Spanish War Twins Are 79

Hoover Highly Confident About Country's Economy

WASHINGTON (UP)—Former President Herbert Hoover assured the nation Monday night it can have "high confidence" that the country is not headed into another "great depression" like the one he grappled with two decades ago.

The 79-year-old former President said the "combustible materials" that triggered the depression during his administration are not around now to haunt the first Republican President since he left office.

Mr. Hoover expressed confidence the economy will ride out the current dip, which he declined to give a specific name. But he said if times do get tough, taxes should be cut in order to pump more consumer buying power into the economy.

Fumes Claim Second Victim

Carbon Monoxide Kills Man Who Slept in Car Inside Closed Garage

Exhaust fumes from a car idling in a closed garage claimed their second victim Monday night when Alexander Williams, 49, of 438 S. Saginaw St., died of carbon monoxide poisoning in Pontiac General Hospital.

His son-in-law, Clarence Daniels, 24, of 638 Arthur Ave., also sleeping in the S. and W. Service garage Sunday night, was pronounced dead Monday morning after employees found both men unconscious.

A third person who spent the night in the garage, Johnnie Williams, 32, of 819 Dittmar St., suffered slight illness according to authorities.

Pontiac Detective John Williams termed the deaths accidental after an autopsy showed Daniels died from the carbon monoxide fumes.

Raymond V. Snell, of 345 Exmoor St., garage owner, said today he "had no knowledge that the men were staying in the garage and I didn't give them permission to stay here over the weekend."

Snell said he learned that an employee had allowed them to remain in the building. Garage employees said both men were out of work.

Police said the men apparently left one car idling so its heater would keep going.

Jack Habel to Testify in Condemnation Suit

Jack Habel is expected to take the stand tomorrow in Oakland County Circuit Court in an attempt to show why the city should not condemn his property at 11-49 Parke St. for use as a municipal parking lot.

The city's suit to condemn the property was adjourned last Friday by Circuit Judge George B. Hartwick until 9:30 a.m. Wednesday.

A jury will decide whether or not the property owned by the Jack Habel Chevrolet Co. should be condemned and if so, what compensation Habel will receive for the land.

Traffic experts called by both sides during the two-week trial have disagreed on the necessity of the land for downtown parking and also on the value of the land.

Bay City Plant for Magnesium Burns, Explodes

Firemen Spray Blaze With Water Unaware of Chemical Stores

BAY CITY (AP)—Firemen stood helplessly early today as some two and one-half tons of magnesium ignited and destroyed the main building of the Midland Magnesium Co., about two miles north of the city.

Firemen at first inadvertently sprayed water onto the magnesium in the building. They said they had no way of knowing that magnesium, a chemical that explodes in water, had been stored there.

No one was reported injured in the fire which was first reported at 2:45 a.m.

Plant owner Richard McCann, of Bay City, estimated the loss at about $40,000. The magnesium was stored in a quonset-type main warehouse of steel construction. Observers said the building "just melted."

State Police from the Bay City Post blocked off the area on U.S. 23 and re-routed traffic. They said the glare of the blazing magnesium was visible from as far away as Flint.

Firemen said a special chemical is required to extinguish magnesium fires and none was available to them. Their only course of action, they said, was to contain the fire to the one area.

Authorities said they were unable immediately to determine the fire's origin since the plant was closed for the night.

State Police said an investigation probably would be undertaken later in the day when the heat subsided.

McCann said his plant was a magnesium fabricating firm producing material on a sub-contract basis. He said they had been turning out machine die castings for Chrysler Corp.

The work force normally included 25 persons, McCann added, and he said the destroyed plant had served as factory and warehouse.

Newspaper Readers at All-Time High

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Daily newspaper circulation in America reached an all-time high in 1953, N. W. Ayer & Son announced yesterday.

The Philadelphia advertising agency, in its 86th annual directory of newspapers and periodicals, also said there was a slight drop in the number of daily newspapers. But this was matched, it said, by an almost equal rise in the number of Sunday papers.

The authoritative directory said combined circulation of English-language dailies by the end of 1953 was 54,048,953, marking the first time that circulation has topped 54 million.

"The increase proves the continuing healthy growth of newspapers in spite of competition from other news media," the agency said.

Report on Berlin

Dulles to Woo Congress Over Outcome of Parley

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles comes out today for/round two in his fight to win Congress to his view that this country more than held its own at the Big Four meeting in Berlin.

He arranged to meet with the House Foreign Affairs Committee and presumably he planned to take the same line he adopted in briefing key Democratic and Republican congressional leaders Monday: that U. S. agreement to seat Red Chinese delegates at an April conference in Geneva on Asiatic peace problems does not mean that U. S. recognition of Red China is in the offing.

Meanwhile, there was one indication that Dulles had failed to quiet all the doubts in the minds of the lawmakers with whom he talked for 90 minutes in his office Monday.

Sen. Knowland of California, the Republican Senate leader, said in a New York speech last night he has "substantial" misgivings about the decision of the Big Four foreign ministers to invite the Chinese Reds to the Geneva conference.

Sen. Knowland also objected to discussion of Indochina unless representatives of the affected states are on hand and enjoying an "equal voice."

Later Dulles issued a formal statement that "there would be" (Continued on Page 2, Col. 3)

Dies at Home

Former Banker Taken by Death

Charles J. Merz Dies in Battle Creek After Lengthy Illness

Charles J. Merz, 67, former Pontiac banker, died at his home, 180 North Ave., in Battle Creek, early today. He had been in ill health for some time and bedridden since November, 1953. He had lived in Battle Creek since 1932.

Born in Detroit, Dec. 19, 1886, he was the son of Henry and Julia Merz. He received his early schooling in Detroit, moving with his parents to a farm in Pontiac Township in 1896. He took a course at Pontiac Business College.

His first banking experience was with the former American Savings Bank here where he started work in 1908. He became assistant cashier and director of this bank when he was 27 years of age.

Mr. Merz became cashier and director of the Pontiac Savings Bank late in 1916. He rose to first vice-president of the bank in 1920 following the amalgamation of Pontiac Savings Bank and First Commercial and Savings Bank. He continued in that capacity when the Oakland County Savings Bank joined later the same year. He also was assistant treasurer of the Pontiac Trust Company.

When in Pontiac, he had served as president of Pine Lake Country Club and as a director of the Board of Commerce and the YMCA. He was also a trustee at the First Presbyterian Church of which he was a member.

Mr. Merz was a member of Pontiac Lodge 19, Knights of Phythias. Surviving is his widow, the former Mary A. Giddings, whom he married Sept. 27, 1911; a son, Major Charles Merz of Sairborn, Ohio; a daughter, Mrs. A. J. (Ruth) Michal of Pontiac; three brothers, Henry of Pontiac; Julius of Birmingham, Herman, and a sister, Clara.

Also surviving are four granddaughters.

Hat Check Girl Learns Royalty Can Be Broke

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP)—It happened at a big movie theater in Stockholm.

Some minutes before the hall darkened a tall, elderly man put his hat and coat on the cloakroom counter.

The hat check girl, without looking up took the clothes, and asked for 25 ore (about 5 cents).

"I'm sorry, I haven't any money," the man replied.

"It will be 25 ore anyhow," she retorted.

The man turned to someone behind and borrowed a coin for the girl.

She looked up and saw—King Gustav of Sweden.

U.S. Bombers Used by French Protecting Laos

Heavy Losses Inflicted on Red Rebels, Forcing Them to Retreat

SAIGON (INS)—American-built planes rushed to Indochina were used today by French airmen to inflict heavy casualties on Red troops forced into a retreat from the approaches of the Royal Laotian capital of Luang Prabang.

The French high command announced that units of the Vietminh "iron division" and guerrillas also had withdrawn from the capital's outer defense port of Muong Sai, 55 miles north of Luang Prabang.

Attacked constantly by the French airmen, flying fighter-bombers supplied by the United States, the rebels of Gen. Vo Nguyen Giap's division were trying to regroup in the Nam Bac valley at a point 56 miles northeast of Luang Prabang.

The French airmen caught one battalion in close formation at a point six to seven miles east of Muong Sai and inflicted heavy casualties.

Hundreds of rafts and sampans and a number of bridges also were blasted.

The threat to Luang Prabang and Muong Sai was eased but it was too early to know the intentions of the enemy who has been regrouping for 48 hours.

There was no indication that the Communists were withdrawing altogether from northern Laos or whether they had decided on new objectives.

The announcement today said that Red troops which failed to take Muong Sai since the northern invasion began Jan. 30 suffered heavy casualties from French artillery and plane attacks.

It added that local Vietminh irregulars—the guerrilla spearheads of the invasion—had fallen back from the approaches to Luang Prabang.

The royal capital of Luang Prabang, which King Sisavang Vong has refused to leave, was the target last April and May of another Red drive which failed.

Seeley Linked to Moving Firm

Grand Rapids Operator Says He and Mrs. Ley Held Third Interests

LANSING (AP)—Sam McCoy, a Grand Rapids mover, claimed today that G. Palmer Seeley, former State Highway Department right-of-way buyer in Grand Rapids, was one third owner of a moving company which profited from state property purchases in western Michigan.

State Police Detective Farrell Babcock and Paul Sullivan, a state auditor, said that McCoy had made the charge to them but that "we haven't had a chance as yet to check out his statements."

McCoy said that he was associated with Seeley and Mrs. Lois Moon Ley, Muskegon realtor, in the Midwest Moving and Transfer Co. of Grand Rapids from 1949 to 1952.

Aud. Gen. John E. Martin Jr. said that the dealings of the Midwest company have been under study.

"There is a possibility," he said, "that the company made improper profits by the moving of houses from land bought from the state for right-of-way."

Seeley was removed last week by Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler on the recommendation of Atty. Gen. Frank G. Millard.

Millard launched an investigation of a study by Martin's staff that revealed the possibility that the state had lost thousands of dollars in western Michigan by improper land deals.

Envoy Says Chinese Killed 15 Million of Own Citizens

WASHINGTON (AP)—Asst. Secretary of State Walter S. Robertson has told Congress the Chinese Reds, in "just about the bloodiest pattern that the Communists have followed in any country in the world," have killed about 15 million of their own people since 1949.

Robertson, whose province is Far Eastern affairs, attributed this huge death toll to liquidations and government-ignored starvation. In testimony on the State Department's budget request, made public by the House Appropriations Committee today, Robertson said the department anticipates in Asia for the foreseeable future "emergencies, crises and problems of the greatest importance and magnitude."

He made these other main points:

1. A basic American strategy is to keep powerful Chinese Nationalist forces on Formosa as a constant threat of American-supported military action against Red China.

2. On the mainland "there is a deep undercurrent of unrest and resentments that would be glad to follow some other leadership if it had the chance."

3. New outlets must be found for Japanese trade, including more access to American markets, "or we will inevitably throw Japan into the Communist orbit."

4. For an indefinite period "we must make a contribution toward keeping our allies strong." In "Formosa and Korea we have an army of just about one million men... a big reserve against trouble in Asia" but a financial drain too heavy for these countries to handle alone.

Robertson, who once served as President Eisenhower's personal envoy to South Korea, gave this sketch of Communist China from available information:

The mainland had one of its worst famines in history in 1950. "Throughout that period the Communist government was exporting food, with thousands of people dying of starvation, to Soviet Russia in exchange for industrial equipment and military supplies."

The best estimate is "... that including the deaths from starvation plus the liquidations—the liquidations in public squares, where they just lined them up and turned the machine guns on them; the liquidations of the political opposition, the landowners, business people and the classes that they want to exterminate—that the Communists have liquidated about 15 million people since 1949."

Pvt. Frederick J. Hapgood, of 257 Seward St., has been listed by a Defense Department report as "presumed dead" after being missing in Korea more than a year.

He had been listed by the Reds as dead last August.

Pvt. Hapgood came here from Newfoundland in April 1948, and was inducted into the Army in 1949. He was released in the spring of 1950 but re-enlisted in July 1950 when he was 26 years old.

He had served with the 24th Infantry Division but was transferred to the First Cavalry Division as a mortarman.

Pvt. Hapgood made his home with his sister, Mrs. Robert Stephens on Seward street.

Mrs. Stephens said she hadn't heard anything from her brother after the U.N. forces withdrew from a forward position in November 1950.

He was reported missing in action early in 1951.

Two other sisters, Mrs. Covert Brown and Mrs. Cleo Brown, and one brother, Edward, reside in Pontiac.

Hearings Go On While McCarthy Awaits Stevens

Face-to-Face Meeting of Senator, Secretary Delayed Till Thursday

NEW YORK (AP)—A former FBI undercover informant testified today that she had known as a dues-paying, card-carrying Communist a woman who Sen. McCarthy claims is presently handling "top secret messages" as an Army code room employee.

Mrs. Mary Markward, the FBI informer, named the Army employee as Annie Lee Moss.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) broadened his attack today on the Army's handling of alleged Communists in its ranks as he waited for a face-to-face showdown with Secretary of the Army Robert T. Stevens.

Stevens was to have appeared this morning before McCarthy's Senate Investigations subcommittee to reply to the Wisconsin senator's charges that the Army was trying to "coddle and promote Communists."

But McCarthy late yesterday ordered the hearing postponed until Thursday, partly to accommodate Sen. Dirksen (R-Ill.), who had a conflicting engagement, but also, McCarthy said, to give Stevens a chance to prepare fully for his testimony.

Instead, McCarthy called a so far unidentified witness to a public hearing (10:45 a.m., EST) which he predicted would show "how the Army handled the case of another known Communist."

McCarthy said the inquiry has nothing to do with his blasts at the Army for honorably discharging Maj. Irving Peress, now a practicing dentist in New York. McCarthy has called Peress a "fifth amendment Communist."

Peress termed the McCarthy charges "sheer nonsense."

It was the Peress case that touched off a barrage of charges and counter charges between McCarthy and the Army.

Like some diseases, these domestic tides are never fatal—except when candidates for public office are on the wrong side of the tide," Hoover said.

He said the "combustible materials" that helped spark the depression of the 1930's are not "on the landscape at the present time."

Those, he said, were the "total financial collapse" of Europe and the "51 different, weak and motley banking systems," in the United States.

"Thus in the absence of the gigantic combustibles and with an opportunity for remedy you can have high confidence that this is only a passing dip, a slump, a readjustment or a recession, not a great depression."

Seeks to Delay 4th Judge Bill

Broomfield Wants Week to Unite County Solons Before Debate Starts

Rep. William S. Broomfield (R-Royal Oak) will ask Michigan House of Representatives today to postpone debating Oakland County's fourth circuit judge bill another week.

Broomfield said in the meantime he'll attempt to unite the county delegation behind his bill, earlier scheduled to come up for debate today.

The bill, approved by the Oakland County Board of Supervisors, is opposed by Reps. Leann Harrelson (D-Pontiac), Walter T. McMahon (D-Hazel Park) and Fred G. Beardsley (R-Oxford).

Both Harrelson and McMahon want the bill amended to let Gov. G. Mennen Williams appoint a fourth judge now instead of waiting for the November election.

The bill as introduced by Broomfield would allow county voters to elect the fourth judge when the new post is filled for the first time.

Broomfield says there isn't any money in this year's county budget to pay the county's share of another judge's salary.

Broomfield said Beardsley believes the county should wait until a new courthouse-office building is built so the judge can have his own courtroom. But Broomfield said the supervisors' meeting hall in the county office building could double as a courtroom in the meantime.

Authorities investigating the M. A. Benson Lumber Co. fire said today that twisted and badly burned electrical wiring indicated the fire was touched off by lightning.

Earlier, several nearby residents said they saw a vivid flash of lightning just before the fire broke out in the lumber company's main building at 549 N. Saginaw St.

Company officials said the tentative damage figure of $125,000 may go higher after a more complete check of the charred remains. Final estimates are not expected until Wednesday or Thursday.

M. A. Benson Jr., secretary-treasurer of his father's company, said the building was heavily stocked with top-grade lumber in preparation for the spring construction season.

He said about 12 wood-working machines were destroyed when fire leveled the building.

Fire Chief John F. Schroeder and Pontiac Electrical Superintendent John W. Emerson investigated the ruins Monday.

Schroeder said he also is trying to run down a rumor that several persons were seen in the building prior to the fire.

Commissioners Expected to OK Hospital Bond Vote

The Pontiac City Commission is expected to give final approval tonight to placing a $3,000,000 hospital bond issue on the April 5 ballot.

Commissioners passed first reading of the ordinance last week. A three-fifths vote of city property owners would be needed to approve the plan.

The city must pledge $1 per $1,000 of the property tax to back the bond issue. But City Manager Walter K. Willman has said

Pontiac would actually only need to levy 50 cents per $1,000 of payments, with the hospital supplying the rest from revenues.

The commissioners are also scheduled to hear a report from City Engineer Lewis M. Wrenn on a bid received from the Pilgrim Holiness Church to purchase lots 126 and 127 of Hillside Manor Subdivision.

Engineer's estimates are expected for proposed construction of curb, gutter, drainage and related work on:

First from Joslyn to Barkell. Second from Joslyn to the east end of the street. Third from Barkell to Fuller. Westwork from Joslyn to the east end of the street. Willard from Center to Padlock.

A communication is expected from Harold S. Norman regarding improvements planned by the Green and Sarko Building Co. in the proposed plat of Linda Vista Subdivision.

Public hearings are scheduled on intention to construct curb, gutter, drainage and related work on:

E. Tenayson from Baldwin to University. Barkell from Barkell to Columbia. E. Tenayson from Joslyn to Fuller. Fiddis from Joslyn to the east end of the street. Wilson from Joslyn to E. Boulevard. Irwin from Joslyn to E. Boulevard.

A public hearing is expected on a special assessment roll for curb, gutter, drainage and related work on Bondale from Earlmoor to the east line of the subdivision.

A declaration of public necessity is slated for a two-inch asphalt recap on S. Padlock from Osman to Jessie and Central.

Resolutions are expected to receive special assessment rolls for curb, gutter, drainage and related work on:

Harrison from Franklin to Bagley. Markle from Joslyn to the east end of the street. Going from Osman to Whittemore.

Secretary of Labor Avoiding Flint Strike

FLINT, Mich. (AP)—Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell was a guest of industrial Flint today and virtually face to face with a big labor dispute.

It was indicated, however, that he would take no personal part in the matter.

The secretary was here for a Lincoln Day address tonight and a tour of auto plants during the day.

At two of the plants, General Motors' Buick V8 and jet engine factories, the AFL's local Flint Union and the AFL Teamsters Local 290 of Detroit are in a jurisdictional scrap.

As they were yesterday, city police were on the alert today against any picket line trouble.

The teamsters claimed exclusive rights to all work attendant on the job of removing government machinery from the plants. This includes crating. Carpenters in Flint, supported by the Flint Industrial Union Council, insist on part of the work.

Urge Reds Ease Reich Barriers

West Proposes Talks to Loosen Trade, Travel Restrictions

BONN, Germany (AP)—The Western high commissioners want to talk with the Russians about easing restrictions on trade and travel within divided Germany.

They outlined their ideas in similar letters last night to Soviet High Commissioner Vladimir S. Semenov and his Berlin representative, Sergei Dengin. They proposed negotiations for the removal of what they called "unjustifiable obstacles" set up by the Russians between East and West Germany and East and West Berlin.

Acting four days after the wind-up of the Berlin Big Four Foreign Ministers Conference, which deadlocked on the question of German unity, the United States, British and French commissioners suggested elimination of such things as:

The Red border death zones, street barriers, red tape on westerners' travel in East Germany, the Communist system of controls on goods, the barriers to free circulation of books, newspapers, magazines and films.

Proposals for Berlin included the restoration of such city-wide services as mail, streetcars and dial telephones.

The Russians have shown no particular eagerness in the past to junk this system of controls.

Otto Nuschke, Communist East Germany's deputy prime minister, said in a newspaper article Sunday the Eastern price for removing restrictions would be the abolition of "Western agent centers"—his term for such agencies as the American-operated radio Rias, the anti-Communist Fighting Group against Inhumanity and the League of Free Jurists.

East German Communists staged demonstrations in the Soviet zone last night criticizing the Western stand at the Big Four Conference that a unified Germany be based on all-German elections and allowed to choose its partners in economy and defense.

The East German news agency said 10,000 persons rallied at Potsdam, 150,000 at Leipzig and more than 50,000 at Rostock. East Berlin's Mayor Friedrich-Bert was quoted as telling the Potsdam gathering the Big Four conference provided evidence "The Western imperialists have not yet abandoned their old intentions of hurling Germany into another war."

Rowston to Oppose More Bars in City

Philip E. Rowston, who is running for pontiac City Commission from District 2, is the 14th candidate to sign a statement opposing the increase in liquor-by-the-glass permits.

Dr. Henry Savage of the First Baptist Church said Rowston stated he was "not in agreement with the action taken by a majority of the city commission to circumvent the city ordinance" by voting to grant 12 additional licenses.

Thirteen other commission candidates have taken similar stands, although Savage said some signed statements with slightly different wording.

The statements were solicited by Dr. Milton Bank, chairman of the Citizens Referendum Committee which opposes the liquor permit hike.

Woman Finds Practical Nursing Is a Satisfying Career

Specializes in Work She Likes Best, Caring for Convalescent Old People

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

"Dear Miss Woodward: The other night my girl friend and I (both aged 13) went skating, and we met a boy there who is 18. He kept talking to me, and now I think I like him."

"Mom says I should keep to boys my own age. At the present time I do like a boy who is 14. Should I stick to him or make a play for that older boy?"

You were pretty thrilled over having that older boy pay some attention to you. But there's not much point in staying thrilled! He may consider you a baby, you know.

And wouldn't you be wasting steam glowing over attention he may consider the "bouncing on his knee" variety? He wants to date girls who are old enough to keep up with him.

You'd be smart to stick to boys you can keep up with. Your 14-year-old friend sounds like just what the doctor ordered.

"Dear Miss Woodward: We've been writing to each other for nearly two years—he lives in another state. I think he likes me as much as I like him, but I'm beginning to wonder.

"His last few letters have mentioned this blonde who goes to his school. And in his last letter he asked me what I thought would become of our relationship."

"I don't know how to answer that. Would you just forget him and stop writing entirely?"

Hints that he's leading a life of his own are beginning to creep into his letters—and they scare you. Make you feel he's building up to a big letdown for you. But why scare so easily?

You two can't be together—your lives go merrily on far apart. It's normal that he should be attracted enough to have dates with blondes, brunettes and redheads who are where he is. It's normal that you should have fun with the boys who go to your school.

Your friendship is quite separate from all that. It's had enough depth and strength to keep you writing to each other for two years. Why shouldn't it go right on in spite of local distractions?

When you write back to him, skip the blonde, but tell him what you hope will happen to your friendship. And you hope it will continue, you'll be able to get together again soon and he'll go right on thinking you're one of the nicest girls he knows, don't you?

"Dear Miss Woodward: I left a girl behind me when I came away to college. We'd gone together a long time, but she ended it when I went away so she could go with other boys.

"She's changed a lot—all of her friends have turned against her. But I want her back. What do you think?"

Why stew over a girl you're too far away to date? Wait until you get home for a long holiday and see how she looks to you then. You're cherishing memories of how things used to be.

But changes have been made. And more are still to be made. Maybe they will be for the better—when you're around to profit by them!

Dab of Jelly Hides Inside Each Cookie

Recipe Is Given by Louise Sanderson, Teenage Cook

By JANET ODELL

Pontiac Press Food Editor Our teenage cook today is Louise Sanderson of Westacres. Completing her senior year in high school, Louise has a variety of interests. She is already an excellent home-maker and accomplished cook.

She belongs to the Future Teachers of America Club and sings in her church choir. One of her newer activities is that of assistant in a Girl Scout troop.

Louise took a sugar cookie recipe and made it even better by adding a surprise of jelly. Try her idea the next time your cookie jar is empty.

SURPRISE COOKIES

By Louise Sanderson

1/2 teaspoon salt

Sift these ingredients together. To this sifted mixture add the following:

1/2 cup soft shortening
1 cup sugar
2 eggs
1 teaspoon vanilla or 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
1 tablespoon milk

Beat until well blended—about three minutes. Wrap in waxed paper and chill about two hours (chilling is optional). Roll out one-eighth-inch thick. Cut with round cutter.

Place a bit of jelly on each cookie and cover with more cookie dough. Sprinkle with sugar.

Bake on a greased baking sheet about 10 minutes in a 425-degree oven. Makes about 2 1/2 dozen large cookies.

Tiny Wall Table Extends to 112-Inch Banquet Size

By ELIZABETH HULLYER

Give the new favorite kind of party—the sit-down buffet—and you need a table that seats from 8 to 12.

At a sitdown buffet, guests serve themselves buffet style, but there's no juggling of plates on their laps

Spring Styles Put Spotlight on Fabrics

The big inspiration for 1934 spring fashions is the "weather." Strong as the impact of the new shorter narrow silhouette appears to be, the real blueprint of fashion this spring points to the character of the fabrics, of types of clothes and their detailing, specifically chosen to bridge the long season between winter and fall, now recognized as one prolonged period of mild weather.

This conclusion is uppermost following the review of some 140 New York collections by one publication's fashion staff. Coats, suits, dresses, contribute alike to this interpretation of fashion with this new and realistic concern of the weather, rather than the calendar.

they sit down at a table just as if they were to be served.

Very few dining rooms these days are big enough for a permanent table that seats 12, but for sometime party service there may be room, even in a living-dining room area.

The table that's handy for the party needn't be all the time. Extra capable tables can be found that start small and grow to great lengths.

Sketched is one of them, which hits two extremes, from a 9-inch-wide huddle to the wall to a 112-inch banquet length, seating 12.

In between, this table raises one leaf for two or three, and two leaves for six.

Mary Margaret McBride Says:

Simple Gifts Are Special If Chosen Thoughtfully

If anybody thinks I'm a bit out of season with a homily on thoughtful gifts and givers, let him take note that there are only 305 days until Christmas.

A friend, bearing an armload of paper-back mystery stories—not one of which I'd read before, started me on the subject of thoughtful giving.

I was bound to the country for a rest and Janice had taken the trouble not only to check the contents of my escape literature shelves but also to remember that I like my murders laid in a pleasant house-party atmosphere. The books represented no great outlay of money but the donor gave lavishly of time and concern.

Another thoughtful present comes every birthday from a big organization for which I once did some work. It's a box of chocolates and someone with fine feeling and a long memory recalls not only that I prefer milk chocolate to dark but carefully picks out my favorite pieces. High on my list of graceful givers are: Jane who knows about my blue sitting room and my affection for the tiny red roses that look so charming there; Martin who never fails to mark the anniversary of my mother's death by sending her favorite yellow roses; Jean with her melt-in-the-mouth pecan cookies; Florence with my favorite butter and cream penuche.

Joe Wing, one of my editors, tells me at his house they await with special eagerness the package of black walnut meat sent annually by an Iowa friend. "Frances bakes a walnut cake as soon as the nuts come and the mellow flavor is like a breath from the autumn woodlands of my boyhood when we lugged the walnuts home in a burlap bag from a grove by Indian Creek," Joe recalled dreamily.

The wife of another editor feels quite differently about her father-in-law because of a delicate attention after he had visited her for a few days. Evidently he noticed the weary time she spent ironing tablecloths upon which her active children had spilled milk and jelly. He went right out and bought her a collection of plastic tablecloths.

"I really don't much like plastic tablecloths," Emily confessed sheepishly, "but the realization that he had noticed and cared enough to try to help me made me cry."

This is the kind of giving that is not bare—because the giver and his heart are so very much a part of even the most prosaic-seeming present.

I'm glad there are 305 days until Christmas. Gives us time to educate our hearts.

From AP Newsfeatures

Dominant Silhouette Is Short, Slim Skirt

Unquestionably the short narrow skirt is the fashion silhouette. It dominates dresses and suits; coats, if not straight themselves, are built around the narrow dress or suit. Shorter this season means midcalf, but many manufacturers have shown them even shorter by way of making the newness of the short look penetrate.

"Shorter" and "straight" introduce a silhouette that has not been seen in a decade.

The modest and simple look of the new fashions adds to the basically youthful character of the silhouette. The use of softer fabrics has a restraining influence, and color in similarly quieted down.

Sink Time Adds Up

Madam, when you complain about doing dishes, you're absolutely right. The statisticians have figured out this interesting fact: If you wash dishes just 15 minutes after each meal, and if you do it for 40 years, you'll have put in 657,000 minutes of drudgery in the dish suds.

Rochester to Re-ballot Tomorrow on School Bond Issue

Technical Error Voided 1st Vote

$1.8 Million Fund, OKed
Dec. 15, Again to Be Put to Election Test

By HAZEL A. TRUMBLE

ROCHESTER—"Back to the polls" will be the slogan of the Rochester Community School District tomorrow.

The electorate of the district again will cast their votes on one-half of the school building bond issue, approved by them Dec. 15 but declared invalid due to a technical error in the notice of election publication.

By a more than two-to-one total of votes, the district endorsed the $1,800,000 bond issue. This called for a 2.75-mill tax levy to finance the proposed building program.

Omission of a 1-mill tax levied in the Macomb County portion of the district on the pre-election notice voided the tax limitation part of the bond issue.

Bond attorneys asked that that portion of the issue be re-voted upon to make it valid. This is necessary, they said, before the Municipal Finance Commission will allow the sale of the bonds.

Already approved in principle by the Commission, the bond sale will be completed soon after the removal of this technicality.

Donald Baldwin, superintendent of Rochester schools, urged that the people realize the importance of reappearing at the polls to validate this election.

"Many may feel that because it was so overwhelmingly approved on Dec. 15, it will pass this time without their support. It is extremely important for the boys and girls of this school district that everyone come out Wednesday and cast their vote as they did on Dec. 15."

"If approved, the elementary school additions proposed will be started as soon as weather will permit and work will be started on the proposed high school grounds," Baldwin stated.

The issue is to provide a new high school, a high school site, a new North End elementary school, additions to the Goodison and Hamlin schools and additional playground area at Avon School.

The Rochester Citizens' Advisory Committee who worked for several months prior to the successful passing of the Dec. 15 issue again turned out to campaign for Wednesday's re-vote.

"Our work will not be complete until we know that this bond issue has been approved and there are schools on the way for the boys and girls of this district. Too long we have waited for this to become an actuality and we must provide a good educational opportunity for our children," said Wallace Hodges, chairman of the citizens.

All qualified electors of the district are allowed to vote on this issue whether or not they are taxpayers.

Polls will be open from 7 to 8 p.m. on Wednesday with a canvass of the votes to follow immediately after the closing of the polls.

Waterford Township PTA Groups Arranging for Transportation to Polls

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — Parent Teacher Associations from the entire Waterford Township School District, together with many civic organizations in the area, today are making final plans to get people to the polls for Tuesday's special school election.

These PTA groups may be contacted for information and transportation to the polls.

Two school problems are facing the people and the board of education will present them to the electorate.

To be decided by the voters is the question of rapidly increasing elementary enrollment now housed on stages, in temporary rooms with some half-day sessions and class loads over the recommended size.

A solution for this is the proposal to build four new elementary school buildings and provide additions at Jayno Adams, Williams Lake, Waterford Center and Four Towns schools. Three new sites will also be purchased if the $1,400,000 issue is approved. The fourth site is now owned by the district.

Equally important is the problem of more pay for teachers which the voters are being asked to consider in the proposal which asks for a five mill levy for a period of five years.

Waterford as one of the 3 largest school districts in Oakland County is 28th on the list in size of teachers salaries.

By offering higher salaries, Waterford will be in a better position to compete with surrounding districts for teachers.

Also to be voted upon is a proposal asking for the recision of the three mill building and site

Farm Leaders Speculate on Fate of Ike's Program

WASHINGTON (INS) — Washington farm bloc leaders today speculated on the fate of the Eisenhower administration's farm proposals in wake of House Agriculture Committee Chairman Clifford Hope's statement that he favors a two-price plan for wheat and cotton.

Hope, a Kansas Republican and nominally the most powerful farm spokesman in the House, had not previously offered a price support plan to compete with the flexible support system advocated by President Eisenhower and Agriculture Secretary Ezra Taft Benson.

At the time Mr. Eisenhower sent his farm recommendations to Congress last month, Hope declined comment. Many of his close associates, however, believed he eventually would advocate continued rigid, high price supports—at least for one more year.

The plan proposed by Hope, however, is one he had looked upon with favor last summer, and one which was recommended to the administration by the National Grange.

When Mr. Eisenhower and his agriculture secretary turned down the two-price plan, the Grange announced that it would have to split with the administration on that particular issue.

Appearing on the same platform with Hope at Des Moines, Henry A. Wallace, former New Deal vice president and agriculture secretary, said that the nation must turn either to flexible supports or the two-price plan to solve its agricultural problems.

The two-price system actually is a latter-day relative of the McNary-McCaughey Bill which was

Town Approves Plat for Homes

Rochester Council OKs
Plan for 50 Houses in Brentwood Heights

ROCHESTER — Unanimous approval of the final plat, by the Village Council last night, was the go-ahead signal for construction of the new Brentwood Heights subdivision. Village Manager Robert Stone announced today.

Initial work on the 50-home division should be under way within 10 days, according to Felix Anderson of Johnson & Anderson Engineers, Pontiac.

As the first step, the council awarded a contract for storm and sanitary sewers and water lines to the Oak Park Construction Co. Anderson said actual construction of the ranch-type houses will probably be started within 60 to 90 days.

Under the plan, as drawn up between the village and the H. M. Seldon Co., the subdividers, the village awards all contracts for improvements to the property. The Seldon firm will pay the costs of the concrete streets, water lines, sewers and sidewalks.

The subdivision will have the first combination concrete curb, gutter and street arrangement in Rochester, according to the engineers.

To Start League for Community

Set Meeting Thursday
at Coleman Davidson
Home in Romeo

ROMEO — Residents here will have the chance to consider the formation of a Romeo Community League Thursday at a meeting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Coleman Davidson.

The meeting grew out of the conference held in Romeo Dec. 16 when some 87 civic minded persons from 10 communities gathered to discuss ideas for community betterment.

The proposed organization would be designed to concern itself with problems of common concern beyond the ability of individuals or a single organization to solve, according to Dr. Florence A. Browne, planning committee member.

"Such a league would have as its purpose the coordination of effort of organizations now in existence, and it is hoped that representatives of all such groups, cultural, youth, labor and others, as well as interested individuals, will attend the meeting," said Dr. Browne.

Mrs. Max Patrick of Marlette will give a description of the formation of Marlette's Community Council and its program at the meeting.

Blue Carstenson of the University of Michigan Extension Service will also be present to answer questions on experiences of other communities.

Educator Eyes Carver School

Taylor Asked to Study
Cheaper Way to Care for Mentally Retarded

LANSING (UP) — Rep. William S. Broomfield (R-Royal Oak) today asked Superintendent of Public Instruction Clair L. Taylor to "do all you can" to provide special teachers and facilities for training mentally retarded children at Oakland County's Carver School in Royal Oak Township.

Broomfield said Oakland County Probate Judge Arthur E. Moore also asked Taylor to prevent sending about 75 children to Lapeer State Home and Training School.

Moore said it would be less costly to care for the children with special courses at the Carver School than to send them to Lapeer.

In a letter to Broomfield, Moore said he believes Michigan should have special classes for retarded children "in every possible location and if necessary bring these youngsters by bus from various communities to a central school location for training."

"This type of program would be a great deal less expensive than the institutional program for mentally defective children which we now operate," Moore said.

Soybeans Show Best Gain Today

CHICAGO (AP)—Soybeans moved to their best price in February, 1954, on the board of trade today, breaking through the old OPA ceiling of $3.33 shortly after the opening.

Action of soybeans had some influence on the rest of the market, although new crop wheat deliveries were firm from the start. Demand entered these months largely on reports of more dust storms in parts of the winter wheat belt over the weekend.

It was the May soybean future which made the new top for the past three years. It moved up to $3.34 before retreating a bit.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was unchanged to 1/4 cent higher, March $2.14 1/4; corn 1/4 cent lower to 1/4 cent higher, March $1.51; oats 1/4 cent lower to 1/4 cent higher, March $1.17; soybeans 1 to 3 cents higher, March $3.31 1/4 and lard unchanged to 2 cents a hundred pounds higher, March $16.92.

Man Drifts 46 Days Through Coral Sea

BRISBANE, Australia (AP)—Viktor Zvezinets, 28, staggered ashore north of Cairns yesterday, suffering from malnutrition and exposure, after drifting 46 miles through the Coral Sea in an open 12-foot dinghy without a paddle. He had been at sea 46 days.

Latvian-born Zvezinets put out in the dinghy Jan. 6 from Thursday Island, just off the tip of Cape York, the northernmost part of Australia. Some days out, he lost his paddles in a storm.

His drift took him down the coastal section of northeast Australia, guarded by the Great Barrier Reef. He was hospitalized in Cairns, an island town 930 miles southeast of Thursday Island and 450 miles northwest of Brisbane.

Zvezinets was still too weak today to tell his full story, but said he trapped rain water in a cup and plate and lived largely on seaweed and a small shark he caught.

One Convict Killed in Attempted Break

SPEIGNER, Ala. (AP)—A 20-year-old white convict was shot to death and another wounded while trying to escape over the wall at Draper Prison early today.

First reports said three or more men were believed to have taken part in the attempted break and that at least one prisoner had made a getaway. Deputy Warden J. H. Robertson said, however, that a check of the prison population showed only the two inmates were involved.

The dead convict was identified as Ronald Coleman of Birmingham, Ala., who had been in prison only since June 1953 and who also figured in an escape plot in January.

The injured prisoner was listed as William Glover, 21, from Whigham, Ga.

Robertson said the two men were caught in the crossfire of two tower guards using high-powered shotguns.
