U.S. Considers Supporting U.N. in Any Sanctions Against Israelis

Before Crucial Meeting

STATES U. S. POSITION — Secretary of State John Foster Dulles prepares for today's high-level conference as he tells newsmen at a Tuesday press meeting that Israel has a right to send vessels into the Gulf of Aqaba if they are engaged in "innocent passage."

Federal Cutback May Not Affect Postal Building

Urgent Local Needs Offset Other Pressures —Reports Broomfield

A government ordered cutback in federal building to reduce inflationary pressures probably will not hit the new post office building for Pontiac, Congressman William S. Broomfield said today.

"I have checked with a high post office authority, and he said the project will not be affected," Broomfield said.

Plans for the West Huron Street building are nearly completed, and bids may be taken about March 1, he added.

Possible delay in the construction of the new building was eyed last week, when the General Service Administration announced the plan, designed to temporarily hold up projects which could be delayed without difficulty.

Another reason the local project may not be delayed is that the land is already under option, which will expire shortly, Broomfield said.

NEED FACILITIES

The great need for the additional postal facilities, as shown in a survey here last year, is a further factor being considered in possible removal of Pontiac's project from the cutback list.

Plans for the new structure were announced in February, 1956. The site under option is on West Huron Street, between Chippewa and Genessee.

The present downtown building will remain in service upon the completion of the new structure, which will include more adequate mail handling and vehicle loading facilities.

FLAMES ATTACK BOATS— Hundreds of boat hulls burn in a storage yard near Plant No. 3 of Grand Rapids' Wagemaker Boat Co. where a fast-moving blaze did an estimated $750,000 in fire and smoke damage yesterday afternoon.

$750,000 Blaze Sweeps Grand Rapids Boat Plant

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Fires struck two Michigan towns yesterday, causing extensive damage in boat manufacturing plants in Grand Rapids and in Berrien Springs.

At Grand Rapids, fire raced through more than 1,500 small pleasure boats, awaiting spring delivery. Damage was estimated at about $750,000.

Ray O. Wagemaker, president of the Wagemaker Boat Co., said the fire swept the firm's storage lot, destroying the boats that were in crates and wrapped with waterproof paper.

Most of the boats were of molded plywood, he said, and all of them were 14-footers.

The blaze lasted only about 40 minutes, but it blanketed the southwest edge of Grand Rapids with a thick smoke during the evening rush hour. Wagemaker said the cause was not determined. No one was hurt.

Wagemaker priced the boats at from $400 to $1,000 each on the retail market. He said he assumed he was covered by adequate insurance.

Two freight cars on a nearby rail siding near one end of the company's warehouse were also damaged.

Fire Chief Frank Burns said it was the worst blaze in Grand Rapids in 10 years.

AT BERRIEN SPRINGS

The Surges Manufacturing Co., which shared the brick and frame one-story building with a furniture firm, employed 10 persons. No one was hurt.

Arthur Nadini, Surges plant manager, was unable to estimate damages. He said that College Wood Products, a student industry at Emmanuel Missionary College, used part of the building for furniture storage.

Pigeons Play as Commission Ponders Action

The pigeon inhabitants of the Courthouse were the subject of another slap by the Pontiac City Commission last night, in its constant move to drive the creatures from the building.

This time it was Commissioner Floyd P. Miles who referred a bird barrier and repellent gadget to the county Board of Supervisors, via City Manager Walter K. Willman.

Several commissioners mentioned that Lansing has appropriated money to get rid of similar menacing flocks.

The lasting effect of alcohol-soaked grain, was humorously put aside by City Engineer Lewis M. Wrenn's quip that it would be good "only until the pigeons slept it off."

"That is an absolute disgrace to Saginaw street," Miles said regarding the Courthouse coloring.

"We have no jurisdiction to touch county property," Commissioner Philip E. Rowston commented on the city's hand-tied policy.

Baltimore Bogs Dock Settlement

Maryland Only Port Which Rejects Contract in East Coast Walkout

BALTIMORE (AP) — Baltimore stood alone today as the only port holding up settlement of a week-old strike of the International Longshoremen's Assn.

Presence of a top federal mediator and two more hours of talk among officials of the Steamship Trade Assn. last night produced no apparent results. Another session was scheduled late today.

The chief of Baltimore's 7,400 ILA members, August J. Idzik, insists the STA go along with a master contract negotiated Sunday with New York shippers and agreed to last night in Hampton Roads, Va.

Philadelphia also reached agreement yesterday and New England dockers are reported ready to return to work when they get the word.

STA President John Delclos, asked about the outlook, shook his head and muttered "Dismal."

A source close to the dispute has said that if longshoremen return to work in other North Atlantic ports before things are settled here, it would cause a serious split between Baltimore dockers and the ILA front office in New York.

The STA in Baltimore balked at four provisions of the master contract-coastwide bargaining, and additional 2 cents in welfare payments, one more paid holiday and an escalator clause on wages for the third year.

Ike, Lawmakers Study Situation in Talks Today

No Final Course Set for Forcing Troops to Leave Gaza, Gulf

FROM OUR WIRE SERVICES

WASHINGTON —President Eisenhower told congressional leaders today the U. S. is considering supporting any United Nations sanctions against Israel but no final decision has been reached by the government.

At a 2½-hour meeting with the legislative leaders, the chief executive heard vigorous arguments against the use of U.N. sanctions to pressure Israel into withdrawing from the Gaza Strip and the Gulf of Aqaba.

The President, Secretary of State John Foster Dulles and 26 Democratic and Republican members of Congress engaged in what was described as a "full and free discussion" of the Middle East situation generally and the sanctions issue in particular.

Senate Republican Leader William F. Knowland of California said no "final conclusion" was reached at the lengthy meeting, called by Eisenhower.

The United Nations General Assembly is scheduled to meet Thursday to discuss Israel's refusal to withdraw its troops from territory claimed by Egypt.

After the White House meeting, House Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Tex) said the discussion covered the question of whether U.N. forces would be sent into the Gaza Strip if and when Israeli troops are withdrawn. He said there was no final decision on this point, either.

The sanctions issue has turned into a roaring tempest on Capitol Hill, with many lawmakers of both parties in opposition to the employment of any such stratagem against Israel.

The administration has issued implied threats to Israel that the U.S. might be forced to go along with sanctions if they are voted by the U.N.

The U.S. must make some sort of a decision shortly, unless Israel does an abrupt about-face and agrees to withdraw its troops from the two areas it considers vital to protect its own rights.

Knowland declined to say after today's meeting whether he would resign as a U.S. representative to the United Nations if this country supports sanctions.

He said reports that he would resign are "highly speculative" be-

Ike to Talk on Radio-TV

WASHINGTON (INS) — President Eisenhower will make a nationwide radio-television address at 9 p.m. (EST) tonight to discuss the question of supporting U.N. sanctions against Israel. The talk will be a general presentation of the problem rather than an announcement of a decision on the sanctions issue.

Would Open Canel, Split Tolls

Egypt to Receive U.N. Suez Plan

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold was expected to relay to Egypt today a four-nation plan for interim operation of the Suez Canal that would give Egypt at least half the tolls.

Authoritative sources said representatives of the United States, Britain, France and Norway presented the plan last night in a 30-minute meeting with Hammarskjold.

It reportedly hinged on these two main points:

1. Dividing the canal tolls with Egypt on a 50-50 basis once the waterway is opened to shipping. Tolls would be paid to the World Bank or to the U. N. itself. Half the money then would be credited to Egypt and the other half held until a final canal settlement is reached.

2. Use of the 103-mile canal by ships of all nations, including Israel.

The British Foreign Office said the world's major shipping nations had agreed to share the Suez tolls with Egypt, but London observers predicted the Egyptians would demand 100 per cent payment.

TOLLS HELD AGAINST CLAIMS

From the time Egypt nationalized the canal July 26 until it was blocked during the October-November invasion, many shippers paid their tolls to the old Suez Canal Co. in London and Paris. The fees were being held pending settlement of the company's claims against Egypt for the nationalization.

Target date for opening the waterway to vessels of up to 10,000 tons — about 75 per cent of the normal traffic — is March 10. But recent reports have indicated that goal would not be met.

Meanwhile, the 27 nations of the Asian-African group in the U.N. called a meeting today to consider again Arab demands for sanctions against Israel because the Israelis have not withdrawn all their troops.

Eden Is Recovering From Fever Attacks

WELLINGTON, N. Z. (INS)—Sir Anthony Eden today radioed New Zealand Prime Minister Sidney G. Holland he is recovering from fever attacks he suffered at sea.

The former British prime minister had been reported earlier as having suffered two fever attacks on his current voyage to New Zealand.

Eden's radio message from the liner Rangitata to Holland added that he was looking forward to seeing the prime minister on Thursday and would be willing to hold a short news conference on arrival.

Eden's doctors said when he resigned as British prime minister last month that the leader had had fever attacks in December and that his general health would not permit him to retain his government post.

Eden's wife is accompanying him on the New Zealand visit.

Sniper Mystery in Port Huron

Bullets Hit Moving Car, Windows of 2 Buildings, but Miss Occupants

PORT HURON (AP) — A sniper with a .22 caliber gun fired at a moving car and the windows of two buildings last night. No one was hurt, but the bullet missed the car driver by inches.

Patrolman R. S. Currie of the Port Huron Police Department, said the first shot was fired at 11:15 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Walker. Mrs. Walker said she heard the muffled report of a gun and found a hole through the living room window. She said she heard a car drive away with "a loud muffler."

Two hours later, John Millenbach, also of Port Huron, said a shot ripped through the right front door of his car, striking the windshield molding on the driver's side. Millenbach's car was about two miles from the Walker home.

The third shot was fired through the plate glass window of an electrical contractor's office about a mile from where the car was hit. It was discovered this morning when the owner opened the building.

Snow and Colder Weather Outlook for Pontiac Area

The U. S. Weather Bureau predicts partly cloudy and cold with a few snow flurries tonight for the Pontiac area. The low will range from 16 to 20 degrees.

The cold will continue through tomorrow with a warming trend Sunday and Monday. Precipitation will total around .4 inches occurring as snow about Thursday night and Friday and again late Sunday and Monday.

Tomorrow's high will be from 26 to 30 degrees.

Area Delegation Has Big Stake

County Man Eyes Top Highway Job

Oakland County has a stake in the wide-open Democratic contest shaping up for state highway commissioner, top office on the April 1 ballot.

A Southfield Township road contractor, William H. Harvie is one of the four candidates who so far have sought the job.

But none of the candidates appeared to have a commanding lead as Saturday's state convention in Grand Rapids approaches.

Harvie, of Lathrup, has backing by the Oakland County delegation. He served 10 years on the Wayne County Road Commission and another 10 years with the State Highway Department.

Thede C. Banhagel, Kalamazoo construction company man; John G. Mackie, Genesee County Surveyor; and Angelo Marino, Monroe County Surveyor, also seek the office.

WILLIAM H. HARVIE

Another candidate supported by Oakland County seems to have a clear road. She is Mrs. Irene E. Murphy, Birmingham business woman running for University of Michigan Regent. Although two regent candidates will be nominated, one of them will be to replace a woman member of the board. As the only woman candidate whose hat so far is in the ring, Mrs. Murphy looks like a good contender for nomination.

Her nomination would mean an interesting election fight. The Republican nominee is another Birmingham woman, Mrs. Ethel J. Watt.

TWO PRACTICALLY IN

As the convention completes its line-up of candidates two of the choicer spots seem virtually assured for Lynn M. Bartlett of Grosse Pointe Woods and Atty. Gen. Thomas M. Kavanagh.

Bartlett, endorsed by Oakland County, is bidding for the state superintendent of public instruction nomination, which he won two years ago. Kavanagh is a heavy favorite for nomination on the non-partisan judicial ballot for supreme court justice.

The convention also will nominate two candidates for the State Board of Agriculture; one for the State Board of Education, and two others for the supreme court.

Unlike the Republicans, Democrats go into their convention united on a state chairman. They seem certain to re-elect Neil Staebler, who has served since 1949.

Detroit Father Mute on Charge

Admits Bank Robbery at Oak Park of $7,300, Claims FBI

Charles J. McReynolds, young Detroit father who came to the U.S. from Ireland three years ago, stood mute yesterday to charges of robbing an Oak Park bank of $7,311.

Charles W. Brown, Detroit FBI Chief, said McReynolds, 28, went to the FBI and admitted robbing the bank with a toy pistol. He added that the father of two small sons told him he took the money to clear up personal financial troubles.

Federal Judge Ralph M. Freeman, entered a plea of innocent for the man, setting his bond at $20,000.

Brown related that McReynolds told him he robbed the American Savings and Loan Assn. in Oak Park on Jan. 10. Two tellers said the robber had dropped $500 of the total sum as he fled. None of the remaining $6,811 has been accounted for, Brown said.

License Office Adds Hours, Clerks to Meet 7-Day Rush

The Pontiac branch of the Secretary of State's office is braced for the annual last-minute rush for 1957 license plates.

Secretary of State James M. Hare reported that six out of every 10 vehicles registered in the state are without 1957 plates. Despite this, Hare said sales to date are up six per cent over a comparable period last year.

Willis M. Brewer, Pontiac branch manager, said 40,000 out of 60,000 plates have been sold at the local office.

He said the office, located at 53 N. Parke St., would remain open on Friday, Feb. 22 (George Washington's birthday), and would be open all day Saturday.

Hours are from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. "We have added six extra persons to handle the rush," Brewer said.

He repeated his warning to motorists not to forget titles to their cars. Truckers and trailer owners are reminded that their vehicles must be re-weighed this year before 1957 plates are issued.

Police officials warn motorists that new plates, two for the first time since 1943, must be "securely attached" to brackets after midnight next Thursday. A $1 fine is levied for driving with expired plates.

Senate Cites 4 in Teamsters'

Labor Racket Probe Calls Union Quartet for Questioning

WASHINGTON (INS) — The Senate today cited for contempt of Congress four officials of the giant 1,400,000-member Teamsters' Union who defied a Senate group investigating labor racketeering.

By unanimous vote, the Senate voted citations against:

1. Elnar O. Mohn, vice president and right-hand man to Teamster president Dave Beck, who has promised to appear before another committee when he returns from Europe March 26.

2. Frank W. Brewster, of Seattle, Wash., also a vice president, chairman of the 11-state western conference of Teamsters and president of joint council 28.

3. Nugent La Poma, secretary-treasurer of Seattle Local 174.

4. Harry Reiss, secretary-treasurer of New York local 284 and president of New York Local 227 of the Allied Industrial Workers' Union—the old AFL auto workers.

The contempt citations go to the Justice Department for investigation and possible prosecution. The law provides that conviction for contempt of Congress may carry a maximum penalty of one year imprisonment and a $1,000 fine.

The Senate action grows out of the refusal of the Teamster officials to recognize the jurisdiction of the Senate investigations subcommittee headed by Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark.)

McClellan has said the new committee is at work in nine cities, and has dug up evidence involving six unions. He declared committee investigators have uncovered evidence of widespread fraud and abuses, and that some of the information unearthed will warrant criminal charges.

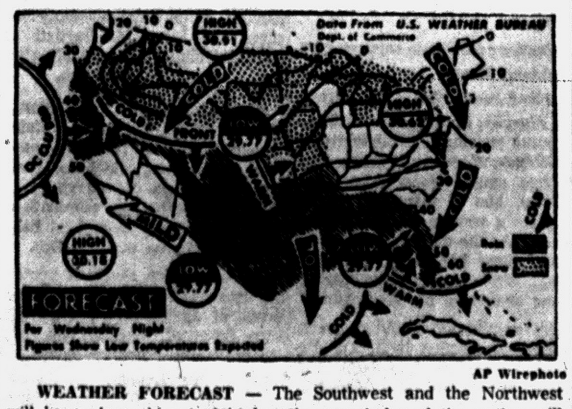

News Flashes

LANSING (AP)— Bills to provide for an admission charge for state parks, use of unoccupied tuberculosis sanatoria beds and to fix at $20,000 the salaries of two state officers to be elected April 1 came into the legislature today. The park admissions bill fixed a fee of $2 for auto stickers to be sold by the state conservation department. A one-day permit could be sold for 50 cents. As in the case of the sticker, it would permit entry into any park of the automobile and all its occupants.

Two bills on the tuberculosis sanatorium problem, would authorize the use of state facilities in either state or county TB sanatoria for treatment of diseases other than tuberculosis under terms and conditions set by the state health commissioner and the hospital board of trustees.

The salary bill would peg at $20,000 a year the pay of the state superintendent of public instruction and the state highway commissioner, now receiving $12,500 each.

GUATEMALA (AP) — The volcano De Fuego erupted last night. There were no casualties reported but American tourists joined many Guatemalans in hurried flight from Antigua. Gives Up Post on Committee for Rehabilitation

Dr. Ivan LaCore, medical superintendent of Pontiac State Hospital, has resigned as chairman of the Greater Pontiac Community Advisory Council committee for the rehabilitation and employment of physically handicapped people, it was announced today.

LaCore is succeeded by William Wright, 184 Chippewa St., representative of the United Cerebral Palsy Society. LaCore gave "the press of business" as reason for his resignation. He said he will continue to serve on the committee, however.

The committee is presently "exploring several possibilities of bringing the 'workshop plan' into the Pontiac area," according to secretary Fred Hanses. The workshop plan, said Hanses, is a training program where handicapped people can learn trades. The program is usually supported by federal funds and charity, he said.

The administration found itself squeezed between Arab insistence that the United Nations impose sanctions on Israel and congressional demands that the United States oppose any such action as unfair.

Members of both parties have said that if sanctions are imposed on Israel, they should be applied also to Russia, India and other countries they say have ignored U. N. resolutions.

Sen. Salstonstall (R-Mass) expressed optimism that a "substantial understanding" with Israel is imminent. He said he is "very hopeful" Israel will agree to withdraw her troops, but there were no signs of general agreement with his feeling.

Montgomery Goes Free in Death of Bride During Tussle Last Fall

A jury of 10 women and two men yesterday found Herbert B. Montgomery, 52, not guilty of manslaughter in the fatal shooting last fall of his 37-year-old bride of one month.

The verdict ended a two-day trial before Circuit Court Judge George B. Hartrick.

Montgomery, of 475 Arthur St., was charged in the shooting of his wife, Elizabeth. She was shot in a tussle for a .32 caliber pistol, after Montgomery allegedly threatened to leave her.

He was arrested last Nov. 16 in Monroe, La., where he fled, he told police, because he "was scared."

The victim's body was not discovered in the Arthur street home until three days after the shooting.

Senate Begins Mideast Debate

Johnson Urges Passage Without Further Change as Warning to Reds

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate ran out of speakers on its first day of debating President Eisenhower's Middle East proposals, but leaders held today to their estimates that two weeks will be required for action.

Much of the battle is expected next week when the Senate starts consideration of changes beyond those which two committees already have recommended in Eisenhower's original proposal.

Eisenhower asked specific advance authority to use U.S. troops if necessary to help any Middle Eastern country seeking aid against overt Communist aggression, and permission to spend up to 200 million dollars of foreign aid funds for military and economic aid in the area. The House has approved his request with little change.

The Senate Foreign Relations and Armed Services committees revised his resolution to read that if the President finds it necessary, the United States "is prepared" to use armed force to combat Communist aggression there. Many senators contend Eisenhower already has the troop authority he asked.

Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, the Senate Democratic leader, urged passage of the amended resolution yesterday as a means of telling the Communists to "keep out" of the Middle East.

Press Praised for Helping Cut Traffic Toll

MUSKEGON (AP) — Gov. Williams today praised Michigan's press for its "invaluable assistance" in reducing the state highway death toll last year.

Noting a reduction of 250 in the 1956 totals over those of 1955, the governor today wrote C. D. McNamee, editor of the Muskegon Chronicle:

"I am aware of the invaluable assistance given to this life-saving program by the press of Michigan, both large and small papers. Since you served the last two years as chairman of the Traffic Safety Committee of the Michigan Press Assn., I would like to extend to the entire press of Michigan, through this letter to you, my sincere thanks and congratulations. The wide publicity which the press has given to this program has played a very important role in our success."

Invites 'Huge City' Merger

DEARBORN (INS) — Dearborn Mayor Orville Hubbard proposed today that 15 western Wayne County townships merge with Dearborn to form the second largest city in area in the United States.

Hubbard sent letters to the townships asking that their administrations consider incorporating their combined 375 square miles with Dearborn's 25 square miles.

The proposed city would have an area nearly three times that of Detroit, almost twice that of Chicago and bigger than New York. It would be second in area only to Los Angeles' 451 square miles.

The letter read in part:

"There are now 44 different independent local governments in Wayne County, and townships are continually being sliced up to make even more costly and unnecessary communities.

"Apostles of efficient government insist that the trend should be just the opposite.

'CREATES CONFUSION'

"Further, the rabbit-like births of independent local governments keep the people in a constant and complete state of turmoil and confusion over jurisdiction and the source of their services.

"Worse, the costly multiplicity of governments actually hinders the solutions of the big problems common to all communities in this area—schools, water, sewers, garbage and rubbish disposal, recreation, parks and air pollution, which can be met adequately only on an area-wide basis."

Hubbard asked that the proposal first be brought before township boards to determine whether officials favor such a plan.

Secondly, he proposed that if boards did not want to take a stand on the issue at this time, they submit the plan to the people by calling an advisory vote at the April 1 election.

The Day in Birmingham

Newly Revised Sign Law Enforcement in Offing

BIRMINGHAM — Birmingham's newly revised sign ordinance adopted several weeks ago, but reopened at the request of the real estate board is now on the road to completion and enforcement. Members of the board and the Chamber of Commerce offered their objections to the proposed annual inspection fee, saying it was unnecessary and possibly unfair.

Real estate men also asked the change of one word "Realtor" since this is a copyrighted word indicating membership in an organization. They asked that instead the words "Licensed Real Estate Broker" be used.

Real estate men, commissioners and Charles Mortonsen C. of C. Secretary discussed at some length the question of bill boards within the city. All expressed an opinion that they would like to see the day when this type of advertising was banned within the corporate limits.

Milton Mallender told commissioners that legislation would be passed prohibiting future erection of these boards.

"Those already in the city can remain on their basis of nonconforming use until such time as they must be removed because of lack of care or until they are abandond by their present users. At that time the city could refuse further permission and one by one the boards would be eliminated," Mallender said.

Four special assessment deficiency rules amounting to $5,991.91 were approved by city commissioners Monday night. They include the Grant Street pavement from Catalpa to 14 Mile, Bird and Edgewood streets pavement, Willits street pavement from Bates to Chester, and the Lincoln avenue pavement east of Eton road.

Birmingham Police Parking Meter division presented its quarterly report Monday evening showing a marked increase in the use of parking meters throughout the city. It was pointed out that two factors enter into the picture. One is the increased shopping during the holidays, the second being due to the fact that with the opening of each lot more restricted street parking is put into operation.

Commissioners will contact other participating cities in the operation of the Ground Observer Corps post in Birmingham. Asking that a financial arrangement be made to defray expenses at the post. Birmingham will suggest to Troy Royal Oak and Bloomfield Hills that they pay a stated amount to the city of Birmingham, which in turn will meet payment of bills. This, commissioners said, would simplified bookkeeping processes for all cities.

Air Court Changes at Attorneys' Meet

Recommendations for rules, regulations and procedures of Municipal Court were discussed and heard Tuesday afternoon during a luncheon held at the Waldron Hotel.

Municipal Judge Cecil McCallum said representatives from the city attorney's office, including City Attorney William A. Ewart and Assistant City Attorney Sherwin M. Birnkrant, and George F. Taylor, chief assistant prosecutor, attended the luncheon. Sgt. Medford E. Pittman, court officer and Inspector Clark M. Wheaton, of the Pontiac police, also attended the round table discussion.

Revisions and additions to court rules should be completed by the time the court moves into the new Public and Safety Building, now under construction, according to McCallum.

Middleton announced also that new officers will be elected at the organization's next regular business meeting 8 p.m. Feb. 8 at the American Legion Post of Berkley. Plans will be discussed for the formation of a women's auxiliary.

Trial Board Issue Tabled Till Election

Negotiations between the Pontiac Police Trial Board and the three-man committee from the Pontiac Police Officer's Association, assigned to meet with the board, were halted Tuesday night pending the results of the April election.

The two groups had been meeting to discuss revisions of rules and regulations governing the police force.

"Due to the pending election in April on the question of Civil Service for members of the Pontiac Police, it was decided that further discussions would have no beneficial results until the election returns," said William L. Treanor, spokesman for the board.

Washington's Great Decisions

3. Never to Accept Defeat

The expected war between the English colonists and the French and Indians finally began and Col. George Washington, only 23, was made an aide to Gen. Braddock, who had been sent from England to take command.

Braddock was a veteran officer in command of seasoned troops but he had no experience in Indian warfare. Disregarding Washington's advice, he marched his men into the woods as if they were on parade.

The French and Indians, used to this type of fighting, hid behind trees and slaughtered the marching soldiers. Braddock was killed and his army was driven out of the forest.

Washington fought with daring courage. Two horses were shot under him. There were four bullet holes in his coat. But he was unharmed and led the shattered army to safety.

The battle was lost but Washington's spirit was not defeated.

Later, he commanded the advance guard of the English colonist force that captured the French Ft. Duquesne. He renamed it Ft. Pitt which later became Pittsburgh.

Catholics Storm Bars, Houses of Prostitution

JALAPA, Mex. (AP)—An aroused mob of Roman Catholics closed bars and houses of prostitution in the village of Banderilla after threatening to dynamite the places and lynch their operators.

Banderilla, near this Gulf of Mexico city in Veracruz State, was reported back to normal today after the riots.

Officials said the crowd was headed by the village mayor, who had been unable to get Jalapa officials to close the establishments.

Mexican Killer Still Loose; Find Fifth Woman Victim

In less than two months five have been murdered and their bodies mutilated — apparently by the same sex maniac.

All have been women who were working in cabarets, and none has been positively identified.

The strangled body of the fifth victim was found wedged between two vegetable stands on Feb. 12. Her feet were tied and a long coil of rubber hose partially concealed her.

She was known in the nearby cabaret where she worked only as "La Jarocha," which means she was from the state of Veracruz.

One of the killer's previous victims was found in the same neighborhood on Jan. 10. She had been asphyxiated by a bottle of perfume jammed into her mouth.

The first victim, a girl still in her teens, was found hanging from a tree in a vacant lot in mid - December. Later that month a young woman was thrown from a high bridge to die on the jagged volcanic rocks below.

Police obtained the first clues to the identity of the killer Jan. 23 when the body of a 20-year-old victim, known only as Gloria, was found stuffed beneath a bed in a third-class hotel. She had been viciously beaten and strangled. But her fingers clutched several strands of light brown hair.

The hotel clerk said the man who had checked into the hotel with the girl was about 30, brown-haired and light-skinned and of medium height and weight.

Although the manner in which the women have met death has not been the same in all cases, investigators are convinced the killer of all is the same man because of the cold-blooded brutality evidenced in each murder.

Soviet Planning to Ruin Polish Economy?

VIENNA (INS) — The Soviet Union may soon send 4,000,000 Poles back to their native land in an apparent move to disrupt Poland's economy.

Polish travelers reaching Vienna yesterday reported the expected development and described the Soviet plan as a "diabolical attempt" to ruin the teetering Polish economy.

They claimed that under the guise of friendship and compliance with Polish wishes to regain her lost population, the Soviet plan was to "cram four million people down our throats at one shot."

The probable returnees consist of prisoners from World War II, thousands used as semi-slave labor and Poles absorbed by Russia in the White Russia and Ukraine republics.

"Who in Poland would dare raise his voice against the return of our people?" the Polish sources said. "But what country in the world could absorb four million pouring across the frontiers all at about the same time?

The Poles said that if Russia did not think 4,000,000 was enough she could send back even more. When the Polish republic was reconstituted at war's end, Russia retained nearly 70,000 square miles of former Polish territory. More than 12,000,000 Poles lived in the area, some of which formed part of White Russia and some a part of the western Ukraine.

Poland recently asked Soviet permission to send into the Soviet Union teams who would search for missing Poles and repatriate them. However, Poland expected this to be a gradual process and at any rate the Polish proposal was turned down.

"But,' said the Polish travelers, "it must have given the Russians an idea. They will simply say it is not necessary for us to spend time and money with repatriation teams because they know who is Polish and will ship everyone back at once.'

The problem is further complicated by the general health and economic conditions of those Poles who will return.

"Many, many of them," the Polish sources said, "have been near slaves, prisoners who have had to work in mines and factories. They are not treated as human beings but as slaves who must be kept fit enough to do their work but not fit enough to think and not fit enough to cause any trouble."

Is Tax Collector Friend or Fiend?

Internal Revenue People Seek Fair Break for All

By ARTHUR EDSON
AP Newsfeature Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—Each of us, as we sit down to figure our income taxes, probably has a slightly different idea of what a tax collector looks like.

Some may picture him as a Simon Legree; one false move and he whacks us. Others may think of a little man peering over our shoulders, suspiciously adding and subtracting every problem we put on form 1040.

Well, the people at the Internal Revenue Service have still another version. They like to look upon themselves as kindly, considerate fellows eager to give us taxpayers every break.

A couple of examples:

An 87-year-old Polish immigrant made a fortune manufacturing jams and jellies in New England. But he got to worrying: Had he paid his fair share of taxes?

To ease his conscience, he sent the treasury department five new $1,000 bills.

The treasury investigators moved right in. But did they uncover a long history of fraudulent maneuvers? No, these kindly, considerate tax gentlemen found the old man had leaned over backwards paying his taxes.

He got an $11,000 refund — plus his $5,000 back.

NOTICES HANDICAP

Or take the case of the charwoman who came into the Internal Revenue Service headquarters here. She hobbled in, at the government's request, to explain, if she could, why she didn't owe the tax collector another $300.

She had no excuses. All she wanted was time in which to pay up.

As she started to leave, an agent noticed she was limping, and that she wore expensive boots.

The agent started asking questions, and then reported:

"She told me she had to buy special $135 boots because she suffered from varicose veins in her legs. Well, that's a deductible medical expense and she had never deducted it. So we made out an amended return."

The result: Instead of owing $300, the charwoman wound up with a $340 refund.

An internal revenue official said today he wishes everyone would look on the tax collector as a man eager to be fair and helpful.

"I don't know of a one of our men, anywhere in the country," he said, "who wouldn't do all he could to make sure the taxpayer gets every break. Right here in our office, taxpayers are forever sticking their heads in the door to tell me our men saved them money."

DON'T OVERDO IT

Still, it's well to remember that these kindly, considerate people don't believe in overdoing it. Just recently, for example, the service put out a list of tax-evaders who had been caught and prosecuted.

Unmanned Elevator Causes Death of 2

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Each day August E. Olson, 66-year-old head janitor at Kansas City Junior College, made a special elevator trip for Miss Patricia Dowell, 23-year-old student crippled by cerebral palsy. Something went wrong yesterday and both died.

Investigators said Miss Dowell must have stumbled on her crutches as she started to step off the elevator. Olson reached out to help her and accidentally touched the control lever. He strangled as his head was caught between the floor of the rising elevator and a beam.

Miss Dowell died later of internal injuries. She was caught between the elevator and the shaft wall.

PIN-WORMS MAY BE A FAMILY AFFAIR
Fidgeting, nose-picking and a tormenting rectal itch are often telltale signs of Pin-Worms . . . ugly parasites that medical experts say infest one out of every three persons examined. Entire families may be victims and not know it.

Hubby Has Preference Over Capital Protocol

We refer to Mrs. C. E. Wilson.

She spoke up in meeting.

During the recent tea-cup tempest over Charles E. Wilson's one round bout with the National Guard, President Eisenhower admonished the Secretary of Defense for an impolitic observation. Just as the whole thing was sinking easily into the limbo of forgotten things, Mrs. Wilson stepped into the act and the nation buzzed again.

She declared the President should "stand behind her man" and she pointed out with no uncertainty that he'd gone all out for Secretary Dulles. What was so sacrosanct about Dulles that merited any special defense over her Erwin?

Thus Mrs. Wilson shattered tradition.

But Mrs. Wilson didn't care.

She had faithfully observed the iron muzzle on Secretaries' wives ever since her man had stepped down from the Presidency of General Motors to take on the Defense Department job. But this was different. Her spouse could have done with a quick spot of defense from the President, such as Dulles had received but he'd been chastized instead.

Mrs. Wilson proposed to tell him about it in a dignified and ladylike fashion, Washington be hanged.

And she did.

The most interesting thing about her righteous indignation is the reception she has received around the country.

The Press applauded vigorously.

So did the public.

One of these "inquiring reporters" found five out of six average citizens squarely behind Oakland County's Jessie. The consensus seemed to indicate a woman's loyalty to her husband took precedent over Presidential protocol and definitely outweighed Emily Post.

Overnight she was a national heroine.

Well, she's "that way." The mother of three sons and three daughters, the mother-in-law of three more sons and three more daughters, plus the reigning rank of a grandmother 15 times, she proposed to step aside for no one that menaced her kinfolk.

Neighbor Wilson, we applaud, too.

Keep swinging—when swinging is indicated.

Of course, the whole affair took place in an atmosphere of good natured friendliness. The President and the two Wilsons left a day or so later in the President's airplane and all were laughing and in high spirits.

Everything at the White House doesn't necessarily have to be grim and deadly. Both Mr. and Mrs. Wilson can see a smile three miles away—and the President can, too.

"Kissing is downright savage," declares a moralist. Well, maybe so, but there are few more delightful ways of taking a short vacation from civilization.

USIA to Step Up Information Service

When the new head of the U. S. Information Agency (USIA) Arthur Larson took over as director, he made this very thoughtful statement:

"I don't think you can keep alive the spirit of freedom by pep talks. What you have to do is to keep truth itself alive."

Perhaps we have been too inclined to sell democracy by pointing to our material advantages. We have these in abundance. But our true greatness is in the emphasis placed on the dignity and freedom of the individual and the power of truth.

Mr. Larson is now in the Middle East planning a counter-offensive to vicious anti-American propaganda. He also hopes to stir interest among American officials in the area in learning Arabic. Of the 50 USIA people in Egypt, Iraq, Jordan, Lebanon, Syria and the Sudan, only two speak that language. This is a barrier to understanding.

Radio Moscow and Radio Cairo are broadcasting charges that President Eisenhower's program for the Middle East is imperialistic and will lead to war. We will need to counter such untruths quickly and effectively.

What Ails Fish?

County Lake Has Problem That Baffles the Experts

Drug store: Now ofter. a store in which most everything has been drug.

There's a fishy mystery in Oakland County. I am informed by

of the Michigan State Department of Conservation, that every winter thousands of fish die in a little cove on Kent Lake. The fish in no other part of the lake are affected. When those in this cove are found dying, they immediately revive when taken to any other part of the lake, and show no ill effects. Samples of the water in the cove have repeatedly been analyzed and always found to contain nothing harmful. The department is puzzled and has the major part of its biologists working on the matter.

David Lawrence Says:

Industry Losing Race With Costs

WASHINGTON — Industry is falling behind in the race with rising labor costs. The rate of profit after taxes is going down. Figures are becoming available from more and more companies, telling what happened in 1956.

This is what's back of the recent wave of worry. While it is generally conceded that no depression is immediately ahead, there are indications of considerable anxiety that, unless the trend is reversed, the profit margin will be wiped out in the next few years for many companies in industry after industry. This may become true especially for those businesses unable to borrow money for more up-to-date equipment or unable to finance such purchases out of accumulated surpluses.

LAWRENCE

The story of what has caused this downward trend in profits can be given in a single sentence: Industry's wage costs have risen by 212 per cent since 1939 and, despite new machines and improved methods, productivity per man hour has increased only 41 per cent within the same period.

Unless companies can get more production out of their increased costs—either with or without new machines—the rising labor costs will inevitably wipe out profits.

LOSING BATTLE

The facts show that companies, large and small, are fighting a losing battle with rising costs and that union-labor monopolies are recklessly forcing up the scales of wages which both large and small units in an industry must pay.

Thus, sales in the U.S. Steel Corp. in 1956, as compared with 1955, were up 3.7 per cent and total outlays, including labor, rose 4.6 per cent and hence profits after taxes were down 6 per cent.

The Monsanto Chemical Company, one of the biggest in the chemical field, reported sales up 3.8 per cent, expenses up 4.8 per cent and profits after taxes down 8.5 per cent.

In automobiles, the Ford Motor Company report shows that sales were down 16.9 per cent but expenses were down only 14.5 per cent, so profits, after taxes, came down by 45.9 per cent.

PINCH PUBLISHERS

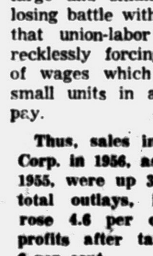

In the publishing business the story is the same—many magazines and newspapers are feeling the pinch. One publisher of a large newspaper in the East points out that newsprint has gone up from $85-a-ton in 1947 to $130-a-ton today and that another $4-a-ton increase is under way.

Meanwhile, wage costs have risen sharply. The minimum pay of an experienced newspaper reporter has gone up from $65 in 1947 to $124 a week today. The mechanical workers have had boosts of from 65 per cent to 120 per cent since 1947. The same eastern publisher says he is spending $2.40 an hour, on the average, in straight-time pay for all employes but that "fringe" benefits add another 51 cents an hour, so the real cost has gone up to $2.91 an hour. Equipment costs have soared, too.

While advertising rates have been raised, the same publisher says costs continue to exceed the added advertising income and hence further rises in advertising rates are going to be needed if any profits are to be made. This, however, runs into the possibility of a diminished quantity of space that might be bought because the advertisers themselves face increased costs all along the line.

Yet, in spite of these facts, labor union bosses feel they must force the wage scales upward and upward in order to keep ambitious rivals from driving them out of office. It's a dilemma that, curiously enough, Congress has shown a strange reluctance to investigate and expose. But until the people get all the facts, they cannot decide what the answer is or what remedy must be applied if a serious depression is to be avoided.

"Oh, yeah—well I like her less than you do!"

Dr. William Brady Says:

Boòklet About CRI Puts Wheezer Out in the Cold

A schoolteacher said that they have been discussing the common cold at school, but it seems to be more prevalent than ever before and so they wonder what they are doing wrong and how to correct their faulty hygiene. She asked for the booklet "Call it CRY."

Title of the booklet is "Call it CRI" (rhymes with ski). It deals with respiratory infections. Respiratory infections account for most of the doctor's everyday work. You never know when you get yours whether it will prove to be acute pharyngitis rhinitis, bronchitis, pneumonia, sinusitis, influenza, eipdemic meningitis, diphtheria, poliomyelitis, measles, scarlet fever, whooping cough, otitis media, mastoiditis, or whatnot.

BRADY

If it doesn't send you to bed immediately, you go to school, work, church, office, store, theater, in the invasion stage when the infection is most communicable, share it with whoever is unfortunate enough to come within your cough, sneeze, or conversation spray range.

Cough and sneeze spray ranges up to ten or twelve feet. Conversation spray range is less than five feet.

DROPLETS INVISIBLE

In either case the spray of moisture droplets is not necessarily visible or palpable—the droplets may be so fine that you can't see them or feel them when they spatter on your face. But the smallest droplets may carry the germs or virus of disease.

The teacher enclosed a stamped envelope bearing her school address, so she received a complimentary copy of the booklet "Call it CRI," which teaches how to avoid spreading or catching the CRI (word coined from initial letters of the cumbersome phrase Common Respiratory Infections.)

Others who would like to have a copy of the booklet send 35 cents and stamped, self-addressed envelope for it.

I send the booklet free to bona fide teachers on the off chance that it may really help to prevent respiratory infection in school. From experience I know that nine times out of ten the teacher or pupils will know better than I do how they catch the CRI, and so they'll brush aside my teachings.

LESS LIKELY

The teacher is less likely to catch CRI than the pupil. Unless the teacher is very dumb indeed, he or she has at least a vague idea that what purports to be a "cold" is catching and tries to keep out of range. The average pupil has never been taught hygiene and therefore makes no attempt to avoid infection.

Some school authoirites don't care about the health of school only about tax money. So they order teachers to urge pupils not to stay home for "just a cold"—and thus intensively propagate the CRI.

Mind, I do not believe every coryza is communicable, a small percentage of cases are actually hay fever or other allergic reaction. But I do believe that every alleged "cold" should be considered communicable from the very beginning.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Fans' Congratulations Go to PHS Basketball Team

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

I have lived in Pontiac over 40 years. I am a Pontiac High sport fan. I have seen every home game in basketball and also football. It shows we need a Civic Auditorium that holds about 10,000 people. If you have a winner, you get the crowds. That goes for football.

I hope if the school goes to East Lansing they will have "Pontiac" across their backs so people will know where they are from. At this time I would like to say something about our sports section of The Press. There is not a paper in the state of Michigan that does a job like our boys here. Keep up the good work.

If we get a football coach like Van in basketball, we will do all right.

J. W.

Now that the sting of defeat has been felt by our Pontiac Chiefs, let it be known we are still proud of them. We salute you, Chiefs, for your excellent example of sportsmanship. We will follow you and be backing you in the final stretch ahead. You're still our champions!

PHS Fan

I noticed the other night that the crowd dwindled after Pontiac's first basketball loss. I hope just because the team lost one game that people won't stop coming to cheer them on to the finals. They're really a great team and well on their way to winning the state title. How about giving them all the support you can?

One of Many Fans

From time to time we notice in The Press articles about high school football, wondering what is the matter. We are also wondering, not only with football, but with the athletic system as a whole.

Some eight or nine months ago a group of us (all PHS fans) tried to start an organization to boost sports at the high school. We were willing to spend our own time and money in some small way to help out our high school sports. We have done everything that was asked of us from the athletic department in regards to organization. We submitted our by-laws and office personnel, we contacted the high school sports department on different occasions, the last time being in December.

We were told at that time the Athletic Council meets in January and we would be invited to meet with them to discuss our organization. Now it is February and no word about the council meeting. This is the third or fourth time we have been promised a meeting, the same story every time. We hope this letter may explain some of the shortcomings of the high school athletic system.

We can't close the letter without saying "Congratulations!" to our basketball team and Coach Van Ryzin, although you were defeated once, you are still winners in our book. Good luck, boys!

Egypt Slows Canal Work in Effort to Oust Israelis

By JOHN H. MARTIN
INS Foreign Director

A U.N. official in Cairo says that "it looks like we are in for a long political stalemate on getting the canal reopened."

The Suez Canal still is Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser's main weapon. Seizure of the international company that operated the canal began the tragic chain of events that led to the Anglo-French Israeli invasion.

The Egyptians sank many ships in the canal to block it when hostilities began. Clearance of the canal, after the Anglo-French withdrawal, was put under U.N. supervision.

But Nasser conveniently can halt such clearance work and intends to do so unless Israeli troops get out of the Gaza Strip and the Gulf of Aqaba area along the southern coast of the Sinai Peninsula.

By halting such clearance, Nasser hopes to exert pressure on the major powers to put pressure in turn on Israel. The latter has balked at getting out of the two areas.

Israel demands guarantees that the Gaza Strip never again will be used as an Egyptian commando base. Israel also wants assurance that her ships can use the Gulf of Aqaba outlet to the Red Sea and Indian Ocean. She also wants passage through the Suez Canal.

A retired American Army engineer, Lt. Gen. Raymond Wheeler, has been in charge of clearing the canal. He has done an excellent job, but now he is hobbled by the Egyptians.

The Egyptian authorities have informed Wheeler that not only the tug, Edgar Bonnet, but also the frigate, Abukir, have "mines and explosives aboard," and only Egyptian sappers will be allowed to remove the explosives.

The Edgar Bonnet is blocking the canal about halfway along

Romance Returns as Pounds Go

Elaine was scared. She feared her marriage was on the rocks. Then she followed the prescription outlined yesterday. See its dramatic results! And you church women's groups can also employ the same plan not only to make your own homes more romantic, but also as a means of raising money for worthy religious projects.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case U-309: Elaine B., aged 36, sent for the dieting chart which is mentioned below. Listen to her words:

"Dr. Crane, I had noticed for several years that my husband was not very romantic about me," she began.

"Oh, he would kiss me goodbye when he left for the office. But his kiss had no more fervor than if he were kissing his aged mother.

"Vaguely I was worried. I wondered if love disappeared by the age of 40, for he was then 39.

"And I grew melancholic about the future, for I didn't want our previously happy marriage to degenerate into a platonic affair.

"Then I read your column several months ago wherein you urged wives to diet if they wished to revive their courtship allure.

"You said husbands don't associate romance with fat, waddling wives. That morning I stepped on my bathroom scales and saw that I weighed 154.

"But on my wedding day, I was only 114. So I sent for your experiment. And it wasn't difficult, especially after the 3rd day.

"We restricted our food to 800 calories daily and reduced our fluid intake as you suggested. But we placed the water in ice trays and then sucked on the thin ice better than liquid water.

"Well, I was down 10½ pounds after those first 10 days. Then I shifted to the more moderate diet whereby I lost 2 pounds per week.

"And within two months, I noticed a marked change in my husband's attitude toward me.'

"Previously, when he came home from work, he would enter the front door and call out to me in the kitchen a cheery 'Hello'. But he would then sit down in his easy chair and read the evening paper till I called him to dinner.

REVIVE YOUR ALLURE

"Now he began to come out to the kitchen and kiss me. And his kiss was not a dutiful little peck on the cheek. It was a real movie type of thriller-diller.

"Indeed, he would then lay his newspaper on the dinette table and read it there, instead of going back into the living room.

"And when I got under the 130-pound mark, we started going out to drive-in movies and attending shows at his own suggestion.

"I didn't need to prod him or do any maneuvering to get him to take the lead in such things.

"At the movies, too, he would hold my hand or put his arm around me. And now our marriage is as exciting and romantic as it was during the first year after the honeymoon.

"Yet all I did was get my weight down. I quit at 122½ pounds, for he said he didn't want me any thinner than that. So I am really just nine pounds heavier than when I was first married."

GROUP PROJECTS

Girls, if your church society or Women's Club wants a dandy project by which to promote happier marriages, as well as raise funds for worthy altruistic projects, then go on a diet as a group.

You actually save at least $2.50 in grocery bills for each pound of fat that you shed. So you can easily add $25 apiece to your group fund if you shed 10 pounds.

Meanwhile, you will be happier and healthier. And your husband will show far more romantic interest in you. Everybody gains. Nobody loses.

So send for that booklet, "How to Lose 10 Lbs. in 10 Days," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents.

You can even challenge other churches. It's fun. And it is good insurance against prosaic marriage.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Fashion Models Look More Human

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS) — "The trouble with fashion models," says the typical virile American male, "they aren't women.

"Why," maintains the red-blood, "can't they put round, sexier, girl-type girls in the fashion magazines? You ask me, no matter how good a dress is, you hang it on a bag of bones and it's got nothing!"

This is an attitude which has prevailed among the trousered classes since the early primitive days of the flapper when editors of style publications decided that the best way to show off a dress was to drape it around the most cadaverous torso in town.

Their theory, generally, is that by desexing the aspects of the model, the sheer beauty of the garment is spotlighted.

"But there's more to it than that," reported Richard Avedon, fashion photographer extraordinaire. "A fashion picture is designed more to sell ladies on clothes, rather than to give men an eyeful.

RESENT BEAUTY

"Women resent being in the presence of more ravishing women—you follow? So if you put a really seductive-looking girl in a new creation by a fashion designer, what is going to be the reaction of the lady who might be interested in buying the dress?

"Subconsciously, she will eye the model with envy and suspicion. Automatically, she's competition, and consequently unappealing to the eye.

Avedon, a 33-year-old artist whose photographs of "emaciated wraiths who look human" have brought about some improvements in this field during the past few years, insists that the picture is slowly changing.

"I doubt that the day will ever come when fashion models will be curvaceous, or even pleasingly plump," he says, "but I've been working hard to get by some photographs that make models look like real women.

"I believe that you can make them look—even if they're 20 pounds underweight and dressed in expensive French clothes—as if they are capable of having an ardent suitor.

FAMILY TYPES

"I am proud to say," he says firmly, "that I have even photographed a few girls recently who looked as if they might even have been capable of having a family."

This involved very careful selection of the model, of course. He had to pick one out with a wholesome face over the undernourished body ("women seldom resent a truly wholesome face"). And then to make sure the impression was put across, he posed her strolling through a park in Paris, wheeling a baby carriage.

Avedon is currently a top-flight and top-pay cameraman but in the near future he'll probably be even "hotter" in the trade. The soon-to-be-released movie, "Funny Face," with Audrey Hepburn and Fred Astaire, is based on the story of his life with his first wife, a top-flight fashion model named Doe Avedon—for whom he invented the term, "the doe-eyed look."

He's been "discovering" models since he started at the age of 20, and says that currently there's a greater dearth of the gaunt glamor girls than ever before in his experience.

Considering the fact that a fashion model can make $60 an hour, and that "a few thousand a week is nothing to her," this dirth seems curious.

Actually, all it probably signifies is that most young beauties would rather not skeletonize themselves for the sake of selling clothes to other women. She'd rather sell a man a bill of goods on herself.

About 99 per cent of the U.S. tobacco crop moves to market by truck, in addition to 97 per cent of the milk, 96 per cent of poultry, eggs and cotton, and 91 per cent of grain.

Bob Considine Asks:

Lurid Space Fiction Nears Reality

NEW YORK (INS) — The passing show —

Space, and how to navigate through it, is the chief concern of 200 leading military, industrial and university brains now gathered in San Diego. The lurid space fiction of the recent past becomes routine business when such men gather.

"Flight beyond the earth's influence has become technologically feasible," say Brig. Gen. Hollingsworth F. Gregory, commander of the Air Force Office of Scientific Research.

"Should we so desire and should we be willing to bear the great cost, instrumented flights into space are possible.

"Certainly we could put a space vehicle on the moon within five years, provided we want to do it . . ."

Let's.

U. S. Foreign Service personnel and especially their wives look forward each year of their overseas service to the release of a State Department handbook which shows which grade each person is in, and thereby indicates his salary. It is the Social Register of that calling.

U. of M. Making Study of Traffic Accidents

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Reduction of traffic mishaps is the goal of University of Michigan research engineers who are checking 4,000 accident reports and 30,000 pictures of traffic flow on Washtenaw County highways.

Dr. Bruce D. Greenshields, a university traffic engineer, expects the probe will find the underlying causes of accidents and will suggest measures to combat them.

It got to be a little too much for a career man who had been kept at a U. S. legation in Africa a bit too long. He resigned not long ago. He and his wife threw the usual farewell party, fed the legation people the usual warm cocktails and purple canapes, and then led them to the dining room.

There were no placecards! The guests were as stunned as if they had been asked to pay.

"Oh, just seat yourselves according to your salaries,," the wife purred. "You all know what they are."

Scandinavian Airlines will open a Copenhagen-North Pole-Anchorage-Tokyo route this week with the new longer-ranged DC7C. For those who might welcome a little reassurance that flying over the pole can be fun, the company has released some rather arresting statistics:

Clouds over the pole seldom climb higher than 10,000 feet. In the tropics they can build up to 50,000. Wind velocities seldom exceed 30 mph, whereas they get up to better than 200 elsewhere. There's little rain or snow.

At 30,000 feet, air temperature is about the same as over Europe and North America. (The lowest temperature ever recorded, 130 degrees below, Fahrenheit, was measured at 55,000 feet over Java — of all places.) And one last recommendation: There's no dust at the North Pole.

We've been invited to fly to Ceylon to see a bridge blow up. That's Hollywood.

The bridge is the biggest prop in movie history. When completed, shortly before being clobbered as the climax of a movie named "The Bridge on the River Kwai," it will stretch 425 feet and stand 50 feet high. A six-coach railway train will go with it.

In the picture, which stars Bill Holden, Alec Guinness and Sessue Hayakawa (Sessue Hayakawa?), the bridge is built by prisoners of the Japanese — who in turn blow it to bits. Biggest crackup since David O. Selznick burned Atlanta.

AND THEY DID!

Bill Seeman, the bon vivant with the good liver, is handing out cards reading:

"One day as I sat musing, sad and lonely and without a friend, a voice came to me from out of the gloom saying 'Cheer up, things could be worse.' So I cheered up and sure enough things got worse."

Writes Mrs. L. H., Kansas City, Mo., "Thought my body would burst from pressure and pain of monthly cramps. Nothing I tried helped until I found Pinkham's Tablets! Feel so much better now!"

For millions of women who suffer tortures of cramps and nervous tension every month, a new day has dawned! An amazing new tablet, developed especially to relieve this female discomfort, brings greater relief than aspirin for these miseries!

Relief for 3 out of 4 tested!

Doctors report amazing results. For 3 out of 4 women tested, pains and cramps were stopped or strikingly relieved. Even on the first day, many had no nagging headaches, backaches, other functional distress. Were less jittery before their period.

This new discovery offers more relief than aspirin because it contains not just 1 or 2 ingredients but a unique combination of medicines. Unlike "general purpose" remedies, it acts on the cause of distress. Has remarkable power to calm uterine contractions; also works through a woman's sympathetic nervous system.

Called "Lydia Pinkham's Tablets," they're at all drugstores without prescription. Try handy Pinkham's Tablets. See if you don't feel worlds better! See if you don't escape much of the irritability and discomfort — before and during those "difficult days." (Also liquid Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.)

By REBA HEINTZELMAN
of our
Waterford Township Bureau

On the first Wednesday of each month, Lloyd Anderson, supervisor, Louis Barry, Clerk, Dorcas Tibbals, treasurer and the two Trustees, Willard Johnson and Oscar Loomis, make an extensive inspection of the area.

The purpose of the monthly tour is "To see at first hand the problems that come up before the township board, that should have first-hand physical inspection before action is taken," Township Clerk Louis Barry said.

A close-range survey is made by the board on drainage and water supply problems and that all requirements are fullfilled on new plats, before the issuance of occupancy permits.

Although the zoning board has final authority in the re-zoning of various sections of the township, the Waterford Township board usually checks the site as to the advisability of changing the type-zoning.

Before an O.K. is placed on closing a dead-end street, the board visits the location and decides if the plan is practical or not. They also check the opening of new public roads, and road connections.

During a recent tour, the group inspected one of the two new water pumping stations, situated near Lake Oakland. Two wells with 12-inch casings now are in operation there.

The custom of inspecting the township was started two years ago by the Waterford Township board and Dorcas Tibbals said, "it is very gratifying to see what has been accomplished for the township at large as a result of these trips."

This is the only township board known to follow the monthly tour procedure, according to George Scrubb, Director of the Oakland County Planning Commission.

He said, "As far as I know, the Waterford Township board is the only group in Oakland County — and probably the state — that canvass their township once a month."

Justice Official to Be Quizzed

Antitrust Division Head Called Before Senators for Oil Lift Questioning

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Justice Department official faced questioning today from senators critical of antitrust immunity granted 15 major oil firms participating in the emergency U.S. oil lift to Europe.

Victor Hansen, new head of the department's Antitrust Division, was called before a joint hearing by the Senate Antitrust and Public Lands subcommittees.

Chairman O'Mahoney (D-Wyo) of the group said he thinks the investigation may show that "international corporations come pretty close to governing the United States."

Meanwhile, the House Commerce Committee asked President M. J. Rathbone of the Standard Oil Co. of New Jersey to return for more public questioning.

Rathbone said yesterday that a recent increase in prices for crude oil, gasoline and other products was "long overdue." It would have taken place in 1957 even if the Middle East crisis had not developed, he added.

He said the European emergency program was working well and "we have not forgotten our responsibilities to the American public. The consumer here at home is assured of adequate supplies of gasoline and heating oil."

Council Asks for Nominations for '56 Trophy

The Greater Pontiac Advisory Council is seeking nominations for the 1956 winner of the Mayor William W. Donaldson Trophy.

The council sent out letters this week to affiliated organizations asking them to place in nomination their choice for the trophy. It is awarded annually to the person, man or woman, judged to have performed outstanding service to the city during the past year.

William F. Kalwitz was the 1955 recipient of the trophy.

Deadline for the nominations, which must list the accomplishments of the nominee to the council, is March 14. They may be mailed to Mrs. Forrest E. Brown, at 101 Osceola Dr.

Members of the council will elect the winner from a list of nominees. Presentation of the award will be made at the annual meeting of the council.

FITCHBURG, Mass. (AP) — Mrs. Louisa I. Smart, mother of 8 children, 7 grandchildren and 8 great-grandchildren, will be 100 years old today. A native of Ashe County, N.C., she has flown 22,000 miles and plans another air trip next summer. She recalls Civil War days. Her husband, who fought for the North, died in 1923.

Use of Sanctions Indecisive Under the League of Nations

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

"Sanctions" is an odd word.

In ordinary use, sanction of something means that it's approved.

But in legal terms, carried over into diplomatic talk, "sanctions" denotes restriction, an intervention that tends to bring pressure upon a person or government.

And that's what U.N. diplomats are talking about in discussing whether to vote sanctions against Israel.

The term came into active diplomatic use in the '30s in the League of Nations, a predecessor of the U.N.

Article 16 of the League of Nations Covenant was the first attempt to organize a system of international sanctions to enforce peace and security. It imposed on all members the obligation to adopt coercive measures, including financial and economic boycott, against states which resorted to war in violation of the covenant.

Oct. 2, 1932, was a significant date in the decline of the old League because it failed then to apply sanctions against Japan in the case of Manchuria. On that date the report of a League of Nations commission bluntly accused Japan of aggression. There was much talk in Geneva, but no clear-cut action. Japan did not withdraw, and the Far East section of World War II was in the making.

Italy's Mussolini, observing this importance of the League, invaded Ethiopia Oct. 2, 1935, without a declaration of war. In an attempt to retrieve its authority, the League this time declared economic sanctions against Italy Nov. 18, but the measure proved ineffective. Mussolini continued his aggression, and May 5, 1936, formally annexed Ethiopia. The League declined further.

Fifty nations pledged collective sanctions against Italy and adopted an arms embargo against her. A financial embargo was added by 48 nations, a boycott of imports from Italy by 47, and a boycott of certain exports to Italy by 47. The United States, not a member of the League, acted independently and applied en embargo against both Italy and Ethiopia.

But the League sanctions did not include the export of oil to Italy, a measure which might have been effective. In June, 1936, sanctions were formally abandoned.

It was apparent that sanctions were not working when Hitler reoccupied the demilitarized Rhineland in March 7, 1936. France, reluctant to apply sanctions against Italy, endeavored to apply them to Germany. But the effort got nowhere.

The question of sanctions was not even discussed in the old League when Germany annexed Austria in 1938, and seized the remnant of Czechoslovakia and invaded Poland in 1939.

A form of political sanction was voted against Russia in 1939 when she was expelled from the League for invading Finland.

Some members of the U.N. have declared sanctions should be imposed on Russia for her armed intervention in Hungary. No formal resolution ever has been introduced. In 1951 the U.N General Assembly voted an embargo against war materials to Red China as a result of the invasion of South Korea. The Soviet bloc countries ignored the Assembly recommendation.

The sanctions so far suggested against Israel are less sweeping than those the League voted against Italy. The measures against Israel would call for all countries to withhold economic, financial and military aid. The proposal would involve only a few countries, primarily the United States, Canada and France.

Woman Eggs Her On

SYDNEY, Australia (AP) — Mrs. Gwendolyne Kelly, 37, got a divorce today after telling the court she returned to her apartment two days early from a vacation and a woman in bed with her husband ordered bacon and eggs. The an Mrs. Kelly said, had mistaken her for the maid.

With $900 Pot How Can You Resist Trying?

We can't imagine anyone passing up an opportunity to win $900 when all it takes is a little time spent having fun with the Pot-O-Gold puzzle. If you would like to be the one, get busy on your entry now and be sure to follow all the rules. If no winner is found for last week's puzzle, you may win that check for almost a thousand dollars.

The puzzle consists of (1) a number of circles which contain a few scrambled letters, and (2) a corresponding list of clues to these words printed below. The object is to arrange each group of circled letters into a word that best fits its clue. The word which you select for Circle No. 1, then would be the one which you would print in the space to the right of (1) below.

You'll notice that some circles contain $ signs in pots of gold. You may use such a symbol as any letter you wish. However, it and all letters in that circle must be used. The $ sign, of course, can represent ANY letter in the word.

Do the same in all the other circles. Study the clues carefully and arrange all the letters into words that you believe best conforms to these clues. Use your $ signs to help you spell out the right words.

HOME IN ROMEO — The Stephen Miklos and their children, Stephen and Zita, refugees from Hungary, have settled in Romeo. In just the few days they have been here, Stephen in third grade and Zita in the sixth at North Grade School, have learned many English words and phrases.

Family Finds New Life

Refugee Is Test Driver

By LEE WINBORN
Romeo Correspondent

ROMEO—For the second time in a month a refugee family from Europe has found a new home and a new life in this community.

The first couple, who fled Communist aggression in their native Poland, were Dr. and Mrs. Johann Freiderich Taessner. They were "adopted" by the First Congregational Church here. Dr. Haessner started work Monday at Michigan Abrasive Co. in East Detroit and the couple live in a duplex apartment on North Bailey street.

On the same street — not too many blocks away — a couple from Hungary have set up housekeeping with their two children, Zita, 11, and Stepher G., 8. They are Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Miklos.

Like the Haessners, the Miklos family has felt the hot breath of Soviet tyranny on their necks for many years. Finally, last November, they fled their native village of Stuhl-Weissenburg in northwest Hungary and began their trek westward first to Austria—then to freedom in the United States.

Their trip ended temporarily in Highland Park where they were taken in by a sympathetic family upon the recommendation of the Reform Church group.

Shortly after their arrival the Miklos family attended the Auto Show in Detroit where they met an automotive editor of a Detroit newspaper.

He learned about Miklos' experience as a test driver in Budapest. Further conversation revealed that the 39-year-old Hungarian had raced sports cars in both France and Italy.

The editor's report aroused the interest of Robert W. Gaines, manager of Ford's Michigan Proving Ground, northwest of here. Although Miklos spoke no English, he made a favorable impression on the companys' personnel department staff. He was hired as a test driver.

Spring's Here for Men Cleaning Park Equipment

Although far away in the minds of most residents, spring is just around the corner to the men of the Pontiac Parks and Recreation Dept.

"The parks crews are busy refinishing picnic tables while other men overhaul grass cutting machinery and such," said David R. Ewalt, department head.

Out of a $16,000 equipment fund, the department has ordered 100 new picnic tables, 50 new grills, four 30-inch mowers, and a new truck and tractor.

The picnic equipment is slated for a new park near Hawthorne School, Jaycee Park, and a new section of Murphy Park.

Depending upon the weather, the department hopes for a May 1 opening of the city's seven parks and playgrounds.

One Man Jury Calls Publisher About Article

FLINT (AP)—The one-man grand jury probing police tieups with gambling called a Lapeer weekly newspaper publisher yesterday—presumably for further information about a newspaper article, printed by his paper.

Robert Myers, 34, publisher and co-editor of the Lapeer County Press, spent about an hour testifying before the grand jury of Circuit Judge Michael Carland.

Myers published an article last week which said "an Underworld Czar" controlled vice in Flint.

The article said, "he is not a prominent person, because he avoids publicity, but he is immensely successful in legitimate as well as illegitimate enterprises and gives heavily to both political parties."

The article added that the "Czar" was well known to officials, but that it was difficult to get evidence against him. Myers intimated his information came from a former high Flint official who was not named.

March 18 Trial Date Set for Flint Woman

MIDLAND (AP) — A 32-year-old Flint woman faces trial March 18 on first degree murder charges in the fatal shooting of Elmer Korth at a Sanford Lake cottage 12 days ago.

Mrs. Virginia Reagen, a divorcee, was bound over for trial yesterday by Municipal Judge Henry Hart who ordered her returned to Bay County jail.

Mrs. Reagen and Mrs. Treva Jean Pearce, 24, of Ionia were being entertained by Korth and Erwin McArthur, Korth's business associate at the cottage Feb. 8.

Mrs. Korth and Mrs. McArthur entered the cottage. Arguments followed and Korth was shot dead.

Herbert Devine, Mrs. Reagen's attorney, said that the "crime, if one was committed, was one of passion."

But in the hearing, yesterday, Judge Hart commented that premeditation has been shown when testimony showed Mrs. Reagen had brought a gun with her against the advice of Mrs. Pearce.

Heenan to Serve on Historical Commission

Re-appoint 3 to City Tax Board

James F. Spence, Gerald W. Kehoe and Vernon K. Archer last night were re-appointed to the City Board of Tax Review by the City Commission.

The appointments were unanimous following a motion by Commissioner John A. Dugan.

The board, consisting also of ex-officio members City Attorney William A. Ewart and Director of Finance Oscar Eckman, will convene the first week in March to begin three weeks of tax appeal duties.

Most other action resulting from last night's 23-point agenda concerned routine reading of engineer estimates for public improvement projects for the year.

Commissioners authorized execution of a $33,000 purchase agreement for parts of two lots on Douglas street.

They set March 12 as hearing date for a proposal to rezone to Commercial 1 lots 159 to 163 in the Wilson Park Subdivision.

They approved a request from A. E. Hardebeck of 340 Osmun St. to drop Herbert A. Shannon as a partner on a 1956 package beer and wine license.

The commission heard a letter from Emmanuel Baptist Church Pastor Tom Malone, thanking the commission for action to annex 32 acres south of Golf drive. The church requested the annexation in order to construct a church-school project on the site.

A communication from the Pontiac Automotive Trade Assn. was read which "collectively expressed thanks to all" in helping carry out the 1957 Auto Show.

Mayor William W. Donaldson moved for the re-appointment of Leo J. Heenan to the Pontiac Historical Commission. It was accepted.

Public hearings were set for 8 p.m. next Tuesday on intention to instruct the following public improvement projects in the city:

Sidewalks on the south side of Mt. Clemens street from Featherstone to the east line of lot 13, assessor's plat 17; both sides of Joslyn avenue from Second to Third; north side of East Pike street from 80 feet east of East boulevard to the west line of lot 1, assessor's plat 158.

Sidewalks on the north side of South boulevard from Drexel to Sanford; west side of Baldwin avenue from Montcalm to Merrimac; south side of Montcalm street from Corwin to Summit; east side of East boulevard from Pike to Auburn; north side of South boulevard from Going to East boulevard; and on the west side of Joslyn avenue from Fourth to the north line of lot 107 of the Highwood Subdivision.

Public hearings also will be aired Tuesday on intention to construct two-inch asphaltic concrete recapping and curb repairs on North Johnson avenue from State to the Detroit, Grand Haven, and Milwaukee Railroad, and on Elm street from Marshall to East Boulevard.

A hearing on two-inch asphaltic concrete resurfacing and curb replacement proposed for Washington street from Henderson to Johnson will be held at the same time.

Further public hearings concerning special assessment rolls to partially finance the following two-inch blacktop paving jobs, will be held:

Wins New York Post to End Union Battle

NEW YORK (AP) — John J. O'Rourke, who is close to the teamsters' powerful Vice President James Hoffa of Detroit, took over the New York joint council of the union last night.

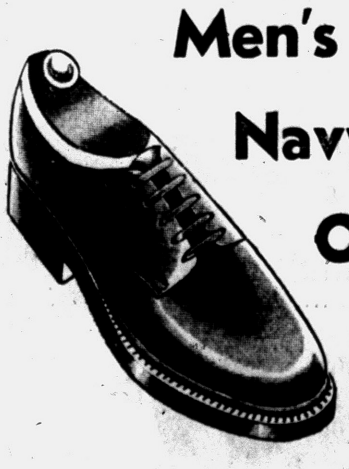

Thus ended a long and bitter battle between O'Rourke and Martin Lacey, 73-year-old veteran leader in the teamsters and the AFL here, who had been president of the joint council for many years.

Lacey, who won a court battle to throw out one election won by O'Rourke but later resigned, installed his successor.

Envoy Explains Students' Unrest

Korean Ambassador Says Education Breeds Independence in Youth

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (INS)—Korea's ambassador to the U. S. states it is not surprising that the revolutions "simmering right now" behind the Iron Curtain are sparked by college students.

In a speech prepared for delivery before the American Association of School Administrators' 83rd annual convention in Atlantic City, Dr. You Chan Yang explained:

"This is simply a manifest demonstration of what we know to be true — that education is, above all, the breeding ground of individualism and of independence of the mind and spirit.

"No nation is so poor that it can afford to neglect the education of its entire population. And no nation is so rich or so well-equipped with educational opportunities that it can dare to neglect their further expansion and improvement."

Declaring that "freedom of the mind is as important as peace or security," Dr. Yang added:

"It is why we must and shall fight Communism to the death . . . it represents the reason why the Iron Curtain must be smashed, why the conquered nations — including Northern Korea — must be liberated. This is the great challenge that confronts us. We must fight as we have never fought before, and we must succeed."

Calling attention to the plight of Northern Korea, Hungary, Poland and Vietnam, among others, the ambassador said these countries "are being ground under the heel of communist greed and madness for power and world conquest."

"If the above situations are to be rectified in the future, the young people of today have to be furnished with the tools to enable them to make the proper analysis of propaganda, so that it will be very difficult, if not impossible, for an aggressor nation, seeking world power, to make serious inroads in any peaceful, self-respecting nation."

Hear Talk on Synthetic Materials

Youngsters' Styles of Past, Present Are Modeled

Miss Rann, introduced by Mrs. James DenHerder, chose for her topic, "How to Handle and Care for Man-Made Fabrics." She defined manufacturers' names for different fabrics and explained different processes of dyeing materials.

She advised, "When buying man-made fibers blended with wool, watch for shrinkage. Fifty-five per cent of the man-made fiber is needed to retard shrinkage."

During the luncheon, fashions were modeled by the children of members. New and old fashions in children's clothing were shown, with the current day styles. To point up the contrast in styles, a display was shown of boys' and girls' clothing dating from the 1880s.

Fashions from that same period were also modeled. Youngsters on the program were Jimmy Gibson, Kathy Petroff, Linda Milzow, Lynell Redmond, Bob Clift, James Rofe, Molly Sellman, Delta Mahan, Carol Howerth, Richard Gorman and Nancy Redmond.

Others were Tom O'Connor, Susan Tyrell, Barbara Shadley, Mike Antrobus, Judy Niedelson, Tarri Gulacsik, Connie Jo Ludwick and Joseph Chafets.

Mrs. Paul Gorman served as general chairman of the luncheon and show held in Pontiac Federal Savings and Loan Building. Mrs. Erwin Greer arranged for the speaker and publicity, Mrs. Neil Nelson, place and reservations, and Mrs. Tom Doremus, decorations. Programs were under the direction of Mrs. Orrin Huntoon Jr.

The invocation was given by Mrs. Howard O. Powers. The guest group for the day was the Parent Guidance Club.

Colorful Towels Adorn Kitchen

NEW YORK (INS)—It's getting dificult to differentiate between kitchen and bathroom towels, since both are made of terrycloth these days.

The latest kitchen towels are being made with an eye toward adding beauty and color to the kitchen, as well as a new fabric.

Another print, in red or turquoise shows a colorfully costumed farmgirl leading either a duck or a pig by a rope, with a sprinkling of flowers in the background.

You can bring the flower boxes that decorate your window sills inside with a towel displaying a wide variety of flower box items. Basic colors are red or aqua.

Newcomers Plan Feb. 27 Style Show

Dries Towels Fast

Try installing an electrically heated towel rack in the bathroom. It dries damp towels in minutes—and can also be used to "toast" dry ones nice and warm.

Plans were completed for the card party at the recent meeting at which Cherry Hindle, Janet Coleman, Connie Norton, Irene Reed and Sharon Nichols were initiated into the group.

If Paper Won't Stick Just Take This Tip

If you decide on a do-it-yourself wallpapering job but find when you've started the job that the plaster is so chalky the paper won't stick, don't despair.

Apply a coat of shellac thinned with alcohol. This will provide the sizing you need to make the wallpaper adhere.

Loses 16 Pounds in 7 Weeks

Marathon Results Please Reader

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

This is the seventh week since I first presented my eight-week self-improvement marathon. All over the country thousands of women are dieting, exercising and giving their hair and skin special attention. They are sticking to a routine to see how much they can improve themselves in eight weeks time.

Already I have readers' letters which tell me of their results so far. Today I would like to quote from one such letter before me.

"Dear Mrs. Lowman:

"Well, six weeks of my Marathon have passed! At first it was a little hard because for a long time I had eaten much more than I needed. You will believe me when I tell you that I was 30 pounds overweight.

"My goal for this eight weeks was a loss of 20 pounds and lots of inches, and I am going to make it, I feel sure. AM I HAPPY! I am 40 years old but I'm beginning to look and feel nearer 30. It is surprising that I can feel and look so much better in such a few weeks.

"I have lost 16 pounds and many inches. For instance, my waist is 4 inches slimmer than it was and my hips 3-inches less."

SAME ROUTINE?

"Will you please answer two questions for me? I want to continue for a while longer, until I lose the remaining 10 pounds of overweight. Should I continue with the same routine? Also, how can I keep my new figure after I get to be the perfect size?"

Many women will want to know the answers to those two questions. First, you can continue indefinitely eating a well-balanced diet but holding your daily caloric intake to not more than 1,400.

Continue with the same exercises unless the ratio of your figure has changed. For instance, if your hips were large and exercise has brought them into line but your thighs are still too large, concentrate on exercises for the thighs.

Use most of your effort and time on the offending measurement. Then later use a well rounded exercise program.

If you failed to join Marathon and would like to do so send 10 cents and a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for the Marathon booklet. Address Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

If you have been on the Marathon, by now you probably have most of your measurements into line. If ne area still is too large, however, concentrate on exercises for the area. This girl is working on her thighs.

Top Hostess Keeps Mum on Politics

Mrs. Post Seen at Both Democrat and GOP Festivities

By JANE EADS

WASHINGTON — Wealthy hostess Mrs. Merriweather Post never talks politics in public. Her choice of party is nobody's business. It" just interesting to note:

The elegant lady, wearing her most opulent jewels, led off the promenade if predominantly GOP celebrants honoring President Eisenhower and the First Lady with a bow at one of the inaugural balls.

She was one of the first to buy out a box at a theater performance sponsored by the Woman's National Democratic Club for the benefit of their clubhouse.

House Speaker Sam Rayburn and other Democratic stalwarts had seats in other boxes at the fete, Bea Lillie's Ziegfied Follies pre-Broadway opening night.

"It was the biggest contribution she's made to the club's annual benefit fund," a member observed.

A LIFE MEMBER

Mrs. Post is a life member of the club, founded in 1923 with Mrs. J. Borden "Daisy" Harriman, former U. S. minister to Norway and longtime District of Columbia Democratic national president.

Mrs. Post is the divorced wife of Joseph E. Davies, who served as American ambassador to Russia during the Roosevelt administration.

They can get flowers for their party decorations from the Botonical Gardens, pots of them, and bouquets of cut flowers of the prize-winning variety.

Sometimes they draw upon the Smithsonian Institution for interesting objects d'art for their dinner and buffet tables, like the 2½-foot bronze elephant which centered the 40-foot tea table at a huge shindig given by Republican women at the Pan American Union.

SPECIAL MUSIC

On many occasions they get super-special music from one of the famous service bands, orchestras or choruses.

The busiest among these is the zingy redcoated Marine Band, which also plays for most of the wingdings at the White House.

MARGARET WADDELL MANNING

The engagement of Margaret Waddell Manning to Donald Clifford Fresne is announced. She is the daughter of Mrs. William Manning of Birmingham and the late Mr. Manning. His parents are Mrs. Mae Hunter Fresne of Franklin, Mass., and Harold A. Fresne of Salt Lake City. A June wedding is planned.

Officers Are Named by Past Presidents

Mrs. Malcolm Scantland was elected president of Past Presidents, MOMs of America Unit 19. Others elected at a recent meeting were Mrs. Bailey Arnold, treasurer; Mrs. Ira Harden, secretary; Mrs. Vera Naugle, chaplain, and Mrs. Robert Mutter, historian.

Directors of the group are Mrs. Frank Pols Polasek and Mrs. George Dodman. The group met at the Harden home on Henrydale.

Geologist to Speak

Helen Martin, noted geologist, will speak Thursday on "The Geological History of Michigan" at a meeting of the Sylvan Lake Branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association. It will be the annual Guest and Fathers' Night meeting scheduled for 7:30 at Pontiac Federal Savings and Loan Building.

THE NEW BOUFFANT

The bouffant is utterly charming on a few and completely wrong for many. Yet, the beaufantasie lingers. It's loveliness on a few causes the many to keep trying. Out of it is coming a new trend, delightfully feminine and practical and one that most women can wear. Soft waves brushed into place with casual wisps of curls that give the natural look so popular today.

Different textures of hair require different treatment. But in this way, we get those interesting variations which break the monotony of a style.

If you look well in hair of medium length and your hair is a medium or coarse texture, we think you will enjoy this new spring version.

Banish Winter Doldrums by Starting Some Project

By RUTH MILLETT

Midwinter is the season of the year when the homemaker is most likely to become bored with her job and feel she is in a slump.

Why not snap out of it?

It isn't hard to put a little more enthusiasm into your job.

How about those recipes you have been clipping out of newspapers and magazines and borrowing from friends, but never seem to get around to trying?

Pull a few of those out of their hideaway and try them out on your family. You'll find the job of cooking three meals a day a lot more fun if you'll pep it up with some new ideas.

How about those couples you've been meaning to entertain, especially those interesting newcomers or new acquaintances you've thought you would like to know better, but have never done anything about?

FIRST GESTURE

Why not make the first gesture toward friendship now instead of putting it off until you forget about them? Nothing stirs up home life more than new friends.

With the holidays past and summer still off in the future, there's no better time for starting a home improvement project. If you choose one that interests the whole family, so much the better. What you do with your family for the betterment of your home is always more important than what you do for them.

Feel a bit overweight, or lazy or less physically active than you should be at your age?

Then why not join an exercise class, or work out an exercise program for yourself at home, or start walking every day? If you do, you'll soon work yourself out of your winter slump.

It's easy to succumb to the winter doldrums — especially if you're a stay-at-home housewife. But it isn't difficult to work yourself free, not if you'll start today instead of saying dispiritedly, "I don't know what's the matter with me. I just seem to be bogged down in routine."

Yum, Yummy Stores May Sell Honey Cakes

Cakes may soon be available commercially with the honey-goodness of home-made pastry.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture agrees with the husband dreamily remembering mother's cakes—honey adds to flavor, color and texture of some baked goods.

Replacing sugar with honey in the commercial products, however has had its technical problems in the past since honey acids can mix with baking powder to produce low cake volume.

But Kansas State College, under contract with the U. S. Department of Agriculture, has developed a method which may make the use of honey possible on a wide-scale, commercial basis.

Short-Hair Coiffures Here to Stay

About every other season, there are loud noises to the effect that long hair is coming back.

Actually, long hair is seen, on some of the top fashion models. But there the matter pretty much comes to an end.

Women continue to wear their hair short and to demand hats for short hair. They've found short hair both pretty and efficient.

They've found they can save grooming time with short hair, in shampooing and brushing and tinting it. Lots of them like to shampoo their hair every other day, a task that would be too tiring if a great deal of hair were involved.

So most women's hair stays short, no matter what the experts decree. Many women do without permanents entirely, depending on expert cutting and shaping for curl. This means that hair must be short so that the weight does not pull out the curl.

For those who like occasional change, the nation's top hair stylists devise coiffures that combine long and short hair cleverly and prettily.

Does Mirror Give You Full Story?

A full-length mirror in your bedroom is a sound investment.

If you've been looking at yourself in the dressing-table mirror only, you're not seeing the woman that other people see.

A full-length mirror gives you a chance to check on front, back and side views. It gives you an opportunity to decide if your hairdo is really becoming, if a dress does for your figure what it should do.

It also gives you a perspective on color combinations that's essential.

Best plan is to make a habit of the full-length checkup each morning.

It's His 200th Birth Anniversary

France Offers Tourists

On the occasion of the 200th anniversary of the birth of the Marquis de Lafayette, the French Government Tourist Office offers the following pointers on things Lafayette to add a special zest to your vacation in France this year:

1. You can stay in the same building in Paris where Lafayette was married in 1774 to the lovely Adrienne d'Ayen-Noailles. It is now the Hotel St. James et d'Albany on the rue St. Honore.

2. You can visit the actual site where the famous words: "Lafayette, we are here!" were first spoken. It is Lafayette's grave, Picpus Cemetery, Paris. The phrase is part of a speech given by a Colonel Stanton in 1917, to emphasize that the American troops of World War I were renewing the great bond of alliance between France and the United States that began in the American Revolution.

3. You can walk through the grounds of the Palace of Versailles where in the fateful days of the French Revolution, Lafayette tried to suppress the growing Reign of Terror.

HOUSE IN PASSY

4. You can visit the house in Passy, on the outskirts of Paris, where Benjamin Franklin interviewed Lafayette before his enlistment in the U.S. Army.

5. You can hear the language of Auvergne as it was spoken in Lafayett's day. It is a dialict unique unto itself, and can be heard in many of the small villages in Lafayette's home region.

6. You can get some idea of the magnitude of Lafayette's sacrifice to fight in the American Revolution by visiting his luxurious birthplace, the Chateau of Chavaniac in the Auvergne region, and the home of his wife's family, the Chateau of Maintenon in the Loire Valley.

7. And, of course, you can take part in many of the official Lafayette Year ceremonies. Write to French Government Tourist Office for official program.

No. 8475 with Patt-O-Rama included is in sizes 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 years. Size 3, dress, 2 yards of 35-inch; panties, ¾ yard.

For this pattern, send 35c in coins, your name, address, size desired and the pattern number to Sue Burnett, The Pontiac Press, 372 W. Quincy St., Chicago 6, Ill.

Child Resists 'Lowly' Housework

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

Mrs. T. is the working mother of three children, the oldest of whom is Emmy, 14. As office manager of a law firm, she makes enough money to pay another woman to clean her house, do her shopping, give her children lunch and prepare dinner for cooking.

When she gets home, she puts dinner on the stove and then serves it. After it's eaten, she says to her family, "Whew—I'm tired tonight!"—and retires to the living room, leaving the dishes to Emmy.

They get left a long time before Emmy gets around to them. When she finally does, it's usually after her mother has said, "I'd be ashamed if I were you! What do you want me to do after working all day — come home and wash the dishes as well as cook your dinner?"

This question arouses still more resistance in Emmy. I can quite understand why. She has been given no say whatever in her mother's decision to exhaust herself in the service of lawyers instead of her family.

Her feeling is, "Why should I have to do the dishes alone every night because Mommy prefers a job to housework? Other girls' mothers help with the dishes. Why do I have to be different from other girls because Mommy likes being different from other mothers?"

A GOOD POINT

If you are a working mother, you will be intelligent to recognize the fact that Emmy has a point.

The offspring of working mothers tend to be more ordinarily resistant to doing home chores. Though their mothers may have the most reasonable-sounding motives for choosing work outside the home over work inside it, they have nevertheless made their choice and declared their preference.

They have devaluated home chores in comparison with money making. Children sense that this devaluation has taken place—and with its example before them day in and day out, naturally begin to resist home chores, too.

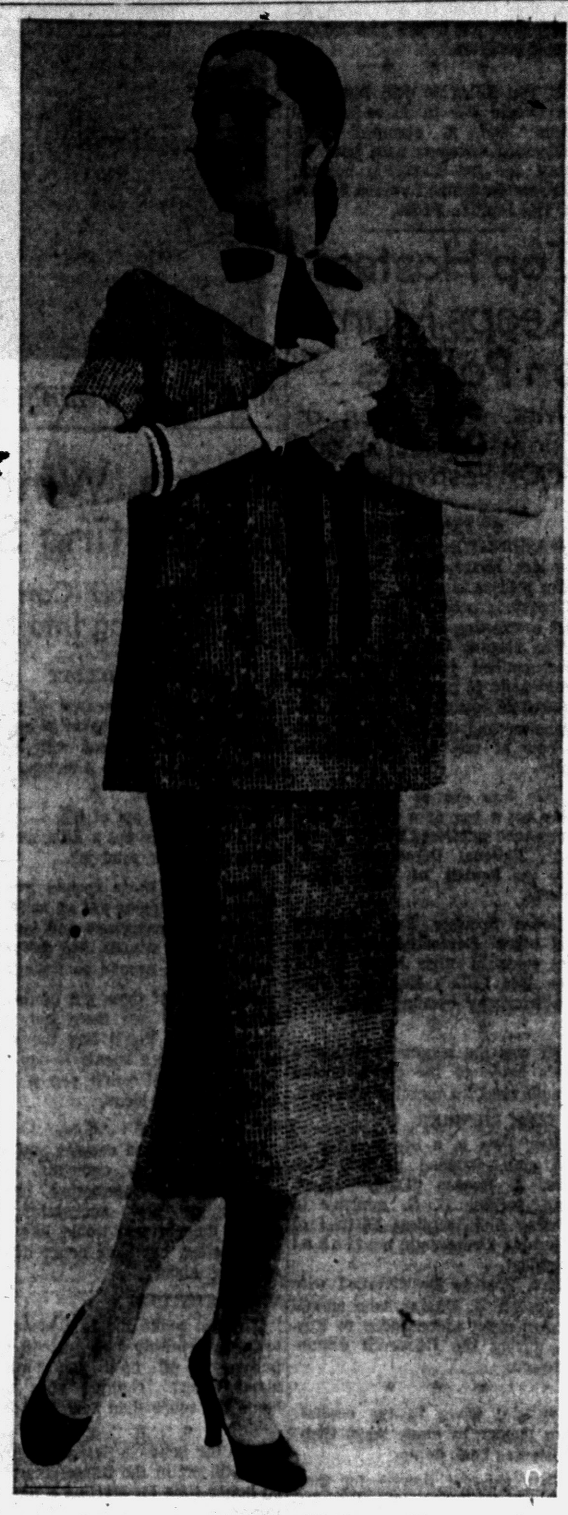

If you're a working mother, you're behaving like an ostrich if you do not register this as natural—and take steps to remedy it.

The first step is, of course, toward the kitchen where the dishes are waiting to be done. We lead the way to the chore instead of sending Emmy out to it alone.

Instead of demanding that she accept the housework that we avoid, we share it with her—and to Emmy as washer, become the drying and putting-away partner.

Our contempt for housework is always reflected in children's resistance to it.

Expectant mothers will love this two-piece maternity dress. Black velvet is looped through the white Puritan collar. The fabric, a blend of cotton and Cupioni, is crease-resistant and washable. Sure to be a favorite of the mother-to-be.

Inseparable Suit Styles Are Shown

Charming, youthful and springlike, this new outfit is composed of a supple suit worn with a blouse of printed silk. Blouse and suit are "inseparable" because the jacket lining and its collar facing are of the same printed silk as the blouse.

The suit can be of tweed, jersey or shantung. The "inseparable" blouse is of silk or pique.

The new Chanel blouses are not in the classic shirt style, but have collarless boat necklines and elbow-length sleeves. They reach lower than the waistline and are worn over the skirt and with a narrow self-belt.

One 1957 Chanel suit is of beige tweed with four vertical slit-pockets, two on the bust and two on the hips. The blouse as well as the jacket lining and collar facing is of printed silk with an impressionistic pattern in brown, red and beige.

A more dressy Chanel number is of black shantung for the suit and white pique for the blouse as well as the jacket collar, cuffs and lining.

For home seamstresses, the new Chanel look will be an easy job. Buy enough printed silk, rayon or cotton to make yourself a blouse plus a new jacket lining for a suit you already own.

By wearing the jacket casually open to show that blouse and lining match, you'll mark a fashion point at once.

Mrs. David Pierce Honored at Shower

Mrs. David Pierce was the guest of honor at a pink and blue shower given by Mrs. Charles David Robinson of Commerce road Monday evening.

Softness is the big news in fabrics and silhouette, and take form in front or back fulness, draped necklines or gentle peg-top skirts. Since fit is of overwhelming importance to large figures, the full drawstring blouson should be avoided.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Beaird of Clarence sreet announce the engagement of their daughter, Lois, to Darrell Hawley. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hawley of Rochester.

25th Birthday Is Celebrated by Bible Class

The 25th anniversary of the Fellowship Bible Class of First Baptist Church was celebrated Tuesday evening in the Educational Building of the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter DeNio and their committee arranged the dinner attended by 110 members and guests. Table arrangements were by Mr. and Mrs. W. Earl Campbell and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Carpenter.

The class history, read by Mrs. W. A. Seaks, was illustrated with pictures of highlights. Included was a poem dedicated to the class at the time of organization by Mrs. W. E. Sly, now of Traverse City.

Don't Bypass Sales on Day-Old Bread

Sales on day old bread should not be bypassed if you have pork chops or soup in the offing.

Split, stuff and slit the pork chops. Cube, toast and scatter the stale bread on steaming bowls of soup. Butter the bread and sprinkle garlic salt over it before cubing; it's elegant on French onion soup.

Presents Are Always Too Small

Woman Asks How to Explain This to Her Friend

By EMILY POST

A woman writes me as follows: "I have a friend who always gives me a present at Christmas and for my birthday. She invariably gives me something to wear, such as a slip, a blouse, a nightgown, etc. They are always very pretty things but they are too small.

"I never said anything to her because I did not want to hurt her feelings, but it seems senseless to have her continue giving me things that do not fit.

"I have a birthday coming up soon and I would like to know if it would be proper to say anything to her about this, and if so, how can I do it tactfully?"

Answer: During the course of conversation with your friend you could very easily and quite naturally say, "I've gained so much weight lately that nothing seems to fit me properly any more. I'm afraid I'm going to have to take a larger size from now on."

"Dear Mrs. Post: My husband and I and two other couples have tickets for the theater for next Saturday night. These tickets were bought several months in advance.

"Three and a half weeks ago my mother-in-law passed away. I would like to know if it would be proper for my husband and me to go to the theater as planned, or should we give the tickets to someone else to use?"

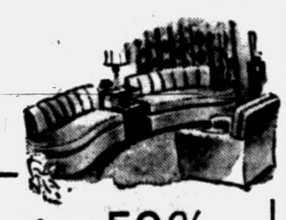

Answer: In another generation it would have been shocking, but in the present day I see no harm in your going. I think anyone would be caviling to criticize.

"Dear Mrs. Post: I do not smoke, but most of the girls I know do. When I have a date and the girl I am with runs out of cigarettes, is it up to me to buy them for her, or would it be permissible for me to allow her to buy her own?"

Answer: For so long as you are host, it would certainly be expected of you to buy them for her.

Switching heels. When you "switch" from high heels to flats or vice versa the muscles at the calf of the leg are apt to protest. Knead the muscles gently but firmly with a good quality witch hazel.

Sisterhood Hears Talk

Jewish Music Discussed

"Jewish Music for Young and Old" was the topic discussed by Jason Ticton at the Tuesday afternoon meeting of Sisterhood of Temple Beth Jacob.

Mr. Ticton is professor of music at Wayne State University and director of music at Temple Beth El in Detroit.

"Jewish music no longer is a spiritual orphan," the speaker remarked. "It has become music for all around the year. Hebrew music no longer reflects only pathos but also is gay and happy. Israel's folk songs are wonderful music."

Mrs. Ticton, a music instructor in the Detroit public schools, led the group in community singing.

Mrs. Irving Gordon, president, conducted the business meeting. Others participating on the program were Mrs. Abe Cohen and Mrs. Herman Stenbuck.

Use Clams to Make Quick Soup

Mrs. Must Adds Bacon for Flavor in Seafood Dish

By JANET ODELL

With Lent coming along in short order this recipe for clam chowder will be welcome. You will have to substitute butter or margarine for the bacon in a Lenten dish.

Mrs. Raymond Must is today's cook. A former occupational therapist, she is now a full-time homemaker and the mother of a two-year-old. She enjoys cooking and experimenting with food.

CLAM CHOWDER
By Mrs. Raymond Must

¼ cup chopped onions
2 slices bacon
1 can minced clams
Undiluted evaporated milk
2 small boiled potatoes
Parsley

Dice bacon and cook crisp. Saute onions in bacon fat (use butter or margarine if this is to be a meatless dish). Add can of clams, juice and all. Add a canful of evaporated milk and the potatoes, peeled and cubed. Serve garnished with melted butter and parsley.

Accept Your Self-Consciousness

By ANNE HEYWOOD

Some people always seem to have their best foot forward. In a job interview or a dinner party, an employment agency or on a blind date, they move smoothly without any clumsiness, shyness or self-consciousness.

But most of us are not so lucky. Most of us do have a certain amount of self-consciousness. We have to learn how to cope with it if we're to keep it from making us miserable.

This is particularly true in job-hunting interviews, where so much is at stake — including, sometimes, the next meal! How to handle it?

First, face the fact that you are going to be self-conscious to some extent—that you were born that way and that you're in good company.

If you take it for granted and expect it, you're better off than if you let it surprise you.

Second, be sure that the job you're going after is a kind that interests you. If it's just any old job, you really won't be very much interested in it, and therefore you won't be spontaneous or interested in what the interviewer says.

If, on the other hand, you're really enthusiastic about the job, this will transcend your shyness and you'll find yourself speaking with the greatest of ease.

Third, remember that the chances are the interviewer is not any too comfortable himself. It may not seem so; being on the other side of the desk helps a good deal.

But remember, a lot is at stake for him, too. He's charged with finding the right person for the opening and if he judges wrongly he'll be in trouble.

If you can force yourself to think of that, and to try to make it easy for him, you'll find your own self-consciousness dwindling fast.

Fourth, wear clothes that are comfortable and that you are at home in. And have your hair done its ordinary way. Too-new clothes, and too-newly set hair, make you feel uncomfortable.

Yankees Deeper With Pitchers After Trade

AP Wirephoto

SURPRISED — Pitcher Mickey McDermott, one of the Yankees traded to Kansas City, said the announcement caught him by surprise. Last year was his first with the Yanks.

NEW YORK (AP)—Casey Stengel, the master manager who says, who couldn't use a pitcher," today can add Art Ditmar and Bobby Shantz to a staff he already had figured deep enough to bring his New York Yankees still another American League pennant.

As far as the world champion Yankees are concerned, Ditmar, a 27-year-old righthander, and Shantz, a stubby, 31-year-old southpaw, were the key men in and the Kansas City Athletics set in motion yesterday.

It was just two weeks ago that Stengel, sounding like a man clipping coupons, confidently listed "my seven pitchers" — Whitey Ford, Don Larsen, Bob Turley, Johnny Kucks, Tom Sturdivant, Bob Grim and Tommy Bryne.

Case didn't get around to calling his seven the best in the league, but he left no doubt that he considered the staff had enough depth to win him an eighth pennant.

"You take Cleveland, now," said Stengel. "Cleveland's got pitching and Detroit's got three or four good ones. But do they have enough if one of 'em has a bad year?"

Along with the two new front-line pitchers — two, that is, if Shantz can lose his sore arm troubles — the Yankees also received infielder Wayne Belardi, southpaw pitcher Jack McMahan and two players yet to be named. At least one of the "unknowns' is ticketed for the Yanks' Denver farm in the American Assn. along with Belardi and McMahan.

In return, New York shipped outfielder Irv Noren, infielders Billy Hunter and Milt Graff and pitchers Maury McDermott, Tom Morgan and Rip Coleman to the A's, who also will be assigned another player by April 15. The three pitchers were second-line relievers in Stengel's book.

In the original trade set up, New York also was to have received infielder Cletis Boyer. It wasn't until after the swap was announced that the two clubs were advised by the league that Boyer, as a $50,000 bonus player in 1955, couldn't switch clubs until his two-year bonus period runs out May 31.

A Yankee spokesman said the club would receive a "substitute" player for Boyer — or perhaps Boyer himself — by the June 15 trading deadline.

Stengel commented that "Kansas City got a better club by making this deal," the largest in the majors since the Yanks and Baltimore shuffled 17 players around — with Larsen and Turley going to New York — on Nov. 18, 1954.

"They got a doubleplay combination in Graff (who hit .318 at Birmingham in the Southern Assn. last season) and Hunter," said Case, "and they got three experienced pitchers. That's what they needed most — a doubleplay combination and pitching.

"Of course, they didn't put a gun to my head. We knew what we were after — Ditmar and Shantz. Everything depends on Shantz. If his arm comes through I've got a good deal. If not, I'm hooked and it will be my fault because we know all about his bad arm."

Shantz won 24 games for the then-Philadelphia A's in 1952. But injury and a sore arm have dogged him since. Still, in his 69-65 major league record (2-7 in '56), Shantz has beaten Chicago (11-9) and Detroit (10-4) and has been good enough against Cleveland (8-13) — the three Yankee threats.

Ditmar led the league with 22 defeats last season, but the hefty righthander won 12 for the last place A's. In his three seasons in the majors he has a 25-38 record — 5-4 vs. Chicago, 4-3 vs. Detroit and 4-7 vs. Cleveland.

The Yankees, confronted by a big payroll and a number of players dissatisfied with contract offers, had signed only Hunter for 1957 among the players traded to the A's. Said personnel director Lee MacPhail: "We have too many big league players. We had to cut down."

Red Sox Outbid by Yanks

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Red Sox, apparently outbid by the New York Yankees for Kansas City pitchers Art Ditmar and Bobby Shantz, still may try and swing a deal with the Athletics.

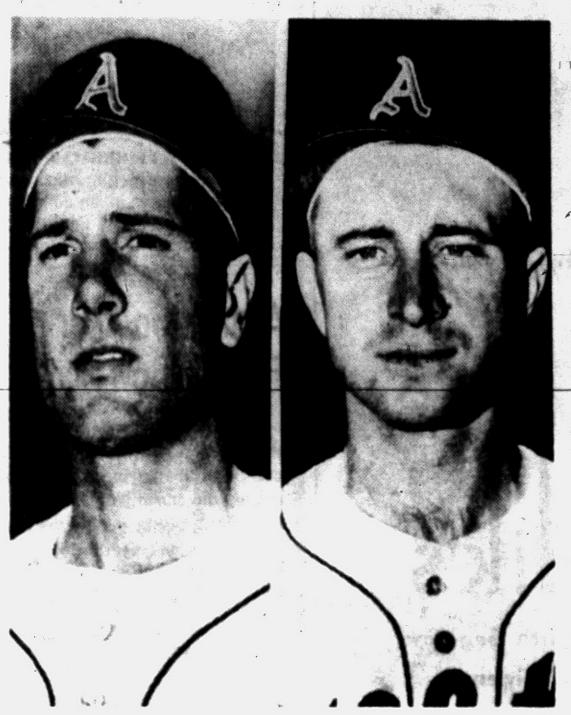

Speculation arose today that the Red Sox may attempt a trade to obtain a shortstop from Kansas City to fill a big hole in the Boston lineup.

The 13-player deal with the Yankees yesterday gives Kansas City two shortstops — Joe De Maestri and Billy Hunter. Both are veterans and either probably would win a steady job in Boston.

The Red Sox lost Don Buddin to the Army and hope to convert young Billy Consolo, a second baseman, into a shortstop. They have only Billy Klaus to take over if Consolo fails to fill the bill. And Manager Mike Higgins thinks that Klaus has too many limitations at short.

Boston General Manager Joe Cronin was obviously disappointed in Sarasota, Fla., yesterday when he learned the Yankees had acquired Ditmar and Shantz from Kansas City.

"We wanted both Ditmar and Shantz," he said. "We've been trying to get together with the Athletics on a deal for them. I guess they like the Yankee ball players better than ours."

HEAD FOR YANKEES — Pitchers Art Ditmar (left) and Bobby Shantz figured most prominently for the Yankees in the 13-player deal with the Kansas City Athletics yesterday. The Yanks gave seven and got six in return.

Imlay City Wins 14th

Imlay City reportedly turned in its poorest showing of the season but still managed to nip Armada by a 41-40 count for its 14th straight victory last night. Larry Dorow paced the victors with 18. Hal Arft, who missed a chance to upset the dope or at least gain a tie when he was fouled with 23 seconds to play, led Armada with 12.

SVC Champs Guard Against Letdown

By H. GUY MOATS

Pontiac High's Saginaw Valley Conference basketball champions will not be permitted to rest on their laurels, despite the fact the school's first title has been tucked away.

That's the ultimatum Coach Art Van Ryzin has issued to his club this week.

"Just because we have the Valley crown clinched," Art said today. "Is no reason why we can afford to slow down. There's not going to be any letdown. We have acquired the winning habit and we're definitely out to win every game we can. The club is fully aware that any letdown now will hurt us badly in the forthcoming regionals. So we plan to just keep on driving."

Chiefs had big Jim Skinner back in uniform and working out Monday and Tuesday for the first time in weeks. The big fellow is sure to see action Friday night at Flint Northern, but it was questionable today whether or not he would start. "At any rate," said Van Ryzin "we will be at full strength again for the first time in several weeks."

Pontiac seeks its 9th Valley win in a clean slate, its 12th in 13 starts, at Flint. PHS dumped Vikings 54-41 in their first meeting of the campaign, but the unpredictable Norsemen are always tough on their home floor. "We know Northern will be gunning for us," says the Chiefs' mentor. "They're going good, too, just see how they plastered Central in their last outing."

Victory over Bay City's Wolves last weekend wound up the Chiefs' home appearance (for this season.) They still have two tests left, however, at Royal Oak next Tuesday and at Saginaw High, March 1, ending both Valley and regular season schedules.

Valley conference standings:

	W	L
PONTIAC	8	0
Saginaw	5	3
Arthur Hill	3	5
Bay City Central	3	5
Flint Northern	3	5
Flint Central	2	6

Ribner's 49 Total Fails to Stop Loss

Senior guard John Ribner rewrote the Lapeer County basketball record books with a 49-point performance, but his North Branch team still went down to an 84-83 defeat at the hands of Bad Axe at North Branch last night.

Ribner rang up 19 field goals, hitting on 55 per cent of his shots, and added 11-for-15 on fouls to break the previous high of 44 set by Lapeer's Tom Wilson. Eighteen in the 1st was his best quarter. The majority of floor baskets came on drive-ins and long set shots.

Regional Draw Delayed

Drawing for the Flint MHSAA basketball Class A regional tournament has been delayed, PHS athletic officials reported today.

It had been set for this afternoon, but will take place, instead, Coach Art Van Ryzin says, next Wednesday, at Flint Northern.

Tourney will include Pontiac, Waterford, Flint Northern and Central, Lansing Sexton and Lansing Eastern, Owosso and Port Huron.

April 5 or 12 at Detroit

Spieser-Moore Bout Seen

DETROIT (AP) — Chuck Spieser, in line for a crack at Archie Moore's light heavyweight title, is a college - educated, two-time Olympic fighter so prone to cuts that he once seriously considered quitting the game.

The contract isn't signed and all the details haven't been worked out, but indications are that the 27-year-old ex-GI will take on ageless Archie at Detroit's Olympia on April 5 or 12.

Spieser has averaged only about a half-dozen fights a year since he turned pro in late 1952. Last year he had only four bouts, and he had to go to the heavyweight ranks each time to earn a paycheck.

With only 24 fights under his belt, Spieser's "fat" paydays have been few and far between. His top payday was about $10,000 when he dropped a 10-round decision in New Orleans last May to heavyweight Willie Pastrano.

Winning 19 fights, Spieser has lost 4 — two of them by technical knockouts because of cuts about the eyes — and fought to 1 draw. Fourteen of his victories came on knockouts. He has been off his feet just once.

"Maybe a lot of people haven't heard too much about me," Spieser guessed, "because I haven't fought as much as a lot of guys. But there aren't too many light heavyweights around in the states, and I've had to take some layoffs because of cuts."

Lions Look to Larger Playing Site

DETROIT (AP) — If the Detroit Lions want to play football in a bigger arena than Briggs Stadium, they'll very likely have to build it themselves.

Edwin J. Anderson, president of the Detroit Football Co., announced record revenues in 1956 at a stockholders meeting yesterday. Then he said:

"There's only one way we can increase our revenue, and that's by moving into a bigger stadium."

The next largest stadium in the Detroit area would be the 100,000 seater at the University of Michigan—billed as the largest ever built for football alone.

It was likely in reference to this huge bowl that Anderson said, "you can say that we will try to break down the Big Ten barrier."

He said, "We've talked to one Big Ten athletic director and were rebuffed. It seems there's a conference ruling which prohibits the use of Big Ten facilities for pro sports, but we'll try to get them to amend that rule."

The big ten rule specifies that member schools may use their physical plants only for educational, university or amateur functions.

For that matter, the Lions may note that the Michigan stadium wasn't built in a day. It was started in 1927, but Fielding H. Yost designed it so it could be easily expanded from its 79,000 capacity. Wooden bleachers brought capacity to 87,000 until steel stands replaced them in 1949, upping capacity to 97,239.

Just last year, further expansions were made, enabled by the enormous concrete footings that Yost had specified, to boost capacity to a little over 100,000.

Anderson announced that the Lions led all professional teams last season in home ticket sales, drawing 315,752 fans to Briggs Stadium.

Parkers Pin Another

Peter Thomson Top Threat in Rich Houston Tourney

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Peter Thomson, the pudgy Australian who has won the British Open championship three straight years, has moved in among the favorites on the eve of the $36,000 Houston Open.

Rain and cold wind did not bother Thomson yesterday as he played his first 18 holes since December and fired a five-under-par 66 to win $450 in top money in a $5,000 pro-amateur event preliminary to tomorrow's opening of the richest tournament on the winter golf tour.

More rain was expected today at Memorial, which at 7,200 yards is the longest course on the winter tour. A field of 160 players tees off there tomorrow while seeking the 72-hole tournament's $7,500 first prize.

Harry Dee, 31-year-old Hartsdale, N. Y., pro, led Memorial qualifiers yesterday with a four-under-par 68 fashioned with a pair of 83's. It was the same score Dee and Bob Gadja, Bloomfield Hills, Mich., scored to share qualifying honors just a year ago.

Gadja barely escaped elimination yesterday. He and 13 others tied at 74 were scheduled for swatfest competition for four positions until tournament officials ruled that because of the weather all 14 could qualify.

Don Whitt, Alameda, Calif., was among those failing to qualify at 76. Two weeks ago he lost the Tucson Open title in a playoff with Dow Finsterwald.

Over par on only one hole, Dee scored fours on all four of Memorial's par five holes.

Fifty players qualified. Another 79 had 85 or over. Par was broken by 16. Eight others had par 72.

Clarkston, the bridesmaid team of the Wayne-Oakland League as runnerup three times in the last five seasons, will have a tougher assignment than Northville to gain at least a 1st place tie this year. The Wolves play Holly, a victor over Northville, while the Mustangs play last place West Bloomfield. Both teams must win to share the title.

The Strohs - Pontiac bowling team turned in an impressive actual game series of 3120 in the Motor Inn Senior House League recently. Three finished better than 650 led by Paul George with 205-236-249—690.

Flint Tech has been added to the Pontiac High Wrestling schedule. The match is slated for 3:30 p.m. at PHS Friday.

St. Bonaventure has been added to the list of NIT teams. The Bonnies (13-3) will join Dayton, Cincinnati, Seattle and Memphis State in the NIT.

Calgon, Walled Lake Wins Feature City League Play

The Calgon Kids took over 1st place in the National division and Walled Lake Super Market tied the Lakeside Royals for 2nd spot in the American loop to feature Tuesday night's adult City League basketball action at Jefferson Junior High.

Roger Reynolds tallied 19 points as Calgon defeated Bestway, 47-39, for its 7th triumph in 10 games. Victory enabled the Kids to take a half-game edge over Griff's Grill. John Bridgewater made 11 points for Bestway.

Walled Lake nosed out Booth Homes, 75-72, in a closely-contested battle. Jim Poteet fired 25 points for the winner, who moved into a 2nd place deadlock on a 9-4 record. Booth's Bill Dunstan scored 19 markers.

In Class D International League play at Lincoln, the Blackhawks downed Coca Cola, 28-24, for their 1st win of the season. Lou Waterfield collected 11 points for the Blackhawks.

Archie Bell's 12 points led the Doodlebugs to a 36-33 decision over Home Lunch in National League activity. Jerry Andrews of Home Lunch took scoring honors with 14 counters.

TEST YOUR BASEBALL KNOW-HOW

YOU'RE THE MANAGER

By BEN OLAN

Kansas City, beset by injuries to several key players, finished a poor last in the American League race in 1956. At times, however,

ART DITMAR

Here's an opportunity to match wits with Kansas City Manager Lou Boudreau. He made the right move in a game at Fenway Park, where the Boston Red Sox seldom lose. Would you have done the same thing?

(Key: (R) righthanded (L) lefthanded.)

It's the last of the ninth at Boston and Kansas City leads the Red Sox 6-5 with reliever Art Ditmar (R) pitching for the A's. Billy Goodman leads off by fouling out. Ted Williams, batting for pitcher George Susce, walks and Billy Consolo runs for him. Milt Bolling walks and Billy Klaus follows with a single to right scoring Consolo with the tying run. Bolling takes third. Mickey Vernon (L) is the next batter and Dick Gernert (R) on deck and Jackie Jensen (R) to follow.

Would you:

a. Bring in a lefthander to pitch to Vernon?

b. Let Ditmar pitch to Vernon?

c. Have Ditmar walk Vernon intentionally to fill the bases?

Result: C—Ditmar intentionally walks Vernon. Gernert hits a fly to left field which Johnny Groth frabs and his throw to the plate doubles Bolling attempting to score for the third out. The A's pick up a run in the 10th and win 7-6 (Aug. 26).

Don't Be Outside Looking In When Trotters Arrive

Do you want to be outside looking in when the Harlem Globetrotters come to town?

That may be your fate unless you start ticket-shopping right now. Last year's Trotter visit here resulted in a sellout and many disappointed fans were turned away at the door.

The fabulous Trotters, headed by riotous Meadow Lemon, meet the famous Philadelphia Sphas this Sunday night at 7:30 in the Pontiac High School gym.

"Value" doesn't mean something for nothing

The idea of something for nothing has always been attractive. But such ideas usually end against the stone wall of a simple principle: you get what you pay for.

When you hear of "bargains" in men's clothing, you'll do well to remember this: if a suit sells for more, it costs more to make. If it costs more to make, it has certain advantages over lower-priced suits.

Society Brand suits are among our higher-priced clothing. They sell for more; they are well worth more.

A Society Brand suit is not "something for nothing." But dollar for dollar it is an exceptional value.

HEARTY FISHERMAN — Ice fishermen, probably the heartiest of anglers, are getting plenty of sport on Michigan lakes — with tasty fish dinners as an added reward. Spearing seasons end February 28, but hook and line enthusiasts will be active as long as ice conditions remain safe.

Sunday Fox Hunt Set at Rochester

Plans were announced today for a Sunday fox hunt on the Johnson farm at Rochester, starting at 9 a.m. Shotguns only will be used. A sportsmen's dinner will follow at Rochester Eagle hall for which tickets may be had at Rogers Sports store, East Lawrence, Pontiac, or at Joe's Barber Shop on Main street, Rochester.

Wardens Arrest 5,959 Violators

LANSING — Conservation officers made a total of 5,959 arrests during 1956 and more than 96 per cent of these cases resulted in convictions.

Convictions were recorded in 5,735 cases; another 166 cases are incomplete and 58 were dismissed.

The law violators were assessed a total of $95,984 in fines, plus $45,860 in court costs in justice courts throughout the state. All money from fines goes to library funds in the county where the fine was assessed.

In addition to the fines, violators were ordered to serve a total of 1,740 days in jail sentences.

Archers Go After Foxes in Bow Hunt

Holly area bow-hunters and any others interested in trying their skill with the stringed weapons, against the cunning of the red fox are invited to take part in the first hunt of its kind ever held in the Pontiac area. Cliff Dreyer of Holly is host for the fox bow-hunt, set for Sunday Feb. 24, starting from Dreyer's sports store in Holly, at 9 a.m.

Bows and arrows are the only weapons permitted for this hunt, and Dreyer said he expected "about 500" would take part.

Plans Started for Four-Day Outdoors Show

By GUY H. MOATS

Followers of the outdoors, fishermen, hunters, boaters are promised some interesting features in the 2nd annual sports and boat show beginning Feb. 28 and running through March 3 (just one week from tomorrow). Show will be at the Pontiac Retail Store, 63 Mt. Clemens street.

Plans are now being completed for the exhibition, which will be free to the public. It will open daily, except Saturday and Sunday, March 2-3, from 1 to 10 p.m. On the weekend the show will open at 10 a.m. continue to 10 p.m.

Some 14 exhibitors have already been assigned floor space in the spacious quarters at the Pontiac Motor retail outlet. They include many outboard motorboat dealers, handlers of outboard motors, marine hardware, equipment, gadgets for the boating enthusiast. There will be scores of other displays of fishing, hunting and other outdoor equipment, including tents and camping equipment.

Demonstrations of archery, fly and bait casting have been arranged for each day. Ben Hardesty, Shakespeare's fishing expert will be back for daily demonstrations with his supple rods. Exhibitions of marksmanship by a pistol expert is another daily feature.

Trout 'Purists' Stirring

By JACK PATTERSON

City Club card players declare that spring must be just around the corner because it is still daylight when they get out from lunch. Another sure and certain sign is the annual reappearance of a rash of trout fishing material in outdoor magazines. A rash, we might add, that will become an epidemic next month.

PATTERSON

This is all the evidence we need to start the wheels turning on some late-winter meditations on trout fishing—by which we mean dry fly fishing—as a way of life.

There are, to be sure, other methods of taking trout, including dynamite, gill nets, worms, streamers, wet flies, poison, grasshoppers spears and, indeed, whatever means the devious minds of non-purists may concoct.

We have no space to comment on such questionable practices here. Anyway our dry-fly fisherman, if not actually unaware that such rude practices exist, successfully pretends they don't.

Ideally, the dry fly fisherman should be born late in life, a somewhat impractical suggestion, but one that points up that a gentle maturity is essential to the proper application of the dry fly fisherman's art.

Collaterally, it should be noted that pups and whippersnappers have no more place on a trout stream than a 1925 Essex has in the Grand Prix.

A minimum of 20 years apprenticeship, sitting at the feet of the masters, absorbing the Great Truths of fly fishing (most of which are completely false) would seem a modest and reasonable requirement.

Once the pupil had proved his ability to identify a thousand or so fly patterns at sight, or even better, by feel, had mastered the art of fabricating horse-hair leaders and greenheart rods (archaic instruments both but invaluable to the discipline of the beginning fisherman) and could recite the average April mean temperatures of the country's first 50 trout streams, he might be allowed, at the age of 40, to try a few tentative live casts.

Part of this asperity may be due to the fact that our purist has observed that his worm fishing questioner has a creel bursting with oversize trout. Mostly, though, it's due to tradition.

Skippers Trip Milford, 56-49

Walled Lake, Waterford and Bloomfield Hills were among the winners of local battles on a slim Tuesday night basketball card around the county.

The Vikings had little trouble posting their 12th triumph against one loss with a 75-42 thumping of Cranbrook in on afternoon contest. Waterford led all the way for a 56-49 verdict over Milford and the Hills cagers nipped West Bloomfield in the closing seconds, 52-50.

Eleven different Walled Lake players scored in the easy win on the Crane court. Larry Hughes topped the pack with 26, while John Studebaker tallied 17 for the losers. It was never close after a 22-9 1st quarter.

Milford gave Waterford a busy evening. Despite trailing by 9 at the 3rd canto, the Redskins battled back to within two in the finale before faltering for their 13th setback in 15 tries. Ron Seets swished 22 for WTHS.

Bob Bedford and Pat Kelley had 10 apiece in the losing cause. The Skippers are now 6-7 for the year.

The final outcome was not decided until Randy Barrett split the cords with a desperation two-hand push shot from 25 feet out with five seconds remaining.

Barrett had 14 and Dave Drury hit 16 as the Barons handed the Keego quintet its 13th defeat. John Lucadam sparked West Bloomfield with 17. The Lakers' only win has been over Bloomfield Hills.

Elsewhere on the prep front, New Haven clinched a tie for the Southern Thumb championship and took over undisputed possession of the lead by whipping Almont, 49-39; Brown City upset Dryden by 47-34, and Memphis whipped Capac, 41-23, in other Thumb action. New Haven's Stan Gleason and Larry Kersten matched 18-poinnt outputs in that 1st place duel.

$100,000 Gate for Title Bout

CLEVELAND (AP) — A gate of more than $100,000 is expected when Carmen Basilio defends his welterweight title against Johnny Saxton here Friday night, according to matchmaker Larry Atkins.

"That will be the biggest gate here since Max Schmeling and W. L. Stribling Jr. fought for the heavyweight championship before a $349,419 house at the Municipal Stadium in 1931," Atkins said.

Friday's fight will be the first championship bout here since Sugar Ray Robinson kayoed the late Jimmy Doyle nine years ago.

One of the big reasons being cited by Atkins for the big gate is a local blackout on television. The fight will be broadcast and telecast nationally, NBC, with a TV blackout within a 100-mile radius of Cleveland.

The Eaglets trailed at the end of the 1st quarter as Stan Moniuszko scored all of his eight points in that period to keep them in contention. The two teams fought right down to the wire with Orchard Lake winning out at the foul line.

Forward Pete Madelans paced the Eaglets with 18 points on five field goals and eight free throws. Richard Schall tallied 16 for St. Florian.

New DODGE Power Giants

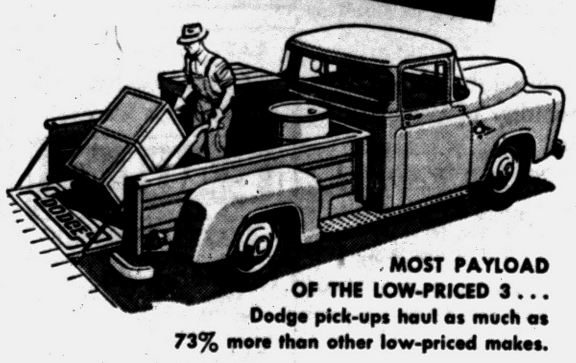

MOST POWER OF THE Low-Priced 3

You get a power reserve in a Dodge Power Giant that pays off every mile you drive. From 204-hp. pick-ups to giant 232-hp. tandems, Dodge gives you the most power of the low-priced three . . . actually as much as 31% more.

Extra power means faster acceleration, safer passing . . . cuts your time costs every trip. It cuts operating costs, too, because it lets your Dodge engine loaf under loads that make less powerful engines whine with strain. Less strain means less wear, fewer repairs. And the special design of these Power Giant V-8's delivers full-powered performance on regular gas.

More power lets you haul bigger loads. That's why Dodge can offer bigger payload capacities in every weight class. For instance, the Dodge 300 pick-up packs up to 73% more payload each trip than comparable competitive makes. And that's the kind of payload advantage that many times means one trip instead of two.

Dodge is the easiest handling truck on the road —with the shortest turning radius for easier parking and quicker zip-in-and-out maneuverability. Power steering is available for most models. And, for the first time on any truck, Dodge offers the extra convenience of a push-button* automatic transmission for the easiest driving ever.

MOST PAYLOAD OF THE LOW-PRICED 3 . . . Dodge pick-ups haul as much as 73% more than other low-priced makes.

Combine all these features with smart new Forward Look styling and comfort-designed cabs and you've plenty of reason to take a good look at a Dodge. Why not do it soon? You'll find your Dodge dealer's deal will help you decide on a new Dodge Power Giant right now!

*Available on all low-tonnage and Forward-Control models.

A Dreamer's Ambition: Solvency

Disney Sits in Laps of Gods and in the Hands of Bankers

(This is the third of four articles on Walt Disney whose imagination, ambition and daring have made him one of the giants of the entertainment world.)

By CHARLES DENTON

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — Walt Disney, who elevated the cartoon to the realm of art, pioneered in new motion picture techniques and helped rear television to adulthood, is now aiming at another ambitious achievement.

At 55, he wants more than anything else "to get out of the hands of the bankers."

Behind this admission by a man who has risked and made millions on talking mice and temperamental ducks is a story of ebbing, flowing fortunes.

The drama began in 1927. Disney, a relative Johnny-come-lately to the motion picture world, had popularized a cartoon character he called Oswald the Rabbit.

But — and this might be called the story of Disney's life — he wasn't satisfied with Oswald. He needed money to improve his cartoons, a situation that has been repeated time and again in Disney's life.

Disney used the direct approach. He and his wife, the former Lillian Bounds, went to New York to see the distributor of his films. The distributor not only failed to appreciate Walt's ambitious plans, he notified the young creator that he, not Disney, owned Oswald by right of financial interest. Then and there he reclaimed the disputed bunny.

As it turned out the unremembered executive did Disney — and the world — a favor. It was on the Disney's sad journey back to California that Walt recalled another intriguing creature — a mouse.

What Walt has in mind was not just any mouse, but a specific one that had lounged around his drawing board during his lean days as a cartoonist in Kansas City. He had dubbed the rodent Mortimer.

NIXES NAME

Mrs. Disney vetoed the name and suggested instead the name Mortimer as being too pretentious Mickey. A new era in film cartooning was quietly ushered in.

Walt and brother Roy, now the president of Walt Disney Productions, mortgaged their holdings to give their cartoons sound, and Mickey Mouse began a trek into history that was to make his name one of the best known in the world.

Then, in 1937, Disney gambled everything — and won. He hit the golden jackpot with his first feature - length cartoon, "Snow White," one of the most profitable movies of all time.

But the tide turned after that. "Pinocchio" cost him $2,600,000 and lost, temporarily, at least, a cool million. "Fantasia," a cherished Disney dream completed shortly before World War II, lost another million and only recently began creeping toward the black.

A bitter, paralyzing strike further hamstrung the studio after "Fantasia." Disney stood on the brink of disaster. He scraped through during World War II by producing propaganda and training films for the armed forces.

But Walt was making plans, and when peace came, his empire swelled and then literally exploded in all directions — bigger, gayer animated features, ordinary motion pictures, television and the fantastic, multi-million dollar Disneyland amusement park in Anaheim, Calif.

"But we don't, at the moment, plan to expand any further," Disney says. "I feel that we're getting hold of it now.

"The problem is to keep up the quality. We have a certain size theatrical program, and we don't want it to get too large.

"The thing uppermost in my mind now is to get out of the hands of the bankers, and we're doing pretty well at that now. We want to be our own masters."

Treaties Call for Atomic Pool

West European Leaders Agree to Lift Trade Bars

PARIS (UP)—Top leaders of six West European nations today agreed on treaties providing for eventual abandonment of trade barriers among them and creation of an atomic pool.

Emerging from the final session of a three-day conference, French Foreign Minister Christian Pineau told newsmen, "There was complete agreement and you will soon have a communique to prove it."

Pineau said the treaties would be signed in Rome "as soon as possible" but that no date had been fixed. Once signed, they would have to win final approval from the parliaments of the six nations—France, West Germany, Italy, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg.

The French minister said experts now would put the pacts into final textual form along the lines agreed on at the current meeting.

Disagreements which threatened the revolutionary plan were overcome in an intensive all-day meeting yesterday of the premiers and foreign ministers.

Belgian Foreign Minister Paul-Henri Spaak, prime mover of the plans for a common market and the "euratom" agency, stayed up most of the night editing the last day's work.

Under the common market plan the six nations of some 160 million people would do away with the customs and tariff barriers among them over a trial period of 12 to 17 years. At the same time they would work toward establishment of a unified tariff system on imports from outside the six nations.

Sponsors also believe the plan would have a tonic effect on their industries, since it would do away with many of the protective tariffs behind which they have sheltered.

Euratom would set up a six-nation pool of atomic materials and a unified program for producing nuclear power and possibly atomic weapons.

House Debating Postal Fund Bill

Deluged With Protests at $58 Million Slash of Requested Figure

WASHINGTON (UP)—Faced with protests from postal employes over proposed cuts, the House moved into its second day of debate today on a money bill for the Treasury and Post Office departments.

The committee recommended a reduction of 58 million dollars in Post Office fund requests. A deluge of telegraphed protests followed. The $3,192,000,000 approved by the committee is still $76,177,941 more than the department had for comparable programs this year.

The Post Office Department complained that cuts would force layoffs, curtail existing services and make it impossible to expand.

Rep. Gary (D-Va), who headed a subcommittee that drafted the bill, said it is "obviously ridiculous" to claim the action would require dismissal of employes now on the payroll.

There are many places where the department can effect savings he said, claiming that by halting Saturday deliveries of what he called "junk mail" — advertising matter sent at cheap rates — it could save 10 million dollars annually.

Opry director W. D. Kilpatrick said Pierce's "unwillingness to conform with long - established rules and regulations" governing personal appearances was the reason for the parting.

Pierce said he quit because the station charged him an artist's fee but offered no services in return.

Dynamite Blast Hits Knoxville

Armstrong and Band Scarcely Miss a Beat in Jazz Concert

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (UP) — A dynamite explosion outside scarcely caused Louis (Satchmo) Armstrong and his Negro-white band to miss a beat last night in a jazz concert before a segregated audience.

"That's all right, folks," the gravel-throated Negro trumpeter quipped, as the sound of the blast echoed through the administration building at the city's Chilhowee Park. "It's just the phone."

Nobody got excited, only a few persons got up to see what happened, and the show went on. There were no injuries and scarcely any damage.

The blast, which police said apparently was caused by no more than a single stick of dynamite tossed from a passing car, ripped a four-foot hole in mud about 200 yards east of the building.

About 2,000 whites and 1,000 Negroes were in the building. Armstrong and his combo had returned from an intermission. They were striking up "Back o' Town Blues."

There were three Negro and two white musicians in the band, in addition to the Negro songstress and Armstrong.

He said the incident here, which he obviously wasn't taking very seriously, would not affect his current tour. The group will play tonight in Columbia, S. C., as scheduled, he said.

"Man, the horn don't know anything about it," he said. "I'll play anywhere they'll listen."

Solons Consider Recruit Training

Seek to Compromise Army-National Guard Dispute on Needs

WASHINGTON (UP) — A House Armed Services subcommittee turned to other phases of the military reserve program today while it sought to compromise an Army-National Guard dispute over recruit training.

Subcommittee Chairman Overton Brooks (D-La) said the group probably will work next week on a compromise between the Army's demand that new Guard recruits get six months active duty and the Guard's insistence that those under 18½ be required take only 11 weeks.

Brooks indicated he has been impressed by the arguments in favor of six months training but is concerned also that "nothing be done to hurt the Guard," which says the requirement would wreck its recruiting.

The subcommittee heard one dissent from Guard ranks yesterday.

Maj. Gen. Roy Green, commander of the 49th California Guard Division, said he had instituted the six-month rule in his command and was delighted with the results.

Extension of the requirement "won't kill the Guard, it will make the Guard," he said, adding that parents are impressed by the argument that their sons would have a better chance of surviving in war if they are well trained.

He predicted an increase in enlistments, but in Sacramento, the adjutant general's office said the division showed a net loss of 107 men in January.

The compromise most spoken of now would involve a delay in the mandatory six months duty, now scheduled to apply to men enlisting April 1 or afterwards. Various plans have been suggested for giving the Guard a chance to try out its 11-week plan while using inducements short of a flat requirement to get recruits to fill out the six months. The Army also would be required to help the Guard get recruits.

Mystery Author Caspary Will Write Movie Script

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — That writer of mystery novels, Vera Caspary, has checked into Columbia to script "The Last Angry Man" for Fred Kohlmar.

In looking about for someone who could give Gerald Green's best-selling novel just the right touch, Freddie was fortunate to get Vera. She is very busy writing novels and short stories of her own.

Marlon Brando has been sent the book, and since this is a powerful story, Kohlmar is hopeful that Brando will accept his offer.

Met C. V. (Sonny) Whitney at the Cobina Wright party and he told me that Pat Wayne, Duke's son, is so tall that he cannot put him in "The Healing Woods" as was planned.

"I had to get a smaller boy, so I have put Brandon de Wilde in the part. We are casting every day and we will be starting the picture very soon."

I saw Sonny again at the Screen Producers Guild dinner where he talked to Barbara Stanwyck. I wouldn't be surprised if Barbara is in one of his pictures.

After seeing "10,000 Bedrooms," there is no doubt in my mind that Dean Martin is star material, even aside from his singing. He has a wonderful, affable personality and he talks very much in the same relaxed manner as Big Crosby.

Anna Maria Alberghetti, too, has beauty, acting ability—and what a voice!

Dean doesn't have to worry about working with Jerry Lewis or anyone else, but he does have to worry about the type of material he gets. This may be just me—but I would like to have more comedy in his next musical.

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random:

The meanest thief in town is the woman who snatched Peggy (the former Mrs. Louis) Hayward's poodle in a market and got away before she could be stopped. Peggy is heartbroken.

Must see "Silk Stockings." At the party Saturday night, Cyd Charisse was being congratulated. They say its her best picture. Tony Martin was very cute, saying, "I'm Mr. Cyd Charisse."

Jana Lund is not only seeing Elvis Presley on the set of "Loving You," but she's been to the movies four times in a row with him.

One Killed, One Hurt in Hot Rod Accident

NEW YORK (UP) — A stripped-down car, driven by two young hot rodders, smashed into a row of tombstones in a Bronx cemetery yesterday. One boy was killed, the other critically injured.

Police said the two youths apparently were testing their contraption on a road in St. Raymond's Cemetery when it went out of control.

Found dead was 17-year-old James Navan of Sterling, Conn., believed to have been the driver. Critically injured was William Schroeder, also 17, of the Bronx.

ANKARA, Turkey (AP)—A second lieutenant in Turkey's army reserve has been sentenced to life in prison for spying for the Soviet Union.

Wheat, Corn Take Small Dip

CHICAGO (AP) — Grains held within narrow price limits on the board of trade today, in less active dealings than on other days this week.

Wheat and corn tilted a little lower early, but soybeans held steady. Selling in wheat reflected additional light moisture in Texas, while corn was off as the commodity credit corp., renewed selling its corn to exporters after respecting all bids for two days.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was ¼ lower to ¼ higher, March $2.32⅝, corn unchanged to ⅜ lower, March $1.30¾, oats unchanged to ⅛ higher, March 76, rye ¼ to 1 cent higher, March $1.33½, soybeans ¼ to ⅞ higher, March $2.41⅝, and lard 8 to 13 cents a hundred pounds higher, March $15.05.

Moisture was rather light in Texas overnight. Some points in Kansas received light snow. The forecast was for light rain or drizzle in parts of all the southwestern winter wheat states for today, tonight or tomorrow.

Artificial Rink of Doubtful Value at Present Time

"There are other projects which must come first," he added, "And I am a little doubtful just how much the rink will be used to make it worth the money it would cost."

Willman, and David R. Ewalt, Parks and Recreation Dept. director, both expressed hope that someday Pontiac would have an artificial rink.

"In the meantime," Ewalt said, "we have to develop our present facilities."

Ewalt placed a $150,000 price tag on a rink, which, due to a concrete floor, could be used possibly for roller skating during summer months.

Weather permitting, the city operates 12 man-made rinks throughout the city.

Earnings

NEW YORK (INS), — General Motors Acceptance Corp. reported today 1956 net income of $45,705,188, compared with $35,276,581 the previous year. Total receivables reached $3,439,000,000 at the end of last year, a gain of $242,000,000. Retail contracts purchased amounted to $3,685,000,000, a five per cent drop from the record 1955 figure, reflecting lower auto sales. Wholesale volume, which arises from financing dealer stocks, dropped 12 per cent.

NEW YORK (INS) — The Walworth Co., leading maker of valves and pipe fittings, reported today record sales in 1956 of $84,308,000, a gain of about $33 million over the previous year. Net income totaled $4,476,051, or $2.21 per common share, compared with $2,354,141, or $1.53 a share, in 1955.

Early Trade Up; Steels, Oil Lead

NEW YORK (AP)—Steels and oils were in demand as the stock market moved higher in early trading today.

Key issues advanced from fractions to around 2 points or more.

Oils were resuming their upward course of late yesterday after the Texas Railroad Commission boosted the state's allowable oil production for March.

Arise of 2½ at 71 was made by American Cyanamid on an opening block of 2,500 shares. The firm made a 2-for-1 stock split proposal yesterday. It stretched its initial gain to around 3.

After two days of trading the market's general level was still little changed from where it stood at the end of last week when the list dropped to a new 1956-'57 low, then rallied to win back all the lost ground. Today's early rise encouraged the bullish element to believe that the market was snapping out of its breathing spell.

Gulf Oil rose around 2, Socony-Mobil and Royal Dutch about a point each. Youngstown Sheet also was up around 2 and U. S. Steel about a point.

Tucker Subsidiary Told to Pay Taxes

CHICAGO (AP)—A federal court judge has ordered the bankrupt Tucker Automobile Corporation to pay $100,000 in federal taxes.

Judge Michael L. Igoe said yesterday the money is to be paid as soon as it is received from Air Cooled Motors, Inc., Syracuse, N. Y. The Syracuse firm is a subsidiary of the Tucker firm and now is its only asset.

The judge approved a 1956 progress report filed by the corporation receiver, Nathan Yorke, allowing $25,000 in fees for creditors, attorneys and stockholders.

The Tucker Corporation went into bankruptcy in 1948, attempting to produce a rear-engine "dream car." Preston Tucker, the firm's president, died in 1956.

New Car Registrations Nearly 6 Million in '56

DETROIT (AP) — New passenger car registrations last year numbered 5,955,248 units, Automotive News reported yesterday. The Automoblie Manufacturers Assn. previously reported factory output of cars last year came to 5,816,109 units. Of these latter, 192,708 units were shipped to foreign markets.

The figures on sales emphasize the cleanup effort made by the retailing division in reducing the inventory of new cars carried over from the previous year.

Last year's registrations compare with 7,169,908 in 1955, when factory output amounted to 7,920,186 units. They also show that General Motors accounted for 3,024,246 retail deliveries against 3,639,120 in 1955; Ford 1,694,108 compared with 1,980,736 and Chrysler 922,053 compared with 1,206,195.

In the standings by makes, Chevrolet ended the year with 1,565,399 deliveries compared with 1,640,861 in 1955; Ford division had 1,375,343 against 1,573,276; Buick 529,371 against 737,879; Plymouth 483,756 against 647,352 and Oldsmobile 437,896 against 589,515.

OTHER FIGURES

Other figures in the registration totals showed American Motors accounted for 115,105 registrations last year against 136,753 in 1955 and Studebaker-Packard had 104,708 against 147,864. Under "miscellaneous," 94,908 registrations were reported last year compared with 59,240 in 1955.

The registration figures for December last year showed that Ford division topped Chevrolet that month 138,357 to 129,111. They also showed that the German-built Volkswagon topped all foreign car registrations in the United States for the year with 50,011 out of a total of all foreign makes of 91,042. In 1955 the Volkswagon total was 28,907 out of total of 51,658.

Automotive News also reported today that new car inventories on Feb. 1 totaled 620,278 units compared with 512,018 on Jan. 1 and with 870,399 on Feb. 1, 1956.

The trade paper said: "With scattered exceptions, dealers are approaching the March-April period with confidence that the inventory runaway of 1956 can be averted. . . . division executives have shown to date no signs of disturbing the status quo by jacking up production schedules."

'Mr. Green Jeans' Enthralls Young Television Fans

Views Children as Small Adults

Hugh Brannum Teams With Captain Kangaroo in Daily Show

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP) — When a certain tall and bespectacled gentleman goes out for dinner, the host and hostess always permit their children to greet him. And the children almost invariably bring in most of their friends.

As he stands knee-deep in children, he is introduced to the adults as Hugh "Lumpy" Brannum. But the children don't know him by that name. They yell, "Tell us a story, Mr. Green Jeans . . . Sing us a song, Mr. Green Jeans. . . Wanna play hide and seek, Mr. Green Jeans?"

And that is just about the last that Mrs. Brannum and the adults present will see of Lumpy Brannum for the evening — unless the host and hostess put a time limit on the kids.

For the information of all adults who are doing dull things like working or going to work or sleeping in the earlier mornings of Monday through Saturday, Mr. Green Jeans is the handyman and gardener of the property presided over by "Captain Kangaroo," a CBS-TV program so attractive to children that a good many parents watch too when they can.

Brannum likes kids, likes to play with them, even though they are not his own. His son, Tom, is 20.

"Children are really small adults," he said. "That's the way everybody on 'Captain Kangaroo' views them. They are extremely interesting people. You shouldn't speak down to them. They're equals. That's the way we treat them on the program. It's the way to treat them in living.'

Brannum, 46, is an Illinois Methodist minister's son who graduated from the University of Redlands in California into playing a bass fiddle at a small California radio station. With three other young men he formed a quartet which Fred Waring hired in 1940. He wrote Waring's TV show for three years, told children's stories on the show as "Uncle Lumpy,' has written songs for 25 children's records and presided over a New York children's TV program before joining "Captain Kangaroo."

WRONG FLAG — Issued in commemoration of the recent Melbourne Oylmpics, this stamp has stirred up a philatelic fracas. The stamp shows Korean runner Kee Chung Sohn winning the marathon in the 1936 Olympics in Berlin. It brought a squawk from the Republic of Korea because of the Japanese flag in the upper left corner. Korean officials demand the flag be removed. Korea was under Japanese rule in 1936 and Kee Chung Sohn competed as a member of the Japanese team.

Suggests Donaldson for State Highway Job

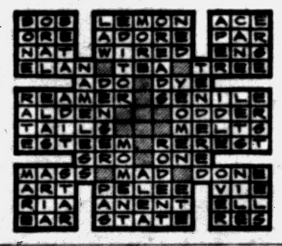

LANSING (AP) — A new name has been proposed for nomination to be decided at the Democratic state convention Saturday, Democratic state headquarters reported today.

William H. Donaldson, 45, of Mt. Clemens, a former state highway department engineer, has become the fifth possibility suggested for the nomination of state highway commissioner.

Found Dead on Farm

BAD AXE (AP) — Frank H. Taylor, 73, of Sanilac County's Marion Township was found dead Tuesday on a farm of a relative near Deckerville. He had apparently slipped and struck his head.

Answer to Previous Puzzle

Miami Beach Getting Palm Beach Rivalry?

By EARL WILSON

PALM BEACH—Evidently Palm Beach is going to challenge Miami Beach in the hotel derby.

As the beautiful wife and I rode up to the Palm Beach hotel where Anita Ekberg, Rita Moreno, Anne Miller and other celebs were bunked, we inquired "How old is this hotel?"

"How old is it!" exclaimed our guide. "It isn't even finish yet."

That's the speedy way we're living nowadays. You start living in a hotel before it's finished, and by the time it's finished, it's out of date and some other hotel—which isn't finished yet—is the new "this year's hotel."

At least, that's the Miami Beach tempo, although Palm Beach, with its air of exclusivity, doesn't go in for all that hurly-burly normally.

Palm Beach may, however, be dropping its snootiness, as indicated by the warm welcome it gave the Hollywood stars whom Mrs. Gregg Sherwood Dodge imported for the Heart Fund Ball.

By the way, I didn't mean to mislead you about the community still being rich. The B.W. got into a cab and asked to be taken to a dime store.

"What do you mean, dime store?" demanded the hackie in hurt tones. "We don't have dime stores in Palm Beach.

"Those are only allowed over in WEST Palm Beach."

MARTHA

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Dr. Ralph Bunche may accompany Nixon to Africa. Sammy Davis Jr., Judy Holliday and Jack Carter joined in the ovation for Tony Bennett at his big opening; he was never better.

Billy Eckstine and Sarah Vaughan will split $150,000 for their tour . . . Jerry Lewis is bringing the family to town . . . Phil Silvers' '41 film, "Footlight Serenade," now on TV, shows him with a full head of hair . . . Linda Darnell will tour the summer theaters in "Tea and Sympathy." Martha Hyer plays Rock Hudson's wife in "Battle Hymn" — but doesn't have a single scene with him.

EARL'S PEARLS . . . The careful driver stopped at the crossing to look and listen. All he heard was the noise of the driver behind him smashing into the rear of his car—Ima Washout.

....WISH I'D SAID THAT: "The recipe for success," sighs Lisa Kirk, "is often the same as that for a nervous breakdown."

Arthur Canton reports that the executives at one network are being shuffled rapidly: "When you're hired they give you a desk and an hourglass." That's earl, brother.

Osteopathic Hospital Works on Expansion

Twelve months ago to the day, a fleet of ambulances carried some 30 patients from the hospital's old quarters at 32 Auburn Ave., to their remodeled home at 50 N. Perry St.—the former Hotel Pontiac.

Today there are 110 patients on seven floors, the seventh of which was recently completed. "We're filled to the brim and our waiting list is growing," said Harry H. Whitlow, hospital administrator.

Workmen are now in what used to be the hotel's bar and lounge, preparing them for conversion to a 12-bed juvenile ward.

Other plans call for an additional and adjoining seven-story structure to go up on the east side of the present 27-year-old structure.

NEW WING

"The juvenile ward will give us 124 beds and the proposed new wing will add some 120 beds to this," Whitlow pointed out.

The hospital purchased the hotel from the Hotel Pontiac Corp. in December of 1955.

Doctors, nurses, and spouses pitched in for weeks prior to the February 1956 opening, and scrubbed, painted, and remodeled the building.

Looking ahead to a second successful year, Whitlow said several projects would be added to aid patients. One would be the distribution of informative booklets to explain hospital procedures to incoming patients.

A beautician will be added to care for hair problems, free of charge, of "long stay" patients.

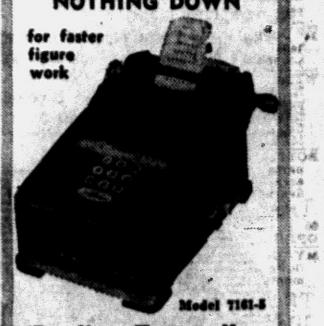

No rate increases are forthcoming despite the necessary expansion. "We haven't changed rates and we're not going to," the administrator emphasized.

Leggett PTA Plans Panel Discussion

The Eliza Seaman Leggett PTA in Waterford Township will have a panel discussion at 7:45 p.m. Thursday.

Topic will be on "Special Services Offered by the Waterford Township Schools." Those leading the discussion are: Mrs. Randy Sax, speech correctionist, Mrs. Lois Tiffany, musical director, and Doris Hanna, school nurse.

Following the discussion, the organization will form small groups for a question and answer period.

Hal Boyle Asks:

How Does World Look to Man 45?

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—When a man isn't 45 years old—or, naturally, whether he is—he leaves an area of doubt.

Tomorrow will destroy the doubt. I'll be a year older. Will I feel 99 years old? Will I feel like 19 years old, when I went in for collegiate wrestling — middleweight champ, night hours, co-educational. Or will I feel like two years old when I still insisted on autographing diapers?

The thing I am sure of is that I won't feel like 45, which I won't be.

Who am I? Where did I come from? Where do I want to go?

When I was a child I looked into a mirror and asked myself these questions. There was none to give me answer. Now again, after the trouble of many years of living, I ask the same question. The answer is the same.

I walk the walls of this world—as every man must—and I see no security except the courage to walk and defend these walls.

What does a man learn while walking . . . When he isn't 45?

He has seen so many topple from the wall of this world from pride, envy, malice and hate that he knows that for these reasons—and other reasons—they no longer walk.

But in his walk along the wall he also misses many he met along the way — from kindergarten to Korea and beyond—who he treasured and who had every ability except how to escape death. Some didn't try. Some did. In any case frost changed and held them.

Time, the Merlin of the heart, stern calendar of the blood, measures an anxious vein, casts a forward shadow on the splendid tapestry of life's wonder, performance and desire.

When I was a child. Since I was a child. Life was always a thing of awe to me. And in my mind there was always an interior clock.

The clock didn't give me a particular message. I was just aware of it. As the people I knew rose and disappeared after their fun in the sun or their defeat in the dark, I had the feeling that time was going by, too, and sometimes wondered whether I would join them in sunlight or shadow.

But I never had much of a sense, really, of either going or staying after I grew up. I suppose I felt I would probably be around a little longer, why I don't know.

When a man isn't 45 years old, he naturally wonders—since the law doesn't guarantee he won't be 55 or 105—who will walk the walls of this world if he should no longer walk them, as in time he won't.

Will they be his kin? Will they stand upright? If they are strangers, will they walk taller?

Will the wall he walked and defended be as high as he thought? Or just a hurdle or a careless step for the people of tomorrow?

These are merely a few of the thoughts of a man who has spent most of his life not being 45 years old.

Collapse of Building Buries 2 in Brazil

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP) — Workmen dug through tons of rubble today for the bodies of two persons believed crushed when an 11-story office building collapsed on a downtown street. The building had been condemned.

Witnesses said they saw two men buried beneath the cascading concrete blocks and bricks.
