REJECTS UAW PROPOSAL — Kohler Co. General Counsel Lyman C. Conger (right) today rejected a new proposal for government arbitration of the four-year United Auto Workers Union strike against Kohler. The offer was made by Emil Mazey (below), UAW secretary-treasurer. E. D. Smith, a Kohler lawyer, stands with Conger in the hearing room of the Senate Rackets Investigating Committee in Washington.

Kohler Co. Rejects Mazey's Plan to Let U.S. Arbitrate Strike

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Kohler Co. today rejected a new proposal by the United Auto Workers Union for the government to arbitrate the four-year strike at the firm's plant in Wisconsin.

The offer was made by UAW Secretary-Treasurer Emil Mazey during hearings before the Senate Rackets Committee, which is seeking to fix blame for violence that has marked the long labor dispute at the bathroom fixtures manufacturing plant in Kohler, Wis.

Mazey was recalled for questioning about his criticism and subsequent quick apology to churchmen in the area of Sheboyban, Wis.

He quickly softened comments he made first about Roman Catholic priests in the area and extended in lesser degree to Protestant ministers.

His offer to let the government arbitrate was made at the start of the day's hearing.

He said the union was willing to allow the issues to be decided by the Rackets Committee itself, or anyone named by Secretary of Labor Mitchell or the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service.

Lyman C. Conger, Kohler's general counsel, was called up to reply to the proposal.

He said that while the firm is willing to listen to any advice from outside mediators on what should be done, it could not allow any outsider to write terms of its labor contract.

Outsiders, Conger said, might be a lot smarter than Kohler executives but "they couldn't have too much knowledge about making bathtubs."

Under sharp questioning from the rackets committee regarding his challenge against clergymen, Mazey conceded that "use of the word integrity may have been a little bit harsh." But he added that "on matters of basic social questions there's much to be desired in the churches of Sheboygan."

Several hours later he issued a public statement saying "I have not and I do not challenge the integrity of the Sheboygan clergy, and if this inference was left, I apologize."

The churchmen had adopted resolutions accusing Mazey of attempting to intimidate Sheboygan courts through an alleged boycott effort directed at a judge who had sentenced another union official for strike violence.

The union's strike against the Wisconsin's plumbing fixtures firm is now nearly four years old. The Senate committee is seeking to determine the responsibility for various acts of violence.

Mazey's statements capped a day of controversy in the hearing. Sen. Mundt (R-SD) said he expected it would take at least a day

Senators Push Roads, Housing to Aid Economy

Federal Reserve Board Slashes Discount Rate for Third Time

WASHINGTON (AP)—Democratic senators pushed ahead today their efforts to develop an anti-recession program including public works, tax cuts, housing and highways.

Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala) predicted the Senate would pass, probably Tuesday, a housing bill he said would produce at least 200,000 more homes this year than under present programs.

Sen. Gore (D-Tenn.) said he was confident the Public Works Committee would approve by Thursday his bill to speed up the already large federal highway program.

Meanwile, the Federal Reserve Board started a third round of cuts in the discount rate, approving a reduction from 2¾ to 2½ per cent for its New York, Philadelphia and Chicago banks.

The discount rate is that at which member banks may borrow from the reserve system.

★ ★ ★

A board spokesman said the reduction was approved "to make credit conditions still more favorable to recovery." The action is expected to bring a further reduction in bank interest rates, and to make loans easier to get.

'REALLY NEED JOBS'

Gore commented that " this will help, but the person who needs help most does not need credit, he needs a job."

The Sparkman housing bill approved by the Banking Committee would make $1,850,000,000 available for various purposes, chiefly for government buying of home mortgages.

It also would cut down payments on FHA mortgages, extend for two years the veterans' home loan programs, and permit a one quarter per cent increase in the present 4½ per cent interest rate on GI home loans.

Gore's highway bill would provide about 12½ billion dollars in new federal-state financing in the next 13 years. An extra $1,400,000,000 would be made available for all federal aid road programs this year.

Douglas' tax-cutting plan would lower the rate on the first $1,000

Ross collided with the large truck-trailer shown pulled off Telegraph road in the background. Ross was treated for head injuries at Pontiac General Hospital and released. The truck driver, David H. Seeks Reversal on Tax Ruling

Uniformity Lack Delays Assessment on Property Along Saginaw Street

The city administration today was fighting down to the deadline to block a legal hole in the assessment pattern holding up taxes on downtown Pontiac commercial property.

At stake was whether wholesale reductions might occur on properties along Saginaw street from as far north as Lafayette Street to as far south as Jackson Street, roughly a nine-block stretch.

The State Tax Commission, asked by the city to reverse its decisions on two successful 1957 appeals for tax cuts, is expected momentarily to provide a big factor in the answer, City Assessor W. Raymond Ransom said.

If the cuts are reversed in favor of the city's higher assessments, Ransom said he intends to stand firm in the face of demands that downtown business be given tax relief because of falling profits.

On the other hand, if the state reaffirms its reductions, which normally are in effect for a two-year period, the city's assessments on other downtown properties this year might be wide open for appeal.

"We have to assess on a uniform basis," Ransom pointed out. "If the two properties in question remain down, it's hard to see how we could assess the others higher and claim the assessments were uniform."

Member of the state board studied downtown assessments with him last month, Ransom said, and are expected to indicate before next week what their policy would be in case of an appeal.

Earthbound, Not Spacebound

Vanguard Launching Snags Again Today

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (INS) — The Navy postponed an attempt to launch the Vanguard earth satellite today after two weeks of intensive efforts to overcome technical difficulties in the temperamental, 72-foot moon missile.

There is a possibility that the launching attempt will be resumed tomorrow.

An announcement issued at the Cape Canaveral Missile Test Center said only:

"A scheduled firing of Vanguard TV-4 test vehicle was postponed this morning due to minor technical difficulties which precluded firing the missile during the daylight hours today. Daylight firing was the required objective of this particular test."

Officials have explained previously that certain tests in connection with the Vanguard require visual observation of the missile to an altitude of 4,000 feet. For the same reason, the Navy satellite rocket cannot be launched into low hanging clouds.

Unless the Vanguard attempt can be resumed tomorrow, a big cipher will be hung up for the latest two - weeks of satellite efforts.

Today's postponement came in the midst of perfect Florida weather. Although rain swept the Cape last night, the skies cleared this morning, except for a few banks of almost motionless white clouds.

The Navy is seeking its first success while the Army is bemoaning its first failure.

The Army's attempt to orbit a more fully instrumented twin of Explorer I Wednesday created a world - wide mystery until satellite detectives established yesterday that it failed to orbit and "probably burned up" reentering the atmosphere after soaring 200 miles high.

An official statement issued more than 27 hours after the second

Compensation Law Overhaul Approved

LANSING (AP)—Over Democratic opposition, majority Republicans today pushed through the Senate bills to overhaul the Unemployment Compensation Law and require unions to make extensive financial disclosures.

Both measures were passed on roll calls that followed party lines. The vote on the unemployment bill was 20-11 and on the union bill was 20-12.

The two measures were routed to the House, where Democratic strength is relatively greater and resistance was certain to be stronger.

All labor union expenditures for political purposes and salary payments to officers and agents receiving more than $5,000 a year would have to be publicly reported under the bill applying to labor organizations.

The unemployment compensation bill, which included an emergency benefit plan for distressed workers, was denounced as "a phoney" by Democrats.

Hospital Trial Set for April 8

Ousted Dr. Sullenberger Asking $250,000 Plus Reinstatement

Following a conference with attorneys today, Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams set April 8 to begin trial of the $250,000 damage suit brought against Pontiac General Hospital by ousted staff surgeon Dr. Neil H. Sulienberger.

Dr. Sullenberger, 42,3 also wants to be readmitted to practice at the city hospital, from which he was suspended Nov. 13. He charged the suspension was brought about because of "professional jealousy" by a 'ruling clique" of doctors.

The hospital, in answer, alleged the surgeon had violated professional medical standards in 25 of his cases, in six of which the patients died.

It also was agreed today that another suit against the hospital, brought by four general practitioners there who claim local rules infringe on their right to practice medicine freely, would be tried after the Sullenberger case.

★ ★ ★

The doctors say that, as junior staff members, they are not allowed to perform the same types surgery as senior staff members.

Attorneys for the city, hospital, medical staff, Dr. Suullenberg and the four physicians attended the conference with Judge Adams.

Agree to Talks in Note Pushing Summit Session

But Reds Demand End to Allied Military Bases on Foreign Territory

MOSCOW (AP) — Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin in a new note urging an East-West summit conference agreed today to discuss President Eisenhower's proposal to ban space wars.

But this agreement was linked with a proposal was abolishing allied military bases on foreign territory.

The message was delivered in Washington Thursday as the U.S. State Department published a note rejecting Soviet terms for a preparatory foreign ministers' conference.

The Soviet Union had proposed that such a conference be limited to the mechanical details of arranging summit talks.

The United States, in common with its Western Allies, insists that preparatory talks must disclose real possibility for some agreements before the top leaders get together.

The new Bulganin note, his fourth since Dec. 16, not only failed to uncover any new proposals that might ease the deadlock, but it raised some points that might actually delay a summit meeting.

RULED OUT

Bulganin ruled out discussion of German reunification. He also rejected discussion of the future of Communist - ruled East European States.

Both of these questions had been proposed for the summit agenda by the United States.

"The Soviet Union will in no case consent to interference in the internal affairs of sovereign states," he wrote.

ACCUSES U. S.

Bulganin accused the United States of repeatedly presenting "deliberately unacceptable questions" for discussion at the summit conference.

He blamed the United States for the delays so far in an agreement on subjects to be discussed at the conference, and on the composition, time and place for such a conference.

Bulganin accepted two suggestions made in Eisenhower's message on Feb. 15 and proposed that they should be expanded.

★ ★ ★

The recently concluded Soviet-U. S. cultural agreement, he said, should be taken a step further. He proposed the conclusion of a treaty of friendship and cooperation between the two countries.

Menshikov also delivered Russian Premier Bulganin's latest letter on summit prospects to the White House yesterday.

Willman Speaks in Detroit:

'Must Unite for Full Federal Aid'

By GEORGE T. TRUMBULL JR.

Communities must unite to fight any cutback in federal urban renewal aid, Pontiac City Manager Walter K. Willman urged a group of southeastern Michigan planning officials yesterday.

"I agree with Gov. Leader (of Pennsylvania) who has said that a proposed move from two-thirds aid to 50 per cent would be a death sentence for struggling cities of America," Willman said in Detroit.

Willman was chairman of a three - member panel discussion on urban renewal during the first day of the 8th annual Planning and Zoning Conference staged by the Detroit Regional Planning Commission. Willman is a member of the commission.

He told some 50 officials that Pontiac had endorsed an American Municipal Association suggestion that instead of the federal government slicing its share of urban renewal grants, that it increase it up to 80 per cent.

Presently, the government pays two-thirds of the costs, with the municipalities picking up the balance. Some administration officials in Washington are eyeing a 50-50 split, Willman said.

This would tax the city of Detroit an additional 11 million dollars in the next four years in its urban renewal work, according to panelist Maurice Parkins, principal planner for that city.

"Because Detroit and Pontiac and other cities would have to pay more to continue this work," Parkins said, "this would mean less money for other public improvement works."

Pontiac has launched its first urban renewal project centering in an area in the vicinity of the City Hall. The city is awaiting a $98,000 advance out of a federal grant of $1,705,346.

Another member of the panel, George Vilican Jr., a planning consultant, called for a basic change in the current urban renewal program.

'ELIMINATE RED TAPE'

Other panelists agreed with Vilican's suggestion that long delays and "plenty of red tape" must be done away for a smoother flowing program of grants.

Vilican, now a partner in a Detroit planning firm, lashed out at Detroit's current redevelopment work, which he had a part in while employed by that city's planning department.

"Detroit is doing only a superficial face - lifting," he said. "They will be faced with the same blight 15 years hence."

'TOO MUCH AT ONCE'

He said the city was attempting to tackle too many neighborhood projects at once

"Instead of tackling 15 neighborhoods and only twisting a street here and there," he said, "and providing only a postage stamp size park, the city should aim at five neighborhoods and do a more thorough job."

The last member of the panel, Wayne Village Manager Wallace Arrowsmith, told of the importance of keeping the public informed during the development of any urban renewal project.

Meeting to Sift Arson Evidence

Prosecutor's Aide, Fire Inspectors to Review Caribou Inn Blaze

Fire inspectors and detectives investigating the Caribou Inn fire will discuss evidence of arson with Oakland County Chief Assistant Prosecutor George F. Taylor this afternoon.

According to Sgt. Ormell O'Farrell, head of the Redford State Police Post's Fire Marshal Division, "We won't seek warrants against any suspects unless our findings are legally strong enough to provide evidence for a powerful case."

There was a definite odor of either kerosene or fuel oil in a third floor rear room of the Clarkston landmark which burned Tuesday, police said. A charred rug has been taken to the State Police laboratory in Lansing to be analyzed.

"The results of laboratory tests may not be available for several days yet," said O'Farrell.

O'Farrell would not disclose the names of any possible suspects and said that "no one will be questioned as a suspect until the lab reports are back."

Meanwhile, the detectives will continue with their extensive investigation into the cause of the $35,000 fire which gutted a portion of the building.

In climbing up, or driving up, mountains, is it important to allow for lessening oxygen?

It is very important to understand the composition of the atmosphere in ascending mountains — as it is in flying. While most of the gas that surrounds the earth (the atmosphere) is not oxygen, the supply of this gas is vital to our breathing and health.

As we ascend, the air gets thinner and we do not breathe in the normal supply of vital oxygen. If you reach an altitude of 10,000 or 11,000 feet, climbing or driving, you have reached a dangerous altitude. In a few places in this country our mountains rise this high.

Even at 8,000 or 9,000 feet, the effects are considerable. Above 9,000 extra oxygen should be used. Vision at night is very poor at this altitude without additional oxygen. If in doubt whether you are suffering from anoxia, look at your finger nails. They should be pink, and if they are turning bluish, you are experiencing anoxia.

Rejects Arbitration Plan to wind up the questioning of Mazey, whose statements about the clergy he denounced as "shocking."

Mundt told Newsmen he had heard "Reds, atheists and others" accuse the clergy on many scores, but never anyone in a position comparable with Mazey's.

"It is indicative," Mundt said, "of a rule or ruin attitude which should concern every American." He said he had many more questions for Mazey.

The clerical attack on Mazey followed his criticism of a circuit judge who had imposed a one to two-year sentence on William Vinson, then chief steward of a Detroit UAW local. Mazey called the sentence harsh, and in a radio broadcast questioned the judge's fitness to serve.

Vinson, who is 6 feet 3, was convicted of assaulting a non-striker, Willard Van Ouwerkerk, 5 feet, 1 inch, a short, slim man. Appearing yesterday, Van Ouwerkerk said he suffered three or four broken ribs and a punctured lung that led to pneumonia.

Vinson said he was drinking and "lost my temper. He served 13½ months in jail.

"In my opinion," Mazey said, "the Kohler Co. has influence over the clergy, the bar and the Medical Assn. of Sheboygan County."

Sen. Curtis (R-Neb) asked whether Mazey was saying that Catholic priests "are not men of integrity."

"What other conclusion can I make?" Mazey replied.

Mazey had launched his testimony by filing a prepared statement which accused the company of having provoked violence. He accused it of "fabricating" some hoax incidents to discredit the union. He also accused the company of "inhuman" treatment of its workers.

Does Roar of Jets Curb Bossy's Milk Output?

EAST LANSING (AP)—Does the roar of jet planes disturb the cows mildly munching green grass below?

W. W. Snyder, MSU dairy researcher, said milk production data is being collected from farm areas near several Michigan jet plane bases. By comparing rate of production with the number of jet flights a day it is hoped to get some indication of the impact of the noise on the cows.

Snyder said some cattlemen have complained about noise affecting production.

Shooting Down of Jet Probed

U.N. Command Unsure of Position of Planes Over Korea

SEOUL, Korea (AP) — The U.N. Command today continued its investigation into the shooting down of an American jet fighter by Communist guns near the neutral zone dividing North and South Korea. Protests to the Reds were delayed, meanwhile.

★ ★ ★

A spokesman said the U.N. Command had no information on the exact position of two F86 Sabre Jets in relation to the demilitarized zone when one was shot down yesterday. The zone is 2½ miles wide and the Communists control the northern half.

The pilot of the second plane on a routine training flight, Lt. Ronald E. Martin of Rock Hill, Mo., returned unscathed to his base at Osan. Martin said he "momentarily saw a parachute with the pilot floating toward the ground just over the Communist side of the line."

On completion of its inquiry, the U.N. Command was expected to request an armistice commission meeting to protest the shooting and demand return of the downed flier.

The missing pilot's name was not announced.

Search planes that flew near the area saw no trace of the flier. Further searching might be abandoned to avoid the danger of another incident, an Air Force officer indicated.

Family of 7 Dogs Creates Furor in Pontiac Home

A surprising and totally unexpected furor has arisen in Pontiac over a family of seven little Basenji dogs. These animals of an ancient Central Africa and Egyptian origin, are owned by Roland (Frenchie) and Mrs. LeClerc, 405 Riverside Dr.

★ ★ ★

Here's what happened yesterday, after publication in The Press' Outdoor page of a feature (and picture) about the unusual breed:

Mrs. LeClerc reports that—

1. At least 50 persons visited the home to see the dogs.

2. More than 200 telephone calls were received from others asking questions about the animals.

3. The LeClercs got no sleep at all Wednesday night and Thursday — and calls were still coming in today.

Says Mrs. LeClerc:

"We have had a regular Easter parade over here. So many persons reading about the dogs, called to see them, and our telephone rang constantly.

"I never realized so many people were so curious about dogs. But we're glad to show our 'little devils'. These pups are so lively and so mischevious."

What will the LeClercs do with the Basenjis? "We just don't know right now what we'll do with them. Probably sell them—nearly every one who saw them wanted a puppy right away."

Lenten Meditations

By ROBERT L. DIEFFENBACHER, D.D.

There are a great many suicides in the world. Day after day the news tells about unfortunate, discouraged people who take their own lives.

These folks commit the unforgivable sin of denying God and His power. They overlook the fact that the love of God is steadfast and that new opportunities of life are offered every morning.

When people dwell on their own failures, on their own weaknesses and on their own refusal to turn to God, they become so involved in confusion that they surrender to defeat.

They take everything in their own hands. They find their own minds too small to deal with life.

There is only one escape from self. That is through God. God gives life eternally. Man without God seeks oblivion through death.

If utterly defeated folk would turn to God there would be very few suicides.

Sun to Shine in Hawaii

Showers Sprinkle U. S.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

More snow and rain fell in broad areas of the country today, with a snow covering of up to a foot in some places. Only sections of the Northeast and north central region appeared out of the wet belt.

Heaviest precipitation was in the Southern half of the country.

Showers sprinkled the far Southwest, with scattered thunderstorms and rain eastward through the central part of the country from Kansas to Texas, through the Gulf Coast states and into Georgia and South Carolina.

Amounts were light in most areas except Oklahoma, Kansas, Missouri and parts of Texas.

The rain belt extended northward in the mid-continent through Missouri and into Kansas, where rain turned snow in the northwest region. The snow band spread into southwest Nebraska and southward through Colorado and into New Mexico and also touched extreme northwest Texas.

In Honolulu, the worst rainstorm in Oahu's recorded history ended yesterday, leaving heavy property damage and one death.

The Weather Bureau forecast occasional showers today but cheered tourists with a promise of sun as well.

Eighteen inches of rain fell on Hawaii's principal island to beat all records kept since the turn of the century.

'Flying Bullets Filled Cockpit'

American Pilots Tell How Reds Got Plane

SEOUL, Korea (AP) — The pilot's compartment was "filled with flying bullets" when Korean Communists seized their airliner, the American pilots related today.

"But everything happened so fast I was completely helpless," Willis P. Hobbs of Vallejo, Calif., a civilian, told a news conference.

The Red agents grabbed the airliner flown by Hobbs and Air Force Lt. Col. Howard W. McClellan of Buchanan, Mich., on Feb. 16 and diverted it to North Korea off its regular flight from Pusan to Seoul.

The Reds Thursday released the two Americans, a West German couple and 22 of the 30 Koreans aboard.

McClellan, in a statement to military investigators, said the plane was on automatic pilot when he heard a loud banging on the door leading from the passenger's compartment.

Then bullets began flying through the cockpit, McClellan said in his statement. Hobbs reported hearing 8 to 10 shots as the two hugged the sides of the plane to get out of the line of fire.

GRABBED MIKE

"I grabbed the mike, planning to give a 'May Day' (emergency distress) call as the cockpit was literally filled with flying bullets," McClellan said.

★ ★ ★

Hobbs yelled that the plane was still on automatic pilot so "I leaned across the floor into the path of the flying bullets and turned it off," the officer said.

Then, said Hobbs, three armed Koreans broke into the compartment. One told him, "We go to North Korea."

GUN AT HEAD

McClellan said one Korean pulled out the microphone cords. Hobbs said one of the intruders stood behind "with a gun pointed right at my head."

The Koreans looked like they were determined to succeed in taking the plane or die in the attempt, McClellan said.

The agents were uncertain where to land when they were over North Korea. They finally asked Hobbs if planes on a field 15 miles north of Pyongyang, the North Korean capital, were U.S. Air Force planes. Hobbs said they were Russian.

The agent pointed the gun at his head and said: "If U. S. Air Force—bang!"

The plane's occupants were taken to Pyongyang where Hobbs and McClellan were questioned for more than two days. Hobbs said he was asked general questions. But he said McClellan, who was wearing his U. S. Air Force uniform, appeared to have undergone more severe interrogation and seemd "quite shaken up."

They were held under house arrest but their armed guards kept out of sight. After the first week the prisoners were taken on guided tours of factories, to Soviet and Korean propaganda movies and to a Chinese concert.

Under Bed No Place for Her Ironing Board

GREENFIELD, Ohio (AP) — Mrs. Kenneth Bennett is looking for a new place to keep her ironing board. Putting it under the bed just didn't work out.

She put it there after doing the ironing and went to work. It took the fire department to get it out. Fire Chief Tom Redkey said the ironing board must have been "pretty hot," because it set fire to the bedding.

Ambitious Thieves Steal Junked Truck Parts

Thieves who owned a large truck and apparently were not afraid of hard work made off with about two tons of miscellaneous junked truck parts, it was reported yesterday to Pontiac police.

★ ★ ★

The parts were stored in oil drums behind the GMC Truck Sales Co., 675 Oakland Ave. No estimate of their value was given.

Trailer Firm Offices Damaged by Fire

An overheated oil stove set fire to the offices of Pontiac Trailer Co., 229 E. Walton Blvd., this morning.

★ ★ ★

Firemen fought the blaze in the one-story wooden building 20 minutes. Damage was estimated at $500 to the building and $100 to contents.

Firemen said the chimney apparently set fire to an adjacent wall.

So That's Why Female Styles Are Zany

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — A Florida State University sociology professor says women want to look like other women, and yet want to look different from other women.

That, Dr. Lewis Killian said, explains "the complexity and paradoxical nature of fashion behavior."

And Killian had a word too about the men.

There is no biological reason, he said, why American males should not wear skirts rather than pants.

"In the history of the world, more men have worn some type of skirt or gown than have worn trousers," he said.

U. S. Steel Companies Spending for Expansion

To meet anticipated demand, the steel companies of the United States plan to spend one billion dollars in the coming year.

This amount will go for additions and replacement of facilities and will enable the companies to meet any national emergency and population growth. Last year $1.75 billion was spent for expansion and improvements, the largest annual sum on record.

★ ★ ★

Since World War II the industry has invested $9.9 billion with the result that steel plants are more diversified and better equipped than ever before. As of January 1, according to the American Iron and Steel Institute, the steel making capacity of the U. S. had reached 140,742,570 tons annually. In 1954 Michigan, with 8 million tons, topped all other states in consumption of steel in its metal fabricating industries.

★ ★ ★

A wide range of enterprises outside our basic steel industry will be benefited by this expansion program. For instance, among 35,000 purchase orders issued by one steel company in a recent year were 27,000 fuses; 7,000 gallons of anti-freeze; 14 million board feet of lumber; 216 million gallons of fuel oil; 800,000 gallons of gasoline and thousands of pairs of gloves and safety shoes as well as hundreds of hammers and sledges, 10,450 rolls of wrapping paper and smaller amounts of many other items.

★ ★ ★

Freshening Sea Water

In many parts of the world salt and brackish water is being turned into fresh drinking water by various methods.

The oldest one, of course, is distillation; that is boiling salt water and condensing the steam into pure water. Another process runs salt water between two electrically charged poles to demineralize it. There is also the simple solar method which utilizes sunshine to evaporate brine and condenses the resulting vapor on a slanting glass pane.

★ ★ ★

The oil rich State of Kuwait on the Persian Gulf the Westinghouse Co. is building a plant which will produce 2.5 million gallons of fresh water a day from one of the saltiest bodies of sea water in the world. Since 1950 the British-American Kuwait Oil Co. has been converting 720,000 gallons of sea water into drinking water daily says Popular Science. With other evaporators installed by the sheik in the City of Kuwait, the whole desert area of 3,650 square miles and 207,000 people soon will enjoy fresh water from the sea.

★ ★ ★

Our own dry areas in the Midwest and Southwest have millions of gallons of underlying brackish waters which eventually could be converted into sweet water for drinking and irrigation. The same is true of millions of acres of arid lands all over the world. The vast increase in world population and growing industrial needs may make such action mandatory.

★ ★ ★

The present processes are expensive but research is constantly being done to increase efficiency and lower costs. The time may not be too far off when the deserts will bloom again and dry coastal areas will be drinking water taken from the sea.

A Good Appointment

The appointment of JAMES J. WADSWORTH to succeed HAROLD E. STASSEN as disarmament negotiator means there will be no letdown in our efforts to bring about international agreements.

★ ★ ★

As deputy representative to the United Nations Mr. WADSWORTH had much to do with transforming President EISENHOWER'S atoms-for-peace proposal into the International Atomic Energy Agency, a major U.N. achievement. The appointee is a former member of the N. Y. State Legislature and has been a U.N. delegate since 1953. He will report directly to Secretary DULLES who also will have a distinguished four man panel to advise him on disarmament.

★ ★ ★

Mr. WADSWORTH has a difficult assignment. Past performance and experience however indicate that he will do a good job in representing our Government's position at all times.

"Relax, We'll Put the New One in Soon"

David Lawrence Says:

Last Summit Conference a Barrier

WASHINGTON — It takes genuine courage to issue a note such as the government of the United States has just sent to the Soviet Union in an attempt to brush aside the pretense of the Communists and get to the root of their demand for a "summit" conference.

LAWRENCE

First impressions might be that straight talk could prevent the holding of a "summit" conference. Actually, it may work out the other way.

For, as the United States earnestly attempts to clear the air, the way is wide open to an agreement at any moment if by chance the Soviet Union sincerely desires to make one.

Unfortunately, the biggest single obstacle to the holding of a "summit" conference in 1958 is the record of what happened when the last "summit" conference was held at Geneva in 1955.

It was indeed a "showy" affair, and when the United States now says it isn't interested in repeating that kind of parley, out of which again would come meaningless communiques, there is no doubt that the true difficulties of a spectacular session are being realistically underlined.

Originally a "summit" conference meant that the heads of government would get together for a quiet talk by themselves.

★ ★ ★

But the Geneva session showed that, with a couple thousand reporters and photographers at the doors and lots of secretaries and attaches inside, the meeting might just as well have been held in Madison Square Garden.

International agreements are never reached that way. It was a propaganda affair from start to finish.

Even as the Soviets were professing high purposes, they were secretly making an arms deal with Nasser and stirring up tension in the Middle East which has not since been relieved.

★ ★ ★

The United States says it wants a conference that would begin "seriously" to resolve important issues and inaugurate significant steps to limit armaments, and it doesn't want just to get together to have a lot of talk and press notices.

It isn't clear as yet what the Soviet strategy really is. The persistence of the Moscow regime in pushing for a "summit" conference is not explained by anything that has happened in recent weeks. For there's no evidence from the Soviets of any intention to make any concessions anywhere in the world.

The only explanation regarded here as plausible is that the Communist rulers are trying to placate their own public opinion. It is important for Khrushchev to gain prestige with his own people, and there would seem to be no better way from his standpoint than to begin hobnobbing with the President of the United States and the prime minister of Great Britain.

★ ★ ★

This seeming recognition of the respectability of the Communist cause in the world is very important internally in the Soviet Union to the men in the Kremlin.

But the United States government, which is pretty well informed on what's going on inside Russia, has not been stampeded by the propaganda barrage and has not hesitated to insist that, if there is going to be a "summit" conference, it must take up every important issue that is creating tension in the world today.

It is significant that the United States, in listing the issues, includes the "enforced partition of Germany" and the "external interference in countries of Eastern Europe" as well as effective disarmament measures.

★ ★ ★

It is a matter of great encouragement to free men everywhere that the President of the United States and the secretary of state not only see through the Soviet maneuvers but are insisting that, if there is going to be another "summit" meeting, something definite will have to be assured in advance—something that will really give tangible evidence of a desire to relieve tension in the world.

The latest note is an illuminating example of open diplomacy, with all the moral strength that comes from earnestness and sincerity.

Dr. William Brady Says:

Epileptics Urged to Work for Public Understanding

Regarding epilepsy as a symptom and not a specific disease, Dr. Wilder Penefield of the Montreal Neurological Institute stated that upwards of 70 different head injuries and illnesses may trigger epileptic seizure.

DR. BRADY

Many laymen of limited intelligence still make a medieval view of epilepsy, which accounts for the obvious and subtle cruelties imposed upon epileptics.

The plight of the individual with epilepsy of grand mal type (seizures) is reminiscent of the shameful conduct of the public health authorities, federal and state, in the case of the leper Early fifty-odd years ago.

Last August a lady with epilepsy wrote me in part as follows:

"One point . . . I feel is extremely important is the part emotions and tension play in the frequency of seizures. Once I released the fact I was epileptic and wasn't afraid to say the word or to have a seizure in public, my own seizures actually dropped 75 per cent immediately.

"Where formerly I had had eight or nine seizures in a month, I began having only one or two a month without change in medication. So in order to drive again I began going to a neurologist. As a result I haven't had a seizure since September of 1956.

"I sincerely hope more people will take part in their local county epilepsy society's work so that we may show the world we really aren't freaks.

Many people who did not know I was epileptic have asked me why I was working with 'these crazy people and freaks.' I wish I had a hidden camera to catch their expression when I reveal that I have been subject to epileptic seizures."

If any member of your family has anything akin to epilepsy, it would be worth your while to write or telephone the state or county epilepsy society—listed in telephone book.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Parents of Law Breaker Can't Understand Laws

I can't understand why the man accused of murdering the woman on Josephine should be allowed to go free and why use the taxpayer's money to defend him? Our son committed a crime several years ago, but not murder. Almost two years ago he broke probation, and since that time he has served time in prison and has been in a camp several miles from Pontiac for over a year and a half.

A lawyer was hired to defend our son. My husband and I paid him what seemed a high fee to us. We couldn't afford it with our small savings, but we tried to help our son.

The good-for-nothing, lazy bum that our son was helping got a job after our son was locked up in the Pontiac jail. He did wrong but he never murdered anyone. There sure are some funny laws.

Complains of Price for Kiddies' Movie

The real light of show business has just been shown in our local theater. Walt Disney's "Old Yeller" has had a big TV buildup for months and when it finally came to town, they hit the kids with an advance in admission price.

Management says it's a 'kid's picture and they take up too many seats they'd rather have empty. If they'd bring prices more in line they might have a full house more often and not have to take it out on children. They're so busy looking for the almighty dollar, they can't see over their noses.

Warns We Must Be Ever Watchful

A recent book tells of all the atrocities by Nazis during the second world war. Some of them sound like excerpts from a horror magazine, but they were actual experiences of a former prisoner in Germany. Nazis had turned their back on God and that was what happened in Germany. Case Records of a Psychologist:

Act the Way You'd Like to Become

Lola is worried because the zest seems to have departed from her marriage. She isn't in great danger of divorce, for she has a stable home. But good people should still feel romantic even after 50 years of marriage. Study this case if you wish to re-charge your stale love life with new bubbles of ecstasy.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case X-347: Lola B., aged 32, is a housewife.

★ ★ ★

"Dr. Crane, I've been happily married for 10 years," she began. "But lately I've noticed that my husband takes me for granted. And we seem to have lost some of our former romantic feelings.

DR. CRANE

"We act like stodgy middle-aged folks, yet we should be too young for that, shouldn't we?

"So what can I do to revive more romance in our home? We have two adorable children and I try to be an immaculate housekeeper.

★ ★ ★

"We both attend church and my husband is very good to me and the children. But the zest seems to be disappearing from his kisses."

DIVORCE ANTIDOTE

Via Lola's confession you can look into thousands of good homes where there is not much likelihood of divorce but where some of the zip and zest have been allowed to slip away from marriage.

When two people are active together in the same church, and when they also have children, it is rare for divorce to occur.

But marriage should not degenerate into a monotonous state, even though it is stable in other respects.

"Act the way you'd like to be," runs a proverb from psychology, "and soon you'll be the way you act."

★ ★ ★

If you want to feel romantic then you must ACT that way. And every married couple should realize they have an obligation to themselves, as well as to their children, to keep romance alive.

So daddy and mother should have a minimum of one date together each week, over and beyond their attendance at church together each Sabbath.

Hire a baby sitter and go to a movie or have dinner out. It is well and good to take your youngsters to a drive-in movie occasionally, but husband and wife also need an occasional date ALONE.

MOTIONS PRODUCE EMOTIONS

"But I love my wife already," a stodgy husband may honestly affirm, "so it seems silly to go out on dates as we did during our courtship."

★ ★ ★

Well, it may also seem silly to attend church, just because you are Christians, but if you start sitting at home, soon your religious verve will also wane.

We find, despite their protests to the contrary, that people who do not go through the MOTIONS of faithful attendance at church, likewise are not likely to contribute heavily to the church.

For there is a basic psychological law that motions tend to produce emotions.

"Go through the proper motions," we urge, "and soon you'll begin to feel the corresponding emotions."

That's why many Hollywood stars fall into love so often with their new leading ladies.

They simply go through the motions of love making and pretty speeches, even before the hot klieg lights, and soon they actually feel in love.

So they shift from one marriage to another as they play love roles with different leading actresses or actors.

Utilize this basic law in the interest of happy marriage by keeping romance alive in your home. Have that date together EVERY WEEK.

Pay each other daily compliments. And surprise each other occasionally.

For 200 other practical suggestions, send for my 200-point "Tests for Successful Husbands & Wives," enclosing a stamped return envelope plus 20 cents (non-profit).

★ ★ ★

Those Rating Scales can recharge your stale romance with new bubbles, and give you a weekly throwback to the "butterflies-in-the-stomach" era.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Fire Questions on Assessments

Higher Property Levies Raise Mass Protest; Officials Tell Reasons

By STAN BOK
Press Correspondent

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — Latecomers found standing room only last night as more than 300 Bloomfield Township taxpayers jammed Bloomfield Hills High School's cafeteria in a mass protest against higher property assessments.

The group fired question after question to Arno L. Hulet, township supervisor; William Maloney, township tax assessor; and William B. Grabendike, director of office and field operations for the Oakland County Board of Supervisors' Equalization Committee.

Officials told the gathering that higher property assessments do not necessarily mean more tax money will be collected for 1958.

They said the main reason for reassessments of township properties was to make certain the tax load was spread evenly throughout the township.

In explaining a reassessment program which began in 1956, Maloney said the township was trying to distribute the tax burden in a uniform manner rather than attempting to increase revenue.

TELLS METHOD

He outlined his method of reaching a valuation figure for a given property by use of the square foot method as outlined in the State Tax Commission Manual. This method bases the tax on the amount of living space in the home at so much per square foot, plus adding on the value of extras (in and out of the home) and the lot.

Maloney said after he determines the cash value of a home, he then assesses it at "25-30 per cent" of that amount.

His reassessments would bring up the low assessments and reduce the high assessments so the tax load would be spread evenly throughout the township, he said.

Grabendike received applause for his explanation of the Oakland County tax structure with respect to the equalizing factor which actually determines the final tax rate.

SEES COMPETITION

George Petzer, an attorney who was installed as chairman of session by popular choice, said the high property tax situation exists because "one township is trying to outdo the other in construction of elaborate schools."

After spending almost three hours in search of answers to their many tax questions, the taxpayers decided to form a committee to find out where the property tax dollars are being spent.

The committee is headed by A.J. Picotte of 4019 Quarton Rd. Other members are Darman Dickerson Jr. of 6005 Wing Lake Rd., John M. Williams of 1695 Ward Rd., and Mrs. John Begovich of 1750 Ward Rd.

First Steps Taken

Ready PTA Council in Rochester District

ROCHESTER —Plans are under way to form a Parent-Teacher Association Council composed of the seven PTAs of the Rochester Community School District.

The first steps toward setting up the council were made this week at a meeting of district school PTA presidents and Superintendent of Schools Donald C. Baldwin.

Mrs. Mary Eberline was elected temporary chairman to serve during the council's organization process. The first project of the council will be to develop a constitution and by-laws.

★ ★ ★

A council would serve the following ends, it was pointed out at the meeting:

1. Develop a feeling of unity throughout the school district.
2. Exchange information concerning membership, magazine sales and various activities.
3. Exchange ideas for programming — consolidation of some and providing variety for others.
4. Sponsor and organize new PTAs at new schools as they are constructed.
5. Develop a different type of organization for junior and senior high schools in order to maintain parent interest.

Rash of Burglaries Continuing in City

★ ★ ★

Gas stations, a favorite target of thieves, chalked up two of the three. Alexander's Service Station, 65 Baldwin Ave., lost $20 in change taken from an unlocked desk drawer.

Ford's Pure Oil Station, 660 W. Huron St., reported $16 in silver taken from an unlocked cash register and a desk drawer.

Oscar's Motor Sales, 705 Baldwin Ave., was looted of two guns, owner Al Lawrence, of 67 Whitfield St., reported.

★ ★ ★

Thieves attempted to enter the Gee Coal and Oil Co., 91 Lake St., but ran off when the burglar alarm sounded after they broke a window.

Fire Burns Insides Out of Supermarket

DETROIT (AP) — A fast-spreading fire burned the insides out of a Great Scott supermarket in Detroit's Gratiot-Seven Mile area today. Fire Chief Edward J. Blohm estimated damage at $500,000.

No one was injured in the early morning fire, fought by 80 firemen.

A night porter, Major Branch, said he discovered the fire near a hot air vent in the ceiling after he smelled smoke while working in the front of the store. The cause was not determined immediately.

Suspect Arson in Lapeer Fires

Police Note 4 Blazes in Ten Days May Be No Coincidence

LAPEER — A rash of mysterious fires within the past week in the City of Lapeer and Lapeer County has Sheriff's deputies and City Police investigating for arson.

In less than 10 day fires of undetermined origin have destroyed three barns and an unoccupied home.

★ ★ ★

Both City Police Chief Matthew Dougherty and Deputy Kenneth Parks said they feel there is a strong possibility of arson in each of the fires.

The most recent blaze destroyed an eight-room house at 1564 N. Saginaw St., Lapeer, Wednesday evening. The home, which was unoccupied, belonged to Arthur Lynch, Lapeer auto dealer. Fully furnished, it had been the home of his grandmother, the late Mrs. Nicholas Stone.

On Feb. 27, two Elba Township farms, less than three miles apart, burned to the ground within a period of two hours. Damage was estimated at more than $35,000.

★ ★ ★

Another barn, belonging to John Weir of 1410 N. Saginaw St., Lapeer, was destroyed in a blaze at 9 p.m. Tuesday. Weir also lost a house at 1420 N. Saginaw St., in a fire Jan. 15. The cause of this fire hasn't been determined either.

"There is no immediate evidence of arson except for the coincidence of time," said Deputy Sparks who is investigating the Elba Township barn fires.

Jury to Decide on School Site

10-Acre Parcel Sought in Waterford; Owners Refuse to Sell

Whether the Waterford Township School District gets a 10-acre parcel for a new elementary school rests now with a condemnation jury.

The district is seeking the land south of Cass Elizabeth Lake road and east of Cooley Lake road for the school. It will help relieve crowded conditions in the township, school officials say. This proposed school would accomodate 400 students.

Owners of the property, Miss Mary L. Chapman and Mrs. Janette C. Bathum, of 14 Mark St., don't want to sell. They say the 10 acres removed from a 72-acre parcel they own would hurt future development of the remaining 62 acres.

A jury has been taken to look at the property and now are hearing arguments from attorneys for the district and the two women.

Jurors must decide if a new school is needed there, and if so, what would be a fair price for the land.

A Waterford Township real estate appraiser today testified that the value of the 72 acres would be cut $48,000 if the 10 acres are removed from within the center of the property.

Youth Bound Over in Murder Charge

ROYAL OAK TOWNSHIP—Robert Burnside, 17, of Royal Oak Township, yesterday was bound over to Oakland County Circuit Court to stand trial in the murder of another township youth following a teenage dance last month.

★ ★ ★

Justice Clarence Reid Jr. bound Burnside over on a charge of second-degree murder and assault with intent to kill following his examination in the township justice court.

He is being held in the county jail to await the trial. This will be scheduled for the second court term beginning the second week in April, according to Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem.

Burnside, of 10441 Fanwood St., is charged with fatally stabbing William C. Johnson, 17, of 8112 Cloverdale Ave., on Feb. 1 outside the Township Community Building.

Tracking Device to Aid Observers Find Satellites

WHITE SANDS PROVING GROUNDS, N.M. (INS) — A new tracking device to be installed soon at White Sands Proving Ground in New Mexico will make it easier to keep tabs on earth satellites.

The tracking station combining an optical telescope and electronic recording instruments will be the first dual-purpose installation of its kind in the free world.

★ ★ ★

A prototype model of the station, built by ballistics research laboratories at Aberdeen, Md., successfully tracked Explorer I at distances up to 5,000 miles away from the tracking site.

City to Pay Off Bond Interest?

Hospital Names Three to Discuss Its Proposal With Pontiac Officials

A committee of three Pontiac General Hospital trustees is ready to meet with city officials to discuss a proposal that the city take over payments of 1952 hospital bond interest, hospital director Carl I. Flath told Mayor William W. Donaldson today.

★ ★ ★

Trustees James Clarkson, Harold Euler and William Babcock were appointed to the committee at a special meeting on the hospital's unfinished 1958 budget last night.

★ ★ ★

City Commissioners have agreed to form their own committee, probably this coming Tuesday, to meet with the hospital leaders.

The hospital wants the city to take over this year's $80,750 interest as one means to keep the hospital out of the red. Last week, it appeared likely that the hospital would have to pay the first half of the interest, $41,250, next month whatever the city decides to do.

★ ★ ★

It has been policy in the past that the city pays the principal on the $3,000,000 bond issue for the hospital addition and the hospital pays the interest.

Cardinal Stritch Says He Will Move to Rome

CHICAGO (AP)—Samuel Cardinal Stritch, Roman Catholic archbishop of Chicago, says he will move to Rome, probably after Easter, to assume a high church office.

The cardinal has been appointed to membership in the Curia, the supreme governing body of Roman Catholicism under the Pope, the first American named to the post. He will be the new proprefect of the Congregation of the Propagation of the Faith.

Cardinal Stritch said that the duties require his residence in Rome. Since the new appointment was disclosed last week there had been some question on where he would live, Rome or Chicago.

★ ★ ★

The annoucement was made in a message to members of the clergy and laity of the Chicago archdiocese and published in the New World, official newspaper of the church in Chicago.

The message said in part: "While I was humbly thankful for the honor done the church in the United States and particularly done you, my heart was heavy with the thought that I must leave you, whom I love with tenderest fatherly affection.

"I am not saying 'goodbye.' I hope to remain in Chicago until after Easter and to have an opportunity to address you again. This little message is to thank you and to beg your prayers."

Ex-Marine Accused of Murdering Girl

AMARILLO, Tex. (AP) — A young secretary, engaged to marry an ex-marine today, was beaten and stomped to death yesterday. Officers charged her fiance with murder.

The victim was Thelda Cobb, 24, a roomer in the home of her fiance's mother. He also lived there.

★ ★ ★

The man charged is Benny L. Daniels, 23.

He said, "That's all correct, except for malice with aforethought," when two charges were read to him.

He waived examining trial and Mrs. Bonita Potter, justice of the peace, ordered him held without bond.

Officers were unable to determine a motive. They were probing reports that the pair argued with a group of men at a drive-in shortly before the slaying on a country road near Amarillo.

★ ★ ★

One charge of murder alleged Daniels hit Miss Cobb with his hands. The other alleged he stomped her with his feet.

Daniels was discharged from the Marine Corps in July. He gave his occupation as student. He attended West Texas State College at Canyon, Tex., last semester.

The word, cotton, originated among medieval Arab traders who called it "quattan," meaning "a plant found in foreign lands."

Date of Third Satellite 'Well, Not Tomorrow'

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—Yesterday while scientists were still trying to figure out whether Explorer II was in orbit — or in bits — somebody asked about Explorer III.

The question was put to director William Pickering of the Caltech Jet Propulsion Laboratory after he broke the news that Explorer II apparently was not in orbit and may have tumbled from the heavens.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Pickering, whose staff built the last three stages of Explorer II, went over the earlier announcement that the Army has been assigned to launch a third satellite.

Then he confirmed that Caltech will build parts of it. But when he was asked the date of the third launching, he said only: "Well not tomorrow."

This exchange came at the tail-end of a news conference reporters had been awaiting for five hours. They figured the first announcement of the satellite's success or failure might come from here, and close to 100 turned out.

Dr. Pickering was in contact with Cape Canaveral, Fla., by teletype.

At X minus five minutes, he chuckled like a loyal Californian at the report there were overcast skies in Florida. "Tell 'em we're having a beautiful day here," he instructed his Teletype operator.

A few minutes later he told his staff: "One minute and 50 seconds, gentlemen. Everything is normal and the missile is cleared for launching now — and I've got a fouled-up teletype."

But the trouble cleared and the countdown continued.

"These are long seconds," Pickering said when it got down to 15.

Then: "The fire command has been given . . . The lift-off was at 10:28, Pacific time . . . The main stage lift-off looks good. It looks good.

★ ★ ★

"She's on her way."

Hours later, waiting to hear what had happened to the mute moon, nervous reporters and cameramen, now in an advanced stage of chain-smoking, paced the linoleum corridors outside the press room and littered it with cigarette butts.

Others lounged in the press room, exchanging rumors and guesses, cluttering the floor with crumpled coffee cups.

They were like another common breed of nervous men. They gave the place the air of a maternity ward.

Pickering finally strode in. He bore no good news, but he was chipper.

★ ★ ★

If the satellite wasn't in orbit, a newsman wanted to know, where is it?

"Maybe it's in the ocean," Pickering said, smiling.

"Then it's possible it's down?" a reporter inquired.

"Oh certainly," Pickering said. "If it isn't up, where could it be but down?"

Red China A-Reactor Cyclotron Nearly Done

TOKYO (AP)—Communist China's first 7,000-kilowatt atomic reactor and a 25-million-volt cyclotron are "basically complete," Radio Peiping said today.

The broadcast said the atomic reactor, of the heavy water type, is "the bigest in Asia." It added both projects were built with Soviet assistance.

The French Congo, which was the official name of the French colonies in Equatorial Africa, is now renamed A.E.F. (l'Afrique Equatoriale Francaise).

Junior Editors Quiz on CLOUDS

QUESTION: Are clouds really light?

ANSWER: First, we must understand what a cloud really is.

Think of the air and remember that water is always contained in it. This water, which has been sucked up from the ocean and from rivers and ponds, is usually present in the form called water vapor. The tiny particles are so small as to be invisible; yet we can feel the moisture on hot, humid days, since warm air holds especially large amounts of it.

But when such heated, water-laden air is chilled by colder air currents the tiny water particles "condense", that is, they squeeze together into large ones. These are big enough to become visible when in sufficient quantity; they are called "droplets", and it is billions of these which form a cloud. Since the droplets are made of water, which is heavy, you may wonder why gravity doesn't pull the cloud down. The answer is that each droplet is so small—about 1/2500 of an inch across—that gravity affects it only slightly, and air currents hold it up. Since a cloud is made of droplets, it is very light. Yet as the droplets move about they collide and merge into larger ones. When finally large enough they come pelting down in the form of raindrops.

FOR YOU TO DO: In the next rainstorm, hold out your hand and feel the actual weight of the raindrops as they strike it. Look up a book on weather and learn the difference between light fair weather clouds and the darker, heavier ones which mean rain.

(Janice Perregaux of Torrington, Conn., wins our $10 award for her question. Send yours on a postcard to Violet Moore Higgins, AP Newsfeatures, in care of The Pontiac Press. Tomorrow: What was the Ark of the Covenant?)

Florence Nightingale, whose efforts to reorganize treatment of soldiers wounded in battle made her an international heroine, was a firm lady. In the Crimean War her vigilance reduced the death rate in military hospitals from 42 per cent in February, 1855, to only 2 per cent in June of the same year.

Detroit Schools Try Experiment With Languages

DETROIT (INS) — Four Detroit high schools are experimenting with a "package" course covering the language, geography, history and culture of France.

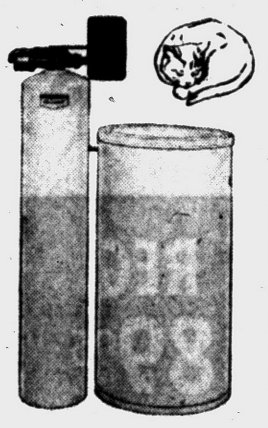

Students at the schools learn French as they would on a guided tour of the country, instead of the old-fashioned method of poring over textbooks.

Colored slides showing points of interest in France are flashed on a classroom screen while a tape-recorded voice describes the pictures in the foreign language.

The students later test their French by describing the pictures on tape recorders. Part of their homework is to listen to tape recordings of lessons in language laboratories set up in the classrooms.

The project was set up a year and a half ago as the result of a successful experiment developed by Wayne State University that is credited with revolutionizing the teaching for foreign languages.

Ex-U.S. Ambassador Seeks Senate Post

ESSEK, Conn. (AP)—Former Gov. Chester Bowles today announced he is running for the Democratic nomination for the U.S. Senate.

★ ★ ★

Bowles, 57, in a prepared statement, said he will campaign actively for the support of delegates to the Democratic State Convention June 28.

★ ★ ★

The former United States ambassador to India was for several months an informal candidate for the nomination. His announcement today came after a vacation cruise in the Bahamas Islands.

Israel Prepares Forests in Honor of Musicians

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP) — Israelis like to commemorate friends of the nation by planting a tree — or even a whole forest — in their names.

★ ★ ★

Funds now are being collected for planting forests in the names of two famed musicians — Arturo Toscanini and violinist Bronislaw Hubermann — for their part in the founding of this country's philharmonic orchestra.

★ ★ ★

After Hitler banned Jewish musicians from working in Germany, Hubermann organized the orchestra in 1936 from among the refugees who came here. Toscanini conducted the first concert series of the new orchestra — then and still called the Palestine Philharmonic — and maintained his interest in the organization with the end of his life in 1957, 10 years after the death of Hubermann.

Upholds Doctors but Also Finds Fall't With 'em

DETROIT (AP) — A doctor says Americans have a generally unfavorable impression of the medical profession and only improved performance and public relations will cure it.

Dr. W. W. Bauer, addressing some 500 family doctors attending a meeting sponsored by the Michigan and Wayne County Academies of General Practice, said, "In medicine, as in labor, industry, law or the ministry, the misdeeds of the few reflect discredit upon the many."

★ ★ ★

"I do not believe that many doctors overcharge their patients. I do believe that those who do overcharge render a disservice to the profession, their patients and themselves," Dr. Bauer said.

★ ★ ★

The public, said Dr. Bauer, willingly spends large sums for amusements, cosmetics, cigarettes, liquor and TV sets; but many families regard spending money to "immunize their children against a deadly killer like polio as simply unhtinkable."

Hal Boyle Says:

Birthdays After 40 Victories Over Microbes

NEW YORK (AP)—Recently I received a mysterious anonymous card in the mail.

On the cover it said, "Every year you're getting closer" and when I opened the card it said inside: "To being a dirty old man."

Well, I had to chuckle. After all, a fellow can't very well break down and cry just because it's his 47th birthday.

And to tell the truth I didn't feel much like crying, anyway. A fellow's 40th birthday may be a heart-buster to him but if he has any sense at all, every one after that he hails as a major triumph—a personal victory in the long struggle of man versus microbe.

When you get right down to it, any amateur at living can survive to 40 or even 45. If you can go on after that, it's no longer a matter of mere luck. You're a real pro—you've learned the trick of how to keep breathing regularly.

★ ★ ★

If life is like climbing a mountain, at 47 you get an unexpected reward. You break through the storm clouds of early middle age, and find yourself on the edge of a sunny upper plateau.

When you go to your doctor, you no longer get angry because he doesn't listen to you when you tell him your symptoms. Philosophically, you realize that he now knows what you know, too—that these are the symptoms you are going to have to put up with all the rest of the journey.

★ ★ ★

It amuses you that young folks now begin to confide their love troubles to you. You don't even mind that they do so because they think of you as they do an elderly turtle—something ancient and wise and foreign to earthly passion.

And at 47 your marriage reaps an unexpected boon. Your wife treats you with a new respect, brings you your slippers when you come home, gets out of your easy chair herself and lets you sit in it.

She is terribly, terribly grateful to you merely because, at 47, you haven't died and left her a widow.

College Faculty Averages $6,120 Yearly Income

WASHINGTON (AP) — The average salary for college faculty members in the United States this year is $6,120, the Office of Education reports.

"This new study demonstrates again that salaries of college teachers are shamefully low in the light of the crucial importance of higher education," Marion B. Folsom, Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare, said in commenting on the report.

"College teachers are key members of our society. They train most of the future leaders in all walks of life.

"They must receive greater rewards if we are to attract and hold those with the best qualifications for teaching the young men and women of this country."

The new study on higher education shows that average faculty salaries in public colleges and universities range from $5,110 for instructors to $8,530 for full professors; in private institutions, the average is $4,230 for instructors and $7,360 for full professors.

The study is designed to provide basic information to assist college administrators in their planning.

Nearly 1,150 colleges and universities, having more than 80 per cent of all higher education enrollment, participated in the study.

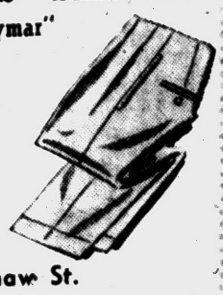

Suspects Puzzle Police

TOKYO (AP) — Japanese police today said six deaf mutes, three men and three women from 34 to 49 years old, are being held on suspicion of operating a pickpocket ring. Police said when they started questioning the six, they ran into "language difficulty." Teachers from the Tokyo Deaf School were called in to interpret.

'Tantrum' by Husband Brings Actress Divorce

LOS ANGELES (AP)—"It looks to me like you're studying at a bar instead of for the bar," actress Jo Ann Scherer says she told her husband.

★ ★ ★

"He flew into a tantrum and moved out."

★ ★ ★

On that testimony the 25-year-old movie and television player yesterday divorced Atty. Clifford B. Scherer, 29. She told the court he had come home with lipstick on his shirts and liquor on his breath from evenings out to study for the state bar examination. She charged cruelty.

Cannibalism may bring a heavy loss to poultry men as up to 25 per cent of a flock may be destroyed if the outbreak is not controlled.

Opposes Shift to Army Engineers

Backs Civil Control of St. Lawrence

WASHINGTON (AP)—A member of the advisory board of the St. Lawrence Seaway Development Corp. says the U. S. Army Engineers Corps is nnot qualified to take over the corporation's job.

In a statement, John C. Beukema of Muskegon, Mich., said "the Great Lakes area . . . insists that the seaway corporation be continued to do the job it alone is equipped to do."

★ ★ ★

Beukema took issue with a suggestion earlier this week by Sen. Potter (R-Mich), who said shifting authority over the waterway to the Army engineers would save the government $448,000 in the next fiscal year.

The Seaway Corporation was created by Congress in 1954 to oversee the U. S. portion of the U. S.-Canadian project, scheduled for opening in early 1959.

Beukema, president of the Great Lakes Harbor Assn., said the corporation's work will be "only partially completed" when the waterway is opened to deep-draft vessels.

★ ★ ★

"A big job that lies ahead is to develop the potentialities of the seaway for traffic in general and bulk cargoes between Great Lakes ports and world ports to justify the hundreds of millions of dollars spent on the St. Lawrence Seaway," he said.

"That job can be done only by the Seaway Corp. Operating the locks is a mere mechanical detail. Hundreds of millions of dollars in tolls over the next 50 years are involved.

"The seaway is an international project, and the Seaway Corp. must coordinate its efforts with those of the seaway authority of Canada and other appropriate entities in building up and servicing traffic.

★ ★ ★

"These are among the functions which are beyond the competence of the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers, and ne ither does the corps operate projects on a self-liquidating and self-sustaining basis, bisis, which the Seaway Corp. is legally required to do.

"The Great Lakes area therefore insists that the Seaway Corp. be continued to do the job it alone is equipped to do."

Locked in for Safety, Three Die in Blaze

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Three Negro children, locked in their home for safekeeping, were burned to death last night.

★ ★ ★

Jefferson Parish authorities identified them as Melvin Spencer, 5; Diane Spencer, 3; and Kelvin Spencer, 2, children of Mrs. Eula May Spencer of Kenner. The cause of the fire was not immediately determined.

The mother said she had locked the only exit of the three-room house "to keep them safe inside" while she visited in the neighborhood.

★ ★ ★

Delery Materne, 19, said he ran to a window of the blazing house and looked in.

"I could see the three children standing there helpless, not moving," he said.

That's Not Hail Falling—Those Are Navy Beans

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Rain, snow, hail and even navy beans hit southern California in a wind-pushed storm yesterday.

Miss Teto Emeron, 37, of suburban Van Nuys, thought she saw hail hitting her office building. The pellets were ice-coated navy beans. The Weather Bureau said winds in the fields north of the Tehachapi Mountains could have swirled the beans aloft and carried them some 30 miles

Sales Clerks Irritating Women Customers

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS)—This week, in a fancy Fifth Avenue department store, I saw a woman turn away stiffly from an imperious sales lady in the better dress department. She was furious and she was hurt.

"I may not be a New Yorker," she muttered between her teeth, "but I'll bet my money's just as good as theirs is . . ."

★ ★ ★

The woman, probably a Midwesterner and possibly a most wealthy and social one, had had a brush with a strangely officious sales technique which occasionally is observed in the swishier salons about town.

She was quite correct in being indignant. The only place where she erred was in suggesting that it was because she came from out of town that the sales woman offered her the supercilious attitude. As a long-term New Yorker, I think I can say that it makes absolutely no difference where your bank account or accent originates.

There are certain departments (let's call this one the "plush room") in certain shops where any customer who does not have a full-length mutation mink is likely to be eyed coolly.

★ ★ ★

And where, should the customer hesitate between a $500 frock and a quiet little $200 number, the sales girl employes a quite unnerving and belittling technique: Urging that she take the "inexpensive" dress, with the patronizing implication that perhaps this shop is just a bit too "good" for her.

"I refuse to be 'embarrased' into buying anything," said the Midwestern woman as she walked out. The clerk merely shrugged.

Now, as a loyal New Yorker without a mink, I have deplored this occasional shopping snag as one flaw in an otherwise exhilarating city of bargains and beauty. Today, thanks to a nationwide survey, I learned that similar problems exist everywhere; my town's more diffident clerks are not necessarily more diffident than Kansas City's.

The "tele-sell" people, who this week started a closed circuit TV program to teach sales personnel how to keep customers happily buying, sent out questionnaires to women's editors in 49 cities.

They discovered that 63 per cent of the editors found department store salesmanship not on the whole satisfactory. Seventy-five per cent of the editors believed that the quality of sales approaches has diminished in the past ten years.

They stressed "indifference" and "complete lack of interest and courtesy" as prime negatives in the shopping picture. One southwestern editor even wrote, "There is no good feature in the stores here. The indifference is amazing and unbelievable."

"I've had clerks make insulting remarks because I didn't buy—so I never shop there now," was one more comment. Still another: "I waited for a salesgirl to complete a conversation with another salesgirl until I got tired and left."

★ ★ ★

Of course, in women's wear, as in Westerns, there are good gals and bad gals, and from coast to coast, the rights far outnumber the wrongs. But it's the unfortunate experiences which the lady editors remember most clearly — and I hope the television teachers will urge their students to keep the lorgnette inflection out of their voices.

Under the Bill of Rights, the customer should be treated as an equal.

Southerner Comes Back With Ancient Bicycle

RIDGEWAY, S.C. (AP) — A Ridgeway resident returned from England with what is believed to be one of the oldest bicycles in existence.

Robert W. Metcalfe said a Parisian manufacturer, Pierre Michaux, apparently developed the bicycle about 1851. It was known in France as a velocipede and later in England as a "boneshaker."

Higher Interest Rate on GI Loans OK'd

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Banking Committee has voted to permit an increase of ¼ per cent in the interest rate on GI loans. It did so in approving a bill authorizing $1,850,000,000 to stimulate housing.

★ ★ ★

It was considerably modified from the form in which it first was introduced by Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala). But he told newsmen he still believes it could provide in 1958 more than 200,000 homes in addition to those which would be built under present programs.

Sen. Capehart (R-Ind) said he felt it might bring construction of 400,000 more homes than would otherwise be built. Both senators said many thousands of extra jobs would be created.

★ ★ ★

Additional provisions of the bill would extend GI home loan programs for two years to July 25, 1960, and lower down payments on FHA home loans.

You May Need Gland Specialist

Consult Doctor About Excess Hair

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

(The Friday Question Box)

Q. "I have very thick hairs all over my legs, in fact all over my body. It bothers me a lot especially on the upper legs."

A. You can shave the lower part of your legs, or use a depilatory. I suggest that you see a physician. He may refer you to a gland specialist.

★ ★ ★

Q. "I am 5 feet and 1 inch tall. I weigh 127 pounds. I did weigh 152 but thanks to Marathon lost that much. I have a medium frame. My friends say I am just right but I think I am still a lot overweight. What is your opinion?"

A. You are just about right. You might lose five more pounds.

★ ★ ★

Q. "Could you give me an exercise which is good for both the hips and the waist, reducing I mean."

A. Do these two:

1. Lie on the floor on your back with your legs straight and your arms extending straight out from the shoulder pits. Palms are on the floor. Cling to the floor with your fingertips as you roll from side to side. Go as far in each direction as possible.

This time cross your left leg over your right and touch the floor on the right side of your body as close to your right hand as possible. Return to starting position. Continue, alternating left and right.

★ ★ ★

Q. "Why do I get blackheads on my back? They look awful in an evening gown."

A. That is one of the oily areas of the body and one which you probably do not reach when taking your bath. Buy a long-handled bath brush and use it vigorously, with soap and water.

★ ★ ★

Q. "I have a daughter 12 years old. She is 5 feet 4 inches tall and weighs 155 pounds. I am wondering how much she should weigh. What sort of a diet should she have?"

A. Your daughter should weigh around 115 pounds, if she has an average build. Since she has so much weight to lose and is so young, I suggest that you ask your family physician for help.

You and other readers may also want my leaflet "Popularity" which gives diet hints for teenagers. If so, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 58 to Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

Q. "I have no bust whatsoever. I wouldn't mind so much if I were 13 or 14, but I am 17 years old. Do you think that there is anything wrong with me? It is very embarrassing. I have tried exercises but they do not seem to help."

A. Most girls have developed curves by the time they are your age; however, individuals vary in this matter and you may yet have a bust. It usually takes several months before you can see any results from exercise.

★ ★ ★

Tomorrow: "Beauty Secrets of the Stars Are Revealed."

You can safely shave the lower part of your legs but the upper part should be left alone. If you have an unusual problem see your doctor; it may be a glandular condition.

Dear Abby . . .

Don't Ask Her Aid in Selling Something She Wouldn't Buy

DEAR ABBY: Could you please talk some sense into my wife's head? I have a system worked out that requires only $3,000 and it will make millions. It is a fool-proof scientific way to beat the horseraces.

My wife has the money but she refuses to lend it to me even at 10 per cent. This means a lot to me because I have finally worked it out after studying it for six years. Could you please convince her that she is passing up a fortune? MURPH

ABBY

DEAR MURPH: Please don't ask me to sell anything I wouldn't buy myself.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I don't have the kind of problems that you specialize in but: Our 12-year-old son takes violin lessons. He plays just fair — his father thinks he is a genius.

Whenever we have company my husband asks them if they want to hear our son play the violin. Well, what can they say? So, my husband drags the violin out and he stages a regular concert.

He insists that the boy play not one or two numbers, but makes him play everything in the book. I can see the guests are bored stiff, but if I say, "That's enough," my husband gets mad at me and we have a fight. Please help me.

EMBARRASSED

DEAR EMBARRASSED: Wait until your husband is in a good mood and then have a talk with him. No matter how talented the child is — two numbers and one for an encore (if they are persistent in their coaxing) should be the limit.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: I am one of the "bananas" who stands around in bunches with the other boys at a school dance. I do this because I can't dance. So what else can I do but stand there and watch the other kids dance? "A BANANA"

DEAR "BANANA": Leave the bunch and find a girl who's "a-peeling" to teach you.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: I am a grown man, 41 years of age, and ever since I was 32 years old I have been trying to get married. Please don't think I am crazy, but I have given an engagement ring to six different girls and have broken the engagement because my mother had a "heart attack" every time I told her.

After nine years of going with six different girls (one at a time) the doctor who has been my friend since I was a little boy told me my mother has no heart condition and never has had.

She came out and said if I got married she would kill herself. I know this is unfair, but how can I get married under the conditions as they exist?

FORTY-ONE AND SINGLE

DEAR FORTY-ONE: Your mother not only has no heart condition — she has no heart. If you want to marry, don't let her selfishness stand in your way. She'll live.

★ ★ ★

CONFIDENTIAL TO RED: The only difference between being in a RUT and being in a GRAVE depends upon how long you've been there.

If you have a problem write to Abigail Van Buren in care of The Pontiac Press. She will be glad to answer your letter. For a personal reply, please enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope.

Bride Asks How to Find Out Who Sent Present

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: "I received a handsome wedding present this morning which was sent from one of the large department stores here in the city. I have searched high and low but cannot find the sender's card and therefore do not know who to thank for it. Will you please tell me what, if anything, I can do about this?"

Answer: You might call, or write, to the store and describe the article and the date on which it was delivered and they may be able to trace the sender for you.

If this is not possible, you could tell several of your friends about the present you received with no card enclosed and perhaps you could find the sender in this way.

"Dear Mrs. Post: My wife and I were invited to a rather large cocktail party given by a business friend and his wife. I know the man quite well but know his wife only slightly. The invitation asked for a reply and my wife sent an acceptance.

"We had full intentions of attending but at the last minute something unexpected turned up and we were unable to go. I would like to know if I should write a note to the host explaining why we were not able to come to the party. What is the polite thing to do in this situation?"

Answer: The note you suggest would be the essence of politeness. A telephone call is really all that is necessary.

"Dear Mrs. Post: If a girl goes to a dance with a particular boy and another boy she knows comes over to her table and asks her to dance, is it proper for her to dance with him and leave her boy friend alone, or must she refuse to dance with him, and if so, how does she do so politely?"

Answer: She can ask the boy she is with, "Do you mind if I dance with Jim?" If he shows that he does, she says, "I'm sorry Jim, but I am here with George."

If, on the other hand, George says "No, of course not," she dances a short time with Jim, and only once.

Banquet Held at Wever

A St. Patrick's Day theme was observed when members of the Wever School PTA held their Mother and Son Banquet Thursday evening.

Mrs. Frank Harp was recognized for having the oldest son, Floyd Harp, who is a grandson of Mr. Fred A. Wever for whom the school is named. Mrs. Edward Bigger was mother of the youngest son, Barry Bigger, 23 months-old. Honored for having the most sons was Mrs. Arthur Bell, mother of Arthur Jr., Jonathan, Jeffrey, and Robert Bell.

Assisting with the program which also featured a movie and cartoons for the youngsters, were Mrs. Melvin Norberg, who gave the welcoming speech, and Mrs. Barton Schmucker, toastmistress. Others participating included Mrs. Irwin Mills, Mrs. Merlin Sanderson, Mrs. Craig Sanderson, and Mrs. Bell.

Working on committees were Mrs. Ronald Carr, Mrs. William Mills, Mrs. William Whitehead, Mrs. Willard Head, Mrs. Robert Norberg, Mrs. Lloyd Craig, Mrs. Schmucker, and Mrs. Loren Kay, of the decorations committee. Planning the program were Mrs. Bigger and Mrs. Kenneth McQueen, with booklets being prepared by Mrs. Clarence Miller.

Mrs. Keith Pawley, Mrs. James Brown, Mrs. Vernis Whitehead, and Mrs. Floyd Harp helped in preparing food for the banquet, while awards were handled by Mrs. Kay and Mrs. Schmucker.

Guests of the evening were Mrs. Bell, Mrs. Rodney Bacon, and Mrs. William Mihalek and her son, Gary.

Leal Emes Unit Observes 19th Anniversary

Leal Emes Group of First Presbyterian Church celebrated the 19th anniversary of its organization when 18 members gathered for dinner at Hotel Waldron.

Eleanore Kellogg was in charge of arrangements for the Wednesday evening event.

Participating in the program were Mrs. Lawrence McDowell, Mrs. Paul Salter and Miss Kellogg. Laura Belz was a guest of the group.

The next meeting will be held in the Evelyn court home of Barbara Hall with Mrs. Martha Mock assisting.

One of the educational and beneficial clubs in three of Pontiac's high schools is the Future Social Workers Clubs.

The clubs which are organized at Pontiac Central, St. Michael and St. Frederick High Schools, are sponsored by the Oakland County Chapter of the National Association of Social Workers.

They are the first such organizations in the United States to be established at a high school level, according to Ted Panaretos, coordinator of the three groups. They were organized in September of 1956.

TAKE FIELD TRIPS

Each month, the groups take field trips to social agencies. This school year, the groups have visited the Lapeer State Home and Training School, Boys Republic in Farmington, Sigma Gamma Hospital School in Mt. Clemens, the Oakland County Chapter of the American Red Cross, the Catholic Social Services of Oakland County and the Oakland County Child Guidance Clinic.

Future visits are scheduled for the Pontiac State Hospital and the Sarah Fisher Home for Children in Farmington.

Special activities of the club include flying U-controlled model planes and maintaining a constantly changing display showcase in the school of the new models they have constructed.

Santa Fe Chief Kills Six Indians at Arizona Grade

YUCCA, Ariz. (AP)—A Navajo Indian couple and their four children were killed last night when a passenger train smashed into their pickup truck at a twilight darkened crossing.

Sheriff's Deputy Todd Long said the Chicago-to-Los Angeles Santa Fe Chief hit the truck broad side and pushed it for about a mile.

Long said the truck, which was demolished by the impact, was stopped at the crossing but that he didn't know why.

★ ★ ★

He identified the dead as Dale Nelson, 29, a Santa Fe section hand; his wife Elsie, 23; two sons, Timson, 7, and David, 3, and two daughters, Helen, 6, and Sarah, 1.

The family lived at Powell Crossing where the accident occurred.

★ ★ ★

None of the train passengers were injured.

The deputy estimated the train was traveing between 90 and 100 m.p.h.

Bold Rodents Invading Area

Residents in Waterford Complain of Big Rats Since Restaurant Fire

Waterford Township residents have become alarmed at the large number of rodents living in the fire-gutted Pandy restaurant located on Dixie Highway near Walton Blvd.

★ ★ ★

Many calls have been received at the township hall from people living in the vicinity, complaining that "rats as big as cats" have invaded their garages, breezeways and drain pipes.

In spite of repeated warnings to owner of the property Leonard Olshansky of Detroit, by supervisor Elmer Johnson and Fire Chief Edward Smith, to clean up the debris, nothing has been done to remedy the situation since the night of the fire Oct. 13.

Hardest hit by the army of invaders, has been William Nash, owner of a gas station adjoining the Pandy property.

GROW BOLDER

He claims that "full grown rats have walked through his open office door in broad daylight, even though there were employes in the station at the time."

★ ★ ★

Nash said, "We're simply overrun with this menace and there doesn't seem to be a thing being done to alleviate the situation." He has started to circulate petitions for help.

Store-owner Harry Cass complained that drain pipes in front of his establishment are being used as a shelter by the rats and "the, come and go without any fear of human beings, or the noise of busy Dixie Highway."

It has been reported to officials at the town hall, that legal entanglements prohibit the clean-up job, and nothing can be done until the difficulties have been ironed out.

TO INVESTIGATE

James Scott of the Oakland County Health department said that there had been no complaints filed in his office, but that they would send an investigator out immediately to check the possibility of a health hazard to people living there.

Girl, 12, Speaks to Friend Mamie Over Telephone

★ ★ ★

Barbara Ann talked with the President's wife last night, renewing an acquaintance begun five years ago in Denver when the little girl met the First Lady as a representative of the Brownie Scouts of America.

Barbara's father, the Rev. A. G. Kendrick, is pastor of the First Institutional Baptist Church in Phoenix.

★ ★ ★

The girl said Mrs. Eisenhower remembered her and "asked me to say hello to all my schoolmates" in the Booker T. Washington School. Mrs. Eisenhower, vacationing at a Phoenix health and beauty resort, was a little disappointed in the weather, Barbara Ann added, but was enjoying her vacation.

Brown McLaren Leaving Michigan

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Brown McLaren Mfg. Co. of nearby Hamburg says it is closing down because of what President Morris Bond described as "an unfavorable political, tax and labor climate."

The firm is the community's chief industry, employing 125 of its 400 residents. Hamburg is about 15 miles north of here.

★ ★ ★

Bond, of Grosse Ile, said the move was forced by high wages, taxes and operating costs. The company produces parts for camera, auto, aircraft and electronic plants.

★ ★ ★

"Anyone who brings an industry into Michigan when he doesn't have to has a hole in his head," Bond said.

He said 75 per cent of the firm's business is interstate, adding, "Our operating expenses are too large in relation to work efficiency to compete favorably with other manufacturers in the country."

★ ★ ★

Bond said that while the company was making a profit from annual sales of $1,500,000 gross and was in sound financial condition, the decision to close was made to protect the speculative interests of its 500 stockholders.

Gen. Twining Calls Free World Stronger

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff says that from an over-all point of view the free world is "superior militarily and industrially to the Soviet boc."

★ ★ ★

Gen. Nathan F. Twining told the Western Industrial Survival Conference yesterday that the Soviet bloc is on a war footing "during a period of supposed peace" and has nearly as many divisions, and more weapons, than it had in World War II.

★ ★ ★

"Some of you may think that the discrepancy in ground and naval forces between the free world and the Soviet bloc puts us in an inferior position, but this is not so," he said. "Military strategy and power are not based on numbers alone but on such factors as geography, industrial production, natural resources and quality of manpower and equipment."

When John Jay, the first Chief Justice of the United States, was awarded a Master of Arts diploma at King's College (now Columbia University), the date on the document read "May 90, 1767." It should have read "May 19, 1767." Somebody goofed.

Bob Considine Says:

Giants' San Francisco Ballpark Luxurious

SAN FRANCISCO (INS) — The Giants are going to have a home next year that will make the Polo Grounds look like skid row.

It will be the old game's first reinforced concrete arena, thus eradicating the ancient gripe, "Wait'll I get holt of that bum who sold me this seat behind a steel pillar." The concrete floor of its 16,000 box seats will be heated.

★ ★ ★

An aerodynamic wind baffle 900 feet long will fend off the indigenous winds. The 140-foot light towers are set much farther back than is customary, to protect what architect John S. Bolles refers to lovingly as the "sight line."

That "sight line" will be improved in other respects. The first row seats on the lowest of three tiers will be four and one-half feet above the playing field. Greens, reds, yellows and whites will be used to color the seats and the exterior.

There will be a landscaped area in dead center, 420 feet from home plate, to improve the vision the batter has of the ball being delivered deviously to him.

Curiously, this was insisted on by the one member of Bolles's advisory staff you wouldn't think would show such mercy for a hitter—old time pitching marvel Carl Hubbell.

"Hub pointed out that it was cruel to expect a hitter to bat against a background of white shirts or other distractions," Bolles told us today. "He should know. Carl told me that he used to take advantage even of certain scoreboards when he was pitching. He'd try to time a pitch with the changing of the lights, knowing that such a change would have subconscious effect on the hitter."

★ ★ ★

Before deciding on a 9,000 car parking lot a study was made of Milwaukee's 12,000 capacity lot. It was discovered that this was filled only three per cent of the time, and that 70 per cent of the time there were fewer than 8,000 cars in it.

The weather is generally better at the new site than at the old Seals ballpark. Doors will be put at the back of the aisles to reduce windflow further. There will be a special press room to keep the baseball writers out of the locker room.

All that seems needed now is a name for the $10,000,000 plant. Bolles has been labeling it Harney Stadium on his blueprints, after Charles L. Harney, the contractor and driving force behind the successful bond issue. But perhaps more is needed than a name. Eight more things come readily to mind: eight more Willie Mays.

Congress Voted Greater Control

To Have More Authority Over Unspent Funds Carried Year to Year

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House has voted to give Congress more control over unspent funds scarried over by government departments from year to year.

By a vote of 311-87, the House passed a comprmise budget reform bill somewhat in accord with recommendations made by the Hoover Commission on Government Reorganization.

★ ★ ★

The compromise, opposed by members of the House Appropriations Committee, now goes to the Senate, which last year passed a bill incorporating all the Hoover Commission proposals in this field.

The House bill does not provide for any drastic changes in present procedure. Under this, Congress generally appropriates the entire amount for a project, although the work may be paid for over a period of years.

The new plan approved by the House would permit Congress to continue providing the full amount the first year, but to limit the amount to be spent in any one year. It calls for annual review of the need for continuing long-term projects and would permit cancellation or transfer of unspent funds already appropriated.

The house bill would bar a return to the old system under which departments were authorized to contract for long-term programs but were given actual money for only a beginning on the work. The Hoover Commission had urged a return to that contract authority practice.

★ ★ ★

Opponents of the new plan contend it would eventually increase spending because they say it would require additional accounting and annual review of thousands of continuing contracts.

Hollywood Headlines:

Angling for Deborah Kerr to Co-Star in 'Four Winds'

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — On my desk is a copy of "The Four Winds," David Beaty's latest novel which has been on the London best-seller list for two years.

Stewart Granger sends me the book and says he has bought this for his own independent company and is hoping to influence Deborah Kerr to be his co-star.

Remember "King Solomon's Mines" which he made with Deborah Kerr was one of MGM's all-time boxoffice hits.

I haven't had time to finish the book but I've read enough to know it's the tragic story of a commercial pilot unhappily married, who finds a new love.

The "Five Pennies," life story of "Red" Nichols, in the works for four years at Paramount, has hits a serious snag.

Mel Shavelson who with Jack Rose is producing it, says that it's almost impossible to start the picture March 21 as was scheduled because of the musicians' strike.

It was very important to start it on that date because Louis Armstrong who will also start an engagement at the Crescendo, is an important member of the Musicians Union and he and other members cannot accept assignments in musical pictures.

The producers are wise enough not to film their musical out of the country in order to elude union jurisdiction.

From the Press Box

BY BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

LAKELAND, Fla.—Manager Jack Tighe is looking at the Tigers' forthcoming exhibition season in a different light than he did last year.

It could be because general manager John McHale, president Harvey Hansen and board chairman John Fetzer and company want a little more focus of the Tiger exhibition record turned toward the Briggs Stadium turnstiles.

Last year it was "over confidence" even during exhibition losses. This year it has to be "quiet optimism and a successful exhibition campaign."

It stands to reason that prosperity in the Southland could mean a gold rush in the North.

★ ★ ★

Briggs Stadium ticket man Billy Loll and Bob Stein-helper have undertaken a season ticket plan for the first time in history. They realize the need for a cushion in event that even first division ideas do a nosedive.

SHOOT FOR TWO MILLION

Tiger officials figure the break-even point at home is one-million fans. They must also get 700,000 on the road. The goal is a two-million total.

Presently, the season ticket campaign nears its end, and reports are that the undertaking "has done very well."

Now the rest is up to Tighe and the Tigers. A good grapefruit record and a fast start in the season is the objective.

★ ★ ★

The weatherman here in the "Sunshine State" sure hasn't made it easy for the Tigers to get started toward this objective. Fortunately, many of the players reported to camp in good shape. Unfortunately, there hasn't been enough sunshine to salt away some of the poundage from those who need it.

It means only one thing. Once this heavy dew moves to other sectors, there will be double the amount of "huffin-and-puffin" when the hot days return.

It will have to be, if the Tigers aim to be on the winning side of that 32-game exhibition schedule.

DITTOS FROM THE PRESS BOX

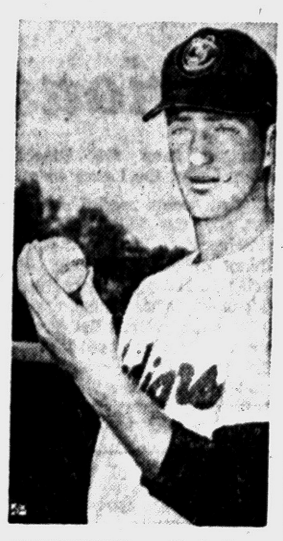

In looking at the Tiger attendance records, the Detroit organization could hardly be called a poor investment, especially in view of its American League standings the past ten years.

The smallest season home gate since 1920 was 320,972 in 1933 for a 5th place finish. In 1934 with the American League pennant, the total was 919,161 and another pennant in 1935 brought forth the second gate to go over a million fans. The other was in 1924 for a third place finish.

The 1945 pennant year set a new attendance mark with 1,280,341 and since that time only in 1953 have the Tigers failed to go over a million. The all-time record came in 1950 when 1,951,474 fans clicked the turnstiles and the Tigers finished second.

Last year was the best mark since 1950 with 1,272,346 fans, even with the bad start which saw the Tigers seven games behind by mid-May.

If the Tigers can stay within three games by Memorial Day, it could lead the way to the first two-million turnstile clicks in history at home.

IMPRESSIVE — Herb Score, the Cleveland Indians' fireballing southpaw pitcher, took his first turn on the mound Wednesday since his critical injury last season and made an impressive showing. He struck out six batters in a three-inning stint.

Big Ten Track Meet Tonight

Finals Set Saturday; Several Records May Fall at Illinois Meet

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP) — Sparkling performances in warm-up meets this season indicate that at least five records will be doome in the 48th Big Ten Indoor Track and Field championships starting tonight.

The opening session of preliminaries will set up the finals for Saturday afternoon in the Illinois armory.

Indiana is strongly favored to retain the team title. Ohio State, Illinois and Michigan are regarded the sturdiest challengers.

Records that appear to be in jeopardy are the 9:07.2 in the two-mile run, :08.4 in the 70-yard high hurdles; :07.8 in the lows; 6 feet 7½ inches in the high jump and 1:52.7 in the 880-yard run.

These marks all have been bettered this season. Defending champion Charley Jones of Iowa has run the two-mile in 8:56.6. Indiana's Willie May has scissored the high barriers in :08.3. Bob Mitchell of Illinois has taken the lows in :07.7.

The Illini's Ernie Haisley of Jamaica has high jumped 6-8⅛. Dave Lean of Michigan State, an Olympian from Australia, has clicked off 1:52.1 in the 880.

Nine defending champions will be competing.

Chestnut Fights Gomes on TV

NEW YORK (AP)—It was only a couple of years ago when Ike Chestnut was a hungry, eager fighter hollering for the big break.

Tonight in Madison Square Garden it will be the other way around for the 26-year-old Chestnut, now an established, fourth-ranking featherweight contender. He meets Harold Gomes, a 24-year-old puncher from Providence, R.I., in the television (NBC, 10 p.m., EST) ten rounder at Madison Square Garden.

Totals 1,953 Points; Pistons Win, 132-116

Yardley Snaps 2 NBA Marks

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

George Yardley was the dinner guest of George Mikan last night in a friendly prelude to the breaking of a record.

A few hours later, Yardley, the scoring ace of the Detroit Pistons, pumped in 49 points and broke the 7-year-old National Basketball Assn. scoring record set by Mikan, former star of the Minneapolis Lakers.

"Mikan wished me well," Yardley said after the game in telling about the dinner. "I needed his moral support. There isn't a jealous bone in his body."

★ ★ ★

Yardley's 49 points in the Pistons' 132-116 triumph over the Lakers brought his season's total to 1,953. Mikan's record, set in the 1950-51 season, was 1,932 points.

Yardley, who freely admits he is a poor passer and anything but a lion on defense, said he didn't want his bombardment of the record to hurt Detroit's chances of winning the game.

★ ★ ★

"Don't forget, we're still fighting for second place in the Western Division," he said.

With two games remaining, Yardley is within shooting distance of 2,000 points. He needs 47 points — an average of 23½ per game — to make 2,000. His season average for 70 games is 27.9 points per game.

Almost lost in the cheering and congratulations that followed the setting of the individual scoring record was the fact that Yardley, a balding engineering graduate of Stanford, also set a free throw record. He dropped in 11 of 15 free throws, raising his total to 635. This eclipsed the record of 625 set last year by Dolph Schayes of Syracuse.

★ ★ ★

The 28-year-old Yardley, a 6-foot-5 shooter who can score from outside or inside, joined the Pistons at Fort Wayne in 1953 after a turn with a San Francisco AAU team. The Pistons' franchise was moved to Detroit this season.

He may be nearing the end of his NBA career. Earlier this season he commented that he hoped next year would be his last. He works in the off-season now as an aeronautical engineer.

Cincinnati's tight 110-108 triumph over Philadelphia in the only other NBA game last night came on the work of Clyde Lovelette and Jack Twyman who combined for 61 points. Lovelette pumped in 37 points and Twyman scored 24.

The loss prevented the Warriors from clinching 3rd place and a spot in the playoffs. Paul Arizin scored 36 points in defeat.

Loyola Downs Titans, 56-51

CHICAGO (AP) — The University of Detroit's Titans dropped a 56-51 basketball decision to Loyola of Chicago in the closing seconds last night.

Loyola's Jim Dewulf rebounded a shot with 46 seconds remaining and lifted the Ramblers into a 52-50 lead.

Then Detroit's Ray Albee, his team's high scorer with 13 points, got two free throws. He made the first one but missed the second, giving possession to Loyola. Ron Schwingen followed with a field goal and a free throw that sewed up the victory for Loyola.

Detroit led 25-18 at the half.

DOWN TO WORK — Spring training looks like a picnic at the Milwaukee Braves' camp in Bradenton, Fla. With the squad spread over the grass, it's no rest period though—they're working off excess suet with exercise while the coaches keep watch to make sure nobody falls asleep. The Braves play two exhibition games with the Detroit Tigers on Saturday and Sunday.

Detroit Camp Site for 1st of Two Games

Bengal Radio Network Will Carry Broadcast of Each Contest

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Tomorrow's exhibition opener against the Yankee-tamers, the Milwaukee Braves, has many Tigers, including Jack Tighe, wishfully hoping that the contest could be a sneak preview of a "certain series they would like to play with the Braves next October.

The two teams will play at Lakeland tomorrow and at Bradenton on Sunday. They will meet again on March 19th and then play a four-game series on the trip north, including two in Milwaukee, before starting their respective seasons.

A pair of highly touted rookies will start for both teams tomorrow. Bob Shaw will go for the Tigers and Juan Pizarro is manager Fred Haney's choice.

Both pitchers were active in the Caribbean winter leagues, Shaw with a Cuban team and Pizarro in the Puerto Rican League.

Shaw's team eventually won the Caribbean "world series" and the Tiger righthander was named the most valuable player in the circuit.

The pitchers will go only three innings. Following Shaw to the mound will be southpaw Hank Aguirre and then Joe Presko.

Brave rookies Phil Payne and Gerry Nelson are slated to follow Pizarro. In Sunday's return match, Frank Lary and Tom Morgan are slated for the hill in Bradenton while the Braves may assign ex-Cub Bob Rush and rookie Carlton Willey, called one of the best pitching prospects in the league.

Both games will start at 1:30 p.m. with all stations on the Tiger radio network ready to carry the action.

In yesterday's seven-inning intra-squad game, big Gus Zernial continued his hitting as he banged out two singles for the Hitchcock team in a 3-3 deadlock with Lund's crew.

Zernial now has five hits in six trips to the plate. Another display of power came from outfielder Bill Taylor who rapped out two singles and a double and drove in two runs. Taylor, a powerfully built 6-foot-4 and 210-pounder, also delivered a long blast which went foul by inches in his last trip.

It would have been the game winning run and the Hitchcock crew argued that it was fair but to no avail.

The drive, incidentally, came off one of Dick Sheldon's pitches. Sheldon, the ex-Birmingham High School hurler who had a 13-11 record at Valdosta last year, pitched one inning. He gave up a single.

Highlight for the Lund team was bonus baby George Thomas, a shortstop now playing second. Thomas hit a ball for a homer which struck an electric-circuit box on a light standard in left field. The ball was at least 25 feet over the 345 marker on the fence.

He also got a single and was robbed of a third hit when Zernial, for the second straight day, made the fielding play of the game on a shoestring catch.

Pitchers who saw action in the game were Chuck Daniel and Jim Stump, along with Sheldon, for the Lund team, and Bob Bruce, Dick Walter and Dave Reed for the Hitchcock team. Walter is from Flushing, Reed from Battle Creek and Stump from Lansing.

Big Ten Rejects 10 Grid Games

MONTICELLO, Ill. (AP) — After rejecting an extended 10-game football schedule and disdaining leniency of its recruiting code, the Big Ten today turned its main attention to mapping 1962 and 1963 gridiron games.

Athletic directors started working last night on the football schedule which, if they desire, could be projected as far as 1964. They hope to finish the job before the annual conference meetings break up tomorrow. For the first time, football coaches were not in on the act. The directors shouldered the load themselves because, as a spokesman said, "It should prove the most expeditious method."

By what was thought to be a 6-4 or 5-5 vote, directors and faculty representatives yesterday turned down a proposal conditionally accepted last December to increase the football schedule from 9 to 10 games. Illinois, which last December voted in favor of the change, reversed its stand. Wisconsin also was in the negative, but a majority vote was needed for adoption.

A proposal to permit coaches to have off-campus interviews with prospective athletes also was defeated, although this is allowed by the NCAA. A recommendation to permit travel expenses for one campus visit by prospects was turned over to a committee for further study.

The committee, which will report at the Big Ten meetings at Purdue May 22-24, consists of professors Stan Kenyon of Minnesota and Robert Ray of Iowa and athletic directors Biggie Munn of Michigan State and Stu Holcomb of Northwestern.

The Big Ten also turned down a proposal by a committee headed by Athletic director Dick Larkins of Ohio State that there be a minimum of seven conference football games for each school instead of six.

It accepted conditionally a proposal that each school may have at least three home conference games if it desires instead of two. Final vote on this will come up in May.

Rookies May Improve 3 Teams at First Base

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

For some reason or other the caliber of Major League first basemen seems to have deteriorated in the past couple of decades.

★ ★ ★

That's not a knock at such players as Stan Musial of St. Louis, Gil Hodges of Los Angeles, Joe Adcock of Milwaukee, Bill Skowron of New York or any of the others who have been doing a good job at that position.

When Ted Kluszewski stepped down from a regular position to rest an ailing back last season it further diminished the ranks of the top-flight first sackers.

But now Kluszewski says he'll "be ready" soon. And with hard-hitting youngsters Orando Cepeda of the San Francisco Giants, Ron Jackson of the Chicago White Sox and Marv Throneberry of the Yankees all battling for big league jobs in spring training, it may be that the pendulum will swing the other way.

Cepeda and Harry Simpson, a part-time first baseman for the Yankees last season, warmed up effectively for the opening of Saturday's exhibition schedule. Both hit home runs in intra-squad games. Simpson's was a grand slammer.

The Dodgers, who will meet the Phillies in the exhibition opener for both teams Saturday night in Miami, had Johnny Podres pitch three innings in an intra-squad game. Podres showed no serious effects from the gashed forehead and wrenched neck he suffered in automobile accident Wednesday morning. Duke Snider, who was also in the mishap, was in uniform but he did not play.

★ ★ ★

In other intra-squad game highlights, Billy Consolo had three hits, including a triple, for the Boston Red Sox . . . Infielder Don Prohovich continued his hot hitting for the Chicago White Sox with a two-run triple. He now has six hits in eight times at bat . . . And Duke Maas, obtained from Detroit in a winter multiple player swap, pitched two fine innings for Kansas City.

West Virginia, Duke Show Class

Cage Powers Prevail

NEW YORK (INS) — West Virginia, the No. 1 basketball team in the country, and seventh-ranked Duke are still sitting pretty after the first round of musical chairs in the Atlantic Coast and Southern Conference tournaments.

The annual playoffs for NCAA tourament berths got under way yesterday and proved nothing more than a whole season of competition already has shown. The top four teams in the ACC are better than the bottom of the order, and West Virginia is in a class by itself in the Southern loop.

The top-ranked Mountaineers breezed into a semi-final meeting tonight with Richmond by disposing of Davidson, 91 to 61, after Richmond had eliminated the fourth-place team of the conference, The Citadel, 63 to 59.

George Washington, the No. 3 team in the regular standings, defeated Furman, 73 to 59, in the opener at the Richmond Arena, and qualified for tonight's second semifinal with William & Mary. The latter dumped the conference runnerup, Virginia Tech, 79 to 61.

Duke, meanwhile, was advancing to a semi-final meeting tonight with Maryland by defeating Wake Forest, 51 to 44. Maryland, which would up No. 4 in the final roll call, downed Virginia, 70 to 66.

North Carolina's defending national champions defeated Clemson, 62 to 51, to qualify for tonight's second semi at Raleigh against North Carolina State, which squeezed by South Carolina, 66 to 61.

Defending champion West Virginia logged its 24th victory in 25 starts with ease, pulling away from a 39-to-31 halftime lead as five players scored in double figures. Jerry West and Willie Akers scored 14 points each for the Mountaineers.

A well-balanced offense and a late scoring spurt by guard Bucky Allen pulled it out for Duke, which swapped the lead 12 times with ambitious Wake Forest. Allen connected for eight straight points as the Deacons were blanked in the final four minutes.

A one-man gang, Lou Pucillo, gave N.C. State its win over South Carolina. The 5-foot-9 junior from Philadelphia poured in 33 points for the Wolfpack, 19 in the first half.

Three NIT-bound teams, Utah, Manhattan and St. John's, also were victorious last night. Utah came from behind to defeat Wyoming, 81 to 74; Manhattan spilled Wagner, 89 to 71, and St. John's won an uphill 71-to-58 decision over NYU.

Other scores included Denver 65, Brigham Young 57; Montana 51, Colorado State 44; St. Louis 84, Tulsa 66; Loyola 56, Detroit 51.

Skiing Still OK, Upstate

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Fresh powder snow improved skiing conditions for the weekend throughout much of Lower Michigan.

Slope condition reports ranged from excellent to fair, but most areas were operating. The weather bureau predicted more snow today in northwest and northeast Lower Michigan.

At Mt. Holly, north of Pontiac and at Grampian Mt., east of Oxford, slopes still have a good base, and there will be skiing this weekend if it stays cold. Snow will be made today and tonight if temperatures stay low enough.

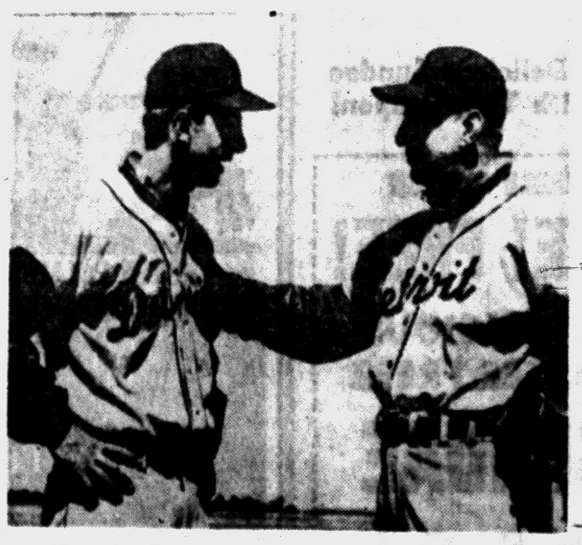

The East Michigan Tourist Assn. reported the following conditions:

HURON VALLEY and Woodridge Ski Park, near Lewiston: 7 inches corn base, 1 inch fresh snow. Excellent.
SKYLINE: 6-8 base, 3 new snow. Excellent.
AU SABLE Ranch & Ski Club, Waters Ski Village, Snow Valley, Otsego Ski club and Sylvan Knob, near Gaylord: 6-10 base, 2-3 powder. Excellent.

Skiing was described excellent to good at eight areas reporting through the West Michigan Tourist and Resort Assn., but Briar Hill at Mesick canceled a jumping meet for Sunday and reported no skiing unless new snow falls. Other areas:

Ebony Pearl Favored in Louisiana Derby

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—The field for the $40,000-added Louisiana Derby tomorrow lacks an entry with the promise of Calumet Farm's Tim Tam or Maine Chance Farm's Jewel's Reward, but the race may produce a top contender for the Kentucky Derby and other classics for three-year-olds.

Maine Chance Farm's Ebony Pearl, who has been campaigning on Florida tracks, is the early favorite to take the winner's share Saturday.

REUNION — It must have felt like old home week for Billy Martin when he was reunited with an old teammate, Tommy Henrich, on reporting to the Detroit Tigers' spring training camp at Lakeland, Fla. Henrich (right), in his first year as a coach for the Tigers, was playing his last year as a New York Yankee when Martin came up to the Bronx Bombers as a rookie in 1950. This is Martin's first year in a Detroit uniform following a short stint with the Kansas City Athletics.

Big 10 Tank Title on Line

IOWA CITY, Iowa (AP)—Michigan Wolverines, undefeated in dual meets this season, and defending champion Michigan State were among the top challengers today when the Big Ten swimming meet got into full swing.

The Spartans and Michigan were tied 7-7 in team standings after the runoff of one event last night, the 1500 meter freestyle won by Michigan State's William Stewart in 18 minutes, 45.5 seconds. Stewart was a member of the 1956 South Africa Olympic team.

Michigan offers the best balanced team in the three-day meet and although the Wolverines have not won a conference championship in the last nine years, they swamped Michigan State 67-30 in a dual meet earlier this season.

In the 16-event schedule over a 25-yard course, winners will be decided during a full day program of preliminaries and finals tonight. The remaining events will be run off Saturday.

Jones Competes in Big K. of C. Meet Tonight

Pontiac's Hayes Jones will be going against the meet's defending champion when he competes in the 60-yard hurdles event of the Knights of Columbus games at Madison Square Garden tonight.

★ ★ ★

Hayes, who entered the world and American record books last weekend, will be running against Charley Pratt of Philadelphia. Also in the event will be southerner Elias Gilbert.

★ ★ ★

Undefeated indoor mile king Ron Delaney, Wes Santee, Charley Jenkins and Bob Gutowski will be some of the other track greats on the program.

The original Major League bonus rule was adopted first in 1945.

Rochester and Orion 'B' Finalists

By CHUCK ABAIR

Rochester and Lake Orion ran into more trouble than had been anticipated but they finished strong to post victories in the opening round of Class B district play at Pontiac Central last night.

Rochester whipped Oxford 47-33 and Orion won 52-39 after being pushed hard for three periods by an inspired Avondale quintet. The local rivals tangle for the championship Saturday night.

In other "B" action involving area teams, Romeo came from behind to nip Royal Oak Shrine 69-67 to gain the finals at Troy while Warren and Fitzgerald were winning easily at Center Line.

Rochester led all the way in the opener despite a below-par performance and Oxford's ball-control tactics.

Oxford, which finished the season with 17 straight defeats, was always within striking distance but lacked the scoring punch to catch the Falcons.

The Wildcats cut the Rochester lead to 40-33 with only three minutes left but two fields by Gene Lothery and another by reserve Hummel wrapped it up.

Montross topped Rochester with 17, 11 in the 1st half on some excellent outside shooting. Lothery had 12. Clayton Woodward's 14 paced Oxford.

★ ★ ★

Avondale coach Dick Bye got a good showing out of his Yellowjackets despite having lost four starters due to disciplinary reasons but they just could not cope with the Jim Drake - Nick Neira duo.

Oakland County's leading pointgetters for the regular season combined for 43 of the Orion total despite playing the entire last half with four fouls apiece. Drake topped the pair with 22.

Led by the scoring of Gary Acker and Ray Goforth and hustling play of little Dick Smith, Avondale kept things interesting until late in the 3rd canto when the Dragons pulled away for good.

The Jackets bounced back from a 15-6 deficit to trail only 26-21 at halftime. They later cut the margin to three and were behind by only four midway in the 3rd period when the victors finally took command.

Drake sparked the surge with his scoring, hustling and rebounding. His basket and Neil Van Wagoner's only field goal of the night started things. Then big John Wiltse got his lone basket of the game after an Avon foul and Drake and Neira hit in succession to break the tussle wide open.

Avondale's main hope was that Drake or Neira or both would foul out during the last half but both held on to feature a 41 per cent shooting mark for the Dragons. The losers hit only 20.3 per cent highlighted by 14 for Acker.

★ ★ ★

Romeo had blown a lead it held for three quarters before bouncing back to pull out its win. Two goals and a foul by Frank Redman in the last minute and 20 seconds clinched the verdict for the Bulldogs and climaxed a 29-point night for Redman. Pat Flannery rung up 24 for Shrine.

★ ★ ★

Rick Moos swished in 25 points but had little help as Madison fell before Fitzgerald 65-33. John Massengale starred for the winners with 17. Wes Vosburgh tallied 24 as Warren trampled L'Anse Creuse 74-40. Fitzgerald and Warren settle the Cente Line district race Saturday.

THERE GOES 'PEANUTS' — An unidentified Oxford defender looked bewildered on this play when Rochester star "Peanuts" Montross dribbled right by him to score as the Falcons downed Oxford in District tourney play last night. Montross paced the scoring with 17. Dave Hight (33) is the boy trailing "Peanuts" from far behind.

Dales Trim Cosmos, 67-58

★ ★ ★

With flashy Earl McNeal leading the way, Ferndale disposed of dangerous Hamtramck, 67-58. Dondero moved into next week's regional tournament with a 57-35 triumph over Royal Oak Kimball.

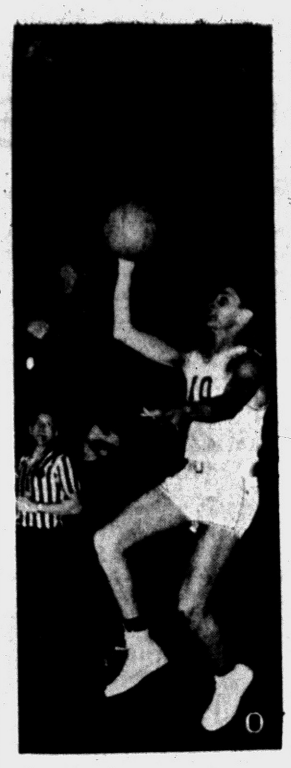

In the Class A district tourney at Bay City Junior College, Saginaw Valley champion Flint Central conquered Bay City's stalling tactics for a 66-56 win and Saginaw Arthur Hill gained a last minute 58-56 conquest of Midland.

McNeal was sensational for Ferndale, netting 14 field goals and three foul shots for 31 points and bagging several of them in key situations. It was McNeal who always came through with clutch baskets when the Cosmos drew dangerously near.

The Dales led all the way by margins of five to nine points and their halftime edge was 32-27. Ferndale meets Van Dyke Lincoln on Saturday night at 8 o'clock for the right to enter regional play.

Dondero piled up a 32-17 halftime lead and coasted to an easy victory. Jerry Patenaude topped the Oaks with 19 points and Bill Pace made 11 for Kimball.

Ted Williams drew 33 intentional bases on balls in 1957. Mickey Mantel was walked 23 times on purpose.

Early Wynn made the most American League mound starts in 1957. He began 37 games, completed 13 for Cleveland.

UP Wonders Seek 59th Straight Win

Chassell Eyes Record

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Chassell gets its golden opportunity tonight to make three years of winning pay off as district play in the State High School Basketball tournament nears the end.

The small town wonders of the Upper Peninsula could equal Michigan's all-time record by doing just the same big things they've done for 58 straight games. Victory No. 59 for Chassell would tie the old mark set by Mass. The defending Class D kings meet Painesdale at Houghton.

Play last night generally saw the stronger contenders coming through, but the schedule was dotted with upsets.

Zeeland (13-3), a Class B leader, fell 60-59 to North Muskegon after overcoming an 11-point deficit. Sammy Hughes stole a pass and dribbled in to score the tie-breaking basket in the last minute.

Mediocre Stanton (9-8) used familiarity and Don Rasmussen to set a trap for Crystal (16-4). Rasmussen's 29 points led the way as Stanton won with amazing ease, 71-35, in Class D competition. Crystal beat Stanton twice during the regular season.

Hermansville opened defense of its Class E title with a 61-49 victory over Garden. Hermansville was the only defending champion playing last night.

Grand Rapids South earned the honor of meeting two-time defending Class A champion Muskegon Heights Saturday by downing Grand Rapids Union, 69-38. Grand Rapids Catholic Central beat Grand Rapids Central, 66-52.

Action picks up in Class A tonight with the feature of the tournament so far being played at Kalamazoo in a battle of giants. Battle Creek (16-0) goes against Grand Rapids Christian (15-3) in that one.

HIDDEN BALL TRICK — Rochester center Gene Lothery appeared to be trying to pull a hidden ball trick in basketball when three Oxford players closed in on him in the 2nd quarter of a Class B district contest at Pontiac Central last night. Rochester won 47-33 to gain the finals Saturday against Lake Orion. Jim Bates (40) is the Oxford boy closest to Lothery.

Eaglets Preened for 2nd Flight

Rams, Almont in Feature

By H. GUY MOATS

Area Class C hopefuls in the District 28 MHSAA cage tourney return to action tonight with two games in the big PCH gymnasium, while Class B fives take a breather before Saturday's finals.

One certain thriller is anticipated.

The night's feature battle tosses Almont's Southern Thumb champs into the arena against an improving, and tough-to-stop, St. Frederic club. The Rams, Raiders argument opens the card at 7 o'clock.

In the nightcap, at 8:30 p.m. Orchard Lake St. Mary, which battered St. Michael 59-39 in the tourney opener, goes against a good, tall Farmington Our Lady of Sorrows quintet. Off the records of the teams the Eaglets (13-5) must be rated favorites. Our Lady's record is 7-9.

If the Eaglets win, they will make their 3rd appearance of the week, the only club to play more than twice.

Almont brings a high - scoring club here, led by three players carrying averages of around a dozen points a game. They are Jim Ostrander (6-3), Gary Emery (6-1) and playmaker Ron Eschenburg (5-8). Raiders have a height edge over Gene Wright's Rams, but haven't a player in Tom Derocher's scoring bracket. Tom has averaged 18-20 a game. Raiders' other starters include Frank Hartway, and either Gerry NcAlvey or Mickey Forsythe.

Rams go with Derocher, Dick Nichols, Steve Pocs, Joe Keller and Phil Bieri.

Pace - setter for the Farmington club is speedy guard Ray Unks, who has hit for a 15-point average in 16 games. The club is known as the Rams. Eaglets' starters include the three top scorers, Art Goisdzinski, Stan Moniuszko and Chet Wlodkowski. Mike Witkor and Eddie Maciejewski complete the list.

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Waterlogged fairways and a promise of more rain greeted the field today for the weather-delayed $20,000 New Orleans Open golf tournament.

More than one and one-half inches of rain fell early yesterday, covering the City Park course with several inches of water in some spots. Sea gulls replaced golfers when tournament officials decided on the postponement.

The field of 150 will play 18-hole rounds today and tomorrow with the 36-hole finals set for Sunday. But if rain forces another delay today, play may have to be extended until Monday.

MSU-Indiana Title Go Saturday

Dryden in Final, Ortonville Loses

Dryden and Memphis, Southern Thumb League members, moved into Saturday's Class D district basketball finals with victories last night at their respective locations.

Dryden qualified to meet Goodrich for the "D" crown at Grand Blanc with a 56-52 conquest of Flint St. Mary. Goodrich gained the final round with a 50-41 victory over Gaines.

Memphis, Southern Thumb runnerup this season, handed Detroit Sweetest Heart of Mary a 42-29 thumping at East Detroit and will meet New Baltimore St. Mary for the "D" title. St. Mary advanced to the finals by defeating Detroit St. Josephat, 29-26.

A couple of other Oakland County area schools took it on the chin yesterday in district action.

Ortonville dropped a heartbreaking 64-62 decision to Flint Atherton to bow out of the Class C district tournament at Flint Mandeville. Brown City was ousted by Deckerville, 64-41, in the Deckerville Class C tourney.

REAL COOL — Lake Orion star Jim Drake (12) went in to score after faking out jumping Ray Goforth (33) as the Dragons defeated Avondale 52-39 in Class B district play at Pontiac Central last night. Orion and Rochester clash for the title Saturday. Drake led the scoring with 22 as teammate Nick Neira hit 21.

Green and Dees Battle Again at East Lansing

Winner of TV Tilt Will Clinch League Championship

EAST LANSING (AP) — Archie Dees of Indiana, top scorer in the Big Ten, and Johnny Green of Michigan State, best rebounder in the conference, will face each other in the tipoff here Saturday.

The way they jump and score will decide the Big Ten basketball championship.

A Hollywood script writer couldn't have dreamed up a better finale for the frantic conference scramble.

The teams were co-champs last year. But this time, as both go into the showdown game with 9-4 records, the winner will get an outright conference championship and a chance to go to the NCAA playoffs.

★ ★ ★

The last time Dees and Green met, Indiana squeezed out an 82-79 decision on the home court at Bloomington.

Dees scored 21 points to 16 for Green but State's jumping John grabbed 16 rebounds against eight for the lanky Archie.

Dees measures 6-8, a three inch advantage over Green, a comparative shortie among basketball centers at 6-5. But Green has an incredible, kangeroo-like leap and has dominated the backboards in all his games this season. He's also sixth in scoring in the conference.

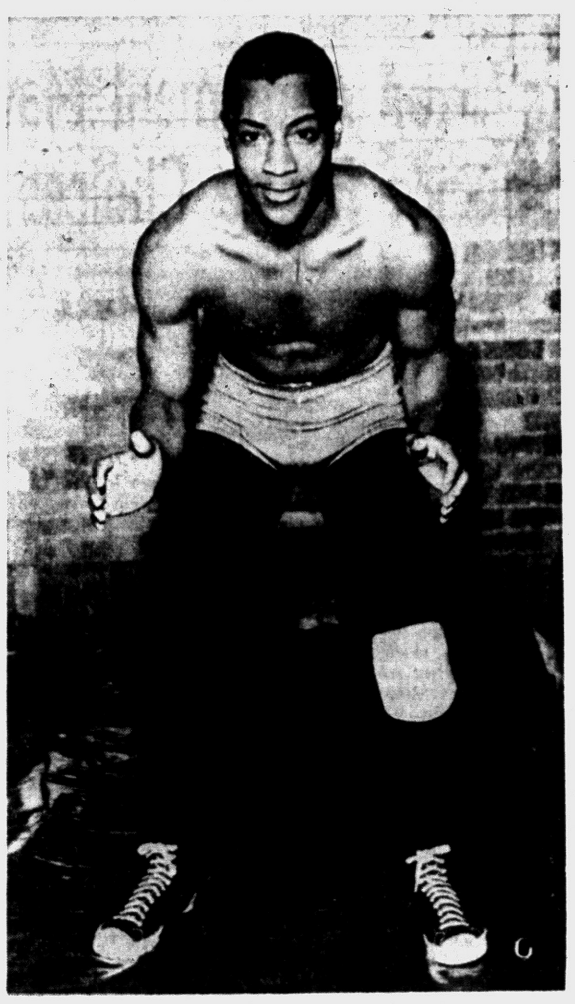

★ ★ ★

MSU coach Forddy Anderson has said he'll put Green against Dees on a man-to-man basis. But you can expect any change of strategy as the game progresses — as an instance, MSU has switched to a tight zone defense in several games to confuse the opposition.

This is the Midwestern basketball "game of the week" on a schedule made more than six months ago by some astute television planner. In addition, some 40 radio stations will carry the play to Midwestern cities.

A sellout of the official 12,500 Jenison Fieldhouse capacity has been announced. There's sure to be an overflow crowd, however, as the last time Indiana played State here the attendance was 13,817, second highest on record for the MSU court.

Green and Dees will face each other for the tipoff at 4:30 (EST).

SEEKS MORE HONORS — Pontiac Central's Saginaw Valley wrestling champion Johnnie Herron will be looking for more honors in the 165-pound class as the Chiefs compete in the mat regionals at Berkley Friday and Saturday. He was Pontiac's only champion in the SVC meet.

Reds Better Balanced

TAMPA (AP)—"I guess the best way to say it, is that we've got a better balanced ball club," said Manager Birdie Tebbetts of the Cincinnati Redlegs. "We've got pitching, power and speed."

The round man who almost won a pennant with power alone in 1956, then found his Redlegs down to fourth, 15 games behind champion Milwaukee last season explained "we know you can't win with pitching alone, or with power alone.

★ ★ ★

"So this past winter we traded some of our power and got some pitching help and some speed. Now, I think, we have the right combination.

"Enough," said Birdie, "to go for the pennant."

SVC, EML Swim Crowns at Stake This Weekend

Two important swimming championships take place tonight and Saturday, involving area squads.

PCH's tankers, passing up the 400-yard freestyle and diving preliminaries tonight will have 15 boys taking part in all events but the 200-yard freestyle. They may do best in the medley relay and freestyle relay.

Meet is in the Flint Northern pool and Arthur Hill's perennial champions are again topheavy favorites to repeat for the 8th straight year. "We think we will win", says coach Dave Gainey. "We have depth, some fine divers, and should get first from Ron Gage in the backstroke, and butterfly, and Paul Nieman in the distances.

Final standings, which do not count in the loop championship of the SVC are — Arthur Hill 10-0, Saginaw High 6-4 and a three way tie for 3rd at 4-6 for Pontic, Flint Central and Bay City Central. Flint Northern had no wins, 0-10.

★ ★ ★

Birmingham (8-0) is favored to continue its domination of the EML in tonight's title finals in the Maples' fine pool. Jay Myers pins his hopes on a balanced squad led by Tom Bechtel who already has won the 400-yard freestyle and is expected to take the 200-yard test as well; Pete Sintz in 50 and 100-yard freestyle and Dave Smith in 100-yard backstroke and individual Medley. Maples qualified 16 others in last week's preliminaries.

Most competition is expected from RO Kimball.

Maples also won the EM dual-meet title (8-0). Other standings: Kimball 6-0; Hazel Park 3-5; Mt. Clemens 2-6 and Ferndale 1-7.

OCSC Riflemen Defeat Shorthanded Visitors

Shooting against a four-man team of riflemen from Wayne County Sportsmen's club, OCSC's team added another double victory to its list in a Thursday night match at the Waterford range. Wayne had only four, instead of the usual five shooters. Kjell Danielson's 191 actual was tops.

Four-man totals: OCSC 758-835, Wayne 610-743.

Individual scores: OCSC—Cash Bond 190-201; E. Henry 187-201; G. McCutcheon 212 (hcp); R. Waggoner 183 (act); Margaret Meston 221 (hcp) and D. Postma 190-200. Wayne—Curt Tway 175-194; Steve Olsen 174-191; A. J. Ash 95-151; Jim Barnett 166-207.

Area Teams in Weekend Regional

Mat Tourney at Berkley

The wrestling teams of Pontiac Central, Waterford and Walled Lake and many other schools head for Berkley today where they will compete in a two-day regional tournament which will determine the finalists to go to Lansing next weekend.

The new Norup Junior High School will be the scene of the regionals for a total of 13 entries.

Others taking part at Berkley will be the host Bears, Hazel Park, Farmington, Southfield, Van Dyke, Royal Oak Dondero, Royal Oak Kimball, Central and Northern of Flint and Fitzgerald.

Mat action begins tonight at 6 with the preliminary matches. Quarterfinals are set for Saturday afternoon followed by the finals and consolation matches.

★ ★ ★

Team and individual awards will be made by tournament officials following the completion of all wrestling.

John Herron, who won the Saginaw Valley 165-pound title, Dave Payne, Jack Keller, Erasmo Trevino, Ernie Slade, Ray Ronquillo, Mel Nosanchuk and Duke Relyea will head the Pontiac delegation.

Chief Waterford contenders for championship honors are Marv Farrar and Mike Ewer. Inter-Lakes victor Dennis Van Sicklen gives Walled Lake a strong candidate to go all the way.

★ ★ ★

Hazel Park, Farmington and Berkley rank as team favorites with Pontiac rated the tourney darkhorse in its 2nd year of competition.

MSU Grid Captain Undergoes Surgery

EAST LANSING (AP) — Sammy Williams, Michigan State football captain for the 1958 season, has undergone surgery on his upper left arm for removal of a calcium deposit.

Dr. James S. Feurig, team physician, said Williams, senior end from Dansville, should be fully recovered when spring drills start April 7.

Nome's a Misnomer

NOME, Alaska — Nome got its name, according to legend, when someone erroneously read "Name?" written beside an unnamed cape on an early oceanographer's chart as "Nome."

For Vice Presidency

Ike-Nixon Agreement May Influence Future Choices

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — A trustworthy, agreeable, inoffensive mediocrity could become vice president.

That might be the result if the Eisenhower-Nixon agreement on how a vice president takes over from an ailing president becomes the rule — for lack of any other solution — for future presidents and vice presidents.

★ ★ ★

It's easy to see how future presidential candidates would want as their No. 2 man on the ticket an individual whose chief qualification for the job was not so much ability but trustworthiness and a gift for me-too-ism.

President Eisenhower and Vice President Nixon — just because the Constitution doesn't spell out how a vice president takes over from a disabled president — sought to avoid possible future confusion by reaching this agreement:

★ ★ ★

If Eisenhower becomes unable to carry out his duties Nixon will decide whether he should take them over. Under the agreement Nixon can — but he's free to suit himself — consult others before deciding to become acting president.

If Eisenhower recovers he — not Nixon — will decide whether he's able to resume his job.

This kind of arrangement is all right for Eisenhower and Nixon. They trust each other. Eisenhower has confidence in Nixon's ability. So, apparently, does the Republican party or it wouldn't have picked him twice for the vice presidency.

★ ★ ★

The two men feel they can, under their agreement, handle the problem of an Eisenhower disability. They have made it plain they intend it to apply only to them.

But it may well become an unwritten rule for the future unless Congress — by proposing a constitutional amendment — puts some other arrangement into national law. One future point in particular could stand clearing up.

Should a vice presidet be free to decide when a president is too disabled to do his duties or should the decision be made by a group of government officials or in some other way?

★ ★ ★

The Eisenhower administration wants a constitutional amendment and has banged away at Congress to propose one.

But Congress has been beating its gums on this whole question and has done nothing. There's a good chance it will continue doing nothing and that, without their intending it so, the Eisenhower-Nixon agreement will become a rule.

Suppose that, for lack of constitutional clarification, this agreement becomes the formula for the future. Then, with that in mind, this could happen at a political convention:

A man chosen to be a party's presidential candidate might not want as his vice-presidential running mate a man he feared might at some future time try to move in on him during a period of illness and take over the presidency.

Rather, he might want as his No. 2 man one whose chief qualification was trustworthiness — one who agreed with him but who might be far less qualified than an individual who, while trustworthy, did not see eye to eye with him on everything.

★ ★ ★

It's easy to see why: a vice president who disagreed with a president's programs might start to change them if, because of a presidential disability, he became acting president.

Japs Again Protest Red Nuclear Blasts

TOKYO (AP) — Japan has again protested against Soviet nuclear test explosions, this time complaining about those held last month. A note delivered to the Soviet Embassy asked that "all similar tests be completely stopped hereafter."

★ ★ ★

The U.S. government told Tokyo this week it would consider any claims from Japan or Japanese nationals for economic losses should such result from the U.S. nuclear tests in April in the Pacific.

★ ★ ★

The American note, made public today, pledged to conduct the tests in such a way as to keep world radiation from rising to more than a small fraction of the levels which might be hazardous.

Wheat, Corn Dip in Early Trading

CHICAGO (AP)—Both wheat and corn futures were weak in early dealings today on the board of trade but soybeans and other grains were about steady.

Transactions were moderate with no particular influence brought to bear, traders said. They added that the market appeared to have become largely a trading affair again with dealers holding off making any large commitments over the weekend.

Near the end of the first hour, old-crop wheat deliveries had moved ahead fractionally. At that time wheat ½ cent higher to ⅜ lower, March $2.23¼; corn ⅜ to ⅞ lower, March $1.15⅛; oats ⅛ higher to ¼ lower, March 65½; rye ⅜ higher to ¼ lower, March $1.32⅝; soybeans ¼ higher to ⅛ lower, March $2.22⅛; lard 5 to 10 cents a hundred pounds lower, May $12.30.

Senators Pushing Highways, Housing

LANSING (AP)— The Senate today passed and sent to the House a bill increasing the state subsidy for the school driver training program by raising auto license fees. The vote was 28 to 2.

The measure, introduced by Sen. Clyde H. Geerlings (R-Holland), would provide an additional $750,000 a year for the school driver training program.

It provides for a 50 cent increase in the cost of the original driver license and for a license renewal, making them $3.50 and $2 respectively. It also boosts the chauffeur license fee 25 cents to $2.25.

The measure also contains a provision calling for a motorist's photograph to be on his driver license with a special fee of 25 cents to pay for the extra expense.

This section of the measure was amended, however, so it does not become operative until funds for special photographic equipment are appropriated by the legislature.

Correct Complainant

In Wednesday's Pontiac Press, C. M. Shelton, of Bud Shelton Motor Sales, 109 S. East Blvd., was erroneously listed as the complaintant in forgery and larceny charged against Ralph Humphries, 31, of 3 Utica Rd.

The complaintant is Neal Hargraves, of 6965 Orchard Lake Rd., Farmington.

On Tuesday, Humphries waived examination in municipal court and was bound over to circuit court on charges of forgery and larceny by conversion.

Rubber to Seal Roads

JERSEY CITY — About 8,000 gallons of synthetic rubber are going to be used on roads in Salem County, New Jersey, as an experimental seal to reduce hot-weather expansion.

Market Loafing After 5-Day Rise

NEW YORK (AP) — The Stock Market turned mixed and trading slackened early today after a five-day rise.

Leading issues showed an assortment of small gains and losses. Many were unchanged.

The opening was fairly active and the trend generally higher as a number of large opening blocks were traded. Once these initial transactions were out of the way the trend became irregular.

The market seemed to be pausing for breath after yesterday's rise, the strongest in two months. The cut in the discount rate by three federal reserve banks was anticipated to some extent. News of a further boost in the world copper price, record construction outlays in January and February and a rise in store sales were encouraging items.

Fractional gains were made by Douglas Aircraft, Consolidated Edison, New York Central, Schenley, Baltimore & Ohio and Sinclair.

A bit lower were Goodyear, International Harvester, Dow Chemical, Union Carbide, American Can, Texas Co. and Standard Oil (New Jersey).

American Telephone advanced a major fraction.

New System for Rating Video Shows Makes Its Bow

There's No Recession for Palm Beach Folks

By EARL WILSON

WILSON

The "Laddie" Sanfords of the Long Island Polo Set have just redecorated their 48-room winter home here. Mr. and Mrs. Sanford manage to make do with 48 rooms, even though it's only 24 rooms apiece.

The B. W. and I felt homesick when we checked in at the Palm Beach Towers—but not homesick for the $75-a-day rate.

Just a year ago on the "Tonight" TV show, I had helped open this hotel and had interviewed Anita Ekberg's husband, Anthony Steele, about the fact that he married Anita on his birthday.

But now Palm Beach preferred not to remember that vulgar chapter of its life.

Better to think of the Polo Ball March 16 with Helen Hayes flying in (Tickets $80-Tax Deductible). "The Duke and Duchess of Windsor, honorary chairman . . . white or black tie . . . Mrs. Stephen Sanford, General Chairman . . . Complete Wardrobe for Cinderella designed and donated by Florence Dustig . . . benefit of the Damon Runyon Cancer Fund."

A husband-hunting gal (and which one isn't) should come here where there are such eligibles about as Mr. Cummings and Jim Kimberly, the handsome Chicago Kleenex prince.

And it isn't impossible, girls. Why, one of the richest young men in the country got thoroughly entangled with a barmaid and the whole community thought it hilarious when he passed her off to his mummy as a west coast socialite.

In the swimming pool here I definitely overheard one woman exclaiming about a bachelor who's just arrived, while her woman chum said, "Ask him if he's got a brother." How times have changed! Do you remember when guys used to say, "Ask her if she's got a sister" She has, believe me, and she's looking for a guy harder than a guy's looking for her.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . . IN NEW YORK . . .

Marilyn Monroe won't do any work till June. 'Twould interfere with her acting lessons. Monte Proser hold Jayne Mansfield over for two more weeks at Las Vegas. Eartha Kitt, a throat sufferer, has had a doctor standing by at Vegas.

Arbitron Works Via Electronics

Information Transmitted Directly From Sets to ARB Service

By JANET KERN
International News Service

Latest television program rating development is a blinking, flashing, multi-tentacled monster belonging to the American Research Bureau and called "Arbitron."

★ ★ ★

The Arbitron "auto board" will flash TV program rating statistics every 90 seconds and, simultaneously, will make a permanent record of those 90-second ratings on a teletype-like device called an "Arbitron printer."

Duplicates of the printed ratings on each day's and evening's shows will be delivered by messenger the next morning to sponsors, networks, stations and others subscribing to the service.

Already a $35,000 auto board has been installed in ARB's New York headquarters, and both Chicago and Los Angeles will soon have hundreds of Arbitron signal-senders, called "transponders," installed on TV sets in sample homes.

By late spring ARB expects to have some 600 "transponders" installed in sets in several cities, with full-scale, coast-to-coast national ratings scheduled to begin in about a year.

CONNECTED BY WIRE

In each city, leased telephone wires connect small electronic signaling devices in mathematically selected sample homes with the auto board and Arbitron printer in the local ARB headquarters.

★ ★ ★

Each pair of signalers beeps its message to headquarters on a different frequency. Each beep — signaling that the TV set involved is off or on and, if on, is tuned to a specific channel—flashes a light on the auto board and punches its information onto the teletype-like Arbitron printer.

Thus, if your home were selected as part of the Arbitron sample and you were watching, say, the Ed Sullivan Show at 8:35 on a Sunday evening, a little light and a permanent record of that fact would be visible at ARB.

If then, at 8:37, you switched over to Steve Allen, your light (and the printed report) would instantly switch from CBS' column of light to NBC's. And if at 8:40, you switch off your TV set, your light would go out.

★ ★ ★

Of course, what your light does or doesn't do isn't very important in itself. But if, say, 100 Arbitron lights were flashing merrily away at, for instance, 8:30 on a Tuesday night; and if 40 of them were tuned to the Eddie Fisher Show and suddenly, when a certain guest star is introduced, 30 of the 40 lights switched over to Eve Arden—you can be pretty sure that guest won't be back on the Fisher show very soon.

OBJECTIONS EXPECTED

There will be, of course, the usual shouts of "inaccuracy," "how can 200 machines speak for all Chicago, or 1,200 speak for the whole U. S.?" Once Arbitron starts passing its instantaneous electronic judgments.

But, the U. S. Census Bureau samples about 25,000 respondents to figure out that the U. S. has a total population of 170,510,000! Your doctor passes lifesaving judgment on the basis of a microscopic test of a few drops of blood!

Moreover, no one who knows a "rating" from a racing form claims that any rating figure is pinpoint accurate. There are mathematical rules which specify the deviation, in either direction, which may be expected in sample projection.

It is true that Arbitron will leave much information unreported. No machine can tell how many people are watching a TV set, or whether anyone is.

★ ★ ★

There are gaps, of course, in all rating services. Only by reading all of them—diaries, personal interviews, machine-gathered data, etc. — and knowing what you're reading and how to interpret it can ratings make any sense or be of any service if you're a viewer.

Mental Health Chapter Forms

County Unit of State Society Elects Officers, Hears Reports

An Oakland County Chapter of the Michigan Society for Mental Health has been organized after an extensive study of current conditions in that field.

Elected to head the new organization was Mrs. J. S. Couzens, of Orchard Lake.

Other officers are: Fred Thompson, of Birmingham, first vice president; Donald Baldwin, of Rochester, second vice president; Mrs. Edward Laird, of Birmingham, secretary; and Mrs. Walter Reuther, of Rochester, treasurer.

The chapter heard a report from Mrs. Reuther on plans to observe Mental Health Week April 27 to May 3 and from Dr. John D. Monroe, Oakland County Health Dept. head, on emergency facilities for the mentally ill.

Dr. Monroe outlined the latest county plan under which acutely ill persons will be examined by a physician and a psychiatrist and then transferred to Mercywood Hospital, in Washtenaw County, for short-term treatment, if indicated.

TV Interviewer's Query on Sarah Irks Winnie's Son

NEW YORK (AP) — Randolph Churchill exploded verbally last night on a television program when asked to discuss the drunkenness charge involving his actress sister Sarah in California.

★ ★ ★

When asked about his sister, Churchill cut off John Wingate, who conducts the show, by saying: "I never discuss matters affecting members of my family with total strangers."

Churchill said that when he was approached to appear on the show there was no mention of the subject of his famiy. He said he was told "I was to be brought here to speak of world events."

★ ★ ★

Churchill, who described himself as a journalist, also told Wingate: "You didn't pay me to come; you're making money out of this and I'm not making a farthing out of this. Why should I let myself get kicked around by you?"

★ ★ ★

Wingate remained calm throughout the interview and made no sharp retort. The interview went on to other discussions.

Sarah Churchill pleaded guilty to a charge of being drunk in public in Malibu, Calif., last Jan. 16 and was fined $50.

Ingrid Bergman to Meet Mother of New Beau

COPENHAGEN (INS) — Ingrid Bergman's new boy friend will bring her home to meet mother today.

The actress and Swedish theater impresario Lars Schmidt were to drive from Copenhagen to his parents' home at Gothenburg, where they are expected to remain a few days before going on together to Stockholm.

Ingrid flew from Rome to Copenhagen two dags ago and registered at the hotel where Schmidt has been staying.

Italian film director Roberto Rossellini's suit to annual his marriage to Ingrid is scheduled to be heard in Rome next Wednesday.

Godfrey Theme Not Worth More, Court Rules

MINEOLA, N.Y. (AP) — A State Supreme Court justice has ruled against composers Carmen Lombardo and John J. Loeb, who sought additional royalties from Arthur Godfrey's theme song.

Godfrey plays parts of the theme melody, "Seems Like Old Times," a total of 12 times daily on his daytime radio and television shows. Under the rules of the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers, this counts as only one playing and royalties are assessed accordingly.

Lombardo, brother of band leader Guy Lombardo, and Loeb sued ASCAP to break the ruling, contending they should be entitled to royalties for each excerpt of the theme that Godfrey plays.

Justice Mario Pittoni dismissed the suit. Pittoni noted that the song already has netted the composers $340,000 from Godfrey's programs.

Cardinal Mooney Better

DETROIT (AP)—Edward Cardinal Mooney, 75, head of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Detroit, has been released from Providence Hospital after a four-day stay for treatment of an acute intestinal inflammation.

Movie Theaters Decline

NEW YORK — Some 1,200 movie theaters throughout the country closed their doors during 1957, with 19,000 in operation at the start of the year compared with 17,800 at the end.

Area of Guatemala is about the same as that of Tennessee.

Disc Data and Chatter
Music in the Round

by Dick Saunders

Rhythm. I like . . . until it becomes cancerous. When it is over-amplified and over-recorded to the point that it consumes the last remains of an audible melodic strain—it either becomes sickening or a hit record—or both.

In the case of "Sweet Little Sixteen" by Chuck Berry (which is locally the best selling disc for the fourth straight week), there is some consolation—all it covers up is a revoltingly primitive melody and vocal.

"Tequila" by The Champs, has taken over second place, according to Pontiac area record shops. This is a little more subtle, although I swear the melody is as old as J. P. Sousa (and he's dead!).

In third place is a decent ditty—"Twenty-Six Miles" by The Four Preps. "Lollipop" — an overnight-type sensation by the Chordettes, is in fourth and coming on like a mad bull.

★ ★ ★

"The Walk," by Jimmy McCracklin (a disc guaranteed not to solve any posture problems) ranks fifth.

RECORD OF THE MONTH: For February we must salute a rarity. Pat Boone is finding that double-barreled discs are many splendored things—to one's bank account.

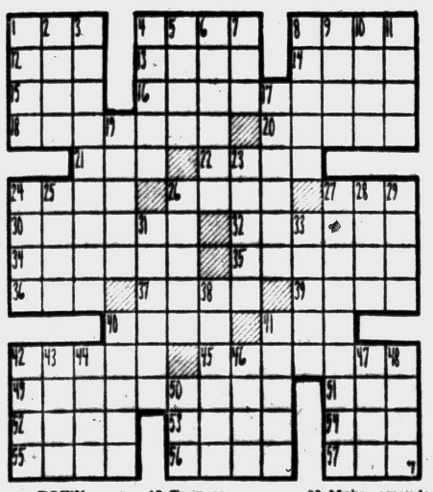

His coupling of "It's Too Soon To Know" and "A Wonderful Time Up There" is a gem. Both sides are selling well, and the disc was just nosed out of this week's top five by an eyelash.

THE JAZZ NEST: "Jazz Goes to Junior College" by Brubeck (Columbia CL-1034) is selling well in its short time on the shelves. Recommended for progressive fans, but I must admit I've heard him do better.

SUGGESTIONS FOR NOVEL ELPEES: "Little Richard Sits In With The Detroit Symphony Orch."; "Dinner Music By Chuck Berry"; "Lawrence Welk Plays Traditional Jazz—And Loses," "A Tribute to Jimmy Rushing By Wally Cox," and "Rock 'N' Roll With The Budapest String Quartet."

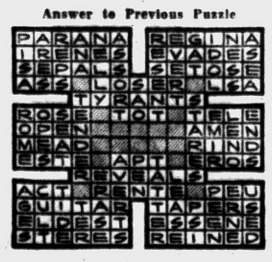

Next week I'll take you on a short tour of Transylvania with a mighty interesting character.

Man Run Over Twice, Not Seriously Injured

IRONTON, Ohio (UP) — George Chabnell, 45, a Highway Department inspector, was painting en- near Pedro.

Chabnell suffered only severe cuts and bruises.

Perhaps the oldest apple orchard in America is at Manzano, New Mexico. It was planted in 1676, and still includes trees bearing fruit.

Has a Valid Reason to Skip Jury Duty

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UP) — Mrs. Madeline Jordan reported as directed for jury duty, but next day was absent, and for valid reason.

She became the mother of a son, her 12th child.

Sees Integration in 25-50 Years

Southern Educator Says It Will Take That Long to Accomplish Task

WASHINGTON (UP) — A Southern educator suggested today it is going to take 25 to 50 years to accomplish general racial integration in the Deep South.

The long-run strategy might as well reckon with that situation, Dr. Guy Benton Johnson told the 110th annual conference of the National Civil Liberties Clearing House.

Dr. Johnson, sociology professor at the University of North Carolina and former executive director of the Southern Regional Council, said a net good had come from the Little Rock school integration crisis.

Gov. Orval Faubus of Arkansas jolted the moderates and shocked more people into a sober appreciation of law and order, he said.

Dr. Johnson urged Congress to strengthen civil rights legislation. He said he hoped the new Civil Rights Commission would be given a fair chance and that the President will take a more direct interest in integration.

Should another Little Rock situation occur, he said, he hoped Eisenhower would move in with more finesse and do a better job of explaining exactly what is the issue.

Johnson said every effort should be made to protect the Negro's right to vote and that "nonviolent" protest of the type displayed in the Montgomery, Ala., and Tallahassee, Fla., bus strikes can have tremendous moral impact.

As for long-pull strategy, he suggested that institutions of higher education present less resistance to integration than the public school systems, and litigation should be pursued on that level first.

General Invented Piquet
