Three Others Convicted

Hoffa Guilty on Two Counts of Jury-Fixing

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP)—James R. Hoffa, president of the Teamsters Union, was convicted today on two charges of seeking to fix the jury which tried him on a conspiracy charge in 1962.

The jury acquitted him on a third charge.

Also convicted were three men on trial with him—Ewing King and Thomas E. Parks of Nashville and Larry Campbell of Detroit.

Hoffa sat motionless, his face a grim mask, as jury foreman Hal W. Bullen of Chattanooga read the verdict. It was his first conviction in five federal trials dating back to 1957.

Hoffa could receive a maximum sentence of 10 years in prison and a fine of $10,000. The others could receive up to 5 years and $5,000 each.

★ ★ ★

Hoffa, Parks and Campbell were convicted of offering a $10,000 bribe to the son of a Negro juror in the 1962 trial.

Campbell is business agent for the Detroit Teamsters Local, of which Hoffa is president.

Parks, a handyman, is Campbell's uncle. Both Campbell and Parks are Negroes.

★ ★ ★

Hoffa and King, former Nashville Teamsters president, were convicted of offering a promotion in the Tennessee highway patrol to a state trooper whose wife was on the Nashville jury.

ACQUITTED CHARGES

The jurors acquitted Hoffa on a charge in which he was accused of aiding and abetting two businessmen in trying to rig the jury.

The businessmen, Nicholas Tweel of Huntington, W. Va., and Allen Dorfman of Chicago, also were acquitted.

The jury deliberated a total of 5 hours and 40 minutes, after receiving the case at 7:25 last night. The verdict came just 20 minutes after the luncheon recess.

After deliberating 2 hours and 50 minutes, the jurors went out for lunch at noon without any indication a verdict is in sight.

The jury at that point had been considering the case a total of 5 hours and 25 minutes.

The four women and eight men deliberated 2 hours and 35 minutes last night before U.S. Dist. Judge Frank Wilson sent them to bed at 10 a.m.

Hal W. Bullen, 69, a retired sales executive, was elected jury foreman.

five other men on trial with him in trying to fix the 1962 jury which tried him on a conspiracy charge in Nashville.

The Nashville jury, from which three jurors or prospective jurors were excused on grounds that someone tried to contact them, never was able to agree.

The judge instructed the jurors yesterday that Hoffa cannot be convicted unless at least one of the others also is found guilty.

Judge Wilson also said, "It is not necessary for the government to show that an attempt (to contact a juror) was successful or that an approach actually was made." It is sufficient, he said, if the jury believes the government proved an attempt was made.

During the trial, which began Jan. 20, Hoffa and the others testified they did nothing wrong. Most of the defense case was aimed at discrediting the testi-

Witness Says Ruby Dazed at News of Assassination

DALLAS (AP)—A pretty secretary testified today that Jack Ruby sat with a fixed stare for two minutes shortly after the news broke that President John F. Kennedy had been assassinated in Dallas.

The witness, Georgia Mayer, said in answer to defense questions that his appearance and action were remarkable and sufficiently unusual to draw her attention.

She is a secretary in the advertising department of the Dallas Morning News. Co-workers said they noted very little, if any, change in Ruby when he heard the news. He was in the office composing an advertisement.

★ ★ ★

Ruby is charged with slaying Lee Harvey Oswald, accused as the assassin of Kennedy. The defense sought to support by questioning its contention that the slaying of Kennedy shocked Ruby into a mental blackout during which he killed Oswald.

The prosecution seeks to prove that Ruby's actions were normal.

PLEA OF INNOCENT

Ruby rose to his feet before a jury of four women and eight men today and entered a formal plea of innocent as the first day of testimony got under way.

His attorneys added that the plea was innocent by reason of insanity.

The jury had entered the courtroom as a unit for the first time.

★ ★ ★

Dist. Atty. Henry M. Wade then stood about two feet in front of and facing the defendent and read the indictment charging that Ruby, 52, did "with malice aforethought kill Lee Harvey Oswald by shooting him with a gun."

The indictment was dated Nov. 26, two days after Oswald was shot and four days after President Kennedy was assassinated in Dallas.

"Mr. Ruby, how do you plead to the indictment?" asked Judge Joe B. Brown, who returned to the bench today after a one-day absence because of illness.

"Not guilty," answered Ruby in a low voice.

Defense counsel then told Judge Brown that the defendant also was pleading innocent by reason of insanity.

★ ★ ★

The state's first witness was Don Campbell, 46, an advertising salesman for the Dallas Morning News.

Through his testimony, Asst. Dist. Atty. Bill Alexander led swiftly to the fateful moments when President Kennedy was assassinated.

Campbell said he and Ruby were talking about an advertisement for Ruby's two night

Area NAACP Sets Protest

A spokesman for the Oakland County Chapter of the NAACP today said its part in a nationwide racial demonstration March 24 will be keyed locally to alleged school segregation.

The protest, termed a "Freedom Demonstration," will involve "thousands of local residents," said Charles Billings, 236 Gage, of the chapter's freedom committee.

"Our demonstration is timed to coincide with other public rallies in Chicago, Philadelphia and throughout Michigan," stated Billings, who is a Detroit school teacher.

★ ★ ★

"We are using this method to show the people of Pontiac and Michigan and the nation that the civil rights movement is going ahead in 1964 and that the actions of last year will continue in even stronger tones."

MARCH PLANS

Billings said plans for the demonstration call for a 4:30 p.m. march from the board of education offices at 40 Patterson, to the steps of City Hall.

There the marchers will be greeted by NAACP leaders, clergymen, and spokesmen for other civil rights groups.

Billings said Mayor Robert A. Landry has confirmed he will take part in the march. Attorney Milton Henry, former city commissioner, will be the main speaker.

★ ★ ★

The demonstration will focus attention on alleged racial segregation in Pontiac schools, according to Billings.

"Seven schools in our city are attended exclusively by Negro students," he said, "while more

JOHN A. RILEY

Press Exec Heads UF Committee

John A. Riley, secretary and advertising director for The Pontiac Press, today was named chairman of the advance gifts committee for the 1964 Pontiac Area United Fund campaign.

In making the appointment, Bruce J. Annett, general campaign chairman, said Riley will lead the "advance guard" of the annual fund-raising effort.

"As head of the 50-member advance gifts team, which begins its activities in September, he will help set the pace of the regular campaign which opens a month later," said Annett.

★ ★ ★

Riley has been an advance gifts solicitor and member of United Fund's publicity committee the past five years. He succeeds Robert M. Critchfield, who last year led the gifts committee to 113 per cent of its goal by raising $102,162.

Teen Slayer Is Committed

No Room for Lovaas in State Hospital

Daniel Lovaas, 15-year-old admitted slayer of a Birmingham schoolgirl, was committed yesterday to Pontiac State Hospital for psychiatric care and treatment.

But there's no room for him at the hospital and the treatment will be delayed because the County Children's Center, where Daniel will stay while awaiting admission, has no facilities for it.

Probate Judge Donald E. Adams ordered the commitment after hearing from two psychiatrists and a psychologist that the Lovaas boy is psychotic and homicidal.

★ ★ ★

He said he hoped for an early opening at the hospital. But he said he had no idea how soon it might come.

A YEAR'S WAIT

Some in Daniel's age group now have been waiting more than a year since commitment, he said.

"The state does not provide adequate facilities for persons under 17," Judge Adams said. Daniel's presence at the Children's Center puts "an abnormal burden on both the staff and the building," he said.

The Lovaas boy is kept under closer supervision than other children at the detention home.

It was a year ago—March 8, 1963 — that Douglas Godfrey, also 15 at the time, was committed to the hospital after admitting the sniper slaying of his mother.

★ ★ ★

HOME TREATMENT

In recent months, the Godfrey boy has been back to his Bloomfield Township home on weekend and holiday visits as part of his treatment.

The Lovaas boy should be hospitalized and might well respond to treatment, the psychiatrists and Juvenile Court psychologist John McBride told Judge Adams.

Daniel had admitted to the

GETTING ALONG WELL — Three months after the assassination, the widow of President John F. Kennedy is engrossed in her children and memorials to her husband. Jackie Kennedy still has waves of remorse over the tragedy of Dallas, but friends say she is "getting along quite well."

Tells Spanish Court: Don't Recall Killing

BARCELONA, Spain (UPI)—An American facing a possible death sentence on a murder charge told a court today he did not remember killing the victim because he was "under the influence of drugs."

James Bell Wagner, 22, of Union Beach, N.J., told prosecutor Manuel Casado he entered the office of Barcelona businessman Francisco Rovirosa Closas Nov. 17, 1962, with the intention of robbing him.

"All I remember is that Rovirosa got a knife to defend himself," Wagner said. "From there on I don't remember anything."

Wagner, two other Americans and a Spanish woman face possible execution by the medieval garrote for the knife-and-hammer slaying of Rovirosa.

The three Americans would be the first to die by the iron collar in a Spanish criminal case.

In addition to Wagner they are James Stephen Johnson, 31, a native of Bluejacket, Okla., who last lived in Framingham, Mass., and John Joseph Hand, 40, of Southfield, Mich.

The prosecutor interrogated Wagner for over an hour as soon as the trial opened today before a courtroom packed with 500 spectators.

The local press has referred to the trial as the "beatnik murder case" because of the defendants' odd backgrounds.

Wagner, in reply to prosecution questions, said he did not even remember whether he took any money from Rovirosa's office, mutilated Rovirosa's body or cut the telephone cord, as the prosecutor alleged.

The Spanish woman defendant is Maria del Pilar Alfaro Velasco, 32, of Barcelona.

Also implicated are Hand's sister-in-law, Mrs. Nancy Karen Hand, 25, of Southfield, Mich.; and Joan Douglas Bryden, 22, of Northampton, England. Mrs. Hand faces a possible prison sentence of 18 years and Miss Bryden could get 11 years.

Engine Halted LBJ Helicopter

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—One of President Johnson's private helicopters was forced down by engine trouble in a feld near South Hill, Va., last Friday, it was learned today.

It was one of three helicopters which had served President Johnson on his brief trip to Florida the previous day.

The helicopter was on a return trip from Florida to Ft. Belvoir, where the White House helicopters are based.

No official personnel, other than the crew, were aboard the craft.

QUICK TRIP

President Johnson had made a quick trip to Florida Thursday to break ground for a new barge canal and speak at a Democratic fund-raising dinner.

ROOFTOP DRAMA — All eyes are on Thomas French, standing at the edge of a 60-foot-high London roof yesterday, threatening to plunge to his death, taking his infant son with him. Police edge nearer as an aerial fire ladder is brought into play.

LONDON (AP)—A pretty young policewoman was a heroine today after snatching an infant from the arms of its father as he threatened to jump off a 60-foot building.

For more than an hour yesterday, Thomas French, 31, had been holding his 18-month-old son on the edge of the roof while officer Margaret Cleland, 23, and others tried in vain to persuade him to come down.

Then the policewoman thought of a way to get closer: "I suggested we put on his (the baby's) coat. He agreed and then as I stretched out to put the coat on I snatched the baby and fell back onto the sloping roof."

★ ★ ★

She said French struggled with her "and I thought for a moment we were all going over."

Other officers quickly seized French, strapped him down and took him to a hospital. The baby, unhurt in the scuffle, was cared for by authorities.

French told police his wife had left him and that he had been evicted from his home.

McNamara Set for Another Trip to S. Viet Nam

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara will take off for South Viet Nam Thursday night, cool to proposals to carry the war against Communist North Viet Nam.

★ ★ ★

Anything but a "soft liner," McNamara is understood to feel the South Vietnamese forces will win or lose the fight by the way they go about eliminating the Communist insurgents inside their own country.

The defense chief is said to believe the Vietnamese lack the capability to carry on a full-scale campaign in South Viet Nam and at the same time strike into the north.

★ ★ ★

McNamara reportedly is against sending Americans on any such operations into North Viet Nam.

VIET POSITION

It is his position, both in public and private, that the U.S. military men — 15,500 of them now—are in South Viet Nam as trainers and advisers, and that the fighting must be done by the Vietnamese.

McNamara recognizes that guerrilla operations or air strikes into Red territory might slow supplies and reinforcements to Communist elements inside South Viet Nam.

But he contends this will not solve the basic problem that has plagued the U.S.-supported effort since it began on a big scale more than two years ago.

That problem: how to win the backing of the people in the countryside for the government in Saigon.

★ ★ ★

Evidence reaching the Pentagon since the most recent coup a little over a month ago has not been conclusive, in the view of top officials, as to whether the Vietnamese people have rallied to Maj. Gen. Nguyen Khana, the new premier, any more than they stood behind the two governments before Khanh.

U. N. Council Vote OKs Peace Force for Cyprus

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The U.N. Security Council voted unanimously today to have Secretary-General U Thant set up a Cyprus peace force and to name a mediator to seek peace in the island republic.

★ ★ ★

The Soviet Union had announced it would support the plan despite strong reservations on the provisions for the creation and control of the force.

There also had been some doubt about France's vote, but French Delegate Roger Seydoux went along with the others.

WAS CONFIDENT

Just before the vote the secretary-general told the 11-nation council he was confident he would be able to form the force, and that he would get the full cooperation of Cyprus, Britain, Turkey and Greece in the U.N. peace efforts.

The Soviet position was disclosed by Ambassador Nikolai T. Fedorenko at the opening of the council session.

★ ★ ★

Fedorenko said the provision that the secretary-general would decide on the composition of the proposed force in consultation with Cyprus, Britain, Greece and Turkey would circumvent the Security Council. He also objected to a provision making the commander of the force accountable to the secretary-general and not the council.

SEPARATE VOTE

He asked for a separate vote on this whole section of the resolution and stated that he would abstain on it. He declared, however, that in view of the fact that the resolution was acceptable to Cyprus he would vote for the proposal as a whole.

At the close of his speech, Fedorenko protested against the presence of the Chinese Nationalist delegate, Ambassador Liu Chieh, in the chair as council president. He called it a "ridiculous situation."

★ ★ ★

Liu replied that he did not want to provoke a debate on this in view of the importance of the issue before the council. There was no further discussion.

In Athens, 2,000 Greeks burned an effigy of President Johnson in front of the U.S. Embassy Tuesday night. Thousands of others poured through the streets shouting denunciations of the United States and Britain for allegedly taking Turkey's side in the dispute.

They roared "Bravo Russia," "Johnson-Al Capone" and "Out with the fleet." Units of the U.S. 6th Fleet are holding joint exercises with Turkey in the Aegean Sea.

On the Greek island of Rhodes, off the Turkish coast, 3,000 high school students stoned the U.S. Information Agency building, the Turkish consulate and the U.S. Coast Guard vessel Courier, which serves as a transmitter for the Voice of America. They also overturned a car belonging to the Courier at dockside.

Car Kills Girl Fleeing Dogs

A little girl, running from a pack of dogs, was fatally injured yesterday when she ran into the path of a car.

Dead is Cleester Walker, 6, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Walker, 303 South Boulevard east.

The youngster died of chest injuries at Pontiac General Hospital three hours after the 4:45 p.m. accident on Franklin Road near Dittmar.

The child became frightened when she saw the dogs, an older sister, Emma, 14, told Pontiac police, and darted into the street.

The driver of the car, Robert L. Bannister, 20, of 671 Cameron, said he saw the girl but not in time to stop. Police said the car skidded into the girl.

Bannister was released by police after questioning. He was to make a statement to the prosecutor today.

Castro's Water Offer Is Rejected by U.S.

HAVANA (AP) — Prime Minister Fidel Castro offered today to turn on the water again for the U.S. naval base at Guantanamo but met a quick, cold turn-down from Washington.

State department officials in the U. S. capital said the offer would not be accepted.

And Pierre Salinger, White House press secretary, commented, "We have already made it clear that Guantanamo is being made self-sufficient."

"Cuba considers the incident of the water at Guantanamo Bay closed and is ready to supply the base with water once again," the prime minister told foreign newsmen at a Moroccan Embassy reception.

"It is up to the Americans to use that water or not," he added.

CUT OFF WATER

Castro cut off Guantanamo's water supply on Feb. 6 in retaliation for the arrest of 38 Cuban fishermen and the seizure of four trawlers in American waters off Florida.

★ ★ ★

Twenty-nine of the fishermen were returned to Cuba Feb. 21 with their boats after the four captains paid fines for poaching. Two fishermen chose asylum in the United States. The other seven were freed as juveniles and returned to Havana.

★ ★ ★

The U.S. government is not expected to take up Castro's offer to turn the base's water back on. It has plans to make the base self-sufficient with the use of desalinization plants that are to be built in the next year. The base is being supplied by tankers with water from Florida.

Castro also had another swipe for Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., who after the water was cut off said the United States should send a battalion of Marines to turn the water on.

ROOTING FOR BARRY

Asked what he thought about the U.S. presidential race, Castro replied: "I am rooting for Goldwater because I believe he will lose votes that way. I am even ready to send him a small contribution for his campaign.

"I think Goldwater will not win in the election because the American people, like any other people, want peace and they don't want to die. The Republican programs are aggressive and stupid and I believe that they will lose."

Jury Trial Set in Tree Case

Bloomfield Twp. Man in Court March 17

The case of John M. Williams and his 1,000 leftover Christmas trees will be weighed by a Bloomfield Township jury.

Williams, 1695 Ward, pleaded innocent Feb. 25 to a charge of storing combustible material on a residential lot and a public thoroughfare.

Bloomfield Township Justice of the Peace Mrs. Alice Gilbert yesterday postponed the trial to March 17.

★ ★ ★

Williams became the possessor of the already-cut forest shortly after the holidays when he told a group of boys selling Christmas trees they could bring their unsold inventory to his place.

UNWANTED TREES

The 68-year-old General Motors retiree has gathered 100 or so of the unwanted trees every winter for the last 15 years.

He uses them as cover for wildlife on his 2.5 acres, then chops them up to provide mulch for his strawberries in the spring.

Bloomfield Township Building Inspector Harold Schoof said he had warned Williams about the danger of the piled trees weeks before signing a complaint against him.

★ ★ ★

Officially notified, Williams obtained a burning permit and some crude oil and attempted to burn up the trees. But they, unlike their kind which had spent the Yule season in dry homes, refused to catch the spark.

BETTER LUCK

With the warmer days of the last week, Williams has had better luck. By starting fires in old tires, he has managed to watch about half of the trees consumed in flames.

The rest he has moved off the Delrose Road right of way and away from his house, where they had been deemed to be both traffic and fire hazards.

★ ★ ★

He said he is chopping up the remaining trees, diminishing the substance of his problem while waiting to tell his story to a jury.

Under cross-examination by Chief Defense Counsel Melvin M. Belli, Campbell said he left Ruby in the office of the newspaper so far as he knew Ruby did not witness the assassination.

Belli brought out from Campbell that Ruby appeared to be worried about a financial problem and the fact that a dance band had left one of his nightclubs.

Campbell said he had known Ruby about four years. In answer to one of Belli's questions, Campbell said that as to Ruby's manner during that conversation, "He was the Jack Ruby that I knew." Ruby did not appear to be "upset" at the time.

"He was a volatile individual?" Belli asked. Campbell agreed.

Under redirect examination, Alexander asked Campbell about his description of Ruby as "volatile." Campbell replied, "Well, not overly."

Under cross-examination by Belli, Duncan said Ruby arranged a telephone interview with Wade on the night of the President's assassination. He said that while he had not known Ruby before, Ruby appeared to be "pleased" to be in the center of things and to be able to arrange the interview.

Duncan said Ruby told him he had seen Oswald—that he had been swept up in a crowd in the police station when Oswald was being moved and that he was standing close to him.

Two police officers were the next witnesses.

The first, R. M. Sims, testified that Ruby telephoned him about 10 o'clock on the night of the assassination.

City Offers 3 Buildings for Polio Immunization

BIRMINGHAM — The City Commission here has offered to do its part in a proposed program to immunize the entire population of Oakland County against polio.

The free service will be offered simultaneously by the medical societies of Oakland, Wayne and Macomb counties.

Birmingham has offered the use of its two fire stations and municipal building as vaccination stations.

★ ★ ★

The live oral vaccine will be administered here on two Sunday days, April 19 and June 14.

STATION STAFFS

The medical society hopes to handle between 6,000 and 8,000 persons at each of the stations. Each will be staffed by a physician, nurse, pharmacist and volunteers for record taking. Others will be asked to do clean up work and to handle traffic in the areas.

Dr. Worth W. Henderson, public health committee chairman for the Oakland County Medical Society, noted the oral vaccine is preferred because of ease of administration. Only two feedings are required and it provides protection against all three types of polio.

The vaccine has been used by the majority of the population of Ohio, Philadelphia, New York City, Los Angeles, areas of Texas and Florida, according to Henderson.

The new concepts in nursery and kindergarten education offered at City and Country School of Bloomfield Hills will be featured in a forthcoming issue of Look magazine.

★ ★ ★

"Julie Wants to Learn" is the title of the article scheduled for the March 10 issue of Look.

It relates to the gifted child education program introduced at the school by Mrs. Annemarie Roeper director.

PRINCIPAL'S OFFICE — This was the scene at Douglass Houghton School, Williams Lake and Elizabeth Lake Roads, after it was broken into last night. State police from the Pontiac post were investigating today.

School Rooms Are Vandalized

The principal's office and a teachers' conference room at Douglass Houghton Elementary School in White Lake Township were left in a shambles last night by at least one intruder who broke into the building.

The principal, Mrs. Beatrice Arnold, said two typewriters were missing from the reception room to her office this morning.

Pontiac state police were questioning a 13-year-old boy who attends the school.

Officers said they could find footprints of only one youth inside the building this morning when the break-in was discovered by a custodian at 7:20 a.m.

WINDOW SMASHED

Entry had been gained by smashing a classroom window. Several interior windows and two glass doors leading to the principal's office also were smashed.

The office and conference room were littered with papers, books and debris dumped from shelves, desk drawers and files.

Custodian Roger Arcand said the school building had last been checked about midnight just before the night custodian went off duty.

★ ★ ★

Two exterior glass doors of the school had been riddled with pellets over the weekend. State police also were checking on these today.

Suspect Freed in Hit-Run

A suspect in the hit-and-run death of a four-year-old boy was released yesterday by Pontiac police.

The 23 - year - old man had been given two lie detector tests since he was taken into custody Sunday.

He was questioned about the death of Kenneth H. Duncan, struck down by one car at Bagley and Wessen Feb. 22, and then run over by another. Neither driver stopped.

The youngster was the son of Mrs. Hattie Duncan, 330 Franklin Road.

State Moves on Redistricting Preparations

LANSING (AP)—With serious legal doubt case upon Michigan's new congressional districts, the top echelons of state government quickly geared Tuesday to meet the possibility of the districts being upset.

★ ★ ★

In less than 24 hours after two federal judges found there is a "prima facie" case against the districts being constitutional, these developments took place:

—Lt. Gov. T. John Lesinski and vacationing Gov. George W. Romney agreed by telephone the legislature should be opened to a bill to create new districts.

—A Senate committee set in motion a Democratic resolution which would exempt such legislation from the Feb. 26 deadline for new introductions.

SHIFT CALENDAR

—Secretary of State James Hare asked that the entire election calendar be shifted back several weeks "in view of the fact that we will have no official decision from the federal district court on Michigan congressional apportionment until March 23."

—Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley saw three alternatives facing the state if the court invalidates the districts: an at-large election of all 19 congressmen, enactment of new apportionment by the legislature, or an appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court.

Lesinski said he and Romney talked over long-distance telephone between Lansing and Hawaii, where the Republican governor is on a three-week vacation.

"We talked long enough for me to fill him in on what's going on in federal court. We agreed on the need of a vehicle (a bill in the legislature) to accomplish districting if it becomes necessary, said Lesinski, who is acting governor in Romney's absence.

GAINS COOPERATION

The Democratic lieutenant governor said he had the cooperation of the Committee on Senate Business, which held an emergency meeting to approve a Democratic enabling resolution.

Senate minority leader Raymond Dzendzel, D-Detroit, explained to the committee how he came to have a resolution drafted and introduced Monday night.

"I heard about this federal court thing on the radio as I drove to Lansing for our night session Monday. As soon as I got here I ran upstairs and got the drafting started," he said.

Originally, the Dzendzel resolution called for acceptance of legislative apportionment plans through March 10. But committee member Frank Beadle, R-St. Clair, had this amended to March 13, giving still more time for a districting plan to be worked out.

GOOD DAY

"Friday the 13th would be a good day for it," Beadle said.

Although the committee is Republican — controlled, as are both houses of the legislature, the Dzendzel resolution and his motion that it be favorably recommended to the Senate passed unanimously.

Final legislative approval of the resolution is possible by Thursday.

Hare sent Lesinski and House Speaker Allison Green, R-Kingston, a formal request that the legislature "give prompt consideration to shifting the entire election calendar back."

DISTRICTING DECISION

"I have notified the Supreme Court that, under the present election calendar it would be necessary that the legislative apportionment should be in my office not later than March 16," the letter said.

Hare "strongly recommended" that since the congressional question could not be settled until March 23 by the federal court, that three new deadlines be set: Sept. 8 for primary election, July 28 for filing legislative and congressional petitions and July 21 for filing delegate petitions.

★ ★ ★

Three U. S. District Court judges — Clifford O'Sullivan, Stephen Roth and Talbot Smith —are hearing the challenges brought by Donald Calkins and Karl Jacobs.

The panel reported their majority felt the plaintiffs have a prima facie case that the 1963 apportionment act is unconstitutional.

Orchard Lake to Be City

ORCHARD LAKE — Oakland County lost a village yesterday, but gained a city.

Orchard Lake voters accepted the cityhood for their community by a 204-124 margin.

They also elected a nine-member commission to draw up the charter for the new governing unit.

Those elected to the job are Kenneth Treacy, who polled 254 votes; Frederick S. Strong Jr., 253; John C. Hall, 253; Sylvester Leahy, 251; Mrs. Katherine M. Baker, 245; Edwin M. Douglas, 240; Harold Knisley, 240; Everett R. Casey, 237, and Theodore Bloom, 235.

Hervert Cooley was the unsuccessful candidate, tallying 128 votes.

70 PER CENT VOTE

Yesterday's balloting saw 70 per cent of the village's electors visiting the polls. There are 481 registered to cast their ballots.

Regular village elections in the last 10 years have drawn between 40 and 60 voters.

The embryonic city will grow within present village boundaries. Its area is bordered on three sides by Cass Lake, Orchard Lake Road and the railroad tracks south of Pontiac Trail.

★ ★ ★

On the west side the boundary jags north to Cass Lake through Upper Straits Lake.

90 DAY DEADLINE

The group charged with formulation of a new charter will have 90 days to get its work done. Officials were uncertain when the first meeting would be called, but they noted it would have to be soon.

Incorporation as a city was proposed in October by a citizens group which had been studying the idea.

Plans were presented at a public meeting which drew some 180 residents. When it was over, 146 of them signed a petition to have the question put on the ballot.

★ ★ ★

Members of the citizens committee noted then that the charter commission would be somewhat pushed for time and therefore would have to rely heavily on the present charter.

MAINTAIN GOVERNMENT

The move was seen as a method of keeping the informal government of the residential community intact while maintaining it as a separate entity.

Materially, Orchard Lake will now be able to tax up to 20 mills while it formerly was limited to 15.

City property owners, however, no longer will be assessed township taxes, this year set at 4.35 mills.

★ ★ ★

The new city, then, can add $15,000 to its present income of $73,000 from taxes and $25,000 in state refunds. School district levies will not be altered.

★ ★ ★

With a population of about 1,200, Orchard Lake has an assessed valuation in the neighborhood of $3.5 million, about one-tenth of the township's total.

Hunting Death Brings Charge

State Man Arraigned in County Shooting

NOVI — Ambrose J. Beaton of River Rouge was arraigned here yesterday in the death of his hunting companion.

Beaton, 22, demanded examination on a charge of killing a person through the careless use of firearms.

His hearing before Justice of the Peace Emery Jacques was set for March 12 and he was released on a $500 bond.

★ ★ ★

Police said Beaton and Leroy E. Weiss, 24, of Ecorse were rabbit hunting with two other men Thursday when Beaton began to shoot his 22-caliber rifle in a careless manner.

★ ★ ★

They allege that Beaton had been firing his gun into the ground and his car parked near Meadowbrook. One of the bullets entered Weiss' cheek and he died about six hours later, according to Novi police.

Justice Given Raise in Pay

WALLED LAKE—Justice of the Peace Gene Schnelz asked for and got a $1,800 raise in salary from the City Council last night.

The increase from his present $1,800 salary will actually be less because of a change authorized in the collection of fees for civil and state suits.

Schnelz receives about $500 or $600 a year from these additional fees which will go into city coffers after July 1.

In Schnelz' presentation to the council last night, he compared provisions for courts in eight neighboring communities, noting he would have earned $4,000 last year if paid on a straight fee basis.

COURT ON BALLOT

A proposal to adopt a municipal court system will appear on the April 6 city ballot. If accepted, the raise also would apply to the salary of a municipal judge.

Schnelz noted he devotes one day a week to trials and that his is a 24-hour-a-day job. The justice said he handles about 60 traffic cases alone in a month.

He would expect the load to increase in a municipal court, he said.

Dinner to Open Drive for Rochester YMCA

ROCHESTER— The kickoff dinner for the Rochester YMCA's sixth annual membership enrollment drive will be 6:30 p.m. tomorrow at the First Congregational Church.

Purpose of the meeting is to provide campaign workers with information assisting them in reaching this year's goal of $9,000. The dinner is being provided by women's groups from several Rochester churches.

PTA Open House

LAKE ORION — The PTA of Blanche Sims Elementary School is sponsoring an open house for parents, beginning at 8 p.m. Monday.

Reorganization Plan OK'd for Walled Lake Fire Dept.

WALLED LAKE — The City Council last night laid the groundwork for reorganization of the fire department, thereby hoping to settle a 2-month-old hassle.

The system will remain basically unaltered, with a few changes in implementation.

Most notable is the absence of a fire chief in the plans and a new method of paying volunteer firemen which promises to save the city about $1,200 a year.

★ ★ ★

The proposal, accepted by a 5-2 vote of the council, was one of four recommendations made by a study committee which has been mulling the problem since the resignation of Fire Chief Frank Hamilton in January.

TEMPORARY CHIEF

Police Chief James A. Decker has been temporary head of the department during the interim.

Councilwoman Mrs. Margaret A. Thibideau, study committee chairman, presented the recommendations last night, two weeks before the deadline.

The reorganized fire department will consist of two full-time men, as it did before Hamilton's resignation. They will report to the chief of police while on the desk and be responsible for any police work he considers necessary.

★ ★ ★

The full-time man on duty will take the fire truck to a fire and be in charge of the fire fighters and their equipment during the operation.

EQUIPMENT CARE

However, the police chief will assume responsibility for the maintenance of equipment and the building housing it.

Manpower will be purchased from the Volunteer Firefighters Association at the rate of $500 a quarter beginning April 1. If bills for the quarter come to less than that amount, the volunteers will be paid the lower sum.

City Manager Frank Derby estimated the savings to result from the volunteers' offer in the neighborhood of $1,200.

★ ★ ★

Voting in favor of the plan were Mayor Milton A. Parrish, Wendel G. Kellogg Jr., Donald M. Post, Marshall E. Taylor and Mrs. Thibideau. Councilmen Robert J. Buffmyer and William C. Staman opposed the idea.

MORE FIGURES

Councilman sought more specific figures on proposed fire department financing and Mrs. Thibideau was asked to have them available for the next meeting.

Committee recommendations not voted on by the council were that cooperation should be demanded of police and fire personnel, that a fully volunteer fire system be adopted and that any proposal adopted be considered at a public hearing.

Mrs. Thibideau suggested that some, though be given to cooperation with neighboring communities for a central radio base station. Mayor Parrish noted the investigation might better be handled by the new council to be elected April 6.

★ ★ ★

Derby, who suspended Hamilton from the voluntary force Jan. 15 after the exchief had been critical of the temporary one, last night reported they had agreed to close the matter.

In answer to a question from Kellogg, however, Derby said Hamilton had not been reinstated.

NEWS OF THE AREA

Rochester Board Studies Teachers' Unit Requests

ROCHESTER — More sick days, a group insurance program and the same pay sought last year are included in the Rochester Education Association's requests now being considered by the school board.

At Monday's regular board meeting Thomas Urkin, president of the REA, and the group's salary committee presented a five-point program for district teachers.

What Schools Supt. Dr. William Early called the "key recommendation" is a proposal for adoption of a group medical insurance for employes, with the district paying 50 per cent of the cost.

The teachers also moved for acceptance of the 1963 salary schedule. A year ago it was adopted in part.

SALARY SCHEDULE

Presently a beginning teacher with a bachelor's degree starts at $4,900. With a master's degree the scale begins at $5,200.

Under terms of the schedule requested Monday, the minimum pay remains the same, but the maximum is upped to $7,987 for those with a four-year degree, as compared with the present top pay of $7,722. Hikes are given based on a 12-increment scale.

For those with the advanced degree, the teachers are requesting the salary peak be raised from the present $8,138 to $8,476.

The education association also recommended a terminal leave pay, which would give retiring teachers a bonus based on one-half of one per cent of the last year's salary, multiplied by the number of years the teacher has been with the system.

ENDORSED BY TEACHERS

A fourth proposal endorsed by the teachers is for extension of the present maximum cumulative sick days from 70 to 120, arrived at by increases of 10 each during the next five years.

For its last request, the education association has endorsed an addition to the salary schedule which would pay teachers for college hours above the degree they hold.

Instead of dividing the pay scale into two portions, one each for those with a bachelor's and a master's degree, the proposal calls for introducing two other scales, for those having completed 15 hours beyond their degree requirements.

THIS IS MY BODY, THIS IS MY BLOOD

Matthew's description of the first communion service is terse and unforgettable.

"And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and blessed it, and broke it and gave it to the disciples, and said, 'Take, eat; this is My body.'

"And He took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, 'Drink ye all of it; for this is My blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins.'" (Matthew XXVI:26-28)

Chilean Volcano Calms; Natives Return

TEMUCO, Chile (AP)—Villarrica volcano in southern Chile seemed to be calming down today, and some of the 30,000 people routed by its eruptions were returning home.

For the villagers of Conaripe, hardest hit by Villarrica's fury, there were only mud-covered ruins of what had been a scenic spot in this Andean resort area.

Of Conaripe's population of 138, police said three persons were dead and 22 missing after volcanic eruptions Monday sent an avalanche of mud and rock roaring down the 9,325-foot mountain, burying the town.

The unofficial toll for the ravaged area 60 miles around the peak was 22 killed and 35 missing. A spokesman at rescue headquarters set up in Temuco, 60 miles northwest of the volcano, said the number may rise as reports come in.

Villarrica began spewing flame, smoke and lava early Monday. The eruptions kept up most of Tuesday but by night the bursts of flame spurting from the crater were less frequent and less intense.

Heavy rains whipped the mountain valley for the sixth day. Rescue teams made their way along washed-out roads to try to deliver food and supplies to remote villages in the stricken region 500 miles south of Santiago. Much of the area was reported flooded.

The first relief squad to reach Conaripe reported that most of its residents reached safe ground minutes before the avalanche came crashing down Villarrica's southern slopes.

Villarrica's eruptions triggered avalanches elsewhere in a 60-mile radius, but there were no reports of serious damage to other villages. It was the worst eruption of Villarrica since 1948 when some 200 people were killed. Villarrica is in a volcanic area of the Andes where earthquakes killed hundreds in 1960.

ERUPTION — This Vallarrica volcano in southern Chile, shown here during a previous eruption, yesterday sent rocks and mud down its 9,325-foot slopes, bringing the town of Conaripe. The unofficial toll was 22 dead and 35 missing. At last report, the volcano was calming.

Jesse James Notes Drop in Smoking Taxes

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — State Treasurer Jesse James blames the cigarette smoking scare for a $1.2 million drop in revenue from the state cigarette tax during February.

"Looks to me like a lot of cigarette smokers are cutting down or quitting," James said yesterday. "I don't know how else to explain it."

February cigarette tax stamp sales were $5,651,381, compared to $6,864,599 in February, 1963, James said. Sales this January were $7,301,882.

Strike Goes Back to Court

Probing Continues in Ammonia Hurling

HILLSDALE (AP) —The Essex Wire Corp. strike headed back to court today as police continued an investigation of an ammonia-throwing incident.

Federal and state mediators at the same time arranged new meetings between management and the striking International Union of Electrical Workers (IUE).

★ ★ ★

George Crandell, 52, of Fort Wayne, Ind., riding in a truck leaving the strike-bound plant, was injured when unidentified persons threw ammonia into his face Tuesday, police said. The union denied responsibility.

A hospital eye specialist said Crandell's injuries were not serious.

SECOND EFFORT

The company made a second effort to get a court injunction today against alleged violence and threats.

Visiting Circuit Court Judge John C. Dalton of Jackson ordered an afternoon hearing on a petition from Essex Wire.

★ ★ ★

An earlier temporary injunction, issued by Judge Robert W. McIntyre, was dissolved by McIntyre in disqualifying himself Monday. Judge Mc Intyre was a partner in a law firm that represented Essex Wire in 1962.

The IUE pulled out its 180 Essex Wire workers Friday in striking to support contract demands.

OUTSIDE HELP

The company has continued operations with supervisory employes and 15 men brought here from Indiana whom the IUE calls strikebreakers.

The IUE supplanted the Teamsters Union as bargaining agent last year, defeating the Teamsters in an election. The company and union have yet to agree to a contract.

★ ★ ★

Harold Phillips, Essex vice president, said Tuesday the company would leave Michigan rather than submit to IUE demands.

Management said wages here are $2.43 an hour and that the union seeks 40 or 50 cents higher pay to equal the pay at Fort Wayne, Ind., plants of Essex Wire.

SOS was adopted as an international distress signal in 1912. The letters, which have no word meaning, were chosen because they are easy to transmit.

Two tiny black snuff boxes are still kept filled as a tradition in the U.S. Senate. They are located on marble ledges flanking the rostrum.

Citizens Voice Wants in City Primary Vote

The voters made it clear Monday.

The desire for a change in the City Commission was strong in the hearts of many who went to the polls.

★ ★ ★

Three former commissioners were nominated. Four incumbents were rejected, two of them by large margins.

Only District 7 Commissioner Robert A. Landry survived the primary to win a place on the April 20 ballot.

★ ★ ★

Commissioner WILLIAM H. TAYLOR in District 3 was not challenged by enough opponents to bring about a primary, and District 2 incumbent CHARLES HARMON declined to seek another term.

Some topnotch candidates sought a chance to straighten out the City's affairs, and the public voted for a change.

★ ★ ★

Now some of the smoke should clear, and the people of Pontiac can get this city back on the tracks by picking the best men in the April balloting.

The voter turnout was good in all districts, showing that the high amount of interest demonstrated by the charter amendment vote in January has not dimmed.

★ ★ ★

Pontiac will move forward because of the voters voice at the polls Monday.

Society Is Unprotected Against Psychotic Acts

Another shocking episode in the community's history of mounting juvenile violence is resolved by the commitment of 15-year-old DANIEL LOVAAS for the fatal stabbing of a 14-year-old girl last month.

★ ★ ★

But not resolved are the many fearful psychological aspects of this and other similar cases, and the seeming inability of society to protect itself against such irrational and unpredictable outbursts of maniacal behavior.

★ ★ ★

Nor, tragically, are the agony and haunting sorrow resolved for the families of both victim and slayer that gripped their lives with the perpetration of the crime.

It goes without saying that threat to the community from this particular offender will be relieved by institutional confinement. But what of the alarming homicidal tendencies that may be latent in a horde of other juveniles who show little visible symptoms of their mental sickness?

★ ★ ★

Apprehension and punishment of the guilty is but one phase of safeguarding the citizenry against all forms of depredation. It is, however, but a classic example of locking the barn door after the horse is stolen.

Just as our nation developed an early-warning system against enemy attack, so is society faced with the challenge of evolving processes to protect itself against surprise attacks from within.

Recent Russian Study Just Monkey Business

If monkeys are the funniest people, baboons are the most nervous —or so an item of the Soviet Union would indicate.

★ ★ ★

The Health Bulletin reports that Russian researchers have been able to induce high blood pressure in male baboons by making them wait to eat until all the females are finished.

As any baboon knows, this isn't natural, so the males become tense and their blood pressure shoots up.

★ ★ ★

The Russians are trying to show that many of the sicknesses of human civilization — neurosis, hallucinations, hypertension and heart disease — can be duplicated in primates.

This is interesting research, but it is strange to see the Russians wasting time on it. It is well-known that with the imminent withering away of the state and the establishment of utopian Communist society, these human ills will become nonexistent.

1964 Campaign May Be Ho-Hum

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON—This 1964 campaign year will have the usual chatter but may wind up ho-hum, lacking the tension and drama of recent presidential contests.

MARLOW

Since President Johnson has the inside track for the Democrats' nomination, there's no excitement about their convention next summer. This could change if he pulls some boners, but there's nothing like that in sight.

Although the Republican nomination is wide open, the two men working for it hardest apparently haven't built major fires — New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and Arizona's Sen. Barry Goldwater.

The two who may have the best chance for the prize don't even admit they're candidates, although they do a lot of talking: former Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Pennsylvania's Gov. William W. Scranton.

If Nixon is the man, the little element of mystery which gives a campaign zest before it starts won't apply. He laid down his campaign manners and methods in 1960.

Scranton, for a man being mentioned, shows a strange indifference. Last month he said a candidate for president to be effective must be "real stirred about the issues." He says he is not stirred up enough now.

NOT LIKE 1948

It wasn't like this in what former President Harry S. Truman might now consider the good old days of 1948 when to practically everyone's surprise, but not his, he beat New York's Gov. THOMAS E. Dewey.

In that year the country's jitters about the Communists-in-government issue was only part of the national anxiety. Earlier Truman had blocked the Communist pressure on Greece and Turkey.

But in 1948, tension climbed like a thermometer in a boiler room: the Communists had grabbed Czechoslovakia just before the campaign began, and during the campaign Truman was trying to smash the aggressive Soviet blockade of Berlin with an airlift.

★ ★ ★

Even that was only part of the voters' concern. They had to ask themselves: Was this to be the end of an era that began 16 years before with Roosevelt? Was it time for a change? The voters decided no.

MOOD FAR DIFFERENT

Their mood was far different in 1952 when Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower beat Adlai E. Stevenson, governor of Illinois. By then the country was torn apart over McCarthyism, communism in this country, and the war against communism in Korea.

Stevenson gave the campaign dignity and intellectual agility far above most campaigns in history. He held interest. But by then, the voters really wanted a change and chose the less articulate Eisenhower.

When Stevenson ran against Eisenhower in 1956, he never had a chance. By then, under Eisenhower, the country had recaptured its sanity and stability. Both McCarthyism and the Korean war were over.

★ ★ ★

The duel between Nixon and Sen. John F. Kennedy gave the 1960 campaign spice, particularly the television debates. Interest was high, so high the voters were almost equally divided between them, as Kennedy's hair-line win showed.

But nothing like any of those campaigns is in sight for 1964, at least not yet.

'Nice Work'

The Chicago Tribune

The brazenness that prevails in the Johnson administration's Bobby Baker set is disclosed in the incredibly raw stunt whereby Bobby's fee-splitting pal, Jose Benitez, was allowed to resign his $17,000 a year job with the government only to be taken on immediately at $75 a day as a "consultant" in the same field he previously had been tilling.

Benitez, former Democratic chairman of Puerto Rico, had been on the administration's payroll as deputy high commissioner of the trust islands of the Pacific.

He wasn't chucked out by his boss, Secretary of the Interior Udall, because of the Baker scandals, but resigned with Udall's blessing. Then Udall took him right back at the $75 a day stipend as consultant to the department on the trust islands.

★ ★ ★

You don't have to be very sharp at figuring to discover Benitez can make more off the taxpayers as a consultant than as a salaried official. If he works five days a week, 52 weeks a year, he collects $19,500.

★ ★ ★

In the Washington game of finding neat payoffs, Benitez, in his latest transformation into a consultant, has certainly found an accommodating gull — namely, the taxpayer.

OAS

The Miami Herald

Colombia's foreign policy experts are again explaining their position that the consulting arm of the Organization of American States may not, under any circumstances, revise the Treaty of 1903 between the United States and Panama, nor can they, under their charter, revise any other bilateral agreement between member nations of the Pan American system.

This stand is so obviously correct and logical that we would not care to have our editorial opinion misinterpreted as being basically opposed to it.

It goes without saying that the OAS cannot interfere in the internal affairs of any nation or their agreements with other sovereign nations.

We do insist, however, that all of the American nations are concerned with resolving a dispute on the sovereignty of the Panama Canal Zone.

Considering our traditional regard for international treaties, it does not appear to us that we are out of line in suggesting that the recognition of existing legal concepts creates no conflict of interest with skillful and flexible diplomacy.

We do not suggest to Colombian and other Latin American diplomats that they sacrifice their principles, but only that they leave no stone unturned in a dynamic approach to a problem that touches us all.

What would be the best approach in seeking a solution to this problem? Any gesture at all that would be conducive to reconciliation. Being a skillful diplomat and a professional smoother of ruffled feathers does not necessarily prevent one from being a man of principles.

If it is true that an unprincipled diplomat is useless, it is just as true that clinging to the letter of the law instead of giving it life and spirit may perhaps make a respectable lawyer but not an ideal diplomat.

Colombia's task in this conflict within the Pan American system demands that we adhere not only to our traditional respect for legal solutions, but also to another of our traditions, equally commendable and equally dignified: a talent for sensitive diplomacy.

Capital Letter:

John Glenn's Concussion May Change Ohio Race

By RUTH MONTGOMERY

WASHINGTON — It would be a supreme irony if dizziness rather than weightlessness determined the political future of former astronaut John Glenn.

RUTH MONTGOMERY

The man who successfully orbited the earth three times has seemingly substantiated insurance company claim that a man's own home is the most dangerous place to be.

In a fall in his bathroom last week, Glenn suffered a mild concussion. How it will affect his campaign for the Democratic senatorial nomination in Ohio is a moot question.

The lieutenant colonel had expected to retire from the Marine Corps last weekend, but the tumble halted the countdown.

★ ★ ★

His campaign blast-off against incumbent Sen. Stephen Young has now been rescheduled for April 1.

HIGHLY POPULAR

The attractive political newcomer is nonetheless a highly popular figure, and Sen. Young was running scared for renomination in the May 5 primary.

Now that Glenn will remain under military discipline for another four weeks, he will have only 34 days to tell Ohio voters what he thinks about such issues as civil rights, medicare, the Cuban crisis, the state of the Viet Nam conflict and Charles de Gaulle.

As this is written, Sen. Young has declined to comment on his opponent's decision to delay his military retirement.

Although Young is the one most affected, Glenn's activities are also of interest to Rep. Robert A. Taft Jr., namesake son of the late "Mr. Republican," who is running for the Republican senatorial nomination.

DIFFERENT STRATEGY

If Taft wins over Ohio Secretary of State Ted Brown, he will have to wage a decidely different campaign in the general election against a glamorous young astronaut than he would against an aging but experienced incumbent who bluntly speaks his mind, and writes letters to constituents which are often downright insulting.

While Glenn is currently hospitalized, young Taft is spending every weekend campaigning throughout the state.

This Friday Taft, Brown, Young, and Glenn were jointly scheduled to address a dinner of Sigma Delta Chi, honorary journalism fraternity in Columbus, but Glenn cannot now attend.

★ ★ ★

"It's a tough break for Glenn," Taft says of his possible opponent in the general election. "I sent him a telegram of sympathy as soon as I heard of his accident. I certainly am sorry about it."

'American Tax Dollars Wasted on Sukarno'

A recent article made me realize what little control the American people have on the spending of their tax money. We have given Mr. Sukarno of Indonesia $900 million and adding the $100 million allocated the total comes to a cool billion dollars.

To top this off our State Department in Washington supplied Mr. Sukarno, at his request, with call girls to accompany him during his latest visit to the United States.

Wouldn't this huge sum of money have been put to better use in clearing up poverty and delinquency here rather than throwing it away on a man with questionable morals, who is an enemy of freedom and a friend of Red China?

The only way people can be heard is to communicate with our elected representatives in Washington. Let's write them our views.

High School Senior Favors 'C' U.

I think 'C' University is a good idea. I am an "A" and "B" student, but I have often wondered what I would do if I had the ability only to get "C's". I work hard for my marks but so do some students who get "C's" and "D's". They may want to go to college just as bad, but they have a hard time getting accepted. We're always hearing about how hard it is to get a job without a college education, but what can be done when a student receives these words, from the college of his choice: "We're sorry your marks in high school weren't high enough"?

I also think public whipping for juveniles is a good idea. The reason there is so much juvenile delinquency is because parents are too immoral, apathetic, and cowardly.

In answer to the person who feels it is all right to poison a dog if it barks all night, I remind this person that we have laws to protect the public. I would suggest a friendly talk with the dog owner and if he will not cooperate a call to the city officials should settle the problem.

As a last resort it could be settled in court, as there is a law prohibiting dogs to bark nights. To poison a dog is unhuman. If my dog should bark at night and disturb this person I do hope he'll shoot it instead of using anything that will cause such a painful death.

State Seeks to Ban Dogs From Camps

Campers, the fun of camping for your dog is about to end. The State Conservation Commission issued a tentative order banning dogs from state parks and recreation areas. A public hearing is to be held before the ban is final. Don't let this law pass. Flood the State Conservation Commission, Lansing, with letters of objection.

Should all dog-owning campers be punished because a small percentage let their dogs get into trouble? If the majority of campers care enough to take their pets on vacation, chances are they don't neglect them at the campground.

AF Set to Loft Orbiting Labs

Manned Station Unit Replaces Dyna Soar

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Air Force presently has plans for launching six of the Manned Orbiting Laboratories (MOL) that it was directed to develop when the Dyna Soar winged spacecraft program was killed, it was revealed today.

Results from these six, each weighing more than five tons and designed to orbit as long as 30 days, may determine whether an additional group of kindred space stations will be orbited therafter.

In canceling the Dyna Soar Dec. 10 Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara said the Air Force would embark on a more ambitious plan for putting spaceships beside a "small house trailer" in near-earth orbits.

* * *

He said the MOL flight was expected in late 1967 or early 1968.

NUMBER OF FLIGHTS

In recent congressional testimony, Dr. Harold Brown, Pentagon research director, was asked whether the schedule was a secret. The published transcript had the number of flights deleted but showed that Brown said in closed session:

"That is not a matter of (secrecy) classification; it is just a matter of not wanting to give emphasis that going into print gives to something that is still very tentative."

Since the matter is not secret, but Brown nevertheless does not relish publicity, the Air Force gave this rather qualified answer when asked how many MOL flights were scheduled:

* * *

"The MOL program is still being planned and the number of flights is very tentative. We would expect under present plans, not yet approved, there would be about six flights in the first stage. Such subsequent phases have not yet been determined."

IMPORTANT DATA

The flights may extend over 18 months. By that time, mid-1969, the Air Force will have available much information from the National Aeronautics and Space Administration's Gemini and Apollo earth orbiting and lunar programs, information which is likely to bear importantly on the MOL's future.

The canceled Dyna Soar was to have been a winged manned spacecraft designed to be able to maneuver on reentering the atmosphere so that the pilot could land as if in a conventional aircraft.

There would have been six manned flights of one orbit each and two of three orbits each.

* * *

The MOL will enable tests of man's ability to do useful work in space with a view to such possible military missions as earth observations, satellite inspection, maintenance and repair.

But Only the Pros Clean Up

Good Bragging's Just Subtle Soaping

By HOWARD HELDENBRAND

Recreational and vacation spots that send out tempting teasers telling of attractions and listing outlets for guest participation have unfailingly muffed the primary pastime of humankind.

Heldenbrand

In alphabetical allure are listed badminton, boating, croquet, dancing, drinking, eating, fishing, golf, hiking, horseshoe pitching, hunting, riding, romance, shuffleboard, skating, skiing, swimming and tennis.

But never have these eyes seen mentioned the king of all outdoor and indoor sports.

It is bragging!

This pleasurable predilection has been inherent in all Homo sapiens since the first Cro-Magnon Man crowed about how many magnons (prehistoric spelling of magnums) of wine he could sip at one sipping.

But though bragging can be practiced at home, the free-wheeling braggart is up against built-in restraint, because there is inevitably present one or more braggees in a position to scoff at and ground his more lofty flights.

OUT OF SIGHT

No such handicap exists, however, at sites far removed from home and muzzling local sound rules, where generally everyone is unacquainted and all start from scratch — from either a standing or lying start.

The relaxed atmosphere and camaraderie of a resort pool-side undoubtedly affords the prime setting for free-style, clack-as-clack-can, no-words-barred, bragging, and here it may be said to come to fullest blower—er, flower.

But pro bragging is subject to many degrees of subtlety, finesse and implication. Nowadays, for sample, no aficiondo of the art would think of the wham-o, broad-ax flaunting, say, of his six-figure salary.

He would never make with the ego with something like "My income is a hundred thousand a year." Mercy no!

Such crudeness would summarily bring him before the board of governors of SOAP (Society of Artful Pretense) and could even lead to a diciplinary term of modesty.

Instead, he will bide his time until someone of the entrunked loungers brings up the subject of kids' cute sayings.

At this, our entry will chortle deprecatingly and say, "I must tell you the one my 6-year-old grandson came up with . . . He was playing with a neighbor kid, and his pal got to bragging about how much HIS grandfather makes. 'My grampa gets an awful lot of money. I heard Mon say he made a half-million a year.'

"And—heh heh heh—what'ye think my boy said? . . . 'So could my gramps, if he just wanted to work five times as hard as he does.'"

THEY'RE PLUGGED

But do you see the devilish ingenuity of it? The virtuoso pulled down 100 Gs a year, but he activated the group computer—and the whirring mental wheels quickly put one and five together and got the answer.

With that the card-carrying SOAP-er will casually switch the subject, idly wonder how much golf loot Jack Nicklaus will latch onto this year.

Which reminds me. The chairman of my club's handicap committee—the dog—just told me that they'd cut my handicap. Whoever heard of a lousy duffer being made to shoot within four of par?

2 pant suit days at HHS

Why is a 2-pant suit such a good buy?

Vice presidents buy two-trouser suits. Doctors and lawyers buy two-trouser suits. Some of the best dressed men you see buy two-trouser suits. It's not just a matter of values, it's a matter of appearance. A second pair of trousers absorbs the wrinkles and wear, lets you keep a pair in well-pressed readiness — for your trousers get so much more wear than does your suit coat. That's why some of the best makers in the country now tailor two-trouser suits in some of the finest fabrics attainable. And that's why we carry most of them.

and why is HHS such a good place to buy a 2-pant suit?

Because HHS carries the most comprehensive collection of two-trouser suits you'll find in any store, anywhere. Most famous brands, too, including Hart Schaffner & Marx, Eagle, Botany 500, Frost & Frost, Northbrooke, Custom Quality, Belvedere, Van Carr, Kingswood and Montclair. In a collection that incorporates every important style from the conservative three-button to the smart two-button . . . every important fabric from long-wearing twills to luxurious, imported silk-and-worsteds . . . in every desirable pattern and color and featuring this season's bright, light look. And knowing HHS, you know you'll find them in an exceptionally wide range of sizes from 36 to 52; and in proportions for regulars, shorts, longs, extra-longs, portlies, portly-longs and portly-shorts. The full selection is yours to see at our Pontiac Mall Store. From 59.50 to 129.50.

Pontiac Town Hall Slated

AGNES MOOREHEAD

AVH-PTP-SOS. Not a secret code, it's the "All Volunteer Help—Person to Person—Save on Stamps" campaign being waged by the Pontiac-Oakland Town Hall officers and committee chairmen.

To promote the sale of the 1964-65 lecture series tickets, 'All Volunteer Help' applies to all members actively working in and helping with the sale of tickets.

COFFEE HOURS

'Person to Person' is being accomplished by coffee hours at which key individuals in Oakland County are invited to participate and learn details concerning the lecturers and artists appearing in the series.

The first coffee hour was at the West Iroquois Road home of Mrs. B. B. Roush last month.

Other 10 a.m. coffee hours will be held at the homes of Mrs. Cecil McCallum, Cherokee Road, March 13 and Mrs. J. A. Rammes, Rosedale Street, March 26.

* * *

'Save on Stamps' is being accomplished by the 'AVH-PTP' approach in the individual selling of tickets.

This permits a greater portion of the net proceeds from Town Hall to be channeled into cultural and educational projects within Oakland County.

ACTRESS IS FIRST

Actress, TV and radio personality Agnes Moorehead will open the 1964-65 Town Hall series Oct. 14 with "Come Closer! I'll Give You an Earful."

Among her most recent shows is "How The West Was Won."

* * *

Gordon Lange, teacher, businessman and member of the Society of Friends, will speak on "The Waste of Human Resources" for Town Hall audiences Nov. 4.

* * *

Town Hall audiences will welcome NBC United Nations correspondent Pauline Frederick on Jan. 27. Miss Frederick will speak on "United Nations in a Changing World."

Feb. 10 will see Dr. Albert Burke, scientist, economist and expert on world affairs, talk on "Latin America — The Rumbling Giant."

"Anyone who can hold a paint brush can learn to paint," contends artist Norman Garbo. He is scheduled to appear before Town Hall audiences March 10.

The artist, lecturer, teacher and columnist will talk on Wednesday mornings at 10:30 at the Huron Theater. Each of the five lectures will be followed by a celebrity luncheon where Town Hall members can ask questions informally.

Net proceeds from the 1962-63 receipts have been divided.

One third of the proceeds will go to the Pontiac Symphony Orchestra as a cultural recipient.

SCHOLARSHIP

One full tuition scholarship to be known as the Lita H. Kern Scholarship (after the first Town Hall president) will be given to Oakland University.

* * *

A term scholarship will be given to the Pontiac Business Institute and contributions will be made to the scholarship funds of St. Joseph Mercy Hospital and the Pontiac General Hospital.

* * *

Tickets for the 1964-65 Pontiac-Oakland Town Hall series may be obtained from Mrs. B. B. Roush, ticket chairman, or by direct mail to 838-40 Riker Building.

Write Store if Gift Not Acceptable

By The Emily Post Institute

Q: A friend sent me a basket of fruit from California. Most of it was spoiled. My husband thinks I should write my friend and tell her about it so that she can put in a claim to the store.

I am sure it was quite expensive, and it does seem a shame for her to have to pay for spoiled fruit, but I'm afraid she might be offended if I say anything.

What am I to do?

* * *

A: Rather than say anything to your friend who would not only be distressed to hear of the spoiled fruit but perhaps feel that she should send a duplicate gift, it will be best if you wrote to the store yourself.

Q: Will you please answer the following question for me? Before the start of a ball game, our national anthem is always played. When watching the ball game at home on television, should those present rise?

* * *

A: It is not necessary for those at home to rise upon hearing the national anthem.

Q: At a dinner party when a lady's napkin slides onto the floor, is the man next to her expected to get down and pick it up for her, or is it left where it is?

A: If he does not have to get up from his chair and disturb the whole table, he should pick it up for her.

Q: An organization to which I belong gave a bridge luncheon recently. Each member was given tickets to sell. Several friends said they would like to go and I made reservations.

All but one paid for their tickets, the one saying that she would pay me later. I put out the money for her ticket.

* * *

It so happened that she could not go to the luncheon as an emergency arose at the last minute. She has made no mention whatever about paying for the ticket.

I think that even though she could not go to the luncheon, she is still responsible for payment. Am I right?

Would it be proper for me to ask her for the money?

* * *

A: You can certainly explain to her that even though she did not go, you had to pay for her ticket, and she should then reimburse you for it.

Q: How does one know whether or not to wear evening clothes when invited to a large evening reception when no mention is made about clothes on the invitation?

* * *

A: When in doubt, it is wise and entirely proper to telephone the host, or hostess.

Who pays for what at the wedding? The Emily Post Institute booklet entitled, "Wedding Expenses," answers this question in detail.

* * *

To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin and a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Emily Post Institute, in care of The Pontiac Press.

Detroit Edison Seeking Queen of the Kitchen

The third annual Detroit Edison cook-off to select the "Queen of the Kitchen" among working women is under way.

The cook-off is held in cooperation with the Central Business District Association's annual Salute to Women Who Work Week which begins March 29 in Detroit.

* * *

This year the contest is open to any girl or woman working full time who lives in Southeastern Michigan. Each is invited to submit a recipe for a one-dish meal to Electric Living, 2000 Second, Detroit, Michigan 48226.

Electrical appliances will be awarded to ten finalists.

GRAND PRIZE

The grand prize is a new deluxe electric range. The "Queen" will have her choice of six models from nationally known manufacturers.

Detroit Edison will also present a second prize of a family rotisserie and a third prize of an electric seven-speed blender. Seven other valuable appliances will be awarded.

Deadline for entries is midnight, Wednesday, March 18.

Each entry must include name, address, telephone number and occupation. The contestant must be able to compete in the cook-off which will be held in Edison's Electric Living Kitchen in Detroit on Thursday, April 2.

Professional home economists and cooks and employes of Detroit Edison and members of their immediate families are not eligible.

Home economic experts from newspapers, radio and television will serve as judges and select the ten most interesting and promising entries.

The ten finalists will be announced Wednesday, March 25.

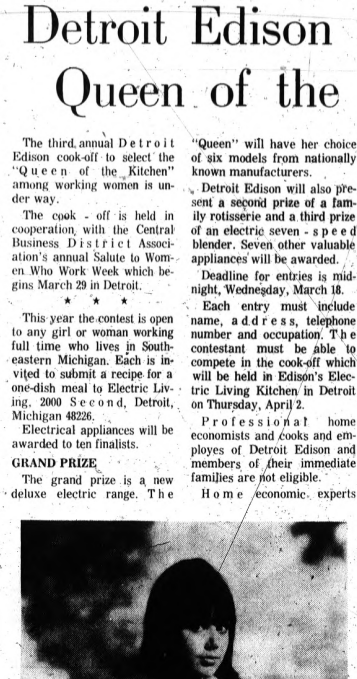
GUESTS AT BANQUET

They will be guests at the gala Salute to Women Who Work Week Banquet in Cobo Hall Tuesday, March 31.

Marion Ryan, director of the Electric Living department, said that interest in the cook-off has been so great that the contest was extended to include all of Southeastern Michigan, the company's service area. Previous cook-offs were open to working women in Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties.

* * *

Miss Ryan said the recipes of the finalists will be published in a handsome booklet again this year for general distribution free of charge.



Demurely covered up and simply styled with fanciful touches of matching linen accenting the fitted bodice, the skirt of this Jonathan Logan dress is beautifully controlled with soft pleating. An English meadow print on a drift of light and airy Dacron batiste, it is available locally for about $18.

WOMEN'S SECTION

Mother Won't Move

Pearly Gate or Golden?

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My brother, two sisters and I are married and we all live in Oakland, Calif.

My mother, who is 76, lives alone in Illinois. She has relatives there, but none of them bothers her.

ABBY

She has fought with every companion we've hired to live with her, and she's getting to the point where she shouldn't be living alone. (Her hearing is failing and she is very forgetful).

* * *

I have begged her to come to California and live with me, but she doesn't want to move.

If she wanted to be independent she could have her own apartment near me, where I would be only minutes away if she needed me for anything.

* * *

She has plenty of money in the bank and a mopthly income. She refuses to move, and all she talks about is dying.

I certainly can't move to Illinois. What's the solution?

NO NAMES PLEASE

* * *

DEAR NO NAMES: Go to Illinois during the blistering heat of the summer, or the biting, bitter cold of the winter.

"Kidnap" your mother and take her to Oakland.

Once she sees that Golden Gate she'll quit talking about the pearly ones.

DEAR ABBY: For two years I have been married to a man who had been married for 16 years to another woman. She passed away.

Something has been irritating me, and I don't know whether I should mention it to Roswell or not. He has the habit of referring to his first wife as "MY WIFE."

"Abby, I am his wife!

* * *

Don't you think he should either refer to her by name, or else as my "FIRST WIFE" or even my "FORMER WIFE?"

I don't expect him to blot out the memory of 16 years with another woman, but it hurts me deeply to hear Roswell refer to her as his wife.

HIS WIFE

DEAR WIFE: The next time it occurs, correct him ever so gently with, "Roswell darling, I am your wife. She is your former wife."

Repeat the reminder until the memories of 16 years fade—as they will.

DEAR ABBY: I am 100 per cent with that man from California who said that all women who wore slacks on the street should be fined.

The woman who wrote in and told him to go jump in the lake, should go jump in her Bible.

I refer to Deuteronomy: Chapter 22, Verse 5: "The woman shall not wear that which pertaineth unto a man, neither shall a man put on a woman's garment: for all that do are abomination unto the Lord, thy God."

KNOWS MY BIBLE

DEAR ABBY: Please tell "Popeye's Wife" that LOVE, not TEETH, is the magic ingredient which changes a kiss from nothing to something.

ONE WHO KNOWS

* * *

Get it off your chest. For a personal unpublished reply, write to ABBY, care of The Pontiac Press. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

* * *

For Abby's booklet, "How To Have a Lovely Wedding," send 50 cents to Abby, care of The Pontiac Press.

Ideas on Women Seem Poles Apart

By GAY PAULEY

NEW YORK (UPI)—What in a woman attracts a man and what a man thinks he likes in a woman are about as far apart as the poles, says a French fashion authority.

* * *

It's a woman talking when she lists "what is really attractive to men" and "what men think they like—but only in the movies."

* * *

To Mme. Genevieve Antoine Dariaux, wife, mother, designer and director of a famous fashion house, men like full skirts, tiny waists, and a longlegged look in women; clothes that are in fashion but not avant-garde; furs and a general air of luxury; almost any shade of blue, white, very pale and very dark gray. Some men like their wives in black, others hate it; subtle sophisticated blends of perfumes, and collars on suits and coats.

* * *

They think they like, "but only in the movies," revealing tight skirts and "aggressively pointed" bosoms; false eyelashes; "femme fatale lingerie; Oriental perfumes; spike heels, and yards of black fringe and miles of red chiffon flounces.

* * *

Mme. Dariaux designed accessories for the French haute couture, designed knitwear for a small Paris firm, and boutique clothes for the late Jacques Fath, designer, before she joined the salon of Nina Ricci as directress in 1959.

Her opinions on men, but mostly on what makes a woman fashionable, are given in her first book, "Elegance," which Doubleday will publish Friday.

Mme. Dariaux used a dictionary approach in her guide to elegance—"A" for accessories ("alligator is strictly for sports or travel"), to "Z," for zippers ("must have been invented by some weary and impatient husband tired of the nightly ritual of unfastening an endless row of tiny buttons running down the back of his wife's dress").

Elegance she defined as "a sort of harmony that rather resembles beauty, with the difference that the latter is more often a feat of nature and the former the result of art."

Chic she said "is a gift of the gods and has no relationship to beauty nor to wealth. One baby in its crib may have chic, while another doesn't."

"Perhaps," continues Mme. Dariaux, "the best way to describe this quality is by giving some examples:

"The Kennedy family has chic; but the Truman family doesn't.

"The late Queen Mary of England had chic; but Queen Juliana of The Netherlands doesn't.

Worry Over Schoolwork, Career

Teens No Longer Fit 'Irresponsible' Image

GILBERT YOUTH RESEARCH, INC.

Today's teen-agers no longer fit into the popular pattern of irresponsible adolescents interested only in popularity, dates, clothes and surface values.

Our latest survey, of 1,500 young people, shows their chief worry is schoolwork, followed closely by concern over a career.

Forty per cent of those interviewed pointed to school work as a No. 1 problem, but the boys and girls differed sharply on the subject.

★ ★ ★

Half of the young women said grades troubled them most but only 22 per cent of the boys were worried about marks.

MAIN PROBLEM

The boys indicated a career was their main problem, with 35 per cent calling it as their chief worry.

★ ★ ★

One third of the girls also indicated they were troubled about future occupations, making this problem second only to school work.

Joyce Strom, 16, of Merrifield, Minn., summed up the feeling of many of the girls when she said, "I try to keep my grades high but I'm always afraid I won't."

★ ★ ★

Another facet of the same problem troubles Nancy Clegg, 17, of Attleboro, Mass. who said her chief worry is "getting along with the teachers."

CAREERS A CONCERN

Many of the boys said they were undecided about their future plans and were worried about which career to choose.

"I can't really decide on any career and I'm afraid to decide too late," explained Mike Walkington, 16, of Lansing, Mich., echoing the sentiments of many of those interviewed.

Creighton Maher, 17, of Portland, Ore., linked school work and a career, saying he wanted to go to college and "if I don't do my school work I won't be able to get in to college."

★ ★ ★

The matter of relations with family members was next in line on the girls' list of worries.

FAMILY PROBLEMS

Almost one-fourth were troubled about getting along with their family and agreed with Ruth Tenenbaum, 15, of Brooklyn, N.Y., who said her family doesn't "understand this younger generation."

★ ★ ★

A significant portion of the group expressed a worry about getting along with members of the opposite sex. Twenty-one per cent of the boys and 18 per cent of the girls were troubled by this problem.

An equal number of young men listed personal finances as their greatest worry after schoolwork and a career.

★ ★ ★

The girls however were not concerned about money, placing it far down on the list.

ALLOWANCE GONE

Ricky Keneshiro, 16, of Honolulu, Hawaii, expressed the plaintive cry of many teen-agers. "I always use up my allowance so fast that I never know what happens to it," he said.

The girls' money worries also centered around the allowance problem. "I don't think I get enough of an allowance," Marianne Johnson, 13, of Philadelphia, Pa. said.

At the other end of the scale, both boys and girls were least concerned about family finances.

★ ★ ★

Only 7 per cent said this was their chief worry.

A BURDEN

Several who were troubled by this situation agreed with Roger Campbell, 17, of Tacoma, Wash., who said "I worry about how much of a burden I am on my parents."

Mary Lou Rittelmann, 17, of Badeh, Pa., noted "I'm worried about having sufficient funds for education."

When asked how they got rid of their worries, several of the teen-agers said they compared themselves to other people and discovered this made their own troubles diminish.

Jack Gadbois, 18, of Brainerd, Minn. said, "Compared to someone who is really having a tough time, my personal problems become rather insignificant."

Others followed the advice of Sidney Elliott, 16, of Atlanta, Ga. who said he tries to "forget them for a day or two and then go back to them."

SEW SIMPLE
By Eunice Farmer

Dear Eunice:

Knowing how important it is to keep the 'straight of goods' arrows on your pattern even with the grain line of material, why is such a short line marked on the pattern? Mrs. W. A. G.

★ ★ ★

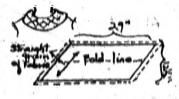
Dear Mrs. W. A. G.:

The first sewing teacher I ever went to had a great idea for this very thing and I find myself doing this automatically today. After removing the pattern from the envelope, take a yardstick and continue the arrow on the pattern from one end to the other with a crayon.

She also suggested making a circle with crayon around each word "fold" on your pattern so that you wouldn't slip up and cut these pieces on the selvage instead of the fold.

Dear Eunice:

As I was browsing through the accessory department recently I saw some chiffon and silk scarfs that were called "Smoke Rings." They cost $5 and $6 or more and I am wondering if I can make one?



Mrs. M. A. A.

★ ★ ★

Dear Mrs. M. A. A.:

A smoke ring is a very attractive accessory that should be made out of a soft fabric such as silk or chiffon. It could be a print which would really perk up your suit or dress.

Follow the sketch for cutting instructions, the size could vary. After cutting, fold the length of the scarf (right side inside) and machine stitch to within two inches of each of the short ends.

Trim the seam allowance to one-fourth inch and turn right side out. Pin the two ends together and machine stitch. Press this seam open. The last step is to slip-stitch the edge of the scarf that was left open. A smoke ring is to be worn casually, with or without a decorative pin to hold in place.

TAILOR TRIX WINNER

"My mother was a designer and dressmaker all her life. I learned many things just watching her. This was one of the most valuable, and I hope will help others.

"If you should stick your finger (and who doesn't, and get a drop of blood on your garment, just wad up some thread, about the size of a pea, and put it in your mouth.

"When it is wet through, rub the bloody spot. It will remove all traces and never leave a mark. Water won't work as well, the chemical reaction of your own saliva on your own blood is what does the trick."

★ ★ ★

Mrs. E. Boyer, Trilby, Florida is this week's winner of a Tailor Trix Pressing Board. Thanks to all of you who sent in duplicates of this tip.

Dear Eunice:

I am making braided rugs from felt strips, using the zig-zag stitch on the machine. After I complete about three feet, the ends begin to curl and I can't make the rug any longer. What can be done to avoid curing? Mrs. A. N.

★ ★ ★

Please help me so that I can help Mrs. A. N.: Rug making is not my field and since it is rather popular today, perhaps some of you have the answer to this. If you know the answer, please send me a letter today. Many thanks for helping!

Several of you have written about the "Irene Pleat." It seems that you are confused as to how the free hanging underlay is attached to the skirt.

It is catch-stitched to the dining of the skirt only. When placing it in position, be sure the hem of the underlay is exactly the same length as the finished hem of your skirt. Catch stitch across the top only—the sides of the underlay should be free hanging.

YOUR SEWING GLOSSARY: Double-faced fabrics: This is a type of fabric that is actually two separate layers that have been bonded together, either chemically so that they cannot be separated, or woven together with tiny invisible stitches. They are beautifully used in reversible garments.

NOTE TO KNITTERS

Thanks to Mrs. F. D. of Orlando, Fla., we have an excellent way of inserting a zipper in a "knitted" garment so that it will not gap open and show the zipper.

After inserting the zipper, either by hand or machine, turn to the wrong side. Carefully use a running stitch as close as possible to the zipper teeth, however, allowing enough room for the zipper to zip smoothly.

These stitches will just barely catch the underside of the top layer of knit and won't show from the right side. Take a back stitch frequently for added strength. This will keep your zipper nice and flat.

YOUR SEWING GLOSSARY: Pickup stitch. This is a running stitch that is used for hemming. It is done from the underside of the hem. Pick up a stitch in your garment and the next stitch in your hem, etc.

If gussets are your Waterloo, send 10 cents and a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request to Sew Simple in care of The Pontiac Press.

The soft overblouse look . . . a lemon yellow top over a permanently pleated skirt in a nubby silk/linen blend. By Town Set, about $30 locally.

Mold Public Opinion

Papers Should Be Guides

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Many publishers such as Stewart Riley of Indiana, John Knight of Miami and others, have urged me to wake up readers by challenging old notions that are often outmoded.

DR. CRANE

In one article, I held that even our free public schools might be abolished without any serious detriment to basic education of Americans.

Much indignation resulted, especially in Riley's area which is the home of Indiana University.

★ ★ ★

Riley just invites irate readers to send their letters to the editor so they can be published. A lively debate in print then ensues.

PROD READERS

And such newspaper prodding of readers is a great educational asset, for the newspaper is really our great "University in Print."

It is not merely a "mirror" of public opinion but a "steerer" and that is the true goal of all sincere educators. Honest debate is desirable.

The Rev. Buryl Hoover (Church of the Brethren) likewise prods people into new and more efficient thinking; as note:

★ ★ ★

"Dr. Crane," he says, "I formerly used your textbook when teaching teen-agers.

NEW VENTURE

"Now, as pastor of a conservative church I decided upon a new and bold venture.

"So I placed 25 of your newspaper booklets from the Ft. Wayne Journal Gazette on the reading table at the back of our church and invited all interested parishioners to read them.

"And our members have nearly worn them out already! Moreover, I have never heard even one word of criticism!"

★ ★ ★

So wake up to the educational value of newspapers and churches.

(Always write to Dr. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, enclosing a long stamped, addressed envelope and 20 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.)

Fashion: Pain or Pleasure?

"Why not learn to take pleasure in clothing, as people do in youth, pretty faces and the bright colors of autumn? A great many people wear clothing as they eat spinach, they wrestle it into place and then forget it.

"If one has any of the artist in him, any appreciation of nice things, one of the most useful places to display this talent is in his selection and enjoyment of clothing. Clothes, like the poor, are always with us. An interest in clothing can be exercised on almost every occasion and is one means of pleasure that builds personal morale." Prof. George J. Lyons of New York University.

School and You

Child Hit a Sour Note

By SUSAN LIGHT

DEAR MRS. LIGHT — Ever since she has been in school, our daughter has looked forward to being in the fifth and sixth grade choir.

This is a select group which sings for special school functions and presents a beautiful spring concert.

The tryouts were held today and Mary was not chosen. She is heartbroken. So are we.

Mary has always had a great deal of talent and she sings like a bird. She has taken piano and voice lessons since she was 7.

How could her music teacher be so cruel? Is there anything we can do? — HEARTBROKEN PARENTS.

ANSWER — I'm certain Mary's music teacher was not intentionally "cruel." Make an appointment to see her and be as frank with her as you've been with me.

The music teacher will undoubtedly let Mary audition again. Perhaps your daughter was overly anxious.

Many a would-be chorister develops a "frog in the throat" at the crucial moment.

If the teacher is acquainted with Mary's musical ability through regular classes, this might be a good time to get her frank appraisal.

What sounds like a canary to a fond parent could possibly suggest a screech owl to an unprejudiced professional ear. It's a bitter pill to swallow, but better now than later.

Money spent on voice lessons might well be used to Mary's advantage in some other ways.

Whatever the verdict, be sure to let Mary know you are still proud of her.

★ ★ ★

DEAR MRS. LIGHT—My son, 17, has always been an outstanding student and athlete.

Everyone expected him to be elected to the National Honor Society this spring. To be brief, he wasn't.

He didn't say much, but I could see the hurt in his eyes. Please advise.—DON'S DAD.

ANSWER—Believe me, Dad, I feel for your son—and all the other students who just miss making honors. School life can be sad at times.

But to paraphrase a familiar saying, "'Tis better to have tried and lost than never to have tried at all."

Better luck next time!

Painting Can Be Simple

Before you put a part of can of paint away do these few easy things.

Cover the top surface of the paint with linseed oil. This will keep a skim from forming atop the paint and the oil can quickly be poured off when you go to use it again.

Fasten the top securely and run the paint brush around it for a perfect seal.

Also paint a band of the same color around the can so that you can see at a glance exactly what shade the can holds so that you will not have to pry the lid off until you are ready to use it.

Sudsable Stars

Sudsable fabrics have star billing in the spring fashion forecast.

In Appalachian 'Pocket of Poverty'

'Bloody' Harlan County Still Notorious

(EDITOR'S NOTE—The depressed Appalachian region, first target of President Johnson's "war on poverty," is filled with scores of towns struggling against the backwash of high unemployment and the suffering it has brought. A United Press International reporter visited many of these once bustling communities and in the following dispatch, the final in a series of three, reports on two of them.)

By NICHOLAS C. CHRISS

HARLAN, Ky. (UPI) — "Bloody Harlan" they called it years ago and, in the decades since, the mining town in southeast Kentucky has never lived down this mark of notoriety.

In the 1930s, Harlan County was the ground on which the United Mine Workers of America, seeking to organize, met in pitched battle with the Harlan County Coal Operators Association.

In Harlan county today, 500 children stay away from school because they have no shoes or clothing.

★ ★ ★

Another 500, in the words of the county school superintendent, "are just barely hanging on," struggling to classes ill-fed and ill-clothed.

ENROLLMENT CUT

In 1942, says James A. Cawood — who has been school superintendent for 30 years — Harlan County had 22,000 children enrolled in schools. Today it has 12,000.

The average daily attendance is 10,061, which amounts to 83.8 per cent and this compares to the 90 per cent attendance figures thought adequate for most school systems.

In two of the valleys in Harlan County, some 10,000 coal miners are out of work. Thirty per cent of the school children who take part in the school lunch program receive free meals because their parents cannot afford to pay for them.

★ ★ ★

"We're bottled in here behind these mountains just as we were 100 years ago," says Cawood.

CAN'T MISS SIGNS

The signs of coal-mining country are unmistakable.

In winter the hills and mountains are withered and sere. The creeks run sluggish, loaded with litter. The houses are ramshackle, their yards strewn with rust-cankered automobiles.

Huge trucks, heaped with coal, roar up and down the hills and trains pull coal hoppers up to 95 tons in endless streams.

And so it is a pleasant surprise to see Palmer, Tenn., 160 miles southwest of Harlan, for the first time. The neat little town of 500 nestles in southeastern Tennessee.

FLOWERED HILLS

In the spring, for miles around the dogwood blossoms cover the mountainsides.

But this serene picture belies a bitter struggle that has pitted brother against brother, husband against wife, son against father.

Like most coal mining regions, Palmer's surrounding country has a turbulent past that has included murder and mayhem.

★ ★ ★

Since Dec. 26, 1962, Palmer's menfolk have been on strike against the Grundy Mining Co.

AROUND STOVE

One day recently, seven unemployed miners sat, stood and squatted around an iron stove in the town's combination filling station and grocery.

"We're fixin' to stick it out," said one.

The men are distrustful, and they curse the newsmen who have come into their valley. "Lying bastards," one of them snapped.

★ ★ ★

These men receive $15 a week in subsistence checks from the United Mine Workers plus food stamps from the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

DO ALL RIGHT

"We do all right," said the farmer of three children. "I got a jacket for 50 cents yesterday at a rummage, and I paid 25 cents for a pair of trousers."

"We'll do anything before we start scabbing," said another.

There is only a few dollars difference between what the striking miners want and what the company pays in Grundy County.

★ ★ ★

But the company says the union is asking for a scale that is set on a nationwide scale, instead of one suited to the local mining limitations.

The strikers contend the company's ultimate purpose is not wages, but an effort to throw the union out.

The long strike is but another of the staggering problem of Appalachia where President Johnson has said a "special effort" will be needed to keep many Americans from living on the "outskirts of hope."

In Harlan, the banks pay a 1 per cent interest rate on savings accounts — slim compared to the 3 and 4 per cents paid elsewhere — But during 1963 the county ranked fifth among Kentucky's 120 in the purchases of Series E and H government savings bonds.

★ ★ ★

Prosperity is not around the corner in Harlan, but things are picking up.

NEWS EDITOR

R. Springer Hospinks, editor of the Harlan Daily, Enterprise, wrote:

"One answer undoubtedly is that the county isn't really as bad off as some of us tend to think in our blue moments.

"If there is a moral to be drawn from incongruity, perhaps it is that there is still enough 'life' left in Harlan County that it behooves all of us to work together toward making it a better and more prosperous place in which to live."

Welfare payments during December, 1963, in Harlan County totaled $162,581 including medical and dental care.

★ ★ ★

Each welfare worker, as in many ares of Appalachia, had an average load of 200 cases, or about three times that considered adequate.

ALMOST HALF

There are 51,107 people living in the county, and about 22,000 of them are receiving welfare help of one sort or another.

Malaysia Talks Break in Disagreement Over Guerrillas

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP)—Indonesia, Malaysia and the Philippines broke off their conference on the Malaysia crisis today because Indonesia and Malaysia could not agree on withdrawal of anti-Malaysian guerrillas from Malaysian Borneo.

Philippine Foreign Minister Salvador P. Lopez said the conference was "recessed" and "the door is still open." He said foreign minister Thanat Khoman had agreed to serve as liaison among the three disputing governments.

Lopez said cease-fire arrangements along the Malaysia-Indonesia border in Borneo would "remain as they are." He announced that personnel from Thailand would go to Borneo as soon as possible to supervise the cease-fire.

* * *

"We were unable to reach agreement on the withdrawal of troops. We did our best, but the positions remained unchanged," Lopez said after a two-hour session at Khoman's home with Indonesian Foreign Minister Subandrio and Malaysian Deputy Prime Minister Tun Abdul Razak.

KENNEDY TALKS

The shaky cease-fire went into effect Jan. 25 after negotiations by U.S. Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy during an Asian trip.

Malaysian sources charged yesterday that since a similar ministerial conference last month, some 200 additional guerrillas had infiltrated into Malaysian Borneo, increasing the Indonesian force north of the frontier to some 400 men.

The Malaysians also complained there had been 15 violations of the truce.

* * *

Malaysia demanded the cease-fire be made effective by withdrawal of the guerrillas to Indonesian Borneo. It refused to discuss political issues until the cease-fire issues were settled.

Indonesia demanded that political issues be taken up along with the cease-fire discussion. The Indonesians want a plebiscite in the Malaysian Borneo states of Sarawak and Sabah to determine if the people want to be part of Malaysia.

* * *

Indonesia also wants Britain to withdraw its troops from Malaysia and close out its bases there.

* * *

Indonesia has been threatening to airdrop supplies to the guerrillas in Malaysian Borneo, and Malaysia threatens to shoot down any planes that trespass over her territory.

Protest Loss of Rail Service

Firms to Abandon 340 Miles of Track

CADILLAC (AP) — From industry leaders to Seafarers International Union members, new voices rose Tuesday night in protest over threatened Lower Michigan rail freight service loss.

* * *

"But emotional pleas won't get you far," the speakers were told by Otto Sonefeld, Michigan Public Service Commission spokesman.

"Get facts — good, hard facts," he urged some 170 persons from 15 counties. The counties would be affected by abandonment of 340 miles of Michigan freight lines as petitioned by three railroads.

FERRY SERVICE

The petitions are tied to a request by the Mackinac Transportation Co. to halt operations of its rail ferry at the Straits of Mackinac.

* * *

The MTC is jointly owned by the Pennsylvania Railroad, the New York Central and the Soo Line. It claims declining revenues and a need for expensive repairs on the ferry.

* * *

"In January, the ferry carried 1,276 freight cars across the straits," said Stanley McRae, a Mackinaw City building supplies dealer. McRae is chairman of the Committee for Retention of Rail and Ferry Service.

He noted an increase to 1,625 cars in February with only 25 working days. "Is this what we're trying to discontinue?" he asked.

NEEDS MONEY

Rep. John Toepp, R-Cadillac, sent word to the meeting that he would seek a $5,000 appropriation to help the committee's work.

Donald Deinzer, Cheboygan industrialist, said the committee's fact-finding results would go to the attorney general. The service abandonment petitions affect a 39-county area of both Michigan peninsulas, he said.

* * *

Deputy Atty. Gen. Hugh Anderson said the rail abandonment also would affect all state schools that benefit from property taxes now paid by railroads.

Hart Urges Stockpile of Rare Serums

WASHINGTON (AP) — Building of a national stockpile of rare serums to deal with sudden and catastrophic outbreaks of unusual diseases was urged today by Sen. Philip Hart, D-Mich.

* * *

As an example, Hart recalled that last year a number of persons died from botulism as the result of eating smoked whitefish. He said the infection could be treated only by Type E antitoxin, of which this country had almost none at the time.

ENOUGH SERUM

Due to action by the Public Health Service, Hart said, plans have been made for enough serum to be supplied in case of further outbreaks of botulism. But, in questioning why lives must be lost before corrective measures are taken, Hart said:

"We spend billions to stockpile for defense against a possible military conflict. Is it not equally necessary and sensible to spend a few million to stockpile against possible death from disease?"

Arkansas GOP Divided Over Rockefeller Brothers

BACKGROUND OF THE NEWS — AP SPECIAL REPORT

By WILLIAM SIMMONS

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Arkansas Republicans like the idea of running Winthrop Rockefeller for governor.

But they prefer Sen. Barry Goldwater to Rockefeller's brother, Nelson A., in the race for the GOP presidential nomination.

The varying attitude toward the two Rockefellers has created an intraparty split among Arkansas Republicans which could keep Winthrop out of the governor's race again.

★ ★ ★

Rockefeller has spent 10 years preparing to run for governor as a Republican in this traditionally Democratic state.

He built his personal image with social, civic and industrial development work. He built the party with dollars, drive and determination.

READY TO RUN

Now he appears ready to run. He has been increasingly outspoken on political issues, increasingly critical of Democratic Gov. Orval E. Faubus, who is expected to be a sixth-term candidate.

But the specter of his brother, governor of New York, haunts him. Winthrop has been trying to line up Arkansas national convention votes for Nelson and this has aroused the wrath of Goldwater supporters, headed by William L. Spicer, the GOP state chairman.

Spicer's group contends that Rockefeller is using his position as national committeeman for Arkansas to force Nelson on Arkansas Republicans.

Rockefeller denies this. He says he will support any GOP presidential candidate, even Goldwater, and he does not believe the presidential fight is worth disrupting the Arkansas party.

GOOD SLATE

Winthrop says his candidacy will depend on whether Arkansas Republicans can put together a good slate of candidates for all state offices and not on what happens to Nelson.

But he cannot wait until Nelson's future is decided at the national convention in July to make up his mind about the governor's race.

The ticket for the Arkansas primaries closes April 29 and Winthrop must file by then if he wants to get his name on the general election ballot as the Republican nominee.

Rockefeller's entry into the governor's race would give Arkansas its first real two-party battle since Reconstruction.

Only twice in the last 50 years has the Republican party polled as many as 100,000 votes.

But Rockefeller can count on heavy support from the anti-Faubus faction in the Democratic party and his supporters contend he can beat Faubus.

★ ★ ★

They cite a poll taken by young Republicans in one county in which 51 per cent of more than 1,000 voters, contacted at random, said they would vote for Rockefeller.

Rockefeller says he isn't sure whether he will be helped or hurt if Nelson becomes the GOP presidential nominee.

NO COAT TAILS

"But I won't try to to ride into the governor's office on his coat tails," Winthrop said.

Faubus says he believes Winthrop will be stronger if Nelson is running for president. He concedes that Rockefeller would be a formidable candidate in any event.

★ ★ ★

Republicans have talked of running Rockefeller for governor since he came to Arkansas in 1953 and established a cattle breeding farm atop Petit Jean Mountain, 50 miles northwest of Little Rock.

His first venture into political life came with his appointment by Faubus to the Arkansas Industrial Development Commission when the agency was created in 1955. He has served as its only chairman during a period of rapid industrial growth.

MORE ACTIVE

By 1960 he was taking an increasingly active role in Republican party affairs, but he shied away from candidacy. He accepted the post of national committeeman in 1961 and immediately began a drive to build the party at the county level.

His work paid off in 1962 when the GOP came up with more than 20 candidates for the state legislature and opponents for two of four Democratic congressmen and Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark.

★ ★ ★

None of the Republicans was successful, but the GOP had waged its first full-scale campaign.

Now Rockefeller seems to have reached the conclusion, voiced by others all along, that the effect of his work for the party cannot truly be tested unless he runs himself.

FITS THE ROLE

Rockefeller fits the role of a Republican maverick in a Democratic state. He wears cowboy boots and Western hats and he is likely to greet visitors to his plush ranch in work clothing.

He has openly espoused liberal and civil rights causes, unpopular in a conservative, segregationist state.

Public Forum to Air Teen Diets, Hearts

Proper diet and exercise may prevent today's teen-ager from turning into tomorrow's heart disease patient.

This is the theme of a concerted effort by noted medical authorities and Pontiac school personnel featured in a free public forum 8 p.m. Tuesday at Washington Junior High, 710 Menominee.

The new approach to forestalling heart disease will be keynoted by Dr. Samuel Fox, a consultant to the NASA space program and medical monitor for Project Mercury.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Fox, who is deputy chief of the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare's heart disease control program, will speak on "Exercise and the Heart."

NUTRITION FACTS

Nutrition and its relation to physical fitness will be probed by Dr. Calvin W. Woodruff, a child care specialist and a project director at the University of Michigan School of Public Health.

DR. SAM M. FOX

Rounding out the medical trio is Dr. Sidney E. Chapin, past president of Michigan Heart Association, which is cosponsoring the forum with its Pontiac Heart Unit.

The program's theme will detail new ideas for teen-agers and young adults "which will help reduce the toll of heart attack, by far the greatest killer in the nation and in Pontiac," explained Mrs. Sadie McIntyre of the local heart unit.

★ ★ ★

She said young people, armed with information about proper diet and sufficient exercise, are in a better position to arrest heart disease than older persons whose health may have already been impaired.

PONTIAC EDUCATORS

Backing up the speakers will be a panel of Pontiac educators closely associated with school physical fitness programs.

They are Lee Haslinger, physical education director; Mrs. Margaret Peters, food Francis Staley and Art Van Ryzin, physical education director of Pontiac Central High School.

A question-and-answer session is included in the forum. Michigan Heart Association is one of the agencies supported by Pontiac Area United Fund.

Rockefeller on Economics After U.S. Security Blast

CONCORD, N.H. (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller swung to economic issues today after charging that the nation's security had diminished under President Johnson.

He said the national administration did not believe in the free enterprise system.

★ ★ ★

A sustained attack on the Democratic administration marked the opening of Rockefeller's last campaign swing for the New Hampshire presidential preference primary next Tuesday.

FOREIGN POLICY

The New York governor detoured to Washington Tuesday and delivered a 5,000-word attack on what he termed "foreign policy failures of the Democratic administration."

"The foreign policy of this nation has been vacillating and contradictory," Rockefeller told a crowded news conference in his Washington campaign headquarters. "It has underestimated the Communist challenge and it has given credence to the belief that the U.S. no longer has the power or the will to shape events."

For alternatives he offered:

Closer ties between free world nations and the joint development by those countries of common objectives and policies in trade and other dealings with the Communist bloc.

★ ★ ★

A prompt meeting between President Johnson and President Charles de Gaulle of France to resolve disagreements between the two nations.

Halting economic aid to nations engaging in aggression, particularly aid to Indonesia, until it "stops its aggression against Malaysia."

In his sharpest and most direct criticism of the President thus far, Rockefeller hit at Johnson personally.

"The leader cannot console himself as President Johnson did with the phrase that if today's problems were solved, new ones would arise tomorrow. For surely if we do not solve today's problems, those of tomorrow will become unmanageable."

The governor took up the question of the national economy in a statement issued as he began a round of speeches and handshaking tours today in the Concord area.

He estimated that New Hampshire would need 50,000 and the nation 20 million new jobs in the next five years. He said they could be provided only by a national administration which would "encourage the growth of free enterprise."

Barry Hits 'Wheeling, Dealing'

CONCORD, N.H. (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater is urging voters in next week's New Hampshire presidential primary to take a first step in a crusade to replace what he calls a "wheeling and dealing" government in Washington.

This first step, the senator said in a crowded day of campaigning Tuesday, is to make him the winner in next Tuesday's popularity balloting and to give him a majority of the state's 14 GOP presidential nomination votes.

★ ★ ★

The reason he is seeking the nomination, Goldwater told a crowd of about 400 in a Nashua school hall, is that he sees nobody else on the horizon he thinks will champion "a rebirth of principle, individual worth and dignity" as opposed to what he said is threatened government control of the American way of life.

"We have at the moment government by wheeling and dealing," he said in a speech at the University of New Hampshire in Durham.

OBVIOUS JIBE

Then, in an obvious jibe at his chief primary opponent, New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, Goldwater added, "We have others who would replace it with a government of personal ambition, or with carbon copies of what has been tried and has failed."

He said he offered no pie in the sky but a clean political slate.

★ ★ ★

"You here in New Hampshire must take the first step in this year and this land. You are not voting for programs and slogans, you are voting for your family and the sort of world in which you want to live. You are holding history in your hand when you step to the ballot box."

Goldwater's evangelical pitch has not stirred much visible enthusiasm from the crowds which listened intently but seldom applauded as he spoke.

RIGHT ON TRACK

The Arizona senator made it clear, however, that he believes he is on the right track in the final week of campaigning by trying to set himself apart from his opponents as a man who advocates basic principle and does not promise any give-aways.

Battery Powered

Army Gets Ray Gun

BOSTON (AP) — A lightweight laser rifle, which shoots a destructive ray instead of bullets, has been developed by Maser Optics, Inc., and turned over to the Army, it was announced yesterday.

The weapon, lighter than the M1 rifle and powered by a back pack of batteries weighing less than 25 pounds, has been delivered to Frankford Arsenal, Philadelphia.

The rifle's ray, the firm said, is not enough to inflict serious bodily harm but could set fire to a soldier's clothes. It could also blind someone at ranges of up to a mile.

★ ★ ★

Another use, according to Maser officials, could be to ignite explosive fuses or set fires. The weapon can fire at least one burst of light every 10 seconds and has a lifetime capability of 10,000 pulses or flashes.

No Time for Honeymoon

Career Keeps Actress Busy

By DAVE SMITH
Written for Bob Thomas

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Carol Lawrence is a busy little body these days, frantically trying to keep up with the career surge brought on by her role in the musical drama "West Side Story."

"And you know what?" she says, "I'm dead on my feet. Soo-o-o tired." The dark-eyed, raven-haired beauty droops visibly, just thinking about it.

★ ★ ★

She has been touring and appearing on television as a singer and dancer.

She is also busy being a newlywed. She and actor-singer Robert Goulet — were married last August. So far their career demands have postponed a honeymoon.

TV SHOW

"But after I close here (the Cocoanut Grove) on the 8th I just have one show to do for television, and then I'm going to rest. I plan to just relax and read and regain my perspective," she says.

"That's the most important thing in the world to me—perspective. Figuring out what I want, what I'm willing to do for it, and assessing what I'm doing now. I've got to keep reading, thinking, learning new things about life—or just about my work.

★ ★ ★ ★

"I could meet all the demands and run myself ragged. But that makes people go stale in their work, besides wearing them out.

"That's why performers in any field must take the time to look at themselves, as performers and as people, and take the time to refresh themselves and regain perspective."

She muses over her longer-range plans.

"It's really hard to say which aspect of the business I love the most—dancing, singing, or acting. I started as a dancer, of course, but as I get older (she's all of 29 now), the dancing will probably be the first thing to go. Then, I suppose, the voice. So I guess I'll have to rely on acting to carry me over the long haul.

"But at that, I'm lucky. No performer trains as hard as a dancer. Dancing teaches you things about other aspects of performing that you simply do not run across any other way. And it keeps you in good physical condition much longer than most people.

"Not too long ago Bob and I were with Harry Belafonte at a Peace Corps camp in Puerto Rico. They had an obstacle course there — ropes to climb, slack ropes to walk across and all that — and they asked me if I'd like to try it. I'll do anything once, so I did. And I passed the whole thing first time. They were amazed! And they said passing the course qualified me for assignment to Peru! So you see, I'm in pretty good shape, don't you think?"

You couldn't agree more. Her shape is perfect.

Quick Spin for Wife

NORTHWICH, England (UPI) — Mrs. Beryl Owen was so fed up with her husband's repeated refusals to allow her to drive the family car that she ran out of the house and droye the auto away.

But, a local court was told yesterday, the trip only lasted 400 yards. The car stopped in the front garden of a house, after climbing a sidewalk and mowing down a concrete wall and a gate.

Mrs. Owen, 29-year-old mother of five, was fined $33 for careless driving and driving without a license or insurance. She admitted "It was a stupid thing to do." It cost her another $59 for damage.

Her lawyer, Geoffrey Culey, told the court "the husband maintained his wife could not drive and she drove the car off by way of an answer."

"One doesn't like to point out to a lady that she is wrong," Culey added, "but in this case it seems she was."

Trial Is Tomorrow in Spitting Incident

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—A 22-year-old Irving resident, accused of spitting upon United Nations Ambassador Adlai Stevenson last October here, must appear in court tomorrow.

The trial of Robert Edward Hatfield is scheduled for 9 a.m. in County Criminal Court of Appeals.

The aggrevated assault complaint charges Hatfield with spitting and striking at L. R. Lawson, Dallas police officer who arrested Hatfield after he allegedly spit upon Stevenson.

If convicted, Hatfield could receive a maximum sentence of two years in jail and a $1,000 fine.

Dr. Wayne G. Brandstadt Says:

Hypertension Drug Has Side Effects

Q—What is the difference between "essential" and "malignant" hypertension? My doctor prescribed hydrochlorothiazide. Will I have to take it for the rest of my life? What are its side effects?

* * *

A—Essential hypertension is high blood pressure for which no cause is apparent. Some persons have this condition for many years without developing any serious complications. But when complications develop, the condition is known as malignant hypertension.

BRANDSTADT

The things your doctor watches for are characteristic changes in the retina, albumin in the urine, a persistent diastolic blood pressure (the lower reading) of more than 110, enlargement of the heart and an apoplectic stroke.

If persons with essential hypertension are given appropriate treatment, they should be able to avoid these complications.

But if early signs do occur, it is essential to bring the blood pressure down and keep it down. Hydrochlorothiazide is a diuretic; that is, it is used to combat waterlogging.

In many persons with high blood pressure it is the only treatment needed, but can be given with other drugs.

SIDE EFFECTS

Side effects include weakness, thirst, nausea and muscle cramps. They are not a reason to stop the medicine but rather to adjust the dosage.

Q—Is a blood test a sure way of detecting syphilis? What is the cure?

* * *

A—Blood tests are used to make a presumptive diagnosis of syphilis. If positive, other tests are often used to confirm.

The best treatment is penicillin or a closely related drug. If the proper dose is used, one injection will give a quick cure in persons who are treated early in the course of the disease before any permanent damage is done to a vital organ.

Q—What is the cause of lupus erythematosus (L.E.)? Can it be aggravated by drugs or hair dyes?

* * *

A—The cause of L.E. is unknown. Some authorities believe there is a hereditary factor in some victims.

There is a form of L.E. that may be activated by prolonged consumption of large doses of drugs such as procainamide (for irregularities of the pulse), hydralazine (for high blood pressure), diphenylhydantoin or trimethadione (for epilepsy), or isonicotinyl hydrazine (for tuberculosis).

This form of L.E. is usually mild.

According to the Council on Cosmetics of the American Medical Association, no case of L.E. has ever been attributed to a hair dye.

OK Transfer of Jeep Contract to Kaiser Corp.

DETROIT (AP) — The U.S. Army Tuesday approved transfer of an $81-million truck contract from Studebaker Corp. to Kaiser Jeep Corp.

Maj. Gen. Alden K. Sibley of the Army mobility command here said an agreement was signed removing the only obstacle to the sale by Studebaker of its defense products facility at South Bend, Ind., to Kaiser Jeep.

Sibley said the agreement recognizes "a successor in interest to a government contractor." He added, "One provision is that the original contractor guarantees performance of the contract by the new contractor."

The contract is for 8,600 five-ton trucks to be built over a two-year period at the South Bend facility.

Planners to Hear Second Attempt to Rezone 30-Acre Parcel

By DICK SAUNDERS

At their March meeting tonight at 8, city planning commissioners will devote considerable attention to a request to rezone 30 acres on Pontiac's east side for a proposed 200-unit multiple housing development.

The item is a rerun of an identical request that came before the planning board in the fall of 1962, and it will undoubtedly produce the same hassle which marked the original episode.

Only the names and faces have changed.

The property lies in an area roughly bounded by the Clinton River, Tasmania, Michigan and East Boulevard. It is vacant land, zoned Residential-1.

★ ★ ★

Charles L. Langs, of Waterford Township, and Mark Builders, of Detroit, are requesting that the property be rezoned to Residential-3, which allows multiple family dwellings.

ONLY SINGLE

The present zoning only allows single - family dwellings.

Langs is the city's major redeveloper of urban renewal lands in the central business district area.

The projects he is proposing tonight have nothing to do with his work for the city on urban renewal development.

Langs plans to purchase the 30 acres if the zoning is changed. He cannot obtain a Federal Housing Administration mortgage committment unless the property is zoned for the development he and the building firm propose to construct on the vacant site.

FINANCE PLANS

Langs proposes to finance the development under Section 221-D3 of the Federal Housing Act of 1961.

This program allows for a 40-year mortgage with lower than normal monthly payments. The development would be sold to a nonprofit cooperative housing corporation as soon as it is built and occupied.

Langs already has city approval for a similar, but smaller development on E. Pike at Douglas in the R20 urban renewal project.

★ ★ ★

The developer is also working on several other projects under study for urban renewal land in the downtown area.

SIMILAR REQUEST

About 18 months ago, another firm, Standard Building Products Co., of Detroit, asked for the same zoning change, on the same property for a 221-D3 "garden - type town house" development of up to 200 units in size.

The planning commission considered that proposal for two months before recommending that it be denied.

The City Commission deferred any decision on the matter two more weeks at the request of prospective developers who wanted to be present in force to argue their case before commissioners.

★ ★ ★

On Nov. 27, 1962, they argued their case and the City Commission voted 3-1 to deny their request.

RESIDENTS OBJECT

The episode was marked from start to finish by a strong wave of objection to rezoning from residents of the surrounding area.

In other business tonight, a public hearing is also slated on another rezoning request from Langs involving some 15 acres of land on the west side of Lake, south of Bethune School.

The property is owned by the Pontiac School District. Langs wants to purchase it for a multiple housing development, but must first get it rezoned from R-1 to R-3.

★ ★ ★

PLATTING LOTS

Planners will also review requests for platting 19 new subdivision lots in an area along Yale, west of Cherrylawn, and closing Tallahassee between Oakland and Sarasota.

A hearing will also be held on a request for a commercial zoning at 425 S. Paddock, and planners will take up a request for rehearing a proposal to rezone property at 707 W. Huron to commercial use.

Bill to Abolish 1-Man Juries

House OKs Measure, but Senate Doubtful

LANSING (AP) — The House Tuesday passed a bill to abolish Michigan's one-man grand jury system and relayed it to the Senate where similar measures have died in the past few years.

★ ★ ★

The House vote was 70-38.

"They've done the same thing for the past three or four years," recalled house speaker Allison Green, R-Kingston, "and it died in the Senate."

VOTED AGAINST

Green was among those voting against the one-man grand jury abolishment.

The Senate postponed for one day initial action on a teacher tenure initiatory petition.

★ ★ ★

The petition, to make the present local-option tenure law mandatory on all public school districts, would be put on a referendum ballot if not enacted in the current session.

On a voice vote, senators killed a bill which would have set minimum pay scales for county prosecutors — resulting in a salary raise in most cases.

POINT SYSTEM

In other action, the House defeated 48-55 a bill which would have allowed commercial carrier drivers an extra six points under the state driver point system.

The law now applies equally to all drivers, regardless of how many miles per year they drive. Accumulation of 12 points in two years can result in license revocation.

Message From LBJ Is Given to Nasser

Talbot arrived Monday for talks with Nasser and other officials of the United Arab Republic.

But He's Not Out of the Picture

Bob Kennedy Won't Speculate on Ticket Spot

WASHINGTON (AP) — Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy in "staying loose" in the face of persistent reports that he is a leading contender for the Democratic vice presidential nomination.

He has not taken himself out of the picture.

★ ★ ★

But he solemnly, and to all comers, refused to indulge in speculation about any possibility President Johnson will ask him to join him on the ticket.

He is seemingly unconcerned or amused by speculative pieces in the press that he not only would accept the nomination but is actively seeking it by his increasing public appearances.

"If I stayed away from the public they'd say I was sulking in my office," he told a reporter.

Home or Hospital?

Three Generations of Woes

GRAND JUNCTION, Colo. (AP)—Pearl Beeson saw her daughter, Mrs. Charles Shaw, being assigned to the other bed in her Lincoln Park Hospital room.

Both were hospitalized for treatment of circulatory ailments. Down the hall Mrs. Beeson's grandson, Charles Mills, 6, was bedded with rheumatic fever.

★ ★ ★

When Charles' mother got home from taking Mrs. Beeson to the hospital, she found Charles Shaw—her father—had fallen down the stairs and broken some ribs.

He stayed home to recuperate.

"I'm not going to say anything to answer these stories. I just haven't made up my mind about the future and there's no reason why I should be pushed into making it up."

★ ★ ★

He told a television interviewer:

"It's a little bit like a woman if you ask her 'If so-and-so would ask you to marry him then would you marry him?' I haven't been asked, and I want to really decide my own future later on, not try to make up my mind now."

NO INTEREST

Of the vice presidential nomination, he remarked, "I have no interest in it at the present time."

In the 3½ months since the assassination of his brother, President John F. Kennedy, Robert Kennedy has snapped back to what appears to outsiders to be his old self.

★ ★ ★

Having vowed to remain attorney general through the election, he has conveyed the image of a busy public official. He is jovial, friendly and active.

He has resumed the practice of inviting American and foreign students into his office, where they can fire questions at him—and he makes it clear that politics is definitely included.

But he brushes aside with a laugh their questions about the vice presidency, commenting only, "I like it where I am."

Military Transport Crashes in India

CALCUTTA, India (AP) — An Indian air force transport crashed in the Hooghly River north of Calcutta today, killing 22 military personnel, officials announced.

The plane reportedly caught fire after taking off from Calcutta.

Communist Split Pressures Are Mounting on Nikita

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

Amid evidence of alarm among European Communists, a new round in the Chinese-Soviet dispute appears to be in the making.

Kremlin patience seems to be wearing thin. Premier Khrushchev, prime target of the broadsides from Peking, is slowly being forced into a position that will require him to state unmistakably the Soviet view of Peking's claims to leadership of the Red world movement.

* * *

A recent issue of the International Communist Theoretical Journal, "Problems of Peace and Socialism," accused the Chinese by implication of building a second and distinct Communist movement. Evidence of this already has appeared in a number of countries.

News Analysis

"Three cannot be two or more Communist parties in one country at the same time," the Journal said.

Khrushchev has been attempting to soft-pedal the internal Communist battle, but he has had little cooperation from the Chinese, who continue lobbing verbal shells at Moscow.

The Chinese in this enterprise have the enthusiastic support of little Albania, their only ally in Europe.

ALBANIA NEEDLING

All along, the Albanians seem to have been needling Khrushchev and the Kremlin, as if attempting to provoke Moscow into a harsh response, to so anger Khrushchev that he will direct another thunderbolt at Peking.

This might sharpen ideological battle lines before the Russians were able to line up the full support of parties around the world.

Seeming to suspect this intention, the Russians appear to have exercised patience following the latest Chinese attacks, including the one Feb. 3 in which Peking predicted Khrushchev one day would be buried along with his "modern revisionists."

* * *

But the Kremlin seems worried.

PAINSTAKING RUNDOWN

It is reliably reported that in the last meeting, in February, of the Soviet Communist Central Committee, called to discuss agricultural and economic problems, party theoretician Mikhail A. Suslov delivered a painstaking rundown on the status of the Soviet-Chinese dispute.

The Central Committee and top party leaders also have been discussing the matter with leaders of the Italian and French parties and with chiefs of the parties in the Soviet Communist bloc.

It is possible the Kremlin informed these leaders that Khrushchev could not long withhold an unequivocal statement of its own views should the needling continue.

* * *

It is continuing. All indications are that Peking does not want to end its campaign against Khrushchev, but on the contrary to step it up, and if possible stir agitation in Moscow among conservative Communist leaders.

WORRY OVER EFFECTS

Such leaders, while not necessarily pro-Chinese, worry about the effects of Khrushchev's policies on the authority of the Communist party at home and abroad.

There seems to be worry in the Kremlin, too, that Chairman Mao Tze-tung is attempting to build a new world bloc and interpose it between the United States and the Soviet Union. It would rely heavily on sympathy from underdeveloped countries in Asia, Africa and Latin America.

An interview with Red Chinese Premier Chou En-lai, broadcast Monday by Peking Radio, once again by implication stepped on Khrushchev's toes.

Chou in effect let it be known that only through unity of the Red world could it hope for victory, and then implied that the man in the way of that unity was Khrushchev.

He did this by implying that unity was damaged by those who say—as Khrushchev did—that China is belligerent and willing to sacrifice half its population in a war.

* * *

It seems likely that the caution being exercised by Moscow in the battle is being read by Peking as an indication of irresoluteness and even of weakness, and that the Chinese will push what they consider an opportunity to win influence among parties around the world.

"SO NERVOUS from Hot Flashes I BURST INTO TEARS"

Suffocating heat waves, nervous, clammy feelings, restless irritability—all are well known to women suffering the distress of functionally-caused change-of-life! If you are now going through the "change" here's wonderful news for you. In doctor's tests, Lydia E. Pinkham Tablets relieved such distress for woman after woman.

Act through sympathetic nervous system to relieve distress of "heat waves"!

Warm February

Groundhog Is Proven Right

By ALLEN PHILLIPS

If February's weather was a forcast of good things to come, you might as well hang up the ice skates and start looking for the car wash mitt.

What's more, you can resore your faith in the groundhog.

On Feb. 2 (which was mostly cloudy) groundhog watchers in Michigan reported local specimens ducked back into their burrows without casting a shadow.

* * *

This led to firm predictions by the faithful of an early spring, contrary to weather bureau headshaking that February would see continued cold weather.

7 DEGREES WARMER

We know those in the Pontiac area who put their money on the groundhog won, because average mean temperature here for February was 25.5 degrees, seven degrees warmer than a year ago.

Twenty sunny days helped push the month's temperature. The month's high was recorded Feb. 5, 52 degrees, much nicer than last year's 46.

Perhaps the friendly sun frightened off the cold, which did no better than a modest seven degrees above zero for the month's low. In February 1963, however, the low was a frosty 5 degrees below.

LITTLE SNOW

Skiers waxed and waited, but the clouds yielded only 3½ inches of snow, half the amount that fell a year ago. (Say, does anyone remember the 20-inch blanket in 1962?).

* * *

The groundhog even did well working an extra day. On Leap Year day, Feb. 29, leaping ladies had the benefit of a sunny 48 degrees.

Colombia Educator to Visit OU

A Latin American educator from Cali, Colombia, will visit Oakland University next week for a look at U.S. education, according to OU Chancellor D. B. Varner.

Dr. Alfonso Ocampo, 40, dean of studies at the University of Valle, will highlight his week-long visit by addressing the honors banquet at Oakland U. on March 13.

He will discuss the state of education in Latin America.

* * *

Varner said Dr. Ocampo would tour OU and get acquainted with the university, its students and faculty during the week.

EXCHANGE EYED

A sidelight to the visit of the Latin American educator will be further talks on establishment of an exchange of students and professors between OU and the University of Valle.

* * *

Varner has been working on an exchange program, based on scholarships, as part of the area-to-area approach of the Alliance for Progress program.

The university chancellor was a member of an Oakland County delegation that visited Cali, Colombia, last year.

Bids Will Be Opened on UP Road Projects

LANSING (AP) — The State Highway Department has announced it will open bids at Escanaba March 25 on six Upper Peninsula highway construction projects costing $1.1 million. Largest of the projects is more than six miles of modernization on US 41 and M173 in Menominee County, to cost $650,000.

GLENWOOD PLAZA CORNER NORTH PERRY AT GLENWOOD

Done With CIA Funds

Few in Congress Knew of 2,000-M.P.H. Jet Development

WASHINGTON (AP) — Development of the A11, the new 2,000-mile-an-hour jet plane, was so secret that only a few members of Congress knew about it.

This indicates the plane was developed with Central Intelligence Agency funds rather than the Defense Department's. A number of congressional committees are privy to the Pentagon's activities. Only a few senators and representatives are on the committee overseeing the CIA.

* * *

It means that the House, in a recent debate on defense spending, did not have full information at hand when it overruled Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and approved an extra $40 million for research on an improved manned interceptor plane.

Existence of the plane was announced by President Johnson at his news conference Saturday. He said the planes, which can operate at higher than 70,000 feet, were being tested "to determine their capabilities as long-range interceptors."

Michigan Week Chief

LANSING (AP)—Frank Alter, manager of the Detroit field office of the U.S. Department of Commerce, has been named chairman of the federal agencies committee of the May 17-23 Michigan Week.

Teen Dies in Collision

LINCOLN PARK (AP)—Ronald G. CFole, 17, of Taylor was killed Tuesday in a collision between his delivery truck and a car.

INFORMED OF PLANE

Johnson noted that several key Congress members had been informed about the plane's development.

One member of the House, who knew about the A11 for many months, described its development as the best kept American secret since development of the atomic bomb in World War II.

In the House Armed Services Committee, for example, only a few members are believed to have known about the plane's secret development.

An informed source said that these few were informed because they have a special assignment that allows them to receive such information.

CIA COMMITTEE

This most likely means that these congressmen were members of the committee's subcommittee on the CIA.

Ironically, the members of this subcommittee were among the strongest boosters for the $40-million authorization for research on an improved interceptor.

* * *

It is understood that they felt the existence of the plane was even stronger evidence that the United States should spend more money on improving it and developing a successor.

U.S. Officials Resigned to Period of Strain With France

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. officials have about given up trying to analyze the motives of French President Charles de Gaulle and resigned themselves to a long period of strain and increasing tension in relations between Washington and Paris.

The latest French maneuver in demanding Red Chinese admission to the U.N. World Health Organization is but one of a series which has already created a bad split in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and which may be followed by other moves as yet unforeseen here.

* * *

The Washington policy for dealing with this situation seems to be essentially a policy of containment aimed at trying to prevent the split in the alliance from becoming worse.

It is also aimed at trying to blot the thrust of de Gaulle's diplomacy insofar as it may affect the policies and attitudes of other countries in issues like the recognition of the Communist regime in China.

News Analysis

After news was received at the White House and State Department Tuesday that France was supporting a Red Chinese seat in the World Health Organization, the State Department declared that the U.S. delegation had "actively and successfully opposed the challenge of the Republic of China's (Nationalist China's) credentials.

It added: "We will continue to do this in every U.N. body."

* * *

The acceptance of the French challenge on this issue, which points toward a fight in the U.N. General Assembly over Red China next fall, was unqualified.

* * *

It is understood that the State Department is advising its embassies all over the world to make the U.S. policy on Red China both as to recognition and as to U.N. membership completely clear in the capitals where they serve.

HOLD-LINE OPERATION

Beyond this hold-the-line operation, officials for the moment did not see what else they could do. They said privately that it is obviously impossible to try to get de Gaulle's position changed in any fundamental way.

* * *

He has embarked on a course of action sharply at variance with that which the United States would like to see develop at many points, and the view here is that so long as he controls destinies of France he intends to stick to it fully.

Mt. Clemens Cooks Win With Rhubarb

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

Last Saturday was the ninth annual Michigan Hothouse Rhubarb Festival in Utica. As usual, there were dozens of entries in the recipe contest.

★ ★ ★

Unless you have seen the array, you have no idea of how many ways there are to use rhubarb. The hothouse rhubarb is such a lovely color that it makes especially pretty dishes.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. James Dunn of Mt. Clemens won the senior grand prize with her Rhubarb Bread Pudding. Mrs. Josephine Lawyer, our local consumer information agent, says this is a delicious pudding.

RHUBARB BREAD PUDDING
By Mrs. Frank Dunn

6 slices day-old bread
1½ cups sugar
2 eggs
¼ teaspoon salt
1 cup scalded milk
1½ teaspoons vanilla
3 cups rhubarb

Wash rhubarb and cut into ½-inch chunks. Grease 1½ quart pan or casserole.

Dip bread in milk, one slice at a time. Squeeze slice slightly to remove excess milk. Place 3 slices on bottom of pan.

Add rhubarb and cover with remaining slices of dipped bread.

Beat eggs slightly, add vanilla, salt and sugar. Slowly add scalded milk. Pour over in casserole. Dot with butter.

Bake 45 minutes in 375-degree oven or until golden brown. Makes 6 generous servings. Serve hot or cold.

In the junior division, 14-year-old Sue Reinhardt, also of Mt. Clemens, won the top prize. If this future homemaker continues to invent recipes like her prize-winning Rhubarb-Coconut pie, she'll go far.

Sue uses pudding mix for part of the pie filling.

RHUBARB COCONUT PIE
By Sue Reinhardt

2 cups chopped rhubarb
¾ cup sugar
1 package coconut cream pudding
Pie Crust
2 cups sifted flour
½ teaspoon salt
1 cup shortening
6 tablespoons ice water

★ ★ ★

Bake two 9-inch pie shells. Cook rhubarb and sugar until thick.

Prepare pudding as directed on package. Cool.

★ ★ ★

Spread ½ cup rhubarb mixture in each pie shell. Cover with half of the cooled pudding. Top with remaining rhubarb. Sprinkle coconut around edges. Makes two pies.

MSG Enhances Flavor of Meats, Poultry

Monosodium glutamate does something no other type of seasoning can do: it brings out all the good natural flavor of foods.

Here is the basic rule of thumb for adding MSG: ground beef or stew meat, 1 teaspoon per pound; roasts, ½ teaspoon per pound; individual steaks, ½ teaspoon per pound; chicken, ½ teaspoon per pound; vegetables, 1 teaspoon per 4-6 servings; combination dishes, 1 teaspoon per quart; fish fillets, 1 teaspoon per pound.

Frozen Lemon Juice

Freeze lemon juice and rind in ice cube trays to use when baking a lemon pie. All you have to do is melt the "ice" and you'll have the right amount available.

Cream Soup, Cheese Sauce Tuna Fish

Creamed tuna on toast is an old favorite—and here is a brand new glamour version as simple as it is delicious.

Blend 1 can condensed cream of asparagus soup and ½ cup milk in saucepan. Add ½ cup shredded sharp Cheddar cheese, 1 can (6½ or 7 ounces) tuna in vegetable oil, 1 can (14½ ounces), drained, cut asparagus. Heat until cheese is melted, stirring occasionally. Serve over toast.

More Nutritious

You can boost the nutrition of French toast by adding two tablespoons wheat germ to two slightly beaten eggs, 2-3 cup milk and ½ teaspoon vanilla. (For eight slices of bread.)

Company Offers Booklet for Passover Time

For the Jewish Passover week, the John Oster Co. offers a booklet of Passover recipes that are now fast and easy to make with an electric blender.

★ ★ ★

The attractive blue and white booklet titled, "Passover Menu Favorites," is free on request. Simply write the John Oster Co., Milwaukee 47, Wis.

★ ★ ★

These blender holiday recipes speed preparation of centuries-old, traditional dishes such as fresh horseradish and potato pudding. They can now be made in seconds—and without skinned knuckles!

Other recipes includes chopped chicken liver, mandelach for chicken soup, and Menorah dressing for salads.

Unusual treats are also featured, such as a Passover almond and apricot stuffing for roast duck, and a Passover lemon pie with meringue topping.

Airy Chiffon Pie Made of Pumpkin

A slightly different version of a favorite pie.

Pumpkin Chiffon Pie

1 envelope unflavored gelatin
¾ cup firmly packed light brown sugar
½ teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons pumpkin pie spice
¾ cup milk
1½ cups canned pumpkin
3 eggs, separated
¼ cup granulated sugar
9-inch graham cracker-nut pie shell
½ cup heavy cream (whipped, lightly sweetened and vanilla-flavored)

In the top of a double broiler mix together well the gelatin, brown sugar, salt and pumpkin pie spice. Stir in milk; then pumpkin; whisk in egg yolks.

Cook and stir constantly over boiling water until hot through and gelatin is dissolved—about 10 minutes. Chill over ice cubes and water, stirring often, until mixture will mound.

Beat egg whites until stiff; gradually beat in granulated sugar until very stiff; fold in thickened pumpkin mixture.

County Urges Extension of Clinton River Project

The Oakland County Drain Commission last night urged the City Commission to proceed with improvements to the Clinton River east of the present Clinton River Drain project.

In a letter to city officials, Drain Commissioner Daniel Barry emphasized "it is essential that construction of river improvements from Union to Opdyke be started this year."

Barry supported the city's current application for a federal planning grant to cover the cost of final drawings and construction plans for that part of the river.

★ ★ ★

He also said the drain commission supported original river improvement plans drawn by the city's consulting engineers, Jones, Henry and Williams, of Toledo. Barry suggested they be retained for engineering final phases of the river work east of Union.

FINAL PLANS ORDERED

The city has already ordered final plans from Jones, Henry and Williams.

Improvements needed between Union and Opdyke consist mainly of widening, deepening and straightening the river bed.

The present $2.5-million Clinton River Drain project also calls for the same improvements from Cass and Orchard Lake to Union. However, the present project will tunnel the river, where it won't be tunneled east of Union.

★ ★ ★

In other business at last night's commission meeting, commissioners okayed the purchase of property at 18 Seminole for additional intern housing at Pontiac General Hospital.

Approval of the move came by a 6-1 vote, with Commissioner Charles H. Harmon voting against the measure. Cost of the property is $13,000.

Harmon said he'd "like to see an expansion plan from hospital officials before voting on this."

Later in the meeting, Harmon and Commissioner William H. Taylor asked that a resolution be drafted asking the hospital board of trustees to furnish the city with such a plan.

★ ★ ★

Harmon added an amendment asking the hospital "how much cash it can pay us right now toward the debt it owes the city for the addition built in 1958."

HOSPITAL FUNDS

The hospital will pay for the Seminole property with hospital depreciation funds and the cost will be credited against its debt to the city.

Under the ordinance controlling Pontiac General Hospital, the city is obligated to finance all capital improvements or expansion of the hospital building, while the hospital board is responsible for maintaining and replacing existing facilities with income from patient charges.

Also last night, commissioners accepted and approved a planning commission recommendation to deny a request that Oakland Park be renamed John F. Kennedy Park.

★ ★ ★

The vote was 5-2, with Mayor Robert A. Landry and Mayor Pro-tem Winford E. Bottom voting against the measure.

REQUESTED BY AFL-CIO

The name change had been requested by the Oakland County AFL-CIO Council. Planners suggested the late president's name be given to a proposed future park near Galloway Lake.

Another planning commission report, recommending that a lot at 17 Waldo be rezoned from residential to commercial, was also accepted by a 7-0 vote.

It will be drafted in the form of a zoning ordinance which will come up for a public hearing and final approval at a future meeting.

★ ★ ★

The rezoning was recommended by a 5-3 vote of the planning commission over strong objections from surrounding residential property owners.

CENTER OWNER

The rezoning was requested by Ralph Spadafore, owner of Westown Shopping Center located on West Huron at Waldo. He plans to use the lot for additional off-street parking.

Final approval will be contingent on his formally agreeing to meet certain specification such as fencing the lot and providing a buffer between it and adjacent residential property.

Mayor Robert A. Landry read a letter from Governor George Romney urging municipalities to step up traffic enforcement in the face of a mounting traffic death toll in Michigan.

★ ★ ★

Romney praised Pontiac for its recent traffic record of only one traffic death in four months.

BETTER RECORD

"Our traffic record," Landry noted after reading the letter, "is better since some changes were made in the police department than it has been in the last 10 years.

"The record established in Pontiac in the last four months is the best that has been established in any city in the United States," the mayor asserted.

"Facts are facts, and you can't argue with them."

Bottom was the lone commissioner to comment on the outcome of Monday's city primary, in which he and three other incumbents failed to gain nomination for reelection.

"I want to thank the people of District 4 for giving me the opportunity to serve on this commission the past four years," he said.

★ ★ ★

"It has been very educational and a great pleasure. I offer my congratulations to Mr. Hudson and Mr. Miles (Leslie H. Hudson and Floyd P. Miles), and if I can be of any assistance to them, I hope they will not hesitate to call on me."

Arkansas Blaze Kills a Woman and 6 Children

FORREST CITY, Ark. (AP) — A woman and six children perished when fire destroyed a three-room wooden house last night.

The fire started during a thunderstorm, Police Chief George Trusty said. Cause of the fire was not known.

Neighbors said two women and their children lived in the house.

★ ★ ★

Trusty said the victims were burned beyond recognition.

City Tax Board of Review Elects Chairman for 1964

The city's Tax Board of Review has elected Rudolph J. Nosek, 56, of 565 E. Pike chairman of the board for 1964.

Nosek was elected at the board's organizational meeting yesterday at city hall. He was reappointed last month by the City Commission to a second straight one-year term on the board.

A Pontiac resident since 1929, Nosek previously served on the board from 1943-45.

He has been a journeyman plumber for the past 16 years. Nosek replaces 1963 chairman R. Ray Ransom, who was not appointed to another term on the board this year.

ALSO NAMED

Named deputy clerk for the board was Mrs. Clyde Soucie, a clerk in the city assessor's office.

Other board members appointed by the commission are John Q. Waddell, of 99 Cherokee, and Charles Nasstrom, of 502 E. Mansfield.

Ex-officio members are City Attorney William A. Ewart and City Finance Director Marvin M. Alward.

★ ★ ★

The board will hear appeals from taxpayers for three weeks and then set the city's 1964 total assessed valuation. It is scheduled to meet from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. daily except weekends.

However, some days will be spent in the field, making on-site inspections of appeal properties.

★ ★ ★

Full details on when and how to appeal your assessed property value can be obtained by calling the assessor's office at City Hall.

Before It's Too Late

Future Dropouts Should Get Early Help

By LESLIE J. NASON, Ed.D.

An ounce of prevention in the primary grades is worth a pound of cure at the high school level when it comes to eliminating dropouts. That is the opinion of John H. Niemeyer, president of Bank Street College of Education in New York City.

DR. NASON

His ideas are stated in "The School Dropout," a book just published by the National Education Association's Project on School Dropouts, which is supported in part by the Ford Foundation.

Niemeyer believes that schools can create a program in which the majority of the present non-learners will learn. He believes this can be accomplished regardless of family and neighborhood backgrounds of the pupils.

To accomplish this, the educational world must spend its effort on trying to find out how to achieve a school - learning climate, instead of blaming "home - background," "low-IQ," "nonfuture orientation," "nonverbal ability," and so forth.

These children do know how to learn. In the five or six years before entering school they have learned to get along in their homes and neighborhoods.

Suddenly a school - type learning is essential. Unless drastic steps are taken they are headed for failure after failure, and eventual dropout.

Rather than try to change the home and the neighborhood teachers should help the child adjust to learning effectively in school.

NO ONE KNOWS

Niemeyer goes on to say that no one knows what modifications of curriculum or organization are necessary to accomplish this.

However, progress is being made in this area. For example, Dr. Donal Durrell of Wellesley Hills, Mass., professor of education and founder of Boston University's Reading Clinic says almost any child, regardless of whether or not he comes from an emotionally or culturally deprived background, can learn to read well.

It all depends on how effectively he is taught.

In his 30 years of research and service in reading problems at the University, Dr. Durrell has found that developing an "ear" for spoken words is one of the most important factors in learning to read.

The most effective phonics programs were found to be those based upon early ear-training, where the child moves from speech to print, rather than the reverse.

This ability can be attained in kindergarten or in the first three months of the first grade if effective methods are used.

Once a student develops an ear for sound not only his reading but his overall learning rate improves rapidly.

In my own experience, I find an added skill helps both reading and listening. A child must learn to visualize as he reads or hears. He must think! Otherwise everything "goes in one ear and out the other."

The key to prevention of eventual dropout lies in the early application of the specific learning procedures necessary for each subject.

(You can get Prof. Nason's helpful booklet by sending $1 to Better Grades, Box 2160, General Post Office, New York City.)

Opening lead—♥ K

By OSWALD JACOBY

The student was lazily watching the professor play a little rubber bridge.

He nodded approvingly when the professor opened one no-trump instead of one diamond. The student had learned to open such hands thusly.

JACOBY

The professor ducked the first heart, but had to win the second. Then the student sat bolt upright in his chair. A trick four the professor led his ace of diamonds.

The play turned out to be a winner because it dropped West's singleton king and the professor proceeded to rattle off 11 tricks. But it was a trifle beyond the student's understanding.

He asked, "I know your play worked, but why did you refuse to take that diamond finesse?"

The professor replied, "I refused to take the diamond finesse because I was anxious to win the rubber. I was willing to let East win a diamond trick because if he gained the lead he would not be able to hurt me. I still missed three hearts.

"If they divided two-one, I could only lose two more tricks in that suit. If they divided three-zero, the only danger would come if West could get in the lead, I could do nothing if he held the guarded king of diamonds, but I could and did take care of the singleton king."

Feels Sorry for Materialists

Thrill of Creation Is Greatest of All, Says Architect

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—"Happiness is not a worthy end," remarked Edward D. Stone, who has been haunted by beauty all his life.

BOYLE

"Everybody runs through emotional cycles, depending on his nature, which may range from suicidal despair to esctatic exultancy."

To Stone, who has been acclaimed as America's greatest living architect, the best answer to the challenge of existence is the dedication that comes with creative work.

"I feel sorry for people who spend their lives doing nothing but buying eggs for three cents and selling them for five cents. They only do this to get money to buy more enjoyment for themselves and their families," Stone said.

ABSORBING WORK

"But creative work is absorbing in itself, and material gain is a byproduct, not the main end. The thrill of creation is the greatest of all."

Stone, a tall, courtly, broad-browed man of 62, started the study of architecture in his youth in Fayetteville, Ark., a town which he whimsically says has been described as "a hot-bed of tranquility."

★ ★ ★

Since then the scope of his output has been tremendous and worldwide. It includes the famed U.S. Embassy in India; a $20-million hospital in Peru; hotels in Panama and Lebanon; museums, dormitories, libraries, cultural centers, factories, pharmaceutical laboratories, civic buildings, banks, private homes and a monastery.

★ ★ ★

At present he and his staff of 200 assistants are planning or completing work on a dozen projects. Among them are several buildings at the New York World's Fair, including two religious pavilions, the Tulsa Civic Center, the Huntington Hartford Gallery of Modern Art here, and the proposed cultural center in Washington, D.C., honoring the late President John F. Kennedy.

ENORMOUS EXPENDITURES

"Architecture is not a young man's field today. It involves enormous expenditures of money, and people are unwilling to entrust these sums to young men without experience," Stone said.

"It is hard work, too, since it involves compromising dreams with pocketbooks."

Stone, a determined individualist, puts the stamp of his own personality on every building designed by his firm.

He has a fondness for decoration in both his work and in his life. He likes the grand manner. He lives in a beautifully redesigned home on the east side, enjoys riding in a luxurious limousine, but prefers to sit up front with the chauffeur.

VIEW OF HIS ART

Here is how he views his art:

"Ugliness is sinful, because, like sin, ugliness reflects a grossness of mind and a poverty of spirit, a robot-like materialism that implies a denial of a bridge to the angels, a glimpse of perfection.

"Great art is the result of peace, prosperity and leisure. We have all these things, but our country hasn't yet reached the philosophical point where we want to leave a heritage of loveliness to future times.

★ ★ ★

"A hero of mine, Frank Lloyd Wright, used to say, 'Love your work, love your wife, love the truth.' To this I would only add, 'Love God—that's all there is to life.'"

Inferiority Complex for Zoo Animals?

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP) — A total of 1,843 animals were shown this year at the 48th annual Pennsylvania Farm Show — 662 dairy cattle, 296 sheep, 272 hogs, 269 beef cattle, 150 steers, 99 horses, and 95 market lambs. More than 200 other farm animals were rejected because of lack of space.

Each person in the United States consumes an average of over 160 pounds of red meat per year while people in the Far East eat only 6.2 pounds.

The karri trees, eucalyptus of southwest Australia, grow nearly 300 feet tall and measure 10 feet across at the base.

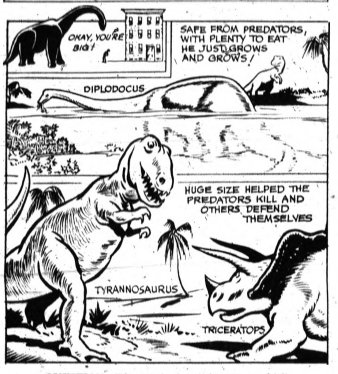
Junior Editors Quiz on DINOSAURS



QUESTION: Why were the dinosaurs so big?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: There were no men or houses in dinosaur days, but if there had been, a Braciosaurus (upper left) would have towered over a three-story building.

Some dinosaurs were 80 feet long and might weigh 50 tons. All, however, were not big—some were about the size of a dog. The great bulk of the large ones probably resulted from the conditions under which they lived.

Part of the earth, say the scientists, was covered with shallow swamps in the days of the dinosaurs. The first dinosaurs had been small active flesh eaters.

But certain kinds took to a diet of the water plants which were extremely abundant; they lost the sharp teeth of the flesh-eaters but increased in size because they could wade out into shallow water where the flesh eaters could not follow.

There was so much to eat that they went on growing until they were the largest land animals which ever lived. On dry land, some of the flesh eaters grew very large because this gave them a better chance of killing others for food.

It is generally agreed that the huge dinosaur Tryannosaurus was the most fearsome creature which ever lived.

★ ★ ★

FOR YOU TO DO: It is most interesting to speculate on why the dinosaurs disappeared. Read what students of the past have written about them and work out your own theory.

The National Football League was smart in backing down on the decision to carry Friday night TV in competition with high schools and colleges.

Professional baseball learned a long time ago that it doesn't pay to bite the hand that feeds it. Major League baseball was highly responsible for the death of many minor league teams with its TV policies and high handed farm recruiting methods.

High schools and colleges are the life of pro football's future and it was wise for the NFL to realize there can be over-exposure in this direction.

After a $28 million TV contract it wouldn't be smart for the NFL to act so hungry that it would step on anyone's toes to gain more.

BEEF AND BEEFBURGERS

John Gordy, veteran Detroit Lions' offensive lineman, has moved into Pontiac area business circles. His hamburg drive-in eatery on Dixie will have its official opening March 12-14 with teammates Schmidt, Brown, Lowe, Barr, Studstill, Morrall, Plum, Williams and Whitlow donning car-hop caps at 11:30 a.m. Saturday the 14th.

This is one time it wouldn't pay to argue about mustard or ketchup and best uphold the sign which says "pay when served."

There will be a lot of beef delivering the beefburgers.

IN A RUT

John Monitz who will direct the golf school at Carl's Golfland this year is worried about being in a rut.

He has had four hole-in-ones, 1959, 1960, 1961 and 1962 but failed to connect with an ace in 1963. Huh, he should be so unlucky to have such a rut!

STADIUM EXPANDS

Metropolitan Stadium in Bloomington, Minnesota, home of the Minnesota Twins of baseball and Vikings of football is being expanded.

Baseball seating will go up from 39,525 to 44,915 and football capacity will rise from 41,111 to 42,339.

BIG MONTH FOR GOLF

The month from June 4 through July 5 will really be a golden egg for the PGA. The touring pros will be shooting for a total of $470,000 in prize money.

One of the tournaments during this period, June 11-14, will be the $55,000 Buick Open. Biggest purse is the $125,000 Whitemarsh Open in Philadelphia.

Of course the jackpot tournament of 1964 will be August 27-30 at Oakland Hills where the Carling World Open takes place.

* * *

Speaking of the Buick Open, don't figure on the key players, Arnold Palmer, Gary Player or Jack Nicklaus playing at Warwick Hills.

Many think its because they will be priming for the National Open but those who know say its because of conflict of sponsors. The trio endorse another auto in commercial advertising.

Kettering's Thompson Ex-Teammate

New Tiger Pitcher Lauds Local Coach

By DON VOGEL
Pontiac Press Sports Writer

LAKELAND, Fla. — "Yes, I know Irv Thompson," said Dave Wickersham as he sat down on a training table yesterday.

"Irv and I were buddies all through school. He was my catcher in high school."

Thompson is head baseball coach at Kettering High School.

Wickersham, born in Erie, Pa. found what he was looking for in the paper — the stock market section. The Detroit Tigers' new pitcher admitted, "I dabble in the market."

The big righthander, obtained last winter from Kansas City in the Colavito swap, is expected to become a spot starter or regular for the Tigers.

GOOD RECORD

He brought a 25-20 American League record to Henley Field from the Athletics. Wickersham spent three seasons with the A's and in 1963 was 12-15, including a 5-0 shutout of the Yankees.

An earned run average of 4.08 is partially defended by what Wickersham terms "defensive problems in left field at Kansas City."

* * *

He worked 238 innings last season, more than any other KC hurler, and walked only 70 batters while fanning 118.

"That Irv is a pretty smart coach," said Wickersham, "in fact, he's one of the best. I also met several other coaches including Dave Freeman when I visited Irv."

Freeman formerly coached Waterford High's football team and now is a junior high principal.

"Doc (trainer Jack Homel,) my neck's sore, you got something for it? I must have a good sunburn."

Homel came to the rescue with lotion and Wickersham went back to the stock market reports.

MERCURY GOES UP

Several of the players were tapping the sun tan lotion. The weather was warm Tuesday for the fourth straight day. The mercury continued to climb over the 80 mark for the second straight day.

* * *

The humidity also continued to climb. But the forecast showers held off during the workouts.

Al Kaline, Norm Cash, Don Wert, Dick McAuliffe, Jerry Lumpe and Don Demeter suited up and worked out briefly. They weren't officially scheduled to begin training until today when the outfielders and infielders reported.

* * *

Lumpe, who came to Detroit along with Wickersham from KC and is expected to be the regular second baseman, was in uniform for the first time.

Fritz Fisher, the lefthanded pitcher who was signed for a bonus after graduating from the University of Michigan, received special attention from manager Charlie Dressen yesterday.

Dressen made a minor correction in Fisher's motion and then had him practice keeping his fastball and curve low and pitching to spots.

Fisher also proved he can still hit by banging out a double and single during a special pitchers' game. The 22-year-old Adrian native turned down a $40,000 bonus from the Yankees at the end of his high school days because "they wanted him to become an outfielder."

* * *

He received a reported $30,000 when he signed with the Bengals.

Joe Sparma, another bonus player, and Fisher both are scheduled to hurl six innings in a squad game Friday. Dick

Dryden Class D Victor

Falcons Win, 69-67

Two free throws with four seconds to play capped a successful night opening of district basketball play for Rochester and Dryden Tuesday.

The free throws were sunk by sophomore Bob Mills and gave Rochester a thrilling 69-67 Class A nightcap win over Utica.

* * *

In the double-header opener, Dryden took an easy 61-48 verdict from Mount Clemens Holy Cross. Both the Cardinals in Class D and the host 'A' team now advance to second round games.

The Southern Thumb Cardinals, led by sophomore Dennis Hilliker, led all the way against Holy Cross.

Another 10th grader, Bruce McDonald paced Rochester's come-from-behind victory. He tossed in 37 points, 24 in the second half, but relinquished game honors to Utica's Mike Kowalski.

The latter hit 38 points for a school record. He tied the game, 67-all, with 22 seconds to play on two foul shots, only to see Mills pull it out.

* * *

The winning Falcons had trailed 15-2 and 18-4 in the first quarter, but caught fire in the last three sessions.

Overcome Toronto, 3-2

Wings Win Big One

DETROIT (AP)—Before Toronto Coach Punch Imlach sent his skaters against the Detroit Red Wings Tuesday night, he remarked: "I'll worry about them (the Red Wings) if they win their playoff semifinals series."

To back up his disdain, Imlach started goalie Don Simmons in place of Johnny Bower who has the best average in the National Hockey League.

Detroit responded with a 3-2 victory on a third-period goal from Parker MacDonald. They trail the third-place Maple Leafs by three points, and have virtually clinched a playoff spot. New York trails the fourth-place Red Wings by 12 points.

PLAYS AGAIN

Toronto, which has played one more game than Detroit, needs a victory over Boston tonight on home ice or may wind up in fourth place.

The Red Wings took a 1-0 first period lead on Bruce MacGregor's goal. The Leafs' George Armstrong tied it up, but rookie Floyd Smith put Detroit ahead 2-1 by the end of the period.

* * *

The Leafs came back in the second period to knot the score again. Ron Stewart scored with an assist from Dave Keon while killing a penalty with 45 seconds remaining.

MacDonald's goal came on an assist from Gordie Howe, who oddly, hasn't scored against the Leafs this year.

It was the second straight game in which the Howe-MacDonald combo saved the Wings. MacDonald's late tally against New York Sunday salvaged a 2-2 tie.

The Chicago Black Hawks have a chance to take undisputed possession of first place from Montreal tonight at New York in the only other NHL game. Montreal and Detroit remain idle.

Gridder Prefers Baseball

POMPANO BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Tommy Brown, torn between another trial with the Washington Senators and a football offer from the Green Bay Packers, decided Tuesday to stick with baseball.

The former University of Maryland two-sport star notified Senators Manager George Selkirk that he will be in uniform Wednesday when the remainder of the Washington squad is scheduled to report.

His decision leaves pitcher Ron Kline as Washington's only unsigned player.

* * *

Brown was a spring training sensation with the Senators last year after being signed off the Maryland campus. He broke into the opening day line-up before a sellout crowd.

But Brown had his troubles with major league pitching and after several weeks trial was sent to the Senators' York, Pa. farm club. He batted .147 in 61 games with the Senators, including a late season look, and .228 in 77 games with York.

* * *

Brown was the second draft choice of the Packers after the 1962 college football season, but passed up football to sign with the Senators for a reported $22,000 bonus. The Packers reportedly offered him 2½ times his minimum baseball salary of $7,000 a year to sign this month.

Cards' Hopes Tied to Hurler

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — The St. Louis Cardinals' National League pennant hopes could hang on a question mark named Ray Washburn.

Branch Rickey, the venerable baseball man who is special consultant to the team, said Tuesday the Cards will win the title if Washburn proves to be a sound pitcher.

* * *

The fireballing right-hander won his first five starts last season. Then he suffered an injury to a muscle in his throwing arm and after losing three games was inactive for most of the season.

He exercised the arm through the winter and is throwing hard. He says he feels no pain or discomfort when he pitches.

He has to show his stuff in exhibition games before the Cardinals will know whether he will be a plus or minus factor in their hopes.

Ex-Tam Aide Takes Post at Golfland

Former Tam O' Shanter assistant Jack Monitz will direct the golf school at Carl's Golfland on Telegraph road this season.

* * *

Ready for opening later this spring will be a new 9-hole par-3 pitch and putt course lighted completely in new perimeter type lighting adding brightness to the area.

The par-3 course will measure around 1,000 yards with holes of 75 to 115 yards. There are no changes on the 50 driving range tees.

Monitz who has been at Lapeer Country Club for the past three years, studied under Tam's capable teacher Warren Orlick for five years.

Three years prior to that he was an assistant under 'Joe Devaney at Grosse Ile.

The Golfland layout is now opened with an indoor net available in event of inclement weather.

Rich Gridiron Payday

DALLAS (AP) — Texas and Navy each will receive a check for $203,688.90 for playing in the Cotton Bowl — a record for the Jan. 1 post-season football game here.

It makes the Cotton Bowl the second highest paying college bowl game in the nation. Only the Rose Bowl gives out larger shares.

Northern Five Burns Off Fog With Offense

'New-Look' Huskies Hit 44 Field Goals Against Dragons

By JERE CRAIG

The heavy, gray moisture outside last night could not cool off a red-hot shooting Pontiac Northern quintet.

Any possibility that the fog might put a damper on the Class A district basketball game at PNH was quickly dispelled as Northern burned the cords for a 94-72 win over Lake Orion.

* * *

It was the new-look Huskies up to the old success tactics of coach Dick Hall—run and shoot. Lake Orion built a 10-5 season record on such an offense, but it was outclassed by Northern.

The victory boosted Northern ahead in the district to a return match with Pontiac Central at 8 p.m. Thursday night. The winner of that one will meet tonight's Waterford-Bloomfield Hills match Saturday in the district final.

Familiar names such as Roger Hayward (22), Jerry Reese (20) and Mike Burklow (15) led the Huskies' attack; but it was unknowns Larry Frye, Dan Fisher, Bob Cushist, Bob Adsit, and Bob Harris that supplied the new look and brought a smile to Hall's face.

* * *

The last five spent most of the season on the PNH reserve team but moved up to the varsity late last month. Frye has started lately and put in 12 points last night.

EARLY DUTY

Adsit, Cushist, Fisher and Harris saw early duty and had 15 points among them for the game. They showed a great deal of poise while in the contest.

* * *

Considering the fact Hall used 14 players in the contest and it was a running game all night, the 11 turnovers attributed to Northern were not excessive.

Lake Orion tried to run with the home team at the start and had 15 first half errors while falling behind, 52-35, at intermission. The Dragons ended with 20 turnovers for the game.

Lake Orion actually played at a winning tempo for most contests. It hit 40 per cent of its 65 shots from the floor and 20 of 27 free throws. The Dragons drew 11 personals to 19 for PNH.

But there was no denying Northern. After hitting 12 of 21 from the field in the first quarter, the Huskies started the second with four straight buckets.

They had 24 of 44 by halftime, and began the third session with four in a row. Finally they "cooled off" to end with 44 of 86 for 51 per cent.

* * *

It was the type game Hall, not entirely pleased with the recent showings by the Inter-Lakes League champs, wanted from the homesters. Now they're ready for Central.

OLSM, South Lyon Grab 'B' Openers

By FLETCHER SPEARS

Orchard Lake St. Mary and South Lyon held the winning hands in the opening round of the Class B district tournament at Pontiac Central last night.

★ ★ ★

South Lyon took a sluggish 50-45 decision from Clarenceville in the opening game; and Orchard Lake St. Mary rapped Northville in the nightcap, 67-56.

The winners now advance to the semifinals Thursday, with South Lyon meeting Lutheran West in the opener and OLSM battling West Bloomfield in the second game.

EAGLET HURT

The victory may have been a costly one for St. Mary.

Frank Rompel, the Eaglet's high-scoring guard, twisted a knee early in the third quarter and spent the rest of the game on the sidelines.

"We don't know how bad it is," coach Father John Rakoczy said. "Just have to wait and see."

Rompel's absence could seriously hamper the Eaglets' bid for the district title.

★ ★ ★

OLSM hit a scorching 52 per cent of its shots from the field in corralling the Mustangs.

The Eaglets burned the nets in the opening half, pouring in 42 points to take a 42-31 lead at intermission.

The two squads traded buckets in the final half.

TOP REBOUNDERS

John Stolnicki (6-5) and John Stepien (6-3) controlled both backboards for the winners and picked up 15 and eight points, respectively.

★ ★ ★

Ralph Kibiloski topped the Eaglets with 22 points, matching his highest output during the team's 13-4 season.

Dan Bishop, the Mustangs' 5-6 guard, shared Northville's scoring honors with Lance Hahn. Both netted 16.

Northville moved within six points of the Eaglets at the end of the third period, 51-45, but the winners quickly widened the gap in the final stanza and led by 14 points with a minute remaining.

TROJANS COLD

Clarenceville hit on a chilly 24 per cent of its shots in dropping from the tournament trail.

★ ★ ★

The Trojans and the Lions tossed the ball away repeatedly in the opening half, with South Lyon coming out on top at intermission, 21-17.

"We're dead," a somewhat disgusted coach Jim Leary remarked at halftime after watching the Trojans hit five of 32 shots. "This is our worst game all season."

South Lyon shot at a respectable 40 per cent (24 of 60), with Pat Bane (11) and Rick Duncan (11) sharing team scoring honors.

★ ★ ★

Dave Graves grabbed game scoring honors with 17 markers. Dan Freels added 12.

The Trojans moved within five points of the Lions with 1:32 remaining, but Bane and Duncan dumped in three buckets to widen the gap.

MUSTANGS CORRALLED — Orchard Lake St. Mary trimmed Northville's Mustangs last night in the opening round of the Class B district tournament, 67-56. One of the big factors in the victory was the rebounding of John Stepien (12), here going high to take the ball away from Lance Hahn (15) and Jerry Imsland (35).

OBJECT OF ATTENTION—All eyes are centered on the loose basketball during this second-half action last night in the district tournament game between Orchard Lake St. Mary and Northville. Makes Ice Comeback

NEW YORK (UPI) — Tom Johnson of the Boston Bruins was named the National Hockey League's comeback player of the year today by Hockey Illustrated. The veteran defenseman was sidelined for the final month of last season after suffering an eye injury.

Johnson, a first - team NHL All-Star four years ago, was obtained from the Montreal Canadiens last June for the $20,000 waiver price.

PCH vs. Kettering? Maybe!

Ahead on the basketball tournament trail lies a possible showdown between Pontiac Central and unbeaten Kettering for the regional Class A title.

The dream game would be played on the Clarkston floor if the two speedy quintets pass their district examinations.

Both get their first taste of tournament competition tomorrow night — Kettering against Milford at Grand Blanc and PCH vs. Pontiac Northern on the Huskies' court.

A win for Kettering (15-0), the Tri-County champion, would boost the squad into the district finals against the winner of the Clarkston-Grand Blanc game, also set for tomorrow night at Grand Blanc.

PCH defeated the Huskies twice during the regular season and will be favored to make it three in a row. The Chiefs, runnerup in the Saginaw Valley Conference, closed the season with a 12-3 mark.

SHARE SPOTLIGHT

Waterford and Bloomfield Hills will share the local spotlight at PNH tonight in a first-round Class A scrap. Game time is 8 p.m.

The Hills unit earned a share of top honors in the Wayne-Oakland League while building a 14-2 record.

Other local action will have St. Frederick and St. Michael in a Class C meeting at Pontiac Central following a 7 p.m. clash between Waterford Our Lady of Lakes and Detroit Country Day.

Holly has a Class B date with Fowlerville at Fenton, and a win would put the Broncos into the finals against Fenton Friday evening.

★ ★ ★

Other tilts on the Class A slate have Farmington meeting North Farmington in a first-round battle, Mount Clemens dueling L'Anse Creuse at Rochester and Madison playing Fitzgerald at Fitzgerald.

Port Huron St. Stephen, (15-0), top Class D quintet in the AP poll, will meet Richmond St. Augustine at Rochester.

In Class A action tomorrow night, Brother Rice meets Berkley and Seaholm plays Royal Oak Kimball at Seaholm. Walled Lake will meet Redford Union at North Farmington.

Local 'B' games on the Thursday slate will find Orchard Lake St. Mary in a second-round tilt against West Bloomfield at PCH, and a Lutheran West-South Lyon game on the same floor.

Romeo and Avondale will open play at Oxford at 7 p.m. tomorrow, followed by an Imlay City-Royal Oak Shrine game.

Vikings Post 79-67 Triumph

Move Past Blue Jays at North Farmington

Walled Lake advanced to a Thursday meeting with Redford Union last night by quickly overtaking Southfield and posting a 79-67 win at North Farmington's Class A district.

★ ★ ★

The Inter-Lakes League runner-up fell behind, 9-2, but came back with 11 straight points and took control of the game.

The Vikings took the lead for good early in the second quarter as Southfield fell into personal foul trouble.

The winners held a 34-28 intermission lead, and built it to 12 and 14 points for most of the final half.

The Vikings ace forward, George Bullock, sat out much of the final session with four personals. He wound up with 23 points and 16 rebounds.

Teammates John Thomas and Jim Grant had 25 points and 15 rebounds, respectively. Both teams shot just under 40 per cent from the floor, but the Walled Lake quintet hit 31 of 43 free throws to offset the Blue Jays' field goals.

★ ★ ★

Both of Southfield's top pointmakers, Ray Schlaff (23) and Rich Smigielski (11), fouled out.

Ferndale Out of Tourney; ROSM Wins

Last season's state Class A high school tournament saw Ferndale High provide the big surprise by winning all the marbles, and the Eagles provided the first surprise this year.

But this time they did it by losing. The defending champs were opening night losers, 79-65, on their own floor to tough Hamtramck after forging a 12-3 regular season record.

The opening contest at Ferndale saw Detroit Pershing top Hazel Park easily, 68-40. At East Detroit, the home team took Detroit Denby, 80-43, and Harper Woods Notre Dame whipped Detroit Finney, 67-31.

Royal Oak St. Mary was a 70-49 victor over DeLaSalle in the University of Detroit Fieldhouse Class C play.

Ferndale trailed only 33-32 at halftime, but Hamtramck ran up a 56-45 lead in the third quarter and never was in much trouble thereafter.

Ralph Brisker and his brother John both hit 31 points for the winning Cosmos. Bruce Rodwan (26) and George Morey (22) paced Ferndale in a losing cause.

★ ★ ★

RO St. Mary blew open a close contest with DeLaSalle when Tom Wagner garnered 11 points in a 20-10 third quarter for the Irish. He had 23 in the game.

Dick Williamson, as usual, topped East Detroit in its victory. He notched 18 tallies as the Shamrocks began a drive toward a district title and the Class A regional on their floor.

BASKET BOMBING — Dave Phillips (11) of Lake Orion hooks in field goal over the head of Northern's Roger Hayward (22) during first half last night. Phillips led all scorers with 23 points while Hayward had 22 to pace PNH's victory. Mike Burklow (12), Jerry Reese (10) and Larry Frye of Northern watch the shot, while Lake Orion's Bill Hamilton prepares to fall back on defense.

Oxford Ousted by Imlay; Lapeer Conquers Clio

Oxford's Wildcats found Imlay City too much to handle on their own court for the second time this season and bowed from the state Class B district tournament, 60-51, Tuesday.

★ ★ ★

The home team put up a good fight, though, before finally surrendering. It led, 24-23 at halftime, and still was within four points with three minutes to go in the contest.

Imlay City had too much firepower, however, led by diminutive Ed Lomerson's 27 points, and pulled away for the win, its 12th in 17 starts.

Lomerson, with seven field goals, put his team ahead in the third quarter, the Spartans held on to the end.

★ ★ ★

Foul shooting acutally proved the Wildcats' undoing. They missed six of 15 while Imlay made 13 of 15 just in the final period, and 24 of 32 overall.

Oxford had three more field goals in the game. Jim Bates' 16 markers led the home team.

"B" CONTEST

In other district B action of interest, Fenton trimmed Brighton, 64-40, despite a 25-point effort by Bruce Evenson of the Bulldogs.

In Class A, Lapeer posted a 79-63 verdict over Clio, and Grand Blanc took Howell, 74-67.

Lapeer built a 40-24 first half cushion to coast home on. Ron Starking hit 25 points and Dick Fellers 21. Clio drew within eight points in the last period. It was led by Ron Roffell's 23 tallies.

Lapeer now will meet Davison Thursday.

★ ★ ★

The Grand Blanc home court win moves it into the second round Thursday night against Clarkston's Wolves, who have a 14-2 log.

Maples Rip RO Dondero; Bears Win

By L. GARY THORNE

One Birmingham Class A district basketball entry won and another lost last night in the opening round at Birmingham Seaholm High School.

Berkley dumped Birmingham Groves 68-42 in the first contest, while Seaholm stormed past Royal Oak Dondero, 69-50, in the nightcap.

In both encounters there was little doubt as to the outcome.

Groves did manage to contain Berkley in a sloppy first quarter, trailing 13-12 at the buzzer, but the second period saw the Inter-Lakes quintet in the lead 27-20.

The rest was all Berkley.

Credit for the victory will have to go to the foul line accuracy of the Bears. Berkley sank 28 of 33 free throw attempts.

Ron Kent and Gary Ross with 14 points apiece shared scoring honors for the winners, while Bill Stephenson and Bill Logan topped the Groves team with 10 each.

MAPLES SURGE

Seaholm surged to an 11-point lead by the end of the first frame, catching their Border Cities League foes napping.

However, Dondero improved slowly for the next three periods. The Royal Oak squad blossomed from a 9-point output in the first quarter to 16 points in the fourth quarter.

It was not enough to catch the Birmingham cagers.

★ ★ ★

Royal Oak shooters were off and Birmingham marksmen were on. This was the first half tale.

Seaholm hit 16 of 34 field goals, while Dondero sank only 7 of 27 bucket attempts.

Although the Royal Oak average climbed in the later periods, they could not match the defensive play and zip of the Maples.

By the fourth quarter, the two squads were trading baskets on a fairly even basis. Birmingham could relax with a big lead.

AP Lists '64 All-America Cagers

NEW YORK (AP) — Gary Bradds of Ohio State, Cotton Nash of Kentucky, Walt Hazzard of UCLA, Bill Bradley of Princeton and Dave Stallworth of Wichita were named today as the 1964 All-America college basketball team by The Associated Press.

Despite an abundance of good players that made picking difficult in this Olympic year, these five from the Big Ten, Southeastern Conference, Big Six, Ivy League and Missouri Valley easily led in the voting by 371 sports writers and broadcasters.

TOPS VOTE

On the basis of five points for a first-team vote and two points for a second-team vote, Bradds collected a total of 1,199 points. He was named on the first team by 215 voters. Nash was runner-up with 207 firsts and 1,159 total points. Then came Hazzard with 195 firsts and 1,087. All are seniors.

★ ★ ★

Bradly and Stallworth, both juniors, polled 783 and 765, respectively, and each got 123 firsts.

Jeff Mullins of Duke, Cazzie Russell of Michigan, Fred Hetzel of Davidson, Mel Counts of Oregon State and Ron Bonham of Cincinnati were named as the second team.

Howard Komives of Bowling Green, Paul Silas of Creighton, Bill Buntin of Michigan, Barry Kramer of NYU and Jim Barnes of Texas Western formed the third team.

FAIL TO REPEAT

Bonham and Kramer made the 1963 All-America as juniors, along with Bradds, but failed to repeat. The Ohio State star similarly got off to a poor season, but went on a scoring splurge that put him back in the running and also sparked the Buckeyes into contention for the Big Ten crown.

★ ★ ★

Nash, after an off-season as a junior, reverted to the fine form he showed as a sophomore and led Kentucky to the Southeastern Conference title. Hazzard's speed and floor generalship helped put unbeaten UCLA at the top of The Associated Press rankings as well as the Big Six conference.

Bradley shattered virtually all of the Ivy League scoring records at Princeton, while Stallworth paced Wichita's drive for the Missouri Valley crown.

Mullins ranked sixth in the voting with a total of 633 points, followed closely by 620 for Russell, the only sophomore on the first three teams. The voting thereafter fell off to 486 for Hetzel, 444 for Counts and 383 for Bonham.

★ ★ ★

Rick Barry, star junior for Miami of Florida, topped the honorable mention list.

The honorable mention roll also included Bill Cunningham of North Carolina, Wally Jones of Villanova, Gail Goodrich of UCLA, Wayne Estes of Utah State, Bud Koper of Oklahoma City, Nick Werkman of Seton Hall, Danny Schultz of Tennessee, Les Hunter of Chicago Loyola and Willie Murrell of Kansas State.

'Just a Mirage,' Natives Say

Sno' Fun in Cleveland Camp

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — The Cleveland Indians got it all backward. They should have moved their franchise here and held spring training in Cleveland.

Back there, it was clear Tuesday. Not what you'd call sultry, but clear.

Tucson also was clear—Clear up to its ankles in snow. Five inches of it.

UNCOMMON

Nothing unusual about that. No more uncommon than, say, a tidal wave in Kansas.

It was hard to get the natives to talk freely about it. Apparently under orders from high up, they all had the same story: "That's not snow out there. That's just a mirage that took a little chill during the night."

At the suggestion of the Arizona Tourist Bureau, cars from Florida and California were being stopped at the state lines and searched for cameras.

★ ★ ★

To explain pictures that had already leaked out, the bureau issued a statement saying the curious new ground cover was not really snow but a white desert moss that forms to protect grass from the winter sun.

A reporter tried to check this out with the Desert Botanical Society but it was lunch time and the man to talk to had stepped out for a bite.

No, not frost bite, the caller was assured, icily.

There was a report two persons from Miami Beach perished in the snow. But they hadn't frozen. They had died laughing.

★ ★ ★

Some Tucson residents, of course, had never seen snow before and didn't know what to make of it. One man was heard speculating that a careless duck hunter had shot down a cloud.

Birdie Tebbetts, manager of the Indians, went out to inspect his club's training grounds. For an ex - catcher, it was a memorable sight. He had never seen home plate covered so well before.

★ ★ ★

The Indians sent their quartermaster out for five dozen pairs of tennis shoes. Then they split up, the pitchers and catchers going to a gymnasium at nearby Davis - Monathan Air Force Base and the rest of the team working out in a municipal recreation center.

There was no telling when they'd get outside again.

New Pitcher Wants Tiger Starting Job

Egan and Jack Hamilton each are slated to work three.

Dressen plans to carry 12 pitchers during the season. This means that nine will have to be farmed out, released or traded.

Today's workout was shortened so that photographers could take pictures of infielders and outfielders who just reported.

TIGER NOTES

Denny McClain homered and Hank Aguirre filed a protest during yesterday's special pitchers' game at the Detroit Tigers' camp.

Aguirre took part the day before when neither team could score a run against the offerings of the mechanical pitcher and defense of farmhands from Tigertow.

McClain blasted a three-run homer over the 360-foot mark in left yesterday to lead Phil Regan's squad to a 7-0 victory.

★ ★ ★

It was Rookie McClain's second extra base blow in pro baseball. The other was also a homer during his first pitching appearance for the Tigers last September after being recalled from the minors.

"I saw (Mickey) Lolich get a single, so I knew the 'pitcher' was weakening," grinned McClain after circling the bases and receiving congratulations from other pitchers on his team. Lolich is reported to be the poorest hitter on the roster.

Aguirre, who didn't participate yesterday, heard the score and then protested, with mock indignation, "They used a batting cage today. Those popups were hitting the top of the cage. We didn't use the cage yesterday and the catcher caught those popups."

The self-styled "worst hitter in baseball" then challenged the winners to a game, "cage or no cage."

TURNS COOK

Manager Charlie Dressen was practicing his culinary art in the locker room of Henley Field yesterday. Sportswriters and club officials were treated to pancakes and strawberry cobbler for breakfast.

All agreed the hotcakes hit the spot, but one Tiger official said the cobbler was "a little gummy."

Dressen prepared chili for lunch today and is scheduled to come back with more strawberry cobbler Friday.

Browns Obtain Veteran Tackle

Get Modzelewski in NY Swap

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Cleveland Plain Dealer said Wednesday it had learned that the Cleveland Browns have obtained Dick Modzelewski, veteran defensive tackle, from the New York Giants in exchange for Bobby Crespino, an offensive end from Mississippi.

Modzelewski, who weighs 265 pounds, is 32 years old but still is considered one of the top defensive linemen in the National Football League. He is part owner of a Cleveland restaurant and makes his home here. He played collegiate football at Maryland.

Crespino was the Browns' first draft choice three years ago, but has seen little action since he joined the team. He alternated with John Brewer, another former Mississippi star, last season.

Nub's Nob Holds Memorial Races

Nub's Nob Ski Resort, Harbor Springs, will be host for the Mister Charlie Memorial ski races Saturday.

★ ★ ★

This unique race will be open to men and women over 40 years of age.

These veterans are sometimes referred to as the "has-beens" class.

Dedicated to the memory of Mister Charlie Netzorg, the Grand Old Man of Skiing, the race is intended to continue his promotion of the sport among veteran skiers.

★ ★ ★

Mister Charlie, who passed away last summer at the age of 81, was extremely active in the advancement of skiing in the Midwest.

Rakow Told to Be Ready as Starter

LAKELAND — Detroit Tiger pitcher Ed Rakow liked what he heard the first time he talked with Manager Charlie Dressen, and he hasn't had many words with him since.

★ ★ ★

Rakow was told by Dressen he would be a starting pitcher.

"I hope he doesn't change his mind," Rakow said recently. "I think Charlie was happy with me because he knew I could keep the ball low. The only advice he gave me was to work on my slow stuff."

Rakow was 9-10 with Kansas City last season, but had a respectable 3.93 earned run average. His career record shows 25 victories and 36 losses.

"I feel just great about being with Detroit," the righthander said. "But I don't think it will be any easier for me to pitch in Tiger Stadium. The fences are pretty short."

★ ★ ★

"The ball carried pretty well in Kansas City, and we didn't have the outfielders to compare with the ones on this team," he concluded.

Most of Rakow's victories have come at the expense of Washington, Baltimore and Minnesota. He was 4-2 against Detroit before the trade.

The Marimont squad clinched a tie for the title last week when it beat the Marimont B team, 68-31, and will meet Oakland Avenue Presbyterian this week.

The latter pushed runner-up Sunny Vale Chapel last week before dropping a 43-39 verdict, and could hinder the leader's advancement.

'Big O' Gives Cincinnati 5 Big Boost

NEW YORK (AP)—He has the face of a pixie and the approach of a pirate. And he just happens to be the most proficient pro the National Basketball Association has ever known.

"He's something like a good insurance policy," Cincinnati Coach Jack McMahon said today about backcourt star Oscar Robertson.

★ ★ ★

"It's like this," McMahon explained. "In this game, mistakes are bound to happen. But almost every time we make a mistake, Oscar comes up with the ball.

"And when he's got the ball, how much trouble can you be in?"

Robertson contributed 33 points, a dozen assists and was the team's second best rebounder Tuesday night when the Royals fought off New York 117-108 in Madison Square Garden, staying within 2½ games of perennial champion and current front-runner Boston.

★ ★ ★

The Celtics beat Philadelphia 108-94 in Syracuse in the only other game played Tuesday. Tom Heinsohn hit 23 points and Bill Russell grabbed 36 rebounds for the Celtics, who led all the way.

Clay's Punching Brings Fight Award

NEW YORK (AP) — Cassius Clay, the Louisville bard who threw enough words to fill 10 magazines and enough blows to wrest the heavyweight title from Sonny Liston, was named the Fighter of the Month for February by Ring Magazine Wednesday.

★ ★ ★

Liston, a seventh-round technical knockout victim Feb. 25, was dropped to the leading challenger's spot by Ring in releasing its monthly ratings. In other heavyweight division changes, Zora Folley of Chandler, Ariz., and Eddie Machen of Los Angeles each moved up one place, to fourth and fifth respectively, and Britain's Henry Cooper, winner over countryman Brian London, replaced his victim in 10th place.

Spring Trials Set for All-Breed Dogs

The Michigamme English Setter Club will hold a spring fun trial Sunday at the Highland Recreation area and all pointing breed dogs are welcome.

Bowling Newcomers in Keg Team Lead

OAKLAND Calif. (UPI)—The booster division of the American Bowling Congress tournament here finally had a new leader today.

Dutra Richfield, Fremont, Calif., used five men who had never bowled together before and who had never competed in the ABC tournament before. Tuesday night they knocked down 2810 pins. The team thus forged 47 pins ahead of the Oakland Chinese Bowling Club No. 2, which had held the lead since opening day, Feb. 22.

The Fremont entry finished fast with 947 and 945 rounds even though only two games over 200 pins were recorded. But seven games in the 190s also were registered by the new booster king.

★ ★ ★

In the regular team bowling, Carling All Stars, Tacoma, Wash., fired a 1964 record 1068-pin single game on the way to a 3005 series for second place in the division. All Coast of Vancouver, Wash., still leads with 3055.

Jene Le Marr, Dave Pine, and Denny Krick all had over-600 series for Carling. Pine led the team with a 631.

★ ★ ★

In the afternoon session, Bob Nakagari of Los Angeles moved into the regular all events lead with a 1862 total.

Among the first five leaders in each of the various divisions, the only Michigan bowler remaining was Loren Teall of Kalamazoo who ranked second in the regular singles with 670. Nick Junker of Stillwater, Minn., leads the division with 685.

Two Recreation Fives Earn Berths in Finals

White Lake Pharmacy and West Bloomfield Heating moved into the city recreation championship playoff round with victories last night.

West Bloomfield scored 65 points in the second half to whip Southwest Community Club, 97-74, in the Class A game, while White Lake led most of the way to defeat 300 Bowl, 87-55, in Class B.

Southwest led West Bloomfield, 38-29, but wilted under a blistering second half attack as the winners put five men in double figures, led by John Hannett's 25 points.

Booker Hurner matched that for SWCC.

White Lake's Class had four men in twin figures. John Sheffler and Bob Troesch tied for game honors with 17 each, while Jim Hennig had 15 for the losers.

"300" finished the contest with four players among the six suited for the game having five personals.

In Pontiac city action, Becker's downed Messiah Baptist, 61 - 44, and Wilson All-Star trimmed Town and Country, 78-44.

Phillies Sign Pitcher

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Philadelphia Phillies announced Tuesday the signing of pitcher Dallas Green, leaving only outfielders John Callison and Tony Gonzalez unsigned. Green, a right-hander, had a 7-5 record last season and an earned run average of 3.23.

Ex-Diving Star Takes EMU Swimming Post

YPSILANTI (AP) — Eastern Michigan University announced Tuesday it has signed William C. Lewis, a former coach and diving champion, as the school's first swimming coach.

Lewis is a graduate of Miami University of Ohio where he was Mid-American Conference diving champion in the early 1950s. He later coached at Miami and while serving in the U.S. Air Force.

Eastern, which has not competed in intercollegiate swimming because since the 1920's it lacked facilities, is nearing completion of a new physical education plant which includes an olympic size pool.

HEFTY CATCH — Dan Allen of Pontiac, is proud of his 62 pound 8 ounce amberjack he hooked and entered in the Metropolitan Miami Fishing tournament during his Florida vacation recently. He fished from the Seacomber out of the docks of North Miami Beach.

'Penguin Summer' Audubon Film Friday

Full color motion pictures on "Penguin Summer" will be presented by the Pontiac Audubon Society Friday at 8:00 p.m. at Lincoln Junior High School, Montcalm and Summit.

The movies will be narrated by Olin S. Pettingill, Jr., who holds a Ph.D. in ornithology from Cornell University.

Dr. and Mrs. Pettingill were engaged by Walt Disney to film penguins in natural color and they selected the Falkland Island, a British colony 300 miles each of the southern tip of South America to do his work.

The film Penguin Summer shows the color of the islands and life of these social birds.

Donation for the presentation is $1.00 for adults and 50 cents for students.

Young Hurler Patterned for Koufax

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—Jim Maloney is a young Irishman from Fresno, Calif. with a refreshing sense of humor and a fast ball that makes people call him a "right-handed Sandy Koufax."

Fortunately, Maloney already has learned a basic truth of sports—never take yourself too seriously. That can come in handy for a 23-year-old pitcher, who had a 23-7 record for Cincinnati last year, set a club strikeout high of 265 and tied the major league record by striking out eight in a row one night at Milwaukee.

"Last year I told the boys 15 games was my goal," Maloney said at Al Lopez Field. "I figured if I won 15 I would have a tremendous year. Well, I had 15 with two months to go so the boys began writing about 25. I had trouble keeping my mind on a little thing like winning No. 16."

Correction Identifies Kettering Plebe 5

The Tuesday story regarding the undefeated season for the ninth grade basketball team should have referred to Waterford Kettering's and not Waterford's, as stated.

The plebe Captains had a 10-0 mark for the season.

Central Michigan Five Trounces Wayne State

MOUNT PLEASANT (UPI) — Central Michigan University warmed up Tuesday night for its MAC title game against Northern Illinois this Saturday by trouncing Wayne State 80-67 in non-league basketball action.

Both Central and Northern have 5-2 conference records.

Central led all the way against Wayne. Don Edwards led the victors with 17 points but game honors went to Wayne's Tom Carlson who netted 22 points.

The win upped Central's record to 17-6 and the loss dropped Wayne's mark to 6-10.

Cool Reception in Lansing

Lobby Lake Islands

LANSING (AP) — Backers of a proposal to raise an artificial island in the Detroit River for a $30 million recreation area today defended the project from attackers in the House.

★ ★ ★

Representatives last week questioned whether the developers intend to build the plush park described in a colorful brochure as "an entirely new recreational concept."

Some lawmakers voiced suspicions that state permission to create the 34-acre island is sought only to profit from contracts allowing the dumping of dirt from expressway excavations.

Majority leader Joseph Kowalski, D-Detroit, said he had heard one estimate that the developers would "net a million dollars from the landfill" in the coming few years.

He said there are only three fill dumps in the Detroit area, none closer than 12 miles from the heart of the city. He said he has asked the highway department to estimate what the developers could earn through dumping contracts.

★ ★ ★

E. J. Harris, one of three partners in the Peche Island Co., which is asking state permission to fill the river bottom the company owns, answered that the firm will turn over to the state any profits which may result from the filling operation.

CASH OUTLAY

"We do not believe that there will be any profit," he said. "We believe the filling operation will involve a substantial outlay on our part," Harris said.

He said his firm will have to build a retaining wall to assure the fill does not shift as a requisite to city approval.

The plan described by Harris is to raise land in the river on the U. S. side of the international boundary close enough to be connected by footbridge with Peche Island, which lies in Candada and is also owned by the Peche Island Co.

★ ★ ★

A cablecar would connect the Detroit riverfront with the artificial islands which also would have "boatels," or motel-like accommodations adjacent to berths for watercraft.

Harris says the resulting resort would attract tens of thousands of pleasure-seekers to the Detroit area annually.

★ ★ ★

He said it would employ 750 persons on the two islands and would become a major taxpayer for Detroit.

Tagged Birds Are Taken in Texas, Alabama

Michigan-banded woodcock continue to show up from near and far away in recovery reports of the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

★ ★ ★

Two of the long-billed birds marked last summer in Marquette County were taken by hunters in that same locale during the 1963 fall season. Another woodcock banded in Marquette County the year before was found dead in Georgia in 1962.

Sticking close to its nesting place in Michigan was a timber doodle which was tagged last spring at the Gratiot-Saginaw state game area.

The bird was shot during the fall of 1963 about three miles north of the banding site.

An earlier report tells of a woodcock being recovered in Louisiana last winter which had been banded in Osceola County in 1962.

Other records have traced the wanderings of Michigan-banded woodcock to Texas and Alabama.

★ ★ ★

Department bandings are made in cooperation with the Fish and Wildlife Service to track woodcock movements and to measure the proportion of marked birds that are killed by hunters.

Gains Outnumber Losses

Mart Moves Narrowly Higher

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market encountered heavy going early today in a bid for a fourth consecutive daily advance. Prices were irregularly and narrowly higher. Trading was heavy.

Fractional gains outnumbered losses of the same size among leading stocks. Bigger advances by scattered issues seemed nearly all attributable to special circumstances, dividend increases and the like.

Some of the blue chips prominent in yesterday's upward movement settled back a bit on profit taking.

Much interest centered in the non-ferrous metals group and in motors and chemicals. The steels, strong in recent days on optimistic sales and production performance, stood still.

METALS GAIN

Coppers and other metals posted gains on the heels of Chile's decision against pressing for higher prices. Anaconda and Kennecott have big mining operations in Chile, a leading copper producing country.

Building further on yesterday's good showing, the motors, led by Chrysler and General Motors, again were higher, with Ford, American Motors and Studebaker also on the upside.

★ ★ ★

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon stood at 299.7 with industrials up 1.5, rails down .3 and utilities unchanged.

PRICES HIGHER

Prices were irregularly higher on the American Stock Exchange in moderately active trading. The spotlight again

★ ★ ★

Corporate and U.S. Treasury bonds were little changed.

Auto Workers to Get a Raise

Cost of Living Hike Adds Cent an Hour

DETROIT (UPI) — The paychecks of more than 750,000 auto workers will see an increase because of a rise in the cost of living figures released by the Labor Department.

Hourly rated workers will receive increases of one cent an hour beginning next month.

Salaried employes will receive higher cost-of-living allowances for the March-April-May quarter.

The adjustments are based on the consumer price index compiled by the Labor Department.

COSTS RISE

The cost of living edged up to 107.7 per cent of 1957-59 prices, the Labor Department reported yesterday.

That was an increase of one-tenth of 1 per cent over the index for December.

The Detroit index stood at 103.7, an increase of 1.2 per cent over January a year ago and 0.1 per cent over December.

Contracts with auto companies contain escalator clauses that govern the cost of living increases.

NATIONAL FIGURES

The increases are based on national rather than local, figures.

General Motors said the cent-an-hour raise would begin for 360,000 hourly rated workers March 2.

About 100,000 eligible salaried employes will receive an increase of $5 in their quarterly cost of living payment.

The raise will increase the hourly rated workers cost of living allowance to 13 cents an hour and the salaried workers will be getting about $65 for the three-month span.

Grain Mart Prices Maintain Balance

CHICAGO (AP) — Grain futures prices were about equally balanced between firmness and weakness today in early dealings on the Board of Trade.

After starting off in a firm range, old crop wheat futures ran into heavy selling pressure near the end of the first hour and broke five cents a bushel or so within a few minutes. The selling orders poured into the pit following notice of intention to deliver 4 million bushels on December contracts.

After about an hour wheat was 3¾ cents a bushel lower to ⅞ higher, March $2.03; soybeans ½ higher to 1⅞ lower, March $2.68⅛; corn unchanged to ⅜ lower, March $1.19⅞; oats ¼ to ¾ lower, March 64⅝ cents; rye unchanged to ½ lower, March $1.33⅝.

Chrysler, GM Tell of Building Plans

DETROIT (AP)—Both Chrysler Corp. and General Motors Corp. announced plans today for major new buildings in the Detroit area.

Chrysler said its chemical division will built a plant 200 feet wide and 350 feet long in suburban Trenton for manufacture of brake linings.

GM said it will build a giant automobile parts distribution center in Livonia, which borders Detroit on the northwest.

Neither company would give an estimate of cost.

Will Tax Slash Up Inflation or Aid Economy?

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK — Rising prices of coffee and gyrations in the price of sugar mean more to the average family than increased prices of steel and aluminum products. And so do any boosts in commutation or other transportation costs and any increase in medical fees or hospital insurance.

So nervousness over a possible widespread increase in the price of goods and services is being evidenced increasingly. Nor does it help to learn that Britain, having prospered mightily after a cut in taxes, is now threatened with inflation, as are the increasingly affluent economies of many Continental European nations.

DAWSON

★ ★ ★

The United States also is trying a tax cut to boost economic growth. And the pundits, both on Capitol Hill and in banking and industry, are assessing its possible effects on the prices of commodities. These have stayed remarkably stable in recent years

The upward trend in the cost of living has been traced rather to the increased charges for services and the greater costs of distribution of goods.

OF TWO MINDS

The Joint House-Senate Economic Committee is of two minds about the effect of the American tax cut. The $11.5-billion slash, meaning additional consumer buying power, will just boost economic growth but won't set off another inflationary trend—so says the Democratic majority.

The Republican minority says the size of the cut is "likely to result in a buildup of inflationary pressures."

★ ★ ★

If this pressure develops, it could come from several things. A big buying spree could build up demand for goods to a point where industries currently regulated by competition would be free to raise prices.

Or the pressure could come from labor's announced intentions to ask for larger pay increases this year inspired at least in part by the jump in 1963 corporate profits—put at 10 per cent over 1962, with the increase in the 1963 fourth quarter over the third coming to 22 per cent.

PASSED TO CONSUMER

Wage increases, tied in with greater buying demand, might result in higher production costs being passed along to the consumer in the form of higher prices.

Finally, those who fear inflation charge that the price-wage spiral might be given an additional whirl by government financial policies. What is feared is a combination of tax cuts, increased government spending, Treasury deficits, and easy money policies that could spell monetary inflation. The argument is that any marked increase in the supply of money and credit could inspire price boosts and wage demands, eventually wiping out any advantages from cutting federal income tax rates.

★ ★ ★

Both sides—those anticipating greater economic growth and those fearing that the seeds of inflation are being sown—won't be able to prove their points until the actual effects become evident, sometime later this year.

But every price rise in the meantime, or other hike in living costs, will be eyed with increased suspicion.

Lion Coach Dies at 48 of Cancer

ANN ARBOR — Ray (Scooter) McLean, backfield coach of the Detroit Lions, died this morning at 4:30 a.m. of cancer at University Hospital in Ann Arbor.

He was a graduate of St. Anselm's College at Manchester, N.H.

FARMINGTON RESIDENT

A resident of Farmington, McLean was hospitalized Oct. 28th, the day after the Lions defeated the Minnesota Vikings at Tiger Stadium.

Survivors include his wife Alice, and four children, Michael, 9, Maureen, 8, Patty, 6, and George, 3.

At the request of his wife, there will be no public viewing of the body. Funeral services will be held Friday from the First Methodist Church in Birmingham.

Successful Investing

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q) "I am 38 years old with two young children to educate. I make $12,000 a year, own my home, and have $45,000 in insurance and $1,000 in savings. I would like to invest to prepare for my children's education. How much more in savings would you recommend? What stock would you advise as an initial purchase?" E. B.

A) There is no strict rule-of-thumb as regards savings. If your job is secure, I think that $4,000 would be an adequate savings reserve to set up before you do any investing.

I'm also going to suggest that you raise your insurance protection somewhat. Bear in mind that it is not the face value of your policy that matters, but the income that could be derived from that sum if your wife and children had to face life without you.

As an initial purchase I suggest American Telephone — an excellent anchor to any list.

Q) "About two years ago, I began buying life insurance stocks. Do you see any thing ahead that could act to the deteriment of these shares? If so, can you suggest any other group that pays large stock dividends? I don't want cash payments since I'm in a high tax bracket." F. M.

A) I know of nothing ahead that should prove detrimental to life insurance stocks. In fact, increased family formations over the next few years (as a result of the high World War II birth rate) plus rising national income and improving mortality rates all point to continued growth of life company operations.

There is no other group I know of which pays out so little in cash and so much in stock dividends. Life stocks are relatively high now and may face market reverses as they did in 1962.

It might be prudent to set up a reserve in tax-exempt bonds—which would show you a high taxable equivalent yield.

Mr. Spear cannot answer all mail personally but will answer all questions possible in his column.

State Districting Before Jurists

High Court Echoes With Shouts of Hoax

LANSING (AP) — With words like "fraud" and "hoax" still echoing through its staid old chambers, the Michigan Supreme Court assumed the task today of selecting a new legislative districting plan for the state.

The harsh words were used as Democratic and Republican members of the Legislative Apportionment Commission traded charges Tuesday in the climax to two days of oral arguments.

★ ★ ★

A. Robert Kleiner, spokesman for the Democrats, told the court the Constitution's formula for Senate district based 80 per cent on population and 20 per cent on area is "the greatest hoax ever perpetrated on the people of Michigan."

Republicans, whose plan is based on the 80-20 formula, responded with charges that the Democrats' key proposals is "a fraud" upon the "one man, one vote" principle upon which it is predicated.

SAME SUMMATIONS

In summarizing arguments, each side contended its plan would most adequately comply with the State Constitution's requirements—and provide voters with the greater equality.

The court, which indicated in the two-day hearing that it does not approach the apportionment job with enthusiasm, gave no hint of when it may rule. Most observers expect a decision within the next two weeks.

The court inherited the job when the eight-member bipartisan apportionment commission abandoned its efforts to agree on a plan Jan. 31.

Although four plans —three Democratic and one Republican —are before the court, the key ones appear to be the GOP plan and the Democratic "one man, one vote" proposal drafted by Kleiner and Richard Austin of Detroit, a cochairman of the commission.

BRUCKER VIEW

Former Gov. Wilber Brucker, Republican cochairman of the commission, told the court the GOP plan comes closest to giving voters an equal voice.

"Don't accept the Austin-Kleiner plan and think you've got 'one man, one vote'," said Brucker. "The Republican plan, all things considered, is more equitable."

★ ★ ★

He contended the GOP plan most closely adheres to the idea of equality by conforming more to constitutional demands for compactness" of districts and adherence to political boundaries, as well as population, as a districting favor.

The word "fraud" was attached to the Democratic plan by Republican Alfred LaPorte of Standish, one of the commission's four nonlawyers.

Cost Up for Initial Children's Village Units

The cost to construct initial units of Oakland County's proposed Children's Village for court wards went up about $100,000 yesterday when contractors' bids were received.

County officials had estimated that the first three units would cost $646,000 to build.

County auditors today said accepting the low bids would raise the total cost to $775,000, unless all alternates were excluded from the contracts. Then the cost would be $728,000.

The alternates included a partial basement in one of the units, street paving, curbs, gutters, fencing and less durable construction materials in some areas.

The lowest apparent bid for the major contract was submitted by Bundy Construction Co., 1509 S. Telegraph.

However, the county engineer and auditors were to study all bids and report Friday to the ways and means committee of the County Board of Supervisors.

The committee is to make its recommendation whether to award contracts when the board of supervisors meets immediately afterward.

The estimated cost of construction was to be financed with a $323,000 federal grant and an equal amount from the county budget.

CONSTRUCTION DATE

Construction has been scheduled to begin within two weeks and be completed before the end of the year.

Robert Lilly, secretary member of the board of auditors, said the county might be able to raise the additional money by delaying other county projects scheduled for the year.

These include renovations at the Tuberculosis Sanatarium and Medical Care Facility and construction of a new South Oakland Health Center.

Another possibility is that the county will have more money this year than has been budgeted.

★ ★ ★

Last year the county came up with $158,000 more than had been budgeted for in receipts.

Most of the difference was applied to the Childrens Village construction fund to match the federal grant.

Burglars Hit Tavern in White Lake Twp.

Burglars escaped with over $1,000 after breaking into the Alpine Bar and Restaurant in White Lake Township yesterday.

Sheriff detectives said the building at 6707 Highland was entered by knocking a hole in the roof. Footprints showed that at least three men took part in the burglary.

The break-in was discovered in the morning by the owner Rinaldo G. Tesolin.

Firm Is Fined for Violating Liquor Code

The Oak Distributing Co., Inc., 61 Jackson, was one of four firms fined recently by the Michigan Liquor Control Commission for accepting aid and assistance from a brewery.

All four were ordered to pay $150 fines, due March 16. The brewery, Schlitz of Milwaukee, was fined $300, the maximum for the violation.

Walter Noack, head examiner for the commission in Lansing, said the brewery furnished salesmen to the wholesalers.

The salesmen, he said, were calling on accounts for the wholesaler, but were being paid by the brewery.

The other firms are the Fey Distributing Co., Mount Clemens; The Mid-State Products Co., Lansing; and the Wayne Distributing Co., Dearborn Heights.

Another area establishment, the Ortonville Hotel, 1 Mill, Ortonville, was fined $150 by the liquor commission for selling alcoholic beverages to minors and allowing them to consume it on the premises.

Benefits of Tax Cut to Start Tomorrow

By ROGER LANE

NEW YORK (AP) — Federal tax cut benefits will show up in paychecks of millions of Americans starting Thursday.

But the extra money gushing into the nation's spending stream—or savings institutions —probably won't total the $800 million a month estimated by some tax cut backers.

★ ★ ★

A cross-country Associated Press survey showed a scattering of employes, mostly salaried, had asked that benefits be stored up for them.

Most workers apparently looked forward with relish to a reduction in taxes withheld.

PAY BILLS

"I want every nickel I can get my hands on to pay my bills," said a Cleveland employe of the Internal Revenue Service.

Employers reported few hitches in adjusting payroll procedures, especially concerns with automated bookkeeping. Basically, they hereafter will withhold 14 per cent of earnings instead of 18 per cent.

★ ★ ★

"We just changed a few wires in the machine and that was it," said Manley Eubank in Raleigh, N.C. Eubank's Central Data Processing unit runs off paychecks for 10,000 North Carolina state employes.

The $11.5-billion tax cut, largest in U.S. history, provides reductions averaging 19 per cent for 80 million citizens.

NO TROUBLE

"No trouble at all" or "it took only a couple of minutes" were common reports from employers, including such giants as General Motors Corp. with 640,000 employes.

In Salt Lake City, Mountain States Telephone Co. said it was "working frantically" to adjust its equipment. H. J. Heinz Co., with 7,000 employes, said at headquarters in Pittsburgh that its payroll staff was putting in extra work.

In cases such as these, the rub seemed to be in meeting employe requests for some treatment other than reduction in taxes withheld.

In Pittsburgh, Norman Reichert, assistant treasurer at Philco Corp. with a 22,000-man payroll, said he expected some salarie persons to ask for an unchanged withholding level—or for one higher than required by law.

Probation Set for Burglary

Breaking into a Troy restaurant and its cigarette machine in December cost Dennis L. Horback, 21, of 2020 Witherell, Detroit, three years probation yesterday.

Horback, who pleaded guilty Feb. 6, also was ordered by Oakland County Circuit Court Judge Philip Pratt to serve 15 days in jail and pay $150 court costs.

Horback was accused of breaking into Terry's Grill, 3055 Crooks. He previously served a term in a federal reformatory for transporting a stolen car across a state line.

Court Orders Mental Help

A 40-year-old Fenton man convicted Feb. 4 of assault with intent to rape was ordered yesterday by Oakland County Circuit Curt Judge Philip Pratt to obtain psychiatric treatment as a condition of probation.

Herbert E. Glozier was placed on three years probation by Judge Pratt and ordered to pay $500 costs.

Glozier was convicted by a jury of an Oct. 19 assault on a 23-year-old Fenton woman in Holly Township.

Two Cousins Sent to Prison

Two cousins from Detroit were headed today for Jackson where they will serve prison terms for burglarizing a Southfield hardware store last October.

Douglas A. Glover Jr., 22, and James Glover, 19, were sentenced by Oakland County Circuit Judge Philip Pratt.

Douglas was given 2 to 15 years, James 1½ to 15.

★ ★ ★

Both originally were charged with safe robbery at Everett Hardware, 25025 Telegraph, but were allowed to plead guilty Feb. 4 to the lesser charge of breaking and entering in the nighttime.

Police said the pair took $1,200 from two cash drawers and a safe, and $700 in merchandise.

★ ★ ★

They were arrested after a motor among the stolen merchandise was brought into the hardware store for repair by a man who had bought it from the Glovers.

Seek Man in Holdup of Market

Bloomfield Township police are seeking an armed robber who cleaned out the safe at the Food Fair Market in the Miracle Mile shopping center last night.

The holdup occurred shortly before 9 p.m. while the store was still open, police said. An audit was to be conducted today to determine the amount taken.

Manager Carl Richardson of 820 E. Auburn, Avon Township told police he was working in the cashier's cage when the holdup man entered the store.

★ ★ ★

The man told Richardson to put all of the store's money into a paper bag and warned the manager that he had a pistol and was "nervous."

Richardson, who called police as soon as the robber left the store, said he had seen what appeared to be a pistol in the man's left hand.

The robber was described as a dark Negro, about 5 feet 8 inches tall with a medium build. Police said he was wearing a black beret, blue sunglasses, black shoes and dark topcoat and trousers.

★ ★ ★

Other employes and customers in the store at the time told police they did not realize Richardson was being held up.

GOP Disagrees

'Baker Probe Near End'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democrats on the Senate committee looking into Bobby Baker's affairs say the investigation has just about run out of witnesses and is near the end of the road. Republicans don't agree.

Indications were that the Senate Rules Committee will meet in the next few days, possibly Thursday, to decide when to call a halt to its hearings.

Sen. Howard W. Cannon, D Nev., said that unless something new turns up, he thinks the committee has about reached the stage where it should close out the investigation. Other Democrats on the committee have indicated they share this view.

STILL LOT LEFT

In a separate interview, Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., said the Republican members "still have a lot of witnesses we think ought to be called." He declined to name them in advance of an executive session of the committee but he said they have all been mentioned in the testimony.

Special counsel L. P. McLendon said he expects the committee will reach some conclusion this week on closing the investigation.

★ ★ ★

The committee began its probe after Baker resigned under fire last Oct. 7 from his $19,600-a-year post as secretary to the Senate's Democratic majority.

Subpoenas have been issued for two Miami, Fla., men, Benjamin Sigelbaum, a real estate operator; and Jack Cooper, owner of a dog track and other interests, but U.S. marshals have not yet been able to find them.

BAKER DEALINGS

McLendon said he wanted to question the Miami men about dealings with Baker. He said, however, their testimony was not essential to the investigation.

He also said he may want to call Scott I. Peek, former administrative assistant to Sen. George A. Smathers, D - Fla., but wanted to go over a staff investigator's interview with Peek before reaching a decision.

★ ★ ★

Peek has been linked in prior testimony to real estate ventures with Baker in Florida.

The committee was told yesterday that Baker, acting on his own or with others, borrowed nearly $2.8 million in less than five years while serving as secretary to senate Democrats.

The loan — 59 different transactions with 22 banks, financial institutions and other sources — varied from personal loans of a few thousand dollars to six-figure loans taken out to speculate on the stock market, according to committee investigator L. H. Drennan.

Loans taken out by Baker either alone or with partners between Jan. 1, 1959, and Nov. 1, 1963, totaled an estimated $2,784,338, according to records introduced by Drennan.

He said Baker's apparent personal interest in the loans was $1,703,358.

Young Bandit Robs Station

A young bandit held up the Clark Oil service station, 946 Oakland, and escaped with $30 early this morning.

The attendant, Billy Pettit, 34, of 16 Oakland, described the robber as 15 or 16 years old. He carried a sawed-off 22 caliber rifle.

Pettit said the bandit wore a blue sweat shirt pulled up over his head, with slits cut in the material for eyes. The robbery occurred at 6:45 a.m.

County Family Service

Unit Expands Aid Work

Family Service of Oakland County expanded its services and introduced new ones during 1963 to keep pace with a rapidly rising case load, Robert J. Janes, executive director, reported today.

Janes said Family Service aided 2,638 families last year, an 8 per cent increase, about half of them through the Pontiac unit at 132 Franklin Blvd.

"Within these families, 1,135 children were given casework consideration and 159 were sent for direct treatment, the majority of them adolescents."

Arthur C. McIntyre, Family Service president, said a complete review of the agency's work will be given at the 14th annual meeting 8 p.m. tomorrow at Seaholm High School, Birmingham.

MAIN SPEAKER

Main speaker will be Dr. Harvey Burdick associate professor of psychology at Oakland University, who will discuss "Psychological Implications of Race Relations."

McIntyre said last year's program also involved expansion of casework service to the aged.

During 1963 a total of 140 such applications were served, up 81 per cent from the previous year, he stated.

McIntyre said Family Service has about 10 caseworkers to reach the greater Oakland County area.

REQUESTS FOR AID

Besides personal interviews they handle telephone and mail requests for help, and last year appeared before 57 groups to explain their work.

Janes said the agency, partially supported by Pontiac Area United Fund, operated on a 1963 budget of $156,320.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF OUR parents Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Elliott. Mother left us March 4, 1918 and dad joined her Dec. 27, 1957.

Out of sight, but never out of mind.

Their loving daughters.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF ELIZabeth M. McCrum who entered into rest March 4, 1956.
I lost the sunshine and roses;
I lost the heavens of blue;
I lost the beautiful rainbow,
I lost the morning dew.
I lost the angel, who gave me summer the whole winter through.
I lost the gladness that turned into sadness when I lost you.
So fondly remembered and so sadly missed by Husband, Sons and Daughter.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF FRANK Crittenden who past away fifteen years ago March 4, 1949.
And while he lies in peaceful sleep
His memory we shall always keep.

Star Makes 'Run' Show Run Ahead of Critics

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — It's Steve Lawrence's voice and records against the drama critics in the latest Battle of Broadway.

The critics usually win. But Steve has the disc jockeys, the song pluggers and record-promoters, most of the columnists, and an enormous personal following battling for him . . . It's possible that "What Makes Sammy Run?" will do just that . . . RUN!

WILSON

Take it from me, Steve Lawrence became a figure of importance on the Broadway stage in this musical . . . but as Playwright Bud Schulberg was saying after reading the sour notices . . .

"I doubt that serious writers will be interested in writing musicals after these reviews. I guess they want us to go back to musicals like 'Hit the Deck.' Elia Kazen was there and said this was the only musical he'd seen recently which interested him . . . Still . . ."

Steve and his wife Eydie Gorme (who isn't in the show) couldn't help being stung by one review which didn't even mention Steve.

Those who loved the show gave credit to Abe Burrows for play-doctoring; one friend said, "He burrows from within."

★ ★ ★

The huge party at the N.Y. Hilton's Old Bourbon House for "What Makes Sammy Run?" cost the producers $5,000 to $7,000 for about 700 guests. Producer Joe Cates invited about 300 but forgot that some free-loaders bring 20 guests . . . Shirley MacLaine flew in from Nairobi and powwows with Bob Mitchum about what happens to them—and had lunch here with her brother Warren Beatty en route back to Steve Parker in Hollywood . . . She wouldn't mention Mitch or her marriage at all.

★ ★ ★

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Van Johnson's back in Memorial Hospital, with an infection in the leg recently operated on. (He's postponed his March 3 cafe stint at Harrah's Lake Tahoe) . . . Pat O'Brien opens March 12 at Basin St. East, and shure he'll be there St. Patrick's Day . . . Producer Ray Stark, denying his "Funny Girl" star Barbra Streisand is expecting, says he'll give $1,000 to charity if he's wrong.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: Larry Mathews claims the walls in his apartment are so thin that he asked his wife a question—and got four answers.

★ ★ ★

EARL'S PEARLS: It's Alan Dale's line: "Peter, Paul and Mary has made more money than any trio since Adam Clayton Powell.

We've heard the Beatles are worth a lot of money, and that's easy to understand; for instance, look how much they've saved on haircuts. That's earl, brother.

ARA Okays Funds for Aid to Fishing

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Area Redevelopment Administration has approved $102,000 for a technical assistance project to aid the Lake Superior commercial fishing industry, Rep. John B. Bennett, R-Mich., said Tuesday.

★ ★ ★

The aim of the 18-month project, to be carried out by the U. S. Bureau of Commercial Fisheries in cooperation with scientists from Michigan State University, is to expand income and employment through increased efficiency of operations and marketing.

Lightning experiments indicate your chance of being struck by lightning are about 365,000 to one.

GMAC Gives Annual Report

Repossession Rate Drops on New Cars

NEW YORK (UPI)—General Motors Acceptance Corp. (GMAC) reported yesterday the rate of repossessions of new cars it financed on the installment plan declined slightly in 1963 from the previous year but that the rate for used cars rose slightly.

The rates of both new and used car losses increased somewhat over the levels of 1962, but the 1963 loss rates were well below those for 1961 and 1960, GMAC said in its annual report to stockholders.

The average monthly payment on new car financing contracts purchased by GMAC during 1963 was $85, compared with the average of $84 during the preceding three years, the report said.

★ ★ ★

However, the company said that measured as a percentage of average disposable income per household, the average monthly payment on both new and used cars was lower in 1963 than in any postwar year.

TOTAL PAYMENT

Last year total annual payments on all auto instalment debt was 4.8 per cent of the consumer's disposable income, or slightly lower than in 1962.

The report noted that payments on other than auto indebtedness have risen steadily over a period of years, reaching 8.9 per cent of annual disposable income in 1963.

GMAC said the "intense" competition for the auto financing dollar increased in 1963.

The report pointed out that commercial banks in particular expanded their activities in the field as did credit unions and some insurance companies.

'Don't Give Live Pets'

Beware of Easter Cruelty

To the distress of the Humane Society, this is the time of year that chicks and rabbits become a favorite Easter gift for youngsters.

Though the problem is not widespread in Oakland County, Mrs. Martin Davis, director of the Pontiac Humane Society, said invarably after Easter the League at 790 Featherstone receives a number of chicks to care for.

"If the chick hasn't died from mishandling," said Mrs. Davis, "the novelty soon wears off and the children do not give it the attention it needs to survive."

To combat the practice of the Easter chick trade, Mrs. Martin said a countywide attempt will be made in the near future to prohibit the sale of chicks in lots of less than six or possibly more.

Detroit already has such an ordinance.

State law forbids the sale of colored chicks and rabbits.

"I see no point in giving a child a chick or rabbit for a plaything when there are so many other things that would keep him just as happy," said Mrs. Davis.

Tax Tips

(EDITOR'S NOTE — The following income tax information is supplied by the Internal Revenue Service as a public service.)

Q: I have heard that you can deduct health and accident insurance premiums on your income tax return. Is this true and if so, where do you claim the deduction?

A: You may deduct as a medical expense, premiums paid on accident and health insurance policies which provide reimbursement for hospitalization, surgical fees, and other medical expenses. You may not, however, deduct premiums for policies providing reimbursement for loss of earnings. The premiums that qualify are treated as medical expenses and should be listed as such on your return.

For the answer to YOUR question call your local Internal Revenue Service Office.

Turk Accuses Russian Aide of Trying to Buy Military Secrets

ISTANBUL, Turkey (AP)—A Turkish noncommissioned officer accused a member of the Soviet consulate staff Tuesday of trying to obtain secret information from him.

★ ★ ★

Police questioned the Russian Anatoly Rimarchuk, and released him because he had diplomatic immunity.

The police said the soldier, unidentified, told them that during a ferry ride on the Bosporus six weeks ago, Rimarchuk introduced himself as a businessman and they became acquainted.

They met Tuesday in downtown Istanbul. The Russian tried to enlist the Turk as a spy, offering him large payments for classified information.

"This man is a Russian spy" the soldier yelled, grabbing Rimarchuk's arm.

Passersby helped the serviceman to hustle the Russian off to the police.

CAIRO (AP) —The United Arab Republic and Saudi Arabia have agreed to resume diplomatic relations immediately as a step toward settlement of their dispute over the revolution in the Arabian kingdom of Yemen.

★ ★ ★

U.A.R. President Gamal Abdel Nasser and Crown Prince Faisal, the Saudi premier, will meet in Cairo late in April for further talks on the Yemen dispute. The U.A.R. has supported the republican revolutionaries and Saudi Arabia has backed royalist attempts to win back the country.

LONDON (AP) — The Soviet military newspaper Red Star claimed today that American, British and French planes have been buzzing Soviet merchant ships in the eastern Mediterranean.

North Atlantic Treaty Organization warships also had dangerously crossed the paths of the Soviet vessels, the paper said. Five incidents were alleged since Feb. 11.

MODENA, Italy (AP)—The 63 residents of Casine and Villa went without supper Tuesday night, launching a hunger strike until they are assured a road from their Apennine Mountain villages to a highway two miles away.

The two villages are linked to the nearest town, Lama Macogno, by a steep foot path. They say they have been promised a road for years.

OTTAWA (AP)—Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson's Liberal government has announced a sharply increased spending program of nearly $7.6 billion for the 1964-65 fiscal year, up 6.6 per cent over the current year.

★ ★ ★

Most increases are the result of rises in built-in expenditures, such as hospital insurance, family allowances and debt charges which the government cannot control.

The biggest cut in estimates laid before the House of Commons Tuesday was in defense spending, which was reduced by $100 million to a total of $1.5 billion.

Getting Shot Not Part of Job

BOISE, Idaho (AP)—A woman who filed for workmen's compensation after her husband shot her while she was managing a local motel isn't going to get it.

The Idaho Supreme Court yesterday upheld a State Industrial Board decision denying the claim of Mildred V. Duerock of Boise. The board ruled the shooting resulted not from her employment but from domestic troubles.

Mrs. Duerock was wounded by her husband, who then shot and killed himself in living quarters of the motel in May, 1960.

Surprise Alert Due Guardmen

A suprise alert will be received by the Pontiac National Guard within the next 60 days to determine effectiveness of the unit.

The members of Co. A, 2nd Bn., 125th Infantry will assemble at the armory at 57 Water.

"Regulations require a test to be held periodically by all National Guard units," said Col. Robert C. McCall, 3rd brigade commander.

★ ★ ★

Personnel, he said, will be prepared to stay for a pediod of three days but actually will not be held beyond a period of five hours.

PREVIOUS ALERTS

Previous alerts held by the National Guard, Col. McCall said, have shown the capability to assemble 60 per cent of the personnel within the first hour, 80 per cent by the end of the second hour, and 95 per cent at the end of the three hour period.

McCall urged employers to cooperate to the fullest to permit their employes belonging to the National Guard to perform their role in the alert.

Weigh Hoffa Verdict

FINAL RUBY JUROR — This sketch by Wood, Ishmael depicts District Judge J. Frank Wilson swearing in Mrs. Louise Malone as a juror in Dallas County Criminal Court. The grey-haired widow is the 12th juror in the Jack Ruby murder trial.

Deny Motions; Trial for Ruby Set to Begin

State's Witnesses Are Sworn In; More Protests by Defense

DALLAS, (AP) — Dist. Judge Joe B. Brown overruled a series of defense motions in Jack Ruby's murder trial today, clearing the way for the state to present its case against him on a charge of murdering Lee Harvey Oswald.

Oswald had been charged with murdering President John F. Kennedy and Dallas policeman J. D. Tippit.

Brown returned to the bench after a one-day absence because of illness.

The courtroom, already jammed with spectators, was crowded further by about 30 state's witnesses. They were sworn in after Brown denied defense motions that would have delayed the start of the trial.

★ ★ ★

The defense moved again for a change of venue, a mistrial, for more peremptory challenges before the jury was sworn in, and for a mistrial on the grounds that a public relations firm allocated the seats in the courtroom mostly to newsmen rather than the general public.

★ ★ ★

Brown, more brusquely than usual, interrupted chief defense counsel Melvin M. Belli. "We've gone into all that, counsel," the judge said. "Let's get on with the business at hand."

The judge then swore in the state's witnesses. When he finished asking them if they would speak the truth, a chorus of "I do" rumbled through the courtroom.

Belli asked that the rule forbidding witnesses to discuss the case between themselves or anyone else be suspended in the case of Ruby's two sisters.

GETTING ALONG WELL — Three months after the assassination, the widow of President John F. Kennedy is engrossed in her children and memorials to her husband. Jackie Kennedy still has waves of remorse over the tragedy of Dallas, but friends say she is "getting along quite well."

Can't Convict Unless 1 Other Also Is Guilty

Jury Tamper Charge Could Bring 15 Years, Plus Fine of $15,000

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP) — Jurors returned at 9:10 a.m. today to their work of sifting through six weeks of testimony to determine if James R. Hoffa tried to rig another federal court jury.

The Teamsters president says their verdict will determine his future as a labor leader.

The four women and eight men deliberated 2 hours and 35 minutes last night before U.S. Dist. Judge Frank Wilson sent them to bed at 10 a.m.

Hal W. Bullen, 69, a retired sales executive, was elected jury foreman.

★ ★ ★

The jurors are considering six weeks of testimony on government charges that Hoffa, president of the International Teamsters Union, aided and abetted five other men on trial with him in trying to fix the 1962 jury which tried him on a conspiracy charge in Nashville.

NEVER AGREED

The Nashville jury, from which three jurors or prospective jurors were excused on grounds that someone tried to contact them, never was able to agree.

The judge instructed the jurors yesterday that Hoffa cannot be convicted unless at least one of the others also is found guilty.

Judge Wilson also said, "It is not necessary for the government to show that an attempt (to contact a juror) was successful or that an approach actually was made." It is sufficient, he said, if the jury believes the government proved an attempt was made.

Conviction could mean up to 15 years in prison and $15,000 in fines for Hoffa. For the others, it could mean up to 5 years and $5,000 each.

During the trial, which began Jan. 20, Hoffa and the others testified they did nothing wrong. Most of the defense case was aimed at discrediting the testimony of Edward G. Partin, a Baton Rouge, La., Teamsters local official who was the only government witness to link Hoffa with the government case.

● Nicholas J. Tweel, Huntington, W. Va., businessman accused of telephoning a jury list to Nashville bartender Dallas Hall, who testified Tweel asked him "to look around." Asked if he ever supplied a jury list to Hall, Tweel replied, "Absolutely not."

● Allen Dorfman, Chicago insurance broker accused of obtaining the jury list, telephoning it to Tweel so Tweel could relay it to Hall. He denied this emphatically, backing up Tweel's testimony that their telephone conversations involved business.

● Thomas Ewing Parks, handyman for a Nashville funeral home accused of offering $10,000 to the son of Gratin Fields, one of those dismissed from the jury.

Area NAACP Sets Protest

To March in Pontiac on Segregation Issue

A spokesman for the Oakland County Chapter of the NAACP today said its part in a nationwide racial demonstration March 24 will be keyed locally to alleged school segregation.

The protest, termed a "Freedom Demonstration," will involve "thousands of local residents," said Charles Billings, 236 Gage, of the chapter's freedom committee.

"Our demonstration is timed to coincide with other public rallies in Chicago, Philadelphia and throughout Michigan," stated Billings, who is a Detroit school teacher.

★ ★ ★

"We are using this method to show the people of Pontiac and Michigan and the nation that the civil rights movement is going ahead in 1964 and that the actions of last year will continue in even stronger tones."

MARCH PLANS

Billings said plans for the demonstration call for a 4:30 p.m. march from the board of education offices at 40 Patterson, to the steps of City Hall.

There the marchers will be greeted by NAACP leaders, clergymen, and spokesmen for other civil rights groups.

Billings said Mayor Robert A. Landry has confirmed he will take part in the march. Attorney Milton Henry, former city commissioner, will be the main speaker.

★ ★ ★

The demonstration will focus attention on alleged racial segregation in Pontiac schools, according to Billings.

SCHOOL SITUATION

"Seven schools in our city are attended exclusively by Negro students," he said, "while more than that are attended exclusively by whites.

"Psychologists have stated that segregated schools, no matter what the cause, give children an indelible impression of inferiority."

The NAACP Youth Group is participating in the march, and general support for the demonstration "is building up in local civic groups and churches," said Billings.

★ ★ ★

According to Lynn V. Hooe, chapter president, final plans for the demonstration will be made at a special membership meeting March 23.

Tells Spanish Court: Don't Recall Killing

BARCELONA, Spain (UPI)—An American facing a possible death sentence on a murder charge told a court today he did not remember killing the victim because he was "under the influence of drugs."

James Bell Wagner, 22, of Union Beach, N.J., told prosecutor Manuel Casado he entered the office of Barcelona businessman Francisco Rovirosa Closas Nov. 17, 1962, with the intention of robbing him.

"All I remember is that Rovirosa got a knife to defend himself," Wagner said. "From there on I don't remember anything."

Wagner, two other Americans and a Spanish woman face possible execution by the medieval garrote for the knife-and-hammer slaying of Rovirosa.

The three Americans would be the first to die by the iron collar in a Spanish criminal case.

★ ★ ★

In addition to Wagner they are James Stephen Johnson, 31, a native of Bluejacket, Okla., who last lived in Framingham, Mass., and John Joseph Hand, 40, of Southfield, Mich.

The prosecutor interrogated Wagner for over an hour as soon as the trial opened today before a courtroom packed with 500 spectators.

The local press has referred to the trial as the "beatnik murder case" because of the defendants' odd backgrounds.

Wagner, in reply to prosecution questions, said he did not even remember whether he took any money from Rovirosa's office, mutilated Rovirosa's body or cut the telephone cord, as the prosecutor alleged.

The Spanish woman defendant is Maria del Pilar Alfaro Velasco, 32, of Barcelona.

Also implicated are Hand's sister-in-law, Mrs. Nancy Karen Hand, 25, of Southfield, Mich.; and Joan Douglas Bryden, 22, of Northampton, England. Mrs. Hand faces a possible prison sentence of 18 years and Miss Bryden could get 11 years.

JOHN A. RILEY

Press Exec Heads UF Committee

John A. Riley, secretary and advertising director for The Pontiac Press, today was named chairman of the advance gifts committee for the 1964 Pontiac Area United Fund campaign.

In making the appointment, Bruce J. Annett, general campaign chairman of the advance lead the "advance guard" of the annual fund-raising effort.

"As head of the 50-member advanced gifts team, which begins its activities in September, he will help set the pace of the regular campaign which opens a month later," said Annett.

★ ★ ★

Riley has been an advanced gifts solicitor and member of United Fund's publicity committee the past five years. He succeeds Robert M. Critchfield, who last year led the gifts committee to 113 per cent of its goal by raising $102,162.

OTHER POSTS

Riley is presently a director of the Boys Club of Pontiac and is a past director of Oakland County YMCA, both United Fund agencies.

★ ★ ★

He is a director of The Press, director and secretary of Chief Pontiac Photoengraving Co., director of the Downtown Business Association, and is active in the Downtown Pontiac Redevelopment Group and Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce.

1 Killed, 7 Injured in Arkansas Tornado

MAGNOLIA, Ark., (AP) — A tornado swooped down on the Beech Creek community northwest of Magnolia just before dawn today. Police said one person was killed and seven were injured.

Victims were not identified immediately, Don Abbott, radio operator for the Magnolia police, said.

Primary Vote Confirmed by City Election Board

Results of Monday's primaries in six of Pontiac's seven districts were made official yesterday by the city's election board of canvassers.

The tally for each candidate confirmed the count reported by City Clerk Olga Barkeley and published in The Press yesterday.

That made the figures official, although a recount in District 7 has tentatively been scheduled for Friday.

★ ★ ★

Emmett S. Wellbaum, a candidate for the District 7 nomination, submitted a letter formally requesting a recount at the close of yesterday's meeting.

WIN NOMINATION

Mayor Robert A. Landry (454 votes) and Curtis L. Webb won nomination. Webb had 238 votes. Wellbaum had 237 votes.

Wellbaum said he wanted the recount "to clear the air," both for myself and Mr. Webb. This way, both of us will know beyond a doubt that there was no error in vote totals recorded by the voting machines."

A total recount of the district will cost Wellbaum $30. Recount costs are $5 per precinct and there are six precincts in the district.

★ ★ ★

The fee is refunded if a recount results in Wellbaum being nominated. In case of a tie, the city clerk said she wasn't sure what would be done.

★ ★ ★

The City Charter gives the City Commission responsibility for choosing a winner in the event of a tie in the final election April 20. However, there is no such provision for a tie in the primary.

Teen Slayer Is Committed

No Room for Lovaas in State Hospital

Daniel Lovaas, 15-year-old admitted slayer of a Birmingham schoolgirl, was committed yesterday to Pontiac State Hospital for psychiatric care and treatment.

But there's no room for him at the hospital and the treatment will be delayed because the County Children's Center, where Daniel will stay while awaiting admission, has no facilities for it.

Probate Judge Donald E. Adams ordered the commitment after hearing from two psychiatrists and a psychologist that the Lovaas boy is psychotic and homicidal.

★ ★ ★

He said he hoped for an early opening at the hospital. But he said he had no idea how soon it might come.

A YEAR'S WAIT

Some in Daniel's age group now have been waiting more than a year since commitment, he said.

"The state does not provide adequate facilities for persons under 17," Judge Adams said. Daniel's presence at the Children's Center puts "an abnormal burden on both the staff and the building," he said.

The Lovaas boy is kept under closer supervision than other children at the detention home.

Heroine Saves Baby From Death Drop

ROOFTOP DRAMA — All eyes are on Thomas French, standing at the edge of a 60-foot-high London roof yesterday, threatening to plunge to his death, taking his infant son with him. Police edge nearer as a aerial fire ladder is brought into play.

LONDON (AP)—A pretty young policewoman was a heroine today after snatching an infant from the arms of its father as he threatened to jump off a 60-foot building.

For more than an hour yesterday, Thomas French, 31, had been holding his 18-month-old son on the edge of the roof while officer Margaret Cleland, 23, and others tried in vain to persuade him to come down.

Then the policewoman thought of a way to get closer: "I suggested we put on his (the baby's) coat. He agreed and then as I stretched out to put the coat on I snatched the baby and fell back onto the sloping roof."

★ ★ ★

She said French struggled with her "and I thought for a moment we were all going over."

Other officers quickly seized French, strapped him down and took him to a hospital. The baby, unhurt in the scuffle, was cared for by authorities.

French told police his wife had left him and that he had been evicted from his home.

Orchard Lake OKs Cityhood

Village voters in Orchard Lake turned out in record numbers yesterday to accept cityhood for their community by a margin of almost two to one.

They also named nine persons to write a charter for the new unit within 90 days. Backers of the proposition saw it as a method of maintaining the present character of the quiet, residential community. For details see page A-4.

McNamara Set for Another Trip to S. Viet Nam

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara will take off for South Viet Nam Thursday night, cool to proposals to carry the war against Communist North Viet Nam.

Anything but a "soft liner," McNamara is understood to feel the South Vietnamese forces will win or lose the fight by the way they go about eliminating the Communist insurgents inside their own country.

The defense chief is said to believe the Vietnamese lack the capability to carry on a full-scale campaign in South Viet Nam and at the same time strike into the north.

McNamara reportedly is against sending Americans on any such operations into North Viet Nam.

VIET POSITION

It is his position, both in public and private, that the U.S. military men — 15,500 of them now—are in South Viet Nam as trainers and advisers, and that the fighting must be done by the Vietnamese.

McNamara recognizes that guerrilla operations or air strikes into Red territory might slow supplies and reinforcements to Communist elements inside South Viet Nam.

★ ★ ★

But he contends this will not solve the basic problem that has plagued the U.S.-supported effort since it began on a big scale more than two years ago.

That problem: how to win the backing of the people in the countryside for the government in Saigon.

EYE SUPPORT

Evidence reaching the Pentagon since the most recent coup a little over a month ago has not been conclusive, in the view of top officials, as to whether the Vietnamese people have rallied to Maj. Gen. Nguyen Khana, the new premier, any more than they stood behind the two governments before Khanh.

One thing Khanh is doing pleases U.S. authorities — he is going out into the country on a meet-the-people campaign.

★ ★ ★

One of McNamara's chief aims in his fourth trip halfway around the world is to find what can be done to get the war back on the track again—to get the machinery of government and command working after the disruption of the second coup in three months.

★ ★ ★

It appears unlikely that U.S. policy will take any spectacular new turn as a result of McNamara's visit. It is considered highly improbable that any U.S. combat troops will be sent to South Viet Nam.

House Passes ADC-U Bill

LANSING (AP) — The House passed and sent to the Senate Tuesday a revised version of the bill to qualify Michigan for federal aid to dependent children of the unemployed (ADC-U).

The proposal went through the House on a 95-13 vote after two amendments proposed by Democrats were rejected on party-line votes.

On passage, the bill was opposed by 13 House Republicans, including Speaker Pro Tem Wilfred Bassett, R-Jackson. He said the proposal was "setting up a new concept of welfare."

The bill, a key part of Gov. George W. Romney's program, is designed to replace a law approved by the legislature in 1963 but later rejected by federal officials because its eligibility provisions were too restrictive.

Romney called for the revised version in his "State of the State" message to lawmakers in January.

It would qualify several thousand Michigan families now on general welfare for ADC-U funds and shift a burden of some $5 million from local government welfare lists to federal rolls.

Suspect Freed in Hit-Run

A suspect in the hit-and-run death of a four-year-old boy was released yesterday by Pontiac police.

The 23-year-old man had been given two lie detector tests since he was taken into custody Sunday.

He was questioned about the death of Kenneth H. Duncan, struck down by one car at Bagley and Wessen Feb. 22, and then run over by another. Neither driver stopped.

The youngster was the son of Mrs. Hattie Duncan, 330 Franklin Road.

West Confident Russia Won't Veto Cyprus Plan

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (UPI) — Approval of a compromise plan for sending a U.N. peace force to Cyprus was assured today when the Soviet Union announced it would vote for the plan despite its objections to some provisions.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Western diplomats expressed confidence today that the Soviet Union would not veto a widely backed compromise plan authorizing a U.N. peace force for Cyprus.

Diplomatic sources said the Russians were far from satisfied with the plan sponsored by five elected members of the Security Council. But because the Greek Cypriot government had decided to accept the plan, the Russians were expected to abstain in the council vote today rather than kill the proposed resolution.

ATHENS, Greece (AP) — Students cut classes today for another series of Cypress demonstrations in this Greek capital. For the third day in a row several thousand students marched through the streets denouncing the United States and Britain.

In Athens, 2,000 Greeks burned an effigy of President Johnson in front of the U.S. Embassy Tuesday night. Thousands of others poured through the streets shouting denunciations of the United States and Britain for allegedly taking Turkey's side in the dispute.

They roared "Bravo Russia," "Johnson-Al Capone" and "Out with the fleet." Units of the U.S. 6th Fleet are holding joint exercises with Turkey in the Aegean Sea.

On the Greek island of Rhodes, off the Turkish coast, 3,000 high school students stoned the U.S. Information Agency building, the Turkish consulate and the U.S. Coast Guard vessel Courier, which serves as a transmitter for the Voice of America. They also overturned a car belonging to the Courier at dockside.

The students hooted down a government official who pleaded, "The Americans are our friends." Fights broke out when police moved in to quell the disorders.

★ ★ ★

Greek Premier George Papandreous ordered police not to interfere with the demonstrations but said he wanted all foreign embassies and property protected from "every act of violence and vileness."

"I am proud of the reports of Greek youth and the Greek people in general making patriotic demonstrations for Cyprus," Papandreou said.

COMPROMISE PLAN

Secretary-General U Thant appeared confident the Security Council would approve the compromise plan authorizing him to set up an international peace force for Cyprus and to appoint a mediator to seek a solution in the constitutional strife between the island's Greek and Turkish communities.

★ ★ ★

France, another council member with a veto, also had reservations about the peace plan, asserting it "merely gets at the effects and not the cause" of the strife.

Lion Coach Dies at 48 of Cancer

ANN ARBOR — Ray (Scooter) McLean, backfield coach of the Detroit Lions, died this morning at 4:30 a.m. of cancer at University Hospital in Ann Arbor.

McLean, 48, came to the Lions in 1959 after eight years with the Green Bay Packers, seven as assistant coach and as head coach in 1958.

As a player, McLean was a halfback and teammate of Lions' coach George Wilson while with the Chicago Bears during the 1940s.

★ ★ ★

He was a graduate of St. Anselm's College at Manchester, N.H.

FARMINGTON RESIDENT

A resident of Farmington, McLean was hospitalized Oct. 28th, the day after the Lions defeated the Minnesota Vikings at Tiger Stadium.

Survivors include his wife Alice, and four children, Michael 9, Maureen 8, Patty 6 and George 3.

★ ★ ★

At the request of his wife, there will be no public viewing of the body. Funeral services will be held Friday from the First Methodist Church in Birmingham.

Castro Volunteers to Turn On Water

HAVANA, Cuba (AP)—Prime Minister Fidel Castro said early today he is ready to supply the U.S. naval base at Guantanamo Bay with water once again.

★ ★ ★

"Cuba considers the incident of the water at Guantanamo Bay closed and is ready to supply the base with water once again," the prime minister told foreign newsmen at a Moroccan Embassy reception.

"It is up to the Americans to use that water or not," he added.

CUT OFF WATER

Castro cut off Guantanamo's water supply on Feb. 6 in retaliation for the arrest of 38 Cuban fishermen and the seizure of four trawlers in American waters off Florida.

★ ★ ★

Twenty-nine of the fishermen were returned to Cuba Feb. 21 with their boats after the four captains paid fines for poaching. Two fishermen chose asylum in the United States. The other seven were freed as juveniles and returned to Havana.

★ ★ ★

The U.S. government is not expected to take up Castro's offer to turn the base's water back on. It has plans to make the base self-sufficient with the use of desalinization plants that are to be built in the next year. The base is being supplied by tankers with water from Florida.

Castro also had another swipe for Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., who after the water was cut off said the United States should send a battalion of Marines to turn the water on.

ROOTING FOR BARRY

Asked what he thought about the U.S. presidential race, Castro replied: "I am rooting for Goldwater because I believe he will lose votes that way. I am even ready to send him a small contribution for his campaign.

"I think Goldwater will not win in the election because the American people, like any other people, want peace and they don't want to die. The Republican programs are aggressive and stupid and I believe that they will lose."

In recent months, the Godfrey boy has been back to his Bloomfield Township home on weekend and holiday visits as part of his treatment.

The Lovaas boy should be hospitalized and might well respond to treatment, the psychiatrists and Juvenile Court psychologist John McBride told Judge Adams.

Daniel had admitted to the psychiatrists that he fatally stabbed 14-year-old Nancy Jean Jones in the back as she walked to school on a fog-shrouded Birmingham street the morning of Jan. 24.

The mental health commitment for Daniel was asked by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Lovaas Jr., of 1042 Smith, Birmingham.

Daniel, a 10th grader at Birmingham's Seaholm High School, was found guilty of the killing in Juvenile Court last week.

Car Kills Girl Fleeing Dogs

A little girl, running from a pack of dogs, was fatally injured yesterday when she ran into the path of a car.

Dead is Cleester Walker, 6, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Walker, 303 South Boulevard east.

The youngster died of chest injuries at Pontiac General Hospital three hours after the 4:45 p.m. accident on Franklin Road near Ditmar.

The child became frightened when she saw the dogs, an older sister, Emma, 14, told Pontiac police, and darted into the street.

The driver of the car, Robert L. Bannister, 20, of 671 Cameron, said he saw the girl but not in time to stop. Police said the car skidded into the girl.

Bannister was released by police after questioning. He was to make a statement to the prosecutor today.

Jury Trial Set in Tree Case

Bloomfield Twp. Man in Court March 17

The case of John M. Williams and his 1,000 leftover Christmas trees will be weighed by a Bloomfield Township jury.

Williams, 1695 Ward, pleaded innocent Feb. 25 to a charge of storing combustible material on a residential lot and a public thoroughfare.

Bloomfield Township Justice of the Peace Mrs. Alice Gilbert yesterday postponed the trial to March 17.

★ ★ ★

Williams became the possessor of the already-cut forest shortly after the holidays when he told a group of boys selling Christmas trees they could bring their unsold inventory to his place.

UNWANTED TREES

The 68-year-old General Motors retiree has gathered 100 or so of the unwanted trees every winter for the last 15 years.

He uses them as cover for wildlife on his 2.5 acres, then chops them up to provide mulch for his strawberries in the spring.

Bloomfield Township Building Inspector Harold School said he had warned Williams about the danger of the piled trees weeks before signing a complaint against him.

★ ★ ★

Officially notified, Williams obtained a burning permit and some crude oil and attempted to burn up the trees. But they, unlike their kind which had spent the Yule season in dry homes, refused to catch the spark.

BETTER LUCK

With the warmer days of the last week, Williams has had better luck. By starting fires in old tires, he has managed to watch about half of the trees consumed in flames.

The rest he has moved off the Delrose Road right of way and away from his house, where they had been deemed to be both traffic and fire hazards.

★ ★ ★

He said he is chopping up the remaining trees, diminishing the substance of his problem while waiting to tell his story to a jury.

tion that they will be witnesses for the accused man.

NO EXCUSE

"No sir, I am not going to excuse them," Brown said. Belli also asked that the rule be suspended to permit Dr. Manfred Guttmacher, Baltimore psychiatrist, to hear the testimony in court.

The prosecution objected and Brown said from the bench, "No doctors will be excused."

Belli then asked for a five-minute recess so that the defense attorneys could talk privately with Ruby and his sisters. Brown granted the request.

★ ★ ★

While Brown was absent yesterday with a cold, Judge J. Frank Wilson sat for him while the jury was completed.

INSANITY HEARING

Asst. defense attorney Joe Tonahill, noting that Ruby has not yet been arraigned, filed a motion for an insanity hearing. He contended Ruby was not sane when he shot Oswald and is not sane now.

Brown overruled the motion for an insanity hearing.

Meanwhile the Texas Supreme Court refused for the second time to hear arguments on the legal issue of whether television viewers who saw Ruby shoot Oswald are witnesses and thus ineligible to serve on the jury.

★ ★ ★

Eleven of the 12 jurors said they saw the shooting on TV.

BREAKS PRECEDENCE

The return of Judge Brown to the case appeared to be a first in Texas. Legal authorities in the capital in Austin and Dist. Atty. Henry M. Wade said they know of no previous case in which a judge has been replaced in a trial and they returned to preside over it.

"I feel better," the judge said as he walked through a crowd of reporters and photographers outside the courtroom.

City Offers 3 Buildings for Polio Immunization

BIRMINGHAM — The City Commission here has offered to do its part in a proposed program to immunize the entire population of Oakland County against polio.

The free service will be offered simultaneously by the medical societies of Oakland, Wayne and Macomb counties.

Birmingham has offered the use of its two fire stations and municipal building as vaccination stations.

★ ★ ★

The live oral vaccine will be administered here on two Sundays, April 19 and June 14.

STATION STAFFS

The medical society hopes to handle between 6,000 and 8,000 persons at each of the stations. Each will be staffed by a physician, nurse, pharmacist and volunteers for record taking. Others will be asked to do clean up work and to handle traffic in the areas.

Dr. Worth W. Henderson, public health committee chairman for the Oakland County Medical Society, noted the oral vaccine is preferred because of ease of administration. Only two feedings are required and it provides protection against all three types of polio.

The vaccine has been used by the majority of the population of Ohio, Philadelphia, New York City, Los Angeles, areas of Texas and Florida, according to Henderson.

The new concepts in nursery and kindergarten education offered at City and Country School of Bloomfield Hills will be featured in a forthcoming issue of Look magazine.

★ ★ ★

"Julie Wants to Learn" is the title of the article scheduled for the March 10 issue of Look.

It relates to the gifted child education program introduced at the school by Mrs. Annemarie Roeper, director.

PRINCIPAL'S OFFICE — This was the scene at Douglass Houghton School, Williams Lake and Elizabeth Lake Roads, after it was broken into last night. State police from the Pontiac post were investigating today.

School Rooms Are Vandalized

The principal's office and a teachers' conference room at Douglass Houghton Elementary School in White Lake Township were left in a shambles last night by at least one intruder who broke into the building.

The principal, Mrs. Beatrice Arnold, said two typewriters were missing from the reception room to her office this morning.

Pontiac state police were questioning a 13-year-old boy who attends the school.

Officers said they could find footprints of only one youth inside the building this morning when the break-in was discovered by a custodian at 7:20 a.m.

WINDOW SMASHED

Entry had been gained by smashing a classroom window. Several interior windows and two glass doors leading to the principal's office also were smashed.

The office and conference room were littered with papers, books and debris dumped from shelves, desk drawers and files.

Custodian Roger Arcand said the school building had last been checked about midnight just before the night custodian went off duty.

★ ★ ★

Two exterior glass doors of the school had been riddled with pellets over the weekend. State police also were checking on these today.

Birmingham Sued in Golfing Injury

The City of Birmingham and one of its 14-year-old residents are defendants in a $200,000 damage suit filed yesterday by a Troy man who lost his left eye as a result of a golfing accident.

★ ★ ★

Robert C. Wesler, 35, of 6600 Livernois is seeking $150,000 and his wife, Jacqueline, $50,000 from the city and Scott Albers, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton H. Albers, of 1839 Sheffield.

Wesler alleged he was struck in the eye by a golf ball hit by Scott at the city's Springdale Golf Course last Aug. 26.

Cost Up for Initial Children's Village Units

The cost to construct initial units of Oakland County's proposed Children's Village for court wards went up about $100,000 yesterday when contractors' bids were received.

County officials had estimated that the first three units would cost $646,000 to build.

County auditors today said accepting the low bids would raise the total cost to $775,000, unless all alternates were excluded from the contracts. Then the cost would be $728,000.

The alternates included a partial basement in one of the units, street paving, curbs, gutters, fencing and less durable construction materials in some areas.

The lowest apparent bid for the major contract was submitted by Bundy Construction Co., 1509 S. Telegraph.

However, the county engineer and auditors were to study all bids and report Friday to the ways and means committee of the County Board of Supervisors.

The committee is to make its recommendation whether to award contracts when the board of supervisors meets immediately afterward.

The estimated cost of construction was to be financed with a $323,000 federal grant and an equal amount from the county budget.

CONSTRUCTION DATE

Construction has been scheduled to begin within two weeks and be completed before the end of the year.

Robert Lilly, secretary member of the board of auditors, said the county might be able to raise the additional money by delaying other county projects scheduled for the year.

These include renovations at the Tuberculosis Sanatarium and Medical Care Facility and construction of a new South Oakland Health Center.

Another possibility is that the county will have more money this year than has been budgeted.

★ ★ ★

Last year the county came up with $158,000 more than had been budgeted for in receipts.

Most of the difference was applied to the Childrens Village construction fund to match the federal grant.

Burglars Hit Tavern in White Lake Twp.

Burglars escaped with over $1,000 after breaking into the Alpine Bar and Restaurant in White Lake Township yesterday.

Sheriff detectives said the building at 6707 Highland was entered by knocking a hole in the roof. Footprints showed that at least three men took part in the burglary.

The break-in was discovered in the morning by the owner Rinaldo G. Tesolin.

Firm Is Fined for Violating Liquor Code

The Oak Distributing Co., Inc., 61 Jackson, was one of four firms fined recently by the Michigan Liquor Control Commission for accepting aid and assistance from a brewery.

All four were ordered to pay $150 fines, due March 16. The brewery, Schlitz of Milwaukee, was fined $300, the maximum for the violation.

Walter Noack, head examiner for the commission in Lansing, said the brewery furnished salesmen to the wholesalers.

The salesmen, he said, were wholesaler, but were being paid by the brewery.

OTHER FIRMS

The other firms are the Fey Distributing Co., Mount Clemens; The Mid-State Products Co., Lansing; and the Wayne Distributing Co., Dearborn Heights.

Another area establishment, the Ortonville Hotel, 1 Mill, Ortonville, was fined $150 by the liquor commission for selling alcoholic beverages to minors and allowing them to consume it on the premises.

Order Man to Hospital for Robbery

A 21-year-old Detroit man was ordered returned to Ypsilanti State Hospital yesterday for his part in the December armed robbery of a Troy party store while he was away from the hospital on convalescent status.

Clarence T. Waters, who was a patient at the hospital from age 13 to 20, also was placed on five years' probation by Oakland County Circuit Court Judge Philip Pratt.

John P. Lynch, 20, also of Detroit, was ordered to obtain psychiatric treatment as a condition of his five years' probation. Lynch also was to pay $150 court costs.

Waters and Lynch pleaded guilty to assault with intent to rob, being armed.

Police said they and three others held up the Maple Party Store and took $270.

The other three, one of whom was dressed as a woman and brandishing a pistol in the Troy robbery, are currently in the custody of Detroit police for other robberies.

Rapist Gets 3-10 for 2nd Offense

Found guilty of assault with intent to rape twice within a year, Daniel L. Inscho, 24, of Mount Clemens was sent to the state prison at Jackson for 3 to 10 years yesterday by Oakland County Circuit Judge Philip Pratt.

Inscho, of 20175 Williamson, pleaded guilty Feb. 6 to an attempted rape charge that accused him of attacking a waitress at a Waterford restaurant as she left work the night of Nov. 12.

Benefits of Tax Cut to Start Tomorrow

By ROGER LANE

NEW YORK (AP) — Federal tax cut benefits will show up in paychecks of millions of Americans starting Thursday.

But the extra money gushing into the nation's spending stream—or savings institutions—probably won't total the $800 million a month estimated by some tax cut backers.

★ ★ ★

A cross-country Associated Press survey showed a scattering of employes, mostly salaried, had asked that benefits be stored up for them.

Most workers apparently looked forward with relish to a reduction in taxes withheld.

PAY BILLS

"I want every nickel I can get my hands on to pay my bills," said a Cleveland employe of the Internal Revenue Service.

Employers reported few hitches in adjusting payroll procedures, especially concerns with automated bookkeeping. Basically, they hereafter will withhold 14 per cent of earnings instead of 18 per cent.

★ ★ ★

"We just changed a few wires in the machine and that was it," said Manley Eubank in Raleigh, N.C. Eubank's Central Data Processing unit runs off paychecks for 10,000 North Carolina state employes.

The $11.5-billion tax cut, largest in U.S. history, provides reductions averaging 19 per cent for 80 million citizens.

NO TROUBLE

"No trouble at all" or "it took only a couple of minutes" were common reports from employers, including such giants as General Motors Corp. with 640,000 employes.

In Salt Lake City, Mountain States Telephone Co. said it was "working frantically" to adjust its equipment. H. J. Heinz Co., with 7,000 employes, said at headquarters in Pittsburgh that its payroll staff was putting in extra work.

In cases such as these, the rub seemed to be in meeting employe requests for some treatment other than reduction in taxes withheld.

In Pittsburgh, Norman Reichert, assistant treasurer at Philco Corp. with a 22,000-man payroll, said he expected some salarie persons to ask for an unchanged withholding level—or for one higher than required by law.

Probation Set for Burglary

Breaking into a Troy restaurant and its cigarette machine in December cost Dennis L. Horback, 21, of 2020 Witherell, Detroit, three years probation yesterday.

Horback, who pleaded guilty Feb. 6, also was ordered by Oakland County Circuit Court Judge Philip Pratt to serve 15 days in jail and pay $150 court costs.

Horback was accused of breaking into Terry's Grill, 3055 Crooks. He previously served a term in a federal reformatory for transporting a stolen car across a state line.

Court Orders Mental Help

A 40-year-old Fenton man convicted Feb. 4 of assault with intent to rape was ordered yesterday by Oakland County Circuit Curt Judge Philip Pratt to obtain psychiatric treatment as a condition of probation.

Herbert E. Glozier was placed on three years probation by Judge Pratt and ordered to pay $500 costs.

Glozier was convicted by a jury of an Oct. 19 assault on a 23-year-old Fenton woman in Holly Township.

Two Cousins Sent to Prison

Two cousins from Detroit were headed today for Jackson where they will serve prison terms for burglarizing a Southfield hardware store last October.

Douglas A. Glover Jr., 22, and James Glover, 19, were sentenced by Oakland County Circuit Judge Philip Pratt.

Douglas was given 2 to 15 years, James 1½ to 15.

★ ★ ★

Both originally were charged with safe robbery at Everett Hardware, 25025 Telegraph, but were allowed to plead guilty Feb. 4 to the lesser charge of breaking and entering in the nighttime.

Police said the pair took $1,200 from two cash drawers and a safe, and $700 in merchandise.

★ ★ ★

They were arrested after a motor among the stolen merchandise was brought into the hardware store for repair by a man who had bought it from the Glovers.

Seek Man in Holdup of Market

Bloomfield Township police are seeking an armed robber who cleaned out the safe at the Food Fair Market in the Miracle Mile shopping center last night.

The holdup occurred shortly before 9 p.m. while the store was still open, police said. An audit was to be conducted today to determine the amount taken.

Manager Carl Richardson of 820 E. Auburn, Rochester, told police he was working in the cashier's cage when the holdup man entered the store.

★ ★ ★

The man told Richardson to put all of the store's money into a paper bag and warned the manager that he had a revolver and was "nervous."

Richardson, who called police as soon as the robber left the store, said he had seen what appeared to be a revolver in the man's left hand.

The robber was described as a dark Negro, about 5 feet 8 inches tall with a medium build. Police said he was wearing a black beret, blue sunglasses, black shoes and dark topcoat and trousers.

Other employes and customers in the store at the time told police they did not realize Richardson was being held up.

GOP Disagrees

'Baker Probe Near End'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democrats on the Senate committee looking into Bobby Baker's affairs say the investigation has just about run out of witnesses and is near the end of the road. Republicans don't agree.

Indications were that the Senate Rules Committee will meet in the next few days, possibly Thursday, to decide when to call a halt to its hearings.

Sen. Howard W. Cannon, D-Nev., said that unless something new turns up, he thinks the committee has about reached the stage where it should close out the investigation. Other Democrats on the committee have indicated they share this view.

STILL LOT LEFT

In a separate interview, Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., said the Republican members "still have a lot of witnesses we think ought to be called." He declined to name them in advance of an executive session of the committee but he said they have all been mentioned in the testimony.

Special counsel L. P. McLendon said he expects the committee will reach some conclusion this week on closing the investigation.

★ ★ ★

The committee began its probe after Baker resigned under fire last Oct. 7 from his $19,600-a-year post as secretary to the Senate's Democratic majority.

Subpoenas have been issued for two Miami, Fla., men, Benjamin Sigelbaum, a real estate operator; and Jack Cooper, owner of a dog track and other interests, but U.S. marshals have not yet been able to find them.

BAKER DEALINGS

McLendon said he wanted to question the Miami men about dealings with Baker. He said, however, their testimony was not essential to the investigation.

He also said he may want to call Scott I. Peek, former administrative assistant to Sen. George A. Smathers, D-Fla., but wanted to go over a staff investigator's interview with Peek before reaching a decision.

★ ★ ★

Peek has been linked in prior testimony to real estate ventures with Baker in Florida.

The committee was told yesterday that Baker, acting on his own or with others, borrowed nearly $2.8 million in less than five years while serving as secretary to senate Democrats.

The loan — 59 different transactions with 22 banks, financial institutions and other sources — varied from personal loans of a few thousand dollars to six-figure loans taken out to speculate on the stock market, according to committee investigator L. H. Drennan.

Loans taken out by Baker either alone or with partners between Jan. 1, 1959, and Nov. 1, 1963, totaled an estimated $2,784,338, according to records introduced by Drennan.

He said Baker's apparent personal interest in the loans was $1,703,358.

Young Bandit Robs Station

A young bandit held up the Clark Oil service station, 946 Oakland, and escaped with $30 early this morning.

The attendant, Billy Pettit, 34, of 16 Oakland, described the robber as 15 or 16 years old. He carried a sawed-off 22 caliber rifle.

Pettit said the bandit wore a blue sweat shirt pulled up over his head, with slits cut in the material for eyes. The robbery occurred at 6:45 a.m.

County Family Service

Unit Expands Aid Work

Family Service of Oakland County expanded its services and introduced new ones during 1963 to keep pace with a rapidly rising case load, Robert J. Janes, executive director, reported today.

Janes said Family Service aided 2,638 families last year, an 8 per cent increase, about half of them through the Pontiac unit at 132 Franklin Blvd.

"Within these families, 1,135 children were given casework consideration and 159 were sent for direct treatment, the majority of them adolescents."

Arthur C. McIntyre, Family Service president, said a complete review of the agency's work will be given at the 14th annual meeting 8 p.m. tomorrow at Seaholm High School, Birmingham.

MAIN SPEAKER

Main speaker will be Dr. Harvey Burdick associate professor of psychology at Oakland University, who will discuss "Psychological Implications of Race Relations."

McIntyre said last year's program also involved expansion of casework service to the aged.

During 1963 a total of 140 such applications were served, up 81 per cent from the previous year, he stated.

McIntyre said Family Service has about 10 caseworkers to reach the greater Oakland County area.

REQUESTS FOR AID

Besides personal interviews they handle telephone and mail requests for help, and last year appeared before 57 groups to explain their work.

Janes said the agency, partially supported by Pontiac Area United Fund, operated on a 1963 budget of $156,320.
