Not little green men from outer space, but Girl Scouts from Troop 146. All are attending the Cadette Roundup this week at Camp Sherwood near Lapeer. They are among 140 girls of junior high age from the Northern Oakland County Council who are doing primitive camping for four days. From the left are Ann Miller, Oneida Road; Paula Hulsman, St. Joseph Road, West Bloomfield Township; Barbara Crossman, Sylvan Lake; Mindy Joos, Ottawa Drive; and Laurie Crawford, Sylvan Lake.

Nancy Keils, Moore Street, displays some of the weather flags her patrol from Troop 32 is using at the Cadette Roundup this week. The "Herr Canes" patrol will demonstrate weather forecasting. Troop 616 whose leader is Mrs. William Eastham will show how to make a cook stove.

WOMEN'S SECTION

Give Boyfriend Till Christmas to Prove Serious Intentions

BY ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My sister, who is a 50-year-old divorcee asked if she could make her home with me. My husband and I have a rather large home, but both his mother and my mother live with us, and we still have two sons living at home which crowds us a little.

ABBY

My sister pays $50 room and board. She recently met a man who, I suppose, is "courting her."

We don't want to spoil her chances with him, but he comes over almost every night for supper, on my sister's invitation. After supper they take over the living room and everybody else has to go to bed.

How much longer should we put up with this? He takes her out occasionally, but not very often.

NO PRIVACY

DEAR NO: I realize it's tough sledding for a 50-year-old divorcee, but give him till Christmas, and if he doesn't put a ring in your sister's stocking, you put a bug in her ear.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: Re "NOSE JOB," — the girl who wanted her nose bobbed by a plastic surgeon: Her mother kept saying the girl had her father's nose, and his nose fit his face.

And you said, a girl's nose doesn't have to fit her father's face. Abby, you should have said if a girl was meant to resemble her father, or any other male relative, she would have had a flat chest. Yours sincerely.

ISOBEL IN TORONTO

DEAR ISOBEL: Some have.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: Permit me to introduce myself. I am Jerry Moshenberg and I edited a wrestling publication for two years, so I feel qualified to speak with some authority on the subject of wrestling.

It is impossible for a man to get anywhere in the wrestling profession unless he weighs 200 pounds, minimum!

And for a 42-year-old to start training for a career in wrestling is useless. Wrestlers should start in their teens as it takes years of hard training to become a pro. So tell "WANTS TO WRESTLE" to forget it, unless he wants to go to Scotland or England where they sanction bouts between men under 200 pounds. Very truly yours.

J. M. IN BALTIMORE

DEAR J. M.: "WANTS TO WRESTLE" is a woman. What are HER chances?

* * *

CONFIDENTIAL TO "LITTLE RED CONVERTIBLE" IN SACRAMENTO: An old technique for taking the sting out of criticism is to label the critics "jealous." Don't fall into that trap. The criticism may be just.

Problems? Write to Abby, in care of The Pontiac Press. For a personal reply, inclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Hate to write letters? Send $1 to Abby, in care of The Pontiac Press, for Abby's booklet, "How to Write Letters for All Occasions."

Junior High Girl Scouts Are at Camp Sherwood

Northern Oakland County Girl Scouts of junior high age are spending four days this week at a Cadette Roundup at Camp Sherwood near Lapeer.

Patterned after the senior roundups, the event gives the girls a chance to practice and perfect their camping skills, resourcefulness and personal adaptability.

Each patrol of five to 10 girls will present some kind of demonstration. All have made "potlatch" gifts to exchange.

A capping ceremony for girls entering 10th grade is planned.

At this time, they will officially become senior Girl Scouts and will wear their senior hats for the first time.

Adults accompanying the three Pontiac patrols are Mrs. Loyal Joos of Ottawa Drive and Mrs. George Beauchamp of Kuhn Street.

Concerts Begin On Belle Isle

The Detroit Symphony Orchestra with Valter Poole conducting will begin a series of summer concerts given in the Jerome H. Remick Memorial Shell on Belle Isle.

The concerts, sponsored by the Detroit Department of Parks and Recreation, begin at 8:30 p.m. on Aug. 23, 24, 26, 27, 28, 30, 31 and Sept. 2, 3 and 4.

The concerts are open to the public without charge.

Retirees Picnic

Members of the Pontiac Chapter No. 7, American Association of Retired Persons will meet for a picnic at Hawthorne Park, Wednesday at noon. In the event of rain, it will be held in the Knights of Columbus Hall on South Saginaw Street.

Don't Repay Friends for This Gift

By ELIZABETH L. POST

Dear Mrs. Post: I was given a beautiful sweater set as a going away present from my bridge club when it seemed that my husband was to be transferred to another office.

I was thrilled and wore it frequently. Now his company has decided to keep him here, and I am very upset; I don't know what to do about the sweaters.

Should I attempt to pay the girls back, since I can't return the sweaters and credit them? —June K.

Dear June: Heavens no! It would be very embarrassing to your friends if you tried to repay them. Show them how much you appreciate their gift by wearing it often and enjoying it.

OVER SEVENTY?

Dear Mrs. Post: I am in my seventies and am planning to marry a lady of the same age. My wife died six months ago, and we would like to know if we should wait longer.

We do not wish to show my wife any disrespect.—H. Franklin.

Dear Mr. Franklin: I'd say you've waited long enough. A young widow or widower should wait a year or so, but if I were you I wouldn't waste any more time.

BACHELOR?

Dear Mrs. Post: Is it all right to ask a man you have been talking to for a while if he is married? If you don't ask, how can you tell, since so many men don't wear wedding rings?—Irene.

Dear Irene: Go ahead and ask, but not too quickly, or you'll tip your hand.

Yanks Learn Fast to Slow Down

By GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor

NEW YORK — One of the Jessons Americans in South Viet Nam learn in a hurry is not to rush.

This we gleaned from a Vietnamese girl who's lived in Saigon for 11 of her 27 years, who deals daily with the American way, and who currently is on an around the world tour.

"First the Americans in Saigon have to learn to be patient," said Do Thi Thuy Hien.

* * *

"The first week, the Americans say, 'why don't you do things the way we do in the States? Quicker.'

But in a few days they understand this is war and then they don't hurry so much to get little jobs done."

Saigon, even with more than two million population and with American, Australian and New Zealand military men on the scene, still is a placid slow-paced city compared with the pace the Vietnamese girl ran into in Los Angeles, San Francisco, Washington and New York.

EVERYBODY HURRIES

"Always, everybody in a hurry," she smiled.

The petite Vietnamese is known to Americans as Yolande Hien — Yolande, she explained, was an easier name to handle which her teachers gave her when she was in a French convent school in her native Hanoi.

Her family was moved to Saigon by ship in a mass transfer of refugees in 1955 shortly after the Geneva conference ended the French-Indo war.

* * *

Yolande, fluent in English and French as well as her native language, worked for the U.S. Information Service for three years, was secretary at an Oriental airline, for awhile and then joined the American Broadcasting Company's Saigon news staff.

She serves as secretary to the bureau manager, acts as liaison between newsmen and the Vietnamese, and is unofficial hostess and guide for wives of newsmen and other U.S. women in her country.

Russia Names American 'Best Singer' at Contest

NEW YORK (NEA) — Jane Marsh sipped lemonade in her spacious hotel suite here and talked about the time when she had too much ice cream in Moscow.

This summer she had ice cream coming out of her ears when she replaced Van Cliburn as the most likely American to thaw the Cold War.

Eight years after Cliburn, the lanky Texan pianist, won top honors in Russia's annual Tchaikovsky competition, Miss Marsh, a pretty San Francisco soprano, was named the contest's best singer.

WON SERIES

"It was as if I'd won the World Series," she said, sipping modestly on her lemonade.

What was more remarkable about her achievement was that it was the first time the competition had been opened to singers—and that the 24-year-old Miss Marsh, who once wanted to swim in the Olympics, has only been studying voice for three years.

Her winning number was the taxing, 20-minute aria from Tatiana's letter scene in Tchaikovsky's opera, "Eugne Onegin."

When Prof. Alexander Svehnikov of the Moscow Conservatory and chairman of the jury named her as the winner, the Russians went wild and bombarded her with flowers and gifts.

On the morning she left to return to the United States for a series of concerts and television appearances (she will be on The Hollywood Palace and The Red Skelton Hour next season) some 300 admirers waved her goodbye at the airport.

Many had brought ice cream cones, which they wanted her to take back to America.

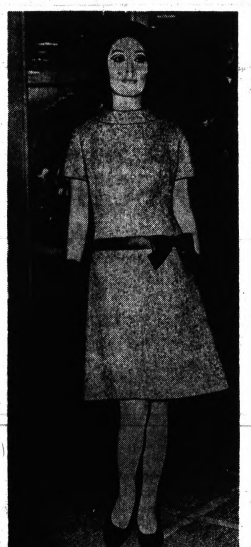

"I was dripping with melted ice cream as I left," said Miss Marsh, who plans on returning to Russia this fall for a series of concerts.

She has already opened up a bank account in Moscow (you can't take rubles out of the Soviet Union) where she plans on depositing her earnings — she receives about one-sixteenth of her regular U.S. concert fees. She'll use the money to buy fur coats.

COLLEGE STUDENT

Her interest in singing developed at Oberlin College, where she studied psychology.

Up to then the titian-haired Miss Marsh figured herself more as a horsewoman (she owned, trained and showed her own colt in horse shows throughout the country) and as a swimmer.

Entrancingly shaped is this leather bowed and belted tweed dress (left) made in a salt and pepper mixture by Shannon Rodgers. Right is Antonelli's new, widened cut in pants with masculine styling in a blazer suit. The suit, striped in tones of emerald, aubergine, olive green and violet, has a shawl collar softening the taut, tailored line of the six-button, double-breasted jacket. The fabric is a blend of "Orlon" acrylic and wool, stain-protected with "Zepel" fabric fluoridizer.

Horizontal and vertical lines—and vibrant colors—are handled with great distinction in Trico's fall collection. Ensemble in foreground pairs a bright red coat with dress in a vivid shade of violet, both knitted of "Orlon" acrylic. The unusual tucked effect in the coat goes two ways, as does the puffed tucking on the matching sleeveless dress. Second dress by this designer is a striking combination of lemon yellow and lavender. Top of dress and waistline are defined with tucked banding.

Ringenbergs Take Vows on Saturday

After Saturday vows and reception in the Bloomfield Hills Baptist Church, the Maryland Dale Ringenbergs (Carol Ann Prestel) left for a southern wedding-trip.

Their parents are the John H. Prestels of Devonshire Road and the Robert D. Ringenbergs of Elkhart, Ind.

Horizontal applique of three-dimensional Venise lace accented the bride's gown of white silk organza worn with chiffon headpiece and illusion veil.

* * *

An heirloom diamond - set gold cross and bouquet of white roses and Stephanotis completed her ensemble for the rite performed by Rev. Gaylord Lehman.

Betty Elliott was maid of honor with Diane Dinnan, Denise Fullarton and Beth Prestel as bridesmaids.

* * *

With Lee Rockafellow, best man, were groomsmen Jerald and Thomas Ringenberg, with ushers Raymond Peck, Joseph Luketich and Stephen and David White.

To Clean Cloisonne

Proud owners of cloisonne — enamel work with the surface pattern divided by thin wire strips — can wash such decorative pieces best by using a soft brush dipped into soap or detergent suds.

The brush — a pastry brush will do the trick — penetrates the crevices to ease out dirt and grime.

If you want that cheese bread to taste nippy, use a sharp-flavored cheddar cheese in it.

Miss Goryl Takes Vows

Reception in the Middle Straits Community Center followed the marriage of Patricia Anne Goryl to Donald Lee Dayner, Friday in Our Lady of Refuge Catholic Church.

* * *

The Tony S. Goryls of Orchard Lake and the Harold T. Dayners of LeBaron Avenue are parents of the couple who left for a northern honeymoon.

* * *

A tiered illusion veil complemented the bride's gown of white satin styled with long lace sleeves and Watteau train.

Glamellias centered her bouquet of white carnations and Stephanotis for the rite performed by Rev. Donald Kresmer.

* * *

With Cathy Goryl, honor maid, were bridesmaids Ann Froggatt, Patricia Hendel, Barbara Goryl and Susan Dayner, flower girl.

* * *

Best man was Dean LaBarge, with ushers Harry Dayner, Dan Chamberlain and Mark Dixon. Paul Goryl was ring-bearer.

Mexico Site of Wedding

Our Lady of Refuge Church, Monterrey, Mexico, was the setting Saturday for the marriage of Linda Diana Gonzalez to Larry Michael Furman, son of the Loraine A. Furmans of Hudson Avenue.

* * *

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jose A. Gonzalez of Monterrey, formerly of Pontiac, the bride appeared in lace-appliqued white satin and tulle veil. She carried white orchids and Stephanotis.

* * *

Theresa, Josephine and Silvia Gonzalez attended their sister along with Luisa and Jesse Poloma, Blanch and Mary Lou Chavez, Christina Reveria, Inez, Lupe and Juanita Flores.

With Carl J. Furman, his brother's best man, were the ushers Cesar Gonzalez, Carlos Flores, Paco Martinez and Carlos Chavez.

* * *

After a reception and dinner-dance in the Camiera de Comexico, the couple left for a wedding-trip through the southern states.

Couples Exchange Vows in Recent Ceremonies

The Good Shepherd Catholic Church, Garland, Texas, was the setting for the recent marriage of Mary Ellen (Tsukahara) Ashley to James Henderson Winborn of Irving, Texas.

★ ★ ★

A reception in the Club Del Bosque in Garland followed the rite performed by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Charles W. Smid.

★ ★ ★

Parents of the couple are Mrs. Henry C. Ashley of Garland, Dr. William Tsukahara of Dallas, Mrs. Edwin H. Olson, Priscilla Lane, Avon Township, and the late James H. Winborn.

EMPIRE GOWN

The bride's Empire gown of white silk organza and re-embroidered Alencon lace flared into a chapel train.

★ ★ ★

She wore a bouffant veil with petal tiara and carried her mother's rosary with a white orchid and roses.

★ ★ ★

Attending their sister were Mrs. Ronald Craft, Linda, Bobbie, Terry and Kathleen Ashley, and the bridegroom's sister Elizabeth Winborn. Terri Craft was flower girl and David Spence, ring-bearer.

★ ★ ★

With Kenneth Zeller of Little Rock, Ark. best man, were the groomsmen Michael Bohr, Ronald Craft, Ronald Spinar and Terry Ashley. Morris and Byron R. Winborn Jr. were their nephew's ushers.

★ ★ ★

The bride is a graduate of the University of Dallas. Her husband attends North Texas State University in Denton. They will live in Dallas.

Zajack - Hines

St. William's Church, Walled Lake was the setting for the recent marriage of Nancy Kay Hines to Marcus J. Zajack of Highland Road.

★ ★ ★

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hines of Bunker Street, West Bloomfield Township, the bride chose white organza and lace over taffeta with chapel train.

★ ★ ★

She wore an illusion veil and carried tea roses and white chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Norman Gidcumb attended her sister with Cathy Carney, bridesmaid at the rite before Rev. James Mayworm.

FOR BROTHER

Sigmund Zajack was his brother's best man. They are the sons of Stanley Zajack of Warren and the late Mrs. Anna Zajack. Norman Gidcumb was an usher.

★ ★ ★

After the reception in the CAI Building, the couple left for a tour of southern Michigan. She is a graduate of Oakland University where her husband is a senior.

Barnhart - Bell

Reception at Pine Knob Resort followed the candlelight vows of Carol Ann Bell and Marvin Douglas Barnhart, Saturday, in the Community United Presbyterian Church.

★ ★ ★

Daughter of the Cecil B. Bells of Sashabaw Road, the bride appeared in white silk eyelet organza over taffeta, styled with Watteau train. A matching crown held her illusion veil.

DAISIES

Swedish merten was entwined in her bouquet of white Shasta daisies for the rite performed by Rev. Walter J. Teeuwissen Jr.

★ ★ ★

With Marilyn Bell, her sister's honor maid, were Jean Honhart and Peggy Porter of Clinton, as bridesmaids.

Flower girls were Michele Barnhart and Nancy Olesen of Chicago, with Steven Campbell of Carleton, ring-bearer.

★ ★ ★

Dave Barnhart was his brother's best man. Their parents are the Edwin C. Barnharts of Riviera Terrace. Ushers included Edwin Sage, William Fulkerson and Bernie Buller.

★ ★ ★

After a northern honeymoon, the bridegroom will enter graduate school at the University of Michigan. His bride is an alumna of Ferris State College.

Raleigh - Baser

Greeting guests in Rotunda Country Inn after recent vows in Our Lady of Refuge Church, were the junior Charles Arthur Raleighs (Mary Karen Baser).

★ ★ ★

Parents of the couple who left for a Florida honeymoon are the Willis M. Basers, Uplong Drive, West Bloomfield Township, and the senior Raleighs of Southfield.

★ ★ ★

The bride's A-line gown of white Irish linen was styled with bell sleeves and hemline of Venise lace, matching a coif cap for her illusion veil. She carried white carnations and Stephanotis.

★ ★ ★

With Mrs. Gary D. Garretson, honor matron, were Mrs. Larry J. Simmons of Marquette, also Nancy and Mary Boyd of Mansfield, Ohio, their cousin's bridesmaids.

★ ★ ★

Robert Spellicy of Detroit was best man. Hugh Baser, Gary D. Garretson and Robert Nordstrom of L'Anse were ushers.

The couple will live in Rochester. She is a graduate of Northern Michigan University and her husband attends Lawrence Institute of Technology.

Disguise for Trophies

A loving cup may be Dad's pride and joy, but it's rather useless otherwise. According to the Society of American Florists, however, it adds a smart accent to room decoration when its lines are softened with a graceful spray of green foliage.

Slate Fall Vows

Late autumn vows are being planned by Constance Gayle Walden and Harry Cameron Griffiths. Their parents are the Leslie N. Waldens of Vernita Drive and Mrs. Edwin C. Enias of Lake Road, both of Orion Township.

Off on a Mexican honeymoon are Gregorio C. Ovalle, Mount Clemens Street and the former Lydia Hernandez, after recent vows in St. Vincent de Paul Church. Parents are Mr. and Mrs. Marcelo G. Hernandez, Henderson Street and the Enrique Ovalles, McAllen, Texas. A floor-length illusion veil complemented the bride's gown of white lace. Among some 20 attendants were Olivia Hernandez, her twin's honor maid and Joseph Reyes, best man.

The Ronald Barry Ofaras (Judy Ann Shafer) left for northern Michigan after recent vows and reception in the Auburn Heights United Presbyterian Church. Parents are Mrs. Pauline C. McCormick, Porter Road and the Bernard A. Ofaras, Robert Court. Winifred Smelser and Sharon Merithew attended the bride who wore white lace over yellow taffeta. With Donald Williams, best man, were ushers Richard Snyder and Roger Lawson.

It's A Boy!

The Lyle Lamperts (Ann Litherland) of Liberty Street announce the birth of a son Todd Raymond on Aug. 10.

★ ★ ★

Grandparents are the Raymond Litherlands of Scott Lake Road and the Emil Lamperts of Prall Street.

LIKE FATHER, LIKE SON—The Kansas House of Representatives will have a Madden in its midst this winter. Whether it will be son Robert, 22, or Father Bruce, 53, depends on the November election results. The father, a Republican, works in a Wichita aircraft plant. The son, a Democrat, interrupted his college education to make his first race for public office. Each won the right to face the other by winning in the primary.

Beating Living Costs Has Its Price, Too

WASHINGTON (AP) — Here are some tips, negative and positive, on how to beat the high cost of living:

Don't:

Get sick, eat so many omelets, hire a baby sitter so often, get a new hairdo before the old one looks real dowdy.

Do:

Walk more instead of riding, try an art museum once in a while instead of a movie, think twice before borrowing mortgage money at today's rates, take up bird watching instead of polo.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics issued its consumer price index for July Monday. As expected, it set a new record, as usual.

The month's rise of four-tenths of 1 per cent brought the index to 113.3.

* * *

This means it costs $1.13 to buy what cost $10 in 1957-59 — on the average and generally speaking.

LOWER THAN USUAL

Food prices went up four-tenths of 1 per cent, but this was much less than is usual in July.

However, egg prices took a whopping 5½ per cent jump when unusually hot weather curtailed production. Hence the advice to go easy on the omelets.

The average housewife, though, cannot make a great big dent in the cost of living by attacking the food budget.

* * *

For one thing, most folks have to eat. For another, Arnold Chase, assistant commissioner of labor statistics, cited figures to show food prices are not the deepest-dyed villain in the cost of living drama.

GROCERY BILL

Suppose, he supposed, that a family's grocery bill has been $25 a week. He emphasized he was speaking strictly of groceries, not paper napkins, detergents and the thousand other items in supermarkets.

The July rise in costs added 10 cents to that bill.

Turning from food to other living costs, the bureau said:

About half of the rise in the consumer price index in the past year has been caused by increased charges for nearly all kinds of consumer services, averaging 4.1 per cent.

* *

"Transportation and medical service charges each climbed 5 per cent over the year.

"Other types of services were up 4 to 4½ per cent, except for rents, which, with a 1.3 per cent increase, continued their slow rise."

Senate Panel Sets Seaway Bill Hearings

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate Public Works Committee will hold hearings Sept. 15-16 on legislation intended to prevent an increase in St. Lawrence Seaway tolls, Sen. Walter F. Mondale, D-Minn., reported yesterday.

Mondale is sponsor of a bill which would ward off a proposed 10 per cent increase in the tolls by reorganizing the financial structure of the St. Lawrence Seaway Development Corp.

The bill would relieve the corporation of the present requirement that it repay its construction debt, with interest, to the treasury.

Rep. Henry S. Reuss, D-Wis., is sponsor of a similar House bill.

* * *

A total of 47 other senators and congressmen are cosponsors of the Mondale-Reuss legislation, and have joined in asking President Johnson to seek an agreement with Canada to postpone any toll increase for a year, to give Congress time to act on the measures.

Strike Put United $7 Million in Red

NEW YORK (AP)—United Air Lines lost $7.7 million in July during the airline strike, compared with a profit of $6.7 million in the same month a year ago, President George E. Keck said Monday.

* * *

Keck said United's net income for the six months ended June 30 totaled $24,160,191 or $1.64 a share, compared with $14,566,099, or $1.06 a share a year ago. United split its stock 2-for-1 last April.

Publisher Dies

MARGATE, N.J. (AP) — John S. Adams, 59, former publisher of the Atlantic City Press, died Monday of a cerebral hemorrhage. He and his brother Roland in 1952 brought a share in the Press Union and Publishing Co. The brothers in 1957 became sole owners and John S. Adams was made publisher.

Subdivision Asks Help on Problems

Residents of a Waterford Township subdivision last night asked the Waterford Township Board for help in solving neighborhood problems, some involving private roads.

Members of Mountainview Country Club Association related problems ranging from poor road conditions and dilapidated bridges to a high rate of vandalism and a low water level on Maceday Lake which abuts the subdivision.

Residents also complained of poor drainage conditions.

* * *

Because six of the eight streets in the subdivision are private, public funds for road improvement projects, for the most part, are unavailable.

PUBLIC ROADS

Maceday Lake Road and Nelsey are the only public roads in the subdivision.

Residents implied that officials are dragging their feet on a county blacktopping project along Maceday Lake Road between Williams Lake Road and Nelsey.

Subdivision roads (all gravel) were termed in "horrible" condition by a spokesman.

* * *

According to residents, an engineering estimate places the cost to repair two bridges on Bridge and Rich streets at $10,000, which they contend they cannot afford.

RUN-AROUND

Residents claim they have generally been given the run-around by county agencies.

Trustee Rudy Mansfield pointed out that townships are restricted in what public services they can provide, whereas municipalities are empowered with authority to solve the bulk of their problems.

Supervisor Dorothy W. Olson said a special meeting will be arranged between board members and subdivision residents to further discuss the problems.

In other business last night, the board approved a $65,445 community school budget for 1966-67, an increase of about $3,200 over the present budget.

$2,500 INCREASE

The township and school district will contribute $12,500 each, a $2,500 increase over their present allocation.

Other income is anticipated through fees, the Mott Foundation and the recreation board.

The board of education approved the budget last Thursday night.

Also last night, the board approved 20 recommended appointments to the township's youth assistance committee.

NAMES SUBMITTED

The names will be submitted to Oakland County Probate Court for formal appointment.

The board also authorized Township Attorney Paul Mandel to begin negotiations for acquiring an option on property for test well purposes.

Police Report 1,058 Calls Last Month

The Waterford Township Police Department handled 1,058 complaints last month, according to a report presented to the township board last night.

The total included 242 malicious destruction of property complaints, 133 larcenies, 33 breaking and enterings and 12 stolen cars.

Value of stolen property totaled in excess of $20,000. However, about $3,500 was recovered.

The report showed that 91 persons were apprehended, 73 adults and 18 juveniles.

* * *

Police issued 163 traffic tickets. Fifteen juvenile motorists were ticketed, while 148 adults received tickets.

Acting Manager for Wyoming

WYOMING (AP)—Leo I. Nelson, 31, Monday was named acting city manager of this Grand Rapids suburb, pending selection of a full-time manager to replace John H. Kennaugh, who resigned May 25 to become executive secretary of the Grand Rapids Area Watershed Council.

County OEO to Air Pay Hikes for Staff

A proposed higher salary schedule for antipoverty workers will be considered tomorrow by the Oakland County Commission on Economic Opportunity.

If approved by the commission, the new wage scale would become effective Jan. 1.

A salary range of $15,500 to $18,000 is proposed for James M. McNeely, executive director of the county's war on poverty.

Presently the salary range for McNeely is $14,500 to $18,000.

* * *

No change is proposed in the present range of $12,000 to $14,000 for the deputy director but a hike for two area center directors from the present $10,000 to $12,000 to a range of $12,000 to $14,000 is proposed.

3 PER CENT

Assistant center directors will remain in the $8,500 to $10,000 range, according to the new schedule.

* * *

The proposed new rates represent an average 3 per cent increase over present rates for all classifications and have been recommended for adoption by the commission's personnel committee.

DR. WILLIAM I. MARTIN JR.

Conference in Reading Slated at OU

A five-day reading conference with the theme "Fostering Creative Expression" will begin Monday at Oakland University.

Designed for teachers of kindergarten and elementary school pupils, the program will emphasize their role in encouraging literacy through listening, speaking, reading and writing.

Keynote speaker will be Dr. William I. Martin, Jr., coauthor of 16 children's books and editor of elementay classroom materials for Holt, Rinehart and Winston, Inc.

Martin will discuss children's literature and instruction in choral reading.

* * *

Peggy Brogan, author and reading editor for Holt, Rinehart and Winston, Inc., will speak on individualized reading.

OU FACULTY MEMBERS

Among OU faculty members participating will be Dr. William Forbes, associate professor of science, who will describe the relationship of science and language arts in a laboratory setting.

Dr. Adeline Hirschfeld, assistant professor of speech, will deal with creative dramatics for children and Dr. Harry T. Hahn, professor of education, will demonstrate how to design and make books for children's stories.

Reservations for the conference can be made by telephoning OU's conference department.

There is a ratio of about one teacher per 24.9 classroom pupils in the nation's public schools, a National Education Association report has disclosed.

Jerry: Give Cities $113 Billion

WASHINGTON (AP) — Detroit Mayor Jerome P. Cavanagh said today Congress should set aside at least $113 billion for a drive to "achieve the rebirth of the American city" during the next decade.

The drive should be a national commitment, he said. "We must make sure that everyone in this nation begins to realize that the warfare on our city streets is as important as some consider the warfare in Southeast Asia."

* * *

The Democratic mayor from Detroit, loser Aug. 2 in a bid for nomination to the Senate, outlined his proposal in testimony prepared for the Senate subcommittee on executive reorganization.

Los Angeles Mayor Samuel W. Yorty also is to testify in the subcommittee's investigation of problems facing American cities.

PROPOSALS

National League of Cities and the U.S. Conference of Mayors proposed steps less ambitious than those advocated by New York Mayor John V. Lindsay — who testified Monday that his city alone would need $50 billion in new federal funds over the next 10 years.

* * *

"We must not turn away from our foreign obligations," Cavanagh said. "But we must not turn away from our problems at home, either, for they can destroy us as well."

He said the nation must stimulate the entire city establishment, "its economic, social and cultural life, to restore confidence in urban life."

He urged Congress to seek "to achieve the rebirth of the American city to coincide with the 200th anniversary of the founding of this nation in 1976."

Noting that Congress has committed $70 billion to put a man on the moon and $43 billion to build the Interstate highway system, the Detroit mayor said "we must make a similar commitment and set aside at least as much money to see that the rebirth of our cities is accomplished."

SMALL CITIES

Cavanagh said he was speaking of small cities, even hamlets, as well as the nation's urban giants.

He said the money should go into an urban development fund, similar to the economic development funds set up in foreign aid programs.

Cavanagh also suggested that Congress create a national urban institute to undertake research, development and training on urban problems.

* * *

Lindsay, Cavanagh and Yorty were among the eight big city mayors due to testify this week on their problems and proposals.

Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley, whose city has had some street violence, declined an invitation to testify today or Wednesday. An aide said he had other commitments, but might appear later in the inquiry.

Head-On Crash Kills 2, Hurts 6

PORT HURON (UPI) — An elderly Reese couple was killed and several others injured yesterday north of Forester when a pickup truck crossed the centerline and struck their car head-on.

* * *

Killed were Frank Rebuehr, 74, and his wife, Emma, 68.

Another couple in the car, John and Norma Lotter of Frankenmuth, were taken to a Saginaw hospital in critical condition.

Their two children, Sally, 6, and Sue, 12, were admitted to Port Huron General Hospital in serious condition.

* * *

The two men in the truck, Bill Ridell, Minden City, and Fred Engel, 49, Palms, were also admitted to Port Huron General in critical condition.

No Decision Yet – Goldberg

U.S. Eying Peking U.N. Entry

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg said today the United States is carefully reviewing its position on the admission of Red China to the United Nations but that "as of now" it remains unchanged.

Goldberg talked with newsmen after a long conference with President Johnson. Many of the questions put to him concerned the long dispute within the United Nations over whether Red China should be admitted.

Goldberg said that the United States will never agree to Red China's stipulation that Formosa be expelled from the world organization before the Communist regime has any interest in joining.

So presumably the question under review is whether the United States might change its opposition to Red China's admission provided Formosa keeps its membership.

Goldberg said the Red Chinese question will certainly come up at the next meeting of the General Assembly in September.

He said the question to be decided is whether it would serve world peace to have Red China a member.

But, he said, "in any event we will keep our commitment to Nationalist China."

Goldberg said the review includes the interpretation of the recent shake-up in Peking's high command.

ARTHUR J. GOLDBERG

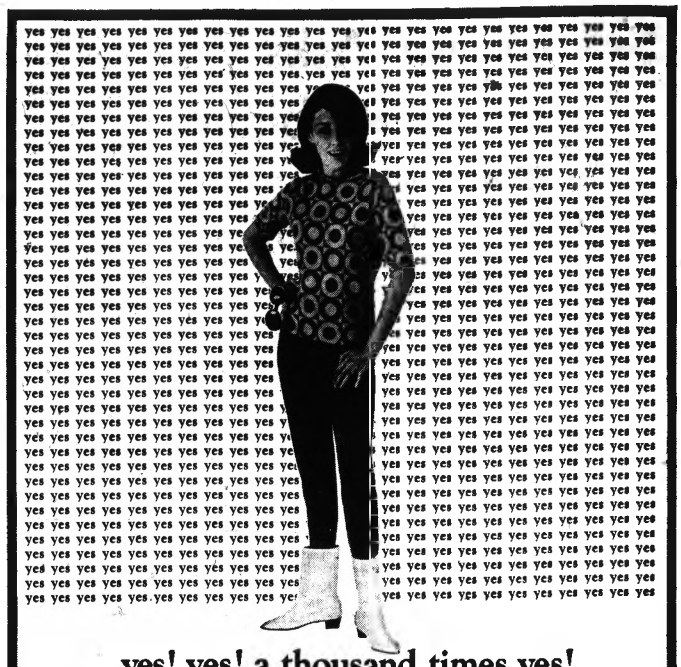

Goldberg reported the President asked him to tell newsmen that despite many difficulties in the United Nations, the United States regards it as necessary today — "indeed more so" — than it was when it was founded 20 years ago.

LEAVES REPORT

Goldberg left with the President a report on his activities in his first year as ambassador, including its successes as well as problems which remain unresolved.

Problems unresolved, he said, include the United State's financial deficit, disarmament, and a treaty to outlaw the use of weapons in outer space.

On the success side, Goldberg cited the U.N.'s role in bringing about a cease-fire in the war between India and Pakistan over Kashmir, and peace-keeping in Cyprus and between Israel and its Arab neighbors.

COEDS JAILED — University of Buenos Aires coeds seem unconcerned as Argentine police march them off to jail last night following a demonstration, as classes resumed for the first time since violence caused the closing of the school. The university crisis erupted July 28 when the military government of President Juan Carlos Ongania canceled the autonomous status of the university and eight other schools in the interior.

Classes Resume at University

Argentine Students Launch Protests

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP) — Argentina students launched fresh antigovernment demonstrations Monday night, scuffling with police and storming a dean's office before police drove them off with tear gas.

About 40 students, including some coeds, were arrested in clashes with police.

* * *

The new outbreak of violence came as the University of Buenos Aires resumed classes at five of its colleges under government control. The new student demonstrations were to protest resumption of classes without the university's traditional autonomy, canceled July 28 when the government took over and charged the country's nine state universities had become Communist-infiltrated.

CRITICISM ABROAD

The intervention by the military regime of President Juan Carlos Ongania triggered violence here and criticism abroad.

Police routed one group of 700 students with tear gas after they gathered on campus, following up a protest by an estimated 1,500 students.

A brief scuffle with police broke out earlier Monday when 100 students stormed the office of the newly appointed medical dean, Dr. Andres Santas, and told him: "You have no authority here." Santas called police to disperse the students.

* * *

Rector Luis Botet of the 80,000-student university said classes at the remaining five colleges will be resumed later this week, despite a loss of professors. More than 1,000 of them — over half the faculty — resigned in protest against the government intervention.

STILL CLOSED

The five schools at the University of Buenos Aires still closed include the College of Exact and Natural Sciences, where violence was sharpest last month.

Police patrols have been stationed on the campus and in downtown Buenos Aires.

* * *

In the provinces, the universities have been operating normally, except at Cordoba, where classes were suspended last week after a student-police clash. A group of 72 students there are staging a hunger strike protesting the government's action.

Monster Trailed Us—Crew

INVERNESS, Scotland (AP) — The Loch Ness monster shawoded a yacht making her way through the loch on the way to Finland — or so the crew say.

* * *

The 120-ton yacht Pharma was near Inverness, the crew reported, when a strange creature broke the surface three-quarters of a mile behind the yacht and followed her for half an hour.

* * *

George Ralph, head lochkeeper on the Caledonian Canal which includes Loch Ness, was piloting the yacht.

He said he kept watch on the creature on the radar screen while four members of the crew kept it in sight through binoculars.

Tire Guidelines Date Set

WASHINGTON (AP) — New guidelines for the advertising and labeling of automobile tires, designed as a stop-gap measure until Congress fixes minimum safety standards, will go into effect next Feb. 19, the Federal Trade Commission said today.

The commission will begin enforcement at the same time of stiffer guidelines on the use of tire guarantees.

In announcing the effective date of its new regulations, the commission again called federal legislation the best solution to the problem of tire safety and grading.

But it said this approach may require several years.

* * *

The guidelines would affect advertising and labeling of tires for their load-carrying capacity, inflation pressure, grade or line of tire, and ply rating.

1,100 BRANDS

More than 1,100 different brands of tires are available to American consumers under either the manufacturer's brand or subsidiary and private brands, the commission said, but the consumer has no way to compare the relative grade or safety of these products.

Main requirements of the safety and grading guidelines are:

1. Disclosure of the load-carrying capacity and inflation pressure of tires to the customer, based on actual tests. The test results and procedures should be written down and available for customer inspection.

2. Any reference to the grade or line of tire must be accompanied by a statement that no industrywide or accepted system of grading exists.

3. Use of the actual ply count of a tire. If the term "ply rating" is used, it must be accompanied by the actual ply count and disclosure that no industrywide definition of ply rating exists.

Motorist-Aid Phones to Be Set Up on I-94

LANSING (AP) — Motorist aid telephones will be installed along I-94 between Battle Creek and Jackson as part of a federal research project.

The State Highway Commission said Monday it will take bids on the project in November.

The phones will be installed every three-quarters of a mile to 1¼ miles along the 30-mile stretch of freeway.

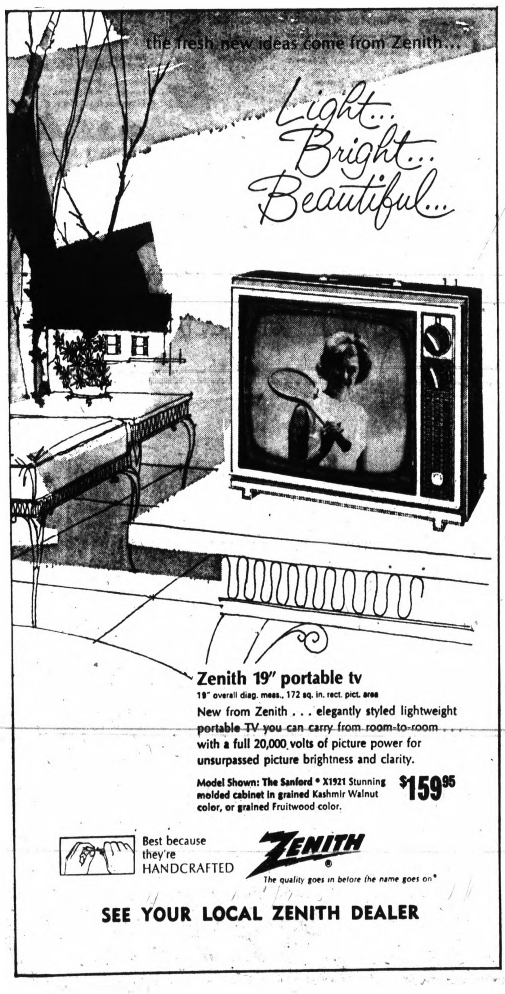

The Bureau of Public Roads is paying for 90 per cent of the $275,000 installation. The state is paying the rest.

CALL POLICE

Telephones cannot be used for routine personal calls, however. When a motorists picks up the receiver, he will be automatically connected to the nearest State Police headquarters.

Phones will be paired on each side of the freeway so that users will not have to cross traffic.

More than 84 per cent of the population ages 5 to 17 years are enrolled in public schools, according to a National Education Association survey.

Use Proposed for Space Waste

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — When a Saturn I rocket flings a satellite into orbit, its second stage enters a separate orbit and circles the earth like a giant empty house trailer.

Why not, somebody asked, make use of this hardware in some way:

★ ★ ★

That's what the National Aeronautics and Space Administration hopes to do. The agency's Marshall Space Flight Center has begun negotiating a contract to convert a Saturn 1 second stage into a manned space station.

The contract, with McDonnell Aircraft Corp. of St. Louis, Mo., is expected to run about $9 million.

McDonnell is to build an airlock that will connect a three-man Apollo spacecraft to the hydrogen fuel tank in the second stage and is to develop life-support systems to make the tank habitable.

The second stage, which uses liquid hydrogen and liquid oxygen for propulsion, is 58 feet long and weighs 23,000 pounds empty. Much of the length is taken up by the engine. But the hydrogen tank measures 20 feet by 21.7 feet — plenty of room for three astronauts to set up housekeeping.

The airlock will be about 15 feet long and 5½ feet in diameter. It will be attached to the top of the second stage and ride in an adapter section between the rocket and the Apollo spacecraft.

Once in orbit, the three Apollo crewmen will separate their ship from the rocket, turn it around and link up with a docking apparatus at one end of the airlock.

The airlock will be a chamber with airtight doors like manhole covers at each end. The astronauts will open one door and crawl into the chamber, closing the cover behind them. Then they open the other end and enter the hydrogen tank. This eliminates the need to depressurize the spacecraft and the tank each time a man enters or leaves.

There also will be an additional hatch on the side of the airlock to permit an astronaut to take a space walk without depressurizing either of the cabins.

★ ★ ★

Before entering the tank, the astronauts will make certain any leftover hydrogen is vented overboard and they will activate equipment to pressurize it. They also will electrically connect the Apollo craft's life support system to the fuel tank.

2 Children Die in Raging Stream

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — A 12-year-old girl tried vainly to save her 2-year-old brother from the roaring waters of a rain-swollen creek. Both drowned.

★ ★ ★

Roberta Mae Wade plunged into the rapid stream Monday, witnesses said, after Martin Luther Wade fell from the bank. Her body was recovered about 1¼ miles downstream. Rescue units were unable to locate the body of her brother.

★ ★ ★

The double tragedy occurred after a violent electrical storm accompanied by heavy rain.

King Rejects Request to Cancel Cicero March

CHICAGO (AP) — Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. has rejected a request to cancel a march to suburban Cicero, and other civil rights leaders have announced new demonstrations in support of open housing.

Aides of King, who was in Atlanta, Ga., met in the early morning hours to discuss a march to a Southeast Side neighborhood. The Rev. Jesse Jackson told a rally Monday night there would be a march today in the South Deering area.

A spokesman for the civil rights forces said there would also be a demonstration on the North Side at an integrated apartment house complex where residents have protested management policies.

Monday night, the plea from Sheriff Richard Ogilvie to halt the scheduled march into all-white Cicero Sunday was rebuffed by King.

'8 DAYS NOTICE'

"We fully intend to have the march," said King. "We have talked with Ogilvie about this and announced our plans last Saturday. We feel that we have honored in good faith his request for seven days notice. In fact we gave eight days notice."

Ogilvie, who called the Cicero situation "volatile," said Monday night that he had not officially heard from King and would reserve comment until his telegram was answered.

★ ★ ★

Cicero, the scene of three days of racial violence 15 years ago, was acknowledged by King to be probably the most racially sensitive of any Chicago-area community.

Gov. Otto Kerner, who called out the National Guard last month when violence erupted on the West Side, said he had not received notice of the proposed march into Cicero.

Asked if the Guard might be called for Sunday, Kerner said, "I'll have to wait and see if there will be a march."

The Cicero police department said the Guard will be activated if the march is held in the community of 70,000 white residents, just west of Chicago.

LIMITS NUMBER

The Circuit Court injunction obtained Friday by Mayor Richard J. Daley and Police Supt. O.W. Wilson limits the number of marchers in a Chicago demonstration to 500.

The injunction also specifies that marches will be held in daylight hours, except rush hours, and that police would be given 24 hours notice.

★ ★ ★

Although King said he will challenge the constitutionality of the injunction in court, he followed the dictates Sunday when he led less than 500 marchers through the city's South Deering section in a driving rain.

Two other civil rights marches Sunday were held in the Chicago suburbs of Evergreen Park and Chicago Heights. About 1,000 marchers participated in the three demonstrations.

300 Negroes Pelt Police in Brooklyn

NEW YORK (AP) — About 300 Negro youths pelted police with rocks and debris in the Bedford-Stuyvesant section of Brooklyn Monday night. At least two patrolmen were injured.

The incident occurred, police said, as an officer attempted to arrest a man at a liquor store in the heavily Negro slum neighborhood.

About 800 police reinforcements from the city's five boroughs were rushed to the area and police said order was restored by 2 a.m.

At least 10 youths were arrested. According to police, the crowd gathered after rumors circulated, a white gang was going to attack in reprisal for a recent stabbing incident in which a white youth was wounded.

Canadian Firm Said Guilty of 'Scabbing'

FORT WAYNE, Ind. (AP) — The United Auto Workers Union filed a complaint with the Canadian government Monday charging a firm in Ottawa with "international scabbing."

Spokesmen for UAW Local 1389, which struck Bowmar Instruments Corp. here July 7, said the firm's Canadian subsidiary was doing work usually performed at the Fort Wayne plant and thus bypassing the picket line.

The union said it filed its protest with the Canadian government because the nonunion Ottawa plant had been granted government funds for an on-the-job training program.

C-RATION KITTY—Lt. George Smith of New Orleans, La., treats a kitten to a meal of C-rations atop his armored personnel carrier. Smith, a platoon leader with A Company, 1st Battalion, 2nd Brigade of the 25th Division, found the kitten in a still-smoking crater made by a 1,000-pound bomb dropped from a B52 about 35 miles northwest of Saigon where troops were searching for Viet Cong.

Dirksen: LBJ Caught in Middle on War

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Viet Nam war is costing President Johnson some of his political popularity and there isn't much the President can do about it, Senate Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen said today.

Dirksen dismissed as "long on good rhetoric but short on results" Johnson's weekend "nonpolitical" swing across five Northeastern states where he got in some not-so-subtle plugs for Democratic candidates while praising Republicans accompanying him.

* * *

"I don't think the President accomplished very much politically," Dirksen told reporters.

Johnson himself was reported well-satisfied with his weekend of stumping. He was said to be planning similar trips in the immediate future.

STANDING LOWER

The GOP leader noted that public opinion polls indicate Johnson's popularity standing is lower than it has been in the past.

Asked if this reflects dissatisfaction with the way things are going in Viet Nam, he replied: "Of course it does. It reflects the frustrations of the people."

* * *

Reminded that he was something of a "partner" of Johnson because of his support for the President's Viet Nam course, he answered: "I am and I'm willing to take the gaff for it because there is nothing else to do."

The Viet Nam situation is scheduled to be reviewed by former Vice President Richard M. Nixon at a closed meeting of the Senate Republican Policy Committee today. Nixon, who just returned from Asia, is expected also to discuss domestic issues.

5 MORE YEARS

Nixon told the Veterans of Foreign Wars convention in New York Monday night the United States should be prepared for five more years of combat in Viet Nam "unless there is a substantial increase in the present war effort."

To shorten the war, Nixon suggested U.S. forces be increased "so commanders can stay on the offensive," raising the number of military targets for air attack and stopping American foreign aid to countries that trade with the enemy.

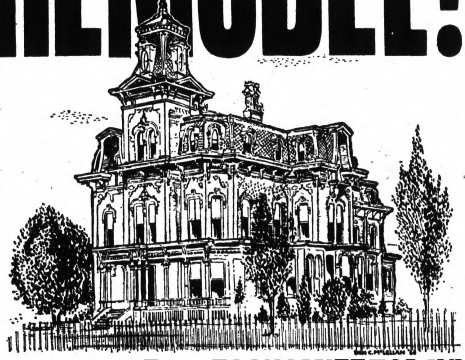

Nixon said the greatest "single weapon working against U.S. success (in the war) is opposition in this country."

Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., touched on the same issue Monday in a Senate speech. Fulbright said he still opposes U.S. policy in Viet Nam although he believes Moscow, Peking and Hanoi would be "grievously deceiving themselves if they underestimated the militant spirit" in the United States.

Opening lead—♠ Q.

By OSWALD and JAMES JACOBY

North was one of those bridge players who believes that they have been divinely appointed to play all no-trump contracts for their side.

JACOBY

Hence, instead of making the normal and sensible response of one diamond he jumped to two no - trump. He did have 13 high card points and no-trump distribution and as anyone who looke at all the cards can plainly see the hand belonged in three no-trump and not in six clubs.

However, we can't blame South for jumping to the slam. How could South know that seven of his partner's points were in the spade suit? Anyway, South liked to play an occasional hand himself.

South looked over dummy carefully. He had plenty of tricks for the slam provided he could keep his opponents from taking their ace of hearts.

He dicided that he had a good chance to do this if he could only direct his opponent's attention away from the heart suit and provided, of course, that the ace of hearts and ace of clubs weren't in the same hand.

Therefore South played dummy's ace of spades and discarded the seven of diamonds. Next came the king of spades followed by a discard of the queen of diamonds. Then he led a trump.

West was in with the ace of trumps and faced with a tough problem. He could lead a heart but that might be suicidal if South held ace-ten of that suit. Finally, West decided to lead the nine of diamonds just in case declarer was still hanging onto the ten spot.

That was all South needed. He won with the ace; entered dummy with a trump and discarded his losing hearts on the good diamonds.

Cavanagh to Ask Police Overtime for Race Woes

DETROIT (AP) — Payment of $570,000 in overtime to police pressed into duty during Detroit's recent racial troubles will be asked by Mayor Jerome Cavanagh.

★ ★ ★

Cavanagh said Monday he will ask Common Council to approve time-and-a-half payment for the 94,000 extra man-hours worked while officers faced 12-hour shifts and canceled leaves Aug. 10-14.

★ ★ ★

Police Commissioner Ray Girardin said money to pay the overtime is available because the department is not up to authorized strength.

★ ★ ★

Girardin said he was reviewing needs and available funds and was considering asking the Council to permit some 100 policemen to work six-day weeks.

Teachers to Battle Oversize Classes

CHICAGO (AP) — The president of the American Federation of Teachers pledged his union, an AFL-CIO affiliate, to a war on oversize classes Monday.

★ ★ ★

Charles Cogen of New York City, in his address to the 50th annual federation convention, said of oversize classes:

"It is a challenge which teachers must meet as a united profession. It is a challenge which cannot be met so long as the majority of teachers are members of 'do-nothing' associations whose officials think more of their status within the educational establishment than they do of vigorously championing the rights of classroom teachers."

Romney Okays Youth Corps Aid for $1.6 Million

Alaska Governor's 1st Vote Hurdle Today

JUNEAU, Alaska (AP) — Gov. William A. Egan's bid for another four years as Alaska's chief executive faced its first test at the polls today.

★ ★ ★

More than 40,000 voters were expected to cast primary election ballots in 402 precincts across the state, with the polls open from 8 a.m. until 8 p.m. local time.

★ ★ ★

The first returns will start rolling in from the southeast Alaska precincts shortly after closing time in the panhandle, which is on Pacific Standard Time.

Egan's bid for reelection stirred controversy because of a state constitutional ban on any governor serving more than two terms in succession.

'NOT FULL TERM'

Egan has been chief executive since Jan. 3, 1959, when Alaska became a state, but his first term was 34 days shy of a full four years. Egan contends his first term, therefore, was not a full term.

★ ★ ★

He faces a tight primary fight for the Democratic nomination against Wendell P. Kay, an Anchorage attorney. Egan was a storekeeper in Valdez before becoming governor.

More Spray Planes Join Encephalitis War in Texas

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Six Air Force planes were to take to the air today in a beefed-up insecticide war against the mosquito that spreads encephalitis.

One-third of Dallas County was sprayed with a mist of malathion insecticide last Friday and Monday. Another third was projected for the low-flying planes today.

★ ★ ★

Three planes flew the original mission but after adverse weather grounded them Saturday and Sunday, three additional C123s were brought in.

Health officials have recorded 83 encephalitis cases with five deaths.

They said that as many as 70 more cases contracted before the spraying began could be reported between now and September.

TAKES 14 DAYS

"Once bitten, it takes up to 14 days before a person develops the illness," said Dr. Jay Sanford, chief of infectious diseases at Parkland Hospital.

"I'd be very surprised if the cases dropped off between now and the first of September, unless we are passing the peak (of the epidemic) which is purely guesswork," Sanford said.

Dr. Hal J. Dewlett, city health director, said a check Sunday of the area sprayed Friday revealed only a few live mosquitoes. He said the two days when high winds and low-hanging clouds prevented the Air Force teams from spraying did not seriously hinder the aerial war.

"The flights have been extremely successful," said Dr. John Kilpatrick of the U.S. Public Health Service in Atlanta, Ga. "The kill has exceeded even what we'd expected."

Dr. Kilpatrick said the entire county should be sprayed, with cooperative weather, by Wednesday or Thursday. No second spraying is anticipated, he said.

Western Trip May Be Next for President

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson, pleased with his trip into New England and Canada last weekend, may be planning another multistate swing in the West.

There were reports Monday from Colorado, New Mexico, Wyoming, Idaho, Montana and Oklahoma of a possible presidential trip. Some of the reports said security agents were making checks in their areas.

★ ★ ★

The White House refused to confirm the reports. Press Secretary Bill D. Moyers told newsmen that "as far as I know no plans have been firmed up for a President's trip." Moyers did add, however, that Johnson was pleased with the results of the New England swing.

The White House never announces travel plans for the President until final decisions have been made.

TRIPS IN WORKS

Johnson has indicated more trips are in the works. Speaking Friday in Buffalo, N.Y., he noted that he would be in five states in the next three days.

"And before the leaves turn brown we'll be in many more looking and listening — and I suspect we'll be talking some of the time," Johnson said.

Last weekend's trip into New York, Rhode Island, New Hampshire, Vermont and Maine was described as nonpolitical by the White House.

Windsor Man Is Ill in Russia

WINDSOR, Ont. (AP) — Richard Graybiel, 46, general manager of the Windsor Star, is in a hospital in Leningrad following a heart attack suffered Sunday while on a tour of the Soviet Union, his family said Monday.

Graybiel is first vice president of the Canadian Press and a past president of the Canadian Daily Newspaper Publishers Association. He had been on a tour of Europe and the U.S.S.R. for the last month with his wife, Leitia, son, Kim, and daughter, Janet.

Skeleton May Be Father Marquette

ST. IGNACE, Mich. (AP) — Archeologists are speculating whether a skeleton unearthed from a grave at St. Ignace may be that of Father Jacques Marquette, the famed French Jesuit priest and explorer.

Lyle Stoner, a Michigan State University archeologist, said tests indicate three skeletons taken from the grave Sunday date back to 1650-1700 and are of European descent.

Father Marquette, who founded a mission at St. Ignace, lived from 1637-1675.

Doctors quit smoking

CHICAGO — According to a recent survey, 52% of American doctors do not smoke. Many quit recently due, according to the Anti-Tobacco Center of America, to the conclusive evidence linking cigarettes and lung cancer.

Many doctors gave up smoking without straining their will-power thanks to a new tablet which helps to progressively eliminate the need for nicotine and, as a result, the desire to smoke. Less than 2% of the 150,000 people who tried this tablet reported they still smoke!

Smokers interested in receiving information (free) about this new tablet are invited to contact directly the Anti-Tobacco Center of America, Dept. 760-Y-1, 356 Fifth Avenue, New York 1, New York.

It is sufficient to send your name and address. Just a postcard will do.

LUCKY ACCIDENT—In the confusion of using a separate clip-on meter on his Yashica A camera, John Panek of Cambria Heights, N. Y., forgot to advance the film. The result was this fortunate double exposure at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier in Arlington National Cemetery.

Cockney Michael Caine Reaches Fortune After Life of Crumbs

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) —Fortune's darling in the film world today is Michael Caine, a breezy Cockney who looks like a rakish young English aristocrat.

BOYLE

The 33-year-old actor, who has spent most of his career subsisting on crumbs from life's banquet, has a frank, heart-warming goal, now that he's on top.

"It's money, pure and simple," he said, his clear blue eyes lighting with a gleam of honest cupidity.

"I spent too long without. For 10 years my average wage was $12 a week. Now I want something I never had before—security. To me that means money.

TOO LATE TO CHANGE

"It won't change me. It's too late to change when you're 33, and having your last go-round. You only change if you suddenly become a millionaire at 20 or 25."

Michael has made five pictures in 19 months without a day off. They include the controversial "Alfie," and "The Wrong Box," one of Britain's best comedies in years.

★ ★ ★

Besieged by offers, Caine now gets $250,000 and up a picture, plus a percentage of profits.

Although he appears to the manor born, Michael is the son of a London charwoman and a fish market porter and proud of his Cockney heritage.

ADVANTAGE

"It's an advantage," he observed. "For a Cockney, there is no way to go but up.

"Cockneys have the strongest sense of survival of any people in the world, and an actor needs that. They also have a sense of humor. I've never met a pompous Cockney."

★ ★ ★

Michael went to work as an office boy for a film producer at 16. Before getting his first real break as an understudy for Peter O'Toole in a play, he labored as a warehouse freight handler, a cement mixer, and a pneumatic drill operator in the streets. He also toted a rifle for the crown for a year in Korea as an infantryman.

But the time he landed a starring role, he had appeared in 125 live television plays and more than 350 stage dramas, ranging from "Hamlet" to "Getting Gertie's Garter."

HARD WORK

"When you finally make it," he remarked wryly, "people say you're lucky or that you've got talent. But sweat and hard work are synonymous with luck and talent."

The loan of his mother's life savings—they amounted to $700 — helped tide Michael over one critical juncture.

★ ★ ★

"That makes me sound like a bit of a bum," he said cheerfully. "But her attitude was, 'I don't want you to be an actor, but I'll back you financially anyway, and when you fail you can turn to something else.'

"That was the wonderful thing about it. She was loyal enough to back me even though she thought I was wrong. She wanted me to have my chance. But it was the finest $700 she ever spent."

William Henry Harrison was the only president who aspired to become a doctor. He did not complete his medical studies at the University of Pennsylvania.

Camera Angles

Vacation Time Hazardous

BY IRVING DESFOR
AP Newsfeatures

THIS IS GO-GO-GO VACATION SEASON. It's a time to be wary of lurking perils ready to pounce on your camera and put it out of commission: heat and humidity, salt water spray and grains of sand.

It's a time of jostling, bumping, dropping or leaving behind.

When you're aware of potential accidents and what carelessness or forgetfulness can lead to, steps can be taken to avoid mishaps.

The dangers are not new and warnings have been sounded before but since we're dealing with automated equipment in an age of automation, this is an automatic annual reminder.

★ ★ ★

In fact, extra care is necessary because modern automatic cameras depend on built-in sensitive meters, delicately balanced needles and tiny gears.

AVOID BUMPS

They can be thrown off balance easily by a hard bump or a small fall.

This can happen if the camera is tossed onto an auto, train or plane seat and if the brakes are applied suddenly or the plane hits an air pocket.

The remedy: anchor the camera firmly when it's placed in any moving vehicle so it can't bounce around or drop.

★ ★ ★

On vacation, "little drops of water, little grains of sand . . ." are great to romp, swim and play with in pools, boats and beaches — but keep them out of cameras.

OUT OF OPERATION

Just a few grains of sand can worm their way into a shutter mechanism or tiny gear and put a camera out of operation.

And flying spray from a fast moving boat can seep into a camera and gum up its works.

Of course a camera should be handy for beach and boat pictures but it could be protected when in use as well as when put aside between pictures.

★ ★ ★

If there are breezes blowing, fine sand and spray often tag along but they can be blocked by body interference.

Or the camera can be operated while encased in a pliable plastic bag with the lens poking clear.

FILTER PROTECTION

An extra safety measure for lenses is the addition of a skylight or haze filter (1A).

It serves a double purpose: It absorbs some of the excess blue light in the atmosphere giving better, more natural color rendition without affecting exposure in any way.

And since it may be left on the lens for other picture taking, it serves as a shield against fingerprints, dust, sand and spray.

★ ★ ★ ★

If scratched or marred, it is far easier and cheaper to replace the skylight filter than a lens!

FILM SUPPLY

When not in use, film supply as well as camera should be stowed away in protective custody in an insulated type of bag or case.

Keep it out of the sun's path, of course, but remember a shady area may not remain shady as the hours go by.

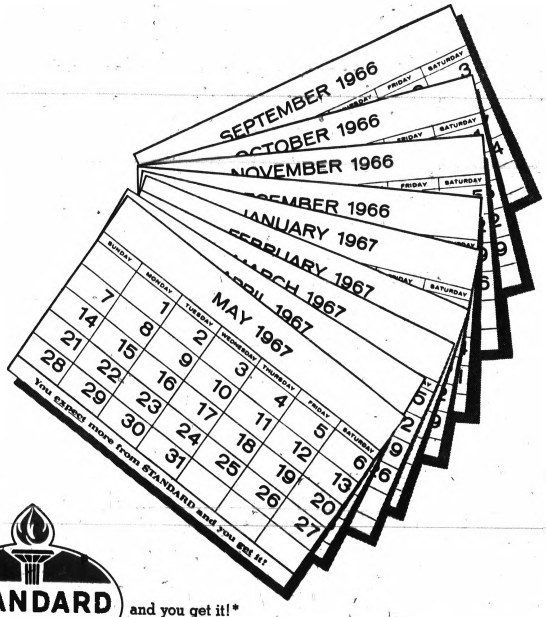

You can pack silica gel with your films to absorb any moisture from the air, both before and after they have beeen exposed.

LINEUP — Britain's Beatles lined up for a New York news conference yesterday in which John Lennon (second from right) informed reporters that "There are more people in America,,so there are more bigots also." The singing group has been a subject of controversy because of Lennon's statements on religion. His fellow singers are (from left) Ringo Starr, Paul McCartney and George Harrison.

Beatles' Lesson Learned; They Drop War Subject

NEW YORK (AP) — The subject was war, and the Beatles, who had cheeky things to say about fat wallets and girls who threaten to jump from 22nd-floor ledges, cut the conversation short.

They don't like war, they said, but feel disinclined to discuss the subject further in the United States.

"In America they hold everything you say against you," a nail-biting Paul McCartney told a news conference Monday.

"What we say would not be interpreted in England the way it would here. People (in England) listen a little bit more."

SET UP BARRIERS

McCartney's remark came after a day in which police set up barriers to restrain thousands of the quartet's miniskirted fans, and spent 20 minutes coaxing two teen-age girls to retreat from a narrow ledge on the 22nd floor of the Americana Hotel.

The girls, Carol Hopkins, 17, and Susan Richmond, 16, both of Staten Island, threatened to jump unless they were allowed to see McCartney and John Lennon. A patrolman eventually persuaded them to leave the ledge.

* * *

"I think it's all silly," Lennon later said of the incident.

The quartet performs tonight in the 55,000-seat Shea Stadium, home of the New York Mets. It leaves immediately afterward for Los Angeles.

Lennon, whose statement that the Beatles are more popular than Jesus touched off strong protests, seemed concerned that McCartney's comments on the United States would make for more trouble.

WARNS COHORT

"You'll have to answer for that tomorrow" he told his partner. Lennon has apologized for his remark, made several months ago.

McCartney's replies to other questions Monday were tart.

Questioned about what the group does when it gets tired, McCartney fired back: "We take fat vacations on our fat wallets."

Season's Social Note

Tahoe Wedding Bells to Ring

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD — Social note: On Aug. 27, or maybe Sept. 3, Stefania Zofja Federkievicz will marry John Gary Yurosek at Lake Tahoe.

This news might attract little interest outside of Polish - American circles, except for the fact that the bride and groom are known professionally at Stephanie Powers and Gary Lockwood.

THOMAS

* * *

She is television's new "Girl from U.N.C.L.E." and he is out of this world in "2001, a Space Odyssey."

Both are American-born; he is half-Polish, she is totally so. Their meeting couldn't have been more American.

"I was playing third base on a girls' softball team that played in Beverly Hills," she recalled. "Gary happened to be going with another girl who played softball."

Stephanie declined to comment on whether Gary admired her form. In truth, he didn't seem to notice for a couple of years; 'that's how long it took him to ask for a date. Their romance flowered, and she joined him on his London location for "Odyssey." Upon his return last month they decided on a wedding.

* * *

Originally it was to be a big affair in Beverly Hills, but they decided against it. What convinced them?

"The guest list," said Stephanie. "My own list grew to 500 and my family doesn't even live here. Gary's family does live here, and there are plenty of them."

TWO WEEK'S SALARY

She figured the bill for the wedding would have amounted to $5,000 —"that's two weeks' salary for me." Result: The decision to fly off to Tahoe with a handful of family and friends. Stephanie still hasn't decided on a date, but figures it will be late this month or early September.

Honeymoon? Forget it. Stephanie will have to return to "The Girl from U.N.C.L.E." and Gary plans to leave for London to star in a film for his own company.

* * *

Is this the way to run a marriage?

"We both realize the hazards of getting married in our profession," she commented. "Look at the odds against marriage in the normal population. Then add the fact that 90 per cent of actors' marriages don't last.

TOO DANGEROUS

"But I hope ours does. If not, I'm sure neither of us would ever marry again. It's too dangerous. Even to fall in love is a sort of masochistic experience; you find yourself completely vulnerable, like an open wound."

As you can perhaps judge, Stephanie is an out-of-the-ordinary girl! And MGM and NBC hope that she will attract the same avid following as did her predecessors in "U.N.C.L.E.," David McCallum and Robert Vaughn. Why did she take the series?

* * *

"Because I wasn't getting the movie parts I wanted," said the actress, whose notable films were "Stagecoach" and "Die! Die! My Darling!" "I've already done more things in this series than I was able to do in a dozen movies."

Hemingway Suicide - Wife

NEW YORK (AP) — The widow of Nobel Prize-winning author Ernest Hemingway has said for the first time publicly that her husband committed suicide.

"He shot himself. Shot himself. Just that. And nothing else," said Mary Hemingway in an interview published in the current issue of Look magazine.

* * *

"For a long time I refused to admit even to myself. By pretending it had been an accident. Admitting the truth would've snapped my nerves, split open my brain," she said.

Hemingway's body was found in his Ketchum, Idaho, hunting lodge July 2, 1961. He had been killed by blasts from both barrels of his favorite shotgun.

OFFICIAL RULING

The official ruling was "death from self-inflicted gunshot wound in the head." No determination was ever made on whether the death was accidental or suicide.

Mrs. Hemingway also disclosed that her husband had rejected a Soviet offer in 1960 by then Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan to pay him royalties on his books. "I'll be happy to accept when you grant the same treatment to all American writers," the novelist answered.

* * *

She said Mikyoan told Hemingway the Soviet state bank had the equivalent of $150,000 in rubles from his Russian copyrights, and that the Soviet government was studying how to pay him in America, a practice against Soviet law.

"I hope that very soon you'll be able to receive $10,000 a year," she said Mikyoan told Hemingway.

Eisenhower Tradition Ends

NEW YORK (AP) — Mamie Eisenhower revealed today that her grandson David, 18, has decided not to follow the lead of his father and grandfather in attending West Point.

David, who graduated from Phillips Exeter last June, will attend Amherst College, the former first lady said in a copyright article in the current issue of McCall's magazine.

"Hhis parents felt that the decision should be David's alone, and it was," Mrs. Eisenhower said, adding that she is proud of the decision.

Talking about romance and marriage, Mrs. Eisenhower criticizes the modern trend toward casualness and informality.

HAIR IN CURLERS

She said she and former President Dwight D. Eisenhower recently saw a young couple, the girl with her hair in curlers.

"I think the general was appalled."

Mrs. Eisenhower celebrated her 50th wedding anniversary last July and will mark her 70th birthday in November.

Morning Rally Fails

Market Prices Down Sharply

NEW YORK (AP) — A morning rally in the stock market failed and prices were down sharply once again early this afternoon in heavy trading.

On the basis of points in the Dow Jones industrial average, the market slide was now worse than the plunge of spring 1962, a 200-point drop.

* * *

From the Feb. 9 closing high of 995.15 in the Dow industrials to last night's close of 792.03, the loss was 203.12.

This was stretched by the loss of another 5.68 at noon today when the Dow industrials stood at 786.35.

'TIRED' REASONS

Wall Street comment was published to the effect that "discouragement is giving way to bewilderment" and that "puzzlement among brokers is deepened" because the stock market is not supposed to discount the same thing twice.

This was a reference to the "tired" reasons for the decline — tight money, high interest rates, Viet Nam, the profit squeeze and fear of recession. These reasons, it was said, have been given again and again and their effects have already "discounted" market prices, analysts said. Yet the market persisted in going down.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was off 1.8 at 282.3 with industrials off 2.2, rails off 2.0 and utilities off .1.

Prices were mixed in active trading on the American Stock Exchange. TWA warrants lost 3, Westec and Duval about 2.

Auto Industry Is Speeding Up

Wants Supply of '67s Before Introductions

DETROIT (AP) — The U.S. auto industry picked up speed today in its drive to build a full schedule of 1967 model cars before model introduction time next month.

Ford, Chrysler and American Motors plants were hard at work on the new cars, while virtually all General Motors units were down for model changeover.

Last week marked the first one devoted entirely to 1967 output and nearly 27,000 cars rolled off assembly lines. That figure was expected to be toppled this week as eight more assembly plants began their 1967 production.

* * *

The over-all production picture through last week showed the industry was off to a faster start than a year ago on building its new offerings. Some 33,165 of the 67's had been built by last Saturday, compared with 29,334 of the 66's at this point a year ago.

INTO PRODUCTION

The bulk of GM's assembly operations will get back into the production picture next Monday but in the meantime some Camaros and Buick Rivieras were built this week.

On an industry wide calendar year basis, total car output thus far into 1966 came to about 5.4 million units, some 11 per cent below the 6.1 million built in the like period a year ago.

Auto companies, intent on getting off to a fast start in the 1967 model sales year, set their sights on an August-September output of 787,000 cars, far ahead of the 565,000 1966 models built up to October 1 of last year.

Foreign-Auto Service Opens

British-European Autos, specializing in service and repair of foreign cars, has been opened at 508 N. Main, Milford.

Owners Mr. and Mrs. James Montgomery, who recently moved here from Scotland, are redecorating the building to further plans for obtaining a foreign-car sales franchise.

Clues Are Cloudy

Prosperity Confused

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK — If the public is confused about where today's prosperity may be leading, can you blame it? Just look at what the news offers as clues for the trends for tomorrow:

DAWSON

— Declining stock prices but rising corporate profits and dividends.

— Growing total of personal incomes but an upward spurt in the cost of living.

—Soaring interest rates but a steady climb in the demand for loans.

* * *

—Money supply still on the rise but the tightest money market in years for those who borrow.

—A big drop in machine tool orders but an increase in the backlog of orders.

—Beefing up wage demands as unemployment drops but exuberant planning for business expansion despite the threat to profit margins.

—Slowdown in auto sales and housing starts but a stepping up of total industrial activity.

ADDED SITUATION

And to all these trends that at first glance seem to contradict each other might be added the situation in Washington.

The monetary authorities, worried by the inflationary signs and fearing the overheating of the economy as the 67th month of the business upswing nears, are clamping down on the supply of credit and exhorting bankers to make fewer loans to business.

* * *

But the administration and Congress, preoccupied perhaps with the approaching congressional elections, are apparently leaving the fiscal problems of higher taxation and increasing government spending for reappraisal at the end of the year.

The confused man in the street can only judge for himself, and as best he can, what is likely to happen in the months ahead.

OTHER PROBLEMS

Anyway, today's problems themselves take up most of his time.

Housewives are trying to stretch family budgets around rising prices—whether it's for food, or rent, or transportation, or medical care.

Businessmen are wheedling their bankers for top priority for loans wanted for new plants and equipment or for increased activity at old plants.

Bankers and savings and loan associations are competing for the investor's savings so that they can lend to business or finance home mortgages.

PRICED OUT

And many families have been priced out of the housing market by rising down payments and higher mortgage interest rates.

All of these factors, usually classed as brakes on the boom, have so far produced very little of a slowdown in over-all industrial activity and consumer spending. The pace isn't as fast as in the first months of the year but almost everyone considered that pace dangerously swift. But the economy in general is still expanding—and increased defense outlays seem likely to keep it going.

* * *

The experts seem just as confused—or at least as divided—as the public.

Business and financial economists are calling for the federal government to ease up on feeding the boom with increased defense and civilian spending.

DELAY EXPANSION

Government officials are calling on business to drop or postpone part of its program for capital investment in new plants and equipment. And the officials are asking bankers to cut back voluntarily on loans to business to dampen the fires of speculation.

Washington is also asking consumers to fight price rises by spending more carefully. But most consumers seem to be taking the attitude that the problem is meeting higher bills by trying for higher income.

* * *

And just now much of the public isn't sure who is winning, or even exactly what they're fighting for, and is pretty confused as to what lies ahead.

Pearson Efforts to Avert Rail Strike Said Too Late

OTTAWA (AP) — The Canadian government pushed efforts today to avert a nationwide rail strike but a union leader said the move was too late. "We will be on strike Friday," he said.

The government effort was spearheaded by Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson, who called labor and management leaders to talks Monday night after warning a strike "could be disastrous."

* * *

He also said he was calling Parliament to meet Monday and if the strike came off the government would introduce proposals "to resolve the dispute."

Union leaders said that 120,000 employes of the Canadian National Railways, the Canadian Pacific Railway and five other lines would walk out Friday noon unless their wage demands are met.

PARTICIPANTS

Participating in the strike would be 100,000 nonoperating employes and 20,000 members of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen.

W. P. Kelly, head of the trainmen, said Pearson's appeal indicated the government was preparing to abandon its freeze on freight rates and thus give the railways "something to put on the table."

* * *

Since 1959, wage increases have been paid from the federal treasury at an annual cost now estimated at $100 million.

The railways refused wage demands ranging from 55 cents to more than $1 an hour. The present average wage is $2.22 an hour.

NOT AFFECTED

The three wholly owned American subsidiaries of the CNR, a crown corporation of the Canadian government, will not be affected. The three, Central Vermont, Grand Trunk Western, and Duluth, Winnipeg & Pacific Railways, operate about 1,500 miles of track.

A CNR spokesman said regular Chicago-Toronto-Montreal trains will terminate at Port Huron, Mich., near the border. The New York-Montreal trains will terminate at White River Junction, Vt.

* * *

Successful Investing

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q) "I have been trying for years to build a stock portfolio and have profits in my commitments in General Motors, Comsat, American Cyanamid, and Plough, Inc. On the other hand, I bought Continental Telephone, Houston Lighting and Power and Continental Oil late last year. All of the latter three show losses. Did I do wrong here and should I sell?" M. B.

A) Comeback prospects appear above average for Continental Telephone, Houston Lighting and Continental Oil, and if you exercise patience, I believe you should eventually wind up with three more winners. Per share earnings of Continental Telephone have nearly quadrupled during the last four years and appear headed higher. Houston Lighting operates in a rapidly expanding area and share earnings here have doubled since 1959.

The application of a retroactive Libyan tax interrupted a long string of pluses in the earnings column for Continental Oil last year. The uptrend, however, appears to have been resumed and net income for the first half of 1966 was up 11 per cent over the same 1965 period.

* * *

Q) "I am retired with what I believe to be adequate income and a $6,000 cash reserve in the savings and loan bank. I have $10,000 in RCA and General Telephone and Telegraph. Another $6,000 is invested in Atchison, Chesebrough-Pond's, Control Data, Lockheed Aircraft, Transamerica, Commonwealth Oil and McLean Industries. Should I sell some stocks at this time to increase my cash reserve?" F. S.

Q) Your list contains several good issues of the type suited for a retired person. Cost prices were not given, and this factor is always helpful in reaching a decision. I would hold RCA, General Telephone, Chesebrough and Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe, for income and or growth.

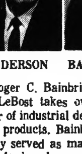

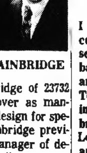

The other five stocks could be sold if you wish to increase your reserve. Also, I feel that eventually you should consider other issues, more suitable for a retired individual.

ONE COLOR

MONEY CLIPS....by Mort Reed

All-American

Before James E. Fraser designed the buffalo or Indian-head nickel he lived on the plains of the Dakotas, where he studied the facial expressions of the American Indian and the habits and features of the Great Plains bison. It was Fraser's intent to create a coin design completely different from all others and one that could be called the only true American coin. This he accomplished because of the subjects he used and the plain manner in which they were presented.

Fraser used three American Indian chiefs for his profile composite on the 1913 nickel. They were selected for specific facial features that, combined, would give him the desired effect for the final portrait. The models were—Chief Two Moons, a Cheyenne, Chief Big-Tree, a Seneca, a Chief Iron-Tail, a Sioux. Little is known about Two-Moons but Iron-Tail was an aide to Chief Sitting Bull at the battle of the Little Big Horn against General Custer. John Big-Tree modeled for the famous Fraser statue, "End of the Trail," which depicts a defeated young warrior astride an Indian pony.

The fourth model in the All-American team was Black Diamond, a Great Plains bison reputed to be the largest ever held in captivity. He weighed almost a ton. Black Diamond never saw the hills and plains of the west. He was born in New York's Central Park Zoo in 1893 and died in 1915 at the age of 22.

The parents of Black Diamond were donated to the zoo by the famous circus personality, P. T. Barnum.

An interesting sidelight followed the issuance of the buffalo nickel in 1913. The design caused the coin to be slightly thicker than the previous five-cent pieces and because of this, buffalo nickels would not enter the coin slot of streetcar and bus fare boxes. It required every fare box in the country to be changed to accept the new "jitney."

Fraser's initial F is located just under the date.

Peace Corpsman's Trial Near

DAR ES SALAAM, Tanzania (AP) — Two American Peace Corps volunteers, Bill Haywood Kinsey and his wife, Beverley, cycled off March 27 for a picnic on the boulder-strewn slopes of Impala Hill near Maswa, the remote Tanzanian township where for nearly 18 months they had taught at an African school.

That evening Kinsey, 24, led police to his wife's battered, bloodstained body. She had died of a fractured skull.

* * *

Kinsey says his wife, 23, fell from a rock and died as he ran for help. An African peasant alleges he saw the couple fighting and watched Kinsey beat his screaming wife to the ground.

Police discovered a blood-stained length of iron pipe at the scene, and Kinsey was charged with murdering the auburn-haired girl he married shortly before leaving the United States.

Friday, in the High Court at Mwanza, a sleepy, sun-drenched port on the southern shore of Lake Victoria, Kinsey goes on trial for his life.

Kinsey's story was in a statement alleged to have been made to a local administrator two days after his wife's death.

* * *

It went this way: Kinsey cycled with his wife to the hill and after drinking a bottle of beer climbed atop a 20-foot rock.

They stood together at the summit. Then Kinsey heard the sound of breaking glass. He crept to the edge and saw her lying below.

BLOOD ON HEAD

Kinsey ran down. His wife was standing now, with blood on her head.

* * *

"I went toward her but before I reached her she fell. She scrambled about trying to get up. Then she began shouting my name and shouting 'Oh, my God!'

'I was afraid she would fall and injure herself. She was reaching for me and I tried to force her to lie down.

"Finally I forced her down and to keep her from moving I sat on top of her. She was still kicking and waving her arms. Then she seemed to calm down and stopped shouting."

FARMER'S VERSION

Farmer Maganda Vilindo gave this version of the drama of Impala Hill:

He ran to the foot of the hill when he heard an old woman crying out.

* * *

She pointed to a white couple "pushing each other and fighting."

The woman fell down and did not get up. To speak the truth, I noticed the man was hitting the woman with something, but with what I could not see," he said.

* * *

Kinsey has awaited trial in Mwanga's lakeside jail. If found guilty, he faces a maximum sentence of hanging. President Julius Nyerere, however, commutes 75 per cent of all death sentences to life imprisonment.

Kinsey is from Washington, D.C. His wife's home was in Riverside, Conn.

Volcano Building

WASHINGTON (AP) — Kilauea volcano on the Island of Hawaii may be building up to another eruption in the next few years, says the Interior Department's Geological Survey.

Fire Destroys Old Building

NEGAUNEE (UPI)—Fire destroyed this community's oldest business building yesterday as firemen fought six hours to put out the blaze in the 100-year-old structure.

The building had housed a bowling alley most recently, but at one time was Negaunee's first hotel.

No injuries were reported, and there was no immediate estimate of damage.

Outbreak of Fever Kills 19 in Manila

MANILA (AP) — At least 19 people have died and 339 have been admitted to hospitals following a serious outbreak of hemorrhagic fever in Manila.

Health officials said the outbreak started three weeks ago and 100 new cases a day are being reported.

The fever, which is spread by mosquitos, causes internal bleeding.

New Dome Stadia Creating Nonfans

By DICK WEST

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Astrodome, Houston's all-weather baseball stadium, appears to be having a peculiar effect on Texans.

WEST

I first noticed this last month when I was visiting my native state.

One of my relatives, a middle-aged widow, happened to mention that she had been in the Astrodome earlier in the summer. This rather surprised me because she lives about 400 miles from Houston.

"Did you enjoy the game?" I asked.

"What game?"

* * *

"I understood you to say you had been to Houston to see a baseball game."

"Don't be silly. I wouldn't walk across the street to see a baseball game. I said I had been to see the Astrodome."

EMPTY STADIUM

It turned out that she had driven to Houston, taken a tour of the empty stadium and then driven home again.

* * *

My first thought was that the poor soul had lost her marbles. But when I made a few discreet inquiries among other members of the family, I learned that her behavior was normal.

I was told that thousands of Texans had visited the Astrodome when no game was being played. Apparently they felt that baseball would detract from their enjoyment of the stadium.

A man who had actually seen a game in the Astrodome said it also was a bit unusual. He said many spectators spent more time watching the electronic scoreboard than what was happening on the field.

* * *

After I returned to Washington, I began to mull this over. Travelling long distances to see baseball games is no novelty, but driving 400 miles not to see a game is something else entirely.

NEW BREED

I concluded that the Astrodome was creating a new breed

A few days later, when the Washington Senators were playing away from home, I drove out to D.C. Stadium and spent a few minutes sitting in the empty stands.

There were no guided tours, as at the Astrodome, but it was nevertheless a pleasant experience. In some ways it was better than watching the Senators play.

* * *

It then occurred to me that baseball owners probably would pick up a lot of extra cash by catering to nonfans.

Merely keeping the gates open likely would not attract much of a crowd, except in Texas, but if they offered a regular schedule of nongames, it could be a big drawing card.

More than 6 million persons visit the New York Metropolitan Museum of Art each year.

Jungle Tested on Radiation

Stands High Doses, Recovery Is Faster

By Science Service

COLLEGE PARK, Md. — The Jungle will withstand considerably higher doses of radiation without damage than forests of the temperate zone, a meeting of biologists was told here.

Moreover, once damaged, the tropical rain forest recovers faster, as seedlings of other plants sprout and grow in the area once shadowed by large trees, Dr. J. Frank McCormick of the University of North Carolina reported to the American Institute of Biological Sciences convention.

The rain forest study was financed by the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission.

Radiation in doses as high as 5 kiloroentgen (one KR is lethal to humans) had no detectable effect on the abundance or diversity of seedlings in the rain forest areas he studied, said Dr. McCormick.

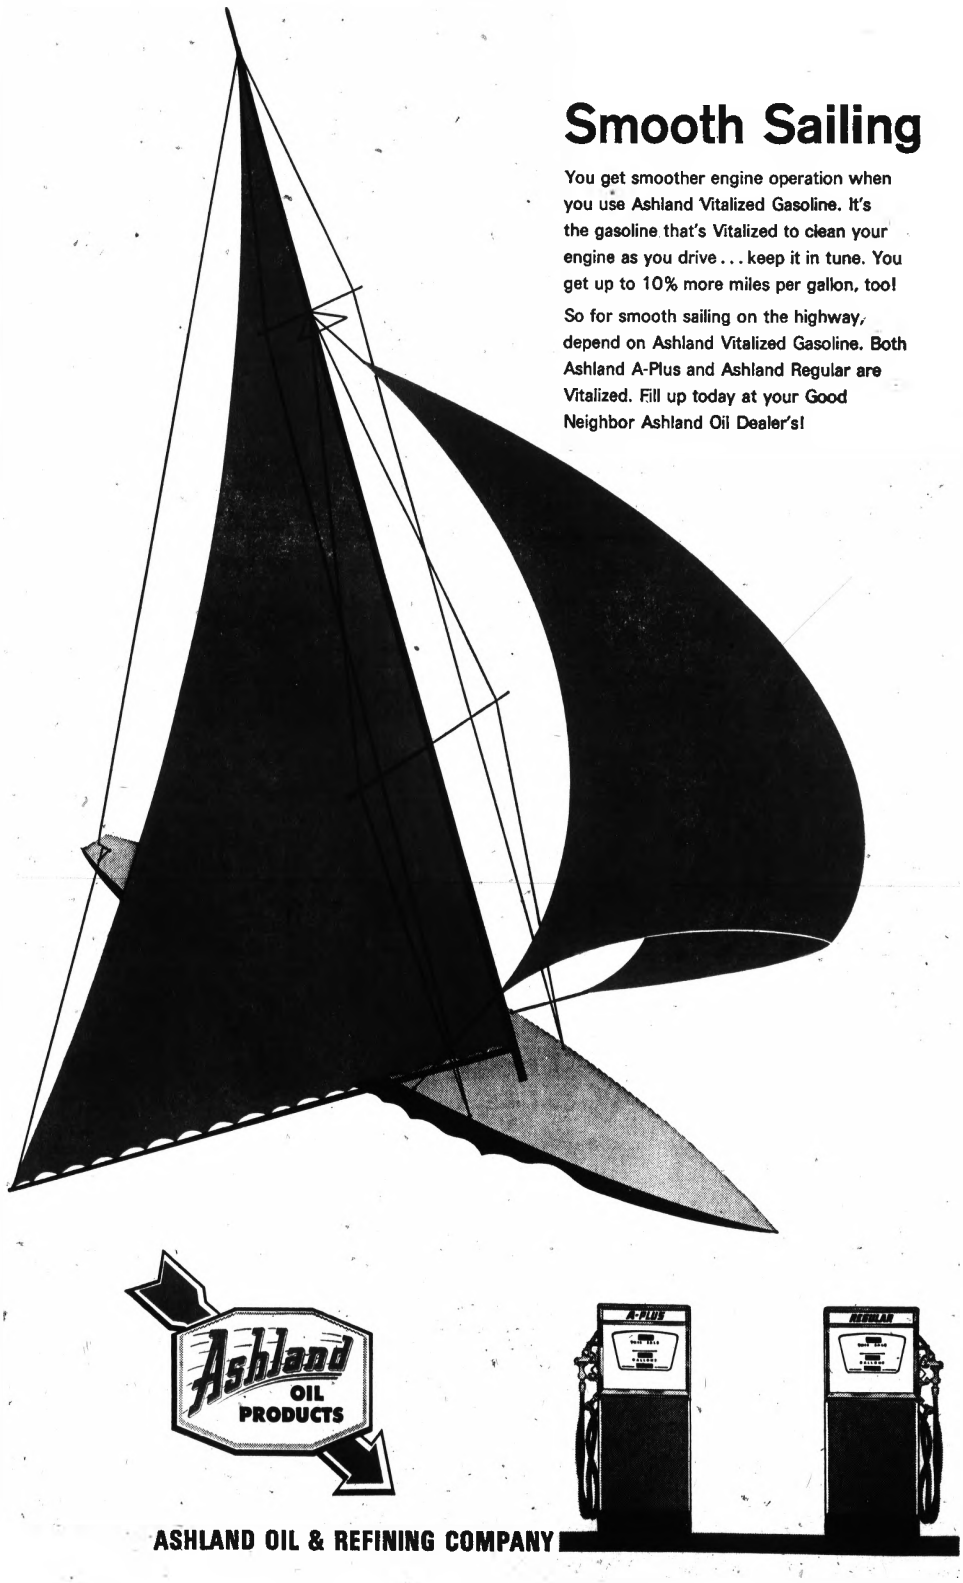

Some coniferous forests of the north, however, have been destroyed by little more than half that much dosage.

MORE RESISTANT

Somewhat more radiation-resistant are the oak, hickory and pine forests common to the eastern U.S. Here 10 to 50 KR killed the hardwoods, while lower doses killed the pines.

But in the tropical rain forest, radiation in doses as high as 25 to 35 KR killed few species, noted Dr. McCormick.

Dr. McCormick said he and his team were successful in destroying the forest canopy and bringing about a definite reduction in diversity by using 50 KR or more.

Heckler Yells 'Fink', Gets Punch on Nose

Fickle Detroit Fans Never Had Real Chance to Boo Morrall

(This is part one of the Earl Morrall story "The Fink of Detroit and the Earl of New York.)

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Fickle Detroit Lions' football fans love to boo—especially when the starting quarterback takes the field on a Sunday afternoon in Tiger Stadium.

They booed Bobby Layne literally out of Tiger Stadium even though he had guided the Lions to four divisional and three NFL championships.

They've been booing Milt Plum ever since he joined the Lions and they started booing even louder since the trade of Earl Morrall to the New York Giants.

Because he was never really regarded as the No. 1 quarterback in Detroit, he was never subjected to the boo birds.

He was often called the best "relief" quarterback in pro football, and cheers always rang out from the right field stands in Tiger Stadium when he started warming up in the "bullpen" behind the Lions' bench.

But no quarterback could ever be a solid choice in Detroit and on occasion there was a cat-call from the stands.

CALLED FINK

"You're a fink, Morrall," shouted a second tier fan as he raced onto the field in relief of Plum during a 1964 exhibition game against the Baltimore Colts.

* * *

POW! . . . and the heckler was met with a small fist right on the nose. It was 9-year-old Matt Morrall who objected to the verbal abuse directed at his dad down on the field, and he let the boo bird next to him have it.

"I'm sorry," said Jane Morrall, "but Matt doesn't like any one picking on his dad.

Before the game was over, this same boo bird and 46,000 other fans were cheering Morrall as he left the field with a 28-28 tie.

The Lions were 21 points behind when he entered the game. It was another save for Morrall, the relief artist.

This has been the pro football history of the former Michigan State All-America who was drafted No. 1 in 1956 by the San Francisco 49ers.

For nine years, he played second fiddle in San Francisco, Pittsburgh and Detroit.

His trade to the Giants on the last day of August 1965 put him in the conductor's role for the first time in his NFL career.

"The trade was the best thing for me," said the 32-year-old native of Muskegon, "I have some good football years left and I know I can help the Giants."

Coach Allie Sherman must have concurred with the statement when he made the deal for Morrall.

Morrall and Plum both agreed there had to be a decision made because there was no compromise about who should have the No. 1 spot.

Sherman had his choice, he picked Morrall. That was the report, but Morrall disagrees.

"I knew all week long before the trade that it was going to happen," he said, "and it wasn't a matter of offering New York a choice because I knew where I stood with some members of the Detroit organization."

When George Wilson left the Lions after the 1964 season Morrall realized that his last and strongest link with the Detroit organization was gone.

Wilson was never convinced that Morrall could be his No. 1 man, but he was determined to support the quarterback he obtained from his former boss Buddy Parker in one of the most startling trades in Detroit history.

When Parker got Layne and shipped Morrall to Wilson, he wasn't even subtle in administering the needle.

"He's not my type of quarterback, he'll never make this league," he said of Morrall in the trade story that came out of Pittsburgh.

But Wilson made the choice and he was going to stand by the former Michigan Stater at all costs.

Most serious breach involving Morrall and forcing Wilson to exchange a harsh volley with members of the organization, took place on the West Coast during the start of the 1964 season.

When his roommate Sam Williams was planning his fast departure from the team while in San Francisco, Morrall tried vainly to stop the big defensive end and to quiet the rumblings which already started.

BACKS MORRALL

Wilson appreciated what Morrall tried to do and the next day he had to prove it by supporting Morrall in a fued between the quarterback and a non-coaching member of the club.

"I was told I shouldn't complain about not being a starter as long as I was one of the better paid players on the team," Morrall said.

"I don't have to take that, I want to play and I deserve a starting chance," he added.

Wilson cooled off the ex-Spartan but as Morrall sees it, this reciprocal expression of confidence between himself and Wilson was what lit the fuse in the shakeup of coaches and his eventual trade.

"I guess I would have been traded long before this if it hadn't been for George (Wilson) sticking by me. At first I felt bad for George because I think it was a tough break for him, but now I'm happy for him because I hear he's got a great setup in Miami, and I've got a square deal with the Giants."

"I haven't had anyone call me fink in New York . . . yet."

(Tomorrow, the second part will be Morrall's rise from the bullpen to his status as the Earl of New York.)

Tigers Face 2nd Place Threat

Top Berth Looks Out of Reach

DETROIT (AP) — Next to their victory over the first-place Orioles Sunday the Tigers — almost to a man — talked most about the fact that three of the teams chasing them for second place had lost.

* * *

"That was a pretty looking scoreboard out there today," said Hank Aguirre, the first to mention the fact that Cleveland, Minnesota and California had suffered defeats.

* * *

The Tigers get another chance to extend their 2½ game advantage over the third place teams when they play host to the fifth-place Chicago White Sox in the first of three straight night games tonight.

* * *

Johnny Podres (2-2) and Gary Peters (10-9) were the scheduled starters.

Almost unnoticed in light of the Orioles' runaway with the American League race is the fact that the Tigers have held on to second place almost as long.

MOVED AHEAD

The Orioles moved ahead of Cleveland to take over the top spot on June 14 and six days later the Tigers took second place away from the Indians have held off challenges from Cleveland, California and Minnesota since.

* * *

"Sure, we're going to try our best to catch Baltimore but we've also got to watch those teams behind us," Al Kaline noted. "I'd like to open up a wide margin so all we'll have to worry about is closing in on Baltimore."

The Tigers remain 12½ games behind the Orioles but are only seven games ahead of the slipping California Angels, who are in sixth.

* * *

Detroit has but two more games with the Orioles, at Baltimore next Monday and Tuesday.

The Orioles have 13 games against the other first division clubs in the next three weeks and while the Tigers would like to see the other contenders knocked off they don't want the Orioles to add to their margin.

Walters Strikes Out 19

Teamsters Take Lead in 'A' Playoffs

It took two nights but lefthander Tom Walters gave his strongest pitching performance of the season and perhaps in his Class A League career as he completed a 7-2 decision over Booth Homes for Teamsters 614 last night.

The victory gave the unionmen — regular season leaders of the city men's recreation baseball league — a 1-0 advantage in the best-of-three championship series that continues at 7:30 p.m. today under the Jaycee Park lights.

Walters, a slender southpaw who was the circuit's most valuable player last season, was overpowering in the game against Booth.

He allowed one bloop single, struck out 19, walked four and allowed only two balls out of the infield. Of the eight batters who hit the ball fair, he retired two of them personally.

In addition, Walters rapped a double and single at the plate to drive in two of the teamsters' seven runs.

DELAYED EFFORT

Making his performance even more noteworthy was the fact he pitched three innings Sunday night before rain suspended the game in the middle of the fourth inning. The Birmingham resident returned last night to finish what he started and showed no affects from the delay.

He fanned seven of the first eight hitters he faced Monday, but walks to Tom Booth and Ed Sparkman with two out in the last of the sixth preceded John Kasper's looping pop fly to short left that just eluded shortstop Mike Marcum.

The blow cost Walters his no-hitter and shutout (both runners scored when the ball was slow in coming back to the infield). The hit also tripled the number of earned runs Booth Homes has scored against Teamsters' pitching this season.

In four games — all won by the unionmen — the home builders have totaled seven hits, three unearned runs, and six runs altogether. Four different hurlers have worked the games.

Walters was backed by a 13-hit attack that was concentrated in the bottom of the lineup. The sixth, seventh, eighth and ninth hitters had nine safeties and all seven runs batted in.

DECISIVE

Right fielder Al Barkeley rapped two singles and a double to drive in two and score once himself. The game was actually settled in the half inning (Continued on Page D-2, Col. 8)

AL WATROUS
Champion in All Classes

Another Division Golf Title

Champion in every division is a good motto for veteran golf pro Al Watrous of Oakland Hills.

Watrous, playing in the 65-69 year old division of the state PGA seniors championship, at Dearborn Country Club yesterday, fired a 78-78—159 to win his class.

Through the years Watrous, the dean of Oakland County pros at Oakland Hills Country Club, has been champion in every seniors' division.

Way back, 23 strokes behind, was C. B. "Brownie" Meyer, owner and former pro at Twin Beach Country Club.

Big John Barnum of Grand Rapids won the youngest division of the seniors, with 76-70—144, seven shots ahead of Faust Bianco of Dearborn.

Cliff Settergren of Pine River was the 55-59 year old division champion with 71-70-141, best score in the tournament and Bill Black of Royal led the division for 60-64 year olds with a 152.

It was the third straight year Settergren was medalist in the Michigan PGA seniors

Welter Boxers Given Beef-Up

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—The managers of Curtis Cokes and Manuel Gonzales both expressed concern Monday about "beefing up" their fighters.

The two Texans meet here Wednesday night in a 15-round bout for the world welterweight championship.

* * *

They'll weigh in at noon Wednesday and must be 147 or below.

Monday was the last day of hard work for both fighters.

"I didn't want Manny to box today, but he felt like going a few rounds so he did three," said Lou Viscusi, Gonzales' manager.

* * *

Cokes did no boxing Monday but he worked on the big bag and the speed bag and put in 10 minutes of rope skipping. He ran three miles earlier.

"His weight is down already," said trainer Robert Thomas.

Japan Winner on Diamond

HONOLULU (AP) — Japan rode the four-hit pitching of righthander Yasuo Fujitsu to a 5-1 victory over the Philippines in the opening game of the World Amateur Baseball Tournament in Honolulu Monday.

In opening ceremonies at Honolulu Stadium, seven teams from Korea, the Philippines, Japan, Alaska, the mainland United States and Hawaii—which entered two—paraded in their uniforms, carrying their country's flag at the head of each team.

The Korean team meets the United States at Pearl Harbor today while at Honolulu Stadium Hawaii's Civilian All-Stars play Alaska.

U.S. Seniors Team Winner for 3rd Time

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP) — The United States won its third straight team championship in the international team matches at the World Senior Golf Championship Monday.

Play begins today in the 32-man championship flight of the tournament.

The U. S. team finished at 457 for two rounds Monday, 13 strokes ahead of second-place Canada. The team matches and the tournament are limited to amateurs over the age of 55.

Bill Higgins of San Leandro, Calif., Merrill Carlsmith of Hilo, Hawaii, and George Haggerty of Grosse Pointe, Mich., each carded 75s Monday to give the U. S. team the victory.

Following Canada in order were Australia, Italy, Mexico, Kenya, Peru, France and Hong Kong.

COOPERSTOWN, N.Y. (AP) — Edson Mandrino of Brazil and Maria Teresa Riedl of Italy won the singles titles Monday in the Ortisei International Tennis Tournament. Madrino stunned Nicola Pietrangeli, Italy's top-ranked player, 6-2, 7-5, and Miss Riedl defeated Madonna Schacht of Australia 7-5, 6-1.

Atlanta Cuts Seven

Player Purge by Irate Coach

By the Associated Press

Arrivals may outnumber departures at the Atlanta Falcons' camp this week now that Norb Hecker has settled for half a purge.

Hecker, coach of the National Football League's fledgling franchise, had promised a shake-up last Saturday night after the Falcons were drubbed 42-3 for their fourth straight exhibition setback. "Twelve or 15 of them will be gone Monday," he said after an Atlanta crowd of 48,548 booed the home club.

Monday night, Hecker cut seven players, including Bobby Franklin, a veteran defensive back acquired from the Browns, and end Phil Sheridan, the Falcons' No. 6 draft choice from Notre Dame.

Today was the first of three cutdown dates for the 14 established clubs, who had to trim their rosters to 49 players apiece. They must get down to 43 by next Tuesday and then freeze at 40 by Sept. 6.

Atlanta, however, is exempt from the cutdown rule until Sept. 6, then may retain 46 players going into its season opener. Hecker, therefore, can be expected to make several additions to his squad, drawing from the other clubs' discards.

* * *

The Falcons are seeking a breakaway runner who can go to the outside, although Hecker, after watching the game films, expressed satisfaction in the performances of fullback Ernie Wheelright and halfback Junior Coffey against the Browns.

Other Atlanta cuts were defensive backs Lowell Caylor, Bob Sherman and Sam Montgomery; fullback Bill McWatters and defensive end Billy James. Sheridan, the Notre Dame captain in 1965, was the first high draft pick turned loose by the new club.

Washington and Pittsburgh got down to the 49-man limit Monday night, the Redskins making 11 squads cuts and the Steelers five.

DROPPED TWO

Philadelphia dropped two players and Green Bay made the limit by placing rookie center Steve Buratto on waivers.

Washington placed three injured veterans — defensive back Jim Steffen and defensive tackles Fred Williams and Dick Eers — on the injured reserve list. Fullback Tom Barrington, No. 3 draft choice from Ohio State, and Kurt Altenberg, rookie end from UCLA, were among those cut.

* * *

The Steelers dropped four rookies and put third-year linebacker Gene Breen on the injured list. The Eagles asked waivers on center Dick Recher and defensive tackle Erwin Will, their No. 7 draft pick.

Roosevelt Brown, New York's offensive tackle, was expected to call it a career today after 13 seasons. The Giants were one over the limit and Brown, who has been added to the club's coaching staff, was warned by doctors that he risks recurrence of phlebitis in his leg if he plays. He was slowed last year by the circulatory inflammation.

Dearborn Class E Winner

Two Junior Nines Lose in State Finals

A happy morning became a gloomy afternoon Monday for two Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department junior baseball teams at Jackson.

Each won their semifinal game in the Michigan Recreation Association state championships, then dropped a one-run verdict in the last inning of the finals.

The Class D Pontiac Police Officers' Association team led by Arnie Wilson was a 6-5 winner over Battle Creek Lakeview before falling, 2-1, to Plymouth's Optimists.

The Fraternal Order of Police Yankees trimmed Holland Aeroseal, 8-1, in their morning Class E contest, but lost to Dearborn, 3-2, in extra innings yesterday afternoon.

In Class F, Roseville upended Inkster, 9-7, for the title. Roseville was a Pontiac Class F regional champion.

RALLIES

The POA team defeated Battle Creek after losing a 3-0 lead. It came from a 5-3 deficit to win when Art Jackson scored an unearned run in the bottom of the sixth inning after two errors. Don Hayward was the winning pitcher in relief.

The afternoon contest also saw Pontiac fall behind, 1-0, on an error in the third inning; but two singles and Craig Deaton's sacrifice fly tied it in the fourth.

The winning run scored when Jackson walked three batters in the seventh. Hayward relieved him and completed walking the fourth man to force in the deciding marker.

In the "E" tournament, FOP's Yankees went hitless for four innings against Holland before breaking loose for six runs on seven hits in the fifth. Victor Quince tossed two-hit ball to get the victory for coach David Lee.

A two-run outburst by Dearborn in the fifth inning of the finals tied that game and it remained deadlocked until the ninth. An infield single and double to center put runners on second and third for Dearborn with none out.

Clyde Duncan then gave the Pontiac cause a lift with a perfect throw to the plate to double the runner attempting to score from third after a liner to left. But with two out, Rob Clancy uncorked a wild pitch to let in the winning run.

* * *

The losers managed only two hits in the final game. Stan Babiuk was the losing hurler.

Buc Catcher Wants to 'Improve Image'

By the Associated Press

Jesse Gonder finally is catching up with Frank Robinson and Vada Pinson again, but he'd rather catch up with Yogi Berra.

Gonder, who was a high school chum of Robinson and Pinson, continued hitting like the two sluggers Monday night, rapping three hits as the Pittsburgh Pirates edged Philadelphia 6-5 and maintained their one-percentage-point lead in the National League pennant race.

Gonder, a reserve catcher, has started the last three games for the Pirates and has collected eight hits in 13 at bats, raising his average 54 points to .245.

But as elated as Gonder is about his hitting, he prefers building his image as a catcher, an image he contends has been marred unjustifiably.

"I'm not a bad catcher," he said. "I hate to say this, but I have to blame the New York press. When I was with the Mets, the press was building the Mets' image. Any time a player did something wrong, they'd play it up big.

HEADLINER

"Like one day the headline read, 'Gonder drops pop fly, Mets lose.' I don't think I got a fair shake."

The Pirates are willing boosters for Gonder's defense.

"He hasn't caught a bad game for us this year," pitcher Al McBean said.

Added Manager Harry Walker: "'Bob Veale would rather pitch to him than anyone else."

The 30-year-old Gonder has traveled extensively since attending McClymonds High School in Oakland, Calif., with Robinson and Pinson.

He played with 11 minor league teams and four major league teams — both New Yorks, Cincinnati and Milwaukee — before joining the Pirates this season.

* * *

He's still considered a second-stringer, but his current hitting prowess adds one more potent bat to the Pirates' already potent attack.

He's socked his only three doubles this season in the past two games, and his six homers are only one less than his major league career high of seven.

In other National League games, second-place San Francisco defeated Cincinnati 5-2, Los Angeles edged Atlanta 4-3 in 12 innings, St. Louis blanked Houston 3-0 and Chicago downed New York 8-4. There were no games scheduled in the American League.

* * *

The Pirates added 14 other hits to Gonder's three. One was Bill Mazeroski's two-run triple, which powered a four-run rally in the fifth inning. Mazeroski put the Pirates ahead of Philadelphia 4-3 with the triple, then scored as Bob Bailey singled.

RELIEF HELP

Hal Lanier scored on Len Gabrielson's fifth-inning single, putting San Francisco ahead 3-2, then added a two-run single in the eighth. Reliever Linday McDaniel preserved the victory by blanking Cincinnati on four hits in the last four innings.

'Fastest Human' Rides High in Dallas

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Bob Hayes, who says he doesn't believe in jinxes, is busily engaged in smashing one as he runs wild in exhibition games of the National Football League.

Coach Tom Landry of the Cowboys said before the season started that it would be "the moment of truth" for the world's fastest human who was a sensation in his first season with Dallas.

* * *

What Landry was talking about was this: A fellow who makes a big showing in his rookie season can expect to have the opposition key in on him in his sophomore year.

They would know all about him then and he could expect to be double-teamed. He was facing the sophomore jinx.

* *

But Hayes has caught 12 of 15 passes for 212 yards in three games, scoring three touchdowns. "I missed two and the other was too low to catch," said Hayes, apologizing.

He took two touchdown passes away from Herb Adderley of Green Bay Saturday night when the Cowboys beat the Packers 21-3. Adderley, a speedster, is supposed to be the best cornerback in pro football.

The other touchdown pass he snared in the presence of Irv Cross of Los Angeles, another top defensive hand. Hayes went 63 yards with it.

After the Los Angeles game, which Dallas won 20-10, Hayes called on Cross and Clancy Williams, both friends of his, in the Ram dressing room.

Each grabbed Hayes by an arm and Clancy yelled, "We got him and now we'll kill him."

It was all in fun, of course, but that just shows the respect everybody has for the flying split end of the Cowboys.

"I don't believe in jinxes," said Hayes. "And even if they put three men on me, as they have thus far, I'll do as well as ever. Besides, if they keep doing that, another receiver will be free to make the touchdowns."

* * *

Last year Hayes, the world record holder in the 100-yard dash in 9.1 and Olympic Games sprint champion, scored 13 touchdowns. He caught 46 passes for 1,003 yards — one of the few men ever to hit the 1,000 mark, especially a rookie.

Little League Tourney Starts With 2 Games

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (UPI) — The 20 annual Little League World Series for boys was scheduled to get under way today with Sacramento, Calif., playing Windsor, Ontario.

* * *

Houston, Tex., was to play Monterrey, Mexico.

* * *

Games were scheduled Wednesday between Kankakee, Ill., and West New York, N. J., and Wayakama, Japan, and the Rhine Main, U. S. Air Force Base of Germany. The German team is made up of American boys, the sons of U. S. military personnel.

* * *

The survivors of today's games were to play in one semi-final game Thursday and the winners of Wednesday's games in the other semifinal.

Pan-Am Trials Lead to Talks in Motor City

DETROIT (UPI) — United States Olympic Committee officials met with a representative of the University of Minnesota here Monday to begin laying the groundwork for the 1967 Pan American Games trials.

U.S. Olympic Committee president Douglas Roby and executive director Art Lentz met with John Finlayson, representing the University of Minnesota to discuss the sports which could be handled at the Big Ten school and what facilities would be available next July.

The University has agreed to hold the tryouts on the condition that all of the trials are held in Minneapolis-St. Paul.

The swimming committee, headed by William Lippman of Los Angeles, however, has requested that the Amateur Athletic Union National Indoor Championships at Southern Methodist University be used as its Pan-Am trials instead of conducting special contests at Minnesota.

Roby said the AAU championships would not be an adequate test. They will be held in April, nearly four months before the Pan-Am games are to begin. They will also he held in a 25-meter pool instead of the 50-meter pool which will be used in the international games, Roby said.

Tied for 1st Place

GLENVIEW, Ill. (UPI) — Donna Caponi, Marlene Hagge and Clifford Ann Creed finished in a first place tie Monday in the second annual ladies pro-am golf tournament at the North Shore Country Club with 74s.

Cassius Offers New Challenge to Draft Board

Boxer Makes Claim as Muslim Minister for Deferment

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Heavyweight champion Cassius Clay will turn challenger once again in his battle for a draft exemption, this time claiming he is a minister of the Black Muslim faith.

Clay's attorney, Hayden Covington, said he would file an appeal with Clay's local draft board for a ministerial exemption.

* * *

"I don't know why this wasn't done in the first place," Covington said Monday. "It's been hidden under a bushel basket and it's my duty to bring it to light."

Clay, in an unusually somber mood, preferred to let his attorney do his talking.

"I don't think it's respectful to the draft board or the American government to discuss this case out of court," the champion said.

Clay and Covington will appear at a hearing today before retired Circuit Judge Lawrence Grawman on Clay's appeal for draft deferment as a conscientious objector.

"This does not mean he will change his appeal," Covington said. "It merely means that this man is both a conscientious objector and a minister."

Covington said that if Clay is considered a conscientious objector, his classification of 1-A would be changed to 1-AO. "But he wouldn't be automatically exempt for that reason," he added.

"I'm not pre-judging the case," he said, "but as a lawyer I must present the facts and this man has pursued the ministry of the Black Muslim faith since 1964."

Asked if Clay was ordained at that time, Covington replied: "Muhammid Ali (Clay's Muslim name) was appointed a field minister of the Muslim faith by Elijah Muhammad in 1964. He wasn't ordained, as such, because that isn't part of his faith."

Teamster's 9 Wins First in Playoff Series

just before Walters was touched for the two runs and lone hit.

Barkeley led off with a single and Les Stone ripped a two-strike double off the right field fence. Marcum's fly to left was misplayed and fell for an rbi-single. Walters then doubled over the left fielder's head for two more runs.

That outburst built the Teamsters' lead to 5-0. Kasper's hit cut it to 5-2 but the losers only had one man reach base in the final three innings.

Walters fanned every Booth batter except lead-off man Booth and seven of the losers whiffed at least twice. Only three fair balls were hit into the air.

The game's best defensive plays were turned in by the losers. Roger Grahf made a strong throw to the plate from center to cut down a run in the first inning. Charlie Honchell made a lunging grab of a bases-loaded pop fly, and left fielder Booth cut down a run at the plate in the final inning.

Walters stopped a hot shot for the teamster's top defensive play.

Northville Driver Sets Harness Pace

HAZEL PARK — Northville's Gordon Norris proved that consistency pays off at Hazel Park Harness Raceway as the third full week of the 55-night fall meeting got under way.

With two seconds and two thirds in four previous drives during the evening, Norris, a 33-year-old veteran of the harness wars, finally moved into the winner's circle with Scot Ervin, a four-year-old bay horse in the 10th.

His five money finishes gives Norris seven wins, four places and eight shows for the 14 nights now completed.

Midwest Trap Shooters Gain Titles

VANDALIA, Ohio (UPI) — Midlands marksmen collected the most titles from Monday's Introductory Shoot and Champion of Champions events at the Grand American Trapshoot, but the familiar 6-foot-6, 230-pound figure from Nevada stood tall once again.

Dan Orlich, night manager at a Reno famed casino, relinquished his Champion of Champions crown after a three-year reign as best among state champions in their own special competition—but won the Introductory singles title.

The former Green Bay Packers football player, now 42 and winning laurels here since 10 years ago, was the only shooter in a record Introductory field of 1,032 to break all 200 targets from 16 yards.

The battle for Runnerup and Class AA honors in that event was carried over to today after 16 tied with 199 and three of the 16 survived by breaking 100 straight in a first shootoff.

The three include another prominent name in past Grand Americans, Bueford Bailey of Big Springs, Neb., who also grabbed a share of the Champion of Champions title. He and Don Mackerman, Newton, Iowa, tied for that one with 100 of 100. There was no shootoff.

MILE A MISS

Orlich missed just one clay in that event, also a 16-yard line competition. But one miss is as big as a mile here.

Bill Davis of Harrison, Ohio, whose hometown co-entrant Ray Siegert, gained Class C Laurels in the Introductory with a 198 tally, and Ray Dorne of Manhattan, Ill., were in the tie with Bailey behind Orlich in the Introductory.

* * *

Other winners included Iowans Robert B. Boyd, Le Mars, Class B, 199, and Mary Meadows, Grimes, veteran ladies, 93 of 100; Steve Carmichael, Kansas City, Mo., who won the juniors with 198 and teamed with his dad, S. H. Carmichael, for the parent-child honors with 395 of 400; Doris and John Voss, Omaha, Neb., husband-wife, 383; James A. and E. A. Ross, Uniontown, Pa., brother-brother, 393; Judith C. Allison, Elgin, Ill., 196; Ralph Cornett, Sykesville, Md., Class A, 199, and Mike Schwanz, Fort Wayne, Ind., 194.

Today's program featured more 16-year firing at 200 targets for class championships.

BATTLE FOR POSITION—St. Louis Cardinal third baseman Charley Smith (1) found no running room at first base as he ran into Houston first sacker Chuck Harrison (17), after a ground ball to short stop. The throw was high to first and Harrison fell on the base for the putout.

Many Names on Tigers' List

Managerial Choices Mounting

DETROIT (AP) — Speculation on the next manager of the Detroit Tigers began almost as soon as the late Charlie Dressen suffered his second heart attack last May.

Nobody said it then, but there was little doubt the active Dressen would ever return to the dugout.

* * *

Coach Bob Swift may have been the logical choice but he was hospitalized with what was later diagnosed as lung cancer and is undergoing colbalt treatments.

The list of possible choices has been mounting through the weeks.

Through it all, though, the Tiger management has remained quiet.

Tigers Vice President and General Manager Jim Campbell pointed out last week that he may have to wait until after the season is completed to get the man he wants.

"You have to remember that a lot of the men we'd like to talk to about the job are presently under contract with one team or another," Campbell said.

Former Chicago White Sox Manager Al Lopez and Paul Richards, now in the Atlanta organization are two of the men mentioned as possible choices who fall into this category.

EX-YANKEE

Johnny Pesky, now a coach with the Pittsburgh Pirates and former Boston Red Sox skipper, and ex-Yankee manager and now New York Mets coach Yogi Berra are others.

Before he resigned from the Cleveland Indians, Birdee Tebbetts indicated he would like the job.

The Tigers are looking for a man who has the knack of handling pitchers. This was Dressen's strongest suit and is the reason why Lopez, Richards and Berra have been mentioned.

* * *

Pesky, who played with the Tigers in the early 1950s, managed in the club's minor league system for five years and won two pennants.

Minnesota coach Billy Martin was one of the first persons mentioned as Dressen's possible successor but Campbell quickly denied that rumor.

Campbell does not appear too enthused about talking to Tebbetts, a former Tiger catcher himself.

Berra is reported to have told a New York newspaperman that he would demand a two-year contract. The Tigers have stuck to a one - year contract policy and there is little chance they'd change.

* * *

Frank Skaff, a former minor league manager in the Tiger system and the present manager of the club, may even get the nod. He has handled the club well since Swift was sidelined but Campbell may feel that he wants a more experienced man.

Speculation on the possible choice can be expected to continue until the Tigers finally name their man. It could even be veteran Al Kaline, who also has been mentioned but says he doesn't want the job.

WBA President Still Critical After Seizure

PANAMA CITY (AP) — James Deskin, president of the World Boxing Association, remained in critical condition Monday night after suffering a heart attack during the WBA's annual convention.

Deskin, 62, was carried out of the opening session on a stretcher Monday to the Social Security Hospital after complaining of severe chest pains. It was his first heart attack. His wife, who accompanied him to Panama, was with him.

* * *

Deskin, of Las Vegas, Nev., had opened the session in the morning, showing no signs of illness, but suffered the attack while sitting at the head table in the convention hall. He was examined by Dr. Alexander Robbins of Miami Beach, Fla., who asked at the time that a priest be summoned.

Dr. Robbins said Deskin's condition was critical and the prognosis "has to be guarded because sudden death can occur."

Double Play Combo Eyes National League Record

PITTSBURGH (AP)—If Bill Mazeroski and Gene Alley have their way, the double play may become more important than the green weenie in the stretch drive for the Pittsburgh Pirates.

The Pirates' second base-shortstop duo collaborated on three twin-killings Monday night in a 6-5 victory over Philadelphia that left them 38 short of the National League record with 39 games to break it.

That's 161 DPs in 123 games for Pittsburgh, which held its one-percentage point edge over second-place San Francisco. The record of 198 is held by the 1956 Dodgers.

* * *

Despite the "vital" role the green weenie has played in hexing Buc foes, Pittsburgh's pitchers, who need all the help they can get, will tell you they'd rather have double plays anytime.

Two of the three Monday night ended innings and kept the Phillies from scoring a runner from third. Add two runs to five in a 6-5 defeat and you get the picture.

FAST CHARGE

"They're the best I ever saw," marvelled Buc Skipper Harry Walker. "Maz gets the ball away so quickly and Alley charges it like no one's business."

Mazeroski, who also lent a hand with the bat—his two-run triple in the fifth put Pittsburgh ahead to stay—said he anticipates the double play, but Alley says he takes them as they come.

"Like the ball Callison hit (with runners on first and third, one out in the seventh and the Phils a run down)," Mazeroski said. "I said to myself 'double play' all the way."

"I never think of the double play," said Alley. "If you get it, you get it, if you don't get it there's nothing you can do."

Physical Exams Slated

The Hustler to Make Bid for Record

GUNTERSVILLE, Ala. (AP) — Lee Taylor of Downey, Calif., hoped for still Guntersville Lake waters today as he prepared to try to qualify his jet boat, The Hustler, so he can bid for a world speed record.

In order to qualify, Taylor, 28, must push his 26-foot boat to 200 miles per hour on a one-kilometer course along which the American Power Boat Association put up timing devices Monday.

* * *

Then the APBA must sanction Taylor's plans to try to break the 280 m.p.h. water speed record set by Donald Campbell of England. This means Wednesday would be the earliest Taylor can make an official stab at setting a new record.

Taylor took some practice runs on the lake course Monday, but didn't push his sleek, dart-shaped aluminum and wood craft because of a slight wind and ripples in the water. Taylor says the water must be perfectly still for an ideal run.

ROUGH WATER

He reached 100 m.p.h. Monday morning in familiarizing himself with the course, but radioed boat designer Rich Hallett:

"They the waves were beating me to death out there."

Taylor's boat is powered by a Westinghouse J-46 engine and uses one-half gallon of fuel per second.

This is a second bid for Taylor for a world water speed record. He tried at Lake Tahoe, Calif., two years ago and crashed.

U.S. Women's Ex-Net Ace at Pine Lake

Pauline Betz Addie will play her annual Pine Lake Country Club tennis exhibition matches beginning 2 p.m. Sunday.

Opposing her in the singles match will be club pro Michael Mehas, and they'll be joined for a mixed doubles match by reigning Pine Lake champions Jill Dearing and Al Matisse.

Mrs. Addie is a former United States and Wimbledon champ, and was unbeaten in a professional career from 1947 to 1960. Her husband Bob is a sports columnist for the Washington Post.

They live in Bethesda, Md., and have five youngsters who are now winning tennis trophies. Gary, 10, will accompany his mother on her seventh annual visit to Pine Lake CC.

They will be the house guests of the C. W. Smiths in Bloomfield Hills. In addition to having a book for teen-agers in tennis published recently, Mrs. Addie runs the Betz-Taylor summer tennis camp in the nation's capital, and is a proficient golfer.

Her exhibition program on the Pine Lake courts will begin at 2 p.m. and is open to the public free of charge.

Has Record Run

MODENA, Italy (AP) — Mike Parkes of Britain covered the Modena track in 53.7 seconds Monday, a record for formula one racing cars on this track. Driving a 3,000-CC, 12-cylinder Ferrari specially modified to give him leg room, Parkes averaged 158.082 miles per hour over the 2,366-meter track.

He Who Finishes Last . . . Is First

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Roger Ginsburg was the last golfer to finish in Monday's qualifying round of the $110,000 Philadelphia Golf Classic, but he was first in scoring with a two-under par 70.

Ginsburg, of Riverside, N.Y., broke a long-standing tie between three other golfers who shot 71.

Three extra rounds were needed to determine the qualifiers, as 15 golfers were tied at 76 for the last nine places.

The tie that lasted most of the day was between John Josephson, Atlanta, Ga., Howell Frasier, of Lynn Haven, Fla., and Babe Lichardus, of Deal, N.J.

61 for Snead

CLARKSBURG, W.Va. (AP) — Sam Snead fired a seven-under-par 61 Monday to finish with a 54-hole total of 196 and capture the West Virginia Professional Golfers Association championship for the 10th time in 30 years.

DOWN FROM ICE LEDGE — French rescuer Rene Desmaisons (left) and German student Heinz Ramisch, 24, gaze up at the sheer, ice-covered Dru Needle of the Mount Blanc massif today after they were brought to the Camonix, France, resort by helicopter. Ramisch and a fellow German, Herman Schriddle, 30, started to climb the 11,000-foot Dru on Aug. 14 but were halted about 1,200 feet from their goal when rain and snow forced them to remain on an icy shelf. An American-led rescue crew brought them to safety.

Teen Faces Break-In Hearing

A 17-year-old Waterford Township youth, charged with attempted breaking and entering of the Drayton Speedway, 4470 Dixie, yesterday, will appear before Township Justice Patrick K. Daly at 1:30 p.m. tomorrow for preliminary examination.

Olvis O. Harville of 2291 Newberry stood mute at his arraignment before Daly yesterday. He was released on personal bond.

* * *

Harville was captured by township patrolman Daniel Coakley who said he spotted the suspect running from Drayton Speedway while on a routine building check.

Patrolmen James Webb, Carl Solden and Glen Phelps were contacted by Coakley. They apprehended a second suspect, but charges were dropped following investigation.

OU Programs Earns Awards

Two Oakland University conferences have earned awards for creativity in programming for the university's conference department.

In honoring the department, the National University Extension Association (NUEA) singled out the "Four Days in May" women's program and the county home rule conference.

Both programs were held during 1964-65 under the auspices of the Mott Center for Community Affairs.

* * *

On hand to accept the award at the recent NUEA national conference in Albuquerque, N. Mex., were OU's dean of continuing education, Dr. Lowell R. Eklund, and conference director Mrs. Walter N. Jackson.

OTHER MEMBERS

Other members of OU's conference department who worked on the two award-winning programs and prepared the presentations for the national competition are coordinators Mrs. Douglas B. Owen and Mrs. Edwin H. Olson.

The units are sponsored by Pontiac Amvets Jimmy Day Post No. 12. Arthur Voorhees, 255 Dick, manages the team.

Dog Helps Police Find Trio After W. Bloomfield Break-In

State Police, with the help of their German Shepherd, Hans, arrested three youths yesterday following a break-in at the home of Hugh Scott, 1667 Old Town, West Bloomfield Township, shortly after 5 a.m.

The black police dog, credited with leading to several arrests in the past, tracked down the three in woods behind the Scott home.

Taken into custody were Richard C. Galusky, 17, of 1915 Rosedale and Larry D. Brown, 19, of 4907 Greer, both of West Bloomfield Township, and a juvenile.

Galusky and Brown demanded examination on charges of breaking and entering at their arraignments yesterday before Commerce Township Justice John C. Weick.

Examination was set for 1:30 p.m. Sept. 1. They were returned to the Oakland County Jail with bond set at $1,000 each.

The juvenile was turned over to juvenile authorities.

6 From Area Lead at School Lunch Confab

Six area persons will assume leadership roles in the second annual conference of school lunch supervisors at Boyne Mountain Monday through Aug. 31.

Vera Jehnsen, Oakland Schools director of school food service, will hold three classes on methods of enlisting faculty and community support for the school nutrition program.

Effective training of new employes will be discussed by a panel composed of Mrs. Shirley McCoy, Mrs. Ella Plichta and Barbara Wilson, school lunch supervisors for Waterford, Farmington and Pontiac, respectively.

Mrs. Mary Kern, former school lunch director for Oakland Schools, will conduct three classes in personnel management.

* * *

Mrs. Bernease Petty, school lunch supervisor for Lake Orion Schools, will chair one of the conference sessions.

Waterford Girl 4th in Twirling Event

Suelynn Robinson, a 14-year-old ninth grader at Pierce Junior High School, finished fourth recently in the World Twirling Association (WTA) National Championship at Cleveland.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robinson of 7463 N. Shaker, Waterford Township, Suelynn was competing against 30 girls in the 13 and 14-year-old class.

She finished runner-up in the twirl, third in the military strut and fancy strut and also competed in modeling and talent contests.

Suelynn qualified for the national championship in May when she was named Junior Majorette Queen of Michigan.

Romney Tries Again to Fill Insurance Post

LANSING (AP)—Gov. George Romney Monday reportedly proposed David Dykhouse of Charlotte, a state Commerce Department official, for insurance commissioner.

Majority Senate Democrats were not enthusiastic.

* * *

Earlier this year they rejected former Oakland County Republican Chairman Dale Feet as commissioner after Allen Mayerson resigned.

Mayerson had been harassed for months by Senate Insurance Committee Chairman Bernard O'Brien, D-Detroit, who since lost in the primary election.

AUTHORITY

Dykhouse, 30, a top aide to Commerce Director Robert McIntosh, has had supervisory authority over the Insurance Department under recent government reorganization.

But he is an attorney rather than a man with a long background in insurance.

Romney threw out the name at a secret meeting with legislative leaders Monday but refused to directly tell newsmen whom he had proposed.

Sen. Garland Lane, D-Flint, and some other Democratic leaders questioned whether a man not from the insurance industry should have the job of regulating it.

Feet was a certified public accountant. But his past role as county chairman also played a part in the Senate's refusal to confirm him.

Pair Beat, Rob Driver

An Independence Township man was robbed of $300 early today by two men who pulled him from his car at a Pontiac intersection, Pontiac police were told.

Richard Chandanais, 35, of 6071 Prince said he was waiting for a traffic signal at South Saginaw and South Boulevard when the two men attacked him about 12:05 a.m.

Chandanais said his assailants took his wallet after beating him and fled in a car parked nearby.

Former Coed in State Slain

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—The nude body of a former University of Michigan student was found yesterday in a Philadelphia apartment.

Police tentatively identified the girl, who apparently died of a stab wound in the chest, as Roselyn Reibstein, 19.

Miss Reibstein was believed to have returned here recently from Michigan to attend a local college.

The girl, who police said may have been assaulted, was found lying near the door of the apartment she shared with another girl, Barbara Silver, 20.

* * *

Officers said the body was found shortly before 5 p.m. after they received a telephone call. They would not disclose who made the call.

Journalist Sheds Light on UFOs

WASHINGTON (AP) — An electronics engineer - journalist said Monday a form of ball lightning, generated by high tension power lines, may help explain many recent sightings of unidentified flying objects (UFOs).

Philip J. Klass, senior avionics editor of Aviation Week & Space Technology magazine, said most of the UFO sightings reported in the vicinity of Exeter, N.H., a year ago, were along or very near high-tension lines.

* * *

Klass, a General Electric Co. engineer for 12 years before becoming an electronics writer, said studies show that luminous balls of ionized air are generated by the electric corona that occurs on high-tension lines under certain conditions.

Klass said this phenomena, in view of the expanding numbers of very high voltage power line could explain the increasing frequency of UFO sightings in recent years.

MOVING BLOB

Unlike conventional lighting, seen in brilliant, jagged flashes, ball lighting usually appears as a round, moving blob of light.

Klass said the ball lightning phenomenon is strikingly similar to the Exeter UFO sightings in color, shape, size, sputtering sound, hovering nature, sudden extremely high speeds, and spinning, rolling, gliding and bouncing movements.

* * *

Klass gave his views in an article in Aviation Week.

Spirit of Yule Gets Trial Run Before the Rush

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP) — In hot and humid August weather, Christmas decorations festooned three light poles on Charles Street in Baltimore's business district today.

The red, green and silver decorations went up last weekend but the Charles Street Association, a merchants' group, said they are only to test public reaction and will come down tomorrow.

* * *

"It gives you a spirit of Christmas," said one pedestrian, Mrs. Willetta Rowell.

The decorations include heavy canvas greeting banners, each with a message from 30 different nations, hanging from golden trumpets.

School Rodeo Queen

WETUMPKA, Okla. (AP) — Roberta Oatman, 18, Thedford, Neb., has been chosen queen of the National High School Rodeo. Miss Oatman is a high school senior.

Ticket-Fixing Exam Delayed

DETROIT (UPI) — Examination of the former head of the Wayne County Sheriff's Road Patrol and five other men on charges of ticket-fixing has been delayed until Sept. 12.

Suburban Grosse Pointe Municipal Judge Douglas Paterson granted the adjournment yesterday as the men stood mute to new and specific charges in the case.

* * *

The new charges, lodged against former Inspector Dan Martin, a former Nankin Township bar owner, and four officers of United Auto Workers Local 182, were added to general allegations of conspiracy to fix tickets in indictments handed down by the Wayne County grand jury.

Priest's Marriage Is Annulled by Lie

DETROIT (UPI) — The marriage of an Italian Catholic priest and a 26-year-old Detroit woman was annulled yesterday on the grounds the priest lied in saying he had a special dispensation to marry.

The marriage of the Rev. Father Guiseppe Lipari and Rose Teresa Maniaci in 1962 was void from its inception, according to the annulment decree.

The woman, whose maiden name was restored, testified in Wayne County Circuit Court that she met and married the priest when he visited the United States four years ago. Four days after the wedding he returned to Italy, she said.

Hellenic Leader

WASHINGTON (AP) — Kimon A. Doukas of New York City has been re-elected supreme president of the 24,000-member American Hellenic Educational Progressive Association.

Earl Views Europe Soberly; Sees Some Strange Sights

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — I am back from Europe where I saw some strange sights—because I was on the wagon.

It reminded me of the late Ed Gardner of Duffy's Tavern renown who happened to go to Europe "on the dry" once and also discovered wonders he hadn't noticed on previous trips when he was customarily convivial.

WILSON

"In Switzerland," he exclaimed to some Hollywood friends on his return, "they have these beautiful high mountains with snow up on top!"

"Oh, everybody knows about the Alps and the Matterhorn," grunted somebody.

"You mean they've been there before?" asked Ed. "I never saw them before. Come to think of it, I never saw much of anything before.

I took a train down to Rochelle, France, near Bordeaux, to behold the filming of "Young Girls of Rochefort" and meet two delightful French sisters, Catherine Deneuve and Francoise Dorleac.

People from Seven Arts are going to tell you that Catherine Deneuve, blonde, hates her sister, Francoise Dorleac, a brunette—and all I know about that is that they are both fond of Gene Kelly who's also in the film.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Secret Stuff: A recently-married gal performer needn't work again. Her bridegroom signed a $1,000,000 pre-nuptial agreement . . . Angie Dickinson's 5-week-old premature dtr. is gaining weight, now 2-lbs. 7 oz. with thousands of Angie's and Burt Bacharach's fans rooting for her . . .

The Ralph Young-Tony Sandler team had a brilliant opening at the Plaza Persian Room, and is such a smash that Young's second cousin, Comedian Gene Baylos, now refers to him as his first cousin. "When Ralph was production singer at the Latin Quarter," says Gene, "I'd just grunt 'Hi' to him and tell him to get lost."

"Bullets" Durgom won so much at blackjack at George Raft's London Colony Club, he bought a mini-car . . . The Beatles go to the Warwick . . . The Irving Blicksteins of Homowack Lodge were chosen LBJ's hosts in the Catskills . . . Dr. Ralph Buncheis at N.Y., Hospital with a circulatory ailment.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: Have you noticed (asks Bob Orben) that in many restaurants today the food is frozen and the help is fresh?

WISH I'D SAID THAT: Author Herman Wouk says novelists should always write between the lines, "because that's where most of the public reads."

EARL'S PEARLS: Someone described a very quiet town: "They show test patterns on TV—at 7 p.m."

Johnny Carson explains why Skitch Henderson'll never be a nudist: "One, he loves clothes; two, he sunburns easily; and three, there'd be no place for his boutonniere." . . . That's earl, brother.

Injuries Are Fatal

COLDWATER (AP)—Kenneth D. McPherson, 67, of North Fairfield, Ohio, died Monday in a Coldwater hospital after his car ran off U.S. 27 and hit a tree 12 miles south of Coldwater.

Fiberglass bathtubs are now approved for installation in new houses by the Federal Home Administration.

County Males Are 1,897 Tons Too Fat

MAKE OVER PAGES

(Special to the Press)

NEW YORK — For Oakland County's male population to get down to what doctors call "Desirable weight," they would have to take off about 1,897 tons.

Local women would have to do some shedding too, but not to the same degree. Most of them, in fact, are somewhat lighter than their mothers were at their age.

As to the average, man, he is nearly six pounds heavier than his father was at the same stage. For the 199,700 males locally over age 25, this increase amounts to 1,150,000 pounds.

Recent surveys and studies by various agencies, including the Public Health Service and the American Medical Association, have produced figures on a national basis to show the present-day weight of men and women in each height any age category.

Their findings are based on special physical examinations given to thousands of adults in all parts of the country.

118 POUNDS

They show that the average male in the United States over age 25, currently weighs 168 pounds but that he should be down to 149 pounds for optimum health.

For the male population of Oakland County as a whole, in that age bracket, assuming they are overweight to the same extent as men elsewhere, it represents an excess of 3,794,000 pounds, or 1,897 tons.

Among women, age 25 or over, the average is found to be 145 pounds, as compared with a recommended weight of 131 pounds.

Those who are in the younger group, 18 to 24, now average 129 pounds, the surveys show, or about 10 pounds more than the doctors think they should.

What to do about it? To eat or not to eat, that is the question.

Cutting down on the food intake is considered the best means of reducing. Exercise, however, is an important adjunct, according to the American Dietetic Association.

* * *

It has prepared a table to show the amount of physical activity that is necessary to dissipate the calories contained in various foods.

To burn up the 350 calories in a hamburger sandwich, for example, would require 67 minutes of walking, 43 minutes of bicycle riding, or 31 minutes of swimming.

An ice cream soda, which has 255 calories, would take 49 minutes of walking, 31 of bicycling, or 23 of swimming.

To Train Draft Rejects

Dems in Legislature Won't Consider Plan for I-696 Arbitration

LANSING (AP)—House and Senate Democratic caucuses decided yesterday against considering legislation of the I-696 freeway routing controversy.

Each caucus opposed Gov. George Romney's request to put the matter up for consideration at this week's legislative session, and Democrats rejected on the Senate floor a Republican attempt to win approval for consideration.

Romney wanted the Legislature to establish an arbitration board composed of himself and the State Highway Commission to decide on a route for the 18.1 - mile stretch of freeway through Oakland and Macomb counties.

Highway planners have been unable to get all affected communities to agree on one routing.

State law gives communities veto power over routes through their areas.

* * *

Construction of the freeway has been delayed because of the lengthy route hassle.

FACE FUND LOSS

Romney warned yesterday that $140 million in federal funds could be lost by further impasse.

Sen. John McCauley, D-Wyandotte argued that setting up an arbitration board would take away cities' home rule powers.

Republican leader Sen. Emil Lockwood, St. Louis, countered that 48 states "don't allow one city to stand in the way of progress."

Majority Leader Raymond Dzendzel, D-Detroit, left open the chance for the subject to be considered later this fall.

Cool Weather to Stay a While

Below-Normal Trend Is 30-Day Forecast

It's getting cool in the Pontiac area — and it's going to get cooler.

The 30-day U. S. Weather Bureau forecast, spanning Aug. 15-Sept. 15, indicates a general cooling trend with temperatures averaging about 5 degrees below the normal average of 69 degrees.

Sun worshipers are morning their fading tans, but the farmers and fisherman are happy.

Crops are beginning to thrive and cooler water in area lakes promises to improve the angling action which is usually slow during the hot "dog days" of mid-August.

* * *

The average thermometer reading between now and Sept. 1 will range from highs of 84 to lows of 60; while average temperatures from Sept. 1-15 will shift to highs of 76 and lows of 53.

The cool spell is a welcome relief to farmers whose crops wilted during the hot, dry summer months.

May temperatures averaged 58 degrees, 6.5 degrees below normal late spring average.

Then the temperature average

Meany Wins Dispute Over Labor Institute

CHICAGO (AP) — A family fuss in the AFL-CIO was thrashed out behind closed doors yesterday with the forces of President George Meany emerging victorious.

At issue was the American Institute for Free Labor Development, which has been the subject of some critical articles since Victor Reuther charged at a United Auto Workers convention in May that, in effect, it is a tool of the U.S. government.

Reuther is a brother of Walter Reuther, president of the UAW, and is director of the UAW's International Department.

The Reuthers and Meany long have been at odds, particularly over international matters.

* * *

Meany told newsmen after a closed meeting of the 29-member AFL-CIO Executive Council that the council adopted a resolution saying it "commends the AIFLD in carrying out the polices of the AFL-CIO in the international field."

The resolution added that the council "rejects out of hand the campaign of vilification that has been conducted against the AIFLD."

Pentagon Will Accept 40,000 in 10 Months

Defense Chief Sees Rate Increasing to 100,000 Each Year

NEW YORK (AP)—Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara disclosed today Pentagon plans to accept for military training in the next 10 months 40,000 men ordinarily disqualified because of education and health reasons.

He said the number would increase to 100,000 in the next fiscal year and in succeeding years.

The men would undergo intensive training using facilities of the Defense Department — "the largest single educational complex in the world has ever known"— to become "fully satisfactory soldiers," McNamara said in a speech prepared for delivery to the convention of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Aides in Washington described the training effort as unique and said men taken into the program will, like draftees and enlistees, be under military authority of the services.

* * *

Pentagon spokesmen said 85 per cent or more of such trainees are expected to qualify for military duty. Those who do not qualify "will not be retained" in the service.

TOUCHES ON POVERTY

McNamara told of the program in a speech that otherwise touched more on the war on poverty than the war in Viet Nam.

The Pentagon chief declared at one point, however, the United States has kept its commitments from South Viet Nam to Berlin "and will continue to do so until rea-

Mine Sinks Supply Ship, Seven Yanks in Crew Killed

SAIGON, Sotuh Viet Nam (AP)—An American merchant ship with war supplies for the fighting forces in Viet Nam was blasted by a Communist mine today and sank in the Saigon River. Seven of its American crewmen were killed.

The mine ripped a gaping hole in the port side of the vessel, the 10,000-ton Baton Rouge Victory, and flooded the ship's engine room.

The ship was run aground at the river bank 20 miles east of Saigon and it sank to the bottom with water up to its main deck.

Late in the day, the ship was reported blocking one of the two main shipping lanes to Saigon.

Elsewhere in the war, the U.S. military command disclosed that a U.S. Marine amphibious force 1,500 strong landed unopposed on beaches 50 miles southeast of Saigon early Monday, and in the 36 hours that followed the landings had made no contact with the Viet Cong units believed to be operating in the jungle swampland in the area.

Another Marine force had landed a week earlier 50 miles east of Saigon. Both were assigned a blocking role in Operation Toledo, a combined U.S.-Vietnamese sweep against the Viet Cong 5th Division.

NO OTHER ACTION

No other major ground action was reported.

In the air war over North Viet Nam, four U.S. Air Force F105 Thunderchiefs tangled with four MIG17s Monday in a four-minute aerial battle 20 miles north of Hanoi.

The MIGs attacked the Thunderchiefs while they were bombing a road 10 miles north of the capital. Both sides exchanged cannon fire, a U.S. spokesman said, and then disengaged without damage to either side.

Mart Stumbles

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market rallied briefly today, but the recovery fizzled and prices stumbled.

UAW Will Fight Big 3 Rejection

DETROIT (AP)—The United Auto Workers Union gives every indication it is not taking as final the Big Three auto makers' rejection of contract reopening to give wage boosts to skilled workers.

General Motors, Ford and Chrysler are apprehensive as they shift into high gear on 1967 models, despite labor contracts which run until September of next year.

Unrest within any major segment of their 700,000-man labor force holds the threat of work stoppages or slowdowns. None wants this in a boom market such as has existed last year and this.

GM, Ford and Chrysler separately turned down yesterday a UAW demand for immediate contract reopening to give skilled workers an immediate wage increase of at least 50 cents an hour.

The Big Three said reopening wasn't justified, pointed to upcoming automatic raises next month under current contracts and said, at least in effect, the union should abide by the three-year pacts signed in 1964.

* * *

The UAW contends its tradesmen working in auto plants are underpaid when compared with those of similar skills working elsewhere, particularly in the building trades. There have been demonstrations to emphasize this theme, and at least one factory shutdown.

Douglas Fraser, codirector of the union's skilled trades department, said the question of reopening now would be advanced to the top of the agenda for a meeting Sept. 7 of the UAW's international executive board.

Pontiac Area to Stay Cool

Cooler weather is descending upon the Pontiac area as the weatherman predicts a fair, cool evening with lows of 48 to 54.

Wednesday will be sunny and cool with afternoon cloudiness and highs of 68 to 74.

The outlook for Thursday is fair and cool.

The lowest temperature prior to 8 a.m. in downtown Pontiac today was 56. By 1 p.m. the thermometer reading was 70.

$250 Billion Asked for City

Cavanagh Says Mass Fed. Uplift Needed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Detroit Mayor Jerome P. Cavanagh proposed today a massive federal effort to uplift American cities over the next 10 years — at a cost of $240 billion to $250 billion.

"It certainly is not unrealistic in view of the obvious needs of the American city," Cavanagh told a Senate subcommittee investigating urban afflictions.

Cavanagh first called for an outlay at least equivalent to the $112 billion being spent on manned space flights and interstate highways.

He said that amount should be used to achieve a rebirth of the city by 1976.

"That would be a minimum figure," he told Sen. Abraham A. Ribicoff, D-Conn.

To really do the job, Cavanagh said, the nation would have to commit up to $250 billion in new funds.

Cavanagh said they should go into a city development fund patterned on the economic development pools of the foreign aid program.

Administration officials have said the government already is putting some $28 billion a year into programs that aid the cities.

A Cavanagh assistant said the Detroit mayor was proposing a new effort, going beyond existing programs.

Canadian Girl Held for Ransom in Berlin

BERLIN (UPI) — West Berlin police today announced the kidnaping of a four-year-old Canadian girl for a ransom of $8,750.

Police said Audrey Klewer was kidnaped Monday at 2 a.m. by an armed man who tied up and chloroformed her mother.

The mother, German-born Regina Klewer, 28, come here from Montreal Saturday to visit her parents.

★ ★ ★

The kidnaper, in a ransom note, demanded $8,750 for return of the child. He threatened to kill her if the mother told the police or the press.

CALLED POLICE

The mother said she managed to free herself 30 minutes after the kidnaping and called police.

Police asked the press to withhold the story, but it was published this morning in a West German mass circulation newspaper.

The kidnaping took place in a two story villa in the suburban district of Wannsee in the American sector near the East German border.

The mother told police she was sleeping in a bedroom on the top floor while her daughter slept in a room next door.

POINTED REVOLVER

She said she was awakened by a man who pointed a revolver at her, tied her up and then chloroformed her.

The police investigation was hampered because the mother was hospitalized with a severe case of shock and could disclose few details.

She had flown to Berlin to visit her father, Herbert Klewer, a 53-year-old art dealer.

★ ★ ★

Police said the ransom note was written in flawless German.

They sent out an alarm for a little dark-haired girl with a cereal-bowl haircut who speaks English and French but no German.

WHITE HAT

A white hat, yellow overcoat and small purse belonging to Audrey disappeared with her.

Police asked West German authorities to look for a light green Volkswagen bus with a white roof and French license reported stolen shortly before the kidnaping.

It was believed the kidnaper stole the vehicle.

Schmier Asks Vote Recount

Walter D. Schmier, who missed a Circuit Court nomination by 463 votes in the Aug. 2 primary, yesterday filed a petition asking for a recount.

★ ★ ★

Schmier finished eighth in the primary in which six of 22 candidates were nominated to run for three judgeships in November.

In his recount petition filed at noon with County Clerk-Register John D. Murphy, Schmier asked for a recount in 22 precints, including 13 counting boards or absentee ballot precincts.

He filed a fee of $5 per precinct with his petition.

★ ★ ★

Murphy said that the board of canvassers will meet to determine when the recount will occur.

LAST TWO

Copies of the recount petition were prepared for the last two nominated candidates, John N. O'Brien who received 12,519 votes and Cecil B. McCallum, 12,601.

★ ★ ★

Another copy was prepared for 7th place candidate, Clarence A. Reid, Jr., who received 12,145 votes. Schmier's total was 12,138.

The Junior Miss Pageant offers $4,000 in awards to outstanding senior high school girls judged for their poise, scholastic ability and talent.

Tourist Curb Proposed

ATHENS (AP) — Athens City Council has proposed that the Greek government require all foreign visitors to Greece to have at least $200 on arrival. The proposal was made in an attempt to curb the recent influx of beatniks and cashless undesirables.

FIFTY YEARS — The same cross-country course run by its "grandfather" (above) 50 years ago will be the route of a new GMC highway tractor (below) leaving Seattle today. The 1916 model, loaded with 1½ tons of Carnation evaporated milk, made the trip to New York in 31 days driving time. GMC's latest — dubbed the "Golden Pacemaker" — should make the run in three days.

50th Anniversary

GM Truck on Historic Run

A half-century of trucking progress was dramatized today when a GMC highway tractor hauling 17 tons of Carnation food products left the Space Needle in Seattle, Wash., on the first leg of an historic transcontinental round-trip run.

The Golden Pacemaker trip marks the 50th anniversary of the first Seattle-to-New York truck run and the first transcontinental round-trip shipment of freight by road.

A model DH9690A diesel highway tractor with aluminum tilt sleeper cab will pull a 40-foot Utility semitrailer over the original northerly route of the first run and return on a southerly course to Los Angeles.

★ ★ ★

The rig is scheduled to cross the United States in slightly more than three days compared with the 31 days of actual driving time of the original journey. Its 17-ton load is seventeen times greater than that carried in 1916.

MAJOR ACHIEVEMENT

By today's standards of dependable and efficient truck transportation, the first double transcontinental trip was long and troublesome. Even so, at the time it was a major trucking achievement.

Backed by the same two companies sponsoring today's Golden Pacemaker run — Carnation Company and GMC Truck & Coach Division of General Motors — the first trek was staged by the Seattle Chamber of Commerce to illustrate this city's accessibility to motor freight haulers.

A husband-and-wife team, the William Warwicks, was chosen for the initial trip.

★ ★ ★

They left Seattle in a 1½-ton GMC truck, loaded with a ton of Carnation evaporated milk, and arrived in New York City 73 days later.

BROKE 42 BRIDGES

During their trip they broke through 43 bridges and culverts, crossed the path of bootleggers, and became mired in mud countless times.

On one stretch, it took them four days to travel a mile.

Besides achieving a trucking landmark, the Warwicks promoted highway improvements by drawing attention to exceedingly bad sections of roadway.

In restaging the historic journey, a team of hand-picked drivers will pass through many of the same cities in their sleek, air-conditioned rig.

★ ★ ★

They will scrupulously observe all safety and courtesy rules, illustrating just in advance of the long Labor Day weekend the importance of driving properly.

DRIVE SAFELY

Messages to "drive like a pro — safely" will be relayed from special communications gear in a support vehicle, a GMC pickup with Dreamer camper body, at key points along the route.

When the truck left the Space Needle today after a breakfast sponsored by the Seattle Chamber of Commerce, it carried a cargo of food products for charity.

★ ★ ★

It will bring back a load of Gerber's baby food from the Church World Service for distribution to hospitals in India by the National Christian Council of India.

Little Progress on Detroit Ills

Extension of Session Is Virtually Certain

LANSING (AP)—Lawmakers try today to develop a broadened school aid program amid indications that Detroit will get no extra money unless suburban and outstate districts get their share, too.

Monday, first day of a supposed two-day legislative session, slipped past with no progress on the Detroit school crisis except official Senate agreement to consider over-all school aid. The House is expected to agree today to debate.

★ ★ ★

It was nearly certain the session would be extended — possibly for the rest of the week — and that legislators would also come back next week or later in the autumn. Procedural rules will keep any school aid revision from being approved until at least next week.

Gov. George Romney asked lawmakers to consider a plan which would theoretically apply statewide but in practice would give $4.5 million only to Detroit.

'MUST SHARE'

The reception from non-Detroit legislators, however, indicated that the money would have to be shared for Detroit to get anything.

★ ★ ★

The Senate approved, and the House was to follow suit today, a bookkeeping resolution which would mean up to $8. million for Detroit, which says it is $12 million short of meeting its 1966-67 school budget.

★ ★ ★

The resolution expresses the state's intent to pay employer Social Security taxes for the Detroit district. This permits Detroit to knock $4.5 million out of its budget this year and it asks the Detroit teachers retirement fund to return $3.8 million to the district.

★ ★ ★

The fund received $3.8 million from the state and an identical sum from the district to pay the taxes in 1965-66.

★ ★ ★

This action had no opposition.

Sen. John Bowman, D-Roseville, said he planned to introduce today a bill which would permit the Detroit school board to levy a one-quarter per cent income tax. This would raise an estimated $10 million.

Texas Church Blast Kills 1 and Hurts 53

PLAINVIEW, Tex. (AP) — A thundering explosion last night sent the roof crashing down on 200 worshipers in the Church of God in Christ. Falling debris killed a woman and injured 53 other persons.

★ ★ ★

Twelve persons were trapped for a time as a small fire broke out and was quickly quenched in the concrete block and frame building.

Investigators found no ready explanation. One fireman thought he smelled natural gas, but officials said they had detected no evidence of a leak.

"The United Baptist choir was singing when it happened," said Elder Henry Jackson, 32. "The lights went out, then there was an explosion that blew the floor out of the building and then the top caved in.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. E. N. Givens, wife of the pastor of the congregation, said a capacity crowd of 200 or more filled the church for an all-musical service opening a week-long revival, and there were 65 in the choir loft alone.

GONE NEXT DOOR

The Rev. Mr. Givens, hurled across the church and against a wall, was injured. His wife had gone next door shortly before the blast.

Rescuers plodded through mud left by two days of rain to sift the wreckage, using a truck crane to hoist big pieces of the roof.

They found the body of Mrs. Ennis A. Dukes, about 45, of Pampa, beneath beams which crashed down on the rostrum where she was sitting. She was district president of the church's women's auxiliary.

Commission Restricts Sunday Work at Project

BIRMINGHAM — A contract for painting two elevated water tanks was awarded to the low bidder last night by the City Commission on condition that only one tank be painted on Sundays.

The Hartwell General Painting Co. of Dearborn was low bidder with a $6,747 proposal. The other two bids were $9,000 and $12,979.

In approving the low bid, the commission emphasized that no Sunday work is permitted on the pre-painting cleaning of both tanks and the painting of the Eton tank.

It was specified that the Hunter tank could be painted on Sunday to avoid the possibility of paint spray drifting on parked cars on week days.

★ ★ ★

The low bidder had indicated that all projects would be performed on Sundays but later reportedly agreed to paint only the Hunter tank on Sunday.

RING ROAD

In other business the Commission authorized purchase of additional right-of-way for the proposed Ring Road.

Properties eyed as essential for the road project are Chester, from Willits to Maple; Maple, from Bates to Southfield and right-of-way at the Maple-Adams intersection.

If negotiations to purchase these properties at the appraised value within six weeks fail, the City Commission indicated it would then begin condemnation proceedings.

City Manager R. S. Kenning reported to the Commission that the city's building inspector is reviewing plans for a proposed new 57-unit motel at Ridgedale and Hunter.

★ ★ ★

The planning board reviewed plans at its last meeting, Kenning said, and they meet the city code.

PARKING SPACE

A total of 58 parking spaces are planned for the five-story structure.

The Commission voted to spend up to $1,000 to match on a 50-50 basis an expenditure of the Bloomfield Art Association for landscape improvement at the art center.

The work is scheduled for completion prior to the Arts Festival which begins Oct. 1.

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — Two Detroit men were bound over to Oakland County Circuit Court yesterday in connection with the July 6 holdup of Fox & Hounds Inn, 1560 N. Woodward.

James Ingram, 20, and James A. July, 18, both waived examination before Justice of the Peace Jack Baldwin. They were formally charged with armed robbery.

★ ★ ★

They will appear on Sept. 1 before Circuit Judge Arthur Moore.

The pair is accused of stealing $8,600 at gun-point from the restaurant. They are being held in the Oakland County jail.

sonable settlements are achieved."

He offered no hope an end to the war is forthcoming.

"Our adversaries in Southeast Asia have come to respect our fire power," McNamara said. "It is clear now that they can only hope for a wavering of our willpower . . . they are of course mistaken."

LESS SECURE

McNamara led up to his announcement of the training program with a warning that "poverty in America makes our nation less secure."

Obviously referring to racial disorders, he said since World War II state governors have had to call out the National Guard "no less than 59 times to put down disorders that could not be controlled by police."

"We need not look as far as Africa, or Asia, or Latin America for poverty-induced tensions that erupt into irrational violence," McNamara asserted. "It has often happened right here in the United States. It has happened this year."

★ ★ ★

Then McNamara blamed poverty for figuring in the rejection of 600,000 men a year for military service, but said military qualification standards need not be lowered.

"What I do believe is that through educational techniques we can salvage tens of thousands of these men, each year, first for productive military careers and later for productive roles in society," he said.

270 in County Face Draft in Big October Call-Up

Michigan's largest draft call since the early months of the Korean War has been announced for October, with 270 inductees scheduled from Oakland County.

The county quota was the largest since May, when 282 men were taken.

★ ★ ★

According to State Selective Service Director Col. Arthur Holmes, single men and those married after Aug. 26, 1965 will be called first.

Board No. 65 in Pontiac is expected to induct 65 men; Board No. 67 from southwestern Oakland County, 52 men, and Board No. 331 drawing on the northern sector of the county will call 18.

In addition, Farmington Board No. 328 is scheduled for 31 men, and the three Royal Oak-based boards will call a total of 104.

NATIONAL WEATHER — Tonight will be rainy in parts of New England, the Carolinas, Florida, the Pacific Coast and from the southern Plains to the central Plateaus and the Great Basin. It will be cooler from the mid-Atlantic Coast to the Mississippi Valley, and warmer in the northern and central Plains.

Industrial Park Report Tonight

Commission to Hear Advisory Panel Head

City commissioners are scheduled tonight to hear a report from the chairman of the 14-member advisory panel on development of a projected industrial park in the southeast corner of Pontiac.

Local realtor Bruce J. Annett will report to the commission on the latest meeting of the Industrial Park Development Committee.

Annett is to present the group's recommendation that the city proceed with acquiring the balance of the land needed for the 25-acre park.

The advisory panel, created last fall to counsel the city in the park development, recommends that site preparation, platting or sales should await final acquisitions of the land.

★ ★ ★

In other business, the commission is scheduled to receive a recommendation that an ordinance be passed to designate fire lanes across private property to restrict parking in such areas and provide for the movement of emergency vehicles.

Area Weather to Stay Cool for a While

rose 12 degrees in June about par for that month. Even the rainfall was only .85 inch above the normal 4.16 inches for that time of year.

★ ★ ★

In July, the beachgoers were ecstatic and gardeners were frantic as the sun beamed and the grass withered.

★ ★ ★

Temperatures averaged 73 degrees, .5 degrees above the normal July average.

RAIN LITTLE HELP

With several 90-degree days, the 2.55 inches above normal rainfall did little good last month.

★ ★ ★

August temperatures to this point have dropped to an average of 72 degrees, four degrees below normal for this month. They're expected to go even lower by the end of the month.

★ ★ ★

If the coolness continues, as predicted by the Weather Bureau, this summer will be 5 to 1 degree below the normal average for summer.

Burglars Get Safe and $420

A heavy safe containing $420 was taken from an Avon Township drive-in restaurant in a break-in early yesterday, it was reported to Oakland County Sheriff's deputies.

★ ★ ★

Harvey Ostrander, manager of A & W Root Beer, 880 S. Rochester, said the 400-pound safe had been rolled out the restaurant's rear door after entry had been gained to the building by breaking a rear window.

★ ★ ★

Deputies said tire tracks at the rear door indicated the safe had been lifted into an automobile trunk or small truck and carried away.

Ostrander discovered the burglary when he opened the restaurant for business yesterday morning.

Heart Patient Walks Alone

HOUSTON (UPI) — Mrs. Esperanza Del Valle Vasquez, the longest surviving heart pump patient in medical history, got out of bed yesterday and walked unassisted around her hospital room.

★ ★ ★

Methodist Hospital said the 37-year-old Mexico City beauty operator "spent a large part of her day out of her bed. She sat in a chair and took frequent, unassisted walks around her room."

Pontiac Man Fatally Knifed

A 66-year-old Pontiac man was fatally stabbed yesterday afternoon in his home, ending what Pontiac police were told was a day-long quarrel.

Sam Jones of 183 Osmun was dead on arrival at Pontiac General Hospital shortly after 4 p.m.

His wife, Willie Mae, 48, was arrested at the couple's home and held at the Oakland County Jail on an open charge of murder.

Patrolmen Gary F. Root and Robert L. Carter said the woman told them her husband had threatened her and then cut her with a linoleum knife during an argument.

★ ★ ★

Root and Carter said the woman turned over to them a blood-covered paring knife said by police to be the weapon used on the victim.

ON THE FLOOR

Police also found a linoleum knife on the living room floor.

Jones' body was discovered lying across a chair near the front door of his home when police entered the house about 3:30 p.m.

A preliminary coroner's report indicated the victim bled to death after suffering a punctured artery just below the left collarbone.

An autopsy was to be performed today.

Cadillac Calls Truck & Coach Boss

A shift in command of several General Motors Corp. divisions takes the head of the local Truck & Coach Division to a similar post with Cadillac.

WERNER

CALVIN J. WERNER, rounding out his sixth year as boss of the South Boulevard plant, set an enviable record for product development and sales volume. Indeed, Truck & Coach recently announced that its 1966 model year sales set all-time records for the division.

★ ★ ★

Despite his dedication to his responsibilities as a vice president of the Corporation and general manager of one of its three Pontiac operations, Mr. Werner found time to take an active interest in civic affairs, and last year served as general chairman of the Pontiac Area United Fund campaign.

Though the new assignment does not remove him from the general area, his friendly presence on the local scene will be a loss to the community.

Succeeding Mr. WERNER as head of Truck & Coach is MARTIN J. CASERIO, a GM vice president and, prior to his transfer, general manager of the AC Spark Plug Division.

★ ★ ★

In bidding adieux to the departing general manager of the local Division we offer a warm welcome to its incoming head.

Castro's Call for Red Spread Falls Dead

FIDEL CASTRO, in a speech of unusual brevity for him (only 2½ hours) marked the 13th anniversary of his revolution by trying to stir up new uprisings all over Latin America.

Now's the time, was the burden of his oration. Communists in Guatemala, Venezuela and Colombia were singled out for special praise. He called for revolts right away in Brazil and Argentina, both of which are now governed by the military.

Fortunately, it appears, other Latin American countries are not buying the doctrine of revolt as preached by Fidel any more than most African and Far Eastern countries are buying the same doctrine as preached by Comrade Mao of Red China.

One look at the miseries the people of Cuba are undergoing should convince any sensible Latin American that sound government is infinitely preferable to the blessings bestowed by a Communist dictator such as FIDEL.

Language Exchange Bespeaks Canadian Unity

The Canadian government plans to send a number of high-ranking civil servants on a foreign exchange program this fall. During the course of a year, the officials will take language courses and absorb the local culture in order to gain better understanding of the people they are visiting.

None of them, however, will set foot outside the Country.

★ ★ ★

English-speaking officials will go to Montreal or Quebec, where French is the language of 84 per cent of the inhabitants, French-speaking civil servants will go to strongly Anglicized Toronto.

The novel exchange is part of a long-term program to make Canada a truly bilingual nation, at least on the governmental level.

"While language difference isn't a practical problem because most French-Canadians can speak English, it is a highly moral matter," said JOHN E. HODGSON, director of the newly formed Secretariat on Bilingualism. "The French-Canadians have a right to be heard by their government in their own tongue."

★ ★ ★

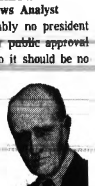

It is hoped that the bilingualism program will go far toward convincing all Canadians, whichever side their ancestors were on when Wolfe defeated Montcalm on the Plains of Abraham, that Canada is and ought to remain one country.

Johnson Wary of Bobby's Steps

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON — Porbably no president in history wished more for public approval than President Johnson. So it should be no surprise if he makes changes in the way he handles his job.

Polls indicate Sen. Robert F. Kennedy of New York is gaining strength as a possible contender for the Democratic presidential nomination in 1968.

MARLOW

This must be a shock to Johnson. Kennedy had been considered a good presidential bet in 1972. But speculation about 1968 hardly went beyond thinking Johnson might want him as No. 2 man on his ticket, instead of Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey.

There's a wide gap, and a cool one, between Johnson and Kennedy.

★ ★ ★

Since his election in 1964, the senator, brother of the late President John F. Kennedy, has kept himself steadily in the public eye with speeches, statements and colorful trips, like the one to South Africa.

BLUNTLY CRITICAL

He has differed with the Johnson administration repeatedly, and at times has been bluntly critical, thus setting himself apart from close links with the President and creating a picture of himself as a sort of independent spirit to whom Democrats could turn for leadership whenever they wanted to.

This is hardly a new experience for Johnson with the Kennedy family.

In the late 1950s, it was the tireless Johnson, chained to his job, who, as the Senate's Democratic leader, steered the legislative programs through Congress under Republican President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

★ ★ ★

Sen. John F. Kennedy in those years spent a lot of time building up support around the country for his presidential candidacy in 1960. It paid off: Kennedy got the nomination, Johnson got the vice presidential spot.

NO STRONG POINTS

Ease and timing in public relations — or, rather, public appearances — are not Johnson's strongest points.

He was bound to lose some popular support as a result of the American role in the Vietnamese war: the casualties, the cost, the uncertainty about where it leads.

Yet, for months earlier this year, he let his critics in and out of Congress practically monopolize the public mind with their fault-finding while he contented himself with more or less scattered statements.

He probably would have done himself good if he had chosen to meet his critics head-on with a lengthy, detailed explanation to the nation on television. He has been reluctant to make the most possible use of televised news conferences.

Johnson's whole political life and training had been spent in a manner which is the opposite of public relations.

Spots Before His Eyes!

David Lawrence Says:

Greed Killed U.S. 'Guideposts'

WASHINGTON — America is today experiencing the ill-effects of a "managed economy" that isn't being well-managed.

There's a serious question, whether any administration or the many councils of advisers surrounding it can prescribe a remedy. For what is being ignored is the basic truth epitomized once by a prominent clergyman who said: "there's enough in the world for everybody's need but not enough for everybody's greed."

LAWRENCE

The greed of groups, the greed of politicians seeking reelection through campaign contributions from some of those same groups, and the greed for political power inside unions by leaders who are ambitious — all have contributed to the collapse of the government's "guideposts" or "guidelines" and brought on the economic disorder that faces the nation today.

The recent airline strike, the suspension of a newspaper in a large city, and the threats of more strikes in various industries in the immediate future emphasize the lack of voluntary discipline in the business world and the fear of the politicians to impose by law the kind of discipline that a free society requires for self-preservation.

★ ★ ★

"Guidelines" presented an interesting test. It was thought that the prestige of a president of the United States was sufficient to impress both labor and management with the need for self-restraint. It was believed that the innocent bystanders were entitled to protection, too.

PRINCIPAL FALLACY

The principal fallacy of the "guideline" experiment has been the assumption that all businesses were more or less alike and that all unions would be responsive to the argument that wage increases should be related to increased productivity.

There have been in recent years, to be sure, some substantial advances in technology making it possible for more and more machinery to be used. But it has been wrongly assumed that every time a machine is introduced, wages must be increased out of money saved.

At last, some words are being spoken by officials here who concede that "guidelines" cannot be uniform and that every industry, if not every business, is different.

★ ★ ★

The President's advisory committee on labor and management policy made this point in a formal report a few days ago which said in part:

"We also believe that it is impractical if not impossible to translate the goals reflected in the guideposts into formulae for application to every particular price or wage decision.

EQUITABLE APPLICATION

"We believe that in a free society any policy to achieve price stability will be acceptable and effective only if it bears equitably on all forms of incomes."

★ ★ ★

Voluntary restraints might have succeeded if the administration itself had not by its inaction condoned irresponsibility and let the "guideline" doctrine be nullified by selfish groups.

★ ★ ★

They have insisted that they are entitled to all that the traffic will bear, but too often the traffic lights are ignored.

Bob Considine Says:

Gallo Brothers Slip Up and Do Something Right

NEW YORK — Lo, the poor Gallo.

The sinister brothers of that name, rated high on the Brooklyn Crime Parade for years, recently did the borough a real good turn.

CONSIDINE

They called on one of the mobs of punks engaged in last month's race rioting and either persuaded or ordered its leaders to cool, knock it off. See?

The leaders, who probably look up to the Gallos as the average kids revere Mickey Mantle or George Hamilton, cooled.

The rioting ended and the Gallos went back to whatever it is they do which causes the police to be chasing them most of the time.

★ ★ ★

They may have expected the keys to the city for a job well done. Instead, they got nice identical letters from harassed youth leaders — who in turn have been asked to resign for accepting the services of hoodlums.

GRAND JURY

Now the Gallos have been served with subpoenas to appear before a Brooklyn grand jury today to explain why they turned square.

Apparently, any abrupt change like that on the part of Gallos throws the borough's crime statistics computer off its trolley. Can't have things like that happening. It was bad enough losing the Dodgers.

Consequently, things may go hard with the Gallos for going soft. It probably won't do them one bit of good to plead guilty of doing something nice for the city.

★ ★ ★

I don't know why the Brooklyn D.A. is so up in arms over the Gallos for stepping in and doing what the police were not able to, turn a hot into a cool.

LOOSE LIAISON

There has been a loose liaison between The Law and The Lawless for a lot longer than the D.A. has been in office.

Charles A. Lindbergh accepted the efforts of the underworld in the anguished early days of his search for his missing son.

London hoodlums helped in the case of the murder of the three bobbies.

All U.S. police departments have contacts with unsavory sorts who help in the solution of crimes, in exchange for which they expect certain leniencies.

Voice of the People:

Liberal Administration Worries Area Resident

Our children will have to pay $250 taxes each year just on our federal debt. If the debt keeps increasing at its present rate, this will soon go up to $500 a year.

Our gold reserve is getting smaller. If foreign countries turned their dollars back for gold, it would take all the gold we have. And our children would still owe $15.7 billion.

Our liberal administration is turning Communists, killers and radicals loose on the public. Now they want to take our guns away so we can't defend ourselves. Honest people will abide by the laws, and the dishonest will always find ways of getting guns.

In some liberal circles it is proposed that all young people shall spend two years in service to the government. Hitler and most other dictators have had their youth groups. This always happens where the government runs the people, instead of the people running the government.

'Equality and Acceptance Is the Answer'

You recently printed an article from a Chicago paper about the protest marches and the white reaction. I would like to see something that would show the other side. I think you are pretty fair and I agree substantially with your editorial page. But hate exists and until it is brought to the surface and people see how bad and horrid it is there never will be equality for any group.

★ ★ ★

This false pride in being better than another is uncalled-for, here in America. If we would let the Negro be treated equally and accepted, there would be no problem. A few may marry the boy next door, but very few, and if we accepted each on his own merit and held no prejudicial feelings, they could be accepted also and their children wouldn't suffer.

God made us different to teach us to get along and love all men as equals.

'Pontiac General's Parking Facilities Poor'

I work at Pontiac General Hospital and have received many tickets for "illegal" parking, either at meters or on the surrounding streets. ★ ★ ★

I sympathize with visitors who cannot always find a space or who must be detained inside.

★ ★ ★

I feel hospital employes should be treated the same as those who work at City Hall. We all are City employes. Free parking for one group and not the other is discriminatory.

Why deprive others who have to drive while holding jobs to help with advanced education, clothing, etc? Accidents seem to be largely due to drinking drivers or those who are simply careless.

A Caustic Comment on Our Legal System

I see in England where the men who shot the three policemen are in custody and being held without bail. Now if that were here, a fellow police officer would have to step over his fatally-wounded buddy and advise the hood of his rights, escort him gently off to jail, only to have him let out on personal bond by one of our judges who would tell the hood, even though he pleads guilty, that he shouldn't jump to conclusions because he is entitled to a jury trial.

All of this is going on while the granddaddy of them all is honeymooning (?) with his youngster.

'Hellfire Inconsistent With Image of God'

I suggest to Mr. Kranich that a declaration from the Bible is far less than substantial for verification of fact. The quotation he cites is open to controversy, as the whole Bible is subject to analysis and interpretation.

LIKE FATHER, LIKE SON—The Kansas House of Representatives will have a Madden in its midst this winter. Whether it will be son Robert, 22, or Father Bruce, 53, depends on the November election results. The father, a Republican, works in a Wichita aircraft plant. The son, a Democrat, interrupted his college education to make his first race for public office. Each won the right to face the other by winning in the primary.

Beating Living Costs Has Its Price, Too

WASHINGTON (AP) — Here are some tips, negative and positive, on how to beat the high cost of living:

Don't:

Get sick, eat so many omelets, hire a baby sitter so often, get a new hairdo before the old one looks real dowdy.

Do:

Walk more instead of riding, try an art museum once in a while instead of a movie, think twice before borrowing mortgage money at today's rates, take up bird watching instead of polo.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics issued its consumer price index for July Monday. As expected, it set a new record, as usual.

The month's rise of four-tenths of 1 per cent brought the index to 113.3.

* * *

This means it costs $11.33 to buy what cost $10 in 1957-59 — on the average and generally speaking.

LOWER THAN USUAL

Food prices went up four-tenths of 1 per cent, but this was much less than is usual in July.

However, egg prices took a whopping 5½ per cent jump when unusually hot weather curtailed production. Hence the advice to go easy on the omelets.

The average housewife, though, cannot make a great big dent in the cost of living by attacking the food budget.

* * *

For one thing, most folks have to eat. For another, Arnold Chase, assistant commissioner of labor statistics, cited figures to show food prices are not the deepest-dyed villain in the cost of living drama.

GROCERY BILL

Suppose, he supposed, that a family's grocery bill has been $25 a week. He emphasized he was speaking strictly of groceries, not paper napkins, detergents and the thousand other items in supermarkets.

The July rise in costs added 10 cents to that bill.

Turning from food to other living costs, the bureau said:

About half of the rise in the consumer price index in the past year has been caused by increased charges for nearly all kinds of consumer services, averaging 4.1 per cent.

* * *

"Transportation and medical service charges each climbed 5 per cent over the year.

"Other types of services were up 4 to 4½ per cent, except for rents, which, with a 1.3 per cent increase, continued their slow rise."

Senate Panel Sets Seaway Bill Hearings

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate Public Works Committee will hold hearings Sept. 15-16 on legislation intended to prevent an increase in St. Lawrence Seaway tolls, Sen. Walter F. Mondale, D-Minn., reported yesterday.

Mondale is sponsor of a bill which would ward off a proposed 10 per cent increase in the tolls by reorganizing the financial structure of the St. Lawrence Seaway Development Corp.

The bill would relieve the corporation of the present requirement that it repay its construction debt, with interest, to the treasury.

Rep. Henry S. Reuss, D-Wis., is sponsor of a similar House bill.

* * *

A total of 47 other senators and congressmen are cosponsors of the Mondale-Reuss legislation, and have joined in asking President Johnson to seek an agreement with Canada to postpone any toll increase for a year, to give Congress time to act on the measures.

Strike Put United $7 Million in Red

NEW YORK (AP)—United Air Lines lost $7.7 million in July during the airline strike, compared with a profit of $6.7 million in the same month a year ago, President George E. Keck said Monday.

* * *

Keck said United's net income for the six months ended June 30 totaled $24,160,191 or $1.64 a share, compared with $14,566,099, or $1.06 a share a year ago. United split its stock 2-for-1 last April.

Subdivision Asks Help on Problems

Residents of a Waterford Township subdivision last night asked the Waterford Township Board for help in solving neighborhood problems, some involving private roads.

Members of Mountainview County Club Association related problems ranging from poor road conditions and dilapidated bridges to a high rate of vandalism and a low water level on Maceday Lake which abuts the subdivision.

Residents also complained of poor drainage conditions.

* * *

Because six of the eight streets in the subdivision are private, public funds for road improvement projects, for the most part, are unavailable.

PUBLIC ROADS

Maceday Lake Road and Nelsey are the only public roads in the subdivision.

Residents implied that officials are dragging their feet on a county blacktopping project along Maceday Lake Road between Williams Lake Road and Nelsey.

Subdivision (all gravel) were termed in "horrible" condition by a spokesman.

* * *

According to residents, an engineering estimate places the cost to repair two bridges on Bridge and Rich streets at $10,000 which they contend they cannot afford.

RUN-AROUND

Residents claim they have generally been given the runaround by county agencies.

Trustee Rudy Mansfield pointed out that townships are restricted in what public services they can provide' whereas municipalities are empowered with authority to solve the bulk of their problems.

Supervisor Dorothy W. Olson said a special meeting will be arranged between board members and subdivision residents to further discuss the problems.

In other business last night, the board approved a $65,445 community school budget for 1966-67, an increase of about $3,200 over the present budget.

$2,500 INCREASE

The township and school district will contribute $12,500 each, a $2,500 increase over their present allocation.

Other income is anticipated through fees, the Mott Foundation and the recreation board.

The board of education approved the budget last Thursday night.

* * *

Also last night, the board approved 20 recommended appointments to the township's youth assistance committee.

NAMES SUBMITTED

The names will be submitted to Oakland County Probate Court for formal appointment.

The board also authorized Mandel to begin negotiations for acquiring an option on property for test well purposes.

Police Report 1,058 Calls Last Month

The Waterford Township Police Department handled 1,058 complaints last month, according to a report presented to the township board last night.

The total included 242 malicious destruction of property complaints, 133 larcenies, 33 breaking and enterings and 12 stolen cars.

Value of stolen property totaled in excess of $20,000. However, about $3,500 was recovered.

The report showed that 91 persons were apprehended, 73 adults and 18 juveniles.

* * *

Police issued 163 traffic tickets. Fifteen juvenile motorists were ticketed, while 148 adults received tickets.

Acting Manager for Wyoming

WYOMING (AP)—Leo I. Nelson, 31, Monday was named acting city manager of this Grand Rapids suburb, pending selection of a full-time manager to replace John H. Kennaugh, who resigned May 25 to become executive secretary of the Grand Rapids Area Watershed Council.

County OEO to Air Pay Hikes for Staff

A proposed higher salary schedule for antipoverty workers will be considered tomorrow by the Oakland County Commission on Economic Opportunity.

If approved by the commission, the new wage scale would become effective Jan. 1.

A salary range of $15,500 to $18,000 is proposed for James M. McNeely, executive director of the county's war on poverty.

Presently the salary range for McNeely is $14,500 to $18,000.

* * *

No change is proposed in the present range of $12,000 to $14,000 for the deputy director but a hike for two area center directors from the present $10,000 to $12,000 to a range of $12,000 to $14,000 is proposed.

3 PER CENT

Assistant center directors will remain in the $8,500 to $10,000 range, according to the new schedule.

* * *

The proposed new rates represent an average 3 per cent increase over present rates for all classifications and have been recommended for adoption by the commission's personnel committee.

DR. WILLIAM I. MARTIN JR.

Conference in Reading Slated at OU

A five-day reading conference with the theme "Fostering Creative Expression" will begin Monday at Oakland University.

Designed for teachers of kindergarten and elementary school pupils, the program will emphasize their role in encouraging literacy through listening, speaking, reading and writing.

Keynote speaker will be Dr. William I. Martin, Jr., coauthor of 18 children's books and editor of elementay classroom materials for Holt, Rinehart and Winston, Inc.

Martin will discuss children's literature and instruction in choral reading.

* * *

Peggy Brogan, author and reading editor for Holt, Rinehart and Winston, Inc., will speak on individualized reading.

OU FACULTY MEMBERS

Among OU faculty members participating will be Dr. William Forbes, associate professor of science, who will describe the relationship of science and language arts in a laboratory setting.

Dr. Adeline Hirschfeld, assistant professor of speech, will deal with creative dramatics for children and Dr. Harry T. Hahn, professor of education, will demonstrate how to design and make books for children's stories.

Reservations for the conference can be made by telephoning OU's conference department.

There is a ratio of about one teacher per 24.9 classroom pupils in the nation's public schools, a National Education Association report has disclosed.

Jerry: Give Cities $113 Billion

WASHINGTON (AP) — Detroit Mayor Jerome P. Cavanagh said today Congress should set aside at least $113 billion for a drive to "achieve the rebirth of the American city" during the next decade.

The drive should be a national commitment, he said. "We must make sure that everyone in this nation begins to realize that the warfare on our city streets is as important as some consider the warfare in Southeast Asia."

* * *

The Democratic mayor from Detroit, loser Aug. 2 in a bid for nomination to the Senate, outlined his proposal in testimony prepared for the Senate subcommittee on executive reorganization.

Los Angeles Mayor Samuel W. Yorty also is to testify in the subcommittee's investigation of problems facing American cities.

PROPOSALS

National League of Cities and the U.S. Conference of Mayors, proposed steps less ambitious than those advocated by New York Mayor John V. Lindsay — who testified Monday that his city alone would need $50 billion in new federal funds over the next 10 years.

* * *

"We must not turn away from our foreign obligations," Cavanagh said. "But we must not turn away from our problems at home, either, for they can destroy us as well."

He said the nation must stimulate the entire city establishment, "its economic, social and cultural life, to restore confidence in urban life."

He urged Congress to seek "to achieve the rebirth of the American city to coincide with the 200th anniversary of the founding of this nation in 1976."

Noting that Congress has committed $70 billion to put a man on the moon and $43 billion to build the Interstate highway system, the Detroit mayor said "we must make a similar commitment and set aside at least as much money to see that the rebirth of our cities is accomplished."

SMALL CITIES

Cavanagh said he was speaking of small cities, even hamlets, as well as the nation's urban giants.

He said the money should go into an urban development fund, similar to the economic development funds set up in foreign aid programs.

Cavanagh also suggested that Congress create a national urban institute to undertake research, development and training on urban problems.

* * *

Lindsay, Cavanagh and Yorty were among the eight big city mayors due to testify this week on their problems and proposals.

Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley, whose city has had some street violence, declined an invitation to testify today or Wednesday. An aide said he had other commitments, but might appear later in the inquiry.

Head-On Crash Kills 2, Hurts 6

PORT HURON (UPI) — An elderly Reese couple was killed and several others injured yesterday north of Forester when a pickup truck crossed the centerline and struck their car head-on.

* * *

Killed were Frank Rebuehr, 74, and his wife, Emma, 68.

Another couple in the car, John and Norma Lotter of Frankenmuth, were taken to a Saginaw hospital in critical condition.

Their two children, Sally, 6, and Sue, 12, were admitted to Port Huron General Hospital in serious condition.

1,874,027 PEOPLE DID NOT DIE

Fifteen years ago, before the wonder drugs were discovered, death claimed 10.8 out of every 1,000 people in the U.S. But today, the death rate is down to 9.2 per 1,000 people — the lowest in history. This means that 1,874,027 people DID NOT DIE in the past 15 years — thanks to the antibiotics, the hormones, and the other miracle prescriptions which are now available. That's why we say:

Rise Irregular

Stock Market Rebounds Early

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market rebounded in heavy trading early today after six straight declines.

The rise was irregular, with electronics, airlines, office equipments and other glamor issues recovering from very sharp losses while many key stocks in other groups were mixed.

Such stocks as Xerox, Polaroid, Itek and General Instrument snapped back about 2 points.

Eastman Kodak and Westinghouse Electric rose about 1½ each.

AIR ISSUES

Delta Airlines gained 2, Eastern Airlines and United about a point each.

Brokers saw the market actions as mainly technical, because the news background remained about the same and there was no change in the factors which have been cited repeatedly as causes for the market drop — tight money, high interest rates, fear of recession, Viet Nam and the British pound.

General Motors, Ford, Sears, Roebuck, Union Carbide and Pennsylvania Railroad remained easy.

Raytheon rose ⅞ to 50⅞ on 21,000 shares.

Monday the Associated Press Average of 60 Stocks fell 4.9 to 284.1, another two-year low.

Prices were mixed on the American Stock Exchange.

Auto Industry Is Speeding Up

Wants Supply of '67s Before Introductions

DETROIT (AP) — The U.S. auto industry picked up speed today in its drive to build a full schedule of 1967 model cars before model introduction time next month.

Ford, Chrysler and American Motors plants were hard at work on the new cars, while virtually all General Motors units were down for model changeover.

Last week marked the first one devoted entirely to 1967 output and nearly 27,000 cars rolled off assembly lines. That figure was expected to be toppled this week as eight more assembly plants began their 1967 production.

* * *

The over-all production picture through last week showed the industry was off to a faster start than a year ago on building its new offerings. Some 33,165 of the 67's had been built by last Saturday, compared with 29,334 of the 66's at this point a year ago.

INTO PRODUCTION

The bulk of GM's assembly operations will get back into the production picture next Monday but in the meantime some Camaros and Buick Rivieras were built this week.

On an industry wide calendar year basis, total car output thus far into 1966 came to about 5.4 million units, some 11 per cent below the 6.1 million built in the like period a year ago.

Auto companies, intent on getting off to a fast start in the 1967 model sales year, set their sights on an August-September output of 787,000 cars, far ahead of the 565,000 1966 models built up to October 1 of last year.

Foreign-Auto Service Opens

British-European Autos, specializing in service and repair of foreign cars, has been opened at 508 N. Main, Milford.

Owners Mr. and Mrs. James Montgomery, who recently moved here from Scotland, are redecorating the building to further plans for obtaining a foreign-car sales franchise.

Clues Are Cloudy

Prosperity Confused

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK — If the public is confused about where today's prosperity may be leading, can you blame it? Just look at what the news offers as clues for the trends for tomorrow:

DAWSON

— Declining stock prices but rising corporate profits and dividends.

— Growing total of personal incomes but an upward spurt in the cost of living.

—Soaring interest rates but a steady climb in the demand for loans.

* * *

—Money supply still on the rise but the tightest money market in years for those who borrow.

—A big drop in machine tool orders but an increase in the backlog of orders.

—Beefing up wage demands as unemployment drops but exuberant planning for business expansion despite the threat to profit margins.

—Slowdown in auto sales and housing starts but a stepping up of total industrial activity.

ADDED SITUATION

And to all these trends that at first glance seem to contradict each other might be added the situation in Washington.

The monetary authorities, worried by the inflationary signs and fearing the overheating of the economy as the 67th month of the business upswing nears, are clamping down on the supply of credit and exhorting bankers to make fewer loans to business.

* * *

But the administration and Congress, preoccupied perhaps with the approaching congressional elections, are apparently leaving the fiscal problems of higher taxation and increasing government spending for reappraisal at the end of the year.

The confused man in the street can only judge for himself, and as best he can, what is likely to happen in the months ahead.

OTHER PROBLEMS

Anyway, today's problems themselves take up most of his time.

Housewives are trying to stretch family budgets around rising prices—whether it's for food, or rent, or transportation, or medical care.

Businessmen are wheedling their bankers for top priority for loans wanted for new plants and equipment or for increased activity at old plants.

Bankers and savings and loan associations are competing for the investor's savings so that they can lend to business or finance home mortgages.

PRICED OUT

And many families have been priced out of the housing market by rising down payments and higher mortgage interest rates.

All of these factors, usually classed as brakes on the boom, have so far produced very little of a slowdown in over-all industrial activity and consumer spending. The pace isn't as fast as in the first months of the year but almost everyone considered that pace dangerously swift. But the economy in general is still expanding—and increased defense outlays seem likely to keep it going.

* * *

The experts seem just as confused—or at least as divided—as the public.

Business and financial economists are calling for the federal government to ease up on feeding the boom with increased defense and civilian spending.

DELAY EXPANSION

Government officials are calling on business to drop or postpone part of its program for capital investment in new plants and equipment. And the officials are asking bankers to cut back voluntarily on loans to business to dampen the fires of speculation.

Washington is also asking consumers to fight price rises by spending more carefully. But most consumers seem to be taking the attitude that the problem is meeting higher bills by trying for higher income.

* * *

And just now much of the public isn't sure who is winning, or even exactly what they're fighting for, and is pretty confused as to what lies ahead.

Pearson Efforts to Avert Rail Strike Said Too Late

OTTAWA (AP) — The Canadian government pushed efforts today to avert a nationwide rail strike but a union leader said the move was too late. "We will be on strike Friday," he said.

The government effort was spearheaded by Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson, who called labor and management leaders to talks Monday night after warning a strike "could be disastrous."

* * *

He also said he was calling Parliament to meet Monday and if the strike came off the government would introduce proposals "to resolve the dispute."

Union leaders said that 120,000 employes of the Canadian National Railways, the Canadian Pacific Railway and five other lines would walk out Friday noon unless their wage demands are met.

PARTICIPANTS

Participating in the strike would be 100,000 nonoperating employes and 20,000 members of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen.

W. P. Kelly, head of the trainmen, said Pearson's appeal indicated the government was preparing to abandon its freeze on freight rates and thus give the railways "something to put on the table."

* * *

Since 1959, wage increases have been paid from the federal treasury at an annual cost now estimated at $100 million.

The railways refused wage demands ranging from 55 cents to more than $1 an hour. The present average wage is $2.22 an hour.

NOT AFFECTED

The three wholly owned American subsidiaries of the CNR, a crown corporation of the Canadian government, will not be affected. The three, Central Vermont, Grand Trunk Western, and Duluth, Winnipeg & Pacific Railways, operate about 1,500 miles of track.

A CNR spokesman said regular Chicago-Toronto-Montreal trains will terminate at Port Huron, Mich., near the border. The New York-Montreal trains will terminate at White River Junction, Vt.

* * *

Grand Trunk Western, the largest of the three subsidiaries, services the automobile industry in and around the Detroit-Chicago regions.

Successful Investing

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q) "I have been trying for years to build a stock portfolio and have profits in my commitments in General Motors, Comsat, American Cyanamid, and Plough, Inc. On the other hand, I bought Continental Telephone, Houston Lighting and Power and Continental Oil late last year. All of the latter three show losses. Did I do wrong here and should I sell?" M. B.

A) Comeback prospects appear above average for Continental Telephone, Houston Lighting and Continental Oil, and if you exercise patience, I believe you should eventually wind up with three more winners. Per share earnings of Continental Telephone have nearly quadrupled during the last four years and appear headed higher. Houston Lighting operates in a rapidly expanding area and share earnings here have doubled since 1959.

The application of a retroactive Libyan tax interrupted a long string of pluses in the earnings column for Continental Oil last year. The uptrend, however, appears to have been resumed and net income for the first half of 1966 was up 11 per cent over the same 1965 period.

* * *

Q) "I am retired with what I believe to be adequate income and a $6,000 cash reserve in the savings and loan bank. I have $10,000 in RCA and General Telephone and Telegraph. Another $6,000 is invested in Atchison, Chesebrough-Pond's, Control Data, Lockheed Aircraft, Transamerica, Commonwealth Oil and McLean Industries. Should I sell some stocks at this time to increase my cash reserve?" F. S.

Q) Your list contains several good issues of the type suited for a retired person. Cost prices were not given and this factor is always helpful in reaching a decision. I would hold RCA, General Telephone, Chesebrough and Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe, for income and or growth.

The other five stocks could be sold if you wish to increase your reserve. Also, I feel that eventually you should consider other issues, more suitable for a retired individual.

Heckler Yells 'Fink' Gets Punch on Nose

Fickle Detroit Fans Never Had Real Chance to Boo Morrall

(This is part of the Earl Morrall story "The Fink of Detroit and the Earl of New York.)

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Fickle Detroit Lions' football fans love to boo—especially when the starting quarterback takes the field on a Sunday afternoon in Tiger Stadium.

They booed Bobby Layne literally out of Tiger Stadium even though he had guided the Lions to four divisional and three NFL championships.

They've been booing Milt Plum ever since he joined the Lions and they started booing even louder since the trade of Earl Morrall to the New York Giants.

Because he was never really regarded as the No. 1 quarterback in Detroit, he was never subjected to the boo birds.

He was often called the best "relief" quarterback in pro football, and cheers always rang out from the right field stands in Tiger Stadium when he started warming up in the "bullpen" behind the Lions' bench.

But no quarterback could ever be a solid choice in Detroit and on occasion there was a cat-call from the stands.

CALLED FINK

"You're a fink, Morrall," shouted a second tier fan as he raced onto the field in relief of Plum during a 1964 exhibition game against the Baltimore Colts.

* * *

POW! . . . and the heckler was met with a small fist right on the nose. It was 9-year-old Matt Morrall who objected to the verbal abuse directed at his dad down on the field, and he let the boo bird next to him have it.

"I'm sorry," said Jane Morrall, "but Matt doesn't like any one picking on his dad.

Before the game was over, this same boo bird and 46,000 other fans were cheering Morrall as he left the field with a 28-28 tie.

The Lions were 21 points behind when he entered the game. It was another save for Morrall, the relief artist.

This has been the pro football history of the former Michigan State All-America who was drafted No. 1 in 1956 by the San Francisco 49ers.

For nine years, he played second fiddle in San Francisco, Pittsburgh and Detroit. His trade to the Giants on the last day of August 1965 put him in the conductor's role for the first time in his NFL career.

"The trade was the best thing for me," said the 32-year-old native of Muskegon, "I have some good football years left and I know I can help the Giants."

Coach Allie Sherman must have concurred with the statement when he made the deal for Morrall.

Morrall and Plum both agreed there had to be a decision made because there was no compromise about who should have the No. 1 spot.

Sherman had his choice, he picked Morrall. That was the report but Morrall disagrees.

"I knew all week long before the trade that it was going to happen," he said, "and it wasn't a matter of offering New York a choice because I knew where I stood with some members of the Detroit organization."

When George Wilson left the Lions after the 1964 season Morrall realized that his last and strongest link with the Detroit organization was gone.

Wilson was never convinced that Morrall could be his No. 1 man, but he was determined to support the quarterback he obtained from his former boss Buddy Parker in one of the most startling trades in Detroit history.

When Parker got Layne and shipped Morrall to Wilson, he wasn't even subtle in administering the needle.

"He's not my type of quarterback, he'll never make this league," he said of Morrall in the trade that came out of Pittsburgh.

But Wilson made the choice and he was going to stand by the former Michigan Stater at all costs.

Most serious breach involving Morrall and forcing Wilson to exchange a harsh volley with members of the organization, took place on the West Coast during the start of the 1964 season.

When his roommate Sam Williams was planning his fast departure from the team while in San Francisco, Morrall tried vainly to stop the big defensive end and to quiet the rumblings which already started.

BACKS MORRALL

Wilson appreciated what Morrall tried to do and the next day he had to prove it by supporting Morrall in a fued between the quarterback and a non-coaching member of the club.

"I was told I shouldn't complain about not being a starter as long as I was one of the better paid players on the team," Morrall said.

"I don't have to take that, I want to play and I deserve a starting chance," he added.

Wilson cooled off the ex-Spartan but as Morrall sees it, this reciprocal expression of confidence between himself and Wilson was what lit the fuse in the shakeup of coaches and his eventual trade.

* * *

"I guess I would have been traded long before this if it hadn't been for George (Wilson) sticking by me. At first I felt bad for George because I think it was a tough break for him, but now I'm happy for him because I hear he's got a great setup in Miami, and I've got a square deal with the Giants."

"I haven't had anyone call me fink in New York . . . yet."

(Tomorrow, the second part will be Morrall's rise from the bullpen to his status as the Earl of New York.)

Tigers Face 2nd Place Threat

Top Berth Looks Out of Reach

DETROIT (AP) — Next to their victory over the first-place Orioles Sunday the Tigers -- almost to a man — talked most about the fact that three of the teams chasing them for second place had lost.

* * *

"That was a pretty looking scoreboard out there today," said Hank Aguirre, the first to mention the fact that Cleveland, Minnesota and California had suffered defeats.

* * *

The Tigers get another chance to extend their 2½ game advantage over the third place teams when they play host to the fifth-place Chicago White Sox in the first of three straight night games tonight.

* * *

Johnny Podres (2-2) and Gary Peters (10-9) were the scheduled starters.

Almost unnoticed in light of the Orioles' runaway with the American League race is the fact that the Tigers have held on to second place almost as long.

MOVED AHEAD

The Orioles moved ahead of Cleveland to take over the top spot on June 14 and six days later the Tigers took second place away from the Indians have held off challenges from Cleveland, California and Minnesota since.

* * *

"Sure, we're going to try our best to catch Baltimore but we've also got to watch those teams behind us," Al Kaline noted. "I'd like to open up a wide margin so all we'll have to worry about is closing in on Baltimore."

The Tigers remain 12½ games behind the Orioles but are only seven games ahead of the slipping California Angels, who are in sixth.

* * *

Detroit has but two more games with the Orioles, at Baltimore next Monday and Tuesday.

The Orioles have 13 games against the other first division clubs in the next three weeks and while the Tigers would like to see the other contenders knocked off they don't want the Orioles to add to their margin.

Walters Strikes Out 19

Teamsters Takes Lead in 'A' Playoffs

It took two nights but left-hander Tom Walters gave his strongest pitching performance of the season and perhaps in his Class A League career as he completed a 7-2 decision over Booth Homes for Teamsters 614 last night.

The victory gave the union-men — regular season leaders of the city men's recreation baseball league -- a 1-0 advantage in the best-of-three championship series that continues at 7:30 p.m. today under the Jaycee Park lights.

Walters, a slender southpaw who was the circuit's most valuable player last season, was overpowering in the game against Booth.

He allowed one bloop single, struck out 19, walked four and allowed only two balls out of the infield. Of the eight batters who hit the ball fair, he retired two of them personally.

In addition, Walters rapped a ber of earned runs Booth Homes double and single at the plate has scored against Teamsters' to drive in two of the teamsters' pitching this season. seven runs.

DELAYED EFFORT

Making his performance even more noteworthy was the fact he pitched three innings Sunday night before rain suspended the game in the middle of the fourth inning. The Birmingham resident returned last night to finish what he started and showed no affects from the delay.

He fanned seven of the first eight hitters he faced Monday, but walks to Tom Booth and Ed Sparkman with two out in the last of the sixth preceded John Kasper's looping pop fly to short left that just eluded shortstop Mike Marcum.

The blow cost Walters his no-hitter and shutout (both runners scored when the ball was slow in coming back to the infield). The hit also tripled the num-

In four games — all won by the unionmen — the home builders have totaled seven hits, three unearned runs, and six runs altogether. Four different hurlers have worked the games.

Walters was backed by a 13-hit attack that was concentrated in the bottom of the lineup. The sixth, seventh, eighth and ninth hitters had nine safeties and all seven runs batted in.

DECISIVE

Right fielder Al Barkeley rapped two singles and a double to drive in two and score once himself. The game was actually settled in the half inning

AL WATROUS
Champion in All Classes

Another Division Golf Title

Champion in every division is a good motto for veteran golf pro Al Watrous of Oakland Hills.

Watrous, playing in the 65-69 year old division of the state PGA seniors championship, at Dearborn Country Club yesterday, fired a 78-78—159 to win his class.

Through the years Watrous, the dean of Oakland County pros at Oakland Hills Country Club, has been champion in every seniors' division.

Way back, 23 strokes behind, was C. B. "Brownie" Meyer, owner and former pro at Twin Beach Country Club.

Big John Barnum of Grand Rapids won the youngest division of the seniors, with 76-70—146, seven shots ahead of Faust Bianco of Dearborn.

* * *

Cliff Settergren of Pine River was the 55-59 year old division champion with 71-70-141, best score in the tournament and Bill Black of Royal led the division for 60-64 year olds with a 152.

It was the third straight year Settergren was medalist in the Michigan PGA seniors

U.S. Seniors Team Winner for 3rd Time

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP) — The United States won its third straight team championship in the international team matches at the World Senior Golf Championship Monday.

Play begins today in the 32-man championship flight of the tournament.

The U. S. team finished at 457 for two rounds Monday, 13 strokes ahead of second-place Canada. The team matches and the tournament are limited to amateurs over the age of 55.

* * *

Bill Higgins of San Leandro, Calif., Merrill Carlsmith of Hilo, Hawaii, and George Haggerty of Grosse Pointe, Mich., each carded 75s Monday to give the U. S. team the victory.

Following Canada in order were Australia, Italy, Mexico, Kenya, Peru, France and Hong Kong.

Crown Netters

COOPERSTOWN, N.Y. (AP) — Edson Mandrino of Brazil and Maria Teresa Riedl of Italy won the singles titles Monday in the Ortisei International Tennis Tournament. Madrino stunned Nicola Pietrangeli, Italy's top-ranked player, 6-2, 7-5, and Miss Riedl defeated Madonna Schacht of Australia 7-5, 6-1.

Welter Boxers Given Beef-Up

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—The managers of Curtis Cokes and Manuel Gonzales both expressed concern Monday about "beefing up" their fighters.

The two Texans meet here Wednesday night in a 15-round bout for the world welterweight championship.

* * *

They'll weigh in at noon Wednesday and must be 147 or below.

Monday was the last day of hard work for both fighters.

"I didn't want Manny to box today, but he felt like going a few rounds so he did three," said Lou Viscusi, Gonzales' manager.

* * *

Cokes did no boxing Monday but he worked on the big bag and the speed bag and put in 10 minutes of rope skipping. He ran three miles earlier.

"His weight is down already," said trainer Robert Thomas.

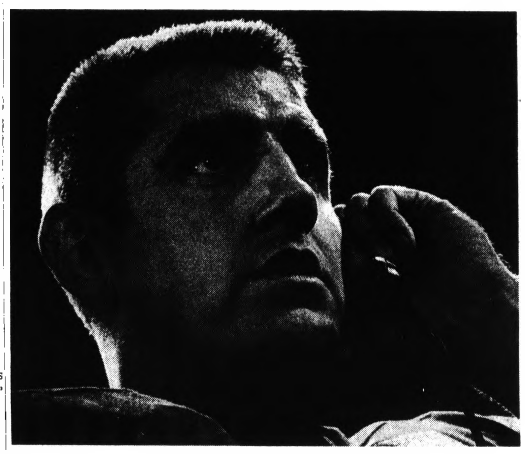

Japan Winner on Diamond

HONOLULU (AP) — Japan rode the four-hit pitching of righthander Yasuo Fujitsu to a 5-1 victory over the Philippines in the opening game of the World Amateur Baseball Tournament in Honolulu Monday.

In opening ceremonies at Honolulu Stadium, seven teams from Korea, the Philippines, Japan, Alaska, the mainland United States and Hawaii—which entered two—paraded in their uniforms, carrying their country's flag at the head of each team.

The Korean team meets the United States at Pearl Harbor today while at Honolulu Stadium Hawaii's Civilian All-Stars play Alaska.

Atlanta Cuts Seven

Player Purge by Irate Coach

By the Associated Press

Arrivals may outnumber departures at the Atlanta Falcons' camp this week now that Norb Hecker has settled for half a purge.

Hecker, coach of the National Football League's fledgling franchise, had promised a shake-up last Saturday night after the Falcons were drubbed 42-3 for their fourth straight exhibition setback. "Twelve or 15 of them will be gone Monday," he said after an Atlanta crowd of 48,548 booed the home club.

Monday night, Hecker cut seven players, including Bobby Franklin, a veteran defensive back acquired from the Browns, and end Phil Sheridan, the Falcons' No. 6 draft choice from Notre Dame.

Today was the first of three cutdown dates for the 14 established clubs, who had to trim their rosters to 49 players apiece. They must get down to 43 by next Tuesday and then freeze at 40 by Sept. 6.

Atlanta, however, is exempt from the cutdown rule until Sept. 6, then may retain 46 players going into its season opener. Hecker, therefore, can be expected to make several additions to his squad, drawing from the other clubs' discards.

* * *

The Falcons are seeking a breakaway runner who can go to the outside, although Hecker, after watching the game films, expressed satisfaction in the performances of fullback Ernie Wheelright and halfback Junior Coffey against the Browns.

Other Atlanta cuts were defensive backs Lowell Caylor, Bob Sherman and Sam Montgomery; fullback Bill McWatters and defensive end Billy James. Sheridan, the Notre Dame captain in 1965, was the first high draft pick turned loose by the new club.

Washington and Pittsburgh got down to the 49-man limit Monday night, the Redskins making 11 squads cuts and the Steelers five.

DROPPED TWO

Philadelphia dropped two players and Green Bay made the limit by placing rookie center Steve Buratto on waivers.

Washington plated three injured veterans — defensive back Jim Steffen and defensive tackles Fred Williams and Dick Eers — on the injured reserve list. Fullback Tom Barrington, No. 3 draft choice from Ohio State, and Kurt Altenberg, rookie end from UCLA, were among those cut.

* * *

The Steelers dropped four rookies and put third-year linebacker Gene Breen on the injured list. The Eagles asked waivers on center Dick Recher and defensive tackle Erwin Will, their No. 7 draft pick.

Roosevelt Brown, New York's offensive tackle, was expected to call it a career today after 13 seasons. The Giants were one over the limit and Brown, who has been added to the club's coaching staff, was warned by doctors that he risks recurrence of phlebitis in his leg if he plays. He was slowed last year by the circulatory inflammation.

Dearborn Class Winner

Two Junior Nines Lose in State Finals

A happy morning became a gloomy afternoon Monday for two Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department junior baseball teams at Jackson.

Each won their semifinal game in the Michigan Recreation Association state championships, then dropped a one-run verdict in the last inning of the finals.

The Class D Pontiac Police Officers' Association team led by Arnie Wilson was a 6-5 winner over Battle Creek Lakeview before falling, 3-1, to Plymouth's Optimists.

The Fraternal Order of Police Yankees trimmed Holland Aeroseal, 8-1, in their morning Class E contest, but lost to Dearborn, 3-2, in extra innings yesterday afternoon.

In Class F, Roseville upended Inkster, 9-7, for the title. Roseville was a Pontiac Class F regional champion.

RALLIES

The POA team defeated Battle Creek after losing a 3-0 lead. It came from a 5-3 deficit to win when Art Jackson scored an unearned run in the bottom of the sixth inning after two errors. Don Hayward was the winning pitcher in relief.

The afternoon contest also saw Pontiac fall behind, 1-0, on an error in the third inning; but two singles and Craig Deaton's sacrifice fly tied it in the fourth.

The winning run scored when Jackson walked three batters in the seventh. Hayward relieved him and completed walking the fourth man to force in the deciding marker.

In the "E" tournament, Pontiac FOP's Yankees went hitless for four innings against Holland before breaking loose for six runs on seven hits in the fifth. Victor Quince tossed two-hit ball to get the victory for coach David Lee.

A two-run outburst by Dearborn in the fifth inning of the finals tied that game and it remained deadlocked until the ninth. An infield single and double to center put runners on second and third for Dearborn with none out.

Clyde Duncan then gave the Pontiac ~~cause a lift with a per-~~ fect throw to the plate to double the runner attempting to score from third after a liner to left. But with two out, Bob Clancy uncorked a wild pitch to let in the winning run.

* * *

The losers managed only two hits in the final game. Stan Babiuk was the losing hurler.
