Woman Boss for Amvets — Men Think It's Fine

By CHUCK ABRAIR

Women bossing men is nothing new — It's been going on ever since the first cave woman told the first cave man, "Move that stone, I want to dust under it."

But when a gal runs some 79 men, and the men voted to make it that way, that's a different story.

Miss Jacolyn Smith, of 32 Bagley St., is taking up her duties as commander of the Amvets Jimmy Dey Post 12. She served 14 months in the Navy during World War II, and was named to head the local group in a recent election.

"I didn't want to take it at first, because I was afraid to embarrass the men, but they kept asking me," she described the election.

Holding office in the post is nothing new for the 45-year-old female Navy vet—she has been everything else but finance officer since becoming a lifetime member 10 years ago.

A native of Toledo, Ohio, "Jackie" served as a yeoman-stenographer in the Bureau of Personnel in Washington, D.C., during the war, and received a disability discharge when she almost died from pneumonia in 1944.

HOLDS OTHER POSTS

Beside her Jimmy Dey Post activities, she is a member of the Disabled American Veterans, and the Cook-Nelson American Legion Post.

"I'm honored to be the head of a man's organization. The more I think of it, the more thrilled I get," the new commander said today, as she outlined a pet project.

She has plans to establish a parade committee for the city to coordinate the Memorial Day activities locally.

With a woman's determination at the helm, you can wager on the committee being established.

Poland Seems Peaceful

Gomulka Works to Erect Independent Red Regime

WARSAW, Poland (U) — Wladyslaw Gomulka, Poland's new Communist party boss, worked today to erect a structure of independent communism in the wake of a political revolt against Moscow domination.

Official broadcasts said Gomulka and the Politburo of the Polish Communist Party had assumed "leadership of the working classes and the entire nation to overcome the mistakes and blunders of the past."

One broadcast said a program would be submitted to the party's central committee Sunday for improvement of economic conditions and the participation of youth in the government.

It promised to lift the "letters of secrecy" from party affairs, and pledged a free election of party officials. A party resolution condemned antisemitism.

Gomulka and other leading members of the Politburo plan to fly to Moscow soon to talk over differences between Polish and Soviet Communist leaders.

A Moscow broadcast today reported the speech of Gomulka to a mass meeting last night.

But it left out Gomulka's statement that he had received assurances from Nikita Khrushchev, Soviet party boss, that Soviet troops in Poland would be returned to their regular bases within 48 hours.

Gomulka's statement was the first official confirmation of threatening Soviet troop movements during the political crisis here. Broadcasts quoted Polish reporters throughout the provinces as saying "Soviet army units have either already withdrawn to their bases, or are in the course of doing so."

Life in Poland seemed to be returning to normal. Last night some young Poles ignored Gomulka's appeals for order and engaged in anti-Soviet demonstrations in sympathy for Hungarian rebels. Warsaw's radio said workers had rushed in trucks from the suburbs to discourage these "hooligan butbursts."

In his speech yesterday to a crowd of 250,000 Gomulka made it clear Soviet troops would remain in Poland as long as there are NATO bases in West Germany—a statement that was received in silence by the crowd.

Scattered Showers Predicted for Tonight

The temperature will drop from 52 to 56 degrees tonight says the U. S. Weather Bureau. We will have scattered showers likely and partly cloudy skies.

It is expected to be partly cloudy tomorrow with scattered showers likely in the forenoon and turning cooler. A high of 60 to 64 is predicted.

In the downtown area last night the mercury dipped to 38 degrees. The mercury read 63 degrees at 2 p.m.

Bodies, Crafts Wreckage Fall on Texas Homes

Air Force Jet Rams With Private Ship as Family, 2 Fliers Die

MIDLAND, Tex. (U) — A flaming collision of an Air Force jet and a civilian plane exploded wreckage and bodies over a residential district yesterday.

Seven bodies, including that of a baby girl, fell with the wreckage. The flaming jet plummeted into an empty home. The engine of the civilian plane crashed into the kitchen of another home where a mother had just taken her children into the living room.

"That small plane looked as if it were flying almost in the same direction as the jet," L. B. Martin, Dallas, Tex., truck driver said. "There was a loud explosion, then pieces of both planes and bodies were falling everywhere."

Killed were Winfred R. Clement, 31, his wife Elizabeth, 26, and their 13-month-old daughter Cathy, all of Bowie, Tex.; Mrs. Clement's parents, Roy E. Howard, 63, and Ethel Howard, 57, Vashli, Tex.; Lt. Lowell D. Hale, 25, Decatur, Ill., and Capt. Roy A. Roberts, 29, Belleville, Ill.

The jet wreckage crashed into the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Saunders, who weren't home at the time.

Wreckage and bodies were strewn all over the middle class residential area. The body of one woman crashed through the roof of another home and lodged in the bathtub. A child was found crumpled in a flower bed.

Webb Air Force Base said one of the airmen in the T-33 had ejected himself, but his chute failed to open. The body of the other airman was found in the burned Saunders home.

The Clement plane had taken off at 2:30 p.m. from the Ector County Airport at Odessa, 12 miles southwest of this west Texas town, after the Clements had visited with Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Howard.

The military ship was based at Webb Air Force Base, Big Spring.

8 Children Die at RR Crossing

Mother Escapes Death as Train Smacks Car in Iowa Mishap

SIGOURNEY, Iowa (U) — Eight children were killed today when a train struck the car in which their mother was driving them to a rural grade school, the Keokuk County sheriff's office reported.

The mother, Mrs. Richard Hammes, was hospitalized. The children included two sets of twins.

Mrs. Paul Webb, a relative of Mrs. Hammes, witnessed the crash of the Hammes car and a Rock Island tri-weekly train at a country crossing not far from the Hammes farm home.

"It was terrible," Mrs. Webb said.

The accident was the worst in Iowa this year.

The children were Ronnie and Donnie, twins, 9; Karen, 8; Linda, 7; Gary, 6; Rosemary, 3; and Rickie and Vicki, twins, 1.

The tragedy left Mr. and Mrs. Hammes childless.

Second Wife Presents Peck With Baby Boy

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (U) — Actor Gregory Peck and his wife, the former Veronica Passani, became the parents of a 7-pound, 14-ounce boy in Santa Monica Hospital yesterday.

Dr. William C. Bradbury said there were no complications and mother and son both were doing fine.

It was the couple's first child. Peck, 40, has three sons by his previous wife, Greta. That marriage ended in divorce last December.

The actor and Miss Passani, a former French journalist, were married last New Year's Day. She is 24.

There Are Ample Funds for Courthouse

Editor's Note: This is the fourth article in a series describing Oakland County's plans for building a new courthouse.

By CONRAD N. CHURCH

"There is enough money legally available for building our new courthouse so that we feel perfectly safe in constructing the first unit," said Robert Y. Moore, chairman of the County Board of Auditors. It is to be a five story and basement courthouse building to be located at the county's service center on North Telegraph road.

According to Chairman Moore, approximately half a million dollars has been received through the sale of property obtained from the state

Estes Concedes — Not Election but to Heckler

Sen. Kefauver ran into a "Joe Smith" of his own yesterday in the Northwood Inn.

Sniping at GOP Vice President Richard M. Nixon, Kefauver told the crowd, "If you give this outfit (the Republican administration) a vote of confidence, Richard Nixon will be the man who calls the signals."

"Do you want Richard Nixon to be the head of your government?" As 300 Democrats politely moaned, booed and yelled "No," a firm, clear voice thundered "Yes!" from the edge of the room.

Kefauver repeated the question. The voice repeated its answer.

Stumped, Kefauver finally conceded, "Okay, brother, you're one out of 500."

James E. Clark, Bloomfield Township purchasing agent, identified himself after the meeting as the owner of the dissenting voice.

Clark said he had been eating his lunch in another part of the restaurant, and had heard Kefauver's speech over a loudspeaker.

"I'm no plant," he said. "I eat lunch here very day."

"I'm John Q. Citizen, and I'm sick of this hogwash."

National Telecast Set for Lions-Packer Tilt

NEW YORK (U) — CBS-TV announced today the Detroit Lions-Green Bay Packers football game at Briggs Stadium on Thanksgiving Day will be televised coast-to-coast.

The game will begin at noon. The network said it will be the first coast-to-coast telecast of a regularly scheduled National Football League game for the 1956 season.

Other national telecasts will follow later in the season, said the announcement.

Giant Parade to Feature '57 Pontiacs, GM Trucks

The 1957 Pontiac automobile . . . New General Motors Corp. trucks . . . Thousands of balloons and colorful feathers bearing gift certificates . . . Hundreds of kids attired in Indian garb . . . These and many other attractions will headline the 1957 "Pontiac Salutes Industry" parade in the city Nov. 10.

Details of the Saturday morning parade introducing new lines of the 1957 Pontiac cars and GM trucks, were released today by John W. Hirlinger, Chamber of Commerce manager.

The parade will be sponsored by the chamber and the Retail Merchants Assn.

There will be 30 new Pontiacs driven by members of the GM Girls' Club. Scattered along the parade formation will be the latest in new GM trucks.

A new Pontiac will be unveiled and go on display on the courthouse lawn that morning.

There will be cash prizes for children from the fourth through the ninth grade who parade in their best Indian outfits.

Entry blanks for youngsters wishing to enter this contest may be found on page 2 of today's Press.

As the cars approach the Saginaw street and Huron street intersection, thousands of balloons will be released skyward. Attached to (Continued on Page 2, Col. 6)

Motor City to OK Water System Plan

DETROIT (U) — The first step in a proposed $7 million dollar expansion of Detroit's water system is expected to be approved by the City Council next week.

Council members have indicated they will support a $1,200,000 water main to suburban Madison Heights as part of an overall northward expansion of the city water system.

The 54-inch main would be large enough to serve additional communities in Oakland and Macomb Counties and could be used to bring water to Detroit from Lake Huron if the need arises.

Council President Louis C. Mirani said water could be supplied to the adjoining counties much cheaper through a tie-in with the city system than by the 33-mile private pipeline under study by Oakland and Macomb officials.

Street Fighting Still Continues Despite Pleas

Nagy Promises New Deal for Country if Rebels Cease Rioting

VIENNA (U) — Hungarian rioting continued today, and Premier Imre Nagy promised he will negotiate with Moscow to withdraw its occupation troops if the rebels will end their revolution.

Nagy went on the radio to appeal for the rebellious forces of students and workers to lay down their arms and help his new government.

The ruling Communist party in contradictory broadcasts appealed for the people to return to work, and warned them to stay off the streets because of continued shooting.

It announced the ouster of its first secretary in an evident effort to appease rebels who since Tuesday night had been staging a bloody uprising in the heart of the Hungarian capital.

Radio Budapest said Ernoe Geroe, who only this week returned from Belgrade where he had a "reconciliation" conference with Yugoslav President Tito, had been replaced as first secretary by Janos Kadar, a former jailed Titoist.

It was the second major shake-up in the Hungarian hierarchy in two days and the third in three months. Yesterday Imre Nagy, returned as premier, replacing Andras Hegedus. Geroe succeeded the loyal Stalinist, Matyas Rakosi, as party secretary only last July.

The radio said the ouster of Geroe was "greeted with loud cheers by the Budapest population" and that people in the street "embraced with joy."

Nagy promised that in future relations with Russia Hungary will insist on "complete national independence and friendly equality."

He was following the line of Yugoslavia's President Tito and Poland's Gomulka, who have driven for an "independent road to socialism." Nagy apparently intended to open the "Hungarian road to socialism" in order to win the masses to his course of independence.

Nagy was ousted as premier in 1955 because he exposed a "new course" of giving the people more consumer goods at the expense of heavy industry. He returned to the premiership yesterday.

In Vienna today western diplomatic sources said they had heard that four regiments of Hungarian soldiers had gone over to the side of the rebels.

This would explain how the revolutionaries — believed first to be composed of only students and workers—had been able to hold out against Russian and Hungarian army tanks, jet planes, machine tax sales some years ago by the County Social Welfare Commission. Included in it also were the Pontiac and Ferndale market sites.

Some of this property has been used to house some of the families on welfare at a great saving in costs to the county. Much of it no longer is needed.

Much more of this surplus property remains to be sold. Moore estimates that what remains will bring approximately another million dollars.

Then there is the one-tenth of a mill which the county has been permitted specifically by law to levy for capital improvements. From 1950 to 1956 this has brought in $585,000. From 1956 to 1959 it is estimated that it will bring in approximately another $380,000.

In addition there is $90,000 in rent that has been received over the past 10 years from occupants of the welfare housing project mentioned above. This makes a total of $2,735,000, and there are some other funds that could be used, according to Chairman Moore, all without disobeying in the slightest degree the mandate of the people as expressed at the courthouse bond issue election.

At that time they voted approval of building a new courthouse, but opposed levying any taxes to finance a bond issue.

"But will you actually have enough money available by the time this first unit of the new courthouse is completed to pay for it, in view of other commitments?" Moore was asked.

"Oh yes," he replied. "We will have enough and plenty to spare."

"Actually at the present time we have $1,088,873.80 in our building fund. We still have to pay for our new central garage, so that will take $187,340.03, leaving a balance of $901,533.77. However, we had previously placed $36,000 in the garage fund so that leaves $937,533.77."

"Then just last week we sold 11.1 acres of land at Oakland Avenue and West Boulevard for $46,500. That brings the available total to $1,004,033.77."

"There are several other sums that have been appropriated in perfect good faith, yet the supervisors now feel the money need not be used for the purpose originally intended, so these sums also will be available for courthouse construction."

"There is $94,000 appropriated for a new kitchen at the Tuberculosis Sanatorium. With tuberculosis cases declining, we no longer feel this outlay is prudent."

"We appropriated $75,000 for a county water survey. Of this sum $15,000 has been used, but now with Oakland joining in with several other counties and the likelihood that a private company may set up a pipeline to provide the new supply from Lake Huron, the remaining $60,000 will not be needed."

"We have $57,000 in land con-

Relaxation of Controls Proves Fatal

Khrushchev's Experiment Blows Up

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Foreign News Analyst

A Khrushchev experiment has blown up in the faces of the Soviet Communist leaders.

Unless the Russians take forceful measures to guard against new outbreaks like those in Poland and Hungary, they stand to lose their satellite empire eventually. The policies of Communist boss Khrushchev have paralyzed the Soviet Union.

The Kremlin today is likely undergoing an agonizing reappraisal. The result can mean the end of Khrushchev as the boss, the re-emergence of Georgi M. Malenkov and a vindication from the Soviet viewpoint — of former Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov.

The Khrushchev experiment began early in 1955, and events in Poland and Hungary prove that the restless stirring which finally burgeoned into open anti-Russian revolt dates from that time.

Khrushchev's experiment was with relaxation of controls, not only over populations, but over the parties in the satellite nations. The experiment had two aims.

One was to secure the new post-Stalin regime at home by giving it the look of a regime which would be liberal in comparison with the iron rule of Stalin.

The second aim—and probably more important—was in the field of foreign policy. Relaxations inside the Soviet Union and in the satellite countries were intended to free the Soviet Union of the taint of colonialism—the weapon with which Khrushchev was going to belabor the West in a contest for influence in Asia and the Middle East. The same relaxation aimed to lure Western Socialists into a united front with the Communists—an opening to the Left which eventually was to divorce the United States from its Allies for a great, bloodless Soviet victory.

Both goals have vanished in the explosions in Poland and Hungary. The use of Soviet troops in Hungary—and the threat to use them in Poland—presents the USSR to the outside world as a nation of harsh colonialists keeping its control by armed force and political oppression.

The Russians themselves now have a taste of what they attempted to inspire against Americans abroad. They cry "Ami (American) go home!" was a Communist slogan intended to picture Americans as economic and political oppressors. Now the cry in Eastern Europe goes up: "Rusky, go home." The object lesson is bound to be taken to heart in many quarters of Asia and the Middle East.

This is a costly propaganda defeat for the Russians, both at home and abroad. Even the little which has filtered through the Iron Curtain back to the people in the Soviet Union must have a shocking effect in view of the lurid promises of the Khrushchev regime.

A scapegoat will have to be found. The likely candidate is Khrushchev, since the whole thing can be pinned on him.

31-Ounce Infant
Getting Along Fine

GLENDAL, Calif. (U.S.A.)—A baby boy, who weighed 31 ounces at birth Saturday, was reported doing fine today in Glendale Community Hospital.

Dr. Boyd Henry said that, barring complications, Darryl Francis Knight "has a good chance." The baby was born 2½ months premature.

Darryl's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Francis W. Knight of nearby La Crescenta, have three other children.

Ferry Service May Link State

Menominee to Frankfort Shuttle Eyed in Addition to Straits Bridge

MENOMINEE 40 — A special legislative committee heard testimony Tuesday on a plan to establish ferry service between Upper and Lower Michigan following the completion of the Straits of Mackinac Bridge.

The plan calls for using the state ferries now operating in the straits on a route between Menominee in the Upper Peninsula and Frankfort in Lower Michigan.

Rep. James Goulette of Iron Mountain, head of the committee, said the testimony will be studied in Lansing and a report prepared for submission to the 1937 Legislature.

Harold Puffer of the State Highway Department, told the committee a total of $3,096,000 would be needed to prepare dock facilities at Menominee and Frankfort for the ferries.

2 FERRIES NOT USEABLE

A highway department survey said it would be impractical to convert two of the ferries now operating on the straits to use on the proposed Lake Michigan route. They are the City of Munising and the City of Petoskey.

The survey estimated the cost of converting the state's newest ferry, the Vacationland, and building a similar vessel at about six million dollars.

The wages of operating personnel for the two lake ferries at one million dollars plus from $350,000 to $400,000 operating costs.

Representatives of trucking firms and civic organizations supported the proposed ferry route. They said it would step up trade between Upper and Lower Michigan.

Heads Tree Committee

DETROIT 40 — Rowland W. Blair of Filer City has been named chairman of the Michigan Tree Farm Committee, succeeding Bruce G. Buell, chief forester for Marathon Corp., Amasa. The committee passes on applications for tree farms status for the sponsoring Michigan Forest Industries.

The Irish Republic's contribution to the upkeep of the United Nations will be 0.19 per cent of the total maintenance cost, Dublin learnt.

GETTING READY FOR FESTIVAL — The final collection of magazines and groceries for tomorrow's Fall Festival was finished today by Bagley School students. Here checking the goods

Bagley Fair Will Open Tomorrow

Bagley School PTA will open the (Mrs. James Overton, Rockwell doors to its 24th annual Fall Festival, publicity chairman, annual tomorrow night at the school, nounced today.

The festival, which is open to the public, will feature attractions from 5 until 9 p.m., she said.

Among the many booths planned by the group will be a fish pond, fortune telling unit, bakery, country store, plant stand, dance contest and boxing.

Several games will be available along with a contest for king and queen of the festival, Mrs. Overton said.

We will also have a nursery available for baby sitting for small children, she added.

A refreshment stand and silhouette gallery are also planned for the festival. General chairman for the affair is Charles Hill, Bagley teacher. On the general committee is PTA president, Mrs. William White, 320 Rapid St.

The Bagley group is planning a Halloween party Oct. 31 for the school children.

Divco Purchase OK'd

DETROIT 40 — Divco Corp. of Detroit says its stockholders have voted to approve the purchase of the Wayne Works, Inc., and its subsidiary operations located at Piqua and Bellefontaine, Ohio. Divco manufactures milk delivery trucks.

Actors Take No Prizes for Political Knowledge

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (INS) — What you remember from a motion picture depends in part on whether you're a man or a woman.

This has been revealed by two Harvard University psychologists.

Researches made by Dr. Eleanor Macoby and her assistant, graduate student Cody Wilson, disclosed that though male and female may watch the same screen at the same time they aren't necessarily seeing the same things.

A series of studies was made on how learning is influenced by "identification"—the way a viewer, in fantasy, puts himself in the place of a character on the screen.

In one of the experiments, for example, several hundred junior high school students saw a film whose leads are an adolescent boy and girl.

Boys identified themselves with the hero, girls with the heroine. Boys remembered more about scenes involving the hero alone, and the girls of the heroine alone.

Another experiment answered the question: Do viewers see the same things to begin with, but remember different things later?

The psychologists showed a doctor and wife picture to a dozen men and a dozen women, taken individually. Through peepholes in a small movie screen they use, the psychologists timed the viewers' eye movements.

Both men and women looked longer at the heroine. Men viewers watched the hero 10 per cent more than did the women.

World's Most Famous Trade Mark

Just about everyone knows of the Red Cross—so many have received its benefits!

Last year in the Pontiac Area, for example . . . the Red Cross provided over 10,400 pints of blood for residents here . . . over 160 local servicemen and their families benefited from its many and varied services . . . 21 Pontiac and Waterford Township families were aided after suffering family disaster and catastrophe . . . the water safety program reached nearly 1000 residents . . . 2000 people received first aid instructions . . . and when aid was requested for California flood victims, Pontiac sent over $8,000.

Yes, after 75 years of serving through wars and personal disaster, the Red Cross is, indeed . . . the World's Most Famous Trademark!

Music, Hayride Set by Church in Watertown

WATERFORD — Special events tomorrow and Saturday and a guest speaker Sunday are on the Watertown Community Church's agenda.

The Rev. Robert Winnie of Rudyard will speak at the 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. services Sunday. He is a candidate for the ministry of the church.

A social night has been planned by the King's Disciples to begin at 7 p.m. Saturday at the church.

There will be a hayride and refreshments for young people 14 years and older.

The SOS Club of the Church will sponsor a program of Gospel music by the Gospelaires, a male quartet, at 7:30 p.m. Friday at the church.

The program has been opened to the public.

St. Paul Church Host to Conference

ROCHESTER — Tonight, St. Paul's Methodist Church will be host to the First Quarterly Conference at 9 o'clock with Dr. Arthur Smith, District Superintendent, presiding.

Guest Churches joining St. Paul's will be Utica, Lake Orion and Mt. Clemens.

Average daily prison population of the U.S. is about 121,000.

Check Bracket for Auto Plate, Says Club Head

Thousands of Michigan motorists may have trouble complying with a new regulation calling for both front and rear license plates on their cars in 1957, Automobile Club of Michigan reports.

"A large share of 1956 and older cars sold in Michigan were not equipped with front license plate brackets," Arthur J. Bogue, Auto Club's Pontiac division manager, points out. "Many motorists who found the brackets had no use for them and threw them away."

To avoid a last minute rush and to be assured of meeting the new requirement, Bogue advises drivers to check their cars and buy a bracket if necessary.

Auto Club this week mailed letters to auto dealers throughout the state alerting them to a wholesale need for the mounting bracket when 1957 plates go on sale.

Orion to Move 184 Students

LAKE ORION—Moving of 184 grade school students from Blanche Sims, Proper and to Community Bible Church into Webster and Carpenter schools was approved at the board of education here last night.

Rushing construction at both new schools, the board expects the move into Webster on Nov. 5, and the other later.

Hot-lunch program prices were altered, with weekly prices being raised by a quarter, to agree with the daily price.

Kefauver Slams Special Interests

Off to Meet With Adlai After Telling Ohio Dems GOP Plays Favorites

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP) — Sen. Estes Kefauver headed today for a meeting with Democratic standard bearer Adlai Stevenson to swap notes on a campaign he says is "picking up fast."

The Democratic vice presidential candidate confers with Stevenson in Springfield, Ill., after 10 days and 8,000 miles of a coast-to-coast aerial swing from Vermont to California and back East again through the Midwest.

Kefauver told newsmen he found growing Democratic strength.

Speaking at Springfield, Ohio, today at a rally at the city square, Kefauver said Republican "boasts" of peace and prosperity are just talk about "a shaky peace, unsteady prosperity and no progress at all."

"There are a few, of course, who are enjoying unprecedented prosperity under Eisenhower and Nixon," he said. "But they are the pets of this special interest administration—the big stockholders, and bankers and the corporation executives."

"The average American citizen doesn't have a pass to the White House," Kefauver said he has found that "people everywhere are worried about what has happened to our country under a part-time president."

"They are even more gravely concerned over the prospect that if the Republicans are re-elected, Richard Nixon would become the dominant figure in the party."

"Some of them may like Ike, but Ike can't succeed himself. Richard Nixon would wield the real power, and that concerns them."

Kefauver flew here last night from Detroit, where he engaged in production-line handshaking with auto workers at the main gate of the Ford Motor Co. and zoomed around Detroit in a 150-mile motor tour.

Two eggs were tossed at his motorcade.

Softball Team Benefit Dance Set Saturday

GINGELLVILLE — The "Firemen's Ball" sponsored by the local Metropolitan Club will be at the Gillingville Community Center from 9 p.m. to 1:30 a.m. Saturday, October 27.

This club has sponsored a boys' softball team in the past and plans the dance to help raise sufficient funds to sponsor both a midgeet and a teenage team next summer.

Tickets are available at the door for the dance, whose co-chairmen are: Wilson Church, Edward Eneigh and Robert Williams.

Game With Minnesota, Roman Holiday Theme to Spark Weekend.

ANN ARBOR (AP) — University of Michigan alumni will descend on Ann Arbor this weekend for the 59th annual Homecoming Day, featuring by the Michigan-Minnesota football game.

Lawns of fraternities, sororities and residence halls will be dotted with colorful displays, fitted into the theme of "Roman Holiday."

The University of Michigan marching band will dedicate its halftime show at the football game to the homecoming symbol by depicting several scenes of ancient Rome.

Though the day is devoted to students of the past, their present day counterparts will have a hand in many of the festivities.

Two fraternities—each possesses a St. Bernard—will stage their annual dog race Saturday morning. The dogs will pull chariots, which is keeping in step with the "Roman holiday" motif.

Also prior to the football game, two other fraternities will engage in the annual "Mudbowl" football contest.

A halftime feature of this game will be an annual soccer match between women of two sororities. Then, too, there'll be the crowning of the "Mudbowl Queen," selected yearly from candidates entered by the sororities. As usual all the entrants are men in women's garb.

Cubs Form New Dens With 4 Den Mothers

Fritz Decision Due Tonight

Dairymen to Hear Martin and Delegate of Glenn Lake

ROMEO — Area dairymen will decide the next step to take with respect to their positions in the Michigan Milk Producers Assn. at a meeting at 8 p.m. tonight in the Romeo High School auditorium.

Decision on Harold H. Fritz, plaintiff in the recent court case, continuing his fight with an appeal, will be asked by acting chairman A. E. Lloyd, MMPA sales committeeman for Macomb County.

Homer Martin, former Fairshare Bargaining Assn. adviser, and later organizer of the Fair Share Milk Bargaining Assn., is expected to be present.

He now represents a new group, Dairy Farmers Cooperative Assn. of Michigan.

MMPA president Glenn Lake, invited to attend, will send an MMPA representative.

Clarkston Chapter Cancels Staff Class

CLARKSTON — The Joseph C. Bird Chapter No. 284, OES, has canceled its school of instruction, on advice of the worthy grand matron, until further notice.

A regular meeting is set for Nov. 5. All regular and auxiliary officers will practice Tuesday at 7 p.m. in the Masonic temple.

White Cross Office

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP

Mrs. Grace Dennis assumed the president's office when the White Cross Group of Silvercrest Baptist Church met Tuesday at Mrs.

James Luther's home on Pontiac Lake road.

The group, which has been doing bandages and cancer pads, will send their works to missionaries in Ethiopia.

Macabre Details of Hitler's Suicide Being Acted Out to Provide Bavarian Court With Legal Proof of Death

BONN (INS) — The macabre story of how Adolf Hitler committed suicide in the ruins of his gutted Berlin bunker 11 years ago will be restaged today before a local Bavarian court.

The fuhrer's shadow and his suicide will be revived in a most minute fashion to enable German lawyers to pronounce Hitler officially dead.

Hitler's death certificate is needed to settle property claims against his estate.

For more than 10 years Karl Stephanus, a court official in Berchtesgaden, site of Hitler's famous "Eagle's Nest," has collected bits of evidence and has revealed that he will prove Hitler's death with scientific exactness.

EYEWITNESS REPORT

The last information rounding up the macabre mosaic of Stephanus' research came from one of the fuhrer's former personal servants, Werner Schwiedel, who submitted the following eyewitness report:

"Rumors about a possible suicide of Hitler began filtering through the upholstered doors of his private bunker apartment when the Russian troops had reached the eastern outskirts of Berlin in April 1945.

"But we were sure about Hitler's intentions one day before his death when we were instructed to poison Hitler's pet Alesian 'Blood' with cyanide.

"Hitler stood by and watched the experiment to control the effect of the cyanide which he had picked to poison himself and his three-hour wife, Eva Braun.

High Literacy

JERUSALEM — About 70 per cent of the Arab school-age population in Israel attends school—the highest percentage in the Middle East.

INSTANT DEATH

"Hitler's personal physician was instructed to kill the dog. While several SS noncoms held the dog, the physician stuffed the poison into the dog's mouth and broke the vial. Blondi was killed instantly."

"Five minutes after the fuhrer's suicide, I identified a male and a female body being burned in the yard. The bodies were those of Hitler and his mistress."

Oakland Citizens League Issues Candidates Ratings

Oakland Citizens League non-partisan ratings of county candidates in the Nov. 6 general election were released today.

In the ratings made by a committee of the league early this month, eight Republican candidates were given three-star or "preferred" standing. Three Democrats were rated "preferred."

Candidates were evaluated in two sessions of questioning by the committee, which considered background, education, and responses to the committee's questions.

At the first questioning session, which dealt with candidates for Congress, the State Senate and the Legislature, six members of the 18-member committee appeared.

The second session, dealing with candidates for county offices, was attended by eight members of the committee.

Candidates were rated:

German Unity Again Stymied

Soviets Present New Obstacle: Bonn Must Pull Out of NATO

BONN (INS)—Russia delivered a heavy blow yesterday to the hopes of Germans by setting fresh obstacles in the path to unification.

Moscow, replying to a recent Bonn note on German unification, demanded West Germany drop its ties with the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

The Soviet note, apparently drafted in the wake of the Polish breakaway from Stalinism, made it clear the Russians still insist on direct East-West German talks and direct East-West German agreements.

At the same time, the reply again turned down the western concept of free all-German elections.

The 10-page note also blasted what is called Bonn's "Spirit of Hostility" toward the East zone.

It called for the halting of conscription and a ban on the stationing of atomic weapons by U. S. forces in Germany.

The reply again dangled the long-standing bait that direct Bonn-Moscow talks "might be fruitful" — but only to finalize German unification.

Billies Make Comeback

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Houston police are going to get their nightsticks back. Chief Carl Shuptrine said he is requesting purchase of 55 billies for patrolmen and any other officers who feel they need them. Houston police have not used night sticks since World War II, when most of the supply was issued to the home defense guard.

Paul Bunyan Apples

ROANOKE, Va. (AP)—H. B. Wertz, a truck-farmer, thinks "if the past season hadn't been so dry, I would have had some pretty big apples." Instead, Wertz had to be content with selling his "small apples." Each apple weighed more than one pound!

Navy Man Visits U. S. 1st Time in 23 Years

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Jack Thompson, a veteran of 23 years' service in the U. S. Navy, never set foot on the continental United States until recently.

Thompson, a resident of Wahiawa on the island of Oahu, Hawaii, came to San Diego to compete in a navy tennis tournament. A native of American Samoa, he joined the Navy and went through recruit training there in 1913. He was assigned to the famed Fita Fita Guard, a special organization established by the Navy in Samoa in 1901.

After the guard was disbanded in 1951, Thompson and his family moved to Hawaii. He has been stationed there since that time as a member of the regular navy.

Chicago Air Pollution 'Worse Than in LA'

CHICAGO (INS)—Chemistry instructor Harry E. Gunning of the Illinois Institute of Technology claims that Chicago's air is even more polluted than that of Los Angeles and adds:

"If we weren't fortunate in having frequent wind movements here we might all be dead."

Polish U.N. Delegate Saw Revolt Brewing

TOKYO (AP)—A Polish delegate to a United Nations subcommittee meeting said today his nation's revolt against Soviet control was not entirely unexpected.

Dr. Stanislaw Gall said he had anticipated such a change since a "democratization" movement began in Poland six months ago. He told reporters he expected Polish living standards to be raised by the changes.

Tree Industry Grows

DETROIT (AP)—Marking expansion of Michigan's forest industry, Michigan Forest Industries, Inc., said there are now 433 tree farms in the state covering 1,075,614 acres. The industry-operated program enlists woodland owners in scientific timber practices.

Independent Voters Will Decide Massachusetts Story

By KELMAN MORIN
BOSTON (U)—The presidential race in Massachusetts, at this late stage, looks like a stride-for-stride contest going right down to the wire.

Doorbell ringing indicates that if there is an edge today, President Eisenhower has it. Top Democrats rate Massachusetts as an "anchor" state for Adlai Stevenson. If they lose it, they are "out of business."

A member of the Republican high command said, "I think we have a small plus there, but the picture is fuzzy."

A key to the uncertainty lies in this typical comment from a Haverhill housewife, Mrs. Ernest Valente:

"I'm an independent. I like Mr. Eisenhower but I don't believe in voting just for personalities. I haven't decided."

Over and over again, in talking with people across the state, these two words, "independent" and "undecided," crop up.

The largest single group of voters in Massachusetts—usually estimated at about 30 per cent of the total—falls in the category of independents or "indies." They hold the balance in elections.

They swung to Eisenhower in 1952 when he won Massachusetts by nearly 309,000 votes. Four years earlier, President Truman defeated Gov. Thomas E. Dewey by 242,000 in a smaller total vote.

The "indies" no doubt account for the fact that Massachusetts has a U. S. senator from each major party, a 7-7 delegation in the House of representatives, and a 3-3 split in the top offices of the state government.

This is a quicksilver group of voters, elusive, difficult to pin down.

What is likely to swing the "indies" this time? I've been all over and can't find anyone who really knows.

No single issue seems to be stirring voters.

A Marlboro housewife, complaining of the high cost of living, says, "I just can't make the budget stretch. If I thought Stevenson could do something about that, I might vote for him."

Stevenson may have gained some votes by his position on H-bomb tests. But the only two people who mentioned his statements to this reporter are both voting against him, they say.

The state looks exuberantly prosperous. Employment is high. Newspapers publish columns, even pages, of "help wanted" advertisements every day.

However, a merchant, Sam Weiss, tells you, "I must have heard a dozen people say they are switching to Stevenson. They say he's not for the small man. He's well, I haven't decided. I usually make up my mind the night before the election."

Three people mentioned the President's illnesses.

On a quiet residential street, you meet Stanley English, a teacher, and Joseph V. Cox, a retired policeman. Both have had heart attacks. Both are voting for Eisenhower.

But in Salem, a waiter, Dick Pritchett, said, "I may switch to Stevenson. After all, he's not a well man, and I get the feeling he's not running the show down there."

In and near Boston, foreign policy seems likely to play a part. The question of arms for Israel touches an estimated 135,000 Jewish voters there. The Cyprus dispute has special meaning for some 60,000 people of Greek origin.

Mrs. George McCarthy, wife of a shoe pattern manufacturer, echoes a frequently expressed opinion. "I think Eisenhower is doing a good job. Nobody can turn the world around in four years."

Female Seeks Appointment to Annapolis

UNION CITY, N. J. (INS)—If in the near future you detect a female voice in Middle uniform rendering the melodic strains of Anchors Aweigh at the U. S. Naval Academy, it might belong to Mary Ann Bonalsky.

Miss Bonalsky, a 16-year-old girl, chestnut-haired senior at Holy Rosary Academy in Union City, N. J., has written to New Jersey Rep. T. James Tumulty, requesting that she be appointed a midshipwoman at the renowned all-male institution.

The letter read: "We have equal rights with the male, and as far as intelligence is concerned we are considered just as good and even better by learned men."

Rep. Tumulty said that while there was "a certain amount of logic" in Miss Bonalsky's position, there were also "some practical difficulties to be considered."

Tumulty remarked he would, at least, introduce a bill calling for the establishment of a special academy for training officers in the various branches of women's services.

Miss Bonalsky said that although she preferred Annapolis, she would "have no objection to West Point or the Air Academy" if she cannot become a midshipwoman.

Test Shows Car Lights Frequently Defective

WASHINGTON—The National Highway Safety Committee reports that the rear and front lights rank first and third as the parts of a car most frequently in need of attention.

During the 1956 nationwide safety-check campaign the committee found that 187,891 cars out of the 1,640,608 inspected had defective rear or front lights.

GEORGE F. WIRTH

Local Railroad Man Retiring at Age 73

Passengers on local Grand Trunk & Western Railroad runs will miss a familiar face come the end of this month. George F. Wirth, 73, is retiring.

Wirth has served some 53 years with the road, beginning as an engine wiper, and later as a locomotive fireman, warehouseman, brakeman, baggage man, and passenger train brakeman.

With service at depots in Jackson, Fort Huron, Battle Creek, he has been working out of Pontiac since May 1, 1932.

German Reds Show Might Just in Case

BERLIN (U)—Communist East Germany disclosed today it had ordered a display of force to guard against any Budapest type rebellion here.

Neues Deutschland, the official Communist party newspaper, said loyal and organized groups of factory workers were mustered out yesterday throughout East Berlin.

The groups—officially called "fighting groups"—were organized after the June 1953 workers' rebellion. They are issued weapons for demonstrations and emergencies. The newspaper did not say whether such weapons were shouldered yesterday.

East German security troops and police also were placed on the alert.

Dallas Church Offers 'All-White' School Space

DALLAS (U)—The First Baptist Church of West Dallas has offered the use of its three buildings for an all-white private school in case the public schools of Dallas are integrated.

The announcement said teachers would condemn the United Nations and "one world ideology."

The Rev. Carey Daniel, pastor of the church, is vice president of the Texas Citizens Council of Dallas. He said the school also will teach evolution "as a damnable heresy and not as a scientific fact."

Search for Time as Old as Man

Shadow Cast by Sun, Sand, Fire, and Water Kept Early Record

WASHINGTON—It takes a shock-proof, waterproof, antimagnetic watch to keep the wheels of modern civilization going. Time was when a knotted rope did just as well.

Certain primitive tribes, who never split a second, carried the practice of dividing time by knots into the 20th century. The National Geographic Society says. On planning a party, a Guiana Indian chief sent identical strands to the coterie. Each guest untied one knot every morning. And when he worked past the last one, it was time to honor the invitation.

Debtors and creditors used the same twist. Should the day of reckoning come too fast, the debtor might wheedle a new cord or get leave to retie a few knots in the old one.

SUN AND SHADOW

Since the dawn of society, every civilization has been preoccupied with finding a better way to tell time.

Cave man no doubt watched the movements of sun, moon, and stars. He gauged short spans of time by the shadows of trees and cliffs. It occurred to him one day that he could cause a neater, sharper shadow by setting up a pole in a clearing, with a stone or stones to measure the march of the image, the first crude sundial.

The sundial's shortcomings are apparent, especially on dark days. Nonetheless, it has served man long and well.

The science of dialing was taught in British schools as late as the 17th century. It is possible to buy a modern sundial with a swiveling base, adjustable to daylight or standard time.

Many thousands of years ago, an early hydraulics expert figured out a means of calculating time without sunlight. Of unknown nationality, perhaps Chinese, the genius came up with the water clock or clepsydra—"thief of water." In its simplest form the clepsydra is a bottle-necked vessel that gradually loses water through a tiny hole in the bottom.

The water clock reached its peak of usefulness in the golden age of Greek and Roman oratory.

Some speakers were suspected of putting muddy, sluggish water into their clepsydres to steal a bit more time.

In time clever mechanics added wheels, dials, and ingenious gadgets to the clepsydra. One of the most famous was given to Charlemagne by the Shah of Persia. This gold-inlaid water-clock featured 12 doors that opened in sequence and remained ajar to mark the hours visually. At 12 o'clock, miniature horsemen popped out to close all the doors.

WATER, SAND, AND FIRE

Throughout its long service, the clepsydra had distinct disadvantages. Water freezes and evaporates. The clock was expensive and bulky.

Sand was the answer. Origin of the handy, portable, nonfreezing sandglass is lost in time, but it may have been used in Alexandria at least 2½ centuries before the Christian Era. The hourglass inspired a mode of dress in later years, and became a symbol of life in Father Time's hand.

Fire has always been a convenient timekeeper. Chinese and Japanese burned knotted ropes.

Alfred the Great regulated his activities with banded, timekeeping candles. In recent times Dutch and German farmers used lamp clocks with calibrated-glass oil vessels.

Invention of the truly mechanical clock is generally credited to the 10th-century monk Gerbert.

Houses Cut Pollen

DES MOINES, Ia.—Extensive housing developments since World War II are cutting down on the airborne pollens that cause Des Moines hay fever sufferers their worst agony each year.

"The count has been going down each year in Des Moines," says Dean Byrl Benteon of the Drake University college of pharmacy.

"I think part of the reason is that extensive building projects in the city now occupy vacant lots where ragweed and other pollen-producing plants grew."

Notice of Intention to Construct Curb, Gutter, and Related Work in Orlando Avenue.

You are hereby notified that at a regular meeting of the Commission of the City of Pontiac, Michigan held October 22, 1936 by resolution it was declared to be the intention of the City Commission to construct curb, gutter, grading, and related work on Orlando Avenue from Monticello Avenue to Oakland Avenue at an estimated cost of $9,550.00, and that plan, profile and estimate of said improvement is on file for public inspection.

It is further intended to construct said improvement in accordance with the plan, profile and estimate, and that the cost thereof shall be defrayed by special assessment according to frontage and that all of the lots and parcels of land fronting upon either side of Orlando Avenue from Monticello Avenue to Oakland Avenue shall constitute the special assessment district to defray $7,551.16 of the estimated cost and expenses thereof and that $1,998.84 of the estimated cost and expenses thereof shall be paid from the Capital Improvement Fund, and that $1,000.00 of the cost of sewer stub shall be assessed against Lots 203, 205, 207, 213, 215, 228, 229, 230, 231, 234, and 239 of District 14.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN That the Commission of the City of Pontiac, Michigan will meet in the Commission Chamber on October 26, 1936 at 8 o'clock p.m. to hear suggestions and objections that may be made by parties interested.

er and eliminating "hot spots" so that it can operate at higher average temperatures.

Sets Book Record

STOCKHOLM—A record number of books—4,738—was published in Sweden last year, an increase of 350 over the best previous year—1934. The largest category was fiction, with 905 titles. Juveniles, with 640, were second.

Hard to Faithom

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—Mrs. Leona Kendall of Mishawaka told police she couldn't see why a thief who broke into her parked car took only $22.85 of the $200 she had hidden in a can. The rest of the money was scattered on the front seat.

Extra Parade Feature

FOXBORO, Mass. (AP)—The

feature of this year's annual Foxboro fire truck parade was uncalled for—one of the trucks caught fire.

A swarm of firefighters quickly doused the engine blaze caused by defective wiring.

The Philippines had 39 strikes in the first 1936 quarter, affecting 7,803 workers.

Her Lucky Week

ARLINGTON, Minn. (AP)—Mrs. Herbert Tock had never won anything in her life before her ticket at the Sibley County Fair brought her a 14-cubic foot freezer.

General Strike Perils Morocco

French Employees Call Move to Protest Arab Revenge Killings

RABAT, Morocco (U)—Nearly 50,000 French employees of the Moroccan government called a 24-hour strike today protesting Arab revenge killings which have claimed at least 60 lives in Morocco.

The employees acted as anti-French demonstrations spread across North Africa and Arab governments demanded release of five top Algerian rebels seized by the French.

Moroccan authorities warned the protesting employees that if they walked out they would lose government protection in their posts.

Such a strike could paralyze public services in Morocco. The new government still depends in large measure on French efficiency to run the different departments.

In Paris, Premier Guy Mollet is expected to win a vote of confidence today from the National Assembly on his government's handling of the Algerian rebellion and the Suez Canal crisis.

All Assembly deputies but the Communists have hailed the French ruse that tricked the rebels into landing in French-run Algeria instead of their destination in independent Tunisia.

The rebels were flying from Rabat in a French-operated plane Monday when the pilot set them down in Algiers, where they were placed under arrest.

The action inflamed the Arab world. A wave of rioting and farm burning swept Morocco. A general strike hit Tunisia and demonstrators stoned the British Embassy and European cars in Tripoli and Libya.

Most of the 60 dead were Europeans. Seven were French soldiers. They were killed and 24 others wounded in two ambushes in eastern Morocco.

The Perfect Sir Lancelot of Television Had to Be Taught How to Ride a Horse

NEW YORK (NEA)—Sir Lancelot rode into New York in a gray suit, white shirt and neat foulard tie. Which just goes to show you that William Russell, who plays the part in the new NBC TV series, isn't exactly being type-cast in the role.

Far from it. In fact, the good-looking young English actor had to be taught to ride a horse; he'd never been on one. And, as for his family tracing its history back to kings and knights, Russell has this to say:

"My father was a businessman in the Midlands. We're more from yeoman stock."

But otherwise, Russell is a perfect Sir Lancelot. He's tall, golden-haired and, incidentally, an experienced actor. When he got the part of King Arthur's most famous knight, he quickly (a) re-read his "Morte d'Arthur," source-book for most of the round-table stories; (b) visited the Tower of London to study old armor; and (c) took riding lessons.

The producers have tampered with legend a trifle. They had to in case of Lancelot's love-life, which wouldn't be right to show the kiddies.

"Lancelot had two big romances," Russell says. "One was with Queen Guinevere, which was an adulterous affair. The other was with the fair Elaine, who gave him a son—Galahad. Unfortunately, Lancelot and Elaine were never married."

Another change was to re-name Lancelot's horse. It was supposed to have been Berwick, but the producers figured Americans would mispronounce the name. They are so right—Berwick is pronounced Berrick. So they're calling the steed Caledon. Hi-yo, Caledon, away!

Thirdly—and this was mostly Russell's doing—they've modernized Lancelot's personality. It wouldn't be right, Russell figured, for the hero of a 1936 TV series to fall for Merlin's medieval hocus-pocus, which he did. So, on TV, Lancelot will be the only one around the round table to wear an amused and tolerant expression (rather than an amazed one) while the court magician mixes his magic medicines.

There's only one thing about the whole business that worries NBC-TV—will Russell be entitled to double-time for knight work?

Do you know what a television doodler is? In the jargon of TV cameramen, a doodler is someone who gestures with his hands all the while he's acting.

Mercedes McCambridge is a self-confessed doodler. She doodles all over the place in her new series, ABC-TV's "Wire Service," in which she rotates the lead with George Brent and Dane Clark. And she says doodling is fine on live TV, but it can raise coxial hob with a filmed TV show.

"At the close of one scene," she says, "I unconsciously brushed my hair back from my face. After taking a break for lunch, we resumed shooting and Betty Andrews, the script girl had to remind me to put my hand up to my hair for the next shot. You see how a doodler can mess things up?"

Acting with elephants isn't all that it's cracked up to be. It has its eerie side, as Noah Beery, who just finished 18 elephant-laden chapters of the new series, "Circus Boy," will testify.

Beery plays a clown, guardian of young Mickey Braddock who is the "Circus Boy" of the title. And Braddock has a pet elephant, a chap named Bimbo.

"He's a nice enough elephant," Beery says. "On location, we never need a garbage pail—Bimbo eats anything except citrus fruit. We even throw him containers of milk. He eats the container and all."

"But when we're acting, it's weird. Especially if I'm walking and he's supposed to be following me. You know, elephants are silent. When they walk, maybe there's a little squish-squish noise, but that's all. So I have to keep walking, and I know that somewhere behind me there's an elephant. But I don't know how near he is. It's an eerie feeling."

Beery—who has dropped the Jr. from his name—is delighted with his part. For years, he's been trapped in westerns and, as he says, "You act with the same people all the time and in the same situations, and you find yourself getting lazy. Here I've got a fresh part, different each week, and a fresh approach."

One fresh aspect of the part is that, as a clown, Beery is occasionally called on to do clown stunts in the script. One, for instance, is a bareback horse-riding act. He found that pretty easy.

Tanya's Mom in London

LONDON (INS)—Mrs. Elena Diack of Detroit arrived in London by plane yesterday to battle in the British courts for custody of her daughter, Tanya Chwastov, 24. Tanya's father, Alexei Chwas-tov, was taking the child to Russia this month when a British court order, obtained by the Church World Service, prevented their departure. A U.S. Senate subcommittee is currently investigating charges that Soviet diplomats coerced Chwastov into leaving

Otto John to Be Tried

BONN (INS)—The West German government has announced that Dr. Otto John, the turnabout ex-boss of the federal republic's security network, would go on trial for treason on Nov. 12 at Karlsruhe. Investigation in the John case has lasted eight months.

The number of houses on which construction was begun during the first half of 1956 showed a decline of about 13 per cent compared with the like period of 1955.

Pentagon Seeks Way to Strengthen Draft

WASHINGTON (NEA) — While the politicians make a political football out of ending the draft the Pentagon is studying means of strengthening it.

The possibility that under present law and manpower needs a healthy young man can escape military service and the draft completely is a major handicap in efforts to bolster the nation's reserves.

The Army's big program to give 100,000 men a year six months of training and then put them in the ready reserve for seven and one-half years is suffering most from this draft loophole.

The six-month program was designed to build up the reserve by making it a more attractive means of discharging a man's military obligation than being drafted.

However, as soon as young men discovered that under the new law and lowered quotas they had a fair chance of never being drafted the six-month program was dealt a severe blow.

Men can be drafted into the six-month plan but the Army wants to keep it on a volunteer basis if possible.

In spite of all-out efforts to sell the six-month training program to America's youth less than half of the 100,000-man-per-year quota was met the first year, just ended.

One obvious alternative Pentagon experts now face is asking Congress to make it compulsory for all young men to undergo some period of active duty. This would be more-fair to all men.

But it would merely be asking Congress for another universal military training program. Congress has repeatedly turned this request down. But the Pentagon might have to ask for it again.

However, before a new draft law is requested all the alternatives under the present law will be tried. Pentagon officials promise.

First, it is being ordered that no more men will be permitted to enlist in the National Guard without first taking the six-month training. The Guard now has 400,000 men and will not be hurt if this move slows its enlistments.

The Guard has already contributed 5,000 men to the six-month program and this move should boost that number considerably.

At present, men can join the Guard and escape active duty by attending the weekly drills. But it takes three years to train a man this way and the Army wants to speed up this process as well as fill up the six-month program.

At the same time the Army is putting into effect an "emergency reinforcement assignment plan." This consists of freeing all Korean veterans from any of the legal reserve time they have left to fulfill. And it includes assigning all men who have gotten out of service since then to new, specific jobs in the Army reserve.

This is actually a shuffling of paper because no man who entered service before Aug. 9, 1955, could be forced to join the reserves although they all have a technical duty to do so.

ASK YOUR NEIGHBOR ABOUT... KINDY Chassis

13 NO. SAGINAW ST.

The only effect of this action will be to make the ready reserve slightly more ready in case of war.

And the units will look better on will be getting letters either freeing them from a reserve assignment or giving them a new one.

At the same time, recent increases in volunteers for the six-month training, plus increased numbers from the Guard, indicate that 70,000 men could enter the program during the coming year.

If this happens, there will be no need for a new draft law and the goal of 1.3 million men in the reserves by 1960 will be met.

Visits in Allegan After Escorting Babies to U. S.

Woman Who Has Aided 8,000 Orphans Will Go Back to Korea to Help More

ALLEGAN (U) — A woman who helps care for more than 8,000 Korean orphans has been visiting here with her own mother before returning to her chosen work.

Mrs. Erwin Raetz sandwiched in a brief stay with her mother, Mrs. Amy Meeker of Allegan, after doing escort duty earlier this month for an "airlift of babies" from Korea.

Mrs. Raetz' husband is overseas director for World Vision, Inc., a group which arranges for adoptions in this country of war orphans, many of them children of American GIs.

Mrs. Raetz shepherded a group of 25 youngsters this month, eight of them bottle babies. The others ranged in age from 2 to 7.

Of her trip halfway around the world with that many lively children, Mrs. Raetz said: "I wouldn't hesitate to do it again—they were so well behaved. But I'd think twice before taking a group of American children that age on a similar trip."

U. S. BENEFACTOR

Mrs. Raetz said the adoption project has snowballed from the efforts of Harry Holt of Portland, Ore., who won nationwide notice when he adopted eight Korean orphans.

Holt, a wealthy farmer and father of six himself, won a special act of Congress to permit the adoptions. Now he has opened a special office in Portland to handle requests from Americans seeking to adopt a child.

He has arranged five "airlifts" of GI babies from Korea, where World Vision, Inc., now operates 106 orphanages to care for more than 8,000 children.

Mrs. Raetz and her husband, an interdenominational missionary, are veterans of more than 20 years of mission work in China.

She says Korea is deceptively calm "below the line." "Life in Seoul goes on as usual," Mrs. Raetz said, "although almost every day we hear reports of big buildups of troops and military installations north of the 38th parallel."

Nixon Hits Dem Civil Rights Plan

Tells Chicago Audience Dixie Bloc Will Prevent Action by Adlai

By JOE HALL

CHICAGO (U) — Vice President Nixon said today the Eisenhower administration will deliver on its pledges to broaden civil rights but that an Adlai Stevenson administration would be unable to do so.

That is the case, he said in a speech prepared for a rally here, "because the Republican party is solidly united behind the President's program" on civil rights while the Democrats are split into two warring camps on the issue.

Nixon chose for the speech a South Side ballroom in a predominantly Negro section of this metropolis, which has a large Negro population.

His schedule called for a full day of campaigning in Chicago and its suburbs, with a noontime parade staged by the Citizens for Eisenhower - Nixon organization in the Loop. He is to fly to Rockford, Ill., for a speech tonight, then return to Chicago.

The vice president said in the speech that if Stevenson were elected, the story on civil rights would be: "a lot of talk, a lot of promises but no action."

"This would be true," he declared, "not because anyone questions Mr. Stevenson's devotion to the cause of equality of opportunity for all, but because approximately half of his party supports his position while the other half is dead set against it."

The vice president announced also he will campaign throughout southern California on Monday and Tuesday of next week, hitting Pacific Palisades, Panorama City, Glendale, Pasadena, Arcadia, Riverside, Santa Ana, Long Beach and San Diego.

Wednesday, he will speak in Detroit and in three New York City spots—Harlem, Nassau County and Queens County.

Nixon will spend Thursday and Friday of next week whistle-stopping through Pennsylvania and will hit Ohio on Saturday.

Double Celebration Set

CEDAR SPRINGS (U) — The centennial of Cedar Springs as a village will be combined this year with the annual Red Flannel Festival, marking the town as the red flannel production center of the world. Cochairmen are Grace E. Hamilton and Nina Babcock, formerly publishers of the Cedar Springs Clipper, who founded the festival. The celebration will be held Friday and Saturday.

DUCK SOUP FOR NEW MICROSCOPE — The incredibly fine structure of an elder duck feather is captured through the eyepiece of a new X-ray microscope which is designed for research into the inner structure and behaviour of metals. Electrons bombard a target area only 40 millionths of an inch in diameter to give magnifications up to 1,500 times the size of the area viewed. A development of General Electric's X-ray department, the microscope was put on public display for the first time at the National Metals Exposition in Cleveland, Ohio.

ANTHONY KREPS

WILLIAM B. TAYLOR

Three Seeking Two Sylvan Posts

Three candidates—one seeking his fourth three-year term and the others political newcomers—will be vying for two vacancies on the Sylvan Lake City Council when residents go to the polls Nov. 6.

Filing petitions for places on the five-man council were William B. Taylor, 1935 Warwick Ave.; John N. Doherty, 1924 Beverly St., and incumbent councilman and mayor Anthony Kreps, 2282 Garland Ave.

The vacancies occurred when Mayor Pro-Tem Joseph E. Gillson announced he would not seek re-election. Kreps' expiring term leaves the second seat open.

Kreps has served nine years on the City Council, seven of which he has served as mayor. He is owner of Tony's Beauty & Barber Shop in the Riker Building, Pontiac.

Taylor, 31, is in the accounting department of Pontiac Motor Division, where he has been employed for the last seven years. He is originally from Kentucky, where he attended high school. He is a graduate of Central Michigan College.

He has divided his residency between Pontiac and Sylvan Lake since 1948. He is married, has two children, and a member of Masonic Lodge and the Oakland County Boat Club.

Doherty, 32, a road contractor in partnership with his father, is the second candidate bidding for a council seat for the first time.

He is a graduate of St. Frederick's High School. He received a degree from the University of Detroit in 1948.

He is married, has one child, and a member of the Elks and the Knights of Columbus.

Although Doherty and Taylor said they did not wish to make platform statements, Kreps issued the following: "Conditions in the city warrant someone with experience. So I am running on my past record, and hopes of adding more businesses and commercial firms in the city to lessen the taxes of the residents."

City Clerk Marjorie B. Willson said incumbents Joseph J. Leavy and Frank Stott will be on the ballot unopposed for Justice of the Peace and Constable posts, respectively, in the city.

Spanish Poet Receives Nobel Literature Prize

STOCKHOLM (INS) — Spanish poet Juan Ramon Jimenez was awarded the Nobel Prize for literature today.

The Nobel committee picked Jimenez, who now lives in San Juan, Puerto Rico, for the world's most distinguished literary award because of "his lyrical poetry which in the Spanish language constitutes a model of such high spirituality and artistic purity."

Jimenez, who was born 75 years ago in the Andalusian town of Moguer, was married in New York

Continuation of Draft and Bomb Tests Again Upheld by Ike Before Quizzers

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said yesterday the draft must be continued in these times of "world tension" while the hydrogen bomb is a part of our strength designed to deter aggression.

The President thus stood up again for two military policies that have been under attack from his rival for the presidency, Democrat Adlai E. Stevenson. He did it this time on a radio-TV program in which he was questioned by a panel of seven women from various parts of the country.

The first two inquiries dealt with the draft and with "the future of our families in this atomic age."

Miss Beverly Barr, junior high school teacher from Rochester, N.Y., seated in the radio-TV studio here with the President and Mrs. Eisenhower, wanted to know how long he thought it would be necessary to have the draft.

The President said he couldn't put it in terms of months or years.

But he said "we have a world of tension" and this means there must be trained men in the military — men who know something of discipline and training that can't be "picked up overnight."

The women, chosen by the Republican National Committee, were allowed to ask what the committee called "leading questions."

Informal replies Eisenhower gave his answers in a chatty way, smiling frequently at times, talking earnestly at other moments.

Mrs. Louis Martin, a mother of 12 who lives on a farm near Salisbury, Md., wanted to know what the future of families is in the atomic age.

There is no question, Eisenhower told her, that the world must find a peaceful solution for the atomic problem, because a hydrogen bomb war will mean the end of civilization.

If we are to remain secure in the type of world we have now, the President said, we must talk and co-operate with other nations, but we also must have strength. Part of that strength, he said, is the bomb.

Staple-Flippers Pick Expensive Target

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Traffic officer W. L. Williams was minding his own business writing parking tickets for autos in front of an office building when—zing!—he was bombarded with a flurry of wire staples.

Purious, but unable to locate the caller in another policeman to set a trap.

Setting himself up as a target again, Williams caught another barrage. But fellow officer R. L. Potter spotted two men flipping the staples from a window with rubber bands. The pair was arrested and fined $12 each.

Wants Parking Ticket

HILLSDALE (AP) — Police were joined when a stranger walked into headquarters and asked for an overtime parking ticket. The visitor turned out to be Russell Geddes of Hamilton, Ont., who said he wanted to show officials in his city the Hillside tickets. They include red envelopes which can be deposited with the overparking fine instead of requiring motorists to pay tickets in person.

"Hydrogen bombs," he said, "deter any aggressor."

Mrs. Mary Lanuti of Oliphant, Pa., wife of a labor union worker, wanted to know whether there was any ground for "talk of recession."

Eisenhower began his reply by saying there are always pressures toward inflation, and, on the other hand, toward scarce money and deflation. He said it is the purpose of government to "see that these forces are kept in balance" for a stable cost of living.

GOOD TIMES AHEAD

He said there has been a rise in the cost of living in the last 3½ years, but described it as a slow one and said the general level of food prices now is about the same as it was in January 1953.

Specifically as to whether there might be a recession, he said "the preponderant factors point to a continuation of good times."

It signs appear of going the other way, he added, everything the government can do will be done.

Mrs. Margaret Lauranti of Cleveland, owner and operator of a beauty parlor, raised the question of how small business is faring. Eisenhower called small business "the life blood of our economy" and said the administration is alert to its needs.

To keep big business from getting too powerful, he said, the administration instituted 54 anti-trust suits in 1955. He said the purpose was to keep small businesses from getting squeezed out.

At the same time, Eisenhower credited big business with providing Americans with the world's cheapest and best cars and with the cheapest and best television sets in relation to income.

He pledged that the problems of little business would continue to get close attention.

Shatters Myth of Voting Blocs

Studies Show Labor, Business Cast Ballots as They Please

ANN ARBOR, Mich. — Does labor vote as a bloc? Is big business solidly Republican?

"Of course not," is the answer provided by the University of Michigan's Survey Research Center.

The researchers have analyzed actual voting behavior of a representative nationwide cross-section of Americans during the 1928, 1932 and 1936 elections. They believe they have come up with conclusive facts that some of the most widely accepted of the political "truths" are false.

Here are some of the gleanings accumulated by the fact-finders:

1. Though labor union members comprise one of the most highly Democratic groups in the country as many as 33 per cent laborers who have gone to the polls in recent elections voted Republican.

2. There is no sign workers who consider themselves Republicans are deserting the party or becoming less loyal to it.

3. Among technical, professional, business and managerial groups which heretofore had been considered predominantly and traditionally Republican, it was learned Republicans outnumber Democrats by only a 4 to 3 margin.

Cook Meat in Package

CHICAGO — A convenience for the housewife is bailable film packaging for beef stew, sausage and frankfurters, which permits cooking right in the package.

Bob Considine Says:

Horse Fraternity All Set for Richest Race

NEW YORK (INS)—If 15 two-year-old animals show up at the starting line Saturday at Garden State horse park, for a race ingeniously called "The Garden State," the ensuing contest at one mile and a sixteenth will be worth a numbing $311,210.

It is, of course, the richest race in the world. Sportswriters assembled by track agent Everett Clay at Leone's Restaurant the other day, to hear from two people who had paid a $10,000 supplementary entry fee just to get their names in the gallop, eyed the various pots at stake:

The winner to get $176,065, the runner-up $63,242, the show horse $41,881 and the so-called "out of the money" or fourth horse $16,580.

"I think I'll enter it myself," a stout and genial writer said after three pre-luncheon martinis. Over the next two hours he ate whatever Gene Leone spread before him.

It was one of Gene's lighter lunches: Lobster, baked oysters, baloney, shrimp, melon and prosciutto, cheese and fruit, for appetizers, then, on option, minestrone, fettuccini, steak, whole pheasants, prescribed vegetables, salad, ice cream and espresso. The wine was a lustrous Rubicon ruby from 1933.

A BIT OVERWEIGHT

"Maybe next year," the now stouter writer gasped as afternoon waned and eye glazed. He left, carrying more weight than Exterminator lifted and ran with in the Independence and the Saratoga Handicaps in 1922.

All the good stables have sent their best youngsters to "The Garden State," an indication perhaps that these honored owners are not necessarily in the sport for sport alone.

The silks of George Widener, Peter A. B. Widener, Mrs. Gene Markey of Calumet, Lis Whitney of Llangollen Farm, Rex Eklworth of Swaps, and the rich folk of the Wheatley Barn have been attracted to this commerce.

So have some of the poorer stables, if there is such a thing as a poor racing stable.

Trainer Milt Rieser, one of those whose people have gotten up a $10,000 stake to become eligible for one of the big pots of gold at the end of Saturday's run, was at the luncheon at Leone's.

He trains a "poor stable" colt, Federal Hill, named for the rise of ground which holds the Pleasant House which in 1853 inspired a man named Stephen Collins Foster, who lived in such places as Pittsburgh, Cincinnati and New York, to write a little number called "My Old Kentucky Home."

BOOSTS HIS COLT

Rieser is no man to let the Queen's tongue get in the way of his enthusiasm for his colt, who had come to fame after a lowly beginning which saw him run uncoveted in a $7,000 claiming race.

Youths Admit Burning General's Granite Hat

NASHUA, N. H. (AP)—Two juveniles, aged 17 and 16, have admitted setting a fire in the hat of a statue of Gen. John F. Foster, Civil War hero. The youths told police they ignited lighter fluid on the granite statue.

Panama had one of its best tourist seasons in the period ending with March, 1936.

"That horse can't do nothing but run," ejaculated Rieser, grown old, plump and bald in the racing game. "You ask me does he tend to stop? That horse don't show none no time he runs."

"Does he breathe hard? That horse won't blow a match out after a race. I tell you, you better get some tickets on him."

If Rieser had his way, Federal Hill should go off at 1-to-20. He won't. Bold Ruler, from Mrs. H. C. Phipps' Wheatley Stable, and trained by the famed Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons, will be favored, followed perhaps by Calumet's Baribon, a $10,000 supplementary entry.

Bold Ruler, sired by Nashrullah, Nashua's pop, has run eight times, finished first seven and second the other time. He's the big horse coming up.

Incidentally, Eddie Arcaro was to have ridden him Saturday but, sentimentally, went to Latonia to gallop Nashua around the track for the last time.

Later in the day he was judged to have been guilty of rough riding on another horse and was set down for 10 days. This deprives Eddie of his fine chance of picking up $17,666.50 by gunning Bold Ruler to victory.

But for Eddie, that's like losing two-bits down a subway vent.

1,350 Attend Waterford Career Day

76 Consultants Lead Sessions

Rev. DeWitt Emphasizes 'Doing,' Rather Than Material Success

By JANE WINDELER
Waterford Correspondent

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP—"A career is a way of life," said Rev. Robert L. DeWitt, Rector of Christ Church Cranbrook as keynote in speaking to 1,350 students and adults for Waterford Township High School's second annual Career Day program yesterday. The speaker put the emphasis on "doing" rather than on material success, and above all, he stressed the importance of self-respect.

To select a career, which would make a successful way of life, the Rev. Mr. DeWitt gave three guidelines—"Do something you enjoy doing"; "Do something which you do well, that gives you satisfaction"; and "Do something that you can justify—something that needs to be done."

An assembly program began the day with the high school choir singing "America the Beautiful" and Student Council President Rodney Evans leading in the Pledge of Allegiance. Principal Thad Carr explained the schedule, and introduced Supt. William A. Shunk who welcomed the consultants, pointing out, "What you say and do here today will influence to varying degrees, hundreds of people." He then introduced the Rev. Mr. DeWitt.

Charles Pappas, vocational coordinator of the high school, made the arrangements for the conferences.

Seventy-six consultants conducted the sixty-three conferences that were held in four sessions. The aviation industry was represented by a mechanic, a commercial pilot and a stewardess from Trans-World Airlines.

The various phases of business and business administration included Enoch Eley, general supervisor of accounting at Pontiac Motor; Joseph Hardig, in the advertising firm of MacManus, John and Adams; Harold J. Owen, branch manager for Community National Bank; Daniel Christie of Consumers Power Co., and Albert Kray of Pontiac Motor.

Consultants in the medical field were Dr. Arch Walls, president of Michigan Medical Society; Dr. James McHugh, of Pontiac State Hospital; Phyllis L. Reese, R.N., St. Joseph Mercy Hospital; Dr. J. M. Vandenberg, of Parke Davis Co.; Carl M. Bolten, D.D.S., Drayton Plains; Patricia Meixell and Roger Kidwell of St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

Seven men and women, representing the Armed Forces, conducted four of the classroom sessions. Engineering was divided into chemical, civil, electrical, and mechanical sections plus auto-mechanics, diesel equipment, drafting and tool and die mechanics sections.

John B. Wilson, Pontiac attorney, was consultant for those students

Orion Center to Name Staff

Architect to Be Hired at First Board Meeting Since Election

LAKE ORION—The first meeting of the newly elected Board of Directors for the Orion Community Center Association will be tonight at 8 at the Village Hall.

The general public is welcome at this meeting where four more members will be appointed to the Board of Directors, an architect engaged to help the building committee in formulating plans; and permanent liaison officers to the service clubs and interested organizations named.

Permanent committees on site, building and architecture, finance, publicity and membership will be named according to the agenda presented by Dr. R. A. McNeil, chairman.

Queen to Reign at Homecoming in W. Bloomfield

WEST BLOOMFIELD—A queen, whom students of West Bloomfield High School will choose from among Betty McPeake, Sivil Colankaya, an exchange student from Turkey, Pat Dunaway, Eleanor Arno and Barbara Rollo. This will be done by ballot.

The queen will be crowned by Supt. Lelf Hougan Friday night. Between the halves of the football game to be played at the Athletic Field, the queen and her court will be presented to the students and will circle the field in a float being designed for them.

They will reign at the Homecoming dance being presented by the Student Council Saturday in the High School gymnasium from 8:30 until 12, at which Russ Garcia's band will furnish the music.

Tickets may be secured from any member of the Student Council or they may be purchased at the door.

Annual Festival to Be Friday at Galloway Lake

GALLOWAY LAKE—The Women's Society of Christian Services at Galloway Lake Methodist Church will sponsor the annual fall festival including a bazaar and bake sale tomorrow at 1 p.m. Proceeds will go into the church building fund. Public is invited.

There will be no new taxes in West Pakistan, under the new budget. Lahore reports.

County Deaths

Owen A. Road

LAPEER—Service for Owen A. Road, 63, who died Wednesday in Hines Veterans Hospital, Marywood, Ill., will be at Baird Funeral Home, Saturday afternoon, with burial in Mt. Hope Cemetery.

Born in LaPeer, he was a member of the Methodist church of Joliet, Ill.

Surviving are his wife, Euphemia, three sons, Owen Jr., Du-rand, Ferguson and Frank Road of Joliet, Ill.; one sister, Mrs. Miriam Reading, Detroit; and his aunt, Mabel Road of LaPeer.

OXFORD—Service for Mrs. Florence N. DeLano, 71, of 44 Denison St., who died last night at her home, will be at 2 p.m. Saturday from the Bossardet Mabley Funeral Chapel, with burial in Ridgeland Cemetery.

Mrs. DeLano, born in Oxford, was a member of Oxford Congregational Church, the OES, Pythian Sisters, the Literary Social Club, Music Club, Oakland County Past Masters Club and the GB Club.

She is survived by her son, Daniel of Oxford; a sister, Mrs. Gladys DeLano of Oxford; a brother, Lee Noble of St. Petersburg, Fla., and five-grandchildren.

Utica Homecoming to See Game, Dance

UTICA—Tomorrow is homecoming day here, and feature event will be a football game between Warren and Utica, with a dance later at Utica High School. A queen and her court will reign, with queen contestants being Barbara Bianco, Mary Andrea Tibble, Mary Bobak, Gayle Tipper, Joan Ignasak, Carole Parrott and Carole Koster.

dents interested in law careers, while law enforcement was dealt with by Waterford Township Police Chief Frank Van Atta, and State Police Sgt. Charles Mulick, and an FBI agent.

Journalistic aspirants talked with John Fitzgerald, editor, and Harry Reed, city editor of the Pontiac Press. Insurance interests were discussed by James Bosg of Drayton Plains; interior decorating by John Bowman and Mrs. Gertrude Knebeck of the Spencer Floor Covering Co., Pontiac, and hotel management, Milton E. Disser, Jr., manager of the Roosevelt Hotel.

Numerous other consultants represented various phases of local business, state and national organizations.

Air Reserve Recruiting

The 2342nd Air Reserve Flying Center, located at Selfridge Air Force Base, is recruiting qualified personnel for the 439th Fighter Bomber Wing and its supporting units under the recently instituted six-month training plan. It was announced today by Lt. Col. LeRoy J. Manor, reserve commander.

The Air Force is attempting to recruit some 2,500 trainees into the program by next July 1. Enlistments are for a period of eight years.

Bakers Hear Ex-President

Truman Sees '29 Ghost in Republican Economics

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Former President Harry Truman said today he saw in Republican economic policies "the glimmer of another 1929."

In a speech prepared for delivery before the convention of the Bakery and Confectionary Workers International Union, Truman said:

"The danger is that, as the Republicans continue their policies of favoring the privileged few, more and more of the little people will fall by the wayside. The wage earner will join the farmer and the small businessman on the to-beggar of falling incomes. The gaps in our prosperity will get bigger and bigger. No man knows where it will end, but in the distance I see the glimmer of another 1929."

Referring to the 1929-1932 period, Truman said, "I know it is regarded as impolite in some quarters to talk about this. But the fact remains that we did have a depression at that time — a very bad one, and it is also the fact that it came as the culmination of 12 years of Republican rule in Washington."

Campaigning for the Democratic party, the former President said the Democrats put the country back on its feet when it took office in 1932. But under the Republicans since 1952, he said, "the economic growth of our country has slowed down."

"Mr. Eisenhower," said Truman, "has some figures he is fond of using that are supposed to show how much better off the country has been during his administration. At the same time, he is prone to accuse those who disagree with him of using half-truths. When we examine what he has been doing with some of these figures, you might be inclined to wonder whether anyone accusing him of half-truths would not be engaging in sheer flattery."

Truman said President Eisenhower described himself as "the chief apostle of truth" and added: "Now the worst thing about this is not that a president of the United States should treat the truth so lightly, although this is very bad. The worst thing is the danger which lies in the facts he is trying to conceal."

HEALTHY BODIES, MINDS — Calisthenics at the Pontiac YMCA help develop the health of these youngsters. However, the "Y" ignores no part of a boy in its youth program. Youngsters take part in group activities and community service projects. They grow both in health and character. The YMCA is one of the several youth services supported by the Pontiac Area United Fund.

UF Aids Programs at City 'Y'

Although the Young Men's Christian Association is an international organization, its financial support begins and ends right at home.

In Pontiac, dues from over 3,000 members make up 55 per cent of funds needed to maintain the "Y's" community center at 131 Mt. Clemens St., and run its varied program there of activities for all the family.

The rest of the money — 45 per cent of the budget — comes from the Pontiac Area United Fund. Next year's total budget is $72,000.

The "Y," and the YWCA at 22 Franklin Rd., are Community Chest activities directly supported by UF contributions solicited now through Nov. 16.

Youngsters are allowed YMCA memberships for only $3 a year. The higher rates paid by adults are not enough to offset the low charge for youngsters to enjoy programs of health and recreation.

Altogether, there are about 2,400 boys and girls nine years or older enjoying the "Y's" facilities. Adult membership numbers about 750.

There's swimming in the "Y" pool, exercise in the gym, dances for the teenagers and young adults and parties every holiday.

One of the "Y's" main aims is to curb juvenile delinquency by offering programs to build healthy minds and bodies. General Secretary T. N. Slossen has a staff of trained leaders who stress spiritual ideals as well as good, clean fun. Especially popular are the Summer Fund Club, enjoyed six weeks by youngsters over nine years of age, and family swimming hours.

There's co-ed swimming, too, for high schoolers and young adults. Swimming instruction was provided 660 youngsters last year, and continues to be a main "Y" function.

Boys and men participated in 20 athletic teams last year, including basketball, touch football and volleyball. The "Y" also offers weight-lifting and skin diving. Members participate in world service projects to help support YMCAs in foreign countries.

The local YWCA offers recreation and educational facilities for girls and women. Directed by Mrs. Reba Ross Netzer, it is especially proud of a hostess corps, recruited and trained for the USO.

The YWCA conducts sewing, language and craft classes, an intensive teenage program, and a Golden Age Club for women over 65 years of age.

Trailer Adds Deadly Acid Into Waterway

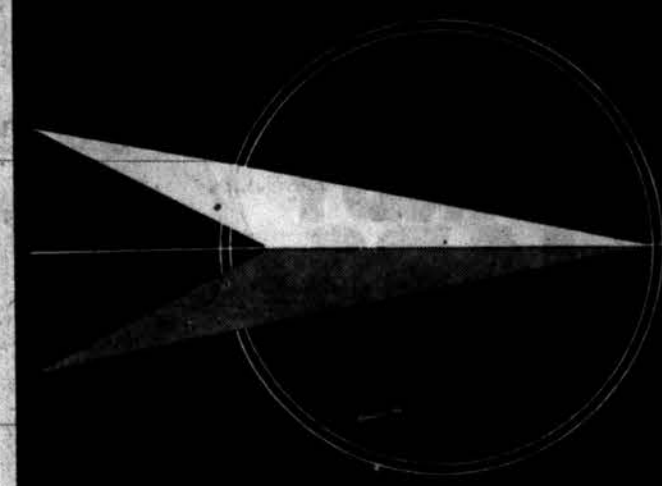

DURANGO, Colo. (U)—A trailer truck carrying 3,000 gallons of sulphuric acid missed a turn and broke through the railing of a bridge south of Durango last night, dumping the acid into the Animas River.

Northern New Mexico towns which use the river's water were notified of the danger.

Only the trailer tank section of the truck fell into the river. The driver was not hurt.

At Farmington, N.M., about 50 miles downstream, inlets to the city reservoir were closed. Artec shut off all water lines from the river.

Lowly Ragweed Wins Respect

Scientists at U. of M. Conduct 5-Year Study in Hay Fever Project

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Oct. (INS) — The common ragweed plant—despised by hay fever victims and ignored by nature lovers—is winning the scientific respect of University of Michigan botanists.

The botanists are learning all they can about the rugged plant as part of a broad, five-year study of hay fever at the University, which employs experts from the fields of medicine, engineering and public health.

The project is sponsored by the National Institute, in cooperation with the University of Michigan Engineering Research Institute.

When their research is finished, the botanists hope to be able to tell medical doctors exactly how and where the plant forms the substance to which one in every 20 Americans is allergic. They also hope to tell meteorologists when and how this substance is discharged into the atmosphere on particles of pollen.

The doctors and meteorologists will carry the work from there in an effort to alleviate the suffering of those allergic to this and other airborne materials.

Warren H. Wagner, assistant professor of botany, reports:

"Few people realize it, but ragweed is an incredibly complex plant which represents evolutionary specialization of the highest order."

The common ragweed plant has survived for 170 million years, starting like a plant of the magnolia family and then evolving through stages resembling the rose, honeysuckle and daisy.

Professor Wagner points out that the ragweed thrives in the poorest soils, stands a great deal of abuse, yet nevertheless functions "remarkably successfully."

During the spring and early summer, when the days are longer than 12 hours, the plant just grows. When the days grow shorter than 12 hours about mid-August, a mysterious "photo-period" system "tells" the plant to begin flowering.

The U. of M. botanists began their study with a survey of scientific articles written about ragweed.

The result is a bibliography containing 800 annotated references that in itself should be an important contribution to the field.

What Price Education?

DETROIT (U) — The more education a man gets the less likely he is to become an inventor, says Charles F. Kettering, a famous inventor and a General Motors Corp. director. "The educated man fears failure while the inventor uses his failures as potshots," Kettering said.

Notice of Intention to Construct Storm Drains in Dixieland Subdivision.

You are hereby notified that at a regular meeting of the Commission of the City of Pontiac, Michigan held October 23, 1956 by resolution it was declared to be the intention of the City Commission to construct storm drains in Dixieland Subdivision, at an estimated cost of $25,482.00 and that the plan, profile and estimate of said improvement is on file for public inspection. It is further intended to construct said improvement in accordance with the plan, profile and estimate, and that the cost thereof shall be defrayed by special assessment according to frontage and that the following lots and parcels of land viz: Lots 133 to 138 incl; 181 to 185 incl; 177 to 179 incl; of Dixieland Subdivision shall constitute the special assessment district to defray $4,277.82 of the estimated cost and expenses thereof and that $21,204.18 of the estimated cost and expenses thereof shall be paid from the Dixieland Subdivision Fund. NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN That the Commission of the City of Pontiac, Michigan will meet in the Commission Chamber on October 25, 1956 at 8 o'clock a.m. to review said assessment and objections that may be made by parties interested. Dated October 24, 1956. ADA R. EVANS, City Clerk, Oct. 25, 1956

Officer's Disguise Can't Fool Gypsy—but She Loses

INDIANAPOLIS (INS) — Even his closest friends wouldn't have recognized Maurice G. Stafford when he left his office disguised as a hobo.

The deputy prosecutor's purpose was to find the buxom, raven-haired gypsy—a fortune teller—who had been soliciting customers from the street.

Shuffling past the gypsy band's headquarters in the best hobo manner, Stafford spotted the girl and waited to be approached. Presently the door opened and the buxom gypsy called: "Come in officer, the door is always open to you."

But Stafford accomplished his purpose; he said the hand promised to close shop.

Netherlands Claims Longest Life Spans

WASHINGTON—Of all the countries in the world that lay claim to rugged individuals 100 years old or more, the nation that boasts the highest average longevity is The Netherlands, says the National Geographic Society.

Average life expectancy for a Dutch woman is now 72.9 years; for a man, 70.6. Women of the United States rank second, with 72.7 years. But American males (66.6) rank only seventh on the list, topped by the Dutch, Norwegians, Swedes, New Zealanders, Danes, and Englishmen.

Turkey's Exports Up

ISTANBUL — Turkey exported $89,000,000 worth of tobacco in 1955 compared with $85,890,000 in 1954. Exports of fruits soared from $47,820,000 in 1954 to $63,320,000 last year.

A Complete Job

NEWTON, Kans. (U)—Restaurant Melvin Andrus complained to police that whoever picked up the garbage at his cafe here was too thorough—they also took the cans, all eight of them.

YOU COUNT 'EM — Walter Wark, 7, and brother Daniel, 9, of Rosemead, Calif., are "spot" contenders for the most-freckles contest during the Los Angeles County Fair. Could be that Walter is hiding a surprise entry of uncounted freckles under that chin bandage.

Century Plant Blooms Once in a Lifetime

The century plant blooms once in its lifetime rather than once in a hundred years. The popular name for Agave Americana comes from a belief that it flowers once following a century of growth. Actually the spiky yellow cluster sometimes appears after only five years, says the National Geographic Society. Death invariably follows the blossoming.

Ohio 'Most' in Radar

WASHINGTON—Ohio, with 174 sets licensed, leads all other states in the use of "radar" speed-determining sets that help in enforcing speed laws. Wisconsin ranks second with 122 sets and Texas, which had only 31 a little over a year ago, is third with 110.

Ike, Adlai Fail to Satisfy Girl on Question of Party Differences

BAKERSFIELD, Calif. (AP)—Janice Anderson of McFarland is a little girl with a big question.

And, like another little girl who received the answer to her big question in the famed "Dear Virginia" editorial of the New York Sun many years ago, Janice has directed her query to a newspaper. Here is the question she has posed to the Bakersfield Californian:

"Dear editor:
"My name is Janice Anderson. I am 10 years old. I would like to know the difference between Democrats and Republicans. My mother and father are Republicans and my neighbor is a Democrat."

"My father and mother explained it, but I still can't understand it."

"Thank you, Yours truly, Janice Anderson, Rt. 1, Box 426, McFarland, Calif."

Managing Editor Jim Day asked Kern County party leaders for help in replying. The best he got was, "Now, that's a tough one to answer."

Consulting Webster's 1955 Unabridged International Dictionary, the Californian found these definitions:

Democratic party—"It has advocated a strict construction of the Constitution, sharp limitations of powers of federal government and a broad construction of reserved rights of states. It has generally pronounced in favor of a low tariff, practically for revenue only."

Republican party—"Among the policies with which the Republican party has been identified are a liberal construction of the Constitution, esp. in the direction of federal power, maintenance of the gold standard, and a protective tariff system."

The Californian's editor wondered: Is Webster really accurate?

Next Day wrote President Eisenhower and Adlai Stevenson. After some delay, Murray Snyder, assistant press secretary to the President, replied for the Republicans and Stevenson himself answered for the Democratic party.

Snyder wrote: "It is not possible for us to give you a presidential statement" on Janice's question. Snyder offered what he termed "an excellent exposition on the subject," delivered in Minneapolis last month by Arthur Larson, undersecretary of labor. (It was two long pages of single-spaced typing.)

As his answer, Stevenson sent directly to Janice a seven-page, double-spaced copy of a speech he delivered in August to members of the United Auto Workers meeting in Washington. The Illinois Democrat wrote to Janice he hoped that "perhaps your mother and father will be able to help you understand" the difference between Democrats and Republicans by "simplifying some of the more difficult passages."

The official Republican statement started out by saying there is an "underlying cleavage in philosophy between the two parties." Democrats, said Undersecretary Larson, have "a tendency, as to all sorts of human problems, to try collective and governmental remedies as against relying on individual, pluralist, and private activities."

His party "believes that the private and individual remedy should be tried first in all problems, with the government stepping in only if the job is too big for private, state or local efforts," Larson concluded.

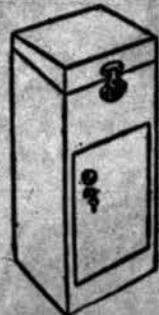

Declared Stevenson: "It is the Democratic faith... that the government of a democracy must trust all the people it serves, that it must be made up of representatives of all the people, and that its obligations cannot be to any special interest but only to all the people."

Of the millions of people listening to the words now being uttered in campaign speeches, perhaps one might know a short, simple answer to Janice's question. Meanwhile, Janice figures her search for an uncomplicated truth has not been completely fruitless: She has Stevenson's autograph!

CUNNINGHAM'S—HEADQUARTERS FOR HALLOWEEN CANDY

TODAY'S ASSIGNMENT FOR:

JUNIOR EDITORS

THE AGE OF CHIVALRY—A Queen

The queen or baroness looked after home life in the castle. These great stone buildings were cold and dark in spite of big logs blazing in the fireplaces. The walls were covered with tapestries and there were shaggy fur skins on the floor.

When there was peace in the land the queen might ride out with her attendants, but most of her life was spent in the castle. She passed the time by playing chess, checkers or backgammon, or by working on tapestries and embroidery with her attendants. Wandering minstrels would sometimes call at the castle and entertain them with songs and stories.

Here is a queen sitting on a gilded chair on the castle battlements. She is wearing a small crown, but sometimes she wears the high conical headdress with a floating veil.

Color this picture with your crayons, and then paste it down on cardboard. Cut out the parts and fold the right end forward at the dotted line so the figure will stand. Cut the slit in the headdress and slip it on the queen's head.

(Linda Parsons, Champaign, Ill., wins $10 for sending in this idea first. Perhaps you have an idea for Junior Editors. If so send it in care of this newspaper. Violet Moore Higgins; AP Newsfeatures.)

Wine Squeezers Help Families in a Crush

JEREZ de la FRONTERA, Spain (INS) — The historic city which survived an invasion by the Romans and a 700-year occupation by the Moors has finally surrendered to the American giveaway craze.

As part of the ancient harvest fiesta this year celebrating the first pressing of the Spanish sherry which has been its livelihood for more than 2,000 years, the city of Jerez gave away the keys to 48 modern apartments.

The only requirements for contestants were that they have at least 12 children and have outgrown their old houses.

Winners do not get the apartments completely free but the rent they pay — $5 to $8 per month — is low enough to place the apartments within pocketbook reach of even the neediest.

Jerez is a city of big families. Thus while a minimum of 12 children would bar 99 per cent of U. S. families from entering any such contest, in Jerez it only keeps the number of applicants within reasonable bounds.

Taffy Pulling an Art in African Province

Taffy pulling is an art in Kano, Nigeria, says the National Geographic Society. The African candy makers prepare a mixture of sugar, water, honey, and almonds, and stretch it vigorously from iron hooks set high in a tree trunk. After the confection hardens, it is hawked through the streets in open trays.

Mount Elina has increased 56 feet in height from recent deposits of ash and lava, experts in Catania, Sicily, claim.

Meeting Held by Soviet Vets

800 Civil War, WW II Ex-Servicemen Elect Hand-Picked President

MOSCOW (INS) — Soviet war veterans have just held a convention in Moscow without water pistols or funny hats.

That could come later, however — this was their first meeting. The Kremlin summoned 800 veterans of the 1917-1922 civil war and of World War II to fill the hall while another wheel was added to the Soviets' "peace" handwagon.

The veterans soberly elected to the presidency without dissent one of Defense Minister Georgi Zhukov's deputies, Marshal Alexander Vasilievsky.

Unlike veterans' organizations in capitalist countries, the Soviet group won't lobby for bonuses, pensions, medical care and other special benefits for ex-servicemen. The new president explained in an interview that "one of its main aims is to unite the efforts of war veterans in the struggle for consolidating peace and strengthening contacts with . . . organizations from other countries which are taking action against the threat of war."

The Soviets first job will be to move into the World Veterans' Federation, one international forum the Russians had missed up to now.

Marshal Vasilievsky explains that members will "conduct educational activity among war veterans in the spirit of Soviet patriotism and in the spirit of consolidating peace, friendship and cooperation among different peoples."

The veterans group provides another peg to hang "cultural exchanges" on: "It will establish contacts and exchange experience with other Soviet and foreign organizations which are fighting for the preservation of peace . . . inviting delegations of veterans from other countries to the U.S.S.R. and sending its delegations abroad . . ."

U.S. Citizens Halted on Way to U.S.S.R.

NEW YORK (U)—Another Russian-American citizenship controversy developed here yesterday as immigration agents halted a Bronx family about to sail for the Soviet Union aboard the liner Queen Elizabeth.

Immigration officers said the three were American citizens and could not leave without American passports, which they lacked. A Russian Embassy official said they had renounced their American citizenship and had become Soviet citizens.

The family was identified as Mr. and Mrs. Serafin Strelkov, both Russian-born, and their daughter, Natalia, who was born in this country 26 years ago. They refused to speak to reporters.

Science Is Working to Make You Warmer

SHEFFIELD, Eng. (INS) — Dissatisfied with the climate? Grousing about the shocking weather? Cheer up, for science is working to make you cozy.

Spare heat from the tropics may warm the colder regions of the world in the future, according to Prof. A. A. Miller, professor of geography at Reading University. The professor said nature does this already by means of ocean currents and the atmospheric circulation which together constitute a global central-heating system, but he added that nature "does not do this very efficiently."

Prof. Miller admitted that an efficient machinery was not yet in sight "but who shall say in this technological age that anything is impossible tomorrow? — the pronouncements of yesterday are sufficient warning."

Oil Supplier Change

STOCKHOLM — Oil's relative share in Sweden's over-all imports has gradually increased in the past 10 years and now amounts to 11.5 per cent, or about the same as textile imports. There has also been a marked shift in the source of supply. In 1946 North and South America accounted for 90.1 per cent of Sweden's oil imports; their share at present is only 28.4 per cent. The Near East, either directly or through Western European refineries, has increased its share from 9.9 per cent to 60.3.

Police 'Oblige'

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—A housewife called police at 5 a.m. complaining that she was locked out of the house. The key, she explained, was in the family car and it was missing. Police helped her. They returned the key, which was in the car, the car, which was in the city pound; and her husband, who was in city jail on a drunk charge.

Japan Exports Movies

TOKYO (U)—The Japanese movie industry exported 1,650 feature films and 385 newsreels during 1955, Kyodo News Service announced. The overseas profit was $796,507, up 37 per cent over 1954. The United States, Formosa and Okinawa were the largest buyers.

Phil Wants to Be Papa; Margaret Is Bounced

By KARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Phil Silvers is pining to be a papa. After thanking best man Freddie Fields for getting him a blind date with Evelyn Patrick about a year ago and then helping with wedding plans, Phil anxiously asked, "What time did you order the baby for?"

Steve Allen's BW Jayne Meadows was so happy about the sermon Steve preached at the University Church. "He got laughs!" she exclaimed.

Singer Margaret Whiting, the recording star, was fired from the Copacabana show by Boss Jules Fiedler after the midnight performance. Maggie, $175-a-week featured attraction, was accused by the Copacabana management of "knocking the customers" from the floor. Specifically the management objected to her saying, "This is not a Copacabana tonight—because it's quiet." Maggie said "twas a misunderstanding—she meant her words as a compliment—"the Copacabana have been wonderful."

Grace Kelly just got a surprise gift from the Prince—a black girl poodle (named "Canella.") She'll take the NY pup back to Monte Carlo to become the wife of her poodle "Oliver" . . . Mickey Rooney's begging Jane Kean to marry him . . . Shiri Conway of the Sid Caesar show whooshed back to the U. of Michigan—where her brother's an assistant dean—to see about getting herself a master's degree.

"A fireman back home rescued a lot of girls but he didn't get any promotion for it," says Herb Shriner. "He rescued 'em from the fire chief."

J. J. Shubert was in the Boston Shubert Theater the other day and asked Lehman Engel, conductor of the "Lil Abner" orchestra, and others, to quit smoking. Replied Engel: "There's just one man who can make us quit smoking in this theater—and that's J. J. Shubert."

Elvis Presley's look-alike, Eddie Randall, who plays the guitar and has sideburns, was mobbed in Lindy's by dames who thought he was the Elvis personally. He's from Texas, ma'am.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Noel Coward told us at Luchow's why he's ducking the British tax by living in Jamaica. "I pay the tax, but I object to the super-tax." He'll stay out of England until April . . . The Broadway crowd all loved Bob Hope's Tver and Diana Dors, especially when Bob appeared as a janitor and Diana said, "But you told me you were a vice president." Bob replied, "Fubut—that was yesterday."

Ann Woodward's taking over the Hattie Carnegie apartment . . . Rita Hayworth'll probably do a spectacular . . . Lilo, the French star, goes into the Havana Nacional Dec. 11, launching what's expected to be a big wild year in Cuban spots where everybody stays up late . . . Fernanda Montiel, the chanteuse, flew to Miami for the weekend to get more suntan for her act.

Carol Drake, mother of Billy Eckstine's children, is preparing a sensational explosion . . . Harry Belafonte, heralded now in Hollywood as "America's No. 1 Negro movie idol," broke off from his mgr., Jay Richard Kennedy, who'll pursue his own career.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: How to Get Killed: When a girl says she's approaching 30, merely ask her "From which direction?"

The sermon had gone on and on. Finally the minister said, "What more can I say?" A voice in the back said, "Amen!" . . . That's earl, brother. (Copyright 1956, The Hall Syndicate, Inc.)

ETNA GREEN, Ind. (INS)—One of the few women cricket raisers in the fishing bait business has a quick response for men who talk about women who talk too much. Mrs. Frances Melton, who owns a cricket hatchery at Etna Green where she raises millions of the noisy little insects, points out: "Women crickets don't say a word. It's the men who do all the talking!"

Do-It-Yourself Fails

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (U)—Valentin A. Garcia, teaching himself to drive, ended up in a park lagoon. He said he didn't realize the car was in gear when he turned on the ignition. Police ticketed the fledgling driver for not having an operator's license and for speeding.

Big Buildup, No Body

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (U)—Dale Edward Vinsett, 12, was missing from his home and his family feared he had drowned in a stock pond. Magic was called into play to locate his body. A neighbor woman tossed a couple of Dale's shirts into the pond. She said that the spot where they sank was where he'd be found. Dale was found, all right. He was at the home of a friend.

Science Battles Hungry Mollusk

Tiny Sea Marauder
Costly Foe of Piers and Wooden Ships

WASHINGTON—A fishing ship once tied up securely at a San Francisco wharf. Her crew went ashore for lunch. When they returned, not only the ship but part of the wharf had drifted away.

Shipworms—the silent, unseen marauders of the sea—had honeycombed the wharf's underwater timbers and so weakened the structure that it suddenly gave way when a heavy wind blew up.

Wooden ships long have suffered from depredations of the teredo, or shipworm. But only lately have scientists launched studies to learn what weaknesses of habit or body chemistry may be used against it.

Dr. F. G. Walton Smith, Director of the Marine Laboratory at the University of Miami, Coral Gables, Fla., reports on research that he and his associates are doing in this field, in the National Geographic Magazine.

The project is part of a continuing program of various undersea investigations conducted since 1950 by the Marine Laboratory. To begin with, says the author, this marine creature is not remotely kin to a worm. Despite appearances, the teredo is a mollusk related if the oyster or clam. Its paired shells, common to bivalve mollusks, are two small, curved plates atop the head. Rows of fine teeth on the shell surface rasp away the wood as the animal digs its tunnel.

Researchers watching shipworms in sea-water tanks have found many minute tubes or siphons protruding from infested wood. "Each pair belongs to a single shipworm," explains Dr. Walton Smith. "It draws in water for breathing through one tube and expels exhausted water with waste products through the other."

When frightened it pulls in its siphons and blocks the entrances with calcareous plugs. So efficient is shipworm technique, especially in tropic seas, that the life of untreated timber is often amazingly short. A few years ago, a long wooden trestle was built at Honolulu Harbor to carry equipment. Because of its temporary nature, it was not treated; but the marine saboteurs won the race. In less than 70 days large sections collapsed.

From ancient times, wax, pitch, and tar were used as protective coating for vulnerable wood. Early Greeks put lead sheathing on ships, as did the English Navy in the 16th and 17th centuries. Later, copper sheathing was popular, but abandoned because of cost. "At present," says Dr. Walton Smith, "pressure treatment with creosote or creosote-coal tar solution is the best method for preserving piling, while good antifouling paint affords maximum protection for boats."

Hollywood Headlines

Child Actor Michel Ray Chats in Five Languages

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (U)—Ordinarily I would rather interview a horse than a child actor.

This may get me picketed by the Screen Children's Guild, but I must confess it's true. In unspoken years of interviewing, I have had reasonable success with adults. I've had fair results with animals, robots and assorted monsters. Child actors throw me.

Their conversational range is limited. While they may be good company at marbles or hopscotch, they aren't much help to a reporter in search of copy. You get more yeps and nopes out of them than you do from Gary Cooper.

I am happy to report that Michel Ray is the exception. I approached him with the same misgivings I have had with other film moppets. But I found he could converse as well as Clifton Webb. And in five languages!

Michel is now being hailed as the brightest young find in years because of his role as the Mexican boy in "The Brave One." That part won him co-starring status as a half-breed lad in "The Tin Star" with Henry Fonda, Betty Palmer and Anthony Perkins.

He could not only talk, but spoke with a slight British accent. He was born near London, the only son of a leather merchant, Henry Popper, and his wife.

"I'm taking lessons so I'll be able to talk Western in the picture," Michel explained. "It's not too difficult. I speak English, French and German fluently. I speak Spanish rather well, but with some grammatical errors, and my Italian is fairly good."

All this from a lad of 10! His

MM Academy Has Openings

All Interested Youths Must Contact Dondoro
for Appointments

U.S. Congressman George A. Dondoro said today young men interested in attending the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy should contact him immediately to initiate appointment proceedings.

Dondoro said under a new appointment system, each Congressman may nominate up to 10 candidates, who will take the College

Entrance Examination Board test March 18, 1957.

Approximately 11 men finally will be appointed from Michigan, Dondoro said. The Academy's entering class will number about 300.

Age, educational and physical standards are similar to those required for entrance to Annapolis, the U.S. Naval Academy. Successful candidates will take a four-year course leading to a license as either third mate or third assistant engineer, and the Bachelor of Science degree.

Qualified graduates may be appointed reserve midshipmen in the U.S. Navy on graduation from the Academy.

Interested men should contact him immediately, Dondoro emphasized, since "the time for reporting the names is very short."

Deer Season Means Hi Jinks for Utah Hunters

PROVO, Utah (AP)—It's deer-hunting season in Utah—time for the annual nimrod hi jinks.

Like Yukus Inouye of nearby Highland, who was awakened from his nap by hunters' bullets whining too close to his rural home. Going to the window to warn them away, he spotted a four-point buck standing in his own yard, grabbed his rifle and filled his season's quota on the spot.

Or Otto Reichert of Provo who brought his buck back alive. He's already shot one when he came upon a three-pointer trapped in a barbed-wire fence. Freeing the animal, he brought it home with him, treated its cuts and turned it over to fish and game department.

First successful oil pipeline was laid in 1865.

According to the U. S. department of commerce, there are 9,000 miles of improved highways total. India will send a team to the World Volleyball Championship tests in Paris this summer.

Red Observers to Be in Detroit

State Department Gives Schedule of Stops for 3 Watching Campaign

WASHINGTON (AP)—The State Department said today that Russian observers in this country to watch the presidential campaign will be in and around New York City on election day.

The State Department published the remainder of the schedules for L. N. Solovet, V. L. Kudryavtsev, and M. I. Rubenshtein. They are, respectively, a legislator, journalist and economist.

They arrived in this country Monday and will be here through Nov. 9.

Their partial schedule, through their attendance at Adlai Stevenson's speech in Los Angeles Saturday, had been announced. Today's additions showed that they will also hear a speech by Vice President Nixon on Monday, Oct. 29, in Los Angeles, then fly to San Francisco where they will remain until Tuesday.

Their trip thereafter will take them in succession to Denver, Colo. (Oct. 31), Wichita, Kan. (Nov. 1), Kansas City, Mo. (Nov. 3), Chicago (Nov. 3), Detroit (Nov. 3), Philadelphia (Nov. 4) and New York (Nov. 5).

Alaska Voids Ballot of Attorney General

JUNEAU, Alaska (AP)—Absentee ballots tossed out by counters yesterday as cast improperly at the recent territorial election included the vote of Atty. Gen. J. Gerald Williams.

It failed to carry the signature of the U.S. commissioner with whom it was cast.

Williams didn't need the vote. He was re-elected without it.

Army Engineers Test Ultrasonic Slicer

FORT MONMOUTH, N. J.—A new slicing device that uses ultrasonic waves as a cutting edge is being tested at the Army's Signal Corps engineering laboratories here.

The Army scientists have found they can cut paper-thin wafers of quartz, a superhard mineral used in radio equipment. The slicer gives three times as many usable quartz-crystal wafers from a block as do the best diamond saws.

Make Special Treats for Goblins

Goblins howl and witches prwl and all the world knows it's Halloween. Half the population throws a party for the other half who attend. Parties call for refreshments.

Mince Meat cookies are a good choice for young guests. Serve them with milk, hot cocoa or cider. Be sure to give the baked cookies a spooky air by decorating them with frosting jack-o'-lanterns.

Keep this recipe and use it again at Christmas time. These truly cookies should be good keepers. You might add a holiday decoration then.

Chocolate Mince Meat Cookies
 3 1/2 cups sifted flour
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1 teaspoon soda
 1/2 cup shortening
 1/2 cup sugar
 3 eggs, well beaten
 1 8-ounce package condensed mince meat

Sift together flour, salt and soda. Cream shortening. Add sugar gradually. Cream together until fluffy. Add eggs. Beat until smooth. Add mince meat, broken into small pieces. Add flour and mix well. Drop by teaspoonfuls, two inches apart, on greased baking sheet. Bake in moderately hot oven (400 degrees) about 12 minutes. Makes about 45 cookies, three inches in diameter.

Hot Spiced Cider

Heat the cider in top of double boiler. Pour in sugar. Sprinkle three or four whole cloves in each and add a stick of cinnamon for a stirrer.

Do you like to make the candy you hand out to Trick-or-Treat youngsters? Do it the easy way by using the following recipe for a sweetened condensed milk fondant.

Magic Fondant Candies
 1/2 cup (1/2 15-oz. can) sweetened condensed milk
 1 teaspoon vanilla extract
 4 cups sifted confectioners sugar

Blend together sweetened condensed milk and vanilla. Gradually add confectioners sugar while mixing until smooth and creamy. Use this fondant between nut meats or as a stuffing for dates.

Or form into small balls and roll in chopped nut meats, shredded coconut, grated chocolate or chopped candied fruit. Or flavor and color the fondant and form into round, flat candies, topping with halved cherries.

We should like to repeat the plea we have made in previous years at Halloween time. PLEASE WRAP ALL FOOD THAT YOU HAND OUT.

If you're a mother, you know the condition of the food when it has been literally dumped into the bags the small fry carry. Wrapping it at least assures cleanliness. Even a squashed cookie can be eaten if it is clean.

Should next Wednesday night turn out to be cold, you will want to have a hot drink ready. You can make a special beverage using instant or regular cocoa and powdered cream. We give you recipes for both versions.

Instant Cocoa

For 1 cup, mix 2 tablespoons powdered cream and 2 to 3 heaping teaspoons instant cocoa mix in a cup. Fill cup with the boiling water. Stir and serve.

For 4 cups, mix 1/2 cup powdered cream and 5 to 6 tablespoons instant cocoa mix. Then add 3

IT'S HALLOWEEN!—Witches and goblins and all small fry prwl next Wednesday night. What could be better refreshments for them than mince meat cookies and hot — or cold — cider? Decorate the mince meat cookies with frosted jack-o'-lanterns and provide cinnamon sticks for the hot cider stirrers.

measuring cups boiling water. Stir and serve.

Regular Cocoa

For 1 cup, mix 2 tablespoons powdered cream, 2 teaspoons cocoa, 2 teaspoons sugar in cup. Fill cup with boiling water. Add a dash of vanilla, if you wish. Stir and serve.

For 4 cups, mix 1/2 cup powdered cream, 3 tablespoons cocoa, 3 tablespoons sugar, dash of salt, 1/2 teaspoon vanilla. Then add 3 measuring cups boiling water. Stir and serve.

Crush Unpeeled Garlic

Don't peel that clove of garlic before you put it into a garlic crusher. The pulp will come out as usual and the press will be easier to clean than it is when the garlic is peeled before crushing. If there is a slight well in the center of fruit pies, the juice will run towards the center instead of boiling over the sides.

Turkeys Will Be Plentiful

By JANET ODELL
 Pontiac Press Home Editor

This year there can be a turkey in every pot instead of the chicken we used to hear about. The outlook for turkey for the holiday season is excellent.

Guests present at a luncheon, sponsored by the Michigan Allied Poultry Industries and the Cooperative Extension Service, heard the report that sixteen percent more birds will be on the market this fall. Seventy-six million turkeys are ready for Michigan dinner tables.

Strangely enough, there will be little difference in price between the large and small birds this year. There will be more larger turkeys for sale although Mrs. Consumer will be able to get just about any size she wants.

Present were members of the radio and newspaper fields, dietitians from the local hospitals, representatives of restaurant and catering associations and large scale buyers. Other guests included home economists from public utility companies, school lunchroom personnel and delegates from the Oakland County Home Demonstration Council.

Local hostesses were Mrs. Josephine Lawyer, Mrs. Frieda Bennett and Mrs. Mary Hixon, all workers of the Cooperative Extension Service in Pontiac.

In the next few weeks we expect to bring you many new ways of using this plentiful poultry. Plan to include turkey on your menus often this fall and winter.

Game Birds Are Luxury Foods

He shoots it. You cook it! But before cooking for small game, two to three days for game birds. For more information on preparing and cooking game write to the Extension Service, Michigan State University, East Lansing, and ask for Bulletin 252, entitled "Good Eating From Woods and Fields." Bulletin 253 is titled "Venison."

Unfortunately, many hunters simply discard their game after they have killed it. Not only is this a waste of money when you consider the 14,000,000 hunters who spend $87,000,000 on tags, stamps and licenses; but game is one of the real luxuries of the dinner table and should be treated as such.

Every sportsman should know the proper procedure for cleaning, transporting and storing game. The basic rules include:

1. Drawing, cleaning and cooling as soon as possible.
2. Dry plucking game birds, skinning small game.
3. Transporting in the open air.
4. Refrigerating at least one day.

with string. Turn wings under. Cover breast with bacon and cheesecloth soaked in melted butter. Place pheasant breast up in baking pan. Arrange onion slices and mushrooms with liquid around pheasant.

Four chicken broth (canned or made with 1 chicken bouillon cube and 1 cup hot water) over pheasant. Roast in preheated 350-degree oven 30 minutes per pound, or until tender, basting frequently with liquid in pan. Remove cheesecloth and string.

Pheasant Pie is the perfect recipe for older birds which require moist heat. Serve this treat with tart green salad, heated garlic bread and ale or beer.

Pheasant Pie
1 pheasant, 3 to 4 pounds (dressed weight)
1 bay leaf
1 stalk celery
1 pepper
1 tablespoon salt
1/2 cup butter
1/2 cup flour

1 cup light cream
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1/2 cup onion, sliced
1/2 cup mushroom, sliced
1/2 cup peas
1/2 cup peas
1/2 cup peas
1/2 cup peas

Place pheasant in a large kettle and cover with water. Add bay leaf, celery, peppercorns and 1 tablespoon salt. Bring to boil. Cover and cook over low heat 2 to 3 hours, or until pheasant is tender. Remove meat from bones; strain broth.

Melt butter in saucepan, add flour and stir until blended. Gradually add 2 cups of the broth, stirring constantly. Add light cream, pepper and salt. Cook, stirring until thickened. Arrange pheasant pieces, onion, mushrooms, peas and plumetons in a 3-quart casserole. Add sauce, leaving at least 1-inch space at top.

Prepare pastry mix. Cut pastry circle 1/2-inch larger than casserole and place over pheasant mixture, turning edge of pastry under and pressing to casserole with fork or spoon. Garnish top with leaf-shaped pastry cutouts and acorns made by attaching a pastry circle to a filbert with a clove. Bake in preheated 450-degree oven 15 minutes, or until crust is golden brown. Serves 3-4.

Duck season is a longer one than pheasant season. You may have more ducks to cook than anything else. Try this recipe that combines duck with tangy sauerkraut.

This recipe calls for juniper berries. You may not be able to track them down. Don't try substituting; just omit them.

Hungarian Roast Duck
2 wild ducks, 2 to 2 1/2 pounds (dressed weight)
2 tablespoons paprika
2 apples, quartered
2 onions, quartered
1/2 cup butter, melted
2 cups sauerkraut
1/2 cup juniper berries, crushed
2 tablespoons caraway seeds
2 slices cooked bacon, crumbled

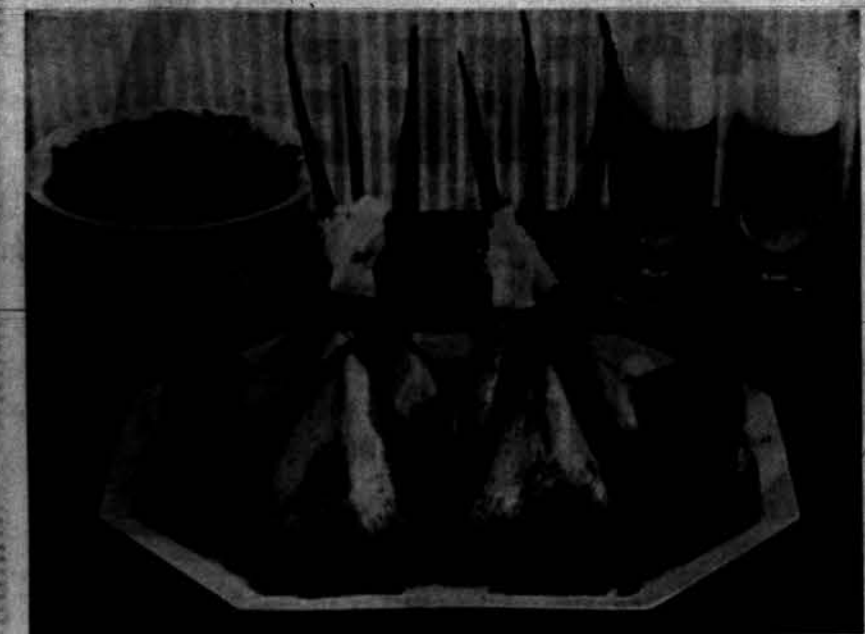

Sprinkle ducks inside and out with salt, pepper and paprika. Place apple and onion quarters in cavity of each. Cover breasts with bacon and fasten with string. Place ducks breasts up in baking pan. Roast in preheated 350-degree oven 1 to 1 1/2 hours, or 15 minutes per pound, basting frequently with butter.

Combine sauerkraut, juniper berries, caraway seeds and bacon in shallow casserole. Mix well. Place in oven 20 minutes before ducks are done. Discard apple and onion quarters; remove string. Carve ducks. Arrange duck slices on sauerkraut and serve with potato pancakes, plum jelly and hot biscuits. Makes 4 servings.

For a new flavor, sprinkle a generous dash of marjoram over sauteed mushrooms.

Friday Salad Combines Crabmeat and Apples
Good for Friday is a tempting salad of crabmeat and fresh, crisp apples, lightly accented with lemon to bring out the fine flavors. Select a tender eating apple variety like the Delicious which may be used without peeling. Allow two large apples to serve 4.

Cut unpeeled apples into bite-size pieces and dip in lemon juice. To 2 cups fresh or canned crabmeat, add 3 stalks celery, chopped. Moisten with 1/3 cup mayonnaise and season to taste with salt and pepper. Add apple wedges and serve on crisp salad greens with mayonnaise or French dressing.

ROAST PHEASANT — Roast pheasant, the gourmet's favorite bird, was introduced to this country as recently as 1881, yet more than 8,000,000 birds are shot annually. For a flavor-

Marinate Flank Steak

This is a wonderful dish to serve a hungry group, which is why it is so popular. Marinate a flank steak (at least two inches thick) for at least two hours in a dressing made of three part oil olive oil to one of vinegar, adding a crushed garlic clove, salt and pepper.

Grill about three inches from a hot fire, five minutes on a side. Remove to a platter, dot with butter and chopped parsley, and serve half-inch slices, diagonally cut. Scalloped potatoes and a tomato salad taste good with this.

Put your pet filling in a Flakorn Ring-A-Round and make a hearty meal...

You'll never believe what hearty elegance tuna, chicken, meat or seafood fillings can have until you try nesting them in a golden Flakorn corn bread ring. Quick and easy to prepare, it's a tempting 1-dish dinner you can mix in minutes.

But remember—ONLY Flakorn's exclusive 12 oz. pack gives you the extra-measure mix it takes to make the generous family-size servings you need.

For muffins, corn breads, casseroles, breakfast treats too—no other mix can make so much, so easy!

FLAKORN CORN BREAD RING-A-ROUND
Prepare Flakorn batter as directed. Pour into greased 8" (5 cup) ring mold. Bake 20 min. at 400°. Turn onto platter and add filling. Makes 4-6 dinner-size servings.

October's Time for Doughnuts

Timed just right for Halloween are spicy Whole Wheat Doughnuts. Lemon rind accentuates their nut-like flavor.

There's no trick to making these treats when you follow the easy recipe. Serve them with chilled cider or hot coffee.

Whole Wheat Doughnuts

2 1/2 cups sifted enriched flour
1 tablespoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 cup whole wheat flour
1/2 cup brown sugar
2 eggs
1/2 cup granulated sugar
3 tablespoons melted shortening
2 tablespoons grated lemon rind
1/2 teaspoon vanilla extract
1 cup buttermilk or sour milk

Sift together flour, baking powder, salt, nutmeg and cinnamon. Add whole wheat flour. Beat eggs. Add sugars and beat until light.

Add shortening, lemon rind and vanilla extract. Mix well. Add flour mixture to egg mixture alternately with buttermilk or sour milk. Mix lightly to make a soft dough.

Turn out on lightly floured board or pastry cloth. Roll about 1/4 inch thick. Cut with lightly floured doughnut cutter.

Fry in deep hot fat (365 degrees) turning frequently until browned. Drain thoroughly on absorbent paper. Dust with cinnamon sugar, if desired.

Makes 2 dozen 2 1/4 inch doughnuts.

Drivers, Stop for Soup!

What with modern superhighways and cars that almost drive themselves, "turnpike monotony" is a common road danger. An occasional stop for a stretch and a "soup break" can help keep motorists alert for complete car control.

Hot tomato or other favorite soup, carried along in a vacuum bottle, provides the light refreshment that does so much to combat driving fatigue.

Grated orange rind and a little brown sugar create good flavor for frozen mashed squash.

Gum Sure to Please Trick-or-Treaters

One of the easiest, most economical ways to make Halloween trick-or-treaters happy and contented is to pass out packages of some popular brand of chewing gum. Chewing gum comes neatly and securely wrapped, is convenient to handle and always makes a hit with youngsters, from the smallest spooks and goblins up. Children's parents are grateful, too, because gum is a pure, light

See You At The Poles

FRESH CRANBERRY SAUCE—Ruby-bright fresh cranberries lend their color and tart accent to a stuffed pork chop dinner. The tangy fruit goes right into the stuffing, and serves as a baking sauce, too.

Cranberries Steal Show

Hearty eating time is here! All fresco dining, pick-up meals have gone with the casual time of year—and the roast, the chop, the stew are back in season.

Back in season, too, is the brightest fruit of fall—the cranberry—ready to lend tart accent to many a hearty main dish. October through December, the peak of fresh berry availability, are the months to enjoy America's "first" fruit, with, of course, all kinds of poultry, and with meat, too.

Take pork, for instance. Fresh cranberry sauce combined with applesauce or served "as is," makes a colorful and taste-sharpening accompaniment for a pork roast or just plain chops. But for a particularly intriguing pork dinner treat, we'd like to suggest Cranberry Stuffed Pork Chops.

Tangy cranberry sauce goes right into the stuffing, and the chops are baked with more sauce and pineapple for extra-zesty flavor. Takes a few more minutes to prepare, but we think you'll agree the results are well worth while!

P. S. If there just isn't time to make the stuffing, just skip this step and simply bake the chops in fresh cranberry sauce.

Cranberry Stuffed Pork Chops
1/2 cup water
1 cup fresh cranberries
1/2 cup sugar
3 slices canned pineapple
1/2 cup raisins
1 cup fresh bread crumbs
2 tablespoons butter, soft
2 tablespoons minced onion
2 tablespoons hot water
1/2 teaspoon salt
4 lots of rib pork chops, 1-inch thick

In a saucepan combine water, cranberries and sugar. Bring to a rapid boil and cook 8-10 minutes, or until the berries pop. Stir in halved pineapple slices.

Combine raisins, crumbs, butter, onion, hot water and salt. Add 1/2 cup well-drained cranberries from previously made sauce. Mix well.

Trim chops if they are very fat. Split each chop from bone side almost through to fat making a generous pocket. Fill with stuffing mixture. Secure with wooden picks, or small skewers.

Brown chops in hot greased skillet, turning once, about 10 minutes to a side. If skillet is ovenproof and has cover, continue to use it; otherwise place chops in a greased casserole.

Pour remaining cranberry sauce (berries and juice) over chops and place pineapple slices over and between chops. Cover and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) for 45 minutes.

Remove cover and continue baking for an additional 15 minutes, or until chops are tender. Makes 4 servings.

Tangy Corn Pie Is Main Course

Just about the time when supplies of fresh corn begin to wane, grocers all over the country are receiving shipments of the new pack of canned corn ready for homemakers to use for a variety of delicious cold-weather dishes.

This new corn pie idea uses the flavor contrast of crisp corn kernels with the tang of deviled ham and cheddar cheese, to provide a main course for luncheon or supper that's sure to please family or company.

Baked in a tender pie crust, this dish has a touch of the French about it, but the ingredients are as American as our native corn itself.

Try it for dinner with only a green salad; dessert and beverage to complete the meal.

Corn Surprise Pie
1 10-inch pie shell
1 family-size can deviled ham
4 eggs
2 tablespoons flour
1 cup milk
1 No. 303 (1-lb.) can cream style or drained whole kernel corn
2 tablespoons prepared mustard
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1 cup grated process American Cheddar cheese

Spread bottom of pie shell with deviled ham. In bowl, beat eggs and flour; then beat in milk, corn, mustard, salt and pepper. Stir in cheese. Pour over ham in pie shell. Bake at 425 degrees for 15 minutes; then reduce heat to 325 degrees and continue baking for 40 minutes or until silver knife inserted in center comes out clean. Serves eight.

Mix a little minced fresh dill with cream cheese for a delectable sandwich filler — especially good on rye bread.

Make a Place for Coconut at Breakfast

Coconut for breakfast? Sounds silly, doesn't it?

Somehow we have come to associate coconut almost entirely with cakes, pies, and confections, but there are so many ways to include this sweet and crunchy tropical treat in that limited repertoire of breakfast dishes.

Coconut is highly nutritious. What's more, an economically small amount can add enough texture and taste interest to catch and keep family interest for a good morning meal.

Here are just a few of the combinations suggested in a recent magazine article, "Coconut For Breakfast?":

1. Ananassa for breakfast? It's wonderful. Combine juicy, chilled citrus fruits, a bit of honey, and a quantity of grated coconut.
2. Vary cinnamon toast. Toast the bread on one side, then spread the untoasted side with softened butter or margarine. Sprinkle liberally with grated coconut, cinnamon, and a bit of sugar. Dot with bits of butter or margarine, then broil until the coconut is delicately browned.

3. Drizzle honey over breakfast grapefruit, then sprinkle the halves with grated coconut.

To give interesting design and to avoid piecing, use a paper tablecloth for wrapping an exceptionally large gift package.

Dish for Dessert Party

The advent of autumn brings increased activity on the social front, but entertaining today is likely to be of the simple, relaxed and casual variety. The modern hostess wants to be able to enjoy her party and her guests.

This informal approach has given rise to the "dessert-and-coffee" party — a form of entertaining that is becoming increasingly popular. Such a party is easy to plan and prepare.

Guests have their main course at home. As for the hostess — aided and abetted by convenient ready-mixes, the dessert "problem" is really no problem at all. For instance . . .

Right now apples are at their tastiest, juicy best. With six apples and a 10-ounce "king-size" package of pie crust mix, you can offer your dessert-and-coffee guests a truly regal dish.

Apple Charlotte
10-oz. pkg. pie crust mix
6 medium apples, chopped
1/2 cup raisins
1/2 cup chopped almonds
1 cup sugar
1/2 tsp. cinnamon
1 lemon (juice and rind)
1/2 cup orange juice

Prepare pie crust mix according to directions on package for a 2-crust pie.
Roll 2/3 of dough and line 2-quart oblong baking dish. Combine remaining ingredients and fill baking dish. Cover with remaining dough. Bake at 425 degrees (hot oven) 15 minutes. Turn oven to 350 degrees (medium oven) and continue baking 40 minutes. Apple Charlotte may be served warm or cold; with milk, cream, or ice cream.

Serve Fried Tomatoes

Tomatoes taste good with steaks, roasts and chops, their tanginess bringing out the meat flavors. An easy way to serve them is to slice them into pieces about an inch thick, and fry them in a skillet containing half a cup of olive oil and a crushed garlic clove. After one side is done, sprinkle with basil, salt and pepper before turning.

Buy Apples for Goblins, Cauliflower for Family

Along with the regular market list most shoppers will include treats for the goblins that are sure to show up one night next week. Nothing could be better for these goblins than the fruit that leads as a best value in the produce department. Shiny polished apples or taffy apples are sure to please the small fry as well as fit into the family food needs, says the Consumer Marketing Information Agent, Mrs. Josephine Lawyer.

While looking at produce, notice the outstanding values offered in potatoes, onions, squash, and the similar vegetables cabbage, cauliflower and broccoli.

Study the food ads, then check quality at the market when deciding the best meat choices of the week. Most shoppers who want to watch their pennies, will find good values in fryers, pork loin, ham, and roasts from the lean grass fed beef. Some markets are featuring lamb and veal, so check these at the meat counter.

FRUITS—A heap of good eating is the guaranteed promise of ten million bushels of Michigan apples this year. An apple a day is a good idea, and there are many ways of using apples. For the "trick or treaters" McIntosh, Jonathans, and Delicious are excellent varieties to choose.

The first two are about 8 to 13 cents a pound in most stores, while Delicious are about 13 to 22 cents a pound. Buy by the bushel for real savings. Besides having enough for Halloween, there will be plenty left for a few jars of sauce, some delicious pies, for in-between snacks, or lunches taken from home.

VEGETABLES—For those who have the proper storage space—dark, moist, and a temperature of 34-40 degrees, this is a good time to store potatoes. Very good quality Michigan potatoes are available for as little as 2 cents a pound in 50 pound bags. 15 pound bags average about 3 cents a pound; 10 pound bags are around 4 to 4 1/2 cents a pound.

Michigan yellow onions suggest French onion soup; scalloped onions; stews; and pot roasts surrounded with onions. Prices are very low now that supplies are plentiful.

This is the season to enjoy fall squash, cabbage, colorful broccoli, and cauliflower. Homegrown cauliflower will be available through October. Pick cauliflower heads that are clean with creamy white flowerets. A jacket of bright green means that the head is fresh. Plan on 3 1/2 cup servings from one pound of whole cauliflower or from 1 pound of broccoli.

Handy Dish Drainer

Now a dish drainer has been created that folds flat for easy storage. Center grooves provide plenty of space for plates and saucers, while convenient "wells" hold silver on one side and cups and glasses on the other, to be rinsed with very hot water.

The drainer folds like a notebook and can be hidden in the smallest nook or cranny when the dishes are dry, leaving your drainboard neat as a pin. This folding drainer is available in five kitchen colors to harmonize with modern or traditional decor.

Tasty Clam Casserole

KROGER TENDERAY

Round Steak lb. 89c

It's U.S. Government Graded Choice Quality, your guarantee of the finest.

Mmmmm! Just imagine this thick juicy steak is on your own table — this very minute! You'd be enjoying the tenderest, freshest-tasting beef you ever had . . . world-famous Kroger Tenderay Beef. We guarantee it, because Kroger's own modern Tenderay method makes the finest grades of grain-fattened beef tender without "ageing." And Kroger's famous cutting method gives you better value by removing excess bone and waste before you pay a penny! No wonder Michigan loves round steak — when it's Kroger-Cut Tenderay.

A United States Senator Looks at Russia

Soviet Outmaneuvers Us in Some Parts of World

(The following is the fourth in a series of five columns by U. S. Senator Henry M. Jackson (D-Wash.) on his recent trip through the Soviet Union.)

By HENRY M. JACKSON
United States Senator (D-Wash.)
(Distributed by INS)

The Soviet Union has paved the streets of Kabul, the capital of Afghanistan, and won another satellite.

It isn't quite that simple, of course.

But the paved streets of Kabul, and the other things the Soviet Union has done in Afghanistan, points up the fact that the Soviets know how to go about winning friends among the underprivileged areas—and then moving in to take over completely.

If it can't already be classified as a Soviet satellite, it most certainly will be within 18 months.

This important Soviet victory might have been averted, or at least delayed, if we had acted when we had the chance.

Some time ago the Afghans asked the United States to pave the streets of Kabul. We refused. We offered to build dams and irrigation projects and other important and worthwhile projects to help the Afghans help themselves. But we refused to pave the streets of Kabul.

So the Soviet Union moved in and did the job.

Thus, the Soviets made a big hit with the people. Paved streets were something every Afghan could see and use. The benefits were immediate and tangible.

That isn't all the Soviet Union did in Afghanistan. They built a bakery and a flour mill which the Afghans wanted. They have built a huge petroleum storage installation which is lighted up at night for all Afghans to see and be reminded of what their big brother to the north did for them.

Now the Soviets are busy building a highway through the tremendous mountain range—with some peaks as high as 20,000 feet—separating the U.S.S.R. and Afghanistan.

The road will continue across Afghanistan to the border of Pakistan. It will give the Russians a military highway right up to the border of Pakistan—and present the free world with another grave threat.

Thus the Soviets use their for-sign aid to carry out their goal of world domination.

Through a simultaneous military aid program, the Soviets will soon have control of the Afghanistan army.

When we say we are giving aid only because of the Communist threat we do not do our motives justice.

The recipients of our aid should know that we would share a portion of our abundance, whether or not there were a Soviet Union.

They should know that we want to make life less miserable for their peoples—that we want to be the good neighbor.

We must keep in mind our fundamental objective to a more decent, prosperous and peaceful world.

That objective reflects the common interest of all free peoples.

We can all benefit from world economic development and progress.

Before long, our own expanding economy will need the untapped markets of countries like India, for example, with her 300 million population.

I have digressed for a moment because I think it is important for the American people to know that in some areas of the world, at least, the Soviets are doing a better job than we are with our foreign aid.

Another aspect of Soviet foreign economic policy is strikingly clear—the Soviet Union will never let the needs of its own people stand in the way of foreign policy objectives.

The Kremlin's center of interest is still Western Europe, notably the military-industrial potential of Germany. In time, Russian leaders hope to undermine the NATO alliance, win control of Germany and exclude us from vital overseas bases.

But the first round in Western Europe has gone against them. Adopting shrewd new techniques, the Kremlin has now turned its sights towards the billion peoples of Asia and Africa. The free world is confronted with an unprecedented threat.

Soviet foreign policy, to state it another way, works something like a burglar going down a hotel corridor trying each doorknob.

When the door is open, in he goes, quietly, but accomplishing his work without waking up the sleepers.

The Soviets are out to acquire new blocks of world real estate without making too much noise.

They figure that if you are going to burglarize a place there is no point in breaking the window or setting off the burglar alarm.

Kuwait will build 16 neighborhood units each with homes, school, mosque and bazaar.

"First nighters down the aisle"—Dr. and Mrs. Neil H. Sullenberger of Huntton Lake were escorted down the aisle at the opening performance of "High Fever Follies of 1956" Wednesday night by Nathan Rosen. The Sullenbergers had heard that some of their friends were in the cast, so they came to see how they performed.

Backstage, Lyndie Salathiel wasn't sure whether he liked getting daubed with makeup—but then decided it wasn't really too bad when someone like Catherine Lake applies it. Lyndie performed a little song and dance number, one of the specialty acts.

All set for her role in one of the dance scenes, Mrs. Charles D. Scribner was caught by the photographer backstage. Just in time, she struck up the chorus-girl pose.

Plans Made for Fireside Discussion

The Adult Education Committee of Temple Beth Jacob will present its first fireside program of the year on Friday evening following the Sabbath Eve services.

Dr. Morris Janowitz, associate professor of sociology at the University of Michigan.

Dr. Janowitz was a consultant to former President Truman's Commission on Civil Rights, a member of the evaluation committee for the International Information Administration of the U. S. State Department.

The author of several books dealing with public opinion and communication, he also served as senior propaganda analyst during World War II.

Toy Demonstration Enjoyed by Sorority

A toy demonstration was enjoyed by members of Omega Mu Sigma sorority when the group met Tuesday evening at the Ross drive home of Mrs. Donald Nelson. Mrs. Leo Halpenny and Mrs. Wayne Anable assisted the hostess.

Guests attending were Mrs. Frank Merkle, Mrs. W. V. LaPlante, Mrs. Michael Marsac, Mrs. Harry Strom, Mrs. Kenneth Gohl, Mrs. Joseph Galardi, Mrs. Dennis Manko, Mrs. Joseph Krause and Mrs. William Fisher.

'High Fever Follies' Packs House

They looked a long time before they recognized Dr. F. Milton Hathaway, P. Eugene Miller and Dr. George N. Petroff (left to right) in the scene above. Dr. Hathaway and Mr. Miller, members of the "Alti Vienne Ballet," were tormented by Dr. Petroff (with dagger) who wanted to display the latest card trick.

Production Successful at Opening Hospital Benefit to Be Presented Again Tonight

They packed the house last night at Pontiac High School when the Auxiliary to Pontiac General Hospital staged its "High Fever Follies of 1956."

Beginning with a hilarious can-can dance, and ending in a grand finale, the project chalked up its third successful venture.

Masters of ceremony were Richard Clay and Robert Morrison who are sure to be in demand for future projects.

The audience is always heckled in such a production by at least one member of the cast. This time it was Bill Spalding and his little "henry penny" and her not-so-golden eggs.

Mrs. William Dean, who was chairman of this year's project, kept the audience in stitches in an act with Dr. George Petroff and Mayor William Donaldson. And then of course the male ballet caused near-hysterics.

Slowing the tempo down somewhat was a genuinely good fashion show from Arthur's Apparel Shop, which showed midlady just how she should be dressed to be in good fashion.

"CHIEF" IS ANNOUNCED

The audience wasn't relaxed long as "Chief Pontiac" Wayne Gabert took to the stage to receive his headdress. Awarding the title was Margaret Mitchell who reigned as last year's queen.

Ralph Merkovits shows what happens to men who flirt with pretty girls, and Mrs. P. Eugene Miller tells newspaper editors how NOT to get the news.

Some of the dance routines were beautifully executed while others were just supposed to make you laugh. From the conversations overheard they did just that.

Tonight is the last production. There are a few tickets still available. You won't want to miss it. The box office will open at 7 for the 8:30 performance.

Feathers, Furs Are High Fashion This Season

CHICAGO (INS) — A woman can be dressed from head to toe in either feathers or furs this year. Both are being used to trim shoes as well as hat or stylish ensembles.

The feather or fur touches appearing in fashionable shoe stores in Chicago are generally geared to give women a new way to carry out the new feminine look in tweeds and woollens for fall and winter.

A tailored pump with a closed toe and heel, for instance, was unadorned — the furry side — on the front part of the shoe. The remainder is a grained leather.

Phasant feathers are being used for bows and for heel trims, too, in sling pumps of suede or smooth calf in black or navy blue.

The feathered trim on the heel is practical — it is on the top, like a collar, so the feathers don't get sloshed around in rain, sleet or snow.

With broadtail fur so popular a trim for suits, shoe stylists are following suit with a leather that is worked into a rough grained texture resembling it. It is polished to a high gloss and the favorite trim with it is dull suede, used for bows and also to edge the top part of the shoe.

200 Women Attend Fall Fellowship Tea

Two hundred women attended the Autumn Fellowship Tea held at First Presbyterian Church. The Women's Association sponsored the event. Bouquets of fall flowers decorated the tables and the room.

Past presidents of the Women's Association poured for the recent affair. They were Mrs. James Covert, Mrs. Harry Boorn, Mrs. Asa Drury, Mrs. Hugh Little, Mrs. E. L. Guy, Mrs. Marvin Redmond, Mrs. Lyndon Salathiel, Mrs. Ted Koella and Mrs. Earl Clark.

UF Speaker Heard by New Sylvanites

Dwyer C. Sump, director of Oakland County townships for the United Fund, was the speaker at a recent meeting of the New Sylvanites Club. Mrs. Robert S. Meneses of Maplewood avenue was hostess to the group.

Following the business session, members completed plans for a costume party Saturday at the Garland avenue home of Mrs. Raymond Dombrowski. Mrs. Donald Johnson of Lakeview drive will open her home for the next meeting.

Mrs. Peters Feted

Twelve guests attended the pink and blue shower held recently honoring Mrs. Charles F. Peters III. Mrs. Earl K. Bevans was hostess for the affair held in her Boston avenue home. Mrs. Gustave Friszell assisted the hostess.

Shower Given for Bride-Elect Ponnie Davis

Bride-elect Ponnie Davis was honored at a miscellaneous shower Tuesday evening at First Baptist Church. Joni Robertson was hostess for the affair assisted by Connie Redman, Margie Richards and Kay Wagner.

Ponnie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Davis of Mohawk road, will exchange vows with Bruce Reh on Nov. 10 in First Baptist Church. He is the son of the Walter Reh of Beverly avenue.

Attending the affair were Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Reh, Mrs. Frank Davis, Mrs. Ron Polley, Carolyn and Marilyn Davis, Mrs. Byron Clements, Mrs. Carrie Peterson, Mrs. Buhl Burt, Mrs. Russell Anderson and Janet Zalik.

Also present were Carolyn Ker-tor, Paul Gouenis, Donna Hirsch, Norma McGlothlin, Shirley Dobson, Mrs. Don Hirsch, Markie Bob-bolt, Mrs. Carl Franklin and Evelyn Beeson.

French Designer Shows New Item—the Fur Cravat

PARIS (INS) — French designer Christian Dior has come up with a new gimmick — a fur cravat — that can be adapted by American feminine fancies as well as by Parisian charmers.

The cravat, which consists of a band of fur about three inches wide and some 20 inches long, may be worn scarf fashion as a neck-piece to fill the yawning collar of a suit or coat.

Dior shows these fur cravats with almost all his new autumn and winter suits. With a pale blue tweed suit a brunette Dior mannequin wears a brown heavy cravat.

With a red wool suit the designer shows a tip-top of black seal. The suit jacket has a Peter Pan collar and the throat-laster-ing of the high buttoned garment is left open to display the fur scarf.

Dressy black suits get a special touch through sapphire blue or white mink cravats. A brown mink neck-band will look smart with practically any suit.

The fur cravats should be flat and lined in silk. They are worn simply crossed at the throat.

Budget-minded Americans could buy a band of fur fur, line it in silk or rayon and have an inexpensive Dior-ish accessory for those nippy autumn days.

Capes in Forefront

The new Balenciaga capes are an important style point. A slim crutch-cape looks smart and sophisticated in black wool. A more sporty version is a roomy, large cape made to look even more voluminous through an elbow-length cape-collar for a Sherlock Holmes effect.

Style Show Sponsored by ABWA Chic Ensembles in Browns, Blues, Show Popular Black

Ensembles in shades of browns and blues and the ever popular black were shown at the Fall Fashion Show presented Wednesday evening at Pontiac Federal Savings and Loan building.

The show, sponsored by the American Business Women's Association, Tipacon chapter, featured fashions from Selma and Earl Atkinson's shop.

Velvets, silks and wool jerseys comprised a great portion of the fashions represented in the styles shown. A striking dress was a black velvet sheath with a round neckline and short sleeves fashioned with a taffeta sash extending from the back of the neckline to the hem.

An ensemble drawing comment from the audience was a hand-painted silk sheath cocktail dress with a jacket. The silk was in muted tones of green and yellow.

Wool jersey was featured in an orange sheath dress with a straight skirt. Small gathers fell from the dropped waistline giving back interest to the dress.

Also in wool jersey was an anasthyst dress with three-quarter length sleeves and a straight skirt relieved only by a small kick pleat in the skirt back.

Sophisticated black lace received a different treatment in one fashion shown. The sheath dress of black lace was over a red and green striped taffeta. The floating panels from the waistline served also as a bustle when tied in a butterfly type bow.

ABWA members modeling for show were Martha Boatright, Mrs. Ossie Gates, Mary Louise Miller, Maxine Davison, Marlene Ayers, Mrs. Katherine Pearson, Kay Simpter and Mrs. William Reynolds.

Others were Mrs. Henry Healy, Mrs. H. C. Van Hise, Joy Van Hise, Mrs. Joanne Callahan and Betty Reid.

Branch Gathers at Waugh Home

The Sylvan Lake Branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association gathered Wednesday at the home of Mrs. R. S. Waugh on Garland avenue.

Mrs. Fred Beeble told members of the habits of the screech-owl and Mrs. W. C. Draper spoke on the culture of the calendula.

A colorful display of slides on flowers and bird, animal and insect life was presented by Walter Nickell and Stephen M. Stackpole of Cranbrook Institute of Science.

Mrs. G. R. Jarvis will be hostess to the group for the November meeting in her home on Pontiac drive.

Prepare for Graceful Middle Age

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN
The essential parts of true beauty are acquirable at practically any age. A graceful carriage, a clear skin, good grooming, a slim figure, and that inner sparkle and warmth which come from an abundance of physical vigor and a love of life, will make a woman lovely at any age.

A middle-aged woman has many advantages over the very young woman. She knows the value of meticulous grooming. She has poise and grace which are practically impossible at an early age. She has tact and charm which come from self-confidence. If she has a sense of humor she has developed it to a high degree. Her values are sound. She knows by then what she wants from life and is not harassed by confusion. Too often, however, years land on waistlines and enthusiasms and bog them down with fatty deposits and lackluster. The woman who takes exercise down the years with her has a great advantage over the one who is more sedentary.

The physically active outdoor woman always has more bloom, more zest, more energy, and remains youthful looking for much longer than her rocking-chair friends.

A GOOD EXERCISE

The following exercise is a good one and is easy to do: Lie on the floor on your left side, leaning on your left arm, right arm at right angles to the body. Raise your right arm up close to your head. Inhale deeply as you do so.

Keep your arm in this position as you raise your right leg side-ward-upward knee stiff. Lower the right leg. Continue raising and lowering.

This exercise is slimming to waist and thighs. If you would like to have my routine of exercise for the waistline send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 6 to Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

Tomorrow: "Slim, Straight Skirts Will Make You Look Taller."

The woman who takes exercise down the years with her has a great advantage over the one who is more sedentary.

GOP Women Hold Meeting

William Broomfield and Harvey Lodge were principal speakers at the Tuesday meeting of the Waterford Republican Women's Club. One hundred and sixty members and guests attended the meeting preceded by a cooperative dinner.

Special guests were Oakland County candidates for public office. Lloyd Anderson of Waterford served as toastmaster.

Members of committees for the affair were Mrs. Byron Cole, Mrs. Fred Reese, Mrs. Vivian Tubbs, Mrs. William Hurlburt, Mrs. Everett Reese, Mrs. L. Raymond Sampson and Mrs. Arthur Vernon.

Nursery Parents Conduct Meeting

The parents of All Saints Nursery met with Mrs. John Vanderlind of Auburn avenue for a business meeting.

Members watched an educational TV program on cooperative nursery schools presented in conjunction with Wayne State University. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Frank McIntyre, Mrs. Edwin Low and Mrs. Fred Crossman.

Ani Chapter Holds Membership Tea

The home of Mrs. Isabelle Hamilton on North Paddock street was the setting for the membership tea of Ani Chapter of the Armenian Relief Society held Tuesday.

New members welcomed into the chapter were Mrs. Florence Varianian, Mrs. Helen Blanchard, Mrs. Margaret Stephanian and Mrs. Mary Topalian.

During the social hour Mrs. William Enfield presided at the tea service.

Man Will Love His Home if He Feels Comfortable

Wife Should Allow Husband to Have Equal Choice Concerning House

By RUTH MILLETT
Want a home-loving husband?

It's fairly simple to make a home the place where a man feels more comfortable than anywhere else in the world.

If that is your goal, here are a few points to remember:

Let your husband have an equal choice in the house you rent or buy and in the furnishings that go into it. A woman's dream house isn't often a man's dream house. Usually there have to be compromises if both are to feel equally at home in it.

Make it easy for your husband to develop some home hobbies. Most men soon get tired of sitting. But a man doesn't get restless if his home contains his hobbies.

See that your husband feels as free to bring guests into the home as you do. Some wives act as though a man has committed a crime if he issues a spur-of-the-moment invitation without first consulting her.

GAILETY, LAUGHTER
Make your home a place where there is gaiety and laughter. A man can't resist being attracted by happiness and good cheer.

Never sacrifice comfort for style in furnishing your home. You can almost always achieve both. If you have to give up one, hang on to comfort. Most men aren't entranced with the sheer beauty of a room.

Each evening when your husband returns to his home, make him feel as welcome as the most important guest who ever entered your door.

The warmth of your welcome will help to set the atmosphere for the whole evening.

Never, never think or talk about "my house." Remembering always that it is "our house" goes a long way toward making it a home.

Preserve Butter

Covering or wrapping butter tightly is recommended to prevent the absorption of foreign flavors from other foods. The original parchment or foil wrapper plus the wax carton provide ample protection, if they're kept closed.

Teenagers Violently Oppose Curfew Laws

By EUGENE GILBERT
President of The Gilbert Youth Research Co.

An overwhelming majority of the nation's teenagers are opposed to curfew laws that would make them be home at a certain hour of the night. Instead, they have some pretty definite ideas of their own on when they should report in.

"We don't want to be told by law when we have to be home from a date," was the general reaction of our interviewers encountered in a survey of some 90 cities and towns that currently do not have a teen-aged curfew.

They felt that on weekends and during vacations, 14 to 15-year-olds should be home by 11:30 from ordinary dates, and by 12:30 at the latest on special occasions.

For 16 and 17-year-olds they figured a 1:30 o'clock homecoming would be all right for special occasions.

Most young people 18 to 21 years old thought they should be permitted to use their own discretion about returning home.

LAWS REVIVED

Curfew laws, common in colonial America, have been revived in San Francisco, Philadelphia, Omaha and dozens of other cities in an attempt to break up youth gangs and curb juvenile delinquency.

Some officials credit them with reducing juvenile crime by as much as 25 per cent, but our interviewers quickly learned that curfew rings no bells with the nation's teenagers.

Our question was: "Do you favor a curfew law for teenagers in your town?"

No, answered a whopping 79 per cent. Only 16 per cent favored the curfew idea and 5 per cent had not made up their minds.

Seldom have the nation's teenagers been so close to unanimity on a subject concerning their behavior.

Many of the answers showed a degree of indignation, even belligerency, not noted in previous surveys made by our organization. Several compared curfew to treating teenagers like "citizens of an occupied enemy country."

Others delivered scorching salvoes against advocates of curfew laws and argued that they undermine a youngster's self respect and confidence in himself.

In general, teenagers opposed to curfew regarded it as unwarranted government infringement on their freedom and on the rights and duties of their parents.

"It's up to the individual parents and their children to decide when the boy or girl should arrive home," said a 17-year-old boy.

"Some kids I know are mature enough to make their own decisions on when they ought to be home, and others have to be told by their folks. And what's wrong with that? Every person is different from everyone else."

But the general unpopularity of the curfew idea does not mean that most teenagers want to become night owls.

WANT REGULATION

Our survey showed that on the whole young people want to be regulated by their parents in matters of dating privileges.

Many, in fact, complained that their parents did not take sufficient interest in the social life of their offspring.

"Parents these days don't seem to care where or with whom their kids are spending their time," complained a Nevada girl.

"There is going to be a brand new crop of delinquents and adult neurotics if they continue acting so uninterested in their teenaged children."

The survey showed that 53 per cent of the high school boys and girls were allowed to date on week nights.

Of these, only one out of four had to be home at a specific time, although most were put on their honor to exercise common sense.

NEW DATE CUSTOM

Week night dating is a postwar development among the teenaged set.

A survey made 12 years ago showed that only 30 per cent were allowed to go out on school nights, and of these, 75 per cent had a designated hour when they had to be home.

A Minneapolis girl reached the same conclusion on the basis of personal statistics.

"My older sisters," she told us, "never could go out during the week. My parents wouldn't let them. But I am allowed to go out any time I want to, as long as I am in by 11:30 and my marks don't go down."

A 15-year-old Newton, Mass., girl commented that "a person 18 to 21 is old enough to get married and raise a family. Surely she should be allowed to stay out as late as she chooses."

A college sophomore in Michigan brought up another angle:

"I go to school over 1,000 miles away from my home. The college gives me a lot of leeway."

"If I'm old enough to leave my home for months at a time, why shouldn't I be considered old enough to return from a date any time I deem sensible?"

Asks Advice on Stamped Envelopes

Should Reply Aids Be Sent Out With Invitations?

By EMILY POST

"I am to be married in several weeks. Last week, while attending the wedding reception of one of my fiancé's relatives, one of his cousins brought up the fact that I didn't enclose self-addressed, stamped envelopes for the replies and hinted that I was trying to save money."

"I was somewhat shocked at the suggestion. I have never heard of such a procedure. I told her that, since I was inviting only friends and relatives to the wedding and was not soliciting business from strangers, I felt my friends would be insulted at the idea that I thought they could neither afford nor be willing to spend three cents to reply."

"Will you please tell me if I was correct not to enclose such envelopes. My fiancé's cousin said she enclosed such envelopes when she was married."

Answer: I have never heard of such a procedure and it is certainly not proper.

"Dear Mrs. Post: My son was married recently. On the evening of the wedding, a corsage arrived for me from the bride's mother. I hadn't expected this, and my husband had already ordered flowers for me."

"The flowers sent by the bride's mother were ones I do not particularly like and they did not go well with my dress so I left them home in the refrigerator and wore the flowers my husband bought for me."

"My son tells me that the bride's mother is hurt because I did not wear the flowers she sent. Will you please tell me if I was obliged to wear the flowers she sent even though they did not go well with my dress?"

Answer: Yes, I'm sorry to say that you should have done so, possibly with another dress.

"Dear Mrs. Post: When a person man or woman requests a piano player in a hotel cocktail lounge to play a certain song, should he be given a tip?"

Answer: No, not unless you make several requests.

Designer Uses Horizontal Pleat for Tunic Effect

This season's news in the famed Balenciaga suits is that jackets are worn with straight skirts which have a horizontal pleat running around near the hem to give the effect of a tunic or tier.

A tailored detail in Balenciaga's 1957 suits is that some of the set-in sleeves have been replaced by kimono sleeves, making the shoulders look wide and arched. Some suit collars look like broadened turtle necklines. On dressy suits a pointed V-necked combined with a shoulder-wide cape-collars looks new.

Balenciaga always makes effects with buttons. This time he fastens some of his smart black wool or black and white tweed suits with five large black or bronze colored buttons which look like clusters of small berries.

Volunteer Honored for Her Hospital Work

Reliability and sincerity, two characteristics of the outstanding person, are two of the many reasons why "Duffy" (Mrs. A. Phillip) Streeter was chosen Volunteer of the Month by the Central Volunteer Bureau.

"When is Duffy coming?" "Duffy will be in recreational therapy today!" "Wait until you meet Duffy, she's tops!" These are patients talking about one of Pontiac State Hospital's most faithful volunteers.

For the past three years Mrs. Streeter has been going to the hospital one day each week. She works a full day, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., just like a regular hospital employee.

When she wants to be away for a week, she requests vacation time and takes it at the convenience of the department just as the regular employees do. She is one of the few hospital volunteers permitted to carry keys.

The social workers at the hospital sing her praises. They say, "Duffy's warmth and understanding in the patients as human beings are real contributions" and "her chief value is the way she gets them interested in recreational therapy and the way she gets them to socialize."

Mrs. Streeter's husband is a salesman for the American Thermos Bottle Company. They live at 5425 Brookdale in Birmingham. They are active members of the Duplicate Club and Orchard Lake Country Club.

Mrs. Streeter particularly enjoys bridge, bowling and golf and uses her contacts in these activities to discuss mental health and the importance of community understanding.

She also interests her friends in the welfare of the hospital's patients. Many donations—clothing and recreational therapy supplies such as golf balls and playing cards—find their way to the hospital through her.

The Central Volunteer Bureau is a Pontiac Area United Fund agency serving the communities of Birmingham, Pontiac and Waterford. It acts as a clearing house, securing volunteers for tax-supported and private agencies and placing persons who volunteer to serve their community.

There are many openings for all kinds of volunteer service. Those who have a few hours each week to spare and who are interested in helping their fellowmen may contact the bureau at 218 National Building, Pontiac.

Mrs. A. P. Streeter, named Volunteer of the Month by the Central Volunteer Bureau, is shown as she finished one of her finger paintings on the walls of the recreation room of Pontiac State Hospital. These are redone regularly to be in keeping with the season of the year or the holiday being celebrated at the time.

Musical Workshop Hears Mrs. Rosenthal

Speaker Tells Jewish Music History

Mrs. Willis Leturgy opened her home on Colrain drive Tuesday for the monthly meeting of Tuesday Musical Workshop. Mrs. Rebecca Gould served as coordinator for the meeting.

Geraldine Snapp, Mrs. Oliver Arnell and Mrs. Arthur Dodge were welcomed into membership.

Assisting the hostess during the tea hour were Mrs. Gaensbauer and Mrs. Addison Oakley.

Mrs. James Rosenthal spoke on "Hebrew Music," tracing the history of the music. She stressed the fact that its development has taken place over a period of 5,000 years and has followed closely happenings in the Bible.

The music has been influenced greatly by the musical traditions of the many countries in which the Jewish people have lived during the centuries of their wanderings.

"At one time in the history of Jewish liturgical music, much of the old cantorial music was lost and cantorial modes of today stem from the Middle Ages," Mrs. Rosenthal stated.

"Many of them are borrowed from the Gregorian chants of the Roman Catholic Church, which originally were influenced by ancient Hebrew music."

Mrs. Victor Lindquist, Mrs. Gould, Mrs. W. S. Furlong and Mrs. J. J. Wiley interpreted a number of songs which Mrs. Rosenthal chose to demonstrate Hebrew liturgical music as it is used in Jewish synagogues and temples. Mrs. Ferdinand Gaensbauer accompanied the singers. In the business meeting, Mrs.

Emerson refers to Cause and Effect as the chancellors of God, and they probably are. But sometimes there's a long and incomprehensible chain between the cause and the effect.

For example, this letter from Mrs. E. has a startling opening:

"I have a successful puppet show business because, when I was little, my mother used to wash my mouth with soap."

But when she goes on to give the details, you see that it is a simple matter of cause and effect.

Mrs. E. was an only child, living in a remote country house, and she was very lonely. Her father and mother adored her, but they were quite old when she was born. With no children to play with, Mrs. E. used to invent playmates. "I really believed in them," she says.

MUSICAL KANGAROO
"There was a kangaroo who could play the guitar. We used to have long talks. There was a little boy named Buster, who used to tease me, and a girl my age named Beth, who was my best friend. I would play in the woods all day, chatting with my friends."

"But when I'd tell Mother about it, she would get very cross. She called it plain lying, when I'd tell what Buster did or what Beth said."

"Those were stricter days," Mrs. E. goes on. "Mother was afraid I would grow up to be a real liar. So she washed my mouth with soap."

Mrs. E. grew up, married and had a little daughter of her own. But the doctor said that she couldn't have any more children.

"At first I was heart sick," she writes, "thinking how tough it would be on my little girl. That's when I devised the puppets."

Mr. Lloyd Appeals to PTSA for Help With UF Drive

Kenneth Nagley, principal of Eastern Junior High School, introduced members of the faculty at the Tuesday meeting of the PTSA.

Stait Lloyd, program chairman, presented William Coulakos, director of the Boys' Club of Pontiac, who spoke on behalf of the United Fund. He explained the growing needs of our community and emphasized that more funds are required to support UF's 54 social and charitable agencies.

A film, "One Plan, One Bomb," was shown after a talk by Arthur Heaton, supervisor of the Ground Observer Corps. He spoke on the importance of the organization and appealed for workers.

A panel discussion was also held showing how civil defense and the Red Cross work together in time of disaster.

Mrs. Mildred Bennett, executive secretary of the Red Cross, presided as moderator and explained the responsibilities of the Red Cross in natural disaster and enemy attack.

Mr. Heaton explained the preparedness of the Ground Observer Corps and the process of clothing distribution by church groups and the AFL-CIO.

Sidney Winstanley, chairman of the mass food committee, told how plans have been made with wholesalers, retailers, industrial plants and transportation companies to meet mass feeding needs immediately.

Ralph Forman, chairman of the First Aid Committee of the Red Cross, described the training of first aid volunteers and expressed the need for 12 times the number of trained people now available in order to meet the emergency needs.

"The director of civil defense for Oakland County, Louis Jarrendt, explained the responsibility of government agencies in protection of persons and property, provision of usual community services and restoration of public property wherever natural disaster or enemy attacks occur."

After the meeting, refreshments were served in the school cafeteria by the hospitality chairman, Mrs. Charles Evans, and her committee.

MR. and MRS. EUGENE K. POOL

Roberta McIntosh Wears Tulle Gown for Wedding

Married Saturday evening were Roberta Lee McIntosh and Eugene K. Pool. Mr. and Mrs. Virgil McIntosh of Keego Harbor are parents of the bride. Eugene's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Earl Pool of Cooley Lake road.

The 7 o'clock service was performed in Trinity Methodist Church, Keego Harbor. One hundred and twenty-five guests attended the ceremony.

Lace panel inserts accented the skirt of the bride's nylon tulle gown. The portrait neckline was trimmed with seed pearls and iridescent sequins.

Her fingertip veil of illusion was held by a crown of seed pearls and iridescent sequins. A strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom, was her only jewelry.

Roberta's bridal bouquet was a cascade arrangement of pink roses and white carnations.

GOWNED IN BLUE
Mrs. Robert DeLongchamp wore a blue gown of lace over taffeta for her duties as matron of honor. Bridesmaid Judy Traxler of Walled Lake wore a similar dress in beige.

Their flowers were colonial bouquets of bronze and gold pompons and Tailsman roses.

David Pool was his brother's best man and Jim Keel of Pontiac Lake was usher.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. McIntosh wore a navy blue crepe dress with white lace trim and a corsage of white carnations.

Mrs. Pool also wore navy blue crepe trimmed in dusty rose. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

The reception was held in West Bloomfield Township Hall with 175 attending.

The bride changed to a navy blue dress with lace and blue velvet trim and the corsage from her bridal bouquet for traveling to northern Michigan. The newlyweds will reside on Thorpe street.

Demonstration Set by Job's Daughters

Members of Bethel Five, Order of Job's Daughters, have completed plans for a toy and plastic demonstration to be held at the Masonic Temple on Monday evening.

Handling publicity are Janet Kneale, Virginia Sheehan, Nancy Coggins, Miss Zielke and Miss Lecornu.

Puppets Result From Punishment

"I'd always loved puppets and I guess I've always had a wild imagination! set to work making them and my husband helped—he's very artistic. Little Betty adored them, from the time she was still practically an infant. "You know, puppet characters eventually seem to become almost like members of the family!"

"But, of course," she concluded, "the important thing is that all the neighborhood children fall for the puppets, too, and our house was always full. Little Betty didn't have to invent imaginary friends."

"And now the mothers are beginning to hire me to give puppet shows for birthday parties. I'm making money from it, too!"

If puppetry interests you, send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope in care of The Pontiac Press, and I'll send you a list of good books on the subject. (Copyright 1956)

Missionary Group Meets

One hundred fifty members and guests of the Women's Missionary Society of First Baptist Church gathered Tuesday for a meeting and dessert luncheon. Members of the Golden Circle Class of the Sunday School served the luncheon.

The invocation and closing prayer were offered by Mrs. H. H. Savage, and the business meeting was conducted by Mrs. W. E. Hakes, president.

Now She Can Warble Spicy Love Lyrics

Marriage Frees Vocalist Martha Wright

By PHYLLIS BATTLE
NEW YORK (INS) — Marriage works curious and varying miracles on women.

For some, it means a settling down with children and contentment.

For others, it means a settling up with creditors and a new financial security.

For the lucky ones, it means a hitherto unfulfilled sense of independence and free-wheeling.

Perhaps for the first time in their lives they no longer care desperately what the neighbors think about this, and the parents think about that, and what the world expects a young woman to act and feel and look like.

ONLY ONE BOSS

Suddenly, there is only one person to say yes and nay to the bride's movements through life, the rest of her moral guardians having turned her over, graciously and hopefully, into the custody of one man.

And if it is a good marriage, he wants her to behave as an uninhibited person — thoroughly, singly herself.

"And mine is a good marriage, as you can see," said Martha Wright, Broadway, radio and TV singer.

She was five months pregnant, grinning and munching on a breadstick — a delightful combination when viewed simultaneously. "Suddenly I feel free to be a little devilish if I want to," she went on.

"I could never have done it before. Funny, how once you're married nobody says you're wrong, no matter what you do."

"A bachelor girl is everybody's responsibility. A wedding license all at once makes her captain (well, first mate anyway) of her own soul."

A NEW ALBUM

Miss Wright was referring, in the lyrical way singers have, to a new album of recordings she has just turned out. The album is entitled "Censored," and in it are one dozen old Broadway show tunes which have been banned by TV stations and radio networks from the puritanical air waves.

"For a girl whose grandmother used to direct a choir, and whose father was for years a soloist in a Baptist church, and who always went regularly to Methodist church herself," Martha breathed deeply but maintained the grin, "this might seem like heresy. Except that after she's married, they take away all the silly taboos and say anything goes."

"It surely gives you courage to have a man around."

Miss Wright, whose man-around is restaurateur and war hero Mike Manuche, was always the most wholesome girl singer in the business. She might well have been billed the "cherubic chanteuse."

Certainly no suggestive lyric ever escaped her lips as she warbled her wares melodic from coast to coast and succeeded Mary Martin as the tender Nellie Forbush in "South Pacific."

BIT OF SOPHISTICATION

"Only once did I try to get a little sophisticated." While she was singing at the swank St. Regis

Hotel in Manhattan six years ago, she plunged wholeheartedly into a song from the 1931 musical "Bandwagon."

The song, called "Confessions," was a sophisticated slant on good old-fashioned love.

"Well! They said I was a sweet thing and shouldn't know that love involved anything more than a kiss on the cheek. I had to drop the song from my repertoire, and I've been itching to sing it ever since."

Among other songs Martha has learned to sing are such old but banned beauties as "Love for Sale," "Bewitched, Bothered and Bewildered," "Moonshine Lullaby" and "I want a Man."

Now she has recorded them, "because they are beautiful songs, not the least bit smutty, and they've been unjustly pushed around."

"Much like girls who haven't got married."

If there were 10,000 seats at Walled Lake's football field, they'd probably be all filled for tomorrow night's encounter between Waterford and Walled Lake, a pair of unbeaten.

From the number of phone inquiries about the game it would seem that all of the populace of the two communities will be on hand.

Officials of both schools want to remind everyone to get an early start and avoid late congestion.

A 600 POUND ERROR

A typographical error in Wednesday's game story of the Waterford-Walled Lake game brought a few chuckles from the respective coaches.

The Skippers have a big line, but the weight on end Clayton Roth, which was supposed to read 190 pounds, came out in type as 790 pounds.

Coach Dave Smith of Walled Lake was almost ready to concede a forfeit. Apologies to Clayton.

PEE WEE LEAGUE A SUCCESS

The newly formed Pontiac Pee Wee football league concludes its first season of operation Saturday as a highly successful venture.

Seven teams for boys from 9 to 12, comprising nearly 300 youngsters were given the opportunity to play a five-game schedule, fully equipped, and under proper supervision.

"You just can't imagine how enthused these kids have been with this program," said Frank Thompson, one of the organizers of the league.

"It's been a terrific success, to such an extent we may have to enlarge the program to two leagues next year," he added.

Observers estimated that the three games in one afternoon at Beaudette and North Side Parks would attract as many as 1,000 spectators each Saturday.

The success of the program has to be credited to the fine cooperation given by the respective PTA organizations of the schools sponsoring teams, and to the merchants who contributed financially for the purchase of equipment.

Of course there are also the young men who gave their time as coaches and aides to the program.

DITTOS FROM THE PRESS BOX

Heard at the Football Writers gathering the other day was, "a good game to see would be the Michigan State offensive team against the Michigan State defensive team."

If Tribe Offers $100,000

'Lippy' Will Listen

NEW YORK (AP)—Leo Durocher may be an old fire hose champion at the bit, but it'll take a four-alarm to get him back to baseball.

All The Lip wants to fill Cleveland's managerial vacancy — if the job is offered — is a yearly salary ranging somewhere near

Durocher, who retired after managing the New York Giants in 1935, says he's happy drawing a reported $100,000 a year as a television executive in Hollywood. But he announced yesterday he'll be glad to hear a proposition from Hank Greenberg, Cleveland general manager.

The Indians need a replacement for the "resigned" Al Lopez, who pulled down a reported $40,000 a year as manager.

Greenberg, in New York on business, disclosed he and Leo had talked over the preliminaries via long-distance telephone and added he would go to the West Coast to meet with Durocher Monday.

"Durocher told me he was interested in returning to baseball," said Greenberg. "And since I certainly want to get the best man available, naturally I want to talk to him."

Said Leo: "If Greenberg has an offer, it better be a whopper." Durocher was adamant about being allowed to hold stock in any club he would agree to manage.

"Under no circumstances would I be interested in managing again unless I could buy into the club. I would never manage again just for salary."

Leo is said to receive a salary "close to $100,000 a year" with NBC. Last summer, a friend of Greenberg and Durocher told The Associated Press he had been authorized by the Indians to offer Durocher a 2-year contract at $100,000 a year.

"It would have to be something like that," said Leo, "but with a stock deal, too."

Both Hungry

Oxford-Clarkston Tangle

By CHUCK ABRAH

A pair of victory-hungry football teams clash head-on Friday night when non-league rivals Oxford and Clarkston tangle at Clarkston.

Both schools have gone scoreless and taken severe beatings in their last two starts and are eager to get back on the winning side of the ledger.

Oxford, which leads the South Central Conference with a perfect 3-0 record, is 3-3 for the season but has been outscored 50-0 in those last two starts.

It has been a rough year all around for Coach Ed Hints' injury-riddled CHS aggregation which now is 1-5 for the season. The last place entry in the Wayne-Oakland League has had its backfield wrecked from early season hard knocks.

So it will be the Wildcats of Coach Jean Harkness, the favorite on paper on the basis of past performances and better physical condition, while Clarkston will have the always comfortable home field advantage.

The contest could very well turn into a high-scoring battle after the drought both have gone through in recent weeks. The Hintsmen are due for a scoring outburst, having been blanked four times in six outings.

Oxford has dominated the series in recent years but Clarkston regained some prestige last year by romping to a 33-0 triumph in this traditional duel. The Wildcats had won three and another was a tie in the four previous years with the score mounting to 34-0 in 1934.

Valdes Boxes Bostonian

BOSTON (AP) — Nino Valdes of Cuba, seeking to regain his high rating as a contender for the heavyweight boxing title, meets hard-punching Bob Woodall of Boston tonight in a scheduled 10-rounder at the Arena. Woodall has won eight straight.

Contract Signing Today

CHICAGO (AP) — Archie Moore, lightweight champion, and a Floyd Patterson are to have a formal-contract signing today for their 15-round heavyweight title bout in Chicago Stadium Nov. 30.

Machen 'Decks' Johnny Holman

Heads for Bout With Jackson After Seventh Round KO on TV

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Quick-punching Eddie Machen appears headed for a bout with Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson after his sensational knockout of Johnny Holman in a nationally televised heavyweight fight here last night.

Machen, 194½, of Redding, Calif., jabbed the slow but dangerous Holman into befuddlement for six rounds, then cut loose with a vicious barrage of punches that ended the match in 38 seconds of the seventh.

Holman, 199½, of Chicago, crumpled into his own corner from a right hand and was counted out by Referee Eddie Volk as he tried wobbly to get up. It was the 18th consecutive victory and 14th knockout for the undefeated 24-year-old Machen, who is managed by Sid Flaherty of San Francisco. Machen had been ranked No. 7 among the heavyweights and Holman No. 8. Their managers said before the fight that the winner was assured of a shot at Jackson, ranked third.

Byron (Buster) Brannon, head basketball coach at T.C.U., also doubles as assistant football coach and chief grid scout.

'Little Brown Jug' Has Scent of Roses

ANN ARBOR (INS)—The Little Brown Jug goes on the line Saturday when the University of Michigan meets Minnesota in a Big Ten game at Ann Arbor before an expected crowd of 85,000.

Michigan goes into the game with an overall record of three victories and one defeat in its four starts, while the Gophers are undefeated with three wins and a tie.

The Little Brown Jug, which will be on the sidelines again Saturday, first became a series prize after the 1903 game at Minneapolis, which ended in a 6-6 tie.

Since the Jug series began, the Wolverines have taken the prize piece of crockery 25 times while it has rested in Minneapolis on 12 occasions.

This year however the Jug is filled with a scent of roses. Winner of this game will be considered a likely candidate for the trip to the coast New Year's Day.

The Wolverines are in top shape for the contest despite a gruelling battle with Northwestern last Saturday, won by Michigan 34-20. Terry Barr, veteran right halfback received a severe charley horse

Barr's running mates in the backfield will be Jim Pace at left half, Johnny Herrstein at fullback and Jim Van Pelt in the quarterback slot.

Herrstein, with three touchdowns last Saturday, is tied for the Big Ten scoring lead with Jim Roseboro of Ohio State with 36 points.

Minnesota, in fourth place in the conference standings, will be handicapped by the injury of fullback Dick Borstad. He will be replaced by Rhody Tuszka, 195-pound second-string fullback.

Borstad, who injured his hip, kicked the winning field goal against Illinois last week and is expected to be available in case the Gophers call on him again for placement duties.

The Wolverine backfield goes into the Gopher contest with a strong rushing average, headed by Barr who has picked off 6.3 yards per try during 35 attempts in four games.

Barr is followed by Herrstein, who has notched 4.5 yards per try in addition to his six touchdowns. Jim Pace, whose spectacular running has been a standout in the last two contests, has a 3.6 yard average.

Ron Kramer leads in the pass receiving department with two touchdowns and 190 yards in seven receptions. He has averaged 27.1 yards per catch.

While he has punted only once in four games, Kramer has a 57-yard average.

Van Pelt has done most of the punting for Michigan in its first four games, kicking six times for a 32.8 yard average.

Layne Leading Scorer

PHILADELPHIA (INS)—Detroit Lions quarterback Bobby Layne is the National Football League's top scorer so far this season.

Layne has scored three touchdowns, kicked three field goals and booted 11 conversions for 38 points, two better than Rick Casares of the Chicago Bears.

Layne ranks fifth in the passing department, completing 51 of 88 tries for 725 yards and three touchdowns. His hurling percentage is 55.6.

Detroit end Dave Middleton is seventh among the pass receivers with 14 catches for 197 yards. Halfback Yale Lary is the fifth-ranking punter, averaging 42.9 yards in 19 kicks.

Rookie halfback Don McIlheney's 208 yards in 68 carries gives him fifth place in the ground-gaining department.

Really Getting 2 for 1

HOLT (AP)—A local sportsman, Alfred W. Saunders, tells of bagging a pheasant and a rabbit with a single shot.

Saunders said he raised his shotgun and fired at a rabbit darting down a furrow just as a pheasant took off across the furrow and entered the line of fire. The pheasant and rabbit dropped simultaneously.

Besides this, Chicago is also the least penalized, having drawn only seven minor penalties.

Bill Dineen is expected to be available for the Wings for limited duty bringing the Detroit team up to a full 18-player complement.

Everything Closed for Big Grid Tilt

COLUMBIA (AP)—Favored Clemson staged its big bid here today for Atlantic Coast Conference leadership and an Orange Bowl trip in its 54th State Fair football meeting with South Carolina.

A capacity-plus crowd of 35,000 bought out all tickets months ago, paying tribute to the game that has become a state fixture. Gov. Timmerman and scores of other political, industrial and business big-wigs were ticket holders.

It was a state holiday with schools closed in this county and banks closed in many other counties, but there was no holiday for the players in this traditional and bitterly contested game.

Quarterback Mackie Prickett, a senior, and scintillating sophomore halfbacks King Dixon and Alvin Hawkins led South Carolina's bid for an upset against the team that won, 28-14, a year ago.

MOOSE HUNTER — Hunting in the same spot in northern Ontario where OCS's Howard Shelly bagged a fine moose this fall, Dr. Robert P. Wise (above, right), downed the 1,800 pound cow moose shown in the picture. At left is the guide, Ray Fortier, who also guided the Shellys. Dr. Wise's hunting companion was Howard H. Fitzgerald of The Press, who got a 1,400 pound bull. Both were shot from canoes along the shore of lake Kabanakagami. The Pontiac hunters were in a party of 13, at Dick Watson's camp at Pine Portage, 245 miles north of the Soo, near Oba. They spent a week in the bush, saw five moose, got two, plus a lot of fat partridge (13 ruffs and a spruce hen). Good fishing (one in the party took a 24-pound pike) and duck and geese in plenty were noted.

East Lansing (AP) — "The Menace" sounds like an appropriate nickname for the leading ground-gainer and scorer for mighty Michigan State, top football team in the country.

It brings to mind the Neanderthal type of football player—a muscle-bound giant who lopes along with knuckles dragging on the ground.

But MSU's Dennis (The Menace) Mendyk was given his nickname as a reverse switch. Actually, he's a shy, always smiling, polite 21-year-old who weighs just a nominal 190 pounds.

Mendyk, a senior, finally has come into his own this year because of his tremendous desire, deceptive, crazy-legged stride and great speed.

In the 2-0 victory over Michigan, Mendyk made the only touchdown. Against Notre Dame, he broke the game wide open with touchdown runs of 63 and 49 yards.

Under the Spartan multiple-back system, Mendyk played only 15 minutes against Notre Dame. But he carried 10 times for 157 yards, a neat average of 15.7 yards a carry.

Television viewers will recall that Mendyk was running away from the Irish defense when he made both scores. He has a hurdler's stride that makes him tough to tackle.

"He lopes like an antelope," explained MSU coach Duffy Daugherty.

Mendyk's performance is all the more remarkable in that he has played as the relief man for left half Clarence Fooks, plunging, punting, passing established star for the Spartans for the past three years.

Like many MSU athletes, Mendyk came from a small town—St. Charles in central Michigan. He played high school football at larger St. Peter and Paul and was a 10-letterman in high school.

Mendyk was listed as a back when he came to State but for one year was switched to end. As a sophomore, he played just 16 minutes and caught one pass for eight yards.

"He always had the speed," Daugherty said, "and he improved greatly in his blocking and tackling this fall."

The nickname-prone Spartans now have another one for "The Menace." They're also calling him "Dennis the Diesel" because of his self-starting power and long distance hauls with the football.

Some 200 game wardens in the New England states had been designated as deputy federal wardens to assist the government in enforcing federal regulations.

Angered by the federal government's refusal to remove mergansers from the regular duck limits, the New England states have returned to Washington their deputy federal warden appointments.

"We turned our badges in as a protest," New Hampshire Fish & Game Comr. Ralph G. Carpenter said today. "We have yet to receive a logical explanation," he said. "And we want to remind them that cooperation between the federal government and the states has to be a two-way street."

They say that because mergansers are less desirable than other ducks, hunters tend to pass them by and concentrate on the choicer species in using up their bag limits.

Before 1954, duck hunters could shoot up to 25 mergansers a day but that year the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service ordered the merganser included in the regular duck limit of four a day.

The fish and game commissioners of the New England states have been protesting ever since that the order has no scientific basis and in effect makes the predatory merganser a "protected bird."

Athletes Recovering

Food Poisoning Hits 103

WACO, Tex., (INS)—All but one of the 103 athletes at Baylor University stricken with food poisoning were reported recovered today.

Regular practice sessions of the varsity and freshman football teams, basketball and cross-country teams were to be resumed.

Dr. Horace Tripett, the team physician, said the football team will be at full physical strength by game time Saturday when the Bears meet Texas A & M in a crucial Southwest conference game. However, the undefeated Baylor team missed its final heavy workout today because of the mass illness.

Forty-nine of the football players were ill.

The athletes were stricken Tuesday night after eating a roast beef dinner in the dining room of the athletes' dormitory. Twelve athletes who ate at their homes were the only ones who did not become sick.

DETROIT (AP)—The injury bug which has hit the Detroit Titans for every game this season, still plagues the team as it prepares for the Sunday invasion of Boston College.

Fred Delano, U. of D sports publicist, was running down the list of injuries yesterday at a sports gathering and told the group:

"We're thinking of moving the practice sessions to the Mt. Carmel Hospital grounds to cut down on ambulance charges."

Bucs Sign Bronx Boy

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Pittsburgh Pirates today announced the signing of Libo "Sonny" DeRario, 20-year-old Bronx, N.Y., shortstop, to a 1937 contract with their Grapd Parks, N.D., farm club in the Class C, Northern

St. Michael's Lineup Undergoes Alterations

There will be a little of the old, but it will be mostly new, when St. Michael's journeys to Ferndale Sunday afternoon to meet St. James in a Suburban Catholic League football game.

St. Michael's coach Bob Minewasser, displeased with last Sunday's listless showing at Royal Oak when the Shamrocks dropped a 12-0 decision to St. Mary, has almost completely revised his lineup for this week's engagement.

Seven new faces, including a few sophomores, will dot the starting lineup at kickoff time. Halbacks Dan Dropps and Chuck Brown, along with center Mike Lyons and tackle Bill Fitzgerald are the only regulars who have kept their jobs.

In a radical attempt to instill life in the Shamrocks, Minewasser will go with Ken Halpin and Jerry Amman at end posts, George Drake at tackle, Joe Fitzgerald and Bob Birchmier at guards, Mike Flynn at the quarterback slot and Paul Amman at fullback. All except Paul Amman, an end until now, previously warmed the bench.

St. James, a 12-7 winner over the Mikeas last season, could be a rugged customer. The Dales were inexperienced at the beginning of the season, but they have come along fast to win their last two outings.

St. Frederick, with its winless skid now stretched to 21 games, tangles with Center Line St. Clement this Sunday at Pontiac's Wm. Stadium.

The punchline Rams, who have scored 15 points this fall, will be underdogs again. Although their league record is unimpressive, the Crusaders have enjoyed moments of success while posting an overall season mark of 2-4.

Orchard Lake St. Mary will try to take another big step toward its 22 straight SCL crown Sunday against the St. Mary Irish at Royal Oak. The undefeated and untied Eagles will be top-heavy favorites to hang up their 6th triumph.

In Sunday's remaining league encounter, 2nd place St. Rita of Hazel Park faces St. Benedict at Highland Park.

Titans to Meet Old Grid Rival

Boston College Visits Detroit Sunday Against Crippled U. of D.

DETROIT — Injury riddled University of Detroit will get an extra day rest this week, but the Titans will need it for Sunday's clash with 35-year-old rival Boston College.

The Eagles, with a 3-1 mark, lost only to powerful Miami of Florida and that was in a second half letdown.

Ably piloted by quarterback Billy Donlan, Boston ripped Rutgers, 33-0 last week, gaining 495 yards rushing.

Detroit, trying to snap a three-game losing streak which has been by a total of only 10 points, will be without star end Perry Richards, center Jack Carroll, quarterback Steve Pliskach, halfback Billy Russell and fullback Larry Strimas.

Sophomore quarterback Lou Fazio will start for the Titans, while coach Wally Fromhart checks his medical list to find a backfield combination.

Detroit, trying to snap a three-game losing streak which has been by a total of only 10 points, will be without star end Perry Richards, center Jack Carroll, quarterback Steve Pliskach, halfback Billy Russell and fullback Larry Strimas.

This is a delectable Calvert Whiskey Sour. Devotees of the Sour place the Calvert Sour on a pedestal. They also place it proudly before their guests. And with sufficient reason. A Whiskey Sour made with Calvert Reserve is a refreshing reminder of your own good taste — in all things, generally, and in whiskey in particular.

How to Make a Calvert Sour: Mix juice 1/4 lemon, 1 tsp. sugar, 2 oz. Calvert. Add ice. Shake until cold. Strain into Sour glass. Add orange slice, cherry, splash of soda.

Waterford-Walled Lake on Even Terms

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Everything seems to be on even terms for the big title game between Waterford and Walled Lake on the Walled Lake Junior High gridiron Friday night.

Both teams are unbeaten with 6-0 records. Each has won two games and tied one in the five played between the two schools. Both are physically up to par, and the offensive statistics show very little difference individually.

Only unfair factor for the game is that there won't be enough room for everyone who wants to see the battle.

Athletic director Tom Evans at Walled Lake said additional bleachers have been installed, but it is doubtful that these will be able to take care of the expected record crowd.

An estimated 3,500 saw the Southfield game at the same field on Orchard Lake road.

Gates will open at 6:30 p.m. and no adult tickets will be sold in advance at the schools. Only student tickets are available at the two schools.

The crowd will be swelled even more because Friday's game is homecoming and Dad's night at Walled Lake.

For the Vikings it will be the final home game for 30 seniors and for both teams it will be the first title bid since the setup of the Inter-Lakes League was organized with its present membership.

Walled Lake won the title in 1951 under a different conference setup of only four teams.

Walled Lake has a three-ple running attack headed by fullback John Walker and halfbacks Don Yeargan and Frank Fink.

Waterford will counter with its leading runners, Lyndie Salathiel, Terry Kalnes and Ed Clark.

Walker has ripped out 643 yards himself for an 8.3 average. Yeargan has 491 yards for a 11.4 average and Fink has 349 yards for a 11.8 average.

Salathiel has piled up 556 yards for an 8.2 average with Kalnes averaging 4.6 per try and Clark 5.3 a crack.

The Skippers' big forward wall will outweigh Walled Lake but the Vikings will have the speed advantage in the front line.

Neither team has shown any aerial power, but it may be a surprise weapon should the running attacks be stalled.

Waterford has averaged only 26 yards a game through the air and Walled Lake is slightly better at 46 yards per contest.

The Vikings' under coach Dave Smith gained considerable stature being ranked the 4th best team in Class B ranks in the state. Waterford in "A" classification has been unable to crack the top 10 in ratings.

The two schools met for the first time in 1951 and Walled Lake took a 13-0 decision. After the 0-0 deadlock in 1952, victory has alternated in each season.

Illinois Back Has Wide Lead Ball Carrying

CHICAGO (AP) — Illinois' swift back, Abe Woodsan, has broken into a wide lead in Big Ten ball carrying statistics and should be a marked man when unbeaten Michigan State invades the Illinois campus Saturday.

Woodsan piled up 181 yards against Minnesota last week to give him a total of 286 in two conference games, according to Big Ten official statistics released today. His average is 6.7 in 46 trips.

Woodsan also is tops in total offense, but only 11 yards behind is Purdue's Len Dawson with 255 on passing.

'Lots of Birds' in County Area

After several days of leadership changes the "long" bird division of the Pontiac Press pheasant derby appeared to have settled down today. Leading entry is a 28 and 1/2 inch rooster downed by Eugene Crane of Ortonville. Marcia Laucka 3 1/2 pounder is the heaviest.

Many birds have been reported for possible entry, but didn't pass by the leaders. Hunters continue to report seeing many ringnecks in this section.

Among the latest to report were Don R. Plummer of 3036 Bathurst, Pontiac, who got two Tuesday in Lapeer county, and Adolph Walter and John Hodler of Drayton Plains.

The Drayton men took some nice birds, hunting near Rochester. Walters prize was a 27 and 1/2 inch beautifully colored near-three-pounder.

Another nice bird, nearly 3 1/2 pounds and 36 inches long was taken Wednesday by Maurice Wahl, 2101 Walnut road. He was hunting near Rochester.

Avondale Gets Last Crack at Crown

By BILL CORNWELL

The "blue chip" game in the Oakland B League is at hand. Frank Crowell's Avondale Yellow Jackets, with their backs to the wall, and Clawson, with one foot already wedged inside the championship door, clash Friday night at Clawson in the Oakland B "game of the week."

Clawson tops the conference standings with four wins and a tie while the Jackets are tied with Troy for 2nd place on three victories and one defeat.

This is an "all or nothing" situation for both schools. Clawson can sew up the title by beating Avon, its last league foe. If the Trojans lose, their 13-13 draw with Fitzgerald could prove disastrous in the final analysis.

Avondale must trip Clawson and get by Fitzgerald the following week in order to take the crown. And even then the Yellow Jackets might have to share the title with Troy, which could deadlock Avon by downing Lake Orion and Madison.

The Jackets and Clawson are evenly matched in almost every respect. Both have solid front lines, swift backs and well-balanced attacks. Clawson holds an edge in reserve manpower over Avon's talent-rich bench.

Each squad is guided by an excellent quarterback. Tom Kollin, who pilots Bob Acton's Clawson team, and Avondale's Dick Gronski are the finest field generals in the league. Both are astute signal-callers and capable passers.

Lowell Acton, a pile-driving fullback, and halfbacks John Volk and Dave Rehse give Clawson dangerous striking power on the ground. The Jackets can counter in equal measure with Sven Blomberg, Fred Hyten and Ron Elmy.

Avon's Dwight Moulton and Larry Dorr of Clawson are talented pass-catching ends.

Elmy and tackle Bill Johnson are nursing leg injuries, which may confine them to limited duty for Avondale. Tackle Roger Lance has a bad leg and is a doubtful starter for the Trojans.

The kickoff is scheduled at 8 o'clock.

Sports Magnate Dies During Golf Match

TIJUANA, Mexico (AP) — Al Teinbaum, 43-year-old member of a family syndicate which owns several California hotels and recently bought the Mission Valley Country Club at San Diego, died of a heart attack at Tijuana Country Club yesterday.

He was playing the fourth hole with pro Tommy Bolt and two other golfers in a pro-amateur tournament.

Bolt had been negotiating with Teinbaum for the head pro job at Mission Valley. He withdrew from the tournament and from the Southern California Open which starts today.

Teinbaum was a native of St. Louis.

DETROIT — Injury riddled University of Detroit will get an extra day rest this week, but the Titans will need it for Sunday's clash with 35-year-old rival Boston College.

The Eagles, with a 3-1 mark, lost only to powerful Miami of Florida and that was in a second half letdown.

Ably piloted by quarterback Billy Donlan, Boston ripped Rutgers, 33-0 last week, gaining 495 yards rushing.

Detroit, trying to snap a three-game losing streak which has been by a total of only 10 points, will be without star end Perry Richards, center Jack Carroll, quarterback Steve Pliskach, halfback Billy Russell and fullback Larry Strimas.

Pontiac Hunter Bags Big Moose on Canadian Trip

Two Pontiac Hunters spent seven interesting days in the Batchawana Bay (Ontario) bush country and brought back a 1,100 pound moose, plus some very unusual experiences.

Frank Slaybaugh bagged the moose. Jerry Woollever didn't get a shot, but became mired in quicksand, following a small guide. The pair "had a wonderful time" and plan to return for some deer and added moose hunting about Nov. 1.

"We had to hire a horse to haul the moose out of the bush," Jerry reported.

Among the players new Chicago Cub manager Bob Shelling will have in spring training in 1957 are Gene Fodge, Bob Speake and Jim Bolger. They played for him at Los Angeles last season.

STATE Is No. 1 ALL THE WAY!

By DICK DUNKLE

Crowned #1 to 14 by Michigan State last Saturday, Notre Dame is calling on all the state, and even Brian Bora, as Oklahoma comes to crepe-baked South Bend this week.

Wonder if this Bora can run.

Anyhow, according to the Power Index, the No. 2 Sooners have rated themselves a gaudy 28 points over the luckless Kelly Green. Chance is that more points than this will be spilled next Saturday since Oklahoma is anxious to end its Michigan State 12-point margin.

Meanwhile, No. 1 Michigan State will be looking for victory No. 5 in a visit to Illinois. The Spartans outtake the Illini by 30 points.

Other national leaders show the following Power Index difference over their opponents at next Saturday:

No. 3 Southern California, 18 over Stanford; No. 4 Michigan, 14 over Minnesota; No. 5 Georgia Tech, 7 over Tulane; No. 6 Tennessee, 6 over Maryland; No. 7 Texas A & M 3 over Baylor; and No. 8 Mississippi, 2 over Arkansas.

The Power Index shows, from this season's record to date, average scoring difference relative to rating of opposition. As a forecast, it has indicated the correct winners in 78.3 per cent of 1,518 games, omitting ties, covered so far.

In other big games of the week-and the past performance ratios are:

East, Saturday — Syracuse 31 over Boston U., Penn State 14 over West Virginia, Pittsburgh 12 over Oregon, Army 29 over Columbia, Navy 19 over Princeton, Princeton 32 over Cornell, Yale 1 over Colgate.

Midwest, Saturday — Iowa 8 over Purdue, Ohio State 9 over Wisconsin, Colorado 24 over Nebraska.

South, Thursday — South Carolina even with Clemson, Saturday Auburn even with Houston U., Duke 12 over N. C. State, Florida 10 over LSU, Kentucky 7 over Georgia, Rice 2 over Texas, TCU 8 over Miami, Fla., Va. Tech 17 over Virginia.

Far West, Saturday — Oregon State 24 over Washington, Wyoming 20 over Kansas State.

Power Index pairings for all of the week-end's games follow:

Mariles Leads Mexican Victory

HARRISBURG, Pa. (U. S. P.) — The Mexican team headed by General Humberto Mariles has captured its fourth first-place finish in the international classes at the Pennsylvania National Horse show.

Mariles made two perfect rides on his favorite mount, Chihuahua II, last night to win the Governor's Challenge Trophy in a jump-off against Hugh Wiley of the U.S. team.

Earlier, Frank Chapot, of Towson, Md., and the U.S. Air Force, defeated Mariles over an eight-jump course on a decision decided by time. The win was the second for the United States, the first being by Team Captain Billy Steinkraus Tuesday.

Chile, Ireland and Canada have failed to win a class in the first six international competitions.

Hornung May Start at Half

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (U. S. P.) — Coach Terry Brennan of Notre Dame faces one of his biggest football decisions today, whether or not to shift quarterback Paul Hornung to halfback and use an untested sophomore as field general against Oklahoma.

Hornung leads the Irish in rushing, scoring, passing, punting, kickoffs returned, passes broken up, playing time and is second in number of tackles made.

The thumb on his left hand was injured while he was making a tackle in the second quarter of last Saturday's game, which was won 47-14 by Michigan State and spiraled the Spartans over Oklahoma.

homa to the No. 1 national ranking. The Sooners have won 34 games in a row.

"The thumb was dislocated and we taped it up as soon as we could," said Brennan, whose Irish now have lost two straight and three out of four starts.

"He played the second half and I knew it was hurting him. By Sunday it had swollen badly. This week I have given him a rest—he's only been passing and running a little. He hasn't been able to take the snap-back from center."

"Today I will decide definitely if he can take the ball from cen-

Chiefs Ready, Hope for Breaks

By H. GUY MOATS

"I believe we are as ready for the Royal Oak squad for Friday's game here as we have been for any opponent this season."

That's the comment of the Big Chief, head coach Ed Graybiel of the Pontiac High football team.

made today as the headman talked over plans for Friday's 4th non-SVC game and the 7th of the season. He also figured the "breaks" may be very important, and hoped his club would get a share of them.

Tomorrow night's encounter is the last of the non-league encounters for the year. Most of the way it'll be all Saginaw Valley opposition, including Saginaw High and the terrific Flint Northern Vikings in the finale Nov. 9 at Atwood stadium. Trojans come here Nov. 2.

Chiefs will be shooting for their 3rd win. They defeated Wyandotte and Lansing Sexton, tied Ferndale in other non-loop tests, and have yet to win a Valley trial.

"Offensively we're right where we've been all season," Graybiel says. "We think our offense will continue to move. It looked good in the last several games. Our defensive line and linebackers will be about the same, except at defensive halfbacks. It's a question there of using anybody that's ready."

Starters offensively may be about as follows:

Ends—Baxter, Baxter and Cagle (Graybiel says all three are "regulars"); tackles—Holloway and Massengale; guards—Kelly and Kars; center—Joe Hill; backs—Whitner, Robinson, Spaul, Lou Humphrey, Nick Shorter will be the safety man on defense. Lou Watkins will also get in at halfback. "We don't want to have to use Art Fox at halfback and take him off the defensive group," the coach added.

Reviews of defenses for the Achorns, who come here with a long-time reputation for being tough for the Chiefs, used up much of Wednesday's drill. More of the same, plus work on the PHS offense, punts, and kickoff returns is set for today. "We don't have Shorter and Hawkins to catch 'em now. Hope MacDonald and Nick Shorter will go a good job," the coach said.

Oakland MEA Group Meets Next Monday

Instruction in trampoline fundamentals and track and field events will highlight next Monday's meeting of the Physical Education Section at the Birmingham High School gymnasium. The group, which convenes at 9:30 a.m., represents the Michigan Education Association of Oakland County, Region 7.

Paul A. Wheeler from Monroe will discuss trampoline techniques while Dean Wilson of Pontiac High will conduct track and field instruction. Also featured on the program are "three way activities" with Sally Reid and Genevieve Stevenson of Birmingham in charge and modern dance demonstrations conducted by Marion Sump from Ferndale.

This meeting will be attended by athletic directors, coaches and teachers of physical education. The public is invited.

Lincoln Trips Eastern, 7-0

A touchdown in the 2nd quarter handed Lincoln a 7-0 victory over Eastern in a Pontiac Junior High League football game Wednesday afternoon at Wisner Stadium. It was the final game of the season for both schools.

Jesse Nolan plunged five yards for the only touchdowns and Tom Devaney scooted across for the extra point. Center Tony Rullo starred defensively for Eastern, which finished in the league cellar with a 0-4 record. The win was Lincoln's 1st.

In Junior Varsity action yesterday at Washington, the Little Braves defeated Madison, 20-0. Washington and Madison varieties will clash today at Wisner to conclude the 1956 Junior High League schedule. Eastern and Lincoln JV teams will play on the Eastern field. Both games begin at 4 p.m.

Williams, Musial Lead Lifetime Batters

NEW YORK (U) — Boston's Ted Williams and Stan Musial of the St. Louis Cardinals continue to boast the highest lifetime batting averages in the major leagues with 21 players hitting .300 or better.

Figures compiled by The Associated Press revealed today that Williams' lifetime mark remained at .344, while Musial's average dropped two points to .340. Williams hit .345 during the 1956 season and Musial batted .310. The Red Sox Splendid Splinter, who began his career with Boston in 1939 and then did two stints in service, never has batted under .300 in any season. The 38-year-old outfielder has captured four league batting championships, his top mark being .406 in 1941.

The 35-year-old Musial, completing his 14th season with the Red Birds, also never has finished below .300. Stan the Man, who has played both the outfield and first base, won six batting titles, including three straight from 1950-52.

His highest average was .376 in 1948.

Twelve National League players, among those who have participated in at least 300 games, own .300 or better averages. Two new players, Hank Aaron of Milwaukee and Pittsburgh's Bill Virdon, moved into this elite category after the 1956 season.

Aaron, the league's batting champion, hit .328 to boost his lifetime average from .299 to .310. Virdon, in only his sophomore year, has an even .300 average.

Nine American League batters are over .300 lifetime, with only one change resulting from the 1956 figures. Cleveland's Bobby Avila fell from the select ranks, while Mickey Mantle of the New York Yankees moved into the .300 or over group.

Off the Grapevine —

The grapevine last week didn't tell us that Avondale was getting better with every game and as result everyone stopped by picking Lake Orion against the Jackets.

This week the toughie again involves Avondale against Clawson, but the real battle will be at Walled Lake with Waterford.

Is Clawson's line stronger, or will Avondale's backfield be too much for the Trojans? Does Walled Lake have too much backfield speed for the big Waterford line?

Interesting questions. Answers will be forthcoming Saturday morning.

Weekend Grid Choices

Following are International News Service predictions for this weekend's college football games. INS experts were right on 27 of 33 selections last week for a season's average of .716 with 134 right, 53 wrong.

EAST

Army 21, Columbia 7 — Army bigger, tougher and overdue.
Syracuse 35, Boston U. 13 — Syracuse handily.
Yale 14, Colgate 13 — An edge to the Eli at home.
Princeton 27, Cornell 14 — Cornell injuries still a handicap.
Harvard 21, Dartmouth 20 — Wide open.
Navy 21, Penn 14 — Navy's speed spells difference.
Penn State 27, W. Va. 21 — Lions may let down after Ohio State win.
Pitt 27, Oregon 13 — Pitt too tough and rugged.

MIDWEST

Michigan State 35, Illinois 13 — Spartans on tremendous reserve power.
Oklahoma 28, Notre Dame 14 — Sooners meeting week older Irish.
Northwestern 14, Indiana 13 — Hungry Wildcats in savage mood.
Iowa 21, Purdue 14 — Can't go against all-winning Hawkeyes.
Ohio State 28, Wisconsin 20 — Buckeyes on grinding strength.
Minnesota 21, Michigan 14 — Gophers overdue but probably tossup.
Cincinnati 28, Marquette 7 — Ohioans on better manpower.
Detroit 14, Boston College 7 — Titans have home field edge.
Kansas 20, Oklahoma A & M 14 — Jayhawks improving steadily.
Tulsa 13, Hardin-Simmons 7 — Hurricanes in a bruiser.
Colorado 34, Nebraska 13 — Buffs eye Orange Bowl.
Missouri 28, Iowa State 13 — Tigers stay undefeated in conference.

SOUTHWEST

Rice 21, Texas 7 — Longhorns still outclassed.
Texas A & M 14, Baylor 13 — A close one for hard-running Aggies.
Texas Christian 14, Miami (Fla.) 7 — Frogs come back after loss.
Mississippi 14, Arkansas 0 — Rebels punch porkers.

FAR WEST

Southern California 33, Stanford 20 — Arnett, Trojans well grounded.
Washington 14, California 6 — Too many Cal injured.
Oregon State 7, UCLA 0 — OSC's got the speed.
College of Pacific 20, Washington State 6 — COP's better balanced.

SOUTH

Georgia Tech 20, Tulane 7 — Engineers jolt greensies back to earth.
Tennessee 33, Maryland 6 — Enough terrapin soup for all this year.
South Carolina 14, Clemson 13 — Bare edge to gamecocks on defense.
Alabama 13, Mississippi State 12 — High time for lowly tide to rise.
Kentucky 13, Georgia 7 — Wildcats knock wind from bulldog sails.
Florida 20, L. S. U. 13 — Up and coming gators devour boy boys.
North Carolina 13, Wake Forest 6 — Tarheels stick to winning road.

NATIONAL FOOTBALL LEAGUE

Chicago Bears 35, San Francisco 20 — Bruins too versatile.
Detroit 24, Los Angeles 14 — Lions remain unbeaten.
Green Bay 21, Baltimore 7 — Packers placate ponies.
New York 30, Philadelphia 14 — Gifford, Webster, Conerly.
Pittsburgh 14, Cleveland 6 — Both weak offensively.
Chicago Cards 34, Washington 10 — Cards hold aces.

Title Contender After Ten Years

SIoux Falls, S.D. (U) — Augustana, a small South Dakota church school that has managed only nine football victories in the past decade, has suddenly blossomed into a title contender in the North Central Conference.

Since World War II, Augustana has been outscored 1,702 to 451 in the conference. In the past 10 years there have been four seasons which failed to produce a single victory for the Vikings.

But even with a 10-year record of 9-50, Augustana this season has knocked off two teams it had never before in history defeated, Iowa Teachers and South Dakota State, for a 4-1 mark.

Prep Loops Have Grid Showdowns

You don't have to search long this week to discover Friday's No. 1 high school football game in the Oakland County area.

Tomorrow night's top attraction takes place at Walled Lake where the Waterford Skippers and the Vikings, both unbeaten and tied in six starts, collide headon with the Inter-Lakes Conference championship at stake.

An overflow crowd is expected to jam every nook and cranny of the junior high field to witness this struggle between perfect record teams.

Southfield hopes to snap a three-game losing streak at Berkley and Farmington entertains Van Dyke in remaining Inter-Lakes action.

Second only in importance to the Waterford-Walled Lake battle is the crucial Oakland B League test between Avondale and Clawson at Clawson. The conference title is hanging in the balance for each school.

The Avondale-Clawson game somewhat overshadows the Oakland B clash at Troy between the Colts and Lake Orion. The Dragons are now out of contention, but Troy still has an opportunity to divide or win the crown.

Madison invades Roseville for Friday's other Oakland B tilt.

Two important games are on tap tomorrow night in the Wayne-Oakland Conference. Vastly improved Holly lays its title chances on the block at Northville against the league-leading Mustangs while Milford, still in the race, meets unpredictable West Bloomfield at Keego Harbor. Brighton visits Clarenceville for another W-O tussle.

Almost a host to Dryden and Memphis warily goes to New Haven in Friday's best Southern Thumb League offerings. Remaining league activity sends Cape to Armada.

Birmingham is probably due for another licking at the hands of Port Huron in an Eastern Michigan League game at the Big Red's gridiron. Other EML contests are Hazel Park at Ferndale and East Detroit at Mt. Clemens.

Orionville will have its hands full at Inlay City against the defending champion Spartans and Millington plays host to North Branch in south Central conference games.

Bloomfield Hills can annex the Southeast Suburban Conference title by whipping Fraser tomorrow night at Fraser. Warren invades Utica and South Lake visits Center Line in Bi-County League play.

Downtrodden Cranbrook faces University School of Cleveland in an Inter-State League game Saturday afternoon at Cranbrook.

USC's Arnett Closes Career in Mid-Season

LOS ANGELES (U) — University of Southern California halfback Jon Arnett bids a mid-season adieu Saturday to a brilliant collegiate career.

"Sure, I'm a little bitter—who wouldn't be," said the "five-game" senior. "But I can't complain. I've played a lot."

He certainly has; 25 games in which he has gained 1,781 yards to place behind Orv Mohler and Gus Shaver as the third greatest ground gainer in Southern Cal's long and brilliant football history. After the PCC crackdown, sports writers wondered whether Arnett, like UCLA's Ronnie Knox, might be lured by Canadian gold. But he turned down a Canadian pro offer of more than $16,000 and remained at USC.

Unwanted Colt Looms as Yankee Contender

BOSTON (U)—Reneged, a game colt unwanted by several horsemen before he ever ran a race, loomed as a strong contender for 3-year-old laurels today after an impressive victory in the $30,000 Yankee Handicap at Suffolk Downs.

The top sophomore in the Woodley Lane Farm Stable pulled away in the final sixteenth of a mile and then survived a foul claim yesterday to post a 2-length victory in the 21st running of the mile and a furlong test for 3-year-olds.

Don Suman is in his eighth campaign as basketball coach at Rice Institute.

Japs Praise Rookie

Brooks' Kipp Wins Shutout

TOKYO (U) — Japanese baseball experts had high praise today for a 24-year-old Brooklyn Dodgers rookie southpaw who has struck out seven of Japan's outstanding sluggers and issued only four hits and one walk so far in two appearances.

Big Fred Kipp, formerly with Brooklyn's farm team at Montreal, faced 23 batters in 7 innings Wednesday, fanned 6 and gave up 4 hits and 1 pass. He blanked an All-Star Japanese team in Sendai, northern Japan before 30,000 fans. The Japanese team was composed of top players from the Tokyo, Yokohama-Nagoya area.

Nobuyasu Nizuhara, pilot of the Yomiuri Giants said, "Japanese batters are able to handle the fast ball but we're still helpless against curves and a change of pace such as those so flawlessly demonstrated by Fred Kipp."

Catcher Roy Campanella said, "Too bad we didn't use him in the World Series."

Celtics Drop Wilkinson

BOSTON (U)—The Boston Celtics of the National Basketball Assn. today released Buzzie Wilkinson, former standout for the University of Virginia.

Rangers Beat Montreal, 3-2

Danny Lewicki Scores on Penalty Shot as N.Y. Ties NHL Lead

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Nobody could remember today when New York last scored on a penalty shot before last night. But the one Danny Lewicki flicked home then beat Montreal 3-2 and carried the Rangers into a tie for the National Hockey League lead.

It's the first time since the 1941-42 season, when the Rangers finished on top, New York has had even a sniff of the lead. At the moment, they're deadlocked with Detroit at eight points each.

The payoff shot came in the first period with Lewicki, zooming in on Gerry McNeil, subbing for the ill Jacques Plante, at 14:37 to wrap up Ranger scoring in the only game scheduled last night.

Penalty shots are fairly rare these days in the NHL, coming when a player is fouled on a clear, breakaway shot at the goal. New York Coach Phil Watson said they were a little "more common" a decade or more ago, but that "The man with the puck still has an 80-20 edge."

Winner by a Neck

CAMDEN, N. J. (U) — Calumet Farm's Bardstown, holding just off the pace through most of the race, came on fast in the stretch yesterday to take the $81,400 Trenton Handicap by a neck from Summer Tan at Garden State Park.

The win was worth $54,550 for the 4-year-old gelding and boosted his total earnings to $173,050.

Poles Asking Questions on How U.S. Aid Operates

PARIS (INS)—Poland has asked a third power how American economic aid would work, and whether any strings would be attached.

It was learned the Warsaw regime approached a government which has received U.S. aid to clarify certain points following President Eisenhower's offer to assist "freedom-loving" satellites.

The Poles wanted to know how the U.S. manages counterpart funds, whether there could be interference in Poland's internal affairs and whether aid was possible without application of counterpart regulations.

The Poles, it was understood, did not press for answers, but made their interest clear.

This was revealed by diplomatic sources as the Polish government, which has restored Wladyslaw Gomulka as chief of the Communist party, continued to proclaim its intentions to maintain close ties with the Soviet Union.

It was learned, however, that the Poles refused a Soviet proposition which would have drastically reduced Polish trade links with the West.

The Russians broached the idea that Poland should sell all its coal to the satellite eastern bloc in exchange for a Russian pledge to supply the Poles with all the wheat they need.

The Soviet proposal was considered to be part of a Kremlin plan

'Rocky' Presley Receives Draft Questionnaire

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—Rock 'n' roll singer Elvis Presley, 21, has received a draft questionnaire and thinks that his induction into the armed services is "real close," the Memphis Press-Scimitar said today.

His Memphis draft board officials said today they knew nothing about it. The board suggested the possibility that Presley may be quietly arranging to enlist rather than be drafted. Otherwise, the board said, it would know about the questionnaire.

The 17th century Ballygally Castle on Northern Ireland's Antrim coast, after a $300,000 facelift, has been opened as an exclusive hotel for a small number of tourists.

Lure for Pen Pals

LONG BRANCH, N.J. (AP)—Need a jungle drum, crocodile skins or ebony images? If so, contact 15-year-old Rasulu Onis of Lagos in Africa through the Long Branch Record. Rasulu is the second African recently to write the newspaper in search of American pen pals. As a lure Rasulu offered the above items as well as leopard skin wallets, carved knives and bows and arrows. Bartering with him may be a little difficult. He says his hobbies include table tennis and "collecting of movie stars."

Dog Wins Point!

NEW BERN, N.C. (AP)—A little dog came to a point beside the wheel of an automobile at a drive-in restaurant here. The man in the car got out and found that the dog was eyeing a dollar bill. Finders keepers, the man decided. He ordered a dollar's worth of hamburgers, left them for the dog, and drove away to the furious wag of a tail.

Gold was discovered in Australia beginning in 1851.

Would Delete Bowery

NEW YORK (AP)—With the city's old Third Avenue elevated gone, Manhattan's borough president Hulan Jack wants to get rid of the southernmost end of the thoroughfare — the Bowery. He says the name bears a "connotation of drunken derelicts and broken dreams." The suggested new name: Third Avenue South.
