Cobo Attacks Williams' Spending Program

Adlai, Harry Disagree

WASHINGTON (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson says he has no doubt former President Truman—an ardent exponent of "give 'em hell" campaigning—is making political hay for him.

But Stevenson, who won the Democratic presidential nomination despite Truman's contention he was a "defeatist," is refusing to go along with Truman's statement that Alger Hiss was not a Communist spy.

Stevenson also balks at the term "legal racketeers" which Truman leveled at the Eisenhower administration, but does not say he and the former President see eyes to eye in condemning a situation he believes Truman had in mind in using the term.

"No one could feel more strongly than I do about the giveaways of our natural resources by this (Eisenhower) administration, to which, as I understand it, President Truman was referring, and not to the personal honesty or integrity of President Eisenhower," Stevenson told a news conference yesterday.

A reporter asked whether Truman's campaign speeches this year on behalf of the Democratic ticket have helped or hurt Stevenson's candidacy. Stevenson replied:

"Well, I have no doubt that they have helped the Democratic ticket. My impression is that President Truman is a help, not a hindrance."

In his comment on Alger Hiss, which amounted to backing politely away from Truman on that matter, Stevenson said that in prodding him on Hiss such Republican leaders as Vice President Nixon and GOP National Chairman Leonard W. Hall are "back on the same low road they traveled" during the 1954 congressional campaign.

Hiss, a former State Department employe, served almost four years in federal prison after being convicted of perjury in denying he ever passed government secrets to a Soviet spy ring.

Truman replied "No" when asked in Milwaukee Sept. 3 whether he considered Hiss a Communist spy.

Asked whether he subscribed to the Truman view, Stevenson recalled he declared regarding Hiss during the 1952 campaign: "As I have repeatedly said, I have never doubted the verdict of the jury which convicted him."

THE MOOD CHANGES — Democratic Presidential Nominee Adlai Stevenson presented these varying expressions during his news conference at the Sheraton Park Hotel in Washington yesterday. Stevenson came prepared with formal statements on two subjects and faced questioning from the outset about the Alger Hiss case.

State Candidates Huddle at Rally

CONFER AT LUNCHEON — Detroit Mayor Albert E. Cobo, (right), Republican candidate for Governor, compares notes with L. Harvey Lodge, candidate for Oakland County's State Senator, at a luncheon in Cobo's honor yesterday in Pontiac's Elks Temple. Lodge introduced the Mayor as "a doer of deeds, an incorruptible example of truth and common honesty."

Says Governor Has $155 Million Credit Hidden

GOP Candidate Tours County Shaking Hands, Talking to People

By LAWRENCE S. MARTZ JR.

Oakland County voters yesterday saw a new Albert E. Cobo.

The Detroit mayor, breathing the charged air of partisan politics for the first time in his bid for election to the governor's seat in Lansing, has blossomed into a candidate and looks as if he enjoys it.

Watching Cobo shaking hands and chatting with voters, one county GOP leader exulted, "Look at him—those are real people he's talking to. Real people, and he loves 'em!"

Previously, there has been criticism of Cobo's facts-and-figures approach to the campaign.

But criticism was forgotten last night as the Mayor wound up his Oakland County tour with a wisecracking, slam-bang political speech before the County Republican Women's Federation in Rochester.

He charged Gov. G. Mennen Williams ("that dancing master in Lansing") has $155 million in highway credit locked up in the State Administrative Board. The credit could be used to advance the state's highway program immediately, Cobo said.

LASHES OUT AT WILLIAMS

Lashing at Williams' "spending program," Cobo said two more years of it could lead to a deficit requiring $40 million in new taxes.

"I'll document that charge fully as we go along," he said.

About $20 million of the State's $25 million surplus this year already "has gone for budget balancing," Cobo charged. "What happens when you spend $120 and your paycheck is $100?" he said.

* * *

"The voters of this State want a sincere, straightforward, business-like government," the Mayor said. "They want cooperation in their government."

REVEALS DEM TACTICS

He said Williams and "his clique" make no effort to cooperate with the Legislature.

"They get an idea, it doesn't have to be a good idea, and they throw it to the Legislature. The Legislature can't do anything with it, but it gives them an ex-

Dragnet Out in Riesel Attack

Seek Dangerous Thug Linked to Acid Blinding and Killing

NEW YORK (INS) — Theodore Rij, an "extremely dangerous" thug, is being sought in a nation-wide alarm in the acid blinding of Victor Riesel and the slaying of Riesel's assailant.

Rij, 43, former bodyguard for Underworld Czar Johnny "Dio" Dioguardi — held as the alleged mastermind of the Riesel attack—reportedly has been missing since the murder of acid hurler Abe Telvi July 28.

Federal authorities said Telvi was shot to death because he hiked his fee from $1,000 to $50,000 when he learned his victim was Riesel, a nationally syndicated labor columnist.

"Rij," said U.S. Attorney Paul W. Williams, "is believed to have been the driver of an auto which figured in the transportation of one or more men involved in the acid hurling."

Williams declined to elaborate on Rij's involvement in the plot.

Rij is wanted for conspiracy to obstruct justice through the April 5 attack on Riesel, the same charge lodged against Dio and six accused coconspirators who go on trial Oct. 15 in Federal Court.

In 200,000 "wanted" flyers sent around the U.S. the FBI said Rij "may be armed and should be considered extremely dangerous."

He was described as 5 feet 10 inches, 240 pounds, with thinning brown hair, brown eyes, and bearing numerous scars on his left elbow and legs.

The FBI said he passed himself off as an officer and executive of the Acme Dress Co., at Midvale, N.J. Police at Midvale said they had never heard of Rij in connection with the firm.

Conditions Crowded

Children's Home Needs Discussed

After a memorable hassle over salaries for county officials, Oakland County supervisors yesterday moved to consider the crowded conditions in the Oakland County Children's Home.

Another debate formed over a resolution offered by Mrs. Helen P. Roberts of Ferndale, chairman of the board's Juvenile Committee to appropriate $5,000 for an immediate conference with architects on the "needs" for permanent expansion of the home.

Opposing the move, supervisor Dave Levinson of Birmingham said no action should be taken without consultation with the Ways and Means Committee, controller of county purse strings.

Mrs. Roberts said Ways and Means would be authorized in her resolution to find the $5,000 the resolution appropriated.

Levinson said he opposes the "bond issue" for the project referred to in an earlier report on the home. "I don't think the county is ready for a bond issue," he said.

After Mrs. Roberts emphasized the resolution called only for a preliminary study and report back to the board at its next meeting, supervisors okayed the move in a scattered voice vote.

In other action, the board set Nov. 6 as election day for the proposed annexation to Troy of

Teacher Drops Suit on Firing

Hazel Park Instructor Agrees to Withdrawal; Hint New Proceedings

Attorneys for Miss Marveta Hine, 51, Hazel Park teacher drawing a salary of $6,200 a year without teaching a class, have agreed to dismiss their suit restraining the Hazel Park School Board from firing her without referring the case to the State Tenure Commission.

The action came this morning before Oakland County Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty, who obliged by dismissing the suit.

School board attorneys say they will now have to begin again with proceedings to fire Miss Hine. They say this will probably involve asking her again to take a psychiatric examination.

During hearings on the case, attorneys agreed to Judge Doty's suggestion that a private psychiatrist conduct such a examination.

A report from Dr. I. Jerome Fink of Pontiac now is in Judge Doty's hands. He refused to make it public, and a school board attempt to elicit testimony from the doctor this morning failed when Judge Doty ruled it would be irrelevant to the motion to dismiss.

The schoolboard has said parents have complained about Miss Hine's conduct of classes. She has been a Hazel Park teacher for 19 years.

Second Suez Talks Open Today

LONDON (AP) — Envoys from 18 nations today began intensive talks on the Western Big Three's latest plans for dealing with Egyptian President Nasser's nationalization of the Suez Canal.

The foreign ministers and ambassadors open formal sessions tomorrow to take up a Big Three proposal for a users' association to handle the passage of their ships through the waterway.

Secretary of State Dulles arrived by plane from Washington after a last-minute conference with President Eisenhower.

The second London Suez conference was assured 100 per cent attendance by Ethiopia's acceptance of the invitation. The 18 nations are those which, at last month's 22-nation London conference, supported the Big Three's plan for international control and operation of the canal.

Nasser, who nationalized the old Suez Canal Co. July 26, rejected an earlier plan and has denounced the proposal for a users' association as a "declaration of war."

As previously outlined, the association would employ veteran Suez pilots to take its own convoys through the canal, collect tolls and from them reimburse Egypt.

Nasser has warned that any move to force a convoy through the channel would mean war, an outcome most of the 18 nations are pledged to avoid.

One suggestion is that a guinea pig convoy should steam up to one entrance to the canal and request permission to pass through. If Nasser refused, the Big Three consider he could be accused in the United Nations of failing to observe the 1888 canal convention's promise of freedom of passage to all nations at all times.

Egypt, meanwhile, sent the Security Council a note asking it to keep a vigilant eye on the Suez situation.

The Egyptians demanded an end to what they called pressure from Britain and France, and accused them of "shocking acts" in violation of the U.N. Charter. Egypt did not, however, ask for formal council action.

Record Is Sufficient

Ike Tells Campaigners Truth Will Win at Polls

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower told Republican campaigners today that they need only to tell the truth about his administration to win the election.

Eisenhower spoke at a sendoff breakfast for Vice President Nixon and other Republican leaders setting out on campaign tours.

"I see no reason for our going to the public with anything but the truth," Eisenhower said. "Our record itself is sufficient. If it is made clear the people will support it.

"We do not need to indulge in the exaggerations of partisan politics. I do not claim perfection for this administration but where we have failed it was not from lack of trying."

Sounding a peace theme, Eisenhower said it is difficult to be as peaceful in the present day world as Americans would like to be.

He said that while we may be as peaceful as possible, someone else may make an aggressive move that would disturb that peace.

"While it is not a secure peace that we have," he said, "there are many, many thousands of American mothers that are mighty thankful their sons are not involved in any shooting."

Eisenhower, wearing a beaming smile, walked into the dining room with GOP National Chairman Leonard W. Hall.

Utica Woman Killed in Car-Truck Crash

A Utica woman was killed yesterday in a car-truck collision at an intersection in Clinton Township, Macomb County.

Mrs. Leona Ignasiak, 43, of 44737 Sterritt St., was found dead at the scene by investigating Macomb County deputies. The truck driver, Robert L. West, 31, of New Philadelphia, Ohio, was not hurt.

West told the deputies the woman failed to stop for a stop sign at the intersection of M97 and Harrington road and crashed into the right rear of his vehicle.

Something of Value

TOKYO (INS) — Two pieces of radium worth about $3,000 were returned to a hospital in Kyoto from which they disappeared. An unsigned not which arrived in the mail with the radium stated: "Sorry, I didn't know they were so valuable."

Crash Grounds B52's

MADERA, Calif. (AP) — All B52 training flights were grounded today — for the second time since the massive intercontinental atomic bombers became operational — while the Air Force tried to find the cause of a flaming Stratofortress crash which killed five airmen.

Blazing out of the sky, the eight-million-dollar jet powered bomber exploded in a field yesterday near heavily traveled U.S. Highway 99, incinerating a farmhouse and endangering vehicles on the four-lane expressway.

Earlier this year, one of the eight-engine giants exploded in flight near Tracy, Calif. Findings of the investigation that followed never were made public.

Later the Air Force blamed a malfunction of part of the big plane's complex electrical system for the first crash. This touched off speculation that electrical trouble ignited fuel in the plane.

An Air Force spokesman said last night there was no similarity between the two accidents. He refused to elaborate.

"All we know is that the plane caught fire before it crashed," said Brig. Gen. William E. Eubank Jr., commander at Castle Air Force Base.

A piece-by-piece examination of the wreckage was ordered in an effort to determine the cause of the accident.

Bodies of the five airmen who lost their lives were recovered.

Two other crew members parachuted to safety. They were reported in good condition at Castle Air Force Base Hospital.

A base information officer identified them as Maj. Benjamin R. Ostlind of San Marino, Calif., plane commander, and Capt. William J. Vetter of Atwater, Calif.

Among the dead is Sgt. John Trites Brown Jr. of New Baltimore, Mich. His wife, Mrs. Betty K. Brown, is now living in Atwater.

Except for the pilot's compartment, which was intact but battered, the wreckage broke into small pieces and scattered over an area two miles square. Burning debris struck an automobile and a labor contractor's bus.

Gen. Eubank said the aircraft carried no loaded weapons and no dummy bombs.

"It was just a training mission," he said.

At Washington, Air Force headquarters said it had been notified by the Strategic Air Command that no general grounding order had been issued.

The commander of the wing at Castle Air Force Base ordered B52 flying suspended there for today "in respect for the men killed and injured" in yesterday's accident.

The SAC now has one full wing of B52s in operation at Castle, part of another wing equipped at Lowring AFB, Maine, with a third to start operation of heavy bombers at Westover, Mass., this fall.

A B52 wing consists of 45 bombers, plus tanker aircraft.

Area Schools to Share in Aid

State Subsidized Funds for Driver Education OK'd by Legislature

Pontiac and three other Oakland County school districts will receive some of the larger checks in a half-million dollar state subsidized driver education program, Dr. Clair L. Taylor, state superintendent of public instruction announced today.

Checks totaling $552,825 were mailed today to 434 school districts in the state, Dr. Taylor said.

The Legislature last year passed a law giving school districts state aid at the rate of $25 for each student enrolled in a driver training course. The law also provided that no minor under 18 will be able to get a driver's license after Feb. 1, 1957 unless he has passed one of the courses.

To qualify for the subsidy, school districts must offer courses including a minimum of 30 hours of classroom instruction and six hours of behind-the-wheel training for each student.

Recipients of some of the larger checks are Pontiac, $7,075; Walled Lake, $3,600; Royal Oak, $3,575 and Berkley, $5,075.

The Day in Birmingham

Thomas Brien Becomes Superintendent of DPW

BIRMINGHAM — New superintendent of public works is Thomas Brien, who has been building inspector and in the engineering department since coming to city employ in 1951.

Brien replaces Robert Kenning, who has busily been doing the assistant city manager's duties since taking that post two weeks ago at the municipal building, while keeping some DPW duties out at the Eton road DPW building.

Brien moved into the engineering department earlier this year, having been building inspector for several years. Earlier he had worked in the engineering department.

Only half-dozen residents were present and there was little objection as the city approved special assessment districts and the accompanying tax rolls.

Projects included the Eton Road sidewalk, and rights-of-way and paving of Ferndale and Park streets, and some delinquent bills.

Awaiting further study is the Chicago Investment Corporation's request for vacation of Island View Drive to allow a parking lot; a complaint of parking on both sides of Oakland street leaving only a one-lane roadway; and a request for private sewer for the planned Valley Woods Elementary School.

The Peabody Well sites were approved for purchase at $9,950, following appraisals.

An ordinance for house moving actions will be formulated by the city attorney. Restrictions to be included specify completion of the home in six months, a $1,000 cash deposit with the city, conforming to zoning, and with the city setting the first floor's grade.

State Permits for the North Evergreen Sewage Treatment Authorities may be forthcoming, since no objections have come since the last change asked by the sewerage chief at Lansing, Don Pearce, went to him Friday.

He had asked assurance that the sewage carried in proposed lines would be taken care of, that an agreement be secured for immediate connection of one sewer line, and that downspout ordinances be passed in Bloomfield Hills and Township and in Troy.

All have been done now, according to James Juhl, coordinating the authority plans here.

Birmingham Newcomers will meet Thursday for luncheon at 12:30 at the Community House and a talk on child guidance by Mrs. Oliva Thomas of the Birmingham Child Guidance Clinic. Newcomers to the town are invited.

Great Books Group meeting on Thursday will feature welcoming of new members, being registered at the library or by calling Mrs. Harry Stark Jr., chairman.

Pythian Sisters Temple 94 will meet at 8 p.m. tonight at the Community House, with planning expected for the convention this weekend in Grand Rapids. Several members will accompany delegate Mrs. Joseph Davidson.

15-Point Agenda Slated

Pontiac to Explain Action for Waterford Ultimatum

The Pontiac City Commission tonight is scheduled to present its case to Waterford Township on the ultimatum that the township detach 80 acres for annexation to the city or disconnect a temporary sewer connection to a supermarket at Elizabeth Lake and Telegraph roads.

The matter, decided last week by a committee-of-the-whole, was tabled for possible "refinement" by City Attorney William A. Ewart and City Manager W. K. Willman.

City commissioners, meeting to take action on a 15-point slate, will also hear a report from the city's engineering consultant team of Jones, Henry & Williams on sewer adequacy on Pontiac's southside.

The study was requested by the city after potential developers of the South Park Subdivision sought confirmation on the number of new homes which could be hooked up to the sewers.

Action is slated on an agreement between the city and the A & A Asphalt Paving Co. for curb, gutter, gravel work in the Chambers-Bowen Subdivision.

Commissioners are expected to move next week's session to Wednesday, Sept. 26 instead of the regular Tuesday meeting to permit commissioners to attend a Kiwanis Club meeting.

Another contract agreement, this one involving paving of the east-west runway at Pontiac Municipal Airport, will be considered this evening.

PUBLIC HEARINGS

Three public hearings on special assessment rolls to finance the following are scheduled:

Curb, gutter, grade, gravel, and related work for Astor Street from Auburn to Pike and from Maines to Michigan, and for Gillespie and Diston Streets from Bagley to the east line of lot 4 of the Lakeside Homes Subdivision.

Submitted bids for the sale of the city-owned home at 53 S. Parke St. will be opened and announced.

Oakland County has submitted a deed to the city for the old market property which the city bought on land contract and now is used as the municipal parking lot on Mill street.

Action is expected on a request from Norma E. Luttrell to transfer a 1956 liquor license to Harry E. L'Hote at 691 Orchard Lake Ave.

Burglars Hit Twice Over the Weekend

Pontiac police today are investigating breakins at two city business firms.

The Shamrock Dairy, 936 Joslyn Rd., was entered Monday morning. An undetermined amount of cash was taken from a kitchen.

The Metalfab Inc., of 391 E. Wilson Ave. also was entered over the weekend. A metal filing cabinet was forced open and ransacked.

Sorry, but We Erred— All the Boys Had Bikes

A story in yesterday's Pontiac Press erroneously listed a motorist as colliding with a bicycle on which two boys were riding resulting in minor injuries to both and a charge of drunk driving against himself.

It was learned today that the two injured boys were riding separate bicycles when struck by Warren N. Ryan, 52, of Royal Oak. Ryan reportedly just missed hitting a third boy in the Sunday accident on Auburn Avenue.

Supervisors Mulling Children's Home Aid

2¼ square miles of Troy Township.

The area, which sought annexation in June but lost on a 2-2 vote, was left out of the original Troy incorporation because it didn't contain enough people per square mile.

If annexation passes, it will become effective 30 days after the election.

Harry W. Horton of Royal Oak, chairman of the Buildings and Grounds Committee, told supervisors bids received on county land offered for sale are running about 10 per cent over preliminary estimates.

Land already sold in the parcels now offered has netted $72,834, he said.

County officials said they are counting on the land sales to bring about $1,350,000 toward financing the proposed new Oakland County Courthouse.

Supervisors killed off a resolution, in committee since June, which would give county endorsement to backers of Wayne Major Airport as the major Detroit Metropolitan air terminus.

Controversy over the merits of the airport has been raging in Detroit for over a year.

Levinson, reporting on the resolution as chairman of the board's Inter-County delegation, said his committee thought the board had "no business" in the fight.

Included in the debate over 1957 salaries for county officials was a sharp exchange over how many additional patrolmen should be hired by Sheriff Frank Irons.

Harold K. Schene, Birmingham city manager, said patrolmen for the county's rural areas should be hired by the townships involved, not by the county.

Since cities and villages pay about two-thirds of the county taxes, he said, the present arrangement means they pay for their own police protection and pay two-thirds of the cost of protection for rural areas.

Supervisors agreed to compromise on six more men, the figure set by the Ways and Means Committee in its proposed budget. The Salaries Committee had suggested 11.

Action on the proposed budget also was shelved until salaries are approved.

After the meeting, supervisors visited Camp Oakland for lunch at the invitation of Probate Judge Arthur E. Moore.

Truck Jams Traffic

PORT HURON (AP)—Traffic was tied up for two hours Monday on U.S. 25, after a double-trailer gasoline truck went into a ditch. Floyd W. McCullough of Detroit, the driver, said a bug hit him in the eye, causing him to lose control. He was not hurt.

Kroger Supermarket to Open Tomorrow

The new Kroger supermarket at Elizabeth Lake and Telegraph roads will open its doors for business tomorrow, Sept. 19, instead of yesterday, as announced in yesterday's Press.

The store will be open from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday through Saturday and from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Sunday, according to Jerry McLarty, manager.

The store is one of 80 which will be opened by the firm within the next 3½ years.

The one-story building of brick construction covers an area of 18,000 square feet and is adjoined by a parking lot with space for 160 cars. The store will have a staff of 33 full-time employes and eight part-time employes.

Pulitzer's Prize: A Visit by Police

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Sixteen-year-old Marshall Pulitzer spent six days in a high school chemistry class and $5 on chemicals, then set out to make five ounces of nitroglycerine. He convinced his teacher yesterday he had been successful.

After a back yard full of policemen and firemen dissolved the liquor in water and poured it into the ground, Pulitzer said he probably would study business instead of science when he got to college.

cuse to go around the state dancing."

Cobo added, "They dance while the Legislature stews."

Calling for expanded highway, recreation and education programs, Cobo repeated earlier statements of a need for water and drainage developments. He added:

"We believe the state should lend its full faith and credit to communities for water and drainage projects if it can be established they can pay off."

He said Williams already has "tried to grab" the highway and recreation planks from his program. He said:

"But having no campaign, I suppose the man—well . . ."

Shaking voters' hands and speaking briefly in Keego Harbor, Milford, Clarkston and Oxford, Cobo emphasized his program for a "businesslike" government.

He repeatedly referred to a statement, reportedly made by Williams in a campaign swing around the Upper Peninsula, that "We're going to stop fooling, now and build larger state parks.

"Think of that," Cobo said. "After eight years, they're going to stop fooling. Maybe in another eight years, they'll get something done."

In Milford, Cobo was joined by John B. Martin, GOP candidate for secretary of state, and Paul D. Bagwell, candidate for auditor general. Oakland County's Richard C. Van Dusen, candidate for attorney general, accompanied the mayor on his tour.

Cobo also spoke in Pontiac at noon at an audience of 250 in the Elks Temple, 114 Orchard Lake Ave.

Gawkers Flock to Straits Span

Skipper Cleaning Up Ferrying Rubbernecks to Look at Bridge

MACKINAW CITY (AP)—Busy days ahead are seen for a boat that gives passengers a fish eye's view of the Mackinac Bridge.

Its captain, Bill Sheppler, says his rubberneck craft will draw more sightseers than ever once the big span is finished.

Sheppler is winding up his third season of ferrying visitors into the Straights of Mackinac for a ringside seat at the construction job to link Michigan's Upper and Lower Peninsulas.

He says he looks forward to a boom "in everything" when the bridge is finished.

"We'll see a 30 per cent increase in boating, tourists and every activity at the Straits," Sheppler says. "There'll be more sightseeing than ever before."

Sheppler formerly operated a water taxi between Mackinaw City and Mackinac Island. He still keeps one boat for that service but keeps his big one—a 34-foot, twin-screw cruiser—for the bridge-watching trade.

His rubbernecks all have the same four questions, Sheppler says. How long will the bridge be (about five miles—the central span is 3,800 feet); how high is it (the roadway will be 148 feet above the water); how deep is the water (150 feet), when will it be done (scheduled for November, 1957)?

Filter A-Poison From Water

Scientists Build Pump to Sift Out Radioactivity After Bombing

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (INS)—The danger of atom-poisoned water in a nuclear war may be forestalled by a secret purification pump being developed by U.S. scientists.

* * *

The pump—which operates on the principal of water softener—is designed to insure safe drinking water after nuclear attacks.

Two government scientists have reported on a decontamination process that acts swiftly to give as much as 98 per cent purification of drinking water poisoned with radioactive fallout.

The scientists, William J. Lacy and Don C. Lindsten of the Army Engineer Research and Development Laboratories, Ft. Belvoir, Va., said this is how the purification device works:

HERE'S HOW

Ordinary tap water is polluted with atomic fission products.

Then cheap, commercially manufactured pellets of resin are placed in the dater.

The resins react with radioactive materials in a chemical process known as ion-exchange. Ion-exchange means the resins absorb radioactive materials and "trade back" harmless resin ions in exchange.

The purified water then is pumped through an ordinary filter and is ready for drinking.

Lacy and Lindsten point out the process can be done effectively in less than 30 minutes, depending on amount of fallout and how much resin is used.

Local Farm Groups to Be Represented

Four local agriculture agencies will be represented at an area meeting concerning the soil bank plan Wednesday in Ann Arbor.

Representatives from the Cooperative Extension Service, Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation office, the Soil Conservation Service area office and Soil Conservation district office, will attend the all-day session, sponsored by the state staff of Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) of Lansing.

Main topic for the day, says Lyle Abel, Oakland County agent, will be a discussion of conservation reserve and information regarding "how farmers will be able to contract portions of crop land to be placed in some type of conservation such as planting trees, farm ponds or artificial lakes."

A Haywire Flight

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. (AP) — Miss Ingar Eliasson, 35, a waitress who recently took up flying, set out to fly here from San Antonio, a distance of about 150 miles. Six and one-half hours later she set her light plane down at West Port Airfield between Eagle Pass and Laredo — some 90 degrees off course and 150 miles from here. Asked if her compass went haywire she replied — "No, I did."

Prayers by Phone

MULLINS, S.C. (AP)—A telephone prayer service is being offered daily by the Mullins Presbyterian Church. Dial 8782, and a recorded prayer can be heard. The Rev. Robert W. Gray, the pastor says the service, tried elsewhere in the country, has the appeal of privacy. Plans are to make it a 24-hour-a-day offering.

Going to Court? Get Dressed Up, Judges Advise

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Get dressed up to go to court, a group of California judges advises.

A judicial committee on courtroom etiquette described business suit with coat and tie as the proper attire for men, adding that sportswear or Western clothing is acceptable in rural communities.

As for women, the judges restricted themselves to listing items they should not wear: namely, shorts, slacks, riding pants or other casual attire.

The committee also frowned on smoking, chewing gum or tobacco, eating candy, reading newspapers, knitting or conversing while court is in session.

Drop Search for 30 Lost in Arctic Waters

BODOE, Norway (AP)—Norwegian rescue officials today abandoned the search for 30 missing crew members of the American freighter Pelagia. Five survivors and two bodies were recovered.

The ship, carrying 10,000 tons of Swedish iron ore from Narvik, Norway, to Baltimore, went down Saturday night in a storm off Bodoe, above the Arctic Circle.

A spokesman for the Bodoe air rescue station said ships in the area would keep a lookout for survivors or bodies but "it is extremely unlikely that there are any survivors alive at this moment."

"We have given up all hope," he added.

State Medical Group Expects Big Turnout

LANSING (AP)—Attendance is expected to top 4,000 this year at the 91st annual session of the Michigan State Medical Society in Detroit Sept. 26-28.

Dr. William S. Jones of Menominee, MSMS president, reported that guest doctors from Ontario and medical society members from Ohio, Illinois, Indiana and Wisconsin will swell the attendance by Michigan members.

The house of delegates, policy-making body of the society, will meet for two days prior to the opening of the scientific sessions on Sept. 26.

The women's auxiliary will hold its 30th annual convention and the Michigan State Medical Assistants Society its seventh annnual meeting, both in conjunction with the MSMS sessions.

The Bust of an Old Fashioned Theory

Another of the mossy grown antiques that should be relegated to the garret of oblivion is the old and now exceedingly stale sentiment that children do not like to go to school.

★ ★ ★

That may have been true many years ago when we sat on benches that never were body forming, took turns at carrying in the wood and stoking the fire, patronized an outside toilet, and were the target for spit balls.

When the water was passed from a community cup which was used by every child in school, and sore throats, tonsilitis, diphtheria, mumps, chicken pox and other contagious diseases were rampant.

Or when the temperature in the schoolroom could always be depended upon to be too hot or too cold, the air was laden with the aroma of stale lunches, and the teacher was more often feared than loved.

★ ★ ★

The only school athletics were pom-pom-pullaway, fox and geese, follow my leader or hide and seek.

But with our modern facilities and teaching methods, there is hardly a child that does not have joyous anticipations of the opening of school.

They may have a grim smile for the oldster who suggests that he dreaded the start of the school year, but that smile is bestowed only because they have a feeling toward him that is akin to actual sorrow.

In spite of the fact that there now are more opportunities than ever before for children to have a happy vacation, they go stale on such things after a few weeks and are anxious to resume their school work.

★ ★ ★

If you are one of the small minority who still feel that a child is not happy in his school work, you probably have not had much association with our present youngsters, or have been in contact only with those who make up the much smaller minority.

The present day young live wire loves his school.

Supercolossal

This speed business is getting us down.

The scientists work for months to produce machines that will travel at constantly higher speeds. Then they face new problems resulting from the higher speeds. They are on a merry-go-round in a program which justifies the old Hollywood tag line of supercolossal.

It is all of that.

★ ★ ★

Only a few years ago we were told an airplane had been built which could travel faster than sound. Before long that one was all but obsolete.

★ ★ ★

Next it was rockets. They have built rockets which develop such speed up above the earth's atmosphere that when they re-enter the atmosphere, friction of the air's molecules against the nose of the rocket generates extremely high temperatures.

★ ★ ★

The exact temperatures are kept secret for security reasons. But they were so high that electronic instruments in the rocket controlling the missile became red hot.

Now, however, the metal titanium and new ceramics have met this latest problem, so that even an electric motor continued to work reliably at temperatures up to fifteen hundred degrees Fahrenheit.

They still faced the problem of damage from nuclear radiation. Now the latest word from Oak Ridge indicates that that problem too is being solved, or at least is on the way to solution. Already electronic parts have operated reliably for as much as one thousand hours in an atomic reactor.

★ ★ ★

So—as of this moment, our guided missiles still can be controlled to their planned destinations despite the tremendous heat generated by their return into the earth's atmosphere, and regardless of any nuclear radiation they might encounter. Now, after a deep breath, is everyone ready for the next problem?

A special citation should go to the Budapest flagpole sitter who manifested great respect for his mother-in-law. He was atop a flagpole when he heard of her death, and so he lowered himself to half mast.

The women are going for Eisenhower. According to the findings in the Man About Town poll, two out of every three of them will vote for him on Nov. 6.

They're also favoring Williams, but not as strong. On the women so far contacted, Soapy has a slight edge.

Contacts made the past week were at random on Pontiac streets, also in the same manner in the court house, city hall, post office and bank lobbies, and a few Oakland County residents outside the city.

David Lawrence Says:

Adlai Going Soft on Communism

WASHNGTON—Adlai Stevenson has broken with the Democratic party leadership on the anti-Communist issue. The Democratic presidential nominee has repudiated the position taken, respectively, by the Democratic chairman of the House Committee on un-American Activities and the Democratic chairman of the Senate subcommittee on Internal Security, who have recommended legislation to get rid of all "security risks" in the government.

This means that Stevenson no longer feels concerned about the charge that the Democratic administration was "soft on communism," which was one of the principal accusations made by Gen. Eisenhower in the 1952 campaign.

Stevenson has come out flatly against proposed legislation—endorsed by the Eisenhower administration—which would permit the federal government to throw out Communists or "security risks" from all agencies or departments, whether or not such positions have been specifically designated as "sensitive." His policy stems from the fact that a majority of the justices of the Supreme Court found a flaw in the present statute because, it was argued, Congress intended a distinction between "sensitive" and "non-sensitive" agencies.

REMEDIED DEFECT

But the Democratic leadership in the two committees above-mentioned moved promptly to remedy the defect so as to give a president of the United States the right and the power in his discretion to determine which agencies are "sensitive" and to order "security risks" fired from any place in the government where they are found. Many Democrats insisted this was the original intent of Congress, anyhow.

It will be recalled that, according to the sworn testimony of witnesses, Alger Hiss was a member of a Communist cell when he worked in the Agriculture Department. He could not have been investigated as a "security risk" today if he were an employe of the Agriculture Department because this is a "non-sensitive" agency.

But a glance at the records of espionage in America shows that the use of government stationery or telephones from government desks, and free movement inside the government of seemingly unimportant employes is a vast help to the Communist apparatus. On this point, Justices Reed, Minton and Clark of the Supreme Court said:

"It is not realistic to say that the government can be protected merely by applying the act to sensitive jobs. One never knows just which job is sensitive. The janitor might prove to be as important a spot security-wise as the top employe in the building. . . .

"The president's standard is 'complete and unswerving loyalty,' not only in sensitive places but throughout the government. The president requires and every employe should give no less. This is all that the act and the order require. They should not be subverted by the technical interpretation the majority places on them today."

ISSUE STILL ALIVE

Stevenson evidently is assuming that the anti-Communist issue is dead and that, when Sen. McCarthy was "condemned" in 1954 by his fellow senators for extreme language, the whole issue of anti-communism was squelched. But there are millions of voters who haven't forgotten the betrayal of his government by Alger Hiss, despite Truman's whitewash of Hiss as well as of the late Harry Dexter White in the face of FBI information to the contrary.

The chances are that many independent voters and many Democrats who voted for Eisenhower in 1952 and perhaps were inclined to revert to their party this year will be deterred from doing so now that Adlai Stevenson, in effect, says there should be no "security risk" investigations and firings of persons with a subversive background unless they handle secret stuff or are in agencies or jobs declared "sensitive."

Just why anybody who has belonged to and doesn't repent his membership in the Communist party or who refuses to assist his own government in running down subversives should be paid by American taxpayers and given the privilege of a job in the United States government is something the Democratic presidential nominee will have to explain to the voters—for they are the ones who pay the taxes.

Dr. William Brady Says:

Most People Are Ignorant of Effects Physics Cause

From correspondence with readers, it is evident that most persons who take physic of one kind or another are ignorant of elementary physiology and hygiene. At the behest of the quacks and nostrum vendors, these nasty subjects are not taught in elementary school.

So, after years of mischievous interference with the autonomic (automatic) regulation of the digestive apparatus, it is pretty hard for these poor g..... I mean souls — to understand that the action of the bowels is controlled by the same mechanism as that which controls breathing and the beating of the heart.

The anxiety an ignorant, introspective person has about the movement of the bowels is in itself a common cause of habitual constipation, the constipation habit. It is hard for the poor g..... the poor soul to get his mind off his bowels. He is caught in a kind of vicious circle — if there is any such thing — I'm not certain about it because Tony the Wirish Terror had all the old familiar tricks, but he never once chased his tail. The more one with the constipation habit worries about bowel function, the greater the derangement of the function.

Ignorance of the mechanism that controls the function of the heart, the lungs, and the digestive tract is not the only cause of the constipation habit. A common contributing cause is the misinformation concerning "auto-intoxication," "toxic wastes," "poisonous products of putrefaction of protein material in the intestine." These morbid fancies have been cultivated by the nostrum makers, diet charlatans, regular physicians and health authorities, not to mention mineral oil distributors, importers of low grade flaxseed and vendors of soured skim milk.

It will probably make little or no impression on poor souls with the constipation habit, but the truth is that protein putrefaction in the large intestine is a constant and normal occurrence. Indeed, it may be beneficial to health. This is not just my notion, but fact recognized by all physiologists.

Most famous and imaginative exponent of the "autointoxication" or "intestinal toxemia" theory which has kept millions of people from enjoying good health, was Dr. John H. Kellogg. This one sentence from his book "Colon Hygiene" clearly indicates, to my mind at any rate, how fatuous the man was about it:

"The fact that the symptoms of toxemia do not occur in every case is no evidence that they are not present."

If that isn't strictly for the birds, I'll eat my words.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to diseases, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Voice of the People

Questions 'Health Classes' for Gym-Exempt Students

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

For some reason, the educators have decided that some form of gym must be compulsory for all 10th grade students, with or without a doctor's excuse. The students with doctors' excuses are to be compelled to attend a "health class." This plan is supposed to be extended to the 11th grade also in the near future.

Don't you think our educators are over-stepping their limits? They do not even have physicals in the schools, yet they have taken it upon themselves to be our doctors by giving students, who cannot participate in regular gym classes, exercises in health classes.

What do they think we pay our doctors for? I, for one, feel that a pupil with a doctor's excuse should not be meddled with by the school. Even if a medical doctor were to conduct the classes, he could not possibly know nearly as much about the person's condition as would the person's own doctor. This is especially true in a case where heart trouble exists.

If we must have health classes, it should be up to the students or their parents to decide if they should take it. It is not something the schools should tamper with.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Anger Can Cause Auto Accidents

The Golden Rule is still the best recipe for safety on the automobile highways. But many wives indirectly send their husbands into auto wrecks, so study the advice of Officer Alenduff of the Indiana State Police. Don't blame the police when they stop your car. They may actually be saving your life by slowing you down.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case S-368: Charles R. Alenduff, aged about 33, is attached to the Safety Education Division of the Indiana State Police.

* * *

He was giving a talk and showing a sound movie to the Men's Compliment Club in my home town in the Hoosier State not long ago.

"Please notice the 'chain-reaction' that is depicted in this film," he began.

Then we saw a husband grow angry at the breakfast table and stomp out of the house without kissing his wife goodbye.

In his ire, he zoomed his car out of the garage and forced a delivery truck to run over the curbing to avoid a wreck.

The driver of the truck then became so incensed that he almost caused another wreck, and so it went all day long.

WHY AUTO ACCIDENTS?

As a psychologist, I doubly appreciated this splendid movie, for it isn't just alcohol and hot rod teenagers that cause our accidents.

* * *

It would be my guess that a goodly percentage of them are due to angry folks who vent their emotions by taking it out on the car.

I have seen drivers gun the motor and spin the rear wheels on their take-off, thus placing an undue strain on the engine and unnecessarily burning their tires.

And it was all because they were angry at their wives for some minor fault. Maybe the breakfast toast was burned or the coffee wasn't hot enough to suit.

So you wives can indirectly lower our terrible automobile death rate by seeing that your mates are soothed and mollified when they leave the house in the morning.

Lean over backwards to be gracious and congenial at breakfast. Don't start any arguments then.

* * *

If you must quarrel, wait till evening, for your mate's ire will then have time to cool off before he takes the car out of the garage next day.

WARNING TO MEN

And, men, when you leave the house, remind yourself not to let your upset state of mind cause you to abuse the automobile you are driving or violate the courtesy rules of the road!

Gripe and grumble to yourself, or mutter under your breath, but please don't vent your grudge on your nice car or other motorists.

If you have an ulcer, take some alkali to neutralize the gastric acidity before you start driving.

And leave plenty of space between cars when traveling at high speed. As Officer Alenduff warned, your speed per second is easily computed by multiplying your speedometer reading by 1½.

Since it requires ¾ second to get your foot off the throttle and on the brake, even in a simple experimental driving test, you can figure that it will demand almost a full second on the highway.

So that means your car travels 90 feet (at 60 m.p.h.) before you even touch your brake pedal. So don't tail the car ahead too closely.

And cooperate with your police. They are simply trying to do the most good for the most people when they issue tickets and patrol the highways with diligence.

Our National Safety Council has shown that over 90 per cent of motor accidents are not due to defective brakes, lights and other other mechanical items, but to deficiency in the human "nut" at the steering wheel.

Anger and drunkenness, sleepiness or smart aleck desire to show-off before a girl friend, thus kill 38,000 people each year and injure about 1,500,000 more.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Charles Bennett, Ford Pal, Dies

Wednesday Burial Set for Man Whose Money Founded Auto Dynasty

PLYMOUTH (INS) — Charles H. Bennett, last of the 12 men who helped finance the Ford Motor Co. in 1903, died yesterday at the age of 93 in Plymouth.

* * *

Bennett also was one of the founders of the Daisy Manufacturing Co., world famous air-rifle makers. He served as the firm's president the past 41 years.

At a time when the auto future was in the dark, Bennett invested $5,000 in Ford stock. He held his 50 shares until Ford bought him out 15 years later. He could have made $25 million return on his investment. Instead, he sold for $40,000.

Bennett, a personal friend of Henry Ford, apparently never regretted the sale. He said he sold to head off a move to form a secondary company.

'HERE, SHOOT ME'

His other activities included several round-the-world trips for the Daisy firm. Once in Asia he permitted a high Chinese official to shoot at him with a B-B gun to prove they were not very dangerous.

Later he commented, "They sure stung, but it proved the point and we sold thousands there after that."

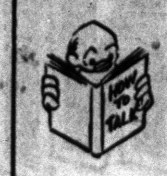

Bennett's closest family associate is a niece, Miss Pauline Peck of Plymouth.

Funeral service will be held Wednesday afternoon.

State Group Pushing Autumn Tourist Drive

LANSING (INS) — The Michigan Tourist Council today launched a $16,000 advertising campaign to attract tourists to the Wolverine state for "autumn recreation."

This was an increase of $2,500 over last year's fall budget. The campaign is aimed at potential vacationers from Ohio, Indiana and Illinois as well as Michigan.

The theme will be the state's color appeal.

Rattler Loses Its Head Over a Fat Squirrel

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—A four-foot diamond back rattler literally lost his head when he tried to give Mrs. Albert Hartledge competition for a plump squirrel.

Mrs. Hartledge, a little peeved because the squirrel got away, returned to her nearby Valley Station home dragging the dead snake and a rabbit she killed earlier. Said she:

"I had aimed at this squirrel and just then I saw this rattler coiled at the foot of a tree. I said, 'Oh, you son of a gun,' and shot his head off."

Blame Publicity for Baby's Death

Police Say Newspaper Broke Story Too Soon, Scared Kidnaper

MINEOLA, N.Y. (AP)—The police officer in charge of the Weinberger kidnap case says premature publicity in a New York City newspaper led to the death of the 32-day-old baby, Peter.

* * *

Nassau County Detective Chief Stuyvesant Pinnell did not name the newspaper in his statement yesterday. But he said it refused to withhold the story and help maintain secrecy in police efforts to recover the child alive.

"I would not want such a decision on my conscience," he said.

The New York Daily News was first on the street with the story several hours after the July 4 kidnaping.

* * *

In an editor's note in today's editions, the News said:

"John MacDonald, Nassau police secretary, officially asked the News to withhold the kidnaping story in a telephone call to the city desk at approximately 9:15 p. m. At that time, the edition carrying the story had been on the street for about 45 minutes. MacDonald, in making the call, remarked that he had already phoned two other New York City morning newspapers and one afternoon paper."

The News' Nassau County correspondent, Ben White, said MacDonald first asked him to suppress the kidnap story at 8:15 p.m. White said he told MacDonald he had no such authority and advised him to ask Pinnell to make a formal request to the News "as quickly as possible."

Peter Weinberger was kidnaped from the patio of his Westbury home. His body was found Aug. 24 in a honeysuckle thicket not far from the house.

Angelo J. LaMarca, 31-year-old mechanic and cabbie, was indicted on kidnap and murder charges. He has said he abandoned the baby. He pleaded innocent by reason of insanity. He said he became panic stricken the day after the kidnaping when he discovered news of the case had been made public. His trial is set for Oct. 1.

All 18 Safe in Crash of U.S. Navy Plane

HONOLULU (AP)—A Navy Constellation weather patrol plane was forced down in the Pacific 100 miles south of Guam early today but all 18 men aboard were rescued.

Two were picked up by a Navy helicopter, which flew them to Guam. One, A.T.2. B. W. Holladay of Lebanon, Tenn., had slight head cuts. The other, A.T. 3. T. S. Bodek of Shavertown, Pa., was not injured.

Sixteen others were taken from two liferafts by the Coast Guard cutter Buttonwood and a navy landing craft. None of these were injured.

The big plane came down from unreported causes.

Checkup for Oscar

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Pianist Oscar Levant, 49, is in Mount Sinai Hospital for what his physician says isa rest and physical checkup. "No specific diagnosis has been made," the doctor reported.

So, Who Took It?

POCATELLO, Idaho (AP)— A freshman class plan to hang the upperclassmen in effigy fell through at Idaho State College here when somebody stole the dummy. The students' demonstration was planned as a protest against hazing, which begins in earnest later this month.

George Washington in 1793 was a guest of the first circus in the U.S. — that of John Bill Ricketts in Philadelphia.

Another Round of Inflation Coming?

U.S. Consumers Losing Battle Against Price Bulge

Editor's Note: Mid-1956 has seen the sharpest price increases since the early months of the Korean War. Is the nation in for another big round of inflation? Sterling F. Green examines the problem in a series of three articles of which this is the first.

By STERLING F. GREEN

WASHINGTON (AP)—The American consumer is losing the battle of the price bulge.

In fact, he has lost it already. Government economists concede that even if the intense bombardment of price increases lets up, the price line cannot be rolled back to last spring's level.

Administration officials, though surprised at the scope of this summer's markups, predict confidently there will be no roaring inflation.

* * *

They believe the consumer price index, now at an all-time high, will come to rest this autumn on a new and higher price plateau.

They disagree as to whether this will be followed by a creeping inflation or by a period of relative stability.

It now takes $1.02 to buy what $1 bought a year ago. Most of this dollar depreciation occurred in the period covered by the two latest index reports, those for June and July.

* * *

President Eisenhower has voiced "concern," as has Secretary of Commerce Weeks. The Democratic presidential nominee, Adlai Stevenson, says the price spurt refutes Republican claims that the Eisenhower administration has found the secret of economic growth without inflation.

The administration has moved in solidly behind the intensified efforts of the Federal Reserve Board to hold the price and credit line. Last spring, when the board tightened up, some Cabinet members disagreed publicly.

* * *

The average factory worker is still better off than he was a year ago; wages up 2.9 per cent compared with the 2 per cent price rise.

Also, the per capita spendable income of Americans has climbed faster than the price level—not in recent months, but over the year.

But only one earner in three is a factory worker, and many breadwinners are not members of unions which see that wages keep abreast or ahead of living costs.

The administration has pledged to protect those millions who are left behind in any inflationary sprint—the low-wage workers to whom even "a little inflation" is a family tragedy, and the many who live on fixed incomes from pensions, annuities or trust funds.

So far the damage is not great. The inflation which accompanied and followed the Korean War reached its high in October 1953. The consumer price index reached 115.4, meaning that it cost a little more than $1.15 to buy what had cost $1 in the three years 1947-9.

* * *

Then the index sloped off slightly. It fluctuated within the range of only a point or two until this spring. In May it climbed back to the peak. In June it jumped 0.7 per cent to set a new record. In July it climbed that much again.

The price index now stands at 117, with a report on August due within the next few days.

Pending the report, the experts are divided as to whether consumer prices went up slightly or down slightly in August.

Much of the June-July increase was purely seasonal. Food prices always rise in the months preceding the harvests. This year there were late frosts and a cold, wet spring to send fresh fruit and vegetable prices zooming.

* * *

Food prices spurted, and food represents 30 per cent of the weight of the whole index, it being assumed that the grocery and meat bill represents that percentage of the total spending of the average city family.

But until this spring, food prices had been dropping year by year since 1952. This obscured the fact that other living costs, as a group, had been rising slowly. One movement approximately canceled out the other, so the total index appeared stable.

This year, the superseasonal rise in foods coincided with a quickening of the rise in other prices. Uptrends dominated the entire index, from housing and transportation to haircuts and medical care.

* * *

Industry, it appeared, had reached the decision on a hundred fronts that it could no longer absorb most of the rising costs of wages, materials, freight, equipment and plant construction.

The most dramatic breakthrough was in steel. The industry posted an $8.50-a-ton increase after the July strike.

Other basic materials rose too—aluminum, rubber, a number of chemicals, some alloying materials.

The 1957 cars are expected to be $50 to $100 higher on many models. Other samples:

Television sets, up $10 to $20; standard typewriters, up $20; refrigerators, freezers, electric ranges and air conditioners, up $10 to $30.

* * *

Home washers and dryers, up 5 to 9 per cent; mattresses, up 5 to 10 per cent; electric fans, 5 to 10 per cent; carpets 2 per cent.

Shoe prices have advanced about 4 per cent, pots and pans 3 per cent. Toys, luggage, lamps, gloves, and gift goods are all expected to be slightly higher by the time the Christmas shopping season opens.

Minnesotan to Head Traverse State Hospital

LANSING (AP) — Dr. M. Duane Sommerness of Fergus Falls, Minn., was appointed Monday superintendent of the Traverse City State Hospital. The appointment was announced by Charles F. Wagg, director of the State Department of Mental Health.

Sommerness, who will take over about Nov. 1, is a graduate of the Menninger Foundation School of Psychiarty at Topeka, Kan., and the Temple University School of Medicine.

Nine out of every 10 American workers are now covered by social security.

Manistee Jet Base May Never Be Built

WASHINGTON (AP)—A controversial jet fighter base authorized for Manistee County, Mich., may never be built.

* * *

Guided missiles instead of piloted fighter squadrons may be put in the Northern Michigan area, John M. Ferry, Air Force assistant secretary of installations, said.

If missiles are chosen, he said, different requirements might call for a missilee base to be built elsewhere than on the Manistee sitee—picked by Congress over strong Air Force objections.

Ferry said that in any event it will be necessary to install at some existing northern Michigan base the Semi-Automatic Ground Environment (SAGE) radar warning system that originally was planned for the proposed net jeet base.

Fire Levels Tool Shed in Commerce Township

Walled Lake firemen are investigating an early morning fire which destroyed a Commerce Township tool shed.

Damages were estimated at $500 in the blaze due to the destruction of hand cultivator and several bales of hay kept in the shed at 2450 Welsh Rd.

Owner Howard Cox told investigators it might have been started by someone sleeping in the shed. He said he had suspected someone had been using the building for sleeping quarters recently.

Gunman Absolved of Murder Charge

DETROIT (AP)—A young gunman has been cleared of murder charges after a court ruled his accomplice was justifiably killed by a couple defending their store against robbery.

In a unique move, Wayne County prosecutors tried to charge Donald T. Carson, 23, of Detroit, with murder.

* * *

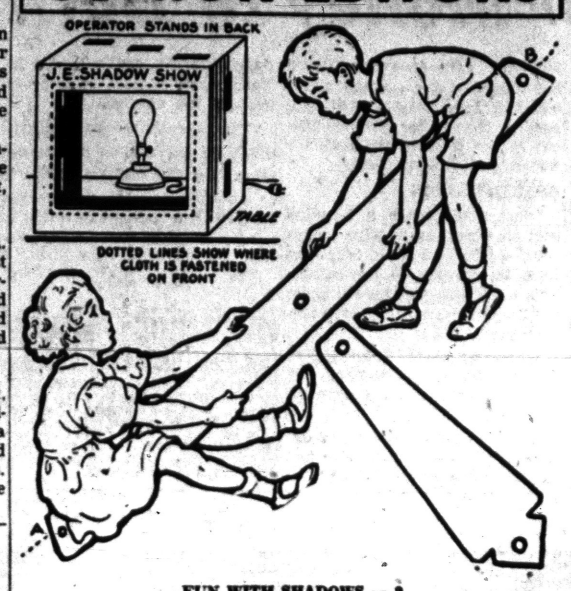

Recorder's Court Judge John A. Ricca threw the charges against Carson out of court yesterday. Carson then pleaded guilty to armed robbery. He will be sentenced later on the charge which could carry a life term.

* * *

Charles Radford, 20, of Detroit, was killed and Carson was wounded in the attempted robbery of a beer store March 31. The pair had been fired on by Mr. and Mrs. John Compton, operators of the store.

FUN WITH SHADOWS — 2

A Shadow Theater

Get a suitable cardboard carton, about 12 by 12 by 14 inches, then follow these instructions on how to make a shadow theater.

The open side will form the back of the theater. In the opposite side cut an opening approximately nine inches by nine. Stretch white cloth across this opening and fasten it in place with sticky tape or thumb tacks.

Cut holes in the top and sides so that strings to work cut-outs can be slipped through. Set the theater on a table and behind it place an unshaded light. An extra box on top will hide you from the audience.

Here is a cut-out to use in the theater. Cut it out and make holes as shown at the center and ends of the board. Attach the upright stand to the board with brass fasteners. Make the small holes under the children's arms by pricking them out with a pin. Fold back the lower end and thumb tack it to the floor of the theater.

Put threads into each end of the teeter and bring the threads out of the side slots, so you can make the teeter go up and and down, while casting a shadow on the screen.

Bob Considine Says:

Government Has Plenty of Money to Burn

WASHINGTON (INS) — Some things I never knew about money, until a young legman named Mike emerged from the Treasury Department with his arms filled with information.

* * *

He is slightly hard of hearing. I told him "go in there and get the dough." He thought I said "dope."

Here goes—

The life expectancy of a dollar bill is somewhere between 9 and 10 months. That is, the buck lasts that long physically before it is called in and burned.

Once upon a time the government used to wash and then grind up the recalled bills and sell the porridge to paper companies. No more.

* * *

Boston, for reasons not very clear, uses more $2 bills than any other city. Superstitious people still turn down the corners of the deuce note, or mutilate it by tearing off a corner—to take the curse off it. (They should be cursed with a ton of them!)

NO SILVER SINCE '35

The U. S. stopped making silver dollars in 1935. (But Las Vegas grew up anyway.) Years ago, somebody goofed and stashed a big store of early silver dollars in a vault only recently reopened.

* * *

It knocked part of the bottom out of the coin collecting market. Suddenly a silver dollar old enough to be worth $30 was worth one.

Mints punch out about 2,000,000,000 pennies a year, about 500,000,000 dimes, quarters and halves, and a little over 200,000,000 nickels. There are frequently penny shortages in the richest land in history.

The paper for the paper money is produced by only one company, the Crane Paper Company of Dalton, Mass. A dollar bill costs just under one cent to manufacture. So does the $2, the $5, the $10, the $20, and the $50, the $100, the $500, the $1,000, the $5,000 and the $10,000.

* * *

Nothing over the $100 bill has been printed since 1945—and you can place your own significance on that fact.

Paul Revere made the first paper money engravings, then mounted a fast horse. Nero was the first counterfeiter of money, and the Kubla Khan printed the first paper money in 1273 on mulberry paper.

ADOPTED IN 1785

The dollar was adopted by Congress in 1785 as the unit of our money and the decimal system as the method of reckoning.

* * *

Tens and twenties are counterfeited most often, but the Bureau of Engraving proudly reports that no counterfeiter — no matter how much of a warped genius he was— ever came really close to the perfection of government engravers.

Bills have been green, black, yellow, red and gold, but never blue. There is a $5,000 fine attached to printing, photographing, making or executing any print or impression "or the likeness of any obligation or security, or any part thereof, without authority—etc."

Treasurer of the United States Ivy Baker Priest was refused permission to show a $100,000 bill (used only by banks in transferring funds) on this writer's TV show several years ago.

* * *

The treasury didn't want any viewers to make a fast sketch of it and cash it at the corner drug-store before the Secret Service could move in.

COMMON GROUND

What have Washington, Jefferson, Lincoln, Hamilton, Jackson, Grant, Franklin, McKinley, Cleveland, Madison, (Salmon) Chase and Wilson in common? Easy. Their pictures are on the bills ranging from a buck to $100,000.

* * *

The government writes 1,000,000 checks a day. To give you some idea of the number of bills it burns each year (and also to acquaint the numb with how much is a billion and a quarter dollars) the bills would stack as high as 900 Washington Monuments!

Here's how "In God We Trust" (which soon goes on the paper money, too) came about: On November 13, 1861, the Rev. N. R. Watkinson of Ridleyville, Pa., wrote to Secretary of the Treasury Chase as follows—

"One fact touching our currency has hitherto been seriously overlooked. I mean the recognition of the Almighty God in some form in our coins.

"What if our republic were now shattered beyond reconstruction? Would not the antiquaries of succeeding centuries rightly reason from our past that we were a heathen nation?

* * *

"What I propose is that instead of the goddess of liberty we shall have next inside the 13 stars a ring inscribed with the words "Perpetual Union'; within this ring the all-seeing eye, crowned with a halo; beneath this eye the American flag, bearing in its field stars equal to the number of states united; in the folds of the bars the words 'God, Liberty, Law.'

BEAUTIFUL COIN

"This would make a beautiful coin to which no possible citizen could object. This would relieve us from the ignomy of heathenism. This would place us openly under the Divine protection we have personally claimed.

"From my heart I have felt our national shame in disowning God as not the least of our present national disasters."

Chase acted a week later, directing James Pollock, director of the Philadelphia Mint, "No nation can be strong except in the strength of God, or safe except in His defense.

"The trust of our people in God should be declared on our national coins. You will cause a device to be prepared without unnecessary delay with a motor expressing in the fewest and tersest words possible this national recognition."

250 Attend GOP Picnic

Approximately 250 Republicans gathered at Avon Park last night to meet their candidates. The Women's Republican Federation of Oakland County sponsored the affair.

* * *

The occasion also was in celebration of the Federation's 24th anniversary. Organizer of the group 24 years ago was Mrs. Bert E. Norton of Rochester, who still is very active in the Federation.

Mrs. Kenneth B. Nichols, this year's president, introduced Mrs. Peter Gibson, president of the National Federation of Republican Women.

Speaking to the group Mrs. Gibson said:

"We should try to be worthy, that we may be given strength and wisdom. We must use this strength to the best of the ability given us, but we must work for it.

EFFORT NEEDED

"Nothing can be given to us without some effort of our own. We have the finest of candidates, but we must do even more.

"We must all exert our best, that we will see the results which will be best for our state and our nation," she concluded.

* * *

County chairman Chad Ritchie introduced candidates for state offices including John B. Martin Jr., Richard Van Dusen, Paul D. Bagwell, Charles Ziegler and L. Harvey Lodge.

Also introduced were Fred Ziem, Frank Irons, Lynn D. Allen, Charles Sparks, Daniel T. Murphy Jr., Dan Barry, Ralph Main, Lloyd Anderson, Robert C. Miller, Farrell Roberts, Don Brown and Verne Hampton.

William S. Broomfield, candidate for U. S. House of Representatives also was introduced, Detroit Mayor Albert E. Cobo, gubernatorial candidate, was keynote speaker.

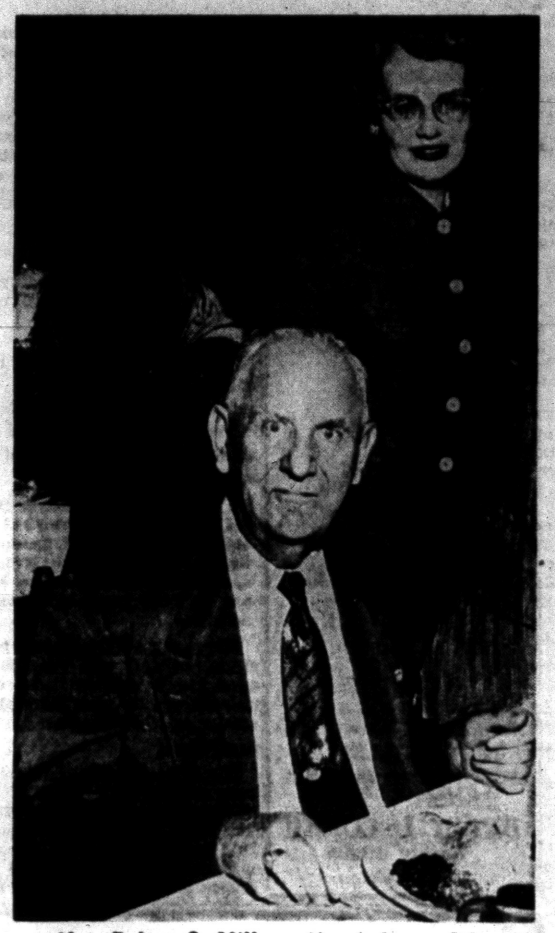

* * *

Program chairman was Mrs. William A. Kennedy, president of the Lincoln Club of Oakland County.

Birthday cakes decorated each table, and lighted flares were added effects.

Mrs. Nichols urged the women to think Republican and work Republican—not to dream Republican. "Women have a reputation for talking," she said, and she concluded, "Talk Republican everywhere you go."

(See Cobo's speech on Page 1)

Mrs. Robert C. Miller, wife of the candidate for state representative, was caught by the photographer as she hurried to her dinner spot. Seated at the table is William A. Kennedy of Wenonah drive.

One-Hostess Party Has Its Points

Reader Likes Small Affair as Conducive to Congeniality

By EMILY POST

Dear Mrs. Post: "It seems to be a growing custom in this community for several women to band together and give one party. In fact, invitations from one hostess alone are becoming a rarity.

"I personally prefer several parties to one very much more elaborate one, with nothing left over to look forward to for another day. However, I would like to know how you feel about this. It does seem to me that when the guest lists of each hostess are different it bring together mixed groups of people that may not be very congenial."

Answer: I agree entirely with you. I like one-hostess parties best, probably because I like little parties better than big ones. Moreover, such collections of people are too likely to suggest the pieces of a patchwork quilt that have not been put together.

On the other hand, if their friends are the same and together they can give a dance or other party that would be too expensive for one of them alone to afford, this would, of course, be a plainly sensible reason for several hostesses giving a party together.

Dear Mrs. Post: 'My husband and I are going to celebrate our 25th wedding anniversary in the near future by having a large reception.

"As we already have more silver than we know what to do with, I would like to know if it would be proper to write, "Please no silver" at the bottom of the invitations.

Answer: The only thing you can properly say, is, "Please no gifts."

Give Your Face Steam Bath, Soap Massage

Natural changes occur in our skin as we grow older, necessitating softer hues and less pronounced accents of rouge and lipstick.

New lines sneak up on us too, and for this reason an "abbreviated facial" is suggested. Set your dial on your water heater to 150 degrees for this process.

Cleanse the face, then take a steambath, over your wash basin.

For this, merely open the faucet wide and let the water cascade into the basin, while you lean over and bathe every pore with clouds of steam. Next, soap your face, then rinse with warm water then again with cold water.

A good skin-firming astringent before the night cream and you're through.

Actor Dean Was Big Wheel in High School Dramatics

Wrote, Directed Plays as Freshman, Won State Forensic Contest as Senior

(This is the second of five articles on the life of the late actor James Dean.)

By JOSEPH R. MARSHALL ..
INS staff Writer

The boy who became actor James Dean, a generation's symbol and a legend after death, was as typical as the teenagers who revere him.

* * *

He was born at Marion, Ind. His parents were a dental technician, Winton Dean, and a strangely romantic farmer's daughter, Mildred Wilson.

She named her pleasant baby after her father, James, and after the great romantic poet-hero, George Gordon, Lord Byron. She encouraged her little boy toward art.

"I studied the violin when I was a kid, but it didn't take," Dean said later. "That was Mother's idea."

* * *

When James was five, his father was transferred by the Veterans Administration to Los Angeles. Four years later the boy's mother died.

LIVED WITH AUNT

James was sent to live with his father's sister, Ortense, and her husband, moderately wealthy Marcus Winslow, on their 350-acre farm at Fairmount, near Marion.

Dean said, years later, "Cows, pigs, chickens and horses may not appear to be first rate dramatic coaches, but I learned a lot about acting from them."

The Winslows gave him love, and raised him as their son, as the brother of Joan and Marcus Winslow Jr. He got a pony, played basketball on the Fairmount Grade School team, got A's in art. But so did a lot of other kids.

* * *

The only difference was noted by one of young Dean's teachers, Mrs. Adelaine Nall. She recalled he was an "extremely lovable" little seventh-grader who asked if he could "read" in hopes of joining the drama workshop. His talents were "immediately recognizable."

GOOD ATHLETE

Entering Fairmount High School, the boy soon showed he was a good athlete; despite extreme nearsightedness he was a pole vaulting star, played basketball and baseball. He was popular, and intelligent, but lacked application in his studies.

* * *

Only Dean's theatrical ability stood out. Mrs. Nall said he wrote "mature" plays as a freshman in her citizenship class, was a "fine director."

As a sophomore he was the outstanding student in her speech class. He became head of the Thespian Society, played mostly character parts in such plays as "The Monkey's Paw," "Gone With the Wind," and preferred dramatic plays to comedies.

Mrs. Nall recalled that even as a youngster he said: "If you want to act, you have to give up everything for your acting."

* * *

His abilities prompted Mrs. Nall to give him practically complete charge of one production. But one night he kept the other student-actors until midnight, when, Mrs. Nall said, "parents began calling and arriving. It nearly caused a riot."

As a teenager he gave evidence of the need for attention that was to mark him in Hollywood. Helen Walters, who knew him in high school, said, "I guess he was kind of a show-off, but everybody liked him, especially the girls."

* * *

As a senior he went to the National Forensic League state finals at Peru, Ind. He had picked as his subject a dramatic reading from Dickens entitled, "Madman."

Stepping to the platform, he paused and then let out a piercing scream. He said later, "It really woke up those judges." They gave him first prize.

Mrs. Nall went with him to Longmont, Colo., for the national finals. She said he did not win because he had failed to study enough. But he "caught the spark of what could be done in drama," and driving back to Fairmount, the 18-year-old said:

"How I wish I was a sophomore now, and knew what I know now."

* * *

The high school yearbook listed his activities: "Basketball, track, Thespians, F-Club, band" and added, with no hint of his future, "Jim is our regular basketball guy, and when you're around him time will fly."

James Dean, like thousands of other young high school graduates, couldn't make up his mind about a career. He went to Los Angeles to live with his father and took up first physical education and then the law. Neither seemed right.

(Tomorrow: James Dean finds he is an actor.)

Interest Secret of Vibrant Living

BY ANNE HEYWOOD

Remember when you were a child? Every day was an exciting adventure and bedtime was a terrible thing, inflicted on you by parents who didn't understand.

That capacity for exploration, for finding the world a constantly unfolding miracle, for asking questions and investigating all the interesting things around you, is a very normal approach to life.

But too often, we gradually lose it as we grow in years, until life is a drab, habit-ridden affair. We take it for granted that that's how life it. But it needn't be.

Occasionally we meet people in their sixties and seventies who have maintained that active curiosity and interest. Invariably they seem ages younger than they are and they attract friends by the score in all age groups.

WHAT'S THE SECRET?

What is their secret?

Well, I asked one—a gentleman in his seventies, whom I shall call Mr. K.

* * *

Mr. K. was a classmate of my father's and I have seen him off and on through the years. Now retired from his business, he is an active, sparkling and fascinating man.

I invited him to dinner to get his secret and was vastly amused and impressed to learn that he couldn't make it for about three weeks because he had so many engagements and activities.

"I'm going to the theatre two nights this week with some teenager friends of mine," he explained, "and the other two nights are for my sketching class.

BUSY LIFE

"Then, next week, I'm going away for five days with a friend who's setting up an antique shop and wants my help. After that, I'm having three house guests, children of a buddy of mine in France in World War I. But the following week I'd be free for dinner."

When he came, we settled down to a good chat. I asked him how he had the energy to be interested in so many things—more, really, than most men half his age.

"Well," Mr. K. explained thoughtfully, "energy and interest—interest and energy—it's a case of which comes first.

INTEREST COMES FIRST

"Most people think energy comes first—if you have enough energy you can do interesting things.

"But I find that interest comes first. If I'm interested enough, I find the energy!"

That's an important thing to remember. If you're tired and feeling old, don't try to manufacture physical energy. Instead, try to find something that interests you. It will produce the energy like magic.

If you have trouble stirring up an interest, send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope, care of this newspaper, and I will send you my pamphlet, "Pointers on Finding Your Basic Interest."

Fitted Foundation Is Fashion Must

A well-fitted foundation is a must. A good-sized mature woman ought to have several. One to wash, one to wear and one to spare.

And since a well-fitted all-in-one is costly of time and money to buy, it deserves loving care. A good pretreating of soiled spots with a brush and thick suds comes first.

Then washing in fresh suds (no wringing or rubbing), rinsing, rolling in a towel and drying away from heat.

Color Can Make You Gay or Sad

BY JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

We are all conscious to some extent of the part color plays in our lives. Poets use color to paint a picture or a mood for us. They write of the silver moon, the azure sky or the blood-red sun, for example.

We women have learned what a tremendous effect the colors we use in makeup can have on the way we look. Interior decorators long have used colors to create the mood most 'simpatico' and flattering to the woman of the house. We also know that we respond to the hue of the clothes we are wearing.

Some colors make us feel gayer, some younger, some more sophisticated and some older. Whenever a color makes you feel more attractive it probably is becoming to you.

When you receive compliments over and over again when wearing a certain outfit, you can be certain that you should use that color often.

* * *

We have known these things but the real importance of color has been highlighted by scientific investigation which proves that color has an even greater impact on our lives than we once thought.

BLUES RESTFUL

I have reported before in this column that soft blues, greens and blue-greens are restful, while reds are stimulating. For this reason red never is used in mental hospitals while blue is effective in this circumstance as well as in hospitals. Blue should be used in any room at home which you wish to be restful because you spend a lot of time in it.

Other interesting facts have been discovered. For instance, yellow is a most valuable shade if used correctly. It has warmth and is therefore stimulating. It has been found that school children's grades improved when the walls were painted yellow. Naturally this must be a soft lovely yellow.

On the other hand certain shades of yellow can cause a feeling of nausea. For this reason it is not used in commercial airplanes.

So take color into your makeup, your clothes, your homes, and to your heart. Color has an impact on our moods and our happiness and perhaps even on our health.

Tomorrow: "Perfect Housekeeper Misses a Lot of Fun."

When you receive compliments over and over again when wearing a certain outfit, you can be sure that you should use that color often.

Draperies Change Window Dimensions

URBANA, Ill. (INS)—The way you hang draperies can change the apparent dimensions of a window.

Lowell E. Handerson, a home furnishings instructor at the University of Illinois, offers these tips:

Hanging draperies near the inner edge of a window jamb makes the window look narrower. Covering part or all of the wall on either side with draperies will make the window appear wider.

You can increase the apparent height of a window by using a large high cornice and short draperies.

Cooked green peas or carrots, fresh green pepper squares, parsley or red pimento slices mixed into white cooked rice add gay colors to rice rings or mounds of rice.

Residents Find Travel Rewarding

Winstons, Giffels, Tuttles Make Trips to East, Europe

BIRMINGHAM — Travelers in the East have included the Raymond S. Giffels and the Harry S. Winstons, and in Europe, the E. X. Tuttles.

The Harry Winstons, of Aspen street, are in New York and Vermont, with main reason for the trip being Mrs. Winston's sharing in a trustee meeting at Bennington College in Vermont.

They are spending some time at their Vermont summer home and will return the end of this month.

The Winstons returned in mid-August from Europe, and are still showing friends their prize paintings purchased while abroad.

They have a new group of futurist paintings, recalling the quick success of that French school, which lasted only a few years in the first decade of the 20th century.

ADDED TO COLLECTION

It is being added to the extensive Winston collection which is loaned to major art institutes and is shown in private exhibits.

Shock value is prime interest in the style, which stressed the horrors of the everyday life of that decade.

The Giffels returned Monday from New York City to their Glengary road home, having split their trip between the architect's business trip and a round of stage shows.

* * *

"Matchmaker" was a good comedy, says Mrs. Giffels, who says tickets to "My Fair Lady" are far too difficult to secure.

DRAWING ATTENTION

The latter Broadway rendition of the GBS play Pygmalion is drawing much attention among Eastern travelers, and is enticing at least one localite to look around for some reason why her family "just has to go to New York," so she can return to say she too has seen "Fair Lady."

* * *

The William T. Gossetts of Goodhue, Blomfield Hills, report they saw the play recently, but drew a night during Rex Harrison's recent illness that kept him from the starring role nearly a week.

The Giffels visited their daughter, Mrs. E. B. Cochran of Packanack Lake, N. Y. before their return home.

Returning from Europe aboard the Liner Liberte, Mrs. E. X. Tuttle was in Battle Creek this weekend with her mother. Mr. Tuttle will return next month, after completing a nine-month assignment from the State Department on Europe's housing.

Mrs. Tuttle came back early to enroll for her master's at Wayne State University, where she was touted as a "graduating grandmother" when she received her B.A. there last spring.

Warn Women Not to Work to Escape Duties at Home

When Job Becomes 'Retreat' for Peace It's Time to Quit and Care for Family

By RUTH MILLETT

"I was sure glad to get back to work this morning," said the fortyish beauty shop operator who is the mother of three children.

"I don't think I could have stood the confusion at home another day," she confessed, "with the kids arguing with each other and wanting to go somewhere all the time.

"After two weeks of that, being able to work in peace and quiet seems like heaven."

As more and more married women work, more and more of them are getting a masculine attitude toward home life.

They think it is fine for a few hours a day but they don't want too much of it.

* * *

Many of them are also developing such a taste for shop and office routines that in comparison homemaking seems like an inferior job.

TIME TO QUIT

If her family can possibly get along without her pay check any married woman with children ought to quit her job the first time she finds herself dreading a weekend or looking forward to Monday and the peace and quiet of an office.

For if she doesn't quit then she never will.

She may be honest enough with herself to admit she isn't willing to give up her job. Or she may keep on making excuses for working, putting the day of quitting ahead, "until the children are educated," "until the house is paid for" or "until we have a certain sum in the savings account."

But they'll just be excuses. Even though she can fool herself she will probably never fool her children.

* * *

"I'd rather have my mother at home than have all the pretty clothes she buys me out of her pay check and the big allowance she gives me," one teenage girl recently confessed in a letter to this column.

But she never will have her mother at home if her mother long ago decided that she could take being a homemaker only in small doses.

Political Expert Advises Waterford to Keep Status

MILFORD GIVES FLOWERS — During a quick stopover in Milford yesterday, Mayor Cobo was presented with a bouquet of red, white and blue carnations. Little 3-year-old Margaret Tressler made the presentation, ending her speech with, "Here's some flowers from the 'publicans."

Charter Aid Termed Little

Would Allow Manager and Tax Limit, Educator Tells Committee

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — Dr. Louis Friedland, Wayne State University political expert, last night advised the township to remain in its present status until ready to take on home rule and become a municipality.

"The chartered township doesn't do much more for its community than the present type of government, he told a meeting of the Waterford Township Community Study committee at the high school.

"It takes as much work to educate the people to the point of accepting chartering as it does incorporation," he pointed out.

A political science professor, Dr. Friedland talked to about 50 residents representing the township Community Study Group present on differences between township and chartered township governments.

The term "charter," he said, is misleading because the community does not become a home rule city because of it.

"When you become a chartered township, under Public Act 359 of 1947, you adopt a set of provisions that allow a certain amount of leeway as to taxation and government. Your legislative body remains the same—superintendent, clerk, treasurer and four trustees."

"The two differences are the possibility of appointing a superintendent or chief administrating officer to manage the township, and the maximum tax rate of ten mills for financing government services such as fire and police protection, sewers, water, paving, street lighting and the like."

Waterford Township is now under the 15 mill limitation of which it receives only 1.3 mills for these services, according to Supervisor Lloyd Anderson.

Dr. Friedland pointed out that the chartered township system does not prevent secession of any of its parts because it is not a municipal government.

"This is the most single, serious weakness of this type of government," he said. As neighborhoods and communities develop, they become desirable to nearby cities and fragmentation takes place.

During the question and answer period which followed, Sam Garras, 3209 Alco drive, noted that suburbs in this area are growing rapidly and asked if this were the trend across the country and what was being done about it.

Dr. Friedland said that many sections of the country are faced with this same situation. In some instances the smaller communities were absorbed, or annexed, by the larger, but statistics have shown that this method is practical only as far as communities of 80,000 to 100,000 are concerned. After that it becomes uneconomical and inefficient, he added.

Another way to handle the overlapping problems is for communities to form "authorities." That is, each community enters into contractional agreements with other communities to handle their sewage, drainage, water, garbage disposal, or recreational problems. They work on a cooperative basis and pool resources but the local communities retain their identities.

Last night's meeting was sponsored by the Waterford Township Business and Professional Women's Club in cooperation with the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Another meeting has been set for October 15. It will be held in the cafeteria of the high school and Paul Reid, director of the Detroit Metropolitan Regional Planning Commission will be the speaker.

PETRA TEMPLE

Public to View Filmed Prophecy

Three Showings Sunday at Mandon Lake Church —East Ruins in Color

MANDON LAKE — A fulfilled prophecy, "The Stones Cry Out," is a color motion picture which will be shown to the public three times at Mandon Lake Community Church, Sunday.

* * *

Hours for the presentation are 3, 5 and 7:30 p.m.

To make this picture, Dr. Irwin Moon, director of the Moody Institute of Science, with his camera headed for the Near East. He wanted to record on film what archaeologists have found out about the ancient cities whose ruin was predicted in the Bible.

Narrator for the historical study in color is Dr. William Culbertson, president of Moody Institute, who accompanied Dr. Moon on the trip.

The MIS camera pokes its curious lense into the ruins of some of the most fabulous cities of all time — Babylon, where King Belshazzer saw the handwriting on the wall, and site of the hanging gardens; the rose red city of Petra, whose magnificent temples were carved out of the cliffs and mountains of the Arabian desert; the once-thriving seaport and commercial center Tyre. The camera also takes a peek at Jerusalem, home of shrines of both the Christian and Moslem faiths.

The film points up the fact that as these cities became great, they forgot moral and spiritual values, and their power and wealth dried up.

U.S. Uses Nearly 200,000,000,000 Gallons Water

LINCOLN, Neb. (INS)—Agriculture Secretary Ezra Taft Benson pointed out today that the nation's daily water consumption is approaching 200 billion gallons and that the figure is expected to double in 25 years.

Benson expressed doubt that water impoundments could be built fast enough, even if suitable sites were available, and asserted "we must, therefore, use more effectively the best storage we know about — the earth itself."

Benson told the Third National Watershed Congress that "our soils and underground reservoirs constitute the greatest potential storage we have."

Manufacturer Turns Producer

Stage-Time Calls for Early Workers

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP—Executive who gathers all the strings together into a single skein for a Township Players performance is the producer, Mogens Klopp.

Klopp guides a group of technicians, business administrators and make-up artists, all on an amateur scale, in the back-stage preparations for such works as the club's third production, "Light Up the Sky," set for Nov. 2 and 3 at West Bloomfield High School.

A busy manufacturer in daytime hours, he also is in charge of recruiting new members. He'll take applications and give information, inviting those interested to the Players' next business meeting Sept. 27 at the West Bloomfield Town Hall at 8:30 p.m.

With upwards of 50 people working "to get the show on the road," the Players have, besides the actors, such "unsung heroes" as Franklyn Donegan, dramatic director, and Jo Anne Radliffe, his assistant, who are guiding the cast through their acting chores.

Neil McArthur, technical director heads up a crew of carpenters and painters for the play's set, and John Batts as stage manager is ready to make the whole effort hold together opening night.

Isabel McConnell and a large committee are tracking down, borrowing and renting costumes, or making them if necessary.

Phyllis Batts and her aides are collecting properties and set dressing.

* * *

Tickets are being sold by Dorothy McArthur, treasurer, and her workers, but she also serves as general understudy. Wilda May is press agent and Pat Unick is refreshment chairman.

"Work" they call it, but even the lowly chair arrangers seem to enjoy the social associations as well as the accomplishment of the play production.

Sparkman Maintains Dems Will Win Out

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Sparkman (D-La) said today the Democrats have "grabbed the initiative" in the presidential campaign and will carry it all the way.

* * *

He told a questioner he is aware of misgivings voiced privately by some in his party that the party's top campaigners may have set out at such a fast pace so far ahead of the election that they will be unable to sustain it.

As a cochairman of the Democratic Campaign Speakers' Bureau, Sparkman said he considers the timing "is just right." Actually, he added, the Democrats had little choice.

* * *

"We had to grab the initiative," he said. "We have grabbed the initiative, and we've got to keep it." He said it may be a "burden, but we can sustain it — I'm pleased with the way it is working out."

Strictly Business for Executive —Even in Auto

GLOVERSVILLE, N.Y. (AP) — What do people keep in automobile glove compartments? Not gloves. Not even in this glove-making center.

A reporter's survey of contents of glove compartments turned up: swimming trunks, a bottle of spray deodorant, suntan oil, paperback novels, a pair of pliers, playing cards, a bottle opener and screw-drivers, among other things.

A single pair of gloves turned up: in the car of James Carey Jr. He's executive secretary of — (what else?) — the National Assn. of Leather Glove Manufacturers.

Queen Asks to See Rock 'n' Roll Movie

BALMORAL, Scotland (AP)—Queen Elizabeth II has decided it's high time she found out what this rock 'n' roll craze sweeping Britain is all about.

From Balmoral Castle, where the monarch is vacationing, she sent out an urgent royal command to have the Bill Haley movie "Rock Around the Clock" flown up for a special showing.

The film has been banned in several British cities after teenage rock 'n' roll riots in some of the theaters showing it.

Rhonda Fleming Sued for Divorce by Doctor

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—Dr. Lewis Morrill has sued screen actress Rhonda Fleming, 33, for divorce because, he says, he is unwilling to rely on a Mexican decree she secured last May.

The physician, 40, charged cruelty in a complaint filed here. He cited no details.

Judy Garland Hoping to Repeat Smash at Palace

NEW YORK (INS)—Judy Garland, apparently in glowing health and spirits, has come back to New York for another stand at the Palace Theater, New York's famed vaudeville house.

* * *

"I'm feeling wonderful," Judy bubbled to reporters, "and looking forward to the Palace again."

It was at the Palace a few years ago that Miss Garland, after a series of misfortunes including a suicide attempt, made a comeback that had the critics raving and her fans beating at the doors.

The singing darling of Hollywood came to New York from Boston with her husband-manager, Sid Luft, following a week of rest at Nantucket. She said her 10-year-old daughter, Liza, will join them today and the three other children of the family will arrive "a little later."

* * *

Miss Garland recently finished a four-week engagement in Las Vegas where she reportedly was paid $55,000 a week. Her Palace engagement begins Sept. 26.

Ketchikan, Alaska, lies 500 miles closer to the Orient than any part of the continental United States, the National Geographic Society says.

Dani Crayne Isn't a Boy but Some Folks Think So

By JAMES BACON

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Take a good look at Dani Crayne and believe, if you dare, that this luscious young actress ever has trouble convincing some people she isn't a boy.

In a town built on problems, Dani has one of the most unique yet.

* * *

Her trouble: the sound of that first name. It's pronounced the same as the masculine Danny. She often gets bills and other mail addressed to: Mr. Danny Crayne, Warner Bros. Studio.

Even I once believed that Dani was an actor, not an actress. When she was under contract to Universal - International, a publicity man suggested an interview with Dani Crayne. Before he could describe her over the phone, I gave him a quick no and steered the conversation to Esther Williams, Jeanne Crain and others of that lovely ilk.

When I finally met Dani, I was ready to forfeit my card in the Girl Watchers Society of Hollywood.

She is about as much boy as Marilyn Monroe.

But her problem is a serious one, so serious that Warners wants to change her first name to Diana. She's reluctant.

"I think my only problem," she argues, "is to get enough people to see me. Then I could be called Irving and I don't think it would hurt."

* * *

She also argues that there has been quite a bit of exposure of the name, Dani Crayne. At U-I, she had good roles in several pictures, including the unreleased "Unguarded Moment," in which she plays the second female lead in Miss Williams' first dry land picture since she swam away from Metro.

Most of the nation's major insect pest of agricultural crops have entered the country through various trade channels.

From the Press Box

BY BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

As Ted Lewis would say — "Is everybody happy?" You'll get one guess as to the answer you can expect from the high school coaches in the area after last week's season openers.

Can't recall even talking to a happy coach at anytime Friday or Saturday, even with those that won.

But that must be the code of coaches, namely,—don't be too happy if you win today because it will be harder to find an excuse for tomorrow.

★ ★ ★

Anyway football is here and after last week's games here are a few observations of some of the area teams.

Most disappointing showing—goes to the Birmingham High School Maples who showed little of the hustle of past Birmingham teams.

Most surprising—has to be Southfield. The Jays were expected to be stronger but not to the extent of the power shown in their running attack.

★ ★ ★

Most confusing—should be Pontiac's win over Wyandotte, a team which romped over the Chiefs last year. Are the Chiefs that good or the Dots that bad?

Most deserving—a happy honor for coach Don Hoff at Bloomfield Hills, which for the past five years could count its victories on one hand. The Barons high-scoring win over Oak Park was stunning.

Most unfortunate—is the word for coach Ed Hintz and the Clarkston Wolves. Losing fullback Dave Swayne and halfback George Lang early in the Lake Orion game was a tough break, but knowing their loss is indefinite is worse.

★ ★ ★

Most hopeful—is Ted Sela at Lake Orion who could have a tough team to beat in the Oakland B race with continued improvement.

Most unpredictable—may be Walled Lake this year. The Vikings spanked a veteran-stocked Redford team with surprising ease.

Most unexpected—was West Bloomfield's 18-14 halftime lead over Waterford before bowing to the Skippers in the last half.

★ ★ ★

Most underrated—in its class, Dryden High School can make things tough for everyone. Coach Fred Bernat always seems to mold himself a tough defensive outfit, as shown from the nine shutouts in the past 15 games.

Most unhappy—is coach Ted Engdahl at Romeo. The Bulldogs are expected to have power, but it was missing in the 12-6 win over Richmond.

Most encouraging was the victory of Troy in coach Joe Bechard's debut. The Colts had not won a game since 1953 until the 26-20 win over Detroit Lutheran.

So as the optimists would say, Friday brings another game.

DITTOS FROM THE PRESS BOX

Several letters from fans, who seem to disfavor the idea of breaking Ruth's home run record, have come in dishing out the catcalls to the sportswriters who were pulling for Mickey Mantle to hit 60.

So he failed, why not at least a good word for the kid.

★ ★ ★

What gives with some of today's baseball fans. They boo Williams, they boo Mantle and they even boo Musial because he boots a ground ball.

Here are three players being ridiculed for being the game's greatest.

Brooks Roll as Braves' Pitching Slips

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Carl Furillo, tagged for a quick swap if a good pitcher had been available in June, is King Carl again in Brooklyn today, spearheading the Dodgers' September drive for the National League pennant.

* * *

Game after game it's been one of Brooklyn's old pros (and there's a flock of 'em) getting the job done. But more often than not, it's been Furillo swinging the bust-up bat in the close ones.

* * *

He was at it again last night, knocking in two runs with a two-out first inning single and then wrapped up the Dodgers' fourth straight victory with a 10th-inning home run that beat Cincinnati 5-4 and hoisted the Brooks into a one-game lead over Milwaukee. Cincinnati is four games behind the leaders.

* * *

Milwaukee's second-place Braves, their pitching crumbling a little more every game, split a twi-night pair with the New York Giants, winning 4-1 behind old reliable Warren Spahn after suffering their first defeat of the season in the Polo Grounds 7-2.

Those were the only games scheduled in the majors.

All of which leaves the Braves on the spot. A sweep of their nine remaining games is practically a must—yet even that will carry no guarantee.

While the Braves have lost nine of their last 15 games, the Dodgers have won eight of their last nine, starting their zoom to the top when Furillo lined a two-run, 11th-inning home run to beat New York Sept. 7. That same series saw Furillo overhaul a 1-0 Giant lead with a three-run homer in another game. And just last Friday he smacked a two-run double that broke a 1-1 tie with Chicago in the eighth inning.

Yet on June 1, when the Brooks were in fifth place, three games behind the front-running Braves, the Dodger brass considered Furillo expendable "if a good pitcher can be had in a trade."

* * *

Furillo's heroics last night were prompted by back-to-back home runs by Ed Bailey and Ray Jablonski with two out in the ninth inning that tied the score at 4-all. Bailey's 26th home run was a two-run poke, chasing relief ace Clem Labine, making his first start since July 24, 1955, after he had rolled along with a six-hitter, retiring 15 in a row before Wally Post singled ahead of Bailey's smack. Jabbo's shot, his 15th, was the first off reliefer Don Bessent in 53 1-3 innings since June 28.

Carl Erskine, reduced to bullpen status with Labine's promotion, won it in relief as Furillo tagged reliefer Brooks Lawrence with the defeat for a 19-10 record. Furillo's homer was his 20th, breaking the major league record set by the NL in 1953 by becoming the 21st player to hit 20 this season.

* * *

Duke Snider poled his 39th home run, breaking a tie for the league lead with Cincy rookie Frank Robinson, for a 3-1 edge against Hal Jeffcoat in the third inning.

Southpaw Johnny Antonelli gave the Braves a third straight defeat in the first game, allowing six hits and not walking a man while hitting a two-run homer himself. It wasn't necessary for his 17th victory. The Giants had scored three against starter Gene Conley in the second inning. Willie Mays added his 34th home run for New York, while Bobby Thomson, who gave the NL a record-tie with his 20th, and Johnny Logan homered for Milwaukee.

Spahn, winning his 18th of the season and 201st of his career, scattred nine hits and left 13 stranded in the nightcap.

The Braves go to Pittsburgh for two starting tonight while the Dodgers are at home against St. Louis.

Chisox Claim Former Tiger at Charleston

DETROIT (AP) — Dick Marlowe, righthanded pitcher with the Detroit Tigers in 1953 and '54 was claimed by the Chicago White Sox today from Detroit's Charleston, W. Va., farm club.

Marlowe, placed on option at Charleston, had a 1-5 record this season, mostly in relief roles. The 27-year-old hurler had been in the Detroit orgainization since 1948.

Commissioner Fights Back

Monaghan Blasts USTA

NEW YORK (AP)—State Harness Racing Commissioner George P. Monaghan says the U.S. Trotting Assn. is using a "high powered public relations firm" to fight its feud with him.

* * *

He said in a statement last night that the association is spending in the campaign "money they took out of the New York tracks." The association, he added, is waging a "desperate fight to retain control for the owners and breeders."

* * *

Monaghan advised association members to "restrict their activities to the county fairs" if they don't like the way he is administering harness racing in New York.

DELIVERS FOR DODGERS — Everything's O. K. with Carl Furillo after delivering the K. O. punch for the Dodgers last night. Furillo, Brooklyn's chips-down old pro, banged his 20th home run leading off the tenth inning to give the league-leading Dodgers a 5-4 victory over third place Cincinnati at Ebbets Field. Carl also knocked in two runs with a two-out single in the first inning.

Plays Football, Works 8 Hours, Naps Weekends

BOSTON (AP)— Few players love the game of football as much as sophomore guard Bob Lanzetta of Northeastern University.

On the practice field the 185-pound, 23-year-old service veteran looks like all the other candidates.

But for Bob, it is an almost sleepless vigil.

The reason: He works from midnight to 8 a.m. at the Veterans Administration Hospital in Brockton as an aide in the psychiatric division.

Toss in class time from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., football practice sessions and study time and you've run out of hours.

Lanzetta doesn't worry about it, he is too busy fighting for a job. Bob was starting guard for the freshmen last year and he is one of the leading varsity candidates this time around.

Chiefs Get Little Rest, Prep for Home Opener

By H. GUY MOATS

Little rest will be accorded Pontiac High's football Chiefs this week, with Lansing Sexton's Big Reds looming up for the home season opening on Friday evening.

Luckily the Pontiac squad came through last Friday's 1956 lid-tilter at Wyandotte without other than the usual bumps, none serious. The entire squad was out at work on the practice field Monday afternoon.

Coaches were pleased to learn Monday morning that No. 1 signal-caller Dick Whitmer had returned to school, a little peaked, but ready to get back in shape after a bout with asthma. He was forced to miss his 1st varsity game because of the illness, but hoped to be ready for the Sexton game.

Whitmer's illness gave Jim Shorter a chance for some valuable experience at the quarterback job, where he'll now be ready to back up the husky No. 1 field general.

Coaches and players scanned motion pictures of the Wyandotte game, Monday, prior to the start of a hard workout. Graybiel, and his aides, pointed out the many mistakes made in the opener, praised the "four" rates on blocking and tackling, but insisted that a lot of improvement was necessary to hope for a good season. The game films, Graybiel believes, are a very valuable "textbook."

Sexton will be tough, Chief mentors agree, despite—or perhaps because of the 34-6 defeat handed the Big Reds by Muskegon High in the opener last weekend.

Sexton coach Carl (Buck) Nystrom, ex-MSU star, was so dissatisfied with the play of his club that he has effected a big shakeup in his team for Friday's game in Wisner Stadium.

Briefly here are the changes:

Letterman Bob Anderson, starting end is now a tackle; end Ed Fox is now the left tackle; Doug Pollard, another letterman has been moved from tackle to the left end, opposite 6-foot-6-inch, 200 pound Johnny Rowan.

Big Reds' backs remain intact, with Ted Petrie at quarterback, Bill Hall at left half, Chuck Ginther at fullback and Fred Johnson, rated the top running back, at right half.

Mostly a senior outfit (all seven returning lettermen are seniors) Reds are not as big overall, as the Chiefs. They average 165 pounds, Nystron says. Biggest man is Rowan at 200 pounds.

Over the years of the long and hard-fought rivalry Pontiac has won four, lost two and tied two.

Friday's contest here will be the 9th of the series that began with the 25-0 win for Sexton at Lansing, in 1946.

Denies Bucky Being Given Executive Post at Boston

BOSTON (AP)—Despite denials by General Manager Joe Cronin, rumors persisted among local newspapermen today that Detroit pilot Bucky Harris will be a member of the Boston Red Sox executive family next season.

* * *

The Post, Globe and Record pointed out that Harris is not expected to be with the Tigers in 1957.

* * *

The Post quoted Harris as saying of a Detroit news story he would be with the Sox next season:

"I'm highly complimented that the local writer would even consider me for an executive job with the Boston Red Sox. I'm very unhappy, though, that Joe Cronin is in the middle of the whole thing."

* * *

Cronin said he hadn't contacted Harris about a job.

* * *

The question arose if Cronin had left the door open when he commented:

"That writer out there has been around a long time and must have some inkling on which to base a story like that."

Local speculation was that it might refer to the known friendship between Red Sox club owner Tom Yawkey and the 60-year-old Harris.

Taggart Leaves Hospital Today

DETROIT (AP) — Joe Taggart, critically injured Aug. 29 when Slo-Mo-Shun IV cracked up before the gold cup speedboat race, was to be taken in an ambulance today to his home in Canton, Ohio.

The 47-year-old Taggart, a top speedboat pilot for a quarter of a century, admits it is doubtful he will ever race again.

"They tell me I'm through and I guess they're right," he said today from his hospital bed. His left leg and left arm are still in casts and his chest is tightly taped because of several fractured ribs.

Slo-Mo-Shun IV was owned by Stan Sayres, who died of a heart attack Monday at Seattle.

Tourney and Dinner Close Golf Season

Members of the Clarkston Golf club's women's league wound up their season's activities during the weekend with a Scotch forusome best-ball tourney. A dinner was also enjoyed at which awards were made for the summer's competition.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Frechette won the foursome with 51. Mrs. Fred Hancock received the trophy for low net 59 for season.

Club title rounds will be played Sept. 29-30, with two nine-hole matches each day. Oct. 7, has been named "golf day" when a number of contests will be held to mark the season's end.

Gagnier Stops Wibel for First Club Title

When Fred Gagnier defeated Dick Wibel for the club title at Bloomfield Hills CC over the weekend, he broke up a four-year tenure in that spot for the defending champion. Count was 4 and 3. This was Gagnier's 1st time as a title contender.

Gagnier threw a 72-74 at Wibel to take the honors in the 36-hole finale. He was 3-up at the halfway mark, went 4-up early in the final round and held this edge to the 33rd, where the match was closed out.

Championships in Class A and B were also determined, with Fred Colombo defeating Mike Freydl 2-up and R. C. Dakin defeating L. H. Cole 2 and 1, respectively.

Toronto Meets Rochester in Governor's Cup Series

TORONTO (AP)—The Toronto Maple Leafs have four International League All-Stars going against Rochester in the first game of the Governors' Cup series tonight and will be looking to them to avenge the Red Wings' playoff victory last year.

The Leafs met Rochester in the 1955 finals and lost the best-of-seven series in four straight games.

Wilson Leads Panther Attack

Lapeer First Guest of Skipper Lights

By BILL CORNWELL

The Waterford Skippers will spread out the welcome mat Friday night with the fond hope that the Lapeer football team doesn't trample it into the ground.

* * *

Jack Fitzpatrick's upstate aggregation, paced by sensational Tom Wilson, invade Skipperland this Friday to inaugurate Waterford's new floodlights.

* * *

Before the evening is finished, the Skippers may wish they had picked someone else for the initiation.

The Panthers boast one of the state's greatest halfbacks in Wilson, who scored two touchdowns in their 26-6 victory over Caro last Friday. Wilson gained 145 yards in 10 attempts during the Caro encounter.

The 180-pound Wilson is not particularly fast, but he is extremely shifty. "Tacklers just seem to slide off from him," said Fitzpatrick in commenting about his star runner.

"They're all around him at times, yet he fakes and shakes them off, leaving them on the ground," Fitzpatrick said. Wilson is now serving his 4th year as a varsity halfback.

Lapeer's scoring punch does not stop with Wilson. Halfback Dick deBeaubian, a 160-pound speed merchant, averaged better than four yards per try in eight carries against Caro in addition to chalking up one touchdown.

The Panthers also have an excellent field general in quarterback Mike Carter, a deceptive ball handler, and Dale Coller, 160-pound center and defensive linebacker, who is the sparkplug of the forward wall. Another bulwark on defense is Andy Lichy, a 230-pound Filipino student.

Lapeer is not a heavy squad, but it is speedy and aggressive. Waterford scouts report that the Panthers have a powerful ground attack.

Dave Freeman's Skippers, who scored a 35-18 decision over West Bloomfield in their season opener, are positive about one thing: Lapeer will test their mettle to the limit.

CHASING THE HOME RUN RECORDS
Cincinnati Redlegs—207 major league team record is 221 set by New York Giants in 1947.
New York Yankees—181 AL team record is 182 set by Yankees in 1936.
National League—1,140 record is 1,283 set in 1950.
American League—1,002 breaks record of 973 set in 1950.

ON THE PROWL—Tom Wilson, member of the Lapeer Panthers, will be on the prowl here Friday night at Waterford High School field. Lapeer will help Waterford inaugurate its new floodlights, with Wilson, san All-Slater, leading the attack.

Davisburg Test on Sept. 22

Sixth annual Davisburg Golf course best-ball invitational tournament, Saturday Sept. 22 promises to be one of the most hotly contested in the series.

George Ferguson, operator of the layout, said today that current entries include many of the area's topnotch shotmakers, including the holder of the new Davisburg course record. Paul Bada, who led the GMC Truck team to victory last Saturday with a terrific 63 (33-30) card has filed, but had not named his partner.

Other top contenders include the co-holder of the course nine-hole mark of 30, Harry Belanger of Flint and his partner Ray Cook; Fred Turner, former state amateur champion and partner; former Michigan Publinx king Fred Selzer of Flint Northern's coaching staff and partner, and other strong outside-the-area talent.

Besides Bada, the area will have State Publinx champion Mike Andonian and former city medal titlist Eddie Wasik; the veteran competitor Stan Savage and Skeeter Laidlaw; Hilton Stults and Elias Hartz, and Bud Carleton and Jim Bradford.

Post entries will be accepted. Play will start at 8 a.m.

Smith Draws Flippin Today in 2nd Round of Amateur Tourney

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Margaret (Wiffie) Smith, freckled muscle girl of international amateur golf, drew her Curtis Cup team captain, Mrs. Harrison F. Flippin of Ardmore, Pa., in today's second round of the 56th USGA Women's Amateur.

Anne Quast of Everett, Wash., Western champion and Curtis Cup alternate, turned in the best card of the first round in a 6 and 5 victory over Cynthia Sullivan of Harrisburg, Pa.

Jane Nelson of Indianapolis, another Curtis Cupper and runnerup to Pat Lesser of Seattle in last year's tourney, avenged her 1953 defeat in the Women's Western final. The wisecracking Jane got even with Mrs. Robert J. Stancik of Cleveland, the former Claire Doran, by shooting the day's only par 36 on the front nine and winning, 2 and 1.

Marlene Stewart, current Canadian and U. S. collegiate title holder and former British champion, dusted off Phebe Brewster of New Haven, Conn., 8 and 6.

Miss Lesser, who won both the USGA and Western amateurs last year, advanced over Sally Carroll of Wheeling, W. Va., 6 and 5, and plays young Judi Keeslin of Indianapolis today.

Champs Open Series With Shutout Victory

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — The defending champs of the Amateur Softball Assn., the Raybestos Cardinals of Stratford, Conn., have taken a 6-0 opening victory in the 1956 Softball World Series.

The Cardinals took the measure of the Anderson Furniture squad of San Diego last night, with pitcher John Spring throwing a three-hitter and striking out eight for the winners. He also knocked a home run.

PHS Has Edge in 'Red' Series

Deer Hunting Rules Set Up

State to Issue 1,500 Permits for Allegan Special Season

LANSING (AP) — State Conservation Department today announced regulations for the special deer hunting season Dec. 1-9 in Allegan County.

The Department said 1,500 permits will be issued and regulations will remain unchanged from last year.

Top priority for permits will again go to landowners. Application deadline for landowners is Oct. 1. The general public must apply by Oct. 10.

Hunters will be allowed to take one deer of any age and either sex. Only bow and arrows, shotguns or .22 caliber rimfire rifles may be used.

Permits will be valid only if stamped and signed at the Swan Creek Wildlife Experiment station headquarters. The station will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. Nov. 30 through Dec. 9.

Deer killed in the special hunt must be checked in at the station.

Allegan County's special season was initiated in 1941 to reduce deer damage to farm crops.

EX-SKIPPER A BOILERMAKER—John Fear, former Waterford High School gridder, who started out as fullback has been shifted to the guard post at Purdue this year to add depth to the Boilermakers' graduation-riddled line. He is a junior at Purdue.

Feller, Rosen Reach End of Road

CLEVELAND (AP)—General Manager Hank Greenberg has counted third baseman Al Rosen and pitcher Bob Feller out of the Cleveland Indians' plans for next season.

* * *

At a luncheon speech yesterday Greenberg said that he would offer Feller a non-playing job with the Tribe before this season ends. Rosen, Hank declared, might "be better off playing somewhere else" because he has "completely lost his confidence."

"Confidence is an important factor, and I'm afraid Rosen has reached the point where he can't play here anymore," Greenberg said.

* * *

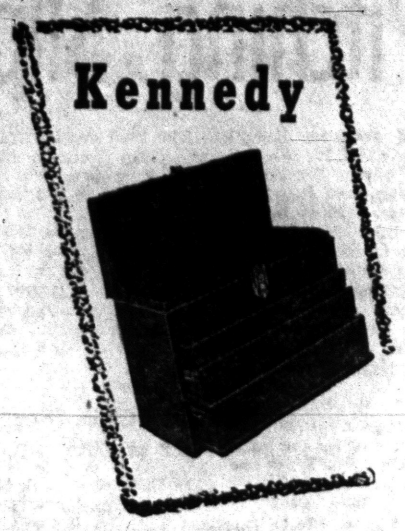

Rosen, who will be 32 next March and is in his eighth season with Cleveland, is batting only .269 this season, has hit 14 home runs and has driven in 55 runs. That compared with his 1953 peak of a .336 average, 43 homers and 145 RBI—a performance that earned him unanimous selection as the league's Most Valuable Player.

* * *

Feller, nearing 38, made his first start in more than four months Saturday and pitched his only complete game this season, losing a seven-hitter to Boston 5-3. He has two other losses to show for 40 additional innings of work, including one start in April and another in May.

Last night Rosen indicated he might retire from baseball.

Daugherty Says One Tackle, Fullback Still to Be Filled

EAST LANSING (AP)—"Fullback and left tackle are the only two positions where I haven't pretty well made up my mind on the probable starters," Michigan State football boss Duffy Daugherty reported today.

Daugherty, of course, was excluding the question mark situation at halfback created by the injury to right half Walt Kowalczyk.

The left half, Clarence Peaks, is being groomed to help carry the load at right half if Kowalczyk isn't in top shape for the Stanford opener a week from Saturday.

Jim Wulff would team with Peaks at right half and Dennis Mendyk would run from the left side of the backfield.

In the line, Joe Carruthers and Noel Jones are neck-and-neck in the race for starting assignment at left tackle. Carruthers, 190-pound, 6-1 junior from Detroit, has more playing time at the position. Jones, 220-pounds, 6-2, and also a junior, was converted from end where he was bruisingly effective on defense. He has been moving up fast in the new position.

Don Arend, 200-pound, 6-1 sophomore from Benton Harbor, has been front runner at fullback.

Arend jumped ahead when Don Gilbert, 190-pound, 5-8 junior, was slowed down by a leg injury. But it looks now to be more of a contest since Gilbert is back in shape and in competition again.

Pat Wilson is still 1st choice at quarterback to round out the starting backfield.

Ford Seeks to Wrap Up Flag

Yanks Hope to Clinch Pennant Tonight

CHICAGO (AP) — The New York Yankees, with one eye on the National League pennant race, hope to clinch their eighth flag in 10 years tonight when they meet the second-place Chicago White Sox.

* * *

Manager Casey Stengel will shoot ace lefthander Whitey Ford (18-5) against Chicago with the Sox coming on with their top flinger, southpaw Billy Pierce (20-7). Ford has beaten the sox five times in six games this season. Pierce has a 2-1 record against the Yanks.

Actually, the Yankees aren't worried about clinching the pennant. They'll do it one way or the other even if the White Sox forestal the act tonight. They lead the Sox by 11 games.

The White Sox are shooting for their highest finish in the American League since 1919, second place. They believe they can't miss since they play nothing but second division foes after tonight's game.

New York needs to win only one of its remaining 10 games to clinch the pennant. Actually, the Yanks should be pulling for Milwaukee to cop the National League flag since that would insure a larger World Series cut than if the Brooklyn Dodgers or Cincinnati Redlegs won.

However, in a short series, the Braves could be rougher on New York than either of the other senior circuit contenders since Milwaukee has deeper pitching depth.

On the other hand, the Yankees may want Brooklyn to win the flag so they can have a chance to avenge last year's World Series defeat.

Wayne Opens Season With Veteran Backs

DETROIT (AP) — Coach Herb Smith says he has three sets of capable backs this season for Wayne's debut as a state university football team.

The starting backfield of last year will be back, Smith says, for the opening game against Case Tech at Cleveland, Oct. 6.

That includes his senior quarterback Hal Willard of Cass City, senior halfback Jack Coggins of Flint and a pair of juniors, halfbacks Hank Lukowski of East Chicago, Ind., and fullback Terry Fagan of Windber, Pa.

BLUE SUNOCO AVERAGES 7.67 MORE MILES PER DOLLAR THAN 12 OTHER PREMIUMS

They never got home with any of the other premiums!

These tests were conducted by the American Automobile Association in 6 cities under normal city-country driving conditions—using typical drivers in late model high-compression cars whose manufacturers recommend a premium gasoline.

POINT 1 ON MAP Cars were fueled with $3 worth of Blue Sunoco. Motorists, accompanied by AAA officials, drove out of town till...

POINT 2 ON MAP...they ran out of gas. Cars were then refueled with $3 worth of another premium. They turned around and retraced exactly the same route.

POINT 3 ON MAP Using competitive premiums, test cars fell short of the starting point an average of 23.0 miles. Not one car made it back! AAA proved that Blue Sunoco averages 7.67 more miles per dollar than 12 other permiums.

Results of test confirm, once again, the fact that Blue Sunoco is America's greatest gasoline value.

It's the gasoline that meets today's higher premium octane standards and sells at regular gas price.

Perry Topples Davies in Tennis Tournament; Meets Seixas Today

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The prize upset of the Pacific Southwest tennis tournament has been turned in by a UCLA boy, Norman Perry, who toppled England's Michael Davies yesterday, 10-12, 6-4, 6-4.

Perry, who extended Vic Seixas recently at Forest Hills before losing in five sets, draws Seixas again today in the center court at the Los Angeles Tennis Club. The Bruin star turned his left ankle in the final set and fell heavily. He rested for two minutes, then returned and won three straight points to close out the match against Davies.

Two other UCLA players, Larry Huebner and Glenn Bassett, polished off two French players.

Fans Boo Decision

MONROE, La. (AP) — Clarence Cook, Monroe, La., won a decision over Del Flanagan of St. Paul, Minn., last night in a 10-round boxing match.

Cook fought at 154 pounds, Flanagan 155.

The decision brought loud boos from spectators as each card was announced.

BEFORE SETTING RECORD—Norman Buckley, a 48-year-old Briton, pilots his craft, Miss Windermere III on Lake Windermere, Westmorland, during test run on Saturday. Yesterday Buckley covered 79 miles in one hour on Lake Windermere to set a new world record for unlimited class motor boats — a record-breaking attempt that nearly ended in tragedy. Buckley said a pleasure launch passed him on the lake and if he had not throttled down just before striking the wash "anything might have happened."

Can't Go Anywhere but Up

Wildcats Hope for Revival in Big 10

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP) — Miami of Ohio which gave Ohio State a winning coach in Woody Hayes now has another Big Ten mentoring delegate, Ara Parseghian, trying his football luck at hapless Northwestern.

The 33-year-old Parseghian, who succeeded Hayes at Miami in 1951 and guided the Redskins to a five-year 39-6-1 record, has one thing in his favor in his new post.

The Wildcats can't go any place but up.

After the school's first winless season (0-8-1) last year capped a string of four losing campaigns in which the Wildcats won only 9 of 36 games, there were suggestions Northwestern quit the Big Ten.

But the Wildcat administration, proud of a fighting history in the conference, instead hired Purdue football coach, Stu Holcomb, as Athletic Director with free hand to revitalize the grid setup.

Holcomb, who also had a coaching stint at Miami, wasted little time acquiring Parseghian, whose 1955 Redskins beat Northwestern 25-14. He replaced Lou Saban, who served one year in the wake of Bob Voigts, Wildcat boss, eight previous seasons.

Northwestern's perennial problem has been lack of depth. It's no different this year, pending development of the go-out-and-get-them "rushing" policy pledged by Holcomb and Parseghian.

Only five starters return from last year, including center-Capt. Ted Ringer; tackle John Smith, the squad's biggest man at 245; guards Al Viola and John Lohbauer; and quarterback Dale Pienta.

But with Pienta backed by another seasoned quarterback, Jack Ellis, and swift Bob McKiever, 1953 letterman halfback, returning after a military hitch, Parseghian feels he may have the nucleus for at least a good first team.

Maas, 7 Other Players Are Recalled by Bengals

DETROIT (AP)—Detroit Tigers today announced the recall of eight more players from their farm system.

Several of the players have been with the parent club previously. All will report next season.

Among those recalled are two Michigan pitchers, Utica's Duke Maas and Jim Stump of Lansing. The 25-year-old Maas compiled a 6-3 mark at Charleston in the American Association after being farmed out in mid-season. His earned run average was a sparkling 2.39.

Stump spent most of the year at Augusta, where he won eight and lost six. A righthander, Stump is 24.

* * *

Pitcher Joe Presko and infielder Harry Malmberg also were called up from the Charleston Club. Presko, former St. Louis Cardinal hurler, had a 9-7 mark at Charleston.

Don Lee, one of the country's finest collegiate hurlers while at Arizona, was recalled from Augusta where he won seven and dropped three.

Another college star, 1st baseman Kent Hadley, has been recalled from Syracuse. He batted .286 in 29 games and hit six doubles and six home runs in that short span.

Other players recalled are pitcher Pete Wojey and outfielder Emil Karlik. Wojey comes up from Toronto after spending the early part of the season with the Tigers. Karlik finished the season with Durham and had a .295 average.

British Boxer Gets Decision

NEW YORK (AP)—A $5,600 gamble has paid off today for British Empire middleweight champion Pat McAteer and Manager Johnny Campbell.

The handsome, 24-year-old invader scored an impressive and popular unanimous decision over rugged Jerry Luedee in his American debut last night and had assurances of plenty of work when he makes a second trip to the United States. He won the plaudits of the fans by getting off the deck in the second round to come on and wallop the New Haven six-footer.

Celtics Acquire McKeen

BOSTON (AP)—The Boston Celtics today acquired additional height for the coming National Basketball Assn. season in the person of 6-7 Bob McKeen, former California center.

The Celtics swapped their No. 4 draft choice, Bill Logan of Iowa, to Minneapolis for McKeen.

Wins Baseball Crown

BATTLE CREEK (AP) — A sandlot team from Tacoma, Wash., is the world champion of the American Amateur Baseball Congress today.

Led by the steady seven-hit pitching of big Dale Bloom yesterday, the Tacoma team turned five of seven walks into runs and beat East Chicago, Ind., 10-0.

But a battle last night in which Battle Creek defeated defending champion Houston, Tex., 11-7, threw the world series into a three-way tie for runner-up.

THE BIGGEST MEN'S CLOTHING NEWS TO HIT PONTIAC IN YEARS AND YEARS AND YEARS COMES FROM HARWOOD

"ONE MAN WILL TELL ANOTHER!"
HERE'S THE STORY:
For many years, I (and my predecessor) have been creating the finest Custom-Tailored garments for a discriminating clientele. I am continuing to do so on an ever increasing scale.
HOWEVER, I have been very much concerned—yes alarmed— about the local Ready-Made situation. So much so, in fact, that I determined to do something about it.
Here is what I've done: I am stocking a large assortment of Ready-Made suits.. These are NOT ordinary suits.. I am using only the finest materials —Domestic and Imported. The Domestic materials are some of the finest this country produces and these suits are priced at $54.50. The Imported are some of the world's finest materials and are priced at $55.00. (For example, you'll drool over the silky-fine sharkskins in this group!)
I firmly believe that these materials can be found elsewhere only in suits selling up to $115.00.
I invite your inspection of these impeccably styled and finely made suits. I want YOU to make comparisons with any suits in any other store. I guarantee that you will recognize the unprecedented values offered.
REMEMBER: Only Harwood could do it — and HARWOOD HAS DONE IT!
A Statement of Policy:
Retailers of integrity for years have decried the use of false, misleading, and downright dishonest comparative prices. In Pontiac, this practice has gotten so out-of-hand as to be ridiculous.. Harwood will not be dragged into this maelstrom of questionable business ethics. All I say is: You make your own comparisons!

Borneo's Brunei Booming Behind Black Blessings

BY LLOYD MORGAN

SINGAPORE (INS) — The once near derelict state of Brunei, in wild north West Borneo, has suddenly struck it rich.

* * *

So rich that its sultan ruler, the 41-year-old Sir Omar Ali Saiffuddin, has an income reputed to be approaching that of the fabulous Sheik who owns oil-soaked Kuwait, at the tip of the Persian Gulf.

The golden age of Brunei loomed twelve years ago when oil was located in the Seria district. The field is now in full flood with nearly 40 million barrels a year being produced.

The oilfields extend offshore into the South China Sea, and numerous wells have been drilled from jetties stretching out to sea. Part of the oil produced is refined at Lutong, where a large refinery, destroyed during the war, has been rebuilt.

Oil is being pumped out in increasing volume. Brunei has shifted out of the past, when its chief industries were rubber, firewood, and trading by junk, into a glittering and booming future.

FACE-LIFT OPERATION

The old town of Brunei—its dwellings built of palm trees on a framework of jungle poles in a crook of the Brunei River—is undergoing a multi-million dollar face lift.

Thousands of Malays and tattooed Dyaks, descendants of head-hunters, now operate crawler tractors, excavators, thudding pile drivers and stuttering power drills.

New traffic lanes are being laid in the tropical garden city and dust roads are being asphalted and cemented. Money from the rich Seria oilfield, spouting millions of gallons annually, flows everywhere.

Wages are high, and the natives, who used to build canoes, make cloth, and manufacture brass and silverware in the steamy and smelly jungle clearings, are using the sudden influx of riches to improve living conditions.

Important public utility, education and health schemes are among the projects being carried out. New schools are being built to reduce the high illiteracy rate. There's a welfare scheme for the sick and the aged. Housing estates, a magnificent mosque, movie theaters, paved promenades, and parks are springing up under a five-year master development plan.

One oilman explained that Brunei was "possibly the last remaining British 'colony' which has no inclination to run its own shop."

Stock Market Drops a Little

NEW YORK (AP) — The Stock Market was lower in early trading today.

Losses were mostly narrow, although a few issues were off between 1 and 2 points a share. A handful of specialties, bolstered by corporate news, made gains of a point or more.

* * *

The lower trend was in evidence from the start and some issues were extending their losses as the session progressed.

Trading turned quiet after the initial flurry of overnight orders had ended.

* * *

Investors appeared to be pursuing much the same wait-and-see attitude as they did in yesterday's market, when the Associated Press average dipped 50 cents to $181.60.

Owens-Illinois dropped around 2 after it was announced that the firm's merger with National Container Corp. had been approved by shareholders of both companies.

Chain Belt advanced about 2 on dividend news, and Gimbels rose fractions on higher earnings.

Douglas Aircraft slipped about 2 points.

Also lower were U. S. Steel, Chrysler, U. S. Rubber, American Smelting, Air Reduction, General Electric, Gulf Oil and United Air Lines.

On the American Stock Exchange, Creole Petroleum opened up 2¼. New Jersey Zinc, Imperial Oil of Canada and Eastern Gas & Fuel were off a shade. Louisiana Land and International Petroleum rose fractions.

Sues for $75,000 for False Arrest

DETROIT (AP)— A Detroit man says he was falsely imprisoned and has filed a $75,000 suit in Federal Court against the city of Detroit and seven of its policemen.

The suit, filed by Frank Granieri, 38, said he was arrested on a charge of "molesting women" and was kept in jail from April 1 to 5, 1955.

The suit said Granieri was arrested because he answered the teletype description of the reported murderer of Barbara Gaca, 7. The killer never has been found.

Same Old Story: Little Action Expected

Legislators Again Going Back to Punch Political Bag on Unemployment Benefits

LANSING (AP)—Michigan legislators return to the Capitol Wednesday to box a fifth round on the unemployment compensation issue.

On four previous occasions starting June 18, the lawmakers refused to accept Gov. Williams proposals for meeting the wave of joblessness, and came up with no alternatives.

It appears unlikely this week's outcome will be any different, although action on a couple of fringe questions concerning unemployment appears possible.

For one, a Republican bill to extend unemployment compensation to 28,000 state employes is ready for final passage by the Senate.

CHANGES UP FOR VOTE

The bill originates in the Senate but was substantially changed in the House, which among other things took out state workers hired on a seasonal basis. The House changes now are before the Senate.

Also, House Republicans are prepared to file a bill to strengthen vocational re-training provisions of the Unemployment Compensation Law. Rep. George Van Peursem (R-Zeeland), House Labor Committee chairman, said he hopes it might receive quick approval.

Williams forces are reported working on a bill covering the same area.

* * *

Neither plan would affect more than a small fraction of the 258,000 persons out of work as of Aug. 15.

* * *

Another issue Williams says he will serve up this week is a proposal for letting 18-year-olds vote. The idea never has attracted much legislative support from majority Republicans.

Still another possibility is legislation stemming from a recent State Supreme Court decision tagged by a dissenting justice as the "36-Cents-Tax-Case."

BALK AT TAX

A Kent County man and his wife lost their house for refusing to pay a 36-cent property tax penalty.

A group of Detroit legislators promised to sponsor an appropriation bill to buy back the house for the couple, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Farr.

Williams, expressing regret at what happened to the Farrs, has talked of seeking a general legislative cure for such problems rather than supporting a direct appropriation.

His unemployment compensation proposal, the special session's chief bone of contention, calls for substantially increasing size of benefits and extending the duration of the benefit period.

Two other questions were submitted in the initial call, one involving highway bonding and the other a dispute on a new medium security prison project at Ionia.

The highway bonding problem was quickly solved. The controversy over use of prison labor on the project subsided without legislative action.

Brink's Robber Tells His Tale

O'Keefe Reveals Death Pact by Gang to Protect Members in Theft

BOSTON (AP)—Joseph J. (Specs) O'Keefe, admittedly one of the robbers of the $1,219,000 Brink's money, testified that a jeopardizing misstep by any member of the gang was punishable by death.

* * *

He told a Superior Court jury yesterday that the alleged robbers agreed at a meeting that there was to be no display of wealth —that no one was to buy a house and no one was to buy a Cadillac and said it was agreed that anyone who jeopardized the others should be killed.

He said it was Henry Baker, 50, who brought up the death pact at a meeting a few days before the Jan. 17, 1950, robbery.

O'Keefe said the last time all 11 men gathered together before the robbery was "a couple of days before Christmas" in 1949.

He named those present as including the eight defendants: Anthony Pino, 49; Henry Baker, 50; Joseph J. McGinnis, 53; Vincent J. Costa, 42; Adolph Maffie, 45; Michael V. Geagan, 47; James I. Faherty, 45, and Thomas F. Richardson, 49.

He said he was present, as well as Joseph Banfield, 45, and Stanley Gusiciora, 36, The latter two have died. O'Keefe has pleaded guilty and turned state's evidence.

At that meeting, O'Keefe said, the men tried on the Halloween masks they would wear during the robbery and they fingered the revolvers they would carry.

It was agreed, the witness continued, that the money taken from Brink's would be dropped at Maffie's home, and that McGinnis would dispose of all the equipment used.

O'Keefe said it was agreed he would lead the way, carrying five keys a locksmith made in advance.

Crash-Proof Car Now Being Made for Final Tests

NEW YORK (AP) — Designs were shown today for a "crash-proof" car that would permit its occupants to walk away after a head-on collision at 50 miles per hour.

* * *

A prototype of the safety car is now under construction.

The project was announced by F. J. Crandell, vice president of the Liberty Mutual Insurance Co., and E. R. Dye, head of the safety design research department of the Cornell Aeronautical Laboratory.

* * *

The driver sits in the center of the car and steers with a two handled lever.

Chest pads, safety belts and bucket seats are provided for driver and passengers. One seat directly behind the driver faces to the rear.

* * *

Doors will not spring open in a crash, and there are sheet metal stiffeners in the roof.

The announcement said the "crash-proof" car now being made will not be a prototype for mass production.

Tunesmiths Hit Music Controls

Broadcast Companies Accused of Selecting Songs to Be Popular

NEW YORK (AP)—Tin Pan Alley tunesmiths accuse the broadcasting industry of deciding what songs are to become hits. They also say the industry has poor taste in music.

* * *

The charges that the TV-radio networks control the tunes heard by the public were made in testimony before the House Judiciary Antitrust subcommittee yesterday.

The complaining songwriters represented the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers. They said the networks exercise life and death power over songs through control of Broadcast Music, Inc.

* * *

ASCAP and BMI are rival music groups that hold performing rights to popular and concert music. Each group charged the other with trying to monopolize the music business.

Stanley Adams, ASCAP member, told the committee that ASCAP composers had lost 75 million dollars because broadcasters discriminated against them in favor of BMI songs.

* * *

Carl Haverlin, BMI president, said that in 1955 ASCAP received 18 million dollars from the networks for song-performing rights. He said that was about three times the amount paid BMI.

"ASCAP, not being satisfied with this domination, wants to do away with BMI," Haverlin said.

Coast Kidnap Evidence Found

Papers of Matron Victim Located in Mexico Home Verify Story

SAN DIEGO (AP) — Police said today they had found new evidence bearing out Mrs. George Latham's story that two women kidnaped her last week, stripped her, beat her and left her for dead beneath a pile of stones on the desert.

* * *

Mrs. Victoria Beatrice Winn, 57, and Mrs. Lucille Whisenand, 36, pleaded innocent yesterday when they were arraigned on charges of kidnaping, attempt to commit murder, robbery and burglary.

The maximum penalty under California's kidnaping law is death in the gas chamber.

* * *

Chief of Police A. E. Jansen said investigators found five corporate seals, several checks and specimens of Mrs. Latham's handwriting beneath a mattress in a house at Tijuana, Mexico, occupied by a cousin of Mrs. Whisenand.

The chief said the cousin reported Mrs. Whisenand left the articles there last Thursday.

Mrs. Latham had related the corporate seals were taken from her by her kidnapers. She said they forced her to sign several checks.

* * *

Mrs. Latham is associated in several businesses with her husband, an investment broker. She is 51.

Mrs. Winn, wife of a district manager of a utility company, formerly ran a building materials firm for the Lathams and was engaged in a court battle with them over its ownership.

Mrs. Whisenand, a divorcee, worked as a clerk for the U.S. Customs Service. Jansen said she had a good employment record but his investigators learned she is in debt and faced eviction from her home.

Mrs. Latham disappeared last Wednesday from her home, where she was alone with a 4-year-old granddaughter.

A motorist found her crouching beside U.S. 80 about 80 miles east of San Diego Friday morning.

She said she escaped from the shallow, rock-piled grave and struggled five miles across the desert Thursday under a beating sun.

* * *

Her two sons, both doctors, reported she would be hospitalized at least another week with severe sunburn over most of her body, two broken ribs, cuts, bruises and two black eyes.

Troy Readies Snow System

Predict Side-Road Work This Winter Better Than Last Year's

TROY—Other than county roads within the city limits may have much better snow removal this winter if city commissioners expend about $40,000 in the next few weeks.

Some roads went unplowed completely last year, because the city depended on county road equipment for service, having none of its own. Highways came first, and side streets often suffered, the city clerk, Lawson Lockhart, recalls.

This year the city plans to purchase five vehicles, including road trucks and a snow plow, which will be used to plow city streets. The county will continue to do county highways.

Equipment for ditch-cleaning, badly needed in the city, will also be purchased.

Bids are being taken Monday on the equipment. Previous bids had been turned back because of faulty specifications, Lockhart says.

Vehicles sought are a grade-all, a rubber-tired front-end loader, two trucks, and a mobile crane, the latter with a boom and bucket. The plow attachment is also included in the bids expected.

With commission not meeting this week, City Manager O. G. Holway is attending the city manager's international convention at Banff, Alberta, with Mrs. Holway.

Architect's plans for the city's proposed third fire hall will probably be ready for next week's meeting.

Charges were dismissed against a seventh person arrested by Oakland County deputies in the Sunday morning raid on an establishment known as the Syl Farm. It is located at 4715 Joslyn Rd., Orion Township.

Sylvester Vinegar, 41, and his wife, Otelia, 35, who lived at the raided business and Mack Williams, 63, of 35 Bagley St., are charged with maintaining and operating a place for illegal liquor sales. They each put a $500 cash bond and a $1,000 property bond.

Charged with loitering are: Mathew Kinnard, 29, of 269 Rapid St., Robbie L. McElwee, 32, of 411 Howard McNeil St., and Mrs. Johnnie Johnson, 28, of 485 California Ave. All were released after furnishing $200 property and $100 cash bonds.

There were no immediate reports from Samar of any casualties or damage. But a U. S. Air Force plane from Guam tracking the storm reported it had "spotted a ship that seemed to be in distress."

The structure will take about 12 or 14 months to complete, Languis said.

Nixon Begins Barnstorming

Vice President Pounds on Peace, Prosperity Theme at Indianapolis

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — Vice President Nixon said today the Eisenhower administration "deserves a vote of confidence" because it "got the United States out of one war, kept it out of others and offers the best hope for peace without surrender."

* * *

Nixon, in the first prepared speech of a 15,000-mile political barnstorming swing, hit hard on the "peace and prosperity" theme on which the Republican campaign is based this year.

"The great majority of the American people have enjoyed the best four years of their lives under the Eisenhower administration," he declared.

And harking back to the corruption in government issue of four years ago, Nixon said President Eisenhower "has cleaned up the mess he found, has not allowed another one to be made, and will continue to maintain standards that will make every American proud of his government in Washington."

* * *

The vice president, often accused by Democratic critics of using unfair campaign tatics, pledged that he would "set the record straight" whenever "our opponents misrepresent and distort the record and . . . villify the President . . ."

Nowhere in prepared excerpts of his remarks did he mention Democratic presidential candidate Adlai Stevenson or Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee, who is seeking Nixon's job. He referred only to "our opponents" and "our critics."

Jackie Is Considering Offer for Film Version of 'Last Hurrah'

By OLGA CURTIS

NEW YORK (INS)—TV comedian Jackie Gleason makes a triumphant return to live television Sept. 29 with a new, $1,500,000 15-year television contract in his pocket.

Gleason's personal manager, George Durgom, revealed that the rotund comedian has signed with CBS for television through 1971.

"It's a straight personal contract for Jackie's radio and TV appearances," Durgom said, "he gets $100,000 a year just to stay with CBS. The package deal for his show is extra, but Jackie gets that $100,000 a year even if he wants to sit home till 1971."

The long - term contract, confirmed by CBS officials, goes into effect with Gleason's return to live television after a year of filmed shows.

The contract was arranged after Gleason's previous multi - million-dollar deal with an auto sponsor was ended by mutual consent to allow his performance in an hour-long, weekly live show.

Gleason is reputed to get $300,000 a week to present his coming live show. The price is for the complete show package, and neither CBS nor Durgom would estimate Gleason's cut.

Under both his long-term and seasonal contracts, Gleason is tied up only for radio and TV. So, Gleason himself admitted, he's listening closely to movie offers.

"I've been offered the part of the politician in a movie based on the book 'The Last Hurrah,'" Gleason revealed, "I'm thinking about it."

Any movie offer would wait until Gleason finishes his coming 39-week series of weekly hour-long live television shows. After a season of filmed half-hour shows, Gleason is returning to the girl-and-gag revue format that made him famous as "Mr. Saturday Night."

"We're going to have Art Carney and Audrey Meadows and all the old characters," Gleason said.

The old Gleason roles include "Reggie Van Gleason," "The Poor Soul," "Joe the Bartender," "The Loud Mouth" and "The Honeymooners." Only the "Honeymooner" characterizations were used in Gleason's filmed shows.

"There'll be a couple of new characters later," Gleason revealed. "Two guys I heard talking outside the Staten Island ferry —a clam opener and a hot dog seller."

The live hour-long show will have a chorus line, skits and music in a format that Gleason summed up this way:

"Everytime there isn't a commercial, I'll be on."

The 240-pound comedian, who once broke a leg on live TV, considers the hour-long live weekly appearance far more rugged than filmed TV work.

"It's harder," Gleason grinned. "But the network is making it worthwhile."

Meanwhile, Durgom disclosed that Gleason may switch from a weekly format in 1957.

Navy to Examine ROTC Hopefuls December 8

National exams for the Navy's Reserve Officer Training Corps will be given Dec. 8, it was announced today.

Applications are available at high schools, colleges and Navy recruiting stations. They also may be obtained by writing Chief of Naval Personnel, Washington 25, D. C. All forms must be returned by Nov. 17.

The program enables men to earn a commission while studying at any civilian college that has an NROTC unit.

High school seniors and graduates between 17 and 21 may apply for the NROTC aptitude test. Those who qualify will be given a physical exam early in 1957. About 2,000 will be selected to begin naval careers in September, 1957.

Kefauver Sees Sabotage by Ike

Asserts Cuts in Rural Electrification Programs Are Planned Moves

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Sen. Estes Kefauver accused the Eisenhower administration today "of trying to sabotage" the Rural Electrification Administration by cutting its funds and sources of power.

The administration's power policies came under fire from the Democratic vice presidential candidate as he swung into a second day's campaign in Wisconsin before crossing over into Minnesota.

With a visit to the Oakdale REA on his schedule, he said President Eisenhower had recommended "a drastic cutback in REA appropriations and loan funds" after his inauguration.

If Congress had not overridden Eisenhower's budget recommendations, he said, REA cooperatives would have been unable to finance needed additional facilities.

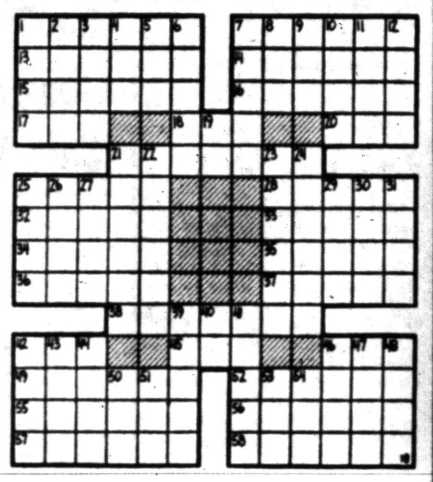

"The Eisenhower administration has sought to cut off the very life blood of the systems — their sources of abundant, low-cost power," he said.

In the last session of Congress, he said, "it was White House pressure" which defeated bills for the proposed Hells Canyon dam on the Snake River between Idaho and Oregon, the Niagara power project, and for speeding atomic power development.

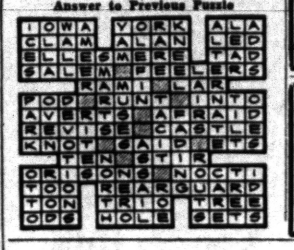

Nearly three million persons move annually to a new place of residence.

Deer Killer Absolved

MANTEO, N. C. (UP) — A deer leaped into the path of Mrs. Roy Basnight's car on a road near here and was killed. White, game protector termed the kills accidental and no charges were filed.

Runaway Horses Kill California Rancher

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (UP)—Two horses ran away with Edgar M. Simpson, 76, a prominent Hood rancher, threw him from a cart and broke his neck.

Simpson was killed.

Simpson's son, Edgar Jr., was trying to break one horse at their ranch south of here by pairing it at the cart with another. While he stopped for a rest his father got into the cart and drove it behind the barn. Then the horses came running from behind the barn, with Simpson still in the cart. As young Simpson was trying to catch them the cart hit a disc and catapulted his father out.

Hunt Cross-Burners at Mixed High School

SEGUIN, Tex. (UP) — Police today sought a group of white and Latin American youths in connection with a burning cross found yesterday in front of Seguin High School.

The school enrolled six Negro students this fall without incident.

A sign found behind the blazing six-foot cross said: "We don't want Niggers (KKK) in Seguin schools."

R. H. Schultz, fire marshal, said a group of white and Latin American boys were seen in the area at the time a fire alarm was turned in.

Politics Here, Too

BLOOMSBURG, Pa. (UP) — Linemen of the Pennsylvania Power and Light Co. have decided political campaigns are an occupational hazard. In a letter to candidates in this area the linemen have asked office-seekers to help "in stamping out the dangerous practice of tacking and stapling placards and posters to service poles." Tacks and staples often give way under a lineman's spurs, making him liable to sudden falls.
