Public Safety Head Named by Willman

Former Seattle Police Chief in $12,000 Job

Hopes to Reorganize Department Within the Next Two Years

George D. Eastman, former chief of police in Seattle, Wash., was appointed Public Safety Director today by City Manager Walter K. Willman.

Eastman, 46, who has extensive background in police work, will take over direction of the police and fire departments sometime between Aug. 25 and Oct. 10, Willman said.

The new director has agreed to a $12,000-a-year salary, Willman told city commissioners, who gave their approval of the candidate last night.

A private consultant on administration the past two years, Eastman has been associated with the Public Administration Service of Chicago, and was one of that firm's staff members who prepared the report on Pontiac Police Department morale and efficiency.

Major recommendation of the report was that a public safety director be hired to carry out extensive reorganization in the department. Eastman was hired on the basis of the recommendation, Willman indicated, and said he thinks he can do this within two years.

The new director was considered the outstanding candidate among 17 applicants for the job, Willman said.

In making the appointment, Willman told commissioners that Eastman was "very desirous of implementing the report that he had a part in developing.

"He has indicated to me that he thinks he could accomplish the purpose and aims of a public safety director with respect to the necessary reorganization of the Police Department within two years.

"He would then be satisfied to

U. S. A-Sub Sails Under North Pole

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States announced today the atomic submarine Nautilus has completed history's first transpolar underseas voyage across the top of the world.

The dramatic announcement came at a White House news conference where President Eisenhower personally presented citations to the youthful skipper of the submarine and members of its crew.

The citation hailed the voyage under the Arctic ice cap as pioneering a submerged sea lane between eastern and western hemispheres.

"This points the way," the President said, "for further exploration and possible use of this route by nuclear-powered cargo submarines as a new commercial seaway between the major oceans of the world."

The Nautilus has added to its list of historic achievements, Eisenhower said, "by crossing the Arctic Ocean from the Bering Sea to the Greenland Sea, passing submerged beneath the geographic North Pole."

Anderson was picked up by helicopter at Iceland last night and flown to Washington for today's White House ceremony.

"My very, very best congratulations," Eisenhower told Anderson after pinning the Legion of Merit medal on the commander's uniform.

Secretary of the Navy Gates said the award was the Navy's first of the kind in peacetime.

Call Emergency U.N. Meeting on Middle East

Russia Accepts Terms of U.S. for Sweeping Discussion in Assembly

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (UPI) — The 81-member United Nations General Assembly, summoned by a rare unanimous vote of the Security Council, meets in emergency session on the Middle East today.

The council voted 11 to 0 to call the special assembly session after more than six hours of debate last night. The debate resulted in Russia's acceptance of U.S. terms for a sweeping Middle East discussion after two amendments designed to "save face" for the Kremlin.

The Assembly will convene in U. N. headquarters on New York's east side this evening for what is expected to be a brief and formal session, devoted to procedural arrangements. It will probably then adjourn until Wednesday, as suggested by Britain, to allow time for special representatives to come to New York and permit governments to relay instructions to delegations here.

Diplomatic authorities in Washington were inclined to believe President Eisenhower would make a personal appearance at the Assembly to open the American part of the debate. The White House said no decision had yet been reached but Eisenhowser has said he would attend if it appeared "necessary and desirable."

Officials in Washington, while noting that the final American plans had not yet been resolved, indicated the U. S. might seek Oakland County Sheriff's Deputies said both Gordon J. McGinnis, 52, of 5185 Grange Hall Rd., and Robert Mayhorn, 27, of 715 Carton St., Flint, were killed instantly.

They were both driving. Injured were McGinnis' wife, Gertrude, 47, and Lucille Rushing, 30, of 710 Jamieson St., Flint, riding with Mayhorn.

Mrs. McGinnis has leg, chest and head injuries at St. Joseph Hospital in Flint. The other injured woman was treated and released.

Deputies said the accident was apparently caused by a driving rainstorm which is believed to have obscured the drivers' vision.

Black Cadillac Enters Probe

RECOVER CAR IN KIERDORF CASE—This four-door black 1956 Cadillac is believed by police to be the one involved in the fatal burning of Flint Teamster Frank Kierdorf Sunday. Atty. Gen. Adams reported late Thursday Herman Kierdorf, Frank's uncle, sold the car for $1,700 to a Royal Oak used car dealer Monday afternoon. The title was in the name of a Detroit Teamsters local and was signed over to Herman by a vice president of the local, Adams said. After the sale, Herman disappeared.

William Hoffa Sought in Flint Fire Probe

Herman Kierdorf Is Still Missing; Third Suspect Quizzed, Being Held

Teamster boss James R. Hoffa's brother was to be questioned today as officials voiced strong skepticism about the reported death-bed confession of "torch victim" Frank H. Kierdorf.

William Hoffa, a Berkley man described as a business representative of Pontiac Teamster Local 614, was sought for interrogation in Pontiac, as was Frank Fitzsimmons, vice president of Detroit Teamsters Local 299.

Before leaving Pontiac, Adams announced that authorities would continue to hold in protective custody Donald E. Keller, 34, of 6512 Lawton Ave., Detroit, who was the subject of intensive questioning for five hours yesterday and three this morning.

Named as the man who last saw Kierdorf's missing uncle, Herman Kierdorf, the unemployed Keller is a "possible third suspect" in the arson team that reportedly fired the shop, possibly as part of a Teamster terrorist move, Adams said.

At the same time, Adams disclosed that yesterday, two hours before Kierdorf died of burns which authorities believe he received in the fire, he was questioned by Anthony Stiel, chief investigator for Oakland County prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem.

Adams said Kierdorf was asked to communicate by raising or lowering his arms because he was unable to talk. The dying man also was asked about other Teamster officials but Adams had no comment on his responses.

The attorney general had been reluctant to release this information because officials were advised by the hospital physicians that any communication with Kierdorf by sign would be doubtful.

"We are viewing it with considerable skepticism," said Adams. "The doctor was doubtful he could communicate. But of course we will follow through with any leads."

Adams said officials were skeptical "because anything he gave us before was a tissue of lies."

Adams said that in the confession, Kierdorf indicated that his missing uncle was at the arson scene. The attorney general had already linked the two to the fire and is now looking for the third arsonist.

Hoffa is to be asked about the fire, while Fitzsimmons is wanted for questioning because he reportedly turned over the title of a union Cadillac to Herman Kierdorf, providing funds for the latter's flight.

Frank Kierdorf was a business agent for Teamster Local 332 in Flint; his uncle is a former business agent for Teamster Joint Council 42 in Detroit; and Keller was identified as a former rigger at the once strifetorn Fisher Body plant in Grand Blanc, near Flint.

According to Adams yesterday, Kierdorf insisted to the end that he was set afire by men who lured him from his home Sunday night, doused him with an

Hoffa Denies Knowledge of Fire Case

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Teamster President James R. Hoffa testified yesterday that he knows "positively nothing" about the fatal burning of teamster official Frank Kierdorf in Michigan.

Hoffa told the Senate rackets committee he gave Kierdorf a job as a local business agent in Flint after Kierdorf was released from prison.

But he denied that he ever gave Kierdorf any instructions which lead to arson or vandalism against any employer.

The committee questioned Hoffa about Kierdorf and his missing uncle, Herman Kierdorf, as part of its investigation of gangster infiltration in the labor movement.

Hoffa conceded after being confronted with records that he intervened with Michigan authorities in 1948 in an effort to get a parole for Herman Kierdorf, who was serving a prison term in Ohio for armed robbery.

The records showed that he had offered to give Kierdorf a job at $75 a week.

The records also showed that Hoffa wrote a letter in 1949 trying to get Kierdorf's parole lifted so he could take a $12,000-a-year job as a member of the Executive Board of Teamster Joint Council 43.

Hoffa said he hired Frank Kierdorf on Herman Kierdorf's recommendation because the Flint local needed an experienced man. But Committee Council Robert F. Kennedy said "the only experience we can find is in armed robbery."

Sewage Bond Issue on November Ballot

Pontiac will vote in November on a bond issue to finance a new sewage treatment plant.

City commissioners last night informally approved placing a treatment plant proposition before voters again. City Manager Walter K. Willman was asked to prepare details of how much the bond issue would run, and how it would be financed.

A similar proposition, totaling $2,700,000, was turned down by voters in May last year, when it was coupled with two other bond issue proposals, which were also defeated.

The existing treatment plant has been operating at capacity for several years. Because of this, it is impossible to extend sewers to areas in the city that need them, city officials report.

Sunny, Less Humid Outlook for Weekend

Mostly sunny and less humid weather is in store for the Pontiac area tonight and tomorrow. Fair and cool with a low of 60-64 is the forecast for tonight.

Saturday's high will hit 84 to 88 with the low tomorrow night dipping to 64 to 68. The outlook for Sunday is partly cloudy and warmer.

In downtown Pontiac the lowest reading preceding 8 a.m. was 62 degrees. At 2 p.m. the temperature was 80.

Labor Leader Tells Probers:

'Hoffa Aided Racketeers'

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Pennsylvania labor leader testified today Teamster boss James R. Hoffa helped a group of racketeers get a charter to run a hotel and restaurant workers union local in Philadelphia.

HEARD OF THREATS

The testimony came from William J. Brennan, a vice president of the State Federation of Labor, who said he had been threatened for leading an unsuccessful fight against the racketeers. He said he had heard about the threats, but had received none directly.

★ ★ ★

Hoffa was in the hearing room awaiting more quizzing.

Chicago gangster Paul (The Waiter) Ricca also was on call for questioning but was not in the hearing room.

The committee said Brennan is not related to Owen J. (Bert) Brennan, international vice president of the Teamsters and a pal of Hoffa.

GOT CHARTER

William Brennan said the racketeer group revolved about Philadelphia Teamster official Sam (Shorty) Feldman. He said it got a charter in 1956 to run Local 410 of the Hotel and Restaurant Workers Union.

He said the local promptly became involved in scandals including charges of intimidation of employers, and that its bosses ran the local $23,000 in debt in the eight or nine months they held command.

Brennan said they were fired from office in the spring of 1957 by the union's international president, who assigned Brennan to take over. Brennan said he is president of Philadelphia Local 138 of the Hotel and Restaurant Workers, president of the union's state council and administrator of Local 87.

Committee Chairman John L. McClellan (D-Ark) told Hoffa yesterday reasonable men can only conclude "you surround yourself with criminals, and that you keep them there if you can have your way."

Hoffa said he plans to clean up his union "in due course."

★ ★ ★

The Teamsters Union has purchased Ricca's palatial Long Beach, Ind., home for about $150,000 with the announced plan to use it as a training school for business agents. But it has been unable to get permission from the local zoning authorities to use the

To Head Soviet Group

LONDON (AP) — Moscow radio said today Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko will head the Soviet delegation to the special session of the U.N. General Assembly on the Middle East crisis.

Event Ends Saturday Noon

Last Evening of 4-H Fair to Spotlight Quiz Show

More than 3,200 persons attended the 4-H Fair last night, largest attendance of the week, bringing the total to around 6,500 for the first three nights. Final sessions of the fair are scheduled tonight and Saturday morning.

One of the features tonight will be a quiz show. 4-H members and their leaders will compete against each other in a test of their skills and knowledge of 4-H work.

Also scheduled for tonight's program will be the dress revue at 8 p.m. and the award presentation at 9 p.m.

Tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock the horses will be judged and the exhibits will be dismissed beginning at 3 p.m.

Winners of last night's pig scramble contests were Martin Sheyer of Oak Park, member of the Pontiac Chiefs 4-H Club; Catheryn Van Buren of Rochester, member of the Jolly Tailors 4-H Club and Bob Becker of Rochester, member of the 4-H Trailblazers.

Owners of Holstein cows won the first five places in the Senior Showmanship contest. They were: Bill Middleton, of Lake Orion, first; Douglas Long of Milford, second; Larry Middleton of Lake Orion, third; Richard Foster of Clarkston, fourth, and Ronnie Brown of Oxford, fifth.

Other winners in this division were Gerald Austin and Dennis Austin, both of Galloway Lake; Marvin Scramlin of Holly and Mike Applegate of Clarkston, respectively.

We Live in a Cool, Cool Town

Some Spots on the Earth Really Sizzle

So you think we have hot weather at times?

Don't be too loud in your complaint; there are hotter places. Take the town of Azizia, in northwestern Libya, for instance. The mercury bubbled up to 136.4 Fahrenheit in Azizia's shade on Sept. 13, 1922 — highest temperature ever recorded under standard conditions.

The United States can boast (maybe we should say confess) temperatures not too far under that record. At one time or another the thermometer has climbed above 100 in every state of the union.

The highest reading was 134 degrees in Death Valley, Calif., July 10, 1913.

These records may soon be broken. Climatologists report the world has been getting warmer over the past 40 or 50 years, the National Geographic Society says. Scientists are not certain what is causing the warming, but it may be part of the ice age cycle.

ICE NOW RETREATING

During the history of the earth, the ice at the poles has advanced and retreated a number of times. At present it is retreating. As the icecaps melt, the seas are rising at the rate of one-eighth of an inch a year. Tropical plants and animals are, little by little, moving north.

In the sun, thermometers have recorded 189 degrees in Iraq, but official temperatures are recorded by ventilated thermometers in shaded spots.

Contrary to popular belief, the temperature of the air is not higher in the sun than it is in the shade.

People think it's warmer because the sun heats their clothes and skin. The sun also heats the glass and mercury in a thermometer, causing it to record a higher temperature than that of the air.

STAND 240 DEGREES

For brief periods, human beings can withstand far higher temperatures than those ever occurring under normal conditions.

A study made by University of California engineers showed that an average person can tolerate, for about 23 minutes, a temperature of 240 degrees.

This is well above the boiling point of water, and plenty hot enough to boil an egg or simmer a stew. However, the hot air breathed by the subjects was cooled as much as 100 degrees by the mucous membranes lining the nose, mouth, and breathing passages before it reached the lungs.

Still higher temperatures can be borne briefly. Some industrial workers endure temperatures up to 500 degrees for two or three minutes at a time.

Doctor Defends Hospital Rules

Chief of Staff Takes Stand as 4 Physicians Rest Their Case

The head of the medical staff at Pontiac General Hospital testified today that the health and welfare of an area would be "endangered" without proper rules, regulations and staff committees.

★ ★ ★

"The health and welfare of the patient, which is our utmost concern, would not be considered whatsoever (without regulations)," said Dr. John J. Marra.

Dr. Marra took the stand as the first defense witness in the suit against the city hospital by four doctors.

The four doctors, Leonard Blackwell, Douglass A. Haddock, Roy V. Cooley Jr., and Maolin Han, claim in the suit that medical staff regulations at Pontiac General illegally prohibit them from unrestricted surgical privileges.

Only the State Board of Registration in Medicine has the right to control their practices, they claim.

As attorney William J. Beer, counsel for the doctors, rested his case this morning before Judge Clark J. Adams.

Two of the doctors, Blackwell and Cooley, testified to how the rules "deprived them of income."

When the trial opened Tuesday, Dr. Blackwell, 36, of 51 Niagara Ave., charged that the regulations were enacted so to favor a certain group of doctors.

He explained that "if we can't get the business, they do."

In testimony today, Dr. Blackwell admitted that he does not receive any greater privileges at other hospitals where he takes patients. He said also other hospitals have regulations similar to those of Pontiac General.

Although he admitted that he could "book" any of his patients into Pontiac General for treatment, he added, however, there still were cases where he was not permitted to perform certain operations because of the questioned surgical rules.

Makes No Attempt to Bond Divorcee

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — No attempt will be made to obtain bond for Connie Nicholas, divorcee accused of killing business executive Forrest Teel, during the month or so it takes a Marion County grand jury to consider her case.

Frank A. Symmes, attorney for the blue-eyed, 42-year-old woman, said he thought it would be cruel to obtain a short period of freedom for his client if the grand jury should send her back to jail.

Mrs. Nicholas failed in a suicide attempt after her lover of 15 years had died of pistol bullet wounds July 31. She appeared in Indianapolis Municipal Court yesterday, accompanied by a nurse, and pleaded innocent to murder.

Threatens to Ask Veto of SS Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Welfare Arthur S. Flemming said today he will recommend a veto of the Social Security bill if the Senate passes it in the same form as the House.

★ ★ ★

He told the Senate Finance Committee he had checked his testimony with President Eisenhower's Budget Bureau before coming to the Capitol.

Flemming gave his approval to the 7 per cent increase in old age and survivor benefits which the bill provides.

But he strongly opposed the section under which federal grants to the states for public assistance, such as the needy aged program, would be boosted by 288 million dollars in the first year.

The secretary, who took office only a week ago today, said Eisenhower feels that the states should pay a bigger rather than a smaller share of the cost of these assistance programs.

Sen. Paul H. Douglas (D-Ill) raised the question about the possibility of a presidential veto. He asked if Flemming would recommend such action if the Senate passed the House bill.

"I would," he answered.

UAW Strike Talks Today at Top Level

DETROIT (AP) — Strike strategy against the big three auto makers will be discussed today at a meeting of the United Auto Workers International Executive Board. UAW members have authorized a walkout if necessary to back up union contract negotiators.

★ ★ ★

The 25-man board was to open its meeting at 1:30 p.m. It will hear reports from negotiating teams on the status of bargaining with General Motors, Ford and Chrysler.

Members of the union's GM, Ford and Chrysler councils will meet Saturday.

Out of the weekend meetings is expected to come a decision by union leaders on whether to announce a strike date against one of the big three, and whether to identify which of the auto firms will be the target.

To Shift Operations From Detroit Soon

DETROIT (AP) — C. M. Hall Lamp Co. announced Thursday it will transfer its flexible shaft department operations from Detroit to Clinton, N. C. in the near future.

The department employs 12 workers. Harry D. Hirsch, Hall president, said the move was being made to provide additional space in Detroit for company work on aircraft and missile parts.

A Whimper on His Lips

Baby Killer Put to Death

LaMarca, 33, who once blamed the crime on his need to raise $2,000 to pay for storm windows and other household goods, had hoped to the last minute he would be saved.

But radio appeals and a flood of telegrams to Gov. Averell Harriman's office in Albany proved unavailing. LaMarca last Wednesday lost a two-year court battle — including six appeals — to escape execution.

The father of two young children, he said nothing as he was escorted to the chair by the Rev. George McKinney, recently appointed Roman Catholic chaplain at the prison.

However, LaMarca began to whimper as he was strapped into the device. Executed at 11 p.m., he was pronounced dead three minutes later.

His wife Donna remained with him in his cell until 9 p.m. The doomed man was heard to call out occasionally, "Maybe they'll save me yet."

His attorney David M. Markowitz had gone on the air in New York City, urging the public to intercede with Harriman. The broadcast was repeated in the Albany area. The governor's office reported receiving between 400 and 500 telegrams, but there was no other comment.

LaMarca, a mechanic, resided at nearby Plainview. Both towns are Long Island suburbs of New York City.

The Weinbergers suffered through a harrowing series of ransom notes and telephone calls until Aug. 23, 1956, when LaMarca was arrested. It was learned then that LaMarca, panicking, had left the baby to die in a lonely Long Island thicket the day after the kidnaping. The boy died of starvation and exposure.

At his trial, LaMarca pleaded insanity. An all-father jury convicted him of first-degree murder without recommendation of mercy. Appeals went all the way to the U.S. Supreme Court.

LaMarca ate hearty meals during his last day. In addition to his wife, he was visited by his parents, Vincenzo and Vitina LaMarca, and his brothers, Anthony and Joseph LaMarca.

Authorities, however, have discarded this story in favor of the arson theory.

The witness has told police he stopped his car when he saw the fire, watched two men running from the building and then heard a third man screaming inside, Adams said.

"We are left with the possibilities that this was an organized attempt as part of Kierdorf's union activity or that he did it on his own," he said.

Adams said the evidence now gave "every indication that a charge of arson can be laid," and added that there were indications of other charges. He did not explain what the other charges might be.

The black Cadillac turned up in a used car lot and was described by Adams as possibly the getaway car from the Flint fire.

The expensive sedan was owned by a Teamster local, but had been turned over to Kierdorf's missing uncle, Herman, who disappeared Monday after visiting Frank in the hospital.

Herman, wanted by police for further questioning and on a charge of having a gun silencer in his possession, sold the Cadillac to a used-car dealer for $1,700 and then vanished, Adams said. He added that there was some promising clues to link the car with the one at the fire scene.

Investigators found a scorched flashlight in the remains of the dry cleaning establishment, and that bit of evidence completed a picture of what they said was the probable explanation for Frank Kierdorf's fatal burns.

After setting a device to explode into flames at the Latreille cleaners Sunday night, they said, Kierdorf dropped his flashlight. While he was groping around for it, the fire device went off, enveloping the ex-convict in flames.

But Kierdorf's companions apparently decided he needed hospital treatment and drove him 41 miles to Pontiac, presumably to throw investigators off the track.

On the way he was coached to tell a story of being attacked and set aflame by two strangers.

The attorney general said that Keller was being held in protective custody for questioning. Adams said Keller drove Herman Kierdorf to the used car lot where the Cadillac was sold. He said Keller denied being at the scene of the Flint fire.

Both Kierdorfs served time for armed robbery and both were reluctant witnesses before the Senate Rackets Committee.

Sale of the Cadillac left investigators thinking that Herman may have fled the country. With a warrant out against him, this would be a federal offense.

The sale was made at the Detroit Car Co., 1614 N. Woodward Ave., Royal Oak. The lot owner, Parivn Lassiter, of 19690 Beverly Rd., Southfield, said Herman did not appear to be nervous during the sale.

"He acted perfectly okay," Lassiter said.

Another employe of the lot said Herman went so far as to identify himself as "the uncle of that fellow who got burned."

Jerome K. Barry, an assistant prosecutor, said it took Herman from about 4 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. Monday to sell the car and then drop out of sight.

He said that according to Keller, Herman first tried to sell the Cadillac at a Livernois avenue lot, then called the Detroit Car Co., which specializes in Cadillacs, to see if he could sell it there.

Keller told Barry that he went with Herman to the Royal Oak lot and afterwards was dropped off at the corner of Eight Mile road and Livernois. He said it was the last time he saw Herman.

He said he waited with Herman at the lot while Lassiter went to the Detroit headquarters of Local 299 (Hoffa's home local) to have the title transferred by a Teamster vice president.

It was believed that a third man, possibly the third man in the arson team, accompanied Herman and Keller. Officials would not comment on the possibility.

Adams said that Keller and Herman had a green and white late model Ford station wagon with them and this was the car that Herman was last seen with.

It was recalled that a neighbor of Frank Kierdorf's in Flint also saw a green and white station wagon pull up to the house the night of the fire.

This same neighbor saw a black car—which authorities believe was Herman's Cadillac—pull up a little later. But a neighbor of Herman's said last night that he noticed Herman's Cadillac in his driveway at about 10 p. m. Sunday, about 45 minutes before the fire took place.

This same neighbor said he heard a car door slam in Herman's driveway sometime during the early hours of Monday.

Officials were working to bring these various time estimates into line with their theory that Frank and Herman along with a third man, set the blaze.

The Cadillac was taken into custody and held at the Oakland County Jail after a state police expert from Lansing tested it for clues. The test results may be available in two days said Lt. Howard Whaley, of the Redford State Police.

Also occupying investigators' attention is a 24-inch streak on the fabric above the rear seat of Herman's Cadillac. It appears to be a scorch mark and may be connected with Frank's burns.

Another clue that has turned up has been bits of burned flesh found at both the scene of the fire and at Frank Kierdorf's home. Adams, however, has withheld comment on the discovery.

Meantime, Adams has still to question more Oakland County Teamster leaders. Yesterday, he talked with Leaun Harrelson, local 614 president; Alvy Bush, vice president; Donald Stone, a business agent, and Floyd P. Harmon, secretary-treasurer.

Boys Die as Lightning Strikes

By United Press International

Two boys were killed by lightning in Chicago and another boy was injured in Milwaukee, Wis., when a small tornado slammed into a 10-square block area during outbreaks of Midwest weather violence.

A bolt of lightning struck and killed Santo Rizzo, 14, and Michael Pohrtes, 6, when they ducked under a tree near their homes on Chicago's south side.

The Milwaukee twister ripped into a business and residential area on the city's northwest side, injuring Michael Friese Egger, 14.

Winds up to 70 miles an hour preceded the twister, shearing utility lines and causing property damage. There was no immediate estimate of the damage.

FLEES WITH CHILDREN

Six divers trying to raise a sunken motorship from the bottom of Lake Michigan off Milwaukee were hauled aboard a salvage barge shortly before the gale winds hit.

At Quincy, a violent thunderstorm routed 2,000 persons attending the annual Moorman Manufacturing Co. picnic. The injured, including the wife of the firm's president, suffered burns when lightning hit a tree under which they were standing.

The Ohio storms lashed Zanesville and London in the central section of the state and the Cleveland area with high winds and drenching rains. Winds of 50 miles an hour disrupted power in London and damaged homes and cars. Trees and wires were downed in Cleveland and a number of streets and basements were flooded.

Showers and thunderstorms were predicted for today in the lower Mississippi valley and in most areas east of the Mississippi River except the Great Lakes region.

Widely scattered afternoon showers were expected in the plains, the southern Rockies, the Great Basin area and the desert Southwest.

Extortion Case Suspect Held

A Pontiac man is being held today by Bloomfield Hills police today for investigation of extorting $3,500 from a commercial photographic studio, according to a police spokesman.

Capt. Walter Sluiter of the Bloomfield Hills Police said that five photos of the new Dodge were taken from the studio last Friday.

Charles Carson, owner of the firm, said he received a call from a man Saturday demanding $2,000 for the return of the pictures. They were advance photos to be introduced to the public later this year.

The studio had been hired by Chrysler Corp. to take them. The caller said he would turn the photos over to General Motors Corp., if the money wasn't paid by Monday, Carson told police.

Four of the photos were returned to the studio Monday although no payment was made. Later that day Carson said he received another call demanding $2,800 for the remaining photo.

When he refused to pay, the fee was raised to $3,500. Carson was told by police to go through with the payoff. He left the money at a secluded spot in Bloomfield Township last night.

Sluiter and Huntington Woods Police detectives, staked out nearby, took the license number of Crain's car when the money was picked up, police said.

He was arrested this morning and is being questioned by detectives interested in knowing how he obtained the photos.

Charges Racketeers Helped by Hoffa

REIMBURSE FUND

Hoffa assured the committee he would reimburse the Michigan Teamsters health and welfare fund for his share of payments to Embrel Davidson, a heavyweight boxer once managed by Teamster Vice President Brennan.

He did so after the Rackets Committee asked the Justice Department to determine whether Hoffa or Davidson had lied under oath in conflicting testimony about the payments.

A year ago, Hoffa swore no teamster funds ever were paid to Davidson. But Davidson testified yesterday he had been paid $75 a week for nearly two years from the Michigan Teamster health-welfare fund. Davidson said he did some chores at Brennan's home and at a racetrack Brennan owned.

McClellan estimated Brennan and Hoffa owe the fund about $8,000.

Called to the stand, Hoffa said he didn't recall Davidson being placed on the fund's payroll, but he agreed to take steps to return his share of the payments to Davidson.

Other Towns Outbreeze Chicago

'Windy City' a Slacker

CHICAGO (UPI)—Chicago will have to relinquish its title as "Windy City" to Atlantic City, N.J.

Weather Bureau forecaster John J. Sullivan said last night Chicago's wind average during the last 15 years was a puny 9.8 m.p.h., as compared with a gusty average of 15.2 m.p.h. at Atlantic City.

He said other cities with a better claim to the title are Buffalo, N. Y., with an average of 14.5, and Tatoosh Island, Wash., with 14.2.

The Day in Birmingham

New Sewers Pass Test of Severe Rainstorms

BIRMINGHAM — The two new sewers constructed in Birmingham this spring to relieve flooding conditions passed their first real test during severe rain storms in the city Wednesday and Thursday.

T. C. Brien, Department of Public Works superintendent, said while neither the Pine street nor Raynale road sewers were required to carry top capacity loads, both performed satisfactorily and there was no flooding in these neighborhoods.

The only places in the city where there was any surface water during the downpours were on streets where storm sewers were unable to handle the flow immediately.

Brien said in a matter of a few hours all flooded sections had drained off without causing any damage.

William T. Arlund, chairman of the pastoral supply committee for the Congregational Church of Birmingham, said today several ministers have been interviewed as possible successors to the Rev. Robert Dewey and the Rev. Carl Baird.

A brochure has been prepared giving history and information about the church. They will be available to prospective pastors as an introduction to the local congregation.

The Rev. Dewey resigned as pastor to accept a call to a church in Long Island, N. Y. His assistant, the Rev. Baird, has joined the staff of an educational book firm in Berkley.

The Rev. Dr. Alfred Gray, of Stratford, Ontario, will arrive here Sept. 1 to serve as interim minister.

In an effort to improve facilities for short-time parking in the downtown Birmingham area, 74 12-hour meters have been moved from Lot 1 at Pierce and Merrill streets.

They now are located at Lot 2, Ferndale and Hamilton street; Lot 3, Hamilton near Hunter boulevard, and Lot 4, Brownell and Forest streets.

The majority of the 12-hour meters are used by drivers working in the offices and stores in the business district, according to Police Chief Ralph W. Moxley.

According to the July report of Fire Chief Park Smith, fire losses to contents and buildings in Birmingham last month amounted to only $165.

The department answered 26 calls, including five first-aid runs, Smith reported.

Says Vote Hurt Gov. Williams

Sen. Potter Interprets Primary Ballot as Sign of Disenchantment

Potter indicated he was not impressed by Williams' nomination for an unprecedented sixth term or by a Democratic vote total almost 200,000 higher than the Republican vote.

In fact, Potter added, he was surprised that the Democratic total of 451,000 was not much higher. "The Democrats went all out to get in a big vote and had contests up and down the line," he said. "Still in spite of all their efforts, they didn't do very well.

"I think it's an indication that the people are getting disenchanted with the boy (Williams)."

Potter, who faces a stiff fight for re-election this year but was unopposed in the primary, said the 257,333 votes polled by the Republicans was regrettable but explainable.

"We had no contests, and we didn't have the money to put on a campaign like the Democrats did," he said.

Mercury Hits New High for Last Part of July

DETROIT (AP) — Mercury sales reached their highest peak since last September in the final 10 days of July, the Ford Motor Co. said Thursday.

The company reported Mercury sales up 36 per cent in July over June. Ford said it delivered 14,763 new cars in July, making it the best sales month since last October.

Tennessee Governor's Race Close

Sen. Gore Wins Decisive Victory

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Tennessee Democrats renominated Sen. Albert Gore in yesterday's primary, while Buford Ellington held an uneasy lead in the governor's race against three opponents.

Memphis Mayor Edmund Orgill and Jackson Circuit Judge Andrew T. Taylor perched within striking distance as tabulators awaited trickling returns from the state's final 250 precincts. State Sen. Clifford Allen of Nashville tailed far behind.

Gore's victory was more decisive than expected over former Gov. Prentice Cooper of Shelbyville. An ardent segregationist, Cooper campaigned against Gore's moderate civil rights position and what he termed espousal of foreign "giveaways."

Tabulations from 2,335 of the state's 2,570 precincts gave Gore 332,797 votes to 223,386 for Cooper.

The same precincts gave Ellington 194,239, Orgill 184,123 and Taylor 181,666. Allen received 52,779. Among the missing precincts were 10 big boxes from Taylor's home county of Madison, where he ran far ahead of his combined opposition.

Tennessee has no primary runoff and the high man gets the nomination in a state which has not elected a Republican governor since 1922. Two Republicans, State Sen. Robert L. Peters of Kingsport and Hansel Proffit of Sevierville, received scattered votes for governorship, but Peters said he was not a candidate.

Concert Audiences Demanding Fine Music

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK — Three years ago, at a Roman cocktail soiree flung by then Ambassador Clare Booth Luce, I was abruptly confronted by a tall, strung-out American who made a shocking remark:

"I'd love to go back to the States," he said, "but I'm scared to. The climate is crazy."

For Herbert Baumel, the fear didn't concern switch blades, and the crazy climate had nothing to do with humidity.

Baumel was a concert violinist, in Rome on a Fulbright grant. And he was scared that men like himself could never find success or hamburger money in the U. S. "They have a musical inferiority complex in the States," he said. "If you're an American you get nowhere. And all because America has convinced herself that she is too young to be artistic and creative . . . when actually her motto should be, we're still young enough to be artistic and creative."

Well, it took three years for Baumel to get up the courage to come home. And now that he's toured the United States in concert, he says, he has a clearer picture of the cultural situation in America.

"The people have grown up a great deal in these years. In fact, they've gone considerably beyond the people who plan the concerts they hear.

AUDIENCES SHARP

"I was amazed, particularly in some small cities around the country, to find that the audiences are very much aware that visiting artists are 'playing down' to them — and they resented it plenty."

Baumel credits this sharp advance in musical knowledge to the universal popularity of hi-fi, the advance of musical resources in school, the expanding concert series and local symphonies in almost every sizable city in the nation, and the increasing number of music festivals.

"Now the people are so well-versed in music that they want to hear new things, instead of the old horse-and-buggy type of programs our forebears presented before us.

PLAY IT SAFE

"The catch is that the concert managers and agents think they know how to 'play it safe.'

"They lay down rules. Don't play Bach. It bores people. Don't have too much 'heavy' stuff. It's rough sledding for the country folks. Do some catchy little numbers in the second half of the concert. Leave 'em laughing."

Baumel gives two examples of the reaction to this kind of programing.

In a midwest city near Chicago recently, a famous cellist played a concert. He substituted a Grieg sonata for a Hindemith sonata he had performed in Chicago the evening before. Part of the audience was highly insulted, in certain terms by certain people.

In a southern city a fine violinist, advised by his manager that his program must be "light and varied," played only a segment of two sonatas, rather than a single entire work.

It left the audience unfulfilled. One man, in a loud voice, addressed the local impressario who had arranged the concert: "If I save this stub, can I use it to hear Mr. ——— the next time he plays here?"

The shocked reply was, "No, why?"

"Since Mr. ——— played one-half a Bach sonata and the first movement of a Mendelssohn concerto, I feel I deserve the rest of the program free. We may be backwoodsers, but we know when we're being cheated."

Water Fatalities Point Need for Safety Drive

LANSING (AP) — Comparison of traffic deaths and water deaths in Michigan this summer wipes out any doubts of the need for the state's growing water safety campaign.

It's not a pretty picture. Death certificates sent to the State Health Department list 29 drownings in June, compared with 110 traffic fatalities.

Last month, as temperatures and the number of swimmers and boaters both shot up, nearly 60 drownings were reported under a new state law turning over to State Police the job of compiling statistics on water deaths.

Highway accidents took 144 lives in July, but on some weekends drownings equalled or exceeded the traffic toll.

A 2½ year traffic safety campaign has met with notable success, saving an estimated 1,000 lives in the state. Similar techniques should have similar results in reducing the water death toll if the campaign is directed with anything like the enthusiasm devoted to driving safety.

Now, for the first time, State Police are keeping track of statistics and details on water fatalities that eventually will mean something and serve as a guide in cutting down the toll.

Withdrawal in Lebanon Prime U.S. Objective

Although the crisis in Lebanon seems to have been solved temporarily by the election of 56 year old Gen. FUAD CHEBAB as president, this doesn't mean that U.S. troops can be withdrawn at once. It's not that simple.

President CHAMOUN'S term does not expire until Sept. 23 and the U.S. must be assured that Lebanon can maintain internal security and independence. Secretary DULLES has stated that our troops will be withdrawn when asked to do so by a legally constituted Lebanese Government, or if United Nations forces replace them.

Gen. CHEBAB'S election raises the hope that he can restore order and end the bitter divisions within Christian-Moslem Lebanon, caused, for the most part, by Nasser's pan-Arab propaganda. The General, whose election seems to be agreeable to us, wants a free neutral Lebanon and that would be to the West's interest. But with Arab nationalism rampant, Lebanon's army of 9,000 couldn't do much to protect the country from being swallowed up by the United Arab Republic.

★ ★ ★

The lull in Lebanon's discord could be deceptive. But, despite a continued buildup of U. S. reinforcements there, we can hope for some kind of withdrawal arrangement by which we can extricate ourselves from a situation not at all to our liking and which furnishes Russia with something to talk about.

Our Muck Lands Not a Liability

Oakland County has thousands of acres of land that are crying for attention.

Other areas have made similar land productive, beautiful and profit making.

Many of our county's 423 lakes are surrounded by muck bottoms.

This is a soil largely composed of the decayed vegetation that has grown upon it for thousands of years, or of the alluvial deposits of untold generations. Its dormant possibilities are countless.

It has a fertility to which root crops, like potatoes, onions, turnips and carrots, take a liking, and upon which celery, lettuce and other leaf crops, thrive. Unlimited irrigation abounds at its edges.

All that it needs is breaking up and cultivation. In this era of the tractor, bulldozer, gang plow, cultipacker, disc harrow and other power tools this no longer is a superhuman task. Gasoline removes the burden.

In adjoining counties great areas of muck land have been cleared off, which in some cases required the uprooting and removal of trees that dated back to our primeval forests.

★ ★ ★

These lands which have gone without notice by the assessing officers now take top priority on the tax rolls. They're assessed at so much per front foot, just like city business property.

The Imlay City area is the most outstanding nearby example of what can be done with muck acreage. There many thousands of acres of hitherto worthless land has been transformed into what is claimed to be the largest garden spot in the world.

As a further adjunct to the development of such lands here is the fact that most of them cover marl deposits that can be worked over for fertilizer on some of our higher lands that are in need of this element after being cropped and cultivated for a century or more.

Let's discontinue looking down on the lowly muck. It has diamonds in the rough.

WITH reference to considerable criticism of the Administration concerning the current diplomatic muddle, the suggestion that it solicit the advice of DEAN ACHESON is the unkindest cut of all.

David Lawrence Says:

Goldfine Is Likely to Be Acquitted

WASHINGTON — There is an old principle of law that a prosecutor must come into court "with clean hands." There must be no taint on the way the indictment was obtained.

LAWRENCE

It looks, therefore, almost like a 100-to-1 shot that Bernard Goldfine will be acquitted of contempt if a recommendation by the House Commerce Committee, that he be tried for refusing to answer certain questions is adopted by the full House and later goes to court.

For there was a palpable interference in the confidential relations between client and lawyer. It came about when the chief staff investigator for the House subcommittee listened in, through a planted microphone, on the conversation in a hotel room where Mr. Goldfine was conferring with his attorney.

The fact that the chief investigator testified later that he did not hear anything of importance does not alter the legal issue. The courts do not weigh merely whether the interference was effective.

There was an instance in the District of Columbia in which a confidential informant for the prosecution in a criminal case became chummy with one of the defense lawyers and obtained information for the prosecutor. The U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals reversed conviction on the ground that there had been "interference" by the prosecution.

One prominent lawyer here — who is not in any way connected with the Goldfine case but who has had considerable experience with contempt cases — told this correspondent today that if he had been Mr. Goldfine's attorney, he would have advised the textile manufacturer not to answer a single question after the episode of the hidden microphone had come to light.

He said that the legal right of the House committee to continue its questioning had, from that moment, become impaired.

Mr. Goldfine has testified under oath that there was absolutely no connection between Sherman Adams and any of the financial transactions of the different textile companies on which the House Committee solicited information, and that the question related to private matters not relevant to the committee's hearings.

But the chances are this particular issue will never be resolved. For the House of Representatives itself thus far has not fully investigated the procedure of its subcommittee in failing to make public all the testimony concerning the hidden microphone or to investigate the circumstances under which a witness was subjected to virtual espionage.

It seems certain as things look now that, if the Goldfine contempt case ever gets into court, all members of the subcommittee and the entire staff of investigators will be subpoenaed and required to testify in detail as to their methods of getting testimony and exactly how they obtain every piece of data which they made the basis for their questioning of Mr. Goldfine.

This whole procedure doubtless will become pertinent to the court proceeding in the contempt case, which probably will be unprecedented because, in a sense, both the members of Congress and Mr. Goldfine will be on trial.

The Country Parson

"Religion, like the algebra we once knew, must be used or we forget how."

Dr. William Brady Says:

Have Baby Immunized Before Its First Birthday

So far as the welfare of babies in North America is concerned, every baby should be immunized against smallpox and diphtheria.

Immunization against smallpox is vaccination.

Best time to vaccinate the baby is at the age of three months. In any event it must be done before the baby is a year old. It is for your physician to decide whether vaccination should be postponed.

DR. BRADY

Best time to immunize the baby against diphtheria is at the age of 6 to 9 months, by an injection of diphtheria toxoid. Two months later a second injection of toxoid. Six months later a Schick test to determine whether the baby is immune. If the baby is immune there will be no redness at the site of injection four days after the injection. If redness shows four days after the injection, the baby is not immunized — is still susceptible to diphtheria and should have at least one more injection of diphtheria toxoid to acquire sufficient immunity.

It is questionable whether whooping-cough vaccine gives the child protection against whooping-cough. I don't know of any convincing statistics upon which to base the practice of giving such injections. On the other hand, I know of no dangerous or harmful effects of three injections of whooping-cough (pertussis) vaccine, a week apart, to infants at the age of 6 months. So my advice about this is, do as your doctor says—or change doctors.

It is good practice, I think, to give tetanus (lockjaw) in the same injection with diphtheria toxoid, when the baby is 6 to 9 months old, two or three injections a couple of months apart. The protection this gives against tetanus is not absolute and not permanent. But it minimizes the danger of death from lockjaw following a slight wound, and this effect may be prolonged for years by a "booster" injection of tetanus toxoid at any future time.

When the baby is thus immunized against smallpox, diphtheria and tetanus, any other immunization may be left to the judgment of the attending physician in any circumstance. Immunization against typhoid fever, generally advisable if not mandatory for persons going out of the United States, is only rarely necessary for infants at home.

Immunization of children against infantile paralysis (poliomyelitis) with the Salk vaccine has recently come to be routine practice whenever or wherever polio is epidemic.

Voice of the People

More Readers Give Ideas on Current Bible Debates

The dictionary defines a hoax as being a trick played for deception, a practical joke. If Christianity is a hoax, then it is one of the most cleverly planned and executed "practical jokes" the world has ever known.

★ ★ ★

In this world of strife and turmoil, it is only natural that its inhabitants, living on the brink of total destruction, be filled with fears and suspicions. One only needs to read the Bible to confirm this. However, it doesn't take a whole lot of intelligent thinking to discover the difference between Christianity and communism.

★ ★ ★

Communism demands, "Take from the rich and give to the poor." Christianity teaches, "Give to the poor, willingly." The Bible says "If a man say I love God and hateth his brother, he is a liar, for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God, whom he hath not seen?"

Stinging Remark Insults Father

If you think some people aren't full of the old devil, just lend an ear. I left home with the intention of enjoying the movie, "The Vikings" at the local drive-in theater with my daughter, 11, my son, 7, and my nephew, who is 10. I have proof of all the ages.

★ ★ ★

At the pay window a fellow came up to the car saying "How many do you have here?" I replied "One." Asking how old was the girl sitting next to me, I told him she was 11 years old. He handed the woman at the pay window my dollar bill since 90 cents was the price for one ticket. The woman, making a smart remark, prompted me to repeat that the girl was my daughter. After this she remarked again, insultingly, "His daughter! I think she's his wife."

★ ★ ★

It's their privilege to ask the ages of children in a car, but she knew that girl wasn't my wife. All children under 12 years of age are supposed to get in the show free. For 90 cents, with the buying power of about ten cents nowadays, she would do that. Needless to say, I got my money back and came home.

Claims Charges Unreasonable

Pontiac General Hospital complains of loss of revenue because of lack of patronage. Perhaps what happened to me the other night explains why others feel as I do.

★ ★ ★

While in the emergency room a young interne looked at my cut thumb pinched the end of it to see what it was like and told me all it needed was a good firm bandage —no stitches, no medication. I was charged ten dollars for a gauze bandage and a few inches of tape.

Having felt there must have been a mistake, I called to find out and was told five dollars was for the bandage; the other five dollars was for having the doctor look at it.

★ ★ ★

I don't mind paying a reasonable charge for anything, but I'm quite sure that I'll certainly never give them another penny for anything.

Can't Enjoy City Parks

What and who are our city parks for? We had a going away party for a boy in honor of his leaving for service August 3rd. We, 46 of us, had a couple 18-year-old fellows reserve four tables by placing our clothes on them. As two men approached, one said that he was the park attendant and that the other fellow had a permit for the tables from the city.

Now don't we pay taxes for everyone to enjoy the parks or just for certain people? Has anyone else been treated this way at a city park? If so, let's hear from you and put a stop to these kind of things.

Mrs. Elvis McConnaughhay

Smiles

It's sort of difficult to find a really industrious person who has a busy tongue.

★ ★ ★

A fashion expert says a girl can dress in 45 seconds. And then take an hour to make up.

★ ★ ★

The path from the TV set to the cookie jar or refrigerator is worn ragged by commercials.

★ ★ ★

Why is it that tots of two think budget and telephone books are guides for them to learn how to draw?

★ ★ ★

Home-grown radishes are those little red things that you didn't realize were going to bite your tongue.

A Missouri man complained to police that a woman robbed him. Imagine complaining about something he's used to, if he's married.

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it.—I Cor. 10:13.

★ ★ ★

God chooses that men should be tried, but let a man beware of tempting his neighbor. God knows how and how much, and where and when. Man is his brother's keeper, and must keep him according to his knowledge.—George McDonald.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Sales Work Can Remedy Shyness

Gordon shows the "proof of the pudding." Although he had been a shy, embarrassed introvert all his life, he resolutely decided to change his personality. And it worked, even in a few weeks! So scrapbook this case and send for the booklet below. Now is the time to prepare yourself for future success.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case Y-383: Gordon L., aged 19, went to a famous Military Academy last year.

"And I don't mind telling you that most of the men on the campus soon had go through the Appendix wherein you list the various 'Tests for Sweethearts' and other Rating Scales.

DR. CRANE

"But I had been a shy, introvert. I was an only child and not a good social mixer.

"So when we studied your chapter on 'Advertising' I resolved I'd get a sales job this summer and try to see if I could make a success.

"Well, sir, it was tough work, for I do house-to-house selling. And it burned me up when a prospect would slam the door in my face, as sometimes happened.

"But I kept it up, though I felt exhausted at night. It took a lot out of me. But I made a good record and was second highest in my crew of 12 men, after the first month.

SALES BENEFITS

"But it wasn't the money that did me the most good, for I have learned how to start conversations with strangers.

"And I feel more confident now than I ever did before, especially when I am with people in a social setting.

"I used to be tongue-tied and feel inferior. Now I have gained a lot of poise and self-confidence. In fact, I am sure I'll raise my grade in Public Speaking next semester just because of my summer at selling.

"My parents say I have matured a lot. They feel I have aged a couple of years in two months, and I believe they are right.

"And I get along with girls much better than before. I notice that women like men who can talk and steer conversation smoothly.

"I wouldn't take $1,000 for my few weeks at selling. I'll never be the same embarrassed, shy person again."

SELLING WORKS MAGIC

Every teacher and preacher, as well as every physician and dentist, business retailer and counter clerk, is working in the sales field.

So it would be a great boon to all of these groups if they could serve even a three-months apprenticeship in door-to-door selling of magazines or brushes before they leave school.

Nor would a preacher let his parishioners doze in the pews while he delivered a dry, undramatic speech.

And doctors of all types would be far more attentive to the vocabulary level of their patients and be sure they put their ideas across.

For selling is universal training for all workers who must "front" before the public, and these include not just the official insurance and auto salesmen, but all professional men and teachers, preachers and merchants.

Salesmanship makes people socially more assured, so they radiate greater confidence and thus become better leaders.

They become more extroverted and thus pay closer heed to the changes of expression on the faces of their prospects.

"Salesmen," said the late Dr. Glenn Frank, "are the spark plugs of civilization."

They indirectly produced the industrial plants that saved us in all our wars.

So send for my booklet, "New Psychology of Sales & Advertising," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents (non-profit).

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 4c stamped self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Somewhere on Freeway System

Furniture Vanishes

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Most of the worldy possessions of the Roy Wheelers of St. Louis are apparently in orbit on the Los Angeles freeway system.

★ ★ ★

When the Wheelers ventured into the jetstream of traffic on one of the major freeways last Wednesday, William Flowers and their furniture were right behind in Flowers' truck, just as they had been all the way from St. Louis.

Moments later, Flowers, furniture and truck had disappeared in the swirling eddies of the multi-level interchange joining four freeways.

★ ★ ★

The Wheelers have been waiting ever since for some word from their friend. They went to police and were assured that if Flowers' truck is spotted it will be directed to their motel.

Troy Police Wear Fancy New Insignia

Designed by a member of the force, William J. Canavally, it is a shoulder patch showing a red map of New York state against a black background and topped by a red, white and blue Uncle Sam's hat with a white beard flowing from beneath it.

A gold star flanks each side of the hat, and the whole badge is edged with Navy blue piping. The patch, worn on the left sleeve, also glitters with "City of Troy" in gold letter across the top of the map and "Police Department" at the bottom.

The Thompson submachine gun, Calibre .45 — one of the most effective weapons used by the U.S. Infantry in World War II — weighs 10.8 pounds.

Two More Ships Radioactivated

Japanese Hands Under Observation in Hospital After Exposure

TOKYO (AP)—Two more Japanese ships were reported today to have been exposed to radioactivity from U.S. nuclear tests in the Pacific between July 12 and 14.

One was the 6,307-ton Kazukawa Maru. Fifty-one of its crewmen are under observation at Kobe Hospital, two with low white blood corpuscle counts although they are not ill.

The other ship was the 6,887-ton freighter Eiho Maru. A spokesman for the owner said 15 of its crewmen were diagnosed last Friday as having slightly low white corpuscle counts but doctors said they were not ill. The men are now on the Eiho Maru bound for Malaya.

Both ships encountered radioactivity on voyages from Australia to Japan. Some sailors on the Kazukawa Maru reportedly suffered headaches and diarrhea when the ship passed 900 miles west of the U. S. proving grounds at Eniwetok, but recovered.

★ ★ ★

Two Japanese coast guard vessels, the Satsuma and the Takuyo, got a heavy radioactive dusting July 14 but preliminary medical examinations indicated the crew suffered no significant effects. The sailors are now under observation in Tokyo.

See Outer Space Plane Finished in December

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—The first plane designed to carry man into outer space — North American's X15 — is expected to be completed in December and flown two months later.

Walter C. Williams, member of the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics at Edwards Air Force Base near Los Angeles, told a space exploration conference: "After a series of ground and captive flight tests under the B52 mother ship, the first X15 flight is scheduled for February 1959."

2 Meet Earlier Than Planned —in Collision

MALIBU, Calif. (AP) — Two men met about an hour earlier than they had planned last night. The cars they were driving sideswiped each other 30 miles south of where they were to meet.

The drivers were Jack Hope, comedian Bob Hope's brother and business manager; and Leroy W. Thomas.

They had agreed by telephone earlier in the day to meet at the naval base to plan a Bob Hope show.

A highway patrolman said the collision occurred when Hope pulled out of a cafe three miles north of here as Thomas' station wagon was passing. Both cars were damaged. Neither driver was hurt.

Gov. Williams to Tour State

He'll Launch Campaign for Re-Election Friday at Ypsilanti

LANSING (AP)—Gov. Williams has announced plans for the start of a campaign tour that will take him into all of Michigan's 83 counties.

Williams began his political career in 1948 with a talk to a few followers at Ypsilanti in a successful try to unseat then Republican Governor Kim Sigler.

The campaign swing will start Monday with visits to major towns in Oscoda and Ogemaw Counties. Prudenville, Roscommon, Luzerne, Mio, West Branch and Rose City are in the visiting list.

Tuesday, Williams will visit Iosco, Alcona and Alpena Counties. He will be in Montmorency, Crawford, Kalkaska and Grand Traverse Counties Wednesday. Antrim, Charlevoix and Emmet Counties will be toured Thursday and Otsego, Presque Isle and Cheboygan Counties on Friday.

★ ★ ★

On Saturday he will visit Camp Grayling to review National Guard troops in training on the annual Governor's Day.

Senate Eyes State Park

WASHINGTON (AP) — A House-passed bill calling for a state recreational area within Fort Custer, near Battle Creek, Mich., has been approved by the Senate Armed Services Committee. Under the measure, the state would be given criminal jurisdiction within the confines of the proposed park.

For Persons Arrested Nights, Weekends

Security Bond Schedule OK'd

City commissioners have approved a schedule of security bonds payable by persons arrested at night or on weekends on charges of violation of local ordinances.

By paying the bonds, arrested persons will not have to remain in jail overnight until Municipal Court opens in the morning and they can be arraigned.

Security bonds can also be posted by persons arrested on weekends, the Commission decided. At present, weekend prisoners are held in jail until court bonds can be set at Monday arraignments.

The new bonding system is designed to insure the presence of persons at arraignment, without having to keep them in jail. If a person so bonded fails to show up at arraignment, his bond could be declared forfeited, the Commission ruled.

Security bonds, payable to the police department, are to be paid in cash only, the Commission decided. These rates were set:

Driving under the influence of liquor—$100. Reckless driving—$50; reckless driving where there has been an injury accident—$100. Maintaining or operating an illegal liquor or gambling place—$100; loitering in such a place—$25. Drunk and disorderly conduct—$35. Disorderly conduct — $25. Other misdemeanor violations of city ordinances—$50.

Commissioners decided the security bonds are to be accepted by the officer on duty at the main police department desk. When the court opens, they will be transferred to the court clerk.

It was stated as part of the Commission's policy that the new bonding system would not interfere with the Police Department's power "to detain persons otherwise lawfully arrested on suspicion of a felony."

The Commission also specified that security bonds would not be accepted from persons "in a mental or physical state of disturbance." This was interpreted to include persons who are drunk or mentally unbalanced.

Say Warner Property Worth Several Million

The will, filed for probate yesterday, left the widow, Mrs. Rea E. Warner, three fourths of the community property, plus other personal items.

To Fine Jaywalkers

NEW YORK (AP)—Starting today, jaywalkers are liable to a $2 fine. For weeks the Police Department has been conducting an educational campaign for pedestrians.

Speaks in Generalities, Rambling Sentences

Ike Fails to Give Reporters Solid Answers

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower's news conference this week—his first since the Mideast crisis began—was short on solid answers but long on five things which have consistently marked his news conferences.

★ ★ ★

These were a high moral tone, generalities, rambling sentences, vagueness on some very important issues, and an apparent desire not to offend various groups and factions in the United States.

Since taking office in 1953 Eisenhower has repeatedly moralized on issues. Wednesday, defending this country against Soviet charges of Mideast aggression, he talked at length about freedom and liberty for small nations.

But he was far from specific when it came to explaining his administration's ideas for maintaining tranquility and stability in the area. To quote his own words, he said he would have to talk "in the generality."

When Eisenhower speaks he sounds emphatic and positive even when he's generalizing. But when his words are examined later in transcript it is often difficult to be sure of exactly what he means.

This is because he has a habit of letting his sentences ramble—scrambling them by starting sentences within sentences and leaving them unfinished. This was particularly apparent in about his first two White House years.

Then his sentence structure seemed to improve. He sounded more precise. In that time, of course, he had acquired a much firmer grasp of his job and the problems of government.

Nevertheless, in these past few months he's returned to rambling-scrambling.

Secretary of State Dulles, on the other hand, is extremely articulate and grammatical in his news conferences. He's a lawyer and it shows. His ideas are well and quickly organized in tidy sequence.

Two of the most important issues facing this country now are a solution of the Middle East problem and, in keeping with the Supreme Court's order, getting on with public school integration in the South, which opposes racial mixing.

On both issues Eisenhower was vague Wednesday. It seemed clear from what he said he does not have now a thought-out plan for the Middle East or the school question.

Asked if he had any plans to head off tension in the South in the upcoming school year by personal action, talks or instructions to the Justice Department, he said:

He hadn't planned any speeches. He had long tried to point out that "mere law" will never solve the problem and that he believes "we have got to look within ourselves."

But he was careful not to say—as he has always been careful in his public statements in this field—anything which might offend white Southerners. Despite repeated questions in the past, he's even avoided saying whether he approves the Supreme Court decision.

This avoidance of offense has been characteristic of Eisenhower, going back to his earliest days in the presidency, except during a political campaign when he does his job as a Republican politician and kicks the Democrats.

For example: Even during the climatic days of the career of the late Sen. Joseph McCarthy (R-Wis), and even after McCarthy was publicly taking swipes at him, Eisenhower leaned over backwards to avoid offending McCarthy or his followers.

About one-half the residents of Paris were born and reared in this city.

Pests cause up to $3.6 billion a year in damage to crops, forests and livestock but modern insecticides and chemical research are cutting the losses steadily each year.

Water Diversion Gains Support

Chicago Bid Expected to Finally Progress in Washington Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—A bill to permit increased Lake Michigan water diversion by Chicago was expected today to make its first legislative progress in more than a year.

The Senate Rivers and Harbors Subcommittee was set to approve the measure, passed by the House in May 1957, without a comma changed.

Sen. Everett M. Dirksen (R-Ill) pleaded with the subcommittee yesterday not to stymie the diversion bill's race against the clock by amending the House version.

He said an amended bill, even if passed by the Senate, would wind up in a time-consuming Senate-House conference committee where foes would try to stall it until Congress adjourns.

Capitol Hill sources indicated the subcommittee would not write a compromise drafted by the Eisenhower Administration into the bill but would include it in the report on the measure.

Action by the full Public Works Committee was expected to follow shortly, possibly by a poll of its members without a formal meeting.

The compromise specifies that increased diversion of 1,000 cubic feet a second sought by Chicago would be limited to one year with the remainder of the three-year period called for by the bill devoted to testing.

Iraq Orders People Back to Work

BAGHDAD (AP) — Iraq's new government told the people today they've celebrated the overthrow of the royal regime enough—it's time to go back to work.

The Interior Ministry banned all demonstrations in the capital, saying the people have shown enough admiration and sympathy for the new republican government.

★ ★ ★

Hundreds from the provinces have been arriving in Baghdad daily to salute the new government chiefs. Demonstrations yesterday—the biggest yet—stopped traffic in the main streets for two hours.

★ ★ ★

"The situation obliges us all to work and to give a chance to responsible men to continue their work," the Interior Ministry said in asking the country folk to stay home.

University's Old Spires to Stay Up

LONDON (AP)—The drive for money to save the spires of Oxford, which are in danger of tumbling down from sheer old age, has gone over the top with the help of a million dollars from America.

Lord Bridges, chairman of the historic university's building appeal, announced last night that the minimum goal of $4,900,000 had been met.

The biggest single contribution — a million dollars — came from the Ford Foundation.

The ivy-covered buildings built from the 13th century onward have been steadily eaten away during the past 50 years by the smoke and fumes of the industrial town that has grown up around them.

Experts have warned that if restorative and preventive measures aren't taken soon, Britain's oldest university will have to look for new lodgings.

In anticipation of success in the fund drive, work on restoring the ancient buildings had gone steadily ahead.

U.S. Planes Allowed to Fly Over Israel

AMMAN, Jordan (UPI)—Israel has been allowing American but not British planes to fly over its territory on supply runs from Cyprus to Amman, reliable sources said today.

No reason was given for the ban on British flights.

Six U.S. Globemasters carrying aviation fuel and stores for British troops in Amman arrived here after an Anglo-American airlift was resumed.

The airlift had been suspended for four days because Israel withdrew permission for the flights. Then Israel gave a go-ahead for U.S. flights.

Ah, This Is Cat Heaven!

OAK RIDGE, Tenn. (AP) — It must have looked like paradise to the stray cat which wandered into an Oak Ridge laboratory containing more than 150,000 mice. He ate eight mice before employes caught him.

Rabbit Chases, Bites Dog

May Not Reply to Soviet Note

Ike, Dulles Feel Points Raised Will Be Handled by U.N. Assembly

WASHINGTON (AP) — With a U. N. General Assembly session already called, President Eisenhower may decide against making a formal reply to his newest letter from Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

Khrushchev suggested the Assembly meeting Tuesday in a note which rejected earlier proposals for a summit meeting of the U. N. Security Council. Eisenhower accepted the idea promptly in a public statement, and the Council ordered an Assembly meeting which starts late today.

Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles were reported to have the possibility of a reply under consideration. But State Department officials said various other points raised by Khrushchev might be adequately dealt with in the General Assembly debate on the Middle East situation.

In his Tuesday letter, Khrushchev assailed United States and British military intervention in the Middle East, denounced the Security Council as a tool of the United States and demanded immediate withdrawal of troops from Lebanon and Jordan.

The emergency meeting of the General Assembly, probably starting next week, could provide a forum for indirect reply to Khrushchev's charges.

★ ★ ★

Dulles arrived in Washington yesterday after three days of conferences in Brazil. He started intensive work on U. S. proposals which the President may make personally to the Assembly for dealing with the Middle Eastern crisis.

Mayor Will Relinquish Town Hall Ownership

DRAPER, N.C. (AP) — Mayor Harry Lindsey, perhaps the only head of a city government in the United States who has owned his Town Hall, will relinquish ownership next month.

When Lindsey took a note for the $20,000 Town Hall four years ago he was a private citizen. In May 1957, he was elected mayor. On July of each year the city has paid him $5,000 on the note; Last month it was paid off.

Lollipops to Quiet Tots While Mamas Pay Rent

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)— "The most scientific way to maintain peace and efficiency while 2,000 mothers pay their monthly rent is to quiet their youngsters with lollipops."

Dutch Elm Disease is very serious in 1958.

The disease, which first began to appear in Detroit in 1950, each year is spreading in all directions by two species of small beetles. Though we have known the disease in the Pontiac area for the past four years, circumstances are making 1958 the most serious year yet experienced.

Because of the intensive campaign by many cities and towns to control the disease, many inquiries have come to me concerning the course of action of residents outside of control areas.

It is the state and county who does the inspecting for infected trees, and the state and county who can enforce removal. The big problem is, why do they inspect and condemn trees in some areas, yet not others.

This choice of areas proves to depend on the area itself. These beetles can fly up to 500 feet from an infected tree. To prevent this fly-in problem, all the residences of an area must be inspected.

In each of these control areas the residents have had to volunteer themselves for inspection. This requires the mayor, city manager or subdivision president, contacting the district representative of the State of Michigan, and asking for inspection. The state then can assign a state inspector to carefully survey all the trees within the area. Any suspicious trees are then sampled and these samples sent to a state laboratory.

If the fungus is recovered from the sample, a letter of condemnation is sent to the owner involved. Dead trees and elm wood is also condemned because they are possible breeding sites of the beetles.

Who sprays trees in these areas? One of the requirements of the state is the spraying of trees on public property. This means places like roadsides, parks, so these trees would not menace trees on private property.

Many subdivisions and small residential groups have found the cost of buying their own spraying equipment beyond their means. Yet others have been able to subcontract this obligation very reasonably. In some cases nearby cities or towns have accepted such contracts to help pay for their own equipment. Many private operators are contracting to spray elm trees, and should be invited to bid on such contracts.

What about trees on private property? Any elms within the boundaries of the lot line are the responsibility of the property owner. If it is in a control area, it must be removed if it becomes infected. Yet the owner has no obligation to spray this tree if he does not desire to do so. Any elm tree within a control area is much less likely to become infected. But spraying is the only way to be fairly safe.

Many tests point to the necessity of two sprays for elm trees each year. There are an early spring spray and again in July.

Does spraying help when nearby dead and dying trees are not removed? I think this question can always be answered "yes," it does help. There is still a chance that a tree may die, even when it was sprayed. But the chance of it becoming infected after being sprayed is pretty small. Where neighborhood trees are dying, spraying is the only reasonable hope of protection.

Can infected trees be cured? To the best of my knowledge, there is no sure cure. Such trees as Chinese and Siberian elms are occasionally infected, but rarely die. For most purposes, these trees are considered immune.

Best Gardens 'Go to the Pot'

Some of the best gardens in the country have gone to pot these days. Not only pots, but boxes, tubs, crocks and all kinds of containers are being used to hold plants.

Portable plantings are becoming more popular because they offer easier maintenance and greater flexibility in the garden.

Wood is a popular material for home-made planter boxes, since it is durable and easily obtainable. A wooden planter box is relatively easy to build, and can be finished to match the color of the house.

The three planter boxes pictured above are made of an exterior-type (waterproof) fir plywood called Texture One-Eleven. Since this type of plywood comes with the vertical grooves already cut for a decorative effect, the boxes are simple enough for a gardener to build on a rainy day.

If you don't have a power saw, these boxes can be built with ordinary hand tools. Or, you could have the parts cut out at the lumber yard where you buy the plywood. Drainage holes should be drilled in the bottom panels, and the inside should be finished with an asphalt emulsion.

Treating the plywood with one of the wood preservative chemicals will retard decay. In construction of the boxes, use waterproof glue along the joints.

Remember to place a shallow drip pan under the planter boxes if you move them inside.

Apply Fertilizer to Fall Pastures

Top-dressing permanent pastures this fall with nitrogen-phosphate-potash fertilizers will add extra days to the grazing season, push the pastures off to a faster start early next spring, and produce higher yields of good quality, low-cost feed per acre.

That was the statement of the midwest division of the National Plant Food Institute, in citing statements by midwestern agronomists.

"Prof. C. J. Chapman, University of Wisconsin extension soils specialist reports that fall-fertilized pastures are ready for grazing a week to 10 days earlier in the spring than unfertilized pastures," says the Institute.

Pasture demonstrations with nitrogen - phosphate - potash fertilizer such as 10-10-10, 12-12-12 and 13-13-13, have shown that the plant food can return as much as $3 for each dollar invested in fertilizer, according to Chapman.

Briton Builds Castle in Stout Old Willow

POWICK, England (UPI)—Frank Gunnell has been up a tree here for 28 years and likes it.

The 46-year-old garbage collector lives in a stout old willow which is about 500 years old. He shares his castle in the air with one dog and one cat, one radio, two record players and six stuffed birds.

Gunnell's castle consists of a "terrace" — a platform made of rough logs about 20 feet long — on which the hut in which he sleeps is supported.

"It's a lovely life," he said.

Strange Things Happen Over Salt Lake Valley

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—A couple of heavenly happenstances jarred and mystified Salt Lake Valley residents last evening.

First there was an explosion, later identified as a sonic boom caused by a plane breaking the sound barrier. Some observers thought they saw a missile and two chase planes in the sky. Newsmen were told that further information was classified, but that the military knew of no missiles over Utah at the time.

Moments later came the balloons — two of them, one leaking an odd-smelling gas. They floated down from the sky and landed southeast of Salt Lake City as Henry Engh, 45, and his family stood in their yard discussing the blast noise.

The boom thunderclapped over some 30 miles of the valley, and many residents ran outside to see what caused it. Many reported seeing the craft overhead — two tiny jets high in the sky following a larger, black craft. No damage was reported.

Maj. Gen. Maxwell E. Rich, Utah's adjutant general, identified the noise as a sonic boom but added: "All other information about it is classified."

He said he saw no connection between the boom and the unmarked balloons. He ordered an Air National Guard unit to take charge of the plastic objects and try to identify them. The Weather Bureau said they weren't theirs.

★ ★ ★

As for the boom, the Strategic Air Command headquarters at Omaha said it had no operational missile units in the Utah area.

Other missile centers and the Defense Department said there was no missile firing yesterday.

Nose Prints Provide Clues to Popularity

CHICAGO (UPI) — Dr. Austin L. Rand, chief curator of zoology Chicago's Natural History Museum, says visitors leave telltale marks of their preferences all over the place.

"The nose prints and the fingerprints that visitors leave in the museum are the best clues we have to the popularity of exhibits," he explained.

He illustrated the point by a comparison of the number of prints found on the case housing the stuffed figure of the famed gorilla, Bushman, and its neighbor which contains a family of hyraxes — timid, rabbit-like creatures from Abyssinia.

Chinese Gift to Art Just Blank Space

Chinese artists long ago discovered in painting and poetry the value of reserve and silence, the invitation to imagination, in a thing left unexpressed.

LONG AND LOVELY—Shirley Thaxton, legal secretary from Cincinnati, is Queen of the Tall People of America, chosen in Cleveland. The 25-year-old beauty is 5-feet-11. Her measurements are 34-21-34.

GM to Hold Conference

DETROIT (AP) — General Motors will hold its third annual summer conference for high school science teachers at the GM Technical Center Aug. 17-23. Seventeen tachers from Michigan, Indiana, Ohio, New York and Illinois are expected to attend.

About one-half of the elementary schools in the U. S. are still of the one-room variety, but they now contain only about five per cent of the grade school enrollment.

Jet Pilots Have Itchy Nose Trial

Scratching One's Head Inside a Flier's Helmet Is Major Problem

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The simple process of scratching one's nose when it itches can be a major problem to a jet pilot flying at high altitudes when his head must be sealed in a pressure helmet.

To open the face plate of the helmet at high altitudes could be extremely dangerous. The pilot knows that he must keep the helmet in place as a safeguard against explosive decompression in the plane's cockpit.

Some just grin and bear the annoyance. Others have found ways to relief through their own crude improvisations — without the aid of science.

Lockheed test pilot Tony LeVier, the first to fly the F-104 Starfighter, recalled that his nose tickled once while flying at a very high altitude, and he found relief by pushing the helmet against his nose and rubbing it hard against the inner side of the transparent face plate. He could scratch his head by holding the helmet and jiggling his head inside.

LeVier said the nose also came in handy as a fog wiper inside the helmet.

Another pilot might find life inside a pressure helmet more difficult, depending on the shape and size of his head, the length of his nose and the type and fit of the helmet.

Douglas test pilot Bill Bridgeman, who has flown the Douglas Skyrocket and F4D, said his nose always begins to itch when he knows he can't get to his face. He usually squashes his head around inside the helmet but is unable to get to the side of his nose.

If a pilot has to blow his nose, it's even worse. Al White, test pilot for North American's F-100, said he feels like blowing his nose "at least five times" during a flight to clear a clogged sinus. But there is nothing he can do about it inside the contraption.

The only real solution to the problem appears to be to return to the ground and take the darned thing off.

Don't Expect Song to Sing Here Long

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Song sang yesterday but he apparently won't sing much more in the United States.

Federal authorities claim Song B. Kim entered this country illegally seven years ago. They plan to ship him back to Korea Saturday or Sunday.

Kim, 24, claims he is an opera singer. And his baritone voice boomed incessantly through the county jail yesterday.

Kim said being deported would not be so bad, except that he will not be able to appear in New York for an October audition with the Metropolitan Opera.

★ ★ ★

Kim said he jumped ship to become a shipping clerk in Los Angeles. Later, he began singing — first in Los Angeles and then with the chorus of the San Francisco Opera. He was arrested in Los Angeles and brought here for deportation.

Israeli Envoy Asked to Talks in London

PARIS (UPI) — Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd has invited Israeli Foreign Minister Golda Meir to come to London Monday for talks on the Mideastern situation, the Israeli embassy said today.

Mrs. Meir leaves here today for Rome, where she will meet Premier Amintore Fanfani to London from the Italian capital, the embassy said.

The Israeli official has spent most of this week in Paris conferring with Premier Charles de Gaulle and other French officials.

2 Newsboys Killed as Car Hits Scooter

DETROIT (AP)—Two boys were killed when the motor scooter they were using to deliver newspapers was struck in the rear by an automobile last night.

Dead are Max Truax, 13, of Redford Township, and Joseph Maisano, 14, of Livonia. Police said their scooter was struck at a Redford Township intersection.

Coiffures Take On Sculptured Beauty

The bold coiffures shown above are a sample of hair styles prominent beauticians say will look best with the new fall fashions. The "Titus Cut," pictured here is an adaptation of a popular hairdo of the Empire period, featuring a casual rounded silhouette. Short and fluffy, the styling features waved wisps on the forehead and cheek.

A demure center-part keynotes this hairstyle. The hair is combed gently from the part down to the ear-tip. Airy locks of bangs fan across the forehead. At the back, the hair is combed up from the nape into a Psyche knot of curls, creating a look of classical beauty.

Coils of hair dramatically draped around the back of the head highlight this hairdo. Flattened waves stem from the center part and curl over the ear to taper at the neck. Wisps of hair are pulled over the forehead from a triangular hairline. Fashion experts say this style is reminiscent of "Sphinxes."

Consult Family on Color Choice

AMES, Iowa (UPI) — Be choosey when buying a major appliance in color, says a home management specialist.

Kitchen appliances get 12 to 15 years of use, so the color must be one the family can "live with."

Colors should be chosen to harmonize with counter tops, floor, and walls. Never choose a color without consulting the rest of the family, she added.

Mrs. Franklin Mills of Birmingham, Mrs. Erwin Slater and Mrs. Ronald L. Laity of Jackson, Mrs. Norman Nelson of Rochester, Mrs. Donald G. Upton, Mrs. Donald F. Upton and Mrs. Edward Brown of Belleville, Ontario, completed the guest list.

Goes Far Back in Society

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: You often have spoken of the rudeness of one who signs a letter Mrs. or Miss as part of her signature but you never have explained why this is rude. I personally do not see how a question of rudeness can be involved. I would be very much interested to hear why you consider this rude."

Answer: According to a fixed and long established rule of social usage, it is proper that a lady sign her name Mrs. John Brown only when writing to a servant in her own employ, or to someone whose social standing definitely is below her own. Obviously, therefore, a letter signed Mrs. Smith announces quite as plainly as though the words were expressed that the writer assumes herself to be of a higher social class than the person written to.

"Dear Mrs. Post: My son is going to be married shortly. I have been told that I will be escorted up the aisle by an usher with my husband following. Is this proper?"

Answer: What you have been told is correct. You walk up the aisle on the arm of the head usher and your husband follows alone behind you and takes his place in the pew beside you.

"Dear Mrs. Post: When acknowledging wedding presents from a married couple, is the note sent to Mrs. alone or to Mr. and Mrs.?"

Answer: Either way is considered proper, but usually the note is sent to Mrs. alone and begins, "Dear Mrs. Smith, Thank you and Mr. Smith . . . . etc."

What to Expect From Basic Suit

IOWA CITY, Iowa (UPI) — A woman's wardrobe should include one dependable basic suit which can be worn anywhere for at least three seasons of the year, Mercer, home economics instructor at the University of Iowa, advises.

"You may have to spend extra time and money in finding your basic suit, but it will last at least five or six years," she said. "This suit should be the soft, dressmaker type, neither too dressy nor severely tailored."

Keep Spine Straight

Posture Helps Pretty Neck Line

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN
(The Friday Question Box)

Q. "My neck has become wrinkled and I have lines on the back and sides. They run down under my chin in front. Can you help me?"

A. The lines probably were caused primarily by poor posture. You have not kept the spine straight through the region of the neck. Lessening of fat between the skin and the muscles and increasing dryness also play a part, but posture is the main cause.

Try this: Lie on the floor with your arms resting on the floor at your sides. Bend both knees, place feet flat on the floor. Try to flatten your neck against the floor, making your neck as long as possible. Hold while you count to 10 slowly. Rest and continue.

Q. "I am 42 years old and last summer I lost 12 pounds. But I had so many wrinkles and so much loose skin on my neck that I looked years older. Is there any way to reduce without having this happen?"

A. A loss of 12 pounds should not have this effect unless you were not overweight to start with, or unless you did not eat a well-balanced reducing diet. You did not give me your height and weight but I suspect that your present poundage may be correct for you.

Q. "I am 18 years old and weigh 109 pounds. I am 5 feet, 3 inches tall. Everyone tells me that I am underweight but I don't think I am. Please tell me what you think."

A. You probably should gain a few pounds, from five to eight.

Q. "I am 16 years old, four feet and 10 inches tall and weigh 90 pounds. Am I underweight? My biggest problem is eating. I usually do not eat my breakfast or hardly any lunch. Then about four o'clock in the afternoon I am so hungry that I eat everything in sight. Then I am not hungry for about a day again."

A. You are some underweight. I imagine that you should gain eight or 10 pounds. You are doing yourself a great disservice in the way you eat. You may ruin your health if you continue. It is a cinch you do not get a well balanced diet if you eat what happens to be around at four in the afternoon.

For your own sake I hope you remedy this habit. You do not have to stuff at any meal but you need eggs and cereals and fruit juice and meat and potatoes and fresh vegetables and fruits. Unless you change your eating habits you may suffer because of them in the future.

Q. "I have taken every exercise you have prescribed for waist reduction and also a few others, but I haven't lost even a fraction of an inch. I have been taking them for three months. Can you tell me what to do? Could it be because I am shortwaisted?"

A. If you have done the exercises faithfully and daily for three months and have not lost in inches, it is probably a case of build rather than fat.

Q. "I have a sort of square jawline. What shape frames should my eyeglasses be?"

A. Be certain that the shape of the frames is not at all square in effect. Those with an upsweep will be flattering.

Tomorrow: "Diet You Must — But Have Choice of Diets."

To straighten spine and posture flatten your neck on the floor making neck as long as possible. Hold while you count to 10.

With Complaining Relatives—Abby

Patient Losing Patience

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

"DEAR ABBY: I am a patient in a hospital and have multiple ailments, but let's not go into that. I am practically a permanent invalid, but my problem is not me, it's my visitors. Most of my visitors are better for me than medicine, but this one aunt and uncle who visit me irritate me so much I wish they'd stay home.

ABBY

"They come in complaining about how hard it was for them to get up here. Then they start telling me about all the bad news in the family. Then they complain about how bad business is and also how poor their health is and end up telling me MY illness is all in my head and I should snap out of it. What do you do with people like that?"

SICK OF RELATIVES

DEAR SICK: Patients who are irritated by visitors should enlist the co-operation of their doctors. Simply have the doctor tell them they are not to visit unless called — and don't call them.

★ ★ ★

"DEAR ABBY: We adopted a lovely baby and after having him for two months we had to return him to his unwed mother. We are both heartbroken and it will probably take a long time to get another one. I would like your advice as to what we should do with all the gifts people gave us for this baby.

"We acknowledged them all immediately and most came from out-of-town. We feel funny now because we have the baby gifts and no baby. My closest friends said they'd be hurt if we returned them. Awaiting your helpful reply."

SAD PARENTS

DEAR PARENTS: Keep the gifts for your next baby. The givers would want it that way. Good luck!

★ ★ ★

"DEAR ABBY: My mother-in-law is part French and has lived in France most of her life. She says the beauty operators over there have known for a long time that women who were heavy smokers in their younger years always started to grow dark mustaches after they reached forty. The glands, she says, are stimulated by the nicotine. Is there any truth to this?"

DOLORES

DEAR DOLORES: If nicotine stimulates the growth of hair (be it on a woman's face or a man's head) this is one "claim" the cigarette advertisers have not yet discovered. I'm no authority on glands or the effects of nicotine, but I suspect this tale is without foundation.

"DEAR ABBY: I am the 'good kid' of the family. I've always knocked myself out for my husband's relatives. When they come to visit me I make them feel so welcome with cooking, baking and cleaning up after them they never leave.

"My sister-in-law doesn't bother with company. She doesn't cook or bake one thing extra. She lets everything lay where they dropped it and practicaly ignores them. They call her a slob and it's like water rolling off a duck's back. If anybody called me a slob I'd cry for a week. Why can't I be like my sister-in-law?"

CLEO

DEAR CLEO: Because you're a lady — not a slob.

"DEAR ABBY. Maybe this will help some other married woman to think twice before she makes a mess of her life like I did. I had been married 16 years, am 35 years old and my husband is 38. I started work to help buy a few extras and his was my mistake.

"I should have stayed home where I belonged. I got mixed up with a married man. I broke up his home, my husband left me and I lost my kids. All this happened in 14 months because I thought the things that money can buy were important. Take my advice, ladies. Stay home and let your husbands support you."

A DARNED FOOL

CONFIDENTIAL TO B. F.: A "house-warming" with two ex-wives could sizzle. Better revise your guest list.

Fruit Cocktail Mix Adds Color to Cabbage Salad

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Cabbage is delicious now with new heads crisp and green. Mrs. Elwyn Tripp suggests a recipe for cabbage salad with fruit added. She says her children just love it.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Tripp is the vice president of the local Girl Scout Council; as such she coordinates all the committees. With three children in school (there's a baby at home), it is natural that she should be a homeroom mother too.

CABBAGE FRUIT SALAD
By Mrs. Elwyn Tripp

1 half head cabbage, shreded fine.
1 can (No. 303) fruit cocktail, drained.
1 cup miniature marshmellows.
1 banana sliced.
Dates and nuts if desired.
½ cup mayonnaise.
1 cup whipped cream.

Use ¼ cup sugar to sweeten the whipped cream. Mix all ingredients together and let stand in refrigerator several hours. Serve on lettuce leaves.

If Husband Thinks It's Nagging, It Is

By RUTH MILLETT

"Would you please define the word 'nagging' so my husband can understand what it means?" asks a wife. "I can't make a reasonable request, suggestion or reminder without being accused of 'nagging'."

Never mind the real meaning of the word. All that matters so far as you are concerned is what your husband considers to be "nagging."

Next time he accuses you of nagging when you ask him to do something, try to find out just why it is that he thinks you are nagging him.

Maybe it's the tone of your voice. Even a reasonable request can sound like nagging if your voice whines, or sounds irritated.

Maybe you have picked an inconvenient moment to make your request. Some women always seem to wait until a man gets comfortable to ask him to get up and do something. When that happens all the time, it's nagging so far as the man is concerned.

A COMPLAINT?

Perhaps you begin your requests or reminders or suggestions with a complaint. So that even before you get around to making your perfectly reasonable request you've put your husband on guard, and anything you ask he'll regard as nagging.

Or maybe you are the kind of person who wants everything done right now or at your own convenience, and you are impatient if your husband says he'll do it later. If you do want everything done on your own time schedule, a man might easily regard such requests as nagging.

Few, if any, women ever admit that they are naggers, because they don't realize they are. They always think they are being reasonable.

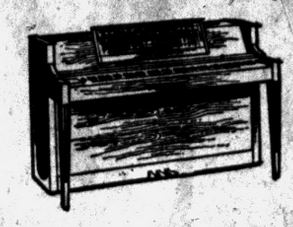

But when a man accuses his wife of nagging, she ought to try to find out why. Because the real problem isn't whether or not she is a nagger—but why her husband thinks she is.

Little Black Dress Makes Comeback

The woman who's been asking "what ever become of the little black dress" now has the answer. It is back full scale, in both crepe and wool, in both slim and full-skirted silhouettes.

Designer Jane Derby features a whole group of black crepes with the Empire waistline. One of them has knife pleats falling from beneath the bosom all the way to the hem, for a silhouette similar to the Dior trapeze.

Wolverine Lake Hearing Slated

Council to Submit Costs for Repair of Oak Island Bridge to Residents

WOLVERINE LAKE — A public hearing has been scheduled for 7 p. m. Monday by Wolverine Lake Village Council to submit costs for the repair of Oak Island bridge to the residents of the island.

A previous public hearing was held to set up a special assessment district to defray the cost of the bridge repairs.

If public approval is received at the Monday meeting at the Village Hall, the council probably will let the contract for the work as soon as practicable, according to John C. Finlayson, village clerk.

No further hearings are scheduled for the proposed special assessment district for the paving of Wolverine Drive and Amenia Drives since public objections were voiced at the last public hearing.

HAZEL LEE MILLER

Mr. and Mrs. Royal McGill of 4788 Hillcrest Dr., Waterford, have announced the engagement of their niece, Hazel Lee Miller, to Clyde Kizer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Kizer of 80 N. Main St., Clarkston. A student at East Michigan College, the prospective bridegroom is a member of Sigma Tau Gamma fraternity. The wedding date hasn't been set.

Tire Explodes in Rochester Garage

Detroiter Seriously Hurt

ROCHESTER—A Detroit man was injured seriously yesterday afternoon at the Houghten and Son, Inc., garage, 528 N. Main St., when the inner tube of a large tractor tire he was putting air into exploded.

★ ★ ★

He is James Lucien, 36, an employe at the garage. He was taken to Avon Center Hospital and later moved to St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital in Pontiac where his condition was described as fair this morning.

Lucien suffered cuts, back and chest injuries.

The explosion blew the tire off the rim and split the tube all the way down the middle, Rochester Police said. They believed Lucien may have put too much air in the tube.

The blast, which happened at 3:30 p.m., during yesterday's rainstorm, sounded like two trains colliding, a neighbor said.

Romeo Board Delays High School Dedication

ROMEO — At a special meeting last night, Romeo School Board members postponed the dedication of the new high school from Aug. 31, the date they had tentatively set, to the early part of October.

Cause of the postponement was delay in completion of the gymnasium floor they said.

Supt. T. C. Filppula assured the board, however, the new school will be ready for the opening of the fall term, Sept. 4.

Board members then approved the purchase of a number of pieces of equipment, plus several new textbooks. In addition, they accepted the low bid of $861.40 submitted by Peter Hixson of Washington for construction of sidewalks leading to the new high school.

The board hired three new teachers and learned that four more still are needed before school starts next month.

Among the other items of business resolved last night was the agreement by board members to borrow $50,000 from the American State Bank in Lansing against future state aid payments for operating expenses during the 1958-59 school year.

The superintendent's contract also was renewed for the coming school year with a raise in pay.

Members granted permission to the Romeo Rotary Club to stage a horse show at the east end of the Croswell street school property during the Peach Festival Labor Day weekend. Proceeds from the event will go to the new community hospital.

Commerce Board Plans to Review Fire Ordinance

COMMERCE TOWNSHIP — A proposed fire ordinance will be studied by the Commerce Township Board at its regular meeting at 7:30 tonight at the Township Hall.

The ordinance is patterned after the Michigan State Fire Marshal's ordinance, according to Supervisor Thomas C. Tiley. Board action on the matter will probably take place at a later meeting, he said.

Another subject likely to be discussed at the meeting is the possibility of transferring responsibility for township water systems to the Oakland County Department of Public Works.

There are now six water systems either in use or under construction in the township.

Two Women Injured in Crash on Auburn

ROCHESTER—Two young women were injured slightly yesterday afternoon in a two-car accident on Auburn road at Robinhood street in Avon Township.

Helga Hartung, 19, of 1115 Truwood Dr., Rochester, told Romeo State Police she had stopped her car to make a left turn when it was hit from behind by a car driven by Henri Bartlett, 18, of 12533 31-Mile Rd., Romeo.

Miss Bartlett was treated at Avon Center Hospital for leg cuts. She told police she was unable to stop because of slippery pavement.

Slate Public Hearing on Moving U.S. 25

LANSING (AP) — The State Highway Department will hold a public hearing Aug. 19 on a proposed 32.3 mile relocation of U.S. 25 through Macomb and St. Clair counties.

The proposed relocation is part of an interstate highway network that, when completed, will provide direct expressway service from the Ohio border to Detroit and Port Huron via the Detroit-Toledo Expressway in Detroit and connecting with the Edsel Ford Expressway north to Port Huron.

Loses Control of Truck, It Flips; Driver Injured

ARMADA — A Mount Clemens man, driving a Macomb County Road Commission truck, was injured yesterday morning when he lost control of the vehicle and it overturned in a ditch.

Taken to St. Joseph Hospital, Mount Clemens, with cuts and bruises was David Schwalm, 20, of 155 North Ave.

Disc Data and Chatter

Music in the Round

by Dick Saunders

Looking around the local scene it becomes apparent that the bulk of LP business doesn't lie in the hands of teenagers as single record sales do.

While rock 'n' roll sells big in singles, it's a different story in the slightly more expensive bracket. Take the best selling LP down Birmingham way —"Stardust" (Dot 3118) by Pat Boone.

Boone, the boy-faced balladeer in white bucks, is liked by all generations it seems. His LPs always sell like the most, but Elvis enjoys most of his success in the single field.

Out in the Orchard Lake and Walled Lake areas, it's hard to beat Mitch Miller's LP "Sing Along With Mitch" (Columbia CL-1160). This is not exactly what the hipsters would call the rockinest.

This LP too reigns as top seller in Pontiac shops, proving at least that there are still quite a few good old whisky tenors in the crowd (pass the pitch pipe).

In the Bloomfield area it seems that "Taboo" (Hi-Fi R-806) by Arthur Lyman is still tops. This conglomeration of bird calls, oriental jugs, and Hawaiian guitars almost brings hula skirts and pineapple punch into your living room. Again rock 'n' roll is not the order of the day . . . HOORAY!

I can't recommend this enough to the cool school. It's a long awaited gas. Both Baker and Mulligan blow great rings around standards and originals.

Record shelves will glow with this addition. World Pacific has done the jazz world a world of good with this one.

FIVE ACES: Top seller in the Pontiac area this week is "Little Star" by The Elegants. "Just a Dream" by Jim Clinton is second best.

In third slot is the standby "Poor Little Fool" by Ricky Nelson, Perez Prado's goldmine "Patricia" is in fourth slot. In fifth is "Western Movies" by the Olympics.

"Nel Blu De Pinto De Blu" will die. We'll tell you why next week.

TO CONDUCT MEMORIAL RITES IN DETROIT — As the state's top Maccabees team, Lake Hive 281 has been given the honor of conducting Memorial Rites at the 23rd quadrennial Supreme Review Aug. 20 at the Veteran's Memorial Building in Detroit. The group placed first at the Great Camp Convention June 13 in Saginaw in competition with other Michigan teams. The Oxford Hive was second. Founded in 1890 at the old Grange Hall in Lake Orion, the Hive now meets at the Methodist Church House, according to Evelyn Arnold, commander. Referred to as "Ladies of the Maccabees," the Hive members are (standing, from left) Hazel Bond, Frances Hunt, Lepha Decker, Ella Lortz, Ruby Bushman, Della Hull, Ivy Sweet, Sylvia Shafer, Edna Mikesell, Janet Sharrow, Charlotte Lamphier, Pearl Bryant, Helen Wesley, Beatrice Raab, Allece Carrothers; (seated, from left) Bobbi Gunion, Mary McMorran, Ethel Schiek, Adelaide Babcock, Myrtle McKenzie, Evelyn Arnold, Margaret Nolan, Lucille Baggett, Lucille Clark and Martha Harold.

Baseball fans in Pittsburgh have been all aglow over the return to the Majors of Dick Stuart the brash, outspoken slugger who admits to egoism merely by his actions.

When he came up to the Pirates after hitting 66 homers in the Minors in one season, Bobby Bragan, then coach of the Bucs, sent him back down with the comment, "Don't think much of him as ball player."

DICK STUART

In typical Stuart fashion recently, he sent Bragan a note to Spokane, Washington, telling him, "I see you are where you belong and I'm up here where I belong."

Then Stuart, who used to put "66" behind his name in honor of those homers in one season, signed the note to Bragan by dotting the "i" in his first name with a star.

Actually, since his return a few weeks ago to the Big Leagues, Stuart has been hitting only .250 but in his first 20 games he batted in 24 runs, and that's the clutch department.

Fourteen of his first 23 hits have been extra base hits including six homers, and if you ask Pirate fans why the sudden jump from the cellar to third place, they'll say "Stuart is back."

DITTOS FROM THE PRESS BOX

Pontiac's Joy Fair, who last year was Michigan's outstanding hard top racer, now realizes he has made a mistake by changing horses in midstream.

Fair hasn't been in the winner's circle very often this year and he has now decided to remove the supercharger from his car and revert back to the fuel injector which carried him to titles all around the midwest last year.

How about the crowds the American track team is drawing on the European tour? Here in the U. S., the cindermen are lucky enough to draw only the friends and relatives of the participants.

Milwaukee Ace Nears 20 Mark for 9th Time

Spahn Chalks Up 15th Win

By The Associated Press

Think of a 20-game winner and the name of Warren Spahn pops to mind. The Milwaukee left-hander, now 37, is heading toward the 20-mark for the ninth time. If he makes it he will set a modern major league record for left-handed pitchers.

Spahnie is tied with Lefty Grove of the old Philadelphia A's among the southpaws. He still is way behind the top right-handers. Cy Young won 20 or more 16 times over 50 years ago. Christy Mathewson did it 13 times and Walter Johnson 12.

At the rate Spahn is going he will have no trouble making the grade for the third straight year. A three-run rally against Bob Friend in the seventh inning gave Milwaukee a 3-2 decision over Pittsburgh yesterday with Spahn scattering seven hits for his 15th victory. Friend who shut out the Braves for six innings, also was shooting for his 15th.

The Braves pulled seven full games in front of the San Francisco Giants who again ran into rough going at St. Louis. The Cardinals scored early and often in a 12-1 romp behind Sam Jones. The Giants have lost nine of their last 10 since Casey Stengel, New York Yankee manager, called them a "freak team." Milwaukee has won nine of 10.

Philadelphia climbed into fourth by shading Cincinnati 3-2 behind Don Cardwell. Dave Philley's triple and Chico Fernandez' sacrifice fly broke a 2-2 tie in the eighth to beat Bob Purkey.

Johnny Klippstein saved Sandy Koufax in the ninth inning to protect a 3-1 Los Angeles victory over the Chicago Cubs. Despite the sweep of the two-game series, the Dodgers headed home for the Coliseum still in last place.

Friend had a 1-0 lead and a two-hit shutout going to the seventh at Milwaukee, Red Schoendienst opened with a single and Eddie Mathews hit his 23rd home run. A single by Hank Aaron, a sacrifice and a single by Frank Torre added the third run.

The revived Cardinals, who couldn't score a run last week, battered loser Mike McCormick and two others for 13 hits. The Cardinals have a total of 33 runs and 46 hits in their last three games. Stan Musial's two hits in three trips gave him the batting lead at .346 to .344 for the Phils' Richie Ashburn.

★ ★ ★

Jones, who usually has to struggle along with little help from Cardinal bats, had an 8-0 lead after three innings. He struck out seven and lost his shutout in the ninth. He leads both majors with 146 strikeouts and is the earned run leader in the National.

Manager Billy Rigney of the Giants was ejected by umpire Al Barlick when he and Ramon Monzant objected to a call of a third ball.

The Phillies had a 2-0 edge going into the seventh when Bob Thurman's third single, a single by Don Hoak and a two-run double by Bailey evened matters. Ed Bouchee's single drove in the first Phil run and Cardwell's single knocked in the second. Ashburn had two hits, a double and a single.

★ ★ ★

Koufax was rolling along with a four-hitter when he walked Ernie Banks and Bobby Thomson with one out in the ninth. Klippstein got Lee Walls on a game-ending double play. Koufax struck out 10 for his ninth victory. Los Angeles' winning pair of runs in the fifth off Marcelino Solis, the Mexican southpaw, were unearned. Bobby Thomson's 14th homer produced the only Cub run.

Albert Thomas Is Clocked at 8:32 in 2-Mile

Derek Ibbotson Wants to Meet Elliott in Mile at Edinburgh

DUBLIN (AP) — Australians Herb Elliott and Albert Thomas packed their record-breaking cleats for Edinburgh today. Behind them they left shattered world records for the mile and two mile runs. The glowing hearts of Irishmen went with them.

Elliott Wednesday set a great mark of 3:54.5 for the mile on the newly-laid, $56,000 Santry Stadium track. Thomas yesterday established the world's best time for the two miles with a 8:32 clocking. They had made the Santry track famous for all time.

"Now we go to Edinburgh and Scotland," the 23-year-old Thomas said. "There, on Saturday, we'll compete in the Highland games."

Commented Elliott: "I'm looking forward to Edinburgh, and it's probably the mile for me."

Somebody else who is hoping the 20-year-old Elliott runs the mile in Edinburgh is England's Derek Ibbotson. The 26-year-old Englishman had the world's best time of 3:57.2 before Elliott's fantastic clocking.

Ibbotson's time never was ratified as a world mark because of possible pacing complications. And this season Ibbotson has failed to hit the peak form that made him the "king of the milers" last season.

But Ibbotson still maintains he's "the tops." And he's entered for the mile at Edinburgh.

Thomas, 5-5 Australian clerk, broke the world two mile record last night after Elliott had set the pace for the five laps. Thomas pushed ahead on the sixth lap and then raced away on his own to a world standard and a 25 yards lead over Elliott.

Elliott was timed second in 8:37.6. The listed world mark of 8:33.4 was set by Hungary's Sandor Iharos in London May 30, 1955.

In that mile Thomas set the pace for the first two laps. Then Merv Lincoln of Australia took over, followed by the powerful Elliott who surged ahead to victory and a mile time that looks like it'll stand for years. Thomas finished fifth in 3:58.6.

Last night Elliott set the pace and Thomas moved ahead for the kill and the world record.

4 Holes, 560 Yards, Par 11

Found—a Course Where Ike Can Hit Under 70

BUDAPEST (AP) — The Air Free golf course on the Hills of Buda is probably the only course in the world where President Eisenhower could break 70.

It is unlikely that the President ever will get a chance to shoot the hilly course. It nestles deep in the heart of Communist territory.

He said as much in a thank-you note to the Air Free members who sent him a life membership card in the form of a silver tray. The members work mostly at the American Legation in Budapest, with a few others drawn from the legations of other Western countries.

Joe Stammel, a Hungarian who calls himself "the poorest golf pro on earth," gives lessons, acts as greenkeeper and gardener. He fills and empties the adjacent swimming pool, tends bar, sweeps up and acts as caddy when some of the large legation brass turn up. He also laid out the course.

Greens or tees are at each end of the arms of the "X" and when you tee off at the third your ball carries across a couple of other fairways.

Third is the big one, 170 yarder —back up the hill again to a big green (big by Air Free standards) with a tricky roll — par 3.

Swoon's Son, Round Table in Equipose Mile

By The Associated Press

Round Table and Swoon's Son plus others will meet in the $100,000-added Equipoise Mile tomorrow at Chicago's Arlington Park, and aside from the monetary considerations it should be quite a battle.

The Kerr Stable's Round Table packs 131 pounds, and Gay Drake's Swoon's Son has 129 for the 18th running of this important race named for C. V. Whitney's Equipoise. Twenty six years ago Equipoise, the famed Chocolate Soldier, set Arlington's mile record of 1:34 2-5, and it still stands.

Round Table is the world's second leading money winning horse, with earnings of $1,161,014. The Table is only $127,551 behind the leader, Nashua, who retired in 1956. If he can win the Equipoise, it would take only one more big one to put him past Mr. Millions.

On July 26 Swoon's Son captured the Detroit Sweepstakes, boosting his gleanings to $850,929.

Junior Baseball Finals Sunday

The sponsoring Pontiac Parks & Recreation Department has moved up the junior baseball championship games from Monday to Sunday in order to give more families an opportunity to see the youngsters in action.

Title contests in all four classes —F, D, Midgets and Widgets. Through the cooperation of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, plans were completed yesterday to have all action at Jaycee Park.

Such a program will enable many area fans to make a complete day of it by enjoying the picnic facilities at the park. The finals will start at 1 p.m. The big "D" battle is slated to begin about 3 p.m.

Trophies will be awarded the winning teams following the completion of all the action. The Class D, F and Midget winners will advance into District playoffs here next week.

Conservation Body Puts OK on 'Any Deer' Rules

HIGGINS LAKE, Mich. (AP) — Regulations for Michigan's controveraial "any-deer" season were set today over loud protests from spokesmen for half a dozen sportsmen's groups.

Observers indicated the state conservation commission would follow to the letter the recommendations of state game experts for more and bigger special season areas this fall.

Game men described the program as conservative, intended partly to satisfy widespread opposition to shooting of does and fawns.

It calls for an increase in the number of shooting areas from 31 to 37 and a boost in the total square miles under special season from 12,000 to 13,000—all in the upper peninsula. It's designed to take 22,500 deer, about 7,00 more than hunters killed in the special season last year. All but one, running from Dec. 1-10 in Alcigan County, would be concurrent with the regular Nov. 15-30 regular buck season.

Tom Buzzo of Baldwin, executive secretary of the Greater Michigan Conservation League and a long-time foe of any-deer seasons, vowed he'd carry his fight to the joint legislative committee on administrative rules in Lansing later this month. The committee has a veto power over any-deer regulations established by the commission, and last year knocked out a special season slated for Dickinson County.

Appearing at a stormy four-hour hearing on issue, Tom Carnahan, representing the Big Star Lake Property Owners Assn., told the commission that supervisors of Leelanau, Bezie, Manistee, Wexford, Newaygo and Lake counties had gone on record against special season. The Michigan Assn. of township supervisors did the same, he said.

Lavern Bowman, Gladwin county resort owner, accused the conservation department of a "brain wash deluxe" in backing antlerless deer harvests.

"You've done a better job than Russia ever had hopes of doing," he said.

State game men contend special seasons are needed to reduce a surplus of deer in areas of short food supply where starvation is a constant threat.

★ ★ ★

Buzzo called the theory "defeatist thinking" which he said would steadily slice away at the state deer herd. He called instead for a program to enlarge the deer range.

★ ★ ★

Support for the conservation department's recommendations came from James L. Rouman, executive director of the Michigan United Conservation Clubs, and H. O. Nixon of Cadillac, representing the U.S. Forestry Service.

Doctoring Your Golf

By DR. CARY MIDDLECOFF

PATIENT'S COMPLAINT: All Over the Course.

DIAGNOSIS: Wobbly Right Knee.

TREATMENT: Your right leg is the foundation on which your golf swing rests on the backswing. It's logical, then, that the right leg should stay firmly in place until the weight is shifted back to the left leg as the downswing begins.

Many golfers, particularly those with long backswings, turn the right knee outward and back while taking the club back. This changes the position of the body with reference to the ball, making it possible to hit a straight shot only if the right knee is returned exactly to its original position.

Williams in Sight of 500 Homers

By The Associated Press

For a man closing in on his 40th birthday, Ted Williams still swings a mean home run bat. With 476 to his credit, the Boston Red Sox slugger now seems certain to reach his lifetime goal of 500 home runs.

★ ★ ★

"Wouldn't that be something?" Ted said before the season started. "If I get 'em (500) I'll have to admit I'm a helluva hitter. Maybe I'll get 'em too. It means playing two or three more years.

Recently Williams said he would be happy to finish the season at .300, lowering his sights from an original forecast of a .330 season and about 30 homers. It is beginning to look as if Williams was right the first time.

Williams hit his 20th of the year and a two-run single yesterday while Boston spanked Washington 8-4 for its fifth straight victory. It was the only game scheduled in the American League.

The two hits edged Williams to .311 and an eighth-place tie in the batting race. Although he is 24 points behind the leader, teammate Pete Runels, Ted still must be given a chance of winning his sixth batting crown.

Williams' hitting spurt coincides with the start of a four-game Red Sox-New York Yankee series at Yankee Stadium, starting tonight. Because the Yanks were idle yesterday, the Sox gained a half game and now trail by 15½ lengths.

By a peculiar quirk of the schedule, the Yanks and Red Sox have played only eight games (New York holds a 6-2 edge). They have 14 more to go including singles tonight and Saturday afternoon and a Sunday doubleheader.

★ ★ ★

Williams' homer at Fenway Park was a tape measure job, variously estimated at more than 450 feet. It came on the first pitch by Truman Clevenger with the bases empty in the sixth inning and soared some 20 rows into the right field bleachers. Ted's two-run single came with the bases loaded in the second.

★ ★ ★

Frank Sullivan won his ninth, allowing eight hits and fanning seven. He yielded Roy Sievers' 31st homer and Jim Lemon's 23rd. Sievers now is tied with Boston's Jackie Jensen for the homer lead. In addition to Williams, Don Buddin also hit a home run off Clevenger. Hal Griggs was the loser, his ninth to three victories.

Druggists Pull 3-2 Upset at Waterford

Drayton Drug won a tight contest in the 7th inning and Sno-Bol scored a runaway victory in Waterford American League softball games Thursday night at Drayton Plains.

Sid Gregory reached 1st via error, stole 2nd and tallied the winning run on Stu Hutchinson's double to give the Druggists a 3-2 upset victory over Lakeland Pharmacy. Gene Shell was the winning pitcher in a relief role.

Fats Keith and Wimpy Johnson combined for a three-hit mound effort as the Sno-Bol club handed Nonne's Drive-In a 10-1 drubbing. Keith was the starter and winner

THURSDAY'S FIGHTS

BOH Will Hold Dressage Test

Sept. 20-21 Event Will Aid in Selection of Olympic Riding Squad

Competition looking towards selection of the United States Olympic equestrian team will take place at Bloomfield Open Hunt Club Sept. 20-21, Irving A. Duffy, director for the tests here, announced this morning.

"The competition at BOH will include only dressage," Mr. Duffy explained. "Riders will compete for the Col. Hiram E. Tuttle Memorial Trophy, which we have named for the former U. S. Olympic rider and instructor at Ft. Riley, Kans. Col. Tuttle died several years ago." Mr. Duffy is donor of the trophy. Col. Tuttle was a pioneer in dressage in the United States.

U.S. Equestrian Team, Inc., a non-profit group, sponsors the event here. It's purpose is to develop U.S. riding teams (three) for competition in the Pan-American and Olympic fields.

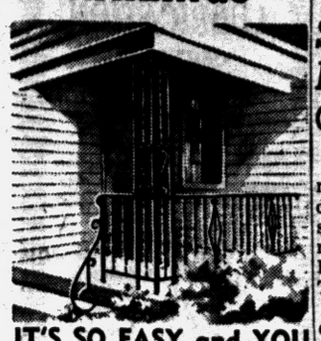

"We expect to have six or nine horses from a number of stables in the East," the 1957-58 Detroit Horse Show chairman said. Riders from this area certainly will be headed by Olympian Major Robert (Bob) Borg, of Oxford. Other area riders include possibly Frank Duffy, son of the director (although his medical studies at U. of M. may preclude his appearance); James Jones, Skip Dowd, Chuck Grant and Chuck's wife, Emmy, all of whom took part in the dressage events at BOH, in June.

Jumping phase of the USET tests is set for Sept. 28-Oct. 5, at Fairfield, Conn., when prelims for the Prix de Nations team will be jumped off.

Lions Put On Full Scale Rehearsal

Southfield Drops Legion Tourney Opener to Flint

Southfield and Lapeer were matched in a battle of survival today after losing by identical 5-4 scores yesterday in the opening round of the Junior Legion District Playoffs being held at Clawson and Troy.

The contest was the opener of a doubleheader with Thursday victors Flint and Owosso meeting in the other half. The games were postponed from yesterday afternoon due to heavy rains. Two teams will remain after today. They meet Saturday at 9:30 a.m. for the district crown and a shot at state honors.

Southfield blew a 4-3 lead in bowing. A single and double in the 10th defeated Bob Filar. A two-run single by Jim McDonald, who had two hits, Tom Ridley's double and Len Spicer's squeeze bunt accounted for the Southfield runs.

Butch McKillen of Lapeer was the batting star of the day with three singles and two triples for all his teams rbi's. Lapeer led 1-0 early but trailed from the 3rd on.

Playoffs Delayed Again

For the second straight day, rain and wet grounds postponed the championship finals of the City League softball playoffs at Beaudette and North Side parks. City League baseball games were also knocked out yesterday. Everybody will try again today.

Enthusiasm Is High as Squad Waits for Stars

Two Rookies Expected to Be Cut Following Today's Scrimmage

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

A full dress rehearsal for the annual football All-Star game one week from tonight took place at Cranbrook this morning where the blue jerseys of the Detroit Lions' defensive team bumped heads with the blue jerseys of the offensive unit.

There was a high note of enthusiasm on the squad as the two units tore into each other as if a championship was at stake.

At least two and possibly three rookies will be cut after the films of today's scrimmage are viewed by the coaches.

"The Stars put on a good defense against the Bears," said Wilson," as the Bears scored all their touchdowns through the air."

Tobin Rote started at the quarterback slot this morning with Jim Doran and Steve Junker at the ends and Hopalong Cassady at the flanker halfback post.

Veterans started at every position on both units, but every rookie saw action in the session which lasted more than 75 minutes.

The offensive unit scored three touchdowns, one on a 67-yard pass play from Rote to Doran. Rote also pitched out to John Henry Johnson who went 76 yards for another score. The 3rd TD came on an 18-yard pass from Bobby Lane to Jerry Reichow.

From the All-Star training camp at Northwestern University came the note that All-America John Crow, fullback from Texas A&M, would probably be out of the game next week.

Crow was hospitalized earlier this week and the Stars' team physician said today Crow may have mononucleosis and if this was the case then "he would definitely be out of the game."

The All-Stars are well stocked with outstanding guards and tackles with an average weight of 234 pounds among 17 players.

Observers however do not feel that the collegiate quarterbacks of Jim Ninowski of MSU, King Hill of Rice, Tom Forrestal of Navy or Ray Brown of Mississippi can match the passing arms of Layne and Tobin Rote.

The game next Friday night is expected to draw the largest crowd since 1954 when the Lions made their last appearance before 90,000 fans. It will be televised on ABC, Channel 7 at 8:30 p.m.

Pontiac Press Photo

10 County Caddies Earn Scholarships to College

A total of 31 caddies, including 10 from Oakland County, will enroll in college next month under the Detroit District Golf Association's expanding Standish-Evans Scholarship Program administered by the Western Golf Association.

Altogether, a record number of 90 caddies from golf clubs in the Detroit area will enter college this fall with Standish-Evans Scholarship aid. Fifty-nine boys are returning to school as upper-classmen.

The Oakland County list includes three boys from Farmington, two from Berkley and one each from Pontiac, Rochester, Lake Orion, Pleasant Ridge and Hazel Park.

Pontiac's scholarship recipient is Robert J. McGrath, 33 Niagara, a caddy at Bloomfield Hills. McGrath will enroll at the University of Michigan.

Jerry Riddle of Rochester, also a Bloomfield Hills caddy, and Joe Tatham of Lake Orion, caddy at Indianwood, will both enter the U. of M.

A total of 16 boys will enroll at the U. of M., 14 are going to Michigan State and one, Lawrence Glynn Jr. of Pleasant Ridge, is headed for Marquette.

The largest number of applicants in the history of the program was interviewed this year by the DDGA Scholarship Committee, of which C. L. Miller is the chairman.

Sixty-three caddies were nominated by Detroit area country clubs and the 31 winners represent a record number. The scholarships cover full tuition and room-rent costs at each of the schools.

U.S., Britain Begin Cup Play

NEWTON, Mass. (AP)—Britain opens defense of its Curtis Cup golf title today by pitting an edge in experience against American youth and weather.

★ ★ ★

The 10th international women's cup competition at Brae Burn Country Club begins with three Scotch foursomes playing 36 holes. The pairs from each nation take turns hitting the ball.

Six singles matches follow tomorrow. One point is awarded for a victory in each of the nine matches.

Of the six British women picked for today's play, five are veterans of Curtis Cup strife including the No. 1 tandem of Elizabeth Price and Mrs. Angela Bonallack.

Toledo Old-Timers Guests of City Nine

Honchell named Herm Bishop and Eichorn as his mound choices for the 4 p.m. contest at Wisner Field. Jim Berg will do the receiving. The Ohio club's batterymen were not disclosed, Honchell says.

Midwest Title Tourney Under Way

Ski Qualifying Begins

The water at Lake Sherwood, near Milford, was taking a beating this morning as more than 100 top Midwest water skiers began a day-long round of qualifying runs, preliminary to the two-day Midwest Regional Water Ski Championships. Competitive action begins Saturday, at 7 a.m. and the public is invited, without charge. Sunday's program also begins at 7 a.m. runs to late afternoon.

When entries closed last night, there were 109 names, in a score of events in a half dozen divisions. They represented 11 states, including Michigan, Wisconsin, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Minnesota, Iowa, Kansas and others.

The weekend event is considered Michigan's biggest and most important water-ski competition of the season. It's prime purpose is to qualify competent performers among the men, women and juniors for the nationals at Shipley, Ga. Aug. 23-24-25.

Chairman Dwight Holton announced this morning that two of the country's best boat drivers would handle that chore for the Regionals. They are American Water Ski Assn., champion driver, Fred Wiley of Manistee, Mich., and Ward Veen of Lake Sherwood.

Fans will again see the fantastic stunts by world champion trick ski rider, Ken Tibado of Tampa, Fla., Tibado thrilled a big gallery at the recent Michigan Championships at Lake Sherwood, with his sensational ski acrobatics.

Judges were also named today for the Regionals. They are chief judge Dave Thompson of Kalamazoo, Jim Hubbard of Macatawa Park, (Holland), Sandy Lecklider of Birmingham, Joe Grimaldi of Detroit, Laurie Feeley of Lansing and Jack Maurer of Syracuse, Ind.

Working Breeds Dominate PKC Fall Show Entries

By H. GUY MOATS

Led by the working breeds, with 146 entries, Pontiac Kennel Club's annual fall outdoor show, Aug. 17, at Waterford High School Athletic field, presents a much larger overall entry than for the 1957 show. Lists closed this week, with 565 dogs entered, representing 63 different breeds.

The sporting group was close to the working dogs for top entries, having 144. Both groups are under the 1957 figures. However, six divisions report increased numbers, and the breed total is one ahead of a year ago.

Obedience entries are the largest in years, says PKC officials.

"Top dog" for the show will win the best-in-show award to be presented by The Pontiac Press. Last year's winner was a splendid Basset hound, Ch. Siefenjajenheim Lazy Bones (just plain Lazy Bones to his owner, Chris Teeter of Birmingham). Bones was the first Basset to win best-in-show at a PKC competition.

Working dogs—144 (186 in 1957).
Terriers—55 (43 in 1957).
Non-sporting—64 (61 in 1957).

Largest individual breed is the boxer, with 39, one more than a year ago. There are 32 Great Danes, 31 German Shepherds (26 in 1957). A large gain by Irish setters, with 25, is reported. Cocker Spaniels were only one below the top boxer breed with 38, a gain over a year ago.

★ ★ ★

This fall's show, like all other PKC outdoor events, will be an all-breed affair, in which club members will not be permitted to enter any of their dogs. It is an unbenched show, under license by the American Kennel Club.

Craft Raps Team for Sagging

A's Coach Fuming

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Usually mild-mannered Manager Harry Craft of the sagging Kansas City Athletics disclosed Thursday that he had turned the heat on "four or five guys who are joint going through the motions."

Craft declined to name the players he implied were chiefly responsible for the Athletics' slide from the first division into a sixth-place tie in the American League race. But he said Thursday:

"I think they know who they are and I think everybody on the club knows it. If they didn't know it they know it now because I told them last night pretty good."

Craft made his disclosure in an interview with Bruce Rice, KCMO TV sports director just before the club left for Cleveland where they began a 3-game series Friday night.

During the home stand that ended Thursday night the Athletics lost 9 and won 6.

Craft asked if he could put his finger on the reason for this, the poorest home showing of the year by the team, said the club had four players who had applied themselves in the past three weeks, and added:

"And we have got about four or five guys just going through the motions, so to speak."

"And I assure you," Craft continued, "that it is going to be clarified on this road trip or you are not going to find some of those boys playing."

He emphasized he did not mean there is dissension on the club.

Finally, apparently with a facetious reference to the firing of several major league managers this season, Craft said:

"I was hired to do a job and I am going to do that job to the best of my ability because several managers have been given votes of confidence this season and I don't want to be one of them, to be frank with you."

U. S. Shooters Get Visas to Moscow World Meet

STOCKHOLM (AP)—The American pistol and rifle team finally received word from Soviet authorities Thursday that the visas for the members would be available Friday morning.

The team has been stalled here for several days while awaiting the necessary documents to continue on to Moscow. The world shooting champions will be held in the Soviet capital Aug. 17-26.

Lt. Gen. Floyd Parks (ret), executive director of the National Rifle Assn., cabled Russian officials in Moscow early this morning that all travel plans were in jeopardy. In a few hours the Russians replied that the visas would be on hand Friday.

Gen. Parks had been irritated because he said the Russians had extended an invitation three years ago at Bucharest.

Thirty nations are entered in the championships. The Americans won only one third place medal in the 1956 Olympics, but Parks said he is confident the team will do better in Moscow.

In tuneup matches, the American outshot the Germans, Austrians, Venezuelans and Swedes, Joe Deckert, of Deming, N. M., set a world record in the running deer shooting in Sweden this week. He scored 454 points.

Lary Seeks 11th Victory Tonight

DETROIT (AP) — If Frank Lary follows form, he still has a chance to be one of the American League's most effective pitchers this season.

Always a slow starter, the Alabama righthander had won only four games by mid-season two years ago when he finished with a 21-14 record. Again last season his best showing was late in the summer.

Chicago manager Al Lopez has picked Early Wynn to start for the White Sox.

Currently in third place behind the league-leading New York Yankees, the White Sox, like the Tigers, haven't lived up to expectations so far this season.

The Chicago front office admits it gave up a lot of power when the club traded off Minnie Minoso and Lary Doby. But the strategy was to "single" the opponents to death and lean heavily on the pitching staff.

How effective the strategy proves remains to be seen. The Tigers will get an inkling tonight.

Lady Golfers Name Promoter

NEW YORK (AP) — Eileen Stulb of Augusta, Ga., has been named promotional director of the Ladies Professional Golfers Assn., Fred Corcoran, LPGA business manager said Thursday.

Miss Stulb, who directs the Women's Titleholders Tournament at Augusta, will set up a promotional bureau there. Her duties will include keeping tournament records and providing promotional material for tournament sponsors.

Corcoran also announced plans for the selection of an annual LPGA team, which eventually may engage in international competition similar to the Ryder Cup matches for men professionals.

Snake-Like Oriental Fish Found in County

This snake-like, whisker-wearing oriental (Japan) fish was discovered July 15, "living it up" in a private pond near Holly. Pond's owner wanted it chemically treated to eliminate undesirable species, and the resultant treatment by conservation men brought the little visitor to light (several bushels of him).

Now, the conservation men want to check the stream system below the pond, and other nearby streams and ponds for possible infiltration of the weatherfish in other waters. A survey party from the Institute of Fisheries Research at Ann Arbor will come here in the next few weeks to make this check, says Wayne Tody of the state conservation staff.

"The fish is not parasitic. It does not attack other fish, but its bottom-feeding habits roil waters and ruin other fish habitats. It's strictly an undesirable fish to have in public waters," Tody says.

Big Rapids Archer National Target King

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Young Bob Bitner of Big Rapids, Mich., became the National Target Archery Champion Thursday as James Casper's spectacular record-breaking performance fell short.

Caspers, of Racine, Wis., broke three records and advanced from fourth place to the runner up spot. Bitner collected a total score of 3,417, Caspers had 3,387 and Ernest Henkel, Minneapolis, was third with 3,325.

RAINED OUT — Nine buses carrying 600 Pontiac junior baseball players went to Briggs Stadium Wednesday afternoon but the trip was in vain as the game between the Cleveland Indians and the Tigers was called after 2½ innings because of heavy rains. The Metropolitan Club sponsored the trip with coaches of the various teams acting as bus supervisors. This was the second year in a row that rain prevented the youngsters from seeing a game.

Wildlife Service Studies Hunting Rules for '58-59

WASHINGTON (AP)—Fish and Wildlife Service officials worked Thursday on proposed 1958 - 1959 duck hunting regulations.

Indications were that an announcement of the basic rules covering shooting of migratory waterfowl would be made next week.

The officials had before them recommendations of their own technicians as well as those of the Waterfowl Advisory Commission.

The advisory committee heard a service report Tuesday that the outlook for fall flights of ducks in the Atlantic, Mississippi and Central Flyways is not as good as last year while a small increase is expected for the Pacific Flyway.

Pontiac Sailors 4th in Ohio Competition

PUT IN BAY, Ohio (AP) — Pontiac, Mich. Yacht Club won the fifth race in the competition for the Wakefield Memorial sailing trophy yesterday, but placed fourth in final point standings.

Winner of the event was the Edgewater Yacht Club from Cleveland, with 20½ points. The Edgewater club will represent the area in the North American Junior Sailing championships at Vancouver, B.C.

60 Ladies Entered

'F' Midget Finalists Set

Two teams won their way into Sunday's city junior championship program yesterday by turning in impressive victories.

Auburn Heights Boys' Club gained the right to meet Pontiac Boys' Club for the Class F title by coming from behind twice to down Tel-Huron 5-3 while the B&B Cleaners had things much easier walloping Auburn Boys' Club in Midget action 22-6.

B&B Will meet Pontiac Boys' Club in Sunday's final.

The Auburn "F" nine trailed 2-0 and then 3-2 before gaining a tie. A two-run sixth decided the issue as Fred Carlton's single was the only hit. Relief pitcher Dick Meger was the winner.

B&B wrapped up its victory quick with nine runs in the 1st two frames and another nine in two more rounds for an 18-0 lead. Eighteen hits and eight enemy errors helped the cause.

Winning chucker Roger Hayward hurled hitless ball for four innings before faltering. He teamed with Rudy Ranson to pace the offensive. Ranson slammed five straight hits, including a home run. Hayward had four singles.

The Class D and Widget foes are undecided. Cranbrook is set in "D" and the Yanks in Widget play.

5 Local Baseballers in Battle of Stars

Four Oakland County boys and one from Romeo will be in the starting lineup when the Outstate Baseball All-Stars meet the Detroit Stars Saturday at 11 a.m. at Ann Arbor, it was announced today by coach Bill Graham of Auburn Heights.

★ ★ ★

City Qualifiers Slated Saturday

Eighteen-hole qualifying rounds for the men's annual City Medal Play golf championship will be held Saturday at Pontiac Municipal course.

Tomorrow's qualifiers may be shot any time between the hours of 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. The entry fee is $3 per person.

All golfers living in Oakland County are eligible for the qualifiers. Past champions and the five low scorers in last year's tournament are exempt from the qualifying trials.

The City Medal Play tourney is scheduled Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 16-17, over a 36-hole route at Municipal course. Paul Bada is the defending champion.

Swim Team Disqualified

LAKE WORTH, Fla. (AP) — One event in the Florida State Junior Olympic Swimming and Diving Championships wound up without a winner last night. Winter Haven's team, swimming unopposed in the 200-yard medley relay for girls 15-16, was disqualified for an improper turn.

Seeking Accord About Cyprus

Macmillan Meets With Greek Premier Amid Diplomatic Optimism

ATHENS, Greece (UP) — British Prime Minister Macmillan and Greek Premier Constantine Karamanlis met today amid diplomatic optimism that they might reach some agreement about Cyprus.

The hopes in diplomatic circles were based on recent toning down of the government-controlled Turkish press toward the Cyprus issue and a U.S. aid grant to Turkey which the diplomats felt might "take her mind off Cyprus."

Turkey opposes efforts of Greek Cypriots to have the British Mediterranean island joined with Greece, demanding that it be partitioned between the 400,000 Greek and 100,000 Turkish Cypriots if the British leave.

★ ★ ★

Macmillan; Karamanlis and his foreign minister, Evangelos Averoff; and Sir Hugh Foot, the British governor of Cyprus, held their first meeting since the British leader flew down from London yesterday in a personal bid to end the long and bloody dispute.

Both the Greek and Turkish underground organizations on Cyprus have called a truce in the communal fighting. The island went without violence yesterday for the first day since the fighting began two months ago. More than 100 persons had been killed.

MARSHALL F. CHARTER

Chief Pontiac Post Plans Installation

Marshall F. Charter, of 675 Reynolds St., will be installed as the 1958-59 commander. He was re-elected to the post.

Seek Data on Failure of Bomarc

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—Air Force specialists continued to check instrumentation reports today to learn what caused a Bomarc interceptor missile to fail in flight after it was launched successfully by remote control from 1,500 miles away.

The Air Force announced that the launching itself was successful, but that the missile missed the target when its sensitive guidance system failed to function properly during a critical stage in the flight.

Postpone Examination in Negligent Homicide

Snow is charged with negligent homicide in the death of Alex Goumas, 27, of Flint, due to a head-on collision which occurred on U.S. 10 in Waterford Township last June 21.

Four people were injured in the accident and Goumas died the following day at Pontiac General Hospital. Snow had posted a $500 bond at his arraignment July 21.

Marlene-Carol Battle Over; Feuding Goes On

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Marlene Dietrich just waited, and waited—and now Carol Channing has dropped her famous "Grandma" impersonation that Marlene found objectionable.

Carol forgets Marlene in her new act at the Las Vegas Tropicana and pokes fun instead at the Nevada nudes. "You Gotta Take Your Clothes Off in Las Vegas," is the title of her own strip number, done with the help of a corselette borrowed from Lili St. Cyr.

WILSON

"Marlene continued to object," Carol explained. "On her opening night I sent her $100 worth of flowers. They weren't allowed on stage. She never sent me a thank you note. I guess she thought 'Can't I get away from this woman?'" The impersonation is over but the feud will probably linger on.

One of the hotels found that the Jehovah's Witnesses delegates had exhausted all the room keys and asked, "What are you doing with them?" A delegate answered, "We're putting them in the mail box and sending them to you like it says on the keys that we should."

Lee Tracy, the talented movie actor who never quite got the right play on B'way, is now rolling with a TV series called "New York Confidential" which is being shot in the Bronx. He's so busy on the filmed series that he even lives in the Bronx and hasn't been inside a barroom in days and days. The show's to start on CBS here in September.

Tracy has a wife who invested his earnings wisely in California real estate and with this new loot, he should wind up very, very far away from the poor house.

Thank Y'all for the "Eat Here and Get Gas" contributions to the Funny Sign collection. A sign near Boston says "Jesse James sells honest second hand cars," reports Louis Abramawitz, of Brooklyn. Princess to Watch Trotters Tonight

Meg Rests at Cottage

FREDERICTON, N.B. (AP) — Princess Margaret rested today at a secluded summer cottage on the St. John River before going to see the trotters.

★ ★ ★

The touring princess had a day off until the local harness race meeting tonight. Since Margaret and the rest of the royal family are Britain's first turf enthusiasts, the night's engagement also comes under the head of pleasure.

★ ★ ★

Margaret's schedule yesterday took her to seven major appearances here in New Brunswick's capital, climaxed by a dinner given by the province. Premier Hugh John Fleming presented a handwoven wool skirt to the princess, who was wearing a pale blue gown studded with jewels.

★ ★ ★

Two unscheduled happenings gave officials the jitters. A fire broke out in the basement of the Canadian Pacific Telegraph Building just after Margaret's motorcade passed by. It was quickly extinguished. Then a branch from one of Fredericton's tall elm trees crashed into the street near the Legislature just before she arrived. It brushed spectators as it fell but no one was hurt.

Cleveland Museum Has TV Eye on You

Thirty-three TV cameras, remotely controlled with protective scanning lenses have been installed in the museum to allow guards to watch eight galleries at one time.

The closed circuit system was set up as a safety and personnel saving technique. If a thief picks up an object, the guard shouts a warning over the loudspeaker system which runs to each camera.

If the thief runs to another room he can be followed on the TV screens as he passes from one gallery to another.

Museum officials said the arrangement also will assist in controlling traffic and in finding missing youngsters.

Turnover Rate 1 in 4 on Federal Payrolls

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Nearly one-fourth of the employes who were working for the federal government in January, 1957, weren't around by the end of the year.

Civil Service Commission statistics show that more than 22 per cent of the government workers went off the payroll — voluntarily or involuntarily — during the calendar year.

The total governmental turnover was 23.5 per cent. This was still only about half the turnover rate for private industry.

Forty per cent of those who left jobs with Uncle Sam quit. But the rate was dropping sharply toward the end of 1957, when the recession took hold.

To Re-Plan Post Office

LANSING (AP) — O. J. Munson, associate of Lansing will plan the remodeling of the post office here. Cost of the project has been estimated at $680,000. It will include enlarging the second floor and adding a third.

Helicopters Replace St. Bernard Heroes

AOSTA, Italy (UPI) — Walkie-talkies, helicopters and tunnels under the Alps are thinning the ranks of those lovable canine heroes with brandy kegs, the St. Bernards.

For hundreds of years, these big shaggy-haired dogs have plodded through the deep snows on the St. Bernard passes to save the lives of lost travellers.

But only nine dogs remain at the Hospice of St. Bernard. Ever since the end of the last war their numbers have dwindled and the amount of work has diminished to no more than several calls a year.

New and efficient mountain rescue methods have outdated the St. Bernard. Radio squads and helipasses are much quicker and surer means of rescue than the courageous shaggy dogs.

Ozark Fair to Feature Peaceful Use of Atoms

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. (UPI) — "Atoms for Peace," a mammoth display of peacetime aspects of atomic energy, will be a main attraction of the Ozark Empire Fair, Aug. 9-15.

A series of 80 panels, picturing almost every phase of our nation's programs concerned with peaceful aspects of atomic energy, will occupy 5,000 feet of floor space.

The display is operated for the Atomic Energy Commission by the Museum Division of the Oak Ridge Institute of Nuclear Studies.

Hollywood Headlines

'Liz Taylor Coming Out of Mourning Over Mike

By BOB THOMAS
AP Motion Picture Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Notes and comment on the Hollywood scene—

Elizabeth Taylor is coming out of her bereavement over the death of Mike Todd. She is often dating Arthur Loew Jr., scion of the show business family and a friend since her early years at MGM. And Liz has indicated that she will be available for film roles that appeal to her.

"After Todd's death, she didn't care if she worked or not," said Richard Brooks, who directed her in "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof." "She finished the picture only because Mike was so hepped up on it. Now she wants to work some more."

Brooks said it was touch and go when Liz returned to work after the tragedy. A line like "You don't know what it is to lose someone you love" would break her up and work had to be suspended for the rest of the day.

Audrey Hepburn is not worried about being directed by her husband Mel Ferrer for the first time in "Green Mansions." After all, she argues, they have appeared together in a movie ("War and Peace"), on the stage ("Ondine") and on TV ("Mayerling").

"Marriage is a pretty complex relationship," she says. "If Mel and I can live together, we certainly ought to be able to work together" . . .

Gary Crosby's comment re Papa Bing's TV deal with ABC: "I understand he makes some films for them and then they give him the network." Gary wants no part of a series for himself, favors guest shots only. . . .

Dore Schary has launched his first independent film, "Lonely-Hearts," but he won't tie himself down to Hollywood. As soon as he finishes the newspaper yarn, he heads back to New York to put on another play with the Theater Guild. Then he'll return for another picture, probably the film version of his Broadway hit, "Sunrise at Campobello."

2 Migrants Held for Rape, Theft

Arrests End Night of Terror and Chase Near Traverse City

TRAVERSE CITY (UP)— Wanted for investigation of rape, armed robbery and auto theft, two migrant farm workers were captured today in nearby Kalkaska without a fight.

A sheriff said an alert deputy ended a night of terror and chase in the northwestern Lower Peninsula at 4:15 a.m.

Robert Lee Belcher Jr., 29, of Grand Rapids, and Ulister Smith, 25, of Benton Harbor, were quoted by State Troopers Edward Goss and Chester Nottage as admitting they stole a car, held up a grocery, abducted a woman and shot a car's headlights out.

Kalkaska deputy Woodman spotted the widely sought pair after their car broke down on a Kalkaska street. Sheriff Rupert Vipond, summoned by Woodman, and his deputy moved in with drawn guns. The two surrendered meekly. An automatic pistol was found in their car.

State Police said Herbert Scott an itinerant fruit picker from Hammond, La., told them he and his wife Mildred, 25, were walking along a rural road when they were accosted.

Scott said he was made to lie down in the road by a gunman who got out of a car after it passed them and laid in wait. He said the gunman went through his pockets but found no money and then forced his wife to accompany him. The car, returning, picked up the gunman and woman.

The woman was released a short distance away.

Kresge Sales Picking Up

DETROIT (UP) — S. S. Kresge Co. reports its July sales up by $604,098 over July 1957. The company said its earnings for the first seven months are approximately on a par with last year.

The Shady Valley area of Johnson county, Tennessee has mined manganese continuously since 1883.

Man Carries On to Control Weather

(This is the second of two dispatches providing the latest information on what science is doing to control our weather.)

By LOUIS CASSELS

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Man has always dreamed of controlling the weather. And within strict limitations, he has learned ways of doing it.

"A straw hat," said meteorologist Norman Hagen of the U. S. Weather Bureau, "provides weather control for a man's head. An air conditioning system provides weather control for a whole building."

On a somewhat larger scale, experiments of the past few years have demonstrated that "rainmaking" is possible in certain areas and under certain circumstances.

Where super-cooled, moisture-laden clouds are moving up the windward slope of mountains, it is possible to "seed" these clouds with silver iodide crystals and increase the normal rainfall by about 15 per cent.

But cloud-seeding has not proved successful in controlled tests over flatlands or in normally arid areas. Since these are the very areas where people are most anxious to stimulate greater rainfall, large-scale weather control by cloud-seeding does not seem to be very promising.

It is not surprising that man should find it exceedingly difficult to tamper with the weather. The forces which nature handles about in producing the weather stagger human imagination.

Certainly not, said Dr. Harry Wexler, director of research for the Weather Bureau. "There is no question that weather control of some sort will emerge from the exploration of space."

One possibility is that satellite vehicles might be used to hang a giant magnifying glass in space. It could be used to focus the sun's rays on a particular part of the earth's surface, just as a hand magnifying glass focuses a burning beam of sunlight on a leaf. If the magnifying glass in space were focused on the Arctic Circle, for example, it might thaw out the Arctice ice pack.

That would radically change North America's weather. It would put an end to those winter cold waves that pour down from Canada. Of course, it might also raise ocean levels enough to drown ports like New York and San Francisco.

"If man does learn how to control the weather, he will have to be mighty careful what he does," said Hagen. "It is fairly easy to compute the immediate effect of a particular change. But you have to think about all the side-effects too."

There's another way in which space vehicles might be used to alter the weather. They could scatter particles of light-absorbing materials to create a sort of screen that would reduce the amount of sunlight falling on a particular part of the earth's surface. This technique could be used benignly to modify the hot climate of the tropics, or maliciously to destroy the agriculture of an enemy country.

Some large-scale weather control projects could be undertaken without the aid of space vehicles. But they would be enormously difficult and expensive.

One possibility that has long attracted weather scientists is diverting the warm "Japanese current" of the Pacific ocean into the Arctic, perhaps by building a huge dam somewhere off the Aleutians.

The ice cover of the Arctic Ocean is only six or seven feet thick, on the average. With a warm current running beneath it, this ice pack would eventually melt.

This might make Alaska a competitor for Florida's tourist trade. But as mentioned earlier, it might also put Times Square into competition with Venice for the gondola trade.

Weather bureau studies show that hurricanes won't form over ocean water that is cooler than 80 degrees Fahrenheit. So—why not tow a lot of icebergs down from Greenland to cool the surface of the subtropical waters where most of our hurricanes are born?

1.5 Million Snub Social Security, Stay on the Job

WASHINGTON (AP) — Maybe it's the high cost of living. Or maybe many persons just don't relish the idea of loafing.

Whatever the reason, government records show that nearly 1½ million Americans over 65 were passing up Social Security retirement checks as of last Jan. 1 to keep on working.

Of that total about 1,180,000 were men and about 222,000 were women. In addition, the Social Security Administration said some women over 62, also eligible for retirement benefits, were continuing to work.

However, the agency figured about nine million persons over 65 were drawing monthly checks.

Market Shows Plenty of Zip

Some key stocks were ahead a point or two in metals, chemicals, farm implements, tobaccos and drugs.

* * *

* * *

Mohasco opened on a 12,000 share block unchanged at 8 and held at that level. The stock turned active near the close yesterday, when it rose a point.

Grain Futures Prices Lower

CHICAGO (AP)—The market for grain futures tilted slightly lower in early dealings today on the Board of Trade.

Activity was unusually light and dealers said transactions were almost entirely of a technical trade character such as hedge selling, hedge lifting and spreading. Mill buyers and exporters were taking very little part.

Wheat was ⅝ to ⅞ cents a bushel lower near the end of the first hour, September $1.84⅝; corn ⅜ to ⅝ lower, September $1.27⅛; oats ⅛ lower to ⅛ higher, September 63⅞; rye ½ to 1 cent lower, September $1.24¾; soybeans ⅛ to ½ lower, September $2.25⅛; lard unchanged to 5 cents a hundred lbs. higher, September $12.70.

Bell Co. to Redeem 4¾ Pct. Debentures

DETROIT (UPI) — The Board of Directors of Michigan Bell Telephone Co. announced it has authorized calling for redemption, on or about Oct. 17, of the company's 4¾ per cent debentures due Nov. 1, 1992, presently outstanding in the amount of $40,000,000.

* * *

The sale of a new issue of $40,000,000 of debentures on or around Sept. 16 was also authorized by the board.

These proceeds will be applied toward the redemption of the 4¾ per cent debentures.

Number of Jobless Drops During July

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government reported today the number of unemployed Americans dropped by 143,000 in July to 5,294,000.

Employment rose by 198,000 to 65,179,000. The increase was not as great as usual for July.

After taking seasonal factors into account, the rate of unemployment increased. The Commerce and Labor Departments said 7.3 per cent of the work force was jobless last month compared with 6.8 per cent in June.

Bob-Lo Thrill Ride Fatal for Boy, 17

AMHERSTBURG, Ont. (AP) — A 17-year-old Michigan boy died on a Bob-Lo Island midway ride last night from a heart attack, an autopsy revealed today.

Michael Kline, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Kline of Dearborn, suffered the attack while on a whirling ride known as "The Bug." He was taken unconscious from the ride and died in a first aid room.

Argue Deficit Spending Causes Prices to Climb

Purists Blaming Inflation on Government

LAST IN SERIES

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Purists blame past government deficit spending for the postwar waves of inflation that makes balancing your family budget so tough today.

DAWSON

They fear that new deficits now building up will be the cause of your getting into even a tighter bind.

The stock market has been tooting the warning horn of new inflation so loudly that the Federal Reserve Board has blown its whistle on what it fears could be stock price inflation.

Economists differ on what the government can and should do to offset this inflation or to keep it within bounds.

Current deficit buildup goes back to a combination of Sputniks and recession. Sputnik triggered a quick rise in defense spending plans. The recession has cut back on corporate incomes and to some extent on personal incomes. Even with tax relief hopes out the window, Treasury collections are off.

* * *

The classic way that Treasury deficit financing leads to inflation with all its woes of a rising cost of living and a shrinking dollar, is this:

To raise the 10 to 12 billion dollars of new money the Treasury now believes it must have this fiscal year, it apparently plans to borrow from the commercial banks. The Federal Reserve Board will see that they have enough money to lend the Treasury by increasing the money supply.

* * *

The added Treasury securities the banks take on are regarded much the same as cash and will make it possible for them to extend much more credit to any business taking off on an inflationary toot.

The classic case of too much money ready and willing to chase after goods will be with us again as in the early postwar years. But this time there will be too few goods only if demand should rise above the present overcapacity to produce.

* * *

The federal government will be putting into the economy perhaps 12 billion more dollars than it will be taking out in taxes. State and local governments also are borrowing to spend.

Some estimate that by the final months of this year the three levels of government will be spending at an annual rate of nearly 95 billion dollars, or 6½ billion more than a year ago. Much of the spending will be on the cuff—inflationary.

* * *

If business recovery is enough to raise corporate earnings substantially, the Treasury will rake in more and cut its deficit some.

If an overenthusiastic business recovery sires speculation, the Federal Reserve Board could turn from easy money to tight money and try to dry up as much of the new Treasury money in the commercial banks as possible. Already it has boosted stock market margins to make the way of the speculator hard.

The pace of government spending was speeded up by the administration. It could slacken the outgo again.

* * *

Congress could cut back some of the spending programs it passed or is still considering as antirecession measures.

But there is always a body of economic thought which holds that monetary measures alone won't work.

* * *

These economists, and some public officials, contend that the government should ask and get powers to reinstate direct controls over credit—such as setting the amount of down payments and the length of contracts.

* * *

A borrowing and spending spree set off by new inflation is only a possibility—not even a probability as yet—but the stock market believes it's coming.

Monkey Survives 11-Mile 'Space-Fall'

CROSBY, Minn. (UPI)—"Mathilda," a 13-pound female monkey, emerged virtually unharmed from a fast fall of more than 11 miles beneath a punctured balloon.

The monkey and her fellow passengers, a group of frogs, flies and gold fish, were sent up yesterday an a pressurized gondola as part of a series of tests on the effects of cosmic rays in space travel.

Their 20-story balloon, largest plastic balloon ever launched, was expected to soar to 135,000 feet, or 25 miles above the earth. But the big bag burst at an altitude of about 60,000 feet and the storage cargo plummeted to earth.

The Air Force, which sponsored the flight, recovered the balloon on a farm about 60 miles from its launching site near Crosby. It didn't take long to discover that Mathilda had survived the fall.

"Ouch! She tried to bite me!" exclaimed the first medic to stick his head into the gondola.

READY FOR NEXT TRIP

Mathilda was removed, kicking and screaming, from the gondola and moments later was contentedly munching on a banana. A physical examination showed Mathilda in good shape and ready to lead another exploration into space.

Air Force spokesmen said the 650-pound balloon apparently ripped open when it hit a jet stream. The crumpled balloon acted as a parachute and sail as the 200-pound gondola descended.

The gondola hit in a swampy farm area near Pine City, Minn., but did not break open. An Air Force tracking plane landed nearby and recovered the gondola and its cargo about two hours after the launching from an open-pit mine.

The flight was a prelude to next week's strato-lab experirent in which Air Force Capt. Grove J. Schoock will try to soar 100,000 feet in a test of the effects of space travel on a human.

Ordered to Halt False Claims

Ex-President of Muntz TV Firm Accused of Misleading Ads by FTC

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Federal Trade Commission today approved a consent order which bars Earl W. (Madman) Muntz of Chicago from making misleading claims for television sets sold by him.

* * *

Muntz formerly was president of Muntz TV, Inc., but has not been an officer of the company for a year and a half.

A commission complaint last Nov. 6 charged that the horizontal measurements of the picture viewable on a Muntz TV set were substantially less that the sizes claimed in newspaper advertising. The FTC also challenged claims that the sets were sold directly to the purchaser from factory outlets.

A consent order prohibiting the company from engaging in these practices was approved by the commission in June. The FTC took separate action in the case of Earl Muntz because, while he is no longer a company officer, it said he guided the firm's policies at the time the questioned practices occurred.

* * *

The consent agreement is for settlement purposes and does not constitute an admission by Muntz that he violated the law.

New Plan Proposed on GM Holdings

CHICAGO (AP) — A federal court received today a new proposal for disposing of Du Pont stock interest in General Motors Corp. without forcing sale of the huge holdings.

Du Pont, owner of the 63 million shares of GM stock, must divorce itself from interest in the auto firm to comply with a U.S. Supreme Court ruling in an antitrust suit.

* * *

Andrew J. Dallstream, a Chicago lawyer appointed by U.S. District Judge Walter J. Labuy to represent Du Pont stockholders, suggested that E. I. Dupont de Nemours and Co. and two interlocked holding companies pass voting rights on the GM Stock to their 185,000 individual stockholders.

* * *

Du Pont and the other firms, the Christiana Securities Co., and the Delaware Realty and Investment Corp., would retain financial ownership of the GM stock.

The three Du Pont firms and General Motors Corp. were convicted of antitrust monopoly by Judge Labuy, and his ruling was upheld by the U.S. Supreme Court.

The Department of Justice has recommended that the shares be distributed to individual stockholders of the Du Pont firms over a 10-year period.

The International Revenue Service, however, ruled that such stock distribution would be taxable to individual shareholders as ordinary income.

Willman Appoints Public Safety Head give up the position to be filled by someone else, should the city commission deem it necessary."

* * *

Although not in accord with all the report's criticisms, Willman said, Eastman has indicated that increased efficiency and better morale in the department "under competent leadership" would definitely react to the better interest of the people of Pontiac."

A native of Seattle, Eastman graduated from public schools there. Married, with three children, he received a bachelor's degree from the University of Washington in political science in 1951 and a master's degree from New York University in public administration this year. He also holds diplomas from the Traffic Institute at Northwestern University and the National Academy of the FBI in Washington, D.C.

Eastman began his police career at the bottom of the ladder, starting as a patrolman in Seattle in 1930. He worked his way up to the top of the department and held the ranks of chief from 1946 to 1952.

Then he joined the National Safety Council as the director of its western region for a year and from 1954 to 1955 was a consulting expert with the U.S. Treasury Department. From 1955-1957 he was superintendent of police for the Port of New York Authority.

In connection with his recent work as a consultant, Eastman has prepared studies of police departments in New Rochelle, New York and Point Pleasant, New Jersey. He has authored numerous articles and has been a special lecturer in police training programs at several universities.

These include Columbia, Fordham, Hamline, Northwestern and Rutgers Universities, Washington State College, and the Universities of California, Louisville and Washington.

He also has been a part-time lecturer at New York University and Brooklyn College and was a police instructor five years in Seattle.

Eastman now lives in Pocatello, Ida. with his wife, Isabelle, and daughter, Marguerite Anne, 14. They plan to move to Pontiac soon. The Eastmans have two sons, George, 23, who is an ensign in the Navy, and John, 21, who is a student at Rutgers University.

Urgent U.N. Meeting on Mideast Today

— A resolution calling on U. N. Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold to increase U. N. activity in Lebanon and permit withdrawal of the 14,300 American troops there and also work out means to make possible the evacuation of British troops from Jordan. This would be coupled, if the U. S. can rally enough votes, with some form of Assembly endorsement of American action in sending troops to protect Lebanon's independence.

— An Assembly recommendation that Hammarskjold and his aides widen efforts in the Middle East to seek some formula to guarantee the area against "indirect aggression" which the United States claims is practiced by the Soviet Union and the United Arab Republic.

— A resolution binding all U. N. member nations to refrain from inflammatory activity in the Middle East while Hammarskjold tries to work out plans for stabilizing the region agreeable to the Arab states and the big powers.

Washington officials said that promises of increased U. S. economic aid could be expected if a satisfactory degree of political stability is assured in the Middle East.

* * *

The Security Council met last night in response to the summons of Soviet Russia after Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev spiked proposals for a summit-council meeting in a surprise turnabout. It had before it resolutions from the United States and Russia calling for a special session of the Assembly.

After the modified U.S. resolution was adopted, the Soviets withdrew their resolution which called for the session to discuss the "immediate withdrawal" of U. S. and British forces from Lebanon and Jordan.

Following the vote, U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge challenged the Russians to carry the proceedings of the Assembly session to the peoples behind the Iron Curtain by radio "to let them judge the true facts for themselves." He urged that the people of the Soviet Union and the east European satellites be allowed to hear "all sides of the grave issues dividing the world—not just your view."

* * *

Soviet Ambassador Arkady A. Sobolev retorted that this had nothing to do with the Security Council. "Who is transmitting news and how in what counttries" was no business of the council, he said.

* * *

White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said the President was "particularly pleased" by the challenge issued by Lodge for the Russians to carry the Assembly proceedings behind the iron curtain.

Steal Wheels, Tires Off Nine New Cars

Thieves raided two automobile agency lots on Dixie Highway in Waterford Township last night taking wheels, tires, tubes and hub caps from nine new cars, according to Pontiac State Police.

There were five new Chevrolets stripped of their wheels at the Haskins Chevrolet Inc., 6751 Dixie Highway and four complete sets of wheels were removed from new Fords at the Beattie Motor Sales, 5806 Dixie Highway. Nothing else was taken and police are continuing their investigation.

Rambler Sales Climb

DETROIT (AP) — July retail sales of Rambler cars were 155 per cent above total deliveries of a year ago. American Motors Corp. also announced that sales last month topped June by 19 per cent.

Two Beheaded by Explosion

Three Missing in Beirut After Blasts Rip Cafes in Terrorist Outbreak

BEIRUT (AP)—Bombs exploded at two cafes in downtown Beirut today. One explosion beheaded two customers and three other people were missing.

The bombing was the second serious terrorist outrage in Beirut since Gen. Fuad Shehab was elected president July 31 as a compromise candidate to end Lebanon's bloodshed. One person was killed last Friday by a bomb that wrecked two downtown stores.

★ ★ ★

There was no way to determine whether today's bombing marked a return to the strife that has gripped Lebanon since May 10. Except for isolated clashes, including a sharp one yesterday, an uneasy truce has prevailed since Shehab's election. Insurgent forces are continuing a general strike in areas they hold.

★ ★ ★

The Cafe Azar was bombed shortly before 7 a. m.

"I saw two of my customers who had their heads blown off," said the proprietor.

A 24-hour battle was reported yesterday in the Bekaa Valley of northeast Lebanon between rebel tribesmen and progovernment forces. Nine government men and three tribesmen were killed, informants said.

Ship Disaster Victim Dies

He's 16th to Perish After Tankers Collide in Newport Harbor

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — The death toll in yesterday's collision of two tankers in Newport Harbor rose to 16 today with the death of Samuel Williams of Port Arthur, Tex., at Newport Hospital.

Twenty-four crewmen were injured, several critically. Two others were not accounted for.

All of the dead were members of the crew of the Gulfoil, a 10,340-ton vessel which was outbound and empty.

Among others killed were Capt. Montreville Eden, and his second officer, Raymond C. Day, both of Port Arthur.

The second tanker involved was the S. E. Graham, a 250-foot motor ship inbound with over half a million gallons of gasoline in her tanks.

Today she was still burning furiously and Coast Guard officers predicted the fire would rage for at least five days unless the ship could be torpedoed.

The ships struck in a zero visibility fog. There was an immediate explosion. Many of the dead men were trapped below decks.

Catholic Encyclopedia to Include 150 Volumes

NEW YORK—A New York firm has acquired world English-language rights to a 150-volume Roman Catholic encyclopedia being published in France. Publication in the United States and Canada will begin in mid-1958 and will continue for six years at the rate of two volumes a month. The general title will be "The 20th Century Encyclopedia of Catholicism."

Practicing Knots, Boy Hangs Himself

Blanc said he had cautioned the boy when he saw him playfully slip a hangman's noose over his head.

Baby Mule Resembles, Hops Like Kangaroo

PRESCOTT, Ariz. (AP) — A mule that looks and hops like a kangaroo has created a mystery at the I. H. Martin summer stable in this mile-high Arizona city.

★ ★ ★

The mule, born Wednesday night, is the offspring of Martin's 7-year-old Shetland pony Janie and a burro. At least Martin thinks it was a burro.

★ ★ ★

The foal's hind legs are normal, but the front ones are only six inches long. Soon after its birth, the creature bounced to the nearest clump of bushes and hid.

Dope Peddling Charge Pressed

Agents Arrest Suspect in Missouri; Expecting You, He Comments

By BARNEY BALLARD

JOPLIN, Mo. (AP)—A 40-year-old Missourian described by federal narcotics agents as a million-dollar dealer in high-grade heroin was arrested last night near here.

At Dallas, Tex., Ernest M. Gentry, district supervisor of the Federal Narcotics Bureau, said Clayton had been under investigation for several years.

"Strictly at a guess, based in part on his large number of customers, I believe Clayton has done at least one million dollars worth of illicit business in high-grade heroin the past seven or eight years," said Gentry.

He said there were indications that Clayton had connections with Mafia, a world crime syndicate, and added: "We understand he has prominent connections in Kansas City."

★ ★ ★

(At Kansas City, a police spokesman said the department never had heard of Clayton.)

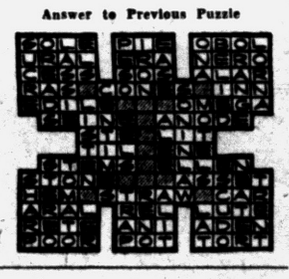

Capone's Lawyer in Fix

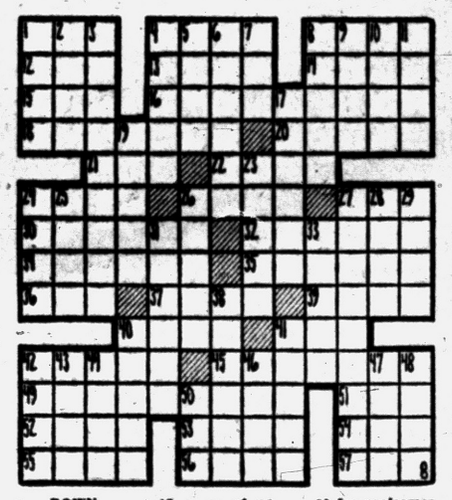

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The late gangster Al Capone's attorney has pleaded innocent to a bad check charge. Trial for Abraham Teitelbaum was set for Sept. 29 in Municipal Court. He was arrested last month on a complaint that he had cashed a $100 worthless check at a market.

Gene Nelson Marries

Hal Boyle Says:

No Backward Glance for Thornton Wilder

NEW YORK (AP) — Thornton Wilder, who has spent much of his life studying past cultures, doesn't believe a man should spend much time in his own personal past.

"I erase as I go along," he said cheerfully. "I look forward so much I have only an imperfect memory for the past.

"When your eyes are directed to the future, you have no hurt feelings over the praise or criticism of the moment — because, moment by moment, the present becomes the past.

"You have the sense of forever beginning your career, of trying to offer something new to interest the community."

At 61, the writer, a three-time Pulitzer Prize winner, still has all the eagerness of a stage-struck boy. One of his latest major plays, "The Matchmaker," has just been made into a film by Paramount, and he is currently working on seven one-act experimental plays.

"They are designed to be acted on a circular stage," he said "The box-shaped theater of the last century was a terrible mistake. All over the world now the theater is flowing back to a freer stage—one projecting out into the audience and giving more intimacy."

Wilder, a white-mustached man with a booming laugh, regards his single act plays as "five-finger exercises" for his major dramas, two of which—"Our Town" and "The Skin of our Teeth" — won Pulitzer Prizes. Earlier he won his first Pulitzer with "The Bridge of San Luis Rey," a novel.

"But a good one act play will pay you $5,000 a year in royalties," he remarked.

★ ★ ★

As a comfortable afterthought, he added: "I have three."

One of the most conscientious craftsmen of his generation, Wilder spent many years teaching literature by day and trying to create it at night.

Drunk Motorist Will Remember Six-Inch Trip

ELIZABETH, N.J. (AP) — It was only a six-inch trip, but Kenneth Kline will remember it for at least two years.

His driver's license was suspended for that period yesterday and he was forced to pay a $200 fine when his conviction on a drunk-driving charge was upheld.

Secero said he had warned Kline not to drive. Kline claimed he had merely stepped into his car and had intended to let his sister take the wheel. His car had moved only six inches when he was arrested, he said.

But County Judge Milton A. Feller ruled that, as far as drunken driving is concerned, six inches is as good as a mile.

Pravda Prints Speech Attacking U.S. Policy

MOSCOW (AP) — Pravda today featured Sen. J. William Fulbright's speech in the U.S. Senate attacking American foreign policy and demanding an overhaul by the Eisenhower administration.

The Communist party newspaper gave the Arkansas Democrat's Aug. 6 speech a half-page spread and headline its report "On the Brink of Catastrophe."

"I'm not even sure what form a work will take. I have one now, to be called 'The Widow of Monterrey,' which I hope to write as soon as it makes up its mind whether it wants to be a play or novel."

Wilder regards the theater as the greatest of all arts, and believes America is the "most theater-infatuated nation in all history."

"Anybody can make a comedy which is cruel. It is very hard to make a comedy which is kind. To give a fellow feeling between the young and the old—that is art."
