Senior Brunch introduces OU grads to AAAP

In recognition of Oakland University students who graduated in December 2008, the Oakland University Alumni Association (OUAA) and Alumni Admissions Ambassador Program (AAP) partnered to host the first Senior Brunch on December 4. More than 100 December graduates, ranging from doctoral candidates to undergraduate seniors, enjoyed the Senior Brunch with good food, reflecting on shared memories with fellow graduates and current alumni.

Graduates learned how the AAP can help them stay involved with the university wherever their career paths lead. Whether attending graduate school out-of-state or entering the workforce, the AAP provides opportunities for alumni to volunteer their time and actively recruit prospective students to Oakland University. Young alumni who communicate their OU experience to prospective students and families in their community provide unmatched credibility.
