Warn Ruby Lawyer of Court Contempt

DALLAS (AP)—Jack Ruby's attorneys used up two more peremptory challenges in his murder trial today during a thunderous session in which Judge Joe B. Brown warned one of the defense lawyers about the possibility of citing him for contempt of court.

It was the defense's seventh peremptory challenge out of its allotted 15. Ruby's attorneys employed the challenge to reject Herbert Goellner. He said he has served at a juror in Buffalo, N.Y. Goellner said he was a juror "in a murder case, a couple of rape cases and cases of that nature."

Assistant defense attorney Joe Tonahill tried hard to shake Goellner's statement that he has no fixed opinions in the shooting of Lee Harvey Oswald by Ruby.

A shouting match developed between Tonahill and Asst. Dist. Atty. A. D. Jim Bowie.

At one point, the judge said, "Mr. Tonahill, I don't want you to raise your voice any more. We are only five feet apart. I can hear you in a whisper." Tonahill apologized and said, "I can't help it if I react as strongly as I do at what I see going on in this court."

DESPERATE POSITION
He had previously said, "The position of the district attorney staggers credulity. There is more desperation in the district attorney's position than is conceivable."

A moment later, another storm arose when Bowie asserted that Tonahill "had violated all the rulings of the court."

The judge halted the questioning and said, "Mr. Tonahill, I don't want to have to hold you in contempt. I sustain an objection." (Continued on Page 2, Col. 5)

Tells of Deal to Sell Stock to Bobby Baker

Aviation Exec Says He Borrowed Money on Senator's Advice

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate investigators released testimony today that a defense firm official borrowed $175,000 to buy stock in a Tulsa bank on the recommendation of the late Sen. Robert S. Kerr, D-Okla., and had an oral agreement to sell half of it to Bobby Baker.

The testimony was given by Fred B. Black Jr., high-salaried Washington representative of the North American Aviation Corp. He said Kerr told him that, except for his wife and his sons, he "never loved a man so much as he did Bobby Baker."

Baker resigned under fire last Oct. 2 as secretary to the Senate's Democratic majority. The Senate Rules Committee is investigating whether he engaged in outside business dealings that conflicted with his official duties or involved other improprieties.

Black told the committee in about five hours of closed-door testimony last Monday that he borrowed the $175,000 from the Fidelity National Bank & Trust Co. of Oklahoma City after Kerr, from his Capitol office, introduced him by telephone to the bank's president.

Black said that with the $175,000, borrowed on March 20, 1962, he bought 6,400 shares of stock in the Farmers and Merchants State Bank in Tulsa.

ORAL AGREEMENT

He testified that he had an oral agreement with Baker that "he could purchase half of it at any time that he could come up with the money." But he said Baker never has been able to pay for any of it.

Sen. John Sherman Cooper, R-Ky., asked Black if he had suggested to Baker that Baker take part of the stock.

"I didn't suggest that," Black replied. "Sen. Kerr did."

Black testified that Kerr told him the Tulsa bank was "in the throes of reorganization" and that purchase of the stock would be "a fine investment for somebody to make."

ACQUIRED INTEREST
A multimillionaire oil man, Kerr and his partner, Dean McGee, owned a $1.6 million interest in the Tulsa bank under a plan approved in March, 1952, to increase its capitalization from $1.9 million to $3.5 million.

Black, who told of becoming a gun runner playing partner of Kerr after Baker introduced him to the senator, was asked if he helped Baker in some of his financial transactions.

"I can only answer that by saying that Sen. Kerr told me that there wasn't anything in the world that Bobby Baker would ask him to do for him, if he had the power to do it, that he would not do," Black replied.

GOVERNMENT AGENT
Partin, a Louisiana Teamsters official, testified earlier he secretly worked for the government and reported alleged jury tampering efforts during Hoffa's 1962 conspiracy trial at Nashville.

Grimsley said Partin's expenses were paid, in the form of support money, to his wife, from a "confidential" fund of the Justice Department.

Hoffa, on trial with five other defendants charged with attempting to "corruptly influence" the 1962 jury, said yesterday, the payments were apparently made from a $600,000 federal "slush fund."

Hoffa said the alleged fund was operated by Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy to pay off government "stool pigeons."

He said Kennedy was not required to account for the fund and said a congressional hearing should be held on the matter.

Charge R. Kennedy Ran 'Slush Fund'

CHATTANOOGA (UPI)—The wife of a government informer, who received expense money from a "confidential" federal fund, was expected to touch off a new clash over testimony today at the jury tampering trial of Teamsters President James R. Hoffa.

Defense lawyers planned to call Mrs. Edward Partin to the stand as the trial entered its second month here. Government prosecutors said they would object to her testimony as not relevant.

Trial Judge Frank Wilson, who limited the testimony of one defense witness yesterday, accused the defense of attempting to take up "extraneous matters in lengthy questioning of Justice Department investigator Frank Grimsley on the payments to Mrs. Partin."

Defense attorneys said, they were "seeking to impeach the witness Partin."

By DICK SAUNDERS

The Pontiac city treasury is running out of income.

Realizing this, a majority of the City Commission this week moved to ask voters for more tax millage at the April 20 general city election.

The charter was amended 10 years ago to put a limit of 10 mills, as equalized, on the city's operating levy. The 10-mill limit has become outdated.

The city, for many years, had been blessed with a rising tax base (total assessed valuation), a moderate tax rate and a budget surplus.

Assassination Try Turk Chief Escapes Gunman

ANKARA, Turkey (AP)—A Turk fired three shots from close range at Premier Ismet Inonu today and missed. Police seized the man, described as a political foe of Inonu's government.

Inonu appeared unruffled by his narrow escape.

In a taped radio broadcast, he disclosed that all three bullets smashed into his car, and said his guards saved the assailant from a mauling by the crowds.

He reported the man opened fire at from 8 to 12 feet away, just in front of the premier's office.

"I hope I kill him!" police said Mesut Suna shouted, then opened fire as Inonu was about to enter his official car. "It would be for the good of the country."

Police said 38-year-old Suna told them he opposed the military revolution of 1960 that overthrew the Menderes regime and cleared the way for Inonu to return to the premiership.

LEADER UNRUFFLED

The 79-year-old premier had just left his office to go to the National Assembly a short distance away when the shots rang out. The veteran political leader seemed unruffled by the assassination attempt. He got into his car and proceeded to the parliament building.

Police said Suna admitted he had fired his pistol with intent to kill the man who worked with Kemal Ataturk to found modern Turkey.

Suna came to Ankara two days ago from Kayseri, 165 miles southeast of Ankara, where he is a foreman of a power station.

Informed sources said he is a supporter of the outlawed Democratic party of the late strongman premier, Menderes. Menderes and other leaders of the Democratic party were executed after being convicted of crimes against the state.

Inonu, 79, is an elder statesman known for his political skill. His experience dates back half a century and includes 14 years as premier under Kemal Ataturk, founder of modern Turkey.

When Ataturk died in 1938,

PREMIER INONU

Inonu succeeded him as president. He brought his country through World War II unscathed and lined up with the allies toward the close of the war.

Inonu was swept out of office by the Democratic party of Adnan Menderes after the war in the first free election held in Turkey.

When Menderes was ousted by the army in May, 1960, Inonu returned as premier, heading a wobbly coalition. He resigned last December after his two coalition partners were defeated in nationwide local elections, then formed a new minority government which has struggled constantly to avoid collapse.

Say Airman Is Too Fat; Faces Ouster

PORTSMOUTH, N.H. (AP)—Air Force Capt. Harold K. Sacane has fasted, gone on diets and taken reducing pills, but an excess two pounds today jeopardize his military career.

A board of three Air Force colonels yesterday recommended dismissal of the 221-pound, 11-year veteran for being "defective toward his duty to maintain a prescribed standard of fitness."

New weight regulations issued last August for Air Force officers called for Sacane, a 4-foot, 2-inch, 31-year-old, to reduce his 235 pounds down to 219. His latest reported weight is 221—two pounds over the prescribed minimum.

Sacane testified at the hearing saying he fasted several times, sometimes as long as five days. But, he added discomfitedly, one four-day fast took off only one and a half pounds.

'Playing Dangerous Game'

Johnson Warns Peking on Viet Role

LOS ANGELES (AP)—President Johnson, shaking a finger at Communist China, said today that outsiders supporting Communist guerrillas in South Vietnam are playing "a deeply dangerous game."

At the same time, Johnson argued that communism's troubles around the globe actually are more acute than those facing the United States.

He said U. S. problems are eclipsed by "the spreading civil war among Communists"—a reference to the policy gulf between the Soviet Union and Communist China.

The President gave his foreign policy views in an address prepared for an outdoor convocation at the University of California at Los Angeles, held to honor Johnson and visiting President Adolfo Lopez Mateos of Mexico.

This was the prelude to two days of Mexican-American good will talks at the desert resort of Palm Springs, 90 miles away.

Johnson reaffirmed American determination to support the independence of South Vietnam. He described this as a 16-year-old commitment "we will continue to honor."

But he said the Vietnamese war "is first and foremost a contest to be won by the government and people of that country for themselves."

The President did not name Communist China in his discussion of Viet Nam.

But his meaning was clear in saying that "those engaged in external direction and supply of the guerrilla war would do well to remember that this type of aggression is a deeply dangerous game."

Johnson said that "in our foreign policy today there is room neither for complacency nor for alarm."

And, after citing difficulties in Viet Nam, Cyprus, Panama and Cuba, he said:

Test Driver for Ford Dies in Track Crash

A Hungarian fugitive from Communist oppression who settled with his family in Romeo and became a test driver was killed on the job yesterday.

Stephen Miklos, 46, of 221 Sisson was fatally injured in a head-on collision at the Ford Motor Co.'s Michigan Proving Ground near Romeo.

The other test driver, William Heinemann, 45, of Anchorville is in fair condition at the Community Hospital near Almont. He suffered broken ribs in the mishap.

The accident occurred on a two-way section of road when the car driven by Miklos apparently veered across the four-lane pavement into the path of Heinemann's car.

FIRST FATALITY
A Ford spokesman said it was the first test track fatality in company history.

He said both veteran drivers were in standard model cars and were not engaged in speed tests.

Service for Miklos will be 2 p.m. tomorrow at First Congregational Church in Romeo under direction of Wilbur's Funeral Home.

It was the congregation of this church that "adopted" the Miklos family when it came to town in 1957.

Surviving are his wife, Helene, a daughter, Zita, 18, a freshman at Oakland University; and a son, Stephen Jr., 15, at home.

Claims Sukarno Asked Detroit to Provide Harem

DETROIT (AP)—Circuit Court Judge Edward S. Piggins said today that Indonesian President Sukarno wanted Detroit to provide him with a harem when he visited here for two days in 1956.

Piggins, who was police commissioner at the time, said Sukarno's emissary was given a flat refusal by the Detroit Police Department.

Piggins and former Police Supt. Louis J. Berg said the police department not only provided Sukarno the customary guard but made sure he violated no laws. Berg now heads a private consulting business.

Sukarno came here to visit Detroit industry and to receive an honorary degree from the University of Michigan.

Dwindling City Income Forces Millage Vote

Pontiac was living off a fiscal bowl of cherries. Suddenly, last year, after several years of steady decline in the surplus, there was nothing left in the bowl.

In 1963 the surplus was gone and the tax base took a nose dive. There were only two things left to do—raise the tax rate and cut expenses.

Now the only thing left to do is cut expenses because the tax rate for operating expenses is at its limit. This means fewer services to taxpayers and hiring fewer city employees.

Financially, the city's recent history can be easily divided into three eras.

During the 1940's, the tax rate was moderate (around $14 per $1,000), as were expenses and capital improvements. The city built up a budget surplus.

In the 1950's operating expenses started rising and have never stopped. There was a building boom.

But the tax rate went down, partly because the tax base steadily increased and partly because the surplus of the 1940's was used to balance budgets of the 1950's.

The surplus was used up.

During the 1960s, to date, the city has used up its tax rate as well. The surplus is gone and the city's tax base has dropped, but operating costs continue to rise each year.

Of the city's tax rate, the largest and most important portion is for operating expenses.

The City Charter limits the operating levy to a maximum of $10 per $1,000 as equalized.

The city is now levying that full amount.

By amending the charter to allow the city to levy an additional $1 per $1,000 to cover police and fire pension and manpower costs, the city can ease the squeeze on operating millage.

The pension and manpower costs are now paid from operating millage. Pension funds are fixed charges.

They cannot be cut back, like officials can cut departmental accounts by a decrease in employees or buying less equipment.

Financing the pension with additional voted millage would leave about $350,000 free for operating expenses this year if there is no change in the operating levy.

City officials see no immediate change in the annual rise of operating expenses, nor in the tax base. The question is: Do we drop city services or provide the money needed to continue them?

The answer is . . . the public's.

Operation Successful

Surgery for Greek King

ATHENS, Greece (AP)—King Paul of Greece underwent an emergency operation for a stomach ulcer today. A medical bulletin said it had been successful. The bulletin was issued at the royal palace after fears for the king's life had steadily mounted in Athens.

It gave no indication of how long the operation lasted.

The bulletin said: "The operation was carried out successfully by Dr. Alexander Manos."

"The operation went very well," Dr. N. Tsamboulas told newsmen.

KISSED QUEEN

"The king woke up and kissed the queen and his son, Constantine, and the other children. The king is all right now."

During the four hour operation fears had mounted steadily for the 62-year-old monarch.

The operation was to correct a narrowing of the opening between the stomach and the intestines caused by an old ulcer.

The operation was performed at the Tatoi Palace, 26 miles north of Athens.

SHORT VISIT

Greece's defense minister and his military chief made a 15-minute visit to the palace shortly before noon, adding to fears for the king's condition.

They made no statements as they left.

Members of the royal family were at the palace.

They included Queen Frederika; Crown Prince Constantine, 23, who yesterday was named regent for his ailing father; Princess Sophie and her husband, Prince Juan Carlos of Spain, and the king's younger daughter, Princess Irene.

NO OFFICIAL REPORT

The office of Premier George Papandreu announced the operation but gave no immediate official report on his condition.

Seven Children Perish in Blaze

Man Also Killed in Futile Rescue Attempt

CHICAGO (AP)—A flash fire, set off by a burning mattress, swept through a West Side home today, killing seven children and a man who perished in a futile attempt to rescue the four boys and three girls.

The parents of the children and their eighth child escaped from the fast-spreading flames.

The father, detective James Alford, 37, suffered serious burns and smoke inhalation as he failed in attempts to rescue the children from the top floor of the 1½ story brick bungalow. He was reported in serious condition in a hospital.

Alford's wife, Gloria, 35, and the couple's oldest child, Keith, 13, escaped from the flaming dwelling with only minor cuts. The boy smashed a window on the top floor and jumped about 20 feet to the ground.

The man killed in the fire was Leroy Robinson, 41, Alford's cousin who lived with the family.

Mrs. Alford told police and fire officials that the fire started in Robinson's mattress in his room on the first floor where she and her husband were sleeping in another bedroom. She said she and her husband were awakened by dense smoke about 1:30 a.m. and saw Robinson carrying a smoldering mattress into the bathroom to douse it.

Mrs. Alford said her husband smashed a first floor window to let in air. Immediately, the flames spread up the stairwell to the top floor.

Robinson ran up the stairs in an attempt to rescue the children. Keith smashed a window on the top floor and leaped to the ground. The smoke and flames spread rapidly through the top floor and Alford was driven back as he sought to save the lives of his young children, who ranged in age from 1 to 11 years.

5 NY Firemen Are Suspended

NEW YORK (AP)—Fire Commissioner Edward Thompson, blaming mad over reports the women "allegedly of ill repute" have frequented a Manhattan firehouse, has suspended five firemen, including the company captain.

"The reputation of the department could be at stake," Thompson said.

He said an investigation begun last month showed that more than once "unauthorized civilians, both male and female," had visited the firehouse of Engine Co. 35 on East 119th St.

Thompson said the women were over 21 years old, and were in the firehouse more than once, but he declined to give further details. The third floor quarters of the firehouse reportedly was involved.

EVIL MEN

Half of the company's 30 firemen have been quizzed thus far, Thompson said, adding: "All the men in this company are not evil men, but they will all be questioned."

Formal allegations will be filed against the suspended firemen next week for a departmental hearing. The commissioner said the hearing will be open.

Thant Wins Delay on Cyprus Rift

By WILLIAM N. OATIS UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Secretary-General U. Thant today obtained a delay until Monday in U.N. Security Council debate on Cyprus while he continued private talks on his plan to ease the crisis.

Council members agreed to Thant's request for the delay and the next meeting was scheduled tentatively for Monday afternoon.

General agreement on broad objectives was reported from private negotiations on Thant's proposals for an international peace force, an impartial mediator to seek a political accord between the feuding Greek and Turkish Cypriots, and a Security Council guarantee of Cypriot independence and territorial integrity.

A Cyprus government representative said there was general agreement that a mediator should be named and that the international force should be linked to the council through a committee headed by Thant.

WHICH NATIONS?

However, discussions were continuing on the nations that should be asked to supply the troops, which Thant reportedly wants to draw from British Commonwealth and nonaligned nations.

Disagreement was reported on whether the Security Council resolution should refer to the 1960 treaty by which Britain, Greece and Turkey guaranteed the independence of Cyprus and the maintenance of the island republic's constitution.

4 at Ruby Trial Held by Police

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Four persons have been taken into custody in connection with the Jack Ruby trial since it began Monday.

Authorities believe all four suffer from mental disturbances.

One had a loaded pistol. He came from Oregon.

Another told officers he had seen Ruby and Lee Harvey Oswald together many times. "I saw Ruby and Oswald cut a man in two," he told a sheriff's deputy. He's from Mississippi.

FROM INSTITUTION

A third recently was granted leave from a Texas mental institution. "He was pacing around outside the courtroom. His mannerisms were too unusual," a deputy said.

The fourth, a 70-year-old woman from Arizona, said she was an authority on the Cosa Nostra and wanted to testify.

Sheriff Bill Decker's office is trying to contact relatives of the four and send them home. He said commitment to a mental institution might be necessary if relatives can't be found.

"The Dallas County Records Building (where Ruby is being tried) has become a magnet for them," said special deputy Charles Player.

Dr. Robert E. Stoltz, head of the department of psychology at Southern Methodist University, commented that proceedings on the magnitude of the Ruby trial attract certain types of mentally unbalanced persons.

2-Million Expansion

Thousands of Oakland County home owners will get natural gas service this year to heat, cook and cool. But they'll never know one familiar feature to use to go with it.

The strident cry of "gas man" accompanied by a sharp rap on the side door.

When the meter reader arrives unexpectedly, Mrs. Housewife won't feel a bit of apprehension because her hair is in curlers or that little Johnny may have left his skates on the basement steps.

Consumers Power Co. says the 3,100 new house connections it expects to make in the area this year will include outside meters, quickly and quietly read.

It's just one item Consumers new customers probably won't be aware of, but is part of this year's $2-million expansion program.

Below Ground

Charles F. Brown, Pontiac division manager, said most of the changes will take place below ground.

"We plan to construct about 65 miles of gas mains in 1964. Most of the new customers they will service will be in new residential areas, while gas mains serving 1,000 present customers will be modernized or replaced."

The extension of mains will reach out to planned subdivisions in West Bloomfield, White Lake, Waterford and Commerce townships.

"Right now, our canvassers are busy in these areas applying persons already living near our mains to see if they want gas service too," Brown explained.

Consumers Broadens Services

"We know there are about 12,000 homes near our lines which do not use gas, and there are another 10,000 which use some service, but not for heating."

By May, when ground conditions permit, work crews will follow up the sales force.

"Installing crews will use another new item," said Gordon Carlson, gas distribution superintendent. "The house connections will be made of copper tubing that can be unrolled in one piece, instead of the old style sectioned pipe."

While this is being done, the homeowner must make his own arrangements to have the gas appliances he wants installed by a licensed dealer, Carlson reminded.

AVOID DELAY

"And equally important, he must contact us to come out and set the meter. Many forget, and experience delay in using their new service."

Brown said residential heating will account for most of the new connections, with eight of 10 new homes being built with gas furnaces as standard equipment.

Within Pontiac, Consumers will embark on interior remodeling of its office building at 58 W. Lawrence. The work is designed to please both its gas and electric customers.

First floor sales and customer service areas will be redesigned and model kitchens and laundries will be installed.

At the Weissen Street service center, plans are to remodel of floors, construct carports and blacktop driveway and parking areas, Brown said.

Study Course on Insects Scheduled at Cranbrook

BLOOMFIELD HILLS—Teen-agers will investigate the habits and habits of insects this spring in a new program offered by the Cranbrook Institute of Science.

The indoor-outdoor course will be conducted by Mrs. Patricia B. Detrick, natural history instructor at the institute.

The class is offered to students 13 to 15 years old. Beginning March 19, the 10-week course will meet Thursdays from 4 to 5:30 p.m.

When the weather is good, there will be field trips. The study will include the collection, identification and preservation of specimens for the individual's collection.

RAISE INSECTS

The youthful entomologists will make some of their own equipment and gain experience in raising insects.

Registration should be completed by Feb. 29 at the institute office. There is a fee for the course.

The Birmingham-Bloomfield Metropolitan Club has collected $342 in its campaign to raise $600 for the family of Ralphie Hedman, according to Chairman Richard Chambers, a Birmingham detective.

The group has until Monday to reach its goal. The 22-month-old boy, born with a heart defect, is to depart then for the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minn., where he will undergo an operation that could save his life.

Dr. John B. Smith, Birmingham public schools superintendent, attended the national conference of the American Association of School Administrators in Atlantic City this week.

Dr. Smith was a member of a panel which discussed "Great Literature as an Element in the Preparation of the Administrator" Wednesday.

In a closed circuit television debate Monday, he took the affirmative on the topic "Resolved: That Teaching Modern Language Prior to Grade Six is Feasible and Justifiable."

Pontiac General Hospital is growing within.

Last night, the hospital's board of trustees approved a project estimated to cost $10,450 which would add four patient beds to the hospital's second floor east wing.

It would also be another step toward centralized kitchen facilities in the hospital.

MOVE FACILITIES

"We are moving examining and treatment rooms on the second floor into an area now occupied by kitchen and linen storage facilities," said Harold B. Euler, administrator.

"The rooms will be renovated into a four-bed ward."

Euler said the work would be done by the hospital maintenance staff and should be finished by June.

It would raise the total bed capacity to 391.

He noted that "with the high demand for beds, we are sure this project will pay for itself before the end of the year."

Today's session began with the defense peremptorily rejecting Bill Bohanan, 38, a husky, curly haired salesman.

The state followed by using its second peremptory challenge, on James C. Bland, 42, a store manager.

Just before the court recessed for lunch, a 33rd jury candidate, Mrs. Frank Nelson, was excused when she said, "I don't believe in capital punishment in any case."

RENEWED MOTION

Belli, for the third time, moved to bar as jurors in this trial persons who saw Ruby shoot Oswald on television. In effect, he also renewed his motion for a change of venue. He told the judge:

"If your honor will take this case out of Dallas, we would find more people who haven't seen this on television."

Brown replied, "There again I disagree with you."

Max E. Causey, 35, an electronics analyst, was selected yesterday as the first juror.

Juror Causey "is just what we were looking for," Belli said after both sides agreed on him yesterday.

Causey, 35, holds a master's degree in education.

Under questioning, he said he was familiar with the names of some prominent psychiatrists, mentioned by Belli, and knew about books they have written. He did not indicate he had read the books.

TEMPORARY INSANITY

Ruby's defense against a charge of murder with malice will be based on temporary insanity.

Causey said he has an open

Urban League Plans Dinner

Drawing on extensive experience in crime prevention and social work, Dr. Carl S. Winters will be guest speaker at the Pontiac Area Urban League annual dinner meeting March 10.

Dr. Winters, who is sponsored by General Motors Corp. speakers bureau, at one time served as chairman of a state crime commission. He is also a world traveler and an ordained minister.

Election of board members will also take place at the meeting, to be held at Jefferson Junior High School.

City Hospital Alters Facilities

Pontiac General Hospital is slowly converting kitchens on each floor to other uses in favor of one large, centrally located kitchen.

MOVE FACILITIES

"We are moving examining and treatment rooms on the second floor into an area now occupied by kitchen and linen storage facilities," said Harold B. Euler, administrator.

"The rooms will be renovated into a four-bed ward."

Euler said the work would be done by the hospital maintenance staff and should be finished by June.

It would raise the total bed capacity to 391.

He noted that "with the high demand for beds, we are sure this project will pay for itself before the end of the year."

OK Military Funds; More Than Asked

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House has approved the $16.9 billion defense authorization bill, including $82 million in research funds not asked by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara.

Approval of the largest defense authorization in history came late Thursday on a 360-0 roll call vote.

The $82 million is intended for research on a manned bomber and a manned interceptor plane. The House Armed Services Committee had recommended the money on the advice of Gen. Curtis LeMay, Air Force chief of staff, although it had not been included in McNamara's requests.

TESTIFIES—Robert Oswald, older brother of the accused presidential assassin, still maintains public silence, but finishes his second day of testimony before the Warren Commission today.

Sticks and Stones . . .

McNamara Ignores Goldwater

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara is absorbing in silence Sen. Barry Goldwater's increasingly sharp slings and arrows. McNamara is not countering in public — and the defense secretary's associates indicate he's unlikely to do so. McNamara is not normally a man to turn the other cheek, or avoid a scrap.

But he is said to feel that making any new public statements in reply to Goldwater would only give the Arizona Republican another peg on which to hang his attack.

ADVISE AGAINST There were those among McNamara's associates who, reportedly advised against issuing a biting statement he put out on Jan. 9.

That statement came several hours after Goldwater said for the first time in his campaign for the GOP presidential nomination that U.S. missiles are not dependable.

The Pentagon chief was said to have felt that that was the time to challenge Goldwater's allegations — before they became accepted by the public.

McNamara called those Goldwater remarks made at a New Hampshire news conference, "completely misleading, politically irresponsible and damaging to the national security."

AF OFFICER Goldwater, a major general in the Air Force Reserve, has been volleys at McNamara ever since.

Some of those close to McNamara say it seems to them that Goldwater is running against the defense secretary; that the senator appears to say harsher things about McNamara than about his GOP rivals for the presidential nomination or about President Johnson.

Thursday, Goldwater told another New Hampshire audience that if he were president he would sack McNamara. The Arizona senator contended that McNamara had said that U.S. long range missiles are more reliable than manned bombers — "probably the stupidest statement ever made by a secretary of defense."

To this, McNamara and the Pentagon remained officially silent.

McNamara is well aware of what Goldwater is saying about him. But associates claim the senator's barbs are not getting under McNamara's skin.

So far, McNamara's aides say.

Big Fire in Manila

MANILA (AP) — Fire raged through the heart of Manila's Chinatown tonight, laying waste to eight blocks of homes and stores. Police estimated damage at more than $25 million.

Goldwater has gathered little support in his attack on the reliability of U.S. intercontinental ballistic missiles.

"They cite the statement by former President Dwight D. Eisenhower on Jan. 9 that he is confident the United States has "just as good missiles as there are in the world." They also note that Rep. Carl Vinson, D-Ga., chairman of the House Armed Services Committee, declared this week that he is "wholly persuaded that our missiles are fully capable of doing the job for which they were intended."

Aids Mentally Retarded Children

Famous Pony Does Bit for Charity

IMLAY CITY. — A $56,500 Shetland pony is playing an important role in the establishment of a foundation to promote interest and raise funds for mentally retarded children.

The nonprofit, tax-exempt, perpetual organization is named after Captain Topper, champion stallion owned by Patricia Burton of Burton Farms, Dryden.

Miss Burton announced the establishment of the foundation, to be a living memorial to her late father, Fred Burton, at a meeting of civic leaders from southeastern Michigan in Imlay City last night.

The name of Burton is a familiar one throughout the state for it was Miss Burton's grandfather who founded the Burton Abstract and Title Co. which has been in continuous operation in Detroit since 1866.

HISTORICAL COLLECTION

However, "C. M." as he was known to Detroiters of an earlier era, was perhaps better remembered as the donor of the famous historical collection that bears his name.

It is for his third son that the newly formed foundation, which will reach far beyond Michigan's boundaries, is dedicated.

Fred Burton served as vice president of his father's company in Detroit and in addition, established the Fred Burton Abstract Co. in Oakland County. He later opened offices in both Washtenaw and Lapeer counties.

His daughter Patricia worked in the Royal Oak, and later, at the Pleasant Ridge offices of the company, starting her career while she was still in school. She rose to the position of executive vice president before her retirement in 1960.

RECORD SALE

Five months later, in Gainesville, Texas, she made Shetland pony history by purchasing Captain Topper, the greatest Shetland stallion of all time, for a record price of $56,500.

Prior to his purchase by Miss Burton, the sorrel pony amassed an enviable record of 49 blue ribbons, 17 championships and 69 group awards.

With Miss Burton, Captain Topper embarked on a new career as guest of honor at festivals and fairs in the United States and Canada and even was featured in a movie.

During this period, Miss Burton became interested in the work being done with Shetland ponies at the Wheeler Home-Farm-School for Mentally Retarded Children in Rankin, Ill.

This interest reached a peak last month when the Captain Topper Foundation for Mentally Retarded Children was officially registered with the Michigan Corporation and Securities Commission.

Funds coming into the foundation will be used to aid previously established schools for the mentally retarded and the handicapped.

In addition, the monies will be utilized to create and maintain Captain Topper Village, a proposed model educational and research center for the two types of handicapped children to be located north of Detroit.

The village will employ the methods of using Shetland ponies to work with the retarded originated by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wheeler at their school in Illinois.

FIRST PROJECT

The first project of the newly formed organization will be to raise and donate $50,000 to the Lapeer State Home and Training School Chaparral Fund, Inc. This amount will help erect a chapel for the 4,000 patients at the home.

It is for this occasion that Captain Topper will return to Michigan after almost four years on the west coast. He will be bringing with him the entire Alpenrose Dairy Show from Portland, Ore.

Gov. Romney has extended an invitation to the dairy owners, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cadman, to be guests of the state during their visit.

Some 40 Portland school children, 40 Shetland ponies from Alpenrose and dairy personnel will be coming east for shows at the Lapeer State Home, Imlay City Fairgrounds and Detroit's Olympia in late July and early August.

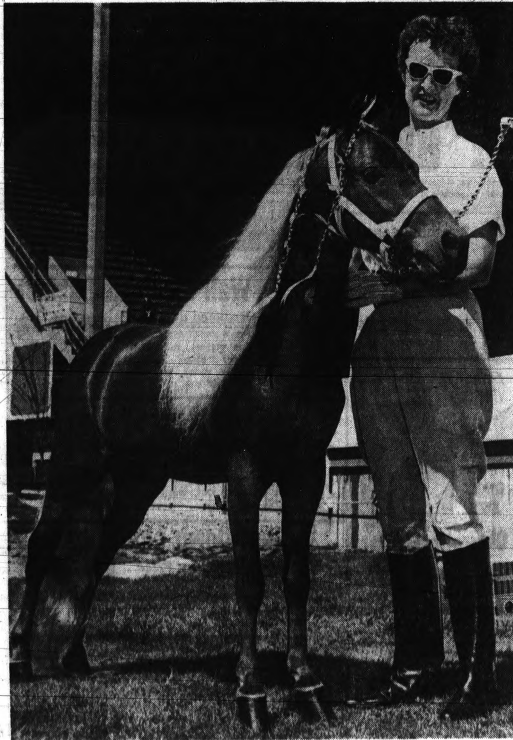

Donations to the Captain Topper Foundation can be sent to Jesse Snyder, vice president of the Wayne Oakland Bank, Royal Oak.

White Lake Engine Retired From Service

WHITE LAKE TOWNSHIP — Old No. 404 has had it.

After 16 years of service to the residents of White Lake Township, the old engine is marked for retirement.

The veteran fire fighter will be replaced by a flame red beauty, a more versatile model — customized to boot.

No. 404 is to be stripped of its usable equipment to outfit the new one-ton pickup truck.

SPECIAL USES

Firemen will do much of the customizing themselves, adapting the truck for the special use to which it will be assigned.

The multipurpose vehicle will concentrate on grass and auto fires, assisting with others if needed.

"The smaller truck equipped properly will save on the $20,000 trucks," Supervisor Edward Chey said. "This way we won't have to send the big ones out on calls where they aren't necessary."

He noted that grass fires and rescue work account for the majority of the department's runs.

GRASS FIRES

"Out of 192 runs in 1962, 69 were for grass fires," he said.

By specializing, the new unit will save the township money and manpower formerly expended on operating the larger vehicles.

The department's fifth truck will be purchased for $3,100 from Spartan Dodge of Pontiac, least of two bidders.

Book Fair Set at White Lake

WHITE LAKE TOWNSHIP — St. Patrick Catholic Church next week will be the scene of a book fair for the benefit of the new parish library.

The fair will be held in conjunction with Catholic Book Week, the theme of which is "Read and Unite Our Changing World."

Sale of books will begin tomorrow from noon to 9 p.m. The hours for Monday through Friday will be 7-9 p.m. and for Feb. 29 noon-9 p.m.

No religious articles or books will be sold on either of the two Sundays, although orders will be taken.

The library in the basement of the church will be open from 9 a.m. until the church closes Sunday and from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. March 1.

Proceeds will be used for the purchase of new books for the library.

1st Sermon as Pastor

COMMERCE TOWNSHIP — Rev. Arthur Gibbs will deliver his first sermon as pastor of Interlakes Baptist Church, 2832 S. Commerce, this Sunday.

The graduate of Southern Baptist College in Riverside, Calif., was ordained July 14, 1963. He, his wife and their three children now live in Detroit but plan to move here soon.

Rev. Gibbs has spoken at the church four Sundays in the last four months. He is replacing Rev. David L. Hott who became youth director of Columbia Avenue Baptist Church, Pontiac, in November.

Easter Hat Sale Planned by PTA

COMMERCE TOWNSHIP — For those thinking ahead to the Easter parade, the Commerce Elementary School PTA has planned a hat sale.

Room 1 of the school will be converted into a "hat shoppe" for the group's 7-10 p.m. meeting Monday.

Also on the program is a physical education demonstration by fourth, fifth and sixth graders.

Predict Okay of Teacher Tenure

LANSING (AP) — Republican leaders predicted Thursday the legislature will pass a mandatory statewide teacher tenure law this year rather than risk its being adopted by voters in a referendum.

They indicated, additionally, that the proposal will go before lawmakers with the implied endorsement of Gov. George W. Romney.

Senate majority leader Stanley Thayer, R-Ann Arbor, said the reason for the strategy is a prevalent feeling among legislators that, if placed on the November ballot, statewide tenure would be approved.

This would mean any future changes in the law also could be made only through referendum. If the legislature passes the law, it would retain its power to amend or repeal it.

REVEAL STRATEGY

The strategy on tenure, which has been demanded by the Michigan Education Association in legislative petitions bearing 310,000 signatures, was revealed following a meeting of GOP Senate members with Romney.

Thayer predicted afterward the Senate will pass the tenure proposal "exactly as it is on the petitions."

House Speaker Allison Green, R-Kingston, predicted the bill will be approved in the House for the same reasons Thayer foresees its acceptance in the Senate.

"I would agree that the majority feeling is to bring the bill out of committee and pass it in the House," said the speaker.

PERSONAL RESERVATIONS

Green, a former schoolteacher and administrator, said he has personal reservations about mandatory tenure, particularly in its potential effect on rural schools.

"But in the position I find myself, I'd vote for it," he said. "It probably would pass if it got on the ballot."

The MEA petitions ask enactment of a law which would furnish tenure's protection against being fired without cause or appeal. It would cover all public school teachers after a two-year probationary period.

At present, 59 of the state's 1,500 districts, employing nearly a third of its public school teachers, have tenure on a local-option basis.

Sen. Robert VanderLaan, R-Grand Rapids, chairman of the Senate Education Committee, said earlier the tenure proposal as sought by the MEA and an alternative local - option plan might be placed on the ballot together.

The local - option plan would have submitted the question to voters in every Michigan school district in the next election of school board members.

Romney has said he favors "reasonable assurance of continuity in their positions" for teachers "who have demonstrated competence."

CZAR COMMENT

In his book Yugov had said of Czar Nicholas II:

Local Adman's Rise Result of Good Selling

Updating the seemingly antiquated philosophy of HORATIO ALGER, ERNEST A. JONES has just founded out a quarter-century with the Bloomfield Hills-based advertising agency of MacManus, John & Adams.

President of the firm since 1955, the 47-year-old executive began his career with the agency in 1939 when he took the unorthodox step of giving up a job paying $400 a month for one offering $125.

During the nearly 10 years of Mr. Jones' presidency, the agency's 26 accounts, 277 employees and billings of $36 million have risen to 100 accounts, 600 employees and billings nearing $65 million. Among the top 25 agencies, M.J. & A. ranks third in growth over the last five years.

The adman's formula for the success of both himself and his company? Very simple: "Sell yourself and sell your product."

Leap Year Adds Life to Auto License Tags

Cupid, this year, is doing double duty. Not only are his Leap Year arrows being bowed on behalf of mate-seeking maidens, but his kindly offices are being extended to Michigan's motorists—65,000 of whom are licensed in the Pontiac area.

How? Because of the extra day in February this year, in quadrennial obeisance to the Mighty Mite, the 1963 auto tags will not expire with the legal 28th but will continue valid through the 29th.

But don't delay getting your '64 tags. The Secretary of State's branch office, which by the way will be open the last day of the month for the benefit of those who never do today what they can put off till tomorrow, reports that issuance of new tags is lagging markedly. This means but one thing—as big a traffic jam in getting the tags as you'll be in after you get 'em.

So, save yourself time, impatience and risk of a violation ticket March 1 by getting your tags NOW.

To take a little liberty with an old one: A tag in hand is worth two in the rush.

Nation Pays Homage to Its First Hero

Tomorrow is the 232nd anniversary of the birth of GEORGE WASHINGTON.

In assessing the stature of the Nation's great, it is noteworthy that in so many lives it is the incongruous and comparatively insignificant that has served to immortalize them.

Think of George Washington, and the fabled tableau of the cherry tree is the mental image that usually appears.

But at the risk of seeming trite, classic there are attributes far more important though less signaled to perpetuate reverence of WASHINGTON in the hearts of Americans.

Born in Virginia, he did not attend school until after he was 11 years old, yet when he was only 16 he started a career as a surveyor.

When the call went out for soldiers during the French and Indian War, Washington met the challenge and served bravely.

He was chosen a delegate to the first and second Continental Congress. It was at the second that he was chosen to lead the American army.

After the war, Washington was asked to preside over the convention which framed the Constitution, and became the first President of the United States under that document.

What then should he be remembered for?

GEORGE WASHINGTON should be remembered as a man who so loved his country that he was willing to serve it in any way he could, a man who spent his life in the public service.

U.S., Red China in Same Position

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON — When Americans stop being mad at Fidel Castro long enough to reflect about the shoe on the other foot, Red China comes to mind — and it isn't pleasant.

Since the Red Chinese are not the money type, this country can be sure its desire to eliminate Castro and communism from this hemisphere is matched by Red China's ardor to rid all Asia of Western influence.

One of this country's great embarrassments of the century was to see communism not only get a foothold in its backyard, in Cuba, but survive and, more or less, flourish.

Castro is more than embarrassment. He's a danger. While he lasts he is an inspiration to other Latin American Communists to try to do likewise in their countries.

No wonder the United States wants Castro out.

UP TO ITS NECK

Meanwhile, the United States is up to its neck in Southeast Asia, in the Chinese Communist's backyard, trying to keep the people there pro-Western and anti-Communist or, if not anti-Communist, at least neutral.

This is as insufferable for the Red Chinese as Castro is for the United States.

So they can be expected to try to dominate their continent as soon as they feel ready, particularly since they seem to have an even fiercer Communist missionary zeal than the Russians.

But the two giants, the United States and Red China, are momentarily frustrated in their ambitions. As of now, the United States clearly doesn't seem to know what to do next about Castro.

GRUESOME POSSIBILITIES

A direct attack on his island would risk some gruesome possibilities, like war with Russia, alienating the rest of Latin America, and losing trust, respect and influence elsewhere.

As for the indirect method of attack—by Cuban exiles with American backing—this country has painful recollection of what happened when it was tried. This was President Kennedy's disastrous failure in 1961.

The Red Chinese, who have split with Russia and respect American nuclear weapons so long as they don't have any, so far have avoided direct participation in South Viet Nam and the rest of Southeast Asia.

TOWER OVER NEIGHBORS

They don't have to hurry. They tower over their neighbors in this hemisphere. When they feel strong enough, and that the time is right, it seems inevitable they will move.

Civil Rights?

The Fort Lauderdale News

Let there be no mistake about this. While the proposed civil rights bill is clothed in lofty and noble-sounding language, it bestows upon the federal government the most far-reaching power to meddle and interfere in the day-to-day affairs of our individual citizens that has ever before been seriously considered by Congress.

This bill will authorize the federal government to step in and tell virtually every employer of human labor whom he must hire and whom he must fire. It will force virtually every labor union to open its ranks to anybody the federal government declares shall be a member.

It definitely and conclusively takes away the property rights of just about everybody who conducts a private business which caters to the general public. Ever since this nation was first founded it has held to the principle that a private businessman had the right to choose his own customers. But now we are told that right is no longer a valid one and that it must be superseded because we are in an election year and politicians of both our parties have gone down on their hands and knees to cater to the whims and demands of our big city minority groups.

This is demagoguery of the worst order. If they could afford to be truthful, we have little doubt that many of the House members who put their stamp of approval on this iniquitous civil rights bill did so only in the expectation their action would be greatly modified in the Senate.

But what kind of men are these who gloss over the destruction of principles, traditions and rights that have been a part of this nation since its very inception? Has our political system degenerated to the point where a majority of our legislators are so obsessed with their own ambitions to get re-elected they will impose a veritable dictatorship upon our people in the name of civil rights?

The more we see of the powerful forces steering this civil rights bill to passage the more we fear for the security and the safety of a nation entrusted to these forces. Principles are sacrificed for personal aggrandizement, and the spectacle is not one that bodes good for our country.

Impossible

The Sacramento Bee

George Washington, so it is said, threw a silver dollar across a river. It would be a neat trick, indeed, if he could make today's dollar go that far.

Future Smokers

The Holland Sentinel

A Harvard University study conducted at Newton, Mass., suggests the possibility that more women than men smoke cigarettes. Years hence it may be the ladies who do the bulk of the smoking.

This change may come about because more men than women are giving up the habit. In one year 25 per cent of the men interviewed at Newton quit cigarettes, but only 7.3 per cent of their spouses were able to do so.

Project the picture far enough into the future and you see George, on arriving home, hit the ceiling because the place smells like the scene of a recent four-alarm fire. Grace explains that the girls have been in for bridge and, of course, they smoked. Grace didn't smoke much herself, though — only half a pack.

Yes, she knows there's another hole in the arm of the yellow chair. Yes, she knows that chairs cost money. She also knows that the accident wouldn't have happened if she and the girls didn't smoke. She's really awfully sorry. And she's sorry too, that George has to be so proper. Sometimes she wishes he'd smoke.

David Lawrence Says:

Wheat Sale to Soviets One of Biggest Boners

WASHINGTON — The Kennedy-Johnson administration will be held responsible by many voters next November for one of the biggest boners in foreign policy in the history of this country.

It was the consent given to the sale of LAWRENCE wheat to the Soviet Union and other Communist countries, notwithstanding the "cold war."

This move has proved a boomerang.

It has started a wave of deals whereby Great Britain and France and other countries have begun not only to export goods to Cuba but to help build factories for the Russians which can be indirectly of aid to them in preparing for war.

The late President Kennedy, in a press conference on Oct. 9, said of the wheat deal that it was not a government-to-government transaction, that credits would be granted by banks, and that "The grain dealers will take the risk with the private banks."

The total impression given at the time was that the United States would not grant any subsidy or any credits.

GUARANTEE LOANS

But it turns out that the government here has guaranteed the loans which the banks made, and members of Congress have revealed that in one particular sale, involving 37 million bushels.

More Applaud Thought Behind 'C' University

I can think of several men and women right here in our own area who had excellent marks in colleges and universities—including the Naval Academy—who have become top leaders through their personal abilities.

At the same time, I am completely cognizant of the much greater number who did average work as undergraduates but who took a constructive part in extra-curricular activities and who are now doing equally as well in later life. And there are many, many times as many of these.

They're the solid fundamental basis of our nation's overwhelming progress and success. We must not deny them a fine four-year college course.

I heartily applaud the underlying concept of "C" University.

W. A. P. John

I have one suggestion for that grand, new University. Instead of calling it "C" U., why not make it "C Plus" U.? It might even be "C+U" U. It sounds better and smoother.

'Library Critics Preventing Learning'

Critics of Waterford's proposed library are working hard to prevent the development of learning and knowledge. I would like to point out to these critics that the average home owner here pays about $15 per year in township taxes (not to be confused with school taxes) and in view of this low tax rate and our growing population, the problem of increasing services is not unusual.

We can either provide revenue for additional services or do without, but we can't afford to eliminate necessary public instructions. Libraries are a vital community investment.

John R. Sommers

The Beatles Continue to Hold Interest

The Beatles are lively, likeable guys. I hand it to them for their guts and wit. I don't suppose they mind the criticism—they can laugh all the way to the bank.

Pensioner

We're all-American girls and like The Beatles. Long-hair music such as Mozart and Beethoven is OK, but you can't dance the Twist to it.

P. Gillespie

S. Cupp

A point was scored for pro-Beatle Teen-agers on the Ed Sullivan show. I was much prouder to have The Beatles represent us teens, than I would have been to have Mitzzy Gaynor represent us as adults. She was absolutely nauseating!

Proud to Be a Beatlemaniac

"Disgruntled Teen-Ager" must be a very untypical one because for every teen-ager who doesn't like The Beatles there are at least ten who do. It's noteworthy that Richard Rogers is one of The Beatles' most avid fans and if they're good enough for a man like him, they're good enough for anybody.

Linda

It should be obvious to "Concerned" that adults are "on top" of teen-age problems, everywhere—except Detroit. Consider the amount of adult participation in the current teen-age crisis—"Beatlemaniacs."

Isn't it gratifying to see so many mature adults "airing their knowledge" and contributing toward cleaning up this dreadful threat? These "self-appointed" insects, with their debatable, social and emotional effect on teen-agers have provoked widespread controversy.

Louise Adams

In reply to Mr. Kobosh, I don't think there is anything repulsive about The Beatles. They've had to battle their way to the top and now must fight to stay there. Also, girls don't get a bad image from them because there is no bad image there. I think they're sharp and swift—they're just too much.

Caroline Stone

The Beatles are the sharpest things that have hit the nation. They're nice, wholesome guys who have many talents. They know how to move around and that's dancing; they know how to raise and lower their voices and that's singing. And I don't think they're showing boys how not to comb their hair.

They aren't building a false image—they're just presenting true talents.

Good Topic This Year

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—In an election year, says Prof. Paul Hunsinger, nothing is so important as a little knowledge or orisextratopody.

Hunsinger, who heads the speech department at the University of Denver, listed it among topics at the annual Rocky Mountain Speech and Communication Conference here today.

He explained orisextratopody is the art of keeping one's foot out of one's mouth—or getting it out once it's in.

Senate Unit OKs Lower Voting Age

LANSING (AP)—The Senate Judiciary Committee Thursday approved a resolution which could result in lowering Michigan's voting age from 21 to 18.

The resolution's chief sponsors, Sens. William Ford, D-Taylor, and John Bowman, D-Roseville, predicted the measure will gain the needed two-thirds Senate majority.

Such a majority in both houses would put the proposal on a statewide ballot. The resolution is a proposed amendment to the new state constitution.

Murder Trial of Beckwith Called Sham

DETROIT (AP)—Mississippi's trial of Byron De La Beckwith in the slaying of Negro integrationist Medgar Evers was a sham, Aaron Henry, president of the Mississippi chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said Thursday.

Henry predicted in an interview that a second trial would end with another hung jury or acquittal. The all-white jury deadlocked in De La Beckwith's recent trial.

Henry, a Clarksdale, Miss., pharmacist, said he disagreed with what he called some persons' views that the jury deadlocked showed that some white people would vote against a white man accused of a crime against a Negro.

"Realists," Henry said, "believe that the jurors agreed to reach a verdict merely for the sake of public relations for the deep South."

Additional "radical demonstrations" by Negroes over civil rights were forecast by Whitney M. Young Jr., executive director of the National Urban League, if whites fail to respond to demands of Negro leaders.

Detroit Crimes Up 6 Per Cent Over Last Year

DETROIT (AP)—The total of all crimes was up 6.6 per cent in Detroit last month, compared with the previous January, and the gain in more serious crimes was 12.5 per cent.

While reporting this, Police Commissioner Ray Girardin said 534 persons were taken to court on criminal charges last month compared with only 394 in the same month a year previously. Prosecutions thus were up 34.5 per cent.

"The record is not heartening, but I don't think it constitutes a crime wave or a trend," Girardin said.

New Peking Blast by Russia?

LONDON (UPI) — Authoritative Communist sources said today the Soviet Union has given up on its attempts to appease Communist China in their ideological dispute and is preparing a broad new accusation against Peking.

Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev will soon issue a statement accusing the Mao Tse-tung regime of outright ideological heresy and of splitting the international Communist movement, the source said.

Last fall, Khrushchev called for an end to polemics in the conflict, and Russian criticism of China was held to a minimum. The Chinese defiantly ignored the truce offer and continued their verbal attacks against the Russian government.

The Soviet leader was understood to be lining up formal support from leaders of satellite Communist states and Communist parties in Western Europe in an attempt to isolate Peking within the Communist camp.

An outline of the Kremlin's plan was understood to have been presented in the past few days to members of the central committee of the Soviet Communist party in Moscow.

The conflict between Russia and China has centered mainly on the proper Communist attitude toward the West.

Khrushchev has staked his policy on peaceful coexistence with the West and nuclear disarmament. Mao advocates a belligerent "hard-line" approach and opposes disarmament.

Earlier this month, Peking launched one of its severest attacks. A formal declaration published in the Chinese Communist party's ideological journal said the Soviet leaders had forfeited their role as the "vanguard" of revolution and could no longer be considered leaders of the world Communist movement.

The Communist sources said the attack aroused a mixture of anger and anxiety among Kremlin leaders.

Mom Follows Child in Entering Pageants

CHERRY HILL, N.J. (AP)—The mother of a recent Miss America contestant wants to become this year's Mrs. America.

Jewell Malick, 43, a blonde, said she entered the Mrs. America competition "because I'm sure it will be lots of fun, and I'm a pretty good homemaker."

The New Jersey judging, with eight contestants, will be held March 5 and 6 in this Camden County community not far from metropolitan Philadelphia.

"I'm really excited about it," she said. "And so is my family"—husband, Gordon, and four children.

TALENT SCHOLARSHIP

Her eldest daughter, Georgia, 19, was Miss New Jersey in the 1962 Miss America pageant and won a $1,000 talent scholarship as a pianist. She now is a freshman at Rutgers University.

"Georgia thinks it is hilarious," Mrs. Malick admitted. "She says I'll know now how it feels to be on public view, and to smile prettily all the time."

The other children are Kip, 14, James, 8, and Heidi, 2.

What does her husband, an insurance supervising adjuster say?

"He thinks it's kinda cute," Mrs. Malick laughed. "Anyway he always called me his Mrs. America. I guess all husbands call their wives that."

NO SWIMSUITS

The Mrs. America competition is not a beauty contest, nor do entrants parade in bathing suits.

"It's homemaking and baking and knowing how to do the right things a wife and mother should do," she said. "If it were a beauty contest, I wouldn't be in it. I am not afraid of my figure but, after all, age — and four kids!"

Mrs. Malick says she's 5-foot-6, 123 pounds and wears her hair medium short to show off her blue-green eyes.

Other measurements? "Not important," she blushing responded.

The New Jersey winner, with her husband, will represent the state in the Mrs. America finals at St. Petersburg, Fla. April 2-6.

Seniors of Kettering Vote Class Symbols as Graduation Nears

By JOY McREYNOLDS
As graduation draws near for some 300 seniors at Waterford Kettering High School, enthusiasm mounts over selection of the class motto, song, colors and flower.

Wednesday morning the upperclassmen cast their votes for proposals in each of the four categories.

Suggestions for mottos included "We've crossed the bay; the ocean lies before us," "We learn from the past as we look ahead to the future," and "We're not afraid of tomorrow, for we have seen yesterday, and we love today."

CLASS SONG
Among the proposals for class song were "Sea Winds," "Till,"

"Our Winter Love," "Tonight," and "Stranger on the Shore."

Also appearing on the ballot as class color suggestions were green and white, cranberry and white, powder blue and white, and blue and silver.

Flower proposals included the red rose, white rose, orchid and white carnation.

In addition, preliminary voting in senior mock elections was held Wednesday. Categories named for the 1964 class are prettiest eyes and smile, most shy, school spirited, dependable, athletic, and all around.

Others include most valuable to the class, courteous, and one likely to succeed, plus friendliest, class wit and class flirt.

VOTING RESULTS
Results of the voting will be announced next week.

Monday night found 24 GAA letter club members struggling to defeat nine WKHS faculty women in the annual letter club faculty basketball game.

The faculty team, including Judi Brooks, Lynda Eggleston, Carol Kratt, Roberta Lerg, Mrs. Maureen Losh, Mrs. Joan Nickman, Nancy Olson, coach Mrs. Anne Prokos and Jacqueline Puhl dominated the letter club cagers, under captain Diana Irish with a final score of 22-17.

Members of the WKHS Y-Teens recently baked cookies for distribution at the tuberculosis Sanitarium. Some 150 favors were delivered to the Sanitarium as Valentine's Day gifts.

CANDY SALE
Enticing the sweet "tooths" of many Waterford Kettering students, the science futurity association recently sponsored a candy sale during lunch hours, under the direction of chairman Cheryl Byrnes and Grace Stoll.

Proceeds of the sale will be used to sponsor science movies which will be viewed by the entire schools.

Plans are now underway for a field trip to the University of Michigan during Easter vacation and a tentative trip to Chicago.

Students Plan Spring Play

By NANCY GREENHILL
The Thespians at Lake Orion High School have decided to produce Ferenc Molnar's "Lilom" this spring. The story tells of a ne'er-do-well bully from Budapest.

Tryouts began Thursday and will continue through Monday. Mrs. Laura Salner and Lawrence Sexton of the speech department will direct the play.

The Girls Athletic Association played their first basketball game at Avondale last Friday. The first game was lost but the team is hoping for a victory this afternoon when they play Oxford.

Tonight the National Honor Society will sponsor a dance following the basketball game with Rochester. Stuffed animals will be given away as door prizes.

Competition in Speech at BHHS

By KAREN TRIMMER
Speech competition has begun at Bloomfield Hills High School under the direction of Clarence Slocum, world history teacher.

Interested students will compete in interpretive reading, humorous reading, extemporaneous speaking, original oration and declamation (open only to sophomores).

A contest will be held in the school to determine the two BHHS students who will compete in each of the categories on April 11 at the district tournament.

Twenty-one art students from BHHS have submitted entries to the scholastic art show which will be held in Detroit tomorrow through March 7.

They include Susan Le Van, Christie Ribant, Mary Town, Linda Carnegie, Karen Clark, David Swayne, Joel Phillips, Kenneth Manna, Juli Shaw, William Rumminger and Joe Gosling.

Others are Kenneth Mankey, Berit Johanson, Carol Hersherberger, Cathy Carrier, Ruth Worman, Tim Barnes, Ed Perlman, Sandra Berridge and Michele Goldner.

The junior class is planning an all school dance for March 21. The theme "Eternal Spring" will be aided by music by the Amloves, a Junior Achievement band.

Cheerleaders Pat Lack, Kris Potts, Debbie Martin, Barb Calhoun, Barb Deeb and Starr Merrill visited Groves recently for a cheerleading clinic.

BHHS won first place for uniforms and third place for cheering. Deanna M. Maher is the sponsor.

Dinner Honors WTHS Student Ranks High in Annual Math Competition

By MARY BARNINGHAM
David Smith, a senior at Waterford Township High School, was honored at a dinner Saturday for his performance on the Seventh Annual Michigan Mathematics Prize Competition test.

Out of 20,000 students who took the two-part test in December, David ranked among the top 100.

WTHS soloists Linda Davis, Michael Marion and Sherry Zannoth were awarded first place at the annual solo and ensemble festival at Walled Lake High School Saturday.

First place was also awarded the WTHS Camerata, who sang "Co Monde Mal" and "At Midnight."

The students were accompanied by vocal music director Robert Crumpton.

Seniors earning all A's for the third marking period were Sylvia Galloway and Margaret Wilson. Juniors hitting the all A mark were Helen Carrick, April Robinson, Susan Rose and Marc Stretten.

Sophomores in the same category were Joyce Galloway and Janet Pascoe.

"Moon River" was chosen by seniors at WTHS as their class song.

The white rose and lavender with white were chosen as class flower and colors respectively.

"Today we do the difficult; tomorrow we'll do the impossible," is the motto of the senior class.

Pontiac Northern Seniors Elect Officers

By SUSAN KILLEN

Senior class students at Pontiac Northern High School recently elected their senior class officers for this graduating class.

The four finalists were chosen from a list of nominees who were selected by a committee of seniors and their adviser, Vernell Duffy, assistant principal.

The new president of the senior class of 1964 is Terry Chase. Vice president is Jerry Reese and secretary is James Kimmel. Treasurer is Steve Daniels.

BE IN CHARGE

These boys will be in charge of all of the senior activities which will take place throughout the remainder of the school year. This includes the senior trip, prom, baccalaureate, and commencement.

Northern's faculty held a steak dinner this week, to which the entire faculty, secretaries and their guests were invited. The dinner was held in the PNH library and the steaks were cooked by several members of the faculty.

After dinner, the teachers were encouraged to take part in gym activities and other features of the evening.

Three college students have joined the Northern faculty for a ten-week period as student teachers. These students from Oakland University will aid the teacher with whom they are working, and gain needed experience in the classroom.

In the history department, James D. Brucker will be teaching. Mrs. Barbara Ferris is now teaching in the English department as is Michael Garrie.

This week the five panelists were chosen from a group of 15 students, under the direction of Sister Marie Paul, SSJ.

SHOW FINALISTS

Those finalists who volunteered to train for the show are Gregory Magerman, John Wargle, Carol Haddad, Rick Lavoie and James Stickler.

Tomorrow representatives of St. Michael will travel to the high school institute of Roselli, and Margaret Finnigan. George Henretty, David Greenlee, Nancy Rindfuz, Darlene Piche, Leon Halrapetian, and Rick Lavoie participated in a panel discussion on "Are Catholic Schools Turning Out Better Students?" at a recent parent-teacher meeting.

WBHS Stages Laker's Capers

By SUE GOTSHALL

West Bloomfield High School's annual talent show, the "Laker's Capers," was presented to a large audience in the school gym Wednesday.

The show was sponsored by the student council and directed by history instructor David Vivian and student Steve Ali.

It features dance groups, bands, singing groups, skits, pantomimes, baton twirling and interpretive dancing.

School are classes designed the scenery, while student council representatives supplied refreshments for the intermission.

MONTH OF PREPARATION

Students who participated in the show had worked for almost a month on their acts in preparation for the performance.

Ticket sellers, stage hands, program committees, refreshment committees and publicity committees also put in many hours.

West Bloomfield's journalism class produced the first paper of the year Tuesday.

The paper contained cartoons, feature articles, news stories and opinion surveys.

FUTURE COSTS

Profits received from selling the paper will be used to buy journalism supplies and pay for the cost of using photographs in future issues.

A selection of sophomore class rings was on display in the school lobby this week. Sophomores will vote on their choice of rings Tuesday.

Ten foreign exchange students in connection with the West Bloomfield branch of the Ameri-

Romney Asks Unit to Get U. S. Funds

LANSING (U. S. — Gov. George W. Romney wants the legislature to create a commission to decide which higher education activities in Michigan most need federal funds.

Without the commission, the state would not be eligible for the $102 million it should otherwise receive in each of the next three years under a 1963 federal law, Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley said.

A bill is being drafted that would set up a nine-member State Higher Education Facilities Commission, to be appointed with Senate confirmation.

Figures Show Spurt in Nation's Economy

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the $600-billion mark in the final months of the year and appeared to be still rising.

A production increase of 4 percent was above the long-term average and slightly higher than official predictions. With price inflation figured in, the gain was 5.5 percent.

As expected, the economy hit

President Johnson's chief economic adviser, Dr. Walter Heller, predicts that this year the gross national product will climb to $623 billion.

PROFITS INCREASE

There were substantial increases reported in corporate profits in 1963 and both private and government payrolls showed considerable gains. However, the income gains were less pronounced for small businesses and professional men, and farm income skidded to the 1961 level.

All told, the Commerce Department said Thursday that the gross national product, the sum of all goods and services, reached an annual rate of $600.1 billion in the final three months of 1963. For the entire year the

The U.S. Court of Appeals Thursday upheld a district court ruling that the emergency law enacted by Congress ordering the arbitration to head off a nationwide strike last August was constitutional and that the special arbitration panel acted within its legal authority.

The four operating unions have said they would carry their fight to the Supreme Court.

PACKAGE SALE: The Federal Communications Commission has approved the biggest group sale of radio-television stations in history.

In the $38.5-million transaction, three purchasers will take over the 11 stations of the Transcontinent Television Corp.

The Taft Broadcasting Co. paid $26,889,310 for seven stations, figuring each broadcasting facility as one: WGR AM, FM and TV, Buffalo, N.Y.; WNEP-TV, Scranton, Wilkes-Barre, Pa., and WDAF AM, FM and TV, Kansas City, Mo.

Time-Life Broadcasting Co., Inc., paid $1,565,000 for KERO-TV, Bakersfield, Calif., and Midwest Television Inc. acquired three stations for $10,085,000—KFMB AM, FM and TV, San Diego, Calif.

The commission vote was 5 to 1 with Commissioner Robert Bartley dissenting, although he issued no statement.

MOON CASUALTIES: The odds are that two of the first 30 astronauts may die in the U.S. effort to land a man on the moon, figures Alan B. Shepard Jr., the first American to be rocketed into space and now in training for the lunar flights.

Replying to newsmen's questions at a luncheon Thursday, the Navy commander said the calculation is without statistical basis and merely represents an estimated casualty rate generally accepted by the astronauts to be 8 percent.

A dissenting view came from Dr. Hugh L. Dryden, deputy administrator for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

He said it would be a mistake to estimate a casualty rate and that he hated to see Shepard's comment made public because it "might start a hullabaloo in the press."

but he conceded "There is a risk—you can't avoid a risk."

U.S.-Born Royalty Has Son

CALCUTTA, India (AP)—The American-born maharani of Sikkim introduced her new son today to his father, the Himalayan kingdom's ruling Maharajah Palden Thondup Namgyal. The maharajah arrived from London two hours before his wife, the former Hope Cooke, a New York socialite, gave birth yesterday to the infant, who is third in line for the throne.

Tradition was abandoned at the meeting of father and son. The baby should have been cooked rice with butter. He got water.

The state oracles and head lamas in Sikkim were ordered to select a suitably auspicious name.

Both the child and mother were reported in good condition.

Preceding the boy in line for the throne are the 40-year-old maharajah's two sons by a previous marriage. They are in school in England.

LITTLETON, Colo. (AP)—Lewis McCune walked along a shopping center mall yesterday, throwing a soft drink bottle through each of the 10 plate-glass windows.

McCune, 46, was still there when sheriff's officers arrested him on a charge of malicious mischief.

"He said he doesn't like shopping centers," one officer said.

THE BARREN FIG TREE

After leaving Bethany, Jesus became hungry. Seeing a fig tree, He went to it, found nothing on it but leaves, and cursed the tree, saying, "Let no fruit grow on thee henceforward for ever." (Matthew XXI:19).

The next day, the apostles noticed that the fig tree had withered and died. Amazed, they asked Him how this was possible.

And He answered, "Verily I say unto you, if ye have faith and doubt not, ye shall not only do this which is done to the fig tree, but also if ye shall say unto the mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea: it shall be done." (Matthew XXI:21)

Gambler's Cash Set at $763,223 Total

CHICAGO (AP)—A hoard of a dead policy wheel operator's home has been totaled at $763,223.30 by crews of weary policemen who worked in shifts for nearly 18 hours thumbing through thick stacks of bills.

A high-speed change counter, borrowed from a church, also was pressed into service Thursday to count mounds of coins found in the south side home of 66-year-old Lawrence Wakefield after he suffered a fatal heart attack Wednesday night.

Mrs. Rose Kennedy, 66, who summoned police after Wakefield was stricken, never let the money out of her sight. The woman, who said she had lived with Wakefield for 23 years, jumped into a police car with the hoard when it was removed to the Kensington district police station. She remained during the marathon count.

The sharp eyes of Patrolman William J. Childs were credited with discovery of the hoard. After he and a companion had responded to Mrs. Kennedy's call for help Tuesday morning, when Wakefield fell ill, he spotted a policy slip, a brown paper bag full of currency and quantities of paper coin wrappers.

REPORTS DISCOVERY

He reported this to his superiors who kept the hoard under surveillance for 24 hours and later raided it. The windows of the house were covered with wire mesh and five watchdogs were inside.

When policemen broke open the door to the back bedroom, one of them reported he almost fainted.

"It was everywhere, all over the room—everywhere but on the ceiling," he exclaimed. "The money was scattered all over the place, on the floor, on the bed, in shopping bags, wrapped in rolls or loose."

John Philip Sousa, the bandmaster and composer, wrote about 100 marches.

New Quake Hits Island in Azores

ANGRA DE HEROISMO, Terceira, The Azores (U) — Another mild tremor shook Sao Jorge island in the Azores early today but inflicted no further damage on the earthquake-ravaged island.

The tremor also jarred the neighboring islands of Faial and Terceira, where 1,687 Sao Jorge residents have been given temporary refuge since the quakes began last Saturday.

About 19,000 other residents remained on Sao Jorge, a narrow, 34-mile island in the Azores, 1,000 miles west of Portugal.

A visitor said the quakes had caused deep gashes all over its green landscape. The town of Rosais and Velas were reported almost totally razed.

FOOD SHORTAGE

The remaining islanders were plagued by a shortage of bread and flour, but a ship carrying food was expected to arrive today.

The visitor, Walter de Mendonca, described Velas as a "ghost village." He said half the village's buildings would have to be condemned.

At Rosais, five islanders stubbornly remained behind, he said, though the quakes had destroyed 90 per cent of the town.

Despite the widespread destruction, only one fatality — from a heart attack — has been reported. Gale winds, heavy rain and rough seas have interfered with travel to the island.

Garry Moore Quits All TV Productions

NEW YORK (AP) — Garry Moore, whose Tuesday night television variety show will not be renewed next season, says he's quitting the other two Columbia Broadcasting System shows and may not return to broadcasting.

Moore, after a 30-year career in radio and TV, announced Thursday he will resign as moderator of the TV show "I've Got a Secret" and give up his daytime radio show.

CBS recently had announced it was dropping the variety hour at the end of this season.

Sentence Youth for Tampering With Telephone

TROY, N. Y. (U) — Michael T. Spencer, an outstanding student in electrical engineering, has pleaded guilty to a charge of disorderly conduct stemming from what police said was an attempt to engineer a phony telephone setup.

Police Court Justice Joseph F. Daly said Wednesday Spencer, 19, of Franklin, Mich., a sophomore at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, was sentenced to time already served—two days.

Spencer was charged with obtaining telephone service fraudulently, a misdemeanor, and making connections with telephone wire without lawful authority, a felony.

The youth was arrested Jan. 11. Police said Spencer had rigged a metal box with equipment purchased from the New York Telephone Co. for $200 and could make long-distance calls without paying.

Residents Enjoy Skiing at Mt. Holly

Women's Section

From the top of one of Mt. Holly's slopes the photographer's camera angle makes the ski lodge look close and the hill not so steep. But cameras can be deceiving. Caught just before their descent are Chris Chatfield of Bloomfield Hills and Jim Froberg of Van Ness Drive.

Locating skis can be a bit difficult but Janet DeVlieg of Porters Lane seems to be having no trouble.

Beginning skiers do not need their own skis though, as skis, poles and boots may be rented.

Oh, please hurry! I can't stand this way forever! Michigan State University student Joan Gray of Acorn Drive seems to be having a little trouble holding her pose. The knight in shining armor applying the wax to Joan's skis is University of Michigan student Chuck West of Birmingham.

A day at the slopes can not only be chilling but hard on the feet as well. Warming themselves before the open fire in the lodge are Judy Dunker of Detroit and Bill Atkins of Ortonville.

Leaning on their poles after a fast descent are Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Arnold of South Telegraph Road. After a breathless trip, skiers have time to get their second wind with a chair lift ride back to the top of the slope.

Pretty Chris Collins of Rochester takes advantage of the warm day to watch skiers from the balcony at Mt. Holly. This is a favorite pastime with many skiers after their day on the slopes.

Skiers are noted for stamina. After an afternoon on the slopes, Charles Rogers of Andersonville Road and Bev Ponder of Grosse Pointe, still have enough energy to dance to the juke box at the lodge.

Appetites flourish at a ski lodge. Refreshments from Mt. Holly's cafeteria help ease the hunger for Kate Klarr of Orchard Lane.

"Our concept of forest dates back to Thoreau who in 1864 made scientific studies of what was then termed 'a succession of forest trees.'"

"The inter-relationship between people and forests," he continued, "accounts for the building of cities in the midst of deciduous forests."

Mrs. Frank R. Chapman of Rochester gave the invocation preceding the luncheon served to some 300 WNF&G members representing more than 90 branches.

Mrs. P. J. Ziegelbauer of Franklin handled reservations for the February council meeting, assisted by Mrs. N. A. Thureson, Mrs. Robert Swift and Mrs. Robert Rowse.

Don't Accept Friendship From Married Coworker

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN
DEAR ABBY: I am 24, attractive (I'm told) and work in a large plant. I am supporting a three-year-old son by a former marriage. A man I work with took a liking to me. He is in his late 40's, nothing to look at, but he has been wonderful to me. He paid up most of my bills and gives me cash when I need it. He is married, but his wife treats him rotten. Abby, this man says he thinks of me as his daughter and he wants nothing from me.

My mother has an evil mind. She says it looks "bad" and could lead to his divorce. I need his friendship. How can I get my mother off my back? I have to live with her because she takes care of my child while I work.

MOTHER ON MY BACK
DEAR GIRL: Your mother's judgement is better than yours. You have no business accepting favors from a married man.

There isn't any Santa Claus, and it could be rough sledding on the snow job he's giving you.

For Abby's booklet, "How To Have A Lovely Wedding," send 50 cents to Abby, in care of The Pontiac Press.

New Column Features Education Give 'n Take

By answering your questions about educational problems and trends, this informative column will serve as a vital and important link between school and home. Mrs. Light herself a mother and teacher, says "The understanding of parents is absolutely necessary if schools are to operate effectively." If you'd like practical help in dealing with such problems as too much homework, reading difficulties and low grades, come to read SCHOOL AND YOU each week in this newspaper.

By SUSAN LIGHT

DEAR MRS. LIGHT—Every year our son's school holds a science fair. Each child is required to submit a project. Invariably, fathers end up doing the project. This fair is a competition between parents!

My husband is in advertising and has very little knowledge of science. Our son says if his dad doesn't help with the project, he will get a poor grade. What shall we do?

UNSCIENTIFIC PARENTS
ANSWER—I wish I knew! Our own science fair will be coming up soon. Ideally, parents should only be spectators and students should do the projects. However, even science teachers justify parental help on the grounds that working on a joint enterprise brings father and child closer together.

Unless you want to fight the system, I suggest that you lean heavily on large, attractive posters illustrating some simple experiments your son can do himself.

The Future Scientists of America, National Teachers Assn., 1201 16th St., N. W., Washington 5, D.C., puts out a free pamphlet entitled "If You Want to Do a Science Project," and a 50 cent booklet on "Student Projects." Your librarian can recommend other appropriate source material.

Being in advertising, your husband should be able to compete favorably in putting across your son's material. "Packaging" pays at a science fair as well as in the supermarket.

Mrs. Eva Dyer, former Pontiac resident, returned to Pontiac last weekend to see old friends. When she left early this week she was accompanied by Jane Danton, former school teacher, who is now living with her in their new Seal Beach, Calif. home.

Carli Ellen was born Feb. 11 to Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Booker, North Avery Street. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lewis, also of North Avery Street, are grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Boddy, Kopsen Court, announce the birth of a son, Andrew Paul, on Feb. 7. Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Boddy of Oliver Street are paternal grandparents.

Spread Its Uses

Colored bed sheets make attractive summer bedspreads. Dress them up with an easy to iron on applique.

The Americana refrigerator with its illuminated counter is a new convenience in food preparation. It's practical too because it adds usable counter space. An eye-level fresh food section opens up right above the ready-to-use counter. There's also a big roll-out freezer drawer at the bottom. Now on display at local General Electric dealers.

'Take Her, She's Mine'

The Village Players will present "Take Her, She's Mine" Feb. 28-29 and March 6-7 at the Birmingham Playhouse. Curtain time for the comedy by Phoebe and Henry Ephron will be 9 p.m.

YMCA Sanctions '30 and Up' Club

Pontiac YMCA has recognized the "30 and Up" club as a regular Y activity. All members of the new club must be 30 or over. Thirteen Y's in southeastern Michigan have similar clubs.

The group meets every Friday from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. A special trip to Alpine Ski Lodge is scheduled for Feb. 28.

A Touch of Lemon

A few drops of lemon juice sprinkled on freshly cut fruit keeps the fruit from turning dark. The juice is a mild bleaching agent — it's also effective in keeping white vegetables white.

'America Bluffed Out of Victory'

Ex-U.S. Aide Blasts Foreign Policy

WASHINGTON — Robert Murphy, a former top-ranking American diplomat, has fired a broadside against U.S. East-West policy and contends the United States was bluffed out of Cold War victories in Korea and in the 1948 Berlin blockade.

Murphy, in a book "Diplomat Among Warriors," published today by Doubleday & Co., Inc., argues that the United States is periodically misled by Soviet drives for "peaceful existence" which he sees as only a Kremlin feint to obscure its aggressive threats and pressures.

"Even today," Murphy writes, "there are those in places of influence who have convinced themselves that a cooperative understanding with Moscow and even with Peking can be arranged."

Murphy, who served under three presidents in hot and cold wars, advises a sterner policy line. Recalling that America once preferred fighting pirates to "bribing them," Murphy views such a policy as "preferable to the recent easy procedure of our government in buying off Cubans and Russians."

Murphy's book with its charges of U.S. blunders in dealing with Russia constitutes one of the most sweeping criticisms of U.S. policy in World War II, the Korean War and the Cold War so far made public by a man privy to most of the secret plans and decisions of those fateful years.

Murphy rose to undersecretary of state before his retirement in 1959 and was then the foremost professional diplomat in the State Department.

He is sharply critical of U.S. and British failure to get their rights of access to Berlin through East Germany spelled out in written agreements.

He also argues that when Russians blockaded Berlin in 1948, the United States made a major error in not challenging the Soviet action with force.

LED TO ATTACK

He said failure to call the Russian "bluff" led to the North Korean Communist attack on South Korea in 1950, about a year after the blockade was broken by an airlift.

"I still deeply regret," Murphy writes, "that I was associated with an action which caused Soviet leaders to downgrade United States determination and capability and led, I believe, to the subsequent Communist provocation in Korea."

When the blockade was started, says Murphy, he and the ranking U.S. military commander in Germany, Gen. Lucius D. Clay, proposed that force be used to smash it.

In spite of election year complications, Murphy continues, President Harry S. Truman "was more disposed than his military advisers" to use force. The military argued that U.S. power was inadequate because of the rapid postwar demobilization.

KOREA SETTLEMENT

Murphy also declares his disagreement with a negotiated settlement in Korea.

In the argument back then over whether the U.S. and U.N. forces should seek total victory by carrying the fight into Communist China's home territory, Murphy says he took the view

'30 Marvelous Years'

Interests Bind Hope Marriage

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer
HOLLYWOOD — "The secret of our marriage," cracked Bob Hope, "is that I'm out of town so much. I write such wonderful postcards."

It was a Hope-like reaction to questions about the 30th wedding anniversary that he and Dolores celebrate this week. But he waxed more serious as he contemplated the years.

"They have been 30 marvelous, exciting years," he said. "When I think of the things that have happened to me in those 30 years, it floors me. I have no regrets. I've loved every minute."

MAKING COMEDY

Bob was at work this week, making a story comedy with Eva Marie Saint for his television series. He does not often reminisce, but this time he seemed to enjoy looking back on his courtship and marriage.

"I was in 'Roberta,'" he recalled, "and George Murphy said he wanted me to come over to the Vogue Club and hear a singer named Dolores Reade. So I went there with him and saw this girl, who was a fine singer and good-looking, too."

Bob was much impressed with her, and he enlisted her in his act after he left "Roberta."

"What got me in the marrying mood was when she left me to go to Florida," he said. "Until then I was a confirmed bachelor. I had a Pierce Arrow with chauffeur, an apartment on Central Park West with a butler, and I was really living."

REALLY LONESOME

"But when Dolores went to Florida, I really missed her. I was on the phone to her all the time. When she returned, I proposed to her in the Pierce Arrow, parked in front of the Delmonico Hotel where she lived—I used to give the chauffeur three sleeping pills."

Dolores said yes, and they were married on a quick weekend in Erie, Pa. They kept the marriage secret for three months.

RESUMED CAREER

Dolores continued singing until Bob went to Hollywood to start his movie career. Then she retired to keep the home fires burning for Bob and to rear their four children, all adopted.

Doesn't she get weary of his absence?

Would Put Legislators on State Central Units

LANSING (AP)—Sweeping overhaul of the structure of political parties' state central committees, with stronger roles assumed by elected officials, is proposed in a bill introduced in the legislature.

The bill, sponsored by Rep. Russell Strange, R-Clare, would put legislators for the first time on the state central committee, the policy-making bodies of the parties.

Strange, chairman of the House Elections Committee, drafted the bill after polling GOP officials around the state. It has the support of the Republican Party. Reaction of Democratic Party officials to whom it was explained has been "generally good," according to state chairman Zolton Ferency.

RESHAPE PARTIES
Strange's bill is designed to reshape the party structure to provide for "more cohesive," GOP State Chairman Arthur Elliott Jr. said.

Michigan Republicans have been troubled in recent months by what some describe as "communications problems" between the party organization and its legislators.

At present, the state central committees of the two parties are composed of four persons—two men and two women—from each of the state's 19 congressional districts.

Strange's plan would enable both parties in the legislature to elect one House member and one Senator to their state central committees.

3 FROM DISTRICT
"Other members would include three from each congressional district. National committee-men, national committee-women, congressional district chairmen and county chairmen and vice chairmen from counties over 1 million people would be ex officio members.

In multicounty congressional districts, one county chairman and vice chairman would be named. Nine at-large members chosen by the state chairman also would serve.

U.S. N-Subs to Spain Base

MADRID (AP)—The United States is going to base eight Polaris submarines at the U.S. Spanish naval base at Rota, on Spain's southern Atlantic coast, within easy reach of the Mediterranean.

The submarine tender Proteus is expected to arrive Monday at Rota from Holy Loch, Scotland, only other U.S. Polaris submarine base in Europe, to become mother ship to the new squadron.

The pending assignment of the nuclear submarines to Rota had been an open secret in the area for weeks.

There was no formal announcement in Madrid, but the commander of the Polaris squadron at Holy Loch, Capt. David Bell, confirmed the reports yesterday in disclosing the departure of the Proteus.

USE OF BASE
Naval sources in Rota said the new submarine squadron would use the Spanish base for maintenance and supply visits and for the periodic exchange of crews.

On each exchange the crew relieved is flown to the United States for rest and training.

However, a blemish in these relations is Spain's growing trade with Cuba. On Tuesday, the U.S. State Department said Spain will get no new U.S. aid until it replies to an inquiry on this.

Orthodox Leader to Visit Detroit During U.S. Trip

DETROIT (UPI)—Athenagoras I, ecumenical patriarch of the Eastern Orthodox Church and leader of 350 million members of the religious group, will pay the first visit ever to the United States by a cleric of his rank.

His schedule includes a visit to Detroit in November. Detroit is the seat of the Seventh Diocese.

The patriarch has made only one other trip to the United States, in 1944, when he was archbishop of North and South America.

Science Quiz

By BOB BROWN

PROBLEM: The Spirling Water.

DO THIS: Notice the direction of the spiraling of water as it goes down the drain.

Contrary to the statement sometimes heard that it always whirls clockwise in the Southern Hemisphere and counterclockwise in the Northern Hemisphere, it can be seen to whirl either way.

The turning of the earth on its axis can start the spin in agreement with the superstition, provided there is no motion in the water to begin with.

But a very slight motion in the water can determine which way it will whirl. The vortex seen is due to gyroscopic action in the water.

A new book of these experiments is in bookstores and libraries. Its name is "Science Circus No. 2."

County Seeking Federal Grant

The Oakland County Planning Commission Wednesday agreed to submit a $341,900 grant request to the federal government within the next few days for a Manpower Information and Analysis Center at Oakland University.

The proposed center would be used to improve job training and retraining programs for the unemployed and high school students who might otherwise become drop-outs from school.

The grant money would be used to establish the center and put it into operation as a two-year pilot program.

The first step in establishing the center would require the gathering of information on the unemployed and potential drop-outs in Oakland County.

GIVE TO COMPUTER

The information then could be fed into a computer, which could make a determination as to what sort of remedial training and retraining would be required to meet the needs of a changing job market.

The center also could be used by employers to determine what skilled labor is available among the unemployed.

For instance, if an employer needs tool and die makers, running cards through the computer would show how many unemployed persons have the necessary qualifications.

If the pilot project works, the planning commission hopes to see it expanded to serve Wayne and Macomb counties as well, County Planning Director George Skrubbs said.

CHOSEN AS SITE

Oakland University was chosen as the site for the center because university officials have shown a definite interest in the project and have a computer already available, he said.

The project also has been endorsed by the Southeast Michigan Metropolitan Communities Research Corp. and by the Industrial and Labor Relations Institute operated jointly by the University of Michigan and Wayne State University.

State officials also are considering the project to decide whether the Michigan Department of Economic Expansion should contribute financially over and above the federal grant.

The request for a federal grant will be submitted to the Federal Area Redevelopment Administration.

Skrubbs said he hopes the grant will be approved in time to launch the project by June.

World War I Vets Install New Officers

Martin Koenig, 107 S. Anderson, has been installed commander of Oakland County Baracks 49, Veterans of World War I.

Other officers include Carl Fredrickson, senior vice commander and Clyde Reid, junior vice commander.

Clare Man Is Picked

FINDLAY, Ohio (AP)—Walter Kleiner of Clare, Mich., was named to the Findlay College Board of Trustees at a board meeting Thursday. He was named to a three-year term.

EAGLE SCOUTS — Three members of Troop 5, Congregational Church, have received scouting's highest achievement rank of eagle. They are (from left) Earl Oltesvig, 15, of 17 E. Ann Arbor; Randy Seiss, 16, of 2370 Hillcrest; and Gary Edwards, 13, of 2825 Otsego. Oltesvig and Seiss have been in scouting five years and Edwards two years.

Papers of General Put Up for Auction

ALLEGAN (AP) — Personal papers of Civil War Gen. Benjamin Pritchard, commander of the 4th Michigan Cavalry Volunteers who captured Confederate General Jefferson Davis, go up for public auction March 11 in New York City.

The development was authorized by Dudley Pritchard of Grand Rapids, a descendant. None of the papers had been published previously.

Former City Official Files $85,000 Suit

In 1955, LaRue F. Gullett, then 38 years old, became deputy city treasurer of Pontiac.

In 1958, Gullett was arrested and accused, along with his wife and three others, of operating a $1 - million - a - year bookie ring. He was promptly suspended from his city hall job.

In 1959, the gambling conspiracy charges against him were dismissed and he filed suit to force a hearing on reinstatement as deputy city treasurer.

In 1961, the State Supreme Court turned down his appeal. Wednesday, Gullett of 301 Dick filed another suit in Oakland County Circuit Court.

SUES CITY

This one seeks $85,000 from the city.

Gullett alleges he is owed $33,000 in pay for the time since his suspension.

He also charges there has been a handicap to his earning capacity caused by a record of having been discharged, mental anguish, "great legal fees," and obligations "of an extensive nature" resulting from the city's "breach of contract."

Gullett's suit claims his discharge was invalid because it was not in writing, which he says his contract with the city required. He also claims his firing was "without cause."

The suit says the city further violated the contract by refusing to grant Gullett a grievance hearing, and that his having won the position in a competitive examination constituted an employment contract.

School Violence Move

DETROIT (AP) — In a new move against juvenile violence and extortion, Wayne County Prosecutor Samuel Olsen urged school children Thursday to write him of school incidents. He said their identity would be kept confidential.

City Firemen Promoted

Nine promotions in the Pontiac Fire Department have been announced by Chief James R. White. They become effective Sunday.

Promoted from the rank of lieutenant to captain were: Jack McKenna, 42, of 4060 Woodmont, 17 years service; Homer C. Young, 32, of 169 Wolfe, 21 years service; Leonard D. Worham, 45, of 6499

Wilson, 16 years service; and George D. Burklow, 47, of 2050 Silverhill, 17 years service. Named lieutenants were engineer Robert D. Chastain, 35, of 55 Hamilton, 10 years service; and fire fighter Lawrence E. Lyons, 34, of 207 W. Fairmount, 10 years service.

Three fire fighters were promoted to engineer. They are Bobby Cone, 30, of 988 E. Walton, seven years service; Grant Heffernan, 34, of 609 E. Columbia, eight years service; and Alajezzo Szerenet, 36, of 622 Granada, 13 years service.

The reason for the promotions, said White, is the opening of the new fire station, 55 W. Walton, in the near future.

Solon Rejects Cavanagh Bid

Shuns Invitation to Be Guest of Detroit

LANSING (UP)—A freshman Republican representative from Livonia yesterday rejected an offer by Detroit Mayor Jerome Cavanagh to be a guest of the city for three days.

In a letter to Cavanagh, Rep. Paul M. Chandler said "This is to simply decline the invitation."

Chandler said, "Without straining to oversimplify mathematics, it has occurred to me that if 144 legislators and their wives are housed in a downtown hotel, fed nourishing downtown food, and provided with occasional stimulating refreshment, there will evolve a total bill of $6,000 to $10,000 which must be faced by someone."

"It is improper that a legislator should indulge himself at the expense of Detroit tax money; if that is to be the case."

TWO AREAS
Chandler cited two other areas of special concern to him.

The first was the controversial Detroit city income tax on suburban residents working in the city. Chandler represents a number of these taxpayers.

The second area of concern he listed "is a prevalent theory shared by too many people, that the route to having a favorable law written is to provide an underpaid and insecure law-maker with attractive creature comforts."

Chandler said he believed the law was "overstressed" but if the hospitality is to win "the votes of our rural and outstate legislators who do not now and never will have to pay the city income tax—to be combined with those of the Detroit delegation, then as a suburban representative I must complain in every possible way."

Chandler said if the suburban tax dollars are used for the "hospitality" then he foresees it as having been put in the position "of providing the knife for his own throat-cutting."

Boy Killed by Truck

DETROIT (AP)—Kevin Trough, 4, was killed Thursday when struck by a truck near his home.

Junior Editors Quiz on BIRDS

QUESTION: How can I tell sandpipers from other birds?
ANSWER: With certain exceptions, sandpipers are found near water, running energetically over beaches and mud flats, probing for or picking up small creatures with their long, slender bills.

You might confuse them with plovers, which are also found in the same locality; but, as our picture shows, plovers are stockier birds, with shorter legs and bills.

Sandpipers belong to the order of shore birds whose scientific name is "Limicolae"—they are the family "Scolopacidae." Some have oddly shaped bills, such as that of the Avocet which turns up, and that of the Woodcock, which turns down at the tip.

This last bird lives in the woods and yet actually belongs to the sandpiper family. The main characteristics which identify sandpipers are that they are slender, active shore birds with long legs and bill.

Some species have a habit of teetering nervously up and down. These birds eat a large number of insects harmful to man, and so are protected by law from hunters.

Almost all nest on the ground, averaging 4 eggs. The little sandpipers mature very rapidly once they are hatched, shifting for themselves almost at once.

FOR YOU TO DO: Now is an excellent time to start with the fascinating hobby of bird study, as birds are easier to find before the leaves come. When you see them, make notes of size, color, shape of bill and legs, and check later with a bird book.

Latin Chief Mediating Canal Rift

SAN JOSE, Costa Rica (AP)—Costa Rica's President Francisco J. Orlich is trying to mediate the dispute over the Panama Canal Zone, but neither the United States nor Panama appears to expect much from his intervention.

Orlich offered his good offices at a secretly scheduled 90-minute meeting with Panama's President Roberto Chiari at the border village of Paso de Canoas Thursday. Later, Orlich said the United States and Panama had accepted his offer in principle.

In Washington, the State Department said the United States appreciated the Costa Rican's friendly interest but added: "There has been no agreement as to mediation as far as we are concerned."

NO CONCESSIONS

A five-nation Organization of American States committee returned to Washington from Panama Tuesday after failing to win concessions from either side. Panama still insists on a U.S. commitment to rewrite the 1903 canal treaty, while the United States wants restoration of diplomatic relations before it discusses Panamanian complaints.

In Panama, Foreign Minister Galileo Solis said Orlich's offer was being weighed and that no formal reply had been given.

One of the earliest women's clubs was the Sorosis of New York City formed in 1866.

Quits 'Under Pressure' suburb because of "political pressures and interference" was submitted by letter Thursday to City Manager John H. Kennehan and the City Commission.

Mild Winter Saves Road Money

By DICK HANSON

County and state road officials are looking anxiously out their windows these days.

If the weather doesn't take a turn for the worse, they hope to save a lot of taxpayers' money by spring.

The State Highway Department reported that it might save up to $1 million this year on winter maintenance throughout Michigan.

That's how much has been saved so far this winter which has been one of the mildest in recent years.

The County Road Commission said its savings could amount to $30,000 over last winter.

"This savings could be wiped out between now and the end of March, but we are keeping our fingers crossed that March will be no worse than it normally is," said State Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie.

County Road Commissioner Sol Lomerson said he would keep his toes crossed, too, if he thought it would help. He admitted that Michigan weather can be mighty unpredictable.

A major cost item each year is for salt to melt ice and snow on roads.

UP UNTIL NOW

"So far this winter we have spent $30,000 for 3,810 tons of salt," said Lomerson. "Last winter at this time we'd already spent $37,600 for 7,210 tons."

He remembered last winter as exceptionally bad. "Compared with an average winter here, we are saving about $16,000 on salt," he said.

The general savings over an average year is running about $30,000, Lomerson added.

Salt usage by the State Highway Department throughout Michigan is down an estimated 35,000 tons compared to last winter.

LESS TONNAGE

The state said it also has used about 700 tons less of calcium chloride to keep highways clear of ice and snow.

The state's combined savings in chemicals was estimated at $400,000.

The county doesn't use much calcium chloride, and is saving about $5,000 over last winter, according to the road commissioner.

Another big cost factor down considerably for both departments is in overtime paid for ice and snow removal.

OVERTIME SAVINGS
The state estimated its overtime savings at $600,000 and the county at $30,000.

Even during regular hours, both departments reported their maintenance crews are getting a head start on normal spring-time chores.

The men already are working on tree trimming, brush clearing, and cleaning out ditches and culverts.

As Top Contract Goal

Ford Local Wants Earlier Retirement

DETROIT (AP) — Earlier retirement is the overwhelming first choice of Ford Local 600 members for United Auto Workers contract goals in this year's negotiations, UAW's largest local reported Thursday from a poll.

A pay increase got small support, ranking 15th in a list of 16 items suggested as contract goals, the report said. Profit-sharing was 13th.

Carl Stellato, Local 600 president, said the local will ask the international union to make earlier retirement its No. 1 goal in view of the poll results.

The UAW and the auto companies negotiate new contracts.

Marine DI Dies Saving Trainees

CAMP PENDLETON, Calif. A veteran instructor gave his life to save trainees when one of the youths activated a hand grenade.

Killed yesterday was Staff Sgt. Bobby Gene Callison, 34, of nearby Vista. Two of the trainees were wounded.

Investigators said Callison's action undoubtedly saved several other Marines from being killed. They gave this account: Pvt. James M. Cromer, 17, of Indianapolis, Ind., had pulled the pin from a powerful M26 grenade and was preparing to hurl it from the pit where he, Sgt. Callison and other trainees were working.

But Cromer accidentally dropped the detonating lever that is supposed to fall free only when the grenade is thrown. The youth then appeared to freeze.

FUSE BURNED
Callison, noticing his plight, grabbed the grenade and hurled it out of the pit. But too much of the 4½-second time margin had elapsed.

The grenade exploded at a height of about 10 feet. Fragments of its steel case showed down on Callison, Cromer and Pvt. William A. Quaring, 17, of Spokane, Wash.

Callison died almost instantly. Cromer was taken to Naval Hospital in San Diego with multiple abdominal wounds. His condition was listed as serious. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Cromer of Indianapolis. Quaring sustained a neck wound. He was under treatment at Camp Pendleton hospital. Attendants said his condition was good.

this summer covering half a million workers. Present three-year contracts now are expiring.

TOP CHOICE

Stellato said the Local 600 poll was taken among 34,518 active and retired members and that 13,395 made earlier retirement their top choice. The local has about 30,000 active members.

Fully paid hospital and medical insurance and cost of living increases for pensioned workers, bracketed together, were the second choice.

Added premium pay for a seventh work day within one week and a reduced work week (30 hours at 40 hours pay) were third and fourth choices, respectively.

Representatives of several UAW locals, including Local 600, are supporting a so-called "25-30-60 Now" retirement program as a contract goal.

PLAN OUTLINED

This calls for a choice of retirement after 25 years service at half pay, 30 years at two-thirds pay, or retirement at age 60 at double the present pension benefit of $2.80 a month for each year of service.

Normal retirement now is at age 65. A worker may retire at 60 but at reduced benefits.

Stellato said the low choice given a pay raise was a surprise. A pay increase received 183 votes. Profit sharing got 270. "I think the workers regard such things as early retirement and fully paid hospital and medical costs as the kind of profit-sharing that will do them the most good," he said.

The UAW will set up its contract goals at a union convention in Atlantic City, N. J., in March.

Choices listed after the first four included survivor benefits for deceased employees, longer vacations, paid sick days and various job security and working conditions proposals.

WAIVER IS FOR THE BIRDS—Baseball's controversial author, pitcher Jim Brosnan of the Chicago White Sox, gives attention to the family parakeet with his wife, Anne, in their Chicago home. Brosnan was placed on waivers yesterday because of his refusal to sign a contract forbidding him to write for publication during the 1964 season.

Brosnan Value $1 to Chisox

By The Associated Press
Jim Brosnan right now is worth about the price of his two books—in paperback editions. The 34-year-old right-handed pitcher and author of some note was put up for sale Thursday by the Chicago White Sox for $1. It was understood that the deal is contingent upon the Northwest Catholic League teams will attempt to stay sharp for the post-season district basketball tournaments with contests tonight around Pontiac. St. Michael will meet Central Line St. Clement in a game at Pontiac Central, the same gym in which the Shamrocks will play their district Class C games.

St. Frederick, also slated for that PCH district, has a return engagement on the Emmanuel Christmas court.

Another Class C district tourney participant at PCH, Waterford Our Lady of Lokes, will entertain Orchard Lake St. Mary. The latter is scheduled for the Class B playoffs at PCH.

The St. Mike-St. Clement meeting will be the first this season between the two quintets. The Shamrocks have a 10-4 season record and a three-game winning streak.

MET BEFORE

St. Fred is 7-7 overall and defeated Emmanuel, 54-51, in overtime as Lowrey Holland outdoubled the county's leading scorer, Ralph Wingate, 27-34, in the season opener.

The Lancers have only a 4-9 mark on the season, although Wingate is averaging better than 24 points per game. They will play in the Class D district tournament at Rochester.

Orchard Lake St. Mary took 15 and 9-point verdicts from Waterford Our Lady during the parochial league race, and will be favored to push its winning streak to six.

The Lakers are burdened with a 1-13 log and a six-game losing streak. Their offensive fireworks have been generated mostly by Bill Brandt, who is hitting at an 18 pp. clip. All of the teams will conclude their regular schedule next week.

Southwest 5 Wins Easily

Southwest Community Club tossed in 46 points in each half last night in scoring an easy 92-44 decision over 300 Lounge. Roger Nosek led the winners with 23 markers. Chuck Johnson tossed in 14 for 300 Bowl.

In other games, Cor's Fuel Oil dined the Batchelor's Club, 99-85. Wilson's turned back Town & Country, 53-39, and Becker's was awarded a forfeit decision when Pontiac Playhouse showed up with only four players.

Club Owners Are Pondering Finley's Fate

KC Executive Faces Possible Expulsion From League

BOSTON (AP)—Fellow club owners confronted Athletics, boss Charles O. Finley today in an American League summit meeting designed to settle his stalemate with Kansas City officials over a Municipal Stadium lease—or else.

League President Joe Cronin already has made it plain the alternative may be the expulsion of Finley.

The principals, armed with legal advisers, weren't talking much prior to the closed-door session.

GIVEN ADVICE

But a source close to Louis Nizer, Finley's lawyer, revealed Nizer has advised Finley to:

1. Go ahead and sign a three-year lease under league pressure, then.
2. Enter a law suit against the league for forcing him into a lease he did not wish.

Cronin ordered the meeting after two deadlines set for Finley came and went without the lease impasse being resolved.

NOT HELPFUL

Yet, a fighter practices in sparring sessions the things he hopes to do in the actual fight. Getting clipped on the chin by thumping left hooks certainly can't be too helpful.

FINLEY CAMP

The Finley camp is firmly convinced the league has no grounds to disenfranchise him. Cronin admits "Finley has threatened litigation from the start" if such a move is made.

EARLIER THIS WEEK

Cronin also told a Senate subcommittee the league has power to do so. When he ordered this meeting, Cronin advised that if a settlement was not made, the league is prepared to hold another meeting which will "consider the termination of membership in the league of Charles O. Finley and Co., Inc."

TWO OR NOTHING

Kansas City officials, represented by Mayor Julius Davis and City Counsel Harbert Hoffman, sat in on the meeting at Cronin's invitation. They had maintained the Municipal Stadium lease must be for four years. Finley has not waived from his two-years-or-nothing stand.

Just before the extension deadline ran out last Saturday midnight, there was word the city was willing to compromise with a three-year lease, but Finley denied a concrete offer had been made.

College Scoring Leaders to Duel in Tilt Saturday

NEW YORK (AP)—The nation's leading major college scorers—Howard (Butch) Komives and Manny Newsome—will meet head-on Saturday.

Newsome will lead Western Michigan against Komives in Bowling Green in a Mid-American Conference basketball game at Kalamazoo, Mich.

The latest weekly statistics released Thursday by the NCAA Service Bureau have Komives on top with a 35.5 average on 604 points in 17 games. Newsome had 33.2 on 564 in 17 games.

Tulane Loses 20 Straight

By The Associated Press
It's been a happy season in college basketball for Drake's "Destiny Darlings." In contrast it's been dark and dismal for the Green Wave of Tulane.

Whereas Drake is close to winning the championship of the Missouri Valley Conference after finishing last in 1963, Tulane is the only winless major team in the country.

The Greenies from New Orleans have lost 20 straight and figure to take it on the chin again tonight when they play Mississippi at Oxford.

Cassius Unimpressive in Two-Round Workout

By MURRAY ROSE

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Cassius Clay probably will hold his last boxing drill today in preparation for his title fight with heavyweight champion Sonny Liston Tuesday. For the sake of the promotion it would just as well if he does make it the last.

The cocky challenger from Louisville looked like a bush leaguer in a two-round session with Cody Jones of Detroit Thursday. Some veteran boxing observers, who had seen him spar earlier in the week, said Cassius looked just as poorly several other times.

Still, a workout is not a fight. The fighters wear head guards and use 16-ounce gloves instead of the eight-ounce used in the fight. With this protection, fighters sometimes get careless and that may have happened with Clay.

NOT HELPFUL

Even light heavyweight champion Willie Pastrano concedes this and Willie is one of the few in the business picking Clay to win.

Pastrano, working in the same gym with Clay, said "Cassius has the speed, size, power and youth to win. He'll have to keep moving and not let up for a moment. You can't get careless with Liston."

CASSIUS WILL HAVE TO GO

"Cassius will have to go the full 15 rounds to win. That's the way I see it. The only way anyone can knock out Liston is with a baseball bat."

Pastrano is managed by Angelo Dundee, who also trains Clay. That relationship may tend to influence Willie's prediction. Pastrano is getting ready for his title defense against Argentina's Gregorio Peralta in New Orleans, April 10.

TAKE LUMPS

Against Jones, a 6-foot-1, 210-pounder, which about matches him in size and weight with Liston, Clay was nailed repeatedly by left hooks to the jaw. Jones, an unusually aggressive sparmate, also belted Clay with hard smashes to the body.

One hard left hook to Clay's jaw brought a collective "ooh" from the crowd of about 150 who jammed around the ring of the Fifth Avenue gym.

Clay, winner of all 19 of his pro fights, went two rounds first with Dave Bailey, a 6-foot, 215-pounder from Philadelphia, and then two more with Cody Jones.

Surly Sonny in Top Fighting Mood

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—If a surly disposition is any criterion, the champion Sonny Liston is in the proper fighting frame of mind for his title defense Tuesday night against popoff Cassius Clay.

He is snapping at newsmen. He is refusing to pose for photographers. Derision has been replaced by downright contempt in his treatment of his opponent.

Sponsors of the Convention Hall fight, which has been counted on to draw $800,000 at the gate and perhaps $4 million more in closed circuit television are openly disturbed.

NEW RECORDS

"Liston is acting so nasty that he is alienating the newspaper and radio people who could do us the most good," one man said. "He is setting new records on how to lose friends and alienate people. Tickets aren't going well at all."

The unsmiling ring killer hit his new low for public relations after his hour's bag-punching, rope-skipping, push-up drill in the carnival atmosphere of the Surfside Civic Center Thursday.

He refused to pose for a picture with Joe Louis, his close friend and adviser, except in the special sideshow deal at $5 a throw.

He rebuked sports writers with the biting criticism: "You don't know what you're writing."

He engaged in a stormy exchange with a prominent West Coast columnist because the latter said he felt Clay would prove a better opponent than Floyd Patterson, whom Liston knocked out twice in the first round.

"You think so?" Liston growled. "Okay, you got a right to your opinion."

He resented references of newsmen to Clay's speed. "Who says Clay is fast?" Liston said. "He only talks fast."

Concerning his challenger's talent, he remarked caustically: "He's got talent maybe, but in the wrong racket."

Liston's workouts are staged in a newly-built center, with pastel blue walls, where normally elderly ladies paint pictures and do ceramics. They sell hotdogs and soda pop in the back and hawk pictures of the champ with the customers up front.

After his brief workout—he has quit boxing—Sonny had his arm pricked for a blood test and yelled: "Holy mackerel—that hurt."

Clay continued to hold sparring sessions and said he probably would do so both today and Saturday.

And he continued to radiate confidence, although he took a pasting Thursday from one of his sparmates, Cody Jones.

Cassius, a 6-3, 215-pounder, has never shown much aptitude at fighting at close range or holding on to an opponent. Usually he didn't have to do much holding. But Liston is noted for his strength and power at close quarters.

The odds in a very tight betting market still favored Liston at about 7 to 1. Liston has finished his boxing sessions. He is tapering off with gym exercises.

All are afternoon games with the Buckeye Wildcat engagement being regionally televised.

Purdue (4-4) is at Indiana (2-7) for another afternoon contest. The only night game sends Michigan State (5-6) to Iowa (2-6).

RECORD PACE

In 46 conference games thus far, home teams have won 35. In the 46 games, teams are shooting at a record field goal pace of .428, compared to .421 in 1963, and are averaging a record 84.8 points a game, 4.9 better than the 1962 record year.

With 6-foot-8 Jim Pitts sidelined with a leg injury, Northwestern will have a job trying to check Ohio State's Gary Bradds, whose 40-plus scoring streak snapped at six games Monday. The Bucks defeated Iowa 99-82, but the Hawkeyes held Bradds to 30 points.

Bradds continues his record runaway for scoring honors with a 38.2 average. Sophomores Dave Schellhase of Purdue and Cazzie Russell of Michigan are next with 28.6 and 25.8.

They are followed by Rick Lupton, Michigan, 25.1; Bill Bonas, Northwestern, 24.0; Dick Vanarsdale, Indiana, 22.1; Tom Vanarsdale, Indiana, 21.2; Tal Brody, Illinois, 21.0; Lou Hudson, Minnesota, 20.2, and Pete Gent, MSU, 18.2.

'M' Pair Among Top Point Makers

CHICAGO (AP)—Michigan's Cazzie Russell and Bill Buntin rank third and fourth respectively in the Big Ten individual basketball scoring race.

Ohio State's hot-handed Gary Bradds is way out in front with 382 points in 10 games for a 38.2 average. Bradds also leads in field goal and free throw accuracy with percentages of .581 and .887.

Right behind Bradds is Purdue sophomore Dave Schellhase with a 28.6 average. Russell and Buntin carry 25.8 and 25.1 averages. Michigan State's Pete Gent is in 10th place with an 18.2 average.

Avondale and Clawson are in position to help settle the championship. Both clubs will play the co-leaders.

Avondale will host Fitzgerald and Troy is at Clawson. The visitors are favored, but a defeat for either would just about clinch the title for the other squad now on top.

Couino plays at Madison in the other league game.

'500' Race Sunday

Daytona Spots Open

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Paul Goldsmith and Richard Petty were going along for the ride today as 44 other drivers were trying to win starting positions in Sunday's Daytona 500 stock car race.

Goldsmith, now racing out of Mexico City, and Petty, of Randleman, N.C., were to start on the poles in the two 100-mile Grand National races at the Daytona International Speedway today.

Each is also assured of a front row spot in the 500 Sunday since they were the victors in 50-mile qualifying races last Feb. 8. Each will be driving a 1964 Plymouth.

The 14 top finishers in each of today's races—the first one scheduled to start at 1 p.m., EST—will move into Sunday's field. The remaining entrants will be selected after a special 50-mile race Saturday.

TOP SPEED

Goldsmith holds the top qualifying speed among drivers in today's races. He averaged 174.910 miles per hour for two laps of the 2.5 mile Daytona track.

Petty was right behind with 174.418.

Buck Baker of Charlotte, N.C. was timed at an average of 173.711 m.p.h. in another 1964 Plymouth Thursday afternoon to pace the qualifiers who did not win positions in the Feb. 8 races.

The top 16 finishers in the race two weeks ago were assured starting positions in the 100 miles today.

A total of 39 cars went under the timer's watch, while seven others did not qualify but will start in the rear of the two 25-car fields in today's races.

Junior Johnson, North Wilkesboro, N.C., sped his 1959 Chevrolet around the course at an average of 165.822 m.p.h. to pace the drivers who were trying to qualify for Saturday's 250-mile championship modified and sportsman race.

Glenn (Fireball) Roberts of Daytona Beach, Fla., will hold the pole position in that one, having been timed with a record-setting 170.740 average Wednesday in a 1961 Ford.

Fifty cars will start in Saturday's race. Most of the qualifiers were determined by their qualifying speeds this week.

PTTA in Tie for Loop Lead

The lead in the Pontiac Table Tennis League remained in a deadlock last night as the two front runners scored victories.

Anita Lettnering, trimmed Pepsi Cola, 4-2, and Dorris & Son Really edged A&W Root Beer by the same score. Anita and Dorris are 76-32 in the league standings.

In other matches, Francis Fuel split with Country Kitchen, 4-2, Pine Knob downed Clark's Drive-In, 4-2; Frostop Drive-In clipped Club 99, 4-2; Crocker Candy downed Buettner's Cleaners, 5-1; and Kennerly's Service split with Harvey's Colonial House, 3-3.

Roy Emerson Loses to Californian

SALISBURY, Md. (AP)—A 22-year-old junior from the University of California upset top-seeded Roy Emerson of Australia 6-4, 6-8, 6-3 in the second round of the 61st annual National Indoor Tennis Championships Thursday night.

Tom Edelston, from Berkeley, Calif., came within a whisker of taking the victory in two straight matches from Emerson, considered the world's best amateur player.

The service and ground strokes of the rangy Californian brought him victory in the first set and he was as close as 5-4, 30-30 to a straight-set triumph. Emerson was able to stand him off, however, and went on to win the set.

NO TROUBLE

Chuck McKinley, seeded No. 1 in the U.S. rankings, had only slight difficulty in dealing with Antonio Palatof of Mexico, defeating the Wimbledon doubles champion, 7-5, 6-7 before a crowd of 2,000 at the Wicomico Civic Center.

Dennis Ralston, the No. 2 domestic seed and McKinley's Davis Cup teammate, disposed of his opponent, Jose Arilla of Spain, 11-9, 6-4.

Ex-Troy Cager Ranks

Alma's Bud Acton is the 10th ranking small college scorer in the nation according to the latest statistics, released by the NCAA.

Acton, former Troy High star, is averaging 28.9 points for 16 games.

The highest average among all women bowlers during the 1962-63 season was the 202 maintained by Evelyn Venstra of Paterson, N.J.

Pistons Bow Out of Race in Style

DETROIT (AP)—No matter what else the Detroit Pistons may be, they're not pikers.

The local entry mathematically bowed out of the National Basketball Association's Western Division race in record style Thursday night before a national television audience.

The score: Los Angeles Lakers 106, Detroit 101.

The record: Defeat No. 47, an all-time club record.

The method: Blowing a seven-point lead in the last five minutes.

The Pistons failed to make the NBA playoffs for the first time in history.

SCORING SKEE

The Lakers scored to a 14-2 scoring edge in the last five minutes. Two baskets by Willie Jones and a three-point play by Bailey Howell had Detroit a seven-point lead until the Lakers' Barnett caught fire. He scored five points in the surge, and ended up with 25 points.

Meanwhile, Boston pulled three games ahead of Cincinnati in the Eastern Division race by

BOWLING

The 3200 team effort by Pontiac Window Cleaning last week cost 300 Bowl eight points and undisputed possession of first place in the Huron Bowl Classic.

Bob Murphy (247-652), and Don Myers (640) led the team assault. Ron Rothbarth's 238-655 helped Calbi Music to tie the leaders with a four-point pickup.

Myers had a 277-211-656 night Monday in the West Side Classic, teaming with John Casper (267-202-670) for individual honors in the West Side Lanes League.

The "300" team maintained its lead there.

Wonderland Lanes' Masters League that same night was paced by Joe Slanga's 224-233-655. Lead Lewandowski had 626 and Len Drake 221.

At Collier Lanes Monday night in the House League Western Auto built its lead to nine points by virtue of an eight-point win led by Jay Isles' 212-620 two-some.

Leading the individual efforts were the 243-658 and 256-643 totals, respectively, of Stan Ganfield and Bob Woolcox.

Phyllis Strickland continued her record setting in the Lake-Wood Lanes Saturday Night Mixed League with 223-232-604 last week.

Bowling for the COPS team, Mrs. Strickland now has the top series and top game (234) among the league women. Bill Bull's 257 and 657 are best among the men.

There was a Century Club performance in the Dublin Community Center League at Cooley Lanes Sunday. Ray Ballard had a 246 game, 105 pins over his average.

61st ABC Tourney Starts Saturday

Chances Slim for 300 Game

20,000 Bowlers Set for 65-Day Event

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP)—The odds against a bowler shooting a perfect game in the 61st American Bowling Congress tournament which opens here Saturday are 372,655 to one.

In 6,324,939 games starting with the first ABC in 1901, 17 men have shot 300. The last made to roll 12 consecutive strikes was Corky DeGraff of Grand Rapids, Mich., in 1961 at Detroit.

More than 20,000 bowlers from 45 states will attempt to break the 300 drought, as well as battle for a share of the $330,262 prize fund.

The ABC ranks also as one of the longest sports events on record. It lasts until April 26, through 65 straight days of morning- to mid-morning bowling. The 3,791 teams will be divided into three divisions—booster, regular and classic.

Seaholm Bid in EML Has Rough Road

Birmingham Seaholm will travel a rocky road during the next week in its bid for a share of the Eastern Michigan League basketball title.

The Maples (9-3) are deadlocked with Ferndale (9-3) for the top spot in the loop, and the schedule favors the Eagles since they will play the fifth and last place teams in the league in their final outings.

Seaholm will try to remove the first obstacle in its title path tonight, entertaining the Royal Oak Kimball (7-5) squad that dumped the Maples in an earlier meeting.

Other games on the EML slate have Hazel Park at Ferndale, Mt. Clemens at Port Huron and Roseville at East Detroit.

RIDE HIGH

The Maples are riding the crest of a six-game winning streak, and a victory tonight would leave only East Detroit blocking their way to a piece of the EML crown.

The much-improved East Detroit (5-4) should have little trouble, with Roseville (5-10) and could gain a tie for first if both Ferndale and Seaholm falter.

Ferndale is a heavy favorite to hand Hazel Park (6-6) its seventh loop loss. The Eagles close the season against Port Huron (1-11) next Friday.

SEASON FINALE

Birmingham Groves (4-9) will close the season tonight, playing host to Livonia Franklin (1-13) a Northwest Suburban League game.

League-leading Detroit Thurston has a road assignment at Oak Park, and North Farmington will invade Farmington for a Saturday night scrap.

Upsets Mark Play in Boys' Leagues

Upsets were the order of the day in Waterford Township Recreation's latest boys' basketball action.

In the grade-school league, fifth-grader Bill Ziern converted for eight of 11 free throws and added four baskets for 18 points as Paul's Barber Shop upset Huntoon Lakers, 22-20.

Captain Dave Haddix scored the clinching basket with 10 seconds left as the Pierce Pistons handed the Craney Rejects their first defeat in the junior high league, 11-4.

In the ninth-grade league, the Rams surprised the Moles, 33-31, ending the losers' hopes of an unbeaten record and enabling the Chiefs to tie the Moles for first place entering the playoffs.

St. John Holds Lead in New Orleans Meet

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Jim St. John who opened with a perfect 300 game and never lost touch led 16 bowlers into the semifinals of the $27,600 New Orleans Open Tournament Thursday night.

St. John of San Jose, Calif., logged 5,334 points for his 24 games in the qualifying rounds. The four-man final is Saturday.

The 16 included the oldest man among the 129 starters 56-year-old Francis of Detroit and the youngest 17-year-old Bobby Jacks of New Orleans. Fazio had 4,992 and Jacks 4,969.

One of the 16 couldn't continue play. Jack Biandolillo of Houston who fired a 5,018 round up qualifying with raw fingers and a physician ordered him out of the alleys for two weeks.

Monroe Moore of Pontiac, who was tied for 15th place after six games, dropped down to 31st place yesterday after posting blocks of 1198 and 1207 for a 4,888 pin total.

Moore's best game was a 230 in the second block, however he could not overcome the 166 pin start.

Windsor Skaters Whip Port Huron Six, 5-3

WINDSOR, Ont. (AP)—The Windsor Bulldogs splurged for four goals in a nine-minute span of the second period Thursday night and scored a 5-3 International Hockey League victory over Port Huron.

With the victory, Windsor moved five points ahead of Muskegon in the battle for the last playoff spot. It also pulled within five points of third-place Port Huron.

Guy Trotter had two goals and Ken Gribbons one for the flags.

Leading Money Winner

Strampe in Pontiac PBA

The top ten professional bowlers in the country, in prize winnings led by Detroit's B. B. Strampe, who has won $16,600, will be here in Pontiac when the North American PBA Open begins March 24th at 300 Bowl.

Strampe took third place in the Mobile PBA Open last week and could pad his earnings in New Orleans this week.

Former Pontiac PBA Open champion, Bill Allen, 1963 winner, started to make his move into the top 10 by winning the Mobile tournament and $4,000 first place.

He defeated Jerry McCoy in the nationally televised championship. Another former Pontiac PBA champion, Carmen Salvino, winner in 1962, was in fifth place in money earnings with $3,245.

LARGEST PURSE

The PBA bowlers will compete for the largest purse on the PBA tour this year in Pontiac ships, the three-mile run and the 600-yard relay may get the spotlight Saturday in Madison Square Garden.

In the hurdles, Detroit's Hayes Jones is a heavy favorite to extend his unbeaten string that covers five seasons.

John Camien, Emporia, Kan., State, is the latest casualty in the mile. He withdrew Thursday night on doctor's orders. His doctor said Camien was suffering from a bronchitis infection and should stay out of competition at least two weeks.

Camien, who has gone 4:00.5 and won the Mason-Dixon mile in Louisville last week in 4:01.6, was rated the class of the field after Bill Beatty of Los Angeles pulled out because of a recurring foot injury. Chicago's Loyola's Tom O'Hara, who set a record 3:56.6 last week, is taking the week off to rest.

So Camien's loss leaves the mile to the also-rans and focuses attention on the 600 and the efforts of teen-ager Gerry Lindgren against an international field in the three-mile run.

Lindgren is a 17-year-old, 115-pound high school student from Spokane, Wash., who has burst on the scene as the toast of the West Coast after brilliant two-

Local Entries Lead in Elks

National Ladies Meet Ends This Weekend

The seventh annual Elks 810 Ladies National Invitational Bowling Tournament will conclude this weekend at the Orchard Lake Ave. Temple with Pontiac entries in a good position.

The local entries made good use of their chance last week by taking over the lead in several events, giving the local organization an excellent opportunity for a late one champion.

Foremost among the Pontiac bowlers was the Imperial Beauty Salon which took over first place in the team handicap event with 2336, and also grabbed the high team game lead at 1669.

Virginia Miller of Pontiac retained her lead in the actual all events with 1570; and Pontiac's Eva Chakroff hit 1870 to take the handicap all events lead.

Wanda Seidel and Wanda Miller of Pontiac retained their high doubles game leading handicap total.

There were no changes in the singles leaders.

In a second game, Wardrobe Cleaners was eliminated from the tourney when the squad forfeited to Bill's Towing.

Pontiac Traveling Classic League bowlers will have a break this weekend after concluding their February schedule with six matches last Sunday.

Airway Lanes climbed even with league-leading 300 Bowl in the victory column with an 11-4 verdict over Fairgrounds Bowl in the feature match.

Wonderland Lanes split a pair of decisions, losing to Sylvan Lanes, 17-3, and ripping Primrose Lanes, 21-0, in a make-up match.

Other scores found HURON Bowl bombing host Howe's Lanes, 15-5, Cooley Lanes nipped Montclair Bowling Center, 10-9, in a squeaker, and West Side handed Primrose a 14-6 drubbing.

Barnum, 52, shot a one-over par 73, but the 51-year-old Snead dashed away from the field with a five-under 67 for the first round leadership Thursday.

Herman Barron, who won last year with Barnum as runner-up, also shot 73.

Snead Takes Lead in Seniors' Tourney

PALM BEACH GARDENS, Fla. (AP)—Because of Sam Snead's brilliance, veteran John Barnum has little chance now for the PGA Senior championship.

PCH Matmen in SVC Tourney

A strong Pontiac Central wrestling team, its power hidden in a somewhat mediocre 6-5-1 season mark, is expected to give two Flint units a battle for the Saginaw Valley Conference championship Saturday on the Chiefs' mat.

The Chiefs have lost several close decisions in dual meet competition, including a 20-21 setback to Inter-Lakes champion Pontiac Northern, but the squad has enough individual talent to lift the SVC crown from Flint Northern.

Joining Flint Northern and PCH for the SVC tournament will be Flint Central, Flint Northwestern, Saginaw and Saginaw Arthur Hill.

A second mat tourney on the Saturday schedule will find the Northwest Suburban League squads battling for loop honors at Detroit Thurston.

Preliminary bouts will get underway at 1 p.m. at PCH. Con-solutions will start at 7:30 p.m. and finals at 8 p.m.

The Chiefs' hopes will ride with four performers who have graphed their way undefeated through SVC competition this season.

The four are co-captains

Harold Whiting (138) and Bill Roach (112) along with John Calo (133) and Dan Rodriguez (145).

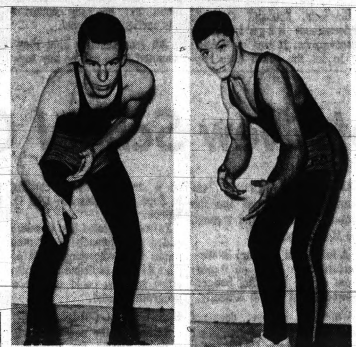

STRONG PAIR

Flint Central (9-2) has strong performers in Bill Viverette (127) and Curtis Flynn (120). Standouts for Flint Northern are Mike Hill (95), Linn Schram (103) and Tom Pierson, heavyweight.

Detroit Thurston and Livonia Franklin are expected to stage a two-way battle for the championship in the Northwest Suburban loop.

Preliminaries will open at Thurston at 1 p.m. Consolations start at 5 p.m. with finals set for 7:30.

Cranes Win
Puck Series

Chip Brethen's goal with 315 minutes remaining gave Cranbrook a 3-2 hockey victory over Birmingham Varsity Shop yesterday and a sweep of their annual best-of-three series.

The Cranes had to overcome a 2-0 Varsity Shop lead to post their third series sweep in as many years.

Tom Pfaff made the deficit 2-1 late in the second period and Dick Moon tied the score at the seven-minute mark of the last period.

Lary Arrives
at Tiger CampFrank Sets Sights on Winning Season

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP)—Pitcher Frank Lary arrived at the Detroit Tigers' spring training camp Thursday with a smile on his face and predictions of winning up to 20 games this season.

"If I can pick up where I left off last season, I should win 15 or 16 games," said Lary. "And with a few breaks, I could be back up there with 20 victories."

The veteran right-hander, bothered by sporadic arm trouble since he won 23 games in 1961, pitched for 20 minutes at Tigertown.

"I was worried last spring," said Lary. "But now I feel better in every way."

Lary spent two months reconditioning his arm at Knoxville last year, and managed a 4-7 record at Detroit. He finished the season with a stout 3.28 earned run average to lead the team.

State Bill Would Allow More County Independence

By DICK HANSON

A bill that would enable county voters to decide whether they want a county home rule form of government is now before the Senate Municipalities Committee in Lansing.

Sen. Farrell E. Roberts, R-Oakland County, was among Democratic and Republican leaders who introduced the bill Wednesday.

Others were Sens. Raymond Dzendzel, D-Wayne County; Stanley Thayer, R-Washtenaw County; and William Ford, D-Wayne County.

News Analysis

The bill would carry out provisions of the new Michigan Constitution to allow more independence to counties in matters of local government.

CAN'T ACT

At present, counties cannot act without the State Legislature's approval as expressed in statutes.

County home rule proponents claim this method is too time-consuming and costly for urban counties, where local government must be more active.

Roberts said the bill is one that originated in Wayne County and was endorsed by boards of supervisors in six counties which comprise the Detroit metropolitan area.

However, Oakland County's endorsement wasn't without reservations. It was so worded as to let the board here support different home rule provisions expected before the legislature later on.

'FOR COMPARISON'

Roberts said he joined the others in introducing the present bill "for comparison purposes" and doesn't necessarily mean that he fully endorses this particular proposal.

All four senators said they doubted there will be any legislative agreement on county home rule this year.

"This is the type of bill that usually requires interim committee consideration between sessions," stated Roberts.

The Oakland County Board of Supervisors is more likely to favor home rule recommendations by Gov. George Romney's study committee than some of those in the present bill.

Board Chairman Delos Hamilton is a member of the study committee.

VOICE OPPOSITION

Several outside counties already have voiced opposition to the Wayne County proposal and to some of the governor's committee recommendations.

They are leery of the bill, Roberts admitted. "Court-house groups are afraid it might do away with some elected officials."

Much of the opposition stems from a fear that home rule will subordinate municipal governments to the county.

County home rule in the usual sense means a county manager form of government along with a smaller board of supervisors comprised entirely of elected members.

VARIED NUMBERS

According to the bill now in the Senate, there could be from nine to 38 board members elected from districts set up according to population.

Oakland County now has 55 supervisors, most of whom are appointed by city officials.

If enacted, the bill would give home rule counties the authority to adopt ordinances, establish new branches of government, and provide countywide services in the interest of public health and welfare.

The county also could levy an income tax and up to 10 mills in property taxes without a further vote of the people.

ROMNEY PROPOSAL

Gov. Romney has asked that a bill be drafted incorporating his committee's recommendations instead. He said the bill introduced Wednesday is not an administration bill.

A major difference is over how much power a home-rule municipality would have over its municipalities in deciding what public services will be provided by the county.

In the bill, a simple majority vote in the county would decide whether blanket service — such as police, fire protection or garbage disposal would be provided by the county.

According to the governor's committee, each municipality should be able to decide whether it wants to contract with the county for any particular service, unless the municipality falls below state or county standards.

Business Notes

Pontiac insurance agent Howard V. Huttenlocher is serving as a director of the newly organized American Life Insurance Co.

Huttenlocher, who has offices in the Riker Building, is among heads of 15 Detroit-area agencies who joined to form the new company, only the fourth owned firm in the nation.

W. Anson Hedgecock, one-time assistant to the manager of Consumers Power Co.'s southern division when it was headquartered in Pontiac, has been named to the company's executive staff in Jackson.

Now manager of the Saginaw Division, Hedgecock will take up his new post after a 10-week training program at Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Hedgecock left Pontiac in 1958 when the division was reorganized. He became manager of the South Oakland district (now a division) in Royal Oak.

Karl Schwartz, 10120 Elizabeth Lake, Union Lake, has been named general superintendent of general manufacturing at the Michigan Manufacturing & Engineering Division in Plymouth of Burroughs Corp. Schwartz has held various manufacturing supervisory posts at the division for more than 10 years.

Hoforty Widrig O'Neill Associates, Inc., Birmingham consulting engineers, have announced the firm will move into larger quarters at 344 Hamilton, Birmingham, from the present location at 240 N. Hunter. The move is effective next Thursday.

Friday Session for Legislature

General Agreement on Romney Budget

LANSING (AP)—With Senate Republicans agreed on supporting the general lines of Gov. George W. Romney's budget, the legislature held its first Friday session of 1964 today.

Senate majority leader Stanley Thayer, R-Amherst, termed a Thursday luncheon meeting of GOP senators with Romney a "general communications success."

He said the luncheon produced "pretty good indications of agreement" on the legislative program presented by Romney.

"We will attempt to follow the general lines of the governor's budget," said Thayer.

DRIVERS' LICENSES

The Senate passed a House-approved measure calling for distinctively-colored drivers' licenses for minors—and used the occasion to play a joke on its sponsor.

Rep. John Toeppe, R-Cadillac, was sitting in the back of the chamber to watch his bill's progress. Before leaving, he suffered a few nervous moments.

No one voted for the bill on roll-call—and there was a scattering of "no's." But just as the Senate secretary was about to announce the tally, each senator who had been silent stood up to announce his affirmative vote.

SILENT TREATMENT

The vote on passage was 26-1. "I had a feeling that one would get the silent treatment," said Toeppe. The "silent treatment" is used by senators as a good-natured way of giving a colleague a few uneasy moments. Toeppe, a first-timer, had his first experience with it.

The purpose of the bill is to curb the use of drivers' licenses by minors as identification in purchasing alcoholic beverages.

South Africa's '90-Day' Law Meeting Objections

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP) — "He hanged himself," magistrate R. T. A. Muller said in a Pretoria court room. "His death was not due to any offense by any other person."

The routine phrasing of the finding was typical of a verdict for a suicide inquest. But this was no routine suicide. This was the case of Looksmart Ngude, an African political prisoner held under South Africa's 90-day law.

Muller's voice was charged with much less emotion than the inquest had been. Then there had been high drama.

Victor Berrange, the lawyer acting for the Looksmart Ngude's relatives, carried on a running legal battle with Muller for days. Finally he walked out before the verdict because Muller refused to allow him to introduce evidence attempting to establish that Looksmart hanged himself because police in prison had been torturing him. Evidence Berrange had assembled on assault and torture was ruled inadmissible after evidence was given by another magistrate. This magistrate had visited the prison and reported Looksmart's body bore no marks although he had complained of coughing blood after being beaten. The magistrate said no other prisoners had any complaints. Police witnesses also denied they had beaten or maltreated any prisoner.

Mention of torture and assault in the inquest turned it into a cause celebre because Looksmart Ngude was a "90 day detainee."

Ever since Balthazar Vorster, South Africa's minister of justice, introduced the "90 day" clause among his sweeping security laws, people have been worried about its effects.

The 90-day law allows Vorster's senior police officers to detain anyone without a warrant and keep him in isolation for up to 90 days at a time. The purpose officially is to obtain information on suspected subversion. No charge need be laid, and the detainee need not be taken to court. He can be kept incommunicado.

INDEFINITE TERMS

At the end of 90 days a detainee can be released or, if Vorster and the police think it necessary, he can be detained for another 90 days. In effect the law can mean indefinite imprisonment without trial. There are at least two known cases of men serving three 90-day stretches.

Vorster admits to detaining 568 people — black and white, men and women, young and old — under the act. Opponents of the government allege more than that have been held.

Many eventually came before courts and were charged under South Africa's web of security laws. Many were released after cooperating with the police. Others still are in prison. Some sit in prison after being acquitted in court.

Henry Tucker, an opposition member of Parliament, has the names of five persons he says he knows have been detained after judges found them innocent of breaking any security laws.

BEING USED

"This gives the impression that the 90-day law is being used to imprison suspects against whom the state could not get a conviction," he says.

Vorster says he uses the 90-day law to hold people for questioning only.

"As soon as they talk," he says, "we release them."

The detainees, according to the government, are suspected subversives or people who know something about subversion or subversives.

LENDS ITSELF

One of a host of criticisms of the 90-day clause is that it lends itself to abuse by interrogators. One of the law's toughest critics is Mrs. Helen Surman, the lone representative in Parliament of the liberal-minded Progressive Party.

She quoted one case in Parliament and promised to give details of 20 more who charged they were beaten and given electric shocks to force them to talk. She asked Vorster for an independent judicial inquiry instead of the departmental inquiry he offered.

Mrs. Surman told Vorster that six witnesses in the Looksmart case had given evidence of being tortured, but that their stories evidently had been ignored. Vorster later said he had received at least 49 complaints of ill treatment of people detained.

Critics are also concerned about the effect of solitary confinement on the minds of detainees. Sixty of South Africa's leading psychiatrists and psychologists recently condemned isolation as a means of forcing confessions or information. They said it could lead to mental deterioration such as hallucinations and warped judgment.

As a result, they said, statements obtained from detainees in solitary could be valueless, and added that because of its possible effects solitary confinement was in itself a form of torture.

'64 Corvair Monza Club Coupe

It's got a frisky new engine (that puts superior traction under you)

Ever see a Corvair wearing tire chains? Not likely.

And it's not often you'll find a Corvair owner bothering to switch over to snow tires either.

Why? Rear-engine traction. The engine weight over Corvair's rear wheels gives them remarkable gripping power without any assist from special winter driving paraphernalia.

Reassuring to know this time of year—and also in the months to come when all that tidy white countryside turns into a melting pot that's likely to add to the misery.

Another thing about Corvair's engine: It's bigger this year.

Nearly 19 per cent more power in the standard version. Which is something you'll appreciate most any time of year, fair weather or foul.

You'll also appreciate not having to fool around with antifreeze. And not having to flush the radiator or fuss with hose connections. The engine's air cooled.

Matter of fact, we have a feeling that if more people knew what a cinch Corvair makes winter driving, there wouldn't be quite so many looking for excuses to duck South this time every year.

But then you never know. Corvair's a real kick to drive in warm weather, too. Why not just try one at your dealer's and decide for yourself? Whatever the weather, it's bound to be a fine day for it.

Push College for County

2-Year Institution Is Sought for Area

Monetary advantages of a local community college were emphasized in a two-hour briefing yesterday for proponents of such an institution in Oakland County.

Strategy for a favorable vote June 8 on the three-part college proposal was discussed by the county school board and members of the Community College Citizens Committee (CCCC).

Thomas H. Atkinson, of the Oakland University admissions office, said it costs a "significant" amount to maintain a freshman on a four-year college campus away from home.

He estimated the cost at $1,200 a year as compared with the $600 cost at a local two-year institution. He added that it was inconceivable that the county go along without a local community college.

EXCLUSIVE NUMBER

"Everyone, except that exclusive number that gets into OU, has to go out of the county for a higher education," he said.

Atkinson said that with a college the county could offer a trained labor force for business to locate here, money spent to educate youngsters would be spent here instead of in Ann Arbor or Lansing, and other monies, state and federal, would come into the area.

A Pontiac board member, Monroe M. Osmun, who is also on the county school board, called on unions, business and industry to endorse the college proposal.

Acknowledging that the time was short for a campaign last year, Osmun said there was time this year for a public endorsement from civic leaders in every community in the county.

SELLING NEED

He added that there should be a better job of selling the "need" for a community college.

Asked if the one-mill levy to finance the college would be enough, Eugene Kathy of Royal Oak replied:

"That's the rhetorical question asked on every millage. Is this the last buck you are ever going to ask for? No one really knows exactly."

Kathy added, however, that the millage figure did have some historical precedent with other community colleges.

VOTER APPROVAL

Judge Burton R. Shifman of Oak Park noted that any increase would have to have voter approval.

Kathy added that according to the present financial plans the college would operate on a three-year cycle.

He said that three years after the school was established, it would be able to pay for a 2,000-student campus "in cash."

The CCCC will step up its campaign in April and May. A 70-person speakers' bureau has been set up, posters are being prepared, also a slide-tape presentation and mailings are planned.

EVERY HOME

Mrs. George Mosher, CCCC vice-chairman, said that by the last week in May something or someone would have reached every home in the county.

She added that a telephone campaign and door-to-door doorbell ringing would be attempted in some areas.

Horse Sense Cracks Still

WASHINGTON (AP) — Internal Revenue Service agents used old-fashioned horse sense to solve an Oklahoma moonshine case.

A horse was found tied near an unattended liquor still near McAlester, Okla., the agency said Thursday in reporting on 1963 activities of alcohol and tobacco tax officers.

The agent released the horse and followed him to a nearby house, where a farmer admitted ownership of the horse—and the still.

Claims Baker 'Is in the Clear'

Attorney Says Senate Can't Cite Contempt

WASHINGTON (AP) — Bobby Baker's lawyer said today the former Senate aide is in the clear on possible contempt of Congress charges stemming from refusal to give subpoenaed financial records to Senate investigators.

Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., a member of the Senate Rules Committee conducting the investigation of the resigned secretary of the Senate Democratic majority, has charged that Baker "was contempt of the moment he appeared and didn't have the documents with him" on Tuesday.

Baker's Washington lawyer, Edward Bennett Williams, told a reporter that any such claim is baseless.

"It's a lot of humbug when they say we didn't bring the records with us," Williams said when asked about it. "We didn't tell them whether we brought them or not. I don't have before me a transcript of what was said at the hearings; but, as I recall it, I think they asked and we didn't tell them."

HAD RECORDS

"But Baker had in his briefcase all of the subpoenaed records — whatever is in existence — when he appeared."

He said some records demanded by the committee never did exist.

Baker invoked the 5th Amendment Tuesday, pleading it might tend to incriminate him to surrender any of the subpoenaed documents to the committee.

GOP Package

Bill to Alter Sentencing Rules

Judges would fix the maximum sentences for convicted felons but the parole board would set the minimum under a package of bills introduced in the State Senate by Sen. Farrell E. Roberts, R-Oakland County, and two other GOP senators.

The measure provides, in addition, that life imprisonment would be imposed only for first degree murder or treason.

For other crimes which now call for a maximum of life sentences, the courts would have fixed sentences in terms of years.

The bills would give the State Corrections Department and the parole board greater leeway in releasing prisoners on parole. Under present law, the sentencing judges sets both a maximum and a minimum term except where a life sentence is mandatory such as for first-degree murder.

The parole board may not presently consider a convict's release until the minimum term has expired (less time off for good behavior).

The new bills, sponsored by Sens. John W. Fitzgerald, R-Grand Ledge, and Stanley G. Thayer, R-Ann Arbor, as well as by Roberts, would remove the minimum sentence from the court's hands.

It would require the corrections department to set the minimum term after a thorough examination of the man and his background.

PRESENTENCE REPORTS

Judges currently receive presentence investigation reports by the probation department before passing sentence.

The new bills are endorsed by the corrections department and the Michigan Crime and Delinquency Council. The measures were referred to the Senate Judiciary Committee headed by Roberts.

"The corrections department recommends this change," Roberts said, "and we want to study it."

Attack Patrol in Malaysia

1 Trooper Killed by Indonesian Guerrillas

KUCHING, Sarawak, Malaysia (AP) — Guerrillas attacked a Malaysian Army patrol in the Borneo state of Sarawak last night, killing a Malaysian trooper and wounding four others, a British military spokesman reported today.

The spokesman said the attack — which he called "an extraordinary example of how Indonesian guerrillas have violated the cease-fire arrangements along the Borneo frontier" — took place in the Lundu district, 15 miles from the border with Indonesian Borneo.

The spokesman said the small patrol was ambushed by uniformed men armed with automatic rifles as the Malaysian troops approached a farm house to check on its occupants.

A corporal was killed, the spokesman said. The other soldiers drove off the attackers. The patrol was believed to have lost some casualties, but this was not confirmed.

TRIGGER CLASHES

Military sources here charged previously that Indonesian guerrillas had triggered at least three clashes in Sarawak's jungles since the start of the cease-fire. But no casualties had been reported.

The month-old Borneo truce — arranged by U.S. Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy as a prelude to negotiations on the Malaysia crisis — has become shaky with the refusal of Indonesia to withdraw guerrillas from Malaysian territory.

Malaysia is insisting on this as a prerequisite for further peace talks.

The guerrilla activity is an offshoot of Indonesia's campaign to undermine Malaysia, which the Indonesians claim is a British neo-colonialist project and a threat to their country.

GOING GAS—Despite winter, the work of adding new Consumers Power Co. natural gas customers goes on and will result in over 3,000 new residential connections in the Pontiac area before the year is out. Installer Russell Wilbee is readying this new home for a new item included in Consumers $2-million local expansion program, an outside gas meter. (See story, page A-2.)

Ruby Team Rejects 30th Jury Candidate

ALLAS (AP)—Jack Ruby's lawyers used their sixth peremptory challenge to dismiss today another jury candidate, the 30th in Ruby's murder trial.

He was Bill Bohannon, a husky, curly haired salesman. Watching the proceedings for a short time were the wife and child of chief defense counsel Malvin Belli. Mrs. Belli and her son, Caesar, sat in the rear of the jury box.

Bohannon said he had not seen the televised shooting of Lee Harvey Oswald, the accused assassin of President Kennedy.

Assistant defense attorney Joe Tonnihill insisted that the salesman had "fixed opinions" and could not come into the jury with an open mind.

At one point, Tonnihill addressed Bohannon as "Mr. Causey."

Max E. Causey, 35, an electronics analyst, was selected yesterday as the first juror.

The prosecution interposed a continual series of objections to the questions by which Tonnihill sought to elicit from Bohannon statements that would support the defense contention that Bohannon did not have an open mind.

GROWS IMPATIENT

Dist. Judge Joe B. Brown appeared to be growing increasingly impatient as he sustained the objections. Again and again he said, "Get on to something else."

A peremptory challenge is one in which the challenger is not required to state his reason. Both sides have 15. The prosecution has used only one peremptory challenge.

Shots Miss Turk Premier

ANKARA, Turkey (AP)—A Turk fired three shots at Premier Adnan Menderes.

Premier Inonu, 79, had just left his office to go to the National Assembly a short distance away when the shots rang out. The veteran political leader seemed unflinched by the assassination attempt. He got into his car and proceeded to the parliament building.

Later Inonu joined in the discussions before the assembly, Ankara Radio reported.

Police said Suna admitted he had fired his pistol with intent to kill the man who worked with Kemal Ataturk to found modern Turkey.

Suna came to Ankara two days ago from Kayseri, 165 miles southeast of Ankara, where he is a foreman of a power station.

Informed sources said he is a supporter of the outlawed Democratic party of the late strongman premier, Menderes. Menderes and other leaders of the Democratic party were executed after being convicted of crimes against the state.

Within three hours after the assassination attempt, Inonu went on Ankara Radio to tell his "dear fellow countrymen" that "I have suffered no injury whatsoever."

Inonu, describing the attack, said, "I was attacked with a pistol by a person whom I do not know at a distance of three or four meters (three or four yards)."

"Security officers arrested the aggressor and managed to save him from the wrath of the crowd which gathered after hearing the pistol shots," the premier said.

"Three shots penetrated the car. There were also some fragments in the car."

ELDER STATESMAN
Inonu, 79, is an elder statesman known for his political skill. His experience dates back half a century and includes 14 years as premier under Kemal Ataturk, founder of modern Turkey.

When Ataturk died in 1938, Inonu succeeded him as president. He brought his country through World War II unscathed and lined up with the allies toward the close of the war.

Inonu was swept out of office by the Democratic party of Adnan Menderes after the war in the first free election held in Turkey. He retained a seat in Parliament but steered a difficult course as leader of the opposition Peoples Republican party.

When Menderes was ousted by the army in May, 1960, Inonu returned as premier, heading a wobbly coalition. He resigned last December after his two coalition partners were defeated in nationwide local elections, then formed a new minority government which has struggled constantly to avoid collapse.

King of Greece Is All Right After Surgery

Successful Operation on Stomach Ulcer
Allays Fears for Life

ATHENS, Greece (AP)—King Paul of Greece underwent an emergency operation for a stomach ulcer today. A medical bulletin said it had been successful.

The bulletin was issued at the royal palace after fears for the king's life had steadily mounted in Athens.

It gave no indication of how long the operation lasted.

The bulletin said: "The operation was carried out successfully by Dr. Alexander Manos."

KISSED QUEEN
"The king woke up and kissed the queen and his son Constantine and the other children. The king is all right now."

During the four hour operation fears had mounted steadily for the 62-year-old monarch.

The operation was to correct a narrowing of the opening between the stomach and the intestines caused by an old ulcer.

The operation was performed at the Tatoi Palace, 25 miles north of Athens.

SHORT VISIT
Greece's defense minister and his military chief made a 15-minute visit to the palace shortly before noon, adding to fears for the king's condition.

They made no statements as they left.

Members of the royal family were at the palace.

They included Queen Frederika; Crown Prince Constantine, 23, who yesterday was named regent for his ailing father; Princess Sophie and her husband, Prince Juan Carlos of Spain, and the king's younger daughter, Princess Irene.

NO OFFICIAL REPORT
The office of Premier George Papandreu announced the operation but gave no immediate official report on his condition.

They included Queen Frederika; Crown Prince Constantine, 23, who yesterday was named regent for his ailing father; Princess Sophie and her husband, Prince Juan Carlos of Spain, and the king's younger daughter, Princess Irene.

Say Airman Is Too Fat; Faces Ouster

PORTSMOUTH, N.H. (AP)—Air Force Capt. Harold K. Scane has fasted, gone on diets and taken reducing pills, but an excess two pounds today jeopardize his military career.

A board of three Air Force colonels yesterday recommended dismissal of the 221-pound, 11-year veteran for being "defective toward his duty to maintain a prescribed standard of fitness."

The hearing was said to be the first of its type involving a commissioned officer.

New weight regulations issued last August for Air Force officers called for Scane, a 6-foot, 2-inch, 31-year-old, to reduce his 235 pounds down to 210.

His latest reported weight is 221—two pounds over the prescribed minimum.

Scane testified at the hearing saying he fasted several times, sometimes as long as five days. But, he added disconsolately, one four-day fast took off only one and a half pounds.

'Playing Dangerous Game'
LBJ Warns China on Viet Role

LOS ANGELES (AP)—President Johnson, shaking a finger at Communist China, said today that outsiders supporting Communist guerrillas in South Vietnam are playing "a deeply dangerous game."

At the same time, Johnson argued that communism's troubles around the globe actually are more acute than those facing the United States.

He said U. S. problems are eclipsed by "the spreading civil war among Communists"—a reference to the policy gulf between the Soviet Union and Communist China.

The President gave his foreign policy views in an address prepared for an outdoor convocation at the University of California at Los Angeles, held to honor Johnson and visiting President Adolfo Lopez Mateos of Mexico.

This was the prelude to two days of Mexican-American good will talks at the desert resort of Palm Springs, 90 miles away.

Johnson reaffirmed American determination to support the independence of South Vietnam. He described this as a 10-year-old commitment "we will continue to honor."

But he said the Vietnamese was "first and foremost a contest to be won by the government and people of that country for themselves."

NO MENTION
The President did not name Communist China in his discussion of Viet Nam.

But his meaning was clear in saying that "those engaged in external direction and supply of the guerrilla war would do well to remember that this (Continued on Page 2, Col. 7)

7 Children, Man Die in Chicago Blaze

CHICAGO (AP)—A flash fire, set off by a burning mattress, swept through a West Side home today, killing seven children and a man who perished in a futile attempt to rescue the four boys and three girls.

The parents of the children and their eighth child escaped from the fast-spreading flames.

The father, detective James Alford, 37, suffered serious burns and smoke inhalation as he failed in attempts to rescue the children from the top floor of the 1½ story brick bungalow.

He was reported in serious condition in a hospital.

Alford's wife, Gloria, 35, and the couple's oldest child, Keith, 13, escaped from the flaming dwelling with only minor cuts.

He smashed a window on the top floor and jumped about 20 feet to the ground.

The man killed in the fire was Leroy Robinson, 41, Alford's cousin who lived with the family.

Mrs. Alford told police and fire officials that the fire started in Robinson's mattress in his room on the first floor where she and her husband were sleeping in another bedroom. She said she and her husband were awakened by dense smoke about 1:30 a.m. and saw Robinson carrying a smoldering mattress into the bathroom to douse it in the bathtub.

Mrs. Alford said her husband smashed a first floor window to get in air. Immediately the flames spread up the stairwell to the top floor.

Robinson ran up the stairs in an attempt to rescue the children. Keith smashed a window in the top floor and leaped to the ground. The smoke and flames spread rapidly through the top floor and Alford was driven back as he sought to save the lives of his young children, who ranged in age from 1 to 11 years.

The accident occurred on a two-way section of road when the car driven by Miklos apparently veered across the four-lane pavement into the path of Heinemann's car.

FIRST FATALITY
A Ford spokesman said it was the first test track fatality in company history.

He said both veteran drivers were in standard model cars and were not engaged in speed tests.

Service for Miklos will be 2 p.m. tomorrow at First Congregational Church in Romeo under direction of Wilbur's Funeral Home.

He said the congregation of this church that "adopted" the Miklos family when it came to town in 1957.

Dwindling City Income Forces Millage Vote

By DICK SAUNDERS

The Pontiac city treasury is running out of income.

Realizing this, a majority of the City Commission this week moved to ask voters for more tax millage at the April 20 general city election.

The charter was amended 10 years ago to put a limit of 10 mills, as equalized, on the city's operating levy. The 10-mill limit has become outdated.

The city, for many years, had been blessed with a rising tax base (total assessed valuation), a moderate tax rate and a budget surplus.

During the 1940's, the tax rate was moderate (around $14 per $1,000), as were expenses and capital improvements. The city built up a budget surplus.

In the 1950's operating expenses started rising and have never stopped. There was a building boom.

But the tax rate went down, partly because the tax base steadily increased and partly because the surplus of the 1940's was used to balance budgets of the 1950's.

The surplus was used up. During the 1960's to date, the city has used up its tax rate as well. The surplus is gone and the city's tax base has dropped, but operating costs continue to rise each year.

Of the city's tax rate, the largest and most important portion is for operating expenses.

The City Charter limits the operating levy to a maximum of $10 per $1,000 as equalized.

The city is now levying that full amount.

By amending the charter to allow the city to levy an additional $1 per $1,000 to cover police and fire pension and manpower costs, the city would squeeze on operating millage.

The pension and manpower costs are now paid from operating millage.

Financing the pension with additional voted millage would leave about $280,000 free for operating expenses this year if there is no change in the operating levy.

City officials see no immediate change in the annual rise of operating expenses, nor in the tax base. The question is: Do we drop city services or provide the money needed to continue them?

The answer is... the public's.

Thant Working on Plan

Seeks Cyprus Delay

By WILLIAM N. OATIS
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) Secretary-General U Thant sought to delay U.N. Security Council debate on Cyprus today while he continued private talks on his plan to ease the crisis.
Council members were expected to go along with Thant's request to postpone an afternoon council session until Monday.
General agreement on broad objectives was reported from private negotiations on Thant's proposals for an international peace force, an impartial mediator to seek a political accord between the feuding Greek and Turkish Cypriots, and a Security Council guarantee of Cypriot independence and territorial integrity.

A Cyprus government representative said there was general agreement that a mediator should be named and that the international force should be linked to the council through a committee headed by Thant.
WHICH NATIONS?
However, discussions were continuing on the nations that should be asked to supply the troops, which Thant reportedly wants to draw from British Commonwealth and nonaligned nations.
Disagreement was reported on whether the Security Council resolution should refer to the 1960 treaty by which Britain, Greece and Turkey guaranteed the independence of Cyprus and the maintenance of the island republic's constitution.

Bank Exec Resigns; Successor Named

Resignation of Smith Falconer, who has been executive vice president and director of Pontiac State Bank since it started in 1945, was announced today by President Milo J. Cross.
His successor, effective April 1, will be Edward E. Barker Jr., a Cleveland bank executive.
Falconer is leaving for Florida for family health reasons, Cross explained.
Barker formerly was vice president and a senior commercial lending officer of the Society National Bank, Cleveland.
Prior to that he was associated with the National City Bank there, and Wells Fargo Bank of San Francisco.
He has been active in banking organizations since he entered the field in 1947.
For the past five years he has lectured on the faculty of the Central States School of Banking at University of Wisconsin.
In Ohio he served on the state and Cleveland chambers of commerce, was chairman of the advisory board of Saint Ann Hospital and is a board trustee for Blue Cross of northeastern Ohio.
BANKING STUDIES
A graduate of Stouffer Graduate School of Banking, he also completed institutional management studies at Northwestern University.
During World War II he served on the staff of General Douglas MacArthur in the Pacific area. The Barkers have three children. The family plans to move to the Pontiac area soon.

U.S. House Passes Bill for Defense

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House has approved the $16.9-billion defense authorization bill, including $92 million in research funds not asked by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara.
Approval of the largest defense authorization in history came late Thursday on a 336-0 roll call vote.
The $92 million is intended for research on a manned bomber and a manned interceptor plane. The House Armed Services Committee had recommended the money on the advice of Gen. Curtis LeMay, Air Force chief of staff, although it had not been included in McNamara's requests.
Since it is an authorization bill, it really includes no money at all. It simply sets the maximum limits for later appropriations by Congress.
NO FORCE
And even if Congress later appropriates the $92 million for research, there is nothing in the law that can force McNamara to spend it if he doesn't want to.
During the debate, Rep. Carl Vinson, D-Ga., chairman of the Armed Services Committee, told the House that the committee had put in the extra $92 million on the advice of LeMay.
"I believe what General LeMay says," Vinson said, "and I think all of you believe him, too."
Rep. Samuel S. Stratton, D-N.Y., offered an amendment to strike out the $92 million, but Vinson and his supporters easily defeated it.

30th Juror Is Dismissed expressed the opinion that it will not be possible to seat a full 12-member jury until the defense has exhausted all of its peremptories.

Tonahill attempted to avoid using another peremptory challenge. He first moved that Bohannon be excused "for cause," on the basis of the candidate's allegedly false opinions. The judge said "The court overrules your motion."
SATURDAY SESSION
Judge Brown said before court began today that he planned to hold a Saturday session.
Jury Causey "is just what we've been looking for," Belli said after both sides agreed on him yesterday.
Causey, 35, holds a master's degree in education.
Under questioning, he said he was familiar with the names of some prominent psychiatrists, mentioned by Belli, and knew about books they have written. He did not indicate he had read the books.
TEMPORARY INSANITY
Rubi's defense against a charge of murder with malice will be based on temporary insanity.
Causey said he has an open mind about what Belli called "transient insanity."
Rubi killed Lee Harvey Oswald, accused assassin of President John F. Kennedy, as Oswald was being transferred from a Dallas jail.
Prior to Causey's appearance yesterday, fourth day of the trial — all prospective jurors summoned for questioning had been rejected.

4 at Ruby Trial Held by Police

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Four persons have been taken into custody in connection with the Jack Ruby trial since it began Monday.
Authorities believe all four suffer from mental disturbances.
One had a loaded pistol. He came from Oregon.
Another told officers he had seen Ruby and Lee Harvey Oswald together many times. "I saw Ruby and Oswald cut a man in two," he told a sheriff's deputy. He's from Mississippi.
FROM INSTITUTION
A third recently was granted leave from a Texas mental institution. "He was pacing around outside the courtroom. His mannerisms were too unusual," a deputy said.
The fourth, a 70-year-old woman from Arizona, said she was an authority on the Cosa Nostra and wanted to testify.
Sheriff Bill Decker's office is trying to contact relatives of the four and send them home. He said commitment to a mental institution might be necessary if relatives can't be found.
The Dallas County Records Building where Ruby is being tried has become a magnet for fans. He said special deputy Charles Player.

City Hospital to Add Beds, Move Treatment Facilities

Pontiac General Hospital is growing within.
Last night, the hospital's board of trustees approved a project estimated to cost $10,450 which would add four patient beds to the hospital's second floor east wing.
It would also be another step toward centralized kitchen facilities in the hospital.
Pontiac General is slowly converting kitchens on each floor to other uses in favor of one large, centrally located kitchen.
MOVE FACILITIES
"We are moving examining and treatment rooms on the second floor into an area now occupied by kitchen and linen storage facilities," said Harold B. Euler, administrator.
"The rooms will be renovated into a four-bed ward."
Euler said the work would be done by hospital maintenance staff and should be finished by June.
It would raise the total bed capacity to 391.
He noted that "with the high demand for beds, we are sure this project will pay for itself before the end of the year."

type of aggression is a deeply dangerous game."
Johnson said that "in our foreign policy today there is room neither for complacency nor for alarm."
And, after citing difficulties in Viet Nam, Cyprus, Panama and Cuba, he said:
"Larger than the troubles I have noted is the spreading civil war among Communists."

Brother Talks About Oswald

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Robert L. Oswald appears again today before the Warren commission to continue his story of the life of his younger brother, Lee Harvey Oswald, charged with assassinating President Kennedy.
Oswald was to go before the commission investigating the assassination this morning. Officials believed that the 25-year-old father of two would wind up his testimony today.
He was the third member of the Oswald family to appear before the commission. Lee's Russian-born wife Marina and his mother, Mrs. Margaret Oswald, were heard previously.
Oswald worked overtime yesterday during his first appearance before the commission, headed by Chief Justice Earl Warren. But he steadfastly refused to break his public silence about his brother.
MSU Will Dedicate New Planetarium
EAST LANSING (AP) — The new $300,000 Abrams Planetarium will be dedicated at Michigan State University next Thursday, named after Dr. Talbert Abrams of Lansing, who contributed $250,000 toward its construction. The planetarium will begin public showings next month.
Dr. Robert E. Stoltz, head of the department of psychology at Southern Methodist University, commented that proceedings on the magnitude of the Ruby trial attract certain types of mentally unbalanced persons.

5 NY Firemen Are Suspended

Report Unauthorized Women in Firehouse
NEW YORK (AP) — Fire Commissioner Edward Thompson, blaming mad over reports that women "allegedly of ill repute" have frequented a Manhattan firehouse, has suspended five firemen, including the company captain.
"The reputation of the department could be at stake," Thompson said.
He said an investigation begun last month showed that more than once "unauthorized civilians, both male and female," had visited the firehouse of Engine Co. 35 on East 119th St.
Thompson said the women were over 21 years old, and were in the firehouse more than once, but he declined to give further details. The third floor quarters of the firehouse reportedly were involved.
EVIL MEN
Hall of the company's 30 firemen have been quizzed thus far, Thompson said, adding: "All the men in this company are not evil men, but they will all be questioned."

Radcar Car Location

The Pontiac police radar-equipped patrol car will be on Saginaw, Perry, Huron and Baldwin tomorrow.
Working Saturdays, he received his master's degree at East Texas State College about two years ago.
His wife, Rosemary, has a master's degree in physical education. They have two sons.

$2-Million Expansion

Thousands of Oakland County home owners will get natural gas service this year to heat, cook and cool. But they'll never know one familiar feature that used to go with it — the strident cry of "gas man" accompanied by a sharp rap on the side door.
When the meter reader arrives unexpectedly, Mrs. Housewife won't feel a jolt of apprehension because her half is in curlers or that little Johnny may have left his skates on the basement steps.
Consumers Power Co. says the 3,100 new house connections it expects to make in the area this year will include outside meters, quickly and quietly read.

BELOW GROUND

Charles F. Brown, Pontiac division manager, said most of the changes will take place below ground.
"We plan to construct about 65 miles of gas mains in 1964. Most of the new customers they will service will be in new residential areas, while a gas mains serving 1,000 present customers will be modernized or replaced."
The extension of mains will reach out to planned subdivisions in West Bloomfield, White Lake, Waterford and Commerce townships.
"Right now, our canvassers are busy in these areas surveying persons already living near our mains to see if they want gas service too," Brown explained.

Consumers Broadens Services

"We know there are about 12,000 homes near our lines which do not use gas, and there are some service, but not for heating."
By May, when ground conditions permit, work crews will follow up the sales force.
"Installing crews will use an older new item," said Gordon Carlson, gas distribution superintendent. "The house connections will be made of copper tubing that can be unrolled in one piece, instead of the old style sectioned pipe."
While this is being done, the homeowners must make his own arrangements to have the gas appliances he wants installed by a licensed dealer, Carlson reminded.
AVOID DELAY
"And equally important, he must contact us to come out and set the meter. Many forget, and experience delay in using their new service."

Brown said residential heating will account for most of the new connections, with eight of 10 new homes being built with gas furnaces as standard equipment.

Within Pontiac, Consumers will embark on interior remodeling of its office building at 20 W. Lawrence. The work is designed to please both its gas and electric customers.
First floor sales and customer service areas will be redesigned and model kitchens and laundries will be installed.
At the Weissen Street service center, plans are to remodel offices, construct carports and backstop driveway and parking areas, Brown said.

"Robert Oswald has brought to the commission all the information he has in the way of documents," McKenzie said, while Oswald stood by silently, hoping that he has shed some light on the commission's investigation. That is our purpose before the commission.
"We're trying to expedite the hearing as much as possible and we have worked ... to assist the commission in every way possible," McKenzie said.
HIS LIFE STORY
Earlier in the day, Allen W. Dulles, former director of the central intelligence agency and a member of the commission, told newsmen that Oswald had told the commission his own life story.
He said Oswald had brought correspondence with his brother, including many letters written by Lee while he was in Russia. Both Dulles and Warren described Oswald as "a very cooperative witness."

Red Lauds Czar, Is Rapped

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet novelist Alexei Yugov was criticized Thursday for writing a book containing kind words about the last czar and czarina.

The government newspaper Izvestia attacked him and said that up until now, "all literate people had an entirely different idea about the last Russian crown carriers."

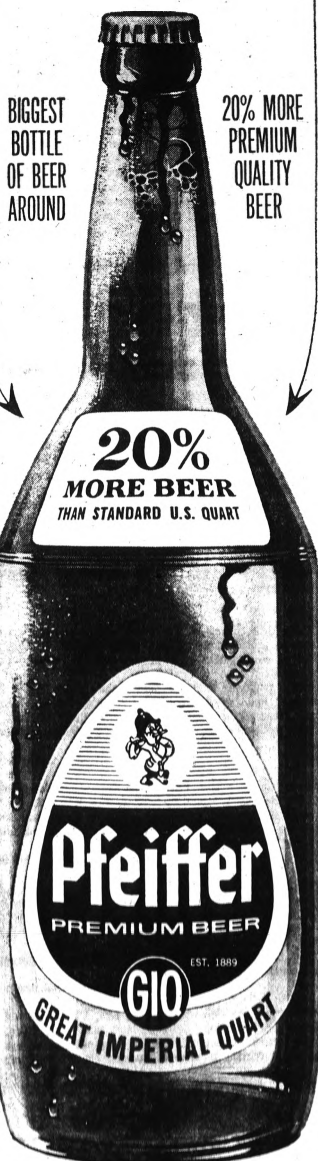

CZAR COMMENT

In his book Yugov had said of Czar Nicholas II:

"A man of great education. He is a pupil of famous professors and has perfect command of three European languages."

Local Adman's Rise Result of Good Selling

Updating the seemingly antiquated philosophy of HORATIO ALGER, ERNEST A. JONES has just rounded out a quarter-century with the Bloomfield Hills-based advertising agency of MacManus, John & Adams.

President of the firm since 1955, the 47-year-old executive began his career with the agency in 1939 when he took the unorthodox step of giving up a job paying $400 a month for one offering $125.

During the nearly 10 years of Mr. Jones' presidency, the agency's 26 accounts, 277 employees and billings of $36 million have risen to 100 accounts, 600 employees and billings nearing $65 million. Among the top 25 agencies, M.J. & A. ranks third in growth over the last five years.

The adman's formula for the success of both himself and his company? Very simple: "Sell yourself and sell your product."

Leap Year Adds Life to Auto License Tags

Cupid, this year, is doing double duty. Not only are his Leap Year arrows being bowed on behalf of mate-seeking maidens, but his kindly offices are being extended to Michigan's motorists — 65,000 of whom are licensed in the Pontiac area.

How? Because of the extra day in February this year, in quadrennial obedience to the Mighty Mite, the 1963 auto tags will not expire with the legal 28th but will continue valid through the 29th.

But don't delay getting your '64 tags. The Secretary of State's branch office, which by the way will be open the last day of the month for the benefit of those who never do today what they can put off till tomorrow, reports that issuance of new tags is lagging markedly. This means but one thing — a big traffic jam in getting the tags as you'll be in after you get 'em.

So, save yourself time, impatience and risk of a violation ticket March 1 by getting your tags NOW.

To take a little liberty with an old one: A tag in hand is worth two in the rush.

Nation Pays Homage to Its First Hero

Tomorrow is the 232nd anniversary of the birth of GEORGE WASHINGTON.

In assessing the stature of the Nation's great, it is noteworthy that in so many lives it is the incongruous and comparatively insignificant that has served to immortalize them.

Think of George Washington, and the fabled tableau of the cherry tree is the mental image that usually appears.

But at the risk of seeming iconoclastic there are attributes far more important though less signaled to perpetuate reverence of WASHINGTON in the hearts of Americans.

Born in Virginia, he did not attend school until after he was 11 years old, yet when he was only 16 he started a career as a surveyor.

When the call went out for soldiers during the French and Indian War, Washington met the challenge and served bravely.

He was chosen a delegate to the first and second Continental Congress. It was at the second that he was chosen to lead the American army.

After the war, Washington was asked to preside over the convention which framed the Constitution, and became the first President of the United States under that document.

What then should he be remembered for?

GEORGE WASHINGTON should be remembered as a man who so loved his country that he was willing to serve it in any way he could, a man who spent his life in the public service.

U.S., Red China in Same Position

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON — When Americans stop being mad at Fidel Castro long enough to reflect about the shoe on the other foot, Red China comes to mind — and it isn't pleasant.

Since the Red Chinese are not the mousy type, this country can be sure its desire to eliminate Castro and communism from this hemisphere is matched by Red China's ardor to rid all Asia of Western influence.

One of this country's great embarrassments of the century was to see communism not only get a foothold in its backyard, in Cuba, but survive and, more or less, flourish.

He's a danger. While he lasts he is an inspiration to other Latin American Communists to try to do likewise in their countries.

No wonder the United States wants Castro out.

UP TO ITS NECK
Meanwhile, the United States is up to its neck in Southeast Asia, in the Chinese Communist's backyard, trying to keep the people there pro-Western and anti-Communist, or, if not anti-Communist, at least neutral.

This is as insufferable for the Red Chinese as Castro is for the United States.

So they can be expected to try to dominate their continent as soon as they feel ready, particularly since they seem to have an even fiercer Communist missionary zeal than the Russians.

But the two giants, the United States and Red China, are momentarily frustrated in their ambitions. As of now, the United States clearly doesn't seem to know what to do next about Castro.

GRUESOME POSSIBILITIES

A direct attack on his island would risk some gruesome possibilities, like war with Russia, alienating the rest of Latin America, and losing trust, respect and influence elsewhere.

As for the indirect method of attack — by Cuban exiles with American backing — this country has painful recollection of what happened when it was tried. This was President Kennedy's disastrous failure in 1961.

The Red Chinese, who have split with Russia and respect American nuclear weapons so long as they don't have any, so far have avoided direct participation in South Viet Nam and the rest of Southeast Asia.

TOWER OVER NEIGHBORS

They don't have to hurry. They tower over their neighbors in this hemisphere. When they feel strong enough, and that the time is right, it seems inevitable they will move.

True?

The Monroeville (Ala.)
Monroe Journal

Apparently women can be persuaded to do anything with their hair except leave it alone.

Civil Rights?

The Fort Lauderdale News

Let there be no mistake about this. While the proposed civil rights bill is clothed in lofty and noble-sounding language, it bestows upon the federal government the most far-reaching power to meddle and interfere in the day-to-day affairs of our individual citizens that has ever before been seriously considered by Congress.

This bill will authorize the federal government to step in and tell virtually every employer of human labor whom he must hire and whom he must fire. It will force virtually every labor union to open its ranks to anybody the federal government declares shall be a member.

It definitely and conclusively takes away the property rights of just about everybody who conducts a private business which caters to the general public. Ever since this nation was first founded it has held to the principle that a private businessman had the right to choose his own customers. But now we are told that right is no longer a valid one and that it must be superseded because we are in an election year and politicians of both our parties have gone down on their hands and knees to cater to the whims and demands of our big city minority groups.

This is demagoguery of the worst order. If they could afford to be truthful, we have little doubt that many of the House members who put their stamp of approval on this iniquitous civil rights bill did so only in the expectation their action would be greatly modified in the Senate.

But what kind of men are these who gloss over the destruction of principles, traditions and rights that have been a part of this nation since its very inception? Has our political system degenerated to the point where a majority of our legislators are so obsessed with their own ambitions to get re-elected they will impose a veritable dictatorship upon our people in the name of civil rights?

The more we see of the powerful forces steering this civil rights bill to passage the more we fear for the security and the safety of a nation entrusted to these forces. Principles are sacrificed for personal aggrandizement, and the spectacle is not one that bodes good for our country.

Impossible

The Sacramento Bee

George Washington, so it is said, threw a silver dollar across a river. It would be a neat trick, indeed, if he could make today's dollar go that far.

Future Smokers

The Holland Sentinel

A Harvard University study conducted at Newton, Mass., suggests the possibility that more women than men smoke cigarettes. Years hence it may be the ladies who do the bulk of the smoking.

This change may come about because more men than women are giving up the habit. In one year 25 percent of the men interviewed at Newton quit cigarettes, but only 7.8 percent of their spouses were able to do so.

Project the picture far enough into the future and you see George, on arriving home, hit the ceiling because the place smells like the scene of a recent four-alarm fire. Grace explains that the girls have been in for bridge and, of course, they smoked. Grace didn't smoke much herself, though — only half a pack.

Yes, she knows there's another hole in the arm of the yellow chair. Yes, she knows that chairs cost money. She also knows that the accident wouldn't have happened if she and the girls didn't smoke. She's really awfully sorry. And she's sorry too, that George has to be so proper. Sometimes she wishes he'd smoke.

David Lawrence Says:

Wheat Sale to Soviets One of Biggest Boners

WASHINGTON — The Kennedy-Johnson administration will be held responsible by many voters next November for one of the biggest boners in foreign policy that a State Department has ever allowed to happen.

It was the consent given to the sale of LAWRENCE wheat to the Soviet Union and other Communist countries, notwithstanding the "cold war."

This move has proved a boner.

It has started a wave of deals whereby Great Britain and France and other countries have begun not only to export goods to Cuba but to help build factories for the Russians which can be indirectly of aid to them in preparing for war.

The late President Kennedy, in a press conference on Oct. 9, said of the wheat deal that it was not a government-to-government transaction, that credits would be granted by banks, and that "the grain dealers will take the risk with the private banks."

The total impression given at the time was that the United States would not grant any subsidy or any credits.

GUARANTEE LOANS

But it turns out that the government here has guaranteed the loans which the banks made, and members of Congress have revealed that in one particular sale, involving 37 million bushels of wheat at a price of $7.5 million, there was a subsidy by the United States government of a little more than $24 million.

Sen. Everett Dirksen, Republican minority leader, now says:

"The wheat deal with the Soviet Union, initiated last October and currently being feverishly pursued by the Johnson administration, is doing far greater damage to American foreign policy than it is good to the American economy."

"Nations are using the wheat deal as an excuse. Britain's Prime Minister Douglas-Home stood on the White House steps last week and made it clear the British intend to trade with the Communist nations."

TURNING POINT

Former Prime Minister Ishibashi, a leading Japanese advocate of trade with Red China, has hailed the wheat deal as the "big turning point" in making trade with Communist nations possible.

In short, the wheat deal is turning into a diplomatic nightmare. Nothing has so undermined our leadership of the free world in a score of years."

More Applaud Thought Behind 'C' University

I can think of several men and women right here in our own area who had excellent marks in colleges and universities—including the Naval Academy—who have become top leaders through their personal abilities.

At the same time, I am completely cognizant of the much greater number who did average work as undergraduates but who took a constructive part in extra-curricular activities and who are now doing equally as well in later life. And there are many, many times as many of these.

JOHN

They're the solid fundamental basis of our nation's overwhelming progress and success. We must not deny them a fine four-year college course.

I heartily applaud the underlying concept of "C" University.

W. A. P. John

I have one suggestion for that grand, new University. Instead of calling it "C" U., why not make it "C Plus" U.? It might even be "C+U." It sounds better and smoother.

'Library Critics Preventing Learning'

Critics of Waterford's proposed library are working hard to prevent the development of learning and knowledge. I would like to point out to these critics that the average home owner here pays about $15 per year in township taxes (not to be confused with school taxes) and in view of this low tax rate and our growing population, the problem of increasing services is not unusual. We can either provide revenue for additional services or do without, but we can't afford to eliminate necessary public instructions. Libraries are a vital community investment.

John R. Sommers

The Beatles Continue to Hold Interest

The Beatles are lively, likeable guys. I hand it to them for their gaiety and wit. I don't suppose they mind the criticism—they can laugh all the way to the bank.

Pensioner

We're all-American girls and like The Beatles. Long-hair music such as Mozart and Beethoven is OK, but you can't dance the Twist to it.

P. Giliske

S. Cupp

A point was scored for pro-Beatle Teen-agers on the Ed Sullivan show. I was much prouder to have The Beatles represent us teens, than I would have been to have Mitzi Gaynor represent us as adults. She was absolutely nauseating!

Proud to Be a Beatlemaniac

"Disgruntled Teen-Ager" must be a very untypical one because for every teen-ager who doesn't like The Beatles there are at least ten who do. It's noteworthy that Richard Rogers is one of The Beatles' most avid fans and if they're good enough for a man like him they're good enough for anybody.

Linda

It should be obvious to "Concerned" that adults are "on top" of teenage problems, everywhere—except Detroit. Consider the amount of adult participation in the current teenage crisis—"Beatlemania."

Isn't it gratifying to see so many mature adults "airing their knowledge" and contributing toward cleaning up this dreadful threat? These "self-appointed" insects, with their debatable, social and emotional effect on teen-agers have provoked widespread controversy.

64 Goldner

Louise Adams

In reply to Mr. Kobosh, I don't think there is anything repulsive about The Beatles. They've had to battle their way to the top and now must fight to stay there. Also, girls don't get a bad image from them because there is no bad image there. I think they're sharp and swift—they're just too much.

Troy

Caroline Stone

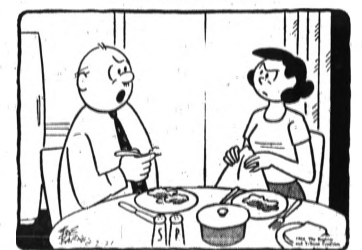

The Beatles are the sharpest things that have hit the nation. They're nice, wholesome guys who have many talents. They know how to move around and that's dancing; they know how to raise and lower their voices and that's singing. And I don't think they're showing boys how not to comb their hair.

They aren't building a false image—they're just presenting true talents.

riage.
A man I

40's, nothing to look at, but he has been wonderful to me. He paid me cash when I need it. He is married, but his wife treats him rotten. Abby, this man says he thinks of me as his daughter and he wants no thing from me.

ABBY

My mother has an evil mind. She says it looks "bad" and could lead to his divorce.
I need his friendship.
How can I get my mother off my back? I have to live with her because she takes care of my child while I work.

judgement is better than yours. You have no business you.

New Column Features Education Give 'n Take

By answering your questions about educational problems and trends, this informative column will serve as a vital and important link between school and home. Mrs. Light, herself a mother and teacher, says "The understanding of parents is absolutely necessary if schools are to operate effectively. If you'd like practical help in dealing with such problems as too much homework, reading difficulties and low grades, be sure to read SCHOOL AND YOU each week in this newspaper.

By SUSAN LIGHT
DEAR MRS. 'LIGHT—
Every year our son's school holds a science fair. Each child is required to submit a project. Invariably, father end up doing the project. This fair is a competition between parents!

My husband is in advertising and has very little knowledge of science. Our son says if his dad doesn't help with the project, he will get a poor grade. What shall we do? help with the project, he will get a poor grade. What shall we do?

UNSCIENTIFIC PARENTS ANSWER—I wish I knew! Our own science fair will be coming up soon. Ideally, parents should only be spectators and students should do the projects. However, even science teachers justify parental help on the grounds that working on a joint enterprise brings father and child closer together.

Unless you want to fight the system, I suggest that you lean heavily on large, attractive posters illustrating some simple experiments your son can do himself.

The Future Scientists of America, National Teachers Assn., 1201 16th St., N. W., Washington 6, D.C., puts out a free pamphlet entitled "If You Want to Do a Science Project." and a 50 cent booklet on "Student Projects." Your librarian can recommend other appropriate source material.

Being in advertising, your husband should be able to compete favorably in putting across your son's material. "Packaging" pays at a science fair as well as in the supermarket.

Ask Party If He Wants to Be Called

By The Emily Post Institute
Q: Will you please settle a discussion we had the other day at our office concerning telephone manners.

When someone calls the office and asks to speak to Mr. Employer and he is out of the office or in conference, is it better manners to ask the person who is calling to call back or to take the person's name and telephone number and have Mr. Employer call him?

A: Properly, the person answering the telephone says "I'm sorry, Mr. Employer is not in his office" or "Mr. Employer is in conference and can't be disturbed. Shall I have him call you?"

Then the person at the other end will either say, "No, I'll call again," or else give you his name and telephone number.

The Emily Post Institute booklet entitled, "Table Rules of Importance," describes how to eat spaghetti as well as other difficult foods.

To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin and a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Emily Post Institute, in care of The Pontiac Press. The Emily Post Institute cannot answer personal mail, but all questions of general interest are answered in this column.

Bill Reshapes Party Structure

Would Put Legislators on State Central Units

LANSING (AP) — Sweeping overhaul of the structure of political parties' state central committees, with stronger roles assumed by elected officials, is proposed in a bill introduced in the legislature.

The bill, sponsored by Rep. Russell Strange, R-Clare, would put legislators for the first time on the state central committee, the policy-making bodies of the parties.

Strange's bill is designed to reshape the party structure to provide for "more cohesiveness," GOP State Chairman Arthur Elliott Jr. said.

Michigan Republicans have been troubled in recent months by what some describe as "communications problems" between the party organization and its legislators.

At present, the state central committees of the two parties are composed of four persons—two men and two women—from each of the state's 19 congressional districts.

Strange's plan would enable both parties in the legislature to elect one House member and one Senator to their state central committees.

Other members would include three from each congressional district: National committee-men, national committee-women, congressional district chairmen and county chairmen and vice chairmen from counties over 1 million people would be ex officio members.

In multicounty congressional districts, one county chairman and vice chairman would be named. Nine at-large members chosen by the state chairman also would serve.

U.S. N-Subs to Spain Base

MADRID (AP) — The United States is going to base eight Polaris submarines at the U.S. Spanish naval base at Rota; on Spain's southern Atlantic coast, within easy reach of the Mediterranean.

The submarine tender Proteus is expected to arrive Monday at Rota from Holy Loch, Scotland, only after U.S. Polaris submarine base in Europe, to become mother ship to the new squadron.

The pending assignment of the nuclear submarines to Rota had been an open secret in the area for weeks.

There was no formal announcement in Madrid, but the commander of the Polaris squadron at Holy Loch, Capt. David Bell, confirmed the reports yesterday in disclosing the departure of the Proteus.

Naval sources in Rota said the new submarine squadron would use the Spanish base for maintenance and supply visits and for the periodic exchange of crews.

On each exchange the crew relieved is flown to the United States for rest and training.

However, a blumish in these relations is Spain's growing trade with Cuba. On Tuesday, the U.S. State Department said Spain will get no new U.S. aid until it repiles to an inquiry on what steps it is taking to curtail this trade.

The department added that existing aid programs will continue. Last year Spain received some $30 million in military assistance from the United States.

NO INCLINATION
Francis shows no inclination to curb commercial ties with Cuba. Talks are under way in Havana and Madrid on a swap of Spanish fishing vessels for Cuban sugar.

The Roman Catholic daily Ya warned the United States in an editorial today a cutoff in military assistance would mean breaking the pact that allow U.S. forces the use of Spanish bases.

"Is Washington aware of the consequences?" the paper asked. "We must recall that Spanish bases are the key to a strategic defense organization and concretely that Rota serves as a supply base for American submarines and as a place of rest for their crews."

The United States has had Polaris submarines on patrol in the Mediterranean almost a year. With a range of 1,725 miles, their missiles are capable of penetrating deep into the Soviet Union.

A tactical reason for the assignment of the submarine is the withdrawal of obsolete intermediate range ballistic missiles from Turkey and Italy.

Groups in both countries had objected to the presence of the U.S. missiles on the ground they made Italian and Turkish soil targets for Soviet attack.

Spanish sources considered the U.S. decision a compliment to Spain's political stability and its relations with the United States.

Orthodox Leader to Visit Detroit During U.S. Trip

DETROIT (UPI) — Monaghan, 51, a prominent patriarch of the Eastern Orthodox Church and leader of 250 million members of the religious group, will pay the first visit ever to the United States by a cleric of his rank.

His schedule includes a visit to Detroit in November.

Detroit is the seat of the Seventh Diocese.

The patriarch has made only one other trip to the United States, in 1944, when he was archbishop of North and South America.
