while the bomber (left foreground) continues in formation just prior to its plunge earthward. The picture shows large chunks of the bomber's tail missing. House Democrat George B. Mahon termed "indefensible" the photographic mission which, he charged, caused the collision and took the lives of two pilots. This photo was one of a series taken from a commercial jet chartered by the General Electric Co. The photo sequence, which does not include the instant of the collision, shows that five planes were in a moderate formation, a little more than a wing-span apart.

The North Oakland County Fair set for June 17 to 19 is shaping up as one of the largest in the area, according to co-chairmen Dean Salley and Jack Cooper, who anticipate attendance of 100,000.

The fair will be held at Community Activities, Inc., 5640 Williams Lake, Waterford Township.

Highlight of festivities will be the appearance and 3 p.m. performance June 19 of the United States Army parachute team — the Golden Knights from Ft. Bragg, N. C.

A team leader on the para-trooping unit is Staff Sgt. Charles J. Harris, 29, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Harris of 1525 W. Hamlin, Avon Township.

Detroit Mayor Jerome Cavanagh and U.S. Senator Robert Griffin, R-Mich., have announced they will attend the fair.

Griffin is expected to be at the fair at 4:30 p.m. June 19. He is scheduled to crown the new fair queen at 6 p.m.

A teen-age dance will be held Saturday at 8 p.m. with the Mark V band furnishing the music.

Testifying Ends in Bribe Trial

Final Arguments Due
Tuesday in Local Case

Final arguments will be heard Tuesday in the Circuit Court trial of three men charged with conspiring to bribe a Pontiac police officer.

Testimony in the case before Judge Frederick C. Ziem was completed yesterday.

On trial are Angelo (Barrels) Lombardi, 37, and Charles Rousos, 32, both of Detroit, and Odus Tucher, 49, of St. Clair Shores.

They are accused of conspiring to pay bribes totaling $2,060 to Capt. Raymond E. Meggitt while he was working as an undercover agent for the police department between June and October last year.

In return, Meggitt, then a lieutenant, was to tip off the operators of the Seaway Civic and Social Club, formerly at 118 S. Paddock, to any pending raids on the alleged gambling establishment.

TROOPER TESTIFIES

Lombardi is charged with making the payoffs to Meggitt.

A State Police trooper testified yesterday that he had gained access into the club by posing as a customer shortly before it was raided by police on Oct. 2, 1965.

Trooper Lowell Wilds said that he saw a number of people shooting dice on a pool table and that there was money being bet.

Warrant to Be Asked in Ambush Slaying

DETROIT (UPI)—Police in suburban Taylor Township said today they would ask for a murder warrant for a "possibly deranged" man they believe ambushed his estranged wife and shot her to death.

Police called off an extensive manhunt in western Wayne County after failing to find a trace of the slayer of Mrs. Eleanor Hajnos, 38, a mother of seven.

The woman was found shot to death on her front porch yesterday.

Police said their prime suspect in the case was Andrew Hajnos, 44, who has been separated from the victim for several months.

Police said Mrs. Hajnos was shot three times with a .30-caliber M1 carbine, which was found nearby.

Cynthia and the six other Hajnos children said they were awakened by a loud noise "that sounded like shots."

Police said Hajnos, believed to be an expert woodsman and camper, was unemployed and described him as "dangerous and possibly deranged."

They said Hajnos apparently had been camping in woods near the area and he sometimes slept in a tool shed behind the Hajnos house.

Mrs. Hajnos was returning from her job at a Wyandotte factory when she was gunned down as she began to enter her home.

She held a daytime job at an engineering firm in the area.

The Hajnos children, two boys and five girls, range in age from 18 to 3 years.

Sanity Hearing Slated Monday

Lawyers Now Oppose
Long-Sought Airing

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Jack Ruby, sentenced to die in the electric chair for the slaying of Lee Harvey Oswald, will get the sanity hearing Monday his lawyers have been seeking for almost two years.

But in an apparent about-face the attorneys now say they are opposed to the hearing because it would jeopardize Ruby's constitutional rights if they have to call witnesses who might testify at the new murder trial they are seeking.

They say they will appear in court Monday morning as directed by State Dist. Judge Louis T. Holland but will not call Ruby to the stand and will present no witnesses and no evidence to support their earlier claims that Ruby is insane.

GI Tells Why He Asked Strikes on His Area

TWO MORONG, South Viet Nam (AP) — Capt. Bill Carpenter said today he called in air and artillery strikes on Communist troops overrunning his position because "this was the most effective way I could see to kill them."

The Air Force made the initial run with napalm and cannon fire," he said. "We lost some of our people then."

The decision saved the ground for his company on Thursday and may win him the Medal of Honor. His company is Company C of the 502nd Battalion of the "Screaming Eagles" 101st Airborne Division.

Carpenter, 26, who won fame as the "Lonesome End" of the 1959, West Point football team, marched the remains of his company out of the battle area today.

26 TODAY

With him was Capt. Ron Brown, Chattanooga, Tenn.,

who led his company to Carpenter's aid. Brown, who celebrated his 26th birthday today, is to be recommended for the Distinguished Service Cross, the second highest U.S. award.

Carpenter's company ran into dug-in North Vietnamese regulars as he led his men into a wooded area in the jungle highlands. The U.S. troops were taking part in a big sweep called Operation Hawthorne.

Seated at a helicopter landing zone where wounded were coming through, the bearded, dirty, captain told his story.

"We could hear them talking and moving around as we moved up the hill," he said. "They didn't seem to know we were in the area. Our first platoon hit them first and began cutting them down with machine-gun fire."

ALERTED OTHERS

The fight alerted other Communist units.

"More and more of them then started coming in on us. They pinned us down. Then they started to get right in with us — right among us."

"I called in artillery and air strikes right on top of us. This was the most effective way I could see to kill them."

"Did I mark my position with a smoke grenade?"

"NOT SURE"

"I don't know. I'm not sure."

But I had my radio and I adjusted the strikes from the earlier passes. After those first strikes we had air with us all the time. It saved our rear ends. They knew exactly where we were."

"We called in artillery right on top of us, too. We kept that up almost until Able Company reached us about 2300 (11 p.m.) that (Thursday) night."

Able Company was led by Brown. It had to fight its way through Communist fire-fights four times to reach Carpenter. They killed 14 of the enemy.

When Brown came up he took command of the hill — because he had more men than Carpenter.

"Brown said 'Everything we did we did together. There wasn't any disagreement up there.'"

Wedding SCRAPbook to Show Pair's Mettle

By JANICE KLOUSER

It took more than a year but Jean Bair and Lorraine Cartier finally met at the altar yesterday — in the middle of a scrap yard.

Junk cars and piles of scrap iron provided the setting for the wedding at the Pontiac Scrap Co., 135 Branch, performed by Municipal Judge Cecil McCallum.

The bride wore a pink knit suit as she climbed the dirty iron steps of a steel shaver to the musical strains of steel cutters.

Attending the couple for the single-ring ceremony were David Halem, owner of the scrap company, and Charles Blauer, an employee.

It was a far cry from candlelight, flowers and Lohengrin, but for Miss Cartier, her junk yard wedding was as good as the traditional kind.

ILLNESSES

The couple has been trying for more than a year to get married but was unable to do so because of several illnesses and the nature of the bridegroom's work.

Bair, 36, is a field engineer for Richards Shear Co. of Seattle, Wash., and travels all over the country. He was in town this week to oversee the installation of a new machine at the Pontiac Scrap Co.

Hoping to get married here sometime this week, Miss Cartier, 37, flew in last Saturday from Omaha, Neb.

More delays faced the couple when they had trouble locating a doctor who had office hours on Wednesday to give them blood tests.

ALLEGED JUDGE

They were discussing their plight with Halem Thursday night when he suggested that he call his friend Judge McCallum and ask him to perform the ceremony at the scrap yard.

Asked how she liked the idea of getting married in a junk yard, she said that all she ever heard about is scrap yards "so I might as well get married in one."

28 Teachers at Eastern Are Told to Return

Pontiac Schools Supt. Dana Whitner yesterday ordered Eastern Junior High School teachers to be back in their classrooms Monday.

Twenty-eight of the school's 44 teachers called in sick both days, virtually closing the school.

They are seeking a board of education statement to "clear the air" about the quality of education offered at Eastern.

Eastern's image, the teachers maintain, has been sullied by recent charges made by a group of pupils, parents and civil rights group leaders.

Some 175 pupils demonstrated at the school May 27 to protest handling of a disciplinary situation at the school five days earlier.

SEEK ENDORSEMENT

Teachers want "full endorsement of the present administrative and faculty procedures and situations that exist at Eastern Junior High in regard to curriculum, extracurricular activities and discipline."

The group also is seeking public exoneration of Principal Theodore Wiersma in connection with the disciplinary incident.

Surveyor Photos Due

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Surveyor I, having sent to earth 5,760 pictures of the moon, is scheduled to continue transmission until next Tuesday morning — the beginning of the lunar night.

Surveyor resumed its picture taking yesterday after a two-day rest through the 260-degree heat of the lunar noon. In 9½ hours scientists at Jet Propulsion Laboratory received 1,738 shots of the lunar terrain.

Legislature Extends Session Two Days

er education, goes into conference.

In the 11th-hour debate yesterday, the House refused to go along with a Senate-approved statewide moratorium on another deer hunting, leaving a conference to work out agreement.

But it approved and sent to Romney a bill making Michigan the second state to regulate sale of hearing aids.

STATE BOARD

A state board could suspend or revoke dealers' licenses for false advertising, fraud or deceit.

The House refused to go along with Senate amendments permitting the Peoples Community Hospital Authority to sell its assets to a private, nonprofit corporation.

The semipublic authority, shaken by charges of mismanagement early this year, runs four hospitals in western Wayne and eastern Washtenaw counties.

Att. Gen. Frank Kelley said turning the authority over to private ownership would endanger its bonded indebtedness and make it difficult for the 23 member cities to get back their investment.

WATER RATES

The House tabled a move to make Detroit's water rates more than 60 communities subject to Public Service Commission approval.

The move was sponsored by Rep. Harold Clark, D-Warren, and backed by other suburban legislators.

One major pay raise—for Appeals Court judges—went to the governor. But others covering legislators, and supreme, circuit and probate court judges went into conference. Appeals judges will jump from $23,000 to $31,000.

The Senate sent to conference a bill making it a misdemeanor to evade a traffic officer's attempted arrest and a felony to strike an arresting officer.

UNSUCCESSFUL

Sen. Basil Brown, D-Highland Park, led an unsuccessful attempt to also make it a felony for an officer to beat a citizen without justification.

On conference by previous action are major bills establishing county home rule and a program of tuition grants to students at private colleges.

Two property tax breaks for rural interests went to the governor. One increases the farm equipment exemption from $1,000 to $2,500 of state-evaluated valuation and the other exempts growing trees and plants from the levy.

Another approved bill bars use of LSD, the hallucinatory drug.

New Hopeful in 17th District

Area Businessman Seeking Dem Bid

A Waterford Township businessman announced today he will seek the Democratic nomination for the 17th District senatorial seat.

Making his first bid for public office is Richard D. Campbell, 37, of 5706 Hummingbird Lane, Independence Township.

Campbell is the owner of the City Soft Water Co., 3790 Elizabeth Lake, and a partner in the Waterford Hill Sauna in Independence Township.

The district Campbell is seeking to represent includes Pontiac, the townships of Waterford, Independence, Orion, Brandon, Oxford, Addison and Oakland and Lapeer County.

Sen. Carl W. O'Brien currently represents the district.

"I personally feel there is a need for closer contact with the residents in the district — and not just at election time," said Campbell.

REPRESENTATIVE

"A senator has to represent the people all the time. I believe I can do that."

A native of Pontiac, Campbell is a member of the Pontiac Elks, Drayton Plains Lions Club and the Oakland County Democratic party.

He is vice president of the Water Conditioning Association of Southern Michigan, and a committee member with Cub Scout Pack No. 126 at the First Methodist Church in Clarkston.

Before becoming self-employed, Campbell was a manager for Associates loan company for 10 years.

He and his wife, Dolores, have two children.

FEA After More Fringe Benefits

Farmling teachers yesterday accepted "with reservations" the majority of provisions in a new master contract — but they sent their negotiators back into session for a fringe benefit.

The proposed contract calls for a $5,000 salary for a beginning teacher with a bachelor's degree, marking a $400 increase in the base salary.

The 400 Farmington Education Association members at yesterday's meeting gave their negotiators a directive to seek fringe benefits, particularly fully paid hospitalization insurance to replace the current 50-50 program.

A negotiating session last night resulted in no agreement, said Douglas Cooper, spokesman for the FEA negotiating team.

He said the board of education negotiators refused to grant the hospitalization provision, expected to cost $60,000 to $70,000 a year.

The bill creating the college is unconstitutional, opponents said. Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley has ruled that the Legislature cannot create any new college or university without the prior consultation and approval of the State Board of Education.

"If you were a person about to invest millions and millions of dollars, you'd consult your attorney first," said Rep. William Hampton, R-Birmingham.

"Kelley is an attorney, and I think we should take his advice."

Damage at Lubbock, and at Abilene and Plainville, Tex., to the north, was estimated at more than $1 million.

MEA Sanctions Asked Against School District

BIRMINGHAM — Although teachers belonging to the Birmingham Education Association (BEA) have agreed not to strike, they are requesting that the Michigan Education Association (MEA) issue sanctions against the school district.

Donald Cameron, BEA president, said, "Negotiations are going badly and getting worse."

He said the MEA's first step would be an investigation of the situation.

Although teachers have decided to negotiate a contract all summer if necessary, they have agreed not to return to school in the fall if a master contract has not been presented, Cameron said.

Representatives of the teachers met with the board of directors of the League of Women Voters, PTA officers and board, and the Birmingham Council of Churches this week.

ANSWER QUESTIONS

After presenting their case to the civic groups, the teachers held a two-hour question and answer period.

Cameron said the groups expressed their support of the teachers' grievances. He said the teachers plan to contact more PTA groups and place advertisements in local papers explaining their grievances.

Another negotiating session between the school board and teachers is scheduled for Monday night.

Cameron said teachers plan a general membership meeting on Thursday to discuss a plan of action for the summer months.

The First Church of Christ Scientist will present Jane O. Robbins speaking on "What Is Your Potential?" at 8:15 p.m. Monday in the church auditorium at 191 N. Chester.

Miss Robbins, who began devoting her full time to the public practice of Christian Science healing, is on tour as a member of the board of lecturers of The First Church of Christ Scientist, of Boston, Mass.

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — Drama students of Roper City Country School will stage three one-act plays at 8 p.m. June 14 at 2190 N. Woodward, under the direction of Mrs. George Warfield.

Hopes Up in 1 of 3 Teacher Strikes

DETROIT (AP) — Suburban Detroit's three schoolteacher strikes, keeping nearly 27,000 children from classes, remained at stalemates today.

At one—Wayne, largest of the school districts with 19,000 pupils—there was hope of a possible early settlement.

Wayne's school board and the Wayne Education Association, the teachers' organization, scheduled negotiations for today.

The tie-ups persisted as graduation and term-ending ceremonies impeded for next week at many of the schools.

No progress was reported in teacher-school board disputes at Dearborn Heights' Crestwood District and in Ecorse. The Michigan Education Association, parent group to the Crestwood teachers, imposed the association's "sanctions" against the school district.

Sanctions, in effect, constitute a blacklisting. Teachers are advised not to apply for jobs in the school district. The MEA charged the Crestwood school board with failing to bargain in good faith and threatening and intimidating teachers.

Crestwood's teachers earlier brought a $1 million damage suit against school officials on similar allegations. WON'T BARGAIN

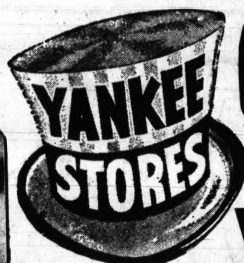

The Ecorse board has taken a position that it will refuse to bargain with the Ecorse Federation of Teachers (AFLCIO) until the teachers return to classes.

Together, the Ecorse and Crestwood districts have about 400 teachers and 8,000 pupils.

Wayne's teachers said they would file an unfair labor practice charge, despite continuance of negotiations.

Dale Kennedy, MEA executive secretary, said the Wayne School Board has been in "obvious contempt" of Michigan law regarding teacher bargaining rights.

SET UP HOUSEKEEPING—Volunteers erect a large tent some three miles west of Batesville, Miss., yesterday to house some of the 200 marchers taking part in the Memphis-to-Jackson march begun last Sunday by James Meredith. This was the first night the marchers had to camp out.

Rights Rallies to Back Marchers in Mississippi

BATESVILLE, Miss. (AP)—N.Y.; Nashville, Tenn.; Los Angeles; Chicago; Albany, N.Y.; San Antonio, Tex.; and through Louisiana scheduled rallies and marches today and Sunday.

Some groups coupled the affairs with voter registration support and memorial services for Medgar Evers, state field secretary of the Mississippi chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, who was shot to death three years ago.

The march pace will be slowed a little through a new tactic. Instead of sticking to the outskirts of towns, the marchers will go into county seats to escort Negroes to voter registration places.

Meredith, the first Negro at the University of Mississippi, walked for two days from the Tennessee line toward Jackson, the state capital, before he was wounded by two blasts of birdshot. Others took over where he left off, and their number has varied from 125 to 600.

Meredith set out on his walk to encourage Negroes to register.

RALLIES SCHEDULED

In support of the marchers, civil rights workers in Phoenix, Ariz.; Louisville, Ky.; Buffalo,

Charles Evers, the slain man's brother, is to preside over a service and march over the funeral route Sunday in Jackson. Floyd McKissick, the state capital, before he was wounded by two blasts of birdshot. Others took over where he left off, and their number has varied from 125 to 600.

'Defensive Driving' by Greyhound

After headlines of holiday traffic losses over Memorial Day a press release from Greyhound Bus Corporation reached our desk which seems worth repeating even though the holiday is over.

A message was sent out from the company's Chicago headquarters to more than 9,000 professional Greyhound drivers as a reminder to them of the need for extra attention to safe driving practices on the packed holiday highways.

Their recommendations are apropos to all of us as everyday drivers. "Know your vehicle, its limitations and most efficient speed. A 'pro' accepts the irritations caused by other motorists and never drives with a 'chip' on his shoulder.

Join the traffic, don't fight it. Expect the unexpected. Don't depend upon the other driver to do the right thing.

Be prepared to handle sudden emergencies by thinking ahead. Greyhound calls it 'Defensive Driving.'

Adjust seat so you can sit erect and stay alert.

Pass only when the view is clear ahead—not on hills, curves or intersections.

Give proper signals in stopping, turning and passing. Allow plenty of room between you and the car ahead.

In bad weather, get the feel of the road and adjust driving and speed to meet conditions.

Slow down at night, don't 'overdrive' your lights.

Avoid road hypnosis and fatigue on turnpikes and thruways by staying alert.

Operate at variable speeds, inspect mirrors and gauges frequently, think actively of possible hazards ahead, shift your gaze from time to time from directly ahead to avoid 'frozen' vision."

Rocky's Proposition a Political Maneuver?

GOV. NELSON ROCKEFELLER of New York has the Republican situation all settled. At least this is what he would have you believe from his most recent statement.

The Governor proposes a ticket of our Gov. George Romney and Sen. Jacob Javits for 1968. He says this would be first-rate and we are inclined to agree.

Of course he used this statement to take himself out of presidential competition — this time "forever." We wonder? It is far too early to be putting tickets together. ROMNEY must first be elected next November by a wide margin which should not really pose any great problem. It would also help a great deal if he could get his appointee to the Senate, ROBERT P. GRIFFIN, elected. ROCKEFELLER is a professional politician by choice. It is a fair bet that his moves are calculated with something in mind.

Gov. Rockefeller, if he backs a favorite son nomination in New York for Sen. Javits and the bracketing of Javits with our Gov. Romney, will be accomplishing one thing. He will be cutting the legs off Richard M. Nixon, now a New Yorker who is already campaigning for the 1968 presidential bid and who needs a home base.

Maybe that's all he has in mind by suggesting a ROMNEY-JAVITS ticket at this early date.

Khrushchev Practices Prudence in Retirement

Americans, who are quick (sometimes too quick) to forgive and rarely nurture hatred, may be pleased that NIKITA S. KHRUSHCHEV has recovered from his illness and is living quietly and comfortably with his family in a villa near Moscow.

Mrs. K. says the ousted Soviet man is not writing his memoirs — "at least not now," which is prudent of him. If he wrote what really happened in the old days the Kremlin brass now in the saddle might decide his life is altogether too peaceful.

Inasmuch as Americans have never been given the complete story of what transpired between him and JOHN F. KENNEDY in the Cuban missile confrontation, KHRUSHCHEV's memoirs would be interesting to read.

But his accounts might well be somewhat colored. Khrushchev never was one to sanctify truth.

U.S. 'Building Bridges' to China

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON — President Johnson's administration has a pet phrase now, being worked for all its worth, on improving relations with the Chinese Communists. It calls for "building bridges" to Red China.

Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey used it this week in addressing West Point's graduating class. Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara used it last month. The Red Chinese brushed it off.

This leaves the relationship between the two countries where it was 16 years ago this month.

In December 1949, the Red Chinese drove Chiang Kai-shek and his Nationalist Chinese from the mainland to Formosa. The United States, which had pumped billions of aid to Chiang, had given up on him, washed its hands.

On Jan. 5, 1950, President Harry S. Truman said that whatever happened between Chiang and the Reds was their business, and the United States would not defend Formosa. June 25 the Korean War began.

TO PROTECT U.S. FLANK
And on June 27 Truman, to protect the American flank in the Pacific, reversed himself and decided to defend Formosa. The United States has been stuck with that assignment ever since.

since Red China swept into the Korean War late in 1949, the most powerful nation on earth and the most populated one have been unyielding antagonists, sometimes looking ludicrous.

Although the United States never has recognized the Red regime as the legitimate government of China, ever since 1954, U.S. and Chinese representatives have been meeting in Geneva and Warsaw but hardly hearing each other.

Sen. George D. Aiken, Vermont Republican, put the proper twist on this bit of irony: "How are you going to recognize Red China when Red China won't recognize us."

WON'T TRADE WITH CHINA
The United States won't trade with Red China, has tried to discourage allies from doing so, and down through the years always has blocked any effort to give Red China a seat in the United Nations.

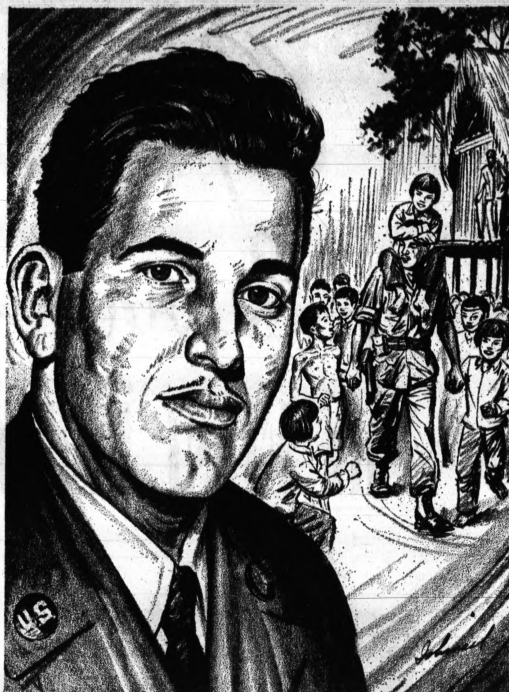

Red China, claiming to be lord of the mainland and Formosa, insists Chiang's Formosa has no right to a U.N. seat, which it has, and the United States, stuck with Formosa must insist it can't be thrown out.

Lately the Johnson administration, because of the danger of war with the Chinese over the war in Viet Nam, has been under pressure to be less rigid toward the Chinese Communists who have been just as rigid in return.

This explains the phrase the administration has been spreading about the need to "build bridges."

The POWER of FAITH

By WOODY ISHMAEL

"I came here to help these people," said S/Sgt Arthur McMillon of Hamlin, West Virginia to his company commander in Viet Nam one day. "When I can't do that, they can ship me home, one way or another."

The way Sergeant McMillon helped these people made him a favorite with the Ben Cat kids, who flocked after him, clamored over his jeep and vied for the chance to wash it. Even adults began to smile at him, though there were plenty of Communists around.

Last Thanksgiving day, Sgt. McMillon managed to commandeer enough turkeys from the army to feed 67 hungry youngsters. But within a week, while he was driving into Ben Cat, his jeep was the only one among hundreds to be blasted by a road mine. Intelligence officers were sure he was singled out to die.

"If his death was worth it," said the chaplain, "then the whole thing's worth it." Sgt. McMillon shipped out for home the other way, but there are many children in Ben Cat who will remember the sergeant who helped them.

Confident Living:

Conquer Inward Failings First

By NORMAN VINCENT PEALE

"I have failed in all." So writes a 22-year-old boy from Brazil. It seems that after finishing elementary school with good grades he proceeded to flunk the first year of high school four years in a row! In picturesque English he tells his story, and Dr. PEALE it is worth reading for he really comes up with something.

"In the first fiasco I held up my head, trustful, continuing to study. The second fiasco came. I failed again, but continued in action. I could not think me flunking once more!

Mrs. Isola Stark of Seminole Hills Nursing Home; 90th birthday.

But two more years I stopped in first year. Then I gave up. I promised myself to study no more! Everybody wonder about it.

"I have not a job. Whenever I am tested to get work I feel that everything is gone and so lose the opportunity to be employed. I have lost the best chances. Think! Twenty-two years old and I am not independent. My old father have to give me money, cloths, victuals."

"What can I do? The friends I have are working, studying, living. To be frank I should like to die." So ended this gloomy letter.

I sent this discouraged young man some suggestions for overcoming his inferiority complex and improving his performance. Months later, he writes of a really big change in his life.

"When I got your missive," he says, "I begin to practice your wise advice. On account of your written words I returned to my studies with courage. The marks of mine have been the best. I never dreamed that I would be first in my class! Now, by God's grace, it is a reality."

He sums up his improvement in this classic statement: "Little by little God is taking my failures out of me. God is releasing my powerful strength."

When we fail at something we sometimes let ourselves in for a lot more trouble by the way we react. We start worrying about what friends or associates will think. Have we lost status? Are people laughing up their sleeves at our discomfiture?

Worse yet we imagine that one failure means more failure. It may even shake our basic confidence. This leads to failing in other things and can make us failure prone.

But no matter how often or how miserably you have failed never think there isn't some way of turning failure to success. By mental and spiritual reconditioning you can reverse the failure trend.

"Self-trust," said Emerson,

"is the first secret of success." Without it you cannot have the other ingredients of successful living — sustained enthusiasm, creative thoughts, resilience, perseverance. With self-trust you develop all of these — and get the failure tendency out of you.

Charles F. Kettering, the great research engineer who invented the self-starter for automobiles and other notable devices, said "It is not a disgrace to fail if you analyze every failure to find its cause." (Copyrighted by King Features Syndicate)

Washington Notebook:

A Flexible Telephone Technique

BY WASHINGTON STAFF

WASHINGTON (N.E.A.) — Speaking to the Republican Women of Capitol Hill, former Vice President Richard Nixon praised congressional secretaries for their almost infallible instinct of letting the right people get through to their bosses on the phone.

Among the "telephone techniques" described by Nixon: "If you're sure the caller is a nut, you say: 'The congressman is out of the city. Is there something I can do?'"

When you're not quite sure it's a nut, you say: "The congressman is in a very important committee meeting. If you'll tell me what it's about,

"I'll be glad to pass it on to him."

And if the caller sounds important, you take his name and say: "The congressman is on another line. Can you hold on?"

The only problem, Nixon added, is when President Johnson calls personally.

Voice of the People:

Regrets Role of Religion in Our Modern America

'Keep the Word of God away from our school children, Gideons,' is a decision of which the Waterford School Board must be proud. 'Oh, yes, you can pass the Bible out on the outside, but don't let Jesus in our schools.'

He was at the door and the school board turned Him away.

Also, the Executive Board of the Lutheran Church in America doesn't think it a good policy that cadets at military academies be required to attend church. This is part of the training and is more important than anything else. Is it now the function of the church to get people out of church rather than to compel them to come in?

J. H. EGBERT
987 ARGYLE

Urges Economical Standard for Schools

Last the Waterford School election, June 13th, overtake us without publicity or fanfare as did its May 16th registration deadline and because time left allows for no more than a personal campaign by those who believe sound education can be fully served with less squandering on sprawling costly-to-maintain architectural monstrosities. I offer this timely reminder to voters that good schools were once stately edifices in modest settings. Donaldson and Stringham are surely indolgent examples for standardization in the name of society needs, economy which can be attained with expansion of the existing units which can tolerate alteration.

Let's stop converting the township into a school campus. Remember, mills make millions, affluence breed jealousies and the other departments are getting mill ambitious.

ONE OF THE MILLS BRETHERN

Discusses Avondale School Millage Vote

Avondale voters, do you know there is a school election June 13? Do you know there will be a proposal on the ballot to increase the millage?

Why haven't we heard anything about how the $3,100,000 will be spent? Is this another quiet maneuver by the Board of Education? Do we really need a new Board of Education of fine building and a fancy faculty lounge? Think how much you are paying in school taxes now before voting an increase!

NOT FOR FRILLS

Question and Answer

Now that the Highway Department has seen fit to tie up Square Lake Road between Woodward and Telegraph for the better part of ten months, why were the "No Left Turn" signs installed on the median opposite Bedell's Restaurant? With most of Bedell's business coming from the north, this makes no sense to me or anyone I've discussed it with. So far as I know there have been no accidents and the only thing it accomplishes is to throw the bulk of traffic through the area the Highway Department is working on to make a left turn and then back through the same area again. Why?

REPLY

The median opposite Bedell's is temporarily used to handle westbound Square Lake traffic which turns left onto southbound Woodward. Mr. Lingmann of the Highway Department says that office feels the median should handle only one-way traffic. Even though it means two trips through the construction area, southbound Woodward traffic turning left flows more smoothly and with less congestion than the left-turn cutover is farther down the road, rather than through the median opposite Bedell's.

A Flexible Telephone Technique

This conversation might ensue:
"Can Ah speak to the congressman?"
"The congressman is out of the city. Is there something I can do?"

"Well, this is President Johnson..."
"Just a minute. I think I see him coming down the hall!"

At a recent Senate subcommittee hearing on the Federal Communications Commission's budget, Sen. Warren Magnuson, D-Wash., said that he had received several complaints about the loudness of radio commercials.

"Yeah?" responded the incredulous Parrish. "What does it say?"
"Nashville — 20 miles."

Andrew Hatcher, former presidential press aide now in private business, remarked at the recent White House Conference on Civil Rights that he had bumped into his former boss, Pierre Salinger.

"Saw Pierre in New York the other day," said Hatcher. The taxi strike was on, but Pierre, of course, had a limousine.

"It was just like old times at the White House."

Rosel Hyde, one of the seven FCC commissioners, said: "Complaints of this nature are rather difficult to substantiate. I've always found that any commercial — regardless of how loud it is — tends to awaken the average listener."

"Furthermore," chimed in communications Kenneth Cox, "it's hard to have a commercial which is too loud on most of these rock 'n' roll stations."

Joseph Parrish, an editorial cartoonist for a large midwestern newspaper, bumped into an old chum from his original home town, Donelson, Tenn., the other day.

"Hey, Joe! Congratulations!" boomed the friend. "You really must have hit it big. I was back in Donelson a couple of months ago and they've put a plaque on your birthplace."

"Yeah?" responded the incredulous Parrish. "What does it say?"

Man Listed Fair After 3-Vehicle Crash in Area

A 28-year-old Mt. Clemens man is listed in fair condition at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital after a three-vehicle accident yesterday.

Sonny B. Robertson was injured when his car sideswiped a truck and then collided with another car on Auburn near Eastwood in Avon Township, according to Oakland County Sheriff's deputies.

Harry P. Wood, 55, of Lapeer, driver of the other car, was treated for injuries and released. Garrison D. Gracey, 30, of Clawson, driver of the truck, escaped injury.

A new drug has just been approved for commercial sale that may end one of the most dreaded conditions in cattle and sheep—swelling or bloat. Losses due to this condition are nearly $100 million in the United States alone. The drug is called ploxalene.

GI Who Refused to Bear Arms Is Court-Martialed

CHU CHI, Viet Nam (AP)—An American serviceman who studied for the priesthood and who refused to bear arms against the Communists today was sentenced to one year in prison for refusing to obey an order.

An Army court-martial also sentenced Pvt. Adam R. Weber Jr., 24, of New Orleans to be reduced to recruit and to forfeit $45 of his $101.90 monthly pay. Weber, speaking after the verdict was returned but before sentence was pronounced, pleaded to be allowed to remain in the Army and volunteered to serve as a front-line medic.

He was convicted of refusing to accept and sign for an M14 rifle on April 30 when being processed through the replacement company of the 25th Infantry Division.

The maximum sentence on the charge is five years in prison and a dishonorable discharge.

Subdivision to Petition for Sewers

Residents of Jeffrey Manor Subdivision are scheduled to petition the Waterford Township Board Monday night to set up a special assessment district for construction of sanitary sewers in the subdivision.

The subdivision is located in the Scott Lake Road area between Elizabeth Lake and Pontiac Lake roads.

The sewers would be connected to the nearby Lorraine Manor Subdivision sewer system. Sewage from Lorraine Manor is processed in a treatment plant located on Roberts Lane.

Forty-five lots in Jeffrey Manor Subdivision would be included in the project.

Board members are expected to decide whether to go ahead with the project.

COST ESTIMATE

If given the green light by the board, township engineering consultants Johnson and Anderson, Inc., would be directed to prepare a cost estimate. Subsequently, a public hearing would be scheduled.

In special assessment district projects, residents pay 20 percent of the cost with the township financing the balance.

In other business, the board will consider proposed salary increases for three employees of the Township Cemetery and Park Department.

INCREASED FEES

The board also will consider adoption of an amendment, establishing increased building and plumbing permit fees. Also under consideration will be a proposed new fee schedule for electrical inspections.

In still other business, five zoning change proposals will be acted on by the board.

To Every Home Owner:

A drastic Federal forced housing law now being considered by the Congress would destroy your basic rights—unless you act now!

Here's what it is:

"Title IV" of the so-called Civil Rights Bill—H.R. 14765 and S. 3296—is the forced, not fair, housing proposal that threatens to deprive you, as a home owner, of basic freedoms.

Here's what it would do:

- 1 Deny you freedom to contract with a person of your choice in the sale or rental of your home, or a room in your own home.
- 2 Deny you the right even to mention a preference for a person of your own religion in advertising for a roomer or tenant.
- 3 Subject you to suit by the U.S. Attorney General to force you to sell or rent to a person other than the person of your choice.
- 4 Delay indefinitely a rental or sale, pending final court disposition of allegations against you.
- 5 Subject you to payment of unlimited damages if you insist on exercising preference in a sale or rental.
- 6 Discourage sale of your home because the prospective buyer could not be assured of taking title until the deed is actually recorded.

Because we are concerned about the human rights of all Americans . . .

- We protest a law that gives one person the right to force another to enter into a contract against his will.
- We protest this attack on the human right of freedom of choice in disposing of private property.
- We believe progress in race relations will be retarded, not advanced, by this bill. Equal opportunity in housing is making progress under the influence of voluntary efforts of church, school and people of good will.

How can you make your protest heard?

The Congress will reject the forced housing features of this bill if you and other home and property owners write your Members of Congress and make it clear that you oppose this legislation because it would destroy rights of all Americans.

Write or wire today—and tell your Members of the Congress what you think.

Lack of Hair on Hubby's Head Causes Wife to Vision Red

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN
DEAR ABBY: I am on the verge of a nervous breakdown and it's my own fault, but I can't help it. I was 20 when I married Woodley. He was 29 and completely bald except for a little fringe of hair around his head.

It bothered me then, but I told myself I'd get used to it. Well, I never did. It kept bothering me more and more.

I finally made him get a toupee (it cost $200), and he looked 100 per cent better, but I was still ashamed to walk beside him. From a distance he looked fine, but from close up you could tell he was wearing a toupee.

He said he didn't care if people knew he wore a toupee or not, he thinks it looks better than no hair at all.

I am so ashamed of myself for feeling like I do because he is the dearest, sweetest man in all the world. And the best husband, father, and provider a woman could ask for. I just hate myself for being dissatisfied with him just because he's bald.

What can I do? Sometimes I think I can't stand it another day.

WOODLEY'S WIFE

DEAR WIFE: Your problem is that you obviously have never had anything important enough to worry about. A handicapped child, a helpless parent, a husband with a drinking, gambling, or chasing problem.

The real problem is your head and what's not in it. Accept the realities of life if you cannot change them. And ignore the nonessentials in an otherwise good man.

DEAR ABBY: There is an old guy in our town who is driving everybody nuts. He's about 75 years old. His trouble is he can't keep his paws off women. No waitress will get within six feet of him.

When he comes into the restaurant the cashier has to go over and take his order, and the cook comes out of the kitchen to serve it to him.

This guy went to a doctor for a check up and the nurse told me if he ever came back she was going to have a pair of handcuffs ready.

Everybody in town knows about him. I can't understand why they let a man like that run loose. Isn't he dangerous?

SMALL-TOWN GIRL
DEAR GIRL: Probably not. If everybody in town knows about him, they're safe. It's the ones they don't know about who are dangerous.

DEAR ABBY: Why are certain people always late? I know two. A man and a woman. The woman has no excuse whatsoever because she has no job, no children, and all the time in the world.

The man is self-employed, and his reputation for tardiness is so well-known that when he makes an appointment it is assumed that he will be anywhere from half an hour to an hour late! And he always is.

But he never has the courtesy to apologize or explain. I am always prompt. My time is every bit as valuable as anyone else's, and I resent being kept waiting.

Why, oh why are some people always late?

ON TIME
DEAR ON: Show me a person who is "always late" and I'll show you a person who is selfish, inconsiderate, and emotionally immature. Like children, they live in a timeless world, and couldn't care less about the inconvenience they cause others.

Occasionally, one who is meticulously punctual will be made late through no fault of his own. But those who are chronically tardy are bound to be immature and inconsiderate in other ways.

CONFIDENTIAL TO J.F.H.: The only way I know of to double your money is to fold it over once and put it back in your pocket.

Problems? Write to Abby. In care of The Pontiac Press. For a personal reply, inclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Hate to write letters? Send $1 to Abby, in care of The Pontiac Press for Abby's booklet, "How to Write Letters for All Occasions."

The engagement is announced of Linda Carol Smith, daughter of the Wallace Smiths of Davisburg Road, Springfield Township, to Lenford Dow Harless, son of Mrs. Dow Harless of King Road, Springfield Township, and the late Mr. Harless. August vows are being planned.

Share Joys of Flowers

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. — So many people were stopping to look at the dazzling array of flowers in the huge garden at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Hinkle that the couple decided to put up a sign saying "Visitors Welcome."

Hinkle, who is 65, has enjoyed gardening as a hobby for 18 years and does most of the work himself. He and his wife are pleased that so many travelers on U. S. Highway 280 pause for a look at the thousands of azaleas and tulips.

At the top of the hill near the Hinkles' home is a bell visitors can use to announce their arrival. A sign reads: "If no one answers when you ring, don't turn and go away. Just wander through the garden gate, and view the flowers gay."

Trigere Leans to Leggy Lass With Funds, but Figure Faults

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON
AP Fashion Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The leggy lass with a little middle and a lot of money is in this year as far as designer Pauline Trigere is concerned.

So are turtle pins, hairy dresses, rhinestone bibs and bonnets, men's chevron tie materials, built-in lingerie, fur shirt dresses and fur formal gowns, and boots as supple and fitted as gloves.

"Suits are out this year," Miss Trigere said as waiters passed cocktails and sandwiches and television cameras ground away during her fall collection opening Wednesday. "Women want a freeness around the waist."

HULKING COLLARS

The models who stepped forward later wore slim coats, jaunty jackets or swingy capes over dresses with fitted or belted middles. Chins disappeared under hulking collars, huge ascots, and yards of scarves. But no bulk went to waist.

Other figure faults would have been indiscernible under Trigere's fashion formula. The flat front and back of skirts flared or pleated at the sides.

In tweeds and knits the manikins slipped into plant leather boots that reached higher than their above-the-knee hemlines.

Sometimes silk neck scarves matched the linings of collarless coats. Other times the inside story of cape-like coats was fur warmth.

AFFLUENT LOOK

A wardrobe of fitted dresses, long and short, some with swirling cape coats, and made of Russian broadtail were among latest Trigere status symbol offerings. The really one-upmanship dinner gown was of broadtail, bordered, cuffed and collared in Russian sable.

Modesty bibs are what the once French designer calls these collars of twinkling rhinestones and which models tucked into their plunging necklines, or wore with bare-shouldered dresses.

There were glittering baby bonnets to match these.

For grand entrances were gowns gleaming in silver and gold; and jewel embroidered see-through dresses, some with nude hued slips.

And there were floating chiffons with built-in petticoats for cool comfort. Many gowns bristled with hair like plumage.

Gold turtle pins were worn everywhere, even on the hem line of Miss Trigere's own dress—collecting turtles is her hobby. Silvers of rhinestones were pinned in old places such as the cuff of a long sleeved dress. And rosebuds sometimes grew out of one side of a collar or covered the cleavage otherwise exposed by a low necked dress.

After the show, the audience shouted for the author. And Miss Trigere sat down on the platform and cried.

Betty A. Mead Is Bride

Reception in the Mountain View Country Club followed the recent vows of Betty Ann Mead and Daniel Eugene Vagts in the Waterford Community Church.

The Clarence Moshier of Iris Drive and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene J. D. Vagts of Letart Street are parents of the couple who chose a northern honeymoon.

White peau de sole with bodice of Chantilly lace fashioned the bride's gown and train worn with illusion veil. She carried white orchids, roses and carnations. Honor matron was Mrs. Richard McClellan with bridesmaids, Mrs. James Moshier, Cindy Vagts and Lonna Parden.

Jerry Muhme was best man. Seating the guests were James and Gerald Moshier with Charles Mead.

Bathing Was Big Swinging Deal in Rome

NEW YORK (UPI) — The hippest of today's swingers may be delighted to know: at the height of Rome's glory, the "in" emperors considered the ultimate to be bathing in a swimming bathtub.

The Roman writer Pliny says swinging tubs were suspended from ceiling ropes and the effete emperor lounged in his tepid water as slaves tugged at the ropes.

If that weren't enough resemblance to today's swinging society, Pliny says the emperors liked to "rock and roll" as the tub swung to and fro.

He doesn't say what the tubs were made of, but it might be difficult to suspend modern porcelain enamel steel tubs from the ceiling.

However, the more conventional Roman tub — opulent bathing areas recessed into the floor — appear to be gaining in popularity.

They usually are constructed of a concrete shell and surfaced with ceramic tile. The versatility of these tubs can be formed into almost any size or shape.

Modern tub swingers, it turns out, can perform their ablutions in a tub shaped like a heart, kidney, or any other part of the body or universe.

A breakfast-reception in Holiday Inn of Pontiac followed a solemn high nuptial Mass for Charlene Marie Klok and Leslie Robert Smith, today, in St. Michael's Catholic Church.

PAPAL BLESSING

Rev. Charles Rooney extended the Papal blessing to the couple whose parents are the Clarence Klokas of Joswick Road, Pontiac Township, and the Robert Smiths of Second Avenue.

With her gown and train of white organza and Chantilly lace, the bride wore a pillow with veil and mantilla of lace and illusion. She carried daisy chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Dennis Poosch attended the sister as honor matron. Bridesmaids were Catherine Smith, Mary Elizabeth Schroeder, Marlene Wagner and Deborah Arcand. Tammy Hipschere was flower girl. Jeffrey Smith carried the rings.

With Dennis Smith, his brother's best man, were ushers Thomas Smith, William Crawford, Peter Ronquillo and Dennis Poosch.

The couple will honeymoon in Niagara Falls and Canada.

Polish Bath Tile

Use a cleaner-polish wax — one that doesn't water spot — on tile in the bathroom. This keeps the tile spick-and-span between clean-up days.

Oxford Scene for Vows of Geraldine Kay Francis

The Oxford Methodist Church was the setting for the recent marriage of Geraldine Kay Francis to Jack R. Wilfong.

A dinner in Devon Gables followed the afternoon family ceremony performed by Rev. Fred Clark for the couple who are both of Oscoda.

Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Francis of Oxford and Mrs. Lota M. Wilfong of Buckhannon, W. Va. A short bouffant veil and crenset bouquet of white roses and Stephanotis complemented the bride's street-length dress of white lace over satin.

Jan Wenner of Oscoda attended the bride and Hudson McMurtrie of Buckhannon, best man. William H. Ross was the usher.

After summer graduate studies at the West Virginia Wesleyan College where Mr. Wilfong took his degree, the couple will reside in Oscoda. She is a graduate of Central Michigan University.

The newlywed Mr. and Mrs. Roger Algird Pauls (Karen Lynn McKenna) left for a honeymoon in the Lake Michigan area after their marriage today in St. Vincent de Paul Church.

With them at a wedding luncheon in Malta Temple were their parents, the Jack E. McKennas of Woodmont Street and Mr. and Mrs. Algird Pauls of Hazel Park.

Stephanie McKenna was maid of honor for her sister who chose an Empire sheath gown and train of white organza over taffeta touched with re-embroidered Alencon lace.

HER MOTHER'S MISSAL

Her veil was French illusion and she carried her mother's wedding missal topped with Phalaenopsis orchids and Stephanotis.

Cindy and Patti Pauls were bridesmaids at their brother's wedding.

Victor Zelinskas of Detroit was best man for his nephew, with William Portugal and Carl Tilden as ushers.

MRS. JACK R. WILFONG

Geraldine Kay Francis of Oscoda, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Francis of Oxford, and Jack R. Wilfong, also of Oscoda, son of Mrs. Lota M. Wilfong of Buckhannon, W. Va., were married recently in the Oxford Methodist Church.

Honeycomb Design Brings Outdoors In

By JODY HEADLEE
Home Editor, Pontiac Press

"We knew this place just had to be ours the minute we walked in," said Mrs. Donald Foss of Peach Tree Lane, Avon Township.

"It captured the open feeling typical of a California home and yet was practical for Michigan's climate."

Transplanted Californians, the Fosses searched the Rochester area for two years before they found "their" house.

Its floor plan, developed on the honeycomb design, features only one 90 degree wall junction in the entire house, a true challenge to its interior decorator.

"The kitchen was too compact

Mr. and Mrs. Foss will open their home to the public today and tomorrow during the annual Home and Garden Tour of the Rochester branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association.

Tour hours are from 1-5 p.m. both days.

for our needs," said Mrs. Foss, "so we removed a wall and incorporated a service hall into the work area."

BAR BUILT

"And since I don't like feeling marooned while I'm getting dinner, we had a hole knocked into the living room wall and built in a bar."

"You should have heard our friends howl, 'Why do you want to put a hole in the only decent wall in the living room?'

"I'm not the least sorry we went ahead with our plans."

"When we're entertaining, our guests gather around the bar to chat while I put the finishing touches on the meal."

Resale Value Is Factor in Home Repair

While the first aim of improving the home is to increase its beauty and livability for present—and future—enjoyment, adding to the resale value of the property must also be a practical consideration.

Inexpensive touches can add considerably to house value, a recent survey shows.

In lighting, noiseless switches, inexpensive dinner switches in appropriate locations and a modern chandelier are sound resale investments.

Replacing worn doorknobs and new hardware on the front door are other inexpensive touches that can help.

Alliance Manufacturing Co., makers of "Genie" automatic garage door operators, surveyed real estate brokers to determine how much installation of their product might enhance home resale value.

In addition, they asked about "other items" that might serve to increase resale price—with these results:

In the kitchen, a new refrigerator-freezer that makes ice cubes, costing little more than one that doesn't, is sure to impress.

Cracked concrete sections near the front door? Replace them. They immediately depress value on first impression.

FRESH LOOKING
Because home-buying prospects look out windows at the view, blinds ought to be fresh-looking and sills and frames in attractive condition.

Large patios heighten the impression of luxury living.

In most cases, they should add more to house value than they cost.

Hunt Given Up

in Lake Huron

ALPENA (AP)—The Coast Guard has given up its official search for the light plane that crashed in Lake Huron Wednesday with four Fort Wayne, Ind. men aboard.

The body of one of the four, Gordon Banks Jr., was found the day of the crash.

Guardsmen abandoned the search Friday night but asked boats plying the lake to keep a watch for any evidence of the lost plane.

Vince Edwards Happy

Goodby to Sourpuss Casey

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer
HOLLYWOOD — Vincent Edwards glanced at the trade-paper headlines over breakfast the news: TV writers vote to strike.

The actor grinned wryly and commented, "Thank God I don't have to worry about things like that: I'm finished with old sourpuss."

THOMAS

For the first time in five years, Edwards was not faced with a long season of portraying the sullen surgeon, Ben Casey. He has performed his last lobotomy, and he's glad of it.

"All right? Guy," I mentioned that he never referred to Dr. Casey as old sourpuss while he was making the series.

"That's true," he admitted. "I spoke of him more respectfully. But, I can't be derogatory about old Ben, even if he was a sourpuss. He did all right by me."

"We chose at the outset to play him somber, figuring it would give the character more depth. It seemed to work. But I'm happy to be smiling again."

And why not? Already enriched by "Ben Casey," he'll be collected on reruns here and abroad for a long time hence. Now he's branching out in other directions. He hopes to start his Columbia Picture contract soon; he'd like the first film to be "In Cold Blood," as what actor wouldn't?

Edwards was opening this week in New York with a new act.

"I work with four girls and I give the folks some songs and some talk," he remarked. "No dancing, although I do dazzle 'em with fancy movement."

"It's the first time I've appeared in my own home town, except for playing a bit in 'High Button Shoes.' I did play the borscht circuit up in the Catskills: that's where I got my start."

"Playing New York is a big thrill. In New York you gotta be good."

Nixon to LBJ:
See De Gaulle

CHICAGO (AP)—resident Johnson should go to France to convince President Charles de Gaulle not to pull that nation out of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, says former Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

"The stronger nation must lead," Nixon said in an interview taped for presentation on a Chicago television program today.

"If President Kennedy had lived, he never would have permitted this to happen," Nixon said. "He would have gone over to see de Gaulle, to sit down and talk with him, and that's what President Johnson ought to do."

"You can't have NATO or an Atlantic community or anything else in Europe without France."

"GRAVE THREAT"

In a speech Friday night to the 75th annual convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, Nixon declared:

"We must not let the grave threat to freedom abroad blind us to the growing threats to freedom at home."

One of these threats, he said, is the "rising disregard for the rule of law which is the guarantee of all freedom. I can recall no other period during my lifetime, when the respect for the rule of law and public authority were in greater decline."

Hudson, a widower for 30 years, said "Nothin' wrong with being 87. I've got a lot of energy left."

Abuses Penalized

Bill on Kosher Foods Signed

LANSING (AP)—Gov. George Romney Friday signed into law a bill defining "kosher" foods and requiring their regulation by the State Agriculture Department.

"Kosher," as defined by the new law "are those foods prepared or processed in accordance with Orthodox Hebrew religious requirements sanctioned by a recognized Orthodox rabbinical council."

The new law provides penalties for the false or misleading application of the term "kosher" to nonkosher foods.

Other bills signed by the governor would:

- Exempt social psychologists from the Psychologist Registration Act.
- Provide that epileptic patients admitted to Caro State Hospital be subject to the same law regarding liability of relatives and charges as now governs retarded patients.
- Broaden the Child Abuse Act of 1965 to include responsibility of registered nurses, social workers, school principals, assistant principals and counselors for reporting abuse cases.
- Set penalties for the use of electronic devices in tampering with telephonic equipment.
- Broaden the rule-making authority of the state insurance commissioner.

WTHS Student Constructors Near End of Garage Project

Despite a few mishaps, carpentry and architectural drawing students at Waterford Township High School are nearing completion of their part in construction of a seven-stall, $5,000 garage.

The much-needed structure will harbor the school's six driver education vehicles. The extra space temporarily will be used to store athletic equipment.

The construction gang consists of 18 carpentry students, under the supervision of industrial arts instructor George W. Kressbach.

Designing the building were three architectural drawing students. Scale models of the garage were made prior to construction.

Except for the floor, footing, brick work and installation of overhead doors, the students will have done all the work.

WORK AVERAGE

An average of about 16 work-hours will have been spent on the project by each of the 18 carpentry students, according to Kressbach.

"While it's not a professional job," noted Kressbach, "it's being well-constructed. There are minor errors that don't interfere with the structural stability of the building," he added.

Construction of the near-completed garage began only a few weeks ago.

The most noteworthy mishap occurred when wind blew down the back wall of the structure.

FORGOT BRACES

Kressbach explained that the students took out the braces to place sheathing on the wall and, in the process, forgot to replace them, leaving the wall vulnerable.

However, it took the students less than an hour to reconstruct the wall.

Kressbach remarked that the students have shown interest and eagerness in undertaking the project.

He feels that their mistakes may have been a result of over-eagerness, but emphasized that none of the flaws was serious.

SHORT BOARDS

"Oh, they cut a board too short once in a while by hurrying too much," said Kressbach.

"Maybe it's (over)eagerness) not a weakness. Maybe it's just my inability to keep up with them in some respects," he quipped.

Kressbach, who estimated the class may have saved the school $1,500 to $2,000 in labor costs, said that he as well as the students, has gained by the venture.

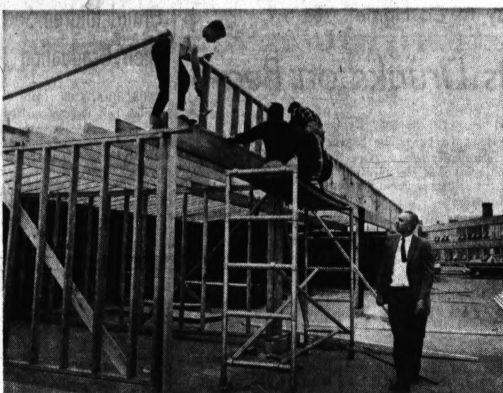

"I think I'm learning as much or more as the students are," he said.

REGULAR HOURS

Almost all of the work was done during the regular class hour, Kressbach noted.

However, he said some of the more interested students also contributed work time during study hall periods.

Contractors are expected to complete the job this summer, except for a few odds and ends which the students will tend to in September.

LBJ, Rusk Confer on NATO Meetings

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk, just back from Brussels and the North Atlantic Treaty Organization ministerial meeting, has met with President Johnson to outline the ministers' actions.

Also at the conference were Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, Undersecretary of State George W. Ball and presidential adviser Walt W. Rostow.

More Police Sought

"The secretary of state simply went over the meeting and discussed issues dealt with there," reported Press Secretary Bill D. Moyers, who attended Friday's conference.

DETROIT (AP)—Sheriff Peter L. Buback asked Wayne County supervisors Friday for money to assign an additional 10 policemen to the 23-man force at Detroit Metropolitan Airport.

Reuther Raps AFL-CIO Move

Says Confab Walkout
Hurts Peace Efforts

WASHINGTON (AP)—United Auto Workers President Walter Reuther has charged AFL-CIO President George Meany with hampering President Johnson's "bridge-building" overtures to ward the Communist world.

Reuther, in a letter to Meany with a copy to the White House, said the AFL-CIO committed "a gross disservice to democracy" by walking out of the International Labor Conference because it elected a Communist president.

The UAW acknowledged the letter Friday, but declined further comment.

It was one of the sharpest policy disputes between the AFL-CIO president and Reuther, regarded by many as the second most influential labor leader in the 11 million-member labor federation.

FROSTY SILENCE
The reaction in Meany's headquarters here was a frosty silence.

AFL-CIO delegates walked out of the conference in Geneva, Switzerland, last week after it elected Leon Chanj of Communist Poland as president.

The walkout reportedly was on the orders of Meany, who follows a line of unbending anti-Communism in international affairs.

The U.S. population is expected to increase by less than 7 per cent over the next five years, slightly less than the 7.7 per cent increase registered during the last five years.

'Show Me the Way to Go Home' Radar Puts Drunks on Beam

By DICK WEST
United Press International

WASHINGTON — Let us say, for purposes of illustration, that you arrive home at 2 a. m. after a night out with the boys.

The taxi drops you off in front of your house. Now you only may not be able to arise. The problem is finding the front door.

It is of course, too late—or too early—to summon a Boy Scout. You don't attempt it alone for fear of missing the porch and stumbling into the nasturtiums, from which you may not be able to arise.

So, you open your a t i c h e case, switch on your miniature radar set and let it guide you into the house. Modern science is a wonderful thing.

The use of radar as a homing device for wayward suburbanites became possible with development recently of a portable model hardly bigger than a pie box and weighing only 2 pounds.

That particular use, I might add, apparently did not occur to Radio Corp. of America, which built the instrument. RCA seems mainly interested in its military potentialities.

At a demonstration here, company technicians showed how it could be used by combat infantrymen for "blind" firing of grenade-launchers, machine guns, bazookas and other small weapons.

CIVILIAN USE
However, an RCA spokesman said the radar, reputedly the world's smallest, also had "civilian applications." Thereupon, some of us who attended the demonstrations began making suggestions.

It was the least we could do to show our appreciation for the free lunch the company provided.

The radar door-finder, I modestly admit, was my contribution. But some of the other suggestions were equally brilliant.

One of my colleagues pointed out that radar would be useful to Washington pedestrians who must be out after dark. It would let them know when someone was creeping up behind them.

DOPPLER EFFECT
For the technical-minded, I should explain that the radar works on the "Doppler effect" principle. But please don't ASK ME TO EXPLAIN THE "Doppler effect."

Suffice to say that the radar uses audible rather than visual

French Forces Like Germany

BONN, Germany (U)—Whether French forces stay in Germany or pull out seems, to many of their officers, to depend on French President Charles de Gaulle's getting his way with his allies — not on the needs of Western defense.

"It's a long time since he stopped thinking as a general and began to think as a politician," one ally said.

De Gaulle has told President Johnson that he no longer wants to take part in an integrated system of defense but will fight at the side of his allies if they are the victims of "unprovoked aggression." He will decide.

This reporter has just returned from a four-day visit to the French forces in Germany.

There is little criticism of de Gaulle among them, but a lot of officers will be unhappy if he decides to pull them out.

70,000 MEN

The French have over 70,000 men in this country, more than the British but only about a third as many as the Americans.

It was broke out tomorrow, the French would—in theory—come under allied command. Gen. Jacques Massu and his army would be at the orders of Gen. Andrew P. O'Meara, commander in chief of the U.S. Army in Europe and commander of CENTAG, the Central Army Group of the alliance.

Some 10,000 French airmen would become part of the 1st

Allied Tactical Air Force, also under an American.

De Gaulle announced that he is pulling out of that kind of integration on July 1. The other allies object, especially the United States, Britain and West Germany.

WEST GERMANS

The West Germans also are anxious to have it clearly stated that the French are here as guests and allies, not as the victors of World War II. De Gaulle's government has said that if its troops are not wanted, they can be withdrawn entirely within a year.

It would be a sad wrench for many officers. After years of rough fighting in Algeria and Viet Nam, those 18-64 years.

French officers are glad to find a comfortable billet in Germany.

BETTER HOUSING

They generally have better housing than they would get in France. They enjoy reduced prices at their post exchanges. There are good schools.

Few live more than 100 miles from the French border.

Draftees get a raise for serving in Germany, but since this brings their total wage to only 61 centimes — about 12 cents a day, it does not raise their enthusiasm much.

Elderly and very young people in the U.S. are increasing in numbers more rapidly than those 18-64 years.

Jacoby on Bridge

By JACOBY & SON

Here is an unusual type of bridge problem. The game was duplicate and South had no trouble making exactly three no-trump for top score. At every other table, North made the same spade overall and for some reason or other South simply raised his partner in spades.

Four spades would be a wrap-up with South as declarer but when East was on lead he opened the ten of diamonds and the defense collected three diamonds and one club with no trouble at all.

South was Mike Thomas of Kansas City. Mike would be one of our top players if his duties with National Steel allowed him to play a lot of bridge. Still he does mighty well when he gets to play.

North was Priscilla Thomas. Priscilla is learning bridge and, as both Jacobys can tell, in the process of teaching a wife to play bridge the husband takes considerable control in the bidding and tends to work the play around to his hand whenever possible.

Mike's bidding was brilliant. He could count six spade tricks as a no-trump declarer. He had found out that his partner had something in hearts. He was looking at that king of diamonds and knew that if he raised spades, East would lead through it. The result was as good as anyone can hope for.

A top score is always a top score. So our problem is: Would Mike have bid the same way with another expert partner?

The really noteworthy feature of the hand is the remark by Priscilla as Mike played his sixth spade. She asked: "Would you have raised me with seven diamonds and knew that if he raised spades, East would lead through it. The result was as good as anyone can hope for."

Utility Workers Reject Edison Contract Offer

DETROIT (AP)—The Utility Workers of America Friday announced rejection of a new contract offer from the Detroit Edison Co. and said a strike vote would be taken Monday.

The union said its rejection vote, completed with tabulation of the ballots of Fort Huron members, was 3,152 to 321. Union members in Detroit and Trenton had voted earlier.

Terms of the rejected offer were not made public but were reported to be the same as those offered Detroit Edison's striking overhead linemen. The linemen, members of the International Electrical Workers, have been on strike since last week.

Bersche to Retire From Pastorate

One of Pontiac's best loved ministers, the Rev. G. J. Bersche, will retire from the pastorate of Christian and Missionary Alliance Church in October.

Pastor Bersche has been appointed a national evangelist by the Board of Managers of the Christian and Missionary Alliance.

His new position will take him throughout the United States and Canada for evangelistic crusades, and into foreign mission fields.

His schedule will take him into Ohio, Pennsylvania and New York during the coming fall months, and all of 1967, except for July and August when he will minister in the Congo, Gabon and Ivory Coast.

Plans for 1968 include an evangelistic tour of the Southern states and eight weeks in the Philippines.

Pastor Bersche was graduated from Nyack Missionary College in June 1928. He was a student pastor in Walla Walla, Ont. during the summer of 1928, and in Flint in 1927.

Following graduation he served a small mission church in Akron, Ohio until Nov. 1929.

Other pastorates include Fairmont, Va. and Warren, Ohio. After ministering seven years in Akron he came to Pontiac preaching his first sermon in July 1948.

IN PONTIAC

Pastor Bersche came to the Pontiac church when it was located at 178 Green, now the home of First United Pentecostal Church.

The congregation sold the property and purchased land at the present site, 220 N. Cass, Waterford Township.

Foreign missions has characterized the ministry of the Rev. Mr. Bersche both in giving and displaying articles from the mission fields.

Large missionary exhibits with thousands of items from around the world attracted hundreds of adults as well as many school children accompanied by their teachers.

The local congregation holds an annual conference week when missionaries are present to speak, show slides and curios to the congregation.

At this time members make their annual pledge to missions.

During Pastor Bersche's ministry the local congregation has given more than $45,000 to the foreign mission program. The present giving supports five foreign missionaries.

TO SHOW FILM

"Viet Nam Profile," a feature length movie, a documentary film made in Viet Nam, will be shown at 7 p.m. tomorrow in the Christian and Missionary Alliance Church.

Produced by Dr. Bob Pierce, an accredited war correspondent and founder of World Vision Inc., the film has been released for special showings in the Christian and Missionary Alliance churches.

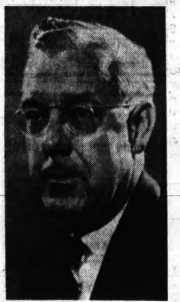

With more than 100 missionaries still stationed in Viet Nam, the denomination has been the major Protestant mission in Viet Nam since 1911, Pastor Bersche said.

"Viet Nam Profile" is a sound and color film made with realism to depict the anguish and suffering of a nation at war.

The picture then proceeds to show American audiences how missionaries, American aid personnel, and the men in American military assignments cooperate to meet the needs of the people.

Proceeds from the offering received will be used to help establish a Christian servicemen's centers to be used by American boys in Viet Nam.

what is your potential?

When you think deeply about it from a religious standpoint, you begin to wonder — can anyone really measure man's potential, or put any limits on it? Can you measure God's love for His creation? No. But we can learn to let it mold and fill our lives. Hear this public lecture, "What Is Your Potential?" by JANE O. ROBBINS, C.S., member of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship in Boston, Mass.

Alma Pounds Carolinas With High Winds, Rain

WILMINGTON, N.C. (AP)—Tropical storm Alma, no longer of killer hurricane status, crept up the South Carolina-North Carolina coast today, pounding beach towns with gale force winds and heavy rainfall. Shipping lanes were threatened as the season's first hurricane continued to move out to sea. A total of 47 deaths have been attributed to Alma.

The Miami Weather Bureau predicted some intensification in the storm this morning but said Alma "should be a good distance from the mainland" if and when she retains hurricane status.

The bureau located the storm about 70 miles south of Wilmington, moving toward the east northeast at about 15 miles an hour.

Her 50-mile-an-hour winds at storm center were well offshore but gales extended out 200 miles to the east and the south. Gale warnings are displayed from the Virginia capes to Savannah, Ga.

The Weather Bureau said a cold front moving southward through North Carolina may cause erratic motion of the tropical storm when the two systems collide. But Alma's course out to sea was expected to continue.

Heavy rains occurred in all coastal towns with Wilmington reporting four inches of rainfall in six hours. The South Carolina coastal cities of Charleston and Myrtle Beach also reported heavy rains and minor wind damage.

250 Volunteers Join Twister Cleanup

By ARTHUR E. O'DONNELL
TOPEKA, Kan. (AP)—Hundreds of volunteers poured into this tornado devastated city and joined today in a massive salvage, cleanup and repair operation.

The death toll remained at 17, the damage estimates at $10 million.

A caravan of 250 workers with heavy equipment arrived Friday and went to work immediately on the wreckage left by Wednesday's twister.

President Johnson, in response to a plea from Gov. William H. Avery, put a "major disaster area" designation on Topeka and Manhattan, 50 miles west.

The Red Cross said its preliminary survey showed 535 injured, 86 in hospitals; 3,200 families with losses, 818 homes destroyed, 938 with major damage, 616 with minor damage; and 39 mobile homes destroyed, 51 with major damage.

A spokesman said the damage figures probably will go higher.

Tearful Arizona Entry New Miss Tan America

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Dolores Evans, who brought the audience and her fellow contestants near tears with her original dramatic monologue, couldn't hold back her own tears as she was crowned Miss Tan America Friday night.

The pert 19-year-old beauty from Tucson, Ariz., had told her mother not to waste the money on a plane trip for the finals "because I won't win anything."

As she signed her first autographs, handing her tear-drenched roses to a friend, she kept repeating: "My mother will never believe it. I have to go call her."

Runners-up in the all-Negro beauty and talent contest were Harriet Rbe, 19, a pianist from Stamford, Conn., and Glenda Locust, 18, an Oklahoma City coloratura soprano.

SCHOLARSHIP
Miss Evans stands 5 feet, 3 inches with measurements of 36-23-36. She has completed her freshman year at the University of Arizona. One of her prizes is a four-year college scholarship.

Since the sixth grade, she has been preparing for a career in the professional theater, working backstage and with props and lights as well as serious dramatic study for six years.

She wrote poetry, short plays and monologues or skits. Her performance Friday night concerned an unwed mother rejecting and then accepting her infant.

"I never lived in the days of knights and armor—I don't know how to act with this thing," she said as she stumbled over the train of her purple and white velvet queen's robe.

Other finalists were Valerie Holiday, 18, Boston; Lola Reed, 18, Sacramento, Calif.; Helen Miller, 18, Washington, D.C., who represented Columbia, S.C.; Cheryl Ann Clark, 19, Los Angeles, and Kris Brooks, 19, Berkeley, Calif., who represented San Jose.

Four hours later, June Clark's frightful accident—a mysterious malady that had baffled neurologists, internists, allergists, nose and throat specialists, hypnotists and psychiatrists—had come to an end at last.

SNEEZES END
For the first time in more than five months, the pretty, brown-haired girl stopped sneezing.

Dr. Malcolm Kushner, 39-year-old chief of psychological service at the Veterans Administration Hospital in Miami gave June a treatment he calls "operant conditioning."

This means the control of human behavior by reward or punishment—a system parents use when they spank a child for using bad and give him candy for being good.

Crash Injures Avon Youth
An Avon Township youth was in satisfactory condition today after being injured in a Troy traffic accident last night.

Gravel Ridge is being treated at Royal Oak's William Beaumont Hospital for injuries he sustained when his car collided with another one on John R. about 7:15 p.m.

Troy police said the accident occurred when Harkins pulled out to pass a car which was making a left hand turn into a driveway.

The other driver, Henry C. Parrett, 37, of Cincinnati, was not injured.

Demotion Tied to Safety Idea

Chevy Worker Claims Suggestion Ignored

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (UPI)—An inspector at the Chevrolet plant for 12 years claiming he was demoted to operating a "fuzz pad" after suggesting safety improvements.

Edward Gregory, 48, who says he has read auto critic Ralph Nader's "Unsafe at Any Speed" and agrees with it, said yesterday "I think I've been persecuted."

General Motors said Gregory's switch in jobs may have been "the normal pattern."

Gregory said he was told, in effect, to butt out when he suggested a way to keep poisonous carbon monoxide fumes from seeping into the rear, lower quarter-panels on some Chevrolets.

When he first suggested the "safety improvement," Gregory said he was told the suggestion was being declined because he was being built to specifications, warranty and field reports did not indicate a problem in that area, and that Gregory was "not an engineer and not qualified to give an opinion on this item."

Since being relieved of his inspector's duties, Gregory has been assigned to take scratches out of a car's finish with a sanding disc, called a fuzz pad.

Nader said Thursday night in New York that auto workers are growing dissatisfied with cost-cutting techniques resulting in shoddy workmanship and unsafe cars.

He cited two cases—Gregory's and one involving the Ford Motor Co.'s Dearborn, Mich., plant.

There, Nader said United Workers Local 600 "is about to release a written criticism of inadequate frames for collision protection."

Local 600 President Walter Dorosh said yesterday in Detroit that "Ford is not building unsafe cars. I have a 1966 Ford myself. I certainly wouldn't buy a car that isn't safe."

Gets a Jewish Surprise on the sofa With Sophia

By EARL WILSON
NEW YORK—Sophia Loren, Take The Stand! ... Imagine ... on a sofa with Sophia!

Sophia Loren sat with her beautiful legs crossed on a sofa in her suite at the Regency and dropped numerous Jewish words into the conversation.

"schmegegge" ... mshupcuh ... magilla. "Where did you learn those?" I exclaimed in surprise.

"I had lessons from Sydney Chaplin," she smiled. "You," I said, "are the dream girl of about every able-bodied man in the world. How does it feel to have attained that?"

"Every woman wants admiration—I like it!" "What do your male fans say to you in their letters?"

"Sometimes they're upset that I'm married. They threaten me, or my husband."

It was Charlie Chaplin who stared at her when she came out in a delectable gown during the filming of "The Countess of Hong Kong" and exclaimed, "I wish I was 60!"

"He was a dream to work with, but stubborn," Sophia said. "In insisting that the actors do the scenes as he said. Clash? No. Who would disagree with Chaplin? He almost invented our business as it is today."

"I've always been honest with myself and with the roles I chose. The talk of me being a sex symbol doesn't mean anything. I'd rather be a Woman, with a capital W. Sex is there if you're a Woman. If you try to act sexy, you're not sexy anymore."

THE WEEKEND WINDUP
Producer Joe Levine, who gives parties for almost any reason, tosses one June 20—to mark the renaming of his yacht (to the "Rosalee L.") ... Franchot Tone, who shaved off his beard, said jokingly at Asli's: "I lost it to a quick-closing bus door."

"Hello, Dolly!" marked its 1,000 performance last week ... Alan Arkis's option for six more films was picked up after his rare reviews in "The Russians Are Coming!" ... Ziva Rodann leaves for Israel soon to start a James Bond-type movie.

Stripper Tempest Storm, now at the Gayety Burlesque, bought a $1,500 gown—to take off ... Mingo, the Indian (of the "Dan'l Boone" TV'er) hosted his son's bar mitzvah last week. (He's Ed Ames, formerly of the Ames Bros.) ... "Beau Geste" is being filmed on the same site the original was shot in 1926.

Romney Picks Pulled Back

LANSING (AP)—Three gubernatorial appointees rejected by the Senate Thursday were reconsidered Friday and withdrawn by Gov. George Romney.

Two are expected to be confirmed later and the third will continue to serve until Romney names a successor.

The two are State Fair Board member Alfred Glancy Jr. of Groesse Pointe Shores and Richard McManus of Orchard Lake. Democrats charged them with using political influence in State Fair activities.

The third man is William Hague of Ecorse, a member of the Michigan Employment Security Appeal Board, a full-time position. Democrats objected to his also working part-time as Ecorse city attorney.

Romney is not expected to resubmit his name.

Royal Oak Twp. Policeman Fired Over Past Crime

DETROIT (AP)—A suburban Royal Oak Township policeman was fired Friday by township officials who said he had committed a crime while on duty.

He was appointed to the force last January. Township Police Commissioner Howard L. Bibb said Patrolman Sylvester Copeland confessed that he had been sentenced to a four- to eight-year prison term in New York in 1958 for robbery and assault.

Bibb said Copeland, 29, served 3½ years of the sentence before he was paroled in 1961 and returned to the Detroit area, and that his record also shows he was convicted and fined for larceny in Ferndale in 1965.

The record came to light when Copeland was fingerprinted in a routine Detroit police investigation after he complained Friday of being seized by three men who, he said, fled in his car.

Driver, 72, Hurt in City Accident

Harold K. Van Gulder, 72, is listed in satisfactory condition at Pontiac General Hospital after his car collided with another yesterday at Orchard Lake and Telegraph.

Pontiac police said Van Gulder, of 760 Wagner, Bloomfield Township, collided with a car driven by Ivan H. Ortwin, 53, of 2805 N. Farmington, Farmington Township.

Van Gulder's vehicle then ran into a parked truck, police said. Ortwin escaped injury.

Graham Near 250,000 in Attendance

LONDON (UPI)—Officials of Billy Graham's London crusade expressed hope today that cumulative attendance at the nightly meetings will reach a quarter of a million by the middle of next week.

A total of 18,095 persons attended the Earl's Court Arena last night to hear the North Carolina preacher on "The problems of the home."

The crowd brought to 175,431 the number of persons who have gone to see and hear Graham since his crusade began here June 1.

Crusade officials said 570 persons "made decisions for Christ" last night, bringing to 6,375 the number to "come forward" so far.

Special guests in the audience were about 80 Tennesseans, followers of Graham, who breakfasted with him yesterday. The group was led by Peter Gumm of Nashville.

NECESSARY FACTOR
During his message last night, Graham said, "Love is the necessary factor" for happiness in the home, adding that, "God must be the head of the home."

Tonight, Graham will preach on: "Why I believe Christ to be the son of God."

Reflections

FLAG DAY
June 14th is Flag Day, a time when our Stars and Stripes mean everything—whole, brave, honorable, decent, great and small men in every level of our society have an equal share in that banner.

On June 14th, 1777, wrangling ceased, a vote was taken and 13 stripes and a star for each state was officially adopted as the emblem of our United States. That emblem belongs to all, black or white, Protestant or Jew, farmer or merchant, the underprivileged or the affluent. It has proudly waved over our battle grounds, courts, schools, wherever men gather in the sincere belief of justice and peace.

Flag Day, June 14, 1966 ... let the proud banner float from your house. Display it in pride!
