Accused Forger Enters Jail

ACCUSED CHECK FORGER — Miss Mamie June Smith, 35, was booked at the Oakland County Jail last night by Sheriff's Sgt. Herbert S. Dolby. She is accused of forging $23,506 in checks from March 1954 to July 1955 while employed as a bookkeeper-secretary at G. Carl Elder and Son Builders, of Birmingham. Miss Smith was arrested Tuesday in Chicora, near Allegan.

Forgery Suspect Admits Squandering $23,000 Sum

A 33-year-old former bookkeeper-secretary for a Birmingham contractor confessed today she cashed forged checks totaling more than $23,000 and spent all but about $500, mostly on her 26-year-old boy friend.

Suffering from a diabetic attack, Mamie June Smith made the statement to Chief Assistant Oakland County Prosecutor George F. Taylor while resting on her cell bed in Oakland County Jail.

A doctor was summoned this morning to examine Miss Smith.

Her arraignment in Birmingham Municipal Court will be postponed until she recovers, said Taylor.

Miss Smith named her boy friend, a truck driver who she said was married to another woman Saturday.

"I gave him most of the money to buy an automobile and other things. He was always after money," she told Taylor.

The accused forger said she would turn over about $500 of the money remaining in a Birmingham bank.

when questioned this morning by Taylor.

When asked about her boy friend, she stated, "I don't love him anymore." The accused said she had not talked to the truck driver or seen him since leaving Oakland County. His mother called to inform her of the marriage, she stated.

Miss Smith worked as a clerk in the Southfield Township offices for four-and-a-half years before Elder hired her. Conviction of forgery can carry up to 14 years in prison.

Det. L. Meritt Holmquist, of Birmingham Police, has been dispatched to Detroit to locate the truck driver and bring him here to make a statement.

Arrested Tuesday in Chicora, near Allegan, by State Police, Miss Smith admitted to Taylor signing her name to former employer's checks made out to herself. At the time she worked for G. Carl Elder and Son Builders, 1810 S. Woodward, Birmingham.

She was brought to Oakland County Jail last night by Holmquist. Formerly of 20542 Mahon, Southfield Township, the accused left the county last July 15 after her employer, Robert W. Elder, allegedly discovered discrepancies when auditors were called in to convert the company operations from a partnership to a corporation.

"She wrote more than 150 checks from March 1954 to July 1955 cashing them at a Birmingham bank," said Taylor. "She cashed three $100 checks in one week and no one noticed."

The warrant specifically charges her with forging a $100 check last July 1.

Miss Smith had been living in Saugatuck with a girl friend and working in a Holland furniture store. In jail last night she denied forging the checks, but confessed

Two Area Men Killed in Fires

Sylvan Lake Resident, Lapeer County Man Die in Their Homes

A Waterford Township man was killed last night when fire destroyed his lakefront home, and a Lapeer County resident died under similar circumstances. The body of Charles W. Staley, 35, of 1333 Bamford St., Sylvan Lake, was carried from the bathroom of the home after Waterford Township firemen fought the flames which engulfed the interior of the log house.

Carl C. Beardsley, 79, died when his one room house on Inlay City Road, three miles east of Lapeer was swept by fire.

Staley, a Pontiac Motor Division employee, had been ill with the flu, neighbors told police. He was apparently about to take a bath when the fire broke out. Oakland County Deputy Coroner Dr. Isaac C. Prevette said suffocation was the cause of death.

Cause of the Staley home blaze is being investigated by the State Fire Marshal. He was alone at the time, while his wife Ruby was working at Pontiac Motor Division.

Beardsley lived alone. Fire officials theorized that an explosion may have taken place.

Asks Thoughtful City-Township Merger Study

Rev. Edward Auchard Says Possible Union of Great Importance

"Current discussion of the possible union of the City of Pontiac and Waterford Township is of great importance to this area," said the Rev. Edward D. Auchard in an interview with a representative of the Pontiac Press.

"We must not jump to conclusions, prematurely committing ourselves for or against such a proposal. Whether or not such a union is desirable can be determined only after thorough and thoughtful study."

"The approach suggested by Frank Steere and endorsed by the Chamber of Commerce and The Pontiac Press seems to me to be the right one. The deciding factor, after the facts are known and evaluated, is of course the welfare and the will of the people in both Pontiac and Waterford."

"Most cities were laid out in the horse and buggy era. Often they have remained practically unchanged since the days of the Model T Ford. An area is seriously handicapped when administration of government is too much divided, and when too many people no longer live where they work or work where they live."

We lived in St. Louis, Mo., before coming to Pontiac. St. Louis and St. Louis county are separate entities. Both are seriously handicapped because the city of St. Louis has remained frozen within limits set in 1876. Today there are some 150 separate cities and villages in St. Louis county.

"There is evidence that a city can be choked by its suburbs. Then when the central city starts to decay, largely because of the loss of its natural leaders, the decline begins to blight the surrounding communities, too."

"There is another side to the picture. Governmental units can become too large and cities too sprawling. Furthermore, economic factors, traditions, and sentiments that have been nourished through the years must also be taken into account."

"In any soundly democratic society, administrative organization and governmental structure is secondary to human welfare."

"I appreciate this opportunity to register my reactions to this significant study. I hope that everyone understands that I speak not as a clergyman, but as a citizen."

C&O Ferries Move

DETROIT — The Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad Friday will move the second of its two Detroit-Windsor railroad car ferries to the Port Huron-Sarnia run it established two years ago. The company is ending its ferry service between Detroit and Windsor because of "congestion" and to cut down travel distance for trains crossing Michigan, through Canada to Buffalo.

Santa's All Packed

Yuletide Season Welcome Readied to Roll Saturday

Community plans to greet the approach of the 1955 Yuletide season with song and colorful pageantry neared completion today as 34 Pontiac churches and schools polished their roles for Saturday's traditional Christmas Parade.

More than 70,000 persons are expected to line the route of march when the parade leaves its Turk street assembly area at 9:30 a.m. and, accompanied by the music of seven school bands, moves through the heart of the downtown area.

The main sections of the huge display will be devoted to mobile tableaux in which school and church organizations will present scenes whose theme will be the "True Story of Christmas."

Five floats will exhibit Thanksgiving scenes, while the "Christmas Story" portion will be made up of 17 units. Eleven floats carrying school children will comprise the parade's "Toyland" section.

Other units will consist of horseback riders and officials' cars. Santa Claus, mounted on a special float, will bring up the rear.

The parade will move north on Saginaw street to Oakland, and along Oakland to Sanderson, where it will disband.

Youth Must Write on How It Feels to Kill His Friend

PORT HURON (INS)—A 300-word thesis on how it feels to kill a friend through careless driving was part of the sentence imposed on a Port Huron high school boy convicted of negligent homicide.

Circuit Judge Edward V. Kane told 16-year-old Gerald V. Lindsay:

"Write what has been going on in your mind. I want you to tell me how it feels to have taken a life by carelessness."

Lindsay was driving five other boys from a safe-driving meeting at Memphis, Mich., last May 9 when he swung out to pass a truck and smashed the car into an abutment. One of his passengers, 18-year-old Bernard Martin, died the next day.

The convicted youth also was ordered to pay $150 court costs and was placed on two years' probation, during which time he may not own or drive an automobile.

The publishers said the dispute involved union demand that an extra crew be provided to process color plates with a minimum of a full day's pay, and the overtime he paid for handling any material not used on the same day. Wages are not an issue.

Newspaper Ads Top October 1954 Mark

NEW YORK — Newspaper advertising smashed new records in October, with a gain of 11.5 per cent over October, 1954. Media Records Inc. and the Bureau of Advertising, American Newspaper Publishers Assn. reported today.

From another source, there was a forecast of a continued boom in all types of advertising next year.

The editors of Printers' Ink predicted that total advertising volume in 1956 by all media will reach between 9 and 9 1/2 billion dollars, compared with the record 8 1/2 billion estimated for this year.

Total advertising in newspapers for the year to date surpassed the comparable period of 1954 by 10.4 per cent, according to the Bureau of Advertising and Media records.

National advertising (general and automotive lineage combined) also set a new high for any October, up 18.8 per cent over a year ago, which brought the 10-month cumulative figure to a new peak, 12.5 per cent over the comparable period last year.

Detroit Papers Closed by Strike

Stereotype Union Asks Extra Crews Be Hired to Process Color Plates

DETROIT — AFL stereotype operators struck Detroit's three daily newspapers today.

The strike was called in a contract dispute with the Detroit Newspapers Publishers Assn. The association represents the three dailies. Picket lines were thrown up around newspaper plants.

Affected are the afternoon Detroit News, Publishers Assn. and the morning Detroit Free Press. The papers have a combined daily circulation of about 1,300,000 and employ 4,500 persons including 120 stereotypers.

The publishers said the dispute involved union demand that an extra crew be provided to process color plates with a minimum of a full day's pay, and the overtime he paid for handling any material not used on the same day. Wages are not an issue.

A two-year contract between the union and the publishers association expired at midnight last night. An 11th-hour meeting broke up at 1:30 a.m. today with the announcement from the union that the strike was on at 4:30.

A spokesman for the publishers said the offer to extend the contract 30 days with any pay increase to be retroactive to the Nov. 30 old contract expiration date was rejected by the union.

The stereotypers also said "No" when asked an exploratory question if they would be willing to arbitrate the entire contract, the publishers said. No further meetings between union and management were scheduled.

The DNPA said it considered the union demands unreasonable and that they would add excessive costs at reduced overall productivity.

The current scale for stereotypers is $3.08 hourly for day work and $3.33 an hour for night work.

Lewis Presents Session With $1,665,000 Bill

Meany Will Head New Federation and Reuther the Industrial Section

NEW YORK (INS)—The AFL and CIO open today separate conventions to ratify and put into effect the merger of the two organizations into one giant labor federation.

New York Mayor Robert F. Wagner was scheduled to start the AFL convention with an address of welcome.

The remainder of the day will be devoted to discussion of the merger agreement and presentation of resolutions to be referred to the merged federation's first convention next week.

The AFL-Metal and Building Trades may offer at the meeting a plan to set up a committee to study the best means of organizing non-union plants.

CIO President Walter P. Reuther was the main speaker at the initial session of his organization's convention.

Before the CIO delegates got down to business this afternoon, they were to witness a pageant depicting the 20 years of the CIO.

Meanwhile, the United Mine workers, taken by UMW boss John L. Lewis out of the AFL to form the CIO in 1935 and then withdrawn from that organization to become independent, handed the CIO a $1,665,000 bill.

In a letter signed by UMW Secretary-Treasurer John Owens and handed personally to CIO Secretary-Treasurer James B. Carey, Lewis demanded repayment of the "loan . . . before you dissolve your organization."

Carey replied with a souvenir book on CIO history and a note which said in part:

"You have achieved the momentary ripple of publicity which you sought to relieve the boredom of your isolation from the democratic labor movement."

He added this postscript: "I trust that you enjoy reading the CIO's book on twenty years of the CIO's constructive achievement." (Continued on Page 2, Col. 2)

Citizens Protest Parking Plan

May Seek Referendum Election on Proposed City Measure

Petitions seeking a possible public vote on the adopted $600,000 municipal parking program are being circulated throughout the city by a group of citizens that are opposed to the move because of its "magnitude."

Sam L. Stolorow, spokesman for the group, said they had not decided whether the petitions would be submitted to the city clerk re-do mind being taxed $20 of which $5 would go to Mississippi, $5 to Michigan and the other $10 lost somewhere.

S-D Day Still Is . . . in Pontiac

Citizens of Pontiac scored a perfect traffic safety record during the first 13 hours of Safe-Driving Day.

No accidents since midnight were reported by the Traffic and Safety Bureau of the Police Department.

Similar perfect records were reported by the Oakland County Sheriff's Department and the Michigan State Police Post on Dixie Highway.

The death of two motorists in Wayne County early today thwarted Michigan's effort to get through Safe Driving Day without a fatal accident.

Only one state resident was killed during safe driving day last year, Dec. 15.

The victims were L. T. Bell, 22, Plymouth, and Gordon P. Setera, 28, Detroit.

Hopes for a national perfect record were dashed further this morning when four other persons died in accidents in Illinois, New York, Indiana and Ohio.

Hunter Bazell, 44, was released after treatment, authorities in Pontiac General Hospital said. He was the only person given emergency treatment after midnight, they said.

Nor did any accident victim receive emergency treatment from midnight to 1 p.m. today at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, authorities there said.

Chairman Clyde R. Haskill congratulated the city on its record so far and said:

"There are still 11 more hours left to S-D Day in which drivers and pedestrians can prove that accidents can be prevented with care."

"Drive carefully all day today," Haskill urged. "A perfect safety record today may mean a turn for the better in regards to Pontiac's mounting rate of deaths due to traffic accidents," he said.

Today spectators were able to see the grim results of a fatal accident.

To call attention to S-D Day, the Traffic and Safety Bureau placed downtown one of the cars involved in an accident Sunday morning on Kennett Rd., in which two men died and a woman was hospitalized.

The wreck is parked on W. Huron St., next to the County Court House.

Re-filing Delay Halting Ouster

Chief of Police Straley Must Present Charges, Attorney Ewart Says

Police Chief Herbert W. Straley must re-file his alleged charges against Patrolman James L. Ockerman under the State Veterans Preference Act before further action can be taken, City Attorney William Ewart said today.

Ockerman was suspended by Straley Oct. 14 for alleged misconduct and neglect of duty.

Yesterday Oakland County Circuit Judge H. Russel Holland ruled that Ockerman must be reinstated to the force and given back pay pending a final City Commission hearing on his case.

Ockerman's case was sent to the Police Trial Board as provided in the City Charter. But Ockerman chose to come under the State Veterans Preference Act, which allows war veterans to have a hearing before the city commission.

The officer filed suit Nov. 18 asking a writ of mandamus ordering Straley to reinstate him pending outcome of the state law procedure.

Judge Holland ruled the state act supersedes the city charter.

Ockerman is charged by Straley with ignoring a request by Mayor William W. Donaldson that he arrest a drunk.

At a City Commission meeting Nov. 15 Donaldson said Ockerman told him he had to buy a filler for a ball-pen first, but would then seek the drunk.

Ockerman also is charged with hanging an old violation ticket on his car so he could leave it all day in a municipal parking stall.

Ockerman claims he only took a few seconds to exchange the pen filler which he had just bought and would not work. He says he proceeded immediately afterward to arrest the drunk arriving soon after the arrest was made by another officer Donaldson had encountered.

The parking ticket was not hanging outside the car, the officer asserts, but was an old one resting on his car's dashboard.

chased down to Washington comes back to Michigan as a 50-cent piece."

Schimmel and Clark Hobbs, secretary of the Baltimore Chamber of Commerce were the only ones of the 10 delegates at Round Table 116 to favor federal aid only for the less wealthy states.

Dr. John Norton, Columbia University professor of education, who presided over the discussion, said it would be "very dangerous" to provide federal aid for only the poorer states.

"If we give federal aid to only 10 or 12 states, the rest of the states will be calling them pauper states," he said.

Schimmel said that in Michigan the richer counties do not "look down" upon those counties which require more state aid money for school upkeep.

Report 31 Fatalities for State Deer Season

EAST LANSING — Thirty-one fatalities were reported during Michigan's 16-day deer hunting season, which ended at sundown yesterday, State Police said today.

The death toll was well above last year's 19 fatalities.

Ten of this year's victims died of gunshot wounds. Fourteen hunters suffered fatal heart attacks, four drowned, two were asphyxiated and one died from exposure.

State Police said they also received reports of 33 hunters wounded by gunfire and three who were badly burned by campfires.

AFL-CIO Merger Near

December 1 and 5 are red letter days for the Nation's organized workers.

On the first of the month the American Federation of Labor and the Congress of Industrial Organizations convene separately in New York in what are destined to be their last conventions.

Scheduled for next Monday in the metropolis is the merger convention of these two great labor federations. The result will be the welding together of the AFL's 109 national and international unions and the CIO's 32. Total membership in the new AFL-CIO federation will be about 15,000,000.

A declared goal of the merger is to eliminate rivalries, feuds and bickering between unions in quest of new members and to strengthen the organized labor movement by adding millions of new members.

AFL President GEORGE MEANY is scheduled to head the new federation with CIO President WALTER P. REUTHER slated for a vice presidency and member of the executive board.

All preconvention indications point to ratification of the merger. It is highly probable, however, that final approval will not come without long debate. For the first time in 20 years the Nation's trade unions will be affiliated in a single federation.

Labor's political and economical power will be increased greatly. This, in turn, imposes on the leadership a vastly greater obligation to display real statesmanship in the exercise of that power.

Second Streamlining Urged for Congress

Dr. GEORGE B. GALLOWAY is an expert on Congress.

Back in 1946 he was staff director of the LAFOLLETTE-MONROE Joint Committee which drafted and pushed through to enactment a drastic reorganization of our national Legislature.

Under it the number of Congressional standing committees was reduced from 81 to 34. At the time it was agreed that in the interests of efficiency no member of Congress should serve on more than two committees.

The National Planning Association which led the 1946 campaign for streamlining, thinks it is time to do the job over again. Moreover, in a persuasive report made for it by Dr. GALLOWAY it presents some convincing facts.

Before the 1946 reorganization, Congress had a total of 230 committees of all kinds. Today there are 235 such committees and what the report calls a multiplication of standing subcommittees to a total of 187. Fifty-five of these have been added in the last three years.

The report makes out a strong case against Congress running the District of Columbia and handling private immigration and naturalization cases. Also proposed is the holding of joint instead of separate Senate and House hearings on the same problems.

Finally, the report sensibly attacks the seniority rule under which committee chairmanships are awarded on a length of service basis only, and the undemocratic Senate filibuster. Over the years the workload of Congress has been increasing steadily with the country's growth. Another streamlining to promote greater efficiency seems to be the only means of enabling the lawmakers to keep up with their work.

Baghdad Pact Defensive

The world's newest alliance known as the Baghdad pact, came into official existence during a two day meeting in the historic capital city of Iraq.

Present at the sessions were representatives of the participating nations—Iraq, Iran, Turkey, Pakistan and Britain. Representatives of the United States were there in the capacity of friendly observers.

The meeting was made possible when Iran joined the alliance a month ago. Strictly defensive in nature, it forms a connecting link between the NATO nations on the west and SEATO nations in the Far East.

These five contracting nations are more involved with the Arab-Israeli dispute than the Russians. Yet the compact they entered into obviously is designed as a defense measure against Soviet expansionism.

The menace to them from the north has been increased by Russia's arms deals with Egypt and other evidence of Soviet economic penetration. That, of course, is akin to political penetration. BULGANIN and KHRUSHCHEV, who have been touring India, are to visit Afghanistan where Russian influence is growing, and there is talk of a Czech arms deal with that country.

The Man About Town Now It's Official Passenger Service Is to Be Canceled by Railway

Marriage: A mutual arrangement where he usually is the mite.

Dec. 31 is the final day on which passenger service will be operated on the Grand Trunk Railway divisions between Pontiac and Caseville and Pontiac and Richmond. Permission for the discontinuance has been given by the Michigan Public Service Commission, which finds that the railway is correct in its claim that there no longer is any public necessity or convenience for the service. Thus ends a railway service that has been in operation for around two-thirds of a century. The auto age did it.

I have it direct from Ralph Florio,
one of the members of the board in charge of such things, that an Employees' Snack Bar is numbered among the features of Pontiac's new City Hall. It is a co-operative proposition.

A Press reporter recently encountered a pile of cardboard boxes in the basement of the courthouse. With his nose for news twitching, he peered at the label on the topmost container. It was addressed to him.

Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams, who takes office Jan. 1. Then the reporter glanced at the container's side and was startled to see the word "Fifths," and a picture of three whisky bottles. Further investigation revealed, however, that the box held law books being shipped in by the county to stock the library in the judge's courtroom.

"We hope we can find standing room on the line of march Saturday," writes Mrs. Burridge Bainbridge of Utica, who says she has "brought the kids" to Pontiac's Christmas parade for many years. This time she has made advance arrangements on parking.

Pontiac Press delivery boy when he was in the seventh and eighth grades in the Oxford school was

Ed Meads, retiring captain of the University of Michigan football team. He is a native of Oxford, and starred in most every line of sports when in high school. Now 21 years of age, he finishes his present course at Ann Arbor next spring, and will enroll again for further study in medicine. Ed is the son of Dr. and Mrs. G. E. Meads of Oxford, who also have a daughter in the University of Notre Dame.

ObeY That Signal

David Lawrence Says:

True American Foreign Policy Opposes Ever-Present Concession to Expediency

WASHINGTON—Defeatism and appeasement, with their tragic indifference to morality and idealism, may well have run their course in the debate over American foreign policy.

For the choice between the alternative courses of action now is becoming clear as voters in both political parties are taking an interest in what the U.S. should do in its relation to the rest of the world.

COURSE NUMBER ONE—Implies the U.S. must fight a war with Russia to secure objectives by military power.

It has been rejected by the thoughtful elements of both parties. There are, of course, reckless and irresponsible spokesmen on the Democratic side who have misrepresented American policy—insisting the administration was pledged to "liberate" the satellites by force.

Military force is unnecessary because moral force will accomplish the liberation of the captive peoples in due time.

COURSE NUMBER TWO—Amounts to appeasement and surrender. It also has been rejected by leaders of both parties.

There are influences seeking to "compromise" or to make "deals" with Russia. Much of this view comes from shortsighted Europeans who think it is possible to "deal" with evil governments and unscrupulous leaders. Some Americans, including a few big business men who think isolationism is less expensive taxwise, favor going on bended knees to the Russians and offering them control of Europe in exchange for "Letting America Alone." "Peace at Any Price" is not popular except among those who still are duped by the Soviet strategy of terror.

COURSE NUMBER THREE—Might be described as the truly American course. It calls for firmness, patience, and independence with devotion to moral principle instead of a craven policy of constant concessions to expediency.

This course means building up the nation's armament to keep pace with any rival. It means keeping the armed services alert and ready to meet sudden attack. It means also a willingness to stand on principle and wait out the other side's tactics without flinching. It means a sensible program and military aid on a concentrated basis.

HERE'S THE CHOICE

The choice America will have to make is between moral force and economic force, on the one hand, and military force on the other. Misguided Democrats, who seem to enjoy blaming the U.S. for Soviet aggression, present a paradox. They favor soft measures on Communist infiltration inside America. Conversely, they favor a tough course in dealing with the Kremlin.

Nothing could help the Republicans more than to thrust out these inconsistent positions in a political battle against a party that belittles its own government, attempts to needle it into war while treating Communists and their sympathizers in this country as heroic examples of "dissent." America is in a position to use moral influence to build unity in Europe and strengthen the Western alliance. It isn't the Russians who can defeat American objectives. The danger lies in American disunity and submission to "fifth column" tactics which are aided by well-intentioned persons who keep calling for softer treatment of the Communists.

Time, patience, moral courage and careful husbanding of economic resources can win the "Cold War" for the West and bring freedom to millions of oppressed peoples living under the despotism of the Soviet regime.

Happiness of Growing Old Requires Giving to Others

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

Continuing to learn and grow is the obligation of an individual who senses his own significance in life. Making a contribution to your family and your community one of the secrets of growing older happily.

That contribution may be active or passive but it will be apparent to you and to your associates.

Sometimes the finest service an individual can make to those about him is simply to be a constant example of cheerfulness, temperance and alertness to the needs of others.

In short the model senior citizen could be a person toward whom the younger members of the family and the community may look with recognition that growing older is a fine and rewarding experience.

Easy to say, isn't it? But how can you achieve it? Perhaps by careful study and daily practice. Isn't the charm of young children partly their continuing curiosity about the world? How can a man stop wondering with so many worlds yet uncharted?

SIT AND BEMOAN

Must we sit and bemoan our personal infirmities so long as there is a breath left in us with which to support and stimulate our companions?

You can learn to play the piano at seventy. By daily reading you can learn to understand the psychology of children and adolescents.

How many homes would be much happier if the folks there, old and young, had studied with care the problems of adolescents, 1953?

Say you are sixty-five and your daughter-in-law is forty-five. Have you forgotten? If so, the public libraries will provide endless material on her present problems, so you can have a fellow-feeling she will love you for.

BATTLES JUNGLE

Your son-in-law goes out daily to battle an asphalt jungle you never knew in your fighting days. Study it. He will return your sympathy and understanding with ten-fold respect.

And if it's all too much for your failing energy, there is at hand medical and psychiatric help to adjust your sights and offer you the energy you used to know.

Your days can be joyous and easy-going and never dark or difficult. Try them!

Anyway here's something sensible you can do with the aging problem: Send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope and ask for the pamphlet Young Folks and Old Folks.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to the Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Mich.

Case Records of a Psychologist

Most Normal Couples Have Children After Following Outlined Principles

If Hannah could have anticipated our modern knowledge of the "rhythm theory" she would have saved many years of anxiety and heartache. Only in the past 25 years have we medical men known the facts explained below, so scribble this case record or mail it to your married children, especially if this column doesn't run in their town.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case Q-310: Hannah, the Biblical mother of Samuel had been apparently sterile for many years of marriage.

When she finally made her vow to God and relaxed, then she became pregnant.

We physicians often see a somewhat similar result when wives fret and brood and grow tense and fearful because they can't have a baby.

If they finally relax and adopt a youngster, then their body seems to function normally, and often they get pregnant soon afterwards.

If medical examinations reveal that both the wife and husband are organically normal, but they still have had no children, then the following facts may remedy the trouble.

First of all, we now know that conception in the human female seems to occur on approximately the 15th day before her next monthly period.

A generation ago we thought it was the 13th day from the start of her last period, but that holds true only for a 28-day cycle.

Voice of the People

Scout Council President Commends United Fund

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters, but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical to its nature.

As a delegate to the 22nd Convention of the Girl Scout National Council, held in San Francisco, Nov. 1 to 4, I had the opportunity to talk with and listen to delegates from Girl Scouts all over the United States.

Some councils, in communities with no United Fund, must struggle to raise their own funds, rarely making their goals. Other councils receive supplemental help from United Fund organizations. All too few are in the same position as we are, financially supported by the community through a strong United Fund organization.

In appreciation for making our program possible, our council aims to create good citizens, thereby repaying the community.

May we say "thank you" to the Pontiac Area United Fund and to all the generous people who live in our communities.

Arline Lally, president Northern Oakland Girl Scout Council

Mrs. Younce Considers UF Slogan Very Unfair

There have been complaints about so many organizations directing their own charity drives instead of joining the United Fund.

As for myself, I don't like the idea of the UF and I consider their slogan "Give Once For All" very unfair. They know that the major charities in this county have never joined them. In fact, the UF is made up for the most part of local charities.

When Christmas Seals, Easter Seals and other worthwhile drives are on, I gladly give them my contribution. Two or three dollars at a time. I don't miss too much, but if I had to give to them all at once, I couldn't afford it. Many other families have this same problem.

Even if every organization were to join the UF, the larger charities would suffer, because they wouldn't get as much money as they do now in their independent drives. I read of such a case in Detroit, so this isn't just my opinion.

Please don't gripe when you get your Christmas Seals. Just give what you can.

Mrs. J. Richard Younce 292 Florawood

Editor's Note: Mrs. Younce has been misinformed when she says major charities in this county have never joined the United Fund. She has also been misinformed when she says "the UF is made up for the most part of local charities." The local chest embraces fourteen organizations and the United Fund covers those fourteen and thirty-one others.

Smiles

A judge called marriage a lottery. That's the trouble with it—too many people want another chance.

About half the men are flatterers, a writer says. Every time one marries the number is cut.

Hal Boyle Says:

Courteous Fans in Japan Surprise Gil McDougald

NEW YORK (AP)—Gil McDougald, the distinguished young New York Yankee infielder, has returned from a goodwill baseball safari to Japan in top condition except for a bad case of writer's cramp.

"Everybody in Japan is baseball-crazy — from kids to old men," he marveled. "They play it day and night all the year round. And every fan seems to be an autograph collector."

"One day I looked out my hotel window and saw a businessman playing catch during the lunch hour on the roof of the building across the street. He must have been 60 years old."

The Yankees, who dropped the 1953 World Series to the Brooklyn Dodgers, did considerably better against Japanese ball clubs. They won all but one of their 20 games and that ended in a 1-to-1 tie, called after the 10th inning on account of darkness.

As a matter of fact, one of the pleasantest things about the trip to the Yankees was that the Japanese, who are the soul of courtesy, never mentioned "Brooklyn" or "Dodgers" once.

"I never saw fans 'so polite,'" observed Gil. "They never hooted us a single time."

"The stands were completely quiet — almost like a morgue — until the Japanese team started a rally or a Yankee hit a home run. Then they'd go wild."

The Yankees found the national pastime of Japan, essentially the same as the American national pastime except the Japanese play on an all-dirt field and use a slightly lighter and smaller ball.

"You can't knock it as far, and that bothered us a little," admitted McDougald.

He gave this assessment of Japanese big league play:

"They are fine in the infield, but seem to lack throwing strength from the outfield. The fans were particularly impressed by the way Hank Bauer could pick up a line drive to right field and throw and catch the runner at first."

"At bat the Japanese try too hard to powerhouse the ball instead of depending on coordination."

But the most mysterious thing he found in the way baseball is played in the mysterious East was the pitching.

"They use a hesitation ball," he said. "It was our biggest problem. The pitcher slows up at all stages of his windup, and depends on his windup to deceive the batter rather than on the spin or the speed of the ball. And every two or three innings the pitcher, worn out by his windup, would be replaced by a new pitcher."

An American pitcher, when he is relieved during a tense game, goes right to the showers, then hurries home to pick a quarrel with his wife—or kick his dog around.

"But when a Japanese pitcher is jerked," said McDougald, "He goes to the sidelines and pitches warmup balls for another 15 minutes. I suppose he does it to save face in front of the crowd. Anyway, nobody boos him."

Many women are on 30 to 35 or even 42-day cycles. So the new viewpoint pertains to the next onset.

Since many medical researchers in this field believe the ovum (egg) may not be capable of fertilization for more than 12 to 24 hours after it ruptures free from the ovary, and since they believe the sperm cells may lose their capacity to fertilize the month, and now we are looking forward with delight to our first baby.

RHYTHM THEORY

The "rhythm theory" is thus based on this new idea that conception takes place on the 15th day prior to the onset of the next period.

Set off three days are usually set on each side of that 15th day, thus constituting the "pregnancy week."

During this week a wife is most likely to conceive. Outside of this week, the normally functioning woman seldom will do so.

Since children help stabilize a home and also keep the parents younger, it is wise to start your family soon after marriage. The second year is an excellent time for the first heir to arrive.

And have your babies in pairs, spaced 18 to 24 months apart, so they will socialize each other and be pals.

And don't worry about having babies in your late 30s or early 40s. Since modern surgery is so excellent, it makes little difference how old the mother is.

The birth process for the first baby averages about 18 hours, but drops to 12 hours for the second. For further data, send for the booklet "Facts About Pregnancy," enclosing a stamped return envelope plus 20 cents.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped self-addressed envelope and the necessary postage for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

7-Year-Old Youngster Seeking Trooper Post

WAKEFIELD (AP) — Michigan State Police have a campaign on to recruit 200 new troopers. The Wakefield post got this application:

"My name is Randy Seppala, 7 years old, of Mass. Mich. I want to join the Michigan State Police." Sgt. Clarence Miller replied to Randy: "We'll consider your application in 1969 and we know that you will be a good state trooper."

Macabre Sense of Humor Startles City Employee

BURBANK, Calif. (INS)—A city employee of Burbank stopped for a second look in the ornamental pool in front of the city hall when he saw something too large and too gray to be a goldfish. It turned out that the "goldfish" was a sawtooth shark about five feet long. But it was quite dead and police figured a jokester had put it there. Alberta province in Canada has more than 4,000 oil wells.

Area Construction Up

DETROIT (AP)—Dodge Construction reports said Monday that the metropolitan Detroit area spent more money for future construction in the first 10 months of this year than in any other like period in history. The firm said the total spent during that period was $673,953,000 or four per cent over the first 10 months last year. The area includes Macomb, Oakland and Wayne Counties. Fire losses in the U. S. amount to $2.4 million daily.

Wanting CRC Put on Red List

Subversives Board Man Sees Civil Rights Group as Communist Run

WASHINGTON (AP)—A member of the Subversive Activities Control Board recommended today the Civil Rights Congress be required to register as a Communist front.

Retiring board member David J. Coddair found the CRC is "substantially directed and controlled by the Communist party," and is "primarily operated for the purpose of giving aid and support to Communists."

There was no immediate comment from the CRC.

Coddair conducted months of hearings on a petition by Atty. Gen. Brownell to require the CRC to register under the 1950 Internal Security Act, list its officers and give an annual financial accounting.

Constitutionality of registration provisions of the act has been challenged by the Communist party. The matter is awaiting decision by the Supreme Court.

Coddair's report now goes to the full board for action. The CRC can file exceptions and ask for oral arguments on them.

Coddair said the CRC was planned and created by the Communist party in 1946 through a merger of several organizations, including the International Labor Defense.

This was done, he said, to utilize defense of civil rights for party purposes and to raise and maintain large mass defense and bail funds for party use.

'Buddy' Backslapping Gets Man Into Trouble

WEST COVINA, Calif. (AP)—John H. Wallace entered a bank during a holdup yesterday. He mistook a man holding a machine gun for a friend, walked up behind him and slapped him on the back.

It was the wrong thing to do, at least at that particular moment. The man whirled, snarled at Wallace and ordered him behind a counter, where four women tellers and several patrons were huddling. The holdup man and a confederate got away with $16,000.

Railroad Engineer Dies of Attack at Throttle

MONMOUTH, Ill. (AP)—The engineer of a Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad's passenger train, the Nebraska Zephyr, suffered a heart attack last night.

The engineer, E. M. Peck of Galesburg, died shortly before the train reached Monmouth.

The fireman, J. J. Wilson, also of Galesburg, halted the train and another engineer, V. M. Daniels of Burlington, who was riding to Galesburg, brought it on into Monmouth.

Widow Leaves Millions Made on Barren Land

FRESNO, Calif. (AP)—Mrs. Cora Nidever, 85, who made an oil fortune on 80 acres of barren land she inherited, left an estate in excess of two million dollars, including $1,827,350 in cash.

She died a week ago after a long illness. A childless widow, she left no will. A petition for letters of administration lists seven nieces and nephews as legal heirs.

Mrs. Nidever inherited the property near Coalinga, Calif., from her mother Mrs. Hester Binkley, who had homesteaded it at the turn of the century. Oil was discovered in 1939. When Your Family Goes Out for a Meal - - -

City Sanitation Makes Sure Restaurants Are Clean

By GEORGE T. TRUMBULL JR.
When you sit down to a delicious home-cooked meal you take it for granted that the "little woman" has prepared the food in the utmost high standards of sanitation.

But what about when you decide to take the wife and kids out for a meal in a city restaurant? Is the food handled and prepared there as it is in the average home?

It is the responsibility of City Sanitarian Charles S. Cohen and his assistant Ralph Florio to see that it is.

And their job is not an easy one. In addition to all restaurants in the city, the pair inspects at least twice a year all eating and drinking establishments, grocery stores, food caterers in industrial plants, hospitals, and lunchrooms and kitchens in all public schools.

A total of 434 food establishments must be inspected for the public's protection.

INSPECTION TIMES

All these establishments are inspected prior to licensing and once when bacteriological cultures on food equipment are taken. They are inspected more often if a change in personnel occurs, if alterations are made or if the establishment becomes a "borderline case."

Florio explains a "borderline case" as one that just meets the minimum health and sanitation regulations required by law.

"These cases are inspected very frequently, such as once a month or twice a month, in an attempt to bring them up to the required standards," Florio said.

City Sanitarian Cohen estimated that the city has from 30 to 40 establishments that fall into this category. "Many of these places improve and come up to our standards by way of a change in management," Florio explained.

"We're not receiving any more complaints as to deficiencies than we received in the past," Cohen said. "Things are better now than they were 10 years ago. The situation is not alarming nor is it perfect. There are lots of inspections to be made as to food handling and sanitation."

ONLY SIX CLOSED

"There have been less than six food establishments closed this year for public health reasons and these are now open for they have either changed management or have complied with the standards," Florio said.

He said in the last three weeks there were two restaurants closed due to unsanitary conditions such as dirty equipment, poor methods of maintaining, keeping and serving of foods.

"There seems to be an increase in poor management because of lack of working knowledge and ability, poor help and poor establishments," Florio declared.

Cohen and Florio are aided in their important work by retired public health director Dr. Charles A. Nease who serves as a consultant and by a state inspector who works under the Department of Agriculture.

The department has a four-point program in surveillance of offenders. For minor deficiencies, notice is issued to correct them. For more serious violations, a violation notice is ordered.

HABITUAL OFFENDER

If the first two notices fail to bring about corrective action, the department orders the place to be closed. Then if the establishment is an habitual offender, the department recommends to the City Commission that a license be denied the violator.

"The people that patronize the restaurants can help the department by keeping their eyes open and seeing how things are handled, and in this way serve as auxiliary inspectors," Cohen stated.

"Any honest and legitimate complaints discovered should be directed to our department. All this information is kept confidential," his assistant added.

Bandana prints used with white cotton in a California version of the Mexican influence appears strongly in spring styles for men and boys by the Men's and Boys' Apparel Guilds in California. This boy's shirt has a collar and inset bib of bandana print, with vented sides for extra comfort. It is worn with the new California peon trousers. Don Rancho calls this shirt style "Tasco."

Belts Becoming Big Paris Rage

PARIS (INS) — Slim-waisted girls in Paris — and they are legion — like to show off with tight belts.

Despite all the new uninterupted, sheathy styles, belts are still fashionable and stunning accessories.

Dior himself shows belts on some of his new waisted winter styles. For sports wear he proposes a coffee colored suede belt with a metal clasped change-purse in front in kangaroo pouch fashion.

Another Dior belt-model is a real peplum. Reaching from the waist to the hip-bones it is contoured and made of blonde suede leather. To underline the peplum style it is buttoned down the front by tiny buttons and has two waist-coat style pockets.

Men's Color Wallet Range on Increase

For men, the color range of wallets has been increased to include all of the shades and tints of brown plus charcoal and black. There are ultra-slim models for dress occasions, and commodious pocket-secretary types for the businessman.

New contours cut down pocket bulge, yet make room for additional compartments for the man who "lives out of his billfold." A matching eyeglass case (expandable for heavy frames) with a slot on the outside for tissues or a memo pad, will be welcome, as well as a slim cigarette case which has a pocket for his lighter.

1/2 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup shortening
1/2 cup warm, but not hot, water lukewarm for compressed yeast
2 packages of cake yeast, active dry or compressed
2 eggs, beaten
Grated peel of one orange
5/8 cups flour
1/2 cup candied orange peel
Scald milk. Add sugar, salt and shortening. Cool to lukewarm. Measure water into a large mixing bowl (warm, not hot, for active dry yeast; lukewarm for compressed yeast). Sprinkle or crumble in yeast; stir until dissolved. Add eggs and grated orange peel. Stir in half the flour. Beat until smooth. Stir in candied orange peel. Add remaining flour and turn out on floured board. Knead until smooth and elastic.

Place in greased bowl and rub top with shortening. Cover; let rise in warm place, free from draft until doubled in bulk, about one hour. Shape into loaves, place in greased loaf pans 9x5x3 inches.

Cheese Boasts Great Variety of Menu Uses

Cheese is a food that has been used for centuries by many countries. It truly has a variety of uses!

It can be combined successfully with fruits!

It can add to the flavor and food value of meats!

It makes one of our favorite sandwiches—ham and cheese!

It combines successfully with eggs!

It goes very well with a great many of our vegetables, such as cauliflower, broccoli, spinach or beans, in the form of a cheese sauce. It can be combined, grated or cubed, with some of our salads!

It works out very well in baked dishes, such as escalloped potatoes and rarebits, and cereals, rolls and muffins!

It's just fine "as is" with a piece of apple pie (or many berry and fruit pies, for that matter!)

It makes good appetizers, in hors d'oeuvres and canapés. Small crackers with cheese make a nice beginning for a meal. Grated cheese sprinkled on cream soups is good. It is nearly always sprinkled on onion soup!

Placemats Should Suit Shape of Your Table

If you're using a bare table, try to use placemats that conform to the shape of the table. Oblong placemats are adaptable to a rectangular table.

If your table is narrow because of limited space, put your placemats along each side, leaving table ends for decorations and large accessory dishes.

For a square table, you can use a square center mat and oblong placemats; round centerpiece and round doilies for a round table.

Make Melba Toast

You can make Melba toast at home. Buy a loaf of unsliced bread and store it overnight. Cut it into one-eighth-inch thick slices. Cut each slice into two triangles. Bake in a slow (325 degrees) oven defrosted in a slow (300 degrees) until crisp and golden colored.

The edges of the toast will turn up, but that's quite in order.

An unfrosted cake from the freezer may be left in its wrapper at room temperature for one or two hours to thaw. Or it may be oven defrosted in a slow (300 degrees) oven for about 10 minutes.

La Prensa Returns to Paz

Peronista Party Outlawed by Argentine Government

BUENOS AIRES (INS)—The Argentine provisional government yesterday decreed the dissolution of the Peronista Party and the return of the newspaper La Prensa to its former owners.

President Pedro Aramburu's government announced that the Ministry of the Interior temporarily will take charge of all property of the outlawed party once ruled by former President Juan D. Peron.

La Prensa, once one of Argentina's greatest independent newspapers and the world's largest Spanish language daily, was seized by dictator Peron in March, 1951.

Aramburu announced three days ago that his government would remedy the "outrage" committed when Peron took the paper and turned it over to his Peronista-dominated General Confederation of Labor (CGT).

PAZ RETURNS
La Prensa's publisher and editor, Dr. Alberto Gainza Paz left New York by plane yesterday and will arrive in Buenos Aires today, ending more than four years of exile.

The issue of La Prensa had become one of the symbols of opposition in the long fight against the Peron regime.

The newspaper founded in 1869 by the Gainza Paz family has a total of 56 typesetting machines and other equipment in excess of its needs to publish the eight-page dailies now limited to that size because of a newsprint shortage.

The newspaper clashed with Peron as early as 1944 when it criticized the tactics of the so-called colonel's coup which overthrew the constitutional government that year.

Peron's government later drove the newspaper toward bankruptcy by seizing or limiting newsprint stocks and by early 1951 a pro-government newspaper vendors union refused to distribute the newspaper unless it met exorbitant claims.

Twice as Many Babies Born to African 'Oldsters'

JOHANNESBURG — Older men are becoming fathers in South Africa more frequently than in previous years. Twice as many babies are being born to fathers aged 55 to 59 than to fathers of 20 years or younger. An average of 10 men over 75 become fathers each year in South Africa. 22 aged between 70 and 75, and 42 between 65 and 69.

Doctors say the number of elderly "expectant fathers" has increased in recent years. Sister M. Pretorius, in charge of a hospital maternity ward, says so many embarrassing errors have occurred through nurses mistaking an elderly father for a grandparent that she has urged "more tact."

Japan claims that its cement industry now is the fifth largest in the world.

ALL SIGNED UP — Pranksters put in a lot of work to prank up the house of Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Sprague in Independence, Kan. During a recent night, they planted 36 "For Sale" signs of Independence, Kansas City and Liberty, Mo., real estate firms in the front yard and tree lawn. Looking them over is the Sprague's daughter, Suzi, a high school senior.

Sees Coal Prospering

CLEVELAND (U)—Coal, its fortunes diminished for a time by competition from other fuels, is on the way back to prosperity on a wave of industrial expansion, a coal industry expert said last night. J. R. ... of New York, general manager of the Keystone Coal Buyers Manual, predicted that by 1970 coal production would have increased 100 per cent to an output of 800 million tons a year.

South Africa Prepares for Air Mail Via Rockets

PRETORIA — With the idea that by 1960 all inter-continental mails will be carried in rocket planes, South African postal authorities will cooperate in rocket-type projectile tests. They expect mail to be carried long distances at supersonic speeds.

Dr. J. Venter, technical director of the South African Interplanetary Society, has given some study to the subject. He says that the rockets will travel outside the stratosphere and reach destinations on other continents within a few hours. They will be steered by electronic instruments, he said.

$80,000 GuaranteeVince Martinez Makes Challenge to Basilio

SPOKANE, Wash. — Vince Martinez of Paterson, N.J., who says Basilio is "just my style," meets Ernie Greer of Oakland, Calif., here tonight with an eye toward improving his chances of getting a title bout with the welterweight champ.

Martinez, making his second start in eight days, is expected to extend his victory string to 19 straight with a win over Greer in a bout scheduled for 10 rounds. The New Jersey fighter took a unanimous decision just a week ago over Chris Christensen of Denmark.

Local Promoter Gus Cozza had offered the winner of last night's Carmen Basilio-Tony DeMarco match an $80,000 guarantee to meet Martinez for the championship here next March.

"I can beat either of them," said Martinez, the fourth-ranked welterweight after watching the title bout on television. "But I'd rather fight Basilio—he's just my style."

Manager Bill Daly also put in some plugs for his fighter's chances in a Basilio bout. "Basilio would eat leather all night in a fight with Vince. He'd (Martinez) stick and move and that wild guy would never get a chance to swarm him. And Vince would fight smarter than DeMarco."

Rangers Lead Hockey Clubs in Goal RaceNew Yorkers Even Top Canadiens on 68 Goals in 22 Games

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The New York Rangers may be only the second-best club in the National Hockey League but when it comes to scoring goals they are traveling at a faster clip than even the pace-setting Montreal Canadiens.

A 6-1 victory over the third place Chicago Black Hawks last night at Madison Square Garden boosted the Rangers' goal output for 22 games to 68. The Canadiens have tallied 63 in 23 games.

While the New Yorkers were whipping the Hawks for the fourth time in as many games this year to widen their margin to 5 points, the Detroit Red Wings and Toronto Maple Leafs battled to a 3-3 tie. The result left the Wings and Leafs tied for fourth, 2 points back of Chicago.

Andy Bathgate was the big gun in the Rangers' attack. He rammed home a goal in the first 95 seconds of play and assisted on three others as the Rangers ran their unbeaten string to 5 games. Three of New York's goals came within a space of 2½ minutes in the second period. Dave Creighton started the blitz with the first of his two goals at 13:54. Larry Popelnik came through at 14:37 and Danny Lewicki at 16:28.

Losing Streak Broken

Kansas had lost 17 straight football games before it broke the jinx at the start of the 1955 season, defeating Washington State 13-0.

'B-C' Cage Teams Priming

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Oakland "B" cagers have one team in mind when it comes to a pre-season favorite this year. That prime target is coach Carl Baker's Madison quintet.

Baker himself looks for Fitzgerald and Roseville as top contenders, but no matter which way you look at it, this trio is expected to make up the "Big Three" of the loop.

Defending champion Roseville loses five lettermen from its title team and runnerup Troy saw the exodus of its starting team in last June's graduation.

Only holdover for the Colts is Sim Acton, 6 foot guard, who saw regular duties as a sophomore last year. Coach Peyton Goodwin is fretting over the outlook. Troy went all the way to the state quarter-finals before being eliminated by Buchanan at East Lansing.

Madison lost 6 players from its third place team of last year, but the return of the team's leading scorers Jim Simer and Jim Myers keeps the Eagle picture bright.

Coach Tom Roeside is hopeful of getting the Fitzgerald quintet up into the 1-2 position with four senior lettermen as the nucleus.

Clawson, which failed to win a game in 17 starts last year, has everyone back and with some improvement. From the experience gained coach Bob Acton is hoping to relinquish the cellar position.

What Hal Carlin at Lake Orion fears however is that Clawson may give up last place to his Dragons.

Basilio Repeats 12th Round TKO of DeMarco

A near-capacity crowd of 13,373 paid a local record of $171,373 to watch what amounted to two fights in one.

DeMarco, calling on his long range power, took charge in the early rounds and had Basilio wobbling into his corner in the seventh round. It took a near superhuman effort by the ex-Marine from upper New York State to keep from going ing down for the second time in his professional career.

After he survived the staggering left hook, Basilio grew stronger as he unleashed a battering body attack on a weary DeMarco tiring just as he had done in punching himself out last June.

DeMarco was ahead in rounds on all the officials' cards. Referee

Mel Manning had it 6-3-2 on rounds for Tony. Judge Joe Santapio 6-4-1 and Judge Joe Santoro 7-4. The AP had it 5-4-2 for DeMarco.

After the fifth round I knew DeMarco would run out of gas," Basilio said afterward, "it was just a question of time."

But his corner was not as confident when Carmen came con-toward them from DeMarco's all-out seventh round bombing.

"We yelled 'Take an eight count,'" Co-Manager Johnny DeJohn revealed. "When Carmen got back to the corner we asked 'Why didn't you go down like we said?'"

"Carmen said 'Why? I wasn't hurt. I knew what I was doing.'"

That summed up the fight. On the defensive or going for the kill, the former union farmer with the jutting jaw and legs of steel knew exactly what he was doing. When DeMarco began missing his long shots in the eighth round, Basilio invited Tony to come inside. Tony moved in where he was no match for Basilio—a rib-softening specialist.

In making a comparison with the previous scrap, Basilio said: "DeMarco wasn't punching as hard this time as in the first fight. He was tougher this time. He's a durable kid. But I thought I fought a better fight than before."

The result marked the 15th straight bout in which Basilio has gone unbeaten over a 26-month span. Kid Gavilan was the last man to whip Carmen Sept. 18, 1953.

"He just ran out of gas," DeMarco's manager, Bobby Agrippino, said of the chunky 23-year-old who had a 70-day grip on the championship from April 1 to June 10.

Basilio, winning his 48th fight against 11 losses, received $74,490 for his 40 per cent of the gate plus radio-television slice. DeMarco, whose record is 41-6-1, got $37,245.

Lippy Is Back as Manager—on Stage

HOLLYWOOD — Leo Durocher is going to put on a National League baseball uniform again but only long enough to do a television program Dec. 12.

St. Louis Cage Favorite in MVC; Bradley Returns

ST. LOUIS — Co-champion St. Louis and a tall, veteran Houston club are expected to fight it out for the title in the always-tough Missouri Valley Conference, which opens its 49th basketball campaign tonight.

The re-entry of Bradley, one-time champion on the road back, bolsters the league. The Braves figure to scrap with the Oklahoma Aggies and Tulsa for third place with Wichita just a shade behind. Detroit is rebuilding.

Three Valley clubs open the season tonight and four more Saturday night, when Tulsa and Detroit play their second games.

Detroit is host to Notre Dame, Texas A&M plays at Tulsa and Sam Houston State at Houston tonight.

The Irish, victors in all 24 meetings with the Titans, Utah may be too much for Wichita and Tulsa is only a slight favorite against the two Southwest Conference clubs. But Valley teams are strongly favored in all the other games.

Aggie tops MVC; Titan Soph Next

ST. LOUIS — Fullback Leroy Hinman, the clutch runner of Wichita's co-champions, jumped from 7th to runner-up in the Missouri Valley running department during his team's closing three-game drive.

The 200-pounder gained 332 yards in his last three games to finish with a 478 and 5.4 yard average.

His record is unique in the Valley in one respect — he wasn't thrown for a yard loss all season. Earl Lunsford, Oklahoma A&M fullback, ran into mighty Oklahoma in his last game but the Sooners couldn't prevent his winning a third straight rushing crown in the Valley. He had 396 yards and a 4.3 average.

Top passer was the Aggies' Tom Pontius with teammate Chester Spencer the top receiver with 18 catches for 319 yards.

Detroit's Jim Lobkovich was second in passing and Titan end Perry Richards was runner-up in pass receiving with 15 for 247 yards.

Bill Russell, Detroit sophomore, was third in rushing with 462 yards and second in scoring with 42 points.

Detroit and Wichita shared the title.

Wings, Toronto Battle to Tie on Leafs' IceDeadlock Is Tenth for Detroit This Season; Penalties Hurt

TORONTO — There's an old saying that you can't win hockey games in the penalty box. And well the Detroit Red Wings and Toronto Maple Leafs know it.

Wings and the Leafs ran into some costly offenses last night in their National Hockey League game and battled to a 3-3 tie. Four of the six goals—two by each team—were scored while players sat out penalties.

The tie was Detroit's 10th of the season and Toronto's 4th. The teams remain in a 4th place deadlock with 20 points as the Rangers moved to within four points of the league-leading Montreal Canadiens by blasting the Black Hawks, 6-1.

Toronto right winger, George Armstrong, and rookie left winger Dick Duff scored while the Wings were short-handed. Ted Lindsay and Earl (Dutch) Reibel counted out while the Leafs had men in the penalty box.

Reibel's goal came at 10:49 of the final period and pulled Detroit into a tie.

Bob Goldham opened the scoring for the Wings at 3:12 of the 1st period when his long slapshot bounced off goalie Harry Lumley's stick into the net.

Real Chevrefil was serving a penalty at the six-minute mark when right-winger George Armstrong tied the score.

National Retriever Eliminations Start

SACRAMENTO, Calif. — The national championship stakes for retrievers opened today at Conaway Ranch in the flat Sacramento Valley 16 miles west of here.

The dog which on Sunday has survived all elimination tests, on land for pheasants and on water for ducks, will be national retriever champion.

The dogs retrieve birds shot by gun Captain Andy Devine of motion picture fame and 12 assistants, including Gen. Curtis LeMay, chief of the Strategic Air Command. The trials are sponsored by the National Retriever Field Trial Club, Inc.

Elliott Mentioned for Nebraska Spot

OMAHA — The Omaha World-Herald says it has learned that Pete Elliott, University of Oklahoma assistant coach and former University of Michigan player, has been approached for the job of head football coach at the University of Nebraska.

The newspaper quoted its source as saying if Nebraska doesn't get Elliott to succeed coach Bill Glassford, "some other school will" because "he's too good a man to hold as an assistant."

Three Basketball Powerhouses Take to Courts Tonight as Another College Campaign Begins

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
LaSalle, without Tom Gola; Dayton, without Johnny Horan, and North Carolina State, with Ron Shavlik, take to the courts tonight as another long college basketball season gets underway.

LaSalle, Dayton and North Carolina State are just part of the mob that gets the collegians rolling in their first big weekend of the season—but they are the only representatives of the top 10 teams of last season to play tonight.

San Francisco, No. 1 in the final Associated Press poll last season and the NCAA champion, opens tomorrow night, against Chico State.

LaSalle, with three-time All-America Gola graduated and now a pro, warns up against Millersville (Pa.) in its opener under new Coach Jim Pollard, the former pro standout. Pollard took over the Gola-less Explorers after Ken Loeffler, who directed LaSalle to the NCAA title in 1954 and the runner-up spot last year, switched to Texas A&M.

Dayton, the NIT runner-up and No. 9 in the final poll, is rebuild-

Tough Fight, He Says, Then Goes Hunting

Basilio, One of 10 Children, Tells Ma He's All Right

BOSTON — "What are you worried about, Ma? I am all right. Title fights are supposed to be tough."

That's what welterweight champion Carmen Basilio told his mother on the long distance telephone early today following his 12th-round technical knockout of tough Tony DeMarco in their title fight last night.

The lithe, lion-hearted, 147-pound champion became a fighter while with the Marines. He is one of the 10 children of an onion farmer at Canastota, N.Y.

His words to his mother sum up his attitude toward the hard game of boxing.

"Nothing comes easy," said Carmen, who was bruised on the face, had cuts under each eye, and had a sore left hand.

Undeterred in his last 15 scraps, he said he injured his left hand in the second round.

"I hit DeMarco on the top of the head in the second and the hand bothered me the rest of the way," said Carmen. "After the fifth round I knew he would run out of gas. It was just a question of time."

Before hustling back to the training grind, the 28-year-old champ is going to spend a week to 10 days quail hunting with Earl Crangle in Waynesboro, Ga. Basilio, an ardent hunter and fisherman, has four bird dogs, including a pointer, given him by Crangle.

Uclans Study U. of M., Badger Tilts With MSU

LOS ANGELES — UCLA, which will battle Michigan State in the Jan. 2 Rose Bowl game, wants to know how the Spartans got beat as well as how they won in Big Ten football play this year.

Bruin coach Red Sanders indicated as much yesterday when he chose for study game movies of Michigan State's 7-14 loss to Michigan and the Spartan's 27-0 victory over Wisconsin.

MSU coach Duffy Daugherty has asked for films of UCLA's triumphs over Stanford, 21-13, and Southern California, 17-7. Daugherty passed up UCLA's game with Maryland, which handed the Bruins their single defeat, 7-0.

ANN ARBOR — Michigan sports move indoors this week for the bitter winter competition.

Coach Bill Perigo's improved Michigan basketball team takes on Pittsburgh in the Smoky City. Vic Heyliger's strong hockey squad opens a home schedule against Canada's McGill University.

Meanwhile, Gus Stager's swimming crew goes after two world records in the Michigan AAU meet in Michigan's pool.

Perigo's squad plays Pittsburgh Saturday. The Wolverines will have one of their tallest teams in recent years, led by Pete Tillot-

Club Replaces Toledo in AA as Property of Milwaukee Braves

COLUMBUS, Ohio — Wichita became a member of the American Assn. today as a farm club of the Milwaukee Braves in place of the abandoned Toledo baseball club.

The Triple A American Assn., after a four-day franchise wrangle, finally ironed out its difficulties by successfully negotiating with the Western League for its Kansas territory.

The deal was completed 16 hours after Milwaukee reluctantly agreed to discard its plan to move the Toledo franchise to Miami. The Florida club's hope for Triple A ball was revived, however, by reports that an insurance executive, Sid Salomon, had requested an option to purchase the Syracuse club in the International League for the purpose of moving it to Miami.

In order to acquire Wichita, the association paid $21,000 to the Western and promised to option 10 players to the eventual replacement for Wichita. Also, Milwaukee, which now owns the Wichita club, will have a limited working agreement with the new Western city which is expected to be Hutchinson, Kans.

MSU Students Plan Mass Move to Bowl

EAST LANSING — Michigan State University students — 2,584 of them — will take over several trains this month for a mass move to Pasadena, Calif., where the MSU football team meets UCLA in the Rose Bowl on Jan. 2.

School officials said they believed the number was a record for mass movements of students to a bowl game. Ohio State set the Big Ten record last year with 1,134.

The group all signed up for a $167 "package deal" offered by several travel agencies. It includes a round trip train ride, chaperones and lodging on the West Coast.

Sign-ups ended yesterday with 631 students joining nearly 2,000 who had registered earlier.

Request of School Board for Sewer, Water, Granted

ROMEO — An affirmative answer to the Romeo School Board's request that sewer and water facilities be extended to two areas under consideration for the new high school was given last night at a special meeting of the Village Planning Commission.

Summarily it was pointed out in a report drafted by Village Engineer, Fitz J. Bridges, that present village sewer and water facilities would not be overtaxed by allowing the school district to tap on to existing lines.

The School Board, with the aid of its architectural engineer, William Dolger, has conducted a thorough investigation of the two areas before submitting the request. One proposed location is on the west side of Sisson Street near 31 Mile Road, approximately 2,100 feet from existing facilities. Also being considered are properties located on West St. Clair Street, just outside the village limits.

The water and sewage committee held a preliminary meeting Monday night to study the board's request. Its recommendation was presented at last night's meeting.

Final action taken was a recommendation by the Planning Commission that the Village Council grant the request of the School Board pending final selection of a site. When the property is decided upon, the council will then enter into a contractual agreement.

Other local officials participating in the discussion in addition to the commission and engineers were members of the Board of Education, School Superintendent T. C. Filippula and Village President, Philip M. Stone.
