Eisenhower Lauds Nixon Opens Door to Others

Says Convention Has Free Choice on Running Pal

Stassen's Month Off to Press Herter Drive Draws Approval

WASHINGTON (INS)—President Eisenhower today reaffirmed his 1956 candidacy and declared again that Vice President Richard M. Nixon is completely satisfactory to him as a running mate.

But the Chief Executive, in his first news conference since his abdominal operation, refused to voice a preference for vice president in any other terms and spoke highly of Harold E. Stassen's performance as a member of his administration.

Eisenhower said he thought Stassen made a wise decision when he asked for and was given a four-week leave of absence to continue his campaign to replace Nixon on the GOP ticket with Massachusetts Gov. Christian A. Herter.

The President referred repeatedly to his past statements lauding Nixon and indicated he did not believe the vice president would detract from the party's strength this year.

He said Nixon certainly didn't seem to cost the ticket strength in 1952 and he could not believe the United States would not consider that Nixon has made a splendid record in the last four years.

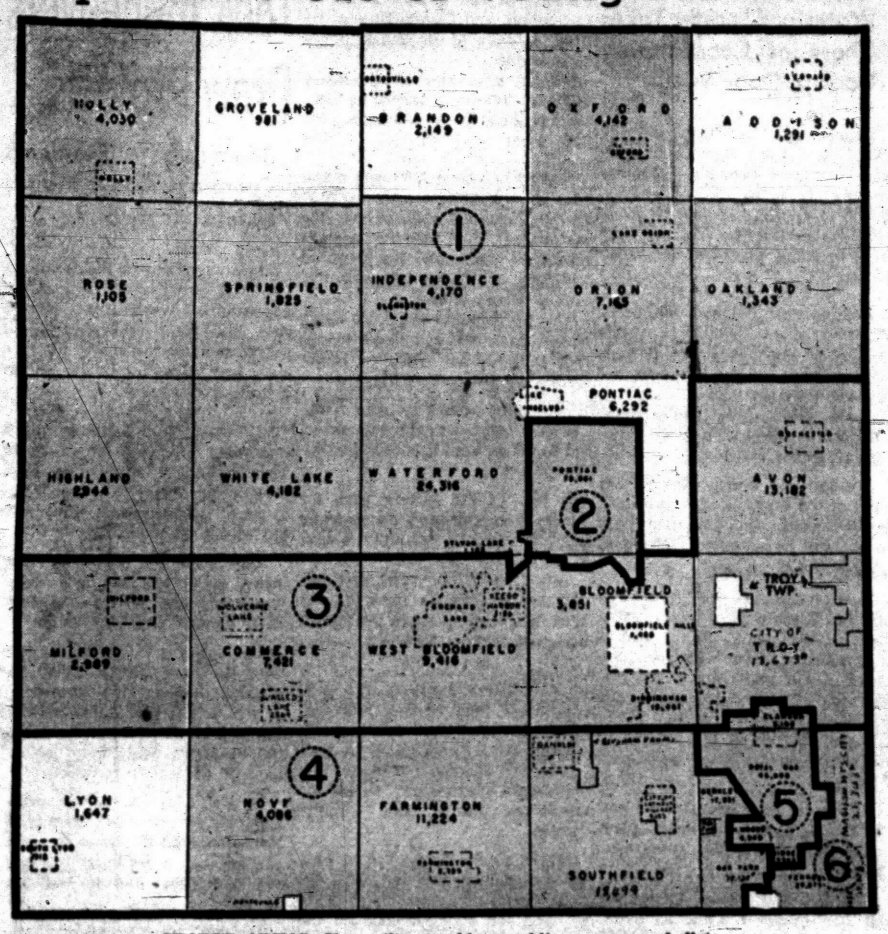

Eisenhower refused to express any opinion of Herter or any other vice presidential possibility. He said he had spoken out for Nixon because he occupied a position in his administration.

The Chief Executive made it clear that he is going ahead with his plans to seek re-election despite his June 9 ileitis operation, because he thinks so much of the Republican Party and its rebuilding that he intends to continue to try.

Eisenhower, asked about how he feels, replied that he feels good

Map Shows Use of Voting Machines

SHADED AREAS—Use voting machines; white—use paper ballots.

Only 18 Precincts Without Voting Machines

93 Per Cent of County Now Equipped

When voters go to the polls in the primary election next Tuesday, paper ballots will be used in only 18 of the county's 249 precincts.

Thus almost 93 per cent of the voting precincts are now equipped with fast, accurate machine voting facilities. The map above shows how the township and cities have adopted mechanical voting.

Black areas are now equipped with machines. White areas still use paper ballots.

Pontiac is the last large area in this county to switch to machines and will start using 80 Automatic Voting machines on a year's trial next week.

While slightly over 7 per cent of the precincts cling to paper ballots, the percentage of voters using the old type ballot is likely even smaller, as most of the heavily populated areas are now machine-equipped.

Areas still using paper ballots next week are Groveland, Brandon, Addison, Lyon and Pontiac Townships; South Lyon city, Bloomfield Hills city, one precinct in Troy Township, two precincts in Royal Oak Township and one Northville precinct which is in Oakland County.

Pontiac electors will use voting machines for the first time Tuesday.

First time users of the voting machines can take a trial run on two machines placed at the City Hall or in the Pontiac State Bank.

Members of the Pontiac League of Women Voters will assist in the demonstration. The machine at the bank may be used during regular banking hours while the one at the City Hall will be available from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m.

Pontiac Centennial Tops C. of C. Future Projects

Plans aimed at the betterment of the community were revealed yesterday by John W. Hirlinger, manager of the Pontiac Chamber of Commerce.

A Civic Affairs Committee was appointed to conduct a three-month "community inventory," while a Centennial Committee was set up to plan for the city's 100th anniversary in 1961 and a "Centennial Auditorium."

Hirlinger announced new Industrial Affairs, Local Government, Public Relations, and State and National Government committees.

"With these committees we hope to spearhead the activity—sort of lay the tracks—and eventually acquire the cooperation of other organizations," Hirlinger explained.

The Civic Affairs group will branch into three major studies: (1) community inventory, (2) modernization, better housing, and beautification of Pontiac, and (3) possible "consolidation" with fringe areas.

Past members of a Chamber Annexation Advisory Committee will be incorporated in the new "consolidation" study group, Hirlinger said.

The Civic Affairs Committee will hold their first orientation meeting at noon tomorrow in the Chamber's Board Room of the Waldron Hotel. Glenn H. Griffin will be chairman.

The inventory will be a com-

Ford Motor Declares Dividend of 60 Cents

DEARBORN (INS) — A 60-cents per share dividend on outstanding stock was declared today by the board of directors of the Ford Motor Co. to stockholders of record Aug. 13, 1956.

The company president, Henry Ford II, said the dividend would be payable Sept. 13. Ford placed the company's consolidated net earnings for the first half of 1956 at $131,700,000.

Earnings per share on capital stock totalled $2.44 in the first six months of 1956.

SHED CONCEALS BODY—The body of 72-year-old widow Mrs. Florence Norton was found in this well house 20 feet from her Springfield Township farm home this morning, by a neighbor. Oakland County Deputy Coroner Dr. Isaac C. Prevette said the woman had apparently been murdered by a blow on the head, and dragged into the shed.

Seek to Prove McKeon Failed to Follow Basic Military Rules

PARRIS ISLAND, S. C. (AP)—A stocky, quietly seathing major today sought to show that Marine S.Sgt. Matthew C. McKeon was a poor troop leader and violated basic military rules.

Maj. Charles B. Sevier of Jacksonville, Ill., government prosecutor, fired questions at the pale, 31-year-old former drill instructor.

McKeon is facing a general court-martial for leading a 74-man platoon of recruits into tide-swept waters of Ribbon Creek marsh, where six drowned.

After McKeon marched his men into the water "to teach them discipline," Sevier wanted to know, "you gave no order to stay in column?"

"No, sir," said McKeon. "They were in a staggered column."

"You never told them to close up and cover down (stay one behind the other at an interval of 40 inches)?"

"No, sir."

"You didn't know what condition your platoon was in, did you?"

"They were in more or less of a column," McKeon answered.

A key point in the court-martial is whether the recruits would have drowned had they followed McKeon's order of "follow me."

Defense attorney Emile Zola Berman of New York City contends the recruits, only five weeks in service, wandered away from the column to their deaths.

A basic tenent of the military on night exercises is to keep in close contact with the man in front.

McKeon completed his testimony at 10:32 a.m.

The Marine commandant, Gen. Randolph McC. Pate, was due next to testify on training methods.

The four-star general arrived on the post without fanfare at about 11 a.m.

In the course of his testimony, McKeon said, "If I had thought any one of them kids would drown I would never took them in."

The day after the drowning, McKeon testified, "I would have signed anything. I would have walked to the gallows that morning."

McKeon also told the court he had not been in Ribbon Creek before he led the night march.

Col. Edward L. Hutchison, president of the seven-man court-martial, questioned McKeon on the difference between teaching discipline and talking disciplinary action.

Earlier, McKeon was asked by Sevier if he tried to maintain discipline and morale by slapping his men.

The taut, strained former drill instructor admitted yesterday that he had half-heartedly slapped three recruits. He also said he considered the discipline of the platoon poor.

Sen. Kefauver Quits Race, Gives Votes to Stevenson

FROM OUR WIRE SERVICES

WASHINGTON—Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn) late yesterday withdrew from the Democratic presidential race and asked his 1956 supporters to give their "wholehearted backing" to Adlai E. Stevenson, the present front-runner.

Kefauver's surprise withdrawal just two weeks in advance of the Democratic national convention was almost certain to clinch the presidential nomination for the former Illinois governor who ran against President Eisenhower in 1952.

Kefauver pointed out at a news conference that Stevenson "alone was willing to take his campaign to the people in almost as many primaries as I did."

Gov. Averell Harriman of New York, however, maintained a show of confidence and some of his backers contended that his prospects had been improved despite Kefauver's appeal to his supporters to switch to Stevenson.

Kefauver informed his office staff of 15 that he was withdrawing as a candidate before his news conference. The telephone operator said: "I thought I'd burst into tears when he told me."

He said he would keep the Kefauver signs on the walls of the Washington headquarters and smilingly commented: "I guess you could consider us now as 'Democrats for Kefauver in favor of Stevenson.'"

In New York today, Kefauver said he thinks the "big majority" of his delegates will follow his recommendation and support Adlai E. Stevenson for the Democratic nomination.

Two Aluminum Firms Picketed

1 USW Union Strikes as Second Threatening Over Wage Contract

NEW YORK (AP)— One union started a strike against the nation's two biggest aluminum producers today. A second union held off another threatened walkout against the same two giant firms.

The United Steelworkers of America called a strike of 28,000 workers at Aluminum Co. of America (Alcoa) and Reynolds Metals Co. plants across the nation. The walkout began shortly after midnight in a wage contract dispute.

Meanwhile, the Aluminum Workers International Union extended its strike deadline 24 hours—until midnight tonight.

The union officially kept its 20,500 members on the job at other Alcoa and Reynolds plants.

The steelworkers' talks with Alcoa and Reynolds recessed for the night shortly after 1:30 a.m. They were to be resumed later today.

Aged Recluse Dead 3 Days, Coroner Says

Mrs. Florence Norton Apparently Murdered at Davisburg Home

The battered body of a 72-year-old widow, her head gashed and bruised in what appeared to be a murderous attack, was found lying in a small shed on her 120-acre farm near Davisburg this morning.

The victim, Mrs. Florence Norton of 12175 Rattalee Lake Rd., was discovered at 7:45 a. m. by a neighbor. The body, clad in dungarees and a white shirt, was lying face down in a well house about 20 feet from the house.

Dr. Isaac Prevette, Oakland County deputy coroner, said that the aged recluse apparently was murdered and her body dragged into the building. She had been dead about three days, he reported.

A tarpaulin, covered with what appeared to be bloodstains, was found inside the house by Oakland County Sheriff's deputies. Several drawers had been ransacked although there was no evidence of a struggle, according to deputies.

The woman lived alone and reportedly possessed a large sum of money although it is not known if she kept it in the house. Her attorney, Edward Fallon, told investigators he thought she had about $200 in her possession.

A black wallet which she usually carried on her person was missing.

NEIGHBOR FINDS BODY

Her body was discovered by William Dexter, a hired hand on a neighboring farm, who told deputies he investigated because he had not seen Mrs. Norton for three days.

Mrs. Norton had maintained the farm since the death of her husband Fred seven years ago. The livestock, consisting of several cattle and chickens, had not been cared for or fed for at least two days, neighbors said.

The victim was last seen Sunday afternoon by another neighbor, Charles Swift, who reported seeing Mrs. Norton talking to someone in a car which was parked in the driveway.

Swift said he did not get a close look at the driver, and did not know if it was a man or woman. The auto was a 1955 Pontiac sedan, he said.

Dexter said the door to the shed in which the body lay was closed but unlatched when he reached the farm. Mrs. Norton's glasses were found approximately six feet from the building.

The slain woman's neice, Mrs. George C. Inman of 2032 Garland St., Pontiac, said that Mrs. Norton was active despite her age and carried on most of the farm chores without help.

Deputies found a tub containing some blood and grey hair in the basement of the home, and are also examining a sledgehammer found in a slaughterhouse some distance from the shed which concealed the body.

It is not known whether a large amount of blood in the slaughterhouse is human or that of an animal. An axe was also found in the shed where Mrs. Norton's body was found.

Municipal Master Planning:

Attorney Says It Causes Land Owners Trouble

By LAWRENCE S. MARTZ JR.

Is municipal master planning legal?

Pontiac attorney George A. Cram says it isn't. He contends it amounts to "damnation without condemnation" of private property.

Cram says that if a city plan commission makes a master plan for the city, with areas marked for future development as municipal projects (for example, parks), than a cloud is created on the land title of the present owner of the proposed park.

The park may not be built for 30 years, Cram points out. Or it may never be built. But as long as it exists on the master plan, the owner has trouble selling his land, because a prospective buyer knows that sometime the land may be condemned by the city.

What's even tougher, Cram says, is that the owner can't develop his property without taking a gamble. Once it's marked for use as a future park on the master plan, its owner is legally under notice that he develops it "at his peril."

This means, he says, that when the land is finally condemned, the owner might be paid for it only what it was worth at the time it was marked on the master plan.

At best, he might be paid what it was worth as "unimproved land" at the date of condemnation.

But, he adds, even if the city took immediate steps to condemn land it wanted to use as a park in the indefinite future, the process would still be illegal.

He quotes a 1954 State Supreme Court decision barring condemnation for future use.

In addition, Cram points out, a 1955 Supreme Court decision has ruled out use of the zoning power to deal with "speculative" future conditions.

Cram's arguments, which appeared in a recent issue of the Michigan State Bar Journal and were recently reprinted in The Detroit Realtor, stem from his successful efforts to block master planning some of his own Birmingham property as a "park."

He points out that under the Michigan statute, plan commissions are appointed — not elected — and elected governing bodies have no legal power to approve or disapprove the master plans they adopt.

Cram, who has been practicing law in Pontiac for 42 years, served on the original home rule charter commission of the city in 1910 and on the charter commission which drafted the present charter in 1919. The charter has since been amended.

His article is to be reprinted again in the National Real Estate and Building Journal, according to Pontiac realtor Leslie A. Tripp.

One-Way Street Plan Saves Lives

Pontiac Plans More Changes

Traffic Engineer Says New System Has Halved Death Toll in Year

Pontiac's accelerated one-way street program is a major factor in halving this year's traffic fatalities, Theodore Vanderstempel, city traffic engineer said today.

Vanderstempel, 58, the city's first traffic engineer, said more one-way streets can be expected.

"Our system is working very satisfactorily because it reduces congestion to a very minor degree," Vanderstempel said.

Since taking over the new city position January 1955, Vanderstempel, who held similar positions in Miami and Chicago, has initiated 12 one-way streets in the city. Only Lafayette, Warren, and alleys were one-way prior to his arrival.

BLAMES CITY LAYOUT

He pointed out that only three persons have been killed on city streets this year compared to six at this time in 1955.

"The city has not been laid out in accordance with a modern grid type (street) system," the engineer said, explaining why Pontiac does not have more north-south and east-west thoroughfares.

In February 1955, his department performed a five-month survey of 21 vehicular and pedestrian intersections in the heart of the city. Out of this survey, Vanderstempel concluded the need for one-way conversions.

COMPLETE SURVEYS

Before streets are converted to one-way traffic, the official stated, time delay tests are made. "As soon as there is a traffic tieup, it is time for a change," he emphasized. After conversion, observations are made to review the operation of the change.

He added streets are switched to one-way for two reasons: (1) To reduce accidents, and (2) To provide a smooth flow of traffic.

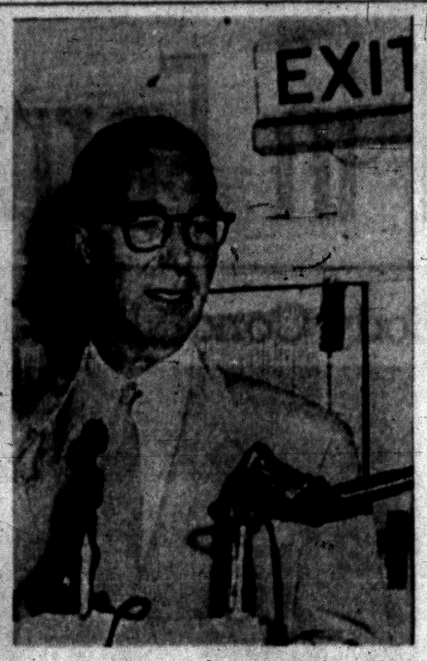

The engineer said he has received "very few complaints" from Pontiac residents regarding this one-way program. He has received complaints concerning two streets from city commissioners but declined to name the streets or commissioners.

Lately, at the request of merchants in the area, Patterson street reverted back to two-way operation. Vanderstempel said it "should go back to one-way to eliminate the potential accident hazard."

The mid-town road between Saginaw and Cass was changed one-way April 2 pending the conversion of Orchard Lake one-way east bound. This has been temporarily delayed, said Vanderstempel.

Dulles Arrives for Suez Talks

Big Three Conference on Nationalization Will Open in London Sunday

LONDON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles flew into London today and rushed through a round of preliminary talks on the Suez Canal crisis ahead of a luncheon conference with Prime Minister Eden.

Dulles met a showdown atmosphere of "Back us or we go in it alone with force if necessary."

Big Three talks opened here Sunday on the nationalization of the canal by Egypt's President Gamal Abdel Nasser.

British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd was reported to have assured a closed meeting of Conservative members of Parliament last night that Britain stands ready to fight to keep the canal open to all shipping if diplomatic and economic measures are not sufficient. British land, sea and air forces were poised.

Dulles met first at the U.S. Embassy with Robert Murphy, deputy undersecretary of state, who represented the United States in the first three days of talks with Lloyd and French Foreign Minister Christian Pineau.

Lloyd and Dulles later met privately and then huddled with Pineau before the luncheon session with Eden.

Dulles brushed aside all questions from reporters at the airport.

British naval craft assembled at Cyprus, 230 miles north of the Suez, included the cruiser Jamaica, the minelayer Maxman, the destroyer Sarfluer and the frigate Urania.

From Washington, comes the report that Egypt has been temporarily barred from touching its money in U.S. banks without official permission and pending "clarification" of the Suez Canal crisis.

MRS. RALPH E. BUMP

Heads Area UF Canvass Corps

Waterford Leader Takes Chore of Coordinating Door-to-Door Work

Door-to-door soliciting for the 1956 United Fund drive by Pontiac and Waterford Township volunteer women will be coordinated by Mrs. Ralph G. Bump a Waterford township housewife who has been active in Fund activities for three years.

Pontiac City Manager Walter K. Willman, general chairman of the 1956 drive, announced Mrs. Bump's appointment as chairman of the geographical division.

Last year, Mrs. Bump was Waterford co-chairman of the geographical division.

Pontiac and Waterford co-chairmen of the division, who will head house-to-house solicitation in their areas, will be apponted next week.

PLAY VITAL ROLE

Now president of the Central Volunteer Bureau of Pontiac Area United Fund, Mrs. Bump also is a member of the Waterford National Farm and Garden Association, the Waterford Arts and Crafts Club, and the Silver Lake Golf League. She is a parishioner of Christ Lutheran Church of Waterford.

The work done by volunteer solicitors is a most important part of the fund drive, Mrs. Bump believes.

"We not only gather money for the 55 United Fund agencies, but these volunteer women solicitors also tell the vital United Fund story to every family in the Pontiac and Waterford area," she said.

The Day in Birmingham

2 Police Officials Join in FBI-Graduate Convo

BIRMINGHAM — Police Chief Ralph W. Moxley and Detective Lt. Merlin Holmquist, only Oakland County graduates of the Federal Bureau of Investigation's national academy, are attending the Michigan chapter's meeting at Haven Hill today, tomorrow and Friday.

The convention is the fifth annual retraining session for the select group of Michigan law officers. Haven Hill is a lodge at Highland Recreation Area, Milford.

The academy, established in 1935 by J. Edgar Hoover, FBI director, has trained 1,300 officers for executives in their own departments. About 94 per cent of Michigan graduates act as either chief or carry a superior rank on their forces.

Speakers at the three-day session will include Dr. Roland M. Athay, medical director of the Detroit Committee of Alcoholism, Maurice Floch, author and sociologist-psychologst at the Detroit House of Correction, and Claude Broom, retired inspector of the Detroit police department.

Several graduates of the group will lead training sessions, as Moxley has done in one previous year with other graduates.

North Evergreen Authority members agreed tentatively yesterday to Birmingham's request that the seven-acre site for the sewage treatment plant and its proposed additions be bought back by this city is it goes unused.

The agreement, which is being drawn up today, includes a clause that it would be cancelled if the Evergreen sewer goes through.

The land would be sold back to Birmingham at the sale price of $4,250 an acre if not used within 20 years.

It centers the 66-acre park for which recreation and driver-training plans are in formative stages at this time.

Total figure for plant and site now are at $549,750, since the site price has been added to the plant's accepted price of $520,000.

YMCA Day Campers will visit historical Fort Malden and the Heins Cannery in Canada next Wednesday. About 65 boys and girls are planning to take the trip and participate in other activities during the coming week.

He and Edwin F. Kirbert are conducting the camp. Weekly activities include swimming, crafts, land sports and nature lore.

Tank Maneuvers Draw Protests

Subdivision Residents Complain About Noise, Safety Hazards

Eight members of the Washington Park Subdivision Civic Assn. appeared before the City Commission last night protesting "tank maneuvers" on the site of the new U. S. Army Training Center on Orchard Lake Avenue.

"It was an understanding it was going to be used for classroom work only," a spokesman said. "We protest this as a nuisance because of the noise and safety hazard to our children."

The members claimed two army tanks and one jeep were "manuevering" on the site near their homes last Friday night.

City Manager W. K. Willman assured the men "that's wasn't the intended use of the property." He said it was his "fault" because he had granted permission thinking the operations would help "settle" the site before construction.

Lt. Col. Lloyd A. Gabler, commanding officer of the 703rd tank Battalion, said the tanks were in the area as a make-up meeting for some men and to test the ground.

"We don't want to create a menace or nuisance of the 703rd Tank Battalion," the officer told the men and members of the City Commission.

Willman said he would confer with army officials on future use of the site.

plete digest of the city's liabilities, assets, resources, and numerous pertinent data "even including the mental attitude of the people," the manager said.

"The purpose will be to determine what we have to be proud of, what needs working on, why people should be proud of their city, and to provide an industrial survey for information for potential new industries," he continued.

A primary purpose of the second study of the Civic Affairs Committee will be toward the elimination of sub-standard homes, beautifying the Clinton River, and increased parks and playgrounds for Pontiac.

The Centennial Committee, under the direction of Ralph T. Norvell, former Chamber president, will study the possible site, architectural design, and means of raising money to build the civic auditorium in celebration of the 1961 anniversary.

Preparation for the Centennial, a second goal of this committee, will not begin until 1958, Hirlinger said.

The Centennial Committee will convene for its first meeting on Friday.

A new Local Government Committee "to obtain a closer liaison with the City Commission and city officials," will gather for its first meeting Monday under the chairmanship of Edward A. Maier.

Fisher Scholarships Won by Oakland County Boys

Two Oakland County boys, Birmingham and Southfield residents, were among 20 winners of scholarships in the Fisher Body Craftsman's Guild model car competition.

Awards were announced last night at the annual dinner, held this year at the General Motors Technical Center. Finalists from all parts of the nation were guests at the dinner, also attended by distinguished educators, scientists, engineers and top GM executives.

Bryce A. Miller, 16, of 24001 Lahser Rd., Southfield Township, won first place in the junior age division and was awarded a $5,000 scholarship for the university of his choice.

David Koto, 18, of 1231 Foxchase Rd., Birmingham, won a $1,000 scholarship for exceptional design ability.

William Moore, 19, of Los Angeles, won the $5,000 scholarship in the senior age division. Because Moore was a GM Technical Center employe this summer, a duplicate award was presented to Jerry Winkley, of Rollins, Mont.

Other winners from Michigan were Murray A. Milne, 19, of Detroit, a $4,000 scholarship in the senior division; and John J. Pink, 18, of Grosse Pointe Park, a $3,000 scholarship.

In all, 43 boys were given awards totalling $115,000 in the national competition.

Principal speaker at the banquet was Charles F. Kettering, research consultant for GM. Awards were announced by James E. Goodman, GM vice president and general manager of Fisher Body Division.

Hospital Bonds to Benefit City

Pontiac Stands to Gain $55,000 From the Sale, Commissioners Told

Pontiac stands to gain approximately $55,000 from the investment of revenue from the sale of $2.9 million of general obligation bonds to finance the Pontiac General Hospital addition, Director of Finance Oscar Eckman told the City Commission last night.

Eckman was authorized to invest $2,500,000 "before construction proceeds to a point of using all this money."

He said the city has received $2.9 million and $20,544.45 in accrued interest from the sale of the bonds. They were sold to the low bidder of Goldman, Sachs, and Co. and Associates of Detroit June 18.

The finance official said $1.5 million would be invested in one-year U.S. Treasury certificates of indebtedness which will yield 2.80 per cent interest. One million dollars will be invested in 90-day Treasury bills at a yield of 2 to 2.29 per cent interest.

He said the investments would be "flexible enough to meet all construction contracts payments as they become due."

City Manager W. K. Willman explained the income from these investments would be used for equipping the hospital addition.

Nixon Acceptable, Eisenhower Says

but not quite as well as he did a year ago.

When pressed as to whether he had any doubts on his ability to carry on for four years, he responded that as far as he knows he has no doubts.

LIKE BULGE BATTLE

The Chief Executive said he had no period of indecision about whether he should go ahead with his renomination plans until after he got out of his sick room and read the newspapers.

He said it was a little like the world War Two Battle of the Bulge, when he fully became aware of its serious nature through news reports.

The President said he thinks Stassen has the right of any American to express his own political beliefs and preferences, just as both the President and vice president have that right.

He praised Stassen liberally for his disarmament work, saying he had undertaken one of the most difficult, frustrating, tedious tasks and had pursued it earnestly and vigorously.

DELIGHTED WITH STASSEN

He added that few people would have the patience, intelligence and courage to do the job. He said he had been very delighted with Stassen's work and one reason the Herter movement by Stassen disturbed him was because Stassen would be lost from his assignment for a month.

The President at the outset said Stassen had not come to him for advice on the Herter proposal but to tell him what he expected to do.

One reporter asked if the President feels committed to Nixon. Eisenhower said he was not sure what this meant but recalled that he had expressed his opinion in the past and that there could be no doubt of his satisfaction with him as a running mate.

But he upheld the right of the convention to nominate whom it chooses.

Oakland Youth to Attend U.S. Achievers Meet

The six will be part of a 42-member delegation representing Southeastern Michigan. A total of 600 delegates will attend, representing 40,000 boys and girls who operated more than 2,000 business firms in the Junior Achievement program.

Highlights of the conference will be the election of national officers, selection of the "Officer of the Year," and "Company of the Year."

'Wise Decision,' Nancy Comments on Withdrawal

MCMINNVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Sen. Estes Kefauver's withdrawal as a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination was a "very wise decision," his wife Nancy Thinks.

"I'm very proud of the way he handled it," she said.

She said the senator would fly here from Washington today to join her and the children for a few days.

"The children are planning a birthday celebration for him," she added, explaining that Kefauver's birthday actually was July 26 but that he was in Washington at the time.

Pontiac Deaths

Detroit Girls Snitch, Eat Rat Poison 'Cookies'

DETROIT (INS) — Two Detroit girls were hospitalized today after eating rat poison they filched from a neighbor.

Gloria Cooks, 9, and Delores Smith, 8, were watching Mrs. Lois Dunn clean her apartment when they noticed a box on a table. They apparently took some of the squares while Mrs. Smith wasn't looking and ate them.

Mrs. Smith noticed the girls were becoming ill and, on questioning, found out they had eaten the poison. They were taken to a hospital where their stomachs were pumped and then held overnight for observation.

Many Homeless as Floods Hit Denver, West

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Three days of lashing rain spawned floods in Denver and parts of the Rocky Mountain area today, leaving hundreds homeless and millions of dollars property damage.

Hardest hit was the southern section of Denver where water ran two to three feet deep, turning streets into streams. Traffic was paralyzed in these areas and homes were inundated.

City officials declared an emergency in the stricken section and rushed more than 600 regular and auxiliary police to aid in boat evacuations.

The rain slackened early today and the water began to recede. However, the Weather Bureau said more rain might fall later today.

Heavy rains also fell over areas of the Midwest today.

Judge Weighs Grand Jury to Probe Ecorse Rackets

ECORSE (INS) — Michigan Circuit Court Judge Chester P. O'Hara of Wayne County called a meeting today to consider a petition for a one-man grand jury investigation into racket-ridden Ecorse.

A powder keg of political unrest, whispers of graft, corruption and bribery exploded into headlines of Detroit newspapers recently exposing a cheap movie-type ring of "franchised" gamblers and racketeers which allegedly netted $100,000 a year in payoffs.

The cries for a "sweeping probe" that may reach to top political heads came up yesterday when it was revealed that William H. Montry, a former Ecorse police commissioner issued a complete confession charging "many politicians" with graft and corruption.

Montry, who said he quit as police commissioner because he "couldn't stand the pressure of the racketeers," named Mayor William W. Voisine as one of the city officials "who took $700 a month and other gifts" from notorious Detroit-area gambler, Russel Trilck, 49. Trilck was expected to be released from jail today on a writ of habeas corpus.

TELLS OF PAYOFF

State troopers surprised him in his $100,000 home in Lincoln Park, early yesterday after Montry revealed he had signed the confession.

Montry's statement described how Trilck gave him $1,000 in 1953 to pass on to Mayor Voisine, after the city elections, as a campaign contribution. The former Ecorse official also told how he himself received payoff money.

"They would always roll up the hush-money in newspapers and hand it over to you, even in the police headquarters," he said. He charged the gamblers who bid highest got police protection—"on the big business or franchise basis."

State Attorney General Thomas Kavanagh placed Montry under protective custody and has him hidden away. There were reports of threats against his life.

Montry told reporters he lived like a hoodlum from the roaring 20s. "I was always afraid to start my car for fear it would blow up, or I jumped every time the phone rang or a stranger came to the door."

Mayor Voisine not only denied the charges, but called Montry "a racketeer himself in the steel business." The mayor named the man he said he treated "like a son" as one who got a $5-a-ton kickback from steel sold to a Cleveland firm from the Great Lakes Steel Co., where he worked.

Alliance of States in Lakes Area Studied

WASHINGTON (AP)—The bill that will allow eight states including Michigan and two Canadian provinces to form a Great Lakes basin compact will be studied by a Senate subcommittee.

The committee was appointed yesterday for the express purpose of studying the bill that had been introduced last year by nine senators including Michigan Senators Potter and McNamara.

The bill says that the compact will provide for the welfare and development of water resources of the basin as a whole as well as those portions of the basin which have special problems.

4-H Fair Will Be the 'Biggest and Best' Yet

The "biggest and best 4-H Fair we've ever had will kick-off at 5 p.m. Tuesday," John Trocke, fair manager of this year's 20th annual event, said today.

"We expect more than 100,000 people during the five-day event from August 7 to 11," Trocke added. Attendance last year reached 80,000.

Busy preparation reigns this week at the fairgrounds at Perry St. and Walton Blvd. Booth managers, 4-H personnel and crews are now readying the grounds for the expected visitor onslaught.

Jack Worthington, county 4-H agent, says, "grass is being cut, roads graded, tents erected and locations preened as the deadline approaches. We're just about ready to go."

More than 2,000 Oakland County youth who will participate in the fair report last minute touches are being done for animals which will be judged at the fair.

FAIR HIGHLIGHTS

Entrants in the food preparation section are sharpening their skills—and exhibits are being assembled for the "big day."

Highlights of the fair, Worthington reports, will include crowning of a county 4-H queen at 7:45 p.m. Tuesday; dairy and general exhibit judging Wednesday morning; 4-H Service Club pancake supper; parade of clubs and the pig scramble, all Wednesday evening.

Thursday will find 4-Hers showing hogs, sheep and beef cattle for judging in a morning program. Thursday evening 4-H girls will model in the 4-H Dress Review.

On Thursday evening 4-H boys and girls from surrounding counties will vie with Oakland County 4-H members for honors in a talent show.

HORSE JUDGING

Friday afternoon speed plus safety will rule the grounds as 4-H boys compete in a Tractor Field Day. A machinery parade will draw viewers during the evening program along with the 4-H Cavalcade of horses.

The fair ends officially at 2 p.m. Saturday after the horse judging. Worthington reports this is to be one of the biggest events of the fair. Some 120 horses will be shown during morning judging, the largest number in state 4-H activities.

The fair also will include the usual carnival, bands, rides and side activities, Worthington said.

Some 30 local merchants will staff booths as part of the exhibits of the fair, he added.

Woman in Parked Auto Injured in Collision

Sitting in a parked car at Auburn and Tasmania Aves. last night, Mrs. Myrtle M. Bills, 55, of 354 Midway Ave., suffered multiple cuts and bruises when the car was hit by one driven by Dr. William C. Prevette, 39, of 291 Liberty St.

Dr. Prevette told Pontiac Police he didn't see the car.

Mrs. Bills was treated and released from Pontiac General Hospital.

FUN IN THE BACK YARD — 3

Tug-of-War

Tug-of-war is a game you can play with your friends in your own back yard, and here is a cut-out to go with it. Any even number can play.

Take a long rope and make a knot in the middle, and then make knots along the rope from the center about four feet apart. These knots make good holds, so the rope will not slip through your hands and hurt your palms.

Stretch a piece of white tape across the grass as a dividing line. Pick up any sticks and stones in the grass so you will not be hurt if you fall. The leading players take hold of the rope facing each other, and their teams line up behind them. The side that pulls the other over the tape is the winner.

Color this picture with your crayons and paste it down on cardboard. Cut out the figures and base carefully. Put the figures behind the base and fasten together by putting a brass fastener or bent pin through the indicated holes.

Fold the ends of the base forward. Then you can push the figures so they will rock on the base as shown in the small diagram. First Peter will pull Patty to his side and then Patty will pull him. You'll have to decide the winner.

(Leni Smith, Alameda, Calif., wins $10 for being the first to submit this idea. Send in your ideas care of this newspaper. Violet Moore Higgins; AP Newsfeatures.)

Challenge No. 10! Lucky 16 Words Can Snare $125

Another week — another $100; that's the least the Press will pay to the reader who comes up with the correct solution to Pot-O-Gold Puzzle No. 10, the newest challenge in our fascinating summer word game. Oother than the clues below, the best advice we can give is to read the rules carefully before sending in your entry. Have fun, and good luck!

The puzzle consists of (1) a number of circles which contain a few scrambled letters, and (2) a corresponding list of clues to these words printed below. The object is to arrange each group of circled letters into a word that best fits its clue. The word which you select for Circle No. 1, then would be the one which you would print in the space to the right of (1) below.

You'll notice that some circles contain $ signs in pots of gold. You may use such a symbol as any letter you wish. However, it and all letters in that circle must be used. The $ sign, of course, can represent ANY letter in the word.

Do the same in all the other circles. Study the clues carefully and arrange all the letters into words that you believe best conforms to these clues. Use your $ signs to help you spell out the right words.

Long of Louisiana Set Back by Vote

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Two Louisiana congressmen threw the state's politics into a spin today after humiliating Gov. Earl Long with smashing victories in their bids for renomination in the Democratic primary election.

Rep. T. A. Thompson defeated three Long-backed candidates in the 7th Congressional Dist. race and Rep. Otto Passman won over two Long-supported candidates in the 5th.

Victory in yesterday's balloting amounted to election in this state.

Long was not available for comment on the outcome.

Four other representatives won renomination in two-way races. Two representatives and Sen. Russell Long were unopposed.

Interest was centered on the Thompson and Passman races, in which Long took a personal hand. There was little state interest in the other races.

Long's political prestige also took a beating in New Orleans and in the 8th Dist. Long's home district.

Police Out on a Limb

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Any policeman here who can't tell a tree from a limb may find himself out on one. Police Chief Carl Heustis complained that on two occasions emergency sanitation crews were summoned by police cruisers to remove "a tree across the street" and that in each case all that was found was a small limb about an inch in diameter.

Indict Peron in Absentia on Morals Charge

BUENOS AIRES (AP)— A judge has indicted former President Juan D. Peron in absentia on seducing teen-ager Nelida (Nelly) Rivas.

Peron is in exile in Panama. The indictment issued by Judge Ernesot Gonzalez Bonorino in Juvenile Court accuses him of having sexual relations with the young girl for two years, from the time she was 14.

The judge also indicted Nelly's parents, Jose and Maria de Rivas, on charges of aiding Peron in the alleged seduction. They and their daughter already have been jailed.

Wherein The Press Is Spanked for Editorial

Help!

Last week The Press endorsed a candidate on each ticket for The Republican and for The Democratic nomination for the State Senate. A small storm of cheers and jeers resulted.

One unsigned communique even attacked the religion of one of the candidate's families. This is pretty close to the bottom of the barrel of bigotry and intolerance. It would pay that writer to peek back into school books and political histories to learn why this Nation was founded.

Another letter says we use very poor taste in recommending just one candidate on each ticket and then suggests our editorial page is "the most non-committal, most fence straddling and emasculated in the country."

Those are harsh words.

They suggest wrath and anger.

First, we're condemned for expressing an opinion. And then we're condemned when we don't.

The writer reminds us of the agitated Indian scout who leaped on his horse and "drove off in all directions."

Another writer says there are many people "who disagree with our choice."

We're sure he's right.

That's why we have a primary.

Each citizen can voice his own opinion.

That also guarantees The Press the right to express the opinion that we hold in our own editorial columns. This merely follows a custom that began with Volume 1, Number 1, of the original public print.

An insurance official writes in to protest and endorses another candidate. We are very fond of his choice and have done business with him since he opened his current venture. We must stand as one of his very best customers. But that doesn't mean he is better qualified to run as the Republican candidate than Harvey Lodge. Mr. Lodge has had much more experience and general background. We are confident some day the younger man will attain equal stature.

Jack Habel who has often been a severe critic writes in to congratulate us "for being objective and fair minded."

Thank you, Mr. Habel.

We'll let your appraisal speak for the rebuttal.

In the meantime The Press will continue to publish "as usual." That means all candidates will receive equal treatment in the news columns. We shall continue to express our own opinion in the editorial columns, just as all newspapers do, everywhere.

A fine political battle looms ahead.

Nasser Center of Storm Caused by Suez Seizure

Egypt's President Nasser should be the world's most worried man.

One reason for this is the fierce international storm beating about him after his nationalization of the Suez Canal. Not only are Britain and France angrily planning possible countermeasures, but our own Government officially has expressed deep concern.

But Nasser's troubles cover a much larger area than that traversed by the canal. A Cairo dispatch to U.S. News and World Report says, for example, that his dreams of an Arab empire seem to be on the skids.

Even the Arabs show signs of snubbing Nasser, says the dispatch. Morocco is shying away, Tunisia is cool to Nasser's agents and Libya has ordered him to close down his propaganda centers there.

Saudi Arabia, which used its oil money to help him, has found Nasser secretly aiding opponents of the present regime there. Even in Jordan, pro-British Iraq, not Egypt, is gaining influence.

Worse, both Tito and Nehru refused to support his demand for immediate independence for Algeria from France. Both also refused to back the Arabs against Israel. In the opinion of reliable observers, Nasser "must whittle down his ambitions" or find himself in trouble at home.

The immediate future of the canal still isn't clear though Nasser expects to use the tolls to build the High Aswan Dam. The U. S., Britain and now Russia have withdrawn their offers to help finance it.

It's a safe guess, however, that no matter what Nasser does or what happens to him, the U. S., Great Britain and France will take steps to see that the canal is kept open.

The Man About Town

Here's Challenge

Oakland County Woman, Now 87, Still Has Mother

Political economy: Getting the most votes for the least money.

Here's another "first" that MAT claims for Oakland County. He challenges the nation to find another woman like of Highland, who in a few days celebrates her eighty-seventh birthday, and has her mother with her. The latter is

Mrs. Frank S. Keller

Mrs. Eliza Beaumont Taylor who will be 107 years of age on her next birthday.

Extremes in names met the other day when

manager of a Pontiac store, was introduced to the

the latter coming from Oshkosh, Wis., and visiting in Pontiac. Incidentally, Mr. Dull has a cousin with the name Bright.

After 62 years of married life,

Mr. and Mrs. William F. McGinnis of Holly are separated—he died Monday. From intimate personal observation over the whole period, I can testify that never have I seen a marital loyalty to match it. He has been absolutely helpless for the past 15 years, but nobody ever heard anything but cheerfulness from him or the wife who stood over him.

At Lake Orion Monday evening, the writer never saw a community so completely stopped and aghast as that beautiful and law loving area. A petition for capital punishment can get 100 per cent endorsement there.

Another commendable safety slogan tells us to "Drive Safely; make that last one milk."

A very proper expression is that one:

"Enthusiastic Apathy,"

with which many of us are afflicted in helping to do something about civil defense or the increasing traffic fatalities.

Chairman of the Board of Managers of the Michigan State Fair, of Pontiac, tells me that this year's event will get still further away from the carnival spirit.

Harry Garling

My Imlay City scout sends word that has served over a quarter century on its school board. Wonder if this isn't a record for one of the most responsible, poorest paid and heaviest knocked public jobs in any community?

First home grown potatoes of the season are reported by

of Keego Harbor, who has them as large as hen's eggs.

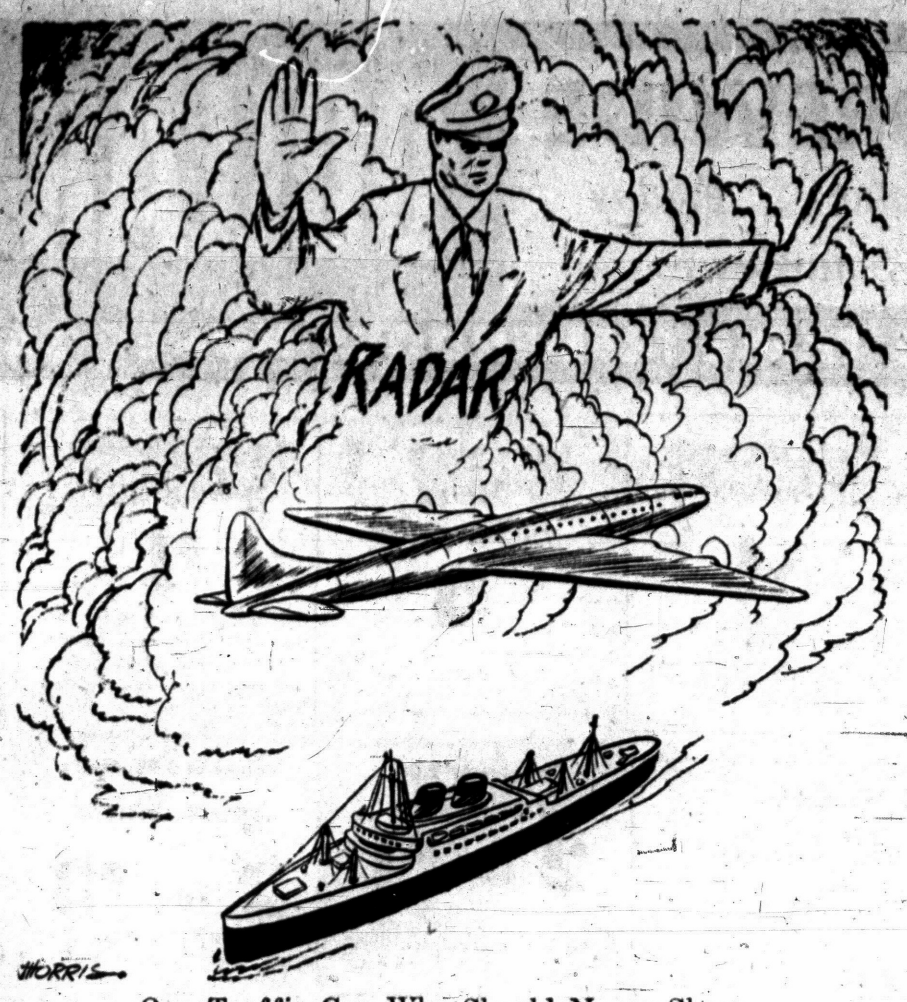

Verbal Orchids to—

Mrs. and Mrs. Fred T. Dowling

of 241 East Wilson Ave.; fifty-second wedding anniversary.

of 27 Charlotte St.; eighty-first birthday.

One Traffic Cop Who Should Never Sleep

David Lawrence Says:

'The Ships Must Go Through!'

WASHINGTON—"The ships must go through!" That's the word Secretary of State Dulles, at the behest of President Eisenhower, has carried to the London conference on the seizure of the Suez Canal.

But Nasser has already retreated. He has decided to accept checks instead of cash for tolls. That means the argument over who ultimately gets the proceeds of the checks and when is something that an international tribunal or a court somewhere will have to decide in due time.

If, however, there is a seizure of a British or French or American ship and a forced interference with passage through the canal, the naval units of Britain and America will take whatever action may be required to obtain their release or to assure their continuous passage through the canal.

CAUTION BEFORE WAR

The United States is as anxious as Britain and France to avoid anything that could involve a war and certainly will issue plenty of words of caution to the conferees in London about taking any precipitate action. The immediate task of Dulles is to make sure the ships keep going through the canal because, if oil from the Arab countries is shut off, it might mean that gas rationing would have to be under official consideration here in the United States two or there weeks hence.

Just as happened at the time of the crisis in Iran, the United States does not want to be placed in the position of opposing the principle of nationalization. At the same time the canal property, it is recognized, has various foreign owners and a vital seaway is involved. If someone else besides Nasser were at the helm at Cairo, the attitude of the major nations would be different. The danger of a blockade of a strategic waterway has often been discussed by military men, but it was not believed that Nasser would threaten such a closure and take the bold course he has just adopted.

The argument in London is that a show of force and firmness is essential lest the whole Middle East situation crumble. America is faced with an entirely different problem. Here everything has been on the peaceful side. For one thing, Congress has just gone home. There is no treaty obligation at stake which has to be met by the executive branch of the government under specific provisions already approved by Congress, as is so often the case in similar situations.

Eisenhower does not wish to act alone. If the crisis gets to the point where he must take military steps, he will ask Congress for the necessary power. The expectation, however, is that the whole matter will drift along for months in an effort to find some legal process of adjudicating the claims to the funds and that the ships will go through the canal in the meantime.

Only some untoward act by the Egyptian government, therefore, now can bring on a military climax of any kind. The western Allies will not take the initiative.

Information available here indicates that the Egyptians are well aware of the legal tangles and the fact that they will not get money to build the Aswan Dam unless there is an equitable setlement of the whole problem of ownership of the Suez Canal. This controversy could drag on for a long time, as did the Iranian affair which Mossadegh stirred up.

Nervousness over the outcome is manifest not merely in Washington and London but in Moscow. The Communists could, of course, needle Nasser into further complications with the West. It is noted here that a grave situation on the border of Burma has been precipitated by the Chinese Communists at this particular moment. The State Department is deeply concerned over the sudden change in Red China's attitude. There is puzzlement as to how India's Nehru and the other southeast Asia countries now are going to react to the renewed use of force by the Chinese Communists after all the recent professions of peaceful purpose. It is a dangerous time in the Cold War.

Dr. William Brady Says:

Doctor Again Expostulates: Have Your Baby at Home

Monday, April 30, '56, in a piece titled "The Baby Safe in Mother's Arms", I deplored what I considered the evils in 19th century hospital obstetrics, especially the practice of snatching the newborn baby away from the mother soon after birth and filing the unhappy infant in the show window with any others the institution has in stock.

Another recent piece on the same subject was titled "Home Still the Best Place To Have a Baby". Still another, contributed by a mother who has had babies in a hospital and at home, was titled "Mother Prefers Home Delivery."

In these articles about childbirth I recommended as required reading for expectant fathers the following:

1. Childbirth, Your Questions Answered, by Davis and Ferguson, Harpers, $2.50.
2. To Prospective Mothers, by Hunter and Smith, Bruce Humphries, $2.50.
3. Childbirth Without Fear, by Read, Harpers, $2.75.
4. Natural Childbirth, by Heardman, Williams Wilkins, $2. This gives special exercises for the prospective mother, whatever method she may choose.

Now at the outset I concede I cannot know what I'm talking about unless I have had a baby myself—at least a good many women have so implied. Up to this moment I haven't qualified, but a good obstetrician on the bowling green sizes me up from time to time and assures me there is hope.

Long before we ever heard of Dr. Grantly Dick Read or his method, I had two cases of natural childbirth. In the first case a young woman inadvertantly pregnant had managed to conceal her condition right up to the time for delivery, when I first saw her. She bore a 7-pound baby in a short labor and declined any anesthetic — in fact she declared she had no pain. How much her wish to conceal her condition had to do with it, I don't know, but it gave me something to think about.

The second case was a woman, perhaps 35, who had borne four children, all in what she described as easy labors. At the birth of her fifth she declined anesthesia, chatted casually with doctor and nurse throughout labor, pausing at intervals to work, bear down on labor, bore an 8-pound baby between laughs, so to speak, and three days later was out wheeling her baby up and down the street.

I can't understand it, not having had a baby, but I'm pretty sure of one thing—that I'm sorry for the poor untutored creature who prefers to go to the hospital, have an anesthetic and, when she wakes up, find it's all over. I'm sorry for her baby, too—if the baby survives. Such a woman doesn't know and probably will not learn that in natural childbirth the woman herself decides when or if she shall have an anesthetic.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Voice of the People

'Democracy Stumbles, but Never Defeated'

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

I just read your letter, Mr. Billings, in the Voice of the People. First let me tell you that democracy has never been and never will be defeated—in this country. Democracy may run into stumbling blocks, but never defeat.

The Negroes, as well as the whites, are going communistic because they are stupid. They are not smart enough to think for themselves, or they would never exchange their freedoms for sure slavery.

If you are so enlightened on this subject, you are aware of the deplorable conditions here in our own state. Very few cities in the South will not allow Negro families to dwell in peace. Start naming cities in our own fair state which have unwritten laws forbiding Negro families from living or even buying a house in that community.

I agree with you on one point. It is time to do something. That something is to clean up our own backyard and then go South.

It is not the Southern Bigots who are ruining our foreign policy. It is you and I, as voters, for we put the officials in office.

'Weather We Get Is Just Average'

One wonders why there has been so much concern about the weather in this city daily.

It is easy enough to read the interesting articles in your paper on what the weather holds in store and usually the forecasts are correct. Often I am astonished at their accuracy. The articles make pleasant reading.

But once having digested the facts, there is no more need for concern. Then, too, when the reports for the entire month are issued by the Weather Bureau, it turns out that most weather in this city is average weather. The trouble is that too many people remember merely last year and think that the weather this year should follow the same pattern. Nothing could be further from the truth.

Japan Resumes Treaty Negotiations With Russia

By JOHN H. MARTIN

Japan resumes peace treaty negotiations with the Soviet Union this week with limited bargaining power.

Russia holds some strong cards —the fact it is holding Japanese prisoners in the Soviet Union, the fishery agreement concluded earlier this year and the veto over Japan's admission to the United Nations.

Moscow has made it clear that it will repatriate the Japanese detainees, implement the fishery agreement and abandon its U.N. veto against Japan only after the conclusion of a peace treaty.

A major obstacle to any agreemen still is the territorial dispute. In the London negotiations which were adjourned last March 21 most all articles of a draft treaty were completed, but the talks broke down when Japan demanded that Moscow return Etorofu and Kunashiri islands in the Kuriles.

Japan also demanded that Russia give up Shikotan and Habomai island off Hokkaido.

CLAIMS ISLANDS

Tokyo also claimed the North Kuriles and South Sakhalin, but agreed that since under the San Francisco peace treaty Japan had renounced claims over those territories the issue should be referred to a conference of the wartime allied powers.

Russia agreed to return Shikotan and Habomai but insisted that the rest was Russian territory.

Foreign Minister Mamoru Shigemitsu heads the Japanese delegation, and before he left Tokyo he said he expected some kind of agreement with Russia by the end of September.

For domestic political reasons Shigemitus is working under a short halter.

He received much support from public and political sections just before he left Tokyo. Leading business groups eager to do business behind the Bamboo and Iron Curtains encouraged his delegation.

He got support from the opposition Socialists and from among his own Liberal Democratic party leaders.

Yet, Shigemitusus apparently knows his party's future and his own are at stake because if the new round of talks collapse it will be a hard blow to the government.

POLITICAL OBSECURITY

With this domestic political pressure on him have been suggestions in Tokyo that he might produce something less than a formal peace treaty rather than face the prospect of returning home empty-handed and going into political eclipse.

If he is unable to work out a full peace draft with the Soviets, it has been reported he might produce some provisional agreement whereby the tough territorial issue would be shelved while Japan would restore diplomatic relations with Russia in return for Soviet release of prisoners and implementation of the fisheries pact.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Identity Secret in Letter to Crane

Dr. Howard raises a point that has been proved many times in a nationwide check of the mail from newspapers. Why do you readers suppose there is less input of letter to me from cities under 50,000 than from those much above that population? It isn't because the readership polls show any less interest in my column. And these problems perplex people alike, regardless of the size of their cities.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case S-327: Dr. Howard is a tactful physician in a city of about 25,000 people.

"Dr. Crane, one of my patients came in yesterday and asked me to do her a favor.

"She wants a copy of your booklet- 'Sex Problems in Marriage,' but she hesitates to write to our local newspaper for it.

"For she says she knows many of the employes who work there and she feels embarrassed about their possibly learning of her request.

"In cases like this, why couldn't patients write in care of some other newspaper in a different city?

"I am sure far more people in the smaller towns would avail themselves of your scientific booklets if they could feel positive the local folks would not know about their requests.

"In my practice, I keep a supply of your booklets on hand and use them to save me the time I would otherwise need to spend tutoring each one individually on such matters.

"I'm sure many of your medical colleagues follow my example, too, for at our county Medical Society last month, several doctors at my table said they were following my plan regarding your printed aids."

DR. HOWARD'S ADVICE

Through the years I have noticed this same problem which Dr. Howard describes.

The mail input is proportionately much higher from larger cities than from smaller ones.

Many folks from the smaller cities have written to explain that they hesitate to ask for booklets via their local newspaper lest somebody on the staff recognize their requests and embarrass them.

It may help reassure you readers to know that the newspaper forwards the mail to me unopened. It enjoys what in law is called the benefit of "privileged communication."

So if you will use a plain outside envelope, then your identity will not be revealed to anybody locally.

In fact, you can also enclose a plain, stamped return envelope so even your postman will not realize your mail is coming from me.

Editors are operating this column primarily as a helpful educational aid in the field of clinical psychology and family relations.

Often the more detailed advice is necessarily reserved for a booklet on the subject, so the mail service is an educational by-product.

DONORS, PLEASE NOTE

Some 1,500 clergymen write to me every year, and so do thousands of physicians, dentists and other professional men.

Often they follow Dr. Howard's plan and order a supply of the booklets which their patients or parishioners like best. Then they pass them along in their counseling.

Many doctors have found that one of these simple medico-psychological booklets saves them 15 to 30 minutes of valuable time which they'd otherwise need to tutor each patient.

If they charged an adequate fee for that valuable time, the patients would likely protest, so many tactful doctors save themselves much time and benefit their patients by following the policy that Dr. Howard outlines.

These booklets are purely a non-profit service. I don't receive a penny from any of them, nor does your newspaper or the Newspaper Syndicate.

The 20 cent charge doesn't quite meet the paper, printing and labor costs, but it just about reaches the break-even point at present.

If you wish to aid your clergyman, moreover, why not furnish him a supply of some of these Marriage Tests and Sex Booklets to speed up his exhaustive family counseling?

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

5 Dems Seek Representative Nomination

This is the seventh of eight articles on Oakland County candidates for local, state and national offices in the August 7 primary election. Previous articles have reviewed Republican and Democratic candidates for county offices, the county's six state representative posts, and state senator.

Five Democratic candidates are competing for nomination to run in the Nov. 4 election for U. S. Representative from Oakland County, Michigan's 18th Congressional district.

Congressman George A. Dondero, who has represented the 18th District for 24 years, is retiring this year.

Brief biographies of the candidates follow.

Davis, a graduate of Alma College and Detroit College of Law, has practiced in Royal Oak since 1934.

He was appointed N. S. Postmaster in Royal Oak in 1934, but has not been prominently identified with Democratic activities since he retired from the post in 1942.

He has served two years on the Hazel Park School Board and three years on the Oakland County Board of Supervisors.

Married, he has two children.

PAUL SUTTON

In the race for the second time, Paul Sutton, 45, of Royal Oak, is a fleet sales director for a truck firm. He won the Democratic nomination in 1954 but lost to incumbent Congressman George A. Dondero.

Sutton, active in the party since 1927, is a past chairman of the Royal Oak City Democratic Committee.

Born in New Mexico, Sutton served in the Army during World War II and has lived in Oakland County since 1951. His professional experience has included the radio, television, newspaper and motion picture industries.

A past commander in the American Legion, Sutton is married and has two children.

He attended Michigan State Normal College at Ypsilanti, majoring in government and physical education and working afternoon as a grinder in a AFL shop.

Unmarred, Ward has appeared locally on television and radio as a singer.

Farmers Stay With the Land

Latest Report Reveals Fewer Ruralites Leave for the Big City

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government today reported fewer farm residents are forsaking rural living to move into the cities.

A report by the Census Bureau and Agriculture Department estimated the farm population last April at 22,257,000. This was a slight increase from the 22,158,000 reported in April, 1955, and marked the second straight year in which a gain occurred.

Farm population reached a low for this decade at 21,890,000 in 1954, declining from 25 million when the latest census was taken in 1950.

However, because of the rapid growth of the nation's total population, the proportion of farm residents to the over-all total continued to decline.

Last April farm residence made a 13.3 per cent of the total population of 167,440,000. In April, 1950, the farm population was 16.6 per cent of the over-all total of 151,132,000.

The two agencies said this decline represents a continuation of a longtime trend. One in three of the nation's population lived on farms in 1910 compared with one in seven now.

This general downward trend was broken only during the depression years and briefly after the end of World War II.

High Salary Scales Within Industry Entice Resignations of Air Force Men

NEW YORK—Lt. Gen. Emmett "Rosy" O'Donnell, personnel chief of the Air Force, today warned that our national defense is threatened because the Air force is "faced with a turnover of roughly one-fourth of our people each year."

In an exclusive copyrighted article in the current issue of a new national magazine, General O'Donnell further stated that, "In terms of hard cash, we estimate it will cost . . . taxpayers more than two billion dollars to replace our manpower losses this year."

"The thing that really hurts," declared the Air Force general, "is the cold fact that every time a combat-ready pilot or skilled technician leaves the service, we lose in terms of our defense potential."

However, General O'Donnell emphasized that, "We are combat-ready and we have the best Air Force in the world. But we're ready because our career people put in long hours working, supervising and teaching the young airmen who come and go at too rapid a rate."

CALLS IT THREAT

The Air Force general also deplored statements by men who hold "high official position" about guided missiles replacing our Air Force as we know it today. He called such talk "a real threat to the security of the United States." General O'Donnell pointed out that because of the "limitations" of guided missiles "the backbone of America's first-line fighting force is today, tomorrow and for a considerable time in the future, the manned airplane. Pilots and combat crews are here to stay, even should we be successful in the development of reliable and accurate missiles."

"Where we should have master sergeants and technical sergeants crewing our milti-million dollar airplanes," said General O'Donnell "we often find youngsters with two or three stripes and with but two or three years service."

General O'Donnell expressed concern over the fact that last year the Air Force lost approximately 200,000 airmen out of a total strength of slightly more than 800,000. He said, "Over 80 per cent of our losses last year were at the skilled technician level. These people were not only capable of performing the many complex jobs which support our modern weapons system; they also provided the source from which our supervisory personnel must be obtained."

"One reason we can't keep these highly trained people is the beckoning finger of private industry," declared the Air Force's personnel chief. "They believe they can earn more on the outside doing essentially the same jobs for which they were trained in the Air Force."

Gen. O'Donnell compared the Air Force with a commercial concern. The general stated that the Air Force's product "is the defense of our country. If we go out of business we're licked. If our business is cut down, there's a good chance we'll be ineffective when the chips are down. We have to stay in business because our product and the dividends reaped from it hit directly at the survival of every last American."

Talking in terms of the future, General O'Donnell said, "The fighting arm of the Air Force ultimately will be composed exclusively of officers. They'll be men who are triple-threats—men who can pilot, navigate, bomb and handle all sorts of additional jobs in the air with accuracy and safety . . . Leading them and supporting them will be combat-experienced command and staff officers—men capable of making hard and right decisions in the air or on the ground. And we'll need the right decisions if we ever go to war!"

Roads of No Return

COVINGTON, Ky. (AP)—There are three roads of no return for employes of the Kentucky Highway Department. Padding the expense account, joy riding in state automobiles and the use of state materials to build private roadways all lead to immediate dismissal, says Deputy Highway Commissioner Martin Petty. And he told the meeting here of highway engineers, foremen and maintenance supervisors "no Joe Blow will get your job back for you."

Consumer Prices Cut, Soviet Minister Says

LONDON (AP)—The Moscow radio quoted the deputy trade minister today as saying prices will be reduced immediately on a variety of Soviet consumer goods.

Items such as cigarettes, toys, vacuum cleaners, cameras, television sets, fabrics and pleasure boats were mentioned.

The broadcast said prices of certain staple fabrics will be cut by up to 20 per cent and those of higher grade cigarettes by up to 30 per cent. Television sets will be reduced and other goods will be "considerably cheaper," it was announced.

Present prices were not given.

He Who Laughs Last—

HILLSDALE (AP) — Two men giggled themselves back to jail before irate Circuit Judge Charles O. Arch. Paul Russell, 22, of Coldwater, accused of felonious driving, and Howard Clevenger, 34, of Jonesville, charged with larceny by conversion, asked to have their court date moved up so they could plead guilty. But they laughed and snickered while making their pleas. The angered Judge ordered them back behind bars to await the October term of court.

Woman Goes to Jail —Tossing Bible to Mom

LONG BEACH, Calif. (INS) — Sixty-six-year-old Mrs. Ada Leslie Walter was sentenced to 30 days in jail for beating her 95-year-old mother with a Bible.

Mrs. Walter pleaded guilty to battery yesterday but insisted the bruises on the aged woman were from a fall in the bathtub and not from the heavy Bible.

She said:

"We were discussing religion. I merely tossed the Bible in her direction."

Court Ruling Cuts Up Whittling Romeo, 16

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS) — The sympathies of all decent love-fearing people must go out today to Barry J. Chesner, 16, who is batty about, and broke because of, a blonde named Dolores.

He has just been charged $5 in Brooklyn Magistrate's Court for defacing the trunk of a modest maple tree by whittling, thereupon, the words "I Love Dolores."

Barry is more cut up than the tree. Not only does he now possess a court record — which is hard for a lovable blonde to understand — but he cannot afford to woo her with so much as a Tootsie Roll. One might well ask the magistrate:

Is it not difficult enough to be caught in the throes of "first love" without having to pay for it in cash? For as you yourself know, judge, "first love" is something nearly everyone pays for in frustration the rest of his natural life.

LIKE BAD GRADES

It is a wrenching, tearing act of emotionalism which, at the time it is being suffered, is fully as excruciating as the first C on a report card. Possibly even more so.

Fortunately for the victim (and his grades) it usually is forgotten temporarily upon the jubilant impact of a lesser chaos called "second love."

But long afterwards, as the loves and the lover grow more complex, the "first" one comes back to roost in the soft spot of the memory. This is the portion of the libido that harbors the smell of autumn, the taste of lemon drops, the sound of trains in the night, and whatnot. And into this gentle resting place, ready to pop out and sadden a man when the world gets fouled up, is the vision of pink-cheeked Emily with unpolished fingernails.

"I wonder," muses Joe to himself when the scent of fall is in the air and the small ones, screaming, are being put to bed, "whatever became of Emily. My first and finest love." Then, since there are no lemon drops about, he may take out a beer and brood a little.

For a woman, first love is the same haunting thing. Except that, being the more voluble sex, she sometimes brings it up vocally and gets it out of her system for the moment.

"Jim," she tells Joe wistfully, "used to bring me flowers." She doesn't mention what kind, and from whose garden they were sneaked, because after 20 or 30 years a woman forgets sordid details. Besides, there's no point killing a good sentimental nag.

NEVER AGAIN MEET

Luckily, very few of us meet head-on our first loves. They may be fascinating persons now, more beautiful with growth and more noble with maturity, and yet — except in freak cases of stunted development — they are not the lovable little creatures we would gladly have dived off the 10-foot board into a waterless pool to impress.

Thus, since we rarely discover Jim has lost his hair and Emily has gained 75 pounds, we are everlastingly tortured by that morsel of perfection which for a brief while we held. (Though not very tightly, except when dancing.)

Barry Chesner has all this to look forward to. He will pay his debt to society in lifelong memories of this 14-year-old blonde. Is it fair he should also pay cash?

Ah, love! Ah, Dolores! Ah—ah, judge. . .

Reject Proposal to End British Military Service

LONDON (AP)—A proposal to end the drafting of young Britons for two years of military service has been rejected by the House of Commons 308-240.

Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd was reported to have denied that Britain plans to make large-scale troop cuts as an economy move.

'For Identification, Judge'

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Henry A. Sell said he did it just "so I could tell the cat from the other cats." What Municipal Court Judge Peter B. Muir didn't like was the manner of identification. He fined Sell $25 on a cruelty-to-animals charge for cutting off the cat's tail with a butcher knife. Sell, 52, also was fined $20 for drunkenness.

Gas Fire Draws Blast From Marshall

A gasoline flash fire in the basement of a Pontiac home was followed yesterday by a verbal blast from the Fire Marshal's office.

Marshal Charles Metz warned against careless use of gasoline and announced stricter enforcement of regulations at gas stations.

The $1,200 fire Monday afternoon was caused when the pilot light of a water heater ignited gasoline fumes, Metz said.

It occurred at the home of Peter F. Prokopchuk, 454 Third Ave., where gasoline was being used to remove asphalt paste on the basement floor.

Metz termed such practice, "near-suicidal."

"Few people realize that gasoline, when in a gaseous state, is classified among the high order of explosives.

POWERFUL DYNAMITE

"One gallon, completely vaporized, equals the destructive force of 65 pounds of dynamite," Metz stated.

When gasoline is left in open cans, or is used freely as in the Prokopchuk home, it evaporates, Metz explained, filling the air with fumes.

If only five per cent of the air is composed of the fumes, he said, a single spark can set off the blast.

Not only did Metz repeat that the law authorizes gasoline to be carried only in red containers, he also announced a campaign urged by the State Fire Marshal's office to crack down on gas stations.

"The Fire Marshal has heard that some station owners in Pontiac are using an illegal device on their gas pumps," Metz said.

The device is a lock which keeps gas flowing through the hose into the tank of automobiles, even while the attendant is not present.

SLOPS OVER CAR

Another device supposedly stops the flow when the tanks are full. Sometimes these don't work, Metz said, and gasoline slops on to the car and the ground as the source for a possible explosion.

The law says nothing about the stopping device, Metz said, but the lock is "strictly illegal" under inflammable liquids statutes.

It is located at the nozzle. Metz threatened that arrests will be made if the practice continues.

Be Careful in Niles!

NILES (AP)—The Police department will start making arrests today with the aid of a radar-equipped station wagon. The car has been in operation nearly two months to acquaint motorists with its use.

Bob Considine Says:

They Just Don't Treat Our Engineers Right

NEW YORK (INS)—That bad penny, or shortage of engineers, has turned up again. We had a piece about it recently.

* * *

"Why should a boy work as hard as he must work to become an engineer and then wind up paying taxes to help Tito?" an irate lady from Los Angeles demands.

A Pittsburgh mother declares:

"In order to graduate, the average engineering student puts in four tremendously difficult years of study. There is no question about getting a job. But the very companies that complain so much about the shortage of young engineers pay them $350 a month. Office boys command almost that much today. That is reason No. 1 for our engineer shortage, and why Russia is going ahead of us in that field. When parents spend about $5,000, and sometimes much more than that, for a son's education they have a right to expect a more promising start when the boy goes out into his field.

"Reason No. 2—The military men appear to have only the faintest possible interest in utilizing the engineering training of graduate engineers who are drafted. It seems to me that they criminally neglect to do so. The engineer-draftee loses two years instead of gaining two years of experience that would be valuable to him and to his country.

"The engineer, after two years of service that has nothing to do with what he has been trained to do, comes out and finds he must start at the beginning again. My son has been the victim of this ordeal, but if my complaint is heeded it at least might help the coming engineer."

Dr. Joseph F. McCarthy, veteran teacher in several New York medical schools, writes:

"Recently in collaboration with Dr. Elmer Hess, past president of the American Medical Association, we have formulated a thesis which has been presented to President Eisenhower for study.

"Our thought is that the government underwrite the post-high school technological education of needy high school students, not on the basis of charity or a 'hand-out' but with the understanding that at the conclusion of the assistance the beneficiary would be available for government work in his field for two or three years after his graduation."

Russia is breeding engineers right and left; building up an elite corps of citizens far more privileged than the average Russian professional.

OTHER OPINIONS

A piece here about the accidental electrocution on Eniwetok of the Army sergeant who served as the hangman after the Nuremburg trials prompts John J. Iago of Baltimore to write:

"What has always griped me about Nuremburg is that any really valid and legitimate reason the U.S. could have had to hang a man like Von Ribbentrop as an equally valid and legitimate reason for hanging Molotov. If Von Ribbentrop was a war criminal (and I think he was), so was Molotov. The Second World War was triggered by the deal which those two concocted and which created a partnership between the Fascist regime in Germany and the Communist regime in Russia . . . After 1941 I don't think that any American should ever have shared a platform with Molotov except for the purpose of springing the trap on the occasion of his execution."

Might as well end this with another quote from the mail. Little Stephen Barbaro, son of Lou Barbaro, popular golf pro at the Hollywood Club in Deal, N. J., has sent the following postcard from camp to his brother and sister:

"Dear Louie—I am having a wonderful time. I miss you and Chrissie very much. If you have gone into my room and messed it up I will kill you. Love—Steve."

Jericho, Biblical town 15 miles northeast of Jerusalem, is 3,500 feet lower than the Holy City and 840 feet above sea level.

Boy Reaches 23 but Can't Vote

Switching of Residences Has Made Him 'Man Without a State'

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — A 23-year-old Calvin College student, who hoped to vote this year for the first time in a presidential election, has learned he is "a man without a state."

Alvin Vandyken has lived in Washington, Georgia and Michigan since 1950, but cannot claim residence in any of the three states for voting purposes.

He lived in Lynden, Wash., until 1951 when he entered Calvin.

After two years Vandyken joined the Army, serving at Camp Gordon, Ga. Last year he returned to Calvin to continue his business administration course.

Deputy City Clerk Stanley Smolenski explained that Vandyken's residence of one year did not legally count because the Michigan constitution states that time spent in the state as a student shall not count toward legal residence.

"Legend has it," Smolenski adds, "that long ago, students at the University of Michigan controlled Ann Arbor government and even ordered sidewalks to be built in the county. So now students in the state neither gain nor lose residence."

Washington State also excludes Vandyken from its voter roster.

A notice from its state superintendent of elections explained:

"The fact that you attempted to register for voting in Grand Rapids leads us to believe that the State of Michigan is now your intended domicile. If this is an accurate evaluation of your situation then you do temporarily fall in the category of "a man without a state."

Sheet Metal Veep Dies

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—John E. Behler, vice president of the Behler-Young Co., dealers in sheet metal supplies, died Monday at his home. He was 64 and helped found the company in 1927.

Northern Counties Begin Anti-Ragweed Campaign

TRAVERSE CITY (AP) — The annual drive to eradicate ragweed from Grand Traverse and Leelanau Counties found hundreds of school children ready for prize winning efforts.

Chambers of Commerce and area garden clubs have offered prizes totaling $200, plus theater tickets and plane rides to youngsters who bring in the biggest lots of the noxious weed during the August campaign.

Last year pickers stacked up 21 tons of the weed whose pollen causes misery for hay fever sufferers.

Only harmful spider in the United States is the black widow.

In Coma Two Years

HART (AP) — Richard A. Bailey, 21, in a coma more than two years following an auto accident, died Monday at Oceana Convalescent Hospital.

Bailey, of Hart, never regained consciousness after he was injured, May, 1954, in the crash north of Pentwater.

A Message to the Clear-Thinking Voters

OF OAKLAND COUNTY

From Friends of

FRED ELIAS

Democratic Candidate for State Senator, Oakland County, in the August 7th primary.

What kind of a man do you want to represent you in Lansing? Sending a representative who does not understand the unique problems of both a highly industrialized area and a fertile farm region, is like sending a boy to do a man's job!

As a long-time resident of this area, Fred Elias, a successful business man, is the kind of legislator Michigan needs to restore sanity and good common sense at Lansing. Oakland County wants a man who will support Gov. Williams' programs. It wants a man with ideas and the fortitude to back them up. It wants a man who will work for and introduce measures to help ALL the people of Oakland County. It wants and needs a man with a background of courage and ability; a man who understands the businessman's approach as well as the worker's needs and wishes; a man who became successful and respected in his home community.

Oakland County needs a fair man, an honest man, a capable man, and the man is

Hal Boyle Asks:

Will a Front Porch Campaign Win Votes?

NEW YORK (AP)—Politicians today are divided on the importance of "whistle-stop" tours in an election campaign.

It is important, of course, for a candidate to "get out and meet the folks." But just how important is it in an age when the candidates, via television, can come into three out of every four American living rooms?

Political leaders of both parties may be missing a bet in not reviving the old-fashioned front porch campaign. It has been notably successful in the past in electing presidents — particularly dignified looking Republican candidates whose themes were prosperity.

The Cleveland Plain Dealer recently recalled the famous front porch victories won by William McKinley and Warren G. Harding.

In an earlier contest William Harrison, Whig victor in 1840, wasn't content to rely on his front porch—he used the whole house. Harrison, who died at 68 a month after taking office, was proud of being born in a log cabin.

So horse-drawn log cabins were featured in numerous of his political parades, and these symbols of his modest beginnings helped put him in office.

In 1896 McKinley conducted a front porch campaign from his Canton, Ohio, home on the advice of his mentor, Mark Hanna—helped organize delegations of distinguished visitors to the distinguished candidate, with the Republican party picking up the tab for many of their fares.

While resting his feet, McKinley was unsparing of his vocal cords. From his front porch he sometimes made as many as 20 speeches in 24 hours on the virtues of "a full dinner pail."

His Democratic opponent, William Jennings Bryan, the silver-tongued orator, spoke 600 times in 29 states. He got the crowds—McKinley got the votes.

In 1920 Harding campaigned from his front porch at Marion, Ohio, telling the awestruck political pilgrims who chanced that way that what the country needed was 'a return to normalcy." Gov. James M. Cox, his Democratic rival, made a whirlwind whistle-stop tour. But when the votes were counted the verdict was—for the front porch and normalcy.

Could a front porch campaign win today? The growth of mass communications would seem to make it simpler than ever for a candidate to sit at home, sip lemonade and roll up a tidal wave of ballots.

He could, under the eye of the TV cameras, add such folksy touches—such as strolling out to the barbecue grill in his yard and showing the nation's housewives his skill at broiling hamburgers. Even in prosperity a candidate might not want his picture taken in an election year while cooking a juicy steak.

The front porch technique offers one big advantage to the Democrats. It would save them the expense of renting a campaign train. Its disadvantage is this: The best known front porch in the Democratic party is that on Harry Truman's big, old, roomy home in Independence, Mo. — but Harry says he isn't available himself. Do any of the announced Democratic candidates really have a suitable front porch? That could be a problem.

The most famous porch in the nation is the controversial one on the White House, built on order of ex-President Truman himself after a bitter controversy.

It would be an odd political irony if President Eisenhower, switching to the tradition of McKinley and Harding, should use that porch as a platform for a successful second term.

Actually, the porch is on the rear of the White House, but who'd care about that?

East Zone Reds Apologize to Comrades in Yugoslavia

BERLIN (INS)—The East German Communist Party "rehabilitated" some old comrades yesterday, apologized to Yugoslav Reds for past lies, and fell into step with the new Moscow line attacking Stalin.

One of the old comrades restored to grace was Franz Dahlem. He was a Politburo member expelled from the party after the 1951 trial and execution of Czechoslovakian Party Leader Rudolf Slansky on "Titoist" charges.

The East German newspaper Neues Deutschland said the party apologized for its "false accusations" against Yugoslav Communists after the 1948 Moscow-Belgrade split.

The 10,000-word resolution of the party's Central Committee acknowledged "wavering attitudes," especially among university students, as a result of the abolition of the "personality cult," a reference to the one-man rule of Stalin.

INITIATIVE PARALYZED

The resolution referred to "Stalin's failures," and said the past policy of worshiping the cult of Stalin had paralyzed personal initiative and objective studies of social problems being tackled in East Germany.

On the question of German reunification the party as usual attacked West German Konrad Adenauer's regime and said the country could not be reunited until "peaceful and democratic forces" defeat Adenauer's Christian Democratic Party in West Germany.

Stassen to Attend Convention as Guest

WASHINGTON (INS)—Republican National Chairman Leonard K. Hall has announced that Harold E. Stassen will be invited to attend the GOP Convention in San Francisco as a guest.

Hall also declared he is willing to take any action necessary to permit the nomination of Massachusetts Gov. Christian A. Herter for vice president on the Republican ticket.

Stassen is not a delegate to the convention. He begins a four-week "political vacation tomorrow to pursue his activities on behalf of Herter as the 1956 running mate for President Eisenhower.

Israel to Have Subway

HAIFA, Israel — A $3,500,000 contract has been let to a French company for the building of a subway from the lower town of Haifa to Mount Carmel, Israel's first underground railway. It is to be completed in 1958.

To Begin New Jail

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Finance committeemen have announced that construction on the new $1,600,000 Kent County Jail is expected to begin by mid-August on a 30-acre site immediately adjoining the city's Eastern limits. The County Board of Supervisors will be asked Wednesday to approve hiring of contractors.

The Blonde Cried MURDER

By Brett Halliday

XXIX

Shayne got up and began to pace the floor.

"I told you that he said her name was Nellie Paulson. The man with the scar. She didn't give any name to me. I hadn't got around to that when he came bursting in and she locked herself in the kitchen. Naturally, I believed him," groaned Shayne. "His story about chasing her down the back stairs of the Hibiscus coincided with her story, so I accepted the name he gave her."

"But we know from the Jacksonville description of Paulson that he was lying about being Nellie Paulson's brother," barked Gentry.

"He isn't Barnes," said Shayne flatly. "At least he isn't the man registered at the Roney as Barnes." He dropped into a chair and stretched his long legs out wearily.

"If the dead man is Barnes—and I'm beginning to think he is—then it looks as though the girl who talked to me must be his sister Mary. Don't you see how it hangs together? She said her brother had called her from the Hibiscus tonight to come and get him out of a jam. What kind of jam does it look as though he might have been in?

"The old badger game, of course. With Miss Nellie Paulson of room 316 in the Hibiscus. But something happens before Mary gets there to help him out. A knife in his throat, no less. And Mary walks in before they have time to get rid of the body. She takes one look at her brother, and runs to use the phone in 360. By the time she gets back, his body has gone out the window. Then scar-face jumps her and she runs to me. And then runs away from me when he follows her there."

"To Lucy's apartment," said Gentry sharply. "With a note from you."

Shayne stared at him queerly and reached for the phone.

He gave Lucy's number and waited. Again, the telephone rang several times before Lucy answered. And again her voice sounded strained when she said, "Yes?"

"Mike, angel. Did the girl who brought the note from me tell what her name was?"

"Why—you told me, Michael. When you called me on the phone before she got here. You said Nellie Paulson would be along."

"I know I did," he interrupted harshly. "But now I'm asking you if she corroborated that."

"I'm trying to think. N-No. not directly, I think. I just assumed from what you said that—"

"I know," said Shayne wearily. "'Bye." He hung up and told Gentry, "She didn't say anything to Lucy that proves it either way. I've had a feeling about her—that she didn't fit into the badger game technique—"

"Then why did the scar-faced man positively identify her as Nellie Paulson?"

WHERE?

"Don't forget that we now know he isn't Paulson," Shayne objected. "He doesn't fit the Jax police description. So maybe he didn't even know Nellie by sight. Maybe that's why he thought the girl who ran out of 316 was Nellie. If he knew Nellie had that room—went up there looking for her and saw a blonde girl running out, he'd assume she was Nellie. Now we're beginning to get somewhere."

"Where?" demanded Gentry.

"I don't know for sure." Shayne's grin was wryly abashed. "But the girl's story all falls into place if you accept her as Mary Barnes instead of Paulson. I had a feeling from the beginning she was telling me the truth and wasn't half as crazy as Nellie Paulson was supposed to be."

"So now everything's just perfect since—you decided your judgment of her wasn't at fault."

"Everything's perfectly wrong," snapped Shayne. "I wasn't half as worried when I thought scar-face was hunting Nellie Paulson with a gun. Girls who pull stunts like her badger game deserve whatever they get. But if it's Mary Barnes he's after? Why don't your men pick him up, Will?" While you're blaming the Force, Mike, don't forget it was you who failed to make sure she'd stay put at Lucy's when you had the chance."

11:34 P.M.

Patrolman Cassidy's beat was Miami's Bayfront Park. He walked the winding, palm-shaded paths in steady strides, chin up and eyes alert for any sort of mischief a policeman should put a stop to.

He was passing the bench without noticing the figure huddled on it when the toe of his shoe struck something in the path. There was a tinkling sound in the gravel off to the side where his foot had kicked the object, and he stopped and thumbed his flash on to turn a circle of light downward.

The beam first picked out a gold lip-stick and then a small hand mirror. Beyond them lay a lady's handback, gaping open. He swung the light back swiftly and something gleamed wetly on the edge of the path beneath a bench.

The beam came up and he saw the girl lying there. The pallid face and sightless eyes, the gapping wound in her soft throat from which the red wetness beneath the bench had come.

He stood stricken and unable to move for at least 20 seconds. Then he plunged headlong toward the call-box under the street light.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP) — To prove his love for a Colorado College coed, Michael F. Cusack of Fort Worth, Tex., ran his fist through the glass door of his college dormitory. Police said the unidentified coed, who witnessed the incident, wasn't convinced. Neither was the college's dean of men. He handed Cusack a bill for the damage. And the young student was taken to a local hospital suffering severe hand and wrist cuts.

Morality Pays Off for Heirs Who Pass Quiz

SEDALIA, Mo. (AP) — Attorneys handling the estate of Mrs. Kate E. Landes sent out 500 questionnaires to 19 heirs.

Smoke?
Drink?
Belong to a church?
Go to Church or Sunday school every Sunday?

Mrs. Landes left $500 apiece to 17 nieces and nephews and two friends if they have the right answers ("no" to the first two questions and "yes" to the others).

Three have answered satisfactorily and certified they are eligible for the $500.

Twelve others replied variously, some of them declining to claim the money.

Two haven't been heard from at all.

And a lawyer for the other two, legally dotting every "I" and crossing ever "T," responded in their behalf:

"Eligible unless that portion of Article IV of the will which provides 'nor drink' should be interpreted to include the consumption of water and other nonalcoholic beverage."

Let your family have plenty of cold fruit drinks in the summer — but make sure that these beverages are not replacing milk.

SAFETY ETCHING — George A. Miller, research chemist for Diamond Alkali Company at Painesville, Ohio, is glad he wears his plastic safety hood at work. While he performed a hot separation of strong sulfuric acid and other chemicals in a glass flask, something went wrong. The flask exploded and the searing acid sprayed directly into his face. As seen above, his shield was deeply etched by the acid, but his eyes and face were uninjured.

Burma Pushes for Exit of Reds

No New Advances by Commies Reported, but Clashes Still Brewing

RANGOON, Burma (AP) — Burma today pressed Communist China to withdraw Red troops which military sources say have occupied about 1,000 square miles of Burmese territory.

There were no reports of new advances. Clashes with Burmese forces and some casualties were said to have occurred when the Chinese units moved up to 60 miles at various points into Burma's northern territory.

A government spokesman said Burma was "seriously concerned" about the moves along the northeast border and had brought the situation to the attention of the Peiping government.

"Negotiations are now in progress with a view to the withdrawal of these Chinese troops to the Chinese side of the border," a Foreign Office statement said.

There was no accurate count of the strength of the Chinese force, but estimates here put the total at not less than 500 troops. Chinese patrols have crossed Burma's border in small numbers in the past, but have withdrawn after Burmese protests. The Chinese Communists have blamed these incidents on errors of local commanders along the poorly defined border.

* * *

Military sources said Chinese and Burmese troops now were facing each other across a 200-yard strip at many points in the mountainous area about 100 miles east of Lashio.

Premier Ba Swe and other top officials continued to confer with military leaders on the situation.

Concern was expressed in Manila, where Philippine Vice President Carlos P. Garcia said the developments deserve the "conscientious attention of SEATO countries." Neutralist Burma has opposed the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization, but Garcia pointed out that Burma "is located on the fringes of the SEATO area." The Manila Bulletin said the Red penetration affects "the security of the entire area in which the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization operates."

Bergman May Return to Hollywood Filming

By EARL WILSON

LONDON—"It could be," said Ingrid Bergman—thin and beautiful in a queenly white Balenciaga gown—that she'll be back in Hollywood in a few months . . . for the first time in seven years.

"I'm not afraid of coming back!" The voice of the great star who gave up Hollywood in August 1949 for Roberto Rossellini was calm, steady and decisive.

Out at Elistree Studios, she's filming "Anastasia" along with Yul Brynner and Helen Hayes.

Her contract says she must return to Hollywood for retakes or dubbing if 20th Century-Fox wishes it.

"I would come back in case it is necessary for the picture," Ingrid told me. "It could be that I will be back."

INGRID B.

Studio executives say she'll almost positively be back, maybe in October, maybe in December. They forecast an enormous welcome. The report she'd go to New York first for an Ed Sullivan TV show was, she told me, "a misunderstanding."

I found Ingrid in good humor. She called the latest rumor of a bustup with Roberto "cockeyed . . . completely cockeyed."

This still-great beauty, the mother of four, is very busy in Europe. After this picture, she rejoins Robertino, 6, and the twins, 4, in Italy, then does "Tea and Sympathy" in French on the Paris stage.

"I'm a working woman," she said. "Saturdays and Sundays I work on my French. The rest of the week I work on English."

She looked up at the hot lights. "And here I melt. It's lunacy to work in the summer. Every day I pray to God it'll rain so we'll at least be cool."

Practically every year since she's told me she wasn't ready to go back . . . but seven years is a long time . . . the hostility has waned if not disappeared . . . she no longer has any real fears.

Ingrid said if she comes back to do American TV she'll have had the experience of seeing Italy's "500,000 Lira Question" which is so popular that both movies and plays stop while it's on the air—and if you ask a waiter for a cup of espresso, he snarls at you to be quiet till the program's over.

I walked back to the set with her and saw Anatole Litvak lead her and Brynner through a scene.

"See you again in a few months," I said. "Probably in America the next time."

And I thought she seemed real happy about the idea.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL IN N.Y. . . .

Jayne Mansfield's mother told Dallas newsman Tony Zoppi that Jayne doesn't pose for cheesecake photos: "The cameramen sneak up on her and take those pictures when she isn't looking!"

Jack Carter's taking wonder drugs, hoping to escape a throat operation . . . Audrey Meadows returns to town this month to record with sister Jayne . . . El Morocco duo: Greg Bautzer and the missus, Dana Wynter . . . Vaughn Monroe will sing at both political conventions . . . Joyce Miles, a Marilyn Monroeish blonde singer, is getting the big buildup—five magazines will feature her pictures.

Edith Fellows, a kid star not too long ago, is auditioning for the Mammy Yokum role in "Li'l Abner" . . . Rita Hayworth renamed her various companies: "Hayworth Productions' . . . Because of the ship crash publicity, the movie "Titanic" will be re-released . . . Anita Ekberg arrived Monday to plug her film . . . Artie Shaw's reported dating Paulette Goddard in Europe.

Smirnoff Vodka, opening distilleries in Havana and Mexico City, says it now gurgles—no, girdles—the globe.

Mike Todd claims he'll premiere "Around the World" in Moscow Oct. 15. David Niven and Cantinflas accepted . . . Men's style note: Jackets'll be shorter so your legs'll look longer and you'll look taller.

Earl's Pearls . . .

No need to take a civil service exam—to work for the government all you need to know is how to fill out an income tax blank.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: "In the good old days history was made for a tenth of what it costs today."—Burns (Kans.) News.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: Singer Elise Rhodes says she'd like some handsome young man to teach her to play tennis, with no strings attached. That's earl, brother.

Hollywood Headlines

The Pelvis to Make Movie—'The Lonesome Cowboy'

By DOROTHY MANNERS

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — After reading enough scripts, stories and plays to make him woozey, Hal Wallis has at last bought the yarn that brings Elvis Presley to the screen, "The Lonesome Cowboy," Margaret Agnes Thompson's yarn.

With this momentous news for the rock 'n' roll addicts of the Presley cult settled, it can be added that Elvis is due in Hollywood for conferences with Wallis on August 1.

It's about a country boy singer whose records become the rage and he falls into the hands of sharpies, a vaguely familiar theme. Herbert Baker will write the script.

Clear the way, here comes "Pelvis."

Carlos Thompson, good looking Argentinian whose career didn't get off the ground here, is on his way to Europe to co-star with Lilli Palmer in "Beyond Time and Eternity" for Neve Terra Films.

This is the first movie news about Lilli in a long time. While her estranged mate Rex Harrison has been wowing them in "My Fair Lady" on Broadway, Lilli has been appearing on the stage in Europe, but being very quiet.

DUE FOR A BREAK

The picture with Carlos is about a woman married to a wealthy man who, believing she's dying, has an affair she regrets. The locations are Munich and Majorca.

Carlos played Franz Lizst in "Magic Fire" made in Europe last year, and he's due for a break that will make Hollywood producers take notice.

Jerome Cappi, whose "The Immortal City," filmed entirely within the Vatican, will be released worldwide this fall, has paved the way for another big coup—filming the life stories of Michelangelo, Venvenuto Cellini, Raphael, Titian and other great masters for theater, screen and TV.

With John Farrow, Aldous Huxley, Grahame Greene being negotiated to author the screenplays (Farrow to direct three of the classics as well) this is really an artistic triumph.

The Italian government as well as the Vatican had to give permission for this project. William Hebert, just returned from conferences with Cappi in Rome, will represent the American end of the deal.

Frank Sinatra is fast becoming the "Biography Kid," Joe Pasternak's life story (and good, too) "Easy the Hard Way" has been sent to Frank in Spain, Sinatra being Joe's own choice to portray him on the screen.

Nicholas Bordsky and Sammy Cahn have already written a theme song of the title which was also sent to Sinatra.

Point is, when is he going to get time to make it. First up, he has the Joe E. Lewis book, "Joker is Wild" at Paramount. "Then "Pal Joey" with Kim Novak at Columbia. Plus another for his independent company and on and on and on.

Hollywood in shorts: Pier Angeli arrived in New York over the weekend with a sprained wrist from moving furniture. She'll spend a week with Vic Damone before planing to Paris for "The Vintage."

Rock Hudson is the very relaxed possessor of the only king sized bed in all Africa. The management of the Stanley Hotel in Nairobi had it made up for the six foot star and now it's of more value than his "Something of Value."

Lots of fun planned for the first check wagon preview which will be held in the lobby of a valley theater in connection with the showing of 20th's "The Last Wagon." I hear this western starring Richard Widmark is another "Shane."

Natalie Wood, who seems to have the teenagers' gift of falling madly in and out of love, with her new big moment, Nicky Blair at the Oyster House.

Louella reports that Ty Power's car can't be mistaken in London. Has a special license 'TP-1' on it.

Bobby Driscoll's Pal Beats Dope Charge

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A judge has dismissed the narcotics complaint against Lester Ferguson, 20, a friend of actor Bobby Driscoll.

The service station attendant was arrested July 10 by officers who alleged a bag of marijuana was thrown from his car. Driscoll was arrested later at his home but released without any charges being filed. The actor was not in Ferguson's car when police stopped it.

Municipal Judge Leo Freund said he felt Ferguson's rights had been badly handled by police.

"There doesn't seem to be anything to indicate a reason for stopping this car or for a belief there was a crime committed," Judge Freund said.

Man Shoots Niagara Rapids Fourth Time

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y. (AP)—Major Lloyd Hill has completed his fourth trip through the rapids and whirlpool of the lower Niagara River.

The 37-year-old riverman shot the 2½-mile rapids Monday in the same stainless steel barrel he used in 1954.

He spun for 2½ hours in the whirlpool before he floated to slower water where he was able to climb out and swim to shore, towing the barrel.

U.S. Begins Probe of Doria Collision

NEW YORK (AP)—Nine congressman launch the first official U.S. probe of the Andrea Doria disaster today when they inspect the damaged Swedish liner Stockholm at a Brooklyn drydock.

The house ordered the investigation after last week's fatal collision between the Stockholm and the Italian liner Doria. The Doria sank but most of her 1,706 passengers and crewmen escaped. The Stockholm crept back to port here with her bow crushed.

The Italian Line reported that 28 of the 31 passengers it now lists as unaccounted for had cabins at the point on the Doria's starboard side where the Stockholm struck.

Heck, Holy Cross, Mirage, Organ, Pep, Pope, and Rattlesnake are names of communities in New Mexico.

Chicago Police Catch Gunman

Alleged Shotgun Killer of 3 Persons Nabbed Without Struggle

CHICAGO (AP) — Lawrence Neumann, 28, wanted in the shotgun slaying of three persons, was captured today in an alley on Chicago's near West Side.

Neumann was taken without a struggle, police said. Two hundred police surrounded a three-mile-square area searching for the fugitive gunman after two detectives earlier reported exchanging shots with a man they believed was Neumann.

The bespectacled ex-convict eluded police squads for about two hours before a woman resident of the area discovered him crouching on her back porch.

Mrs. Pat Ward, 40, told police she opened the door to let her dog out and saw Neumann. She said he rushed at her, motioning for her to remain quiet. However, she screamed "Who are you, who are you?" and then collapsed, police said.

Neumann attempted to flee but was captured by police who heard Mrs. Ward's cries.

Police said Neumann was wanted for the slaying June 8 of Max Epstein, 50, part owner of a North Side tavern; Mrs. Lois Gates, 27, a dice girl, and John Keller, 49, a news vendor.

Mrs. Gates and Epstein were shot in Epstein's tavern and Keller was shot down when he inadvertently blocked the killer's escape route.

Police said Neumann had been arrested in the tavern May 9 for creating a disturbance and apparently returned to settle a grudge.

Pontiac City Affairs

Action on Bids for New Fire Station Tabled for 2 Weeks by Commission

Further action on construction bids for the new west side fire station, which went $43,000 over the city's estimate when opened Monday, was tabled for two weeks upon the request of City Manager W. K. Willman.

He asked the City Commission last night to delay action in order that he might confer with architect Leo J. Heenan who is recovering in Pontiac General Hospital from a recent operation. Willman informed the commissioners the bids were valid for 30 days.

Heenan, the designer of the city's proposed fifth fire hall, estimated the project would cost approximately $85,000. Tabulation of the three low bids amounted to $128,735.

After business at last night's weekly session was delayed 15 minutes in order to obtain a sparse quorum of four commissioners, Mayor Pro-Tem John A. Dugan gaveled the meeting to order. Mayor William W. Donaldson, Commissioners Floyd P. Miles and Philip E. Rowston were absent.

The commission heard a communication from the Democratic Club of Pontiac urging the commission to vote against a proposed Grand Trunk Railroad industrial support yard in the city's north side.

"MENACE TO HEALTH"

"We feel the siding will be a menace to the health, welfare, and society of the many homes in this area," the communication read in part. It was ordered received and filed.

The commissioners authorized the board of trustees of Pontiac General Hospital to purchase homes at 38 and 42 S. Johnson Ave. for a total of $29,350 to be used for storage during construction of the new addition at the city hospital.

Willman explained that the sites would eventually be used for parking areas for the hospital.

A land contract for lot 64 of the Homestead Park Subdivision No. 1 to Fred H. Teetzel was approved and authorized signed. Teetzel, representing the Economy Welding and Fabricating Co. of Pontiac, submitted the sole bid of $5,200 for the lot at Eastway Drive and Auburn Avenue July 17.

Public hearings will be held Aug. 14 on the following proposed curb, gutter, grade, gravel, and related work projects:

On Clinton River Drive from the easterly line of Robert Herndon's Pontiac Apartment Subdivision to the westerly line of lot 65 in the subdivision.

On Herndon and Selmer Avenues from Orchard Lake Avenue to Clinton River Drive.

Engineer estimates on all three jobs were aired last night by the city clerk. Cost for 40-foot lots will be $160.

Confirmations were established, as well as payments set, for 12 other public improvement projects.

A sewer builder's license for Gordon Sel-Way, Inc. was approved by the commissioners in other action on a brief 22-point agenda acted on in one hour.

A resolution was passed rescinding previous condemnation proceedings to acquire a lot at 127 W. Lawrence St. The lot was needed for the $600,000 municipal parking project for which the city recently acquired the rights to.

Commissioner John E. Carry offered a resolution of appreciation to former City Plan Commissioner Alvin Hill, whose term expired recently. His position will be filled by H. R. Ryerse.

Men Arraigned on Theft Counts

Charged With Stealing Boat, Four Outboard Motors

Three Farmington men will be arraigned in Oakland County Circuit Court Monday, charged with stealing a boat and four outboard motors from county cottages.

They are David Caskey, 19, Kenneth G. Glaspie, 24, and Donald V. Jewell, 26, who waived examination Monday on charges of grand larceny amounting to $1,600 in property.

West Bloomfield Township Justice Elmer Dieterle remanded them to jail under $1,000 bonds each.

The arrests were begun by police at Orchard Lake, where the two $400 motors were taken during the last month.

Also recovered at their homes were the other motors, both worth $400 and taken from boats in Sylvan Lake and in Pine Lake.

The boat was taken last week from a cottage at Pleasant Lake, police said. All the property has been returned to owners.

The nose of the Statue of Liberty is four feet six inches in length.

Wools Strike Rich 'Boom Season'

It's a gentle mood projected by fall fashions, a "Fair Lady" femininity expressed in controlled yet fluid lines, a softly draped look without fussiness.

Shaping, molding, delineating this whole trend, whether in the stricter Empire feeling or the gracefully manipulated 1912 look, are wonderful woolens in limitless texture interpretations.

It's a boom season for wool, with its distinctive character underscoring every type of fashion.

A handsome, deftly edited collection of wools and worsteds by Forstmann not only stresses the great diversity of textures. It also points up an increasing designer use of interchangeable weights for specific kinds of costumes — unexpectedly sheer wools for suits — lightweight coatings for costumes and ensembles, casual textures in sophisticated guise for day or night.

SILK ADDS CONTRAST

And silk often adds a touch of dimension, luster or lightness to many woolens.

Important is the extraordinary lightness or opaque sheerness of many interestingly bulky looking fabrics.

An important collection of woolens is divided into color groupings to highlight variety of weave, weight and texture in dress, suit and coat categories.

Colors in wool are rich yet predominantly clear. Intensity moves from soft to vibrant depending on the type of fabric.

Even mixtures tend toward a pure tone rather than a fused effect. Color, surging up from deep within a fabric, often gives an almost solid color look.

BLACK STRONG

Black by itself is strong, but even more important is its influence on many tweed and novelty fabrics. It flecks, underlines or subtly binds together bright and neutral tones in a staccato beat.

Black alone is never prosaic . . . it shimmers in glossy surface treatments . . . it often is projected in shiny black on mat ground as in many patterned or sculptured town coatings of luxury type.

After black, the beiges to browns are big, with a brown-taupe extremely popular. Blues are beautiful and bountiful! Reds predominate in coats, but are sprinkled through suit and dress collections, too.

BLUE LIGHTWEIGHTS

Navy and dark blue hold the spotlight among the lightweight wools and worsteds. Gray is most popular in novelties and all mixtures, less of the Oxford hue, more toward a medium cast.

Sparking many tweeds are hot pinks, yellows, greens and amethyst fetching melange. Gold is still a fleece and velour color.

Tweeds continue strong with a more polished, urban hand even when the look remains textured. Silk and fur give interesting accent to many, both within the weave and on the surface.

A knitted, spongy look adds a stunning tweed variation, and a drier, mens' wear feeling is increasing in city-slick patterns and colors. Black Jewel tweeds are handsome; color shines through a blackened surface with the clear-cut sharpness of a jewel.

Sheerness, lightness is the rule for everything from chiffon dress weights to coatings. Often the ground is a diaphanous worsted crepe with bulkier surface. Hold it to the light and the peek-a-boo effect is amazing.

STEAL SHOW

Dress wools steal the show at many top collections this season. Designers have fallen head over heels for the soft, the grainy crisp, or the polished suppleness of sheerest woolens.

They handle superbly for the multiple variations of the sheath and dress-with-jacket themes.

Jerlona, jersey-like sheer wool chiffon flannel sheer broadcloth and velvety duvetyn and many mixture crepes all contribute to the growing fashion for the little wool dress.

Costume woolens in divergent textures continue to account for some of the smart "plus" fashions seen. These frequently are bulkier looking textures with lighter, smoother coordinate wools or coating fabrics with matching skirt in ensemble duo.

The suit plus stole, cape or coat, the dress plus jacket, cape or coat, and the sportswear influence of leather with wool or wool with a sweater component all bring many fabrics into versatile use.

SUBTLE GLOSS

Richly endowed woolens are those either lavished with luxury fibers, or are those sleekly a-shimmer on the surface—always with a subtle, rather than a heavy handed, gloss.

Cashmere coatings, always a luxury item, are found in both the 100 per cent quality and the innumerable wool-with-cashmere blends which have made fabrics a quality byword.

Gay colors augment the classic cashmere colors. And the trend to wool with fur trimming in coats and suits, finds a galaxy of lovely fur shades available in all types of woolens.

Five pages today in Women's Section

In town or out, Bonnie Cashin creates a wonderful coat look with a combination of red windowpane plaid wool and bright red capeskin. The entire coat lining and tuxedo collar are plaid, with matching skirt topped by a cashmere sweater keyed to the leather tone.

Sally Smith Honor Guest at Luncheon

Mrs. H. B. Barker Is Hostess at Party for Bride-to-Be

By RUTH SAUNDERS

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — Mrs. Howard B. Barker was hostess Wednesday in her home on Martell drive at a luncheon honoring bride-elect Sally Smith. Barbara Barker, who had been traveling in Europe this summer, will not be home for another month.

Sally, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Thomas Smith, and her sister, plans to go to Portage Point Inn at Onekema for two weeks before the final parties preceding her Sept. 8 marriage to Kenneth Edmund O'Rourke.

Mrs. Theodore O. Yntema and a group of friends are enjoying a freighter trip on the Great Lakes this week. Among others are Mrs. James J. Nance and Mrs. Robert W. Budd.

Mr. and Mrs. William Atcheson, son-in-law and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nance, are spending a month in the Nance home.

BOOTHS PLAN TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Booth and their daughter, Martha, plan to leave early next week for 10 days in New York. Melinda, another daughter, is in Delray Beach, Fla. visiting Mr. and Mrs. Henrikson at their home there.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Ray E. Lawlor have returned home after spending last weekend at the Harbor Pointe home of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Tracy. Last Saturday Mr. and Mrs. John R. Davis were hosts at a beach picnic for the Tracys and their houseguests.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard F. Powell are spending a week at Thomas Inn at Walloon Lake. They sailed up as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Glendon Roberts on their boat.

Michael Carey has invited Mr. and Mrs. Nelson B. Noland of Birmingham to spend this weekend with him at the C. E. Carey cottage at Roaring Brook.

SHOWER SLATED

Mrs. Thomas L. Hibbard will give a tea and shower next Wednesday for Barbara Smith of Algonac who is the fiancee of David Perry Williams.

Barbara and David, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Perry Williams of Adams road, will be married Sept. 29.

Mr. and Mrs. David Lee and David Jr. will go up to Burt Lake this weekend as guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Schirmer at their summer home. Tommy Lee left earlier in the week on a camping trip in the West.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Strickland will be guests of the Roy A. Fruehaufs this weekend at their summer home at Kilarney, Georgian Bay.

Fete Evelyn Angell

Evelyn Angell was honored at a dinner party Saturday evening at Rotunda Inn by coworkers with whom she has worked for the past 15 years.

Dr. and Mrs. L. K. Mathews and Dr. and Mrs. Albert L. Mathews were hosts for the occasion. A gift was presented the honoree by the nine guests present.

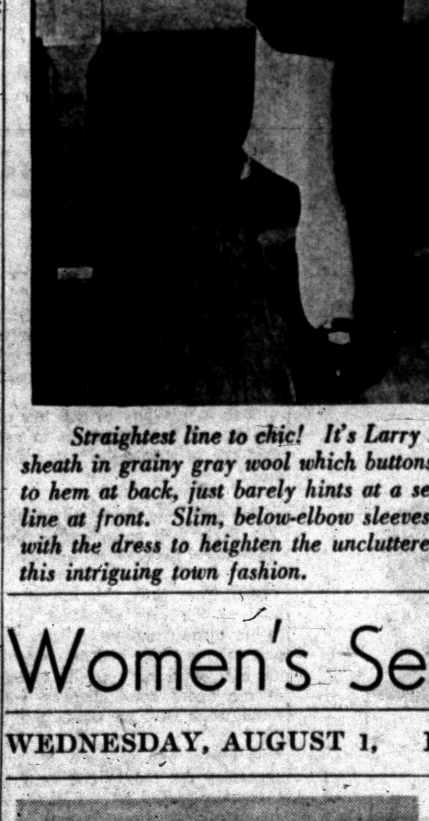

Straightest line to chic! It's Larry Aldrich's pillar sheath in grainy gray wool which buttons from neckline to hem at back, just barely hints at a semi-fitted waistline at front. Slim, below-elbow sleeves are cut in one with the dress to heighten the uncluttered simplicity of this intriguing town fashion.

A Regency dandy's overcoat inspired this silhouette for fall 1956 from Gershel. Robert Knox artfully seams and buttons a seven-eighths length coat of taupe seal woolen in a semi-fitted look — it's gently molded at front with a nice swinging flare to the back. Black Persian lamb shawl collar and cuffs are not only wonderful color foil for the rich taupe tone, but also are in the mood for the period.

Jewel of a costume — in sapphire blue woolens of three different textures. Zelinka-Matlick gives variety to the popular box jacket through a soft shirt-sleeve treatment. The jacket's glossy fleece texture contrasts effectively with the doeskin finish of the flannel skirt.

Away from the straight and narrow is the fresh look of the leather-belted town suit. Interesting pocket detail and a flattering collar give a feminine slant to Elfreda's trim version of brown chiffon weight flannel. A walking pleat animates the skirt at back.

Mate Stupid? 'Boost Ego,' Says Sarita

Latin Actress Tells U. S. Wives to Keep Romance Alive

By EMILY BELSER

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—Peppery Latin actress Sarita Montiel said today she doesn't care if a woman is married four years or 40, she should make her husband believe she is all his.

"Too many women think now 'I've got him and that's that'!" said the Spanish senorita. "But thees is all wrong. Thees is not love. Eet is an disgrace!"

Sarita, brown-eyed vixen from Granada, claims American women like to taunt their husbands with male conquests.

"Thees is a terrible theeng to do," she complained, "Eet gives the husband an inferiority complex and he cannot do his best work for the woman.

"A wife should always treat her husband like he is a boyfriend and even eef he is stupid she must make him believe he is the most intelligent man in the world!"

HITS INDEPENDENCE

Sarita, who confided that she plans to marry an American "sometime in the near future, because they make the best husbands in the world," thinks the "independent type" woman is responsible for more marriage crack-ups than any other kind of female.

"They give a man an inferiority complex," she snorted, "and how can a man do his best work and make lots of money for the woman, eef he feels inferior to his wife?"

Sarita refused to reveal the name of her American husband-to-be, but she didn't hesitate to point out that she likes American men because of the respect they show the weaker (?) sex.

"MORE CONSIDERATE"

"Not only do they have respect for the woman," she noted, "but they are considerate, they have a wonderful sense of humor and when they are married they are not as inclined to have girl friends on the side—like men in other countries."

The lively Spanish senorita has picked up much of her know-how on American men from such co-stars as Gary Cooper, Burt Lancaster and Rod Steiger.

Recently, in Samuel Fuller's "Run of the Arrow," she kissed Steiger 27 times in 7 minutes.

"Rod was so nice," she recalled, "I didn't even feel embarrassed."

Sarita's big brown eyes flashed as she declared that too many women do not make any effort to improve themselves after marriage.

"They should be informed on every subject," she insisted, "love, life, art, music—everything!

"That way, how could he possibly be interested in any other woman?"

St. Vincent Guild Plans Aug. 25 Party

Members of Blessed Martin de Poores Guild of St. Vincent de Paul Church have completed plans for a fund raising party, to be held at the League of Catholic Women building Aug. 25 at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Toni Chavis is serving as general chairman of the affair assisted by Mrs. Emma Gandy as co-chairman.

Coming Events

Royal Neighbors of America will hold their annual picnic at Oakland Park Thursday at 4 p.m.

Huron Gardens Auxiliary, F.O.E., 2887, will hold an officers meeting at the Hall on M-59 tonight at 7:30 p.m. The regular meeting will be held at 8 p.m.

Even the more ample coat uses trick devices to hint at the higher waistline of the Empire period. Adroit tucks and seaming, just below the bustline of this glossy black Surmina coat, give a semi-fitted, high waisted shaping to the otherwise slim front. At back the flare starts below the shoulder. Tapered, push-up sleeves are narrower, a flat collar widens outward and jewel buttons keep the fashion focus high.

Seymour Fox' cranberry red silk and wool tweed makes a stunning suit plus stole costume. The gently molded jacket is swathed in a trick stole which not only buttons across the front, but also has a scarf looped to suggest an Empire feeling as it drapes in a center front tie.

Pregnancy No Excuse for Ugly Fat

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

This week I am printing a few letters from women who joined my Eight-Week Self-Improvement Marathon last January. The idea was to lose 20 pounds in eight weeks time or to improve as much as possible in any way needed during that eight weeks. These letters are interesting and inspirational and so I pass a few of them along to you.

"Dear Mrs. Lowman:

"I have a baby eight months old and a child 2½. I had allowed myself to put on extra weight during my pregnancies. Thanks to Marathon I have lost 22 pounds.

"I have my self-confidence back and my husband is so proud of me! I am 5 feet 5 inches tall and weigh 130 pounds. Before Marathon I weighed 152 pounds. My bust measured 39, waist 30, and hips 40 inches. Today my bust measures 39, waist 26, and hips 36 inches.

"Do I still need to lose weight and what about my measurements?"

WEIGHT CORRECT

Your weight is correct (maybe two or three pounds underweight) and you must look lovely. Just stay like you are. Don't change anything.

Another letter:

"Dear Mrs. Lowman:

"I am 18 years old but have been married for a year and a half. Even before my marriage I was overweight. After my pregnancy I weighed 190 pounds. I lost 20 pounds during Marathon. My bust measures 37, waist 25 and hips 37 inches.

"I have more pounds to lose but I still can hardly believe that within a couple of months I could look and feel so much better."

Another:

"Dear Mrs. Lowman:

"After my first child was born I was completely out of shape. I had an old-fashioned doctor who did not believe in dieting or exercising. I was a mess — no clothes to fit and no figure, and tired and discouraged.

"I now have four children but I followed Marathon faithfully this year. While I know that my figure is not perfect I am the correct weight and look and feel like a different person. Just wanted to let you know!"

NO GOOD REASON

There is no scientific reason for losing your figure just because you have a child. Your abdominal muscles will be stretched but exercise will tone them up. The weight of your child is not nearly so easily controlled as your own.

In other words you need not become obese during pregnancy. Not only because of figure but as a safety measure during pregnancy and at delivery you should gain only what your doctor allows.

Each individual case is different. Follow your doctor's advice as to when and how much exercise you can take after your baby's birth. If you become fat during pregnancy diet as soon as your physician says that you can.

If you would like to have my Eight-Week Self-Improvement Marathon Booklet send 10 cents and a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request to Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

Many readers write of the wonderful results they have obtained by adhering to Josephine Lowman's 8-Week Self-Improvement Marathon.

Chicken Is Dressed Up With Sauce

Individual casserole dishes are ideal for company meals. Mrs. Emery Butler suggests using chicken breasts in a rich sauce. She serves them with Green rice.

Mrs. Butler is a versatile person. A registered nurse, she is a member of the St. Joseph Hospital Alumnae Association. In addition, she belongs to a child study club and to Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority.

Fishing and hunting with her husband rate high with her. She also likes golf, china and oil painting and antiques.

CHICKEN BREAST CASSEROLE
By Mrs. Emery Butler

½ breast of chicken for each serving
Flour
Salt and pepper
1 cup chicken broth
¼ cup sherry
½ cup mushrooms
½ cup grated cheese
Pinch each of ginger and pepper
1 cup cream of celery soup, undiluted
Bread or cracker crumbs

Dip chicken in flour, salt and pepper, and brown in butter, adding ½ teaspoon salt while browning. Place in individual casseroles.

To the butter left in the pan add chicken broth, sherry, mushrooms, cheese and spices. Thicken to taste with the soup. Pour over chicken. Top with bread or cracker crumbs if desired. Bake 10 minutes in a 375-degree oven. Serve with Green rice.

Green Rice

Cook rice as usual, adding to the water ½ cup finely chopped green pepper, ½ cup finely chopped parsley and ½ cup green onion tops.

'For Love or Money' Hit at Will-O-Way Playhouse

Following its tradition of "the best in summer comedy," Will-O-Way Playhouse, under the direction of William Merrill, added a distinctive flavor to "For Love or Money" that opened Tuesday evening. Audience reaction to the play was spontaneously enthusiastic.

This frothy and sophisticated comedy served as the springboard to stardom for Janet Blair, who made her first appearance on the legitimate stage in "For Love or Money" in Detroit in 1948.

William D. Smith, fast becoming a favorite with audiences at Will-O-Way, plays the role of the self-idolizing matinee idol, Preston Mitchell. His ego is effectively deflated by Janet Simpson as Janet Blake, an innocent but not too naive young lady whom he shelters during a violent thunderstorm.

This major feat of character alteration is well aided and abetted by Lillian Hicks, Danny Simpson, Freddy Morris, Bertha Forman, Paul Caplan and Mady Correll who round out the cast.

"For Love or Money," one of the best efforts of F. Hugh Herbert, author of "The Moon is Blue" and "Kiss and Tell," will play nightly, except Monday, through Aug. 12 at Will-O-Way Playhouse, Long Lake road near Telegraph.

Headgear for Church Criticized

Use Scarfs, Hankies Only in Emergency Is Advice

By EMILY POST

A letter today reads: "Isn't it in bad taste to go to church with a scarf tied around one's head, or worse yet, a handkerchief sitting on the top of one's head held in place by bobby pins?

"I have noticed an increasing number of young people attending church services dressed in this fashion and to me it is very undignified. I would appreciate your opinion on this matter."

Answer: An unbecoming fashion, I must agree. If a woman away from home wants to go into a church, she may properly cover her head with a scarf or a handkerchief.

Dear Mrs. Post: "My daughter's mother-in-law recently paid her a two-week visit. During this period I entertained for her several times as did some of my friends. She left the other day without saying good-bye.

"Was it my duty to call her on the day of her departure to say good-bye, or should she have called me?"

Answer: She should have paid her party visit on everyone who gave her a party before she left.

Dear Mrs. Post: "I am secretary to the vice president of a rather large company. I have my own private office and on occasion my employer will come in to talk to me about something or with some work that he wants me to do.

"I would like to know if it is necessary for me to rise or may I remain seated at my desk. I am in my late twenties and he is in his early sixties."

Answer: No, certainly you may remain seated.

Dear Mrs. Post: "When stuffed celery is served as part of a salad, may one eat it with the fingers?"

Answer: If the stalks are full length, it is best to eat them with the fingers. If they are cut in inch-length pieces, you have to eat them with a fork.

FEET HURT?

Modern living demands a good deal of walking and we don't have to tell you when your feet feel over-tired your face reflects the strain. However, there are many small ways in which you can comfort your feet. First, do take time out to choose the right shoes for the occasion. This means low heels for an all day shopping trip. Try soaking puffy ankles in luke warm water, then assume a relaxed position (with your feet at least six inches higher than your head) for at least fifteen minutes. Another good trick for swollen ankles is this: first a few moments in the hottest water you can stand, then a quick rinse with ice water, repeat at least three times. You'll smile with relief and step away feeling younger. Ever try the pencil trick? Pick up a pencil or small rubber ball with your toes. Here's an ankle slimmer: lie out straight on your bed, feet six inches beyond edge, now turn them in complete circles.

Accent on Functional

This season's casual clothes have never been smarter, more functional and more diversified. There are handsome bulky knit slipons and cardigans in nut and berry tones, skirts in giant plaids in reds and loden green—dyed-to-match silk blouses and flannel skirts in such shades as emerald, teal or camel.

Skirts and sweaters team up in royal, pink tomato, cornflower blue, aqua, cherry red and beaver.

A large, black cat strolling across one's path is an emblem of good luck in Europe.

Take Tip From Ike, Men—Make Her Gift Meaningful

Designed Heart Medallion for Mamie; You Can Do as Well by Taking Thought

By RUTH MILLETT

Attention all husbands, young and old:

Next time you have a wedding anniversary coming up, don't put off doing anything about it until the day it arrives.

Sure, you can always rush into a department store 15 minutes before closing time and let a clerk sell you anything she suggests, have it tied up in pretty paper with a big, fluffy bow and take it home to the little woman to mark another year of your life together.

You can get out of the obligation even easier than that by telephoning the florist and ordering a dozen red roses.

And you can give yourself a hearty pat on the back for not being the kind of husband who forgets his wedding anniversary.

You can also do a lot better than the gift suggested by a sales girl or the roses delivered by the florist.

TAKE TIP FROM IKE

You can take a tip from President Eisenhower and put a little thought, imagination and real old-fashioned sentiment into the gift that marks the anniversary of the day you married the sweetest girl in the world.

In a sentimental celebration of their 40th wedding anniversary President Eisenhower gave his wife a heart-shaped gold medallion he took the trouble to design himself.

In the center of the medallion is a small calendar with the Eisenhowers' wedding date marked by a small ruby. And on the back the President had inscribed these words, "Ike to Mamie 1916-1956."

You'll admit that President Eisenhower is a real he-man, won't you? Yet he isn't afraid of old-fashioned sentiment.

You'll admit he is a busy man, too, certainly with as much on his mind as you have?

Okay, then if he can find time to dream up a really personal gift when his wedding anniversary rolls around, why can't you?

It needn't be made of gold, or jewel studded, you know.

Keep Lenses Clean

Dust specks will ruin any view, so wash your binoculars and field glasses free of "case lint" — or you may mistake an oriole for a sparrow. And also wash camera lenses frequently with a small sudsy cloth. Don't allow moisture to seep into the crevices, and finish by polishing with a clean, lint-free cloth.

'Tornado' Line Hits Paris

PARIS (INS)—Jean Desses' new "Tornado" line features a wind-swept silhouette with flying panels in "thunderstorm" colors, including lightning red and cloudy grey.

The daytime "Tornado" girl in this fashion series wears severe looking clothes with hemlines at midcalf. Suits and coats have back panels, sailor collar style, which often reach skirt hem length.

Cocktail and evening dresses have huge skirts wired into stiff, flaring lampshade forms and covered with draped chiffon or flowered petal panels, and decolletes covered with looped up boleros.

One parma violet velvet coat, completely curtain draped, is worn over the same colored chiffon dress with a tight, mummy-like drape on one side and windswept, flaring skirt on the other.

Maggy Rouff's Paris collection proves meanwhile that sophisticated styles and supple, womanly figures are a fine fashion combination.

WOMANLY SILHOUETTE

The Paris designer introduced a silhouette that includes top fullness achieved by wide raglan, kimono or bat sleeves and waistlines heightened by leather or fabric band belts.

Rouff costumes had hips rounded by narrow pleat tucks and skirts were often barrel-shaped with hobbling tight hems.

Hemlines in the Rouff collection were short, as were Dior and Heim skirt lengths in previous showings. Smart and slim looking black crepe or chiffon dresses had harem-draped skirts that narrowed at the hem.

Necklines were slashed to the waist but demurely filled in with contrasting colored "modesties" in a vivid petunia shade used as a color splash against black.

NEW COLOR

Rouff's elegant new suits and coats came in a suitably elegant color—striking black plum.

Earlier couturier Pierre Balmain came out with a nostalgic early 20th century line. The Balmain clothes took no part in the current hemline dispute, but instead concentrated on feminine detailing for romantic, delicate allure.

Soft dressmaker collars make the new fall sweaters becoming to all—the flat-chested as well as the bosom conscious.

Angora trimmings, spreading wing, Peter Pan effects and tab details, no hard lines, nothing gamine about the new sweaters. They follow the new soft turn of fashion and are becoming to every figure.

Coats and suit jackets were cut with "sleeved capes"—sleeves in front but a cape effect in back. They were cut in soft wools and blanket plaids for daytime and satin and velvet for evening wear.

The dropped shoulder seams and sleeves set towards the front combined to give these clothes a romantically consumptive look. Necklines were high in front but low and square-shaped in the rear.

The 1910 styles for evening include a slim, draped "electric pink" chiffon gown and equally ankle-lengthed round edged mink coat. Beads and jets on the dresses and paradise plums in the air both added to the 1912 look.

Booster Class Meets at Williams Home

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Williams entertained members of the Booster Class of First Methodist Church Saturday at their cottage on Buckhorn Lake.

"Photo of a Musician" by Francis de Erdely is one of a new group of drawings at "The Little Gallery" in Birmingham. The artist, born in Budapest, Hungary, is a member of the faculty of the University of Southern California.

New Drawings Depict Life in Mexico

Spotlight De Erdely Art at Little Gallery

A group of new drawings by Francis de Erdely is being shown at The Little Gallery in Birmingham.

De Erdely, a master draftsman and organizer of form, uses a great craft to convey a message in almost every picture.

A distinguished painter and a member of the faculty of the University of Southern California, he is especially known for the strength and power of his drawings.

Born in Budapest, Hungary, in May, 1904, he received his early training at the Academy of Art in his birthplace. Later he continued his studies at the Academy Fernando in Madrid and at the Sorbonne in Paris.

Young de Erdely began exhibiting his paintings and drawings at the age of 18 in Vienna. He came to the United States in 1940, where he worked and taught in Detroit, Ann Arbor, Birmingham and the vicinity for several years.

SHOWS UNDERSTANDING

Painting and drawing the human figure, he expresses a deep sympathy and understanding for his fellow being—is technical, accomplished and brilliant.

While in Spain he supported himself by boxing professionally, which perhaps accounts for his ability to depict the human form in its various attitudes.

The present showing includes 25 new drawings done in the hinterlands of Mexico where he spent many months studying the ways of children, musicians, dancers, etc.

The exhibit opened Monday and will continue through the month of August. Hours are from 9 to 6 daily. The Gallery is closed Sundays.

First Job May Affect Whole Life

By ANNE HEYWOOD

Most of us put more time and effort into planning a two-week vacation than we put into planning our life's work.

Young people out of school will take a job just because the office is convenient to their home, or they have a friend who works there or it pays three dollars a week more than the other jobs they investigated or the man who interviewed them has nice blue eyes!

Years later they may wake up to find they don't like a thing about the job, the company or the field, but by then they have all that experience in it, and it's pretty hard to change.

Girls, it seems to me, do this more often than boys. Perhaps this is largely because boys feel they'll be working for life and take the job more seriously. Girls figure they'll be marrying before long, so what difference does it make?

AFFECTS PERSONALITY

In the first place, everything you do affects your total personality.

If you do a careful job of evaluating what kind of work you want, and making the proper decision, you'll be more apt to enter marriage carefully and successfully.

If you grab any old job that will have you, you may grab any old man who will have you—and end up disastrously mismated and unhappy.

Secondly, even if you work for just a few months before marriage, the kind of experience you have will affect your whole life.

MENTAL BLOCK

If your first job is the wrong one, you'll be miserably unhappy in it and probably will marry to escape. More than that, you'll carry that anti-business block with you and picture the job world as a nightmare which you will stay away from at all costs.

If you have to supplement the family's income later on, you'll dread it and try to get out of it—just because you have a false idea of how distasteful the business world is.

That's why it's terribly important to use intelligence in selecting your first job.

It may not be perfect, and probably won't be, but it should be chosen carefully, with your own basic interests in mind—and not just because it's close enough to home so you can come home for lunch.

If you honestly don't have an idea what you'd like, take some temporary jobs, to pay your way while you're figuring things out.

In our present economy, many temporary jobs exist, especially during summertime. Then, while you're working on a temporary job, try hard to get some clue to your own interests and aptitudes.

If you'll send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope in care of this newspaper, I'll be glad to send you my Pointers On Finding Your Basic Interest, which will start you in the right direction.

A percolator brush is pliable enough to reach hard-to-get-at places when cleaning chrome handles of the stove or chrome fixtures on the sink.

Dressed in royal splendor, Sharon Kay Ritchie, "Miss America of 1956," models the queenly outfit she will wear during her reign over Pageant Week in Atlantic City when she will crown the new "Miss America." Created especially for Miss Ritchie by Kiviette, the slender sheath and bouffant overskirt with sweeping train are fashioned of champagne and white everglaze cotton brocade, with glittering embroidery of one-half million gold and silver sequins and one-half million crystal-cut bugle beads.

Beautiful Miss Universe Once 'Ugly Duckling'

NEW YORK (INS)—This year's most beautiful girl in the world—Miss Universe—was once an ugly duckling.

Carol Morris, today a well-rounded 129 pounds of brunette beauty, told a news conference:

"I certainly did go through an awkward stage. I thought I was the ugliest girl that ever, ever lived—and I have the snapshots to prove it.

"I was skin and bones—skinny as a rail, all arms and legs. I liked to climb trees and play football and baseball and basketball."

Today the 20-year-old girl from Ottumwa, Iowa, adopted daughter stands 5 feet 7 inches, molded into 36-25-36 proportions. She's still got a lot of leg, as New York photographers found when she posed for them in a bathing suit.

DOESN'T SMOKE, DRINK

Being a minister's daughter who doesn't smoke or drink, she isn't too happy about cheesecake shots. She blushed visibly when she took off her gold and white raincoat to expose her tanned form in a pink, sequinned bathing suit.

"I'd rather pose in a dress," she said with a grimace.

Blue-eyed Miss Morris, a junior at Drake University before she became Miss Universe and a starlet at Universal-International, is a bit bewildered about the fuss over her adopted status.

NOTHING SPECIAL!

"It happens every day," she said. "I don't see why it's anything special. I have a family—a mother and father just like anyone else. They're just like any other parents—only better."

Miss Morris, tired from the whirl of publicity, wants to try her hand at being an aquatic, Esther Williams type star, but after a year in Hollywood plans to return to Drake to continue her studies in elementary education.

She's got several boy friends but there is one that's kind of special—George Goebel, Drake football tackle, who hails from Des Moines.

Her idea of the perfect date is as follows:

"Someone who is intelligent—more intelligent than I am. Someone who is full of fun and has a twinkle in his eye. Somebody who is just good to get along with."

Farmington Eyes Race Track Future

Vote Proceeds on Rezoning

Farmington Racetrack Plans Dropped; Issue Stays on Ballot

FARMINGTON TOWNSHIP — Residents of this township will vote Tuesday on a rezoning proposal although the immediate cause of the vote, a proposed race track, has apparently vanished.

Township officials say that the referendum vote on rezoning of the 244 acres in the southwest section will proceed although the developers say they have abandoned plans for a race track in the township.

Floyd A. Carins, township clerk, emphasizes that legal petitions called for the referendum on the zoning question. He adds that nothing has been submitted in writing to indicate any change in the original plans of the developers.

On May 15, the Township Board approved the rezoning from residential to commercial over many protests. Petitions for a referendum were filed within the required 30 days, making it necessary to place the question on the ballot.

The board's action cannot now be made effective unless approved by a majority of the voters.

The question, as it will appear on the ballot, makes no reference to a race track since it is legally a matter of zoning. It will be included as a special proposal in the regular primary election Tuesday.

Groups Allign on Sides for Balloting in Area

FARMINGTON TOWNSHIP — Opinions for or against letting a race track establish in their area are still being expressed widely, although there is little assurance that the track will actually be built.

The township clerk told the Pontiac Press this morning that nothing in writing has reached his desk to confirm reports that the developers will not go ahead with track plans.

He says he thinks that the option has run out on a 150 acre section of the proposed track site.

E. T. Cope, chairman of the citizen's committee against the race track, has itemized his group's opposition to the track in section 30 or any part of the township.

He questions how income can be estimated. The track promoters' request was rejected by the zoning board because income was not estimated and the structure was not described.

He contends, from parimutuel betting not one cent of the state excise tax can be used for schools. He questions claims that the race track can reduce taxes with no township tax.

Of the hoped for $500,000 split of state excise tax on parimutuel betting, he says; "Only a favorably situated track of years standing can receive that amount and in lean years, police and fire protection, road repair and other expenses caused by the track must be paid from the lesser sum that would be received."

He says that about 18 miles of new hard-surface roads would be required in and around section 30 would be needed.

He questions whether adjacent property would be improved, and whether a possible great increase in traffic would be acceptable.

Sam Graham, president of the city's Junior Chamber of Commerce, says his groups have taken no stand on the issue.

Sometime ago the Livonia Mayor spoke at an Exchange Club meeting, and told his hearers that he felt that the racetrack at Livonia had definitely been as asset to that city. Members of the township board were guests at that meeting.

Garden Club to Meet at Waterford Home

State Gains Funds From School Trusts

LANSING (AP)—The State Board of Escheats has received $424,945 to be held in trust for the primary school fund. The money came from the Metropolitan Insurance Co.

The big check, turned over to the state board yesterday, represents money unclaimed by 12,200 Michigan policy holders.

The company said it made a deligent search for those entitled to the money and that the sum due may still be reclaimed from the Board of Escheats.

The transfer was made in conformity to state law.

Leslie Peters, manager of the company's Lansing district office, handed the check over to State Treasurer Sanford A. Brown, chairman of the Board of Escheats.

Peters said the refunds cover a considerable period of years. Although the amount is large, he said it represents less than one per cent of the sums paid by the company to policy holders in Michigan last year.

Orion Park Attendant Hired; 11 Points Asked

LAKE ORION — The City Council has already hired a park attendant, one of 11 demands made by 200 petitioners at a council meeting attended by a record crowd on Monday night.

A citizens advisory committee may develop from the group's interest in improvements in the village-owned park and the city's provisions for park use.

James English, an area resident and a Royal Oak school coach, was hired Tuesday as park attendant. A lifeguard, he meets the requirements set up by the petitioners and in addition is a qualified waterfront instructor.

Mrs. Donald Noble, at whose home a citizens committee will be appointed next week, expressed the gratitude of the citizens for their promptness and choice.

The demands were for:

Exclusion from the park of all save village and township residents; request that the township assist in maintenance of the park; immediate employment of a full time park attendant, preferably a Red Cross lifeguard, from 11 to 7;

To adopt the following long range improvements: sanitary facilities and bath house, repair picnic tables, repair playground equipment, remove pilings from picnic area, replace dock with a concrete and steel structure, extend the sidewalk across the park, fence the park to exclude unauthorized persons, and allow no more leases of the park.

The group offered to provide a citizens advisory committee to work with the council in formulating long term plans, and finding ways and means to carry them out.

The council voted to provide the attendant immediately, and to place screening on the dock to prevent further accidents.

Members were very willing to accept the services of the advisory committee and discussed possibilities of placing the question on the ballot at a later date.

The state did not approve plans submitted for enlargement of the drainage system on Washington street. Before a municipality without a sewer system can extend its system they must have state approval.

Citizens asked that the patrolling of the lake with the police boat be continued, although violations are not numerous. The boat is operated on a volunteer basis by three qualified man.

C. OF C. VOTES TALLIED

Results of last week's balloting on who should use the park were 135 qualified votes for village residents, 66 for town and village use, 30 for village only, and 39 for anyone.

Sixty-six votes were cast by township residents beyond village limits, with 46 for village and township, four for village only, and 16, everyone.

Walled Lake Schoolchildren Facing Movie Camera, Lights, Using Script

By STANLEY BOK
Commerce Correspondent

WALLED LAKE — The motion picture camera, bright lights and a script are nothing new to a growing number of children in the Walled Lake Consolidated School District.

For some time now, school district officials have been working hand in hand with "Portafilms," a West Bloomfield Township enterprise which specializes in the production of educational films.

The motion picture camera actually goes to the playgrounds and invades the schoolroom to record the actions and reactions of children in a given situation.

The end result represents a joint effort on the part of the Walled Lake educational system and "Portafilms."

The shooting has just been completed on a new film, titled "Helping Johnny Remember," which starts out by showing how and why a discourteous boy is rejected by his classmates. Later in the film, the boy finds that common courtesy is the key to a well-adjusted school life.

FIRST OF SERIES

This film, the first of a series on citizenship, stresses the importance of courtesy and the value of a smile. It will be shown to children in the lower elementary grades, from kindergarten through the fourth grade, in all parts of United States and even in foreign countries.

Featured in the movie are pupils of the Union Lake Elementary School. Narrator is Bob Maxwell, well-known Detroit radio and TV personality.

Other films displaying the talent of Walled Lake school pupils have attained widespread popularity. The dialogue and narration of one film was translated into two foreign languages for the benefit of children abroad.

A movie called "Let's Play Safe" was filmed at the playgrounds of five different schools in the Walled Lake district.

Naturally, the films have a special meaning to children of that district, inasmuch as most of them recognize a schoolmate or a classroom or playground.

This venture gives valuable experience to many students of Walled Lake schools, thanks to the Audio-Visual Committee which help to plan the productions along with Mr. and Mrs. William H. Murray, 2579 Warner Dr., Green Lake Village, who own "Portafilms."

Committee members include Clifford H. Smart, superintendent of Walled Lake schools, and the principals of schools within the system, along with certain interested teachers.

The Murrays extend a great deal of credit to Nina Kropidloski, elementary supervisor, who has taken a special interest in film production.

Murray is the producer and director of "Portafilms," a 10-year-old business that was moved here from Los Angeles, Calif. about three years ago. He also writes the script.

The productions are recorded on 16mm., sound-color film.

Lansing Set for Onslaught of State Legion Meeting

LANSING (AP)—The vanguard of some 3,000 delegates to attend the 38th annual American Legion State Convention moved into Lansing today to set up headquarters.

Representatives of Michigan's 72,000 Legion members have booked all downtown hotels solid and will overflow into outlying motels, the Kellog Center and three Michigan State dormitories.

The Legionnaires will arrive via 40 and 8 locomotives, trains, in chartered busses and in auto caravans.

Police Chief Paul Taylor said his department would not cast a wet blanket on fun-makers but that the visitors could not expect to violate the law without being prosecuted. Legion spokesmen said they planned to police their own activities.

Official convention business will get under way Thursday with district caucus meetings. Delegates will conduct a general assembly Friday.

Final business Sunday will include election of a new state commander to succeed Donald J. Smith of St. Johns. Candidates include Lewis C. Bricker of Coldwater, William J. Clarahan of Detroit, Elton D. Knapp of Plymouth and Harold L. Willard of Niles.

Other business will include a discussion of various resolutions, setting membership quotas and aims for the coming year and the voting of $50,000 to move the Legion headquarters from Detroit to Lansing.

Bugle and drum corps and drill competition will be held Friday night and the Legionnaires will stage a parade through downtown Lansing Saturday morning.

President Signs Foreign Aid Bill

$3,766,000,000 Slated to Reinforce 54 Nations in Fight Against Reds

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower has signed a bill supplying $3,766,000,000 to 54 nations for the next year to reinforce their armed services and economies in the cold war with communism.

But the measure contains two features the administration found objectionable during the Congressional fight on foreign aid.

Most important, the amount of money was $1,093,405,000 less than the President wanted, a cut Eisenhower maintained would mean America's security and free world partnership "will be seriously impaired."

The other stipulation fought unsuccessfully by the administration stops further arms aid to Communist Yugoslavia. This was inserted by senators led by members of Eisenhower's party, Republican leader Knowland (Calif) and Bridges (NH).

Yugoslavia, however, still can obtain military equipment on order, plus future material for maintenance and spare parts. There also is a provision allowing Yugoslavia 15 million dollars in economic aid.

Ike OKs Pay Raises for 'Team' Members

WASHINGTON (INS)—President Eisenhower's cabinet members and about 600 other top administration officials have salary raises today because of new legislation signed by the Chief Executive.

The pay hikes requested by Eisenhower to make government service more attractive to top-flight executives will increase pay for cabinet members from $22,500 a year to $25,000 while other lesser officials will average $2,000 raises.

The new law signed yesterday also liberalizes the retirement formula for some 2,350,000 employes under Civil Service, giving them about 345 million dollars in added yearly benefits.

On Site of 1900's Boat Ramp

Orion Boat Club Starts Building Its Clubhouse

LAKE ORION—The Lake Orion Boat Club is beginning its club building this week with excavation problems recalling Orion's early resorting days, and with close scheduling aimed at Aug. 19 boat races.

When work began on the clearing of the 60 by 60 foot area leased from the village at the park site on M24, club members did not realize they were on the former location of the ramp for the "City of Orion" a forty-foot excursion boat.

The boat carried 300 passengers on its two decks with music and dancing aboard in the 1900's when Orion was widely known as a resort and Chautauqua center.

The old cement caused Harold Smith, who was leveling the ground, considerable problems. Their construction was delayed.

The contemplated building is not large but will have adequate room for storing equipment. It will serve as a center for club activities for the teenagers as well as adults in their membership.

Of frame construction, it will have five windows and an entrance door.

Aim is to have it ready for use in time for the sail boat and power boat races to be held Aug. 19 beginning at 1 p.m.

William Morris has been appointed head of the building committee. Mike Caldwell is chairman of the racing event, with Elmer Ewald trophy chairman.

Big Ten Officials Scoff at Magazine's Charges

CHICAGO (AP)—Big 10 officials today termed a national magazine's assertions of "full ride" football scholarships in the conference as exaggerated and an attempt at "sensationalism."

The story, appearing in today's issue of the publication Look, came just before a Big 10 meeting scheduled several months ago for Saturday and Sunday.

Look stated all Big 10 schools except Illinois gave "full ride" scholarships to one or more football players last fall and that some athletes, namely Ron Kramer of Michigan, received aid through an "escape" clause in the Big 10 code.

Kenneth L. (Tug) Wilson, Big 10 commissioner, yesterday said, "Look's headline bark, which says 'Football Scandal Hits the Big 10', is worse than its reportorial bite. On a fair reading the article does no more than report that we have problems in our honest efforts to keep athletics within their educational framework. And that we frankly acknowledge, as evidenced by the appointment and work of our special committee which will make its report this week."

The special committee which "has been engaged for the past seven months in making a critical self-appraisal of conference affairs," was appointed following the winter meetings and this week's reporting date was set at conference meetings last May, Wilson said.

Look's story said in addition to Kramer, other Michigan players received financial help though they did not make qualifying grades in university courses. Kramer, the magazine said, received $560 grant from the school.

Michigan's Dean of Men Walter B. Rea said assistance to Kramer was based on "need," which Look called a "loophole" in the Big 10 code.

Rea, however, denied Look's claim that Kramer had a below "C" average. Wilson said the magazine strove for "sensationalism" in its article.

"Without the element of sensationalism which could be found in identifying such an outstanding athlete as Ron Kramer of Michigan with one of those problems, it is doubtful the article would have merited publication," said Wilson. "Certainly, the theme that Big 10 athletes have a tough time financially, which is so prominent in the article, is not sensational.

"As for the Kramer case and Michigan's grants of student aid funds to athletes," Wilson continued, "we certainly don't have a case of secret or undercover aid. We simply have a question of the proper interpretation of the rules, and the question will be resolved by the conference in orderly fashion."

Look's article brought a deluge of comment from officials throughout the Big 10. These included explanations of how many athletes received how much aid and what scholastic average must be maintained by an athlete receiving aid.

Minnesota Athletic Director Ike Armstrong said the Big 10 has known "for three or four" years of Minnesota's off-campus work program without challenging its legality. In short, the Gopher work for-pay program is split up with athletes doing most of their off-campus chores during the off season.

Stu Holcomb, former Purdue football coach and now athletic director at Northwestern, said the magazine article contained "poor terminology."

"There's no such thing as an athletic scholarship in the Big 10," Holcomb said. "Conference athletes get their financial help on grants-in-aid, based on scholarship and need. I don't know what Look means by 'full scholarship..'"

Athletic Director Ivy Williamson said Wisconsin had made available to Look the university's annual report to the Big 10 Conference. "If what the story said came from that report," said Williamson, "Then it's true." Williamson, however, said he hadn't read the article.

UM Dean Labels Article "Garbled and Incorrect"

ANN ARBOR (INS) — The dean of men at the University of Michigan, Walter B. Rea has labeled a Look Magazine story of payment of money to All-American end, Ron Kramer, "a garbled misrepresentation of facts."

The National Magazine copywrited story accused U of M of offering Kramer a $560 grant.

Dean Rea, who also heads the University's committee on grants and loans to students, said:

"It is a shame when the private financial affairs of a student become the subject of public discussion because he is an All-American football player.

"It is more regretable when the information of such affairs is garbled and misrepresented as in the case of the Look Magazine article in its story about Kramer."

The dean blasted Look's "incorrect" reporting of Kramer's grades at the institution.

"He is a bright lad and his grades have never fallen below a "B" (or C) during his three years at U of M," said the dean.

Look reported that Kramer's grades fell below the C-plus mark, or "3."

Teen Girls Olympic Bidders

DETROIT—A pretty 24-year-old high school teacher and five teenage girls from Washington, D.C. will do far more than merely add charm to the final tryouts for the United States women's Olympic swimming team here in the Motor City Brennan Pools Aug. 7-10.

Between them they are apt to rip the record book to shreds, and all six hope to make the Australia-bound Olympic team which will be coached by their own mentor at the Walter Reed Swim Club, Stanley Tinkham.

The Walter Reed team made its first competitive splash in 1953 and has ruled supreme ever since, winning eight successive national AAU titles in outdoor and indoor competition. Backbone of the squad are these six aquatic whirlwinds:

Mrs. Betty Mullen Brey, 24, who teaches at Bethesda-Chevy Chase High School in Bethesda, Md.; Shelly Mann, 18; Marie Gillett, 18; Mary Jane Sears, 16; Susan (Dougie) Gray, 16, and Wanda Werner, 15.

Marie, Mary Jane and Wanda all are students at the same high school where Mrs. Brey is a faculty member. Shelly has just finished her freshman year at American University, while Dougie attends Holton-Arms School in Washington.

Miss Mann is possibly the best known of the sextet. It is because Shelly captured three individual championships in the 1956 national AAU outdoor meet early in July to add to the pair she won in the national indoor competition. Her specialty is the butterfly stroke and in this she holds the world record for the Olympic distance of 100 meters.

Mrs. Brey is one of Shelly's foremost competitors for butterfly honor and won the national outdoor crown in 1955. This summer she finished third as the Walter Reed contingent swept the first four places in this order: Mann, Sears, Brey and Werner.

Miss Sears was only 14 when she won her first national breaststroke title, but now at the ripe old age of 16 she had made it three in a row at 200 meters which is the distance she will swim here—and, she hopes, at Melbourne.

No. 1 Contender

Moore Rated Top 'Heavy'

NEW YORK (AP) — Light-heavyweight champion Archie Moore's easy knockout of James J. Parker strengthened the ancient battler's position as the No. 1 contender for the vacant heavyweight throne and earned him Ring magazine's "Fighter of the Month" award.

The Ring's monthly ratings, released today, showed only one major change among the heavyweights. Undefeated Eddie Machen of Redding, Calif., advanced from 10th to eighth as the result of his knockout of Cuba's Nino Valdes, once the top-ranking heavyweight contender.

France's Robert Cohen, dethroned as bantamweight champion by Italy's Mario D'Agata, was made the No. 2 contender behind Mexico's Raul (Raon) Macias. The Mexican is recognized as the 118-pound champion by the National Boxing Assn.

Southpaw Kenny Lane of Muskegon, Mich., was advanced back into the first 10 among the lightweights following his upset of Ralph Dupas of New Orleans. Lane was given the sixth spot while Dupas was demoted from second to fifth. Italy's Duilio Loi and Cisco Andrade, Compton, Calif., now are the one-two contenders in the 135-pound class.

Unrated Rory Calhoun, of White Plains, N.Y., was placed 10th among the middleweights as he vaulted into the ranking list for the first time. Two other newcomers to the list are featherweights Ike Chestnut, New York (ninth), and Miguel Berrios, a Puerto Rican now living in New York. Berrios is 10th.

* * *

Inactive Joey Maxim, onetime light-heavyweight champion, was dropped from the 175-pound division listings for the first time in many years. His spot was taken by New York's Tony Anthony. Anthony was ranked seventh.

Boys Club 9 Wins Lone Junior Game

Boys Club No. 3 handed Matthews-Hargreaves an 8-6 setback Tuesday at Columbia - Joslyn's south diamond in the lone Junior League baseball game played yesterday. It was the 1st loss of the season for the Class F National loop leaders.

The winners scored all of their runs early in the contest, then staved off late uprisings for their upset triumph. John Kendall smacked a two-run homer for Boys Club.

Osmun's held a 10-2 lead over Tel-Huron after one inning of action in another "F" tilt at Columbia-Joslyn when the rains came and washed out further play. All other games scheduled Tuesday were rained out.

Helen Grinnell Wins Weekly District Test

WDGA weekly golf tourney, yesterday, was won by Helen Grinnell of Detroit Golf Club, her 1st victory of the season. Robinson Is Big Gun

Dodgers Cut Braves Lead in NL

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Jackie Robinson's an old guy who can still get the job done.

He came off the bench to give Brooklyn's third - place world champions the zip they needed to stay healthy after losing seven straight to National League-leading Milwaukee, delivering the missing snap and crackle to pop the Braves 3-2 last night with a two-run homer and a tie-breaking, ninth-inning single.

Joe Adcock hit his usual home run against the Dodgers. He has 10 against 'em in nine consecutive games, but he pulled a rock as a base-runner, killing off a ninth-inning rally.

While the Dodgers were struggling back to within four games of the Braves, Cincinnati's second-place Redlegs stumbled for a twi-night doubleheader split against the New York Giants, losing 5-1 and then winning 7-3. That clipped only a half-game off Milwaukee's lead, leaving it at two games. Cincy had won five straight.

The fourth-place St. Louis Cardinals drew up to .500 again, handing Pittsburgh a sixth straight loss 7-0 on Murry Dickson's five-hitter. The Chicago Cubs came from behind to beat Philadelphia 9-4 with Monte Irving driving home five runs.

Cleveland's runner-up Indians showed they were still breathing at least in the American League "race," closing to within nine games of New York as Early Wynn's three-hitter ended the Yankees' winning streak at six games, 5-0.

Detroit smacked Boston 6-4 behind Frank Lary's four-hitter. Baltimore stayed in a fifth-place tie with the Tigers by defeating Kansas City 5-1. Washington beat the Chicago White Sox 4-3 on a wild pitch.

Robinson, 35 and in his 10th season, had been out of the Dodger lineup for 16 games because of a pulled groin muscle. He seemed back to stay after replacing Randy Jackson at third last night with three hits in four trips.

Adcock smacked his 24th home run in the second inning off Carl Erskine, but Jackie did him one better with a two-run poke, his eighth, in the bottom half of the frame against Gene Conley. That's the way it stood until the ninth, when with one out, Ed Mathews hit his 20th homer to tie it.

TARGET — All-America end Ron Kramer of the University of Michigan was one of the targets in Look Magazine's article which claimed that a football scandal prevails in the Big Ten Conference. The article said Kramer received $560 through an "escape" clause.

Model Misses 32-Mile Swim by One Mile

TORONTO (AP)—Shirley Campbell came within a mile of completing the gruelling 32-mile Lake Ontario marathon swim yesterday but exhaustin overcame the attractive stenographer-model.

Thousands of spectators had lined the waterfront at the eastern entrance to Toronto Harbor to cheer the 22-year-old Fergus, Ont., swimmer.

Shirley had been in the water 18½ hours when currents started pulling her away from her goal. She had jumped into the water at Niagara-on-the-Lake, Ont.

Only two persons have been able to make the crossing. Marilyn Bell of Toronto holds the record for the swim at 20 hours, 56 minutes.

Wertz' Comeback Prolific

CLEVELAND (INS)—One of the big stories of the 1956 baseball campaign, the comeback of Vic Wertz, is being inadvertently camouflaged by the hitting feats of Mickey Mantle.

Wertz, who rates the dubious distinction of being as bald as they come in the majors, has battled all the way back from a siege of polio and rates second only to the Yankee slugger in home runs and runs batted in in both American League departments.

It was the last quarter of the 1955 pennant chase when Vic came down with the dread disease. He spent virtually the remainder of the season in a hospital bed and there was some doubt as to whether he would ever play baseball again.

"All I could think of while I was in the hospital was getting back in the lineup," Wertz said. "I did exercises during the winter and tried to build up stamina.

"I never realized how hard it would be to get back in shape, and to be honest, there were times when I never thought I would make it."

Whatever success the Indians have in the 1956 flag race, they owe to the hitting of the 31-year-old York, Pa. native, who now makes his home in Detroit.

Qualifies for District Play

Shaw's Clinches City Softball Crown

Shaw's Jewelers, boasting timely hitting and airtight pitching, continued to reign over the Pontiac City Softball League today.

Noted for their fabulous ability to win the "close ones," the Jewelers proved it again Tuesday night at Beaudette Park by shading General Motors, 1-0, to repeat as American League champions.

Their victory over the Coachers iced the American division crown and qualifies them to enter the Class AA district softball tournament at Roseville Aug. 17-19. A state title in the "AA" ranks lies at the end of the trail.

Perce McConner went to the mound for Shaw's last night and gave a convincing demonstration of why he has been the No. 1 pitcher in the city leagues this season. He yielded only two hits, singles by Lynus Grant and Jim Bird, and struck out 15 GMC batters, including the last four swingers he faced.

Grant allowed only four hits on the hill for GMC, but he was victimized by McConner's masterful shutout plus a costly 4th-inning error. Loule Seay's double, Chuck Mason's single and a miscue by outfielder Alan Dennis contrived to hand the Jewelers their winning run in the 4th stanza.

The setback left the Coachers in 2nd place with an 11-6 record, just a half game ahead of Elks No. 810, which has a 10-6 mark. The Elks have a chance to tie GMC for the runner-up spot before the regular season ends this week.

Stadium Inn did all of its scoring early, then fought off a 7th-inning rally to nose out Royal Bar, 6-5, in an American League game at Beaudette. Verle Sheldon was the winning pitcher while Roger Reynolds was tagged with the loss.

The showdown battle in the hotly-contested Waterford League softball title race will take place tonight at the Drayton Plains ball park when front-running Drayton Drug collides with runner-up Lakeland Pharmacy.

Lary Halts Bosox, 6-4

DETROIT (AP)—"Let 'em hit the line drives, but make sure your fielders are in the right spot."

That, says Detroit righthander Frank Lary, is the secret to beating the Boston Red Sox. The gritty, drawling Alabaman did it last night for just the second time in two years, 6-4.

Two players who long ago solved Boston pitching — Ray Boone and Al Kaline — supplied Lary with the extra-base power. Each hit home runs, Kaline his 17th and Boone his 14th. Kaline added a double and a single and had three runs batted in and the Detroit third baseman had a triple and a single.

Boone and Kaline—though neither has reached the .300 mark—are batting well over .350 apiece against the Fenway Park crew.

The Red Sox got only four hits off Lary, but smacked seven balls that might have meant an early exit for the "little bulldog" had Tiger fielders not been in the right place at the right instant.

Kaline made spectacular catches of two of them. Ted Williams, who has gone hitless in the first two games of the series, sent the Tiger centerfielder sprinting back to the 440 mark for his towering blast in the third.

Jackie Jensen lined a two-run triple off Lary in the first inning, and in the sixth sent Kaline racing back to the 400-mark for his long clout.

Boston pitcher Bob Porterfield's string of 15 scoreless innings ended abruptly when Kaline and Boone produced back to back home runs in the Tiger first to erase the early Boston lead. Earl Torgeson walked ahead of Kaline's smash.

Lary retired 13 men in succession from the second until Williams walked with one out in the 6th. Then ageless Mickey Vernon struck for his second home run in two days over the right field fence to knot the score.

Charlie Maxwell, in his worst slump of the season with just seven hits in his last 36 times at bat, drove in the tie-busting run with a sacrifice fly in the 7th.

The Tiger roster now is one-man under the limit. Ned Garver, who has been bothered with arm trouble all season, is on the 30-day disabled list for the second time this year.

Doctoring Your Golf Game

By DR. CARY MIDDLECOFF

PATIENT'S COMPLAINT: Hooked short irons

DIAGNOSIS: Right leg locked

TREATMENT: Those short irons that finish off target to the left can be remedied readily by getting the weight over onto the left leg, as I show in the sketch in playing a No. 7 iron for a 135 yard shot.

You'll hook or abruptly pull the ball off line if you fail to transfer your weight entirely, causing the hips to turn quickly and the hands to roll over and quit.

Notice in the sketch how far the left hip has gone through the shot, with very little turn, and how easily the right side has followed. No lock. The right knee is kinked inward or forward to permit the hands to finish shoulder high. Notice also that the head hasn't moved out of its original position, though it has turned on its axis so that I can watch the ball in flight.

With the shorter pitch clubs there is a minimum of body action. Hardly any turn, which is natural because the backswing doesn't go beyond the three-quarter point. The wrists break sooner to make the backswing fairly upright.

It is from the top of the swing that the shot comes off well, if you pull down with the left arm, or you freeze at the ball and hook it if you hit too quickly with the right hand and lock the right side. In the address feel the weight either centered or inclined toward the left leg.

Sugar Classic Will Continue

New Orleans to Keep Cage Tourney Despite Withdrawals

NEW ORLEANS (INS)—Officials of the Sugar Bowl basketball tournament have announced that the annual classic will continue to be played in New Orleans despite the withdrawal of several Northern schools which protested a new Louisiana segregation law.

The measure, which goes into effect Oct. 15, prohibits the mixing of White and Negro races in all athletic and social events in the state.

The executive committee of the New Orleans mid-winter sports association made the announcement yesterday to halt rumors that the tournament would be shifted to another city.

Notre Dame, St. Louis University and Dayton (Ohio) University have refsed to participate in the tourney because of the new law.

Chips Ask 57 to Drills

MOUNT PLEASANT (AP)—Coach Bill Kelly has sent out invitations to 57 players for Central Michigan College fall football practice which begins Aug. 31.

Twelve men will be lost from last year's squad that won eight games and lost only one.

But Kelly remains optimistic. "If some of our reserve linemen reach their potentialities we will be as good as a year ago," he said.

Kelly said the team will be bigger, with more depth among the backs but less depth in the line.

The Chippewas open against Bradley, travel to Western Michigan and then meet Southern Illinois at home.

Central Michigan has won the Interstate Conference title twice and shared it another time in the last four seasons.

Twenty-seven lettermen are due to report for drills.

Stars Hold First Scrimmage

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP) — Coach Curly Lambeau sent his College All-Stars through their first scrimmage and saw his offense led by All-Americas Hopalong Cassady and Earl Morrall stopped cold.

The collegians, pointing for their Aug. 10 date with the Cleveland Browns, National Football League champion, wound up their 12th day of practice with a defense-dominated 20-minute scrimmage.

Rain had washed out the All-Star's first session yesterday, but the skies cleared for an afternoon practice.

The All-Stars put up a formidable backfield with Morrall, the former Michigan State quarterback; halfbacks Cassady of Ohio State and Don McIlhenny of Southern Methodist, and Notre Dame's Don Schaefer at fullback.

But that foursome and other outstanding collegians hardly dented the defenders sparked by Maryland's Bob Pellegrini, Tony Sardisco of Tulena and Preston Carpenter, the defensive back from Arkansas.

"Silent Joe" Childress, Auburn's fullback, and Hal Burnine, the 1955 NCAA pass-receiving champion from Missouri, made the only appreciable gains for the offensive unit.

Childress, voted the collegian most likely to succeed in pro football after last year's Senior Bowl game, smashed the middle of the defense's bulky line for a 10-yard gain. Burnine took a 10-yard pass from Morrall.

Morrall, Jerry Reichow of Iowa and Navy's George Welsh flipped long and short passes to halfbacks and ends. Burnine, Army's Don Holleder, Larry Ross, the 6-5 end from Denver, and All-America Ron Beagle of Navy impressed observers with their sharp pass reception.

Meanwhile, Lambeau, still searching for another Tad Weed to help boot the All Stars to a victory in the Soldier Field clash, had three members concentrate on extra-point and field-goal kicking. Last year, Weed decided the game, 30-27, for the All Stars with a field goal.

Don Chandler, Florida, the nation's leading punter in 1955, was impressive with his conversions. Gary Glick, the Colorado A&M defensive ace, and West Virginia's Sam Huff also kicked extra points.

159 Pros End Qualifying Test

St. Louisan Tops First Day at Tam O'Shanter Preliminary at 67

CHICAGO (AP)—A field of 159 pros will complete qualifying play today for the All-American Golf Tournament at Tam O'Shanter.

The group is a remainder of 283 pros who began the qualifying round yesterday despite several interruptions because of rain.

Gene Webb of St. Louis, a 35-year-old who apparently thrives in rain, fired a five-under-par 33-34—67 to lead the field yesterday with five birdies and 13 pars. Webb did not card more than four strokes on any hole.

Following Webb were Gene Bone of Detroit and Herman Scharlau of Chicago with 69s.

Championship play will begin Thursday in the men's and women's pro and amateur tournaments with the "World" tournament following next week. Men and women amateurs held their qualifying rounds Monday. There is no women's pro qualifying round.

Carter Favored Over Satterfield

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP) — Harold Carter was an 8-5 favorite to whip Bob Satterfield in their nationally televised heavyweight bout tonight.

The edge goes to the 22-year-old Linden, N.J., puncher on the basis of his March 21 decision over unpredictable Bob. The two fighters battled to a draw in Miami Feb. 28.

Satterfield is ranked sixth in the heavyweight class, three rungs ahead of ambitious Carter.

A win for Carter would put him in contention for the vacant heavy crown and will explode Satterfield's hopes of getting a shot at Archie Moore for boxing's top-money title.

Kramer Loses in Net Meet

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Promoter Jack Kramer almost contributed the big surprise of his $7,500 Masters Round Robin Pro Tennis Championships Tuesday night as he forced Australian Frank Sedgman to the limit before bowing.

Kramer lost in straight sets, but only by the barest of margins. The scores were 10-8, 14-12.

Pancho Segura defeated another Australian, Rex Hartwig, in the other feature match at the Los Angeles Tennis Club, 6-2, 6-1. Of the 32 points Segura won on his serve, 20 were on misfired backhands by the erratic Hartwig.

Near-Five-Pounder Taken by Detroiter

Another nice smallmouth bass that was too light to displace the current leader in The Pontiac Press "big fish derby" bass division, has been reported. The 4-pound-13-ounce fish, 23 inches long, was landed on Green Lake (Waterford township) first of the week, by Grant Warner, 15345 Woodingham, Detroit. However, it would not have been eligible for the contest, which is restricted to Oakland County residents.

Warner's fish was taken on a flatfish lure, a favorite of many bass fishermen. Current leader in the bass division is a 5-pound-12-ounce specimen.

Picked by Ballot

Hogan "Man-of-Decade"

NEW YORK (INS)—Ben Hogan, four-time golf champ, has been hailed as the "man of the decade in sports" by a national sports magazine.

In a ballot of the nation's sports writers and sportscasters, printed in the 10th anniversary issue of Sports magazine, Hogan proved to be the most dominant figure in the world of sport the past ten years.

Hogan also won the "top performer in golf" award, as well as the "comeback of the decade" designation. Just beating Hogan in the 1955 U.S. Open playoff was enough to earn Jack Fleck the "upset of the decade" award.

Ted Williams of the Boston Red Sox was named the top baseball player of the last ten years.

Here's the way the experts called the last decade's top performers in other sports:

Upset of Seeded Players Produced

SOUTHAMPTON, N.Y. (AP)—The Meadow Club Men's Invitation Tennis Tournament is only one day old but already it has produced a threat to the seeded players in Whitney Reed, the all-service champion.

Reed, 23, an airman second class from the Norton Air Force base at San Bernardino, Calif., yesterday eliminated sixth-seeded Allen Morris Jr. of Atlanta 6-4, 7-5 and today faces Alejandro Olmedo of Peru, the NCAA title-holder.

* * *

The seeded rankings were broken again when eighth-ranked Arando Veiera of Brazil was knocked out of the competition by little-known Dave Snyder 6-0, 6-3. Snyder's opponent today is John Cranston, San Marino, Calif.

Keeneland Yearling Sale Lags Behind '55 Average

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—Yearlings carrying some of turfdom's fanciest bloodlines went on the auction block today, with a strong finish needed to boost the price average in the lagging Keeneland sales.

A total of 89 untried thoroughbreds were slated to change hands in the fifth and final session of the sales. Consignors included Leslie Combs II and his son, Leslie Brownell Combs, John D. Hertz' Stoner Creek Stud and the Forest Retreat Farm of Dr. Eslie Asbury.

The Combs consignment was figured by some observers to top the auctions with a colt by Owen Tudor-Pashmina or with a gray son of Mahmoud-Up The Hill.

A filly certain to bring spirited bidding is one by Roman-How, consigned by the estate of Herman Delman.

Other sires represented in the session include Nasrullah, Noor, Citation, Count Fleet, Alibhai, D'Jeddah, Polynesian, Coaltown, War Admiral, Jet Pilot, Alsab and Royal Charger.

Sales officials hoped such names would boost the average, $8,119 on 265 head, lagging well behind last year's record mark of $11,167 as 346 yearlings brought more than 3¾ million dollars.

However, there was little chance that one session could raise the over-all average to last year's mark.

Detroit Faces Union's Champs

Both Still Unbeaten in Printers' Baseball Tournament in N.Y.

CINCINNATI (AP) — Defending champion New York meets Detroit today in a clash between the last two unbeaten teams in the 42nd Union Printers Baseball Tournament.

Three teams will be knocked out in the double elimination tournament in the other games today. Baltimore was paired against Cincinnati, St. Paul against St. Louis and Chicago against Washington. All six teams have 1-1 records.

Boston and Pittsburgh were eliminated yesterday.

Baltimore gave Boston its second straight defeat, 11-7, and St. Paul did the same thing to Pittsburgh, 9-2.

In the other second-round games New York had to go 11 innings to nose out St. Louis, 2-1; Detroit edged out Chicago, 3-2, and Washington drubbed Cincinnati, 11-8.

Costa Held to Draw

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Carmelo Costa, 127, Brooklyn, was held to a draw by Paul Jorgensen of Houston in a 10-rounder here Tuesday night. Jorgensen also weighed 127.

A crowd of 6,500 drew a gate of $20,800.

Mighty Mites Stay Unbeaten

BC Midgets Back Up Fifty-First Straight Win, Over Stars

One of the area's most consistent baseball winners is the Boys Club City Midget League Mighty Mite outfit.

Yesterday afternoon on Eastern's rain-soaked diamond the Mites chalked up their 51st consecutive victory over a three-year span.

Unlucky opponents were the Federal Savings Midget Leaguers All-Stars. They were battered under a barrage of 15 hits for a count of 17-4. Steve Thomas led the hitting with a 3-run homer in the 3rd and a double. Game was sewed up in the 3rd with a total of 10 runs for a 10-0 count at that time.

Mites used five hurlers, Bob Sutton (2), Bill Bennett (1), Dave Moczarski (1), Pete Vasquez (1) and Harold Singleton (2). All-Stars got only four singles off the quintet.

Season's 1st Ace

A three-iron tee shot that headed straight into the cup Tuesday gave Birmingham CC its season's 1st hole-in-one. Emory Moore hit the shot to No. 15 green, a 200-yard hole.

LEADER—A new leader for the pike division of The Pontiac Press "big fish derby" has been turned in. Above is Frank Graham, 15-year-old Jefferson Junior High pupil, with his 4-pound, 2-ounce northern pike. Frank's fish is 28 inches long, was taken on Bevens Lake, Monday night.

Union Lakers Roiled

Irked by Boat Mishaps; Fish Hide Out

By JACK PATTERSON

Union Lake residents are getting plenty fed up with this summer's rash of boating mishaps, strictly the result of the carelessness, stupidity and general irresponsibility on the part of some boat operators. Residents are not much happier about the "hands off" attitude reportedly adopted by some officials when their aid is sought to deal with violators. Cynics suggest that in an election year no political organization is apt to tread on the toes of prospective voters. That shouldn't be a problem because troublemakers on Union Lake (and other Oakland County lakes, for the problem is general) seem to hail from south of our county line, so their votes don't count anyway.

PATTERSON

We imagine that any lack of action is inspired less by political considerations than by that bugaboo of all law-enforcement agencies today — shortage of capable manpower.

In a purely personal aside to Sheriff Frank Irons and his boys we'd like to suggest that a crackdown, whenever possible, on the yoots who misuse our local waterways might serve a number of desirable ends.

Probably because of the surface violence raging overhead, Oakland County fish are hiding out and being very choosy about when and with whom they'll do business. That is not to say that you can't go out and catch fish. But you can't say with any truth that "tomorrow I'll get my limit."

Early mornings, evenings are still the best bet. Hoppers for bluegills in fairly deep water pay off in the evening. Bass are where you find them.

In the north fishing is generally very good. Smallmouths are coming in fast in northern Lake Michigan and Lake Huron hotspots. Panfishing in smaller lakes is excellent. Trout fishing is unusually good for this time of year.

Streams are quite a bit higher than normal and the usual "fine and far off" tactics called for at this season are not necessary.

Perhaps the nicest part about trout fishing these days is the abundance of grasshoppers. Grasshoppers are the perfect midsummer bait. Fish love them, they are durable and best of all easy to come by.

It is almost impossible to fish for trout with grasshoppers and not come up with a decent catch. For bigger fish, however, a natural presentation is a must. A good fish has seen many a hopper and has an idea of how one behaves.

One way a natural does not behave is to bump along the bottom attached to a hunk of lead. A free hopper floats with its decks just awash in smooth water, sinks below the surface a bit and tumbles in broken water. On a light wire hook a captive hopper will do the same. No split shot, please.

The purist can cash in on the grasshopper season with any of the many "Michigan hopper" variations. Even a streamer fished dry will work well. Our own experiments with exact plastic imitations rule them out completely. Using them we have made splendid catches of alder bushes, pine stumps and other sylvan addenda but no fish.

Lake Orion Saddle Club and Rotarians will co-sponsor an English and Western style horse show Sunday, Aug. 5, at Kelly's Park, on Heights Rd. west of M-24. Competition will begin at 10 a.m.

'Biggest' Pike Takes 'Fish Derby' Lead

While fishing with his dad, Louis Graham, Monday at 5 p.m. on Bevens Lake, near Holly, 15-year-old Frank Graham caught his biggest pike. Frank's 4-pound-2-ounce northern immediately took over the lead in the Pontiac Press "big fish derby" once it was entered in the summer-long contest. It displaced a 3-pounder.

Other derby leaders are; bass, 5-pounds-12 ounces, and bluegill 1-pound-1-ounce.

Frank's pike was his biggest fish. He and his dad took some bluegills, too. They were using flatfish lures. Family lives at 329 West Wilson.

Full Information Sought for State Deer Hunting

LANSING—Conservation Department field biologists, working against time, will collect deer information up to the "11th hour" before making their recommendations for fall hunting seasons this year.

The Conservation Commission must have the recommendations for study and passage at its Aug. 9-10 meeting in order to make Hunting Law Digest printing deadlines.

Department staff members, using rules of the new deer law passed by the legislature this year, are expected to recommend that a system of quotas and areas be set up to harvest surplus deer this fall.

If this is the case, quotas of hunting permits will be recommended in certain "trouble" areas where deer are so numerous that they have eaten winter food plants down to the nub or where they have damaged farm crops.

Last winter, Michigan lost more than 115,000 deer, with large percentages of these winter-weakened animals starving and being pulled down by dogs.

New zone offices will be created at Newark, N. J.; South Bend, Ind.; Green Bay, Wis.; Peoria, Ill., and Charleston, W. Va.

'Start Public Relations Effort'

GM Director Urges Plan to Ease Engineer Shortage

Anthony G. De Lorenzo, director of the General Motors Public Relations Staff, urges a public relations effort on the part of educators and industry to help solve the serious shortage of engineering teachers and students.

"Together, perhaps we can do something about this engineering light which tends to be hidden under a basket," he told the 5th Annual General Motors Conference for Engineering Educators at GM's new Technical Center.

There is an important alliance between industry and education of which GM takes full cognizance, De Lorenzo said, "because, after all industry is education's best customer."

He pointed to GM's $5 million-a-year program of aid to higher education, the current engineering conference and GM's latest program for high school science and mathematic teachers as examples of the corporation's interest in promoting growth in the technological fields.

ONE MEANS TO END

"In sum, we are trying to explore opportunities, especially those which are suggested to us by educators, which may help to solve the nation's shortage of essential brainpower," De Lorenzo said.

"This is a job so large that no one technique or agency can adequately handle it; public relations methods are but one means toward a solution and we invite your consideration in using the techniques to your ends," he said.

He pointed out that GM annually hires about 2,500 college and university graduates.

"This large number makes the educational process very important as far as we are concerned," he said.

DO A BETTER JOB

In its broadest application, he said, the basic public relations objective of any institution is to get people to like it and its products and services better. "This holds true for General Motors, our automobiles and other products, and equally for your university or college and ideas and students it produces."

Public acceptance comes to that institution which does a good job, but just "doing a good job isn't enough, De Lorenzo said. It must also be done the right way.

"A company can put up a new plant to the ultimate benefit of a community but succeed in alienating a whole town in the process," he noted. "Doing a good job in the right way means, among other things, giving consideration to its public relations aspect at the very start; that is at the policy-making stage."

Kefauver's Exit to Hurt 'Soapy'

Most of Michigan Votes at Convention May Go to Stevenson

LANSING (INS) — With the withdrawal of Sen. Estes Kefauver from the presidential race, the political fortunes of Gov. G. Mennen "Soapy" Williams took a decided turn for the worse.

Michigan's 44 votes at the Democratic convention are pledged to Williams as a favorite son on the first ballot but after the initial polling at least 35 of them are expected to go with Adlai Stevenson.

For the first time, the Michigan delegation will not be governed by the unit rule and the governor faces the possibility of seeing his state's support going to the man he opposes because of his "moderation" on the civil rights issue.

Williams' opposition to Stevenson's civil rights views was made obvious through the "Michigan Declaration" and indications are that Stevenson will get Williams' support only if the declaration is a part of the Democratic platform.

However, political observers could not see Stevenson endorsing that part of the declaration which calls for the unseating of southern congressmen if their states do not abolish segregation.

Williams' support of Averill Harriman has been made clear through his consultation with the New York governor on the "Michigan Declaration" and the fact he visited Harriman in New York for several days a few months ago.

NAACP May Avoid Paying Big Fine

MONTGOMERY (AP)—State attorneys today began planning how to collect a $100,000 fine from the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People.

The NAACP attorneys began planning a request that the Alabama Supreme Court review the fine for contempt of a state circuit court.

Yesterday the supreme court refused to suspend the fine while the NAACP prepared a writ asking it to take over the contempt proceedings and review them. Robert Carter, NAACP attorney from New York, said the writ would be filed as soon as possible.

Once filed, it would suspend action on the fine levied by Circuit Judge Walter B. Jones on July 25. The NAACP has until Aug. 24 to file the writ.

An assistant attorney general said late yesterday that no action had yet been taken to try to collect the fine. "Whether we can collect before they get the writ filed depends on how fast they can act," Edmon Rinehart said.

The NAACP asked the suspension because, Carter told the supreme court, it feared the fine might be increased during the time it took to draw up a legal petition and brief.

Hodge Reported Ailing at Home

Central Scandal Figure in Illinois Not Seeing Anyone at Estate

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) — The many-faceted investigation of the million dollar scandal in former State Auditor Orville E. Hodge's office continued today with the central figure reportedly ailing and in seclusion.

John Casper, caretaker at Hodge's luxurious home on Lake Springfield, said Hodge was "not feeling up to par." Casper reported Hodge had been nervous and nauseated yesterday, but that no physician had been called.

The caretaker denied a report that Hodge suffered a heart attack. Hodge's attorney, Arthur M. Fitzgerald, yesterday said he was informed Hodge suffered "pains in the chest." Fitzgerald said he supposed Hodge had a heart attack.

Hodge, once a big man in the GOP administration, is under federal and state indictment charging mishandling of more than a million dollars worth of funds in his office. He left instructions with Casper that he is "seeing no one."

Meanwhile, George P. Coutrakon, Sangamon County state's attorney, said he may call four reputed gambling figures before the county grand jury investigating the Hodge case.

No-Chance-to-Argue Traffic Tabs in Offing?

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Those roadside conversations between motorists and policemen that usually begin, "Where's the fire, Buddy?" may some day be a thing of the past.

Police Chief William H. Parker predicts personal contact between officers and motorists will be eliminated in the future, with closed circuit television spotting and photographing traffic violations.

The photographs would be mailed to the offender and to the traffic court, he told a meeting at which Los Angeles received a national safety award.

Chicago Battles Polio Outbreaks

Victims of Disease Rise to 449 as Officials Urge Salk Shot Cooperation

CHICAGO (AP)—Polio cases continued to mount today in Chicago as city health officials renewed appeals to have children inoculated immediately with the Salk vaccine.

Dr. Herman Bundesen, board of health president, yesterday reported 27 new cases for the 24 hour period ending midnight Monday. It was the second highest daily toll since the upsurge began a month ago.

No deaths were reported in yesterday's figures which raised the city total to 449 cases. There have been 11 deaths attributed to the disease since Jan. 1.

Last year at the same time, 59 cases and two deaths had been reported. In 1952, when there was a record 1,203 cases for the year, 109 cases and 79 deaths were reported for the same period.

MORE ARE CALLED

Bundesen urged parents to have children 6 months old through 19 inoculated with free Salk anti-polio shots at 64 area hospitals and several public clinics. Pregnant women also are eligible for the free inoculations.

Since the outbreak began, Bundesen said, 572,509 persons have been inoculated. He said 1,100,000 shots still must be given. Many of these will be second or booster shots, he said.

Four more nurses arrived yesterday to help in what health officials have described as the polio emergency. The four, all from Yankton, S. D., came in response to nationwide appeals by the American Red Cross. Eight other nurses arrived previously.

Cherry Pickets Riot at Traverse Plant

TRAVERSE CITY (AP) — Police watched today for a possible recurrence of disturbances in a picket line that closed the canning and processing plant of Cherry Growers, Inc. yesterday.

Some 200 are idled. The company said it resumed processing after the picket line was set up, by recruiting non-striking workers. It did not say how many.

The company said the strike was illegal in violation of a current contract. G. A. Hughes, regional director of the Retail Warehouse, Distributors and Suppliers Union, said workers were demanding a 25-cent hourly pay boost and reinstatement of seniority rights.

All city policemen and some sheriff's deputies rushed to the scene when disturbances broke out on the picket line.

A cherry growers spokesmen said the company currently pays 20 cents more on the average than competing Michigan processing plants. Average wage at Traverse City, he estimated, was $1.12 an hour.

A Big Mouth About H-Bomb Leads to Arrest

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force has arrested and may court-martial an enlisted man said to have admitted giving out information which led to an official acknowledgement that an H-bomb dropped May 21 missed its target.

He is Airman Jack H. Kilgore, 21, of Meadowview, Va. School officials there described him as an average youth and expressed surprise he should be in any trouble.

Kilgore is being held in custody on Eniwetok Island near the center of the U.S. Pacific nuclear proving ground. The Air Force said his arrest followed his admission to intelligence investigators that he was the source of a "leak" about the target miss after the test explosion of May 21.

The next step is an investigation by the Air Force commander at Eniwetok to determine what charge or charges might be brought against Kilgore and whether they warrant a court-martial.

The Air Force said Kilgore is now being held on a preliminary, general charge that he disclosed secret information in violation of Air Force regulations, the military code of justice, and standing orders of the joint task force which has over-all control of nuclear tests in the Pacific.

Long-Range Radar Sets to Track Hurricanes

WASHINGTON (INS) — The weather bureau plans to buy 39 powerful long-range radar sets to locate and keep constant track of East and Gulf Coast hurricanes.

The bureau said the tailor-made devices will serve as "electronic Paul Reveres," warning vast areas about approaching storms.

Each of the new devices to be manufactured by the Raytheon Manufacturing Co. of Waltham, Mass., is expected to be able to scan 200,000 square miles, and the farthest range in any one direction was estimated at 250 miles.

Steel Officials Showing Faith in Early Settlement

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Most top officials of the steel industry here said today they are not alarmed by the delay in a final settlement of the month-old strike that appeared ended last Friday when a master agreement was worked out.

A few said it's possible some unsolved issues could develop into a major block, but none expected they would.

The strike closed more than 85 per cent of the nation's steel mills July 1. It has idled more than 100,000 workers in steel-related industries as well as 650,000 United Steelworkers.

Negotiations are continuing with 39 steel companies in New York.

CAA Opens Hearings on Grand Canyon Air Disaster

WASHINGTON (AP) — A fact-finding panel of the Civil Aeronautics Board today opens hearings aimed at finding the cause for the Grand Canyon collision of two airliners which killed all 128 persons aboard.

To piece together the facts on U.S. commercial aviation's worst disaster — for which there were neither witnesses nor survivors — more than 30 representatives of the United Air Lines and Trans World Airways and of the Civil Aeronautics Administration were listed.

What they could tell the six-man panel during the next two or three days obviously could deal only with procedures for dispatching the airliners, traffic rules and the shattered bits of wreckage.

To begin with, the official investigators worked from these basic facts:

A TWA Constellation and a United DC7, which took off a few minutes apart from Los Angeles on June 30, collided at what probably was about 20,000 feet altitude above the Colorado River as it flows through the Arizona Canyon.

Both planes were eastbound, the TWA headed for Kansas City, the UAL for New York. The TWA Constellation carried 53 passengers and 5 crewmen; the UAL DC7 64 passengers and 6 crewmen.

The DC7 had filed a flight plan for soaring at 21,000 feet in the canyon area, which contained a thick cloud deck, extending from about 2,000 feet up to 20,000 feet. The CAA, which handles air traffic, said the TWA pilot requested permission to go up from 19,000 to 21,000 feet, but before he could be answered again radioed that he would fly visually, instead of on instrument, at 1,000 feet above the cloud tops.

This would have put him up to the level of the UAL liner. The last words from either of the airliners was the fragment of a message radioed by the UAL plane: "We are going . . ."

As the CAB hearings began, a number of possible causes for the crash already had been speculated upon. They have included inadequate traffic control rules, pilot error or misjudgment, malfunctioning of equipment, and the possibility that turbulence in the thunderstorms through which the planes were flying may have hurled them together.

The CAB panel conducting the public hearings is headed by Chairman James R. Durfee.

Feud Foments in GOP Ranks

First Public Support of Leonard Begins Row in Young Republicans

LANSING (AP)—Michigan Young Republicans feuded with each other over whether organization members should publicly support either of their party's candidates for governor.

The battle was touched off last week by the announcement of Allan B. Clink, Young Republican national committeeman for Michigan, that he would head a committee supporting Donald S. Leonard.

"It has always been, and still is, the written policy of the Michigan Federation of Young Republicans that neither the federation nor any of its chartered clubs shall endorse any candidates prior to the primary election," said Lee C. Dramis, state chairman.

Dramis said Clink's announcement, therefore, "violates the spirit of this long-standing policy of neutralism."

Dramis said the implication that Young Republicans are backing Leonard is erroneous, that since Clink's remark he had been swamped with calls from Young Republicans who support Detroit Mayor Albert E. Cobo, Leonard's rival in Tuesday's primary.

"For myself," Dramis said, "although I have not used my office to campaign for him, I intend to vote for Mayor Cobo, and I can assure anyone who wants to know that the majority of Young Republicans to whom I have talked with will do the same."

Newest CD Function to Preserve Economy

BATTLE CREEK (AP)—The Federal Civil Defense Administration has created a new office for the preservation of the nation's economy after the shock of an attack.

The new office, Economic Requirements Services, will be headed by G. Lyle Belsley, 51, a veteran government employe.

Belseley's service is responsible for:

Planning the distribution and rationing of civilian goods and services; determining civilian needs of manpower and material; procuring resources for all governmental levels; planning the restoration of plants, factories and utilities.

Typhoon Wanda Strikes Blow at Okinawa Base

NAHA, Okinawa (AP) — Typhoon Wanda blew between Okinawa and northern Formosa today after smacking this island base with its second glancing blow in two days.

The storm center was reported 150 miles southwest of Okinawa and moving northwest into the East China Sea at about 15 miles an hour. Its center winds had slackened slightly to 150 m.p.h.

No injuries were reported on Okinawa, but the U.S. Air Force said some of its temporary buildings were damaged and telephone and electric power lines were blown down.

The southern Ryukyus took a stiffer beating as the 600-mile-wide storm whirled toward the coast of Communist China.

Damage from strong winds and rain-spawned floods was reported on northern Formosa. The rising Tansui River drove more than 6,000 persons from their homes in the Taipei area. Many Americans had to move in with friends or into hotels.

The storm delayed Adm. Arthur W. Radford's departure for Seoul. The chairman of the U.S. Joint Chiefs of Staff was not expected to get off until tomorrow.

Michigan FEPC Program Thrives

Battle on Discrimination Wins Cooperation From Employers in State

LANSING (AP)—Michigan employers are showing "excellent" cooperation in the state's campaign to end racial and religious discrimination in employment.

Such is the opinion of John G. Feild, the 33-year-old director of the infant Fair Employment Practices Commission (FEPC).

Feild, who resigned last January as director of the Toledo Human Relations Commission to head the new state agency, paused this week to survey the commission's accomplishments since it set up shop Jan. 1.

Many of these accomplishments, Feild concluded, can be credited to the employers themselves, the men from whom many FEPC supporters expected steely resistance.

"The response we've been getting from employers is very gratifying," Feild says. "We've had excellent cooperation and haven't encountered any significant resistance."

TEETH NOT NEEDED

The commission was established by the Legislature in the spring of 1955, following one of the longest and bitterest legislative fights in Michigan history.

At that time, some of the legislators who championed FEPC predicted it would eradicate discrimination against minority groups in employment.

And lawmakers who opposed it said the commission would accomplish nothing.

Feild's view is somewhat between the two extremes. He says the commission has accomplished a lot, but has a lot further to go.

What may come as a surprise to some FEPC advocates is Feild's observation that enforcement—the "teeth" in the law—has played only a minor role in the commission's accomplishments to date.

As of June 15, the commission had received only 97 complaints in discrimination in six months of hiring, firing and promoting among the state's work force of some three million.

Of this total, two complaints were dismissed for lack of jurisdiction, 27 were thrown out with a finding of "no discrimination" and 14 were settled to the satisfaction of both employer and employe. The rest are still being processed.

GI Keeps Promise After Three Years

Korean Houseboy Arrives in America

MCKEESPORT, Pa. (AP)—A promise made to a Korean houseboy by a former Army sergeant more than three years ago was fulfilled today with the arrival of Cheung (Mickey) Key Wan.

When Mickey landed at Greater Pittsburgh Airport and embraced his benefactor, LaVerne R. Leffard, 30, it was the end of a three-year struggle to bring the 18-year-old Korean orphan to this country.

Mickey, who understands more English than he speaks, grinned broadly when he saw his "old Army buddy." Leffard, who gave up an eight-year Army career to bring his friend home, said:

"That's all the thanks I need. I feel great that I was able to succeed in my promise to bring him here.

Leffard explained that he met Mickey while serving with the 424th Field Artillery near Seoul. Mickey was a houseboy in the barracks.

"I took an immediate liking to Mickey and decided to help him," Leffard said. "When I learned I would have to be discharged from the Army to bring him to McKeesport, I did it willingly and have no regrets."

* * *

The boy is to live with the Leffards until he himself decides what he wants to do. Mrs. Leffard said later she was "very happy to have Mickey with the family." Leffard, single and a carpenter, said there were no immediate plans for adoption, adding: "We will let him decide that."

Immigration at New High

First 6 Months of 1956 Show Record Number Since 1929

WASHINGTON (AP)—More immigrants were admitted to the United States in the first six months of 1956 than in any other similar period since 1929, the immigration service said today.

Commissioner Joseph M. Swing of the Immigration and Naturalization Service said the number admitted in each of the six months averaged about 26,500.

In a report to Atty. Gen. Brownell, Swing said about 38,000 of those admitted came in under the provisions of the Refugee Relief Act.

The report said a total of 100,000 persons—out of the 209,000 authorized by the act—had been admitted by June 30.

In other aspects, Swing said "every phase" of inspection work increased during the six-month period. Nonimmigrants (alien tourists, students, foreign government officials) totaled about 315,000—an increase of about 7 per cent over the comparable period in 1955; admission of Mexican agricultural laborers were facilitated and 74,000 persons were naturalized.

* * *

Swing also reported a decline in illegal crossings of the Mexican border. He said the service apprehended 28,700 persons in the January - June period compared with a total of 64,390 in the same period in 1955.

Teenage Group Working Hard for Cool City Hall

EATON RAPIDS (AP)—The teenage members of "Gremlins' Corners" have taken on two years worth of window washing, lawn mowing, baby sitting and other tasks to get their meeting place and city hall air conditioned.

"Gremlins Corners," operated continuously since World War II as a teenage canteen, is a tucked-away room in city hall.

But few members take advantage of the canteen on hot summer evenings.

So John Perkins, 16, and Dan Goff, 18, school pupil council representatives of the community activities council, conceived the air conditioning plan to assist in rejuvenating summertime Gremlins meetings.

They propose to air condition not only the corners, but all of city hall as well.

The project is estimated at nearly $3,500.

The Community Activities Council and city commission approve the project, which the Gremlins expect to complete in two years of odd jobs. "With that kind of leadership and enthusiasm, they can't miss," says commissioner Leo W. Banjamin.

DONATIONS START FUND

Some parents have donated $5 to help the fund get started.

Many others are helping with the planning. One man who asked to remain anonymous has offered to install the air conditioning system without charge.

Meanwhile, the Gremlins are taking whatever odd jobs orders that pop up.

'Near Beer' Ban Sought in City

Steps to Outlaw Sales to Minors Initiated by Commission

Initial steps has been taken by the Pontiac City Commission to outlaw the sale of "near beer" to minors in Pontiac.

Commissioner John E. Carry (District 6) offered a resolution Pontiac's state representative to reinitiate an act to outlaw the sale of "near beer" in the state.

Carry said last night that Rep. Leslie H. Hudson had told him that a similiar bill passed the House in the last session of the State Legislature but later died in a Senate Judiciary Committee.

Carry offered a second resolution instructing City Attorney William A. Ewart to draft a city ordinance limiting the sale of this "brew," as Carry called it, to licensed liquor establishments.

Mrs. G. Rolland Landry, 262 Judson St., and Mrs. Alan B. Greene, 266 Judson St., appeared before the commission objecting to the sale "on the grounds of the demoralizing effect it will have on their children."

Patrolman James Laffner, of the Juvenile Division of the Pontiac Police Dept., said "near beer" contains less than one-half of one per cent alcoholic content, but "looks like beer, tastes like beer, and smells like beer."

Few complaints, except from parents, have arisen from the sale since two years ago when it reportedly was placed on the market.

He said teenagers, mostly from 14 to 18 years, would often place true beer in the "near beer" bottles or reverse the labels.

Ewart said it "legally is not beer but close to it" permitting its sale in grocery stores, canteens, and other retail stores.

Some African porters are able to carry a head load of 60 pounds while making 15 miles a day.

For Breaking Legs

Convicts Face Punishment

BUFORD, Ga. (AP) — Forty-one crippled convicts face a bread-and-water diet after mass leg-breaking demonstrations against the heavy work load at Georgia's "Little Alcatraz."

The convicts, all bad actors sent to Rock Quarry Prison from other camps in the state, included 27 white and 14 Negroes.

They smashed their legs with heavy sledge hammers yesterday and Monday after complaining that their wheelbarrows were too heavy and the sun was too hot.

State Prison Director Jack Forrester termed the self-maiming a "frameup" to do away with the prison for incorrigibles.

"But we are not going to close," he said. "The Board of Corrections and I are going to run the prisons."

He said the disabled men will face the maximum 12-month confinement at the "hard rock" prison when they return from the hospital. He said they also will lose mailing and visitor privileges and possibly will get solitary confinement, which includes a bread-and-water diet with a full meal once every three days.

DO YOU HAVE THE "LIVE IN THE OLD ONE OR BUILD A NEW ONE" BLUES?

YOUR PROBLEM IS YOUR PRESENT HOME. IT'S PAID FOR OR NEARLY SO. Naturally you would like to get as much for it as you can. There are several ways this can be done. Let's see which way will be best suited to you and your old house.

THIS ONE IS DIFFERENT YET EXTREMELY PRACTICAL

DESIGN R234 — this is a large brick ranch home. It has an exceptionally nice living-dining area with an L - shaped arrangement which takes in the entire end of the house; the angular front entrance hall will lead you into either the living area or directly to the kitchen or bedrm. area, for convenient traffic circulation. An enchanting fireplace open on 2 sides, serves both the dining and living areas; if you will closely inspect our plan, you will notice how this arrangement lends itself to good furniture placement. You will also observe the 2 entrances from the terrace you will be able to visualize the beauty of your rear lawn and garden area, as seen through the rear windows of this spacious living area; or a look through the front picture window will show you a unique ledgerock planter with its vertical trellis arrangement extending to the roof. All this, built on your lot or ours, for the low price of $15,500.

Orval Faubus Wins Arkansas Primary

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—Gov. Orval Faubus sailed toward a second term today, the easy victor over four opponents in Arkansas' Democratic primary.

The governor took the lead with the first trickle of returns and never relinquished it.

Defeating his major opponents—Jim Johnson and Jim Snoddy—without a runoff strugle, Faubus broke tradition for the second time in his comparatively brief career of seeking statewide office.

Democratic nomination in Arkansas is tantamount to election.

In a relatively cool campaign almost devoid of issues, Faubus hit hard on his record, Johnson concentrated on segregation and increased welfare payments, and Snoddy promised improvements in the welfare program.

Milk Strike Committee Holds Closed Meeting

LANSING (AP)—A special interim Senate committee set up to study last spring's milk strike met behind closed doors Tuesday.

Attending the session with five committee members were a lobbyist, a spokesman for the state sheriff's association and farmers who have complained about strike damage.

Newsmen were excluded from the meeting by Sen. Bert J. Storey (R-Belding), the committee chairman.

Wife Slayer Committed

BENTON HARBOR (AP)—Raymond Spruell, 55, accused of killing his wife, Myrtle, Nov. 29, has been committed as insane to Ionia State Hospital. Circuit Judge Thomas Robinson signed the order. Spruell shot and critically wounded himself after the slaying.

New 'Tic Tac Dough' Money Show Appeals to All Classes

By JACK O'BRIAN

NEW YORK (INS)—Broadcasting workers are second highest paid in the U.S., the first—security-commodity brokers, the Commerce Department sez . . .

Pioneer radio thrush Peg La Centra is comebacking on the coast while making up her mind about hubby Paul Stewart, the actor . . .

NBC's new "bandstand" arrived yesterday, exactly 20 years late . . .

It provided a nice lineup of "name" bands (Lombardo, both Dorseys, Johnny Long, Freddy Martin, Wayne King) with Bert Parks emcee and Johnny Mercer guest star . . .

It would have been a riot back when the big bands were supreme, but there are so many tasteful disc jockey shows with just as good music spun on hi-fi records, that such a seemingly "big" live-music show no longer provides the wallop it theoretically might . . .

It wasn't bad, but it wasn't good enough.

NEW MONEY GIMMICK

Jack Barry's new "Tic Tac Dough," a new NBC-TV giveaway gimmick, tossed its cash away modestly with a simple device—the old tic tac toe whatzis—and it was pleasant and for its class, pretty interesting.

Russell Seeds bought "Break the Bank" to go opposite Edgar Bergen Tuesday nights.

Ernie Kovacs had some of the funniest sights ever seen in TV, his only trouble being length of sketches . . .

With a tough editor Ernie could be next season's Mr. TV . . .

"Studio One" was arty but not artful . . .

Montgomery had another of those gone-to-seed old Southern aristocracy drahmas which the South is even more tired of than we . . .

Walter Winchell's show starts Oct. 5 (a week earlier than planned) and will appear every Friday instead of three out of four. The projected Friday specs have been dropped . . .

Gene Fowler Jr. will direct the TV series based on and titled "The Great Mouthpiece," written by his famous pop . . . Brian Donlevy is starred . . .

NBC signed Jack Carson for another year while hoping to sell Jack in a TV show.

Top Chiefs of Indonesia Split on Country's Future

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—President Sukarno and Vice President Mohammed Hatta fail to see eye to eye on the political future of Indonesia.

Strictly speaking, the two men who fathered Indonesian independence are not the people's choice. There has never been an election for the offices they assumed at the start of the Indonesian revolution in 1945. But their position as the young republic's two dominant political figures is undisputed.

Hatta has announced he will resign when the Constitutional Assembly elected in December 1955 is formally convened sometime next month.

But he will be acting president when Sukarno leaves Aug. 25 for a look-see at the Communist world, including the Soviet Union and Red China.

Sukarno returned early this month from a six-week tour of the West, including the United States. This week in his first report to the Indonesian people on his trip, he said Asians should not envy Americans for their wealth because it was earned through hard work. He called on Indonesia's 82 million people to work hard to exploit their own country's rich resources.

Hatta, 54, an economist educated at Rotterdam University, has been called a "constructive revolutionary." Sukarno, 55, an architect trained in Java at Bandung University, has been called an "emotional revolutionary."

Hatta has been described as wanting Indonesia to concentrate on its economic development, stabilizing its security by bringing in new industry.

Sukarno wants to throw out completely the last vestiges of what he considers Western colonialism. He is particularly bent on taking Western New Guinea from the Dutch — a goal which has strong backing from the entire country.

Cancer Respects No One—Even the Little Tykes

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. (AP) — Four-year-old Chris Barnes' birthday cake came too late.

The brown-haired, blue-eyed boy with "a smile like the littlest angel" died just after midnight of cancer of the blood.

His mother was more or less reconciled to it. A few hours before, while Chris was receiving his eighth blood transfusion, she quietly observed:

"He's a very sweet, very affectionate little boy. I feel he belongs to God and I feel privileged to have had him even for such a short time."

Mrs. Doris Barnes learned only 30 days ago he had the disease.

Chris was in an Albuquerque hospital about two weeks. The nurses took to his bright smile and likened him to "the littlest angel."

Mrs. Barnes, a schoolteacher with three other children, said doctors told her they had seen few such cases develop so rapidly.

Chris would have been 5 Friday, but his mother decided to hurry up a little birthday party — just in case. It was to have been today.

"I DON'T KNOW WHAT I WOULD HAVE DONE WITHOUT O-JIB-WA"

"For a lady of 83, I'm in really wonderful health, and am glad to recommend O-JIB-WA BITTERS to others," says Mrs. Blanche Brown, 406 Michigan Ave., Owosso, Mich.

Mrs. B. Brown

"A couple who roomed with me over 12 years ago in Saginaw, told me about O-JIB-WA BITTERS. The husband was so crippled with arthritis that he used crutches, but after using your medicine, he was all better. For 10 years I had terrible rheumatism and arthritis in my knees and limbs, and it got so I couldn't get around. I was forbidden to climb stairs, and once went three weeks without being able to walk a block. The swelling was real bad in my ankles, and the pain was so fierce I couldn't sleep nights. My kidneys too were bad, and caused me to get up frequently. O-JIB-WA started helping me within two weeks. Even my daughter noticed a big difference in my health, as your medicine helped me all over. My stomach does not burn me now, and I can eat almost anything without the fear of indigestion. One thing I want to urge, and that is that a person take O-JIB-WA BITTERS long enough to help them; a couple of months if necessary, and not for a few days and quit. I will always recommend O-JIB-WA to others, but want them to understand that they won't be better overnight. If you are going to try it, give it a fair trial."

Stevenson in Democrats' Spotlight, Truman Trying to Pull the Switch

By RUTH MONTGOMERY

WASHINGTON (INS)—Former President Harry S. Truman, playing a cagy game of political poker, has met with initial rebuff in his secret attempt to scuttle Adlai Stevenson in favor of a Harriman-Keefauver ticket.

I have learned from an unimpeachable source Truman has been working behind the scenes for several weeks to force a wedding between New York Gov. Averill Harriman and Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee.

At one point the proposed deal looked so hot that planners expected to culminate it at the testimonial dinner for Sen. Walter George in Washington 10 days ago. The plan blew up that evening, however, and does not look very promising now.

An informed source revealed that Truman, nearly a month ago, dispatched his hand-picked former national chairman, Frank McKinney of Indiana, to New York for the first of a series of secret huddles with Harriman's campaign manager, Carmine de Sapio.

POLITICS IN ACTION

McKinney, recently appointed Midwest campaign manager for Harriman, was to persuade Harriman to take Kefauver as his running mate, and also to convince the senator that his only hope lay in such a deal.

The week before the George dinner, Harriman came to Washington to address the National Press Club. Afterward he paid a secret call on Kefauver at his Senate office. During that huddle, Averell reportedly told Estes he was "very much embarrassed" by Truman's critical remarks about Kefauver.

Truman, who has carefully preserved the "myth" of his neutrality in the coming scramble for delegates at the Chicago convention, actually is determined to stop Stevenson if at all possible.

Although he dislikes Kefauver, Truman has been eyeing his 200 committed delegates and possibly 50 others as the best means of stopping a bandwagon for Stevenson after the first ballot.

A recent newspaper poll gives Stevenson 404½ delegates, Harriman 141, Favorite sons 303, and uncommitted delegates 323½. A total of 586½ is needed to capture the nomination.

Stevenson backers seem not too alarmed by the Truman maneuver, because the combined strength of Harriman and Kefauver would total only 341 and they doubt that Kefauver would be able to deliver most of his delegates to Harriman.

CAN BACK OUT

The majority of Kefauver's delegates have been elected in primaries and are committed to him only on the first ballot, and for the No. 1 spot. If he made a deal to take second place, their legal obligation to him would cease.

A number of Kefauver's delegates, including such men as Sen. Mike Mansfield of Montana, admittedly favor Stevenson and will stay with their Senate colleague only on the first ballot, unless he becomes front runner for the presidency—an unlikely situation.

It may be for this reason the Truman plan blew up the night of the George dinner. Jiggs Donohue, Kefauver's campaign manager, was reportedly in a hot temper throughout the evening, charging in and out of the dining room and once upsetting a serving table. He spent most of the time in the corridor outside, conferring with such out-of-town politicos as Chicago Democratic Leader Jake Arvey, a Stevenson man who helped put over Adlai four years ago.

Stevenson, Kefauver and Harriman shared the head table at the George dinner, but Kefauver walked out during the former's speech to catch a plane for the Colorado state convention.

Stevenson backers are frankly uneasy about the role of some favorite sons, who control a fat block of state votes. Gov. A. B. "Happy" Chandler, they fear, may make a deal with Harriman simply because he bitterly opposes the pro-Stevenson Kentucky faction led by Senate Assistant Majority Leader Earle Clements and Former Gov. Lawrence W. Weatherby, a senatorial candidate.

They are also disturbed by the recent action of Rep. Charles C. Diggs, representative from Detroit, in espousing the Harriman cause. They wonder if Diggs would have made his move without the covert blessing of Democratic Gov. G. Mennen Williams, Michigan's favorite son.
