'I'll Carry Oakland by 25,000 Votes'—Bagwell

Jack, Dick Roar as End Approaches

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon, concluding a final foray into the South, blasted away at Sen. John F. Kennedy again today — this time as an enemy of states rights.

In this area of states rights partisans, Nixon, the Republican candidate for president, told a police-estimated crowd of from 8,000 to 10,000 in Burnett Park that the Democrats could "vote every tombstone in Texas but we are still going to lick 'em."

Nixon added that the Democrats "have been kicking Texas in the teeth long enough."

The early morning turnout for Nixon in clear, pleasant weather compared with a police estimate of about 8,000 in the crowd which greeted Kennedy at a late morning rally here several weeks ago.

'NO JUMPING JACK'

Nixon accused Kennedy of changing his mind on a great many issues, and touched off a roar of applause in declaring: "I say we can't have a jumping Jack as president of the United States."

Nixon flew on for a tour of the West. His first stop was Gasper, Wyo. He also will speak at Spokane, Wash., and Fresno, Calif.

Nixon hit hard at the tidelands question, saying that Kefnedy has not supported state ownership of tidelands. Nixon said on oil depletion he favored the 27½ per cent allowable and declared oilmen "are not going to take a chance on him (Kennedy) when they know what I am going to do."

Wyoming will be the 49th state he has visited since winning the nomination in July, Alaska, the 50th, is on his itinerary.

Nixon spent all day and until midnight Thursday night campaigning in the South—in South Carolina and Texas—urging Democrats to abandon Kennedy, the party's presidential candidate, and throw in their lot with the Republicans in next Tuesday's election.

BIG CROWD UP LATE

In Texas, that also would mean abandoning its Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson, Kennedy's vice-presidential running mate.

Nixon arrived in Fort Worth very late Thursday night and was, he said, thrilled to find on hand to greet him at the airport—far out of town — a cheering, flashlight-waving crowd which police Sgt. Hollis Pricer estimated at 15,000.

ROANOKE, Va. (AP)—Roaring crowds in Virginia today boosted Sen. John F. Kennedy's hopes of carrying this state, one of those on his critical list.

The Democratic presidential candidate made his final appearance in Virginia, pledging himself to maintain a sound dollar.

★ ★ ★

Massive turnouts of enthusiastic admirers greeted him at Norfolk and at Roanoke. More than 10,000 heard him speak in Norfolk.

Solid walls of people lined both sides of the streets on the 3-mile route Kennedy took returning to the airport.

In Roanoke, an even larger crowd — it appeared to be close to 15,000 — massed at the airport where he spoke.

★ ★ ★

National Committeeman Sidney Kellam said "I think we've got a good chance of carrying Virginia for Jack."

Kellam said one of the centers of Nixon strength was in and around Roanoke. Hence, the big turnout at the airport rally heartened Kennedy's backers.

Kennedy aimed his speech on fiscal policy to Virginia audiences.

RELATES TO BYRD

This issue is believed to be particularly important in the state because of the strength of Sen. Harry F. Byrd, (D-Va.) strong advocate of the sound dollar.

Byrd has been silent with respect to both Kennedy and Vice President Richard Nixon, the Republican candidate.

Kennedy was wearing a bandage on his right hand, as a result of cuts and scratches inflicted by admirers in Pennsylvania several days ago.

★ ★ ★

The senator's hand is swollen and he told reporters it had become infected.

Nevertheless, he shook hands again and again today as milling crowds pressed close to his automobile.

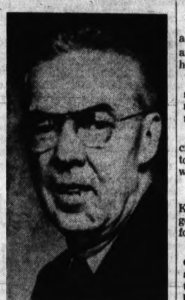
In Roanoke, as in Norfolk, Kennedy described Virginia as the "home of the Democratic party."

'WON'T DO IT'

And he said "I cannot believe that Virginia will in 1960 vote for the Republican candidate, Vice President Nixon."

★ ★ ★

A roar of applause greeted this remark.



THOMAS E. MURRAY

Tells of Radical New Weapon

Ex-AEC Head Talks of Bomb; Urges That Nuclear Tests Resume

NEW YORK (AP)—Thomas E. Murray, former atomic energy commissioner, tells of a "third generation weapon, as radically different from the H-bomb as the H-bomb was from the Hiroshima-type A-bomb."

In an open letter released Thursday night to presidential candidate Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Sen. John F. Kennedy, in which Murray again urged resumption of nuclear tests the former AEC head said:

"The new weapon will not be a larger and more efficient H-bomb, nor a smaller and more efficient A-bomb. It is primarily anti-personnel in destination and effect. And it need not create suicidal hazards for the country that employs it."

Murray also said: "I take it for granted the Soviet Union is developing nuclear technology along this revolutionary line."

In Washington, some unidentified nuclear physicists speculated that Murray was talking about what has been called a "neutron bomb"—a weapon that would actually be a small, mobile, nuclear reactor and a junior-sized version of reactors already used to propel submarines and to generate electricity.

The AEC refused to comment on the statement by Murray, who headed the commission from 1950 until 1957.

In Chicago Thursday night a nuclear physicist said Murray

Blames GOP for State Loss of Nobel Winner

Swainson Says Glaser Forced Out by Lack of Facilities at U. of M.

From Our News Wires

Lt. Gov. John B. Swainson cited Nobel laureate Donald Glaser Thursday in a blast at what he termed "Republican obstructionism" in education.

Glaser, who pioneered development of the bubble chamber, a "window to the atom," was awarded the Nobel Prize for physics Thursday.

In a speech at Detroit's Italo-American Club, Swainson said:

"For more than 10 years he worked at the University of Michigan, but because of lack of facilities, a lack of research room, he left out university at Ann Arbor for the University of California, where there was no Republican - imposed moratorium on the building of adequate facilities."

"This is a man who left Michigan because Michigan couldn't — or so the Republicans said — afford such frills as pure research," the Democratic gubernatorial candidate continued.

'WILL LOSE FREEDOM'

"I say we can afford pure research . . . I say if we don't, we will lose the race for outer space, for technological advance — we will lose our freedom because the heart of freedom is knowledge and our greatest asset is the human mind."

Swainson and his Democratic colleague, Sen. Patrick V. McNamara, spent most of the day campaigning outside plant gates in the Detroit area.

Swainson told a Democratic rally that rival Paul D. Bagwell has been reckless in attacking his tax stand.

★ ★ ★

"My opponent is running true to form in attacking me on a speech he hasn't heard and on a report he hasn't read," Swainson declared.

He referred to a tax study submitted to him by a committee of economists headed by Dr. William Haber of the University of Michigan.

The economists said an income tax is the best way to achieve a strong financial basis for state government.

Unconfirmed Rumors Claim Khrushchev Out

VIENNA, Austria (AP) — Rumors of a successful coup in Moscow by an "antiparty group" circulated here today. There was no confirmation from any source.

★ ★ ★

The rumors said former Premier George M. Malenkov has taken power and that Nikita S. Khrushchev is under arrest.

★ ★ ★

Gen. Georgi K. Zhukov, the former defense minister, was reported appointed state president in the coup said to have taken place at 4 a.m.

Mercury Astronaut Undergoes Surgery

WASHINGTON (AP) — Air Force Capt. Leroy G. Cooper, Jr., 33, one of the nation's seven Mercury astronauts, underwent surgery Thursday for the removal of gallstones, the Civilian Space Agency announced.

★ ★ ★

Officials of the National Aeronautics Space Administration said the ailment was discovered during a routine physical examination.

They said Cooper is expected to remain a member of the astronaut team following his recovery.

"HELLO, I'M PAUL BAGWELL" — Those passing the corner of Saginaw and Huron streets this morning heard this greeting from the Republican candidate for governor. Bagwell spent two hours on the corner in front of the Courthouse meeting voters. Earlier, he spent two hours outside Pontiac Motor Division.

Hopeful Despite Chill at City's Factory Gates

Gets Warmer Greeting From 200 Downtown This Morning

By GEORGE T. TRUMBULL JR.

Republican candidate for governor Paul D. Bagwell left Pontiac this morning after an unfriendly reception outside factory gates, but still predicting he'd carry Oakland County by upward of 25,000 votes.

He carried the county by 7,400 two years ago.

★ ★ ★

Showing the strain of three months of campaigning, Bagwell stood in the chill outside the downtown Courthouse this morning telling passersby that "I want to work for you after January."

He called the greetings by some 200 persons "friendly" compared to the cool reception he received earlier as he tried to greet workers entering the first shift at Pontiac Motor Division.

"There was a little profanity and a little talking back," Bagwell said.

He said the reception outside the factory was nothing to compare to the organized and warm receptions he has received outside factories in Grand Rapids and Flint.

He blamed his reception here on what he said were the "hard core pork choppers who keep the fellows intimidated."

Bagwell branded as "sheer nonsense" the charge by Lt. Gov. John B. Swainson, his Democratic opponent, that Nobel Prize winner Dr. Donald Glaser left the University of Michigan because the Republican legislature refused to appropriate funds for expansion of research facilities at the university.

★ ★ ★

"What does he take the voters as — fools," Bagwell asked in a sidewalk press conference.

Bagwell pointed out that expenditure of money appropriated by the legislature was entirely up to the school and its administrative board.

Bagwell was accompanied to

City Dream for Library Comes True

The star went before her public today — a little hurriedly, but ready for a great performance.

Doors of the new Pontiac Public Library building swung open at 9 a.m., disclosing the latest results of the city's long-term, pay-as-you-go capital improvement program.

The spacious, attractive, colorful interior of the $500,000 addition to the Civic Center was an open secret to passers-by of the last few weeks.

Wide expanses of windows are a feature of the low-lying, brick structure, giving the public a good view from the outside and lots of natural light on the inside.

Although all the furnishings are not in place, the books are, and this is what prompted the city to open the facility as is.

"We thought it best to restore main library service to the public as soon as possible," said Phyllis Pope, city librarian.

Main library service had closed down when the city began moving 50,000 volumes from the old building on Williams Street to the new one at East Pike and Parke Streets Oct. 17.

Brief ribbon-cutting ceremonies were scheduled for 4 p.m., with Mayor Philip E. Rowston wielding the scissors.

The party of City Commissioners and City Hall officials planned a tour of the new building afterwards.

"Opening the library today is an extremely proud moment for all of us," said Rowston.

The mayor recalled the many years Pontiac has dreamed and planned for an adequate library building to replace the 60-year-old Williams Street structure, which was originally constructed as a theater, not a library.

"Even when I was a youngster in the first grade," recalled

Mock Election Shows Preference

Pontiac Students Like the Dems

If the vote of junior and senior high school students in Pontiac were conclusive, the Democrats would be in today.

Where the Republicans won, they did so by narrow margins in the major races.

In the presidential race the senior high totals gave the Kennedy-Johnson ticket 834 votes and the Nixon-Lodge ticket 766 votes.

In the race for governor, Swainson got a total of 927 votes to 661 votes for Paul D. Bagwell.

The story was much the same in junior high schools. Totals from the city's five junior highs gave Kennedy 2,053 votes to 1,731 for Nixon.

Swainson beat Bagwell by 1,939 votes to 1,615.

The total vote of all secondary students (junior and senior highs) was: Kennedy, 2,887—Nixon, 2,497; Swainson, 2,866—Bagwell, 2,276.

At Pontiac Northern High School where 597 voted, the Democrats won every national, state and local race.

★ ★ ★

With 67 per cent of the school's 950 students registered and 89 per cent of those registered voting, John F. Kennedy got 328 votes to 257 for Richard M. Nixon.

In the gubernatorial race, Democrat John B. Swainson defeated Paul D. Bagwell 361 to 222 votes.

Local Republicans fared no better. In the Congressional race James Kellis got 304 votes to 272 votes for William S. Broomfield.

★ ★ ★

At Pontiac Central there was considerable splitting of ballots and the Nixon-Lodge ticket won by three votes.

The vote was 509 for Nixon and Lodge to 506 for Kennedy and Johnson.

The only two Republicans to win by a substantial margin were Sheriff Frank W. Irons and Broomfield in the congressional race.

Broomfield had the largest margin of any Republican. He beat Kellis by 128 votes, Irons was next, winning over Homer Hight by 106 votes.

In the gubernatorial race at PCH, Swainson won over Bagwell 566 to 439.

At Central, about 60 per cent of 2,000 students registered for the mock election. Of those registered, 90 per cent voted.

The two high schools split on State Supreme Court candidates. Northern elected James R. Breakey Jr. by two votes, Central elected Theodore Souris by 81 votes.

At both schools L. Harvey Lodge won over Donald E. Adams for a two-year term as probate judge.

★ ★ ★

Both schools were strongly in favor of Proposal No. 1 (the school bond amendment) but Northern voters defeated Proposal No. 2 (state sales tax).

Both schools passed the proposal for a constitutional convention.

★ ★ ★

Only Lincoln and Washington Junior Highs gave Republicans the edge. Nixon won at Lincoln but Bagwell lost.

Eastern and Jefferson voted strong Democratic. At Madison the margins were narrower.

At Eastern the vote was: Kennedy, 523 - Nixon, 305; Swainson, 305 - Bagwell, 299.

At Jefferson: Kennedy, 329 - Nixon, 62; Swainson, 338 - Bagwell, 64.

Lincoln's vote was: Kennedy, 362 - Nixon, 409; Swainson, 411 - Bagwell, 361.

Madison votes this way: Kennedy, 510 - Nixon, 479; Swainson, 535 - Bagwell, 431.

Washington totals: Kennedy 339 —Nixon, 476; Swainson, 350—Bagwell, 460.

Students Hold Political Rallies

Washington Junior High Teens Get Full Lesson in Democracy

With mock elections taking place this week in many Pontiac area junior and senior high schools, Washington Junior High went all out yesterday.

The students and faculty concluded a two-day mock political rally with all the trimmings.

There are about 1,100 students at the school and all took part in the rally.

The project was dreamed up and directed by Glenn Hartman, a speech teacher at Washington.

Local political party headquarters helped out, supplying plenty of campaign posters, banners and placards. Voting machines were set up in social studies classrooms.

HOLD RALLIES

Wednesday, half of the school held a good, old fashioned, foot-stompin' rally in the school auditorium.

★ ★ ★

Thursday, the remainder of the student body repeated with a rally of their own.

At each rally, six student speakers outlined party platforms. Three explained the Republican stand, while three others explained Democratic ideals.

Both rallies had all the excitement of full-fledged political conventions with the school band and boys' glee club also taking part.

★ ★ ★

Students waved placards and formed delegations on the floor cheering for their candidates.

Although most of them won't vote in a presidential election until 1968 they will have all experienced some of the excitement of a flag-draped convention hall.

It was a lesson in democracy.

Guantanamo Sounds Off With 'Regular' Exercises

GUANTANAMO BAY, Cuba (AP)—Screaming sirens and clanging bells sent all hands to general quarters today, starting a realistic training exercise for defending this huge U.S. naval base.

Marines clutching rifles had already left their barracks to scout perimeter areas near the boundary fence that separates the installation from Cuban territory.

The general alarm turned out added reinforcements. Cooks dropped their baking pans, picked up weapons and headed out with other personnel who are usually noncombatant.

The training exercise today is like those conducted each month within the 27-mile rim of the naval base.

Attention focued on the maneuvers more sharply this time, however, in the light of Cuban government talk about a U.S. invasion and President Eisenhower's statement that Guantanamo will be held.

Almost every one of the 3,000-plus men here had an assigned role in the defensive training exercise.

Civilians took no part. In a real emergency, wives and children would go to shelters on land or to ships anchored in the harbor.

At United Nations the Cuban prediction of an American invasion by Tuesday to help elect Richard M. Nixon president was shrugged off today as more propaganda from Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro in his war of nerves.

The State Department declined comment on the forecast by Cuban Foreign Minister Raul Roa Thursday night.

Nixon's press secretary, Herbert G. Klein, said: "I am sure the world will recognize this as just another case of a Castro man sounding off."

Roa's statement came a few hours before defense maneuvers today at Guantanamo began.

Football Fans Can Expect a Sprinkle

Football fans had better be prepared for a light sprinkle when attending games Saturday.

The weatherman says tonight will be mostly cloudy with a low of 40, and there's a chance of a little light rain tomorrow.

For the next five days temperatures will average a few degrees below the normal high of 52 and normal low of 36. Monday will be cooler, with only slight temperature changes Tuesday and Wednesday.

Morning westerly winds at 10 miles per hour will become southwest to south tonight, and southeasterly tomorrow. The lowest recording in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. was 40 degrees. The mercury reading at 2 p.m. was 58.

NORTHERN 'VOTERS' — Students lined up in all Pontiac secondary schools this week to vote in a mock election. The youthful voters showed great enthusiasm at the chance to cast their ballots on regulation voting machines at the city's two senior highs and five junior high schools. These students are registering at Pontiac Northern. The girls are seated in front of a voting machine.

Charges Inadequate Child Program

State Hospital Head Testifies

Lack of Personnel Is Blamed for Restricting Institution's Work

The medical superintendent of Pontiac State Hospital testified yesterday that more than half of the 88 children in the institution are not being offered an "adequate program."

Dr. Walter H. Obenauf told a special Senate committee investigating unfilled needs of Michigan's emotionally disturbed and mentally ill children that 54 of the children between the ages of 8 and 17 are bedded in adult wards.

"There are 34 children in a special ward who attend school and receive special attention," Dr. Obenauf said,

"But there's not an adequate program for the rest. We're developing a program out of sheer necessity as best we can."

Dr. Obenauf said there was "no other place" to send the children.

PROBLEM CHILDREN

Half the children in the hospital are "problem children," the remainder suffering from more serious mental disorders.

He said a lack of professional personnel is restricting work at the hospital.

"On a midnight shift, we've had as few as 50 attendants on duty," he said.

Listening to the testimony of Dr. Obenauf and five other psychiatrists yesterday in Pontiac were State Senators L. Harvey Lodge (R-Oakland) and Elmer R. Porter (R-Bliss field), also chairman of the Senate Appropriations Committee.

* * *

The three other members of the bipartisan committee were not present at the hearing.

Frequently at yesterday's hearings, the testimony veered onto such matters as the nature of mental illness and the operation of hospitals.

HEARS COMPLAINTS

At one point, Porter told Obenauf he'd heard "complaints" that some patients in state hospitals weren't visited "for days at a time."

"I have a rule that a doctor visits a ward every day," Dr. Obenauf said. "It's been in effect, but sometimes there haven't been enough doctors to carry it out."

Dr. Jacques Gottlieb, director of the Lafayette Clinic in Detroit, said a major problem was where to send adolescent-age children after they had been cured.

* * *

All the psychiatrists urged more funds for research.

Sen. Lodge said hearings would be adjourned until at least 10 days after the election.

BANK ANNEX OPENS — This is the view opening day customers had on entering Community National Bank's $300,000 annex yesterday. The ground floor of the four-story Lawrence Street building houses the bank's loan department. Directly accessible from the street are tellers' cages in the basement, open 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. Monday through Saturday. The aluminum and brick annex, connected with the bank's Saginaw Street headquarters by an overpass bridging an alley, is the first new multi-story office building in downtown Pontiac in recent history.

Dr. Finch Jury Still Locked Up

Defendants Happy After Judge Nixes Mistrial on 16th Day

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Finch murder case jury today neared its 60th hour of deliberations—deliberations a defense attorney charges have become "coercive."

* * *

Dr. R. Bernard Finch, 42, and his former mistress, Carole Tregoff, 23, grinned confidently Thursday after the doctor's attorney asked for a mistrial.

* * *

"When jurors have been deliberating this long, I don't see how they can think straight at all," he said.

The court refused to declare a mistrial.

* * *

The jury of 11 women and a man were given the case 16 days ago, after hearing 17 weeks of testimony. The surgeon and his red-haired codefendant are being tried for the second time on murder and conspiracy charges in connection with the fatal shooting of Finch's estranged wife, Barbara Jean, 36, in 1959.

* * *

Grant B. Cooper, Finch's attorney, reminded Superior Court Judge Leroy Dawson that an alternate juror had to be excused because "she became so upset that she was crying at night—so upset that your honor had to discharge her."

A jury at the first Finch trial deadlocked last March 12 after 37½ hours' deliberations.

* * *

The doctor claimed at both trials that his wife was accidentally shot as he tried to throw away a pistol during a violent scuffle.

* * *

The state says that Dr. Finch and Miss Tregoff waited in ambush to slay Mrs. Finch out of "lust and greed"—so they could marry without losing any of $750,000 in community property described in a divorce suit filed by Mrs. Finch.

The Day in Birmingham

Beverly Hills AC Plans Opening Day Ceremonies

BIRMINGHAM — Plans are already in progress to hold opening day celebrations at the Beverly Hills Athletic Club on Memorial Day next May 30.

Ground for the new club facilities was broken last week.

More definite plans will be discussed Nov. 17 at the first meeting of the group at the Birmingham Community house.

The modern facilities are being built on Southfield Road, just south of Beverly Road.

A Southfield construction firm began moving earth last Friday and expects to complete the pool proper before winter sets in.

Construction of a contemporary cabana will begin shortly, with the fencing to be completed prior to the first of the year.

A cement apron around the pool, a 120-car parking lot, landscaping and lighting will be completed sometime in late spring, according to the construction schedule.

A mock election yesterday in the Bloomfield Hills High School gave Republican candidates for top posts a wide margin of victory.

The Nixon-Lodge team recieved 450 votes to the Kennedy-Johnson ticket of 137.

In the race for governor Republican hopeful Paul D. Bagwell was given 458 votes to Democrat John B. Swainson's 126 ballots.

Clarence Reid garnered 450 votes to Democrat T. John Lesinski's 121 votes in the race for lieutenant governor.

Pontiac by Republican candidates running for State Administrative Board positions.

Included were Clarence A. Reid, candidate for lieutenant governor; William E. Kreger, candidate for secretary of state; David R. Calhoun, running for treasurer, and from Huntington Woods; and Wendell A. Miles, candidate for attorney general.

A majority of the men and women who stopped to shake hands with Bagwell outside the Courthouse offered encouragement for Tuesday's election.

No harassment was noticed, as it was earlier in the morning at the factory.

This was the last trip of Bagwell's to Oakland County before the election. He said should he lose to Swainson he would never run again.

He ventured that he would get at least 40 per cent in Democratic stronghold Wayne County.

One man who chatted with Bagwell sported a Swainson button. "It's going to be a close race," the man said, wishing Bagwell good luck.

Mrs. Donna Gooden, of 2621 Garland St., Lake Orion, told Bagwell, "I'm still undecided but I'm still listening."

Bagwell smiled and repeated his statements that "I'd like to work for you."

Attracting persons to the street corner was a six-piece band of Rochester teen-agers.

One youth playing the trombone fought off the 45-degree chill of the morning by wearing gloves.

Before the Bagwell party left for appearances by Grand Blanc and Flint, the candidate personally invited the six youths to play at his inaugural in Lansing.

County Democrats tried their best in a silent way to counteract Bagwell's reception in the downtown area.

Three sign-bearing cars and trailers were parked across Saginaw street.

One Democratic candidate — S. Jerome Bronson, candidate for the State Senate — stopped by to say hello to Bagwell.

"You notice how friendly this crowd is?" Bagwell turned and said to an aide. "This is 100 per cent better than what I received earlier this morning."

One passerby apparently didn't realize what was going on.

He tugged at the coat sleeve of this same aide and asked how much the new Pontiac Tempest automobile sells for.

It was on display on a platform on the Courthouse lawn behind Bagwell.

Jack Would Get Inflation—Ike

Tells Clevelanders His Conscience Prods Him to Speak Out

CLEVELAND (AP) — President Eisenhower said today that if the Democrats recapture the White House the nation will see "a return to deficit spending and the resultant runaway inflation."

* * *

The President carried into Cleveland his personal campaign to elect his vice president, Richard M. Nixon, to the presidency.

In a speech prepared for a rally in the public square, he declared:

"My conscience would not let me rest without making it clear to you that this is the choice you will be making next Tuesday . . . an inflation fired by deficit spending or sticking with the sound fiscal policies of this administration."

He spoke scornfully of Kennedy's campaign demands for greater military preparedness, and asked the crowd:

* * *

"Where did this young genius acquire the knowledge, experience and wisdom through which he will make such vast improvements over the work of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and the dedicated civilians and sericemen who have given their lives to this work?

"Where else but in the White House could he have learned the facts that would enable him to make such a statement?"

Election Results Not Predictable

Pollster Roper Claims He Can't Dope Out His Own Figures

CHICAGO (UPI)—Pollster Elmo Roper refused Thursday to predict who would win Tuesday's presidential election.

"At this date all I can say is I don't understand my own data," Roper told a luncheon of the Executives Club.

* * *

Roper said his October poll shows percentages of 46 to 45 with 9 per cent undecided. But he refused to say whether Sen. John F. Kennedy or Vice President Richard M. Nixon had the one-point edge.

The undecided voters, he said, "could continue to make the election close, or give either man a landslide."

Three-fourths of the undecided voters are Democrats and three-fourths are Protestant, Roper said.

Protestants were 2 to 1 for Nixon and Catholics 3½ to 1 for Kennedy, he added. Jews favor Kennedy 5 to 1 and Negroes favor him 2-2 to 1, Roper told the executives.

* * *

He said he would conduct one more nationwide poll before the election and if the percentage of undecided voters declines we will predict the outcome.

Library Dream Reality

Rowston, "visiting the library with my class I used to think it looked a hundred years old.

"After so many years of putting up with inadequate facilities we now have this splendid cultural addition to our civic center, thanks to our citizens who provided the funds."

Rowston emphasized the importance of library facilities to Pontiac and the rapidly-growing surrounding communities.

"It is especially rewarding to know that we are serving our youngsters, for this building and the books it contains will provide them with much of the information and background they will need to live useful lives in a world that demands more and more skills and technical knowledge."

In its new reading rooms and public areas the library can handle a couple hundred people, more than twice as many as it could in the old building, said Miss Pope.

"And we expect to be swamped," she predicted.

Available floor space will allow the city to double its book collection in the days ahead, she said.

Features include a reading lounge that can seat 35 persons, a smaller lounge where smoking is permitted, a spacious reference room seating 50, plus individual rooms for children and for youngsters in their early teens.

There are large workrooms for behind-the-scenes business such as bookbinding, cataloguing and office work.

The 75-person public meeting room in the basement will be occupied until next spring by centennial planners, who have the library dedication as one of the chief features of Pontiac's 100th anniversary year.

An elevator between ground level and the main floor is an added convenience for the aged and the physically disabled.

One of the most striking differences between the old and new libraries is the easy availability of books. Row after row of bookcases in the public area put more than 35,000 volumes within easy reach.

The new library was scheduled to remain open until 9 p.m. tonight and to reopen tomorrow from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Beginning next week, regular hours will go into effect: 9 a.m to 9 p.m. Monday through Friday and 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturdays.

Election Report Ruling Is Asked

Stations, Press Don't Want Clerk to Transfer Office Into TV Studio

LANSING (AP) — The State Supreme Court is expected to decide today whether a county clerk can move his office into a television station.

Four Grand Rapids radio stations and a newspaper have asked for a rule on the correct procedure for the release of election returns.

An attorney for the Grand Rapids Press, a member of the Booth Newspapers, Inc., and for radio stations WJEF, WLAV, WGRD, and WMAX, took the court action.

They filed a writ of mandamus asking that Kent County clerk Claude E. Barkley be prevented from moving his office on election night to television station WOOD. The clerk was given until 2 p.m. today to file an answer.

The plaintiffs said present plans call for sealed election returns to be sent over to the television station by courier. The returns would be fed into a computer and the results then would be announced to press and radio.

State statute requires, the plaintiffs said, that election returns should be made known to the press and other interested persons in the county clerk's office.

"This arrangement," they said, "would destroy their equal and independent right to receive returns on an impartial basis."

* * *

The plaintiffs said they would be required "to go to the private place of business of a business competitor, there to receive said returns under the scrutiny of his television cameras and to his direct radio and television broadcasting."

Lion Charged With Illegal Use of the Hands

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A 125-pound blonde model has charged 230-pound Detroit Lion linebacker Carl Brettschnider with illegal use of hands—assault and battery, to be specific.

Brettschneider, 28, and married, says it merely was defensive holding.

* * *

Myla Miles, 21, accused Brettschneider of punching her in the stomach and knocking her down outside a Los Angeles nightspot last Monday night.

The city attorney's office issued an assault and battery warrant against Brettschneider Thursday. Los Angeles police said they would hold the misdemeanor warrant and serve it if and when he returns to Los Angeles. The next Lions game in Los Angeles is scheduled for Dec. 11.

Brettschneider called the charge "ridiculous" and said "I grabbed her wrist and she slipped or fell."

He said he grabbed her when she began scratching at him and calling him names. He said he had never seen the girl before and she was with another group in the nightclub.

Nick Pietroante, Brettschneider's roommate, backed the linebackers version of the hassle.

* * *

Miss Myles, shapely as well as blonde, had a different story. She said she was with a party of girls and Detroit players out on the town after the Lion's 48-35 loss to Los Angeles Sunday. She said Brettschneider started the argument that ended in the hassle and that other players in the group made no effort to help her.

Cardinal Mindszenty in 5th Refuge Year

BUDAPEST, Hungary (AP) — Josef Cardinal Mindszenty, Roman Catholic primate of Hungary, today began his fifth year of refuge in the U.S. Legation in Budapest.

Around the five-story building, Hungarian police cars, with bored plainclothesmen at the wheel, still wait for the 68-year-old prelate to make a break for freedom.

* * *

They sit in relays, usually reading paperback thrillers. But the cardinal shows no intention of trying to leave.

* * *

Cardinal Mindszenty has known only one week of real freedom in the last 12 years. He was jailed for life in 1948 after conviction on Communist charges of treason, disloyalty and currency violations. The Hungarian rebels freed him in their 1956 uprising, but as Soviet tanks crushed the revolt, he made his way across Budapest to find asylum with the Americans.

* * *

The cardinal is living out his remaining years in a three-room apartment on an upper floor designed originally for the occasional use of the U.S. minister.

* * *

A bright corner room is a combined sitting room, office and chapel. He says Mass from a flat-top desk.

One of the few statements that American diplomats will volunteer about the cardinal is that his health is good. But they worry always about what would happen should he fall seriously ill and need hospital care.

Snow and Rain Creeping Across West, Midwest

By The Associated Press

Snow and rain spread across sections of the West and Midwest today and cool air dipped into northern parts of the Gulf states.

* * *

Wet snow dampened most of Wyoming, with more than four inches on the ground at Casper. Another belt of snow covered sections from the Montana Rockies southeastward into western South Dakota and western Nebraska. Snow was general from the Great Falls-Missoula, Mont., region across Wyoming.

* * *

Stormy weather lashed Northern California during the night, with strong winds, rain in the lowlands and snow in the Siskiyou Mountains and the Sierras above 6,000 feet.

Nixon Charges Jack Would Bow to Reuther

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon linked his Democratic opponent Sen. John F. Kennedy with United Auto Workers President Walter P. Reuther Thursday night as he campaigned here.

Nixon said Reuther "will have a lot to do with calling the tune in the White House" if Kennedy is elected president.

"I can think of nothing more detrimental to this nation than for any president to owe his election to, and thereby be captive of, a political boss like Walter Reuther," Nixon said in his prepared text.

Nixon made no reference to Reuther in his speech although the remarks were contained in copies of the talk given reporters.

* * *

Herbert Klein, Nixon's press secretary, said after the speech that Nixon would stand behind the prepared text.

Unions Donate $150,000 for Midwest Candidates

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Labor has put up more than $150,000 to help candidates in nine Midwestern states, reports on file with Congress showed today.

With only two exceptions, the 11 unions involved backed Democrats.

Railway Labor's Political League (RLPL) gave $1,500, its largest single contribution in the nine-state area, to Republican Rep. John B. Bennett, seeking re-election to his eighth term from Michigan's 12th District.

Bennett is the ranking GOP member on the House Interstate Commerce Committee to which railroad legislation generally is referred.

Republican Rep. Glenn Cunningham, who has served two terms from Nebraska's 2nd District, received $200 from the Trainmen's Political Education League (TPEL).

* * *

Cunningham was author of a bill requiring the post office to stop airlifting mail which did not bear airmail postage.

* * *

The largest share of labor union funds went to Illinois, where Democratic Sen. Paul H. Douglas is a candidate for re-election to a third term.

Labor contributions there totaled more than $41,000, led by $19,055 from the United Steelworkers (USW) and $11,300 from the AFL-CIO Committee on Political Education (COPE).

COPE's biggest contribution in the area was $34,000 earmarked for Democratic Sen. Pat V. McNamara's home state of Michigan. McNamara is seeking re-election to his second term. Nine unions have sent $38,681 to candidates in the state.

Minnesota, where Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D., is campaigning for a third term, received $19,044 from six labor groups.

Wisconsin, with no senatorial candidates this year, was given contributions by each of the 11 organizations for a total of $14,156.

* * *

In South Dakota, where Democratic Rep. George S. McGovern is seeking election to the Senate, labor funds totaled $12,550.

Indiana was next with a total of $12,342 for candidates for the House.

Nebraska candidates received $5,400, North Dakota $4,500, and Iowa $2,750 from the labor groups.

In addition to COPE, USW, RLPL and TPEL, the organizations included the International Ladies Garment Workers Union, Trainmen's Political Education League, Amalgamated Clothing Workers, Textile Workers Union of America, United Auto Workers, Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers and the Machinists Non-Partisan League.

Jack Tops N.Y. Poll

NEW YORK (UPI)—The New York Daily News reported today its New York State presidential poll gave Democratic presidential candidate John F. Kennedy 55.7 per cent of the straws to 44.3 per cent for Republican candidate Richard M. Nixon.

This forecast was telegraphed to state and local Republican party chairmen by Leonard W. Hall, campaign chief for the GOP presidential nominee, and Sen. Thruston B. Morton, Republican national chairman.

"We always said that this election would be close but the pattern of victory is now evident," they said. "Nixon will get a substantial vote in the south; he will sweep the farm states and will carry at least a majority of the big seven states that we have considered crucial and necessary for victory."

The two states among the "big seven" which Hall and Morton failed to mention were New York with 45 electoral votes and Michigan with 20.

In effect, they conceded that Sen. John F. Kennedy, the Democratic nominee, was still ahead in those states.

Campaign Managers Predict Nixon Victory

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon's campaign managers predicted Thursday that Nixon would win the presidency by a close popular vote and a "substantial" majority of the electoral vote.

10-Story-High Sign 'V-O-T-E' on Ford Office

DEARBORN (AP) — There's a 10-story-high sign here which urges nighttime passers to "VOTE."

It is the Ford Motor Co.'s central office building, turned into a sign running across 10 of its 12 stories. A system of lights and pulsed blinds spell out "VOTE" over a width of 536 feet.

Employe volunteers check 1,140 windows of the modernistic structure each night to guard against spelling errors or flaws.

Assails Investigation of Drug Companies

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—Dr. E. Gifford Upjohn, president of the Upjohn Co., one of the nation's largest drug manufacturers, said Thursday that any apparent leveling off in the growth pattern of the pharmaceutical industry this year is "a temporary situation."

Speaking at a meeting of the financial analysts of Philadelphia, Upjohn declared the congressional investigation of the drug industry has had "an unwholesome effect on the public confidence" in drug manufacturers.

* * *

Upjohn said the legislation so far proposed as a result of the investigations "would have little effect on the operations of our company, except to increase costs."

Ex-AEC Head Talks of Radical New Bomb

"doubtless refers to the neutron bomb, two different sizes of which, on the drawing boards have been openly referred to as 'dove' and 'starling.'"

David R. Inglis, Argonne National Laboratory physicist and past chairman of the Federation of American Scientists, added: "This is not fantastically different from present weapons as he (Murray) claims. It is not a 'third generation' beyond the H-bomb but merely a scaling down of the A-bomb to a low efficiency to make it give out more neutron radiation than blast damage.

"It is of dubious military value because many of its victims on the battlefield will be condemned to die of radiation sickness on following days and can afford to be very brave in the meantime."

Inglis also said the Soviets probably wouldn't be very seriously interested in using this type of weapon because it "is an expensive and inefficient way to use" the required materials and "they don't have a very big surplus of these expensive materials the way we do."

FDR's Son Elliott Weds Fifth Time

SEATTLE Wash. (AP)—Elliott Roosevelt, son of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt, said he planned to take his fifth bride home to his Meeker, Colo., ranch today.

* * *

He and the former Patricia Peabody Whitehead of Phoenix, Ariz., were married in a quiet ceremony at Qualicum, B.C., Tuesday. The marriage was not publicly disclosed until Thursday.

* * *

The new Mrs. Roosevelt, a member of a socially prominent Seattle family, was recently divorced from Milton Whitehead Jr. of Phoenix, her first husband.

* * *

Roosevelt, 50, was previously married to Minnewa Bell Rose, a Santa Monica, Calif., heiress; Faye Emerson, actress; Ruth Googins, Fort Worth, Tex.; and Elizabeth Donner, Philadelphia.

Panama Notes Holiday Quietly

Canal Zone Celebration of Independence Day a Contrast With '59

PANAMA (AP) — Panama celebrated Independence Day Thursday in an atmosphere of quiet contrast to the anti-American disorders of 1959. For one thing, the Panama flag now flies beside the stars and stripes in the Canal Zone, by order of President Eisenhower.

Thousands of Panamians, young and old, assembled at city hall for the traditional oath-to-the-flag ceremony that starts the celebration each year. President Roberto Chiari led the oath-taking and raised the national flag.

On the Panama side of the Canal Zone boundary, national guardsmen were posted by twos at each street intersection.

Guardsmen also stood before North American shops, business places, residences and the U. S. Embassy — the only outward indication of any preparation to avoid last year's widespread demonstrations.

U. S. officials in the Canal Zone, in contrast with last year, took plans to avoid any display of force on the boundary line. They have tried to cultivate an air of friendship for the celebrations.

Accordingly, small Panamanian and U. S. flags adorn lamp posts along the Flag Day parade route.

The Panamanian flag is officially flown daily beside the stars and stripes at Shaler Triangle, close to the boundary line, by Eisenhower's order, to symbolize Panama's "titular sovereignty" in the Canal Zone.

Demonstrators tried to carry Panama's flag into the Canal Zone by force last year, touching off rioting and violence.

There's No Use Mucking About on Wrong Island

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—They had a big ceremony a week ago, dedicating a little island as the site of Miami's new port.

* * *

Thursday, a bulldozer began pushing down trees, clearing the land. Four acres had been worked before someone began making some calculations.

"Oops, wrong island," was the comment. Everything should have been on an island 500 feet to the west.

Hazard Guesses on '61 Business

Soothsayers Prefer to Look Past Elections for Economic Trends

NEW YORK (AP) — Business economists — who should be used by now to living dangerously — are already beginning to release their predictions for 1961.

* * *

Perhaps trying to guess which way business and the stock market is pointing for the final weeks of 1960 is beginning to pall. Perhaps election uncertainties stir up the urge to look still farther ahead — even before the soothsayers can be sure about the election results or their effects on business trends.

At any rate, the view of 1961 seems more apparent daily to economists, purchasing agents, leaders of business groups, and to top business executives who may lean a bit on what their economists tell them.

As always the guesses vary widely. But a majority seem to fall into what may prove to be a pattern for the big outpouring of predictions that traditionally marks the final days of any old year.

* * *

More than half of those wagering a guess today think that either the present general slackness will continue well into the new year or that there will be a further, if slight, dip in the first half of 1961. Most of those so minded add they hope for a good recovery in the second half of next year.

Vociferous exceptions are taken to this pattern by some. They see the first half of next year as better for business than was the first half of this year, when many industries were sliding from peak levels.

Political opinions may well color many views. A majority of purchasing agents, for example, are reported seeing little change in the business climate if the Republicans win, and a marked change in Washington's attitude if the Democrats take the White House. They worry about what as yet unknown course new policies might take.

Soviet Defenses Wary in Recent NATO Drills

LONDON (AP)—Soviet defenses were brought into a state of "combat readiness" during recent NATO exercises off Greece and Turkey and the sailing of U.S. warships to Turkey, the Soviet army newspaper Red Star reported today.

"The adventurers of the pentagon were warned that, in the event of aggressive activities, they would be dealt a decisive rebuff," the paper added.

PLAINWELL (AP) — E. Fay Grinage, 55, father of Michigan Dairy Princess Linda Grinage, was found dead of shotgun wounds Wednesday at his farm barn near Martin.

Initial Mistake Gives Dick Nixon J (for Jailhouse?)

MANISTEE (UPI) — Vice President Richard Nixon will have a new middle initial on the Manistee County ballot for the Nov. 8 general election.

A typographical error lists Nixon's middel initial as "J." When it really should be "M." for Milhous.

Election officials said the printing mistake will in no way affect the legality of the ballot, however.

Neither Kennedy, Nixon Will Run Country Alone

From the emphasis placed on candidates JOHN KENNEDY and RICHARD NIXON during the rapidly-concluding campaign, it is easy for many to think they're voting for either one individual or the other.

★ ★ ★

Neither of these men is going to run the country alone after inauguration Jan. 20.

Neither of these men is the creator of a new philosophy of government.

In the oversimplification which often happens on crucial issues, many voters are aligning themselves "for" KENNEDY or NIXON practically on a personal basis.

★ ★ ★

Sen. KENNEDY and Vice President NIXON are the leaders of different political parties, but they belong to those parties. The parties don't belong to them.

They can insist on inserting all the planks they want in the national platform, but stripped down to the essentials, the two men represent different ideas of governing people.

In our book, the essential difference is "governing more" or "governing less." The difference between having Federal assistance (and, of course, the taxes to finance it) for everything, or expecting some state, local and individual solutions to problems.

★ ★ ★

On the individual level, it's the difference between "the-world-owes-me-a-living" thinking, just a cut below the British Socialist's "cradle-to-grave" care, and the challenge of individual initiative, competition, and with competition, the chance to rise or fall, prosper or fail.

★ ★ ★

Sure, we feel that social security is necessary. Federal assistance in this and some similar fields are necessary. But we're opposed to a constantly growing "give-away" philosophy of government which buys support by providing something for everybody and everything. Even the Romans got tired of the circuses.

★ ★ ★

With television bringing debates into the living rooms of the nation, a certain percentage of the voters will be casting their ballots on the basis of the "personality" shown on their screens, the assurance or lack of it; and even whether a candidate sweats with anxiety and the other doesn't.

Kennedy and Nixon are bound by their party history and philosophy. This isn't a beauty contest.

That, of course, is no guarantee. It would depend on what Gen. DE GAULLE decreed.

★ ★ ★

Many of his countrymen are disturbed not only over the cost of such a program but over the General's increasingly isolationist attitude. Other European NATO nations which have accepted American missiles, control the launchers while the U.S. controls the warheads.

Western Allies, too, are disturbed over DeGaulle's continued lack of cooperation with NATO. His preoccupation with French interests to the exclusion of all others and his conviction that he alone is right make him a most difficult personage to deal with, as many statesmen have discovered.

★ ★ ★

DE GAULLE possesses great qualities of leadership and he has stabilized his long troubled government. But he is obsessed with the idea of limiting France's role in NATO or on making a larger role contingent on having a voice in its affairs far beyond the weight France can actually carry.

France Votes to Build Its Own Nuclear Force

The French National Assembly has grudgingly approved Gen. DE GAULLE's $1.2 billion program for a nuclear force outside NATO. The vote in the Senate and a second vote in the Assembly are not expected to change the result.

★ ★ ★

In case of defeat, Pres. DE GAULLE could dissolve parliament and call for new elections, or he could carry out his threat to retire and leave France without a government head, a not unusual dilemma. French politicians fear this as it might touch off a rightist-military coup because of the people's disagreement over Algerian policies.

★ ★ ★

DE GAULLE insists that nuclear power in French hands is the only way to deter an attack on France and that this power is the measure of French influence. The understanding is that France would only use its striking force in close coordination with other NATO members.

Credulity: What gets its supreme test in a political campaign.

"At a neighborhood party the other evening;" phones

That political campaigns are too long is the opinion of

A presidential campaign should not be allowed to start until after the World Series is decided, asserts

It is the candid opinion of

David Lawrence Says:

Politicians Boosted Religious Issue

WASHINGTON — The biggest news in the presidential campaign really is the so-called religious issue.

Many people have felt it should not enter into the campaign—but the politicians decided otherwise. They have made use of it to their own advantage on both sides.

LAWRENCE

The preponderant evidence thus far is that the trend in voting on the part of Catholics toward Sen. Kennedy has resulted in the largest single percentage shift of any group of voters in the campaign.

After having published an analysis to that effect earlier in the week, based on the latest Gallup Poll, this writer today finds confirming reports from various quarters.

★ ★ ★

Thus, in the New York Times, John Wicklein, news analyst, concludes a special election report as follows:

"With the violent outcry against Sen. Kennedy from conservative preachers at the outset of the campaign, political observers thought his religion was going to finish him.

"The consensus now is that Sen. Kennedy will gain more than he loses because of the religion issue."

3 TO 1 MARGIN

Chalmers M. Roberts, staff reporter of the Washington Post, writing from Los Angeles, refers to the California poll, conducted by Marvin D. Field for a number of papers in that state, and says:

"On Tuesday, the poll concluded from an analysis of the vote by religions that there seems to be indicated 'a possible net gain for Kennedy' because 'Kennedy's margin among Catholics and other non-Protestants is more than 3-1, while balanced against this is the fact that among Protestants Nixon is favored by only about a 3-2 margin.'

"About a fourth of the California electorate is Catholic."

Samuel Lubell, political analyst for the Scripps-Howard newspapers, has written several articles emphasizing the shift to Kennedy by a Catholic voters. He wrote on Oct. 26 with respect to California:

"Los Angeles County has roughly one million Catholics among its population. The Catholics interviewed voted 63 per cent for Eisenhower.

"They were giving Nixon only 29 per cent of their vote — a heavy enough shift to balance off Kennedy losses among Protestant voters.

"This Catholic shift in the Los Angeles area is about the same proportion as one finds in the whole country."

Lubell also wrote earlier:

"Of these pro-Eisenhower Catholics in 14 states, nearly one-half are switching to Kennedy."

EXPLAINS W. VIRGINIA

In a recently published book, "The Catholic Vote," by James H. Fenton, general manager of the Gallup Poll, this issue is discussed in detail.

The book was written before the presidential primaries, but a postscript was added after the West Virginia primary, which was regarded by many writers as having squelched the religious issue as a factor.

But Fenton says otherwise. He writes:

"However, even though there was little evidence of a Protestant vote against Kennedy, there was evidence of a Catholic vote in his support.

"In the Northern steel-manufacturing section of the state where most of West Virginia's Catholic population is concentrated, the vote for Kennedy was particularly decisive.

"For example, Kennedy carried Ohio County by a 4-1 margin, a county which is dominated by Wheeling, which is about one-half Catholic."

★ ★ ★

But who started it all?

The answer is that the politicians saw in the issue vote-getting possibilities both ways.

The first public evidence of the use of statistics on religion at a national convention was noticeable in a document of several thousands of words peppared on behalf of Sen. Kennedy in 1956.

The memorandum itself was a potent factor in discussions behind the scenes at the 1956 Democratic convention in Chicago, when, to the surprise of many, Kennedy came within a few votes of winning the vice-presidential nomination.

The document has been circulated in the 1960 campaign, too.

'RECAPTURES' VOTE

The most important part of the memorandum is a table, showing statistically how, by "recapturing" the Catholic vote by putting a Catholic on the ticket, 14 Northern states—with a total of 261 electoral votes—could be swung to the Democrats.

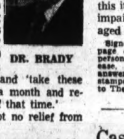
Dr. William Brady Says:

Willing 'Nerve' Patients Invite Tranquilization

"I have been floundering from doctor to doctor, including my family doctor, for the past three years, to find someone who would prescribe something besides tranquilizers.



DR. BRADY

"I am 44 years of age. Immediately upon hearing my age each doctor, "including the one who has been my family doctor for 20 years, says a 'change of life' and 'take these tranquilizers for a month and report at the end of that time.'

"Of course I got no relief from the tranquilizers.

"Finally I gave up my good job.

"Then excessive bleeding sent me to a gynecologist. He found I had fibroid tumor. Operated. I made a rapid recovery — and NO MORE NERVES.

"I hear similar stories from many of my friends.

"I think a campaign to end this 'nerve' deal is in order.

"Please give your opinion." (Mrs. H.W.)

Mrs. H.W. does not say what she complained of. Maybe the poor geekess willingly acquiesced in the hokum about her "nerves" and so made it easy for the charlatans to string her along with tranquilizers.

A woman's chronological or calendar age is not significant. What is significant is her anatomical and physiological age. That a good doctor learns by physical or general examination.

If the doctor is not sufficiently interested in the patient's welfare to make such examination, or if the patient is afraid the doctor is trying to make a case of it, a problem, for the moment. Who cares about tomorrow?

Physicians who lead patients to think that "change of life" accounts for impairment of physical or mental health are quacking it as egregiously as Lydia Pierce or Dr. Pinkham did in their palmy days.

The Pink-Pierceham nostrums were much less harmful to the victims than the tranquilizers, barbiturates and liquor prescribed for women today.

In No. 13 pamphlet, The Menopause, available free if you provide stamped, self-addressed envelope, I say it is a confession of incompetence or of ignorance to ascribe any impairment or disturbance of health a woman happens to have at this time to her age or to the menopause.

Please don't tell me what this and that leading physician says about it — unless he says it in print. I'm merely trying to assure women that all that happens at the time of the climacteric, menopause or "change of life" is cessation of menstruation.

One out of three or four complains of hot flushes, which sometimes continue to annoy a woman on into her 60s or 70s, and this is distressing enough. But aside from this it is a mistake to attribute any impairment of health in a middle-aged woman to "change of life."

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Case Records of a Psychologist

Salesmen Must 'Pause and Praise'

Larry thought sure he had made a $10,000 sale, yet his prospect reneged about taking the pen and signing on the dotted line. Larry couldn't figure out the reason why.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE G — 416: Larry B., aged 29, was a life insurance salesman.

"Dr. Crane," he told my Sales Psychology" class at Northwestern University, "I lost a $10,000 policy last night.

DR. CRANE

"I thought I had the case sewed up, and would have wagered it was in the bag.

"But as I was coming down the home stretch toward the dotted line stage, my prospect asked a question about comparative premium rates.

"He was sitting in his living room with his wife. I quickly gave him the right answer, but he failed to sign when I brought out my pen.

"What do you suppose went wrong, Dr. Crane?"

PAUSE AND PRAISE

"Objections" from a prospect are really the golden opportunity of a salesman if he will just realize his good luck.

For they give him a chance to "Pause and Praise." This reaction, however, is not a natural or inborn tendency.

On the contrary, when a good salesman meets a standard objection from the prospect, he usually has the answers already neatly memorized and can mow down the prospect with ease.

In fact, the usual salesman does this very thing, just as Larry mentioned in his own example.

But too glib a rebuttal of a husband's objection, fails to make that husband feel important, especially in his wife's eyes.

"I want to feel important" is an indelible motto tattooed on everybody's chest at the moment of our first birth cry in infancy.

And it never gets effaced entirely. So a salesman must keep that tattoo vividly in mind.

REMEMBER THE TATTOO

Larry was speeding along with his memorized sales palaver so the husband may vaguely have felt his wife was regarding him as a "Yes man."

"I don't want her to think I am so gullible I just swallow everything a salesman says," was his probable thought.

"I must show some sign that I am smart and an independent thinker. So I'll trip him up with a question."

But Larry didn't even break his stride as his previously memorized answers to all such objections let him sail right along.

His prospect thus felt deflated; not inflated in ego! Larry thus overlooked that vital motto tattooed on his prospect's chest.

Larry did a superb job of presenting the sales points for that $10,000 insurance policy. And he demolished the only objection the prospect raised.

But — he lost the sale! Why? By forgetting that tattoo!

And this is the most common pitfall ever encountered by salesmen.

For it takes previous coaching and a lot of self-prodding to stop a rapid fire sales presentation for a "Pause and Praise" interlude.

From early childhood, we want to spit out the right answer whenever we hear the question to which it pertains.

That, alas, spoils many sales, for you should first "Pause and Praise."

★ ★ ★

Even if you have the correct answers, as good salesmen generally do, hold them back till you have inflated your prospect's ego.

Often his objections are to show his wife he is no rubber stamp, so the momentary praise satisfies him more than the actual sales arguments.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long self-addressed envelope and 10c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Children Deserve Thanks for UNICEF Collections

Halloween fun is a memory now. Our congratulations to all the youth who trick or treated for UNICEF, the United Nations Children's Fund. Through the generosity of you parents who encouraged these youth with your pennies, nickels and dimes a total of $361.07 was collected last Sunday. Those pennies along with those collected in over 8,000 communities are going to stretch around the world. Just one of those pennies can provide the vaccine to protect a child against T. B. This year over 50 million children all over the world will be given a chance for a healthy productive future through UNICEF aid.

Political Letters Reaching Summit

Under the smoke screen of the presidential campaign the school board hopes to get the privilege of unlimited taxes. How greedy can they get? If that proposal passes it will be as bad as the old Roman days when they built their buildings that are in ruins today, and when the Egyptians built the pyramids (slave labor). All candidates, local, state and national, are all out to save us until after election when they hope to collect their fat salaries and settle back.

One Of Them

When the Democrats were in office, the rest of the world could hardly respect the United States when the people watched the incompetence in the White House destroy all respect for our government.

Everyone pinned their hopes on Eisenhower and the Republican Party to clean up the mess and pull our country out of debt. This they did.

They restored the faith of the American people in honest government. Never have the citizens of our nation had more respect for their government.

We cannot buy prestige either at home or abroad with "handouts." This destroys the dignity and the initiative of the individual. Controlling people by making them obligated must never be the American way.

Mr. Kennedy has pounded away at our self-confidence as a nation but has offered few solutions to the "problems" he seems so aware of.

Mr. Nixon has given us a positive self-confidence that makes us feel like we can proudly meet the challenges which lie ahead.

An Elephant Who Never Forgets

I noticed an announcement of a "write-in" candidate, William Aebersold, from Waterford running for representative from the 1st District.

We should be thankful to have a paper such as The Press. With all the pressures from both major political parties, you still acknowledge independent newcomers to the political scene.

How fortunate we in America are to have the type of men who not only have established a set of convictions, but have the courage to expose themselves to public life in order to attain them.

Douglas W. Kuechle
Clarkston

Republicans charge that every time a Democrat is elected president a war starts. Abe Lincoln was a Republican president when the Civil War started. Republicans boast that with them is prosperity. Did we enjoy prosperity with Hoover? Under the present administration we have earned more but we have paid more taxes. I have heard the Republicans boast of each of their presidents but Warren Harding. Is it because of the corruption that took place in his administration? They say it is unfair to have labor keep its members in line with the Democratic Party. Is it unfair to have 370 leading newspapers come to the support of Nixon out of a possible 550? Republicans say we've never had it so good. Look at the deduction side of your pay check.

Jack Follower

Michigan citizens will have the privilege of voting "yes" for the Constitutional Convention after 50 years of struggling with an outdated and outmoded Constitution.

The majority of voters on the subject will determine its passage. This is one opportunity to place Michigan among the fortunate states that have a Constitution, framed by experts to fit our times and present needs.

A Voter

Union members should have the freedom to choose for whom they vote. If Mr. Reuther had his way we would not.

★ ★ ★

Mr. Reuther is so narrow-minded that all he can see is a Democrat. The literature our union is handing out and the union paper is misleading. It does not present both sides. Reuther wants Kennedy elected so he will have more power. This would help Reuther in his prestige and standing. He is so deep in politics he has forgotten we have a union. A union president should be able to work with Democrats and Republicans.

★ ★ ★

We don't need a teen-age idol such as Kennedy in the White House. We need a statesman and Mr. Kennedy has proven that he is not a true statesman.

Member of UAW-CIO Local 653

War is caused by an attitude. By answering the question: Why does a bully pick on a little guy? We can answer the question: What is the cause of war?

The reason a bully picks on a little guy is because he is little or acts and talks little. When the little guy acts little the bully will take advantage of him. If the little guy pushed a gun into the bully's face, the bully probably would disappear.

At the beginning of both World Wars, the European countries took the attitude of making friends with their enemies. This attitude has never worked and never will.

★ ★ ★

Political parties do not cause war. It is caused by the attitude of acting little. Mr. Kennedy has been taking this same attitude. He has been acting little, talking little and making America look little. He is ruining our prestige. Every time he makes a speech on America's loss of prestige, the Communists score another victory.

1½ Million Commies in E. Germany to Receive New Party Ducats

BERLIN (AP) — All the 1½ million members of the Communist party in Red-ruled East Germany have been ordered to turn in their cards. This looked like a full-scale purge.

★ ★ ★

Since last summer, the lower ranks of the party leadership have been undergoing a shift.

One Communist organ estimated 60,000 minor officials have been fired or transferred. Now all party members are to get a going over.

"The exchange of cards," said the leadership, "will fortify the role of the party as the advance guard of all the working people."

IN LARGE TYPE

The announcement was published in large type and without comment in the official party daily Neues Deutschland as a decision of the central committee affecting all members and candidates for membership. It was dated Nov. 1.

New cards will be distributed to be valid from Dec. 1. Old cards will become invalid Jan. 1.

All members and candidates are required to attend two mass meetings, one to be held before Dec. 11 and the other some time in January.

★ ★ ★

The meetings are to discuss improving party "work with the masses" — especially where youth is concerned.

It seems likely that members, especially those who have not been too active, will be reminded at the first meeting that the party expects more of them.

★ ★ ★

The second meeting would provide an opportunity to see if the slackers have taken the warning to heart.

MAY BOLSTER WORK

Western experts familiar with Communist party practice suggested that the object may be to get additional work out of the less enthusiastic and to fire those considered altogether unworthy.

It is a chronic Communist complaint that the party contains many careerists.

These are people who join simply to get ahead in their regular jobs, and neglect the party's endless round of meetings and propaganda activities.

Michigan Starts Fight Against Pornography

LANSING (AP) — Michigan opened a battle against pornography here Thursday with a fact-finding legislative hearing in the state capitol.

★ ★ ★

William F. Callahan, assistant chief of postal inspection, reported "There is evidence that the gangster element is moving in on this racket."

The business of selling filth, Callahan said, is a $500 million business. "And it is very substantial in Michigan," he added.

Rep. Harry A. De Maso, R-Battle Creek, chairman of the legislative investigating committee, said the purpose of the hearing is to collect evidence to help strengthen Michigan laws against pornography.

★ ★ ★

About 100 law enforcement officials and representatives of citizens' groups attended the hearing in the house chamber.

Recovers From Attack

GRAND RAPIDS (UPI) — Former Kent County Circuit Judge Dale Souter was recovering today at Santa Fe, N. M., from a heart attack. Souter retired from the bench in January and was visiting relatives in the Southwest when he was stricken.

Soviet Accused of Spying in U. S. Set Free on Bail

NEW YORK (AP)—Igor Y. Melekh, United Nations secretariat employe accused of spying for the Soviet Union, goes free today on bail—but he is under federal court order to remain in Manhattan.

Melekh, 47, was ordered released Thursday in $50,000 bail pending a hearing next Wednesday on proceedings to move him to Chicago, where he was indicted with Willie Hirsch for allegedly seeking military maps and photographs of the Windy City for transmission to the Soviet Union.

* * *

The government vigorously protested the source of the bail money, which was produced in cash by two Soviet Embassy officials from Washington. The money was handed to Melekh's wife, Irina, who in turn gave it to the court.

U. S. Atty. S. Hazard Gillespie Jr. objected to the bail money coming from sources enjoying diplomatic immunity who could not be prosecuted if Melekh failed to appear for his Chicago hearing. He also objected to Mrs. Melekh posting bond.

CITES CONSTITUTION

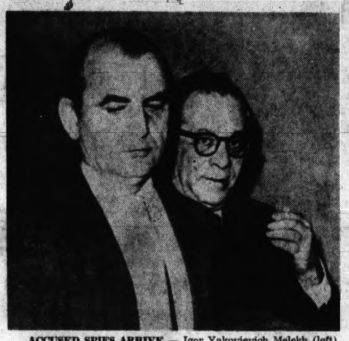
However, Federal Judge Edward Weinfeld told the government prosecutor:

"Now, Mr. Gillespie, either we are living under a constitution or we are not. She (Mrs. Melekh) has control of the money. I suggest, to whom can a person turn for bail but family and friends. If an American citizen were arrested in a foreign country he would have a perfect right to run to the American Embassy for aid."

Judge Weinfeld said Melekh must not go to the U.N., which is international territory, or to the Soviet U.N. delegation headquarters or to any foreign embassy where he might seek sanctuary. He also is barred from any piers, railroad trains or terminals of any kind.

Hirsch, 52, a German-born free lance illustrator for medical magazines, remains in custody.

Melekh and Hirsch were arrested by the FBI on Oct. 27.



ACCUSED SPIES ARRIVE — Igor Yakovievich Melekh (left), a Russian employed at U. N. headquarters, is accused of trying to obtain intelligence information pertaining to national defense for Russia. Facing the same charge is German-born illustrator Willie Hirsch. They're shown arriving at New York's Federal Court for a hearing Thursday.

Again Won't Mail Auto License Forms

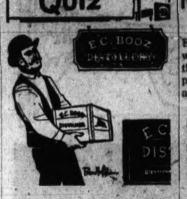
LANSING (AP)—Again this year, there will be no special mailing of individually prepared auto license applications, the secretary of state's office reports.

Elimination of the special mailing of some 3 million applications saves about $250,000 annually, the office estimated.

Big business firms were asked to prepare license applications for their employes and arrange for group pickup service to save man-hours otherwise lost from work.

One of the new outboard motors is a single-cylinder, two-piston, aircooled diesel.

Campaign Quiz



Q—How did "booze" become a synonym for liquor?

A—A Philadelphia distiller, E. C. Booz, turned out a bottle in the shape of a log cabin during the 1840 campaign which carried William Henry Harrison to office, and in which the log cabin was a prominent symbol. Speculation exists that thirsty citizens asked for a "bottle of Booz," which later became corrupted to "booze." (While this may have given popularity to this usage, the word "booze" has long been a part of the language.)

Ike Likely to Visit NATO Next Month

LONDON (UPI) — President Eisenhower "almost certainly" will go to Paris next month for the annual NATO council meeting, press and diplomatic reports here and in the French capital said.

The expected visit, regarded as a farewell gesture to the United States' European Allies by Eisenhower, would turn the conference into a full-dress Western summit meeting.

* * *

While there has been no official word received by the Western governments, Eisenhower's presence could be of great help because of his closeness with European leaders and the role he played as NATO commander, diplomats said.

Bankers are friendly souls. The interest they show in people sometimes runs as much as four or five per cent . . . A good husband doesn't argue when his wife says the car should be washed. He just lets her wash it. —Earl Wilson.

Former Truman Aide Gets Parole Saturday

WASHINGTON (AP) — Matthew J. Connelly, a White House secretary under former President Truman, gets out of Prison Saturday.

His release on parole comes a week earlier than the Nov. 12 date previously announced the Justice Department said Thursday because of allowance for good behavior. He is in the Federal Correctional Institution in Danbury, Conn.

He entered prison May 4 to start a two-year sentence imposed on charges of conspiring to prevent filing of an income tax evasion suit against Irving Sachs, a St. Louis shoe manufacturer.

T. Lamar Caudle, convicted with Connelly, was paroled last week. Caudle had been assistant attorney general in the Truman administration.

Mock Election at Calvin Is Landslide for Nixon

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — A mock election held at Calvin College this week showed students voting predominantly Republican, the college newspaper reported today.

Vice President Nixon received 90.4 per cent of the eligible votes cast and Sen. Kennedy 9.6 per cent.

Ballots were filled in by 1,920 students but only 1,217 votes were considered because some voted incorrectly or were not American citizens.

MSU Develops Pellet to Boost Syrup Yields

LANSING (AP) — Michigan State University has developed a germicide pellet capable of boosting maple syrup yields at least 50 per cent, officials say.

★ ★ ★

The paraformaldehyde pellets — which lengthen the time of flow — are put into tap holes in maple trees before the syrup spouts are put on.

The pellet kills bacteria, yeasts and molds that plug up trees and shorten the season.

Forestry researcher Putnam Roggins and microbiologist Ralph Costilow say the pellet could raise Michigan's syrup output by $250,000 yearly.

They said the pellet should be available to growers by 1962.

Nine out of every 10 persons who file an income tax return make less than $10,000 a year, the Tax Foundation says.

State Milk Producers Are Against Con-Con

EAST LANSING (AP)—The Michigan Milk Producers Association, a 13,000-member dairy cooperative, has aligned with other farmers' groups against the constitutional convention proposal on the Nov. 8 ballot.

The group, at its 44th annual meeting on the Michigan State University campus re-elected Harold Blaylock of Vassar president.

In other resolutions the association:

—Asked for a uniform milk-inspection system throughout the state;

—Asked the legislature to earmark funds for the Michigan State University college of agriculture, and —Urged a fuller use of the school milk program.

60,000 Park Stickers On Way to Dealers

LANSING (AP) — The first 60,000 annual state park stickers will be mailed to hunting and fishing license dealers, says the State Conservation Department.

The annual sticker or a 50-cent daily sticker will be needed to enter 55 of Michigan's 62 state parks next year.

Sticker revenues will be used to pay off a $3-million parks improvement and land acquisition program.

Munkyshines' Turn Typewriter Into Weapon

★ ★ ★

"I removed the cover of my typewriter and slipped the paper between the roller and, like a virtuoso, placed my fingers on the keys. This was the moment I had been waiting for.

"I raised my hands and struck the keys. Bing, bang! Something struck me in the face! I struck again, and once again I felt a smarting sting.

Jack's Odds 7½-5 in New York City

NEW YORK (UPI) — Bookmakers' odds on the presidential election gave a 7½-5 edge to Sen. John F. Kennedy in New York today.

★ ★ ★

Odds quoted for New York State were 3-1 for Kennedy over Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

One large Midwest bookie was quoted as rating Kennedy as 11-5 choice, and in Las Vegas, Kennedy was a 9-5 favorite.

Big gambling houses in Nevada have taken down their listings on the presidential race because of a 1919 statute making it illegal for gamblers to accept bets on a presidential election.

★ ★ ★

Betting on the presidential race was reported to be light across the country, leading some bookmakers to conclude that the odds might not reflect an accurate indication of the voters' intentions.

Ticker Tape Parades Bowing to Progress

NEW YORK (UPI) — There was very little ticker tape in the ticker tape parade for President Eisenhower and Vice President Richard M. Nixon Wednesday but more than 11 tons of paper and confetti showered down on them.

The great financial houses along Broadway and adjacent Wall Street have turned to more advanced means of tranamitting financial information in recent years.

Ticker tape, as a result, is rather scarce.

Whenever there is a ticker tape parade up Broadway's canyon of heroes for visiting dignitaries these days, confetti, shredded paper and paper streamers are purchased and delivered to the buildings in the area for distribution to the offices facing on the street.

BACKLOG STORED

The Downtown-Lower Manhattan Association provides the confetti used for visiting chiefs of state and other nonpolitical figures.

It keeps a backlog stored in the buildings for use on short notice.

Most of the supply of confetti for Wednesday's parade was bought and distributed by the New York State Independent Citizens for Nixon-Lodge.

The organization bought five tons of confetti and six tons of shredded paper, which was distributed Tuesday night.

An official of the organization said the confetti cost about $2,300 and that the head of the shredded paper company gave the Republicans a "discount," describing himself as "very, very Republican."

A spokesman for the Citizens for Kennedy-Johnson organization, which helped arrange a similar parade for Sen. John F. Kennedy two weeks ago, said the organization did not buy and distribute confetti for that parade.

The spokesman said the confetti and streamers apparently came from offices along the route and conceded that there appeared to be more confetti Wednesday than at the Kennedy parade.

Economic Gap Narrows 'Tween Negroes, Whites

WASHINGTON (UP) — Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell reported Wednesday the country has made "genuinely significant" progress in closing the economic gap between its Negro and white citizens.

Mitchell presented to the White House a Labor Department study of Negro gains in income, education, home ownership and job status.

★ ★ ★

Average earnings of nonwhite men have risen from 41 per cent of those of white workers to 58 per cent in the past 20 years, the report showed.

"Over the same period, the percentage of Negroes in professional and skilled work doubled," Mitchell told President Eisenhower in a letter accompanying the report.

However, the secretary said the report reveals that Negro unemployment rates remain disproportionately high because fewer Negroes have acquired high skills. He noted that in several other respects —including substandard housing and "seriously impaired" access to public accommodation and transportation — the economic condition of Negroes needs much improvement.

★ ★ ★

The report, Mitchell wrote, "is not a basis for complacency but a spur to continued action."

Nonwhite citizens, whose number has increased in the last decade more rapidly than the number of whites, now make up more than 11 per cent of the population, the report said.

★ ★ ★

Whereas in 1900 three-fourths of Negro citizens lived in southern rural areas, only one-third do so now. Another third live in northern and western cities, and the other third in southern cities.

The median income of nonwhite males in 1958 was $2,652 compared with $4,569 for white males.

Mitchell noted that the number of years completed in school has increased for Negro boys and girls at more than double the rate of white youngsters.

Negro college enrollment increased by 86.4 per cent between 1950 and 1958, compared with a 49.8 per cent among white youths.

However, the report showed that only 212,000 nonwhite students were enrolled in colleges in 1958 compared with 3,242,000 white students —a ratio of about one Negro youth to every 16 white youths.

★ ★ ★

"Despite the use of restrictive covenants and other forms of discriminatory real estate sales, home ownership by Negro families has become increasingly extensive," Mitchell said.

"By 1956, 36 per cent owned their own dwellings, with the corresponding figures for white families at 46 per cent."

Car Registrations Up in September

DETROIT (UP) — New car registrations in September were up fractionally from a year ago, R. L. Polk & Co. reports, reversing a downward trend which began in July.

★ ★ ★

The statistical firm said registrations of 458,765 compared with 457,201 in September 1959. July and August had trailed year-ago figures.

Total registrations for the first nine months were 4,041,869, Polk said. This is 4 per cent ahead of 1959 which up to now has been the second best auto sales year. The best was 1955.

Polk said registrations of domestic compact cars fell off for the first time in a year compared with total registrations. They accounted for 120,134 units or 26.2 per cent compared with 26.3 per cent in August.

★ ★ ★

Foreign car registrations of 40,441 took the highest share of the market — 8.8 per cent — since January. But a year ago the imports accounted for 11.8 per cent of all cars sold during September.

Red Meat Production 6 Per Cent Higher

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Agriculture Department reported today production of red meat during the first nine months of 1960 was 6 per cent higher than in the corresponding period last year.

★ ★

Commercial slaughter for the January-September period totaled 20,117,000,000 pounds. This compares with 18,941,000,000 pounds during the same period of 1959.

Has Son Free of Charge

ST. ALBANS, Vt. (UPI)—There was no charge to Mrs. Gloria Heinond when she gave birth to her first son at Kerbs Memorial Hospital. He was the 5,000th baby born at the hospital since it opened in 1949. Mrs. Hemond's two daughters were born at the same hospital.

The first woman ever elected to the United States Senate was Mrs. Hattie W. Caraway of Jonesboro, Ark., in 1932.

Skin Divers Profit From Salvaging of Logs

COEUR d'ALENE, Idaho (UPI) — Skin divers Robert Stillman and William Graham have been salvaging 9,000 to 12,000 board feet of logs per day from the St. Joe River near here.

★ ★ ★

The logs are sold to a lumber company. The men use a special barge, sponge rubber diving suits and breathing apparatus to retrieve the logs.

Election Fever Sweeps Student Voters at PNH

Mock Balloting a Big Success

Politics Mixed With Acting as Cast for 'Pygmalion' Is Chosen

By DIANE M. WALTER

Civics classes of Pontiac Northern High School sponsored a mock election Wednesday and Thursday.

Registration took place last week. Only those who registered could take part in the election.

Student interest in the election was excellent as many registered and turned out to vote.

Beside giving students an insight into democracy in action, the election gave them a chance to use voting machines.

Faculty members demonstrated how the machines are used.

The machines were obtained through cooperation of the Pontiac City Clerk's office.

Arrangements for the voting machines at Northern were made by Philip J. Wargelin, principal, and Dr. Russell W. Curtis, coordinator of secondary education for the Pontiac School District.

TABULATE RETURNS

Today, the faculty is busy tabulating returns. We expect to know by Monday morning which candidates won at Northern.

But we already know the results of another election at Northern.

New senior class officers are: Winfred Miracle, president; Bruce Norton, vice president; Pam Huntley, Secretary; and Dick Pointon, treasurer.

Tryouts for "Pygmalion" have been held. It will be staged by the Northern Players on Jan. 11 and 12.

Jean Isbell plays the part of Lisa Doolittle. Bill Ramsey takes the role of Henry Higgins and Ken Freeman is Colonel Pickering.

In supporting roles are Sharon Bratt as Mrs. Higgins and Jack Brownell as Alfred Doolittle. Dick Pointon plays Freddy Eastford Hill and Jolene Hudnell, Mrs. Eastford Hill.

Others in the cast are: Diane Walter, Ken Hall, John Taylor, Art Solomon, and Di Anne Call.

Rounding out the cast are: George Kovach, Bonnie Lambert, Lynn Johnson, Gary Williams, and Bill Lunsford.

The entire play is to be produced in an ultramodernistic setting employing little set construction and utilizing the whole of the Pontiac Northern Auditorium for its stage.

CHOOSING CANDIDATES—Students at Pontiac Northern High School took a look at the candidates this week and then pulled the levers. Voting machines were set up for a mock election Wednesday and Thursday. Claude Pierson of 2293 Silver Lake Road, Waterford Township, a senior, was one of the first to vote. Mock elections also took place at other Pontiac area schools.

Emmanuel Preps for Homecoming

Elaborate Plans for First Celebration at New School Building

By KATHY McKEE

Preparations for the first Homecoming at Emmanuel Christian School are getting under way. Elections for King and Queen of the big event are being held today.

There will be a Prince and Princess chosen from the seventh through eleventh grades to serve as the court.

Each class is working on a float for the parade. All of the floats are to be based around the theme "Christ is All."

The date for homecoming is Nov. 12.

Jim Peters, president of the student body, with fellow workers Marlene Smith, Toni Sutton, Kathy McKee, Kirk Brown, Dennis Cattle, Ed White, Carolyn Martin, Jim Newbanks and Nancy Hollenback plan to make this a big event.

After the football game, students and athletes will celebrate with a party at the school.

Plan Big Yearbook at Clarkston High

By JANET TISCH

The Clarkston High School yearbook staff, under the direction of its sponsor, Mrs. Lawrie Burnette, has been busily planning and designing the 1961 Hilltopper.

Editor Bobo Christides, and Editors in Training Linda Haflman have been working on the "dummy" copy of the book, planning how activities should be presented so they will be informative and interesting.

Copy Editor, Linda Chapman and Co-Editor Cheryl Hipp, write captions, for pictures and other descriptive features. Co-Editor Rocky Bullard and reporter Mike Howey have the sports at Clarkston High well covered.

A new and brilliant cover has been designed for the yearbook by Art Editor Adele Lynaly, who also is a staff writer.

Business managers Sue Larkin and Sue Turek have worked long and hard selling ads to yearbook patrons and getting more merchants and large firms to support the Hilltopper.

In putting together a yearbook, requires many reporters.

Yearbook reporters are Judy Leach, Punky Golembeske, Nafes Crosby, Kathy McDermott and Janet Tisch.

Much of the credit of publishing a good yearbook belongs to our excellent photographers, Sam Sita, and one of Clarkston's teachers, Barry Briedenbagh.

Teachers offer their time naming students in pictures that no one can identify and S. F. Goedde, principal, helped make many decisions and offered advice and help any time it was needed.

The Hilltoppers staff feels that with hard work and planning it can publish a yearbook that will be remembered at Clarkston High School as outstanding and exciting.

Samuel M. Kier built the first oil refinery—a one-barrel still in Pittsburgh in the early 1850's after a chemist advised him that distilling petroleum might produce an illumination for lamps.

West Bloomfield Actors Ready to Solve Mystery

By CAROLYN MAVIS

West Bloomfield High School publicly challenges you to find out just who or what is responsible for the weird and mysterious happenings in "The High School Mystery," which is the title of a three-act play that will be produced on the stage of the high school gym on the evening of Nov. 9.

The play is a whirlwind of excitement, laughs and surprises and cast members are most enthusiastic over their parts in the production.

When the curtain first rises on the play you will wonder if you haven't mistaken the date of presentation, because you will see the boys and girls you know rehearsing their parts under the direction of a new drama coach.

The play they are rehearsing is suddenly stopped by the advent of a real mystery.

★ ★ ★

This is a new and novel mystery play that should leave you breathless with suspense and gasping with surprise.

If you have to beg, borrow or steal the 75 cents it will cost you for a seat, don't fail to see the play which starts promptly at 8 p.m. in the West Bloomfield gym.

THE CAST

Those taking part in the production are Judy Leaf, Judie Pierce, Sandy Kuyper, Ardis Twork, Carolyn Mavis, Carol Greig, Mik MacKercher, David Sprunk, Doug Hoxie, Gale Hargrave, Ed Decoteau and Jack Johnson.

Mrs. Claudia Baker, West Bloomfield English and Latin teacher, is the director.

Geoff Herriman is the student director and Marilyn Dreyer is the assistant student director.

FALL GUY—There's something mighty mysterious going on at West Bloomfield Township High School; students getting slugged, bodies popping up all over. The mysterious happenings are being created by seniors as they roll into final rehearsals of the senior play, "The High School Mystery" by Robert St. Clair. Taking a fall is Ed Decoteau, bringing surprised and terrified looks from cast members (from left) Carolyn Mavis, Ardis Twork, Judy Leaf, and Sandy Kuyper. The mystery will be staged Wednesday in the high school gymnasium.

First Quarter Ends Fast at St. Freds

By MARY E. DETMER

This was a short but very active week for students at St. Frederick High School.

There was no school Monday, but the remainder of the week was filled with work on quarterly exams.

Today marked the end of the first quarter at St. Fred and students are now eagerly awaiting marks to be given out next week.

Besides the rush on exams the seniors found time to pick their class colors, flower, patron, and motto. They chose red and white as the color; the lily of the valley as their flower, and St. Christopher as their patron saint.

Their motto is, "What we are is God's gift to us; what we will become is our gift to God."

Libel Judgment to Be Appealed

New York Times and Negro Ministers Refuse to Pay $500,000

By REX THOMAS

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—A $500,000 libel suit judgment against the New York Times and four Negro ministers — an outgrowth of Alabama's racial troubles—was headed today for appeal to the higher courts.

★ ★ ★

Twelve white jurors in state court Thursday awarded the record judgment to Montgomery Police Commissioner L. B. Sullivan, who said he was libeled by an advertisement which appeared in the Times.

★ ★ ★

The jury deliberated two hours and 10 minutes before returning the largest damage suit award ever handed down by an Alabama court.

★ ★ ★

Attorneys who represented the newspaper in the three-day trial said they will appeal to the Alabama Supreme Court.

The Times withheld comment on the verdict.

The Negro defendants whose names appeared in the ad — the Rev. Ralph D. Abernathy and the Rev. Solomon S. Seay Sr., of Montgomery, the Rev. F. L. Shuttlesworth of Birmingham and the Rev. J. E. Lowery of Mobile—called it part of the price of their "struggle for freedom and dignity."

★ ★ ★

The suit by Sullivan was the first to be tried of four complaints filed by members of the City Commision and Gov. John Patterson because of the full-page advertisement which appeared in the Times March 29.

★ ★ ★

Soliciting funds for the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr. before the Negro integration leader was acquitted on charges of lying about his state income taxes, the ad dealt in part with the handling of Negro college student demonstrations here last March.

Sullivan and the other public officials denounced the advertisement as false and malicious, and said it held them up to ridicule and shame.

★ ★ ★

No date has been set for trial of the other suits.

★ ★ ★

The police commissioner's lawyers, in their closing arguments, urged the jury to award the full $500,000 to punish the Times and warn other newspapers that "they have got to tell the truth."

Kennedy Gets His Needle Out

By GEOFFREY GOULD

EN ROUTE WITH KENNEDY (AP)—It has been said that satire and ridicule are among the strongest of political weapons, and the hardest to counter.

Sen. John F. Kennedy in the past week has been seeking to use this weapon to the hilt against Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

He has taunted him over and again for bringing President Eisenhower into his campaign in its closing days.

* * *

Those who have traveled with Kennedy over long periods say that in the beginning he was all business.

But starting in Philadelphia last week, when he issued a sarcastic challenge to Nixon to bring President Eisenhower along for a fifth television debate, Kennedy has increased the proportion of humor in his recipe.

BORROWS FROM FDR

Kennedy is an admirer of Franklin D. Roosevelt, often mentions him as a great Democratic president, and perhaps he has taken a leaf from the book of that master politician.

Roosevelt could pierce and shrivel his opponents with a well-timed thrust. Kennedy does not exactly rate with Roosevelt in this field, but he seems to be learning.

Sometimes he'll seize on a passing incident to pass off a relaxed quip. Sometimes he apparently has his gibe well in mind before he starts speaking.

* * *

At San Diego this week, he unveiled his circus elephant gag. He draws a picture of Republicans, like elephants, hanging onto the tail of the one in front. He says Nixon hung onto Eisenhower's tail in 1952 and 1956 but now finds himself in front with no tail to hang on to.

Kennedy also has been kicking around jokes about Eisenhower's journey to New York to ride down Broadway with Nixon, Henry Cabot Lodge and Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

"I don't see why they won't put Barry Goldwater in that car," Kennedy asks. "But I don't care who they put on the rescue squad. Let them throw in Hoover, Landon and Dewey."

Thursday he stopped referring only to "Mr. Nixon" and began calling him "Dick Nixon" or "Richard Milhous Nixon" in a belittling manner.

* * *

Nixon all along has used this same debater's trick of first-naming his opponent. One of his favorite lines is, "It's not Jack's money they're going to spend, it's your money."

On paper, it doesn't sound like much. But in the context of a political meeting, Kennedy's sallies draw hearty laughs.

Students Fancy 'Peace Corps'

U. of M. Group Starts Organization Endorsing Kennedy's Proposal

EN ROUTE WITH KENNEDY (UPI) — A college campus group movement was under way today to underwrite Sen. John F. Kennedy's general idea of a "peace corps" of talented young men and women to serve in underdeveloped countries.

It started at the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor as a result of a speech the Democratic presidential candidate made there several weeks ago.

The movement, which claims 750 backers at Michigan, predated Kennedy's San Francisco speech of Wednesday night in which he formalized his plan for service which would be an "alternative" or a supplement to the military draft.

Kennedy asked the question of how many of his listeners at Ann Arbor would be willing to devote several years of their lives to service in underdeveloped nations—where medical, cultural and technical needs are not being met.

W. Arthur Milne Jr., assistant counselor of the International Center at the University of Michigan, wrote Kennedy on Oct. 30 that his speech loosed a "tidal wave of enthusiasm."

The 750 supporters have enrolled in an organization called "Americans Committed to World Responsibility" and this group, said Milne, has written to 200 other colleges and universities inviting support.

Another speech at Ann Arbor by Rep. Chester Bowles, a Kennedy supporter, setting forth his proposal for a United Nations civil service helped to fan the student interest, Milne reported.

FDR's Son Asks Bills of Health From Candidates

MOUNT CLEMENS (AP) — John Roosevelt, a son of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt and a supporter of Republican Richard M. Nixon for president, declared here Thursday that both Nixon and his Democratic rival, Sen. John F. Kennedy, should reveal their medical histories to the public.

Roosevelt told the Mount Clemens Lions Club he believed both candidates should release their physicians from "doctor-patient privilege."

This, Roosevelt said, would permit publication of medical histories of both candidates, treatments they have received in the last three years and details of any physical deficiencies.

He said the public had been given the mere facts that Kennedy had been treated for Addison's disease (anemia caused by malfunctioning glands) and Nixon had been under treatment for a knee injury.

Two State Hospital Staffers Attend Talks

Staff members at Pontiac State Hospital have recently returned from two conferences in widely separated parts of the country.

Dr. Robert Braun, clinical director, attended the 12th Mental Hospital Institute at Salt Lake City, Utah, sponsored by the American Psychiatric Association.

The theme of the conference was "Needs of the Mentally Ill: Types of Effective Action Between the Community and Its Hospital Facilities."

Ted A. Panaretos, community relations director, attended the Basic Institute for Directors of Hospital Volunteers at Cleveland.

The three-day session was sponsored by the American Hospital Association.

Wins Damages Because Crash Made Hair White

LONDON (AP)—Horace Ford's black hair turned white after a bus he was driving and a truck collided in 1957.

In awarding Ford $4,130 damages Thursday, the judge said: "He has had all the real enjoyment taken out of his life for the last three years."

★ ★ ★

Ford's hair was black when he appeared in court, because he dyes it regularly.

"If you go to an employer with a head of white hair and try to get a job, he will say, 'Here's an old fellow who can't do hard work,'" Ford explained.

Ford, now 52, works in a garage.

Ike's Brother Quits 2 Posts, Keeps Third

WASHINGTON (AP)—Dr. Milton Eisenhower is stepping out of two advisory posts he has held under the presidential administration of his brother, but is retaining a third he tried to resign.

President Eisenhower accepted Thursday Milton Eisenhower's resignation from the President's Advisory Committee on Government Organization and from the National Advisory Committee on Inter-American affairs.

The President's brother agreed, at the suggestion of the Navy and the urging of the President, to continue for a time on the Board of Visitors of the U.S. Naval Academy.

Dr. Eisenhower, president of Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore, underwent an operation for a slipped vertebral disc and has been confined to bed.

13 States to Decide on War Leadership

Side Issues Provide Election Sidelight

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Voters in 13 states will decide next Tuesday whether to empower their state lawmakers to create a new state government in event the existing one is destroyed or paralyzed by enemy attack.

On the ballot in two Southern states—Mississippi and Arkansas—are proposals designed to make it easier for authorities to close down public schools threatened with racial integration.

Segregationist forces also are urging voters in Mississippi to ratify an amendment to the state constitution that would permit a county registrar to deny voting rights to anyone he judges is not of "good moral character."

On the other hand, two Western states—Idaho and Oregon—will ballot on proposals that would liberalize voting requirements and permit more persons in those states to vote in the 1964 presidential election.

The question on the Idaho ballot is whether to lower the voting age to 19. Four states now permit citizens younger than 21 to vote. The voting age is 20 in Hawaii, 19 in Alaska, and 18 in Georgia and Kentucky.

The issue in Oregon is whether to permit voting in future presidential elections by persons who have just moved into that state. If adopted, the proposal would eliminate a six months' residence requirement for voting for president and vice president but retain it for other election contests.

CONSIDER REVISION

In West Virginia the citizens will decide whether to revise the preamble of their state constitution to include an expression of belief in God.

Other proposals placed before the voters in the coming election would curb highway billboards in Oregon, relax curbs on sale of liquor in Maine and Washington, allow district attorneys in Oregon to bring suspected law breakers to trial without a grand jury indictment, approve tax relief for elderly homeowners of modest incomes in New Jersey and add $1 to the cost of marrying in Georgia. The Georgia fee would finance pensions for the officials who issue the marriage licenses.

The proposal which is on more state ballots than any other provides for "continuity" of state governments in event of enemy attack.

It would revamp state constitutions to permit the state legislature to move a bombed-out state capital to a new location, and name successors to governors or other officials killed by enemy action.

★ ★ ★

In one form or another this proposal will be voted on in Idaho, Kansas, Maine, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New Mexico, Oregon, South Carolina, South Dakota, Utah and West Virginia.

Four states already have taken similar action—Michigan and California by constitutional amendment and Iowa and Pennsylvania by state law.

Under prodding from federal civil defense authorities, 21 other states have adopted, or have begun the process of adopting, less sweeping measures to provide for continuity of government in emergency.

Johnson Continues 'at Home' Campaign

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—Tanned, happy and exuding confidence, Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson continued today a five-day tour of Texas in quest of two high offices and Texas' 24 electoral votes.

Johnson, seeking the vice presidency and re-election to the Senate on the Democratic ticket, flew in Thursday from a Northwest Texas rendezvous and two appearances with the Democratic standard bearer, Sen. John F. Kennedy.

Johnson was to spend the day in the Dallas-Fort Worth area and then was to fly to Houston for a television appearance.

Record Negro Total in D.C. Public Schools

WASHINGTON (AP)—The percentage of Negroes in public schools of the District of Columbia has increased this fall to a record 79.9 per cent, Supt. Carl F. Hansen said Thursday. Last year's Negro enrollment totaled 76.7 per cent and, in 1958-59, the system's Negro population was 74.1 per cent.

Jack Is Backed by Oilman Hunt

Texan Has Distributed Anti-Catholic Sermon; Faces Depletion Study

DALLAS, Tex. (UPI) — Multimillionaire H. L. Hunt, who recently admitted distributing an anti-Catholic sermon last July, announced Thursday that he "fully supports" Sens. John F. Kennedy and Lyndon B. Johnson.

"I am supporting Kennedy," he said. "I think it's much to the best interests of Texas that the Democratic ticket carry Texas. It will leave Lyndon Johnson and (House speaker) Sam Rayburn—upon whose standing in Congress the welfare of Texas depends—in a very tough spot if they fail."

Hunt made most of his fortune—which a spokesman once estimated at "in the neighborhood of two billion dollars"—in the oil business. Kennedy is for a review of mineral depletion allowances, such as the one now granted on oil.

But Hunt said this did not alarm him.

"I would feel safer about the depletion allowance with Rayburn and Johnson influential in Congress and the executive department than otherwise," he said.

"I would not expect Kennedy to cut the depletion allowance.

"Kennedy has called for a review of all depletion allowances. That review will be made regardless of who is elected president. The president has practically nothing to do concerning depletion allowances. All he could do would be to veto some bill in which depletion was included."

★ ★ ★

Hunt has been known in the past for a conservative outlook. He is the author of a paper-backed book, "Alpaca," which describes a mythical country where votes are apportioned according to the amount of taxes a man pays.

Hopefuls Refuse to Give Nudists the Bare Facts

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—Where do Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Sen. John F. Kennedy stand on nudism?

Boon said Thursday he wrote to both presidential candidates asking their views on the practice of nudism but received no answer.

America's 250,000 nudists will be disappointed by the lack of response, Boon said.

Gals Given Beer Break

LONDON (AP) — A giant lurch forward in worker-management relations took place Thursday. A British shampoo firm began giving 36 girl employes a free daily beer break.

Thus was settled one of the strangest conflicts in the history of industrial discord.

The girls work for Lincoln Hair Products, Ltd., in suburban Acton. The firm makes shampoo. A main component of this unusual hair-wash is a strong, high-grade beer, said to bring out the highlights of a woman's crowning glory in nothing flat.

Pouring beer into shampoo day after day made for temptation. In the course of time the girls developed the habit of passing up their tea break and dipping their cups into the beer barrel instead.

When the head of the firm, Eric Lincoln, found out about this last Monday he put his foot down. The girls promptly walked out under banners proclaiming "We want our beer break."

Lincoln gave in, and a compromise was reached.

The girls agreed to quit drinking the beer they were supposed to be putting in the shampoo. Lincoln agreed to keep another barrel on tap in their canteen, and to give each girl half a pint free at lunch time.

Warned Lincoln: "Any drunkenness among the staff will result in the withdrawal of this unusual privilege."

Hoisting their half-pint mugs in victory, the girls promised their 43-year-old boss to play fair.

Friends Donate Subscription to Aged Person

LANSING (AP) — Five stenographers have assured that one of Michigan's senior citizens can still enjoy reading about the state's outdoors.

An aging resident recently wrote the State Conservation Department he was canceling his subscription to its bimonthly magazine, "Michigan Conservation."

Advancing years and small pension income forced cancellation, he wrote.

Five stenographers in the cashier's section, moved by the letter, donated 20 cents each for the $1 needed to renew the subscription for a year.

A process for producing frozen concentrated milk is said to retain natural flavor for over three months.

Astronomy Gains Powerful Ally in Television

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — The Kitt Peak National Observatory this week gave astronomy a powerful new tool when it caught the faint light from a distant cluster of stars by television.

In what appears to be a major breakthrough, the new use of television offers the strong hope to astronomers of greatly expanding the visible universe.

The work of a year and a half came to a climax this week when light which left the distant globula cluster M15 tens of thousands of years ago dropped through the University of Arizona's 36-inch telescope and became visible on a television screen.

Later models of the same equipment when attached to the giant telescopes of the world may likely stretch the vision of man much farther than it has gone before.

The work at Kitt Peak on television has been done by an astronomer Dr. William Livingston, 33.

"Television is more sensitive than a photographic plate by a factor of 50 to 100," Livingston explained. "This means that exposures have to be 50 to 100 times longer in photography. Now with television, astronomers should be able to take more pictures on a night's work."

Berry said the hotel was purchased from the Hotel Corp. of America. He did not disclose the price.

International owns three hotels in Michigan as well as hotels in Los Angeles, New York City, Utica, and Jamestown, N.Y., Chicago and Cleveland, Ohio.

Section Set to Turn Layettes In

The Carol Brooks Group Continues 29-Year Tradition

By MARY ANGLEMIER

It takes more than 3,000 yards of outing flannel to complete the 75 layettes which members of Carol Brooks Section of the Pontiac Branch of Needlework Guild make annually.

President Mrs. Glenn H. Griffin said members met Thursday at the Young Women's Christian Association to assemble nightgowns, shirts, blankets and diapers into layettes.

They will be contributed on Nov. 10 at the annual ingathering in the First Presbyterian Church.

The group meets once a month at the Y to cut and sew infant wear. Some sewing is done at home.

★ ★ ★

Working with Mrs. Griffin as fellow officers are Mrs. Bruce J. Annett, vice president; Mrs. D. B. Eames, recording secretary; Mrs. Verne C. Hampton, treasurer; and Mrs. Palmer S. Bundy, corresponding secretary.

The board of directors is comprised of Mrs. Robert J. Alton, Mrs. Edward P. Barrett, Mrs. Milo J. Cross, Mrs. Russell H. Galbraith, Mrs. William S. Isgrigg, Mrs. John H. Patterson, Mrs. John A. Riley and Mrs. Charles S. Wixom.

29 YEARS OLD

The Carol Brooks Section had its beginning about 29 years ago when Mrs. Vern C. Markley learned that the Visiting Nurse Association was in desperate need of layettes for emergencies.

Mrs. Markley was determined to do something about the situation, so she asked Mrs. Harold A. Fitzgerald and Mrs. Harold E. Howlett to help her form a group of women who would be interested in sewing once a month on layettes.

★ ★ ★

Later the group became affiliated with the Pontiac Branch of Needlework Guild of America, Inc.

The first meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Markley at Mary Day Avenue and Palmer Street.

Mrs. Harold A. Furlong was elected to serve as first president when Mrs. Fitzgerald opened her home for organization. Mrs. Howlett was named secretary and Mrs. Fitzgerald, treasurer.

DURING DEPRESSION

This was during the depression years when men were out of work, banks were closing, and funds of charitable organizations were gone. During the early years the group sponsored silver teas, fashion shows and bridge parties to finance the buying of bolts of flannel used in making the layettes.

★ ★ ★

Among the charter members were Mrs. C. Sanborn Hutchins, Mrs. Stuart E. Whitfield, Mrs. Loren C. Sheffield, Mrs. Berll T. Lawson, Mrs. Howard B. Barker, Mrs. Carlton C. Patterson, Mrs. Clifford T. Ekelund, Mrs. John D. Millis, Mrs. Henry A. Houston Jr., and Mrs. L. Warren Gatley.

★ ★ ★

Others were Mrs. E. Hardy Luther, Mrs. Harold A. St. John, Mrs. Claire Gaukler, Mrs. Russell V. Thurston, Mrs. Noyce W. Strait, Mrs. Harold E. Groves, Mrs. Edwin H. Hallett, Mrs. J. Kenneth Eddy, Mrs. Aaron D. Riker, and the late Mrs. John E. Clark, Mrs. George K. Zimmerman and Mrs. Harold L. Ward.

Party Follows the Finale of 'Fever Follies'

A successful final performance of Hi Fever Follies of Sixty" was capped by a cast party Thursday evening at Elks Temple.

★ ★ ★

During the festivities, Director William Cain paid special tribute to dancer Jackie Rae Voorheis whose opening tap dance was a last-minute "pinch-hit" performance for a previously scheduled performer.

Others receiving special thanks were pianist Mrs. John McCallum, saxophonist Robert Wiegand, who arranged for musical accompaniment, drummer Harry Jones, and organist Cliff Wiegand.

★ ★ ★

Mr. Cain thanked the many behind-the-scenes workers for making the annual affair a success.

Try a Touch-Up

(NEA) — A touch-up will keep a manicure looking better longer. A coat of colorless polish applied about three days after a manicure protects the original application.

Pontiac Press Photo

The November meeting of the Pontiac Tuesday Musicale will feature these area musicians in "Music Old and New." Preparing the program are (from left) William Casey of Lone Pine Road, Bloomfield Hills; Mrs. Clark Pardee of Walnut Hill Road, Birmingham; Mrs. Robert Killeen of Yosemite Boulevard, Birmingham; and Robert Bates of Greenwood Avenue, Birmingham. They will present renaissance and baroque music at the Tuesday afternoon meeting at Grace Lutheran Church.

Old and New Will Blend in Next Pontiac Musicale

An unusual program will be presented to members of the Pontiac Tuesday Musicale and their guests Tuesday afternoon at Grace Lutheran Church.

Using the theme "Music, Old and New" four well-known area musicians will illustrate little-known periods of music with vocal and instrumental selections.

William Casey and Robert Bates will perform music from the Renaissance, early English and French and Baroque periods. They will then contrast these periods with music in the modern idiom.

Assisting Casey and Bates vocally throughout the program will be Mrs. Robert Killeen. Mrs. Clark Pardee will play the viola.

Mr. Casey has been associated with the music department at Brookdale School for many years. Acting as commentator, he will also play the guitar, flute and clarinet.

Close associate of Casey is Mr. Bates, music instructor at Cranbrook. He will be heard primarily as a pianist.

Give Feet a Treat

(NEA) — You can often get rid of a day's weariness by being kind to your feet. Give them an alternating hot and cold footbath. Sit on the bathtub edge and dangle your feet under a faucet. Alternate hot and cold water once mixer valve is set for a not-too-hot flow.

Karen Vidor and Airman Repeat Vows

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Vidor of Ascot Road, Waterford Township, announce the marriage of their daughter Karen Dawn to Airman 2.C John C. Hemming, Oct. 29 in St. Benedict's Church.

The Rev. Robert Wyzgoski officiated at the small family wedding.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Ruth C. Walton of Ascot Road and Albert Hemming of Detroit.

Gayle Coffey and William Sutton attended the couple.

After a reception in the home of the bride's parents the newlyweds left for a brief honeymoon in Ohio. They will be at home in Mt. Clemens where the bridegroom is stationed at Selfridge Air Force Base.

Just Say No and Mean It

EMILY POST
Good Taste Today

Dear Mrs. Post: The other evening I was with two friends who got into an argument about something. One of them turned to me and asked me who I thought was right. I don't like getting mixed up in other people's disagreements, but when asked point-blank to give my opinion I felt there was nothing but to give it.

I said I thought Mary was right, whereupon the other friend became hurt because I did not agree with her. This is certainly an unpleasant spot in which to be placed and to make sure that I don't get involved again, will you please tell me how I can tactfully avoid taking sides?

★ ★ ★

Answer: Just say, "I refuse to take sides; you'll have to settle it yourselves" — and stick to it.

★ ★ ★

Dear Mrs. Post: The son of very good friends of ours is in a seminary studying for the priesthood. He will finish his training soon and will celebrate his first mass here.

I have known this young man all of his life and have always called him Tom. Will you please tell me what to call him after he becomes a priest?

Answer: It would be lacking in proper respect to call him Tom. But it would be quite proper for old friends to call him "Father Tom."

Help Out Ex-Prisoners

By GAY PAULEY

NEW YORK (UPI)—As the anonymous poet once put it, "There is so much good in the worst of us, and so much bad in the best of us . . ."

A private, nonprofit and nonsectarian organization in New York believes that in every person there is the hidden spark to do better no matter what the depths reached in the past.

★ ★ ★

For 116 years, the Women's Prison Association has worked quietly in this belief—helping to bring that spark to the surface and rehabilitate women criminals, women on court probation, women who may have had only one minor brush with the law.

The association believes it is unique in the nation, although it has had inquiries from other cities on how its program works.

RESTORES DIGNITY

It specializes in "case work"—offers a temporary home for women who are out of prison or on probation, provides clothing, financial aid, marital counseling, helps them locate jobs, helps train them in careers if they show sufficient ambition, offers psychiatric aid if it is needed, and above all else tries to "restore the dignity and self-respect of even the lowest of the low."

★ ★ ★

"We try to offer love, warmth and understanding," said Doris S. Whitney, executive director. "Women come from prison frightened to death . . . so scared they sometimes try to get back in jail because it offers security.

"We feel we help them tremendously just by offering them a home during that period of confusion . . ."

★ ★ ★

The association never cuts off help to those who seek it voluntarily. It is proud of the thousands it has aided. "But let's face it," sighed Dr. Ethel E. Wortis, treasurer, and on the association board for 25 years, "Some of our girls get back into trouble. But we never give them up."

Dr. Wortis, an internist, is a descendant of the association founder, Isaac T. Hopper, and is married to a psychiatrist on the New York University medical college staff.

Miss Whitney, a native of Prescott, Me., holds bachelor's and master's degrees in sociology from New York University. She formerly was superintendent of the Illinois State Reformatory for Women, director of the Michigan House of Correction for Women, and before joining the association was on the staff of the New York commissioner of corrections.

All of the association's support, except for some income from an endowment, comes from charitable contributions.

Miss Whitney said the association helps from 100 to 300 new cases each year, and continuing cases push the total to 400 a year. The age range is from 16 on up.

Some of the women have done time for severe crimes. But most have been charged with prostitution or as "wayward minors"—which Dr. Wortis said wryly, "covers a multitude of sins."

In most cases, they "had many strikes against them before they reached adulthood," said Dr. Wortis. "Some were products of broken homes, some had one parent in a mental institution, and few seemed to have had any religious training."

Abby Says: Get a Sponsor

Most Pen Pals for the Birds

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I was happy to see you state in your column that writing to strangers was "for the birds." At first glance you might have appeared heartless because there are so many deserving people who want pen pals.

ABBY

But you were right, Abby; it is much safer to develop a pen pal through a third party who knows both parties fairly well.

My sister, a widow, 53, found a "pen pal" through a magazine. Before she was through, it cost her $3,600 and attorney fees. Her "pen pal" posed as a retired farmer, widower and church-going Lutheran.

He turned out to be a married man with a long record for embezzlements, no Lutheran, and all he had was a flair for writing and a good imagination.

WITH YOU ALL THE WAY

DEAR ABBY: I am the mother of five grown children. Each has made me a grandma many times. My son had four children. His wife got involved with another man (married) and bore him a child, but my son continues to live with her because of their other children.

She says she is ashamed and sorry, but we are heartbroken. My problem is that my income is small. I always remember my grandchildren on Christmas and their birthdays.

Should I, knowing this child is nothing to me, give him a birthday and Christmas gift?

NOT HIS GRANDMA

DEAR NOT: Certainly. Why punish the child for his mother's mistake?

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: My next door neighbor is the best hearted person in the world. She's always doing something nice for people, and everyone likes her. But she can't get through two sentences without using half a dozen swear words.

When she comes over I send my youngsters outside so they won't pick up any of the terrible words she uses. Some say to ignore it. Others say to tell her off. What do you say?

GOOD NEIGHBOR

DEAR NEIGHBOR: Don't tell her off — tell her. A practical solution for chronic cursers is to substitute some home-made goobledygook for some of the stronger epithets. It may not convert a mule skinner into a choir boy overnight — but it will help.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: Do people REALLY get gray hair from worrying or is it just a natural phenomenon?

NOT GRAY YET

★ ★ ★

DEAR NOT GRAY: It's a combination of the hereditary factors, a natural phenomenon. Some people have been known to "turn gray" from a shattering emotional experience.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: According to my grandmother, who is 92, only one clock was stopped in the house when a person died. The reason being that when the coroner came around to write up the death certificate there would be no question as to the exact time of the death. There was no superstition to it.

MONICA

DEAR ABBY: When I was a little girl, I recall seeing my mother stop the big grandfather clock that stood in our hallway. I asked her why she was stopping the clock and she told me my brother had died, and there should be no chimes or bells in a house of mourning. She was Hungarian-born, so I imagine this was an old Hungarian custom.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen R. Wells of Maynard Court were hosts at their daughter's reception in the United Auto Workers' Hall on Kennett Road.

Miniature red roses centered the bridal bouquet of white carnations.

Attendants in royal blue silk taffeta, wore matching feather hats and shoes. They carried peppermint-stripe carnations.

You'll Lose, My Gal, Getting Him Educated

By RUTH MILLETT

You see them everywhere, working in beauty salons, in department stores, in offices—pert, ambitious young wives who have cut their own education short in order to put a husband through college.

★ ★ ★

Are they wise or foolish to have been in such a hurry to marry?

According to a recent marriage study any difference in the amount of education a husband and wife have caused a marked drop in the companionship of the couple.

So while the young couple may be close during the early years, both feeling that they are working toward a mutual goal, the years ahead may not be quite so companionable.

The husband may find that his wife is not as mentally stimulating as he expected her to be, that her interests are not as broad as his, that she does not share all of his enthusiasms, and maybe, even, that she falls behind when he begins to move up the success ladder.

★ ★ ★

So from the long-range view, it would seem that it would be much smarter for a girl to say, "We'll wait until we both finish school before we marry" instead of saying: "We can be married right away if I stop school and go to work. After all, it's your education that is important, not mine."

★ ★ ★

Young men don't, usually ask their girl to make that kind of sacrifice. The girls volunteer to quit school and get a job because they don't want to wait for marriage.

Wouldn't it be better for a couple to wait a year or two or three and start out together with the kind of education background that will help to keep them companionable through the years?

Release Little Boy From Apron Strings

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

Dear Mrs. Lawrence:

Last fall our three-year-old boy couldn't adjust to nursery school and we removed him. Now that he's a year older my husband wants him to try it again.

But the child will run to me or begin to cry if the subject is mentioned. I feel that it's wrong to force him to go. Don't you agree that he needs more time?

ANSWER: Yes. He certainly sounds as though he needed more time—but more time with his father instead of with you; more time out in the yard or down in the cellar with him, more time driving downtown in the car without you, more time to develop admiration of his father's ease in the world beyond your apron strings and a resulting eagerness to adventure into it himself.

"The process of being loosened from mother's apron strings has to begin much earlier than is commonly supposed," Dr. Eduardo Krapf of the World Health Organization recently told a seminar on the problems of children and their first day of school.

"The mother has to have the wisdom to make it possible for the child to obtain early a positive relationship with his father.

"The father is a representative of the outside world. The process of being integrated into school is made much easier if the father is a psychological reality to the child."

The trouble is that we mothers sometimes take a secret pride in our youngster's attachment to us. To retain it we will find secret ways of sabotaging his experiences with his father's ease in the outside world.

We'll say no, it's time for lunch if our husband wants to drive him downtown on an errand to the hardware store. We'll tell him not to "bother" daddy when he's come home tired from the office or is cleaning the garage.

Without knowing what compels us, we'll find all kinds of ways to suggest that daddy has little to offer in comparison with us so that daddy's son can develop little admiration of his father's command of the world beyond our apron strings and comes to regard it as a dangerous and exhausting place.

Under these circumstances leaving us to go to school can be a pretty threatening idea.

* * *

Yes, instead of trying to release your little boy to nursery school this term, it might be a good alternative to try to release him to closer acquaintance with his father.

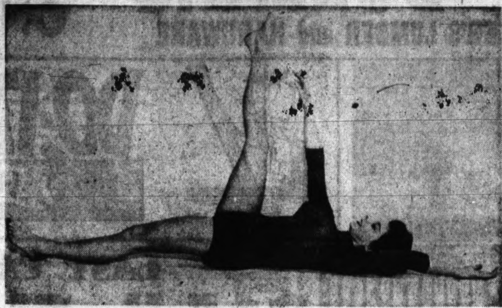
Lowman's Quiz Box

Should I Bleach My Hair?



To lose weight you have to count calories, although exercise will be helpful. Josephine Lowman's short routine of exercises is available free. Send a stamped self-addressed envelope with your request to Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Q. "I am 12 years old and have ash blonde hair. In the summer my hair bleaches very light. This lasts until the end of September or October but no longer. Is there anything I can do to keep my hair as light as it is after summer—anything harmless?"

A. Ash blonde hair is lovely and you are lucky to have it. Evidently you like it better after the sun has made it lighter. You would be very foolish to begin using rinses at your age. I would think that a little variety would be fun—a bit lighter in the summer and, actually, your ash blonde hair probably is prettier with winter clothes.

Q. "I am a 29-year-old housewife. I have an olive complexion and in the last year or two I have noticed flat brown spots on my face. When I say flat I mean that when I run my finger over them I can feel them, but they appear to be flat. My mother has these, too. I have been told that they are hereditary, but also indicate lack of vitamins. Is there anything I can do about them?"

A. So far as I know, no one knows what causes brown spots, except that certain types of skin respond to direct sunlight with these. They probably can be removed. I suggest that you see a skin specialist, and you can cover them with make-up. There are special products just for such a condition.

Q. "I have quite a lot of hair on my bust. Is this natural and can anything be done about it?"

A. Many women have this. It can be safely removed. See a skin specialist about it.

Q. "Where can I get a complete set of exercises to lose weight. I am much overweight."

A. You will have to count calories, too, although exercise will be most helpful. I will be glad to send you, or any of my readers, my short routine of exercise planned especially for women. It is corrective to the most usual figure faults.

If you would like to have it, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 19 to Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

Campus Newsletter

By SHARON WARREN

The University of Michigan survived its "Roman rampage" (homecoming weekend).

* * *

Last Friday's events were culminated with a pep rally on the Diagonal (the center of campus), featuring the marching band, various vocal groups, a trampoline demonstration and a tremendous amount of pep from both the audience and performers.

Sue Koprince was there loudly cheering for a Michigan victory. She is a freshman from West Iroquois Road.

It wasn't her fault that Michigan lost the game to Minnesota Saturday.

GUEST FEELS LOSS

Even Jane Arnold, a junior, of Starr Avenue, felt the Wolverines' loss.

This was the first and probably last time Jane will root for the Blue, for she is a premedical student at Michigan State University.

Jane was the weekend guest of Sharon Warren of Snellbrook Road.

Sandra Hilderly of Joy Road is getting into the swim of things as a member of Michifish, a synchronized swimming group on campus which will shortly present Aristophane's "The Frogs."

Sandra is a freshman majoring in education.

Marilyn Vernon of West Rundell street is continuing her musical career at the university. She is a member of the Choral Union, the Bach Choir and the university choir.

Marilyn is a choral education major.

Because she has to have a knowledge of the fundamentals of playing a representative group of instruments, Marilyn is now taking cornet lessons.

She is also studying voice.

LEAD IN 'KING AND I'

Many will remember Marilyn's performance in the leading role of Anna in Pontiac Central and Pontiac Northern's combined presentation of "The King and I."

Kiki Sekles is publicity chairman of the Women's Physical Education Club.

Kiki says this and her schoolwork are all she needs for a full schedule.

Kiki is a sophomore from Ottawa Drive.

Rick Serwin of Oneida Road says he has to be content with studying, especially for his science courses, at present.

Rick has always been active in the sciences, as was witnessed in his high school days at the science fairs and at the university last year.

Study Cost Saving in Romeo Schools

ROMEO — The Romeo Board of Education last night continued its study of a proposed building program, considering revisions that would reduce the cost from $662,200 to $610,000.

The latest plans, which would afford a savings of $52,200, were based on a decision to add rooms onto existing elementary schools rather than building a new grade school.

A preliminary report from the architectural firm of Eberle M. Smith Associates Inc. of Detroit to the board Oct. 10 offered plans for 27 rooms to be added in the district.

They included a new elementary school containing five classrooms, plus a special education room, offices, boiler room and storage space.

Also planned initially were the addition of a multipurpose room and two classrooms plus a special education room to the Washington Grade School and conversion of certain space at the North School in Romeo to offices and faculty rooms.

Seven classrooms, a special education room and auxiliary space were to be added to the senior high school and a like number of classrooms, special education room, new boiler and boiler room to the junior high in the early program.

Summarizing the buildings would have cost $571,200, equipment, $42,000; new site, $15,000; and fees, $34,000; making the total, $662,200.

This figure does not include the special education rooms for which the cost totaling $66,500 in this case would be shared by the county.

Last night the architects' revised program which eliminated the new elementary school, substituting five additional classrooms to existing schools, was discussed at length.

Under this plan four classrooms would be added to the Washington School and three to the South School in Romeo. The special education room which would have been added at the new school was eliminated.

This adjustment would raise the estimated cost of the Washington School improvements from $152,500 to $193,000; not including the special education room which would remain the same.

The board expressed its prime objective is to offer equal educational advantages in each elementary school.

Board mmbers also want a program that they can "sell" in all parts of the district. The planning is being geared to handle school building needs through 1964, they aid.

Subsequent meetings are planned with the architects before the board makes any decision about the size of the bond issue and millage to be asked for the building program.

William E. Strong Not Guilty in Arson

ARMADA — A Macomb County Circuit Court jury found a 29-year-old Armada man not guilty yesterday in the Sept. 16 arson of a home on Romeo Plank Road.

After deliberating 4½ hours, the jury returned its verdict, freeing William E. Strong of 76471 Capac Road. The two-day trial was heard by Judge Howard R. Carroll.

State police had charged that Strong set a fire which leveled the home at 76474 Romeo Plank Road, owned by Mrs. Shirley Lilly of Warren.

Officials Review Con-Con Aims

More Than 90 Gather to Discuss Proposal at Plymouth Meeting

More than 90 elected officials from Oakland and Wayne counties met last night in Plymouth to discuss mutual aims and review the constitutional convention proposal appearing on Tuesday's ballot.

The event was the annual Congressional District meeting of the Michigan Township Association.

Representatives of the 14th, 16th and 18th districts were on hand at the meeting held at the Arbor Lill restaurant.

The meeting was designed to bring together those who make laws and those who must carry them out.

All elected officials in Independence and Avon Townships turned out in full force, according to Floyd Cairns, Farmington Township clerk, and association director for Oakland County.

★ ★ ★

Bloomfield Township Arno Hulet welcomed the guests from Oakland County.

Joseph Parisi, executive director of the Michigan Townships Association, reviewed the association's opposing stand to the Constitutial Convention proposal.

The school financing proposal appearing on Tuesday's ballot, and backed by the association, also was discussed.

New election laws were explained by the representative of the State Election Commission.

INVOKES THE SPIRITS — Mrs. Margaret A. Kaiser (center) who portrays a spiritualist in the Romeo Players' forthcoming production of "Blithe Spirit" conducts a seance during a rehearsal. Taking part are Gary Ginther and Mrs. Andrew Downey. The popular three-act comedy by Noel Coward will be presented Nov. 11 and 12 at Romeo Junior High School. Curtain time is 8:15 p. m. both nights.

Decisions Loom in Milford, White Lake, Troy, Utica

Voters in four neighboring communities—White Lake Township, Milford, Troy and Utica—will cast ballots on local issues in addition to electing candidates to national, state and county posts in Tuesday's presidential election.

Following is the lineup of proposals to be on the ballots in each of these municipalities.

MILFORD

Some Milford voters will cast ballots twice Tuesday.

Along with the general election, but conducted separately, will be a special election using paper ballots on a proposed $142,000 bond issue for capital improvements.

The bond issue will be decided only by village property owners.

The bond issue, if approved, would finance paving of approximately 4½ miles of streets, construction of curbs and gutters and three storm sewers.

Approval of the 15-year general obligation bonds would mean no increase in taxes to property owners, village officials have emphasized.

However, if approved, the bond issue, only a portion of the improvement program cost, would need the assistance of assessment districts to finance about $105,000 more.

Another $23,000 in the village treasury would be paid out for a total of some $270,000 in major improvements.

Assessments would be levied against property owners on new curbs and one-eighth of the paving cost. Assessments would be spread over a five-year period.

Storm sewers would be constructed in the south end and the northeast section of the village and would be financed entirely by the bond issue.

WHITE LAKE TOWNSHIP

White Lake Township will vote on two local propositions. Both are aimed at providing funds for operation of the police and fire departments.

The first proposition seeks voter approval to go over the 15-mill county limitation.

The other proposition, which goes hand-in-hand with the first, seeks a one-mill increase in taxes for each $1,000 of assessed valuation.

Approximately $10,000 annually could be realized for police and fire department operation if the propositions are approved.

Originally the request for police and fire aid was to appear on the August primary ballot.

However, officials learned too late that it was necessary to ask voters for permission to go over the 15-mill limitation, and the one-mill tax hike proposal was postponed.

The propositions are to run for a five-year period.

Approval to place the fund request on the ballot was given by residents at the annual township meeting in April.

TROY

Almost forgotten in the midst of national and state election campaigns is a city charter amendment concerning tax refunds which will be on the ballot here Tuesday.

If approved, the proposal would provide for refunding all surplus tax assessments in cash to the property owner who was overcharged.

Under the present system, all overpayments on tax assessments are held in escrow by the city and applied to future taxes on the property, according to City Clerk J. Lawson Lockhart.

If the owner of a piece of property is overtaxed, he may miss out in the refund if he sells it before the time comes for the following year's tax to be paid.

UTICA

Because of the number of local issues, voters here will be supplied with paper ballots, according to City Clerk Edward Havel.

Five charter amendment proposals, four of them requests to increase salaries of city officials, are being put before Utica voters.

Voters are being asked to double the mayor's salary from $500 to $1,000 a year and to boost city councilmen's salaries from $10 to $20 per council meeting.

The City Council also wants to be given authority to set salaries for the city treasurer and city assessor rather than being bound to certain figures by Utica's charter.

Under the present charter, the treasurer receives 1½ per cent of collected taxes as his pay while the assessor is given an annual salary of $500.

The fifth proposal asks voter approval of a change in dates of the city's fiscal year, which presently starts Jan. 1 and ends Dec. 31.

If the change is approved, the fiscal year would begin July 1 and end the following June 30.

1959 Census Reveals Total, Average Figures in Rural Roundup

The 1959 census of agriculture, conducted in Oakland County last fall, counted 1,370 farms, according to a preliminary report just issued by the Bureau of the Census, U.S. Department of Commerce.

Total land in farms was 165,110 acres. The average size was 120.5 acres. The average value of farms (land and buildings) in the county was $46,257.

The average age of farm operators in the county was 52.2 years. There were 250 farm operators 65 or more years of age last year.

Of the 1,370 farms in the county, 657 were commercial farms.

Detailed statistics on crops, livestock, etc., are presented in the preliminary report, with comparable statistics for 1954.

Copies of the county report may be obtained for 10 cents from the Bureau of the Census, Washington 25, D.C.

'Blithe Spirit' Revival Planned in Romeo

ROMEO — The Romeo Players will repeat one of their early successes Nov. 11 and 12 when they present Noel Coward's "Blithe Spirit" for a second time on the stage of Romeo Junior High School.

Shortly after the local dramatic group was organized in the late 1940s, the perennial Noel Coward favorite was chosen as a vehicle that would please young and old alike.

Since that time it has remained one of the comedies the Players has kept on file for reviving at a future date.

Now that time has come.

Two longtime Players members involved in the first production are associated with it again this year.

They are Robert G. McGuire, who produced the early version and is now the director; and Mrs. Margaret A. Kaiser, starring for the second time in one of the leading roles.

Other members of the cast include Mrs. Andrew Downey, Mr. and Mrs. J. Gerald McLean, Gary Ginther, Mrs. James Crary and Phoebe McGuire, 15-year-old daughter of the director.

In charge of set construction is Louis Wolf. His wife is production manager. Heading the costume and makeup committee are Mrs. Frederick F. Schanck and Mrs. McGuire.

Mrs. Thomas H. Williams, Mrs. Robert Pawlak and Mrs. Omer Walters are working on properties. Ticket chairmen are Mrs. Philip M. Stone and Mrs. Wolf with Mrs. Ray Dembowski responsible for the programs.

Omer Walters heads the lighting crew.

Curtain time for both performances is 8:15 p.m.

Walled Lake Senior High School students also gave the Nixon-Lodge team the nod for the top offices.

The Republicans garnered 652 votes against the Kennedy-Johnson ticket of 526.

Samaritans Come to Aid of Woman

ORION TOWNSHIP — Charitable citizens have come to the aid of Mrs. Leslie A. Raymond, the victim of a vicious Halloween prank according to Oakland County sheriff's deputies.

Mrs. Raymond's husband is seriously ill in a Detroit hospital. She has a heart condition herself and the couple was living on $111 a month Social Security payments.

On Halloween night, pranksters cut gas supply lines to a furnace in the Raymond home at 3972 Mill Lake Road and threw sugar into the gasoline tank of her car, ruining the engine.

The sheriff's office said it had received numerous calls, offering money and transportation so Mrs. Raymond could see her husband in the hospital.

A neighbor was working on the car engine. The Oakland County Welfare Department said it would pay for gasoline.

WIXOM — A fire in a one-story brick home last night caused $4,000 damage, Commerce Township Fire Chief Clarence Kuttkuhn estimated today.

★ ★ ★

The alarm was turned in by Wixom police on patrol.

The fire chief said that damage included $3,000 to the house and $1,000 to contents.

No one was at home when the fire broke out shortly after 8 p.m., Kuttkuhn said.

Kennedy Gains Newspaper Help

Senator Shows More Editorial Support Than Any Dem Since '44

NEW YORK (AP) — A big majority of the nation's newspapers are for Vice President Richard M. Nixon, but Sen. John F. Kennedy is getting more editorial support than any Democrat since 1944, Editor and Publisher Magazine said Thursday.

The Trade Journal said 731 English language dailies are supporting Nixon editorially, while 208 are for Kennedy. Nixon's 731 papers represent 70.9 per cent of the total circulation, while Kennedy's represent 15.8 per cent, the magazine added.

In 1956, 740 papers endorsed Dwight D. Eisenhower and 189 backed Adlai E. Stevenson.

The peak in support came in 1952 when 67 per cent of the papers, representing 80 per cent of the total circulation, backed Eisenhower, the magazine continued. The poll was started in 1932.

* * *

Kennedy is backed by 16.3 per cent of the papers polled by the magazine, as compared to 57.3 per cent for Nixon. That 16.3 figure is the largest for a Democrat since 22 per cent backed Franklin D. Roosevelt in 1944.

The 57.3 per cent of the papers now backing Nixon is the smallest number for a Republican since 1932 when 55.5 per cent backed Herbert Hoover. Roosevelt was backed by 38.7 per cent that year.

Editor and Publisher said it polled 1,755 English language papers in this nation and got returns from 1,275.

Besides the 731 for Nixon and 208 for Kennedy, 336 were either independent or undecided.

You can stop next year's crabgrass before it starts!

Crabgrass grows anew from seed each year. The seeds from this past summer's crabgrass are already in your lawn. Unless you prevent it, they will sprout next spring when the weather turns warm, and crabgrass will get a stranglehold on your lawn again.

The way to keep them from coming up is to apply Halts®. This amazing winter crabgrass control becomes an invisible "barrier" on the soil's surface. It lies in wait, and destroys the crabgrass plants as they sprout next spring (does not harm good grass!). You apply Halts easily and accurately with the Scotts Spreader. It gives you the complete, even coverage you need for effective control.

Federal Watchdogs to Eye Polls

DETROIT (UPI)—The U.S. attorney's office in Detroit will be fully staffed next Tuesday to handle any complaints of election violations.

* * *

U.S. Atty. George E. Woods said the office will remain open on orders of William P. Rogers, U.S. attorney general.

Woods said his office and the FBI will investigate only alleged violations of federal election laws. Any violation of state election law will be forwarded to state authorities.

* * *

Rogers instructed district U.S. attorneys to watch for intimidation of voters, buying of votes, conspiracy to falsify votes through forging of votes, impersonation of voters, stuffing ballot boxes, rigging of voting machines, fraudulent absentee ballots and falsification of returns.

Lodge Sees Smears Over Israel Work

NEW YORK (AP) — Henry Cabot Lodge charges some Democrats with a "last-minute smear" in picturing him as anti-Israel and pro-Arab during the Suez Canal crisis while he was ambassador to the United Nations.

"I think it is rather strange," he said Thursday, "that today, when we are just four days from election, some individuals should choose to put out a smear sheet undertaking to say I am against Israel when you consider the work I did with Israel in the United Nations."

College Testing Is Slated at MSUO on Saturday

A college entrance test required or recommended by more than 500 out-of-state colleges and universities will be given Pontiac area high school seniors at Michigan State University Oakland tomorrow.

The American College Testing examination will be given at the MSUO testing center, room 156, North Foundation Hall.

* * *

There are 23 states which have ACT-affiliated college testing programs and in which substantial numbers of colleges require or recommend the ACT test for their applicants.

Participating colleges use the test results in student guidance and admissions and in the awarding of scholarship aid to their applicants.

They are also used to place freshmen in classes or programs suited to their ability.

* * *

The four-hour test has scores indicating levels of capability in English, mathematics, social studies, and natural sciences, as well as over-all college potential.

* * *

This is the first time the test has been given in Michigan. MSUO is one of 13 test centers in the state.

* * *

Last year more than 125,000 students took the test nationally. This year it is expected that more than 200,000 will be tested.

Integration Battle Pending in Louisiana

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — The Louisiana Legislature meets today prepared for a new fight against school integration three months after federal courts warned Gov. Jimmie H. Davis against interference.

* * *

The governor and segregation leaders kept super secret exactly what the 12-day session would do.

Administration sources voiced some concern over reports demonstrators might show up for peaceful protests against any move to close public schools.

Legislators, who confessed frankly they don't know what it's all about, said they didn't believe any attempt would be made to shut down the schools.

New Orleans public schools are under federal court orders to integrate their first grades Nov. 14.

Turkey Blood Pressure Among Highest Known

EAST LANSING (AP) — Michigan State University agricultural experts say they have discovered the normal blood pressure of turkeys is one of the highest known.

* * *

The finding came through basic poultry research at MSU and Rutgers University.

"This finding has as yet no direct application," said T. H. Coleman, associate professor of poultry science at state.

* * *

However, he said there may be direct practical applications later.

8 Mill Union Men Off to Prison for Plotting

HENDERSON, N.C. (AP)—Textile union leader Boyd Payton and seven companions went to prison Thursday after saying farewell to their families and a cluster of local cotton mill strikers.

The eight were convicted and sentenced to prison terms for plotting to cripple operations at Harriet-Henderson Cotton Mills in the midst of a violent strike last year. They maintain they were innocent.

Payton, Carolinas director of the Textile Workers Union of America, was sentenced to 6 to 10 years.

Strikers crowded into the courthouse and sang the union song, "Solidarity Forever."

★ ★ ★

Earlier, the eight defendants and the TWUA national president, William Pollock, and other top union officials held a news conference. Asked if the union would continue to pay the salaries of Payton and Lawrence Gore and Charles Auslander, Pollock said this would be decided at an executive council meeting Nov. 14 in New York.

★ ★ ★

"As long as this union has any money," Pollock commented, "we're going to see that the families of all these men are not going to go hungry."

★ ★ ★

Gore and Auslander, minor union officials, also received prison terms of 6 to 10 years.

Others sentenced were Warren Walker, Johnnie Martin, Edward Abbott and Calvin Pegram, 5 to 7 years; Malcolm Jarrell, 2 to 3 years.

The violence occurred after the mills reopened. The strike has not been settled.

Pollock and union attorney William M. Nicholson of Charlotte said they would pursue all legal avenues available in an attempt to free the men. They indicated they may request executive clemency from a new governor.

Gov. Luther H. Hodges, who twice rejected appeals for clemency, leaves offices in January.

The men will be eligible for parole consideration after serving one-fourth of their minimum terms.

Many primitive peoples practice asceticism as a means of acquiring supernatural power. They abstain from food, drink, or sleep, or inflict pain upon themselves through winter bathing, whipping or blood letting.

Dick Says He'd Ask Liberal Immigration

NEW YORK (AP)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon said Thursday that if elected president he would recommend to Congress in January the liberalization of immigration laws. In special cases, he urged, certain persons should be admitted without quotas.

★ ★ ★

Nixon's statement was contained in a telegram to Gov. Christopher Del Sesto of Rhode Island, a Republican.

The latter had sent a telegram to Nixon requesting him to "explain in detail your plans" to liberalize immigration laws as Nixon recently outlined in a statement.

Portland cement was first made in the United States in 1870.

McALESTER, Okla. (AP) — Scout leader George Clewlow suffered a sprained ankle while playing checkers at camp. His foot was elevated and went to "sleep." When he banged it on the floor to restore circulation, he twisted his ankle.

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS ABOUT

BUILT-IN ELECTRIC HEAT

Electric heat is an advanced and superior concept of home comfort.

Here are some of the questions we've been asked about it.

WHAT DOES IT LOOK LIKE?

The four most widely used types are illustrated below. Because electric heat is built in, there is little interference with living space.

Baseboard units come in any length.

Radiant panels go in or on walls.

Heating cable is buried in ceiling plaster.

Forced air units can go in walls or partitions.

IS IT SAFE?

It's as safe and troublefree as electric light. Electric heat devices work very much like your toaster does. However, most of them operate at relatively low temperatures—without glowing wires, but they are still highly efficient.

HOW EFFICIENT?

The heat produced by electric systems is usable heat; practically none of it is wasted within the heating equipment itself. Electric heat is just about as close to 100 percent efficiency as it's humanly possible to get.

IS IT EXPENSIVE TO INSTALL?

In general, the original cost of an electric heating system is less than that of any other type of quality equipment. Actual installed cost will vary according to type of heating unit used, home size, method of home construction and additional insulation requirements.

IS IT BEST FOR A NEW HOME OR WHEN MODERNIZING?

A good time to install electric heat is when building a new home. But it's also very economical to install it when home alterations or additions are being made. Whether you're building, buying or remodeling, electric heat is entirely practical.

CAN I PUT IT IN JUST ONE ROOM?

Yes, and economically, too, as just indicated. Typical examples: when you're adding a new room, finishing an upstairs, closing in a porch or breezeway. Electric heat is especially valuable when the new living space is a long way from the central heating system, or when the central system is already working to capacity. Another good time to use electric heat is when you have a hard-to-heat area.

CAN I PUT IT IN THE WHOLE HOUSE?

Yes, you can switch the whole house over to electric heat. In this case, additional insulation will be required, plus storm sash and storm doors all around.

For greatest heating economy and summer comfort, regardless of type of heating system, good insulation pays off. Industry-established standards for this area for insulation thickness is not less than 6" overhead; 3½" in outside walls; 2" alongside and partially under concrete floor slabs. Floors above basements also need insulation.

WHAT DOES IT COST TO USE ELECTRIC HEAT?

Various factors, including family living habits, affect operating cost, so a hard-and-fast answer is impossible. A rough rule of thumb is 2½-2¾¢ per square foot of heated space, annually. But there's little need to guess. An electric heating contractor can calculate actual first cost and operating cost quickly and accurately.

Electric heat will cost more. But the cost will probably not be as high as one would imagine. Like any quality product, you pay more for electric heat but you get more benefits!

In June 1959, Detroit Edison added a new, lower step to the residential electric rate. Now, kilowatt-hours of electricity over 750 per month cost 2¢ each, gross, instead of 2¼¢—an 11 percent reduction.

DOES IT NEED MUCH SERVICING?

No. There are no moving parts in the electric heating systems discussed here except in the forced air units where fans or blowers are used. Fans are not high velocity, so they are long lasting also. An added advantage of electric heat, depending upon the type, is its completely silent, or very quiet, operation.

WHAT MAKES ELECTRIC HEAT BETTER?

FLEXIBILITY—Each room has its own thermostat. So each remains at the temperature you choose without affecting other areas. Temperatures can be raised or lowered in any room without overheating or chilling the rest of the house. Just a touch on the proper thermostat does it.

SPEED—When a thermostat is adjusted to call for more heat, the response is fast! In the systems described here, the heat source is right in each unit—only inches away instead of many feet.

EVEN HEAT—There will be very little temperature difference between floor and ceiling. And, wherever possible, electric heat (except ceiling cable, of course) is installed in outside walls. Then there is a curtain of warm air between the cool wall and window surfaces and room occupants. This fends off chilling drafts.

CLEANLINESS—Nothing is burned to make smoke, soot or fumes. Air currents will carry only whatever dust may have been introduced by other means. Nor are large quantities of outside, potentially dusty air drawn into the house to support combustion. Result: walls, draperies, furniture and floor coverings stay clean longer.

ARE THERE OTHER TYPES OF ELECTRIC HEAT?

Yes, the flexibility of electric heat makes it applicable to many basic systems. For example, there are electric warm air and wet heat systems.

WHERE CAN I SEE ELECTRIC HEAT?

And a feature of every Gold Medallion Home is its electric heating system. Watch for announcements of Gold Medallion Home openings.

WHERE CAN I GET MORE INFORMATION?

There's free literature at your Edison office, or mail the coupon below. Another source, especially for a cost estimate, is the electric heating contractor who displays this emblem.

The contractor who displays the emblem has had special training which enables him to estimate your heating needs accurately. He has also pledged himself to meet industry standards of installation.

HAZARDS OF THE JOB — Kansas Gov. George Docking wore a black eye on Tenth Street in Topeka, Kan., Wednesday but it caused only mental anguish — no pain. The shiner was sprayed on a large campaign billboard of Docking sometime Tuesday night. Most pedestrians had to grin when they walked past it — even Democrats supporting the governor's bid for a third term in next week's election.

Straits Bridge Traffic Up but Revenue Dips

ST. IGNACE (UPI)—October traffic was up but revenues were down on the Mackinac Bridge in comparison with October 1959.

Bridge Authority Chairman Prentiss M. Brown said there was a substantial increase in the number of cars crossing the bridge but truck combination traffic was down 14.4 per cent, so that the total increase in traffic amounted only to 1.8 per cent.

Because of the drop in truck traffic which pays higher tolls, bridge revenues for October were down 6.3 per cent from October 1959.

Traffic over the bridge in October totaled 87,660 units and revenue was $341,748.

* * *

The increase in traffic was the first since May, and revenues have been down for the last five months in comparison with the same months last year.

They Thought I Was Kidding, Says Prize-Winning Physicist

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — "When I first told people of my idea, they thought I was kidding," Donald A. Glaser says.

* * *

But today the young physicist at the University of California is the 1960 winner of the Nobel physics prize, one of the most respected—and lucrative—awards for scientific achievement in the world.

Glaser, 34, is a bespectacled bachelor. He loves music and sports. At 17 he played the viola with the Cleveland (Ohio) Philharmonic. He skis and swims, plays squash and tennis, and climbs mountains.

Of medium build, just under 6 feet tall and with wavy brown hair, Glaser chuckled and said: "Marriage? I have no immediate plans. I guess it's time for me to find a good woman and marry her."

OF GREAT IMPORTANCE

Glaser's prize-winning invention was a "bubble chamber," a device that many physicists now rank with the atom smasher for its importance in learning of nature's deepest mysteries.

"I am overjoyed," he said, "but I haven't been officially notified of my selection yet. It's a magnificent honor and I'm very grateful."

Glaser's parents are dead. He has a sister, Mrs. M. F. Newman, who lives in a suburb of Chicago.

* * *

He has no special plans yet as to what he'll do with the $43,627 prize. "There'll be some parties, and I plan to go to Stockholm to accept the prize but generally I have no plans for spending it," he said.

Glaser decided to be a physicist when he was 17 and a freshman at Case Institute of Technology in Cleveland.

"I wanted to be a scientist," he said, "and I first thought I'd be an engineer. But six weeks of that was enough to decide that physics was my goal."

COACHED DEBATE

He was a debater at Case and coached the team during his senior year. "The regular coach got drafted," Glaser recalled.

He first got the idea for his bubble chamber when he was 25 and teaching at the University of Michigan.

"For the first couple of years, there was no money for it from the U.S. government. The project was entirely supported by the university," he said.

* * *

"In fact, when I first told other physicists of the idea, they thought I was kidding.

"The American Physical Society held a convention in Washington one year and I read a paper on my bubble chamber idea.

"They listened to it but after I was done, several remarked that it was a cute idea but was I really serious?"

TAUGHT AT U. of M.

Glaser became a physics instructor at the University of Michigan when he was 23 and began his search for a medium in which a disturbance of minute high-energy particles would create a visible effect.

* * *

Six years later, he announced the invention of the bubble chamber with which the paths of speeding atomic particles could be observed by photographing the trails left by tiny bubbles as they passed through superheated liquids.

When placed in beams of atomic "bullets," which are produced by powerful atom smashers, Glaser's bubble chamber enables nuclear physicists to study interactions between the "bullets" and atoms of the liquid on a routine basis.

* * *

The bubble chamber has made possible the mass production of simple photographs showing what happens in these otherwise invisible collisions. From these photographs, physicists can study and deduce the composition of the nucleus of the atom and the mysterious forces which hold the atom together.

AP Photofax

NOBEL WINNER, INVENTION — It's called a "bubble bath chamber." This device, however, isn't put to the use its name might imply. But the invention won a Nobel Prize in physics for Dr. Donald A. Glaser, 34, of the University of California. The chamber is used to photograph atomic particles.

Report 4,000 Dead in Pakistan Disaster

DECCA, Pakistan (UPI — At least 4,000 persons died last Monday in the cyclone and resultant tidal wave which struck a 100-mile long coastal area, a high East Pakistan official said Thursday.

The port town of Chittagong was one of the worst hit places as were the offshore islands which took the brunt of the Oct. 10 cyclone and tidal wave.

* * *

Rescue helicopter pilot Jean Gallier of France said many coastal areas were flattened and the ground strewn with bodies of people and animals.

About five miles of the coastal railway tracks north of Chittagong were "rolled up like spaghetti," Gallier said.

Firm's 50th Anniversary

GRAND HAVEN (UPI — Bastian-Blessing Co., a leader in the manufacture of soda fountain and food service bar equipment, celebrates its 50th anniversary in Grand Haven with its first open house Saturday. The firm moved in 1910 from Indiana. It now employs 398 persons.

In sipping soda through a straw, sucked from the straw, surface a person takes advantage of pressure forces the liquid up into atmospheric pressure. As air is the hollow stem.

He's Far From Being a Monster

50 Years as an Actor That's Karloff's Record

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Arriving at his 50th year as an actor, Boris Karloff has this to say:

"It's amazing! Imagine me, at my age—73—still active in my profession and commuting 12,000 miles to work! I must be the luckiest man in the world."

That's Karloff, one of Hollywood's nicest paradoxes. The archtype of horror ever since he played the tall-browed monster in "Frankenstein," he has remained the gentlest of gentlemen. I caught him in a reflective mood out at Universal Studios.

* * *

His reflection was not due to his golden anniversary as an actor, which he mentioned only casually. He reminisced because he was working on the Phantom Stage, so named because "Phantom of the Opera" was filmed on it.

"I worked on this stage many a time," he recalled. "Most of the 'Frankensteins' were shot on State 12, but some of the scenes were done on the Phantom Stage. This lot holds many memories for me."

HE LIKES THE TYPE

I wondered if all the memories were pleasant ones. After all, he was and is a polished performer, yet the general public sees him in the image of the hulking, brainless monster.

"Me worry about type casting?" he asked, "Good heavens, no! The monster was the best friend I ever had. I only played him three times, so I wasn't stuck with him.

"Certainly I was typed. But what is typing? It is a trade mark, a means by which the public recognizes you. Actors work all their lives to achieve that. Companies spend millions of dollars to establish trade marks. I got mine with just one picture. It was a blessing."

* * *

The Karloff trade mark made him the logical candidate to host the new NBC series, "Thriller." To perform his duties, he engages in a rigorous schedule for any person, much less a 73-year-old. He lives in London, works in Hollywood.

"It's not as bad as it seems," he explained. "I spend about six weeks at home, then I come here for two weeks of work."

* * *

After living 50 years in the New World, Karloff has returned to live in his native land.

"I think every person feels the urge to return to his homeland after he has been away a number of years."

Karloff left England in 1909, eager for an acting career instead of the family tradition in civil service. He started in amateur theatricals in western Canada, came to Hollywood in 1919 —"But my presence here was a well-kept secret until 1931."

That was the year of "frankenstein" and the making of him.

Losing Licenses at a Record Pace

LANSING (UPI) — Documents which eventually lead to loss of license for unsafe drivers have been flowing into the secretary of state's office at a record rate this year.

★ ★ ★

Secretary of State James M. Hare said court abstracts and conviction records received by the driver license unit was 15 per cent ahead of 1959.

★ ★ ★

Hare said a total of 880,545 abstracts and records have been received in the first 10 months of 1960, compared with 768,373 in the similar period a year earlier.

According to ancient Roman law, 10 witnesses had to be present during the nuptial ceremony. Otherwise the marriage wasn't legal.

Kaiser Kennels Afford Rich Life for Poodles

By EARL WILSON

HONOLULU — Our schnauzer, Sam Spade, would bark all night from jealousy if he suspected how the wife and I have been fraternizing with the millionaire dogs.

WILSON

Mrs. Henry J. Kaiser permitted us to visit her poodle palace.

We're still stunned. We met and petted something like 38 standard-size French poodles ("poodlecrats" to me who are constantly barbered and bathed by a trainer and a couple of kennel boys as part of Mrs. Kaiser's determined drive to improve the breed.

Thirty-eight dogs is a lot of dogs, or are a lot of dogs, whichever it is. Fourteen of the big beautiful white animals eyed us sleepily from their individual kennels when we came in around dinner time—but they went a little daffy with delight when they saw Mrs. Kaiser, who's so serious in her campaign that she's been going to the University of Hawaii again studying genetics.

★ ★ ★

When we stepped inside the huge kennels, the wife said, "We're in Henry Kaiser's dog house — and isn't it wonderful?"

THE KAISERS

Actually, it's Mrs. Kaiser's—"Aly," he calls her; short for Alyce. She's tall, slim, attractive; the kennels are adjoining the $1,000,000 two-bedroom Kaiser home. Going to the dogs at the Kaisers is not unpleasant at all.

"Hello, darlings," is the pleasant way Mrs. Kaiser greeted them.

Well, I liked that.

Mrs. Kaiser said to me, "Would you like to see the puppyhouse?" We went into maternity ward. Mrs. Kaiser had quite a talk with a dog called "Mama" which had four small pups.

I left feeling that Sam Spade wouldn't object to us mingling with such non-snobbish dogs. Rich, but well-behaved.

The trainer told me there's a tenth-of-a-mile track around the kennels for the dogs to work out on.

"But we gave up using it," he said. "It was a little too much on the dogs," he said. "And it was a lot too much on the kennel boys."

Austrian Cabinet Quits, but Is Reinstated

VIENNA (AP) — The Austrian coalition Cabinet of conservatives and Socialists formally resigned Thursday and was immediately reinstated by President Adolf Schaerf. The government, headed by conservative Julius Raab, 69, offered its resignation in October in a budget dispute, but remained in office for a compromise solution to the problem.

East and West Close In on Dag

Assembly Prepares to Note Charge of Belgian Meddling in Congo

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —Storm clouds closed in on Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold from east and west today as the General Assembly prepared to take up charges by his chief Congo aide that Belgians are prodding the African state to the brink of disaster.

★ ★ ★

The sharply worded report by the Indian chief of the U.N. Congo mission, Rajeshwar Dayal, accused Belgian nationals of persuading Col. Joseph Mobutu's military regime to hamstring 'all normal political activity in the Congo and to foment lawlessness.

Dayal charged that Belgian nations are trying to dominate Mobutu's commissioners and seeking to "exclude or obstruct" U.N. technical assistance and influence.

Both Belgium and the Soviet Union are expected to assail the secretary general when the report comes up for debate in the assembly Monday.

Belgian delegate Walter Loridan declined to comment on Dayal's report but indicated his government would have plenty to say when the issue hits the assembly floor. Loridan said Belgian Foreign Minister Pierre Wigny probably would fly here to speak.

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian Zorin said he had not studied the report fully. But sources close to the Soviets said he would demand to know why Hammarskjold had not done something about conditions in the Congo if they are as bad as Dayal's report indicates.

Zorin was reported to feel, however, that the sharp tone of the report showed the United Nations was moving in the direction the Soviets want it to go. The Soviet delegate had charged that Belgian officers were infiltrating back into the former colony and engaging in subversive activities.

★ ★ ★

Dayal's report put the United States in a ticklish position since the chief targets were Belgium, a NATO ally, and Mobutu, an anti-Communist Washington had hopefully looked to as an alternative to Soviet-supported Patrice Lumumba, the Congo premier deposed by Mobutu.

Top officials in Washington considered the denunciations of Belgium and Mobutu too sweeping and unnecessarily harsh.

Joseph Pulitzer, the newspaper published who established the Pulitzer Prizes, came to the United States from his native Hungary at the age of 17.

Guatemalan Ambassador Asks Ike for Loan Action

WASHINGTON (AP) — Guatemalan Ambassador Carlos Alejos Thursday carried to President Eisenhower a plea for immediate action on his country's requests for $22 million in loans. He told newsmen afterward that Guatemala has a desperate economic situation that is becoming critical especially "with the continued threat of invasion by Castro" of Cuba.

Heifer is the modern spelling of two Anglo-Saxon words, heah-fear meaning "high ox." It probably got that name because a heifer seems to stand high on her legs compared to a grown cow.

Lawyers Grow Weary

Remarks Worn Threadbare

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Remarks a lawyer gets tired of hearing:

"All I know is that if I go to jail, you don't get paid."

"I hear he studied law by watching Perry Mason on television."

"He specializes in accident cases. Any time he gets a case it's bound to be an accident."

"Okay, Blackstone, wake up. Court's in session."

"His real ambition is to run for the bench. But so far cooler heads have prevailed."

BOYLE

"Only one call came while you were out, Mr. Wimperley. It was from the landlord. He says if he doesn't get the office rent by Monday he's going to hire a lawyer—and it won't be you."

"I didn't exactly say he was old-fashioned. All I said was he still chased ambulances on foot."

"We're getting up a testimonial dinner for Judge Smith. The tickets are $25 each. How many do you want?"

"It's true he brags he never lost a client to the electric chair. On the other hand, none of his clients were ever charged with anything but petty larceny."

"He had a big month last year. He had a $10 case—and two little ones."

"I hear the last time he went to the courthouse to try to fix a traffic ticket he got arrested himself for double parking."

"I don't know what a quid pro nunc is—but it sounds just like what he looks like."

"Well, if he's a criminal lawyer, now I understand why crime never pays."

"There's a package on your desk, Mr. Wimperley, from the brother of your last client—the one in Sing Sing. I'd be careful how I opened it."

"Yes, I agree his last address to the jury was a masterpiece. It was even more of a masterpiece when Daniel Webster first delivered it."

"After the last will he handled was probated, the widow went to the poorhouse—and he and his wife went to Florida

"The chairman of the bar association's grievance committee called. He asked if you'd please hurry up your reply to the last complaint against you—as there are three more pending."

"The last time he handled a big case, he broke two of the bottles."

"I know Abe Lincoln said, 'A lawyer's time and advice are his stock in trade'—but he ain't Lincoln."

"He almost got that last pick-pocket off—until the judge missed his watch."

"Your wife just phoned, Mr. Wimperley. She said an ambulance just passed your house headed south."

2. 18 games for average required. If bowler has no final '59-'60 average, he must present highest 18 game average of current season.
3. Anyone falsifying average will be disqualified with forfeiture of prizes and entry fees.
4. Tournament manager reserves right to reject any and all entries.
5. Tournament in strict adherence with ABC rules.
6. Final qualifiers will pay for additional 3 games in finals.
7. No substitute entries.
8. No post entries after each qualifying deadline. Bowler failing to qualify first week can try again.
9. Bowler eligible for only one monetary prize.
10. Qualifying times and places to be published in The Press.

Entries can now be turned in for the 4th annual Pontiac Press Bowlerama which will start one month from today, December 4th at the first of three qualifying houses.

Bigger and better prizes, larger guarantees and there are more chances to win for the men bowlers this year.

Because of the elimination of the women's division of the tournament, the guaranteed top five prizes has been raised to total $1125. Besides this, one of every seven entries is assured of a prize.

Last year 600 men entered the tournament with three top guaranteed prizes totaling $300, and 75 bowlers walked off with portion of the purse plus trophy awards.

★ ★ ★

Every qualifier is asured of getting a prize and the Bowlerama champion is guaranteed $500. On top of this he is certain of getting a percentage of the purse which has happened in the last three years.

There is no change in entry fees which stands at $6. Runnerup is assured of at least $250, with $150 for third, $125 for fourth and $100 for fifth.

The breakdown of the purse will continue down the line with every qualifier getting a share.

★ ★ ★

Bowlers have the choice of their qualifying date and house. The innovation this year is for the advantage for those who fail to qualify the first week, giving them an opportunity to try again.

First qualifying day is December 4th at Howe's Lanes, newly modernized alleys on Dixie Highway.

★ ★ ★

On the following Sunday, December 11th, qualifying will take place at Sylvan Lanes and Montcalm Centre. Bowlers can make their choice of sites, however, once all squads are filled up to a given time, the remaining qualifiers will have to fill the open times at the other qualifying site.

This should encourage bowlers to get their entries in early with their choices. First entries will be given preference of time and site.

The finals this year will be held at Lakewood Lanes, Sunday December 18th.

★ ★ ★

The tournament is open to all residents of Oakland County or bowlers residing outside the county who are members of bona fide leagues at bowling establishments inside the county.

As for example there are many bowlers residing in Romeo, Utica, Lapeer, and other communities outside Oakland County but are members of bowling leagues in Pontiac, Rochester and other county areas.

Bowlers must present their final league average of the 1959-60 season. If they do not have such an average it must be for the highest 18 games of the current season.

★ ★ ★

Bowlers should specify this on their entry, otherwise any falsification of averages will result in disqualification and forfeiture of prizes.

The deadline for each qualifying date is the Wednesday midnight prior to that date. For the December 4th date the deadline would be Wednesday, November 30th.

Averages should not trouble bowlers. In the past three tournaments bowlers with averages as low as 108 have been among the winners.

★ ★ ★

Another feature of the tournament will be the 2nd annual Bowlerama Pontiac City Actuals Invitational tournament.

This is run in conjunction with the Bowlerama, whereas the top actual bowlers are invited to compete for the Bowlerama City prizes going to the winner and runnerup.

Last year, Joe Myers, a 15-year old St. Michael High sophomore took the Bowlerama championship and Bob Gormong was the Actuals Champion with a 651.

The entry blank appearing on the sports page of The Press can be used. Entries must be mailed or left at respective bowling establishments with entry fees, or they can be delivered to the Press sports department. Make all checks payable to The Pontiac Press.

Top-Rated Wolves Clip PCH, 34-13

By BILL CORNWELL

BAY CITY — "Fumbles lost" and "passes intercepted by," two small lines of type in the final statistics, go a long way toward telling the story of Pontiac Central's loss here Thursday night.

A hard-hitting, well-coached Bay City Central football team alertly pounced on three PCH fumbles, intercepted one pass and converted all four breaks into touchdowns for a convincing 34-13 Saginaw Valley Conference victory over the Chiefs at Bay City Stadium before 6,500 fans.

The Wolves made only one sustained drive of their own, but capitalized on every PCH miscue to win without undue pressure as they posted their 4th league triumph of the 1960 season.

★ ★ ★

It was the 8th successive win of the year for the unbeaten-untied Wolves, who cemented their claim as Michigan's No. 1 Class A team, and set the stage for a Saginaw Valley title showdown with Flint Northern a week from tonight at Flint's Atwood Stadium.

Actually, the Chiefs were not as bad a football team as the final score would indicate. The statistics were quite even and the Chiefs outgained Bay City on the ground.

However, like most of their previous games this fall, the Chiefs were a good team for only one half and you have to play at peak efficiency for two halves in a circuit as tough as the Valley.

The Chiefs outplayed the Wolves in the 2nd half, but that 1st half of poor, sputtering football put them under a staggering 27-0 deficit and it was all over but the shouting at intermission.

★ ★ ★

Bay City's margin soared to 34-0 in the 3rd quarter, but the Chiefs never quit trying and earned the Wolfpack's complete respect by scoring twice in the 4th period when the cause was lost.

Pat Kinney, Lonnie Berry, Gary Gwizdala and Bob Linton hit pay dirt for Bay City with Kinney scoring the first two TDs of the game. Tom Burton converted from placement after every TD except the second.

Pontiac Central's touchdowns were tallied by Dick McCauley, his 10th of the year, and George Fed. Larry Brennen booted the Chiefs' lone extra point following their 2nd TD.

The Wolves marched to a touchdown the first time they got their hands on the ball and it was the only sustained scoring push they made.

★ ★ ★

PCH was forced to punt following the opening kickoff. The Wolves took McCauley's kick and drove 52 yards in 10 plays with Kinney going into the end zone from the 5-yard line.

Then the succession of breaks began and the Wolves seized every opportunity.

On the last play of the 1st stanza, McCauley fumbled when hit while returning a Bay City punt and Linton recovered for the Wolves on the PCH 9-yard stripe.

The Wolves wasted no time capitalizing on that one. On the 2nd play of the 2nd period Kinney plowed seven yards for a touchdown.

★ ★ ★

Pontiac bounced back and started its first sustained march of the evening. The Chiefs advanced to the Bay City 19 where they had a 2nd-and-9 situation.

Larry Brennen's southpaw pass into the left flat was deflected into the waiting arms of Berry, a defensive halfback who stood all alone on the Bay City 5. Berry galloped 95 yards untouched down the sidelines with the interception for a TD and Pontiac's back was broken.

With two minutes remaining in the 2nd quarter, another PCH fumble was recovered by Bay City's Fritz Bublitz on the Chiefs' 35. The Wolves took to the air and scored on the very last play with quarterback Bob Crampton hitting Gwizdala for the tally. He caught the ball on the 20 and scored unmolested.

★ ★ ★

PCH finally broke into the scoring column after three minutes of the 4th quarter. Roy Couser's 38-yard jaunt to the Bay City 2 set up the counter and McCauley slashed his way across the goal line on the next play. Brennen's boot for the 7th point was blocked by Wright.

The Chiefs capitalized on a Bay City fumble to post their 2nd touchdown. McCauley pounced on the pigskin on the Bay City 35, then the Chiefs went skyward to collect the marker.

Brennen's aerial to Elick Shorter gained 18 yards, then Bob Pomeroy passed to Fed who scored standing up for a TD play spanning 17 yards with only 22 seconds to go. Brennen kicked the 13th point.

Bill Pritchett, 235-pound tackle, and gutty Tony Rubio sparked an excellent PCH defensive effort in the 2nd half and the Chiefs stopped a Bay City scoring bid in the 4th period by holding for downs on the 6.

The defeat was Pontiac's 2nd of the season against three wins and two ties. The Chiefs' Valley record now stands 1-2-1.

BIG STEAL — Bay City Central halfback Lonnie Berry (3) takes off for a 95-yard touchdown run down the sidelines against Pontiac Central after intercepting Larry Brennen's pass in Thursday night's Saginaw Valley Conference football game at Bay City. The pass was intended for Elick Shorter (82). Berry's big steal gave the Wolves a commanding 20-0 lead and they went on to defeat the Chiefs, 34-13.

Fired-up Wings Win, 8-5

Tongue-Lashing by Jack Adams Sparks Rally

Six Goals in Final Period Features Pair by Ullman

DETROIT (AP) — The old fashioned pep talk, or between-periods tongue lashing, still gets results—at least whein Jack Adams is doing the talking.

The Detroit general manager blistered the Red Wings Thursday night in what one of the veteran players called "a real give-us-hell speech."

The bellowing and shouting came between the second and third periods when the Wings were trailing the Boston Bruins 5-2.

★ ★ ★

The Wings roared back with six goals in the third period—only two short of their own National Hockey League record for one period—and dumped the Bruins 8-5. The eight-goal output was Detroit's biggest scoring splurge since Christmas night 1956. The Wings had not scored that much against Boston since January 1944.

★ ★ ★

Adams generally sits in the training room, behind the Wings' dressing room, between periods. But Thursday night he strode up and down the locker room, yelling at the players and saying they were "stinking up the joint."

He said people were leaving Olympia Stadium because of the Wings' poor showing.

★ ★ ★

"It's a downright disgrace," Adams told the players.

Some of the 8,737 spectators did leave after two periods. Many of them had been booing the Wings, who spent the first two periods missing simple passes, passing it to Boston players and falling to the ice.

★ ★ ★

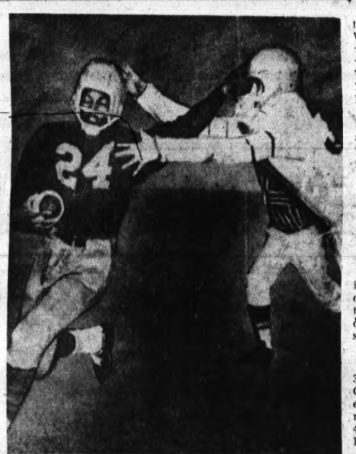
But those who stayed saw a fantastic explosion. Parker MacDonald started it at 2:21 of the final period. Norm Ullman followed with his 99th NHL goal after a three-on-two rush, and Allan Johnson tied it at the 7:32 mark with his first big league goal.

★ ★ ★

Ullman hit the century mark just 44 seconds later when Alex Delvecchio's shot bounced off Ullman's leg and past goalie Don Simmons. Jerry Melnyk and Gary Aldcorn got easy goals inside the 14-minute mark against the deflated Bostonians.

Two goals by Jim Bartlett and other scores by ex-Red Wing Charlie Burns, rookie Gerry Quellette and Don McKenney built up Boston's 5-2 lead. Warren Godfrey and Melnyk were the early Detroit scorers.

The loss makes it eight straight games for Boston on the road without a victory—and the triumph elevated the Wings into a third place tie with the Toronto Maple Leafs.



CHIEF GAIN — Pontiac Central halfback Dick McCauley (24) picks up three yards against Bay City Central in the 1st quarter of last night's Saginaw Valley Conference game at Bay City. Coming up to make the tackle is Bay City's Ken Wright (37). The Wolves whipped the Chiefs, 34-13, to preserve their unbeaten record.

BOWLING Fault Finder

THINK OUT SHOT
By Ray Bluth

When something goes wrong with my game, I try to concentrate harder.

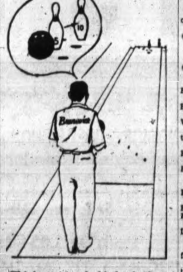
Don't get me wrong. It's not just when your game is off that you have to bear down. That holds true any time, even when you're on a real good streak as I was when I won the 1959 American Bowling Congress Masters title.

★ ★ ★

During the heat of competition, it's easy to be distracted by an opponent. I try extra hard at times like those to think through every movement I make so I can stay in stride.

★ ★ ★

Think out each type of shot with a kind of mental rehearsal of how to make it.



Think out each kind of shot.

Lions Remember Last Time

Brodie Must Play Entire Game

PALO ALTO, Calif. (AP)—John Brodie won't get a chance to be a last minute flash this time. Brodie is going to have to go all the way against the Detroit Lions this Sunday, and the Lions will be waiting for him.

The last time the San Francisco 49ers and the Lions met was Oct. 9 and Y. A. Tittle did most of the pitching for the 49ers.

Tittle was unable to get the 49ers offense rolling in nearly 55 minutes of quarterbacking and for a time it looked as if the Lions might win.

But with six minutes remaining, Brodie was sent in as quarterback. He pitched 13 passes and connected on eight of them. Two resulted in touchdowns in the last three minutes.

The clincher came when Brodie connected with a pass to R. C. Owens who went 18 yards with 9 seconds left.

★ ★ ★

Detroit protested the 49er victory on grounds that films showed San Francisco had an ineligible receiver downfield but the protest disallowed by NFL commissioner Pete Rozelle.

Tittle won't be in this Sunday's game. He's sidelined with injuries and coach Red Hickey has tabbed Brodie to start.

There will be plenty of pressure applied to the former Stanford ace by the lions, who seek revenge.

The big game in the Western conference is the first-place meeting at Baltimore where the defending champion Colts 4-2 attempt to overtake the Green Bay Packers 4-1. The Colts are 8-point favorites to knock off the Packers, who upset them 35-21 at Green Bay Oct. 9. The Chicago Bears 3-2-1 are idle.

Elsewhere, in the full six-game card, the St. Louis Cardinals 3-3 are home favorites by a TD over the Washington Redskins 1-3-2 and the Los Angeles Rams 1-4-1 get the nod by 11 over the Cowboys 0-6 at Dallas.

AP Photofax

BOSTON SAVE — Boston Bruin goalie Don Simmons and teammate Gerry Duelette converge on the puck as center Len Lunde (20) of the Red Wings moves across the goal mouth in a scoring attempt. The Wings won, 8-5, after letting the Bruins take a 5-2 lead.

Rackham State Leader in 'Golf Day' Players

For the second year in a row, Rackham Golf Club in Royal Oak has finished second in receipts for National Golf Day.

Largest single return was turned in by Edgewater Golf Club of Chicago which had a total of $1,200.

Rackham which had 1,607 players — the most at any course in the country for the one day — contributed one dollar for each of these players.

Much of the Edgewater total was the club's contribution, and not from players alone.

Chet Jawor is the pro at Rackham.

Third was Tam O'Shanter in Chicago with $916; 4th was Oak Park CC in Ill., with $700 and 5th was Thunderbird in Palm Springs, Calif., with $419.

Michigan finished second in total money behind Illinois with $7,891. However, Michigan was first in total number of participants with 7,641 while Illinois was second with 5,568.

Behind Rackham in participants in Michigan was Detroit Golf Club with 347 players and Glen Oaks in Farmington with 294 players. Stan Jawor, Chet's brother is pro here.

A total of 78,173 golfers competed last June 11th in National Golf Day with 3,501 men "defeating" Billy Casper, 1959 USGA champ, who shot a 67 at Firestone CC in Akron.

Kansas City Sale in Probate Court

CHICAGO (AP) — Rival bidding groups from Kansas City and St. Louis appear at a hearing in Probate Court today on the proposed stock sale of the Kansas City American League baseball club.

If the 52 per cent of the stock, owned by the widow of the former owner, Arnold M. Johnson, is sold, probate judge Robert J. Dunne must weigh the rival offers and decide which is the better.

Earl Smith, a member of the Kansas City faction, said his group had offered 3½ million dollars for the club and that he understood the St. Louis interests had bid about the same.

The former Mrs. Johnson, now the wife of Warren W. Humes of New York, is co-executor of the stock, along with the City National Bank of Chicago, which is seeking to sell it.

Mrs. Humes told Judge Dunne Thursday that she did not wish to sell. Her attorney, Milton Cooper of New York, filed a petition challenging the right of Judge Dunne to issue an order for the sale.

Judge Dunne will hear arguments on the question today and said he probably would announce his decision Monday.

Rain-Delayed Golf Tourney Tries Today

CORONADO, Calif. (AP)—A field of 160 golfers try again today to complete first-round play in the once-postponed $21,000 Coronado pro-am tournament.

★ ★ ★

The opening round in the 72-hole event, richest pro-am tourney on the PGA fall tour, was washed out by rain Thursday.

None of the 80 pros and a like number of amateur were able to finish their rounds when the rains came. George Bayer, South Pasadena, Calif., was three under par for 12 holes when he had to quit.

Billy Casper, Apple Valley, Calif., was even par for nine holes, and Bob Duden, Portland, Ore., had a nine-hole score of 35, one under par.

PNH Has Slim Hope for .500 Season Mark

Skippers in Afternoon Game; Southfield Plays at Home

Carrying a very slim hope of finishing at .500 for the season, Pontiac Northern entertains a rugged Rochester eleven tonight at 8 at Wisner Stadium.

★ ★ ★

The Huskie coaches are hoping their charges can bounce back from a sound trouncing at Southfield last week and finish strong. How well and how long quarterback Bruce Norton can play may provide the answer. He suffered a pulled muscle in the last game.

His passing and the running of Dave Moczarski are the chief PNH hopes against the much bigger Falcons. It will be the final game before the 1st meeting with Pontiac Central Nov. 18.

Rochester, a 3rd place finisher in the Tri-County League, showed its earlier form in walloping L'Anse Creuse last time out. The defense stopped running star Earl Peeples cold all the way.

★ ★ ★

Coach Gene Konley expects his team to be in top shape for this one. Its record is now 5-2.

His attack features bruising fullback Dan Lickert, Bob Morris and Dan Bird.

Northern has won two, lost four and tied one. PNH won out 26-20 in the local battle last season.

★ ★ ★

The return of head coach Ed Heikkinen to the sidelines should be a big boost to the Huskies. He is recovering from a back operation and will sit with the team.

★ ★ ★

Waterford returned to action this afternoon as guest of powerful Dearborn Fordson. Berkley is at Roseville, Farmington at Belleville and Southfield hosts Bentley tonight. Dave Rankin of the Jays will be out to better a new school rushing record of 221 yards set against Northern.

Michigan Needs New Victory Formula in 'Family Plan' Game Saturday

Spartans Playing More 'Cousins'

EAST LANSING (AP) — Michigan State left for Purdue today and a battle of two bitter also-rans in the Big Ten football race.

Michigan State hopes it still has "cousins" in Indiana — baseball slang for a team you usually beat.

The Spartans manhandled Indiana, Purdue and Notre Dame last year. They been twice to Indiana this season to blank Notre Dame 21-0 and Indiana 35-0.

Purdue has only one Big Ten win, but it was an impressive one over Ohio State. Michigan State has two Big Ten losses, to Iowa and Ohio State and is down in the pack. The Spartans also beat traditional rival Michigan. Purdue conference losses were to Wisconsin, Iowa and Illinois.

But the Boilermakers are noted for their upsets of the Spartans and this will be "Dad's Day" at Lafayette.

Besides the dads in the stands, big threat on the field will be Willie Jones, the explosive fullback who rates fourth in the Big Ten in yards gained rushing.

★ ★ ★

The MSU squad was due to leave before noon in three chartered planes.

Left guard was the sensitive position for the Spartans. Oscar Hahn, defensive guard, had to be left behind because of an ankle injury. George Azar, the offensive guard, was still bothered by an elbow strain but made the trip.

Reserves are being moved up to fill out the line.

Utility back Bob Stewart, who has been running at right half, was carried as a quarterback. Stewart, a junior from Muskegon, is being groomed as a possible replacement for senior signal-caller Tommy Wilson next year.

3 Ex-Wayne Cage Stars Here With Harlem Five

One of the most outstanding basketball teams ever assembled in Michigan was the Wayne State quinetet of the early 50's. On that team were such players as Charlie Primas, Johnny Kline, and Ernie Wagner.

All three of these ex-Tartars are assembled again, this time with Goose Tatum's Harlem Stars who will appear at Pontiac Central Saturday night against the Pontiac All-Stars.

The game, sponsored by the Pontiac Mail-Carriers Association, will feature such tricksters as Tatum, Sweetwater Clifton, Boide Buie, Tiny Brown, King Solomon and Willie Scarbrough.

Buie, who hails from Los Angeles, Calif., is the only one-armed player in pro basketball ranks.

Clifton is a former star with the Globetrotters. He was also with the New York Knicks for six years, and played with the Detroit Pistons in 1957-58 season.

Tatum needs no introduction. He is regarded as the "Clown Prince' of basketball after a long ear with the Globetrotters with whom he made famous his hookshot and comedy routines.

The game will start at 8:15 p.m. Saturday night and tickets in advance are on sale at Triple XXX, Griffs, Osmuns and "300" Lounge.

They will also be available at the box office windows. Some of the city cagers who will play in the game are Bob McManus, Dave Diehm, Dick Ayling, Al Barkley, Roger Nosek, Rod Treais, Bill Hayward, Dave Sebring and John Keller.

Deer Harvest Set at 115,000

Prediction Is Same as 1959 Figures; Permits Are Mailed

LANSING (AP)—A harvest of close to 115,000 deer is predicted for this fall by the state conservation department.

★ ★ ★

This was the figure of last year's kill, the second highest on record.

The buck kill is expected to hit 68,000 the same as last year. The "any deer" take should drop to 44,500, due to a cut in special permits, game experts said.

Some 92,700 special permits were mailed out this week to hunters allowed to take deer of any age or sex in 35 areas where there have been bonase shortages or crop damage.

About 465,000 hunters are expected to take the field for the regular Nov. 15-30 season and the special Dec. 1-6 season in part of Allegan County.

Enforcement patrols will be about doubled this year, the department said.

Jones Gets TV Rating

BOSTON (AP) — Old pro Tiger Jones, who's been on TV almost as much as Hopalong, is in his familiar role as an underdog for Saturday night's bout with Marcel Pigou.

They're scheduled for a 10-round national (ABC-TV) television bout, Tiger's 42nd video appearance. The show will be blacked locally.

Boston bookies have made the 32-year-old New York trial horse a 9-5 underdog to Parisian Pigou for their middleweight clash.

New Fishing Licenses

LANSING (AP)—The conservation department says fishermen who didn't get a license this summer, but plan to get into the swing for the winter ice-fishing season, can do it on their 1961 license. The department mails 1.5 million licenses to 4,200 dealers about mid-November. The licenses will be valid from Dec. 1, 1960 to Dec. 31, 1961.

BRONZE PIG BATTLE — "Floyd" the bronze pig which Iowa and Minnesota football teams have been fighting over since 1935 will not be the big prize Saturday. Big Ten and national honors are at stake. Iowa is favored. Captain Jerry Mauren and tackle Charles Lee (left to right) hold the prized possession.

Illini Favored in Battle of Elliott Boys

Another Big Forward Wall Poses Problem for Wolverines

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Michigan, needing a new formula for victory after two straight defeats, faces Illinois here Saturday in a game of "football on the family plan."

Nationwide interest is accorded this game between two big ten also-rans because the Elliott brothers, Bump and Pete, are facing each other for the first time as opposing head coaches.

Pete's Illini, coming on strong in their last two games after a poor start, are almost unanimous favorites over Bump's Wolverines in the 46th meeting of the two teams.

A crowd of 60,000 and an NCAA regional television audience will witness the historic clash of brother-coaches, first in Big Ten history.

★ ★ ★

Illinois, with a line averaging well over 220 pounds, poses the same problem — superior weight — that Michigan has been unable to solve in its last two outings.

"It seems like they get bigger by the week," said Bump. At times a team with speed can compensate for a big weight disadvantage but we haven't done it the last two weeks and I don't know if we can do it on Saturday."

Bump fears a repitition of the Minnesota and Wisconsin games as he reviews the Illinois three-deep lineup, with such people as Ed O'Bradovich, 235-pound left end, tackle Joe Rutgens, 241-pound All-America candidate, and right end Ernie McMillan, 246.

★ ★ ★

They are among the biggest and best of the line that looks out for the welfare of the Big Ten's smallest quarterback, 158-pound John Easterbrook.

Both teams will be at near full-strength, Illinois' second string fullback, Bill Brown, is out with an injury but his brother, Jim will carry the load.

Michigan officials said end Bob Johnson, guard Dick Syring and fullbacks Ken Turead and Bill Tunnicliff are not in the best physical shape but are not expected to miss the action.

DEFENSIVE CHANGES—Michigan defensive line coach Bob Holloway discusses plans to make some changes on defense for the battle with Illinois Saturday. Captain Gerry Smith, a center, and ends Bob Johnson and Scott Maentz discuss the changes with Holloway. The game will feature the battle between Bump Elliott and brother Pete, respective coaches.

'I'm Not Coming Back!' Claims Van Brocklin

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Quarterback Norm Van Brocklin of the Philadelphia Eagles has repeated his intentions to retire after the 1960 season, once again reviving talk he will succeed the retiring Buck Shaw as head coach next year.

★ ★ ★

Prior to Thursday's workout in preparation for the Pittsburgh Steelers game here Sunday, Van Brocklin told a reporter:

★ ★ ★

"This is it. No matter where we finish I'm not coming back, I've made up my mind this is my last season. Naturally, I'd like to finish on top. You know I wanted to retire two years ago but was talked into coming here. I've decided this is it."

When the 34-year-old passing great signed his 1960 contract last April he had told a reporter that after the season the Eagles "will have to get another boy."

★ ★ ★

Officials had hoped that a good season, which Van Brocklin has had thus far in leading the Eagles to a 4-1 record and tie for first in the Eastern Conference of the National Football League, might change his mind.

Meet Marquette Aiming for 6th Straight

Titans in Home Finale Tonight

DETROIT (UPI)—The scrappy University of Detroit gridders, determined to become the first Titan team since 1928 to win six in a row, close the home portion of their season tonight against arch-rival Marquette.

The 1960 Titans have already created quite a stir by racking up five straight victories, marking the first time a Detroit team has turned that trick since 1940.

Following an opening loss to Iowa State, coach Jim Miller's spirited charges have rolled past Xavier, Cincinnati, Boston College, Dayton and Quantico Marines.

Marquette, tougher than its 3-4 record would indicate, promises to present one of Detroit's stiffest challenges of the season. But a victory over the Warriors would virtually assure Detroit of entering the final game of the season against Michigan State with a 7-1 record. Villanova, which has won only one of seven, is the interim opponent.

★ ★ ★

The Titan success story this season has been centered around two superlative quarterbacks.

Veteran Bob Lusky carried the load during the first half of the season and was, at times, almost a one-man offense. And when Lusky was tagged with a knee injury in the Boston College game, which forced him out of action for the season, hopes of continued success seemed dim.

But sophomore Jerry Gross, a talented youngster from Bay City Central, took up where Lusky left off and has been the big man for the Titans in the past two outings. He hit his stride last week against Quantico when he completed 15 of 22 passes for 294 yards and picked up 45 more rushing.

★ ★ ★

Marquette's defeats came at the hands of major powers, Wisconsin, Indiana, Vanderbuilt and Holy Cross.

The Warriors also have a sophomore quarterback with great promise, Terry Zang, a 6-0 and 190 pounder from Kankee, Ill.

A 185 pound junior quarterback Bill Johnson is his understudy, with Don Jennings a Chicago halfback the leading ball carrier.

It will be the final home game for 11 seniors, including starting halfbacks Jim Post and Ted Karpowicz and captain guard Tony Asher.

Plan New Arena for New York

25,000-Seat Building May Replace Present Garden in '64

NEW YORK (AP) — Madison Square Garden, the scene of many great boxing bouts, important professional and college basketball games and numerous Stanley Cup ice hockey playoffs, is on its way out as New York's leading indoor sports arena.

Plans for a new, $38 million, ultra-modern, 25,000-seat sports arena were announced Thursday. Admiral John J. Bergen, chairman, and Irving Felt, president of Graham-Paige Corp., which owns the Garden said the new center probably would be ready by 1964.

★ ★ ★

Although he did not announce what would become of the present Garden after 1964, Ned Irish, the Garden president, said, "Our present facilities are outmoded. The need for a new Garden has long been with us and it is imperative if we are to continue a successful operation."

The new arena would be oval in shape, with 80 per cent of the seats along the sidelines in contrast to the present Garden, which seats about 17,000 but with the bulk of the spectators in the end zones.

★ ★ ★

Site of the center has not been determined. Three areas in or near midtown New York City are under consideration. The New York Sports and Entertainment Center Inc. has been organized as a subsidiary of Graham-Paige to proceed with the project.

The Los Angeles Chargers take on the New York Titans and the Oakland Raiders meet the Boston Patriots Friday night in opening games of the American Football League's four-game week-end program.

The Chargers can take over undisputed possession of first place in the Western Division by getting past the Titans. Los Angeles is tied for first place with the Denver Broncos, who play Sunday.

The Chargers rolled up a 45-16 victory over Boston last week. New York dropped a 28-27 decision to Oakland.

★ ★ ★

Al Dorow the Titan quarterback who had his ribs bruised by Houston two weeks ago, is back in top shape. However, Dick Jamieson, Dorow's understudy, is out with a shoulder separation.

Brown Being Challenged by Green Bay's Taylor

NEW YORK (AP)—Jim Taylor of the Green Bay Packers has rushed up to challenge Cleveland's Jimmy Brown for the ground gaining lead in the National Football League, latest official averages showed today.

Taylor gained 103 yards in Green Bay's 19-13 victory over the Pittsburgh Steelers Sunday, boosting his total to 484. Brown has 492 yards. John Crow of St. Louis is third with 440, followed by J.D. Smith of San Francisco, 375.

★ ★ ★

Milt Plum of Cleveland retained the top spot among the passers. He has 55 completions, good for 974 yards in 74 attempts, seven touchdown passes, a percentage of 74.3 and an average gain in yards of 13.16. Not one of his passes has been intercepted.

Johnny Unitas, Baltimore's aerial ace, moved up one notch to second place with 87 completed passes, 1,454 yards gained, 13 touchdown passes, a 50.6 average, an interception average of 5.2 and an average gain in yards of 8.45. Unitas is followed by Norm Van Brocklin of Philadelphia, Bobby Layne of Pittsburgh and Ralph Guglielmi of Washington.

★ ★ ★

Paul Hornung of the Packers, who lead the Western Conference, still is tops in scoring with 66 points. He added 13 points Sunday on four field goals and a conversion. Bobby Mitchell of Cleveland is second with 54 points. Then come Bobby Walston, Philadelphia, 51; Lenny Moore, Baltimore, 48, and Sam Baker, Cleveland, 39.

Ray Berry of Baltimore, seeking his second consecutive title as the leading pass receiver, has caught nine more passes than his closest rival Willard Dewveall of the Chicago Bears. Berry has hauled in 36 passes for 725 yards. Dewveall has 27 for 503 yards.

★ ★ ★

Van Brocklin, idle last Sunday, still is the top punter, with a 46.4 average, while Bill Butler of the Dallas Cowboys is the leader in punt returns, with a 14 yard average for eight. John Sample of Baltimore is No. 1 in kickoff returns, with a 40.3 average for seven.

Andy Nelson and Don Shinnick of the Colts are deadlocked for first in interceptions. Each has five.

Things 'Fine' for Aaron

NEW YORK (AP)—When Hank Aaron of Milwaukee gets through paying his fine for running out on a contract to barnstorm, he will have $527.75 left from his second-place share of the World Series spoils. Maury Wills and Charley Neal of Los Angeles will have $1.58 remaining from their fourth-place cut.

★ ★ ★

All three were fined by Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick Wednesday for failure toplay for a touring all-star team, Aaron, the Braves' slugging outfielder, was assessed $1,000 and the Dodger infielders were tagged for $500 apiece. Aaron and the other $27.75 for their Series cut. Los Angeles regulars got $301.58.

Lee Maye of the Braves, another offender, has complied with an order to join the National League all-stars for the balance of their tour. Maye had been playing for the Caguas team in the Puerto Rican Winter League.

Bill White of St. Louis, Al Smith of the Chicago White Sox, Wes Covington of Milwaukeeand Bennie Daniels of Pittsburgh, others who failed to appear as advertised, were cleared by the commissioner because of injuries.

"The fine is tough to take," said Aaron. "I've had a bad back for along while and just couldn't play. I turned in a medical report (to Frick) and that's all I could do."

The tour involves two Negro teams traveling in the South. The complaints were lodged by promoters in Durham, N.C., and Birmingham.

Can Minnesota Stop Iowa's Speedy Backs?

Big 10 Crown Could Be Won in This Game

National Honors Might Be Captured by Winner on Iowa's Field

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (UPI) — The national collegiate football championship might hinge tomorrow on a simple question: Can Minnesota stop Iowa's speedy halfbacks and rugged quarterback and their counter plays off tackle and wide sweeps?

The Hawkeyes, rated the nation's No. 1 team, will test the Gophers, rated No. 2, with these bread and butter plays which have carried Iowa to six straight victories.

If they succeed, then Minnesota, also with six consecutive victories, will be in trouble. If they fail, Iowa might have to rely upon passing and it might be enough to bring a victory home for Minnesota.

Neither the Hawkeye passing nor the Iowa pass defense has been as potent as its rushing, which so far has averaged 254.8 yards per game, sixth best in the nation.

In the air, the Hawkeyes have hit only 36 per cent of their tosses, most of them by signal caller Wilburn Hollis, and have gained only 43.7 yards per game. Five Iowa passes have been intercepted.

★ ★ ★

Minnesota, while its rushing defense is eighth best nationally, allowing its opponents to complete only 41 per cent of their throws and intercepting 10 passes.

It was certain that both teams would go into the combat with both offensive and defensive variations to try to break the game open.

"We alter these things for every game," Gopher coach Murray Warmath said, "so we'll do some things different. And if we were going to make any major changes, I wouldn't talk about them anyway."

Iowa coach Forest Evashevski always contrives his defense to stop the opponent's strength and force them "to beat you with what they like to do least."

★ ★ ★

"Minnesota is one of the toughest defensive teams in the nation," he said. "We must depend more on passing and must balance our attack. We are not strong enough to make our running game carry the whole load, but as our opponents gear to stop our running attack, that should open up the passing."

The winner of the Iowa-Minnesota game would have a good chance to wind up the season as national champion, but each faces tough foes in the remaining two games. Iowa plays Ohio State next week and closes with Notre Dame and Minnesota meets Purdue and Wisconsin.

A near record crowd of 64,600 was expected for the match and both tickets and hotel or motel rooms were hard to find. What few tickets were available were going at scalper's prices and most living accommodations within 20 miles of the city were taken.

Weather forecasters predicted possible rain during the game, but the field was covered and was expected to be in good condition at game time.

IOWA MYSTERY — No one knows what's going on behind closed gates at Iowa City where the Hawkeyes are drilling for the big game at Minnesota Saturday. Another mystery is that of the injury to guard Sherwyn Thorson. Thorson's ankle was injured and Iowa coaches say he will not play. The Gophers however product Thorson will be in the lineup when they meet.

More Honors for Brown; Archie Listed as Heavy

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP) — Lightweight champion Joe Brown was named boxer-of-the-month in the National Boxing Association's November ratings Thursday.

Brown set a record of lightweight title defenses—his ninth—when he defeated Cisco Andrade on Oct. 28. He also kayoed Batling Torres earlier in the month in a non-title affair.

★ ★ ★

Runners-up for this honor were Terry Downes of England, for outpointing Joey Giardello, Gulio Rinaldi of Italy, for his win over Archie Moore, and Jorge Fernandez, defeating Denny Moyer.

Moore, stripped of his light heavyweight title because of his failure to defend, was rated 10th in the heavyweights.

★ ★ ★

"Archie has been weighing well over the class limit of 175 pounds and in his defeat by Rinaldi weighed in at 190¼, failing to make the contracted 185 pounds to the pain of a $1,000 forfeit loss," said Tony Petronella, committee chairman. "It is our feeling that Moore cannot make the light heavyweight limit of 175 pounds and our view, in rating him in the heavies, is a realistic one."

Beliveau Gets 3 Quick Goals

Montreal Snaps Leafs' String at Five Games by 3-1 Score

MONTREAL (AP) — Big Jean Beliveau scored three goals in the first period to lead the Montreal Canadiens into first place in the National Hockey League with a 3-1 victory over the Toronto Maple Leafs Thursday night.

★ ★ ★

Beliveau got his first goal a minute and 11 seconds after the opening face-off, slamming one past goalie Johnny Bower after taking passes from Bernie (Boom Boom) Geoffrion and Junior Langlois.

With the Leafs' Bobby Baun in the penalty box at 10:55, Beliveau again beat Bower on passes from Henri Richard and Doug Harvey. Four minutes later, the Canadiens' center completed the hat trick assisted by Harvey and Geoffrion.

The goals were Beliveau's sixth, seventh and eighth of the season.

Rookie Bobby Nevin deprived Jacques Plante, Montreal's masked goalie, of a shutout. He scored with less than five minutes left to play.

The setback ended Toronto's unbeaten streak at five games.

Plante turned back 27 Toronto shots. Bower had 26 saves.

Hamey Latest 'Youth' Move by New York

NEW YORK (AP)—Roy Hamey, 58, succeeded George Weiss, 66, as general manager of the New York Yankees Thursday as the latest step of a youth movement that previously resulted in the firing of 70-year-old Manager Casey Stengel.

★ ★

Dan Topping, Yankee co-owner, said Hamey would work on a year-to-year basis at his own request. No terms were disclosed but Hamey was believed to have settled for somewhat less than Weiss' reported $100,000 salary.

Topping said Jack White, general manager at Richmond, would be with the Yanks in 1961 but did not outline his duties.

Jack Sees Less Woe With Russ

Says New Generation of Reds Is Key Factor; Calls for Strength

CHICAGO (AP)—Sen. John F. Kennedy said Thursday the new generation in Russia may find difficulties between the Soviet Union and the United States "less insurmountable than their elders."

"We cannot really know how grave these difficulties are," the Democratic presidential nominee said, "unless a strong, confident, well-poised United States approaches the Russians with concrete workable proposals in high seriousness.

"This is our first responsibility: To ourselves, our children, and to men and women everywhere."

Kennedy's observation was in reply to questions submitted to him and his Republican opponent, Vice President Richard M. Nixon, by the Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists, a magazine of science and public affairs.

★ ★ ★

Only Kennedy replied to the questions. His answers were published Thursday in the November Bulletin. Nixon responded with a policy statement entitled, "The Scientific Revolution," released by the Nixon-Lodge campaign headquarters Sept. 8, 1960.

The "new generation" response was part of a reply to the question, "Where do you believe that the difficulty in resolving the Soviet-American conflict lies?"

No Holds Barred in Big Fight

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — If you judged the presidential candidates by what they've said of each other, you might get the impression one was a crooked card shark and the other a juvenile delinquent.

The kid glove treatment has been reserved for President Eisenhower who is now up to his neck in the campaign himself, plugging for Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

His appearance in the campaign brings it back to where it began and has been pretty much all along—a kind of personality contest. Still, his intervention for Nixon, if judged by his previous efforts for Republican congressional candidates, won't change anything.

Nixon has said of his rival, Sen. John F. Kennedy, that he lies to the voters, is a "deadly risk," and is an "immature, rash, impulsive man" who is making "dangerous statements."

Nixon has even said of Kennedy's promised policies that he "could think of no carnival confidence man selling a worse quack medicine to an unsuspecting public."

Kennedy has said not only that "someone had better cut the cards" before Nixon deals but has represented the vice president as a baleful kind of individual whose political "career has often seemed to show charity toward none and malice toward all."

Nixon, to Kennedy, is the "trigger-happy" leader of a "wrecking crew."

The vice president, of course, is in no position to criticize the Eisenhower administration's record even if he should want to.

Kennedy, with no part in the administration and under no obligation to the President, has made ripping into the Eisenhower record one of his main occupations in this campaign.

But he has carefully avoided any direct assault on Eisenhower.

★ ★ ★

It's simple good politics for Kennedy to lay off Eisenhower—even though belittling his administration—since to be otherwise might cost him votes among admirers of the still highly popular President.

Kennedy himself, when asked why the reluctance about criticizing Eisenhower, said the basic question is one of the future and whether it should be entrusted to Kennedy or Nixon.

★ ★ ★

Eisenhower, once all his oratory is stripped away, is simply appealing to the voters to continue to trust his judgment to the extent of believing, when he says it, that Nixon would make a better president than Kennedy.

But Eisenhower, while phenomenally successful in getting himself elected twice, hasn't been so lucky in doing the same for his fellow Republicans.

Will Continue Hunt for Nepal's Snowman

KATMANDU, Nepal (AP)—A member of Sir Edmund Hillary's Mt. Everest expedition said Thursday a search for the so-called abominable snowman will continue although Hillary himself has now joined another phase of the expedition's activity.

Dr. Lawrence Swan said attempts to sight, catch or photograph the snowman will continue until spring.

Swan visited Katmandu after spending most of October with the yeti (snowman) expedition in the Rolwaling Valley of the Himalayas.

Hillary participated in the Rolwaling area search until late October when he departed for Thangboche Monastery, where other members of the expedition are carrying out research on the effects of high altitude on the human body.

★ ★ ★

Hillary's departure led to reports in the Napalese foreign office that the yeti search was ending, but Swan made clear it will continue throughout the expedition's nine-month stay in the Everest region.

LONDON (AP) — Pilot Francis G. Powers has been charged with espionage and Premier Nikita Khrushchev has promised "We shall try him—try him severely as a spy."

★ ★ ★

This was reported today by the Soviet news agency Tass.

The penalty for espionage in the Soviet Union ranges from 10 years in prison to execution by firing squad.

★ ★ ★

The latest developments were announced in Tass broadcasts from Moscow today in the wake of the news conference Khrushchev held Wednesday at the Moscow exhibit of espionage articles which the Soviets say Powers carried when he was downed May 1.

Part of Western correspondents' dispatches on the news conference had been held up in Moscow censorship. The Tass account of Khrushchev's remarks was carried from Moscow 20 hours after the news conference took place.

TASS VERSION:

The Tass version carried this exchange between correspondents and the Soviet premier:

Q. "Will this plane incident influence Soviet public opinion when Eisenhower comes to Moscow?

A. "I would not like to be in Eisenhower's place. I would not like to answer the question which might be put to him when he comes to the Soviet Union. I can only say the Soviet people and our public are very polite, so there will be no excesses. But questions will be asked of course. Animation, laughter.

"I would put it this way: 'One person, namely U.S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter, has helped the President particularly in this respect. At his [illegible] Herter made an [illegible] that this will continue in the future.

★ ★ ★

"Only countries which [illegible] of war can act in [illegible] We are not in a state of war with America. These aggressive actions of Herter's statement are impudent, sheer impudence!"

Tass answer from Khrushchev continued:

"Herter's statement has made us doubt the correctness of our earlier conclusions that the President, the American government, did not know about the flights. Herter's statement says that the plan was endorsed by the government.

"The Americans, obviously, were compelled to say this because otherwise they would have had to bring Allen W. Dulles (head of the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency) to account. Dulles, in turn, would have exposed the government by saying he carried out a plan approved by it, and, consequently, endorsed by the head of the government. I proceed from the statement that was made by Herter."

PET DOCTOR

By A. W. Moller, D.V.M.

By A. W. Moller, D.V.M.

Q. What can we do to put weight on our 3-year-old French poodle?—Libby Skinner, Cleveland.

A. The most common cause of pronounced underweight in dogs is worms, and if your poodle has been given a cleanbill of health in this respect, we can proceed to other possibilities. The very active dog will naturally be thinner than the lethargic pet.

★ ★ ★

Malfunctions of internal secreting glands that interfere with proper utilization of the food would cause your dog to be underweight. By this, I mean the presence of liverdisease, diabetes, etc., and this cause could only be determined by your veterinarian.

★ ★ ★

We all know a few lucky people who eat as much and as often as they like without gaining, and there are some lucky dogs too. Is less dangerous than overweight, but if your poodle is alarmingly thin I'd suggest he have a check up.

TV Film Called Hoax by GOP

Asks That Dem Plug, an Interview With Aged Couple, Be Canceled

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republicans have branded a Democratic television film "a cruel hoax" and demanded that future scheduled showings be canceled.

The Democratic reply: "The reason the Republicans are objecting so intensely to this particular commercial is because it dramatizes the need for a decent medical care for the aged bill."

★ ★ ★

Republican National Chairman Thruston B. Morton said Wednesday night the five-minute film on medical care for the aged, presenting an interview by Sen. John F. Kennedy with Mr. and Mrs. John McNamara of Newport, Ky., "has been exposed as a deliberate deception."

★ ★ ★

Morton made public an affidavit from Dr. L. Howard Schriver of the Ohio Blue Shield medical insurance plan. It attested that insurance covered all but $146.25 of McNamara's $619.60 total hospital and medical expense for an operation resulting from a fall from a ladder.

COVERS FACTS

Dr. Schriver said McNamara told him Kennedy, the Democratic presidential nominee, knew this prior to the interview and said: "We will not say anything about that now."

Morton quoted Kennedy as saying in the film that McNamara "incurred a debt of over $600 to pay his medical bills" and that "whatever savings they (the McNamaras) may have had would have to be spent to pay for his bills."

Morton sent a letter to Democratic National Chairman Henry M. Jackson, demanding cancellation of scheduled future showings of "this fraudulent film."

Motor Products Firm Shifts Name to Nautec

NEW YORK (AP) — Stockholders have approved changing the name of Motor Products Corp. of Detroit to Nautec Corp.

The change was made because the company is engaged in diversified business activities and services and no longer makes or sells automotive parts.

President Ray Nigro reported at the annual meeting Wednesday that the company earned $332,834, equal to 63 cents a share, on sales of $3,739,384 in the three months ended Sept. 30. This compares with earnings of $373,282, or 62 cents a share, on sales of $3,032,534 in the 1959 period.

Kennedy, Nixon, Johnson and Lodge Praise Role of Newspaper in Campaign

REPUBLICAN NATIONAL COMMITTEE

NIXON-LODGE
CAMPAIGN HEADQUARTERS

The American newspaper profession is performing a public service of the highest order with its READ AND VOTE campaign, and I heartily endorse it.

It is vital that the greatest possible number of Americans share in the momentous decision to be made on November 8. And it is equally important that this decision be made on an informed, thoughtful basis.

On November 8, Americans will pick leadership and policies for the 1960s -- the most challenging, most perilous, most promising decade in American history.

The men and policies selected will have the solemn task of guarding the national security while implementing a program to lead the Free World to victory over Communist imperialism.

The men and policies selected will affect directly the daily lives, the financial security, the fortunes of every American family.

Surely, these considerations deserve a reasoned, informed decision by each voter.

Surely, these considerations transcend party line and tradition.

I urge all newspaper readers to follow the campaign closely. Read what the candidates say and propose. Study the qualifications of each candidate -- whose experience and performance to date are a measure of the future.

Then, on November 8 you will be ready to cast with informed conviction a ballot based on what is best for America.

This is the central 1960 issue: Other considerations aside -- which man, which plan is best for America?

One of the best ways to reach such a conviction is through reading, and I commend the newspaper program to encourage this.

Richard Nixon

YOU can see by these statements from the Presidential and Vice Presidential candidates the importance they attach to the essential role newspapers play in the political drama unfolding in this crucial election year. They recognize, as all good citizens do, the importance of an intelligently informed electorate exercising their studiously considered franchise November 8th.

U.S. SENATOR...

JOHN F. KENNEDY
FOR PRESIDENT

HEADQUARTERS • 1166 CONNECTICUT AVE., N.W. • WASHINGTON, D. C. • DISTRICT 7-4717

We are this year making a "register and vote" appeal a major part of the Presidential campaign. In 1956 only about 60 per cent of the American electorate exercised the American citizen's first right - the right to vote. Some 30 to 40 million American citizens of voting age were unregistered at the outset of the 1960 Campaign.

We feel that it is our first duty to bring about a much greater citizen participation in our elections, regardless of the wins. We are certain that the broader the participation by our people as a whole, the greater are the chances that the right decisions will be made in November.

Naturally, our democratic election system will work to produce that beneficent result only if the citizens who go to the polls are informed voters. For the vast majority of our people, daily and careful reading of the newspapers is an essential means to understanding of the issues. Therefore, the nonpartisan "Read and Vote" promotion now being conducted among newspapers of the United States is serving a most useful purpose.

The slogan for all of us in 1960 should be: "Read, Register Vote."

John Kennedy

HENRY CABOT LODGE

Truth is the soul of democracy. The free press of America has traditionally been the mirror of truth, setting fact against controversy and providing the background information upon which the thoughtful and effective citizen bases his political decisions.

The present Presidential campaign is one of the most important in history. It is vital that nothing impede the people in their demand for a full, fair, and accurate discussion of the issues. Only after such a discussion may Americans deliver, at the polls, a decision which will carry the Nation forward in the challenging years ahead.

The Read and Vote Campaign being conducted by American newspapers is in the best tradition of public service.

READ AND VOTE

United States Senate
Office of the Democratic Leader
Washington, D.C.

American citizens individually can make a positive response to the basic issue of this campaign - the challenge to leadership in the 1960s. They can do that by taking the lead in:

Reading - keeping themselves posted on the issues on a greater scale than they have ever done before.

Registering - taking themselves, their relatives and neighbors to the registration booths in a turnout which will shift millions from the ranks of the unregistered.

Voting - doing their part to score a percentage of our total voting potential which, by showing that the institution of free elections is flourishing as never before in its homeland - will give a lift to the whole free world.

"Read and Vote" go together like light and liberty. The nonpartisan "Read and Vote" promotion among newspapers of the United States is an important contribution to the movement for a greater leadership by our citizenship.

TEXAS

That Unknown Vote Has 'Em Worried

Both Parties Run Scared in Texas

Editor's Note: Six big states, with a massive total of 155 electoral votes, very probably hold the keys to the White House in this year's presidential contest. The situation in Texas is sized up in this, the fifth, of an Associated Press series.

By DAVE CHEAVENS

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Both parties publicly roared victory claims for Texas' 24 electoral votes but worked desperately as if to stave off defeat in the last days of the presidential campaign.

★ ★ ★

Their immediate objective was an estimated 5 to 15 per cent who can't or won't tell the pollsters how they are going to vote.

From the first it has been a campaign of cross-currents and uncertainties.

★ ★ ★

The biggest question now as it was early in the campaign is Sen. John F. Kennedy's religion.

★ ★ ★

The next biggest question is how much Vice President Richard M. Nixon will benefit from the carryover of Dwight D. Eisenhower's political charm that put traditionally-Democratic Texas in the Republican camp in 1952 and 1956.

THE SILENT ONES

Closely related to these and half a dozen other turbulent undercurrents battering the state's estimated 2¼ million voters is the unusually heavy percentage of those who are silent or undecided.

Most of the recent polls timidly indicated a faint leaning toward Kennedy and Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson in a state where the professional and expert political opinion said the big word was doubt.

★ ★ ★

The unknown 5 to 15 per cent could on Nov. 8 make it a decisive victory for either the Democrats or the Republicans. It also could give to either party a hair-line decision.

★ ★ ★

Three Associated Press surveys of 24 key counties at two-week intervals consistently turned up one factor: The voter who often truculently and flatly refused to talk about his intentions.

★ ★ ★

The surveys extending from late September into early November tapped these sources: Local political leaders such as county judges who usually are close to the grass roots: Some country newspaper editors; and on the state level, established campaign publicists or managers and lobbyists who make their living out of the raw material of public opinion.

This survey, plus at least two commercial opinion polls, plus the latest statewide studies by newspapers, indicate that the race is close and the outcome uncertain.

Built-in evidence of this comes from the strategists of both parties.

★ ★ ★

The Republicans booked Nixon into Texas for a return engagement in three vote-heavy big cities this week.

The Democrats brought their Kennedy-Johnson team back to Johnson's home state for two appearances in heavily-populated areas untouched in Kennedy's first tour.

Both parties have put on the strongest pressure ever exerted in a presidential race in Texas because of the baffling array of unknowns, such as:

1. Will Johnson's No. 2 place on the ticket help or hurt with the average voter? Johnson has made many friends and many enemies in his long career in public office. There was a division of opinion at home on whether he should have taken the vice-presidential nomination.

★ ★ ★

2. Will Johnson's double entry as a candidate for re-election to the Senate and for the vice presidency stir up enough resentment to make it a factor? The Republican speakers have made much of it throughout the campaign, especially his active Senate opponent, John G. Tower.

★ ★ ★

3. Will Texas' non-Catholics listen to some of their preachers or to the politicians? Both Democratic and Republican leaders tell them not to let the fact that Kennedy is a Roman Catholic influence them. Many ministers, spearheaded by militant Baptists, have said or intimated that Kennedy's church loyalty could or might disqualify him for the presidency, in the face of his repeated avowals that it would not.

SCHOOLS IN PICTURE

Recent developments in which some Baptist leaders have also raised questions about Nixon's and Henry Cabot Lodge's views on government aids for private schools could help the Democrats. The Puerto Rican church-political controversy could help the Republicans.

4. How much effect on normally-Democratic voters will former Gov. Allan Shivers' ("Democrats for Nixon and Lodge" organization have? How strong is a separate campaign by a group called "Texans for Nixon" led by a prominent Baptist layman, Dallas insurance man Carr P. Collins?

The Republican organization has also been unusually active. It offers the largest number of state office and legislative candidates in history and some of them have a chance to win or make a good showing.

The GOP has welcomed Shivers and Collins. Shivers and Johnson are old political enemies and much of the oratory in the last two weeks has been a renewal of their feud. Shivers was the top Democratic leader who bolted to help Eisenhower in 1952 and 1956. Johnson said that there have been no such defections on the state level among Democratic officials this time and that this will be a strong factor. Shivers is equally confident that many voters will follow him again.

★ ★ ★

5. Will Lodge's statements regarding a Negro in the Cabinet disturb conservatives, who generally are also segregationists, and thereby hurt the Republican cause? Democratic leaders say Lodge can't match Johnson as a vice-presidential candidate, that he doesn't appeal to Texans. They say the fact that his one appearance here was not followed up by a repeat such as Nixon's is a sign of his weakness.

JACK GAINING?

A 17 per cent undecided element was reported in mid-October by the Joe Belden Texas poll which also at that time had 44 per cent of the decided voters favoring Nixon, 39 per cent Kennedy.

A poll by Lou Harris Associates at the end of October showed Kennedy 49 per cent, Nixon 41, and undecided 10.

Republicans widely quote the Belden poll and Democrats the Harris survey.

Official statements by state leaders of each campaign were warmly confident with the election only a few days away.

★ ★ ★

Said Kennedy-Johnson Director Gerald C. Mann: "I am certain the Democratic ticket will have the overwhelming approval of Texans."

Said Republican State Chairman Thad Hutcheson: "I feel confident that Texas is going for Nixon."

Both leaders claimed a high pitch of worker enthusiasm plus large numbers of volunteers as signs of victory.

Kiwanis Movie Covers Norway

Travel Series Film to Be Shown Tuesday at Pontiac Central

The land of the midnight sun is vividly portrayed in "Norway Changing and Changeless," a film being shown by Hjordis Parker as the second lecturer in the current Pontiac Kiwanis Club's Travel and Adventure Series.

Miss Parker will give a talk on the life of the Norwegian people in conjunction with the film showing at 8 p.m. Tuesday in the Pontiac Central High School Auditorium.

This will be the second year that Mrs. Parker takes part in the annual culture series, donning her native Norwegian costume for the presentation.

Since coming to the United States as a child, Miss Parker has conducted an intensive study of her Norwegian heritage, and is able to give a realistic insight into the lives of the people who live in the mountains and along the craggy fjords of her native land.

Season tickets for the lecture series are available at Pontiac Travel Service, 698 W. Huron St., or at the Ralph Norvell Insurance Agency, 70 W. Lawrence St.

Gaitskell Remains Labor Party Leader

LONDON (AP) — Hugh Gaitskell Thursday night retained leadership of the divided Labor Party, defeating the rival forces of Harold Wilson, 166 votes to 81.

★ ★ ★

The result of the balloting, among Labor members of Parliament, was announced at a party caucus.

The tally had been in progress all week.

It climaxed months of intramural battling, largely over the issue of nuclear weapons and the Western Alliance.

Gaitskell remained firm in support of NATO, despite left-wing attacks. His forces were jubilant at the 2-1 victory.

More houses were built in Australia last year than in any year of the preceding six — more than 800,000 completed and construction of another 76,000 started.

Stocks Advance Amid Rumors

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market took in its stride rumors of a Moscow coup and advanced briskly for the fourth straight day.

Gains of fractions to more than a point prevailed among most key stocks.

Steels, chemicals, coppers, electronics and most autos joined in a fairly broad advance. Aircrafts were up slightly.

* * *

Publication of a rumor that Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev had been arrested and that former Premier G. M. Malenkov had taken power was received by Wall Street with disbelief.

Brokers said that the return to power of Malenkov, tough Stalinist, would probably result in more emphasis on defense stocks. But such issues showed no response to the rumor.

The market was higher at the start, widened its gains, then trimmed its better advances, still keeping a substantial advance.

Wider gains included DuPont up more than 2, Polaroid up more than 3 and Texas Instruments, up a couple — but such moves are more or less routine for these comparatively high-priced issues.

Smith-Kline-Rench spurted more than 2 in an unusual move among the narrowly mixed drugs.

Air reduction, ahead more than 2, and Allied Chemical (ex-dividend) up a point were solid performers in their section. Thiokol, the rocket fuel stock, was unchanged at the opening but soon showed a loss of around a point.

Rails continued their latest resurgence, nudging ahead on balance.

Alleghany Corp., holding company for New York Central, was up nearly a point for a good percentage gain as a proxy fight seemed in the making. Central was steady.

* * *

Gains of about a point were made by Youngstown Sheet, U.S. Steel and Jones and Laughlin (ex-dividend).

Ford and General Motors gained fractions. Chrysler dipped slightly.

The board refused to register Mrs. Nutt when she answered the question negatively Sept. 20.

Ball granted the woman 10 days in which to file a further petition but she was undecided Thursday as to whether to appeal to the State Supreme Court.

Mrs. Nutt said she refused to say she would bear arms because she has strong religious beliefs against war and condemns the taking of lives for any reason.

Grain Drops Slightly on Board of Trade

CHICAGO (AP) — Grain futures prices were mostly slightly easier today although wheat was firm in spots on initial dealings on the board of trade.

Setbacks were small and dealers said they appeared to indicate some hedge selling and scattered liquidation for the week-end.

Wheat showed its best support in the May and September deliveries where speculative dealers have been taking long positions the past several days.

India, in the market for 5,700,000 bushels of wheat earlier this week, was understood to have bought another 2 million bushels overnight.

Labor Report After Election Is 'Normal'

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A Labor Department spokesman acknowledged Thursday that no report on October figures of employment and unemployment will be issued until after election day Tuesday.

But he said this was part of "the normal course of operations."

Democratic National Chairman Henry M. Jackson has charged that the Eisenhower administration is holding back the regular monthly figures "for political purposes."

He said the delay was "one more flagrant case of the administration holding back distasteful information."

The department spokesman said the report would be issued late next week, September unemployment figures were released Oct. 10.

Southern Woman Objects to War; Refused Ballot

BESSEMER, Ala. (UPI)—Conscientious objector Mrs. Marcia E. Nutt, of Birmingham, has lost another round in her fight to become a registered voter.

Circuit Judge Edward L. Ball Thursday sustained a Jefferson County Board of Registrars ruling refusing the woman the right to vote because she answered "no" to the question, "Will you bear arms for your country when called upon by it to do so?"

The question appears on questionnaires for prospective voters.

Expect Auto Output to Begin Slackening

DETROIT (AP) — Auto production this week will show its first signs of tapering off after the initial rush of 1961 models, Automotive News says.

The trade paper estimated production for the current week at 145,308 passenger cars compared with 150,106 a week ago. This is the first time since all companies entered the 1961 model year that industry output has failed to match the previous week's total.

A year ago, with the steel shortage growing, the industry built only 63,615 cars.

Compact car output will show a slight decline this week, too, dropping from 49,05—the all time high —to 48,067.

Truck production was estimated 18,016 last week and 13,663 in the similar week a year ago.

Canadian factories will build cars and trucks, up from last week's 7,102 vehicles and well ahead of the 4,726 of last year.

At Least Five Killed in Light Plane Crash

ONTARIO, Calif. (AP)—A small plane piloted by a Los Angeles businessman fought for more than an hour to stay aloft in a rain storm, then plunged onto a crowded freeway and exploded Thursday night.

Authorities said at least five persons were killed. The plane, piloted by wealthy auto dealer Robert A. Yeakel, 41, burst into countless small fragments near the east city limits of Ontario.

Four cars were struck by the hurtling wreckage, three of them demolished, according to witnesses. One motorist was fatally injured. All four persons on the plane were killed.

Yeakel, who tagged himself "The Lucky Dutchman" early in his business career, was a familiar figure on television which he used extensively for automobile advertising. He also was a desert land developer and in 1957 made an unsuccessful bid to become mayor of Los Angeles.

Chiropodists Vote to Change Name of Organization

A Pontiac chiropodist, Dr. Hubert H. Curson of 969 Jackson Blvd. has returned from the year's final meeting of the Michigan State Chiropodists Association in Detroit.

At the meeting, the organization voted to change its name to the Michigan State Podiatry Association, explained Curson, local chairman of the name change program.

The term "chiropodists" had been used for 200 years. The national association changed to "podiatry" in 1958.

* * *

Curson said the name change officially became effective Tuesday. The new term literally means medical treatment of the foot.

Truman Knocks U.S. Leadership

'Friends Leaving Us,' He Says at Rallies in New York

NEW YORK (AP) — Former President Harry S. Truman says United States leadership of the world has been "thrown out the window and our friends are beginning to leave us."

"We must not let that happen," he declared Thursday night as he addressed campaign rallies for the Kennedy-Johnson ticket.

Truman said this country has lost its leadership "from Washington."

* * *

On another theme, he said Vice President Richard M. Nixon's voting record is "bad for our people, bad for the United States of America and bad for the free world."

'FRIEND OF FAT CATS'

He called the GOP presidential candidate "the friend of the fat cats and special interests who support the Republican party."

Praising Sen. John F. Kennedy's record, Truman said: "I would a thousand times rather trust the future of my daughter and my grandchildren and my country to Jack Kennedy and the Democratic party than to Nixon and the Republicans."

* * *

Addressing a cheering but unruly street rally crowd in Brooklyn, Truman charged GOP vice-presidential candidate Henry Cabot Lodge with having been unfriendly to Israel when he was U.S. ambassador to the United Nations.

The crowd, which included many teen-agers, continued noisy and appeared inattentive.

Truman, visibly angry, told the crowd: "I just wonder just why the hell you bothered to come out here, anyway."

Then he walked off the platform.

REASON FOR DOUBT

In a text prepared for a rally on the lower East Side of Manhattan, Truman said: "I think there is only one reason left why there is any doubt about the outcome of the presidential election. That is the question of religion."

A newsman asked Truman if he meant he feared that the issue might defeat Kennedy. Truman replied that he was "absolutely certain" that Kennedy will win.

Chrysler Sales Up 36 Per Cent

GM's Chevy Division, Rambler Also Report 10-Month Increases

DETROIT (UPI) — Chrysler Corp., with sales for the first 10 months of this year up 36 per cent from the same period of 1959, heads a list of auto makers who announced sales increases Thursday.

Cadillac Division of General Motors Corp. reports its retail deliveries for the first 10 months of this year were greater than in any January - through - October period in its 59-year history.

GM's Chevrolet Division announced its auto sales for the first 10 months of this year were 11.7 per cent above the same period of 1959 and American Motors Corp. reported a 19 per cent increase in Rambler sales over the year-ago, 10-month period.

Chrysler's Dodge Division reported the biggest sales jump for the first 10 months of 1960 — a whopping 136 per cent increase over the same period of 1959. Plymouth reported a 12 per cent increase.

Chrysler said its sales for the first 10 months of 1960 totaled 799,452 compared with last year's 585,833. Dodge's sales of 313,996 since Jan. 1. Topped the division's previous high of 313,734 set in 1951 and was 136 per cent above last year's 132,993 for the same period. Plymouth's sales were 386,000 for the 10 months.

Cadillac said a record 123,742 new cars were delivered in the first 10 months of 1960 compared with the former record of 120,736 established last year.

Chevrolet sales totaled 1,442,406 for January through October 1960, compared with 1,291,015 for the same period of last year.

Rambler said its sales bounced up to 366,803 for the first 10 months of this year in comparison with 308,010 for the same span of 1959.

Charged With Taking Credit Union Funds

DETROIT (UPI) — A federal grand jury has indicted Mrs. Margaret Edith Ring, 50, of Dearborn, on charges of embezzling more than $30,000 from the Statler Hotel Employes Federal Credit Union.

Assistant U.S. Attorney Jerome A. Moore said Mrs. Ring was manager, director and treasurer of the credit union and admitted taking the money between April 1956 and December 1959.

Moore said Mrs. Ring notified other officers of the credit union last December that she had been embezzling money, and made the same admission to federal investigators.

Moore said Mrs. Ring, who has been separated from her husband for about 10 years, told investigators she used some of the money to cover gambling losses.

He said some of the money apparently was spent on a "boy friend" now believed to be in Alaska.

Romney Gives Con-Con Boost

Says Proposal No. 3 May Be Last Chance for Even Government

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — George Romney said Thursday that ballot Proposal No. 3, which could lead to a constitutional convention, may represent the last chance for a balanced representation in Michigan.

Romney, chairman of Citizens for Michigan, said that as long as Michigan's basic problems remain unsolved and population growth in metropolitan areas continues, pressure will continue to build up for a constitutional convention based on strict proportional representation.

The president of American Motors Corp. said, "Under the terms of Proposal No. 3, representation at a subsequent constitutional convention next year would give outstate areas a 53 per cent majority compared with 47 per cent for the five most populous counties.

Politically on the basis of present representation in the legislature, Republican areas would elect 53 per cent of the delegates and Democratic areas 47 per cent.

* * *

"The near-equilibrium representation offers the voters of Michigan their best chance, and perhaps their last chance, to undertake a constitutional convention on terms that assure balanced representation of all Michigan interests without urban or one-party domination."

Romney's nonpartisan Citizens for Michigan are campaigning for adoption of Amendment No. 3. They were among sponsors of petitions through which the question was placed on the ballot for next Tuesday.

BROWN AND BEAR—Billy McKee, 10, a fifth grade student, stands hand in hand with Gov. Edmund Brown and sculptor Benny Bufano after "his" concrete bear is unveiled on the front lawn of Heights Elementary School in Pittsburg, Calif., Thursday. It was Billy's idea to ask Bufano for the 7-foot concrete monster but all the children in the school worked to raise more than $1,000 to pay for casting and transportation of the sculpture to the school. Gov. Brown agreed to attend the unveiling at the request of the children. Bufano received no compensation for his work of more than six months. AP Photofax

Moscow to Erupt With Hotels— Big Ones Due

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet capital is going to bust out in new hotels.

Tass has announced construction of a 3,400-room hotel close to Red Square will start next year. It will be a 12-story building with a 20-story tower, shops, a 3,000-concert hall and several movie theaters.

* * *

The Hotel Sputnik already is under construction near Luzhniki Stadium. Another modern glass-and-aluminum hotel will rise alongside the old National Hotel by 1967, the year of the Moscow World's Fair, and others are to be built near the Kursk railway station and in other parts of the city, Tass said.

May Investigate Loan to Nixon's Brother

WASHINGTON (AP)—A House subcommittee may investigate charges of possible conflict of interest growing out of a Hughes Tool Co. loan to a brother of Vice President Richard M. Nixon four years ago.

* * *

Chairman Jack Brooks, D-Tex., said Thursday he has serious allegations that decisions of the Civil Aeronautics Board were influenced. He said he will ask his government activities subcommittee "for approval to conduct a thorough investigation at the earliest opportunity."

Nixon's campaign manager, Robert Finch, has called the charges a smear brought up to hurt Nixon's election chances. He said Nixon knew nothing of the loan until later.

* * *

Howard Hughes heads both the Hughes Tool Co. and Trans World Airlines, which is under CAB jurisdiction. The tool company has been identified as the maker of a $205,000 loan in December 1956 to F. Donald Nixon, a brother of the vice president.

Calls Drain Plan Mere Maneuver

Foe Russell Says Barry Proposal Is a Scheme to Gain Votes

Roy J. Russell, Democratic candidate for drain commissioner, has branded as "a last-minute political maneuever" a sewage treatment plan announced by his Republican opponent yesterday.

Russell said the plan of Drain Commissioner Daniel W. Barry, being studied, Barry said, because of dissatisfaction with rates now being charged by Detroit, "is nothing more than a last-minute political manuever to gain votes by misleading taxpayers that his plan would be a 'cheaper alternative' to existing and already approved plans."

Barry said announcement of the plan — coming four days before the election — was made after the City of Detroit "had dictated" terms for construction of the Eight Mile storm drain before it would accept sewage from the Evergreen and Farmington interceptor sewers.

Barry said the $15,350,000 plan might provide treatment facilities for all the needs of the county, thereby not having to rely on Detroit.

CLAIMS WASTE

Barry's proposal, Russell claimed, would result in a waste of taxpayers' money amounting to $10 million or more.

Russell was quick to say that Barry's plan does not have the approval of the Michigan Department of Health.

"Checking in person with Mr. Donald Pierce, chief of the section of sewage treatment for the health department, I found that Pierce and his department knew nothing of the proposal and that Pierce was surprised to learn of the plan," Russell said.

Legal and technical problems would make it unlikely, the Democratic candidate said, that the state department would grant approval for Barry's plan. He pointed out that studies have shown dumping into Detroit's plant is "most economical and efficient."

Barry's plan for dumping sewage from the new system into the already polluted Red Run Drain is not possible, Russell said, because the ditch is dry and "not conducive to receiving effluent from a sewage plant because of the low and sometimes nonexistent flow to the drain."

Red Army Changes Hit Hero of WW II

LONDON (UPI)—Russia's replacement of famous World War II generals Thursday hit Marshal Semyon K. Timoshenko, the hero of the Finnish War who halted the Nazi advance on Moscow in 1941.

A Moscow announcement said the 65-year-old marshal had been succeeded as commander of the important ByeloRussian district by Col. Gen. V. N. Komarov.

There was no indication whether Timoshenko would be assigned another post or retired but the move spotlighted a trend to remove the aging veterans of the last war as the Soviet Union shifts to rocketry.

Most of the new generals are close associates of Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev.

Timoshenko, one of the few remaining old-time military leaders, is the son of a peasant from Bessarabia who rose from stable boy to marshal.

Although they make up less than 14 per cent of the driving population, drivers under 25 years old were involved in nearly 29 per cent of the fatal accidents last year.

A 77th generation lineal descendant of Confucius, Kung Teh-cheng, lives on Formosa. He holds the title of Hereditary Keeper of the Confucius Shrines.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING
Notice is hereby given of a public hearing to be held by the Bloomfield Township Planning Commission at the Bloomfield Township Hall, 4200 Telegraph Road, on Monday, November 21, 1960, at 7:30 o'clock p.m. to consider the following changes to the Bloomfield Township Zoning Ordinance, being Ordinance No. 21; to be amended in the form of a new "Item 7," to be added to the present Commercial 1 Zones and to read as follows:
7. Trailer Courts may herein be permitted by the Board of Appeals, after having received the recommendation of the Planning Commission, and after it finds the use as not being contrary to the spirit and purpose of this ordinance, and subject further to the following requirements and conditions:
a. The land parcel being proposed for Trailer Courts shall be of such land area as to provide for a minimum of at least fifty (50) trailer coach sites and shall not exceed a maximum of seventy-five (75) trailer coach sites.
b. Eighty (80) per cent of the trailer coach sites shall contain a minimum area of at least three thousand (3,000) square feet, and twenty (22) per cent shall contain a minimum area of at least two thousand four hundred (2,400) square feet. All such trailer site areas shall be computed exclusive of service drives, facilities, and recreation space.
c. All Trailer Courts shall have access to Federal Highways within the Township by directly abutting thereon. Frontage on said highway shall be equal to at least four hundred (400) feet of width.
d. A completely obscuring wall or fence, four (4) feet in height shall be provided on all sides of the Trailer Court, with the exception of that portion providing ingress and egress to the site.
e. All Trailer Court development shall further comply with Act 143 of Public Acts of the State of Michigan, 1939 as amended.
f. The parking of a trailer coach, for periods exceeding twenty-four (24) hours, on lands not approved for Trailer Courts shall be expressly prohibited, except that the Building Inspector may extend temporary permits allowing the parking of a trailer coach in a rear yard on private property not to exceed a period of two (2) weeks. All trailer coaches owned by residents of the Township and stored on their individual lots shall be stored within a completely enclosed accessory structure or attached garage. All such trailer coaches parked or stored, shall not be connected to sanitary facilities and shall not be occupied.
Along with this amendment the following definitions should be included in the ordinance:
Trailer Coach (Mobile Home): Is any vehicle designed, used, or so constructed as to permit its being used as a conveyance upon the public streets or highways and duly licensable as such, and constructed in such a manner as will permit occupancy thereof as a dwelling or sleeping place for one or more persons.
Trailer Court: Any plot of ground designed for the use of and occupied by trailer coaches in keeping with the requirements set forth in this ordinance.
Persons interested are requested to be present. A copy of the zoning map together with a list of the proposed changes is on file in the office of the Township Clerk and may be examined by those interested.

'The Witness' Shows Life After a Sorry Beginning

By FRED DANZIG

NEW YORK (UPI) — "The Witness" has discarded the "loud is good" philosophy and toned itself down to a more bearable decibel count. As a result, the CBS-TV hour is beginning to show promise after a disastrous beginning.

The format places the famous and the infamous before a "committee of inquiry" for a popular judgment. After six weeks, the show has found the proper pitch for its proceedings and actors.

Now, if they can add more significance to the dramatic purposes, vary the types of celebrities who are hauled into that simulated hearing-room and avoid the run of ho-hum, so-what endings, the program will live up to its promise.

Last night, Myron McCormick portrayed Roger Touhy, who was asking the committee to remove his famous nickname, "Terrible," because he was really a Mr. Nice Guy. McCormick did a fine job, except when forced by the script to fold up in sudden, unreal emotional breakdowns.

The high point came when Touhy confronted his bootlegging rival, Al Capone, fresh from Alcatraz and "The Untouchables."

Telly Savalas, as Capone, and McCormick succeeded in conveying nostalgia, respect and contempt — if you can imagine that combination — as they worked out their meaty little scene.

I recalled that the opening "Witness" program starred Savalas as "Lucky" Luciano, a role in which he went haywire. Last night, Savalas settled down to a more believable study, although the script again called upon him to toss in comedy one-liners.

I just don't think Capone or Luciano had the funny bone these shows credit them with.

If "The Witness" is serious about straightening itself out, the tendency to work up to climactic outbursts before every commercial will have to go. These emotional peaks, I think, should be the signal for slamming the TV camera lens right into the middle of the action, not cutting away from it.

The subject matter also ought to be varied. Producer Nick Mayo could find lots of material in fields other than the rackets which would provide more dramatic, productive and profound controversies.

Or is he simply trying to turn "The Witness" into nothing more than a blue-ribbon, nonviolent crime series?

"What's The Proposition?," last night's half-hour documentary in ABC-TV's Bell & Howell close-up series, swooped down upon examples of local or state-wide propositions that were met with extensive apathy by the voters.

Examples: A school bond issue rejected in Bangor, Me.; in Dearborn Township, near Detroit, a desperately-needed new high school was built but the voters then refused to approve a tax increase to operate the school.

The school isn't being used. And in Kentucky, interviews indicated a great deal of voter ignorance concerning efforts to revise the state constitution.

Too many of our communities could contribute to this portrait of apathy, of course.

The program could have been more forceful and important if it focused on, say, the Dearborn situation and probed beneath the surface to find out just what factors are contributing to the "apathy," a word which is sometimes used to cover many evils. In short, the documentary itself betrayed traces of apathy.

Hazel Scott Asking Divorce of Powell

NEW YORK (AP)—Swing pianist Hazel Scott said Thursday she has asked for a divorce from Rep. Adam Clayton Powell Jr., Harlem congressman. She said her reasons are her own affair.

"However," she said, "a stalemate has been reached because, to date, Mr. Powell refuses to pay what I consider adequate support for his child (14-year-old Adam Clayton Powell III) and costs of the divorce."

She added:

"If he continues to refuse to pay for his divorce, and no agreement can be reached, there just will be no divorce because I am not about to pay for it."

Protestant Givers Vary Widely

Average Offering Stingy

By United Press International

According to a report issued this week by the National Council of Churches, the average American Protestant gave $69.13 to his church last year.

★ ★ ★

If the Average Protestant were a real, live human being, it might be worthwhile to lecture him for being so stingy toward his church.

An annual contribution of $69.13 figures out to 19 cents a day, which is less than the price of a pack of cigarette.

But the Average Protestant is an altogether mythical fellow. He exists only on the scratch pads of church statisticians who divide total contributions by total membership.

In real life, instead of one "average" kind of Protestant, there are at least three distinct categories of church members, who vary widely in their attitudes toward giving.

When he comes to church, which is an uncertain and spasmodic phenomenon, he drops into the collection plate whatever change he finds in his pocket.

If he feels that he might be embarrassed by the clink of coins, he fishes a dollar bill from his wallet.

The Rev. Thomas D. Bowers, an Episcopal clergyman in Washington, D.C., has suggested that this system of giving is tantamount to "giving God a tip for the spiritual food that has been served" at the worship service. The Rev. Mr. Bowers doubts that God is gratified.

The next largest group are the dues-payers.

They give systematically to the church through an annual pledge or a weekly envelope system. But the amount of their contribution is not related to the size of their income.

Some dues-payers calculate precisely their "share" of the church's overhead expenses. They divide the annual budget by the number of members in the congregation, and determine how much each member must give to keep the church functioning.

Others simply pick a nice round figure like a respectable sum to give to the church. Sometimes it's $2 a week; often it's $1 a week. They pay this sum as faithfully as they pay their country club dues (which are usually somewhat higher.)

Finally, there are tithers. They are a definite minority in most churches, but there are more of them than you may suspect. In fact, if there weren't a fair-sized core of them, the churches could not operate.

The tithers regularly give at least 10 per cent of their income to church and charity.

They do not think there is anything sacred about the 10 per cent figure; to the extent that they have grasped the real spirit of tithing, they feel that they are probably being greedy in keeping for their own use 90 per cent of the material wealth which has come to them through the providence of God.

There is evidence that the number of tithers in American churches is increasing, slowly but steadily. This evidently is the result of stewardship education programs which have been undertaken in many denominations.

Catholics Are Told: Vote as You Please

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Archbishop Edward D. Howard Thursday called on Roman Catholics of his archdiocese to vote in the general election Tuesday without allowing religious considerations to determine their choice.

★ ★

Candidates should be weighed on the basis of "training, ability, and the public and civic welfare," he said in a statement published in the Catholic Sentinel, official newspaper of the archdiocese of Portland.

"The past many weeks have not been an easy time for Catholics," he said, "who have been the victims of innuendoes and falsehoods about their beliefs and whose loyalty even has been questioned."

The archbishop made no direct reference to Sen. John F. Kennedy, whose Roman Catholic faith has been brought into the presidential campaign.

The archbishop said only an irresponsible few spread the falsehoods and he commended non-Catholics who worked to dispel suspicions "and promote the liberty which our Constitution guarantees . . ." Notable in this, he said, were the Anti Defamation League of B'nai B'rith and the National Conference of Christians and Jews.

MSUO FACULTY AND STAFF MEMBERS WHO SUPPORT NIXON URGE YOU TO CONSIDER CAREFULLY BEFORE YOU VOTE . . .

It's one thing to talk as a humanatarian. It's another thing to act responsibly as one. Richard Nixon has offered only those things he genuinely feels can be accomplished.

If our economy is to remain strong we must have a dollar that is worth a dollar. Federal programs must be adequately financed or they will bring inflation that will destroy the value of our savings, insurance and pension programs.

Our foreign friends know and have confidence in Richard Nixon and Henry Cabot Lodge. In these unsettled times this confidence is one of our country's greatest assets.

Richard Nixon and the Republican Party stand for an honest program representing the best interests of ALL of the people of the United States. They are dedicated to responsible action rather than promises. Don't trade a record for a promise.

We strongly urge your thoughtful support of two strong men Richard M. Nixon and Henry Cabot Lodge.

Ex-AEC Head Discusses Radical New Bomb

MAKE OVER PAGES

NEW YORK (AP)—Thomas E. Murray, former atomic energy commissioner, tells of a "third generation weapon, as radically different from the H-bomb as the H-bomb was from the Hiroshima-type A-bomb."

In an open letter released Thursday night to presidential candidate Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Sen. John F. Kennedy, in which Murray again urged resumption of nuclear tests the former AEC head said:

★ ★ ★

"The new weapon will not be a larger and more efficient H-bomb, nor a smaller and more efficient A-bomb. It is primarily anti-personnel in destination and effect. And it need not create suicidal hazards for the country that employs it."

Murray also said: "I take it for granted the Soviet Union is developing nuclear technology along this revolutionary line."

In Washington, some unidentified nuclear physicists speculated that Murray was talking about what has been called a "neutron bomb"—a weapon that would actually be a small, mobile, nuclear reactor and a junior-sized version of reactors already used to propel submarines and to generate electricity.

The AEC refused to comment on the statement by Murray, who headed the commission from 1950 until 1957.

★ ★ ★

In Chicago Thursday night a nuclear physicist said Murray "doubtless refers to the neutron bomb, two different sizes of which on the drawing boards have been openly referred to as 'dove' and 'starling.'"

David R. Inglis, Argonne National Laboratory physicist and past chairman of the Federation of American Scientists, added: "This is not fantastically different from present weapons as he (Murray) claims. It is not a 'third generation' beyond the H-bomb but merely a scaling down of the A-bomb to a low efficiency to make it give out more neutron radiation than blast damage.

"It is of dubious military value because many of its victims on the battlefield will be condemned to die of radiation sickness on following days and can afford to be very brave in the meantime."

Inglis also said the Soviets probably wouldn't be very seriously interested in using this type of weapon because it "is an expensive and inefficient way to use" the required materials and "they don't have a very big surplus of these expensive materials the way we do."

Nixon Sharpens Attacks; Jack Pours on Sarcasm

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon, delighted by his rebel-yelling Dixie crowds, moved north and west today with the sharpness of his attacks on Sen. John F. Kennedy mounting steadily.

★ ★ ★

Nixon, the Republican presidential nominee, made an address at a morning rally here before traveling on to Casper, Wyo., Spokane, Wash., and Fresno, Calif., for more campaigning in this final and most gruelling week of his bid for the White House.

Wyoming will be the 49th state he has visited since winning the nomination in July. Alaska, the 50th, is on his itinerary.

Nixon spent all day and until midnight Thursday night campaigning in the South —in South Carolina and Texas — urging Democrats to abandon Kennedy, the party's presidential candidate, and throw in their lot with the Republicans in next Tuesday's election.

BIG CROWD UP LATE

In Texas, that also would mean abandoning its Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson, Kennedy's vice-presidential running mate.

Nixon arrived in Fort Worth very late Thursday night and was, he said, thrilled to find on hand to greet him at the airport — far out of town — a cheering, flashlight-waving crowd which police Sgt. Hollis Pricer estimated at 15,000.

Nixon got to town shortly after an announcement that surprised the area—one by H. L. Hunt of Dallas, multimillionaire

EN ROUTE WITH KENNEDY (AP)—Sen. John F. Kennedy, stepping up direct and sarcastic criticism of Vice President Richard M. Nixon with each speech, spiraled closer to home today.

★ ★ ★

But he has many miles to go before he sleeps in Hyannis Port, Mass., election night. Almost every waking hour is filled in a final stumping splurge, and the waking hours keep mounting each day.

Kennedy, accompanied by running mate Lyndon B. Johnson, spanned Texas Thursday, attempting to cover all bets in Johnson's home state with its bundle of 24 electoral votes.

He drew a full house in Oklahoma City, where he turned a Nixon slogan around and attacked the vice president on his record of experience in foreign affairs.

WRONG, RECKLESS, UNINFORMED

Kennedy said Nixon often has been wrong, reckless and uninformed.

Oklahoma is uphill territory for Kennedy, and some of his aides concede privately they may not be able to turn the trick and carry its eight electoral votes.

The state party organization is split by a bitter factional fight, and it is strong fundamentalist Protestant country, said to be a handicap for Catholic Kennedy.

Kennedy flew to Norfolk, Va., today, and planned a tight schedule of stops at Roanoke, Va.; Toledo, Ohio; and New York.

Blames GOP for State Loss of Nobel Winner

Swainson Says Glaser Forced Out by Lack of Facilities at U. of M.

From Our News Wires

Lt. Gov. John B. Swainson cited Nobel laureate Donald Glaser Thursday in a blast at what he termed "Republican obstructionism" in education.

Glaser, who pioneered development of the bubble chamber, a "window to the atom," was awarded the Nobel Prize for physics Thursday.

★ ★ ★

In a speech at Detroit's Italo-American Club, Swainson said:

"For more than 10 years he worked at the University of Michigan, but because of lack of facilities, a lack of research room, he left out university at Ann Arbor for the University of California, where there was no Republican - imposed moratorium on the building of adequate facilities."

"This is a man who left Michigan because Michigan couldn't — or so the Republicans said — afford such frills as pure research," the Democratic gubernatorial candidate continued.

'WILL LOSE FREEDOM'

"I say we can afford pure research . . . I say if we don't, we will lose the race for outer space, for technological advance — we will lose our freedom because the heart of freedom is knowledge and our greatest asset is the human mind."

Swainson and his Democratic colleague, Sen. Patrick V. McNamara, spent most of the day campaigning outside plant gates in the Detroit area.

Swainson told a Democratic rally that rival Paul D. Bagwell has been reckless in attacking his tax stand.

★ ★ ★

My opponent is running true to form in attacking me on a speech he hasn't heard and on a report he hasn't read," Swainson declared.

He referred to a tax study submitted to him by a committee of economists headed by Dr. William Haber of the University of Michigan.

The economists said an income tax is the best way to achieve a strong financial basis for state government.

"HELLO, I'M PAUL BAGWELL" — Those passing the corner of Saginaw and Huron streets this morning heard this greeting from the Republican candidate for governor. Bagwell spent two hours on the corner in front of the Courthouse meeting voters. Earlier, he spent two hours outside Pontiac Motor Division.

Gets Unfriendly Reception at City's Factories

Still Predicts County Margin of 25,000 in Governor Race

By GEORGE T. TRUMBULL JR.

Republican candidate for governor Paul D. Bagwell left Pontiac this morning after an unfriendly reception outside factory gates, but still predicting he'd carry Oakland County by upward to 25,000 votes.

He carried the county by 7,400 two years ago.

Showing the strain of three months of campaigning, Bagwell stood in the chill outside the downtown Courthouse this morning telling passersby that "I want to work for you after January."

He called the greetings by some 200 persons "friendly" compared to the cool reception he received earlier as he tried to greet workers entering the first shift at Pontiac Motor Division.

"There was a little profanity and a little talking back," Bagwell said.

He said the reception outside the factory was nothing to compare to the organized and warm receptions he has received outside factories in Grand Rapids and Flint.

He blamed his reception here on what he said were the "hard core pork choppers who keep the fellows intimidated."

Bagwell branded as "sheer nonsense" the charge by Lt. Gov. John B. Swainson, his Democratic opponent, that Nobel Prize winner Dr. Donald Glaser left the University of Michigan because the Republican legislature refused to appropriate funds for expansion of research facilities at the university.

"What does he take the voters as — fools," Bagwell asked in a sidewalk press conference.

Bagwell pointed out that expenditure of money appropriated by the legislature was entirely up to the school and its administrative board.

Bagwell was accompanied to

Mock Election Shows Preference

Pontiac Students Like the Dems

If the vote of junior and senior high school students in Pontiac were conclusive, the Democrats would be in today.

Where the Republicans won, they did so by narrow margins in the major races.

In the presidential race the senior high totals gave the Kennedy-Johnson ticket 834 votes and the Nixon-Lodge ticket 766 votes.

In the race for governor, Swainson got a total of 927 votes to 661 votes for Paul D. Bagwell.

At Pontiac Northern High School, where 597 voted, the Democrats won every national, state and local race.

★ ★ ★

With 67 per cent of the school's 950 students registered and 89 per cent of those registered voting, John F. Kennedy got 328 votes to 257 for Richard M. Nixon.

In the gubernatorial race, Democrat John B. Swainson defeated Paul D. Bagwell 361 to 222 votes.

Local Republicans fared no better. In the Congressional race James Kellis got 304 votes to 272 votes for William S. Broomfield.

★ ★ ★

At Pontiac Central there was considerable splitting of ballots and the Nixon-Lodge ticket won by three votes.

The vote was 509 for Nixon and Lodge to 506 for Kennedy and Johnson.

The only two Republicans to win by a substantial margin were Sheriff Frank W. Irons and Broomfield in the congressional race.

Broomfield had the largest margin of any Republican. He beat Kellis by 128 votes. Irons was next, winning over Homer Hight by 106 votes.

★ ★ ★

In the gubernatorial race at PCH, Swainson won over Bagwell 566 to 439.

At Central, about 60 per cent of 2,000 students registered for the mock election. Of those registered, 90 per cent voted.

The two high schools split on State Supreme Court candidates. Northern elected James R. Breakey Jr. by two votes, Central elected Theodore Souris by 51 votes.

At both schools L. Harvey Lodge won over Donald E. Adams for a two-year term as probate judge.

★ ★ ★

Both schools were strongly in favor of Proposal No. 1 (the school bond amendment) but Northern voters defeated Proposal No. 2 (state sales tax).

Both schools passed the proposal for a constitutional convention.

With returns complete at four of the city's five junior high schools the Democrats were well in the lead.

As of 11 a.m. returns had not

Students Hold Political Rallies

Washington Junior High Teens Get Full Lesson in Democracy

With mock elections taking place this week in many Pontiac area junior and senior high schools, Washington Junior High went all out yesterday.

The students and faculty concluded a two-day mock political rally with all the trimmings.

★ ★ ★

There are about 1,100 students at the school and all took part in the rally.

The project was dreamed up and directed by Glenn Hartman, a speech teacher at Washington.

Local political party headquarters helped out, supplying plenty of campaign posters, banners and placards. Voting machines were set up in social studies classrooms.

HOLD RALLIES

Wednesday, half of the school held a good, old fashioned, foot-stompin' rally in the school auditorium.

Thursday, the remainder of the student body repeated with a rally of their own.

At each rally, six student speakers outlined party platforms. Three explained the Republican stand, while three others explained Democratic ideals.

★ ★ ★

Both rallies had all the excitement of full-fledged political conventions with the school band and boys' glee club also taking part.

★ ★ ★

Students waved placards and formed delegations on the floor, cheering for their candidates.

★ ★ ★

Although most of them won't vote in a presidential election until 1968 they will have all experienced some of the excitement of a flag draped convention hall.

It was a lesson in democracy.

City Dream for Library Comes True

The star went before her public today — a little hurriedly, but ready for a great performance.

Doors of the new Pontiac Public Library building swung open at 9 a.m., disclosing the latest results of the city's long-term, pay-as-you-go capital improvement program.

The spacious, attractive, colorful interior of the $500,000 addition to the Civic Center was an open secret to passers-by of the last few weeks.

Wide expanses of windows are a feature of the low-lying, brick structure, giving the public a good view from the outside and lots of natural light on the inside.

Although all the furnishings are not in place, the books are, and this is what prompted the city to open the facility as is.

"We thought it best to restore main library service to the public as soon as possible," said Phyllis Pope, city librarian.

Main library service had closed down when the city began moving 50,000 volumes from the old building on Williams Street to the new one at East Pike and Parke Streets Oct. 17.

Brief ribbon-cutting ceremonies were scheduled for 4 p.m., with

Unconfirmed Rumors Claim Khrushchev Out

VIENNA, Austria (AP) — Rumors of a successful coup in Moscow by an "antiparty group" circulated here today. There was no confirmation from any source.

The rumors said former Premier George M. Malenkov has taken power and that Nikita S. Khrushchev is under arrest.

Gen. Georgi K. Zhukov, the former defense minister, was reported appointed state president in the coup said to have taken place at 4 a.m.

Cuba Predicts Invasion to Help Dick Win Election

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—A Cuban prediction of an American invasion by Tuesday to help elect Richard M. Nixon president was shrugged off today as more propaganda from Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro in his war of nerves.

The State Department declined comment on the forecast by Cuban Foreign Minister Raul Roa Thursday night at the United Nations.

Nixon's press secretary, Herbert G. Klein, said: "I am sure the world will recognize this as just another case of a Castro man sounding off."

Roa also linked President Eisenhower's warning that the United States would defend its naval base at Guantanamo against attack with the American presidential campaign.

The Cuban diplomat charged again that the United States was plotting a provocation against the base as a pretext for "the armed invasion and occupation of Cuba."

Roa said Nixon's election depends on "another 'glorious victory' of North American imperialism in Cuba" and added: "It is logical to presume that this aggression must take place before Nov. 8."

Roa's statement came a few hours before defense maneuvers today at Guantanamo — a regular monthly training exercise that took on added significance from Washington's fears that Castro himself might try to stage an incident at the base and try to pin the blame on the Americans.

Air raid sirens were to set in motion the entire defense machinery of the strategic base in eastern Cuba. About 3,000 men and attack bombers and interceptor planes are taking part.

Castro and the government-controlled Cuban press and radio have been whipping up invasion jitters among the Cubans for weeks.

Americans in Havana believe the aim is to divert the people from the country's growing economic troubles.

Charges Inadequate Child Program

MAKE OVER PAGE 9

State Hospital Head Testifies

Lack of Personnel Is Blamed for Restricting Institution's Work

The medical superintendent of Pontiac State Hospital testified yesterday that more than half of the 88 children in the institution are not being offered an "adequate program."

Dr. Walter H. Obenauf told a special Senate committee investigating unfilled needs of Michigan's emotionally disturbed and mentally ill children that 54 of the children between the ages of 8 and 17 are housed in adult wards.

"There are 34 children in a special ward who attend school and receive special attention," Dr. Obenauf said.

"But there's not an adequate program for the rest. We're developing a program out of sheer necessity as best we can."

Dr. Obenauf said there was "no other place" to send the children.

PROBLEM CHILDREN

Half the children in the hospital are "problem children," the remainder suffering from more serious mental disorders.

He said a lack of professional personnel is restricting work at the hospital.

"On a midnight shift, we've had as few as 50 attendants on duty," he said.

Listening to the testimony of Dr. Obenauf and five other psychiatrists yesterday in Pontiac were State Senators L. Harvey Lodge (R-Oakland) and Elmer R. Porter (R-Blissfield), also chairman of the Senate Appropriations Committee.

★ ★ ★

The three other members of the bipartisan committee were not present at the hearing.

Frequently at yesterday's hearings, the testimony veered onto such matters as the nature of mental illness and the operation of hospitals.

HEARS COMPLAINTS

At one point, Porter told Obenauf he'd heard "complaints" that some patients in state hospitals weren't visited "for days at a time."

"I have a rule that a doctor visits a ward every day," Dr. Obenauf said. "It's been in effect, but sometimes there haven't been enough doctors to carry it out."

Dr. Jacques Gottlieb, director of the Lafayette Clinic in Detroit, said a major problem was where to send adolescent-age children after they had been cured.

★ ★ ★

All the psychiatrists urged more funds for research.

Sen. Lodge said hearings would be adjourned until at least 10 days after the election.

BANK ANNEX OPENS — This is the view opening day customers had on entering Community National Bank's $300,000 annex yesterday. The ground floor of the four-story Lawrence Street building houses the bank's loan department. Directly accessible from the street are tellers' cages in the basement, open 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. Monday through Saturday. The aluminum and brick annex, connected with the Bank's Saginaw Street headquarters by an overpass bridging an alley, is the first new multi-story office building in downtown Pontiac in recent history.

Election Results Not Predictable

Pollster Roper Claims He Can't Dope Out His Own Figures

CHICAGO (UPI)—Pollster Elmo Roper refused Thursday to predict who would win Tuesday's presidential election.

"At this date all I can say is I don't understand my own data," Roper told a luncheon of the Executives Club.

★ ★ ★

Roper said his October poll shows percentages of 45 to 45 with 9 per cent undecided. But he refused to say whether Sen. John F. Kennedy or Vice President Richard M. Nixon had the one-point edge.

The undecided voters, he said, "could continue to make the election close, or give either man a landslide."

Three-fourths of the undecided voters are Democrats and three-fourths are Protestant, Roper said.

Protestants were 2 to 1 for Nixon and Catholics 3½ to 1 for Kennedy, he added. Jews favor Kennedy 5 to 1 and Negroes favor him 2.2 to 1, Roper told the executives.

★ ★ ★

He said he would conduct one more nationwide poll before the election and if the percentage of undecided voters declines we will predict the outcome.

Library Dream Reality

Mayor Philip E. Rowston wielding the scissors.

The party of City Commissioners and City Hall officials planned a tour of the new building afterwards.

"Oepning the library today is an extremely proud moment for all of us," said Rowston.

The mayor recalled the many years Pontiac has dreamed and planned for an adequate library building to replace the 60-year-old Williams Street structure, which was originally constructed as a theater, not a library.

"Even when I was a youngster in the first grade," recalled Rowston, "visiting the library with my class I used to think it looked a hundred years old.

"After so many years of putting up with inadequate facilities we now have this splendid cultural addition to our civic center, thanks to our citizens who provided the funds."

Rowston emphasized the importance of library facilities to Pontiac and the rapidly-growing surrounding communities.

"It is especially rewarding to know that we are serving our youngsters, for this building and the books it contains will provide them with much of the information and background they will need to live useful lives in a world that demands more and more skills and technical knowledge."

In its new reading rooms and public areas the library can handle a couple hundred people, more than twice as many as it could in the old building, said Miss Pope.

"And we expect to be swamped," she predicted.

Available floor space will allow the city to double its book collection in the days ahead, she said.

Features include a reading lounge that can seat 35 persons, a smaller lounge where smoking is permitted, a spacious reference room seating 50, plus individual rooms for children and for youngsters in their early teens.

There are large workrooms for behind-the-scenes business such as bookbinding, cataloguing and office work.

The 75-person public meeting room in the basement will be occupied until next spring by centennial planners, who have the library dedication as one of the chief features of Pontiac's 100th anniversary year.

An elevator between ground level and the main floor is an added convenience for the aged and the physically disabled.

One of the most striking differences between the old and new libraries is the easy availability of books. Row after row of bookcases in the public area put more than 35,000 volumes within easy reach.

The new library was scheduled to remain open until 9 p.m. tonight and to reopen tomorrow from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Beginning next week, regular hours will go into effect: 9 a.m to 9 p.m. Monday through Friday and 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturdays.

Nixon Charges Jack Would Bow to Reuther

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon linked his Democratic opponent Sen. John F. Kennedy with United Auto Workers President Walter P. Reuther Thursday night as he campaigned here.

Nixon said Reuther "will have a lot to do with calling the tune in the White House" if Kennedy is elected president.

"I can think of nothing more detrimental to this nation than for any president to owe his election to, and thereby be captive of, a political boss like Walter Reuther," Nixon said in his prepared text.

Nixon made no reference to Reuther in his speech although the remarks were contained in copies of the talk given reporters.

★ ★ ★

Herbert Klein, Nixon's press secretary, said after the speech that Nixon would stand behind the prepared text.

Election Report Ruling Is Asked

Stations, Press Don't Want Clerk to Transfer Office Into TV Studio

LANSING (AP) — The State Supreme Court is expected to decide today whether a county clerk can move his office into a television station.

★ ★ ★

Four Grand Rapids radio stations and a newspaper have asked for a rule on the correct procedure for the release of election returns.

★ ★ ★

An attorney for the Grand Rapids Press, a member of the Booth Newspapers, Inc., and for radio stations WJEF, WLAV, WGRD, and WMAX, took the court action.

They filed a writ of mandamus asking that Kent County clerk Claude L. Barkley be prevented from moving his office on election night to television station WOOD. The clerk was given until 2 p.m. today to file an answer.

The plaintiffs said present plans call for sealed election returns to be sent over to the television station by courier. The returns would be fed into a computer and the results then would be announced to press and radio.

★ ★ ★

State statute requires, the plaintiffs said, that election returns should be made known to the press and other interested persons in the county clerk's office.

★ ★ ★

"This arrangement," they said, "would destroy their equal and independent right to receive returns on an impartial basis."

★ ★ ★

The plaintiffs said they would be required "to go to the private place of business of a business competitor, there to receive said returns under the scrutiny of his television cameras and to his direct radio and television broadcasting."

Unions Donate $150,000 for Midwest Candidates

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Labor has put up more than $150,000 to help candidates in nine Midwestern states, reports on file with Congress showed today.

With only two exceptions, the 11 unions involved backed Democrats.

Railway Labor's Political League (RLPL) gave $1,500, its largest single contribution in the nine-state area, to Republican Rep. John B. Bennett, seeking re-election to his eighth term from Michigan's 12th District.

Bennett is the ranking GOP member on the House Interstate Commerce Committee to which railroad legislation generally is referred.

Republican Rep. Glenn Cunningham, who has served two terms from Nebraska's 2nd District, received $200 from the Trainmens Political Education League (TPEL).

★ ★ ★

Cunningham was author of a bill requiring the post office to stop airlifting mail which did not bear airmail postage.

★ ★ ★

The largest share of labor union funds went to Illinois, where Democratic Sen. Paul H. Douglas is a candidate for re-election to a third term.

Labor contributions there totaled more than $41,000, led by $19,035 from the United Steelworkers (USW) and $11,300 from the AFL-CIO Committee on Political Education (COPE).

COPE's biggest contribution in the area was $34,000 earmarked for Democratic Sen. Pat V. McNamara's home state of Michigan. McNamara is seeking re-election to his second term. Nine unions have sent $38,681 to candidates in the state.

Minnesota, where Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D., is campaigning for a third term, received $19,044 from six labor groups.

Wisconsin, with no senatorial candidates this year, was given contributions by each of the 11 organizations for a total of $14,156.

★ ★ ★

In South Dakota, where Democratic Rep. George S. McGovern is seeking election to the Senate, labor funds totaled $12,550.

Indiana was next with a total of $12,342 for candidates for the House.

Nebraska candidates received $5,400, North Dakota $4,500, and Iowa $2,750 from the labor groups.

In addition to COPE, USW, RLPL and TPEL, the organizations included the International Ladies Garment Workers Union, Trainmens Political Education League, Amalgamated Clothing Workers, Textile Workers Union of America, United Auto Workers, Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers and the Machinists Non-Partisan League.

Dr. Finch Jury Still Locked Up

Defendants Happy After Judge Nixes Mistrial on 16th Day

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Finch murder case jury today neared its 60th hour of deliberations—deliberations a defense attorney charges have become "coercive."

Dr. R. Bernard Finch, 42, and his former mistress, Carole Tregoff, 23, grinned confidently Thursday after the doctor's attorney asked for a mistrial.

★ ★ ★

"When jurors have been deliberating this long, I don't see how they can think straight at all," he said.

The court refused to declare a mistrial.

The jury of 11 women and a man were given the case 16 days ago, after hearing 17 weeks of testimony. The surgeon and his red-haired codefendant are being tried for the second time on murder and conspiracy charges in connection with the fatal shooting of Finch's estranged wife, Barbara Jean, 36, in 1959.

Grant B. Cooper, Finch's attorney, reminded Superior Court Judge Leroy Dawson that an alternate juror had to be excused because "she became so upset that she was crying at night—so upset that your honor had to discharge her."

A jury at the first Finch trial deadlocked last March 12 after 37½ hours' deliberations.

★ ★ ★

The doctor claimed at both trials that his wife was accidentally shot as he tried to throw away a pistol during a violent scuffle.

The state says that Dr. Finch and Miss Tregoff waited in ambush to slay Mrs. Finch out of "lust and greed"—so they could marry without losing any of $750,000 in community property described in a divorce suit filed by Mrs. Finch.

He and the former Patricia Peabody Whitehead of Phoenix, Ariz., were married in a quiet ceremony at Qualicum, B.C., Tuesday. The marriage was not publicly disclosed until Thursday.

With the election just five days off, Nixon sent a telegram to all GOP state and county chairmen csaying he is supremely confident "we will win across the nation if each of you will rally your co-workers in a total commitment which will bring every voter for our ticket to the polls."

In his campaigning Nixon assailed Kennedy at every turn and his barbs got sharper as the day went on.

The Republican nominee scoffed at what he referred to as Kennedy's claims that America's defenses are shaky.

The Day in Birmingham

Beverly Hills AC Plans Opening Day Ceremonies

BIRMINGHAM — Plans are already in progress to hold opening day celebrations at the Beverly Hills Athletic Club on Memorial Day next May 30.

Ground for the new club facilities was broken last week.

More definite plans will be discussed Nov. 17 at the first meeting of the group at the Birmingham Community house.

The modern facilities are being built on Southfield Road, just south of Beverly Road.

★ ★ ★

A Southfield construction firm began moving earth last Friday and expects to complete the pool proper before winter sets in.

Construction of a contemporary cabana will begin shortly, with the fencing to be completed prior to the first of the year.

A cement apron around the pool, a 120-car parking lot, landscaping and lighting will be completed sometime in late spring, according to the construction schedule.

A stock election yesterday in the Bloomfield Hills High School gave Republican candidates for top posts a wide margin of victory.

The Nixon-Lodge team recieved 450 votes to the Kennedy-Johnson ticket of 137.

In the race for governor Republican hopeful Paul D. Bagwell was given 458 votes to Democrat John B. Swainson's 126 ballots.

Clarence Reid garnered 450 votes to Democrat T. John Lesinski's 121 votes in the race for lieutenant governor.

★ ★ ★

Pontiac by Republican candidates running for State Administrative Board positions.

Included were Clarence A. Reid, candidate for lieutenant governor; William E. Kreger, candidate for secretary of state; David R. Calhoun, running for treasurer, and from Huntington Woods; and Wendell A. Miles, candidate for attorney general.

A majority of the men and women who stopped to shake hands with Bagwell outside the Courthouse offered encouragement for Tuesday's election.

No harassment was noticed, as it was earlier in the morning at the factory.

This was the last trip of Bagwell's to Oakland County before the election. He said should he lose to Swainson he would never run again.

'40 PCT. IN WAYNE COUNTY'

He ventured that he would get at least 40 per cent in Democratic stronghold Wayne County.

One man who chatted with Bagwell sported a Swainson button. "It's going to be a close race," the man said, wishing Bagwell goodluck.

Mrs. Donna Gooden, of 2621 Garland St., Lake Orion, told Bagwell, "I'm still undecided but I'm still listening."

★ ★ ★

Bagwell smiled and repeated his statements that "I'd like to work for you."

Attracting persons to the street corner was a six-piece band of Rochester teen-agers.

One youth playing the trombone fought off the 45-degree chill of the morning by wearing gloves.

Before the Bagwell party left for appearances in Grand Blanc and Flint, the candidate personally invited the six youths to play at his inaugural in Lansing.

County Democrats tried their best in a silent way to counteract Bagwell's reception in the downtown area.

Three sign-bearing cars and trailers were parked across Saginaw street.

One Democratic candidate — S. Jerome Bronson, candidate for the State Senate — stopped by to say hello to Bagwell.

"You notice how friendly this crowd is" Bagwell turned and said to an aide. "This is 100 per cent better than what I received earlier this morning."

One passerby apparently didn't realize what was going on.

ASKS ABOUT TEMPEST

He tugged at the coat sleeve of this same aide and asked how much the new Pontiac Tempest automobile sells for.

It was on display on a platform on the Courthouse lawn behind Bagwell.

Cardinal Mindszenty in 5th Refuge Year

BUDAPEST, Hungary (AP) — Josef Cardinal Mindszenty, Roman Catholic primate of Hungary, today began his fifth year of refuge in the U.S. Legation in Budapest.

They sit in relays, usually reading paperback thrillers. But the cardinal shows no intention of trying to leave.

★ ★ ★

Cardinal Mindszenty has known only one week of real freedom in the last 12 years. He was jailed for life in 1948 after conviction on Communist charges of treason, disloyalty and currency violations. The Hungarian rebels freed him in their 1956 uprising, but as Soviet tanks crushed the revolt, he made his way across Budapest to find asylum with the Americans.

The cardinal is living out his remaining years in a three-room apartment on an upper floor designed originally for the occasional use of the U.S. minister.

One of the few statements that American diplomats will volunteer about the cardinal is that his health is good. But they worry always about what would happen should he fall seriously ill and need hospital care.

'Munkyshines' Turn Typewriter Into Weapon

BIG BLUE LAKE (UPI)—Mrs. Fred Gley, Big Blue Lake correspondent for the Muskegon Chronicle, explained to the newspaper's state editor why it was possible her reports were late after she returned from a vacation.

"I removed the cover of my typewriter and slipped the paper between the roller and, like a virtuoso, placed my fingers on the keys. This was the moment I had been waiting for.

"I raised my hands and struck the keys. Bing, bang! Something struck me in the face! I struck again, and once again I felt a smarting sting.

★ ★ ★

"I investigated and found I was being bombarded with acorns. The little chipmunk I thought so cute with his antics at the back door had invaded my sanctuary and filled my machine with acorns.

"Is my news late? Now you know the reason."

Jack's Odds 7½-5 in New York City

NEW YORK (UPI) — Bookmakers' odds on the presidential election gave a 7½-5 edge to Sen. John F. Kennedy in New York today.

★ ★ ★

Odds quoted for New York State were 3-1 for Kennedy over Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

One large Midwest bookie was quoted as rating Kennedy an 11-5 choice, and in Las Vegas, Kennedy was a 9-5 favorite.

Big gambling houses in Nevada have taken down their listings on the presidential race because of a 1919 statute making it illegal for gamblers to accept bets on a presidential election.

★ ★ ★

Betting on the presidential race was reported to be light across the country, leading some bookmakers to conclude that the odds might not reflect an accurate indication of the voters' intentions.

Ticker Tape Parades Bowing to Progress

NEW YORK (UPI) — There was very little ticker tape in the ticker tape parade for President Eisenhower and Vice President Richard M. Nixon Wednesday but more than 11 tons of paper and confetti showered down on them.

The great financial houses along Broadway and adjacent Wall Street have turned to more advanced means of transmitting financial information in recent years.

Ticker tape, as a result, is rather scarce.

Whenever there is a ticker tape parade up Broadway's canyon of heroes for visiting dignitaries these days, confetti, shredded paper and paper streamers are purchased and delivered to the buildings in the area for distribution to the offices facing on the street.

BACKLOG STORED

The Downtown-Lower Manhattan Association provides the confetti used for visiting chiefs of state and other nonpolitical figures.

It keeps a backlog stored in the buildings for use on short notice.

Most of the supply of confetti for Wednesday's parade was bought and distributed by the New York State Independent Citizens for Nixon-Lodge.

The organization bought five tons of confetti and six tons of shredded paper, which was distributed Tuesday night.

* * *

An official of the organization said the confetti cost about $2,500 and that the head of the shredded paper company gave the Republicans a "discount," describing himself as "very, very Republican."

A spokesman for the Citizens for Kennedy-Johnson organization, which helped arrange a similar parade for Sen. John F. Kennedy two weeks ago, said the organization did not buy and distribute confetti for that parade.

The spokesman said the confetti and streamers apparently came from offices along the route and conceded that there appeared to be more confetti Wednesday than at the Kennedy parade.

She got the transfer.

Economic Gap Narrows 'Tween Negroes, Whites

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell reported Wednesday the country has made "genuinely significant" progress in closing the economic gap between its Negro and white citizens.

Mitchell presented to the White House a Labor Department study of Negro gains in income, education, home ownership and job status.

★ ★ ★

Average earnings of nonwhite men have risen from 41 per cent of those of white workers to 58 per cent in the past 20 years, the report showed.

"Over the same period, the percentage of Negroes in professional and skilled work doubled," Mitchell told President Eisenhower in a letter accompanying the report.

However, the secretary said the report reveals that Negro unemployment rates remain disproportionately high because fewer Negroes have acquired high skills. He noted that in several other respects —including substandard housing and "seriously impaired" access to public accommodation and transportation — the economic condition of Negroes needs much improvement.

★ ★ ★

The report, Mitchell wrote, "is not a basis for complacency but a spur to continued action."

Nonwhite citizens, whose number has increased in the last decade more rapidly than the number of whites, now make up more than 11 per cent of the population, the report said.

★ ★ ★

Whereas in 1900 three-fourths of Negro citizens lived in southern rural areas, only one-third do so now. Another third live in northern and western cities, and the other third in southern cities.

The median income of nonewhite males in 1958 was $2,652 compared with $4,569 for white males.

Mitchell noted that the number of years completed in school has increased for Negro boys and girls at more than double the rate of white youngsters.

Negro college enrollment increased by 86.4 per cent between 1950 and 1958, compared with a 49.8 per cent among white youths.

However, the report showed that only 212,000 nonwhite students were enrolled in colleges in 1958 compared with 3,242,000 white students —a ratio of about one Negro youth to every 16 white youths.

★ ★ ★

"Despite the use of restrictive covenants and other forms of discriminatory real estate sales, home ownership by Negro families has become increasingly extensive," Mitchell said.

"By 1956, 36 per cent owned their own dwellings, with the corresponding figures for white families at 46 per cent."

Car Registrations Up in September

DETROIT (AP) — New car registrations in September were up fractionally from a year ago, R. L. Polk & Co. reports, reversing a downward trend which began in July.

★ ★ ★

The statistical firm said registrations of 458,765 compared with 457,201 in September 1959. July and August had trailed year-ago figures.

Total registrations for the first nine months were 4,041,869, Polk said. This is 4 per cent ahead of 1950 which up to now has been the second best auto sales year. The best was 1955.

Polk said registrations of domestic compact cars fell off for the first time in a year compared with total registrations. They accounted for 120,134 units or 26.2 per cent compared with 26.3 per cent in August.

★ ★

Foreign car registrations of 40,441 took the highest share of the market — 8.8 per cent — since January. But a year ago the imports accounted for 11.8 per cent of all cars sold during September.

Red Meat Production 6 Per Cent Higher

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Agriculture Department reported today production of red meat during the first nine months of 1960 was 6 per cent higher than in the corresponding period last year.

★ ★ ★

Commercial slaughter for the January-September period totaled 20,117,000,000 pounds. This compares with 18,941,000,000 pounds during the same period of 1959.

Has Son Free of Charge

ST. ALBANS, Vt. (UPI)—There was no charge to Mrs. Gloria Hemond when she gave birth to her first son at Kerbs Memorial Hospital. He was the 5,000th baby born at the hospital since it opened in 1949. Mrs. Hemond's two daughters were born at the same hospital.

The first woman ever elected to the United States Senate was Mrs. Hattie W. Caraway of Jonesboro, Ark., in 1932.

Skin Divers Profit From Salvaging of Logs

COEUR d'ALENE, Idaho (UPI) — Skin divers Robert Stillman and William Graham have been salvaging 9,000 to 12,000 board feet of logs per day from the St. Joe River near here.

★ ★ ★

The logs are sold to a lumber company. The men use a special barge, sponge rubber diving suits and breathing apparatus to retrieve the logs.

The 72-year-old Hamilton politely explained that he didn't have false teeth.

28 Women Will Bid for Seats in National Election Tuesday

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Nineteen Democratic and nine Republican women are bidding for congressional seats in next Tuesday's election and the make-up of the new House and Senate will include at least two of them.

A compilation of female candidates also shows that two women are running as vice president on minor party tickets and nine others are seeking congressional seats as splinter party standard bearers. None of these are given much chance of success.

However, it is certain that Maine will send a woman to the Senate this year since Republican Sen. Margaret Chase Smith is seeking re-election against Miss Lucia M. Cormier, a Democratic rival. It is the first all-female Senate fight in U.S. political history.

Mrs. Maurine Neuberger is making a strong bid on the Democratic ticket to win the U.S. Senate seat in Oregon left vacant by the death of her husband.

SHE'S UNOPPOSED

In addition, Rep. Iris Blitch, a Georgia Democrat, is unopposed in her bid for re-election to the House.

Thirteen incumbent woman House members—seven of them Republicans, six of them Democrats are running for re-election. They are Reps. Gracie Pfost, D-Ida.; Martha Griffiths, D-Mich.; McC. Weis, R-N.Y.; Katherine St. George, R-N.Y.; Edna F. Kelly, D-N.Y.; Frances P. Bolton, R-Ohio; Edith Green, D-Ore.; Kathryn Granahan, D-Pa.; Catherine May, R-Wash., and Elizabeth Kee, D-W. Va.

Former Democrat Congresswoman Coya Knutson of Minnesota, who lost in 1958 after her husband's "Coya, come home" appeal, is trying to recapture her seat.

New women Democratic challengers are Mrs. Rudd Brown of California; Miss Dorothy G. O'Brien of Illinois; Mary Kennedy of Massachusetts; Mary M. Harden of Michigan; Mrs. Katharine E. White of New Jersey; Mrs. Margaret L. Walgren of Pennsylvania; Mrs. Julia Butler Hansen of Washington and Gladys Davis of Ohio who is running to fill a House vacancy only until the new Congress convenes in January.

★ ★ ★

Republican women candidates who are hopeful of winning first term elections are Mrs. Phyllis S. Schafly of Illinois and Mrs. Lois Nair of Michigan.

There are no definite figures on the number of women voters but the general estimate is that they cast slightly more than half of the ballots in most national elections.

Candidates Seek Small Prize

Dwindling Farm Vote Losing Its Importance

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Politicians chasing the farm vote in this election are after the smallest prize in the history of American campaigns.

★ ★ ★

Whether the prize is too small to be important if the presidential election is close is another question. Both Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Sen. John F. Kennedy are apparently operating on the theory that the 1960 farm voter is worth as much attention as ever.

★ ★ ★

Nixon and Kennedy have agreed in campaign speeches that the combination of falling farm income and rising government farm surpluses is close to or at the top of the list of domestic problems. Both are bidding for the farmers' vote with sharply contrasting farm plans.

But neither Democrats nor Republicans can provide a flat answer yet to the biggest unanswered question of the Farm Belt campaign—will the 1960 farm vote be a "pocketbook protest" vote

The potential size of the farm vote this year is easier to fix. Farmers today make up no more than 11.5 per cent of the total population, and final census figures may show an even smaller proportion.

★ ★ ★

This indicates that only about one out of every 10 voters will be a member of a farm family. That's a considerable change from the proportion in 1932 when many of today's middle-aged voters were casting their first ballots.

When Franklin D. Roosevelt ran for his first term in 1932, about one American in every four was classed as a member of the farm population.

In the "Farm Belt" states of the Midwest, where the farm issue traditionally is sharpest, the farm population is more important than the national average would indicate.

Even here, however, the proportion of farmers has declined and their political importance is on the wane.

Sandstrom said the Bendix Systems Division will be responsible for the design of the satellite repeater, special - purpose ground equipment and checkout equipment. The division also will provide the communication system's engineering.

Purchase of U.S. Bonds Up $10 Million in State

DETROIT (UPI) — The purchase of U.S. Series E and H savings bonds in Michigan is more than 10 million dollars above last year, a U.S. Treasury report says.

For the first nine months of this year the purchases total was $196,646,000, compared with $184,900,000 for the same period last year.

Wins Damages Because Crash Made Hair White

LONDON (AP)—Horace Ford's black hair turned white after a bus he was driving and a truck collided in 1957.

In awarding Ford $4,130 damages Thursday, the judge said: "He has had all the real enjoyment taken out of his life for the last three years."

★ ★ ★

Ford's hair was black when he appeared in court, because he dyes it regularly.

"If you go to an employer with a head of white hair and try to get a job, he will say, 'Here's an old fellow who can't do hard work,'" Ford explained.

Ford, now 52, works in a garage.

Ike's Brother Quits 2 Posts, Keeps Third

WASHINGTON (AP)—Dr. Milton Eisenhower is stepping out of two advisory posts he has held under the presidential administration of his brother, but is retaining a third he tried to resign.

President Eisenhower accepted Thursday Milton Eisenhower's resignation from the President's Advisory Committee on Government Organization and from the National Advisory Committee on Inter-American affairs.

The President's brother agreed at the suggestion of the Navy and the urging of the President, to continue for a time on the Board of Visitors of the U.S. Naval Academy.

13 States to Decide on War Leadership

Side Issues Provide Election Sidelight

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Voters in 13 states will decide next Tuesday whether to empower their state lawmakers to create a new state government in event the existing one is destroyed or paralyzed by enemy attack.

On the ballot in two Southern states—Mississippi and Arkansas—are proposals designed to make it easier for authorities to close down public schools threatened with racial integration.

Segregationist forces also are urging voters in Mississippi to ratify an amendment to the state constitution that would permit a county registrar to deny voting rights to anyone he judges is not of "good moral character."

★ ★ ★

On the other hand, two Western states—Idaho and Oregon—will ballot on proposals that would liberalize voting requirements and permit more persons in those states to vote in the 1964 presidential election.

The question on the Idaho ballot is whether to lower the voting age to 19. Four states now permit citizens younger than 21 to vote. The voting age is 20 in Hawaii, 19 in Alaska, and 18 in Georgia and Kentucky.

The issue in Oregon is whether to permit voting in future presidential elections by persons who have just moved into that state.

If adopted, the proposal would eliminate a six months' residence requirement for voting for president and vice president but retain it for other election contests.

CONSIDER REVISION

In West Virginia the citizens will decide whether to revise the preamble of their state constitution to include an expression of belief in God.

Other proposals placed before the voters in the coming election would curb highway billboards in Oregon, relax curbs on sale of liquor in Maine and Washington, allow district attorneys in Oregon to bring suspected law breakers to trial without a grand jury indictment, approve tax relief for elderly homeowners of modest incomes in New Jersey and add $1 to the cost of marrying in Georgia. The Georgia fee would finance pensions for the officials who issue the marriage licenses.

The proposal which is on more state ballots than any other provides for "continuity" of state governments in event of enemy attack.

It would revamp state constitutions to permit the state legislature to move a bombed-out state capital to a new location, and name successors to governors or other officials killed by enemy action.

★ ★ ★

In one form or another this proposal will be voted on in Idaho, Kansas, Maine, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New Mexico, Oregon, South Carolina, South Dakota, Utah and West Virginia.

Four states already have taken similar action—Michigan and California by constitutional amendment and Iowa and Pennsylvania by state law.

Under prodding from federal civil defense authorities, 21 other states have adopted, or have begun the process of adopting, less sweeping measures to provide for continuity of government in emergency.

Johnson Continues 'at Home' Campaign

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—Tanned, happy and exuding confidence, Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson continued today a five-day tour of Texas in quest of two high offices and Texas' 24 electoral votes.

Johnson, seeking the vice presidency and re-election to the Senate on the Democratic ticket, flew in Thursday from a Northwest Texas rendezvous and two appearances with the Democratic standard bearer, Sen. John F. Kennedy.

Johnson was to spend the day in the Dallas-Fort Worth area and then was to fly to Houston for a television appearance.

Section Set to Turn Layettes In

The Carol Brooks Group Continues 29-Year Tradition

By MARY ANGLEMIER

It takes more than 3,000 yards of outing flannel to complete the 75 layettes which members of Carol Brooks Section of the Pontiac Branch of Needlework Guild make annually.

President Mrs. Glenn H. Griffin said members met Thursday at the Young Women's Christian Association to assemble nightgowns, shirts, blankets and diapers into layettes.

They will be contributed on Nov. 10 at the annual ingathering in the First Presbyterian Church.

The group meets once a month at the Y to cut and sew infant wear. Some sewing is done at home.

★ ★ ★

Working with Mrs. Griffin as fellow officers are Mrs. Bruce J. Annett, vice president; Mrs. D. B. Eames, recording secretary; Mrs. Verne C. Hampton, treasurer; and Mrs. Palmer S. Bundy, corresponding secretary.

The board of directors is comprised of Mrs. Robert J. Alton, Mrs. Edward P. Barrett, Mrs. Milo J. Cross, Mrs. Russell H. Galbraith, Mrs. William S. Isgrigg, Mrs. John H. Patterson, Mrs. John A. Riley and Mrs. Charles S. Wixom.

29 YEARS OLD

The Carol Brooks Section had its beginning about 29 years ago when Mrs. Vern C. Markley learned that the Visiting Nurse Association was in desperate need of layettes for emergencies.

Mrs. Markley was determined to do something about the situation, so she asked Mrs. Harold A. Fitzgerald and Mrs. Harold E. Howlett to help her form a group of women who would be interested in sewing once a month on layettes.

★ ★ ★

Later the group became affiliated with the Pontiac Branch of Needlework Guild of America, Inc.

The first meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Markley at Mary Day Avenue and Palmer Street.

Mrs. Harold A. Furlong was elected to serve as first president when Mrs. Fitzgerald opened her home for organization. Mrs. Howlett was named secretary and Mrs. Fitzgerald, treasurer.

DURING DEPRESSION

This was during the depression years when men were out of work, banks were closing, and funds of charitable organizations were gone. During the early years the group sponsored silver teas, fashion shows and bridge parties to finance the buying of bolts of flannel used in making the layettes.

★ ★ ★

Among the charter members were Mrs. C. Sanborn Hutchins, Mrs. Stuart E. Whitfield, Mrs. Loren C. Sheffield, Mrs. Bertil T. Larson, Mrs. Howard B. Barker, Mrs. Calton C. Patterson, Mrs. Clifford T. Ekelund, Mrs. John D. Millis, Mrs. Henry A. Houston Jr., and Mrs. L. Warren Gatley.

★ ★ ★

Others were Mrs. E. Hardy Luther, Mrs. Harold A. St. John, Mrs. Claire Gaukler, Mrs. Russell V. Thurston, Mrs. Noyce W. Strait, Mrs. Harold E. Groves, Mrs. Edwin H. Hallett, Mrs. J. Kenneth Eddy, Mrs. Aaron D. Riker, and the late Mrs. John E. Clark, Mrs. George K. Zimmerman and Mrs. Harold L. Ward.

The November meeting of the Pontiac Tuesday Musicale will feature these area musicians in "Music Old and New." Preparing the program are (from left) William Casey of Lone Pine Road, Bloomfield Hills; Mrs. Clark Pardee of Walnut Hill Road, Birmingham; Mrs. Robert Killeen of Yosemite Boulevard, Birmingham; and Robert Bates of Greenwood Avenue, Birmingham. They will present renaissance and baroque music at the Tuesday afternoon meeting at Grace Lutheran Church.

Old and New Will Blend in Next Pontiac Musicale

An unusual program will be presented to members of the Pontiac Tuesday Musicale and their guests Tuesday afternoon at Grace Lutheran Church.

Using the theme "Music, Old and New" four well-known area musicians will illustrate little-known periods of music with vocal and instrumental selections.

William Casey and Robert Bates will perform music from the Renaissance, early English and French and Baroque periods. They will then contrast these periods with music in the modern idiom.

Assisting Casey and Bates vocally throughout the program will be Mrs. Robert Killeen. Mrs. Clark Pardee will play the viola.

Mr. Casey has been associated with the music department at Brookdale School for many years. Acting as commentator, he will also play the guitar, flute and clarinet.

Close associate of Casey is Mr. Bates, music instructor at Cranbrook. He will be heard primarily as a pianist.

Just Say No and Mean It

EMILY POST
Good Taste Today

Dear Mrs. Post: The other evening I was with two friends who got into an argument about something. One of them turned to me and asked me who I thought was right. I don't like getting mixed up in other people's disagreements, but when asked point-blank to give my opinion I felt there was nothing but to give it.

I said I thought Mary was right, whereupon the other friend became hurt because I did not agree with her. This is certainly an unpleasant spot in which to be placed and to make sure that I don't get involved again, will you please tell me how I can tactfully avoid taking sides?

★ ★ ★

Answer: Just say, "I refuse to take sides; you'll have to settle it yourselves" — and stick to it.

★ ★ ★

Dear Mrs. Post: The son of very good friends of ours is in a seminary studying for the priesthood. He will finish his training soon and will celebrate his first mass here.

I have known this young man all of his life and have always called him Tom. Will you please tell me what to call him after he becomes a priest?

Answer: It would be lacking in proper respect to call him Tom. But it would be quite proper for old friends to call him "Father Tom."

Help Out Ex-Prisoners

By GAY PAULEY

NEW YORK (UPI)—As the anonymous poet once put it, "There is so much good in the worst of us, and so much bad in the best of us . . ."

A private, nonprofit and nonsectarian organization in New York believes that in every person there is the hidden spark to do better no matter what the depths reached in the past.

★ ★ ★

For 116 years, the Women's Prison Association has worked quietly in this belief—helping to bring that spark to the surface and rehabilitate women criminals, women on court probation, women who may have had only one minor brush with the law.

The association believes it is unique in the nation, although it has had inquiries from other cities on how its program works.

RESTORES DIGNITY

It specializes in "case work"—offers a temporary home for women who are out of prison or on probation, provides clothing, financial aid, marital counseling, helps them locate jobs, helps train them in careers if they show sufficient ambition, offers psychiatric aid if it is needed, and above all else tries to "restore the dignity and self-respect of even the lowest of the low."

★ ★ ★

"We try to offer love, warmth and understanding," said Doris S. Whitney, executive director. "Women come from prison frightened to death . . . so scared they sometimes try to get back in jail because it offers security.

"We feel we help them tremendously just by offering them a home during that period of confusion . . ."

★ ★ ★

The association never cuts off help to those who seek it voluntarily. It is proud of the thousands it has aided. "But let's face it," sighed Dr. Ethel E. Wortis, treasurer, and on the association board for 25 years, "Some of our girls get back into trouble. But we never give them up."

Dr. Wortis, an internist, is a descendant of the association founder, Isaac T. Hopper, and is married to a psychiatrist on the New York University medical college staff.

Miss Whitney, a native of Prescott, Me., holds bachelor's and master's degrees in sociology from New York University. She formerly was superintendent of the Illinois State Reformatory for Women, director of the Michigan House of Correction for Women, and before joining the association was on the staff of the New York commissioner of corrections.

All of the association's support, except for some income from an endowment, comes from charitable contributions.

Miss Whitney said the association helps from 100 to 200 new cases each year, and continuing cases push the total to 400 a year. The age range is from 16 on up.

Some of the women have done time for severe crimes. But most have been charged with prostitution or as "wayward minors"—which Dr. Wortis said wryly, "covers a multitude of sins."

In most cases, they "had many strikes against them before they reached adulthood," said Dr. Wortis. "Some were products of broken homes, some had one parent in a mental institution, and few seemed to have had any religious training."

Party Follows the Finale of 'Fever Follies'

A successful final performance of Hi Fever Follies of Sixty" was capped by a cast party Thursday evening at Elks Temple.

★ ★ ★

During the festivities, Director William Cain paid special tribute to dancer Jackie Rae Voorheis whose opening tap dance was a last-minute "pinch-hit" performance for a previously scheduled performer.

Others receiving special thanks were pianist Mrs. John McCallum, saxophonist Robert Wiegand, who arranged for musical accompaniment, drummer Harry Jones, and organist Cliff Wiegand.

★ ★ ★

Mr. Cain thanked the many behind-the-scenes workers for making the annual affair a success.

Abby Says: Get a Sponsor

Most Pen Pals for the Birds

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I was happy to see you state in your column that writing to strangers was "for the birds." At first glance you might have appeared heartless because there are so many deserving people who want pen pals.

ABBY

But you were right, Abby; it is much safer to develop a pen pal through a third party who knows both parties fairly well.

My sister, a widow, 53, found a "pen pal" through a magazine. Before she was through, it cost her $3,600 and attorney fees. Her "pen pal" posed as a retired farmer, widower and church-going Lutheran.

He turned out to be a married man with a long record for embezzlements, no Lutheran, and all he had was a flair for writing and a good imagination.

WITH YOU ALL THE WAY

DEAR ABBY: I am the mother of five grown children. Each has made me a grandma many times. My son had four children. His wife got involved with another man (married) and bore him a child, but my son continues to live with her because of their other children.

She says she is ashamed and sorry, but we are heartbroken. My problem is that my income is small. I always remember my grandchildren on Christmas and their birthdays.

Should I, knowing this child is nothing to me, give him a birthday and Christmas gift?

NOT HIS GRANDMA

DEAR NOT: Certainly. Why punish the child for his mother's mistake?

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: My next door neighbor is the best hearted person in the world. She's always doing something nice for people, and everyone likes her. But she can't get through two sentences without using half a dozen swear words.

When she comes over I send my youngsters outside so they won't pick up any of the terrible words she uses. Some say to ignore it. Others say to tell her off. What do you say?

GOOD NEIGHBOR

DEAR NEIGHBOR: Don't tell her off — tell her. A practical solution for chronic cursers is to substitute some home-made goobledygook for some of the stronger epithets. It may not convert a mule skinner into a choir boy overnight — but it will help.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: Do people REALLY get gray hair from worrying or is it just a natural phenomenon?

NOT GRAY YET

★ ★ ★

DEAR NOT GRAY: It's a combination of the hereditary factors, a natural phenomenon. Some people have been known to "turn gray" from a shattering emotional experience.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: According to my grandmother, who is 92, only one clock was stopped in the house when a person died. The reason being that when the coroner came around to write up the death certificate there would be no question as to the exact time of the death. There was no superstition to it.

DEAR ABBY: When I was a little girl, I recall seeing my mother stop the big grandfather clock that stood in our hallway. I asked her why she was stopping the clock and she told me my brother had died, and there should be no chimes or bells in a house of mourning. She was Hungarian-born, so I imagine this was an old Hungarian custom.

4 Communities to Decide Local Issues Tuesday

Study Cost Saving in Romeo Schools

ROMEO — The Romeo Board of Education last night continued its study of a proposed building program, considering revisions that would reduce the cost from $662,200 to $610,000.

The latest plans, which would afford a savings of $52,200, were based on a decision to add rooms onto existing elementary schools rather than building a new grade school.

A preliminary report from the architectural firm of Eberle M. Smith Associates Inc. of Detroit to the board Oct. 10 offered plans for 27 rooms to be added in the district.

They included a new elementary school containing five classrooms, plus a special education room, offices, boiler room and storage space.

Also planned initially were the addition of a multipurpose room and two classrooms plus a special education room to the Wsshington Grade School and conversion of certain space at the North School in Romeo to offices and faculty rooms.

Seven classrooms, a special education room and auxiliary space were to be added to the senior high school and a like number of classrooms, special education room, new boiler and boiler room to the junior high in the early program.

Summarizing, the buildings would have cost $571,200, equipment, $42,000; new site, $15,000; and fees, $34,000; making the total, $662,200.

This figure does not include the special education rooms for which the cost totaling $66,500 in this case would be shared by the county.

Last night the architects' revised program which eliminated the new elementary school, substituting five additional classrooms to existing schools, was discussed at length.

Under this plan four classrooms would be added to the Washington School and three to the South School in Romeo. The special education room which would have been added at the new school was eliminated.

This adjustment would raise the estimated cost of the Washington School improvements from $132,500 to $193,000, not including the special education room which would remain the same.

The board expressed its prime objective is to offer equal educational advantages in each elementary school.

★ ★ ★

Board mmbers also want a program that they can "sell" in all parts of the district. The planning is being geared to handle school building needs through 1964, they aid.

Subsequent meetings are planned with the architects before the board makes any decision about the size of the bond issue and millage to be asked for the building program.

State police had charged that Strong set a fire which leveled the home at 76474 Romeo Plank Road, owned by Mrs. Shirley Lilly of Warren.

Officials Review Con-Con Aims

More Than 90 Gather to Discuss Proposal at Plymouth Meeting

More than 90 elected officials from Oakland and Wayne counties met last night in Plymouth to discuss mutual aims and review the constitutional convention proposal appearing on Tuesday's ballot.

The event was the annual Congressional District meeting of the Michigan Township Association.

★ ★

Representatives of the 14th, 16th and 18th disetricts were on hand at the meeting held at the Arbor Lill restaurant.

The meeting was designed to bring together those who make laws and those who must carry them out.

All elected officials in Independence and Avon Townships turned out in full force, according to Floyd Cairns, Farmington Township clerk, and association director for Oakland County.

★ ★

Bloomfield Township Arno Hulet welcomed the guests from Oakland County.

Joseph Parisi, executive director of the Michigan Townships Association, reviewed the association's opposing stand to the Constitutial Convention proposal.

The school financing proposal appearing on Tuesday's ballot, and backed by the association, also was discussed.

New election laws were explained by the representative of the State Election Commission.

Decisions Loom in Milford, White Lake, Troy, Utica

Voters in four neighboring communities—White Lake Township, Milford, Troy and Utica—will cast ballots on local issues in addition to electing candidates national, state and county posts in Tuesday's presidential election.

Following is the lineup of proposals to be on the ballots in each of these municipalities.

MILFORD

Some Mildord voters will cast ballots twice Tuesday.

Along with the general election, but conducted separately, will be a special election using paper ballots on a proposed $142,000 bond issue for capital improvements.

The bond issue will be decided only by village property owners.

★ ★ ★

The bond issue, if approved, would finance paving of approximately 4½ miles of streets, construction of curbs and gutters and three storm sewers.

Approval of the 15-year general obligation bonds would mean no increase in taxes to property owners, village officials have emphasized.

However, if approved, the bond issue, only a portion of the improvement program cost, would need the assistance of assessment districts to finance about $105,000 more.

★ ★ ★

Another $23,000 in the village treasury would be paid out for a total of some $270,000 in major improvements.

Assessments would be levied against property owners on new curbs and one-eighth of the paving cost. Assessments would be spread over a five-year period.

★ ★ ★

Storm sewers would be constructed in the south end and the northeast section of the village and would be financed entirely by the bond issue.

WHITE LAKE TOWNSHIP

White Lake Township will vote on two local propositions. Both are aimed at providing funds for operation of the police and fire departments.

★ ★ ★

The first proposition seeks voter approval to go over the 15-mill county limitation.

The other proposition, which goes hand-in-hand with the first, seeks a one-mill increase in taxes for each $1,000 of assessed valuation.

Approximately $10,000 annually could be realized for police and fire department operation if the propositions are approved.

★ ★ ★

Originally the request for police and fire aid was to appear on the August primary ballot.

However, officials learned too late that it was necessary to ask voters for permission to go over the 15-mill limitation, and the one-mill tax hike proposal was postponed.

The propositions are to run for a five-year period.

★ ★ ★

Approval to place the fund request on the ballot was given by residents at the annual township meeting in April.

TROY

Almost forgotten in the midst of national and state election campaigns is a city charter amendment concerning tax refunds which will be on the ballot here Tuesday.

★ ★ ★

If approved, the proposal would provide for refunding all surplus tax assessments in cash to the property owner who was overcharged.

Under the present system, all overpayments on tax assessments are held in escrow by the city and applied to future taxes on the property, according to City Clerk J. Lawson Lockhart.

Troy commissioners believe the amendment would allow for a fairer method of refunding excess tax payments. It also would save the city from extra bookkeeping, Lockhart said.

★ ★ ★

If the owner of a piece of property is overtaxed, he may miss out in the refund if he sells it before the time comes for the following year's tax to be paid.

The amendment was approved by the Troy Commission March 14. It was first slated for the April 4 ballot and later for the Aug. 2 election.

Both delays resulted from rewording of the amendment.

UTICA

Because of the number of local issues, voters here will be supplied with paper ballots, according to City Clerk Edward Havel.

★ ★ ★

Five charter amendment proposals, four of them requests to increase salaries of city officials, are being put before Utica voters.

Voters are being asked to double the mayor's salary from $500 to $1,000 a year and to boost city councilmen's salaries from $10 to $20 per council meeting.

The City Council also wants to be given authority to set salaries for the city treasurer and city assessor rather than being bound to certain figures by Utica's charter.

★ ★ ★

Under the present charter, the treasurer receives 1½ per cent of collected taxes as his pay while the assessor is given an annual salary of $500.

★ ★ ★

Havel reports that present salaries were set in 1937. He said the salary increases are requested because of the added responsibilities of local officials.

The fifth proposal asks voter approval of a change in dates of the city's fiscal year, which presently starts Jan. 1 and ends Dec. 31.

★ ★ ★

If the change is approved, the fiscal year would begin July 1 and end the following June 30.

Wixom Home Is Damaged by Blaze

WIXOM — A fire in a one-story brick home last night caused $4,000 damage, Commerce Township Fire Chief Clarence Kuttkuhn estimated today.

Kuttkuhn said the fire at 2087 N. Wixom Road was started by a smoldering cigarette in an overstuffed chair. The house is owned by Frank Geller of Wixom and rented by Robert Sereno.

The alarm was turned in by Wixom police on patrol.

The fire chief said that damage included $3,000 to the house and $1,000 to contents.

Prize List

Top 5 prizes are guaranteed by The Press, and the entire prize fund will be returned 100% to the purse. One of every seven qualifiers at each house will enter the finals. Trophies for winners and each top qualifier. Each qualifier assured of a prize.

Entries can now be turned in for the 4th annual Pontiac Press Bowlerama which will start one month from today, December 4th at the first of three qualifying houses.

Bigger and better prizes, larger guarantees and there are more chances to win for the men bowlers this year.

Because of the elimination of the women's division of the tournament, the guaranteed top five prizes has been raised to total $1125. Besides this, one of every seven entries is assured of a prize.

Last year 600 men entered the tournament with three top guaranteed prizes totaling $300, and 75 bowlers walked off with portion of the purse plus trophy awards.

★ ★ ★

Every qualifier is assured of getting a prize and the Bowlerama champion is guaranteed $500. On top of this he is certain of getting a percentage of the purse which has happened in the last three years.

There is no change in entry fees which stands at $6. Runnerup is assured of at least $250, with $150 for third, $125 for fourth and $100 for fifth.

The breakdown of the purse will continue down the line with every qualifier getting a share.

★ ★ ★

Bowlers have the choice of their qualifying date and house. The innovation this year is for the advantage for those who fail to qualify the first week, giving them an opportunity to try again.

First qualifying day is December 4th at Howe's Lanes, newly modernized alleys on Dixie Highway.

★ ★ ★

On the following Sunday, December 11th, qualifying will take place at Sylvan Lanes and Montcalm Centre. Bowlers can make their choice of sites, however, once all squads are filled up to a given time, the remaining qualifiers will have to fill the open times at the other qualifying site.

This should encourage bowlers to get their entries in early with their choices. First entries will be given preference of time and site.

The finals this year will be held at Lakewood Lanes, Sunday December 18th.

★ ★ ★

The tournament is open to all residents of Oakland County or bowlers residing outside the county who are members of bona fide leagues at bowling establishments inside the county.

As for example there are many bowlers residing in Romeo, Utica, Lapeer, and other communities outside Oakland County but are members of bowling leagues in Pontiac, Rochester and other county areas.

Bowlers must present their final league average of the 1959-60 season. If they do not have such an average it must be for the highest 18 games of the current season.

★ ★ ★

Bowlers should specify this on their entry, otherwise any falsification of averages will result in disqualification and forfeiture of prizes.

The deadline for each qualifying date is the Wednesday midnight prior to that date. For the December 4th date the deadline would be Wednesday, November 30th.

Averages should not trouble bowlers. In the past three tournaments bowlers with averages as low as 108 have been among the winners.

★ ★ ★

Another feature of the tournament will be the 2nd annual Bowlerama Pontiac City Actuals Invitational tournament.

This is run in conjunction with the Bowlerama, whereas the top actual bowlers are invited to compete for the Bowlerama City prizes going to the winner and runnerup.

Last year, Joe Myers, a 15-year old St. Michael High sophomore took the Bowlerama championship and Bob Gormong was the Actuals Champion with a 631.

The entry blank appearing on the sports page of The Press can be used. Entries must be mailed or left at respective bowling establishments with entry fees, or they can be delivered to the Press sports department. Make all checks payable to The Pontiac Press.

TOURNAMENT RULES

1. Bowlers must present final league average of the end of 1959-60 season.

Top-Rated Wolves Clip PCH, 34-13

By BILL CORNWELL

BAY CITY — "Fumbles lost" and "passes intercepted by," two small lines of type in the final statistics, go a long way toward telling the story of Pontiac Central's loss here Thursday night.

A hard-hitting, well-coached Bay City Central football team alertly pounced on three PCH fumbles, intercepted one pass and converted all four breaks into touchdowns for a convincing 34-13 Saginaw Valley Conference victory over the Chiefs at Bay City Stadium before 6,500 fans.

The Wolves made only one sustained drive of their own, but capitalized on every PCH miscue to win without undue pressure as they posted their 4th league triumph of the 1960 season.

★ ★ ★

It was the 8th successive win of the year for the unbeaten-untied Wolves, who cemented their claim as Michigan's No. 1 Class A team, and set the stage for a Saginaw Valley title showdown with Flint Northern a week from tonight at Flint's Atwood Stadium.

Actually, the Chiefs were not as bad a football team as the final score would indicate. The statistics were quite even and the Chiefs outgained Bay City on the ground.

However, like most of their previous games this fall, the Chiefs were a good team for only one half and you have to play at peak efficiency for two halves in a circuit as tough as the Valley.

The Chiefs outplayed the Wolves in the 2nd half, but that 1st half of poor, sputtering football put them under a staggering 27-0 deficit and it was all over but the shouting at intermission.

★ ★ ★

Bay City's margin soared to 34-0 in the 3rd quarter, but the Chiefs never quit trying and earned the Wolfpack's complete respect by scoring twice in the 4th period when the cause was lost.

Pat Kinney, Lonnie Berry, Gary Gwizdala and Bob Linton hit pay dirt for Bay City, with Kinney scoring the first two TDs of the game. Tom Burton converted from placement after every TD except the second.

Pontiac Central's touchdowns were tallied by Dick McCauley, his 10th of the year, and George Fed. Larry Brennen booted the Chiefs' lone extra point following their 2nd TD.

The Wolves marched to a touchdown the first time they got their hands on the ball and it was the only sustained scoring push they made.

★ ★ ★

PCH was forced to punt following the opening kickoff. The Wolves took McCauley's kick and drove 52 yards in 10 plays with Kinney going into the end zone from the 5-yard line.

Then the succession of breaks began and the Wolves seized every opportunity.

On the last play of the 1st stanza, McCauley fumbled when hit while returning a Bay City punt and Linton recovered for the Wolves on the PCH 9-yard strike.

The Wolves wasted no time capitalizing on that one. On the 2nd play of the 2nd period Kinney zipped seven yards for a touchdown.

★ ★ ★

Pontiac bounced back and started its first sustained march of the evening. The Chiefs advanced to the Bay City 19 where they had a 2nd-and-9 situation.

Larry Brennen's southpaw pass into the left flat was deflected into the waiting arms of Berry, a defensive halfback who stood all alone on the Bay City 5. Berry outlined 95 yards untouched down the sidelines with the interception for a TD and Pontiac's back was broken.

With two minutes remaining in the 2nd quarter, another PCH fumble was recovered by Bay City's Fritz Dublitz on the Chiefs' 35. The Wolves took to the air and scored on the very last play with quarterback Bob Crampton hitting Gwizdala for the tally. He caught the ball on the 20 and scored unmolested.

★ ★ ★

PCH finally broke into the scoring column after three minutes of the 4th quarter. Roy Couser's 38-yard jaunt to the Bay City 2 set up the counter and McCauley slashed his way across the goal line on the next play. Brennen's boot for the 7th point was blocked by Wright.

The Chiefs capitalized on a Bay City fumble to post their 2nd touchdown. McCauley pounced on the pigskin on the Bay City 35, then the Chiefs went skyward to collect the marker.

Brennen's aerial to Elick Shorter gained 18 yards, then Bob Pomeroy passed to Fed who scored standing up for a TD play spanning 17 yards with only 32 seconds to go. Brennen kicked the 13th point.

Bill Pritchett, 235-pound tackle, and gutty Tony Rubio sparked an excellent PCH defensive effort in the 2nd half and the Chiefs stopped a Bay City scoring bid in the 4th period by holding for downs on the 6.

The defeat was Pontiac's 2nd of the season against three wins and two ties. The Chiefs' Valley record now stands 1-2-1.

BIG STEAL — Bay City Central halfback Lonnie Berry (3) takes off for a 95-yard touchdown run down the sidelines against Pontiac Central after intercepting Larry Brennen's pass in Thursday night's Saginaw Valley Conference football game at Bay City. The pass was intended for Elick Shorter (82). Berry's big steal gave the Wolves a commanding 20-0 lead and they went on to defeat the Chiefs, 34-13.

Fired-up Wings Win, 8-5

Tongue-Lashing by Jack Adams Sparks Rally

Six Goals in Final Period Features Pair by Ullman

DETROIT (AP) — The old fashioned pep talk, or between-periods tongue lashing, still gets results—at least when Jack Adams is doing the talking.

The Detroit general manager blistered the Red Wings Thursday night in what one of the veteran players called "a real give-us-hell speech."

The bellowing and shouting came between the second and third periods when the Wings were trailing the Boston Bruins 5-2.

★ ★ ★

The Wings roared back with six goals in the third period—only two short of their own National Hockey League record for one period—and dumped the Bruins 8-5. The eight-goal output was Detroit's biggest scoring splurge since Christmas night 1956. The Wings had not scored that much against Boston since January 1944.

★ ★ ★

Adams generally sits in the training room, behind the Wings' dressing room, between periods. But Thursday night he strode up and down the locker room, yelling at the players and saying they were "stinking up the joint."

He said people were leaving Olympia Stadium because of the Wings' poor showing.

★ ★ ★

"It's a downright disgrace," Adams told the players.

Some of the 8,737 spectators did leave after two periods. Many of them had been booing the Wings, who spent the first two periods missing simple passes, passing it to Boston players and falling to the ice.

★ ★ ★

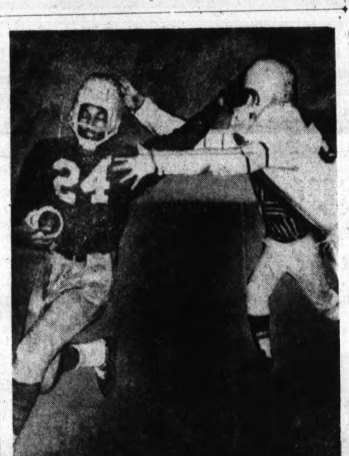
But those who stayed saw a fantastic explosion. Parker MacDonald started it at 2:21 of the final period. Norm Ullman followed with his 99th NHL goal after a three-on-two rush, and Allan Johnson tied it at the 7:32 mark with his first big league goal.

★ ★ ★

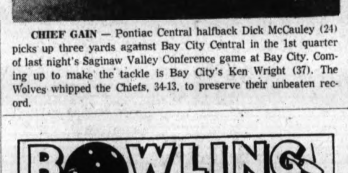
Ullman hit the century mark just 44 seconds later when Alex Delvecchio's shot bounced off Ullman's leg and past goalie Don Simmons. Jerry Melnyk and Gary Aldcorn got easy goals inside the 14-minute mark against the defeated Bostonians.

Two goals by Jim Bartlett and other scores by ex-Red Wing Charlie Burns, rookie Gerry Quellette and Don McKenney built up Boston's 5-2 lead. Warren Godfrey and Melnyk were the early Detroit scorers.

The loss makes it eight straight games for Boston on the road without a victory—and the triumph elevated the Wings into a third place tie with the Toronto Maple Leafs.



CHIEF GAIN — Pontiac Central halfback Dick McCauley (24) picks up three yards against Bay City Central in the 1st quarter of last night's Saginaw Valley Conference game at Bay City. Coming up to make the tackle is Bay City's Ken Wright (37). The Wolves whipped the Chiefs, 34-13, to preserve their unbeaten record.



THINK OUT SHOT
By Ray Bluth

When something goes wrong with my game, I try to concentrate harder.

Don't get me wrong. It's not just when your game is off that you have to bear down. That holds true any time, even when you're on a real good streak as I was when I won the 1959 American Bowling Congress Masters title.

★ ★ ★

During the heat of competition, it's easy to be distracted by an opponent. I try extra hard at times like those to think through every movement I make so I can stay in stride.

★ ★ ★

Think out each type of shot with a kind of mental rehearsal of how to make it.

Think out each kind of shot.

Lions Remember Last Time

Brodie Must Play Entire Game

PALO ALTO, Calif. (AP)—John Brodie won't get a chance to be a last minute flash this time. Brodie is going to have to go all the way against the Detroit Lions this Sunday, and the Lions will be waiting for him.

The last time the San Francisco 49ers and the Lions met was Oct. 9 and Y. A. Tittle did most of the pitching for the 49ers.

Tittle was unable to get the 49ers offense rolling in nearly 55 minutes of quarterbacking and for a time it looked as if the Lions might win.

But with six minutes remaining, Brodie was sent in as quarterback. He pitched 13 passes and connected on eight of them. Two resulted in touchdowns in the last three minutes.

The clincher came when Brodie connected with a pass to R. C. Owens who went 13 yards with 9 seconds left.

★ ★ ★

Detroit protested the 49er victory on grounds that films showed San Francisco had an ineligible receiver downfield but the protest disallowed by NFL commissioner Pete Rozelle.

Tittle won't be in this Sunday's game. He's sidelined with injuries and coach Red Hickey has tabbed Brodie to start.

There will be plenty of pressure applied to the former Stanford ace by the lions, who seek revenge.

The big game in the Western conference is the first-place meeting at Baltimore where the defending champion Colts 4-2 attempt to overtake the Green Bay Packers 4-1. The Colts are 3-point favorites to knock off the Packers, who upset them 35-21 at Green Bay Oct. 9. The Chicago Bears 3-2-1 are idle.

Elsewhere, in the full six-game card, the St. Louis Cardinals 3-3 are home favorites by a TD over the Washington Redskins 1-2-2 and the Los Angeles Rams 1-4-1 get the nod by 11 over the Cowboys 0-6 at Dallas.

BOSTON SAVE — Boston Bruin goalie Don Simmons and teammate Gerry Ouellette converge on the puck as center Len Lunde (20) of the Red Wings moves across the goal mouth in a scoring attempt. The Wings won, 8-5, after letting the Bruins take a 5-2 lead. AP Photofax

Spartans Playing More 'Cousins'

EAST LANSING (AP) — Michigan State left for Purdue today and a battle of two bitter also-rans in the Big Ten football race.

Michigan State hopes it still has "cousins" in Indiana — baseball slang for a team you usually beat.

★ ★ ★

The Spartans manhandled Indiana, Purdue and Notre Dame last year. They been twice to Indiana this season to blank Notre Dame 21-0 and Indiana 35-0.

Purdue has only one Big Ten win, but it was an impressive one over Ohio State. Michigan State has two Big Ten losses, to Iowa and Ohio State and is down in the pack. The Spartans also beat traditional rival Michigan. Purdue conference losses were to Wisconsin, Iowa and Illinois.

But the Boilermakers are noted for their unsets of the Spartans and this will be "Dad's Day" at Lafayette.

Besides the dads in the stands, big threat on the field will be Willie Jones, the explosive fullback who rates fourth in the Big Ten in yards gained rushing.

★ ★ ★

The MSU squad was due to leave before noon in three chartered planes.

Left guard was the sensitive position for the Spartans. Oscar Hahn, defensive guard, had to be left behind because of an ankle injury, George Azar, the offensive guard, was still bothered by an elbow strain but made the trip.

Reserves are being moved up to fill out the line.

Utility back Bob Stewart, who has been running at right half, was carried as a quarterback. Stewart, a junior from Muskegon, is being groomed as a possible replacement for senior signal-caller Tommy Wilson next year.

3 Ex-Wayne Cage Stars Here With Harlem Five

One of the most outstanding basketball teams ever assembled in Michigan was the Wayne State quintet of the early 50's. On that team were such players as Charlie Primas, Johnny Kline, and Ernie Wagner.

All three of these ex-Tartars are assembled again, this time with Goose Tatum's Harlem Stars who will appear at Pontiac Central Saturday night against the Pontiac All-Stars.

The game, sponsored by the Pontiac Mail-Carriers Association, will feature such tricksters as Tatum, Sweetwater Clifton, Roide Bule, Tiny Brown, King Solomon and Willie Scarbrough.

Buie, who hails from Los Angeles, Calif., is the only one-armed player in pro basketball ranks.

Clifton is a former star with the Globetrotters. He was also with the New York Knicks for six years, and played with the Detroit Pistons in 1957-58 season.

Tatum needs no introduction. He is regarded as the "Clown Prince' of basketball after a long ear with the Globetrotters with whom he made famous his hookshot and comedy routines.

The game will start at 8:15 p.m. Saturday night and tickets in advance are on sale at Triple XXX Griffs, Osmuns and "300" Lounge.

They will also be available at the box office windows. Some of the city cagers who will play in the game are Bob McManus, Dave Diehm, Dick Ayling, Al Barkley, Roger Nosek, Rod Treais, Bill Hayward, Dave Sebring and John Keller.

Deer Harvest Set at 115,000

Prediction Is Same as 1959 Figures; Permits Are Mailed

LANSING (AP)—A harvest of close to 115,000 deer is predicted for this fall by the state conservation department.

★ ★ ★

This was the figure of last year's kill, the second highest on record.

The buck kill is expected to hit 68,000 the same as last year. The "any deer" take should drop to 44,500, due to a cut in special permits, game experts said.

Some 92,700 special permits were mailed out this week to hunters allowed to take deer of any age or sex in 35 areas where there have been browse shortages or crop damage.

About 465,000 hunters are expected to take the field for the regular Nov. 15-30 season and the special Dec. 1-6 season in part of Allegan County.

Enforcement patrols will be about doubled this year, the department said.

Jones Gets TV Rating

BOSTON (AP) — Old pro Tiger Jones, who's been on TV almost as much as Hopalong, is in his familiar role as an underdog for Saturday night's bout with Marcel Pigou.

They're scheduled for a 10-round national (ABC-TV) television bout. Tiger's 42nd video appearance. The show will be blacked locally.

Boston bookies have made the 32-year-old New York trial horse a 9-5 underdog to Parisian Pigou for their middleweight clash.

New Fishing Licenses

LANSING (AP)—The conservation department says fishermen who didn't get a license this summer, but plan to get into the swing for the winter ice-fishing season, can do it on their 1961 license. The department mails 1.5 million licenses to 4,200 dealers about mid-November. The licenses will be valid from Dec. 1, 1960 to Dec. 31, 1961.

BRONZE PIG BATTLE — "Floyd" the bronze pig which Iowa and Minnesota football teams have been fighting over since 1935 will not be the big prize Saturday. Big Ten and national honors are at stake. Iowa is favored. Captain Jerry Maurem and tackle Charles Lee (left to right) hold the prized possession.

Illini Favored in Battle of Elliott Boys

Another Big Forward Wall Poses Problem for Wolverines

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Michigan, needing a new formula for victory after two straight defeats, faces Illinois here Saturday in a game of "football on the family plan."

Nationwide interest is accorded this game between two big ten also-rans because the Elliott brothers, Bump and Pete, are facing each other for the first time as opposing head coaches.

Pete's Illini, coming on strong in their last two games after a poor start, are almost unanimous favorites over Bump's Wolverines in the 46th meeting of the two teams.

A crowd of 60,000 and an NCAA regional television audience will witness the historic clash of brother-coaches, first in Big Ten history.

★ ★ ★

Illinois, with a line averaging well over 220 pounds, poses the same problem — superior weight — that Michigan has been unable to solve in its last two outings.

"It seems like they get bigger by the week," said Bump. At times a team with speed can compensate for a big weight disadvantage but we haven't done it the last two weeks and I don't know if we can do it on Saturday."

Bump fears a repitition of the Minnesota and Wisconsin games as he reviews the Illinois three-deep lineup, with such people as Ed O'Bradovich, 235-pound left end; tackle Joe Rutgens, 241-pound All-America candidate, and right end Ernie McMillan, 246.

★ ★ ★

They are among the biggest and best of the line that looks out for the welfare of the Big Ten's smallest quarterback, 158-pound John Easterbrook.

Both teams will be at near full-strength. Illinois' second string fullback, Bill Brown, is out with an injury but his brother, Jim will carry the load.

Michigan official's said end Bob Johnson, guard Dick Syring and fullbacks Ken Tureaud and Bill Yuncieliff are not in the best physical shape but are not expected to miss the action.

DEFENSIVE CHANGES—Michigan defensive line coach Bob Holloway discusses plans to make some changes on defense for the battle with Illinois Saturday. Captain Gerry Smith, a center, and ends Bob Johnson and Scott Maentz discuss the changes with Holloway. The game will feature the battle between Bump Elliott and brother Pete, respective coaches.

'I'm Not Coming Back,' Claims Van Brocklin

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Quarterback Norm Van Brocklin of the Philadelphia Eagles has repeated his intentions to retire after the 1960 season, once again reviving talk he will succeed the retiring Buck Shaw as head coach next year.

★ ★ ★

Prior to Thursday's workout in preparation for the Pittsburgh Steelers game here Sunday, Van Brocklin told a reporter:

★ ★ ★

"This is it. No matter where we finish I'm not coming back. I've made up my mind this is my last season. Naturally, I'd like to finish on top. You know I wanted to retire two years ago but was talked into coming here. I've decided this is it."

When the 34-year-old, passing great signed his 1960 contract last April he had told a reporter that after the season the Eagles "will have to get another boy."

★ ★ ★

Officials had hoped that a good season, which Van Brocklin has had thus far in leading the Eagles to a 4-1 record and tie for first in the Eastern Conference of the National Football League, might change his mind.

Plan New Arena for New York

25,000-Seat Building May Replace Present Garden in '64

NEW YORK (AP) — Madison Square Garden, the scene of many great boxing bouts, important professional and college basketball games and numerous Stanley Cup ice hockey playoffs, is on its way out as New York's leading indoor sports arena.

Plans for a new, $38 million, ultra-modern, 25,000-seat sports arena were announced Thursday.

Admiral John J. Bergen, chairman, and Irving Felt, president of Graham-Paige Corp., which owns the Garden said the new center probably would be ready by 1964.

★ ★ ★

Although he did not announce what would become of the present Garden after 1964, Ned Irish, the Garden president, said, "Our present facilities are outmoded. The need for a new Garden has long been with us and it is imperative if we are to continue a successful operation."

★ ★ ★

The new arena would be oval in shape, with 80 per cent of the seats along the sidelines in contrast to the present Garden, which seats about 17,000 but with the bulk of the spectators in the end zones.

★ ★ ★

Site of the center has not been determined. Three areas in or near midtown New York City are under consideration. The New York Sports and Entertainment Center Inc. has been organized as a subsidiary of Graham-Paige to proceed with the project.

Los Angeles Seeks 1st Place in AFL

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Los Angeles Chargers take on the New York Titans and the Oakland Raiders meet the Boston Patriots Friday night in opening games of the American Football League's four-game week-end program.

★ ★ ★

The Chargers can take over undisputed possession of first place in the Western Division by getting past the Titans. Los Angeles is tied for first place with the Denver Broncos, who play Sunday.

The Chargers rolled up a 45-16 victory over Boston last week. New York dropped a 28-27 decision to Oakland.

Al Dorow the Titan quarterback who had his ribs bruised by Houston two weeks ago, is back in top shape. However, Dick Jamieson, Dorow's understudy, is out with a shoulder separation.

Meet Marquette Aiming for 6th Straight

Titans in Home Finale Tonight

DETROIT (UPI)—The scrappy University of Detroit gridders, determined to become the first Titan team since 1928 to win six in a row, close the home portion of their season tonight against arch-rival Marquette.

The 1960 Titans have already created quite a stir by racking up five straight victories, marking the first time a Detroit team has turned that trick since 1940.

Following an opening loss to Iowa State, coach Jim Miller's spirited charges have rolled past Xavier, Cincinnati, Boston College, Dayton and Quantico Marines.

Marquette, tougher than its 3-4 record would indicate, promises to present one of Detroit's stiffest challenges of the season. But a victory over the Warriors would virtually assure Detroit of entering the final game of the season against Michigan State with a 7-1 record. Villanova, which has won only one of seven, is the interim opponent.

★ ★ ★

The Titan success story this season has been centered around two superlative quarterbacks.

Veteran Bob Lusky carried the load during the first half of the season and was, at times, almost a one-man offense. And when Lusky was tagged with a knee injury in the Boston College game, which forced him out of action for the season, hopes of continued success seemed dim.

But sophomore Jerry Gross, a talented youngster from Bay City Central, took up where Lusky left off and has been the big man for the Titans in the past two outings. He hit his stride last week against Quantico when he completed 15 of 22 passes for 294 yards and picked up 45 more rushing.

★ ★ ★

Marquette's defeats came at the hands of major powers, Wisconsin, Indiana, Vanderbuilt and Holy Cross.

The Warriors also have a sophomore quarterback with great promise, Terry Zang, a 6-0 and 190 pounder from Kankee, Ill.

A 185 pound junior quarterback Bill Johnson is his understudy, with Don Jennings a Chicago halfback the leading ball carrier.

It will be the final home game for 11 seniors, including starting halfbacks Jim Post and Ted Karpowicz and captain guard Tony Asher.

Brown Being Challenged by Green Bay's Taylor

NEW YORK (AP)—Jim Taylor of the Green Bay Packers has rushed up to challenge Cleveland's Jimmy Brown for the ground gaining lead in the National Football League, latest official averages showed today.

Taylor gained 105 yards in Green Bay's 19-13 victory over the Pittsburgh Steelers Sunday, boosting his total to 484. Brown has 492 yards, John Crow of St. Louis is third with 440, followed by J.D. Smith of San Francisco, 375.

★ ★ ★

Milt Plum of Cleveland retained the top spot among the passers. He has 55 completions, good for 974 yards in 74 attempts, seven touchdown passes, a percentage of 74.3 and an average gain in yards of 13.16. Not one of his passes has been intercepted.

Johnny Unitas, Baltimore's aerial ace, moved up one notch to second place with 87 completed passes, 1,454 yards gained, 13 touchdown passes, a 50.6 average, an interception average of 5.2 and an average gain in yards of 8.45. Unitas is followed by Norm Van Brocklin of Philadelphia, Bobby Layne of Pittsburgh and Ralph Guglielmi of Washington.

★ ★ ★

Paul Hornung of the Packers, who lead the Western Conference, still is tops in scoring with 65 points. He added 13 points Sunday on four field goals and a conversion. Bobby Mitchell of Cleveland is second with 54 points. Then come Bobby Walston, Philadelphia, 51; Lenny Moore, Baltimore, 48, and Sam Baker, Cleveland, 39.

Ray Berry of Baltimore, seeking his second consecutive title as the leading pass receiver, has caught nine more passes than his closest rival Willard Dewveall of the Chicago Bears. Berry has hauled in 36 passes for 725 yards, Dewveall has 27 for 503 yards.

★ ★ ★

Van Brocklin, idle last Sunday, still is the top punter, with a 46.4 average, while Bill Butler of the Dallas Cowboys is the leader in punt returns, with a 14 yard average for eight. John Sample of Baltimore is No. 1 in kickoff returns, with a 40.3 average for seven.

Andy Nelson and Don Shinnick of the Colts are deadlocked for first in interceptions. Each has five.

Kennedy, Nixon, Johnson and Lodge Praise Role of Newspaper in Campaign

REPUBLICAN NATIONAL COMMITTEE

NIXON-LODGE
CAMPAIGN HEADQUARTERS

The American newspaper profession is performing a public service of the highest order with its READ AND VOTE campaign, and I heartily endorse it.

It is vital that the greatest possible number of Americans share in the momentous decision to be made on November 8. And it is equally important that this decision be made on an informed, thoughtful basis.

On November 8, Americans will pick leadership and policies for the 1960s -- the most challenging, most perilous, most promising decade in American history.

The men and policies selected will have the solemn task of guarding the national security while implementing a program to lead the Free World to victory over Communist Imperialism.

The men and policies selected will affect directly the daily lives, the financial security, the fortunes of every American family.

Surely, these considerations deserve a reasoned, informed decision by each voter.

Surely, these considerations transcend party line and tradition.

I urge all newspaper readers to follow the campaign closely. Read what the candidates say and propose. Study the qualifications of each candidate -- whose experience and performance to date are a measure of the future.

Then, on November 8 you will be ready to cast with informed conviction a ballot based on what is best for America.

This is the central 1960 issue: Other considerations aside -- which man, which plan is best for America?

One of the best ways to reach such a conviction is through reading, and I commend the newspaper program to encourage this.

Richard Nixon

YOU can see by these statements from the Presidential and Vice Presidential candidates the importance they attach to the essential role newspapers play in the political drama unfolding in this crucial election year. They recognize, as all good citizens do, the importance of an intelligently informed electorate exercising their studiously considered franchise November 8th.

U.S. SENATOR... JOHN F. KENNEDY FOR PRESIDENT ★ ★ ★ ★

HEADQUARTERS • 1106 CONNECTICUT AVE., N.W. • WASHINGTON, D. C. • DISTRICT 7-1717

We are this year making a "register and vote" appeal a major part of the Presidental campaign. In 1956 only about 60 per cent of the American electorate exercised the American citizen's first right - the right to vote. Some 30 to 40 million American citizens of voting age were unregistered at the outset of the 1960 Campaign.

We feel that it is our first duty to bring about a much greater citizen participation in our elections, regardless of the win. We are certain that the broader the participation by our people as a whole, the greater are the chances that the right decisions will be made in November.

Naturally, our democratic election system will work to produce that beneficent result only if the citizens who go to the polls are informed voters. For the vast majority of our people, daily and careful reading of the newspapers is an essential means to understanding of the issues. Therefore, the nonpartisan "Read and Vote" promotion now being conducted among newspapers of the United States is serving a most useful purpose.

The slogan for all of us in 1960 should be: "Read, Register Vote."

John Kennedy

HENRY CABOT LODGE

Truth is the soul of democracy. The free press of America has traditionally been the mirror of truth, setting fact against controversy and providing the background information upon which the thoughtful and effective citizen bases his political decisions.

The present Presidential campaign is one of the most important in history. It is vital that nothing impede the people in their demand for a full, fair, and accurate discussion of the issues. Only after such a discussion may Americans deliver, at the polls, a decision which will carry the Nation forward in the challenging years ahead.

The Read and Vote Campaign being conducted by American newspapers is in the best tradition of public service.

READ AND VOTE

United States Senate
Office of the Democratic Leader
Washington, D.C.

American citizens individually can make a positive response to the basic issue of this campaign - the challenge to leadership in the 1960s. They can do that by taking the lead in:

Reading - keeping themselves posted on the issues on a greater scale than they have ever done before.

Registering - taking themselves, their relatives and neighbors to the registration booths in a turnout which will shift millions from the ranks of the unregistered.

Voting - doing their part to score a percentage of our total voting potential which, by showing that the institution of free elections is flourishing as never before in its homeland - will give a lift to the whole free world.

"Read and Vote" go together like light and liberty. The nonpartisan "Read and Vote" promotion among newspapers of the United States is an important contribution to the movement for a greater leadership by our citizenship.

SET FOR OPENING — Formerly located in the Pontiac State Bank building, the engineering firm of Johnson & Anderson has moved into its new $150,000 building on Dixie Highway near Telegraph Road. Approximately 400 invited guests will tour the building at an open house from 3 to 8 p. m. Friday and Saturday.

Waterford Firm Invites 400

Slate Preview Visits to Building

One of the finest professional buildings in Oakland County will open its doors to some 400 invited guests from 3 to 8 p.m. today and Saturday.

* * *

The big, two-level building owned by Johnson and Anderson, consulting engineers, is at 2300 Dixie Highway, Waterford Township.

The building was designed by the owners. One entire wall has frosted glass upstairs and down.

A pale blueish-green light seeps through the leaded glass wall to aid the 20 architectural draftsmen working at tables on the upper level.

Although not very large, the entrance hall gives an atmosphere of spaciousness because of the open two-level height included in the design.

Downstairs where guests will be served refreshments, there are large conference rooms, a slide-panel wall library, a complete kitchen, a reproduction room, file room and the bookkeeping department.

The owners of the new building, Felix A. Anderson and Clair L. Johnson, were engineering classmates at the University of Michigan.

Later both were Army lieutenant colonels in World War II. They became business partners 14 years ago.

Their association has been profitable for both, with establishment of not only the Waterford business firm but branch offices in Flint and Warren.

Five 2-way radio connections bring the out-of-town offices closer to the home base.

Last week the firm purchased a four-passenger Cessna airplane.

The engineering consultants have made sewer and water installations in all parts of Oakland, Wayne and Macomb counties.

* * *

Within the next few months, the two men plan to merge with a Toronto, Ont., engineering firm to further develop and expand their business talents into an international relationship.

TULSA, Okla. (AP) —An article in the newsletter of a suburban chamber of commerce notes the group is trying to raise $115 to put an "annihilator" in a fire station.

Stocks Rally for Fourth Day

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market carried its rally into the fourth straight session in lively trading early today. Gains of most key stocks went from fractions to a point or so.

* * *

Among exceptions, DuPont added more than 2, Polaroid 3 and Smith-Kline-French advanced 2½ to 4⅜ on a block of 3,400 shares.

Wall Street was cautious about published rumors to the effect that a successful coup in Moscow had resulted in the arrest of Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev and the return to power of former Premier G. M. Malenkov.

Brokers said that if Malenkov were in power, Russia could be expected to return to the tougher, Stanlinist line and that therefore defense stocks would be more heavily emphasized in Wall Street.

NO EMPHASIS

In early trading, however, there was no particular emphasis on the aircraft - rocket - missils shares.

Thiokol traded about unchanged, Boeing (ex-dividend) was steady, General Dynamics and United Aircraft rose fractionally.

Air Reduction rose 2½ to 69 on 1,200 shares. Graham - Paige advanced fractionally on news of its plans for a new Madison Square Garden.

Southern Woman Objects to War; Refused Ballot

BESSEMER, Ala. (UPI)—Conscientious objector Mrs. Marcia E. Nutt, of Birmingham, has lost another round in her fight to become a registered voter.

* * *

Circuit Judge Edward L. Ball Thursday sustained a Jefferson County Board of Registrars ruling refusing the woman the right to vote because she answered "no" to the question, "Will you bear arms for your country when called upon by it to do so?"

The question appears on questionnaires for prospective voters.

The board refused to register Mrs. Nutt when she answered the question negatively Sept. 20.

Ball granted the woman 10 days in which to file a further petition but she was undecided Thursday as to whether to appeal to the State Supreme Court.

* * *

Mrs. Nutt said she refused to say she would bear arms because she has strong religious beliefs against war and condemns the taking of lives for any reason.

Labor Report After Election Is 'Normal'

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A Labor Department spokesman acknowledged Thursday that no report on October figures of employment and unemployment will be issued until after election day Tuesday.

* * *

But he said this was part of "the normal course of operations."

Democratic National Chairman Henry M. Jackson has charged that the Eisenhower administration is holding back the regular monthly figures "for political purposes."

He said the delay was "one more flagrant case of the administration holding back distasteful information."

* * *

The department spokesman said the report would be issued late next week. September unemployment figures were released Oct. 10.

Samaritans Come to Aid of Woman

ORION TOWNSHIP — Charitable citizens have come to the aid of Mrs. Leslie A. Raymond, the victim of a vicious Halloween prank, according to Oakland County sheriff's deputies.

Mrs. Raymond's husband is seriously ill in a Detroit hospital. She has a heart condition herself and the couple was living on $111 a month Social Security payments.

On Halloween night, pranksters cut gas supply lines to a furnace in the Raymond home at 3972 Mill Lake Road and threw sugar into the gasoline tank of her car, ruining the engine.

The sheriff's office said it had received numerous calls, offering money and transportation so Mrs. Raymond could see her husband in the hospital.

A neighbor was working on the car engine. The Oakland County Welfare Department said it would pay for gasoline.

Two State Hospital Staffers Attend Talks

Staff members at Pontiac State Hospital have recently returned from two conferences in widely separated parts of the country.

Dr. Robert Braun, clinical director, attended the 12th Mental Hospital Institute at Salt Lake City, Utah, sponsored by the American Psychiatric Association.

The theme of the conference was "Needs of the Mentally Ill: Types of Effective Action Between the Community and Its Hospital Facilities."

Ted A. Panaretos, community relations director, attended the Basic Institute for Directors of Hospital Volunteers at Cleveland.

The three-day session was sponsored by the American Hospital Association.

Chiropodists Vote to Change Name of Organization

A Pontiac chiropodist, Dr. Hubert H. Curson of 969 Jackson Blvd. has returned from the year's final meeting of the Michigan State Chiropodists Association in Detroit.

At the meeting, the organization voted to change its name to the Michigan State Podiatry Association, explained Curson, local chairman of the name change program.

The term "chiropodists" had been used for 200 years. The national association changed to "podiatry" in 1958.

Curson said the name change officially became effective Tuesday. The new term literally means medical treatment of the foot.

Students Fancy 'Peace Corps'

U. of M. Group Starts Organization Endorsing Kennedy's Proposal

EN ROUTE WITH KENNEDY (UPI) — A college campus group movement was under way today to underwrite Sen. John F. Kennedy's general idea of a "peace corps" of talented young men and women to serve in underdeveloped countries.

It started at the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor as a result of a speech the Democratic presidential candidate made there several weeks ago.

The movement, which claims 750 backers at Michigan, predated Kennedy's San Francisco speech of Wednesday night in which he formalized his plan for service which would be an "alternative" or a supplement to the military draft.

Kennedy asked the question of how many of his listeners at Ann Arbor would be willing to devote several years of their lives to service in underdeveloped nations—where medical, cultural and technical needs are not being met.

W. Arthur Milne Jr., assistant counselor of the International Center at the University of Michigan, wrote Kennedy on Oct. 30 that his speech loosed a "tidal wave of enthusiasm."

* * *

The 750 supporters have enrolled in an organization called "Americans Committed to World Responsibility" and this group, said Milne, has written to 200 other colleges and universities inviting support.
