3 Killed in Area Traffic

City Residents, Leonard Man Die in Crashes

State Accidents Claim Ten Other Victims Over Weekend

Three persons were killed in head-on automobile crashes in Pontiac and Oakland County Saturday and Sunday. Dead are:

Willard Ledbetter, 23, Auburn Hotel; Cleo W. Callahan, 25, 229 E. Walton Blvd., and Burnell J. Schlusler, 54, Leonard.

Two others injured in the same accidents are in fair condition in Pontiac General Hospital. They are Miss Frances Musser, 27, 954 Stanley Rd., and Willard Larson, 50, Van Dyke.

Twelve other persons injured in city accidents over the weekend caused the chairman of the city's Safe-Driving Day campaign to say, "This was one of the worst week ends Pontiac has ever seen.

"The city's traffic fatalities for the year now stand at 14, more than twice last year's figure," Clyde R. Haskill said.

"And three of those deaths occurred during the campaign, aiming at making Dec. 1 accident-free," he added.

Ten others killed in traffic accidents in Michigan over the weekend were:

Frank L. Horton, 57, Benton Harbor.

Ruby E. Eveld, 41, Benton Harbor.

Mrs. Rachel Smith, 49, Flint.

Ronald Childress, 43, Toledo.

Gary Matuszewski, 8, Bay City.

Alex Golubinski, 60, Detroit.

William C. Wondero, 23, Detroit.

Norman Calvin, 23, Pulaski, Ill.

Willard Christman, 46, Toledo.

Ledbetter and Callahan died after a crash at 2:15 a.m. Sunday on Kennett Rd., just east of Stanley Rd.

Pontiac Police said skid marks indicated Callahan crossed over the center line when the crash occurred.

Miss Musser, a passenger with Leadbetter, was ordered held by Deputy Coroner I. C. Prevette, as a material witness in the accident.

Dr. Prevette said Ledbetter died immediately and Callahan was dead on arrival at Pontiac General Hospital.

Oakland County Sheriff's Deputies said that Larson was driving over the yellow line, when the head on collision took place at

I Wouldn't Say That About a Vice President — Truman

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Los Angeles Examiner today quotes one of its reporters as saying former President Harry S. Truman said yesterday of Vice President Richard Nixon:

"I don't even want to discuss that --- -- - -----. Don't even mention his name to me."

The Los Angeles Times quotes Truman: "I don't like the --- -- - ----- and I don't care who knows it!"

But Truman, who arrived here yesterday, denied making the statements. A spokesman at the Beverly Hills home of oilman Edwin Pauley, where Truman is staying, quoted the ex-President as saying he "would never speak in any such way of anybody holding the office of vice president."

Both newspapers said the quotes were Truman's response at the airport when reporters asked what his reaction would be to Nixon becoming the 1956 Republican candidate for president.

The spokesman quoted Truman as saying he said instead: "You know how I feel so don't talk to me about Mr. Nixon."

Truman arrived by plane from Seattle to address a $100-a-plate banquet tonight to raise funds for the Truman library, now under construction at Independence, Mo.

Reporters also asked Truman if he had any comment on the Denver speech Saturday night by Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan in which Williams attacked Adlai Stevenson's plea that the Democrats use a "moderate" approach to national issues. The governor said Democrats would be "guilty of the most craven cowardice" if they allowed the presidential campaign to "degenerate into a spineless and self-defeating formality."

Truman said with a grin: "That's good. That's the way Democrats are. They have opinions and they speak their minds."

Turnpike Head Eyes Road Plan

Higgins Says Proposed Highway Will Not Stop Future Toll Road

Expected revenue from the proposed Rockwood to Saginaw toll road would be reduced "to a limited extent" by construction of the 32-mile Fenton to Clio superhighway, Chairman of the Michigan Turnpike Authority George N. Higgins said today.

Higgins spoke at noon before about 200 people in Flint's Hotel Durant.

The Fenton-Clio project was approved recently by the State Highway Department and will parallel part of the proposed 113-mile turnpike route.

"However, its total effect on annual revenue forecast for the turnpike will not in my opinion prevent the toll road from being financed," Higgins stated.

"The highway commission (Charles M. Ziegler) is doing everything in his power to keep the turnpike from being financed," Higgins charged.

"His best weapon is to threaten to build a competing expressway available without tolls."

The effect of Ziegler's effort, said Higgins, "is fine for the people in the turnpike corridor . . . never before have they enjoyed so much attention and such an attentive ear for new construction demands."

The MTA chairman said in his opinion the Fenton-Clio project would not have been delayed if not for Ziegler's alleged desire to torpedo the toll road.

If the Highway Department "were to connect the Fenton-Clio road with a four-lane, limited access highway south to Detroit and on to Rockwood there would be little need for a turnpike and we could get only about half of our forecast revenue."

But construction of a complete north-south freeway would take ten years and cost more than $160,000,000, Higgins asserted. "Contruction costs on our route will be $164,000,000 and it would be finished 39 months after bonds are issued."

He said Genesee County mortgaged $1,000,000 of the future gas tax returns to pay its share of the

Delay Graham Plea Until December 9

DENVER (AP)—John Gilbert Graham, 23, charged with the murder of his mother who died with 43 others in the explosion of a United Air Lines plane, today was granted until Dec. 9 to enter a plea.

District Judge Edward J. Keating granted the delay during a seven-minute court hearing.

John J. Gibbons, named by the court Friday as counsel for Graham, told Judge Keating, "we are in no position to enter a plea in this matter. We would like at least two weeks."

Dist. Atty. Bert M. Keating, who is no relation to the judge, said he had no objection to a continuance but emphasized he wants a speedy trial.

Russians Hold 2 U.S. Solons in Berlin Sector

Ostertag, Boland Freed by Reds After Arrest for Radio Possession

BERLIN (AP)—Two American congressmen were held yesterday in the Russian sector of Berlin for more than four hours. The incident challenged some of the Allied occupation rights in this four-power city.

The party was held at pistol point at the Russian War Memorial Center in Treptow. The German police contended the visitors had violated the laws of the Communist state by using an automobile equipped with a two-way radio.

SUPPORT CLAIM

U.S. authorities said that the Russians supported this claim later in the day when the Americans' release was secured.

American officials took this to mean that the laws of the East German republic now could be applied to Allied personnel entering East Berlin. This would in effect weaken, if not destroy, the four-power character of the divided, occupied city.

Maj. Gen. Charles L. Dasher Jr., U.S. commandant in Berlin, demanded an audience with the Soviet commandant, Maj. Gen. P. A. Dibrova, to lodge a verbal protest.

Dasher indicated he would take up with Gen. Dibrova the rights of the Allies, especially in the use of official vehicles, as well as the "unjustified mistreatment" of the congressional party.

Ostertag told newsmen it was a "harrowing experience for me but I felt it would straighten itself out.

"It was difficult to understand the delay in getting the word down the line to any responsible authority. My wife was rather nervous, of course."

Education Group Convenes Today

Federal Aid to Schools to Be Principal Topic at Capital Parley

WASHINGTON (AP) — American mothers, fathers, teachers, businessmen — a 1,400-member cross section of the population—gathered today for the four-day White House Conference on Education.

Many were loaded with questions on one of the most controversial issues in the educational world today—federal aid to schools, due for discussion Wednesday.

Delegates to 18 of the state conferences preliminary to the national conference took a stand on the question. At several other state meetings it was discussed without recommendation.

Of the 18 conferences, a dozen approved federal aid, but almost every one of these tackled it from a different direction. Some declared for federal aid of any kind, some only for construction assistance, some for federal funds "without strings."

Some approved it in principle "for other states if they need it."

In Utah sentiment was so violently against any federal aid that delegates traveled here on state money rather than accept federal transportation allowances.

Legislation now before Congress calls only for federal aid for school construction, not for operation, teachers' salaries or purchase of books.

Tonight's opening session will include sound-filmed greetings from President Eisenhower and speeches by Vice President Nixon; Conference Chairman Neil McElroy, president of the Procter & Gamble Co.; and Clint Pace, conference director.

Tragedy Strikes City Home

Pontiac Family Loses Children to House Fire

Neighbor Braves Fire to Rescue Youngsters on Hands and Knees

A distraught mother prayed today for her two remaining children, after two others, rescued from flames and smoke, died in Pontiac General Hospital.

A fifth child of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Johnson, 86 W. Beverly Ave., Richard 2, was found dead in their home, where fire broke out at 5:45 p.m. Saturday.

Mark, 8 months, and Victoria, 2, Richard's twin, died of burns Sunday.

Still in critical condition in the hospital are Steven, 4, and Donald, 3. Both are suffering from severe burns.

Three of the children were rescued before firemen arrived by a 23-year-old neighbor, who crawled on knees and stomach to reach them.

Mrs. Johnson, 27, who had been making a phone call at a neighbor's house, was prevented from entering by the crowd that gathered around the burning home.

The front door had been broken into by another neighbor.

Boyt made three trips into the house, crawling on his hands, knees and stomach.

"After the third trip, they said all the kids were out. I couldn't hear any more screaming. So I went home," he said.

Boyt told no one who he was. It took Pontiac Police more than 24 hours to find his name and address.

"I don't know who it was I brought out. I couldn't see them, just feel them and hear their screams," Boyt said Sunday.

The three were named as Mark, Victoria and Donald by Boyt's father, Earl Boyt. He and his daughter, Janet, rode with firemen to take the children to the hospital.

Donald is a lathing contractor, who served with the Army in Korea. He is a graduate of Pontiac High School.

Mrs. Johnson told police that she locked the doors to the small, frame home, and went to a neighbor's to call her brother.

"I wanted him to stay with me, I was afraid of prowlers," she said.

Mr. Johnson, 24, was on a hunting trip to northern Michigan.

Police said the neighbor asked her: "Aren't you afraid to leave the children alone?"

Firemen said that two burners and the oven were turned on. They theorized that Richard had turned them on and gas from the oven had exploded.

Temperatures Take Dive to Low Mark of Season

The most severe wintry blasts of the season gripped Pontiac and the rest of the state this morning, sending temperatures tumbling to near-zero readings in many parts of Michigan.

Pontiac residents experienced a sharp drop from Sunday's high of 40 to a frigid 9 above zero at 7 this morning. A light snow started to blanket Oakland County as the morning rush hour traffic took to the road and slowed traffic to a crawl.

Today's plummenting thermometer recorded the state's first zero weather this season with Escanaba reporting a two-below reading.

Not much relief is in store as the weatherman calls for continued cold and snow flurries today with a high near 20. Continued cold is predicted for Tuesday with a high from 20-24 foreseen. Tonight's low is expected to be 8.

The cold arctic air that swept into the state from Canada tightened its icy grip on the eastern two-thirds of the nation with temperatures hovering around the zero marks in parts of Wisconsin, Minnesota and North Dakota.

The forecast for Wednesday is somewhat more hopeful with the weatherman predicting partly cloudy and a little warmer. The lowest temperature preceding 8 a.m. was 9. The thermometer registered 11 at 2 p.m.

Agree on Need, but Not Way

Legislators Debate Problem of Providing Care for Retarded

Four Michigan legislators, including Rep. Richard C. Van Dusen (R-Birmingham), have agreed that emergency care must be provided for more than 1,000 mentally retarded children awaiting admission to state institutions.

But, like the Legislature, they split on means of providing the care. The four appeared at a public debate in Detroit yesterday.

Sen. Edward Hutchinson (R-Fennville) and Van Dusen insisted the Senate plan to provide more beds should prevail. Reps. Ed. Carey (D-Detroit) and George Sallade (R-Ann Arbor) argued for the House proposal.

Sallade and Carey spoke in favor of the state buying either the Farmington Children's Home or the Oakland County Tuberculosis Sanatorium, or both, to meet the emergency.

Hutchinson and Van Dusen argued that care could be provided without purchase of more facilities.

Van Dusen said it would be "unwise" for the state to buy either the Farmington or Oakland County hospitals, adding that the Senate thought the problem could be met by "using the facilities for 800 children at Fort Custer; up to 300 children in hospital under contract and 300 under family care."

Hall Says Ike Will Run Again

'If He Feels He's Able,' Adds GOP Chairman After Eisenhower Talk

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP)—Republican Chairman Leonard W. Hall said today after a meeting with President Eisenhower he now believes Eisenhower will seek a second term "if he feels he is able."

Hall met reporters after holding with the chief executive the first all-out political conference Eisenhower has had since his Sept. 24 heart attack.

The national chairman said Eisenhower's second term plans were not discussed "as a specific situation" at their 45-minute meeting, but he added he felt "very much encouraged" as a result of the meeting.

"I feel better about it (the President's running) after the meeting this morning," Hall said.

Hall said he expected much to depend on late January physical examinations which are supposed to show whether Eisenhower's recovery from his heart attack is complete.

Hall said Eisenhower made no promises about running again: "He didn't say yes and he didn't say no."

But Hall offered as his "personal opinion" the comment that "I think he will (run) if he feels he's able."

Indian Newspaper Criticizes Red Bomb Announcement

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—The Hindustan Standard said today Russia's Communist party chief should have picked another time, place and occasion to announce the explosion of a hydrogen bomb by the Soviet Union.

Nikita S. Khrushchev, now touring India with Premier Nikolai Bulganin, announced the bomb test in a speech Saturday at Bangalore.

The Standard, a leading newspaper in New Delhi and Calcutta, said Khrushchev's use of an Indian platform for the announcement was "ill chosen . . . inappropriate and embarrassing to his Indian hosts."

The Standard's statement was the second time the Russian leader have drawn critical comment from the Indian press since they arrived more than a week ago. They were criticized also when they attacked the West in a speech before the Indian Parliament.

It was announced there that Bulganin and Khrushchev will extend their Indian visit two days—until Dec. 14—to permit a trip to Kashmir.

Within the Soviet party, disagreement continued over what Khrushchev said exactly in describing the strength of the bomb exploded.

However, all but one of the Russian reporters listening to the speech reported Khrushchev said "millions of tons." The one exception said he heard it as one million tons.

Neither Russian nor Indian officials released an official text.

The Soviet government's announcement in Moscow said only that the test was "the most powerful of all explosions carried out until now" by the Soviet Union.

'I Heard Them Screaming,' Says Rescuer

Donald Boyt, 23-year-old neighbor who rescued three of the Johnson children from their burning home Saturday said:

"I heard their screaming inside. There was nothing else to do.

"I crawled on my hands and knees to the living room. The smoke was bad. I couldn't see much, but there were scattered fires all over.

"I found one baby and brought him out. Then I stuffed a handkerchief in my mouth and went back in.

"I crawled on my stomach to reach two kids lying on the bed. I had to make two trips.

"It was very hot. My lips were seared and smoke filled my nose and eyes. I couldn't see, only feel and hear the kids screaming."

Cassady to Lions, Morrall to 49ers

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Detroit Lions today drafted Howard (Hopalong) Cassady, Ohio State's great running halfback, after the San Francisco 49ers had picked Earl Morrall, Michigan State quarterback.

On the Lions' second round they selected Leon Clarke, Southern California end, handed over to the Rams to complete a previous trade.

The Lions and 49ers made their choices following Pittsburgh's surprise bonus selection of Gary Glick, a comparatively unknown quarterback from Colorado A & M.

San Francisco and Detroit, tied in the league standings, tossed a coin to see which team made the 1st pick in the regular draft.

Jesse E. McBride Dies in Cranbrook Road Blaze

JESSE E. McBRIDE

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE—Jesse E. McBride, 76, retired vice president and chief engineer for the Palmer-Bee Co. in Detroit, was found burned to death in the library of his $75,000 Bloomfield Village home Saturday, in a blaze that destroyed both the library and adjacent kitchen.

Damage to the house at 1216 Cranbrook Road was estimated at $25,000, excluding another possible $15,000 for furnishings and clothing damaged by smoke and water.

While some firemen felt the blaze originated in the library, which contained a television set, Oramel O'Farrell, assistant State Fire Marshal, said his investigation showed an overheated pan on the stove could have been the cause. McBride was not a smoker.

The McBride's housekeeper, Mrs. Billie Lowe, 40, of Detroit, said she made McBride, a semi-invalid, comfortable and left to buy groceries shortly before flames broke out in the three story brick residence. The fire was reported by a neighbor and a passerby and brought under control in less than half an hour by fire trucks from Bloomfield Township and Village and Bloomfield Hills.

FIRST FATALITY

McBride's wife, Edith, and a daughter were returning from Chicago at the time and learned of the tragedy over their car radio. Mrs. McBride collapsed and was placed under her physician's care.

Bloomfield Village Fire Chief Charles Duryea said to his knowledge, the blaze marked the first fatality in the history of the village fire authority.

McBride retired in 1950 after 40 years with Palmer-Bee and moved here four years ago from Highland Park. He was a member of Christ Church Cranbrook and the American Society of Mechanical Engineers and was a Mason. He received his engineering degree from the University of Pittsburgh.

Besides his widow and daughter, Joan at home, he leaves a daughter, Mrs. Robert J. Mauck of Bloomfield Hills; two brothers, Arthur B. and Theodore, both of Pittsburgh and four grandchildren.

His body will be taken from Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co., Birmingham, for service at 2:30 p.m. Tuesday at Christ Church. Burial will follow in Woodlawn Cemetery.

A passenger in the other car, driven by Schlusler, Jonathan Bishop, 41, Romeo, was released after treatment at Pontiac General Hospital.

A post-mortem was performed on Schlusler in Potere Funeral Home yesterday by Deputy Coroner, Dr. Wood M. Geist.

U.S. Still Leads, Wilson Declares

Defense Secretary Says America's Retaliatory Power Unequaled

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)— Secretary of Defense Charles E. Wilson said today that the retaliatory power of the United States' armed forces "is unequalled in the world and we plan to keep it so."

He also said that:

"It is going to take years for men of good will throughout the world to establish the sound condition for a just and durable peace. In the meantime, we don't dare let down our guard."

In an address prepared for the American Municipal Assn., Wilson said the threat is continuing. Reiterating previous administration policy in the defense program, he said there is no one "danger date" and no single form of possible enemy action to which defense should be directed.

Because of the destructiveness of modern weapons and the increasing efficiency of long-range planes and missiles, Wilson said, the United States has reason, for the first time, to be "deeply concerned" over the serious damage a sudden attack could inflict.

"We must, therefore, maintain the capability to deter an enemy from attack and to blunt that attack if it comes—by a combination of effective retaliatory power and a continental defense system of steadily increasing effectiveness. These two tasks logically demand priority in all our military planning."

He was told that Mark died at 12:50 a.m. and Victoria at 6:35 a.m. Sunday.

Deputy Oakland County Coroner, I. C. Prevette, said that Richard died of asphyxiation, with severe burns as contributory cause.

Assault on Officer Causes Car Crash

A Pontiac police officer and his prisoner received minor injuries yesterday when the latter allegedly leaped on the patrolman from behind causing him to crash into the rear of another car.

Officer Melbourne D. Griffin, 23, of 32 Parkhurst, told his superiors that the incident occurred at Orchard Lake and Bagley while he was taking Paul D. Regden, 29, of 226 N. Cass, to the police station to be booked on a charge of driving while under the influence of liquor.

The driver of the other car, Harold G. Short, 37, of Midland, was uninjured. Griffin and Regden were treated at Pontiac General Hospital.

Police Chief Ralph W. Moxley reports that the October accident toll was the highest on record, with a total of 71 accidents, including 13 personal injury accidents with 20 persons injured.

Property damage was estimated at $19,173.

The "following too closely" violation was a contributing factor in 16 of last month's accidents, Moxley said, with another 16 accountable to "right-of-way" violations.

In stating the next highest violation, "improper parking from parked position," Moxley reminded that, "It is the responsibility of the driver of a parked vehicle to yield the right-of-way to moving traffic before entering the traveled lanes."

Traffic Victim Remains in Critical Condition

5 Girl Convicts Kill Matron, Flee

Ohio Spreads Dragnet for Trio Still Uncaught After Jailbreak

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Five girls tricked a gray-haired matron into unlocking their door in the Summit County detention home last night, killed her and escaped through a basement window they smashed with a shovel.

Early today, two of the girls—Merl Cain and Margaret Nicholson, both 15—walked into the police station and surrendered. They said a boy friend persuaded them to give up. Still at large were Ruth Beichler, 17; Shirley Shingler, 15; and Mrs. Zelda De Cost, 16.

The body of the matron, 59-year-old Miss Bula Bonham, was found on the floor of the girls second-floor dormitory in the somber, two-story brick building. Her arms and legs had been tightly bound with cloth belts from the print house dresses the girls wore. A wash-rag, soaked with ammonia the girls had saved from their cleaning chores, was jammed in her mouth.

Capt. Boyd Burk of the Akron police said cause of death had not yet been determined but that he believed Miss Bonham died of asphyxiation within minutes after the attack.

From four other girls left behind in the dormitory, police learned the escapees got the matron to unlock their door by asking her to bring them a scarf one had left downstairs. They threw her to the floor and bound her.

A male attendant, Ralph Roebuck, 29, heard the scuffle overhead while he was supervising a group of 29 boy inmates watching television in a recreation room. He saw the five girls crawling out the smashed window but did not chase them, fearing the boys would try to escape too.

The other girls in the dormitory said the five had been rehearsing the escape for some time and had threatened to kill them if they told anyone. The ammonia had been collected in a cold cream jar.

Pacifist Killed in Attempt to End Near East Strife

JERUSALEM (AP)—A tall, haggard man of about 30 told Israeli officials here several days ago he planned to cross the Israel-Jordan frontier under a white flag to induce the Arabs to make peace with Israel.

Officials told the man, a recent immigrant from Morocco named Yoseph Cohen, his idea was impractical and he should return to his wife and two children, living in Tel Aviv.

Indignant, Cohen said he would try his one-man peace mission anyway.

Plane Takeoff Trend Changing

Chance of Using Short Runways of Interest to Defense Department

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Defense Department is shifting its interest in new airplane designs from those which rise straight up before flying level to those which can take off from short runways.

"You get so much more payload aboard than if you try to take off vertically," said Lt. Col. John L. Klingenhagen in reporting that as the trend. He is a member of the assistant secretary of defense for research and development.

He addressed some 200 makers and designers of vertical takeoff planes which rise like helicopters and then fly forward like conventional airplanes. They are known as convertiplanes.

Klingenhagen said he has noticed a trend in the Defense Department in recent months "toward studying the problem of STOL (short takeoff and landing) aircraft, and a swing away from VTO."

Klingenhagen classed as a STOL type any plane able to take off in less than 200 feet.

From a top expert on vertical aircraft, however, came word that the VTO "Pogo stick" fighter is very much a live project, "a very successful airplane."

James F. Coleman, test pilot for Convair division of General Dynamics Corp., San Diego, Calif., told the meeting that he has made more than 400 takeoffs and landings with the Convair Pogo XFY1, and has taken it up in 10 "push-overs" into level flight.

Catholic Bishop Blasts Race Bar

Excommunicates Three Women Who Allegedly Beat Teacher in South

ERATH, La. (AP)—The segretation issue flared again today in religious ranks after the excommunication of three Roman Catholics for beating a woman teacher who instructed Negro and white children in the same classroom.

Bishop Jules B. Jeanmard, head of the diocese of Lafayette in southwest Louisiana, said the decree, his first in 38 years as a prelate, was aimed at three women who allegedly attacked the teacher.

Excommunication is the severest of punishments issued by the Catholic Church. Any Catholic under such an order is forbidden to receive the sacraments, including confession, holy communion and final rites.

The teacher, Mrs. Lula B. Orteman, filed assault and battery charges against Mrs. Etta B. Romero and Mrs. Lota B. Menard, whom she identified as two of the assailants. The third woman in the attack was not named.

The Rev. Emery Labbe, pastor of Our Lady of Lourdes Church, said his policy was to teach catechism to both white and Negro students in the same classroom. The catechism is a book containing elementary lessons in the foundations of the Catholic religion.

Bishop Jeanmard warned another act of violence would prompt him to close Our Lady of Lourdes. And he added anyone else who threatened violence or interfered with the functions of the church would be automatically excommunicated without further notice.

The action was the second taken against Louisiana Catholics who have balked at the church's stand of abolishing segregation.

Archbishop Joseph Francis Rummel of New Orleans suspended services at the St. Cecilia mission in Jesuit Bend, La., Oct. 2 after white parishioners refused to allow a Negro priest to say Mass. The services have not been restored.

Harvey G. Luce's Death Big Loss to This Area

Oakland County loses a splendid citizen and a friend of mankind in the untimely death of Harvey G. Luce.

Mr. Luce was Executive Vice President of MacManus, John and Adams in Bloomfield Hills and was one of the key executives that brought this great agency along to an enviable position of prominence and unquestioned standing in the advertising world.

Mr. Luce combined unusual artistic talent with exceptionally hard headed business sense and business judgment. Sometimes the two are somewhat divorced, but in Mr. Luce each was firmly entrenched.

Harvey Luce was an exceptionally friendly individual and was popular with his business associates and with close friends and casual acquaintances. Bloomfield Hills has lost an unusually valuable citizen and a grand neighbor has been taken from the entire area.

Kansas Governor Sounds Loud Clear Call to GOP

New York Republicans were both startled and moved by the advice that came to them from Kansas' youthful governor, Fred Hall.

Before his address to the National Republican Club, Mr. Hall was virtually unknown in the metropolis. Since then he is thought of as a dynamically progressive Young Republican aware of his party's problems and not afraid to face them. To say that he made a favorable impression is to understate the case.

The Sunflower State's young Governor, he is still under 40, pointed to the GOP's "big weakness." This, he said, is the fact that "not enough Republicans are going the President's way. They do not agree with the President's philosophy and program."

Governor Hall chided Republicans for "alienating" farmers as well as labor. Instead of helping these two groups, he said Republicans "are going around the country telling them what is good for them and that they never had it so good."

"If any political fact has been well established in this country in the last 25 years," said the Governor, "it is that the majority of the people want and demand a dynamic and progressive philosophy and program in the administration of their Government."

Governor Hall is a progressive with a persuasive personality. He has a strong, clear and pleasant voice which not only emphasizes his sincerity but comes through well on both radio and television. We predict that it will not be long before he becomes a power in the councils of the Grand Old Party.

Women Voters Target of Legion's Attack

Evidence so far strongly suggests that leadership of the American Legion is making a grave mistake in its attack on the Freedom Agenda program of the League of Women Voters.

In the absence of any facts to the contrary, the aim of this program seems to be both patriotic and desirable. The League's object is to promote a nationwide network of discussion groups for the purpose of making more people understand and appreciate the history and value of American liberties.

According to current reports, leadership of the Legion scents subversion in this program. It also has attacked handbooks used by the League in promoting the Freedom Agenda idea. The same reports say the Legion hints that League handbooks are so written as to persuade readers to become disloyal.

Singled out for specific attack is the handbook "Freedom of Speech and Press." Its author, Prof. Zechariah Chafee, Jr., is an authority on the Bill of Rights and has been a respected member of the Harvard law faculty for 40 years.

It is cheering to be able to report that the leadership of the League of Women Voters has no intention of abandoning the Freedom Agenda program. The League's stand is that "believing . . . in the principle of free speech and free examination of all ideas, it will not yield to intimidation, oppression or false charges." Believing also that "dissent is essential in a free society," it rejects attempts to force conformity.

This newspaper never has seen nor heard of any evidence that the League of Women Voters is anything but a high minded and patriotic organization. In self interest the Legion's leadership should reconsider its position in this matter.

As far as television programs are concerned, choreography has just about ruined dancing.

The Man About Town

Getting the Deer

Some Unusual Experiences of Hunters From This Area

Troubles: Which the best way to make light of is to keep them dark.

The body of a deer that had fallen from a car lay beside the Dixie Highway just northwest of Pontiac for several hours the other night, and then was picked up by a car—going north. Working at a gas station on Telegraph Road on the west edge of Pontiac the other evening, saw a deer fall from the roof of a passing car. The owner returned in a few minutes, but it already had been picked up by another car which then turned down a side street. "Didn't have to wait even one minute for the Mackinaw ferry on the way north," phones of Drayton Plains, "but was held up on the other side for eight hours while returning—without a deer." Killing a doe with his car near Newberry,

Charles (Chuck) Finkelman

Harmon Rothmeier

of Auburn Heights says the carcass was dragged into a cabin beside the highway by two women while he was checking the damage to his car. Returning without a deer after a week's hunting in the northern peninsula,

James Flewelling

of Keego Harbor wandered into the adjoining woods while in the long line waiting for the ferry, and shot a dandy eight-point buck. Giving a financial report of his first deer hunting trip, of Bloomfield Hills, phones, "After figuring up all expenses, loss of time, cost of gun, hunting togs, ammunition, mileage, gas, license, eats and the nefarious incidentals, the actual venison in that 130-pound (undressed) buck cost me exactly $6.15 a pound, besides the hard work and risk of life. But it was worth it. We had a $75 roast for Thanksgiving." The deer kill may not be up to some former years, but MAT knows of a number of Oakland County locker plants already filled to capacity, the first time in their history.

Ransom Peckham

Coming back home to Oakland County from Washington for Thanksgiving was

Secretary of Defense C. E. Wilson.

The Secretary and his three sons, Tom, Ed and Erwin Jr., took time for a day's duck hunting in Canada. My scout didn't report the results of the excursion, but the party comprised a veteran group so I suspect the Wilson menus will embrace duck dinners in the near future.

"In some very recent days we have noticed a sensible approach to Safe Driving Day on Dec. 1," says local chairman for the event, but he asserts we still have some drivers who are not rehearsing for the occasion.

Catch Them When They Mature

David Lawrence Asks:

Is Compulsory Membership in Unions a Breach of Basic Constitutional Rights?

WASHINGTON—Tens of thousands of law-abiding American citizens are every day deprived of their constitutional rights by being denied employment unless they sacrifice their beliefs, yet they cannot get consideration from the Senate judiciary subcommittee on constitutional rights.

This committee, headed by Senator Hennings, (D-Mo), has become the forum for the airing of the grievances of "security risks" and of other persons who have been mixed up either with Communists or Communist organizations and who claim their rights were impaired.

But Senator Hennings has just written Senator Curtis, (R-Neb), that the committee isn't interested in investigating "problems capable of full solution in the courts."

If this really be the criterion—instead of an excuse for inaction—the Senate subcommittee would have to shut up shop.

COURTS HAVE CASES

It so happens that the federal courts have before them the question of the right of the executive departments of the government to fire security risks. At the moment the Supreme Court is wrestling with several phases of this very question. The matter of passports issued by the State Department, for example, is another part of the same controversy which is before the courts.

The Hennings committee has spent a lot of time and money going into the whole security program and has been taking testimony from persons who already have had their cases before the executive departments and who could have appealed to the courts if there had been any injustices done them.

There are probably less than 100 "security risk" cases in America in which there is a serious question of mishandling, but there are millions of persons affected by the loss of the liberty known as "the right to work." This right is guaranteed by the Constitution, which says that no law shall be passed that will interfere with the liberty of the American citizen.

In various industries there are thousands of contracts with local unions in which it is stipulated that a worker cannot keep his job and must be fired unless he agrees to join a union within thirty days of his employment.

Here is a palpable interference with liberty of thought and liberty of action. The idea of compulsory unionization—which says that a man cannot earn a livelihood unless he is a member of a union—undermines the foundations of the Constitution itself.

A COLD SHOULDER

Medals and awards and large grants of funds are being given nowadays to organizations which defend "civil liberties," but not one of the so-called champions of "civil liberties" has ever made a fight against compulsory unionization or against the various forms of "closed shop" that exist today in America in deliberate violation of the Constitution.

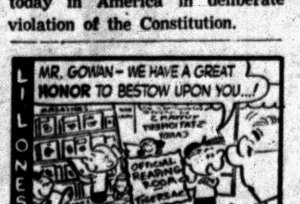

Then there is the matter of misappropriation of the dues paid by members of labor unions. Senator Curtis of Nebraska wrote the Hennings committee recently about it, because he thought it was an abuse of constitutional rights to make a man contribute to a political party which he and his family refused to join as voters. But the Hennings Committee turned a cold shoulder toward that protest.

Incidentally, the Supreme Court has before it a long brief from the Communist Party claiming that its constitutional rights have been violated. It argues that the Communist Party is only a political party, just like the Republican Party and the Democratic Party, and it ignores the Communist Party's relationship with the Soviet government with respect to espionage, as charged by Congress in a law on the control of subversives passed in 1950.

The Communists have ample opportunity to get their cases into the courts, but the workers of the United States who must accept enslavement in "closed shops" evidently can't even get a hearing before a Senate subcommittee which claims to be investigating "constitutional rights."

Calcium Depletion Causes Irritability After an Injury

By WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

A Canadian says her wrist was broken a year ago and she lost the use of her arm. Two orthopedic surgeons have told her she has osteoporosis with a something-or-other which I can't make out atrophy. Will I be an angel and tell her what it means? She is scared. (Mrs. B. H. C.)

The lady fails to mention whether she has regained the use of her arm or what her present condition is. I can only infer from her neat, regular, vigorous handwriting that she is a young woman, probably not over 45.

Nor does she indicate whether she was disabled or confined to bed or chair or prevented from doing her usual work or getting a few miles of oxygen on the hoof every day.

Osteoporosis is atrophy, wasting, shrinking of bone.

It is the actual atrophy, shrinkage, softening, lightening and weakening of the bones that occurs in advanced age, earlier in some instances, later in others. The bones are the natural storehouse for calcium and phosphorus.

Removal of more calcium and phosphors (calcium phosphate and carbonate) faster than the individual's metabolism can replenish the store makes the hard, heavy, strong bone soft, light, spongy or porous and weak.

CALCIUM DEFICIENCY

I have literally harped on the calcium deficiency of most Americans—and this is not just a notion I dreamed up; it is the observation of recognized nutrition authorities.

In Little Lesson 26, The Calcium Shortage, for which send 25 cents and stamped, self-addressed envelope, I describe the numerous common complaints which are really manifestations of calcium deficiency.

Any child or adult who is confined to bed or chair for weeks or months, by illness or accident, suffers steady depletion of his or her store of calcium—unless he or she receives a daily ration of calcium and vitamin D. to supplement the regular diet.

This is the observation of many physicians who do not reject new ideas and new methods.

FRACTURE SUSCEPTIBLE

Calcium depletion explains not only the remarkable susceptibility to fracture from slight injuries, after prolonged confinement to bed or chair.

It explains, too, the slow recovery of function and the increased irritability "weakness of nerves" after long disability.

Here's a health suggestion for everybody: Milk is the best food source of calcium, and sunshine on naked skin is the best way to insure your minimum daily requirement of vitamin D—which is essential for utilization of calcium in the body.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to the Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Mich.

Voice of the People

George Higgins Answers Charles Ziegler's Letter

Editor's note: Because of widespread interest in turnpikes and because the Pontiac Press published Charles M. Ziegler's letter in full, this reply by Turnpike Authority Chairman George N. Higgins is also being published complete.

Distribution by Highway Commissioner Ziegler of edited portions of the Authority traffic and earnings report, to legislators and newspapers, was a deliberate last ditch effort to mislead public opinion and turn it against the turnpike.

Ziegler's latest claim is that he opposes the turnpike because the Authority would try and stop improvement of all southeast Michigan roads in order to force people on the turnpike. This is a brand new argument of Ziegler's. Apparently the Highway Commissioner is attempting to convince people he has run out of places to build roads and the Turnpike Authority is getting in the way.

The Highway Department reprinted and circulated recently excerpts from the traffic and earnings report of Coverdale & Colpitts, of New York, turnpike traffic consultants. The report was published last April.

The famous map of "competing" highways is actually a map showing screen lines where traffic surveys were made and on which the traffic report was based. The map outlines such highways as 223, 127, 27, 16, 150, 24, 15, and 23, as well as the principal highways which would get traffic relief from the turnpike, U.S.24, or Telegraph Road, U.S.24 south of Detroit, U.S.10, and U.S.10 and 23 north of Flint.

What Ziegler forgot to include was Exhibit 10, which is also in the report and which ties in with the traffic survey map to show the rate of trips diverted to the turnpike. It shows, for instance, only 4.3 per cent of the total diverted trips forecast from the U.S.27 station, 1.8 per cent from U.S.23 below Flint, as compared to 22.1 per cent on Telegraph south of Detroit and 22.6 per cent on U.S. 10 south of Pontiac.

In other words, Exhibit 10 explains the relative effect of each of these highways on the turnpike's future. The Turnpike Authority is definitely not opposed to the development of all highways in southeast Michigan, and we have never taken that position. Ziegler is on a hot spot and is trying to get off. Trying to deliberately mislead legislators and newspapers is not going to do it for him. What we do oppose is Ziegler's threats to build a limited access freeway immediately adjacent to the turnpike project, which he still insists that he will build.

Aside from extending Northwestern Highway north of M59, widen ign Southfield, extending the Toledo-North expressway or building a North-South freeway immediately adjacent to the toll road route, we don't care what Ziegler does. We hope he will work on roads within a 50 mile radius of the toll road route.

We know that he cannot build it all within a reasonable time, and still take care of other highway needs in the state, and so does he, but his threats may stop our efforts to finance. This is the latest effort by Ziegler to knife us. He wants to be czar of Michigan road building and wants nobody else in the picture.

It is interesting to note that this traffic and earnings report is not new. Ziegler has had copies since it was published in April, over six months ago. I wonder why he just discovered this report and decided it meant we opposed his improvements of all north-south highways in southeast Michigan. With a multi-million dollar corps of engineers surrounding him, it shouldn't have taken him six months to put that interpretation on the report.

I am finding out that there has been more politics in road building in Michigan than there are roads, but I am not going to give up and let Ziegler or anybody else block 113 miles of super highway that won't cost the taxpayers a cent.

Soviet Policies Dig Deep Into World's Pocketbook

By MERRYLE S. RUKEYSER
INS Economic Commentator

In terms of global bookkeeping, militant communism, stemming from Moscow, is a prodigious expense.

The failure of the second Geneva Conference is another reminder that, to a large extent, our own U. S. budget is made in Moscow.

The unwillingness of the Soviet commisars to work out a mutually satisfactory peaceful settlement of tensions means that U. S. military and foreign aid expenditures will remain on a high plateau.

This adverse prospect comes at an unfavorable time for domestic politics when both parties, in an election year, would like to amass votes through the pleasing technique of cutting taxes.

In view of the cynical manner in which politicans regard fiscal problems, there will be a strong urge to make at least token reductions of personal income taxes next year despite the international situation.

The global cost of Soviet intransigeance is far greater. The undue emphasis in Russia on heavy industries capable of manufacturing war potentials defeats the long-term hope of the people for more consumer goods and a general lift in living standards.

The dead hand of Soviet policy, which makes for unproductive utilization behind the Iron Curtain of human and inanimate national assets, also depresses the satellite nations.

And in the West the abnormally heavy non-productive expenditures on armament divert men and money away from creative investment in facilities to develop the so-called backward areas.

If some type of working peaceful equilibrium could be established and this new generation could concentrate on applying on a global basis the management philosophy and industrial techniques which are commonplace in this country, then tangible progress could be made on a global basis toward achieving the philosopher's dream of more and better goods and services for plain folks around the world.

In the tense situation which confronts us, we can do our cause much good by supplementing military potential with the creative force of words and ideas.

It would be well for the government and private agencies which are seeking to carry messages behind the Iron Curtain to reassess word trends in terms of international bookkeeping. This would, in a fresh manner, clarify the tremendous cost to the world of the tyrants in Moscow.

Case Records of a Psychologist

Just a Symptom, Alcoholism Cure Is in Finding Problem's Real Cause

Jack's mother illustrates the statement by Euripedes: "There is no worse evil than a bad woman, and nothing has ever been produced better than a good one." To cure such a person, go to the core. Alcoholism is usually a symptom but not a cause, and that proved true here. Send for the booklet below. It stops much drunkenness.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case Q-307: Jack D., aged 18, presents an all too common problem.

"Dr. Crane, I am so disgusted with life," he began morosely. "My mother began drinking some years ago.

"Now she is getting much worse. I go to college and have many wonderful friends, who have invited me to visit them at their homes.

"I am too ashamed to take the fellows home with me any more. Dirty dishes are piled in the sink. Food is still on the table from previous meals.

"Beds aren't made. Dirty bath towels are hanging over the tub or lying in the wash basin.

"Once my mother was so intoxicated she insisted on sitting in the lap of one of my friends and putting her arms around him and trying to neck with him right there before everybody.

"Dr. Crane, tell me what to do. Now here is the rub. My father drinks with her sometimes but he rarely if ever gets drunk.

"My father is well liked by every one. He will not consent to have her taken to an institution. But I think it is the only thing to do.

"Something has to be done or else I am quitting college. I'll marry a poor girl and start working in some far away places so as never to see my mother again. What makes my mother such a drunkard?"

MOTHER'S DAY

When we celebrate Mother's Day, please remember that such an event is intended to honor good mothers. But there are many bad mothers, too.

Some women get so scared of middle age that they flee into a drunken stupor to get away from their panic.

We psychologists thus compare it with a burning building. The alcohol serves as the fire escape by which the victims try to escape the conflagration inside.

Many women of guilty sex conduct will thus drink liquor to dull the twinges of conscience.

Other women drink on purpose to make it easier for men to seduce them, for under the guise of liquor women feel they can then protect their pride.

MENOPAUSAL DRUNKS

Jack's mother was 44. She had been a spoiled child and accustomed to an extra amount of attention.

And she had always prided herself on her beauty and allure, so it was terrifying for her to think she was in the menopause and "on the shelf" as so many wives erroneously imagine.

Selfishly, therefore, she ignored the humiliation of her son, and alternated between flirting with men and then drowning her sorrows in whisky.

So I had a frank talk with Jack's mother and cleared up her wrong notions of the menopause. And I urged her husband to shower a little more physical affection on her to banish her panic about being a sexless creature.

Send for the booklet "Menopausal Complexes of Men and Women," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20c. It will sober up many menopausal drunks.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Speeding Arrestee Cites Arrester for Speeding

FULTON, Ky. (INS)—Constable Joe Fuller was charged with speeding Saturday by a truck driver he picked up for speeding.

The truck driver swore out a warrant against the constable, charging him with driving too fast in a speed zone.

The constable's trial was set for Dec. 9 — the same date as the truck driver's.

Army to Stress Dress of Pentagon Officials

WASHINGTON (INS) — The Pentagon brass will have to keep spick and span from now on.

Military police in the huge establishment have been given orders to put "special emphasis" on uniforms, shoestrings, and haircuts of Army officers and men.

Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, Army Chief of Staff and author of the order, said that "a marked improvement is required."

Reds Receive Apology for Embassy Bombing

OSLO, Norway (INS) — Norway has apologied to Russia for a bomb which exploded in the garden of the Soviet Embassy in Oslo.

The bomb smashed windows in the building but reportedly caused no injuries.

Norwegian police seized two youths whom they found shooting out street lights nearby with an automatic army rifle. The two boys were said to have denied any knowledge of the bombing.

The youths were retained while police explored the theory that the bombing was a "boyish prank."

Hal Boyle Says:

Director Dreams of $20 Million, Long Life

NEW YORK (AP)—John Huston, a zestful fellow who plays at his work and works at his play, believes he would live longer if he had 20 million dollars.

The lanky film director, who recently completed a four million dollar version of Herman Melville's whaling classic, "Moby Dick," said he wouldn't quit movie making even if a leprechaun suddenly showered 20 million on him—an amount Huston feels would enable a man to live graciously.

"I wouldn't retire yet," he remarked. "I look on making pictures as play. To me its fun.

"My real occupation in life is fox hunting—and shooting.

"But with 20 million I'd find time to do more of the things I haven't got around to. I shot a tiger this year, but I'd like to go back to India and spear a wild boar from horseback. I haven't done that yet."

Here is how Huston, a man who loves simple elegance, would live if he had that 20 million.

"I'd have a castle in Ireland and be a master of hounds in some Irish hunt. It's a paying job, but you do the paying yourself.

"I'd have a shooting box in Austria, a salmon stream in Scotland, a stud farm in Kentucky, a racing stable in France.

"I'd have my own DC3 plane, so I could fly to India, Africa or Alaska, according to the season of my inclination.

"I'd continue living in Ireland, as I do now, because it's a convenient place for one who likes to push around the parade ground of the world. I'd buy better paintings than I can afford now—a Rembrandt or two, a few Goyas, and some Piero Della Francescas.

"I'd have a half dozen houses. One in Madrid, certainly, one in New York, and several apartments in Paris. No, I wouldn't bother to have a house in Hollywood. I'd stay with friends there."

It would be a merry, merry life, and—in Huston's view at least—a long one.

"I'd never know a moment of boredom," he said. "Life is far too short to become boring. My life span would probably be lengthened. It's only trying to make 20 million dollars that cuts short a man's years. Spending it would be healthy."

Huston may never achieve 20 million dollars in the bank, but he does have a way of making his dreams come true.

His latest picture—the 14th of his career—is an example. At the age of 21 he read and was deeply stirred by Melville's tale of the mystic white whale. He decided some day he would film it.

Twenty-eight years later he has achieved the goal. He had earlier hoped to make the film with his father, the late Walter Huston.

"After my father's death," he recalled, "I put away the idea and thought I would never come back to it. But I did. I worked three times as long on it as I did on any other picture, and I think even the college professor will agree I stuck close to the spirit of Melville."

"They ranged in size from six feet to 120 feet," said Huston. "Some were hydraulic controlled, some had pneumonic controls, some had electronic controls.

"Some worked marvelously well out of water but were no good in water. Some were almost complete failures. But they all served a purpose. It was a terrific technical poblem."

Two of the gigantic home-made monsters — each costing about $20,000—broke their hawsers at sea and never were found. Presumably they are somewhere wallowing beneath the ocean waves, frightening the innocent denizens of the depths.

Anyone who finds either of the whales presumably is welcome to it. Huston is done with whales for this lifetime.

Seek Federal Aid to Save Great Lakes' Marine Life

WASHINGTON (AP)—Three Democratic members of Congress from Michigan, Minnesota and Wisconsin have asked the administration to embark on a "crash program" to eliminate the lamprey from the Great Lakes.

The lamprey, an eel-like aquatic predator, has "overrun Lakes Huron and Michigan and is in the process of doing the same to Lake Superior," Reps. Chisholm (D-Minn), Griffiths (D-Mich) and Reuss (D-Wis) said in a statement, adding:

"As a result, lake trout and whitefish have been practically eliminated from Lakes Huron and Michigan and are on their way out in Lake Superior. The lake trout fisheries alone in these lakes used to produce $5 million annually in food, besides providing a livelihood for thousands of our citizens."

In a letter to President Eisenhower, the three said that although electrical and chemical means for killing the lamprey in spawning streams feeding into the lakes is available, present operations cover them in only 71 of the 230 feeder streams on the U. S. side of the three lakes.

These include 21 of 107 on Lake Michigan, none out of 33 on Lake Huron and 50 out of 90 on Lake Superior, the letter said and continued:

"Although considerable sums of money are being currently spent, as long as substantial numbers of spawning streams are not affected, the total number of lamprey in the Great Lakes will remain enormous. Piecemeal treatment of the problem is like patching a few of the holes in a leaky canoe—unless all are plugged, the canoe will still leak."

APPROPRIATION ASKED

The three asked specifically that an appropriation of $750,000 be made for the next fiscal year to finance the project. They also asked that the U. S. members of the International Fishery Commission be appointed promptly to a joint operation to be worked out with Canadian authorities.

A copy of the letter to the President was sent to the budget director, and another to Interior Secretary McKay.

On the same subject, McKay announced Thursday that the search for a poison which can kill lamprey larvae without injuring desirable species of fish is drawing "toward a successful conclusion."

Additional tests must be made, however, before a definite statemen of success can be made, McKay said. The project has been to find a poison that will "kill the five generations of lamprey larvae which live in the mud bottoms of streams."

That will be used on the spawning grounds, McKay said, while the electrical devices already tested on the lakes will be used on adults trying to ascend from the lakes into the breeding streams.

Must Fight If Formosa Is Attacked, Official Says

WASHINGTON (INS) — A high U. S. government official says he believes it is U. S. policy to go to war if Red China attacks Formosa.

He said Formosa is still of prime strategic importance to the defense of the United States. His statement was made against the background of a declaration by a Chinese official that Red China wanted Formosa without a fight but would attack, if necessary, to take it.

India plans to salvage three coastel vessels sunk in Bombay Harbor.

Meany's Diplomacy Paving Way for AFL-CIO Merger This Week

(AFL and CIO will merge next week into a single, powerful alliance of 16 million members. What are the aims of this group, socially and politically? Will it succeed? Can it reconcile factions long at odds? The answers depend largely on one man, George Meany. This first of three articles by a veteran labor reporter looks at Meany the man.)

By NORMAN WALKER

NEW YORK (AP)—George Meany, erstwhile Bronx plumber, became head of the AFL three years ago. He quickly announced his primary aim was to arrange a merger with the CIO.

It seemed an impossible task. Jealousies and conflicts among rival unions and their leaders had doomed many prior merger attempts.

Considering all the problems, three years has been a short time. For Meany, with his typical plodding, make-haste-slowly approach, has succeeded in steering the American Federation of Labor and the Congress of Industrial Organizations into a single, powerful alliance of 16 million members. It will end a 20-year split in organized labor.

Will the new organization endure? What will this formidable combination mean in terms of new inroads against employers, in organizing more union members, in influencing national politics — the stated union objectives for the merger?

Answers to these questions largely depend on Meany, the pudgy, 225-pound, coldly practical union veteran, Walter Reuther, dynamic young head of the CIO, has stepped aside and Meany, as the undisputed choice for president of the new AFL-CIO, will be America's No. 1 labor chief.

DENIES LABOR MONOPOLY

He has tried to calm the fears expressed by some businessmen and politicians that the merged union federation will become a "giant labor monopoly" seeking eventually to take over control of the government.

"To indicate that the united labor movement will attempt to horsewhip the rest of the country is a complete distortion of the facts," says the blunt-spoken, 61-year-old Meany.

"It is dedicated, not to predatory objectives, but to serve as a force for good in the progress of our country."

The merger is all set. It will be formalized at separate AFL and CIO conventions beginning Thursday, followed next week by a joint convention of the new AFL-CIO.

This joint convention, by the way, will be in an armory just a few blocks from Grand Central Station. The rail terminal is one of the structures Meany helped build when as a young man he was lugging his plumber's wrenches around New York.

Those were the days when Meany's wages were the chief support for his grandfather, his mother and seven younger brothers and sisters. His father Mike, a local union president and Democratic party precinct captain, had died. Meany, Irish as they come, married an Irish girl, a garment workers' union member.

QUICK RISE IN UNIONISM

Meany's rise in unionism was swift. Becoming president of the New York State Federation of Labor in 1934, he pushed 72 labor bills through the State Legislature in one year. His achievements led to his selection as the AFL's national secretary-treasurer five years later.

Ever since then, Meany has been a man to be reckoned with in union affairs. While the late AFL President William Green was inclined to compromise and avoid conflict, Meany as his chief lieutenant was constantly prodding Green to take more stands.

Gradually, both before and after he was selected to head the AFL on Green's death in November 1952, Meany quietly took on all the old-line AFL chieftains in tests of strength and, by besting them one by one, has in practically every case earned their respect and support.

Out in San Francisco at the 1947 AFL convention, Meany tangled with John L. Lewis, head of the miners union. Lewis wanted the AFL to refuse to submit the non-Communist affidavits required by the newly enacted Taft-Hartley law. He cowed AFL bigwigs with such scathing language as "I don't think the federation has a head—its neck has just grown up and haired over."

It was Meany who rose to answer the attack. "None of us," he reasoned with AFL leaders, "thinks it is a good law. But it was placed on the statute books under the Democratic system, and the only way it is going to be changed is by our representatives under that system."

Just as the convention supported Meany against Lewis in that instance, Meany by courage, persuasion and logic has won all the big arguments he's had within the federation. There have been a lot of them.

MODERATE COURSE

His determination and diplomacy in dealing with fellow union leaders are largely responsible for patching together the AFL-CIO merger. Perhaps these qualities are a clue to what to expect from the new combined organization.

The AFL, now with about 11 million members, has been considered on the whole conservative. The smaller CIO, with about five million members, has often been called "radical" and regarded on the "left" on the American scene.

It appears likely that Meany will try to steer a middle course, whipping the old-line AFL chieftains into more economic and political activity while taming the CIO to a more moderate course.

So long as Meany is the dominant figure in the new setup it will depend much on him whether the distillation of the AFL and CIO becomes strong, weak or moderate. The chances are he'll move cautiously at the outset, gradually consolidating the cumbersome alliance.

"We have a united labor movement determined to use its best brains and brawn and energy to continue to move forward," Meany has said. "We like the idea of saying that America is the wealthiest nation on earth. We are given to bragging a little bit too.

"Perhaps we don't mean it the same as others when we say that, because when we measure the wealth of this nation we measure it by the human yardstick, not by tall buildings, roads or natural resources, but by the standards of life of the great mass of the citizens."

THE HEAT IS ON—In building speedier planes there is another obstruction besides the sound barrier. This is the so-called "heat barrier." That's the point at which metals start to break down and become useless. Our flight scientists are out to probe it with the new Bell X-2, shown in flight over Edwards Air Force Base, Calif. Its rocket engine can develop as much power as a Navy cruiser. The plane is expected to fly 2,250 miles an hour at an altitude of 20 miles.

Famous Paintings of Grandma Moses to Be on Exhibition in New York City

NEW YORK (INS)—Anna Mary Robertson Moses is a little old woman who lives on a farm—she's also a famous painter called "Grandma Moses" to whom presidents and generals write fan letters.

Beginning Tuesday some 40 of her paintings will be on exhibition in New York city.

Also on display will be a note written to Grandma by President Eisenhower. She also has received letters from former President Harry S. Truman, Sir Winston Churchill and Adlai E. Stevenson, Democratic presidential candidate in 1952.

The Eisenhower note was written in March 1945 when Ike was in France, and it contains a reproduction of a painting by the well-known amateur artist, D. D. Eisenhower.

FIRST PUBLIC SHOW FOR SOME

Among the Grandma Moses pictures to be exhibited will be some never before exposed to public view—the "July 4th" painting which hangs in the White House, as well as the picture owned by Truman. There also will be a reproduction of "The Dead Tree" which hangs in the Louvre in Paris.

The list of those lending paintings to the exhibit from Nov. 29 through December includes the Metropolitan Museum of Art, author Louis Bromfield, playwright Russel Crouse and Thomas J. Watson.

Watson, head of International Business Machines, is also sponsoring the show, as assembled by Dr. Otto Kallir of the Galerie St. Entiennes. Watson, an art lover by hobby, was one of the first to recognize the Moses talent, and Dr. Kallir held the first 1-man show of Grandma's paintings in 1939.

The exhibit, entitled "A Tribute to Grandma Moses," also will include her famous "Painting Gable," on the sides of which the 95-year-old artist long ago painted several landscapes.

Even the catalogue of the show will be impressive—aside from the photographs of paintings usual in such brochures, it also will contain a summary by Grandma of her philosophy of life—a life that began as a farm girl the year Lincoln ran for president—1860—and today includes world fame in the art world.

Keep Some Pay to Buy Drinks, Says Abstainer

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP)—Judge Luigi De Pasquale, who never took an alcoholic drink, says a man is a fool if he doesn't keep a little of his pay from his wife for a drink now and then.

The judge's comments were made in district court yesterday when a 49-year-old father of four came before him on a drunk charge for the third time in six months. The three charges were on complaint of his iwfe.

The man said he works hard, earns between $70 and $90 a week and brings it all home.

"This is a mistake," the judge said. "A man who takes all his pay home is a fool. He should save some for himself. Life would be pretty dreary for the average man unless he could have a drink now and then."

He ordered an innocent plea entered for the man and had him escorted home.

Judge De Pasquale, who is 60 years old and says he never had a strong drink in his life, is happily married and has three daughters and five grandchildren.

'Big' Brothers' to Expand Efforts to Help Area's Problem Teenagers

A group set up to utilize a novel approach in helping delinquent boys met recently at the Hotel Waldron to explain its aims and methods plus issue an appeal for more members.

The Big Brothers of Oakland County have opened offices at 15½ E. Lawrence St. Oct. 28 with William C. Clark as executive director.

President Jack P. White, of Birmingham, defined a Big Brother as "a man with a big heart, a normal amount of common sense and interest in a boy."

The boys handled by the group are between 8 and 16 years old, and unusually in trouble with the law.

"A high percentage of these youngsters are in trouble," said White, "because they have been rejected by their parents. Either the lad has no father, or a father who just doesn't care.

"We feel that by providing the boy with an adult male friend outside his family—a Big Brother—half the battle to straighten the boy out is won.

"The system has already worked in dozens of cases in Oakland County. But we need more upstanding men to join in the program.

Each Big Brother works individually with one juvenile. The youngster is assigned to him through the cooperation of Director of County Juvenile Services James W. Hunt.

"Only boys we feel will benefit from this type of program are assigned to a Big Brother," Hunt explained.

"Before they accept society's rules, they must have a friend and that friend is the Big Brother."

The boy is alloewd to join in normal activities of the Big Brothers' family. He is encouraged to pay his own way during such activities by earning money doing part-time jobs.

"The Big Brother is not a meal ticket," Clark emphasized, "but a friend with whom to have fun and do work with:"

As the youth adjusts to a normal social life, the relationship is gradually severed, he explained. "You're only with him as long as he needs you as a friend," he added.

Men interested in joining the Big Brothers organization can get more information by calling Clark at Pontiac FE 5-9974, he said.

4-H Delegates Pledge Safety

Over 1,200 at Congress Promise Safe Driving Every Day

CHICAGO—More than 1,200 delegates to the 34th National 4-H Club Congress today pledged their wholehearted support to President Eisenhower to make every day Safe Driving Day.

The unanimous action was taken on a proposal made by the eight national 4-H safety program winners to the first general assembly of the Congress in the Conrad Hilton Hotel. S-D Day is Dec. 1.

Carl W. Bond, Colfax, Iowa, on behalf of the other national safety winners, asked the delegates to "pledge to do all in your power to make every day Safe Driving Day."

He pointed out that in 1954 there were nearly 10 million traffic accidents in the United States and that it was important for 4-H members to note "that these accidents were the greatest single killer of farm people, excluding death from natural causes."

The eight safety winners sent telegrams reporting the Congress' pledge to President Eisenhower and to Harlow H. Curtice, president of General Motors and chairman of the President's Committee for Traffic Safety. General Motors sponsor scholarship awards for the national safety winners.

ILA, Teamsters Sign Aid Pact

Mutual Help Contract Will Attempt to Solidify Freight Handling

NEW YORK (INS) — The AFL Teamsters Union and the Independent - International Longshoremen's Association have signed a four-year mutual assistance pact.

The agreement pledges both unions "to render mutual assistance and aid in joint organizational efforts" in eastern, southern and central regions.

Officials announced after the pact was signed in New York yesterday following nine months of negotiations that a joint check of the New York, New Orleans and Toronto ports would be made.

Aim of the survey is "to determine how much freight is being moved by non-union longshoremen and truckmen."

ILA officials refused to say whether the agreement brought the independent union closer to a return to the AFL which ousted it two years ago on charges of gangster control.

ILA head Capt. William V. Bradley said his union would get "whatever aid is necessary" from the teamsters, but he added that this does not include financial assistance.

The agreement expires in July, 1959.

Officials Suspect Juveniles Set Sunday Afternoon Fire

By JULIE HUTCHINS

WHITE LAKE TOWNSHIP — Three White Lake Township firemen were buried under cement blocks late yesterday when the wall of a blazing, hay-filled garage collapsed on them.

Firemen said the roof fell inside the building and before the men had a chance to step back, the walls, crashing outward, had buried them.

Volunteer firemen, Deloss Chisolm, 38, of 315 Tower St., sustained bruises and cuts on his arms and burns on his hands. His fire helmet, split down the middle, was believed to have saved his life. He was treated and released from Pontiac General Hospital last night but said today he was unable to walk because of contusions of the hip.

Gale Winterbottom, 38, of 930 Union Lake Rd., also a volunteer, received cuts and bruises over his entire body and burns on his legs and hands. He was also treated and released by hospital authorities.

Lt. Chester Breit, 41, of 9304 Cedar Dr., is badly bruised. He said that he had a helmet on at the time of the collapse but it had been knocked off and his coat was cut in several places. He was taken to Pontiac General Hospital, treated and released, pending further X-ray study this morning.

Leroy Schwinch, White Lake officer in charge of the fire, stated that he believed the fire was "started by juveniles."

The juveniles have not been apprehended yet but a detective will start working on the case this morning, according to White Lake Police Department spokesmen.

The garage at 482 Oxbow Lake Rd. was owned by Joseph Smith who lives at the Oxbow Grill on Oxbow Lake Rd. He said that the garage was used to store hay for a neighbor's ponies.

Twenty volunteers from White Lake Township Fire Department, with one tank truck and one pumper truck and Waterford Township Fire Department, with one tank truck, played 20,000 gallons of water on the blaze.

Name Petition Committee in Club's 'City' Movement

MARLETTE — Juvamus Club members here are backing a proposition to make Marlette a city. Donald B. Smith of the Michigan Municipal League, Ann Arbor, told the club at its recent meeting the advantages it should bring:

As a city Marlette would be entitled to two members of the county board of supervisors. (Marlette Township would continue to have one supervisor).

The city would become the sole assessing unit, establishing its own municipal or justice court. City residents would not pay township taxes.

Boundries would be set at the time of its incorporation, by a majority vote of all the property owners involved.

A petition bearing at least one hundred names, ten of which must be township residents in the affected area, would be presented to the board of supervisors.

Club president Otis Harten appointed A. L. Morrice, Emery Montgomery, Ward Atkins and Robert Thornton as members of the petition committee. Bert Robinson was named public relations representative.

City boundaries and the city charter must later be approved by a state agency, Smith said.

Festivals Mark Jap Seasons

Parades, Noisy Streets Fete Kiddies' Ages, History, New Years

TOKYO — Japan is a land that is seldom without a festival. Colorful parades through streets and houses gaily decked are held for everything from the anniversary of a city founded 11 centuries ago, to the turn of a season.

Steeped in tradition, the festivals provide a never-ending source of enjoyment for the tourist. Winter, and the arrival of the New Year, offers another festival period. But then so does spring. And even the warm summer months are not without their fetes, many so ancient that their origins are lost.

The Japanese, who love nature as a matter of worship and whose ancient agricultural economy is deeply rooted in the changing seasons, hold many festivals. New Orleans has its Mardi Gras, Rio de Janeiro, the Riviera, Cannes and the Italian peninsula have their share of modern and medieval pageantry. But in Japan the parade of festivals seems never ending.

In October, the people of Kyoto celebrate the founding of their city 1,100 years ago. Forming at the gate of the lovely Heian Shrine, a procession escorts a lacquered palanquin through the streets of the city. What makes the procession unusually colorful is the fact that various groups are dressed in authentic costumes of every important era since the founding of the city.

Other highlights of the October festival season include a 17th-century fete in Nagasaki which features dances of Chinese origin; a cattle festival at Kyoto during which priests and parishioners of the Koryuji Temple, disguised as deities, demons and cowherds hold a procession and ceremony in the temple; a parade of 10,000 lanterns at Hommonji Temple in Tokyo and a procession of 13 enormous, tapestry-covered floats at Nagahama, in Shiga Prefecture.

LOVE OF FESTIVALS

In November, the residents of Tokyo have an opportunity to exercise their innate love of festivals, for on three dates — Nov. 1, 13 and 25 — several shrines in the capital are the scenes of "Tori-no-Ichi," dedicated to the zodiacal sign for the rooster. A feature of the fairs is the sale of garden rakes decorated with all sorts of quaint and outlandish objects which are supposed to bring good luck to the buyer.

On Nov. 15, the "Shichi-go-san" Festival, dedicated to children in those three age groups, takes place in Shinto shrines throughout the country.

The children, in gay new clothing, and their parents visit the shrines of the tutelary gods under whose protection the little ones were born. Later, at tiny stalls lining the approaches to the shrines, the children are treated to traditional wheat-gluten candy.

December is marked by the Year-End Market period which begins on Nov. 14 and is devoted to the purchase of articles used for the New Year celebration, and by "Omisoka," the Grand Last Day, equivalent to the West's New Year's Eve, when 108 strokes of the temple bells ring in the new.

THAT BIG GIFT — Two bike-hikers enjoy the great out-of-doors atop new Christmas gifts. These two bikes are popular standard design. Modern bicycles feature many innovations such as the Pony, the convertible and the radio bike.

A new crater has appeared 4,265 feet up the eastern side of Mount Etna, in Sicily.

Tombstone Saves Man

TRENTO, Italy (INS) — Emilio Odorizzi was saved from death by a tombstone. His car swerved off an alpine road and smashed against a tombstone on the edge of a ravine more than 300 feet deep. The stone stopped the car.

Home-Made Cards Fun for the Family

OLEAN, N.Y. (INS) The whole family can have a lot of fun making their own Christmas cards.

For instance, green felt, cut into triangles with short trunk extensions at bottom, suggest a three-dimensional tree when pasted on folded white paper. For extra sparkle, glue colored sequins to the felt.

Fabric remnants and a stapler can aid the cause. After trimming edges with pinking shears, cover folded paper and, working from reverse side, fasten corners with a stapler. A short piece of narrow ribbon or tinsel, strategically placed, will detract from the staple itself.

Another home-made idea would be to finger paint sheets of paper in the season's traditional colors, superimpose star shapes by pressing whittled cork against the wet surfaces, and cut the paper into card sized rectangles. The hand-written message would appear on the inside fold.

An average 7-inch lead pencil can be sharpened up to .17 times and will write up to 45,000 words. The "lead" in a pencil is not lead. It is graphite.

Diamond-Made Christmas Card Worth $10,000

SAN FRANCISCO (INS) — If you're in the mood, you can buy a $10,000 Christmas card.

You probably think that to be worth that much money a card would have to be made of diamonds and other precious stones—well, that's right.

Card designer Alice Daly has created "precious gem" cards, such as diamonds and pearls deftly arranged on classically-designed letters, deeply padded with rose velvet against a blue silk background.

Other cards combine Oriental jade butterflies and an exotic string of matched jade. To accent their splendor Miss Daly uses velvet flowers with ombre satin ribbor.

The canal locks of Sault Ste. Marie have handled about 4,288 million tons of freight since the route was opened to lake boats 100 years ago.

Two things that make for SAFER driving!

The first and most important thing is you—the driver. As the highway safety organizations and law enforcement agencies point out, the courtesy, care, and common sense you show count more than anything else. You can drive any car safely—or foolishly.

The second thing is the car itself. All cars are safer today. That's shown by the number of accidents in relation to the number of miles passenger cars are driven. The figure's been going down steadily and sharply.

Chevrolet engineers and designers have always made your safety a major consideration, introducing many such features as the all-steel top, safety plate glass all around, and windshield-wide defrosters into the low-price field. And this '56 Chevrolet is the safest one ever built.

Its lively new power means safer passing. Its special Ball-Race steering—and oversize brakes with Anti-Dive control—bring easier, surer driving. The Unisteel construction and safety door latches of its Fisher Body—the nailed-to-the-road stability that comes from outrigger rear springs, an advanced suspension system and better balance—the sweeping panoramic windshield—all these things add to your safety.

Seat belts with or without shoulder harness? Instrument panel padding? Of course, they're available at extra cost on your new Chevrolet. But the best protection of all is to keep out of accidents in the first place. And that depends mostly on you and the built-in safety of your car.

As your Chevrolet dealer, we'll be glad to show you the many safety features of the '56 Chevrolet.

Do We Have Musical Inferiority Complex?

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS)—When you are in Europe and you overhear someone criticizing America, the immediate inclination is to punch him in his Communistic nose and push his Fascist teeth in.

Yet, if the critic turns out to be an American, too, what can you do but listen? A girl doesn't smash her brother for telling her that her slip is showing.

"The average American has a musical inferiority complex," said a tall man I met at a cocktail reception in the Rome rumpus room of Clare Booth Luce not long ago. "He thinks a piece of music is not to be taken seriously unless it was imported from Europe.

"You know what that does to us over here in Italy, where American music is fully appreciated? It makes me a little scared to go home."

The tall man turned out to be a composer and violinist in Rome on a Fulbright grant. His name was Herbert Baumel, and he was mad . . .

BETTER MUSIC

"I have a conviction that our country (the U.S.) is producing more and better music than any other country in the world, and that conviction is constantly being bolstered by people I meet who have traveled and listened and know.

"Europe has a good deal of musical activity going, but it's less exciting, creatively, than America's music. I think that may be due partly to the destruction and pessimism and frustration from the wars; musicians here are trying to recreate the glories of the past."

This is in direct contrast to the situation in the States, Baumel says, "where a lot of young people can't wait to get their hands on some music paper every day so they can write down how they feel about being alive in the U.S.A., A.D. 1955."

But that music those young Americans write? It's much less known to Americans than it is to Europeans."

And till Americans begin to appreciate their own music as the finest—Baumel was really warming up—our U.S. performers will be forced to continue going to Europe for a while, then returning with that seal of approval that reads: "Made in Italy." Or "Guaranteed by France."

ASSUMED NAMES

Sometimes they are even forced to return under assumed names (Helen Jones becomes Mme Helena Johannes) just to make doubly sure they can get jobs in the thousands of so-called "long-hair" musical organizations of this country.

"And all because America has convinced itself that it is too young to be artistic," Baumel muttered. "It's crazy. Our blasted motto should be — We're Still Young Enough to Be Artistic!"

What serious American music needs, he concluded, is "a good bangup publicity campaign to let our own people know how important we really are in the musical life of the world.

"Then when new American works are written and young American performers give concerts, the people of America can hear those debuts instead of letting Europeans enjoy our stuff first."

Ever since hearing them, I have thought of these ideas. At last, in a flurry of mixed emotions—pride in our youth, and rebellion against their old world stature—I have put them down.

My slip, Brother Baumel, is pinned up.

Gal Lets Medics Down, Reaches 101st Birthday

CHICAGO (AP)—Mrs. Demitra Gekas recalled Saturday that in 1910 when she suffered from dropsy three doctors gave her 24 hours to live.

"I feel a little guilty about letting them down," said Mrs. Gekas, who observed her 101st birthday anniversary.

Mrs. Gekas credited her long life to the strenuous years she spent in her native Greece.

"It gave me an iron will and a steel back," her son, Gus, quoted her as saying. She came to the United States in 1930.

Edison Gave Birth to First Talking Doll

WEST ORANGE, N. J. (INS)—This Christmas little girls will be opening packages containing dolls that say anything from "Mama" to "The Lord's Prayer."

But this isn't a new invention—the first talking doll was made by Thomas Edison and made her debut at the Paris Exposition of 1889. She could recite "Mary Had a Little Lamb" and "Peter, Peter, Pumpkin Eater."

Her talking apparatus was installed in the galvanized tin tube that made up her torso, with the horn mechanism of the phonograph placed in a kind of grating under her chin. Wax cylinders or recordings were placed in her back and she required a few cranks to get started.

Edison's talking dolls are on display in the Edison Museum at the Thomas A. Edison factories in West Orange, N. J.

DETROIT (AP) — The 33.9-mile stretch of expressway from downtown Detroit to Willow Run Airport is a veritable speedway.

As an experiment, one car hit it up to 92 miles per hour and saved every minute possible. Another traveled at normal speeds.

The time saved by speeding: 10 minutes.

New Wonders Fill the Toy World

Mothers select most of the toys for children and pick the right toy for the right child. Perhaps you guessed it, but a toy industry survey shows that mothers between the ages of 30 and 44 buy 67 per cent of all toys sold.

Mother takes Dad along 14 per cent of the time, especially when buying a big toy. This means that she is in on 81 per cent of all toy purchases. Dad shops by himself for only 10 per cent of the toys.

These are some of the interesting details revealed by Dr. Grace Langdon, child development adviser to the American Toy Institute, in reporting on a national survey.

"It is not the number of toys a child has that satisfies his play needs," says Dr. Langdon. "rather, the ones he has must fit him and provide what he wants to do at the moment."

So who better than Mother, watching her child every minute of the day, can best decide what toy to buy?

The survey for the industry covered the last Christmas shopping season. It showed that mothers are frugal, too. When they were alone, 78 per cent of the toys they bought were purchased for $3 or less. When they were buying toys for the children of friends, their average expenditure was $1.60.

Dad bought, or helped to buy, many of the expensive playthings, such as electric trains, bicycles and sporting equipment.

HOW CASH WAS SPENT

Other facts turned up by the survey included:

Families with incomes between $4,000 and $7,000 and with parents between 30 and 44 in age, spent the most for toys.

Families in northeastern states, New England, New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania, spent an average of $36 for toys, in comparison with the national average of $28.

Women shopping alone bought 523 million dollars worth of the 920-million-dollar total toy bill. They bought the greatest number of toys for children from 2 to 6 years old.

Dolls and accessories led all other toys in popularity—the average price spent on dolls and accessories was $4.60.

TODAY'S ASSIGNMENT FOR:

JUNIOR EDITORS

THE WONDERLAND OF BOOKS—1

Children of Other Lands—Heidi

Books are tickets to the far corners of the world—real magic carpets. And in books you may meet friends that you will keep all your life.

Heidi was an orphan left with her grandfather, an old man living alone in a mountain hut. He was not friendly with the villagers, and he didn't want Heidi to live with him.

But Heidi was a spirited and fearless little girl. She won the affection of the old man, and made a happy life for herself and all who know her.

You will enjoy sharing Heidi's adventures, and meeting the people and friendly goats who are also in the book.

Paste the goat's hind legs behind the front part, spread the two parts and the goat will stand. Put it close beside Heidi so she can put her arm around the goat.

Small Amount ACTH Possessed by Sheep

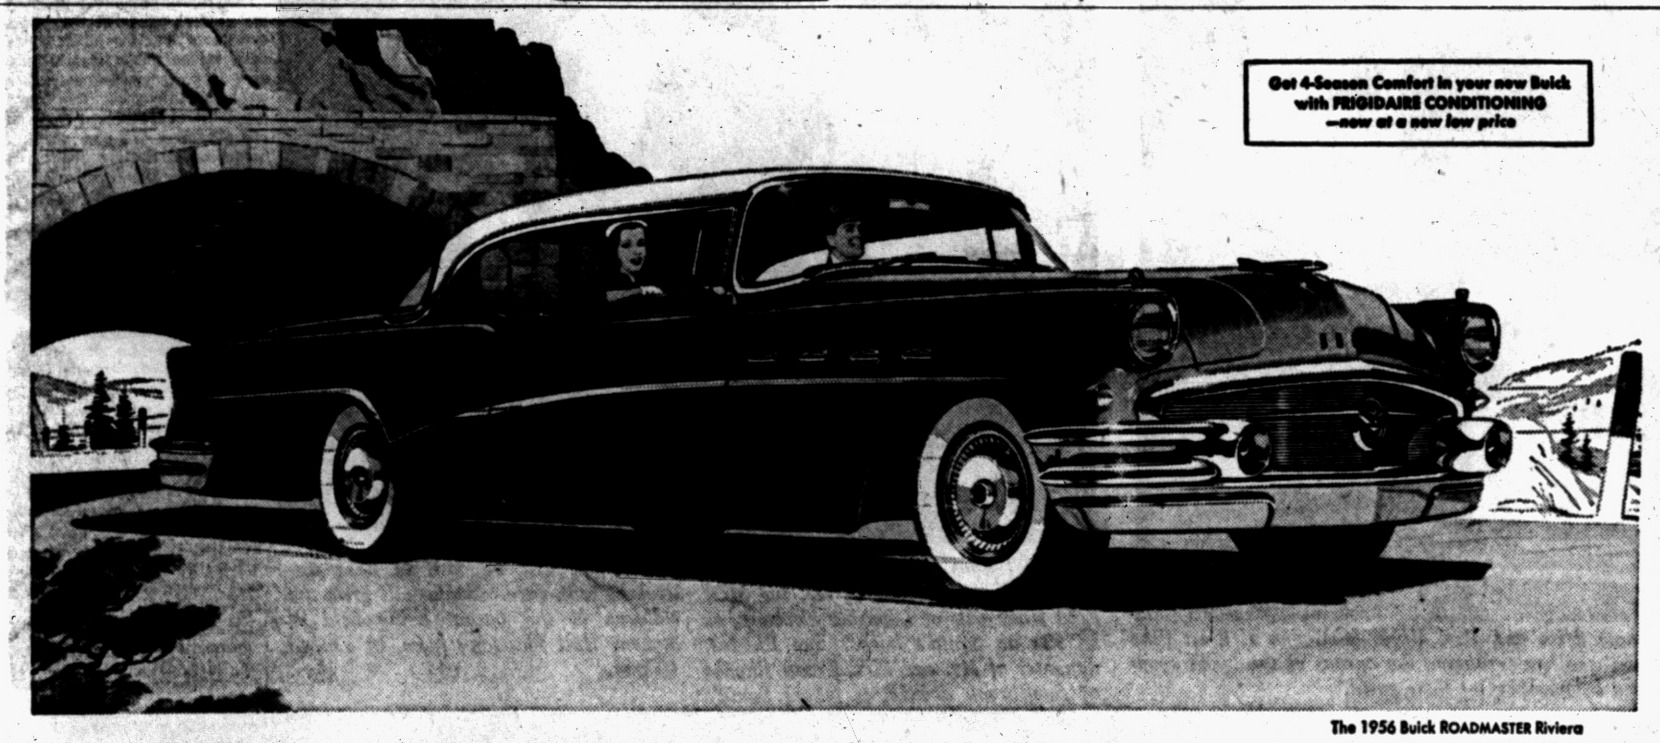

LOS ANGELES — Workers at the University of California used the anterior parts of the pituitary glands of 360,000 sheep to extract one fourteenth of an ounce of crystalline ACTH in making one of the latest advances in the field of hormones.

* * *

The substance is a crystalline hormone first developed by a meat-packing company. It helps regulate various body processes in the treatment of certain conditions.

During five years of research the U.C.L.A. chemists learned the positions of all 39 amino acids in the ACTH molecule. With that knowledge, they hope to be able to determine which of the amino acids are active and possibly to synthesize them and even the hormone itself.

The 1956 Buick ROADMASTER Riviera

Wonderful New Ride with a "Sense of Direction"

Over the years, Buick has always had a great ride.

But each year, Buick engineers find new ways to better it.

And in the 1956 Buick comes a ride beyond anything that has gone before—the sweetest ride in Buick history.

We could tell you the why of it . . .

About a brilliantly engineered new chassis of extra brawn and heft and precision balance . . .

About new direct-action, deep-oil shock absorbers that snub jars and jolts with full, firm authority—and add new levelness to the car's all-coil springing . . .

About new V-bracing and new housing rigidity that bulwark the full-length torque-tube drive—bringing new swerve-free steadiness . . .

Even about a whole new magic of angles and linkage in the front-end geometry to impart a track-true "sense of direction" to the front wheels.

But that's just a telling of it. Only in the driver's seat can you get the feel of it. Only there, too, can you sense the mighty sweep of Buick's great new 322-cubic-inch V8 engine, now stepped up to an all-time high in power and compression.

And only there can you really know the thrilling double-action take-off of today's new Variable Pitch Dynaflow*—the spirited action that gives you instant getaway response at merely part throttle, plus utter smoothness through every inch of travel.

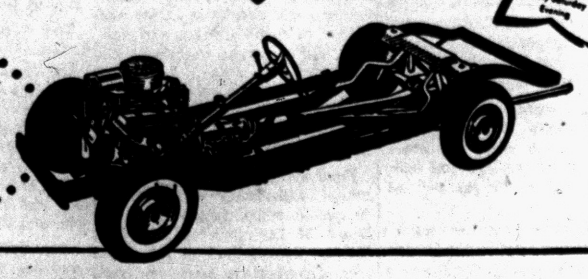

Come in for a visit, this week—just to sample at first-hand the sizzle and thrill and ride sweetness in the best Buick yet.

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflow is the only Dynaflow Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

Special Skill Used by Home Typist

By ANNE HEYWOOD

The young mother who is making money typing at home is successful because she has a special angle. She combines some other knowledge or skill with her typing and makes it pay off.

Take, for example, Marge K., who writes from Indiana.

"I was a nurse before I married," she says. "I had a job in a doctor's office, where I did some nursing and clerical work.

"I learned to type well. In fact, I did the manuscript for the book my doctor-employer was writing and learned about manuscript typing, proofreading and things like that.

"After I was married and had three children, we ran into one of those terrible budget tangles. There just was not enough, per week, from my husband's salary, which is really quite large. So I decided to try to get some typing to do at home.

SEEMED IMPOSSIBLE

"At first it seemd impossible. I tried getting plain typing, but there was little demand for it in our city and the pay was very low.

"Finally, I wrote to my former employer, offering to type his manuscripts or professional articles. He replied that he was glad to hear from me, especially since he was having difficuty finding a typist who understood medical terminology and who was as careful and neat as I.

"We made an arrangement that was agreeable to both of us. He mailed me a handwritten chapter each week. I typed it and shipped it back. He paid a good fee per page.

"When I finished that job," Marge continues, "I asked if he would recommend me to other doctors, which he readily agreed to do.

"Then I went to our local library and found books by local doctors. I even checked the hospitals.

"I soon had a list of doctors in our city who write books or articles and sent them a letter telling them about my service. I received several replies and they led to others.

MANY CUSTOMERS

"Now I have many customers for medical typing. Many of them are out of town and let me handle the work by mail.

"It seems if you make a really custom-made mousetrap, the world does beat a path to your door!"

'At Home' Date Isn't for Intimates

Close Friends and Relatives May Call Without Waiting

By EMILY POST

A relative of mine was married recently. 'At home' cards were enclosed with the wedding invitations. The bride and bridegroom have been back from their honeymoon two weeks, but I have hesitated about going to see them before the 'at home' date, which won't be for several weeks.

"My husband thinks we should go to see them now and not wait. I would like to know if relatives are supposed to wait until after the date given on the cards to go to see them, or is that just meant for people whom the bride or bridegroom do not know well."

Answer: I think it is for those whom they do not know well. Certainly their intimate friends and family should pay no attention to the date.

"Dear Mrs. Post: What about the men in my wedding party wearing tuxedos as early as 5 o'clock? The wedding will be in early December.

"I say that tuxedoes are not proper at that time of day, but my finance says that it will be dark then at 5 o'clock and therefore they would be permissible. A reception will follow later at a hotel. Will you please settle this for us?"

Answer: Although the rule is that tuxedos are never worn before 6 o'clock, I am inclined to agree with your finance and do not think that they will be criticized in the December darkness.

"Dear Mrs. Post: It is correct to eat a whole banana in the fingers when seated at the table?

Answer: Although it is not bad manners to peel the skin half way down and eat the fruit bite by bite, at the table, it is perhaps better manners to peel the skin all the way off, lay the fruit on your plate, cut it in slices and eat with a fork.

Married Saturday in Kilgore, Tex., were Mr. and Mrs. Everett B. Houston. She is the former Patricia Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fae R. Smith of Kilgore, Tex., and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Houston Jr. of Birmingham.

MRS. EVERETT B. HOUSTON

Couple Married in Texas, Honeymoon in Nevada

Magnolia white peau de soie and Italian silk satin fashioned the wedding gown chosen by Patricia Joan Smith for her marriage to Everett Brewington Houston, Saturday in Kilgore, Texas.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fae R. Smith of Kilgore, Texas. The bridegroom, of Longview, Texas, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Houston Jr. of Birmingham.

The couple was married at Christ the King Church in Kilgore by the Rev. Nicholas Driscoll, M.S.

The princess silhouette of the peau de soie bridal gown had a square neckline outlined by a band of silk satin embroidered with crystal and pearl in a floral motif. The long sleeves came to points at the wrists.

Her multi-gored skirt was accented in the back by two godets panels of silk satin appliqued with pearl and crystal embroidery which cascaded into a circular court train.

Heirloom Brussels rosepointe lace edged the plateau brim that was accented by satin cording and tiers of magnolia white French illusion which extended below fingertip length.

Mrs. Ernest W. Bartlett, Jr. of Houston was matron of honor and Jean McGregor of El Paso served as maid of honor. Joan Johnson and Ovada Horne of Kilgore and Mrs. Philip E. Happel of Gladewater were the other bridal attendants.

The ballerina-length skirts fell from a princess styled waistline. They wore velvet headpieces of flowers. Short white gloves and satin turquoise slippers completed their costumes.

Flower girl, Cynthia Ann Webster, of Houston wore a frock identical to the bridesmaids.

Henry A. Houston, III of Detroit was his brother's best man. Groomsmen were Emory T. Corbett of Longview, Texas and Jack McCready of New York City. Kenneth Defenbaugh and Jack Burris of Oklahoma City were ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Smith was gowned in a beige peau de soie with white accessories. Mrs. Houston wore a toast colored silk taffeta dress with bronze accessories. Their corsages were of white orchids.

The bride is a graduate of the University of Texas where she was affiliated with Kappa Alpha Theta. He is a graduate of the University of Michigan and was affiliated with Alpha Tau Omega.

Lose Worry and Enjoy New Beauty

It would take a person highly skilled in the psychology of women to explain why some mature women would just as soon break their favorite teapot as to go to the doctor.

At few points in a woman's life is it as important to go to the doctor as during the middle years.

Nothing detracts from a woman's natural attractiveness as much as worry. Yet many mature women go about worried into a tizzy without ever finding out the truth — generally that she's as sound as her favorite dress.

The answer that the psychologist would probably give is that many women prefer to go about in unknowing worry rather than find-out a truth that they fear.

Yet, of the numbers of women who do finally go to their doctors, the majority return home relaxed about their well-being.

Almost everyone has known a mature wife who thought for weeks that she was going to have a baby after all these years, only to find out she was commencing a perfectly usual new stage in life.

Good health is indispensable to beauty.

Yet some women complain of backache or fingernails that break easily without ever going to the doctor to see what can be done.

Can it be they'd rather complain? If that's so, it's an immature kind of maturity.

Schmitts Reveal Wedding Plans

Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Schmitt of Allentown, Pa., announced the engagement of their daughter, Genevieve Carolyn, to Scott Ellis O'Gorman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman O'Gorman Jr., of Birmingham, at a party given in their home Saturday.

Miss Schmitt will graduate in June from Smith College, Northampton, Mass. He is a graduate of Yale University and is affiliated with Phi Gamma Delta fraternity. Mr. O'Gorman will report to Fort Sill, Okla., for active duty in February. A June wedding is planned.

Norwegian blue fox, rarely seen in a full-length coat, is tanned by Genevieve Fath in a magnificent bulky greatcoat. The unique coat has puffy pompom buttons in keeping with the garment's round, furry line.

Wedding Plans Told

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon W. Perry of Lake Orion announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Barbara Mae, to Charles R. McFatridge, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Erie I. Brown of Second street. They will be married Jan. 29.

Girl Should Find New Romeo for Variety

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

"Dear Miss Woodward: I liked Bill for a long time before he ever liked me. In the meantime I started going around with Dick, his best friend. The four of us were always together, Bill and his girl, and Dick and me.

"Then Bill started to like me and expected me to drop Dick and go with him. But I wanted to be friends with both of them. For a while it was fine. I'd go out with one and then the other. At parties I treated them both the same.

"Then for no apparent reason, Bill went back to his old girl, and Dick treated me as one of the gang. It was reported to me that Bill said they got tired of chasing the same girl.

"Now, should I make a play for Dick, or try to get Bill back? Or treat them both the same? I think Bill still likes me and I really always liked him more than Dick."

Answer: Those two boys have been responsible for your daydreams and your social life for some time now. It's a blow to find yourself bereft of both of them.

You thought you could maintain the status quo indefinitely. You didn't anticipate a change of mood on Dick's part, and a flight of independence on Bill's.

Could it be that they've both had their gay fling with you—and aren't interested in more? Might it not be wise for you to cast your line out for someone quite new and unexpected? You might theorize that there are other fish besides these two to be plucked from the sea.

Treat both Dick and Bill with special friendliness so you won't be burning your bridges.

"Dear Miss Woodward: Last year we started writing to each other. He lives out of town and I and new interests. There's nothdidn't see him much. Then I met a boy here that I liked very much.

"I was slow about answering letters because I was with this local boy, and it made my faraway friend mad. Then I broke up with the boy here in town. And now I don't get any more letters. So what shall I do?"

Answer: Your two romances came to a sudden end, I suspect, because of each other. Your preoccupation with your dating made you casual about your relationship with your other friend. You took your sweet time about answering his letters, and he guessed the reason.

You thought you couldn't have both letters and dates in your life at the same time. This was a slight error, which you needn't make again.

What to do? Put these two boys away among your pleasant memories, and strike out for a new collection. And this time keep them in separate but equally important sections of your mind.

Cottons Aid Kitchen Decorating

A kitchen can become a showplace area where you'll be proud to entertain brief visitors and even weekend house guests. As one of the most lived-in rooms of the house, it should take priority in any redecorating scheme.

Sometimes a new sink, new cabinets or the opening up of a wall to provide more window space may be in order.

Often the job can be done with fabrics alone, and you may be surprised to discover that the fabrics are right at hand in a kitchen drawer.

Cotton dish towels and toweling make wonderful decorative fabrics for the kitchen, as interior decorators have discovered.

Men's Open-Toed Shoes Arriving

CHICAGO (INS) — The well-dressed man will have something new to show off next spring — open-toed shoes.

The latest designs in men's shoes have open toes just like women's shoes. They're not sandals. These are shoes with an opening that shows off a man's big toe.

The shoes are described as casual "oxfords." There are various models, some with front laces, others with side buckle. They will be made in green, white, black and brown suede, grained or smooth black or brown leather and alligator.

Prunes have extra flavor if they're soaked in pineapple or other fruit juice instead of plain water.

Rubber sink mats won't stick to the drainboard if paste wax is applied to the underside of the pad.

Teeners Prefer Using Wallets to Handbags

Surveys have proved almost conclusively that teen-agers all over the country prefer to carry wallets to carrying handbags.

In the wintertime, all goes well. The bulging wallet, complete with photographs and memos, goes in one pocket. Lipstick, comb and tissue go into the other.

In noncoat periods, such as the early fall, spring and summer, the result is not quite so good. It's pretty messy.

Yet, nothing is more conspicuous in a nonhandbag town than a young gal carrying one, even though it's neater by far.

There are lots of answers. Some wallets today have purses on one side that could carry lipstick, a small comb and tissues.

Many gals carry knitting bags that do their well-disguised work of carrying necessities. Bright plastic bags appeal in some areas.

At any rates, however stern the customs in a town, there is little excuse for a wallet that's tumbling apart. The poor things are overloaded at best, but when the seams start to go, they should be replaced.

And of course, someone could be the brave one to break the tradition and start carrying a stylish handbag without running the risk of being tarred and feathered.

An Old Wives' Tale

There always seems to be a lot of talk about whether tall men should wear stripes, or stout men wear checks. Believers in this theory have been sold an old wives' tale.

It's the cut of the suit that matters — the shape of the suit that can disguise a tendency to middle age spread or make a very tall man appear slightly shorter. The fabric pattern — believe it or not — has little or nothing to do with the overall effect.

The renaissance of Chanel, greatest designer of casual chic, is good news for mature women. Old favorites renewed—elegant fabrics simply designed, take as easily to the mature as the young matron.

Diamond Buyers Should Know Factors of Stone

Perhaps you are limited in the amount of money you can spend for an engagement diamond. It's a good idea for your fiance to make a first trip alone to the jeweler to discuss frankly just how much he wants to spend and to make a selection of rings in this price bracket.

When your jeweler discusses your ring with you, he will use some technical terms with which you should be familiar. You should know for instance three of the factors which determine the price of a diamond.

CARAT—A unit of weight, not size, used for measuring diamonds. A carat is 200 milligrams the world over, and is divided into 100 points, like the cents in a dollar. A 25-point stone, therefore, weighs a quarter of a carat.

CUT—Refers to the shape of the stone and the arrangement of the facets — the little planes that catch the light and make the diamond sparkle. Of the three cuts, brilliant, marquise, and emerald, no one is more expensive than the other, but the quality of workmanship affects the brilliance, and therefore, the price.

COLOR — Is also important in determining price. Diamonds come in all dark colors — reds, blues, greens, yellows, and many shades of white. The rare dark colors and the whitest whites are the most expensive, but there is a brilliant beauty in all of them.

Baby Will Stand Up When He Is Ready

No matter how you push or restrain, baby will stand up when he's ready and not before. If it seems early to you and you note that his soft-boned little legs are bowing slightly, don't worry. He wants to stand up now and his legs will straighten out soon.

American Opera Outlined

Nineteen members of the Tuesday Musicale heard a talk on the history of the American opera when they gathered at the West Square Lake road home of Mrs. Clyde Marshbanks.

Mrs. Paul Kern gave highlights in this musical field dating from colonial days. In her talk, she stated that relatively few composers display their talents in the field of opera.

She listed George Gershwin and Carlos Menotti as the foremost contributors. Mr. Menotti's "Amahl and the Night Visitor" is well known to the American public.

A program featuring the score from "Amahl" followed Mrs. Kern's talk. Mrs. Addison K. Oakley played through the score and Mrs. Gordon Woolcock and Mrs. Victor Lindquist were among those giving solos.

Mrs. Woolcock and Mrs. George Putnam assisted Mrs. Marshbanks

Plan Baby's Safety

There comes a day of near-accident to baby. Suddenly, all of the house and outdoors seems full of possible dangers to him. Try to strike a balance between sensible precaution about windows and toys, but don't hamper his explorations into the world more than is necessary.

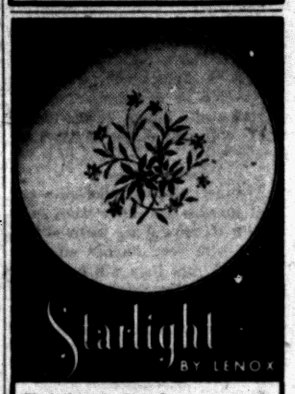

One of the prettiest cocktail and evening bags in Paris is a creation by Genevieve Fath. It is a small pouch of black suede leather covered with gold metal mesh of curtain-ring size.

"Sure proud of my Peggy!"

I'm just as proud as a peacock of my Peggy for the efficient way she manages our home. For instance, many of her friends are still knocking themselves out scrubbing wood floors. But not my Peggy! She cleans and waxes them in one easy operation with Bruce Cleaning Wax. And I'll be hanged if Peggy's floors aren't the talk of our block. I sure have to hand it to my Peggy and her Bruce Cleaning Wax for making easy work of a tough job. And I love 'em both for it!

Spanking Is Useful but No Cure–All

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

The day Eric's mother found him trying to open the bathroom cabinet, she spanked him. For he was attempting this feat by kneeling one leg on the washbowl while blancing the other on the toilet seat. Appalled by the possibilities of his position, she grabbed him—and spanked him. Quite hard.

This flattering protest impressed his mother. Even as she embraced him in forgiveness, she thought, "Gosh, if this is what spanking can do, it's wonderful. It's not only made my point about bathroom climbing—but won me new devotion besides."

She's a little too credulous, I'm afraid. Though spanking has probably ended Eric's bathroom climbing, it has not increased appreciation of his mother. We don't get it that easy. It's sensible to accept this tough reality so that we won't develope any exaggerated trust in spanking's power as a discipline instrument.

SOFTENS STING

A spanked child will often protest increased devotion to us, not because he feels it but because imagining he does softens the sting of his humiliation by us. By convincing himself that his Mommy is the world's best one, Eric makes his necessary submission to her endurable.

His protested affection does not mean that her spanking has reached his reason with realization of the perils of bathroom climbing. It doesn't mean that he has gained the slightest understanding of the protective love which motivated her spanking.

His protest simply tells us that a spanked child didn't enjoy painful humiliation—and will think twice before exposing himself to it again.

This is spanking's usefulness—making a fast change in a child's action. By arousing Eric's fear of more humiliation, we may end the action whose danger he can't appreciate—and get safer, changed conduct. That's the end of the line. Spanking can take us no farther. Its instruction extends no deeper than the tingle in the skin it strikes.

To make spanking serve us, we need appreciation of both its usefulness and its limitations.

It's become disreputable discipline because neither was appreciated. Parents asked too much of spanking.

Now many of us feel great fear of it. We have discarded it as a useless brutality, though the real brutality is not in spanking itself, but in greediness that wants it to teach everything.

Everyone Needs Sweater Supply

First on the list of every back-to-school shopper is a supply of sweaters.

No college girl ever had too many of these casual, versatile garments, it seems.

This year the variety of sweater styles and yarns is almost endless. But the classic cardigan remains a top favorite, and probably the biggest selling item in this category is the orlon sweater.

This is because it has the look and feel of expensive cashmere, yet is budget priced and can be washed as easily as a pair of stockings.

One of the top campus styles of the year is the dyed-to-match sweater and tweed skirt. The sweater half of the combination is available in cashmere, orlon or wool, in slipon, cardigan or twin sweater sets.

Also important in the 1955 sweater lineup is the bulky ribbed-knit sweater in coat or pullover style, often with wide, loose turtle neck, Italian fashion.

These come in dark or vivid hues as well as white, and are particularly beloved for wear with Bermuda shorts.

For dress-up wear, there are many versions of cashmere or orlon sweaters with wide boat necklines, short or long sleeves, with or without jewel, sequin or embroidery trim.

Two Are Initiated Into Amaranth

WE'VE GOT WHAT EVERYONE WANTS FOR CHRISTMAS!

This Christmas thousands of men will receive wallets (how many can a man carry?) and cigars (how many men smoke them—and what brand?) and liquor (what Christmas memories are left the morning after?). They will send these gifts out of a spirit of Christmas giving, out of a desire and hope to leave a lasting and favorable impression.

Why don't they send books?

A gift of books can be as small as a single volume or as large as a shelf; as personel as a book of sonnets, as sedate as a scholarly tome.

A gift of books, like the Christmas star itself, radiates in all directions: it shines upon the receiver, implying the compliment that he likes to read; it shines upon the giver, warmly reflecting his good judgement and taste.

With a gift of books you send laughter and learning, adventure and romance, a world of fact and a universe of imagination.

Brothers Turn Glass Cars Into Statues

Two Italian-born brothers who started out to make a sleek fiberglass sportscar are now pioneering in a new field for the sturdy plastic material—statues.

The brothers, Cesare and Gino Testaguzza, working in a glamourless cinder-block "studio" near Oxford, have just completed their first major effort in the new art medium.

Destined for a Detroit church, the statue is an intricately-fashioned work depicting the Guardian Angel protecting a small child, and is believed to be the first of its kind in the country.

"There have been other fiberglass statues, but this is different," said the 40-year-old Gino, who is also a skilled painter and pianist. "This is not a single figure. There were 15 separate pieces in the mold from which it was made."

Sculptor Joseph N. DeLauro, a professor at Marygrove College, and architect George D. Diehl agree they have seen nothing like the work turned out by the brothers.

And they think the success of this first effort may herald a "whole new field" for the plastic substance.

"It has tremendous possibilities for sculpture," said DeLauro.

"It is light, strong and durable. In addition, color can be added, and it has translucent qualities. I think the possibilities haven't even been scratched."

Diehl, of the Detroit firm of Diehl & Diehl which designed the rectory where the statue will be placed, said the new statuary "might tend to revolutionize things."

"I think it's really got a future if it stands up outside," he added.

The test of endurance will come with this first statue, he said. The four-foot work will be placed on a pedestal on an outdoor terrace near the ultra-modern rectory of the Guardian Angel church.

Cesare, 44, says the smooth finish on the Guardian Angel piece resembles most closely bleached limestone.

But Gino adds quickly: "We are not trying to imitate stone or bronze. Fiber-glass should stand on its own merits."

With the exciting new field opening up and their small Drahner road studio—built by themselves—kept busy turning out fiber-glass boats for that budding market, the brothers have shelved temporarily plans for the La Saetta auto.

Ideas about mass producing the La Saetta—Italian for "lightning bolt"—collapsed recently when a firm in Salt Lake City which was to build electric motors and market the car, went out of business, the Testaguzzas said.

The first La Saetta, a low-slung, 18-foot three-passenger roadster, was designed and built by the brothers in a Detroit garage in 1952.

It was done with the encouragement of several top executives of an auto company and was made to sell for $4,500.

Gino was then chief stylist for the appliance division of the same auto company and Cesare was a designer for another auto maker.

Plans for turning out quantities of the auto were first sidetracked in January, 1953, when Cesare was struck by an auto while cleaning his windshield along Woodward avenue in Bloomfield Hills.

He was hospitalized for 18 weeks. And although the driver was insured, much of the brothers' savings evaporated in subsequent expenses.

Gino realized he couldn't proceed with the original plan alone and so sought and obtained experimental work.

With helpers, he created fiberglass prototypes of a 26-foot cruiser and enclosures for trucks and jeeps for the Army. Testaguzza Inc. also did secret experimental work for the armed forces.

In making a fiber-glass object, the brothers explain, a model is first made of plaster or clay.

Then they make a fiber-glass mold, or molds, by placing several layers of spun-glass fiber and resin—each one-eighth-inch thick—on the object.

The completed mold is "cured" or air-dried for several hours and is then ready to be used.

Sheriff, Deputy Kidnaped in Jail

Aide Captures Gunman at Roadblock; Other 2 Flee California Police

JACKSON, Calif. (AP)—Three men kidnaped the sheriff of Calaveras County and his deputy last night after whipping out hidden guns while being questioned at a jail.

Sheriff Lester McFall was put out of his stolen car at Slough House, 20 miles from here, apparently because the gunmen did not want to hurt him. He is almost 60.

FLEE ROADBLOCK

The other pair fled on foot. Forty officers hunted them.

The scene was in the famed Mother Lode gold county of California, in the foothills of the Sierras about 40 miles east of Sacramento.

The story was like those Mark Twain handled when he was a California editor and it started in the county Twain made famous with his story about the jumping frog of Angels Camp.

McFall said he and Leach picked up the three, who had been hitchhiking near Mokulmne Hill, because one resembled a man seen leaving a recent burglary.

The California highway patrol identified the captured man as Louis Cervantes, 21. They said the fugitives were James Woolsey and Ronald Garrett, both about 18 or 19. All are from Sacramento.

GUNMEN GOT DROP

The gunmen got the drop on McFall and Leach as well as on two Amador County deputies, Jim Fregulia and Gilde Dondero.

Quickly gathering equipment and weapons, the three handcuffed Fregulia and Dondero together and left them in jail. They made off with McFall and Leach over twisting roads in McFall's 1955 car.

Injury to Actor Hayden Temporarily Halts Film

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Filming of "Bed of Fear" has been suspended temporarily because of a back injury to actor Sterling Hayden.

He suffered a slipped disc last Wednesday while filming a fight scene.

Doctors ordered Hayden to bed, but it's expected that filming, halted Saturday, can resume in about a week.

Thumbing Real Interesting

NEW YORK (AP) — A hitchhiking grandmother and her daughter have three more days for sightseeing in New York before sailing for Europe Thursday to continue a world tour.

Mrs. Mary V. Cummings, 58, and daughter, Merrily, 34, thumbed their way here from their home in Glendora, Calif. "We just started walking and thumbing and here we are," said Mrs. Cummings.

The two left Glendora Oct. 15 and arrived here Friday. They said they took their time to see "the sights."

On Thursday they sail aboard the Italian liner Conte Biancamano for Naples, Italy. They hope the trip will eventually take them to such distant points as Hong Kong, Australia and New Zealand.

Mrs. Cummings commented, "neither of us have any family ties . . . so when Merrily said 'let's go,' I went."

Fireman Admits Igniting Blazes in 30 Buildings

MEDIA, Pa. (AP)—Volunteer fireman Edward Bogardus, 24, led police and fire officials on a three-hour tour yesterday of burned Delaware and Chester County buildings to which authorities said he admitted setting fire.

Earle H. Allen, Delaware County chief of detectives, said Bogardus admitted in a written statement that he set more than 30 fires. They caused damages estimated at approximately half a million dollars.

The tour was made of several burned barns, two schools, a food market and a partially built $75,000 home that burned Saturday night.

Bogardus, a truck driver and a member of the Swarthmore volunteer fire company, was arrested at the firehouse when he reported on duty for the Saturday night fire. Police said he was seen in the area of the fire earlier.

After the tour, Bogardus was arraigned on charges of arson and held without bail for a further hearing.

Taylor said Bogardus gave this reply when asked why he started the fires: "I just get the urge."

Thieves Unlock Door, Get $30,000 in Jewels

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Professional thieves with a key to the front door were blamed yesterday for a $30,000 jewel theft.

There were no marks of forcible entry to the Buschemeyer jewelry store, and only the most valuable watches and rings were taken.

James C. Davis, store owner, said a $50,000 diamond, on loan for display purposes, was returned to its owner a few hours before the Saturday night burglary.

TAIPEI, FOormosa (AP) —The clamor here for Nationalist China to veto admission of Outer Mongolia to the United Nations is getting louder and angrier.

Newspapers urged the government to disregard any suggestions to withhold use of its veto power.

Nationalist quarters expressed fear that if Outer Mongolia is allowed into the world body, the prospects of Red China's admission would be enhanced, and there would be more talk about the creation of two Chinas.

'Team' Wins Campaign for County Boys' Camp

SPARK CAMP DRIVE — Champion fund-raisers Walter Gehrke, president of the First Federal Savings & Loan Association of Detroit (left), and Probate Judge Arthur E. Moore study a list of the equipment that will be needed to put Camp Oakland into operation. The two raised an estimated $250,000 in less than three years.

Raises $250,000 to Help Youths

Judge and Businessman Conduct 3-Year Drive for Summer Camp

By HAROLD A. FITZGERALD
(Pontiac Press Publisher)

One of the greatest two-men projects in the history of Michigan financing underlies the fabulous story of Camp Oakland.

Probate Judge Arthur E. Moore and Walter Gehrke, President of the First Federal Savings & Loan Association of Detroit and a long time resident of Oakland county, were the dynamic spark plugs that made this project a tremendous reality.

These two men have raised approximately $250,000 for the rehabilitation of Oakland county boys in less than three years and they have never staged a public drive. They have never officially underwritten an all-out, concerted campaign. Instead, this huge sum of money has come through public-spirited friends and citizens who learned of the project and the good it was doing.

* * *

Judge Moore and Walter Gehrke became convinced some time back that under-privileged boys who ran afoul of the law deserved help and rehabilitation in many cases instead of jail and prison sentences. Some are hopeless but the vast majority respond to kindness, to guidance and to affection. And they wanted a summer camp for those who could never see one otherwise.

They decided to make the matter a personal, two-man project.

Their treasury was completely bare. The project didn't possess a thin dime, but it was blessed by two very capable, very willing and very enthusiastic backers.

The first $6,000 came from the women of Christ Church Cranbrook. Their vision let them look far ahead and they provided the initial cash on which the venture was launched. The two men decided the boys in trouble needed a home where they could be supervised, guided, taught Christian principles and set upon normal paths.

They discovered the Lafer farm was for sale but the price tag was $112,000. This was a rather ambitious bite for an organization with only $6,000, but just at this time an Oakland county attorney came to Judge Moore and said he had $20,000 from an estate that could be devoted to some worthy cause and charitable project. Judge Moore outlined the dream that he and Walter Gehrke had been nursing. The $20,000 became theirs.

Still they lacked enough for a down payment, but about this time they were the recipients of $8,000 from the Mendelsohn fund. With this money and a couple of other unexpected windfalls, they took a big breath, squared their shoulders and purchased the Lafer property.

The land contract on this has now been reduced to $36,000 and in the meantime they have practically re-done the farm and made it suitable for the boys. Friends of theirs on all sides have contributed voluntarily and several have made contributions two or three times as the move progressed.

Nearly all of the service and luncheon clubs in Oakland county have heard about the movement and have volunteered cash donations and assistance.

The last two donations are gifts of approximately $10,000 from Harry J. Klingler and $15,000 from Walter Gehrke himself.

At no time have these men launched a public drive. At no time have they "set a goal" or announced their ultimate objective. Neither one knows today where Camp Oakland will end.

"It has been a remarkable influence in the lives of 500 boys already," declared Judge Moore. "We have the foundation now for continuing service to Oakland county for an indefinite period of years ahead. Any additional money that we may receive will simply broaden our sphere and enable us to serve an additional number of boys or improve the service we are already rendering.

"Walter and I are both amazed and happy but we're still ambitious for the future. This camp is serving boys who need help and who have no place to go and no one to whom they can turn."

The unprecedented growth of Oakland county and the large number of juvenile cases coming before the Probate Judge were the basic factors that prompted the two men to act.

Senate Probers Call Novelist Kay Boyle

WASHINGTON (INS) — Novelist Kay Boyle is to be a star witness today as senate probers turn to the government's security ouster of her husband on charges involving association with her.

Lon Hocker, counsel for the Hennings subcommittee on constitutional rights, said that both Miss Boyle and her huband, Joseph M. Franckenstein, who was born a member of Austrian nobility, will be called to the stand.

Miss Boyle, twice winner of the O'Henry Memorial prize for short stories, told newsmen that the case against her husband involves a charge that she was a communist from 1910 to 1944. She said she has denied that in an affidavit of July 2, 1954.

She said also that she and her husband want his name cleared rather than his reinstatement in the state department job he lost in 1954. She said he was ousted as a security risk then, although he had been cleared by a board in Germany where he was with the State Department's information program.

Motorist Seriously Injured in Accident

Suffering from a concussion, a fractured spine, multiple lacerations and bruises, 25-year-old Thomas E. Fultz of Tennessee was reported in "fair" condition this morning at Pontiac General Hospital.

Oakalnd County Sheriff's deputies said Fultz was found in his car beside Crooks Road, near Auburn, after apparently having driven his car off the road. He was unable to make a statement.

Federal Education Aid Opposed by Detroit Unit

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Board of Commerce has come out against Federal aid for education.

The board said in its publication, "The Detroiter," that federal aid for education tends toward centralized control, "which is contrary to the established tradition of the American Educational system."

'We've Got the Bird Line' So, Read Up on Cockney

By EDDY GILMORE

LONDON (AP)—'Let' get the wind out of our mince pies and go across the frog and toad to the old rub-adub for a needle and pin," the man said. "We've got the bird line, you know."

In the Queen's English, the Cockney meant:

"Let's get the wind out of our eyes and go across the road to the bar for a gin. We have the time, you know."

WHAT'S A COCKNEY?

A Cockney is a person born within sound of the bells on old St. Mary-le-Bow Church, near the very heart of this capital. Rugged individualists and generally good humored, the Cockneys started with the English language as far back as the first part of the 19th century.

The Cockney characterized himself in the first part of the 19th century by substituting V for W and vice versa: "Are you villing to wote?"

Later in the century he changed the th sound to F, as in Arfur for Arthur.

Their greatest assault on the English language concerns vowel sounds (they say dyiv for daily, abaht for about, moch for much) and the adding or ropping of H's at the beginnig of words.

RHYMING SLANG

Then came rhyming slang—or substituting one, two or three words that vaguely rhyme with the real word and stringing them all together in a sentence.

There are pubs where a large portion of the drinks are asked for in rhyming slang—and pity the barmaid who doesn't understand.

Most of the rhyming slang is done with nouns and its nearly always spoken and not written. And sometimes eyes become just mince (rather than mince pies). Stand-to-attention, the full rhyme for pension, becomes stand-to. Greenages, the rhyme for wages, may become just greens.

Pueblo, Colorado Moves Under Quake Tremor

PUEBLO, Colo. (AP)—Five southeastern Colorado communities were jarred last night by an earth tremor of undetermined origin. It shook furniture and rattled windows but caused no reported damage.

A muffled explosive sound accompanied the tremor in the Fowler area, according to Donald Buck, publisher of the Fowler Tribune. The tremor also was felt in Sugar City, Ordway, Nepesta and Rocky Ford.

Reports of its duration varied from a few seconds to one minute.

Officials at the Pueblo ordnance depot said no explosives had been set off and could offer no explanation for the tremor.

Reds Claim Cancer Cure

LONDON (AP) — Moscow radio claimed today Russian scientists have developed a medicine which cures cancer. The broadcast said it was a "compound prepared from the extracts of a flowering plant found in the Caucasus which treats cancerous growths by disintegrating them without harming healthy tissues of the organism."

They Scan Sky — 24 Hours a Day

By PETE LOCHBILER

Every night a handful of patriotic citizens arises in the dark to man stations at a lonely outpost in West Bloomfield Township.

They arrive in pairs. Often they are husband and wife, father and son, or neighbors.

For two hours they stand watch in a little frame building with glass windows on all four sides.

They don't do much talking. They concentrate on the sky.

They are a few of the 190 unpaid volunteer citizens who belong to the Ground Observance Corps post at 7320 Commerce Rd.

Their post is the biggest and fastest-growing in Oakland County. Much of the credit for this record goes to the supervisor, Mrs. Doris Hendershot, who lives in the township at 7127 Arrowood Rd.

She and seven assistants, one for each day of the week, were recruited early in May by Mrs. Melvina Eberle, Milford, Oakland County co-ordinator for the corps.

They were trained by an Air Force representative, S/Sgt. Nicholis A. Chisewsky, of Pontiac.

Mrs. Hendershot started a door to door campaign for volunteers. By June 1, there were volunteers enough to operate the post during day-light hours.

Volunteers responded not only from the township, but also from surrounding areas. The post went on a 24-hours-a-day schedule Oct. 1.

All but a few of the present 190 volunteers were contacted by Mrs. Hendershot herself. "It was hard to find them. But they've all really worked hard since joining," she said.

Each volunteer is trained by Mrs. Hendershot and her assistants. Volunteers stand watch once a week. Shifts are rotated.

"You have to be on your toes all the time," said Mrs. Hendershot. "Those jets go over so high, sometimes they don't make a sound. You only see the vapor trails."

Planes spotted are reported to the Air Force Filter Center in Grand Rapids. Information is collected there from various posts and passed on to radar centers

If there's any doubt at that point about whose plane it is and what it's doing, an Air Force jet will be sent up.

ZEROED IN — "One multi, high, east two miles, flying south," is the way Mrs. Cleora Steckling describes a spotted plane to her co-volunteer in the observer post.

Russian TV Viewers Beaming Rapt Approval of U.S. Newsreels

MOSCOW (INS)—American television newsreels are making a hit in the Soviet Union.

Since signing a contract for U. S. newsfilms a few weeks ago, Moscow-TV has been showing a weekly roundup of life in the Western world.

Viewers have flooded the station with letters commenting on the "Amerikansky Kinozhurnal" (American cinejournal). The unanimous verdict: "Give us more!"

Biggest conversation piece so far has been an American "baby derby," pre-toddlers in a crawling race. Instead of indignant outcries about exploitation of babies by unfeeling capitalist parents, the next morning's subway verdict was enthusiastic.

"I was hoping that little fellow who took so long to get started would crawl right out and win," one straphanger confided to her fellow traveler in the metro.

A Western skeptical colleague snorted: "What else are they showing—American floods, hurricanes and slums—every bad thing they can find?"

The New England floods, the Tampico hurricane and the Whiting, Ind., fire all appeared. But the emphasis has been on sports and features which show the United States as a lively hard-working, fun-loving country.

ASKS FOR MORE

Moscow-TV is asking for more on U. S. factories, farms, homes, entertainment, arts, sciences, recreation, vacations, schools and — especially—more sports, including baseball, football and other games the Russians themselves don't play.

Here are some of the glimpses of the "American way of life" that Soviet televiewers have seen in recent weeks, for the first time:

Shakespeare at Stratford, Conn., Nashua beating Swaps at Washington Park; a Pennsylvania lumberjack rodeo; water skiing in Florida and California; an ice show in Atlantic City; a St. Louis children's circus; a review of Detroit's new-car models and the solar-powered telephone circuit in Georgia.

Unexpectedly popular has been the bull-fight material sent from America. Russian viewers have seen Bette Ford, American girl matador, a Venezuelan school for aspiring matadors and a bullfight in Spain.

Video Moscow steers clear of controversy and politics in presenting the American reels. There are also some other taboos.

"You just sent Russian material," he complained in a phone call to Moscow, "no Amerikansky kinozhurnal."

Not too many months ago a Radio Moscow commentator dismissed American televison as a "daily dose of crime, pornography, sadism, and blood, blood and more blood."

Shots of a ledge-sitting, would-be suicide in Manhattan went back into the film can unused.

After the "Amerikansky kinozhurnal" plays to the estimated 400,000 Moscow-area set owners (about half of the national total) the print makes the rounds of the 11 other Soviet TV outlets:

Leningrad, Riga, Tallinn, Kiev, Kharkov, Gorky, Sverdlovsk, Omsk, Tomsk, Minsk and, finally, way out to Vladivostock—4,000 miles east on the Pacific Coast.

Vladivostock began telecasting in mid-October. Moscow flew some films out to get them started.

Girl Sets Fire Robbing Church

Brother Reports Theft After She Refuses Him a Split of Take

NAPERVILLE, Ill. (AP)—Further questioning is planned today of a 13-year-old girl who, authorities say, started a church fire while on a mission to rob poor boxes.

The girl, unnamed by authorities, was picked up on a telephone tip supplies by her 15-year-old brother. Damage to the First Methodist Church was estimated at $60,000.

John McFarland, deputy state fire marshal, directed the girl released to the custody of her parents pending completion of his investigation. No charges have been filed.

McFarland said the girl, who was detained Saturday about six hours after the fire, told this story:

She broke into the church to rob the poor boxes and while searching in a cleaning closet accidentally dropped a lighted match onto a pile of cleaning cloths. She fled after taking $6 from two of the boxes.

She told her 15-year-old brother on returning home of the theft and the fire, and then refused her brother's demand that she give him $3. Her brother telephoned police.

HEAVY SEAS POUND RADAR ISLAND—Huge waves beat about the radar island Texas Tower a hundred miles off the Massachusetts coast in the series of storms that struck the island during the week that 52 men, mostly from the Air Force, were marooned when they went out to inspect the position. AP staffer J. Walter Green took both these photos, the one at right while hanging head down through a hatch in the platform tower.

TUG GETS LINE ABOARD TOWER—A 10-inch hawser is hauled aboard the 8,000-ton Texas Tower just before the first of 52 persons were swung down to the tug in a basket 100 miles at sea. Seas were rolling the tug so much the hawser broke a few minutes later, and visitors had to be swung by a derrick from a crane at top left nearly 100 feet above the water.

Jap Says Reds Set Off Big Bomb on Nov. 22

TOKYO (AP)—A Japanese University professor said today he believes the Soviet Union set off an atomic or hydrogen bomb about noon Nov. 22.

Prof. Seitaro Koyama of Niigata University's physics department said he came to that conclusion after studying the curve of radioactivity in rainfall.

The United States has announced the Soviets exploded a nuclear device Nov. 10.

Store Nuclear Weapons

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—The Tatao news agency, operated by the Chinese Nationalist Interior Ministry, said today Soviet Russia had stored nuclear weapons at the Manchurian port of Antung, at the mouth of the Yalu River. There was no way of confirming this report. Tatao said about 100 North Korean officers and enlisted men were being trained by Soviet instructors at Antung in the use of nuclear weapons.

Heated Sidewalk Ready

CHARLOTTE (AP) — Patrons hot-footing it to Charlotte's First National Bank this winter might not necessarily mean added prosperity in the city. Bank president Clyde A. Fulton says the recently remodeled 101-year-old structure includes an electrically heated sidewalk to melt ice and snow in front of the building.

And Who Wants to Be Tabbed a Surplus Male?

WASHINGTON (INS)—The mating habits of fur-bearing seals and the dangers of official statements during a pre-election year have been linked by the State Department.

Spokesman Henry Suydam stated that the U. S. will have a conference with Russia, Japan and Canada about ways to protect the Pacific seal herds.

The announcement said that during the last 40 years "more than 1,850,000 skins have been taken on the Pribilof Islands from male animals surplus to the breeding requirement of this highly polygamous species."

Later, Suydam was asked to comment on the foreign policy criticism made by Gov. Averell Harriman of New York.

Suydam said: "I think if the press officer of the Department of State began to comment on pre-convention statements of Democratic leaders he would become a surplus male within 24 hours."

Texas Widow Freed by Jury

Panel Acquits Blonde of 'Payoff' Charges in Murder of Husband

Mrs. Mary Clark placed her gloved hands over her face, wailed and fell onto the shoulder of her attorney Elvin Tackett after the verdict. Two friends helped her from the courtroom.

The jury deliberated about two hours Saturday night and several hours yesterday.

William P. Clark was found shot to death May 23, 1953, in his 22-room mansion.

A rifle was found 10 feet from Clark's body but a verdict of suicide was returned. The verdict was changed to murder after a bullet was found in the floor weeks later.

The state, which asked a life sentence for Mrs. Clark, built its case around statements of an ex-convict, Harry Huggins, who is under a murder indictment in the slaying.

Huggins told this story at the trial:

He and two other ex-convicts who later died in gangland slayings—Tincy Eggleston and Cecil Green—went to the Clark home for what he thought was to be a robbery. Eggleston shot Clark, and told Huggins that Mrs. Clark had offered to pay for the job. Later, Huggins saw Eggleston collect $6,000 from a man and a woman whom he tentatively identified as Mrs. Clark.

* * *

Mrs. Clark's attorney, Tackett, testified that Huggins told him last spring that Mrs. Clark had nothing to do with the slaying. Another defense witness testified she was attending a funeral at the time of the alleged payoff.

Clark cut his widow off with $10 in his will, leaving the bulk of his estate to charity. Nearly all of it is rich oil and gas holdings in New Mexico.

Madame Chiang Asks Prayer Groups to Bolster Fight Against Communism

NEW YORK (INS) — Mme. Chiang Kai-Shek believes "a chain of prayer groups around the world will be more powerful than any propaganda" against Communism.

In "The Sure Victory," a book to be published today, the wife of Free China's generalissimo writes:

"I believe that the main line of attack against the evils of today is in my hands and in yours—in prayer."

Mme. Chiang, a deeply religious woman of Christian faith, reveals that in 1949 she "heard God speak to me."

In those dark days the free Chinese government under the command of her husband was fleeing the Communist armies on China's mainland to the island of Formosa. Mme Chiang was living at the time in the United States with her sister.

Although determined to rejoin her husband, she was dissuaded by her friends and family who thought she would be returning to certain death.

"Then one morning at dawn," she writes, "unaware whether I was asleep or awake, I heard a voice—an ethereal voice say distinctly:

"'All is right'."

Mme. Chiang relates how she went into her sister's room and told her, "I heard God speak to me."

"Fortunately my sister understood what I meant. When I announced that I was going home by the first available plane, she helped me pack. No longer did she protest."

Very soon after arrival on Formosa, Mme. Chiang invited five friends who were devout Christians and told them that from that day forth she hoped to have a prayer group.

"If they agreed," she said, "we would pray together for the fate of China and for the world according to His will."

GROUPS GREW

The prayer groups grew from six to forty persons. Branches headed by these members were started in different parts of the island.

Gradually the members turned from prayer alone to an expansion of their program to include the conversion of Buddhists and Confucionists to Christianity.

"Our original intention was to pray for the country and God's will among nations . . . soon an innate feeling demanded that faith multiply through us. We began evangical work among the armed forces."

Mme. Chiang was instrumental in beginning the first chaplain service in the history of China. In the hospitals alone on Taipei, Mme. Chiang claims, the chaplains are responsible for some 4,320 baptisms and conversions.

CALL TO PRAYER

Mme. Chiang's message in "The Sure Victory" is a call to prayer. From her own experience in the past she is convinced that:

"This is what we must have and must have quickly: A chain of prayer groups around the world."

"Civilization," the eminent Chinese woman says, "will advance in proportion to the personal concern, enthusiasm, and faith through prayer that we soak into it. Then will be sure victory."

Oyster Shucker Digs Tiny Fish From Shell

BALTIMORE (AP)—Joseph Peters, an expert oyster shucker, shucked himself a fish yesterday.

He was digging into his second dozen of a fresh load of oysters when he discovered the 2½-inch fish, alive and wriggling inside one of the shells.

The fish, which had survived almost a full day out of water, was quickly transferred to a bowl of salt water. Peters then went back to his second dozen.

About 4.5 million American families now own more than one automobile.

You've often heard people say that, haven't you? And it implies an American way of doing business — a complete confidence in the other fellow's ethics and knowledge of his field.

The only important question is "Who is HE?" If the man who handles your insurance is a PROFESSIONAL independent insurance agent, you can rest easy. This man knows his business — and his business is one of the most complex of today's business sciences. More than that, he represents — not one company and one kind of policy — but the greatest insurance companies in the world with literally hundreds of policies to work with in setting up your insurance program so it is both CORRECT and CORRECTLY PRICED.

If, on the other hand, your insurance, like Topsy, has "just growed" . . . buying this policy because the seller was "a good guy" . . . or that policy because it seemed to be a "bargain" . . . don't let another day go by before you have your insurance situation analyzed.

We will be happy to make such an analysis for you without obligation. If your insurance is good, we'll tell you so. If not, we'll make suggestions and the decision is yours.

Very often such analysis reveals premium duplication, uninsured risks, and may result, too, in an actual saving to you. In any event, you will KNOW FOR SURE before you suffer a loss.

'Tex' the Lion Buried in Satin on Purple Pillow

HERSCHER, Ill. (AP) — A 300-pound lion with the disposition of Ferdinand the Bull was buried yesterday in pink-tufted satin with his head on a royal purple pillow.

He was Tex, aged 5, who died Saturday in the arms of his mistress, Miss Bobbyetta Porter, 29.

Veterinarians said a chest tumor caused the death of the lion who liked television, who never roared, and who loved human companionship.

Miss Porter, who once owned 32 cats, had kept Tex since he was 3 months old. He lived in a pine-lined den off the living room of the Porter farmhouse near this northeastern Illinois community.

He went to Florida on vacation with the Porter family, played ball and wrestled with Bill, 30-year-old brother of Bobbyetta. He also was fond of riding in station wagons and found ice cream a real delicacy.

He was buried in a pet cemetery on the Porter farm.

Beebe and Charles Clegg, 39, an editor of Beebe's Territorial Enterprise and Virginia City News in Nevada, unveiled the pullman to newsmen Saturday at a champagne breakfast.

The film will be a switch from their dramatic "The Country Girl" to a musical, "High Society."

In the new film, MGM said, Miss Kelly will sing for the first time on the screen. Cole Porter will write the songs.

Milwaukee Rebuffed

Miami Proposal Cause of Minors Dissension

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A rhubarb between the American Assn. and the International League threatened today to erupt into an open clash between these two triple-A circuits as delegates of the minor leagues gathered for their annual winter baseball meetings.

In a pre-convention session among American Assn. directors, a proposal by the Milwaukee club to transfer its Toledo franchise to Miami was sharply rebuffed although the official announcement given the press was that the proposal "is still very much alive."

"It's a hairbrained scheme that has no merit and absolutely no chance of being approved," an association official, who did not wish to be identified, stated heatedly. "Such a move would wreck the league. There is no objection to Miami itself, but it is unthinkable that any club would be willing to undertake the tremendous cost that would be involved in going to Miami. For instance, it is exactly 2,150 air miles from Denver to Miami. That is equivalent to one-twelfth around the world. Charleston, the nearest city to Miami, is 1,100 miles away."

* * *

Officials of the American Assn. said they were stunned to learn last Thursday of the Braves' agreement with Florida interests to move the Toledo franchise to Miami. Some made no attempt to conceal their bitterness over what they termed a "highly regrettable and unwarranted act."

Win Over Middies Lifts Shuffled Army to Heights

WEST POINT, N.Y., Nov. 28 (AP)—Army's upset victory over Navy, culminating another masterful job of personnel changes, today elevated Coach Earl Blaik and his Cadets to new heights of football achievement.

Saturday's 14-6 triumph over the Midshipmen at Philadelphia recalled the 1953 season, when an Army team with a remade lineup beat Navy 20-7.

The biggest change on the plains above the Hudson River this year was Blaik's shift of Don Holleder, a great end in '54, to quarterback. Saturday, Holleder exploited a weakness on the right side of the Navy line to bring the Cadets from behind after the Navy had scored early in the first period.

Blaik also moved Flay Goodwin from guard to tackle and back to guard, Dick Stephenson from center to tackle and All-America Ralph Chesnauskas from guard to tackle to end. And Pat Uebel, who scored three touchdowns against Navy in '53 and one each in the past two games, played both halfback spots and fullback at one time or another.

In the light of these moves, Army's 6-3 record was amazing. The Army checkerboard lineup resulted from a lack of depth, Blaik pointed out today.

Adjustments were necessary because of the lack of depth since the cribbing incident which all but wiped out the Cadet squad just before the 1951 campaign.

After taking a 42-7 licking from Navy that year, Blaik said it would take Army five years to regain the heights. The five years are up but Blaik said today they are still not back to where they were before the incident.

Cotton Prexy Pleased With Bowl Choices

TCU and Mississippi to Match Identical 9-1 Records

DALLAS (AP)—Cotton Bowl President Felix R. McKnight very modestly termed the upcoming Texas Christian-Mississippi clash as "a very swell bowl game" and said it would be for the football championship of the South.

He wouldn't claim the Cotton Bowl engagement Jan. 2 between the Horned Frogs and Rebels as the best bowl game in the country, but said pointedly that "We have two fine teams that compiled impressive 9-1 records against strong competition."

* * *

Mississippi was invited as visiting team by McKnight as soon as the Army-Navy game was over in Philadelphia. Navy was a strong contender for the visiting spot in the Cotton Bowl but stepped out of the bowl picture when it was beaten by Army, 14-6. McKnight was in Philadelphia for the game and was receiving reports from the Cotton Bowl office on the results of other important games involving Cotton Bowl prospects.

* * *

Army decided it would not want to participate in a bowl game but McKnight said the Cotton Bowl had not contacted or invited Army anyway.

Hazzard Named to New Position

State's Research Head Going to Pennsylvania Fish Commission

LANSING — Albert S. Hazzard, director of the Conservation Department's Institute for Fisheries Research, will become assistant executive director of the Pennsylvania Fish Commission Dec. 1.

Dr. Hazzard had been in charge of the institute since 1935 when he came to Michigan from Salt Lake City where he had been associate aquatic biologist with the U. S. Bureau of Fisheries. He received his doctor's degree in zoology from Cornell University in 1931.

As head of the institute, a section of the department's division of fish and fisheries with offices in Ann Arbor, Dr. Hazzard played an important role in shaping many of the policies governing the management of fish in Michigan. He gained national recognition for his work and is author of many technical and popular articles on fish and fishing.

Bears Trounced at Own Game, Says Card Back

CHICAGO (AP)—"When you're a Cardinal, part of the job is beating the Bears," said veteran halfback Charley Trippi after the Chicago Cardinals had trounced their cross-town rivals, 53-14.

Trippi might have added "in spite of the odds," but it wasn't necessary. The Cardinals weren't given the slightest chance and were 16½-point underdogs.

"We beat them at their own game," said Trippi, "with good blocking and good tackling."

It was a costly loss and knocked the Bears out of first place in the Western division of the National Football League. Los Angeles' Rams defeated the Philadelphia Eagles, 23-21, to take over the division leadership.

Maybe the fact that the Cards won wasn't too surprising. But to roll up 53 points in a near-blizzard yesterday, which made walking difficult, amazed the crowd of 47,314.

Owner-Coach George Halas of the Bears was groaning all week that the situation was ripe for an upset since his Bears had won six straight. Although Papa Bear was suspected of crying wolf, the stands were jammed at game time.

Only when the final gun went off did the realization set in that it was a Chicago team that may deprive Chicago of a long-awaited sports championship.

Georgia Tech to Test Pitt in Sugar Bowl

Panthers' Mark Best Since Rose Bowl Club of 1938

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Pittsburgh's meeting with Georgia Tech in the Sugar Bowl Jan. 2 may show whether the Panthers, once the scourge of collegiate football, are on the prowl again.

The 1955 Pitt team hung up the university's best record since 1938 in winning seven games and losing three. The 1938 squad, last of a string of great Pitt teams, won eight an lost two and gained eighth place in The Associated Press poll that year.

The late Jock Sutherland molded his last great squad in the 1938 aggregation. From 1931 to 1938, the Panthers won 64 games while losing only 9 and tying 5. The 1937 team was named national champion, finishing first ahead of California in the fnal AP poll that season. And the 1936 team went to the Rose Bowl and Climaxed a great season with a 21-0 victory over the Washington Huskies.

The Panthers put in two other showings in the Rose Bowl during that stretch, losing 47-14 to Southern California in 1929 and bowing to the Trojans 35-0 in 1932.

By contrast, from 1939 to the start of the 1955 season, Pitt won only 60 games against 84 defeats, a dismal showing for a team regarded among the nation's elite for so many years.

Pitt fortunes began to perk up in 1952 with a creditable six victories and three losses. Two of the victories were over perennal power Notre Dame and Ohio State's Big 10 entry.

Pitt's record dipped to only three triumphs in nine outings in 1953. And in 1954, the Panthers won four of nine, but illness to Coach Red Dawson may have hurt Panther spirits.

Johnny Michelosen, hero of the great Pitt teams of the late '30s, succeeded Dawson at the beginnng of this season and took a brash step in assuming command. He junked the traditional power-based Pitt single wing, mainstay of the Panther offense under Sutherland and Dawson, and installed the faster and more deceptive split-T. The results bore out Michelosen's choice.

Red Wings, Leafs Tied for Playoff Position With Boston Point Shy

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

With the Montreal Canadiens traveling in front at a fast clip and the New York Rangers and Chicago Black Hawks not too far apart in the battle for second place, the tight race for the fourth qualifying spot in the National Hockey League's playoffs has gone almost unnoticed.

The Leafs moved out of the cellar by beating the Wings last night, 2-1. Boston's slumping Bruins suffered their third shutout in four starts as they fell before the Hawks 6-0.

Sooners Get 6 on All-Big 7 League Team

This Is a Record for Players From Single Team

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The University of Oklahoma Sooners, record breakers in Big 7 Conference football for many years, came up with a new mark in The Associated Press' conference All Star team today.

Coach Bud Wilkinson's Sooners, who will represent the conference in the Orange Bowl against Maryland, broke their own All Star record in first team personnel by placing six players on the No. 1 unit. Last year they set the mark at five first teamers.

The nation's No. 1 football team also won 5 berths on the second mythical unit, a total of 11 for the 2 teams—also a record for the honor selections.

Led by their unanimous choices—guard Bo Bolinger and halfback Tommy McDonald—other Sooners making the first team were Edmon Gray, tackle; Cecil Morris, guard; Jerry Tubbs, center, and Bob Burris, halfback.

Sharing first team spots with the Oklahomans were Harold Burnine, Missouri end and the nation's No. 1 pass receiver; Lamar Meyer, Colorado, end; Laverne Torczon, Nebraska, tackle; Doug Roether, Kansas State, back, and Rex Fischer, Nebraska back.

Southfield Boasts All-Veteran Quint; Rated 'Team to Beat' in Inter-Lakes

By BRUNO L. KEARNS

Looking at present rosters and last year's records of basketball teams in the Inter-Lakes Conference has made league coaches aware of one thing. Southfield, defending champion, is again the team to beat.

Jays under coach Bob Watts, walked off with the IL title with an all-junior team. It posted a 12-4 mark and 8-2 league record last year. Every regular from that team is back plus several newcomers who will add height to the already tall Jays.

Despite this height, it was a pint-sized guard combination of Bob Evans (5-8), and Ken Moser (5-7), that led the Jay scoring. Evans, all-league guard, was top scorer with a 14.7 average.

Lettermen Steve Klamik, standing six feet, and Jerry Londal and Chuck Gorman, two inches taller, give added reasons for fearing Southfield.

Niles Freeland of the Vikings has junior center Larry Hughes and forward Bob Hess plus three other lettermen as the nucleus to push Southfield. Hess, on the league's 2nd team, scored 179 points with Hughes getting 290 last year.

Waterford is ready to move out of the cellar and possibly as high as 3rd, but Berkley, with 6-4 Bruce Gentile and 6-5 Jim Zalenski is in the way.

Coach Don Beedles' Skippers have seven lettermen plus some good reserve help. Chuck Gillis (6-4), Gary Meeker (6-2), Jerry Harnack, six feet, along with Jerry Kruskie and Clayton Roth, both 5-10, could turn the tables on Southfield.

Despite the return of six veterans, Van Dyke seems to have been overlooked. The Abes may not be contenders but "spoilers," while Farmington regroups its forces after losing 12 letter winners.

All of the teams take the court against non-league foes Friday except Van Dyke which waits until Dec. 6.

Podres, Marciano, Ford, Arcaro in Line for Award

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A pitcher, a jockey, a fighter and a golfer figure to draw the most support when 200 sports writers take pencil in hand to vote for the professional athlete of the year in the S. Rae Hickok poll.

Those in the running are Johnny Podres, pitching hero of Brooklyn's first World Series success; Eddie Arcaro, who rode Nashua to fame; unbeaten world's heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano, and Doug Ford, pro golfer of 1955.

The winner will receive a $10,000 diamond-studded belt.

Podres is the 23-year-old Cinderella athlete of the quartet. He completed only five games as the Dodgers eased to a one-sided National League pennant victory. But in the World Series he beat the Yankees, 8-3, in the third game and shut them out, 2-0, in the deciding game.

Arcaro, 40, predicted last February that Nashua would be the best 3-year-old of 1955.

First Big Effort Tops

EAST LANSING — Henry Kennedy, Michigan State's Scottish-born sophomore distance runner, made his first major collegiate effort a memorable one by winning the IC4A cross country championship in near record time of 24:30.3 for the five mile course.

Little League Readies Reply

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP) — Attorneys for Little League Baseball, Inc., today prepared their legal answer to a $300,000 breach of contract suit filed by the organization's deposed commissioner, Carl E. Stotz.

Peter J. McGovern, president of the organization, said a reply to the suit would be filed in Lycoming County court by the corporation's attorneys "within a few days."

McGovern made the comment last night after Stotz filed his $300,000 suit and opened headquarters for a new organization under the name of "Original Little League."

Stotz said he planned to offer franchises to 3,977 Little Leagues across the country and has been receiving offers of support from many clubs.

State Runner Is Top-Rated in NCAA Event

EAST LANSING (AP)—Host school Michigan State had the favored individual entry today for the 17th annual NCAA cross country run over the four-mile MSU course.

Sophomore Henry Kennedy, who came to East Lansing by way of Toronto and Glasgow, Scotland, has been unbeaten in dual competition and championship meets so far this season.

The slight Scot won the Big Ten, IC4A, and Michigan AAU meets and set a course record over the four-mile MSU route with a time of 19:28.3.

Coach Karl Schlademan said Kennedy is in top physical shape for the run but a light fall of snow and a slippery course may prevent any records from being broken.

3 NFL Teams Will Receive Bonus Picks

Detroit and Frisco Get First Choices From Regular Draft

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—America's top collegiate football talent will be tapped by the pros today as the National Football League holds its earliest player draft meeting in history.

Commissioner Bert Bell opened the annual player selection meeting this morning with the first order of business the bonus choice draw, an out-of-the-hat contest with the winning team earning first crack at any eligible grid draftee in the nation.

Only Green Bay, Pittsburgh and the Chicago Cardinals will participate in the bonus draw since all other teams have won it since the plan was initiated in 1947, and are ineligible to try again until every franchise has made the lucky selection.

Coaches and general manager will select a total of 37 players, including the bonus pick. This calls for three rounds of the usual 30-round draft by the 12 league teams. The remaining 27 rounds will be held at the annual NFL meeting in January scheduled for Los Angeles.

Bell explained the early draft was made necessary by competition from the Canadian League. The Canadians complete their season in early November and then come south of the border waving big money in the faces of American college stars before the NFL has even apportioned the players to their clubs. In order to give the American pros "an even break" in competition with the Canadians, Bell and his league members decided on this early meeting.

As usual, the identity of the bonus choice is the big mystery on the agenda. Who will the Packers, Steelers or Cardinals select if they win the big prize? The concensus of expert opinion is that the Packers and Steelers have designs on Howard (Hopalong) Cassady, Ohio State' talented runner, while the Cardinals appear to covet Earl Morrall, the master quarterback of Michigan State's multiple offense.

In the regular draft, teams will make their selections according to their standing in the league as of yesterday's games. The last-place team draws first and the first-place team picks last. Ties are resolved by a toss of the coin, with the loser getting the initial toss in alternate rounds.

Teams pick in this order: Detroit and San Francisco tied, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, New York Giants and Chicago Cardinals tied, Green Bay, Baltimore, Chicago Bears, Los Angeles, Washington and Cleveland.

Spartan Fans Offered Rose Bowl Excursion

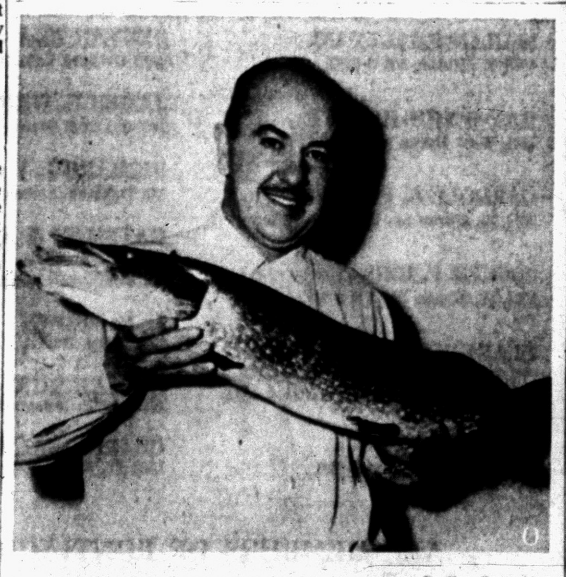

Spartan fans can follow their team right into the Rose Bowl on a holiday tour offered by American Express. Reserved seats for the big contest between Michigan State and UCLA on New Year's Day are included in a 13-day escorted trip.

The holiday group leaves Chicago Dec. 26 on a streamliner for a circuit through the West that includes a full day at the Grand Canyon before arriving in Los Angeles on Dec. 29.

The big game takes place on Jan. 2 after the famous Tournament of Roses parade in Pasadena, for which the group will have grandstand seats.

National Football League Title Chase Enters Final Two Weeks With Six Teams in Running

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Exactly half the 12 teams in the National Football League still have a chance for a title with only two weeks to go, and it's no wonder when you consider the goings-on in the pro football set.

Ever hear of a team favored by 16½ points getting whipped 53-14? How about a player kicking three field goals in the last quarter, the last one to win the game with 7 seconds to play? And when was the last time a pro kicking specialist saw two of his efforts blocked in one game, the second with the score tied and 25 seconds remaining?

All these things happened in the NFL yesterday, and they left both conference races snarled like grandmaw's ball of yarn when the kitten got through playing with it.

The 16½-point favorites who got skunked were the Chicago Bears, who had taken the Western Conference lead with six straight victories. Their neighborhood rivals, the Chicago Cardinals, administered a 53-14 shellacking which knocked the Bears right out of first place.

Taking over were the Los Angeles Rams, who had Les Richter on their side. He booted field goals from 17 and 10 yards out to increase Los Angeles' lead over Philadelphia to 20-7. Suddenly the Eagles struck for two quick touchdowns and it was 20-21 with 1:58 left to play.

The Rams took the kickoff and winged down the field on four straight pass completions by Norm Van Brocklin. Richter kicked his third field goal from the 26 and the Rams' 23-21 victory gave them a 6-3-1 mark compared to the Bears' 6-4.

The kicking specialist who had two tries blocked on him? None other than the Cleveland Browns' Lou Groza, who has kicked more three-pointers in the NFL than any man alive. The second blocked kick left Cleveland with a thrilling 35-35 tie with the New York Giants and a 7-2-1 record in the Eastern Conference.

The Washington Redskins are right behind at 7-3 after their fourth straight victory, a 23-14 decision over Pittsburgh.

Baltimore jumped back into the Western Conference argument by beating San Francisco, 26-14, and now has a 5-4-1 record. Green Bay, which bowed to Detroit Thursday, is still in it at 5-5.

Senators Get First Choice in Draft

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Washington had first pick of 3,184 eligible minor league baseball players today in the annual major league draft. All eyes were on the loaded farm rosters of the Brooklyn Dodgers and New York Yankees at Montreal and Denver, respectively.

The Senators earned the right by finishing last in the American League. As a "prize" for finishing eighth in the National, the Pittsburgh Pirates had second choice.

Although the pool included 14 batting champins, 6 home run kings and 27 "bonus" players who once commanded fancy bonus checks, only a few were thought worth a gamble of from $15,000 to $2,000.

In 1954 only 11 players were picked by the majors for a cash outlay of $122,000, as compared with the high of 50 in 1914 to fill gaps left by the Federal League raids and the total of 29 in 1947.

Everybody was looking for pitching strength and the clubs with an early pick spent long hours last night going over the list.

In addition to the common want—pitching—Washington needed a first baseman to take up the slack left by the trading of Mickey Vernon to Boston and some outfield hitting power to take advantage of the new shortened fences at Griffith Stadium.

On the Dodgers' farm roster at Montreal in the International League, was concentrated much of the prize young talent. Rocky Nelson, a first baseman with several big league trials, looked like prize bait. Rocky led the league with a .364 average, 37 homers and 129 runs batted in. Jimmy Williams, an outfield teamate, was runner-up to Nelson at .330. Other Dodger "specials" on the Montreal list included third baseman Lyle Olsen, who hit .311 at St. Paul, first baseman Norm Larker, .302 at St. Paul and pitchers Glenn Mickens (12-3 at Montreal) and Pete Wojey (12-6 at Montreal).

Leafs' Sloan Trips Red Wings to Share Fourth

Bangs in 2 Goals for a 2-1 Victory Sunday at Olympia

DETROIT (AP)—Tod Sloan, scoring his 13th and 14th goals of the season, banged the Toronto Maple Leafs into a 4th-place tie with the Detroit Red Wings in a National Hockey League game at Detroit last night.

Sloan's 1st goal was a fluke. He was looking the other way when a screened 40-footer by George Armstrong banked in off the back of his leg at 15:05 of the initial period.

There was nothing flukey about Sloan's 2nd counter. Hall made a nifty stop of Jim Morrison's shot, but Sloan scored a clean-cut goal with a rap of the rebound.

Victory was Toronto's 1st at Detroit in 10 games, its 2nd in two nights and put an end to two weeks tenancy of the NHL basement.

Bowling Clinic

By BILLY SIXTY

RETARDED SWING—Here is an example of what happens when the pushaway of the ball is not timed with the first step. The sketch shows the bowler already in his second step (4-step footwork), and the ball only now is dropping into the backswing. It is late. Way late. The timing is lost. The body, you see, is still erect. Hasn't dropped into the natural crouch that results when the ball is pushed away in unison with the first step.

Result? The ball is at the end of its backswing when the bowler gets to the foul line, and the only thing he can do then is hurry the forward swing into a throw, or thrust. There can be no accuracy; not consistently, at least.

To beginners: As you take your 1st, short step, much like a shuffle, push the ball away freely at the same time. Extend the arms in the push-away action, so that you'll develop swing. Footwork? Keep going. The increasing momentum of the ball will take you smoothly to the foul line. Don't be too careful with the push-away. Get the ball out in front of you. Swing is the thing.

Argentine Unanimous Winner Over Fullmer

NEW YORK (INS)—Eduardo Lausse, 159½, 28-year-old sledgehammer slugger from Buenos Aires, scored a unanimous 10-round decision over middleweight Gene Fullmer, 156¾, of West Jordan, Utah, in a nationally televised match from Madison Square Garden.

But Lausse, who has scored 48 knockouts in his 67 pro fights, was unable to put Fullmer away. though at times the 23-year-old American was just around the corner.

Lakers Snap Warriors' 8-Game Winning Streak

By THE ASOCIATED PRESS

The Philadelphia Warriors' bid to pull away from their rivals in the Eastern Division of the National Basketball Assn. has been stopped, at least for the time being, by the Minneapolis Lakers.

The Warriors saw their eight-game wining streak snapped last night when they dropped a 99-94 decision to the Lakers at Minneapolis. The Philadelphians lost the season's opener to Boston and then won eight straight before they bumped into the Lakers.

New York's Knickerbockers also lost, 85-74 to the Syracuse Nats, but remained within a game of the Warriors. The Knicks had beaten the Nats at home Saturday night. Fort Wayne's Pistons tightened the Western Division race by defeating the pace-setting St. Louis Hawks 114-106, in overtime.

Clyde Lovellette led Minneapolis to its victory with 25 points. But it was a combined splurge of Dugie Martin and Ed Kalafat late in the fourth period that gave the Lakers an edge after trailing most of the way. They scored six points as Minneapolis went out in front to stay. Paul Arizin was high for Philadelphia with 24.

Babe Undergoes Series of Tests

GALVESTON, Tex. (AP) — Babe Zaharias, famed woman athlete, was to start undergoing a week-long series of tests today to determine how she is doing in her fight with cancer.

The Babe, who has undergone two previous cancer operations, entered John Sealy Hospital yesterday. Mrs. Zaharias said increasing pain in her right hip led her to have some X-rays taken at Tampa, Fla., where she's been recuperating after her latest operation two months ago. She said she returned to Sealy on the advice of her Tampa physician.

Famed Honus Wagner Stricken by Illness

PITTSBURGH (INS) — Honus Wagner, one of the greatest right-handed hitters in baseball history, was reported in poor condition today at his home in Carnegie, near Pittsburgh.

Wagner, a former shortstop for the Pittsburgh Pirates, injured himself in a fall about two months ago. He has been confined to bed since then.

Welter Title Bout Looms as Fight of Year

Basilio and Ex-Champ DeMarco Matched 2nd Time Wednesday

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

If Carmen Basilio and Tony DeMarco repeat their savage battle of June 10 when they meet for the second time Wednesday at the Boston Garden, their welterweight title match should be the "Fight of the Year."

* * *

Basilio won the championship from DeMarco at Syracuse, N. Y. in June but now he must face rough and ready Tony in the ex-champ's home town. On the strength of his 12th-round technical knockout victory five months ago, Basilio is rated a 9 to 5 favorite.

In the first match, DeMarco dazed Basilio in the first and third rounds but was dropped twice in the 10th and out on his feet when the referee stopped it in the 12th.

The radio-TV fans will get a break with ABC scheduled to carry the 15-round match.

Billy McNeece and Tony Johnson, two strong light-heavyweights who are willing to trade punches freely, meet tonight at St. Nicholas Arena in New York over the 10-round route. (DuMont-TV).

They fought once before, May 9, to a 10-round draw. A hand injury forced their scheduled rematch of Sept. 26 to be set back to this date.

Yanks May Have Giant Tenants

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Giants probably will become tenants of the Yankee Stadium in the future, Giants' President Horace Stoneman said today.

"It won't be next year, of course," said Stoneham, "and even if it were going to be 1957, right now is the time the transaction should be completed.

The Giants' lease, on the Polo Grounds expires in 1962 and a move would be mandatory by that time. Stoneham said the club has been trying to get an extension on the lease or buy the Polo Grounds but without success.

INS Picks Morrall, Kramer

NEW YORK (INS) — A young, brawny cross-section of collegiate football talent representing six major conferences and two leading independent teams, Navy and Notre Dame, comprises the 1955 International News Service football All-America.

It is a markedly young team, including three juniors, and has an average age of only 21. In line with the modern trend to fleet, streamlined backs operating behind a bulky brusing, forward wall, the line averages almost 217 pounds, the backfield 183.

The Big Ten, with three players, and the Pacific Coast Conference, with two, dominate the team compiled from recommendations of INS football experts from coast to coast assisted by coaches, scouts, broadcasters and newspaper sports editors.

Two players, Navy's brilliant end, Ron Beagle, and Ohio State's fabulous halfback, Howard (Hopalong) Cassady, are repeaters from the 1954 All-America.

Beagle enjoyed another outstanding season despite the handicap of having to wear a leather brace to protect a wrist bone broken before the season started. Opposite him in the line is Michigan's giant end, Ron Kramer, who moved up from last year's 2nd team.

Between these two All-America flankmen are tackles John Witte of Oregon State and Bruce Bosley of West Virginia, guards Bo Bolinger of Oklahoma and Hardiman Cureton of UCLA and center Bob Pelligrini, Maryland.

Among the usual weath of excellent and highly-publicized backs, Cassady, quarterback Earl Morrall of Michigan State, halfback Jim Swink of Texas Christian and fullback Don Schaefer, Notre Dame's "bread and butter" ball carrier, blocker and defensive star, stood out as the best.

Morrall's consistent passing and field generalship for the Rose Bowl-bound Spartans won out for him over Navy's George Welsh, Notre Dame's Paul Hornung, West Virginia's Fred Wyant and others.

Gator Bowl Still Open

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The bowl picture was four-fifths complete today, chock full of veteran post-season performers, while the abstainers and the lesser lights of college football tucked away their equipment 'til next season.

Only the Gator Bowl, among the five major attractions, is without a pairing. And the selectors are expected to make their move today, with Auburn and Tennessee leading the rumor list.

Except for the Rose and Orange bowls, whose programs are printed according to championship results in the Pacific Coast-Big 10 and Big 7-Atlantic Coast Conferences, the other bowl selections were completed following Saturday's games.

* * *

Here's the way they look:

ROSE (Pasadena, Calif.)—UCLA (8-1) vs. Michigan State (8-1).

All four are set for Jan. 2. The Gator Bowl is scheduled Dec. 31.

Of the four completed bowls, six of the eight teams are among the top 10 in The Associated Press poll. The Orange Bowl has the cream of the crop, with first-ranked Oklahoma and third-ranked Maryland.

The Rose Bowl also stages a rematch of its 1954 attraction, when Michigan State defeated UCLA 28-20.

Georgia Tech is the dean of the present bowl clubs, appearing in eight major bowl games and winning six. Tech, ranked No. 9 in last week's poll, accepted its fifth straight bowl bid after trouncing Georgia, 21-3, Saturday.

Tech gained its fifth straight bowl victory last New Year's Day, beating Arkansas, 14-6, in the Cotton Bowl.

Annual MSU Grid Bust Wednesday in Detroit

EAST LANSING (AP) — The Rose-Bowl bound Spartans will be honored at the annual Michigan State Football Bust Wednesday night in Detroit.

Winners will be announced for the F. Ward (Potsy) Ross award, given to the player who best combines academic and athletic ability, and the Fred W. Danziger trophy, presented to the greatest Detroit area squad member making the most outstanding contribution to the team.

Fish Story Sounds Real

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (AP) — Herbert Garrison, 39, of nearby Northampton had evidence to support his big fish story.

While fishing in Hokendauqua Creek he hooked one that he said "was so strong it pulled me right off the edge of the dam"—a 15-foot fall to the base of the dam.

Garrison was treated at Sacred Heart Hospital for a possible fractured nose.

Mayor, Artists in Controversy Over Painting

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Peale Museum has been caught in the middle of a row between a number of local artists and Mayor Thomas D'Alesandro.

A watercolor by Glenn Walker started the trouble.

D'Alesandro last week called the painting morally objectionable and suggested it be removed from the museum's "Life in Baltimore" show. The painting depicts a nude man and woman lying on a bed.

A spokesman for a group of artists says the mayor's action implies "a clear and imminent threat to creative expression."

A petition has been signed by a number of those exhibiting in the show, the spokesman said. It states that if the picture isn't restored to public view, the signers will ask that their pictures be taken down, too.

Doctors Alerted for False Ills

Use of Some Laxatives Causes Sickness Taken for Serious Disease

BOSTON (AP)—Doctors were advised today to be on the alert for an intestinal ailment linked with abuse of certain laxatives lest it be mistaken for even more serious conditions.

Two University of Buffalo physicians said people who use certain strong "irritant" cathartics for prolonged periods can develop the condition and that doctors should keep it in mind not alone for its own potential harmfulness but also for this reason:

It is marked by changes in both the large and small intestines which, under X-ray examination, could falsely suggest the presence of such diseases as ulcerative colitis, enteritis or even intestinal tuberculosis.

Therefore, advised Doctors Norman Heilbrun and Charles Bernstein, patients in whom X-ray findings suggest outright inflammatory disease of the intestinal area should first be questioned as to whether they had used strong "irritant" cathartics for long periods.

If such is the case, they indicated, treatment then could be directed towards eliminating the cathartic cause of the ailment instead of incorrectly treating for a more serious condition.

* * *

Hollywood Headlines:

Designer Discovers Ava Happy, Popular in Spain

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — Ava Gardner is not haggard, unhappy, nor suffering from fatigue, MGM designer Helen Rose, who has just seen Ava, tells me. Helen is back from a whirlwind tour of Europe to get ideas for clothes for Grace Kelly in "Designing Woman."

Said Helen, "Ava is so popular in Spain that there's talk on naming her honorary mayor of Madrid. She comes and goes as she pleases and loves to spend every day at the house she is building there. She said nothing about coming home."

"What did you find for Grace?" I asked Helen.

"Well, I know she won't wear any of the V-cut dresses that caused so much comment at Queen Elizabeth's command performance in London," said Helen.

"I loved the fabrics and color of the Ridriquez collection in Spain: Schubert in Rome had new ideas and beautiful jewelry; Hartnell in London had a couple of evening dresses I wish I'd designed and, of course, Dior in Paris always is offbeat and unusual, while Balmain's clothes are very ladylike."

KID COMPETITION

Gregory Peck and Jennifer Jones will have to look to their laurels or 7-year-old Portland Mason will steal the show. Portie plays their 7-year-old daughter in "The Man in the Gray Flannel Suit." She is the one who insists on getting the chicken pox because her sister has it.

This is Portie's first feature picture. She's been on TV and she appeared on the screen in an experimental film when she was 2½. Believe me, she's the young lady who could act even then. Portie was born grown up.

The proudest father in 48 states is Louis B. Mayer whose producer daughter, Irene Selznick, has a smash hit on Broadway in "The Chalk Garden."

What particularly pleases L. B. is that Irene chose the offbeat Enid Bagnold play when she was advised that it wouldn't draw peanuts! She felt sure she had a winner, and she was right. The reviews were so good she might have written them herself.

"Chalk Garden" is one of the top Broadway plays, and tickets are booked weeks in advance.

This isn't the first time Irene has had a success. Remember, she found "Bell, Book and Candle" and also "Streetcar Named Desire," one of the all-time Broadway hits. And "Chalk Garden" threatens to run even faster than "Streetcar."

KIM AND FRANKIE

Barbara Burnstein, ex-wife of Dr. Harold Burnstein, is getting married Wednesday to Ted Baum, executive of a Portland sportswear firm. Dr. Burnstein's connection with Hollywood is Margaret Whiting, whom he's been squiring.

Jarma Lewis' wedding gift from her studio is a six-week vacation. She's marrying Ted Bensinger, New York agent, Sunday, and will sail for Rio Monday.

Joan Crawford flew in to eat Thanksgiving dinner with her children. She arrived just in time for dinner.

About 2.8 billion barrels of oil were consumed in 1954 to meet American demands. This is equivalent to the proved crude oil reserves, as known today, of the entire state of Louisiana.

Ava Gardner Resting After Sinus Operation

The actress underwent a minor operation last week for an acute sinus condition and was resting at her Madrid hotel. Miss Gardner was treated at Our Lady of Rosario Hospital.

If an average reader took one step for each movement of the eyes in eight hours of reading, he would walk about 33 miles.

Mexico's Cotton Down

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Fall hurricanes and heavy rains cost Mexico's cotton farmers a loss of more than 100,000 bales valued at 11 million dollars. The total crop, minus the losses, will run about 1,900,000 bales. Cotton is Mexico's major agricultural export.

Grains Show Easier Tone

CHICAGO (AP)—Most grains had a slightly easier tone in fairly active dealings on the Board of Trade today. Soybeans firmed in line with advances in soybean meal futures.

In early dealings wheat sold off about a cent, both old and new crop contracts succumbing to moderate selling pressure. The bread grain recovered part of its loss. Corn was only a shade weaker and encountered some demand based on cold weather.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was ⅜ to ⅞ lower. December $2.00⅝; corn ⅜ lower to ⅛ higher, December $1.23¼; oats ½ to ⅞ lower, December 62; rye ¾ to 1½ lower, December $1.09; soybeans unchanged to ½ higher, January $2.32¾, and lard 12 to 13 cents a hundred pounds lower, December $10.87.

* * *

The main reason behind the early firmness in soybeans, brokers said, was an upturn in soybean meal. Grainmen were bopeful that the extremely cold weather in the livestock feeding belt would stir up a demand for meal, helping the distressed situation in that commodity.

Dr. H. J. Anslinger, Federal Commissioner of Narcotics, will address members of the Michigan branch of the American Pharmaceutical Association at a conference in Detroit Tuesday.

Subject of Dr. Anslinger's talk will be "Narcotics Control."

Mixed Market Follows Rise

Gains and losses ranged to about 2 points in active trading of about 2,500,000 shares.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was unchanged from Friday's close at $181.30. The industrial and rail components were unchanged while utilities were up 10 cents.

At the start it looked as if the average would move up at least the 20 cents which separated it from the historic high of Sept. 23 on the eve of President Eisenhower's heart attack. Shortly after the first hour, however, some of the early advances began to slip.

General Motors and Chrysler slipped following reports that auto dealers' new car sales in the first 10 days of November were down to the lowest level since January.

Section 5. There are hereby authorized to be issued and sold pursuant to the provisions of Act No. 94, Michigan Public Acts of 1933, as amended, revenue bonds in the aggregate principal sum of six hundred thousand dollars ($600,000), for the purpose of paying a part of the cost of the said project, the balance to be paid from available funds on hand pertaining to said system. Said bonds shall be known as "Automobile Parking System No. 1 Revenue Bonds," shall be dated as of February 1, 1956; shall be numbered consecutively in the direct order of their maturities from 1 to 600, both inclusive; shall be coupon bonds in the denomination of $1,000 each; shall be registerable as to principal only, in the manner hereinafter set forth in the bond form; shall bear interest at a rate or rates to be hereafter determined not exceeding 4% per annum, payable on July 1, 1956 and thereafter semi-annually on the first days of January and July in each year; and shall mature on January first in each year as follows: $25,000 in the year 1957; $35,000 in each of the years 1958 thru 1960, $40,000 in each of the years 1961 and 1962, $45,000 in each of the years 1963 thru 1965, $50,000 in each of the years 1966 thru 1969, and $55,000 in the year 1970.

$5 if called to be redeemed on or after January 1, 1967

Notice of redemption shall be given to the holders of the bonds to be redeemed by publication of such notice not less than thirty (30) days prior to the date fixed for redemption at least once in a newspaper or publication circulated in the City of Detroit, Michigan, which carries as a part of its regular service, notices of the sale of municipal bonds; provided, that where any bond shall be registered, then notice of the redemption thereof shall be given by registered mail addressed to the registered holder thereof at the address shown on the bond registration books of the Director of Finance of the city, which notice shall be mailed not less than thirty (30) days prior to the date fixed for redemption. Bonds so called for redemption shall not bear interest after the date fixed for redemption, provided funds are on hand with the paying agent to redeem the same. The principal of said bonds and the interest thereon shall be payable in lawful money of the United States of America at the National Bank of Detroit in the City of Detroit, Michigan, upon presentation and surrender of said bonds and attached coupons as they severally mature.

Section 6. The Mayor and City Clerk of the city are hereby authorized and directed to execute said bonds for and on behalf of the city by respectively signing and attesting the same and to affix the seal of the city thereto, and to execute the interest coupons to be attached to said bonds by causing to be affixed thereto their facsimile signatures. Upon the execution of said bonds and attached coupons, the same shall be delivered to the Treasurer of the city who is hereby authorized and directed to deliver said bonds and attached coupons to the purchaser thereof as hereafter determined by the Commission, upon receipt of the purchase price therefor.

Section 7. The bonds herein authorized shall be sold in the manner provided in Section 12 of Act No. 94, Michigan Public Acts of 1933, as amended.

Section 8. Said bonds and attached coupons shall not be a general obligation of the city and shall not be an indebtedness of the city within any state constitutional provision or statutory or charter limitation. The principal of and interest on said bonds shall be payable solely from the net revenues derived from the operation of the system, including future improvements, enlargements and extensions thereof. To secure the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds issued hereunder and on additional bonds of equal standing which may be issued as hereinafter provided, there is hereby created in favor of the holders of said bonds and the interest coupons pertaining thereto, and each of such holders, a first lien (by said Act No. 94, Michigan Public Acts of 1933, as amended, made a statutory lien) upon the net revenues from the system, including future improvements, enlargements and extensions thereof. The net revenues so pledged shall be and remain subject to said lien until the payment in full of the principal of and interest on said bonds.

Section 9. The holder or holders of any of the bonds or interest coupons herein authorized to be issued, shall have all the rights and remedies given by law and particularly by said Act No. 94, Michigan Public Acts of 1933, as amended, for the collection and enforcement of said bonds and coupons and the security therefor, including receivership for the system.

Section 10. The system shall be operated upon the basis of a fiscal year beginning on January 1st of each year and ending on December 31st following.

Section 11. The operation, maintenance and management of the system shall be under the control of the Commission and administered by the City Manager or such other person or body as shall be designated or created by the Commission. Parking regulations shall be enforced by the Police Department in accordance with enforcement ordinances from time to time in effect.

Section 12. Parking fees shall be as follows:

(a) The fee for parking in all metered spaces on any of the public highways within said District No. 1 shall be five (5) cents for each sixty minutes or fraction thereof.

(b) The fee for parking in metered spaces in said Areas Nos. 1 thru 4 shall be five (5) cents for each sixty minutes or fraction thereof.

The fees provided in subdivision (a) above shall apply between 8:00 o'clock a.m. and 6:00 o'clock p.m. on all days except Sundays, New Years Day, Memorial Day, Fourth of July, Labor Day, Thanksgiving Day and Christmas; provided that the Commission may extend the hours in which said parking fees shall be effective. The Fees provided in subdivision (b) above shall be effective in Areas 1 thru 4 between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 6:00 p.m.; provided that said effective hours may be extended by the Commission.

The above fees shall be deemed to be minimum fees and may be increased by the Commission.

Each street meter shall provide a time limit of not to exceed sixty minutes and each meter in said Areas Nos. 1 thru 4 shall provide such a time limit as shall be fixed by the Commission.

If any other off-street automobile parking facilities for public use are operated by the city, then the fees for parking therein shall be comparable with those charged for parking in said Areas Nos. 1 thru 4, after giving due consideration to the accommodations.

While any of the bonds herein authorized are outstanding, the city shall have in effect an ordinance providing for the enforcement of the above parking fees, which ordinance shall provide penalties for parking in any metered space without the payment of the fees therefor. Said ordinance shall not be less efficacious therefor than the city's Ordinance No. 942, as now amended.

Section 13. The rates hereinbefore established are estimated to be sufficient to provide for the payment of the expenses of administration and operation of the system and such expenses for the maintenance thereof as may be necessary to preserve the same in good repair and working order; to provide for the payment of the interest upon and the principal of all bonds payable therefrom, as and when the same shall become due and payable, and for the creation of a reserve for the payment of principal and interest as required in this ordinance; and to provide for such other expenditures and funds for the system as are required by this ordinance. Rates shall be fixed and revised from time to time by the Commission so as to produce the foregoing amounts, and the city covenants and agrees to maintain at all times such rates for parking facilities furnished by the system as shall be sufficient to provide for the foregoing.

Section 14. The revenues of the system on and after January 1, 1956, are hereby pledged for the purpose of the following funds, and as collected shall be set aside into a fund to be known as the "Receiving Fund" of the system, and shall be transferred therefrom periodically into separate and special funds, as follows:

1. Operation and Maintenance Fund. Out of the revenues in the Receiving Fund, there shall be first set aside each month into a fund to be designated "Operation and Maintenance Fund, an amount sufficient to provide for the payment for the next month of all current expenses of administration and operation of the system and such expenses for the maintenance thereof as may be necessary to preserve the system in good repair and working order. The Commission, at the beginning of each fiscal year, shall adopt a budget covering the foregoing expenses for such year, and such expenses shall not exceed the amount specified in said budget except by a vote of ⅔rds of the members of the Commission, and then only in event of an absolute necessity for such additional expenditures. In adopting said budget and in setting aside moneys from time to time in said Operation and Maintenance Fund, the amount included for the payment of the cost of enforcement of parking regulations, shall not exceed 15% of the gross revenues.

2. Bond and Interest Redemption Fund. Out of the remaining revenues in the Receiving Fund, there shall be next set aside monthly into a fund to be designated "Bond and Interest Redemption Fund," a sum sufficient to provide for the payment of the principal of and interest upon all bonds payable from the revenues of the system as and when the same become due and payable, provided, that the amount so set aside for interest on the bonds herein authorized, in each month during the first six (6) months of each fiscal year, shall not be less than one-sixth (1/6th) of the total amount of interest maturing on the following July first, and during the last six (6) months of each fiscal year shall not be less than one-sixth (1/6th) of the total amount of interest maturing on the following January first, and the amount so set aside for principal on the bonds herein authorized, in each month during each fiscal year, shall not be less than one-twelfth (1/12th) of the amount of principal maturing on the following January first immediately following such fiscal year, and if there shall be any deficiency in the amount previously set aside, then the amount of such deficiency shall be added to the current requirement. In addition thereto, there shall also be set aside in monthly installments for the purpose of creating a reserve in said Bond and Interest Redemption Fund, for the bonds herein authorized, a sum not less than $10,000.00 during each year commencing with the fiscal year beginning January 1, 1956, until said reserve shall be equal at any time thereafter to $60,000.00, and said reserve shall be less than $60,000.00, then there shall be set aside in said reserve monthly a sum sufficient to restore said reserve to $60,000.00 at the earliest possible time. If any additional bonds of equal standing shall be issued, the authorizing ordinance shall provide for a comparable amount of reserve therefor. Moneys in said Bond and Interest Redemption Fund may be used for the redemption of bonds; provided, that except in case of refunding, no bonds less than all the outstanding bonds of said issue shall be called for redemption unless the city shall have in said fund sufficient moneys therefor (not otherwise appropriated or pledged) in excess of the amount of interest and principal maturing within the next eighteen (18) months from the redemption date, and for the purpose of determining

GI Goes AWOL, Flees Jailhouse to See New Son

BOSTON (AP) — A young soldier surrendered to police last night and told them he went AWOL from Ft. Knox, Ky., six weeks ago and later broke from jail so he could see his wife and newborn son.

Pvt. Edward Michetti, 17, was quoted as saying he was afraid he would be shipped overseas before seeing his wife Anna, 18, then an expectant mother.

He said he and two friends borrowed a sergeant's car at the base, but were picked up by police near Sharon Springs, N. Y., for having firearms in the car.

Michetti was sentenced to three months in Schoharie County Jail and while there received news his wife had given birth to a boy, Edward Jr.

Michetti walked off a trusty detail last Saturday morning. He told police last night:

Foundation Makes Offer to Erect Auditorium

PORT HURON (AP)—The Henry McMorran Foundation has offered to build a $1,200,000 combined auditorium and sports arena for Port Huron. It asks only that the city provide the site.

The foundation was established to handle the estate of the late Rep. Henry McMorran, who died in 1929. McMorran was one of the founders of the Port Huron Light and Power Co., now a unit of the Detroit Edison Co.

Dems Inviting Michigan Farmers to Air Gripes

DETROIT (AP)—Michigan farmers, "regardless of their political views," have been invited to air their problems tonight at a series of eight meetings being sponsored by the Democratic State Central Committee.

The meetings, beginning at 7:30 p.m., will be held in Marrill, Capac, Michigan Center, Lawrence, Rockford, Mesick, Gaylord and Hermansville.

Good Narration Is Vital Factor

Program May Focus on London and British Empire in Future

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP) — Some bright young men at the National Broadcasting Co. have come up with a fresh concept that rather defies established categories in television. It fits best, however, in the top drawer of the cabinet marked "Television Journalism."

Their initial effort was a film entitled "Assignment: India." As presented to the Thanksgiving Day audience over NBC-TV it was an illuminating and absorbing program that was something to give thanks for. There were three reasons for this.

"Assignment: India" had a definite theme: The struggle to bring democracy to an ancient culture suffering from advanced stages of hardening of the social arteries. Seven weeks of filming in various areas of India under the direction of Robert Graff resulted in technically superb camera and cutting work. Finally — and this is the heart of the new concept — both theme and technical superiority were given a focus through an intelligent narrator.

Chester Bowles, former Ambassador to India, figuratively took Americans by the hand and guided them through a complex problem he understands well and was at pains not to over-simplify.

"Assignment: India" succeeded brilliantly in a field where television so often fails abysmally. It brought a problem under the focus of an understanding mind instead of trying to cover bits of everything — and so ending with not much of anything. It was in the tradition of the best journalism—newspaper, magazine and book — which recognizes what Socrates argued long ago: A view without a viewer cannot exist.

Ted Mills, the producer, hopes to produce many similar films for television with an eye to eventual release to motion picture theaters. He and his staff are thinking of such subjects as "Assignment: London" with Noel Coward as the focus eye and voice, and "Assignment: British Empire" with Sir Winston Churchill as the guide. There are other plans beyond the dream-stage which cannot be reported now.

Tito Approves Plan for Consumer Goods

BELGRADE (AP)—Yugoslavia's Communist government is launching a new economic policy designed to boost living standards. President Tito announced his regime would emphasize production of consumer goods and food and de-emphasize heavy industry.

* * *

The policy shift was in marked contrast to the situation in the Soviet bloc. There the replacement of Soviet Premier Georgi Malenkov by Nikolai Bulganin last February and the move to the front of Communist party chief Nikita Khrushchev was accompanied by abandonment of Malenkov's policy of more consumer goods.

* * *

"It is now important," Tito said, "to give priorty to those enterprises which will yield the quickest result in improving the living standard and in balancing the Yugoslav (foreign) payments account."

* * *

Tito said the development of heavy industry has reached such a level "that we have something upon which we can continue building at a slower pace and more easily."

Men Snatch 2 Boys From 250-Foot Cliff

His pal, John Lack, 14, went up after him but reached a point, 20 feet away, where it seemed wiser to stand still than go on.

Policeman Sterling La Bare climbed the bluff to survey the situation but found himself in the same predicament. For a half hour the three called encouraging words to each other.

Finally firemen lowered ropes from the top of the cliff and rescued the three in the order in which they got stuck. No one was hurt.

Wanta Lose Poundage? Take a Job in Television

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—"You lost weight, Girl," I told Janis Paige.

"Ten pounds!" she announced happily.

"From working?"

"Sure, and from no late snacks, or drinks or social life. In New York, I went out every night. But doing television in California, 10 o'clock, boom! Sound asleep!"

Janis' show's filmed in Hollywood at 7:30 Thursday night — and at 7:15 she does a warmup.

"Friday we start the next show Saturday's the second day of work. Sunday is usually spent learning lines."

"And where do you watch your show Saturday night?"

"In my apartment. The first night we rushed from work to a bar nearby. Talk about frustrating — everybody was watching a football game! In 16 weeks, I've never had time to eat dinner the night of the show."

JANIS PAIGE

It's amusing about her name. Born Donna Mae Paige, she acquired Janis during the war at the Hollywood Canteen.

"The guys held a contest. One guy whose father had been hurt in the first war remembered Elsie Janis and named me for her.

"But now since television," she said, "I haven't been called Janis yet. It's always Jan."

"You got ulcers yet?"

Chicago Youth Held for Setting 50 Fires

CHICAGO (AP)—Police report an 18-year-old boy with a record as a firebug and burglar has admitted setting 50 fires and committing 150 burglaries and robberies in the last four months.

Detective Francis Higgins said yesterday Charles Harris Johnson admitted he set fires Saturday in two North Side apartment houses.

One of the fires set Saturday was at 2413 Lincoln Ave., the scene of a 1953 arson fire for which Johnson was committed to the State Training School for Boys at St. Charles.

Johnson was released last July after serving a year in the Sheridan Reformatory for burglary.

Higgins said Johnson estimated his 125 burglaries yielded an average of $60 apiece. He did not give figures on 25-odd strong-arm robberies police said he admitted. Johnson was held without charge.

Proved His Point

MILFORD, Conn. (AP)—Nine-year-old Charles Hickey Jr. died last night of burns received when he threw a match into a can of gasoline to prove to his brother and sister that he could set off an explosion. The boy was burned critically Friday.

Jews Condemn Discrimination

'Subtle' Biased Attitude Exists in Employment, Survey Reveals

NEW YORK (AP)—The American Jewish Congress says it finds "widespread" job discrimination against Jews and believes the situation might be even worse if the nation were not prosperous and enjoying full employment.

The AJC made its report yesterday on the basis of a nationwide survey conducted for the World Jewish Congress.

It stated there is "sufficient evidence of discrimination against Jews to prevent undue optimism concerning prompt elimination of that evil."

Since "discrimination against Jews is more subtle than discrimination against other groups, we must be alert to find fresh, imaginative approaches to the task of breaking down long-established patterns of employment that limit the economic opportunities of many Americans," the report said.

There is less discrimination in states with fair employment laws, it said, but these laws "do not by themselves halt discrimination."

The AJC said its survey showed that "Jews are largely excluded from many basic industries, such as commercial banking, automobile manufacturing, shipping and transportation, agriculture and mining."

* * *

Don't Surrender to Old Age Until You've Made This Test

WHAT IS CLIMACTERIC?
Medical dictionaries tell us "climacteric" is the time of life when the body undergoes a radical change. The first change, when boys become men and girls become women, is usually between the ages of 12-17. The another change again occurs usually between 40 and 50.

WHO DOES IT AFFECT?
Both men and women. In women it is called "menopause" or "Change of Life" . . . in men, doctors call it "male climacteric."

WHAT ARE THE COMMON SYMPTOMS?
Because the body and blood are undergoing important changes during climacteric, the entire system may become upset and symptoms are varied. Men are usually cranky, nervous, tired, sleepy, irritable, feel weak in arms, legs and back and often are very "crabby." Often there are hot flashes accompanied by that "what's the use" feeling. And very often a special supplementary source of certain vitamins and minerals is needed such as you find in this important discovery called AFTER 40 CAPSULES.

WHAT CAN BE DONE?
Medical science has discovered many medicine that can help you pass the difficult "change of life" period. Today, try the new capsule called "AFTER 40" that supplies the body with an optimal combination of vitamins and minerals often needed during this period. Full month's supply only $5.00 . . . if absolutely delighted with results or cheerful, unquestioned refund.

Bob Considine Says:

Alleged Narcotics Scandal Faces Panama

NEW YORK (INS) — Federal Narcotics Commissioner Harry Anslinger will be presented this week with a brief which will ask that he look into the question of alleged dope running in the Republic of Panama. Men in high places there will be named.

The brief is being completed by Hugo Perez, a Washington, D. C., attorney who represents Jose Ramon Guizado, the Vanderbilt University-trained Panamanian who succeeded Jose Antonio Remon as President of Panama after the latter was machine-gunned to death at the Panama City racetrack last Jan. 2.

Guizado subsequently was impeached and sentenced by the Panama Assembly to 10 years in prison as party to the assassination. His sentence was simultaneously reduced to six years and eight months because of what the assembly called "extenuating circumstances."

The Assembly did not further explain, nor has the man been given a public trail. He was not sent to Coiba Island, Panama's Alcatraz, normally the prison for such crimes.

Guizado was convicted on the testimony of Ruben O. Miro, called a "playboy lawyer," now serving time as the assassin who rubbed out Remon, the portly young Panamanian strong man who had been making and breaking presidents there for a decade.

'AFFRONT TO JUSTICE'

"Miro doesn't know how to use a gun," Perez told me today. "He is what you would call a fall guy. This whole affair is an affront to the kind of justice by which the Western world lives. The security of the United States is involved."

2—President Remon became involved.

3—The U. S. Government got wind of the matter and, concerned with the security of the Panama Canal, the well-being of our troops in the Canal Zone and hemispheric solidarity, privately appealed to Remon to split with his new-found friends.

4—Remon did so and was promptly blasted to death by a paid killer, not Miro, in order to insurance his continued silence.

5—Guizado, the successor, got wind of the intrigue and was framed as an accessory.

I called Anslinger today and he acknolwedged that he had heard the story, in substance, three times: Once from the U. S. Consulate in Panama, once from Mrs. Guizado when she secretly presented it to the Narcotics Division of the United Nations, and most recently from lawyer Perez.

"If Perez's brief makes its point, I'll ask the State Department to request the present Panamanian government to permit our agents to investigate," Anslinger told me.

He added that Remon once was friendly with a German dope addict who promised the Panamanian that he could build a radio-directed "death ray."

NO SUBSTANTIATION'

A call to the State Department resulted in a switch from Lincoln White, the press officer, to the Central American desk. The man said he would call back in half an hour and did so.

"I talked to two men who should know," he reported. "There have been several reports on this case since the assassination. There is no substantiation."

Perez says, 'There's a great reluctance on the part of the present Panamanian government to identify the true killer of President Remon. Why was most of his police guard pulled back to headquarters just before the killing?

"Why haven't Guizado or Miro been given jury trials? Is it because the elections are coming up next May? Guizado was offered freedom, after impeachment, if he went away quietly. He chose prison because he is an honorable man and a true friend of the United States."

Change in Red Attitude Is Mystery Eden Says

LONDON (INS) — British Prime Minister Sir Anthony Eden says the west "may never know" what caused the Russians to lose their Geneva smile at the Big Four foreign ministers conference.

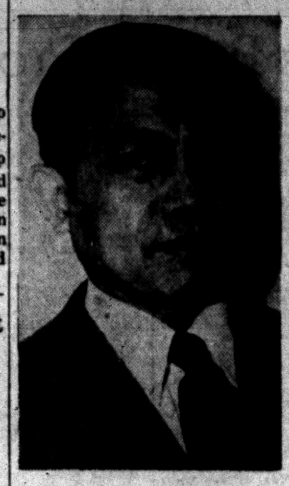

Eden said:

"What happened at Geneva was not altogether surprising, but I doubt whether you or I will know for many years what caused the rigid Soviet attitude there. We may never know it."
