MICHIGAN SCREAMS "NO!" — Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan shouts "No!" during the voice vote Thursday night in Los Angeles on the motion to suspend the rules and make the nomination of Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson as the Democratic Party's vice presidential candidate unanimous. Gov. LeRoy Collins of Florida, presiding, ruled the ayes had it by a two-thirds majority and proclaimed Johnson the convention's choice.

Johnson's Selection Takes Convention by Surprise

By JOHN CHADWICK

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson, 51, the Texan who is the Democratic leader of the Senate, stood out today as the big surprise of his party's 1960 convention.

The surprise was not that his bid for the presidential nomination failed; rather, it was that he is coming out of the convention as the vice presidential candidate.

Few expected that he would accept second place on the ticket, even if it were offered to him, although he had never slammed the door of this possibility.

But there he was in the glare of the convention hall Thursday night, after his nomination, saying, "I am proud to stand beside and to stand behind the next president of the United States, Jack Kennedy."

What had happened after Kennedy, 43, Massachusetts senator, had soundly trounced him in the battle for the presidential nomination?

The sequence of events, as pieced together from Johnson and from other sources in and out of the Kennedy camp, was clear.

Thursday morning Kennedy sounded Johnson out on taking the No. 2 spot on the ticket but didn't offer it to him.

House Speaker Sam Rayburn, Johnson's fellow Texan and longtime political mentor, was opposed to Johnnson's running for vice president, fearing it might be a dead end for him politically.

Johnson apparently let Kennedy know this because a short time later Kennedy slipped away to Rayburn's nearby hotel suite.

In the end Rayburn was won over, but not without some reluctance.

After seeing Rayburn, Kennedy returned to his own hotel suite where Gov. David L. Lawrence of Pennsylvania, Gov. Michael V. DiSalle of Ohio, Carmine DeSapio of New York and other party leaders who played a major part in Kennedy's nomination were gathered.

A decision was reached that Johnson would strengthen the ticket the most. Other possibilities, such as Sen. Stuart Symington of Missouri, Sen. Harry M. Jackson of Washington, and Gov. Orville L. Freeman of Minnesota, were discarded.

Word of the decision was relayed to Johnson by telephone, but it was only a few minutes before the news was made public, shortly after 4 p. m., that the Texan had agreed to accept the No. 2 spot on the ticket.

Publisher John S. Knight said today that the sequence of events in his copyrighted story on the Democratic vice presidential nomination may have been in error.

He wrote that John F. Kennedy's brother, Robert, had called on Johnson yesterday morning.

Johnson Was Bitter Pill for Williams to Swallow

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Michigan Democrats who twice tasted the sweet wine of candidate and platform victory at this national convention swallowed hard today on the ashes of defeat.

They were stunned and disillusioned by the choice of Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson, 51-year-old Texan, for the vice presidential nomination.

Although none would say it in so many words, some obviously felt that they were slickered by the smooth-working political organization of their pick for the presidency, Sen. John F. Kennedy.

It was written in the frozen faces of Mrs. Margaret Price and Thomas H. E. Quimby, the state's national committee members, and other leaders in Johnson's hour of triumph last night.

'TWAS A BITTER PILL

Only last week, Gov. Mennen Williams had described the Texan as a man who would "add nothing" to the national ticket. He earlier had singled out Johnson alone among widely discussed presidential candidates as the one who probably would not carry Michigan.

News and cameramen flocked to the Michigan floor position — and jampacked adjacent aisles — after word spread quickly that Williams viewed the Johnson choice as a "mistake" and had called a caucus.

They swarmed around the governor, who confided he was "sorry and disappointed," and State Chairman Neil Staebler to find out what form Michigan's protest would take.

Earlier in the evening, the governor found it necessary to quiet a false report that the Northerners might walk out of the convention.

Williams interrupted a closed caucus to assure Kennedy emissary that no such thing would happen. The message was delivered to Rep. John McCormack (D-Mass) while photographers clicked their shutters in a narrow passageway behind the convention hall rostrum.

Of Michigan's 102 delegates, about a dozen are Negroes who are sensitive to Johnson as a Southerner — suspect in the area of civil rights expansion, their No. 1 political policy objective.

Williams and Staebler, the party's brilliant, 10-year state chairman, were able to accommodate themselves philosophically to the news about Johnson — but some of the other delegates were not.

Ghana Troops in Congo

LEOPOLDVILLE, The Congo (AP)—Ghana today delivered the first token detachment for the international military force ordered by the U.N. Security Council to the chaotic Congo to help restore order.

Maj. Gen. Henry Alexander, British commander of Ghana's small army, and a small detachment of his troops set up headquarters in a downtown hotel to roars of approval from hundreds of Congolese gathered outside.

"All we are trying to do is to get everybody to put down their arms and not to do anything foolish or anything silly," a Ghanian spokesman said.

The commander of the U. N. force, Swedish Maj. Gen. Carl Carlsson von Horn, leaves Jerusalem by plane today for The Congo, bringing with him 11 military advisers of various nationalities, 5 radio technicians and 5 security guards.

Tunisia dispatched an advance party of six police officers Thursday night. The North African country said it would send 500 soldiers.

Bunche said Thursday he expected perhaps 2,400 troops by early next week from Ghana, Tunisia, Morocco, Guinea and Mali.

U. S. Air Force planes were expected to start landing at Leopoldville Airport in a few hours with the first part of 300 tons of flour President Eisenhower Thursday ordered sent to the hunger-threatened new African nation.

Arrival of the first tiny U. N. detachment seemed to create a new and more relaxed atmosphere. Long lines of Belgian refugees in automobiles still waited to take the ferry across to Brazza-

Mercury at 49, Coldest July 15 in 57 Years

A record of 57 years was broken at 5 a.m. today when the mercury read 49 degrees in downtown Pontiac. The lowest previous reading was 50 in 1903.

The weatherman says temperatures will dip to 52-58 tonight.

Saturday will continue cool with a high of 72-78 and a chance of scattered showers.

Temperatures will average about five degrees below the normal high of 84 and low of 63 for the next five days.

Monday and Tuesday will be a little warmer.

Wall's 66 Puts Him in Western Lead

DETROIT — Apparently one round was all that Art Wall needed to find the range on the plush Western Golf and Country Club course.

Wall, winner of last week's Canadian Open at Toronto and runnerup in the recent Buick Open, figured out the par 36-36—72 layout today—but good.

Collecting three birdies on each side and never going over par, he toured Western's 6,800-yard length in 66 strokes on nines of 33-33 to take the early second round lead in the Western Open Golf Tournament with a 36-hole total of 137, 7 below par.

Wall's 6 under par score set a new competitive course record at Western and thrust the mild-mannered touring pro into the driver's seat in the $25,000 tourney.

Jack Burke, who shared Thursday's first round lead with Bob Rosburg, Butch Baird and Fred Hawkins, lost his magic touch around the greens today and jumped to a 75 for a 36-hole score of 144—even par.

Joe Zakarian's two-day total stood at 146, which currently puts him in second place. Jack Fleck and Doug Ford came next with 141, and Jackson's Dave Hill followed at 142.

Thursday Session Poorly Attended

By JOE HAAS

LOS ANGELES — The advance publicity made last night's session of the convention the poorest attended of them all.

The afternoon papers carried the news that Kennedy had asked Johnson to be his running mate and that Johnson had accepted.

This wiped out any possibility of any contest and made the session look like such a cut and dried affair that the gallery seats were less than one-tenth occupied when it opened.

However, they filled up somewhat later in the evening after a three-hour program of oratory and the usual "thank you" resolutions had been exhausted.

HAAS

Alabama, first state on the roll call, yielded to Pennsylvania, whose Gov. David Lawrence placed Johnson in nomination, and a five minute demonstration followed.

On a voice vote to make Johnson's nomination unanimous the chairman declared it had carried, but the "nos" had yelled so loud that there was an opposition demonstration, but the nomination stood.

Here witnessing the crazy doings of the world's greatest spectacular purely as a spectator is that Oakland County livewire, Ray Lahti, who represents one of our newest cities, Wixom, on our Board of Supervisors.

A call from him from the gallery paged me as the 84th member of that Board, he being one of those who put across the plan to give me that honorary position.

Allowing Stevenson to appear before the convention in order to stop the demonstration for him brought protests from the other candidates, who made a demand for equal time.

Watching the thousands of cars on a Los Angeles freeway, a local resident marveled, "where do they all come from?"

I quickly told him that a good

Kennedy Invites Brass to Rally

Gov. Faubus Releases His Wire First but All Are Identical

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Sen. John F. Kennedy today telegraphed requests for support to all Democratic governors, senators and other party brass.

The Massachusetts senator's assistant press secretary Charles Roche, said the telegrams were identical.

The telegrams first became known when Arkansas Gov. Orval E. Faubus received one.

Faubus—along with all the others who received the wires — was invited to be on the platform with Kennedy when he formally accepts the presidential nomination tonight.

The governor was not expected to accept Kennedy's invitation to Los Angeles because of campaign speaking engagements.

Countyrama Tours Oakland

It is an "education on wheels" for officials seeking to spread the word throughout the county on why their Aug. 2 millage increase vote must be approved to pay for administrative wings at the new courthouse tower unit under construction at the County Service Center.

The display, constructed by the county's maintenance department, Cooperative Extension Service personnel, and Planning Commission, will explain to citizens why a "yes" vote is needed on both primary ballot propositions.

Planners hope to raise four million dollars over four years with a yearly half-mill tax increase on county tax bills. The money would pay for three administrative wings and a supervisors' meeting room to house the county facilities now in downtown buildings.

Traveling with the display to answer questions is State Rep. Lloyd L. Anderson, who works with the county's personnel section when the Legislature is not in session.

The display, towed by a red pickup truck bearing the sign "Oakland Countyrama," is expected to visit most county communities in the two weeks left before the vote.

Since it moved out in the area Wednesday, Anderson said the reception has been good. He passes out a brochure to voters explaining the need for the building project.

Under a plastic bubble in the center of one side of the display is a miniature model of the county's 300-acre Service Center, on which officials eventually hope to house all county offices.

Nominee Acts in Accord With Political Facts

Nod to Texan Intended as Balm for Convention Blows to Southerners

In a dramatic but highly traditional decision Thursday Kennedy compromised with the political realities of a threatened Southern bolt and wheeled in Johnson, the majority leader of the Senate, as his vice presidential nominee.

But he reaped in return some protests from party liberals who felt they had been influential in his top place nomination and deserved better of their efforts than a middle-of-the-road vice presidential candidate.

Kennedy could placate these dissenters, however, with a liberal acceptance speech tonight and the choice of one of this group to succeed Paul M. Butler as the party's national chairman. Sen. Henry M. Jackson of Washington was tubbed as a leading candidate for this job.

There was one report, quickly denied by both the Kennedy and Johnson camps, that Johnson was chosen at his own insistence. The report came from John S. Knight, publisher of the Knight newspapers, in a copyrighted story he wrote for his newspapers.

DENIES REPORT

Pierre Salinger, Kennedy's press secretary, described the report as "completely and absolutely untrue."

"Sen. Kennedy asked Sen. Johnson to run, and Sen. Johnson accepted," Salinger added.

A spokesman for Johnson also said there was "absolutely nothing to the story."

Knight wrote that Johnson had passed the word to Sen. Kennedy's brother Robert that, having been defeated by Kennedy for the presidential nomination, he wanted second place and would fight for it on the floor of the convention if necessary.

Confronted with this, Knight said, the presidential nominee agreed to take Johnson. The latter has tossed off some nasty cracks about the Massachusetts senator's immaturity in the face of a demand for world leadership from the presidential office.

FRIENDS BEFUDDLED

TV, Radio to Carry Convention Finale

The main event at tonight's session of the Democratic National Convention will be Sen. John F. Kennedy's speech accepting the presidential nomination.

Convention activities will commence at 9 p.m. Pontiac time.

Beginning at 8 p.m., the last hour of preconclave entertainment will be carried by channels 2, 4 and 7 as a warmup to coverage of this final session.

Radio station WWJ will carry the entire proceedings. WXYZ and WJBK will begin their broadcasts at 8:30 p.m.

THE OLD AND THE NEW — Adlai Stevenson, the Democratic nominee for president in 1952 and 1956, met with his successor Thursday afternoon in Los Angeles. Sen. John F. Kennedy. Ike and Mac Agree to Talks Now Started

WASHINGTON (AP) — British diplomats were quietly pressing today for tighter safeguards against possible incident-provoking flights by American military planes from English soil without Britain's knowledge.

The White House announced Thursday night that President Eisenhower and Prime Minister Harold Macmillan have agreed to talks now under way between British embassy and State Department officials.

Press secretary James C. Hagerty called the negotiations a review of the present working arrangements on American bases in Britain with a view to "any possible improvements in coordination."

Drop Charges Against Owner of 'the Cave'

Municipal Judge Maurice E. Finnegan yesterday dismissed a charge of permitting after-hours dancing against a part-owner of the Cave of the Ninth Cat, a beatnik coffee house.

Judge Finnegan said that police officers who arrested Jack D. Christenson, 25, of 12763 Klingensmith Rd., Bloomfield Township, for allegedly violating a 1 a.m. city curfew on dancing in public establishments twice failed to appear for trial.

Nice Weather Prevails Over Most of Country

By The Associated Press

Fair and pleasant weather settled over most of the country today.

Cool, dry air pushed thunderstorms out of the East Coast states into the Atlantic after a day of heavy rains accompanied by damaging swift winds in some areas. Showers and thundershowers generally were confined to the Gulf Coast and scattered activity over the plains states.

The brisk Canadian air that has been bringing autumn temperatures in mid-July pushed deep into the midcontinent. Temperatures dropped into the 40s once again in the upper Great Lakes region and nighttime reading ran 10 to 20 degrees lower than the previous night in the Appalachians and parts of Kentucky, Tennessee, and Arkansas.

Deer With Pink Ears May Send You to Cover

If you are a deer hunter who stalks his prey in the woods of Oakland County each fall, here's an early warning: Beware of deer with pink ears!

According to sheriff's deputies, these deer have very tough hides —so tough that your shot might bounce back, driving you to cover.

Walters' "pets" were steel statues valued at $15 each. The lifelike statues are brown with white spots and pink ears, Walters said.

So, say deputies, if you find an easy target standing very still next fall, don't fire until you see the black of their ears.

portion of them come from Pontiac, Mich., and about 95 per cent of them from a small Michigan area of which Pontiac is the center.

A "Candi-date" brand of ice cream and "Candy-date" confection are quite successfully being exploited at the convention.

The concrete-bottomed Los Angeles River is as dry as a Detroit expressway but, like some of those depressed expressways in Detroit, becomes a raging torrent after every rain.

The manufacturing of applause has become a science, and is worked here to the 32nd degree.

When a speaker finishes, the band strikes up, and the hand clapping begins.

By some quirk of human instinct, it will continue until the band quits. This may seem funny, but it's true, and can be worked at times almost without number on an audience supposed to be intelligent.

Inside the Sports Arena there are 23 hot dog stands. A fairly palatable dog costs 50 cents, but you must remember the privilege costs a fancy sum. I've consumed so many dogs that I've commenced to bark.

You can buy milk in those little square boxes at a price that figures just above a dollar a quart. But it's good milk — has a picture of a cow on the box.

As far as possible, I'm spending the 15th alone.

It's the first anniversary of the saddest day in my life, when my principal inspiration for 57 years passed away. Her last wish was that I carry on.

If there's any credit, give it to her.

Have seen as many Pontiac car agencies here as those of any other car. One not far from the Statler-Hilton Hotel has a magnificent triple-life size cutout of the Chief in the window. Makes me homesick.

Many crude signs are in evidence. One with some kind of a left-handed lettering parades in front of the Sports Arena: "Nominate Nixon; beat Stevenson." A sign with a smutty inference was ejected from the premises.

The "debate" between Johnson and Kennedy was more of a kissing match, its principal impact being to make both delegations late in reaching their seats.

Had a phone call from James Olney who says he lived in Pontiac 20 years ago, and worked at Baldwin Rubber. Tried to get him to subscribe to The Press, as he didn't know we are building a new courthouse.

As an old observer says: "I wonder if my great-grandchildren will live to see this civil rights issue settled."

Our own Phil Hart has developed an oratory and gestures which, coupled with his good sense, make him a convincing speaker. I think he topped the bunch in that civil rights free-for-all.

Adlai Stevenson remembers when his party got caught in that downpour in Pontiac's Murphy Park in the 1952 campaign, and he developed a hole in the sole of his shoe, which became a top publicity stunt.

Everybody got dunked. My shoes were full.

Los Angeles already is preparing to clean up after the convention, and wondering if it wants another.

Perhaps a taxi driver has the correct idea. No matter which side wins in November, we can be sure of one thing — taxes will continue to go up.

Judging by the arguments I hear this is no place for the wives (or husbands) of delegates. They're excess baggage, and should have stayed home.

It cost $500,000 to fix over the comparatively new Sports Arena for the convention, and it must be "fixed back" immediately for other events.

When the convention was about to open, it was discovered that there was no speaker's gavel. And the securing of one was turned into a Hollywood publicity stunt.

Among other things in which Los Angeles claims to lead all other cities is traffic fatalities.

Hospital Board Elects Clarkson Third Time

The Pontiac General Hospital Board of Trustees last night re-elected James Clarkson to an unprecedented third term as Board chairman.

William P. Babcock was named vice chairman, Mrs. Edna P. Roush was re-elected secretary and Robert A. Armstrong, treasurer.

The high post was given Clarkson, executive vice president and secretary of Pontiac Federal Savings & Loan Assn., even though he plans to resign from the Board when he moves out of the city to Waterford Township this fall.

Mrs. Roush head of the Board's nominating committee, said it is expected that Babcock will be named chairman when Clarkson retires.

JAMES CLARKSON

It was the first time since founding of the Board in 1952 that a trustee has been elected to three consecutive one-year terms.

Mrs. Roush explained the nominating committee's choice by noting that Clarkson presently is heading negotiations with the Oakland County Department of Social Welfare for an annual adjustment in welfare rates.

"We believed it would be better not to change horses in the middle of the stream," she said.

Others on the nominating committee are John Q. Waddel, Dick M. Kirby and Babcock.

Clarkson, who had already announced he did not seek the post again, changed his plans.

He put away a farewell speech he had ready.

The speech cited the long list of accomplishments in the past two years.

"Let me first thank everyone for their support, confidence, enthusiasm and plain hard work," he said.

The time is coming very soon when we'll have the best hospital in Michigan."

Clarkson joined the Board in January, 1957 as treasurer. He was elected chairman in 1958 and 1959.

Babcock and Mrs. Roush have served on the Board since its 1952 inception.

Babcock was chairman in 1955 and 1956 and vice chairman in 1958.

Mrs. Roush has been secretary since 1952, except for a stint as vice chairman in 1957.

Appointed to the Board in October, 1958, Armstrong has been treasurer since 1959.

President Ready to Strike Back

Herter Will Use Strong Words in Coming U.N. Battle With Reds

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States, under heavy Soviet pounding, has largely abandoned its postsummit policy of seeking businesslike negotiations with Moscow and is switching to a get-tough strategy of its own.

Evidence of this change is already becoming apparent. It will be fully developed at the United Nations next week when the United States and the Soviet Union join battle over charges and countercharges of threats to world peace.

Secretary of State Christian A. Herter and his top aides are reported to be preparing a massive verbal assault on Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's activities since he torpedoed the summit conference at Paris two months ago.

President Eisenhower is described by officials here as fed up with Khrushchev's incessant campaign of accusations against the United States. He apparently feels that Khrushchev's hostile policy leaves no recourse except to strike back hard.

LINE TO BE TOUGH

Two moves by the State Department Thursday reflected the developing new tough line. The department announced a note to Moscow calling off indefinitely negotiations scheduled for next Monday on an air transport agreement between the two countries.

This step was blamed on "recent Soyiet actions and utterances" which, the department said, have poisoned the atmosphere for negotiation.

At the same time the department issued a new warning to Khrushchev to keep his hands off Latin American countries, particularly Cuba. It denounced him for claiming that the 137-year-old Monroe Doctrine of America for the Americans is out of date and for trying to scuttle the U.S.-Cuban treaty covering the American naval base at Guantanamo, Cuba.

Khrushchev, the department asserted, is trying to establish a "Bolshevik doctrine" under which he would make use of "Soviet military power in support of Communist movements anywhere in the world."

With the shelving of the prospective negotiations on a U.S.-Soviet air agreement, the question has arisen here whether the negotiations among the United States, Britain and the Soviet Union on a treaty barring nuclear weapons tests will be continued at Geneva.

N-TESTS EXCEPTION

State Department officials said Washington has no intention of breaking off the nuclear test conference and they doubt that Moscow will do so. This three-power negotiation therefore stands as the only important exception to the general collapse of East-West diplomacy.

On the Allied side, the intensification of the Cold War may call for greater efforts at coordination and tightening of Allied unity in the face of Khrushchev's mounting hostility.

One such move is the beginning of consultations here between the United States and Britain on possible modification of agreements involved in the use of U. S. air bases in Britain. Washington officials said the talks are concerned entirely with possible improvement in coordination of the use of the bases.

British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan had referred to possible modifications when he was questioned in Commons earlier this week on the shooting down an RB47 of the U. S. Air Force by a Soviet plane July 1. The RB47 was operating from a base in Britain.

Russian Paper Gives Kennedy One Paragraph ville, but there was an easier air about the city.

Belgian troops were still in control of the city and had fanned out over a large part of the country to which Belgium had given independence only two weeks ago.

Belgium has more than 6,000 soldiers in The Congo, including 4,000 holdovers from colonial days by agreement with the new republic and 2,000 others flown in when the disorders broke out after independence. The U. N. resolution authorizing the special force calls for their withdrawal, but top Belgian officials said only the additional men sent since trouble broke out would be pulled out of the country. The rest, they said, would be pulled back to the bases retained by Belgium after The Congo was given independence.

The Congolese government of President Joseph Kasavubu and Premier Patrice Lumumba faced a renewed threat from the rich province of Katanga, whose provincial assembly Thursday night approved secession from the central government and demanded recognition of "all free-world countries" as an independent territory.

Provincial President - Premier Moise Tsombe warned the United Nations that the U. N. task force being rushed to The Congo would not be admitted to Katanga. He cabled U. N. headquarters in New York that all was quiet in the province with the aid of Belgian troops and invited Bunche to visit Katanga and see for himself how peaceful things are there.

Kennedy to Accept Dem Call Tonight

House Speaker Sam Rayburn of Texas, who urged Johnson not to take second place, shook his head and sighed a little sadly at the outcome which was formally ratified by the Democratic convention Thursday night.

Rayburn's explanation was that Johnson had been offered the spot and replied in simple language that he couldn't reject any demand for service his party or his country laid upon him. Johnson himself offered no enlightening explanation.

Whatever his motives, by the introduction of Johnson's name on the ticket Kennedy appeared to have softened a movement to deny him the vote of several Southern states in the Electoral College.

BIG SHOW TONIGHT

Kennedy could deal with the complaining liberals of the party. They had no organizations to deny him the electoral vote of any state. He could pitch for their support by the liberal utterances such as he planned for tonight's extravaganza.

Tonight's formal acceptance ceremonies take the form of a big show with its Hollywood stars and premiere lights, its thundering thousands of spectators and its nation-spanning coverage by television, radio and the newspapers.

Johnson has been a target for Americans for Democratic Action, the liberal appendage of the party. He has been criticized by Chairman Butler for ignoring the recommendations of the Democratic Advisory Council.

Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan, a preconvention supporter of Kennedy, said his delegation feels the nomination of Johnson was a mistake.

outside Williams' Statler-Hilton Hotel suite.

"Jack wants Lyndon," was the word.

Later, delegates heard that Jack had wanted him right along — even while Williams and other liberals, and non-liberals, joined in what their aides viewed as a series of Democratic summit conferences in Kennedy headquarters in the Biltmore Hotel.

The idea had spread that perhaps the veep nomination would go to Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo) who at one time had 15 delegates, each with one-half vote, committed to his candidacy.

At a post-session caucus in the Statler Hotel, Williams gave reassurance that he was "given to understand" that Johnson would campaign on the ultra-liberal platform adopted two days ago, a document marked by a strong civil rights plank sharply criticized by many Southerners.

August Scholle, state AFL-CIO head and a delegation vice chairman, once again reacted — apparently — as a hard-headed realist.

"Texas didn't like what happened yesterday (Wednesday), we didn't like it today. That's the way it goes in politics," he said.

Sen. Philip A. Hart, a delegate, struck a tight-lipped pose when asked for comment. Hart said he would let Williams talk on the subject.

Funds to Furnish Library Sought in Letter Drive

BIRMINGHAM — Letters requesting contributions to furnish additional equipment for the new Baldwin Public Library have been sent out this week by the Friends of the Library to more than 1,700 area families.

The Friends of the Library are hoping to raise $40,600 for the purchase of additional books, a public address system, file cabinets, book stands and drapes for the expanded facility.

The fund raising committee is headed by Herbert H. Gardner, chairman, J. L. Cameron, president of the Friends of the Library, and James E. Tobin, Baldwin Library Board president.

When the City Commission budgeted $187,000 for the expansion only the bare essential were provided for, said Cameron.

The city was able to expand the library without raising taxes which kept allowances for additional furnishings and equipment at a minimum, he said.

It is at this point that the Friends of the Baldwin Public Library stepped in," Cameron added.

Mrs. Henry Koltys

A Requiem Mass for Mrs. Henry (Sadie) Koltys, 39, of 960 Lone Pine Rd., Bloomfield Hills, will be said Saturday at 11 a.m. in St. Hugo of the Hills Catholic Church.

Burial will be in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

A Rosary will be said at 8 p.m. today at William Vasu Funeral Home.

Mrs. Koltys died Wednesday in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital from injuries suffered a week before in an automobile accident in Bloomfield Township.

Surviving are her husband, sons Norman, Norris and Henry Jr., parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Muntean of Birmingham and sister Mrs. Florence Chick of Birmingham.

Labor Stunned but Sees Some Johnson Benefits

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Some top labor union leaders say they are stunned and unhappy over the nomination of Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson to be No. 2 man on the Democratic ticket. But they count on some early benefits.

Those looking for quick gains figure that with Johnson as the running mate of Sen. John F. Kennedy, the party's presidential nominee, the chances are good of pushing through some long-wanted labor goals when Congress reconvenes in August. As Senate majority leader, Johnson wields power over legislation.

The labor union chiefs attending the convention held a secret meeting Thursday night after the convention had ratified Kennedy's choice of Johnson to be vice presidential nominee.

The group included George Meany, AFL-CIO president, and Walter Reuther, head of the Auto Workers Union. Reuther is an influence in the big Michigan delegation which glumly refrained from any applause when Johnson was nominated.

CAREY STUNNED

James B. Carey, president of the International Union of Electrical Workers, said for the record he was "stunned and shocked" at the sudden selection of Johnson, the man Kennedy had beaten for the party top prize.

'Labor Support Fails Swainson'

Edward Conner Says Few Union Presidents Went to Meeting

JACKSON (UPI) — Edward Connor, Detroit councilman who is in the three-man race for the Democratic nomination for governor, said yesterday that the drive to put organized labor behind Lt. Gov. John Swainson has failed.

Connor, Secretary of State James M. Hare and Swainson's backers now have all made different estimates of Tuesday night's meeting aimed at bringing Detroit area organized labor behind Swainson.

Connor said, "There's nothing to worry about. If I invited 205 union presidents for such a meeting, and only a handful showed up, it would not consider it very successful.

"The best reports I can get from people in the meeting are that 31 persons were in the audience of which 12 actually were union (local) presidents.

"After all, there are 800 locals around these (Wayne-Oakland-Macomb) parts," he said.

Harry Southwell, president of United Auto Workers Local 174, and Russell Leach, president of UAW Local 155, claimed that about 60 local presidents or their representatives attended the Swainson meeting.

Just before the meeting, Hare issued a statement saying that he and Connor had "many friends in labor" and condemning the effort of the Swainson backers to break the state AFL-CIO policy of neutrality in the Democratic primary.

To back Hare in this position, 24 other union officers and members signed a telegram also condemning moves to "violate" the neutrality pact.

Connor, always friendly to labor as a Detroit councilman, is credited with keeping the state AFL-CIO executive board, friendly to Swainson, from making an endorsement and declaring the policy of organization neutrality. Hare is a member of the AFL-CIO Teachers Union.

Southfield Expressway Bids to Be Opened Aug. 3

LANSING (UPI)—Bids on 2.5 miles of the Southfield freeway in Detroit will be opened here Aug. 3, the Highway Department said.

The Southfield freeway job calls for construction, including six bridges, from south of Ford road noth to Westfield avenue. Completion date for the Southfield expressway job is Nov. 30, 1961.

It's Average Life Income Likely

U.S. Male Worth $200,000

NEW YORK (AP) — The average U.S. male can claim an economic value of $200,000, the Institute of Life Insurance said today.

The figure, representing his prospective lifetime income, has climbed from $133,000 since 1949. The institute computed both totals from government income data and survival rates.

The increase, the institute said, mainly reflects a persistent gain in longevity, rising educational levels and skills and the long-term increase in economic output.

VARIES WITH EDUCATION

Average lifetime income, the institute noted, varies with educational attainment. A man with a grade school education has a prospective lifetime income of $178,000, well under the over-all average.

The average high school graduate can expect to earn $243,000.

A college degree adds $100,000 to the average man's earning power, bringing it to $347,000 and "thus more than making up for the cost and time spent on higher education," the institute said.

"As far as the great majority is concerned," the institute commented, "the figures clearly indicate the value of education in an individual's progress."

He Can Make VP Job a Powerhouse

Johnson Employs Cold Reasoning

By JAMES MARLOW

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Democratic ticket of Sen. John F. Kennedy for president and Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson for vice president fries a couple of kinds of fish, political and personal.

For years Johnson, 51, has shown signs of aching for the presidential nomination. Therefore, seeing it go this week to Kennedy, eight years his junior must have been a shattering blow.

The fact that Johnson, at Kennedy's request, would accept the No. 2 spot on the ticket looks bewildering at first glance. It makes sense when you lift the lid on this strange political pot and look inside.

Johnson, as Senate leader of the Democrats, for years has had one of the most important and powerful jobs in the country. What he wanted was the most powerful job of all, the presidency.

Johnson, whose Senate term is up this year, without question could be re-elected by Texas and retain his Senate leadership. He still is expected to run for the Senate as well as the vice presidency.

But this happens to be a touchy year in the national political scene.

The South, as it showed at the Democratic convention, was restive and balky over the very liberal civil rights platform plan shoved down its throat by the rest of the convention delegates.

There was a good chance the South in next November's elections would be a lot less than wholehearted in its support of the Democratic ticket headed by Kennedy.

By getting Johnson to run with him, Kennedy went a long way toward pacifying the South, which is where Johnson had his main backing in his unsuccessful bid for the presidential nomination.

So from a political standpoint it makes sense to put Johnson on the ticket as Kennedy's running mate.

But there's a personal element in this.

Washington newsmen who have dealt with Johnson for years know he has a gigantic ego. This is precisely why Kennedy's victory over him must have cut the Texan deeply.

It would hardly seem sensible for a man, dressed in the tremendous robes of power worn by a Senate leader, to give up that job for the comparatively less influential post of vice president.

But Johnson, who has talked with newsmen at great length about the nice things said of him over the years, could feel particularly honored if the voters chose him for a job just one heartbeat away from the presidency.

There is more. Johnson, a tremendous manipulator of men, could use the vice presidency in a way not attempted by others who have held that job. He could try to hold the reins of power in the Senate even though someone else succeeded to his present title as Democratic leader.

That's one point. As vice president he would not only sit in the president's Cabinet but also be a member of the National Security Council, the most influential and powerful single group in the executive branch of the government.

Thus Johnson, as vice president, could be a powerhouse in both the legislative and executive branches of the government to a degree never before attempted, even by Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

Knowing Johnson, it seems correct to say that while he has been denied a chance at the most powerful single position in the country, the presidency, he would use the vice presidency in such a way that he would be indisputably the second most powerful man.

There is one other consideration in all this. A Kennedy-Johnson ticket will have a two-edged appeal to voters next November.

Liberals and intellectuals, labor and Negroes, will be able to support a ticket headed by Kennedy. Conservatives can feel that the conservative Johnson, even though he has a fairly liberal record himself, will be a restraining force within the government if the Democrats win.

Add all the pieces together, and it's quickly understandable why Kennedy asked Johnson to be his running mate, why Johnson so quickly accepted, and why the convention so quickly approved.

McNamara Out of the Hospital

Leaves Today Amid Steady Speculation on His Political Future

By The Associated Press

Sen. Patrick V. McNamara (D-Mich) leaves Detroit's Harper Hospital today to convalesce at home amid continuing speculation over his political future.

McNamara, 65, operated on for a prostate condition Monday, passed up the Democratic National Convention at Los Angeles in order to be hospitalized.

Prior to entering the hospital he said he definitely would stay in the running for a second term in Washington.

Unopposed for nomination in the Aug. 2 primary, he will have a contest for re-election in November with either Rep. Alvin M. Bentley or Donald S. Leonard, contenders for the Republican nomination.

Subsequent to McNamara's hospitalization he was reported to have cancer. Both his physician and associates have refused to discuss this.

Party members have been represented as concerned over the senator's health. He had been ill of virus earlier this year in Washington and came home for a rest.

He was in the hospital last May for a checkup and rest.

Parachute Effective More Than 19 Miles

EGLIN AIR FORCE BASE, Fla. (AP)—A parachute developed to slow the re-entry speed of vehicles launched to high altitudes was lofted to more than 100,000 feet in a successful test.

A three-stage Cree research rocket launched Thursday from the nearby Santa Rosa Island missile test center took the recovery parachute more than 19 miles high and released it at more than 1,300 miles per hour.

The Air Force said the parachute will be used to slow the re-entry speed of space vehicles, escape capsules, aircraft and drones operating at very high speeds and altitudes.

A kitchen range with all burners and ovens operating releases enough heat into the kitchen and surrounding rooms to keep a three-ton air conditioner operating for several hours to remove it without doing any additional cooling of the house.

India Signs Agreement for Import of U.S. Films

NEW DELHI (AP) — India signed an agreement Thursday for import of American films in the current fiscal year.

Charles E. Vaus signed for the American Motion Pictures Export Assn. and Commerce Secretary H. H. F. Khilanani for India.

Officials said that under the agreement, India will plow back part of the money earned by American films to enable India to conserve foreign exchange.

PET DOCTOR
By A. W. Moller, D.V.M.

BEDEARD

Q. My husband gets all heated up arguing that our dog is immune to heat, even though it has a long coat. I disagree. Who is right?

A. Your dog's heat regulation is as sensitive as your husband's. Handicapped by inability to perspire, the dog evaporates moisture through its open mouth, but can collapse and even die of heat stroke.

He can enjoy a comparatively comfortable summer if a few precautions are observed. Of course, an ample supply of cool, fresh water should be available to him at all times. He should never be confined in an area without shade.

* * *

If he has his own dog house, it should stand in the shade, and there should be ventilation holes in the roof.

Obvious discomforts like having the dog wait in an unventilated auto should be avoided.

Dogs appreciate air conditioning but can contract severe respiratory trouble if exposed too suddenly or placed in a direct blast. An occasional cool bath or swim will refresh your pet on a torrid day.

State Moves to Cut Violations

Doubles Enforcement Crew for Beginning of Deer Season

LANSING (AP)—State convention officials are moving to close some of the loopholes in game regulations and game law enforcement that contributed to a sudden upsurge in violations during the 1959 deer season.

On orders from state conservation director Gerald E. Eddy, the enforcement crew in the field during the Nov. 30 season and in the week preceding will be nearly twice as large as last year.

The department also is expected to adopt a regulation requiring hunters to transport does and fawns on the outside of their automobiles. Anterless deer stuffed in trunks posed an enforcement problem last year.

Finally, game men are preparing a new type of permit for the doe and fawn season, which again probably will run concurrently with the regular buck season.

Plans call for issuance of a permit of waterproof material, colored yellow or red, for easy identification.

U. S. Sends Medicine and Clothing to Mental Hospital Survivors

GUATEMALA (AP) — The United States is flying medical supplies and clothing here today for survivors of the fire in the Guatemala City mental asylum which took more than 200 lives.

Many of the 1,400 inmates, some classified as criminally insane, escaped during rescue operations Thursday, making it difficult to fix the exact death toll. About 60 survivors were burned.

Lt. Gen. Robert F. Sink, U.S. military commander in the Caribbean, ordered relief flown from Panama. The remnant of hurricane Abby, now near Guatemala, may delay the planes.

Authorities said a short circuit probably sparked the asylum's fire, which caused the heaviest death toll ever experienced by Guatemala in a disaster other than an earthquake.

Italian Riots Point Up Government Weakness

Without question the riots in Italy can be attributed to the recent visit of Communist Leader Togliatti to headquarters in Moscow and the strategy planned there.

Unfortunately Prime Minister TAMBRIONI must depend on a coalition with Neo-Fascists, (the far right) his party having lost its parliamentary majority in 1953. Although the Christian Democrats are numerically dominant, they are split into eight factions each with its own organization, leader, headquarters and newspapers. The present government was approved with fascist-monarchist support and holds 272 of the 297 needed for a majority.

The Communist party with 144 delegates has the second largest number in parliament. But it has been denied all participation in official affairs by the other parties including the Nenni Socialists who have 88 seats. Four of the five governments of the past five years have had to rely on the Social Democrats, the Liberals and Republicans all with fewer than 20 votes.

Left wing Socialists broke with the Communists after the Hungarian revolt and its leader, PIETRO NENNI sent his STALIN peace prize back to Moscow. Some political observers feel that in this crisis the Socialists may back the TAMBRONI government. More unity in the Christian Democratic party itself would ease the situation.

In 1948 the late Premier ALCIDE DE GASPERI made a beginning toward social, political and economic reform. But the drive has lagged and the Communists have taken advantage of the government's failure to provide progressive leadership and much needed reforms.

The weaknesses and mistakes of the ruling Democratic party are being exploited and this is not reassuring to the West.

Point 4 Youth Corps May Be Considered

The mutual security bill recently passed by Congress provides for consideration of Rep. HENRY REUSS' proposal for a Point Four Youth Corps.

First proposed in January, the measure urges the President to select a university, foundation or other nongovernment research group to develop the organization and program. The proposed corps, an alternative to the draft, would permit qualified young American volunteers to serve their country for two years in foreign rice paddies, for instance, instead of in the drill field.

They would receive the same wages and allowances in public and private technical assistance missions as they would for straight military draft. The job would not be glamorous and would involve more discomfort than peacetime army service.

The House Foreign Affairs Committee praised the idea. Its own study missions had frequently found that the best American foreign air projects were making use of young, technically trained Americans working at the village level. But the committee said the present program was too limited.

The great challenge is in villages and rural areas of Africa, Asia and Latin America. The "have-not" nations are the battle front for the world balance of power and for freedom. Money and military aid alone will not win that battle. Russia and China carefully train groups, technically and ideologically, and send them into the villages to live and work with the people. We have no comparable program.

Our limited experience in this field shows that the kind of young men and women volunteering for such service would spread good will for America. The Wisconsin Congressman's plan would give the world a far better idea of the democratic, peaceful and helpful U.S. It would strengthen language training and promote a more professional foreign service.

The Man About Town

Speaking of Cows

Marked Change in Herds Over the Passing Years

World: A big globe which revolves on its taxes.

Pushed around by industry and home building, the Oakland County cow has been forced to change her habits, even her means of livelihood. The source of our most important item of food isn't what she used to be.

Fastened to a stanchion in winter, she formerly roamed our fields all spring, summer and autumn.

But the fields now have largely disappeared, and her owner has found that she trampled down more food than she eats when pastured in the old way out of doors.

So indoor feeding now is principally the rule. Old bossy seldom graces the landscape where formerly she made a beautiful picture of contentment.

The modern silo gives her the raw material to convert into the lacteal fluid, while she mourns the loss of her babe, and suffers the gross indignities of the milking machine. She too has been industrialized.

She formerly was an individualist, often a lone cow on that farm, a family pet. She enjoyed the caresses of every member of the household, and the sing of the milk into the tin pail was music to her ears.

Land values and high taxes have worked against her. Her place is needed.

While the average herd rarely ran over five or six cows, milk production also is centralizing. The average herd has jumped to 25 or more, for dairy products can be profitable only when done on a large scale.

So more milk at a profit is the only consideration. The cows may not like it, but their likes or dislikes are not considered.

But her product is so vital to our very existence that the cow will always have a prominent place in our lives, even if her status undergoes a big change.

She's that prominent, that even in this inventive age when substitutes for most everything are in vogue, nobody would ever dare to invent something that took the place of milk.

Oakland County's 423 lakes cover a total of approximately 35 square miles, an area less than the size of only one of its 25 townships.

Many Oakland County townships once paid a 15-cent bounty for ground hog (woodchuck) scalps. They were considered to be a menace because their burrowing in the fields caused horses to break through the ground and fracture their legs. According to that old time observer, of Rochester, most of the horses have now gone into history, but the hardy woodchuck remains—with no price on his head.

Milton Prescott

Kennedy Faces Challenge

Those Speeches of Yesteryear!

By RUTH MONTGOMERY

LOS ANGELES — Many men will envy the Democratic presidential nominee as he strides onto the klieg-lighted convention stage tonight, to receive the roaring accolade of his party.

Few, however, could covet the challenge he will face to out-do some of the super-dramatic acceptance speeches of modern history.

Can anyone forget what Harry S. Truman did to the Democratic convention in a middle-of-the-night final session back in 1948?

Or can anyone ever surpass the brilliant, charmingly brief acceptance speech delivered to a spell-bound convention by Adlai Stevenson in 1952?

Nostalgia overcomes us when we muse upon the contrast between the stream-lined convention of today's jet age, and that winsomely helter-skelter scene in Philadelphia 12 long years ago.

Practically no one wanted to nominate Truman — "He can't win" was the watchword of the hour — but the Give 'Em Hell President insisted upon his historic right to run, and few could argue with his prerogative. Never has a party dared repudiate a first-term president who craved a renewed lease on the White House.

SPIRITS LOW

Spirits on that dismal day were probably the lowest in convention history. Four Deep South states had walked out of the conclave en masse, to run their own states' rights slate for the presidency.

Alben W. Barkley was boiling mad at Truman, because the prexy had been frantically trying to locate Supreme Court Justice Douglas — somewhere in the wilds of the great Northwest — to offer him the vice presidency.

Douglas, because he didn't want it, had gone into hiding on a hunting trip. Barkley, who wanted it badly enough to cry, had uttered the immortal phrase, "I don't want any warmed-over biscuits."

Harry finally passed the cold biscuits, and Alben took them. The convention had reluctantly nominated Truman, and now waited in dispirited apathy for him to reach Philadelphia.

The cocky prexy finally arrived, strode onto the stage, and proceeded to bring that dying-on-the-vine body alive, with the hardest fighting speech that has ever been delivered from a convention rostrum.

POUR IT ON, HARRY

"Pour it on, Harry," the delegates shouted delightedly as Truman blasted the Republican 80th Congress. Then came the big moment when he announced that he was calling the "Do-nothing" legislators back into a "turnip day" session to enact the Democratic platform.

Nothing ever came of the session — it was the biggest legislative flop in politicking history — but Harry had his day. He had proved that he could scuttle apathy, and electrify his own enemies.

His surprise win in November was almost an anti-climax, after that thrilling convention spectacle.

The 1952 convention was also a dilly. "Coonskin" Estes Kefauver, after capturing all the important primaries, wheeled confidently into convention hall with 300 votes in his pocket. Sen. Richard Russell, darling of Dixie, had a solid Southern block of 267.

At the start of the second balloting, favorite sons released their delegates and the mad scramble began. Kefauver picked up 62 more votes, Russell another 27, and Stevenson 76.

The third ballot turned the trick for Stevenson, and the "Madly for Adlai" delegates went wild.

Stevenson was virtually a political unknown to Eastern correspondents. Perhaps that is one of the reasons why his urbane, tempered, exquisitely-phrased acceptance speech came as such a delightful surprise to those of us who were inured to congressional oratory.

These are the challenges which "the man who" will have to face up to tonight.

Smiles

Truth is stranger than fiction except when a fisherman tells you the size of the fish he caught.

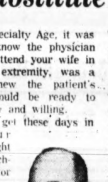
Sure you can get plastered on milk! Drop in at a night club where they charge a buck a glass.

Dr. William Brady Says:

Can't Doctors Arrange for Substitute on Call?

Before the Specialty Age, it was a comfort to know the physician you called to attend your wife in emergency or extremity, was a friend, who knew the patient's history and would be ready to treat her, ready and willing.

What do you get these days in answer to your frantic midnight call is a switchboard operator who will try — she tells you in a mechanical tone to "get hold of the doctor," and then the doctor will get hold of you.



DR. BRADY

Wednesdays and weekends, the doctors spend in their favorite hideouts if they are practicing in cities.

No one expects a doctor to be on duty or on call 24 hours a day. He is a human being and needs time off perhaps more than, say, a busdriver. But can't we expect him to arrange for someone to take his place and be available when needed?

Someone takes the bus-driver's place. The passengers feel confident that when one bus-driver goes home for the night or off on his weekend, they will not be left stranded on a street corner. Alas, this confidence cannot be placed in the city physician.

Of course a great many calls made are unnecessary, are not of an emergency nature, but only the family physician can know which are and which are not. Nevertheless, the doctor's "associate" comes to treat your dying wife.

And after what appears to be a leisurely weekend in the country, the great man himself drops by to see what he can do — if it's only to sign the death certificate.

What's the trouble? Has he taken on so many patients that he can't care for them all? The doctor may be "dedicated," but to what? To science? To testing theories or new drugs as they appear in medical literature? Or perhaps to early retirement with a good income?

If you're fortunate enough to have a doctor who is devoted to healing and reassurance, hang on to him and treat him gently, for you can hardly find that kind any more.

One group of doctors calling themselves "clinic" mail out telephone stickers saying that the "clinic" has doctors on duty 24 hours a day for emergency service. This is not a public or charity service, mind you, but strictly business.

If a phony "clinic" can advertise in this way and get away with it, why shouldn't the doctors in any community set up a similar plan for taking care of hurry calls?

Signed letters not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not clinical diagnosis, of treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

The Country Parson

"There isn't much we can do to improve the fellow who already knows it all."

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Carousing Father Violates Rules

Howard ignores his children and refuses to play ball according to the rules. He wants to "cut up" and "have fun" drinking and carousing at his club. He is emotionally immature, just like a spoiled kindergartener who will not play the nursery games per the rules.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case F-417: Howard J., aged 31, is the father of three youngsters.

"Dr. Crane, my husband and I are separated at the moment," his slender young wife informed me.

"For Howard says marriage has put him into a strait jacket. He says he wants to have fun and spend his nights at the club.

"Our mutual friends tell me he has never grown up and they think he will always be childish.

DR. CRANE

"My physician says the only way I could be happy according to Howard's formula, would be for me to forget my children and ignore our bills and spend my nights drinking and dancing with my husband at the club.

"Well, I can't sacrifice my children. Maybe Howard is jealous of them, therefore, because he chases them to the basement and whips them unmercifully though the oldest is only 7.

"I've obtained some solace from going to Sunday school and church, but Howard ridicules such things.

"Yet I love him and don't want to get a divorce, though he insists on it. So what can I do?"

GRANDSTANDERS

Marriage is a game and it has certain basic rules, just as does baseball.

What would you readers think of a centerfielder who turned his back on home plate with a man at bat to talk and laugh with the folks in the bleachers.

And suppose that fielder tried to "have fun" by standing on his head and "cutting up" for the laughter of the spectators when a fly ball was hit in his direction?

Obviously, the manager would banish him from the game! Well, Howard is the same type of grandstander who refuses to abide by the rules of the marriage game.

Every intelligent man should recognize his obligations to his children. Whether he loves his wife any longer or not, or whether he'd relish being away bowling, or playing poker, he should realize that until his children are out of high school his first obligation is to those youngsters.

They didn't ask to come into the world! So they are his responsibility. And he owes them the courtesy of playing the game of fatherhood per the rule book.

GOOD FATHERS

A good American father doesn't stagger home drunk to terrify his youngsters when he opens the front door. And he doesn't whip them cruelly.

Instead, he is the type of man whom the children rush to greet. If they are toddlers, he even gets down and plays "horse," so they can ride on his back.

He likewise sets them a good moral example. And he sees that they go to Sunday school!

Even if he himself doesn't attend church regularly, at least he doesn't ridicule such fine moral training when his wife tries to teach their children faithfulness to ethical rules.

A man may be partly excused for poor business judgment and for failing to live within his budget, for few Americans are taught bookkeeping or budgeting prior to marriage.

But no intelligent man can be excused for wanting to carouse around at a club and "have fun"

Tomorrow I'll outline more of these rules for good fathers, so save these Case Records and mail them to erring dads like Howard.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 4c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Voice of the People

'Democrats Can't Be Used to Satisfy Personal Wants'

After reading of Harriett Phillips' steadfast support of two time loser, Adlai Stevenson, I can't help wonder how sincere her real reason is for forming a Liberal Labor Bloc here in Oakland County. She states it was to get candidates that can win.

However, I believe her real ambition is to gain control of the Oakland County Democratic Committee by endorsing certain candidates who are then committed to her. It is the winning candidates of the August primary who choose the entire committee after the election.

As an interested and concerned Democrat I must warn that our party cannot afford to be used to satisfy personal ambitions. We have many qualified candidates to choose from, and let's vote for them as individuals not by inter-party endorsements.

Parents Are Urged to Caution Children

A girl who darted in front of our car recently makes me want to remind drivers and parents alike of the necessity for extra precaution now that children are on vacation. Drivers must be more careful than ever and parents must make every effort to drum rules of safety into their children's minds.

Hearing National Anthem Is Inspiring

As discouraging as it sometimes is to think the most important offices of our country are decided in the chaotic, carnival atmosphere of political conventions, it's a very moving thing to see and hear the entire convention rise and sing the National Anthem and realize such a gathering is freedom at its peak. No other country in the world can equal it.

Johnson Goes Prediction of Grandfather One Better

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Not even Sam Johnson, the adoring grandpappy of Lyndon B. Johnson, thought his descendant would ever reach so high.

Johnson fans know the story well—how the grandfather looked down at his grandson and declared: "He'll be a United States senator some day."

It would be a daring person indeed who would predict at this stage that Johnson will not be vice president of the United States, after he came from far back to be the only real contender with Sen. John F. Kennedy for the presidential nomination, then took second place on the ticket.

He comes from a famous Texas family, but it was a family without money when he finished high school at 15.

One of Johnson's paternal ancestors signed the Texas Declaration of Independence from Mexico and fought the Mexicans. Both his paternal grandfather and his father served in the Texas House of Representatives.

ODD JOBS AT 15

On his mother's side he is descended from Baptist preachers and educators. His great-grandfather was a president of Baylor University, a Baptist school at Waco Tex.

At 15 he went with other boys on a freight - car trip to California and there wandered up and down the Pacific Coast, doing such jobs as washing dishes, waiting tables, and doing farm work.

After seven months he hitchhiked back home and to a job as a highway laborer.

A father-son conference sent him to Southwest Texas State Teachers College at San Marcos in central Texas. He reached there with $75 in borrowed money and worked his way through as janitor and part-time secretary.

He graduated in 1930 and began teaching school. Perhaps significantly, he taught public speaking and debating.

Then he went to Washington as secretary to Rep. Richard M. Kleberg (D-Tex).

NEW DEALER

In Washington he was caught up in the bursts of enthusiasm that surrounded President Franklin D. Roosevelt. He returned to Texas as state director of the National Youth Administration. He was a strong New Dealer.

Since then his views appear to have modified, and his supporters in both liberal and conservative camps can point to portions of his record supporting their opposite stands. He prefers to call himself a middle-of-the-roader.

In 1937 Johnson was elected to Congress in a special election. Then Roosevelt persuaded him to run for the Senate.

Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel beat him, but by a slim margin of 1,311 votes. It was another special election, and Johnson retained his House seat.

He ran for the Senate again, opposed by Gov. Coke Stevenson and several others. Neither Johnson nor Stevenson received a majority, and this led to one of the most torrid runoff elections in Texas history. Johnson came out victorious, by an 87-vote margin out of a million votes cast.

His Senate election was in 1948 when he was 40. In 1953 he became Senate majority leader and thus one of the most powerful men in the nation.

It was 1955 that he suffered a major heart attack that some feared might end his political career.

It did no such thing. Always a fighter, he began fighting in another way — against his own energy and restlessness. He did what the doctors ordered, and now he is pronounced cured.

HAPPY SAM — A beaming House Speaker Sam Rayburn applauds the nomination of his fellow Texan Lyndon B. Johnson as the Democratic vice presidential candidate. One report had it that Mr. Sam and Johnson delivered an ultimatum to the Kennedy camp demanding the nomination and promising a party-ripping floor fight if the Texan was not Jack's choice.

Taiwan Aid Program Announced by MSU

EAST LANSING (AP)—Michigan State University will start a technical assistance program on the Chinese Nationalist island of Taiwan.

"These people want to help themselves," commented MSU President John A. Hannah. "All they ask is the technical assistance, the directions."

The project, approved by MSU trustees today, is financed by a $555,000 grant from the International Cooperation Administration. MSU will assist the national university and a college of agriculture.

Under the contract, MSU will aid the two schools in developing their research and extension programs. Five MSU members will be assigned to the project for the first year with more to come later.

Khrushchev Steps In, 'Hands Off Congo'

LONDON (AP)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev warned today the Soviet Union will consider "serious measures" against any powers which engage in "aggression" against The Congo.

In a message to Congo government leaders broadcast by Moscow radio, he said: "The Soviet government says hands off The Congo."

The message, addressed to Premier Patrice Lumumba and President Joseph Kasavubu, said the Soviet Union would give the new republic "any assistance that might be necessary for the victory of its just cause."

Nicaraguan Students Burn American Flag

MANAGUA, Nicaragua (AP)—Students burned a U. S. flag in an anti-American demonstration Thursday night at Nicaragua's National University in Leon.

Some Nicaraguan officials expressed belief the demonstration was a result of a recent decision by the American Cultural Center in Managua to remove a journalism school it founded from the university branch in the capital city.

Concedes Task Looks Hopeless

Keyes Will Stay in Race as Write-in Candidate

DEARBORN (AP)—Dr. Eugene C. Keyes, loser in a fight to win a place on the Aug. 2 primary ballot, says he will stay in the race for lieutenant governor as a write-in candidate.

The Dearborn doctor-lawyer-dentist said he had rented space on 167 bill-boards across the state and planned a vigorous campaign for the Democratic nomination.

Keyes conceded, however, that he faced an almost hopeless uphill battle against four rivals whose names will appear on the ballot. He said he has no sizeable campaign organization.

State elections officials said they had no record of a write-in candidate campaigning successfully for statewide office.

"Of course I'm bitter," Keyes said yesterday after learning that the State Supreme Court had rejected his petition for an order directing the Board of State Canvassers to certify him as a candidate.

"This has been a shabby affair," he said. "The canvassing board has been very arbitrary in disallowing some of the signatures on my petitions."

State Elections Director Robert M. Montgomery said telegrams had been sent to all county clerks informing them of the court's decision.

Some had held up printing ballots pending the outcoming of the dispute; others had ordered ballots printed, planning to add stickers carrying Keyes' name if he won the court fight.

The Supreme Court, backing the canvassing board, ruling that Keyes nominating petitions were "insufficient to allow certification."

The board said Keyes, twice a Republican lieutenant governor in the 1940's, needed at least 542 additional valid signatures to muster the required 12,708.

The Supreme Court ordered a Circuit Court hearing on the sufficiency of the petitions and based its decision on evidence it received from Judge Louis E. Coash of Ingham County.

State VFW to Meet

LANSING (AP)—Top officials of the Michigan Veterans of Foreign Wars will meet here Saturday to draw plans for the hosting of the 61st annual convention of the group in Detroit starting Aug. 21.

The population of the Republic of China in 1957 was estimated at 9,506,000.

GOVERNORS TALK — Gov. Abraham A. Ribicoff, top, of Connecticut and Gov. Orville L. Freeman of Minnesota addressed the Democratic National Convention delegates in Los Angeles Thursday night before they balloted on a candidate for vice president. Freeman was introduced as the first speaker but due to a snafu on the teleprompter, a switch had to be made when Ribicoff's talk was run off first.

Distaff Conclave Notes

Lady Bird Is Relieved

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson had mixed emotions after her husband was defeated in his bid for the Democratic presidential nomination.

As she came from Convention Hall to her hotel suite, she was asked by reporters how she felt.

"I can't say I am not sorry," she said. "Lyndon would have made a noble president—a tough can-do president."

But as a mother and a wife and a woman who wakes up in the morning and wants to call her day her own, I have a sizable feeling of relief."

Adlai E. Stevenson's sister, Mrs. Ernest L. (Buffie) Ives, wore an old Stevenson button from the 1956 campaign. Before the balloting she had declared that it hasn't lost its lustre and would shine again.

Mrs. Stuart Symington sat calmly with her two daughters-in-law watching the long, tedious proceedings in which her husband had a large stake. At one point her comment to a reporter was simply, "I'm hungry."

The wife of Minnesota's Sen. Eugene McCarthy was so excited during her husband's nomination that she held up her "Win with Stevenson" sign upside down. Finally Miles Lord, former Minnesota attorney general, leaned over and said, "Abigail, either you or your sign is upside-down."

Rep. Edith Green of Oregon made history as she responded to the vote call for her home state. She's the first woman chairman of a state delegation in a major party. And her state backed the winning candidate.

PREMIER — Hayato Ikeda, who today succeeded Nobusuke Kishi, 60, as Premier of Japan, is a hard man with a Yen. A few years ago, defending his hard-driving policies as finance minister, he suggested suicide for businessmen who could not survive. More often, he has avoided controversy while helping keep the country solvent. He was an important tax expert in World War II and helped restore the economy after the conflict. He is considered pro-Western.

Polish Start Pipeline to Relay Oil in 1964

WARSAW (UPI) — Polish workmen have begun laying the first sections of the Communist bloc pipeline which will carry Russian oil from the Volga to the Elbe.

This year's section of the line in Poland will reach east and west from Plock, northwest of Warsaw, where a huge oil refinery is to be built. The first oil is expected to flow into the line in 1964.

SPLIT IN THE CONGO — Possibility of a three-way split in The Congo was reported Thursday in the strife-torn republic. The capital, Leopoldville (1), is now under control of Belgian troops. Elizabethville (2), is capital of the province of Katanga whose assembly has ratified secession from The Congo. Stanleyville (3) is seen as possible new headquarters for the Congo government. Katanga province (black area) is the richest in The Congo.

Eisenhower Signs Water Resources Bill

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP)—President Eisenhower Thursday signed the 1960 Water Resources Authorization Bill. It is similar to bills he vetoed in 1956 and 1958.

This year's bill authorizes future construction by Army engineers and the reclamation bureau of about 130 projects involving a cost of approximately $1,400,000,000.

The measure was passed by Congress after consultation with Budget Bureau Officials and after some projects and provisions objectionable to the administration were removed.

The new law authorizes Congress at some future time to vote appropriations for the individual projects.

'Exhibits Not Student's Work,' Says Teacher

TURNERS FALLS, Mass. (AP)—Some of the elaborate displays which turn up in high school science fairs are actually the work of parents, not students, says a Turners Falls high school teacher.

Charles Galvin told school officials science fairs are overrated and are often little more than a publicity gimmick for schools, towns and newspapers.

Lyndon Up Late to Gab With Staff

About 100 of his rooters cheered and applauded when Johnson told them he guessed everyone had reached a point where they "can't swallow any more speeches."

He said his father, a Texas politician, had told him "never make a speech at a country dance or a football game."

Then he proceeded to make a speech, winding up with the quip that Kennedy had demonstrated "extremely good judgment" in his recommendation for vice president.

His wife and teen-age daughters came with him, all looking tired. They shook hands and finally called it a day.

Election Good for Stocks, but There's a Catch

NEW YORK (UPI)—We are now launched into what promises to be a bitter presidential election campaign with charges and counter-charges doing much to obscure the actual level and course of business, according to Business Reports, Inc.

The stock market will not escape the general confusion, the firm points out, although Wall Street traditionalists love to point out that presidential campaigns are good for stock prices.

It is true, according to Business Reports, that the majority of the last half dozen campaigns brought year-end upturns. "But it is also true that the highs attained in the year we elected our presidents were followed by declines . . . which more than wiped out those previous gains."

Surviving are her husband, three sisters and two brothers.

RO Twp. Pair OK Lie Tests

Two Officials Agree to Quiz After Audit Shows $5,478 Missing

Two Royal Oak Township officials have agreed to take lie detector tests as the result of an audit of township books which shows $5,478 missing.

Porsecutor George F. Taylor said George L. Glenn, township terasurer, and Mrs. Mary Newton Price, deputy township treasurer, probably will take polygraph tests at the Redford State Police Post early next week.

An audit by a Detroit firm covering two years showed "unrecorded, understated and underdeposited receipts," Taylor said.

Taylor, who said he had been furnished a copy of the audit by the attorney general's office, conferred yesterday with Township Supervisor Elwood Dickens.

Dickens said the audit was requested several months ago by the Township Board after board members complained of some irregularities in township bookkeeping.

The audit covered the period of April 1, 1958, through March 31, 1960.

Taylor said he would wait upon the outcome of the lie detector tests before deciding if any warrant would be issued.

Avon Township Woman Fatally Hurt in Crash

A 58-year-old Avon Township woman died at Holy Cross Hospital in Detroit yesterday an hour after her car struck the rear of a DSR bus on East Outer Drive near Mound road.

The victim, Mrs. Rufus Feick of 240 Montmorency St., was traveling west when her car hit the bus, which was parked to let out passengers.

Detroit police said Mrs. Feick, who was alone in the car, was driving about 35 m.p.h. when the accident occurred.

Mrs. Feick is the mother of a married daughter.

Homecoming Set Sunday for Ex-TB Patients

Between 500 and 600 expatients are expected Sunday at the 12th annual homecoming sponsored by the Oakland County Tuberculosis Sanatorium Patients Benefit Assn.

Crowning of two patients as king and queen will highlight the event, 2 to 4:30 p.m. on the sanatorium grounds, 7350 Cooley Lake Rd., Waterford Township.

There will be refreshments and entertainment, featuring a variety show, clowns and majorettes.

The public is also invited. Tours of the sanatorium can be arranged.

The association is made up of former patients.

Bell Contract Signed

DETROIT (AP) — A new contract covering 16,800 employes of the Michigan Bell Telephone Co. was signed Thursday by representatives of the company and the Communications Workers of America, AFL-CIO.

The old Maya empire (Indian) flourished in what is today Guatemala during the first 1,000 years of the Christian era.

Belgium, land of the Belgae, was conquered by Julius Caesar, has a 2,000 year history during which it was ruled by the Romans, Merovingian Franks, Burgundy, Spain, Austria and France.

Plan Loop Cutoff in Fall at Telegraph-Square Lake

A loop cutoff will be built this fall to help cut down on traffic accidents at the intersection of Telegraph and Square Lake roads—considered one of the most hazardous in the county.

The State Highway Dept. said it will take bids in Lansing Sept. 7 on construction contracts for the estimated $80,000 project which will stop left turns for southbound Telegraph traffic desiring to go east on Square Lake road.

Construction is due to begin in September with completion not expected to take longer than three weeks, according to J. A. Wills, district engineer for the department's office in Pontiac.

Wills said the project is part of an overall state project to cut down the number of traffic accidents on Telegraph due to left turns.

He pointed out that left turn lanes have now been provided for the hazardous intersection of Telegraph and Maple roads (15 Mile).

He said last year there were 22 accidents at the three-way Telegraph-Square Lake intersection resulting in seven injuries. More than half of the accidents were caused by left-turning traffic from southbound M58 to eastbound M58 and M24, he said.

The project will provide for this directional traffic a cut off to the right about 500 feet north of the intersection. It will circle around and come back onto the present gravel Square Lake road, with this section to be paved as part of the job, and then be ready to proceed with the light across Telegraph in an easterly direction.

The intersection ranked tenth in the Highway Department's annual compilation of the Pontiac district's most hazardous intersections, Wills reported.

Accidents there are going up each year, State Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie pointed out. In 1957 there were 16 accidents and seven injuries and in 1958, 18 accidents resulting in one fatality and 10 injuries.

Customs Collections Rise to $100 Million

DETROIT (UPI) — Customs collections in Michigan increased by more than $16 million to $100 million during the fiscal year ended June 30, it was announced Thursday.

Frank Abelman, collector for the state district, said the large hike over the previous 12-month period was primarily due to the opening of the St. Lawrence Seaway.

The Port of Detroit accounted for the bulk of the collections, Abelman said, but collections at the port of South Haven increased from $325 to $3,777 and Muskegon nearly doubled its collections during the period.

Sen. Bridges Files, Possible Renominee

CONCORD, N. H. (UP) — Styles Bridges, ranking Republican member of the U. S. Senate, was the first in line Thursday as the two-week filing period for New Hampshire's Sept. 13 primaries began.

Bridges formally filed his candidacy for renomination to a fifth consecutive six-year term.

Bridges, chairman of the Senate Republican Policy Committee, told reporters Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts, the Democratic presidential candidate, will give Republicans "a real battle" in November.

Abby Says: Grin and Bear It

If He's Too Stubborn to Ask Let Him Use Up All His Gas

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I have a husband who always manages to get us lost whenever we take a motor trip. He is very stubborn and would rather go miles out of his way than to stop and ask for directions.

ABBY

Why are some men like this, Abby? And what can I do about it? EXASPERATED

DEAR EXASPERATED: Some men feel that if they don't know everything there is to know, it is a reflection on their intelligence. Let him drain his gasoline tank and wear out his tires. It's cheaper than draining your energy and wearing out your patience.

DEAR ABBY: I married into a family that's one for the books. My husband, fortunately, is nothing like the rest of the clan. But we live in the same city and are constantly being thrown together at family gatherings.

Abby, I have never heard people rip others apart the way his mother and sisters do. One afternoon I sat there and counted 42 people and didn't have a good word to say about any of them. All of it was hearsay and gossip of the nastiest kind.

I am new in this family and want them to like me—but I just can't take it. Should I tell them what I think of them and suffer the consequences? Or should I remain silent while they crucify the whole town?

READY TO BURST

DEAR READY: If you love your husband, forego the pleasure of telling them "what you think of them." Instead, each time they start to cut someone down, chime in with a defending word of praise. (You can always find something good to say about everyone.)

When they relate nasty gossip, ask for proof. This will spoil up their knifing sessions, and they'll soon realize that you are a poor audience for their malicious tongues.

DEAR ABBY: Please print this for mothers of daughters. Some time ago we all laughed over one of your answers. You said, "What good does it do a girl to come in at a reasonable hour when she goes out with an unreasonable fellow." I wish I would have paid more attention to that, Abby, because our lovely 17-year-old daughter was never out past 9 on school nights or midnight on weekends and we thought she was safe. But we should have paid more attention to the company she kept, for now we are . . .

Farm Club Hills Unit Plans Fair

To Be Sept. 19 at Leslie H. Green's Turtle Lake Estate

Bloomfield Hills Branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Assn. has voted to sponsor a Country Fair Sept. 19.

Beginning at 11 a.m. the fair will be at the Leslie H. Green estate on Turtle Lake. Proceeds from the event, which will be open to members and guests of Bloomfield Hills, Cranbrook and Osage branches of the WNFAGA, will benefit the branch's scholarship fund.

Mrs. Edward S. Wellock, general chairman, will oversee the activities of committee heads Mrs. Horace P. Shaw, telephone; Mrs. Henry C. Johnson, luncheon; Mrs. Herbert W. Mason, baked goods; Mrs. Charles L. Chubbuck, bulbs; Mrs. Leslie H. Green, produce; and Mrs. William L. Kahn, artificial flowers.

Mrs. William G. Ferguson is chairman for homemade candy. Others heading committees are Mrs. Lester Colman, plants; Mrs. James Q. Goudie, fruit cakes; Mrs. William D. Singleton, white elephants (for gardeners); Mrs. Edgar B. Flint, pop corn wagon; Mrs. E. Govan Hill, cashiers; Mrs. Robert C. Vanderkloot, decorations; Mrs. E. E. Hammonds, tickets; Mrs. Earl Thompson, aprons; and Mrs. John Nagel, garden books.

Orthodox Groups Meet Sunday

What's cooking? Delicious exotic foods from all over the world. They will be only one feature of Sunday's day-long Eastern Orthodox Festival at the State Fairgrounds. Cooks Mrs. Valeria Costeiu and Mrs. D. A. Dobrin of the Detroit area prepare a traditional Rumanian dish.

Mark Third Festival at State Fair

Some 200,000 communicants of the Eastern Orthodox Parishes of Greater Detroit will converge on the State Fair Grounds Sunday to celebrate their third annual Eastern Orthodox Festival.

Pontiac residents will be among the nine nationality groups represented at the event. Parishoners of Albanian, Bulgarian - Macedonian, Carpatho-Russian, Greek, Rumanian, Russian, Serbian, Syrian and Ukrainian descent will gather for the colorful affair.

The public festival, for which a small adult admission charge will be made, is sponsored by the Council of Eastern Orthodox Churches of Greater Detroit.

Features of the day will include international dishes and pastries, folk and popular music, and special entertainment by the Tamburitzans who will play both folk and American dance music until midnight. A carnival with ferris wheels, merry-go-rounds and other rides will be provided for the children.

National costumes will be worn by many of the participants whose native dances will highlight the day. A continental flavor will be added by singing groups and roving musicians.

Eyebrow Beauty

(NEA)—Eyebrows can be made to look more high fashion and glamorous when groomed with an eyebrow brush before and after pencil-ing. Eyelashes look thicker and softer when brushed apart with an eyelash brush or a spiral wand.

How Do You Clean?

(NEA) — Pastel shoes which are slightly soiled are never pretty. So when you buy pastel shoes, ask about the cleaning method. Some of them can be "washed" with dry soapsuds.

Gals, Ever Wear Divided Skirts?

NEW YORK (AP)—If women are going to wear the pants, they ought to do it like ladies.

Norell insists he is quite serious about culottes—he prefers the phrase divided skirts.

"But whether or not the American woman will accept the divided skirt is something else. All the stores are buying, but that doesn't mean women will. There's no dictatorship anymore by designers. We can only propose. If women take to it, it will become a fashion. If they don't, it will die," he added.

Actually, culottes are far from new. A big favorite in the 1930's, they were revived a couple of seasons ago. Slacks have been booming for several years.

Norell's contribution is to put them in suits—well tailored and feminine. Many of them never show the division, even when walking. They look like conventional skirts, with a knick pleat center front and back.

ARE PLAINLY SPLIT

Others are cut like a straight dress, and are visably split.

"But they're completely loose," Norell points out. "Not like tight pants. They hang perfectly straight, don't cup in back like slacks do, don't creep when you sit down. There's nothing indecent about them."

"More and more women are wearing pants, and frankly, most of them look awful," he says. "If they're going to wear them, they should wear them right."

In the changing world we live in, he goes on, it seems perfectly logical for women to wear divided skirts. They're easier for traveling, getting in and out of taxicabs, riding the subway."

Most of his styles are shown in wools for the street, but there are a few brocades for at-home wear.

At 60, Norell is considered one of the country's more influential designers.

Items From Hills

By RUTH SAUNDERS

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — Thursday the skippers and crews of beautiful and swift sailing craft gathered at Port Huron for the 'steenth' time to begin Michigan's traditional race to Mackinac Island Saturday.

Aboard Bloomfield's own "Old Rarity," owned and skippered by Mrs. Everell E. Fisher, will be several crew members who have crewed before, including Mrs. Fisher's sister Mrs. Philip A. Hart who flew in from Los Angeles Wednesday.

VIP aboard will be Mrs. Fisher's second son Peter who is at long last participating in the race. He is an enthusiastic crew member who has reached eligibility in age and skill.

Picnic Can Be Poisonous Without Caution

Picnics continue to be the foremost American pastime in summer, with an estimated 90 million participants.

By one definition, a picnic is "a pleasure party, the food for which is usually provided by members of the group and is eaten in the open air."

All-out optimists will see only a lot of fun in the sun in this definition. More cautious picnickers read into the definition certain warnings. Food provided by amateurs, if hot novices, and eaten in the open means danger of food poisoning. And a pleasure party in the open air conjures visions of bogeymen of assorted kinds and sizes.

To the moderate optimist, however, the picnic is all fun, surely enough, but with the fun goes a certain amount of prudent action in the interest of safety. Here are some of the rules to keep this summer's picnics occasions of pure joy, unspoiled by illness or injury.

Either stock your own first-aid kit or buy one already filled by your druggist or his supplier. Add suntan or baby oil.

Give barbed wire fences full respect. Watch your step in climbing stone walls or fences.

Follow rules of sanitation in all food handling. New products are available to help with this. One is a new cooler chest lined with high-density polyethylene, the new plastic which is impervious to acid or mildew damage, and improves insulation.

These qualities mean better food protection and avoidance of one of the worst picnic hazards — food poisoning. The lightweight liners are also corrosion proof.

WATCH THAT EXERCISE

Strenuous exercise all of a sudden can mean only agony later, if not worse on the spot. Bodies have to be conditioned gradually.

Avoid swimming immediately after a meal.

Fire is always a threat and must never be left unattended. Nowadays the portable charcoal grill minimizes the danger of runaway fire compared to the open campfire of old.

Care in drinking from brooks, springs or wells is another must. If you know there's no contamination, go ahead and enjoy one of nature's finest treats. If not, play it safe; bring your own in one of the many new picnic jugs now available. One, in a scotch plaid design, features a squeezable rubber bulb on top — fun for the children.

Still another of the obvious warnings, but one too often ignored, is the one against noxious weeds such as poison ivy or oak. Experienced picnickers spot them instantly and go elsewhere.

One final tip mainly in the interest of convenience and happiness but also involving safety: Make up a list of everything you'll need on a picnic and keep it with your picnic gear.

This is one way to be sure you have a flashlight with you — and soap, towels, blankets, and all the other items you might forget in the hurried take-off. It's also a good place to jot down the less obvious points about safety measures — a self-reminder that could save a life.

July is picnic time in the American tradition. Weather permitting, beach picnics are second only to backyard cookouts in popularity. Authorities urge safety-mindedness in sun exposure and food preservation to assure maximum enjoyment of a favorite season.

Wear Gift First, Then Bestow It

By EMILY POST

Dear Mrs. Post: A friend of mine has just recently returned from a trip to the West Coast and brought back a present for me. This, I imagine, was given to me in appreciation for having looked after her pets while she was away. It is a very lovely present, but in my opinion it is for a much younger person. (I am sixty).

When I showed it to my niece, she liked it very much and said that she would love to have it.

I would be glad to give it to her because I doubt very much whether I will ever use it. BUT would it be proper for me to do so, or could the giver take offense at this?

Answer: A diplomatic solution of your problem would be to wear whatever it was she gave you, once or twice when your friend can see that you appreciate it, and later give it quietly to your niece.

If your friend ever learns of this, the explanation that your niece tried it on, found it so becoming that you simply had to let her have it, should satisfy her pleasantly.

Dear Mrs. Post: My son is going to be married in a distant city. None of our friends or relatives will be able to attend because of the distance.

I would like to give a reception for them two weeks after the wedding when they come to this city. I am completely at a loss as to how the invitations for such a reception should be worded. Will you please advise me?

Answer: Either write across your double visiting card, "To meet Mr. and Mrs. John Smith Jr." and the time and date in the lower left hand corner, or else have the invitations engraved:

Mr. and Mrs. John Smith request the pleasure of
at the reception
to meet
Mr. and Mrs. John Smith Jr.

Don't Worry Child With Tales About Him

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

When John's new brother started crying, Mommy reached for the bottle she kept wrapped and warm in the baby carriage, began to feed him, and the strange lady sitting beside her on the park bench said admiringly:

"No," Mommy agreed. "This one's no trouble at all.

"With his brother we had to try three formulas before we found one that agreed with him. Even then he was always spitting up. This one never does. This one hasn't given me a sleepless night since he was born.

"But with the other one I never knew a single night's unbroken sleep. He . . ."

Behind the bench John went on digging at the hole he was making as though he hadn't heard Mommy characterize his babyhood as a "trouble" to her.

But he had heard and felt so helpless and scared that he couldn't stand it and so began to hate the Mommy who had inflicted the frightening helplessness on him.

A little while later when she told him to stop digging and get ready to go home, he suddenly struck at her with his shovel and produced a tantrum that for the second time that week confounded her with the mysteriousness of 4-year-old temper.

It is unwise of us to complain of a child's troublesome babyhood in his hearing.

To John his infancy is a misty darkness in which he had no awareness of himself as either troublesome or untroublesome to Mommy.

With no knowledge of himself as he was, he is utterly dependent on Mommy's knowledge of him as he was.

Thus, when she characterizes him as a "troublesome" baby, he has to accept her reproachful idea of what he was, powerless to change it. Under such frustrating circumstances it is no wonder that he strikes at Mommy with his shovel.

Like us, children cannot return to the past. John cannot go back to his babyhood and reorganize his digestive and sleeping habits to spare Mommy the troubles they caused her. He is too young to know this.

So when we suggest that he should perform this impossible task by complaining of his troublesome babyhood, we overwhelm him with frustration that can foment more trouble for us than he ever gave us as a baby.

Parents who indulge in gossipy complaining of children's pasts are like as not people who have not been reconciled to their own.

Thirty high school journalists are spending two weeks at the University of Michigan campus in a summer workshop. Designed to help students improve their high school publications, the present session is the first of three sponsored by the University's department of journalism.

Selected to represent Pontiac at the seminars are Carol Riley and Sharon Drew, both active in local high school journalism.

Carol A. Riley of Illinois avenue and Sharon J. Drew of North Edith street, both at left, are among 30 high school journalism students participating in a two-week summer journalism session at the University of Michigan.

Bride of Navy Man

Marries in California

In a ceremony at the Marine Base Chapel, Camp Pendleton, Calif., Virginia Ann Alexander became the bride of Petty Officer 2.C. Richard B. Hartman, USN, on June 30. Chaplain Charles Mintz officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Donald William Alexander of Ogemaw road, and the late Mr. Alexander.

Hartman, who has been serving in the Naval Hospital Corps, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Hartman of Glendale avenue.

After a honeymoon in San Francisco, the new Mrs. Hartman will resume her work as x-ray technician at Pontiac General Hospital while her husband completes his term of service in Okinawa.

The Question Box

'My Face Is All Wrinkles'

Q. "I wonder if you can help me with my difficulty. Could you tell me something that I can do that would help smooth out the wrinkles in my face? I had to diet and lost 30 pounds, but it has caused my face to look horribly wrinkled.

I even dislike to go out. I am very unhappy about it and would greatly appreciate your help. I will look for an answer in the paper."

A. This sometimes happens but it really should not if you lost the weight slowly and ate properly. Anyway I think the facial exercises and faithful lubrication will help.

If your skin is dry, use a cleansing cream to clean it. Then apply an oily cream and let it soak in for several hours—better yet, let it soak all night. I think you would profit by using one of the hormone creams.

Pat the cream in. Do not stretch your skin more with vigorous massage. I feel that the situation will improve with time.

BALANCE BOOK

Q. "I have bad posture which I would like to correct by balancing a book on my head. Do you know how many minutes or hours daily I should do this? For how many weeks or months will I have to do this?"

A. Balancing a book on your head is a good corrective exercise because you must hold yourself properly to keep it from falling off. Good posture is an exercise in itself. Balancing a book will not pay great dividends unless you make a conscious effort to hold the same posture all day when you do NOT have the book on your head.

The main value of the book is to give you the feeling of good posture. I should say that 15 minutes a day is all that is necessary. If you are round shouldered or have a dowager's hump at the back of your neck, you should take special corrective exercises. Those defects are the result of poor carriage.

Q. "I have a tremendous appetite. I never seem to fill up. I am 16 years old and five feet two inches tall. My measurements are bust 34 inches, waist 24 and hips 35. I weigh 111 pounds. Am I overweight and how can I reduce my monstrous appetite?"

A. If you have a medium build you are a few pounds underweight and should weigh around 115. If you have a very small build, you are a few pounds overweight. Your measurements seem to indicate that you have a medium build. Lucky you! It must be fun to indulge a healthy appetite and remain slim, BUT keep your eyes on the scales because your appetite might catch up with you.

Crown Top Reducer

Mrs. Franklin earned her title by winning a weight reducing contest which began April 7 and ended June 30. Mrs. Larry Nichols was runner-up and Mrs. James Weakland placed third in the contest.

Mrs. Archie Hunt, 1958 queen, crowned Mrs. Franklin in behalf of 1959 queen Mrs. Wallace Rauch who has moved to California.

Members presented Mrs. Franklin a cash award and several gifts.

Mrs. Kurt Wischman was named trophy winner for the greatest weight loss during the past week. Mrs. Joseph Jenkins was runner-up.

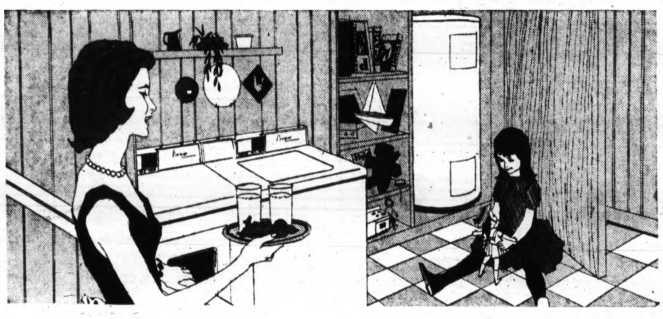
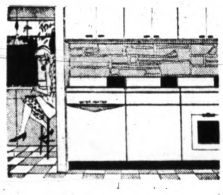
ELECTRIC WATER HEATER



INSTALL ONE WHERE YOU LIKE—EVEN IN AN AIR-TIGHT CLOSET. When it's an electric water heater, there's no flame, so no air is needed to support combustion. And, of course, there are no fumes to be vented. An electric water heater is completely safe.

BUILT-IN QUALITY MAKES A BIG DIFFERENCE. Every electric water heater installed on Detroit Edison lines must meet Edison's exacting specifications. Result: long life, high performance.



HAVE YOU SEEN THE TABLE TOP MODELS? They're compact, go beneath counters or alongside laundry equipment. Other possibilities—in the kitchen next to sink or dishwasher or in that hard-to-use corner. Upright or table top model, put an electric water heater where you want it.

HOTTER WATER—PLENTY OF IT! An electric water heater is capable of going on and on, delivering really hot water—160° hot—without burning out. And heavy insulation all around keeps the outside shell of the water heater cool to the touch from top to bottom—no hot metal anywhere.

8 OUT OF 10 FAMILIES USE THE 50-GALLON SIZE. For less than 15¢ a day (estimated operating cost for this size) you can have hot water for all the family's needs. There are also 80- and 110-gallon sizes for the few families who use more water and may require heaters with greater capacity.

Mrs. Weger Entertains Song Group

Chorus Members to Hold September Tea at Library

Pontiac Women's Chorus members held their first meeting of the new season Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Frank Weger on Farm road, Waterford Twp.

Under the direction of George Scott, the singing group's slogan for the 1960-61 season is "Music to Please Everybody."

Past president Mrs. Rutherford Thomas and director Mr. Scott also met with the group.

Pontiac Department of Parks and Recreation sponsors the chorus.

Rome Borrows Baker Street Theme

Now, Who Snitched Sherlock's Tweeds?

ROME (UPI) — It looked like someone had stolen Sherlock Holmes' coat for a moment when the Italian fall-winter collections began parading in earnest.

When everything settled down after that, couturiers Centinaro and Gregoriana followed in that order. It was Gregoriana who appeared to have just come from Baker street.

She presented an illusion of the new cut of sleeve for suits. At first glance, they looked like the old inverness cape, but on closer inspection they proved to be real sleeves, cut wide and fitted to the jacket in a straight line down the front. They went straight down from the collar bone, like the cape, and ended just below the elbow.

The general trend is a short, slim and nearly always comfortable-looking skirt for the suits. The silhouette is natural and flattering. Luciani curves the sleeves to continue the sloping line of the shoulder.

Without altering the soft curved line, cocktail dresses allow for considerably more sparkle in the accessories department. Particularly the glittering shoes the Boutiques are pushing this year.

Perrone's elegant Italian gloves for any hour and every occasion will be a must. The most surprising of his gloves displayed yesterday was a pair sporting lace-like leather ruffles along the seams on the back. The vivid colors in suede and shiny leathers, as well as the subtle shade the Italians call "dirty green" are due for a big play this year.

JULIA M. POCS

A bachelor of arts degree in speech and drama from Siena Heights College has been granted Julia Marie Pocs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Pocs of Dick Avenue. Miss Pocs, who minored in art and English, has her secondary teaching certificate and in the fall will begin work on her master's degree in drama at Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C. In college, she was active in the Modern Language Club, Little Theater, orchestra and varsity basketball.

Try Bleaching

(NEA)—If your back hairline seems to be lengthened by a low, scraggly line of dark fuzz when you wear your hair in a chignon, bleach it to skin-color lightness. It will then look like a downy fuzz instead of hair whose dark shadows tend to shorten the length of your neck.

Stars Display Fashions at Convention

In an unexpected fashion show red-carpeting the Democratic national convention in Los Angeles, Hollywoods' top stars making up the official Arts Committee passed in review before the assembled convention and wide TV audience, dressed in their finest.

Sleeveless, low - neck, black and beige lace and flowered silks were the choice of Janet Leigh, Shirley McLaine, Shelley Winters and Rosemarie DeCamp.

An extremely low square neckline in back was the feature of Janet Leigh's flowered black knitted gown. Inger Stevens looked striking in a striped chiffon with dark ground and low V neck.

Another fashion note of interest was struck at the opening as the entourage of Golden Girls, official hostesses from California, marched out in fresh white shirt dresses with rolled sleeves and charming white straw skimmers with wide red bands.

Shower Fetes Mrs. Pruente

Hostesses were Barbara Mitchell and Jeannine Garnett.

LEATHER CRAFTSMAN — One of the few saddle makers left in this part of the country is Menden L. Wescott of Commerce Township who hand-builds several saddles a year on special order. Wescott said custom tailored saddles cost $250 and up and it takes a week and half to build and hand tool one. He owns the Old West Craft Shop which supplies finished products to leather goods stores in this part of the country.

Saddle Maker Sticks by Craft

By JIM LONG

COMMERCE TOWNSHIP—While production line methods have practically done away with the art of making custom tailored saddles, the skill is still carried on by a leather craftsman here.

"There are only a couple of leather workers left in this part of the country who will spend any time in making a saddle by hand," said Menden L. Wescott, 45, of 1342 Commerce Rd., owner of the Old West Craft Shop.

Wescott, who makes only two saddles a year, said it takes about a week and half to complete a hand-tooled saddle worth from $250 upwards.

"Both the horse and rider are measured when we built a saddle," he said. "The tree, the foundation of a saddle, is fitted to the individual horse and the leather seat is measured for the rider."

"Because the saddles are tailored for individuals, they are made only on special orders."

Since opening his door to the public the first of the year, he said his biggest business comes from supplying chaps (leather leg guards) to cowboys.

Wescott said he learned his trade in Missouri.

"An old leather craftsman taught me to build my first saddle when I was 12 years old in trade for working for him," Wescott said.

"Then in the southwest I did a lot of braiding of horsehair and leather for reins, bridles and lariats."

"Someday I want to silver plate it and use it on my palomino, Gold Spark."

Before moving to Commerce, Wescott had a business in Birmingham supplying leather goods.

He said that he plans on teaching a leathercraft class in the area, possibly at schools in the Walled Lake area or the Holly district.

Ex-Avondale Band Head Raps Board for Job Loss

By DON FERMOYLE

Avondale High School's former band director has charged that his resignation was directed by the Board of Education due to "rumors" about a traffic accident in which he was involved with a 17-year-old girl student.

John Neztek, whose resignation has stirred a protest by over 250 citizens in the school district, had a private hearing before the Board Wednesday night.

He said yesterday most of the discussion "centered around the accident with the student."

Neztek resigned last March, but later asked to withdraw his resignation. The Board unanimously accepted his resignation and refused to withdraw it or renew his contract.

DENIES SIGNING FORCED

School Supt. LeRoy Watt said, "I deny that Mr. Neztek was forced to sign the resignation."

However, Neztek claims that he was given the resignation to sign by Watt with an alternative. He said he was told one Friday last March "either to sign the resignation" or to "come in to see the Board Monday night and don't come in to teach Monady."

He said he signed the resignation rather than lose a day's wages. The band director also asserted that the Board had "no factual reasons to fire me."

Neztek also charged that "someone had lied to the public" when the Board said it did not know the reasons for his resignation.

There was much discussion at the time about whether his leaving the school was voluntary or Board-directed.

"It was Board-directed," Neztek insisted.

He said rumors had spread following a Jan. 30 traffic accident in Troy when he suffered a broken arm and the passenger in his car, Starr Linda Featherston, incurred broken ribs.

Neztek said he and the girl's parents were close friends. Miss Featherston is now an 18-year-old graduate of the high school.

MOTHER'S PERMISSION

Her mother Mrs. William Featherston of 3056 Martell said yesterday that it was with her permission that her daughter was in the car with Neztek.

"Certainly she went with John," Mrs. Featherston said.

"He always took my children wherever they wanted to go. If my two younger children had gone with them, then no one would have thought anything of it, but they decided to stay home that day."

Mrs. Featherston, treasurer of the Avondale Band Boosters Club, said Neztek has been a friend of the family two years.

She was one of over 250 persons who signed a petition asking the Board to give Neztek a new contract June 20.

She and her husband also appeared on Neztek's behalf at an open Board meeting.

"It was just a kangaroo court," she said, referring to the Board's refusal to let Neztek withdraw his resignation. "They haven't given him a chance."

Both Supt. Watt and R. Grant Graham, president of the Board, said the reason Neztek was not allowed to withdraw his resignation stemmed from the fact that he didn't attend three private executive meetings held for his benefit.

Neztek claims he didn't attend because the Board had no offical charges against him.

He said the Board wouldn't let him bring witnesses to the third meeting. His witnesses were Mr. and Mrs. Featherston.

'NO ACCUSATIONS'

"The Board wasn't accusing him of anything," Graham said, referring to the first executive meeting scheduled to hear Neztek. "We just wanted to talk to him.

"The fact that he didn't come to the meeting just made it look as if he had something to hide," Graham said.

Graham said he wouldn't feel free to comment on what went on at Wednesday night's meeting since it was a private session of the executive board.

Neztek said his troubles with the Board started over a year ago when he attempted to start a fund-raising campaign for the school band.

Mrs. Featherston also believed Neztek had fallen into disfavor with the Board.

"What's the matter with a teacher being good friends with the parents of his students?" she asked. "There isn't a kid in the neighborhood who doesn't idolize John."

"I think the Board was out to get him from the start," she concluded.

Graham reiterated his stand that Neztek could have avoided the trouble by coming to the first meeting he was asked to attend.

Graham said losing a day's pay shouldn't have stood in Neztek's way when his contract was at stake.

"He wouldn't have lost the pay anyhow because he had some sick leave coming him," Graham stated.

Neztek, who still would like to have his contract back, said, "I would have accepted the charges if the Board had something factual to fire me for."

PABT Group Picks Officers

Davis Heads Forces Seeking to Rejuvenate Auburn Road Strip

Members of the newly-formed civic organization known as PABT last night elected officers and launched their drive to rejuvenate the Auburn Rd. property stretching east from Pontiac almost to Utica.

The first event in the organization's attempt to focus attention on plans for the areas—which includes sections of Pontiac, Bloomfield, Avon townships and Troy—is the celebration of Jubilee Days.

Sidewalk sales will kick off the celebration July 29 with a street dance and Mystery Man Day to follow. Climax of the week-long event will be a circus complete with an old-time parade of animals.

Elected president of the group, which has a membership total of over 200, was Harold R. Davis, partner in the Moore Chapel of the Sparks-Griffin Funeral Home, Auburn Heights.

George Leighton Builds Observatory

Highland Man Shares Heaven

By REBA HEINTZELMAN

A Highland man has had so much fun looking at heavenly bodies that are out of this world that he has decided to let Mr. John Q. Public take a peek.

Sixty-two-year-old George B. Leighton, who is a tool and die maker and lives with his wife Alma, at 2760 S. Hickory Rd., began building a telescopic observatory by his home three years ago — for his own amusement. He liked to see stars.

Friends, neighbors and passing motorists became so curious that the quiet-spoken gentleman decided to open his handmade self-designed observatory to the public.

Now everyone can view the stars at close range, including the extra galactic nebula, (the galaxy outside of the Milky Way).

"The most glorious subject in the entire sky is the moon," Leighton said. "On a clear night you can see hundreds of thousands of craters as well as if you were on one of those sputniks floating around up there."

Every single part of the big Newtonian 12-inch reflector telescope, in the observatory with its power-driven equatorial mount, was designed and made by the maching-minded Leighton.

A small precision clutch makes it possible to turn the 8-foot long telescope in any direction.

No blue prints were available for a building to house the huge telescope, so Leighton designed one himself. There is a door, with 10 steps leading up to the main platform, on each side of the 18-foot high by 16-foot wide, round building.

It took six long months to design and build the 1,100-pound steel dome, which is mounted on a hand-made ballbearing track.

A tiny one-millionth horse power motor keeps the 'scope' on a stationary object in the sky, and as the earth spins, minute precision gears slowly turn to keep up with the earth's movement.

Examination Waived

Hold 2 Teens in Breakin

Two teen-agers arrested Monday night in the break-in of a Pontiac market waived examination on burglary charges in Municipal Court.

Miller Webb, 17, of 312 Hughes St., and Burnis J. Sparks, 17 of 387 Nebraska Ave., were bound over to Circuit Court by Municipal Judge Maurice E. Finnegan.

Bond was set at $100.

The two teen-agers are accused of breaking and entering Deimos Market, 186 Fisher St. Officers sent to investigate a burglary report said they found a window broken and Webb near it with several cartons of cigarettes in his hands.

Officers said that Webb started to flee, but surrendered after they fired a warning shot. He implicated Sparks and a nine-year-old boy in the break-in.

The boy was turned over to juvenile authorities.

Webb and Sparks will be arraigned in Circuit Court July 18.

Ford Motor Demonstrates Amphibian Tactical Truck

DETROIT (UPI) — A medium military tactical truck that can move men and supplies across water as well as land was demonstrated Thursday by the Ford Motor Co.

Ford designed and built the truck under a $1,650,000 contract awarded by the Detroit Ordnance District of the Army's Ordnance Tank Automotive Command.

When equipped with an optional propulsion kit, including a rudder and propeller, the new cargo truck can be guided through inland waters at a speed of six miles an hour.

Four more vehicles will be delivered next month, Lynch said. The trucks were built in three and a half-ton, six-wheel-drive, and five-ton, eight-wheel-drive models.

Chain store companies air conditioned 13,220 stores in 1959, at a cost of $115,800,000.

Boeing Aircraft Workers to Vote on New Contract

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Missile and aircraft workers for Boeing Aircraft will vote on the company's latest contract offer July 23, it was disclosed. The dispute revolves around job security as well as wages.

Members of the International Assn. of Machinists Union have been working without a contract since June. The negotiations affect some 40,000 workers who rejected a previous company offer

Pegboard Can Store All Tools

For garden tool storage, the locations are several and the method simple.

Popular locations are the wall of a garage, utility room, tool house, barn, or entry-way. The one you select will be the one that keeps garden equipment handy, yet out from underfoot.

The simplest solution is to install foot-wide strips of Peg-Board at a five or six-foot height in your selected location, and then implement it with fixtures, including brackets to hold shelves. Quarter-inch Peg-Board is recommended for heavy items like lawn-mowers, rollers and wheelbarrows.

In many cases, gardeners will want to line their toolhouse, a garage or barn wall with the perforated hardboard panels in order to accommodate a large assortment of hoes, spades, rakes, sprinklers, insecticides, hoses and small tools.

In the garage, the strips or panels may be nailed directly to exposed studs. If the walls are finished, ¾"-wide thin furring strips should first be attached by glue and finishing nails at 16-inch intervals, between rows of holes where they won't show, and then fastened to the wall.

Peg-Board may be painted attractively. Use a roller for easy coverage when applying the primer and finish coats.

Don't apply too much water to your lawn. Otherwise you will make the earth waterlogged and keep air from the grass roots.

GROWN FROM ONE LEAF—There are 39 huge double blooms on an African violet owned by Mrs. Bernard Rausch of 6875 Cranberry Lake Rd., near Clarkston. From a tiny leaf given to her by a friend last year, she has grown this ever-blooming violet plant measuring 20 inches in circumference. It sets in a pan constantly filled with water, has no particular light-preference or fertilizer added—"only dirt from the yard," Mrs. Rausch said. The plant began to bloom late last September, and has never been without a blossom since that time.

Laziness Is Good

Don't work too long or too strenuously while the mercury soars. Save your heavier garden tasks for cool evenings and cloudy days. A bit of laziness in hot weather may save you from serious injury, particularly from sunstroke or heat exhaustion.

Don't discard a garden hose just because it's springing a few leaks. Punch more holes, attach it to the faucet and you have an excellent lawn sprinkler.

Control of Plants Seen With Magic Substance

EAST LANSING — Home gardeners frustrated over seeds that won't germinate or flower plants that won't bloom may find releases to their frustrations just around the corner.

Scientists are hot on the trail of a "magic" substance in plants which controls the germinating and flowering, said Dr. Warren L. Butler, of the U.S. Department of Agriculture, Beltsville, Md.

When this substance is isolated, he said, scientists and gardeners through its application, should be able to make seeds sprout and flowers bloom on demand.

Speaking before the Midwest Section of the American Society of Plant Physiologists at Michigan State University recently, Dr. Butler identified the substance as "phytochrome," a light-absorbing pigment classed as "red-far-red."

He explained that red-far-red is near infra-red in the light spectrum — invisible, but not capable of generating heat.

The reaction of phytochrome to light, Dr. Butler said, controls some of the life processes of the plant. It is the varied reaction of this substance, he added, which makes some flowers bloom during the long summer days, and others bloom during the shorter days of autumn.

When scientists isolate phytochrome, Dr. Butler maintained, by synthesis of this substance they hope to be able to inhibit or stimulate the plants at will, causing them to remain dormant or to flower at any time.

Before you stake your tomato plants and other vegetables which need support, why not paint the stakes with green enamel which will help them blend with the leaves. This will make your garden more attractive.

Leaves Three, Better Flee for Spray for Poison Ivy

Poison ivy is perhaps the most widely distributed and greatly despised vegetation in North America. To those who may not be familiar with it, poison ivy is a woody perennial which grows as a low shrub, or tall climbing vine which receives its support from aerial roots. The toxic substance in poison ivy is an extremely volatile oil, which causes poisoning not only by direct contact, but also if one crushes the leaves by stepping on them or burning them.

If you have been poisoned by this pesky plant even once, you're likely to be susceptible for life—so the first step of prevention is recognizing poison ivy when you see it. It has three leaves, the edges of which may be either lobed, notched or smooth. In spring the leaflets are red, turning rapidly to bright green and then to red or yellow in the fall. White flowers appear where the leaf and stem join, developing into white or cream-colored berries.

Once you know how to recognize poison ivy, your next step is to eradicate any signs of it on your property. The chemical formula proven most effective is 2-4-D in combination with 2-4-5-T. This formula will eliminate broad leaf grasses. The same effective formula is available for spot treatments or those areas which are beyond the reach of your garden hose.

If you're planning a hike or picnic to a wooded area where poison ivy may abound, there are protective creams you can use on your arms and legs before venturing forth. If you don't take this preventive measure, wash thoroughly with yellow laundry soap if you suspect you've been exposed to poison ivy. The strong soap helps counteract the poison before it enters the pores. But don't waste any time—the poison exuded from these shiny green leaves goes to work fast.

Should you unfortunately become infected with poison ivy in spite of your precautions, the dermatitis pretty well runs its course in spite of any treatment. Try Calamine lotion or hot bicarbonate of soda solution on the affected parts, and be more careful next time!

Jap Beetle Eats Expensively

An underground movement now coming into the open will cause many thousands of home owners to blow their tops — tree tops.

It is the movement of insectdom's hungriest foliage chompers, Japanese beetles, emerging from their hiding places in the soil. Shade tree landscaping is paying the penalty in many localities for failure to grub-proof lawns last Spring or Fall. Then it would have been relatively easy to control the insect in the grub or larvae stage, when it was feeding on grass roots.

With the Jap beetle in the flying stage, only protective measures can be taken to minimize foliage destruction, advises R. L. Smith, field representative of the Davey Tree Expert Co. From now through early September, it is advisable to spray every week with DDT, lead arsenate or malathion.

DDT is most effective because it is both a contact spray and stomach poison. The addition of malathion to DDT sprays helps woody pets since the miticide prevents the build-up of sap-sucking spider mites and scale insects.

The Jap beetle chews almost any kind of greenery in sight, with most damage done to tree tops. That's because this insect is one of the more ardent sun worshipers. In any kind of numbers, this busy muncher can completely strip a tree in a matter of days. Some 275 kinds of trees, shrubs and flowering plants fall victim to the invaders.

Narcissus and Daffodils Differ From Jonquils

Narcissus is the Latin name for the family which includes narcissus and daffodils. In ordinary usage the name is given to the group that has short trumpets such as the Poet's narcissus. Also in common usage, the name daffodil is given to those that have long trumpets in which the trumpet is almost as long or longer than the petals.

Jonquil is an entirely different type of plant. They have rush-like or round foliage and short cupped yellow flowers. Actually we often hear daffodils called jonquils, which is a mistake. Not many jonquils are being grown by our gardeners.

Can't Shift Blame

The trouble with being accidentally injured at home is that you have difficulty finding anyone to blame but yourself. It's one more reason why you should do your gardening and lawn work with care. The Institute for Safer Living estimates that one out of every five disabling accidents this summer will occur outdoors as the result of lawn and garden activities.

Sawfly Invasion Threatens Pines

A persnickety landscape pest that snickers at a set summer invasion timetable is the larva of the pine sawfly. This insatiable chewer may start whittling away your favorite pines any time from May through September.

There's no telling just when. Many species of pine sawflies have more than one brood. Best thing to avert a disastrous outbreak is to keep a larva-eye peeled on prized pines from springtime through summer.

The alert weekend gardener can control the situation — before he gets the needles in more ways than one. The larvae are easily curbed by sprays of arsenate of lead or DDT.

Left unmolested, it will be off with the old and on with the new, as far as the insatiable sawfly offspring are concerned. They'll dine on the older foliage and completely devour it before moving on to the succulent young growth. F

It is not unusual for them to completely defoliate a tree. In cases where some severely denuded trees survive, case-history shows they are apt to succumb later to attacks by secondary enemies that swoop on to weakened arboreal pets.

The female of the pine sawfly has a sawlike appendage on her abdomen which she uses to cut slits in host plants. Eggs are deposited in these.

That's a Lot of Flowers

NEW YORK (UPI) — How many potential flowers would you have in a pound of nasturtium or petunia seeds?

The National Garden Bureau provides the answer: 3,130 nasturtiums or 4,000 petunia plants.

An All-America Rose— How It Comes to Be

In the two decades since the All-America Rose Selections was founded, 55 roses have received the official, annual AARS recognition, including the two new 1961 winners, the hybrid tea Duet, and the grandiflora Pink Parfait, both created by Armstrong Nurseries, Inc., Ontario, California.

Each AARS award winning rose represents that year's most noteworthy achievement and contribution to the science of rose breeding. All new rose hybrids, whether from the United States or from foreign lands, are welcome as entrants in the two year trials. The variety entrants are observed continually under growing conditions in every sector of the U.S., at official AARS trial gardens.

Perhaps the single most important thing to the home gardener about an All-America rose is that it comes to him pre-tested, pre-proven. It is the best rose money can buy.

HYBRID TEA — The most widely planted rose of all types. Large in bud and open flower and distinguished by its long, sturdy stems, it is considered by many to be the "Queen" of the rose garden. It is used intensively in modern rose breeding. Since 1940 34 hybrid teas have won AARS awards.

FLORIBUNDA — Its name, literally translated means "many flowers." This class combines the features of the old fashioned Polyantha or "baby" rose with the hybrid tea. Its masses of flower-clusters are offered in virtually every color known to roses. The floribunda is rapidly gaining wide popularity as a versatile border, bedding and fence rose. Since 1940 15 floribundas have won AARS awards.

GRANDIFLORA — This class first was admitted to AARS' official testing program in 1955. A cross of the finest characteristics of the floribunda and hybrid tea, the grandiflora is distinguished by its exclusive profusion of blooms. A plant of exceptional vigor, it grows easily and is rated as an outstanding cut flower rose. Since 1955 only three grandifloras have won AARS awards.

CLIMBERS — Considering that an AARS award winning climber has to be hardy enough for country-wide planting and must be ever-blooming, it is understandable why only three climbers have received AARS awards since 1940.

Daylilies Are Gardeners' Pets

Lilies are almost too good to be true. They are extra hardy, easy to grow, and available on varieties adapted to climates in every part of the U. S.

What's more, one can count on these hearty perennials for marvelous masses of color all through the summer, year after year, with almost no care. The blossoms are breathtakingly beautiful, borne in profusion in almost any color you want.

In the July issue of American Home, an informative article on daylilies notes that this "best possible flower" is available in yellow, orange, pink, red—anything but blue or white.

The article outlines the easy steps that will enable the amateur gardener to plant a traffic-stopping border of daylilies to frame almost any home.

Plant daylilies at the right time. Almost any time during the growing season it's possible to plant or move daylilies. But in the northern half of the U.S., the job should be done before mid-August to insure the anchoring of the roots before the freezing weather.

Give the daylilies as much sun as possible. The more sun, the more bloom.

Prepare the soil well because daylilies will stay in place a long time. Loosen the soil deeply, and if it needs improvement, add humus (such as compost, leafmold, or dampened peatmoss) or plant food.

Easier to See

Flowers are one way of adding color to your garden. Another way is to paint garden tool handles in shades of bright yellow and orange. This added color has a serious purpose in your gardening scheme. It makes tools easy to see —helps to prevent you from stepping on sharp blades and tines or tripping over handles.

Screening Shrubs

The best shrubs to use for screening a back yard are arborvitae and similar evergreens, provided good soil and sunlight is present. The best deciduous shrubs are Amur privet, Chinese lilac, forsythia, Van Houtte's spirea, and any of the bush honeysuckles. These are good shrubs, grow quickly and tolerate average soils.

El Paso, Texas, is the only border city with three international bridges and four international border crossings within its city limits.

Noted Horticulturist Goes to Japan to See Gardens

David Burpee, one of America's leading authorities on the development of new vegetables and flowers, is traveling halfway around the world to study the latest techniques used by Japanese horticulturists in plant hybridizing and seed production. The Japanese have been recognized for many years for their outstanding achievements in this field. Burpee is the pioneer of hybrid vegetables for America's home gardens.

Prior to his departure from the United States, Burpee air-expressed two large boxes of his American Marigolds, known as the Friendship Flower, to American Ambassador Douglas Mac Arthur II in Tokyo with the suggestion that these might be presented to the Emperor of Japan "as a slight token of the friendship of the American people for the people of Japan."

Mr. Burpee is president of the W. Atlee Burpee Seed Company of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania which is the largest mail order seed house in the world. The company maintains branches in Clinton, Iowa and Riverside, California.

The Philadelphia horticulturist has maintained close contact with the Japanese seed industry throughout the years. A strong advocate of people-to-people programs to promote friendship and understanding among nations, Burpee has sponsored Japanese horticultural students for entrance to American schools and has employed them in his company during their apprenticeships.

"The Japanese are doing a top job in horticultural research today and I am accepting the kind invitation of my many personal friends in that country to see at first hand what dramatic new things are being done in plant research and seed production," Burpee said.

Mr. Burpee will visit several of Japan's agricultural experiment stations as well as the trial fields —the seed industry's laboratories— of several seed firms headed by friends. He will be accompanied by Carter D. Holton, a Burpee executive who as a former missionary discovered the first marigold with odorless foliage while serving at his mission on the Tibetan border in northwest China. Mr. Holton sold the rare seed to Burpee who developed it for America's home gardeners.

Mr. Burpee recently registered as a lobbyist with the United States Congress to actively support American Marigolds, the Friendship Flowers, as the national floral emblem of the United

Trying to Bring Gumbo Up North

The University of New Hampshire is making an effort to put gumbo in chicken soup for Southerners living in the North.

Gumbo, from the sliced okra pod, is used for thickening and flavoring soup and stew. And Prof. Elwyn M. Meader hopes to coax the tender pods of this Southern plant to grow in the longer days of the North. Light has a strong influence on this plant. Usually, by the time Northern days have shortened enough to make okra bloom, it is too late to ripen the crop.

Meader explains that through cross-breeding and selection he hopes to develop a strain of okra that will produce a good quality crop in the longer days of the North.

The experimenting includes growing okra, an annual plant, under time clock controlled electric lights in a greenhouse.

"We could get a lot of good eating out of the South if we could adopt some of their vegetables to our climate," the horticulturist says.

What else in addition to okra? The cow pea, which actually is a black-eyed bean, is one item that breeders are working on — both pole and bush varieties. Another is the sweet potato. The Granite Staters have had some success with two varieties, Kandee from Kansas and Acadian from Louisiana.

Retired Professor Works in Son's Seed Business

AP Newsfeatures

Plants are wonderful. They complain less than animals, says Prof. Jesse R. Hepler, who retired four years ago from the University of New Hampshire faculty.

Retirement for Hepler, after 39 years of teaching and extension horticulture work, meant becoming manager of a seed company started by his son as a teen-ager.

Some of the vegetables now handled by the company were introduced by the University of New Hampshire plant breeders — one of whom was Hepler. One of the items developed by Hepler was the New Hampshire egg plant, which won an All-America Selections silver medal in 1939.

The little seed company does a nationwide business from the family home at Durham. Becky Hepler, the professor's wife, lends a hand and a couple of college students help out part time.

Seed storage and packing quarters are in the basement. The office is in the sewing room, and the hallway serves as a shipping platform.

The Heplers specialize in garden seeds for the North, but orders come from nearly every state. Much of the seed is grown on a 20-acre farm a mile from the house. Corn and peas and a few other seeds come from the West.

The business was started by Billy Hepler when he was 13. It paid his college expenses. He's 27 now, married and studying for his doctorate in horticulture at the University of Illinois.

When Bill inaugurated the venture, he distributed a circular that told of 19 kinds of seeds. Now a 24-page catalogue offers 151 seeds and some nursery stock. His dad, now 73, has carefully selected all the varieties, especially for New England growing conditions. Cooking tests are included. For instance, the elder Hepler tested 200 varieties of corn, when his son entered the corn field.

Hepler is enthusiastic about a new white-fleshed native rutabaga named Strafford which, he says, has no bitterness.

The catalogue also offers 17 kinds of tomato seed, all but one grown by Hepler; a dozen kinds of squash, 10 of sweet corn and several dozen beans.

In case you don't realize it, even a small seed business can keep a man busy throughout the year. The winter is spent readying seed packets and mailing catalogues. Orders begin arriving in January, generally from the South, shifting northerly to June. There are seed crops to plant and manage, and then the harvest.

Drug Will Feed and Color Your Grass in Any Season

The newest drug takes care of down-to-earth problems. It tints and restores lawns to their natural color and also acts as a food substitute for the preservation of lawns. The product can be used any season to maintain lush green coloring, but autumn is the preferred time — when growth has stopped and coloring fades away.

Slugs Are Old Timers

The Garden Snail 'dates' back many centuries to Western Europe, where it was cultivated as a protein food. Today, snails and their shell-less cousins — the slugs — attack flowers and vegetables in gardens across the country. The most effective killer of the pests is a metaldehyde-arsenical bait, which comes in meal or pellet form for easy application.

Budget Surplus Pinched

Corporate Profits Less, So U. S. Income Lower

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Prospects for the 4.2-billion-dollar 1961 budget surplus planned by President Eisenhower diminished further today with a report that corporate profits fell below expectations in the first three months of the year.

The Commerce Department reported that corporations earned profits before taxes at an annual rate of 48.8 billion dollars. This was 4 billion dollars higher than in the closing quarter of 1959 but well below the 51.7 billion dollar record rate of April-May-June in 1959.

It was also below the budget forecast for 1960 corporate profits of 51 billion dollars. Officials have said privately that they expected these profits to be evenly distributed over the four quarters of the year.

Hence, the 48.8 billion dollar annual rate in the first quarter dipped below the expected level. Moreover, officials noted, second quarter profits ran even lower, although figures are not yet available.

Unless individual tax payments surge far ahead of the forecast level, the drop in corporate profits will mean that the administration cannot realize the record 84 billion dollars in budget revenues it projected in the 1961 budget.

With spending already destined to exceed the $79.8 billion dollars called for by Eisenhower, his hoped-for 4.2 billion dollar surplus appeared pinched on both sides. Congress has added at least 1.4 billion dollars to the President's spending figures, although there may be additional increases and offsets.

Kennedy Story Warns Nikita

Tells Soviets That We Are Not Partisan When Dealing With Him

NEW YORK (AP)—Sen. John F. Kennedy said Thursday "the next president must make it clear to Khrushchev that there will be no appeasement."

The Democratic presidential candidate made the statement in an article under his byline, copyright by the Hearst Headline Service and appearing in the New York Journal-American.

A note preceding the article said that in it "the newly named Democratic standard-bearer gives his views on the best way to handle Premier Khrushchev."

"In dealing with Khrushchev there is no Democratic, no Republican way," said Kennedy.

"An election year may tempt Khrushchev to try to fish in our troubled waters, but he would be well-advised to keep out of American politics—for any interference on his part would boomerang on him. He should not mistake our election debates for national disunity on the fundamentals of our policy of resistance to communism."

"So long as Soviet rockets are first in the exploration of space, so long as the Soviet economy grows at a faster rate than ours, so long as we are slow to meet the challenge of the developing free nations of Asia, Africa and Latin America, Soviet power will be on the ascendance, and Khrushchev will treat us with contempt," he said.

State Crop Produce Expected to Drop

LANSING (UPI)—Production of major field and fruit crops in Michigan is expected to fall one-tenth below last year's record high, the Federal-State Crop Reporting Service said today.

Wheat is the only major crop expected to show an increase, according to a forecast based on crop condition and acreages under cultivation July 1.

The apple crop was expected to be down 18 per cent and the red tart tonnage down 12 per cent.

The sweet cherry crop was expected to be about the same, peaches and grapes slightly lower, pears moderately lower, and plums higher.

The Michigan fresh market production was forecast at 10 per cent below 1959, because of lower acreage and expected lower yields.

He Recalls When Oakland Couldn't Pay for Chickens

By GEORGE T. TRUMBULL Jr.

A man who today bounces around five numeral figures with ease couldn't even scrape together $15 in county funds to pay a chicken peddler 28 years ago.

Robert Young Moore's eyes light up with an "I'm-glad-I-don't-have-to-go-through-that-again" look when he recalls that grim day in April of 1932.

"This woman had sold these chickens at the tuberculosis sanatorium to get some grocery money for her family.

"They gave her a receipt and sent her to collect from me. The trouble is I couldn't pay her the $15.90 she had coming.

"She cried and I nearly did myself because I felt so sorry for her," Moore said.

The depression-starved woman—Moore can't remember her name although he'll never forget those tears—finally got paid for the chickens. It was two days later, however, when Moore was forced to dip into the tax receipts.

"It was the only way I could get it," the veteran chairman of the Oakland County Board of Auditors recalls. He's held this position since 1936.

The white-haired county official has had his good and bad days in controlling county funds since on July 2, 1930, he left an $8,000 job as Bloomfield Township supervisor to become a $4,000-a-year member of the Board of Auditors.

MORE JOY THAN GRIEF

Despite the old days of gloom when he didn't know where the next dime was coming from to meet debts, Moore's 30 years with Oakland County have contained more joy than grief.

He looks forward to the yearly challenge of making county budgets balance, although he says the Board of Auditors has been stripped of many of its old duties by increasing bureaucracy.

Grief came naturally during the terrible depression days shortly after his name was placed on the sometimes undependable county payroll.

Today the 74-year-old Moore, a native of the county, celebrates his 30th year—the longest for any official—shifting some figures here and there during hearings on the county's tentative $13,714,721 budget for next year.

Thirty years ago it was but $3,071,145—only $14,590 more than the county spent for social welfare costs alone last year.

Despite being past the retirement age, Moore is shooting for another three-year term with the three-member Board of Auditors. His present term expires the end of this year.

You can tell from the grin that crosses his tanned, unwrinkled face that things financially are a whole lot better today than they were when he plunged into the depression financial problems. Moore helped a great deal in pulling the county up by its bootstraps.

$20 MILLION IN RED

Just after he started his present job, he remembers the county was in the hole by 20 million dollars.

"Grief and more grief, that's all I can remember then," Moore said raising his thick white eyebrows in accentuation.

"We borrowed one million dollars from New York and, had just got it here and locked it up when three days later the banks closed on Feb. 11, 1933," Moore said.

But Moore likes to boast that the county never missed a pay day for its employes. Moore said this unusual feat was accomplished because the state owed the county $180,000.

"When the state got good checks from other states the state treasurer would give us partial payment in its debt to us and we grabbed the sheriff and a tommy-gun and away we'd go to Detroit to the only bank that was open and cash it."

Shoving the county even deeper into debt was the fact that on Oct. 1, 1932, citizens owed $7,877,832 in delinquent taxes.

Not to be forgotten was the manner in which the county paid all its freight, light, telephone and food bills with bank stock it received from "investing every dime we had in it."

Because of the immensity of the problem that faced the county then, Moore couldn't take his discussion away from the depression days.

While a pigeon cooed outside his fourth floor window in the County Office Building, 1 Lafayette St., Moore pointed to a four-drawer file cabinet and remembered the days when a similar one was packed with due bills so the drawers couldn't be shut.

"Every Friday I checked to see how much cash we had on hand and pulled out that many bills and paid them," Moore said.

CREDITORS WAITED

He didn't mind keeping some property owners from whom the county was buying a strip of land, waiting for their $23,000 check. He knew the money was there.

It wasn't until 1946 that the county finally wiped out its indebtedness. Auditors then had "an old jubilee" to celebrate the joyous event, Moore said.

Things weren't so joyful in 1956 when a taxpayers' group filed a lawsuit against the Board of Auditors charging it had "padded" yearly budgets to accumulate funds for a new courthouse.

Moore, of 476 Shore View Dr., Pontiac Township, happily points to the fact that the group lost its suit. The courthouse is going up.

Dem Convention Is Breaking Up

By JOE LEWIS

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Delegates are trading jokes instead of votes today as the 1960 Democratic National Convention grinds to a close.

Their leader shouted "On to the White House!" But for most delegates the rallying cry could well be "On to Las Vegas" or some other fun spot.

Convention goers are going and the City of Angeles, halo slightly askew, is starting to breath again as the homeward rush eases the convention crush. When the convention reconvenes tonight with acceptance speeches in the Coliseum, the Democrats may have trouble finding enough people to fill the 100,000-seat stadium.

As outgoing luggage cluttered hotel lobbies formerly plastered with signs and streamers, delegates chatted as much about the weather and restaurants as they did about politics.

Most of the convention excitement ended Wednesday night after Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts turned a tag team wrestling match for the presidential nomination into a shadow-boxing session.

ALL THE WAY

And Thursday night's vice presidential nominating session had all the tension of a wilted noodle as LBJ — Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson to non-Texans — went all the way on a vote of acclamation.

As interest deflated like a slowly leaking balloon, newsmen and delegates crowded the aisles, but the air was filled with casual chatter.

Sen. Robert S. Kerr of Oklahoma held court in one aisle, recalling his futile 1952 presidential aspirations: "I felt like the fellow who tied himself to a 3-year-old bull. After the first three jumps, I got to feeling. I made a helluva mistake."

Delegate Sherman Spradling, of Hollis, Okla., an LBJ man, was asked if he would listen to Kennedy's acceptance speech tonight.

"Naw," he said, "he'll accept. If he doesn't, papa'll spank."

Gas Sales High Since Compacts

Michigan Is Example; Mileage Increase Can Mean More Driving

DETROIT (UPI)—Motorists are using more gasoline since the auto industry introduced a host of new compact cars in the past year.

No one is statistically sure that this can be attributed solely to the new compacts but the oil industry has some pretty good hunches that the economy models are playing a big part in it at least.

The only statistics available on the matter are those showing that gasoline consumption is up. The American Petroleum Institute said Michigan is a good example of the trend.

During May 1959, before the "Big Three" auto makers introduced their new compacts, Michigan motorists used 205,624,096 gallons of gasoline. In May this year, Michigan's gasoline consumption was up to 207,855,883 gallons.

"That's not a drastic increase," a spokesman for one of the major oil companies admitted, "but compact cars still are not a big factor in the total number of cars on the road.

"We can't prove it with figures but we're pretty sure that owners of compact cars are more than offsetting the savings they get in terms of miles per gallon by driving more miles. It probably will be a couple of years yet before there are enough compacts on the road to prove whether we're right or wrong."

Glenn L. Werly, general manager of Mobil marketing, offered an explanation which all of the other oil companies seemed to agree with.

"Greater sales of compact cars will probably increase sales of our gasoline and lubrication products by increasing multiple car ownership," he said.

Winners Eye State Dairy Show

All of the winners in this year's annual Oakland County Black and White Show are looking forward to entering their prized dairy stock in the State Holstein Show at Mason next Friday.

Stuart Hutchins of 1062 E. Hamlin Rd., Rochester, won the award for the Best Three Females; the Best Junior Bull Calf; Junior Yearling Heifer, Senior Yearling Heifer and Two-Year-Old Cow classes.

Winners for 4-H Showmanship were Larry and Tom Middleton, 2610 Stoney Creek Rd., Lake Orion; their sister, Carolyn; and Linda Bulmon of 9556 Currie Rd., Northville.

HAS HIS HANDS FULL — Neil H. King has picked up about 30 stray dogs since his appointment in mid-June as Waterford Township's first dog warden. Keeping the highways free of injured or dead animals, chasing stray dogs and retrieving tree-climbing cats keep him busy, the new warden says.

Affection for Animals 'Dogs' New Waterford Twp. Warden

By REBA HEINTZELMAN

An ex-Pontiac policeman readily admits that his life has literally "gone to the dogs" since his retirement in early June from the Pontiac Police Department.

After 33 years of service, Neil H. King, 59, of 183 Russell St., is busy picking up stray animals as Waterford Township's new dog warden, and "it's a doggone good job," he says.

Pontiac citizens working in the downtown area will remember King as the big policeman who wheeled around on a side-car motorcycle in municipal parking lots looking for parking violators.

He was considered lenient in tagging a car. He would cruise around the area 10 to 15 minutes after a meter had expired. But then that sinister yellow ticket was snapped under the windshield wiper.

Now King rides around in a bright shiny new truck. There's no mistaking its identity, for bold red lettering on a pure white background proclaims the establishment of Waterford Township's first dog warden position.

From morning till night, King patrols the highways picking up animals hit by passing cars and answering dog bite and stray dog calls that come in at the township police department.

Unusually soft-hearted for a man in his position, it's not easy to lure a stray dog up to him, then place it in one of the six ventilated truck compartments.

WON'T TAKE PET

As for taking a child's pet that is not tied up or licensed, King balks. "I'd rather pay for the license and a good leash than take a lovable pet away from a youngster, simply because the dog was running loose," he said.

Many times King has actually been a peacemaker between neighbors bickering over dogs. "Our new township dog ordinance is so new, it will take awhile for people to get used to tieing their dogs up," King explained.

"When residents know of the law they are more than willing to comply, but as a whole we've had very little trouble," he added.

One recent experience really had the township's new warden "all shook up," he said. A report was received at the police department that a big opossum had been hit by a passing car on Scott Lake road.

When the genial King arrived at the scene, the opossum was dead, but six little opossums were all peering bright-eyed at spectators from inside their mother's pouch. "They just hadn't learned how to play 'possum' yet," King said.

The six babies were tenderly placed in a box on the front seat of the truck and taken to the Oakland Animal Shelter for disposal.

For a man who loves dogs (he has three of his own) and cats (he has two), King admits that he "sure has a long row to hoe" before he can callously perform his thankless job as township dog warden.

Televiewers Get an Eyeful July 27 at GOP Session

CHICAGO (AP) — Televiewers who saw the film accompaniment of the Democratic platform presentation will get an eyeful from the Republican National Convention, too.

Jaren Jones, vice chairman of the GOP Arrangements Committee, reported that a 24-minute combination of movies, charts and still pictures will be shown at the meeting hall and on home TV screens during the session Wednesday, July 27.

Ike Extends GI Loan Bill

World War II Veterans Have Two More Years Under 1944 Law

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower Thursday signed legislation extending the World War II veterans home loan guarantee program for two more years.

The measure also continues for two more years direct federal home loans to both World War II and Korean War veterans and provides 150 million dollars annually for them.

Both programs were due to expire July 25.

The GI loan program, authorized by the Servicemen's Readjustment Act of 1944, has helped more than five million veterans obtain a home loan through Veterans Administration guarantees of their mortgages.

The direct loan program was set up in 1950 to help veterans in rural areas and small towns where private mortgage financing could not be obtained.

The Veterans Administration has made direct loans to about 152,000 veterans and has about 28,000 more on its waiting list.

Drop in Occupancy at Hospital Righting

The occupancy drop at Pontiac General Hospital appears to be righting itself, Harold B. Euler, hospital administrator, reported to the Board of Trustees last night.

Occupancy is averaging over 82 per cent for the accounting period that ends this week, he said.

This compares with 76.59 per cent for the previous period.

The occupancy dip was a subject of alarm when it began late in May.

Euler believed the rates were favorably affected by the 5 percent reduction in nonresident surtaxes that went into effect June 1.

Losses for the period ending June 15 were $7,300, he said.

Reuther Endorses Kennedy Over Nixon

Reuther announced his choice after visiting Kennedy with a delegation of union leaders who congratulated the Massachusetts senator on his Democratic convention triumph over Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson.

The red-haired UAW chief said he was speaking personally and not on behalf of his giant union or the AFL-CIO.

'I'm for Canaday, You All'

Let's Peek Into Life of a Demonstrator

By BOB CONSIDINE

LOS ANGELES — You're Joe Blow (with apologies to Jimmy Cannon).

Ain't worked since San Francisco, four years ago. Made a buck in the Nixon demonstration and got four bits from Stassen for trying to trip him up and break a leg, maybe, as he came into the Cow Palace.

Christian Herter give me nothing.

GOOD, STEADY WORK

I demonstrate for a living. It's good, steady work, the kind I like.

Every four years there's a day or two of it, with maybe some overtime in front of the hotels if somebody wants a sign carried or something yelled.

Guy give me a fat lip in a saloon on Eighth avenue once in New York — that was back before the war — and just because I was suited up like some guy from Munich and was carrying a sign saying Fritz Kuhn for American Fuehrer.

Who the hell's Fritz Kuhn? I thought he was somebody from that bank, Kuhn, Loeb or something.

ALWAYS A LOT

Give me them Democrats, I say. They always got a lot of guys running. Made four bucks at the arena.

First I come on for somebody named Johnson or Jackson, something like that. "Keep saying 'You all,' if anybody talks to you," the guy in charge said.

Seemed little enough to do for a buck. Then downstairs to suit up for Kennedy or Canaday, something like that. Had to smoke a clay pipe and keep saying "Begorrah," but it was another buck.

Then the others, Sen. Farmington from Missouri and a fellow who's been good to me in the past, Stevenson. His people did me a nice turn.

They said, "Come back in 1964, so's we can use you again."

Some bum wrote in the paper we ought to stop these demonstrations at conventions: said something like, "What will our friends overseas say when they see these lunatics blowing horns when the whole world's falling apart?"

How do you like a bum like that? Communist!

GMI to Grant Degrees in Electrical Engineering

Baccalaureate degrees in electrical engineering will be granted by General Motors Institute for the first time in 1963, James E. Goodman, chairman of the Institute's board of regents and vice president of General Motors, announced today.

The school's regents voted to grant the electrical engineering degree in addition to the mechanical and industrial engineering degrees presently awarded.

"The addition of the electrical engineering curriculum is the result of the growing demand from General Motors plants for young men educated in this field," Guy R. Cowing, GMI president, pointed out.

The new curriculum is directed toward three important areas of need for an electrical engineer in General Motors: product design, plant engineering and process engineering.

COMMON CLASSES FIRST

Courses in all the five - year engineering curricula are common in the first two years at GMI.

The electrical engineering course, like those of mechanical and industrial engineering, will begin in the third year. Students entering the new program as juniors this fall will qualify for their electrical engineering degrees in 1963.

Kiwanians Expect 1,000 at Dinner

More than 1,000 persons are expected to show up for "all the beef you can eat" at the first annual North Pontiac Kiwania Club Beef Barbecue tomorrow afternoon and evening.

The barbecue, complete with entertainment, is scheduled to begin at 4 in Oakland Park.

Tickets are being sold by club members and will be sold at the park. They are $2 for adults and $1 for children.

All proceeds will be used to support youth activities in the Pontiac area, such as aid to parks, recreational facilities, and helping underprivileged kids.

Kenneth Strine, of the Northside Community Club, has an imposing array of area talent lined up to provide entertainment.

The club's city league Class F American League baseball team — undefeated and untied in 1960 — will take on all challengers in a sports highlight of the afternoon.

Joseph Pollina is chairman of the event. If the barbecue is successful, the club plans to make it a yearly event.

2 Doctors' Offices Robbed Yesterday

The burglary of two Pontiac doctors' offices at 97 N. Perry St. was reported to police yesterday.

Entering through a broken window, the intruders took a letter opener and possibly a gallon jug of phenobarbital from the office of Dr. C. R. Gatley.

What Do You Think of UP? They're Checking

HOUGHTON (AP) — Michigan College of Mining and Technology is conducting a survey on "What do the people of the Lower Peninsula of Michigan know and think about the Upper Peninsula."

The statewide "Image Survey" is being conducted with the cooperation of the Michigan Economic Development Department.

"Most of the residents of Michigan live hundreds of miles away from the Upper Peninsula," says Theodore Pearce, survey director. "Their impressions of the Upper Peninsula are reflected in legislative decisions of importance to the area, in decisions of industries concerning the industrial development of the peninsula, and in statewide attitudes concerning the future of the peninsula."

Hulan Jack's 2nd Trial Scheduled for Oct. 1

NEW YORK (AP)—The second trial of Manhattan borough President Hulan E. Jack on conflict of interest charges has been set for Oct. 5.

In fixing the date Thursday General Sessions Judge Joseph A. Sarafite, who presided at the first trial turned down a defense request for an immediate retrial before another judge.

Barracuda Mutilates Skin Diver's Wrist, Leg

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP)—A barracuda attacked a skin diver about 200 yards off Pompano Beach, slashing the swimmer's leg and wrist in two passes.

Bob Allen, 34, Thursday was rushed to a hospital, where 30 stitches were taken in the wounds. He said later, "I never felt it, it was like being cut by a razor."

* * *

Local fishing experts said it was the first known unprovoked attack by a barracuda upon a skin diver.

Kennedy Would Be Youngest

Teddy Roosevelt Was Only 42 When He Took Over From McKinley

WASHINGTON (AP) — If Sen. John F. Kennedy wins the presidential election this fall he will become, at 43, the youngest man ever elected to the presidency and the second youngest ever to hold the office.

If Vice President Richard M. Nixon, 47, wins the Republican nomination as expected and then defeats Kennedy in November, he will be the third youngest president in U. S. history.

The youngest president ever was Theodore Roosevelt, just 10 months past his 42nd birthday when he succeeded to the White House on the death of William McKinley. McKinley was assassinated after less than a year in office. Roosevelt had been vice president.

The youngest president-vice president team ever to win a national election was U. S. Grant, 46, and Schuyler Colfax, 45.

The average age of U. S. presidents on the day of their inauguration has been 56.

John Breckenridge, who ran on the ticket with James Buchanan, is the youngest vice president ever elected. He was just past his 36th birthday when he was inaugurated. Alben W. Barkley, like Breckenridge from Kentucky, was the oldest at 71.

The oldest president on the day of his inaugural was William Henry Harrison, who was 68. He died 31 days later. President Eisenhower, who will be 70 next Oct. 14, stands to become the oldest president in office.

Probably the youngest candidate for president was Frank T. Johns of Portland, Ore. Johns was the candidate of the Socialist Labor party in 1924, when he was 35. The U. S. Constitution specifies 35 as the minimum age for the presidency.

Chrysler Sees Sales Upturn

Rest of Industry Finds Things Normal for 1st Part of July

DETROIT (UPI) — Everything was normal about the first 10-day period of July in retail sales of new cars except for a surprising upturn in sales by Chrysler Corp., Ward's Automotive Reports said today.

The statistical agency said the usual seasonal dip was experienced by the industry during the period.

Chrysler, however, captured 19.4 per cent of total industry deliveries during the period, while the company's "normal" share of sales had been hovering closer to 16 per cent this year.

Ward's tabulations indicated Chrysler's sales gain was attributable to the strong daily selling rates of 1,496 units by Plymouth-Valiant and 1,025 by Dodge and Dodge Dart.

Dealers throughout the industry sold an average of 15,376 units daily during the seven selling days of the July 1-10 period. This fell off from the 22,846-unit daily sales average in June, a 56-month record high, but paralleled a similar June-to-July decline last year.

The July 1-10 sales this year was 1.3 per cent better than the daily sales rate for the same 10 days last year and was 27.8 higher than in the comparable 1958 period.

Auto dealers retailed 107,634 American-made cars during the period. General Motors accounted for 42.8 per cent, Ford Motor Co., 29.8, Chrysler Corp. 19.4, American Motors 6.1 and Studebaker-Packard 1.9.

Compact car sales maintained their prominent position in industry selling, Ward's said, accounting for 28 per cent of the new car deliveries.

Board Announces Scholarship Funds

MSUO Grants Top MSU's

Michigan State University Oakland carried off more than half of the scholarship grants accepted by the MSU Board of Trustees which met in East Lansing yesterday.

Grants accepted totaled $62,854. Of these, $32,709 were earmarked for MSUO.

Chancellor D. B. Varner announced that the monies raised scholarship donations to MSUO to $37,847, contributed by more than 100 donors.

MSUO plans to offer at least 130 scholarships next September, and has a goal of $42,900 in its current drive for scholarship donations.

Varner has promised high schools in Oakland, Macomb and Lapeer counties that no graduate in the upper quarter of his class shall be denied a chance to attend MSUO for lack of money.

A fund drive to enable him to make good on this promise is being conducted by committee of the MSUO Foundation, headed by Mrs. Ralph Norvell, 46 Wenonah Dr.

Varner said most of the grants were small ones, and the amounts offered ranged down to $25. A major contribution, however, was $10,000 from Mrs. Roger M. Kyes of Boomfield Hills, wife of a General Motors Corp. vice president.

Because of the need for continuing scholarship funds, Varner said, the Foundation committee is planning additional events to start a scholarship trust fund.

Planned for September is a fashion show featuring the work of some of America's top designers and with some nationally known figure in the entertainment world as commentator. A movie premiere is also being discussed, Varner said.

A $3,000 gift from the Dow Chemical Co., accepted formally by the trustees yesterday, has brought a major scientific collection to the MSUO library in a kind of philanthropic triple play.

The interest of the Dow librarian in MSUO led the university to the books, and the seller's interest in MSUO's program helped bring both a bargain price and a new student.

The collection is a full set of each of the major four chemical journals and constitutes a complete record of the advances in the field of chemistry since 1900. The journals are the university's first research collection for its fast-growing library.

The story of the acquisition began when David White, a research marketing specialist in the chemical field, decided he no longer needed these sets.

He notified F. L. Taylor, Dow librarian, who alerted David Wilder, MSUO librarian, that the rare and unusual library find was available.

The sets, bound and indexed, are the Journal of the American Chemical Society, Chemical Abstracts, Industrial and Engineering Chemistry, and Analytical Chemistry.

The collection, filling 62 crates and weighing over a ton, is worth about $12,000, according to Dr. Paul Tomboulian, MSUO chemistry professor. White was willing to accept $3,600 but insisted that Wilder come to New York to examine the publications first.

The result was a two-hour conversation, not about the collection, but about MSUO's emphasis on liberal arts education.

The upshot was that White's son is planning to transfer to MSUO.

That was in April. White agreed to wait until July, the start of a new fiscal year, for his money, because MSUO's purse was empty.

But the Dow firm supplied the $3,600 a few weeks later.

The books are now in the process of being catalogued and shelved.

Says Kennedy Asks Him to Become Chairman

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Sen. Henry M. Jackson of Washington said today that presidential nominee John F. Kennedy has asked him to take the job of Democratic National Chairman.

Jackson said he's considering the plea. The often difficult and thankless post is being vacated Saturday by Paul M. Butler, who has held it for five stormy years.

SEN. HENRY JACKSON

"No one should enter politics unless he is a good sport," said Jackson, admitting disappointment that he did not get the vice presidential nod.

"I will do whatever Sens. Kennedy and (Lyndon B.) Johnson want me to do. I will do everything that a good sport should do."

If he does take the chairmanship, Jackson said, he probably will hold it only until after the presidential election in November.

State Rabid Animal Total Rises to 41

LANSING (UPI)—The Health Department said Thursday four rabid skunks found near Lansing last week made a total of 41 animals with the disease reported so far this year—nearly double the 23 found in the same period last year.

The disease has been widely scattered throughout the state this year, and no pattern of infection has been discovered, the department said.

Pet owners should see that their dogs or cats are vaccinated promptly against the disease, the department said.

Latin America Fund Under Consideration

WASHINGTON (AP)—The administration was reported today to be planning to ask the August session of Congress to authorize a special Latin American loan fund which could range up to 500 million dollars.

The proposed fund would launch President Eisenhower's announced new aid program for Latin America. It would open up an entirely new field of loans for housing and resettlement.

Details of the program, including the amount, are still under discussion. Agreement is expected by the time President Eisenhower returns from his Newport, R.I., vacation.

WHAT WOULD HAPPEN IF ALL ADVERTISING STOPPED?

Stores would begin cancelling orders. Very quickly, manufacturers would close down plants and lay off millions of employees. Volume production would be a thing of the past... and so, prices would rise fast.

Within a week most radio and television stations would close up shop for lack of revenues. The ability of many newspapers and magazines to perform their full, vital functions would be seriously impaired! And the cost per copy would zoom for those that tried to keep running only on circulation revenue.

This alternative to advertising can hardly be the goal of the critics of advertising. Without advertising our national economy, our national life, would be bleak indeed. In many ways, advertising is the power plant of our society.

MORE CUSTOMERS FOR MORE PRODUCTS

American creative genius and wonderful ability for organization have resulted in a tremendous flow of goods of all kinds. This creates a crucial need for masses of people anxious, willing and able to buy and consume these goods. Only a society with a constantly rising standard of living can provide the customers. These customers have to be sought, taught and often persuaded to move higher in the scale of living. This is the job of advertising.

Machines produce products. Advertising produces customers. As machines produce more goods, advertising is needed to supply more customers.

Suppose all our warehouses and stores become filled with merchandise. What would happen if this merchandise remained on the shelves? There would be a glut. Everything would slow down. Sure, people would still have to buy the necessities of living—food, shelter, wearables, medicine. But that is hardly enough to keep a very small part of our factories, railroads, trucks, planes, stores in operation. Millions and millions of people would have to be laid off.

Advertising not only gives people news about the new products, but provides the urge for people to own and enjoy these products. The wider and deeper the penetration of our products into the life of America, the greater the need for more production. This means more jobs. More jobs mean more people able to enjoy what we make. More people buying means more, still more production. And so on and so on. The result is that more Americans can enjoy more of the fruits of their labor than people in any country anywhere in the world can enjoy theirs.

ADVERTISING LOWERS PRICES

Does advertising raise the cost of goods? On the contrary. Through newspapers, television, magazines, radio and billboards, an advertiser can talk to a prospect for a tiny fraction of a cent. Advertising is the quickest and cheapest way of reaching large numbers of people. It enables the advertiser to reach his market (customers) inexpensively and thus increase his total production, thereby reducing the cost of making and selling each unit.

THE CULTURAL EFFECTS OF ADVERTISING

It's because of advertising that our mass media of communication can afford to command the finest talent from all over the world and give to the American people information, stimulation and education which, in other countries, are available to very few people.

Advertising makes its cultural contribution in another way. Advertising is in large measure responsible for better living, less drudgery, more leisure for more people. This creates opportunities for intellectual and spiritual activities equaled in few, if any, other countries. While millions and millions of dollars are being spent by Americans for cars, boats, sports equipment and the paraphernalia of leisure, there is a growing hunger for improvement of the mind and for aesthetic enjoyment.

WHAT ARE THE "NEEDS" OF PEOPLE?

Critics of advertising sometimes indict it for creating dissatisfaction in people's minds with what they have, and persuading and cajoling them into buying what they neither need nor want. But what are "needs?" The "needs" of people in undeveloped countries are not the same as our needs. Our needs of 50 years ago are not the same as they are today. We don't actually "need" electric razors, electric refrigerators, vacuum cleaners, television sets, shampoos, beauty treatments, packaged goods, or even automobiles. But would critics of advertising stop encouraging people to want a better life? Would they have the millions of people who create, produce, and market the so-called "non-essentials" thrown out of jobs? Do they want us to go back to the more primitive living of other countries?

ADVERTISING—PUBLIC SERVANT

Frequently, the advertising industry is called on to do direct public-service jobs—for the Government as well as for private public-service organizations. This it does through the Advertising Council, a non-profit organization supported by American business and advertising media. Here's what President Eisenhower said to the Advertising Council in Washington several months ago:

"For eighteen years you have been stimulating the nation's conscience in areas where the voluntary work of great numbers of people has been necessary in order to promote worthwhile causes. I know you have been in such fields as conservation, organized charities, safety, prevention of accidents, and more recently in giving your efforts to the job of pointing out to our people the need for self-discipline if we are to avoid debasement of our currency and prevent inflation.

"And I think no other body has done more in this regard in trying to inform America across the board of these things than has The Advertising Council."

10 Other Golfers Tied at 70 After 18 Holes Over Western Links

By BILL CORNWELL

DETROIT — Two's company, three's a crowd and four's a mob — especially if you're a professional golfer trying to win a prestige-loaded tournament.

There was a four-man "mob" showing the way here today as the $25,000 Western Open Golf Championship entered its second 18-hole round at Western Golf and Country Club.

The four front-runners each shot a three-under-par 69 in Thursday's opening 18-hole round for a one-stroke advantage.

Setting the pace and sharing the lead were:

Bob Rosburg, the chubby ex-Sanford University 2nd baseman who uses the baseball bat grip.

Fred Hawkins, a former U.S. Ryder Cup golfer who has seldom won anything on the circuit except money.

If these golfing nomads were entertaining any notions that they were safe from harm in their present positions — which is very doubtful — a look at the scoreboard must have quickly dispelled all such ideas.

The pack of wolves nipping at their heels was almost as big and noisy as the Los Angeles Sports Arena where the Democrats are holding their convention.

Ten touring pros, among them Wally Burkemo of Franklin Hills and former Knollwood pro Pete Cooper, were right behind the four co-leaders with 70s.

Another 14 golfers were deadlocked with 72s, even par over the 36-36 course. In this group were 1937 Western Open champion Doug Ford, Indianwood pro Charles Matlack and Jackson's Dave Hill.

Souchak nearly kicked away his chances of repeating with a dismal 41 on the front nine, but he recovered brilliantly on the back side by shooting 33 for a 74 to remain in contention.

The muscular Souchak had two double bogies and a bogey going out, touched off by two out-of-bounds tee shots on No. 4, but he rallied coming home with birdie putts of 8, 6 and 7 feet.

Rosburg, who will defend his National PGA crown next week at Akron, O., carded 33-36. He birdied Nos. 1, 5 and 8, never had a bogey and posted 10 straight pars.

Baird, a freckle-faced redhead from Beaumont, Tex., muffed an excellent chance to lead the field all by himself. "Butch" was four below par when he came to the 420-yard 17th hole where he missed the green and took a bogey five.

Burke stroked beautifully on the carpet, canning birdie putts of 15, 10, 20 and 20 feet plus an 18-incher. Hawkins, whose card went 36-33, also putted well as he sank birdie putts of 10, 10 and 6 feet. He birdied the par-five 15th by getting home in two.

The battle resumed today over Western's tricky 6,800-yard course with the low 70 and ties qualifying for Saturday's 3rd 18-hole session.

A 2nd cut will be made Saturday night with the low 50 plus ties qualifying for the 72-hole distance. There's a $5,000 purse waiting for the winning pro on Sunday.

Ex-Lions Will Coach 'Stars'

Hart, Creekmur in Key Roles for Prep Duel

Top Grid Performers Invited by Jaycees to Play Aug. 19

All-Oakland County football stars playing in the first annual All-Star game at Wisner Stadium will get tutoring out of the professional ranks even before they get to college gridirons across the country.

The game, which will be played at Pontiac's Wisner Stadium, Friday night, August 19th, will match the North Oakland County All-Stars, coached by former Notre Dame and Detroit Lions' great Leon Hart, against the South Oakland County stars who will be coached by Lou Creekmur, Lions' tackle who made the all-pro team seven times.

Hart and Creekmur will both select ex-pro players or non-active former college or high school players and coaches to assist them.

The coaches will take 33 players into each respective camp and reduce the number to 28 by game time.

Practice sessions for the North County team will be held at Wisner Stadium. The South team is expected to practice at Royal Oak's Memorial Stadium. The coaches will notify the players of the times of the practice sessions.

Training camp drills will get under way approximately two weeks prior to the game. They will be evening sessions.

Graduates from the Pontiac area who have been invited to participate in the game include Charley Brown, Jerry Rush and Isaac Jones of Pontiac Central, Northern boys Bob Hocking, Jim Heisler and Larry Bland and Waterford star Bill Bryce. St. Michael and St. Fred may also be represented.

Andonian, Caplin, McMasters in Semis

HONOLULU (AP) — Regardless of the outcome of today's 36-hole semifinals in the 35th annual National Amateur Public Links golf tournament, tomorrow's 36-hole final will be a battle of age against youth and possibly an all-Michigan affair.

Victors in yesterday's quarter-finals were Verne Callison, 41, a Sacramento, Calif., tavern owner; Mike Andonian, 34, a Pontiac, Mich., math teacher; Bob McMasters, 23, a Royal Oak, Mich., salesman, and Ty Caplin, Plymouth, Mich., a 23-year-old student at Michigan State University who "played hookey" from summer school to make the tournament.

Andonian traveled the roughest road to the semifinal qualification, beating two of the three co-medalists. He knocked out Richard Hopwood of Phoenix, Ariz., in the second round, and eliminated Harlan Stevenson of Long Beach, Calif., in the third.

In the fourth round, he triumphed over Felix Claveran, Stockton, Calif., 3 and 2. Claveran had just ousted Don Essig III of Indianapolis, the 1957 champion, 1-up.

McMasters, beaten by Andonian in a playoff for the last Detroit qualifying berth, got to make the trip when one of the original qualifiers withdrew.

Caplin reached the semifinals by disposing of John Carson, Atlanta, 4 and 2, and Floyd Dixon, Memphis, 2-up.

Callison was one down at the turn but erased the disadvantage on the 10th and closed out the match on the 17th.

Andonian also was one down at the turn. He tied his match on the 10th and won two of the next six holes to triumph.

McMasters said he was happy to see Caplin win because it assured Michigan of a name in the finals. McMasters formerly captained Michigan. Caplin attends Michigan State, arch rival of the Wolverines.

Andonian, former Michigan public links champion, is the veteran of the surviving quarter, having participated in six previous tournaments.

"I never got beyond the third round before," he said, "so maybe this is my year now that I have reached the semifinals."

The publinx tourney, incidentally, will be in Michigan next year. It'll be held at Detroit's Rackham Course.

Mrs. LeClair vs. Mrs. Gamble

State Amateur Finals Today

FLINT (UPI) — Mrs. Keith LeClair of Ann Arbor and Mrs. Robert H. Gamble of Detroit met here today in a 36-hole match for the Women's State Amateur Golf Championship.

Mrs. LeClair was three over par in the 14 holes she needed to oust 17-year-old Patti Shook, daughter of the South Haven Country Club Professional.

Patti soared nine strokes above regulation figures and suffered a 6-4 setback.

Mrs. Gamble stroked to a 3-2 win over 19-year-old Sharon Miller of Marshall, a Western Michigan University coed. Mrs. Gamble was five strokes over par for 16 holes and Miss Miller was eight over par.

Neither Mrs. LeClair nor Mrs. Gamble ever reached the Women's State Amateur finals previously.

Mrs. LeClair and Mrs. Gamble, who tied for medalist honors in the 18-hole qualifying round on Tuesday, ousted teen-age rivals in yesterday's semi-final round.

State Netters Still in Action at Western Open

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Two Michigan women are in today's quarter-final round and one women's doubles entry survives in the Western Open tennis tournament.

Sue Hodgman of Kalamazoo gained a spot in today's rounds by defeating Lois Owen of Evansville, Ind., yesterday, 6-2, 6-0. Phyllis Saganski of Hamtramck downed Marilyn Druse of Terre Haute, Ind., 6-0, 6-1.

In the first round of women's doubles, Miss Hodgman and Miss Metzger teamed up to defeat Miss Saganski and Sue Williams of Indianapolis, 6-1, 6-1.

Ray Senkowski of Hamtramck and Rudy Hernando of Modesto, Calif., lost to John Hammill and Red Mandelstam of South Africa, 8-6, 6-1, in the second round of men's doubles competition.

Stengel May Bench Maris for Opener With Tigers

DETROIT (AP)—Casey Stengel's unusual — for him — midsummer vacation is over and the New York Yankee manager idled away his time conjuring up a surprise for the Detroit Tigers.

It'll be the season's No. 1 shocker if he decides to spring it. The old professor's likely to think about it again and then forget it before the Yanks and Tigers open a four-game series tonight.

Stengel's surprise is this — he might, seriously, he might bench Roger Maris! Or, at least, the thought has passed through his mind.

Maris has been the sensation of baseball this season. What with 27 homers — more than anyone else — 69 RBIs — more than anyone else — and a .320 batting average, he's become the majors' top glamour boy.

But what's he done lately, asks the grizzled Yankee skipper? After all, his batting average has been falling, he hasn't homered since July 5, and he was futile in Wednesday's All-Star game. Maris left seven colleagues stranded on base as the National League shut out the American League, 6-0.

Stengel had a chance to watch Maris' performance Wednesday in the unaccustomed role of a spectator. Casey normally is closer to the All-Star classic as American League manager because the Yankees almost always are defending champions.

Stengel came away grumbling and talking about a rest for Maris.

But he'll undoubtedly wait awhile. Maris is at his dangerous best in Briggs Stadium with its chummy right field wall. Even when Maris was a journeyman player with Cleveland and Kansas City, he tore down the fences in Detroit.

The Tigers, meanwhile, begin the second half of their schedule with a battle for fifth place on their hands. They're tied with Washington, 8½ games behind the front-running Yanks.

Detroit, with Al Kaline and Rocky Colavito just beginning to hit like they should, went into the All-Star recess with two straight victories.

Manager Jimmie Dykes was encouraged by the hitting and wished the team didn't have to lay off for four days. He had the team work out yesterday with All-Stars Kaline and Frank Lary excused.

Dyks has nominated lefty Yankee-baiter Don Mossi (7-6) to hurl against Art Ditmar (7-5) tonight.

Phil Regan, Michigan-reared rookie from Wayland, has been brought up from Denver and joins the club tonight. Paul Foytack, without a victory since April, yesterday, was placed on the disabled list. Foytack will be idled for at least 30 days.

Granderson Denies AFL Club Contacts

TEMPLE, Tex. (AP)—Rufus Granderson, a Prairie View College football star, said last night he had not been contacted by any American Football League team trying to get him to pass up playing with Detroit of the National Football League.

Granderson, at his home here, said he had not been bothered by any AFL team, that he was contacted at one time by Dallas but when he informed the Texans he had signed with Detroit they ceased talking to him.

His comments came in the face of a statement from NFL commissioner Pete Rozelle in New York that Granderson had signed with Detroit "yet he is constantly getting telephone calls telling him that Detroit doesn't want him and urging him to sign with the AFL."

Senators Nip Phillies

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Washington Senators scored four runs in the fourth inning and made them stand up for a 4-3 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies in an exhibition game Thursday night before 12,832 spectators at Connie Mack Stadium.

Michigan Horse Wins

Mathews, Buhl, Burdette Shine

Braves Blank Bucs 4-0

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The booming bat of Eddie Mathews and the combined pitching of Bob Buhl and Lew Burdette paved the way for a 4-0 Milwaukee Braves victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates Thursday night.

The victory in the playoff of a rained-out Memorial Day game trimmed the first-place Pirates' National League lead over the second-place Braves to four games.

Buhl, a right-hander, gave up a single in each of the first three innings then held the Pirates hitless until the ninth when Bob Skinner and Dick Stuart hit consecutive singles with nobody out. Burdette came on in relief and got the next three batters to preserve the shutout and Buhl's victory, his ninth compared to three defeats. Buhl walked three and fanned three.

Mathews drove in three of the Braves' runs and scored the fourth.

He doubled home one marker in the first, belted a tremendous two-run homer in the fifth, and tripled and scored in the ninth. Mathews' homer, his 17th, cleared the double-deck right field stands at Forbes Field. It was only the seventh time a ball had been hit over the stands and was the second time Mathews had done it.

Doctoring Your Golf

By DR. CARY MIDDLECOFF

PATIENT'S COMPLAINT: "My slice stays with me."

DIAGNOSIS: Hips block the arms.

TREATMENT: A seldom-suspected cause of a persistent slice lies in the position of the body at address. If the hips are forward, the arms may be blocked on the downswing. This forces the arms to go out and around, making the player cut across the ball. That is, it makes the player swing from outside in.

The cure lies in getting the hips out of the way so the arms will have room to come through on the downswing. Simply protrude the rear a little, as shown in the drawning. Move as if you were about to sit down on a high stool.

Another benefit gained from this stance position is that it puts the bulk of the weight back through the heels, as it should be.

The force of the downswing will tend to pull the body forward, causing the player to hit the ball in the heel of the club, unless the pull is counteracted. The way to counteract it is to start the swing with most of the weight on the heels.

Piston Prospects Discuss Contracts

DETROIT (AP)—Nick Kerbawy, general manager of the Detroit Pistons, scheduled contract talks today w htiRon Johnson, former Minnesota star and the Pistons' No. 2 choice in the March draft of the National Basketball Assn.

Johnson has offers from other sources, Kerbawy said.

Don Ohl, for whom the Pistons acquired the rights from the Philadelphia Warriors last week, is due in town Monday for a contract session Kerbawy said Detroit paid in excess of the $500 waiver price for Ohl, a former University of Illinois guard.

Hatton Offered Place as Cubs' Player-Coach

VICTORIA, Tex. (AP) — Grady Hatton, for three years manager of San Antonio in the Texas League, today was offered a job as player-coach with the Chicago Cubs.

Hatton, former major league infielder, said he had until Sunday to decide whether to leave the Missions. He gave no indication of what he planned to do.

U.S. Cup Team Starts Long Road Back Today

QUEBEC (AP)—The United States Davis Cup team starts the long road back today with Bernard Bartzen and Barry MacKay carrying the American hopes in the opening singles matches against Canada in the first round of the American Zone competition.

Bartzen, 22-year-old Dallas, Tex., veteran of the team which will try to gain back the coveted trophy lost to Australia last September, takes on Bob Bedard in the opening match on the clay courts of the Civil Employes Tennis Club. The second match sends 24-year-old MacKay of Dayton, Ohio, against Don Fontana.

"We got the break in the draw," said U.S. team captain David Freed. "I think we'll win the first two matches."

Freed, who succeeded Perry Jones as captain of the U.S. team, said he figured the two countries might have split the opening singles if the draw had gone the other way.

"Bernard would have had a good chance to beat MacKay but not Bartzen," he said. "Bartzen's will power and steadiness is hard to beat."

Bartzen and Michigan alumnus MacKay switch opponents for the other singles Sunday. The doubles will be played Saturday with Bedard and Fontana the likely Canadian team.

However, Freed has not decided on the U.S. team. If Earl Buchholz of St. Louis has fully recovered from an old ankle injury, he'll likely pair with Chuck McKinley, also of St. Louis. If not, Bartzen and MacKay probably will get the call.

Cupit, Veteran in Golf Feature

College Champ, Oldest Player, Mark Action in Trans-Miss. Event

WICHITA, Kan. (UPI)—Jackie Cupit, the three-time Missouri Valley Conference golf champion from the University of Houston, meets 47-year-old Bob Cochran of St. Louis in today's feature quarter-final match in the Trans-Mississippi golf tournament.

Cupit advanced yesterday with ease, disposing of Irl Oliver, Kansas City, 7 and 6, and Herb Durham, Dallas, 5 and 4.

But Cochran, oldest player in the tournament, was forced to the 19th hole to defeat John Truax, Albuquerque, N.M., 1-up in his afternoon match. Cochran won the morning match with a 6 and 5 victory over Eldon Tapke, Wichita, Kan.

Ball Players Seek $100,000 Damages

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Philadelphia Phillies pitchers Dick Farrell and Jim Owens sought $100,000 balm each today from Time, Inc., for a Sports Illustrated article they claimed damaged their athletic reputations.

The right-handers said in a suit filed in U. S. District Court that a story which appeared in the June 13 issue of the magazine pictured them as heavy drinkers, brawlers and playboys. The article, "Gang Rides Again."

Institute-Star Game a Feature of Amateur Day

Full Baseball Program Slated Sunday at City Jaycee Park

Pontiac Business Institute has been to the Class B City Baseball League this season what the Knights of Columbus have been to the Class A circuit.

The PBI squad currently rides at the top of the heap in the Class B race and therefore gets the honor of facing a victory-hungry band of "B" All-Stars Sunday afternoon as a feature portion of the city's annual "Amateur Day" festivities.

Victories over PBI by Class B rivals this season have been few and far between so the Institute boys can expect to have a rugged battle on their hands.

"Amateur Day" is co-sponsored by the Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department and the Pontiac Baseball Federation and will have its big fling at Jaycee Park this Sunday.

A full afternoon of city fans will be offered, starting at 1:30 p.m. and running until sometime around 6 o'clock.

Baseball will be played by all age groups in the city recreation program, ranging from nine-year-olds through the adult level. Ten games are scheduled in six classes—Widgets, A, B, D, E and F—on four diamonds.

PBI and the "B" All-Stars will collide at 3:30 p.m. on Jaycee Park's No. 2 baseball diamond.

Big Upset Opens National Meet

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — A defending champion breaking her record—and finishing third—may have set a pattern in the women's national swimming championships moving into its first full session today at Broad Ripple Pool.

Carolyn House, blonde, 14-year-old high school pupil from Los Angeles, stroked the metric mile in U.S. record time of 19:45. Miss Ruuska made the old mark of 20:02.4 at San Francisco two years ago and beat little Miss House at a standard mile in the '59 nationals.

The girls swam in adjoining lanes and it was a race for only 500 meters. Two lanes away, Jo-Anna Blackwell, Carolyn's teammate at the Los Angels Athletic Club, steadily pulled up to finish a solid second.

Those three and fourth-place Laural Watson of the Santa Clara (Calif.) Swim Club all broke the AAU meet record of 20:34.6, set by Miss Ruuska in 1958.

Ben York of West Palm Beach, Fla., chairman of the U.S. Women's Olympic swimming team, predicted there would be more surprises before the meet ends Sunday.

"And there will be more," he added, "when the Olympic trials are held in the faster Brennan Pool at Detroit next month.

"The girls have gotten into the habit of wiping off the record book at every national meet and there may be a new mark in every event here."

Miss Ruuska got another chance to defend a championship today in the 400 meters individual medley, with stout competition expected from Becky Collins of Indianapolis, butterfly champion; Donna DeVarona of Berkeley, Calif., and Miss Blackwell. Miss Collins had been clocked five seconds faster than Miss Ruuska's best time.

Other events today included the 100 meters freestyle, with Chris Von Saltza of Santa Clara, Calif., pretty likely to repeat; the 200-meters breaststroke, where Ann Warner of Santa Clara was supposed to be in a class by herself; the 200 meter backstroke, which Carin Cone of Houston, Tex., didn't chose to defend, and the 3-meter diving.

MEET FOR TITLE—Mrs. Keith LeClair of Ann Arbor (right) and Mrs. Robert Gamble of Detroit battled each other for the the Women's Michigan Amateur Golf Championship today in the 36-hole match play finals at Flint Golf Club. Neither woman has won the State Amateur crown before.

State Site for October Event

World Series of Fishing

LANSING (AP) — Michigan's lakes and streams will furnish the locale for the world series of fresh-water fishing, scheduled for mid-October.

The 10-day event is expected to bring together some of the world's finest anglers for a face-to-face test of their skills at landing various kinds of fish under varying conditions.

Local and state contests will determine most of the competitors, expected to number close to 100.

All the nation's estimated 30 million fishermen, plus those from abroad, are eligible for the competition. Plans call for winners to get expense-paid tours for the world contest, which will cover the great lakes, inland lakes and streams and possibly a section of Ontario near Sault Ste. Marie.

Sparkplug and founder of the "world championship" is Hy Peskin, a dynamic little sports photographer who says he has never been fishing in his life.

Lounge 18, Builders 17

A Wild One at Beaudette

They really had a wild one last night in the nightcap of an International loop twin bill in City League softball action at Beaudette Park.

Twenty hits bounced around the Beaudette lot, 10 by each team, as the 300 Lounge outscored the Road Builders, 18-17, in a free-wheeling marathon. No homers were made in the wide-open affair, but each team boasted three players with two hits apiece.

Both teams scored six runs in the 1st inning. The Builders scored six more in the 6th, but the Lounge won the contest in the bottom of the 6th by tallying four times.

Gene Hoffman pitched three-hit ball and received seven-hit support as Buettner's Cleaners defeated Rogers' Electric, 6-2.

Blue Star Drive-In made good use of seven hits for a 9-5 triumph over Philip's Sporting Goods in National League play at Northside Park. The losers also made seven safeties.

Langdon's Boat Livery clubbed nine hits for an easy 11-1 rout of Herk's Auto Parts in the other National division game on the Northside diamond. John Maher hurled a two-hitter for the winners.

Oakland in the new American Football League and San Francisco in the National Football League will use Kezar Stadium in San Francisco for home games.

This Is Inboard Schedule

Here is the schedule of unlimited inboard races in the high point circuit: July 24 — Diamond Cup, Coeur d'Alene, Idaho; Aug. 7 — Seafair Trophy, Seattle, Wash.; Aug. 28 — Silver Cup, Detroit; Sept. 19 — President's Cup, Washington, D. C.; Oct. 2 — Governor's Cup, Madison, Ind.; Oct. 23 — Reno, Nev.; Nov. 13 — Gold Cup, Las Vegas.

Gene Corum, West Virginia's new football coach, has added two backfield coaches to his staff. They are Ray Watson, ex-West Virginia Tech coach, and Jimmy Walthall, former Davidson College aide and Mountaineer star.

NEW ALBINO SQUIRREL

I-L Baseball Back in Jersey After 10 Years

JERSEY CITY, N. J. (AP) — The International Baseball League returns here tonight for the first time in 10 years when the newly-acquired Jersey City entry meets Columbus at Roosevelt Stadium.

Ten years ago the Jersey City Giants moved to Springfield, Mass. and with the exception of 1957 when the erstwhile Brooklyn Dodgers played a few games here, the town has been without a team.

But the political situation in Cuba forced the IL last week to move the Havana franchise here where it will remain for at least the remainder of the season. All the Cubans on the team, except manager Tony Castano and trainer Louis Navarro will remain. Nap Reyes is interim manager.

Jordan Reports He's Ready for Moyer, Tonight

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Don Jordan fights tonight for the first time since he lost his welterweight title, and the former champion said he is good and ready.

Jordan pointed to five weeks of training behind him as he looked toward the scheduled 10-round bout with Phil Moyer, 22-year-old Portlander.

The former champion wants a resounding victory to pave his Paret, who took the title last May. They will fight Aug. 22 in Seattle.

Adios Butler Tops Chicago Field Saturday

CHICAGO (AP)—Adios Butler, a $6,000 yearling who was bought for $600,000 by a syndicate this spring, heads a field of 10 in the $63,000 American-National Maturity Pace at Sportsman's Park Saturday night.

Women Start Olympic Track Trials Tonight

ABILENE, Tex. (AP)—The nation's women track and field stars, led by Wilma Rudolph, Olga Connolly and Earlene Brown, move into the showdown for the Olympic Games tonight.

One hundred and thirty-six athletes, seeking 28 places on the United States team, hold preliminaries preparatory to the final trials Saturday night when three girls in each of nine events will be chosen for the Games in Rome. Also, the fourth place finisher in the 100 meters will go along to make up the 400-meter relay team.

Miss Rudolph, the Tennessee State sprinter who set a world's 200-meter record last weekend in the National AAU at Corpus Christi—a startling 22.9—will be the favorite in both of the dashes although suffering from a slight head cold.

Mrs. Connolly, who was Olympic champion in the discus throw competing for Czechoslovakia in 1956, will be expected to capture this event but could get strong competition from Mrs. Brown, the Los Angeles weight star who placed in both the shot and discus in the last Olympics.

Mrs. Connolly now is a United States citizen and will compete for America at Rom.

Mrs. Brown appears supreme in the shot put where she has thrown 52 feet 2 inches already this season. She also has a discuss toss of 173 feet 2½ inches, which is over 4 feet ahead of Mrs. Connolly's best throw this year.

The field here will include 14 who have competed in past Olympics. There also are 17 who have exceeded th Olympic qualifying standards.

If any of the first three finishers in an event do not meet the standard they can be admitted to the team by the U.S. Women's Olympic Committee if it is believed that she can and will reach the standard in the pre-Olympic training camp at Emporia, Kans.

The events here will be the 100, 200, and 800-meter runs, the 80-meter hurdles, high jump, broad jump, shot put, discus and javelin with the 800-meter a new event to the Olympics.

$551.60 Downs Double

DETROIT (AP)—Down With Soloist, a 55-1 shot driven by Dan O'Hare of Jackson, won the first harness race at Northville Downs last night and set up a $551.60 daily double.

Time To Race, a favorite, won the second portion of the double to bring joy to 13 bettors who picked the winners. Down With Soloist paid $113.20 to win.

Teen-Ager Seeks Golf Honors

Texas Girl Teamed With 3 Vets in Semis of Trans-Miss.

CINCINNATI (AP)—A 17-year-old Texan with a hot putter as a prime weapon goes gunning today for a place in the finals of the 30th annual women's Trans-Mississippi golf tournament and a possible championship.

But Sandra Haynie, the Austin, Texas, high school senior who stands only five-feet-three, faces a huge task.

The three other golfing gals remaining for semifinal play are veterans of big time competition even though two of them are young enough to have finished one-two in this year's national intercollegiate.

Joining Miss Haynie in the semifinals were JoAnne Gunderson of Kirkland, Wash.; Judy Bell of Wichita, Kans., and Mrs. Jason Weiss of Indianapolis.

Inspiration Award Given Schoendienst

Schoendienst, in Pittsburgh with the Braves for a makeup game with the Pirates, was chosen for the honor by unanimous vote of the federation's youngsters.

The Braves' second baseman provided an example of courage and inspiration in his recovery from tuberculosis and his remarkable comeback in baseball.

WAITING FOR SAM—Spectators assemble near the 12th green at Western Golf and Country Club, anxiously watching and waiting for the arrival of Slammin' Sam Snead. The Slammer fired 35-36—71 in Thursday's 1st round.

Western's Stevens Finds Home Course Unfriendly

The long-hitting Stevens, whose brother Don captured the 1960 crown in the State Am last Sunday at Port Huron, is a member at Western Golf and Country Club, site of the current Western Open.

Just a week ago, Stevens had a four-under-par 68 at Western and regularly shoots around par (36-36—72).

"I guess it's true that familiarity really does make contempt," Stevens cracked after his first round, 42-40—82, one of the highest scores recorded by the field of 155. "At least, the course had a lot of contempt for me."

The favorite in the 10-man amateur field is crooner Don Cherry, who is mixing his golf with some singing at a downtown Detroit club. Cherry had a 76 and trailed young Detroiter John Molenda by one stroke.

Former State Amateur champion Glenn Johnson had 80 and Gene Hunt of Flint a 76 after matching par on the front side.

Walter Burkemo, who pulled down a fat paycheck for a fine performance in the recent Buick Open, led Michigan's delegation. His two-under-par 70 tied nine others for second place, one stroke off the pace.

Former Tiger infielder Jerry Priddy and former Rochester pro Jack Fleck had 71s, Jackson's Dave Hill and Chuck Matlack of Lake Orion, 72s, and Chick Harbert 74.

Dobski's and Arrows Win Waterford Tilts

Thursday's two Waterford Recreation Softball loop games were won respectively by Dobski's and Arrows. The former disposed of Big Jim's club, 12-2 while the Arrows punctured Lakers 4-1.

Dobski's counted 9 runs in a big 7th, before any man was retired. Don Waterman had three of winners' 13 hits.

Doug Reich fired a 3-hitter for his team's victory, which was assured in the first frame with two runs. Two more were added in the 7th. Tom Atkins was the loser.

NO PAR HERE — Art Wall was two under par when he teed off on No. 18 yesterday in the 1st round of the Western Open golf tournament at Western Golf and Country Club. But he overshot the 18th green, chipped back too hard and then missed his putt (above) to take a bokey five and wind up with a 35-36—71 scorecard.

Six-Run Explosion Brings Jets 8-3 Class A Victory

A six-run explosion in the top of the 6th inning brought the Jets an 8-3 victory over CIO Local 594 Thursday in a Class A League baseball game at Wisner Field. John Lucadam's bases-loaded triple was the big blow.

The Jets spotted the Union team a 2-0 lead in the 1st inning, tallied twice in the 4th to tie the score, then scored six times in the 6th to wrap it up. The CIO tallied once in the bottom of the 4th for a 3-2 lead.

In the hit department, the CIO had a 6-5 edge with the Union's Mel Taylor the only player to get more than one safety. He made two singles.

Larry Demerick pitched all the way for the Jets to get credit for the win. Alonzo Griffin started on the mound for the CIO with Dick Goldsworthy suffering the loss in a relief role. Demerick struck out 11 batters.

In City Junior Baseball League activity yesterday, Bill Jackson hurled a no-hit, no-run game and teammate Gary Kenyon homered to feature Lake Orion's 16-0 rout of the Big Shamrocks in Class E action.

Class F results included a 14-2 victory for St. Benedict over the Pontiac Boys Club and a forfeit win for the Moose.

Airships Aid Olympians to Reach Sports Fields

ROME (AP)—Rome city authorities are thinking of using helicopters to help get athletes to Olympic playing facilities during the Summer Games here, starting Aug. 25.

City officials say they might use the helicopters if auto traffic is too jammed in the city between the Olympic village and the various stadiums and installations.

Poll of Players Will Determine if 2nd Is Held

San Francisco Certain of Having Contest Next Summer

NEW YORK (UPI)—So far only one Major League All-Star game is in the works for 1961, and whether there will be two hinges on a poll of the players that will be taken during the coming week.

Thus was the future of baseball's mid-summer classic outlined today in statements by Frank Scott, spokesman for the big-leaguers, and a spokesman for the office of baseball commissioner Ford C. Frick.

"The idea of two All-Star games was given a trial last year and this year as an experiment," said Frank Slocum of the commissioner's office. "So far the Major Leagues have only a commitment for one All-Star game in 1961 in San Francisco. Whether there will be one or two remains to be seen."

"My office is conducting the poll and it will be finished within a week," said Scott. "A simple majority will rule."

The notion of two All-Star games instead of one sprang from the players themselves, believing that the extra income from the extra game was needed to fulfill plans in the players' pension program.

But several of the players indicated displeasure with the idea after Wednesday's game which drew a disappointing crowd of 38,362 at Yankee Stadium to see the National League complete a "sweep" of 1960's two games by beating the American League, 6-0.

Harvey Kuenn of the Cleveland Indians, the American League player representative, thought that fans might "appreciate the game more if there were only one."

Outspoken Ted Williams suggested that fans don't want to pay inflated prices ($8.40 for box seats, $6.30 for reserved seats). He pointed out that the Yankee Stadium bleachers were crowded, but that the grandstand was only half-filled.

Blanda Ends 2 Year Retirement to Rejoin Bears

HOUSTON (AP)—George Blanda, down to a battle weight of 215 pounds, returned to football today after a two-year retirement.

The former quarterback of the Chicago Bears was among an early squad of 35 players reporting for the opening of training by the Houston Oilers of the new American Football League.

The early squad of quarterbacks and ends faces twice-a-day workouts today and Saturday before being joined by about 45 other backs and linemen.

* * *

Among those reporting Sunday will be Billy Cannon, the Louisiana State All-America halfback whom the Oilers won in a federal court contract battle with the Los Angeles Rams of the National League.

Top O'Michigan Race Will Name 1st Queen

INDIAN RIVER, Mich. (AP) — The first queen of the Top O'Michigan Marathon outboard motorboat race will be chosen here Saturday. The 12th annual running of the classic over the 87-mile route is scheduled for Sunday.

The queen will be selected from seven finalists representing Cheboygan, Topinabee, Indian River and Wolverine. A street dance will follow the coronation.

The race will begin at Topinabee with nearly 200 entries expected. The course is over a chain of rivers and lakes in Cheboygan and Emmet counties.

Chips Join Romance Stock Favor

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Wall Street still has an eye for the romance stocks. But recently the blue chips neglected for much of this year have caught the stock trader's fancy, too.

The investing public is likely to get that way about the blue chips when the going is slow and cautious, not to say a bit apprehensive.

The blue chip's conservative reliability is more appreciated then. Its sisters, the growth stocks, seem a bit less glamorous.

However, it's an attitude that can, and often does, change over night.

The blue chip is the darling of the institutional buyers and of most stock price indexes. But that is more a result of being ope than a reason for being one.

How do you tell a blue chip from the multitude of stocks on sale on the country's stock exchanges? And what makes a less well known stock suddenly glamorous?

The romance stocks that have caught the trader's eye this year for a brief or protracted dalliance fall largely into these classes:

SPACE-AGE STOCKS — Shares of companies deemed set to cash in on the spending for space satellites, for missiles and rockets and electronics in general. Example: Texas Instruments Inc. which sold at around 53 times its annual earnings.

DEFENSE ITEMS—Every time Khrushchev hurls some verbal missiles at the United States, stocks of companies deemed sure to profit by any step up in currently favored forms of defense turn glamorous.

GROWTH STOCKS—Darlings of the long bull market. These are shares of companies that through excellent management, or in up and coming new industries, seem sure to grow faster than the average. Examples are International Business Machines, recently selling at around 55 times its annual earnings, and Minnesota Mining & Manufacturing, selling at around 52 times earnings.

NEW PRODUCTS — Glamour also touches stocks of companies that seem sure to grow because of a consumer product that catches wide favor. Prime example: Polaroid, whose stock price climbed to around 80 times its annual earnings.

The blue chip used to hold pretty close to a price that was 10 times earnings. But in these days of inflation of most market values, many of them now sell at prices well above that ratio. Before the stock market break early this year some were at 20 times earnings.

Unlike the blue chip, the growth stock usually pays small or no dividends, the company putting earnings back into further growth. In relation to the market price paid, the return to the buyer is quite small in comparison with the higher yield of the blue chip. But the buyer of growth shares is looking for capital gains through rising prices of his stocks more than for dividends.

BLUE CHIP TRIED, TRUE

The blue chip is the tried and true one. Its appeal, both to the institutional buyer and to the compiler of a stock price index, is its stability, its reputation for both conservatism and steady if unspectacular growth, its long record of consistent earnings and regular dividends, its lesser risk of wide price fluctuations. These characteristics cut out many top companies in industries given to marked cycles of output, sales and profits.

The demand for the blue chips simmers down when the romance stocks are soaring. But now that blue-chip prices are down closer to traditional price to earnings ratios, and now that uncertainty is in the air, the blue chips have a quiet beauty of their own.

Will Fight Taxes, Teamsters Say

Brennan Tells Miriani Structure Too Complex, Must Be Simplified

DETROIT (AP)— The tax structures of Michigan and Detroit have been described as "inefficient and ineffective monstrosities" by the Teamsters Union which says it will oppose any new city and state taxes until the present structures are simplified.

Brennan, whose Union has 85,000 members in Michigan, said:

"For almost a decade, the citizens of Detroit and Michigan have been faced with urgent demands for increased taxes. During those years, a variety of new taxes has been created, and existing programs have been increased to satisfy demands for new revenue.

"Tax program has been constructed upon tax program until today our tax structures stand as inefficient and ineffective monstrosities—outrageous in their complexity, flagrant in their abuse of common sense.

"This Union is opposed to any further tax increase until those who have been elected to run our affairs clarify and simplify the tax structures.

"We are against a raise in the sales tax. We also are against an income tax until relief is gained by the abolition of the sales tax on food, clothing, drugs and such taxes as the one levied on used car sales."

Consider Bids for Furnishings of New Library

Bids from eight companies were under study today for an estimated $35,000 in equipment and furnishings for the Pontiac Public Library building.

Frank Reed, city purchasing agent, said it would take his office several days to analyze the bids, with the help of Miss Phyllis Pope, city librarian.

The results will be scanned by the administration's library equipment committee before final recommendations are made by City Manager Walter K. Willman to the City Commission.

Deadline for filing bids was Wednesday.

Purchase orders are expected to be made in time to allow delivery by Oct. 1, a few days after the anticipated completion of the $500,000 building.

Support Level May Mean Rally

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market kept a narrow edge to the upside in quiet trading early this afternoon.

Fractional gains outnumbered small losses among pivotal issues. A number of leaders was unchanged and a few issues made gains of 1 or more points, some recovering from recent sharp losses.

The average was suspended about a "support" level regarded as a test area by Wall Street chartists.

If the level were to hold, a rally could be expected. If it should be priced, a further sharp decline would be the likelihood.

Little news backgrounded the market as very small changes prevailed among steels, autos, rails, oils, drugs, and building materials.

Nonferrous metals, electrical equipments, mail order retails and electronics showed a higher trend. Aircrafts and tobaccos lost a little ground.

The emphasis of the Federal Reserve Board on easier credit by making available a high level of "free reserves" for member banks was encouraging enough to help the bond market but had little effect on stocks.

ACF Industries responded nicely to a report of a big boost in earnings, advancing about 2 points. Reynolds Tobacco was fractionally higher following a boost in the dividend to 65 from 55 cents. Westinghouse Electric recouped about 2 points.

Among more volatile issues, Polaroid came back around five points and Texas Instruments more than 2. Up more than a point were Anderson Prichard Oil, Zenith and Minute Maid.

Builders' Gyp Probe Mounted

Charge Detroit Firms Have Gone Bankrupt to Avoid Repairs

DETROIT (AP)—The Wayne County prosecutor's office Thursday promised a sweeping probe of complaints by Detroit area subcontractors that they are being gypped by crooked home-building firms.

Attorney Richard Fritz, who represents several hundred subcontractors, has turned over a list of complaints to the prosecutor's office.

Fritz said he receives as high as 30 complaints per day from home owners against subcontractors who refuse to make repairs because they have not been paid by a bankrupt builder.

"Some of these builders make a business out of bankruptcy," Fritz said. "Many of them operate several firms at the same time. They go bankrupt in one firm, cheat the subcontractors and continue in business in another firm."

He said home buyers who seek repairs have no recourse after the builder declares bankruptcy.

Fritz said his firm complained to the Michigan Corporation and Securities Commission last January but never received a formal reply.

Grain Prices Stay About the Same

CHICAGO (AP) — The grain futures market scarcely moved today in early meger dealings on the Board of Trade.

Nearly all price changes were within fractions of previous closes with minus signs a little more numerous than the plus. Old crop corn led the losses.

Brokers said there was very little commercial business apparent. Formosa bought a small amount of soybeans. One trader noted that it now has been more than three weeks since any overseas business has been authorized in corn or oats under the government subsidy plan.

Johnson Urged to Spurn VP

Dixie Senators Hoped He Would Stay On as Sympathetic Leader

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Some Southern Senators asked Lyndon B. Johnson not to accept the Democratic vice-presidential nomination because they feared losing a powerful and sympathetic ally in Congress.

They agreed with the majority of Southern leaders that selection of Johnson by the National Convention to run with Sen. John F. Kennedy would greatly help the ticket in the South this fall.

But they were more concerned with the fact that Johnson, if elected, would be replaced with a non-Southerner and a senator who does not understand their problems as Johnson does.

The Senators tried to convince Johnson that he could help the South more by remaining as majority leader but failed to dissuade him from accepting the nomination.

Johnson's decision came as a surprise to the Southerners, who were convinced that Kennedy would select a Midwest liberal and repudiate them for a third time since the start of the convention.

Plans to put Gov. Luther Hodges of North Carolina and Gov. Ernest Vandiver of Georgia into nomination were canceled at the last minute when it was revealed that Kennedy had chosen his man.

Johnson was elected by the Senate Democrats in 1952 when they were the minority party and the South had enough votes to control election.

MINUTEMAN CARRIER — This unique highway tractor was developed by GMC Truck & Coach Division to provide the power to haul Minuteman ICBM's to underground launching pads. Built under a development sub-contract with Boeing Airplane Co., the unique vehicle is only six feet high and features such innovations as V-12 engine power and air suspension. GMC's contract covers only the tractor-trailer unit, with other sub-contractors furnishing the missile container and erecting devices that complete the missile transporter-erector.

Seven-Axle Rig Uses V-12 Engine

Air Force to Test GMC Missile Carrier

A huge GMC tractor and trailer undercarriage for hauling Minuteman ICBM's to underground launching pads will be flown today from Selfridge AFB to Seattle, Wash., for an Air Force equipment evaluation conference.

The prototype power unit and carriage, developed by GMC Truck and Coach Division under a subcontract awarded by Boeing Airplane Co. of Seattle, will be flown in an Air Force cargo plane, proving it can be airlifted.

Consisting of a four-axle tractor and a three-axle missile trailer, the transport features such innovations as V12 engine power, air suspension, low-silhouette design concept and air conditioning.

While GMC supplies the tractor-trailer unit, other subcontractors provide the missile container and erecting devices.

"As the transport must haul extremely intricate and sensitive equipment," said Calvin J. Werner, vice president of General Motors and general manager of GMC Truck and Coach, "it was agreed that we should cushion the load with the same type air suspension that has worked so effectively in millions of miles of commercial truck and coach operations.

"Another important consideration was the powerplant, as the unit must haul over 100,000 pounds when fully loaded. Our commercial vehicles again provide the key to the factor, with the new GMC Twin Six gasoline truck engine supplying the torque and horsepower necessary to transport the vehicle and its payload."

The transporter transmits its driving traction to the road through two rear axle. Its other components include a five-speed main transmission and a two-speed auxiliary.

Thirteen inches off the road, the transport cab is only six feet high, premitting the missile container to project over the cab roof. This reduces over-all vehicle length and increases vehicle maneuverability.

The first prototype, en route to Boeing for an evaluation session with Air Force officials, will be followed by several similar tractor-trailer units and additional carriages for hauling the Minuteman's first stage engines separately.

As a wheel unit, the transporter has a wide degree of flexibility, permitting it to use the nation's vast network of highways to transport missiles to underground launching silos.

A multistage, solid propellant missile with a range of more than 6,300 statute miles, the Minuteman will carry a nuclear warhead and its speed will be more than 15,000 m.p.h.

The Minuteman is under development for the Strategic Air Command by the Air Research and Development Command's Ballistic Missile Division. Boeing is weapon system integrator for the ICBM, including responsibility for assembly, test and launch control systems.

Kennedy to Open Fire by Whopping Rally Talk

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Sen. John F. Kennedy asserts his new prestige as presidential candidate tonight and triggers an attack aimed at recapturing the White House for the Democrats.

Kennedy opens fire in a speech accepting his party's nomination at a whoop-it-up rally in the big open-air Los Angeles Coliseum.

Before issuing the call to battle, he had to shape up the organization to carry out the election campaign.

But it was known that the place was the opulent Beverly Hills preserve of former movie star Marion Davies. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Kennedy, the candidate's parents, have stayed there during the convention.

Kennedy's office later said the dinner group included the elder Kennedys, TV-movie actor and Mrs. Peter Lawford, Mr. and Mrs. Sargent Schriver, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kennedy, Lem Billings of New York and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fay of San Francisco. Mr. and Mrs. Ted Kennedy attended the last convention business session to see Johnson nominated vice president.

Mrs. Lawford and Mrs. Schriver are Kennedy's sisters, and Robert and Ted are brothers. Billings was a Harvard classmate of the nominee and Fay a fellow PT boat commander in World War II.

Ex-Ambassador Kennedy had stayed out of sight in Los Angeles during the convention at which his son won the nomination.

DIM IT, DARN IT

Overtaking another car at night, be sure you switch to your lower beam. Your upper beam would be reflected in the rearview mirror of the car ahead and glare in the eyes of its driver. This may result in his changing pace or moving erratically in his lane, hence interfering with your plan to pass. Its unpleasantness is neatly expressed by the rear bumper strip which reads "Dim it, Darn it."

Drowns on Roof Trying to Clear Plugged Drain

Albert Elgen, 49, an apartment superintendent, went to the roof of his building Thursday after a tenant complained that water from a heavy downpour was leaking into her apartment.

Elgen discovered the drain was plugged and about 1½ feet of water was on the roof.

He removed the top of the drain and plunged both arms in up to the elbows in an effort to clear clogging debris. The pipe became unclogged and the suction pulled Elgen's face into the water.

Contestant, 84, Drops Mrs. America Event

CHEYENNE, Wyo. (AP)—Mrs. Stella E. Phipps, an 84-year-old grandmother, figured she might have won the Wyoming eliminations for the Mrs. America contest.

She entered the contest but dropped out shortly before the event.

Her reason?

"It is my duty to take care of my husband, who is 90," she explained. "If I feel any younger next year, I might enter the contest then."

Bolivia has a compulsory military service beginning at 19 year of age.

L. W. Harrelson Faces Warrant

Taylor Issues Order to Charge Falsifying of Nominating Petitions

Prosecutor George F. Taylor said today he was issuing an order for a warrant charging Leaun W. Harrelson with falsifying some nominating petitions of David Kaufman, candidate for probate judge.

Taylor said Harrelson would be charged with violation of a 1958 election law which prohibits a person from signing the name of another on a nominating petition.

The charge is a misdemeanor, which could result in a 90-day jail sentence, $100 fine or both.

No evidence of a felony could be found, the prosecutor said.

HANDWRITING ANALYZED

An analysis yesterday by a state police handwriting expert of Harrelson's signature on an arrest card with those signatures on nominating petitions showed the circulator to be Harrelson, Taylor said.

Harrelson, the son of Pontiac Teamsters President Leaun Harrelson, will be sought by State Police Detective Tom McPhail.

Taylor emphasized that three members of Pontiac Local 614 who circulated the petitions for the 27-year-old Detroit attorney "are in no way involved."

Although he was first believed by Taylor to be the circulator of the petitions, the elder Harrelson had denied any part.

He said it "must have been my son."

Kaufman, too, Taylor said, is in no way involved.

The resident of Southfield still had sufficient valid signatures among his petitions to qualify for a place on the nonpartisan primary ballot.

Settled Strike to Cut Output

Week's Car Production Will Be Held Down by Ford Walkout

DETROIT (AP) — Shutdowns at eight Ford plants through supply shortages caused by a now-settled stamping plant strike will be a prime factor in holding domestic auto production to an estimated 104,400 units this week, Automotive News reports.

However, the trade paper added, auto production is up 5.1 per cent from last week when the Ford strike, vacations and the holiday held output to 89,881 units. This week's production also compares with the 127,502 cars built in the same week last year.

Automotive News said compact car production is estimated at 21,902 units, or 21 per cent of total assemblies this week. This is compared with 24.4 per cent on total assemblies of 21,941 last week.

The nation's truck makers will turn out an estimated 19,670 units this week, compared with 14,982 last week and 27,097 during the comparable week last year.

The Canadian industry, with Chrysler down for changeovers, will turn out an testimated 6,680 cars 1,413 trucks this week, compared with 4,518 cars and 1,111 trucks last week. Canadians produced 9,383 vehicles during the week ended July 18, 1959.

MSUO Receives Total of $37,047 for Scholarships

Michigan State University Oakland has received a total of $37,047 in scholorship donations, it was announced today at the MSU Board of Trustees meeting in East Lansing.

The money will be used to provide 130 scholarships for students in September.

In addition, the library at MSUO received a $3,600 gift from the Dow Chemical Co. to purchase a major scientific collection.

The collection is a full set of each of the four major chemical journals and constitutes a complete record of the advance in the field of chemistry since 1900.

Polaris Successful in Final Tune-Up

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —A Polaris was fired successfully from an underground tube early today in the missile's final tuneup for key launchings from a nuclear submarine.

The Navy announced the missile achieved all objectives in scooting more than 1,000 miles down the Atlantic missile range. A major goal was to check the performance of the Polaris' sensitive interial guidance system.

In Memoriam 2

IN MEMORY OF LILLIE GASKINS, who passed away July 15, 1955.
I sigh sometimes to see thy face,
But since this cannot be;
I'll leave thee to the care of him,
Who watcheth thee and me.
—Sadly missed by husband, Carl; daughters, Thelma and Lillian, and family.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF STUART Harold Evans who passed away 5 years ago, July 15, 1955:
You are not forgotten loved one,
Nor will you ever be;
As long as life and memory last,
We will remember thee.
We miss you now,
Our hearts are sore,
As time goes by,
We miss you more
Your loving smile
Your gentle face
No one can fill your vacant place.
Loved and sadly missed by Judy and Sharon.

GE 10 ft refrigerator, electric stove. Thor washer. 21" TV, power lawn mower, all other furniture, some dishes and miscellaneous. Willis D. Lefurgy, Administrator. Bud Hickmott, Auctioneer, OA 8-2159, Oxford.

LAST WEEK
During last week's auction a note was handed to me. I read it, put my hand up and said "People, some gentleman has lost a billfold containing $50 in it and is prepared to offer $10 for its recovery. Came a voice from the back, $11!" Well, good people you can get good buys by bidding on all sorts of furniture, appliances, bric-a-brac, etc., etc., or bring what you don't need to the sale and let us sell it for you.

This Saturday or Sunday night at 7:30 P.M. at 8505 Dixie Hwy., across from St. Jude Motel, 2 miles north of Junction 15 on US-10. Lunchroom open and free door prizes. Harvey Parker, auctioneer.

OLD TIME COUNTRY AUCTION, Saturday July 23, 1960, at 10 a.m., antiques, appliances, tools, farm implements, bake sale. Stanley Bates Auctioneer, VFW Post 3952, 2652 Loon Lake Rd., Wixom, Michigan, MA 4-3901.

SATURDAY, JULY 16 AT 1 P.M. Old fashioned Country Auction House is loaded again!! Dining room, living room, and kitchen furnishings, maple bunk bed frames, several single beds. Lionel electric train and a few good bicycles. Interesting dishes and misc. Sam Proulx, auctioneer at Oxford Community Auction, M 24 just north of Oxford.

Long on Military

General Shy on Politics Gets Thorny Congo Job

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP) — The white general with the job of restoring discipline to the Congo's mutinous Negro army is a soldier-diplomat with a record of keeping out of politics and sticking to his military task.

"I know nothing about politics," said Maj. Gen. Carl Carlsson von Horn in 1958 when he became chief of the U. N. Truce Supervision Commission in Jerusalem, assigned the thorny job of trying to mediate frontier troubles between Israel and its Arab neighbors.

"He is as neutral as only a Swede could bear to be," commented an Arab journalist after one of the commission's meetings.

The Israelis on occasion criticized Von Horn as too neutral; they wanted him to take a stronger stand against what they feel is continued Arab harassment. But he won the reputation of a man who stuck close to his job.

Von Horn, 57, today as he leaves to head the U. N. military forces in The Congo, has had international assignments dating back 17 years.

In 1943 he began two years as assistant to Count Folke Bernadotte in the Swedish diplomat's negotiations with the Nazis to gain freedom for imprisoned Jews. Bernadotte later went to Palestine as U. N. mediator and was assassinated by Jewish terrorists.

After World War II Von Horn became chief of the Swedish General Staff's communications division. In 1947 he served as observer with the British and American occupation forces in Germany. Next he became Swedish military attache in Oslo, then in Copenhagen.

In 1950 Von Horn was promoted to colonel and named commander of a regiment in southern Sweden. In 1957-58 he was chief of Sweden's Southern Defense District. Then came the job in the Middle East and promotion to major general.

GEN. CARL VON HORN

Newport Favorite Stopping Place With Presidents

NEWPORT, R. I. (AP)—This one time society summer capital is likely to continue to be a stopping place for presidents if the Democratic nominee, Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts becomes chief of state.

Hammersmith Farm, across a broad meadow from the present Eisenhower summer White House at Ft. Adams, is the home of Mrs. Kennedy's mother, Mrs. Hugh D. Auchincloss and Mrs. Kennedy customarily spends up to a month here each year. Kennedy himself, frequently comes for weekends.

However, Mrs. Auchincloss said that her son-in-law is devoted to his present summer home at Hyannisport on Cape Cod and considers it unlikely that he will give it up.

If Kennedy is elected and visits Newport, he will be the 17th president to do so.

China Savors Cuban Sugar

Commie Trade Group Expected to Make Bid for Part of Sales Slack

HAVANA (AP) — A high-level Chinese Communist trade mission was due in Havana today, and Peiping was expected to offer to take up some of the slack in Cuban sugar sales created by the U. S. cutback in purchases.

Red China's deputy minister of foreign commerce, Lu Hsu-chang, is leading a 14-man delegation here for negotiations that may carry important diplomatic overtones.

It was anticipated that the trade talks would lay the groundwork for establishment of full diplomatic relations, which would make Prime Minister Fidel Castro's regime the first nation in the Western Hemisphere to recognize the Peiping government.

When President Eisenhower slashed 700,000 tons off Cuba's sugar quota this year, officials of the Castro government confidently predicted they would find other markets and mentioned the Soviet Union and Red China.

Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev sent Castro a message last weekend offering to buy all the 700,000 tons the United States rejected.

Red China has bought nearly 130,000 tons of Cuban sugar this year through commercial intermediaries in London. China paid 2.91 to 2.93 cents a pound—below the world market prices and the 3.25 cents a pound now set by Cuba as the minimum export price.

Road Aid Measure Signed Into Law

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP)—President Eisenhower Thursday signed a bill authorizing about two billion dollars of federal road aid for the next two years.

The new law authorizes appropriations to be made later, providing the actual funds. The largest authorization is 925 million dollars each year for the primary, secondary or farm-to-market and urban road systems, all of which are financed by the federal government and the stats on a 50-50 basis.

Financing of the remaining 1,000 miles of interstate superhighway system also is authorized by another section of the act. This financing, coming not from general revenues but from the special highway trust fund for the expressway system, could amount to about one billion dollars. Financing of 40,000 miles of the system already has been authorized.

Garner Pleased That Johnson Gets Nomination

UVALDE, Tex. (AP)—Former Vice President John Nance Garner said Thursday he was "pleased and happy" that Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson accepted the Democratic vice presidential nomination.

Garner earlier declined comment on the presidential nomination of Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts.

Garner, who is 91, watched the national convention on television. He packaged two gallon cans of Uvalde honey as gifts to Mrs. Kennedy and Mrs. Johnson.

The only Texan ever to serve as U.S. vice president, Garner had endorsed Johnson for president. Garner served during the first two terms of President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Enthusiasm for Kennedy Postmarked

He asked each postmaster to send him a five-cent airmail post card inscribeing it, "commemorative souvenir of nomination of John Fitzgerald Kennedy at the Democratic National Convention, Los Angeles, 1960."

Both Parties Have Same Procedure

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Both major parties have set up the same procedure for selecting a presidential candidate should their nominee die before the election.

The new standard-bearer would be chosen by a majority vote of the party's national committee.

The national committees are made up of two members from each of the 50 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands and the Canal Zone.

Chain Grocery Merger Called Off for Now

GRAND RAPIDS (UPI) — An announced merger of Meijer Super Markets and Plumb Super Markets—retail grocery firms doing a combined business of 37 million dollars a year in West Michigan, has been called off for the time being, it was announced.

Officials of both firms said in a joint statement that merger plans have been sidetracked "due to a lack or agreement respecting valuations on the exchange of stock." The proposed merger had been announced May 27.

$15,000 Party Honors Steel Boss, McDonald

By EARL WILSON

SOMEWHERE IN LOS ANGELES (I think) — I'm thinking of trying to get into the United Steelworkers' Union.

WILSON

First, Phil Regan, the ex-singing cop, gave a party in honor of the steel boss, which cost about $15,000. Second, McDonald personally discovered that I couldn't wangle a ticket from the Democrats to their $100-a-plate dinner, so he gave me one.

But he demonstrated an understanding of reporters that was positively acute concerning the ticket. He said to me, "I just want to know one thing. Are you going to use this ticket, or are you going to sell it?"

Edward G. Robinson got one of the biggest hands at the Convention—and didn't even have a low-neck gown on, like Janet Leigh did . . . A British reporter twitted Robinson, saying, "I thought with your wealth you'd be a Republican." Nat (King) Cole spoke up: "Our next President is going to be one of the richest men in the world." A bystander said, "Is he speaking of Joe Kennedy?"

ROBINSON

Bobby Gordon wrote back to his N.Y. fiancee, "Don't be jealous because of the name on this stationery. Beverly Wilshire isn't a girl it's a hotel" . . . Robert Sterling and Anne Jeffreys were discussing caucuses. "Isn't the plural of caucus 'cauci'?" asked a purist. Sterling replied: "No! Cauci'd be what you get when you sit around drinking all night."

President to Quit in Paraguay

Report Army Will Take Over, Give Stroessner Chance to Get Out

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP) — The Argentine news agency Telpress reported today that President Alfredo Stroessner of Paraguay is preparing to resign and take his family to Switzerland. The story said he already has booked airplane passage.

There was no confirmation of the dispatch, which came from the news agency's correspondent in Posadas, an Argentine city across the border from Paraguay. It is a center for Paraguayan rebels and a hotbed of rumors.

The Argentine National Maritime Authority confirmed reports from Posadas that a boatload of armed civilians had crossed the Parana River from Argentina to Paraguay, landing at Ordonez.

The Telpress dispatch said Stroessner is yielding power as the result of a reorganization of his Colorado party. The army will take over the government to avoid violence and give Stroessner a chance to get out, the report said.

The army has long been a principal supporter of Stroessner. South America's last dictator. The military has easily quashed a number of recent rebel invasions from Argentina, but there has been considerable evidence of dissatisfaction with Stroessner's rule, even from within his own party.

Scientists Work on Machine to Aid in Shock

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Scientists here are working on a portable machine—similar to the big heart-lung device used now in heart operations which could save victims of severe shock.

Kennedy to Accept Dem Call Tonight

MICHIGAN SCREAMS "NO!" — Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan shouts "No!" during the voice vote Thursday night in Los Angeles on the motion to suspend the rules and make the nomination of Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson as the Democratic Party's vice presidential candidate unanimous. Gov. LeRoy Collins of Florida, presiding, ruled the ayes had it by a two-thirds majority and proclaimed Johnson the convention's choice.

Johnson Was Bitter Pill for Williams to Swallow

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Michigan Democrats who twice tasted the sweet wine of candidate and platform victory at this national convention swallowed hard today on the ashes of defeat.

Although none would say it in so many words, some obviously felt that they were slickered by the smooth-working political organization of their pick for the presidency, Sen. John F. Kennedy.

It was written in the frozen faces of Mrs. Margaret Price and Thomas H. E. Quimby, the state's national committee members, and other leaders in Johnson's hour of triumph last night.

'TWAS A BITTER PILL

Only last week, Gov. Mennen Williams had described the Texan as a man who would "add nothing" to the national ticket. He earlier had singled out Johnson alone among widely discussed presidential candidates as the one who probably would not carry Michigan.

News and cameramen flocked to the Michigan floor position — and jampacked adjacent aisles — after word spread quickly that Williams viewed the Johnson choice as a "mistake" and had called a caucus.

They swarmed around the governor, who confided he was "sorry and disappointed," and State Chairman Neil Staebler to find out what form Michigan's protest would take.

Earlier in the evening, the governor found it necessary to quiet a false report that the Northerners might walk out of the convention.

Williams interrupted a closed caucus to assure Kennedy emissary that no such thing would happen. The message was delivered to Rep. John McCormack (D-Mass) while photographers clicked their shutters in a narrow passageway behind the convention hall rostrum.

Of Michigan's 102 delegates, about a dozen are Negroes who are sensitive to Johnson as a Southerner — suspect in the area of civil rights expansion, their No. 1 political policy objective.

Williams and Staebler, the party's brilliant, 10-year state chairman, were able to accommodate themselves philosophically to the news about Johnson — but some of the other delegates were not.

The bombshell hit when Robert

Johnson Pulls Big Surprise

Events Leading to Pick Traced

Few Expected Senate Majority Leader to Accept No. 2 Slot

By JOHN CHADWICK

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson, 51, the Texan who is the Democratic leader of the Senate, stood out today as the big surprise of his party's 1960 convention.

The surprise was not that his bid for the presidential nomination failed; rather, it was that he is coming out of the convention as the vice presidential candidate.

Few expected that he would accept second place on the ticket, even if it were offered to him, although he had never slammed the door of this possibility.

But there he was in the glare of the convention hall Thursday night, after his nomination, saying, "I am proud to stand beside and to stand behind the next president of the United States, Jack Kennedy."

What had happened after Kennedy, 43, Massachusetts senator, had soundly trounced him in the battle for the presidential nomination?

The sequence of events, as pieced together from Johnson and from other sources in and out of the Kennedy camp, was clear.

Thursday morning Kennedy sounded Johnson out on taking the No. 2 spot on the ticket but didn't offer it to him.

House Speaker Sam Rayburn, Johnson's fellow Texan and longtime political mentor, was opposed to Johnson's running for vice president, fearing it might be a dead end for him politically.

Johnson apparently let Kennedy know this because a short time later Kennedy slipped away to Rayburn's nearby hotel suite.

In the end Rayburn was won over, but not without some reluctance.

After seeing Rayburn, Kennedy returned to his own hotel suite where Gov. David L. Lawrence of Pennsylvania, Gov. Michael V. DiSalle of Ohio, Carmine DeSapio of New York and other party leaders who played a major part in Kennedy's nomination were gathered.

A decision was reached that Johnson would strengthen the ticket the most. Other possibilities, such as Sen. Stuart Symington of Missouri, Sen. Harry M. Jackson of Washington, and Gov. Orville L. Freeman of Minnesota, were discarded.

Word of the decision was relayed to Johnson by telephone, but it was only a few minutes before the news was made public, shortly after 4 p. m., that the Texan had agreed to accept the No. 2 spot on the ticket.

Publisher John S. Knight said today that the sequence of events in his copyrighted story on the Democratic vice presidential nomination may have been in error.

He wrote that John F. Kennedy's brother, Robert, had called on Johnson yesterday morning.

AP Photofax

Liberals Groan at Selection of LBJ for VP

Political Choice Aimed at Placating Rebellious Southerners

In a dramatic but highly traditional decision Thursday Kennedy compromised with the political realities of a threatened Southern bolt and wheeled in Johnson, the majority leader of the Senate, as his vice presidential nominee.

But he reaped in return some protests from party liberals who felt they had been influential in his top-place nomination and deserved better of their efforts than a middle-of-the-road vice presidential candidate.

Kennedy could placate these dissenters, however, with a liberal acceptance speech tonight and the choice of one of this group to succeed Paul M. Butler as the party's national chairman. Sen. Henry M. Jackson of Washington was tubbed as a leading candidate for this job.

There was one report, quickly denied by both the Kennedy and Johnson camps, that Johnson was chosen at his own insistence. The report came from John S. Knight, publisher of the Knight newspapers, in a copyrighted story he wrote for his newspapers.

DENIES REPORT

Pierre Salinger, Kennedy's press secretary, described the report as "completely and absolutely untrue."

"Sen. Kennedy asked Sen. Johnson to run, and Sen. Johnson accepted," Salinger added.

A spokesman for Johnson also said there was "absolutely nothing to the story."

Knight wrote that Johnson had passed the word to Sen. Kennedy's brother Robert that, having been defeated by Kennedy for the presidential nomination, he wanted second place and would fight for it on the floor of the convention if necessary.

Confronted with this, Knight said, the presidential nominee agreed to take Johnson. The latter has tossed off some nasty cracks about the Massachusetts senator's immaturity in the face of a demand for world leadership from the presidential office.

FRIENDS BEFUDDLED

Johnson's friends, of course, didn't agree with this version. They frankly couldn't figure why the Senate leader would be willing to trade his position for the vice

LEOPOLDVILLE, The Congo (AP)—Ghana today delivered the first token detachment for the international military force ordered by the U.N. Security Council to the chaotic Congo to help restore order.

Maj. Gen. Henry Alexander, British commander of Ghana's small army, and a small detachment of his troops set up headquarters in a downtown hotel to roars of approval from hundreds of Congolese gathered outside.

"All we are trying to do is to get everybody to put down their arms and not to do anything foolish or anything silly," a Ghanian spokesman said.

Bunche said Thursday he expected perhaps 2,400 troops by early next week from Ghana, Tunisia, Morocco, Guinea and Mali.

Countyrama On Tour in Oakland

An eye-catching red, white and blue Oakland Countyama mobile display was unveiled to the press today.

It is an "education on wheels" for officials seeking to spread the word throughout the county on why their Aug. 2 millage increase vote must be approved to pay for administrative wings at the new courthouse tower unit under construction at the County Service Center.

The display, constructed by the county's maintenance department, Cooperative Extension Service personnel, and Planning Commission, will explain to citizens why a "yes" vote is needed on both primary ballot propositions.

Planners hope to raise four million dollars over four years with a yearly half-mill tax increase on county tax bills. The money would pay for three administrative wings and a supervisors' meeting room to house the county facilities now in downtown buildings.

Traveling with the display to answer questions is State Rep. Lloyd L. Anderson, who works with the county's personnel section when the Legislature is not in session.

The display, towed by a red pickup truck bearing the sign "Oakland Countyama," is expected to visit most county communities in the two weeks left before the vote.

Since it moved out in the area Wednesday, Anderson said the reception has been good. He passes out a brochure to voters explaining the need for the building project.

Under a plastic bubble in the center of one side of the display is a miniature model of the county's 300-acre Service Center, on which officials eventually hope to house all county offices.

Thursday Session Poorly Attended

By JOE HAAS

LOS ANGELES — The advance publicity made last night's session of the convention the poorest attended of them all.

The afternoon papers carried the news that Kennedy had asked Johnson to be his running mate and that Johnson had accepted.

This wiped out any possibility of any contest and made the session look like such a cut and dried affair that the gallery seats were less than one-tenth occupied when it opened.

However, they filled up somewhat later in the evening after a three-hour program or oratory and the usual "thank you" resolutions had been exhausted.

Alabama, first state on the roll call, yielded to Pennsylvania, whose Gov. David Lawrence placed Johnson in nomination, and a five minute demonstration followed.

HAAS

On a voice vote to make Johnson's nomination unanimous the chairman declared it had carried, but the "nos" had yelled so loud that there was an opposition demonstration, but the nomination stood.

Allowing Stevenson to appear before the convention in order to stop the demonstration for him brought protests from the other candidates, who made a demand for equal time.

Watching the thousands of cars on a Los Angeles freeway, a local resident marveled, "where do they all come from?"

I quickly told him that a good portion of them come from Pontiac, Mich., and about 95 per cent of them from a small Michigan area of which Pontiac is the center.

The concrete-bottomed Los Angeles River is as dry as a Detroit expressway but, like some of those depressed expressways in Detroit, becomes a raging torrent after every rain.

The manufacturing of applause has become a science, and is worked here to the 32nd degree.

Monday and Tuesday will be a little warmer.

Says Kennedy Asks Him to Become Chairman

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Sen. Henry M. Jackson of Washington said today that presidential nominee John F. Kennedy has asked him to take the job of Democratic National Chairman.

Jackson said he's considering the plea. The often difficult and thankless post is being vacated Saturday by Paul M. Butler, who has held it for five stormy years.

"No one should enter politics unless he is a good sport," said Jackson, admitting disappointment that he did not get the vice presidential nod.

"I will do whatever Sens. Kennedy and (Lyndon B.) Johnson want me to do. I will do everything that a good sport should do."

If he does take the chairmanship, Jackson said, he probably will hold it only until after the presidential election in November.

U.S. Getting Tough With Russia

Europe's Papers Like Kennedy

British Comment Wants Stevenson as Secretary of State

LONDON, (AP) — European newspapers today described the nomination of Sen. John F. Kennedy as the Democratic presidential candidate as a good choice. In Paris, France-Soir said nomination of Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson for vice president made for party harmony.

The Italian newspaper Telesera said "the most conservative sectors of the party" gather around Johnson. Labor is against him, the newspaper declared.

Some newspapers saw Adlai E. Stevenson in the background as the prop that would insure a successful future in a possible Democratic administration. Stevenson, the Times of London said, "would have made the best president."

British and West European newspapers expressed hope that if Kennedy becomes America's next president he will make Stevenson his secretary of state.

The liberal News Chronicle and the conservative Daily Telegraph in London said Kennedy's youth, ability, ambition and political skill alone would not make a great president.

"What America's friends most want to see," said the London leftwing Daily Mirror, "is an American president who is young enough to belong to the 20th century, young enough to do the job without having to retire to a golf course every other day."

The conservative Morgenbladet of Norway said "it is questionable whether Kennedy, if he is elected, will be able to lead a more constructive foreign policy than the Eisenhower administration."

The United Daily News, one of Nationalist China's influential newspapers, said Kennedy "is not mature in his views on the China problem."

Newspapers in the heavily Roman Catholic Philippine Islands took favorable note, seeing in the nomination a good indication "that the religion issue will not govern the thinking of the American voter."

THE OLD AND THE NEW — Adlai Stevenson, the Democratic nominee for president in 1952 and 1956, met with his successor Thursday afternoon in Los Angeles, Sen. John F. Kennedy. It was a jovial get-together, in which Stevenson pledged his help in beating the Republicans in November, something the former Illinois governor was twice unable to do himself.

Board Announces Scholarship Funds

MSUO Grants Top MSU's

Michigan State University Oakland carried off more than half of the scholarship grants accepted by the MSU Board of Trustees which met in East Lansing yesterday.

Grants accepted totaled $62,854. Of these, $32,709 were earmarked for MSUO.

Chancellor D. B. Varner announced that the monies raised scholarship donations to MSUO to $37,047, contributed by more than 100 donors.

MSUO plans to offer at least 130 scholarships next September, and has a goal of $42,900 in its current drive for scholarship donations.

Varner has promised high schools in Oakland, Macomb and Lapeer counties that no graduate in the upper quarter of his class shall be denied a chance to attend MSUO for lack of money.

A fund drive to enable him to make good on this promise is being conducted by committee of the MSUO Foundation, headed by Mrs. Ralph Norvell, 46 Wenonah Dr.

Varner said most of the grants were small ones, and the amounts offered ranged down to $25. A major contribution, however, was $10,000 from Mrs. Roger M. Kyes of Bloomfield Hills, wife of a General Motors Corp. vice president.

Because of the need for continuing scholarship funds, Varner said, the Foundation committee is planning additional events to start a scholarship trust fund.

Planned for September is a fashion show featuring the work of some of America's top designers and with some nationally known figure in the entertainment world as commentator. A movie premiere is also being discussed, Varner said.

A $3,600 gift from the Dow Chemical Co., accepted formally by the trustees yesterday, has brought a major scientific collection to the MSUO library in a kind of philanthropic triple play.

The interest of the Dow librarian in MSUO led the university to the books, and the seller's interest in MSUO's program helped bring both a bargain price and a new student.

The collection is a full set of each of the major four chemical journals and constitutes a complete record of the advances in the field of chemistry since 1900. The journals are the university's first research collection for its fast-growing library.

The story of the acquisition began when David White, a research marketing specialist in the chemical field, decided he no longer needed these sets.

He notified F. L. Taylor, Dow librarian, who alerted David White, MSUO librarian, that the rare and unusual library find was available.

The sets, bound and indexed, are the Journal of the American Chemical Society, Chemical Abstracts, Industrial and Engineering Chemistry, and Analytical Chemistry.

The collection, filling 62 crates and weighing over a ton, is worth about $12,000, according to Dr. Paul Tomboulian, MSUO chemistry professor. Wwite was willing to accept $3,600 but insisted that Wilder come to New York to examine the publications first.

The result was a two-hour conversation, not about the collection, but about MSUO's emphasis on liberal arts education.

The upshot was that White's son is planning to transfer to MSUO.

That was in April. White agreed to wait until July, the start of a new fiscal year, for his money, because MSUO's purse was empty.

But the Dow firm supplied the $3,600 a few weeks later.

The books are now in the process of being catalogued and shelved.

Nice Weather Prevails Over Most of Country

By The Associated Press

Fair and pleasant weather settled over most of the country today.

Cool, dry air pushed thunderstorms out of the East Coast states into the Atlantic after a day of heavy rains accompanied by damaging swift winds in some areas. Showers and thundershowers generally were confined to the Gulf Coast and scattered activity over the plains states.

The brisk Canadian air that has been bringing autumn temperatures in mid-July pushed deep into the midcontinent. Temperatures dropped into the 40s once again in the upper Great Lakes region, and nighttime reading ran 10 to 20 degrees lower than the previous night in the Appalachians and parts of Kentucky, Tennessee, and Arkansas.

President Ready to Strike Back

Herter Will Use Strong Words in Coming U.N. Battle With Reds

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States, under heavy Soviet pounding, has largely abandoned its postsummit policy of seeking businesslike negotiations with Moscow and is switching to a get-tough strategy of its own.

Evidence of this change is already becoming apparent. It will be fully developed at the United Nations next week when the United States and the Soviet Union join battle over charges and countercharges of threats to world peace.

Secretary of State Christian A. Herter and his top aides are reported to be preparing a massive verbal assault on Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's activities since he torpedoed the summit conference at Paris two months ago.

President Eisenhower is described by officials here as fed up with Khrushchev's incessant campaign of accusations against the United States. He apparently feels that Khrushchev's hostile policy leaves no recourse except to strike back hard.

LINE TO BE TOUGH

Two moves by the State Department Thursday reflected the developing new tough line. The department announced a note to Moscow calling off indefinitely negotiations scheduled for next Monday on an air transport agreement between the two countries.

This step was blamed on "recent Soviet actions and utterances" which, the department said, have poisoned the atmosphere for negotiation.

At the same time the department issued a new warning to Khrushchev to keep his hands off Latin American countries, particularly Cuba. It denounced him for claiming that the 137-year-old Monroe Doctrine of America for the Americans is out of date and for trying to scuttle the U.S.-Cuban treaty covering the American naval base at Guantanamo, Cuba.

Khrushchev, the department asserted, is trying to establish a "Bolshevik doctrine" under which he would make use of "Soviet military power in support of Communist movements anywhere in the world."

With the shelving of the prospective negotiations on a U.S.-Soviet air agreement, the question has arisen here whether the negotiations among the United States, Britain and the Soviet Union on a treaty barring nuclear weapons tests will be continued at Geneva.

N-TESTS EXCEPTION

State Department officials said Washington has no intention of breaking off the nuclear test conference and they doubt that Moscow will do so. This three-power negotiation therefore stands as the only important exception to the general collapse of East-West diplomacy.

On the Allied side, the intensification of the Cold War may call for greater efforts at coordination and tightening of Allied unity in the face of Khrushchev's mounting hostility.

One such move is the beginning of consultations here between the United States and Britain on possible modification of agreements involved in the use of U. S. air bases in Britain. Washington officials said the talks are concerned entirely with possible improvement in coordination of the use of the bases.

ATMOSPHERE EASES

Arrival of the first tiny U. N. detachment seemed to create a new and more relaxed atmosphere. Long lines of Belgian refugees in automobiles still waited to take the ferry across to Brazzaville, but there was an easier air about the city.

Belgian troops were still in control of the city and had fanned out over a large part of the country to which Belgium had given independence only two weeks ago.

Belgium has more than 6,000 soldiers in The Congo, including 4,000 holdovers from colonial days by agreement with the new republic and 2,000 others flown in when the disorders broke out after independence. The U. N. resolution authorizing the special force calls for their withdrawal, but top Belgian officials said only the additional men sent since trouble broke out would be pulled out of the country. The rest, they said, would be pulled back to the bases retained by Belgium after The Congo was given independence.

The Congolese government of President Joseph Kasavubu and Premier Patrice Lumumba faced a renewed threat from the rich province of Katanga, whose provincial assembly Thursday night approved secession from the central government and demanded recognition of "all free-world countries" as an independent territory.

Provincial President - Premier Moise Tshombe warned the United Nations that the U. N. task force being rushed to The Congo would not be admitted to Katanga. He cabled U. N. headquarters in New York that all was quiet in the province with the aid of Belgian troops and invited Bunche to visit Katanga and see for himself how peaceful things are there.

Kennedy to Accept Dem Call Tonight

presidency which, even in its advanced status, is a job in which one man stands in preparedness for another's death.

House Speaker Sam Rayburn of Texas, who urged Johnson not to take second place, shook his head and sighed a little sadly at the outcome which was formally ratified by the Democratic convention Thursday night.

Rayburn's explanation was that Johnson had been offered the spot and replied in simple language that he couldn't reject any demand for service his party or his country laid upon him. Johnson himself offered no enlightening explanation.

Whatever his motives, by the introduction of Johnson's name on the ticket Kennedy appeared to have softened a movement to deny him the vote of several Southern states in the Electoral College.

BIG SHOW TONIGHT

Kennedy could deal with the complaining liberals of the party. They had no organizations to deny him the electoral vote of any state. He could pitch for their support by the liberal utterances that he planned for tonight's extravaganza.

Tonight's formal acceptance ceremonies take the form of a big show with its Hollywood stars and premiere lights, its thundering thousands of spectators and its nation-spanning coverage by television, radio and the newspapers.

Johnson has been a target for Americans for Democratic Action, the liberal appendage of the party. He has been criticized by Chairman Butler for ignoring the recommendations of the Democratic Advisory Council.

Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan, a preconvention supporter of Kennedy, said his delegation feels the nomination of Johnson was a mistake.

Kennedy, the presidential nominee's campaign manager for the nomination, and Ken O'Donnell, the candidate's liaison man, showed up in the early afternoon outside Williams' Statler-Hilton Hotel Suite.

"Jack wants Lyndon," was the word.

Later, delegates heard that Jack had wanted him right along — even while Williams and other liberals, and non-liberals, joined in what their aides viewed as a series of Democratic summit conferences in Kennedy headquarters in the Biltmore Hotel.

The idea had spread that perhaps the veep nomination would go to Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo) who at one time had 15 delegates, each with one half vote, committed to his candidacy.

Statler Hotel, Williams gave reassurance that he was "given to understand" that Johnson would campaign on the ultra-liberal platform adopted two days ago, a document marked by a strong civil rights plank sharply civiticized by many Southerners.

August Scholle, state AFL-CIO head and a delegation vice chairman, once again reacted — apparently — as a hard-headed realist.

"Texas didn't like what happened yesterday (Wednesday), we didn't like it today. That's the way it goes in politics," he said.

Sen. Phillip A. Hart, a delegate, struck a tight-lipped pose when asked for comment. Hart said he would let Williams talk on the subject.

Funds to Furnish Library Sought in Letter Drive

BIRMINGHAM — Letters requesting contributions to furnish additional equipment for the new Baldwin Public Library have been sent out this week by the Friends of the Library to more than 1,700 area families.

The Friends of the Library are hoping to raise $40,000 for the purchase of additional books, a public address system, file cabinets, book stands and drapes for the expanded facility.

The fund raising committee is headed by Herbert H. Gardner, chairman; J. L. Cameron, president of the Friends of the Library, and James E. Tobin, Baldwin Library Board president.

When the City Commission budgeted $187,000 for the expansion only the bare essential were provided for, said Cameron.

The city was able to expand the library without raising taxes which kept allowances for additional furnishings and equipment at a minimum, he said.

Albert Eigen, 49, an apartment superintendent, went to the roof of his building Thursday after a tenant complained that water from a heavy downpour was leaking into her apartment.

Eigen discovered the drain was plugged and about 1½ feet of water was on the roof.

He removed the top of the drain and plunged both arms in up to the elbows in an effort to clear clogging debris. The pipe became unclogged and the suction pulled Eigen's face into the water.

Drop Charges Against Owner of the 'Cave'

Municipal Judge Maurice E. Finnegan yesterday dismissed a charge of permitting after-hours dancing against a part-owner of the Cave of the Ninth Cat, a beatnik coffee house.

Judge Finnegan said that police officers who arrested Jack D. Christenson, 25, of 12763 Klingensmith Rd., Bloomfield Township, for allegedly violating a 1 a.m. city curfew on dancing in public establishments, twice failed to appear for trial.

The "debate" between Johnson and Kennedy was more of a kissing match, its principal impact being to make both delegations late in reaching their seats.

Hospital Board Elects Clarkson Third Time

The Pontiac General Hospital Board of Trustees last night re-elected James Clarkson to an unprecedented third term as Board chairman.

William P. Babcock was named vice chairman, Mrs. Edna P. Roush was re-elected secretary and Robert A. Armstrong, treasurer.

The high post was given Clarkson, executive vice president and secretary of Pontiac Federal Savings & Loan Assn., even though he plans to resign from the Board when he moves out of the city to Waterford Township this fall.

Mrs. Roush, head of the Board's nominating committee, said it is expected that Babcock will be named chairman when Clarkson retires.

It was the first time since founding of the Board in 1952 that a trustee has been elected to three consecutive one-year terms.

Mrs. Roush explained the nominating committee's choice by noting that Clarkson presently is heading negotiations with the Oakland County Department of Social Welfare for an annual adjustment in welfare rates.

"We believed it would be better not to change horses in the middle of the stream," she said.

Clarkson, who had already announced he did not seek the post again, changed his plans.

He put away a farewell speech he had ready.

The speech cited the long list of accomplishments in the past two years.

"Let me just thank everyone for their support, confidence, enthusiasm and plain hard work," he said.

"The time is coming very soon when we'll have the best hospital in Michigan."

Clarkson joined the Board in January, 1957 as treasurer. He was elected chairman in 1958 and 1959.

Babcock and Mrs. Roush have served on the Board since its 1952 inception.

Babcock was chairman in 1955 and 1956 and vice chairman in 1958.

Mrs. Roush has been secretary since 1952, except for a stint as vice chairman in 1957.

Appointed to the Board in October, 1958, Armstrong has been treasurer since 1959.

Students Devour Text at Harvard

Six-Session Course on 'Botany in Boston' Held in Restaurants

BOSTON (UPI) — Classrooms were French, Swedish, Chinese, Syrian and Italian restaurants. Teacher chewed his lecture. The students ate the text. And homework was a polite belch.

But this was no cooking school. It was an adult education course conducted by Harvard University's famed Arnold Arboretum. And it bears the unlikely title, "Botany in Boston II."

The class was served in courses instead of the course being made of classes. There were six sessions. The first was a lecture by the instructor, Arboretum Director Dr. Richard A. Howard, on "Botany is Your Grocery Store."

His topic served to bridge the gap between Botany I, a relatively dull study of plants, and some of Boston's most distinguished foreign specialty restaurants.

The students, in this case 15 adults, met in a succession of restaurants, five in all. There are expanding waistlines — and the end result of the course is "wider knowledge of the source, evolution, development, cultivation, preparation and consumption of plants" from the weed to the dining room table stage.

President Says 'No Comment' on Dem Ticket

...orus Members to ...ld September Tea ...Library

...ntiac Women's Chorus mem...s held their first meeting of ...new season Wednesday at the ...ne of Mrs. Frank Weger on ...rm road, Waterford Twp.

* * *

Under the direction of George Scott, the singing group's slogan for the 1960-61 season is "Music to

Past president Mrs. Rutherford Thomas and director Mr. Scott also met with the group.

Pontiac Department of Parks and Recreation sponsors the chorus.

Stars Display Fashions at Convention

In an unexpected fashion show red-carpeting the Democratic national convention in Los Angeles, Hollywoods' top stars making up the official Arts Committee passed in review before the assembled convention and wide TV audience, dressed in their finest.

Sleeveless, low - neck, black and beige lace and flowered silks were the choice of Janet Leigh, Shirley McLaine, Shelley Winters and Rosemarie DeCamp.

An extremely low square neckline in back was the feature of Janet Leigh's flowered black knitted gown. Inger Stevens looked striking in a striped chiffon with dark ground and low-V neck.

Another fashion note of interest was struck at the opening as the entourage of Golden Girls, official hostesses from California, marched out in fresh white shirt dresses with rolled sleeves and charming white straw skimmers with wide red bands.

Shower Fetes Mrs. Pruente

Hostesses were Barbara Mitchell and Jeannine Garnett.

Rome Borrows Baker Street Theme

Now, Who Snitched Sherlock's Tweeds?

ROME (UPI) — It looked like someone had stolen Sherlock Holmes' coat for a moment when the Italian fall-winter collections began parading in earnest.

When everything settled down after that, couturiers Cesttinaro and Gregoriana followed in that order. It was Gregoriana who appeared to have just come from Baker street.

She presented an illusion of the new cut of sleeve for suits. At first glance, they looked like the old inverness cape, but on closer inspection they proved to be real sleeves, cut wide and fitted to the jacket in a straight line down the front. They went straight down from the collar bone, like the cape, and ended just below the elbow.

The general trend is a short, slim and nearly always comfortable-looking skirt for the suits. The silhouette is natural and flattering. Luciani curves the sleeves to continue the sloping line of the shoulder.

Without altering the soft curved line, cocktail dresses allow for considerably more sparkle in the accessories department. Particularly the glittering shoes the Boutiques are pushing this year.

Perrone's elegant Italian gloves for any hour and every occasion will be a must. The most surprising of his gloves displayed yesterday was a pair sporting lace-like leather ruffles along the seams on the back. The vivid colors in suede and shiny leathers, as well as the subtle shade the Italians call "dirty green" are due for a big play this year.

A bachelor of arts degree in speech and drama from Siena Heights College has been granted Julia Marie Pocs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Pocs of Dick Avenue. Miss Pocs, who minored in art and English, has her secondary teaching certificate and in the fall will begin work on her master's degree in drama at Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C. In college, she was active in the Modern Language Club, Little Theater, orchestra and varsity basketball.

Try Bleaching

Builders' Gyp Probe Mounted

Charge Detroit Firms Have Gone Bankrupt to Avoid Repairs

DETROIT (AP)—The Wayne County prosecutor's office Thursday promised a sweeping probe of complaints by Detroit area subcontractors that they are being gypped by crooked home-building firms.

Attorney Richard Fritz, who represents several hundred subcontractors, has turned over a list of complaints to the prosecutor's office.

Fritz said he receives as high as 30 complaints per day from home owners against subcontractors who refuse to make repairs because they have not been paid by a bankrupt builder.

"Some of these builders make a business out of bankruptcy," Fritz said. "Many of them operate several firms at the same time. They go bankrupt in one firm, cheat the subcontractors and continue in business in another firm."

He said home buyers who seek repairs have no recourse after the builder declares bankruptcy.

Fritz said his firm complained to the Michigan Corporation and Securities Commission last January but never received a formal reply.

He said, however, that Commissioner Lawrence Gubow told him the law was too weak to permit prosecution.

SAD STEVENSONS — Adlai Stevenson and members of his family glumly watch a television screen as Democratic Convention delegates select Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts as their presidential nominee Wednesday. Stevenson got 79½ votes before the delegation made Kennedy's selection unanimous. GMI to Grant Degrees in Electrical Engineering

Baccalaureate degrees in electrical engineering will be granted by General Motors Institute for the first time in 1963, James E. Goodman, chairman of the Institute's board of regents and vice president of General Motors, announced today.

The school's regents voted to grant the electrical engineering degree in addition to the mechanical and industrial engineering degrees presently awarded.

"The addition of the electrical engineering curriculum is the result of the growing demand from General Motors plants for young men educated in this field," Guy R. Cowing, GMI president, pointed out.

The new curriculum is directed toward three important areas of need for an electrical engineer in General Motors: product design, plant engineering and process engineering.

COMMON CLASSES FIRST

Courses in all the five - year engineering curricula are common in the first two years at GMI.

The electrical engineering course, like those of mechanical and industrial engineering, will begin in the third year. Students entering the new program as juniors this fall will qualify for their electrical engineering degrees in 1963.

Canada Will Switch 2 Officers to Congo

OTTAWA (AP) — Prime Minister Diefenbaker announced Thursday Canada has agreed to transfer two officers from the United Nations emergency force in the Middle East to help with administrative problems in the Congo.

He also told the House of Commons the government is "responding favorably" to suggestions that Canada supply planes, now serving the emergency force on the Israeli-Arab borders, for transport duty in the newly independent African nation.

The prime minister said Canada also "may be able to make an effective contribution" to the new republic in supplying food.

U.S. Calls Off Red Air Talks

Says Poor Diplomatic Ties Make Reciprocal Service Inadvisable

MOSCOW (AP)—Citing the current poor state of diplomatic relations between the United States and the Soviet Union, the U. S. government has called off talks on opening direct commercial air service between Moscow and New York.

The Russians long have sought a direct air link with the United States to show off their big new turboprop airliners. A delegation headed by the director of Aeroflot, the Soviet air service, had been waiting to leave for Washington to start the talks Monday.

Any agreement will be reciprocal, with a U.S. airline getting rights to operate into Moscow. Pan American is the only U.S. airline that has indicated a desire for the route, U.S. Embassy officials said.

WAIT BETTER TIES

The U. S. note said the negotiations should await an improvement in relations. It was delivered Thursday after a series of Soviet blasts at the activities of U.S. military planes and Soviet accusations that the United States is fomenting trouble in The Congo, new African Republic.

The Soviet government, in notes delivered Thursday to the United States, Britain, Canada, Denmark, France and Norway, accused Western planes of deliberately and frequently buzzing Soviet merchant ships on the high seas. The Russians said this endangered the ships and violated shipping rights in international waters.

The note to the United States accused American planes of more than 200 incidents over a period of years.

Cambodia is a constitutional monarchy in southern Asia which, with Vietnam and Laos, comprised the former associated states of French Indo-China.

Convention Mirrors Current Age When Attention Flees

By BOB THOMAS

LOS ANGELES (AP)—This has been called the age of inattention, and home viewers of the 1960 Democratic National Convention might say amen to that.

"Clear the aisles! We must have order! Will the delegates take their seats!"

Those were the most-heard words at the Sports Arena, more heard than even "the man who" and "the next president of the United States."

All three networks report that they have received many complaints from viewers about the rudeness to speakers at the convention. Citizens said they were shocked to see delegates and spectators talking, reading, and even sleeping while distinguished Americans were addressing them.

COLLINS GAVELS AWAY

Convention Chairman LeRoy Collins has almost gaveled a hole in the pounding block in an effort to gain order.

Why don't they pay attention?

"This is just an extension of the House or the Senate," explained convention director J. Leonard Reinsch, who was not alarmed at the situation. "When a man is speaking in the Senate, you see his colleagues reading newspapers. When there is something that everyone wants to hear, you get quiet."

At first, the TV commentators blamed the noisiness on the acoustics in the brand-new Sports Arena. But on Wednesday night something strange happened. Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt came to the podium, and the entire arena hushed. She almost could have spoken without a loudspeaker.

MORE THAN HABIT

1. The business of politics. It goes on all the time on the convention floor. Politicians gab and shake hands and confer and take notes with casual disregard of what is happening on the podium.

2. The quality of the speeches. TV viewers have learned anew that they can't look at national conventions with the expectation of hearing much that is fresh and incisive and well-spoken. Delegates are even more immune to oratory. Even when they get a distinguished speech, as some considered Gov. Collins' talk as he accepted the chairmanship, they don't listen. Collins himself later expressed his disappointment at the lack of attention.

3. The immensity of the meeting. The mere vastness of the Sports Arena makes it difficult for anyone to hold the interest of 15,000 human beings.

4. The TV crews. The networks themselves must take some of the blame for the hoopla on the convention floor. They are competing fiercely with each other. Their portable cameras, called creepy-peepies, prowl the aisles for news beats. To this date, no living politician has passed up a chance to appear on TV.

But the basic fault may lie, as some social observers claim, with an era in which it's hard to get anyone to concentrate on anything. Folks are dinned on all sides to buy deodorants, get out the vote, drive safely, etc., so that they shut their minds to all but the most urgent appeals.

State Rabid Animal Total Rises to 41

LANSING (UPI)—The Health Department said Thursday four rabid skunks found near Lansing last week made a total of 41 animals with the disease reported so far this year—nearly double the 23 found in the same period last year.

The disease has been widely scattered throughout the state this year, and no pattern of infection has been discovered, the department said.

Pet owners should see that their dogs or cats are vaccinated promptly against the disease, the department said.

Pontiac Press Photo

A REASON TO SMILE—Jack Burke had every reason to grin broadly when Pontiac Press photographer Ed Vanderworp snapped this picture. Burke had just completed a three-under-par 69 round in the 1st round of the Western Open golf tournament at Western Golf and Country Club to share the lead with three other touring pros.

10 Other Golfers Tied at 70 After 18 Holes Over Western Links

By BILL CORNWELL

DETROIT — Two's company, three's a crowd and four's a mob — especially if you're a professional golfer trying to win a prestige-loaded tournament.

There was a four-man "mob" showing the way here today as the $25,000 Western Open Golf Championship entered its second 18-hole round at Western Golf and Country Club.

The four front-runners each shot a three-under-par 69 in Thursday's opening 18 hole round for a one stroke advantage.

Setting the pace and sharing the lead were:

Bob Rosburg, the chubby ex-Sanford University 2nd baseman who uses the baseball bat grip.

Fred Hawkins, a former U.S. Ryder Cup golfer who has seldom won anything on the circuit except money.

If these golfing nomads were entertaining any notions that they were safe from harm in their present positions — which is very doubtful — a look at the scoreboard must have quickly dispelled all such ideas.

The pack of wolves nipping at their heels was almost as big and mean as the Los Angeles Sports Arena where the Democrats are holding their convention.

Ten touring pros, among them Wally Burkemo of Franklin Hills and former Knollwood pro Pete Cooper, were right behind the four co-leaders with 70s.

Another 14 golfers were deadlocked with 72s, even par over the 36-36 course. In this group were 1957 Western Open champion Doug Ford, Indianapolis pro Charles Matlack and Jackson's Dave Hill.

Souchak nearly kicked away his chances of repeating with a dismal 41 on the front nine, but he recovered brilliantly on the back side by shooting 33 for a 74 to remain in contention.

The muscular Souchak had two double bogies and a bogey going out, touched off by two out-of-bounds tee shots on No. 4, but he rallied coming home with birdie putts of 8, 6 and 7 feet.

Rosburg, who will defend his National PGA crown next week at Akron, O. carded 33-36. He birdied Nos. 1, 5 and 8, never had a bogey and posted 10 straight pars.

Burke, a freckle-faced redhead from Beaumont, Tex., muffed an excellent chance to lead the field all by himself. "Butch" was four behind par when he came to the 420-yard 17th hole where he missed the green and took a bogey five.

Burke stroked beautifully on the carpet, canning birdie putts of 15, 10, 20 and 20 feet plus an 18-incher. Hawkins, whose card went 36-33, also putted well as he sank birdie putts of 10, 10 and 6 feet. He birdied the par-five 15th by getting home in two.

The battle resumed today over Western's tricky 6,800-yard course with the low 70 and ties qualifying for Saturday's 3rd 18-hole session.

A 2nd cut will be made Saturday night with the low 50 plus ties qualifying for the 72-hole distance. There's a $5,000 purse waiting for the winning pro on Sunday.

HIS MASTER'S HELPER — Russ Armstrong, Western Golf and Country Club member spreads his arms as he marshals the crowd on the 18th hole in Thursday's opening round of the Western Open golf tournament. Helping him, and wearing an appropriate hat, is his St. Bernard dog, Kris. Kring, Kris is six years old, weighs 185 pounds and appropriately docile.

SPORTS

Andonian, Caplin, McMasters in Semis

HONOLULU (AP) — Regardless of the outcome of today's 36-hole semifinals in the 54th annual National Amateur Public Links golf tournament, tomorrow's 36-hole final will be a battle of age against youth and possibly an all-Michigan affair.

Victors in yesterday's quarter-finals were Verne Callison, 41, a Sacramento, Calif., tavern owner; Mike Andonian, 34, a Pontiac, Mich., math teacher; Bob McMasters, 25, a Royal Oak, Mich., salesman, and Ty Caplin, Plymouth, Mich., a 23-year old student at Michigan State University who "played hookey" from summer school to make the tournament.

Callison, who ranks as one of the best amateurs in California, plays Andonian in today's first semi-final, rated the top match of the day.

Andonian traveled the roughest road to the semifinal qualification, beating two of the three co-medalists. He knocked out Richard Hopwood of Phoenix, Ariz., in the second round, and eliminated Harlan Stevenson of Long Beach, Calif. in the third. In the fourth round he trimmed over Felix Claveran, Stockton, Calif., 3 and 2. Claveran had just ousted Don Essig III of Indianapolis, the 1957 champion, 1-up.

McMasters, beaten by Andonian in a playoff for the last Detroit qualifying berth, got to make the trip when one of the original qualifiers withdrew.

Caplin reached the semifinals by disposing of John Calison, Atlanta, 4 and 2, and Floyd Dixon, Memphis, 2-up.

Callison was one down at the turn but erased the disadvantage on the 10th and closed out the match on the 17th.

Andonian also was one down at the turn. He tied his match on the 10th and won two of the next six holes to triumph.

McMasters said he was happy to see Caplin win because it assured Michigan of a name in the finals. McMasters formerly captained Michigan. Caplin attends Michigan State, arch rival of the Wolverines.

Andonian, former Michigan public links champion, is the veteran of the surviving quarter, having participated in six previous tournaments.

"I never got beyond the third round before," he said, "so maybe this is my year now that I have reached the semifinals."

The publinx tourney, incidentally, will be in Michigan next year. It'll be held at Detroit's Rackham Course.

Ex-Lions Will Coach 'Stars

Hart, Creekmur in Key Roles for Prep Duel

All-Oakland County football stars playing in the first annual All-Star game at Wisner Stadium will get tutoring out of the professional ranks even before they get to college gridirons across the country.

The game, which will be played at Pontiac's Wisner Stadium, Friday night, August 19th, will match the North Oakland County All-Stars, coached by former Notre Dame and Detroit Lions' great Leon Hart; against the South Oakland County stars who will be coached by Lou Creekmur, Lions' tackle who made the all-pro team seven times.

Hart and Creekmur will both select ex-pro players or non-active former college or high school players and coaches to assist them.

The coaches will take 33 players into each respective camp and reduce the number to 28 by game time.

Practice sessions for the North County team will be held at Wisner Stadium. The South team is expected to practice at Royal Oak's Memorial Stadium. The coaches will notify the players of the times of the practice sessions.

Training camp drills will get under way approximately two weeks prior to the game. They will be evening sessions.

Graduates from the Pontiac area who have been invited to participate in the game include Charley Brown, Jerry Rush and Isaac Jones of Pontiac Central, Northern boys Bob Hocking, Jim Heisler and Larry Bland and Waterford star Bill Bryce. St. Michael and St. Fred may also be represented.

Stengel May Bench Maris for Opener With Tigers

DETROIT (AP)—Casey Stengel's unusual — for him — midsummer vacation is over and the New York Yankee manager idled away his time conjuring up a surprise for the Detroit Tigers.

It'll be the season's No. 1 shocker if he decides to spring it. The old professor's likely to think about it again and then forget it before the Yanks and Tigers open a four-game series tonight.

Stengel's surprise is this — he might, seriously, he might bench Roger Maris! Or, at least, the thought has passed through his mind.

Maris has been the sensation of baseball this season. What with 27 homers — more than anyone else — 69 RBIs — more than anyone else — and a .320 batting average, he's become the majors' top glamour boy.

But what's he done lately, asks the grizzled Yankee skipper? After all, his batting average has been falling, he hasn't homered since July 5, and he was futile in Wednesday's All-Star game Maris left seven colleagues stranded on base as the National League shut out the American League, 6-0.

* * *

Stengel had a chance to watch Maris' performance Wednesday in the unaccustomed role of a spectator. Casey normally is closer to the All-Star classic as American League manager because the Yankees almost always are defending champions.

Stengel came away grumbling and talking about a rest for Maris.

But he'll undoubtedly wait awhile. Maris is at his dangerous best in Briggs Stadium with its chummy right field wall. Even when Maris was a journeyman player with Cleveland and Kansas City, he tore down the fences in Detroit.

The Tigers, meanwhile, begin the second half of their schedule with a battle for fifth place on their hands. They're tied with Washington, 8½ games behind the front-running Yanks.

Detroit, with Al Kaline and Rocky Colavito just beginning to hit like they should, went into the All-Star recess with two straight victories.

Manager Jimmie Dykes was encouraged by the hitting and wished the team didn't have to lay off for four days. He had the team work out yesterday with All-Stars Kaline and Frank Lary excused.

Dyks has nominated lefty Yankee-baiter Don Mossi (7-6) to hurl against Art Ditmar (7-5) tonight.

Phil Regan, Michigan-reared rookie from Wayland, has been brought up from Denver and joins the club tonight. Paul Foytack, without a victory since April, yesterday was placed on the disabled list. Foytack will be idled for at least 30 days.

Granderson Denies AFL Club Contacts

TEMPLE, Tex. (AP)—Rufus Granderson, a Prairie View College football star, said last night he had not been contacted by any American Football League team trying to get him to pass up playing with Detroit of the National Football League.

Granderson, at his home here, said he had not been bothered by any AFL team, that he was contacted at one time by Dallas but when he informed the Texans he had signed with Detroit they ceased talking to him.

His comments came in the face of a statement from NFL commissioner Pete Rozelle in New York that Granderson had signed with Detroit "yet he is constantly getting telephone calls telling him that Detroit doesn't want him and urging him to sign with the AFL."

Senators Nip Phillies

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Washington Senators scored four runs in the fourth inning and made them stand up for a 4-3 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies in an exhibition game Thursday night before 12,832 spectators at Connie Mack Stadium.

Michigan Horse Wins

Mathews, Buhl, Burdette Shine

Braves Blank Bues 4-0

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Braves' booming bat of Eddie Mathews and the combined pitching of Bob Buhl and Lew Burdette paved the way for a 4-0 Milwaukee Braves victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates Thursday night.

The victory in the playoff of a rained-out Memorial Day game trimmed the first-place Pirates' National League lead over the second-place Braves to four games.

Buhl, a right-hander, gave up a single in each of the first three innings then held the Pirates hitless until the ninth when Bob Skinner and Dick Stuart hit consecutive singles with nobody out. He doubled home one marker in the first, belted a tremendous two-run homer in the fifth, and tripled and scored in the ninth. Mathews' homer, his 17th, cleared the double-deck right field stands at Forbes Field. It was only the seventh time a ball had been hit over the stands and was the second time Mathews had done it.

Mathews drove in three of the Braves runs and scored the fourth.

Burdette came on in relief and got the next three batters to preserve the shutout and Buhl's victory, his ninth compared to three defeats. Buhl walked three and fanned three.

Mrs. LeClair vs. Mrs. Gamble

State Amateur Finals Today

FLINT (UPI) — Mrs. Keith LeClair of Ann Arbor and Mrs. Robert H. Gamble of Detroit met here today in a 36-hole match for the Women's State Amateur Golf Championship.

Mrs. LeClair and Mrs. Gamble, who tied for medalist honors in the 18-hole qualifying round on Tuesday, ousted teen-age rivals in yesterday's semi-final round.

Mrs. LeClair was three over par in the 14 holes she needed to oust 17-year-old Patti Shook, daughter of the South Haven Country Club Professional.

Patti soared nine strokes above regulation figures and suffered a 6-4 setback.

Mrs. Gamble stroked to a 3-2 win over 19-year-old Sharon Miller of Marshall, a Western Michigan University coed. Mrs. Gamble was five strokes over par for 16 holes and Miss Miller was eight over par.

State Netters Still in Action at Western Open

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Two Michigan women are in today's quarter-final round and one women's doubles entry survives in the Western Open tennis tournament.

Sue Hodgman of Kalamazoo gained a spot in today's rounds by defeating Lois Owen of Evansville, Ind., yesterday, 6-2, 6-0. Phyllis Saganski of Hamtramck downed Marilyn Druse of Terre Haute, Ind., 6-0, 6-1.

In the first round of women's doubles, Miss Hodgman and Miss Metzger teamed up to defeat Miss Saganski and Sue Williams of Indianapolis, 6-1, 6-1.

Ray Senkowski of Hamtramck and Rudy Hernando of Modesto, Calif., lost to John Hammill and Rod Mandelstam of South Africa, 8-6, 6-1, in the second round of men's doubles competition.

Doctoring Your Golf

By DR. CARY MIDDLECOFF

PATIENT'S COMPLAINT: "My slice stays with me."

DIAGNOSIS: Hips block the arms.

TREATMENT: A seldom-suspected cause of a persistent slice lies in the position of the body at address. If the hips are forward, the arms may be blocked on the downswing. This forces the arms to go out and around, making the player cut across the ball. That is, it makes the player swing from outside in.

The cure lies in getting the hips out of the way so the arms will have room to come through on the downswing. Simply protrude the rear a little, as shown in the drawning. Move as if you were about to sit down on a high stool.

Another benefit gained from this stance position is that it puts the bulk of the weight back through the heels, as it should be.

The force of the downswing will tend to pull the body forward, causing the player to hit the ball in the heel of the club, unless the pull is counteracted. The way to counteract it is to start the swing with most of the weight on the heels.

Piston Prospects Discuss Contracts

DETROIT (AP)—Nick Kerbawy, general manager of the Detroit Pistons, scheduled contract talks today with Ron Johnson, former Minnesota star and the Pistons' No. 2 choice in the March draft of the National Basketball Assn.

Johnson has offers from other sources, Kerbawy said.

Don Ohl, for whom the Pistons acquired the rights from the Philadelphia Warriors last week, is due in town Monday for a contract session. Kerbawy said Detroit paid in excess of the $500 waiver price for Ohl, a former University of Illinois guard.

Wall Street Just Hovers

Prices had a slight tendency to the upside, with gains of most key stocks fractional. An assortment of pivotal issues was unchanged.

Steel and autos were fairly steady with American Motors recovering about half of the 1-point loss it took yesterday as most active stock. Ford and Chrysler were firm. U.S. Steel, Bethlehem and Jones & Laughlin gained fractions.

The news background contained the encouraging note that the Federal Reserve Board is emphasizing easier credit by making available a high level of "free reserves" for member banks.

Both industrials and rails were at a point in the flow averages where buying support has shown in the past, chartists said. Rails showed narrow changes either way.

Texas Instruments cut an early 3-point rise to a fraction. Gains of about a point were shown by such stocks as Anderson-Prichard Oil, Kayser-Roth, Thiokol, Zenith, Westinghouse Electric and International Paper.

Down a bit were Texaco, Liggett & Myers, International Telephone, U.S. Gypsum, and Raytheon.

Ike and Mac Agree to Talks Now Started

WASHINGTON (AP) — British diplomats were quietly pressing today for tighter safeguards against possible incident-provoking flights by American military planes from English soil without Britain's knowledge.

The White House announced Thursday night that President Eisenhower and Prime Minister Harold Macmillan have agreed to talks now under way between British embassy and State Department officials.

Press secretary James C. Hagerty called the negotiations a review of the present working arrangements on American bases in Britain with a view to "any possible improvements in coordination."

Baltimore & Ohio Lists Railroad Stock in Trade

NEW YORK (AP)—Common and preferred stock of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad whose owners have accepted an exchange offer from the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway was listed for trading Thursday on the New York Stock Exchange.

This means there are two markets for B & O stock—one for the regular shares and one for shares which have been stamped to indicate the owner's assent to the C & O offer.

The exchange declined to reveal the number of shares tendered but said it was sufficient to make a market in the stocks. This would indicate there were at least 30,000 stamped shares of both issues, since this is the minimum required below which an issue may be delisted.

The C & O, seeking to acquire 80 per cent of B & O common and preferred as a prelude to merger, recently offered to exchange one share of its common for each one and three-fourth shares of B & O common and one share of its common for each share of B & O preferred.

The New York Central, also intent on merger, has bid also for B & O shares. Its offer is one share of central common and $9 in cash for each of 1,550,000 shares of B & O common. This represents about 61 per cent of outstanding B & O common and about 49 per cent of outstanding common and preferred together.

Johnson Urged to Spurn VP

Dixie Senators Hoped He Would Stay On as Sympathetic Leader

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Some Southern Senators asked Lyndon B. Johnson not to accept the Democratic vice-presidential nomination because they feared losing a powerful and sympathetic ally in Congress.

They agreed with the majority of Southern leaders that selection of Johnson by the National Convention to run with Sen. John F. Kennedy would greatly help the ticket in the South this fall.

But they were more concerned with the fact that Johnson, if elected, would be replaced with a non-Southerner and a senator who does not understand their problems as Johnson does.

The Senators tried to convince Johnson that he could help the South more by remaining as majority leader but failed to dissuade him from accepting the nomination.

Johnson's decision came as a surprise to the Southerners, who were convinced that Kennedy would select a Midwest liberal and repudiate them for a third time since the start of the convention.

Plans to put Gov. Luther Hodges of North Carolina and Gov. Ernest Vandiver of Georgia into nomination were canceled at the last minute when it was revealed that Kennedy had chosen his man.

Johnson was elected by the Senate Democrats in 1952 when they were the minority party and the South had enough votes to control election.

2 Doctors' Offices Robbed Yesterday

The burglary of two Pontiac doctors' offices at 97 N. Perry St. was reported to police yesterday.

Entering through a broken window, the intruders took a letter opener and possibly a gallon jug of phenobarbital from the office of Dr. C. R. Gatley.

Vegetable Output Seen Off Slightly

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Production of summer vegetables, excluding melons, was expected to be 3 per cent less than last year but 6 per cent above average, according to the Crop Reporting Board.

Major vegetables with considerably less production than last year were sweet corn, tomatoes, and carrots. Reductions were partly offset by large increases in such important crops as lettuce and early summer onions.

MINUTEMAN CARRIER — This unique highway tractor was developed by GMC Truck & Coach Division to provide the power to haul Minuteman ICBM's to underground launching pads. Built under a development sub-contract with Boeing Airplane Co., the unique vehicle is only six feet high and features such innovations as V-12 engine power and air suspension. GMC's contract covers only the tractor-trailer unit, with other sub-contractors furnishing the missile container and erecting devices that complete the missile transporter-erector.

Seven-Axle Rig Uses V-12 Engine

Air Force to Test GMC Missile Carrier

A huge GMC tractor and trailer undercarriage for hauling Minuteman ICBM's to underground launching pads will be flown today from Selfridge AFB to Seattle, Wash., for an Air Force equipment evaluation conference.

The prototype power unit and carriage, developed by GMC Truck and Coach Division under a subcontract awarded by Boeing Airplane Co. of Seattle, will be flown in an Air Force cargo plane, proving it can be airlifted.

Consisting of a four-axle tractor and a three-axle missile trailer, the transport features such innovations as V12 engine power, air suspension, low-silhouette design concept and air conditioning.

While GMC supplies the tractor-trailer unit, other subcontractors provide the missile container and erecting devices.

"As the transport must haul extremely intricate and sensitive equipment," said Calvin J. Werner, vice president of General Motors and general manager of GMC Truck and Coach, "it was agreed that we should cushion the load with the same type air suspension that has worked so effectively in millions of miles of commercial truck and coach operations.

"Another important consideration was the powerplant, as the unit must haul over 100,000 pounds when fully loaded. Our commercial vehicles again provide the key to the factor, with the new GMC Twin Six gasoline truck engine supplying the torque and horsepower necessary to transport the vehicle and its payload."

The transporter transmits its driving traction to the road through two rear axle. Its other components include a five-speed main transmission and a two-speed auxiliary.

Thirteen inches off the road, the transport cab is only six feet high, permitting the missile container to project over the cab roof. This reduces over-all vehicle length and increases vehicle maneuverability.

The first prototype, en route to Boeing for an evaluation session with Air Force officials, will be followed by several similar tractor-trailer units and additional carriages for hauling the Minuteman's first stage engines separately.

As a wheel unit, the transporter has a wide degree of flexibility, permitting it to use the nation's vast network of highways to transport missiles to underground launching silos.

A multistage, solid propellant missile with a range of more than 6,300 statute miles, the Minuteman will carry a nuclear warhead and its speed will be more than 15,000 m.p.h.

The Minuteman is under development for the Strategic Air Command by the Air Research and Development Command's Ballistic Missile Division. Boeing is weapon system integrator for the ICBM, including responsibility for assembly, test and launch control systems.

Kennedy to Open Fire by Whopping Rally Talk

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Sen. John F. Kennedy asserts his new prestige as presidential candidate tonight and triggers an attack aimed at recapturing the White House for the Democrats.

Kennedy opens fire in a speech accepting his party's nomination at a whoop-it-up rally in the big open-air Los Angeles Coliseum.

Before issuing the call to battle, he had to shape up the organization to carry out the election campaign.

But it was known that the place was the opulent Beverly Hills preserve of former movie star Marion Davies. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Kennedy, the candidate's parents, have stayed there during the convention.

Kennedy's office later said the dinner group included the elder Kennedys, TV-movie actor and Mrs. Peter Lawford, Mr. and Mrs. Sargent Schriver, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kennedy, Lem Billings of New York and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fay of San Francisco. Mr. and Mrs. Ted Kennedy attended the last convention business session to see Johnson nominated vice president.

Mrs. Lawford and Mrs. Schriver are Kennedy's sisters, and Robert and Ted are brothers. Billings was a Harvard classmate of the nominee and Fay a fellow PT boat commander in World War II.

Ex-Ambassador Kennedy had stayed out of sight in Los Angeles during the convention at which his son won the nomination.

Cleveland Firm Buys Murray Sales, Inc.

The purchase of Murray W. Sales, Inc., Michigan wholesaler of plumbing and heating equipment, pipes, valves and fittings, by the White Sewing Machine Corp. was announced in Cleveland today.

Murray W. Sales, wholly owned subsidiary of the Ogden Corp. of New York, operates a branch in Pontiac at 378 S. Paddock St. Other branches are in Flint, Wyandotte and Detroit.

No amount was given in yesterday's announcement of the cash transaction.

Work to Settle Strike on Building in Independence

INDEPENDENCE TOWNSHIP—Officials of both the American Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, Inc., and the International Brotherhood of Electric Workers are today attempting to settle a strike over construction work at the Howe Lanes bowling alley at 6698 Dixie Hwy., near Clarkston.

Until yesterday afternoon, members of the international union were picketing the partially completed building, and for four days members of the other union hired to do the wiring work, refused to cross the line.

According to the business manager of the employes on the job, Rodger (Doc) Ketterman, the picketing is a farce. He is attempting to find out just why one union should picket another and has asked the National Labor Relationship Board to intervene.

The American Brotherhood received its charter April 15 as an independent union, not connected with the AFL-CIO. Union employes are back at work today pending the outcome of the negotiations.

Troy Bands to Present a Concert on Sunday

A concert will be presented by the Troy Senior and Junior Bands this Sunday at 3 p.m. in Boulan Park, Troy, under the direction of Victor Bordo and Larry Dickerson.

Kiwanians Expect 1,000 at Dinner

More than 1,000 persons are expected to show up for "all the beef you can eat" at the first annual North Pontiac Kiwanis Club Beef Barbecue tomorrow afternoon and evening.

The barbecue, complete with entertainment, is scheduled to begin at 4 in Oakland Park.

Tickets are being sold by club members and will be sold at the park. They are $2 for adults and $1 for children.

All proceeds will be used to support youth activities in the Pontiac area, such as aid to parks, recreational facilities, and helping underprivileged kids.

Kenneth Strine, of the Northside Community Club, has an imposing array of area talent lined up to provide entertainment.

The club's city league Class F American League baseball team — undefeated and untied in 1960 — will take on all challengers in a sports highlight of the afternoon.

Joseph Pollina is chairman of the event. If the barbecue is successful, the club plans to make it a yearly event.

Chattanooga Negro's House Hit by Blast

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP) — A house nearing completion in a Negro settlement of a racially mixed community near here was blasted and burned late Thursday night. No injuries were reported.

Hamilton County police said they were investigating the incident.

J.L. Espey, a teacher at a city high school for Negroes, said he was building the home for a son due for discharge from the Army next month.

Espey is a member of a family that lost a vacant four-room house in a mysterious fire in the same settlement about two years ago.

The area during that period was the scene of a dynamiting of a restaurant for Negroes, the burning of crosses, and two incidents of gunfire directed into houses occupied by Negroes.

Espey estimated the latest damage at near $8,000.

DIM IT, DARN IT

Overtaking another car at night, be sure you switch to your lower beam. Your upper beam would be reflected in the rearview mirror of the car ahead and glare in the eyes of its driver. This may result in his changing pace or moving erratically in his lane, hence interfering with your plan to pass. Its unpleasantness is neatly expressed by the rear bumper strip which reads "Dim it, Darn it."
