a Iodin. Are they habit forming?

Are they harmful? (M. F.)

Divorce May Alter GOP's Plans

Front Runner Rocky Out?

NEW YORK (AP) — The news that Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and his wife are contemplating a divorce can change the whole national political picture.

Rockefeller has been a potential candidate—and indeed a front runner—for the Republican presidential nomination in 1964.

The shock of the split with his wife can only mean a reassessment of the GOP political situation. Rockefeller—in spite of a divorce? Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, if he wins election as governor of California? Sen. Barry M. Goldwater, the conservative?

ACQUAINTANCE TO FAMILY
Americans are accustomed to a family in the White House. They have one now in President John F. Kennedy, his wife, and children. They had one in Dwight and Mamie Eisenhower and their son, John, and the grandchildren. They had one in Franklin D. Roosevelt, his wife, Eleanor, and their children.

Adlai E. Stevenson, divorced, was the last presidential candidate to back this trend. He lost twice to Eisenhower—in 1952 and 1956.

Nobody claims the divorce was the principal reason—in view of Eisenhower's widespread popularity—but it didn't help. The idea of a sister rather than a wife and mother as "the First Lady" was not a vote-getting proposition.

It all adds up to a minus for Rockefeller's chances of gaining his party's presidential nomination.

It may not be fatal to his chance of winning reelection as governor next year in the state of New York. But from there—

More Planning to Buy Autos

Federal Reserve Board Says Survey Indicates Increase in Purchases

WASHINGTON (AP)—More American consumers now plan to buy automobiles in the next year than was the case in midsummer.

The Federal Reserve Board said Friday an October survey showed that 8.1 per cent of the families questioned plan to purchase a new car within the next 12 months.

This compared with 7.6 per cent when a similar survey was made in July. The proportion planning to buy a used car increased from 7.5 per cent to 8.2 per cent.

The board said 5.1 per cent indicated last month they plan to buy a house within the year, compared with 5 per cent three months earlier.

Plans to buy household durables showed a slight increase also, with the biggest gains indicated for washing machines, TV sets and radio and phonograph equipment.

Red Auerbach Back Tonight

But Boston Coach Must Wonder If He's Needed as Celts Win Again

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Coach Red Auerbach of the Boston Celtics returns from a three-game suspension tonight, but he must be wondering if he's really needed.

The Celts, with Bob Cousy acting as player-coach, whipped the New York knickerbockers Friday night 104-100 for their fifth straight victory and fourth in a row on a road trip.

In the only other league game of Friday night, the rampaging Lakers ran their winning streak to six with a 125-121 triumph over the Philadelphia Warriors. The Lakers have won 11 of their last 12 games.

The Celtics didn't manage to shake the Knicks until the fourth quarter when they strung together 11 straight points. Bill Russell was high man for Boston with 25 points and 21 rebounds. Richie Guerin had 38 points for the Knicks and paced them to a 35-46 margin early in the second half.

Elin Baylor played 44 minutes for the Lakers despite a groin injury and tallied 37 points. He also grabbed 28 rebounds and handed off for eight assists. He also had to enter military service shortly. Wilt Chamberlain had 36 points for the losers despite the fact that he missed 11 of 19 free throws. The Warriors tied the score at 114-all with six minutes to go, but three quick layups by Baylor ended the threat.

MSU Trustees Create Medical Science Institute

HICKORY CORNERS (AP)—The Michigan State University Board of Trustees Friday created an institute of biological and medical science—with an eye to starting a preclinical-medical training program as soon as possible.

MSU President John A. Hannah said the board that two substantial grants to help finance the project are being negotiated. Funds will be available both for building and organization, he said.

Dr. Richard U. Beyrnum, assistant provost and professor of biochemistry, was named acting director of the institute which will be activated administratively by Dec. 1.

Beyrnum has been a director of a faculty committee finalizing an MSU plan to bring all medical and biological studies under one program.

Dr. Erickson Named New MSU Provost

HICKORY CORNERS (AP)—Dr. Clifford E. Erickson, dean of the Michigan State University College of Education was named MSU provost Friday.

Erickson, nationally known educator and guidance authority, was named to fill the vacancy left by the resignation of Provost Paul A. Miller. He was elected at a meeting of the MSU Board of Trustees here.

Miller will take the post of President at West Virginia University early in January.

Annual Checkup for Swainson Starts Sunday

LANSING (AP)—Gov. Swainson will undergo his annual physical examination at University Hospital in Ann Arbor Sunday.

The three-day checkup will be supervised by Dr. William Robinson, chairman of the University of Michigan's department of internal medicine.

The governor's office said Swainson will register at the hospital by 7 p.m. Sunday and will leave at noon Wednesday.

Airlift Aids Victims of Mexican Cyclone
ACAPULCO, Mexico (AP)—A government airlift shuttled tons of urgently needed food and medical supplies today into flood-stricken coastal villages northwest of Acapulco where desperate survivors of Cyclone Tara earlier fought over scraps of bread.
Restoration of communications with the isolated communities raised the known death toll of the flooding last weekend to 436. At least 300 others were reported missing and Gov. Arturo Martinez Adams said many of them probably were dead.
Relief workers grimly dug through mud and sand in Nuxco, where about 200 died. A nearby lagoon had surged over its banks and virtually destroyed the village of about 1,000.

Station Wagons for All Needs

Pontiac Prepares 4 Big Safaris

Pontiac's station wagon customers may choose between four Safari models to suit their individual needs whether it be for industrial use or private transportation.
The Bonneville Safari features luxurious interior appointments. Six and nine-passenger models are offered in the lower priced Catalina series. The new Tempest station wagon represents the greatest value in economy of operation, Pontiac officials said.
"In designing these versatile station wagons our engineers and stylists objectively studied the various needs of different customer groups," said E. M. Edles, General Motors vice president and general manager of Pontiac Motor Division. "The success of our efforts is reflected in 1961 model sales when station wagons accounted for 23 per cent of all Tempest sales and 10 per cent of all standard size Pontiac sales."
The 1962 Safaris are built on a 119-inch wheelbase with an overall length of 212.3 inches and are 57 inches high and 78.6 inches wide. The Tempest Safari has a 112-inch wheelbase and measures 193.3 inches in length, 72.2 inches in width and 53.6 inches in height.
All Safaris are four-door models and have seat belt installation provisions.
The loading area of the Pontiac Safari can accommodate a sizeable stack of four by eight plywood sheets. A luggage locker beneath the cargo deck provides extra storage space, while spare tire and tool compartments are conveniently located in the right rear quarter panel. Standard equipment includes the high-performing V8 engine with a wide range of horsepower options to meet all performance requirements.
SPLIT BACK SEATS
Luggage carriers, four-speed manual transmission, air conditioning, and split back seats, which enable the transport of exceptionally long packages and building materials, are among the optional items offered.
The new Tempest with its four-cylinder economy and six-passenger comfort, features a quick-opening, one-piece tailgate that provides easy access. There is a hidden locker beneath the floor for additional storage as in the larger Safaris.
The economical, but high performing four-cylinder engine, fifteen inch wheels and oversize tires are standard items. Accessories include automatic transmission, four-speed manual transmission, power steering, luggage carrier, custom interior and air conditioning.
Heaters are standard on all 1962 Pontiac and Tempest models.
Millions Just Slip Away
PORT ARTHUR, Tex. (UPI) — Cecil D. Myer, no millionaire himself, has let between $10 million and $15 million slip through his fingers in 32 years. Myers retired recently as a maritime paymaster. Explaining the slipping millions, Myers pointed out that crews are paid in cash, except for the master and chief engineer.

Says Gen. Walker 'Sleeper' in 1964

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — Clarence E. Manion former dean of the Notre Dame Law School, told 500 persons here Friday night that former Army Gen. Edwin L. Walker is a "sleeper" candidate for president of the United States in 1964.
Manion, who lectured before an audience which paid $1 apiece for admission to the auditorium of the Third Presbyterian Church, described himself as a member of the John Birch Society and a sympathizer of the Americans for Constitutional Action.
Manion said Walker, who resigned from the Army early this month following an admonition for his right-wing activities as a division commander in West Germany, is a "sleeper" among a group acceptable to conservatives as candidates for the nation's highest office.

Man Now 'Sane' to Go on Trial?
Prosecutor Will Probe Slaying Case; Edgill Was in Ionia 5 Years
Whether to try a man for murder after he has spent five years in a mental institution is a question Prosecutor George F. Taylor must decide.
Taylor said Cecil Edgill, 37, formerly of Royal Oak, has been certified sane by doctors at Ionia State Hospital and is being returned to Oakland County.
A first degree murder warrant faces Edgill for the April 14, 1956 slaying of Lemmer Norris, 51, a Royal Oak barber shop porter. Norris' skull was fractured with a baseball bat.
At the time Edgill told police he hit Norris with the bat in self-defense. After Norris threatened him with a knife.
Edgill was declared insane and unable to assist his attorney in his own defense. He was ordered committed to Ionia.
Taylor said his office would conduct an investigation to see whether witnesses are still available "and whether he was insane when the crime took place."
In a similar case, a Berkeley woman in April this year was convicted and sentenced to prison after spending 18 months in Ionia following her shooting of an independence Township housewife.
College Organization Has Diversified Talent
RIVER FALLS, Wis. (UPI) — The Finkbein Club of River Falls State College today claimed a new speed record for the latest campus mania — bed pushing.
Twenty-eight college members pushed a bed 14 miles, 28 feet and 6 inches in one hour, 58 minutes and 28.6 seconds.

'The Creation' to Be Presented

Dr. Phillip Steinhilber to Direct Haydn's Work at Kirk in the Hills

The Kirk choir and orchestra under the direction of Dr. Phillip Steinhilber will present "The Creation" by Franz Joseph Haydn at 4 p.m. Sunday at Kirk in the Hills. This is the second in the 1961-62 series of musical vesper services.

"This masterpiece of religious music marked the zenith of Haydn's career and is an immensely popular work-second to only Handel's 'Messiah' in the whole of oratorio literature," said Dr. Steinhilber.

Three members of the Kirk's Chancel Choir taking solo parts include Doralee McNelly, soprano; Charles Wiegert, tenor; Fred Burnett, baritone.

Dr. Steinhilber, organist, choirmaster and carillonist at the Bloomfield Hills Church, announced the appointment of Mrs. Robert John as director of the Kirk's handbell ringers and as assistant organist.

After completing her undergraduate study at the Oberlin Conservatory of Music, Mrs. John entered the University of Michigan where she received the master of music degree.

ORCHARD LAKE COMMUNITY
Rev. Edward D. Auchard of Orchard Lake Community Church, Presbyterian will preach tomorrow on the theme of the Third Assembly of the World Council of Churches, "Jesus Christ, the Light of the World."

The meetings beginning today in New Delhi, India will conclude Dec. 6.

"The Orchard Lake Church is vitally interested in the ecumenical movement because the original chapel was established by members of the Disciples of Christ in 1874," Pastor Auchard said.

"The church," he continued, "became an independent community church with its official organization in 1938, and became a Presbyterian congregation in 1943. Membership includes persons formerly of almost every Christian denomination."

Faiths Pick Thanksgiving

The compassion of the American people for their fellow men in need, whether at home or abroad, is nowhere more clearly expressed than in the services performed by our three great religious faiths through their world-wide, year-around programs of assistance to those in need abroad.

Not only are these great ministries of mercy an expression of the Christian faith, but they are also a witness to the Biblical answer to the question, "Am I my brother's keeper?"

And because their motivation finds parallel in the religious teachings of almost all peoples, these programs achieve an acceptance among individuals—particularly the impoverished, hungry and homeless to whom they minister—that is well beyond the scope of governmental or other impersonal efforts.

It is eminently fitting that each of the religious faiths—independently but in common purpose—chooses our national Thanksgiving Season to emphasize its ministry to the suffering abroad, by which it carries into everyday action the Spirit of Thanksgiving we in America express on one Thursday in every November.

At this time, in Protestant churches throughout the United States, there is being launched the 1961-62 appeal for the Share Our Surplus program carried on by the churches by Church World Service to finance free distribution of U.S. Government-donated food supplies to millions of those in need overseas.

APPEAL FOR CLOTHING
In Catholic churches, there is being made the Catholic Bishops' Thanksgiving Clothing Campaign, an appeal for wearable used clothing, shoes, bedding supplies, etc. for similar distribution.

Concurrently the United Jewish Appeal, as the instrument of the American Jewish community, is asking funds to help Jewish men, women and children in need throughout the world, including new immigrants to Israel and Jews in distress in other countries.

In each of these efforts, our people — each through his own faith — has opportunity to give evidence of his gratitude to God for the blessings we in America enjoy.

Each by his response — in the measure of the thanksgiving that is in his heart — will put his gratitude into action that will make millions of others thankful.

Safety Program Focus Intended for Driver
This annual inter-faith safety program, developed by a state-wide committee of Catholic, Protestant, and Jewish clergy, is intended to focus attention on the moral responsibility of the individual driver today and tomorrow.

According to James M. Hare, chairman of the state safety commission, strong lay support is growing for this state-wide observance.

"Safety committees and safety minded public officials realize that more is needed than their three E's of safety: education, enforcement and engineering," Hare said.

"We need local cooperation and an understanding that spiritual serenity and a brotherhood attitude is a basic element in maintaining orderly and care-free driving habits."

Crescent Hills Sets Goal for Fund Drive
The Every Member Canvass of the Crescent Hills Baptist Church, 2288 Crescent Lake Road, will start Sunday toward its goal of $12,194 for the coming year.

Rev. Robert L. Adams will speak at the 10 a.m. service on "Systematic and Proportionate Giving." Sunday evening youth members of the church will meet at the parsonage while other members will gather in six area homes.

A member of the canvass committee will present the story of the church, its gains this year and goals for next year, to each group.

The committee includes John Drumm, Charles Basch, Eugene Main, Earl Hall, Rudy Schelling and Norman Schmuck.

Services Announced by Trinity Baptist Pastor
"The Keeping Power of God" will be the theme of Dr. Joseph W. Moore's sermon at 11 a.m. Sunday in Trinity Baptist Church. Rev. Alfred Robbs and congregation of Flint will be guests at the 3:30 p.m. service on behalf of Building Fund Team local.

Milton R. Henry, local attorney, will show slides of his recent trip to Africa at 7 p.m. The pastor said the public is invited.

A discussion, centering on the Christian meaning of history as developed in the Old Testament of the Bible, will follow the talk.

The second lecture will be given at St. Michael's, Grosvenor Pointe Woods, Dec. 12, and the third at the Episcopal Cathedral Center, Detroit, on Jan. 4.

Also participating in this series of 12 lectures on the great doctrines of the Episcopal Church are the three bishops of the diocese, Bishops Emrich, Archie Crowley, and Robert L. DeWitt, and several outstanding priests of the diocese, including Rev. Gerald O'Grady of Christ Church Cranbrook and Rev. Malcolm Boyd, chaplain of Wayne State University.

All lectures in the series, held each Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. in these three churches, are open to any interested persons without charge and with no donation or offering.

Psychiatrist, Youth Speaker

'Schweitzer and Africa,' to Be Shown to Junior High Young People

Dr. Ian Mackay, a staff psychiatrist at Pontiac State Hospital, will be the speaker for the senior high youth meeting Sunday at 6:00 p.m. Dr. Mackay will discuss the treatment and care program for patients, and point out the positive values of community interest in the mentally ill. For the past two years senior high youth of First Presbyterian Church have provided parties for male patients living in the Burr Cottage on the hospital grounds.

Junior High youth of the Pioneer fellowship will meet at 6:00 p.m. to view the film, "Schweitzer and Africa," a newly published film on the famed doctor and his work. Recreation and refreshments will follow the evening youth programs.

On Monday, at 6:00 p.m., the board of deacons, moderated by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rehm, will meet to make Christmas plans for servicemen and shut-ins. They will also pack good supply clothing to be sent to Church World Service for needy persons overseas.

"A Time To Give Thanks" is the sermon subject of Rev. Galen E. Hershey for both worship services this Sunday.

The Junior Choir, directed by Mrs. Philip Proud, will sing an anthem, "Thank Thee, O Lord," by Emig. The Chancel Choir will present the anthem, "Triumph, Thanksgiving," by Bachmann. "Blessed Are the Pure in Heart" will be sung by Jack Hillman as an offertory solo.

Following the 11:00 a.m. worship hour, the congregation will gather in the church dining room for a time of fellowship with the board of deacons as hosts and hostesses.

Senior high youth, advised by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Everett and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Carlson, are serving a chili supper to the congregation and the public between the hours of 5 and 7 p.m. Saturday.

Silvercrest Baptist

to Honor Founder

A farewell service honoring Dr. H. H. Savage for his 38 years of service in the Pontiac area will be held at 7:30 tonight at Silvercrest Baptist Church.

"Silvercrest Church is one of many churches in the Pontiac area that began as a result of the ministry of Dr. Savage. Started in 1926 Silvercrest Church continued as a branch of First Baptist Pontiac, until becoming self supporting," said Rev. Wayne E. Smith, pastor.

Refreshments will be served by the Mission Board following the service. The public is invited, the pastor said.

CORNERSTONE LAYING — Placing valuable papers in the cornerstone of the new Central Methodist Church, 3976 Highland Road are (from left) Dr. Milton H. Bank, pastor of Central Church; Elbert M. Wilmot, general chairman of the building fund; and William H. Taylor, Jr., president of the board of trustees. The stone will be sealed at 12:15 p.m. Sunday following the second worship service.

Methodists to Lay Cornerstone

Bishop Marshall R. Reed of Detroit will lay the cornerstone for the new Central Methodist Church, 3976 Highland Road at 12:15 p.m. Sunday. Rev. W. Leslie Williams, district superintendent of Flint, and ministers of the local church will assist.

The service will be preceded by two worship services at 9:25 and 10:45 a.m. in the Isaac Crary School. Bishop Reed will preach and Rev. Mr. Williams will assist at both hours.

The congregation will go immediately to the new church site following the later worship period.

The Junior Choir will sing "We Gather Together" and the Chancel Choir will present "Jubilate in B Minor" at the church services. The Central Quartet will sing "Arie: Shine For Thy Light Is Gone." Freeman Williams will be heard in "Thank God For a Blessing."

A dinner will be served in Fellowship Hall on the new property following the special service.

"Central Methodist Church has grown in a little more than 50 years from a congregation of 96 members to one of the large Methodist churches of the area. At present the membership stands at 1,700, comprising 800 families," said Dr. Milton H. Bank, pastor.

CHURCH IN WOODS — The site of the new church is a beautiful, wooded plot of 38 acres. Located on the crest of the hill, the church will take advantage of the difference in elevation to give access to the building directly from the grade at both levels.

"The sanctuary will seat 768 in the nave, plus 120 overflow seating in the narthex with choir space seating 75 in the divided chancel. The built colored brick walls with stone window trim and white ceiling will give the feeling of an united high cathedral," Dr. Bank added.

The chapel which is in the court will seat 141 people. Fellowship Hall to the rear will open onto its own terrace and will seat 450 at dinner with a stage at one end.

The educational facilities arranged on two levels to the north and east side of the complex will accommodate 400 people at one time.

Offices will be located at the entrances to the buildings and parking lot. At the heart of the development will be the church spire topped by the cross, challenging men to a Christian stewardship of life.

Beneath the spire on the front wall will be a gold-polyzed aluminum

Wed in Family Ceremony

Cleone Evans Marries

Four o'clock vows of Cleone Mae Evans to Bruce B. Church of West Brooklyn Avenue were pledged before Rev. Howard R. Clegg today in a small family ceremony in the First Congregational Church. Altar flowers were white gladioli and carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard E. Evans of Lake Orion received at their daughter's dinner reception in the "300 Bowl" with Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell Church of Saranac, parents of the bridegroom.

The bridal gown of white silk organza with tulle and front skirt panel of Chantilly-type lace. Waist-length silk illusion veiling was held in place by a crown of red and white pearls. A white orchid centered the bride's cascade of white Stephanotis.

ATTENDS COUSIN

Mrs. Manley Fry of Cass City attended her cousin as matron of honor, wearing red velvet styled with bell skirt, and matching hat. Red and white carnations were combined in her bouquet.

The bridegroom had Kenneth McDowell of Lake Odessa for best man, Arnold Simon of Ann Arbor seated the guests. Returning from a Northern Michigan honeymoon, the newlyweds will live on Grafton Road. Mr. Church is a graduate of Michigan State University.

MRS. BRUCE B. CHURCH

ate of Michigan State University.

Pale pink cymbidium orchids complemented Mrs. Evans' wool turtleneck sheath dress worn with white hat and gloves, and the royal blue and black printed net tulle for the mother of the bridegroom.

Cape Makes Big Sweep

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (UPI) — The cape is big fashion news in this year's California fashion editors' National Press Week.

California designers who presented their collections in the Beverly Wilshire Hotel displayed everything from cape collars to short little shoulder-hugging capes that top matching sheath dresses, as well as a full-length cape-cout with the merest hint of a sleeve.

Stanley Nelson of California unveiled a wealth of magnificent furs, an outstanding high-fashion approach in design and a tremendous choice of silhouettes to thrill the eye and hand.

The collection included "com-acts," a three-piece outfit comprised of a pure camel's hair coat and slim skirt matched exactly to a cashmere sweater.

Camel's hair also was presented in a whole series of different silhouettes from straight-lined casuals to sweeping full coats and... of course... the cape-coat.

Rightly called the "fun coat," it was a bow-striped, finger-tip mohair. Also introduced was the first of the knitted mohair coats, light as a mer-tingue.

Immeasurable chic was added with belts set low across the back, low circular flares and soft back fullness. Handsome travel coats of a new slubbed linen from India; sporty finger-tip coats of rich, wide-ribbed Ottoman wool and sumptuous coats cut from luxurious silk and wool blends — some with jeweled or opulent collars and cuffs of mink — for late day and evening wear also were shown.

Charles Cooper's collection of dresses and costumes also played up the cape. One handsome expression was noted in a cocktail costume combining a spongy wool, full-length cape-cout in Delft blue lined with silk print to match the sheath dress beneath it.

Some of the newest and smartest dresses were those in rich chocolate brown with belts of pure white knit leather. Harou's collection featured prints in striking colors in full-length coats over their own dresses or as linings over matching print sheaths. One of the most unusual of these was a Wedgewood blue with a soft taupe.

Harou's pastel floral chiffons were as pretty as a Watteau painting.

One example of the graceful floating fashions due for spring was Harou's multi-colored geranium chiffon sheath with long, flowing panel sleeves that move with every little breeze.

The Ernest I. Darnalls of Lake Orion announce the engagement of their daughter Joyce to Charles M. Guye, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Guye of West Yale Avenue.

Physician Will Speak to Nurses

Jeanne Freville Is Wed in St. Patrick Church

The Oakland County District Nurses Association will meet at 8 p. m. Tuesday in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital nurses' home to hear Dr. Benjamin Schwimmer and Philip F. Donahue discuss venereal disease.

Dr. Schwimmer is a graduate of the College of Physicians and Surgeons, Columbia University, and was resident dermatologist at the U.S. Public Health Service Hospital, Staten Island.

Before coming to his present position in 1957 as director of the social hygiene clinic at the Detroit Health Department, he served as venereal disease control officer in St. Louis, Mo. He is clinical instructor in dermatology at the College of Medicine, Wayne State University and is also special consultant in venereal disease to the U. S. Public Health Service and the Michigan State Health Department.

Mr. Donahue is presently responsible for the coordination of City of Detroit, Michigan Department of Health and the U. S. Public Health Service policies on venereal disease control. He holds a B. A. degree in sociology from St. Bernardine of Siena College, Loudonville, N. Y., and subsequently worked with the New Jersey Department of Health and directed the migrant venereal disease control activities.

Mrs. Michael Kerensky of Auburn Heights (left) who spoke on "Peasant Life Behind the Iron Curtain" and Maria Parr of Kingsley Inn who arranged travel decor were as intrigued as the members of the General Motors Girls' Club with the peasant crafts displayed at the meeting.

Jeanne Freville Is Wed in St. Patrick Church

A Papal blessing was bestowed on the marriage of Jeanne Marie Freville to Ens. Robert J. Durand of West Huron Street this morning in St. Patrick Church, Union Lake.

Wedding breakfast was served in the Hotel Waldron where the newlyweds greeted some 200 guests at an afternoon reception. Their parents are the C. Stanley Frevilles of Milford and the Joseph P. Durands of Marquette City.

Hand-cut Swedish crystals formed a crown for the bride's bouffant silk illusion veil. A pleated Empire cummerbund distinguished her gown of white bouquet tulle styled with sequined lace bodice and chapel train. She carried white roses and Stephanotis with a crystal rosary, gift of the bridegroom's mother.

Yellow chrysanthemums and bronze pomsos designated Laura Freville, her sister's maid of honor, wearing gold tulle with obi sash. In identical dresses were bridesmaids Carol Ross, Algoma and Judy Priestap and Carol North, both of Milford. They held bronze chrysanthemums and yellow pomsos.

BEST MAN

Charles S. Freville Jr., brother of the bride, was best man. Donald Abelson of Warren, ushered with Robert Gronlund, Algoma, and Dave Croll, Birmingham.

The couple will live in Athens, Ga. Ens. Durand is a graduate of General Motors Institute where he was affiliated with Alpha Gamma Upsilon Fraternity.

A gold brocade purse and blouse complemented Mrs. Freville's theatre suit of hummingbird green velvet worn with matching hat and shoes. The mother of the bridegroom appeared in taupe rare silk with lace inserts and chose ruby red accessories.

DOROTHY M. BERGIN

Roomie's No Looney, Says Abby

Of Course He's All There! He's From Texas Isn't He?

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN
DEAR ABBY: I am a college junior and my roommate is a guy from Texas. He keeps a shoe box filled with plain, ordinary dirt under his bed. Nobody is allowed to move it because it is TEXAS dirt. Do you think this guy is all there?

NOT FROM TEXAS
DEAR NOT: Of course he is. It doesn't matter if he's got dirt UNDER him or OVER him, once a Texan—always a Texan.

DEAR ABBY: Every girl needs someone to talk to but I am afraid I've been talking to the wrong person. She is my aunt.

She is almost 50, and has never been married. She claims all men are no good, and has drummed that idea into my head ever since I can remember.

I idolize my aunt, and have grown up believing everything she has told me. I am 25 and not married, although I have been called "beautiful," and I am constantly being asked out.

My aunt made me promise I would date a man until she met him. I kept that promise. I realize now she has found fault with every man who showed an interest in me.

I recently met a man I could love. I broke my promise, and have been seeing him. I am afraid to introduce him to my aunt because I know she'll tear him down like she did the others. Should I introduce him and clear my conscience, or not?

MIND OF MY OWN
DEAR MIND: Your aunt sounds like a player who never made the team, but is right in these intercepting passes.

By all means, introduce him to your aunt. But tell her how you feel about him and ask her not to blow the whistle on this one until she has seen him in action.

DEAR ABBY: Someone who is soon to be in our family is badly in need of dental care and we don't know how to breach the subject.

We are all very fastidious

Mrs. William Woodruff was cited for the greatest weight loss at the Tuesday meeting. Mrs. Matthew Forthright and Mrs. Frederick Root shared the honor at last week's meeting.

The club recently celebrated its eighth anniversary at the annual banquet in Waterford's Village Cupboard.

Members have been requested to bring white elephants for a sale to next week's meeting. A nominating committee will be named to prepare a slate of officers for the semi-annual election in December.

Biggest Issue Is Over Senate

Reapportionment Compromise?

LANSING (UPI) — There is general agreement that the most important job for the constitutional convention is reapportionment.

The legislative organization committee of the convention, headed by John A. Hannah, president of Michigan State University, has the tough job of chopping the state up in election units in such a manner as to satisfy most of the voters.

Most observers agree that there will be some compromise between the position taken by the Democrats that urban areas are under represented and the position of conservative Republicans that things are fine the way they are.

The 1961-62 Michigan legislature had a 56-54 breakdown favoring the Republicans in the House, a 23-12 division favoring the Republicans in the Senate.

HOUSE NEARLY EVEN

The State House of Representatives has been nearly evenly divided in the last two legislatures. The Senate has always been strongly Republican in modern times.

The present constitutional provisions covering districting of the Senate spells out each geographic Senate district along county lines.

The provision covering the apportionment of the House says that each district "shall contain as nearly as may be an equal number of inhabitants and shall consist of convenient and contiguous territory."

The constitution then spells out a formula to be used in determining what the equality of population in representative districts shall consist of.

In fact, when the present constitution was written in 1907, the provision may have provided a voice for all sections of the state on a nearly equal basis.

There have been reapportionments since, but they have not kept up with the rapidly changing makeup of the state which leaped from a farm state to a complex industrial - agricultural-recreation economy in the past 40 years.

BIG ISSUE OVER SENATE
There seems to be agreement that the State House should be divided on some kind of population basis without regard for geography.

The big rub, if this decision on the House is accepted, is what to do with the Senate.

Former Republican State Chairman Lawrence Lindemeyer presented Hannah's committee with a recommendation late last week which would divide the state into five concentric zones, each with seven senators.

ONE OF SEVERAL

The basic plan was one of several suggested by Democratic Gov. John B. Swainson's pre-convention planning committee studying the reapportionment problem.

The zone plan would make Wayne county, seat of Democratic strength, district one. District two would include Monroe, Washington, Livingston, Oakland and Macomb counties where the Democrats could expect some seats depending on how the seven seats were distributed within the zone.

District three would take the next double ring of counties to the north and west including all of the thumb. The boundary counties of district four would be Bay, Midland, Gratiot, Ionia, Barry, Kalamazoo and Branch in the southern and eastern part of the district; Isco, Ogemaw, Roscommon, Clare, Oshtemo, Newaygo, Kent and Ottawa to the north and west.

Zone five would take care of the rest of the state including the northern and western part of the Lower Peninsula and the entire Upper Peninsula.

Lindemeyer said he didn't know what such a breakdown would do to the present party lineup.

Since this appears to be a mild attempt at compromise, the effect on the present political makeup of the Senate is the most important point of consideration of such a plan.

The consensus of a handful of the 144 convention delegates, from both parties, was that it would not change the present 21 makeup enough to disturb the present Republican rule of the upper chamber.

JFK to Interrupt Tour for Funeral of Rayburn

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—President Kennedy was to interrupt his Western swing today to journey in sorrow to Bonham, Tex., for the funeral of his first congressional mentor, Sam Rayburn.

Rayburn, who died of cancer Thursday was majority leader in 1947-one of the few years since 1910 that he hadn't been speaker

—when Kennedy entered the House.

The President fondly recalled Rayburn's decades of service Friday night at a banquet which he also paid high tribute to another congressional veteran, 84-year-old Sen. Carl Hayden, D-Ariz.

An audience of 1,000, who paid $10 a plate to mark Hayden's half century in Congress, heard Kennedy praise the great wisdom and influence.

Turning, as he almost always does in public appearances, to cold war problems, Kennedy also urged Americans to take pride in their nation's global burdens.

"Only the United States and our power and strength and commitments permit dozens of countries scattered all over the world to maintain their freedoms," Kennedy said.

"And if we did not bear the heavy burdens we now bear, the United States would be isolated, with only a few of the countries of Western Europe to look to," he said.

Your New Social Security

By WILLIAM E. LAROCK

Pontiac District Manager

Q. I paid the maximum Social Security tax until early this year, but because of my age (67) and health my employer has put me on a part-time job. I will only earn about $2,500 this year. Will this cause a reduction in my Social Security benefits? Would it be better off to quit and draw social security?

A. It will not reduce your Social Security benefits. You should apply immediately. From the information you give, I would estimate that you would be eligible for a monthly benefit of about $18 a month, not including any benefits which may be payable to other eligible members of your family. This would equal $1,440 a year. If your total earnings were $2,500, we would probably have to suspend only $1,000 of your benefits for this year, which would mean you would have $500 payable. Don't wait beyond Jan. 31, 1962, before applying, or you will lose some of the benefits which appear to be payable in your situation.

Questions addressed to: Social Security, Federal Building, Pontiac, Mich., will be answered by mail or in this column. Names will not be published.

Labor Dept. Finds Million More Workers

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Labor Department announced today it has "found" one million employed workers who previously were omitted from the government's monthly job report.

The department said two-thirds of the newly discovered one million consisted mostly of persons working for religious organizations, charities and other nonprofit groups.

They were "found" a spokesman said, through better statistical techniques.

Agencies Ask Finances

LANSING (UPI) — State agencies financed from the general fund have asked for $605 million to run their departments during the next fiscal year. Current 1961-62 appropriations total $418.6 million.

Your Neighbor's House

Traditional Furniture in Neal Scott Home

BY JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor
"Mrs. Scott is making the tiles for the fireplace." That was the lead that sent us to the Neal Scott home on Middle Belt Road. The sister of a friend of ours had visited the Scotts and reported the tile making; our friend passed along the information. Last month we took the pictures you see here.

Except for one son, all the Scott children are grown and married. A smaller, more convenient house was in order. A lake lot was bought on Upper Long Lake and Austin Builders put up the house.

The Scotts looked at many house plans, but none pleased them. One day as they were out driving, they saw a house that looked like their dream house. Stopping, they asked the owner about it. He had drawn his own plans and was willing for the Scotts to use them; with slight changes, they did.

From the road the house is L-shaped and looks like a ranch home. But it has a large lower level that is serving as an apartment temporarily for the young son of Scott daughter, son-in-law and granddaughter.

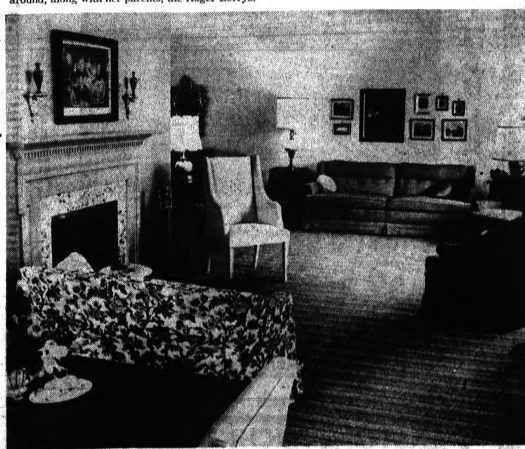

This lower level was planned as a recreation room. However, there is a complete kitchen down here and another room used now as a bedroom.

A door in the recreation room opens out onto a large patio. The back yard is terraced down to the lake. Mrs. Scott grows beautiful flowers in a garden surrounded by a white fence.

SNACK FOR SUSAN — Eight-months-old Susan Elizabeth lives in her grandparents' house. Grandma Scott has the fun of having a baby around, along with her parents, the Roger Berrys.

This picture was taken in the kitchen and shows the one papered wall, a work counter and the bronzed refrigerator.

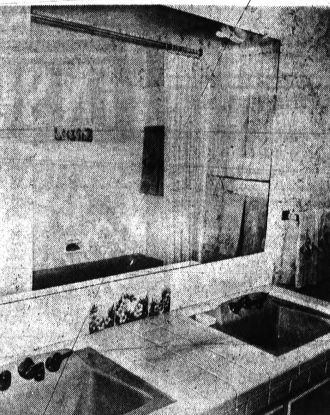

IT'S HOME — This large living-dining room is a charming, colorful, comfortable room. The flowered loveseat in the foreground provides a visual divider for the dining area. The fireplace is framed by handmade tiles with a redwood and dogwood design. The fireplace wall is gray. Mrs. Scott who started her artistic life with china painting has painted most of the lamps in the room.

Fredericka, the gentle boxer, greeted us at the front door. There is the usual slate floor just inside with a coat closet at the right.

CARPETED
The entire living level, save for the kitchen, is carpeted in pastel stripes. Walls in the living-dining area are creamy pink. There are sheer pink, floor length draperies at the wide picture window that shows the lake.

DECORATIVE TILES — This mirror shot in the bathroom shows plainly the tiles Mrs. Scott made. White tile around the decorative tiles with pink blossoms sets them off. Walls, fixtures and towels are pink.

Pictures are grouped on the north wall above the beige sofa. A conversational grouping in front of the windows includes an aqua swivel rocker, a low drop leaf coffee table and a cranberry red tufted-back armchair.

Occasional tables are natural mahogany in the Williamsburg style; these were all made in Gatlinburg, Tenn.

The fireplace wall is paneled and painted gray. The above mentioned tiles are grayish white with a design of redwood and dogwood blossoms. A pair of cloisonne vases is set on tiny wall shelves above the mantel.

At right angles to the fireplace is a loveseat covered in a flowered pink, blue and white material. Opposite it is a cream moire wing chair.

Mrs. Scott has painted a number of the lamp bases in this room. The light fixture near the front door should be described, not because she painted it, but because it is unusual. Once a kerosene lamp, it has a brass center tube with two globes extending out at the sides. These are topped with opaque white shades.

DINING AREA

Both dining room table and the chairs have been restored to their natural mahogany color. The chairs are slip covered in pink. A cherry serving table, a desk and a massive mahogany china closet with claw feet line the walls. The door to the kitchen is lowered.

One wall of the kitchen has striped aqua, green and white paper. The other walls and the sheer curtains are white. The floor is beige. Counter tops are white with aqua and gold splatters. Cabinets have a fruitwood finish. Appliances are bronzestone.

An old gas light fixture hangs over the table. This has painted shade and base. Table and chairs are painted tan. Chair seats are rush.

Just a step outside the kitchen is the garden. The third door goes into a hallway leading to the front door. There is a small utility room at the front.

Stairs to the lower level are in this area. The wall behind the fireplace and over the stairs is reused brick.

The master bedroom is in the front el. It has two sets of closets hidden by louvered doors.

Three walls are white; the one behind the bed has white paper with aqua and lavender butterflies and lavender flowers. Curtains are criss-cross, floor length, white sheer ones.

The furniture is cherry Early American style. The bedspread is an heirloom type. Two lavender triangular pillows provide a spot of color. A little rocker has needle-point back and cushion. Another chair is cream moire.

Mrs. Scott put pink flowers on the decorative tiles she did for the bathroom. These are mounted above the white tile vanity and set into the tile wall above the tub.

Wallpaper is pink with a bird and branch design. Pictures are pink with towels in a deeper pink. The sheer curtains are white.

The back bedroom belongs to the unmarried son who is in Seattle. In it are a number of souvenirs he brought back from his time in service.

The twin beds and antique chest between are oak. Sprays are white chenille.

On the wall opposite the beds is a beautiful walnut chest. For Mrs. Scott says was "bought for a son" years ago. On the vanity desk there's a small looking antique brass lamp that once was used with kerosene.

There's a comfortable upholstered chair for reading with a tiny antique walnut table beside it. On the walls above the beds is a gun collection mounted on red velvet.

The exterior of the Scott house is reused brick. The porch has gone, pending and there are gray shutters all around the house.

GUARDIAN — Fredericka isn't sure she likes the camera and its bright lights. This is the view you have when you walk in the Scotts' front door. Carpeting has pastel stripes. The walls and draperies are pink. Much of the furniture is antique with modern pieces made in the Williamsburg style. The sofa is beige and the chair in front of the window aqua. Just beyond the railings at the right is the stairway to the lower level. Notice the interesting old kerosene light fixture that has been electrified.

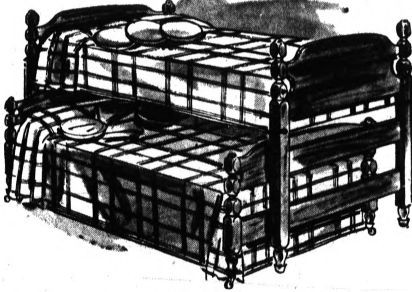

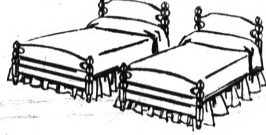

TERRACED YARD — From the lake side of the lot the Neal Scott home on Middle Belt Road looks enormous. The lower level is used as an apartment by one of the Scott daughters; the senior members of the family live on the upper level. Austin Builders did the construction work from plans the Scotts found. The house is reused brick. Shutters are gray. The Scotts moved into their new home not quite 2 years ago.

Chances are you have read articles in magazines or newspapers that tell you a home modernizing project is the best financial investment a family can make. Basically, that's a true statement. Many homeowners have found, when it comes to selling their homes, that the money they have invested in improvements is returned several times over.

However, it's not always the case. It depends to a certain extent on the type of project and certainly on the value of the home and the skill of the workman who does the job.

One example of a type of project that can work either way is that of adding extra bedrooms to a home. If you are adding a third bedroom to a two-bedroom home, you can be almost certain that it will add greater market value to the home than the basic job would cost. But if you add an extra bedroom to a home that already has 10 bedrooms, you are probably not

CLEAN and ELEGANT - There is nothing fancy about the exterior of this four-bedroom two-story home, but its uncluttered simplicity is extraordinary. A family of six or seven would find plenty of room for well-ordered, modern living in its 2,286 square feet of habitable area. Its dimensions are 65' wide by 29'4" deep.

FLOOR PLANS - The clear separation of formal, informal and work areas of this house makes it extremely livable. Note also the abundance of closet space upstairs, especially the extra hall closet and the two walk-in closets in the master bedroom. House has a full basement.

B-93 STATISTICS
A four-bedroom two-story house with 2 1/2 baths, recreation room, den, living room, dining room, two-car garage and full basement.

Dimensions are 65' wide and 29' 4" deep. Contains 1,163 square feet of living area on first floor, 1,123 square feet on second floor (total of 2,286 square feet) and garage adds 462 square feet.

By JULES LOH
The dictates of modern living, which means primarily more space - combine with the best characteristics of traditional design in this handsome and uncluttered two-story house to provide a solidly simple answer to the needs of today's large family.

"New England architecture influenced the exterior of this home," said its designer, architect Herman H. York. "There's nothing really fancy about it - just simple clean lines with as few varieties of material as possible."

The house contains 1,163 square feet on the first floor, 1,123 square feet on the second (total of 2,286), and the garage adds 462 square feet. Its overall dimensions are 65 feet wide and 29'4" deep. There are four bedrooms and 2 1/2 baths. It is designed around B-93 in the House of the Week series.

A 13' by 17' family room, or recreation room, plus an 11'4" by 13' den provide a spacious and functional informal living area. The area is clearly separated from the formal entertaining zone, a 382 square foot space accented by a large living room fireplace. The excellent zoning is further emphasized by a tosser drop in the level of the den and recreation rooms.

The bedrooms, all large, are equipped with unusually large closets, especially the 13' by 19' master bedroom which has two walk-in closets in addition to a private bath with a stall shower.

Ample bedroom closet space doesn't satisfy the complete requirement of a large family, however, and for this reason York has included an extra large closet in the upstairs hall - in addition to the oversized linen closet which has sliding doors for convenience.

EASY TRAFFIC
Good traffic circulation - the convenience of getting from one room to another without passing through a third room - is characteristic of this house, as with most designs by York.

A good sized entrance foyer, with a convenient but unobtrusive coat closet, funnels traffic to the formal and informal areas as well as to the upstairs and the kitchen work area. A garage entrance through the recreation room also aids circulation.

Location of the garage doors on the side makes this house appear, from the front, much larger than it actually is. However, should lot size not permit a driveway on the side, York's blueprints provide for placing the garage doors in front without any loss in storage space. Incidentally, at 27' by 21' this garage is as much as 71 square feet larger than some two-car garages, providing the extra storage space large families require for bicycles and such.

The kitchen, which at 11'4" by 14' is large enough for a dinette, features a step-saving U-shaped work area. Notice also that the work area never has to be crossed by traffic to and from the recreation room.

The location of the downstairs lavatory is excellent for at least two reasons. It is convenient to the informal area, the kitchen, and the play area in the rear - a special boon to families with small children.

The house contains a full basement for laundry and storage facilities, and the basement stairs are right off the kitchen.

Electric Heat Can Be Economical

Scientific advances in the field of insulation have made it possible today for average-income families to enjoy clean, comfortable electric heat.

Now, with complete mineral wool insulation surrounding the living area of a home, electric heat is practical in any climate.

A house insulated to meet Quality Home Standards of the National Mineral Wool Insulation Association will be comfortable on the coldest, windiest winter days, due to the resistance to the passage of heat provided by mineral wool, and the even, draft-free heat provided by electricity.

It also will be cleaner, since electricity heats without combustion.

Here's the Answer

QUESTION: My next home project, is painting the walls in our living room. The ceiling does not need a painting at this time. How can I do the walls without getting paint on the ceiling?

ANSWER: There are several ways in which this can be done, but the easiest and least expensive is with the use of a metal shield known as a painter's time-saver.

Place the shield against the ceiling with its edge flush against the wall. Brush on a two or three-inch strip of paint with a narrow brush. Any overlap will be deposited on the guard, not on the ceiling.

If you are using a water-thinned paint, popularly known as latex, which does not show lap marks, brush the strip around the entire perimeter of the room. Be sure to wipe the metal shield with a damp cloth each time you move it.

If you are using an alkyl paint, make your strip only as long as the distance you can comfortably reach while standing on the ladder. Then fill in the area from the strip to the baseboard with brush or roller, always starting in a dry area and painting toward a wet one.

The same general technique can be used if adjacent walls are to be of different colors, it being understood that the paint on one wall must be thoroughly dry before starting the next.

Incidentally, we know of one case where a home handyman, instead of using a metal shield, used pieces of the cardboard which landings put in men's shirts. The difference is that the cardboard can't be wiped off as easily as the metal and therefore must be discarded each time paint gets on it.

Build in Bed, Drawers

If you have an extra-small child's bedroom, try a built-in platform bed made of plywood across the width of the room. Top it with a foam rubber mattress and place storage drawers in the base for toys.

Waste Items Now Are Used

While the manufacture of Southern Pine lumber is proceeding at a steady rate—enough to build one million homes a year—the producers have added some important by-products which have greatly increased the overall volume.

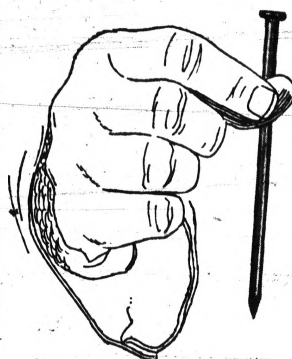

Perhaps the most intriguing are two "opposite numbers": the humble pulp chip and the great glued laminated wood arch. Bits and leavings from the saws, which once had no value save for fuel, are now converted into pulp chips — thanks to the large scale installation of debarkers and chipper. Last year, Southern Lumber companies produced more than 2½ million cords of pulp chips and supplied them to the paper industry. This represents 15 per cent of the total raw material the region used in paper manufacture.

In the other case, special fabricating concerns and some lumber companies are gluing one and two inch thicknesses of Southern Pine lumber to build giant structural sections of "vengeered wood". These great glued members have tremendous strength and are especially useful in church and school construction.

With all this productivity, it's amazing to note that timber supply in the forests is increasing at an equally fantastic rate. Despite heavy industrial demands, present growth of Southern Pine sawtimber exceeds removal by 22 per cent or by 2½ billion board feet a year.

Every Bit Must Go

One thing to remember, if you are planning to revarnish or repaint a floor or piece of furniture, is always to remove every trace of wax or polish. Paint products just won't stick to wax. There are various wax removing products on the market that will do the job simply and thoroughly.

Finland Grave as Reds Prod

Pressure Renewed by Soviets for Negotiations on Joint Defense

HELSINKI, Finland (AP)—Renewed Soviet pressure for Soviet-Finnish consultations on joint defense was viewed gravely by the Finns today.

A source close to Finland's government explained that the policy has been "to avoid, if possible, an agreement with the Russian view that there really exists an immediate threat of war in the Baltic area."

"However," he said, "it now looks as if we have been driven into a one-way street."

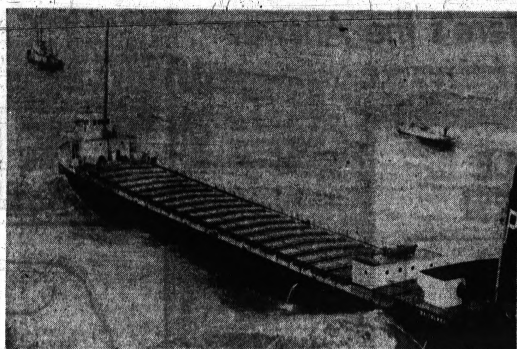

The Soviet prod took the form of a declaration by First Deputy Foreign Minister Vasily V. Kuznetsov to Finnish Ambassador Eero A. Vuori in Moscow Thursday. Kuznetsov said "alarming news" made a threat of West German aggression seem even worse than on Oct. 30, when Moscow first asked for the consultations. He claimed there was a direct threat to the security of both nations and called for joint talks as soon as possible.

Urges AFL-CIO to Stop Feuding

Goldberg Tells Old Employers U.S. Needs Unity in Labor

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg has called on his old employer—the AFL-CIO—to stop internal feuding and get on with the business of organizing workers.

In a speech to the AFL-CIO Industrial Union Department, which he represented as chief attorney before joining the Kennedy administration, Goldberg said Friday: "The country needs a united and not a divided labor movement."

Instead of fighting over which union has jurisdiction in which area—the AFL-CIO should be out getting new members, Goldberg said.

He said new labor department figures show that unions have added only 35,000 members since 1958 and that union membership of the nonfarm work force dropped from 33.7 per cent in 1958 to 32.1 in 1960.

"If you are seeking a challenge, there it is in black and white. Half of all the union members are in New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio and California—at a time when the geography of American industry is shifting south and west," he said.

May 'Bug' Ocean to Warn of Subs

WASHINGTON (AP)—A proposal to bug the ocean floor with thousands of underwater microphones to warn against submarine intruders is under consideration by the Navy.

The underwater alarm system, 500 to 1,000 miles offshore, would be prohibitively expensive.

A less expensive technique of underwater surveillance also was under discussion this week at a secret Navy meeting on underwater sonar techniques. This system, using the still secret towfish technique, would involve towing the sounding device, called a hydrophone, from a blimp, helicopter or surface ship.

By putting distance between the underwater microphone and the towing craft the craft's own noise would be less likely to interfere with the detection device.

HUSH-HUSH AFFAIR

The three-day conference of the Office of Naval Research at White Oak, Md., was so hush-hush, one participant said, that even the midmeeting cocktail party was classified and the bartenders had to be cleared for security.

The bugging technique would involve planting perhaps as many as 9,000 hydrophones, called bottom-mounted transducers, beyond the Continental Shelf in the Atlantic. The system later could be installed also in the Pacific.

Bugging the ocean bottom at depths as great as 15,000 or 17,000 feet would require development of hydrophones capable of withstanding great pressures.

Hunter Plays Christ 'With No Misgivings'

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Should an actor who has portrayed Jesus Christ on the screen be careful about the type of roles he plays from then on?

Jeffrey Hunter, who plays the part of Christ in the "King of Kings," was deeply moved by the experience — but feels he must consider future roles entirely as an actor.

"I feel a great responsibility in having played the part," said the handsome, rugged-looking performer, "but I honestly cannot rule out any role categorically."

Even if he was asked to portray an unsavory character?

"No matter what," he said, "my answer would be the same. I would have to say: Let me see the story. . . What is the principle, the moral? . . . What does it mean? I am an actor above all."

Hunter, who was an Episcopalian altar boy for 11 years and acted the part of Christ for eight months, already has his next part chosen:

TO DO BIOGRAPHY

He will star in a movie biography of George Tweed, an American trapped on Guam for 32 months during World War II. After that he hopes to do "Machine for Chupiro," a light story set in Mexico.

Hunter is extraordinarily sensitive about discussing the Christ part. He is genuinely reverent in his attitude.

Was there ever any hesitancy to play the part which some Hollywoodites feel will limit his roles in the future?

Hunter, who is married and has three sons — 9, 8 and 2½ — said he did not approach the Christ part with any caution.

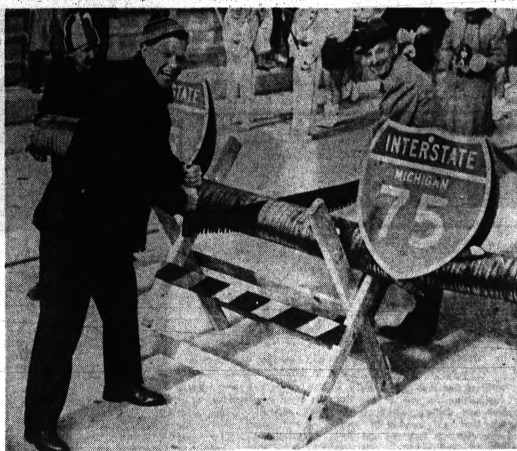

"I had no particular worries or misgivings," he said, "I wasn't worried about being careful about anything."

Hunter said the Christ part had an enormous effect on the local Spanish population that viewed it.

FELL ON KNEES
"After the sermon on the Mount," he said, "people fell on their knees, crossed themselves in their fervent and grabbed at Christ's clothes. It was overwhelming."

Hunter is the second graduate of Northwestern University's famed Speech School to star in a Biblical drama of major import in the last few years. The other was Charlton Heston, who won an Oscar for his part in "Ben-Hur."

Heston now is trying hard to find a comedy role. "I don't intend to make a career of Biblical things either," said Hunter, "I feel this is just the beginning of my career again. There were interesting comments after I was assigned the part. People said I wasn't old enough to play Christ. Well, he was 33 when he was crucified — and that was exactly my age when I portrayed him."

LOG-SAWING CEREMONY — Gov. John B. Swainson, left, bears down on one end of a saw and Howard Hill, managing director of the State Highway Department takes the other at ceremonies opening a nine-mile stretch of I-75. The log-sawing affair took place Friday morning near Bridgeport. The new roadway runs between Birch Run and Bridgeport.

Central Takes Spirited Northern, 27-12

Hillie's Score Sparks Chiefs to 2nd Triumph

End Returns Kickoff for TD in Comeback; Couser, Payne Star

By CHUCK ABRAH

An unbelievable 69-yard kickoff return by Hillie and Miller pulled Pontiac Central behind and sparked the Chiefs to a 27-12 triumph over Pontiac Northern before 4,300 fans on a cold night at Wisner Stadium Friday.

The big touchdown served as a backbreaker for the upset-minded Huskies following two straight PNH touchdowns by Chris Payne which produced a 12-7 lead for the high-spirited underdogs.

Hillie, one of the slowest of the Chiefs, started out the big play by blocking Don Goussard's pop fly. Hillie then kicked at his own 21. He was hit twice after gaining possession of the pignin but staggered on and kept weaving among several Northern players missing shots at him.

It seemed he would go down any minute until he picked up some blockers around the line and while on and went the rest of the way easily.

The clutch tally by Bob Pomeroy's 2nd of three extra point conversions gave the victors a 14-12 advantage and they stayed in the command of the rest of the way warding off a final goal Northern threw in the 3rd quarter.

Workhorse Roy Couser, who accumulated 162 yards in 27 carries for an average of six, added two insurance tallies in the 3rd and 4th quarters.

A 51-yard gallop by Couser set up the opening six-point drive on the night the 2nd time Central had the ball. Pomeroy went over from the one foot line and used his toe to make 7-6 with 4:06 left in the opening period.

Led by the running of Dave Shields, coach Ed Heikkinen's team got rolling on the next series and drove to the Central 26 before running out of steam.

The Chiefs started marching again but star Huskie tackle Don Goussard pounced on a fumble to end the drive and start his aggression on the attack towards paydirt.

Shields went 10 in two runs and Payne went 5 and 48. A shotgun PAT pass try failed and it was 7-6 with 4:09 gone in the 2nd quarter.

Northern was right back after another one to go ahead 13-7 just a minute, 22 seconds later after Mike Mocaraski picked off Chris Humphrey of the Huskies.

Payne went 10 in the 3rd quarter to the four and then into the end zone. A 2nd extra point pass try failed and it was 13-7 with 4:09 gone in the 2nd quarter.

PCH Coach at Ease After Chiefs' Conquest of PNH

Dellerba Can Finally Relax

By BILL CORNWELL

"My lunch Saturday will be the first I've enjoyed this week," he commented. Pontiac Central football coach Paul Dellerba, pleased as punch in the PCH dressing room following the Chiefs' 27-12 triumph over cross-town rival Northern last night at Wisner Stadium.

"I had been worried about this game all week long and was constantly on edge. This is the first moment of complete relaxation I've experienced for several days," remarked Dellerba with a broad smile.

The win enabled the Chiefs to break even for the 1961 season with a 4-4 record. A week ago they conquered Flint Southwestern, 14-7, for a 5th-place finish in the nine-team Saginaw Valley Conference.

Dellerba's team posted a 4-3-2 mark in 1960, giving the PCH grid boss a two-year record of eight wins, seven losses and three ties.

"Northern deserves a lot of credit. They played a strong game and I thought our kids did real well in the 2nd half," Dellerba declared.

Good second halves have been PCH characteristics this season. Last week they limited Southwestern to 16 yards rushing in the last half after giving up 76 in the 1st half. Yesterday they held PNH to 19 yards rushing following intermission after yielding 134 in the first two quarters.

"What did you think of that kickoff return by Milford Hillie? Want't that something?" he enthused Dellerba, referring to his junior end's 69-yard touchdown run in the 2nd period which gave PCH a 14-12 lead.

Hillie, one of the slower runners on Dellerba's roster but physically powerful at 5-11 and 195 pounds, evaded and bounced off tacklers and zig-zagged his way back and forth across the field for a spectacular TD runback of a PNH kick.

Here Renda, Northern's assistant coach, felt that Hillie's great run was the turning point of the game and Dellerba agreed with him.

"Northern had just gone ahead by capitalizing on one of our fumbles and Hillie's touchdown gave us that badly needed lift," Dellerba claimed. Dellerba also praised Hillie's defensive performance.

Heikkinen tried to give his downcast gridgers another badly needed lift in their dressing room following the defeat.

"You kids have nothing to be ashamed of," he told them. "You played your heart out and gave everything you had and no one can ask for more. Now hold your heads up and let's go home."

Heikkinen had special praise for fullback Chris Payne, the workhorse of Northern's offense, halfback Mike Marcum and sophomore Larry Cheek, who played both ways for the Huskies. Cheek usually played only defense, but Heikkinen kept him in the game because he needed more blocking.

Dellerba and Heikkinen laughily talked about fumbled kickoffs and how they sometimes result in brilliant plays.

Hillie's runback was the latest example of making the best of a bad start and Bill Young, who missed seven games due to illness, performed a similar stunt for PNH in the season opener at Lake Orion.

In answer to the question, "why didn't you pass?" Dellerba replied: "As you know, our aerial offense was very erratic this year. We felt that trying to crunch out the yardage on the ground was the bread-and-butter method we used best, especially when we had that 20-12 lead in the 3rd stanza and running plays helped eat up time on the clock. So we didn't throw."

The Huskies concluded their season with a highly creditable 6-3 mark. So another high school football season in the Oakland County area comes to an end. Now the Chiefs and Huskies — plus everybody else in these parts — bring out the round ball.

Crisler Hopes Accord Can Be Reached With West Coast Loop

BOSTON (AP)—A rookie end played two more games and trail the Oilers by .025 percentage and an "impartial" goal post have kept Boston in the thick of the American Football League's Eastern Division championship fight.

Leroy Moore, 235-pound defensive wingman, captured a free ball for a touchdown in the final period Friday night, giving the favored Patriots a 20-17 victory over Oakland. The zany play started when Moore went for the end zone by the Raiders' Wayne Crow crowded the left upright and bumbled loose behind the goal.

Moore outraced a defender and carried the ball just before it rolled out of the side of the end zone where it would have been only a safety and cost Boston the victory.

Reflections

THANKSGIVING
Oh God, we thank Thee for the little things that come to us: love, affection; words that bring cheer to lonely hearts; encouragement to the discouraged; a message to those far away; a paper to wrap a gift that is a light in a dark place; neighbors who are kind and thoughtful; friends who share our load; the saturated love of a child; impulsive kiss, hug; the harmony of wind in trees; happy chirps of birds; welcome back of our pet.

We thank Thee for books and our ability to interpret them; newspapers that give us stories of people, places and things; merchants with shoes and string, buttons and chairs, milk and meat, cloth and friends; a home that is both domicile and temple.

We give thanks for the harmony that comes from a pure heart, where every pulse is a Thanksgiving and every breath is a shout of harmonious Amen.
P.S. Our Thanksgiving is friendship we have engendered.

Paper Says U.S. Army Is Loading Helicopters, Men for Trip to Saigon

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The U.S. Army is loading at least 40 helicopters and 400 troops for a trip to Saigon in South Viet Nam, the San Francisco Chronicle said today.

The newspaper quoted but did not identify a 6th Army spokesman as its source.

The newspaper said Army personnel preparing for the voyage are from the 57th Light Helicopter Co. of Ft. Lewis, Wash., and the 8th Light Helicopter Co. of Ft. Bragg, N.C.

The spokesman said only that the units are to take part in a "readiness exercise to an overseas area." But the Navy said the Core was headed for Saigon, according to the Chronicle.

His Role Has Changed Since Days of Selling

By EARL WILSON
NEW YORK — It may be true or it may be a Broadway fable, but we are solemnly assured that young Bobby Morse is kept in ignorance of the arrival of celebrities to see "How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying" these nights for fear that he might have an attack of nerves and go all to pieces.

That makes it difficult to picture him in his younger days—back when he was 20 or so—as a Fuller Brush Man or a cookie salesman.

"I dropped all my brushes and everything in the middle of Lexington Avenue one day and quit," Bobby says concerning the era when he wasn't succeeding in big business at all.

"And the cookie business," he'll tell you, almost wringing his hands as he remembers, "Oh-h-h-h!"

"Suppose the cookies were 25 cents a pound and somebody wanted an eighth of a pound. Now how do you figure what an eighth of a quarter is? I suppose there's some way to do it."

"But I couldn't, and I had people standing in line waiting till I figured what something cost. I would just guess at it—55 cents, I'd say about some article."

A woman would say "But last week I got the same thing for 45 cents."

"All right. All right, give me a quarter and we'll call it square," he'd say hastily. And that's how Bobby didn't work his way up to the presidency and board chairmanship as he does in the Great Broadway musical.

THE WEEKEND WINDUP

Jersey Joe Walcott, who'll referee the Floyd Patterson-McIntyre bout, says, "Every time I see one of those fellows get hit I ask myself how I ever did it for 23 years." So follows: Darrell Zanuck, filming "The Longest Day," is hoping for bad weather—"for battle scenes."

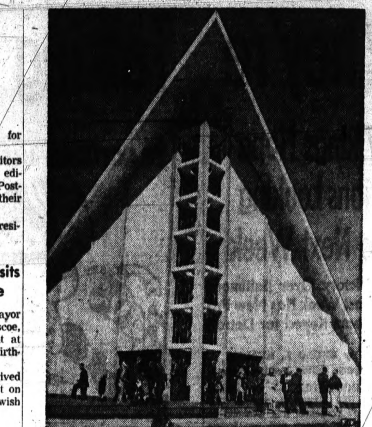

Deborah Kerr, who's getting 400s for "The Innocents," calls herself "a six-time loser"—six Oscar nominations, no wins. ... The current Miss Universe may wind up in the "Right They Raided Minsky's" Broadway musical.

EARL'S PEARLS: A budget is a family's attempt to live below its daily yearnings—Ennis (Tex.) Daily News.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: A football coach boasted that he never aligns his defense: "I merely explain that it's poor sportsmanship to mention those bad breaks and terrible offside plays." ... "She goes out with a big bundle—and comes back with a lot of little ones."

Shelley Berman mentioned proudly to his grandfather that he'd go to Europe to do TV. "What's so wonderful?" chugged the old man. "I came from there." That's all, brother.

Herbert Sondheim
For one of the most interesting of our country's designers, Herbert bowed at one side, is stretched the smooth front line, a series of deep box pleats round the skirt into an enchanting belted silhouette.

Area Resident Faces Charges; 9 Hunters Die in State Friday

A Pontiac Township man was to be arraigned today in the Upper Peninsula on a charge of negligent discharge of a firearm which resulted in death after an Upper Peninsula man was shot and killed yesterday in a hunting accident.

Lawrence E. Smith, 32, of 344 Baldwin Ave., Pontiac Township, reported to Newberry state police that he had accidentally shot and killed Ernest Owen, 68, of Curtis, Mackinac County.

Six hunters died yesterday apparently of a heart attack. Three others died in shooting accidents.

In the Upper Peninsula mishap, Smith told police he had been hunting about 8 a.m. yesterday. Three miles northwest of Gault City in Mackinac County, when he thought he saw a deer and fired his custom-made rifle.

After the accident, Smith made his way through a mile and a half of woodland to reach a road and get help, police said. However, Owen died before help fell about an hour after he was hit.

Heavy weather in the Upper Peninsula also resulted in another five hunters being reported last yesterday. Three were from Alger County and the other two from the east end of Upper Michigan.

A sixth hunter who was reported last Wednesday was found yesterday.

The other hunters killed by gun fire were: Myron Thelen, 31, of Menominee, and Edwin Barve, 26, of Route 1, Athens, in Calhoun County.

Police said Thelen was mistaken for a coyote by his brother-in-law, Ronald Pickett, 32, of Menominee, as the two were hunting Thursday about 30 miles north of Menominee.

Barve was fatally shot late Friday while hunting in Matteson Township, Branch County. State police said Thomas Duckworthy, 32, of Battle Creek told them he fired at a deer and Barve somehow got into the line of fire.

Rockefeller, Wife Parted for Divorce

NEW YORK (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and his wife have parted in the first step toward a divorce to end 31 years of marriage.

The decision to dissolve the union of the Philadelphia heiress and the wealthy, potential Republican presidential candidate was announced Friday night in a terse statement issued on behalf of both.

A spokesman said the agreement to separate was "amiable."

A political aide to the governor said the divorce would "absolutely not" affect Rockefeller's plans to run for reelection next year.

No divorced man ever has been elected president of the United States.

Although Rockefeller said he is publicly acknowledged it, he is considered a strong possibility for the 1964 GOP nomination for president.

The terse announcement of the separation and divorce plans was issued from the Rockefeller family offices in Rockefeller Plaza and not at the governor's residence.

"It was announced today that Governor and Mrs. Nelson A. Rockefeller have arrived at an agreement of legal separation."

"It is anticipated that the terms of the agreement will be incorporated into a subsequent decree of divorce."

Gov. and Mrs. Rockefeller were married in 1930. They have five adult children.

"There has been an agreement of property settlement and Mrs. Rockefeller will come to live in New York apartment at 810 Fifth Avenue."

The governor is 53 and his wife, 47. The couple have three sons and two daughters, all living away from home, and eight grandchildren.

All except Michael, the youngest son, are married. He is now in Dutch Guiana with an archeological expedition.

HELSINKI, Finland, (UPI) — Finland has proposed to the Soviet Government that President Urho Kekkonen fly to Soviet territory to discuss the Soviet-Finnish situation with Premier Nikita Khrushchev. It was disclosed tonight.

Police said Thelen was mistaken for a coyote by his brother-in-law, Ronald Pickett, 32, of Menominee, as the two were hunting Thursday about 30 miles north of Menominee.

Barve was fatally shot late Friday while hunting in Matteson Township, Branch County. State police said Thomas Duckworthy, 32, of Battle Creek told them he fired at a deer and Barve somehow got into the line of fire.

U.N., Congo Probe Death of 13 Italian Airmen

LEOPOLDVILLE, The Congo (AP) — The United Nations today launched a wide search for an Italian transport plane more than 24 hours overdue in Leopoldville. The plane carried 13 passengers, a U.N. spokesman said.

LEOPOLDVILLE, The Congo (AP) — The United Nations pushed forward today in a joint investigation with the Congo government to root out and punish the miscreant Congo soldiers who slaughtered 13 Italian airmen.

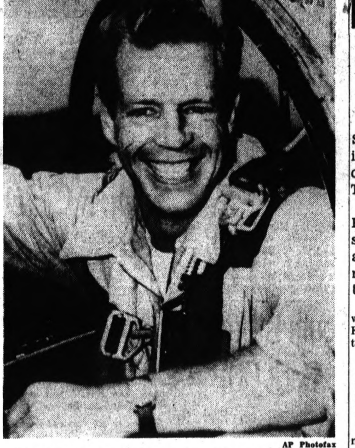

Congo Premier Cyrille Adoula agreed Friday to an encirclement and disarmament plan aimed at what the U.N. command called a "fair investigation and stern punishment" involving the 80 Congolese troops at Kindu, in Kivu Province.

Adoula also agreed to cooperate in an investigation to determine whether leftist Vice Premier Antoine Gizenga, political foe to the late Patrice Lumumba, had anything to do with the slayings.

The Leopoldville government appeared to have accepted the stern measures, which the United Nations proposed as inevitable. Adoula promptly agreed to name four members to the joint commission that will seek to apprehend the guilty. A similar number of men represent the United Nations.

Gizenga's whereabouts were not known but government sources said he was in Kindu prior to the outbreak of the mutiny.

Escaped... but Not Himself

'COULDN'T STAND IT' — Capt. Julian Harvey, skipper of the ill-fated charter boat Bluebell which sank Sunday near the Bahamas, killed himself Friday in a Miami motel room. A suicide note said he "couldn't stand it any longer." He is shown when he was an Air Force pilot flying jets in Korea in 1953.

A lot of people—including FBI and Coast Guard investigators—want to know. Attaches at Mercy Hospital said no one would be allowed to question sunburned, blonde Terry Jo Duperrault of Green Bay, Wis., until she feels up to par.

The child, taken semi-conscious from a liferaft bobbing on the Atlantic Ocean off the Bahamas, is now the only witness to the Bluebell's breakup with seven persons aboard.

The skipper, Julian A. Harvey, survived the Fort Lauderdale charter boat's destruction as he had several other brushes with death in the air and afloat. But he committed suicide Friday leaving a note that said: "I got too tired and nervous. I couldn't stand it any longer."

Harvey said after being taken to Nassau Monday that the Bluebell's minuscule snapper, yanked down the smaller minizestman, and tore holes through the deck. Then, he said, fire broke out and he had time only to launch a boat and a raft before the 60-foot ketch sank.

With Harvey's death by razor slashes at a Miami motel, the Bluebell tragedy's toll rose to six. The dead body of Terry Jo's sister, Renee, was in the boat in which Harvey was picked up Monday. Presumed drowned were the child's father, Dr. Arthur (Continued on Page 2, Col. 7)

Funeral Service to Be Attended by the President

JFK, Truman, Johnson Expected at Simple Rite in Bonham, Tex.

BONHAM, Tex. (UPI) — Sam Rayburn will be buried today in the black earth of the rolling, Northeast Texas countryside he loved.

President Kennedy, Vice President Johnson, congressional leaders and thousands of his friends and neighbors will be on hand to pay their final respects.

The funeral of the House speaker will be held at 2:30 p.m. in the First Baptist Church. It should take about 30 minutes.

Rayburn, 78, died at 7:30 a.m. (Pontiac time) Thursday of cancer. The body of "Mr. Sam" lay in state in The Sam Rayburn Library until 10 a.m. today.

Former President Harry Truman, House Majority Leader John W. McCormack of Massachusetts, who may succeed Rayburn as speaker, 122 U.S. representatives, including the Texas delegation, and 25 U.S. senators are scheduled to attend the funeral.

The service will be nationally televised by the three major television networks.

Memorial services for Rayburn will be held simultaneously in the nation's capital at the Washington Cathedral.

Active pallbearers today will include: H. G. Dulaney, an assistant and the administrator of Rayburn Library; Robert (Butter) Cole, Rayburn's lawyer; Robert West and Choice Moore, who were old friends; Dr. Joe A. Risser, Rayburn's personal physician, and John Holman, his administrative assistant.

Honorary pallbearers will be the President, vice president and members of the Senate and House.

Elder H. G. Ball will conduct the simple service. Rayburn joined Ball's Primitive Baptist Church of Tioga, Tex., in 1957.

Many of the 45 members of Ball's congregation will be present.

While primitive Baptists normally have no music at their services, except singing without instrumental accompaniment, the Rayburn service will have a background of organ music. Mrs. J. C. Christian Jr. will play.

The Rev. Bernard Braskamp of Washington, chaplain of the House of Representatives, is expected to close the service with a prayer.

Elder Ball said he would begin with a prayer and deliver about a 15-minute eulogy.

Kennedy was scheduled to arrive at 1:50 p.m. (Pontiac time) at Perrin Air Force Base at Sherman, Tex. He will take a helicopter to Bonham and go directly to the church.

Airlift Aids Victims of Mexican Cyclone

ACAPULCO, Mexico (AP)—A government airlift shuttled tons of urgently needed food and medical supplies today into flood-stricken coastal villages northwest of Acapulco where desperate survivors of Cyclone Tana earlier fought over scraps of bread.

Restoration of communications with the isolated communities raised the known death toll of the flooding last weekend to 436. At least 300 others were reported missing and Gov. Arturo Martinez Adams said many of them probably were dead.

Relief workers grimly dug through mud and sand in Nuncio, where about 300 died in a nearby lagoon and surged over its banks and virtually destroyed the village of about 1,000.

TOW TO SAFETY — The embattled 51-foot sloop Rowdy (right), survivor of 12 hours of pelting by huge Lake Erie waves and severe winds, bobs along in choppy waters Friday at the end of a towline from the U.S. Coast Guard cutter Ojibwa (left). The Detroit-based yacht and its four occupants were adrift in a gale all Thursday night after the auxiliary engine failed and an anchor line parted. The grain carrier Brucildoc (foreground) follows the tow to break the force of the waves. The sloop's owners say it will be on its way shortly after undergoing repairs.

Station Wagons for All Needs

Pontiac Prepares 4 Big Safaris

Pontiac's station wagon customers may choose between four Safari models to suit their individual needs whether it be for industrial use or private transportation.

The Bonneville Safari features luxurious interior appointments. Six and nine-passenger models are offered in the lower priced Catalina series. The new Tempest station wagon represents the greatest value in economy of operation. Pontiac officials said.

"In designing these versatile station wagons our engineers and stylists objectively studied the various needs of different customer groups," said E. M. Estes, General Motors vice president and general manager of Pontiac Motor Division. "The success of our efforts is reflected in 1961 model sales when station wagons accounted for 25 per cent of all Tempest sales and 10 per cent of all standard size Pontiac sales."

The 1962 Safaris are built on a 119-inch wheelbase with an over-length of 212.3 inches and are 57 inches high and 73.6 inches wide.

The Tempest Safari has a 112-inch wheelbase and measures 189.3 inches in length, 72.2 inches in width and 53.6 inches in height.

All Safaris are four-door models and have seat belt installation provisions.

The loading area of the Pontiac Safari can accommodate a sizeable stack of four by eight plywood sheets. A luggage locker beneath the cargo deck provides extra storage space, while spare tire and tool compartments are conveniently located in the right rear quarter panel. Standard equipment includes the high-performance V8 engine with a wide range of horsepower options to meet all performance requirements.

SPLIT BACK SEATS

Luggage carriers, four-speed manual transmission, air conditioning, and split back seats, which enable the transport of exceptional long packages and building materials, are among the optional items offered.

The new Tempest with its four-cylinder economy and six-passenger comfort, features a quick-opening, one-piece tailgate that provides easy access. There is a hidden locker beneath the floor for additional storage as in the larger Safaris.

The economical, but high performing four-cylinder engine, fifteen inch wheels and oversize tires are standard items. Accessories include automatic transmission, four-speed manual transmission, power steering, luggage carrier, custom interior and air conditioning.

Heaters are standard on all 1962 Pontiac and Tempest models.

Says Gen. Walker 'Sleeper' in 1964

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — Clarence E. Manion former dean of St. Notre Dame Law School, told 500 persons here Friday night that former Army Gen. Edwin L. Walker is a "sleeper" candidate for president of the United States in 1964.

Manion, who lectured before an audience which paid $1 apiece for admission to the auditorium of the Third Presbyterian Church, described himself as a member of the John Birch Society and a sympathizer of the Americans for Constitutional Action.

Manion said Walker, who signed from the Army early this month following an admonition for his right-wing activities as a division commander in West Germany, is a "sleeper" among a group acceptable to conservatives as candidates for the nation's highest office.

Man Now 'Sane' to Go on Trial?

Prosecutor Will Probe Slaying Case; Edgil Was in Ionia 5 Years

Whether to try a man for murder after he spent five years in a mental institution is a question Prosecutor George F. Taylor must decide.

Taylor said Cecil Edgil, 37, formerly of Royal Oak, has been certified sane by doctors at Ionia State Hospital and is being returned to Oakland County.

A first-degree murder warrant faces Edgil for the April 14, 1956 slaying of Lemmer Norris, 51, a Royal Oak barbershop porter. Norris' skull was fractured with a baseball bat.

At the time Edgil told police he had Norris with the bat in self-defense after Norris threatened him with a knife.

Edgil was declared insane and unable to assist his attorney in his own defense. He was ordered committed to Ionia.

Taylor said his office would conduct an investigation to see whether witnesses are still available "and whether he was insane when the crime took place."

In a similar case, a Berkeley woman in April this year was convicted and sentenced to prison after spending 18 months in Ionia following her shooting of an Independence Township housewife.

Finland Grave as Reds Prod

Pressure Renewed by Soviets for Negotiations on Joint Defense

HELSINKI, Finland (AP)—Renewed Soviet pressure for Soviet-Finnish consultations on joint defense was being gravely by the Finns today.

A source close to Finland's government explained that its policy has been "to avoid, if possible, an agreement with the Russian view that there really exists an immediate threat of war in the Baltic area."

"However," he said, "it now looks as if we have been driven into a one-way street."

The Soviet prod took the form of a declaration by First Deputy Foreign Minister Vasily V. Kuznetsov to Finnish Ambassador Euro A. Wuori in Moscow Thursday. Kuznetsov said "alarming news" made a threat of West German aggression seem even worse than on Oct. 30, when Moscow first asked for the consultations. He claimed there was a direct threat to the security of both nations and called for joint talks as soon as possible.

Securities Commission Forced to Drop Office

LANSING (AP)—The securities division office of the State Corporation and Securities Commission in Detroit will be eliminated Monday, Commissioner Raymond F. Cleveland reported today.

Too much service is demanded of the commission with too little money provided, Cleveland said.

Towns of 1,000 or more population occupy one per cent of all U.S. land.

Urges AFL-CIO to Stop Feuding

Goldberg Tells Old Employers U.S. Needs Unity in Labor

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg has called on his old employer—the AFL-CIO—to stop internal feuding and get on with the business of organizing workers.

In a speech to the AFL-CIO Industrial Union Department, which he represented as chief attorney before joining the Kennedy administration, Goldberg said Friday: "The country needs a united and not a divided labor movement."

Instead of fighting over which union has jurisdiction in which area, the AFL-CIO should be out getting new members, Goldberg said.

He said new labor department figures show that unions have added only 36,000 members since 1958 and that union membership of the nonfarm work force dropped from 33.7 per cent in 1958 to 32.1 in 1960.

"If you are seeking a challenge, there it is in black and white. Half of all the union members are in New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio and California—at a time when the geography of American industry is shifting south and west," he said.

May 'Bug' Ocean to Warn of Subs

WASHINGTON (AP)—A proposal to bug the ocean floor with thousands of underwater microphones to warn against submarine intruders is under consideration by the Navy.

The bugging technique would involve planting perhaps as many as 3,000 hydrophones, called bottom-mounted transducers, beyond the Continental Shelf in the Atlantic. The system later could be installed also in the Pacific.

Bugging the ocean bottom at depths as great as 15,000 or 17,000 feet would require development of hydrophones capable of withstanding great pressures.

Chrysler Gets $200 Million for Main Stage of Saturn, Slated for Moon Trip

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chrysler Corp. holds a $200-million contract running through 1966 to build 20 Saturn rockets, which is scheduled to send an unmanned space craft to the moon.

The National Aeronautics and space Administration announced selection of Chrysler Friday and said the big boosters would be fabricated at NASA's Michoud plant 15 miles east of New Orleans, La.

The booster, powered by eight H engines, will be 82 feet high and 22 feet in diameter. Chrysler is scheduled to ship the first one to Cape Canaveral in early 1964.

In addition to serving as the main stage for Saturn, the rocket also is to be used to place the three-man Apollo space laboratory in orbit around the earth.

Red Newspaper Brags of Soviet Rocket Power

MOSCOW (AP) — Red Star claimed today the Soviet Union has rocket warheads equivalent to 100-million tons of TNT, plus rockets that can "lift and deliver any warhead to any points on the globe."

The claims were made by the official military newspaper in an article that denounced Westerners who belittle Soviet rocket capabilities.

The article was written by Col. Gen. V. F. Tolubko and was published in connection with Soviet Artillery Day Sunday.

Tolubko's words on the giant warheads up to 100,000 tons and their number is considerably greater than assumed by American specialists.

This decision was in sharp contrast to the reaction in Georgia when Premier Khrushchev first denounced Stalin at a party congress in 1956. At that time there were reports of rioting in Tiflis that had to be quelled by troops.

'Press Will Aid Nation if Sources Are Open'

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — The president of the American Society of Newspaper Editors said today the press can and will "protect information vital to national security if that information is made available."

Said Felix McKnight: "When information is hidden or covered up, disclosure becomes a game between reporter and news source. When all the facts are laid out, the pressure for exposure is reduced."

McKnight, executive editor of the Dallas Times Herald, made his remarks in a speech prepared for the Associated Press Managing Editors Association. He appeared on a panel with Carl Rowan, deputy assistant secretary of state for public affairs and a former newsmen.

McKnight told the editors the most effective voluntary control of the press "may operate only in an atmosphere of free access to information."

Rowan said in his prepared remarks that the Kennedy administration has asked "that the press not be so free with information that it would undermine national security."

He told the editors: "It is possible for you to give the public more information and at the same time be less free with articles that serve to national security. The American public, but of the enemy."

DO SOME CHECKING
"What we asked was quite simple: that reporters and editors themselves weigh their stories against the national interest."

This does not mean suppress stories, he said, but "when in doubt, do some more checking. Get some guidance."

The panel was moderated by William B. Dickinson of the Philadelphia Bulletin. On the panel with Rowan and McKnight were Clark Mollenhoff, Washington correspondent of the Cowles Publications, and Arthur Sylvester, editor.

His Role Has Changed Since Days of Selling
By EARL WILSON
NEW YORK — It may be true or it may be a Broadway fable, but we are solemnly assured that young Bobby Morse is kept in ignorance of the arrival of celebrities to see "How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying" these nights for fear that he might have an attack of nerves and go all to pieces.

That makes it difficult to picture him in his younger days—back when he was 20 or so—as a Fuller Brush Man or a cookie salesman.

"I dropped all my brushes and everything in the middle of Lexington Avenue one day and quit," Bobby says concerning the era when he wasn't succeeding in big business at all.

"And the cookie business," he'll tell you, almost wringing his hands as he remembers, "Oh, baby! I would have wanted 25 cents a pound and somebody wanted an eighth of a pound. Now how do you figure what an eighth of a quarter is? I suppose there's some way to do it."

"But I couldn't, and I had people standing in line waiting till I figured what something cost. I would just guess at it—'55 cents,' I'd say about some article. A woman would say 'But last week I got the same thing for 45 cents.'"

"All right, All right, give me a quarter and we'll call it square," he'd say hastily.

And that's how Bobby didn't work his way up the presidency and board chairman as he does in the great Feuer & Martin and Abe Burrows hit. They shuffled me around from store to store and job to job," he claims.

THE WEEKEND WINDUP
Jersey Joe Walcott, who'll referee the Floyd Patterson-Tom McCarney bout, says, "Every time I see one of those fellows get hit I ask myself how I ever did it for 23 years..."

Darrel Zanuck, filming "The Longest Day," is hoping for bad weather—"for battle scenes."

Debra Kerr, who's getting 400s for "The Innocents," calls herself "a six-time loser"—six Oscar nominations, no wins.

The current Miss Universe may wind up in the "Night They Raided Minsky's" Broadway musical.

EARL'S PEARLS: A budget is a family's attempt to live below its daily requirements—Ennis (Tex.) Daily News.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: A football coach boasted that he never alphas his defeats: "I merely explain that it's poor sportsmanship to mention those bad breaks and terrible off-plays."

WISH I'D SAID THAT: Description of a woman's shopping tour: "She goes out with a big bundle—and comes back with a lot of little ones."

Shelley Berman mentioned proudly to his grandfather that he'll go to Europe "to do what he does." "What's so wonderful?" chugged the old man. "I came from there." That's earl, brother.
