Air Crash Near City Kills 3 From Warren

By MAX E. SIMON
Nosediving into a cornfield near Pontiac, a light, single-engine plane carried three persons to their deaths Sunday afternoon.

The light plane, a four-seat Piper Tri-Pacer, crashed into a White Lake Township field near the intersection of Fisk road and Studebaker St., Warren, his four-year-old son, Mark, and Robert Sowders, 31, of 8661 Page St., Warren.

Debris was scattered about the area. The plane was demolished. Pontiac State Police troopers and Oakland County sheriff's deputies have not been able to determine who was piloting the plane. It was equipped with dual controls.

Wrecking crews were forced to use cutting equipment to remove the bodies.

Scores of White Lake Township residents saw the crash.

ENGINE SPUTTERED
Witnesses said the plane circled the field and headed due west when the engine suddenly sputtered. The pilot revved the motor, they said. Then the engine suddenly stopped, and the plane went screaming to the ground.

The plane was flying at an altitude of approximately 500 feet when it started its plunge.

The time of the crash was 4:30 p. m.

Hundreds of curious motorists and township residents converged on the area. Traffic was snarled both ways on busy M59.

Sowders had paid about $500 for a one-eighth share in the plane only a week ago.

Relatives of the two men said both were experienced pilots.

Trebesch held a commercial pilot's license and was seeking a job as a commercial airline pilot. He was a clerical worker at the General Motors Technical Center in Warren.

Sowders was a foreman at the Budd Wheel Co. in Detroit.

OWN PLANE
The plane is registered to the eight-member Lakeland Flying Club, which has a hangar at the Pontiac Airport.

Another member of the club, Dr. Joseph L. Schirle of 330 Lorbera Lane, took his wife and daughter up in the plane shortly before noon. Schirle saw the crash victims at the airport when he brought the plane back.

Sowders and his wife were planning to fly the plane to Florida later this month for their 10-year-old son, Steven, who is vacationing there with his grandparents.

Sowders told friends he wanted to fly yesterday "to get the feel of the plane."

The exact time the victims left the airport could not be fixed. The club apparently kept no log of flights, said State Trooper Gary Powell of the Pontiac Post.

Rockefeller Lets Figures Decide if He Will Run

Wants Public Opinion Polls to Tell Nixon's Strength Against Dems

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York will decide by Nov. 1, on the basis of public opinion polls, whether he will seek the 1960 Republican presidential nomination.

The governor, who is teetering on the brink of an announcement, has told friends he would be a candidate only if he had conclusive evidence that Vice President Richard M. Nixon is not likely to win against the Democratic nominee.

Rockefeller takes no stock in polls which point to the election of a Democrat as president.

But he apparently is unwilling to challenge Nixon unless the Vice president unacceptably slips in the polls to a point where they indicate one of several Democratic opponents could defeat him.

Some of his strategists have told the New York governor that his SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (UPI) — Everybody was having their troubles in connection with the 51st annual Governors' Conference here.

Native Puerto Ricans shouted, "Yankee, go home," at Mrs. G. Mennen Williams, wife of Michigan's governor, when she returned to the conference hotel.

And public relations executives from General Motors were fretting with the treatment their 120 cars were getting. Some 60 Cadillacs and a similar number of Chevrolets shipped here especially for use by the governors, were taking a beating as native drivers scraped fenders on high curbs and other cars on the narrow streets.

It was too late. They say the reaction to Nixon's Soviet visit will be a rise in the vice president's popularity at the time Rockefeller plans his decision.

But the governor insists adamantly.

GUESS WHO'S COMING! — Watch for this man. You may see him this fall. In person, Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev has accepted an invitation from President Eisenhower to visit the United States. The President, in turn, will visit the Russian leader later this year.

Khrushchev Due in September; Ike's Trip Later

President Sets Meetings With Western Leaders Later This Month

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower and Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev will exchange visits this fall — thus taking into a new phase of diplomacy the East-West differences on which world peace hangs.

Khrushchev's visit here — a historic first by a top leader of Russian Communism — will be in September. Eisenhower will go to Moscow later in the year. Exact dates for the visits have not yet been fixed.

Almost identical announcements of the plans were made here and in Moscow — the differences apparently only those of translation. Winding up the peace theme, the final paragraph, in the text released by Moscow, said:

"Both governments express the hope that the forthcoming visits will promote the establishment of better understanding between the United States and the U.S.S.R. and will further the cause of peace."

Eisenhower called a special news conference to make the announcement here. Exchanges at this meeting with reporters developed also:

BIG 3 MEET SET
1. Before meeting with Khrushchev here, Eisenhower will go to Europe later this month to confer with British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan, French President Charles de Gaulle and West Germany's Chancellor Konrad Adenauer.

2. Exchanges on the question of Khrushchev-Eisenhower visits have been going on for some time; were initiated well before Vice President Richard M. Nixon went to Russia.

Eisenhower said he told Nixon on the day the vice president left for Russia that negotiations in form were in progress looking toward an exchange of visits between Khrushchev and himself.

Eisenhower said he told Nixon not to open the subject of the exchange visits, but that there was no prohibition on him to discuss the matter once the subject was opened up.

In telling of his plans to go to Europe to confer with the heads of state of Great Britain, France and West Germany, Eisenhower said coordination between the Allied powers has been good.

But, he added, there are problems.

Nixon, Gomulka Parley After Wild Polish Cheers

WARSAW, Poland (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon met for more than three hours today with Communist chief Wladyslaw Gomulka and Premier Jozef Cyrankiewicz. Crowds continued to cheer him at every turn.

About 5,000 enthusiastic Poles gathered to watch Nixon place a rose wreath at the Tomb of the Unknown soldier in a solemn ceremony honoring Poland's war dead.

Many in the crowd cheered him with cries of "live 100 years," a traditional cheer in Poland.

An excited Polish worker bolted through police lines and grabbed Nixon in a fierce bear hug, almost knocking him down.

Polish security agents pried Nixon loose and pushed the man roughly aside. Nixon was startled momentarily but quickly regained his composure. The vice president's aides said the man meant no harm and that he wanted to hoist Nixon on the shoulders of the crowd.

WARSAW (AP) — Vice Adm. Hyman Rickover, touring with Vice President Richard M. Nixon, showed no interest today in his birthplace, the village of Rieki about 50 miles southeast of Warsaw.

Asked whether he intended to visit Rieki, he replied: "what for?"

Foreign Minister Adam Rapacki, author of a plan for a European atom-free zone which the United States has rejected, sat in on Nixon's meeting with top Polish leaders.

"Neexon," "Neexon," cried many spectators as the Vice President drove through the city in a black automobile flying the American flag.

More Muggy Damp Weather Is on Its Way
More muggy and damp weather is on its way to the Pontiac area, the U.S. Bureau reports.

Partly cloudy and warmer through tomorrow becoming humid tonight, is the weatherman's prediction. Showers are likely tomorrow.

The low tonight will be 65 degrees and the high tomorrow 88.

Temperatures will average about five degrees above the normal high of 83 and normal low of 62 for the next five days. It will remain rather warm and humid until Friday or Saturday when temperatures will drop somewhat.

The rainfall is expected to average up to two inches in scattered showers or thundershowers throughout the next five days.

The lowest recorded temperature in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a. m. was 54. At 1 p. m. the reading was 83.

Troopers at a roadblock on U.S. 41 said they saw a pickup truck approach without lights at about 2:45 a. m. It stopped about 300 yards from the roadblock, they said, and a man jumped out and

Tunnell Is Cleared in Doctor's Murder

Lloyd J. Tunnell, 53, held for investigation of first degree murder in the shooting of Dr. W. Carleton Warrick, yesterday was released and cleared of any connection with the crime.

After two previous lie detector tests had produced "what police called 'inconclusive results,'" Tunnell passed a truth serum test Sunday.

The serum was administered by Dr. John L. Abretsky, of Wayne, an osteopath, while another expert, Dr. Jay B. Zee, a Detroit psychologist, questioned Tunnell.

The test took place at Pontiac State Police post, Oakland County Chief Assistant Prosecutor George F. Taylor assisted in questioning.

Also present were several detectives from Pontiac and from Redford State Police post.

After 45 minutes of questioning, Tunnell was brought slowly from his hypnotic state. Police said he had consistently said, "The doctor was always good to me," and "I didn't kill the doctor."

Det. Lt. William Nesbitt, commander of the Pontiac Police Detective Bureau said Tunnell explained why he had lied in the two previous tests.

"At first he told us he didn't leave the doctor's office at 24 1/2 E. Huron St. after finding Warrick and calling police."

Tunnell, who operates a rest home at 1755 Williams Lake Rd., was a long-time patient of Warrick. He was the first person to

To Dedicate Mansion of Thomas Edison

WEST ORANGE, N.J. (UPI) — The rambling, 23-room Victorian-style mansion of the late Thomas A. Edison will be dedicated as a national monument today.

The mansion, recognized as an outstanding example of Victorian architecture, will be turned over to the national park service during a ceremony. Known as Glenmont, it was Edison's home for 35 years and the scene of many of his inventions.

Governor Is Delighted

Rocky's Son Will Marry

KRISTIANSAND, Norway (AP) — Steven Rockefeller and a former maid in his wealthy family's home plan a late summer wedding in a small Lutheran church in Norway.

Gov. and Mrs. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York said they are delighted at their son's engagement to Anne Marie Rasmussen, 21, pretty blonde daughter of a prosperous Kristiansand grocer.

"She is a wonderful girl," the governor said.

Announcing their engagement Sunday, the young couple did not set a wedding date. But a friend of the Rasmussen family said it would probably be Aug. 22.

It will be performed by the Rev. Olav Gautestad in the Lutheran Church at nearby Soegne. The pastor is an old friend of the Rasmussens. The Rockefellers are Baptists.

The governor has indicated he and his wife will come to Scandinavia for the wedding.

"I can't imagine that I would not participate in the wedding of any of my children," he told newsmen Saturday.

Steven, 23, and the third of his parents' five children, first met Anne Marie when she came to the United States in 1956 to learn English and worked for a time as a maid in his home. She left the Rockefeller employ in 1957 to work in a New York department store, then worked for an insurance firm in New York.

HEW TO OSLO
After serving an army hitch, young Rockefeller flew to Oslo July 10 and met Anne Marie. They came on to her home by motorcycle, and the romance rumors have been booming ever since.

The girl's father, Kristian Rasmussen, appeared with the couple at a news conference Sunday.

"If our daughter will be happy this way, we will not stop her," he said.

Radiant Anne Marie, wearing a charcoal grey frock with rose polka dots, showed reporters her modest-sized engagement ring—a diamond surrounded by smaller diamonds and set in platinum.

Steven said forms had been sent

State Police Close In on Man Thought to Be Marquette Escapee

A man believed to be the escaped murderer of a Hazel Park tavern owner and his son was reported sighted early today in a tiny wooded area west of Marquette.

State Police, sheriff deputies and guards from the Northern Michigan Prison at Marquette prepared to close in on Michael J. (Mike) Gisondi, 29, in an area about a quarter-mile square near Humboldt Junction, about 27 miles west of Marquette.

Gisondi and his pal, Harold Hummel, were sentenced to life prison terms in 1953 by Oakland County Circuit Judge H. Russell Holland for the 1952 "revenge" slayings of Vidos Vinokurov, 60, and his son, Joseph, 31, in their Oak Gardens tavern, 21630 John R.

One of the biggest manhunts in the Marquette area's history has been under way since last Thursday when Gisondi threatened a prison trusty garbage truck driver with a knife.

Troopers at a roadblock on U.S. 41 said they saw a pickup truck approach without lights at about 2:45 a. m. It stopped about 300 yards from the roadblock, they said, and a man jumped out and

Find 5-Year-Old Boy Drowned Off Beach

A five-year-old Detroit boy drowned Sunday afternoon at a swimming beach at Camp Dearborn in Milford Township.

Thomas Baka, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Baka, of 3580 E. Kirby St., was found by an unidentified swimmer in two feet of water, according to Oakland County sheriff's deputies.

The drowning took place at 5 p. m. Deputies said the boy had wandered from his parents and had either gotten into water too deep for him or fainted while wading.

No one saw him go under, officials reported. He was pronounced dead by Oakland County Deputy Coroner Dr. W. C. Gibson of Milford.

Toledo Ousts Autos

Kicks 'Em Out of Downtown Plane Crash Near City Kills 3 From Warren

45-Day Experiment Is Started With Malls for Pedestrians Only

TOLEDO (UPI)—The automobile was ostracized today from the heart of downtown Toledo in the start of a 45-day experiment.

Cars were banished from a four-block area and walking became the only permitted mode of transportation.

With all the hoopla attending the arrival of the automobile half a century ago, the pedestrian came into his own on the mall — the area sealed off from traffic.

The parking meters and street signs were gone and traffic lights ignored. In their places, 10,000 potted plants, 1,000 evergreens and other trees are to sprout.

Workmen have painted outlines on the streets where gardens and patios will be built if Toledo takes to the idea.

FIGHT SHOPPING CENTERS

Downtown businessmen hope the malls will serve as the inner city's answer to the convenience of shopping centers on the outskirts.

Like many metropolitan areas, Toledo, a city of nearly a third of a million people, found its downtown area choked by traffic. Shoppers were becoming more and more reluctant to go downtown.

City officials hope the public will return to public transportation, which will drop shoppers off at the malls' eight arched entrances.

The idea of creating malls where pedestrians could roam at will was backed vigorously by Downtown Toledo Associates, Toledo's merchant group.

The idea was suggested to American cities two years ago by Lewis Mumford, writer and city planner, who told the International Congress of Local Authorities at The Hague: "Either the motor car will drive us all out of our cities or the cities will have to drive out the motor car."

Tonight, the malls, dubbed "Toledo Shoppers' See-way," will be officially dedicated by Mayor John Yager and Lucas County Commissioner Ned Skeldon while a band plays "On the Mall."

During the next 45 days, Toledoans will be surveyed and, if they approve of the malls, the idea will be adopted permanently.

Mostly Pleasant Weather Prevails Throughout U.S.

By The Associated Press

Fairly pleasant weather prevailed today in most of the country, although it was a little cool in the Northeast and showers sprinkled scattered sections.

Cool Canadian air covered the northeast corner from Maine through New York and Pennsylvania and into West Virginia. Temperatures ranged from the 60s into the 40s, far below normal in most of the region.

Readings were in the 60s in a narrow belt extending from Virginia through the Ohio Valley and the Great Lakes region into the upper Mississippi Valley. The 70s were the rule in most other areas except for the 80s in the southern and central plains and the South-west desert region and the 50s near the Pacific Coast and parts of the northern Rockies.

FLY TO MEXICO

Sowers and Trebesch were consins.

The president of the Lakeland Flying Club is Joseph A. Gillis Jr., Democratic state representative and son of a Detroit Record's Court judge.

Gillis flew the same plane to Mexico earlier this month. He is presently on active duty with the Air Force Reserve at Bakalar Air Force Base, Ind.

Gillis is a lieutenant colonel with the 403rd Troop Carrier Wing based at Selfridge Air Force Base.

At first it was believed Gillis was one of the victims as the plane was registered to the club under his name.

William Weike, of 7520 Pontiac Trail, Walled Lake, maintenance officer of the club, said the plane appeared to be in good condition.

Government investigators were to begin a probe of the accident today.

The plane was traveling slowly when it started its plunge, witnesses said. They reported the craft "crumpled like a ball" upon hitting the ground. It did not burn.

The victims were not positively identified for three hours. The bodies were taken to the D. E. Pursley Funeral Home, 151 Orchard Lake Ave.

Robert Forsyth, Sowers' father-in-law, said Sowers had sold his share of a plane based at the Detroit City Airport to buy into the Oakland County group.

Friends said Sowers had expressed his desire to fly a larger plane.

Officers of the flying club were completely baffled by the crash.

"One of the plane's characteristics is its basic stability," said David Silberg, treasurer, of 6321 St. James St., West Bloomfield.

Township. He called the accident "extremely unusual."

Even if a pilot let go of the controls completely, Silberg said, the plane would tend to fly straight at a level altitude.

discover the doctor moments after he'd been shot the night of July 24.

Warrick, of 263 Chippewa St., died of bullet wounds at Pontiac General Hospital the following night.

Tunnell was arrested a week ago by State Police and Pontiac police for investigation of narcotics violations.

After further questioning about the murder, detectives dropped the narcotics charge and booked him for investigation of murder last Tuesday.

The truth serum test was agreed to late last week by Tunnell, who said, "I want to clear my name."

The tests differ in that a lie detector test can only indicate whether a question is answered correctly. The serum test makes it impossible for a subject to lie, police said.

Police said they did not plan to question the rest home operator any further about the murder and were "satisfied he is innocent in the shooting."

They also didn't indicate further investigation as to whether Tunnell had misused any narcotics which he had obtained for patients at his rest home.

TOUGHER THAN NIXON

He said he felt Rockefeller would be a more difficult Republican choice to beat than Vice President Richard M. Nixon. But, he said, any liberal Democrat would defeat Rockefeller.

Rockefeller clearly is the star so far of the 51st annual Governor's Conference, opening today.

Dressed in a conservative dark suit despite San Juan's muggy heat, he kept reporters laughing most of the way through a news conference in which he said he has no intention of seeking the presidency but—

He wouldn't preclude the possibility of completely changed circumstances under which he could become a candidate.

"It was news to him that former Gov. Thomas E. Dewey had advised him to make a decision on the race this fall.

Neither had he heard, he said, of a prediction by Sen. Jacob K. Javits (R-N.Y.) that accelerating events would force such a decision earlier than expected.

Yes, Rockefeller continued, he had a lot of letters urging him to run. No, he hadn't counted them, but they probably ran into the hundreds. What was his reaction to these and newspaper reports of his possible candidacy?

"I'm interested, like everybody else is," he said with another wide grin.

He flatly rejected suggestions he might run for the vice presidency on a ticket headed by Nixon. He was kind in his comments, however, about his potential rival.

Nixon, he said, "seems to be a leading candidate for the prize."

He thought Nixon had "handled himself with great skill under varied and difficult circumstances" in his tour of the Soviet Union and his encounters with Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

The Democratic picture was clouded by the reluctance of most of that party's governors to speak out in favor of any particular candidate.

Although Connecticut Gov. Abraham A. Ribicoff insisted that Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) is the leading candidate for his party's nomination, some of his colleagues were not so sure.

Gov. Robert B. Meyner of New Jersey, a prospective favorite son with obvious national ambitions, told a news conference he has no intentions now of becoming a candidate. But he said that "I the stream indicated I might swim in a certain direction, I might."

Mrs. Dolores Fisher, operator of an underwater diving school, climbed out of the water last night after a doctor ordered her topside for an examination. Mrs. Fisher was reluctant to surface but her co-workers were becoming worried about the possible effects of the long submersion.

Mrs. Fisher was pronounced in good condition when she came up.

She wore an aqua lung during her stay on the pool bottom and was fed liquids through a squeeze bottle. The old record was 50 hours and 24 minutes set last May 16 by Mrs. Alberta Jones of Northridge, Calif.

Prospects of Mr. K's Trip to U.S. Eases Allied Fears

GENEVA (AP)—The prospect of a visit to the United States by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev eased Allied fears today of a dangerous new flareup in the Berlin crisis after the collapse of the foreign ministers conference here.

U.S. British and French officials all conceded that the conference almost certainly will end in disagreement Wednesday. The only reservation they make is that some unforeseen and radical change of position by Russia could alter the outcome even on the final day. Informants said the West will not change its position.

Negotiations have come almost to a standstill. The only East-West talk scheduled today was a luncheon meeting between Russia's Andrei A. Gromyko and British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd. The Briton was to meet before and after with Secretary of State Christian A. Herter and French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville.

Before talk arose of an invitation soon from President Eisenhower to Khrushchev, all the Allied delegations here were concerned over what Russia would do about West Berlin when efforts to reach an agreement finally collapsed.

Now Allied diplomats, especially the British and West German, express the view that so long as high-level discussions are in prospect or under way, Khrushchev can be counted on to keep his threats against West Berlin in suspension.

Lloyd and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan see a Khrushchev-Eisenhower meeting as a step toward a Summit conference.

Soviets Reject British Request

Plea to Intervene in New Red Rebellion in Laos Denied by Gromyko

GENEVA (AP)—The Soviet Union has rejected a British plea to intervene in a new Communist rebellion in the southeast Asian kingdom of Laos.

British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd discussed the new outbreak of violence in what was formerly French Indochina with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko Sunday.

Official sources said Lloyd had told Gromyko that Britain is gravely concerned over the situation and that Communist North Viet Nam, Laos' northeastern neighbors, is aiding the rebels with men and arms.

In rejecting this, Gromyko claimed the Laotian government had violated the 1954 Indochina armistice, under which Laos was to remain neutral and establish a national front government with Communist participation. Britain and the Soviet Union were co-chairmen of the armistice conference.

Gromyko recalled that the Soviet Union last month had urged reestablishment of the Indian-Cambodian-Polish Armistice Commission which was abolished five months ago. Britain turned down that proposal after the Laotian government had refused to accept the commission again.

The Soviet foreign minister also denied that North Viet Nam is assisting the rebels.

ran into the woods alongside the road.

Officers said they gave chase but lost sight of the man in the darkness and heavy undergrowth.

The abandoned truck was found to be registered to Leander Johnson of Negaunee, who was away from the home when officers sought to talk to him.

They said earlier they were awaiting reports of thefts from farms in an effort to trap Gisoni.

Gisoni and Hummel were ex-reformatory at the time of the rapes from the Ionia State Vinokurov killings.

A break in the baffling murders — the tavern was not robbed — came when a 16-year-old Indianapolis, Ind. girl told police the pair had confessed the murders to her during their flight from Michigan.

Besides his escape from Ionia and Marquette, Gisoni, who steadily maintained his innocence during his trial, had once fled from Jackson Prison where he had been sentenced by Judge Holland. He then was shifted to the tougher prison at Marquette.

Survey Sees Bigger Year for U.S. Cars

DETROIT (AP)—A New York investment survey today estimated the 1960 automobile market at 6 1/2 million cars, up about half a million from the current year.

In an analysis of the auto industry, Value Line Investment Survey viewed 1960 as "a good year for production; an uncertain, perhaps even a chaotic, year for profits."

It predicted the increased sales will come almost entirely from the new, smaller cars to be built by General Motors, Ford and Chrysler.

The survey said preliminary production plans of these companies call for 600,000 of the smaller cars and commented: "We see no reason for doubting the Big Three's ability to sell their new cars—the only question is, will they make any money doing it?"

Value Line said that unless the small car market should expand by considerably more than 50 percent, the Big Three's marketing plans will "almost certainly have an adverse effect on the independent domestic and foreign manufacturers."

Does Hubby Want Shirts Ironed?

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: The other day I received a postcard from the lady who irons for me. She said her church was giving a stork shower for her daughter and she thought I'd like to know in case I wanted to send a present.

My husband is raving mad. He says if I let her "work me" for a present he will be very disappointed in me.

She irons very well and I'd hate to lose her over a little gift I could buy for $3.

You're a woman, Abby. Is my husband right or not?

NO NAME PLEASE

DEAR NO: This is a new wrinkle! If it gives you the feeling of pleasure, generosity or security to send a gift, by all means, send one. Men don't always understand these things. If your husband ever tried to iron a shirt he wouldn't get so steamed up.

DEAR ABBY: My husband is the best man in the world when he's sober — but he hasn't drawn a sober breath in two years. He says he'll quit drinking when I quit nagging.

But the reason I nag him is because he drinks.

Now, Miss Abby, if you will figure out a way for him to quit drinking so I can quit nagging, I will sure thank you.

NAGGING

DEAR NAGGING: If you can't get your husband to call Alcoholics Anonymous (they are listed in your telephone directory), investigate the group called "ALANON." They are the wives, husbands, sweethearts and friends of alcoholics who are organized for a common purpose . . . to learn how to cope with problem drinkers and eventually lead them back to the road of sobriety and self-respect. Good luck!

DEAR ABBY: I am in love with a boy the same age as I, which is 14. We have been going steady for two years. We have it all planned to get married when we get out of school in four years. He kissed me last Saturday night for the first time. It was just a peck on the cheek. Don't you think that after waiting for two years I deserved at least a kiss on the lips?

DISAPPOINTED

You had better slow down, Honey! Get the bands off your teeth before you start thinking about a band on your finger. A peck on the cheek is quite enough for two fourteen-year-olds.

DEAR ABBY: A certain married couple who used to be in our crowd suddenly gave us all the cold shoulder.

It seems that a rumor got started that they were being divorced. They denied it and tried to find out who started the gossip, but so many people repeated it that it was impossible to pin it on anyone.

Now they refuse to associate with any of us. I say if there were no truth to the rumor they would have laughed it off in the first place. Or don't you believe, Abby, that "where there's smoke . . . there's fire?"

EX FRIENDS

DEAR EX: Where there's smoke there is not always fire. Could be just someone smoking the peace pipe. Those who repeat gossip are as guilty, in my opinion, as those who start it.

To get ABBY's booklet, "What Every Teenager Wants To Know," send 25 cents and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope to ABBY in care of this newspaper.

For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of this paper. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Rosburg PGA Champ as Barber Bogeys Last Two Holes

New Champion Fires Hot 66 for Pro Title

Pudgy Bob Shoots 30 on Front Nine With Five Birdies

MINNEAPOLIS (UPI)—Bob Rosburg, the new PGA champion who finally won "the big one I've been looking for" wasn't sure today whether his triumph came on merit or "little Jerry's" mistakes.

"I gave the tournament away," Barber said, "when I put my approaches on the last two holes in sand traps, I blew it."

But he didn't take anything away from the bespectacled Rosburg, who with three children, ages eight, seven and six, wanted to win "a big one" in the hope he will get a good job with a golf club so he will be able to spend more time at home, rather than travel the tournament golfing trail.

Rosburg, who has been making his living playing golf since he turned professional in 1953, was six strokes behind the leading Barber going into yesterday's final round. But that four-under-par 66 gave him a 72 hole total of 277, one stroke better than Barber and Doug Sanders. Sanders, one stroke behind Barber going into the final round, carded a two-over-par 72 for the second place tie.

Defending champion Dow Finsterwald was fourth at 280. He shot a fourth round par 70. Ted for fifth at 281 were the favored Mike Souchak, whose putter failed him again, Bob Goaly and Ken Venturi. Next at 282 came Sammy Snead and Cary Middlecoff, U.S. open champion Billy Casper was among eight who finished at 287. The others included former U.S. Open champion Tommy Bolt and former P.G.A. king Walter Burkemo.

Souchak came in with a two-over-par 74 and, with only six players left in the field, there were only three golfers in the running — Rosburg, Barber and Sanders.

Sanders, who was in the tournament on a pass, shot a final-round 72. He lost his chance when he three-putted from 22 feet on the 17th hole.

Souchak went out of the running when he bogeyed three of the first four holes.

At the nine hole turn, Rosburg had picked up those six strokes on Barber by going out in 30 against little Jerry's 36.

That 30 was one of the finest nine holes ever shot. He scored five birdies, knocking in a 25-foot putt on the second hole to start his string. On the 565-yard par five-third he trapped his approach but wedged to within 12 feet of the pin and rammed it home for another birdie. On the fifth sank a 10-footer for another bird, canned a six-footer on the eighth and a three-footer on the ninth for his other birdies.

Barber, meanwhile, was having trouble. His putter, the best club in his bag, let him down on the eighth hole when he missed a two-and-a-half-foot putt for a bogey.

So going to the 10th Rosburg and Barber were all even. Rosburg was playing in a threesome ahead of Barber. The sandy-haired Rosburg bogeyed the 12th when he was short with his approach, but matched the card for the other eight holes.

He was in the clubhouse when he heard that Barber had parred the 16th. It looked like tiny Jerry was home free. He needed only two pars to win. But on the 430-yard 17th, he put his seven iron second into a trap.

Gopher Pitch Beats Foytack in 8th

Boston Comes From Behind on 2nd Homer

Maxwell's Sunday Blast Wasted in 5-4 Tiger Loss

DETROIT (AP)—Manager Jimmie Dykes says only one pitch is keeping Paul Foytack from becoming a consistent winner.

The pitch varies. Sometimes it is a fast ball. Other times it is a curve, or even a slider. But always, it's the gopher ball pitch.

Two gopher ball pitches, one to Frank Malone, and the other to Jackie Jensen, beat Foytack and the Detroit Tigers yesterday. The score was Boston 5, Detroit 4. And it was the 20th one-run decision the Tigers have dropped, compared with only eight victories by the same margin.

Despite Foytack's home run miseries, the strong-throwing right-hander could have gripped a little about the way his teammates responded to Boston pitching. The Tigers got only four hits and except for the wildness of starter Bill Monbouquette, might have ended up with only one run.

The last time out, Foytack was a loser when the Tigers got only one run and six hits off a couple of Baltimore pitchers. That day, the Detroit infield kicked in a pair of unearned runs to make Foytack's task even more difficult.

Foytack, whose record now is 9-10, had a 4-2 lead entering the eighth inning. He retired the first two batters, Pumpelly Green and Pete Runnels, on routine grounders.

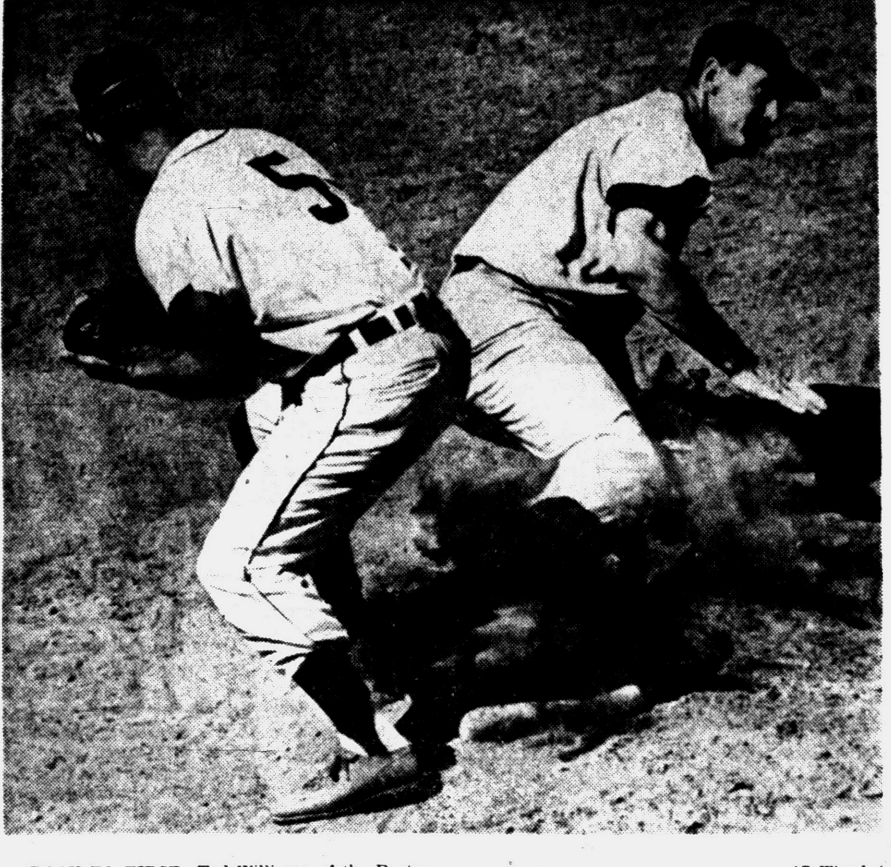

Gary Geiger got an infield single and Foytack walked Ted Williams. Jensen then clouted his 23rd home run into the left field seats.

The Tigers staged Foytack to an early lead. They got one in the second on a walk, Frank Bolling's double and an infield out. Two more scored in the third when Eddie Yost walked and Charlie Maxwell slammed his 23rd home run into the right field pavilion.

Frank Malone got two runs back for the Red Sox in the fourth when, with two out and Jensen on first via an infield single, he cracked his 15th home run.

The Tigers added their fourth run in the sixth on three walks and a sacrifice fly by Bolling. The 4-2 lead looked safe until Jensen, who had collected only a puny infield single in 12 previous trips in the series, hit his three-run blast.

The Tigers had an off day today before opening a week-long road trip against the Yankees in New York Tuesday night. Frank Lary (13-7) will work the series opener.

BACK TO FIRST—Ted Williams of the Boston Red Sox bumps into Tiger first baseman Gail Harris as he slides safely back into first base in the 6th inning of their game in Detroit yesterday.

Williams reached first on a walk and then Tiger pitcher Paul Foytack attempted to pick him off first base. Boston won the game, 5-4.

McCovey and Mays Stay Hot; Braves Split

By The Associated Press
The new firm of Willie McCovey and Willie Mays are keeping the San Francisco Giants on top of the National League. They produced the dynamite Sunday when Johnny Antonelli's 15th victory — a six-hitter — tamed the Pittsburgh Pirates, 5-3.

McCovey is hitting a sensational 500 with 9-for-18 since the Giants moved him up from their Phoenix farm last Thursday. He went 4-for-4 the first day, knocked in the winning run the second and then went 3-for-5 Saturday.

The newest Willie hit his first major league home run — a 390-blast off Ronny Kline with Jim Davenport on in the fourth inning. Mays put the Giants out in front to stay with a seventh-inning double off loser Bob Porterfield.

Los Angeles regained second place, a half game behind the Giants by shading Philadelphia 4-3 while Milwaukee was splitting a pair with St. Louis. The Cardinals took the opener 4-3 as Lindy McDaniel rescued Larry Jackson. Lew Burdette won his 15th in the second 11-5 when Billy Bruton hit a pair of three-run triples and Felix Mantilla connected for a three-run homer.

Rookie Jay Hook and veteran Brooks Lawrence teamed up with a five-hit shutout for Cincinnati's 2-0 decision over Chicago. Hook gave up only three hits but walked three in a row in the seventh, bringing Lawrence from the bullpen.

Washington hit the only home run. Faye Throneberry got No. 9 in the first game and Jim Lemon No. 24 in the second. Both Senators lost their 15th and 16th in a row, only two short of their club record set in 1948.

Chicago now has won six straight and 11 of its last 12 games. Since the first All-Star break they have a 19-5 record. Their opening game victory was their 26th by one run.

Cleveland lost ground by dropping a 5-4 decision to Baltimore in 10 innings. Willie Miranda beat out a high bouncer to the mound, driving in the winning run. That one little hit minimized Rocky Colavito's 31st homer and Woody Held's 20th.

Tito Francona's seventh hit of the day, a three-run homer off Billy O'Dell in the ninth gave Cleveland a 6-3 decision in the second game. Francona had four singles in the first game and a double and single before his homer. The only time the Orioles got him out was when third baseman Brooks Robinson made a diving catch of a line drive.

Gary Bell won his 11th in the second while Al Ciochetti lost his first on relief in the opener. Hoyt Wilhelm was Baltimore's winner and O'Dell, who worked in both games, dropped the second. Cleveland's attendance soared over the million mark to 1,009,562 with the turnout of 34,682.

Elston Howard drove in four runs with two singles and a double in New York's 7-5 victory over Kansas City. Ryne Duren struck out seven in 3 2-3 shutout innings but Duke Maas was the winner over Bob Grim.

Lights for the first time Thursday night at 7:30 p.m.

6-7 year olds—Ricky Kilbourne, Perendale, John Salvea, Perendale, Tommy Anderson, Pontiac.

8-9 year olds—Larry Joe Wallace, Pontiac; Mary Shultz, Detroit; Mickey Barry, Roseville.

Two Racing Stars Die in Accidents

BERLIN (UPI)—The world of auto racing today mourned the deaths of international stars Jean Behra and Ivor Bueb who died this weekend as a result of accidents here and in France.

Behra, France's champion driver who won the Sebring, Fla., race in 1957, died as a result of injuries suffered on Sunday, July 26, when his car plunged off a hill on a track at Clermont-Ferrand, France, at the start of the Grand Prix D'Auvergne formula-two race.

Bueb, 35-year-old British veteran of the race track, died Saturday night as a result of injuries he suffered on Sunday, July 26, when his car plunged off a hill on a track at Clermont-Ferrand, France, at the start of the Grand Prix D'Auvergne formula-two race.

He was in the clubhouse when he heard that Barber had parred the 16th. It looked like tiny Jerry was home free. He needed only two pars to win. But on the 430-yard 17th, he put his seven iron second into a trap.

By DOW FINSTERWALD

The short approach is one of the most important shots.

Keep the head still.

Don't take the club away from the ball too fast. If you do, you set up the timing in such a way that your mind will flash to the hole. The body will raise up. Keep calm with the head still and stay over the shot.

Gianis, L.A. Sunday Victors

By The Associated Press
The new firm of Willie McCovey and Willie Mays are keeping the San Francisco Giants on top of the National League. They produced the dynamite Sunday when Johnny Antonelli's 15th victory — a six-hitter — tamed the Pittsburgh Pirates, 5-3.

McCovey is hitting a sensational 500 with 9-for-18 since the Giants moved him up from their Phoenix farm last Thursday. He went 4-for-4 the first day, knocked in the winning run the second and then went 3-for-5 Saturday.

The newest Willie hit his first major league home run — a 390-blast off Ronny Kline with Jim Davenport on in the fourth inning. Mays put the Giants out in front to stay with a seventh-inning double off loser Bob Porterfield.

Los Angeles regained second place, a half game behind the Giants by shading Philadelphia 4-3 while Milwaukee was splitting a pair with St. Louis. The Cardinals took the opener 4-3 as Lindy McDaniel rescued Larry Jackson. Lew Burdette won his 15th in the second 11-5 when Billy Bruton hit a pair of three-run triples and Felix Mantilla connected for a three-run homer.

Rookie Jay Hook and veteran Brooks Lawrence teamed up with a five-hit shutout for Cincinnati's 2-0 decision over Chicago. Hook gave up only three hits but walked three in a row in the seventh, bringing Lawrence from the bullpen.

Washington hit the only home run. Faye Throneberry got No. 9 in the first game and Jim Lemon No. 24 in the second. Both Senators lost their 15th and 16th in a row, only two short of their club record set in 1948.

Chicago now has won six straight and 11 of its last 12 games. Since the first All-Star break they have a 19-5 record. Their opening game victory was their 26th by one run.

Cleveland lost ground by dropping a 5-4 decision to Baltimore in 10 innings. Willie Miranda beat out a high bouncer to the mound, driving in the winning run. That one little hit minimized Rocky Colavito's 31st homer and Woody Held's 20th.

Tito Francona's seventh hit of the day, a three-run homer off Billy O'Dell in the ninth gave Cleveland a 6-3 decision in the second game. Francona had four singles in the first game and a double and single before his homer. The only time the Orioles got him out was when third baseman Brooks Robinson made a diving catch of a line drive.

Gary Bell won his 11th in the second while Al Ciochetti lost his first on relief in the opener. Hoyt Wilhelm was Baltimore's winner and O'Dell, who worked in both games, dropped the second. Cleveland's attendance soared over the million mark to 1,009,562 with the turnout of 34,682.

Elston Howard drove in four runs with two singles and a double in New York's 7-5 victory over Kansas City. Ryne Duren struck out seven in 3 2-3 shutout innings but Duke Maas was the winner over Bob Grim.

Chisox Now Games Up; Orioles Dump Indians

By The Associated Press
After Luis Aparicio and Nellie Fox bunt and run you dizzy, Al Lopez waves in Turk Lown or Gerry Staley to shut the door in your face.

That is the reason the Chicago White Sox are three games out front in the American League today and pulling away fast. Except for the runner-up Cleveland Indians, the rest of the league is fading into the gloaming. Both Baltimore and Kansas City, tied for third, are 11 games back. And the Yankees? They are 12 games down in fourth place.

The little men did it again Sunday in the first game with Washington, slashing and racing to upset the punchy Senators. Trailing 2-1 in the last of the ninth, Aparicio opened with a single. Fox bunted and catcher Steve Korcheck threw the ball away. Aparicio scored and Fox dashed to third. Two intentional walks loaded the bases and Billy Goodman punked a fly ball single into left over a drawn in outfield for a 5-2 victory.

Lown, who took over after Billy Pierce left for a pinch hitter in the eighth, won his eighth despite a shaky ninth inning. It was his fifth straight.

Again in the second game, when Bob Shaw began to stumble in the eighth, in came Staley to breeze through 1-3 hitless innings, saving Shaw's 10th victory, 9-3.

Washington hit the only home run. Faye Throneberry got No. 9 in the first game and Jim Lemon No. 24 in the second. Both Senators lost their 15th and 16th in a row, only two short of their club record set in 1948.

Charge She Carried Murder Kit for Finch

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Carole Tregoff, 22, was held in county jail today awaiting preliminary hearing tomorrow on charges that she carried the "murder kit" society Doctor R. Bernard Finch planned to use in a murder plot against his wife.

The attractive red-haired divorcee was arrested and charged with first degree murder last week after testifying at Finch's preliminary hearing. The state charged she helped Finch plan the slaying of Barbara Finch, 33, last July 18 with the hope of later marrying the 41-year-old physician.

The original murder plot of injecting a sedative into Mrs.

Finch and shoving her car off a cliff was thwarted by the appearance at the scene of the Finch maid, Marie Ann Lidholm, the state charged. It said Miss Tregoff carried the "murder kit" containing sedatives, rope and hypodermic syringes among other things to the scene.

Mrs. Finch was found shot in the back on the lawn of the Finch home in nearby West Covina. Miss Lidholm, 19-year-old Swedish exchange student, said she last saw Mrs. Finch being chased across the lawn by Finch.

GM Tests Cars for Road Wear With New Device

WARREN, Mich. (AP)—General Motors is using a new gadget to test driving effects on a car without taking the car onto the road.

A tape recorder and instrument-tation transmit the bounces and pitches of a rough road onto a standard car body that stands still. The body has no wheels. GM calls its development a "Ride Simulator." It was explained at GM's technical center here today by Robert H. Kohr, vehicle dynamics supervisor of the corporation's research laboratories.

Kohr said the simulator produces the motions of a car on a road and is important to study of suspension systems and other factors.

The Ride Simulator is something like the airplane flight simulators used in pilot training. But GM's device is meant to determine car riding characteristics, not to train drivers.

No Damage Revealed

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—An artillery battle broke out near Matsu Island at the northern end of Formosa Strait today when Communist and Nationalist warships appeared, the Nationalist Chinese Defense Ministry announced.

Nationalist warships suffered no damage, the ministry said, and it claimed no hits on Red warships. There was no mention of naval gunfire.

Hussein Patching Up Quarrel With Nasser

AMMAN, Jordan (AP)—King Hussein of Jordan is patching up his differences with President Gamal Abdel Nasser of the United Arab Republic and the two Arab nations soon will restore diplomatic relations.

He announced the decision Sunday at a news conference.

Premier Hazza Majali said the move would be before the end of this month, in time for the Arab League meeting in Casablanca Sept. 1.

Hussein also said he is willing to meet Nasser, or any or all the Arab leaders—including Iraq Premier Abdel Karim Kassam. The young monarch underlined this with a pledge to fight at Nasser's side against Israel if necessary. He repeated Arab charges that Israel must expand by seizing Arab territory because it is committed to a policy of accepting all immigrants.

GM May Move Up '60 Car Work

By JACK VANDENBERG
UPI Automotive Editor
DETROIT (UPI) — General Motors may move up the introduction of its 1960 model cars a week or 10 days because of rapidly dwindling stocks of 1959 models, auto industry sources said today.

But the industry appeared to be right on target with its production schedules and sales as it prepared for closing out the 1959 models and bringing in the 1960 cars.

The industry's sales during the second 10 days of July climbed 12.7 per cent above the first 10 days of the month but were still well below the similar period of June. This was exactly the way the industry had it figured.

Car and truck production dropped off 4.5 per cent this week from the previous week but again it was a planned drop.

The automakers are preparing for the end of the 1959 model run. They want to keep a big enough inventory of 1959 models so customers can get the cars they want but keep stocks low enough so there aren't many 1959 models left around the showrooms when the 1960 models start moving in.

All Chrysler Corp. plants except the Plymouth plant at Evansville, Ind., already are shut down on 1959 model production and that plant will complete the 1959 model run early next week. Studebaker-Packard also is shut down for model changeover.

American Motors and Buick will begin the changeover of machinery for 1960 model production next week. Other producers were gradually reducing their work week in preparation for closing out 1959 model production.

During the week, the industry turned out 142,851 cars and trucks compared with 149,565 last week and 79,122 in the same week a year ago, despite the earlier shut-downs for model changeovers.

Production for the year to date now totals 4,610,777, compared with 3,091,557 at the same time a year ago.

Despite the upsurge in sales this week, sales during July were trailing 19 per cent behind June sales and the industry expects this margin to widen just a little more when the sales figures for the final 10 days of the month come in.

JUST A NORMAL DROP

Sales normally drop off toward showing of American Motors and the end of the model year and Studebaker-Packard in the small sales this year were still well car field currently, was expected above last year. During the July to boost this figure in the final 11-20 period this year cars sold at months of the year.

a daily rate of 17,100, compared with a daily rate of 13,100 in the same period a year ago.

General Motors accounted for 46.4 per cent of the industry's sales in mid-July while Ford took 30.1 per cent, Chrysler Corp. 15.7 per cent, American Motors 7.3 per cent and Studebaker-Packard 2.5 per cent.

Although current production rates indicated an annual rate of 6,135,000, introduction of smaller 1960 models, coupled with the good showing of American Motors and the end of the model year and Studebaker-Packard in the small sales this year were still well car field currently, was expected above last year. During the July to boost this figure in the final 11-20 period this year cars sold at months of the year.

Lear Ready to Top All in Grand Rapids

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Lear, Inc., now Grand Rapids' second-largest employer with more than 3,700 workers, soon may be in first position. William P. Lear, board chairman, said today.

Lear said at a press conference that the company's steadily increasing business in both military and commercial fields could double facilities and production at its new airport plant here within five years.

American Seating Co., specializing in school and church furniture, now is Grand Rapids' largest employer with approximately 4,000 workers.

In 1959, Lear said his company will have done 80 million dollars worth of business, 90 per cent of it with the military, and expects to have a 90-million-dollar backlog by Jan. 1.

The outlook for 1960, he added, is promising and by 1962 his company should be doing business in excess of 100 million dollars a year, with commercial work expanding to 30 per cent.

Discussing new developments, said the company has men in its Grand Rapids and California laboratories working on a flight control system for a nuclear-powered airplane now in early stages, and also working in a field of solid state physics expected to produce a flat plate television screen within three years.

He indicated the solid state physics products are being built in Grand Rapids.

Lear is a manufacturer of automatic flight control systems, such as automatic pilots, and other guidance systems.

One Loss, One Gain

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Department of Street Railways said Friday it lost 477,469 passengers in the first 27 days of its new fare increase. The DSR raised bus fares from 20 cents to 25 cents. General Manager Leo J. Nowicki said the passenger loss was 5.27 per cent, but that fare revenue increased 11.48 per cent in the same period.

1st Woman Dem Elected to Congress Dead at 84

GREENWICH, Conn. (AP)—The first woman Democrat in Congress, Mary T. Norton, is dead at 84.

She died Sunday of a heart attack in Greenwich Hospital.

Mrs. Norton rose through New Jersey politics and was named to run for Congress in 1924 by Frank Hague, who headed the Jersey City, N.J., Democratic organization.

She was elected, and stayed in Congress for 26 years. On her 75th birthday, in 1950, she announced that she would not seek re-election. She made the announcement from the Bethesda, Md., Naval Hospital, where she was recuperating from a combination of influenza and pneumonia.

Her career in government was not over, however. Secretary of Labor Maurice Tobin appointed her a special consultant to the Labor Department on "woman-power," and she served until the end of the Truman administration.

In her early years in Congress she drew considerable attention by calling for the repeal of prohibition, at a time when most congressmen were avoiding the subject. She introduced the first resolution calling for repeal.

Her congressional career set a record for length of service, by a woman legislator. For five years she headed the House Committee on the District of Columbia, the first woman to ever head a congressional committee.

She was also named to the House Labor Committee and in 1937 became its chairman. She held that post for 10 years.

She was a strong New Dealer, helping to guide and later defend the Roosevelt administration's wage and hours legislation. She also championed the fair employment practices act.

In 1947 she was named "Outstanding Catholic Woman of the Year."

She was married to Robert F. Norton, a businessman, in 1909. He died in 1934. Their only child died soon after birth.

Mrs. Norton came to Greenwich three years ago.

She leaves two sisters, Mrs. Joseph McDonagan of Greenwich and Mrs. Ann Hopkins of New York City.

Credit Card Plan Now Being Used on Eastern Buses

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Plain old money is losing out to the credit card on local buses.

The Lehigh Valley Transit Co. announced Wednesday a "charge-a-fare" plan for bus rides in this northeastern Pennsylvania area.

Passengers may use any one of three types of cards, depending on the service they want. Company president A. M. Williams says the credit plan will create bookkeeping problems, but also boost business.

Union to Teach Latin Workers

CWA Plans Courses in Democracy to Offset Red Growth in S.A.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Joseph A. Beirne of the Communications Workers of America (CWA-CIO) has announced today a school to teach Latin American workers "vigorous industrial Democracy" will be opened at Front Royal, Va., Aug. 14.

A CWA press release said it would be "a new experiment in international relations combined with a unique education program to aid in offsetting the growing menace of Communist penetration in Latin America."

Five North American affiliates of Postal, Telegraph and Telephone International (PTTI) will cooperate in the program which will bring 16 young union leaders from Central and South America to the trade union institute at Front Royal.

The visitors will spend 90 days studying and learning the fundamentals of effective industrial Democracy, the press statement said. It added that the sponsors believe the leaders will return to their own countries equipped to train other leaders.

Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell and William F. Schnitzler, secretary-treasurer of the AFL-CIO, will greet the visitors at Princess Anne, Queen Mother Elizabeth and Princess Margaret.

Several thousand people cheered the smiling Queen stepped out of the blue and silver Comet jet.

On hand to greet her was Prime Minister Harold Macmillan and Home Secretary Richard A. Butler.

Magazine Criticizes China's Mao

HONG KONG (AP)—An important magazine in Communist China has published an article conceding that people like Mao Tse-tung can make mistakes. The leader of Chinese communism is generally spoken of by his followers as infallible.

The article, appearing in the authoritative New China semi-monthly mentions Mao through-out a lengthy discussion of problems and mistakes of Communist agricultural and industrial policies.

Mao is not mentioned by name in the critical passage saying a great man cannot always be correct. However, the writer used a Chinese word for great — "wei tai" — that is always reserved for Mao.

This provides strong support for speculation abroad that Mao faced a storm of criticism over his handling of China's "big leap forward" production campaign and his establishment of the barracks-type commune system last year.

Both programs ran into trouble and have undergone substantial revision. Excuses apparently are in order now.

The context of the startling statement about Mao indicates, however, that he has so far weathered the storm and still is very much in command.

Mao resigned as head of the Chinese Communist government when the problems came to light. But he kept his more powerful post as chairman of the Chinese Communist party.

National advertisers' annual expenditure in newspapers since 1950 has increased by over 220 million.
