Officials' Rumors Rise; George Thinks Soviets Don't Want to Fight

WASHINGTON (INS) — Diplomatic sources in Washington speculated today that Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin has proposed a U. S. - Russian non - aggression pact to President Eisenhower.

It was thought that either a non-aggression agreement or a less-limiting treaty of friendship was the main point in the secret message handed President Eisenhower on Wednesday by Soviet Ambassador Georgi Zaroubin.

The sources believed the Kremlin was trying to pick up the threat of the "Spirit of Geneva" again.

The rumor took on momentum in foreign policy circles as a result of the heavy lid of secrecy clamped on the message by both the U. S. and Russian governments.

Sources pointed out, however, that the White House had said Bulganin advanced "ideas . . . for promoting world peace" and reasoned that the next basic move to be expected was some sort of agreement barring war between the U S. and the Soviet Union.

Their logic was bolstered by Senate Foreign Relations Committee Chairman Walter F. George who commented that the letter from the Kremlin confirms his belief that the Soviet Union does not want a "shooting war now."

The Georgia Democrat, who first urged last summer's Big Four talks at Geneva, said in an interview: "Russia has not changed her strategy since Geneva — she has just changed tactics. But I don't think Russia wants a shooting war now."

Snow Is Predicted; Warmer Saturday

The Bureau predicted occasional snow for this area tonight with a low near 25 followed by a slightly warmer spell tomorrow with a high ranging from 30 to 34 degrees.

There will not be any major changes in the temperatures throughout the next five days.

Precipitation will average from .10 to .20 inches. There will be snow flurries in the north portion of the state on Sunday and Monday.

The lowest temperature preceding 8 a.m. was 21 degrees. The thermometer registered 32 at 2 p.m.

First they were embarrassed when they failed to note a contestant drop an "r" in "embarrassment."

Then they were overruled by 13-year-old Carol White of Warrenville, when they disqualified Roseanne Hill, also 13, of Hightstown, for putting an "e" at the end of "glycerine." The dictionary allows it to be spelled both with and without.

The fifth letter of the alphabet gave them trouble again when Roseanne spelled "loveable" with that "e" in the middle.

Wrong, said the judges. But an up-to-date dictionary sanctioned Roseanne's version.

In addition to helping Roseanne, Carol also had to file briefs defending her own spelling. Her "pigmy" was challenged — the judges insisting on "pygmy." She asked for a recheck — and won.

The judges' alibi was a 25-year-old dictionary. They plan a new one for next year's contest.

The spelling bee, sponsored yesterday by the N. J. Grange, was won by John Lancaster, 12, of Paramus.

High Tribunal to Get Case

Appeals Court Narrows Power of Probing Solons

WASHINGTON (AP)—A decision of the local U. S. Court of Appeals sharply narrowing the powers of congressional committees to expose former Communists apparently will wind up in the Supreme Court for a final ruling.

Justice Department lawyers began studying the opinion today with a view to asking the high court to overturn it.

The appeals court, dividing 2-1, ruled that congressional committees lack power to compel witnesses to name former Communist associates just for the sake of exposure.

Congressional inquiries, the majority held, must have as their goal some valid legislative purpose — that is, possible remedial laws.

Chief Judge Henry W. Edgerton and Judge David L. Bazelon questioned whether "exposure of individuals to public contempt and hostility" is a valid legislative purpose.

And in the absence of a valid legislative purpose, they said, Congress has no power to expose former Communists and would not have "even if there were a law requiring that former Communists be exposed" since Congress has no powers of prosecution.

Judge Walter M. Bastian, who dissented, said the decision "puts us in the position of a court of appeals over Congress and its committees . . . limiting the scope of such inquiries to what this court thinks that scope should be."

The decision reversed the conviction for contempt of Congress of John T. Watkins of Rock Island, Ill., a regional organizer for the United Automobile Workers. Watkins, convicted in U. S. District Court here last May, had been fined $500 and given a one-year jail term which was suspended.

The case grew out of Watkins' appearance in April 1954 before the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

Crash Near Holly Kills Area Man

His wife, Mrs. Ellen Dawley, 31; Thomas Vernon, 39, and his wife, Mrs. Violet Vernon, 34, both of Clarkston, also were injured.

'Art, After All, Is Art' —and Sandals Won't Do

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Vincent Nesbert, a dean at the Art Institute of Pittsburgh, told today of firing a reluctant model, who, while posing in the nude, insisted on wearing her sandals.

"When I told her the students were there to paint her toes as well as her face and form, she kept talking about 'having to draw the line somewhere,'" Nesbert related. He did not disclose the lady's name.

"What did I do? Why I told her to go home," Nesbert added. "art, after all, is art."

U.S. Olympic Athletes Lag

American Stars Beaten in All Opening Events of Winter Games

CORTINA D'AMPEZZO, Italy (AP) — A skiing German fraulein and a rugged Finnish lumberman captured the first gold medals of the seventh Winter Olympic games today while America suffered a near shutout.

The U. S. hockey team was upset by Czechoslovakia 4-3. America's defending champion in the women's giant slalom skiing race, Mrs. Andrea Mead Lawrence, could get no better than a tie for fourth.

Uncle Sam's cross-country skiers failed to place and the two bobsled teams were virtually eliminated from a title chance in the two-man bobsled competition.

Ossi Reichert, a 30-year-old German cafeteria manager, won the women's giant slalom race by dashing down the twisting mile-long course in a minute, 56.5 seconds.

The easy victory advanced the Canadians to the final round of the tournament—first team to get that far.

Remove 4,500 Heads

MCALLEN, Tex. (AP) — A. F. Sherer, a San Juan farmer, first decided this week to plow under his 10 acres of lettuce because of the low market price. But he changed his mind and invited winter tourists to the lower Rio Grande Valley to help themselves to free lettuce. The visitors cut an estimated 4,500 heads.

Stories Conflict on Shooting by City Patrolman

Officer James Sexton Admits Firing Twice After Drinking Bout

Conflicting stories were told today by a Pontiac Policeman and one of two men companions he admittedly shot and wounded while off duty on an all-night drinking spree.

Patrolman James B. Sexton, 29, of 686 E. Tennyson, said in a statement to Oakland County Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem he fired when he thought the men were going "to beat me up."

But Sexton's cousin, Archie McGowen, 24, of 180 Norton St., denied this, and said he didn't know why Sexton shot him in the hand while the trio were parked near Lincoln Junior High School, 151 Hillside Dr.

Wounded in the chest, the second companion is in fair condition in Pontiac General Hospital. He is Robert Stephens, 30, of 208 State St.

Sexton has been on probation since August after being convicted by a Police Trial Board of conduct unbecoming an officer. The charge was brought after he reportedly was involved in an off-duty fight in the south end of town.

Voting Machine Shown

Facing Precinct Problem

Commissioners, Officials Examine Voting Machines

Voting machines, which someday may replace the paper ballot election here, were studied yesterday by the City Commission and top city administrators in a one-hour demonstration held at the City Hall.

The Commission must decide by April 9 whether the city is to purchase voting machines or modify voting precincts in accordance with the state law.

At present there are 25 of the city's 44 precincts over the paper ballot limit of 600 registered voters.

Just recently, the Pontiac League of Women Voters made available a study compiled by the League of Women Voters of New Jersey, which stressed that voting machines offer a more efficient and accurate method of conducting elections.

Two different type machines were examined yesterday by the officials. They were the Automatic Voting Machine of Jamestown, N. Y. and the Shoup Voting Machine of Philadelphia, Pa.

Morgan O. Doolittle, Jr. of the Automatic Voting Machine Corp. explained that there were more than 5,000 of these manually operated machines in 200 communities in the state including 28 in Oakland County. An estimated cost of $1,375 was asked for this machine.

CONVERTABLE MODEL

The Shoup machine, an electric tabulator which can be converted to manual control in seconds in case of power failure, is used in 24 of the 27 communities in Wayne County.

It has been on the market since 1934 and was demonstrated by Shoup's Michigan representative, Walter Rae of Detroit. The electric Shoup is priced at $1,573 while the manual control Shoup sells for $1,473 Rae explained.

Each machine was explained thoroughly to the Commissioners yesterday and a few took turns at performing actual voting steps.

Asked about the chance of a machine becoming jammed, Doolittle explained that there was no possibility of a machine breakdown or jamming because of its precision construction.

"The possibility of a mechanical failure is practically nil," Rae emphasized. "In 16 years in Wayne County I haven't seen one such case."

Doolittle went on to say that the speed in tabulating votes was on outstanding advantage of these machines. "In Connecticut, which is completely equipped with voting machines, results of a general election in 1952 were over the radio two hours after the polls closed."

Ferguson Reported in U.S. Judicial Post

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit News said today the appointment of former Sen. Homer Ferguson of Michigan as a judge on the United States Court of Military Appeals will be announced by the White House tomorrow.

The newspaper said Ferguson, a Republican, has accepted the appointment and will resign his present job as ambassador to the Philippines as soon as the Senate confirms his new job.

he Detroit NewTs said it learned President Eisenhower will name Ferguson to fill out the term of the late Judge Paul Brossman, which expires May 1, and for a second and full 15-year term beginning the same day.

Ferguson was named ambassador in March. That was after he was unseated from his senate post by Sen. Patrick McNamara (D).

Thousands of Persons Return Home; Storm Worst in 20 Years

LOS ANGELES (INS)—Thousands of persons began returning to their homes today in the Los Angeles area as rains slackened and flood waters from southern California's worst storm in 20 years began to subside.

During less than two days of steady downpour 7½ inches of rain fell in the Los Angeles area, causing some 1,500 persons to flee from flooded homes and hundreds of others to seek safety when waters for a time threatened to inundate the city of Long Beach.

The Los Angeles River, which was no more than a trickle two days ago, became a rampaging giant that scraped away at concrete along its levees and threatened to flood an area in Long Beach with 10,000 homes and a population of 35,000.

Residents were warned to evacuate the area and hundreds of officers and soldiers worked on the weakened channel banks until the danger passed. Hospitals in the area were evacuated.

The storm caused many large factories to close down and school children were told to stay home. Traffic in the city came to a standstill in hundreds of areas where water rose as high as 5 feet at some low spots.

Hardest hit by the storm were the communities of Venice, Torrance, Lennox, Gardena, Hawthorne, Hawaiian Gardens, Long Beach, Lawndale, North Redondo Beach and North Manhattan Beach —all areas in the southern and beach sections of the Los Angeles area.

HUNT FOR CHILD

Early this morning police in San Gabriel started a hunt for 7-year-old Roger Weingartner who is feared to have been washed down a storm drain next to his home yesterday. He would be the only casualty of the storm.

Among the persons forced to leave their homes in the canyon and hillside areas were film star Gregory Peck and his bride, Veronique Passani.

The rainfall was a boon to farmers in the area and to resorts in the mountains. Snow fell at the 5,000-foot level, ending a long period of snowless ski slopes at resorts.

FARMERS CHEERED

Farmers, who had been faced with a drouth before the rainfall, hailed it as a $4,000,000 lifesaver. Dry-land crops in the area had especially needed rainfall desperately.

No estimate has been made as to the extent of the damage caused by the storm but it is expected to run into the millions of dollars.

To Arraign Youths in Tavern Shooting

Three Hazel Park youths face arraignment on first degree murder charges in Wapakoneta, Ohio, today in the holdup slaying of a tavern keeper.

Bernard R. Harris, 19, James D. Thornton, 20, and Pvt. Willie R. Thomas, 20, waived extradition proceedings yesterday in Oakland County Circuit Court.

The trio are accused in the Tuesday night fatal shooting of Charles Stolzanbach, 50, in an attempted holdup at the Hickory Villa near Wapakoneta. Police quoted Harris as saying he shot Stolzanbach.

Glimpse of Future Given P. H. S. Graduating Class

By WILMA GREENWAY

The 129 graduating students of Pontiac High School got a perspective view of the year 2000 A.D. when Dr. Paul D. Bagwell delivered the commencement address last night before an audience of some 1,500 persons.

"Builders of the Future" was his topic.

Head of the Department of Communication Skills of Michigan State University, Bagwell is well known as a lecturer, educator and civic leader.

"In the year 2,000, when this old world moves from one century to another, you will be about 62," he said. "Your life expectancy will be 80, and your children can expect to live to 100.

"Production will be vastly increased. The population will have zoomed enormously. There will be problems which you, the builders of the future, will have to solve.

"You will have to build highways, schools, parks. You will have to deal with problems of pollution of rivers and lakes, even pollution of the air.

CITES RESPONSIBILITY

"The future is your responsibility. For if one generation ever forgets the blessings bequeathed upon us by our forebears and exploits those blessings, our whole nation will be impoverished and there will be nothing for our children."

Louis Schimmel, president of the Pontiac Board of Education, presided over the meeting and the Rev. George Garver, pastor of Ascension Lutheran Church gave the invocation. Music was by the Pontiac High School

Defense Secretary Wears Well

Wilson Reaches 3rd Anniversary in Post Saturday

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This account of Charles E. Wilson by Lloyd Norman appears in the Chicago Tribune and is of especial interest here as the Secretary of Defense is a long time resident of Oakland County).

WASHINGTON—Charles E. [Engine] Wilson has become the "iron man" of the Pentagon. He already has served twice as long as any previous defense secretary, and he's still going strong.

Saturday, Wilson will have marked up three years as the civilian head of the vast military establishment of 2,900,000 men under arms, 1,200,000 civilian employes, and properties scattered around the globe valued conservatively at 124 billion dollars.

Three years ago, cynical political observers would have predicted that Wilson was the 'most likely of President Eisenhower's cabinet officers to flop in a hurry.

He was written off as the "big business" type lacking political savvy who would lose his head quickly to the cannibals in the jungle of Washington politics.

Pictured as a $626,300 a year General Motors corporation president who looked down his nose at congressmen and other politicians, unfriendly columnists twisted his simple philosophy that "what's good for the country is good for General Motors."

But today Wilson, who loves a good joke even if it's on him, has outlasted the wisecrackers and he chuckles as he shows off the cartoons to visitors in his office foyer. His durability and patient "rolling with the punch" have convinced his associates that he will stay in the Pentagon as long as President Eisenhower needs him and his health allows.

SECRET OF ENDURANCE

Already he has lasted longer in the defense job than the late James V. Forrestal and Louis A. Johnson, now a Washington and New York corporation lawyer, who stayed 18 months each.

His other predecessors were Gen. George C. Marshall, with 12 months, and Robert A. Lovett, New York lawyer, with 16 months.

Pentagon veterans who have watched Wilson ride out many a storm and come bobbing up grinning and unruffled think the secret of his endurance is his [1] doglike loyalty to President Eisenhower, [2] engineer's mind that likes to deal with down-to-earth realities, [3] natural buoyant, optimistic nature, and [4] constant focusing on a long range goal, not diverted by trivial matters.

WORKER FOR PEACE

Although Wilson has been castigated as a warmaker by Communist propaganda, he has proved him-

Mothers' March Brings $89,000

Door to Door Canvass for Polio Campaign Lauded by Leader

Approximately $89,000 was collected in Pontiac and Oakland County last night during the one-hour Mother's March on Polio. Some 10,000 mothers and quite a few fathers turned out throughout Pontiac and in almost every community and township in the county.

At 8:30 p.m. National Guardsmen began picking up the sacks of money from captains of Pontiac's 30 districts. The collections were taken directly to the Huron street branch of Community National Bank where tellers had volunteered to stay late to accept deposits. Junior Chamber of Commerce members helped with the collections and paraded dark areas to insure the mothers' safety.

Pontiac's total collection was $5,915. The Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills area reported $22,-298.

"The mothers did a wonderful job," said Mrs. Ruth Parshall, executive secretary of the Oakland County Chapter, National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. "We've topped last year's total of $84,534 for the county by $5,000, and scattered returns are still coming in."

Half the money collected will be used directly to aid Oakland County polio victims, Mrs. Parshall said. The other 50 per cent will be sent to New York headquarters for research, equipment, epidemic aid and professional education. In the event of need, Oakland County has the right to call on the New York office for funds, she said.

Reuther Joins Hassle Over Desegregation

DETROIT (AP)—Walter P. Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers, has asked President Eisenhower and Attorney General Brownell whether "they now have authority to deny federal funds to states or school districts which are in defiance of the Supreme Court non-segregation ruling."

"In the absence of such a clarifying statement," the union chief said, "the UAW will urge the enactment of legislation providing specific safeguards against federal funds for education being used in violation of the Supreme Court decision."

Reuther's demand was included in a statement issued in Detroit yesterday.

He said that an anti-segregation rider to a federal school aid bill pending in Congress would be unnecessary if the President and attorney general said government agencies could allocate federal funds only to states or districts that comply with the Supreme Court's non-segregation decree.

K. T. KELLER

DETROIT (AP)—K. T. Keller plans to step down as chairman of Chrysler Corp. April 17.

Keller, who became 70 last Nov. 27, said he would not seek re-election as chairman, but indicated he would continue in a consultative capacity with the corporation. He became chairman Nov. 3, 1950, turning over Chrysler presidency to Lester L. (Tex) Colbert.

Philanthropy Lands Six GIs Behind Bars

DETROIT (AP) — Six soldiers, who volunteered to help the Mothers' March on Polio in Grosse Pointe Shores and wound up in jail, today had the apologies of the village president.

The soldiers, stationed at local antiaircraft battery, volunteered to help out when they learned only three women were available to collect the polio funds.

Wearing signs reading "Tonight I Am a Mother" pinned to their uniforms, the GI's set out on their rounds equipped with official canisters.

But they had just started when police rounded them up on a complaint by a resident who suspected they were masquerading.

By the time police cleared the soldiers it was too late to continue their collections.

"My first crack at philanthropy, and darn if it didn't land me in jail," said Sgt. John L. Phillips of Sullivan, Ind., who headed the GI volunteers.

Jack Williams, village president, apologized for the incident. He promised to have village officials, police and their wives complete the Mothers' March collection today.

Newsman Reports Beck Loaning $500,000 to ILA

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Free Press, in a dispatch from Edwin A. Lahey, chief Washington correspondent for Knight newspapers, said today "Dave Beck's (AFL-CIO) teamsters Union is expected to announce soon a $500,000 loan" to the independent International Longshoremen's Assn. (ILA).

"This loan," Lahey said, "'will be made through the Eastern Conference of Teamsters in New York."

give the teamsters control of big step in an ambitious plan to give the teamsterrs control of the docks in the United States," and added:

"The power of the Teamsters now extends to the loading platforms outside the docks . . . if the Teamsters can extend their jurisdiction to the water's edge, an elaborate dream of Beck and his most active lieutenant, Jimmy Hoffa, of Detroit, will become a reality.

"The $500,000 loan, which has been approved but not officially announced, will raise some hackles among Dave Beck's associates on the executive council of the AFL-CIO, who are gathering for their winter meeting at Miami Beach Feb. 6.

. . . Beck will not only be working both sides of the street, but will be beating against his own parent organization.

"The Maritime Trades Department of the AFL-CIO, with which Beck's teamsters are affiliated, plans to spend $100,000 this fall in another election campaign to destroy the ILA, which had been kicked out of the AFL as incurably corrupt."

TV Dealers, Repairmen Face Detroit Ordinance

DETROIT (AP)—Detroit Common Council has indicated it will approve an ordinance to regulate television dealers and repairmen.

A council resolution said regulation was necessary because of "great abuses in the selling and servicing of television sets."

Slugging Brings Arrest of Four

Troopers Capture Men in Flight From Scene of Robbery Attempt

Three South Oakland County men and a juvenile companion have admitted breaking into a Dixie Highway gas station and slugging its proprietor early this morning, State Police Det. Charles Leaf said today.

The breakin brought no loot to Richard F. Cottrell, 21, of Berkley; John M. Downey Jr., 20, of Royal Oak; and Richard H. Oswald, 19, of Berkley, Det. Leaf said.

He added that the thieves fled from the scene when a shotgun blast from the manager narrowly missed them.

Det. Leaf credited the arrest to Troopers Henry DeLoof and Peter Dasolo, who had issued a traffic ticket to the four men before the breakin.

DeLoof and Rasolo, he said, had noticed bags of potato chips and bottles of ginger ale in the back seat of the car they had stopped.

When investigating the scene of the breakin, he said, the troopers saw potato chips and empty bottles in the drive of the gas station.

Berkley and Royal Oak police made the arrests.

The four are expected to make statements to Oakland County Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem this afternoon.

Ike's Companion Thornton Thinks He'll Win in '56

LOS ANGELES (INS) — Dan Thornton, a golfing and fishing companion of President Eisenhower, predicts that the chief executive will run for re-election and win decisively.

Thornton, former governor of Colorado, said at a news conference in Los Angeles that it was "my personal opinion" that Eisenhower will be a candidate this year.

He also predicted that the President will be the unanimously selected Republican candidate and will win hands down, carrying two more states—in the South—than he did in 1952.

Thornton declared:

"I saw the President around the holidays and he looked fine. It is my personal opinion that he will be a candidate. As a matter of fact, I think it would be bad for the President if he didn't.

Non-Medical Therapy on Mental Cases OK

LANSING (AP) — Atty. Gen. Thomas M. Kavanagh held today that social workers, psychologists and similar technicians practicing non-medical therapy on mental patients are not violating the medical practices law.

The opinion was requested by Rep. Raymond D. Dzendsel (D-Detroit), who said that mental treatment was being handicapped by a 1953 attorney general's opinion that only physicians can practice "psychotherapeutics."

Kavanagh said that this opinion is correct insofar as it deals with one who attempts to cure physical ailments by emotional treatments.

But, he held, the practice of psychology does not conflict with the medical practice act and that any violations alleged against a psychologist would have to be determined by the facts in each individual case.

Town Hall Speaker Tells of Famed Gump Store

BIRMINGHAM — Flexibility of craftsmen around the world can lead to beautiful, useful items for the American market, Richard Gump told his Town Hall audience yesterday and today in morning talks in the Birmingham Theater.

Some natives as those in Kashmir making papier mache, "put all sorts of horrible things" on their product. "It's another way of thinking, of their wanting more and more design."

But good taste doesn't include such items as the intricately carved deer's head with light fixtures on its horns. Gump told how the famed Gump's store directs these craftsmen to create a modern marketable product.

RICHARD GUMP

Venetian glass is made in any design the firm asks rather than in limited production lines in large U.S. firms, he said.

Saris from India are made into dresses from patterns cut by Gump's head designer in high style. Elaborate gold, silver, and jeweled brocades are made into eveping bags. Elegance of these items was shown in full color slides which includes scenes of the lands as well as craftsmen at work.

Elon Park skating rink, expected to open soon, will be directed by Robert Fauteck, who this week released rules.

It will be open from 1:30 to 5:30 and 7 to 9:30 p.m. weekdays and until 10:30 p.m. Friday. Saturday hours are 9 to 11:30 a.m., 12:30 to 2:30, 3 to 5:30, 7 to 9, and 9 to 11 p.m. Sunday morning and afternoon hours are the same, with mornings reserved for organized hockey. Sunday evening the rink will be open from 6 to 8 and 8 to 10 p.m.

Children under 18 will pay 15 cents to skate before 5:30, and 25 cents evenings, Saturdays and Sundays. Adults will pay 50 cents at all times.

Bins for shoes and other wear are provided under four warming room benches, and in steel cabinets around the shelter roof walls.

A fireplace, ticket selling and concession facilities, are in the shelter room. Soft drinks, coffee, hot dogs, hot chocolate and candy will be available on opening day, with hamburgers and hot sandwiches coming later.

"Coal can be burned without being a nuisance," says Building inspector Tom Brien, who is warning local individuals whose chimneys emit too much smoke to comply with the city's ordinance.

He offers assistance in showing persons how to operate the furnaces, so that his tests read not more than "No. 2" on the Ringleman chart (a light shade of gray) for six minutes in any hour. A shade darker is permitted for under three minutes in a 15 minute period when the fire is being fixed.

Some of the city's worst smokemakers have converted to gas, Brien says.

House Members to Have More Time for Words

WASHINGTON (INS) — A congressional committee has decided to allow House members to be longer-winded.

The House Administration Committee approved a move to allow each House member an additional 300 minutes of free telephoning and 3,000 more words on telegrams either in this country or abroad.

The committee which keeps tabs on office expenses of House members voted to permit a total of 3,000 minutes of free telephone conversation for each congressman annually. Several years ago, the ceiling on free telephone conversation amounted to only 1,800 minutes.

The group also agreed to boost the telegram allowance from the present 12,000 words a year to 20,000.

Of the 20,000, each House member is allowed 2,000 for messages overseas—something which is an innovation.

There is no restriction on how a congressman shall use his telephone allowance. He can call any place, anytime, anywhere.

The committee acted after receiving numerous complaints from members that they were compelled to spend considerable money of their own on telephone calls and telegrams because of their official duties.

While it was dispensing funds, the committee also voted $10,000 to defray its own expenses.

It also allotted $287,000 to the UnAmerican Activities Committee for 1956, the full amount requested by the group. Last year, the committee received $225,000.

The Judiciary Committee was given $100,000, a cut of $25,000 in the amount sought. Last year, it received $120,000. The committee is conducting various investigations.

The administration committee's actions are subject to approval by the House, which is usually routine.

U.S. crop losses due to insects, diseases, hail, weeds and other causes are estimated at $8,300,000,000 annually.

Bob Considine Says:

Video Becomes the Backbone of Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — A couple of years ago there was a slogan out this way that went, "Buy Christmas Seals and Stamp Out TV."

If anybody stamped out TV today, Hollywood would go busier than ever in its history. It's estimated that somewhere between 60 and 70 per cent of all film processed here is aimed at the TV audience rather than the theater trade.

No that Hollywood is deserting its immense stake in movie theaters. Even the popcorn involved has a financial side that compares to some small industries.

After a brief, bitter resistance, Hollywood saw the futility of bucking the avalanche of free entertainment offered by television and began to do something about it.

One wonders if the film moguls ever would have unveiled Cinerama, CinemaScope, Todd-AO, Vista-Vision and the other new appeals to the eye and ear if TV had not forced them to.

What is more, Hollywood joined forces with the "enemy." In time it recognized that the hosts of independent TV stations would be voracious consumers of filmed stories of all sorts.

Who could supply these quicker and better than Hollywood?

Hollywood learned, too, that TV was so eager to get its big names that it would stand still for the most blatant kind of commercialism and plugging for films to be shown later on theater screens.

Walt Disney's TV program is largely in the form of teaser glimpses for impending films or to boost business at his Disneyland amusement park — which has become a leading tourist trap out this way.

There's no question about it, TV prodded the Hollywoodenheads into making bigger and better pictures. There is still too much dependence on "big" pictures.

A beautiful, simple thing like "Marty" doesn't stand much chance of being made in these days —when—someone said — the only four writers they're buying from are Matthew, Mark, Luke and John.

The "big" pictures can be something, too, and when they're special they make one wonder how TV ever took hold. I saw some scenes from 20th Century Fox's "Carousel" and "The King and I" the other day and wondered if anything remotely as awe-inspiring had ever been thrown before the human eye.

NEW PROCESS

Fox, working with Bausch and Lomb, has come up with a process it calls CinemaScope 55. The picture is filmed on 55-millimeter film which in most cases, will then be reduced to 35-mm. film to fit the standard production equipment of U. S. and foreign theaters.

In introducing the new method, Darryl F. Zanuck said, "An amateur photographer knows that when you enlarge a snapshot or a piece of film, the more you enlarge it the more the grain becomes apparent. This is simple A-B-C.

"Our scientists have reversed the process. By shooting it on the large film and reducing it to 35 mm., we have totally eliminated grain. More than this, we have eliminated the bothersome falloff in focus on the right or left sides of the screen."

TV has dusted off Hollywood's traditional showmanship, too. Warner's stupendous "Helen of Troy" opened simultaneously in more than 50 countries in 23 languages, in honor of far-flung American correspondents who are members of the Overseas Press Club of America.

Lee Ferrero, ex-war correspondent now handling special assignments for the Brothers, wired. "Though Homer didn't indicate in the Iliad whether Helen was a blonde or redhead, Warner Brothers settled for Italy's Rossana Podesta, a blonde with a figure and face which would launch a thousand ships anytime, anywhere."

Residents Hear Defense Plans

Dr. Lambie Outlines Injured Care Center in West Bloomfield

Some 96 people heard Oakland County's progress toward perfection of a civil defense organization summed up this week at a meeting in the County Office Building, County Director of Civil Defense Lewis C. Jarrendt said today.

Speakers included Dr. John S. Lambie, of the county Health Department, who said a casualty-care station is now in training at West Bloomfield Township High School, to handle people injured in an enemy attack or natural disaster.

If enough volunteers, including doctors, come forth, plans call for setting up similar stations at Walled Lake, Milford, Rochester, Pontiac, Lakeville, Clarkston, Holly, Lake Orion and Oxford, Dr. Lambie added.

Mrs. Mildred Bennett, of the county Red Cross, described CD courses available through her organization.

Air Force S. Sgt. Nicholas Chizewsky said the area Ground Observer Corps is gradually expanding, but many more volunteers are needed. Besides spotting enemy bombers, they might give warning of a paratrooper attack, he explained.

Other speakers were John E. Pokorney, field representative for the Michigan Office of Civil Defense, and Mrs. John F. Warren, of West Bloomfield Township.

Pro-Ike Democrats in Alabama Face Bar

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — A move to bar Eisenhower Democrats from running in the party primaries in Alabama is expected tomorrow when the State Democratic Executive Committee meets here.

The committee will adopt regulations for the May 1 primary and the runoff election May 29.

A resolution is expected to be proposed which would require candidates for party offices to sign a loyalty oath pledging that they did not oppose the Stevenson-Sparkman presidential ticket in 1952.

Such a pledge would disqualify as candidates the thousands of Alabama Democrats who deserted the traditional straight Democratic party ticket in 1952 and voted for Dwight Eisenhower for President.

Ike's Dr. White to Test Heartbeats of 20 Whales

BALTIMORE (INS)—Dr. Paul Dudley White, famous heart specialist who is treating President Eisenhower, will have several new patients next week.

Dr. White, in Baltimore to address the Advertising Club, revealed today he will go to Lower California to give electrocardiograms to 20 whales.

The specialist explained that he has been interested in the heartbeats of whales for 40 years because they have the slowest beat of all mammals.

Says GOP Convention Sure to Nominate Ike

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A four-day Republican National Convention here with President Eisenhower the nominee and an "outstanding" attendance of delegates combining party business with a California vacation is predicted by Leonard W. Hall, GOP national chairman.

Hall reiterated at a press conference: Eisenhower "is the only candidate I have in my mind . . . The president will run if able."

Here to check on arrangements for the convention opening Aug. 20, Hall said the housing situation is "pretty well solved." He said people would get room reservation and convention tickets in a "package operation."

Fast, Easy Treatment now available for home use

by CLAIRE HOFFMAN

NEW YORK, N. Y.—I was one of an audience of truly surprised men, women and teen-agers yesterday, when a leading New York skin specialist demonstrated a new rapid way of removing blackheads. Each demonstration took only 15 minutes — and the results were frankly amazing! Ugly blackheads actually rinsed away and many could be seen on the white cleansing tissues that finished each treatment.

But this wasn't all! The treatment also helped reduce enlarged pores and made rough, muddy complexions look cleaner, clearer and smoother.

Here's what I saw . . .

Five women and two men were each given three products and told how to use them. The specialist himself did nothing but direct them—it was so easy!

First, he had them cleanse their faces thoroughly. Not with any cream that takes off only surface dirt, but with a scientific laboratory-developed pore cleanser that softens and loosens even the grime that has been caked and cemented into the pores for weeks. It is called Queen Helene's Whipped Cleansing Cream. As it is applied, it liquefies and floats out much of the pore "filler" with its rapid emollient action.

I was amused at the look of amazement on one woman's face as she tissued off the cream. The tissue was literally gray with dirt—and she confided to me that she had washed her face before taking part in the demonstration!

I'm convinced that any woman who sees, with her own eyes, the dirt this cream floats out of her skin—will begin to understand why it is so important to use a cleanser that really works.

"Suction Action"

The second step in this skin specialist's treatment was an application of Queen Helene's Masque, a delightfully mint-medicated cream. He had them smooth it on with their finger tips, applying it very generously on "trouble spots" such as around the nose and mouth.

Any woman will really enjoy this part of the treatment! For within two or three minutes your skin begins to feel a marvelous stimulation, as though being "massaged" by the action of the medicated ingredients in the masque. Next your face feels alternately "hot" and "cold" — followed in a few minutes by a delightful sensation of utter relaxation. Then your skin feels tighter . . . and tighter . . . and tighter!

It was explained this way

A special absorbing agent called Argilla dries and turns the cream into a plastic-like masque. As this firms and hardens, its suction action draws on the waste matter in the pores . . . This, he informed us, was the most important part of the treatment.

TRY TISSUE TEST! First wash face thoroughly, then apply treatment; tissue off . . . Now you can see . . . tiny specks of black on your tissue that were once ugly blackheads and imbedded pore dirt.

1. APPLY QUEEN HELENE WHIPPED CLEANSING CREAM. It liquefies instantly on skin and floats out dirt with emollient action. Wipe off with cleansing tissue.

2. APPLY QUEEN HELENE MEDICATED MASQUE. As masque tightens and hardens, feel drawing action of special absorbing agent start to draw out blackheads and other pore impurities.

3. RINSE OFF. In about 10 minutes, rinse off. The masque dissolves in seconds. You'll see blackheads and other impurities come off on the cleansing tissue.

LOOK IN MIRROR — SEE THE BIG DIFFERENCE!

But don't be satisfied with one treatment — repeat daily until complexion is firm, smooth, and pores are reduced.

Rinses away with water

After about 10 minutes, the masques were rinsed away with water. Hot or cold makes no difference — the hardened cream dissolves in seconds. You simply wipe your face and—to your amazement—you see blackheads and other pore "filler" actually come off on your washcloth or tissue! Your skin feels clean—really clean — and refreshed and smooth, like velvet!

Pore sponging and closing

The third and final step in the treatment was a quick dousing with Queen Helene's Penetrating Astringent. I found out that this was a very special astringent that sinks deep into your pores and performs the final necessary dissolving, soaking-up action — after which it helps tighten the pore openings and leaves an invisible film that helps protect your skin for hours against dirt and reinfection.

What will happen when you use this 3-step treatment?

You'll find the answer when you look in your mirror. Even after a single treatment, you are bound to see a marked improvement in your complexion. The chances are you'll find it hard to believe your eyes.

For example, some of the blackheads and whiteheads should be gone — either completely or partially — while others will be softened and made ready to be drawn out in another treatment or two. You will also see that many of your most prominent pores appear to be smaller—that your skin looks smoother—and feels fresher and more alive!

In short, after a single treatment taking less than fifteen minutes, you can expect to see results that normally you would not dare hope for even after many weeks of treatment . . . but don't expect everything at once, just the same! The damage done by years of neglect and improper care cannot be undone in a single day. But—with 3 or 4 treatments a week, taking less than 15 minutes each—you may confidently look forward to startling complexion improvements within the next 30 days. From then on, a single treatment a week—or every second week—will probably be all that your skin will need to be kept beautiful and healthy-looking.

Important Discovery for Normal Complexions too!

Even if you are not plagued by blackheads, whiteheads, or other tell-tale signs of skin blemishes, you will find this 3-Way Treatment a remarkable aid to a smooth, glowing young-looking complexion.

By proper cleansing and flexing your skin regularly—just as you flex your muscles — this 3-Way Treatment helps keep your complexion looking and feeling firm, youthful and alive!

If you should be over 35, and beginning to look it, you will see minor lines flatten out, feel tired facial muscles tighten, and enjoy the look and feel of youth for hours . . . Countless women use Queen Helene's 3-Way Skin and Beauty Treatment as a quick beauty "pick-me-up" just before a party—or important date!

Clinical demonstrations of this treatment have been so startling that we know the results you'll see in your mirror will delight you. This is why we invite you to try Queen Helene's 3-Way Skin and Beauty Treatment without risking a penny. This treatment, developed by a leading New York Skin Specialist for home use, will not only enable you to rinse away troublesome blackheads, but it will also help smooth and beautify your complexion so that you yourself will see the difference—or the treatment won't cost you a cent! All you need to do is return what you haven't used, and your purchase price will be refunded. It's as simple as that. You have complexion loveliness to gain — and nothing to lose!

No matter what your skin may be like now—if it is anything less than perfect — Queen Helene promises you results you can see in your first 15-minute home treatment and dramatic improvements within 14 days. After the first two weeks, you will discover whether you need to keep on using the treatment several times a week, or less often, depending on how fast your complexion clears. But act now! So right now, while you are determined to help yourself, send in the coupon or phone today!

U. S.-China Deadlock Unbroken at Geneva

It now is apparent that U. S.-Chinese negotiations over Formosa begun last August at Geneva, are getting nowhere.

Our Ambassador, U. Alexis Johnson, and China's Ambassador, Wang Ping-nan, have had 33 conferences without accomplishing anything after the first few sessions. China did make good in part on its promise to release all Americans. But it is evident now that the 13 still imprisoned are being held as hostages to win some other concession.

In the current phase of the conversations, the United States has been trying to persuade China to renounce the use of force in the Formosa area. Mr. Wang, however, in a skillfully drafted document made it clear that China's position in this matter is immovable.

Peiping is willing to renounce the use of force in "international relations between China and the United States." The question of Formosa, however, is regarded as an "internal affair of China's which cannot possibly be a subject of the Sino-American talks."

Ambassador Wang obviously is attempting to lure Secretary Dulles into a personal conference with Foreign Minister Chou En-lai. If Mr. Dulles had fallen into that trap, he would have come very close to granting Peiping diplomatic recognition thus paving the way for Red China's admission into the United Nations.

At this juncture the United States should insist on release of Americans still held and a pledge of non-violence on Formosa, as the price of continuing this long drawn out conference.

Both Parties Oppose Direct Primary Idea

Three proposals that Presidential and Vice Presidential nominees be chosen in direct primaries instead of conventions are before the Senate.

But as has been the case with such proposals in several previous years dating back to 1913, none is expected to come to a vote. In fact, according to Congressional Quarterly, leaders of both major parties are very cool to this idea.

A Republican spokesman who wished to remain anonymous, said he much preferred the convention sytem. It may not be perfect, he said, but it has stood the test of time and works as well as anything we are likely to devise. At the same time he wondered how parties could finance primary and election campaigns in the same year.

Paul M. Butler, Democratic National Chairman, opposes the direct primary first on the grounds of increased expense to the candidates. He also objects to the idea because of his belief that direct primaries tend to increase party factionalism.

Continuing in this vein, Butler said he would not like to see the national convention either abolished or reduced to merely a platform writing institution, nor would we. Like the GOP spokesman, he would want some sort of guarantee that there would be no crossing of party lines in the primaries.

With such opinion prevailing in both parties, we see no reason to deplore the fact that the Langer, Smathers and Kefauver direct primary amendments won't reach a vote this year.

In fact, we long have believed the convention system far superior to direct Presidential and Vice Presidential primaries.

Supervised Migration

A report on the 1955 accomplishments of the Intergovernmental Committee for European Migration (ICEM) reveals it continuing its excellent work.

The report is of interest here because the United States is one of the 26 sponsoring countries. Organized in Brussels in 1951, ICEM last year supervised the migration of 120,000 persons from overcrowded Europe. Of these 20,500 came to this country. Only one nation, Australia, received more, 53,000.

Since its organization ICEM has been instrumental in helping a total of 406,000 persons find new homes, new jobs and new lives in many lands. Heading this list is Australia with a grand total of 120,000 immigrants. Canada comes next with 75,500 and the United States third with 72,000.

Germany heads the countries which supplied the largest number of migrants, 135,000. Italy and Trieste sent 134,500, Austria 35,000, Greece 30,500 and the Netherlands 26,000.

Thus has ICEM carried on the valuable work of supervising the orderly movement of western Europeans to countries welcoming new settlers. Incidentally, it has been helped materially during 1955 by the increased momentum of our U. S. Refugee Relief Program.

For a Minute There—

David Lawrence Says:

Eisenhower Will Not Seek 2nd Term if Final, Personal Decision Is Left to Him

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower has eliminated himself as a candidate desiring renomination. He will not seek re-election if the decision is left to him. As he personally sees it at present, he should not be a candidate.

These inferences are readily derived from a careful reading of the transcript of the press conference held by the President this week.

Still unanswered is the question of what the President would do if the Republican party at its national convention in August drafts him and, in effect, says to the American people that, since nobody can guess the future health of any president a capable vice-presidential nominee is being offered for their consideration on the same ticket.

Eisenhower also says that he would not favor asking Chief Justice Warren to leave the Supreme Court to become a candidate. He has repeatedly praised Vice President Nixon. This is being taken to mean that he would favor the retention of Nixon on the ticket as vice president or his nomination for the presidency.

Eisenhower says he cannot "guess" what might be his health "in the next five years." He says that his own decision will be made not on what the effect would be to himself but "the effect on the presidency in the next five years."

REQUIRES ZIP AND ZEST

He describes how a president may feel like he did last week—"very zestful" on that particular day—and yet on another day might not feel that way, though a man in the presidency, as he pointed out, requires a lot of "zip and zest" to carry on its important duties, especially in conferences on national and international affairs.

This can be read as an indication that, if left to Eisenhower himself, the question would be answered in only one way — he himself would not wish to take the responsibility for saying that he would be physically fit "during the next five years." This refers, of course, to the remaining year of his present term and four years of a new term.

It might be argued that, if Eisenhower were re-elected and then something happened to impair his health, he could always resign in favor of the vice president. There is a simple procedure for this under existing law. The president simply writes a letter to the secretary of state notifying him that he is resigning on a certain date at a certain hour, and the secretary of state then notifies the vice president to be at hand at that time to take the oath of office as president.

But would it be fair to the American people to elect anybody president who might have to resign at any time during his term. The answer probably will be made that the vice president on the same ticket would be nominated by the party with full knowledge of what could arise with respect to the health of the president. The vice president, therefore, would stand before the electorate on his own merits, and the nation would be on notice ahead of time of the contingency that might arise.

THINKS WELL OF NIXON

Eisenhower is utterly frank and honest in his discussion of the whole problem, and it is because there is no simple solution that it is more logical now to believe that, if the decision were left to him, he would prefer to give up the idea of being a candidate at all rather than to subject the presidency to the various contingencies mentioned by him.

Evidently, Eisenhower thinks highly of Vice President Nixon. And if the President feels comfortable about possible succession in the next twelve months, it will be hard to follow his reasoning if he announces that only after a given date — namely, January 20, 1957 — he would not wish to take a chance on the effect of his illness on the presidency itself.

If logic is applied, the President is really raising a question as to whether he should try to serve out his present term. Twelve months is a long, long time and the tensions about which he speaks can arise in those twelve months, too. Important decisions might have to be taken instantly, especially on the use of the atomic bomb to ward off attack. Only the President is authorized to make that kind of decision. Eisenhower's forthcoming statement will have to clear up many things besides his possible candidacy for a second term.

Soft Spots on Baby's Head Nothing to Worry About

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

The head of a normal baby may be out of shape right after birth —alarmingly so, to the untutored parent.

But in the course of a month it gets back into fairly good shape—never perfectly symmetrical, but there's no point in worrying about it any more.

In a normal child more than a month old the greatest side-to-side measurement of the head is about four-fifths of the greatest front-to-back measurement.

If the baby's head is flattened at the back it may be from lying too much upon the back.

If the head is oblique, correction of this may be hastened by change in the habitual position during nursing or sleeping.

TURN CRIB

For instance, by turning the baby's crib in relation to door or window, obliquity of the head usually disappears in the course of two or three years.

The soft spots, one at the back, one on top of the head, become hard (filled in with bone) by the third month and the 18th month respectively.

A normal baby a year old has a soft spot on top of the head about the size of a nickle.

If it seems larger than that, or if the spot is filled in with hard bone, call it to your doctor's attention.

A TALK

I didn't intend to mention it, but after a conference with the Father of Medicine who might have been a Disciple but for the fact that he lived 450 years B.C.—I'll say that physicians formerly regarded spyhilis as "inherited" and based many a wrong diagnosis on that concept.

Since Wasserman gave the world his famous test for syphilis (in 1906), physicians have learned that syphilis is not inherited; the disease is transmitted to the child directly.

In other words, the child may have syphilis at birth (congential). If the Wasserman test of the newborn infant is negative, the infant has no syphilis.

The Wasserman or similar reactions have proved that syphilis is seldom a factor of feeble-mindedness.

Here's a bit of advice for every potential mother who is not herself feeble-minded.

Regardless of your age, what determines whether you will have an easy or a difficult childbirth is your physical fitness, and there is no better way to keep fit than by taking a daily walk of from one to six miles.

Signed letters, not more than one page of 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to the Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Proposes Plan to Abolish Dog Problem in Pontiac

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

A city without a dog problem is simple, and it works.

City officials could pass an ordinance requiring: tax and tag for male dogs, $1.50; spayed female with vet's certificate, $1.50; unspayed female without certificate, $15.00.

Tags would be worn at all times, and police officers would be required to report all untagged and stray dogs to dog catcher.

Citizens would be requested to report to police such dogs, thus keeping a "watch dog" on these departments. This would eliminate female dogs running at large which produce two litters of cur pups each year to be given away or sold for a pittance.

This plan should add to efficiency in checking un-inoculated dogs for rabies. It prompts good breeding, sale and care of good dogs.

Gas Bill Row Overlooks Competition Among Fuels

By MERRYLE S. RUKEYSER
INS Economic Commentator

It would shock the public to learn the social cost of kibitzers in and out of Congress who make a career of business baiting, sniping at bigness and sneering at the competitive process.

These critics hypnotize themselves into believing that they are public benefactors as a result of throwing sands into the wheels of the industrial system, which produces high standards of living—not to speak of the sinews of defense which are essential to national survival.

Freedom of expression obviously includes the right to be wrong, but it is pigheaded to make excessive use of this privilege. With liberty should go a voluntary sense of responsibility.

The problem has recently been highlighted in the debate on the Fulbright-Harris bill to free the 8,000 producers of natural gas from price-fixing—an issue that grew out of a Supreme Court decision.

* * *

Opponents of the bill have made extravagant estimates of the price-rising effect of the proposed new economic freedom on such gas furnished to the household user. This is nonsense since at present only about 10 per cent of the ultimate price to the consumer represents the original cost of the natural product.

INTENSE COMPETITION

Such pleading assumes that the customer is a ninny and can't protect himself without political intervention. This overlooks the fact that under our competitive system there is tense competition among fuels.

Coal has faced increasing competition from petroleum and natural gas, and it has often been remarked that, in pushing up the cost of coal with high labor costs, John L. Lewis unwittingly became the star salesman for the other fuels—oil and gas.

Natural gas now supplies a fourth of the nation's energy requirements, takes care of 21 million household customers, and four million others use a mixture of natural and artifical gas.

In the long run, competition relates prices to costs, and prices depending on the supply and demand factors.

If the federal government through discriminatory price fixing should make it relatively unattractive to scout for natural gas, the ultimate effect would be to raise the price of gas by shrinking the supply.

COURT DECISION

There was no problem in respect to pricing natural gas until in 1954 the Supreme Court ruled in the Phillips case that producer prices were subject to direct control by the Federal Power Commmission under the Natural Gas Act of 1939.

The impact of the decision is to put natural gas in a different position in respect to free competitive pricing than its competitors, oil and coal.

The new bill leaves untouched the regulation of the inter-state pipelines and the local public utility. It also, in effect, puts a ceiling of reasonableness on the price which the pipeline can pay the gas producer and pass on to the customer.

Incidentally, this issue has split the two parties, and, since the bill is supported by Democrats in the gas-producing states of Texas, Oklahoma and Arkansas, it makes a mockery of the party line about the alleged "giveaway" policy of the Eisenhower administration.

Soviets Now Emphasizing Automation in Latest Attempt to Catch Up With U. S.

By JOHN H. MARTIN
INS Foreign Director

The Soviet government has decided to create a ministry for automation, the first of its kind in any nation.

Mikhail A. Lesechko has been chosen to head the ministry. He is an engineer who has been working out a procdure for more and better machinery to replace much manual labor.

Lesechko's ministry is to work closely with that of the ministry of machine building to blueprint new machinery for nearly every branch of Soviet industry, as well as for farms.

Reports of the creation of the new ministry followed the recent announcement of the ambitious new five-year plan in which high production goals were set and in which there was a section devoted specifically to automation.

In announcing the new ministry, the Moscow government said that to increase production and promote easier working conditions there must be a sharp increase in the speed of mechanization programs. That called for large-scale automation of the processes of production.

EVERY INDUSTRY AFFECTED

The plan now is to introduce automation into mines, oil wells, the metal, chemical, radios, textile, timber, paper, leather and in fact virtually ever arm of Soviet industry.

The Russians plan, for instance, to carry out automation in the next five years in 60 per cent of the textile industry.

To obtain technicians needed for this big program the Moscow regime again has announced plans to intensify technological training.

Moscow radio said that a result will be that a half-million more technicians soon will be available to expedite automation in the machine-building and other industries.

The total number of technicians now being trained for various branches of the Russian economy is said to be 1,500,000. And that number is to be increased to 2,000,000 during the next five years.

The Soviet Union's goal is to catch up with and surpass United States production. And in a technological and atomic age Russia is putting great emphasis on the training of scientists.

The Russians have learned that they cannot force people to produce good ideas, and in the physical sciences at least there is almost no party line to toe.

To obtain sufficient numbers and men of high quality the Soviets are relying on the incentive system.

Top scientists and technologists —for which there is a crying need in both the United States and Britain—receive very high salaries in the Soviet Union and enjoy other privileges.

Rampaging Wheel

IVY, Va. (AP)—Westbound traffic filled one lane of a two-lane highway. There was a high bank to his right. State trooper John S. Pannell saw a wheel come off a trailer behind a truck and come straight toward him. He stopped his car but the wheel hit smack between his headlights, pushing the radiator back over the engine. Damage $300, but no injuries.

Kentucky's farmers gross an estimated $50 million each year from egg sales and other poultry products.

MISS RURAL ELECTRIFICATION — Miss Kathryn Ruark, 16-year-old high school senior of Bostwick, Ga., was selected as "Miss Rural Electrification of 1956" in St. Louis at a meeting of the National Rural Electric Cooperative Assn. She won a contest in her home state to qualify for final competition.

City's Growth Indicated by New High in Permits

The high rate of home building in Pontiac is evidenced by the fact that a record number of 3,116 electrical permits and inspections were recorded last yeap by the city electrical department.

John W. Emerson, superintend- 10 per cent increase over the pre- ent of the department, said last year's high showed an approximate vious high of 2,852 set in 1954.

Emerson's section installed five traffic signals in 1955 and removed one from East boulevard and Ferry streets. Signals were placed at Walton - Telegraph, Bagley-Orchard Lake, Columbia-University and Cass and Johnson.

Fifty-five overhead residential street lights were installed in areas where considerable home construction had occurred. In addition, an experimental group of fluorescent lights were placed on Parke and Pike streets bordering the City Hall site.

Last year Emerson was assigned the duty of coordinating the activity of various inspectors in dealing with substandard housing in the city and presently has 41 cases involving about 100 dwelling units in the process of correction.

In addition to the department's annual maintenance of parking meters, it completed the installation of lighting for two municipal parking lots.

Man, 100, Goes 8 Years Without Seeing Doctor

ANDALUSIA, Ill. (AP) — Robert Johnson hasn't been to a doctor since he was 92, back in 1948.

"And I still feel good and see good," he said today on his 100th birthday. "I see better with my own eyes than with glasses."

County Road Needs Above Average, Panel Discussion of Experts Reveals

A panel of experts, assembled by the Oakland County Plan Commission, has pointed up the curious situation Oakland finds itself in which threatens to deprive this area of funds needed to build adequate secondary roads.

Participating in a round table with commission members were Prof. John Kohl, chairman of the University of Michigan's Transportation Institute; Prof. H. H. Frisinger, of the University of Toledo; and Dr. Robert H. Pealy, of the U. of M.'s Institute of Public Administration.

The men reviewed the highway-financing picture at federal, state and local levels.

They discussed a highway financing plan designed for Michigan by Richard M. Zettel, an economist hired by the State Legislature.

Oakland road needs are "considerably higher" than comparable counties, said Zettel, "and because of rapidly accumulating traffic deficiencies in recent years, any formula that applies fairly well to all other counties . . . leaves . . . Oakland with a large surplus of needs" over incoming money.

Zettel recommended a formula which would provide other counties with sufficient funds to bring roads up to standard within 15 years. However, it would leave Oakland $64,000,000 short at end of the 15-year span.

"Oakland County is caught in a box," said Commission Member Richard I. Ware. "Major state and federal roads are overcrowded, pushing traffic off onto local roads making them inadequate. And now we find the state's latest financing plan will leave us worse off as far as local road construction is concerned, than before."

Prof. Frisinger said the situation should be relieved slightly by forthcoming expansion of federal and state trunklines allowing them to carry some traffic now using local roads.

"But, in order to make certain Oakland doesn't lose out under the state setup I would recommend you make a special study yourself and present a plan for remedying the situation to the Legislature."

The experts suggested it would also help if some major roads now under County Road Commission jurisdiction could be reclassified as state trunklines.

"Then the state would assume the financial obligations required to see them expanded," said Prof. Kohl.

Kohl also suggested the county study ways to increase road building revenues collected and retained at the local level.

"I don't think you could obtain much more from the property tax," Dr. Pealy stated. "You probably would have to look elsewhere."

Rancher Killed by Gun Used as Club for Pigs

LITTLEROCK, Calif. (AP) — A rancher using a rifle to drive wild pigs off his property was killed, sheriff's deputies reported, when the gun discharged accidentally.

Dead is Charles L. Nowman, 29. His widow Marian, 32, told the officers her husband had taken a .22-caliber rifle and gone out to chase the pigs which have been ravaging their small ranch near Los Angeles.

Poll Shows Austrians Just Love Their Beer

VIENNA, Austria (AP)—Austrians like women, song and — beer.

No one has ever doubted that Austrian men are fond of girls and music. But a Vienna polling firm was not sure about the favorite beverage, generally assumed to be wine.

Not so, a survey found, only 16 per cent of Austrians polled drank wine, while 25 per cent drank beer. The rest preferred a variety of other alcoholic or nonalcoholic beverages.

Windshield Saves Driver as Bullets Fly in Dispute

GEORGETOWN, Ky. (AP)—There, but for the grace of his windshield, went William D. Clark.

Police Chief Donald Vanarsdall said Clark, 34, was shot at twice, but that the .25-caliber bullets spent their force going through the windshield.

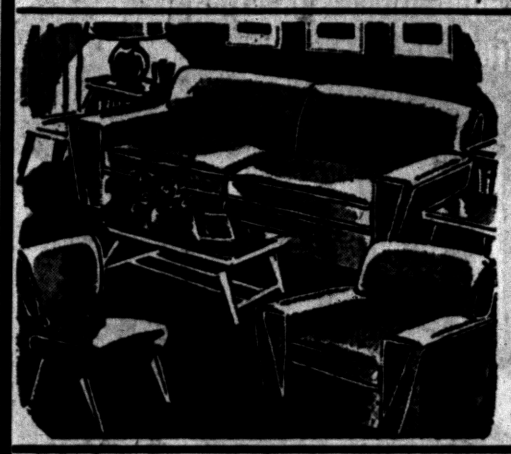

One bullet hit Clark in the forehead, the other in the lip, but they only made dents.

Ernest Lee Estepp, 24, was charged with shooting and wounding and carrying a concealed deadly weapon. Vanarsdall said Estepp apparently shot at Clark after a dispute over Clark's ex-wife.

About 446,000 men in the nation's armed forces are married.

RACE TRACK ARTIST — Bob Fowler, a race track groom most of his life, spends his afternoons painting horses at Florida's Hialeah Park. He has sold several of his works.

'They Just Love Redwood'

Prof Thinks Bored Horses Like Chomping on Wood

DAVIS, Calif. (AP)—PVAI Carroll E. Howell has been watching horses for 20 years, wondering why they chew wood from fence posts and barn doors.

Do they do it because of a dietar lack?

Do their teeth hurt?

Do they need the roughage?

Does the weather cause it

Or is wood chewing only a habit?

Howell, an animal husbandry professor on the Davis Campus of the University of California, told a farm and home conference sponsored:

"We don't know exactly, yet."

He said a horse will chew up as much as a tenth of a pound of wood a day. He showed conferees various samples of gnawed fence posts, saying, "They just love redwood."

* * *

Howell said some experts think "the animals just get bored standing around with nothing to do" and that chewing wood is "a way of expending some sort of nervous energy."

About the most definite thing he has learned is that horses won't chew wood which is treated with creosote about three times a year.

The older he gets, Howell says, the less he is sure of any of his horse research. But he submitted these fragmentary findings:

Diets containing varying amounts of calcium, phosphorus, copper and plain baking soda seem to have no effect on wood chewing.

Horses of all ages chew on wood, leading him to believe they don't do it because of their teeth.

Horses in large fields full of succulent alfalfa will still chew on fence posts.

Young stallions will cut down on wood chewing in breeding season.

GI Reportedly Admits Killing Chicago Officer

CHICAGO (INS)—A 20-year-old GI who is AWOL from Fort Carson, Colo., reportedly has confessed killing a Chicago detective and wounding his partner Wednesday night.

Fort Sheridan military police told Chicago authorities today that the youth, Howard Lawrence of Chicago, had admitted the fatal shooting and now was held in the post stockade.

Det. Lyons Kelliher, 52, was slain and Det. William A. Derrig, 35, was wounded when they tried to question a man in a car on (The Boulevard) about narcotics.

California leads in the number of automobiles with 4,879,210. New York state ranks second with 3,893,980.

Although the golden eagle has white blotches on the under surface of its wings and tail when it is young, older birds are all brown or blackish.

Ford Opposing Layoff Pay Block

Company Officials Told of State Group's Drive to Stifle Compensation

DETROIT (AP)—The Ford Motor Co. is "strongly opposed" to the Michigan Information Committee and the latter's avowed purpose to block the layoff pay plan negotiated between the auto industry and the United Auto Workers union.

That pronouncement went from John S. Bugas, Ford vice president for industrial relations, to key executives yesterday.

The committee is headed by Dan F. Gerber, president of the Gerber Products Co., a baby food manufacturer of Fremont, Mich. It has headquarters in Grand Rapids and has announced plans to raise a minimum campaign fund of $300,000.

The committee contends the lay off pay plan—which permits firms to supplement state unemployment compensation — is contrary to principles of free enterprise and would encourage idleness.

STRONGLY OPPOSED

Bugas said in a letter to Ford executives:

"The company is strongly opposed to the activities and objectives of the Michigan Information Committee and will not contribute to its support. Furthermore, it it would be against the company's best interest for any responsible company representative to participate in or lend support to the activities of the Michigan Information Committee in any manner.

"Please bring this to the attention of the appropriate personnel within your activity."

While Bugas' letter became public, there were unconfirmed reports that Chrysler Corp. and General Motors Corp. had "let the word drop." No comment was forthcoming from either firm.

The committee reportedly has solicited 2,200 Michigan firms for moral and financial support of a campaign against the layoff pay plan through a legislative act that would nullify it or through a voter referendum on the questions.

State GI, 2 Others Killed in B25 Crash

ENID, Okla. (AP) — A Michigan man was among three officers killed last night when their B25 bomber crashed on a farm seven miles southwest of the Enid Air Force Base.

He was Lt. Donald Zynda, of Detroit. The others were Lts. Peter F. Schermerhorn of Piedmont, Calif., and James F. Glass Jr., of Durham, N. C.

Witnesses said the plane exploded in the air. There had been no reports of the plane being in any trouble.

May Redesign, Relocate Detroit's Belle Isle Zoo

DETROIT (AP)—City officials say they may redesign and relocate exhibits at Detroit's Belle Isle Zoo.

City Comptroller John W. Witherspoon said yesterday most of the exhibits badly needed repair. A study is planned, he said.

The proposed move, Witherspoon said, might make more room for parking and picnic areas.

U.S. to Give Up Extraterritorial Rights in Morocco

WASHINGTON (INS)—The United States government has announced it intends to give up the extraterritorial rights it has held in French Morocco for 169 years.

The State Department said it hopes to get congressional approval for the action during the current session.

It was learned that the move is being taken following the agreement by France to permit local independence in Morocco and in response to complaints by Moroccan nationalists about the U. S. rights.

With the ending of extraterritorial privileges in Morocco, the United States will no longer exercise them any place in the world.

The extraterritorial rights in Morocco permit American consuls to judge any case where both parties are U. S. citizens.

The rights were first won in the treaty of peace and friendship concluded with the Sultan of Morocco in 1787 and renewed in 1836.

PRIVILEGES EXPANDED

Subsequently, these privileges were expanded to permit American diplomatic representatives in Morocco to judge any case involving an American. But this larger right was lost by a ruling of the International Court of Justice in 1952.

U. S. officials said that, at present, there are only a few dozen cases a year in Morocco in which the right is exercised.

American military personnel based in the country will not be affected by the renunciation of extraterritorial rights since jurisdiction over them involves a separate agreement.

The U. S. was the last foreign country to hold extraterritorial rights in French Morocco. Morocco was the last place on earth where the U. S. still had those rights.

American officials said that the matter must be submitted to Congress because Congress had to approve the original treaty.

They said the proposed action has been discussed with various congressional leaders and they expected President Eisenhower will shortly ask both houses to vote a resolution approving renunciation of extraterritorial privileges.

Revere Strike Ends

DETROIT (AP)—Some 700 United Auto Workers have voted to end a 90-day strike against Revere Copper and Brass Inc. and return to work Monday. Union spokesmen said the new contract carries an economic package valued at 20 cents hourly, including an immediate 11-cent hourly increase across the board, plus an additional eight cents for skilled workers.

You Unload 5 Tons

PORT HURON (AP)—Julius Ciczlini, a 19-year-old truck driver, backed just a wee bit too far with his five tons of broken concrete yesterday. His truck went off the end of a dock and into 18 feet of water. Ciczlini got a cold ducking, but nothing more, a hospital reported.

Middle East Crisis Main Topic of Ike-Eden Talks

By WILLIAM N. OATIS
(Associated Press Writer)

Big trouble in the Middle East will be the main subject of top-level British-American talks when British Prime Minister Sir Anthony Eden and his foreign secretary, Selwyn Lloyd, start discussions with President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles in Washington Monday.

Confronting the leaders of the two most powerful Western Powers are these three chief problems:

1—The danger of war between Israel and its Arab neighbors. 2—The difficulty of winning the Middle East for the West in the world diplomatic struggle. 3—The threat of Soviet influence.

These interlocked problems stem largely from the gradual wane of British influence in the Middle East, which in turn stems largely from the postwar political pressure of the local inhabitants.

As the accompanying map indicates, the region boasts a maze of complex alliances. For the West, the most important is the Bagdad Pact ,set up last year to connect the "Northern Tier" of countries south of the Soviet Union. This Pact, which Britain also has signed, links Turkey, Iraq, Iran and Pakistan. Since Turkey is a NATO member and Pakistan a SEATO member, the alliance neatly joins the defensive organization of Europe with that of Asia.

PROTEST BY ISRAEL

Israel protested establishment of the Baghdad alliance because it included Arab Iraq. Egypt, professing a policy of "non-alignment" between the West and Russia, also bitterly opposed it. However the Arab League solidarity advocated by Egypt was broken by Iraq's entrance into the alliance. The Egyptians then signed mutual defense pacts with Saudi Arabia and Syria and later signed one with Lebanon.

Attempting to expand Baghdad Pact membership among the Arabs, a British official visited Jordan last month to persuade that nation to join.

The visit was followed by protest riots that toppled three governments in a row and made it clear Jordan would not enter the Western-backed alliance.

The history of the current troubles in the Middle East goes back to May of 1949, when Britain dropped its League of Nations mandate over Palestine. The Jews proclaimed the Republic of Israel and Arab-Jewish feuding became open warfare.

The United Nations finally arranged a cease-fire and, in 1949, armistice agreements were signed by Israel with Egypt, Jordan, Lebanon and Syria.

But the armistice did not bring real peace. Borders were still in dispute and the Arab governments refused to negotiate permanent treaties. Israel refused to permit the return of 900,000 Arab refugees. Egypt blockaded shipping to and from Israel through the Suez Canal. Israel staged big retaliatory raids to even scores for Arab infiltration and snipping.

In 1950, Britain, France and the United States issued a declaration guaranteeing the armistice lines and declaring their hope for an arms balance between Israel and the Arab states.

Lately the Soviet Union has been trying to increase its influence in the area. Russia began wooing the Arabs at the U.N. in 1954, veoting within three months two Security Council resolutions distasteful to Syria and Egypt. Recently the Russians got in ahead of the Western Big Three with a resolution condemning Israel for last month's retaliatory raid into Syria near the Sea of Galilee.

Eventually the softer Western resolution passed unaimously. But the Russians had already made their point. They had been first to champion Syria and had urged stronger action against Israel.

SOVIETS OFFER LOANS

The Soviet bloc had also moved to counter the Baghdad Pact by selling arms to Egypt. And it has offered to lend Egypt enough money at 2 per cent interest to build a big power and irrigation dam at Aswan on the Nile.

The United States and Britain have offered grants to cover part of the cost of this project.

In their talks, the British and Americans are expected to probe exhaustingly every possible course of future action. If the talks succeed, the result will be joint policies that will be reflected in Washington, in London, at the United Nations and — most important — in the historic bridge of empire, the Middle East.

False Adman Confesses

DETROIT (AP) — Archie Noorian, 31, pleaded guilty yesterday to a charge of unlawful solicitation of advertising. Police accused Noorian, a former Detroiter, of soliciting bar owners for more than $5,000 in 1953-54 when he operated the "Vet News." Bar owners, police said, were told the profits would go to Korean veterans and a ball for Gov. G. Mennen Williams, but neither benefited.

MacArthur's Military Record Extolled in Congress

WASHINGTON (INS) — House GOP leader Joseph W. Martin charged today that "The world conspiracy of international communism forced the retirement" of Gen. Douglas MacArthur from active military duty in 1951.

The Massachusetts congressman's remark was included in a statement prepared by Martin for delivery in the House honoring the former Pacific commander's 76th birthday yesterday.

However, when Martin read his speech, he deleted the reference to MacArthur's retirement. The general was relieved of his post by former President Harry S. Truman.

The prepared statement said: "Since the world conspiracy of international communism forced his retirement from active duty five years ago, he has carried on bravely as a proud and determined sentinel of the republic. Never has he winced before treachery, nor cried aloud against personal humiliation."

BOTH HOUSES PAY TRIBUTE

Martin's speech was part of the high tribute paid to MacArthur in both branches of Congress. Senate GOP leader William F. Knowland led a group of his colleagues in praising the former Pacific commander as "one of the truly great living heroes."

Sen. Herman Welker (R-Ida) congratulated the general as "a distinguished, courageous, loyal fighting American," and expressed regret the Senate has not acted on a resolution he introduced a year ago to promote MacArthur to the rank of "General of the Armies."

"Is this not the time to say to the world and to our fighting men that America is grateful for such men . . . certainly no man deserves it more," said Welker.

Martin said that a "fitting climax" to the general's career would be passage of the resolution to make him "General of the Armies." Martin said the resolution "sleeps in the committee on armed services."

The GOP House leader said MacArthur's whole life has been "dedicated to freedom and human dignity under law." He said the general is honored "by the true defenders of freedom in every quarter of the globe for his military genius, for his inspiring moral leadership in the darkest hours of modern history, for his humble, noble character and unflinching stout heart."

He added: "Never has he compromised or sullied the high moral cause of America's quest for lasting peace with honor, nor has he ever betrayed freedom for the plaudits of traitors, spies, saboteurs and degenerate fellow travelers."

Knowland pointed out that MacArthur's military service had spanned 48 years and said it was "almost without parallel." By his military career, Knowland said MacArthur had gained "worldwide respect."

Sen. H. Alexander Smith (R-NJ) echoed Knowland's remarks while Sen. Alexander Wiley (R-Wis) lauded MacArthur as "a great man who made a great record for himself in a great life."

Wiley, top Republican on the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said he was "glad to pay real homage" to MacArthur. He said: "May he have many more years to serve in his country's interest."

Request Deeper Lakes Channels

4 Solons Ask Congress to Okay $110 Million Regional Project

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress was asked yesterday by four senators and other witnesses to approve deepening of the Great Lakes connecting channels at a cost of 110 million dollars.

All stressed the economic benefit which they said would accrue to not only the Midwest but other parts of the nation as well.

They testified before a Senate public works subcommittee considering a bill to authorize the project.

Sen. Wiley (R-Wis), the first witness, pleaded for speed in getting the legislation enacted. The appeal was made by Sens. Thye (R-Minn), Potter (R-Mich) and Humphrey (D-Minn).

The administration-backed project would provide for deepening the channels connecting Lakes Superior, Michigan, Huron and Erie to a minimum depth of 27 feet. It is designed to tie in with the 27-foot St. Lawrence Seaway, now under construction, which would enable ocean ships to go up the river and into Lakes Ontario and Erie.

The measure was passed by the House last Aug. 1.

Col. Arthur C. Nauman, district engineer of the Army engineers at Detroit, told the committee the government has spent 95 million dollars to date on providing the present shallower channels and some 32 million dollars on upkeep.

N. R. Danielian, president of the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence Assn., said deepening of the channel is a necessity.

Look for Artery Disease Cure in Research

CARMEL, Calif. (AP)— Two research reports made here today put medical science on a promising new hunt for the cause of—and possibly an effective new treatment for—hardening of the arteries.

One report shows that the feeding of commonly used vegetable fats and the exclusion of animal fats in the diet can actually reduce the excess of fatty compounds in the blood streams of people who have artery disease or who may be heading toward it.

Some of these fatty compounds are prime suspects in the cause of artery hardening but there is as yet no air-tight proof of their guilt. A continuation of this research may clinch the evidence against them. Artery hardening is one of the top causes of death.

The other report disclosed by experiments on rats that the retention of a high level of the fatty compounds in the circulation is caused by a shortage of albumin in the blood, and that the excess of these compounds in the veins and arteries can be kept down by artificially increasing their albumin content.

The vegetable fat experiment was reported by Dr. Laurance Kinsell and associates of the Institute for Metabolic Research at highland Hospital, Oakland. The albumin findings came from Dr. Ray H. Rosenman, Dr. Meyer Friedman and Dr. Sanford Byers of the Harold Brunn Institute at San Francisco's Mt. Zion Hospital. Both reports were made to the Western Society for Clinical research.

Forest product industries in the United States account for more than three million jobs annually.

Two Lutheran Clergy Unfrocked in Heresy

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Two Lutheran ministers were unfrocked and a third was declared innocent at a special convention of the English Evangelical Lutheran synod of the Northwest backed up recommendations of church committees that had tried them on heresy charges.

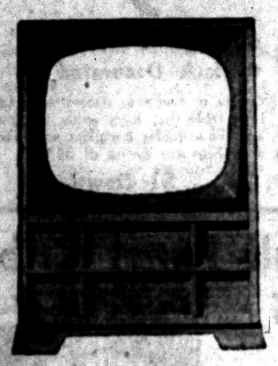

Voted out of the ministry were the Rev. George Crist Jr., 31, former pastor at Dunham, Wis., and the Rev. Victor K. Wrigley, 36, former pastor at Brookfield, Wis. Both earlier were found guilty of heresy.

Ruled innocent was the Rev. John Gerberding, 33, former pastor at Menomonee Falls, Wis., who also was acquitted in his earlier trial. All had been accused of doctrinal deviation on such matters as the virgin birth of Christ and the resurrection of Christ.

Daniel Confident of Gas Bill OK

Texas Solon Contends Senate Balloting Will Be Very Close

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Daniel (D-Tex) said today he is confident the Senate will pass the Harris-Fulbright bill to exempt natural gas producers from direct federal price control.

Daniel is a leader of the forces backing the legislation. Opponents have contended the measure will be defeated. Both sides say the vote will be close.

Daniel told newsmen his latest count showed that six senators haven't made up their minds how to vote. He declined to name them. He predicted the measure will carry "even if all six of them should oppose it," but conceded "the final outcome will be close."

The legislation was approved by the House last year 209-203.

Voting on amendments probably will start Tuesday, Daniel said, adding that he thought proponents will be able to beat all efforts to change the bill from the form in which it passed the House.

Supporters privately have expressed doubt about the bill's fate if it has to be returned to the House for concurrence in any Senate amendments.

150 Attend PTA Meeting at Emmanuel Christian

Preliminary plans for a new school building to be started early this spring were posted.

U. of M. Engineers Use Over $8 Million

ANN ARBOR (AP)—The University of Michigan's Engineering Research Institute reported it conducted research during 1954-55 totaling $8,609,755.

The report said it is an increase of 8 per cent over the previous year. Scientists worked on 408 separate research projects, most of them under government grants.

Industry sponsored studies increased 37 per cent over the previous year.

Prof. Richard G. Folsom, director of the institute, said "42 projects with a dollar value of over $400,000 were carried out on such subjects as food preservation, nuclear transportation, processing of nuclear fuels and the effects of radiation on petroleum products."

"Our biggest area of growth was in the atomic energy field, where the number of projects was twice that of 1953-54," he said.

More crimes, suicides and insanity occur in summer than during any other time of the year.

Mrs. Nelson feels the homemaker must equip herself physically, mechanically and spiritually for her work. The necessity for diversion of some type was also stressed by the speaker.

Her talk also concerned a homemaker as a mother. She stated, "Be an example to your children. Give religious training."

Child's Jealousy Can Be Helpful

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

The letter says: "My daughter-in-law is expecting a second child this spring. Whenever the new baby is mentioned before her 3-year-old, she hastens to promise him that she'll never love it as she loves him.

"Donny's a rather spoiled child—and though I know such promises are his mother's way of protecting him against jealousy, it seems wrong to me . . ."

It does seem a little short-sighted.

Because the day's coming when Donny's mother may break her promise to him. She'll do something that makes it clear she does love the baby as much as she does him. On that day, Donny will experience jealousy. The trouble will be, he'll fear it.

His mother's anxious pledge of superior love will make his doubt of it seem shameful instead of what it is—natural and acceptable.

He will have to deny his jealousy. Scared of admitting it in words, he may be driven to express it in baffling, vindictive action.

CAN BE PROFITABLE

What an unnecessary complication!

Donny's jealousy of the new baby can be made quite as profitable to him as cutting his teeth was.

First, admitted without fear, it can begin to disabuse him of inflated "only child" self-importance. Second, accepted, it can develop Donny's ability to accept other "bad" unflattering feelings without fear.

Third, digested, his jealousy can leave him aware of it as an endurable, nonfatal experience—an awareness to which he can refer for reassurance throughout the rest of his life.

If as parents, we know how productive jealousy can be, we do not fear, attack or bewail it in children. Out of our own experience of its usefulness, we turn it to the advantage of the child who feels it.

The Olympic theme is shown in these sweaters for the younger set. Both are in white with red and blue bunting striped edging. The girl's cardigan is of jersey cotton knit; the boy's of jersey orlon knit.

We encourage his open admission of it—and by our praise for his honesty and courage, repair the puncture made in his dignity by jealousy's self-devaluation.

IN OURSELVES

If we do not know how to do this, it may be because jealousy in ourselves can still victimize us.

* * *

Then, inevitably like Donny's mother, we fear it in the child. Because jealousy can still inflict painful, self-condemning feelings on us, we dread what it can do to Donny.

As parents, we often have to re-experience the problems of our own childhood through our youngsters' problems.

Nearly always, when their problems arouse unusual tension in us, it is because we are still struggling for solutions to our own.

She's Going Steady With 3 Boys at Once!

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

"Dear Miss Woodward: I'm in real trouble. I'm going steady with three boys at once! And I can't sleep at night because I'm always worrying that Ted will find out about Ricky and Mac and vice versa.

"You see, I really love Ricky, but Ted has a horrible temper, and anyway, Mother likes him and doesn't like Ricky. Mac doesn't count because he's shorter than I am.

"But what shall I do? I don't want to lose any of them—and here I am back at college."

Answer: It's easy to see how your holidays at home could have been pretty hectic. But now that they're over, and you're safely back at college, relax and catch up on your sleep. Those three boys are not likely to collide on your doorstep.

Unless they compare notes, or one of your confidantes spills the beans, those boys are not likely to know that you consider them equally special. So between now and spring vacation you have time in your letters to get things straightened out.

One thing for sure, you can't keep up the illusion of going steady with each of those boys without continued deception . . . . continued assurance to each of them that you don't go out with anyone else . . . continued repetition of profound sentiments about each of them.

All of this is deception that is hard to maintain—particularly if the three boys come from the same town, know each other, and know the girls to whom you usually tell your secrets.

If they lived at opposite ends of the earth, and you'd never breathed a word about them to anybody, you might be able to get away with it. Even then, the world is small.

Without being hasty about it, make up your mind about this business of going steady. And come to some conclusions about the three boys involved. How do they feel about you, for instance?

What particular charms do they each possess to make them seem so necessary to you? Would it be possible, knowing those boys as you do, to continue dating them on a free-lance basis?

You'll have to make a decision, then wait for their reaction to it. Perhaps you can convince them that it isn't fair to them to go steady with a girl who is around as little as you are. Their hands are tied; they miss out on a lot of fun; you don't like to think of their being hermits while you're away.

You want to see lots of them when you're home, but wouldn't it be better to be free when you're not there?

They may wind up thinking you have a special interest around college. But an unknown competitor doesn't hurt as much as one they can see.

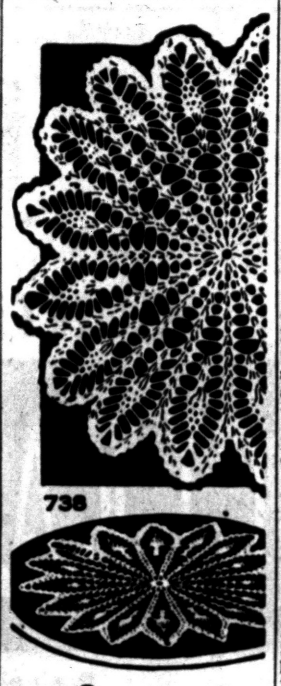

Gently unite the steady knots, then keep your fingers crossed that all three boys will come around on your next trip home. On a free-lance basis for everybody.

The prince is here visiting his fiancee, who is busy on a picture at MGM studios. The blonde actress still has a four-year contract with the studio.

The prince expects the wedding ceremony to be performed during April by the Bishop of Monaco in the tiny principality on the French Riviera.

EXCELLENT COOK

Miss Kelly is an excellent cook, the prince revealed, and she may do the cooking on the planned honeymoon cruise in the Mediterranean.

After the honeymoon, he said, they will live for a time in his apartment in Paris, in his villa at Nice and:

Spats-Designed Shoes to Be Spring Vogue

NEW YORK (INS) — Putting your best foot forward this spring means putting it into "spats, weskits or vests."

These haberdashery items are the newest trim for fancy shoes—not as an extra to the shoe, but as part of it.

"Spat" shoes, for instance, are shoes that look as if you're wearing spats when you're actually wearing shoes . . . because the shoes are designed to masquerade as spats.

The spat part is in gray suede or in less spat-like leathers like red suede, white or tan kid and black matte leather. Two little gray buttons are fastened to the spat part of this spring pump, and the toe, representing the "shoe," is black patent.

Also new for spring in the styles which will sell next month is a "vest" shoe of black patent leather. This pump wears a little criss-crossed vest of gray leather, and there's another "vest" shoe in red whose insert is in black patent.

The "weskit" shoe is one that has a contrasting jacket exactly like a well-dressed man. Again, the main pump is patent, and the weskit which fastens over the toe is of dull black leather.

All bright colors and prints should be washed quickly in warm soapsuds and rinses. Soaking tends to loosen dyes and thus increases fading.

Tufts of Carpet Determine Its Cleanability

WASHINGTON, D.C. — One clue to the cleanability of a rug or carpet lies in the density of its tufts. The National Institute of Rug Cleaning reveals that an increase in tuft density means an increase in cleanability.

Rugs and carpets have a certain number of face tufts per square inch. Recent NIRC research indicates that a mere 10 per cent increase in this number means an appreciable increase in ease of cleaning. Dense pile is easier to clean than sparse pile. It is easier to vacuum at home. It is easier to clean in a professional rug cleaning plant.

In short, better quality rugs and carpets are easier to maintain than low-cost promotional goods. This increase in cleanability, says NIRC, is another reason for purchasing quality.

Although dry hair doesn't look heavy and stringy, like oily hair, when it needs shampooing, it should be washed frequently to remove dust, atmospheric oils and flaking. A steam treatment with a creme rinse also benefits a dry scalp.

Guests Are Unwelcome in Kitchen

By EMILY POST

A reader asks: "How can I prevent guests (without being rude and offending) from going into my kitchen after dinner and putting leftover food in the refrigerator, scraping best china with my sterling silver, putting things where they don't belong, etc.

"I am sure they mean to be helpful but I wish they wouldn't do this. I do like to wash and put away the silverware immediately but this can be done so easily without assistance, while the guests go into the living room.

"This has happened to me on several occasions and it never fails to irritate me. Will you please tell me what I can do about this?"

Answer: Can't you put your silver into a dishpan to soak and leave it there until after your guests have gone home? If you yourself stay out of the kitchen, they certainly will too.

"Dear Mrs. Post: I am going to be married shortly. The wedding party will consist of two bridesmaids, two ushers, the maid of honor and best man.

"There has been some discussion as to who sits at the bridal table in addition to the wedding party. I have been told that the parents of the bride and bridegroom are also seated at the bridal table. Is this correct?"

Answer: Usually the bridal table consists only of the members of the bridal party—bride, bridegroom, maid of honor, best man, bridesmaids and ushers. It could, however, be very large and include the parents of both bride and bridegroom.

"Dear Mrs. Post: My son is going to be engaged soon and I would like to know what would be an appropriate gift for me to give his fiancee. Must it be something personal?"

Answer: The first present to your future daughter-in-law should be something personal. A piece of jewelry would be ideal—if you can afford it.

The size and shape of any centerpiece arrangement should fit that of the table and not crowd place settings and food.

Don't Lie on Applications for Jobs

By ANNE HEYWOOD

"Reason for leaving" is one item on an application blank which seems to throw more people than any other.

What do you put down as your reason for leaving a job? What if you left because you couldn't stand the boss or because they wouldn't give you a raise you deserved or the job was about as dull as dishwater? Or, what if you were fired?

First, tell the truth if at all possible. This will make you more sure of yourself, less nervous and, of course, they always might just check and find out.

But you don't have to tell a long, detailed version of the truth.

For example, if you were fired from a job six years ago—but had been there four years—you'll have to put it down as experience. Otherwise, there'll be a large gap.

Then, under reason for leaving, be brief. Say, "I was dismissed for lack of the needed skills, which lack I have now taken care of."

BAD HABITS

If you were fired for some bad habit, such as tardiness, absence or not getting along with the people, don't give a long dissertation on how unfair it all was. Say simply, "Dismissed for tardiness, a habit I have now broken."

* * *

Far from blocking your chances with the new employer, it will make him value you as an honest applicant.

After all, one of the best people an employer can find is the person who has made mistakes, admits it, and has corrected them.

Don't say, "Left for bigger opportunity for advancement." Makes you sound overly ambitious.

On the other hand, if you left one job because you were offered a much better one, indicate that by saying, "Was offered a much better job."

WILL UNDERSTAND

The employer will understand your taking a better job that is offered you (he would, too, this minute!) but the thought that you left one just for the vague idea of finding something magnificent would look unrealistic and might scare him.

If you left for personal reasons, be careful how you word it.

Don't give the idea that you're hard to get along with or that you attract wolves wherever you go.

But if the boss was a really difficult person, chances are he's known as such. All you need say is something like this: "Clash of temperaments which, though I tried hard, I could not overcome."

Whatever you do, don't lie. It might catch up with you. But even if it doesn't, you'll be uneasy if you do.

* * *

Pontiac, Junior Highs Hold Graduation Exercises

TOP HONOR GRADUATES — These three top 9A graduates at Washington Junior High were among 102 students who received honors and awards in a special assembly last week. Handing the gold "W" with guard to Adana McCluskey is Principal Norman Kuijala. Next in line to receive the gold "W" is Richard Gustavson, followed by Corinne Montgomery. Fourteen other students received gold pins, 40 received silver pins, and 45 were awarded bronze certificates for outstanding scholarship. The honors assembly preceded graduation exercises held yesterday, in which 39 students were graduated. They will attend Pontiac High School.

Award 129 Diplomas at PHS Commencement

By VICKY MICU

One hundred and twenty-five diplomas were presented to seniors of Pontiac High School's January 1956 graduating class in an impressive Commencement Program last night and four additional diplomas are in the mail to three servicemen and one adult civilian.

Parents, relatives and friends of the graduates filled the huge boys' gymnasium at Pontiac High to watch Principal Francis W. Staley present his first graduating class since taking over as head of the school.

Today the graduates face a new road. Last night the possibilities of that road—the opportunities, the things to reach for and some of the measures of success were graphically pointed out to the graduates by Paul D. Bagwell, head of the Department of Communication Skills of Michigan State University.

"Builders of the Future" was the topic of Dr. Bagwell's speech, which students said they found both forceful and enlightening.

EIGHT ARE HONORED

Tribute was paid to the five top honor students, and three scholarships were awarded.

The graduates, robed in their grey caps and gowns, received their diplomas from Dr. Dana P. Whitmer, superintendent of Pontiac schools. Louis Schimmel, head of the Pontiac Board of Education, presided and the Rev. George L. Garver, pastor of Ascension Lutheran Church, gave the invocation.

Sunday, the graduating seniors attended baccalaureate services at Central Methodist Church.

While seniors looked back to baccalaureate and forward to commencement, underclassmen this week sweated through their hour-and-forty-five-minute final exams Monday and Tuesday. They were free Thursday, but returned today to have report cards marked.

Monday morning the new semester begins. Students will receive program cards in the morning and attend all classes.

Friday the PHS basketball team beat Saginaw in their SVC encounter, but they did it without benefit of cheerleaders. Through a mixup, the cheerleaders went to the wrong school and saw the Saginaw Arthur Hill game.

Some 20 students from Quiver, Tomahawk and Print Shop were welcomed into Quill and Scroll, national journalism honor society, at a tea last week.

250 to Move Up

9A Final Assemblies Held in 5 Schools

Approximately 250 9A students were graduated from the five junior high schools in Pontiac this week.

Final assemblies yesterday morning and recent honors and awards assemblies bid farewell to the graduates and success in their new venture as senior high scholars, as well as paying tribute to students of all grades who had scored high in scholarship.

The semester officially ended yesterday noon, with classes scheduled to resume Monday.

AT WASHINGTON

At Washington Junior High, a final assembly was held yesterday for 39 pupils who will move on to Pontiac High School Monday.

At the Honors and Awards Assembly last Friday, 102 students received pins and certificates for outstanding scholarship.

In addition to three 9A graduates who received gold pins, 14 other students won this high award. They are Lynne Anderson, Santhy Annas, Sandra Bunce, Susan Brummite, Maureen Callely, Nancy Donaldson, Naomie Kantzer, Pat Kline, Beverly Lindquist, Vicki McLaughlin, JoAnn Morris, Barbara Patterson, Kiki Sikles and Sally Warren. Forty silver pins and 45 bronze ceritificates also were awarded.

CHEERLESS VICTORY

Eastern Junior High graduated 75 9A students at its Promotion Assembly yesterday morning. Graduates marched in procession into the auditorium, with boys dressed in their best suits and wearing boutonnieres and girls in new party dresses.

Four students had a part in the program. Myrna Light gave a speech of welcome and Patsy Bradshaw gave a resume of school years. Carolyn Smith presented a check toward a podium for the auditorium as the class gift to the school, and Robert Eason, incoming president of the Students Association, accepted the gift.

Principal Kenneth Nagley greeted the assembly, and Harold Dearing, Pontiac High School counselor, gave a speech of welcome to Pontiac High. The school band ensemble and a boys glee club ensemble offered musical selections.

AT LINCOLN

Some 70 graduating students of Lincoln Junior High took part in the "Passing of the L," traditional drill in which graduates pass on the school letter to the incoming 9A class, in a promotion assembly yesterday morning. Guest speaker was Vernell Duffy, Pontiac High School counselor.

Four of the graduates were presented with the gold "L" with guard, top Lincoln award, at an honors assembly last week in which 115 students received pins and honor certificates.

The L with guard went to Jeanne Johnson, Ellen Goode, Eunice King and Carol Olson. Next award, the gold L, went to 12 students, five of whom were graduating. Silver L pins were presented to 47 pupils, and 52 received honor certificates.

New school officers installed at the assembly are Tom O'Brien, president, and Judy Phipps, vice president. Musical and vocal numbers by students completed the program.

AT MADISON

Forty-seven graduating Madison Junior High students, still in their old building at Wever school, took part in an assembly program yesterday. The graduating 9As will move on to Pontiac High School. Other students will move to the new Madison School at Perry and Madison Sts. early in February.

Students, now officially Madisonites, had their first pep assembly under the new Madison name Tuesday. It was a good one and students really wound up their cheers for the game with Jefferson.

There's been a big rush to purchase Madison pennants and sweaters, and plenty of enthusiastic spirit among the student body.

AT JEFFERSON

The Rev. Lenworth Miller, pastor of Macedonia Baptist Church, addressed the students of Jefferson Junior High at a promotion assembly yesterday. There were 17 students in the 9A graduating class who will move on to Pontiac High School.

A highlight of the program was the presenting of a citizenship award to Larry Douglas, 9A, and the awarding of letters to athletes and cheerleaders.

Teachers Move Away

Washington Junior High students bid farewell to two teachers this semester. Miss Ruth Stukey has moved to Grand Rapids, and Miss Janet Haswell has gone to Germany.

Swim 'n' Swing Dance Tonight Open to All

The YMCA Swim 'n Swing Club will hold a special open dance from 9 to midnight tonight in the Y building, 131 Mt. Clemens St.

Sam Lopez and his orchestra will furnish music for the affair, and snack-bar refreshments will be available. Co-ed swimming from 9:30 to 10:30 is optional.

An invitation has been issued to those attending the Pontiac High-Detroit Catholic Central basketball game to stop in and dance after the game. All college students home for the semester vacation also are urged to attend, according to Morrie Tubergen, YMCA youth director.

Tickets will be available at the door at 50 cents per person, and non-members will be issued additional 15-cent guest passes.

Junior Achievers Plan Feb. 4 Dance

Some 200 Achievers, members of the 13 Junior Achievement firms in Pontiac, have begun posting notices and selling tickets for their "JA Jump," a record hop to be held from 9-12 on the night of Feb. 4 at Amvets Hall, Oakland avenue across from Wisner Stadium.

Disc jockey Don Zee who will spin the platters has promised to bring some feature talent from Detroit to liven the affair, according to Jim Albright, general chairman. Food will be available at the snack bar.

Teenagers throughout the Pontiac area as well as visiting college students are invited to attend the dance.

Tickets at 75 cents stag, $1.25 drag are available from JA members; the C. R. Haskill Studio or the JA Center at 45 N. Mill St. Casual dress (but no jeans) will be in order.

crowd of about 400. The dance will climax JA week, being held Jan. 29 through Feb. 4.

Seniors to Sell Tickets for Play

St. Michael's Students Preparing to Produce 'Cradle Troubadour'

By JANET ENGLISH

For the students here at Saint Michael High School yesterday, the 26th marked the ending of the first semester and the second marking period.

Today, Michaelites took full advantage of the alloted freedom from school in order to recuperate from the after-effects of final exams and to prepare for report cards that are to be given out upon our return to school on Monday.

Monday, seniors were issued tickets for their play, "Cradle Troubadour," to be staged Feb. 5 and 6. The tickets cost 75 cents and seniors are guaranteeing an evening of enjoyment. They'll be selling them next week.

St. Michael's Shamrocks came in for some hearty backslapping from students when the cagers beat St. Frederick's Rams 44-39 in Tuesday night's game.

The volumes in the school library have been increased because of the generosity of Mrs. Carl Garchow. Among books contributed were "White Fire," "Pius XII" and "Song of Bernadette."

The pleasant realization that graduation is in the not-too-distant future was brought home to the seniors this week as they put in their orders for invitation, name cards and pictures.

St. Fred's Students Relax but Await Report Cards

By ANN SCHACHERN

Studying and cramming for semester finals took up most time, spare and otherwise, for St. Frederick High School students this week.

Today tensions relaxed as the students enjoyed their semester free day. All that remains is report cards which will be distributed next week.

Tuesday morning the student body was entertained by Dr. Zelma George, noted sociologist-singer, who gave a wonderful and enlightening talk on the cause and evolution of the Negro Spiritual and its place in the world today. Afterwards students stayed in the gym for a pep meeting in anticipation for the St. Fred-St. Michael basketball game.

Wednesday morning Father Gehring from Maryknoll's famous China House gave a talk on the work of missionaries and the need for more of them. No missionaries from St. Freds are reported as yet this year, but we are collecting boxfuls of used Christmas cards and cancelled stamps to send to the missions.

Juniors could be seen busily making posters and decorations in preparation for their "Cupid's Capers," to be held Feb. 11th.

Tonight at 7:15 and 8:15 respectively the JV and Varsity basketball team will take on St. Mary's of O.L. at Orchard Lake's gym.

There will be no Teen Club tonight. However, Sunday from 3-6 p.m. the Teen Club will sponsor an ice-skating and tobogganing party at Square Lake. Dancing from 6 to 10 will follow. The party is open to Teen Club members and their guests.

Two Teachers Leave WTHS

Waterford Students Bid Farewell to Tramontin, Carolyn Wallace

By JEAN LIIMATTA

With the first semester over, Waterford Township High School students look forward to new classes and activities of the second half of the term, starting Monday.

After five years at Waterford, George Tramontin will become the new principal of Hudson-Covert elementary school. Senior English and Chemistry classes gave a surprise party for him last week, and last night Tom Sweetman, senior, held a skating and pizza party at his home in honor of Tramontin.

Robert Frue will replace Tramontin, and Bruce Gorte has been named new chairman of the English department.

TRIP CLUB FORMED

Juniors will take possession of the bookstore Monday as the new trip club takes shape, and the '56 club activities cease. Things Starting to Stir at Area Schools With Prospects for Active Month Ahead

Things are starting to stir again in Pontiac area high schools. With mid-year exams over, students are looking forward to Valentine dances, debates, banquets and a career day.

One school will observe the first anniversary since entering its new building.

ANNIVERSARY AT WBHS

Monday will be a significant day at West Bloomfield High School. It marks one year from the time students moved out of Roosevelt School and held their first class sessions in the new building.

WBHS school reporter Ann Thomson recalls that equipment was not yet completely installed and compares the finished aspect of the school today.

"But," says Ann, "our school looks almost as new as it did then . . . thanks to the students, the teachers, the janitors, the visitors who have done their best to keep it new . . . thanks to everyone who has picked up a scrap of paper or removed a smudge, we can be proud of our school."

AVONDALE GAME TONIGHT

At Avondale High School, a large crowd of students will follow their team to Troy for tonight's basketball tilt. The girls' team is entertaining the Troy girls this afternoon in the Avondale gym.

Debate competition has been completed for this year, as Avondale won the last two debates from Romeo by forfeits. Debate coach Mr. Passint has shown pleasure in the progress made by the debaters, who were in competition for the first time this year.

Plans for next Saturday's J-Hop are nearing completion, and Junior Class President Larry LaForge claims that many alumni will be on hand for a reunion.

Also coming at Avondale are the Athletic Banquet on Wednesday, Feb. 8, and Career Night on Thursday, Feb. 16.

WALLED LAKE BALL SET

Walled Lake seniors are planning for the "Sweetheart's Leap," to be held from 9 p.m. to 12:30 Feb. 18 in the senior high gym. Decor for this annual senior ball will follow a Valentine and leap year theme.

A queen and her court, chosen from the senior girls by the band, will reign at the dance.

Homeroom committees include Bill Makowsky in charge of clean-up; Waldo Proctor, decorations; Joe Malonis, publicity; Nancy Austin and Carolyn Cummins, flowers and band; Mrs. Franklin Sullivan, tickets; and Mrs. Ronald Lamontagne, refreshments.

Kill Slayer of 4 at Sing Sing

The 28-year-old Roche was sentenced to death for the second of two sex crimes — the slaying in June 1954 of 14-year-old Dorothy Westwater in Manhattan. He also admitted the murder of a cab driver and an 85-year-old woman in New York City.

Roche, who had expressed the wish to die, was accompanied into the death chamber by the Rev. Thomas J. Donovan, the prison's Roman Catholic chaplain. Earlier Roche had said he was a nonbeliever in religion.

He said nothing as he was strapped into the chair.

His confession of a fifth slaying won temporary freedom for 23-year-old Paul Pfeffer, who had been convicted of the murder of Edward Bates, a seaman, in New York City.

Roche later repudiated the confession. Since then, Pfeffer was convicted on another murder charge.

Ranger, 70, Ends Horseback Ride in Helicopter

Hickman, one of the state's most famous Rangers who made the trip down the old cattle trail to the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show, tied his two horses just outside the gate of the Bell Aviation plant while he took the helicopter ride.

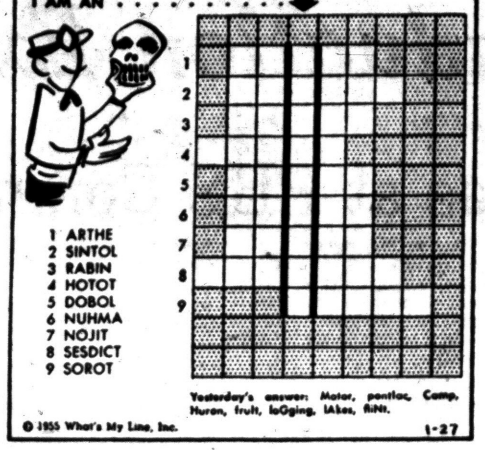

Of his horseback ride, part of which was made in sleet and snow, Hickman said, "I had a great trip. The women all waved at me, the dogs all barked at me, and the men—they all laughed at me."

Seconds after birth, infant porpoises must swim to the ocean surface for their first breath. Members of a porpoise school communicate by whistling.

Sheriffs Back Drive for More Deputies

LANSING (AP) — The Michigan Sheriff's association will back a drive to obtain state funds to hire more deputies.

The association, meeting here, will ask for introduction of a bill calling for state aid to sheriff's departmennts during the current legislative session.

The association went on record as supporting a measure calling for four year terms for sheriffs and all county officers instead of the present two year terms.

Water Meeting Attracts 150

Petitions for System in Farmington Township Continues

FARMINGTON TOWNSHIP — A mass meeting called by the Farmington Township water development committee in the Junior High School last night brought about 150 persons to hear the committee report on petitioning in the dry areas.

Dr. Joseph Gadbaw, township health officer and chairman of the committee, opened the meeting with a statement, "We people who live in the Farmington area are lucky — lucky because we haven't had a case of typhoid or a typhoid carrier. We haven't had it yet," he said, "but we may, we're just ripe for it." He pointed out the advantages of a water system in terms of fire protection, health, convenience, lower insurance rates, etc.

He stated that there has been considerable opposition to the proposed water system because of "groundless fears" of residents in the north end of the township that they will lose their water supply when wells are drilled to supply the dry area.

Lawrence Pate, of Pate and Hirn, Detroit engineers who surveyed the area and laid out a plan for the proposed system; stated that wells are considered only a temporary supply, that it is expected that another source can be found within the next few years.

PROPOSED PROJECTS

He cited proposed projects to bring water from Port Huron. "In any case," he said, "no water system will be built until a source of supply is determined, developed, assured and adequate."

Area captains reported that petitioning has gone well in most areas with several subdivisions well above the 65 per cent required signatures, others are partially complete, a few not yet started.

Dr. Gadbaw told of a proposal by Senator William S. Broomfield (R-Royal Oak), of a $200,000,000 revolving fund to help counties near Detroit build pipe lines for water supplies.

"Someone is thinking about our problem," Gadbaw said. "I want you to go home and think how you would get along without water. We give to charity, various causes and to our churches—can't we do just a little bit more for our neighbors?"

To Be Second for Village

350,000 Gallon Unit to Be Built Soon on South Side of Town

MILFORD — A new 350,000 gallon water tower will be built on the south side of Milford in the near future.

To be located on the west side of main street, the new tower will have an elevation of 1,022 feet, thus balancing the present 150,000 gallon tower on Summit Street.

Plans and cost of construction was estimated at $27,000 by the firm of Hubbell, Roth and Clark, who met with the Village Council recently. The company also submitted an estimate of $15,000 as the cost of an eight-inch main to connect the Huron Street line with the new reservoir.

The Compass Realty Co., developing a 132-acre plat on the south side of the village, has agreed to donate the site for the tower and will stand the cost of building the eight-inch main from Main Street to the tower.

After the reservoir is built, it will be financed by the issuing of revenue bonds. All plans and final agreements on the building site will be presented at the next council meeting, according to Bart Smith, village president.

Concert Stars to Appear at Waterford

DUO-PIANISTS—Concert stars of three continents, Pierre Luboshutz and Genia Nemenoff are slated to appear in concert Wednesday evening at the Isaac E. Crary Junior High School auditorium. Currently celebrating their twentieth year as U. S. concert figures the couple met as solo pianists in Paris. In 1952 the pianists gave a command performance for King Paul and Queen Frederica of Greece, then went on to tour Israel. The slated performance here is to be the third in the Waterford Township Civic Music Assn. series.

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — Luboshutz and Nemenoff, duo-pianists and concert stars of three continents, will appear in concert Wednesday, at 8:15 p. m. at the Isaac E. Crary Junior High School auditorium.

Ranked among the most popular musical teams on the concert stage, Pierre Luboshutz and Genia Nemenoff represent one of the most successful musical marriages.

The vivacious Mrs. Luboshutz, who is Russian by birth, met her husband when both were building up impressive reputations as solo pianists in Paris and the pair quickly rose to fame among the musically elect on the continent in the years before World War II.

In the U. S., they have appeared as sololists with every leading American orchestra and play an average of 80 engagements annually from coast-to-coast. They are currently celebrating their twentieth year as U. S. concert figures.

Returning to Europe in 1952 after a dozen years' absence, Luboshutz and Nemenoff enjoyed a resounding success throughout the Continent.

As a climax to their trip, the pianists gave a command performance for King Paul and Queen Frederica of Greece with the Athens Symphony, and followed up their stay in Greece with an introductory tour of Israel which included 16 appearances in 21 days. They are booked for Europe again next year.

McCarthy Blasts Two Hughes' Trial Witnesses

NEW YORK (AP)—Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis), testifying for the government in the perjury trial of Paul H. Hughes, has attacked the "truthfulness" of two previous prosecution witnesses.

McCarthy, who formerly headed the Senate permanent subcommittee on investigations, was on the witness stand for eight minutes yesterday in Hughes' trial, which resumes today in federal court.

Under cross examination, McCarthy blasted at the reputation of Joseph L. Rauh Jr., national chairman of Americans for Democratic Action and James A. Wechsler, editor of the New York post.

Hughes specifically is accused of lying in testimony to a federal grand jury about turnabout witness Harvey M. Matusow, a former Communist who recanted testimony given for the government in Communist trials.

Kim Keeps Balance in Quick Rise to Fame

NEW YORK (AP)—Will success spoil Kim Novak?

The 22-year-old fluorescent blonde landed in Hollywood two years four months ago virtually unknown except to her family and a few close friends.

BIG BUILDUP

Since then she has been in six films. The Hollywood drumbeaters have given her one of the most massive buildups since Marilyn Monroe tip-toed off a calendar to fame.

But even her old Sunday school teacher could hardly complain that Kim—who combines the flawless beauty of Grace Kelly with the sultry charm of Monroe—has let her quick stardom go to her head.

Miss Novak still talks with the down-to-earth common sense of the proverbial "girl next door." She looks pretty much like the girl next door, too—that is, if the girl next door rinsed her hair in a lavender tint and felt a bit crowded in a 37½-size sweater.

LIKES TO WALK

One way Kim has kept her feet on the ground is by walking.

"I love walking," she said, during a visit here to attend the premiere of her latest opus, "Picnic," which is based on the Broadway play of the same name.

"I live only three blocks from the studio, so I walk to work. I stay in a home with 97 other girls (it's an affiliate of the YWCA) who are trying to get a break in Hollywood.

"My parents wanted me to stay there. They felt I'd be safer.

"I pay $19.50 a week for a room and two meals a day, and the room is about the size of the bathroom in the hotel suite the studio has put me up in here."

MODEL AT 12

Kim started modeling at 12 and along the way also worked in a Christmas card factory and a dime store, ran an elevator, groomed horses, and served as a dental assistant.

In her studio biography Kim recalls:

"One day the dentist's wife came in the office, and the next day I lost my job. It took me a long time to figure out why."

By and large, the reasons are now clearly evident.

Kim was averaging $200 a week as a model, but quit it to start her film career at $100 because "I was tired of just posing and smiling."

4-FIGURE INCOME

Today her weekly income is in four figures—somewhere between $10.00 and $9,999. Her studio "loaned" her services to make a single film for an independent producer for $100,000.

"Naturally, I didn't get any of that," wistfully remarked the actress, who has just signed a new seven-year contract.

None of Hollywood's celebrated sins have caught up with Kim. She avoids the glamour circuit, likes to wear slacks and flat-heeled shoes off-screen, prefers candy to caviar — it says right here! — She doesn't smoke or drink. No, not even coffee.

BURNING EYES

"In two of my pictures I had to smoke, and I had to practice a couple of weeks each time in order to hold the cigarette right. I hated it. It made my eyes burn."

So far, so good? Yep. But what about romance?

"I'm only 22," said Kim, crisply. "They don't marry that young where I come from."

Three Sons of Officer Die of Same Disease

METUCHEN, N. J. (AP)—The last of Police Sgt. Mervin Anderson's three sons wil be buried today. All three boys were victims of muscular dystrophy.

George Anderson, 21, died of the disease Tuesday, two weeks after being admitted to Roosevelt Hospital in nearby Edison. He was stricken when he was 7 years old. A younger brother died in 1950, and another in 1953.

George studied at home and earned his high school diploma last June. He was well-known in the community, worked on model airplanes and boats, and sold greeting cards and stationery.

Trucks Submits Infirmary Bill

Measure Will Authorize County Supervisors to Relocate Institutions

LANSING (AP)—Rep. Kenneth O. Trucks (R-Baldwin) has introduced a bill which would permit county boards of supervisors to move an infirmary from one location to another without the consent of the Legislature.

The measure stems from a Mason County dispute over the location of a convalescent home there.

Trucks introduced his bill to counteract a Supreme Court decision which held that the county boards did not have this power.

"The Supreme Court opinion," Trucks said, "cited the previous law withholding from the Board of Supervisors the power to change the site of a county infirmary where such infirmary has been previously established, is based entirely on the construing of the word 'erected' as not necessarily meaning the same as 'built' or 'constructed.' To me, this is a very fine hairline distinction and one which should be broadened.

"Certainly, the County Board of Supervisors, which has the problem of financing supervising and operating our county infirmaries should be the proper authority to determine their location if we are to follow the simple precepts of good government and the democratic principle of home rule."

Put $50 Value on 250 Page Peron Memoir

Dist. Atty. Antonio Deleon said appraisers put that valuation on the work as part of his investigation of an embezzlement complaint involving the book.

He added that no attempt was made to place a commercial or intellectual value on the work — dealing with the ex-dictator's 10 years in office — but Peron can have that value added in by submitting any offers he's had from publishing houses.

Peron filed a complaint early this month charging that Florencio Avila Sanchez, a Mexican attorney, had embezzled a copy of the manuscript. Avila Sanchez countered that Peron had authorized him to register the book in Mexico and he had mailed it there for that purpose. Avila Sanchez also threatened to sue Peron for slander.

Social Security Bill Is Opposed

Welfare Chief Folsom Against Some Parts of New Measure

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Welfare Folsom said today he is opposed to some parts of the House-passed Social Security bill on which the Senate Finance Committee is now holding hearings.

Folsom did not say what points he is against.

But under questioning at a news conference he said the administration has not yet reached a decision on its stand as to the two principal features of the house bill, lowering the retirement benefit age for women from 65 to 62 and providing cash benefits for the totally disabled at age 50 under certain conditions.

"This is the first time Congress has considered any real basic change in Social Security without an advisory council and extensive hearings," Folsom said. "I am very glad the Senate Committee is having full hearings.

"Extensive changes were made two years ago and I feel it might be wise to wait and see their results."

Pope Urges Women to Aid Men in World

VATICAN CITY (INS) — Pope Pius XII called on the women of the world to rescue men from what he called the "world of scientific triumph" and "materialism."

The Pontiff emphasized that the role of women is a "discreet but very efficient apostolate . . . to prepare for a friendlier and more human world."

The Pope spoke to the women's section of the international institute for the unity and universality of culture. They were led by Mrs. Teresa Dupuy, wife of the Canadian ambassador to Italy.

The Pope warned that modern "materialistic civilization," having learned to control many of nature's forces, now threatened to control man himself and stamp out his freedom.

He urged women to lead the fight against this "peril" and said they should take the Virgin Mary as their example.

Yep, It's Actually Listed

Parakeet Causes One Roaring Confusion to Those Who Call His Phone Number

CHICAGO (INS) — The sedate Chicago suburb of Riverside is the setting for the strange tale of Dr. Baumeister and Mr. Kim.

A real estate agent stumbled onto the case by accident. He had hoped to stumble onto someone interested in selling property.

With the suburban phone directory spread open, he was phoning one name after another.

"Mr. Kim?" the agent asked.

The agent gasped: "What's that?"

"Mr. Kim," the doctor said.

For a moment, no one spoke. Then the doctor asked:

"May I ask the nature of your call?"

When the agent explained, Dr. Baumeister told him:

"I'm sorry you were misled. Despite the fact Kippy Kim is listed beneath my name in the phone book, I doubt you'll want to discuss your proposition with him.

"Kippy Kim is my pet parakeet."

Dr. Carl Baumeister laughed good-naturedly today in telling about it.

He said:

"It's the darnedest thing I ever heard of. For the last four years someone has listed Kippy Kim's name under mine in the small directory we have in Riverside.

"Whovever is doing it pays the fee — but I can't find out who he is!"

He has a German shepherd dog, a 19-year-old son, Richard, and a wife, Eleanor, who came home with Kippy Kim one day in 1952 after consulting "somebody at Brookfield Zoo."

So far as the doctor is concerned, nothing notable came of such a household until later in 1952. A calendar illustrator then painted a bigger-than-life oil portrait of the gaudily plumed parakeet. Baumeister said:

Like an eerie foreshadowing of events to come, Dolan's brush work made him a target of fun-poking from his friends. The artist got mail with P.P.P. after his name — standing for parakeet portrait painter.

And Dr. Baumeister began getting mail addressed to Kim besides "these darned phone calls." All, he said, are generally of a fund-soliciting nature. But Dr. Baumeister takes it in stride and even enters into the spirit of things.

He says that for the last few years he has tucked a dollar into the envelope addressed to the parakeet by the Red Cross — and mailed it in from the mysterious Mr. Kim.

God Did 'Nice Job'

OMAHA (AP)—Debbie, daughter of Mrs. Don Taylor, asked her mother "God made me, didn't He, Mother?" "That's right," said Mrs. Taylor. "Gee, I think He did a nice job on me," said the three-year-old.

Boy Acquitted in Death of Stepfather During Row

HIGH POINT, N.C. (AP)—A 15-year-boy who testified he fatally stabbed his stepfather because he struck his mother with a small baseball bat was acquitted of murder charges yesterday.

A jury deliberated nearly two hours before acquitting Mack M. Warren in the death of his stepfather, Doramus L. Williams, 55, at their home here Oct. 19.

Warren testified that he stabbed his stepfather with a hunting knife after Williams beat his mother with a small baseball bat and threatened to hit him with an electric iron. Mrs. Williams testified she was knocked unconscious by her husband.

Americans Fall Behind in All Olympic Events

CORTINA D'AMPEZZO, Italy (AP) — Czechoslovakia upset the United States in hockey this morning, 4-3, in a disappointing starting game for the Americans in the Winter Olympics ice hockey competition. Czechoslovakia scored the winning goal in the last two minutes of play.

The loss was a heart-breaker for the plucky Americans who gave it the old college try throughout and three times came from behind to tie at 1-1, 2-2, and 3-3.

The victory almost assured Czechoslovakia of a 1st place finish in the "B" pool of the three pool elimination tournament.

However, the United States' strong showing indicated they should have little difficulty in advancing into the final round by defeating the weak Polish team in their 2nd game tomorrow. Czechoslovakia and Poland play Sunday.

In other games, Canada's defending champions blanked Germany 4-0 and Austria and Italy fought to a 2-2 tie.

Germany's Ossi Reichert, a 30-year old cafeteria manager ,unofficially won the women's giant slalom with a sparkling time of 1 minute, 56.5 seconds for the lightning fast Tofano course.

All of the times were subject to official review which usually takes several hours.

Miss Reichert was the first to make the dangerous descent of the 1,700 meter course (mile and 109 yards) which had a thin powder of snow over its icy crust.

Two Austrians, Josefine Frandl (1:57.9) and Dorothea Hochleitner (1:58.9) took 2nd and 3rd, respectively.

Mrs. Andrea Mead Lawrence, America's best hope and the defending champion in both the giant slalom and slalom, finished in a tie for 4th with Madeleine Berthod, the favorite from Switzerland, each in 1:58.3.

The 25-year old Swiss cowmaid missed one of the 59 gates and had to go back and start through it again. That probably cost her the gold medal.

The two American entries, piloted by Waightman (Bud) Washbond of East Hartford, Conn., and Art Tayler of Rochester, N. Y., were far behind the Italians, who have had more practice runs than anyone else on the icy, 1,700 meter (109 yards more than a mile) chute.

Dalla Costa, a 35-year-old jet pilot in the Italian air force, drove Italy's No. 1 sled into first place with runs of 1:22 and 1:22.45 for a total time of 2:44.45. Two more heats will be raced tomorrow with the total time for the four trips deciding the championship.

Monti, a pint-sized former Italian ski champion, was right behind with a total of 2:45.26 in his two journeys of 1:22.73 and 1:22.53.

Washbond, with Pat Diesiadecki, Ware, Mass., at the brake, was 5th with 2:48.97 on runs of 1:24.82 and 1:24.15. Tyler, and Ed Seymour, also of Rochester, were sixth with 2:49.18. They had runs of 1:25.41 and 1:23.77.

* * *

AP Wirephoto

CC Seeks Revenge for Early Defeat

By H. GUY MOATS
(Press Special Writer)

Spurred by a burning desire to avenge the 50-40 defeat administered by Pontiac High's basketball Chiefs, at the season's beginning, Detroit Catholic Central is here tonight for the return engagement.

Tonight's encounter in PHS gymnasium is the 9th on the Chiefs' schedule. Coach Art Van Ryzin's club is the favorite, although the PHS mentor figures it as a close, tossup game. Chiefs have compiled a 6-2 record this far. Shamrocks have won two more for a 8-2 mark.

Key to the visitors' hopes is big Bob Skrzycki, high-scoring pivotman, who hit for 20 points in the opener, and set up a 24 joint per game average since. If Chiefs are successful in covering the big lad (6-4½) they will get their victory. Skrzycki is a hookshot artist and a good rebounder, always dangerous around the twines.

CC's coach, Bill Foley, rates his club the best in four years at the Detroit school. He believes his big center is one of the best. "Bob didn't shoot enough in our 1st game with Pontiac," Foley commented. "The boys were depending too much on him to pass and set up the plays. We hope to correct that condition tonight."

Van Ryzin added some warm praise for Skrzycki. 'He's the best center that has played against us all year. Fast, fine scorer and good ball handler, he's always a threat." The PHS coach also named Brian Hussey as a very dangerous player at all times."

Hussey is the real playmaker for the club," Art added.

Hussey will start at a guard spot, Foley announced, along with Tom Kramer. Usually Hussey is in a forward berth. Skrzycki at center, with Johnny Rogers and Ed Sheridan at forwards round out the starters.

Game time is 8 o'clock, following a 6:30 prelim between the two reserve squads.

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Willie Pastrano of New Orleans figures to be a 7-5 choice over Chuck Spieser of Lansing, Mich., when the two light heavyweight contenders meet in a 10-round fight in the auditorium tonight.

Pastrano, strapping 20-year-old who has not lost a fight since Nov. 30, 1953, when Italo Scortichini beat him, is expected to weigh in at around 182 pounds, which would give him a weight advantage.

* * *

Speiser, a Michigan State graduate, is a puncher who has won six of seven fights since coming out of the Army last March. He lost only to Pastrano, in Chicago last July, and since then has been anxious for a return engagement.

WILLIE DEWALT

Back-of-Scenes Story Wins Il's '55 Award

MONTREAL (AP) — A year-end dressing room story by Chauncey Durden, sports editor of the Richmond (Va.) Times-Dispatch has been selected as the "Best International League baseball Story" of 1955.

Dewalt Heading for SVC Individual Scoring Title

Heading the parade of point-makers in the Saginaw Valley Conference basketball title race this year is a Pontiac youngster. The Chiefs' ace performer, Willie Dewalt, has totalled 94 points in five Valley games.

Dewalt dunked 33 field goals and converted 28 free shots to place him 16 points in front of the current runnerup, Saginaw Trojans' Deb Biondin, with 78. Ed Nyberg, Flint Central has 77 for 3rd-place.

Pontiac has three in the top 15.

Besides Dewalt they are Rod Treias, Willie's front-line partner, and 6-4 Hudson Ray, sophomore center. Treais has compiled a 73 total, Ray 44. Rod hit 31 field goals, 2nd only to Dewalt in this department. He also netted 11 free shots. Ray's goals were 16 and he added 12 charity tries. Treais is 4th in SVC scoring, Ray 14th.

Since Pontiac's entry in the Valley circuit in 1933, only one Chief has won the individual title. He was All-Stater Roy Clark, with 127 points (47 goals and 33 free throws in 12 games). Clark's mark was made during the 1939-40 season in which Chiefs finished 2nd with a 9-3 record. Flint Northern was titlist that year (12-0).

Milt Mead, former Bay City star, later a U. of M. center, holds the current 269-point record, made in 1949-50 for 12 games. Joe Quarles of Northern fired 244 last year for 10 games to win the title.

Here are the current standings:

	G	FG	FT	TP
Dewalt (PHS)	5	33	28	94
Biondin (Sag.)	5	27	24	78
Nyberg (FC)	5	26	25	77

SHAMROCK ACE — He really gets up around the hoops, does Catholic Central's 6-4 Bob Skrzyski. Bob is top scorer for the Shamrocks, and is expected to lead the Detroiters against Pontiac tonight at PHS gymnasium. He has a season's average of 24 points for 10 games, a season's total up to now, of 240 points.

Three leading scorers in the Ivy League don't stand behind the claim that height is everything in basketball. The top three pointmakers are 5-foot 6-inch Chuck Rolles of Cornell, 5-7 Chet Forte of Columbia and 5-10 Joe Tebo of Brown.

One of the American Bobsledders at the Olympics looked over at the bar in his hotel to see a rugged square-jawed woman sitting in proud fashion with her hand on her hip. "Must think she's Mussolini," he remarked jokingly. Quite a shock when he learned a little later that it was Anna-Maria Mussolini, daughter of Italy's late dictator, Benito Mussolini. She was here for the winter games.

Spartan and Titan Among Top Scorers

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Julius McCoy of Michigan State, with an average of 26.4 points per game, is 4th among the nation's basketball scoring leaders.

McCoy has scored 112 field goals and 66 from the free-throw line for a total of 290 in 11 games, while Ebben has 144 from the field and 87 from the free-throw line for 735 in 15 games.

Track Fire Kills 8 Horses

Miami, Fla. (AP) — Workmen cleared away the charred ruins of Barn 3 at Tropical Park race track today in the wake of a fire that killed eight thoroughbreds.

Only five have been positively identified and horsemen awaited a final check of survivors to determine which animals were lost in the blaze yesterday afternoon.

Those known dead included Djeddah's Star and Casba, owned by N. L. Haymaker of Berryville, Va.; Cable Break, owned by H. W. Hayner of Plant City, Fla.; Classy Belle, owned by Jack Goldstein of Louisville, Ky., and Babco, filly owned by L. T. Torres of San Juan, P.R.

Aladyne, 2-year-old filly who won at Tropical Park on Jan. 3 and is owned by Courtney Burton, was reported missing.

About 40 panic-stricken horses charged out of the park and galloped up heavily-traveled Bird Road which parallels the track. Traffic was snarled and two minor automobile accidents resulted.

No one was injured but grooms and other stable help lost clothing and personal effects in the flames that quickly consumed the 150-foot 60-stall barn where about 35 horses were stabled. Tropical Park closed its meeting on Jan. 16.

No estimate of damage was available immediately but value of the horses lost was placed at $50,000 to $75,000. Horsemen said it would take several days to determine the exact loss since many animals were cut and bruised when they stampeded.

"Two of the horses were hit by cars and one of them had to be shot. Most of the rest of them were bleeding badly from cuts and bruises on the legs."

It was hours before some of the horses were found and returned to the stalls. About 850 thoroughbreds are stabled at the track.

Tom Parker, chief investigator for the Florida State Racing Commission, said it was impossible to determine the cause of the blaze.

One badly burned horse collapsed 15 blocks from the park and another ran into a rock pit and was mired there until Bissell Shaver, 19, waded in, leaped on the animal and rode it back to the park.

Favors Russia

Expert Predicts Records

CORTINA D'AMPEZZO, Italy (AP) —A man who should know today predicted three new world records in the four Olympic speed skating events beginning tomorrow.

Per Christian Andersen, Norway's walking encyclopedia of winter sports, said Russia will win the 500- and 1,500-meter races in world record time on the lightning-fast surface of nearby Lake Misurina.

He also forecast a new mark in the 5,000 meters, but couldn't pick a winner between Norway's Roald Aas and Boris Schilkov of Russia. Knut Johannesen of Norway is his choice to win the 10,000-meter grind, but the veteran newsman who has covered every winter Olympics but one does not think Johannesen can better the world record.

Per Andersen, news editor of Aftenposten, one of Oslo's largest papers, likes Yury Sergeyev, holder of the current 500-meter world record of 40.8 seconds, in skating's sprint event. This despite the fact Eugeniy Grischin skated 40.2 here last Sunday while Sergeyev was doing 40.4.

Andersen picks Schilkov, holder of the world 5,000-meter mark, in the 1,500.

HIT IT SON — That is what Cornelius (Les) Murphy, former welterweight, says to his boy, Bobby Murphy, who was selected as boxing's rookie of 1955. He compiled a record of 14 straight victories including 10 knockouts before drawing with veteran Chico Vejar.

State Golden Gloves Trials Start Soon in Seven Centers

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—Fist fighting's marathon of youthful talent —the Golden Gloves—is starting its colorful run throughout lower Michigan with some 700 young pugilists putting it on the line in seven Michigan cities.

For weeks youths between 16 and 24, many of whom never before felt the whop of a boxing glove, have been wearing out the ropes in local gyms for the regional eliminations. Those winners will travel to Grand Rapids for the semifinals and finals Feb. 10 and 11.

The Golden Gloves, long considered a farm club for professional boxing promoters, is divided into two divisions—novice (for the rank beginner who has not won three bouts or is under 19) and the open. Each division has eight weight classes.

Regional eliminations will be held in Bay City, Flint, Kalamazoo, Lansing, Jackson, Port Huron and Grand Rapids.

Detroit is the only lower Peninsula city excluded from the competition. It holds its own, as does the Upper Peninsula.

In some cases, especially in the novice division, each fight is a battle of survival for the three two-minute rounds — close your eyes, swing and stay on your feet for the allotted time and your chance of winning is as good as the next guy.

Finals will be held in the 5,000-plus capacity Civic Auditorium, where fight fans flock to see Michigan's best amateur talent.

Grill 5 Tightens Hold on Top Spot

Griff's Grill strengthened its grip on 1st place in the National League by trimming Phil's Inn, 66-54, in an adult city basketball game Thursday night at Pontiac High's gym.

Griff's cagers captured a commanding 35-23 halftime advantage and coasted to their 6th victory in seven contests. Chuck Franklin netted 18 points to lead Griff's while Al King was high for the losers with 16.

Stadium Inn forfeited to the Lakeside Royals in an adult American loop game. The Stadium cagers refused to finish the contest during action in the last quarter. The Royals led at the time.

Carey to Rejoin Pro Grid Rams

Ex-Spartan Resigns His Coaching Job at Tempe for NFL Place

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Big Bob Carey of Michigan State is coming back to the National Football League wars.

Los Angeles, which owns the 6-foot-5, 220-pound end got the good word yesterday.

Carey, top draft choice of the Rams in 1952, caught 36 passes in his freshman pro year and was cut down by a freak injury in the 2nd game of 1954. He served last season as an assistant coach at Arizona State College at Tempe, but resigned that yesterday and notified Los Angeles he'd be back in 1956.

Carey tripped over a teammate, Skeet Quinlan, in a game against the San Francisco 49ers, incurring an extensive injury to his right knee at the start of the 1954 season. He reported to Ram doctors, however, that regular exercise had restored the knee.

Harbert Among Jamaica Open Golf Leaders

KINGSTON, Jamaica (AP) — Herman Barron of White Plains, N.Y., and Chick Harbert of Northville, Mich., were right on the heels of the leader, Raoul Posse of Colombia, today as the Jamaica Open Golf Tournament entered the second round.

Posse, a former champion, carded as 32-32—64 over the par 68 Constant Spring Country Club course yesterday, slipping in one stroke ahead of Barron, who took a bogey on the first hole but finished with 32-33—65.

Harbert was fourth, behind Argentina's Roberto De Vicenzo who had a 66, with a 31-36—67.

Fifteen pros, respresenting six nations, are entered in the four-day, 72-hole event.

Hildebrand Named Top Football Assistant

WAKE FOREST, N.C. (AP) — Charles William (Billy) Hildebrand will be "number one assistant" to head Coach Paul Amen in directing the Wake Forest College football team.

The appointment of Hildebrand as the first of five assistants was announced yesterday by Amen, who recently took over the Wake Forest coaching spot vacated by Tom Rogers.

The hotly - contested Suburban Catholic League basketball race gets steamed up again tonight with a full card of four games in the offing.

The two most important contests involve Pontiac's member schools. St. Michael journeys to Royal Oak for a crucial battle with St. Mary's Irish and St. Frederick tackles Orchard Lake St. Mary on the Orchard Lake court.

Tom Bean's Royal Oak cagers have been the surprise of the SCL title chase. They won their 1st four league starts before they were upended by St. Benedict and Orchard Lake's quintet.

Despite their last two setbacks the Irish pose a dangerous threat to St. Mike, particularly on their home floor. The Irish boast three capable shooters in Phil Brzezinski, Charlie Dixon and John Nutt.

Bob Mineweaser's Shamrocks, aiming for their 2nd straight loop crown, are locked in a triple tie for 1st place with Orchard Lake and St. Ben. and have a return match against the Bens looming around the corner.

Gene Wright's Rams face a rugged task in their tussle with the Eaglets. The title-hungry Eaglets have improved rapidly after a slow start and possess the home court advantage for this encounter.

The underdog R a m s will once more call on scoring ace Dick Doyon as they attempt to better the .500 mark in league play by bouncing Father John Rakoczy's squad. But the Eaglets promise too many guns for St. Fred to handle.

St. Benedict's Ravens rate a solid choice to whip St. Rita's downtrodden club in their engagement at Hazel Park and St. James gets the nod over basement-dwelling St. Clement in a loop game at Center Line.

Weekend Report

Excellent Skiing Reported

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Skiing conditions were reported excellent today at most of Michigan's winter sports playgrounds.

Ski riders haven't had it so good for many winters.

At the Michigan Tech ski area, Houghton-Hancock in the upper peninsula, six inches of new powder snow over a two-foot packed base assured a continuance of excellent skiing conditions. All tows were operating and skiing under the lights was scheduled for Wednesday evenings.

The Copper Country Vacationist League reported the Michigan Tech Winter Carnival Feb. 6 through Feb. 11 include a snow statue contest, college hockey, winter sports, and a "snoball."

East Michigan Tourist Assn. reported the Lewiston winter carnival featuring junior and senior races and coronation of a queen will be held this Saturday and Sunday. The association gave this report on ski conditions for the weekend:

SHERIDAN VALLEY and Woodridge ski area, near Lewiston—temperature 18. Six to eight inch base with one inch of new snow, snowing at time of report. Skiing excellent.

SNOW VALLEY, Ski village, Sylvan Knob, Otsego Ski Club and AuSable Ranch and Ski Club, all near Gaylord—temperature 15. Eight to 14 inch base with about two inches of new powder snow. Skiing excellent.

SNOW SNAKE MOUNTAIN, between Clare and Harrison—temperature 12, six to seven inch base with three inches of new snow. Skiing excellent.

SKYLINE, near Roscommon—temperature 14. Four inch packed base with one inch of powder snow. Snowing at time of report. Skiing excellent.

GRISWOLD MOUNTAIN, near Indian River—Temperature 10. Seven to 10 inch base with one inch snow. Skiing excellent.

MIO MOUNTAIN, near Mio—temperature 10. Eight inch packed base with one inch of new snow. Skiing good.

Skiing Is Good This Weekend at Teeple Hill

Barring a sudden unfavorable change of weather skiing conditions will be excellent this weekend at the Pontiac Ski Club, according to Art Kollin, club membership chairman.

Four tows will be in operation to accommodate a heavy turnout, Kollin said, and the floodlights for night skiing should be ready for weekend activity on the north hill.

Kollin said that one tow was disabled recently, apparently by vandals, but it is being repaired and will be running this weekend.

Wings Shove NY Out of 2nd

DETROIT (INS) — Four down and one to go—that's the story of the Detroit Red Wings today.

For the first time this season, the Redshirts are in 2nd place in the National Hockey League after last night's hard-fought, 3-2 victory over the New York Rangers before 13,860 fans at Olympia.

The win was doubly sweet for the Detroiters because the lowly Boston Bruins dumped league leading Montreal, 5-1, in last night's other NHL contest.

After Bill Dineen's marker with only 53 seconds remaining in the first period had given Detroit a one-goal lead, Gordie Howe and Lea (Red) Kelly fired markers before two minutes had been played in the second frame.

However, the never-say-die New Yorkers pounded away at Detroit netminder Glenn Hall and scored twice themselves midway in the same stanza.

New York's two Andys—Hebenton and Bathgate—blinked the red light and the "Broadway Blues" were back in the game.

The third period was scoreless but bitterly fought. As usual, goalie Lorne (Gump) Worsley put on a fine show in the Ranger nets, stopping 33 Detroit shots.

Howe's goal, his 28th of the season and 290th of his NHL career, was a deflection of Bob Goldham's 60-foot blast. Worsley made no effort to block the shot for the simple reason that he never saw it.

Tonight, the Wings will be in Chicago for a tilt with the 5th place Black Hawks in the only NHL game scheduled. Sunday, the Candiens move into Olympia for the first of three straight contests with the Wings—ones that probably will decide whether Detroit can go on to an unprecedented eighth straight NHL title.

Last night's defeat was only the 12th suffered by the Frenchmen this season and it was a pair of ex-Red Wings who led the Boston attack.

Real Chevrifils, who could manage only three goals while with Detroit, continued his hot streak by netting two last night. Ex-Wing Jerry Toppazini also tallied for the last place Bruins.

Montreal's lone score was produced by Bernie (Boom-Boom) Geoffrion. Detroit is now 12 points behind the Canadiens.

HOCKEY SPILL — New York Ranger Bill Gadsby, (left) collided with Red Wing Metro Prystal, flooring both players in the first period of last night's game which Detroit won 3-2 at the Olympia. Prystal landed on Gadsby's head but both players were uninjured.

Prep Quintets at Midpoint

The first six rounds of a 12 round schedule in the Wayne-Oakland league are over and as was expected Milford carries the lead without a challenger.

Tonight the Redskins visit West Bloomfield where little trouble is anticipated. The two teams put on a free scoring show in their first meeting with Milford setting a school scoring record by winning 105-69.

Again it will be two of the area's top pointmakers facing each other, Jim Davidson of Milford and Frank Rogers of the Lakers.

In other parts of the league in the start of the 2nd half of the schedule, surprising Clarenceville travels to Brighton, Holly is at Clarkston and Northville visits Thurston in a non-loop contest.

The Mustangs can take sole possession of 2nd place with a win at Brighton. Presently a deadlock between Northville and Clarenceville exists in the spot behind Milford.

Walled Lake and Southfield, currently tied with 4-1 marks in the Inter-Lakes conference, will have to be on guard tonight. The Vikings host Berkley, and the Jays visit Farmington a team which handed Southfield its only loss in the league.

That was a 53-51 overtime decision on the Jay court. Farmington is riding a three-game winning crest including a win over previously unbeaten Livonia Bently.

Waterford, slowly falling to a lower ebb in scoring with each game, travels to Van Dyke tonight.

Nothing in the way of importance to Oakland B standings takes place tonight except Avandale's invasion of Troy in hopes of regaining title hopes.

The Yellow Jackets are in favorable position schedule-wise to get back into the race having the league leaders Fitzgerald and Madison to play at home yet.

Lowly Lake Orion has little hope of crashing the win column for the season in tonight's game. The Dragons visit Madison in the only other game of the league.

Birmingham travels to East Detroit in the Eastern Michigan League, and a Maple loss would put these two teams into a 2nd place deadlock behind Port Huron.

The Hurons are at Mt. Clemens where they could possibly get stung. If this should happen then a Birmingham win would again throw both teams into a tie for 1st place. Ferndale and Hazel Park are enjoying open dates.

In other games of interest, Romeo and Rochester tangle in a return match on the Romeo court. In their first meeting Rochester scored a 58-51 decision.

Utica continues its Bi-County league title drive in its 3rd straight road game, this time at South Lake. The Chieftains are 5-2 for the season.

Manager Gets New Club

WICHITA FALLS (AP) — Earl Naylor, pilot of the Asheville club of the Tri-State League last season, has been named manager of the Wichita Falls entry in the Big State Baseball League.

South Central Has Showdown

Two high powered cage teams from the South Central League, with only one loss between them for the season, meet in one of tonight's top flight games.

The game features unbeaten North Branch (8-0) visiting Imlay City (9-1). Both quintets are 2-0 in the league, each holding wins over Ortonville and Millington.

Only loss marring the Raider record is 60-59 defeat at Almont of the Southern Thumb League.

Both teams have a three-ply scoring attack with the Broncos showing balance in Jim Ferrier, Jack Griffin and John O'Neill, and Imlay countering with Larry Dorow, Duane Maison and Wayne Samson.

Ortonville of SC league takes a 4-4 record to young Bloomfield Hills while Millington plays host to independent Oxford.

The Wildcats of Jean Harkness had a cold shooting night Tuesday in lising to Troy. Oxford made only 3 of 30 shots in the first half in going down to its 4th loss in five games.

Light Action in Southern Thumb

Spotlight is at Memphis where the league leading Tigers face ambitious Memphis currently in 3rd place of the loop.

New Haven is aiming for the .500 mark in league play at Brown City. The Rockets could move into a 4th place tie should Armada trip Memphis, and they take Brown City.

Outstanding Rookies Report to Cards Next Spring

(This is the 10th of a series of articles by Associated Press baseball expert Joe Reichler on the prospects among Major League rookies. Today he scans the St. Louis Cardinals.)

NEW YORK (AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals, who appear to have a corner on the "Rookie-of-the-Year" market, should have more than one candidate for the 1956 award if the boys live up to their press notices.

In 1954 the Cards' Wally Moon was voted the National League's outstanding rookie. Last year it was Bill Virdon with his Redbird teammate Ken Boyer not far behind. Coming to the Cards' training camp in St. Petersburg, Fla., this spring will be a batch of youngsters including second baseman Don Blasingame, the American Assn.'s Rookie of the Year; outfielder Jackie Brandt, the International League's Rookie of the Year; outfielder Russell Rac, the Texas League's outstanding rookie; and outfielder Gene Green, top first-year man of the Three-Eye League. Brandt and Green are not on the Cardinal roster but will be given an opportunity to make the club.

Most of the other Cardinal newcomers have been up before although shortstop Eddie Kasko and pitchers Harry Hoitsma, Bob Mabe and Billy Muffett will have their first fling in big league company. Hoitsma, a 27-year-old righthander with a 13-3 record at Houston, may be just the relief pitcher Manager Freddie Hutchinson is looking for. He worked in 56 games, most of them in relief, finished 45 of them, walked only 48 in 109 innings and had an impressive 2.64 earned run average. Mabe, 26, was 16-10 at Houston with 15 complete games. Muffett, 25, was drafted from Shreveport where he had a 10-4 record. Kasko was purchased from Richmond where he batted .267.

Practically everybody who has seen Blasinggame has something nice to say about the hustling 23-year-old speedster from Corinth, Miss. A former shortstop, the Blazer was switched to second base by Eddie Stanky who was looking forward to the time Red Schoendienst will have to be replaced. A .303 hitter at Omaha, an excellent fielder and double play pivotman, the scrappy youngster may become a factor in the battle for third or short if, as is likely, he fails to dislodge the talented Schoendienst.

None really expects Brandt to make it this year but the Cards regard the 21-year-old flychaser as a certain big leaguer in a year or two. General Manager Frank Lane firmly believes the 5-11, 175-pounder will end the Cards' search for a right-handed swatter. Luke Sewell who, as manager of Toronto last year, was a first-hand observor of Brandt, thinks the kid was the No. 1 major league prospect in the entire league.

Berra Top Salaried

NEW YORK (AP)—Yoggi Berra of the New York Yankees, generally paired with Roy Campanella as the active catcher in the business, today took top billing as the highest priced catcher ever in major league baseball.

Guesses put the contract price at $50,000 and Berra, who became the American League's Most Valuable Player for the third time last season, said that was "close enough."

Campabella, a three-time MVP in the National League, became the highest priced Brooklyn Dodger in history 24 hours earlier, signing for a reported $42,500.

Only two other Yankees ever received more than Berra. Joe DiMaggio commanded $100,000, Babe Ruth—in his day of smaller salaries—received $80,000 tops.

Berra, who will be 31 on May 12 and who, like Campanella, has yet to take a cut in salary since coming to the majors, batted only .272,

Making Progress on Ambulance Plan

Pontiac Chamber of Commerce Safety Committee, planning to recommend the city require ambulance attendants be better trained in emergency medical treatment, is making "excellent" progress, said chairman Clyde R. Haskill after a committee meeting yesterday.

Work on a proposed ordinance, which the City Commission will be asked to adopt, may be completed in "two or three weeks," Haskill stated.

He said the ordinance, if passed, wil lcall for attendants to have completed basic Red Cross first aid instruction plus additional training under supervisioin of doctors.

The plan is modeled to some degree on a system in effect in Flint, Haskill said, but will be fashioned to meet local needs.

Frank Sinatra forwarded a "mother story"—his mother once phoned him in Hollywood six years ago . . . wanted to enter politics and run for Commissioner of Safety in Weehawken, N. J.

His mother indignantly retorted: "If you can take time to campaign for Franklin Roosevelt, why the h——l can't you campaign for your mother?"

$22 Million in Arms Sent to Israel, Foes

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The U. N. today published a survey reporting that 10 Western nations have shipped 22 million dollars worth of arms to Israel and her Arab enemies since 1951.

This survey, published in the U. N. periodical Commodity Trade Statistics, said Israel got $8,986,000 of the arms and the five Arab states of Egypt, Iraq, Lebanon, Saudi Arabia and Syria got $13,029,000 worth.

The figures, however, did not include (1) aircraft shipments, (2) subsidy to Jordan's Arab Legion and (3) any arms from France.

The survey, ending with mid-1955 also made no mention of Communist Czechoslovakia's agreement to sell Egypt 80 million dollars worth of arms.

Both Navy Pilots Safe After Collision of Jets

EL CENTRO, Calif. (AP) — Two Navy F9F Cougar jets collided yesterday during maneuvers. One pilot bailed out safely. The other flew his crippled plane back to its base.

Lt. (J.G.) William H. Beck, 26, of Cupertino, Calif., said he didn't remember ejecting himself from the jet and had only a vague recollection of hitting the ground. His plane crashed in flames.

GIs' Complaints Lift Warren Building Ban

DETROIT (AP)—Warren Township has lifted a building ban that was imposed on a contractor following a rash of complaints by GI home buyers.

Clerk Hildegarde Lowe said today the Township Board at a recent meeting voted 3-1 to permit Ira A. Hotchkiss to start an 80-home subdivision on Nine Mile road near Mound.

Treasurer William A. Shaw, who was among the officials voting to lift the ban, said the group was convinced that Hotchkiss had "made every effort to satisfy all legitimate complaints which were aimed at him earlier."

More than 200 former GIs filed complaints of faulty construction with the Veterans Administration last summer from township subdivisions in which Hotchkiss had an interest.

The township clerk said Hotchkiss would be free to start his new subdivision when a month-long township moratorium on all residential building permits ends with the publication of a stricter building code next week.

Dearborn Police Fire 5 Dogs From Force

DETROIT (AP) — Suburban Dearborn has fired its K-9 force of five police dogs.

Lack of action made the dogs "nervous," said Safety Director Marguerite Johnson.

Socialist Plans French Cabinet

Mollet, Mendes-France Will Submit Report for Assembly's OK

PARIS (AP) — Premier-designate Guy Mollet and his ally Pierre Mendes-France sought today to shape up the French Cabinet the Socialist leader will submit for National Assembly approval next week.

Mollet, head of the Socialist party, and Mendes-France, who leads the moderate Radicals, formed an aliance called the "Republican Front" that won them some 160 Assembly seats in the recent election.

Although far short of a majority in the 596-member Assembly, they claimed the right to head up a new government. Other parties disputed them only briefly and apparently are prepared to let them try to form a cabinet.

He says he will form a "minority" cabinet with all the posts going to members of the front.

Mendes-France is expected to get a prominent job, but there were repo rtsof disagreeemnt over which one. The former Premier reportedly wants to take over the key foreign affairs post, while the Socialists prefer to put him in charge of economic affair's.

Both Mollet and Mendes-France agree that Algeria is the main problem facing any new government. Mollet has said the next premier should go to Algeria for a personal try at ending the bloody 15-month-old guerrilla revolt against French rule.

Mollet accepted at once when President Rene Coty approached him last night, two days after caretaker Premier Edgar Faure submitted his resignation.

More popular than Mendes-France, he is given a good chance of getting confirmation. But how long his Cabinet will last is another matter. His own estimate, according to one report, is about three months.

Pick Man of 1955

KALAMAZOO (AP) — Dr. Jack Dale, a research scientist for a pharmaceutical firm, is the Kalamazoo Junior Chamber of Commerce "Distinguished Service Man of 1955." Dr. Dale is 34 and was among 12 nominated.

IT'S SNOWING!—Pretty Nancy Garrison gaily lifts her face to the snow as the fluffy flakes fall on Memphis, Tenn. Memphis was having its deepest snowfall—five inches and more falling—since 10½ inches fell there on Jan. 19, 1948. But 16-year-old Nancy seems delighted. And why not? School was let out at noon because of the snow.

Hollywood Headlines:

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — The old suspension was lifted from Eleanor Parker's shapley shoulders yesterday when she was told she is to be the star of Somerset Maugham's "Painted Veil" at MGM. Garbo was starred in this romantic drama, one of Maugham's best, some years ago.

It's a fascinating story about a woman's search for love and understanding, with such pictureque backgrounds as Hong Kong and London.

The choice of Eleanor proves another point—that Ava Gardner is not coming back as soon as MGM expected.. She was supposed to do "Painted Veil" and was expected to report in Hollywood for it. Instead she lingers on in Spain.

However, producer David Lewis is very happy to get Eleanor, whose "Interrupted Melody" is one of the really good performances of the year.

I asked Mitzi Gaynor what next after "Anything Goes" in which she's so good.

"Well, I have been at RKO several evenings looking at comedies Ginger Rogers made. They're not the Rogers-Astaire musicals but just bright comedies that Ginger made some years ago.

"Then Paramount has an original story for Donald O'Connor and me. I have been talking with Donald about it and we both want to do it. It will be just a straight story without big musical numbers."

ROLE FOR DEBRA

"Ten Commandments" did it for Debra Paget. Y. Frank Freeman Jr. took a look at her scenes as Lilla, the water girl in the C.B. de Mille epic, and decided she was just the right charmer to play Sharain, the Queen of Persia, in his "Omar Khayaam."

For awhile, Debra's career seemed to be slipping. I think she did the wrong thing when she appeared in such daring costumes as she wore (or didn't wear) in her Las Vegas nightclub stint.

Recently, Debra has reverted to the nice, wholesome young girl she was when we first knew her at 20th Century-Fox.

Irene Harvey, who has really been blue and unhappy following Allen Jones' second unexpected walkout on their marriage, at last has something to cheer her up.

Lunching with a girl friend at the Vine street Brown Derby the other day, Irene was surprised when a stranger walked up and said, "I'm Don Fedderson, producer of 'The Millionaire' program on TV. Miss Hervey, I think you are just right for our next chapter, 'Candy Caldwell.' An old friend of yours, Al Greene, is directing. How about it?"

The next day she made a test—and the starring role is hers!

Leo Durocher, who celebrated his ninth wedding anniversary last Sunday, says that when he and Laraine Day were married people were saying it wouldn't last nine days. Nice that the public was wrong.

Ypsilanti Resident Dies in Arkansas Hospital

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP)—Alan W. Shapel of Ypsilanti, Mich., a former attorney for Ford Motor Co. and automobile dealer, died at a hospital yesterday. He was 51.

Shapel, who recently sold his automobile business at Ypsilanti, was en route to Phoenix, Ariz., for his health when he suffered a heart attack several days ago.

State Senate Passes 3 Foreign Heir Bills

LANSING (AP)—The Senate has approved legislation to prevent iron curtain countries from capturing the estates of Americans with heirs in Soviet satellite nations.

The chamber passed and sent to the House three bills which would permit probate courts to require foreign heirs to appear in person to obtain their inheritances in Michigan.

Senators said the bills were aimed at the practice of satellite nations of obtaining possession of inheritances in America through their consular officers and then failing to transmit them to the proper heirs abroad.

The bills also would forbid foreign heirs to inherit and take possession of Michigan property unless Americans can take possession of property they inherit in foreign countries.

Nigerian Government Creates Fish Farm

NIGERIA—In an effort to supply the African population of Northern Nigeria with a needed protein and fat, the government has established a fish farm at Panyam in the Plateau Province, Lagos reports. After several years of experimentation it already is yielding a profit—$1,550 in a recent six months.

Although over 150 different kinds of freshwater fish have been classified in Nigeria, imported carp seem best suited to fish-farming, growing about four pounds in six months. It is believed that this type of food cultivation has vast possibilities in that district.

To supply the African population with only a pound of fish per head each week would require 250,000 tons annually.

Afghanistan has advised Karachi that it has "no territorial ambitions" in Pakistan.

Plan Minor Changes in GM's Aerotrains

DETROIT (AP) — General Motors is planning to make some changes in its two experimental "Aerotrains."

The trains, which have been making demonstration runs since earlier this month will be taken out of service today. An announcement by the GM Electro-Motoive Division, which designed the trains, said they will be taken to the Pennsylvania and New York Central Railroad car shops for minor changes designed to deaden sound and improve riding comfort.

These were described as criticisms of the two trains during the demonstration runs. The trains, of unusually light weight, are said to provide operating economy — at least 50 per cent below that of conventional equipment in fuel savings alone.

Ask Nation's Farmers Cut Potato Planting

WASHINGTON (INS)—The Agriculture Department has recommended an average cut of eight per cent in total acreage of summer and late potatoes in 1956.

The department's annual acreage-marketing guides, released yesterday, recommend that growers in the 29 late states reduce plantings to 1,005,200 acres in 1956, compared with the 1,096,200 planted in 1955. Growers in the 10 summer commercial states were asked to plant 65,000 acres this year compared with the 71,300 acres planted in 1955.

Steady Tone Rules Grains

CHICAGO (AP) — A steady tone ruled in grains on the Board of Trade today but only soybeans were able to make much forward progress. And gains in soybeans were limited to fractions.

* * *

Main feature in the market was a letup in the selling pressure noticeable in the previous session, particularly in soybeans. But this wasn't followed by any aggressive buying.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was unchanged to ½ higher, March $2.10; corn unchanged to ⅜ higher, March $1.29½; oats unchanged to ¼ lower, March 65; rye unchanged to ¼ higher, March $1.22⅞; soybeans ½ to ¾ higher, March $2.46¾, and lard unchanged to 5 cents a hundred pounds higher, March $11.80.

It was the first full year of operation under Board Chairman Robert R. Young who took control June 14, 1954 after a proxy fight. The net was higher than in any period since the war year of 1943.

There seldom was any selling pressure, and the market made a few efforts at a rally without much success.

Prices in the early afternoon usually were off between 1 and 2 points at the most. Gains were small.

Active Buying Boosts Hog Market Prices

CHICAGO (AP) — Hog prices jumped an average of 50 to 75 cents a hundred pounds yesterday in the 4th straight day of a sharp advance.

Packers and Eastern shippers rushed into the market and quickly cleared up all the 10,000 hogs offered for sale. The trading had an almost panicky air with buyers trying to acquire numbers and not sorting out offerings for quality.

There were some gains ranging to around $1.00 or more on butcher hogs. The top price was $14.75 a hundred pounds, up 75 cents for the day and $2.25 for the week.

* * *

Behind the advance, livestock men said, was a steep drop in receipts this week. This made packers anxious to acquire hogs to keep their slaughter crews busy.

Wilson in Defense Post Three Years on Saturday

self a patient worker for peace. He tightened the reins on the more aggressive and warlike of the military strategists who have been urging that the United States shake its big stick of atomic power at Russia.

Wilson repeatedly has expressed his policy on war: It doesn't solve anything and nowadays no one can win a war.

Toward the Russians, Wilson has taken the confident position that they are not "10 feet tall." On the contrary, he has argued that the Russians are afraid of us—of our industrial might and our atomic air power.

Wilson has taken what he considers a realistic and practical approach toward the Russian threat.

"As long as you have militant communism, you have a threat to the free world. Now that doesn't necessarily mean that the Russians necessarily want war. They still have a very vivid recollection of what war means. The victors in a modern war lose—they don't lose as much as the vanquished, but they lose.

During the 1954 congressional election campaign, Wilson hit the front pages with his remark that "I have always liked bird dogs better than kennel fed dogs myself"—a crack against unemployed workers who don't scout around for another job.

When Wilson was asked about air force proposals for an atomic engine to be installed in a big bomber like the B-36, he complained that the plane would be too slow.

"Just to make a plane that would get off the ground is not quite what we are trying to do," Wilson said.

SPECIFIC GOALS

Wilson's slide-rule mind and his long experience in the world's biggest industrial corporation made themselves felt in the Pentagon—even though he disguised his acute insight into Pentagon foibles by his disarming geniality and country-style joshing.

When he came to the Pentagon as an understudy in November, 1952, waiting for the Eisenhower regime to take over, he had a clear idea of what he wanted to do:

1. Install a businesslike management system to make every dollar count.

2. Cut defense spending by dropping outmoded second rate weapons, emphasizing new weapons, and keeping only the essential.

3. Establish a long term defense program that the nation could afford to sustain for 10, 20, or 30 years, if necessary, without setting off inflation or creating a heavy tax burden.

SPENDING RATE SLASHED

Under Wilson's management, backed by President Eisenhower, the defense department has cut its spending rate from 45 billion dollars in 1953 to about 35 billion dollars.

Standing military forces have been cut from 3½ million men to 2,900,000, with the promise of further cuts if a reliable combat ready reserve force can be established.

Wilson has pressured for the scrapping of orders for "bum" airplanes, outmoded weapons, and "boondoggling" research.

He eschewed the meat-ax approach to economy, but patiently kept probing and digging away. His patient philosophy is "we're making progress all the time."

"Since I have come down to Washington I have found that weeding out inefficiency is politically unpopular," he said somewhat resignedly last November. But he keeps on trying, anyway.

WARMS UP TO PEOPLE

He tries to keep his weight down, but he can't resist hamburgers, soups, cheese, and fruit. He likes to have some of his associates to lunch for lively talk about current defense problems. Genial and gregarious, he warms up to people and enjoys their camaraderie.

At 65, Wilson is past the retirement age for General Motors executives.

His Pentagon associates are convinced that he will stay on as defense secretary so long as the President requires him.

After that, Wilson dreams wistfully of his favorite Ayrshire cattle and his long-cherished plan to cross the Ayrshire with the Sindhi-Brahman cattle from India to create a new breed to be registered as "Sindayr."

Off-Duty Policeman Admits Wounding 2

Smith & Wessen Special, was confiscated. Sexton said he fired only two shots from it, Inspector Clark M. Wheaton said.

Scene of the shooting was believed the school grounds because of blood discovered there, Wheaton said. Two empty bottles of beer and a half-filled bottle of whisky also were found, he said.

Wheaton said Sexton took McCowen to the hospital after the shooting about 5:45 a.m. Stephens, he said, apparently appealed for help at a home near the school.

The policeman was arrested at his sister's home, 200 Mt. Clemens St. at 6 a.m. Sexton has been staying there since he recently separated from his wife, Wheaton said.

A member of the police department since March, 1953, Sexton had been assigned to the Uniform Patrol Bureau.

Police Chief Herbert W. Straley said because Sexton is on probation, he may be dismissed without benefit of a trial board hearing.

Legislators Hear Dr. Menninger

Psychiatrist Addresses Lansing Group on Mental Health

LANSING (AP) — A world-famous psychiatrist told the Legislature yesterday it should put "brains" before "bricks" in building an adequate mental health program for Michigan.

Dr. William C. Menninger, whose father founded the Menninger Foundation at Topeka, Kans., told the lawmakers the most important need in Michigan as in other states is for more psychiatrists, nurses and attendants to treat mental patients.

"Many patients will get well in a barn if you give them the right doctors and the right treatment," he said. "We don't want them to live in barns but staff and treatment must come first."

In a separate meeting with members of the House Ways and Means Committee and the Senate Appropriations Committee, he described Kansas' campaign to improve its mental health program.

He said Michigan's ratio of one doctor to every 222 patients and the $3.60 per day per patient it spends is "far from adequate."

"Plan on the basis that if we give them a chance, the great majority of the mentally ill patients can get well," he said.

Because Michigan's people and Legislature have taken an increasing interest in mental health problems during recent years, he said, the state has "fabulous opportunities for developing an adequate mental health program."

But Michigan must cut down the ratio of patients to doctors and increase the amount spent per day on patients, he said.

Hagerty Attacks 'Scurrilous Lie'

Drew Pearson's Story About Timber Draws White House Fire

WASHINGTON (INS) — The White House today denounced as a "scurrilous lie" a published report that President Eisenhower personally intervened to encourage sale of government timber rights in Oregon.

Presidential News Secretary James C. Hagerty made the charge in the strongest language he has ever used in denying a published story involving the President.

The report was published by Drew Pearson in a column on the sale of the timber rights to the Al Sarena Company, owner of the 303-acre property in Oregon's Rogue River National Forest.

In his column, Pearson referred to a letter which he said was "buried in the Senate Interior Committee files." Hagerty angrily read excerpts from the Pearson column and declared:

"The story is a complete falsehood and in my opinion a scurrilous lie.

NO SUCH LETTER

"Yesterday at a hearing before the committee . . . the staff members themselves admitted that no such letter existed. There is no such letter in existence."

Hagerty requested that his statement be used by newspapers which published the Pearson column. He said he was making the comment so the press and the public will "have this information."

The Pearson column also touched off an explosion yesterday at the Senate hearing on the Al Sarena case, which has been attacked by Democrats as an example of what they call "giveway" of the nation's resources.

The case itself was all but forgotten in an angry clash between Democrats and Republicans when GOP members challenged the Pearson report that Eisenhower had intervened with Interior Secretary Douglas McKay on Al Sarena's behalf.

East and West Reach Accord

Awards in 41 Divisions Will Be Presented in March Ceremonies

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—It now appears that Emmy has patched up her family troubles and will be a respected lady from coast to coast.

"Emmy" awards are made annually by the Academy of Television Arts and Sciences. They are like the "Oscar" awards made annually by the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences. There is no relationship between the two academies.

For some time many people employed in television in New York and the Midwest have complained that Emmy awards were not truly representative of the entire industry and were too much under the influence of Hollywood.

But now there's been an East-West meeting at the summit here and the Academy of Television Arts and Sciences appears launched on an era of peace and goodwill.

41 CATEGORIES

"We've established 41 categories of awards which will be made in March," he said. "We can really say that everybody is happy. We're setting up machinery for a national board with individual chapters in New York, Hollywood, Chicago, Philadelphia, St. Louis and Boston."

* * *

Hollywood representatives, besides DeFore, were Tom Lewis, Robert Longsreeker, Loren Ryder and Thomas Freebairn-Smith.

The Emmys are the only TV awards to craftsmen by craftsmen. In De Fore's words, "Starting this year, they will reflect the entire opinion of the industry. These will not be popularity awards, but true awards for merit."

All members of all unions operating in the television industry are eligible to nominate. Final balloting is secretly by members of the academy.

1,000 MEMBERS

Currently there are about 1,000 members in Hollywood and it's expected to have at least that many members in New York by March.

Anyone actively engaged in creative effort in television—actors, producers, directors, cameramen, engineers, film editors, writers, executives — is eligible to membership in the academy.

The 41 categories for awards seem to embrace just about everything in television—from best news commentator to best camera work on a live show, and from best comedian to best comedienne.

For some women, fashions never change. Dress styles introduced by missionaries some 75 years ago are worn by natives of Windhoek, South-West Africa.

Photographer Opens New Pontiac Studio

A new photographic studio, owned and operated by Dimitri LaZaroff of Pontiac, opened for business today at 124 W. Huron St. The enterprise will specialize in wedding pictures, portraiture and commercial photography.

The studio will be equipped for three-dimension, color and black-and-white. A current grand opening observance will last through Feb. 4, according to LaZaroff.

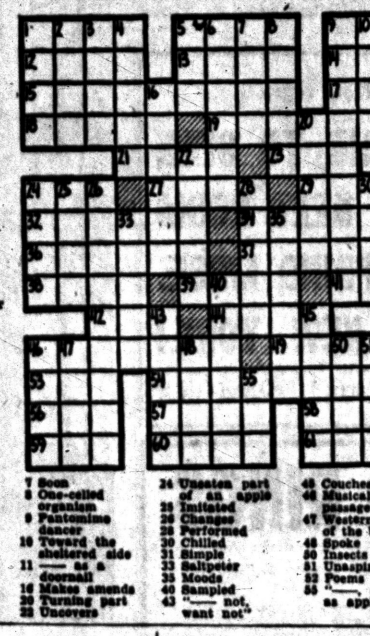

A native of Pontiac, LaZaroff is a graduate of Pontiac High School and the Fred Archer School of Photography at Los Angeles. He had been engaged in local professional photography for the past two years while serving as director of portrait photography for the Detroit School of Photography.

Among his past accomplishments are several national and state awards for outstanding pictures. He also has taken pictures of several stage, motion picture and television personalities.

Crews Clean Up Ionia Fire Ruin

$200,000 Blaze Origin in Reformatory Building Still Unknown

IONIA (AP) — Cleanup crews are working at the blackened interior of the Ionia reformatory storage building, scene of a $200,000 fire Wednesday.

Origin of the blaze is still being sought. Warden Garrett Hayns said exact estimate of the loss will have to await an inventory of prison supplies destroyed in the flames.

The fire, discovered at 8 a.m., burned out the interior of the two-story brick building's 60-year-old center section. Two newer wings suffered smoke damage but steel fire doors kept the flames confined to the old section.

Firemen finally extinguished the blaze, which smouldered in stocks of paint, paper and other materials, at 5 p.m.

The storage building is due to be replaced by a modern structure that will be built outside the walls to serve the reformatory and a planned medium security prison.

Officials praised the more than 100 prisoners who worked all day to help fight the flames. One prison officer said, "The only trouble we had with the men was keeping them from going in there when it was too dangerous."

Install Area Man in President's Post

Bruce A. Everly, of 1088 Riveroak, Birmingham, was installed as president of the Electrical Association of Detroit at a recent meeting of the organization. He succeeds another Birmingham resident, Howard L. Linder, of 1200 Chesterfield Rd.

Everly is branch apparatus and supply manager for the Westinghouse Electrical Supply Co., while Linder heads Linder Electrical Sales.

The installation ceremony was followed by an address by Treasurer E. O. George, of Bloomfield Hills, who outlined an educational program to be launched by the Edison Electrical Institute in May. George is chairman of the institute's wiring promotion committee.

Linder was cited at the meeting by Austin W. Dunham, of 855 Harmon Rd., Birmingham, who presented the former officer with a clock. Dunham is immediate past president of the association.

Airport Records Reveal More Flights During '55

Pontiac City Airport recorded almost twice as many flights during the past year than in 1954 as well as twice as many personnel and cargo trips, Homer D. Hoskins, airport manager reported.

A traffic count at the field revealed 80,189 flights last year compared to 42,560 the previous year. Personnel and cargo trips totaled 9,684 for 1955 compared to 4,835 in 1954.

In addition, there were 136,679 gallons of gasoline sold at the field in 1955 compared to a 1954 sales of 103,745.

The manager reported an average of 130 aircraft based at the airport, ten of which are twin engine. He said 70 per cent of all aircraft are business or corporation owned.

Major maintenance jobs at the field during 1955 consisted of completion of the first part of the new east-west runway project and applying a tarvia and chip sealer coat on the north-south runway.

The construction of 36 new storage hangars on leased airport property have boosted the revenue by $182 per month, Hoskins added.
