Mayor Taylor Hails Metro Stadium Committee's Action

Pontiac Mayor William H. Taylor Jr. hailed as wise and sound a blue-ribbon committee's recommendation that apparently favors Pontiac as the site for a new domed professional sports stadium.

The Metropolitan Stadium Committee, made up of leading citizens from Detroit and the surrounding area, recommended earlier this week that the site be either Pontiac, Walled Lake or Taylor Township. This eliminated from consideration two sites in Detroit, the riverfront and State Fairgrounds.

★ ★ ★

Of the remaining sites in consideration, Pontiac obviously is the most favorable and furthest along in its planning, Mayor Taylor said.

"The committee's action is certainly most encouraging to the community and its future. I'm sure everyone who's concerned will follow up on the recommendation and do his utmost to see that the teams decide to follow the wise advice that has been offered them."

19-1 VOTE REPORTED

The Metropolitan Committee reportedly met on Wednesday and took a 19-1 vote in favor of the three out-of-Detroit sites. Several Oakland County members were not present at the meeting due to its conflict with the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce dinner that night. Committee membership is 34 but others were absent due to inclement weather, it was reported.

Pontiac made a presentation to the committee on Sept. 11 that widely was hailed as impressive.

★ ★ ★

The city outlined a proposal for a 65,000-seat all-weather domed stadium that would cost at least $40 million. It would be located at the junction of I-75 and M59, termed an ideal spot because of its nearness to population centers, accessibility and huge amount of vacant land for parking.

Last month the city, moving quickly, appointed a five-member building authority to proceed with plans and negotiations if Pontiac is selected.

Scorpion Disaster Still Puzzles Navy

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Navy is pinning its hopes for solving the mystery of the Scorpion submarine disaster on its deep-diving bathyscape Trieste II which will begin a new underwater search in the spring.

A court of inquiry report released in summary yesterday said that despite 12,000 photographs of Atlantic floor debris, the Navy still is unable to say what happened to the nuclear sub last May.

The $40-million craft disappeared with a crew of 99 officers and men while en route home after a Mediterranean training operation. After an extensive search, her wreckage was located Oct. 29 some 10,000 feet deep and 460 miles southwest of the Azores.

After hearing 90 witnesses and piling up 1,334 pages of testimony during 11 weeks, the seven-man court of inquiry said:

"The certain cause of the loss of Scorpion cannot be ascertained from any evidence now available."

FURTHER EFFORT

The court recommended a further effort be made to photograph the wreckage and the Navy said the Trieste II would go out into the Atlantic about April for on-the-spot observation and additional photographs of the Scorpion hull.

The court of inquiry ruled out two possible causes of the loss of the Scorpion.

The Scorpion did not hit a seamount, or underwater ridge, "since there is none in the area where the submarine went to the bottom," the Navy reported.

The nuclear reactor plant also was dismissed as a possible cause of the loss.

Nixon's Crime Fight May Snag on Legal Barrier

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon's recommendations for fighting the rising crime in Washington put him on record as favoring preventive jailing of hard-core criminal repeaters — a concept the White House says may raise constitutional problems.

But, at the same time he suggested tough new steps against criminals, Nixon called for a full-fledged public defender program to protect the rights of poor people charged with crime.

The crime program, biggest step the new President has taken in an area that was a major campaign issue last fall, capped a day yesterday during which Nixon visited an area of the capital torn by riots last spring.

The President called together his National Security Council today for the fourth time since taking office with the No. 1 subject tension in the Middle East.

2ND CHURCH SERVICE

Nixon also scheduled a second church service in the White House Sunday, with the Rev. Dr. Richard C. Halverson, pastor of the Fourth Presbyterian Church in suburban Bethesda, Md., to preside. Last week evangelist Billy Graham, a Baptist, led a service.

★ ★ ★

The Nixons wound up the day with a white tie reception for the ambassadors and chiefs of mission from 115 countries, telling them all countries had "an obligation to settle our differences peacefully."

★ ★ ★

In his crime program, Nixon proposed more policemen, judges and prosecutors for the District of Columbia. He also called for a $700,000 public defender program and pledged a major effort to rebuild parts of the Negro slums burned out during the riots last April.

He also reiterated his support for home rule for the district.

'We Like Kids'

Couple Adopts 10

FRESNO, Calif. (AP) — "We like kids."

That was Andrew Bauer's answer yesterday when asked why he and his wife — with four youngsters of their own — adopted the 10 Morris orphans.

★ ★ ★

The Bauer children range in age from 4 to 12; the Morris children from 3 to 17.

Things seemed a bit hectic at the Bauer home, last night when a newsman asked Bauer, 34, a salesman, and his wife, 32, how things were going. The Morris youngsters arrived in their new home — a large house in one of the city's older sections — in the afternoon.

'TOO TIED UP'

"We're just too tied up now to talk," said Mrs. Bauer. "There are so many things that have come up."

Bauer said they adopted the orphans because "we like kids," and then said: "Really, I can't talk more. I've got to get going."

They declined to let the children talk, saying they wanted to preserve their privacy.

The Morris children, from nearby Madera, were orphaned last July when their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morris, were killed in a four-car crash. They have been staying with a paternal aunt, Gloria Graves, in Concord, Calif.

But Mrs. Graves asked the Madera County Superior Court to relocate them because of "personal reasons."

★ ★ ★

The children were brought to Fresno a week ago and had been living with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bolis Lachawicz.

Judge Jack Hammerberg declined to comment on the move other than to say he had approved Mrs. Graves' request and that the Bauers have an adequate income and a large home.

Hammerberg said several other homes were thoroughly investigated before the Bauers were selected. The Bauers, like the children, are Roman Catholics, and were among the more than 100 families to offer the Morris children a home during a custody hearing last August.

★ ★ ★

Along with the offers of adoption, contributions of more than $50,000 came in after 17-year-old Kathy Morris pleaded with authorities to let the children stay together.

The money has been placed in a trust fund for the children's education.

Lapeer County Blaze Kills 7; Three Escape

ATTICA (UPI) — Five children and their parents burned to death in their mobile trailer home near this southeastern Michigan town this morning.

The three surviving children escaped, one of them carrying his baby sister.

Lapeer County sheriff's deputies identified the victims as: Raymond W. King, 41; his wife Alice, 32; George, 6; Diane, 7; Charles, 8; Mildred, 10; and Allan, 13.

Raymond Jr., 16, told police he was awakened by the smoke, grabbed Candy, 2, and raced outside with her. He put her into the family car, but flames prevented him from getting back into the house to rescue the others.

CRAWLS TO SAFETY

In the meantime, James, 11, smashed a rear window of the home and crawled out, police said.

The blaze was discovered at about 5 a.m., and the state fire marshal was investigating its cause.

The mobile home was brand new, and the Candy Mobile Home Court where it was parked had been open for only one year.

Flash

A woman, identified as Mrs. Florence Douglas, 1445 Ranch, Rose Township, was killed this morning when the car she was driving veered off slippery North Milford Road in Highland Township and struck a tree, according to Oakland County sheriff's deputies.

Dismal Weather Seen for Weekend

Clouds rolling in last night brought a light freezing drizzle to the Pontiac area. Sidewalks and roads were slippery early this morning.

The U. S. Weather Bureau forecasts a dismal, dreary weekend. Here is the official report:

TODAY—Mostly cloudy and not much temperature change. High in the mid-30s. Tonight partial clearing and cool, becoming cloudy by morning. Low 23 to 28.

TOMORROW — Cloudy, with chance of light snow and freezing rain. Not much change in temperature. High 30 to 35.

MONDAY—Continued cool and chance of snow.

Winds will be light and variable tonight at five to 15 miles per hour and southeast at five to 15 miles tomorrow.

Probabilities of precipitation are 20 per cent today, 30 per cent tonight, and 50 per cent tomorrow.

Twenty-nine was the low temperature prior to 8 a.m. in downtown Pontiac. The recording was 32 at 2 p.m.

Army Briefs Supervisors in Secret ABM Session

A trio of U.S. Army representatives briefed a county board of supervisors committee behind closed doors yesterday on plans for a Pontiac-area Sentinel antiballistic missile site.

Excluded from the two-hour meeting at Oakland County Service Center were four newspaper reporters and two citizens — representatives of WOMAN (Women Opposed to Missiles and Nuclear Warheads).

★ ★ ★

Niles Olson, chairman of the planning, zoning and building committee, told reporters prior to the meeting that it was Army policy to exclude the press and public.

He contended that Army representatives were under orders not to proceed with the briefing if the press or public participated.

★ ★ ★

After the closed door session, Olson said the meeting was just to inform the county of the Army's plans to locate a Sentinel base in Oakland County.

Both Olson and committee member Carl O'Brien, D-Pontiac, confirmed that one of the half-dozen sites being considered is the Oakland-Orion Airport, which the county owns and plans to expand.

★ ★ ★

O'Brien said he protested the exclusions. He said when the meeting began he asked the Army representatives if the information at the briefing was restricted or classified.

"They said it wasn't restricted, but just didn't want the press and public to know," O'Brien explained.

★ ★ ★

Committee members said slides were shown during the briefing and the criteria for site selection were explained. This included the tactical advantage of the Oakland County sites under consideration, the cost of establishing such sites and the public impact.

★ ★ ★

Olson said there was no specific information for the committee to act on.

Among those excluded was Mrs. Win Fredericks, secretary of WOMAN. Mrs. Fredericks said she already had been told she couldn't talk at the meeting, but attended to gain more information.

★ ★ ★

No decision has yet been made on a site for an ABM base in the Pontiac area. Several sites are being considered with selection expected late this month.

Before the nuptials, Mrs. Ryman had fallen on ice and suffered a broken left leg, so the ceremony uniting Miss Edith Willis and Joseph Stowers was switched from a church to the chapel of Baptist Memorial Hospital.

State Recognition of MCOM Possible in '69

LANSING (UPI) — State aid for Michigan's first osteopathic college may not materialize this year but the next best thing, state recognition, is a strong possibility.

The college is under construction at Auburn and Opdyke, on Pontiac's East Side.

Under a bill introduced in the Senate by Sen. Raymond D. Dzendzel, D-Detroit, the governor would appoint an eight-member control board for the Michigan College of Osteopathic Medicine (MCOM). The state would be required to make an annual appropriation to it, though no figure is suggested.

"There will probably be nothing appropriated this year," Dzendzel said in an interview yesterday. "Getting approval for the college and setting up the board will be the most done this year."

PLAN TO GO AHEAD

The Michigan Association of Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons announced plans last November to build the college.

The first class would enter in the fall of 1969. Association officials said they welcome state aid but will go ahead with the school no matter what.

The initial building will cost the association $500,000 and plans are to assess individual osteopaths to finance it.

★ ★ ★

"We've been trying for years to do something about the shortage of medical schools in the state," Dzendzel said. "This bill lost in the House last year by one vote. I'm hopeful we can get it through this year by convincing the members of the necessity."

But, Dzendzel warned, "if classes begin in Pontiac next fall, it will be strictly on their own."

An osteopathic college was not mentioned in Gov. William G. Milliken's

Reds Hit U.S Base; Key S. Viet Hurt

SAIGON (AP) — About 500 North Vietnamese troops attacked a U.S. base 43 miles northwest of Saigon while terrorists struck three times in the capital today, one attack wounding a key staff general of President Nguyen Van Thieu.

The night assault on the infantry base cost the Americans two dead, 31 wounded and a helicopter shot down, the 1,008th lost in combat in the war. The four crewmen were rescued uninjured. First reports said only three enemy soldiers were killed.

* * *

Twice the North Vietnamese tried to drive into the base under cover of a five-hour barrage of 160 mortar shells. They were beaten back by U.S. bombers, helicopter gunships and artillery.

U.S. spokesmen said several artillery barrages were fired into one group of 30 enemy soldiers illuminated by flares dropped from planes as they moved toward the base. But the effect of the barrages was not immediately determined.

LIGHT PLANE DOWNED

The U.S. Command reported one light observation plane was shot down yesterday about 25 miles north of Saigon. It was the 339th U.S. fixed-wing aircraft lost in combat over South Vietnam. The pilot escaped uninjured.

* * *

Eleven persons, including Maj. Gen. Nguyen Van Kiem and four of his body guards, were wounded in the three terrorist attacks in Saigon. A ground attack on a hamlet south of Da Nang and two overnight shellings, including one against the old imperial capital of Hue, killed seven Vietnamese civilians and wounded 15 others, a spokesman said.

* * *

The South Vietnamese government made public another in a series of protest notes in the International Control Commission denouncing "acts of terrorism and sabotage directed against the people of the Republic of Vietnam.

* * *

Kiem suffered a broken leg after two men on a motorcycle hurled an American grenade and two homemade bombs at his car. Eyewitnesses said Kiem and his four bodyguards managed to jump from their vehicles before the bombs exploded.

SUSPECT ARRESTED

Government spokesmen said a suspect was arrested shortly after the attack, but they would not elaborate.

Four civilians and two civil defense corps youths were wounded in another terrorist bombing 300 yards from the Senate building, and two men on a motorcycle also tossed a pack of explosives into a parking lot used by American cars. No casualties were reported and only one car was damaged.

* * *

Kiem, 45, was the second high-ranking victim of terrorists in less than a month. Education Minister Le Minh Tri was fatally wounded Jan. 6 when a bomb blew up his car.

State Program for Elderly Hit

Nursing Home Dispute Boils

A dispute that has been brewing for several months between the state and the Michigan Nursing Home Association (MNHA) over the implementation of a new state program for the care of the elderly ill is rapidly coming to a full boil.

BOYCE

"A disparity exists between the standards set by the state of Michigan and what it is willing to pay," said Basil F. Boyce, 118 Terry St., Rochester, MNHA president.

He explained, "The basic problem is how much the state, with matching funds from the federal government, should pay in daily rates for the care of the elderly ill in private nursing homes for patients who receive government funds."

The state now pays $14 daily for "skilled" patients, who require more intensive care, and $12 daily for "basic" patients, who need minimum levels of care. This formula was developed by a study committee appointed by former Gov. George Romney.

HOMES CLASSIFIED

Effective Jan. 1, various private nursing homes in the state were classified by the State Health Department as either "skilled" or "basic," depending on the rating of their facilities and staffs, Boyce said.

He continued, "As of Thursday there has been no rate announced for nursing homes for the month of January and no programs presented to the MNHA regarding the transfer of 'basic' patients who are in 'skilled' nursing homes and vice versa."

* * *

This entails the transfer of some 6,000 sick elderly people, he said, adding that 1,500 new patients, mostly elderly, are admitted to nursing homes monthly. Their admission will not be possible unless a definite program can be worked out with the state, Boyce added.

"It is the view of the MNHA that the 'basic-skilled' program is totally unworkable because the state looks at the care of the aged as a warehousing problem with no consideration for the patient," Boyce said.

He added there is a lack of willingness on the part of the state to negotiate with the MNHA for a workable program.

The MNHA unanimously adopted recommendations at a mass meeting for members Thursday at the Lansing Civic Center. They include:

* * *

- No more medicaid or public assistance patients will be accepted by the 270 nursing homes after tomorrow.
- A detailed cost report form being sent out by a study committee appointed last year by Gov. Romney will be returned unanswered.
- Until a "workable program" is established, nursing homes should not permit state social and health workers on their premises to classify patients.
- The MNHA will assist members in starting lawsuits against the state for collection of $2.5 million in reportedly overdue reimbursements.

TRYING TO PROVIDE

Boyce said the nursing homes are trying to provide the best possible service, but rising costs plus conflicting interpretations of legal requirements have forced them to take this stand.

In Oakland County, he said, there are about 46 nursing homes housing approximately 2,000 patients, 50 per cent of whom receive government matching funds.

Snow, Sleet, Fog, Thaw

January Offered Variety

Like variety? Then January 1969 must have filled the bill. Oakland County residents were treated to subzero cold, paralyzing sleet storms, dense fog, thawing rains, sunshine and springlike breezes.

New Year's Day found the mercury plummeting ... minus four degrees, the month's low. The previous January's low of minus five degrees also was reached on New Year's Day.

* * *

The high for the month occurred Thursday when the temperature bounced to a welcome 50 degrees. Last year's January high of 43 degrees blanketed the area in dense fog.

Mean temperature for the month was 22.7 degrees as compared to the January 1968 mean of 21.2 degrees.

SNOWFALL LESS

Snowfall totaled 19 inches in January, 1.5 inches less than January 1968. Rainfall registered 1.6 inches last month, six/tenths of an inch more than January 1968.

The largest single snowfall fell Jan. 6, when nine inches blanketed the ground to delight snowmobile enthusiasts and skiers.

* * *

Sleet turned the trees into a fairyland and the county's roads into a nightmare Tuesday, causing schools to close.

Sunshine fought its way through the cloud cover on only 15 days during the month.

NATIONAL WEATHER—Snow is forecast for tonight in the eastern Great Lakes states, the Dakotas and the Pacific Northwest. Rain is expected along the western part of the Gulf Coast, extending into the lower Mississippi Valley. Warmer weather is due in the northern Rockies and Plains states, with little change elsewhere.

Big Event Near at Black Center

An open house to cap the Pontiac Black Cultural Center's Grand Opening Week will be held tomorrow from 2 to 4 p.m.

The center, located at the corner of Wilson and South Sanford, will offer free education, vocational training and culture to jobless youths and high school dropouts.

Oakland University donated $20,000 last summer to turn what was once a shabby drugstore into a modern storefront classroom. The donation also was earmarked to help operate the project for the first six months.

Materials for the remodeling were donated by both white and black individuals and firms.

In the near future, Oakland University professors will teach freshman exploratory courses in the humanities and sciences in a program to help Negroes enter the university. Activities for senior citizens also are planned.

Al Munson, director of the center, said the staff will be available for suggestions of programs and displays, at the open house tomorrow.

He said the public is invited to attend.

Supervisors' Pay Eyed

LANSING (UPI) — Michiganders are "fed up with county boards going after large salaries for themselves," Rep. Weldon O. Yeager, R-Detroit, believes. He's drafted a bill to cut their pay checks.

"A great many people have told me they are thoroughly disgusted with the situation," Yeager said yesterday. "Some of these boards are just abusing a privilege to set their salaries. It's time the supervisors realize we mean business and aren't going to let them get away with any fantastic salary they come up with."

News in Brief

PARIS (AP) — The Vietnam peace talks are bogged down after only two sessions on precisely the procedural arguments that delegates voted to bypass. It took 14 hours of speechmaking in the first two meetings for the conference to come full circle, back to arguing about what to discuss first. On Jan. 18 the United States, South Vietnam, North Vietnam and the Vietcong's National Liberation Front had hoped to avoid such time-wasting arguments by agreeing to proceed without an agenda.

Fast-Time Recount Fails

LANSING (AP) — Unofficial statewide returns from the daylight savings time recount, which was completed yesterday, indicate Michigan voters defeated DST last Nov. 5 by just 488 votes.

Bid to Block Pay Hike Near

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate plans Tuesday to take up a resolution to block a congressional pay raise, but it is given little chance of success. Despite continuing opposition by some members in both houses of Congress, the general view on Capitol Hill is that the salary increase will take effect as scheduled Feb. 14.

Oil Slick Still Threatens

SANTA BARBARA, Calif. (AP) — A sluggish giant oil slick stretched out over a 200 square mile area of the Pacific Ocean today and officials still had no idea how to clean up the mess. Winds pushed oil toward beaches, then away again, but a thin film of oil had washed ashore along 14 miles of shoreline just south of Santa Barbara.

Cousins, owner of the City Beverage Co., gave some of the details facing the group.

* * *

Providing Pontiac gets the final nod, a package proposal citing costs and other details would be presented to the two teams, he said. A letter of intent from both of them would be required. Both teams need to agree to the site or it is unfeasible, Cousins said.

* * *

The approval of the City Commission would then be needed for the proposal and bond issue. Cousins pointed out it would be necessary to have a bond issue that would be self-liquidating (paid off from revenues) so no tax monies would be needed from property owners.

* * *

Concurrently with financial arrangements, negotiations would be going on for architectural planning and construction, Cousins said. His target date for full operations was estimated at the 1971-72 season.

proposed fiscal 1969-70 budget, though he recommended extending Michigan State University's medical school to a four-year program.

The only financial assistance the osteopathic college has received from the state thus far has been a $125,000 study and planning grant.

Sen. Carles O. Zollar, R-Benton Harbor, head of the Senate Appropriations Committee commented: "The Legislature can do anything it wants to about financing. But there is no room for new programs in next years budget."

Zollar suggested the proposed college of osetopathy be made part of the expanded MSU medical school as an alternative to state financing of a separate structure.

Rep. William R. Copeland, D-Wyandotte, chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, also was discouraging about the possibility of state aid for the college this year.

Sales in 1968 Reach Record for Kuhlman

BIRMINGHAM — Sales at Kuhlman Corp., based here, reached a record $48,193,904 during 1968. Revenue in 1967 totaled $45,835,192.

Earnings in 1968 totaled $2,359,303 down from the $2,601,727 in the previous year.

* * *

H. E. Greenwalt, president, said 1968 was the fifth consecutive year in which sales have shown an increase over the previous year. Earnings were the second highest in the company's history.

Greenwalt explained that the 10 per cent federal surcharge and increased state income taxes were the primary factors contributing to lower net earnings.

LBJ's Mum on Lack of Funds for RFK Grave

By JOSEPH E. MOHBAT
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Lyndon B. Johnson's final budget message omitted mention of a Defense Department recommendation of $431,000 to provide public access routes to a grave in Arlington National Cemetery for Robert F. Kennedy.

A spokesman for Johnson, asked Friday why the former president omitted the item, said Johnson "would have nothing at all to say on the subject."

Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, the sole surviving Kennedy brother, said Friday he hoped construction of a grave for Robert Kennedy could begin this spring with some public and some private financing.

A spokesman said the senator would have no comment on the failure of the Johnson administration to include the Pentagon's budget recommendation in the budget published Jan. 15. But it was apparent Kennedy was surprised and disappointed over the omission.

AMOUNT CONSIDERED

A Budget Bureau source said the amount recommended by the Defense Department was taken into consideration when Johnson, submitting his budget message five days before leaving office, listed $150 million for contingencies.

This leaves it up to the Nixon administration whether to seek from Congress specific funds for work on the Kennedy grave before the contingency authorization expires June 30.

★ ★ ★

President Nixon must request the sum in a supplemental appropriation bill, or a congressman must include it in an amendment to such a bill, if the money is to be forthcoming.

The Kennedy family cannot begin construction of the grave with its own money until Congress provides funds for the Army Engineers to do their work.

IN A PLAIN GRAVE

Robert Kennedy was assassinated last June as he left a celebration of his victory in the California presidential primary. His body lies in a plain grave, marked only with a white wood-en cross, a few yards from the more elaborate grave of his presidential brother.

The cost of John Kennedy's grave was about $2 million, with Congress paying $1.77 million for access routes and public facilities, the Kennedy family covering the $309,000 cost of the grave area itself.

There is no precedent for allotting a quarter-acre gravesite in an overcrowded national cemetery to a senator. President William Howard Taft rests in a much more modest plot.

But the Taft grave has few visitors, while thousands are drawn to Robert Kennedy's temporary gravesite. This stream of witnesses to a double national and family tragedy might be expected to continue even after Robert Kennedy's grave is moved.

STORY PIECED TOGETHER

The story of the attempt to get public money for public access to a new, family-financed grave for Robert Kennedy was pieced together Friday from a number of informed sources, none of whom wished to be quoted by name.

According to these sources:

Architect I. M. Pei, designer of President Kennedy's grave, submitted to the Kennedy family a design for Robert Kennedy's. Sen. Edward M. Kennedy and Mrs. Robert F. Kennedy approved it. Then it followed the same path the plans for the presidential grave had taken.

★ ★ ★

The Army Corps of Engineers approved it and recommended to the Department of the Army that $431,000 be spent to provide walkways and other facilities around the grave and preserve the architectural integrity of Arlington. The Kennedys planned to pay the cost of the gravesite itself—about $585,000.

The Army recommended to Secretary of Defense Clark M. Clifford that he ask President Johnson to include that amount in his budget proposal for fiscal 1970.

REQUEST FORWARDED

Paul H. Nitze, then deputy secretary of defense, made the request Dec. 18 in a letter to Budget Director Charles J. Zwick. A tentative plan was to place the younger Kennedy's grave on the hillside above and to the left of the president's, overlooking Washington. It would have involved about a quarter-acre of land.

Nitze said it was hoped construction would be started this summer: "Therefore, it is necessary to award the design contract promptly" to allow time "for quarrying and cutting stone in advance of actual construction."

Costs Are Cited in Sirhan Case

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Los Angeles County spent $370,416 on the Sirhan Bishara Sirhan case through Dec. 31, Supervisor Kenneth Hahn said Friday.

Testimony has yet to start in Sirhan's trial on charges of murdering Sen. Robert F. Kennedy last June. The trial recessed Thursday until Tuesday so the defense can analyze questionnaires on which Superior Court judges say how nominees are chosen for grand jury service. The 12 jurors have been chosen but six alternates still must be selected.

The defense wants the indictment quashed on the grounds the grand jury which indicated Sirhan was not representative of a community cross-section.

Man Accused by Informer to Stand Trial

A reputed Mafia lieuteant yesterday was ordered to stand trial in Oakland County Circuit Court on an extortion charge brought by underworld informer Peter Lazaros of Troy.

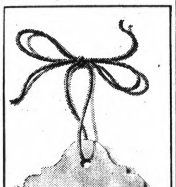

Peter V. Cavataio, stood mute to the charge, and Judge Robert L. Templin entered a plea of innocent in his behalf. His bond was continued at $5,000. No trial date was set.

★ ★ ★

Lazaros has accused Cavataio of threatening him and his family "with great bodily harm" unless he gave up his share of a Southfield restaurant, and an additional $5,000.

Cavatio, 38, of Grosse Pointe Park, was named in U.S. Senate hearings in 1963 as a Mafia lieutenant in the Detroit area.

Lazaros is being held in protective custody at his home where he has been telling State Police about underworld activities.

A Junior Editors Quiz About MINCE PIE

QUESTION: What's in a mince pie?

* * *

ANSWER: When the early colonists came to America, it was natural that they should bring Old World customs with them.

English people have long been accustomed to making meat pies, and so meat pies began to appear on the tables of American New England.

But there were also certain special food stuffs that the New England housewife almost always had in her kitchen. There were various spices, such as cinnamon, which New England sailing ships brought in from the Far East.

There were oranges, lemons and molasses, brought North as trade goods from the West Indies. And there were goods from their own farms — dried apples, raisins made from grapes, currants, cider, walnuts.

Putting these ingredients together with a bit of meat, suet and beef stock gave the rich tasting material called mincemeat.

It was quite reasonable that the colonists should have experimented with this as a pie filling, finding mince pie to fit in especially well with the season of harvest and Christmas. Much as we like mince pie, however, apple pie is still the national pie favorite.

(You can win $10 cash plus AP's handsome World Yearbook if your question, mailed on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of this newspaper, is selected for a prize.)

Picking College—10

Some Specialty Factors

(EDITOR'S NOTE — This is the 10th article in a series on the dos and don'ts to observe in selecting the right college for you.)

By ELLA MAZEL
NEA Publications

DECISION 9: Fraternities and Sororities.

Now we get down to the remaining factors that might enter into the picture for you in your process of elimination. For you, college may not be college at all if there are no fraternities or sororities to join.

On the other hand, you may detest this type of activity and would consider only colleges at which these social organizations are not present.

* * *

Then again, you may not care about them one way or another just so they don't run things.

In a small college, strong fraternities and sororities are likely to play a major role in campus life, and exclusion from the inner circle might be enough to make you miserable.

FOR 'INDEPENDENTS'

In a large school there is usually sufficient opportunity for "independents" regardless of the prominence of the Greek-letter societies.

If you are an "anti," consider this decision as it relates to your choice of school size.

* * *

Incidentally, girls looking for sororities are much more apt to find them in the coed colleges. The number of women's colleges that have these societies is remarkably small.

DECISION 10: For Boys Only — Sports and ROTC

One factor that might make the difference for you between two colleges that are more or less equal in all other respects is the availability of your favorite competitive sport.

To the extent that you are seriously interested in participating in intercollegiate or intramural athletics, you may want to limit your preliminary selections to the colleges that offer your particular form of activity.

* * *

Other things not being equal, however, you may have to be ready to switch rather than fight it.

My son, for example, had gone out for ice hockey in high school, but the college he's entering doesn't have it and he's ready to try out for lacrosse — on the theory, I suppose, that it's another good way to bash or be bashed with a stick.

* * *

Availability of ROTC may also be relevant to your selection.

If you are interested in trying for this program in one of the services, you will look for the colleges that offer it. If you are not, you will want to watch out for those where at least one year of such training is compulsory.

'Lost' Weekend for Surgery Growing Worry in Hospitals

By DICK ROBINSON

"Why can't hospitals perform nonemergency-type operations on weekends and thereby reduce the patient's stay and hospital bill?" a woman in a hospital waiting room was overheard asking.

That's a question which is concerning more and more hospital administrators.

* * *

Hospitals are one of the biggest businesses in the United States. Most of them still operate on a five-day week.

Some hospitals, like Pontiac General, are trying to overcome the five-day tradition by performing nonemergency surgery six or seven days a week.

NOT EASY BREAK

But the break with tradition is not easy, as Pontiac General discovered. PGH scheduled operations six days a week for the past five months until last week, when it cut back to the old five-day week and what is termed a "lost weekend" operation.

Donald Carros, associate administrator of Pontiac General, explains the return to the lost weekend this way:

"There is a reluctance — an inherent reluctance of society — of surgeons and other surgery personnel to work on Saturdays.

* * *

"They like to play golf as well as the other fellow. There are distinct advantages of the seven-day week but the problem is to motivate people."

Pontiac General has been cited as one of the few hospitals in the country to experiment with a more than five-day week.

"More and more hospitals are becoming interested in the seven-day week," Carros comments, "but it's slow fighting the traditions of society.

"I hope we can return to the six-day week sometime."

* * *

All Pontiac hospitals — General, St. Joseph Mercy and Osteopathic — are on five-day schedules. But they do operate in emergencies on weekends.

A seven-day week lessens a surgery patient's stay when costs are spiraling and beds are at a premium, it has been found.

STAY REDUCED

Eighteen months after the full-week schedule went into effect at New York's Albany Medical Center Hospital, the average length of a patient stay — except for pediatrics, psychiatrics and tuberculine — was reduced by one-half day.

The seven-day week has been successful there since 1964, according to Dr. Ferdinand Haase Jr., medical director.

The Health Insurance Institute, citing figures from the American Hospital Association, notes that the cost of an average hospital stay has more than doubled in the last decade.

Most hospitals have remained on the five-day week because there is a reluctance to give up proven methods, a shortage of skilled employes and the belief that only large hospitals will be able to lengthen weeks without losing money.

'IT'S RIDICULOUS'

"It's ridiculous to hospitalize a patient on Friday and force him to wait until Monday or Tuesday for surgery because operations aren't done on Saturdays," Robert Y. Garrett Jr., administrator of Cooper Hospital, Camden, N.J., notes.

Ralph Lowns, administrator of St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Pontiac, says seven-day surgery is not widely accepted primarily because sensitive surgeons aren't "enthusiastic" for working time and a half on weekends.

* * *

"Our administration wants to be progressive but we only go with the proven successful trends," he adds.

Pontiac General Hospital performed 8,289 operations in 1968. PGH has 48 surgeons on its staff and six major surgery rooms and two minor surgery rooms.

A total of 7,261 operations were done at St. Joseph's last year. There are 55 staff surgeons and five major surgical suites and one minor surgery suit there.

Reduce Air Pollution

Many months of cooperative effort between General Motors Corporation and the City of Pontiac began to bear fruit recently when the first portion of Pontiac Motor Division's multi-million dollar program to eliminate foundry air pollution went into effect.

It was a milestone when Pontiac Motor Division officials threw the switch to feed power to its first electric-arc furnace. There will eventually be five electric furnaces to replace the present coke-fired cupolas at the Pontiac iron foundry.

★ ★ ★

Division officials have long recognized air pollution problems created by the foundry and have worked in collaboration with city officials for several years studying other electric furnace systems to assure the best possible solution here in Pontiac.

The entire program exhibits a dedicated interest in community betterment on the part of General Motors Corp. Furthermore, the new furnaces will not only relieve the air pollution problem, but will ultimately make a major undeveloped portion of northeast Pontiac more attractive to developers.

★ ★ ★

We heartily commend Pontiac Motor Division for its decision to face the air pollution problem squarely and expend so much money and effort in combating that problem with the most modern equipment.

City Finances Look Good

Pontiac's fiscal budget for 1969, beginning Jan. 1, which was given preliminary approval at the Jan. 14 meeting of the City Commission and awaits formal adoption next Tuesday, paints a healthy financial picture of the City's finances.

Although the $10,177,620 budget sets a new high—$2 million over last year—the increased spending is more than offset by the inflow of $3 million from the City income tax and the City's share of the State income tax, both effective last year.

★ ★ ★

The picture is even brighter for fiscal 1969, since the combined income tax windfall for 1968 does not reflect full 12-month periods for either the State's, or the City's income taxes.

★ ★ ★

Since the City property tax was reduced last year from 10 to 7 mills on the adoption of the local income tax and the City Manager declares no tax increase is necessary to meet the 1969 budget, Pontiac residents have cause for deep satisfaction over their City's financial position.

Moreover, such felicity is further enhanced by comparison with the money problems of many other cities (Detroit is a prime example), where budget figures are being written in red ink and sources of additional tax revenue all but dried up.

★ ★ ★

Yes, Pontiac is a great place to live—in more ways than one.

JA Observes Anniversary

Tomorrow winds up National Junior Achievement Week, marking the 50th year of the organization's existence.

At a time when American youth needs leadership in cultivation of self-help, traits of good citizenship and development of latent talents as never before, JA plays an increasingly significant role in the lives of teen-agers.

★ ★ ★

The young people are instructed in various forms of handicraft, taught the rudiments of business and marketing and encouraged to set up "companies" to sell the products of their efforts.

★ ★ ★

The local JA branch, established in 1950 with headquarters on East Pike Street, currently has 120 young 'entrepreneurs' pursuing their various skill and business bents over a nine-month period of schooling.

Scheduled in Detroit for district observance of its golden anniversary were a full week of JA activities which, among other events, honored the top 10 male achievers from Michigan's southeast JA district, at an Economic Club luncheon, a luncheon salute to the 320 presidents of JA companies in the district, and a recognition dinner for 1,000 of the district's volunteer advisers.

Export-Import Bank Makes Money

By EVERETT DIRKSEN

DIRKSEN

The number of federal departments or agencies that make money to turn over to the U.S. Treasury for the benefit of the people could be counted on the fingers of one hand. Most bureaus, commissions, authorities or banks under control of the government are great spenders that never seem to make ends meet.

There is, however, in these days of new hope for our country, a federal establishment that could well be an example to every department of government. It makes money on its operations, and it declares an annual dividend to the Treasury. This outstanding example of a successful government operation is the Export-Import Bank. It is one of the best agencies we have ever created.

The Export-Import Bank supports about 10 per cent of all U.S. commercial exports sold on credit.

The band was created in 1934 for the purpose of giving help to foreign governments to finance the purchase of American goods and services, of assisting American exporters and of providing our importers with insurance and guarantees.

Examples of its operations would be the financing of American-built jet transport airplanes for sale to foreign governments, the financing of construction of electric power plants, steel mills, textile plants, synthetic rubber plants, grain storage facilities and an almost endless variety of other overseas enterprises. The Export-Import Bank's operations cover virtually every non-Communist country on earth.

Generally speaking, most countries do not have adequate cash resources with which to make large purchases from the United States. Nor do our American manufacturers and exporters command the cash and credit to permit them to tie up capital in long-term financing to foreign nations.

It is then that the Export-Import Bank steps in when requested, and, by means of loans, guarantees and insurance, makes it possible for the sale of our goods and services to be consummated.

The bank has been exceedingly prudent in its financing of our exports and has shown a remarkably high rate of profit, a profit that is now running more than $100 million a year. Of that amount, $50 million is paid to the U.S. Treasury and the balance goes into the bank's reserves.

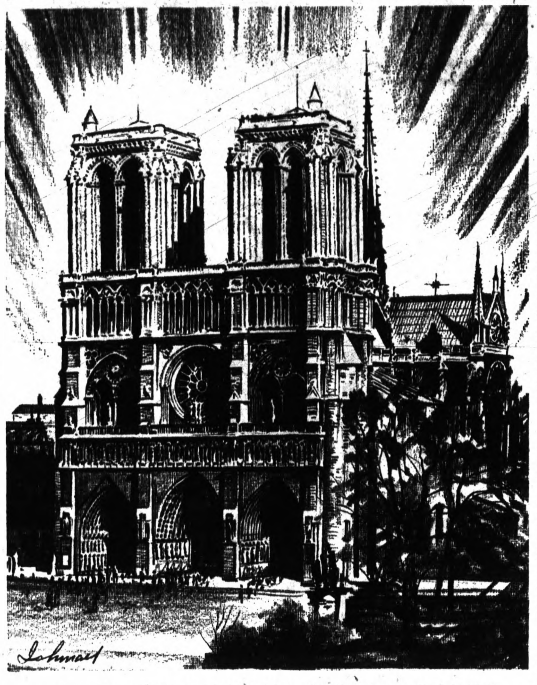

★ ★ ★

Since it began operations in the depths of the Great Depression, the Export-Import Bank has authorized loans and guarantees in excess of $22 billion. This does not include the private capital which U.S. corporations, banks and other organizations have invested in this type of business.

In all that time — 35 years — the bank has paid well over $800 million in interest or the money it was authorized by the Congress to borrow, it has built up a reserve of more than $1.1 billion and, best of all, it has paid in excess of $600 million in dividends to the Treasury.

The POWER of FAITH

BY WOODI ISHMAEL

Among the great churches of the world, the Cathedral of Notre Dame in Paris, France, is a monument to the religious history and faith of a city and a nation.

Situated on the eastern tip of the Isle de la Cite (an island in the Seine River) it has stood for 800 years. The land has always been sacred. In carolingian times (7th to 9th centuries) there existed two churches, one dedicated to the Virgin Mary, the other to St. Stephen, and before that it was the site of ancient Pagan shrines.

The cornerstone for Notre Dame was laid by Pope Alexander III in 1163 and the building of the Cathedral lasted for nearly 200 years. It holds some of the finest examples of early Gothic architecture and sculpture and the great Rose Window is one of the most beautiful stained-glass windows of 13th century art.

This artist-writer recently had the stirring experience of attending a Sunday morning service in one of the many chapels around the chancel. The early morning sunlight streamed through the great Rose Window and played on the faces around me as it had done on others for hundreds of years. There was an aura of intense reverence and peace. Walking through the Cathedral one senses the security and lasting qualities of faith, for it was echoed in each stone of this national shrine.

Confident Living:

Avoid Self-Inflicted Suffering

By NORMAN VINCENT PEALE

DR. PEALE

"Life is cruel," a Canadian woman wrote. "Problems and misery surround and almost choke me.

"I try so hard," she wrote, "but the world comes crashing in on us even so. Nowhere have we been able to find help to solve our troubles or even to get relief from them. We are in desperate financial need. Our debts have accumulated because seven people are living on a salary hardly adequate for two. The children are all in their teens and all attending school, which is expensive business. And we have to eat and pay utilities and rent.

"I used to like people and practice good will toward all, but I have lost that clean way of thinking about others. I feel very resentful. Our situation is so bad that hope is gone."

★ ★ ★

In replying to this hopeless person I gave some time-tried rules for handling acute money problems and also ventured a few thoughts on the effects of resentment, with suggestions for overcoming it.

Some months later she wrote again. "I guess you can say I really 'believe' now. Your kind letter gave me the word I needed to understand myself and my problem. That word is 'resentment.' I see what the stumbling block has been. While priding myself on not being envious of other people's good fortune, I was resentful that it couldn't be mine too. So now I have a place to start, a mountain to remove, and I can and will do it!"

★ ★ ★

Later I heard from her once more: "At long last I am gaining a greater understanding of people and indeed of life itself. The older children have jobs after school now, and we all feel part of a team. It is wonderful. I just had to let you know that we really are coming along fine."

Do you have any resentments? Do you know that by harboring resentment you damage yourself? Resentful feelings complicate problems and impair effectiveness. They affect health too. Physicians assert that many ailments appear to stem from rankling animosities which the patients have kept bottled up.

The word "resentment" derives from Latin roots meaning to re-feel — to feel again. Someone wrongs or obstructs or wounds you. In resenting it you re-feel the injury. You re-hurt yourself. The Talmud says that a person who bears a grudge is "like one who, having cut one hand while handling a knife, avenges himself by stabbing the other hand."

★ ★ ★

The best way to avoid this self-inflicted suffering is to apply what I call "spiritual iodine" the moment anybody hurts you. Get your resentment healed at once, before it starts to fester. Psychiatrist Smiley Blanton used to say, "Practice being dispassionate. When someone does something mean, be scientific. Think, 'Now, why would he act that way? There must be a cause. I will try to find and remove it, so that there can be good rapport between us.'"

Once you have permitted resentment toward someone to embitter you, healing comes harder. In that case you may have to drain the wound. Pour out your grievance to a counselor. Or express it freely in a letter, then tear the letter up. Having done this, you are ready for the cure. It consists in completely forgiving the offending person. Only then, of course, is resentment really ended.

Now this you cannot do and at the same time cling to the idea that you had every right to be resentful. Neither can you do it without developing a sincere interest in the other person's well-being and success. It helps to look deeper, mentally, into the person who caused resentment, trying to see his good points and understand the problems he may have.

"If we could read the secret history of our enemies," wrote Longfellow, "we should find in each man's life sorrow and suffering enough to disarm all hostility."

Why re-hurt yourself? Skip resentment.

The moon is between its first quarter and full phase.

The morning stars are Mercury, Mars and Jupiter.

The evening stars are Saturn and Venus.

On this day in history:

In 1790 the United States Supreme Court held its first session, convening in New York City.

In 1898 Dr. Truman Martin of Buffalo, N.Y., was issued the first insurance policy covering an automobile driver.

In 1963 a Lebanese airliner and a Turkish air transport collided over Ankara, Turkey, killing 95 persons.

In 1968 Richard Nixon formally announced his candidacy for the Presidency.

Voice of the People:

Dealer Answers Critics on Servicing Autos

To Senator Philip A. Hart: This is to set the record straight with facts, and in the hope that it will correct the automobile dealer-serviceman image created by misleading and irresponsible testimony before your committee.

A factual study on 1,408 buyers of 1968 model Pontiac automobiles from Higgins Pontiac Company who remained in the Detroit area and, therefore, could be considered potential service customers revealed 802 returned to Higgins Pontiac Company for service other than repair covered by their warranty or that occasioned by collision (for which I don't think you can hold a dealer or a manufacturer responsible). These 802 owners had their cars in operation for a total of 7,783 months or a cumulative total of 649 years and spent a total of $23,744 for repair and maintenance during 1968; thus, their individual bills averaged $29.60. The service department of Higgins Pontiac, excluding the sale of parts, had a loss of $29,600 for 1968.

★ ★ ★

I ask why the automobile dealer is discriminated against in certain fields, and request your committee to take a look into this discrimination. The Automobile Club of Michigan, a monolithic, allegedly nonprofit organization, can sell insurance on automobiles, but dealers may not. Why? Banks can sell credit life insurance on automobiles they finance, but dealers may not. Why? The Automobile Club of Michigan also has moved into the automobile financing business, receiving a premium of $15 for each mortgage it passes on to banks.

★ ★ ★

Licensing of mechanics would be a stupendous blunder, bound to skyrocket already high wages which dealers have to pay to obtain service help. Much has been said about book averages for repair jobs. Experts figured the time a competent, average mechanic would need for a specific job on a specific model. At least a portion of the public benefits by use of "book averages." A person lucky enough to have a better-than-average mechanic assigned to his job would pay less than a person who might draw a below-average mechanic for the identical job did not the "book average" prevail.

★ ★ ★

Licensing of mechanics would not ease a shortage in this field, nor improve individual skills. Did the licensing of plumbers produce more plumbers, improve skills and lower costs? Did the licensing of barbers provide better haircuts at lower prices?

Reader Discusses the Parochiaid Issue

How many citizens have taken time to consider what parochiaid could do for Michigan? More than likely we would get an increase in population and taxation. Local and outside people who wished to educate their children in what they believe could enroll their children in private schools oriented in communism, fascism, Nazism; Jewish, protestant or Catholic beliefs, or what have you. What is offered to one cult or organization couldn't be denied another so long as the three Rs were taught under state standards.

★ ★ ★

We could then pat ourselves on the back for being the first state to support with tax a private school that may teach its students the arts of overthrowing governments.

Appearance of Protesters Prompts Letter

A recent picture showed the protest held at the court building on Lafayette. The pigeons that roost in art work at the top of the building are a credit to that photograph. Their mess is the work of Mother Nature. Long hair and greasy, unkempt appearance can be prevented. If people like that would take more pride in themselves and their surroundings and let the police take care of their duty without obstruction, the cities would have less trouble.

Question and Answer

When Tim Sullivan initiated the Sullivan Gun Law in N.Y.C., was he mayor of the city. Was he a Tammany Hallite? Has the law been in force for 56 years or longer?

L. F. B.

REPLY

The Sullivan gun law was passed in New York in 1884 and has been in force since then. Information from New York Public Library says Sullivan was not mayor but must be considered a "Tammany Hallite," even though he never became the official leader of Tammany Hall. We are sending you a biographical sketch of Sullivan from "Dictionary of American Biography."

Question and Answer

Now that prayer is banned in public schools, will it also be banned in public-supported non-public schools? Or will prayer be returned to public schools if we help support non-public schools? I believe in prayer in schools, but also believe the laws shouldn't be partial.

EDWARD M. LANGE JR.
MILFORD

REPLY

That is a question that would have to be resolved in the courts, if and when the situation you describe becomes a reality.

'Commend Citizen for Warning of Icy Road'

I commend a member of the REACT citizens road patrol who risked his life in the process of saving untold others recently on I-75 north of Baldwin. Although a three-car crash did develop due to ice across the road this heroic citizen was able to give enough warning to other drivers so they were able to avoid crashing into the wreckage in the danger area.

Comments on Proposal Favoring Renters

The latest proposal in favor of people who rent property in Michigan to have a percentage of their rent deducted from their income tax is one of the worst proposals introduced in this State. We who own our homes not only pay taxes on income but on schools, roads, sewers and all assessments required to keep the city moving and working. People that rent have nothing to pay but rent. If we homeowners improve our homes we are slapped with a higher assessment and taxes are raised.

* * *

We have been paying taxes in Pontiac for 26 years and even though we sent our daughters to a parochial school, we never complained about paying the school tax that helped send the renters' youngsters to school free. It would solve an enormous tax deficit if each child attending public schools were assessed a small amount per child or per family. That way the tax burden would be spread a little evener among all.

County Purchase of Estate Raises Questions

As a resident of Addison Township I feel that Mr. VanAtta deserves criticism for the recent purchase of the lavish Buhl Estate for $657,500. In this area we already have the Stoney Creek Park and the Bald Mountain Recreation Area, each consisting of hundreds of acres. I would like to know what it will cost to maintain the Buhl mansion, but most of all I would like to know Mr. VanAtta's qualifications for heading this new County bureau. This must be a bitter pill for the County Road Commission to swallow when they are in such desperate need of funds.

'Mailbox Was Safe Place to Leave Puppy'

The "mailbox puppy" could have been much worse. I'm not saying it was the right thing to do, but the person responsible for this act knew this puppy would be found and cared for. Mailboxes are opened every day. This animal could have been dropped on a lonely country road to starve, freeze, or be killed by an automobile. Maybe this person isn't the scoundrel the paper has made him out to be.

MRS. DORIS WARNER
1052 Shoman

Mr. Editor, may I risk heresy by suggesting to you and Louise that a mailbox might not be such a bad place to leave a puppy since it was probably relatively warm and the puppy would be sure to be found by someone who would see that it was taken care of. The "scoundrel" might have been a ten-year-old girl, distraught over what to do with the puppy mommy wouldn't let her keep, who was resourceful enough to think of leaving it in a safe place. I offer $5 to the clear-thinking individual who put the puppy in the mailbox, and suggest that you and Louise give your money to a more sensible cause.

Phone Call No Sub for Written Note

By ELIZABETH L. POST
of the Emily Post Institute

Dear Mrs. Post: I am a mother with small pre-school age children. I understand the necessity for writing thank you notes to out-of-town people who have remembered birthdays, etc.; however, must I write to close friends easily thanked in person or by telephone? It seems rather formal. — Mrs. J. Moore

★ ★ ★

Dear Mrs. Moore: I agree it is not necessary to send a note to a friend you can thank in person. However, I do not consider a telephone call a substitute for a note. People at birthday parties, showers, etc. can be warmly thanked and they can enjoy the recipient's enthusiasm, but a phone call is too easy a way out.

When someone has taken the trouble to choose a gift carefully, a short note in return is surely not too great an effort.

FUNERAL

Dear Mrs. Post: May I ask what the courtesy is regarding funerals. Do you, as a mourner, invite friends to attend? Do you, as a friend, offer to attend the funeral, take it for granted you would be expected, or wait to be asked? — Mrs. Collins

Dear Mrs. Collins: The funeral notice which appears in the obituary section of the newspaper serves as an "invitation" to the funeral. If it is to be private, the notice so states, and a member of the family of the deceased does invite personally the close friends they wish to have present.

When the hour and place of the funeral is stated, their friends are expected to attend without further invitation.

★ ★ ★

If there is no notice in the paper, you may call either the funeral director (if you know which one is making arrangements) or a member of the family and ask whether the funeral is private.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Dear Mrs. Post: My fiance and I have been attending an out-of-state school. We have many friends there who do not know of our plans to be married. Would it be proper to send an announcement to the paper in that town, stating also that we are students at the college?

We are not attending the winter semester, but are returning for the spring semester. — Sharon

★ ★ ★

Dear Sharon: By all means send an announcement to your school town paper. Put in a note, too, that Mr. and Mrs. Newlyweds will be returning to college for the spring term, so that your friends will know where and when they will be able to contact you.

Men Are Better as Bosses, American Women Insist

NEW YORK (AP) — Work for a woman? Never! That's the answer of American girls who were asked by The Associated Press if they agree with British women who responded to a nationwide psychological study by turning thumbs down on the idea of a woman boss.

★ ★ ★

"I wouldn't be caught dead working for a woman," said Diana Frankland, 30, a Boston brokerage secretary. "They're impossible as bosses."

★ ★ ★

"Women always seem to have a bone to pick," said another secretary—Joyce Forgette, 33, of Albuquerque. Mrs. Forgette said women are "just too bossy. Men are much more considerate."

★ ★ ★

The British survey was conducted by the National Institute of Industrial Psychology. The women were asked whom they preferred working for and who they thought superior — men or women.

★ ★ ★

More than 95 per cent of the British women said men make better bosses and nearly one-third admitted they thought men superior in general.

The girls on this side of the ocean agreed, although there were a few who opted for a distaff director.

★ ★ ★

"I prefer a man as boss. They're easier to get along with . . . A man will tell you what he wants done and let you do it," said Rita Strehl, a Burlingame, Calif., secretary who once worked for a woman.

★ ★ ★

Asked if she'd like to work for a woman, Joyce Covin, 25, a secretary at Texas Industries Inc. in Dallas, replied, "Oh damn no. I hate women — to work for that is. Their demands are not constructive like men's."

★ ★ ★

"Men can do everything better than women except have children," said a New Orleans schoolteacher, Sandra McDonald, 25.

TOO STRICT

A telephone company supervisor in Ohio — who asked not to be named — said, "My supervisor is a woman and I wish I had a man. A woman is sterner. A man is more understanding."

"Women are too back biting and devious," said Marge Anthony of Whittier, Calif., a housewife. "It's a rare woman who can be honest."

★ ★ ★

Among the women who disagreed with the majority was a Little Rock, Ark., housewife. "I don't prefer a man as a boss. I don't think men are superior," she said.

Asked why, she replied, "I'm married to a man."

Show Fashions to Help Library

The mothers' committee of Detroit Country Day School is sponsoring a "Bouquet of Fashion" at Oakland Hills Country Club Thursday.

★ ★ ★

The Troy branch of Saks Fifth Avenue will display its spring fashions at the luncheon event, with Joel Rath, manager, doing the commentary.

★ ★ ★

In addition to the professional adult models, eight youngsters from the Lower School will model children's fashions.

★ ★ ★

Cocktails will be served at noon, followed by the luncheon and fashions at 1:30 p.m.

★ ★ ★

Proceeds of this year's show will be used to augment the school library facilities and to provide more books.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Edson Pool of Bloomfield Village is general chairman. Assisting her are Mesdames Leo Bores; Walter C. Brown; Charles Duryea; William Prust; Joseph Roth and Richard Van Tiem.

★ ★ ★

The public may contact Mrs. Eugene Seeley of Clarendon Crest Court, Bloomfield Township, for ticket information and reservations.

Couple Understands Problem Better Than Their Children

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My problem concerns my parents — now both in their eighties. Dad is a retired rancher who enjoys a little chew of tobacco occasionally, and mother literally DETESTS this habit of his.

★ ★ ★

Dad is a distinguished looking gentleman. He is nice and clean and never dribbles tobacco juice around his lips, chin or the corners of his mouth. There is never any physical evidence to reveal his tobacco chewing. Furthermore he never chews in company—only when he's alone in the back yard.

Don't you think Mother should allow him this one small pleasure in their declining years? It has become a terrible source of bitterness between them. Perhaps if you will print this Mother will recognize herself and know that one of her three sons wrote it. Thank you.

HOUSTON POST READER

DEAR READER: I can't understand why you and your brothers can't get the word to your mother without the help of me and the Houston Post. Quietly tell your mother what you've told me—to allow her husband this "one small pleasure." If she remains unmoved, forget it. They understand each other better than you will ever understand either of them.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: I'd like an answer to my question immediately.

I've had three dates with a man and I could be interested in him. In fact, I am already, but this man wears a ring which looks as though it could be a wedding ring.

I'd like to keep the relationship going, but not if he's married. It seems to me if he were married and is only "playing around" he'd take the ring off rather than advertise it, right? But isn't it rude to pry into a man's personal life and ask if he's married? INTERESTED

DEAR INTERESTED: A woman with any sense — or sense of integrity — wouldn't date a man the second time whose marital status was in doubt. Don't be so concerned about YOUR rudeness. Ask him, pointedly, if he's attached or not.

DEAR ABBY: My daughter, 31, is being married, and she insists that her father and I give her a church wedding with an elaborate reception.

Seven years ago she had a child out of wedlock. Since then she has been intimate with several different men, including the one she is marrying. Now she wants a church wedding, veil, bridesmaids, flower girl, ring bearer, etc.

I think she is being bold and hypocritical to say nothing of showing poor taste as this is a small town and there are few secrets. Am I being "square"? WORRIED MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: If you feel that your daughter is being bold and hypocritical, why be a party to it?

Polish Posters Are on Display at St. Mary's

A combination of two popular art exhibits — "Posters from Poland," and "Reflections in an American Eye," — opened Wednesday at the Orchard Lake Schools' campus gallery (formerly called St. Mary's College). Both exhibits, which drew record crowds during previous showings in Detroit, will remain on display until Feb. 16.

The poster exhibit enjoyed an exciting month's stay at the International Art center in Detroit last August, where attendance records matched and topped all previous figures. At the same time the Museum of Modern Art was showing its own display of Polish posters in New York.

★ ★ ★

One of man's earliest means of widespread communication, the poster has finally released itself from its utilitarian bonds and has established itself as an art form. The poster in Poland today is considered by art authorities to be the best in the world.

NEW MUSEUM

The Poles are so poster-conscious that they're erecting a whole new art museum in Warsaw solely to exhibit posters. They've 35,000 to display.

The posters on exhibit at Orchard Lake were selected from over 150 originals collected by Richard Kubinski, a member of the faculty at Saint Mary's of Orchard Lake, during his recent studies in Poland.

"Reflections in an American Eye" is the theme of the second exhibit and contains paintings, collages, and drawings by Kubinski.

Kubinski studied at the Academy of Fine Arts in Warsaw as the recipient of a grant from the Zelősky Scholarship Fund awarded through the Kosciuszko Foundation of New York.

★ ★ ★

The Gallery will be open to the public from noon to 5:00 p.m. daily and visitors will also have an opportunity to view the unique collection of Polish art treasures which are on display. The school is at the intersection of Commerce Road and Indian Trail.

What Women Are Saying Now

By The Associated Press

Some quotable quotes from women during the week:

"The bust is not so important anymore. Today, sexy comes from the personality and how you look at a man."—Italian movie sex symbol Gina Lollobrigida in a New York interview.

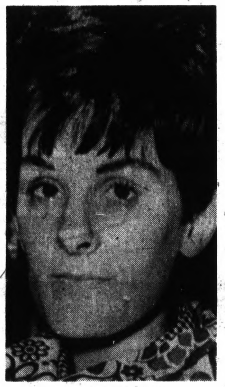

GINA LOLLOBRIGIDA

HELEN MacINNESS

"When I'm getting toward the end of a novel and all the problems are going to have to be resolved, I feel like a man coming down a steep hill on a bicycle juggling three oranges."—Helen MacInness, famed suspense writer and author of the best-selling "The Salzburg Connection," in an interview.

LINDA WEST

"I'm no gun nut and I never wanted to kill anyone. But I was not going to let them drive us away from here. It was them or us."—Mrs. Linda West, 25, who has twice mortally wounded robbers of her family liquor store in Oakland, Calif.

"I wore a green floss wig to the Paris Opera in 1934. And I not only wore miniskirts and knee socks in 1924, I painted my kneecaps with tempura sunflowers and daisies and clown faces and even Picasso designs."—78-year-old novelist Katherine Anne Porter, commenting on current fashions.

KATHERINE ANNE PORTER

IN MISSISSIPPI — This mother in Southern Mississippi holds her baby suffering from malnutrition. Families in the area with no training to earn money have no means of supporting themselves. The Rev. Charles Warren Jr., pastor of Bible Way Missionary Baptist Church, 155 S. Elvd. has asked his congregation to help him raise money, collect food clothing for the unfortunate families. Several boxes have already been sent to the area in Jackson, Miss.

Send Food to Mississippi

Hear Cry of Hungry Children

"Then shall the King say unto them on His right hand. Come ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.

"For I was an hungred, and ye gave me meat, I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink; I was a stranger, and ye took me in.

"Naked, and ye clothed me; I was sick, and ye visited me; I was in prison, and ye came unto me."—Matthew 25: 34 to 37.

A Pontiac congregation with less than 25 members has heard the cry of poor Negroes in southern Mississippi for milk and food for their hungry children.

It is the Bible Way Missionary Baptist Church, 188 S. East Blvd.

Founded nearly two years ago the congregation worships in a vacant store building under the leadership of the Rev. Charles A. Warren Jr.

Members give of their own resources and seek offerings of food, clothing and donations from friends and other churches. They give of themselves by assisting with the work of Southern Box Project.

★ ★ ★

The Southern Box Project started several years ago when Virginia Naeve of Vermont met Mrs. Martin Luther King Jr. at the Geneva Disarmament Conference in 1962. She went home from the conference feeling conscience bound to make some personal effort toward alleviating some of the suffering in Mississippi.

★ ★ ★

She wrote to Mrs. King for the name of a family to whom she might send food and clothing.

That was several years ago.

HUNDREDS SHARE

Mrs. Naeve has found several hundred people from across the country to share their affluence with more than 2,000 families in Mississippi. Friends and neighbors were enlisted to approach persons in volunteering to help destitute and hungry families.

Finally this volunteer project grew beyond the time and physical capacity of even Virginia Naeve to handle along.

This year it has decentralized with 14 area coordinators to keep track of needs.

★ ★ ★

One volunteer acts as a clearing house to guard against duplication. All appeals are sent on to her, checked out as far as possible with Southern contacts and then referred to one of the regional coordinators to assign.

What is asked of a volunteer?

According to Pastor Warren the first and most important requirement is that one doesn't volunteer without the sincere intention of following through. How much one sends, how often, for how long depends on each family or group.

★ ★ ★

"As a minimum we would hope to stave off hunger and cold, and keep the children in school. It takes more than a few boxes of used clothing to do this, said Warren.

"As an ideal we would like to help with special problems so that the family can be pulled out of the vicious cycle of circumstances toward a better life."

SPECIAL PROBLEMS

The Bible Way minister went on to say "examples of special problems that have been solved include the purchase of eye glasses, sending school supplies, payment of rent and loans to meet emergencies and college tuition.

★ ★ ★

"Probably the most necessary item is food—and every volunteer, we hope, will send a box of food each month if able to do so. Purchasing a few items for the Mississippi family every time one shops is an easy way to collect a box."

He continued with "It is possible for even a couple to clothe a large family. Many of our helpers do. They publicize their project and get clothes from relatives, friends and church members or patronize rummage sales.

★ ★ ★

"This does take commitment. Getting cartons, wrapping, mailing is time consuming and it's hard work—but it's worth it."

The Delta Ministry, started in 1964 by the National Council of Churches, has undertaken literacy programs teaching skills to Negroes who have only known the use of the cotton chopping hoe.

★ ★ ★

In 1968 ground was broken for Freedom Village. Proposed community center has been erected and it is housing the education and self help project.

Tufts Medical Center is starting a health center.

PROVIDES COW

The Heifer Project is for families who own land and live in a five-county area, south of Jackson. This program provides a family cow for farmers owning only a few acres of poor land unsuited for raw crops.

The cow gives milk for the children, and extra income from the sale of calves, after the first heifer calf, is passed on to a needy neighbor.

★ ★ ★

Involving more families is the chicken project. To date some 182,000 chickens have been distributed.

Supporters of the Mississippi project may write to Mississippi Council and Human Relations, 302 First Federal Bldg., Jackson, Miss. 39201 for further information.

★ ★ ★

Locally the Rev. Mr. Warren is assisted by the Rev. Eddie McDonald of Friendship Baptist Church, the Rev. J. J. Blackshere of Mt. Calvary Baptist Church and Ann Miller, James Anderson, Carol Tanner, Charles Sinns and Edward Adams.

COLLECT CLOTHING—Ellen Harris of 72 Clovese and Joyce Washington of 43 Orton bring good used clean clothing to Bible Way Missionary Baptist Church for shipment to Mississippi. The girls and their Girl Scout Troop have adopted a needy family in the community near Jackson, Miss. The girls and friends will send clothing, food and other needed articles to the family.

At St. Anne's Mead

Hold Annual Dinner Meeting

Charles B. Kass, 1798 Winthrop, Birmingham, was elected president of the board of trustees of St. Anne's Mead when members held their annual dinner and business meeting Wednesday at the home.

* * *

Located at 16100 W. Twelve Mile, St. Anne's Mead is a residence for elderly citizens in good health.

Although it is sponsored by the Episcopal Diocese of Michigan, the home is nonsectarian in policy of admissions and has residents of many creeds and races.

Named to serve with Kass were Mrs. Harry G. Dumville of Bloomfield Hills, vice president; Robert K. Vietor of Birmingham, treasurer; and Mrs. Charles H. MacMahon of Bloomfield Hills, secretary.

* * *

Mrs. George A. Gary, retiring president, was appointed advisor to the board.

TRUSTEES

New trustees attending their first meeting were Mrs. James Gass, Royal Oak; Mrs. T. Norville Hubbard, Birmingham; Mrs. Charles B. Neely, Bloomfield Hills; Ralph Manuel, Birmingham; Davis H. MacFarland, Lathrup Village; Robert Wenzel, Southfield; and William Unkefer, Lathrup Village.

Spencer Hopkins of Bloomfield Hills, a former member, returned to the board.

Construction on the Mead's intermediate nursing care unit is scheduled to start this week. This facility will provide nursing care for residents with minor, short term chronic illnesses or disability requiring long-term medical attention.

Christian Educator Speaks on Missions

Mrs. Donald F. West, a Christian educator who is on a special assignment to Indonesia, will speak tomorrow in First Christian Church, 858 W. Huron, during morning worship and again at the evening fellowship dinner.

* * *

She is scheduled as speaker of the annual School of World Outreach held at First Christian Church each year. This year's study concerns "Mission Work in Southeast Asia."

A graduate of Normal School in Rochester, N. Y., Mrs. West majored in kindergarten and primary education.

* * *

She continues her studies at Auburn School of Religious Education, Hartford School of Religious Education and Oberlin Graduate School of Theology.

* * *

After their appointment to Indonesia, Mrs. West and her husband studied languages at Cornell University and in Indonesia.

* * *

Mrs. West has trained teachers and helped in training schools, mission institutes and laboratory schools. She has worked with the Philippine Council of Churches in helping to plan curriculum.

MRS. DONALD F. WEST

As we keep or break the Sabbath, we nobly save or meanly lose the last hope by which man rises.—Abraham Lincoln.

LINDA CRABTREE

Young People Lead Worship Tomorrow

Youth Sunday will be observed tomorrow at North Oakland Christian Church with Linda Crabtree bringing the sermonette.

A senior at Pontiac Northern High School where she is a cheerleader, Miss Crabtree was chosen as one of Pontiac's 10 most outstanding young people by the Optimist Club.

*

President of Detroit District Christian Youth Fellowship, she served as office secretary for Pontiac Area Council of Churches last summer.

David McGlone will be worship leader and Lynn Thompson will offer morning prayer.

* * *

Jack Clark will read the Scripture and Vickie Cooper will lead responsive reading.

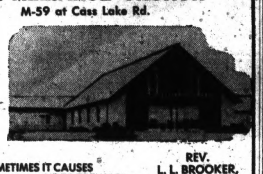

Serving as deacons at the Lord's Table will be Barbara Scantland, Bill Hard, Brenda Crabtree and Greg McGlone. Terry Hevse and Jill Clark will sing "Sweet Hour of Prayer."

* * *

The congregation will meet following service to hear information on proposed plans for building the church in Keatington.

WALLED LAKE CHURCH — The old Walled Lake Methodist Church is due to come down and make way for the new educational building of the church. Shown holding the old spire are (from left) Joe Wiltse of 575 W. Walled Lake, Lee Philp of 244 Pontiac Trail and Pastor Horace G. Thurston, all of Walled Lake. The old bell, already removed, will be saved for the new building.

Rochester Church Explores Project

A group of interested members of First Congregational Church of Rochester met recently to explore the possibility of a home for retired senior citizens.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Huizenga were appointed to head the group slated to survey the need and propose a plan for the facility.

After several sessions a committee was appointed to continue the survey. Members included Mr. and Mrs. Richard Huizenga, the William McGowans, the Howard Blanchards, Edmund Frost, Lewis Arscott, Kenneth Larkum, Stanley Weaver and Elsie Harper.

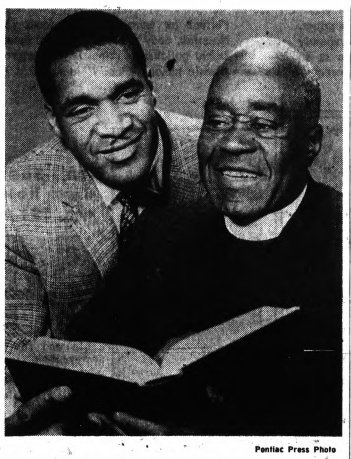

Serving as heads of the group are the Rev. Chandler Hadley and the Rev. Paul Clark.

Baptists Ask Day's Income

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Baptist World reports that Britain's 300,000 Baptists will be asked to give at least a day's pay in 1969 to help people in underdeveloped countries.

* * *

A suggestion that the contributions be made on Good Friday — April 4 — has been made by the Council of the Baptist Union of Great Britain and Ireland. The Baptist World says the day's income will be over and above all other donations to world mission and service.

Send Missionary to French Guiana

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. (UPI) — In response to an appeal from a group of Pentecostal believers, Assemblies of God headquarters here announced preliminary plans to send a missionary into French Guiana, the only remaining country in Central and South America where the denomination has no missionaries.

* * *

The former penal colony of Devil's Island is within 28 miles of the capital city of Cayenne, where the church will be opened.

The Assemblies of God already has missionaries and churches in all other Central and South American countries, with more than 1.8 million adherents.

Twenty-nine Bible schools train national workers, of whom there are about 10,000.

Dedicate Bug

NEW YORK (UPI) — Ladybugs eat insects in orchards, melon patches and fields of wheat, oats and barley. People of the Middle Ages recognized their beneficial activities and dedicated them to the Virgin Mary. They called them the "Beetles of Our Lady."

Early Bird Communications Satellite Put on the Shelf

WASHINGTON (AP) — Early Bird, the world's first commercial communications satellite, has been put on the shelf—a shelf 22,300 miles above the Atlantic Ocean.

And that's where it will remain for generations—perhaps centuries—to come.

★ ★ ★

The Communications Stellite Corp. said Friday Early Bird's circuits have been transferred to Intelsat III which was launched from Cape Kennedy, Fla., last month and is now in commercial service over the Atlantic.

Early Bird, Comsat said, "remains on station in orbit as a reserve for emergency and experimental purposes."

LIVE TV

Originally designed as an experimental-operational satellite with a life expectancy of 18 months, Early Bird introduced live television across the Atlantic when it was launched June 2, 1965.

Designed to serve the heavy communications lanes between North America and Europe with its 240 high-quality voice circuits, or its one TV channel capable of color transmission, Early Bird had an operational record of 100 per cent reliability.

Although the spacecraft handled all forms of communications, it could transmit between only two stations at one time, and had to relinquish voice and record circuits to transmit television.

Comsat said Early Bird received and transmitted more than 340 TV programs totaling about 265 hours, before its retirement Jan. 19, and handled many thousands of telephone calls, data and record messages and other communications without a "service outage."

The sophisticated new Intelsat III, and a sister craft to be launched into orbit over the Pacific next Wednesday, can transmit all forms of communications—telephone, television, telegraph, data and facsimile simultaneously. All earth stations in the Atlantic Basin also can communicate through it simultaneously, either in pairs or in groups.

Early Bird had no formal christening. Its name is still un official, and was acquired only by chance.

★ ★ ★

Comsat information chief Matthew Gordon said an Associated Press reporter, Sterling Green, asked him the spacecraft's designation, and how it differed from other planned communications satellites.

"You might call it the early bird," Gordon said, jestingly.

"I think I'll use that," Green replied. He did, and it has been Early Bird ever since.

Detroit Okays Aid, but Rent Strike Still On

DETROIT (AP) — Detroit's Common Council Friday approved a $200,000 emergency public housing rent subsidy a day before a rent strike was scheduled to start.

Council members Anthony Wierzbicki and Mary Beck, who had held up the subsidy in a meeting Tuesday, voted with the other seven members to make approval unanimous.

★ ★ ★

Housing commission director Robert Knox said the subsidy was needed because rents for 8,200 families in Detroit's public, federally-supported housing rose by as much as $19 at midnight Friday.

Tenants in several projects threatened a rent strike if the rents were raised. The Jeffries Resident Council apparently still unsatisfied despite the Council action, told tenants Friday to "Hold up your rent unless or until you receive notice from the Detroit Housing Commission that there will be no rent increase for anyone."

NO CHOICE

Knox said the federal government had given the city, which manages the housing, no choice on the increase. The city will give the money as grants-in-aid so tenants won't have to declare it as income.

Knox had estimated earlier that about 3,000 families would have to pay all of the increase themselves. Families with income under $2,500 will get first preference and those making more who can demonstrate sufficient need may get help.

The money is from a $1.5 million fund set up in the city budget for building low-cost housing and supplementing rents.

Court Group to Hear Judge

Wayne County Circuit Judge Edward S. Piggins will be the guest speaker at the annual midwinter meeting of the Michigan Court Reporters Association in Bloomfield Hills next Friday and Saturday. The meeting will be held at the Kingsley Inn.

More than 125 court reporters and their spouses are expected to attend the meeting. Piggins will address them at a 7:30 p.m. banquet Saturday.

Court reporters record everything said at hearings and trials so an accurate, typewritten transcript can be used in appeals to higher courts.

66 Pigs Killed as Truck Flips on N.J. Turnpike

BORDENTOWN, N.J. (AP) — At least 66 pigs died Friday when a trailer-truck carrying 199 of them upset at an exit ramp of the New Jersey Turnpike.

Jan Carter, 28, of Pierceton, Ind., driver of the truck, escaped injury.

★ ★ ★

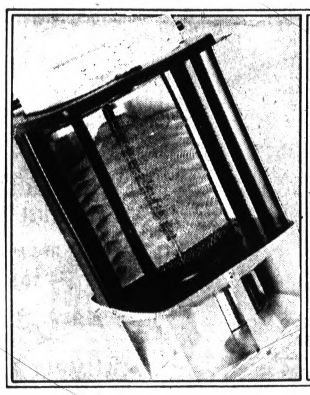

State police said the truck's cargo shifted causing it to keel over. Turnpike maintenance men built a temporary corral from a snow fence to keep the pigs off the toll road. Many of them came tumbling out of the broken roof of the trailer.

The 225-pound porkers were en route from farms in Illinois

2 Hospitalized After Collision

One man was in fair condition and another is under observation in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital following a two-car accident in Pontiac yesterday afternoon.

Admitted to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital were James W. Gallagher, 54, of 187 Norton, who was in fair condition, and Aaron Clark, 27, of Detroit.

* * *

Police said the car Gallagher was driving collided at North Cass and Florence with a car driven by James F. Williams, 26, of 3443 Mahopac, Orion Township. Williams was treated at Pontiac General Hospital and released.

Williams was ticketed for reckless driving, according to police. Clark was a passenger in the Williams car.

TRYING TIMES—Coaches Art Paddy (left) of West Bloomfield and Bud McGrath of Clarkston had their ups and downs last night as their teams battled in a Wayne-Oakland League basketball game. It's obvious that the fortunes for Paddy are on the skids at this particular moment, while McGrath wears an expression of hope. West Bloomfield won, 50-43.

Lakers Rally in Fourth to Down Clarkston Five

By FLETCHER SPEARS

It isn't easy to be at the top of the heap. Just ask Art Paddy of West Bloomfield.

Paddy and the West Bloomfield Lakers are currently ranked among the top 10 in the state Class B basketball poll, and they're on top of the standings in the Wayne-Oakland League.

And being in those positions makes the Lakers a nice, big target for opponents to take aim at.

'NIP AND TUCK'

Just before the Lakers took on Clarkston last night, Paddy commented that the game "will be tight . . . nip and tuck all the way."

★ ★ ★

Earlier, the Lakers had beaten Clarkston, 72-51, in a breather. Paddy knew this one would be tougher and it was.

West Bloomfield was pushed for three quarters before pulling away in the fourth for a 50-43 decision that raised the team's league record to 8-1 and to 10-1 over-all.

"I told you how it'd be," said Paddy in the Lakers' dressing room after the game. "I knew it'd be tough. We've got to be up for everybody we play now. And we're heading into the tough part of our schedule . . . Kettering and Milford on the road."

ROAD PROBLEM

Milford could pose a problem, but Kettering's Captains aren't likely to bother the Lakers.

★ ★ ★

Kettering went down to its sixth defeat in a row last night, dropping a 64-49 verdict to Brighton, the third win of the season for the Bulldogs.

TOUGH DEFENSE

"That's the toughest high school defense we've faced," said Clarkston coach Bud McGrath, who turned from that to make a note about the Wolves' inability at the free throw line.

★ ★ ★

Those free throws have been costly for the Wolves this season. Last night, the Lakers were outscored by Clarkston from the field, 17-16, but they made 18 of 26 shots at the charity stripe while Clarkston managed but 9 of 20.

SPARKS LAKERS

Senior Jim Bays, a 6-2, 200-pounder, triggered the fourth-period spurt that brought victory for the Lakers. He scored only nine points, but seven of those came in the fourth stanza.

★ ★ ★

The two went into the fourth deadlocked at 34-all. Clarkston inched ahead on a pair of free throws by guard Rich Porritt, who played a strong floor game, but a free throw by Dave Karlson and a three-point play by Steve Westjohn gave West Bloomfield the lead for good at 38-36.

WIDENS GAP

Bays then put in a pair of buckets. Karlson followed with a three-point play making it 45-39 with 2:10 left. On a two-shot foul, Bays hit the first and Westjohn tipped in the second, and moments later, Bays closed out the scoring with a pair of free throws.

★ ★ ★

Westjohn hit on five of nine shots and finished with 12 points to pace the Lakers. Karlson added 10. Guard John Crowder scored nine points, all in the first half.

Eric Hood led Clarkston with nine points and he and teammate Don Brown hauled down eight rebounds apiece. Clarkston held a 38-27 lead in rebounds.

TRAILS AT HALF

Kettering, now 2-7 for the season, fell behind at halftime, 31-21, and couldn't catch up.

★ ★ ★

Bob Musch led the Brighton squad with 20 points and Dave Harmon added 11.

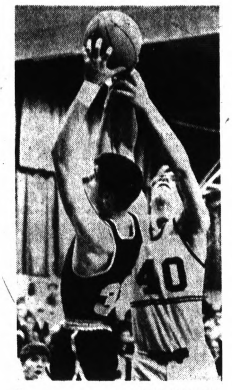

Mark Gratz and Bob Goodman pitched in 15 apiece for Kettering — their top point productions of the season — while teammate Terry Weiss added 10.

Huskies Drop 66-62 Decision, Share I-L Lead

Pontiac Northern's Huskies need help.

The perennial Inter-Lakes League rulers can't capture the championship outright this season without some assistance from the rivals they have so often dominated.

Livonia Stevenson surprised the Huskies for the second straight season on its own court when it held off PNH Friday night for a 66-62 conquest.

★ ★ ★

The victory dropped Northern into a tie with Stevenson for the I-L lead at 5-1 and gave Stevenson's Spartans a split with PNH in their season series.

Waterford, meanwhile, kept its hopes alive with a 74-66 verdict over Walled Lake. The Skippers are now 4-2 and hold third place in the standings.

Farmington downed winless Southfield Lathrup for the second time, 90-45, as Paul White notched a career high 28 points. The win evened the Falcons' log at 3-3.

EDGE NULLIFIED

Northern trimmed Stevenson by 93-63 in their first meeting. In that contest the Huskies managed a 39-21 advantage in field goals. Last night that advantage was reduced to 10 baskets and it was just enough for the Spartans who made 30 charity tosses.

The host team took advantage of a sluggish start by the Huskies to rate a 21-13 lead after one quarter. Nick Exarhos pumped in 12 points in the surge.

With PNH's free-wheeling offense plagued by turnovers, the Spartans maintained the lead with the aid of its foul shooting.

PNH lost both Marcus Cummings and Ernie Crawford on personal fouls before the middle of the final quarter. With four minutes to go, Stevenson boasted a 13-point lead.

Sparked by Joe Bradley, Chuck Moncrief and Barry Webb, the Huskies roared back. Down 62-60, PNH seemed certain to knot the score when Eddie Williams stole the ball and moved in for a clear layup.

VIOLATION

But he was called for traveling and Northern lost its momentum. The winners' final 13 points came on free throws. Ted Exarhos sank six charity tosses in the last period and his brother Nick tossed in seven other points.

The Spartans connected for just six field goals in the closing half while Northern hit 15 baskets. Nick Exarhos topped all scorers for the night with 26 markers. His brother managed 15.

Moncrief again paced PNH, sinking 20 points. Bradley and Crawford were next with 10 each. The Huskies made only 6 of 18 free throws. Tonight they take their 7-3 record to Ann Arbor.

Waterford tossed an aggressive defense at Walled Lake and worked hard on the offensive backboard for most of the first three quarters before growing careless and having to stave off a closing rush by the Vikings (1-5).

After trailing twice by two points, the Skippers slipped in front for good at 8-6. Making 6 of 12 from the field, WTHS moved to two five-point margins.

Its 14-9 spread quickly grew to 18-9 in the second quarter. When the Vikings encountered ball-handling problems — committing nine turnovers in the second quarter — Waterford sank four buckets in a row and built a 30-18 lead that was reduced to 32-25 at the intermission.

Despite 14 points and a 5-for-10 shooting display by Walled Lake's Bob Serra in the opening half, Waterford stayed in command thanks to a 13-for-28 shooting performance.

BALANCE

Bob Finkle had nine points, Mike Sheldon hit eight and Bill Foley added seven to the total in the first two quarters.

Only Major Upset Would Spoil Tie

Unless there is a major upset on the final night of league play, Pontiac Catholic and Orchard Lake St. Mary will share the Northwest Catholic championship.

Both moved a step closer last night.

Pontiac Catholic outlasted Ferndale St. James, 62-59, and St. Mary's Eaglets flew past Detroit St. Francis de Sales, 79-67. The leaders are tied with 12-1 records.

★ ★ ★

League action ends Tuesday with Catholic at home against last place Detroit St. Rita and OLSM playing at Waterford Our Lady which is a notch above the cellar.

Pontiac Catholic's Titans fell 11 points behind in the first quarter, but began to get accustomed to the small St. James' gym and started pecking away at the deficit.

The Titans managed to tie the game at 45 going into the fourth quarter and a basket by Chuck Gallagher put them ahead for good. PC moved to a 58-49 lead, but St. James fought back to make it close at the end.

Gallagher topped all scorers with 23 points. Teammate Sam Brady netted 22.

★ ★ ★

Tom Sudek and Tim Megge each scored 23 points in the OLSM victory. The score was deadlocked at 7-7 after three minutes. OLSM then started to pull away and ran up the first seven points in the second quarter for a 20-10 lead.

The Monarchs rallied in the fourth quarter behind the shooting of Gene LaFave after the Eaglets had lost rebounders Ken Ksiazkiewicz and Tad Cyman on fouls.

The victory gives OLSM a 10-0 series record against de Sales. OLSM players hit 29 of 69 shots for 44 per cent while the Monarchs were making 25 of 68 for 34 per cent.

Raiders Assault Groves Defense

The Raiders were on target last night.

They swarmed out of North Farmington and took the Birmingham Groves gym in a storm of deadly shooting that left the Falcons on the short end of a 73-65 Northwest Suburban League basketball score.

It was the sixth victory without a loss in league play for first place North Farmington. The setback left Groves at 2-4 in conference play.

HOT SHOOTING

The Raiders led the entire game, hitting 29 of 47 field goal attempts for an excellent 62 per cent. Groves, meanwhile, was shooting at a 38 per cent clip.

Joel Comstock led the assault with 23 points while Scott Love scored 18 for Groves.

In other league action, Oak Park (4-2) kept Thurston (1-5) in last place, 77-59, and Livonia Franklin pulled into a third place tie with Westland Glenn (both 3-3) by defeating Glenn, 77-68.

Grand Valley Loses

MIDLAND (AP) — Bill Oates scored 27 points Friday night leading Northwood Institute to a 98-79 nonconference victory over Grand Valley Northwood, which led at the half 47-42, is now 8-7 on the season while Grand Valley is 9-6.

Tim Wood Retains Ice Skating Title

SEATTLE (AP) — Slender, serious Tim Wood of Bloomfield Hills still ranked as top man in U.S. skating today after a careful but flawless performance Friday night in the men's finals of the 1969 National Figure Skating Championships.

★ ★ ★

The John Carroll University junior, who capped his 1968 title with an Olympic silver medal, got the top score from all five judges, as he had done in the preliminary competition.

RETAIN TITLE

Another championship was safely defended by two Syracuse University students, Judy Schwomeyer of Indianapolis, Ind., and James Sladky of Rochester, N.Y. They, too, took all the first in retaining their gold dance title.

With these crowns in place, the spotlight swung to the ladies' singles, where 15-year-old Dawn Glab of Paramount, Calif., took a slight edge over red-haired Tina Noyes of Colorado Springs, Colo., in the initial figures. Miss Glab skated despite a touch of flu, which prompted a doctor to advise her against competing.

THIRD, FOURTH

Julie Lynn Holmes of South Pasadena, Calif., and Colorado Springs was third and Janet Lynn of Rockford, Ill., fourth — both close enough to overtake the leaders in tonight's final with superior free skating efforts.

The victor will succeed Olympic gold medalist Peggy Fleming, now a professional. Miss Noyes, 20, has been runner-up four times in this senior ladies event.

Skating a spectacular program of flying spins and rafter-scraping leaps, John Misha Petkevich of Great Falls, Mont., placed second to Wood in the men's final, edging out Gary Visconti of Detroit by six-hundredths of a point.

Visconti, the 1965 champion, was 126 pounds of exhuberance in a free skating effort that forced Wood and Petkevich into mistake-free skating to beat him.

TAKE SECOND

John Bitterman and Brad Hislop of Seattle, one of the two home area couples in the gold dance, placed second to the champion and the other duo — Debbie Ganson of Seattle and Rollie Arthur of Tacoma, Wash. — were fourth. In between were Debbie Gerken and Raymond Tiedemann of New York City.

The outstanding performers from this meeting go on to the North American Championships Feb. 6-8 in Oakland, Calif., and the world competition Feb. 25-March 1 in Colorado Springs.

Barons Ambush Milford, 64-54

Defense Helps Andover Head for Top

Exhibiting a vastly improved defense, Bloomfield Hills Andover continued its push toward the top of the Wayne-Oakland League cage standings by handing Milford a 64-54 beating on its own floor Friday night.

The triumph, Andover's sixth straight in the circuit, was a major step for the Barons (6-2) since it avenges an earlier loss to the Redskins, drops Milford (5-3) into third place and is complemented by Clarenceville's 51-49 upset victory over fourth-place Northville (4-4).

★ ★ ★

The Barons now are left alone in the runner-up slot to pursue once-beaten West Bloomfield, the defending champion.

Significant in the Andover conquest last night was its ability to limit Milford to 54 points after yielding 74 to the Redskins while losing their first meeting by six.

COOL SPELL

A cool third quarter — when Milford fell from a 31-31 tie to a 45-39 deficit — left the home team with an unsuccessful uphill struggle. Bob Clinard fouled out early in the final period to further hamper the Redskins.

★ ★ ★

He and Doug Powers each notched 17 points for Milford. Bob Foreman of the Barons led the marksmen with 18 points, and Dick Souther produced 15.

The Andover defense forced the losers into 23 turnovers.

At Livonia, Clarenceville avenged an earlier 26-point loss to young Northville by outscoring the Mustangs, 17-7, in the third quarter to overcome a 28-20 halftime deficit.

Bob Ridling's 15 points led the Trojans who won the game at the foul line by making 15 charity tosses to Northville's 13.

Kimball Slips Past Eagles; Seaholm Wins

Royal Oak Kimball retained its slim hold on first place in the Southeastern Michigan League Friday night but it seems apparent no team is going to dominate the cage competition this winter.

Kimball upped its mark to 5-1 with a tight 56-55 victory over Ferndale (3-3), dropping the Eagles into a third place tie with Hazel Park.

* * *

The Vikings fell at Southfield, 64-55, who now is second all by itself with a 4-2 record. Birmingham Seaholm captured its fifth-place duel with Berkley, 59-53, in the third contest.

While Kimball's Knights continue in the driver's seat, they now must defend their position by playing three of their final four league games away from home.

KEY BASKETS

In winning their third straight and boosting their over-all mark to 9-1, the Knights needed some clutch shooting in the final quarter to wipe out a three-point Ferndale lead.

Down 45-42, RO Kimball hit six straight points for a 48-45 lead, but fell behind again at 49-48 before finally going ahead for good at 51-50. With 1:27 remaining on the clock, Rick Campbell hit a technical foul shot to put ROK in front, 56-51.

Ferndale's final basket came with four seconds to play and left it one point shy of a tie. The Eagles' Tyrone Lewis ran into personal foul trouble and took a backseat in the scoring to teammate Bill Hickman who had 20. Lewis managed 14.

CONTRIBUTE

Jay Brown tallied 15 and grabbed 17 rebounds for Kimball. Fred Shelnut, whose defensive play bothered Lewis, also hit 15 while Steve Hebold contributed 10 points and 11 rebounds.

Substitute Art Dahlberg grabbed several key retrieves in the closing minutes. The winners had a 23-20 advantage in field goals.

* * *

Seaholm ended a three-game skid and posted just its second SEMA triumph when Jim Hagen sparked a final-quarter rally.

Trailing by a 27-23 count at the half and still down by two after three periods, the Maples shot past Berkley as Hagen hit 11 of his game-high 23 points in the fourth quarter.

Seaholm's improved defense limited the Bears to nine tallies in both the second and fourth sessions. Jack Benning's 18 points led Berkley.

HOT HAND

Roger Ovink poured in 27 points and two teammates also were in double figures in Southfield's conquest of Hazel Park. The Vikings started slowly in each half.

Ovink made 12 of 20 shots and grabbed 11 rebounds. Dave Chalmers had 14 retrieves and an equal number of points. Jim Merchel's 17 led Hazel Park. Southfield now has won four in a row.

Schoolcraft 'Walks' Over Highland Five

Sooner or later Schoolcraft Community College's basketball team was going to "walk" over a Junior Conference Opponent.

Highland Lakes was the victim. And the Highlanders weren't able to get "up" the entire contest last night. The Livonia school's control ball tactics produced a 58-52 victory.

* * *

"I'm just as much to blame for this one as anyone," said Highland coach Lynn Reed. "I though we would win easily and so did the boys.

"It's one of the biggest problems I have with this team. The boys will get up for a game against a tough opponent and pull off a win like they did against Flint. But against teams we should beat . . . we lose."

EVEN SLOWER

The Highlanders managed to gain a 34-24 halftime lead, but Schoolcraft's noted slowdown got to them in the last 20 minutes. The host school finally tied the count and then slowed play even more. They cashed in on free throws as the Highlanders became rattled and fouled.

Frank Russell did not play for Highland because of illness.

Michigan Christian Junior College arrived 20 minutes late for its game in Lansing with Great Lakes Bible College, but warmed to the occasion with a 63-point explosion in the second half.

The result was a 93-73 win that evened MCJC's record at 7-7. Dan Ludwick, who topped all scorers with 26 points, hit 21 in the second half. Michigan Christian plays at Grand Rapids Grace Bible tonight.

Roeper Posts Biggest Win

Roughriders Defeat Maumee, 77-73

Bloomfield Hills Roeper posted its biggest basketball victory in three seasons last night by outlasting Maumee Valley Country Day of Ohio, 77-73.

It was the third straight win for the Roughriders who are 9-3 for the season. Maumee had beaten Roeper handily earlier.

* * *

For a while last night at Bloomfield Hills junior high it looked like Maumee would repeat. The visitor was ahead at the half, 41-36, and maintained the margin well into the third quarter.

But Dale Scarlett came up with three steals for baskets and Greg Carter his seven of his 26 points to spark a last quarter surge. Carter also had 15 reounds.

Lahser Keeps Cage Express Rolling, 72-64

Bloomfield Hills Lahser extended its winning momentum Friday night by conquering Dearborn Annapolis, 72-64, for the Knights' sixth victory in their last seven starts.

Lahser scored 18 points in each of the first two quarters, and added 19 in the third. But Steve Miller's 12 points in the third session sparked Annapolis into a surge that saw it move within one point, 55-54, early in the last quarter.

However, the visiting Knights moved away again to a five-to-10-point lead and never were in serious trouble.

* * *

Lahser, plagued by missing 10 of 13 free throws in the first three periods, hit on 11 of 13 tries in the last period. Paul Handcook made six straight.

Bill West paced the Knights (6-4) with 25 points, a figure matched by Annapolis' Miller. West also grabbed 20 rebounds. Lahser will entertain Cranbrook Tuesday.

Canadian Team Signs LA Pick

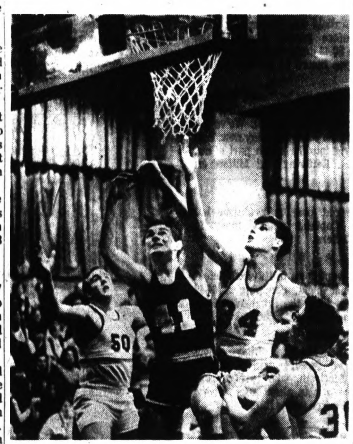

TORONTO (AP) — Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian Football League announced the signing Friday of versatile Jim Thorpe, 23, a back from Hofstra University of Hempstead, N.Y.

He was a 17th-round draft choice of Los Angeles Rams in the recent NFL-AFL college draft.

MAKING HIS MOVE—Bob Finkle (right) of Waterford maneuvers past Walled Lake's Greg Wendell (31) and Bob Serra (15) during the first half of last night's Inter-Lakes Leagues confrontation at WTHS. Finkle came off the Skippers' bench to score 13 points, mostly on jumpers from the left of the basket. Serra had 22 points for Walled Lake to lead all scorers. Marv Gross is the Laker in the background at the left. Waterford posted a 74-66 victory to retain its hold on third place.

SURROUNDED BY SKIPPERS—Ron Thompson (41) of Walled Lake finds himself surrounded by three Waterford Skippers while contesting for a rebound Friday night. Thompson's aggressive work against similar odds most of the game was a big factor in bringing Walled Lake within striking distance of the taller host quintet in the second half. Bill Foley (34) attempts to tip the ball while Bruce Saffron (50) and Bob Finkle of WTHS are ready should the elusive basketball come their way. Foley paced Waterford's rebounding with 11 grabs.

New Haven Rockets to Thumb Loop Lead

New Haven needed all of its potent scoring punch last night and profitted when Anchor Bay's sharpshooters slackened on defense.

Thus the Rockets are alone in the Southern Thumb top spot by virtue of their 89-84 conquest at Almont while Richmond surprised Anchor Bay, 87-81.

Capac capitalized on Dryden's defensive shortcomings for a 76-48 romp that boosted it into a second-place tie with the Tars (7-2). New Haven is 8-1.

Armada snapped a four-game losing slump with a 70-56 win over Memphis.

HIGH-SCORING

New Haven surpassed the 85-point mark for the sixth time in its 13 starts while outlasting Almont. The Rockets managed a 73-54 lead after three quarters and then withstood Almont's 30 points in the final session.

Scott Belt's 24, Eli Sims' 23 and 18 by Jim Walainis led New Haven. Almont had five players in twin figures, paced by John Bacholzky's 23.

* * *

Richmond's frontline of Scott Scofield (23 points), Tom Hartway (22) and John Hicks (21) spearheaded its victory. Hartway and Scofield combined for 27 as the Blue Devils built a 49-31 lead in the opening half.

* * *

Gerry Genso's 29 led Anchor Bay.

At Dryden, Capac forced the host Cardinals into 27 turnovers and coasted to an easy victory.

Brandon Wins Sixth; Oxford, Holly Lose

With five players scoring in double figures, Ortonville Brandon raised its record to 6-3 with a 68-59 triumph in a nonleague outing at Whitmore Lake last night.

Lapeer rallied to down Holly, 55-50, and end a six-game losing skid in their Flint Metro League clash, while Oxford dropped a 73-60 decision to Central Suburban pacesetter Chippewa Valley.

* * *

At Whitmore Lake, the Ortonville quintet broke loose from a 33-33 halftime tie with a 19-13 third quarter superiority and built up its margin in the final period. Barney Brown's 16 points led the scoring.

* * *

Holly, 3-9, held a 47-39 lead midway through the last quarter. But then the roof caved in at the Broncho gym. The visiting Panthers surged to a 15-3 edge the rest of the way.

EARLIER WIN

Lapeer's only other victory in its 10 starts was by 20 points over Holly in December. Clarke Adams led the winners with 20 points, and Vern Hayward — a big factor in the last period — finished with 15. A 17-of-20 effort at the foulline earned the decision.

Jeff Leece's 19 and Grafton Moore's 15 topped Holly who had a 20-17 edge in field goals.

* * *

Oxford stayed close to Chippewa Valley for one period, but the visitors' defense began telling and they built a 38-27 margin by the half. Dave Gemmel. of Oxford led the scorers with 19, while Murray Fuhrman sank 18 for Chippewa Valley.

* * *

Elsewhere in the Central Suburban Lutheran East stayed one and coasted to an easy victory. 1½ games off the lead with a 64-49 victory over Harper Woods, and Madison Lamphere outshot Warren Woods, 71-61.

Imlay Avenges Earlier Loss

Spartans Turn on Yale in Closing Seconds

Imlay City avenged an earlier loss in the Greater Thumb B circuit with a 68-66 overtime upset of Yale Friday night on a clutch basket by Dick Buike in the closing seconds of play.

The Spartans rallied to force the overtime as Paul VanDoeselaar put in a rebound to tie the score, 61-61, in regulation.

Yale (5-4) moved back in front but Dave Rowley of Imlay hit two free throws with 13 seconds to play for a 66-all deadlock.

After Yale missed a shot, Buike tossed in his long jump shot. A yale player was fouled at the buzzer but missed the first of a one-and-one free throw setup to preserve the win for Imlay (3-5) who visits Deckerville (2-6) for a makeup game tonight.

Rowley's 16 points and Randy Whitkopf's 15 led the winners who had five players in twin figures, offsetting Yale's highscoring brothers, Roger (26) and Scott (16) Richards.

Dragons Corral Troy Quintet; Avondale Falls

Falcons Stay Atop League With Easy Win Over Clawson

Lake Orion and Romeo both achieved their best performances of the basketball season, and Rochester continued to impress in the Oakland A League encounters last night.

The league-leading Falcons trimmed Clawson, 61-45, with a well-rounded effort that boosted the Rochester victory string to eight in a row.

Lake Orion captured the victory it had to have, overcoming Troy, 53-40, to take sole possession of the runner-up spot.

Romeo tied the Colts for third place by ripping Utica, 87-57, to match Troy's 6-3 mark. Orion is 7-2 and Rochester 8-1.

The fourth O-A contest saw Madison outlast Avondale, 52-47, to keep the Yellow Jackets without a victory in league action. The win bolstered Madison's hold on sixth place with a 3-6 mark.

BEST GAME

"This was out best game, we played together as a team for the first time," a happy George Elias proclaimed at Lake Orion.

A 72-36 loser in the two squads meeting earlier at Troy, the Dragons took control of the backboards and built a 30-19 lead in the opening half. Some sharp shooting enabled Orion to post a 17-11 edge in the second quarter.

Troy pecked away at the Dragons' lead in the third session when both teams had trouble finding the range. The visiting Colts reduced their disadvantage to 37-29, but Orion regained its momentum in the final session.

Big Gary Mize dropped in 16 points and Paul Bailey notched 13 to pace the winners who have prevailed in six of their seven starts since that disaster at Troy.

GOOD SHOWING

"We put it all together tonight for the first time this year," Romeo coach Jerry Barr reported. The Bulldogs were especially impressive as a unit in recording 35 points during the second period — believed to be a school record.

Tom Lerchen and Dan Burzynski both hit nine points, Dave Olson added eight points and Mike Semp hit five to feature the big outburst.

The eruption enabled Romeo to take a 54-28 lead to the locker room. The Bulldogs hit 62 per cent of their shots in the half, making 23 baskets.

* * *

They followed it up with 22 points in the third quarter for a 76-36 spread. During the middle two periods, Romeo connected on 24 of 45 shots while Utica hit only 8 of 31.

Paced by Burzynski's 11 rebounds, the winners controlled the backboards by a 43-27 margin. Robin Dilday's 24 points and Bruce Brennan's 15 led Utica, while Olson — making 10 of 15 shots — had 22 for Romeo.

Skippers Third in I-L

Waterford Halts Walled Lake, 74-66

the third quarter, slipping to a 40-28 deficit and prompting Coach John Oswald to prepare a wholesale lineup change.

While five substitutes awaited eagerly on the sideline the Vikings suddenly broke through the Waterford defense and trimmed their deficit to 43-37 as Greg Wendell sank five key points.

* * *

The reserves, nonetheless, came on with just over three minutes left in the quarter. The Skippers' defense again exerted itself and the WTHS attack produced nine straight points and the Walled Lake rally stalled. It was 52-37 at the buzzer.

The Vikings' first unit returned but needed too long to regain the lost momentum. Waterford scored quickly to take its largest lead, 54-37.

* * *

The combination of a relaxing defensive effort by Waterford, the insertion of some Skipper reserves and a warming shooting eye augmented by hustle under the offensive backboard enabled Walled Lake to cut the gap to 69-64 with 65 seconds remaining.

But the Skippers had too much padding on their lead for the visitors to overcome. A 48 per cent shooting night (compared to the Vikings' 35 per cent from the floor) also was an important factor in overcoming the losers' surprising control of the backboards.

Walled Lake finished with a 56-41 rebounding superiority, built mostly in the final quarter when it had 18 to Waterford's 6. Both teams showed stronger offensive rebounding than defensive.

STEADY THRUST

The Farmington triumph featured a steady attack. Randy Cleveland's seven points sent the Falcons into a 19-7 first quarter spread. He finished with 13 points.

White then hit 11 of his 28 in the second period as the lead grew to 40-19. Mark Lynott, who dominated the backboards, dumped in 11 of his 19 tallies and Farmington roared to a 75-36 lead in the third quarter.

* * *

Farmington had a 10-0 lead before Lathrup scored. Bob Brodsky's 15 points paced the Chargers.

Church Quintets Battling Tonight for League Title

A couple of quintets that won league titles during the regular season will meet this evening at 9:15 for the Pontiac Church Basketball League championship. The game will be at Pontiac Free Methodist Church.

National League titlist Northeast Community advanced to the finals with a 69-67 decision over Drayton Heights Free Methodist, while American League champion Trinity Baptist moved up with an 86-72 win over Northside Baptist. Drayton and Northside collide at 7:45 in a battle for third place.

LEADS WINNERS

Owen Edwards scored 27 points and Bill Foster 26 to spark the Northeast attack. Mike Peterson led Drayton with 30 markers. Drayton led at halftime, 34-32, but Northeast gained the upper hand with a 22-13 edge in the third stanza.

Daryl Mitchell and Larry Watkins triggered Trinity's win with 17 points apiece. Trinity led at halftime, 33-30. Don Fugate sparked Northside with 29 markers.

MISSES—Olympic pole vault champion Bob Seagren, who broke the world indoor record last week, clips the bar at the 62nd annual Wanamaker Millrose Games in New York last night. Seagren, defending Millrose titlist at 17-feet-4¼-inches, failed in three attempts to make a clean pass over the 16-foot mark and failed to qualify for the finals.

Minor League Experiment on Pinch-Hitting Okayed

NEW YORK (AP) — Baseball's playing rules committee agreed Friday to permit the International, Texas, Eastern and New York Pennsylvania leagues to use experimental rules on pinch hitting during the regular season.

Charles Segar, chairman of the committee, said other minor leagues might ask for changes up to a March 1 deadline.

★ ★ ★

In the International League, a manager may designate a wild card pinch hitter for the pitcher prior to the game who may bat exclusively for the pitcher, who remains in the game.

There will be no limit on the number of times he can come to bat. If the manager desired to bat for the wild card pinch hitter, his replacement takes over his privileges. He can bat only for the pitcher.

NOT DESIGNATED

In the Eastern League, the manager may designate a special pinch hitter for the pitcher at any time during the game. He does not have to make known his intentions before the game as under the International League rules but only when he intends to use him.

The Texas League will use a special rule by which a pinch hitter is allowed to bat more than once a game provided the player for whom he is substituted must leave the game. The pinch hitter can bat only once an inning unless the team bats around and could go to the field as a defensive player only in the half inning after he had batted.

It would be possible for this pinch batter to hit once each inning, as long as he did not take a defensive position, and as long as the manager had enough subs to take over for the men he replaced.

Ypsilanti Quintet Hands Novi Setback

Ypsilanti Roosevelt gained revenge for an earlier setback by holding off surging Novi, 68-65, last night.

Lee Snow and Jon VanWagner sparked a second half rally that carried Novi to within one point in the last quarter. Roosevelt led at the half, 33-26. VanWagner was high for Novi with 20.

Roosevelt lost to the same team, 46-41, earlier in the campaign.

Cellar-Dweller Nets Easy Win Over Sorrows

Detroit St. Rita rose out of the cellar in the Northwest Catholic League last night to shatter Farmington Our Lady of Sorrows, 81-56.

However, the one-sided win didn't allow St. Rita to escape last place. It is still a game out. Don Lock poured in 29 markers to lead the rout.

Country Day Buzzes GPUS With Rally

The buzzing Yellow Jackets of Country Day overcame a good third quarter by strong Grosse Pointe University School with a strong final period for a 59-56 win Friday.

Strongman Jack Zwemer pumped in 11 of his 30 points in the winning surge. Country Day trailed by seven points in the last quarter before pressuring GPUS into mistakes.

However, the host Knights still led, 56-55, with 20 seconds to go, but Jim Thorsen of Country Day grabbed a missed shot and put in a short jumper for his only basket of the night.

LAST CHANCE

The winners (9-2) then fouled a GPUS player and he missed the first shot of a one-and-one with 10 remaining. Zwemer broke free with a long pass and put in the clinching basket.

Country Day held a 30-25 lead at the half, but the Knights hit three quick shots and moved to a 43-39 lead after three quarters. Ralph Kulek made six of his 14 points in the outburst.

But Country Day, with Reed Bohne pulling down 15 rebounds and Zwemer connecting on 10 of 22 shots, was too strong and handed GPUS its fourth loss in 13 games while registering its sixth straight conquest.

Pole Vault Champion Fails in Qualifying; Long Jumper Ailing

By TOM SALADINO
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Australian Olympian and gold medal winner Ralph Doubell might have had the best idea of all.

He sat out the 62nd annual Wanamaker-Millrose indoor trck meet Friday night, as 42 Olympians from the Mexico City Games, including eight gold medal winners, attracted a sellout crowd of 17,670 to Madison Square Garden.

CHAMPS FAIL

U.S. Olympic champions Bob Seagren, Bob Beamon and Dick Fosbury are probably wishing they had missed New York's opening of the indoor season while George Young and Willie Davenport, Olympians, too, just keep adding to their winning streaks.

★ ★ ★

Doubell, who last week set 880-yard an indoor mark of 1:47.9 in Albuquerque, N.M., was a late scratch in that event here. He claimed fatigue after he was fog-bound in Toronto Thursday, eventually arriving in New York by bus from Baltimore where his New York-bound plane was detoured.

COULDN'T PREPARE

"That was no way to prepare for a race and I didn't want to risk an injury," Doubell said.

★ ★ ★

Seagren didn't have any such problems. He got here Thursday morning and had plenty of rest, but was eliminated from the pole vault after failing to clear the bar at 16 feet. Dick Railsback of UCLA was the winner at 17 feet.

HOLDS RECORDS

Segaren holds the world indoor and outdoor records and, along with Doubell, cracked his own world mark last week in New Mexico with a 17-5¾ effort. His 17.9 is the outdoor standard.

"I tried here. I always like to do good in New York, especially in the Millrose. I just didn't have it," said Seagren.

INJURED LEG

Beamon, the world's best in the long jump, attempted only one try before quitting. He apparently reinjured his leg, which kept him out of two meets recently, on his one try of 23 feet, 8 inches. Norman Tate won the event at 25-7¼.

Fosbury, who made the Fosbury Flop world-famous when he won at the Olympics, failed to win for the fifth straight time. He was eliminated after three misses at 6-10. Ron Jourdan of Florida won with a 7-1 leap.

Gajda in Tie for 2nd Place

WEST PLAM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Bob Gajda, pro at Forest Lake Country Club, and Milwaukee's David Field teamed to tie for second in the PGA Senior Junior Pro-Pro golf tournament here yesterday.

They posted a 136, two strokes off the winning pace set by Joe Lopez Sr. of Miami and Jack Doser of Gaithersburg, Md., who shot a final round 69 to take the $400 top prize.

Bob Hamiltop of Santa Claus, Ind., and Frank Harned of Solon, Ohio, closed with a 66 to tie for second. Each runner-up team collected $287.50.

Shot Misses Mark, Oaks Lose by One

Royal Oak Dondero went for the winning shot with six seconds to play, but missed, giving Highland Park 75-74 Border Cities Conference basketball win last night.

Dondero had rallied from a 42-34 halftime deficit to get within one point of Highland Park late in the fourth quarter. Jerry Campbell led the Oaks with 20 points and Don Schulz netted 17.

Moore Spurs Rally

Pistons Edge Chicago

By the Associated Press

The Detroit Pistons' theme Friday night was the team that lapses last, lapses worst.

After a 49-49 halftime tie, Chicago took advantage of a shooting lapse by the Pistons to outscore Detroit 12-2 in a three-minute period, to take a nine-point lead. The Bulls then ballooned their lead to 15 points.

ROOKIE SHARP

But a late rush, with rookie Otto Moore scoring 10 points in the last 4½ minutes, powered the Pistons to a 103-102 National Basketball Association victory.

★ ★ ★

Eddie Miles connected on a 30-foot jumper with 20 seconds left to notch the victory.

OTHER GAMES

In other NBA games, Baltimore came from behind to defeat Philadelphia, 108-105; Boston stopped Cincinnati, 116-101; Seattle turned back Atlanta, 119-112, and Los Angeles topped Milwaukee, 105-104 despite a 43-point outburst by the Bucks' Flynn Robinson.

★ ★ ★

In the game at Chicago, a free throw by Barry Clemens and a basket by Bob Boozer gave the Bulls a 102-101 edge with 36 seconds to play, before Miles connected with his game-winning shot.

★ ★ ★

Moore went in to replace starter Walter Bellamy with five minutes left in the game.

Boozer led all scorers with 24 points while Bellamy had 18 for the Pistons. Detroit travels to Atlanta tonight.

SPARK COMEBACK

Baltimore's Earl Monroe, Jack Marin and Kevin Loughery led a come-from-behind charge that downed the Philadelphia 76ers. The setback not only deprived Philadelphia a chance of tying Baltimore for first place in the NBA Eastern Division, but it made the 76ers' hold on the runner-up spot a bit more precarious. Boston is only one game behind.

Oakland Seals Edge Toronto

Rookie Ferguson Gains Winning Goal

OAKLAND (AP) — Thanks to rookie Norm Ferguson, the Oakland Seals' National Hockey League contest in Los Angeles tonight will not be as crucial as it might have been.

The Seals opened up a five-point bulge over third-place Los Angeles in the West Division Friday night as Ferguson scored on an 18-foot backhand shot with less than three minutes to play to give them a 5-4 victory over Toronto, the East Division's cellar team.

It was the only NHL contest Friday night.

START COMEBACK

The Seals came from behind in the second period with a pair of goals by defenseman Carol Vadnais to counter two first-period scores by Toronto's Paul Henderson.

★ ★ ★

The Maple Leafs broke the tie at 7:12 of the final period on Mike Walton's goal but Oakland struck back quickly with goals by Gerry Odrowski and Gene Ubriaco little more than two minutes apart.

Bob Pulford tied the game again for Toronto at 11:59 to set the stage for Ferguson's unassisted dash and his 19th goal of the season.

In other games tonight, New York is at Montreal, St. Louis at Detroit, Chicago at Minnesota and Philadelphia at Pittsburgh.

QUALIFIES AT DAYTONA — Gerald Thompson of Clawson drives his Corvette Stingray to a position in the starting field for 24 hours of Daytona at the Daytona International Speedway today and Sunday. Thompson qualified yesterday with a one lap time of 2:03.

Accidents Mar '250' Vee Race

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Steve Pieper of Alexandria, Va., won the Formula Vee world championship with a hair-breath victory over Harry Ingle of Charlotte, N.C., in a race punctuated by so many accidents some of the foreign drivers called it "250 miles of suicide."

Second place was changed by race officials twice before they decided three hours after the finish that Ingle was second.

* * *

The two Americans dueled through most of the 66 laps around the 3.81-mile course and often enchanged first place. Pieper roared off the last high bank on the outside and crossed the finish line about one-fourth length of his little car ahead of Ingle's.

* * *

An hour later, officials said a recheck indicated Ingle was a lap back and in third place, with second going to Cecil Harris Jr. of Houston, Tex.

TIMING CHECK

A more thorough check of taps and timing devices brought a new list of results from the sponsoring Sports Car Club of America officials.

Pieper remained the winner throughout the confusion, but the third reported juggled several places behind him.

* * *

Ingle was declared second; Bill Campbell of Cantonment, Fla., third and Peter Peter of Austria fourth—all on the same lap with the leader.

Harris was dropped to fifth.

The next five, in order, were: Jim McDaniel of Alexandria, Va., Glen Sullivan of Arlington, Va.,; Noel Atherely of Lantana, Fla.; Chuck Dietrich of Sandusky, Ohio, and Wayne Purdy of Clearwater, Fla.

Little-Known Pro Golfer Slips Ahead of Nicklaus

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Little-known Larry Ziegler played the role of Jack the Giant Killer Friday and the giant—at least for one day—was Jack Nicklaus, the victim of a treacherous putter.

When the shooting was over in the second round of the $150,000 Andy Williams San Diego Open Golf Tournament, Ziegler had caught and passed the mighty Nicklaus with a three-under par 69 and a 36-hole score of 139.

* * *

Nicklaus, the leader going into the fracas, wound up with a 72 for 140—thanks to a double bogey six when he four-putted the fourth hole.

Nicklaus played the back nine first at the Torrey Pines Golf Club, par 36-36—72, and was one under at the turn for the round.

He was two under after a birdie deuce on the third hole and—then things began to happen.

His approach to the green left him 35 feet from the cup. He putted up and the ball stopped five feet short. He putted again and left himself one foot away. Then he knocked it six inches past.

"I wasn't careless with it. I studied the putt. It just jumped past those few inches," said Nicklaus with a wide grin later.

* * *

While all the excitement centered on Ziegler, a newcomer to prominence in his third year on the PGA tour, and Nicklaus, scores continued to be high on another bright and warm day.

The greens were still heavy, however, from a deluge of rains, and an overnight light shower didn't help.

Gene Littler, with a 72, was in third place at 142, and Dick Lotz, 71, and Bob Charles, 69, were tied at 143.

National Open champion Lee Trevino had his best round, a 69 for 144, and local favorite Billy Casper's 75 left him back at 147. Dow Finsterwald, who had a sparkling 69 Thursday, went out in 40 and came back in 35 for 75 and 144, even par.

Student Cheating Tied to Parental Pressure

WASHINGTON (AP) — A new study backed by the U.S. Office of Education says parental pressure for high grades is a prime cause of cheating among high school students. And it finds the cheater is likely to be a bright student.

The finding is set forth by Dr. David E. Wilder of Columbia University's Bureau of Applied Research in a two-volume report to the Office of Education.

Wilder bases his report on an intensive study of eight anonymous New Jersey communities, all within a 75-mile radius of Times Square in New York City. The U.S. Office of Education's Bureau of Research supported the study with a grant of $127,000 provided under the Cooperative Research Act.

Wilder reports that it is pressure from the mother, rather than from the father, which looms as the major factor in cheating behavior.

In one table breaking down his findings, Wilder reports:

"Only one-third, or 35 per cent, of those students who perceive little or no maternal pressure cheat, whereas over half, or 54 per cent, of those brighter students who perceive a lot or some maternal pressure cheat."

A student's own perception of parental pressure, Wilder says, has less impact on cheating among poorer students.

* * *

"The highest rates of cheating are not found among those students with the lowest I.Q., lowest family income or lowest paternal occupations," Wilder finds.

"For example, while 50 per cent of those students with I.Q.'s falling in the 61-90 range cheat, 57 per cent of those with I.Q.'s in the 111-120 range cheat," he says in his report.

SEX NOT A FACTOR

Students from families in which parents have not attended college cheat more than students from college-educated families, the Wilder study says.

Sex, Wilder reports, does not appear to be related very strongly to cheating in schools. Forty-six per cent of the girls surveyed in the study said they cheat, and 55 per cent of the boys admitted to this behavior.

Wilder acknowledges that some student-cheating relationships can be accounted for by grades more than by parental pressure, and in this respect sex does appear to be a factor.

Fifty-six per cent of boys with lower grades cheat but almost the same proportion — 53 per cent — of boys with grades of B or above also cheat.

* * *

While 54 per cent of girls with lower grades cheat, however, only 40 per cent of girls with B grades or better do so.

Wilder says that cheating increases as dissatisfaction with one's performance increases.

"Thirty-nine per cent of the very satisfied students cheat," he reports, "while 58 per cent of the "not-at-all satisfied' do so."

GIs on Maneuvers Playing for Keeps

By WELLINGTON LONG

VISLECK, Germany (UPI)—The West German helicopter crew chief was fastidious.

He had covered the floor of the passenger compartment of his Huey helicopter with heavy brown wrapping paper and fixed the corners with masking tape.

* * *

American soldiers of the 3rd Infantry Division had to slog through ankle-deep mud to reach the craft that was to carry them into mock battle, and their boots dripped the filth all over the paper.

The craft was one of 12 West German Army Hueys assigned to help carry 450 American assault troops to a landing zone on a river bank in the middle of hostile country.

DRESS REHEARSAL

Although live ammunition was being used, it was a mock battle only, the dress rehearsal of an air mobility demonstration to be one of the highlights of the winter maneuvers being held in eastern Bavaria, about 15 miles from the Czechoslovak frontier.

The exercise was part of the "Carbide Ice" war games, which involve 12,000 U.S. troops airlifted from the United States to test redeployment techniques that would be used in the event of a European crisis.

* * *

American officials said it was the largest demonstration of its kind ever mounted in Western Europe. They neglected to mention that the Russians had carried out a much larger air mobility demonstration, and for real, when they invaded Czechoslovakia in August.

Nevertheless, the assault was impressive.

LANDING ZONE POUNDED

Two battalions of 18 155-mm field howitzers each pounded the landing zone for three minutes. In the helicopters circling in with the infantrymen, we could hear the explosions and see smoke drifting up over the horizon.

Other helicopters flew in with guns blazing and rockets whistling to do some pinpoint softening.

* * *

Our flight of 12 moved steadily, three abreast, at about 150 feet altitude and a speed of 70 knots.

Across the wooded hills steaming in the unseasonable warmth we could see a dozen other swarms of choppers. Some were going in like we were, others were rushing back from the battlefield to get another load.

OUT INTO THE MUD

Suddenly an American lieutenant nodded to the other soldiers in the German Huey. They unhooked their safety belts. An instant later we were over the landing zone. The chopper shuddered down to a stop. The German crew chief snatched open the door on the right side and leaped out. The Americans dived out behind him, ran a couple of steps and flung themselves into the mud.

The crew chief jumped back on board, and 10 seconds after we touched down, we were airborne again.

* * *

The air mobility exercise took place within the framework of the "Carbide Ice" war games in which aggressor "Orange Forces" numbering 7,000 men have launched an assault from the direction of eastern Europe against the 10,500 troops of the friendly "Orange" army.

Twelve thousand of the troops were flown over from Ft. Riley, Kan., to take part in the maneuvers and simultaneously to perfect re-development techniques in the event of a European crisis.

Ninety-five Phantom F4D fighter-bombers providing air support for the maneuvering forces also flew from the States, under the dual-based concept of forces kept in the United States for European defense.

Luck in duplicate can run both ways. You can misbid a hand and wind up with a top score if it turns out that your misbidding has brought you to a really lucky contract.

You can overlook the best line of play only to find out that the best line will fail and an inferior line will succeed.

Another form of bad luck is to have your opponents make some brilliantly successful play against you. If no one else makes that same play you can only congratulate your opponents if you feel equal to it, and go on to the next board.

★ ★ ★

Four spades appears to be ice cold. Any declarer worth his salt will decide that West needs the ace of spades for his opening bid. Then he will lead the 10 of spades from his hand; toy with the idea of letting it ride and then call for the king from dummy. A second spade lead will bump the ace and queen together and South will claim his contract.

Bridge expert Jake Winkman did not make four spades. He was kidded some but it wasn't his fault. It seems that East did a lot of thinking when his partner led the king of hearts at trick one.

Finally, East decided that his partner might just hold the ace of spades as his side strength and that repeated heart leads would produce four tricks for the defense. East played the five of hearts at trick one and echoed with the three spot at trick two.

★ ★ ★

West led a third heart. His partner's play had indicated a doubleton. West was a trifle shocked when East followed to the third heart.

He wasn't half as shocked as poor Winkman. Winkman took his perfectly useless discard in dummy, ruffed in his own hand and led a low spade.

West wasn't too shocked to rise with the ace and lead a fourth heart. There was no way to shut out East's queen and down went Winkman.

Astrological Forecast

By SYDNEY OMARR

For Sunday

"The wise man controls his destiny . . ." Astrology points the way.

ARIES (March 21-April 19): Day features excitement — personal magnetism high. Full moon position emphasizes dealings with opposite sex. Be flexible. Exhibit sense of humor. Encourage young person. Be creative.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): Full moon position today coincides with desire for greater security. Could lead to spirited discussion with mate, partner. There are limitations. Don't try too much, soon.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): You are able to complete important task. Leaves time for visits, journey. Get ideas on paper. Talk over plans with relative. Avoid scattering forces. Have fun in constructive manner.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Accent on what you own and can gain. Lunar position accents possessions and income potential. Child makes demands. Be understanding but avoid extravagance. Preserve family unity.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): Full moon in your sign stresses need for self-expression. Some may try to grab spotlight. Realize strength is on your side. State case. Adhere to principles. You emerge victorious.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): Some restrictions continue. Work with tools at hand. Be discreet. Lunar emphasis is on secrets, clandestine meetings. Don't tell all you know. Be a keen observer.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): A money issue could create friction. Separate friendship from business. Key is to be practical. Nice to be sentimental but today it could be costly. Act accordingly.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Avoid excess speed. Take care around machinery, electricity. Accent today on prestige, accomplishment. But in sighting goal, don't overlook details. Then accident is avoided.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): Spiritual counsel is of special benefit today. Break through barriers toward greater self-understanding. Key is to be receptive. You are due to learn something of value.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): Events which had been hidden, undercover or obscured come to light. You could locate missing deed, legal document. Friend who is aggressive does something to please you.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): Responsibility connected with partnership, marriage is highlighted. Don't ignore request of one close to you. Realize that restrictions are but temporary. Key is mature approach.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20): Be agreeable to changes. Affects relations with associates, co-workers. If you've neglected one at a distance, pick up phone, make call. Past promises "catch up."

★ ★ ★

IF SUNDAY IS YOUR BIRTHDAY you can make long-range plans because greater success is on horizon. You tend to be moody but recent efforts will pay off. One you aided will return the favor.

★ ★ ★

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Full moon position stresses dynamic change in basic values. Day favorable for fishing. Cycle high for LEO, VIRGO, LIBRA.

★ ★ ★

For Monday

ARIES (March 21-April 19): Accent on basic issues; get routine tasks completed. Early there is flurry of activity, confusion. Later, goal comes into focus. Key is concentration of efforts. Be determined.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): Emphasis on children, creative endeavors. Your sense of timing is sharp. Judgment apt to prove correct. Day features change, travel, variety. Exchange of ideas stimulating.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Concentrate on affairs at home. Give attention to property value. Improve conditions by being harmonizing influence. Family squabble can be settled. Make good will gesture.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Stress today on ideas, short journeys, visits. Be selective. Choose the best. Refuse to be swayed by get-rich-quick schemes. If perceptive, you get to heart of matters.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): Money dominates. Study budget, income potential. Don't be satisfied with second best. Highlight unique talents, abilities. One in authority is impressed. Valid offer is due. Hold tight!

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): Cycle high means circumstances turn in your favor. Take initiative. Be independent, original. Study LEO message. New contacts are favored. Get started!

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Behind-scenes action is highlighted. Be quiet within. Discretion today is essential. Someone may try to draw you out. Not wise to tell everything. Be familiar with your rights.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Accent on friendship, fulfillment of desires. Aura of romance prevails. Intuitives, intellect comes into play. Hunch pays off. Share knowledge. Be receptive to offer.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): Lunar position highlights career aspirations. Go to the top — bypass red tape. You can see and impress important persons. Have alternative methods, suggestions at hand.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): Good lunar aspect today coincides with news from afar. Answer correspondence. Review aspirations. Find out what it is you really seek. Then take steps to bring goal near.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): Attention could be dominated by legacy, formal papers affecting finances. Consult expert — add to knowledge. Gain shown if you are thorough in pursuit of truth.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20): Be aware of public relations. Correct false impressions, strengthen ties of affection. Don't be misled by one who is a cynic. Permit mate, partner to have spotlight.

★ ★ ★

IF MONDAY IS YOUR BIRTHDAY you are a natural entertainer. Your sense of comedy is highly honed. People like to be around you. Social activity increases; you are due to make new, valuable contacts.

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Lunar position favorable for FISHING. Cycle high for VIRGO, LIBRA. Special word to PISCES: be keen observer; let others do most of the talking.

Curfew Clamped on 7 Cities in Pakistan Political Crisis

KARACHI, Pakistan (AP) — Government troops enforced curfews in seven Pakistani cities as the nation awaited word from President Ayub Khan on how he will deal with the bloody political crisis that has claimed at least 30 lives.

Ayub, who regularly broadcasts at the beginning of each month, was expected to call opposition leaders to a round table conference to discuss reforms in government structure and elections.

* * *

Some opposition leaders hoped he would borrow a page from former President Lyndon B. Johnson and announce that he will not be a candidate in next January's presidential election.

Ayub is 62. He was seriously ill for two months last year with a lung disease, although he has shown no outward signs of illness in recent appearances. Since November, the two principle opposition leaders, former Foreign Minister Zulifakir A. Bhutto and former air force commander-in-chief Asghar Khan have urged him not to run again.

OPPOSITION IS UNITED

Eight opposition parties have banded together in the three-month-long political crisis, and they are wary of any meeting with Ayub, fearing he may use it to divide them.

They are demanding a federal parliamentary system and direct adult franchise. Under the present system provincial and national assemblies and the president are chosen by an electoral college of 80,000, elected by their home districts.

* * *

Government troops patrolled the West Pakistan cities of Karachi, where 720 persons have been arrested, Lahore, Peshawar, Gujranwala and Sialkot.

In East Pakistan, a thousand miles across the Indian sub-continent in the other half of this nation, troops were out in Khulna and Dacca. An estimated 1,000 persons have been arrested there.

SPORADIC CLASHES

Sporadic clashes between police and demonstrators erupted in other cities Friday. In Rawalpindi, the capital, police used tear gas and steel-tipped clubs to break up a crowd of 20,000 demonstrators.

Hundreds of persons were injured and cars, buses and government buildings and homes of ruling Muslim League officials were stoned and set on fire in Pakistan this past week.

* * *

In cities where the curfew is enforced, the government allows a brief respite in the afternoon so that Moslems can go to the mosques to say their prayers and families can go to the bazaars and get food.

The trouble began last November when Bhutto, who heads the leftist People's Party, made a tour of West Pakistan. He was arrested on charges of inciting the masses, especially students, to violence, and his arrest stepped up the tempo of anti-government demonstrations. Late last year there was an assassination attempt against Ayub.

OPPONENTS ENCOURAGED

Air Marshal Asghar Khan's entry into political opposition as an independent encouraged Ayub's opponents to press harder for reforms. The government retaliated by arresting at least 3,000 opposition leaders, workers and students in the last week.

Killer of Negro Is Given Life

Guilty of Fire-Bomb Slaying in Mississippi

HATTIESBURG, Miss. (AP) — Charles Wilson, 36, has been convicted of murder in the firebomb slaying of Negro leader Vernon Dahmer.

A Forest County circuit court jury, after almost six hours deliberation., returned a guilty verdict Friday night. The verdict carried an automatic life sentence since the jurors couldn't agree on a penalty.

* * *

Wilson was charged in the Jan. 10, 1966 firebomb attack on Dahmer's home and store near Hattiesburg, which killed Dahmer.

A Laurel service club named Wilson their Man of the Year a few days before the incident.

WIFE TESTIFIES

The final witness for the defense Friday was Wilson's 31-year-old wife, who testified that Wilson was home the night of the attack.

Mrs. Wilson said neighbors were visiting their home until about 10:45 the night before the Dahmer raid, and they first learned of it the next morning in a radio broadcast.

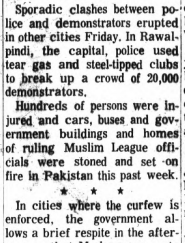

* * *

The FBI identified Wilson as a members of the White Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, but Mrs. Wilson denied that her husband was a member.

It was Wilson's second trial on the murder charge. The first ended in a mistrial.

STATE WITNESS

A state witness, Billy Roy Pitts of Laurel, testified earlier that he saw Wilson carry jugs of gasoline, a shotgun and a pistol to Dahmer's home the night of the firebomb raid.

Senator Seeks Curbs

Cigarette Ads Target

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Frank Moss, D-Utah, warns he will use any means necessary—including a filibuster—to keep Congress from extending the law that forbids the Federal Trade Commission to limit cigarette advertising.

* * *

Moss urged the nation's cigarette advertisers Friday to abandon voluntarily all broadcast advertising.

"I would be the first to assist them to obtain antitrust immunity" if they volunteer to quit broadcast advertising, Moss said in a Senate speech.

"But nothing less is acceptable," he added.

He added, "It is time for an ultimatum," noting that five years have passed since the surgeon general's Committee on Smoking and Health linked smoking with various diseases, including lung cancer.

In the absence of new legislation, he said, the ban on FTC action expires in July and the commission would then be free to move against cigarette advertising.

He said a majority of FTC members told Congress last year they thought "the only adequate response to the threat posed by cigarette smoking to the American public is a ban on the broadcast advertising of cigarettes."

In a brief speech following Moss' remarks, Sen. Marlow W. Cook, R-Ky., said he would do all he could to assure passage of fair legislation in the area.

Mrs. David Bates Will Share Her Herb Knowledge At Pontiac Press Lawn, Garden And Flower Show March 24-29

Home Aglow With Antiques

By JODY HEADLEE
Home Editor, The Pontiac Press

The flicker of handmade candles mirrored in the mellow patina of the generation-polished furniture leads one to expect a hostess in a floor-sweeping gown with a crisp white neckerchief and matching dustcap at the home of the David Bates in Bloomfield Township.

Instead a talented young woman, smartly dressed in today's fashion, holds the key to the Bates' smoothly operating household.

Leading a quick tour through her charming home, Mrs. Bates touches highlights in the history of many of her antique pieces.

"The Shaker rocker is from New Hampshire," she said. "It's still finished in the original red paint. Notice how the tin candlestick hooks onto the back of the chair for reading.

"The old glasses on the table belonged to my great-grandfather. And the well-thumbed history book was his father's. It was printed right here in America in 1833.

"You know most books at that time were printed in Europe. Any book printed by an American publishing house dated before 1860 is valuable.

"Almost every home in New England had a touch of the Orient in its decor because of the sea trade on the coast."

The coffee table before the living room's beige and brown sofa was once a wagon seat. On either side of the sofa are a pine dry sink and a dough box.

Holding a portion of the room's library is a jelly cupboard.

"The child's sleigh on top of the cupboard has been passed through the family," continued Mrs. Bates. "See its wood runners?"

Mrs. Bates' interest in herbs is reflected throughout the house from the ancient herbal on the living room's cherry-topped drop-leaf table to the pots of growing herbs basking in the dining room's sunlight to the herbal wreath adorning the family room's fireplace mantel to the octagon herb chest in the informal dining area.

"That's my latest refinishing project," said Mrs. Bates, pointing to the herb chest. "It was used originally as a tire and carriage-bolt dispenser in a hardware store.

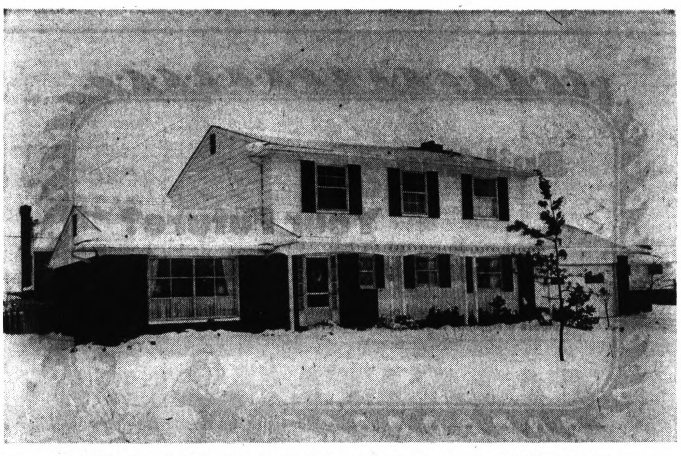

FREE-WHEELING

"My husband plans to mount it on casters so it will turn easily and I can use all of the drawers for my dried herbs. Those are the original drawer pulls.

"I've always enjoyed French cookery and have been interested in Early Americana. This led to my discovery of herbs.

"Every home in those early days had its own herb garden so naturally I had to have mine. Herbs are so hardy . . . so disease and insect-resistant . . . they are a delight to any gardener."

A guest lecturer, Mrs. Bates will demonstrate her planting techniques and the uses of herbs at The Pontiac Press Lawn, Garden and Flower Show to be presented at The Pontiac Mall, Elizabeth Lake and Telegraph Roads, March 24-29.

Biggest City? Jacksonville!!

Think New York and Chicago are the nation's largest cities? Los Angeles, you say? Don't bet a nickel on any of them, William S. Foster advises.

Jacksonville, Florida, is the largest U. S. city—in total land area, Foster says. Foster, editor of The American City magazine, has just completed a study of actual city size.

★ ★ ★

American City, management journal for 35,000 local government officials, finds Jacksonville leads the list with 752 square miles of area.

Second largest in U. S.: Oklahoma City, with 630 square miles. Third: Honolulu with 598.

Only after Metropolitan Nashville (532 square miles) come Los Angeles (455) and the City of New York (315).

Will New York and Los Angeles ever catch up?

"Not likely," Foster says.

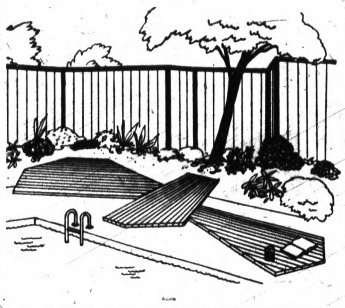

"Many U. S. cities are rapidly enlarging their borders to take in surrounding areas—a unified solution to pressing urban problems.

★ ★ ★

But with New York and certain other older cities, expansion would run into well-entrenched satellite cities and suburbs."

Bulbous Buggies

Cars have from 36 to 56 light bulbs, more than are used in the average home.

SUN ISLES — Sunbathing islands prevent scorching contact with hot poolside paving. Built of fir 2x4s nailed over flat 2x4s underneath, people-size platforms can be fun shapes. Wood requires no finishing.

Select House Colors to Suit Personality

Whether it's psychedelic swirls, the "in" shades of high fashion, or traditional black and white, color has become an increasingly important element of contemporary life.

Even architectural design has joined the color revolution, with building materials that run the gamut from pastel pink to ebony.

★ ★ ★

Psychologists say that color selection — whether for gowns, business suits, automobiles or roofs — reflects our personality, our social environment, and our cultural background. For instance, most people find cool colors — blues and greens — relaxing; warm colors — reds and yellows — stimulating; and neutral colors — browns and greys — "comfortable."

★ ★ ★

Whatever your color preference, there's no reason not to indulge it. Color consultants say it's a mistake to use colors that are "wrong" for your personality even if particular hues happen to be fashionable at the moment.

HOUSE DECOR

Probably the most "color caution" should be exercised when choosing "long-term" colors — as for house decor.

You can discard a dress if the color doesn't please you, but you'll want to live with roof, house siding and floor colors for a long time.

★ ★ ★

The influence of color on home design is well accepted by manufacturers of house products and building materials.

★ ★ ★

Research aimed at developing a wider range of colors has, for some time, been an essential part of the building products industry.

ROOF IMPORTANT

A case in point is roofing. Colored shingles provides an opbasic blacks and whites, modern asphalt shingles — the most popular roofing for new homes and for reroofing applications— now come in a spectrum of beautiful colors.

These include sophisticated shades like mint green, midnight blue, chocolate and frost white.

★ ★ ★

There are also a variety of "earth" and "forest" colors (shades of brown and green) specifically designed to allow effective color-coordination with the house's surroundings.

Improved treatment of asphalt shingles has resulted in increased fade-resistance as well as a wider choice of colors.

From a practical — as well as psychological — point of view, the availability of colored shingles provdies an opportunity for homeowners to plan distinctive and personalized exterior color schemes, with the roof as a dramatic visual highlight.

Carpeting Rolls Up Big Market

Carpeting, which now appears in many model homes and apartments, is a rapidly growing part of the multi-billion-dollar floor covering market.

The Bureau of Building Marketing Research says builders now include some carpeting in more than 75 per cent of their models. What's more, seven out of 10 homes and apartments sold from these models include some carpeting.

★ ★ ★

Carpeting is now used in living rooms, dining rooms, bedrooms, kitchens, baths, family-rec rooms and outdoor patios of model homes.

Building Supply News, trade journal of the building supply industry, says large building supply retail chains are promoting carpeting as a mass market product that almost anyone can afford.

CURRENT SALES

Currently, 22 per cent of U.S. households buy carpets or rugs during a year. General promoting by the carpeting industry promises a substantial increase in the consumer's desire.

★ ★ ★

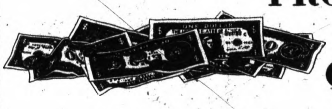

The builder market for carpeting expanded when the FHA ruled that carpeting could be included under FHA financing.

Panel Doors Set Fashion

Wood panel doors, always popular with Colonial and traditional house designs, are now available in a variety of new styles suitable for contemporary decor.

★ ★ ★

For example, panel doors of ponderosa pine now come in fashionable Spanish and Mediterranean motifs — some with as many as 30 panels and with ornate grilles and decorative inserts.

★ ★ ★

They can be obtained at local lumber dealers in stock sizes. It is possible to get the door as a single unit, or as part of a complete entryway with features such as sidelights, fanlights and overhead cornices.

FUN ROOM — The cozy glow of a fireplace sets a convivial mood in any room. And, its impact can be doubled by paying decorative attention to the surrounding wall area. Here, hardboard wall panels — in prefinished woodgrain — lend an appropriate aura of warmth.

Decorative Fireplaces Spark Room Decor

Fireplaces have blazed into new popularity.

Once considered heart and hearth of the colonial home, fireplaces of various styles, shapes and sizes are now a sought-after feature in all types of residences — including contemporary homes, townhouses and apartments.

★ ★ ★

The reasons are obvious. Fireplaces add an undeniable touch of warmth and graciousness, are a comfortable conversational gathering place, and can easily become the decorative focal point of a room.

The decorative impact of a fireplace can be doubled by giving it a dramatic background. A nondescript, old-fashioned fireplace can be remodeled into a striking conversation piece with the aid of hardboard wall panelings.

WIDE CHOICE

Hardboard panels come in a wide choice of finishes, allowing selection of whatever style suits the room—and fireplace.

There are, for example, warm woodgrain finishes, delicate damask-patterns and a number of interesting textured finishes.

Rugged hardboard panel siding—with a hand-hewn look—is beautifully appropriate as a backdrop for Franklin stoves, and for rustic-style vacation homes.

The panels are available in standard 4-by-8-feet sizes that are easy to cut, handle and install. They are extremely sturdy, resistant to dents, mars and scuffs, and can be damp-wiped clean — a bonus for fireplace walls which tend to get smudged and sooty.

INSTALLED EASILY

Panels may be installed on studs or over furring strips applied to the existing wall, with space about the size of a matchbook cover between each panel to allow for natural expansion.

Waterproof cartridge-type adhesive is ideal for a nailless application. Matching moldings, baseboards and color-matched nails are also available with most prefinished woodgrained panels.

Wax Stains Do Come Out

Want to remove a candlewax stain? Rub with ice and gently scrape. Then place stain between clean white blotters or several layers of facial tissue and press with warm iron to remove remaining stain.

★ ★ ★

Pour boiling water through the spot, if safe for fabric, or sponge with an accepted brand cleaning fluid. The directions are for removing wax stains on white cottons and linens.

When the stain is on other washable fabrics and colored cottons, follow the same directions. But do not use boiling water. Also: do not use a cleaning fluid containing trichloroethylene on Arnel or Kodel.

Give your family the warmth of financial security.

We mean home-ownership, of course. Like a cozy fireplace, it provides a special comfort all it's own.

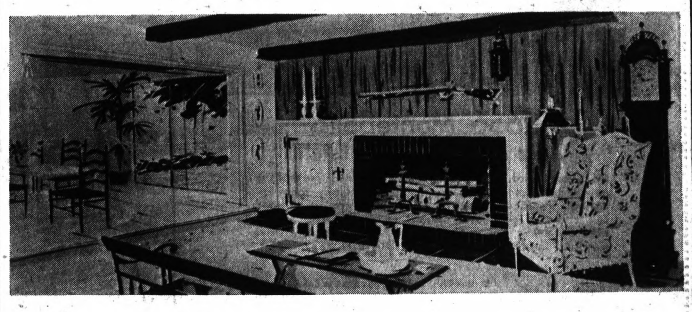

Right now thousands of home owners have security in the home they are buying or own and we'd be pleased to have you join this growing group. We think we have a lot to offer you today.

Take a new home for instance. Every dollar you put into it is adding to your savings. Home-ownership is your best hedge against inflation. "No investment on earth is so sure, so safe, so certain to enrich its owner as real estate."

The family who buys now will be ahead of the family that continues to collect rent receipts. Each monthly payment builds equity. At the same time, your home will be increasing in value.

The best security in the whole world, for you, your wife and children, is the security of owning your own home.

Interested? Your O'Neil Realty representative can tell you more. He's a full-time career salesman. Knowledgeable in all phases of home-ownership. A good person to know. Call him today for a fireside chat.

Z-78 Statistics
Design Z-78 has a living room, dining room, den, kitchen, laundry, three bedrooms, two baths, a lavatory and a foyer, with a total habitable area of 1,932 square feet. The one-car garage has a storage area built into one wall. Plans call for a basement. Over-all dimensions, which include the garage, are 68' 10" by 45' 8".

Ranch With French Provincial Styling

In custom home building, a departure from the conventional usually raises the cost beyond what the average purchaser is prepared to pay.

Yet many buyers insist on something different and have the wherewithal to satisfy their wishes.

★ ★ ★

This latest House of the Week was designed by architect Herman H. York with the intention of providing a compromise.

It's a modified French Provincial, done with the traditional hip roof and using details typical of this style, which might be termed somewhat more sophisticated and perhaps more elegant than most ranch houses.

The architect would like to have specified, among other things, a slate or tile roof, more detailed cornice mouldings, special shutters, special brick, etc., but he has used those materials with which home builders are familiar and which are readily available.

FRENCH PROVINCIAL

Thus, even though the styling of the French Provincial period has been carried out, the house falls into the "modified" category.

The floor plan of Design Z-78 is not unusual in its relationship of rooms to one another, but an examination discloses many desirable features to provide convenient and sensible family living.

★ ★ ★

Moving past the covered entryway into the foyer, one gets an immediate view of the length of the living room all the way back to the rear of the house.

An attractive window seat has storage space below it. And there are sliding glass doors to a terrace.

The adjacent dining room has the same kind of doors leading to the same terrace.

ARCHWAY

While the plans call for a solid wall between the living room and the dining room, an archway opening between them is optional.

To the right of the foyer is a wood panelled room that can be used as a den, library or family room. It has a fireplace and a window seat similar to that in the living room.

★ ★ ★

The kitchen is accessible from the foyer without going through any other room, from the right side of the house, from the dining room and from the rear terrace.

It is next to the laundry room, a mud closet, a pantry, a dual-entry lavatory and the stairway to the basement.

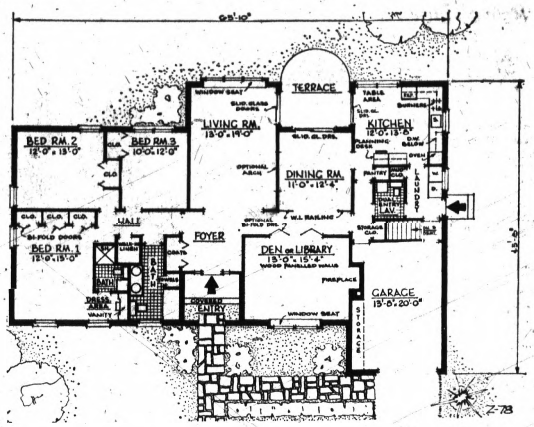

★ ★ ★

The bedroom wing, at the right side of the house, is reached directly from the front foyer.

BEDROOMS

There are three bedrooms and two baths, the main bathroom having twin lavatories and a towel closet separate from the walk-in linen closet in the bedroom hall.

The private bath in the master bedroom has a stall shower with an adjacent vanity and dressing area.

FLOOR PLANS: Good traffic circulation, with entry foyer as the hub, is immediately apparent. In addition, there are entrances to the living room, dining room and kitchen from the rear; and entrances to the kitchen from the side and the garage.

Office Supplies Sales Racket

Beware of the "sob-story" salesmen who try to win sympathy along with large orders for overpriced office supplies.

Business executives throughout the country have been victimized by name-dropping con men who relate carefully rehearsed "sob stories" in an attempt to sell carbon paper and other office supplies.

According to the National Better Business Bureau, these itinerant salesmen often affect heavy foreign accents. In their appeals they may claim they are trying to raise money to bring oppressed refugees to this country, or to return to a sick relative behind the Iron Curtain, or to help a friend liquidate the business of a deceased relative.

When orders arrive the paper is of inferior quality. Small orders are sometimes given, but large orders are shipped, and bills are followed by high-pressure dunning.

Do not allow your sympathy to override your sound judgement. Buy office supplies from firms of known reliability.

Repairmen Irksome

Why is it that repairmen so often downgrade the work of other repairmen? Is it a sincere expression of annoyance with incompetence? Or is it merely a preliminary comment designed to prepare a householder for an extended job and a sizable bill?

The following letter is typical of many received over the years:

"I am getting sick and tired of servicemen who come to the house to fix something and always begin by saying, 'Whoever fixed this the last time sure botched it up.'

★ ★

I'd feel very self-conscious about this, except that they say it even when it was previously done by a professional. And one fellow said it just before starting work on some plumbing equipment that never had been repaired by anyone.

"A couple of weeks ago, our toaster stopped working. I know a little about electricity, so I took the outer case off the toaster and examined it. I saw that it couldn't be fixed by me because a major part was broken.

I replaced the case, putting back the two key screws and leaving off the others. Even though I told my wife I didn't think it would pay to get it fixed and that we should get a new one, she took it to an appliance repair shop. The man glanced at it, saw the missing screws and said, 'Somebody has been fooling around with this. Why don't people stop trying to fix things they know nothing about?'

My wife was embarrassed, but said nothing. Tom make a long story short, I was right, the toaster couldn't be fixed without spending almost as much as the cost of a new one.

★ ★ ★

"What buggs me is that the repairman made his statement automatically, before he even took off the toaster case — one more example of how these fellows seem to resent the possibility that someone else may have tried to fix something before it was brought to them. It was my toaster and if I wanted to put it into a meat grinder, it was my right to do it.

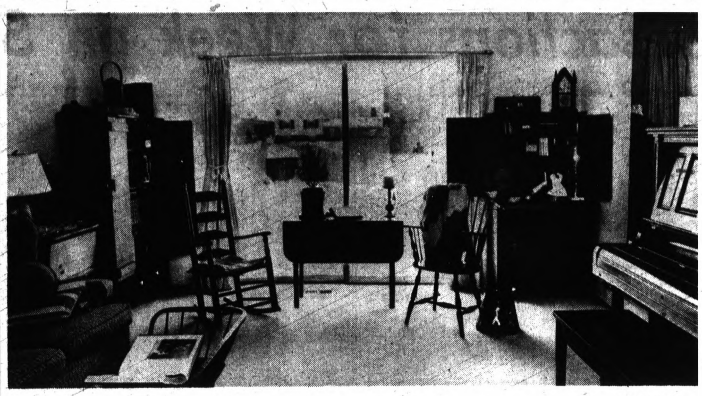

★ ★ ★

Frankly, I don't see what business it is of theirs, as long as they're not being asked to fix something for nothing. Also, making such remarks is a good way to lose future business."

TENDENCY

We, too, have noticed this tendency of servicemen to indicate that a previous repair job, even if done years before, wasn't handled properly. Perhaps it really isn't too important, although it can be if the intention is to hike the price.

But it certainly can be tactless, especially if the man of the house had something to do with the repair.

LIVING ROOM — Grouped around the 175-year-old cherry-topped table in the David Bates' living room are a Shaker rocker and Mrs. Bates' great-grandfather's Windsor chair in its original black paint. Mrs. Bates' mother painted the gay figures on the black bucket beside the chair. A collector of antiques mortars and pestles, Mrs. Bates displays one of her favorites (a family piece over 200 years old) planted with Rosemary.

DINING ROOM—Cranberry candles in polished brass candlesticks, shocking pink velvet runners, pink pepper berries and a gilded pineapple with gold and pearl spines and shocking pink velvet bows adorn the Sheraton mahogany table in the dining room. Dominating the room's end wall is an English pine settle dating back to the 18th century. "I especially like the arms," said Mrs. Bates. "They are so smooth from people rubbing them over the centuries as they sat on the settle."

Clean Brushes Can Save Time

When working with interior or exterior latex paints, it's a good idea to wash your brush in clear water occasionally. This will prevent quick-drying latex paint from building up and hardening at the base of the bristles.

When you have finished work for the day, thoroughly wash out all brushes so they will be clean and ready for the next day's use.

What Wall Street Did

By ROBERT HAWORTH
AP Business Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Prices were generally lower in all sectors of the bond market this past week.

The inclusion of a seven-year note in the current Treasury refunding contributed to a further decline in intermediate governments. In the last two weeks, intermediate and long term governments have sold off by almost one and two points respectively, according to Salomon Brothers & Hutzler, national investment firm. Short-term rates showed only small fluctuations remaining ⅛ to ⅜ per cent below recent highs.

* * *

The Treasury on Thursday offered a 15-month note yielding 6.42 per cent and a seven-year note yielding 6.29 per cent to replace the $5.4 billion in publicly held securities maturing Feb. 15. The short-term note carried a coupon of 6% per cent, the highest on such an issue since the Civil War.

Declines in municipal bond prices more than offset the rally of the two previous weeks. The Bond Buyers index of yields on representative municipals, moving inversely to bond prices, rose 9 points to 4.91 per cent, the highest since early in 1934. This index now stands 6 basis points (hundredths of a per cent) above its previous record of 4.85 per cent set during three weeks in late December and early January.

* * *

The city of New York withdrew a scheduled sale of $30 million of tax - exempt housing bonds because of the low state of the municipal bond market. No new date was set for sale of the bonds.

Investor response to new issues of corporate bonds was generally apathetic despite an increase in yields. During the week, unsold new issues totaling about $65 million, or over half of the new issue inventory, were released from syndicate restrictions and subsequently sold down by 5 to 10 basis points. Recent corporates sold off fractionally, while seasoned issues continued to advance. At the close, seasoned issues were as much as 2 points above their recent lows. The calendar of new issues for the coming week totaled $247 millions.

'Friendly' Cheetah Killed; Owner Arrested

MIAMI BEACH (AP) — A hunter cat, described as a big kitten at heart, was shot and killed Friday by police who had no way of knowing whether she was after play or prey.

Motorcycle Policeman Robert Nieder fired the first bullet into "Che-Che," a 100-pound cheetah, after she came bounding into the street after his motorcycle. Other policemen finished off the wounded animal in a hotel garage on Miami Beach's famed Collins Avenue.

* * *

"I heard someone yell, 'Look out behind you'," Nieder said, "and when I turned, here was this cheetah lofing along behind me. I turned and he was poised and he made a move toward me, so I fired one shot."

* * *

Che-Che, owned by Thomas Posen, 35, of Chicago, had bounded out of her owner's $125,000 yacht "June Bride" and jumped on a 9-year-old boy before she was attracted by the motorcycle.

BOY BRUISED

The boy, Jeffrey Kenzer of Woodmere, N.Y., was treated for bruises on his foot and thigh.

* * *

"That cat is friendly," said Capt. Larry Gregory, whose yacht "Miramar" was berthed alongside Posen's earlier in the week at Fort Lauderdale.

* * *

"It liked to play," Gregory said. "It got along with everybody. It loved kids. It was declawed and de-fanged. It had its eating teeth, but the fangs had been taken out."

* * *

Posen was arrested for drunkeness and police had to carry him off his illegally-docked yacht. He was also charged with keeping a dangerous animal and allowing a cat to run without a bell. Miami Beach is a bird sanctuary with restrictions on cats.

CONTENTION SUPPORTED

An employe of Posen's Golden Fifty Pharmaceutical Co. in Chicago supported Gregory's contention that Che-Che was a playful cat.

* * *

"He (Posen) took Che-Che with him every place he went," she said. "He'd bring her to the office every day, so she was quite used to being with people."

GOING TO JAIL—Miami Beach police remove cheetah-owner Michael Posen from his illegally docked yacht, after his 100-pound cat was gunned down by police as it ran at large. He was charged with intoxication, keeping a dangerous animal and allowing a cat to run without a bell.

State Legislators Now 2nd-Highest Paid in U.S.

LANSING (UPI) — Without fanfare, Michigan legislators today became the second highest paid senate lawmakers in the land.

At 12:01 a.m. the salaries of the 38 senators and 109 representatives (one seat is vacant) went from $12,500 to $15,000 per year, retroactive to Jan. 1.

At the same time, Gov. William G. Milliken automatically received a $25,000 housing and expense allowance to complement his $40,000 annual salary.

The lieutenant governor was given a $3,000 expense allowance but no one currently occupies that office so it will remain unspent unless an acting lieutenant governor is designated before the 1970 elections.

The salary and expense increases were voted last December by the new State Officers Compensation Commission. The Legislature had until today to reject or amend the pay schedule.

A resolution was introduced in the Senate the second day of the 1969 session to scrub the commission's recommendations but nobody expected the lawmakers to vote themselves out of fatter pay checks.

* * *

They were right. Nothing came of the resolution.

In addition to their basic salary of $15,000 a year $290 per week, the Michigan lawmakers will receive up to $3,000 annually in accountable expenses while the Legislature is in regular or special session.

* * *

Nationwide, Michigan's legislators will be outstripped in greenbacks only by their California counterparts, who make $16,000 annually plus $25 per day expenses and mileage.

Media Fighting Supervisor Pay

MOUNT CLEMENS (UPI) — A Macomb County radio station and two area daily newspapers are waging a petition drive in an attempt to force the new board of supervisors to pull back on their planned salaries of $7,800 plus $35 for each meeting attended.

* * *

More than 700 petitions were in circulation today as radio station WBRB, the Macomb Daily and the Utica Daily Sentinel took editorial stands against the resolution passed by the 21-man board Thursday to set their salaries.

* * *

The commotion in Macomb County was being reflected in other parts of the state as a result of pay squabbles between new boards of supervisors and the citizens of their counties. The Michigan Legislature, in passing the bill calling for reorganization last year, allowed the supervisors to set their own salaries.

* * *

The Macomb County petition drive will end next week.

* * *

The petitions state that the salaries set by the board were an "act in defiance of the public trust, confidence and discretion vested in you."

Police Nab 36 in Cycle Gang

DETROIT (AP) — Detroit police said they took 36 members of the Henchmen motorcycle gang into custody Friday night after a shot was fired at a policeman, and struck one of the club members.

They were held for investigation of conspiracy to commit murder, police said. One of four women also was being questioned about a possible narcotics violation, authorities said.

Police said the shooting happened when police chased a youth into the clubhouse after a traffic violation. When they entered, police said a shot was fired at them. It missed and struck Ronald Bawson, 26, who was locked in chains in an apparent initiation ceremony.

He was listed in serious condition, but was expected to recover.

Murder Trial Ordered for 2 From County

PLYMOUTH, Mass. (AP)—A Superior Court judge Friday ordered trial to begin April 7 for two Michigan youths charged with murdering a college student who had worked with them in a Boston photo laboratory.

Ross Wittehoeft, 18, and Craig Simoni, 16, both of Beverly Hills, Mich., are charged in the death Aug. 8 of Robert D. Phelps, 20, a student at Boston College.

A medical examiner said the victim died of multiple stab wounds.

Wittehoeft of 1596 Amherst and Simoni of 15525 Birwood, sons of Michigan businessmen, were arrested in Chicago Aug. 12.

They were ordered held without bail in Plymouth County House of Correction following their court arraignment. Simoni was held as a juvenile but was ordered to stand trial as an adult.

A SACRED TRUST

The progress made by the Funeral Profession during the last fifty years has been truly amazing. The days of the old time "undertaker" are gone forever. No longer is he the funny character of the movies.

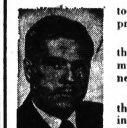

J. L. VOORHEES

The average funeral director of today has spent many years in schools preparing himself for his chosen field.

Across the nation you will find that the funeral director today is a civic-minded individual, and many are prominent leaders of their community.

The public today has come to realize that the funeral director is a very helpful individual. Serving you is the greatest honor you can bestow on us, for you entrust us with the care of your loved ones. Fulfilling this trust is our dedicated goal.

Area Man to Head Tourist Association

DANIEL W. BURLINGAME

Daniel W. Burlingame of 31464 Sleepy Hollow, Bloomfield Township, was elected yesterday as the new president of the Southeast Michigan Tourist Association at its 43rd annual meeting held at Oakland University.

Burlingame, trust officer for Manufacturers National Bank of Detroit in Birmingham, was elected by the new board of directors of SMTA, which includes three people from Oakland County. He has been membership chairman, treasurer and vice chairman of SMTA.

★ ★ ★

The three board members are Durward B. Varner, chancellor of Oakland University; Margaret Russell, director of public relations for Cranbrook Institute; and Martin Kreger of the Red Fox Restaurant in Bloomfield Township.

Appointed to the board of directors by the new board was Kenneth VanNatta, director of the Oakland County Parks and Recreation Commission.

CHAIRMAN REELECTED

Reelected as chairman of the board was E. O. George of 352 Barden, Bloomfield Hills, president of the Detroit Edison Co.

The Southeast Michigan Tourist Association represents Wayne, Oakland, Macomb, Monroe, St. Clair, Lenawee, Sanilac and Washtenaw County businessmen and others affiliated with the tourist business.

★ ★ ★

The purpose of the association, as stated in the revised bylaws approved at the business meeting, is to promote, advertise and publicize the recreational and vacation attractions of southeast Michigan, and to participate in various programs aimed at improving the highway programs both federal and state.

Those attending the meeting were treated by Oakland University following the dinner to the performance of "The Second Coming of Bert," a play by Ronald Chudley, at Meadowbrook Theatre.

Charges Pile Up Against Area Man

Further charges have been filed against a 25-year-old White Lake Township man first arraigned Wednesday in Plymouth Township on armed robbery and rape charges.

John R. Ellis of 9125 Southeastern was arraigned Thursday in Walled Lake District Court on armed robbery, assault and rape charges in connection with an attack on a 20-year-old Walled Lake girl, according to Walled Lake police.

★ ★ ★

Ellis was arraigned before Judge Martin Boyle. He demanded examination, which was set for Feb. 7. Bond was set at $15,000 and Ellis was remanded to the Oakland County Jail in lieu of bond.

Police said Ellis was first arrested on a traffic charge Monday by Farmington Township police. He subsequently was charged with armed robbery and rape in Plymouth Township District Court, with bond set at $50,000 in that case.

★ ★ ★

Police officers from several communities, including the Wayne County and Oakland County Sheriff's departments, cooperated in a two-week investigation after women reported being raped by a man who answered their baby-sitting service ads in a Plymouth-area newspaper.

Sgt. Wilford Hook of the Walled Lake department said a 20-year-old Walled Lake girl was attacked at her home Jan. 21 at 6:30 a.m. A man previously had contacted the woman for baby-sitting services.

Philippine Tanker Launched in Japan

HIROSHIMA, Japan (AP) — The Philippines' first supertanker, the 93,000-ton Philippine Leader, was launched today.

The 841-foot ship is built to carry cargoes of 4.2 million cubic feet of oil from the Philippines and elsewhere in Asia. It is scheduled for delivery to United Philippine Carriers Inc., in May after final fitting and shakedown and training cruises.

Mrs. Gregorio Licaros, wife of the chairman of the Development Bank of the Philippines, cut a rope which simultaneously broke a bottle of champagne against the hull, released doves from a cage and sent balloons, confetti and paper streamers flying.

Four Arrested in LSD Racket

3 Collegians From Oak Park Suspects

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP) — The arrest of four college students in the Rochester area and Michigan resulted from a crackdown on a thriving interstate campus trade in the drug LSD, federal narcotics agents said Friday.

Two of the students, Dennis A. Burke, 18, of Oak Park, Mich., and Wayne R. Barnes, 18, of Tenafly, N.J. were arrested Thursday at their apartment near the new Henrietta campus of the Rochester Institute of Technology.

★ ★ ★

The others, Gary S. Cohen, 19, and Kenneth W. Levitt, 22, were apprehended Thursday in an apartment in Okemos, Mich., near the campus of Michigan State University, which Levitt attends. Both are from Oak Park, Mich.

Salvatore J. Giovino, agent in charge of the U.S. Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs in Buffalo, said all were charged with selling a dangerous drug and with conspiracy.

Undercover agents had purchased 1,000 LSD tablets for $3,000 and had ordered 5,000 more tablets for $10,000, Giovino said.

He said investigators learned Levitt flew from Detroit to Rochester to deliver the original drugs and that Cohen, who attends Eastern Michigan University at Ypsilanti, flew to Buffalo last Sunday to close the deal on the $10,000 order.

★ ★ ★

At their arraignment Friday before U.S. Commissioner Robert Miller in Rochester, Barnes was freed on $5,000 bond. Burke was jailed when he was unable to produce bail.

Cohen and Levitt were held in Kent County Jail in Grand Rapids unable to post $5,000 bond set in their appearance Friday before U.S. Commissioner Stephen Karr. They demanded the government show probable cause that a crime had been committed and Karr scheduled a hearing for Feb. 14 in Grand Rapids.

Firm's Refusal to Settle May Prove Costly

DETROIT (AP)—Allstate Insurance Co. declined an offer to settle with Samuel Washington Friday and as a result may have to pay the largest sum ever awarded in Wayne County to a surviving accident victim.

Washington had offered to settle for the limit of Allstate's client's policy before the case went to a jury, but the firm declined and the jury awarded Washington $321,000 after less than four hours of deliberation.

Officials said Michigan law is unclear on the subject and would have to be researched carefully, but in many other states an insurance company has no alternative but to pay the entire amount awarded by the jury if it refuses to settle before a case goes to the jury.

Washington, a $12,000-a-year truck driver was injured in an accident March 29, 1964. As a result he has been blind and crippled, disabled so severely he can never work again, testimony indicated.

AMC Offers Help in Test of New Steam Engine

RENO, Nev. (AP)—American Motors has offered to cooperate with industrialist William P. Lear in his quest to develop a practical steam-powered automobile, Lear said Friday.

He said the automaker has agreed to furnish engineless cars for installation of steam power plants at Lear's plant near here.

Lear last week accused General Motors, Ford and Chrysler of trying to block his efforts to develop a steam car and said Chrysler's Dodge Division had refused to sell him cars.

The companies denied the charges, saying they also were experimenting with steam power.

Train Toll Is 41

IN MEMORY of Jay C. Jensen, who died Feb. 2, 1967. Sadly missed more as the years go by. by, wife, Marjorie.

IN LOVING MEMORY of Earl E. Parker who passed away Feb. 1, 1958.
Gone is the face we loved so dear,
Gone is the voice we loved to hear,
Too far away for sight or speech,
But not too far for memory to reach.
Sadly missed by your daughters, Verna, Janet and Florence and grandchildren.

IN LOVING MEMORY of Minta Gray who passed away Feb. 2, 1966:
Your memory is a keepsake,
With which we'll never part.
God has you in His keeping,
We still have you in our heart.
Sadly missed by Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Sparks, children and grandchildren.

In loving memory of William M. Henderson who passed away Feb. 1, 1966:
God took him home. It was His will.
Within our hearts we love him still.
His memory is as dear today.
As in the hour he passed away.
We often sit and think of him.
When we are alone.
For memory is the only friend,
That grief can call his own.
Sadly missed by mother, Father, Brothers and Sisters.

BUILDERS CLOSE OUT 1968 PRICES!!!
If you are cost conscious — you should know about the tremendous savings you can realize when you buy a builder's close-out model. These homes were built at last year's labor and material costs. If you were to have one starting February 1st — next year the cost to you would be increased hundreds of dollars due to rising prices. So before you buy a home anywere else, make it your business to come out and see for yourself how you can SAVE MONEY.

A new home is today's most fantastic bargain. Why? Well, just think, a pound of good meat costs about $1.25 per pound. If you price a new car by its weight it would be around a $1 per pound and on the same basis our new 2 bedroom model is selling at approximately 11c per pound. 11c per pound for a home means that will last a lifetime is truly a good buy.

Nurse in Navy Guilty of Role in Peace March

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Lt. j.g. Susan Schnall, a Navy nurse, faces a possible five years at hard labor after being convicted by a general court-martial. She was accused of throwing antiwar leaflets from an airplane over four Navy bases and participating in uniform in a ' GI March for Peace."

The same six-officer court that found her guilty Friday will reconvene Monday to fix sentence.

★ ★ ★

The specifications against Mrs. Schnall, 25, charged she failed to obey a general order issued at all Bay Area military bases last October on the day before the "GI Peace March" forbidding personnel to take part in it in uniform.

★ ★ ★

The prosecution produced a television tape it said showed Mrs. Schnall appeared in uniform as a speaker during the peace march.

Traverse City Salutes Its Favorite Sons—Milliken and Griffin

TRAVERSE CITY (UPI) — This northern Michigan city is proud of the distinction brought it by two favorite sons—Gov. William G. Milliken and U.S. Sen. Robert P. Griffin.

Few other communities in the state can boast of having both a governor and a senator as residents, and more than 1,000 persons turned out Thursday night to honor Milliken and Griffin at a five-county Chamber of Commerce banquet.

Reflecting on the distinction of having two prominent citizens from Traverse City in government service, Griffin quipped that the Northern Michigan Mafia has no plans to move the capital from Lansing to Traveres City."

On a more serious note, Griffin discussed the recent presidential election and the controversy over the Electoral College and the possibility of reforming the process of electing a president.

"The ideal approach would be to abolish the Electoral College and elect the president by a direct popular vote," Griffin said. But he reminded his audience that such an amendment to the Constitution would take a two-thirds vote of each house of Congress and approval by three-fourths of the state legislatures.

"We're going to be confronted with the classic situation which existed when the Constitution was first written—the confrontation between the big and small states," Griffin said.

One suggestion put forward by Griffin would eliminate the Electoral College but still count the votes in the same manner. This would eliminate the possibility of electors not following the wish of the people, Griffin said.

* * *

Griffin said he hoped a compromise could be worked out, but added that "in politics you have to go for what is possible."

Milliken hammered on the points he has emphasized since taking over earlier in the month — education, the urban crisis and good government.

The Legislature, Milliken said, must seek compromises to meet the problems of the state without getting into bickering between the divided chambers — Democrats in control of the House and Republicans in the Senate.

* * *

"I have no illusions about the tough job ahead in Michigan," the governor said. "But I feel highly encouraged, after talking with legislative leaders, that there will be cooperation."

TOPS ANY RECORD CLUB OFFER EVER MADE!

JUST THINK OF IT! Now you can get ANY 12 of the hit records shown in this folder—all 12 for less than the price of one! That's right—if you join the Columbia Record Club now, you may have ANY 12 of these records for only $3.98! What's more, we'll even give you the attractive all-transistor radio shown above as a free gift! And all you have to do is agree to buy a record a month during the coming ten months.

In short, within ten months you'll have a sizable library of 22 records—but you'll have paid for just half of them...that's practically a 50% saving off regular Club prices—and you get a free radio besides!

FREE MUSIC MAGAZINE. You'll have no problem in selecting a record a month during your membership, because each monthly issue contains up to 300 different records to choose from...hit albums from every field of music, from scores of different record labels. You may accept the monthly selection for the field of music in which you are mainly interested...or take any of the other records offered—the choice is entirely up to you!

RECORDS SENT ON CREDIT. Upon enrollment, we'll open a charge account in your name...you pay for your records only after you have received them—played them—and are enjoying them. They will be mailed and billed to you at the regular Club price of $4.98 (Classical, occasional Original Cast recordings and special albums somewhat higher), plus a mailing and handling charge.

FANTASTIC BONUS PLAN. As soon as you complete your enrollment agreement, you will automatically become eligible for the Club's bonus plan—which entitles you to one record free for every one you buy. There are no "savings certificates" to accumulate, no delays, no limitations—every time you buy a record, you get another one free! Under this plan you pay as little as $2.84 a record (including all mailing and handling charges) for all your records.

MAIL THE POSTPAID CARD TODAY! Just write in the numbers of the twelve records you want, for which you will be billed only $3.98, plus postage and handling. Be sure to indicate the type of music in which you are mainly interested. Don't delay—act now!

Note: Since stereo records may now be played on monaural (regular high-fidelity) phonographs, and cost no more than monaural records, all of your records will be sent in stereo.

Mayor Taylor Hails Metro Stadium Committee's Action

Pontiac Mayor William H. Taylor Jr. hailed as wise and sound a blue-ribbon committee's recommendation that apparently favors Pontiac as the site for a new domed professional sports stadium.

The Metropolitan Stadium Committee, made up of leading citizens from Detroit and the surrounding area, recommended earlier this week that the site be either Pontiac, Walled Lake or Taylor Township. This eliminated from consideration two sites in Detroit, the riverfront and State Fairgrounds.

★ ★ ★

Of the remaining sites in consideration, Pontiac obviously is the most favorable and furthest along in its planning, Mayor Taylor said.

"The committee's action is certainly most encouraging to the community and its future. I'm sure everyone who's concerned will follow up on the recommendation and do his utmost to see that the teams decide to follow the wise advice that has been offered them."

19-1 VOTE REPORTED

The Metropolitan Committee reportedly met on Wednesday and took a 19-1 vote in favor of the three out-of-Detroit sites. Several Oakland County members were not present at the meeting due to its conflict with the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce dinner that night. Committee membership is 34 but others were absent due to inclement weather, it was reported.

Pontiac made a presentation to the committee on Sept. 11 that widely was hailed as impressive.

★ ★ ★

The city outlined a proposal for a 65,000-seat all-weather domed stadium that would cost at least $40 million. It would be located at the junction of I-75 and M59, termed an ideal spot because of its nearness to population centers, accessibility and huge amount of vacant land for parking.

Last month the city, moving quickly, appointed a five-member building authority to proceed with plans and negotiations if Pontiac is selected.

Chairman of the authority, Harold

Scorpion Disaster Still Puzzles Navy

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Navy is pinning its hopes for solving the mystery of the Scorpion submarine disaster on its deep-diving bathyscape Trieste II which will begin a new underwater search in the spring.

A court of inquiry report released in summary yesterday said that despite 12,000 photographs of Atlantic floor debris, the Navy still is unable to say what happened to the nuclear sub last May.

The $40-million craft disappeared with a crew of 99 officers and men while en route home after a Mediterranean training operation. After an extensive search, her wreckage was located Oct. 29 some 10,000 feet deep and 460 miles southwest of the Azores.

After hearing 90 witnesses and piling up 1,334 pages of testimony during 11 weeks, the seven-man court of inquiry said:

"The certain cause of the loss of Scorpion cannot be ascertained from any evidence now available."

FURTHER EFFORT

The court recommended a further effort be made to photograph the wreckage and the Navy said the Trieste II would go out into the Atlantic about April for on-the-spot observation and additional photographs of the Scorpion hull.

The court of inquiry ruled out two possible causes of the loss of the Scorpion.

★ ★ ★

The Scorpion did not hit a seamount, or underwater ridge, "since there is none in the area where the submarine went to the bottom," the Navy reported.

The nuclear reactor plant also was dismissed as a possible cause of the loss.

SCORPION WRECKAGE — The Defense Department released this picture of the submarine Scorpion yesterday and said it was taken last Oct. 29 when the craft was found on the ocean bottom. The department said the opening at center is where the messenger buoy is stored. A mooring line protrudes from the sub's storage locker. The department said other objects are circular main ballast tank vents, two rectangular hatches and damaged snorkle exhaust piping.

Nixon's Crime Fight May Snag on Legal Barrier

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon's recommendations for fighting the rising crime in Washington put him on record as favoring preventive jailing of hard-core criminal repeaters — a concept the White House says may raise constitutional problems.

But, at the same time he suggested tough new steps against criminals, Nixon called for a full-fledged public defender program to protect the rights of poor people charged with crime.

★ ★ ★

The crime program, biggest step the new President has taken in an area that was a major campaign issue last fall, capped a day yesterday during which Nixon visited an area of the capital torn by riots last spring.

The President called together his National Security Council today for the fourth time since taking office with the No. 1 subject tension in the Middle East.

2ND CHURCH SERVICE

Nixon also scheduled a second church service in the White House Sunday, with the Rev. Dr. Richard C. Halverson, pastor of the Fourth Presbyterian Church in suburban Bethesda, Md., to preside. Last week evangelist Billy Graham, a Baptist, led a service.

★ ★ ★

The Nixons wound up the day with a white tie reception for the ambassadors and chiefs of mission from 115 countries, telling them all countries had "an obligation to settle our differences peacefully."

★ ★ ★

In his crime program, Nixon proposed more policemen, judges and prosecutors for the District of Columbia. He also called for a $700,000 public defender program and pledged a major effort to rebuild parts of the Negro slums burned out during the riots last April.

He also reiterated his support for home rule for the district.

'We Like Kids'

Couple Adopts 10

FRESNO, Calif. (AP) — "We like kids."

That was Andrew Bauer's answer yesterday when asked why he and his wife — with four youngsters of their own — adopted the 10 Morris orphans.

★ ★ ★

The Bauer children range in age from 4 to 12; the Morris children from 3 to 17.

Things seemed a bit hectic at the Bauer home, last night when a newsman asked Bauer, 34, a salesman, and his wife, 32, how things were going. The Morris youngsters arrived in their new home — a large house in one of the city's older sections — in the afternoon.

'TOO TIED UP'

"We're just too tied up now to talk," said Mrs. Bauer. "There are so many things that have come up."

Bauer said they adopted the orphans because "we like kids," and then said: "Really, I can't talk more. I've got to get going."

They declined to let the children talk, saying they wanted to preserve their privacy.

The Morris children, from nearby Madera, were orphaned last July when their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morris, were killed in a four-car crash. They have been staying with a paternal aunt, Gloria Graves, in Concord, Calif.

But Mrs. Graves asked the Madera County Superior Court to relocate them because of "personal reasons."

The children were brought to Fresno a week ago and had been living with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bolis Lachawicz.

Judge Jack Hammerberg declined to comment on the move other than to say he had approved Mrs. Graves' request and that the Bauers have an adequate income and a large home.

Hammerberg said several other homes were thoroughly investigated before the Bauers were selected. The Bauers, like the children, are Roman Catholics, and were among the more than 100 families t ooffer the Morris children a home during a custody hearing last August.

Along with the offers of adoption, contributions of more than $50,000 came in after 17-year-old Kathy Morris pleaded with authorities to let the children stay together.

The money has been placed in a trust fund for the children's education.

Lapeer County Blaze Claims 7

From Our News Wires

ATTICA — A Lapeer County couple and five of their eight children are dead after an early morning fire destroyed their mobile home today.

A state fire marshal is investigating the cause of the fire which took the lives of Raymond W. King, 42, and his wife Alice, 32.

★ ★ ★

Also dead are their children: George, 8, Diane, 7, Charles, 6, Mildred, 10 and Allen, 13.

★ ★ ★

Officials would say only that the fire broke out about 5 a.m. and trapped all 10 members of the family in the mobile home. Three children escaped the flames.

HELPED SISTER TO SAFETY

Sixteen-year-old Raymond Jr., discovered the fire and grabbed his sister, Candy, 2, and put her in the family car. Another child, James, 11, broke out a window in the trailer and escaped.

★ ★ ★

Lapeer County Sheriff's deputies and the fire marshal did not immediately release the names of the victims nor their ages pending notification of kin.

★ ★ ★

The fire occurred in the Candy Lane trailer court, located on M21 near Attica, which is between Imlay City and Lapeer, 30 miles due east of Flint and 50 miles north of Detroit.

Dismal Weather Seen for Weekend

Clouds rolling in last night brought a light freezing drizzle to the Pontiac area. Sidewalks and roads were slippery early this morning.

The U. S. Weather Bureau forecasts a dismal, dreary weekend. Here is the official report:

TODAY—Mostly cloudy and not much temperature change. High in the mid-30s. Tonight partial clearing and cool, becoming cloudy by morning. Low 23 to 28.

TOMORROW — Cloudy, with chance of light snow and freezing rain. Not much change in temperature. High 30 to 35.

MONDAY—Continued cool and chance of snow.

Winds will be light and variable tonight at five to 15 miles per hour and southeast at five to 15 miles tomorrow.

Probabilities of precipitation are 20 per cent today, 30 per cent tonight, and 50 per cent tomorrow.

Twenty-nine was the low temperature prior to 8 a.m. in downtown Pontiac. The recording was 32 at 12:30 p.m.

Army Briefs Supervisors in Secret ABM Session

A trio of U.S. Army representatives briefed a county board of supervisors committee behind closed doors yesterday on plans for a Pontiac-area Sentinel antiballistic missile site.

Excluded from the two-hour meeting at Oakland County Service Center were four newspaper reporters and two citizens — representatives of WOMAN (Woman Opposed to Missiles and Nuclear Warheads).

Niles Olson, chairman of the planning, zoning and building committee, told reporters prior to the meeting that it was Army policy to exclude the press and public.

He contended that Army representatives were under orders not to proceed with the briefing if the press or public participated.

After the closed door session, Olson said the meeting was just to inform the county of the Army's plans to locate a Sentinel base in Oakland County.

Both Olson and committee member Carl O'Brien, D-Pontiac, confirmed that one of the half-dozen sites being considered is the Oakland-Orion Airport, which the county owns and plans to expand.

O'Brien said he protested the exclusions. He said when the meeting began he asked the Army representatives if the information at the briefing was restricted or classified.

"They said it wasn't restricted, but just didn't want the press and public to know," O'Brien explained.

Committee members said slides were shown during the briefing and the criteria for site selection was explained. This included the tactical advantage of the Oakland County sites under consideration, the cost of establishing such sites and the public impact.

★ ★ ★

Olson said there was no specific information for the committee to act on.

Mother Dons Bedding at Daughter's Wedding

Mrs. Mary Ryman of Bloomfield Hills arrived in a bed for her daughter's wedding last night in Kansas City, Mo.

'NATO Is Outgunned'

MUNICH, Germany (AP) — British Defense Minister Denis Healey said today a NATO attempt to defend itself by conventional means against a sudden Soviet military blitz in Western Europe "would fall apart within a few days."

"The advantage the other side has over us is the number of its tanks and the element of surprise," Healey told an international defense conference here.

State Recognition of MCOM Possible in '69

LANSING (UPI) — State aid for Michigan's first osteopathic college may not materialize this year but the next best thing, state recognition, is a strong possibility.

The college is under construction at Auburn and Opdyke, on Pontiac's East Side.

Under a bill introduced in the Senate by Sen. Raymond D. Dzendzel, D-Detroit, the governor would appoint an eight-member control board for the Michigan College of Osteopathic Medicine (MCOM). The state would be required to make an annual appropriation to it, though no figure is suggested.

"There will probably be nothing appropriated this year," Dzendzel said in an interview yesterday. "Getting approval for the college and setting up the board will be the most done this year."

PLAN TO GO AHEAD

The Michigan Association of Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons announced plans last November to build the college.

The first class would enter in the fall of 1969. Association officials said they welcome state aid but will go ahead with the school no matter what.

The initial building will cost the association $500,000 and plans are to assess individual osteopathis to finance it.

★ ★ ★

"We've been trying for years to do something about the shortage of medical schools in the state," Dzendzel said. "This bill lost in the House last year by one vote. I'm hopeful we can get it through this year by convincing the members of the necessity."

But, Dzendzel warned, "if classes begin in Pontiac next fall, it will be strictly on their own."

An ostopathic college was not mentioned in Gov. William G. Milliken's

Reds Hit U.S Base; Key S. Viet Hurt

SAIGON (AP) — About 500 North Vietnamese troops attacked a U.S. base 43 miles northwest of Saigon while terrorists struck three times in the capital today, one attack wounding a key staff general of President Nguyen Van Thieu.

The night assault on the infantry base cost the Americans two dead, 31 wounded and a helicopter shot down, the 1,008th lost in combat in the war. The four crewmen were rescued uninjured. First reports said only three enemy soldiers were killed.

* * *

Twice the North Vietnamese tried to drive into the base under cover of a five-hour barrage of 160 mortar shells. They were beaten back by U.S. bombers, helicopter gunships and artillery.

U.S. spokesmen said several artillery barrages were fired into one group of 30 enemy soldiers illuminated by flares dropped from planes as they moved toward the base. But the effect of the barrages was not immediately determined.

LIGHT PLANE DOWNED

The U.S. Command reported one light observation plane was shot down yesterday about 25 miles north of Saigon. It was the 339th U.S. fixed-wing aircraft lost in combat over South Vietnam. The pilot escaped uninjured.

* * *

Eleven persons, including Maj. Gen. Nguyen Van Kiem and four of his body guards, were wounded in the three terrorist attacks in Saigon. A ground attack on a hamlet south of Da Nang and two overnight shellings, including one against the old imperial capital of Hue, killed seven Vietnamese civilians and wounded 15 others, a spokesman said.

* * *

The South Vietnamese government made public another in a series of protest notes in the International Control Commission denouncing "acts of terrorism and sabotage directed against the people of the Republic of Vietnam.

* * *

Kiem suffered a broken leg after two men on a motorcycle hurled an American grenade and two homemade bombs at his car. Eyewitnesses said Kiem and his four bodyguards managed to jump from their vehicles before the bombs exploded.

SUSPECT ARRESTED

Government spokesmen said a suspect was arrested shortly after the attack, but they would not elaborate.

Four civilians and two civil defense corps youths were wounded in another terrorist bombing 300 yards from the Senate building, and two men on a motorcycle also tossed a pack of explosives into a parking lot used by American cars. No casualties were reported and only one car was damaged.

* * *

Kiem, 45, was the second high-ranking victim of terrorists in less than a month. Education Minister Le Minh Tri was fatally wounded Jan. 6 when a bomb blew up his car.

News in Brief

PARIS (AP) — The Vietnam peace talks are bogged down after only two sessions on precisely the precedural arguments that delegates voted to bypass. It took 14 hours of speechmaking in the first two meetings for the conference to come full circle, back to arguing about what to discuss first. On Jan. 18 the United States, South Vietnam, North Vietnam and the Vietcong's National Liberation Front had hoped to avoid such time-wasting arguments by agreeing to proceed without an agenda.

Fast-Time Recount Fails

LANSING (AP) — Unofficial statewide returns from the daylight savings time recount, which was completed yesterday, indicate Michigan voters defeated DST last Nov. 5 by just 488 votes.

Bid to Block Pay Hike Near

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate plans Tuesday to take up a resolution to block a congressional pay raise, but it is given little chance of success. Despite continuing opposition by some members in both houses of Congress, the general view on Capitol Hill is that the salary increase will take effect as scheduled Feb. 14.

Oil Slick Still Threatens

SANTA BARBARA, Calif. (AP) — A sluggish giant oil slick stretched out over a 200 square mile area of the Pacific Ocean today and officials still had no idea how to clean up the mess. Winds pushed oil toward beaches, then away again, but a thin film of oil had washed ashore along 14 miles of shoreline just south of Santa Barbara.

Stadium Site List Cut Hailed

Cousins, owner of the City Beverage Co., gave some of the details facing the group.

* * *

Providing Pontiac gets the final nod, a package proposal citing costs and other details would be presented to the two teams, he said. A letter of intent from both of them would be required. Both teams need to agree to the site or it is unfeasible, Cousins said.

* * *

The approval of the City Commission would then be needed for the proposal and bond issue. Cousins pointed out it would be necessary to have a bond issue that would be self-liquidating (paid off from revenues) so no tax monies would be needed from property owners.

* * *

Concurrently with financial arrangements, negotiations would be going on for architectural planning and construction, Cousins said. His target date for full operations was estimated at the 1971-72 season.

proposed fiscal 1969-70 budget, though he recommended extending Michigan State University's medical school to a four-year program.

The only financial assistance the osteopathic college has received from the state thus far has been a $125,000 study and planning grant.

Sen. Carles O. Zollar, R-Benton Harbor, head of the Senate Appropriations Committee commented: "The Legislature can do anything it wants to about financing. But there is no room for new programs in next years budget."

Zollar suggested the proposed college of osetopathy be made part of the expanded MSU medical school as an laternative to state financing of a separate structure.

Rep. William R. Copeland, D-Wyandotte, chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, also was discouraging about the possibility of state aid for the college this year.

Sales in 1968 Reach Record for Kuhlman

BIRMINGHAM — Sales at Kuhlman Corp., based here, reached a record $48,193,904 during 1968. Revenue in 1967 totaled $45,835,192.

Earnings in 1968 totaled $2,359,303 down from the $2,601,727 in the previous year.

* * *

H. E. Greenwalt, president, said 1968 was the fifth consecutive year in which sales have shown an increase over the previous year. Earnings were the second highest in the company's history.

State Program for Elderly Hit

Nursing Home Dispute Boils

A dispute that has been brewing for several months between the state and the Michigan Nursing Home Association (MNHA) over the implementation of a new state program for the care of the elderly ill is rapidly coming to a full boil.

BOYCE

"A disparity exists between the standards set by the state of Michigan and what it is willing to pay," said Basil F. Boyce, 118 Terry St., Rochester, MNHA president.

He explained, "The basic problem is how much the state, with matching funds from the federal government, should pay in daily rates for the care of the elderly ill in private nursing homes for patients who receive government funds."

The state now pays $14 daily for "skilled" patients, who require more intensive care, and $12 daily for "basic" patients, who need minimum levels of care. This formula was developed by a study committee appointed by former Gov. George Romney.

HOMES CLASSIFIED

Effective Jan. 1, various private nursing homes in the state were classified by the State Health Department as either "skilled" or "basic," depending on the rating of their facilities and staffs, Boyce said.

He continued, "As of Thursday there has been no rate announced for nursing homes for the month of January and no programs presented to the MNHA regarding the transfer of "basic" patients who are in "skilled" nursing homes and vice versa."

* * *

This entails the transfer of some 6,000 sick elderly people, he said, adding that 1,500 new patients, mostly elderly, are admitted to nursing homes monthly. Their admission will not be possible unless a definite program can be worked out with the state, Boyce added.

"It is the view of the MNHA that the "basic-skilled" program is totally unworkable because the state looks at the care of the aged as a warehousing problem with no consideration for the patient," Boyce said.

He added there is a lack of willingness on the part of the state to negotiate with the MNHA for a workable program.

The MNHA unanimously adopted recommendations at a mass meeting for members Thursday at the Lansing Civic Center. They include:

* * *

- No more medicaid or public assistance patients will be accepted by the 270 nursing homes after tomorrow.
- A detailed cost report form being sent out by a study committee appointed last year by Gov. Romney will be returned unanswered.
- Until a "workable program" is established, nursing homes should not permit state social and health workers on their premises to classify patients.
- The MNHA will assist members in starting lawsuits against the state for collection of $2.5 million in reportedly overdue reimbursements.

TRYING TO PROVIDE

Boyce said the nursing homes are trying to provide the best possible service, but rising costs plus conflicting interpretations of legal requirements have forced them to take this stand.

In Oakland County, he said, there are about 46 nursing homes housing approximately 2,000 patients, 50 per cent of whom receive goverment matching funds.

Snow, Sleet, Fog, Thaw

January Offered Variety

Like variety? Then January 1969 must have filled the bill. Oakland County residents were treated to subzero cold, paralyzing sleet storms, dense fog, thawing rains, sunshine and springlike breezes.

New Year's Day found the mercury plummeting to a minus four degrees, the month's low. The previous January's low of minus five degrees also was reached on New Year's Day.

* * *

The high for the month occurred Thursday when the temperature bounced to a welcome 50 degrees. Last year's January high of 43 degrees blanketed the area in dense fog.

Mean temperature for the month was 22.7 degrees as compared to the January 1968 mean of 21.2 degrees.

SNOWFALL LESS

Snowfall totaled 19 inches in January, 1.5 inches less than January 1968. Rainfall registered 1.6 inches last month, six tenths of an inch more than January 1968.

The largest single snowfall fell Jan. 6, when nine inches blanketed the ground to delight snowmobile enthusiasts and skiers.

* * *

Sleet turned the trees into a fairyland and the county's roads into a nightmare Tuesday, causing schools to close.

Sunshine fought its way through the cloud cover on only 15 days during the month.

Oakland University donated $20,000 last summer to turn what was once a shabby drugstore into a modern storefront classroom. The donation also was earmarked to help operate the project for the first six months.

Materials for the remodeling were donated by both white and black individuals and firms.

In the near future, Oakland University professors will teach freshman exploratory courses in the humanities and sciences in a program to help Negroes enter the university. Activities for senior citizens also are planned.

Al Munson, director of the center, said the staff will be available for suggestions of programs and displays, at the open house tomorrow.

He said the public is invited to attend.

Supervisors' Pay Eyed

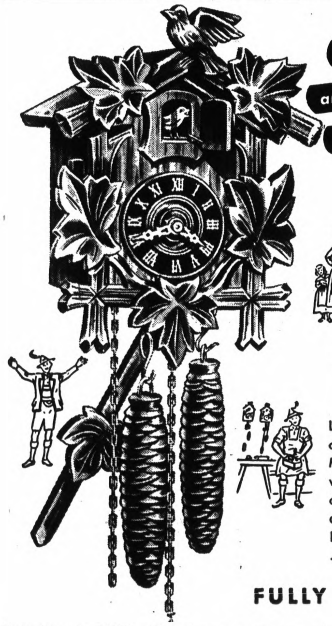

LANSING (UPI) — Michiganders are "fed up with county boards going after large salaries for themselves," Rep. Weldon O. Yeager, R-Detroit, believes. He's drafted a bill to cut their pay checks.

"A great many people have told me they are thoroughly disgusted with the situation," Yeager said yesterday. "Some of these boards are just abusing a privilege to set their salaries. It's time the supervisors realize we mean business and aren't going to let them get away with any fantastic salary they come up with."

'Lost' Weekend for Surgery Growing Worry in Hospitals

By DICK ROBINSON

"Why can't hospitals perform nonemergency-type operations on weekends and thereby reduce the patient's stay and hospital bill?" a woman in a hospital waiting room was overheard asking.

That's a question which is concerning more and more hospital administrators.

* * *

Hospitals are one of the biggest businesses in the United States. Most of them still operate on a five-day week.

Some hospitals, like Pontiac General, are trying to overcome the five-day tradition by performing nonemergency surgery six or seven days a week.

NOT EASY BREAK

But the break with tradition is not easy, as Pontiac General discovered. PGH scheduled operations six days a week for the past five months until last week, when it cut back to the old five-day week and what is termed a "lost weekend" operation.

Donald Carros, associate administrator of Pontiac General, explains the return to the lost weekend this way:

"There is a reluctance — an inherent reluctance of society — of surgeons and other surgery personnel to work on Saturdays.

* * *

"They like to play golf as well as the other fellow. There are distinct advantages of the seven-day week but the problem is to motivate people."

Pontiac General has been cited as one of the few hospitals in the country to experiment with a more than five-day week.

"More and more hospitals are becoming interested in the seven-day week," Carros comments, "but it's slow fighting the traditions of society.

"I hope we can return to the six-day week sometime."

* * *

All Pontiac hospitals — General, St. Joseph Mercy and Osteopathic — are on five-day schedules But they do operate in emergencies on weekends.

A seven-day week lessens a surgery patient's stay when costs are spiraling and beds are at a premium, it has been found.

STAY REDUCED

Eighteen months after the full-week schedule went into effect at New York's Albany Medical Center Hospital, the average length of a patient stay — except for pediatrics, psychiatrics and tuberculine — was reduced by one-half day.

The seven-day week has been successful there since 1964, according to Dr. Ferdinand Haase Jr., medical director.

The Health Insurance Institute, citing figures from the American Hospital Association, notes that the cost of an average hospital stay has more than doubled in the last decade.

Most hospitals have remained on the five-day week because there is a reluctance to give up proven methods, a shortage of skilled employes and the belief that only large hospitals will be able to lengthen weeks without losing money.

'IT'S RIDICULOUS'

"It's ridiculous to hospitalize a patient on Friday and force him to wait until Monday or Tuesday for surgery because operations aren't done on Saturdays," Robert Y. Garrett Jr., administrator of Cooper Hospital, Camden, N.J., notes.

Ralph Lowns, administrator of St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Pontiac, says seven-day surgery is not widely accepted primarily because sensitive surgeons aren't "enthusiastic" for working time and a half on weekends.

* * *

"Our administration wants to be progressive but we only go with the proven successful trends," he adds.

Pontiac General Hospital performed 8,289 operations in 1968. PGH has 48 surgeons on its staff and six major surgery rooms and two minor surgery rooms.

A total of 7,261 operations were done at St. Joseph's last year. There are 55 staff surgeons and five major surgical suites and one minor surgery suit there.

The one-car garage has a storage area built into one wall. Plans call for a basement. Over-all dimensions, which include the garage, are 65' 10" by 45' 8".

DELICATE DETAIL of exterior is typical of French Provincial styling. Panels in the garage door, for example, are of a size compatible with the balance of the front. Note exact size of three windows at left front, although one of them is in a bathroom. See floor plan on Page C-5.

FLOOR PLANS: Good traffic circulation, with entry foyer as the hub, is immediately apparent. In addition, there are entrances to the living room, dining room and kitchen from the rear; and entrances to the kitchen from the side and the garage.

Ranch With French Provincial Styling

In custom home building, a departure from the conventional usually raises the cost beyond what the average purchaser is prepared to pay.

Yet many buyers insist on something different and have the wherewithal to satisfy their wishes.

* * *

This latest House of the Week was designed by architect Herman H. York with the intention of providing a compromise.

It's a modified French Provincial, done with the traditional hip roof and using details typical of this style, which might be termed somewhat more sophisticated and perhaps more elegant than most ranch houses.

The architect would like to have specified, among other things, a slate or tile roof, more detailed cornice mouldings, special shutters, special brick, etc., buf he has used those materials with which home builders are familiar and which are readily available.

FRENCH PROVINCIAL

Thus, even though the styling of the French Provincial period has been carried out, the house falls into the "modified" category.

The floor plan of Design Z-78 is not unusual in its relationship of rooms to one another, but an examination discloses many desirable features to provide convenient and sensible family living.

* * *

Moving past the covered entryway into the foyer, one gets an immediate view of the length of the living room all the way back to the rear of the house.

An attractive window seat has storage space below it. And there are sliding glass doors to a terrace.

The adjacent dining room has the same kind of ddors leading to the same terrace.

ARCHWAY

While the plans call for a solid wall between the living room and the dining room, an archway opening between them is optional.

To the right of the foyer is a wood panelled room that can be used as a den, library or family room. It has a fireplace and a window seat similar to that in the living room.

* * *

The kitchen is accessible from the foyer without going through any other room, from the right side of the house, from the dining room and from the rear terrace.

It is next to the laundry room, a mud closet, a pantry, a dual-entry lavatory and the stairway to the basement.

* * *

The bedroom wing, at the right side of the house, is reached directly from the front foyer.

BEDROOMS

There are three bedrooms and two baths, the main bathroom having twin lavatories and a towel closet separate from the walk-in linen closet in the bedroom hall.

The private bath in the master bedroom has a stall shower with an adjacent vanity and dressing area.

Office Supplies Sales Racket

Beware of the "sob-story" salesmen who try to win sympathy along with large orders for overpriced office supplies.

Business executives throughout the country have been victimized by name-dropping con men who relate carefully rehearsed "sob stories" in an attempt to sell carbon paper and other office supplies.

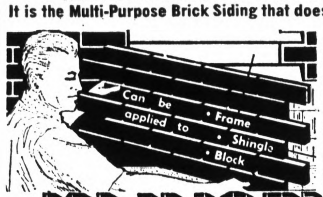

According to the National Better Business Bureau, these itinerant salesmen often affect heavy foreign accents. In their appeals they may claim they are trying to raise money to bring oppressed refugees to this country, or to return to a sick relative behind the Iron Curtain, or to help a friend liquidate the business of a deceased relative.

When orders arrive the paper is of inferior quality. Small orders are sometimes given, but large orders are shipped, and bills are followed by high-pressure dunning.

Do not allow your sympathy to override your sound judgement. Buy office supplies from firms of known reliability.
