

Wow-eee, Anchors Aweigh!

ACADEMY STRIKES IT RICH—Capt. Slade Cutter, Annapolis athletic director, is amazed as he holds some of the $17,000 given to the academy's athletic association by an anonymous 62-year-old ex-sailor, now on government pension. The benefactor came 600 miles by bus to give the Navy his savings. The money will be used for prep school scholarships for academy-bound athletes. The soft-spoken ex-gob explained to Capt. Cutter that he is a bachelor who has lived frugally and wants to help deserving academy athletes. Then he took $23,000 in $100 bills from his pocket and gave them to the captain. Only at Cutter's insistence would the man take back $6,000 to use in case of emergency. He refused a receipt. The old salt asked but one favor. After Capt. Cutter took him on a tour of the Navy-Marine Memorial Stadium, now under construction, toward which the man had contributed $1,000, the captain asked, "Is there anything else I can do?" The former sailor asked hesitantly, "Would you mind driving me back to the bus station?"

GOP Picks Chicago; Morton Is Elected

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republicans today picked Chicago for their 1960 national convention starting July 25.

The GOP National Committee acted speedily and without debate on the recommendation of a site committee that selected Chicago over five other cities.

Richard Cooper of New Hampshire, a member of the site committee, offered the resolution. It was seconded by Edward S. Shattuck of California.

The GOP today also elected Sen. Thurston B. Morton of Kentucky as national chairman.

The 51-year-old Morton, a supporter of President Eisenhower and friend of Vice President Richard M. Nixon, was chosen without opposition to succeed the retiring Meade Alcorn of Connecticut.

The Democrats have picked Los Angeles for their national convention starting July 11.

Ray C. Bliss, Ohio state chairman and head of the Republican site committee, announced his group's selection of Chicago. He said the convention will meet in the International Amphitheater.

JULY WINS OUT
Bliss said the site group picked Miami for an August convention, but the site group finally concluded that Chicago's auditorium and hotel facilities offset the date factor.

Chicago had limited its bid of $400,000 cash plus a free hall and other benefits to a July 25 meeting date because the amphitheater was committed to another convention in August.

Chicago won over Philadelphia, New York, San Francisco, Los Angeles and Miami Beach.

Bliss said the site group picked Chicago for several reasons. One, he said, is that Chicago is a "neutral area" as far as Republican presidential nomination possibilities are concerned.

He said the only other neutral areas among the bidders were Philadelphia and Miami Beach. Bliss said New York and the two California cities were not regarded as neutral areas because Vice President Richard M. Nixon of California and New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller are prospective candidates for the nomination.

Chicago has been the site of more national political conventions of both major parties than any other city.

In the 26 presidential elections since the birth of the GOP the Republican nominee has been chosen in Chicago 13 times. The last Republican convention there was in 1952 when President Eisenhower and Vice President Nixon were nominated for the first time.

Bliss noted that there also is some sentiment attached to going to Chicago because next year will be the 100th anniversary of the nomination there of Abraham Lincoln as Republican standard bearer.

An economic factor for delegates also was cited by Bliss as figuring in selection of centrally located Chicago. He said that by meeting there delegates could save in the aggregate $400,000 in transportation costs as against costs of traveling to a coastal city.

'Sinister Attack,' He Cries

Bufalino to Tell Off Senators

Supervisors Sure to Give Hamlin Record 4th Term

By GEORGE T. TRUMBULL JR.

Oakland County supervisors in all probability next Tuesday will stick to the old axiom that it's unwise "to change horses in the middle of the stream."

They are expected to heap an unprecedented honor on their chairman, Delos Hamlin, and re-elect him for a fourth consecutive.

Hamlin said he would gladly accept the re-election "if that's what they want."

Chances are strong too that his running mate for the past four years, Supervisor Hiland M. Thatcher of West Bloomfield, will be re-elected to his fourth straight year as vice-chairman of the 83-member controlling body of Oakland County.

Opposition to the Hamlin-Thatcher team for re-election is practically non-existent, on the surface at least.

DON'T SEE ANYBODY

If there are other candidates for the two jobs, campaigners are remaining silent on them.

"I don't see anybody else in the field," said Royal Oak Supervisor Howard K. Kelley, who usually can be counted on to feel the pulse of southeast Oakland supervisors.

Meanwhile, city councils and commissions throughout the county are busy renaming current supervisors or new ones whose names must be in the hands of County Clerk-Register Daniel T. Murphy Jr. by Tuesday's annual organization-budget meeting.

Oakland's 24 townships took care of this task in Monday's election.

TWO NEW FACES

When supervisors settle in their leather chairs Tuesday they can count on meeting two new township supervisors.

They will be Curtis H. Hall, a Republican and a retired Farmington auto dealer who put Farmington Township back in the GOP column with his 1,086-vote defeat of Democratic incumbent Frank J. Stephenson.

The second new face will be Edward Cheyz, a Democrat, who will be taking over White Lake Township Republican Forest I. Brendel's seat. Brendel didn't seek re-election.

Incumbent supervisors in eight other townships where there were no contests Monday were all re-elected. Fourteen townships had no contests.

Township supervisors are chosen every two years in partisan spring elections like last Monday's, while city supervisors are picked on a non-partisan basis.

Elmo Marshall Faces Manslaughter Charge After Shooting

Elmo Marshall, 47-year-old Commerce Township man whose wife died Monday, nearly two months after he allegedly shot her following a weekend drinking bout, stood mute to a charge of manslaughter yesterday before West Bloomfield Township Justice Elmer C. Dieterle.

Justice Dieterle set a pre-trial hearing for Marshall at 2 p.m. April 28. He is free on $2,000 bond pending the hearing.

Marshall, of 1841 Point Dr., was picked up yesterday afternoon by Oakland County sheriff's Detectives Leo Hazen and Harry Maur after manslaughter warrant was issued in the case.

Anthony Renne, assistant Oakland County prosecutor assigned to the case, said the order for the warrant was issued Friday after investigation showed that the woman's death resulted from the bullet wound inflicted Feb. 15.

Mrs. Mabel Marshall, 44, died at Pontiac General Hospital where she had been since the shooting. Cause of death was listed as meningitis.

Renne said another charge pressed against her unemployed husband, for careless use of firearms, will be dropped. He had stood mute to this charge and was awaiting a lower court examination.

The couple had been living with their daughter at the time of the shooting.

The daughter, Mrs. Hazel Fishell, 25, told deputies then that her father had been drinking and reported seeing him take a large quantity of sedatives for a bad heart about a half hour before the shooting.

The lower charge against Marshall was made by the Prosecutor's Office after Mrs. Marshall refused to sign a complaint against her husband, saying the shooting was accidental.

Hits Teamsters

TELLS OF UNION PAY CUT — Mrs. Annie Mae Anderson, Detroit car washer, told the Senate Rackets Committee yesterday in Washington, D.C., she got a $10 a week pay cut when she joined the Detroit Teamsters Local 985. Mrs. Anderson told the senators she was told by her employer that the union contract just signed in her behalf called only for a $25 salary for a 70-hour week. She said she had been getting $35. "I quit," she said.

Teamster Will Read Statement Tuesday Probe

Testimony Has Linked Him to 'Sweat Shops' in Detroit Car Washes

From Our News Wires

WASHINGTON — William Bufalino, Detroit teamster official linked by the Senate Rackets Committee to narcotics and substandard union contracts, has promised to come in fighting when he is called before the committee next Tuesday.

"Any attempt to connect me with narcotics or any present or past unlawful activity is a sinister attack on my character and reputation," Bufalino wired the committee.

"Are there no limits to the extent that you will permit your Mr. Robert Kennedy (committee counsel) to assassinate my character in his cowardly fashion behind the shield of congressional immunity?" he asked.

Bufalino is head of Detroit Teamster Local 985 and an associate of Teamster chieftain James R. Hoffa. In three days of testimony, the rackets committee has heard testimony that Bufalino:

1. Moved into the presidency of Local 985 from a business partnership with John (Poppa John) Prizola, alleged Mafia mobster and narcotics peddler.

IN STINK-BOMBING

2. Forced low-paid Detroit car washers into his union, then negotiated contracts with the employers that slashed their pay to as low as $25 for a seven-day, 70-hour work week.

3. Was connected with stink-bombing of taverns and smashing of jukeboxes in order to help his brother-in-law sell a competing line of jukeboxes. He was not accused of any specific act, however.

Bufalino asked the committee's permission to read an angry prepared statement when he is called as a witness. He is scheduled to appear Tuesday when the committee resumes hearings.

He said he would not waive any of his Constitutional rights by reading the statement. But his lawyer said Bufalino did not intend to invoke the fifth amendment, as so many witnesses have done already.

TELLS OF BLAST

In winding up its week's work yesterday, the committee heard a Detroit carwash operator testify his place of business was bombed and ruined because he refused to negotiate a contract with Bufalino's teamster local.

The witness, Gerald Duff, said he wanted nothing to do with "leeches living off the misery of the helpless."

SPRINGFIELD, Va. (U) — An aeronautical engineer today beat his three children to death with a baseball bat, severely bludgeoned his wife and killed himself with a butcher knife at his home here. Police identified him as J. B. Matthews Jr., 40, employed by the Federal Aviation Agency.

Turns Self in But Denies Slaying Royal Oak Dealer

An ex-convict who once worked for Parvin (Bill) Lassiter, Royal Oak car dealer who was slain Monday night, turned himself in to State Police last night after seeing a drawing of the murder suspect.

"But he denied having any connection with the crime," said Lt. Howard A. Whaley of the Redford Post.

Today, he was identified by police as Leonard Borchman, 44, of 6339 McGraw, Detroit. He called police at 12:30 a.m. today.

Lassiter, owner of the Detroit Car Co., who lived at 19630 Beverly Rd., Beverly Hills, was shot to death, police believe, by a man who picked him up at Willow Run Airport Monday night offering him a ride home.

"I thought it best to turn myself in since I knew you'd call me anyway," Borchman told detectives. Whaley said the unemployed truck driver fitted the description and had scars or "pock marks" on his neck.

"Borchman said he saw the drawing, and that the written description, especially the mention of scars, fitted him so he came to us before we went to him," Whaley said.

Police said Borchman worked for Lassiter as a truck driver about four years ago.

Detroit Police said Borchman has a record of seven arrests and two convictions, one of them for carrying a concealed weapon.

The man told police he had been drinking for the last few days, but said he was home with his family the night of the slaying.

Detectives are checking out his alibi this morning while awaiting the outcome of a check of fingerprints on Lassiter's luggage from the State Police Laboratory in East Lansing.

'Come On—Squeak Up'

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The Let's Have Better Mottos Assn., noting that this is still income tax season, today unveiled its winning motto for April. The motto:

"Are you a man or a mouse? Come on—squeak up."

The motto followed a unilateral discussion in the association newsletter which was made up of five questions:

Why be timid when you send in your income tax return? Why trouble? Why shiver and shake? Why quail and quiver? Why fill out the form?

Also-rans for the month included:

"I don't do much, but I'm important."

4 Teens, Tot Die in Ohio Smashup

Head-on Collision at Crest of Hill as Youths Try to Pass

DAYTON, Ohio (UPI)—Four teenagers and a two-year-old child were killed last night in a fiery head-on collision at the crest of a hill near here. A man and woman were critically injured.

Police said the crash occurred when the teenagers' car attempted to pass at the crest of the hill and crashed with an oncoming auto one mile west of West Alexandria on U.S. 35.

The teenagers were identified as Barbara Black, 18; and Mary Susan Mong, 16, both of Dayton, and Douglas Peake and Don Tobias, both 18, of Eaton, Ohio.

The dead child was Linda Root, whose mother, Mrs. Billie Root, 24, was critically injured along with Fletcher Carter, 18, Mrs. Root's brother, both of West Alexandria. Mrs. Root, Carter and the baby were in one car and the teenagers in the other.

Police said the teenagers' car was headed west toward Eaton, near the Ohio-Indiana line, and pulled out to pass another. The vehicle clipped the back of the other car and was thrown into the path of the oncoming auto.

Macomb Mother Dies as Car Hits Tree

A 21-year-old Washington mother of two children was killed last night when her car struck a tree in Macomb County.

Another Macomb County motorist died yesterday of injuries sustained in an earlier accident.

The woman was killed instantly at about 10:30 when she apparently lost control of her car after crossing a bridge and crashed into a tree.

The victim was Mrs. Edna Marie Stoddard who lived in the Washington Trailer Park, 60630 Van Dyke, Washington.

The accident occurred on Mt. Vernon road, one-quarter mile north of West road near the Macomb-Oakland county line.

Romeo State Police said Mrs. Stoddard's station wagon skidded about 60 feet before hitting the tree. The right side of the car was submerged in about three feet of water in a ditch.

A passing motorist discovered the accident and notified police.

The victim leaves her husband,

Glenn G., and two small sons, 19-month-old Glenn and five-month-old David.

In the other accident, a 79-year-old motorist died in St. Joseph Hospital, Mount Clemens, of injuries sustained when his car hit a tree, a half mile from his home in Ray Township.

Dead is Valentine Laskowski of Mount Clemens.

Macomb County sheriff's deputies said Laskowski never regained consciousness to tell them how the accident happened.

These two traffic fatalities bring the total to 14 in Macomb County for this year.

Test Hops Due for Spacemen

Will Warm Up for Orbit Shot

Redstone Will Propel Manned Capsule 20 to 25 Miles Up

WASHINGTON (AP)—America's seven Mercury astronauts will take comparatively short test hops to the edge of space before one of them is chosen for a shoot around the world.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration said Friday the test hops will shoot the men 20 to 25 miles up from the Cape Canaveral, Fla., rocket range.

Their capsules, propelled by Army Redstone rockets, will come down perhaps 100 miles away near the Bahama Islands. Plans call for the capsules to come down by parachute and be recovered by boats stationed in the landing area.

Only one man will be chosen for the first attempt at the big flight, which will shoot him into orbit around the earth at a height of 100 to 150 miles, possibly sometime in 1961. He'll complete a circuit of the earth about once every 90 minutes, orbiting at 18,000 miles an hour.

WANT TO BE FIRST

The reactions of the seven on the preliminary test flights may play a part in which man is selected. They all say they want to be first.

The Redstone rocket is 62 feet long and generates 75,000 pounds of thrust. Used as the first stage of the four-stage Jupiter-C rocket, it provided more than 98 per cent of the total thrust required to put the Explorer satellites in orbit.

In the three-stage Vanguard, the first stage shoots the rocket to a height of 38 miles in 2 minutes and 20 seconds, and accelerates it to 3,700 miles an hour. The Vanguard first stage travels about 275 miles before it returns to earth. After the manned sub-orbital flights there will be some medium-range flights. Animals will be in the capsules rather than men. Thor and Jupiter type missiles will furnish propulsion.

The seven astronauts, whose names were announced Thursday, all are veteran military test pilots. All are married and in their 30's. They were selected after rigorous physical and mental tests.

Only if all stages of Project Mercury are successful will one of the seven test pilots identified Thursday be allowed to undertake the nation's first actual space flight.

Monkeys, dogs and pigs are scheduled to be sent on rides in the nose cone of Atlas missiles first.

Denies Connection With Lassiter Death

the suspected slayer, published in newspapers throughout a four-state area Friday, had "paid off in a considerable number of phone calls."

The police drawing appeared in the Pontiac Press yesterday. The suspect, was described as "wearing work clothes, having a dirty appearance, with several fresh scars around the back of his neck."

State Police yesterday questioned Gordon Watson, 43, Lassiter's sales manager, for 10 hours as they sought a solution to the killing.

Watson took three lie detector tests, which police said were "inconclusive," possible because of a heart condition.

This Is Spring? Ask Residents Across Nation

By The Associated Press

This is spring?

That question probably was asked many times, in incredulous tones, in a wide area in the interior of the nation today.

Temperatures touched lows of 3 above in Big Piney, Wyo., 13 in Dickinson, N.D., and the freezing 30s in dozens of cities, including Dubuque, Iowa, Columbia, Mo., Casper, Wyo., Denver, Duluth, Minn., Milwaukee, South Bend, Ind., and Grand Rapids.

Chicago's 27 was only two degrees above the record low for the date, 25 set in 1882.

Salt Lake City had a chilly 31. Occasional snow fell in South Dakota, Minnesota, the Texas Panhandle and the mountains of Colorado and Wyoming.

Near-freezing temperatures, rain or snow gripped most of the nation today.

An irritating cold enveloped the midcontinent and rain harassed the East as the third week of spring ended.

Fresh snow on the heels of a midweek storm that smacked the Rockies, cast a thin blanket over parts of the Plains and the upper Mississippi Valley.

Only the Far West enjoyed fair climes.

Rain and drizzle prevailed from the Great Lakes into the Northeast and middle Atlantic region. It also dipped to the Gulf Coast. Most notable rain was .42 inches during a 6-hour period at Washington, D.C. and Pensacola, Fla.

POLLY GREGORY

HADLEY TOWNSHIP—Service for Polly Gregory, 20, of 4494 Gregory Rd., will be held at 2 p.m. Monday at Hadley Federated Church, Hadley. Burial will follow in Green Corners Cemetery, Hadley Township.

The body will be at the Muir Brothers Funeral Home, Lapeer, until noon Monday. Miss Gregory died Friday at her home following a long illness.

Surviving are her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Merland Gregory of the Gregory road address; two sisters, Mrs. Barbara Williamson of Flint and Merle Sue, at home.

MARTIN W. ROUS

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP—Service for Martin W. Rous, 58, of 4120 Bunker St., will be held at 2 p.m. Monday at the C. J. Godhardt Funeral Home, Keego Harbor. Burial will follow in White Chapel Cemetery.

Mr. Rous died Friday at Pontiac General Hospital of a heart attack. He was a chef at the Ann Arbor Town Club and the Orchard Lake Country Club and a member of Cooks Union 234.

Surviving are his wife, Martha B.; four foster children; and a brother in Holland.

CODA WILCOX

DRYDEN—Service for Coda Wilcox, 71, of 5586 Liberty St., will be held at 3 p.m. Sunday at Dryden Methodist Church. Burial will follow in Attica Cemetery, Attica.

The body is at the Liberty street home and arrangements are being made by Muir Brothers Funeral Home.

Mr. Wilcox died Friday at Lapeer County General Hospital following a short illness. He was a member of the Dryden Masonic Lodge 150, Chapter 278 of Order of Eastern Star and the Dryden Methodist Church.

He was a retired farmer and former custodian of the Dryden school.

Surviving are his wife, Maude; three sons, Dale Wilcox and Paul Hilliker, both of Dryden and Charles Hilliker of Flint; two daughters, Mrs. Ola Belle Wilson of Washington and Mrs. Evelyn Carlsons of Dryden; a brother; two sisters, Mrs. Herman Gulla of Inlay City, Mrs. Russell Mathie of Flint; 13 grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren.

At the present time, each patrolman on the force does most of his own follow-up work on each crime he reports, leaving less time to issue traffic tickets, Pender said.

"With only seven men working on break-ins, accidents, complaints and answering miscellaneous calls, we don't have enough men to assign special traffic patrol duty. We are also answering more calls than we were before the department was reduced," he said.

Waterford Township's eight-man police force answered 7,331 calls last year—even though the force was reduced—as compared to 7,534 calls answered by the 16-man force the year before, reports showed.

Policemen are working six full days a week at the present time. Not only are they on call 24 hours a day, besides their day off and vacation, but every one works much more than 40 hours a week, Pender said.

In submitting his annual budget to the Township Board, the police chief has asked for five additional men so a regular five-day week schedule can be set up.

This would give the department a lieutenant, two sergeants, three detectives for general and juvenile investigation, two radio operator-typists, leaving seven officers to report crimes and patrol the highways.

The Township Board is waiting the decision of the Oakland County Allocation Board on how much funds will be allowed Waterford Township before taking action, Supervisor Elmer Johnson said.

There's still a glimmer of hope for morning glories. The law has a loophole.

While sale of the seed is punishable by fines of up to $100 for the first offense and up to $500 for subsequent offenses, no penalty is provided for individuals who smuggle morning glory seed across the state line for their own use.

Hurler of Stone at Wedding

Japanese Youth Hated Imperial Family, Once Threw Down Gauntlet

TOKYO (AP)—The unemployed commoner who stoned the royal wedding procession once wanted to challenge members of Japan's imperial family to a duel.

Police said a notebook found in the apartment of Kensetsu Nakayama, 19, carried the following notation addressed to members of the imperial family. "I challenge you to a duel on April 10." It was dated March 26.

Nakayama will be turned over to the Tokyo district prosecutor's office Sunday for indictment, police said. A charge of "committing violence," carrying a maximum penalty of two years imprisonment, will be recommended.

Nakayama hurled a stone at Crown Prince Akihito and Princess Michiko Friday as they left the Imperial Palace after their marriage to ride through cheering throngs in an open carriage.

The stone narrowly missed the prince. Police pounced on Nakayama seconds later as he vaulted onto the side of the moving coach in a lunge towards Akihito.

Last month, Nakayama sent the imperial household a letter in which he demanded to see the Emperor.

Police quoted him as saying he intended to disrupt the wedding by dragging the prince and princess out of the carriage, but that he did not want to hurt them.

Electra's Altimeters
Revealed Faulty

NEW YORK (AP) — American Airlines says an altimeter on one of its Electra's gave a faulty reading by about 600 feet as the turbojet craft was landing in Detroit 10 days ago.

The altimeter was the same kind as that used in the Electra that crashed into the East River here Feb. 3 with the loss of 65 lives. Surviving crewmen testified that the plane's two altimeters read about 500 feet a few seconds before the crash.

An American Airlines spokesman said Friday that since the Detroit incident — which was not under instrument conditions and involved no danger to passengers — the new altimeters have been removed from all Electras.

The spokesman also said that since the East River crash the questioned altimeters have been replaced by an older type, but the new type was allowed to remain for cross-checking purposes.

Polio This Year Shows
Rise Over '58 Period

WASHINGTON (AP) — Polio has struck more victims so far this year than it did during the corresponding period in 1958.

The Public Health Service says there were 207 paralytic cases the week of April 4, as against 113 a year ago.

There have been 238 cases of all kinds of polio this year, compared with 205 last year.

License Plates Loose?

LANSING (AP) — Secretary of State James M. Hare reports 1,215 vehicle owners lost their license plates last month — more than double the number who reported lost plates in March 1958. He suggests that all motorists make sure their plates are firmly bolted to their cars.
