Waterford Votes Again on School Millage March 26

By MEL NEWMAN

School millage will get another chance in Waterford Township.

The same 9-mills - for - two - years proposal which voters defeated Dec. 7 — at that time in tandem with a 10.8-million bond issue — has been scheduled for ballot March 26, it was announced at last night's school board meeting.

* * *

Thus, a somewhat hesitant board acceded to the pressures of petitions and resolutions presented by groups favoring a repeat election and to an optimistic interpretation of the results of a recent survey of school district parents.

The petitions, bearing about 2,000 signatures, were presented at the Feb. 6 meeting of the board.

QUESTIONNAIRES MAILED

This prompted a study — in the form of questionnaires mailed to parents — of the feasibility of a repeat election. March 26 was set as the date for the tentative ballot.

While survey returns were being examined, the school district administrative office received resolutions supporting the proposal from PTA chapters, Jaycee groups, school staffs and other organizations, according to Dr. Don O. Tatroe, superintendent of schools.

* * *

Early this week, the questionnaires were evaluated.

Of some 16,000 postcards mailed, 6,628 responses (slightly more than 40 per cent) were returned with a "yes" or "no" answer indicating either support for millage or a negative position.

54 PER CENT FOR

Of these, 3,601 were in support and 3,027 opposed — a 54-46 percentage breakdown.

Tatroe suggested that while the figures don't exactly amount to a mandate, they do offer passage of millage a reasonable chance.

* * *

"In essence, the board decision was based on the desire to give the schoolchildren every opportunity," he said.

Tatroe pointed out that the board is committed to levy in the first year only that part of the nine mills, should it be passed, which is needed.

ABOUT SIX MILLS

"That would probably be about six mills," he said.

He said the owner of a home with a state equalized valuation of $8,000 would pay an additional $72 if nine mills were levied or less than $50 if six mills were levied the first year.

* * *

Only 30 per cent of the district's parents voted in the last election.

* * *

If parents vote March 26 in the same volume they answered the questionnaire and if the yes-no ratio follows the same pattern, the proposal may pass.

"We now have a chance," said Tatroe.

UNSCHEDULED INCINERATION—Residents on East Iroquois near Orchard Lake found an unexpected bonfire on their street yesterday. How did the huge burning pile of trash get there? Well, a city refuse truck found its load was on fire and to save the truck, the load was dumped. Then the fire department was called.

'Spider' Rejoins Apollo 9 After 113-Mile Separation

SPACE CENTER, Houston (UPI) — Two astronauts flew their landing craft to a flawless rendezvous with the Apollo 9 command ship at 1:34 p.m. EST today after a chase from 113 miles away.

From Our News Wires

SPACE CENTER, Houston — Two astronauts gunned their "ungainly beast" lunar landing craft 113 miles from the Apollo 9 command ship today, on a dangerous chase in space that could make or break U.S. plans to land men on the moon this summer.

Lighting up the sky with a big orange cloud of fire, James A. McDivitt and Russell L. Schweickart fired their powerful landing engine and darted away from David R. Scott, who stayed behind in the command module called "Gumdrop."

The "Spider" pilots later discarded the lunar ship's four-legged landing stage and widened the gap between the lunar module's takeoff section and the command ship.

The separation of the ship's two parts was the most risky operation of the day. Poor communications from an African tracking station left the outcome of the maneuver in doubt for 12 minutes.

"The staging went OK," McDivitt finally reported. "However, Gumdrop can't find us in his optics (telescopes) any longer and we may have knocked out our tracking lights."

A 30-second blast from the lunar module then started the spacecraft on a course back toward the command ship to complete the lunar orbit maneuver rehearsal.

The object of today's tests was to get the lander as far from the mothership as lunar explorers would be before blasting off from the moon, and then to prove that "Spider" could chase down "Gumdrop" and hook up with it again.

In the first four hours of the orbital acrobatics, McDivitt and Schweickart tested nearly every operation moon pilots must perform to land on the moon and start their trip back home.

McDivitt and Schweickart, opening the fifth and busiest day of the 10-day orbital mission, transferred to the lunar lander shortly after midnight. The two ships were unlatched at 7:39 a.m. EST.

There were some initial difficulties in freeing the two ships, but after Scott flicked the separation switch twice, he radioed to McDivitt and Schweickart: "OK, you're free."

$60 Million of Rec Funds Eyed for Cities

LANSING (UPI) — Gov. William G. Milliken today recommended $60 million of the $100-million recreational bond issue be spent for urban-area facilities.

He said the other $40 million should go for state park, wildlife, fishery and like projects in rural regions.

Milliken acknowledged the fund breakdown would evoke cries of protest from conservationists, who want $70 million for state projects and only $30 million for big city facilities.

"But I believe that our greatest need, and therefore our greatest obligation, is to place expanded recreational opportunities within reach of the greatest number of people," he told the legislature in a special message.

Specifically, Milliken proposed the funds be distributed through the State Department of Natural Resources on this basis:

- $30 million for local grant programs, with the money appropriated on a population basis. This means the large cities will benefit most.
- $30 million for urban grants to counties over 100,000 population. Local units would put up another $23 million in matching funds.
- $40 million for state projects, including new and better parks, campgrounds, fishing facilities and hunting preserves.

Milliken asked the legislature to allot the funds over a five-year period instead of the 10 years proposed by former Gov. George Romney, to "cut inflationary losses."

Meeting Adjourned Amid a Disruption

By MARY SUNDSTROM

The Pontiac Board of Education was unable to act formally last night on a three-month reevaluation proposal for the planned west side high school site when disruptions forced an early adjournment of the meeting.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:50 p.m. by acting chairman Dr. Robert Turpin after several black youths manned the doors of the meeting room for about 15 minutes and said they would not let anyone leave or enter. Some members of the capacity audience of about 200 persons attempted to take over the meeting.

* * *

"We're going to have our meeting tonight," they said. "You're not going to have any (90-day) cooling-off period. Things are going to get hotter."

The door guards dispersed through efforts of Voice of Oakland County Action League (VOCAL) Chairman Leon Matthews and VOCAL members Mrs. Carole Sweeney.

"Cool it. This is a public meeting and you can't bar anyone from leaving or entering this room," Matthews said.

Just before the doors were manned, Matthews read a statement from VOCAL to Supt. Dr. Dana P. Whitmer and the school board members, regarding the educational situation in the City of Pontiac.

* * *

"Lack of creative, constructive and sensitive leadership by the superintendent of the district, the board of education and other elected leaders in Pontiac has fostered more conflict and division since July 1967 because you have either left things to chance or you ignored the black community when making significant decisions," the statement said.

"We will not give you a moment's rest until you make the kinds of decisions which are just, which guarantee the constitutional right of all children to equal educational opportunity and which rid our schools of their segregated condition.

'MUST HAVE PLANS'

"Unless you have plans to reduce tension, this 90-day reevaluation period will be as useless and uncreative and unchanging as have the last 20 months in this city," the statement said.

* * *

The city has been divided on the school site issue since Nov. 18, when the board

Holly Twp. Rescuers Hailed

2 Children Rescued From Lake

By DICK ROBINSON

Two young men were credited with saving the lives of two neighbor children, 3 and 5 years old, who fell through ice into five feet of freezing water in Holly Township yesterday afternoon.

CARL

of 4261 Grange Hall, are in satisfactory condition today at Flint Osteopathic Hospital. Carl was in critical condition yesterday.

Oakland County sheriff's deputy Dale Castora has recommended that civic citations be given to rescuers Denny Fortner, 22, and Paul Forsythe, 23, who live near the Jucks in the Hawaiian Gardens Trailer Park.

"Carl came within inches of dying," said his mother, Mrs. Gary Juck. "He was very cold and had convulsions. We owe his life to the man who saved him If he hadn't given mouth-to-mouth resuscitation, Carl wouldn't have lived."

Forsythe, who crawled 30 yards from shore with Fortner to reach the children gave Carl resuscitation for about half an hour on a small island in Lake Mauna Loa before being rescued by a boat.

Forsythe was on his way to work as a sprayer at Pontiac Motor Division at about 4 p.m. when he saw a crowd at the lake. He described the rescue this way:

The two men crawled out on the ice and fell through near the children but managed to get the two youngsters up on the ice.

Forsythe gave Theresa to Fortner. Fortner then handed her to an unidentified man who crawled out on the ice and took her to shore.

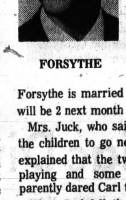

The two men then made their way to the island with Carl, who they said was blue and not breathing.

* * *

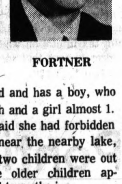

An unidentified man in an aluminum boat pushed his way out to the three with an oar and rescued the three. They were pulled back in with a rope by officers from the sheriff's department and Patrolman Thomas Mackey of the Holly Police Department.

Both men were in the freezing water for about 45 minutes, according to Castora. Forsythe said he could barely keep his head above water.

Fortner is employed at AC Spark Plug in Flint. He and his wife have one boy, 3.

FORSYTHE

FORTNER

Forsythe is married and has a boy, who will be 2 next month and a girl almost 1.

Mrs. Juck, who said she had forbidden the children to go near the nearby lake, explained that the two children were out playing and some older children apparently dared Carl to go the ice.

When Carl fell through, Theresa went out to help him, according to Mrs. Juck.

'$2,447,000 of County Taxes Illegal'

Oakland County residents will pay $2,447,000 this year in illegal property taxes, according to Boomie Mikrut, director of the Michigan Municipal Finance Commission.

MIKRUT

The sum represents that amount in nonvoted taxes collected above the 15-mill limitation by the county, the Oakland Intermediate School District and Oakland Community College, Mikrut said.

* * *

Local government officials say they have based the tax collection on an interpretation of Michigan's constitutional tax limitation laws as defined by Robert Allen, county corporation counsel.

Daniel T. Murphy, chairman of the county board of auditors, contends the collection has been legal. However, schools and college officials this week were mum on the subject.

Mikrut claims the illegality of the collection has been upheld by a recent state attorney general's opinion and that contention is supported by Mrs. Maxine Virtue, assistant attorney general and writer of the opinion.

The opinion stated, "The county has no authority to enter into a long-term lease contract with the building authority which commits for rental purposes funds beyond the millage resources of the county."

* * *

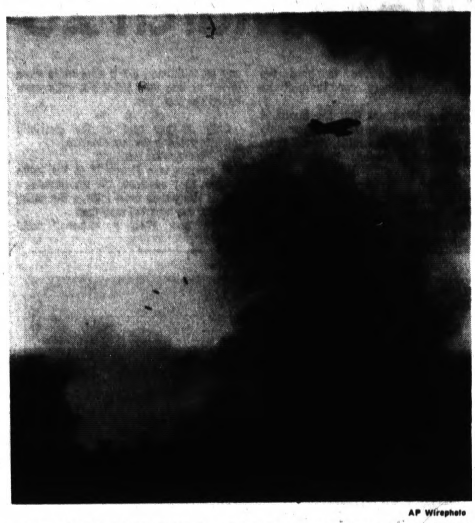

The opinion has a bearing on the east wing of the courthouse which for the past three years has been paid for by taxes levied over the 15-mill limit.

An exceptions clause to the limitation, reportedly put into the constitution to protect bondholders in times of financial emergency, has been the vehicle used to exceed the 15-mill nonvoted levy.

SPECIAL VOTES

Those 15 mills are traditionally divided between the county, the townships, the schools and in Oakland County one-tenth of a mill goes to the Intermediate School District. Other millage can be voted, such as that which has financed the parks and recreation program, special education, vocal education and the major share of the costs in local school districts.

NAPALM HITS ENEMY—A U.S. Phantom jet soars skyward through dark smoke after dropping three canisters of napalm on North Vietnamese forces in bunkers southwest of Da Nang, South Vietnam. Earlier attacks on the position by U.S. Marines, resulted in 15 dead Americans. After the air strikes, 11 North Vietnamese corpses were counted.

Make-or-Break Moon Test: 'Spider' Is Alone in Space

McDivitt reported that he could see the command ship's control jets firing "just as clear as a bell. It lights up the whole sky."

"There's a great big orange cloud," said Scott, observing the first firings of the lander's engines.

After early checks showed the $41-million Spider was working as planned, McDivitt fired the ship's big landing engine, controlling its power with a hand throttle much like those found on railroad locomotives. Controllers reported the 25-second burst went perfectly.

The two vehicles stayed close at first because, for the first time, men were orbiting the earth in a ship that can't get them home. The LEM was built to operate in space and on the moon but cannot reenter earth's atmosphere.

The two vehicles had been coupled since shortly after Apollo 9 was launched from Cape Kennedy Monday.

Initially, the astronauts pirouetted their craft around one another in a stately orbital ballet, snapping pictures and making certain the LEM systems were okay.

collected illegally, according to Boomie

The maneuvers simulate those that two astronauts will make when they launch a LEM from the moon to catch the main Apollo craft in lunar orbit for the trip home.

If Apollo 9 succeeds in the intricate maneuver, the way will be clear for Apolo 10 to fly a LEM in moon orbit in May and for Apollo 11 to attempt the historic landing in July.

Nixon Is Urged to Delay on ABMs

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Foreign Relations Committee asked the Nixon administration today to defer deployment of new missile systems — including the ABM — pending efforts to arrange negotiations with the Soviet Union on limiting nuclear weapons.

The committee commented in its report urging approval of the nuclear nonproliferation treaty, which went to the Senate floor.

Committee Chairman J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., predicted the pact to curb the spread of nuclear weapons will win the necessary two-thirds approval by the middle of next week.

The suggestion for delaying deployment of offensive and defensive nuclear weapons is advisory only and approval of the treaty would not mandate any such step.

School Board Session Ends Amid Disruption

chose a site on Pontaic State Hospital grounds, over a center city site at Bagley and Orchard Lake Avenue.

The board had also heard nine demands presented by representatives of the Black Student Union, a group representing all black students in Pontiac Schools.

* * *

They asked immediate action on implementation of their demands.

Dr. Turpin, acting chairman in place of board president Monroe Osmun, who was out of town, and the board heard the Black Student Union demands, and he explained that certain items could not be immediately implemented as requested.

MORE BLACK TEACHERS

Among the demands were: a reversal of the present decision to locate the proposed new super high school on Pontiac State Hospital grounds; more black teachers and administrators; more black cheerleaders; and an investigation of all Pontiac teachers regarding racist action, racist attitudes and discrimination against black students.

* * *

The board's reevaluation statement, which was the last item on the agenda, asked for a three-month period during which time the board would study alternate sites for the school; would discontinue architectural work on the school; and would ask that legislation for the sale of the state-owned hospital land be held off.

* * *

William Lacy, assistant superintendent, was directed by the board to make a study of the demands, and determine what could be done. He will make a full report to the board at the next regular meeting March 20.

* * *

Mrs. Annamarie Hayes, presently on leave of absence from Pontiac schools, was selected by Dr. Turpin to work with school administrators on sensitizing teachers, administrators and the school board to the problems of discrimination and racism.

Hudson Merger Plan Announced

One of Michigan's oldest and best-known firms — the J. L. Hudson Co. which has three major stores in Oakland County including one at the Pontiac Mall — apparently is destined to become part of a new $800-million corporation.

HUDSON

Plans for a merger with Dayton Corp. of Minneapolis, a diversified retailing organization, were announced yesterday by Joseph L. Hudson Jr., president of the Detroit department store.

* * *

The proposed merger, subject to approval of the stockholders of each company, will result in a new organization called Dayton-Hudson Corp., one of the 15 largest nonfood retailing firms in the United States.

SIX FULL-LINE STORES

The Detroit-based firm operates six full-line department stores, plus four smaller convenience stores in southeastern Michigan. It also owns and develops real estate properties generally related to three regional shopping centers.

* * *

* * *

Dayton Corp. estimated its total revenues at $442 million, with net income of $15.6 million for the same period.

VICE-CHAIRMAN

Under the proposal, Hudson will become vice chairman of the board of Dayton-Hudson Corp., with Bruce B. Dayton to become chairman of the board and chief executive officer.

Dayton's present duties as president of the Dayton Corp., will be assumed by Kenneth N. Dayton, currently serving as executive vice president of the Minneapolis firm.

* * *

The Minneapolis firm, which was founded in 1902, operates department stores, discount and hard goods stores, specialty stores for the sale of books and jewelry and shopping centers in Minnesota, Oregon, Arizona, Colorado, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Missouri, Massachusetts, California, Pennsylvania New Jersey and Delaware.

'County Illegal Tax Totals $2,447,000'

This year, however, the county, is levying .112 mill of nonvoted taxes beyond the 15-mill limit to meet payments to the building authority on east-wing lease agreements. The building authority uses these payments to meet bonding obligations on the structure. The .112 mill also includes provision for the payment of drain assessments.

* * *

Oakland County Intermediate Schools has levied .22 mill beyond the limitation to finance the operating budget and another .25 mill to pay off construction debts.

Oakland County Community College is levying .5 mill to meet its bonding obligations (also beyond the limitation).

SPECIAL LEGISLATION, BUT

The schools and the college have floated bonds on the basis of special state legislation which allows them to bond to a certain percentage of state equalized valuation.

Mikrut contends that while legislation might give these units the power to bond, it does not give them the power to levy taxes outside the limitation to pay off the bonds. Approval of previous bonding issues. Mikrut said was based on agreement that payments would be kept inside the limitation.

* * *

"Now they are asking me to approve more bond sales thereby allowing the creation of more emergency financial conditions, so that the exceptions clause of the constitutional tax limitaiton can then be used to levy over the 15-mill limit to meet payments."

PROOF NEEDED

Her opinion further stated that notices of sale of building authority revenue bonds will not be approved by the Municipal Finance Commission, unless "a showing is made that the annual rental payments can be made within the millage authority of the county."

This "showing" Mrs. Virtue defined as historical statements of financial practice which can prove that the amount of suggested yearly payments is feasible and can be paid from within the 15-mill limitation.

"The county has no authority to enter into a contract with the Building Authority or anybody except within the constitutional limit," Mrs. Virtue told The Pontiac Press. "The county is legally obligated to budget so that it does stay within the 15-mill limit."

She noted that community colleges and intermediate school districts are just as committed to remain within voted millage and the limitation as anyone else.

She said previous commitments should govern the signing of any new contracts.

"This position isn't something we invented last week," Mrs. Virtue said. "This has been emphasized by our office, the Treasury Department and the Michigan Municipal Finance Commission ever since the adoption of the new State Constitution in 1963."

* * *

Walter H. Nikkel, executive director of business services for Oakland Community College, refused to comment on the stands taken by the Michigan Municipal Finance Commission and the State Atorney-General's office.

* * *

"We will not make any statement until we have reviewed the position of the Finance Commission and the attorney general with our bond counsel," Nikkel said.

Dr. William J. Emerson, superintendent of the Oakland Intermediate School District, said he had not been apprised of the state's decision and would make no comment.

State 15-Mill Ruling Argued

Oakland County officials have taken issue with the state attorney general's opinion regarding the 15-mill limitation.

The opinion, written by Mrs. Maxine Virtue, assistant attorney general, reads: . . . "the county has no authority to enter into a long-term lease contract with the building authority which commits for rental purposes funds beyond the millage resources of the county."

* * *

A counteropinion, prepared by County Corporation Counsel Robert Allen and Claude H. Stevens, bonding counsel, holds that the state does not limit the taxing power to 15 mills but uses the terms "millage resources" and "millage authority."

It further states that the position of the attorney general is not clear, and quotes the nonapplication of limitations clause in the constitution which says, "The foregoing limitations shall not apply to taxes imposed for the payment of . . . contract obligations in anticipation of which bonds are issued, which taxes may be imposed without limitatoin as to rate or amount . . ."

* * *

Allen and Stevens maintain in their opinion that "No court, or attorney has power to place such taxes within the 15-mill tax limitation when the Constitution expressly says that such limitation 'shall not apply' thereto."

N-Pact Reaches the Senate Floor

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nuclear nonproliferation treaty met sharp—but predictable — criticism today as it finally reached the Senate floor accompanied by a demand for immediate big-power disarmament talks.

Republican Barry Goldwater of Arizona, member of a small, bipartisan band of opponents, said in a prepared Senate speech that ratification of the treaty would assure "the role of the United States as the policeman of the world."

* * *

Despite the opposition, Chairman J. W. Fulbright of the foreign relations committee said he expected two-thirds approval by the Senate within a few days.

PROVISIONS OF PACT

Under the pact, nuclear countries promise they will not turn over nuclear weapons or the know-how for making them to have-not countries. The latter promise not to try to acquire or develop such weapons.

The pact will become effective when ratified by this country, Great Britain, Russia and any 40 other countries.

* * *

Thus far, Great Britain is the only nuclear power that has ratified it. A total of 27 nonnuclear countries have done the same.

Birmingham

Plans Firmed for 3-Story Office Building

BIRMINGHAM — Luckenbach-Durkee and Associates Inc., an architectural firm based at 287 E. Maple, has firmed up plans for construction of a three-story office building on a corner lot at Southfield and Maple, just off the central business district.

Construction will begin later next week following the razing of vacant houses on the property. The building, which will have 12,500 square feet of office space, is expected to be ready for occupancy by October 1.

* * *

The structure will feature a mahogany front, tinted bronze-framed windows and an underground parking garage for tenants. The Luckenbach firm will use the new facility as its headquarters.

A group of investors called 101 Southfield Inc. is financing the $440,000 project. Carl Luckenbach, spokesman for 101, said the new corporation is currently exploring other potential office building sites in Birmingham for possible investment.

"Birmingham Sesquicentennial — Progress With Hospitality," will be the theme for this year's Michigan Week (May 17-25) in Birmingham, according to Sam Mitchell, chairman of the local Michigan Week committee.

Mitchell, who is executive vice president of the Chamberlain Real Estate Co., 975 S. Hunter, also announced the appointment of Harry F. Locke, 1726 Stanley who will coordinate the annual display of area-produced products that will be exhibited at Birmingham business locations during the special week.

"Our Michigan Week committee feels this year's theme will help reflect the solid, sure way our community has grown since the first permanent settlement of Birmingham 150 years ago," Mitchell said.

* * *

"We hope that the theme will motivate today's citizens to continue to build our community with the same pride and friendly cooperative attitude they have demonstrated in the past."

The local Michigan Week committee hopes to help commemorate the sesquicentennial by presenting the historical Hunter House, 264 W. Brown, to the city of Birmingham on Heritage Day, May 20.

Ronald E. Soboleski of 7276 Stonebrook, West Bloomfield Township, has been promoted to the new position of director of agencies by the Gleaner Life Insurance Society of 1600 N. Woodward.

Soboleski has been director of manpower development since he joined the company last fall.

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — S. Tenney McGraw, vice chairman of the Birmingham-Bloomfield Bank, has been named chairman of Business and Professional Solicitations for the 1969 Community House Fund Drive.

McGraw, of 5180 Pon Valley Road, has recruited a 12-man committee, representing various occupations, geographical locations and service club affiliations to implement the solicitation drive.

Gold Price Soars in Europe Markets

PARIS (AP) — Gold soared to another record high on the Paris free market today as labor unions pressed ahead with plans for a nationwide strike next week to back their demands for big wage increases.

* * *

Despite indications that the government was trying to dampen the speculative fever on gold, the price for an ounce bounced up to $48.31, compared to $47.92 yesterday. Since last Friday, the ounce price has gone up $2.08 as Frenchmen, worried over the future of the franc, sought a haven for their liquid funds.

* * *

Gold prices were on a merry-go-round all over Europe, with prices up everywhere.

* * *

By midday, gold was quoted at $43.45-$43.65 in Zurich, up from yesterday's close of $43.15-$43.45. Dealers said volume might come close to the 11-12 tons traded yesterday.

Pontiac Div. Unveils Trans Am

The Trans Am, a Pontiac Motor Division new high-performance Firebird, will be on display at the 61st annual Chicago Automobile Show which opens this weekend and will go on sale next month.

F. J. McDonald, Pontiac's new general manager, said the Trans Am, available both in hardtop and convertible styles, features a floating 60-inch airfoil spanning the rear deck. It also has a special hood with full-length, functional scoops and functional air outlets behind the front wheel openings for added engine compartment cooling.

* * *

As with the Judge, a new super GTO unveiled by Pontiac earlier this year, the Trans Am is said to "go performance one step better."

* * *

Striping runs the full length of the car over the hood, roof, rear deck and airfoil. The rear-end panel is painted to match the striping.

The standard power plant is a 400-cubic-inch Ram Air engine developing 335 horsepower, a four-barrel Quadra-Jet carburetor and dual exhausts. These are mated with a three-speed floor-mounted stick shift and 3.55:1 locking axle.

The Trans Am has special high-effort variable-ratio power steering and high-effort power brakes with front discs. Suspension features heavy-duty springs and shocks and a heavy-duty, one-inch stabilizer bar with high-rate bushings.

* * *

Riding on a 108.1-inch wheelbase, the Trans Am has F70-14 Fiberglas belted tires mounted on seven-inch wheels with a wide-track stance of 60 inches both front and rear.

* * *

Lowest Sales Price on Firebird Is Cut

Pontiac Motor Division today announced an equipment adjustment on its Firebird series which lowers the price by as much as $72.

New manufacturer's retail prices, effective next week, on the Firebird hardtop coupe, will be $2,759, down $72 from the current price of $2,831; and the new price of the Firebird convertible will be $2,989, down $56 from the current $3,045 price.

Deleted as standard equipment will be wide oval tires, Space-Saver spare tire, special roof moldings, as well as glove box and instrument panel lamps.

These deleted features, however, will be available as extra-cost options.

Mrs. Meir Set as Israeli Prime Minister

JERUSALEM (AP) — Israel's ruling Labor party today completed its choice of former Foreign Minister Golda Meir to be Israel's next prime minister. Barring an unforeseen hitch, President Zalman Shazar will ask her no later than Monday to form a government.

The Labor party's central committee voted 287-45 to endorse the Jewish nation's leading woman politician as the successor to Prime Minister Levi Eshkol, who died Feb. 26 of a heart attack. The opposition came mainly from backers of Defense Minister Moshe Dayan, whose elevation to the prime ministry after the election is opposed by Mrs. Meir.

Mrs. Meir favors Deputy Prime Minister Yigal Allon over Dayan. But political observers say she will need the popular Dayan to continue as defense minister to keep up public morale.

The one-eyed defense minister said earlier this week he would be willing to serve under Mrs. Meir if she were chosen by the party committee.

NOW AGED 70

Now 70, the former Milwaukee schoolteacher will be Israel's fourth prime minister and probably its last government chief from the generation of immigrants who founded the Jewish nation. After her, the leadership is expected to pass on to the native-born Sabras, like Allon and Dayan.

Mrs. Meir smoked incessantly as she sat in the third row, wearing a navy blue dress. Dayan sat unnoticed well back in the hall and left when the meeting was half over. A spokesman for him, Shimon Peres, told the delegates that the Dayan faction would accept Mrs. Meir and added "we are saving our decision" on whether the defense minister would bid for the top post in November.

Although Labor party leaders had asked her last week if she would accept the post, Mrs. Meir withheld her decision until the central committee voting. Privately she expressed fear that the strain of leadership might prove too much for her health.

Speaking hesitantly in a soft voice, she told the committee today that she would accept even though the job "terrified" her. She indicated she would not change the makeup of Eshkol's cabinet.

'SUITED FOR MISSION'

Pinhas Sapir, secretary-general of the party, told the party caucus today that "Golda is suited for a public mission. She has the ability to lead and the authority in the country and the labor movement. And she is accepted by almost everybody."

Amid the political activity, the war between the government and Arab terrorists continued. Police blew up several small houses owned by two Arabs in Old Jerusalem after caches of arms were found in the buildings.

A police spokesman said security forces destroyed five one-room huts and sheds in Wadi Joz and the second floor of a two-story building in the Abu-tor suburb.

The property belonged to two men who the spokesman said were members of the Popular Front for the Liberation of Palestine. The front is a Palestinian commando organization which has claimed its members bombed a Jerusalem supermarket on Feb. 21 and the cafeteria at the Hebrew University Thursday.

2 DEAD, 9 HURT

Two Jews were killed in the supermarket explosion and nine were wounded. The blast at the university injured 28 students.

Elsewhere in the Middle East, Egypt's semiofficial newspaper Al Ahram said the United States may have concluded an agreement to deliver 150 M48 Patton tanks to Israel. The newspaper reported it had reliable information that the tanks would be sent to Rotterdam from a U.S. base in West Germany.

The paper also claimed a group of Israeli pilots are being trained to fly U.S. Phantom jet fighters at a U.S. base in West Germany.

The editor of Al Ahram wrote in his weekly editorial that the current power struggle in Syria could undermine Arab military strategy against Israel. The editor, Muhammed Hassanein Heikal, is a confidant of President Gamal Abdel Nasser and usually reflects his views. Heikal said Israel has a "technological superiority" which the Arab states must offset by launching a coordinated land and air assault against the Jewish state and then maintain a protracted war for several weeks.

* * *

Syria is a "main pillar" of the Arabs' eastern front, he said, and the internal affairs of that nation are therefore of interest to her Arab neighbors. Rival factions have been locked in a power struggle in Syria since Defense Minister Hafez Assad reportedly staged a bloodless coup last week.

BELL REMOVAL—The 82-year-old bell of the former Methodist Church in Milford is removed from the building's weathered belfry yesterday morning. The building was purchased from the church congregation in 1967 by Lodge No. 165, F&AM, which is using it for a Masonic Temple. Lodge members decided to remove the 42-inch brass bell, which reportedly weighs about 1,400 pounds and was cast in 1887 by the McNeely Co. of Troy, N.Y., because of fears that it might fall, according to a lodge spokesman. A crane from the Ypsilanti Steel Co. handled the job.

Local Voting Monday in Nine Area Villages

Elections of local officials will be held in area villages Monday. One special election is scheduled.

Avon Township will vote on a proposed charter which would create a new city, Rochester Hills.

* * *

Polls for all the elections will open at 7 a.m. and close at 8 p.m.

Lake Orion

Four candidates, all incumbents, have filed for council in Lake Orion.

* * *

The top three candidates in vote total will be elected to three-year terms while the fourth will serve one year.

Oxford

* * *

Now on council are Village President Edmund A. Unger, who is not seeking reelection, Allen, and incumbent Harold J. Phipps, who has been conducting a sticker campaign.

Two of the seats are two-year terms, to be filled by the two candidates receiving the highest number of votes. The candidate third in total vote will be elected to a one-year term.

Leonard

* * *

Other candidates and their parties are: president, Cecil Liestman (R), 69 E. Division; treasurer, Eleanor Hamilton (D), 4754 Forest; assessor, Dwight Patterson (R), 4066 Forest; clerk, Mrs. Calvin Scheall (D), 4260 Baza; and trustees, Walter Berklich (R), 114 W. Elmwood, and Charles Hamilton (D), 4754 Forest.

Holly

Six candidates, all unopposed are seeking office in Holly's election Monday. Five will be on the ballot and the sixth is conducting a sticker campaign.

* * *

Betty Oliver, 113 Cogshall is running for clerk, and Grant Hulet, 208 Cogshall, for village assessor.

* * *

Ortonville

Four candidates will be vying for the three council seats on the Ortonville ballot Monday.

Seeking two-year council seats are Donald Barns, 654 E. Ridge; Lester Troyer, 361 Troyer and Gary French, 424 Schoolhouse, all Republicans, and Lawrence Follis, 477 Ball, a Democrat. Barns and Troyer are incumbents.

* * *

Other candidates for one-year terms include council president Charles Sherman, clerk Lavern Borst, 464 Schoolhouse, treasurer Robert Sherman, 147 South, and assessor Raymond Long, 355 Sherman.

Clarkston

It will be strictly an incumbent's election Monday, barring any unforeseen write-in campaign.

Seeking one-year terms are council president Frank Russell, 20 N. Main; clerk Artemus Pappas, 55 W. Washington; treasurer Mary Ann Pappas, 55 W. Washington, and assessor Ralph Thayer, 15 Miller.

* * *

The three councilmen seeking reelection to two-year terms are Richard Johnston; Willis Kushman, 6765 Princess; and Donald E. Cooper, 29 E. Washington.

Milford

The only real contest in Milford is for two village council seats. Three candidates have filed for the three-year posts. They are Charles Parks, 214 E. Liberty, Dale Barr, 767 Friar, and incumbent Paul Plotzer, 618 S. Main.

Unopposed for a two-year term as village president is incumbent Wilbur Johnson, 648 Atlantic.

Romeo

Nine persons, all Republicans, are candidates for election in Romeo Monday. All are running unopposed.

They include Council president Donald Mosher, 122 Bradley; clerk Norman Engel, 131 Tillson; treasurer Elaine Hosner, 192 Croswell; and assessor Fred Ebeling, 222 Benjamin.

Engel, Ebeling and Mrs. Hosner are incumbents.

Candidates for the library board include Christian Feddersen, 129 1st Street and incumbent Theodora Raymond, 197 Washington.

All terms are for two years except for clerk, treasurer and assessor, which are one-year terms.

South Lyon

Five residents have filed for council and two for mayor in South Lyon.

Running for the two council seats are John R. Ellsworth of 205 Elm Place, Donald G. Scheel of 575 Orchard Ridge, Park S. Curry of 304 E. Lake, and incumbents Herbert Bondy of 596 Hagadorn and Vincent G. Weinburger of 320 Whipple.

Running for mayor are Andrew T. Rajkovich of 169 University and incumbent John E. Noel of 228 W. Liberty.

'State May Realign Priorities'

Help on Way for I-275, M59?

Sol Lomerson, chairman of the Oakland County Road Commission, says he believes the State Highway Commission may realign its project priorities to include construction and improvement of I-275 and M59 in the near future.

Lomerson spoke following a meeting last week between the Oakland County Road Commission and the State Highway Commission in Detroit.

* * *

"Even if a solution is not imminent," Lomerson reported, "I am encouraged by the fact that we have reached a common understanding of the extent and urgency of the county's road needs."

Lomerson said a letter had been sent to the State Highway Commission prior to the meeting in which he outlined several needed road improvements. He asked that the 1.9-mile stretch between Airport Road and Williams Lake Road be widened to five lanes and available for use in the fall of 1970.

M59 STRETCH

He said he also had asked improvements, at the earliest possible date on a stretch of M59 which runs through White Lake Township and the eastern half of Highland Township. Lomerson, indiscussing the stretch, said, "traffic is quite heavy and the curves and hills are so prevalent that passing is almost impossible and accidents are too frequent."

"We believe that a study of the entire trunkline system in Michigan would reveal few, if any, similar two-lane state trunklines with as many poor characteristics and as much traffic, particularly truck traffic, where the trunkline is basically a 'long-trip' type facility," Lomerson said.

Lomerson noted that traffic on M59 is currently about 17,000 vehicles per day near the east end, and about 9,000 per day on the west end to U.S. 23.

"The problem west of Pontiac becomes very acute where M59 and other close parallel routes either become nonexistent or funnel into narrow 20-foot wide road — M59 from Airport Road west — for some 15 or 16 miles before the north-and-south U.S. 23 freeway is reached," Lomerson told state officials.

CHASTISES STATE

He also chastised the state because of its failure to build the proposed I-275 expressway which would have provided access to Northwestern Highway. The county is still paying $90,000 per year on a bonding issue which was to have provided funds for the extension of Northwestern Highway.

Lomerson said it is his strong belief that the state has an obligation to carry out the intent of this agreement.

Avon Township Residents Vote Monday on Cityhood

AVON TOWNSHIP — Residents will have their first chance to decide Monday on the proposed charter for the new City of Rochester Hills.

If the decision is in favor of the charter, the city will become a fact at 12:01 a.m. April 10 with the city council, also to be elected Monday, holding its first meeting at 7 p.m. on that date.

* * *

If the charter fails to pass, another vote can be taken on the question any time before January 1970 — two years after the township's approval of incorporation.

Some opposition to cityhood has surfaced during the past week, with pamphlets citing increased costs of city services being circulated in the township.

COST RISE NOTED

One such pamphlet notes that costs of many city services have gone up 75 to 150 per cent on the average nationally during the last 10 years.

However, representatives of Avon Township Citizens for Better Governemnt (ATCBG), which supports the charter, have stated that projections do not indicate a tax increase for all township citizens.

* * *

They peg the proposed city's tax rate at about 3.16 mills, which would amount to an increase of .37 mills for citizens in the Rochester fire district and a decrease of 2.13 mills for residents of Brooklands and Avondale fire districts.

Council candidates, seven of whom will be elected if the charter passes, include Earl Borden, 56 Texas; Mrs. Betty Chastain, 1921 S. Livernois; George J. Ennis, 800 Ironstone; William E. McCullough, 441 Willowtree; Mrs. Arlene L. Rampson, 860 Castlebar; Robert D. Ruger, 483 Rochdale; Mrs. Germaine A. Schneider, 519 Willowtree; George L. Schutte, 708 Sandstone; Ronald E. Todd, 2477 Blockton; Philip K. Trimble, 195 Windsor; Carl Green, 614 W. South Blvd.; and Harry S. Huber, 167 Winry.

4 NOW TRUSTEES

Unopposed for city clerk is Mrs. Thelma G. Spencer, 161 Perrydale, incumbent township clerk. Mrs. Helen V. Allen, 2556 Gerald, incumbent township treasurer, will oppose Harry Vincent Jr., 30 Cleveport, in the race for city treasurer.

* * *

The election of city officials, however, will mean nothing if the charter is not approved. Only township residents may vote.

Per Diem Hike Goes to Board

The Oakland County Board of Supervisors Finance Committee, meeting with just four members present, yesterday morning recommended approval of a $13,000 increase in the amount budgeted for per diem pay for members of various county boards and commissions.

Per diem pay for members of the Retirement and Planning Commission, the Personnel Appeals Board, the County Airport Committee, the Veterans Affairs Department, the Boards of Institutions and Health, the Plat, Tax Allocation, County Library and Mental Health boards and the Board of Canvassers will be raised from $20 to $35, if the full board of supervisors agrees.

* * *

Also due for raises are members of the Board of Public Works and the County Drainage Board, however money for these increases will come from the departments and the drain projects involved.

Daniel T. Murphy, chairman of the board of auditors, estimated the total cost of the county-paid boards at $39,340. Last year's figure was $22,480.

The committee also approved a transfer of $314,000 from the utilities, parking lots and roads portion of the budget to get construction of the new service center under way.

Milliken Party Set for March 26

Tickets for Gov. William G. Milliken's birthday "Beefsteak Party" March 26 at Detroit's Latin Quarter are now available from Mrs. Shelley Spann, 31725 Topper Court, Birmingham.

The $100-per-couple affair, a repeat performance from last year, will be limited to 350 couples.

* * *

Thomas B. Adams, chairman of the board of Campbell-Ewald Co., who heads up the committee of 100 prominent Michigan citizens sponsoring the party, said funds from the dinner will be used to promote and assist the governor's political activities.

Master of ceremonies for the evening will be Creighton Holden, owner-manager of the St. Clair Inn, St. Clair. Thinly sliced roast beef on bread will be informally and continuously served during the evening.

Preparation Dates for Budget Slated

BRANDON TOWNSHIP — The Township Board has established March 17 and 18 as preparation dates for the new budget. The annual budget hearing is set for April 5.

The board also heard complaints from residents on alleged violations of the garbage and junk ordinance.

* * *

Residents were informed that the ordinances are presently being tightly enforced. All future violators of the ordinance, a board spokesman noted, will be prosecuted.

Walled Lake Singout to Host State Council

WALLED LAKE — The Walled Lake Singout group will host the third annual Michigan Action Council tomorrow and Sunday at United Missionary Church, 1795 N. Pontiac Trail.

The two-day event will feature discussions on future activities of state Singout groups.

Troy Museum to Show Early Farm Machinery

TROY — The City Historical Museum, located in the old city hall at 60 W. Wattles, will ehxibit early farm equipment during March.

In a mock "country store" will be such items as a plow, a corn sheller, a seeder, a cultivator, a small yoke for training young oxen, a cradle and a wooden pitchfork.

* * *

The museum is open Tuesdays and Thursdays from 1-4 p.m. and at other times by appointment.

OES Dinner Is Sunday

LAKE ORION — Orion Chapter No. 340, OES, will serve a roast beef dinner Sunday.

The dinner, to take place at the Orion Masonic Temple, 24 N. Broadway, from 12:30-3:30 p.m., will be open to the public.

Roast Beef Dinner

ORTONVILLE — Ortonville OES 286 will serve a roast beef dinner at the Masonic Hall at 5:30 p.m. tomorrow.

Donations for adults will be $1.75 and children $1.

Washroom Plan Is in Hot Water

The key to the executive washroom may have status in some areas, but it's been ignored in Oakland County.

Now that may change.

Trend-setter Daniel W. Barry, drain commissioner, has reportedly demanded and apparently may get his own private facilities as planned into the new $2-million service center to be erected on Watkins Lake Road.

* * *

Supervisor Lawrence Pernick, D-Southfield, took exception to the Barry proposal as presented in a finance committee session yesterday.

"Are you (planners) starting something new?" asked Pernick. He noted that supervisors don't have private offices, let alone private washrooms.

NEED QUESTIONED

Pernick also questioned the need for two conference rooms, one for the Department of Public Works and one for the Drain Commission, both a part of the new building.

Final plans for the Service Center will not be approved until mid-April. The washroom-conference room controversy appears open until that time.

Pipeline Trial Starts Thursday

The trial involving condemnation suits filed by the Lakehead Pipeline Co. against nearly 80 property owners in several northern Oakland County townships is scheduled to begin Thursday in Oakland County Probate Court.

Since the need for necessity is seldom lost by a utility company in court, property owners are apparently banking that their show of dissent against Lakehead will force the company to relocate its proposed line, according to Robert McKenney, Holly attorney representing some of the property owners.

* * *

Most of the defendants are small property owners and are fighting Lakehead's action on the grounds that they are being taken advantage of and because they do not want to give up their land. They also contend they fear possible oil leaks from the line.

Lakehead has reportedly offered most of the property owners more than $800 an acre for easement rights with the average easement extending over three acres.

DEFENDS COMPANY

Leslie Fleming, an attorney with a Detroit law firm representing Lakehead, has contended the company has gone out of its way to minimize the difficulties property owners might have.

He added that Lakehead has had to direct the line through Northern Oakland County in order to get away from population centers and commercial developments.

Thomas McCombs, a Flint attorney who represents several of the defendants in Oakland County and Livingston County, contends the property owner's fight is far from over.

* * *

He previously stated at a public hearing that he would push for an alternate route for the pipeline which would utilize county roads.

He said that legislation enacted in 1875 which gives utility companies and government bodies the right to condemn property for acquisition rights is archaic and puts the property owners at a clear disadvantage. Fleming has also concurred on the need for new legislation.

SOURCE OF OPPOSITION

Property owner opposition has come in Rose, Springfield, Groveland, Brandon, Oxford and Addison townships.

Kidnaping Suspect Weeps at Hearing

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Ruth Eisemann-Schier, 26-year-old accused kidnaper, wept during a stormy arraignment in federal court and declared "all of the people" were against her.

The Honduras - born woman was formally charged Thursday with complicity in the kidnaping last Dec. 17 of Georgia coed Barbara Mackle, 20, who was rescued after being for 86 hours buried underground in a box near Atlanta. Miss Mackle's father paid $500,000 ransom, most of which was recovered.

* * *

Also charged in the case is Gary Steven Krist, 23, captured five days after the kidnaping, who was scheduled for a Georgia court arraignment today.

Miss Schier was arrested in Norman, Okla., 30 miles south of Oklahoma City, by FBI agents Wednesday. She had been living as a part-time college student and working in a drive-in restaurant.

Her arraignment was on a package of federal charges which included extortion, interstate transportation in aid of racketeering enterprises and aiding and abetting extortion.

A hearing on extraditing Miss Schier was scheduled for next Wednesday.

At her court arraignment Miss Schier said, "All of the people are against me, and me alone."

James Harrod, court-appointed defense attorney, asked U.S. Commissioner James Gullett to advise Miss Schier that she was not required to talk with law enforcement officers at any time.

Asst. U.S. Dist. Atty. John Raley countered with a demand that she be instructed that she was not prohibited from talking with officials if she wanted to.

In accordance with Harrod's request, the commissioner advised Miss Schier she did not have to make statements to anyone.

Advise Avon Voters

Avon Township voters go to the polls Monday to decide on a proposed city charter and elect a slate of city officers. If the vote is affirmative, the hilly township will become the City of Rochester Hills, the largest in the county, and those elected will take up the reins of government.

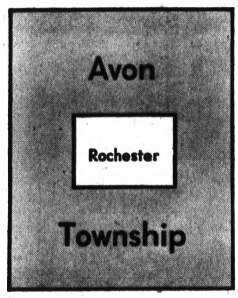

★ ★ ★

The question now is not one of incorporation. That decision was made Jan. 15, 1968. Monday's decision merely ratifies what has gone before.

The PRESS favors approval of the charter. It appears to be a good one.

Until the village of Rochester incorporated as a city two years ago, the Avon-Rochester area appeared destined to become one day a handsome suburban city with the appropriate residential, industrial and commercial areas.

This would have been a city with an excellent central business district, a successful identifiable downtown. There would have been plenty of room for growth and without doubt the area would have prospered.

However, Rochester incorporated and township residents reacted defensively to prevent potential tax loss through future annexation. Hence, there is Monday's vote which in all probability will mean creation of a new city.

Despite strong stands by those running for office that the area should be unified and the creation of the city of Rochester Hills is merely for bargaining power, consolidation unfortunately may be a remote possibility.

With little room to grow, Rochester needs the township. Without the added land area, Rochester can at best hope only to maintain its current size.

It is a valid contention, however, that without Monday's incorporation, Rochester could annex just the desirable portions of the township, leaving problem areas to struggle alone, as has happened in Oakland County before.

★ ★ ★

Avon Township, meantime, becomes a city only governmentally. It will not for some time — if ever — have a central business district and community identity. Already heavily-taxed property owners must soon provide services now derived elsewhere. Further, if Rochester should slide downhill, a blighted section could sit in the midst.

★ ★ ★

Two separate cities is not the desirable course to follow. Rochester is 1.6 square miles and will be surrounded by 34.4 square miles of the projected city of Rochester Hills.

The PRESS urges voters to select those candidates who pledge to work with all their resources to unify the area. Therefore, we urge voters to cast yes votes for the charter, but to select carefully from the list of candidates for office.

Favor School Site Deferral

The PRESS goes along with the proposal released last Monday by the Pontiac Board of Education that called for a three-month reevaluation period on determination of the site for the $19-million high school complex.

Originally planned for erection on a 65-acre tract of Pontiac State Hospital land, the location evoked a considerable amount of adverse sentiment on the part of those favoring a more central location.

The issue assumed such divisive and emotional proportions that it became apparent that the choice of either location would seriously antagonize a sizable element of the community.

The school board, therefore, decided on the "moratorium" to enable it to reappraise the two sites, and perhaps consider a third, meanwhile halting action already initiated toward implementation of the State Hospital property concept.

The school board, by its action, has deferred to the conflicting sentiment of the local citizenry. On the other hand, the board in the final analysis is the only agency empowered to make the ultimate decision on the location of the proposed school.

In light of that fact, the citizenry, once the decision is made, owes it to the board and to itself to accept the determination in true democratic spirit, and join hands in support of what will be a tremendous educational facility that should favorably affect the social climate of the community.

Mind Pills?

The Lansing State Journal

How many times has the average school child wished that instead of the tedious hours of study, homework and examinations, science would develop a "get smart" pill? Well, science is working on it, and the use of brain stimulants, mind erasers and other brain-affecting chemicals may not be far off.

★ ★ ★

A research psychologist from the University of California told an educators' conference in Atlantic City that a number of chemicals will be available in the near future to cause physical and cognative changes in the brains of children, but he thought most of them would be used as "supplemental therapy," with the environment still providing the major stimuli.

★ ★ ★

Referring to these "potions and elixirs of the mind," Dr. David Kresh added, "I must confess to you that I cannot avoid a dread feeling of unease about the future. Who will control the brain controllers and to what end?"

★ ★ ★

This is more than a rhetorical question. The moral question involved is more serious than that encountered in heart transplants, for it could affect wide segments of the population. Now is the time to lay a foundation of ethical consideration on the subject, before laboratory experiments already under way produce a Frankenstein.

Health Care

Wichita (Kan.) Beacon

America will completely reshape its system of health care, if labor leader Walter Reuther and a committee of leaders in medicine, economics and politics succeed.

They want a comprehensive plan of national health insurance covering every American and making high quality care available to everyone.

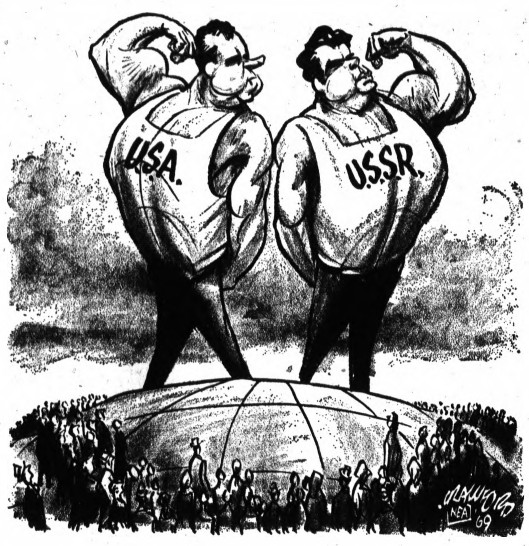

★ ★ ★

The country really has no system of health care, says Reuther. And he is right. We have an assortment of private and public health care plans which range all the way from expensive private health insurance with strict limits on coverage, to such complete medical care as that provided military personnel and their dependents.

★ ★ ★

This wouldn't be bad, if everyone in the country were thus assured good health care. But there are great gaps as demonstrated by our vital statistics, which show that for all our vaunted modern knowledge and equipment, our health records won't stand up to those of many other western nations.

If a sound health insurance program can be worked out, stressing preventive as well as curative care, this would be a healthier nation.

'Maybe We'd Impress 'Em More If We Just Shook Hands!'

David Lawrence Says:

Nixon's Preparation Intensive

WASHINGTON—Millions of persons who heard President Nixon talk during his televised news conference on Tuesday night must have wondered if he had memorized the answers in advance or if they were impromptu and "off the cuff."

LAWRENCE

The session was indeed unique and an unprecedented confrontation between the press and a president of the United States who had just returned from abroad. It lasted 55 minutes—the longest televised news conference ever held at the White House.

★ ★ ★

Subjects of such great importance in international affairs — directly related to the peace of the world — were covered so fully that it is natural for curiosity to be expressed as to how Mr. Nixon had trained himself for the occasion. For unquestionably it was a most unusual news conference — comprehensive answers delivered in almost perfect syntax and with clear-cut statements on issues of far-reaching significance.

Preparation for the conference on Mr. Nixon's part can be said really to have started nearly 10 days before he left for Europe. He insisted on one of the most intensive series of briefings on foreign affairs ever arranged for a president.

5 THICK VOLUMES

Five thick volumes of background papers were compiled by the State Department about the five countries which the President was to visit. Another volume covered NATO and related European problems.

Mr. Nixon read every word of these documents and spent long hours studying them at night.

Also, there was a special briefing at the Pentagon for the President, and every day for a full week White House aides from the National Security Council contributed more briefings.

All this preparation, of course, was not designed only for the President's meeting with the press. It was his means of studying up for the talks scheduled with the leaders of the European countries.

VARIETY OF TOPICS

It enabled the President to discuss a variety of topics in the five capitals which he visited. The frank exchanges with foreign leaders which took place during his trip also sharpened the President's mind for the news conference.

Mr. Nixon realized before his departure for Europe that he would have to explain and report on his mission to the American people when he returned home.

It had been planned in advance that he would make his television presentation on Thursday night, four days after he was back in Washington. But when he went to his office on Monday, he decided that the news conference should be held the very next day because of the element of timeliness.

Also, he wanted to answer questions while his mind was filled with the subject and not after he had become absorbed in meetings that would be held during the week inside the government.

MEMORY WORK

But how did Mr. Nixon get ready for the questions themselves, as all of the latter were spontaneously asked?

★ ★ ★

He and his aides could, of course, easily predict beforehand what would be the subjects on which news would be sought by the press. Aides say that the President did not memorize his opening statement or his replies to the questions which he was sure would be put to him. He did, however, prepare a few guidelines for his opening statement and for answers to certain questions, and committed some of these to memory.

★ ★ ★

As one assistant put it, "Mr. Nixon never memorizes words or phrases, but does memorize topics and ideas."

The President felt, of course, that at his Tuesday night news conference — carried nationwide on television and radio — he was talking not just to the newsmen gathered in the East Room of the White House but to the American people as a whole and also to the peoples of Europe, Asia, Latin America and Africa. For American policy today has a direct bearing on almost every country because of a universal obligation to maintain peace in the world.

Bob Considine Says:

Common Mart Founder Has Given Europe Unity

PARIS — Jean Monnet, one of the founding fathers of the European Common Mart, is a quiet little man who lives in a thatched-roof farmhouse outside Paris. He is far from the maddening crowd, inconspicuous as a church mouse, but in a sense he had as much to do with the shaping of present-day Europe as most of the military dictators of by-gone centuries.

CONSIDINE

He and the late Robert Shuman proved that the pence is mightier than the sword.

★ ★ ★

It would be difficult to conceive of a war today between or among West Germany, France, Belgium, Italy, Luxemburg and/or the Netherlands. Their economic integration, which has made them richer than ever before, is stronger than any other ties they ever had.

Monnet is a patient man. He still believes that through these commercial links there will one day be a United States of Europe.

MAJOR OBSTACLE

The major obstacle now, he told us the other day as we sat around his cheerfully blazing fireplace, is Charles de Gaulle.

"De Gaulle has a unique attitude toward France," Monnet said of his old sparring mate. "He does not feel that he is typical of France. He feels and he has said, 'I am France.'

"Basically, De Gaulle has a contempt for his fellow human beings, especially of Frenchmen who contest or contradict or object to what he does. He is not the leader of this nation. He IS the nation. Or so he believes."

The little economist sighed, then added, "Of course. I must give him his due. Without him, France might have become a Communist state after the war."

AFTER DE GAULLE?

We asked him what will happen after De Gaulle dies, aside from the deluge.

"Britain will enter the Common Market," Monnet said. "There will be a much stronger unification of Europe than there is today. America will then deal with Europe as a bloc, not individually. And your country will come around to thinking of yourselves as the equal of Europe, not the superior."

LONG-TIME DEMOCRAT

Suggests All Wages and Prices Be Frozen

A few years ago a mistake was made in a nearby city when certain employes were given raises of about $1,000 a year. Give Views on Child Beating Incident

Concerning the disciplining of a six-year-old and the subsequent acquittal of her teacher on charges of assault and battery, the behavior of the teacher and the testimony of the character witnesses are a conglomerate of mistakes suggesting that all who made them and condone them are ignorant of essential principles of child development. The character witnesses' statements seemed to establish that the teacher had hit other children, that the witnesses would do the same, and that the school district permitted it. That the teacher and all others I have implicated would know so little about alternatives to be used in modifying children's behavior and about the ultimate implication deriving from the use of corporal punishment is a sad commentary on both our educative and our social systems.

ALLAN K. THORNBURN, M. D.
450 N. WOODWARD, BIRMINGHAM

A teacher has been acquitted of assault and battery in the beating of a six-year-old child for reciting "eenie, meenie, minie, moe," which has been a children's rhyme for who knows how long. The child didn't do anything that called for "corporal punishment," but since when is it okay to inflict punishment for any reason that causes bruises? We were of the opinion that even parents could not whip their own children to this extent for fear of the law. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Evans for trying to have some control over the welfare of their child, even though it meant coming up against the City.

MR. AND MRS. W. E. FRUIT

Regarding the teacher who meted out corporal punishment to a pupil for chanting a rhyme containing the word "nigger," Judge Stelt is guilty of a miscarriage of justice in acquitting this immature teacher. The parents of this child should not rest until all teachers in the Country realize they cannot play God and take the law into their own hands.

H. O. ALLERDING

Regarding the recent child beating by a teacher, a child's body is shaped by God. Minds should be shaped by parents before entering school. If a child's mind is shaped in the home, he brings to school what he learns in the home.

Comments on Use of Streams, Waterways

The opinion of State Supreme Court Justice Eugene Black that jeopardizes the public use of our streams and waterways is exactly what you could expect from the so-called leaders in some of our State offices. The fiasco last year on the trout streams when Coho fishermen forgot themselves for a while was caused by a few and not a majority. Now we have a Supreme Court Justice that is not only acting like those fishermen but he is doing a better job of it. (I'll bet you don't print this letter.)

'Laud Pontiac Police for Job Well Done'

The Pontiac Police are to be commended for a job well done. They acted as professionals, except for two individuals who thought they were doing the right thing—the officer who ordered the tear gas, and the patrolman who clubbed Captain Deneen. They showed tremendous restraint in the face of almost constant harassment. They deserve more pay, but no more than fire fighters.

Commends Efforts to Upgrade Institutions

Oakland County Association for Retarded Children commends Rep. Loren D. Anderson for his deep concern about Michigan's priorities and his efforts to upgrade our State institutions for the mentally ill and retarded. If more legislators and citizens would see the stark, dehumanizing conditions in the State institutions, they would realize that high priority must be given to basic human needs as against the comforts of a new office and pride in a new capitol.

Question and Answer

M.

REPLY

The Constitution says nothing about an appointee's age, citizenship, background or experience. All it specifies is that the Senate consent to the appointment.

Question and Answer

I would like to try for a Federal-state guaranteed student loan, but I've been told you're not eligible if your family income is $15,000 or more. Is this true? With a big family, $15,000 won't stretch to cover my college expenses.

HOPEFUL

REPLY

Regardless of family finances, a student in good academic standing in an approved institution is eligible. Under $15,000, the Government pays the interest while you're in college. Over $15,000, you pay the full interest while you're in school as well as after graduation.

Tenement Fire Fatal to Nine

Mom Leaps to Death, Carrying a Daughter

JERSEY CITY, N. J. (AP) — A young mother with her daughter in her arms leaped five floors to her death in a tenement fire which took nine lives Thursday night.

Mrs. Rena Dickerson, 29, jumped out a window of her top story flat with her daughter, Kristie, 6. She was killed and the girl died later in a hospital.

Three other daughters, Dineer, 11, Dori, 5, and Wanda, 7 months, were found dead in the apartment of apparent smoke poisoning.

★ ★ ★

An unidentified boy was snatched off the roof of the tenement, which collapsed later into the burned out shell of the building.

Streetcar Law Repealer OK'd

Senate Sticks to 4-Day Week

LANSING (UPI) — The Michigan Senate continues its aversion to working on Friday. The 38-member upper chamber hasn't met on the sixth day of the week this year — and today was no exception.

But the long weekends may be over soon. Senate leaders say the legislative calendar is filling up fast with key issues and this will require longer workweeks.

Ironically, the senators, before departing yesterday, passed 28-0 a bill repealing an 1885 law protecting streetcar motormen from a seven-day work-week.

Sen. Robert VanderLaan, R-Grand Rapids, sponsor of the measure, said the ancient statute was unnecessary since streetcars are a thing of the past in Michigan.

New bills were introduced to broaden the law against glue-sniffing and require life imprisonment for persons convicted of illegal drug trafficking.

★ ★ ★

The latter measure was sponsored by Sen. Charles N. Youngblood Jr., a Detroit Democrat and former narcotics agent with the Wayne County sheriff's office.

He said it was aimed at "the pusher — the source of drug addiction."

Now the illegal manufacture or sale of drugs carries a minimum penalty of 20 years and a maximum sentence of life.

NOT HIS INTENT

Youngblood said the bill was not directed at persons helplessly hooked on drugs.

VanderLaan submitted the proposal to include all chemicals with toxic vapors under the anti-glue sniffing statute.

★ ★ ★

"Law enforcement officers have found that our present law making glue sniffing illegal is not adequate to meet the problem," he said.

"This is an extremely serious situation and I feel we must do everything we can to help protect these youngsters from their own folly," he added.

★ ★ ★

Sen. Robert Richardson, R-Saginaw, sponsored a bill to codify procedures for condemning property. Besides setting up court requirements, the measure provides that the moving expenses of the property owner will be paid by the governmental agency condemning the land.

Kremlin Woos World's Reds

Sino-Soviet Clashes a Shift in Focus?

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soviet Union is laying the groundwork for an attempt to rally the Communist leaders of many nations in a political struggle against Red China, U.S. Kremlin experts believe.

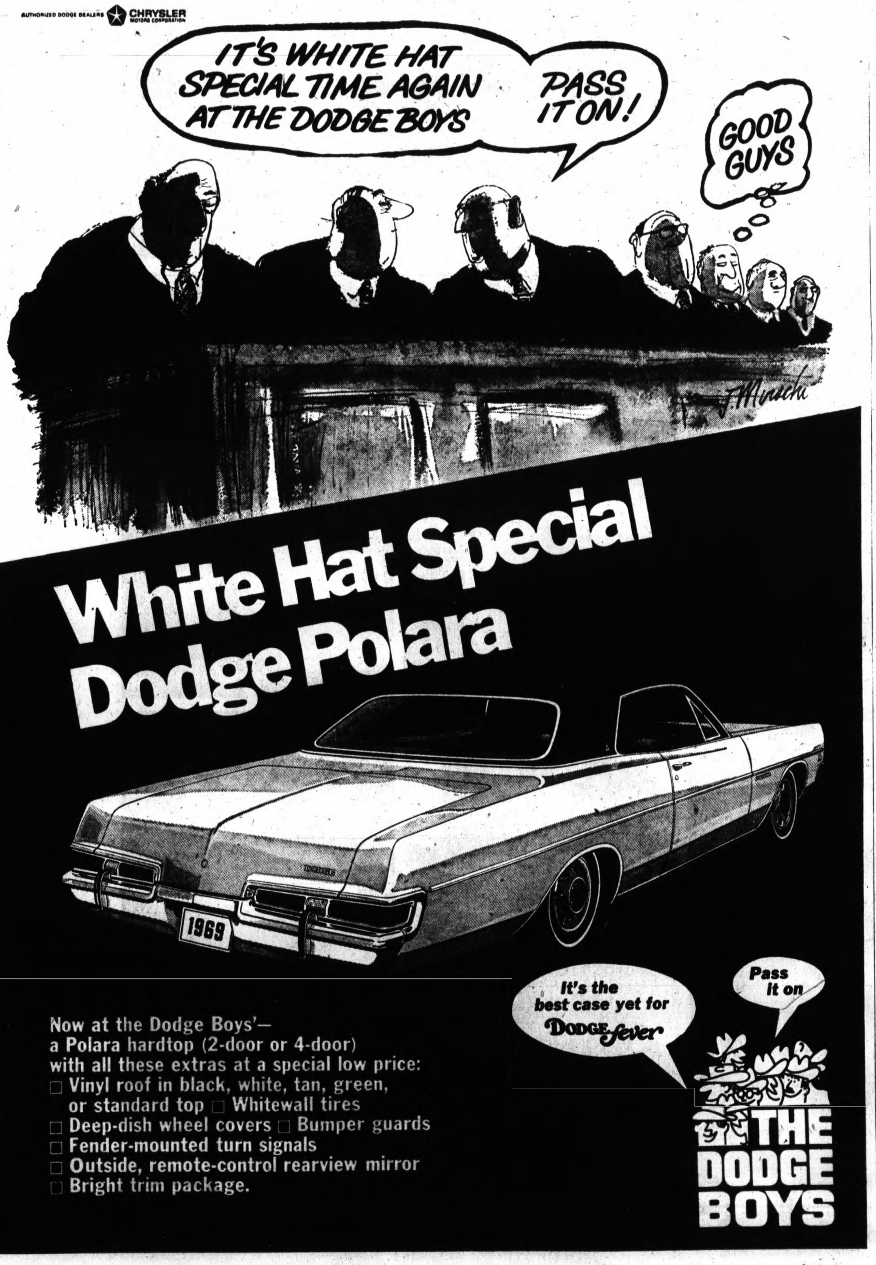

They say the Russians' outrage at Chinese border attacks in Manchuria appears aimed at providing "the right background music" for a scheduled May meeting of world Communist parties.

But they discount the possibility that Sino-Soviet military clashes in Manchuria will escalate into large-scale fighting between the two Communist giants, which have been at increasing odds for nearly a decade.

The experts said they view the current uproar in Russia over the latest Manchurian border incident as an attempt to focus attention on China and away from its invasion of Czechoslovakia—which was pointedly criticized by the Chinese and Communist leaders in Western countries.

The other side of the picture emerged in a dispatch from Peking Thursday by the Japanese Kyodo News Service noting a massive anti-Soviet campaign in China.

Groves Girls 'Zorch' Bobby Sox In 'n' Out

By BENITA ROSEN

"Wasn't last night's party an absolute blast?"

"Are you kidding? I thought that it was really grade Z!"

★ ★ ★

It all started when seniors Penny Blumberg, Diane Fekete and Sue Sklar were wondering why they didn't have a malt shop or some sort of teen hangout where they could meet the gang after school.

"In the fifties, no high school was worthy of existence if there wasn't a swinging place where the crowd could meet for sipping sodas, playing the jukebox, or cramming for finals," commented one.

OLDIES BUT GOODIES

Thoughts of the now-extinct "local teen hangout" led to the girls remembering the "Oldies but Goodies" rock 'n' roll songs.

"We can only hear these tunes from yesterday when radio stations play 'Golden Goodies,'" said Sue Sklar. "We were only in grade school when these tunes were popular."

★ ★ ★

Recently, when a local radio station broadcast a special documentary highlighting the history of rock 'n' roll, Penny, Diane and Sue stayed glued to their transistors, anxious to hear the songs that were the forerunners of the present rock beat.

Influenced by these memories, the girls formed an informal club appropriately called, "Bring Back Bobby-Soxers." all three of them are on the Talon (Groves' yearbook) staff, and they considered their fellow staffers automatic members.

Editors and reporters on the neighboring Scriptor (newspaper) staff displayed interest, and a few banded with Penny, Diane and Sue in their cause of bringing back memories of the "fabulous fifties."

As founders of the group, the girls appointed themselves tripresidents. They consider Scott Duncanson, Scriptor coeditor, to be the soda jerk of the malt shop that they wish they had.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Frank Vaydik, journalism instructor and adviser, and Richard Smith, photography and history teacher, have greatly assisted the "Bring Back Bobby-Soxers" club.

Both instructors brought in their high school yearbooks since they were teen-agers in the fifties.

TEACHERS REMEMBER

They remember what most of the popular songs of that era were, and have helped the girls by mentioning them and by recalling some of the slang expressions of that time.

The "Bring Back Bobby-Soxers" club has compiled a list of all the old rock 'n' roll songs that they can think of, and has tacked the list up on a bulletin board in the journalism room so that fellow advocates of the fifties can make additions. They claim that they have listed almost 700 songs.

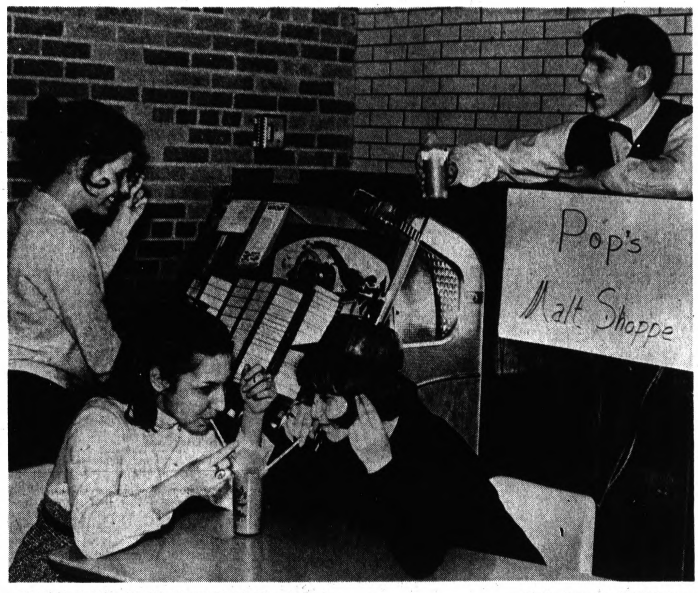

"We had a lot of fun with Mrs. Vaydik's high school yearbook," commented Penny. "When we went through it, we picked the kind of boys that we thought would have been considered cute at that time. Most of the boys we picked, were ones that Mrs. Vaydik had liked!"

Dress styles of that time were of great interest to the girls. "The skirts were much longer, then," said Diane. "The girls would wear cashmere sweaters, a string of pearls, saddle shoes, pony tails or very ratted (over-teased) hair, and of course, bobby sox."

Club members were toying with the idea of coming to school outfitted like teen-agers of the fifties.

Diane has also made a point of seeing a movie starring the late James Dean and was very impressed with the former teen idol. Speaking for the tripresidents she remarked, "James Dean is our favorite. He drives us out of our helmets."

To prove the transciecy of the movement, they planned to expand "Bring Back Bobby-Soxers," Penny replied, "No, we're sick of it already. It's zorched out. Our kick this week is researching millionaires. Sue is convinced that Howard Hughes is her uncle."

Special Math Program Is Under Way at Mott

By GEORGIA ROSEWALL

The development of math skills through individualized instruction began this semester at Waterford Mott High School with the introduction of a new math program.

A class composed of 25 students meets every day from 11:15 a.m. to noon.

Two or three days a week the students go to Riverside Elementary School for computer-assisted instruction.

INTERESTING PART

To most of them this is the most interesting part of the program. They receive lessons on computer terminals.

Next year, there will be computer terminals in Mott that will be used for the math program as well as for other courses.

★ ★ ★

When the students are in the classroom they work on math lab experiences. Some of the topics they cover are measurement, critical thinking, and nonmetric geometry.

TO BE REGULAR COURSE

The program is now being developed and will be included next year as a regular course.

★ ★ ★

"It is hoped that this course will offer an interesting and challenging math class for students that are nonmath majors," said Mitchell.

Parents of Mott students are invited to a Parents' Night, Thursday at 8 p.m.

TO DISCUSS CURRICULUM

First, a general session will be held to discuss the curriculum for next year. Parents will then have an opportunity to follow their child's schedule and talk to teachers.

To assist in the development of the ninth grade orientation program, a student poll is being taken, under the direction of Dennis Price.

Students are being asked what kinds of questions they had when they first entered high school about the curriculum, scheduling, student involvement, and extracurricular activities.

Ninth grade orientation will take place next week.

Preenrollment for sophomores and juniors has already started. Assemblies were held this week explaining the 1969-70 curriculum.

Forms for preenrollment will be distributed Tuesday and are due in approximately two weeks.

8th-PLACE FINISH

John McCauley is the wrestling coach.

Mott students who traveled abroad last summer will attend Pontiac Northern's Brotherhood Day March 13. They are Kathy Ainge, Steve Burns, Ann Edwards, Teri Featherstone and Marta Karwas.

WTH Breakfast Menu to Mix Bites and Gripes

By JANICE CRISP

Have you got a gripe about a school rule or policy, or are you just plain hungry? Then come to Waterford Township High School's Bite and Gripe Breakfast being sponsored by the Domestic Exchange group on Tuesday.

Dr. Gene Megiveron, Student Council President Bob Hoffman, and the three class presidents — Lance Rutledge, Tom Ashbaugh and Don LeBlanc — will all be in attendance to help answer questions in this open-forum seminar.

"This is being done to help encourage communication between the faculty and the student body," said Martha Frick, chairman of the breakfast.

On the menu will be scrambled eggs and bacon, rolls, juice and coffee or milk. Tickets will be on sale in the remaining days before the breakfast during snack time and after school, and cost 75 cents.

They are also available from any of the 24 students involved in the exchange.

GROUP IN NEW YORK

The Domestic Exchange Group went to New York and members were guests of students there for a week. The group will use the money from the breakfast to pay expenses when these students from New York come here in April.

The cheerleaders' dance is tonight, 7:30 to 10:30. Live entertainment will be featured by The Pavement. Students from Mott, Our Lady of the Lakes, and West Bloomfield are also invited to attend. Admission is $1.25.

The school band will travel to Royal Oak Kimball tomorrow to play in a Band Festival. Along with many other bands they will be rated by three judges for such things as skill and loudness.

The three selections that will be played are: "Morning, Noon, and Night in Vienna," "Second Suite in F for Military Band," and "His Honor."

MAGAZINE DRIVE ON

Waterford's magazine drive was launched yesterday with an all-school assembly. Prizes, and homeroom and class competitions and other details were explained.

Money from the sale will be used for some project to better the school. Projects from past years include the courtyard, the lobby and the sign board in front of the school.

Two Waterford boys were finalists in the State District Wrestling Tournament, and will compete in the State Finals tomorrow. They are Erick Alsup and Paul Shallman.

10 From SHS Making Plans for Model U.N.

By ROX BURKE

Should there be such a thing as "World Government?"

Is police power necessary to maintain peace by the U.N.?

These are two of the questions to be put before 10 Stevenson High students as they participate in a model United Nations.

★ ★ ★

The assembly, hosted by the University of Detroit and sponsored by the Detroit Area Council on World Affairs Inc., is slated for March 28-30.

Bob Branca, Bill Beaudry, Tom Burkhart, Bob Blanton, Nick Stengel, Ginny Campbell, Linda Lawrence, Pam Vangeluewe and Margaret Grenher will be accompanied by sponsors Anne Crotser and Carole Klein of the faculty.

JAPAN OR YEMEN

Divided into two parts, the group will then elect a chairman and represent either Japan or Yemen. Each of the members from both groups will select an important issue to study to answer for his "country."

The agenda will follow that of an official General Assembly meeting including committee proposals being put before the Assembly.

★ ★ ★

The trip, for juniors only, is scheduled for June 18-21 at a cost of $127. This includes plane fare, all meals, lodging, sightseeing, accommodations and insurance. Money for the trip must be received by May 16.

Silence Days Sound Like Fun

By KEVIN BALLARD

Last Thursday and Friday the Student Council at Oakland Christian High sponsored "Sound of Silence" Days. Thursday the boys were not to speak to the girls; if they did they had to give up their silence badge and buy another. The first badge cost five cents, each badge after that cost three cents.

★ ★ ★

The same rules applied for the girls on Friday. The persons taking away the most badges were "Mr. Irresistible" and "Miss Irresistible." The persons giving away the most badges were "Mr. and Miss Gabby."

Mr. Irresistible co-champs were Kevin Ballard and Randy Largent, tied with 24 badges each. Miss Irresistable was Debbie Lauckner with 14 badges.

Mr. and Miss Gabby were Dave Gagert, with 27 badges given away, and Jill White, who gave away 18 badges. The total collected on the two days was $6.80.

A swimming party will be held for FTA members at Oakland University in April. Members wishing to attend should get permission slips from Richard Jacobsen, sponsor of the FTA.

Dominican Academy

By ANDI BARNES

Who has the fattest head in the senior class at Dominican Academy? This vital information was revealed to the girls Tuesday as they were measured for their caps and gowns.

Seniors stood in line to await the final decision, as well as, to find out who was the tallest and the shortest. But, this information is being kept top secret by the senior class.

* * *

Seniors also are busy with other activities this week. Sunday, the girls are hosting a Ham and Pancake Breakfast. It will be held in St. Joseph's Myrick Hall in Lake Orion. The seniors will be serving all-the-pancakes - you - can - eat from 8 a.m.-1:30 p.m. for $1.25. The funds will go towards the class trip to New York in May.

West Bloomfield

By SHARON CARR

West Bloomfield High School recently formed a Human Relations Club. This club originated in Mrs. Tom Sullivan's American problems class first semester, but now has spread schoolwide.

At its first meeting, a movie on racism was shown and a discussion followed.

* * *

Since then representatives from the Ethiopian Secondary Education Program, and members from VISTA (Volunteers in Service to America) have spoken.

Novi

By THOM HOLMES

Oxford

By CAROL PRINCE

A tea for the members of Student Council was held by the faculty Thursday to discuss problems of the school.

The North Door Singers from Graceland College, Lamont, Iowa, will perform in the OHS Auditorium March 27. Tickets may be purchased at the door for $1.25 or in advance for $1.

* * *

Who will win? Oxford's or Dryden's faculty? Θ Club is sponsoring a basketball game between the two schools tonight at 8.

Essam (Sam) Kassal, a senior boy from Bagdad, has been visiting Oxford this week. Sam is the nephew of Carl Yatooma, English instructor at the junior high school.

Avondale

By KAREN SHELDON

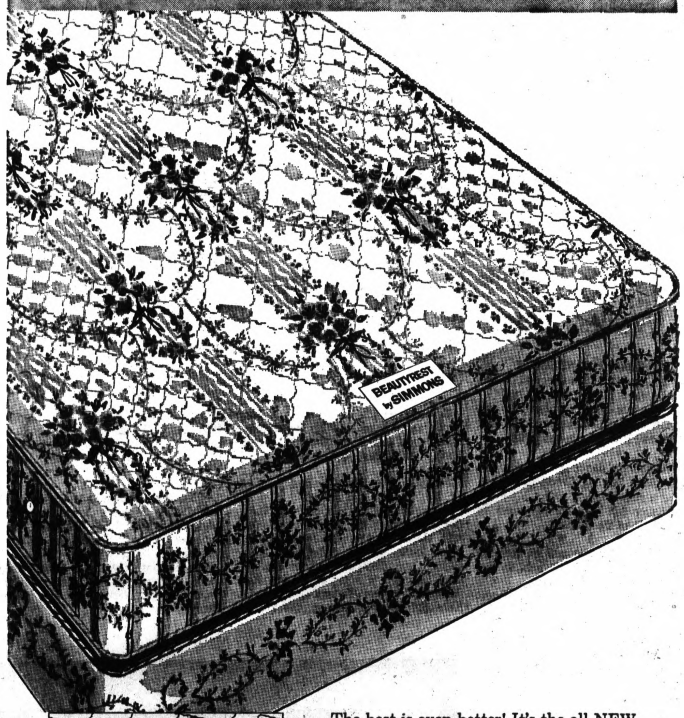

The Student Council of Avondale High School chose junior Randy Cornell as Citizenship Teen of the Month for March.

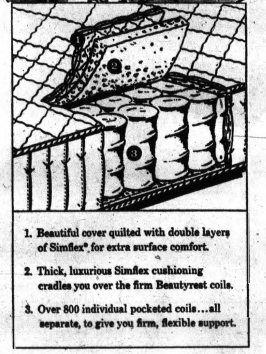

Others nominated for the award were juniors Kelly Bergin, Todd Holmes, Patti McBride and Richard Dennis, and seniors oTm Machowski, David Hearne and Per Knudsen, one of Avondale's foreign exchange students.

Randy's main interests are centered around sports such as football, basketball and baseball. He hopes to participate in track this spring. His other interests are the Auburn Heights Boys' Club and a singer for the Solitary Konfynment band.

Spirit Risers, Future Teachers of America, Varsity football and basketball and sports editor for the school newspaper are a few activities that Randy participates in while maintaining a 3.1 or B average in a college preparatory course.

'Docent' Volunteers Begin Work at PCAC

Patrons, students, members and visitors to the Pontiac Creative Arts Center will be getting acquainted with new persons of the volunteer staff — the docents.

Pronounced doe-cent (the accent is on the first syllable), the word is of Latin origin and refers to a type of teacher or tutor, or a student who is a teacher. In the organizational structure of the medieval university, a docent was "a person licensed to teach in the university but without the charge or dignity of a professor."

The PCAC docents will be serving as hostesses and tour guides.

Mrs. Wallace Edwards, chairman of the program, reports that already some 35 women have volunteered, but more are needed.

"No previous experience is necessary," she says, "and the would-be docent does not have to be an artist but should have, or want to develop, an interest in art." The program offers an opportunity to gain art appreciation and experience as well as being one of public service.

Persons interested in serving as docents may call Mrs. Edwards of Onagon Trail, or the PCAC.

★ ★ ★

In charge of the training program is Mrs. H. W. Kurrasch, who teaches art appreciation and drawing at Oakland Community College, Highland Lakes campus. Instruction sessions are currently scheduled for Monday mornings twice a month. They consist of a general information period about the center and its facilities, and proper procedures for tour guides and hostesses.

TRAINING

Prior to each exhibition, Mrs. Kurrasch will conduct classes on the art objects to be displayed as well as information about the artists.

A graduate of Oakland University, Mrs. Kurrasch is presently working on her master's degree in art history at Wayne State University. She thinks the docent program should be of special interest to artists and art students and encourages their participation.

Mrs. L. Jerome Fink and Mrs. Norman Cheal, who serve as exhibits director and chairman respectively, feel that the Pontiac Creative Arts Center may better serve the public through the docent program. Special groups may now make appointments for tours, both during and after regular hours.

"Art classes and school students with their teachers are encouraged to take advantage of the masterpieces now being brought to the center through the Detroit Institute of Arts' Project Outreach," Mrs. Cheal said.

Mrs. Wallace Edwards, Onagon Trail, (left) is chairman of the newly organized docent program at Pontiac Creative Arts Center. She shares her information about Sassoferrato's "Madonna and Child" with other docents, Mrs. Arthur Hoover, Edgevale Street (center) and Mrs. Robert Eisele, Southward Way. All will be serving as hostesses and tour guides for visitors to PCAC. The new exhibit opens Saturday.

'Mother and Child' Exhibit From Detroit

"Mother and Child in Painting" is the second art exhibit to come to the Pontiac Creative Arts Center through Project Outreach. Drawn from the collection of the Detroit Institute of Arts, it will be on display from Saturday through March 28.

★

Since earliest periods of art history, this theme has been a popular one. The 12 paintings in the current exhibition span a period of 500 years and range from early Renaissance (1400 A.D.) to the present.

★ ★ ★

"Madonna and Child with Saints Catherine and Anthony of Padua" by di Giovanni is the earliest painting and the most recent is "Young Mother and Child" by the contemporary artist, Zoltan Sepeshy.

★ ★ ★

Included in the public opening program on Saturday and Sunday will be a series of 28 colored slides, featuring paintings and sculptures of other famous artists who have used the mother and child theme. The movie, "Art Through the Ages," is scheduled for showing at 1 and 3 p.m. on both days.

★ ★ ★

After the public opening, they will be available for school and program use. Reservations may be made by calling PCAC.

★ ★ ★

PREVIEW

An invitational preview for members and patrons will be held this evening. Mrs. Stephen P. Malone and Mrs. John H. Vanderlind are handling arrangements. An instrumental ensemble from Pontiac Central High School will play.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Kenneth VandenBerg, assisted by Mrs. F. J. Poole, has charge of the public opening program. Working with them will be Mesdames: Arthur Hayes, Harold Furlong, Noyce Strait Jr., Richard Zimmerman, Ross Thompson, Harry Limbacher, Howard Fitzgerald, Robert Oliver II and Denzel T. Sheppard Jr.

'Amphitryon 38' Opens Thursday

Marshall Borden and Mikel Lambert will play the lead roles in Meadow Brook Theatre's production of "Amphitryon 38" which will open a five-week run on March 13.

Author S. N. Behrman adapted the play from the French of Jean Giraudoux. The story concerns the Greek god Jupiter's amorous pursuit of a beautiful mortal, Alkmena, who is the faithful wife of General Amphitryon.

★ ★ ★

Douglas Seale is directing the production. Anna Gisle is in charge of settings and costumes. Pat Simmons has control of lighting.

★ ★ ★

Eugene O'Neill's "Long Day's Journey Into Night," the biggest draw in the history of Meadow Brook Theatre, ends its run on Sunday.

Troubadour-harpist Gerald Goodman, the only man who sings and accompanies himself on a concert harp, will be Pontiac-Oakland Town Hall's guest artist at the Huron Theatre Wednesday. His varied career has ranged from beginnings in a New York funeral parlor, to nightclubs, an off-Broadway musical of his own composition, to the New York Shakespeare Festival. A celebrity luncheon at Devon Gables will follow the 10:30 a.m. appearance.

Tell of Events of Interest at Academy of Art

An exploration of the future role of Cranbrook Academy of Art in the field of arts and art education is the purpose of a conference begun today and continuing though Sunday at the Academy.

Artists, faculty members and trustees, under conference chairman Glen Paulsen, will "take an objective look at the Academy in all its aspects and recommend — to the greatest degree possible — programs for improvement."

★ ★ ★

Attending are Carl Feiss, urban planning consultant, Washington, D.C.; Jack Lenor Larsen, textile designer; Edward C. Bassett, of Skidmore, Owings and Merrill; Douglas MacAgy, deputy chairman, National Council on the Arts, Washington, D.C.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

"How American Is American Art" will be the topic of dicussion when critic and author Bartlett H. Hayes, Jr. appears as guest lecturer in Cranbrook Academy of Art Galleries at 8 p.m. Wednesday.

★ ★ ★

Hayes, among other things, has coauthored a "Layman's Guide to American Art," and the NET TV series "Intent of Art."

★ ★ ★

He has been a member of various regional and national juries, a faculty member at the American Seminar, Salzburg, Austria; Brandeis University summer school and visiting critic at the American Academy in Rome.

★ ★ ★

Robert P. Lytles Return Home From Virgin Islands Vacation

By SHIRLEY GRAY

Dr. and Mrs. Robert P. Lytle of Derry Road in Bloomfield Township are back from three relaxing weeks in the land where "it only rains at night," in Mrs. Lytle's words — the Virgin Islands.

While the Lytles are old Caribbean hands — they were married in Puerto Rico — the enthusiasm of Mr. and Mrs. John Thoms and Mr. and Mrs. John Childs Jr., both couples of Birmingham, for St. Croix, had a lot to do with the Lytles' choice of that island for this year's vacation.

VACATION HOMES

The Childses and the Thomses both have houses there and entertained the Lytles. Then all six came home together.

Mrs. Lytle came home with a sackful of driftwood and shells, gathered on beachcombing forays, which she hopes to turn into a beach collage.

★ ★ ★

Mr. and Mrs. John Adamson of Bloomfield Hills have invited a few friends in for a little dinner party Saturday evening.

Broadcasting Is 'Bad News' to Today's Writer

By ELIZABETH L. POST
Of The Emily Post Institute

Dear Mrs. Post: I cannot get across to my husband that he shouldn't say, "Oh what a good dinner, I am going to stuff myself" or 'No more, thank you, I am full." I think this sounds repulsive and vulgar since you should never eat so much that you can't eat any more. I think good manners are very important, especially among family members. — Mrs. C.

★ ★ ★

Dear Mrs. C.: Although your husband may feel he is complimenting your cooking by these remarks, I agree that merely saying, "My, that was good!" or "What a great dinner!" would be much more attractive than discussing the condition of his stomach.

Overeating — or any over-indulgence for that matter — is not only unmannerly but unwise, and broadcasting it only makes one sound more foolish.

★ ★ ★

Dear Mrs. Post: Does an all-white wedding mean that the mothers, as well as the bridal attendants, all wear white? In our religion, the mothers are part of the procession. Mrs. S. Jackson

★ ★ ★

Dear Mrs. Jackson: All-white weddings can be very lovely, but I feel that unless some color is added, solid white "competes" with the bride's costume. The mothers, to be in the best of taste, should not try to appear as members of the young bridal party.

★ ★ ★

Even if the girls wear white, the older women would be more appropriately—and becomingly—dressed in any pastel shade—possibly the color of the bridesmaid's bouquets.

'Dollars for Scholars'

Awards to Be Presented

The annual "Dollars for Scholars" program of Pontiac Tuesday Musicale is slated for March 11 at Washington Junior High School.

Highlight of the program will be the presentation of scholarship awards to the 1969 winners by Mrs. W. A. Schmitz.

★ ★ ★

The scholarship program has been an important activity of Tuesday Musicale since 1936. For a number of years the group contributed generously to the projects of the Michigan Federation of Music Clubs and provided scholarships to several Pontiac students to attend Interlochen each year.

★ ★ ★

AID GIVEN

Efforts are now concentrated upon helping high school seniors and college students majoring in music. Fourteen awards have been given to individuals since 1963, plus two full scholarships to Meadow Brook and a gift of $250 to the Bell Ringers of Eastern Junior High School toward their trip to England a few years ago.

Contributions have totaled over $3,500.

Guest performers at Tuesday's concert will be "The Grunyons," a group of men from the Detroit area who sing together "just for fun."

The Musicale chorus will sing a varied program of compositions ranging from pre-Baroque to modern, religious, operatic and folk music, under direction of Mrs. Ferdinand Gaensbauer.

★ ★ ★

Other chorus members will be featured in solo and ensemble, including a Beauty Shop Quartette and a lively performance of "Mame."

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

Hosts for the evening will be Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. George Putnam and Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Lefurgy.

Tickets will be available at the door to anyone wishing to attend this program, which begins at 8:15 p.m.

THE LATE MRS. DORA DAWSON

Indian Musician in Recital Here

Ali Akbar Khan, one of India's Ustad (Master) sarode players, will appear in concert Wednesday, at 8:30 p.m., in Oakland University's Dodge Hall Auditorium. He will be accompanied on the tabla by Shankar Ghosh.

The program will be made up of pure ragas in the North Indian tradition called Hindustani.

The sarode, ancestor of all India's stringed instruments, has 25 strings mounted on a gourd-shaped sounding-box. Only 10 of the strings are plucked with a coconut shell pick, the other 15 give sympathetic resonance. The sarode is accompanied by the tabla or drums, one copper, the other wood. The combination has fascinated Western ears in the past decade.

Ali Akbar Khan was court musician to the Maharajah of Jodhpur before India became independent. Since then he has toured extensively on five continents and is generally acknowledged to be "The Horowitz of the Sarode."

★ ★ ★

Youthful Artists on Program for Birmingham Club

Thursday's meeting of Birmingham Musicale will present four scholarship winners as guest soloists.

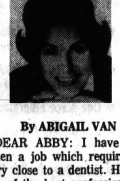

- Nancy Ruffer, a junior at Seaholm High School, will perform a flute solo, "Concerto" by Jacques-Ibert.
- Another flute soloist, Debby Thoms, a senior at Groves High School, will play "Poem" by Griffes.
- Judy Weichner, pianist, also a senior at Groves, will play "Rondo on Argentine Children's Folk Tune" by Alberto Ginastera.
- Brooke Minasian, a sophomore at Bloomfield Hills Andover High School, will present Monti's violin selection "Czardas."

The 31-member Musicale chorus will sing a group of sacred selections and another of secular music, under the direction of Mrs. David Lawrence. Accompanist is Mrs. Philip G. Whelan.

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I have very recently taken a job which requires me to work very close to a dentist. He has offices in one of the best professional buildings in town and his patients are fussy and well-to-do.

The first day, I noticed that the dentist had had onions or garlic for lunch. Whew! "Well," I figured, "that can happen to anyone once in a while."

Well, every day this week the dentist has come back from lunch smelling like an Italian pantry or a Kosher kitchen or whatever.

I can't understand why one of his patients doesn't say something to him. If I were a patient, I would, but I only work here. Any suggestions? I don't know how much longer I can take this. NEW GIRL

DEAR GIRL: Tell him! He may appreciate it. And if he doesn't, your next job HAS to be better.

DEAR ABBY: There have been several occasions when I have turned down fellows for dates, and their retort was "Well, then I guess you prefer girls."

This always leaves me speechless. Abby, please suggest a good reply to this silly remark. LIKES MEN

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: I am not the kind of person who discusses my personal problems with friends, but I am so frustrated I have to talk to someone, and I do need some advice.

My husband holds a high executive position, and is a good provider for his family. He is well-liked by his business friends whom we entertain royally. I might add, on these occasions my husband is great company and when he looks at me, the love in his eyes is all a woman could ask for.

BUT, there is another side to him which is killing me. He never wants to accept invitations from people with whom he isn't involved in business. And he doesn't want me to invite "outside" friends here either.

When I have gone against his wishes in this regard, I've suffered an evening of embarrassment and humiliation, so I have given up. (He will contradict me, or else he sits like a piece of stone and doesn't say a word all evening — except to talk to the dog.)

Abby, can you help me? I am not doing too well by myself. FRUSTRATED

DEAR FRUSTRATED: That "love" you see in his eyes when you do his bidding strikes me as a fairly convincing performance, but it's only "approval," and perhaps a reward for obedience. When he's in a good mood, try to chisel an explanation off your piece of stone. If he doesn't care for the company of "outsiders," he should grow up and be a good sport once in a while just to please you.

★ ★ ★

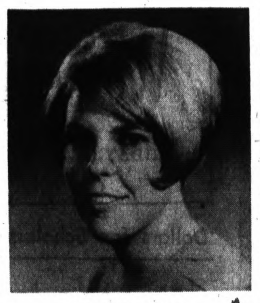

DEAR ABBY: I have my own system for dealing with junk mail. I take all the material they send me, stuff it back into their return envelope with a large note "TAKE ME OFF YOUR MAILING LIST!" They have to ransom these envelopes from the postoffice in order to find out what they contain. I put everything in, including the envelope the junk mail came in. If there is only a return post card in the junk mail, I paste THAT on the outside envelope — with NO return address in evidence. It works like a charm.

ORANGE BLOSSOM

MISS WEBSTER

MISS HARTWIG

MISS BROWER

MISS BUEHRIG

Wedding Bells to Ring for Four

A December wedding is planned by Penny Dianne Webster and Gregory Bien, Oakland University students. Their parents are the Arthur C. Websters of Argyle Street and the John F. Biens of Bywater Street, Commerce Township.

An October wedding is planned by Patricia Ann Hartwig and Pvt. John F. Hoehner, USA, Ft. Jackson, S.C. Their parents are the Frank C. Hartwigs of Indianapolis, Ind., and the William E. Hoehners of Honeysuckle Road, West Bloomfield Township. Miss Hartwig is a senior at Valparaiso University, her fiance's alma mater.

August vows are planned by Joyce Lorraine Brower and Kenneth William Luekens of Lincoln Park. A senior at Oakland University, she is the daughter of the Alvin A. Browers of Rochester. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. William Luekens of Cleveland, Ohio. He is an alumnus of Valparaiso University.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert C. Buehrig of Reese Road, Independence Township, announce the engagement of their daughter, Heidi, to Robert Whitney Bass, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Bass of Oxford. The bride-elect attended Northern Michigan University, her fiance is a graduate of Michigan State University.

Dance at CAI Will Help Family

The Women's Guild of the Mountain View Country Club Association is sponsoring a dance at the CAI building, March 22, proceeds to be donated to the family of Sally Harrington, who died five months ago, a victim of aplastic anemia.

Jim Stevenson is donating his band for the dancing which will begin at 9:30 p.m. and continue to 1:30 a.m.

Tickets may be obtained through Mrs. Gerald N. Head of Bridge Street.

Install Officers at Garden Club's Annual Meeting

The annual meeting and installation of officers of the Lone Pine Garden Club will take place Wednesday at Devon Gables.

* * *

Mrs. William J. Sullivan, District 1 Director, Federated Garden Clubs of Michigan, will speak on "Facets of Garden Clubs" and will preside at the installation.

* * *

Mrs. Richard Bailey will serve as president for the next two years. She will be assisted by Mrs. Robert Westcott and Mrs. Fred Gehrke as vice president and corresponding secretary, respectively.

* * *

New Vacuum Installation

In the never-ending battle against dust, one of the newest aids is a central vacuum cleaner. This consists of a motor and canister holding a multigallon disposable bag which is installed usually in the basement or garage or attic. Flexible pipe leads to room outlets.

* * *

To vacuum, the homemaker inserts a lightweight hose into the outlet and flicks a switch. There is no recirculation of dust and, with the heavy-duty motor, it does a more thorough job. There's no heavy tank to drag around and an almost total absence of noise.

Recent Marriage Is Made Known

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Buchanan of Sylvan Lake announce the wedding Saturday of their daughter, Pamela Marland, to William F. Brecht.

* * *

* * *

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Paul Payne of Indianapolis and the late Mr. A. B. Brecht. He and his bride are both students at Northwood Institute, French Lick, Ind.

Yves for Spring

Yves St. Laurent's styles for spring will feature knee-length skirts and soft fabrics, like jersey and silk. Colors will be black and white, lots of navy blue and some prints.

Six-week-old Ronnesue Oakes models the lovely christening gown, made for her from her mother's wedding dress by Mrs. Jordan Galzka, 18 years old and a bride of three months. The main seams were machine-stitched; the rest was done by hand. Ronnesue is held by her mother, Mrs. Ronald Oakes of Tulane Street, Pontiac Township. The Galzkas, of College Drive, also Pontiac Township, are the baby's Godparents.

Early 'Birds' May Fly North

And Michigan Technological University is getting letters from girls across the country with an interest in Tech—where male students outnumber coeds about 10 to 1.

News spread when some Tech students wrote the author of a syndicated column for the lovelorn and their letter was carried.

* * *

"As a last resort," they said, "we, the male students at Michigan Tech, are writing you for help. This is a good school, great ski country, but its awfully lonely here without any girls.

* * *

"We shouldn't say without 'any' because there are some, but not enough. The ratio is about 10 guys for every bird. If you help us, the girls up here would appreciate it, too.

"They are so exhausted from the social life they have trouble staying awake in class."

RESPONSE

Mails in the first two days brought about 60 letters. School is out for the holidays, but the girls' letters are being kept for students to answer personally when they return.

Meanwhile, Tech officials are mailing back brochures and application forms.

A London, Ont., girl asked about the chances of meeting a handsome hockey player, and learns they are pretty good, since Tech has one of the nation's better collegiate hockey clubs.

* * *

From Mississippi State College for Women comes this letter: "My roommates and I would like information. . .We are attending an all-girls school and we feel the need for a change."

Another expressed interest, but wanted to visit the campus before making a commitment "to see the boys first."

Michigan Tech, with an enrollment of 4,493, is primarily an engineering school, but two years ago expanded its liberal arts program to attract a more diversified student body.

Houghton, where Tech is located, is in what is known as the Copper Country in Michigan's Upper Peninsula. It has a population of 3,393 and is about midway up the Keweenaw Peninsula that juts from the top of Upper Michigan into Lake Superior. Hancock is an adjoining town of 5,022.

Housing Study

LWV Plans Meetings

The results of a year's study of the housing situation in the Birmingham-Bloomfield area will be discussed at a series of unit meetings sponsored by the Housing Study Committee of the League of Women Voters of Birmingham-Bloomfield beginning Monday.

Under the direction of Mrs. Arthur Karstaedt Jr., League members have studied and evaluated housing with respect to ordinances and codes, moderate cost housing, present and potential housing supply and tenants' rights and responsibilities.

* * *

Monday's meeting will take place at 12:45 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Norman Weston, 1091 Lake Park; Tuesday at 9:15 a.m. another meeting is scheduled in the Raven Road home of Mrs. Delmar Mahrt; again at 9:15 a.m. Wednesday at the Roland Drive home of Mrs. Edward Baumgartner and Thursday at 8 p.m. in the Banbury Road home of Mrs. Stephen Pew.

* * *

Former members of the League of Women Voters of Pontiac are invited to attend any one of these meetings.

GENERAL MEETING

Following these unit meetings, there will be a general meeting at the Community House in Birmingham March 17 at 12:45 p.m. at which William T. Downs, Coordinator of Suburban Action Centers, will be guest speaker. He will describe the Suburban Action Centers program and outline a proposed plan for the area. The program is an outgrowth of the Interfaith Emergency Council organized in Detroit following the riot in the summer of 1967.

* * *

Diet Incentive

The fitness and figure control that come from daily exercise create a feeling of excitement and aliveness. This vitality has been called "a quality which enhances all other human qualities." It also gives you the desire to cut down on calorie intake.

Colette G. Landry and Patrick Timothy Lyons are planning to wed. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Roderick E. Landry of Parkhurst Street and Mrs. Michael Lyons of Yonkers, N.Y., and the late Mr. Lyons.

August 2 vows are planned by Mary Jo Scott and Raymond A. Chudo Jr. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Scott of Sylvan Lake, Raymond A. Chudo of Chicago, Ill., and Mrs. Ray L. Scarrott of Waking Lane.

The engagement of S. Valerie Cook to Michael N. Church is announced. She is the daughter of the James W. Cooks of Pontiac Lake Road. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Albert Diericks of Northview Road, Independence Township. No wedding date has been set.

Mr. and Mrs. Odell Ratliff of Rustic Circle, White Lake Township, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Susan Marie, to Thomas P. Carl II. He is the son of the junior Thomas Carls of Sandyside Street, also White Lake Township. April 26 vows are planned.

Financial Tips Asked by Soon-to-Wed Pair

BY MARY FEELEY
Consultant in Money Management

Confusion is a normal state of mind for most couples planning to buy a first home. But for those who plan to get marriage license and a mortgage all in the same year, basic decisions are especially critical.

★ ★ ★

"Will the savings institution honor my fiance's savings account in place of the usual credit rating when we apply for a mortgage for a home?" asks D. R., of Palos Park, Ill.

"And what kind of a formula do you use in establishing the price range of houses you can afford?

"Is it more secure to use only the husband's income as a basis for planning? Or, considering a major purchase such as a house, should we use the combined income figure?"

This young girl's letter adds:

"We would like to start looking for a house right now, in advance of our marriage in May. My fiance could then move in and start working on whatever renovations must be made. We want an old house with three or four bedrooms.

"Our combined incomes equal about $14,000 ($7,000 each). I plan to work after we're married as long as I can — before children. My fiance has never believed in buying anything on time, and, of course, dislikes the idea of a mortgage.

Because of his buying everything on a cash basis, car included, he has no credit rating, but he does have a sizable savings account out of which he plans to put $7-9000 down on a house.

"We would greatly appreciate any help you can offer."

Dear D.R.: In addition to these questions. I'm going to answer some you didn't ask because you've got some big decisions to make. But first for yours:

● While your fiance may have a "negative" credit rating, due to his age or simply because he hasn't used credit, his savings account would certainly be considered an acceptable indication of his stability — especially since he plans to use part of these savings as a down payment on the house on which the lender will hold a mortgage.

● No forumula for establishing the price of a house you can afford is really foolproof except the tedious business of jotting down your net income and seeing what you have left after deducting the expenses you know you're bound to have.

However, there's general recognition of the rule-of-thumb that says don't exceed a price equal to two-and-a-half times your gross income.

● Do your figuring on the basis of his income, since yours is subject to change. Since you can make a substantial down payment, an $18,000 house with an $11,000 mortgage at 7¼ per cent for 25 years isn't too much out of line.

Monthly mortgage payments of $80.24, plus approximately another $67 a month for property tax, insurance, and heat add up to about $147. Can you get four bedrooms for that price, even in an old house?

Now for some comments gratis:

Don't pull all your fiance's savings into a down payment. Hold back at least $2,000.

Renovations on an old house, even if you both do the work, can prove more costly than you realize. Building material prices are rising, so is the cost of any labor you'd have to call in.

Unless family planning is one of the decisions you and your fiance are prepared to make, your own income can't be counted on to help toward the mortgage payments of the expense of home improvements. Therefore before you start reroofing the house, better make sure you know where the money's coming from to finish the job.

Try to plan renovations over as long a period of time as possible, in spite of the urge to fix it all up right now.

Pontiac Teacher of Handicapped to Be Speaker

Mrs. Lawrence Voelker, teacher-counselor for the physically handicapped in Pontiac schools will speak at the general meeting of Delta Zeta Alumnae of Oakland County on Tuesday.

Mrs. Herbert W. Schnetzky will open her home on Timberlake Drive in Bloomfield Township for the 8 p.m. meeting.

Delta Zetas will pool their efforts to bake 75 dozen cupcakes for a sale to be held at Taft School in Ferndale. Proceeds will be used to finance a trip to Greenfield Village for four deaf classes.

Miniskirts Cause 'a Long Look'

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — Miniskirts have become a controversy in the Colorado General Assembly.

An edict issued by the House Services Committee bans such skirts among 40 women House employes if they are more than 3 inches above the knees.

Meet Saturday

Clinton Valley Barracks No. 2803, Veterans of World War I and Auxiliary will meet at noon Saturday for a cooperative dinner and business meeting. The event takes place in Davisburg Township Hall.

Topless Boom Effect Bared: 'It's a Bust'

NEW YORK (AP) — This may come as a disappointment to America's legion of girl watchers, but the topless swimsuit and topless waitress publicity is not having any visible effect on the women's blouse, shirt and top industry.

This sad news comes from a knowledgeable observer. A. Robert Lange, assistant vice president of Meinhard-Commerical Corporation, a C.I.T. subsidiary which provides hundreds of millions of dollars a year to companies dealing in women's wear.

★ ★ ★

"Even though the topless publicity is a bust as a style factor, girls who want to be watched should know that a number of other trends do bear watching," Mr. Lange notes. "For example, fabrics blended of cotton and synthetic fibers are way out in front in woven blouses, skirts and tops, due largely to the fact they're easy to care for.

★ ★ ★

In the swelling field of knitted blouses and tops, on the other hand, easy care is not as important and cotton is by far the most prominent fiber."

AFFECTS SALES

Recalling the consternation in the men's underwear trade when Clark Gable took off his shirt in "It Happened One Night" and moving picture audiences could see he was not wearing an undershirt, Mr. Lange pointed out that, as a result, thousands of men stopped wearing undershirts and sales plummeted.

★ ★ ★

Despite the topless furore, no such situation is likely to recur in the women's blouse, shirt and top field unless, he mused, unless a movie actress of comparable stature decides to emulate the late Mr. Gable's performance.

Sunshiny Colors

Spring colors that spell sunshine in capital letters are bright yellow, turquoise and hot pink for this spring's scene.

To make a neat and smoother job of darning, use a piece of net to reinforce large holes. This makes the darning easier, provides a good base and prevents puckering.

Policewomen to Organize State Group

A second state-wide meeting of Women Police of Michigan will take place in Battle Creek on March 15 in the city's Hart Hotel.

Ideas for the formalization of this new organization were exchanged at the first meeting last fall at Oakland University.

One of the main purposes of the association is to acquaint members with the general problems of policewoman as well as to explore some of the solutions.

Other objectives include education and research within the field, to attempt to set standards of the profession of policewomen, and to encourage young women to enter the field of police work.

★ ★ ★

The Battle Creek meeting is being held for the purpose of electing officers, ratifying a constitution and bylaws, and determining dues and other pertinent matters connected with the formal organization.

Announce Plans for June Nuptials

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lloyd O'Donnell of St. Clair Shores announce the engagement and upcoming June marriage of their daughter, Judith Anne, to Stanley Andrew Rourke of Los Angeles. He is the son of Mrs. Clayton L. Rourke of Highland and the late Mr. Rourke.

The couple, graduates of Michigan State University, will reside in Los Angeles.

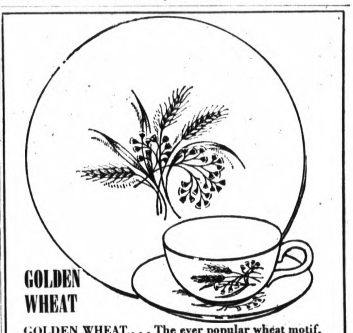

Office Workers Needed for Volunteer Services

Many challenging and responsible general office positions in health, welfare agencies and hospitals await the volunteer interested in community services. Assignments vary from typists working on caseloads to social worker aides with emphasis on public contact activity and desk duties.

★ ★ ★

Housewives and retired school teachers will have an opportunity to develop new careers of interest by serving only a few hours a week. Contact the Oakland County Volunteer Bureau in Birmingham.

Your children won't constantly be losing their rulers if you drill holes in each ruler in the proper place and slip them over the rings in their loose-leaf notebooks.

For Human Resource Center

Site Purchases Approved

The Pontiac Board of Education has only two more parcels of land to purchase to complete acquisition of the site for the planned Human Resource Center, Business Manager Vernon L. Schiller reported to the board last night.

Nine options were taken up by the board last night.

Target date for completion of the $3.75-million center, east of City Hall, is September 1970.

Purchase of two additional pieces of property at the site, which will be developed as a play area for lower elementary students at the 2,300-student complex, was approved.

FEDERAL HELP ASKED

Application for federal funds for the center under the Neighborhood facilities program (NFP) has been made to the Department of Housing and Urban Development.

NFP provides funds for construction of facilities in schools which serve nonschool age persons. Under this program, portions of the Human Resource Center which would qualify for federal funds include the preschool wing, community action area, auditorium, and arts and crafts, homemaking, industrial arts and gymnasium areas.

The district's application includes two requests, one for $676,284 for facilities in the center defined under the NFP and the other for dual-use facilities, for $433,896 in federal funds.

In other action, the board approved a protective service program for the school district, in cooperation with the City of Pontiac and the Oakland County Juvenile Court under the 1965 amendment of the state juvenile code.

PRIMARY PURPOSE

The primary purpose of the plan is to prevent delinquency and neglect of all the youth of the community by strengthening home, family and community living conditions.

The board also approved an application for funds under the National Defense Education Act's Title III.

Funds would be used for materials and supplies in science, math, language arts, foreign languages and social studies, Supt. Dr. Dana P. Whitmer said.

The school district has participated in the program annually for approximately 10 years.

The board also approved purchase of three school buses to replace worn-out ones, to be paid for from funds to be appropriated in the next school year's budget.

2 BUSES ON HAND

Schiller told the board GMC's Truck and Coach Division has two 1969 school buses on hand which it will sell the district for $6,980 each. He said the purchase would represent more than $200 in savings on each.

Schiller said these buses would be delivered in about three months.

'Nixon Not Fighting Inflation,' Senator Says; Hits Oil Firms

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. William Proxmire declared today the Nixon administration is trying to fight inflation with an empty policy and has shirked "the tough, unpopular presidential duty to nail inflationary wage demands and price increases in their tracks."

The Wisconsin Democrat specifically criticized the administration for not taking action to roll back an announced oil industry price increase which he said "may cost American consumers a billion dollars."

Proxmire, who is vice chairman of the Senate-House Economic Committee, said hearings before the group have revealed that the administration seeks to contain inflation "with neutral fiscal and monetary policies and gentle generalizations."

This means, he said, that there will be little or no budget surplus in the year ahead and no cutback in the growth of money and credit.

Proxmire commented in a statement after the committee wound up nearly three weeks of hearings on the state of the economy.

During final testimony Thursday, a spokesman for the National Association of Manufacturers complained that the administration has not convinced business and consumers it means business in curbing inflation. The Chamber of Commerce, however, praised its "cautious, gradualistic approach to bringing inflation under control."

★ ★ ★

Proxmire said a New York speech Wednesday by Chairman Paul McCracken of the Council of Economic Advisers, which urged price and wage restraint was "far too little and it may be much too late."

"Chairman McCracken's speech exposes the emptiness of the administration's fight against inflation. He admits that wage increases far exceeding productivity increases are inflationary . . .

'THEY WALKED AWAY'

"But where Dr. McCracken and the Nixon administration have failed is in resolutely walking away from the tough unpopular presidential duty to nail inflationary wage demands and price increases in their tracks —by name.

"During the past week the oil industry has sharply increased its prices after an immensely profitable 1968. That price hike may cost American consumers a billion dollars in higher gas and fuel oil prices.

"If Lyndon Johnson or John F. Kennedy were in the White House, the president of the United States would be fighting to rescind this price increase, and he might well have succeeded.

"Neither President Nixon nor Chairman McCracken will specifically call on the oil industry to reverse this price hike.

'Soviet Sea Strength Is Threat to U.S.'

NEW YORK (AP) — The Soviet Union narrowed the margin of United States sea power superiority in 1968, according to the annual report of the Ship Builders Council of America.

"With 9,000 scientists and 200 oceanographic ships engaged in ocean research," the report said, "the Soviet Union continued to overshadow the efforts of all other maritime nations in the conquest of inner space. Her deep fishing fleet, the world's largest and most modern, again functioned as a military intelligence arm of the Kremlin. Soviet trawlers equipped with sophisticated electronic gear monitored U.S. and NATO naval maneuvers and maintained a constant surveillance of U.S. Polaris submarine bases."

The U.S.S.R., the report stated, has 250 attack submarines; while the U.S. has 105; the Soviets have 100 missile subs compared to 41 for the United States; but the United States leads in ownership of 177 conventional destroyers compared to the Soviets' 86.

The Ship Builders report says "Russia's rapidly growing naval and maritime strength when viewed against the high ratio of overaged ships in the U.S. Navy and merchant marine now constitutes a serious threat to the national security of the U.S., and in essence to the collective security of the entire Free World."

In a foreword, Ship Builders Council President Edwin M. Hood said the most imposing consideration with which the Nixon Administration would have to contend would be the expanding presence of the Soviet Union on the ocean.

During 1968, 24 merchant ships totaled 329,300 gross tons were delivered, approximating the combined production of the two previous years. Also, 16 large naval vessels, including the aircraft carrier John F. Kennedy, were delivered by private yards during 1968.

* * *

Twenty three large merchant vessels and 133 naval vessels were on order for construction at the beginning of 1969.

On the construction and Improvement phase, the report disclosed the construction of mechanized shipyards costing $130 million in the Gulf Coast and another facility which will specialize in the construction of hull modules for large bulk carriers. On the East Coast, plans have been unveiled to build a $15-million ship building supersized basin for supertankers and the long-dormant shipyard at Brooklyn, N.Y., will be reopened.

Oranges Wash In on California Coast

LA JOLLA, Calif. (AP) — Thousands of oranges washed in from the sea unexplainably Thursday.

"They're firm and taste so good," said one of those who gathered the fruit by the bucketsful.

Officials speculated they may have come from trees swept to sea during California's recent flooding.

By OSWALD and JAMES JACOBY

One of the most famous of auction bridge authorities used today's hand in his lectures on defensive play. We have substituted contract bidding to take South to the same six-heart doubled contract reached in auction.

According to the lecturer, South could mark West with both minor-suit kings, so South decided to try to work an end play. He ruffed the first spade high, entered dummy with a trump and continued back and forth until he had eliminated all of dummy's spades and every trump but the deuce.

Then he led a diamond and finessed dummy's queen. Next came the diamond ace, followed by the seven.

★ ★ ★

If West had simply followed on diamonds, South's play would have succeeded but West played the jack and then the king, retaining the lowly deuce, so the end play did not work.

For years this hand was a fine example of brilliant defensive play. Then Travis White, writing in the Bridge World, pointed out that South could and should have made his contract.

To win, South only ruffed three of dummy's spades. Then he ran off all his trumps to come down to a five-card ending. He held his diamonds and clubs, North held one spade, three diamonds and one club. West held a fistful of trouble.

He couldn't throw his last spade because that would make dummy's six spot high. He couldn't go down to a singleton club. Declarer could read that, cash his club ace and drop the king. Therefore, he had to come down to two diamonds.

Now South took the diamond finesse and cashed the ace. Then he threw West in with the last spade and forced him to lead a club to his ace-queen.

We have never learned what happened to Mr. White. He wrote several articles in the early days of contract that were well ahead of that day. Then he just seemed to lose interest in bridge.

CARD Sense

Q—The bidding has been:

West	North	East	South
			1 ♣
Pass	1 ♥	Pass	1 ♠
Pass	4 ♥	Pass	?

You, South, hold:
♠ A K 6 5 ♥ 3 2 ♦ 5 ♣ A K 10 9 6 4
What do you do now?

TODAY'S QUESTION

Your partner bids five hearts to show two aces. What do you do now?

The new jumbo jet, seen here at an Everett, Wash., airfield, is designed to carry 490 passengers and will become the world's largest commercial jet in service when it is delivered to airlines late this year.

Soviet Protest Attacks Mao

Thousands March on the Chinese Embassy

MOSCOW (AP) — After four days of massive demonstrations in Peking against the Soviet Union, thousands of Russian students and workers marched today on the Chinese Embassy in Moscow.

The crowd here was considerably less than those reported in Peking.

Five sound trucks mounted with loudspeakers were parked in front of the embassy to lead the demonstrators in chanting "Shame on the clique of Mao Tse-tung."

As the demonstration began about 2,000 persons blocked streets leading to the embassy and about 400 busloads of demonstrators were reported moving toward the embassy.

INK IS HURLED

There was no violence immediately, although one bottle of purple ink was hurled against the embassy's stone fence.

Twenty military trucks that had carried militiamen to the scene were parked on a side street.

★ ★ ★

The demonstration was the first here in reaction to the clash between Soviet and Chinese troops on the Far Eastern border between the two countries last Sunday. An unspecified number of soldiers on both sides were killed.

Area Man Faces Exam in Auto Death

A Waterford Township man whose car was involved in an accident Tuesday which killed a Bloomfield Township youth faces preliminary examination next Friday on a manslaughter charge.

Arrested by State Police yesterday upon his release from Pontiac General Hospital was James D. Grindstaff, 22, of 5829 Southward.

He stood mute at his arraignment before Township District Judge Kenneth H. Hempstead and was freed after posting $2,500 bond.

Killed in the mishap on Telegraph north of Pontiac Lake Road was Douglas R. Dooley, 17, of 1715 Mercedes. His mother, Gladys, 48, who suffered a fractured hip, is reported in satisfactory condition in Pontiac General Hospital.

★ ★ ★

School Offices Are Named

The Waterford Township Board of Education last night named the new offices in which it was meeting for the first time.

Construction, which included refurbishing of the old Waterford Center School onto which the new quarters were built, was completed at a cost of about $222,000.

In other business, the board approved the superintendent's recommendations involving the administration of personality tests, priorities in the purchase of printing equipment and an application for state funds.

★ ★ ★

The district will ask the State Department of Education for $411,940 under the National Defense Education Act.

Shell Hits Boy in Eye

★ ★ ★

Daniel H. Noggle, 104 Spokane, may lose his eye, according to Pontiac police. He is being treated at Pontiac General Hospital.

Police said Noggle and a friend found the shell and were shooting at it with a BB-gun near 70 Ruth at 3 p.m. yesterday. The shell exploded and the cartridge hit the boy in the right eye.

5 Belgian Ships Are Butt of Joke

PLYMOUTH, England (UPI) — The five Belgian NATO warships sailed proudly into Plymouth Sound, their crews lined on deck for formal salute. But instead of saluting the flag, the swabbies raised their hands to a pair of bright blue girl's panties.

It was a circumstance not conducive to any form of pomp. The admiral's coxswain hastily lowered the panties and found a note attached.

★ ★ ★

It read: "If you want your flag back pay up."

The NATO commanders passed the hat and collected $5.94 which was delivered to the college without ceremony. The allied navy soon had its flag back.

"We decided to take the joke in spirit in which it was intended," a navy spokesman said.

Cleveland-Detroit Air Route Backed

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Civil Aeronautics Board examiner recommended Thursday that TAG Airlines Inc. be granted authority to provide regularly scheduled service between downtown airports of Cleveland and Detroit.

TAG has been operating air taxi service flights between the Detroit City Airport and Cleveland's Burke Lakefront Airport since 1957.

★ ★ ★

Wright Air Lines Inc., operating its own air taxi flights between the same terminals since 1966 sought the certificate which examiner Robert M. Johnson has recommended be awarded to TAG.

Milliken Asks Changes to Widen War on Crime

LANSING (UPI) — Gov. William G. Milliken proposes expanding the war against crime in Michigan through an overhaul of the grand jury system and liberalized eavesdropping laws.

The governor, in a special message to the Legislature yesterday afternoon, again called for creation of a special riot-control contingent within the State Police department.

"Crime and disorder in Michigan are very serious indeed," Milliken said. "The worst of it is that, like smallpox, they are proving to be highly contagious. It is time that we stop this epidemic before it becomes unstoppable."

Organized crime was the overriding item of interest and attention in the seven-page message, but Milliken also dealt with ways to stop lawlessness in the streets and on college campuses.

CRITICAL OF GRAND JURY

He did not recommend any sweeping new programs, saying: "The best approach . . . is to reinforce existing programs with men and money while we search together for new and imaginative solutions."

But he did surprise lawmakers somewhat by declaring that Michigan's grand jury system of a single jurist or 23 citizens "has had only limited success in the fight against crime and the corruptin of public officials."

Milliken said he would appoint a blue-ribbon committee to study the wisdom of supplanting the system with a special commission on investigations with extraordinary powers to combat crime.

Similarly, the governor added police investigators should be authorized to use electronic surveillance devices such as hidden microphones and wiretaps to snoop out illegal activities.

Milliken said he will support a bill authorizing courts to issue eavesdropping warrants if there is reason to believe crime is involved and electronic equipment is needed to stop it.

He said the legislation must be "restrictive" and continue to "make illegal any other use of electronic eavesdropping or surveillance, whether by public or private persons."

Junior Editors Quiz on FISH

Question: How do fish breathe and do they ever sleep?

* * *

Answer: With few exceptions, fish get the oxygen they need from the water rather than from the air as we do. They have gills, which lie back of the gill covers (upper left). In the gills, the blood absorbs needed oxygen from the water flowing through.

Many fish appear to rest at times, lying quietly on the bottom or hiding in some sheltered spot. Fish don't have eyelids and so it is difficlut to say whether most of them sleep.

The trigger fish, however, actually does seem to sleep. This unusual creature makes a kind of bed to which he returns each night and on which it lies down.

It looks like a fine dinner for some larger prowling fish. But the trigger fish has an exceedingly sharp spine which jumps up at the slightest alarm and locks into place. Apparently, other fish know enough to pass up a dinner which might choke them to death.

When you are next looking at an aquarium, check to see if any of the fish seem to be sleeping.

Slum Education Gets Taste of Progress

By United Press International

One year ago, the National Advisory Commission on Civil Disorders asserted education in the slums and ghettos is a failure.

It documented this in terms of student achievement, the effect of racial and class segregation, the experience and qualification level of teachers, overcrowding, poor equipment and educational services, discriminatory financing and growing hostility toward the schools.

* * *

In the past year has the situation gotten better or worse?

Did the commission's jarring report on the widening gulf between the nation's white and black societies prod anybody to do anything about the educational deficiencies it identified?

AN ASSESSMENT

Last week, a report "One Year Later," prepared by the staffs of the Urban Coalition and Urban America Inc., assessed the nation's response to the "crisis" described by the Advisory Commission on Civil Disorders. The new assessment concluded:

"The indictment of failure passed on education in the slums and ghettos is just as valid and even more familiar. But the ferment . . . accelerated by the commission report has increased to the point where it is rocking — in some instances, even toppling — the educational establishment.

"Unlike other drives for change in the schools, this one looks as if it will not end with talk: There is a discernible shift to action, clarification of strategies, heightened conflict, perhaps the beginnings of genuine change."

But, the report cautions, not all of the turmoil is progress. The dilemma, it says, is whether changes that accentuate, rather than mitigate, polarization are a necessary prelude to coming together on an equal footing. The focal point of the dilemma is community control of schools.

The report contrasts experiments in community control in New York, where the Ocean Hill-Brownsville experiment "unleashed a bitter power struggle and surfaced a nightmare of ethnic and racial hatreds," and in Washington, D.C., where a lesser-known program "resulted in an upturn in reading scores despite a chaotic first year, and the school has settled into an innovative but orderly second."

* * *

Elsewhere, the report said, decentralization was being much talked about but little tried. It said decentralization offers the hope of real change, responsibility and accountability.

But it notes the dangers are equally obvious and asks: will drawing new lines around communities, setting up local boards, reinforce the very segregation and isolation that the commission warned against?

MORE MANAGEABLE

The report says efforts toward desegregation have gone on in the past year both on the federal level and in cities and towns across the nation — mostly in smaller and moderate size cities "where distance and numbers make for a more manageable game."

Cited were desegregation plans adopted in Niagara Falls, N.Y.; Evansville, Ind.; San Mateo, Calif.; and Providence, R.I.; and "the most dramatic comprehensive integration plan" initiated at Berkeley, Calif.

* * *

But, the Urban Colition-Urban America study says, "progress is slow and resistance solidifying."

The report adds:

"If disillusionment plagues the goal of integration, it is no less the case with the commission's parallel education strategy, the imporvement of ghetto schools through compensatory programs.

MIXED BOG

"It has struck the supporters of such programs, who had overemphasized the possibilities of quick success; the economizers, who don't like spending all that money, and now a third group which says the programs won't work until students achieve a sense of destiny and control in community-run schools."

Funding, where any realistic discussion of improving quality inevitably turns, also is a mixed bag, the report indicates.

* * *

It says federal contributions have leveled off at about 8 per cent of total educational spending. But, it adds, there is nonetheless, "are thinking under way of the legal and states."

ACCENTUATED

Commisson data had illustrated that outdated aid formulas often accentuated the disparities between urban schools and their suburban counterparts.

The report's section on ghetto schools ended on a mildly encouraging note:

"The near despair surrounding education in the slums and ghettos has had an impact, although not in terms of producing a massive solution to sever the predictability that now exists between a child's race and family income and his schooling. No one has a remedy that he can prove works. Nevertheless, the percentage of Negroes aged 25 to 29 who are high school graduates has risen to 58 in 1968, up 8 per cent from 1966. The comparable 1968 figure for whites was 75 per cent.

* * *

"The schools have introduced many changes to cope with a failure that no one even talked about less than a decade ago."

'Chinese Saved After Heart Stops for 39 Minutes'

TOKYO (AP) — Communist China's official news agency says army doctors saved a Red Guard whose heart had stopped beating for 39 minutes, and credited the claimed success to Chairman Mao Tse-tung's thought.

The news agency Hsinhua said Thursday the Red Guard was electrocuted Jan. 17.

"Following our great leader Chairman Mao's teaching, 'Heal the wounded, rescue the dying, practice revolutionary humanitarianism,' and breaking with bourgeois conventions," the agency said, doctors administered an injection of adrenalin, which it claimed had been ruled out by bourgeois experts in cases of electric shock.

Before long, it added, the Red Guard began breathing and his heart began beating.

Test Linked to Cut in British Road Toll

LONDON (AP) — Road deaths in Britain last year—first full year of the "breathalyzer" test agaist drunken driving—were the lowest since 1962, the Transport Ministry said Thursday.

Total deaths for 1968 were 6,810, a 7 per cent drop from the previous year when 7,319 died from traffic accidents. The previous low year of 1962 showed 6,709 killed.

The "breathalyzer," introduced in 1967, measures the amount of alcohol on a driver's breath. Failure to pass the test, given by roadside police, means the driver's license is suspended.

Atlantic City Weighs Legalized Gambling

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — A group of businessmen is trying to legalize gambling in Atlantic City, home of the Boardwalk, the Miss America Pageant and hundreds of conventions.

They are betting $2 million that the rattle of dice and click of roulette will be pumping cash into the city's economy within two years.

* * *

The 150 business leaders organized as the Action Committe for Legalized Gambling say they want casino gambling on the style of Puerto Rico or Monte Carlo.

"We are not interested in having gambling as it exists in Las Vegas," said Meyer I. Segal, the furniture store manager who heads the committee.

COSTLY CAMPAIGN

His committee is opening a 2-million campaign to sell to legislators and voters the proposal to make gambling legal in Atlantic City. It must be approved by the legislature, a state referendum and then a city and county vote.

"If the state referendum approved it, there is no question Atlantic County and Atlantic City would accept it," Segal said. He said he based his prediction on a coupon survey conducted by the Atlantic City Press which showed 100 to 1 in favor of legal gambling.

* * *

The five-member City Commission has endorsed the drive.

But the road to legal gambling still is long.

LOTTERY SUGGESTED

Gov. Richard J. Hughes, who leaves office this year, has recommended a state lottery and has said he would be for legalized gambling at casinos if the idea were approved by a referendum. But he opposes a constitutional amendment to let Atlantic City have gambling exclusively.

* * *

Legal gambling in Atlantic City would attract bettors from New York, Philadelphia, Washington and Baltimore, all within three hours' drive.

Segal's committee proposes only nighttime gambling. That way tourists and conventioneers could visit the beaches or conduct their business during the day without inteference. In Las Vegas, gambling is a 24-hour-a-day business.

AFFLUENT SOUGHT

"The type of people we hope to attract would be the affluent tourist who would fly here from anywhere in the world," Segal said.

The committee proposes dice, blackjack and roulette—and adamantly opposes the slot machines which whir constantly in Nevada, now the only state with legalized gambling. Liquor would be forbidden in gaming areas. A state gambling commission would license casinos.

* * *

The unemployment rate in the summer tourist seasion is only 3 per cent. But during the winter, despite the conventions, the rate soars to 10 per cent—one of the highest in the nation.

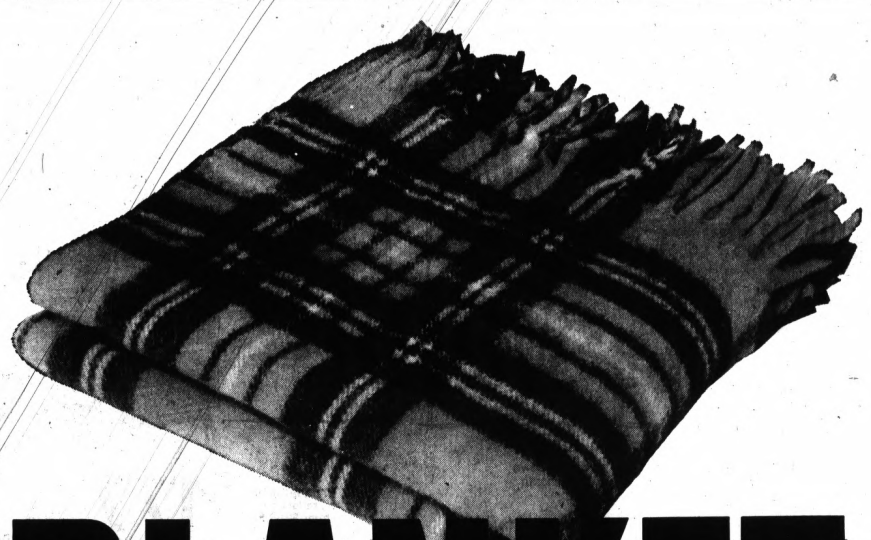

TRACK BETS OK

Betting at the racetrack is legal in New Jersey and the committee says it is hypocritical to ban casinos.

A bill to legalize gambling throughout the state is pending in the legislature. That was introduced by Assemblyman Robert E. Littell, a Republican from rural Sussex County at the other end of the state from Atlantic City. A similar bill by Littell got nowhere last year.

Headhunting still exists in Borneo among the Sea Dyak people. They are killing Communist Chinese countrymen.

Brother Rice, Andover Await Rematch in District Finals

THE PONTIAC PRESS
SPORTS
FRIDAY, MARCH 7, 1969 C—1

Warriors Dump Clawson, 66-39; Groves Ousted

By JERE CRAIG

For the second consecutive season Andover and Brother Rice will clash in the Birmingham Seaholm district title tilt. The BHA Barons ousted Birmingham Groves, 58-52, and the Warriors squashed Clawson, 66-39, in Thursday's semifinal twinbill.

Prior to last March, neither had ever won a Class A district game. Brother Rice broke the ice by taking host Seaholm, then Clawson and Andover as it began a march to the state quarterfinals.

★ ★ ★

The Barons qualified for last year's 82-53 finals loss to Rice by making Groves their first victim, 45-40. Coach Hal Henderson was happy the pattern repeated itself last night, but he intends for a better performance in the 8 p.m. Saturday rematch with BBR.

REGIONAL PAIRINGS

The Andover forces will enter the contest carrying a 14-3 log and 12 conquests in their last 13 starts. Favored Brother Rice is 14-5 and was cochampion in the Detroit Catholic League's strong Central Division. The winner Saturday will meet the Pontiac Northern-Pontiac Central survivor next Wednesday in the Southfield regional tournament.

★ ★ ★

Last night, the Barons won the opener with a fourth-quarter surge against a Groves' quintet that lost six of its final seven starts to end with a 4-13 mark.

The two teams had the same field goal percentage, 36 per cent, and the winners only had a slim 31-27 rebounding superiority.

The game was tied after one period, 9-9, and Andover was in front by an uneasy 27-25 margin at intermission. Groves cut the gap in the third period to force a 38-all deadlock at the end of three quarters.

ONLY LEAD

Dave Logan's lone point for Groves was a foul shot to start the last period with the Falcons holding their only lead at 39-38.

Bob Foreman's jumper sent BHA back in front for good. John Schmidt then dropped in his only two baskets and made a three-point play out of the second one to give the Barons a 45-39 spread.

Schmidt, in fact, had seven of his 10 points in the final period and Foreman dropped in 10 of his 19. The winners hit six of 14 from the floor to only four of 17 by Groves in the closing session.

Scott Love had 10 of his 16 for the losers in the late going to keep them close. He also pulled down seven rebounds and teammate Jim Cameron had nine.

However, Tim Weddle grabbed 10 for Andover to take game honors. A 23-17 abundance of turnovers kept the Barons from building a bigger cushion in the ragged contest.

NIGHTCAP SLOW

The nightcap wasn't much of an improvement, particularly in the initial half as Clawson and Brother Rice struggled to a 25-25 deadlock.

The Trojans (6-12 and losers in seven of their last eight) surprised by running up 21 points in the opening session. They also surprised by doing a complete reversal and managing only four points in the second quarter despite a 52 per cent shooting effort in the half.

Brother Rice connected at a respectable 45 per cent but trailed, 16-11, 18-13, 20-15 and 23-17 just before the end of the half.

At this point, John Maloney dropped in his only field goal and Mike McGill cut it to 23-21 with a two-pointer. After Clawson scored again, Steve Jones earned the Warriors a tie with two field goals.

HOT LAST HALF

The winners increased their shooting tempo to 58 per cent in the closing half while Clawson skidded to only 19 per cent. The Warriors scored the first seven counters in the third quarter.

Horton in Fold; 'Opener' Today

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP) — In the morning Detroit Tiger General Manager Jim Campbell said he didn't know how close Willie Horton was to his lawyer. In the afternoon, Campbell found out it was close enough.

Horton, who was demanding a $100,000 salary, ended a five day holdout Thursday after speaking with his lawyer, Nate Conyers, in Detroit. Conyers telephoned Campbell moments later to say Horton would agree to his terms.

The new salary of the chunky leftfielder is estimated at $65,000 — a $25,000 raise over what Horton reportedly received last year when he hit 34 home runs, drove in 85 and batted .285.

Conyers, brother of U.S. Rep. John Conyers of Detroit, spoke with Campbell in Lakeland Wednesday, then returned to Detroit.

"I had a 1½ hour talk with Nate yesterday," Campbell said early Thursday, "but I don't know how close Nate is with Willie."

ALL SIGNED

Three hours later, Campbell got the call, and the Tigers were finally all under contract. The other holdouts were outfielder Al Kaline and first baseman Norm Cash, but they signed Sunday, one day after the holdout date of March 1.

Horton was expected to arrive in Lakeland Saturday or Sunday, and manager Mayo Smith said he probably would miss about 10 days of the exhibition season. Horton has been working out during the off season at a high school in Detroit and reportedly already is at his playing weight of 195 pounds.

"I've heard of him working out, but he ought to be down here working out," Campbell said before Horton came to terms.

BASE RUNNING

Detroit went through its last full spring drill Thursday and worked on fundamentals, including base running.

Smith said that for Saturday's game against Minnesota at Orlando he would chose pitchers from among Earl Wilson, Dick Radatz, Bob Reed, Fred Scherman and Mike Kilkenny. The Tigers open their third exhibition season at Lakeland with a game against the Twins Sunday.

Romp Over Oxford, 89-53

Lakers Checking Record Book

They are checking the old records at West Bloomfield High School today following the Lakers' 89-53 romp over Oxford Thursday night to reach the finals of the Class B district tournament at Rochester.

The scoring spree surpasses the West Bloomfield season high which was set Monday in ripping Avondale, 85-63, in the district opener. Now they're looking to see if the 89 points are a school scoring record.

Last night's conquest was the Lakers' 18th in 19 tries and rematches them with Romeo who eliminated them last March, 73-68, for the "B" championship at the Pontiac Northern district.

This time West Bloomfield — winner of its last 11 in a row — will be favored over the Bulldogs who are 12-5 and have captured 6 of their last 8.

There wasn't much doubt about last night's outcome. Going against an Oxford unit that had lost 13 straight, the Lakers quickly opened a 7-0 lead.

Rangy 6-Foot-4 sophomore Don Johnston netted 10 of his season-high 17 points in the first period as WBHS carved out a 24-12 advantage after the opening eight minutes. The lead was still 12 points at 28-16 when the Lakers broke it open completely.

They scored the final 16 points in the initial half for a 44-16 spread at the rest break. Dave Karlson had all 10 of his points in the first half, and his six in the second quarter were matched by teammates Steve Westjohn and Wally Alix.

EXTEND STRING

The string of points was extended to 18 when the Lakers put in the first two tallies of the second half.

★ ★ ★

In the first half, West Bloomfield sank 18 field goals to only 6 by the Wildcats. They doubled that output in the final 16 minutes while WBHS came back with 17 although taking 12 fewer shots than it did in the first half.

★ ★ ★

Impressively, the Lakers' 18 buckets in the opening half equalled Oxford's total for the entire night. The winners finished with 35 of 90 for 39 per cent.

WILDCATS' BEST

In the final half, Dave Gemmel dropped in 7 of 16 points and Dennis Wait — scoring his season high and matching the best by any Wildcat this year with 19 — came through with 8 in the closing quarter as the losers more than doubled their first half output.

But West Bloomfield had complete control of the backboards and was able to stay comfortably in front. In all, 13 players made the scoring column for the winners. The 36-point victory margin is their biggest of the campaign.

★ ★ ★

The championship encounter with Romeo is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Saturday on the Rochester court. West Bloomfield hasn't captured a district trophy since 1966.

Last year was a nightmare for the 6-foot-3 Kentuckian. He suffered through four different injuries, won only four games and lost 14. He makes it clear he'll quit before going through another campaign like that one.

Almont Ousts Dryden Five

Almont won the rubber game of its season series with neighboring Dryden Thursday night at Port Huron and the 72-61 victory boosted the Raiders into the Class D district finals.

They will meet Marine City Holy Cross at 8 p.m. Saturday. Holy Cross ousted Peck last night, 73-60.

Almont's lone loss in its last five outings was a 77-65 upset at Dryden to end the regular season. Earlier, the Raiders (9-9) were 93-75 winners over Dryden.

★ ★ ★

Last night John Bacholzky tallied 12 of his 17 points in the first half and Almont built a 39-32 bulge by intermission. Carmen Alampi, who made 9 of 9 at the foul line, added 11 to Bacholzky's total.

FIGHTS BACK

But young Bob Mason and Greg Howard combined for 12 in the third quarter and Dryden surged back. Midway through the final period, the Cardinals trailed by only 54-52.

However, they couldn't sustain their scoring drive and Almont regained its momentum and padded the lead through the closing minutes.

Alampi paced all scorers with 19 and Dennis Garner added 13 to the Raiders' attack. Howard's 15, Mason's 13 and 11 by George Baker, who had eight in the last half, sparked Dryden.

Clarenceville Pins Setback on Northville

Host Northville couldn't approach its earlier 26-point home court victory over Livonia Clarenceville and was eliminated last night from its own Class B district by the Trojans, 57-55.

The Mustangs (10-9) rallied in the final two periods and were tied with 25 seconds to go, but C'ville (6-11) hung on to earn the district final berth opposite Dearborn Riverside Saturday night.

Clarenceville held a 29-22 lead at intermission as the host Mustangs couldn't find the range. Northville finally caught up and forced ties at 51 and 53-all. The last came on Stan Nirider's driving layup with about 30 seconds to go.

But the Trojans, who beat Northville in Livonia by 51-49, broke the tie with a field goal and two free throws with four seconds to play.

Northville lost a chance to go ahead 52-51 when a successful free throw was disallowed because of a lane violation.

Royal Oak 5s Reach Finals

Kimball vs. Dondero for District Crown

Arch rivals Dondero and Kimball will clash 8 p.m. Saturday night at Royal Oak for the Kimball Class A district cage crown.

★ ★ ★

Kimball thumped Warren Mott, 71-52, following struggling Dondero's shocking 66-42 ouster of Warren in a twin bill Thursday night.

Senior forward Jay Brown was a one-man wrecking crew as Kimball's Knights (14-4) extended their home court victory streak to 10 in a row in the nightcap.

★ ★ ★

Brown led all scorers with 23 points, hauled down 21 rebounds and was all over the court grabbing loose basketballs.

★ ★ ★

Dondero won only its fourth game in 17 outings mainly on the strength of a 23-4 final quarter. Warren (2-16) fell behind, 20-9, but cut into the Oaks' lead for the next two sessions.

Defense Saves Troy; Orion Next for Colts

Troy threw a good zone defense at jittery Utica Stevenson Thursday to reach the finals of the Utica Class A district basketball tournament with a 49-34 triumph.

The Colts (13-5) and host Stevenson (3-15) battled on even terms for three periods before Troy's superior shooting and poised defense took their toll in the closing eight minutes.

The winners outscored the Utica quintet, 19-5, in the last period with Fred Billings dropping in 8 of his 11 points. Troy never trailed in the game, although its lead was one point several times and the Titans did tie the score late in the third period.

After a 7-6 battle in the opening quarter, Troy moved to a 22-18 intermission lead after Kerry Brown came off the Colts' bench to score 10 of his 14 points during a five-minute span.

The Titans, who posted only their first win in tournament play Monday while upsetting district favorite Rochester, were held to their lowest point output of the season and the second lowest score against the defensively minded Troy quintet.

The Colts will meet Lake Orion (15-2) in the 7:30 p.m. title game Saturday. They split their season series and last March Orion ousted Troy in the opening game of the "A" district on the Colts' court.

Detroit Falls, 4-1

Rangers Climb Past Red Wings

DETROIT (UPI) — Sid Abel, general manager of the Detroit Red Wings, was right when he remarked "We should have had our second team in there."

"Yeh," agreed Coach Bill Gadsby with a little chuckle, "you and I should have dressed up and gone out there."

★ ★ ★

Truth. Even Gadsby won't see 30 again and Abel just said goodbye to 40, the two couldn't have been much worse off than the regulars, who absorbed a 4-1 licking from the New York Rangers Thursday night in a National Hockey League game.

It was a good win for New York, which has two more games to play than Detroit, because it enabled the Rangers to climb over the Red Wings into third place in the East Division.

THIRD HAT TRICK

Montreal used Yvan Cournoyer's third hat trick of the season to ourscore Toronto, 5-3, and move back in front of idle Boston into first place in one of the other two games while the Philadelphia Flyers blasted the Los Angeles Kings, 5-1, in the other.

The Maple Leafs lost a golden chance to gain valuable ground on the Wings by losing to the Canadiens, although Toronto has three more games than Detroit to make up the three points difference in the fight for the last playoff spot.

Looking back, Gadsby said he sort of had a feeling it wasn't going to be Detroit's night after the first goal, which came off the stick of New York's Arnie Brown with the game just 37 seconds old. It was the kind even Hoyt Wilhelm would be proud of.

★ ★ ★

A PERFECT PASS

Then Jean Ratelle made it 2-0 at 16:23 of the same period with his 22nd goal of the season. He was standing right in front of Edwards and just back-handed the puck into the net when Jim Neilson fed him a perfect pass from the corner.

★ ★ ★

Bruce MacGregor halved the lead at 11:37 of the second session, batting the hard rubber disc into the net after New York goalie Ed Giacomin had turned back a couple of shots before being innundated by players trying to get at the elusive puck.

★ ★ ⅞

Bob Nevin tallied his 24th and 25th goals in the final period — the first just three seconds after a penalty to Detroit's Ron Harris when he tipped in a shot by Neilson at 3:41 and the second with only 53 seconds to play when Nevin and Don Marshall both came in uncontested on Edwards.

★ ★ ★

Detroit, which outshot New York by a 38-24 margin although that statistic doesn't reflect the quality of the shots although Giacomin made some key stops, was thus beaten for only the fourth time in their last 26 home games. New York won on the road for the first time in seven outings.

Golfing Stride Not Affected by Army Duty

ORLANDO, Fla. (UPI) — Tom Weiskopf hasn't wasted any time getting back into his golfing stride after his five months of Army duty.

The 26-year-old, long-hitting pro golfer, who switched back to civvies just two weeks ago, went into today's second round of the $115,000 Citrus Open tied for the lead with veteran Rod Funseth after both fired 4-under-par 68s Thursday despite battling a 15-mile-per-hour wind.

Defending champion Dan Sikes missed a chance to tie for the first round lead when he took a bogey at No. 17. He wound up one stroke off the pace at 69 where he was tied with perennial runnerup Tommy Aaron, Miller Barber, Jack McGowan and polio victim Larry Hinsen.

Top-Ranked Quintets Victors

By the Associated Press

Ypsilanti and River Rouge, the state's top ranked Class A and Class B teams respectively, ran roughshod over their opposition Thursday night in Michigan High School basketball district eliminations.

Ypsilanti was never in trouble as Bob Rhodin scored 22 points to put his squad into the Saturday night district final against Wayne Memorial at Eastern Michigan University with a 75-52 win over Inkster Cherry Hill.

River Rouge, looking ahead to a Friday showdown with archrival Ecorse, the state's No. 9 Class B unit, used 15 players in wiping out Riverview Gabriel Richard 92-39.

Ecorse almost didn't reach that showdown, though. Unranked and unnoticed Dearborn Divine Child actually led at the final buzzer in the game at River Rouge, but Divine Child fouled Mike Thomas at the buzzer and he converted on both free-throws plus a technical for the 64-62 Ecorse win.

Elsewhere Muskegon, No. 5 Class A team, raced to the Muskegon district title with a 92-62 romp over Muskegon Mona Shores. The Tatum brothers, Cal and Larry, again totalled 52 points for the Big Red, Cal getting 34 and Larry 18.

In Muskegon's first tourney game Tuesday night, Cal had 32 and Larry 20.

Meanwhile, two ranked teams were upset in action around the state.

Powerful Durand, ranked No. 8 in Class B, played its worst first half of the season, trailing 44-17 after two periods, and just couldn't come back all the way, losing to Swartz Creek by a 79-71 count.

★ ★ ★

Durand star Brian Carhoff had but three points before the intermission, came back with 31 in the second half, but it wasn't enough, as three Swartz Creek men scored in double figures.

In Class D action at Cheboygan, little Pellston hung on to tie No. 7 Harbor Springs 50 all after regulation play and then took the game in overtime 56-50 on Steven Bielas' field goal.

★ ★ ★

In other action, Vanderbilt, No. 10 in Class D, waltzed over Johannesburg 63-39 as guard Bailey Oliver scored 20 points and No. 6 Class D unit Detroit St. Martin whipped Detroit St. Philip 69-48.

Perry Drugs Ousted

City Fives in Semifinals

The big four was reduced to three last night in the Pontiac Class A basketball playoffs.

Perry Drugs bowed to Club One Spot, 58-42, in a second round game and the loss sent the Perry five to the sidelines in the playoffs that'll determine the city's representative in the state Class A competition.

STAYS UNBEATEN

In the other game, Conn's Clothes continued unbeaten by knocking off the Unbeatables, 68-65. The Unbeatables and One Spot tangle Monday in the semifinals with the winner moving to the championship round against Conn's on Thursday.

One Spot grabbed an early 17-16 lead and made it stand up in downing Perry Drugs. Felix Brooks led a balanced One Spot attack with 14 markers. Jerry Williams paced the losers with 13.

TRAILED AT HALFTIME

Conn's was down at halftime, 33-32, but outscored the Unbeatables in each of the final two periods. Carl Arnold's 18 markers plus 15 apiece by Fred Davis and Bob Rahaban paced Conn's. Walter Moore and Rudy Ransome pitched in 13 apiece for the Unbeatables.

* * *

Local No. 596 captured the city Class B crown last night with a 63-46 win over the Unbeatables and will now advance to the state tournament which opens Sunday in Highland Park.

The union team meets East Detroit in a 6 p.m. tilt at Hackett Fieldhouse on Pitkin Avenue. Dearborn and Plymouth will play the second game Sunday.

Joe Rainge checked in with 17 points and John Hooper added 14 to pace the victory by No. 596 over the Unbeatables. Azal Powell led the losers with 12.

Laver vs. Unseeded Pro in Net Tourney

LOS ANGELES (AP) — It will be a world series of sorts when unseeded Marty Riessen of Evanston, Ill., meets top-seeded Rod Laver of Australia in the men's singles finals Saturday in the Los Angeles Invitational Pro Tennis Tournament.

* * *

Riessen, a new pro, plays in the World Championship Tennis League. Laver, a veteran, plays in the National Tennis League.

Laver moved to the finals by downing countryman John Newcombe in straight sets Thursday night. Riessen defeated Roy Emerson of Australia 6-3, 6-5.

Vote Due Today on Big 10 Frosh

CHICAGO (AP) — Freshman varsity participation in all Big Ten sports except basketball and football is to be voted on today by conference faculty representatives.

The faculty men gave tentative agreement to frosh varsity participation Feb. 2 but because of a divided vote the matter was submitted for review by member universities.

Tigers Ticket Sales Already at Fast Pace

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Tigers became baseball's World champions last year and already it is showing at the box office.

Preseason tickets sales are setting a record, and as a result individual advance mail order sales have gone unfilled. But Tiger officials expect to start processing and mailing individual ticket orders within two weeks.

"We are well ahead of all previous season ticket sales, and orders are still coming in," said Norman Otto, director of ticket sales. "We are filling the special orders first, then it will be first come, first served on single game orders."

2 Champions Collect Titles in Waterford

Class B Pacesetter Earns Trip to State Basketball Playoffs

A couple of basketball champions were crowned last night in Waterford Township recreation activity — Duke's Speedo Service in Class B and Mel's Sport Shop in Class C.

Duke's (10-2), a 74-69 overtime winner over Kampsen Realty (9-3), now advances to the state Class B tournament and meets Livonia in a first-round game Monday at 8 p.m. in Highland Park.

TIES SCORE

Gary Hayward's basket tied the score at 67 with 59 seconds left and then a bucket by Don Hayward plus two free throws apiece by Mel Boomer and Sam Diehm in overtime sewed up the decision. Gary Hayward, who won the league scoring title with a 19.3 mark, wound up with 21 markers. last night and Boomer added 20. John Saum led Kampsen with 19.

* *

In other 'B' games, Genesee Welding (7-5) downed Coulacos Insurance (4-8), 74-55, and Lighthouse Lanes (5-7) whipped Lakeland Pharmacy (1-11), 55-40. Ken McClintock paced Genesee with 27 points and Bill Hayward topped Coulacos with 25. Bruce Hazen led Lighthouse Lanes with 21. Dave Struble's 12 markers were high for Lakeland.

Jim Zubkus pitched in 17 points in leading Mel's Sport Shop (11-1) to a 64-61 verdict over Struble Realty (10-2). Jim Bertrand tossed in 14 for Struble, which trailed at one point, 56-37.

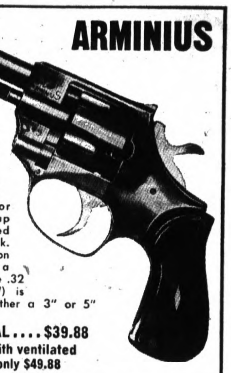

* * *

In the other games, Irwin Realty (3-9) downed Don Murphy (3-9) behind the scoring of Hal Brandon (32), while Joe Beseau whipped in 23 points to pace Booker Brothers Concrete (6-6) to a 62-52 decision over Spencer Floor (7-5).

Willie Wilhelm lost before he won.

In the 1966 Lawrenceburg, Indiana, Soap Box Derby, 13-year-old Willie was eliminated in the first heat. The next year he won the first heat, lost later. But in 1968, he beat everybody, won a trip to the All-American race at Akron, Ohio, and a $500 Savings Bond. Willie's quite a boy. He gets straight A's, plans on a career in electronics. Willie didn't win the world title at Akron, but he came close. And he had the greatest experience of his life trying. Willie's on his way to being quite a man now.

BOYS 11-15: You can win a $500 Savings Bond, a trip to Akron, Ohio, and a share of the $30,000 in college scholarships. And you'll have the time of your life doing it—even if you don't win. See your sponsoring Chevrolet dealer now for a new 1969 Rule Book and get started today!

College Cagers Set for NCAA Title Bid

By the Associated Press

Eighteen college basketball powers, loaded for Bruin but leery of each other, begin the annual NCAA title hunt Saturday. UCLA's mighty Bruins, bidding for an unprecedented third successive national championship, will be watching with keen interest from their West Coast den as first round action gets under way.

Six other conference champions have drawn first round byes, along with the unbeaten, top-ranked Uclans, but seven nationally-ranked major college teams and Trinity, Tex., the No. 5 college division club, will go to the post at five launching sites.

* * *

At Raleigh, N.C., fifth-ranked Davidson, the Southern Conference king, takes on No. 10 Villanova in the nationally-televised (NBC, 2 p.m. EST) opener of a doubleheader that also pits eighth- ranked St. John's N.Y., against Princeton's Ivy League champs.

The St. John's-Princeton clash also will be televised to some Eastern points by NBC. The rest of the country will be able to tune in on the Carbondale, Ill., doubleheader windup pairing Miami, Ohio, the Mid-American Conference representative, and 17th-ranked Notre Dame.

MARQUETTE PLAYS

Marquette, No. 14 in the final Associated Press ratings, meets Murray State of the Ohio Valley Conference in the Carbondale opener.

Saturday night, a single game at Kingston, R.I., and twinbills at Fort Worth, Tex., and Las Cruces, N.M., wind up the first round competition.

Trinity, which chose to mix it up with the big boys following a 19-4 regular season finish, tackles Southwest Conference champ Texas A&M and Dayton collides with Colorado State University at Fort Worth.

At Las Cruces, No. 12 New Mexico State, playing on its home floor, goes against Brigham Young's Western Athletic Conference representatives and Weber State, king of the Big Sky Conference, meets Seattle.

Small Cager Gains Honor

Rinka Heads Little All-American Team

NEW YORK (AP)—John Rinka of Kenyon, Ohio, at 5-foot-9 one of the smallest players in the sport, headed the 1969 Little All-American College basketball team selected today by the Associated Press.

Michigan placed no one on the first three teams. However, Northern Michigan's Ted Rose and Ferris State's Jesse Mangham were named to the honorable mention list.

* * *

Picked for the first team, along with the diminutive Rinka were Larry Jeffries of Trinity, Tex., George Tinsley of Kentucky Wesleyan., Ken Hall of Westminister, Utah, and Sammy Little of Delta, Miss., State.

* * *

The five were chosen from the votes of 102 sports writers and broadcasters throughout the country. Rinka and Jeffries moved up from the second team a year ago while Tinsley jumped to the top from the 1968 honorable mention list.

Williams in Debut

Nats' Bats Are Silent

By The Associated Press
Associated Press Sports Writer

After nine days of hitting lessons, Manager Ted Williams apparently has yet to get his points across to his Washington club. The Senators barely managed to avoid an embarrassing zero on their first test.

* * *

"Maybe the pitching is better than I thought," laughed Williams after an 8-5, one-hit loss Thursday to the New York Yankees in his managerial debut. "I'm thankful that we got the one."

* * *

Only an error by Yankees third baseman Bob Cox in the last of the ninth inning gave Dick Billings a chance to hit one off Thad Tillotson for Williams, a sharp single to center with two out.

* * *

Only 12 walks and two hit batters by New York pitchers kept Washington in the game, which was tied 4-4 after two innings. But rookies Bill Burbach, and John Cumberland and veteran Don Nottebart didn't allow any hits. "I'm flabbergasted. I would have thought we'd make at least three or four," Williams said, taking the almost non-existent offense in good humor for a Hall of Famer who was one of baseball's greatest hitters.

SLUGGER MISSING

Part of the embarrassment was caused by the absence of holdout slugger Frank Howard and Ken McMullen, who signed late and didn't play.

* * *

In the only other exhibition opener, Montreal rode Bob Bailey's three-run ninth inning homer past Kansas City 9-8 in a battle between expansion clubs.

* * *

In intrasquad games, Joe Lahoud slammed two homers, rookie Tony Muser a three-run shot and Rico Petrovelli and Gerry Moses solos for Boston.

Charley "Boots" Day, a rookie, rocked a single, double and three- run homer in the St. Louis Cardinals' only intrasquad contest.

The Cardinals, however, remained puzzled by the continued absence of hard-hitting Orlando Cepeda, who has signed his contract, but, along with Julian Javier, is overdue from the Caribbean.

BOWLING

Just two days after the North Oakland County area had its first sanctioned 299 game reported this season young Lee Smith, a former Pontiac Press employee, duplicated the feat at North Hill Lanes in the Friday Nighters' League.

A four-pin remained up after his 12th delivery in game No. 1. He slumped to a 191 but came back with a 712 finale for a robust 722 total or a 184 average.

That same night in the league, Larry VanDeVelde stood out with a 225-245-258—728 for Pinkerton's Pharmacy, and teammate George Ellman rolled 263-258-203—724. North Hill's Lou Koprince wasn't far behind at 221-233-257—711.

This past Monday Wonderland Lanes' Masters League commanded the spotlight as Meryl Taulbee scorched the lanes for 267-265-221 and a 753 series that is the fifth best league actual reported locally this season.

HIGH GAME

He didn't get high game honors for the night, though. Don Freeman Jr. posted a 286, and Jerry Dunkel challenged both of them with his 264. John Lorang's 652 was the next high series, and Tim White bowled a 644.

Daniels' Manufacturing had a strong 1094—3137 duo.

★ ★ ⅞

The West Side Classic had one of its better showings that same evening. Al Schupbach's 265—699 and Harold Alexander's 279—680 dueling made it interesting.

Tom Yerk's 662, Ed Austreng's 651 and Harold Pennell's 650 rated notice as did Ted Sutton's 257, Bob Kwiecen's 255 and Art Walker's 253.

The first place Pontiac Janitor Supply entry had 1039—3071 actuals, and Oakland Vending rolled a 1063.

HURON LOOP

Last Friday at Huron Boyl, there were 31 series of 600 or better and 97 games in the 200 class during the weekly men's classic.

High for the night were the 267 rolled by Bill Smith and a 696 posted by Bill Kirkland (265-245) for the Janitors who are only seventh best at Huron. Bud Mulholland listed 246-250—693 on his scoresheet for front-running Herks Auto Supply.

Dixie Construction's Bill Pittman had 245-217—675 and Ralf Walter rolled 216-245—674 for Gniewek's Trophies.

Offers One Million, but There's a Catch

DETROIT (AP) — Ralph Wilson, owner of the Buffalo Bills of the American Football League says he's willing to give O.J. Simpson $1 million — but there's a catch.

"The Bills' player budget is $1 million," Wilson said at his Detroit home. "I'm willing to give the million to Simpson or his agents and let him take out what he's worth and pay the rest of the players who give him the ball and block for him."

Wilson, who made enough bucks selling insurance to finance his venture into professional sports, says he's feeling kind of poor as a result of the O.J. Simpson dealings.

Simpson was placed in Wilson's sphere of influence because: 1. Simpson was considered the best college football player this year in the professional draft, and; 2. the Buffalo Bills were the worst of the several professional teams participating in the draft.

Negotiations have apparently stalled over Simpson's flirtation with the $600,000 figure along with what Wilson described as "a very, very substantial fringe benefit." He declined to describe the fringe benefit, but Simpson's agent reportedly asked for an attractive business loan.

Godman Heads List in Keg Qualifying

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — Jim Godman of Hayward, Calif., held a 34-pin lead Thursday night to pace the 24-game qualifying action in the Professional Bowlers Association $70,000 Miller Open.

★ ★ ⅞

After Friday's match - play semifinals, the best five entries advance to Saturday's nationally televised finals with $10,000 going to the winner.

Cage Coach Resigns

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Joe Brehmer resigned today as St. Louis University basketball coach after missing nine of the team's last 10 games because of a diabetic condition.

SEEK NEW LANES TO CONQUER — The Kast Heating Team of Pontiac reigns as this year's Michigan Elks Ladies team champion and now is ready to seek other laurels. One of those could be the Pontiac Woman's Bowling Association's city tournament title. Four of them will represent Kast's in the team event and the other is a member of another city tournament entry. The state Elks champs include Captain Clare Olsen, seated, and (left to right) Marie French, Rhoda Holler, Mary Jane Bailey and Lee Anna Gutzke.

Second Round on Tap

Lady Keglers Score Well in City Event

The 36th edition of the City Women's Bowling Tournament sponsored by the Pontiac Women's Bowling Association moves into its second weekend of activity tomorrow at Orchard Lanes with some good targets thrown up by the opening weekend participants.

Three of the leading scores posted last Saturday and Sunday would have been good enough to win trophies last year, and one other would have captured second place money.

Perhaps the toughest target was erected by Art's Party Store who rolled a 3104 handicap total last Saturday. The Lake Orion entry needed its 819 handicap to overcome a strong 2527 actual by the 5K's of Pontiac who stand second with a 3064 total.

ALL EVENTS

Peggy Parry of Waterford Township is the handicap all events leader with a strong 1961 that includes 1610 actual pins. Sally Popour won the event last season with 1937 which is six pins less than the current runner-up, Dorothy Davis of Pontiac.

Gerry Hintz's tournament high 600 actual series last Sunday helped her to the actual all events lead at 1683, nine pins better than the winning total posted by Norma Conley last March.

Mrs. Davis also is No. 2 presently in the singles. She has 696 pins to pacesetter Judy Polovich's 723. She is from Oxford. Last year, Rita Groleau set a PWBA tourney record with a winning 761 at Sylvan Lanes.

DOUBLES TOTALS

Leading the doubles are Lois Taylor and Jean Rucks of Pontiac with 1082 actual and 1262 total. This is low compared to last year's doubles scores when the top five totals ranged from 1343 to 1288.

Linda Carpenter of Oxford bowled last weekend's top game, a 245 actual but she isn't listed among any of the singles, doubles or all events top five totals.

Geraldine Cobb and Juanita Allen of Pontiac rolled a 442 actual and had 1037 actual series in placing second with 1220.

The PWBA competition will last through Mar. 29-30. More than $8,000 in prize money will be awarded after the five weekends of play at Orchard Lanes.

Eight Reach Keg Finals

Eight county bowlers qualified for the Bowlers' Charities state finals next month in Lansing under the sponsorship of the state bowling proprietors' association.

Winning a color television in the area rolloffs at West Side Lanes was Dave Miller of Pontiac. He had 687 with handicap.

The runner-up was Bob Weinberg of Milford, 673. Others qualifying are S. B. Saylor, Rich Sutliff and Jack Smiddy of Pontiac; Larry Cutcher of Auburn Heights; Hal Marsh of Rochester and coed Terry Grant of Union Lake.

Others receiving prizes in the rolloffs were Nestor Capogna and Dale McGorman of Rochester; Emil Still, Pontiac; Larry McLintock and Larry Dean of Pontaic; and Howell's Jim Whalen, Doris Morgan and Don Dehoach.

The low score on the prize list was 647.

Lead Holds Steady in 2 Keg Events

Last weekend's state bowling tournaments at 300 Bowl and Savoy Lanes produced no leadership changes in either the 27th annual Eagles meet or the 28th annual Knights of Columbus competition.

★ ★ ★

The K. of C. men are approaching the home stretch at "300" with out-of-town bowlers leading in every event. Last Sunday's changes included the addition of five Detroiters (four of them in doubles) to the top five standings in two events.

Jack Davis and Emmett Gendernelle took third place in doubles with a 1344 handicap score, while two pins behind came Joe Loria and Frank Fletcher.

LEADING DUO

Joe Rabout bowled 1962 total to grab fifth place in all events for the only other change. He is three pins behind the lone Oakland County entrant listed among any of the best scores.

He is Joe Nitkiewicz of Farmington, who is fourth behind Detroit's Tony Rea (1992) in the all events.

★ ★

The other leaders are the Detroit Police Council team (3177), and Nicholas Kramer of Hamtramck who has 719 in the singles

PONTIAC KEGLER

Savoy's only change in the Eagles' standings last week saw Pontiac's Ed Boetcher roll a 687 Bargerip (683) into third place to slip past Waterford's Gene on the singles board.

The Eagles go into their eighth weekend with E. S. Electric of Detroit topping the team event with 3073. Dearborn's John McDonough and Charles Ponder heading the doubles at 1297, Herm Montville of Waterford pacing the singles with his 706, and Detroiter Mitch Deeb No. 1 in all events at 2007.

★ ★ ★

Several Pontiac entries will be competing tomorrow and Sunday in singles and doubles. Four of the five top singles are currently local bowlers, and a Hazel Park duo is third in doubles.

Detroit entries stand one-two-three in the team listings.

Delaware U. Art Courses Are Model of Decorum

"I think they tend to be average—not the Riviera type," said Robert M. Stein, an art instructor.

UNSETTLING?

Bikini-clad models can be unsettling say students. Said one coed art student, "You're getting involved in the form, and you're following a line, and all of a sudden here comes this bathing suit. You have to kind of surmise what's going on underneath there."

The art department plans to appeal to the administration for a change.

* * *

AP Wirephoto

REACTION AT DELAWARE U. — A Delaware University ruling that swimsuits must be worn by models in life drawing courses doesn't appear to have bothered these two students, model Carolyn Jo Johnson and Dick Condor. Delaware University is believed to be only state university with a ban on nude models.

Moon and Sun's Pull Tied to Earthquakes

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Tidal waves in the earth's crust up to a foot high, caused by the gravitational pull of the moon and the sun, may have triggered some major earthquakes, a geophysicist said Thursday.

Dr. C. Hewitt Dix, professor of geophysics at the California Institute of Technology, cited the 1952 Kern County, Calif., quake and a series of aftershocks that cost 14 lives and $60 million damage as a possible example.

In a report on his studies released by the institute, Dix said the moon and sun were almost in a line with earth at the time of the main shock on July 21, causing a tidal bulge in the Sahara region and a compression of the crust in California.

Dix explained in an interview that the moon's gravitational pull causes a bulging of up to eight inches and that when the sun is in line behind the moon this bulge, moving around the equator as the earth rotates, can be as high as 12 inches.

"This may be what triggered the Kern County earthquakes," Dix said, "and possibly some other major earthquakes, including that in Alaska in 1964, although ocean tides may have played a role there as well."

For gravitational pull to touch off an earthquake, Dix said, the rocks must already be under enough stress so that a small additional amount of strain can trigger them into movement.

In Kern County, he said, stress was built up over the centuries by the erosion of material from the Tehachapi and Sierra Nevada mountains, which added extra weight to the floor of the San Joaquin Valley.

"One of the reasons for the concentration of earthquakes around the rim of the Pacific may be from the stress being accumulated by the mountains unloading their weight onto the adjoining valleys or into the ocean," Dix said.

He said tremors occur more often on land that is near mountains, and that if there were no mountains there probably would be fewer earthquakes.

Most Patients Generally Specialize in Patience

By DICK WEST

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Everyone knows that the medical profession has developed a large number of specialists, including those who specialize in referring patients to other specialists.

WEST

Meanwhile, it has become increasingly difficult to find a physician in general practice. That is, a doctor who answers the telephone, makes house calls and treats more than one type of ailment.

* * *

It used to be that you went to a doctor to find out what was wrong with you. Now you need to know what is wrong with you before you go to a doctor.

TIME LOST WAITING

Otherwise, you may spend several hours in the waiting room only to discover that you have gone to the wrong type of specialist.

It seems to me that the only way a layman can beat this system is to become a specialist himself. In other words, you should specialize in catching certain types of diseases.

* * *

If, for instance, there is a good nose-and-throat specialist in your neighborhood, you should specialize in ailments of the upper respiratory tract.

Having the patient specialize along with the doctor saves both a lot of time, trouble and misunderstanding.

DIFFERENT APPROACH

I note, however, that the American Medical Association (AMA) has adopted a different approach to the problem.

Because so many doctors are bypassing family practice to become specialists, the AMA recently designated family practice as a new specialty.

* * *

I'll swear I'm not making this up. You can look it up for yourself.

The AMA hopes that enabling a family doctor to call himself a specialist will induce more physicians to take up that line of medicine. I doubt, however, that the plan will work.

TITLE, PRESTIGE LINKED

Prestige in the medical professional being what it is, a specialist needs a more impressive title than family doctor. It should be a title that will keep potential patients from knowing what it is that he does exactly. "Generalologist" might be an acceptable term.

The next step is to acquire an unlisted telephone number, shorten office hours, raise fees and overload the appointments book.

* * *

Only then will the family doctor become a true specialist.

Two State Gls Killed in Vietnam

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two Michigan servicemen were among recent casualties in Vietnam, the Defense Department announced Thursday.

Killed in action was Marine Corps Lance Cpl. James C. Burks, son of Lauran Burks of Detroit. Army Pfc. James A. Craft died in Vietnam, but not as a result of hostile action. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Craft of rural Hillman.

Make mine chocolate! That's the cry at dessert time. Give a little boy or girl a chocolate candy bar and he or she's in heaven. Today's candy counters have an unlimited variety of solid milk-chocolate bars, chocolate-coated candy, and many bars containing fruits and nuts. Many of your recipes today call for a chocolate bar to add flavor and crunch. And when it comes to time-savers, most cooks will agree that a melted chocolate bar is a mighty fast way to a frosting.
Most people will agree that JAYSON'S, 4195 Dixie Highway at Hatchery Rd., Drayton Plains, 673-7900, serves the finest food in this area and "Where Dining Pleasure and Hospitality go Hand in Hand." Now featuring an appetizing cold relish tray with dinner . . . Excellent Seafoods.

THEY FOLLOW HER EVERYWHERE —Blonde Gudrun Petursdottir, 22, Miss Iceland in the 1967 Miss Universe contest, is a prime example of the pretty girls who guide visitors around at the United Nations. Girls are chosen for personality and intelligence in addition to looks.

AP Wirephoto

But They Must Be Intelligent

U.N.'s Girl Guides: Groovy

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Pulchritude is not a subject you would expect the United Nations to specialize in, but the world organization has developed an expertise in the field as it goes about selecting dozens of girls a year for its guide service.

* * *

Personality and intelligence count as much as beauty in choosing the young ladies who escort more than one million visitors a year through the U.N.

* * *

"Appearance is important, though a girl who looks stunning but lacks personality or the ability to absorb all the information she needs for her job won't make it," says Maurice Liu, chief of the Visitors' Service since 1961.

Liu said, however, that looks and intelligence usually go together, and cited Gudrun Petursdottir, 22, a blonde who represented Iceland in the 1967 Miss Universe contest.

ONE OF THE BEST

Since she became a guide last year, Liu said, she has been rated by U.N. officials as one of the most accomplished members of the corps of 100 girls from throughout the world.

* * *

There were several hundred applicants for this year's selection process in which 50 girls from 24 countries were chosen as replacements to join the service Monday. They receive two-year contracts calling for monthly pay of $485 the first year and $515 the second.

Recruits, who must be single and between 20 and 30 years old, usually come from the ranks of college graduates, airline stewardesses, actresses, teachers and the daughters of diplomats.

They receive intensive instruction in the history and operation of the United Nations and its related agencies during a three-week course that also tests their ability to meet strangers.

ONE FROZE UP

A 1968 recruit, called upon to address her class as she would a group of visitors, froze, Liu said. She resigned.

A titled Englishwoman was rejected one year because she "hadn't worked at her studies," Liu said.

* * *

Most of the girls have at least two working languages and have ample use for them. About 10 per cent of the tours are in a language other than English, with the most requests coming for tours in French, Spanish and German.

Frequently the girls must put diplomacy into practice as they guide visitors on 1¼-mile tours four times a day.

KEPT HER COOL

During the six-day Arab-Israeli war in 1967, for example, a Lebanese girl who disclosed that she was born in Palestine was spat on by a tourist, but she retained her composure and reported the incident only after the tour was completed.

* * *

There also are social fringe benefits. Party-going government representatives shower the girls with invitations for both formal and informal gatherings, and many of the girls marry delegates or U.N. officials.

Actor Learns to Play His Toughest Role

By ROBERT STACK
TV and Film Star

When I was 15 years old, I read an article about a boy my age, Billy Clayton, who had just become an All - American skeet champion.

STACK

"I wonder if I could beat that kid," I said to myself. For a year I spent every after-school hour shooting and entered my name in the competition. Billy and I tied for first place. There was a shoot-off and, incredibly, I won.

Well, this just reinforced something I had always suspected: the guy who works hardest wins. In time I developed a competitive spirit which I'm afraid was a bit overdone. Competitiveness might be an asset in sports, but outside that limited world, effort and results do not always go hand in hand.

I saw this myself as my training as an actor began. There is an ingredient in success which goes beyond effort, even beyond talent — an element of luck, of simple fate.

How the competitor in me resisted this idea! I rejected it even when luck stepped in and smiled on me personally. Through mutual friends I was visiting Deanna Durbin one day at her studio. While the young actress and I were talking, her director walked in. He took one look at me and asked, "How'd you like to play opposite Miss Durbin?"

I thought he was joking. He hadn't asked if I could act, or even if I wanted to. I "looked the part," and for no stronger reason than that I was offered a chance of a dream.

* * *

Yet in spite of my own luck, I still could not abandon the idea that success just had to depend on outdoing the other guy. A person who helped me change this attitude was a young girl, Rosemarie Bowe, who had just come to Hollywood from Tacoma, Wash.

One day I was in a roomful of actors when Rosemarie walked in. Two older women, threatened by Rosemarie's youth, started in on her — the snide remark, the innuendo. I watched to see how Rosemarie would counterattack, as I surely would have done.

'NO THREATS'

But not Rosemarie. It was as if she literally did not hear. As naturally as a child, she stepped up to those two women and made friends of them.

Sometime later, I told her how greatly I admired the way she had handled the two women and asked her how she did it.

* * *

"I'm not in charge of my own life," Rosemarie said. "Once I discovered that, I stopped thinking of other people as threats."

It took me some time to discover that when Rosemarie said she wasn't in charge of her own life, she meant that God was. It was basic to her whole outlook, and it was basic to my feeling that this was a girl I wanted to live with for the rest of my life. Rosemarie and I were married in January 1956.

'NO ACCIDENT'

And right away she began trying to teach me to look at my career with detachment. Time after time, she pointed out the roles I had tried for and lost were wrong anyway. On the other hand, roles which came to me most casually had turned out to be my best opportunities.

"That is no accident," Rosemarie said. "That's God directing your life. You really ought to join me more often in my morning time." This is the time she saves each day for meditation. I did join her — hesitantly at first, then with greater conviction.

* * *

One day I got a telephone call from my agent. He wanted me to consider the part of a federal agent named Elliot Ness, in a new TV show to be called "The Untouchables." I resisted when I learned that I wasn't first choice for the job. Rosemarie just laughed. "Maybe your ego is being crushed on purpose," she said. "Maybe God has something special for you to do in this part."

I wondered. Perhaps in this new role I could counter the trend of giving evil the glamor treatment on TV. When I talked with the producer about the part, I told him I wanted to show violence for what it is — ulgy.

RELEVANT MESSAGE

And the remarkable thing is that this show, which nobody wanted to do, became one of the longest running and most honored vehicles on the air. I am convinced this success came because it had a message that was relevant to our times.

* * *

So the competitive spirit in me is finally taking its rightful place. Controlling my beat-the-other-guy instincts has been a matter of discovering God. Today I know that every time I yield myself to His plan, He uses me in ways that have never even occurred to me. My responsibility is to do my best wherever He puts me, and to leave the outcome to Him.

* * *

Perhaps that's the toughest role I've ever had to learn.

Satisfied Customers Endorse Ward's Income Tax Service

Montgomery Ward's Income Tax Service Departments are open and in full swing for the 1969 income tax season.

Clark

Bailes

Typical comments from satisfied customers of Ward's Tax Service include:

"Ward's did my income tax. They did it quickly and didn't charge me very much either." — B. C. Clark.

"My wife and I were really pleased with the way Ward's handled our income tax return. They sure were efficient." — Robert Bailes.

Ward's Tax Service Departments are staffed by highly-trained income tax specialists who have successfully completed a rigid course of intensive training to qualify them for the preparation of income tax returns.

Among the advantages of this unique service are: no appointment necessary; private interviews; 1-trip service; returns carefully reviewed before filing; large volume of work which means lower cost to Ward's tax customers and you can just say "Charge it!"

Prices start at only $5.00! This year join the thousands of satisfied customers and let a Montgomery Ward tax specialist prepare your income tax.

OCS Milestone

FT. BENNING, Ga. (AP) — James W. Hickey, 24, of Port Jefferson, N.Y., who receives his gold bars today, is the 100,000th candidate to graduate from the U.S. Army Officer Candidate School here. He is being assigned to the 82nd Airborne Division at Ft. Bragg, N.C.

Aid to Hospital

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. Public Health Service has approved a $255,000 grant for Riverside Osteopathic Hospital in Trenton, Mich. Total cost of the hospital's remodeling and enlargement project is $3.1 million.

Only 3.5 per cent of Chile's nine million people are pure-Indian.

'ABM Can't Insure Safety of the Cities'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three scientists have told a Senate subcommittee that the Sentinel antiballistic missile system could not guarantee that American population centers would be safe from a Soviet nuclear attack.

Two of them, however, told of the Foreign Relations Committee Thursday they saw merit in a "thin" system such as the Sentinel is designed to be.

President Nixon has promised a decision next week on whether to go ahead with construction of the Sentinel, which is designed to ward off a missile attack such as Communist China might be able to launch in the mid-1970s.

Dr. J. P. Ruina of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology testified that "deploying Sentinel against the Chinese may have some merit, but I believe there is universal agreement that deploying it to protect our population against a possible Soviet attack makes no sense at all."

'MIGHT STABILIZE RACE'

Dr. Hans J. Bethe of Cornell University, a Nobel laureate in physics, agreed that Sentinel could not guarantee protection to population centers, but thought deploying missiles to protect U.S. Minuteman missiles might help stabilize the arms race.

Dr. Daniel Fink, who as deputy director of defense research and engineering was active in development of antimissile plans, said he viewed a thin defense system as a deterrent and testified that "the lack of any defense might encourage the outbreak of conflict."

★ ★ ★

The new head of the U.S. disarmament agency, Gerard C. Smith, told the subcommittee he did not view a thin Sentinel system as a bar to negotiations with the Soviet Union on limiting nuclear arms.

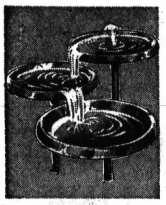

But expansion to a thick system—designed to defend against a Soviet attack—would cause problems, he said.

Nixon Suffers Setback on Debt Ceiling

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon has been dealt the first legislative setback of his six-week-old administration—refusal by the House Ways and Means Committee to refigure the national debt ceiling as he requested.

Instead of a redefined limit giving the Treasury $17 billion in new borrowing power, the committee approved Thursday a temporary $12-billion increase.

It will get the Treasury through some tight squeezes anticipated for next month and late summer. But in political terms it means the new administration will have to come back to the Democratic-controled Congress early in 1970 to ask for another increase and face quizzing on its economy record.

The arrangement Nixon sought was expected to postpone debt limit problems at least two years and possibly indefinitely. In the past, Republicans have teamed with conservative Democrats to keep Democratic administrations returning annually to Congress when they wanted to raise the ceiling.

PRESENT LIMIT

The present limit is $365 billion. The committee approved a $12-billion increase through June 30, 1970.

Nixon had proposed a rearrangement of the debt subject to limitation that would have resulted in a $300-billion ceiling, while at the same time giving the Treasury the additional $17 billion borrowing authority.

★ ★ ★

While the Ways and Means Committee took no formal votes on the issue, the Democratic majority was understood to be heavily against the Nixon proposal.

Congress could reverse the committee action, but this is highly unlikely. The House will debate the issue next week.

Spirit of Rebellion Discussed by Ford

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Industrialist Henry Ford II says the growing spirit of rebellion could save the country but the accompanying violence could create a society in which no man is safe.

Ford said the discontent of youth over things as they are is shared by many—including members of the "the Establishment.

"Even the industrial establishment is vulnerable . . . Now we are confronted by dealers who are discontented with their relations with the factory, by rebellious customers who are dissatisfied with products and services, and by irate citizens who are disturbed by air pollution, traffic accidents, traffic congestion and highway construction."

Hearing Is Set on Blue Cross

LANSING (UPI) — The quarterly hearing on Blue Cross and Blue Shield rates will be held March 25 in the State Bureau of Insurance offices.

No changes in the existing base rate schedules has been requested.

Late Athletics Director Honored

LANSING (AP) — The Michigan House has approved and sent to the Senate a resolution honoring the late Charles E. Forsythe, former state athletic director, who died last Dec. 19.

The Milan native was 69. He was elected to the Helms Foundation Hall of Fame in 1968 for his contribution to high school athletics and physical education.

KEATING

Spring; Summer; Fall; Winter

Approximately 25 miles from Lake Huron (Saginaw Bay) — Motel and restaurant. Eight units, carport on each unit. House and office; two bedrooms and fireplace in living room, garage, utility, kitchen, living room and bath.

Two cabins, two-bedroom efficiencies with kitchen and living room. Utility buildings at cabins; also two tool sheds.

Near Flint and not too far to Saginaw (about 25 miles). Pleasant hunting, pleasant hunting, fishing in area or at the Bay. Restaurant not now operating but would be a good stand. On Handimain road. Near Vassar and Millington. About two and a half acres.

$85,000 slightly flexible, depending on terms. Will consider $25,000 down and will discharge small mortgage out of the down payment.

Is Wilson a Little Stuck Up Over His Being Stuck Up?

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—It looks like the most popular thing I ever did in my journalistic career was to get stuck up for $75 on my to an egg sandwich.

My coolness when I came face-to-face on Broadway with two guys with a gun who said "Give us your wallet" was epic.

WILSON

"Cool was not the word for the bum — he froze" said an old buddy. I admit this. I had never been face-to-face with a gun before and the fact that the nice-looking young man wielding it held it not at my head but down around my stomach somewhere, did not alter my respect for it.

"You must have been very composed," some girls have been nice enough to say.

★ ★ ★

Decomposed is probably the word. I think I must have said, "J-j-just a—s-s-s-second," about that fast.

I handed them the money from my wallet so fast they had time to stage two other holdups before turning in.

★ ★ ★

They took my money and ran — and I took my empty wallet and ran —in the opposite direction. The two holdup men and their companion, a lookout, running north on Broadway toward Columbus Circle, and me running south on Broadway toward 42nd St., must have presented a very vivid picture of heroism in the year 1969.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Joey Heatherton's fiance, Dallas Cowboys' star Lance Rentzel, whisked her home to meet his folks, and wants to get married next week, but papa Ray Heatherton hopes they'll have a June wedding . . . "But how you going to argue with a wonderful guy who also happens to be 6 feet 4?" asks Ray.

Most chic cafe opening: Rich Chicago socialite Mrs. Frederick G. Wacker, professionally known as Jana Mason, at the St. Regis Maisonette, cheered by three tables of Chicago friends. Her see-through gown and the tight-fitting one she changed into aroused all the gentlemen who didn't know that she lives in a 42-room mansion and is the mother of three. Just happens to love show biz.

Didn't the Richard Burtons recently visit Howard Hughes? And what does that portend? Who lent to whom? . . . At 21: Marty Ransohoff with Sandy Roberts whom he may make a superstar . . . Julie Wilson is divorcing Mike McAloney . . . Back in NY after loafing in Miami Beach for months, Joe E. Lewis said, "I came up here for a rest."

★ ★ ★

WISH I'D SAID THAT: In the old days a guy who was dating a girl had to wait till summer time to tell if she had nice legs.

REMEMBERED QUOTE: "Public relations is the art of calling an undergarment 'lingerie.'"

EARL'S PEARLS: Jim Mulholland claims his parents didn't love him when he was a child: "They used to leave my baby carriage in tow-away zones."

Rocky Graziano showed up at a Broadway opening in a dinner jacket. "I useta think," he said, "the only guys who wore these wuz ring announcers." . . . That's earl, brother.

A Look at TV

'Crank Call' Plot Abused

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK — By a coincidence, crank telephone calls have been important plot elements in two police-action stories this week.

On Tuesday night, it was Lt. Haines' wife in "N.Y.P.D." who was being harassed by strange calls. On Thursday night's "Ironside," it was another of the chief's old friends, a beautiful widow with lots of money and a beastly brother.

Lt. Haines immediately put two of his best detectives to work in an effort to find the tormentor. Chief Ironside and his aides dropped everything else to uncover a plot.

It may be that it works that way if one has special contacts with police departments. But in real life, when that sort of thing happens, the victim finally decides the best way out is to change to an unlisted telephone number. That usually works since in real life the caller is usually someone who has picked a name and number from a directory—rarely is it the deliberate kickoff point leading to some foul deed.

FRANTIC FEAR

Any family receiving a flurry of strange telephone calls is likely to become at the least nervous. Since in both TV stories the women reacted with frantic fear to the calls, the idea might serve to stimulate cruel practical jokers or deranged persons to copy it.

From time to time television has been accused, among other things, of providing "blueprints of crime" in its police and private eye series. Sharp details nowadays are frequently blurred a bit but most of us know about the fingerprints and getaway cars.

"It Takes a Thief" and "Mission: Impossible" are two shows in which all sorts of criminal techniques are used but all in a worthy cause and nobody could possibly copy them.

It doesn't take much skill, however, to pick up a phone and proceed to scare the daylights out of the person on the other end of the line.

TV Exec to Talk at Water Confab

LANSING (AP) — Stuart Finley, a network television and film producer specializing in programs related to man's environment, will be the keynote speaker Tuesday at the Governor's Conference on Water Sediment Pollution.

The conference, set for the Lansing Civic Center, will include panel discussions on such topics as water sedimentation in Lake Michigan, effects of sedimentation and methods of control.

Girl Mauled by Two Dogs Hospitalized

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP) — A 7-year-old girl was dragged from the porch of her home to the sidewalk by two large dogs Thursday.

"She was sitting on the sidewalk with her clothes torn off when we arrived," said Patrolman Joseph Wright. "She was bitten from head to toe."

★ ★ ★

The child, Patricia Godbold, was reported in fair condition later at a hospital.

★ ★ ★

Wright quoted neighbors as saying the two dogs had chased another girl into her home shortly before attacking the Godbold child.

★ ★ ★

Officers shot one of the dogs. The other was captured. Both are being examined for rabies. Both wore collars without tags or identification plates.

Waterford Votes Again on School Millage March 26

By MEL NEWMAN

School millage will get another chance in Waterford Township.

The same 9-mills - for - two - years proposal which voters defeated Dec. 7 — at that time in dandem with a $10.8-million bond issue — has been scheduled for ballot March 26, it was announced at last night's school board meeting.

★ ★ ★

Thus, a somewhat hesitant board acceded to the pressures of petitions and resolutions presented by groups favoring a repeat election and to an optimistic interpretation of the results of a recent survey of school district parents.

The petitions, bearing about 2,000 signatures, were presented at the Feb. 6 meeting of the board.

QUESTIONAIRES MAILED

This prompted a study — in the form of questionnaires mailed to parents — of the feasibility of a repeat election. March 26 was set as the date for the tentative ballot.

While survey returns were being examined, the school district administrative office received resolutions supporting the proposal from PTA chapters, Jaycee groups, school staffs and other organizations, according to Dr. Don O. Tatroe, superintendent of schools.

Early this week, the questionnaires were evaulated.

Of some 16,000 postcards mailed, 6,628 responses (slightly more than 40 per cent) were returned with a "yes" or "no" answer indicating either support for millage or a negative position.

54 PER CENT FOR

Of these, 3,601 were in support and 3,027 opposed — a 54-46 percentage breakdown.

Tatroe suggested that while the figures don't exactly amount to a mandate, they do offer passage of millage a reasonable chance.

★ ★ ★

"In essence, the board decision was based on the desire to give the schoolchildren every opportunity," he said.

Tatroe pointed out that the board is committed to levy in the first year only that part of the nine mills, should it be passed, which is needed.

ABOUT SIX MILLS

"That would probably be about six mills," he said.

He said the ownerof a home with a state equalized valuation of $8,000 would pay an additional $72 if nine mills were levied or less than $50 if six mills were levied the first year.

★ ★ ★

Only 30 per cent of the district's parents voted in the last election.

★ ★ ★

If parents vote March 26 in the same volume they answered the questionnaire and if the yes-no ratio follows the same pattern, the proposal may pass.

"We now have a chance," said Tatroe.

'Spider' Leaves Its Mate in Dry Run of Moon Shot

After a brief hangup when the docking mechanism wouldn't unlatch, the two vehicles broke their lock 140 miles above the Atlantic Ocean at 7:40 a.m. EST.

Air Force Col. David R. Scott was left alone in the command module, ready to go to the rescue if something went wrong with the lunar module, or LEM.

The two vehicles stayed close at first because, for the first time, men were orbiting the earth in a ship that can't get them home. The LEM was built to operate in space and on the moon but cannot reenter earth's atmosphere.

MID-AFTERNOON LINKUP

They were to link up in mid-afternoon, after McDivitt and Schweickart fly the Lunar module 112 miles away and then track down Scott in a celestial game of tag.

As Scott pulled the arrow-like docking probe out of the nose of the LEM, he reported it wouldn't come out immediately.

★ ★ ★

"We seem to be hanging on something," he reported. "I'm going to back up a bit."

But then Scott jiggled the probe away from the docking latches and told the LEM pilots: "Okay, you're free. You're clear."

The two vehicles had been coupled since shortly after Apollo 9 was launched from Cape Kennedy Monday.

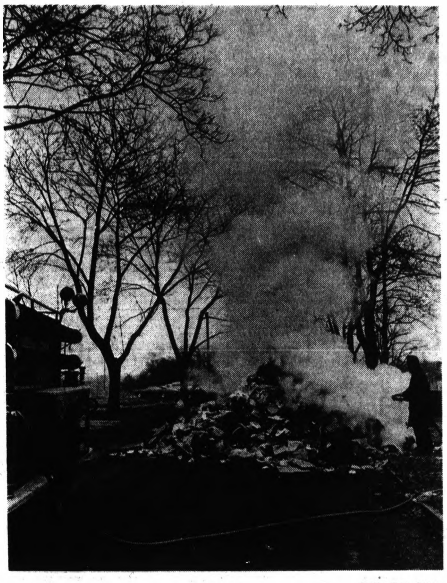

Initially, the astronauts pirouetted their craft around one another in a stately orbital ballet, snapping pictures and making certain the LEM systems were okay.

More than an hour after the undoeking, with all going well, McDivitt and Schweickart fired their jets to establish a wider separation path, with maximum separation of 55 miles — a safety measure that would bring the vehicles back close to one another after

UNSCHEDULED INCINERATION—Residents on East Iroquois near Orchard Lake found an unexpected bonfire on their street yesterday. How did the huge burning pile of trash get there? Well, a city refuse truck found its load was on fire and to save the truck, the load was dumped. Then the fire department was called.

$60 Million of Rec Funds Eyed for Cities

LANSING (UPI) — Gov. William G. Milliken today recommended $60 million of the $100-million recreational bond issue be spent for urban-area facilities.

He said the other $40 million should go for state park, wildlife, fishery and like projects in rural regions.

Milliken acknowledged the fund breakdown would evoke cries of protest from conservationists, who want $70 million for state projects and only $30 million for big city facilities.

"But I believe that our greatest need, and therefore our greatest obligation, is to place expanded recreational opportunities within reach of the greatest number of people," he told the legislature in a special message.

DISTRIBUTION BASIS

Specifically, Milliken proposed the funds be distributed through the State Department of Natural Resources on this basis:

- $30 million for local grant programs, with the money appropriated on a population basis. This means the large cities will benefit most.
- $30 million for urban grants to counties over 100,000 population. Local units would put up another $23 million in matching funds.
- $40 million for state projects, including new and better parks, campgrounds, fishing facilities and hunting preserves.

Milliken asked the legislature to allot the funds over a five-year period instead of the 10 years proposed by former Gov. George Romney, to "cutinflationary losses."

The governor also proposed that local governmental units put up at least 25 per cent of the cost of urban-area projects under the program.

The governor said there was no hard, fast understanding that 70 per cent of the money would go for development of state facilities in rural areas.

Meeting Adjourned Amid a Disruption

By MARY SUNDSTROM

The Pontiac Board of Education was unable to formally act last night on a three-month reevaluation proposal for the planned west side high school site when disruptions forced an early adjournment of the meeting.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:50 p.m. by acting chairman Dr. Robert Turpin after several black youths manned the doors of the meeting room for about 15 minutes and said they would not let anyone leave or enter. Some members of the capacity audience of about 200 persons attempted to take over the meeting.

"We're going to have our meeting tonight," they said. "You're not going to have any (90-day) cooling-off period. Things are going to get hotter."

The door guards dispersed through efforst of Voice of Oakland County Action League (VOCAL) Chairman Leon Matthews and VOCAL members Mrs. Carole Sweeney.

"Cool it. This is a public meeting and you can't bar anyone from leaving or entering this room," Matthews said.

Just before the doors were manned, Matthews read a statement from VOCAL to Supt. Dr. Dana P. Whitmer and the school board members, regarding the educational situation in the City of Pontiac.

"Lack of creative, constructive and sensitive leadership by the superintendent of the district, the board of education and other elected leaders in Pontiac has fostered m ore c onflict and division since July 1967 because you have either left things tochanceor you ignored the black community when makingsignificant decisions," the statement said.

"We will not give you a moment's rest until you make the kinds ofdecisions which are just, which guarantee the constitutional right of all children to equal educational opportunity and which rid our schools of their segregated condition.

'MUST HAVE PLANS'

"Unless you have plans to reduce tension, this 90-day reevaluation period will be as useless and uncreative and unchanging as have the last 20 months in this city," the statement said.

Holly Twp. Rescuers Hailed

2 Children Rescued From Lake

By DICK ROBINSON

Two young men were credited with saving the lives of two neighbor children, 3 and 5 years old, who fell through ice into five feet of freezing water in Holly Township yesterday afternoon.

Carl Juck, 5, and his sister Theresa, 3, of 4261 Grange Hall, are in satisfactory condition today at Flint Osteopathic Hospital. Carl was in critical condition yesterday.

Oakland County sheriff's deputy Dale Castora has recommended that civic citations be given to rescuers Denny Fortner, 22, and Paul Forsythe, 23, who live near the Jucks in the Hawaiian Gardens Trailer Park.

"Carl came within inches of dying," said his mother, Mrs. Gary Juck. "He was very cold and had convulsions. We own his life to the man who saved him. If he hadn't viven mouth-topmouth resuscitation, Carl wouldn't have lived."

Forsythe, who crawled 30 years from shore with Fortner to reach the children gave Carl resuscitation for about half an hour on a small island in Lake Mauna Loa before being rescued by a boat.

Forsythe was on his way to work as a sprayer at Pontiac Motor Division at about 4 p.m. when he saw a crowd at the lake. He described the rescue this way:

The two men crawled out on the ice and fell through near the children but managed to get the two youngsters up on the ice.

Forsythe gave Theresa to Fortner. Fortner then handed her to an unidentified man who crawled out on the ice and took her to shore.

The two men then made their way to the island with Carl, who they said was blue and not breathing.

An unidentified man in an aluminum boat pushed his way out to the three with an oar and rescued the three. They were pulled back in with a rope by officers from the sheriff's department and patolmen Thomas Mackey of the Holly Police Department.

Fortner is employed at AC Spark Plug in Flint. He and his wife have one boy, 3. Forsythe is married and has a boy, who will be 2 next month, and a girl, almost 1.

FORSYTHE

FORTNER

Mrs. Juck, who said he has forbidden the children to go near the nearby lake, explained that the two children were out playing and some older children apparently dared Carl to go the ice.

When Carl fell through, Theresa went out to help him, according to Mrs. Juck.

'County Illegal Tax $2,447,000'

Oakland County residents will pay $2,447,000 this year in property taxes collected illegally, according to Boomie Mikrut, director of the Michigan Municipal Finance Commission.

The sum represents that amount in nonvoted taxes collected about the 15-mill limitation by the county, the Oakland Intermediate School District and Oakland Community College, Mikrut said.

Local government officials say they have based the tax collection on an interpretation of Michigan's constitutional tax limitation laws as defined by Robert Allen, county corporation counsel.

Daniel T. Murphy, chairman of the county board of auditors, contends the collection has been legal. However, schools and college officials this week were mum on the subject.

Mikrut claims the illegality of the collection has been upheld bya recent state attorney general's opinion and that contention is supported by Mrs. Maxine Virtue, assistant attorney general and writer of the opinion.

The opinion stated, "The county has no authority to enter into a long-term lease contract with the building authority which commits for rental purposes funds beyond the millage resources of the county."

The opinion has a bearing on the east wing of the courthouse which for the past three years has been paid for by taxes levied over the 15-mill limit.

An exceptions clause to the limitation, reportedly put into the constitution to protect bondholders in times of financial emergency, has ben the vehicle used to exceed the 15-mill nonvoted levy.

SPECIAL VOTES

Those 15 mills are traditionally divided between the county, the townships, the schools and in Oakland County one-tenth of a mill goes to the Intermediate School District. Other millage can be voted, such as that which has financed the parks and recreation program, special eddcation, vocal education and the major share of the costs in local school districts.

just lights up the whole sky. It puts out a great big orange cloud."

After the LEM executed its separation maneuver, McDivitt reported: "It was a good burn, Gumdrop. Got a little rough there when we throttled up."

The two vehicles used their radio code names, "Spider" for the LEM and "Gumdrop" for the command module. Mission Control commented that for several hours Spider would be spinning a web around Gumdrop.

The maneuvers simulate those that two astronauts will make when they launch a LEM from the moon to catch the main Apollo craft in lunar o rbit ofr the trip h ome.

If Apollo 9 succeeds in the i ntricate maneuver, the way wil lbe clear for Apollo10 to fly a LEM in moon orbit in May and for Apollo 11 to attempt the historic landing in July.

The strategy of rendezvous, painstakingly plotted by scientists and computers, called for the LEM to catch the command ship by taking advantage of orbital mechanics, the physics laws that govern the motion of orbiting bodies.

By flying into a higher path, McDivitt and Schweickart would take longer to make a circuit of the earth and gradually fall behind Scott. Later, they drop beneath their target and gradually catch up, using radar and radio to lock on.

School Board Session Ends Amid Disruption

The board had also heard nine demands presented by representatives of the Black Student Union, a group representing all black students in Pontiac Schools.

Dr. Turpin, acting chairman in place of board president Monroe Osmun, who was out of town, and the board heard t Black Student Union demands, and he explained that certain items could not be immediately implemented as requested.

MORE BLACK TEACHERS

Among the demands were: a reversal of the present decision to locate the proposed new super high school on Pontiac State Hospital grounds; more black teachers and administrators; more black cheerleaders; and an investigation of all Pontiac teachers regarding racist action, racist attitudes and discrimination aganst blck satudents.

* * *

The board's reevluation statement, which was the last item on the agenda, asked for a three-month period during which time the board would study alternate sites for the school; would discontinue architectural work on the school; and would ask that legislation for the sale of the state-owned hospital land be held off.

Hudson Merger Plan Announced

HUDSON

Plans for a mer ger with Dayton Corp. of Minneapolis, a diversified retailing organization, were announced yesterday by Joseph L. Hudson Jr., president of the Detroit department store.

* * *

The proposed merger, subject to approval of the stockholders of each company, will result in a new organization called Dayton-Hudson Corp., one of the 15 largest nonfood retailing firms in the United States.

SIX FULL-LINE STORES

The Detroit-based firm operates six full-line department stores, plus four smaller convenience stores in southeastern Michigan. It also owns and develops real estate properties generally related to three regional shopping centers.

* * *

* * *

VICE-CHAIRMAN

Under the proposal, Hudson will become vice chairman of the board of Dayton-Hudson Corp., with Bruce B. Dayton to become chairman of the board and chief executive officer.

Dayton's present duties as president of the Dayton Corp., will be assumed by Kenneth N. Dayton, currently serving as executive vice president of the Minneaplis firm.

* * *

The Minneapolis firm, which was founded in 1902, operates department stores, discount and hard goods stores, specialty stores for the sale of books and jewelry and shopping centers in Minnesota, Oregon, Arizona, Colorado, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Missouri, Massachusetts, California, Pennsylvania New Jersey and Delaware.

'County Illegal Tax Totals $2,447,000'

This year, however, the county, is levying .112 mill of nonvoted taxes beyond the 15-mill limit to meet payments to the building authority on east-wing lease agreements. The building authority uses these payments to meet bonding obligations on the structure. The .112 mill also includes provision for the payment of drain assessments.

* * *

Oakland County Intermediate Schools has levied .22 mill beyond the limitation to finance the operating budget and another .25 mill to pay off construction debts.

Oakland County Community College is levying .5 mill to meet its bonding obligations (also beyond the limitation.)

SPECIAL LEGISLATION, BUT

The schools and the college have floated bonds on the basis of special state legislation which allows them to bond to a certain persentage of state equalized valuation.

Mikrut cotends that while legislation might give these units the power to bond, it does not give them the power to levy taxes outside the limitation to pay off the bonds. Approval of previous bonding issues, Mikrut said was based on agreement that payments woudl be kept inside the limitation.

* * *

"Now they are asking me to approve more bond sales thereby allowing the creation of more emergency financial conditions, so that the exceptions clause of the constitutional tax limitaiton can then be used t o levy over t he 15-mill limit to m eet payments."

PROOF NEEDED

Her opinion further stated that notices of sale of building authority revenue bonds will not be approved by the Municipal Fiance Commission, unless "a showing is made that the annual rental payments can be made within the millage authority of the county."

This "showing" Mrs. Virtue defined as historical statements of financial pracitce which can prove that the amount of suggested yearly payments is feasible and can be paid from within the 15-mill limitation.

"The county has no authority to enter into a contract with the Building Authority or anybody except within the constitutional limit," Mrs. Virtue told The Pontiac Press. "The county is legally obligated to budget so that it does stay within the 15-mill limit."

She noted that community colleges and intermediate school districts are just as committed to remain within voted millage and the limitation as anyone else.

She said previous committments should goven the signing of any new contracts.

"This position isn't something we invented last week," Mrs. Virtue said. "This has been emphasized by ouh office, the Treasury Department and the Michigan Municipal Finance Commission ever since the adoption of the new State Constitution in 1963."

* * *

Walter H. Nikkel, executive director of business services for Oakland Community College, refused to comment on the stands taken by the Michigan Municipal Finance Commission and the State Attorney-General's office.

* * *

"We will not make any statement until we have reviewed the position of the Finance Commission and the attorney general with our bond counsel," Nikkel said.

Dr. William J. Emerson, superintendent of the Oakland Intermediate School District, said he had not been apprised of the state's decision and would make no comment.

State 15-Mill Ruling Argued

Oakland County officials have taken issue with the state attorney general's opinion regarding the 15-mill limitation.

The opinion, written by Mrs. Maxine Virtue, assistant attorney general, reads: . . . "the county has no authority to enter into a long-term lease contract with the building authority which commits for rental purposes funds beyond the millage resources of the county."

* * *

A counteropinion, prepared by County Corporation Counsel Robert Allen and Claude H. Stevens, bonding counsel, holds that the state does not limit the taxing power to 15 mills but uses the terms "millage resources" and "millage authority."

It further states that the position of the attorney general is not clear, and quotes the nonapplication of limitations clause in the constitution which says, "The foregoing limitations shall not apply to taxes imposed for the payment of . . . contract obligations in anticipation of which bonds are issued, which taxes may be imposed without limitatoin as to rate or amount . . ."

* * *

Allen and Stevens maintain in their opinion that "No court, or attorney has power to place such taxes within the 15-mill tax limitation when the Constitution expressly says that such limitation 'shall not apply' thereto."

N-Pact Reaches the Senate Floor

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nuclear nonproliferation treaty met sharp—but predictable — criticism today as it finally reached the Senate floor accompanied by a demand for immediate big-power disarmament talks.

Republican Barry Goldwater of Arizona, member of a small, bipartisan band of opponents, said in a prepared Senate speech that ratification of the treaty would assure "the role of the United States as the policeman of the world."

* * *

Despite the opposition, Chairman J. W. Fulbright of the foreign relations committee said he expected two-thirds approval by the Senate within a few days.

PROVISIONS OF PACT

Under the pact, nuclear countries promise they will not turn over nuclear weapons or the know-how for making them to have-not countries. The latter promise not to try to acquire or develop such weapons.

The pact will become effective when ratified by this country, Great Britain, Russia and any 40 other countries.

* * *

Thus far, Great Britain is the only nuclear power that has ratified it. A total of 27 nonnuclear countries have done the same.

Birmingham

Plans Firmed for 3-Story Office Building

BIRMINGHAM — Luckenbach-Durkee and Associates Inc., an architectural firm based at 287 E. Maple, has firmed up plans for construction of a three-story office building on a corner lot at Southfield and Maple, just off the central business district.

Construction will begin later next week following the razing of vacant houses on the property. The building, which will have 12,500 square feet of office space, is expected to be ready for occupancy by October 1.

* * *

The structure will feature a mahogany front, tinted bronze-framed windows and an underground parking garage for tenants. The Luckenbach firm will use the new facility as its headquarters.

A group of investors called 101 Southfield Inc. is financing the $440,000 project. Carl Luckenbach, spokesman for 101, said the new corporation is currently exploring other potential office building sites in Birmingham for possible investment.

"Birmingham Sesquicentennial — Progress With Hospitality," will be the theme for this year's Michigan Week (May 17-25) in Birmingham, according to Sam Mitchell, chairman of the local Michigan Week committee.

Mitchell, who is executive vice president of the Chamberlain Real Estate Co., 975 S. Hunter, also announced the appointment of Harry F. Locke, 1726 Stanley who will coordinate the annual display of area-produced products that will be exhibited at Birmingham business locations during the special week.

"Our Michigan Week committee feels this year's theme will help reflect the solid, sure way our community has grown since the first permanent settlement of Birmingham 150 years ago," Mitchell said.

* * *

"We hope that the theme will motivate today's citizens to continue to build our community with the same pride and friendly cooperative attitude they have demonstrated in the past."

The local Michigan Week committee hopes to help commemorate the sesquicentennial by presenting the historical Hunter House, 264 W. Brown, to the city of Birmingham on Heritage Day, May 20.

Ronale E. Soboleski of 7276 Stonebrook, West Bloomfield Township, has been promoted to the new position of director of agencies by the Gleaner Life Insurance Society of 1600 N. Woodward.

Soboleski has been director of manpower development since he joined the company last fall.

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — S. Tenney McGraw, vice chairman of the Birmingham-Bloomfield Bank, has been named chairman of Business and Professional Solicitations for the 1969 Community House Fund Drive.

McGraw, of 5180 Pon Valley Road, has recruited a 12-man committee, representing various occupations, geographical locations and service club affiliations to implement the solicitation drive.

Gold Price Soars in Europe Markets

PARIS (AP) — Gold soared to another record high on the Paris free market today as labor unions pressed ahead with plans for a nationwide strike next week to back their demands for big wage increases.

* * *

Despite indications that the government was trying to dampen the speculative fever on gold, the price for an ounce bounced up to $48.31, compared to $47.92 yesterday. Since last Friday, the ounce price has gone up $2.08 as Frenchmen, worried over the future of the franc, sought a haven for their liquid funds.

* * *

Gold prices were on a merry-go-round all over Europe, with prices up everywhere.

* * *

By midday, gold was quoted at $43.45-$43.65 in Zurich, up from yesterday's close of $43.15-$43.45. Dealers said volume might come close to the 11-12 tons traded yesterday.

Pontiac Div. Unveils Trans Am

The Trans Am, a Pontiac Motor Division new high-performance Firebird, will be on display at the 61st annual Chicago Automobile Show which opens this weekend and will goon sale next month.

general manager, said the Trans Am, avilable both in hardtop and convertible styles, features a floating 60-inch airfoil spanning the rear deck. It also has a special hood with full-length, functional scoops and functional air outlets behind the front wheel openings for added engine compartment cooling.

* * *

As with the Judge, a new super GTO unveiled by Pontiac earlier this year, the Trans Am is said to "go performance one step better."

Striping runs the full length of the car over the hood, roof, rear deck and airfoil. The rear-end panel is painted to match the striping.

POWER PLANT....

The standard power plant is a 400-cubic-inch Ram Air engine developing 335 horsepower, a four-barrel Quadra-Jet carburetor and dual exhausts. These are mated with a three-speed floor-mounted stick shift and 3.55:1 locking axle.

The Trans Am has special high-effort variable-ratio power steering and high-effort power brakes with front discs. Suspension features heavy-duty springs and shocks and a heavy-duty, one-inch stabilizer bar with high-rate bushings.

* * *

Riding on a 108.1-inch wheelbase, the Trans Am has F70-14 Fiberglas belted tires mounted on seven-inch wheels with a wide-track stance of 60 inches both front and rear.

Bucket seats, sports-styled instrumentation and a new, 14-inch diameter European-type sports steering wheel are standard equipment.

* * *

Lowest Sales Price on Firebird Is Cut

Pontiac Motor Division today announced an equipment adjustment on its Firebird series which lowers the price by as much as $72.

New manufacturer's retail prices, effective next week, on the Firebird hardtop coupe, will be $2,759, down $72 from the current price of $2,831; and the new price of the Firebird convertible will be $2,989, down $56 from the current $3,045 price.

Deleted as standard equipment will be wide oval tires, Space-Saver spare tire, special roof moldings, as well as glove box and instrument panel lamps.

These deleted features, however, will be available as extra-cost options.

Kidnaping Suspect Weeps at Hearing

The Honduras - born woman was formally charged Thursday with complicity in the kidnaping last Dec. 17 of Georgia coed Barbara Mackle, 20, who was rescued after being for 86 hours buried underground in a box near Atlanta. Miss Mackle's father paid $500,000 ransom, most of which was recovered.

* * *

Also charged in the case is Gary Steven Krist, 23, captured five days after the kidnaping, who was scheduled for a Georgia court arraignment today.

Miss Schier was arrested in Norman, Okla., 30 miles south of Oklahoma City, by FBI agents Wednesday. She had been living as a part-time college student and working in a drive-in restaurant.

Her arraignment was on a package of federal charges which included extortion, interstate transportation in aid of racketeering enterprises and aiding and abetting extortion.

A hearing on extraditing Miss Schier was scheduled for next Wednesday.

At her court arraignment Miss Schier said, "All of the people are against me, and me alone."

James Harrod, court-appointed defense attorney, asked U.S. Commissioner James Gullett to advise Miss Schier that she was not required to talk with law enforcement officers at any time.

Asst. U.S. Dist. Atty. John Raley countered with a demand that she be instructed that she was not prohibited from talking with officials if she wanted to.

In accordance with Harrod's request, the commissioner advised Miss Schier she did not have to make statements to anyone.

TRUMAN

Truman stopped to talk at the post office. The postmaster is Edgar G. Hinde Jr., who holds the same job his father held as a Truman appointee. The weather was sunny and temperatures near 40.

Truman was hospitalized for almost a week undergoing treatment for intestinal flu and, after he recovered, receiving routine tests.

NY Official Bites Hand That Feeds Him

Fioravente G. Perrota, New York City's finance administrator, has bitten the hand that fed him.

Perrota, guest at a Bar Association dinner last night, told his hosts there was no justification for the tax-free status of property they occupy.

"Bar Association's property, lying in three boroughs of the city, is valued at $2.75 million and is exempt from property taxation each year to the extent of $140,000," Perrota complained.

Actor's Sons Refuse Induction Into Service

Thor, 19, refused induction at the Oakland Army Center on Wednesday. Christian, 20, refused to report for a pre-induction physical examination yesterday in Los Angeles.

Christian sent a registered letter saying he was a conscientious objector and would not serve even in a nonhostile capacity.

Elizabeth Taylor Faces 4 to 7 Days of Tests

MISS TAYLOR

Doctors say they plan tests and X rays for four to seven days to find out why actress Elizabeth Taylor has an aching back.

The 37-year-old film beauty postponed a vacation in Mexico and entered Cedars of Lebanon Hospital in Hollywood late Wednesday. Her doctor, Rex Kennamer, said she had a spinal disc condition resulting from an operation several years ago to correct a childhood injury.

'Docent' Volunteers Begin Work at PCAC

Patrons, students, members and visitors to the Pontiac Creative Arts Center will be getting acquainted with new persons of the volunteer staff — the docents.

Pronounced doe-cent (the accent is on the first syllable), the word is of Latin origin and refers to a type of teacher or tutor, or a student who is a teacher. In the organizational structure of the medieval university, a docent was "a person licensed to teach in the university but without the charge or dignity of a professor."

The PCAC docents will be serving as hostesses and tour guides.

Mrs. Wallace Edwards, chairman of the program, reports that already some 35 women have volunteered, but more are needed.

"No previous experience is necessary," she says, "and the would-be docent does not have to be an artist but should have, or want to develop, an interest in art." The program offers an opportunity to gain art appreciation and experience as well as being one of public service.

Persons interested in serving as docents may call Mrs. Edwards of Onagon Trail, or the PCAC.

★ ★ ★

In charge of the training program is Mrs. H. W. Kurrasch, who teaches art appreciation and drawing at Oakland Community College, Highland Lakes campus. Instruction sessions are currently scheduled for Monday mornings twice a month. They consist of a general information period about the center and its facilities, and proper procedures for tour guides and hostesses.

TRAINING

Prior to each exhibition, Mrs. Kurrasch will conduct classes on the art objects to be displayed as well as information about the artists.

A graduate of Oakland University, Mrs. Kurrasch is presently working on her master's degree in art history at Wayne State University. She thinks the docent program should be of special interest to artists and art students and encourages their participation.

Mrs. L. Jerome Fink and Mrs. Norman Cheal, who serve as exhibits director and chairman respectively, feel that the Pontiac Creative Arts Center may better serve the public through the docent program. Special groups may now make appointements for tours both during and after regular hours.

"Art classes and school students with their teachers are encouraged to take advantage of the masterpieces now being brought to the center through the Detroit Institute of Arts' Project Outreach," Mrs. Cheal said.

Mrs. Wallace Edwards, Onagon Trail, (left) is chairman of the newly organized docent program at Pontiac Creative Arts Center. She shares her information about Sassoferrato's "Madonna and Child" with other docents, Mrs. Arthur Hoover, Edgevale Street (center) and Mrs. Robert Eisele, Southward Way. All will be serving as hostesses and tour guides for visitors to PCAC. The new exhibit opens Saturday.

'Mother and Child' Exhibit From Detroit

"Mother and Child in Painting" is the second art exhibit to come to the Pontiac Creative Arts Center through Project Outreach. Drawn from the collection of the Detroit Institute of Arts, it will be on display from Saturday through March 23.

★ ★ ★

Since earliest periods of art history, this theme has been a popular one. The 12 painting in the current exhibition span a period of 500 years and range from early Renaissance (1400 A.D.) to the present.

★ ★ ★

"Madonna and Child with Saints Catherine and Anthony of Padua" by di Giovanni is the earliest painting and the most recent is "Young Mother and Child" by the contemporary artist, Zoltan Sepeshy.

★ ★ ★

Included in the public opening program on Saturday and Sunday will be a series of 28 colored slides, featuring paintings and sculptures of other famous artists who have used the mother and child theme. The movie, "Art Through the Ages," is scheduled for showing at 1 and 3 p.m. on both days.

★ ★ ★

After the public opening, they will be available for school and program use. Reservations may be made by calling PCAC.

★ ★ ★

PREVIEW

An invitational preview for members and patrons will be held this evening. Mrs. Stephen P. Malone and Mrs. John H. Vanderlind are handling arrangements. An instrumental ensemble from Pontiac Central High School will play.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Kenneth VandenBerg, assisted by Mrs. F. J. Poole, has charge of the public opening program. Working with them will be Mesdames: Arthur Hayes, Harold Furlong, Noyce Strait Jr., Richard Zimmerman, Ross Thompson, Harry Limbacher, Howard Fitzgerald, Robert Oliver II and Denzel T. Sheppard Jr.

'Amphitryon 38' Opens Thursday

Marshall Borden and Mikel Lambert will play the lead roles in Meadow Brook Theatre's production of "Amphitryon 38" which will open a five-week run on March 13.

Author S. N. Behrman adapted the play from the French of Jean Giraudoux. The story concerns the Greek god Jupiter's amorous pursuit of a beautiful mortal, Alkmena, who is the faithful wife of General Amphitryon.

★ ★ ★

Others in the cast are Richard Curnock, Jenny Laird, Jeremy Rowe, Max Howard, Diane Stapley and Leon Leake. Robin Melworth, Sandra MacNamara and Pearl Franklin complete the list.

Douglas Seale is directing the production. Anna Gisle is in charge of settings and costumes. Pat Simmons has control of lighting.

★ ★ ★

Eugene O'Neill's "Long Day's Journey Into Night," the biggest draw in the history of Meadow Brook Theatre, ends its run on Sunday.

Troubadour-harpist Gerald Goodman, the only man who sings and accompanies himself on a concert harp, will be Pontiac-Oakland Town Hall's guest artist at the Huron Theatre Wednesday. His varied career has ranged from beginnings in a New York funeral parlor, to nightclubs, an off-Broadway musical of his own composition, to the New York Shakespeare Festival. A celebrity luncheon at Devon Gables will follow the 10:30 a.m. appearance.

An exploration of the future role of Cranbrook Academy of Art in the field of arts and art education is the purpose of a conference begun today and continuing through Sunday at the Academy.

Artists, faculty members and trustees, under conference chairman Glen Paulsen, will "take an objective look at the Academy in all its aspects and recommend — to the greatest degree possible — programs for improvement."

★ ★ ★

Attending are Carl Feiss, urban planning consultant, Washington, D.C.; Jack Lenor Larsen, textile designer; Edward C. Bassett, of Skidmore, Owings and Merrill; Douglas MacAgy, deputy chairman, National Council on the Arts, Washington, D. C.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

"How American Is American Art" will be the topic of dicussion when critic and author Bartlett H. Hayes, Jr. appears as guest lecturer in Cranbrook Academy of Art Galleries at 8 p.m. Wednesday.

★ ★ ★

Hayes, among other things, has coauthored a "Layman's Guide to American Art," and the NET TV series "Intent of Art."

★ ★ ★

He has been a member of various regional and national juries, a faculty member at the American Seminar, Salzburg, Austria; Brandeis University summer school and visiting critic at the American Academy in Rome.

★ ★ ★

Robert P. Lytles Return Home From Virgin Islands Vacation

By SHIRLEY GRAY

Dr. and Mrs. Robert P. Lytle of Derry Road in Bloomfield Township are back from three relaxing weeks in the land where "it only rains at night," in Mrs. Lytle's words — the Virgin Islands.

While the Lytles are old Caribbean hands — they were married in Puerto Rico — the enthusiasm of Mr. and Mrs. John Thoms and Mr. and Mrs. John Childs Jr., both couples of Birmingham, for St. Croix, had a lot to do with the Lytles' choice of that island for this year's vacation.

VACATION HOMES

The Childses and the Thomses both have houses there and entertained the Lytles. Then all six came home together.

Mrs. Lytle came home with a sackful of driftwood and shells, gathered on beachcombing forays, which she hopes to turn into a beach collage.

Mr. and Mrs. John Adamson of Bloomfield Hills have invited a few friends in for a little dinner party Saturday evening.

Broadcasting Is 'Bad News' to Today's Writer

Of The Emily Post Institute

Dear Mrs. Post: I cannot get across to my husband that he shouldn't say, "Oh what a good dinner, I am going to stuff myself" or 'No more, thank you, I am full." I think this sounds repulsive and vulgar since you should never eat so much that you can't eat any more. I think good manners are very important, especially among family members. — Mrs. C.

★ ★ ★

Dear Mrs. C.: Although your husband may feel he is complimenting your cooking by these remarks, I agree that merely saying, "My, that was good!" or "What a great dinner!" would be much more attractive than discussing the condition of his stomach.

★ ★ ★

Overeating — or any over-indulgence for that matter — is not only unmannerly but unwise, and broadcasting it only makes one sound more foolish.

Dear Mrs. Post: Does an all-white wedding mean that the mothers, as well as the bridal attendants, all wear white? In our religion, the mothers are part of the procession. Mrs. S. Jackson

★ ★ ★

Dear Mrs. Jackson: All-white weddings can be very lovely, but I feel that unless some color is added, solid white "competes" with the bride's costume. The mothers, to be in the best of taste, should not try to appear as members of the young bridal party.

★ ★ ★

Even if the girls wear white, the older women would be more appropriately—and becomingly—dressed in any pastel shade—possibly the color of the bridesmaid's bouquets.

'Dollars for Scholars'

Awards to Be Presented

Highlight of the program will be the presentation of scholarship awards to the 1969 winners by Mrs. W. A. Schmitz.

★ ★ ★

The scholarship program has been an important activity of Tuesday Musicale since 1936. For a number of years the group contributed generously to the projects of the Michigan Federation of Music Clubs and provided scholarships to several Pontiac students to attend Interlochen each year.

★ ★ ★

AID GIVEN

Efforts are now concentrated upon helping high school seniors and college students majoring in music. Fourteen awards have been given to individuals since 1963, plus two full scholarships to Meadow Brook and a gift of $250 to the Bell Ringers of Eastern Junior High School toward their trip to England a few years ago.

Contributions have totaled over $3,500.

The Musicale chorus will sing a varied program of compositions ranging from pre-Baroque to modern, religious, operatic and folk music, under direction of Mrs. Ferdinand Gaensbauer.

Other chorus members will be featured in solo and ensemble, including a Beauty Shop Quartette and a lively performance of "Mame."

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

Hosts for the evening will be Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. George Putnam and Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Lefurgy.

Tickets will be available at the door to anyone wishing to attend this program, which begins at 8:15 p.m.

THE LATE MRS. DORA DAWSON

Indian Musician in Recital Here

Ali Akbar Khan, one of India's Ustad (Master) sarode players, will appear in concert Wednesday, at 8:30 p.m., in Oakland University's Dodge Hall Auditorium. He will be accompanied on the tabla by Shankar Ghosh.

The program will be made up of pure ragas in the North Indian tradition called Hindustani.

The sarode, ancestor of all India's stringed instruments, has 25 strings mounted on a gourd-shaped sounding-box. Only 10 of the strings are plucked with a coconut shell pick, the other 15 give sympathetic resonance. The sarode is accompanied by the tabla or drums, one copper, the other wood. The combination has fascinated Western ears in the past decade.

Ali Akbar Khan was court musician to the Maharajah of Jodhpur before India became independent. Since then he has toured extensively on five continents and is generally acknowledged to be "The Horowitz of the Sarode."

★ ★ ★

Youthful Artists on Program for Birmingham Club

Thursday's meeting of Birmingham Musicale will present four scholarship winners as guest soloists.

- Nancy Ruffer, a junior at Seaholm High School, will perform a flute solo, "Concerto" by Jacques-Ibert.
- Another flute soloist, Debby Thoms, a senior at Groves High School, will play "Poem" by Griffes.
- Judy Weichner, pianist, also a senior at Groves, will play "Rondo on Argentine Children's Folk Tune" by Alberto Ginastera.
- Brooke Minasian, a sophomore at Bloomfield Hills Andover High School, will present Monti's violin selection "Czardas."

★ ★ ★

The four young people are the beneficiaries of last year's benefit night at the "Pops" concert by the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

The 31-member Musicale chorus will sing a group of sacred selections and another of secular music, under the direction of Mrs. David Lawrence. Accompanist is Mrs. Philip G. Whelan.

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I have very recently taken a job which requires me to work very close to a dentist. He has offices in one of the best professional buildings in town and his patients are fussy and well-to-do.

The first day, I noticed that the dentist had had onions or garlic for lunch. Whew! "Well," I figured, "that can happen to anyone once in a while."

Well, every day this week the dentist has come back from lunch smelling like an Italian pantry or a Kosher kitchen or whatever.

I can't understand why one of his patients doesn't say something to him. If I were a patient, I would, but I only work here. Any suggestions? I don't know how much longer I can take this. NEW GIRL

DEAR GIRL: Tell him! He may appreciate it. And if he doesn't, your next job HAS to be better.

DEAR ABBY: There have been several occasions when I have turned down fellows for dates, and their retort was "Well, then I guess you prefer girls."

This always leaves me speechless. Abby, please suggest a good reply to this silly remark. LIKES MEN

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: I am not the kind of person who discusses my personal problems with friends, but I am so frustrated I have to talk to someone, and I do need some advice.

My husband holds a high executive position, and is a good provider for his family. He is well-liked by his business friends whom we entertain royally. I might add, on these occasions my husband is great company and when he looks at me, the love in his eyes is all a woman could ask for.

BUT, there is another side to him which is killing me. He never wants to accept invitations from people with whom he isn't involved in business. And he doesn't want me to invite "outside" friends here either.

When I have gone against his wishes in this regard, I've suffered an evening of embarrassment and humiliation, so I have given up. (He will contradict me, or else he sits like a piece of stone and doesn't say a word all evening — except to talk to the dog.)

Abby, can you help me? I am not doing too well by myself. FRUSTRATED

DEAR FRUSTRATED: That "love" you see in his eyes when you do his bidding strikes me as a fairly convincing performance, but it's only "approval," and perhaps a reward for obedience. When he's in a good mood, try to chisel an explanation off your piece of stone. If he doesn't care for the company of "outsiders," he should grow up and be a good sport once in a while just to please you.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: I have my own system for dealing with junk mail. I take all the material they send me, stuff it back into their return envelope with a large note "TAKE ME OFF YOUR MAILING LIST!" They have to ransom these envelopes from the postoffice in order to find out what they contain. I put everything in, including the envelope the junk mail came in. If there is only a return post card in the junk mail, I paste THAT on the outside envelope — with NO return address in evidence. It works like a charm.

By JERE CRAIG

For the second consecutive season Andover and Brother Rice will clash in the Birmingham Seaholm district title tilt. The BHA Barons ousted Birmingham Groves, 58-52, and the Warriors squashed Clawson, 66-39, in Thursday's semifinal twinbill.

Prior to last March, neither had ever won a Class A district game. Brother Rice broke the ice by taking host Seaholm, then Clawson and Andover as it began a march to the state quarterfinals.

★ ★ ★

The Barons qualified for last year's 82-53 finals loss to Rice by making Groves their first victim, 45-40. Coach Hal Henderson was happy the pattern repeated itself last night, but he intends for a better performance in the 8 p.m. Saturday rematch with BBR.

REGIONAL PAIRINGS

The Andover forces will enter the contest carrying a 14-3 log and 12 conquests in their last 13 starts. Favored Brother Rice is 14-5 and was cochampion in the Detroit Catholic League's strong Central Division. The winner Saturday will meet the Pontiac Northern-Pontiac Central survivor next Wednesday in the Southfield regional tournament.

★ ★ ★

Last night, the Barons won the opener with a fourth-quarter surge against a Groves' quintet that lost six of its final seven starts to end with a 4-13 mark.

The two teams had the same field goal percentage, 36 per cent, and the winners only had a slim 31-27 rebounding superiority.

The game was tied after one period, 9-9, and Andover was in front by an uneasy 27-25 margin at intermission. Groves cut the gap in the third period to force a 38-all deadlock at the end of three quarters.

ONLY LEAD

Dave Logan's lone point for Groves was a foul shot to start the last period with the Falcons holding their only lead at 39-38.

Bob Foreman's jumper sent BHA back in front for good. John Schmidt then dropped in his only two baskets and made a three-point play out of the second one to give the Barons a 45-39 spread.

Schmidt, in fact, had seven of his 10 points in the final period and Foreman dropped in 10 of his 19. The winners hit six of 14 from the floor to only four of 17 by Groves in the closing session.

Scott Love had 10 of his 16 for the losers in the late going to keep them close. He also pulled down seven rebounds and teammate Jim Cameron had nine.

However, Tim Weddle grabbed 10 for Andover to take game honors. A 23-17 abundance of turnovers kept the Barons from building a bigger cushion in the ragged contest.

NIGHTCAP SLOW

The nightcap wasn't much of an improvement, particularly in the initial half as Clawson and Brother Rice struggled to a 25-25 deadlock.

The Trojans (6-12 and losers in seven of their last eight) surprised by running up 21 points in the opening session. They also surprised by doing a complete reversal and managing only four points in the second quarter despite a 52 per cent shooting effort in the half.

Brother Rice connected at a respectable 45 per cent but trailed, 16-11, 18-13, 20-15 and 23-17 just before the end of the half.

At this point, John Maloney dropped in his only field goal and Mike McGill cut it to 23-21 with a two-pointer. After Clawson scored again, Steve Jones earned the Warriors a tie with two field goals.

HOT LAST HALF

The winners increased their shooting tempo to 58 per cent in the closing half while Clawson skidded to only 19 per cent. The Warriors scored the first seven counters in the third quarter.

Horton in Fold; 'Opener' Today

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP) — In the morning Detroit Tiger General Manager Jim Campbell said he didn't know how close Willie Horton was to his lawyer. In the afternoon, Campbell found out it was close enough.

Horton, who was demanding a $100,000 salary, ended a five day holdout Thursday after speaking with his lawyer, Nate Conyers, in Detroit. Conyers telephoned Campbell moments later to say Horton would agree to his terms.

★ ★ ★

The new salary of the chunky leftfielder is estimated at $65,000 — a $25,000 raise over what Horton reportedly received last year when he hit 34 home runs, drove in 85 and batted .285.

Conyers, brother of U.S. Rep. John Conyers of Detroit, spoke with Campbell in Lakeland Wednesday, then returned to Detroit.

"I had a 1½ hour talk with Nate yesterday," Campbell said early Thursday, "but I don't know how close Nate is with Willie."

ALL SIGNED

Three hours later, Campbell got the call, and the Tigers were finally all under contract. The other holdouts were outfielder Al Kaline and first baseman Norm Cash, but they signed Sunday, one day after the holdout date of March 1.

Horton was expected to arrive in Lakeland Saturday or Sunday, and manager Mayo Smith said he probably would miss about 10 days of the exhibition season. Horton has been working out during the off season at a high school in Detroit and reportedly already is at his playing weight of 195 pounds.

"I've heard of him working out, but he ought to be down here working out," Campbell said before Horton came to terms.

BASE RUNNING

Detroit went through its last full spring drill Thursday and worked on fundamentals, including base running.

Smith said that for Saturday's game against Minnesota at Orlando he would chose pitchers from among Earl Wilson, Dick Radatz, Bob Reed, Fred Scherman and Mike Kilkenny. The Tigers open their third exhibition season at Lakeland with a game against the Twins Sunday.

Bunning Seeks to Regain Form ---and Money

Last year was a nightmare for the 6-foot-3 Kentuckian. He suffered through four different injuries, won only four games and lost 14. He makes it clear he'll quit before going through another campaign like that one.

Romp Over Oxford, 89-53

Lakers Checking Record Book

They are checking the old records at West Bloomfield High School today following the Lakers' 89-53 romp over Oxford Thursday night to reach the finals of the Class B district tournament at Rochester.

The scoring spree surpasses the West Bloomfield season high which was set Monday in ripping Avondale, 85-63, in the district opener. Now they're looking to see if the 89 points are a school scoring record.

Last night's conquest was the Lakers' 18th in 19 tries and rematches them with Romeo who eliminated them last March, 73-68, for the "B" championship at the Pontiac Northern district.

This time West Bloomfield — winner of its last 11 in a row — will be favored over the Bulldogs who are 12-5 and have captured 6 of their last 8.

There wasn't much doubt about last night's outcome. Going against an Oxford unit that had lost 13 straight, the Lakers quickly opened a 7-0 lead.

Rangy 6-foot-4 sophomore Don Johnston netted 10 of his season-high 17 points in the first period as WBHS carved out a 24-12 advantage after the opening eight minutes. The lead was still 12 points at 28-16 when the Lakers broke it open completely.

They scored the final 16 points in the initial half for a 44-16 spread at the rest break. Dave Karlson had all 10 of his points in the first half, and his six in the second quarter were matched by teammates Steve Westjohn and Wally Alix.

EXTEND STRING

The string of points was extended to 18 when the Lakers put in the first two tallies of the second half.

★ ★ ★

In the first half, West Bloomfield sank 18 field goals to only 6 by the Wildcats. They doubled that output in the final 16 minutes while WBHS came back with 17 although taking 12 fewer shots than it did in the first half.

★ ★ ★

Impressively, the Lakers' 18 buckets in the opening half equalled Oxford's total for the entire night. The winners finished with 35 of 90 for 39 per cent.

WILDCATS' BEST

In the final half, Dave Gemmel dropped in 7 of 16 points and Dennis Wait — scoring his season high and matching the best by any Wildcat this year with 19 — came through with 8 in the closing quarter as the losers more than doubled their first half output.

But West Bloomfield had complete control of the backboards and was able to stay comfortably in front. In all, 13 players made the scoring column for the winners. The 36-point victory margin is their biggest of the campaign.

The championship encounter with Romeo is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Saturday on the Rochester court. West Bloomfield hasn't captured a district trophy since 1966.

Is Wilson a Little Stuck Up Over His Being Stuck Up?

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—It looks like the most popular thing I ever did in my journalistic career was to get stuck up for $75 on my to an egg sandwich.

My coolness when I came face-to-face on Broadway with two guys with a gun who said "Give us your wallet" was epic.

WILSON

"Cool was not the word for the bum — he froze" said an old buddy. I admit this. I had never been face-to-face with a gun before and the fact that the nice-looking young man wielding it held it not at my head but down around my stomach somewhere, did not alter my respect for it.

"You must have been very composed," some girls have been nice enough to say.

* * *

Decomposed is probably the word. I think I must have said, "J-j-just a—s-s-s-second," about that fast.

I handed them the money from my wallet so fast they had time to stage two other holdups before turning in.

* * *

They took my money and ran — and I took my empty wallet and ran —in the opposite direction. The two holdup men and their companion, a lookout, running north on Broadway toward Columbus Circle, and me running south on Broadway toward 42nd St., must have presented a very vivid picture of heroism in the year 1969.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Joey Heatherton's fiance, Dallas Cowboys' star Lance Rentzel, whisked her home to meet his folks, and wants to get married next week, but papa Ray Heatherton hopes they'll have a June wedding. . . . "But how you going to argue with a wonderful guy who also happens to be 6 feet 4?" asks Ray.

Most chic cafe opening: Rich Chicago socialite Mrs. Frederick G. Wacker, professionally known as Jana Mason, at the St. Regis Maisonette, cheered by three tables of Chicago friends. Her see-through gown and the tight-fitting one she changed into aroused all the gentlemen who didn't know that she lives in a 42-room mansion and is the mother of three. Just happens to love show biz.

Didn't the Richard Burtons recently visit Howard Hughes? And what does that portend? Who lent to whom? . . . At 21: Marty Ransohoff with Sandy Roberts whom he may make a superstar . . . Julie Wilson is divorcing Mike McAloney . . . Back in NY after loafing in Miami Beach for months, Joe E. Lewis said, "I came up here for a rest."

* * *

WISH I'D SAID THAT: In the old days a guy who was dating a girl had to wait till summer time to tell if she had nice legs.

REMEMBERED QUOTE: "Public relations is the art of calling an undergarment 'lingerie.'"

EARL'S PEARLS: Jim Mulholland claims his parents didn't love him when he was a child: "They used to leave my baby carriage in tow-away zones."

Rocky Graziano showed up at a Broadway opening in a dinner jacket. "I useta think," he said, "the only guys who wore these wuz ring announcers." . . . That's earl, brother.

'Crank Call' Plot Abused

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK — By a coincidence, crank telephone calls have been important plot elements in two police-action stories this week.

On Tuesday night, it was Lt. Haines' wife in "N.Y.P.D." who was being harassed by strange calls. On Thursday night's "Ironside," it was another of the chief's old friends, a beautiful widow with lots of money and a beastly brother.

Lt. Haines immediately put two of his best detectives to work in an effort to find the tormentor. Chief Ironside and his aides dropped everything else to uncover a plot.

It may be that it works that way if one has special contacts with police departments. But in real life, when that sort of thing happens, the victim finally decides the best way out is to change to an unlisted telephone number. That usually works since in real life the caller is usually someone who has picked a name and number from a directory—rarely is it the deliberate kickoff point leading to some foul deed.

FRANTIC FEAR

Any family receiving a flurry of strange telephone calls is likely to become at the least nervous. Since in both TV stories the women reacted with frantic fear to the calls, the idea might serve to stimulate cruel practical jokers or deranged persons to copy it.

From time to time television has been accused, among other things, of providing "blueprints of crime" in its police and private eye series. Sharp details nowadays are frequently blurred a bit but most of us know about the fingerprints and getaway cars.

"It Takes a Thief" and "Mission: Impossible" are two shows in which all sorts of criminal techniques are used but all in a worthy cause and nobody could possibly copy them.

It doesn't take much skill, however, to pick up a phone and proceed to scare the daylights out of the person on the other end of the line.

TV Exec to Talk at Water Confab

LANSING (AP) — Stuart Finley, a network television and film producer specializing in programs related to man's environment, will be the keynote speaker Tuesday at the Governor's Conference on Water Sediment Pollution.

The conference, set for the Lansing Civic Center, will include panel discussions on such topics as water sedimentation in Lake Michigan, effects of sedimentation and methods of control.

Girl Mauled by Two Dogs Hospitalized

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP) — A 7-year-old girl was dragged from the porch of her home to the sidewalk by two large dogs Thursday.

"She was sitting on the sidewalk with her clothes torn off when we arrived," said Patrolman Joseph Wright. "She was bitten from head to toe."

The child, Patricia Godbold, was reported in fair condition later at a hospital.

* * *

Wright quoted neighbors as saying the two dogs had chased another girl into her home shortly before attacking the Godbold child.

* * *

Officers shot one of the dogs. The other was captured. Both are being examined for rabies. Both wore collars without tags or identification plates.
