UF Half Way Toward Goal

To Mediate Steel Dispute

AP Wirephoto

Ike's Steel Fact-Finders Strike Out for Settlement

WASHINGTON (AP)—A fact-finding board opens hearings today on the nation's longest steel strike, hoping to produce a settlement rather than just some advice for President Eisenhower.

Acting under the Taft-Hartley law, the President appointed the three-man board to recommend whether he should seek a federal court injunction to stop the walkout for 80 days.

The Steelworkers Union plans to fight issuance of such an injunction.

Board chairman George W. Taylor, who does not think much of the Taft-Hartley law, said Suaday that he and his colleagues would use the hearings to try to help management and labor reach a voluntary agreement in the 90-day-old strike.

"I think it's our responsibility to do everything within the limits of our authority to settle this dispute," said Taylor, known as a skilled arbiter of labor-management disputes. He is professor of business at the University of Pennsylvania and was chairman of the War Labor Board during World War II.

Help from the panel was welcomed by David J. McDonald, president of the United Steelworkers Union.

If the panel can help achieve an agreement, he said, "we will be most happy."

Officially the board must determine whether continuation of the strike would cause a national emergency. In the open hearings, the steel companies were expected to argue that it would. The union was expected to argue the opposite.

UNION ARGUMENT

The union argument apparently would follow these lines:

1. The non-union plants, 15 per cent of the industry, have continued to operate and can supply the nation's defense needs.

2. Although the strike has caused unemployment of 800,000 national unemployment still is below five million, a total that the President has not considered an emergency in the past.

McDonald said Sunday the union would show "that there is absolutely no need for an injunction and that if one is issued it will only serve to prolong the unnecessary conflict brought about by the greed and selfish economic amorality of the steel industry."

The board is to file its report with the President by Friday. panel might seek an extension of the deadline if it felt time would keep mediate the dispute. Under the law, the President would not be bound by the board's recommendation.

Beastly Batch of Brew

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Treasury agent Jack Courtney says he cannot understand the popularity of a batch of moonshine liquor which lead to the arrest of a man in Chinatown. Courtney said that when he dumped three jars of the brew down the drain he found two monkey paws, two horned toads, a lizard and a bird with ears.

Hotel Holdup Nets 11c

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Two gunmen escaped in a getaway car after a fast-paced hotel holdup during the weekend. They took the entire contents of the cash box—11 cents.

Mercury to Climb, but Rain May Fall

Partly cloudy and cool is the weather outlook for the Pontiac area tonight. The low will be near 39 degrees.

Tomorrow will be mostly cloudy and a little warmer with rain likely late in the day. The mercury will climb to a high of 56.

Temperatures are expected to average 7 to 10 degrees below the normal 44 low and normal 64 high for the next five days. Showers are possible late Friday or Saturday.

Winds were northwest at 12 miles per hour at 10 this morning downtown. Rainfall for the weekend totaled .76 of an inch.

Lowest temperature preceding 8 a.m. was 41. At 2 p.m. the downtown temperature was 46.

Jews Observe Yom Kippur Rites Today

Jewish people in Pontiac and throughout the rest of the world today were observing the rites of Yom Kippur, holiest day in the Jewish faith.

Reform services which began at sundown yesterday were continuing today in Pontiac synagogues. They'll conclude at sundown today when Jacob Meyer sounds the shofar, the curved ram's horn which brings to a close 10 days of penitence by Jews.

Rabbi Israel Goodman of the Congregation B'nai Israel this morning preached on "The Gates of Weeping." At 2:30 today there will be a children's service.

Worship for the Day of Atonement began last evening with the singing of "Kol Nidre," a melodic chant or petition for divine forgiveness and impulsive resolutions.

The holy day is a time of fasting, reflection on one's deeds of the past year and supplications of forgiveness for unkindly acts.

The final service today at dusk signifies rededication to the spiritual and ethical precepts of Judaism.

Fear Quiz Fix Ban to Bring Era of Censor

FTC Chairman Claims Deceptive Shows Not in Agency's Realm

WASHINGTON (UPI — Chairman Earl W. Kintner testified today that if the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) tried to prevent rigging of TV quiz shows it would wind up policing wrestling matches and imposing "complete censorship of all entertainment."

Kintner told House investigators the commission never has contended that its power to crack down "on advertising extends to "deceptive entertainment."

He testified as a House investigating subcommittee held its final day of hearings on charges that some TV quiz programs have been fixed.

Kintner said there was "serious question" whether the FTC has legal authority to assert such jurisdiction, but added that this is "a grey area in the law."

The subcommittee prepared to end its public inquiry without testimony from $129,000 winner Charles Van Doren.

Chairman Oren Harris (D-Ark.) told newsmen the subcommittee still has received no word from Van Doren, star of the now defunct quiz show "21," who was invited last Wednesday night to testify.

Van Doren, who now has a $50,000—year contract with NBC, was relieved of all work assignments by the network last Thursday until questions raised by the inquiry are answered. He has

McAuley Announces Retirement

UAW Drops City Office

The Pontiac regional office has been dropped by the United Auto Workers convention in Atlantic City and Pontiac regional director William McAulay has announced his retirement.

Vice President Leonard Woodcock said dropping of the region and its directorship would provide a better balance of representation because of the spread of union membership outside Michigan.

The action, taken Saturday, reduced the number of Michigan directors from seven to six and left 11 directors in the rest of the country and one in Canada.

Fred V. Haggard, president of the Oakland County AFL-CIO Council, believed the move reflected, at least in part, a desire to economize in the face of recent drop-off in union membership.

The Pontiac region (labeled 1 B) took in all of Oakland County with the exception of such northern communities as Holly, Ortonville, Oxford and Leonard. They are in Region 1 C, with headquarters in Flint.

Haggard said it is proposed that Region 1 B be split north and south along U.S.10 and M58 west of Pontiac, with Pontiac and the eastern half going to Region 1 in Detroit and the western half going to Region 1 A in Detroit. Region 1 C would relinquish most of its Oakland County territory, with the exception of the Holly area, Haggard said.

WILLIAM McAULEY

The Pontiac region has had an office in the Community National Bank Building for many years. At last count, there were six international representatives working out of the office, as well as McAuley, assistant director James Morgan and an office staff of three.

It's not known whether these employes will be offered posts elsewhere in the UAW organization. "Everything's up in the air," said one secretary. "I don't know what's going to happen to us."

All of the regional officers, including McAuley, were at the convention and not available for immediate comment.

McAuley, 200 Starr Rd., has headed the regional office since its beginnings in the late 1930's. He was a shop committeeman at Fisher Body Division in Pontiac at the time Local 596, UAW, was organized there.

Overhaul, No Third Party Sought by Auto Workers

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—The United Auto Workers favor a realignment of the nation's political forces—but not a third party.

The UAW convention declared Sunday that both Democratic and Republican parties need an overhaul—"if the present two-party system is to operate more effectively in the public interest."

Although the 1,200,000-member UAW went on record in its political action program against formation of a new major party, a few delegates advocated such a move.

But UAW Vice President Leonard Woodcock urged delegates not to let their "frustration, resentment and bitterness" over legislative defeats in a Demo-

Siamese Twin Girls Both Improving Now

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Perky Jeanett Stubblefield moved ahead a shade again today, the sixth since surgeons separated h from her Siamese twin sister.

Both Jeanette and Denett remained on the critical list at the University of Oregon Medical School Hospital, but Denett's improvement has been steady all along.

Jeanette's condition Saturday night dipped to the lowest point since the operation last Tuesday by 17 surgeons. It led a spokesman to say that without a break she probably wouldn't make it.

Led by Industry, Total Reaches $322,837

Two Other Divisions Are Picking Up Speed After Poor Weather

The 1959 Pontiac Area United Fund drive passed the halfway mark today.

More than half of UF's $647,698 goal has been received in gifts and pledges, announced Robert R. Eldred, campaign chairman.

The latest total is $322,837, he reported, "and pledges are coming in at an unprecedented rate."

The upward surge is being sparked by the giant Industrial Division, headed by Thomas F. Wiethorn, Fisher Body Division plant manager.

A divisional total of $269,000, or 41.5 per cent of the total campaign goal, was reported.

In the face of the encouraging figures, Wiethorn called for renewed efforts on the part of his plant chairmen and solicitors.

"We still have a long pull ahead," he warned.

The UF's two other divisions were picking up speed. The Women's Division stood at $11,321, or 45 per cent of quota, while the Commercial Division—traditionally a slow-starter — had hit $57,977, or 32 per cent of quota.

The ladies are expected to pass the halfway mark within a day or so, said Mrs. Noel Buckner, division chairman.

Rain hampered their door-to-door campaign most of last week, she said.

This week will be "pressure week" for the Industrial Division, said its chairman, Frederick J. Poole.

Poole has called meetings of vice chairmen and group chairmen at at 8 a.m. tomorrow and Friday at Community National Bank.

"We're out to show the Industrial Division that we'll easily zoom past our quota," he declared.

The impressive Industrial Division figures break down into $146,000 from employes and $123,000 from General Motors Corp.

The division embraces workers at eight plants and one utility — Pontiac Motor Division, Fisher Body Division, GMC Truck & Coach Division, Jig Bushing Co., Universal Oil Seal Co., Baldwin Rubber Co., American Forging & Socket Co., Pontiac Varnish Co. and Consumers Power Co.

Eldred praised "the wonderful enthusiasm" of the UF's volunteer army of 4,500 solicitors.

"Each must be motivated by knowledge of the wonderful community services performed by the UF agencies," he said.

The campaign chairman also ex-

3 State Men Mentioned for Bell's Post

DETROIT (AP)—Three Michigan sports figures drew mention today as the National Football League began looking toward replacement of Commissioner Bert Bell, who died yesterday.

League owners were undecided whether to name an acting commissioner, or move quickly to appoint a full-time commissioner to succeed Bell. There was likelihood of a meeting to make some move this week.

President-General Manager Edwin J. Anderson of the Detroit Lions, Athletic Director Fritz Crisler of the University of Michigan and General Manager W. Nick Kerbawy of the Detroit Pistons were mentioned as possible successors. But there was no indication that any of them had an inside track to the job.

Though he has been part owner of the Lions for more than a decade, Anderson moved into an active role as president and general manager only in June, 1958.

Crisler would have to be regarded as a real long shot for the post since he frequently has been an outspoken critic of pro football.

Kerbawy was a member of the Lions' staff for 10 years before stepping out as general manager in June, 1958 to accept the job of running the Pistons' basketball team.

Soviet Government Yields Slightly to Public Demand

By PRESTON GROVER

MOSCOW (AP)—Quiet but persistent public pressure for more consumer goods has shown itself in recent weeks. The Soviet government is seeking to meet it to some extent.

Premier Nikita Khrushchev made clear last week that his government will continue pushing ahead with its industrialization scheme, thus limiting the supply of consumer items. But some improvement is promised.

Some declaration on the subject may be expected at the meeting beginning Oct. 27 of the Supreme Soviet, the Soviet parliament. Khrushchev set the tune when he publicly discussed consumer goods on his recent tour of Siberia.

He ordered a better supply of consumer goods to Vladivostok, the port on the Pacific which is icebound for three months a year.

In a speech he told his people to dress better and get away from drab grays. He said the Soviet Union must produce more consumer goods of better quality and lower price.

What perhaps is as important as the speeches is the appearance of letters and discussions about prices in the newspapers.

Such subjects are still handled gingerly. But the Moscow paper Soviet Russia printed a letter from a worker complaining: "I am fed up with this covering up with Sputniks and airliners.

'ONLY 1 PAIR'

"Come down to the level of the most ordinary shoes. I have only one pair of shoes which have already lasted four years.

"Why? Because they come from the West and have a brand from abroad.

"I am not personally in need of a TU114 (airliner). I manage with the help of the tram. But I want to lead a good life, to be well clad."

A member of the paper's staff investigated. He reported the writer's fellow workers were angry at what he had written, but the reporter went on to quote other workers as saying they, too, would like more things.

BETTER THINGS

"Now the time has come," the reporter commented, "for us to ask all those who are engaged in making suits, furniture and television sets to give us more of them and make them better."

The Soviets were advised to learn from America how to produce goods and raise more on the farms.

"That is not idle curiosity," the article said. "Why not adopt that which is good and valuable, that which has been created by the hands of the talented American people?"

A week ago Moscow streets were filled with people rushing to the stores to begin buying goods on the installment plan, which had just been made legal.

One Moscow store advertises shoes for 253 rubles. The basic wage of factory workmen is about 800 rubles a month, so one pair of shoes would take a third of a worker's monthly pay.

Soviet production has not begun to match foreign production of consumer goods, either in quality or quantity. An increasing number of people are becoming aware of it.

Study Finds K Gained U. S. Friends

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—A survey contended today that Nikita Khrushchev made more friends than he lost on his tour of the United States.

The study, made by Sindlinger & Co., Inc., business analysts, was said to indicate that 12 per cent of the American people changed their opinions of the Russian leader. Khrushchev's biggest gains were among management.

Khrushchev did not fare so well with workers, laborers and housewives. And he suffered a net loss of favor with the American farmer.

The before-and-after assessment, based on a survey of 2,608 men and women in all parts of the country, indicated that most people clung to their original opinion which was overwhelmingly negative.

The study indicated an apparent deep-seated distrust of Khrushchev even among those who seemed partial to the Russian leader.

Expect U.N. Debate on Tibet Bloodbath

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UPI)—the General Assembly, overriding Communist objections, is expected today to approve a full debate on the Red Chinese bloodbath in Tibet.

Diplomatic sources predicted the United States and other supporters of the debate would be able to defeat any attempt by Communists or India-led neutralists to shelve the Irish-Malay resolution on the issue.

Leading opponents of discussion on the question have been Russia, which calls it a "nonexistent issue," and Red China, which says it is a "farce aimed at slandering China."

★ ★ ★ ★

Subfreezing Cold Reaches Down Into Ohio Valley

By The Associated Press

A mass of cold air propelled by strong winds moved into the midcontinent today.

Minneapolis, Minn., had 33, chicago 36.

Many communities in the Ohio Valley also had readings in the 20s.

Strong winds over the Great Lakes brought gale warnings. The warning was lifted over Lake Michigan late Sunday night, but was still in effect over Lake Superior and Lake Huron.

The Weather Bureau predicted some rain or snow today from the northern Rockies eastward to the Upper Mississippi Valley, over the eastern Lake Superior area, western New York State and extreme northern New England. Rain also is forecast for the Gulf Coast area and southern Georgia.

cratic-controlled Congress lead them into a third party.

The convention urged that the national AFL-CIO "explore with other groups the possibility of calling a national conference of labor, farm and other liberal forces in the spring of 1960 prior to the convening of both party conventions."

Secretary - treasurer Emil Mazey joined Woodcock in advising against a movement for a third party. But Mazey's brother Ernest sided with the few who dissented.

"We ought to consider a party of laborers, farmers, Negroes and liberals," he declared.

Paul Silver, member of the resolutions committee, contended a third party would mean victory for the Republicans.

Woodcock said most of the northern Democrats stood by labor in test votes before recent passage of the labor reform bill. He accused President Eisenhower of mobilizing "all the reactionary sentiment to whip up the heat on Congress."

Stating that Sen. John Kennedy (D-Mass) and Sen. Patrick McNamara (D-Mich) helped modify the bill in committee, Woodcock said,

"Big business would like to see us turn against the Kennedys and the McNamaras and the people who have stood with us when the heat was on because it furthers their interest and it leads us down the road to defeat in 1960."

Escapee Shot to Death in Tree at South Lyon

SOUTH LYON—An escapee from the University of Michigan Research Center at Ann Arbor got himself into a real jam here over the weekend.

Authorities finally had to shoot him out of a tree. The unfortunate miscreant was dead on the scene.

Two hunters, William Berwick of Ecorse and Paul Drewyour of Allen Park, reported seeing him while hunting. Fowlerville conservation officer Jerry Russel set out for the capture.

Meanwhile, the escapee went to the home of Mrs. Fred Totysch of 67919 Eight-Mile Rd., and was lured inside when a housewife offered bread and jam.

But he took offense at being locked in a room and proceeded to tear the room apart.

The housewife shooed the malcontent from the house.

Russell, unable to capture the escapee alive, finally shot him from the tree.

"Enough monkeys," Mrs. Totysch vowed. She said she doesn't intend to entertain any more of the unappreciative beasts as her house guests.

Tiddly Wrangle Rages

CHICAGO (UPI)—The University of Chicago and Cambridge University are embroiled over who holds the world's tiddlywinks championship. The Chicagoans yesterday claimed an international victory by default after British tiddlywinks gladiators were unable to drum up travel expenses for a match. "Foul, foul, foul," cried the Cambridge club's secretary. "All our efforts to find sponsors have met with either a stony silence or a singular lack of enthusiasm."

State Highway Death Toll 12

Two Collisions Take 3 Each; 6-Year-Old Dies of Saturday Injuries

By The Associated Press

Two separate auto accidents claimed three lives each and brought Michigan's weekend traffic death toll to 12.

In addition, Henry Anthony, 6, of Detroit, died early this morning of injuries suffered Saturday when the small cart in which he was riding swerved into the street and was struck by a car; Mrs. Maude Carr, 64, of Monroe was killed in the crash of a private plane Saturday in Indiana, and Richard Losey, 11, and Roger Little, 9, both of Hudson, died Saturday in a gravel pit cave-in.

The Associated Press weekend traffic death count began at 6 p.m. Friday and ended at midnight Sunday.

Joyce LaPlante, 20, of Hazel Park, was killed Sunday in a two-car collision at the junction of M171 and M72.

Herbert Gilbert, 27, and Howard Sanford, 24, both of Chicago, and Jerry Potter, 17, of Wayne were killed Sunday when their car struck a bridge abutment over the Fawn River and plunged into five feet of water. The accident took place three miles east of White Pigeon.

Russell J. Crydeman, 69, of Armada, his wife, Doris, 68, and Harold Thompson, 39, of Port Huron, were killed in a two-car collision Friday night in St. Clair County. Police said Crydeman and his wife were in one auto and Thompson in the other.

Salvatore Soresi, 67, of Detroit, was struck and killed by an auto Sunday as he crossed a Detroit street.

Gerald Schneider, 21, of Detroit, was killed Sunday in a three-car collision on Detroit's Edsel Ford expressway.

Ruth Childs, 29, of Grand Rapids, was killed Sunday when the car in which she was riding ran off a road in Norman Township, Manistee County.

Charles Clifton, 6, of Port Huron, was killed Sunday when he was struck by a car in front of his home.

Max W. Banner, 22, of Flint, died Sunday night of injuries received the night before when his car crashed into a brick wall at the end of a dead-end street. Police said Banner had his lights out in an apparent effort to elude pursuing officers seeking to question him about speeding.

Urges U.S. End Veto on Court

Bar Association Sends Report on International Tribunal to Senate

CHICAGO (UPI) — The United States Senate has been urged to withdraw its "power of veto" over cases brought against the U.S. in the International Court of Justice.

An American Bar Assn. committee made the proposal yesterday in an 80-page report on the so-called Connally reservation of 1946, which gives the Senate the power to determine whether cases brought against the U.S. in the court are international or domestic in nature. The court has jurisdiction only over international cases.

The report had approval of the ABA Board of Governors.

Only 43 cases have been submitted to the court in 14 years, since other nations adopted similar reservations, the report said. France withdrew its veto last July, the committee poined out.

According to the report, withdrawal of the reservation by the U.S. would be "a major, practical and dramatic step towards the goal of the rule of law among nations."

The report added that "from a strictly selfish, economic point of view the United States should be doing all it can to strengthen international law and to advance, not discourage, means of enforcing international obligations."

Fears Censorship of All Entertainment

not appeared on the network since.

One pupose of the inquiry is to determine whether present law is adequate to assure viewers they will not be "deceived" in the future by quiz shows on which contestants have been supplied answers in advance.

SIMILAR TESTIMONY

Kintner's testimony was similar to that given Saturday by Chairman John C. Doerfer of the Federal Communications Commission (FCC). Doerfer expressed doubt that the FCC has authority to prevent quiz show fixing.

Kintner told the subcommittee:

"If the (Federal Trade) commission were to assert jurisdiction over entertainment, it would be difficult to draw the line where censorship would stop.

"We would have to investigate the true nature of wrestling and would end up with complete censorship of all entertainment. I don't think Congress intended that."

Kintner's reference to wrestling recalled testimony of some former contestants on television quiz shows. Asked if they felt that the fixing of the outcome of TV quiz shows was akin to the fixing of a football or basketball game, some witnesses said in their opinion it would be more similar to wrestling.

CORRECTS CHARGE

At least one state — Illinois—requires that wrestling matches be advertised as exhibitions, rather than contests.

Kintner corrected a statement, made in a letter to Harris earlier this month, that the FTC has never checked into alleged rigging of quiz shows.

He said he learned last Friday that the agency's New York office in December, 1956, did make an investigation at the staff level into one TV quiz show

He said the inquiry never came to the attention of the commission itself. It concerned charges by "a lady contestant" on "The Big Surprise" that operators of the show determined in pre-show warmups what questions she could not answer, so they could "choke her off" the program whenever they wished.

He said the investigators did not find substantial evidence to support the allegation. The program meanwhile went off the air. Producers of the show signed an affidavit saying they made no representation to the public that questions had not been seen in advance by contestants.

The Day in Birmingham

Oakland Policemen Shine in Annual Pistol Shoot

BIRMINGHAM — The body of a former employe of the Cranbrook School for Boys in Bloomfield Hills was recovered yesterday from Jonah Lake of the school grounds by skin divers of the Oakland County sheriff's department.

James Napier, 63, a boiler operator at the school for 15 years, was retired from his job Thursday because of ill health Bloomfield Hills police captain Walter Sluiter said.

When Napier, who lived at the school, disappeared for four days, his boss, Walter Powell, chief engineer at Cranbrook, started his own search.

Sunday morning while looking through the school grounds, he came across a red bedroom slipper floating in the man-made lake on Academy road.

He phoned police who in turn called skin divers from the sheriff's department.

They located Napier's body in 15 feet of water.

Police said the coroner's report showed death was due to drowning and that Napier had met no violence.

Police from 15 departments in Oakland County showed up at the Birmingham Police pistol range yesterday to show what they could do with a pistol and by some of the totals they showed they do all right.

The event, attended by 125 policemen, was the Second Annual South Oakland County Pistol Shoot.

When the smoke had cleared, the Oak Park police won the Class A team shooting match with 797 out of a possible 900 points.

Chief Ralph E. Moxley of the Birmingham Police Department took high honors with a 173 out of 200 when the chiefs of the departments had their own individual match.

Only eight chiefs from 15 departments showed up.

Larry Goldstien of the Oak Park police took individual high honors among the 125 with 277 out of 300.

Frank Rosemack, president of the Northwest Detroit Astronomical Assn., will report on the national convention of the association he attended recently in Boston at a meeting Thursday at 8 p.m. in the Cranbrook Institute of Science building.

The space age will be the theme at the Quarton School Fair to be held Oct. 16 from 3 to 7 p.m. at the school, Chesterfield and Oak streets.

"The Out of This World" fair will include movies, games, kiddie rides and a haunted house.

Handmade items will be sold at a gift shtp.

Hazel Park Woman Killed in Smashup

A Hazel Park woman was killed late Sunday in an auto collision at the intersection of M71 and M72 in Alcona County near Harrisville.

State Police said the victim, Joyce LaPlante, 20, of 1130 E. Otis St., ran a stop sign and hit an auto driven by Gene McIntyre, 35, of Lincoln.

McIntyre, his wife and three children were taken to Alpena General Hospital where their condition is reported as good today.

Also injured and hospitalized at Alpena were two passengers in the LaPlante car, Joyce Edward, 17, and Mary Kleha, 20. Their condition was reported as good today.

Pontiac PTA Starts Polio Clinics Today

This afternoon from 1 to 5 and again this evening from 6 to 8 the third series of polio clinics sponsored by the Pontiac PTA council will be conducted at Madison Junior High School.

Tuesday the shots will be given at Wilson School, Wednesday at Bethune School, and Thursday at Owen School.

Josephine Seeley, codirector of the clinics, said shots are administered for $1 each and people of all ages should receive them.

Finn Never Saw Radios, Cars

Hid 37 Years in Loft—Freed

HAMEENLINA, Finland (UPI) — Vaino J. Kilpinen, who deserted from the cavalry in 1921 because he was afraid of horses, is a free man once again after hiding out in a hayloft for 37 years to escape punishment.

The 58-year-old Finn, who had spent more than half his life in virtual solitary confinement, emerged from his self-imposed cell over the weekend when he learned that he no longer needed to fear prosecution.

A brother and sister who had been hiding him out since his parents died brought the news that the statute of limitations on desertion had expired.

Kilpinen appeared to be in generally good health, although he had had neither medical nor dental care during his years in hiding. He said he was plagued from time to time with rheumatic twinges and toothaches.

The family kept him supplied with newspapers, so he knew about Finland's two wars with Russia and other such current events as rockets. However, he had never seen a radio set, an automobile, or any of the other modern devices that came into use here during his long wait.

Kilpinen was only 20 when he was called for military service. He requested assignment to the infantry because he knew he'd never manage to stay on a horse, but he was sent to the Udenmaa Dragoons in April, 1921.

His worst forebodings about his ability as a horseman proved true. He went "over the hill" on May 18 and hiked home, begging food and clothing on the way.

In 1939, he watched his father's funeral through a crack in the wall, and five years later he saw his mother's body carried away. After that, the only persons who knew where he was were his brother Lauri and his sister Elli, who lived on the family farm.

Five other brothers and sisters who lived elsewhere were not let in on the secret.

In 1930, he was officially reported "missing and presumed dead"—one of the first details he had to straighten out when he decided to return to the land of the living.

TWA Seeks CAB OK on Florida-California Link

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Trans World Airlines bid today for a one-carrier route between Florida and California with a promise of jet-only service from Miami to Los Angeles or San Francisco.

E. O. Cocke, vice president and system general manager for TWA, testified before Civil Aeronautics Board (CAB) Examiner Edward Stodola who is holding hearings on the proposed Southern transcontinental route.

Seven airlines are bidding for the route, the last major air path still to be awarded by the CAB.

The route presently is served by four airlines each having a segment of the proposed route.

Will Skim Above Water

Chaser to Out-Speed Subs

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Navy said today its long-legged hydrofoil sub-chaser being built to skim over the water at more than 50 miles an hour could outspeed any submarine likely to be launched for many years.

Top speed for nuclear submarines is less than 30 miles an hour. The 185-ton hydrofoil chaser will be capable of at least 45 knots, or a little less than 52 miles an hour. Maximum speed of the radically new vessel would be even faster.

Rear Adm. Ralph James, chief of the Navy's Bureau of Ships, said submarines eventually would be built that could move faster than any surface ship.

The hydrofoil is a "rudder on stilts," like an airplane wing, that remains below the surface while the entire hull of the vessel rises out of the water at high speeds.

PROPELLERS ON STILTS

The ship's twin propellers also are on stilts.

A companion Navy project is a "ground effect machine," or aeroskimmer, which will fly at an altitude of a few feet over either land or water.

Officials said skimmers eventually are expected to reach speeds 12 times that of sound (more than 9,000 miles an hour.).

But James said it may be many years before all the bugs are worked out of that system.

The hydrofoil submarine chaser, sometimes called the "grasshopper" because of its stilt-like legs, for which Congress voted $3,700,000, is expected to be completed in 25 to 28 months.

The first of the chasers will be 80 feet long, and will carry torpedoes, depth charges and machine guns.

The ship is designed for harbor and coastal patrol not more than 250 miles off shore.

Sen. Kennedy to Delay Decision Until January

BOSTON (UPI)—U. S. Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) plans to "fish" until the end of the year, delaying his decision on seeking the Democratic presidential nomination until January.

The senator resorted to an old proverb—which he rephrased slightly—to tell about 1,000 cheering labor leaders attending the Massachusetts State Labor Council convention of his political intentions.

"There's a time to sow and a time to reap," he said. "There's a time to fish and a time to cut bait. I believe this is the time to fish and January 1960 the time to cut bait."

Thousands Jam Church for Mario Lanza Rites

ROME (UPI) — Four jet-black horses drew the hearse of American tenor Mario Lanza in a traditional Italian funeral procession that blocked traffic for half a mile.

About 3,000 persons jammed the Roman Catholic Church of the Immaculate Heart of Mary for the funeral service for the singer who died of a heart attack Wednesday at the age of 38.

Lanza's grief-stricken widow, the former Betty Hicks, had to be supported by friends.

Slate Tugboat Race

DETROIT (UPI) — Fourteen tugboats are expected to vie next Saturday in the 10th annual International Tugboat Race on the Detroit River. It will culminate the convention of the Propeller Club of the United States.

High Court Gets Labor Decision

Georgia Court Ruled Union Shops Illegal if Dues Used in Politics

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court today agreed to review a decision that compulsory union membership is unconstitutional if dues money is used for political purposes without the consent of union members.

The decision was given by the Georgia Supreme Court in a suit by six employes of the Southern Railway System.

It was appealed to the highest tribunal by 15 unions, among them railroad brotherhoods at whose insistence union shop contracts have been signed by many railways.

Under union shop contracts, employes are required to join unions within a specified time. In the Georgia case this was 60 days.

The six Southern Railway System employes said they did not want to join unions and should not be forced to pay dues when part of the money was used to support political candidates and doctrines they opposed.

A time for argument of the case before the highest court will be set later.

The issue is one of far-reaching import. If the Supreme Court agrees with the Georgia court, unions could not use any general funds for political activities, or else they would have to give up the union shop.

Detroit Ship Smoke Code to High Court

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Supreme Court agreed today to consider whether Detroit's anti-smoke ordinance is unconstitutional.

The court will schedule arguments in its current term and hand down a written opinion later.

Huron Portland Cement Co. attacked provisions of the ordinance which seek to regulate the amount of smoke emitted by Great Lakes ships passing Detroit.

The firm, which operates four steamships and one motor vessel, said this conflicts with the constitutional provisions conferring on Congress the authority to regulate interstate commerce.

Its petition said the cost of converting Great Lakes steam vessels to the type of equipment needed to comply with the Detroit ordinance would be "almost fantastic."

High Court Upholds Integration Order

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Supreme Court rejected today an appeal by the Prince Edward County, Va., school board from an order which demanded that its schools be desegregated in September of this year.

The court's brief order leaves standing a decision to this effect by the Fourth U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals last May 5.

Meantime, public schools in the county are closed because of the racial controversy.

State Government Employment Drops

LANSING (AP) — Employment in state government dropped 560 in one year—about 1.7 per cent—under an austerity program ordered by Gov. Williams last year, Lt. Gov. John B. Swainson reported today.

Swainson, acting governor during Williams' trip abroad, said employment rolls dropped from 33,153 to 32,593 in the fiscal year that needed last July.

The annual saving amounts to more than $250,000 a year.

"This reduction was achieved by not filling many positions which became vacant," Swainson said.

Third Straight Polaris Test Launching Fails

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —An advance test version of the Navy's Polaris submarine missile was launched today but apparently failed to achieve all its objectives because of a malfunction in the second stage. This is the third straight Polaris test failure.

The second stage ignited on schedule 55 seconds after launch, but burned for only about eight seconds — considerably shorter than normal. There was no immediate report on what went wrong.

Inmate Runs and Runs

DOVER, England (UPI) — Inmate James Wilson, 20, excelled yesterday when reformatory officials took a group of boys on a cross-country run. At last report, police were still running after Wilson.

Decision Canceling NAACP Fine Final

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Supreme Court refused today to reconsider an earlier decision setting aside for the second time a $100,000 contempt fine levied by Alabama in 1956 against the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People.

Alabama's Atty. Gen. MacDonald Gallion asked the high court to look at the case again on the ground that the position of the state had been "inadvertently misstated."

The fine was first imposed in Montgomery County Court when the NAACP refused to produce, among other things, a list of its members in Alabama. The demand was made during a lawsuit by the attorney general to oust the organization from the state. This suit is still pending.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY, QUADS! — The Ullman quadruplets of Clawson are quietly celebrating their first birthday today with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Ullman, their brother Charles, 3, and sister Louise, 2. They had their big birthday party last week when the Ullmans left their home at 538 Hendrickson St. for a visit to Alanson, a tiny village north of Petoskey, and where the father comes from originally. The whole village turned out to make it a civic holiday.

American tourists spent 300 million dollars in Mexico and an equal amount in Canada in 1958—more than in any other foreign country. Next came Italy, followed by France and Great Britain.

Guilty in Shooting of Frankfort Officer

BEULAH (AP) — Retired lumber dealer Henry Nielsen was convicted of felonious assault yesterday and sentenced to prison for a term of up to four years.

A jury of nine men and three women returned the verdict in the shooting and wounding of policeman Donald Moore of Frankfort July 29 at the home of Nielsen's former wife, Signe.

Moore, 35, was at the Frankfort home at the time in answer to a call from Mrs. Nielsen for protection from her ex-husband.

In an exchange of gunfire, both Moore and Nielsen, 49, were wounded, the latter slightly. Moore was hospitalized and has yet to return to duty.

Jewish Community Observes Yom Kippur

Pontiac's Jewish community observes the most important and sacred holiday of the Jewish year today.

Yom Kippur—the Day of Atonement—is the climax of 10 penitential days which mark the beginning of the Jewish New Year.

It is a time of confession, prayer, contrition and fasting. No other holiday is observed with such reverent devotion.

As the High Holy days draw to a close, we greet those of the Jewish faith in Pontiac with a Hebrew expression:

May you be inscribed in the Book of Life for a happy and prosperous year!

CENTO Countries Meet in Washington

When Iraq quit the Baghdad Pact in July 1958 after the military coup there, the organization lost its headquarters and breakup of the alliance was fully expected.

But by a series of political and propaganda moves the organization was bolstered and the name changed to the Central Treaty Organization (CENTO). While the United States is not formally a member with Turkey, Iran, Pakistan and Britain, it has joined the pact's economic and military committees and the Committee to Fight Subversion.

This country also has agreed to undertake the same obligations as full members "for security and defense." Separate agreements have been signed with Iran, Turkey and Pakistan. Both the United States and Britain have bases in the area to complement the military establishments of these other countries.

CENTO ministers are now meeting in Washington to discuss the strengthening of the 3,000 mile defense line on Russia's southwest border. U.S. economic aid to Turkey, Iran and Pakistan for the year ending June 30, was $470 million, mostly for highways and for a survey of a proposed railroad from eastern Turkey to Western Iran. The present railroad runs across Iraq and Syria and could be cut off by either Gen. KASSEM or Col. NASSER.

Moscow is pressuring the Shah of Iran to abandon the railway project and to build a new line to the Soviet Caucasus. This certainly would make Iran neutral in the cold war.

Growing fears that Communists may take over in Iraq coupled with Moscow's determination to crush CENTO are giving much needed nourishment to the organization.

South America Plans for Its Common Market

Within a few months the Central American Common Market will become a reality. Brazil has taken the lead in this start toward cooperation and erasing trade barriers on that continent.

A preparatory committee is laying the groundwork for the new Inter-American Development Bank and is awaiting approval by the 21 member nations. Another step has been taken in the signing by 17 Latin American and African coffee producing countries of an international coffee agreement. This will tend to stabilize prices.

Each country has its own particular problems in reaching closer economic ties with the others. A recent meeting in Uruguay of seven South American nations emphasizes the fact. Some of them have multiple exchange controls while others have convertible currencies. The task is to reconcile the various monetary systems. Another difficulty concerns the already developed and protected industries within those countries.

The Development Bank will also help diversify production so that the economy of each country no longer will be so dependent on one product such as coffee, iron ore, oil, wheat or beef.

Latin America is a vast and rich country. Any sound plan to stabilize its economy and raise living standards should have hearty support.

IF YOU believe extremely old people have nothing to look forward to and live for, you are mistaken in at least one case, that of a 99-year-old Englishman in fair health whom an undertaker promised a free funeral if he lives to be older than 100.

Autumn Foliage Displays Follow That in Our Area

Dieting: When you learn that where there isn't a will there's a weigh.

Regardless of the publicity put out by some of the tourist bureaus and other organizations, (which probably was written last summer,) Michigan's usually colorful autumn display is generally disappointing. It simply lacks the rainbow tints of the average year.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Feldsworth

From Petoskey comes a post card from

Mrs. Graham Selleck

of Drayton Plains, which says, "We came up here to see their widely heralded fall colors, but cannot find them."

And a letter from my good friend, of Alpena, says they have nothing better than he saw on a visit around Pontiac a few days ago.

Everett Colwell

However, now comes a card from

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Flewelling, sojourning in the Blue Ridge Mountains of Virginia, who say the autumn colors are gorgeous in the extreme.

Only 127 of the original 4,129 entries remain in our football contest after the two games on its schedule over the weekend. They picked Waterford to win over Pontiac Northern, and Texas to beat Oklahoma. They divide their predictions on next Friday's game: Pontiac, 90; Saginaw, 36; tie game, 1.

Doing business out of season with a vengeance is of 320 East Square Lake Road, who picked 17 quarts of red raspberries from his bushes in one day last week.

of Rochester, who wonders if it isn't somebody's escaped pet.

Our hibernators are taking up their winter's sleep early, according to

of Cass Lake, who found a dozen garter snakes snuggled together two feet underground, when doing some digging Friday, and of Rochester reports that his pet woodchuck doesn't come out of his subterranean home for his usual feeding any more. It usually is around Nov. 1 when he goes on his long sleep.

"Humiliatin'—Th' Driver Ain't Even a Teamster"

David Lawrence Says:

Vote Cheers U.S. Conservatives

WASHINGTON — Naturally the conservatives in the United States can derive much satisfaction from the victory of the Conservatives in the British elections. Conservatives in both the Republican and Democratic parties in America can rejoice.

LAWRENCE

For conservatism in Britain triumphed against radicalism — against an experimentation with the national economy and the fiscal structure that threatened serious disturbance to business.

Certainly there are parallels between what has happened in England and the political trend in this country. There are important implications that can be read into the future.

For the Socialist Labor Party in Britain is composed of two factions—just as is the Democratic Party in the United States. One faction in the British Labor Party is conservative, just as are the Southern Democrats in America.

The other faction in the Labor Party is radical, with a strong labor union backing, like the so-called "liberals" in the Democratic Party in the North here. This lack of unity hurt the British Labor Party with the independent voter.

Many a worker with allegiance to his labor union declined to tell the pollsters how he was going to vote. The "don't knows" often know very well how they intend to vote but simply refuse to disclose their secret.

The basic factors in the British election last week were the same as has been experienced in America in other elections. These are the factor of contentment on the economic side and the factor of peace in international relations.

STABILIZING

England has been recovering steadily from the war years and has managed to handle its budgetary affairs efficiently. Unemployment has been kept down, and the price structure has been held to a stable level.

Under such circumstances, the voters say, "Why change?" The British Conservative leaders "offered" the voters good times and peace. They promised that these would continue to be their goals. Everyone realizes, of course, that peace is a two-sided affair and that another country can upset it, but fundamentally the party in power promises to do all it can to forward the cause of peace.

Thus, Prime Minister Macmillan's trip to see Khrushchev in Moscow, followed as it was by the Soviet Premier's visit to the United States, put the Conservative Party in Britain in the position of striving earnestly to find some way out of the deadlock in world affairs.

The fact that Prime Minister Macmillan is so friendly with President Eisenhower and has been able to restore the good relations between America and Britain which prevailed before the Suez tragedy helped the Conservatives to gain the confidence of the British people and to win votes. America's good will is important to Britain's trade and to her defense.

SOUNDNESS WINS

But, broadly speaking, the election was a triumph for sound fiscal policies and conservative programs in the British government. In America the Republican Party is characterized by the Democrats as being "the party of business."

The Republicans could well retort that this is true up to a point—that the Republicans have always striven to be "the party of good business." And that's what the Democratic Party might well try to make its objective, too.

For, after all is said and done, unemployment loses elections for the party in power. The recent recession lost Congress for the Republicans in 1958, but there have been evidences in the last few months that "peace and prosperity" is improving Republican chances for 1960.

Politics are the same the world over in democracies. The issues revolve around the well-being of the people—their domestic problems and their apprehensions on the international side.

The Country Parson

"A man's character, like rich top soil, can erode so gradually you don't notice until it's gone."

Dr. William Brady Says:

Folk With Stiff Joints Only Need to Eat Right

"Over a year ago I was badly crippled with stiff and painful joints," writes a Nebraska reader. "Had difficulty getting up from sitting and could hardly get out of bed without help. My fingers were so stiff they would hardly bend.

DR. BRADY

"I called a doctor and took a quantity of his medicine, but got very little help. (E. L. R.)"

(E.L.R.'s letter is most remarkable—from beginning to end she does not inform me that her trouble is "arthritis." She doesn't call it rheumatism or look down her nose at me and explain "rheumatiz, as you call it."

But with all the data I have, viz., joints stiff and painful for a year of more, I can only surmise that the lady has degeneration of joint tissues, which is the usual cause of chronic joint disability.)

As E.L.R. was saying when she was so rudely interrupted:

"I sent for your booklets and pamphlets —"

(Namely,

WHEAT TO EAT
THE IODIN RATION
YOUNG FOLKS AND OLD FOLKS

Anyone of these pamphlets is free if you provide stamped, self-addressed envelope. Enclose 10 cents in addition for each extra pamphlet.

THE CALCIUM SHORTAGE
THE 7 KEYS TO VITE
CHRONIC JOINT DISABILITY

For any one of these booklets send me 35 cents and stamped, self-addressed envelope.)

"— and I have been taking calcium, vitamin D, vitamin B complex and iodin for more than a year and have found much relief. I can get up and down easily now and can shut my hands and grasp things . . .

"I know that I did not drink enough milk in my younger days. I now drink three glasses of milk daily as well as use other milk products, butter, cheese, etc. (E.L.R.)"

Unlike many victims of degeneration of joint tissues, E.L.R. evidently understands clearly that the remedies I recommend for chronic joint disability are nutritional and not medicinal, and so she takes them not for a few weeks but the year around.

In most instances it is foolish to hope for any lasting cure or even benefit from treatment of chronic joint disability with medicine, old or new.

You will notice, I hope, that E.L.R. does not call her joint disability "arthritis." She doesn't call it anything but "stiff and painful joints."

I suggest that 10 million persons with degeneration of joint tissues could learn something to their advantage from E.L.R. if they were not so obsessed with "arthritis."

Signed letters not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Are You Introvert or Extrovert?

Notice how Mrs. Crane jolted my introvertive outlook the first day after our wedding. And then test yourself by the items listed below. Are you an introvert or an extrovert? Most people are in-betweeners, called "ambiverts". Then send for the booklet below. It is great fun for parties.

By GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE C—467: The first morning after Mrs. Crane and I were married, I reached for my new tube of toothpaste as I got ready to brush my teeth.

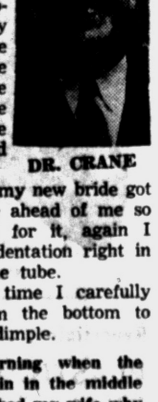
To my surprise, I found it with a deep dimple right in the middle of the tube.



DR. CRANE

"Cora must have dropped it," I thought.

Then, as an introvertive research psychologist, I dutifully squeezed the tube from the bottom to force out the dimple and made the tube nice and smooth again.

But that night my new bride got to the toothpaste ahead of me so when I reached for it, again I found a deep indentation right in the middle of the tube.

For a second time I carefully squeezed it from the bottom to erase that ugly dimple.

But next morning when the dimple was again in the middle of the tube, I asked my wife why she didn't neatly squeeze it from the bottom.

"What's the difference?" she pertly exclaimed.

And I tried in vain to argue that it looked better to work from the bottom but she laughed off my logic.

Being an extrovert, she grabs a new tube even to this day and will dimple it at the top or middle in preference to the bottom.

And I must confess, after 30 odd years of ineffective arguments, I have found myself mutilating a fresh tube of toothpaste that same way!

INTROVERTS vs. EXTROVERTS

My wife was the middle child, so she was extroverted early in life.

But I was the oldest, so developed as a typical introvert.

You are thus not "born" with your personality but acquire it after birth.

And whether you are shy, and inclined to be a day dreamer versus a happy-go-lucky salesman type, such as the Prodigal Son, depends very largely on your sequence in the family.

If two children of the same sex are only a year or two apart in age, the older is more likely to be the introvert.

He is dutiful and shy, more independent and less likely to ask a favor.

The younger child is more sociable and the easy talker. He doesn't mind pushing doorbells in house-to-house selling.

If the older boy carries a newspaper route, on Saturday he may take his younger brother along to do the collecting for the papers, since the older boy hesitates to approach his customers face to face and ask them to pay their bill.

PARTY GAMES

Introverts prefer to work with tools or inanimate objects, so they are usually machinists, chemists, engineers, farmers, etc. As hobbies, they collect stamps or old coins and in childhood amuse themselves with chemistry sets.

The extrovert likes people, so prefers work at the information desk or as a hostess or salesman. As a hobby, he may collect autographs, for that involves meeting people and talking to them.

But an introvert can train himself to become a good salesman if he wishes, though he suffers more humiliation when a door is slammed in his face.

As a dandy party game, send for my "Vocational Guidance Kit," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents (non-profit).

It includes a "Test for Introverts vs. Extroverts" plus other Rating Scales for use at school or church parties.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 4c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Voice of the People

Naval Commander Offers Answer to Flag Questions

In reply to recent questions, in the Armed Services specific regulations govern flag etiquette, many of which apply to civilian life. However, even in services, rules do not agree at all times.

The Navy displays the flag from 0800 to sunset except in special circumstances when a ship is at sea; on the other hand, the Army generally displays the colors from sunrise to 1700. Except for such minor variations, the general rules apply, and should be used in civilian life.

They are set forth in the Flag Code adopted at the National Flag Conference in Washington in 1923 and revised at the second Flag Conference in 1924. The code is a formulation of customs and conventions gained from best usage and expert authority. They're not statutes and therefore not enforceable.

I'm not acquainted with the specific situation at Wisner Stadium, but I've noted that most public high schools do raise the flag before football games. When the National Anthem is played, spectators stand and face the flag, or if there is no flag, they should face in the direction of the music. The players do the same. Many parochial schools observe the same ceremonies as public schools.

When the National Anthem is heard in the home over TV or radio, one should tender respect by ceasing all conversation and sit or stand quietly until it's finished. It is not considered necessary to rise on this occasion.

'$3 Million a Month Is Quite a Racket'

So the UAW needs more money? There are 1,143,707 members at $3.00 a person and you get $3,431,121. Add an extra $1.00 per person and you get $4,574,828 a month.

In June they admit to having $24,975,231.67 and in three months have collected $10,293,363. Subtract the $10,000,000 paid out in the first six months and you have $25,268,594.67. How much has been paid to steel strikers? I'll use the figure $10 million as that should be ample.

Now we have a union that wants $5.00 a head or $5,718,535 a month, almost six million. That, dear friends, is quite a racket. How many people are on the payroll to count all this loot? Oh, the union is a fine thing. I'm just feeling sorry for poor Mr. Reuther being so underpaid. Imagine getting less than $2,000 a month when his boys take in over $3 million. Tut, tut.

'Hurray for Parents for Teaching You'

Concerning the child who planted and cared for 22 pumpkins all summer and then had them all taken but one, I don't know the answer either, but it's old history that pumpkins are often planted in the corn. Surely that is a good combination for pigs. Hurray for your parents for not wanting you to be one.

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

But Paul said, "I am not mad, most excellent Festus, but I am speaking the sober truth."—Acts 26:25.

Keep one thing forever in view—the truth; and if you do this, though it may seem to lead you away from the opinion of men, it will assuredly conduct you to the throne of God.—Horace Mann.

Criticizes Police Record Inefficiency

We've suffered embarrassment for three years because eight years ago a man gave our address as his when picked up for stealing. He was sent to prison, and when he was released, we were again bothered.

Our neighbors are being asked personally and by phone what kind of people we are, our phone rings constantly and our children are bothered by questions. We don't even know the man. Each time stories appeared in the papers, officers were supposed to issue retractions, but this hasn't been done.

One of our daughters is a Girl Scout, another a Brownie, another in the church girls' club, our son belongs to Boys' Club and church choir, my husband is a police reserve officer, I'm a housewife who's always home when my family comes home, we have two pre-school children and my husband and I have never even gotten a parking ticket. We pay taxes that help pay wages of some official who isn't doing his or her job checking on correct addresses of convicts.

Sees Seaway Jam When Steel Mills Roll

DETROIT (AP)—If a back-to-work order breaks the nation's steel strike, it may create a monumental shipping jam on the Great Lakes as mills rush to replenish iron ore supplies.

Should most of the 243 American ore carriers be restored to service immediately they would jam up at the Soo Locks sailing to and from Lake Superior ore docks. They also would crowd harbors around the lakes.

Additional ships could be expected to come up the St. Lawrence River with Labrador ore.

Albion to Mark Historical Events on Wednesday

ALBION (UPI) — Three important events in the history of Albion will be commemorated by the Albion Historical Society next Wednesday.

Markers will be dedicated to the founding of Albion College in 1835, the composing of the hymn "The Old Rugged Cross" by the late George Bennard, one-time Albion resident; and the composing of "The Sweetheart of Sigma Chi" by F. Human Rights Report Is Against Segregation in Public Places

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republicans called Saturday for the complete elimination of racial segregation in public places. They set this as a high priority goal requiring a cooperative effort by government at all levels.

In a wide-ranging report on "human rights and needs," a task force of the Republican committee on program and progress also recommended that the nation:

1. Increase its current public and private expenditures of 20 billion dollars annually on education to 50 billion by 1976.

2. Expand the flow of mortgage credits for housing and try to find ways to finance an increasing number of trade-ins of older homes.

3. Boost national medical research spending to a billion dollars yearly by 1965, with the government bearing half the cost.

4. Make pensions and seniority rights transferrable so that union members and management executives could change jobs if they chose.

5. Reshape welfare services and strengthen public assistance program "so as to provide help for any person who is hungry, homeless, disabled or sick, while at the same time preventing a further increase in the federal share of support. . . ."

6. Provide for the rehabilitation of 90,000 disabled persons next year in a continuously accelerating program.

The report, one of a series being published by a 44-member committee headed by Charles H. Percy of Chicago, was written by a task force captained by Miss Bertha Adkins, Undersecretary of Health, Education and Welfare.

In its discussion of the politically touchy civil rights issue, the task force avoided specific recommendations fro new legislation. Another civil rights battle is expected to explode in the Senate by mid-February.

Man Set to Gun Down 7 Stopped, Admits 3 Killings

JERSEYVILLE, Ill. (AP) — A third cold-blooded murder has been admitted by James Palmer, 21, recent bridegroom, ex-soldier and former bellhop.

Palmer, gaunt, mild-mannered and red-haired, was captured Saturday after breaking into a Jerseyville cement plant and holding eight men at bay with a rifle for an hour and a half. He got $2,000 in the plant and told the eight he was going to shoot seven of them and take owner Louis Gorman hostage.

But Palmer glanced away for a moment and Gorman, husky Jerseyville police commissioner, slapped the rifle away and knocked Palmer down.

Palmer confessed, apparently without remorse, the killing of Thomas L. Nelson, 40, proprietor of a St. Louis County, Mo., bait and tackle shop, Sept. 12, and a waitress, Hazel Riley, in nearby Wood River, Ill., Sept. 15.

Sunday night he said to Deputy Sheriff Mel Leach, "I think there is something else I ought to tell you."

He said he shot a filling station attendant in Humboldt, Tenn., on Sept. 24. A telephone check disclosed that a Billy Marshall, 22, was found shot to death in a Humboldt filling station Sept. 24.

All three persons were shot in the back of the head with .22-caliber weapons. Nelson and Mrs. Riley were each shot six times with a semi-automatic rifle. Palmer said he used a semi-automatic pistol on Marshall.

He got less than $300 from the three. Police said Mrs. Riley apparently was raped, but Palmer denied raping her.

Wood River police questioned and released Palmer a few days after Mrs. Riley's body was found on a lonely country road.

He and his bride, Naomi, 16, then went on a trip that took them to Kentucky, the Southwest and California.

When they returned last Thursday night he saw two policemen watching his rooming house here and fled. During a hunt for him he shot and wounded two persons.

Palmer has been charged with murder in the slaying of Mrs. Riley. He also faces two counts of assault with intent to kill and a charge of armed robbery.

Son of Envoy Goes Free After Beating Officer

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The son of the Irish ambassador beat up a policeman here over the weekend but got away scot free because he's protected by diplomatic immunity, police said today.

Two American companions of David Hearne, 21, who allegedly cheered him on in the fight outside a local nightspot Saturday night, were charged with disorderly conduct.

John Joseph Hearne, Irish Ambassador to the United States, had to come down to a precinct police station to get his son released in his custody.

Officer Joseph T. Roberts, eighth precinct clerk, said young Hearne has been "quite a frequent visitor" to the station over the past three or four years because of various scrapes with the law.

Foreign Food Scarce

BURLINGTON, Vt. (UPI)—Alan McKibben, 17, back from a trip around the world in 40 days as a delegate to the Boy Scout World Jamboree said "the only trouble was that wherever we went they treated us like Americans. They tried to give us American food like ham and eggs for breakfast. We practically lived on sodas."

France Offers Rebels Cease-Fire Parley

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — Arab sources say France appears to have gone a small step farther toward settlement of the Algerian rebellion by offering to negotiate a cease-fire with the rebel National Liberation Front.

Arabs at U.N. headquarters said the statement by French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville on a television interview Sunday was the first such French offer recognizing the FLN to the point of calling it by name.

In Tunis, there was no comment from FLN leaders who have formed the rebel provisional government in exile. A member of provisional Premier Ferhat Abbas' household refused to put newsmen in touch with the rebel chief.

Doesn't Pay to Play Footsy With Firemen

DETROIT (AP) — Policeman, save my shoes.

Patrolman Raymond Bizensky did. And two young brothers, 10 and 12, learned it doesn't pay to play footsy with a fireman.

Capt. Charles Carpenter of the suburban Highland Park Fire Department wore his new $9 shoes to work yesterday. When an alarm rang, he didn't have time to change to his fire boots until he reached the blazing building.

He kicked off his shoes and left them on the sidewalk. The brothers spied them, grabbed them and sold them for 75 cents to a nearby shoe store.

But fires draw spectators and one was more interested in the shoes than the flames. He told Birzensky, who recovered the footwear in time for the captain to wear them home.

The boys were turned over to their parents to await a juvenile hearing.

Fire Sweeps Telephone Exchange at Willow Run

YPSILANTI (AP) — Fire swept through the telephone exchange room at Willow Run Airport today, impairing communication to and from the field for several hours.

Michigan Bell Telephone Co. spokesmen said the blaze was confined to the exchange room, located on the airport terminal's fourth floor. No one was injured.

Bereaved Ohioan Wants New Family

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — "We will raise another family," Pablo Cerda assured his wife, Virginia —who is expecting a baby this week — after her four children died Sunday when fire swept through treir apartment here.

The youngsters' grandfather, Ervin Ben Oliver, 45, was jailed for investigation of possible manslaughter charges after authorities said they learned he had fallen asleep on a downstairs couch with a lighted cigarette. Firemen said the blaze which swept through the two-floor brick flat originated in the couch.

Murderer of 3 Caught as He Stops at Diner

SPOKANE, Wash. (AP) — Edmund Gray, so ambitious that he once held two jobs while attending college, was arrested on a murder charge Sunday, caught when he paused for his first meal in 56 hours.

Gray, 20, accused of killing his wife and her parents with a rifle after she sued for divorce, was captured in an all-night cafe at Ritzville, 70 miles away.

Cold, dirty and soaked by heavy rain, he claimed to be a sailor on leave, then tearfully admitted he was the object of one of the year's biggest manhunts in easatern Washington.

He told police he roamed the hills and had nothing to eat for more than 56 hours after the wild shooting spree at the home of his in-laws, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Maier, early Thursday night at nearby Colbert.

The shooting shocked his mother, his neighbors and friends who knew him as an intelligent young fellow who worked his way through high school by fixing up old cars, and took two jobs at once while studying business and economics at Whitworth College.

He married Donna Rae Maier two years ago, saved his money and bought a house. She worked days in an office, he worked nights in a service station. Gray kept close tabs on every penny. One day she subscribed to a magazine without telling him.

"It caused quite a fuss," said officer Walt Mathers of the state patrol. "I was called to investigate and found she had welts on her back. He had beat her with a belt. He was mad about the money."

She sued for divorce last month and moved in with her parents. Armed with a rifle, Gray went there after dinner Thursday night. He told police he "just went berserk." Mrs. Gray, 19, was shot with a .30-caliber rifle and stabbed six times in the back.

Vision Seen at Church in Warsaw

WARSAW (AP)—Tens of thousands gathered Sunday night around a shabby Roman Catholic church on the fringe of the Warsaw ghetto waiting to see a madonna-like vision at the top of the church steeple.

In hushed reverence, the crowd waited, but no one reported seeing the vision against the cloudy sky. Some observers suggested the reported figure might have been the result of a freakish reflection of light from the moon on clearer nights.

The figure — miracle or phenomena — was vouched for by Western diplomats and other foreigners.

"It was fantastic," said Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan, who with his wife went to the church Saturday night.

"I've never seen anything like it before in my life," said Mrs. Williams.

Roman Catholic Church authorities could not be reached for official comment, but several priests referred to the incident in their sermons.

The parish priest of St. Augustine's spoke of the "lights on our church tower" but cautioned against "coming to hasty conclusions."

$100,000 in Furs Stolen From Shop

DETROIT (AP) — Mink stoles, capes and coats valued at $100,000 were stolen in a weekend burglary of a fur shop in suburban Grosse Pointe Woods.

Police said the burglars made off with 50 furpieces after breaking into the shop through the wall of an adjoining store.

The theft at Kay Anos Fur Co. was discovered yesterday by Anos' son-in-law, John Koemer, 32, who came in to clean the floors.

A hole had been cut into the fur vault from an adjoining insurance agency which the thieves had broken into earlier. They escaped through a rear door.

New Governors Energetic

South Is Rising Again

For proof of this you need look no further than the 25th annual Southern Governors Conference now in progress here. Most of the chief executives are young, energetic men, well aware of the problems that confront their fast-growing area.

They are, in the words of Florida's Gov. Leroy Collins, a new type . . . men who have become "aware of the importance of an extrovert quality."

A governor can no longer just preside over a static economy, he said. "He's got to give it leadership."

From boyish-looking Ernest Hollings of South Carolina to gray-haired Luther H. Hodges of North Carolina, the prediction was the same:

"The next generations belong to the south." We've got the leadership and the brains."

Hollings said "the southern governor today is a far cry from the colonel sitting on the veranda sipping a mint julep." Taking the place of the stereotype is a new chief executive, a man in a hurry. He wants to keep his state in the race to develop its economy.

Undercover Pics to Bring Check on 'Model' Jail

KARLSTAD, Sweden (UPI)—The highest authority in the Swedish prison system has ordered an investigation of conditions in the penitentiary here, it was learned today.

It was in the Karlstad Penitentiary that it was discovered last week an inmate had conducted a "modeling school." The operation included taking seminude pictures of female visitors. One 16-year-old "model" claimed she had become pregnant during a "lesson."

Meanwhile it was learned that the inmate had complained to the same authority that his camera had been confiscated, forcing him to give up his work. He said this resulted in heavy financial losses to him.

6 Rescued After Wind on Lakes Causes Trio of Accidents

DETROIT (AP) — A duck hunter who was stranded on a buoy in the Detroit River was among six persons rescued yesterday in three boat accidents on wind-swept Lakes Erie and St. Clair.

Edward L. DuPriest, 33, of Ecorse was duck hunting in the Point Mouillee area of Lake Erie when wind drove his boat two miles off shore.

He jumped to a buoy at the mouth of the Detroit River from which he was rescued by a Grosse Ile Naval Air Station crash boat.

A father and son were picked up by a helicopter from the air station when their boat started taking in water while they were fishing in the Pointe Mouillee area.

RESCUED BY CRUISER

They were William F. Pospeshil, 44, and his son Frank W., 17, of East Rockwood, whose 14-foot craft was swamped by four-foot waves.

Three young engineering students hunting ducks off Strawberry Island in Lake St. Clair spent 10 minutes clinging to their overturned outboard before being rescued by a cabin cruiser operated by Gerald Fought of Mt. Clemens.

The trio, all from the University of Detroit, were Gerald Crowe, 25, and Denver Rocker, 24, both of Detroit; and Chester Michalski, 22, of Brooklyn.

Police Arrest Pilot Following Car Buzzing Bee

MIDLAND (AP) — A Belding man faces a possible reckless flying charge in the airplane buzzing of highways in the Grand Rapids, Midland and Bay City areas.

Virgil Hysell, 42, was arrested in Bay City and turned over to Midland officers by State Police.

Officers said a small plane forced several cars off the road while buzzing highways Saturday night and nearly hit the state police radio tower at Bay City.

They said that at one point the plane came in for a landing at the Midland Airport to refuel but took off again, narrowly missing a police cruiser rushing to the scene.

Troy Bonds OK'd by 13-Vote Edge

TROY — A scant majority of 13 votes spelled the difference between victory and defeat of a $2.3 million school bond issues which passed 583 to 570 Saturday in Troy.

The issue, designed to provide additional facilities for an increased student enrollment, drew 1,153 voters to the polls.

This is the second time in recent years the school electorate has been asked to approve a bond issue for expansion of school facilities in the district. The first building proposal was defeated in October last year by 88 votes.

Under the approved bonding program, taxpayers will be assessed $4.51 per $1,000 of assessed valuation for the first year and slightly less in each ensuing year until the bond issue is paid off in 25 to 30 years.

Of the total amount of the bond issue about $1,326,000 will be used to build additions to the high school.

The rest is earmarked to cover cost of construction of six elementary school projects including a new grade school for the north central section of the city to relieve overcrowding at Niles, Troy Union and Colerain schools.

Other improvements will include an addition of 10 new classrooms, a multipurpose room, library, clinic and office to Morse School, two classrooms plus music and special education rooms at Poppleton School and improved sewage treatment and storage facilities there.

At Big Beaver School, the sewage treatment and the heating plant in the old section of the school will be renovated and heating plant alterations will be made in the old section of Niles School.

Building repairs and additions will be made at the high school to house 600 more students, including the ninth grade from the junior high school.

WILL RELIEVE CROWDING

This move will relieve overcrowding in both the junior and senior high school, Superintendent of Schools Rex Smith said.

Enrollment in the Troy School District is expected to increase from 3,513 today to 4,500 by 1964 based on present figures and on the school census taken last May.

County Farmers Plan Corn Day

Kessler Fields to Host Study of Growth; Air Rides Available

Oakland County farmers will participate in a Corn Field Day and air tour Wednesday it was announced today by Jay Poffenberger, county agriculture extension agent.

The program, scheduled to start at 10:30 a. m., is being held on the Albert Kessler farm, a half-mile south of New Hudson. A corn field divided into plots of various corn growth patterns will be studied. The plots were planted with different rates of fertilizer and different counts per acre.

Also, plots with minimum and conventional tillage and others with new corn varieties will be compared.

Milt Erdman of the Farm Crops Department of Michigan State University will be present to discuss the results of the various plantings, local growing practices, chemical weed control and the storing of high moisture grain.

Ray Wheeler of the Michigan Flying Farmers will have two planes available at the New Hudson airport for anyone wishing to fly.

Lunch will be available at noon.

In the afternoon, machinery dealers will have an opportunity to demonstrate corn harvesting equipment including a picker-sheller, stalk shredder and a corn drier.

Oakland County Soil Conservation District Directors will be in charge of the day's activities. They are: Harold Mitchell of Grand Blanc; Robert McCrory, South Lyon; Keith Middleton, Lake Orion; William Scramlin, Holly, and Stuart J. Hutchins, Rochester.

Rochester Club Hears Dean of Area College

ROCHESTER — Dean E. Lucien Palmer of North Central Christian College was the guest speaker at the Rochester Junior Woman's Club's first meeting of the 1959-60 club year Friday at Avon Township Library.

Palmer described the new liberal arts junior college and also told of his experiences as a missionary in Africa.

New department chairmen who outlined activities for the forthcoming year are Mrs. Joseph Watson Jr., community affairs; Mrs. Gordon Morseth, fine arts; Mrs. Edward Bowen, public affairs, and Mrs. Paul Christiansen, youth cooperation.

Other committee chairmen are Mrs. Leroy Aldinger and Mrs. Robert Chandler, community achievement; Mrs. Richard Justice, coordinator of volunteer activities; Mrs. Murland Pearsall, date clearing agency; Mrs. John Bird, hospitality, and Mrs. William Burke, membership.

Also serving are Mrs. Richard Brooks, program; Mrs. Neil R. Crowe and Mrs. John Toski, publicity; Mrs. George H. Goble, scanning and yearbook; Mrs. John Burns, scrapbook; Mrs. Donald Henry and Mrs. Charles Talley, ways and means.

Mrs. Talley, club president, represented the local organization at the Junior Women's clubs Fall Convention in Grand Rapids Saturday.

59 Youngsters Are Feted

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP—Fifty-nine youngsters, ranging in age from 6 to 16, who assisted in informing voters here of the need for a new library to be built on Orchard Lake road were hosted at a party Saturday afternoon.

It was the first step toward forming a Young Friends of the West Bloomfield Township Library Club which would be only the second group of its kind in the United States. The other is in California.

Those attending the party held at the home of Mrs. A. Finley France III at 2323 N. Pine Center Rd. will become charter members of the club.

Cooperating in arranging the party were the Library Board, the Friends of the Library and local merchants, who donated prizes for games.

A hot dog roast climaxed the afternoon's fun.

Membership in the Young Friend's group is open to all from the first grade through high school, said Mrs. France, who is chairman of the Citizens Committee to Promote the Library.

The Library Board has announced its intention to have names of the charter members of the Young Friends inscribed on a scroll to be placed in the new library upon its completion next spring.

Pull 2 Duck Hunters From Pontiac Lake

WHITE LAKE TOWNSHIP — Two duck hunters were rescued yesterday afternoon in Pontiac Lake after tipping their canoe trying to retreive a duck.

Nick Costin, 24, of 1871 Sylvan Glen, Keego Harbor, and Joe Green, 19, of 213 Norton, Pontiac, were rescued by Roy Minchin, 19, and Bill Minchin, 23, of 9693 Bonnie Brier Rd.

The canoe was retrieved by Douglas McLeod but the pair lost a gun and the duck.

At noon on a sunny day, one square mile of the earth's surface absorbs from the sun energy equivalent to about three million horsepower.

Southern Dem Governors Reluctant to Bolt Party

ASHEVILLE, N.C. (AP) — Strong sentiment against bolting the Democratic party was evident among Southern governors as they opened their 25th annual conference today.

But Gov. Ernest F. Hollings of South Carolina said his state will vote for an independent if the 1960 Democratic presidential nominee is unacceptable.

Taking a different view was Gov. J. Lindsay Almond Jr. of Virginia. "Personally, I will not bolt my party, and I don't believe that my state will either," he said.

Also expressing opinions that the South should remain in the Democratic party were Govs. LeRoy Collins of Florida, John Patterson of Alabama and Luther H. Hodges of North Carolina.

Hodges said the South "would be foolish beyond comprehension to jump out of the party."

Collins said: "We certainly are going to stay in."

Patterson said that "certain radical elements are anxious to get the South out of the party."

Hollings did not advocate a 1960 party bolt but flatly declared South Carolina will not support an unacceptable nominee.

Sen. Johnson Stalls on 1960 Question

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas says he "would have to take a look at it" if the Democratic national convention nominated him for president in 1960.

"But I do not anticipate any such eventuality," Johnson added Sunday on the television program Face the Nation.

"I have stated to every person who has talked to me or written me that I am not a candidate and that I do not intend to be a candidate," he said.

English Financier Awaits Trial in $9 Million Fraud

LONDON (UPI) — Lawyer-financier Friedrich Grunwald was released on $112,000 bail Saturday to await trial on charges of swindling more than $9,115,400, the biggest fraud case involving one man in British history.

Grunwald, 34, is charged with fraudulently converting the money to his own use. The funds belonged to the State Building Society, a savings and loan firm for which he was attorney. Trial has been set for Nov. 4.

More than 2,000 depositors in the society jammed into its conference hall today to demand their money or an explanation. Police had to keep hundreds of others out.

"I very much regret we cannot tell you anything today," Chairman Noel Cow, 74, told society depositors, who have been restricted to one shilling (14 cents) a month withdrawals until the finances are cleared up. Police then cleared the hall amid shouts and protests.

Grunwald has made no statement on what happened to the money since charges were filed Friday, but his lawyer, W. G. Wingate, said today he has "a complete answer to the charge against him."

Grunwald admitted earlier that he used the money to finance the stock market speculation of Harry Jasper, who bought out several companies in a quick series of deals.

The London Stock Exchange suspended dealings in Jasper's companies after he was unable to pay off on a brewery takeover. At the same time, Grunwald left suddenly for Israel, but returned voluntarily this week.

Jasper has not been charged. The investigation, carried out by fraud squad officers and by a crack attorney appointed by the government, is now trying to find out what happened to another nine million dollars known to have changed hands during the Jasper dealings.

Likens Today to Noah's Time

Graham Says Present Conditions May Force God to End History

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Evangelist Billy Graham said Sunday night that sex sins, indifference to religion and violence preceded the end of civilization in the time of Noah—and he compared that era with the present.

"The Bible tells us that God is going to intervene once again and that God's son is going to come back to earth," Graham told an overflow crowd at the Indiana State Fairgrounds.

"The Bible says there is coming a definite end to history as we know it," Graham said. "The Bible indicates that history came to an end once before. This happened during the days of Noah."

"We have an obsession with sex in our country," Graham said in comparing the present with the days of Noah. "Our magazines, our films, our literature is shot through with exaggerations of the importance of sex."

He noted also that "a breakdown of morals preceded the fall of Rome."

The Coliseum was jammed with 13,000 listeners, and 4,000 more stood to hear the mesage by loud speaker in the cattle barn. About 250 persons answered the nightly invitation to come forward.

Lights Are Only Bright Thing About These 3

DETROIT (AP) — There is a moral of sorts to the tale of why Alvin Dostal and two companions are in jail for investigation of breaking and entering.

The moral: Dim your lights, especially when $3,000 and what look like burglary tools are kicking around loose in the trunk.

Dostal, 56, was stopped on the Willow Run expressway by State Police who wanted to find out why he refused to dim his lights early yesterday despite frantic signals from blinded oncoming traffic.

While talking to Dostal, troopers noticed that the car's rear end sagged suspiciously. They escorted Dostal, Robert A. Simmons, 49, and George Burgess, 43, to the Ypsilanti State Police Post.

In the trunk, police found three paper bags containing $3,000 stolen 40 minutes before in the burglary of an Ann Arbor supermarket. Alongside were two acetylene torches, oxygen and a manual illustrating different methods of opening safes and locks.

Poetic justice, many motorists would have called it.

Drugs Beaten by Sportscaster

Bill Stern Cracked Up, but Isolation Horrors Taught Him His Error

NEW YORK (UPI) — Famed sportscaster Bill Stern has disclosed that he was a drug addict for more than 16 years but is completely cured now.

Stern reveals his addiction and the harrowing details of his long fight back to health and new success in radio and television in his autobiography, "The Taste of Ashes," written with UPI sports columnist Oscar Fraley and published by Henry Holt.

For years one of the nation's top sportscasters, Stern collapsed while televising the Pitt-Georgia Tech Sugar Bowl Game from New Orleans on New Year's Day of 1956. The American Broadcasting Co. announced that he had been shaken up in an automobile accident.

But Stern, who subsequently disappeared from the broadcasting scene, says in his autobiography that his crackup actually came from an overdose of morphine.

He writes that his addiction stemmed from the amputation of his left leg as the result of an automobile accident in 1935. He had an overdose of morphine at that time, he says, and continued using drugs during subsequent and repeated kidney stone attacks.

The broadcaster says that he frequently attempted various "cures" through the years but that nothing worked until finally, after his Sugar Bowl breakdown, he entered the Institute of Living at Hartford, Conn., for medical and psychiatric care.

He admits frankly that during the first three months there his only aim was to get well enough to be released. But then, after another kidney stone attack and morphine injections at a hospital to which he was removed, he became violent.

The threats of his wife, Harriet, to have him committed legally and the horrors of the isolation ward awakened in him the final realization that he was at a "be-killed-or-be-cured" dead end.

Clearly and dramatically he tells of the nightmares of drug addiction and of attempts to destroy himself before finally realizing that cooperation with his psychiatrist was the only way out. Three months later he was discharged from the Institute of Living as completely cured.

There is more to the story, for which movie interests already are dickering, than a tale of dope addiction and a courageous comeback. Stern details intimate stories of the stars of sports, stage and screen with whom he was associated and the humorous side of his career even while he was suffering from addiction.

"How does a man apologize and explain his too human weakness and frailties to the wife and children he adores so that they can understand and be unashamed," he asks.

"All I can say to them, now that it is over, is thank you. And thank God."

It is, to this man who made it home, a prayer and a benediction.

Report Wife to Stand By Van Rie in Murder Trial

RIJEN, Netherlands (AP) — William Van Rie's wife reportedly is going to Boston Mass., in answer to his plea to "stand with me" while he faces a charge of murder.

The father of the 30-year-old Dutch ship wireless operator said Sunday he is ready to go, too.

Van Rie is charged with murdering Lynn Kaufman, an attractive divorcee with whom he admitted having an affair during the voyage of the Dutch ship Utrecht from Singapore to Boston. Her bruised body was found in Boston harbor after the Utrecht left there for New York.

Ike May Be Our Oldest President

He'll Be 69 Wednesday and Only Chief to Hit 70 at End of Term

WASHINGTON (AP) — Dwight D. Eisenhower this week enters the last lap of a timely race to determine the oldest President we've ever had.

On Wednesday — appropriately while he's in his old home town, Abilene, Kan. — Eisenhower will become 69. Only two other presidents, Andrew Jackson and James Buchanan, reached that age while in the White House.

Then if all goes well — and his physicians give him an excelent report card for a man of his age who has had his serious ailments — a year from now he will be the oldest president of all. Not one has been 70.

Andy Jackson came close. He was 11 days shy of his 70th birthday when he finished his second term. Buchanan lacked 50 days of being 70 when he stepped aside for Abraham Lincoln.

Eisenhower will be 70 years and three months old at the completion of his two terms on Jan. 20, 1961.

Insecurity Starts Worry . . . Worry to Hypertension

. . . Hypertension Leads to Coronary

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK—American men are far more susceptible to heart ailments, to hypertension, than American women.

Why? And what can be done to ease the tension?

"If you accept the theory that women were born only to give birth and raise children, and that men were born to protect those women and children, then it's easy to understand why men are more subject to hypertension.

"Men have a built-in mechanism that forces them to 'put on their armor' when the phone rings. They have a habit pattern that makes them put up their guard at the least threat to their family's security.

"This being an era of insecurity, men would be almost constantly tense—if you accept that theory."

George Nader, a lay student in the art of human survival, shook his handsome head.

"Much of our national 'heart trouble' is psychosomatic. It's our subconscious minds that lead to hypertension, and subsequently coronaries. I am talking now only as a layman who has had the privilege of talking to doctors and hearing things I believe to be true. . . .

THE WILL TO LIVE

"In the deepest part of our minds, each of us has a hard core of optimism. Some doctors call it the 'will to live.' God must have given it to each of us.

"But piled on top of that hard core are layers and layers of subconscious thoughts which we have collected throughout a lifetime. Many ugly, many fearful. The subconscious mind is the most perfectly conceived tape recorder—filing cabinet—of everything we say and do, and everything that has been said and done to us. It is literal, it cannot evaluate, it has no sense of humor.

"And over that hard core of optimism, there may be a 'will to die' which is closer to the conscious."

Nader, an honest and thorough actor, sat in on a two-day symposium of top psychoanalysts, surgeons and doctors, in preparation for a NBC-TV series, "The Man and the Challenge."

It was there and then that he learned that "we are never unconscious—never—even under deep anaesthesia.

NEVER PULL THROUGH

"During an operation, if a stupid intern should say, 'She'll never pull through this,' a woman has the forecast of doom stamped on her subconscious. When she comes out of the anaesthesia, she won't consciously know what was said; but the negative thought has pushed down over the will to live."

At the symposium, Nader says, a doctor warned "for God's sake, be quiet when you're in the operating room." If a doctor should remark innocently, "He's losing a lot of blood," the flow conceivably may be increased or prolonged, by the very suggestion.

"Only the patient's subconscious mind is working. And at that level, a remark is a command."

Knowing these things about the workings of man's mind Nader believes that scientifically administered hypnosis can reduce the American man's tensions. And, consequently, prolong his life.

Through hypnosis, the tension-producing thoughts can be brought out of the subconscious and placed in the conscious mind to be analyzed—relieving pressure on the good old seed of optimism.

Then men can stop putting on their armor, and putting up their guard, unnecessarily. And for reasons they don't understand.

Michigan Tech to Build Apartments for Students

SAULT STE. MARIE (AP)—The Michigan Tech board of control today called for bids Nov. 24 on the construction of 150 apartment units to be built for married students in Shelden Heights off the college's main campus at Houghton.

The board, meeting at Tech's Soo branch, also announced it was embarking on a program of gradual modernization of faculty housing on the campus here.

Fire Tests Level LA Building

School Blaze Teaches Vital Lessons

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The purposeful burning of a junior high school has resulted in findings which could save "untold lives and untold millions of dollars," according to fire officials.

Fire Marshal Raymond M. Hill and Battery Chief John J. Degenkolb gave details of a report on the school burning tests which will be rolling off the presses this week.

Hill said he plans to take the Los Angeles Fire Department's findings with him this week to a meeting of the Assn. of School Business Officials in Miami, Fla., and next week to a fire-prevention symposium in Washington.

He said that if the findings contained in the 264-page report are accepted throughout the nation, the United States will save "untold lives and untold millions of dollars."

Highlight of the findings were that smoke, not fire, is the major hazard in school fires and that such things as draft vents, curtain boards, partial sprinkling systems, automatic closing devices on doors, enclosed stairways and smoke detection devices proved to be of little use.

The fire officials said that the tests indicated the only effective device in diminishing the dangers of smoke and fire was a complete system of automatic sprinklers which maintain low temperatures throughout the building, help douse the flames and prevent extensive buildups of smoke and irritating gases.

Hill and Degenkolb said that the tests already had saved the city thousands of dollars by keeping it from carrying out a worthless fire prevention program which was just beginning.

The tests, begun April 11, continued for 90 days, during which 55 fire experiments were made by city firemen. Cost of the tests was set at $125,000.

Firemen deliberately set fire to the three-story, 28-classroom Robert Louis Stevenson Junior High School in an effort to learn how to prevent such holocausts as the blaze which swept Our Lady of Angels parochial school in Chicago last December, killing three nuns and 90 pupils.

Cardiovascular diseases take an annual toll of 800,000.

Yes sir! When it came time for me to install a new furnace last year I had a heck of a time trying to make up my mind what type to install. After a lot of checking, I finally decided on oil–and that's the smartest thing I ever did.

Do you know–I discovered there are more homes in America heated with oil than with any other type of fuel. As a matter of fact–oil is the safest and cleanest method of home heating yet devised. That's mighty important, and something many people don't know. Yes sir, Jim, if I were you I'd look very carefully into the matter, and I'd check with a member of the Oakland Oil Heat Council for some good, sound advice, too.

COLD WEATHER COMING

JUST TACK ON Warp's FLEX-O-GLASS

Over Your Doors & Windows
A Few Dollars Is All It Takes

"Flex-O-Glass has made our porch a year 'round, livable room. The children love it."

"Here's an inside view of our large screened porch. If you couldn't see the snow outside, you'd think it was taken in summer. What doesn't show is the crystal-clear Flex-O-Glass tacked over our screens—an invisible barrier between our home and winter. This is the second year we have used the same Flex-O-Glass. We expect it to last at least two years more. That means it will cost us only about $15 a year to protect the rest of the house against drafts. We can leave our furniture on the porch the entire year and provide a warm, protected play area for the children. If you would like to use this letter to tell other home owners how much they're missing by not using your wonderful Flex-O-Glass to protect their homes against winter weather, you have my enthusiastic approval."

M. F. Radder, Master, Mich.

SAVE 40% ON FUEL!

Flex-O-Glass is the cheapest investment in winter comfort we've ever made," says L. D. Higbie

"The few yards of Warp's clear Flex-O-Glass we tacked over the screens of our breezeway keep out cold, wind, rain and snow and give us a warm extra room. I tell my friends that if their breezeway is a winter "blizzardway" to put up Flex-O-Glass and keep winter cold outside where it belongs."

"Our living room was warmer than it ever had been . . . such a relief not to have any more cold drafts on the floor," says Mrs. K. Klemp (Farm Wife)

"Our farm home is on a hill and gets the full blast of winter wind. Last winter we covered the front door and five windows with Flex-O-Glass. It made the house much easier to heat. We're so sold on Flex-O-Glass that we're going to cover our entire front porch with it this winter. It was just a snow catcher last year. With Flex-O-Glass tacked up, it will give us an extra room and double the protection for the rest of the house." (To enclose this entire porch will require only 18 yards of Genuine Flex-O-Glass, costing only $12.48.)

Musicale's Chorus Has Breakfast

The Tuesday Musicale Chorus met recently for the first time this season at a breakfast in the home of Mrs. C. Marshbanks.

The 30 members present discussed the Christmas and spring program plans.

It was announced that the chorus will sing for Rochester Musicale and Bethany Baptist Church this year.

Chorus director Mrs. G. N. Putnam introduced the accompanist, Mrs. W. A. Schmitz.

New members were Mrs. C. McCoy, Mrs. A. C. Roberts and Mrs. J. S. Maxwell.

Hostesses for the day were Mrs. C. A. Scott, Mrs. J. H. Helvey and Mrs. J. O. Radenbaugh.

MRS. ROBERT E. STOUT

Stout-Leavens Nuptials at Methodist Church

Joanne C. Leavens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Leavens of Bay City, married Robert E. Stout, son of Fred N. Stout of Williams Lake road, Saturday evening. The ceremony was performed at First Methodist Church by the Rev. T. Leonard Sanders. Palms, candelabra, white Chrysanthemums and gladioli banked the altar for the double-ring candlelight rite.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride was dressed in a gown of lace and nylon tulle over satin fashioned with a scalloped Sabrina neckline atop a basque bodice and long tapered sleeves. The bouffant skirt featured alternate lace and tulle ruffles with a ruffle of pleated tulle accenting the all lace cathedral train. A veil of silk illusion was held by a pearl diadem and the bride carried a bouquet of white orchid.

Maid of honor was Marilyn Cederstrom. Mrs. Delwin Richardson, sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. Royce Kriewall of Jacksonville, Fla., and Mrs. Peter Frick of Ypsilanti, sisters of the bride, were bridesmaids.

The attendants wore identically styled gowns of scarlet silk organza over taffeta with scooped necklines and short sleeves on a Dior bodice. The bouffant skirts were ballerina length. Each attendant wore a matching headband trimmed with fur and carried cascade bouquets of snowdrift chrysanthemums.

The bridegroom's brother-in-law Delwin Richardson attended as best man. Ushering were Carl Mason of Drayton Plains, LeRoy Brock and Randall Hagerman, both of East Lansing.

Peter Leavens, the bride's brother, was junior groomsman and Thomas Richardson, a nephew of the bridegroom, was ringbearer.

Mrs. Leavens chose a royal blue sheath in crepe with jacket and matching accessories and wore a corsage of white amazon lilies for her daughter's wedding.

Nancy Cunningham, the bride's sister, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Geraldine Cunningham and Mrs. Richard Parker. All were gowned alike in soft pink dresses featuring apron skirts trimmed with cherry pink. They carried fan arrangements of white roses and pink carnations attached to pink lace fans.

Mrs. Francis Thompson was vocalist. The bridegroom's niece Claire Easlick was in charge of the guest book.

Following a reception in the church parlors, the new Mrs. Gazette changed to a spice beige wool jersey suit with tan and white accessories and the orchid from her bouquet for a trip through the Smoky Mountains.

Square Dance Season Opens at CAI Building

Mrs. Hal Brown was caller for a special mixer "Dancing in the Streets."

Among the guests for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hatfield, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Elsholz and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Coats.

Carol Olson Becomes Bride of Mr. Sherwood

Carol Louise Olson became the bride of Thomas Sherwood Saturday evening at First Congregational Church. The Rev. Malcolm K. Burton officiated in the presence of 200 guests.

The former Miss Olson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney C. Olson of Spence street. Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Sherwood of Marine City are the bridegroom's parents.

An ice blue slipper satin Empire style gown with Alencon lace bodice, bateau neckline and long tapered sleeves was worn by the bride. The dress was fashioned with a train which fell in pleats from the waistline. A crown of lace and seed pearls secured her fingertip veil, and she carried an arrangement of white Fuji chrysanthemums with Baker fern in a crescent shape. Her only jewelry was a pearl necklace with a diamond pendant, a gift of the bridegroom.

Carolyn Ann Smith, maid of honor, wore a princess style turquoise taffeta gown with matching feather headband and held a bouquet of maize chrysanthemums with a wheat background. Bridesmaids Rita Olson and Jeanette Ohanesian were gowned in aqua taffeta princess style dresses and wore matching feather headbands. Their flowers were identical to those of the honor maid.

The bride's sister, Ruth Anne Olson, was flower girl, dressed in a turquoise taffeta dress with an overdress of embroidered organdy. She carried a basket of yellow crysanthemums.

Theodore Sherwood of Highland Park, the bridegroom's brother, was best man. Ushering were Allan Olson, brother of the bride; Joseph Bianco, Miles Doolittle of Birmingham and Ned VanBuren, Paul Olson, the bride's brother, was candle lighter.

After a reception held in the church parlors, the new Mrs. Sherwood changed to a moss green wool sheath dress with green check jacket and black accessories for traveling to northern Michigan for two weeks. The couple will reside on DeSota Place.

Mr. Sherwood is a graduate of General Motors Institute in Flint.

Get Together

Mrs. Leon Hubbard was hostess to the Pontiac Urban League Guild recently at her home on Franklin boulevard. Plans were completed for a cooperative dinner and card party to be held Nov. 19 at Pontiac Federal Savings and Loan building.

Lose 5 Pounds

Trick 'n' Treat Diet Works

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

My Trick and Treat Diet does just what it says. It tricks those extra pounds while giving you treats on your menus. I thought of this diet because the dullness and sameness of the usal slimming menus cause many women to give up or put off losing their overweight.

Been thinking about dieting and putting it off? Now's the time to act.

There is no reason why you cannot have some sweets and some butter on your diet and still lose weight rapidly. Trick and Treat Diet is a quickie which rids you of a few pounds swiftly. If you follow these menus you will lose about five pounds in one week.

FIVE POUNDS AWAY

Many many women are only about five pounds away from a really good figure and would love to settle down to lose them in a hurry. Others have more than five pounds to lose but would be encouraged by a flying start.

The nicest thing about Trick and Treat Diet is that the menus are really good, and you are allowed some butter and sugar and bread and hard candy and desserts and dressings. Suggestions also are made as to seasoning with herbs or onion or garlic salt and chili and lemon juice, all of which are low in calorie count but add zest to food. Remember, too, that you can buy very low-caloried reducing dressing or make your own. The Trick and Treat booklet tells you how.

Here are tomorrow's Menus.

Breakfast
Six ounces orange juice
One poached egg on toast
(One tablespoonful of chili sauce on egg or sprinkling of grated cheese)
Coffee with one teaspoonful of sugar

Luncheon
Toasted cheese sandwich
(two thins slices of bread and a thin slice of American cheese—the equivalent of two heaping tablespoons of the same)
One eight ounce glass skim milk

Dinner
One cup consomme (canned)
Four ounces of lean beef (broiled)
Sliced tomato
One baked potato seasoned with onion salt and parsley
Two small pieces of hard candy

If you would like to have the complete Trick and Treat booklet for future reference, send 10 cents and a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for the Trick and Treat Diet to Josephine Lowman in care of this paper.

Tomorrow: "This Diet Gives You Treats — But Follow Menus Exactly."

John Gazette Married to Gloria Cunningham

Palms, gladioli, chrysanthemums and pompons banked the altar of Oakland Avenue United Presbyterian Church for the Saturday evening candlelight wedding of Gloria Jean Cunningham and John Nelson Gazette. Two hundred guests witnessed the double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Theodore Allebach.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Howard George Cunningham of Windiate Park in Waterford and Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Thrush of Rochester.

The bride's pure silk organza and Chantilly lace gown featured a front panel of the lace. The bodice was of lace and featured long tapered sleeves and the gown's Empire bow and sash formed a chapel train. Her French illusion veil was caught by a crown of sequins and drop pearls. She carried an orchid, stephanotis, lilies and white roses on a white lace covered Bible.

The bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. Duane D'Arcy was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Marjorie Moran and Doris Reed. The attendants were gowned alike in Cotillion blue taffeta ballerina length dresses with short sleeves and scoop necklines. The matron of honor carried pink carnations and the bridesmaid, white carnations tipped in blue.

Flower girl Debra D'Arcy, niece of the bride, wore a pink frock and matching headpiece. She held a basket of white and pink net with pink peals.

Matthew Lynn O'Dor, of Chicago, a nephew of the bridegroom was ringbearer.

After a reception held in the church parlors, the bride changed to a beige wool dress with matching accessories for traveling to Niagara Falls. The couple will reside in Alaska for three years. Lt. Boyer was graduated from the Michigan College of Mining and Technology and Mrs. Boyer attended the Pontiac Business Institute.

Mrs. D'Arcy wore a dress of turquoise taffeta and matching accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. A moss green taffeta dress with matching accessories and a corsage of pink carnations were worn by Mrs. Boyer.

Mary Circle Hosts WSCS

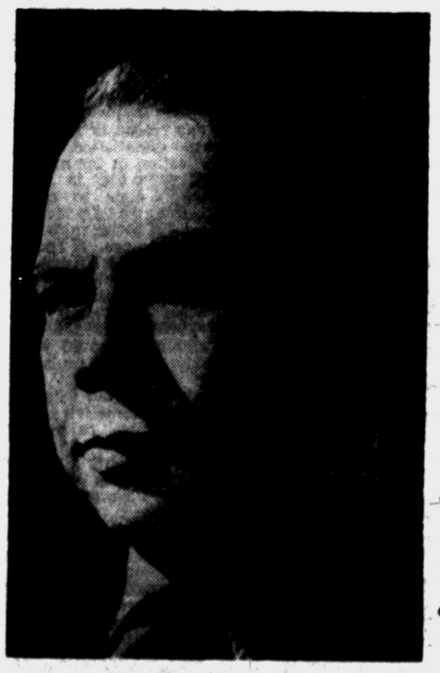
Mary Martha Circle was hostess for the recent evening meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of Oakland Park Methodist Church. Forty members and guests attended.

Mrs. Emerson Brown presented a program on the United Nations assisted by Mrs. Robert Walters.

Plans were completed for a turkey dinner Nov. 5. The Rebecca Circle will act as hostess at the November meeting.

Group Meets

Mrs. Howard Losee of North Perry street was hostess Friday afternoon to member of the Standish group of the First Congregational Church. Mrs. E. C. Durphy assisted with the dessert luncheon. During the meeting the group sewed cancer pads. Twenty-two members and one guest, Mrs. Ray Meiser, were present.



CLARK EASTHAM

The Pontiac Symphony Orchestra will open its seventh season Tuesday evening. Clark Eastham's "Overture" will be featured during the first half of the program. The overture was written in 1957 by Mr. Eastham who was a pupil of Roy Harris and Ernst Krenek.

To Wed Oct. 23

Planning an Oct. 23 wedding are Linda Sue Russell and Donald Dickerson.

Miss Russell is the daughter of Mrs. Gladys Wright of Paddock street and Edgar Russell of Inglewood, Calif. The prospective bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dickerson of Matthews street.

Doesn't Have to Leave Wife Home . . . Abby

'Little' Gathering No Office Party

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Please state your opinion of an "office party" given at the home of a divorced woman employe on the occasion of her leaving the firm.

ABBY

Four married men were invited. Their wives were excluded. Their "dinner partners" were single office girls. (It's a large office, but this was the entire "guest list.") When I expressed surprise that wives were not invited, I was told that it would be "too much work" to include the wives. We wives would have been happy to fix the dinner and clean up afterwards.

Do you think a married man has to attend this kind of affair unless he wants to? All the men were fat and 40, three were 50! When is business business, and when is fun fun?

UNINVITED WIFE

DEAR UNINVITED: Don't call this an "office party." This was simply a party including some of the office help. No married man has to attend a social function without his wife unless he wants to.

DEAR ABBY: I just read the letter from the woman whose problem was a husband who cussed all the time. You suggested she fine him 25 cents every time he used a swear word. That might work with some husbands, but it wouldn't work with mine. I told my husband that I was fining him 25 cents every time he swore, he'd tell me where to go, and he'd owe me 25 cents immediately.

HULDA

DEAR ABBY: I saw your "sure cure" for a swearing husband and I tried it on my own. I kept track of every violation and charged him a quarter for each one. Since Sept. 1 he ran up a bill of $56.75. Now, how do I get him to pay me? Please don't tell me to see a lawyer because my husband is one. Thank you.

MRS. E.

CONFIDENTIAL TO MAXINE: Get that wonderful book, "First Love, True Love" by Anne Emery at your public (or school) library. It will introduce you to "Pat" another high school junior who feels left out of things because her "steady" is away at college.

DEAR ABBY: My nephew came home from college with a very smart-alecky attitude. When I introduced him to an attractive young lady at our club, he said: "Boy, you're the kind of girl I'd like to take home to mother—if I could trust my father." Everyone laughed.

I told my husband later that I felt this was a reflection on my brother, who is the boy's father, because the boy implied that his own father couldn't be trusted with a young girl.

My husband said he felt it was a reflection on the girl because she appeared to be the type who might encourage an older man's attentions. Please settle this argument for us.

AUNT AND UNCLE

DEAR A and U: This is a reflection on (a) the boy himself for assuming that everyone within hearing distance had a sense of humor; (b) on you, for having none. Forget it.

Crowd and Family Acceptance Are Kin

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

The parents are charming, sophisticated and proudly nonconformist. They espouse unpopular causes, vote independently and are probably the only people in their neighborhood who don't own a TV set.

Last year, their 14-year-old girl upset them terribly. She not only announced a wish to attend a certain Sunday school but declared her belief in God.

"We're going out of our minds!" her mother told me. Her father and I have been agnostics all our lives. I suppose it's this 'group acceptance' thing. The kids Bea goes with attend this Sunday school so she has to attend it too. Well, Jim's talking her out of it. Who'd ever have thought he and I would produce a religious fanatic?"

They succeeded in talking Bea out of her interest in Sunday school. The parents who are so jealous of their right to differ from their neighbors have done a fine job of squelching their child's right to differ from them.

EXPECT REJECTION

Because the first group a child belongs to is his family. If every time he differs from his family, its respect and acceptance of him is withdrawn, he is going to expect disrespect and rejection to result from difference with other groups.

So he's not going to differ from them.

When his interest in his family group starts extending to new ones, he's going to be as submissive to the new ones as he was to the old. Though he may not agree with his own age group, he'll be as scared of protesting its opinions as he was of protesting ours.

We're tired of buying Janey unbecoming knee socks because "everybody wears them." We resent having to tolerate late hours because "the other kids" keep them. We shake our heads when Janey insists on serving her party punch in paper cups because her "crowd" considers it the thing to do. We wonder what on earth is going to happen to young people who are only safe when their "crowd" is doing their thinking for them.

When we get tired enough of it, maybe we'll be ready to look at the agreement we've demanded as the price of our "acceptance" and stop squelching difference from the family group.

Society Still Frowns on Such Meals

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: I live in a community where there are quite a few unmarried men and women in their thirties, mostly of a professional class. Not too infrequently one of these unmarried men will invite a woman friend to his apartment for dinner.

"He prepares the dinner, acts as host and he and his guest dine alone with no others present. In my opinion, this is socially improper but I am told that it is no longer considered improper for a man to entertain this way."

Answer: Even today this cannot be considered proper and most certainly risks serious criticism.

"Dear Mrs. Post: I have a friend who is a college graduate and tries to impress everyone with her knowledge of the English language by using long words when shorter ones would do just as well. I think it is very pretentious and in bad taste."

Answer: It is true that shorter words are in best taste, especially those of Saxon origin. This does not mean, however, that one can't use long words, but merely that to reach out for a long word instead of a shorter one would seem to be showing off.

Avoid Those Accidents!

By GAY PAULEY

NEW YORK (UPI)—Statistically, the phrase "in the safety of your own home" should be changed to the "danger of your own home."

National Safety Council records show that four million accidents occur in the home each year; more than anywhere else including the highway, where the accident rate is 1,350,000.

Aware of the hazards around the house and of the need for doing something about them, 40 mayors and 40 governors have proclaimed an "Emergencies Don't Wait Week," beginning today. Sponsors of the event are Johnson and Johnson, whose medical director, Dr. John Henderson, cited these ways to "accident-proof" the house.

If there are small children:

—Build a wall (beaverboard will do the trick) around the home workshop and install a gate that locks. This will keep curious fingers away from power tools and others.

—Anchor screens firmly to the windows with hardware which children can't unfasten.

—Build a generous sized toy chest and train the children to use it, keeping toys off stairs or busy passageways.

—Enlarge the base of your child's high chair so he can't overturn by rocking it.

TO PREVENT FALLS:

—Install handrails on all stairways.

—Lay rubber pads under scatter rugs.

—Put grabrails next to the bathtub.

TO PREVENT FIRE:

—Have plenty of hearth room around the fireplace—at least a 20-inch extension into the room and 10 inches on either side.

—Install a simple fire alarm system.

—Use only metal waste baskets.

To prevent accidents from miscellaneous causes:

—Store sharp kitchen knives in containers apart from other cooking tools.

—Build and stock medicine cabinets in the kitchen and home workshop, two areas where accidents are frequent.

—Remove the lock from bathroom doors when there are children or elders in the home. Accidents are frequent in the bathroom, and you should be able to open the door from the outside.

—Where there are lights operated by pull chains and located near sinks or in the cellar, install an insulating link or a non-conducting socket.

If you can't have chinchilla, don't sigh. Department stores carry chinchilla-dyed rabbit in shawl collars and Peter Pan collars. It's a good substitute for the girl on a budget.

Have You Tried This?

Name of Rich Pudding Honors Evangelist

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Readers who will admit to being more than 21, or even 30, may remember when the name Billy Sunday was as well known as Billy Graham is today. That a pudding was named Billy Sunday Pudding shows it is not a recent recipe.

Mrs. Sam Halsey who lives out on Adersonville road copied this recipe from her mother's cookbook before she was married. Mrs. Halsey is an enthusiastic 4-H leader. She also likes to knit.

There is no milk in this recipe, nor any eggs.

BILLY SUNDAY PUDDING

By Mrs. Sam Halsey

1 cup quick cooking tapioca
3 cups brown sugar
5 cups hot water
1 cup dates, cut fine
1 cup nutmeats.

Put all ingredients in casserole and put casserole in pan of hot water. Bake at 350 degrees for 30 minutes. Stir three or four times while baking.

Remove from oven and let cool. Cut in squares to serve. Garnish with whipped cream.

This is a very rich pudding so a small serving will be ample.

China Mission Heroine, Movie Subject to Speak

Gladys Aylward, who rose from the position of a London parlormaid to become a legend in her own lifetime through heroic service in war-ravaged China, will speak Wednesday evening at 7:30 p.m. at the First Baptist Church.

Miss Aylward, "The Small Woman" whose story was condensed in book form by Reader's Digest and portrayed on the screen by Ingrid Bergman in "Inn of the Sixth Happiness," is now in America as the guest of World Vision, Inc., an interdenominational missionary-service agency with headquarters in Los Angeles. She will make a speaking tour of the United States.

She dreamed of going to China as a missionary, but was unable to obtain backing because of her lack of education and determined to go anyway without help from anyone.

In 1930, equipped with railroad tickets, her Bible, ninepence in coins (9 cents) and two one-pound traveler's checks (less than $8), Gladys Aylward traveled across "impossible" Siberia.

Her life in a remote mountain town of northwest China became a series of dramatic events. She stopped a prison riot alone by calmly facing an axe-wielding inmate, rescued a child from a dealer in children, led the district's exalted Mandarin to accept Christianity. When war with Japan broke out, her dangers increased, for loyalty to Nationalist China caused her to spy on the ruthless invaders. She was cruelly beaten.

Then, as a fugitive without money or food, she led 100 homeless children in an epic journey across the wild mountains to safety.

Illness forced her return to England after more than 20 years of service in China, but she had returned to Formosa for more work among the Nationalist Chinese.

Hostesses for the dinner were Adah Shelly, Ethel Wooden, Jessie Axford and Mrs. Gladys Hocking.

Other officers elected for the year were Mrs. Preston Parks, vice president; Mrs. Norman Allen, secretary, and Mrs. H. Wayne Reaves, treasurer.

Devotions and study were led by Clara Gaylord and Mrs. Reaves.

Miss Shelly, Miss Axford and Miss Clark will attend the Waldenwoods Conference Retreat on Oct. 17.

The November dinner will be under the chairmanship of Mrs. Roy Ward, assisted by Mrs. Eva Clark, Mrs. S. E. Minard and Grace Heitsch.

Guests for the evening were Belva McCormick of Holland, Mich. and Mrs. Tillie Hannevold.

If it weren't for daylight saving time, some people wouldn't be able to save anything.

He'll Seek Wise Use of $1 Million

NEW YORK (AP) — A radio broadcaster, whose foundation received a bequest of more than a million dollars in the will of a Connecticut widow, says he will try to invest the money wisely.

The bequest, in the form of 22,000 shares of General Motors stock came from May Rockwell Page of Bristol, Conn., who died last Monday at the age of 88. She was the widow of De Witt Page, a GM vice president.

"Big Joe" Rosenfield Jr., who heads the "Happiness Exchange Foundation," said Friday that Mrs. Page was a "constant listener" to his WABC program, which goes on the daily from midnight to 4 a.m.

The foundation is a nonprofit, tax-exempt organization dedicated to helping the needy. Persons appear on the radio program and tell their troubles. Listeners may send in funds to help them out.

Defendant Prefers to Wait for Sentence

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—Pima County Superior Court Judge John F. Molloy asked Reynaldo P. Fraijo if he was ready to be sentenced.

Fraijo nodded "yes." Molloy told Fraijo he was going to be sent to prison for two years on a charge of forgery.

"If you object to waiting a week, I'll sentence you now. Would you rather wait a week while I think it over?"

Fraijo quickly answered, "Let's wait."

Motorist Finally Has Accident . . . With His Wife

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Reed E. Very, a salesman of suburban Florissant, drove 5,000 miles a month for many years before he had his first accident.

Very was driving a company car to a garage and his wife was taking his car so that he'd have a ride home.

We'd Prefer to Keep 'Em Sound Asleep

NEW YORK (UPI) — Now that it's almost time for certain insects to go into a long winter's sleep, it is entertaining to know that science at long last is learning how the insects do it.

Those insects are going to lie around under ice and snow all winter. You'd think they'd freeze solid, and the frozen state is a sure killer for almost all if not all forms of life. Yet those insects will resume living when the warm days come next spring.

New scientific evidence shows that at least some of them do it by manufacturing antifreeze in their own body chemistry and then infusing themselves with it.

And their antifreeze is the chemical glycerol which is the base of some antifreezes that go into cars.

This is the discovery of four chemists of the University of Minnesota—P. Dubach, D. Pratt, F. Smith and C. M. Stewart. They discovered it by grinding up sleeping larvae of a wood-boring insect (melandrya straita) in the dead of a Minnesota winter.

It Probably Won't Pay to Switch

Hang Onto Your Old Savings Bonds

WASHINGTON (AP)—Is there any advantage in redeeming old U. S. savings bonds to buy the new higher-interest ones?

This question directly affects 40 million Americans who own 42 billion dollars worth.

Under a presidential order issued last month, all savings bonds sold since June 1 will yield 3¾ per cent interest if held to maturity. The old rate was 3¼ per cent.

Just as important, yields on all bonds sold before June 1 were increased one-half of one per cent.

If you own bonds bought before June 1, you may be wondering if it would pay to redeem them and use the proceeds to buy new ones yielding 3¾ per cent. Actually, there are relatively few cases in which this would be profitable.

This is true because interest rates increase the longer you hold a bond. The average rate of 3¾ per cent is possible only because rates exceed that level in the later years, offsetting low yields in the early years.

Thus any Series E bonds bought since December 1949 will, between now and maturity, earn interest at rates ranging from 3.78 to 4.86 per cent, depending on when they were bought.

Obviously, these bonds will yield more than a brand new one so it would be pointless to switch. This is even more true of bonds bought before May 1942. From now until they next mature, they'll earn between 4.77 and 4.86 per cent.

That leaves bonds bought between May 1942 and May 1949. These have already matured once and, if you still hold them, are approaching their second maturity. They'll pay between 3.50 and 3.57 per cent if you keep them.

Although these rates are below those offered on new bonds held to maturity, switching won't always pay.

Since you have to hold the new bonds for 4½ years to earn more than 3½ per cent, there would be no advantage in redeeming a bond that reaches its second maturity within that time. That means any bond bought before January 1944.

Therefore the only opportunities for profitable switching involve bonds bought between January 1944 and May 1949. Even here, switching wouldn't pay in many cases because of taxes.

If you find an opportunity for switching, don't be surprised if the potential profit is small. The Treasury planned it that way so it wouldn't be burdened with the costly paperwork that would result from wholesale switching.

Spark Plug Official Found Shot to Death

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Earl S. Twining, 67, widely known in auto racing circles as head of the racing division of the Champion Spark Plug Co., was found shot to death Friday night in the basement of his home in Suburban Ottawa Hills.

Authorities termed his death suicide.

There is no "off-season" in newspaper reading. An analysis of daily newspaper circulation over a three-year period shows no month varied more than 4 per cent from the peak month. The newspaper habit is constant throughout the year.

Would Cut Delinquency With More School Work

BALTIMORE (AP)—Dr. Milton Eisenhower suggested Friday more schoolwork could mean less delinquency.

The president of John Hopkins University, addressing a meeting of the Baltimore Life Underwriters' Assn., said the "academic load in some instances is so light it actually contributes to the delinquency of students because they don't know what to do with their time."

About 300 million animals and birds are injured or killed by motor vehicles on U.S. highways each year.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all — this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne*) — the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called *Preparation H. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

MSUO Faculty Dean Stresses Moderation in Sports Activities

Michigan State University Oakland's dean of faculty, Dr. Robert G. Hoopes, like all other deans, was a student once.

And although his duties at MSUO are centered on the academic side of the university, the dean has strong feelings on the place of sports, fraternities and student activities on the campus.

Dr. Hoopes, in discussing intercollegiate sports, likes to point to a distinction drawn by Robert Hutchins, former chancellor of the University of Chicago and an outspoken educator.

Hutchins drew a distinction between "athletics" and "athleticism." Athletics was defined by Hutchins as physical education. "It is the proper function of the college program because it is carried on for the benefit of students," Hutchins said.

DR. ROBERT G. HOOPES

FOR CASH BENEFIT

"Athleticism is not physical education. It is carried on for the monetary benefit of the college through the entertainment of the public. Athleticism is sports promotion."

Dr. Hoopes said he believed in the Greek principle that the body should be cared for along with the mind. "I seek no craven desertion of the Greek ideal of the simultaneous cultivation of mind and body," Dr. Hoopes explained.

"But there is also another Greek ideal—all things in moderation—and this will not be forgotten at MSUO."

MSUO has adopted a policy which provides for sports in their proper place, he added. "This policy is opposed to exposing the student arbitrarily to certain sports which drop out of his life after two years—or of equating the reputation of the university with the win and loss record of the football team.

"Some argue that intercollegiate sports build character and principles of fair play, but I do not see that participation in major sports is in any way indispensable to the building of character or the principle of fairness," the dean explained.

"In many cases we are dealing here with the phenomena of 'perpetuation' by alumni. We are not operating this program at MSUO for promotional purposes but in the hope of cultivating a genuine educational athletic program," he said.

Dr. Hoopes said the MSUO athletics policy represents a decision to call things by their right name.

"Nobody can log a ridiculous number of credit hours on the practice field, miss classes because of out-of-town games, visit the library only occasionally, and hope to get a college education," the dean asserted.

"The aim at MSUO is to provide enough variety in recreational activities to allow all the students to develop a proficiency and confidence in some field of sports."

Hoopes said the assumption that a de-emphasis on sports would empty the university coffers was blown up by Hutchins when he abolished high pressure intercollegiate sports at the University of Chicago.

COCKTAIL PARTY TALK

"There is certainly an alumni type who enjoys discussing scores at cocktail parties, and gives accordingly, but there is another type, a member of a much larger group, who will step up his giving when he sees a re-emphasis on academic values."

Hoopes said "reason has to control sophomorism if we are going to have a university, rightly so called. The equivalence of 'muscle' and 'manliness' is so much canal water.

"By analogy, does a young lady become more feminine, best equipped to play her role in a coeducational society only if she has successfully avoided sports all her life?"

The dean, a member of his high school swimming team and a participant in semi-professional ping pong matches in college, claims he gets "as excited as the next guy over spectator sports."

Any member of the university community, staff, faculty or family is welcome to participate in campus activities, he pointed out. The dean looks to the day when this policy will apply to drama as well as high diving.

FRATERNITIES?

What of fraternities?

"Fraternities in American universities have served little or no educational good," said Dr. Hoopes. "There is scarcely a university where fraternities are present in which the fraternal academic batting average is not the lowest in the heap.

"I will concede what little good is done is to provide small-group living for students. This is, at best, a mixed good. Because of it colleges and universities are unwilling to pay as much attention as they should to an important dimension of a student's life on campus."

The new student, the dean said, is thrown directly from his home environment into a massive prison-like structure called a dormitory.

"There are gangways for corridors, lined on either side by small cells. Soon the student gets fed up. It is unlike what he has given up; it clashes with his idea of the comforts of home. The appeal of the fraternity house is understandable.

"Too often university officials everywhere have neglected to plan student living areas which are pleasing, intimate, hospitable."

HAS LIVING PLAN

The dean said he hopes for diligence in this area of planning small-group living structures in order to provide for the student what is needed without the aid of fraternities with their attendant evils.

He suggested independent wings as a possibility, each possessing its own identity, with groups served by a central dining room so as to afford congenial interchange and acquaintance.

"Beyond religious and racial discrimination, often by indirection rather than direct attack, the fraternity fosters anti-intellectualism. This need not be the case; some fraternities offer a small monetary prize for the highest average, but in most cases these are just gimmicks," Dr. Hoopes said.

He said that with their "pontifical, solemn initiations, postures of secrecy for the sake of secrecy, fraternities attempt to initiate in our time medieval habits of guild behavior. The pledge of loyalty to the fraternity may mean that man must accept living under two codes — democracy side by side with special fealty to a fraternity brother. The two may conflict more often than harmonize."

He pointed out that Dean of Students Roy J. Alexander was in favor of having the impetus in the student activities program come from the students themselves. Dr. Hoopes said the faculty and administration must necessarily retain final validation, but that they will not police any thinking.

Dr. Hoopes added he would give the strongest encouragement to clubs in the areas of international relations, French, debating, a first-class undergraduate journal, and in fact "all things that will keep the social, residential and academic life in meaningful equipoise."

Eventually he hopes for eating clubs where students and faculty might gather to have their lunch, a "place for intellectual business sessions outside of the formal setting of the classroom."

FRATERNITY DYING

"I cannot offer to replace the fraternity," said Dr. Hoopes. "There is nothing to replace. The fraternity is succumbing to its own decadence. It is being replaced by a host of activities that have always been there.

"My argument, in general, is that people have forgotten (with the present hue and cry for social adjustment) that the most important factor in the personal adjustment of many may be his intellectual adjustment.

"We will have activities where both mind and body are at play.

"I like to think of the area of student activities in the university as co-curricular rather than as extra-curricular—an area which belongs to the aims of education, and does not exist separately from those aims."

Seek to Bring Russians Here

State Department Is Readying List of Them; Some U.S. Citizens?

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Premier Nikita Khrushchev's trip through the United States set in motion a new State Department bid to the Soviet Union to permit emigration to this country of persons now living in Russia.

A comprehensive list of names to be submitted soon to Moscow is expected to reach into the hundreds. The exact number is not yet known.

Some on the list claim to be U.S. citizens while most are relatives of persons residing in the United States.

The U.S. effort on behalf of these people is not new. However, it was given fresh impetus by several incidents that ocurred during Khrushchev's tour.

American officials are cautiously optimistic that Khrushchev's attitude was a signal for a change in Soviet policy regarding the granting of exit permits for its citizens to live in other countries, particularly the United States.

This attitude has prompted the department to compile a list of all the cases which it considers have merit for submission to the Soviet Union.

The Soviet Union has granted only 55 exit permits to its citizens to come to the United States since the first thaw in the Cold War following the death of Josef Stalin in 1953. Many of these were Russian women who married Americans working at the time in the USSR.

However, there are many persons now living in America who fled such countries as Estonia, Lithuania and Latvia before they were absorbed into the Soviet Union and who still have close relatives living in those areas.

Christopher Columbus! You Mean He Didn't?

MOSCOW (UPI) — A Soviet historian said yesterday that Christopher Columbus did not "discover" America because he had learned of its existence from a dying sailor who already had sailed to the Antilles and back.

A Moscow Radio home service broadcast identified the historian as a Professor Tsypernik, candidate of history and lecturer at Kazakh Pedagogic Institute. He said Columbus and Queen Isabella teamed up to hoodwink historians.

The professor said Columbus really was an exponent of colonization who made up the story of fabulous Oriental riches to make people believe he had discovered a shortcut to Asia and to make Spanish colonization popular, he said, Columbus altered his diaries to fool the world.

"I recently found a secret letter addressed to Columbus by the Spanish royal couple Ferdinand and Isabella," Tsypernik said.

"The letter makes it clear that Columbus knew not only of the position of the Antilles, but also of what could be found there and how the land could be used by the Spaniards."

Tsypernik's claims raised no eyebrows in Madrid where one of Spain's top Columbus scholars said "historians here have been saying the same thing ever since the 16th century."

Ciriaco Perez Bustamante, a member of the Royal Academy of History in Madrid, said many historians had published the idea that Columbus had lifted the secret of America from a dying sailor.

(The story as told in various Spanish reference books is that Columbus befriended a man sometimes identified as Alonzo Sanchez and that Sanchez gave him maps of the New World and told him of his visit as he lay dying.

(The Spanish historian said this account cannot be proved and that many of the historians who told this version were jealous of Columbus' glory and fame.)

Develop Plan for Air Traffic

Lockheed Device Would Warn Pilot of Danger Well in Advance

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — A new method of air traffic control—able to foresee near-collisions anywhere in the country far enough in advance to warn the pilots — was announced today.

Lockheed Tracking and Control system, (LOCTRACS), under development for a year, already is being studied by the Federal Aviation Agency as a possible way of controlling and tracking many fast-moving airplanes.

M. C. Haddon, vice president and general manager of the Lockheed Electronics and Avionics Division, said the new system should be less costly, more versatile and offer more thorough coverage than other air control systems.

"Installing LOCTRACS is like blanketing the continent with an electronic, three-dimension checkerboard," Haddon said.

"The squares measure from one-sixth of a mile to a mile on the side. LOCTRACS then tells you, with the speed of light, every time an aircraft travels from one square to another. It tells you not only which space the airplane is in, but who it is, and how high it is."

The system uses small transmitters in each airplane and a network of ground stations. Haddon said the simple, low-cost design needs only techiques and components already available and proven — assuring the earliest possible deliveries and providing built-in reliability of operation.

100 Are Released by Petulant Judge to Punish Police

DETROIT (UPI) — Recorders Judge W. McKay Skillma nfreed more than 100 persons arrested in blind pig raids in a weekend dispute between the judge and Detroit police.

Skillman refused to sign warrants against the suspects because he thought police were slow in preparing cases for court.

William Hathaway, assistant prosecutor, said those released will be charged only if Detroit police want to round them up again.

The judge said police were tardy in bringing defendants to court and decided to "bring this thing to a head."

Arresting officers said they would have had the suspects in court earlier, but the department's record bureau was shorthanded on Saturday. The defendants were arrested early Saturday in three separate blind pig raids.

PLYMOUTH FOR 1960 — Two new engines are the features in the 1960 line of Plymouths announced today. In the top picture is the Plymouth Fury two-door hardtop. Main Styling Change in Front Fender

'60 Plymouth Line Has 2 New Engines

Two completely new engines are being introduced with the 1960 Plymouth announced today — one for maximum economy and the other for top performance.

Six different engines are available for the new Plymouths, which go on display Oct. 16.

Principal styling change is in the front fender line, which is accented by a sweep of chrome from the top of the fender at the headlights, back and around the front wheels. The familiar rear fender fins remain.

"The 1960 Plymouth is the strongest, quietest, fastest accelerating and most economical operating care in Plymouth's history," according to Harry E. Chesebrough, vice president of Chrysler Corp. and general manager of the Plymouth-DeSoto - Valiant Division.

The new 30-D economy six engine for maximum fuel saving is inclined toward the right at an angle of 30 degrees from the vertical, to keep the car's center of gravity as low as possible, and allow a low hood, in addition to allowing space for the new manifolding system, relocating the water pump, and giving ease of access.

Horsepower on the 30-D is 145. Other engines and their horsepower are the Fury V-800, 230; the Fury V-800 with Super Pak, 260; Golden Commando V8, 305; SonoRamic Commando, 310, and SonoRamic Commando with two four-barrel carburetors, 330.

The new SonoRamic Commando V8 high performance engine obtains the results of free supercharging through use of a long curving intake manifold tubes to emergency warning flasher system. The latter device starts all front and rear turn indicator signals flashing continuously.

An optional device is a new aero steering wheel which is square in shape to provide more knee clearance between the wheel and seat, force air and fuel into the cylinders at exceptionally high speed.

Other new features are a safety door lock system, which automatically locks all doors when the engine is started, and a four-light

Nikita's Hat to the Rescue

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A gray felt hat, high-crowned and wide-brimmed, is keeping Dave Adrian awake nights. Part of the reason is a friend who has never seen the hat.

The almost formless fedora used to belong to one of the world's most well-known men, Nikita Khrushchev.

Adrian is a San Francisco longshoreman who impulsively whipped off his own white working cap and presented it to the Soviet Premier when Khrushchev visited San Francisco last month.

Suddenly Adrian had something that a lot of people wanted.

"I've turned down an offer of $500 for it," he said.

A trade newspaper in Moscow said that Adrian had been offered $5,000 for the hat. Adrian said he hadn't heard of it.

But Adrian says there is one possibility that could lead him to auction the hat off.

A young friend, Tom Ferry, attends the University of San Francisco. Tom, blind since he was 5, hopes to become a lawyer. The priests at the Catholic university have helped him some.

He still needs money to live on and money to pay a reader who helps him with his studies.

"The only thing that could get me to auction this hat," says Adrian, "is if there's no other way to get money to keep Tom in school."

Lapeer Home Ward Struck Dead by Car

LAPEER—A six-year-old ward of the Lapeer State Home and Training School staying with a family in Port Huron was killed yesterday when he darted in front of a car.

Charles Clifton, who had lived with Mrs. Susie B. Hazeley at 2926 24th St., Port Huron, had stopped on the curb to let one car go by before rushing out into the path of another, Port Huron Police said.

Driver of the car was Richard Singleton, 67, of Glencoe, Ont., who was released after making a statement. The accident happened at about 11 a.m. a few doors from the Hazeley home.

Red China Assures World That Russia Is Her Boss

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
Associated Press News Analyst

Moscow, say the Red Chinese loudly and clearly, is the big boss.

Peiping's Communist party has gone out of its way to emphasize that the Soviet Union is the undisputed leader of the world Communist movement.

The remarkable performance more than justifies the expressed conviction of Secretary of State Christian A. Herter that the Kremlin is responsible for the actions of China and the whole Red bloc. It underscores Undersecretary Douglas Dillon's contention that the U.S.S.R. should be held responsible for any Peiping aggression.

If there are differences on the ideological or the strategy level between Moscow and Peiping, the Chinese party seems to have buried them in an extravagant bow to Moscow's unquestioned leadership.

As if to dispel any notions among the world's Communists of a Kremlin-Peiping rift, the most important Red Chinese newspaper, the Peiping People's Daily, has just published an editorial important enough to be chorused by the whole country's provincial press. Its theme also was broadcast in foreign languages.

It was not a long editorial. But no less than eight times it stated unequivocally that in matters of the world revolution and the strategy of the revolution, the Soviet leaders were the bosses.

The businessmen recommended to operate the port were Robert J. McIntosh, former congressman and attorney; Allen Stevens and C. Carlton Prichard, trucking company executives, and William Neal and William McAfee, customs brokers.

Construction Worker's Helmet Symbol to N.Y.

NEW YORK (AP)—The "hard hat" of the type that construction workers wear has been adopted as the symbol of Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's drive to attract new industry to the state.

Each high official of the administration has received one of the shiny aluminum safety helmets, emblazoned with the state's name and seal.

"I hope you will display this prominently in your office and elsewhere whenever this may be appropriate," said a letter from state Commerce Commissioner Keith S. McHugh.

The officials, however, are under no instruction to actually wear the helmets.

Cassady Takes Three TD Passes but Four of Rote's Intercepted

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

DETROIT — The shuttle system of play-calling worked fine from the bench on the sidelines for the Detroit Lions yesterday but coach George Wilson wasn't dressed to throw the passes or move in on pass defense against the Baltimore Colts.

Wilson called the plays from the bench and the Lions showed their best offensive game of the season. But once again, Johnny Unitas passed the Detroit secondary dizzy and the Colts rallied to a 31-24 victory.

The key touchdown in the 4th quarter was the pass to Ray Berry which went for 54 yards and wiped out Detroit's 24-21 lead.

Half of the Lions' defensive unit had a shot at Berry as he took the ball on the 40 and zig-zagged away from tacklers to score.

"I don't know how many shots we had at him, but if Berry had been a little closer to the sidelines, I might have taken a crack at tackling him," Wilson said.

Interceptions helped the Lions but they also killed them as four of Tobin Rote's were grabbed by the Colts.

Rote passed for all three Detroit touchdowns with Hopalong Cassady on the receiving end each time.

Rote wasn't the only quarterback who had his thinking done for him yesterday. Earl Morrall got in two plays and after he had a finger poked into his eye, Jerry Reichow took over and actually gave the fans some of the most thrilling moments.

Reichow wasn't real effective in running the team as he was in running himself. He ran the ball four times when trapped for gains of 10, 1, 15 and 46 yards and got the Lions to the three yard line.

Faced with the winning touchdown at this point in the 4th quarter, Reichow's attempted pass to Cassady failed and the Colts took over on the 20 and went the distance with Berry making his exciting catch and run.

In the second quarter Gary Lowe intercepted a Unitas pass and in five plays from the 33, Cassady took a 14 yard scoring pass.

The running game the rest of the second quarter looked like the old Detroit championship attack as Nick Pietrosante ripped through for 31 yards, John Henry Johnson for 17 and Rote for 14. It ended with Cassady taking an 18 yarder for the score.

Lowe snagged another pass in the second half as the offense continued to roll. He got to the 8 with the interception and Cassady caught a 4-yarder to put the Lions ahead 24-14.

The key play gave when Andy Nelson raced 33 yards for the TD after intercepting Rote's pass. This made it 24-21 and it looked good until Berry went on a 54 yard jaunt.

Steve Myhra who converted all the points added a field goal as insurance in the final minute.

"That interception run by Nelson was the turning point," said coach Weeb Ewbank of the Colts, "our defense straightened out after this and we were in good shape."

Detroit's Anderson Among Potential Successors in Expected Battle

Death of Bell Leaves NFL in Mixup

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Stunned National Football league owners prepared today for a bitter behind-the-scenes struggle to find a successor to Bert Bell, the dynamic commissioner who helped build pro football from a sandlot operation into a multi-million dollar business.

A "chaotic battle" between the old guard and the league's new blood was forecast by one N. F. L. official a few hours after the 63-year-old Bell suffered a fatal heart attack at Franklin Field yesterday while watching the sport to which he devoted his life.

Under the league constitution, N. F. L. treasurer Austin H. Gunsel took over as acting commissioner upon Bell's death. However, the by-laws also provide for an emergency meeting of the executive committee "not more than 30 days after the emergency, the sole purpose of which shall be the election of a new commissioner or to install a president in the office of the commissioner until the annual league meeting."

Three major candidates—each representing a different point of view — immediately emerged as Bell's potential successors:

1. George S. Halas, 64-year-old iron-fisted founder, president and coach of the Chicago Bears. He is the favorite candidate of those who think the league needs another "tough man of the old school" as its boss.

2. Edwin J. Anderson, 56-year-old president of the Detroit Lions and one of Detroit's top business leaders for the last 20 years. He is regarded as the "compromise candidate" between the old and new schools in the league.

3. Gov. A. B. (Happy) Chandler of Kentucky, ex-baseball commissioner whose candidacy is backed by George Preston Marshall, owner of the Washington Redskins. Chandler is favored by those who think the league's first order of business is to receive a clean bill of health from Congress.

"One thing is sure," a league official told United Press International: "There's going to be a terrific battle because it was Bell's indomitable personality that held all the warring factions in the league together."

It appeared likely that an "interim president" would be named until the executive committee, composed of the owners or representatives of the 12 league clubs, would meet for a second time in December or January. Bell held the positions of both president and commissioner. Anderson is the president of the Western Conference and John Mara of the New York Giants is president of the Eastern Conference.

Bell was stricken as he sat in a lower grandstand seat watching the final minutes of the game, won by the Eagles, 28-24. Through the first half he sat with Steeler owner Art Rooney and Joe Donoghue, treasurer of the Eagles, on the sunny north side of the stadium. Then, complaining of the heat, he strolled to the shadier south stand where he sat until his collapse. Bell, who received the last rites of the Roman Catholic Church to which he was converted a year ago, never regained consciousness.

His family announced that the body will be placed on view at the Bringhurst Funeral Home, Philadelphia, Tuesday night. The funeral will be from St. Margaret's Church in Narberth, Wednesday morning, with burial in Calvary Cemetery near Valley Forge, Pa.

Red Wings Show Comeback Qualities

They Rebound for 4-2 Edge Over Rangers

Spirited Detroit Wins Home Debut After 1-1 Tie at Montreal

DETROIT (AP) — The National Hockey League season is but two games old for the Detroit Red Wings, but already coach Sid Abel has seen a couple of things that his club failed to show in 70 games last year.

The Wings bounced back from a 2-0 deficit last night and whipped the New York Rangers 4-2 in the Olympia Stadium opener before 11,057.

"That's really something great for us, to come snapping back like that," Abel commented. "our club last year didn't build itself a reputation for coming from behind."

Only the night before, the Wings had played the defending world champion Montreal Candiens to a 1-1 standoff on Montreal ice.

The fans can see something else in the future for the Wings: sometime before this season is out, Detroit's Gordie Howe and New York's Eddie Shack are going to tangle in a real Donnybrook.

The Ranger sophomore is in his second season of policing the Detroit star. Whenever Howe is on the ice, Shack trails Howe like a shadow. Last night the two nearly squared off half a dozen times but Shack got the short end.

He went to the penalty box three times. Howe assisted in three of the Detroit goals.

Andy Hebenton got a power-play goal late in the first period and Larry Popein made it 2-0 in the first seven seconds of the middle period.

Newcomer Gary Aldcorn scored from close range at 13:40 of the second period for Detroit and rookie Jerry Melnyk got the equalizer at 19:16. Aldcorn slapped one in at the corner of the net and Melnyk scored on a 20-footer after Howe made an interception in Ranger territory.

Ranger Dean Prentice was off for tripping when defenseman Warren Godfrey got a 50-footer at 16:09 of the final period. The Rangers pulled goalie Gump Worsley in the final minute in a desperate effort to tie the game, but the move backfired.

Pontiac, Fisher Share Title

Industrial Golf Is a Draw

For the first time in the history of the event, the annual Philip J. Monaghan Industrial Golf Championship conducted Saturday at Pontiac Country Club ended in a deadlock for the title.

Defending champion Pontiac Motor was forced to divide the honors this year with the Fisher Body team after the field of six four-man teams completed an 18-hold tour of the par 37-37—74 PCC course.

Pontiac Motor and Fisher Body each posted a total of 319 to tie for the crown. Ed Wasik and Stan Savage carded 77 apiece to pace the Pontiac squad while Joe Petroff's 75, featuring four birdies and an eagle, led the Fisher outfit.

Individual medal honors went to Glenn Harding, who rifled a one-under-par 73, but his Prudential team could do no better than 4th place with 338. GMTC took 2nd spot with 323, Baldwin Rubber came next at 326 and American Forge occupied the cellar on a 342 score.

Both individual and team scores were the highest in the event's history with chilly weather and dampness getting the blame for the soaring totals.

The members of the two winning teams agreed to share the Monaghan trophy and have their names engraved on the large cup as co-champs for 1960. Previous commitments made a title playoff impossible.

All-Star Pin Points

By MARION LADEWIG

Few women ever bowl a 300 game.

This, plus the fact that you can score as high as 190 without making a strike, underlines the importance of converting spares into winning scores.

The main thing to remember is that while your target may be different, your smooth, coordinated swing is the same as for a strike attempt.

For example, if you are trying to pick up the 7, and 4-7 or the 4-7-8, move to the right—how far will depend on the size of your hook.

If it's a 10, 9-10 or 6-9-10, move to the left, roll across the lane and let your hook bring your ball into the pins.

Of course, not all spares are so conveniently bunched. On a 5-7, try to cut the five pin lightly on the right side to kick it over to the seven, but on a 3-10, try to take both pins with the ball. On a 5-10, hit the five to the left so it is deflected into the 10.

Remember that you won't convert spares in competition if you don't concentrate on this phase of the game in practice or when rolling just for fun.

Tigers Announce 2 Sportcasters

DETROIT (UPI)—George Kell and Ernie Harwell will be co-announcers on the Detroit Tiger radio broadcasts and telecasts in 1960, William O. De Witt, Tiger president, announced today.

De Witt emphasized that Kell and Harwell would share equally the radio and television descriptions of the Tiger games and neither would be "No. 1 announcer."

Harwell has been broadcasting the Baltimore Orioles games on radio and television for the past five seasons. He is a veteran of 11 years broadcasting and telecasting major league baseball.

Green Bay Lone Unbeaten Pro Team; Giants, Eagles Win

It's 3 Straight for Packers

By The Associated Press

The Green Bay Packers, long dormant in the National Football League, have catapulated to the top of the heap on the shoulders of a hand-me-down quarterback and a shrewd new coach.

Suddenly the only stable element in the upset-prone circuit, the Packers won their third straight yesterday, edging the San Francisco 49ers 21-20, in a battle of the league's only undefeated clubs.

The main offensive threat for the Packers — who haven't won a division title since 1944—was Lamar McHan, picked up without fanfare from the Chicago Cardinals on a trial basis.

The former Arkansas star clicked on a 21-yard scoring pass to Gary Knafelc early in the fourth quarter for the deciding touchdown. It was his second TD toss of the game and sixth of the young season.

A clever offensive tactician, new Coach Vince Lombardi began juggling the downtrodden Green Bay outfit as soon as he took over. One of the moves that has paid a large dividend was the shifting of Paul Hornung to halfback.

Hornung has turned into one of the league's most elusive runners, making the Packers a threat on the ground as well as in the air. Against the 49ers he scored once on an eight-yard scamper and gained 138 yards in 28 carries.

The Packers next meet the Los Angeles Rams, who won their first game in convincing fashion by upsetting Chicago's Bears 28-21.

In other games, defending champion Baltimore rallied to defeat Detroit 31-24, New York edged Cleveland 10-6, Washington upended Chicago's Cardinals 23-14 and Philadelphia turned back Pittsburgh 28-24.

Using the pass only in key situations, McHan completed six of 14 heaves for 94 yards while the Packer running game netted 284 yards. The 49ers threatened as the game drew to a close and moved to the Green Bay 30 with 66 seconds left. With two field goals to his credit, Tommy Davis tried a 37-yarder that would have won it. He missed.

Ollie Matson, acquired by the Rams for nine players, was the decisive factor as Los Angeles, now 1-2, came from behind against the Bears (1-2). Matson ground out 199 yards in 31 carries and set up three touchdown strikes by quarterback Billy Wade. Joe Marconi scored the winning TD in the final period, plunging one yard to cap a 63-yard drive.

Don Chandler's booming punts kept the Browns (1-2) deep in their own territory and the Giants (2-1) won despite gaining only 250 yards to Cleveland's 343. Charlie Conerly engineered the deciding thrust in the second period, scoring himself on a one-foot plunge at the end of an 80-yard drive. Milt Plum passed 33 yards to Bobby Mitchell for the Browns' tally.

Round Tables Adds Record and $58,200

By The Associated Press

Round Table, having taken another trip to the bank after winning the $58,200 Manhattan Handicap, loafed in his stall at Aqueduct today while his owner planned a second crack at Sword Dancer in the $100,000 Jockey Club Gold Cup Oct. 31 at the Long Island track.

Travis M. Kerr's 5-year-old Mr. Moneybags is nearing the end of a remarkable racing career, and his convincing one length triumph over Bald Eagle Saturday in the tough 1⅛ mile Manhattan added another track record to his list.

Round Table has broken or equalled 16 track world or American records — more than any horse in the history of the sport.

Kenny Lane, southpaw boxer from Muskegon, will meet Virgil Akins of St. Louis in a 10-round welterweight bout at Washington Oct. 28. Akins is a former welterweight champion. The bout will be televised nationally by the ABC network.

Play at Birmingham

Pistons in Area Tonight

The Detroit Pistons will meet the Cincinnati Royals in a pro basketball exhibition tonight at Birmingham High School.

It will be the first of two appearances for the Pistons in the Pontiac area. On Wednesday, Oct. 21, they will meet the Minneapolis Lakers at the Pontiac Northern gym.

Both games loom as sellouts. A crowd of 3,000 is expected tonight at Birmingham.

The Pontiac game sponsored by the Jaycees is expected to draw a capacity of 2,000 at PNH.

Tonight's game on the Maple court is being sponsored by the Babe Ruth League of the city.

Last Saturday night in Toledo, Cincinnati beat the Pistons 110-99.

Shrine Continues Winning Campaign

Royal Oak Shrine gridders continued their winning drive toward a West Side loop title, Sunday, with a 45-0 victory over Lourdes.

Shrine has kept its goal line inviolate for three straight tests.

Rams, Eaglets Get Setbacks in Sunday Tilts

By H. GUY MOATS

An alert, win-conscious St. Michael's football club yesterday afternoon turned a gray, overcast and chilly day into a warm and happy homecoming celebration with a fine 14-12 victory over a strong Detroit St. Rita eleven.

The north side Shamrocks provided fans with a very welcome reversal of the last contest. They turned Viking mistakes into situations that produced the winning tallies, broke up St. Rita rallies, and in the last minute staved off an attack on the 31 yard stripe. They stopped Don Kurkowski and Mike Kusiak's line tries for extra points, the margin of victory.

While the Shamrocks were achieving their 2nd success of the parochial loop campaign, St. Frederick and Orchard Lake St. Mary were victims of Ferndale St. James and St. Benedict, respectively.

Two long, sustained drives, one of 80 yards in the 2nd period and the other in the 3rd, for 75 yards on a kickoff, broke the Rams' backs, 14-6.

St. Michael's struck for its first tally with three minutes left of the opening session. The ball had changed hands five times on punts and fumbles, Shamrocks' linemen covered a Viking bobble on the visitors' 10, and on the third play, Bill Flanigan crashed through the middle. Tommy Dabbs booted the conversion.

Ritas drove 54 yards to score midway the 2nd period. Mike Kostuik drove in for the TD, but was piled up on his PAT try. A minute later Shamrocks had collected another TD, the winning counter. This time hard working Pat Campbell took a pitchout from Dabbs, and convoyed by Tommy, end Al Tunny, Elmer Anderson, and several other Shamrock forwards went 70 yards. The TD was the 3rd play after Rita's Rickoff.

Fumbles and penalties aided in the Rams' undoing. Paul Mullen scored at the end of a 80-yard march following bobble of what looked like a TD pass reception on St. James' 20.

Bob Sayres fired a TD pass to Kiernan for the clincher. Rudy Yapo gave Rams their only marker, on a 35-yard pass from Jumbo (Jim) Kennedy.

Ravens and Eaglets were tied at the first quarter, 7-7, but St. Benedict grabbed two TDs in the 2nd period, two more in the 3rd and another in the finale. Orchard Lakers accumulated their other six points in the finale with Glenn Hass scoring on the end of a 41 yard pass play. Hass also made the Eaglets' first TD, or a 80-yard sprint.

Benedicts' Dan Donar contributed four TDs, on runs of 38, 51, 12 and 63 yards.

Card Best Ball Total of 98 for 27 Holes; McMasters Medalist

Sam Lima and Dick Preston, who helped the Sunnybrook team win the Michigan Publinx Golf League championship this year, joined forces to win another links event Saturday.

The Lima-Preston team comtined for a 27-hole score of 98, nine under par, to win the 3rd annual best ball tournament sponsored by Morey's Golf and Country Club. A total of 58 teams competed in the tourney.

Pontiac's tandem of Paul Bada and Mike Andonian shot 100 for 2nd place.

Bob McMasters, who played for Morey's Publinx League squad this season, was the low individual shooter. McMasters fired a two-under-par 105 to take medal honors.

Sam Lima - Dick Preston	98
Paul Bada - Mike Andonian	100
H. Schulz - R. Smith	101
W. Curtis - B. McMasters	101
S. Durkin - G. Dicesore	102
Bud Stevens - Don Mead	103
Joe Peak - Stan Sabat	103
Dr. A. E. LaCroix - Jim Smith	105
W. Konola - J. Kowalski	105

Maverick Triumphs in Reno Regatta

RENO, Nev. (AP) — Bill Stead and Maverick, a winning combination in unlimited hydroplane racing, are the victors of the first Reno Regatta.

Stead, a Reno cattleman, averaged 107.4 miles per hour yesterday on Pyramid Lake in three heats and won the $3,000 top prize money.

Hillsdale, Wayne and Chips Romp

By The Associated Press

Rain and mud are supposed to be the great equalizers in football, which just goes to show how good Hillsdale is.

The Dales sloshed through the rain Saturday for the fourth straight time. And for the fourth straight game, they handled the ball superbly and won impressively. Hillsdale swamped Olivet 53-6 with halfback Howard Rogers scoring three touchdowns.

The victory put Hillsdale into a deadlock with Hope atop the MIAA. Each has a 2-0 conference mark and a 4-0 overall record.

Hope ventured outside the MIAA and edged Wabash of Indiana 19-13. Jerry Henrickson's 56-yard run was the big play for Hope, which jumped to a 19-0 lead before Wabash scored twice in the final period. It was the third game Hope won by a single touchdown incontrast to Hillsdale, which twice has exceeded the 50 mark.

Albion, co-champion last year with Hillsdale and Hope, beat Adrian 27-14 and Alma defeated Kalamazoo 21-6 in other MIAA games. Mike Stone and Jim Hurd shared Albion's scoring with two touchdowns apiece. Jim Northrup scored two Alma touchdowns and passed for a third.

In other Michigan action, Jerry O'Neil scored all three touchdowns in Central Michigan's 22-0 blanking of Illinois Normal; Northern Michigan rolled over Eastern Michigan 39-6; Michigan Tech trounced Moorhead State (Minn) 21-6; Angelo Nicholas went 100 yards with an intercepted pass as Wayne State beat Allegheny 20-7; Bowling Green walloped Western Michigan 34-0; Ferris won for the first time with a 32-0 rout over William Penn (Iowa); and Grand Rapids Junior College clobbered Wright of Chicago 40-6.

O'Neil gained 135 yards of Central's 254-yard rushing total. His three touchdowns came on runs of 25 and 55 yards and a 82-yard pass play.

Northern Michigan avenged a 45-0 drubbing by Eastern the last time the schools met in 1950 in winning its third game in four starts. Paul D'Arras and Gene Valesana each scored twice for Northern.

Western Michigan threatened only twice in its Mid-American Conference gme with Bowling Green. One Bronco drive was stopped on the Bowling Green four, the other on the 21.

Toronto 3-1 Victor Over Hawks

Bruins Rip Montreal, 8-4

From Our Wire Services

Boston shattered the vaunted Montreal defense for an 8-4 National Hockey League victory Sunday night after twice coming from behind.

The Toronto Maple Leafs wrestled out a 3-1 victory over the Chicago Black Hawks in a ragtag, scrambly game in Chicago Stadium.

The win was the Leafs' second without a loss so far.

Defenseman Ferny Flaman's first goal in 145 regular season games provided the Bruins' lead.

Flaman's 50-foot, screened shot through teammate Vic Stasiuk's legs in the second period provided the home forces with a 4-3 advantage and started Montreal toward its first defeat.

The Bruins broke losse from that springboard for four goals in the final period, tying their modern, single game scoring record against the Montreal club, wich is defending the Stanley Cup.

Stasiuk, Jerry Toppazzini, Bronco Horvath and rookie Aut Ericksn each scored in the last 20 minutes as a capacity Garden throng of 13,909 howled in glee.

McKenney tipped in a 55-foot screened shot by Flaman earlier in the second period to pull the Bruins into a 3-3 deadlock after Marcel Bonin had renewed the Canadiens' lead.

Johnny Bucyk scored twice within 30 seconds midway of the first period bringing the Bruins into a 2-2 tie after Montreal clicked off an early advantage on shots by Tom Johnson and Claude Provost.

First period goals by Bob Pulford while the Leafs were shorthanded—and rookie Ted Hampson were all the Leafs needed against the disorganized Hawks. Bert Olmstead took advantage of a "partial" removal of Chicago goalie Glenn Hall in the final minute of play to sew up the triumph.

Hall was heading for the Hawk bench in favor of a sixth offensive player as the end of the game neared when the puck slithered into Chicago ice, with Olmstead chasing it. Hall made a bid to make it back to his cage, but Olmstead's shot scooted in behind his sliding form at the goal mouth.

Ron Murphy's goal in the second period was the only Hawk score although they had several good chances to pop the puck past Leaf netminder Johnny Bower.

Bower finished the game with 25 saves to only 22 for Hall.

Yank International Horse Jump Champ

WASHINGTON (AP) — A hairs' breadth of time gave Hugh Wiley a doubleheader for the United States Sunday night in the fourth round of the Washington horse show's international jumping competition.

The victory for the young Towson, Md., rider puts him so far ahead in points total that he is assured individual honors among the five teams competing in the show which ends Tuesday.

He has four firsts; one of them earned in a Sunday afternoon round aboard a big grey gelding, Master William.

Riding his own palomino, Nautical, Sunday night, Wiley had a two-tenths of a second edge over Canada's team captain Douglas Cudny.

Eight More Men Gain Bowlerama Finals

Samuel, Nicholl Top 2nd Round Press Qualifiers

Wednesday Deadline to Enter for Women, Remaining Men

By CHUCK ABAIR

A 647 actual series by Clint Nicholl and Les Samuel's 242 game featured the 2nd round of men's qualifying as eight more gained the Pontiac Press Bowlerama finals with outstanding performances at Maple Lanes yesterday.

A total of 15 men are now set for the championship battle coming up at the new Huron Bowl Oct. 25. The list will be completed at what is expected to be a big closing qualifying session Sunday at Westside Recreation.

The deadline for entries for that event as well as the one women's qualifying day at Lakewood Lanes is Wednesday at Midnight. All ladies taing part in the tourney will compete Sunday.

Any men who participated in either the 1st or 2nd rounds and failed to make the grade can reenter for a final attempt this week. Some keglers have already bowled in both rounds. They are ineligible for further action this year.

Despite Nicholl's big series, Samuel topped yesterday's qualifiers with 697 aided by a 98 handicap. His score is the best handicap total of the tournament. Nicholl had 691. A 676 posted Oct. 4 is still the best actual series.

Harold Law at 639, Milt Francis and Dave Mackley, both with 636, "Mo" Moore at 629, Marvin Copenhaver at 624 and Jay Lovett 617 complete the unofficial list of finalists.

Possible alternates are Irv Gray, 616, Carl Harris 612 and Julian Grimes, who had 610.

Moore's score was actual, Law had a 233 game, Mackley and Copenhaver combined steady bowling with good handicaps while Lovett's low was 191.

Long-time local star Bill Bull missed the cut by dropping to 182 after hitting 212 and 216 for a 610 actual. Jim Tinson, 1958, runnerup had 599.

There were 18 with 600 series. A total of 29 games of 200 or better were turned in topped by Nicholl with three straight.

Sunday's scores with handicaps denoted in parenthesis:

Les Samuel (98)	177-242-180—697

Marksmen Winners Two Ways at OCSC

Only 12 points separated the winners from the losing rifle team in the recent OCSC - Marksmen's club match at Oakland County Sportsmen's club range. Marksmen took the match in a double win, firing 950 actual and 999 handicap. OCSC's five carded 942 and 995.

The scores:

Marksmen — Clarence Burck 188-197, Emil Letrick 189 (act), Don Braddock 198 (hcp), C. Ostrowski 192-200, Marion Easter 189-201 and J. McGillis 192-203.

Reds Stay Undefeated

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP) — With thir new big line of Ray Ross, Dutch Reibel and Bo Elik contributing three goals, the unbeaten Providence Reds outscored the Cleveland Barons, 6-3, Sunday night for their fourth straight American Hockey League victory.

Wolverines Need a Lift for Wildcat Invasion

'M' Victory Morale Builder

ANN ARBOR (UPI) — Michigan's 18-7 victory over Oregon State was quite a morale builder for the Wolverines, but they w need more than just spirit to defeat Northwestern this weekend.

Northwestern, the leading team in the Big Ten, has two victories over conference opponents Iowa and Minnesota plus a decisive triumph over Oklahoma to its credit.

It is the only unbeaten team in the Big Ten.

Oregon State, meanwhile, is a team destined to go nowhere this season and its loss to Michigan was its fourth defeat in as many starts.

Despite this, the Wolverines had trouble with Oregon State until the last period when they came from behind on touchdowns by Ken Tureaud and Darrell Harper to take their first victory of the season.

It was only the alert defensive play of John Halstead and Reid Bushong that saved the Wolverines from going down to their third straight defeat.

Halstead, who kicked a 28-yard field goal for the only three points of an otherwise scoreless first half, recovered an Oregon State fumble on the Beavers' 33-yard line.

Halstead's fourth-period recovery fired up the Michigan squad and it hammered down near the goal line on a series of short gains. Tureaud then capped the drive with a two-yard plunge into the end zone.

Bushong set up the Wolverines' other fourth-period score when he intercepted a pass and returned it to his own 32. Harper added another two-yard touchdown after.

Michigan, which had missed three earlier touchdown attempts, again fought its way down the field on short running plays to set the stage for Harper's scoring plunge.

The Michigan defense held Oregon State's single-wing offensive attack scoreless until late in the third period.

It was a defensive play which set up the Beavers' only touchdown. Chuck Marshall of Oregon State picked off one of Michigan quarterback Stan Noskin's passes and rambled 75 yards to put the ball on the Wolverine 22. Fullback Jim Stinnette dove over from the one for Oregon State's touchdown.

The victory was the first under the guidance of Bump Elliott, Michigan's new head coach, and it ended a six-game losing streak. Another defeat would have matched the longest string of Michigan losses ever recorded in the school's modern football history.

HARPER SCORES—Darrell Harper (41) of Royal Oak crosses the goal line standing up as he scored Michigan's last TD against Oregon State Saturday. Oregon end Aaron Thomas (89) tried to stop the score. Michigan won its first game for Bump Elliott, 18-7.

Iowa Teaches Spartans Bitter Lesson

MSU Goes Back to Practice Field

EAST LANSING (UP)—Forest Evashevski's experienced Iowa team taught Michigan State—by a humiliating 37-8 score—that you can't make mistakes against a defending Big Ten and Rose Bowl champion.

The Spartans, taken down a number of notches after riding high for a week on a 34-8 win over Michigan, go back to the practice classroom today.

Coach Duffy Daugherty still retains a measure of optimism despite the humiliation at the Iowa Homecoming—widest MSU margin of defeat since a 55-0 blanking by Michigan in 1947.

"The things we learned are going to bring a lot of victories in the future," Daugherty said. "We're going to be playing a lot of good games before the season is over.

"Well be working doubly hard after that defeat."

A host of penalties—most of them on personal fouls—helped put Michigan State in a hole early. The score was 23-0 at the half and vital yardage in two of the touchdown drives was given away by personal fouls called against the Spartans.

Iowa quarterback Olen Treadway staged a brilliant passing performance, starting the rout early with two scoring throws to end Don Norton.

Coaches hoped the MSU backfield speed would help make it an even contest, but the backs were stopped in their tracks and a 23-yard total by Herb Adderley was the best Spartan rushing effort.

Iowa speedster Bob Jeter showed the flashiest running for the Hawkeyes with his best effort a 95-yard kickoff return.

Michigan State's only sustained drive was a single 64-yard touchdown march. Dean Look hit sophomore end Art Brandstatter for three pass completions and threw 13 yards to sophomore back Carl Charon of Boyne City, for the score.

Look also hit Brandstatter for the two-pointer. Look connected with 10 of 21 tries for 140 yards. Tommy Wilson missed all six of his pass attempts and both quarterbacks wound up with minus eight yards rushing.

Notre Dame, a 28-6 winner over California, should be a heavy favorite here Saturday.

"They look like the Irish of old," warned Daugherty after watching the game films on television Sunday. "And they'll be coming here all keyed up because we have won more than our share from them in recent years."

Unknown Monti Hesperia Champ

Club Pro Scores 271 to Beat Out Nation's Top Stars

HESPERIA, Calif. (UP) — Eric Monti, a 40-year-old club professional, bested a field of touring golf stars to win the $20,000 Hesperia Open with a 17-under-par 72-hole total of 271.

Monti's only previous major win was the 1955 Miami Beach Open. His total was four strokes ahead of a trio consisting of former U.S. Open champ Jack Fleck, of Tarzana, Calif.; Jay Hebert of Sanford, Fla.; and Bob Duden, Portland, Ore., at 275.

Monti's rounds were 70-68-64-69 on the par 72 Hesperia County Club course.

The sagebrush surrounding the course ruined the chances of Doug Sanders, of Miami Beach, Fla., who was only one stroke behind Monti on the final 18 yesterday. He tried a wood shot to clear a rough on the ninth and landed in the open desert. It took him a six-over-par 10 to get to the cup. He finished with a 281 total.

Monti's win earned him $2,000. Fleck, Hebert and Duden got $1,233.33 each.

Attack Fatal to Tobin

Ex-Hillsdale Aide Dies

LARAMIE, Wyo (UPI) — John Tobin, a standout as a prep in Dearborn, Mich., and at Michigan State University, suffered a fatal heart attack Saturday during the Wyoming-Colorado State football game.

Tobin, who was 30, was offensive line coach for Wyoming.

He complained of a chest pain while spotting in the press box for head coach Bob Devaney and was taken to a hospital by two fellow coaches.

No one thought he was seriously ill, but he died two hours after he was admitted to the hospital.

Tobin was a native of Dearborn and won two all-state berths as a prep guard before he enrolled at Michigan State in 1947. He played on the Spartan varsity for three years and was named as one of the top eight guards in the country as a Spartan.

Before he followed Devaney to Wyoming, Tobin was line coach at Hillsdale College and helped the Dales to a 25-game winning streak.

He met Devaney while taking additional classes at Michigan State in 1953 and when Devaney moved from Michigan State to Wyoming he picked Tobin as an assistant.

Tobin is survied by his wife, Donna, and three daughters, Ellen, 6; Mary Catherine, 3, and Amy Jean, 16 months.

MacKay Wins Doubles

MEXICO CITY (UP) — Former University of Michigan star Barry MacKay teamed with Rafael Osuna of Mexico for a doubles victory yesterday in the Pan-American Invitational Tennis Tournament.

The pair defeated Antonio and Gustavo Palafox of Mexico 4-6, 9-7, 2-6, 6-3, 5-7.

Another Mantle Homer

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP)—Mickey Mantle's two-run homer gave his American League stars a 4-2 victory over Willie Mays' National Leaguers in an exhibition game Sunday. Mays and Gil Hodges homered for the NL runs.

Keeps Creel Filled

He took 185 pollack, 150 cod, 31 haddock, 153 mackerel and 66 fish of assorted species for a total weight of almost two tons.

On one day he took 62 pollack and 10 cod which came to a total weight of 1,000 pounds.

Hill Grand Prix Victor Despite Early Trouble

RIVERSIDE, Calif. (AP)—Phil Hill of Santa Monica, Calif. raced a 3-liter Ferrari to victory Sunday in the $25,000 U.S. Grand Prix for sports cars—even though his generator gave out on the first lap.

Hill won the 203.05 mile race in a record 2:16.45, averaging 80.05 miles per hour. This surpassed last year's average of 88 miles an hour set by Chuck Daigh of Long Beach, Calif. Daigh fell out of today's race with engine trouble only 100 yards from the starting line.

Two of Hill's key challengers dropped out with engine trouble about half way through the race watched by some 75,000 fans.

Two Summits Possible Soon

Western Chiefs May Meet Before Parley With Khrushchev

WASHINGTON (AP) — Within the next two months, not one but two summit conferences may be held in an effort to discover some way of negotiating East-West agreements to end the cold war and make a start on disarmament.

Diplomatic officials now consider a distinct possibility a gathering of chief Western leaders, perhaps in Washington, in advance of a meeting between the Allies and Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev. This East-West session will almost certainly be held at Geneva.

President Eisenhower is understood to favor opening the meeting with Khrushchev before mid-December. Of 10 days or two weeks duration, if progress justified such length, it would bring together Eisenhower, Khrushchev, British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan and President Charles de Gaulle of France.

Macmillan's re-election Thursday, ending a period of uncertainty over Britain's political future, cleared the way for a speedup of summit conference negotiations among the Allies.

One of the things they have to decide is exactly what they want to get out of the new phase of East-West relations which seems to be opening up.

Some are calling it a new era of high level personal diplomacy. Whatever it is, Khrushchev seems to know exactly what he wants while Western goals are far less definite.

Therefore, some highly placed diplomatic authorities say privately it would be a good idea for Western leaders to get together and decide what they want and how to go about getting it at the Geneva summit meeting.

Such a strategy session might be held by Eisenhower, De Gaulle and Macmillan if time permits. Or they could send their foreign ministers into a huddle.

Moves Into Presidency of Augustana Church

CHICAGO (AP)—The Rev. Dr. Malvin H. Lundeen has been elevated to the presidency of the 600,000-member Augustana Lutheran Church.

Dr. Lundeen was installed yesterday in Rockefeller Chapel at the University of Chicago. In his acceptance message, Dr. Lundeen called for greater attention to the needs and the role of the individual.

Dr. Lundeen succeeds the Rev. Dr. Oscar A. Benson. For the last five years he has been pastor of Grace Lutheran Church, La Grange, Ill.

'Pirate Cave' Project Fatal

2 Boys Die, 3rd Saved From Gravel Pit Near Hudson

HUDSON (UPI)—Three boys decided to dig a "pirate cave" at a gravel pit near here Saturday and the project ended tragically for two of them.

The boys—Richard Losey, 11; Roger Little, 9, and Larry Wilson, 10—went to a gravel pit a mile south of Hudson along U. S. 27 and started digging in the loose gravel.

A short time later, Howard Little went to the pit to look for his son and the two other boys. He heard cries and saw the Wilson's boy's head sticking out of the gravel.

Little and two other men dug frantically to extract the boys from three feet of gravel and sand.

The Wilson boy was alive. But Richard and Roger were pronounced dead at the scene.

Mrs. O. C. Alger, wife of the owner of the gravel pit, said the boys asked her if they could play at the pit.

She said she told them they had better wait until her husband got home and ask him. But the youths didn't wait. Alger was one of the three men who dug the two bodies from the gravel.

To Charge Death Driver With Manslaughter of 10

NORTH BRUNSWICK, N. J. (UPI) — State Police were ready to file manslaughter charges today against trucker Roscoe Poe, whose tank truck was involved in a fiery bus collision that killed nine college coeds and a professor.

After a weekend investigation disclosed faulty brakes on Poe's truck, State Police said they would file manslaughter charges against the driver as soon as a magistrate was available in this township.

Mateos Ends Visit to Washington Today

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Mexican President Adolfo Lopez Mateos winds up his state visit to Washington today by outlining Mexico's position on hemispheric affairs in two speeches.

For the fourth night in a row, the Mexican President also will dine with President Eisenhower—this time at the White House correspondents' dinner honoring the U.S. Chief Executive.

The Mexican President was scheduled to speak today before the Council of the Organization of American States (OAS) and before the National Press Club.

Lopez Mateos was expected to lay much emphasis on Latin America's desire for stable prices for the raw materials produced in that area.

Dialing London on the Phone May Come Soon

CHICAGO (UPI) — It may not be long before a person will be able to pick up a phone and dial a city in Europe, a telephone official said today.

Richard A. Mathews, an official of American Telephone and Telegraph Co. of New York, said eventual worldwide long distance telephone dialing by telephone users is entirely within the realm of possibility.

"In this country long distance dialing of telephone numbers is growing by leaps and bounds," he said. "And it is being favored by subscribers because of the ease and speed with which one can reach a distant telephone."

Detroit Supermarket Robbed by 2 of $2,400

DETROIT (AP)—An armed bandit robbed a supermarket of $2,400 yesterday while his companion stood in the doorway telling prospective customers the store was closed.

Gabriel Essaki, the store owner, said the gunman scooped up two canvas money bags after forcing his way into the office.

Girl, 10, Strangled, Father Shot in UP

L'ANSE (AP)—A 10-year-old girl was strangled and her father shot to death last night. A 16-year-old boy friend of an older sister was arrested as their killer.

Held was Eugene Paquette of L'Anse.

The victims were Edward Frosland, 44, and his daughter Lila Lynn Frosland.

Paquette was held at the Baraga County Jail. William G. Konstenius, Baraga County prosecutor, said he orally admitted both slayings.

Too Many Send Mrs. FDR 75th Birthday Cheer

HYDE PARK, N. Y. (AP) — Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt says she would have been just as happy if nobody had noticed her 75th birthday Sunday.

The phone rang so much with congratulatory telegrams and cablegrams that her secretary finally asked that they be sent by mail.

Mrs. Roosevelt's son John, who lives nearby, his family, and more than 20 friends attended a dinner here for the former First Lady. There even was a birthday cake—with just 21 candles. It's a family tradition.

Bradley Widow Weds Another Lakes Sailor

ROGERS CITY (AP) — The widow of a seaman who lost his life when the freighter Carl D. Bradley sank in Lake Michigan has married another Great Lakes sailor.

Ann Yarch Strzelecki, a mother of three children, one of them born after the Nov. 18 sinking, and Lawrence Losinski were married here Saturday at St. Ignatius Roman Catholic Church.

Says Highway Plan Threatened

McNamara Hits Chop in Funds to Carry Out 41,000-Mile Program

BOSTON (AP)—U. S. Sen. Pat McNamara (D-Mich) said today the federal program for 41,000 miles of highways is in jeopardy because of an atmosphere of false economy.

In a speech prepared for delivery to the American Assn. of State Highway Officials, McNamara said he is opposed in principle to the manner in which the government will finance its 90 per cent share of the cost.

He said the government's cost will be financed by a new one-cent-a-gallon tax on gasoline over the present three-cent tax and by the transfer of half the 10 per cent tax on automobiles to the highway trust fund.

McNamara said:

"When we look at the interstate highway program we do not see some minor project that can be turned on and off like a faucet or whenever a dollar is available.

"We see a gigantic undertaking that is connecting our share of this earth with the finest network of roads ever built.

"We see plans laid to cope with the ever-growing increase in population and the resultant increase in highway vehicles.

"We see more than 700,000 persons at work.

"We see a demonstrable saving in human life.

"Yet, it is sad to realize," McNamara continued, "that this program is in jeopardy and that it will continue to be in jeopardy as long as it is conducted under this atmosphere of false economy.

"The present administration refuses to consider more advances from the general fund even though it knows it would be repaid with interest.

Rye Growth Speeded by Use of Gibberellin

PASADENA, Calif. (UPI)—Another major gain in the fight against hunger has been reported.

Researchers at the California Institute of Technology produced winter rye in two months by spraying with Gibberellin, a hormone. The speedup eliminated the 6 to 8 weeks of cold weather usually required in the growth cycle. It can also be done with winter wheat, they said.

Bob Considine Says:

News Hounds Are Thick as Fleas

NEW YORK—Three recent assignments have given me pause about my trade. Only now is the comprehension quite clear. We are in a period of over-coverage of news events.

Vice President Nixon sped through darkest Russia with 50 or 60 reporters and a dozen cameramen on his tail. A total of ten could have reported it better.

Premier Khrushchev was so thoroughly swamped and there was so little official organization or self-discipline that at times his tour here was as badly covered as it was overcovered. If possible.

About 500 representatives of all media covered the world series, a usual number for that event. But the repetition seemed more appalling than before, as was the length of the stories and the amount of costly newsprint and editorial air-time given gratis to what was at times a pretty dreary show.

How better spent, let's say, on a reasoned explanation of why we, the ga-reatest, have fallen so far behind Russia in space rocketry that our foremost authority, Willy Von Braun, can say, resignedly, "the first American Astronauts on the moon will have to go through Russian customs."

Of these three journeys into excessiveness, the Nixon tour was the best arranged, best-handled journalistically. A lot of this credit must go to the Russians, who knocked off their rigid age-old censorship, provided proper transportation, and assigned scores of interpreters and aides to the American press.

But the chief reason why the news flowed as smoothly as it did, from as far out as Novosibersk and under the sometimes slam-bang circumstances was that the "pools" were intelligently organized and their limited number of members worked with the tirelessness of eager cubs.

A "pool" is a small, representative bloc of newsmen selected by their peers, generally, to be actually present at an event—and release their notes and pictures to all the rest before sending their own material to their papers.

All of us have done this type of job at a time or another. For example, about 100 reporters from a dozen countries were assigned to cover the electrocution of the Rosenbergs. But only three saw the shocking scene—the man from the UP, the man from the AP, and I, representing IS. For an hour, afterwards, I had to describe it to the others, answer their questions.

GOT STORY

Nixon's small "pools" followed him into the bowels of a copper mine near Sverdlovsk, for a boat-ride with Khrushchev, to the kitchen where he and the Premier had their set-to. And the rest soon learned. It would not have been possible for all of us to go, but those who couldn't, or weren't chosen, got their stories.

The most familiar notes of journalistic discord during the Khrushchev visit was the trip of the Premier to the farms of Bob Garst near Des Moines and to a supermarket at Stonestown, Calif.

There were prime samples of what can happen when there is no self-control, no proper assignment of "pool" places, no defined rules of the game.

Garst was outraged. But his efforts to bring a form of order out of mounting chaos only aggravated the humiliating specatcle of the world's last great free press displaying its worst manners.

Chaos cannot be made to disappear by the application of a farm-soiled boot to the pants of Harrison Salisbury of the N. Y. Times, nor the throwing of handsful of silage into the faces of cameraman, nor bellowing orders to his tractor and row-cutting machine operators to "run 'em down!"

From that extreme we went to the other: One man Jim Hagerty, telling us at Gettysburg what went on in the momentous talks at Camp David, many miles away.

There must be an in-between measure, a system of "pooling" which will keep an event or an individual from being trampled under foot but at the same time respect the rights of a free peoples to know what's going on.

That task is one which our own communications world must fathom. Nobody's going to do it for us efficiently. But if we don't do it by ourselves we'll either surfeit the public—which must know the true score in these tense times—or, even worse, fail in our duty to tell it enough.

Priest Is 'Jailed' as Prevention of His Transfer

SALERNO, Italy (UPI) — The population of the town of nearby Acquarola is holding its parish priest "prisoner" to prevent his transfer to another church.

Townspeople, mostly peasants, have surrounded the home of Father Lazzaro Benincasa since Thursday to prevent execution of an order by higher authorities for a routine transfer to another parish.

The people like Father Benincasa and want him to stay.

They so far have let him out only to say mass at the church and have then escorted him home.

Wheat Futures Only Firm Grain

CHICAGO (AP) — Wheat futures steadied in early transactions on the Board of Trade today but other futures weakened.

Reports of export activity in the bread grains, although small, brought a little support into the wheat pit. Prices however held within a very narrow range.

Soybeans, still the most active future on the Chicago market, declined as much as a cent a bushel early in the trade. Factors in the downturn included a weaker market for soybean oils and meals and a government crop report—issued after the close of the market Friday—which placed the 1959 soybean crop at only three million bushels less than the Sept. 1 estimate.

Near the end of the first hour wheat was unchanged to ¼ higher, December $1.97; corn unchanged to ⅜ lower, December $1.09⅝; oats ¼ to ⅜ lower, December 71⅞; rye ⅛ to ¾ lower, December $1.33⅝, and soybeans unchanged to 1 lower, November $2.14⅝.

Detroit Broach Licenses World Sales Concern

AVON TOWNSHIP — Detroit Broach and Machine Co. here has licensed a worldwide manufacturing and sales organization to market its precision tools abroad.

Gustav von Reis, president of Detroit Broach, said that association with the Birmingham Small Arms Tools Group, which includes several companies forming one of Europe's largest manufacturer of broaching tools, machine tools and cutting tools, will provide an enlarged network of overseas outlets for the firm's products.

The group's worldwide sales organization will aid in introducing Detroit B. S. A. machine tools to manufacturers in more than 40 nations throughout the world.

The B. S. A. organization, an established licensee for several leading U. S. manufacturers, is a group of 25 firms known worldwide for production of Daimler motor cars and busses, B.S.A. motorcycles, military and sport weapons, and a wide selection of machine tools and fine steels of all kinds.

Space Stocks Up in Dull Trade

NEW YORK (AP) — Some of the space age stocks and aircraft did well in a slightly higher stock market early this afternoon. Dull, semiholiday trading prevailed.

Most pivotal stocks made modest gains, kept generally within a 1-point range.

The electronics-missile-rocket stocks were ahead from 1 to 3 points or so.

Because of the Columbus Day observance banks and many business firms were closed. The high Jewish holiday, Yom Kippur, also dampended trading.

Steels and rails were slightly higher on balance, showing no particular resionse to late Friday's action by President Eisenhower in invoking the Taft-Hartley law in the steel strike.

Motors, nonferrous metals, oils and chemicals made gains. Tobaccos were lower. Airlines were mixed.

Kennecott came to life, making a 2-point spurt. Reports were that this company's strike-bound Braden mine in Chile is expected to be back into production shortly.

Philco and Raytheon were other electronics to make progress, each gaining about a point. Raytheon's chart pattern was said to be attractive.

Gains of about a point also were scored by Boeing, General Dynamics and Martin Co.

Advances of more than a point by DuPont and Allied Chemical combined with rises of about a point by Air Reduction and Eastman Kodak to give the chemical group a healthier look.

Chrysler and American Motors were up fractionally. General Motors was about unchanged.

Mother Seton Honor Nearing

Pope John Reassures Beatification Near for U.S.-Born Nun

ROME (AP) — American Roman Catholics were heartened today by word from Pope John XXIII that Mother Elizabeth Ann Seton in a relatively short time may become the first native American to attain the honor of beatification.

Sunday, in his first public speech in English, the Pope announced that the cause for beatification of the founder of the American Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph had passed the "ante-preparatory" stage in the Vatican's elaborate 13-or 14-step process of inquiry.

"There is reason to hope that in a relatively short time the cause may pass through the remaining stages and be brought to a happy conclusion," the pontiff said.

Beatification is bestowed by the Pope and entitles the deceased recipient to public religious honor. It can be a step toward canonization. Only one U.S. citizen—Italian-born Mother Francis Xavier Cabrini of Chicago—has attained canonization, the highest church honor.

Mother Seton was born in New York Aug. 28, 1774, and died Jan. 4, 1821. She was a Catholic convert, the widow of a Protestant minister, and mother of five children. She is generally credited with establishing the parochial school system in this country.

The Pope spoke at the centennial celebration of the pontifical North American College.

Atty. Gen. Rogers Due for Surgery

WASHINGTON (AP) — Atty. Gen. William P. Rogers told newsmen today he will enter Walter Reed Army Hospital tomorrow for a minor operation involving removal of a polyp from his vocal cords.

The 46-year-old Rogers was at his office today. He popped into the Justice Department press room to tell reporters about the operation and to say that Deputy Atty. Gen. Lawrence E. Walsh will be acting attorney general for the next couple of weeks. Except for the throat discomfort, Rogers said he was "feeling fine" and he looked it.

New Dealership for Dodge Opens on Saginaw St.

A new Dodge Dealership, John J. Smith Dodge Inc., opened its doors Friday at 211 S. Saginaw St.

The dealership will carry Dodge cars, the new Dart, the imported Simca and a complete line of Dodge trucks.

Smith, who lives at 2920 Berkshire Dr., Birmingham, has been in the automobile business for 25 years and previously was partner in a Dodge - Plymouth dealership in Cleveland.,

The new building, offering 9,000 square feet of floor space, houses a service departmenge equipped with the most modern service equipment for all Dodge cars and trucks.

There is also an adjacent used car lot.

Washington Township Mother of Five Dies

WASHINGTON TOWNSHIP — A 32-year-old Washington Township mother of five was dead on arrival Saturday at the Community Hospital near Almont.

According to Macomb County Coroner Dr. Raymond G. Markle, the death of Mrs. Peter Slane of 17389 28-Mile Rd. was due to an overdose of sleeping pills.

She was found unconscious in her home by her husband who called for an ambulance. He said she had been despondent over the recent loss of an infant daughter and also had been in ill health.

SEEING IS BELIEVING — Attracting the attention of curious shoppers at a Pontiac department store over the weekend was Jack Ries of Cleveland, Ohio. For three days, during store hours, he stood in this large cake of ice. Why? Because he wanted to prove that his insulated, quilted underwear can protect the sportsman in sub-zero temperatures. He did.

Waterford Boy Hurt as Father's 'Cycle Hits Him

A 14-year-old Waterford Township boy was injured in a cross country motorcycle race at Highland Recreation Area Sunday, according to Oakland County sheriff's deputies.

William W. Foster of 1456 Dixie Highway was pushing his motorcycle up a hill on a trail when he was struck from behind by another motorcycle driven by his father Charles, 37.

His father said that he lost control of his motorcycle when he saw his son and attempted to stop.

1959 Automobile Stocks Decline

DETROIT (AP) — Automotive News said today that stocks of 1959 model cars had been cut to about 222,000, or 13 days supply, by Oct. 1 when 1960 models started going on sale.

Stocks of 1960 models totaled about 273,000 on the same date, the trade paper estimated, making an overall supply of 494,812 unsold new cars. This represented a drop from the all-time record high of 976,390 on Aug. 1 of this year.

On Oct. 1 last year dealers entered the new model period with 312,897 unsold cars.

Automotive News said General Motors dealers held the most unsold 1959 models — a total of some 155,000.

Security Council Seat Still in Air

U.N. Votes to Decide Between Poland and Turkey for Position

Voting was expected to continue in an afternoon session.

Poland was leading throughout the balloting and at one point was only six votes short of the required two-thirds majority of those present and voting.

Poland's greatest strength was shown on the seventh and ninth ballots when it got 48 votes to 33 for Turkey.

On the 12th ballot, the vote was back virtually where it started: Poland received 46 and Turkey 35.

With both sides insisting they would stand firm, there appeared little chance of an early solution.

Underwriters Will Hear Broomfield

Oakland County Congressman William S. Broomfield will speak Wednesday at the monthly meeting of the Pontiac Life Underwriters Assn. to be held at the Elks Temple at 8:30 a.m.

Some 100 insurance representatives are expected to attend the breakfast to hear Broomfield, fresh from his second term in Washington, tell the progress of laws relating to insurance, according to John Griesen, program chairman for the association.

Business Notes

R. H. Gathman, general manufacturing manager, Fisher Body Division of General Motors, has announced the appointment of Joseph A. Mosser as general traffic manager of the division.

Mosser, formerly senior staff assistant at the GM Tech Center, succeeds F. S. Norton who is retiring. Mosser came to Pontiac as traffic manager in September 1945 from the Cleveland plant and was later promoted to plant superintendent.

He lives at 81 N. Genessee St.

London Looters Grab $1½ Million in Jewels

LONDON (AP) — A daring band systematically raided a chain of jewelry stores in fashionable London streets over the weekend and took Jewels worth 500,000 pounds ($1,400,000).

Police said it appeared to be the biggest burglary ever carried out in London's west end.

The thieves looted four shops one after another, apparently using duplicate keys to gain entry. They cleared the shelves of rings, necklaces, brooches and watches.

No one apparently saw or heard them.

He'll Never See London

NOTTINGHAM, England (UPI) —Peter Tapsell said he was so grateful for his election to Parliament that he would visit every home in his constituency during his five-year term. The constituency contains 22,000 homes, which averages out to 85 homes a week.

State Posts Ist 'Interstate' Road Signs

MONROE (AP) — Red, white and blue signs were unveiled today to mark the first Michigan section of "Interstate 75", part of the nation's vast interstate highway system.

The new shield-type markers went up on the Detroit - Toledo Expressway replacing black and white U.S. 24A signs.

When completed, the route will run from Sault Ste. Marie south to Tampa, Fla. Motorists will be able to travel the entire distance without stop, except for gasoline.

The Michigan section will run from the Ohio state line in Monroe County north to Detroit, Pontiac, Flint, Saginaw, Bay City, Standish and the Mackinac Bridge, then to the Soo.

Interstate 94 — U.S. 12 — will be the next expressway to be signed with the new markers, the State Highway Department said. They probably will go up late this fall.

10 Were Victims of $5,000 Plot

Dognaped Poodles Back Home

MINEOLA, N.Y. (AP)—Ten tiny, four-legged victims of a $5,000 ransom plot were back home today, leading a dog's life.

Underweight, ragged and weary, the prize toy poodles—dognaped from their owner Sept. 15—devoured hound-sized portions of beef, biscuits, dried milk and wheat germ.

The little canine puffballs are valued at a total of $25,000 which accounts for their theft from the kennels of Mrs. Leicester Harrison, a dog breeder at nearby Massapequa.

CALL DEMANDS RANSOM

Mrs. Harrison said the dogs were taken while she was ill at a hospital.

She reported she got a telephone call a few days ago demanding ransom. She said she recognized the voice as that of Belle Di Joseph, 28, who formerly worked as a groom for the dogs at dog shows.

The poodles were rounded up over the weekend, some from homes of the women, some from homes of relatives or friends.

The last was picked up as he limped forlornly along a Long Island expressway.

That was tiny Snowboots, off his feed and down from his formal fighting weight of 3½ pounds to a mere 2½. He is worth $3,500.

The women are charged with burglary. Besides Miss Di Joseph they are Virginia Kalkhof, 28, Lillian Lyons, 34, and Marcia Esterbrook, 27.

Says His Union Hires Criminals

Longshoremen Official Defends Giving High Posts to Ex-Convicts

NEW YORK (UPI)—William V. Bradley, president of the International Longshoremen's Assn. admitted last night his union still employs men with criminal records in important posts.

The ILA, whose Maine to Texas dock strike was halted last week by a Taft-Hartley injunction, was expelled from the AFL-CIO several years ago for alleged corruption. However, the labor federation took major steps toward readmitting the union at its convention last summer.

Bradley said on a local TV program that he would not be surprised if a forthcoming waterfront commission report gives names of recently-convicted employes of the ILA.

Answering an interviewer's question, he admitted he knew that a legislative adviser for his own local had finished a prison term for extortion as recently as last year.

"I know a lot of people that (did) time who made good citizens," Bradley said.

"How are you going to make good citizens by starving their families?" he added.

The union chief also said he would favor a federation embracing all transportation workers, including James R. Hoffa's Teamsters Union.

However, he said he would not want to include Harry Bridges' West Coast dockworkers because "we don't like his stand on Communism, for one thing."

London Likes Orchestra, Not 'Tarzan' Bernstein

LONDON (UPI) — London's most astute music critics had nothing but praise today for the New York Philharmonic Orchestra, but tossed a few gentle brickbats at that "pocket-sized Tarzan," conductor Leonard Bernstein.

The critics, getting around to Saturday night's final concert in the Philharmonic's phenomenal tour of Europe, Russia and the Middle East, glowed warmly over the orchestra as a whole.

But the London Times quietly reminded Bernstein that "even in a stunt performance it is not good conducting technique to leap into the air."

Water Tunnel Scheme All Wet, Results Too Fast

DENVER (UPI) — The city of Denver decided to spend $50 million on a 23-mile tunnel through the Rockies to bring much-needed water to the eastern slope.

Since last spring, work on the tunnel has been delayed, made more expensive than expected, and finally, in July, stopped altogether for weeks.

To stop it, so work could proceed, a slab of concrete 53 feet long was poured across the rock face. It took a special, high pressure machine to force cement into the water-spewing fissures.

Engineers believe water speeds from the Snake River into pockets beneath the surface of the mountain and that they have been tapping these pockets.

They can only guess whether boring ahead, they will come upon solid rock — or more water.

Denver expects to transport 150,000 acre feet of water a year through the tunnel from the west slope of the Rockies to the east.

The problem now is to avoid water until the tunnel is ready for it.

'Persecutor' Is Sought by Jews

Israel May Ask That He Be Extradited From Kuwait Oil Area

JERUSALEM, Israel (UPI) — Israel may ask Interpol, the international police organization, for help in extraditing from Kuwait the man alleged to have masterminded Adolf Hitler's extermination plan for European Jewry.

First word of Adolf Eichmann's presence in Kuwait, as a Kuwait oil company employe, came from Erwn Schiller, district attorney of the Hesse province of West Germany.

Schiller, in a letter to Tuvia Friedman, head of the Nazi war crimes documentation center at Haifa, said that although the Bonn government had put a price on Eichmann's head he didn't think it was possible to obtain Eichmann's extradition.

Israel police are deliberating whether to request Interpol aid.

Eichmann, according to Jewish records, worked in the oil business in Austria until 1932 when he joined the German S. S. Hitler later appointed him head of the department entrusted with the annihilation of European Jewry.

Urge ROTC Training for State Colleges

LANSING (UPI)—All Michigan colleges were urged today by the Michigan Department of the American Legion to adopt ROTC programs.

The department's policy-making executive committee, meeting yesterday at a Lansing hotel, adopted a National Security Commission report urging Michigan colleges to offer the military training program "at the earliest opportunity."

"In spite of the so-called relaxation of tensions, the nation and state are in grave peril of an international Communist conspiracy," the report said.

A study committee curriculum at Michigan State University recently recommended that MSU's compulsory ROTC program be dropped.

Canada's Red Party Finally Admits the Fact

TORONTO (AP) — Canada's Labor Progressive party has decided to call a spade a spade and has changed its name to the Communist party of Canada.

The 500 delegates to the party's convention unanimously approved the name change Sunday after being told that if the party is to carry out a bold new program, it should be bold enough to label itself as Communist.

Calls for Ban on Union Strikes

N.Y. Attorney Would Also Taboo Lockouts on Judicial Issues

SOUTH BEND, Ind (UPI)—Attorney Godfrey P. Schmidt of New York suggested last night that the government should ban "strikes and lockouts."

Schmidt said on the Manion Radio Forum that "strikes and lockouts are irrational methods for settling issues of the type which, from time immemorial, have been amenable to the judicial approach."

"I do not see how a question of fact," he said, "a dispute as to the meaning of a contract, a controversy as to the meaning of law, a conflict of jurisdiction between unions, an issue of union majority status can ever be settled intelligently by a strike or a lockout.

"I do not believe that it would infringe civil liberties or imply governmental regimentation if we banned stikes and lockouts which aim at forcing surrender on such justiciable questions. They ought to be settled in a judicial manner by courts, arbitrators or similar agencies."

Schmidt is a teacher of constitutional law at Fordham University and represented rank and file members of the Teamsters Union in a suit to establish a monitor system to operate the union.

Schmidt's address was the second in a series planned by former Notre Dame Law School Dean Clarence E. Manion in a campaign for antitrust laws restricting labor unions.

Ex-Child Movie Star Jailed on Drug Count

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Bobby Driscoll, 22, who won a special Academy Award 10 years ago as a child actor, was jailed Sunday on a narcotics booking. He gave his occupation as "unemployed."

Narcotics officers arrested Driscoll, William Bradley, 21, and William Kimbeley, 21, on a Los Angeles sidewalk. Detectives said Driscoll was carrying a hypodermic kit and Bradley a quantity of codeine tablets.

Driscoll won a special Academy Award for outstanding juvenile performances in "the Window" and "So Dear to My Heart" in 1949. He played a leading role in Walt Disney's "Song of the South."

North Viet Nam, Poland Issue Peace Message

TOKYO (AP) — Poland and North Viet Nam have agreed "the international situation is tending toward relaxation" and that Poland's western border with Germany should be declared a "border of peace."

The two Communist nations also agreed to fully support what they called Red China's "legitimate right to recover Formosa and to win a seat in the United Nations."

The declarations were made in a joint communique Sunday.

Director of This Show Busy Man

With Benny, Truman, Who Needs a Script?

By DOC QUIGG

NEW YORK (UPI) — "Mr. President . . . Mr. Benny . . . can we just walk it through once, please?" said Jack Benny's director Cy Berns into his headphone in the control room, and his voice crackled out over the tangle of equipment where the two principals stood.

"Clear the dialogue cards. We will come up on two. Can you fade? We're ready to roll. Got an audio level?

"Stage manager, tell Mr. Benny and Mr. Truman to just project a little more, as if there were 300 people there. I want it for comic effect. Scene three! I want a slap stick for synch.

And suddenly Harry S. Truman was on camera, his soft nasal drawl giving Benny the inside word on White House state dinners: "All the old dowagers in Washington try to get in — and some of them do."

It wasn't in the script, and as the former President kept ad libbing in rehearsal and scene after scene, an observer in the control room said: "Why don't they tear up the script and throw it away?"

The scene was the interior of the Harry S. Truman Library in Independence, Mo. The time was last month during the taping of some 15 minutes of serious-and-spoofing byplay between Truman and Benny.

The Truman-escorted Benny tour of the library will be aired Oct. 18 on the Jack Benny show on CBS-TV.

Although there was a prepared script, Benny had told Truman at the start of the two days of rehearsal and shooting: "Mr. President, you just tell me what this library is for — just what you feel. It'll be much better than anything we can write."

Berns, who is both producer and director of the Benny show, was the epitome of tact in the presence of the Missourian with the silver hair, rimless glasses, blue doublebreated suit and blue shirt.

Over his private line to an assistant: "Al take Mr. Benny aside quietly and tell him it needs more space."

Then over the speaker: "Jack, after you do the bit with your hands, do a little business of not knowing what to do with them."

Back to the private line: "Al, take Mr. Benny aside and ask him to ask Mr. Truman not to say anything after Jack does the hands bit."

Then aside to the control room: "I tell you, this is one actor you can't fire — you've got to impeach him." And, responding to the laughter with a shy smile: "I come up with one bright saying a day."

Near the end of the second day, Truman ended a scene and said: "Where's the boss? (meaning Berns). He's been pushing me around; now I'll push him around a little." The Benny crew became extremely fond of the former President and crowded around him for autographs at the end.

Truman, at 75, showed remarkable stamina in staying on his feet for two days and redoing the scenes time and again with cheerful good humor when Berns looked at the tape and commanded a retake.

When it was all over, the former President said to the crew: "It can't tell you how nice it's been — now I've got to go to work."

"Imagine," said Benny, "he's telling US."

At the urging of the Benny staff, Truman sat down and gave them a goodbye solo, banging out a fragment of Mozart on the library grand piano. "That's part of the 16th sonata," he said. "When I was a kid, I used to play it all. So long."

A GOOD CHUCKLE—Former President Harry Truman has a laugh with Jack Benny at one of the greatest goofs of all time. The headline on the newspaper reads "Dewey Defeats Truman." Truman turned his library over to Benny's TV crew last month for the taping of a TV show scheduled for Sunday, Oct. 18. The two will trade witicisms as they stroll through the Truman Library.

Earl Wants to Bring Hand-Kissing to U. S.

By EARL WILSON

HOLLYWOOD—I think American men should learn to kiss ze hand.

You muggs out there aren't going to like it at first. Some of my old clodhopper, hayshaker buddies from the farm country of the Middle West will doubtless claim that I've flipped for the European jazz and that I ought to be sent back where I came from (Ohio).

WILSON

But I'm advocating it as a defense against the continental dandies whose luck with Kim Novak, Rhonda Fleming, Suzy Parker and other glamour girls is getting rather scary.

If we can't lick 'em—and we can't, that's clear—then let's join 'em. It's not really too painful, kissing a girl's hand, honest!

Speaking as one who has mastered it, I will pass along a few tips. Hand-kissing, I've noticed, is done most smoothly after the hand-kisser has had a drink or two. It relaxes him and also makes the lady's hand taste better.

Certain rules must be followed. First, you should not kiss the lady's hand and shake her hand, too. This is called "gauche" or "overdoing it," in the International Set.

Nor is it proper to wince, or close your eyes and nose, as though suspecting that milady's hand isn't quite clean, when embarking on the hand-smooching. A little dirt never hurt anybody.

"Where to kiss?" Ahhh, you've come to the right party for that information!

Somewhere between milady's second and third knuckle is ideal, but if she should be Zsa Zsa Gabor and be wearing diamond rings covering her knuckles, try to make sure you don't go north of her wrist.

Try to keep in mind that her elbow and shoulder are not, strictly speaking, part of her hand. If you insist on kissing those areas, you definitely will not get credit for this course.

Ernest Hemingway, who gave Toots Shor and me a lesson in this art once, emphasized to Toots that baring the teeth, and taking a bite out of the lady's arm, while growling, "Ruffffff, rufff, ruffffff," was such a violation of good taste that you might be barred from Bricktop's in Rome next time you go there if the word gets leaked about.

Kiss only the top of the lady's hand. Kissing the under hand is considered underhanded and I wouldn't want to be responsible for your fate. Go ahead and try it wherever you may be; Chicago, Nashville, San Francisco, Columbus.

Comedienne Sue Carson once asid, "When a man kisses my hand, I always think, 'Maybe my mouth is dirty.'" She is trying to hold up progress, that girl.

Admits Sponsor Is King

Rod Serling Gives In

By VERNON SCOTT

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Rod Serling, Emmy-winning TV scripter, has thrown in the spone in his lengthy war against networks and sponsors now that he's producing his own TV series.

ROD SERLING

"The sponsor is king in television," Serling said grudgingly. "And he always will be. It's a fact of life we must live with."

This total surrender just about eliminates the rebellious young men who once fought tooth and nail for uncensored scripts. Rod was one of the last of them.

"I never got along with sponsors when I was a writer," he said. "That's why I'm producing my own show. There still are restrictions, but now I'm dealing directly with the sponsor and running into less trouble.

"The situation finally reached the heights of stupidity when normal words couldn't be mentioned because they also were the names of competing products. I had to take a line out of a script that read, 'have you got a match?' The show was sponsored by a lighter company.

"Nobody can be 'lucky' on a program that is sponsored by a cigarette firm, and criminals can't go to the gas chamber if the guys picking up the check manufacture gas stoves."

Serling's new show, "The Twilight Zone," already has come A-cropper with sponsors, but Rod doesn't fight them.

"I'm too busy trying to prove a pet theory of mine," he said.

"I believe we can tell a story in the half-hour time restriction, and make it legitimate and interesting. This show is adult, meaningful, arresting drama which I hope will be both an artistic and commercial success."

He described the program, based on science-fiction, fantasy and the occult, as being tilted off-center. Working 12 hours a day for the past seven months, Serling has written 21 of the 26 scripts.

"The beauty of it is we're not restricted to any era or locale," he explained. "We go from a tramp steamer to a guy in an asteroid with a female robot, to a western. It has tremendous scope."

At 34 Serling is a scarred veteran of TV writing, including "Playhouse 90," "The U.S. Steel Hour," "Studio One" and "Climax."

"I began producing so I could write for myself, have a hand in the casting, and meet sponsors on their own ground," he concluded.

TV News and Reviews

New Video Year Blurred by Many Disappointments

By FRED DANZIG

NEW YORK (UPI) — Time for progress report No. 1 on the new TV season.

Where filmed series are concerned, two words sum it up: No progress.

A rash of imitative programming, which ignores fresh ideas, has led to some dreary debuts by about 20 of the newcomers.

While I haven't seen all of The Alaskans, Wichita Town or Philip Marlow yet, I'd say they'd have to go some to be as bad as, say, the Dennis O'Keefe Show, Betty Hutton's Show, Adventures in Paradise, Johnny Ringo, Tightrope, Man and the Challenge and perhaps a dozen new-but-old shows of almost similar shabbiness.

The only promising newcomers in the bunch are Twilight Zone, The Deputy, Dennis the Menace, Fibber McGee and Molly and the revised Lineup.

Just below this elite group, in terms of succeeding in what they set out to do, I'd set The Rebel, Men Into Space, Hennesey, Dobie Gillis, John Gunther's High Road, June Allyson, Riverboat and Troubleshooters.

Two new "live" shows that are sad disappointments are Charley Weaver's Hobby Lobby and Dick Clark's World of Talent.

In a special category we find Sunday Showcase, which has been a disappointment so far but is making a valiant effort to provide fresh, high quality TV shows.

As for those perennial TV season pepper-uppers, the specials, we've had fine ones by Art Carney, Goodman Ace, Bing Crosby, Rosalind Russell and Arthur Godfrey — in that order — to help us get over the dreary aspects of the nonspecials.

Here's hoping the next month gets better.

THE CHANNEL SWIM: Pennsylvania Supreme Court Justice Michael Musmanno, a leading figure in the Sacco-Vanzetti case of the 1920s, will re-enact his role in NBC-TV's two-part Sunday Showcase dramatization of the controversial case next May. Musmanno also will serve as the production's technical adviser.

Claire Bloom and Siobhan McKenna join Robert Morley and Kenneth Haigh in the CBS-TV Playhouse 90 adaptation of George Bernard Shaw's "Misalliance," to be seen on Oct. 29 . . . As the World Turns, a daytime soap opera on CBS-TV, will devote three shows, on Oct. 22, 23 and 26, to the wedding of Penny Hughes (Rosemary Prinz) and Jeff Baker (Mark Rydell.) A network official says the marriage is the result of letters from viewers, since writer Erna Phillips intended Penny for another suitor on the show . . . Producer Bob Banner of the Garry Moore show is preparing a new series, Diagnosis: Homicide, which deals with scientific crime detection.

Virginia Sisters Are Prodigious Lot

CHRISTIANBURG, Va. (AP)—Mrs. Roy Kessinger and her six sisters aren't doing a thing to make life easier for the census taker.

Mrs. Kessinger, wife of a McCoy, Va., farmer, recently gave birth to her 15th child. That put her one up on one sister, Mrs. Arley Simpkins, who has 14, and safety ahead of another sister, Mrs Frank Adkins, who has 11. Another of the sisters has nine, still another six and two have four each. That's 63 for the seven sisters.

About 4,000 grade crossing accidents occur annually.

BALTIMORE (AP)—When Samuel S. Strouse got his shirts back from the laundry, out fell a printed card:

Strouse was pleased — and surprised as well. By coincidence his mother's name is Sarah and his wife's name is Beatrice.

Tell Congress He Ordered Famine, Murder

Probe Witnesses Call Nikita Monster

WASHINGTON (AP) — Testimony of nine witnesses on purges, terrorism and man-made famine in the Ukraine during the 1930s and 1940s has been released in a new congressional report titled "The Crimes of Khrushchev."

The report, second of a series being released by the House Committee on Un-American Activities, contains testimony taken Sept. 9, 10 and 11 prior to the arrival of Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev on Sept. 15 for his U. S. tour.

Nicholoas Prychodko, an engineer from Toronto, Canada, testified he lived in the Ukraine during the 1930-33 famine.

Prychodko said most of the Ukrainian food crop was exported on orders from Moscow because of resistance in the Ukraine to the Communists. He said that at that time Khrushchev was in the Ukraine as "one of the esteemed executors of Stalin's genocide of the Ukrainian population."

Petro Pavlovych, former editor of a newspaper in the Ukrainian community of Vinnitsa, told of the 1943 discovery there of 95 mass graves of 9,439 bodies—victims of a 1937-38 purge when Khrushchev was first secretary of the Central Committee of the Commnnist party in the Ukraine.

Pavlovych said "the purges and mass murders were by party order which he (Khrushchev) promulgated."

The former editor said his real name is Apollon Trembow and that he now lives at Orrtanna, Pa.

Mykola Lebed, New York, who said he had been a member of the Ukrainian underground movement testified that in 1944 Khrushchev and his subordinates started mass deportations of the Ukrainian population.

Lebed testified "I know that there are political concentration camps operating now in the Soviet Union."

Proclaims Love as She Dies

Shaky Romance Blamed for Stabbing of Actress

BRACKETTVILLE, Tex. (AP) — Investigators today blamed a tottering romance for the knife slaying of a personable young actress here on location to make a movie.

Blonde LaJean Ethridge, 26, from Hollywood, Calif., died with a hunting knife in her heart early Sunday. She had just packed to leave a house she shared with five men in her summer theater troupe.

Witnesses told County Atty. John J. Tobin she gasped "I love you" to the man who stabbed her before collapsing on the living room floor.

Sheriff John Sheedy jailed Chester Harvey Smith, 32, a slight 140-pounder from Hollywood on a murder charge. He was working as an extra in the film "The Alamo."

"She was getting a better part in the movie," Sheedy said, "and she was moving out on Smith and the others. He thought he was going to lose her."

Smith told questioners his memory was blank for several hours before and after the slaying, Sheedy said.

A spokesman said Wayne liked the work of Miss Ethridge and cast her as the wife of one of the soldiers of Gen. Sam Houston, leader in the war which liberated Texas from Mexico.

U.S. Gives Filipinos More Say on Bases

MANILA (AP) — The United States today agreed to give the Philippine government a bigger say in the use of American military bases in the Philippines.

A meemorandum signed by Foreign Secretary Felixberto Serrano and U.S. Ambassador Charles E. Bohlen also recorded agreement that the 99-year lease on the bases would be shortened to 25 years, subject to renewal.

Agreement has not been reached on the Philippine demand for increased criminal jurisdiction over American servicemen.
