Air Force Plane Drops Fuel Tank in Mandon Lake

An Air Force officer at Selfridge Air Force Base said today a mechanical and materiel failure caused an auxiliary fuel tank to drop from a jet plane and plummet into Mandon Lake yesterday.

LT. Stephen Shafer, assistant Public Information officer, said that officials were determining whether it would be feasible to retrieve the tank to determine the exact cause.

No one was injured as the large tank splashed into the White Lake Township lake at 2 p.m., although one piece, presumed to be trim from the tank, struck a nearby house, and another fragment landed 30 feet from shore.

Township Treasurer R. D. Austin saw the tank falling after watching the plane fly over. "At first I thought it was a plane coming toward me—it hit with an awful explosion," he said.

Tornado Signal System Sought

Ask Civil Defense OK for Use of Sirens to Alert Areas

City Manager Walter K. Willman will seek an answer from Civil Defense officials in Lansing on whether civil defense sirens could be used to warn Pontiac residents in case of tornadoes.

The action was started last night when Commissioner John A. Dugan (District 5) requested some solution on a warning to be installed or used upon the approach of a tornado like the one that struck Grand Rapids suburbs last week.

The commissioner, along with Commissioner Floyd P. Miles (District 4), said they had received questions from residents in their districts on this matter.

"I'm beginning to wonder if tornadoes are not more dangerous and closer to Michigan than air raids are," Dugan said.

He suggested the use of the air raid siren upon the Pontiac State Bank Building or the blinking of street lights to warn citizens of the tornado's approach.

He added that many people do not have their radios or television sets on and miss warnings that come over these media.

No Weather Change in Store for Pontiac

The Weatherman says there will be no important change in temperature tonight and tomorrow. Skies will be partly cloudy with a low tonight of 30-34 degrees.

The prediction for high tomorrow is the same as today, 51-55. Upper Michigan temperatures are slightly colder with a high of 48-53 forecast tomorrow.

The lowest thermometer reading preceding 8 a.m. in downtown Pontiac was 30 degrees. The mercury rose to 33 at 1 p.m.

Restive Peace Settles Around Tense Holy Land

Hamarskjold Confers With Egypt's Nasser; Outposts Remain Ready

FROM AP and INS WIRES

CAIRO—Dag Hammarskjold, working with the active support of the United States, apparently made some progress today in his plea to Egypt to end the bloody border war with Israel.

The United Nations secretary general conferred for an hour and 15 minutes this morning with Egyptian Premier Gamal Nasser. He was smiling and appeared in good spirits as he sped past reporters on his way to a luncheon meeting with Egyptian and U. N. officials. As Hammarskjold was meeting Nasser, in his quest to restore peace to the Middle East, U. S. Ambassador Henry Byroade visited Soviet Ambassador to Egypt Evgeny Kissilev. Then Byroade was visited by British Ambassador Sir Humphrey Trevelyan.

PEACE IN HOLY LAND

Peace prevailed in the Holy Land today for the first time in a week but Arab and Israeli soldiers still looked at one another through gun-sights.

Hours after dawn not a single incident had been reported along the tense frontiers, including the shell-pocked Gaza Strip.

For the first time since Saturday there were no Fedayeen (suicide squad) night raids on Israeli settlements.

Tension began to slacken yesterday with the arrival in the embattled area of the U. N. Secretary General.

SOUGHT CEASE-FIRE

As a first step toward easing the danger of an all-out Middle Eastern war, the U. N. chief sought enforcement of a strict cease-fire.

Both sides expressed willingness to cooperate with Hammarskjold. But frontier outposts remained in battle readiness.

The most recent Arab-Israeli incidents took place yesterday afternoon. Three Israeli soldiers were wounded near the Gaza Strip when their truck hit a mine.

Egypt in turn charged an Israeli plane had flown over the Egyptian-held Gaza Strip and an Israeli army patrol had raided deep inside Gaza.

GRAVE SITUATION

Washington officials discounted today the likelihood of President Eisenhower's asking Congress for authority to use U. S. armed forces in the Middle East unless the Israeli-Arab conflict grows much more critical.

Two Detroiters Injured in Plane Crash

HELPLESS PILOT — Fred B. Blanchard, Detroit pilot of a crashed plane, lies helplessly back in his seat after being forced to crash land in an open field in Farmington Township when the controls locked at 1,500 feet. State Police and area residents are shown looking over the wrecked plane. Blanchard and his passenger, Harold Short, also of Detroit, were hospitalized.

Plane Crashes in County Field

Two Detroiters Injured When 'Controls Lock' at 1,500 Feet

Two victims of a Farmington Township plane crash were reported to be improving at Mt. Carmel Hospital today, following their forced landing yesterday in a hay field at 13 Mile Road and Orchard Lake Road.

Fred B. Blanchard, 35, was the most seriously injured of the pair but was said to be in fair condition today by the hospital spokesman. The owner and pilot of the downed aircraft, received a fractured right leg, and multiple injuries of the face and chest.

Harold Short, 34, a passenger in the plane, is in satisfactory condition with a possible fractured right ankle, possible head injuries, and lacerations. Both are residents of Detroit.

The flared side locked controls caused the crash. Short was able to get out of the wrecked plane under his own power but Blanchard had to be helped by ambulance attendants.

Short said they were flying at 1,500 feet when the controls locked in a "downward position." Blanchard later related he was unable to pull the plane's nose up and had to crash land.

The plane had left Mattattal Airport at Joy and Willey Road in Plymouth at about 2:30 p.m. and was en route to Pontiac Airport.

Justice Douglas Urges U.S. Arms Aid to Israel

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas says the "only assurance" for peace in the jittery, troubled Middle East is "to make Israel stronger."

"We must advertise to the world that Israel is one of us," Douglas told a Jewish Federation rally last night. "If Israel is obliterated, democracy in the Middle East will vanish."

Douglas charged "feudal overlords" in Arab countries have joined with Russia in "a very, very unholy alliance."

President Faces Probable Defeat in House Action

GOP Leaders Working Feverishly to Modify Committee Measure

WASHINGTON (INS)—The Eisenhower Administration faces a probable major policy defeat today in the House showdown vote on the farm bill.

The measure as reported by the Senate-House Conference Committee would restore rigid high price supports on basic crops, boost supports on others, set up the administration-requested billion-dollar soil bank and provide a two-price system for wheat and rice.

Republican leaders were involved in a feverish, last-ditch fight to return the legislation to the conference group with instructions for changes to make it more palatable to the White House.

Indications were, however, that Democrats and a bloc of farm belt Republicans would muster enough votes to push the bill through the House.

Senate Majority Leader Lyndon Johnson (D-Tex.), has promised to keep the Senate in session late today to take up the measure if it is approved by the House.

DEBTS SEE PASSAGE

GOP leaders evolved a four-point substitute plan which would make the bill more acceptable to President Eisenhower, who said earlier this week he disapproved of the measure in its present form.

Democratic leaders, including Speaker Sam Rayburn of Texas, appeared sure they can win passage of the legislation. Many of them were confident the President will sign it reluctantly.

Despite the outcome of today's House vote, the steady decline in farm prices is certain to continue as the major issue of 1956.

Cloud Experts Cautioned on Weather Data

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—"Weather control is not something to be played around with," the chief of the U. S. Weather Bureau advised a group of world experts on clouds.

Dr. F. W. Reichelderfer, spoke yesterday at a conference on weather at the university of Arizona.

He said a nuclear bomb set off at the right place might produce a cloud of dust that would temporarily warm the arctic air and cause some of the polar ice cap to melt.

"One group is of the opinion this could raise the level of the Atlantic Ocean by 10 to 15 feet and put many dock installations under water," Reichelderfer reported.

Bank Proposes Capital Boost

Shareholders to Meet April 26 to Vote on $100,000 Increase

Proposal to increase the capital stock of the Pontiac State Bank from $400,000 to $500,000 will be presented to shareholders for their approval at a special meeting in the bank lobby at 4 p.m. Thursday, April 26.

Calling of the special meeting authorized by directors, was announced today by Milo J. Cross.

The bank's capital stock has a par value of $10, and the price at which the new stock will be offered will be determined by the shareholders.

The bank's report at close of business last year shows deposits totaling $3,847,998, and total resources exceeding $25 million.

Conclude Hearings on Retrial of Dye

Arguments for a retrial of Clifford B. Dye, former Fenton village attorney who has been convicted of assault with intent to do great bodily harm, concluded yesterday in Oakland County Circuit Court.

Dye, 54, was found guilty of the non-fatal shooting of Fenton tenant farmer William C. Clark, 27, last August 26. He was sentenced to 2-10 years in Jackson State Prison.

His attorney, Clarence B. Smith, has attempted to prove to Judge Clark J. Adams that a retrial should be ordered. Judge Adams presided at the original trial.

Judge Adams will withhold decision until transcripts of the nine-day trial are finished.

MONTE CARLO (INS)—Twelve thousand special bottles of champagne were delivered at the palace today for the wedding of Prince Rainier III and Grace Kelly.

Suit Halts Incorporation

A last-minute lawsuit, filed on the eve of yesterday's Oakland County Board of Supervisors meeting, effectively halted action on the proposed incorporation of Rochester and Avon Township residents, demands a writ of mandamus against the Board requiring them to act on the first of three incorporation petitions and then shelve the other two for two years.

Rochester attorney Rescoe Martin, who has charted legal moves for the group favoring incorporation, said yesterday the Michigan law quoted in the suit referred to annexation, not incorporation, and did not apply to the Rochester petitions.

Supervisors voted yesterday to reject the first of the three petitions and postpone action on the other two pending a court ruling on the case.

In other action, the Board postponed voting on the proposed Southeastern Michigan Water Authority until their next meeting Tuesday.

Supervisors said they wanted to read the proposed articles of incorporation of the authority, which would be a joint venture with Macomb County.

Supervisor Howard K. Kelley, of Royal Oak, who presented the report on the Authority, said both county boards would have equal representation in the proposed corporation. Neither board, he said, would have monetary liability.

Delos Hamlin, Farmington supervisor, was unanimously elected chairman of the board for the coming year. West Bloomfield Township supervisor Hiland M. Thatcher was named chairman pro tem.

A special June 5 election day was set for Birmingham, Troy and Troy Township residents to vote on three separate annexation moves. If passed, Birmingham will annex two parcels of Troy Township.

ship land, and Troy will add additional township territory to its city limits.

A proposed annexation by Royal Oak of part of Madison Heights was tabled.

Supervisors voted $5,000 to hire a land use planner for the remainder of 1956, and approved new contracts with Detroit for sewage disposal from parts of Southfield Township.

The board also decided to vote Tuesday on the $9,035,485 tentative 1957 budget for tax allocation purposes. Taxation would total $7,415,253.80.

Meet Mrs. Michigan, 1956; Grand Rapids Housewife

DETROIT (AP)—Mrs. Nila Dreger is an attractive, 36-year-old Grand Rapids housewife who can whip up a cake, decorate a house, make clothes and reupholster furniture—and do them all well.

That's why she is Mrs. Michigan of 1956 and the state's entry in the finals of the Mrs. America contest at Daytona Beach, Fla.

Mrs. Dreger won out over seven other Michigan women, four from Detroit and three from outstate, in a series of competitions yesterday afternoon. A panel of five judges based their decision on her cooking, sewing, laundering and other domestic abilities.

Other contestants were Mrs. Joan Conover, 26, of Ann Arbor; Mrs. Ameliese Anderson, 29, of Traverse City; Mrs. Mary Crosby, 43, of North Muskegon; Mrs. Barbara G. Bailey, 27, of Grosse Pointe; Mrs. Melba Smith, 39, of Dearborn; and Mrs. Virginia Hauswith, 29, and Mrs. Bernice Lentz, 37, both of Detroit.

Special awards went to Mrs. Dreger for sewing, Mrs. Bailey for laundering, Mrs. Smith for meal preparation and table setting and Mrs. Crosby for the best cake.

The new Mrs. Michigan is the mother of three daughters, Diane, 9; Gretchen, 7; and Candice, 1. She and her husband, Richard, a chemical engineer, have been married 15 years.

Mrs. Dreger, a native of Iowa, attended Michigan State Normal day School and leads a Brownie troop.

"She's really a whirlwind," said her admiring husband. "It makes me weary to watch her work."

In addition to qualifying for the national contest, Mrs. Dreger won $2,000 worth of appliances, luggage, perfume and a watch.

Florida Train in Flames

FORT GREEN, Fla. (AP)—A Seaboard Air Line railroad passenger train smashed into a gasoline transport truck here today and three of the train's coaches burst into flames.

"There was a big explosion and the whole train, except for the engine, caught fire," said Mrs. Tom Cooper, a grocery clerk who witnessed the crash. "Several people have been burned pretty badly but we don't know yet if they got all of them off the train."

Can Affect Our Election

Middle East Worries U. S.

By DAVID LAWRENCE
WASHINGTON — Politically speaking, Washington is nervous about the Middle East. The crisis could alter the entire complexion of the presidential campaign if the United States became involved in a war, big or little, anywhere.

Leaders of both houses of Congress—who have just conferred with the secretary of state, John Foster Dulles, at the request of President Eisenhower—learned that the situation in the Middle East is serious but got no indication as to whether Congress would be asked to authorize armed action by American forces.

It is possible, of course, for the President to request Congress to authorize in advance the use of American military forces if the United States is asked, for example, through a resolution adopted by the Security Council of the United Nations to cooperate in military steps.

But, though such a contingent authority was given by Congress in the case of the islands off the coast of Red China, the plan for the time being is not to do so with respect to the Middle East. The situation there could develop into a crisis requiring some action by the United Nations but, until the government here is confronted with such a step, the President will not go to Congress for authority.

U. S. TROOPS ALERTED

Meanwhile, American troops will not be committed to armed intervention of any kind unless, of course, there is some unforeseen attack on Americans or American establishments in the Middle East. Any military commander in the Middle East will be authorized to use force.

Manager Eyes Condemnation

Gives Progress Report to City Commission on $600,000 Project

City Manager W. K. Willman told the City Commission last night that the $600,000 off-street parking project had been assigned the city's "number one priority this coming summer."

He also added that "in a few cases it is probably going to be necessary to resort to condemnation in the interest of a price recommended by the city's real estate people" to acquire some of the property to build the lots.

Willman presented the commission with an up-to-date progress report on these acquisitions.

Thirteen owners are involved in the parcels for Lot 2 at Lafayette and Jackson, Willman said. Six have sold to the city, two are under option and five are still in negotiation, he explained.

"With respect to Lot 3, it is necessary to deal with five owners," Willman continued. "One owner has sold to the city, two are under option, and two are still in the process of negotiation."

Lot 4 running from Lawrence to Erie and east of Cass involves three owners, one of which has sold to the city while two are under option.

"Where condemnation is necessary, it might be necessary to construct what we can, building around the properties in question until such time as title can be secured," Willman stated.

The revenue bonds to finance a portion of the lots have been advertised for sale May 1. Willman expects it to take three weeks from the approved sale until the money is secured.

The parcels of land now being purchased by the city are being paid for from the capital improvement fund which will be reimbursed upon receipt of the bond money.

Parole Violator Held as Third Flint Robber

CHICAGO (U) — A 43-year-old parole violator was held under $50,000 bond today following seizure by FBI agents as the third man in a $62,204 robbery of a Flint, Mich., bank last Friday.

FBI agents found William Radkay yesterday hiding in a closet of his southwest side apartment. He was unarmed and alone.

Donald S. Hostetter, head of the FBI office in Chicago, said Radkay and two other Chicago men held up the Citizens Commercial and Savings Bank in Flint. Radkay's companions were captured in Flint Saturday and all of the stolen money was recovered. Radkay escaped a police trap in Flint and was quoted as saying he would not be captured alive. Held in Flint on federal warrants are John Alkes, 30, and George Ballin, 45.

Authorities believed Radkay hid out in Flint over the weekend and then fled to Chicago in a stolen car. The auto was found abandoned near Lansing, Mich.

Woman Passenger Hurt in Collision at Crossing

A woman passenger, 21, suffered slight injuries in a two-car accident yesterday afternoon at Whittemore and Perkins streets, according to Pontiac police.

Barbara Kaye, 1098 Holbrook was treated for leg bruises and released from St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, authorities said.

She was riding in a car driven by Anna J. Jarvis, 21, of 74 Dewight Rd., police said, which rammed into the side of the car of James G. Butcher, 25, of 238 Elm St.

School Bus Hits Tree; Six Hurt

Twelve Others Escape Injury as Vehicle Goes Out of Control

Six children were slightly injured yesterday afternoon when a school bus loaded with 18 kindergartners went out of control and rammed a tree on Greer road in West Bloomfield Township.

According to State Police, the steering mechanism failed west of Hiller road while the children were on the way to afternoon classes at Four Towns School in Waterford Township.

Suffering minor cuts and bruises were: Jennifer Strassburg, 6, of 6151 Cooley Lake Rd.; David Mayer, 6, of 1933 Sarona Lane; Deborah David, 5, of 2345 Lockhaven Rd.; Lynn Dewar, 5, of 6362 Greer Rd.; Nancy Ross, 5, of 6310 Greer Rd.; and Joseph Talbot, 5, of 1370 Oregon Rd.

Three of the children were treated at Pontiac General Hospital and others were taken to private physicians. Troopers at the Pontiac post said.

The driver, Robert Rich, 35, of Drayton Plains said a drag link in the steering mechanism broke, leaving him unable to steer the bus. He slammed on the brakes, Rich said, and the bus went off the right side of the road and ran into the tree.

Another bus, from West Bloomfield Township schools, picked up all the youngsters and delivered them to the school, troopers said.

leased from the City of Pontiac, also was approved.

Supervisor Harold K. Schone of Oak Park, chairman of the County Building Committee, promised the board would see preliminary plans and drawings of the proposed service center at Tuesday's meeting.

As chairman of the board's legislation committee, Schone also reported that 11 of the 12 bills favored by the board during the recent State legislative session had been passed.

William C. Hudson of Royal Oak who presided as temporary chairman during the change in permanent officials, reported to the board that the Detroit Metropolitan Aviation Authority had resumed meeting after several years of inactivity.

Hudson, chairman of the authority, said the group planned to ask county boards for power to operate and finance airports.

Supervisors voted to adopt minor changes in taxation procedures, and a move to sell the city of Pontiac a strip of land beside Stanley Avenue for street widening purposes also was adopted.

Ike OKs Dam Bill

AUGUSTA, Ga. (INS) — President Eisenhower today signed the Upper Colorado River Bill providing up to 760 million dollars for the huge water and reclamation project.

Former UM Psychiatrists Named to Hawthorne Posts

LANSING (U) — Gov. Williams announced today the appointment of Dr. Ralph D. Robinovitch as director of Hawthorne Center, a new residential treatment facility for mentally ill children. The appointment is effective July 15.

Williams said Dr. Sara Dubo, the other member of the nationally known team of child psychiatrists, will become associate director at Hawthorne.

Dr. Robinovitch has been head of the children's hospital at the Neuropsychiatric Institute at the University of Michigan and has been at the university since 1949.

Dr. Robinovitch and Dubo recently submitted resignations reportedly because of friction over administrative procedures. In response to questions, Gov. Williams was unable to give any figure as to how many close associates of the two at the university were planning to follow them to the new institution.

Marine Dead Lie in State; Court of Inquiry Continues

PARRIS ISLAND, S.C. (U) — The bodies of six Marine recruits, drowned on a forced march Sunday night, will be placed in a funeral home with a guard of honor today.

The flag-draped caskets will lie in state at funeral parlors at nearby Beaufort until shipped home for burial.

Meanwhile a court of inquiry ordered by Gen. Randolph Pate, Marine Corps commandant, continued its closed door investigation of the tragedy.

The board will recommend whether action should be brought against M. Sgt. Matthew C. McKeon of Worcester, Mass., the drill sergeant who ordered the platoon of 78 recruits to make the ill-fated march.

SGT. PRAISED BY MEN
McKeon said in a statement he ordered the march to "teach the platoon discipline." Both Gen. Pate and Maj. Gen. Joseph C. Burger, the Parris Island base commander, said the night trek was unauthorized.

Survivors of the night march later told of an hour of horror as their buddies slipped and floundered and drowned in a mucky tidal stream near the base.

They credited McKeon with heroic action in saving some of the recruits.

McKeon said, "I can't find words to express my grief."

Five of the bodies were recovered Monday. The sixth was retrieved from a hole in the stream yesterday by Marine underwater divers.

Gen. Pate said he believed regular Marine Corps procedure would be ample to cover the investigation without a congressional inquiry. He termed the accident "deplorable," but said: "We have absolutely nothing to hide."

Grace Undecided on Apparel for Tomorrow

ABOARD THE S.S. CONSTITUTION AT SEA (INS) — Grace Kelly made it plain today she's been counting the minutes until she sees her Prince Rainier again but she's worried about "what to wear tomorrow" when they are reunited.

The liner Constitution passed by the picturesque island of Majorca today, less than a day's voyage from Monaco. The ship is to drop anchor tomorrow at about 10 a.m. (4 a.m. EST).

Grace was attired simply in a beige and brown skirt, sweater and scarf outfit when she met reporters today for the final news conference aboard the ship.

One of the correspondents asked her how long it had been since she had seen her royal fiance. "March 4," Grace replied promptly, with that indescribable look of a girl in love.

Miss Kelly, who'll be married to the prince in dual ceremonies on April 18 and 19, confessed she is "very excited and anxious" now that the trip is nearing its end. But, she added, "I'm still trying to figure out what to wear tomorrow."

GM Tells Earnings of Top Executives

DETROIT (INS) — General Motors President Harlow H. Curtice and seven other GM directors received more than a half-million dollars each last year in salaries, fees and bonuses.

The salary figures were listed in a prospectus filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission today for the public sale of more than a million shares of GM stock by Alfred P. Sloan Foundation, Inc.

Curtice received $776,400, while the new GM board chairman, Albert Bradley, was paid $591,525.

By comparison, Ford Motor President Henry Ford II, received $321,000 last year and Chrysler President L. L. Colbert was paid $500,700 in salary and bonuses.

Troy Man, 73, Falls to Death

John E. White Victim in Drop From Scaffold at Son's House

John E. White, 73, of 393 Hurst St., Troy, died yesterday afternoon when he fell from a scaffolding of his son, Robert.

No one was home at the time of White's fall, and he was discovered by his son and daughter-in-law when they arrived home shortly after 5 p.m., Troy police said.

Troy Fire Department tried unsuccessfully to revive him. Death from a broken neck was pronounced by Oakland County deputy coroner Dr. Isaac Prevette.

The victim's body has been taken to Spiller-Gramer Funeral Home. Burial is expected to be in Belleville, W. Va. where he was born. Besides his son in Troy, he has other children in West Virginia.

Middle East Crisis Can Affect Election

field where American troops are stationed to guard overseas bases can, of course, resist attack without waiting for authority from the President.

The consequences politically of any involvement of the United States in military action in the Middle East are not difficult to appraise. Up to now the Republicans have been pointing proudly to the fact that the United States is at peace and that the Korean armistice ended the fighting in the Far East for American troops. If there is a resumption of fighting anywhere, even on a small scale, it could mean the immediate increase in the number of boys drafted each month in this country—and that's always politically bad for the party in power.

Likewise, it seems probable that, if any military operations become necessary, the budget will go out of balance and fear of an inflationary trend will arise on the economic front.

The present hope of the administration is to avoid any involvement but, if it becomes necessary, such steps as are taken would be in cooperation with other powers. An effort first would be made through the United Nations to adopt some form of collective action. It is easier nowadays for American public opinion to be persuaded that military steps are necessary when taken with Allies for the purpose of avoiding a larger war than it would be if America decided on any course by itself. The idea seems to be that, distasteful as participation in any overseas operations might be, the people would support any recommendations the President might make if it appeared necessary to quell an outbreak of war anywhere.

The potential belligerents in the Middle East are not militarily strong, so it is quite possible that a show of firmness by America and Great Britain, in the event that the United Nations found itself unable to agree on measures to enforce peace, would be sufficient to prevent a full-scale war.

Skirmishes and small engagements on the borders could become serious but they would not involve anything as big as the intervention in Korea when the Communists moved south across the 38th parallel.

If President Eisenhower is able skillfully to steer the nation through the Middle East crisis without involving American military forces, it could turn out to be a political "break" in his favor. It would be hailed by his supporters as an example of the need for continuity in American policy abroad. Officials here are nervous, and worried, however, for they know the situation in the Middle East can go in almost any direction between now and the November elections.

Kin of Thorpes Head for Detroit

Chicago Friend, Sister of Suspected Embezzler to Stand Trial Here

LAREDO, Tex., April 11 (U) — The sister and brother-in-law of a woman wanted in Michigan for embezzlement of $75,000 in state funds have been ordered removed to Detroit to stand trial.

U.S. Commission Frank Hill ordered the removal yesterday of Richard Radwill, 35, and his wife, Josephine Rusk Radwill, 32, after they signed an agreement for removal.

The Radwills were expelled from Mexico Saturday on charges they had entered the country under false names. They were immediately arrested by federal officers on a Michigan federal court charge of interstate transportation of stolen property.

Mrs. Radwill's sister, Mrs. Anna Thorpe, and her husband, Floyd Thorpe, are wanted in connection with a shortage of about $75,000 in the branch office of the Michigan Secretary of State at St. Clair Shores.

Mexican officials believe the Thorpes and their daughter, Kathleen, are living in Mexico.

The Radwill couple was returned to the Webb County Jail pending transfer to Michigan when they failed to make a $25,000 bond. An 8-year-old son, Teddy, was held in the custody of a U.S. customs inspector.

Ike to Approve Domestic Bills; Play Some Golf

AUGUSTA, Ga. (U) — President Eisenhower arranged another work session today on domestic affairs and international problems. And he hoped to play some more golf.

The President told associates he would be on hand shortly after breakfast in his small office above the pro shop at the Augusta National golf club.

He planned to sign some domestic bills passed by Congress, get from Washington the latest reports on efforts to halt strife in the Middle East, then turn to golf.

Eisenhower talked by telephone twice yesterday to Secretary of State Dulles. Both conversations dealt primarily with the Mid-East.

He also got in 18 holes of golf, playing with Ed Dudley, the club pro.

The President flew here from Washington Monday for a week of relaxation combined with work.

Nationwide Honors for Midland Church

NEW YORK (U) — The First Methodist Church at Midland, Mich., is 1 of 18 churches, all of contemporary design, selected as winners in a design competition of the National Council of Churches.

The council's commission on architecture, composed of architects, editors, clergymen and church design specialists, made the choice from a group of 72 churches, all built in the past 25 years.

The churches were not selected in order of preference, but Christ Evangelical Lutheran Church of Minneapolis was named most often by the experts.

Walter A. Taylor, commission chairman and director of the department of education and research of the American Institute of Architects, said the selections showed that "preconceived ideas of what a church should look like . . . are being abandoned in favor of modern design tailored to the functional needs of each church."

T-Men Bombed With Some More Buffoon Returns

BALTIMORE (U) — "Refund due. Refund due. Refund due. Refund due. Refund due." And so on 45 times.

"This bit of stream-of-consciousness writing appeared on the outside of an envelope received recently by the district director of Internal Revenue here. Inside—yes an income tax return.

The local office also says it received another return in an envelope edged with black, and decorated with a splotchy picture of a weepy citizen and "Please Get Lost." And at the bottom: "Withhold thy laughter, stranger! For thy face is mirrored here . . ."

Cub Pack to Receive Charter at Ceremony

The newly formed St. Hugo of the Hills Cub Scout pack 37 will receive its charter during a first meeting at 8:30 p.m. tomorrow in the school gymnasium.

Cubmaster Peter Dunn said parents and families also will view a display of handicraft, starting at 7:15 p.m. George A. Sold will be in charge of the meeting.

By backing your wall pictures with a sheet of brown paper stapled to the wooden frame, you will find them easier to keep clean.

The Day in Birmingham Ground Observer Post Needs Finances, Staff

BIRMINGHAM — Funds and personnel are needed for the Ground Observer Corps Post to be located in Birmingham, according to Oakland County coordinator Mrs. Melvina Eberie of Milford.

She hopes that the post can be dedicated by May 1, although construction on the eight-foot-square building on the former Walker Gravel Pit property just east of the city limits on East Maple has just begun.

Funds for the building are needed. Mrs. Eberie has $467 now, and needs a total of $1,800, she says.

Glass all around is prime feature of the small observer building which she, her husband and father designed. The trio have built three previously, in other Oakland County cities. A gabled roof shields the small building where one or two observers will be on duty night and day.

Mrs. Eberie has obtained a staff for one day but needs a captain and watchers for each of the other days. Mary Taylor will be assistant chief in charge on Monday, and her fellow members of the Birmingham Junior League will staff the post that day each week.

Donations have included $100 from Piety Hill Daughters of the American Revolution, $50 from United Church Women, and individual gifts.

Two fund drives conducted at local banks were aided by Newcomers Club and Junior League members.

Birmingham Attorney Calvin N. Smith will soon resign from the Michigan Employment Security Commission, Governor Williams has announced. Williams says he plans to name John F. Young, of Flint, to the post.

Young would take the vacated post pending Senate approval. Another nominee, named by Williams when Smith's term on the three-man board ran out six years ago, has never been approved by the Senate, so Smith has remained until now.

With $500 in hand, Exchange Club members are in teams for Saturday's toothbrush sale on city streets. Denture Team is under Roger Blackwood; Molars under Donald McGaffey and Cavities under Malcolm Ferguson.

Mrs. Stanley Cain told Ruth Shain Glass members of her Interior Brazil trip this morning. Her husband is professor of ecology at University of Michigan.

Leland T. Atwood
Service for Leland T. Atwood, who died Tuesday of a coronary ailment at his home, 555 Stanley, will be at 4 p.m. tomorrow in Caro.

A resident here for three years, he had had his own architectural firm in Chicago many years before joining William Kapp Architects in Detroit.

Surviving are his wife, Harriet B., two daughters, Mary Newton and Alexandra, and a son, Caleb, all at home, and a sister in Bay City.

Mrs. Fred J. Purdy
Service for Mrs. Grace G. Purdy, who died Tuesday at her home, 221 East Webster, Ferndale, will be at 1 p.m. Thursday at Bell of the William R. Hamilton Co. Burial will be in Roseland Park. She leaves her husband, Fred J., two sons, Fred B. of Birmingham, Robert of Wyandotte; and five grandchildren.

Pontiac Deaths

Harry Garrett

A Lodge of Sorrow will be conducted at 8 p.m. Wednesday in the Pursley Funeral Home by B.P.O.E. No. 810 for Harry Garrett of 51 Mark St.

Service will be at 2 p.m. Friday from the funeral home with his pastor, Rev. Fred Tiffany of Bethany Baptist Church officiating. Burial will follow in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home after 7 o'clock this evening.

Mr. Garrett was killed in a truck-car collision on U. S. 10 north of Flint, Monday.

Mrs. H. C. Gordon

Word has been received of the death of Mrs. H. C. Gordon, 89, of Curtisville. She died yesterday morning in East Tawas Hospital.

Mrs. Gordon is the mother of C. A. Gordon of 151 N. Johnson Ave. and a former resident of Pontiac.

Besides her son, she is survived by one grandchild.

Service will be at 2 p.m. Friday in the Moffat Funeral Home, East Tawas with burial in the East Tawas Cemetery.

MAYORS, THEN AND NOW — Mayor James Clizby Allen, who assumed his new office in Birmingham Monday night, looks at a token of his grandfather's term as president of the village of Birmingham. With him are his parents, Harry Allen, who was village president from 1930 to 1933, and mayor in the city's first year, 1933, and Mrs. Allen. Mrs. Allen's father, Warren Clizby, received the loving cup when he was elected top official of the village in 1917. He served two terms.

Uniforms Evidence Culled

Senate Probers Examine Clothing to Pry Facts Around Army Contracts

WASHINGTON (U) — Sitting through a web of alleged bond deals, investigating senators called more witnesses today in a hunt for evidence of possible graft in the buying of army uniforms.

The Senate Investigations subcommittee summoned former associates of Joseph (Joey) Abrams, a New York garment maker, for questioning about $138,000 of bonds it contends Abrams bought in their names, and millions of dollars worth of other bonds allegedly bought under phony names.

BONDS AS PAYOFFS

The subcommittee identified the witnesses as Jack Schwartz, a one time business partner of Abrams in New York, and Attilio Musto, another former associate.

The subcommittee has placed in evidence records it says show Abrams bought $20,000 worth of bonds in the name of Schwartz and $118,000 in Musto's name.

Chairman McClellan (D-Ark) said yesterday the subcommittee intends to show whether bonds were used as payoffs to Army Quartermaster Corps officials, or in some income tax evasion scheme.

Abrams could not be reached for comment.

USED AS 'PATSY'

Nathan Rosen, a Brooklyn, N.Y., wholesale meat dealer, testified that "I was used for a patsy" in some of the bond deals.

He said Abrams set him up in a garment business in 1951, and put up all the money for the operation. Rosen said he never knew when he signed checks totaling $116,442 that year, that the money was to purchase government bonds and other securities.

Grand Rapids Hikes Retail Milk Prices

GRAND RAPIDS (U) — The price of milk went up 1½ cents a quart in Grand Rapids today following agreement between two dairy farmer organizations and the Grand Rapids Milk Dealers Assn.

The dealers, in a pact with the Michigan Milk Producers Assn. and the Independent Cooperative Milk Producers Assn., agreed last night to raise the price paid to dairy farmers for 100 pounds of top-grade milk from $4.50 to $5.

The dealers immediately announced retail price of milk in stores would be raised to 22½ cents a quart.

The agreement affects all producers in the Grand Rapids milk shed, extending as far as Grand Haven, Ionia and Fremont.

Detroit area milk dealers and the MMPA agreed to the $5 price after a nine-day strike by the Fair Share Bargaining Assn., a rebel group within the MMPA.

'Helper' Zooms Away in Car After Starting It

ATLANTA (U) — An Atlanta woman had trouble getting her car started.

A man walking by volunteered to help. She got out. He climbed in, started the engine and quickly drove away.

Mrs. Charles A. Sears reported the auto stolen, police said.

Plate Glass Window Doesn't Stop This Mom

LOS ANGELES (U) — Deputies say Mrs. Cecelia Tomp walked into the new Firestone sheriff's station — right through a plate glass window.

She was treated at a hospital for a gashed right arm and forehead.

Officers said Mrs. Tomp, 42, of suburban Downey, had been called in to get her 14-year-old son, picked up for a minor infraction. Apparently, in her excitement, they said, she didn't realize she was walking into the large, closed window at the front of the lobby.

Butler Foresees Ike Dropping From Race

ST. LOUIS (U) — Democratic National Chairman Paul M. Butler says "it is entirely possible" President Eisenhower "might not be a candidate" in November.

In an interview here late yesterday, Butler said "a lot could happen between now and August. It is automatically in the minds of the people what would happen if he should be stricken with another heart attack. It will be a matter of grave concern who is nominated as his running mate."

He predicted the farm bill now in Congress would go to the President in substantially its present form.

"I think he will sign it," Butler said.

He refused to comment on any Democratic presidential candidate.

Divorced Couple to Continue Dates With Each Other

LOS ANGELES (U) — Sweetness and light marked the divorce hearing of actor Tony di Milo and Joan di Milo, and although they are going their separate ways they say they're still the best of friends.

"We bring out the neurotic tendencies in each other," Mrs. di Milo told Superior Judge Elmer D. Doyle. "I make Tony cranky when he wakes up in the morning."

"We do much better when we're apart," said the husband. "We have dates and I visit the baby. We really think a divorce will make things more harmonious both for us and the baby."

Di Milo said they'll continue to have dates after they're divorced.

Iraq, Despite Obstacles, Could Emerge as the Leader of the Arab World

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
BAGHDAD, Iraq — Iraq is the bright spot in the Middle East. But against the background of Middle Eastern politics the outlook is becoming increasingly gloomy.

Left to herself and her forward-looking, hopeful program for the future of her people, Iraq surely would become the leader of the Arab world. But there are tremendous obstacles — the threat of war, the threat of Soviet power to the north, the peripheral threat of Red subversion, the eternal feuds, intrigues and jealousies of the Arab world.

FEUD IS AGELESS

A Saudia Arabian feud with the Hashemite family ruling Jordan and Iraq is deep and centuries old. The Saudi Arabians fear that Iraqi leadership will lead one day to a powerful union of Iraq, Jordan and Syria.

Iraq is governed by a statesman-like premier, Gen. Nuri Said. His government seems worried. Boy King Faisal II's Hashemite cousin Hussein holds the shaky throne of Jordan, to the southwest. If a Saudi Arabian, Egyptian and Palestinian-Arab intrigue should overthrow young Faisal, Iraq would lose her steady influence in Jordan and probably in Syria too and might be forced into a compromise with the Egyptian-Saudi-Syrian bloc which is hellbent for subverting the Baghdad Pact. Like the fellah in Egypt, the barefoot Iraqi peasant has been unchanged over the centuries. He lives in the same mud hut with his cow, chickens or goat. Like Egypt's fellah, the average Iraqi is ridden by a variety of diseases. Like his Egyptian cousin he knows little of international politics. But he hears Cairo radio in the coffee houses or friends' huts and hears about Israel and the wounds, real or imagined, of the Arab world.

Anyone interested in making trouble for the government can buy a riot easily. He can hire selected rioters for 30 cents each to key a riot and others will join for the fun of it. Riot leaders — a combination of hard core communists and other elements — direct riots as sheepdogs direct flocks.

DANGEROUS MAN

There is danger — great danger — to the West. A charming man with a disarming manner is one of the most dangerous foes in the Middle East of Iraq and the west.

Tall, affable Khaled Bagdash, orator, writer and leader of disciplined Syrian and Lebanese communists, attended Moscow's 20th party Congress in February. Long after the noisier and more prominent Red leaders left, Bagdash still was there. He had much to talk over with the bosses and it concerned Middle East oil.

Across the territory of Syria run pipelines which carry at least 30 per cent of the Middle East oil from Iraq and the Persian Gulf. Pipelines of the Iraq Petroleum Co. and American Tapline. If the Communist party could make an alliance giving it a measure of control in Syria, it could deal both Iraq and the West a heavy blow.

GOING TOO FAST

Under the 1950 Iraqi development law 70 per cent of oil royalties, now more than 250 million dollars annually, goes to public works and 30 per cent to the government operating budget. But even this program has dangers. The program may be going ahead too fast, bringing inflationary pressures. Nuri is being advised by Westerners to complete the groundwork first. This includes first ending the threat of disastrous floods.

A Middle East war would be a serious blow to the hopes Nuri and Iraq have placed in this program.

Westerners say Nuri might be strengthened if the United States joined the Baghdad Pact. Outside the pact as an observer the United States has all the disadvantages and none of the advantages of a member. The pact now includes Turkey, Iraq, Iran, Pakistan and Britain.

But laudable aims are insufficient to insure this country's future. Unless the Israeli situation somehow is settled, Iraq is in as great danger as any other Middle Eastern country — and the West is

Pontiac

Your Turn to Turn Heads!

You can always look to Pontiac for head-turning style. That's a Pontiac policy—to forecast the trend in automotive design. But that's only one of the basic reasons why you should make your next car a Pontiac. It's the pace-setter in performance, too—quick, nimble, comfortable—and a startling revelation on the open road. Few cars, regardless of price, approach it for go and ease of handling. And, of course, Pontiac's long life and dependability have become an industry-wide tradition. Pontiac is a great car and a great buy, any way you figure it. You really owe it to yourself to test this General Motors Masterpiece. When you do, you'll want it for certain—and you'll find that the price makes it wonderfully easy for you to have. Come in today.

Guest Artist Jerry Libby Offers Piano Selections

By GOLDA HOGUE

Tuesday Musicale enjoyed yesterday afternoon at Grace Lutheran Fellowship Hall one of its most inspiring days of the year, when members of the four junior clubs sponsored by Tuesday Musicale presented a program of delightful variety and excellent performance.

The final selection of students heard in the concert was made by three judges from Birmingham Thursday Musicale and Rochester Musicale. At present there are four junior clubs with a membership of 125 and enough on the waiting list to require the starting of a fifth club in the near future.

Membership is open to any student in the Pontiac area from first grade through 12th, the only requisite being that he or she be a student of music.

Matinee Musicale, including all from first grade through the sixth, was well represented by Karen Bronoe, cellist, who was heard in the Thompson arrangement of "Nobody Knows the Trouble I See," and three pianists, Ann Fisher who played "Rondo" by Spindler, Joyce Livingston who presented "Sonata" by Beethoven and Carol Norvell, heard in "Castanets" by Rebe.

MOST PERFORMERS

The Student League, which includes seventh and eighth graders, produced the largest number of participants for the day: Kenneth Brown in a trombone solo, "Autumn" by Pinar; Pam and Penny Nicolls in a piano duet, "Norwegian Dance" by Grieg; Karen Hayden, soprano, in "Where My Caravan Has Rested" by Lohr, and pianists Janet Livingston in "Scene from Childhood" by Schumann and Jerry Exline in "On the Trail" by Grofe.

From the Junior League (9th and 10th graders) were three pianists: Dorothy Annas who played "Valse" by Mokrejs, Jay Hall who presented "Contra Dance" by Beethoven and Judy Haroutian who chose "Sonata" by Haydn.

Jack Horner and Judy Huntworth represented the Senior League (11th and 12th grades). Jack's selection was "Scotch Melody" by McDowell and Judy's was "The Maid With the Flaxen Hair" by Debussy.

Coming Events

Ladies Auxiliary of the Eagles Aerie 1230 will meet Thursday at 8 p.m. in the Hall, E. Montclair St. for a class for charter members and past presidents and an anniversary celebration.

Royal Neighbors of America will meet Thursday at 7:30 p.m. at Grotto Hall, W. Pike St.

Welcome Rebekah Lodge 246 will meet Thursday at 8 p.m. in Maize Temple on Perkins St.

Jennie E. Doyle, Past Chiefs Club, will meet at the temple, 1814 W. Huron St. Thursday at 7:30 p.m. with Mrs. Zola Phillipi as hostess.

Feigned Interest Won't Win Man

By ANNE HEYWOOD

To paraphrase a famous advertising slogan, "Never underestimate the intelligence of a man."

I think of this often when I read articles or hear speeches about how you should pretend to be fascinated by "his" hobbies, how you should join churches just to meet eligible men, how you should take courses in nuclear physics or whatnot just because there are lots of men in those classes.

These pieces usually go on to suggest that you get a job in a field that is full of men—any old field, as long as the boys are there.

Such advice, it seems to me, assumes men are so dumb they'll think you're truly interested in nuclear physics or in your job in the commercial solvents business, or whatever.

The men I know are not that stupid. We were discussing this the other night and one man spoke up.

TO SNARE MAN
"I'm taking a course in technical and industrial writing," he said. "The class has about 10 men and three women in it. I'll never know why the women are there, unless it's just to snare a man."

A new lipstick color that's redder than pink, pinker than red, is now on the market. The shade is a sure-fire formula for prettiness whether you're blonde, brunette or redhead. The hat, by Mr. John, is a face-framing straw with a widely rippled brim.

That Romantic Paris Look

PARIS (INS)—If you want to look Parisian here are some rules for 1956:

Look romantic, not provocative.

Wear tops with boat or T-shirt necklines and sweaters in sky-blue, honey or white rather than in scarlet red or black. Choose dresses with conservative polka-dot or romantic flower prints in preference to picaresque or "cute" patterns. Don't look boyish.

Wear a white collar, a bow or a rose at the neckline. Go in for full skirts and show your waistline by belting it firmly.

Don't wear "Sloppy Jo" styles, shirt-tails-out or baggy sweaters. Do something about your figure if you're overweight.

Step out of the old routine by wearing a large white hat. Use

Rainy Day Toybox Keeps Tots Happy

A special "rainy-day toybox" will keep youngsters happy. Supplies of colored paper, paste and blunt edged scissors plus the added feature of oilcloth aprons will keep the young set clean and occupied on rainy afternoons.

Lucky 13 Gathers

Mrs. Lewis Lingle of Garland avenue entertained the Lucky 13 Club Monday evening. Mrs. Avondale Dean was presented with a birthday gift. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Daisy Bee of Chicago avenue May 12.

"Not one of the women works in the field or seems really interested in it. They pretend to be, ask all kinds of questions, act as if it's just too fascinating. But their questions are a dead giveaway. It's really embarrassing and stupid. We all wish they'd just give up the act and get out of the class."

The point is that there's nothing wrong with a class in technical writing, or nuclear physics for that matter, if the girl is really interested in it.

If she is, she'll look interested, she'll attract men. If she isn't, she'll just look pathetic, silly and embarrassing. The same thing goes for church meetings and for jobs.

Go after what interests you and, in turn, you'll interest the men. Men aren't stupid. If you join anything just to meet one and get married, you are going to show your hand. The boys are going to run a mile!

Save Those Appliance Guarantees

EAST LANSING (INS)—If you think your portable radio, refrigerator or some other appliance is jinxed, give it a second thought.

Maybe you aren't giving that appliance the proper care; perhaps you don't know where to get it serviced; and did you know that it had a guarantee?

Linda Nelson, home management instructor at Michigan State University, says much of this kind of information comes with our modern appliances.

Yet, Miss Nelson says, owner's manuals and guarantee tags are often misplaced and seldom used. Her solution to the problem is this: Collect all the pamphlets and papers that come with appliances. Get a loose leaf notebook, some large manila envelopes, gummed labels, scissors, a paper punch and a pen and ink.

Punch holes in the left side of each envelope so that the envelope will fit in the notebook. Then cut down the front side of the envelope to form a pocket into which you can put the materials.

Miss Nelson suggests that you label the right hand side of each envelope for each piece of equipment such as freezer, vacuum, range, washer, dryer, mixer, etc.

After you have put the envelopes in alphabetical order, the notebook is ready for the shelf in your kitchen or business center.

Miss Nelson adds that you can also save laundering and dry cleaning instructions for your new clothing this way.

Typographical Auxiliary Elects New Leaders

Mrs. Stanley Hatfield was elected president at the Monday evening meeting of the Typographical Auxiliary. Mrs. Donald Barker was hostess to the group at her home on Menominee road, assisted by Mrs. Christian Greve.

Others elected to serve were Mrs. Severn Davis, first vice president; Mrs. James Turnbull, second vice president, and Mrs. Kenneth Phares, secretary-treasurer.

Plans were made for a banquet in June honoring the charter members.

Helen LaNell Davis became the bride of Edgar I. Gillies Saturday in First Congregational Church. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Grant Davis of Myrtle avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Irving D. Gillies of Mohawk road are his parents.

Helen L. Davis Chooses Tulle, Lace Bridal Gown

First Congregational Church was the setting Saturday evening for the wedding of Helen LaNell Davis and Edgar Irving Gillies.

Helen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Davis of Myrtle avenue. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Irving D. Gillies of Mohawk road.

The bride wore a floor length gown of pleated tulle and scalloped lace for the 5 o'clock ceremony performed by the Rev. Malcolm Burton in the presence of 300 guests.

Pleated tulle and Chantilly lace outlined the portrait neckline. Panels of Chantilly lace accented the bouffant tulle skirt. The bridal bouquet was of alstroemeria, Demure roses and fern.

Jacqueline Spratt, maid of honor, was gowned in a white nylon tulle ballerina-length dress with a tulle jacket over pink taffeta. Bridesmaids Ann Gillies and Mary Mapley were gowned identically with jackets of tulle over blue taffeta. They carried cascade bouquets of pink carnations.

ATTEND BRIDEGROOM
Lee Roy Fraser of Franklin served as best man. Seating the guests were Donald Fraser of Franklin, William Lester of Detroit, Clyde Howse, Robert Martin and Jerold Arnold.

Mrs. Davis greeted her guests at the reception in the church parlors wearing a blue silk print dress with navy blue accessories and a corsage of white cymbidium orchids. Mrs. Gillies wore a beige silk dress with matching accessories. Her flowers were beige cymbidium orchids.

The bride changed to a gray blue suit with navy blue accessories and the corsage from her bridal bouquet for traveling. The couple will tour the Smoky Mountains to Washington, D.C.

Mrs. Gillies will reside on Myrtle avenue, until Edgar's discharge from the U.S. Navy.

Out-of-town guests came from Plymouth, Grosse Ile, Lansing, Detroit, Columbus, Ohio, and Wynne, Ark.

Eastern Junior PTSA Schedules Final Meeting

The final PTSA meeting of Eastern Junior High School will be held Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the school auditorium.

Howard Shelley, manager of the Oakland County Sportsmen's Club and editor of the Oakland County Sportsmen's Magazine, will narrate the latest film, "Hunter's Moon" in which is included, "The Moose Hunt." The public is invited to view the colored film.

Election of officers will be held at this meeting. April has been designated as the month to promote the PTA Teacher Scholarship.

Eastern Junior High School is sponsoring a sale Wednesday at the close of school. All proceeds will be donated to the scholarship fund.

Two students are now in college, and a third future teacher will be chosen from the High School graduates of this year as the recipient of the third Teacher Scholarship to be given by the Pontiac Council of PTA.

Saves You Work

A child's playroom can be outfitted so that it requires little housekeeping. A tile floor needs only a quick mopping using hot sudsy water and will not be damaged by play materials. The same durable surfacing is ideal for bookcase shelves and toy storage units.

DESIGN HONORED — The design for the Royal Oak Clarence M. Kimball High School has been given an honorable mention in the national competition for Better School Design, the School Executive Magazine has announced. Architects for the $4,100,000 school, now under construction on a 72-acre site at Crooks and 13 1/2 Mile Rds., are O'Dell, Hewlett & Luckenbach Associates. The building is unique in that it will contain six separate wings in which students will be housed. It includes 46 classrooms, 8 science rooms, home-making, music, art and industrial departments, a theater, cafeteria, two main and three auxiliary gymnasiums, and a swimming pool, in addition to offices, lounges and huge library. The Oak Park High School, designed by the same firm, received a similar award in 1932.

ERNEST V. BLANCHARD

Service Tomorrow for Farmington Head

FARMINGTON TOWNSHIP — Funeral service for Ernest V. Blanchard, Farmington Township supervisor who died yesterday, will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday at the Farmington Universalist Church. Masonic graveside service will be conducted at Quaker Cemetery where burial will take place.

Blanchard was born in Livonia March 12, 1880, and had lived at 3635 Grand River for the past 73 years. He was educated at Farmington public schools, was a director of the old Peoples State Bank from 1917 to 1933, and a justice of the peace in the township from 1928 to 1940.

On July 1, 1940 Mr. Blanchard was appointed supervisor of the township to fill a position left vacant by the resignation of Arthur P. Coe. He had served continuously as township supervisor since that time.

He was a member of Lodge 151, F & AM. On Jan. 8, 1933 he married Lillian Brake Curtis in Royal Oak, who survives him.

Besides his wife, he leaves two stepdaughters, Mary Curtis of Hayden, Colo.; Mrs. Robert Hansen of Chicago; and three sisters, Mrs. Pearl Gibson and Vera Blanchard of Farmington, Mrs. Mary Hamm of St. Petersburg, Fla.

He will lie in state at the Thayer Funeral Home, 33014 Grand River, until noon Thursday. The Revs. Walter Kellison and Russell Lincoln will officiate at the service.

Psychologists Find Child With 208 IQ

LOS ANGELES (INS) — Psychologists at children's hospital in Los Angeles say they have found a child with an intelligence quotient of 208, one of the highest ever recorded.

Psychologist Dr. Helmut Wursten said the child, 9-year-old daughter of a middle class family, is happy, well adjusted and popular among her friends. His report conflicts with the popular notion that genius children suffer sorrow and despair.

Dr. Wursten said the girl is "artificially gifted, has unusual reasoning powers and is extremely sensitive to the needs of other people."

'Mental Health' Topic for Panel

Pontiac State Hospital Aide Group Will Meet at Mt. Clemens

The Macomb County Citizens Committee for Pontiac State Hospital will present its first Training Workshop for members and the general public at the Mt. Clemens Civic Center at 8:00 p.m. tomorrow. Topic for discussion will be "Mental Health Education—Its Purpose and Methods."

President Lawrence Martell of New Baltimore has announced that the panel will be made up of leaders in the field of community education.

Panel speakers will be the Rt. Rev. James W. Wright, pastor of the First Methodist Church, Mt. Clemens; Maurice A. Vincent, feature writer for the Mt. Clemens Daily Monitor Leader; Marguerite M. Parrish, social service director of Pontiac State Hospital; Richard Arthand, psychiatric casework supervisor for the Pontiac State Hospital; and moderator, Wesley Carlos, Detroit teacher and educational chairman for the Citizens Committee.

Mrs. Lawrence W. Martell, secretary of the organization, will act as recorder for the workshop. Mrs. Martell is a member of the Macomb County Probate Court staff.

"The goal of the Citizens Committee is prevention of mental illness. It believes that the community and the hospital must work together if the best is to be accomplished for the mentally ill. Only by a combined effort can prevention be attained," Carlos said.

President Lawrence Martell urges all community minded citizens to attend the Workshop and announces that there is no charge for this public service.

Mandon Church Revival to Start

Hold Special Services Tonight Through Sunday With Noted Evangelist

WHITE LAKE TOWNSHIP — A nationally-known evangelist, the Rev. Elton W. Crowell of Lansing, will be the preacher for a series of nightly services which open tonight at the Mandon Lake First Community Church.

The services, to be held at 7:30 each night through April 15, will include musical features by the evangelist and his wife, Edith Crowell, and Gospel illustration through the use of magic.

The Rev. Mr. Crowell is director of the Gull Lake Bible Conference near Kalamazoo, and is also an author and composer. Some of his own songs and choruses will be used at the meeting.

The Crowells have traveled nearly a million miles, by ox cart, plane, train and automobile, on their preaching mission.

They are known for their youth work, and the services are designed to grip the attention of young people as well as adults, according to the Rev. Dorr Fockler, pastor of the Mandon Lake church.

MR. and MRS. OTTO SIMPSON

CELEBRATE 50 YEARS — The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Simpson of Harrisburg, Ill., will be observed with an open house for their friends and relatives on Sunday. The event will take place from 1 to 6 p.m. at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Henry DeVar, 38 East Washington St., Clarkston. On hand to celebrate will be the couple's other six children and their families, including 14 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Porchlight Drive to Aid Troy Tragedy Victims

TROY—Neighbors of 35-year-old Marshall Moak of 1560 Banmoore St. are sponsoring a drive this evening to raise funds to help the family meet bills while he is in the hospital.

Mrs. Dale Blumfield of 1600 Boulton St. is heading the drive which will cover the areas from 15 to 17 Mile road and from Coolidge Highway to Livernois road. Residents wishing to donate are requested to have their porch lights on at 7:30 p.m.

Moak was involved in an auto accident March 28 while on his way to Memphis, Tenn., to visit his parents. He turned to avoid hitting another car, skidded, lost control of his auto and went over a 35 foot embankment. At the Memphis Hospital, X-rays showed a crushed chest, broken back, ribs and neck. He will be hospitalized at least six months there, authorities said.

Besides his wife, the Moak family includes six-year-old twins, David and Don, and a two-and-one-half-year-old son, Allen.

Marlette Couple to Mark 60th Wedding Date

MARLETTE — Mr. and Mrs. George King will celebrate their 60th wedding anniversary Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. King have two children, Douglas, at home and Mrs. Robert (Helen) Bennett, of Fenton; and two grandchildren, Mrs. Andy (Sandra Richmond) McSkulin, and Gary Richmond.

The Kings have spent their entire life in Marlette. The day will be observed quietly due to ill health.

GRACE LAWSON

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Church of Holly are announcing the engagement of her sister, Grace Lawson, to Ronald A. Frick. Grace is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Matt Lawson of Holly and Ronald is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Frick of Clarkston. A July wedding is planned.

Milford School Funds Needed

Meeting Called Tonight to View Ways to Raise Additional $752,980

MILFORD — "How to raise an additional $752,980 to finish the Milford High School" is the big question to be presented at a special meeting at 8 tonight at Highland School. The meeting has been called by the Huron Valley PTA Council.

Most of the discussion will center around the building of the new high school. However, the subject of more elementary school needs also will be presented, according to Harold Hansen, superintendent of Huron Valley Schools.

Contracts have been awarded to structural workers and electricians to build 36 classrooms and administration sections, but funds are lacking to build and equip the high school gymnasium wing. Contracts for mechanical work have been held up temporarily pending further study by board members and architects.

Voters approved a bond issue last year for the $1,250,000 high school to be built on north Milford road.

"Although we need an additional $752,980 to complete the high school, it will not be necessary to raise the present tax rate in order to cover the cost of the complete building," Hansen said.

All of the school board members and architects will be present at tonight's meeting to explain just how this can be done, Hansen added.

Elect John Campbell Mayor of Lathrup

LATHRUP — The Lathrup City council has unanimously elected John C. Campbell to his second term as mayor.

Councilman Richard Cogger was named mayor pro tem by a 4 to 1 vote by the council. Cogger succeeds Lantz L. Mackey who is still on the council.

Councilman Fred C. Johnson along with Campbell and Mackey were sworn in by City Clerk Beth Cole Monday.

Avon-Rochester Council to Act on Constitution

ROCHESTER — The Avon-Rochester Community Council will hold a meeting at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow in the Avon Precinct No. 3, located on the north side of Auburn road, west of Rochester Road. The purpose of the meeting is to present the constitution and by-laws to the membership.

Old Soybeans Hit New High

CHICAGO (U. S. A.) — Old crop soybeans futures bounced up into new seasonal high ground on the Board of Trade today gaining several cents at one time in active dealings.

Buying in these futures was based on an Agriculture Department report, issued after the close yesterday, showing much smaller soybean stocks on farms than at this time a year ago.

Other cereals had a very erratic trend. New crop soybeans were firm. Corn firmed early and then lost its gains. May wheat was very strong at one time, backing down later. New crop wheat weakened. Rye held steady while oats eased.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was 1/4 to 1 cent lower, May $2.35 1/4, corn 1/4 to 1/2 higher, May $1.46; oats 1/4 to 1/2 lower, May $1.45; rye 1/4 to 1/2 higher, May $1.34 1/4; soybeans 1 1/2 to 3 1/2 higher, May $2.87 1/4; and 17 to 25 cents a hundred pounds higher, May $13.92.

RKO Seeks Acquisition of Cleveland Arcade Co.

NEW YORK (U. S. A.) — RKO Theaters Corp. proposed yesterday to acquire all assets of the Cleveland Arcade Co. in exchange for 1,043,706 shares of RKO common stock and assumption of liabilities. Cleveland Arcade's principal asset is 94 per cent control of Gera Corp., a diversified enterprise engaged in textile finishing, electronics research and manufacturing and weaving of synthetic fabrics. The acquisition is subject to approval by RKO stockholders on May 8.

Explorer Unit Sees Bell, Pontiac Radio Station

As part of their vocational study program, some 12 explorers of Joslyn Avenue United Presbyterian church Explorer Scout post 66 last night made tours of the Bell Telephone office and radio station WPON.

Accompanying them were adviser King Stettler, assistant adviser Ted Gertz and committeeman William DeGrace.

The post won a national award last year, Stettler said, for its promotion of such programs.
