WASHINGTON (AP) — AFL-CIO President George Meany urged Congress today to cut income taxes, especially in the lower brackets, effective Sept. 1.

Meany told the House Ways and Means Committee, at a closed session, it should approve such a cut as a temporary measure, expiring next summer, but follow it up with a permanent reform of the income tax system.

Meany's recommendations, he learned amounted to an up-

Vers was in Washington last week but was unsuccessful in efforts to see Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg and other officials then working toward the new settlement of the costly strike.

RANK-FILE VOTE

McClellan told the Senate that representatives of management and labor had twice reached terms for settlement of the strike, only to have their efforts blocked when rank and file unionists voted not to accept terms.

McClellan said his subcommittee "has information that the settlements heretofore have been obstructed by the efforts of a former president of (union) local" who had been expelled previously by the union but who still "apparently wields great influence with the rank and file."

This powerful unionist, McClellan charged, "has offered for a sum of money and other considerations to withdraw his opposition" and let terms of a third settlement plan hammered out last Friday be accepted.

Rains Dampen Midwest, West and the South

By The Associated Press

Rains diminished in most of the Northeast today but more showers drenched areas in the Midwest, West and South.

One belt of showers and thunderstorms extended across a cold front from the northern midwest into the southern Rockies. Rain drenched areas in the middle and north Atlantic states.

Strong winds and heavy rain hit Donaldsonville, La., Sunday while tornado winds were reported near El Paso, Texas and Lima, Colo. Nearly two inches of rain pelted New Orleans in a six-hour period.

Cooler air spread into northern Mexico areas, dropping temperatures to 50 degrees and lower in parts of North Dakota. Temperatures were in the 70s and higher in southern sections and the far western states. Readings were in the 90s Sunday, with the mercury soaring to 112 in Yuma, Ariz., and Needles, Calif.

Some Who Remain Unenthusiastic on Future

Many Doctors Lost to Saskatchewan

SASKATOON, Sask. (U)—Many of the doctors who took part in this month's suspension of practice are lost to Saskatchewan.

These are doctors who decided to quit the province rather than work under a compulsory medical care plan. At this stage, nobody knows exactly how many will come back, but estimates run to around 300.

The small city of North Battleford, for example, had 21 doctors before the boycott. Four left for good and three more are winding up their affairs.

In general, however, the family doctor is back in business in this province of 925,000 people. For three weeks most of the 825 private practitioners boycotted the medical care plan. They closed their offices July 1, calling the plan a threat to their freedom.

Last Monday the doctors signed an agreement with the government ending the boycott. Even so, many of those who are staying are unenthusiastic about their prospects.

The agreement provides for a special session of the legislature to amend the medical act to allow doctors to practice outside it. The new legislation will also allow private nonprofit medical insurance agencies to remain.

This is a far cry from the original act making the province's medical care insurance commission the sole insuring agency.

The doctors charged it was state medicine, compulsion, and would result in loss of freedom and destruction of the doctor-patient relationship.

The proposed amendments have softened the opposition, but not eliminated it. Some doctors say bitterly they had to sacrifice a long-standing principle and accept a universal, compulsory plan even though it will be kept at arm's length.

Under the new plan the doctor has the option of dealing with a private insurance agency to collect his bills or with the government agency.

The government will reimburse the insurance agencies and the patients, if not the doctors, for medical bills.

TO NEGOTIATE FEES

The Saskatchewan College of Physicians and Surgeons, government body of doctors, will negotiate fee schedules with the government.

Some doctors say it's not the money that matters, but loss of responsibility for setting rates. Others say bluntly they don't like anybody telling them what to do.

A prominent Saskatoon surgeon, Dr. James Campbell, says: "It's not a plan the doctors want. It's not a plan the government wants. But it is satisfactory compromise."

Privately some doctors hope that eventual unseating of the Social government will bring about a more agreeable plan. But an election is two to three years away — depending on when the government wants to call one.

Discipline Yanks for Anti-Soviet Pamphlets

MOSCOW (AP)—Moscow Radio reported today 11 Americans at the "Sputnik" International Youth Camp in the Crimea have been disciplined for distributing anti-Soviet pamphlets among the local population.

The broadcast said they were called before the camp's international council and apologized for breaking camp rules.

"The pamphlets were U.S. publications in the Russian language," Moscow said.

Names of the Americans were not reported.

The camp is a holiday resort on the Black Sea coast for young people from all countries.

'AUH20' Being Plugged for Nomination in '64

TUCSON, Ariz. (U)—A campaign poster erected in Tucson reads: "AUH20 in MCMLXIV."

In case you've forgotten your Roman numerals and high school chemistry, it means, "Goldwater in 1964."

Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., frequently is mentioned as a probable presidential candidate.

THOMAS H. ROBINSON JR.

Escapee Nabbed in $14 Robbery

Ex-'Public Enemy No. 1' Fled Life Sentence for Kidnaping in 1934

CHICAGO (AP)—Thomas H. Robinson Jr., 53, an escaped convict, who was ranked the nation's public enemy No. 1 after he kidnaped a wealthy Kentucky socialite for $50,000 ransom in 1934, was held by police today for a $14 drug store robbery.

Robinson was picked up by police Saturday minutes after the robbery and one week after his escape from the federal correctional institute in Tallahassee, Fla.

Robinson was serving a life sentence, commuted from death, for the kidnaping of Alice Speed Stoll, a wealthy Louisville-society matron, in one of the nation's most notorious abductions.

Robinson was a law student at Vanderbilt University in Nashville when he disguised himself as a telephone repairman and went to the Louisville estate of C. C. Stoll, founder and president of an oil company. Stoll was the intended victim.

TIED MAID

Only Stoll's daughter-in-law and a maid were in the house. Robinson tied the maid and abducted Mrs. Stoll, who was then 26. He took Mrs. Stoll, who still makes her home in Louisville, to an apartment in Indianapolis and remained there four days until $50,000 ransom was paid. Only $4,657 of the money was recovered.

Soblen Loses Bid for Israel

Soviet Spy in London Denied Visa to Re-Enter Middle East Country

JERUSALEM (U)—Convicted Soviet spy Robert A. Soblen has lost one more bid in his desperate fight to escape life imprisonment in the United States.

The Israeli government denied him an immigrant's visa again yesterday.

The 61-year-old psychiatrist, now in a London jail, still has two moves in reserve in Britain before he can be expelled from the country; and his lawyers here said he also plans to appeal the Israeli cabinet's decision to the supreme court.

The cabinet's unanimous decision upheld an interior ministry ruling rejecting Soblen's application for admission under a 1952 law granting a home in Israel to all Jews except those convicted of certain crimes.

Soblen jumped $100,000 bail in New York and fled to Israel in June. He was expelled July 1. He slashed his wrists and stabbed himself in the abdomen on the plane flying him to London, and told a British court later he did it to halt the flight and get a hearing in London.

The British court of appeal has rejected his plea to be freed in Britain. But he can take the case to the House of Lords, Britain's highest law tribunal.

He also has petitioned the home office for asylum in Britain. Soblen claims he was wrongfully convicted and has little time to live anyway since he has leukemia, or cancer of the blood.

Plenty for Golfer to Learn

St. Andrews Course Foils Best of 'Em

By BOB CONSIDINE
ST. ANDREWS, FIFE, Scotland
—Bobby Jones once wrote, "In my humble opinion, St. Andrews is the most fascinating golf course I have ever played."

"There is always a way at St. Andrews although it is not always the obvious way, and in trying to find it there is more to be learned on this course than in playing a hundred ordinary American golf courses."

That was a gross understatement. I discovered today as I tore the world's oldest course apart with a searing 35. A much better golfer, Walter Kiebach of Reading, Pa., had the same score.

His long drives squarely down the middle of the treeless seaside course, frequently ended up in traps that give a man the feeling he is marooned at the bottom of a well.

My smeared visors, faded knicker, smudges and soggy shirts often evaded the traps, miserably enough.

On a couple of holes a school-girl we knew named Deborah, whose best blasts cover hardly 100 yards, cleanly outscored both masters.

JOY AND CHALLENGE

The joy and challenge of playing St. Andrews, no matter how much of a lunker a person may be, is that you find yourself treading fairways, roughs and greens where greats and ancients found triumph and disaster.

It has been in constant operation since 1154 when 22 "noblemen and gentlemen, being admirers of the ancient and healthful exercise of the golf" founded the Royal and Ancient.

In the ensuing centuries its very pitfalls have won indelible names for themselves.

The road that crosses the first fairway is Cranny Clark's. Along the rolling course are bunkers named Cheape's, Deacon Sime, Principal's Nose, Grave, Beardsie, Coffins, Kruger, Mrs. Kruger, Ginger Beer, Scholar's, Progressing and Hell.

There are "whins" gnore, vitally snappy prickly bushes in the rough. Once in, just drop a fresh ball, because you'll never find the original.

This is the only course I've known where a player can buy a booklet on how best to play each hole.

"The line to the 18th hole," the booklet advises wildly, "is straight on the Martyr's Monument, seen between the Royal and Ancient Clubhouse and the large red stone building—Hamilton Hall."

I just took dead aim at the town of St. Andrews (pop. 15,000). Missed.

The same booklet tells the player know what has happened in the past on each hole, an awesome compendium when one considers that King William IV played here in 1837, and 20 British opens and 31 British amateur championships have been contested here since then.

I had a five on the 347 yard par-4 first hole. "Down in two more than once," the booklet remarks, crushingly.

On the par-4 sixth, 424 yards, I holed what I considered a courageous six.

Then, thumbing the booklet, there was this: "In the Amateur in 1930 Bobby Jones drove into the Cottage Bunker, but holed out from the bunker, a distance of approximately 160 yards, for an eagle, one of the most dramatic shots ever played."

OVER 400 YARDS
Got off a dandy 216-yard drive on the par-5 fifth, then read:

"In the 1933 open championship Craig Wood, the American long-hitter, drove into the right-hand bunker near the green, well over 400 yards."

And so it went, Hacker Vs. Immortal, 20th Century Vs. the Foxy 18th, until the 466-yard par-5 17th.

"... Probably the most famous hole on any golf course ... Jones, after the Walter Cup of 1896, described this hole as the scene of the most terrifying bits of golf he ever experienced."

Arnold Palmer lost the 1960 British Open to Kelvin Nagle here. Arnie overhauled the green on his second, had to play off the treacherous road behind the green.

I slashed my third shot to the green and sank a putt for a birdie. Just goes to show.

Outlaws 'Mein Kampf'

Ex-State Farmer to Seek Citizenship Yankus to Become a Real Aussie

ADELAIDE, Australia (AP) — Stanley Yankus, Australia's best known emigrant from America, plans to become an Australian citizen in another two years.

It is three years now since Yankus sold his chicken farm at Dozwagie, Mich., and moved his family to Australia. He said he did this to protest restrictions on the amount of wheat he could grow on his farm.

Australian laws require five years' residence before a person can seek citizenship.

Yankus these days is not as talkative as when he first arrived, and he has declined to be photographed since 1955.

He said, however, that he plans to seek Australian citizenship.

Asked in an interview if this meant he intended to live permanently in Australia, Yankus said:

"Well, it's hard to say. You can say, however, that at present I have no plans to return to the United States or shift from Adelaide. What will happen in the future will depend on what the future brings."

Yankus said his present aversion to publicity was because nobody wanted to hear his reasons for leaving quit the "farming contrails" in the United States.

"All they want to hear about now is what I have for breakfast when I wash my hands and all sorts of personal things," he said.

"Publicity can do me no good now. I just want to live my life here with my family and friends."

Yankus and his wife appear to have found a niche in Adelaide, and to be living the normal suburban life of average Australians. Their two sons, Russell, 15 and Dennis, 14, attend school. Their daughter Karen, 5, will be going soon.

They live in a comfortable suburban brick house which Yankus bought with money he brought from the United States. They run an Australian-built automobile of the compact type.

Yankus started work in Australia as a $36-a-week clerk in a firm that makes washing machines and other household appliances.

He has since moved to the big Adelaide department store of Harri's Scarfe as an assistant buyer and clerk in the farming implements section.

He said he also has become financially interested in the Australian rights of a patent for attachment to tractors that he says would cost little and save farmers and ranchers large sums of money.

These days he's getting around the Australian countryside and talking to farmers in their own language. "I am now satisfied," Yankus says. "I've had enough of publicity."

Roller Coaster Rider Breaks 263-Trip Record

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Iowa (AP) — Disc jockey Paul Oscar Anderson reeled from the roller coaster at Playland Park at 2:15 a.m. Sunday after 303 consecutive rides.

His effort, Anderson said, broke the old record of 263 trips in a row by a dedicated coaster rider in Portland, Ore.

The Omaha man took his seat for the first turn at 9:30 a.m. The park stayed open after hours until Anderson decided he had enough.

DeJong's Stories Applauded

Childless Man Pleases Many Children

GRAND RAPIDS (UPI)—Melvin de Jong, a childless man, has become a story teller for countless children throughout the world. "Other people furnish the children, I furnish the stories," the 54-year-old author said.

In September, he will go to Hamburg, Germany, to receive the Hans Christian Andersen Silver Medal, comparable to the Nobel Prize, for his numerous contributions to children's literature.

De Jong, the first American to receive the international award, was chosen from among authors of 15 countries.

HOPES TO VISIT HOME

De Jong and his wife were born

(AP Wirephoto) New Many Wear FALSE TEETH With More Comfort

PAPERTON, a famous dentist (and actor) once said: "There is more comfort in wearing false teeth than in wearing a heavy coat." De Jong's books are filled with the adventures of youngsters discovering the simple wonders of life.

In the Netherlands and came to this country when they were children. He hopes to visit his home village while in Europe this fall.

His interest in writing began in high school when some of his stories were published in literary magazines.

After graduating in 1928 from Calvin College in Grand Rapids, he worked at various jobs, "all the way from grave digger to cement worker," to support himself while writing.

It has only been in the last five years that the income from his books, 20 of which have been published, has been sufficient to support himself and his wife.

De Jong, a hearty, merry-voiced man, writes for children ranging in age from 6 to 14. His books are filled with the adventures of youngsters discovering the simple wonders of life.

In the end he is left to his own devices to save one hardy cabbage plant.

"The Kissing Hill," which will be published in September, tells the story of a lonely city boy who moves to the country and befriends a forsaken old horse.

Other stories have been built around his own experiences. "The Wheel on the School," which the children's librarians section of the American Library Association awarded the John Newbery Medal in 1954, was based on his memories of the Dutch fishing village he left when he was 8 years old.

BASED ON EXPERIENCES "The House of 60 Fathers," which took the annual children's award of the Child Study Association of America in 1956, came from his experiences during World War II when he and 58 other members of the 14th Air Force adopted a Chinese orphan.

These and other stories have been translated into at least 12 languages. "There was a great worry when television first came out that it would take children away from books," he said.

"However, that has not been the case. Apparently television doesn't do enough to satisfy their imaginations," he said.

"I have found in some instances that publishing houses rely heavily on their children's departments. You might call it the 'tail that wags the dog.'"

Climber Dies in Snowstorm

Two Others Frown Off Wyoming Peak; Rest of Party Descends Today

GRAND TETON NATIONAL PARK, Wyo. (AP) — Storm-battered mountain climbers from four eastern states made ready today to descend from Grand Teton Peak on which one of their comrades perished.

Stephen Smith, 21, of Holden, Mass., died of exposure when a snowstorm hit the group of 13 climbers near the top of the 13,766-foot peak in northwestern Wyoming.

Part Rangers found Smith's body Sunday. Two other climbers, John Fenniman of West Hartford, Conn., and Lester Germer of Millington, N.J., were blown off the peak by helicopter. They were taken to a hospital at Jackson for treatment of exposure and frostbite.

The other seven climbers remained overnight at a campsite above Garnet Canyon before starting the final descent of 1,000 feet to waiting horses.

The body of Smith was found about 120 feet above the Otter Body, a snowfield at the base of a sheer cliff.

SOUGHT WAY OUT The easterners began their climb Thursday. That same day, a howling storm struck the upper slopes. Smith was one of three climbers who left the group in an attempt to find a way out of the storm.

Dr. John R. Walker of St. John's Hospital at Jackson said the three "tried to make it out Friday, but couldn't."

Dr. Walker said the men flown from the peak seemed in reasonably good condition.

Pair Dies in Hospital; Hurt in Truck Blast TROY, N. Y. (UPI) — A man and wife died within hours of each other Saturday at a hospital where they had been patients since a propane tank truck exploded and set fire to their home town of Berlin, N. Y.

Kenneth McCumber, 51, and his wife Florence, 53, had been in critical condition at Samaritan Hospital.

The McCumbers, who were buried from their house which was leveled when caught directly in the path of the explosion, were the fourth and fifth to die because of the explosion and fire.

Five others remain in critical condition.

It Seems to Me . . .

Michigan Sticks With Romney as GOP Presidential Nominee

Dark horse possibilities for the GOP Presidential nomination are weaving a pattern through the news.

Primarily, Michigan is interested in Oakland County's George W. Romney. He has never declared himself but plenty of loyal friends have. Everyone agrees that a smashing victory over the Democratic incumbent in the gubernatorial campaign would hurl him into the center of the national ring; and a defeat would slam the door. Michigan is one of the critical states and a Wolverine candidate would be very acceptable on the national ticket.

Representative WILLIAM W. SCRANTON, Pennsylvania, a candidate for the Governorship there, is another who could step to the center of the stage. The coming battle for the Governor's mansion will play a prominent part for him.

Governor Nelson Rockefeller is in a little different position. Sharp-eyed and calculating critics say that mere victory won't suffice for him. His New York margin must be "substantial" and that means half a million votes. Here's a tough assignment.

RICHARD NIXON, always a contender, faces a grim battle in California. Like the other gubernatorial candidates, a defeat would probably terminate his aspiration. A loss on the Coast would cost him too much prestige to permit a comeback, in spite of his past record.

Barry Goldwater is always in the picture. His conservatism has won him a host of friends who are weary of extremists, liberals, socialists, left wingers and modern Democrats.

Senator TOWER, Texas, stands smilingly in the wings, merely waiting for a nod from the M.C. to take a long, low bow. He amazed Texas and the whole Nation and should he survive another joust at the polls, he'll be "in there."

There'll be others. The prize is mighty. It's perfectly possible the nominee-to-be may not even have emerged from his igloo as yet. The entire Nation could be in abysmal ignorance of the fact that he'll be the ultimate boy. Through it all, Michigan sticks with Romney.

Peculiar Weather . . .

Letters to the Voice of the People have been asking: "What's wrong with the weather?" Well, what is?

Certainly, it's "peculiar." One writer says we've had more east wind this summer than ever in history, and goes on to point out that usually this means rain. Yet during June and the first half of July we were dreadfully dry.

And how about the mercury? VOP letters say this is "the coolest summer ever." We've had a paucity of those 100-degree days, Allah be praised. In fact, the mercury has rarely touched 90. This is probably the pleasantest summer since Chief PONTIAC sheathed his tomahawk.

How can we earn another?

What a Group . . .

A "study group" pompously self-titled "The American Association for the United Nations" is digging in once more to sell the U.N. on admitting Red China. As you might suspect, the grandiloquent name of these associated mugwumps is purely their own. They never won it in a popularity contest or the open market.

They want to proclaim Mao Tse-tung's punks "the effective government of China." Through the "generosity" of their big, palpitating hearts they would "allow" President Chiang Kai-shek to exist in his independent Formosa and even have a representative in the General Assembly. Mao's brigands would take over Formosa's seat on the Security Council.

Yes, indeed. The whole world is expecting President KENNEDY's administration to squelch this move. Will it come as any surprise to learn that a Mrs. ELEANOR ROOSEVELT is one of the bell crows in this renegade affair? It's just another case of water seeking its own level.

And in Conclusion . . .

Jottings from the well-thumbed notebook of your peripatetic reporter:

An old pal, TOM ADAMS, tells me I'm going to lose a sugar cookie on the bet that DEBUSSCHKE wouldn't make the big leagues. "He'll do it in '63," says TOM. Rating SISLER as a pitcher, which he was at Michigan, TOM's the U. of M.'s all-time all-star first baseman. CONNIE MACK wanted him. . . . Here's the way the globe's 3 billion people are divided: 930 million yellow, 930 million white, 900 million red (Southeastern Asia, East Indies, Philippines and U.S. Indians); 240 million black. . . . Overheard: "A Russian atheist is someone that doesn't believe in KRUSHCHEV." . . . A promotion man has canceled $3 million worth of endorsements for LIZ TAYLOR.

I can't prove it, but I'll bet a sugar cookie Robbie Bull Baylor, will be one of the outstanding collegians in the All-Star football game against the Packers. . . . Eye men advise you to have another light when you're watching TV. . . . One out of every two brides is under 20. . . . Stanford Research says there are 16-million people over 65, and only a million and a half have more than $3,000 a year.

Overheard: "Trying to sell without advertising is like winning at a pretty girl in the dark. You know all about it yourself but no one else does." . . . Women like to bet on gray horses, but they have a poor winning record. . . . Young CLINT MURCHISON, son of the Texas millionaire, was first in his graduating class at Lawrenceville, Duke and M.I.T. (where he earned his masters in math). . . . Dept. of Cheers and Jeers: The C's—Teister; the J's: that ballyhooed TV program, called "The Lively Ones," which uncovered the worst photography of the summer. (But this flaw wasn't too important. The bulk of it wasn't worth photographing.)

MANY a person climbs the ladder to success by swallowing his pride and licking the boots of the person above him.

David Lawrence Says:

Recognition Paid to an 'Old Soldier'

WASHINGTON — At last, in American history, a sad chapter of seeming ingratitude has been superseded by an act of gratitude. Congress now has passed a resolution tendering to Gen. Douglas MacArthur, the thanks of the nation for his distinguished military service to the American people.

So far as the official record is concerned, Gen. MacArthur has been listed since 1951 as an officer removed from all command for alleged insubordination.

A committee of Congress investigated at the time, but did not come to any formal conclusion, as obviously a Democratic Congress hesitated to censure the impulsive act of a Democratic president who was misled by something that could have been handled more gracefully.

It happened that Gen. MacArthur answered a letter of inquiry from the Republican leader in the House of Representatives, Joseph W. Martin of Massachusetts, who had asked the general for his opinion on Far Eastern military questions.

Military officers can testify freely before congressional committees as long as they do not disclose military secrets.

Yet a letter, which amounted to the same thing as testimony on broad policy problems, prompted the punishment that was meted out. The letter, incidentally, was never intended for publication.

HAD 2 COMMANDS Gen. MacArthur had two commands at the time. He was commander of the Allied occupation of Japan, and he was also commander of the United Nations forces in Korea.

Had the American president wished, he could have changed commanders in Korea without disturbing the position of command Gen. MacArthur held in Japan.

Mr. Truman was urged to do so by his own military chiefs in Washington and by some of his Cabinet officers but, apparently still resentful over the letter to former House Speaker Martin, chose to strip Gen. MacArthur of all command and bring him home with a public reprimand.

For 11 years now the distinguished general has lived in retirement. Many of the men who served under him have not forgotten his remarkable acts of personal bravery and skillful command, and have felt that the nation should be reminded in a formal way of those contributions.

It has been a delicate subject to raise because of the old political controversy. But Representative L. Mendel Rivers of South Carolina, Democrat, never gave up.

He succeeded a few years ago in getting a resolution before a committee of Congress but couldn't somehow get it to the floor for action. This time, however, he was successful.

PASSED UNANIMOUSLY Chairman Carl Vinson of the House Armed Services Committee and Speaker John McCormack gave permission to have the resolution brought up. It passed unanimously.

This correspondent, along with other newsmen covering the War Department early in 1957, thought Douglas MacArthur, then a major, was one of the most brilliant public relations officers the government had ever had and expressed professional regret when he suddenly announced that he was applying for overseas duty.

Q—My sister writes from Sweden that her baby was delivered with the help of a "vacuum extractor" that shortened her labor and made it easier. What is this extractor? It is being used in America?

A—The Malmstrom vacuum extractor is of Swedish origin.

It consists of a suction cup that is fitted to whatever part of the baby shows except for the face. Thus, it might be attached to the head or brow to aid delivery.

The extractor may be used in place of forceps. Naturally, its use requires skill, and initial experiences here in America tend to confirm the claim that it is a "definite aid to delivery."

The risk of its use to the mother is negligible. Damages to the baby consist merely of slight blistering and superficial abrasions at the place of contact.

While on the subject of childbirth, another promising innovation is that of use of a pressure suit, such as is worn by astronauts.

This suit permits pressure to be exerted on the abdominal wall as an aid to uterine contractions.

Please understand, however, that these innovations are still in experimental phases.

They are not yet available for routine use except under expertly controlled conditions.

Newton D. Baker, secretary of war at the time in the Wilson administration, said to his news conference:

"Watch that young man. He'll be a general soon, and some day he will be chief of staff of the Army."

The prophecy came true. Major MacArthur was wounded in the war and, as commander of an infantry brigade, won a string of medals for his bravery in action.

Later he did become chief of staff of the U.S. Army. What he did in liberating the Philippines from the Japanese in 1945, together with his remarkable service in the Korean War, also events recent enough for most people in this country to recall.

At last the record has been set straight, and, fortunately, this comes during the lifetime of the 82-year-old veteran.

Congress apparently is not willing that in official history the memory of what Douglas MacArthur did for his country should fade away but wants it to remain instead an enduring example of devotion to the nation's service.

In 1933 the free press in British Columbia under an enemy of the Communists in power by alerting the country to the dangers of subversion. Since then the free press has been the target of the Communists who are back in power.

The form of government does not now allow them to liquidate the press outright as has been done in Cuba where free newspapers have been suppressed. But it does give them the power to introduce legislation designed to harass free newspapers into submission or extinction.

Regrettably, the free press in our country still lacks the unity to teach the aggressors humble mode. We who are workers on this newspaper feel the spirit of our people rising to meet the challenge to our liberty. And we say there is not one man who whines his newspaper to range on its principles in exchange for survival under a despotic regime which the pressless bread, would be bought in shame, and enjoyed in shame.

The danger to the hemisphere is not only of losing freedom of the press but other freedoms as well. To this we may add that freedom of democracy and freedom of the press stand and fall together. Perhaps if this was fully understood the press in this country would be seen in its true light as the bastion of democracy.

Voice of the People:

Confusion in State Capital Prompts Readers' Interest

Many questions come to mind about this Lansing confusion. I'm more confused than I have ever been in my short life. Does this mean that our Senators have been elected unlawfully and illegally?

Are all of the laws illegal? Are any of our laws legal?

If the law about the sales tax, gasoline tax, license and so many nuisance taxes are illegal, do I get my money back? How can an unlawful body of lawmakers make legal laws? How can unlawful lawmakers appoint Supreme Court judges?

If the judges are appointed by an unlawful body or law, how can they make a lawful decision?

If the Senators are an unlawful body, how can they make a new lawful law?

The State of Confusion

The U.S. is a union of semi-sovereign states. The Tenth Amendment makes this very clear. Thus, this state sovereignty is recognized by granting equal representation to separate and equal states in the U.S. Senate. State themselves exist as integral political entities. Counties possess no inherent power.

In the Oakland GOP, as witnessed by their pledge to attempt to overthrow the Supreme Court decision, are desirous of preventing Oakland from attaining additional Senate seats so that outside "Slumponny Counties," where deerheads and babbling brooks outnumber people, can continue to dominate the legislature, then let them campaign on this archaic platform.

People assume that the principle of an upper House apportioned by area and a lower House apportioned by population established in the national government should also be on the state level. They assume that the state in the national government parallels the senatorial district on the state level. But that does not exist.

The national government established a division of power between the state and the nation. All the Congress of the central government was in two Houses, one to represent people and one to represent states. In the first each person was to be equally represented; each state to be equally represented in the second. State governments were not set on this principle. The states are more-or-less natural geographical, social and economic areas. The senatorial districts established by the legislature are too arbitrary and superficial.

Under the present arrangement the majority rules in the House, appointed by population while the minority rules in the Senate, apportioned by the area, so the minority has veto power. Balancing majority rule with minority rights is age old, but while the minority has rights, should it have veto power? One who might be to leave the Senate apportioned by area and so controlled by the rural minority, but to replace its veto power by a delaying power, similar to the function of the House of Lords in Parliament.

Such a system would better insure both majority rule and minority rights.

Church Faces Racial Problem

Seventh-Day Adventists Elect Negro Official as Protest Staged

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The Seventh-Day Adventist Church has a Negro vice president today, and a racial problem.

The new executive, Frank L. Peterson, 69, of Washington, D.C., was elected as one of the church's four general vice presidents at Sunday's business session of the 49th world conference at Civic Auditorium.

STAGE PROTEST

The action came as a Negro group within the church, the Laymen's Leadership Conference, protested racial policy at a mass meeting at the nearby Jack Tar Hotel. Church leaders said Peterson's election was not as a result of the demonstration, however.

The Laymen's Leadership Conference was formed last year to negotiate with the world conference for greater Negro rights within the church. Its chairman, Frank W. Hale Jr., Negro chairman of the English department at Central State College, Wilberforce, Ohio, told the mass meeting the church had done almost nothing in the past year toward rooting out segregation and lifting racial bars in employment at church institutions.

HITS PLANS

He declared racial plans are patently designed to reduce to the barest minimum the contact between blacks and whites.

'GOP Will Win Control of House,' Says Chairman

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Republican National Chairman William F. Miller has predicted that the GOP will win control of the House and gain seats in the Senate in the November elections.

Miller charged that the nation had "drifted back badly" during President Kennedy's 19 months in office and said the voters would repudiate the Democrats because of a series of broken promises and broken pledges.

The GOP Chairman, appearing yesterday on a television program, said:

"I am being extremely honest and forthright when I say that I think we are going to win the House of Representatives. . . . We are very encouraged we will get at least the 41 seats we need additionally to control the House. It is not many more."

He said it was not possible for the GOP to get control of the Senate, but he forecast a Republican gain of "two to three to four" seats. The Democrats now hold 64 of the 100 Senate seats.

DON'T FEAR JFK

Miller said he did not think President Kennedy "will adversely affect Republican fortunes at all."

by campaigning personally for Democratic candidates.

He said Kennedy could not arouse Democrats in Congress to support him, "let alone the Democrats in the country."

Among the House gains forecast by Miller were five seats in New York, "several" in the Midwest and unspecified numbers in the South, the West Coast and "elsewhere."

In Senate races, he said, the GOP had "an excellent chance" of gaining a seat each in Pennsylvania, Idaho, Colorado and Oregon.

Miller said former President Dwight D. Eisenhower would play a "rather substantial" role in the Republican Congressional campaigns.

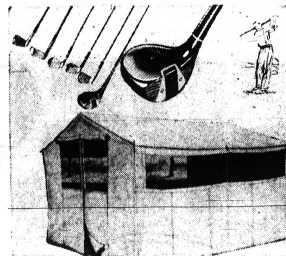

He said Eisenhower would make trips to California, Indiana, Massachusetts and possibly South Carolina.

Asked to run down possibilities for the 1964 GOP Presidential Nomination, Miller listed former Vice President Richard Nixon, New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller, Sen. Barry Goldwater, Michigan gubernatorial Candidate George Romney and Pennsylvania gubernatorial Candidate William Scranton.

In Recess Waiting for U.S. Court Ruling

Michigan Legislature Will Hold Status Quo

LANSING (UPI) — The Michigan legislature remained in recess today and the chances of a session in the near future seemed dim.

But the emphasis remained on reappointment. Sen. Carlton H. Morris, R-Kalamazoo, said Saturday his Senate Judiciary Committee would meet Thursday to "examine any and all (reappointment) plans which must of necessity be confined to constitutional amendments or the adoption of a constitutional convention program."

REBOSTED AT 34 LEVEL.

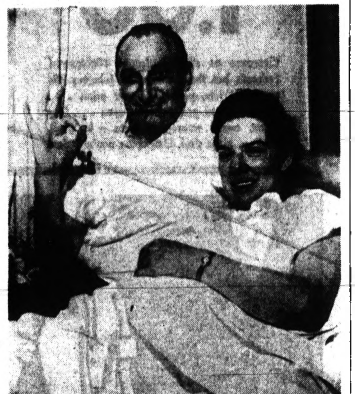

Morris said Saturday it would be unconstitutional to try to pass a reappointment bill in the legislature in view of the fact U.S. Supreme Court Justice Potter Stewart's stay order restored the 1952 constitutional amendment that froze Senate districts at the 34-member level.

Other Republican leaders in the legislature indicated they wanted to avoid sessions to maintain the "status quo."

House Speaker Don T. Pearis, R-Buchanan, said he would be opposed to a limited session for political purposes.

"The matter is in the hands of the U.S. Supreme Court. It is that court's decision to make and not our purpose to spend time and money to hear political speeches about the issue," he said.

Sen. Frank D. Beadle, R-St. Clair, said Saturday, "What boils down to is we want to maintain the status quo until we find out what the U.S. Supreme Court's decision is all about."

A cheering crowd of about 2,500 Cuban exiles welcomed the three prisoners when they landed at Miami International Airport, their freedom purchased through donations from family and friends.

They were Jorge Govin, 33, son of the former owner of the Havana Newspaper El Mundo; Ernest Fitzgerald Williams and Fabio Trevejer Aguilera.

Khrushchev Blames Stalin for Farm Crisis

MOSCOW (UPI) — Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev yesterday blamed the "heritage" of Stalin for the Soviet Union's farm problems and said it must be "uprooted."

Khrushchev spoke at the opening of the Kremenchuk Power Station on the Dnieper River in the Ukraine and Moscow radio carried a recording of it.

The Soviet leader said Stalin had failed to appreciate the importance of cheap power and had forbidden the laying of power lines across the state and collective farms.

Justice Stewart's decision to stay the ruling of the Michigan Supreme Court gave the legislature a respite from the task of reapportioning the Senate on a 32-seat basis by Aug. 20.

IN RECESS TO DECEMBER

Now, the legislature is in recess until Dec. 27.

Morris' committee will be meeting this week to study the reapportionment problem in light of Stewart's ruling.

With the December convening date, the power of recall rests in the hands of a legislative executive group and a special summons by Gov. John B. Swainson to convene can be avoided.

Following the Saturday meeting of his committee, Morris said the committee and the three senators that protested the ruling in the case filed to the State high court by August Scholle, Michigan AFL-CIO president, that the famous Tennessee case (Baker vs. Carr) had been interpreted broadly when it should have been viewed in a more restricted light.

He said it was the understanding of the four senators who went Littleton, N. H., for the stay hearing that the U.S. high court had decided only that reapportionment matters were within jurisdiction of the courts and that apportionment must have a rational basis.

There was no indication, he said, that this means apportionment on a strict population basis. This is the matter the U.S. Supreme Court will hear in the appeal, which must be filed by the senators defendant within 90 days.

Most lawmakers agreed that a U.S. Supreme Court ruling is unlikely before next year.

"HAPPY BIRTHDAY" — Jacqueline Kennedy, wearing a pale ochre mantilla, leaves St. Francis Xavier Church, Hyannis, Mass., where she and the President attended Mass Sunday morning. About 600 people greeted the Kennedys with shouts of "happy birthday" as they entered and left church. The First Lady was 33 years old Saturday.

Fashion House Refuses to Let Her See Latest Collection as Writer

PARIS (AP) — The Givenchy Fashion House said today it turned down a request by Princess Radziwill, Jacqueline Kennedy's sister, to see Givenchy's fall and winter collection this week.

A Givenchy spokesman said the request was refused because Princess Radziwill wanted to view the collection as a journalist.

But the Paris fashion world wondered if the designer might have been piqued because the princess, once a customer of his, has started buying from rival designer Yves Saint-Laurent.

Givenchy has been one of Mrs. Kennedy's favorite designers, and it is understood Princess Radziwill influenced her to buy from him.

The princess also is understood to have influenced Mrs. Kennedy to wear a Givenchy gown to the state dinner given during her visit with the President to Paris. It was the only French design she wore during her visit.

Princess Radziwill has been covering the Paris fashion showings for McCall's Magazine.

A spokesman for Givenchy said because of this, she was told she would have to take her place with other fashion writers who are permitted to see the collection only at the end of August, a month after the buyers.

Givenchy and Balenciaga refused to go along with the other Paris fashion houses who permit fashion writers to cover their collections at the opening of the season.

Injuries Prove Fatal to Auto-Crash Victim

SOUTH HAVEN (AP) — A suburban Chicago woman died Saturday night of injuries suffered in a two-car collision near this southwestern Michigan City July 12.

Kathryn Alice Saven, 31, of Hinsdale, Ill., became the second victim of the crash. Walter Karl Jr., 25, of Hancock, was dead at the scene.

Author in S. Africa Expects Ban Ruling

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP) — Author Ann Paton, a foe of South Africa's strict racial policies, says he expects to be cited under the government's new sabotage law.

Paton, who heads South Africa's multiracial Liberal party, said Sunday he was questioned by a member of the security branch police last Thursday.

South Africa's government is expected to announce this week the first of those "banned" under the sabotage law. The government says the law is necessary to strike at communism and other forms of subversion.

Banned persons will be prohibited from attending meetings and their comments and writings — whether in South Africa —

Buys 2 Old Streetcars, Operating Since 1907

VERACRUZ, Mexico (AP) — Gerald Brookings of Cleveland, Ohio, has bought this city's two most venerable streetcars, which have been operating continuously since 1907. The price was not disclosed.

Brookings said the cars will be shipped to a museum he has in Cleveland's Columbia Park.

merce Commission was prepared to move into the probe.

Newell's statement concerning the track alignment was based on first-hand reports given by Howard C. Kobout, the railroad's regional manager in Philadelphia.

Kobout directed the salvage and repair crews that worked throughout Saturday night to repair the 1,500 feet of track.

The Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission joined the railroad in the investigation of the derailment, and the Interstate Commerce Commission was prepared to move into the probe.

Newell's statement concerning the track alignment was based on first-hand reports given by Howard C. Kobout, the railroad's regional manager in Philadelphia.

Kobout directed the salvage and repair crews that worked throughout Saturday night to repair the 1,500 feet of track.

With its main line back in service, the railroad began preparations to host the three death train that plunged down an embankment into the shallow waters of the Susquehanna River.

Another railroad spokesman said track was being repaired last week in the area of the derailment.

"Whether or not the repair of track adjacent to where the wreck occurred had anything to do with the derailment is a matter of speculation," said the spokesman.

The wreck was the nation's worst rail disaster since Sept. 15, 1938, when 48 persons died in a fatal crash at Steelton, Pa., in which a train that plunged from an open drawbridge into Newark Bay at Bayonne, N. J.

It was the second wreck involving a Pennsylvania train carrying sports fans within 18 months. An 11-car train from Philadelphia to Bowie Race Track derailed near Steelton last May.

Engineman J. F. Shue of Royalton, Pa., told railroad officials he was doing between 65 and 70 miles per hour. Officials said the speed limit over the straight stretch is 75 mph.

Railroad officials said the track at Steelton was under repair by 40 or 50 trains a day. Just an hour before the derailment, officials said, a mail train passed over the same track.

After tumbling down an angled 40-foot embankment, two of the shattered cars of the nine-car coach train came to rest on their sides. A third car, its roof shredded, remained upright in about three feet of water.

The three cars that tumbled into the river were the last three cars of the train and were the only ones occupied. Two empty coaches also left the rails but remained upright. The two, along with three more up front, would have been filled by fans boarding the train at Lancaster and Coatesville.

The death toll might have been higher except that the broad stream is extremely low because of an 11-week drought.

"You saw those bodies along the bank of the river and the coaches in the water and you realized these were families on their way to a baseball game," said the Rev. Stephen J. Hrus, pastor of St. Peter's Roman Catholic Church in Steelton.

The baseball special, carrying fans to a National League game at Philadelphia, left nearby Harrisburg for the Pirates-Phillies baseball game. The cars derailed and plunged into the river. Railroad crews in the background repair the tracks. At least 19 passengers were killed and over 100 were injured.

WRECK SCENE: 100 INJURED — Three Pennsylvania Railroad passenger cars sit on the edge of the Susquehanna River near Harrisburg, Pa., where they landed late Saturday while part of the excursion train, en route from Harrisburg to Philadelphia for the Pirates-Phillies baseball game. Don't Bother Seeking Party Differences

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON — James Bryce was puzzled by the Democrats and Republicans. They still have this Englishman guessing if he were alive now.

In his book, "The American Commonwealth," he asked 71 years ago: What's the difference between the two parties? He concluded he didn't know.

A lot of inquisitive voters will have the same trouble in this year's congressional election, while some of the others verify the conclusion of Wilfred E. Binkley.

This political scientist, writing some years ago, asked: "What motivates the voter making a party choice?"

He said, by and large, the decision is reached by non-logical processes.

FAMILY INFLUENCE

"If there is one determining factor it is probably the climate of opinion in which the voter has lived and this was originally provided for him by his family."

He might have added this could change in moments of great national agitation, of crisis, or in an election campaign with deep emotional issues.

Unless there's an explosion before November this will be an exciting campaign without national agitation, crisis, or emotional issues, except perhaps for older people who saw the medical care plan defeated.

Even there, although President Kennedy will stump to get more Democrats elected, his own Democrats deflated the issue for him since they must share responsibility with Republicans for killing medical care.

EMBARRASSING

Just because enough of them, mostly Southerners, joined Republicans in killing that bill and Kennedy programs, the President is in an embarrassing position in asking for more Democrats.

What he'll really be pleading for is more Democrats to make up for the vote of the Democrats who side with Republicans. It's this very Democratic desertion which makes it difficult, and often unconvincing, for other Democrats to insist upon any real difference between the parties as parties.

There was a sharp distinction in the depression days of the 1930s between the Democrats who wanted action and the stand-pat conservative Republicans.

There was also a great difference on foreign policy between the internationally minded Democrats and the isolationist Republicans before and even after World War II.

But the Republicans thereafter teamed up with Democrats to support the same policy of Kennedy because there is no great foreign issue this year, international affairs can hardly be much of a campaign dispute.

At home the economy has slipped. This may have some effect, but not to the degree of a depression.

The two parties, without any wide emotional pressure at home or abroad for change or innovation, have reverted to what both of them truly are in any fairly normal period: They're both conservative.

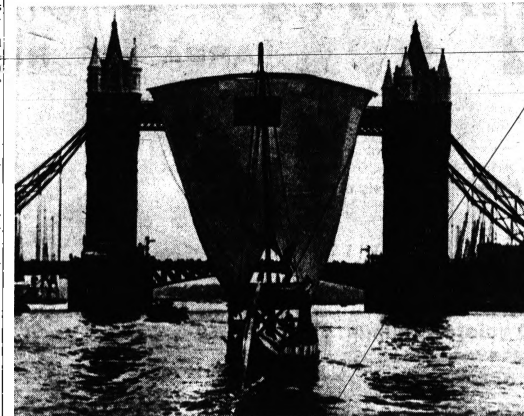

The fact that these congressional politicians think they can afford to be conservative seems to be a pretty good reflection of a broad popular complacency at this time among the voters.

Dies of Stab Wound

HART — Otis Pankard, 36, of rural Hart, died in a Hart hospital yesterday after being stabbed in the chest in a fight in back of a bar. Owens County sheriff's officers and state police detectives are investigating.

Steel Co. Founder Dead

DETROIT (AP) — George R. Fink, 75, founder and retired president of the Great Lakes Steel Corp., died Sunday. Fink founded the Michigan Steel Co. in Detroit and the Great Lakes firm. A member later made him president of National Steel Corp. He was born in Brackenridge, Pa.

A PORTUGUESE VISITOR — A Portuguese river boat has the London Tower Bridge as a backdrop as it sailed up the Thames River yesterday. The vessel, one of the picturesque craft which carries wine casks from wine centers down the Douro River to Oporto, Portugal, was brought to England on a mission of gratitude for cars in the British wine lanes. The boat was carried to the lower Thames aboard a British freighter and floated just below the city.

All of the dead except one were from the central Pennsylvania area. They included a family of four—Mrs. Ruth Crissman, 38, of Millerstown, Pa., her daughter, Rose, 16, her adopted son, Nick, 12, and her sister, Mrs. Jane Laumer of Mexico, Pa.

ONE WAS A GUEST

The boy, a New Yorker, had been living with the Crissmans since June. He had spent the previous summer at the Crissmans home under a special program sponsored by the New York Herald Tribune's fresh air program.

Mrs. Crissman was taking her adopted son to his first major league baseball game as a present. Only the husband, Edward, and a son, Kenneth, 20, survived.

Lyman Ellis Mark, 9, of Lubbock, Tex., was vacationing with his grandparents in Pennsylvania and was going to see his first major league baseball game. His grandmother, Florence Mark, 67, of nearby Mifflintown, was killed. "All I know is my grandmother is dead," said Lyman at a hospital.

Estimates on the number of dead varied because of difficulty in identifying some mangled bodies. The death toll, originally set at 23 by officials, was revised downward later.

Senator Calls LBJ's Bluff on Trip

Lyndon Johnson Is Taken Up on Travel Invitation

WASHINGTON—Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson made history of sorts when a humble Pakistani camel driver took him up on his offer of a ride. "You come on down and see me some time, huh?"

The other day, LBJ had his bluff called again. It happened while the Texas governor was attending a state luncheon sponsored by the visiting President of Ecuador at the Ecuadorian Embassy.

Lyndon's dinner partner happened to be Maurice Neuberger, widow of the late Senator Richard L. Neuberger, who is now the only Democratic woman senator. Their table conversation went like this:

LBJ: Why don't you come with me to Puerto Rico today for its tenth anniversary celebration? Lady Bird will lend you a nightgown, and I'll buy you a toothbrush.

MAURINE: The minute the dessert course is finished.

Maurine: All right. Give me a fifteen-minute headstart, and I'll meet you at the airport.

And she did, and she went, and who says a lady can't make up her mind?

It seems only yesterday that Communists and their leftist sympathizers throughout the world were hounding their breasts and shouting "shame" over the impending execution of Caryl Chessman in California.

Fourteen years following his original conviction, and after numerous reviews and stays of execution, Chessman was finally put to death in 1960, while the Reds whipped up an orgy of manila catenies from opponents of capital punishment throughout the world.

Chessman's crimes were these: Kidnapping, seventeen counts of robbery, sexual abuses, and attempted rape.

The other day the controlled Russian press self-righteously announced that two Soviet citizens, including two high officials, have been sentenced to death for bribery, currency speculation or fraud.

Among them are B. D. Dyshalyev, former chairman of the State Planning Commission, accused of stealing state property; and K. D.

Degtyarev, a former Soviet finance official sentenced to be shot for taking bribes.

NOT A SOUND: Funny, isn't it? Although the world rang for years with anguished cries of "free Chessman," not a single so-called liberal on the Iron Curtain has raised his voice to say: "Free Degtyarev," or "Free Dyshalyev."

With apologetics to good of! About

Ben Adhem of our grammar school days, we offer this commentary on the world's latest trouble spot:

Ahmed Ben Bella (may his tribe decrease)

Awoke Algeria from a false dream of peace

And stole by moonlight through the newly freed land capturing cities with his turmoil band.

What was needed was a Joan d'Arc with a cross of gold, For De Gaulle's peace pact had made Ben Bella bold.

And to the Premier named Ben Khedda he said:

"I'll rule them."

Ben Khedda heard and pondered. The next night he came again, and with a great wakening roar told the names of those whom the Kremlin boys had blessed.

And to Ben Bella's name led all the rest.

WARSAW, Poland (AP)—Polish sculptor Stanislaw Horopowiczki says the theft of his latest abstract work, titled "Cloud," from an exhibition here proves that "modern art does communicate, despite all the opinions that it cannot be understood by laymen."

St. Marys Fair--and a Good Time Was Had by All

"Do I hear a bid? Duane Upton, Rochester, acted as auctioneer at the St. Marys-in-the-Hills ninth annual Country Fair Saturday. This is the third year that Upton has presided at the Country auction. A rapt group of young and adult fair goers — mostly feminine — is held by his chant. Probably they bought everything he put up for sale.

Unit Holds Workshop

A workshop on flower arrangements in small vases followed the July meeting of the Lorraine Manor Branch, Women's National Farm and Garden Association in the home of Mrs. Joseph Carpenter on Fernbury Drive, Waterford Township.

Plans were completed for the forthcoming "Miracle of Flowers" Sept. 14-15 at the Miracle Mile Shopping Center.

Asphalt Needs Regular Care

Even though asphalt tile is a tough, attractive flooring, regular care is required to keep it from getting scratched and shabby. Wash it regularly with thick warm soap or detergent suds skimmed from the top of the pail, and time with a mop wrung out of clear water. Self-polishing wax is the best type for asphalt tile floors.

Japanese Soaky

In ordinary Japanese houses, bathtubs are made of wood—not the gleaming porcelain Americans are used to. Water for these wooden tubs is heated in a tank by gas, wood, or coal. Bathers soap themselves outside the tub, then enter it only to soak in the hot water.

Tell Truth to Friend About Gift

By the Emily Post Institute

Q: I find myself in a very embarrassing situation and would appreciate your help. I have just received a note from a friend thanking me for an anniversary present I am supposed to have sent to her, but didn't.

Evidently the name on the card enclosed with it was very similar to mine and she took it for granted that it was from me. It makes it all the more embarrassing because she goes on to say that I am always so thoughtful, and that it was wonderful of me to remember her anniversary. What do I do now?

A: The only thing you can do is to write to her and say you are more than sorry that you don't deserve her thanks but that much as you wish the present had been from you, you have to confess it was not.

Q: My son was invited to spend last weekend at the house of a girl he met several months ago. Her mother is dead and she lives with her father. The question has come up as to whom he should write his note of thanks.

I think he should send it to the father who was his host, but my son thinks that the note should be written to the girl as she was the one who invited him. Will you please tell us what is right?

A: Correctly, he should write to her father—just as he would have written to her mother. However, it would not be wrong to write to the girl and ask her to please thank her father.

Q: The son of the proprietor of the beauty salon to which I go, has recently come to work in his father's establishment. I would like to know if he should be given a tip for his services. I know the proprietor is not given a tip but does this also apply to members of his family?

A: The young man, even though he is the son of the proprietor, should be given a tip for his services.

Q: Will you please tell me the correct form of address when writing to the clergy? The company I work for corresponds with members of the clergy from time to time and there is a controversy among the stenographers as to whether or not the word "the" should precede the title on the envelope.

Also, is it proper to begin the letter Dear Reverend Brown, Dear Father Brown or Dear Sir?

A: "The" should precede Reverend on the envelope. You begin a formal letter, "Reverend and Dear Sir." Informally you begin, "Dear Father Brown."

Q: The other evening while dining with some friends, the host ordered a bottle of wine with dinner. When the waiter brought it to the table he poured wine into the host's glass before filling the glasses of the guests.

I always thought it was improper for the host (or host) to be served before guests. Shouldn't the glasses of the guests have been filled first?

A: The waiter poured only a very little into the host's glass so that he could taste it to be sure the wine was what he ordered and that it was not spoiled and was fit to be served to his guests.

Q: Does the bride's mother wear a long or a short dress? For information concerning the duties of the bride's parents as well as those of the wedding guests, send for the new Emily Post Institute booklet entitled, "Correct Manners for the Wedding Reception." To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin and a self-addressed, stamped envelope to the Emily Post Institute, care of The Pontiac Press.

The Emily Post Institute cannot answer personal mail, but all questions of general interest are answered in this column.

Jane Margaret Charles

Shower Honors Fall Bride-Elect

September bride-elect Jane Margaret Charles was honored at a tea and linen shower Sunday in the home of Mrs. Donald McInish on Mark Avenue. Hostesses were Mrs. Nelson Fowler and Mrs. Rena Conklin, both of Detroit.

Carol Lipinski Is Married to Charles Hengel

Carol Lipinski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew M. Lipinski, Winona, Minn., and Charles J. Hengel of Cass, Elizabeth Road, son of the Charles Hengels also of Winona, were married July 1 in St. Stanislaus Catholic Church in that city.

Rev. N. F. Grulkowski performed the double-ring ceremony.

After August 27, the couple will be at home in Drayton Plains.

Color Brightens Sweeping Chores

Sweep we must — so it might as well be with a vividly hued broom as a plain one. A new plastic number with unbreakable aluminum head comes in such unbreakable colors as coral, orchid, blue, gold, or aqua — cheery enough to make even floor-sweeping seem less of a chore. This broom won't rust, but will wash safely in soap or detergent suds stay efficiently clean.

Nancy Bishop of Rochester went to the fair to use her talent for drawing portraits in pastels and charcoal. Most of her models were children, like Darlene Dutcher, 5-year-old daughter of the Jack E. Dutchers of Lake Orion. Nancy did a thriving business all day.

Wife Inconsiderate—Abby Backache? Stay in Bed

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My wife invited her whole family out to the house for the Fourth of July when she knew I had been having a lot of trouble with a bad back.

I didn't even know anyone was coming until three carloads of them pulled into our driveway. I was in bed at the time and in such agony I could hardly stand a straight.

So my wife comes in and asks me if I would mind barbecuing hogdags for 42 people!

I pulled myself out of bed and barbecued, but it almost killed me. I was so mad I didn't speak to her for a week. She still can't see where she did anything wrong. Can you explain it to her, woman to woman?

MISHUGA

DEAR MISH: Your wife was very inconsiderate to have invited guests, knowing your condition. But if you left a sick bed and in agony barbecued hogdags for 42 people, you must have been delicious. Chew her out and get it over with.

DEAR ABBY: My boy friend is a real nut on safety belts. Since he put them in his car I can't sit close to him any more. The minute we get into his car he straps himself in, and tells me to do the same. Abby, this means I am strapped in near the door — just miles from him. I don't like it. Any suggestions?

TOO SAFE

DEAR ABBY: The chapter "For Husbands Only" in your book DEAR ABBY ON MARRIAGE should be printed on the front page of every newspaper in the country. I've never read anything so simple and true and beautiful in all my life. I cry every time I read it. I love you for writing it.

HELEN FROM CHANDLER'S

DEAR HELEN: And thank you for your lovely letter. Send me your full name and address, and I'll send you an autographed copy of my book.

CONFIDENTIAL TO SUE: You have a "right" complex. Send your money and perhaps everyone else will. Unload your problem on Abby. For a personal reply, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to ABBY, care of The Pontiac Press.

For Abby's booklet, "How to Have a Lovely Wedding," send 36 cents to ABBY, care of The Pontiac Press, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

'Playful' Quotes

(UPI) — Joseph Lee, a Bostonian known as the godfather of play, is best remembered for his pungent quotations, the National Recreation Association reports.

Samples: "The boy without a playground is the father of the man without a job"; "we do not cease playing because we are old; we grow old because we cease playing."

New Cabinet Member to Bring Sparkling Wife to Washington

CLEVELAND (UPI)—Washington will like Ann Celebrezze.

Famed locally for her warm personality, tact, and Italian dishes, friends of Mrs. Anthony J. Celebrezze predict she will make the transition from first lady of Cleveland to wife of a Cabinet member without difficulty.

Mrs. Celebrezze is taking a well-worn family Bible, which she bought years before she married her high school sweetheart, for her husband to use when he is sworn in tomorrow as secretary of health, education and welfare in President Kennedy's Cabinet.

"It won't be easy but I am going to try to keep life at home as normal as possible for the family," Mrs. Celebrezze said as she answered the endless phone calls that have come since the President tapped her husband to head the vast federal department. It was the same statement she made when her husband beat the local Democratic organization almost 10 years ago to win election as mayor as an independent Democrat. He was re-elected four times to set a record for tenure in the office.

SERVED WELL

Show her husband's first election, local people feel that Mrs. Celebrezze has served the city well as first lady and at the same time reared three children to a normal life.

Mrs. Celebrezze regards her new life as a challenge. Friends are sure her unaffected charm, tact and modesty, coupled with enthusiasm and warm personality, will make the adjustment a successful one.

The move to Washington will bring the family closer together. Son Anthony Jr., 20, is a cadet in the U.S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md., and daughter Jean, 18, had planned to enroll as a freshman in Washington's Immaculata Junior College. The youngest daughter is Susan Marie, 14.

A pretty, round-faced five-foot, two-inch brunette, Mrs. Celebrezze entertains frequently and looks forward to meeting new Washington friends.

NOT JUST JOINER

The busier the day, the more she manages to accomplish. Washington society will learn that if she lends her name to a civic or charitable affair, she means to work, not just join the committee.

Mrs. Celebrezze likes to cook and has a reputation for preparing appealing Italian dishes, although she describes her family as steak eaters.

"Our biggest problem will be finding a house," she said, a new experience for the Celebrezzes who have lived in the same house for more than 20 years.

"We don't know what we are going to do, whether we will rent a house in Washington or buy one," she said, "and then we don't know what we will do about the house here, sell or rent it, or keep a house here."

CALM FOR 'THE MAYOR'

Mrs. Celebrezze said she followed politics closely but seldom discussed them with "The Mayor." She smiled that she had given him the nickname "The Mayor" and wondered how she would break the habit.

"When Tony is at home, he is really at home," she said. "He leaves his work and his worries at the office. I feel it is my job to keep things calm and peaceful for him at home. That's the way 'The Mayor' likes home to be."

Validation of her class at the high school where she and Tony first began dating, Mrs.

Celebrezze has been active in a number of charitable and civic organizations.

The list includes Camp Fire Girls, Red Cross, National Conference of Christians and Jews, Catholic Federation of Women's Clubs, PTA, Girl Scouts, League of Women Voters, the Moose Lodge activities, the Women's Costume Club, Democratic League and various local church and hospital groups.

For the big day in Washington when her husband goes to the White House to be sworn in as head of the federal department, Mrs. Celebrezze bought a two-piece suit with matching hat.

The Brazilian seaport of Manaus is situated a thousand miles from the ocean up the Amazon River.

Leprosy On Increase

Q. Are there many cases of leprosy in this country? How is it transmitted?

A. No. The only regions where leprosy occurs to any appreciable extent are those which have a combination of high humidity and tropical climate. Recent studies in South America and the Orient seem to indicate that leprosy is again on the increase. The method of transmission is a mystery, but so far as is known, all victims become infected before they are five years old. It is almost impossible for an adult to acquire the disease. The bacillus which causes leprosy was discovered by Dr. Hansen and the condition is sometimes referred to as Hansen's disease.

Q. Do city people ever contract undulant fever?

A. Yes. The greatest frequency of undulant fever is among packing house workers and veterinarians. The rate among such people is over five times higher than that in farm workers.

Practice Pitch Shot for Elevated Green

Use pitch on elevated greens.

By SANDRA HAYNIE
Written for NEA

Since women tend to get less distance than men with woods and long irons, they frequently do not reach the green in the number of strokes allowed by par.

They either fall short on their second or third shots, or the inner knowledge that they cannot reach the ball far makes them press—and wind up wide of the green.

For this reason, short iron approach shots—the chip which hits short of the cup and rolls up, and the pitch, which lands nearer the hole and stops quickly—are important.

Because backspin may prove difficult for the novice, I recommend the run-up shot whenever distance and terrain permit its safe use.

However, shooting to an elevated green or over obstacles, the pitch must be used. It is played mostly with a wedge, but some use an 8 or 9 iron. The pitch is played with a shorter grip on the club. The swing is much the same as for the chip, with the wrists cocked a bit more on the backswing. The distance the ball travels is largely determined by the amount of backswing.

NEXT: Backspin.

You can reduce your waist measurement with this exercise described by Josephine Lowman. Nothing makes a woman feel or look so youthful as a slim waist.

For Women of All Ages

Slim Waist Key to Youth

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

It is much more pleasant accumulating a roll over the girdle than it is getting rid of it. The roll probably represents luscious pastries, candies, exotic sauces and gravies, whipped cream, but braids, heavy with butter and lazy hot days.

Though thickening through the waistline often is acquired in very pleasant ways, it really is not worth it because there is nothing which makes a woman feel or look so youthful as a slim waist.

This middle-aged appearance absolutely can be controlled with exercise and an eye on the calorie chart.

POSTURE IMPORTANT

Evening, too, that posture has a dramatic effect on your waist. If you allow your bust to sink downward toward your ribs and your abdomen to protrude, an inch or more will be added to your waist measurement.

Try it! Stand. Let your abdomen protrude. Take your waist measurement. Now pull your abdomen in, tilt your ribs up. Hold, while you measure again. See what I mean?

There are many excellent exercises for the waistline. Here is one of them. Lie on your back with your legs straight and your arms resting on the floor, away from your sides, palms toward the floor.

Keep your knees straight and your heels on the floor as you drag your legs as far toward the left as possible. Keep your hips flat on the floor. Remain in this position for a few moments.

Keep the pull? Now drag your legs as far to the right as you can. Remain in that position for a few moments. Continue.

Another: Sit on the floor with your legs straight. Raise your arms upward, shoulder height. Separate your legs. Now bend forward and reach to touch your left toe with your right hand.

Raise trunk and return arms to sideward, shoulder-height position. This time touch your right toe with your left hand. Raise trunk and continue. If you cannot reach the toe at first, go as far as possible.

If you would like to have my latest, waist-slimming exercises, and a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 6 to Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

DETROIT (AP)—If delegates re-elect Richard Durant, a John Birch Society member, to his Republican party post "then you will have repudiated me," George Romney told nearly 400 Republicans Saturday.

Old-Timers to Vie for Fair Titles

Contests to pick the baldest head and the longest mustache will be among the activities on Old-Timers Day at the Michigan State Fair Aug. 30.

A hilarious kitchen band contest is also on the schedule of events announced by State Fair General Manager Walter A. Goodman and Director of Special Events William Hahn.

Opening a week earlier this year, the State Fair is slated from Aug. 4 through Sept. 3. Other contests among the old-timers from 3 to 4:45 p.m. at the music shall on the state fairgrounds in Detroit will be for the titles of prettiest hat, oldest man, oldest woman and oldest couple.

A queen of the old-timers will be chosen and the old-timer with the most grandchildren and great-grandchildren will be honored.

The kitchen band contest will feature musical groups using mostly kitchen utensils, with perhaps a regular instrument or two as accompaniment. Kitchen bands must have at least three members of their 10 or more members 60 or older.

Other activities will include a free tour of the fair by tractor train, a fashion show, a community sing and a variety show. Old-timers over 50 will be admitted free up to 3 p.m. on their day.

$3,000 Fire in Home Routs Family of 3

SOUTHFIELD — A family of three was routed out of a rented home here early this morning by a fire that caused an estimated $3,000 damage.

The blaze at the home of Jack McGee, 15805 12-Mile Road, is believed to have been started in the bedroom by a cigarette, according to Southfield firemen. No one was injured.

The fire, under control in less than two hours, was discovered by McGee about 3:45 a.m. The house is owned by Norma Tondler, 72182 Springbarber St.

$100,000 Damage Done by Mount Clemens Fire

MOUNT CLEMENS (AP)—High towering flames attracted 400 spectators early this morning as civilian and Air Force firemen fought a $100,000 blaze for two hours at the Northtown furniture store here.

No one was injured in the fire. Only part of one wall remained standing after the blaze.

Puller Sgt. William Holland said "we got there within minutes of the first alarm and the place was an inferno. It was a real monster of a fire."

Interfaith Camp to Open Season

Oldest Meeting in State Set Near Romeo; 1,500 Expect to Attend

ROMEO — An estimated 1,500 will attend Michigan's oldest interdenominational camp meeting at Simpson Park, 1½ miles north-west of here, daily beginning Thursday.

In its 98th season, the meeting will accommodate about 800 campers on the grounds for the 10-day event.

Housing for the campers will include a large hotel and annex, boys and girls dormitories and trailers, and cabins. Among campers will be whole families from babies to grandparents.

Preaching services will be held every day at 10:30 a.m., and 2 and 7 p.m. with Bible classes and recreation planned for the youngsters on the camp's fully equipped playground.

The two Sundays during the meeting are expected to draw an attendance of 2,500 persons, primarily for the 2:30 p.m. service.

Three preachers will divide the daily pastoral chores during the meeting. They are Rev. Dennis S. Kinnaw, Methodist minister from Loudonville, N. Y.; Dr. E. W. Freeman, Methodist evangelist from Hutchinson, Kan.; and Rev. E. D. Angell, pastor of Houghton College Church in Houghton, N. Y.

Rev. Kinnaw and Dr. Freeman are both graduates of Asbury Theological Seminary in Wilmore, Ky. Rev. Angell is president of Houghton College of the Wesleyan Methodist Church.

HEADS CAMP
Caretaker of the camp is Alfred Gascho, a retired Methodist minister from Caro.

Song leaders for the camp meeting will be Mr. and Mrs. Franklin L. Lusk, of Houghton, N.Y.; with Joe Hollis at the organ and Dan Greer on the piano, both of Port Huron.

One of the highlights of the 10-day event will be the Missionary Day, scheduled for Aug. 7.

Services will feature Edwin M. Serschiedt, of the Oriental Missionary Society at 10:30 a.m., and Rev. Martha Archer, of the Mt. Carmel Mission, and a trio of singers from Mt. Carmel College, Bethany, Ky., at 2 p.m. The Methodist Missionary Hour will be held at 7:30 p.m.

Traffic Accidents Kill 19 Persons; Nine Drown Over Weekend Period

By The Associated Press
Traffic accidents killed at least 19 persons in Michigan this weekend — including a Flint father, his two young children and a young Toronto man in a head-on collision near Flint.

The state's nine weekend dropping victims included three Roman Catholic priests and a 60-year-old woman. Their small boat overturned on calm waters in Maple Lake near Paw Paw.

In addition, miscellaneous accidents killed three persons, one of them an 11-year-old boy who accidentally hanged himself.

The Associated Press accidental death count covers the period from 6 p.m. Friday to midnight Sunday. Herbert Gall, 34, New Boston, killed Sunday when his car hit a freight train at a crossing in Taylor Township near Detroit.

Mrs. Harriet VanderBie, 42, Holland, killed in an intersection collision near Holland Sunday.

Marvin McDonald, 42, a migrant worker from Phoenix, Ariz., was struck and killed by a car on M22, one mile south of Suttons Bay in Leelanau County, Saturday.

William Conlisk, 38, Youngstown, Ohio, killed Saturday when a car struck him as he crossed U.S. 10 just south of Flint.

David Paul, 19, Ironwood, killed Saturday when the car in which he was riding collided with a pickup truck on the outskirts of Ironwood.

Harold H. Brundiger, 60, Kalamazoo, killed Saturday when his car rammed into the rear of a semitrailer on the Red Arrow Highway three miles east of Paw Paw.

Herbert J. Osborn, 19, Belleville, killed Saturday when his car rolled over on a rural Wayne County road near Belleville.

Laurie Harris, 36, Detroit, injured fatally Saturday when his car struck an abutment on the Edsel Ford Freeway.

Leo St. John, 18, Traverse City, drowned in Long Lake Sunday, just west of Traverse City, while trying to swim to shore from a boat.

Frances C. Fletcher, 38, Romulus Township, and Frank D. Demagala, 20, Wayne, drowned in Newburgh Lake near Livonia Sunday when their canoe capsized.

Joseph L. Jensen, 52, Manistique, drowned in Lake Michigan Sunday after leaving a tugboat which had run aground two miles north of Manistique.

Con-Con Meeting Set Wednesday to Try to Avoid Reshuffle Issue

LANSING (UPI)—A solid Republican front appears to be the order of the day when the constitutional convention resumes Wednesday for final adjournment.

The Republican majority indicated over the weekend that it had no intention of being forced into any action on reapportionment by the recent Michigan Supreme Court decision.

It also indicated mounting Democratic criticism of the proposed new document would cause no substantial change in the GOP stand.

Since the July 18 decision by the high court that the State Senate has to be redistricted according to a population basis, con-con leaders from the GOP ranks have indicated that the constitution formula for apportionment would stand the test of the court.

HIT BY DEMS

The formula, which calls for an 80-20 ratio with 80 per cent of the weight on population and the 20 per cent on area, had been criticized by Democrats, who contended that it will not fit in the framework of the state court decision.

Democratic Justice Thomas M. Kavanagh ruled in his prevailing opinion that any apportionment plan that did not fit a population variance of 2-to-1 would not be approved by the court.

It was contended by Democrats that the constitutional convention plan calls for a 4-to-1 variance in some cases. The plan in the proposed constitution ultimately would call for a 3-to-1 senate.

Delegate Richard C. Van Dusen R-Birmingham, said, "as I read the court's several opinions in the (August) Schulte case, only two of the eight Justices made any comment that no Senate district could have more than twice the population of another district. People who say otherwise just haven't read the opinions."

He added, "It's completely unrealistic to say that the Supreme Court of Michigan said the con-con apportionment formula is unconstitutional."

Under the con-con plan, the counties of Wayne, Oakland, Macomb and Genesee, depending on a re-apportionment after the 1970 census, will pick up a Senate seat along with the 34 current seats which have been frozen in the constitution since the 1952 amendment approved by a referendum.

In his suit Michigan AFL-CIO President August Schulte contended that the Senate should be apportioned according to the 1968 constitution amended in 1952. Con-con president Stephen S. Nisbet, R-Fremont, said he did not think there would be any changes, except corrective ones, when the delegates convene Wednesday.

Wixom Opening Contest for Best Official Motto

WIXOM — A month-long contest to find an official motto for this city begins this week.

The competition is open only to school children living within the city, according to City Clerk Pearl Willis.

Applications can be obtained at city hall and entries must be returned by mail, postmarked no later than Sept. 1, she said.

The entries will be judged in three divisions, elementary, junior high and high school, with $10 awarded to the winner in each of the categories.

The city's official slogan will be selected from the three and will be used on all city documents and letterheads, said Mrs. Willis.

She said the motto can have any theme as long as it identifies the city in some respect.

A $25 savings bond will be presented by city officials to the winner whose motto is judged best of the three.

Ortonville Post Office Sets New Examination

French Peasant Riots May Resume

By PHIL NEWSON
UPI Foreign News Analyst
Notes from the foreign news cables:

PEASANT RIOTS

A new outbreak of peasant riots is likely in France this week. Farmers are angry because the government has not done enough to help French agriculture and they plan to block highways and demonstrate in front of county seat offices.

POLITICAL REBIRTH

Look for a rebirth soon of numerous political parties in Pakistan now that President Mohammad Ayub Khan has signed into law a bill making political parties legal again.

Former Muslim League officials already have announced immediate steps are being taken to revive their party, which once dominated political life in Pakistan.

NEW PRESSURE

The Communists are expected to increase pressure on civilian traffic through East Germany to and from the west.

They'll do it through traffic — increasing each day as all cars traveling over 40 miles an hour must be fitted with safety belts.

Also by forcing West Germans to obtain transit visas to drive or travel by rail to or from Berlin.

DIM PROSPECTS

Sources in Tokyo say prospects are dim for early ratification of the treaty of amity and commerce between the Philippines and its old World War II enemy, Japan.

Some say the treaty may never be ratified — at least, not in its present form.

The Macapagal administration now in power in Manila is in a hurry to ratify the treaty because it fears it will pave the way for an invasion of the Philippines by Japanese capital.

The treaty was negotiated during the administration of former President Garcia and never has been approved by the Philippine Senate.

ARGENTINE TROUBLE

Restlessness and discontent bubble just below the surface of government-labor-management relations in Argentina.

A 3-hour general strike scheduled by the big general labor confederation for Thursday and Friday may well provide the catalyst for violence.

Climbing living costs and government penny-pinching due to serious economic problems which stem from the long political crisis are adding fuel to the seething discontent of the people.

Argentine Economy Minister Alvaro Alsogaray's quick trip to the United States to seek financial aid is intended to try to head off the seemingly imminent showdown.

Sources at the Hague say the Dutch-Indonesian dispute over West New Guinea — which the Indonesians call West Irian — is expected to move into its last and perhaps most dangerous stage.

Washington negotiations on the issue are deadlocked, so the contending parties are expected to maneuver for positions that will enable them to end the talks.

After that, Indonesia is expected to resume military attacks on the Dutch in New Guinea. More paratroop landings are expected.

Bombing raids may be carried out. The Dutch are planning evacuation of women and children and are setting up emergency precautions in the event of trouble.

The Dutch are expected to stick to their demands for guarantees of self-determination of the native Papuans, and there is a growing attitude in Holland to continue opposing what are considered excessive demands by the Indonesians. All this adds up to more trouble in settling the issue ultimately.

Brothers Being Held in Mother's Death

DETROIT (U) — Two Detroit brothers in their 40s were being held for investigation of murder today in the death of their 73-year-old mother, who fell over a porch railing while the brothers were fighting, police said.

The mother, Mrs. Mary Elbode, fell four feet. Police said her sons, Julius, 49, and Gus, 42, were fighting over who was "boss of the house."

A third son, Rene, 52, asleep at the time, said the three brothers had similar fights every weekend for 20 years.

Tourists visiting Britain in 1960 spent $76.4 million.

Louisiana Dems Back JFK, Longs Over Conservatives

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The Kennedy administration received a political boost in the Deep South when Louisiana Democrats re-nominated one of the President's most loyal backers and defeated a rash of strongly conservative candidates.

The more conservative candidates were beaten in every key race in Saturday's Democratic primary. Kennedy backers were pleased most by the resounding triumph in the 2nd District by Rep. Hale Boggs, House Democratic whip.

EASY VICTORY — Boggs was marked for political extinction by conservatives after he supported Kennedy's successful campaign last year to increase the size of the House Rules Committee. But he easily defeated three opponents, piling up 64 percent of the vote in a district which includes uptown New Orleans and four outlying parishes (counties).

Another aspect pleasing to Washington was that 25 East Carroll Parish Negroes became the first of their race to vote in that northeast Louisiana area since at least 1922.

LONGS WIN

Sen. Russell Long, Louisiana's junior senator, won re-nomination to his third full six-year term by a 4-to-1 margin over Phil St. Amant, a retired Army lieutenant colonel. St. Amant, an all-out conservative, called the Long's voting record "socialistic."

The senator's cousin, Gillis Long, 51, won the 5th District House seat from Rep. Harold McSwain, 36, a conservative who has generally opposed the administration.

Long was making his first bid for elective office in the political heartland of his famous family. In the 7th District in southwest Louisiana, Rep. T. A. Thompson easily defeated three opponents, all sharp critics of the federal government's activities.

TOKEN OPPOSITION

Two other congressmen defeated token opponents.

Rep. James Morrison of Hammond won re-nomination in the 6th District over Herbert Price of Baton Rouge, who campaigned as an all-out segregationist. Price accused Morrison of selling out to liberal groups. Morrison won by a 4-to-1 majority.

Rep. F. Edward Ibert of New Orleans, dean of the state's House delegation, defeated Jacob Pink, a contractor, by more than a 7-to-1 margin in the 1st District.

Tigers Worry After Angels Bomb Lary's 'Sound' Arm

L.A. Wins 'Cap With Home Runs Off Former Ace

Bengals Take Opener for Bunning by 7-6; Cash Clears Roof

DETROIT (AP) — The mysterious ups and downs of Frank Lary are a problem of increasing gravity for the Tigers.

The 23-game winner of 1961 says his more shoulder no longer is a serious annoyance. Dr. Russell Wright, the club physician, says the pain in Lary's shoulder has diminished to almost nothing. Manager Bob Schefling and pitching coach Tom Ferkick say Lary is throwing well.

Lary, so encouraging in his return to the mound at Minnesota Wednesday, was bombed like a batting practice pitcher yesterday. He failed to hold a lead and was stung for five runs in the first two innings as the Los Angeles Angels pulled out a 15-5 victory in the nightcap of a doubleheader.

The Tigers won the opener 7-6 for the third straight triumph over the second-place Angels. Yet after the twelfth, the Detroit clubhouse was filled with the most dejected atmosphere of the season. The Tigers had won three of four — but Lary's failure was a crushing disappointment after he'd promised to resume the pitching staff.

GOOD COMBINATION

Too bad, too. Al Kaline is back and ripping the ball. Norm Cash and Rocky Colavito again are providing power. With Lary, they comprised the core of a successful combination last summer. It took them still time for them to return the seventh-place Tigers to respectability this year.

Schefling has abandoned every suggestion that Lary be given 30 days on the disabled list to rest his arm and shoulder. Again last night the question was brought up after Schefling huddled 15 minutes with Ferkick.

"What do you plan to do with Lary now?" Schefling was asked by the thought Bill Ferkick could be brought up from Denver to fill his spot on the roster.

"Nothing," barked Schefling. "I thought Lary threw well. It just wasn't hitting him."

Lary yielded a two-run homer to Leon Wagner in the eighth. It erased Detroit's 3-7 lead. Lary was belted for a two-run homer by George Thomas in the Angels' three-run ninth. The loss was Lary's sixth against just two victories.

"He made a bad pitch to Wagner," grumbled Schefling. "Nobody's even mentioned that he struck out a good hitter right in front of him."

Schefling admits he'd like to bring up Ferkick, bonus catcher at Denver, before the farm club's roster is frozen at midnight tomorrow. But he refused to venture about the possibility.

"We've got till Tuesday to make a change," he said. "Ferkick and I didn't only discuss Lary. We talked about the pitching staff as a whole."

LARRY ACQUIRES: "It was going just fine, but for the last week it hasn't been worth a damn. Hank Aquino's been the only pitcher who's done anything. I'm getting worried about a D on Mosal. He hasn't pitched a real good game his last four times. We start sitting, get enough runs for a change and the pitching goes sour."

Mood had a two-hitter until the Angels drove him out with four runs in the sixth inning of the nightcap. The Angels followed him with two runs in the seventh, two more in the eighth and three in the ninth. Schefling threw five pitchers into the game with little success.

The Tigers reported with three homers. Dick Brown hit one in the first, then another in the fourth. Cash belted another one over the roof — his fourth — in the fifth. In the sixth with Tigers leading 1-0, Cash belted another one over the roof. Cash belted another one over the roof.

Kaline Late Pick for All-Star Team

From Our Wire Services

Al Kaline seemed a little surprised but "very pleased" yesterday when he was a last-minute choice to play in his 11th All-Star game.

"It was a pleasant surprise," Kaline said. "I am very pleased and consider it a great honor to be chosen."

The brilliant Tiger star, sidelined by injury in the first game, in Washington, was named by American League manager Ralph Houk to replace Jim Landis of the White Sox. Landis injured his leg and couldn't play.

Houk called Tiger manager Bob Schefling Sunday morning and confirmed that Kaline was his choice.

The 27-year-old flyhawk is a valuable addition to Houk's squad which was hampered by weak-hitting in the first game loss to the Nationals. Kaline had a great All-Star tradition going for him.

In 10 previous "dream" games, he collected 10 hits in 26 times at bat for a robust .384 mark against some of the best pitchers around. His totals included two homers, one double and five runs batted in.

LIKELY TO PLAY

Kaline could not start but Houk seemed certain to call upon him before the afternoon was over.

Three other Tigers, pitchers Jim Bunning and Hank Aguirre, and outfielder Rocky Colavito, are members of the AL squad. Bunning pitched Sunday, however, and was unlikely to see action.

Former Tiger pitcher Ray Herbert of the White Sox was another late addition as was Dodger hurler Johnny Podres for the Nationals. Herbert replaced injured Ken McBride of the Angels and Podres took over for teammate Don Drysdale.

Had 1,614 Reasons for Playing in AL

DETROIT (AP)—Eddie Yost struck out his first and last at bats in the major leagues—but in 18 seasons in between he walked 1,614 times.

The playing career of "the Walking Man" ended Sunday when he was released by the Los Angeles Angels. They quickly signed him as a coach.

"I knew I couldn't last forever, but I'm happy they're keeping me around," said the 35-year-old Yost, who played more games at third base than any other player in history, nearly 2,100.

Yost was released to make room for George Thomas, just out of the Army.

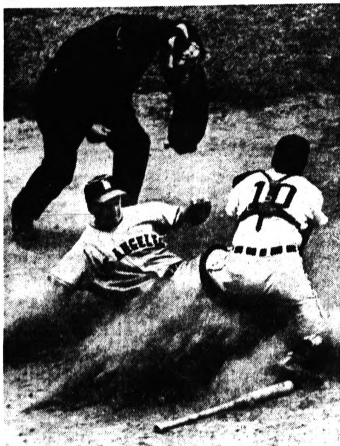

He joined the Washington Senators in 1944 as a 17-year-old, fresh off the New York University campus. After a year in service, Yost rejoined the Senators late in 1946 and remained with them through 1958. He played two seasons with the Detroit Tigers, who let him go to the Angels in the expansion draft before last season.

In his last appearance Saturday, he was struck out as a pinch hitter by Detroit's Paul Foytack.

"I also struck out my first time with Washington back in 1944," Yost recalled. "Don't let this get around, but the pitcher was Thornton Lee."

Lee's son, Don, was Yost's teammate with the Angels.

ANGEL CLIPPED — Tom Burgess of the Los Angeles Angels is cut down at home by Tiger catcher Dick Brown in the second inning of yesterday's opening game at Tiger Stadium. Burgess tried to score on Albin Pearson's roller in Norm Cash at first. The umpire is Frank Unruh.

Conley Stays Away From Bosox

POXBORO, Mass. (AP)—Weary Gene Conley is sorry for his run-out on the Boston Red Sox. But he maintained: "I didn't say I'd quit. I hate the word."

The restless "loner" told Bob Holbrook of the Boston Globe at his trailer home Sunday night he planned nothing when he stepped off a team bus in New York last Thursday. The 6-foot-8 right-hander had not been heard from since Sunday and is under indefinite suspension by the ball club.

Infielder Pumpsie Green, subsequently fired an estimated $500, disappeared along with Conley but showed up in a Washington hotel Friday night.

"I'm tired," Conley said. "I'm not offering that as an excuse."

A professional athlete in basketball as well as baseball, Conley has averaged less than two weeks of relaxation per year since 1957. Conley, in effect, said he was momentarily too exhausted to face the news.

PLENTY OF WORK

"I am sorry for Higgins. He has been with me all the way. He must be very disappointed in me. I'm a funny guy. I didn't plan to go to a rest room. I had no intention of staying away."

Ex-Waterford Filled Among 5 Cut

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Clayton Roth, former Waterford High School grad, failed in his bid to play football with the Detroit Lions.

Roth was among five rookies cut after Saturday's scrimmage and he admitted he saw it coming.

"I didn't think I could make it," he said. "Even though I could do a good job kicking. When I was put at offensive end and that was it. I'm not fast enough to be a pass receiver, and when you have guys like Walker (Walker) who is an important as a blocker as well as a kicker it's tough trying to make it just on kicking."

Roth, who plans on taking graduate work at Michigan State next fall, is hoping he can still play football but on a smaller scale with the grand Rapids team of the United Football League.

He said he would go up to see former Lion Gene Goodman, now the new coach at Grand Rapids.

KICKING WELL

Roth said he was hitting the range from 50 yards out in his field goal kicking. "I think I could help a team that needs a specialist," he said.

The 6-foot, 205-pounder has a powerful set of legs and he used them to great advantage while at Illinois. He was the outstanding prep kicker in Oakland County during his football days at Waterford.

FOUR OTHERS OUT

The Lions also cut rookies Dave Bell, Allen Smith, Cole Sprato, and Claude Watts, all free agents except Sprato a 220-pound guard who was the 12th choice from Winona State College in Minnesota.

In Saturday's scrimmage, Milt Plumb showed good punting form; rookie halfback Dick Conant took running honors and Larry Vargo

Hibbs, Walker Win Pair of Net Titles

SINGLES CHAMP — Leon Hibbs, former Pontiac Central tennis ace, won his first Oakland Men's Singles County Tennis title yesterday by defeating Dikran Orntekian, 6-2 and 6-0 for Junior championship.

TOP NET HONORS — Sam Walker III of Birmingham took the big share of the honors in the Oakland County Tennis tournament. Walker and Mrs. Albert Holmes of Birmingham scored an impressive victory in mixed doubles competition after the young Cranbrook netter had defeated Dale Andrews of Pontiac, 6-3 and 6-0 for Junior championship.

Samuel A. Walker III, Cranbrook student from Birmingham, believes in trying all the events open to him in tennis competition. He got into everything available to him in the Oakland County Open tennis tournament and came out of it with a 5-0 mark.

After losing in early rounds of men's doubles and men's singles, Walker upset favorite Dikran Orntekian in the juniors event and then won the juniors title yesterday by defeating Dale Andrews of Pontiac, 6-3 and 6-0.

Immediately afterward he and Mrs. Ann Holmes of Birmingham teamed to take the mixed doubles title by defeating Leon Hibbs and Mrs. Charles Springer of Pontiac, 6-2 and 6-2.

Hibbs, former Pontiac Central netter trying for the 4th straight year, won the men's singles championship by ousting Orntekian of Northville, 6-2 and 6-2. Hibbs was also a double winner as he and Ralph Ahe teamed Thursday to win the men's doubles crown.

Oddly, it was Ahe, his partner, who had won the singles title twice previously and who was beaten by Orntekian in the semifinals.

THE PALMER METHOD

by Arnold Palmer

RIGHT HEEL MUST COME UP

If you feel restricted in the impact zone, this tip: Get that right heel up and well off the ground before the clubhead meets the ball.

This permits a free flowing of power from your body action — down the shaft and into the clubhead, so to speak.

Presume should be felt on the inside of the right foot, as it "pushes" the weight from right to left, but practice this until it becomes automatic.

Once it does, your hips will bend toward the target or off-target impact, instead of swiveling quickly to the left.

Alan Stephenson hurled a pitcher over the weekend in the Waterford 11-and-under baseball league blanking the Bullets for Steve's Market, 11-0. Besides pitching well, he has been the team's most steady hitter this season.

World record holders Norbert Schemansky and Joe Pulce of Detroit won their divisions in the Chicago Weightlifting meet Saturday night. Heavyweight Schemansky lifted 1,100 pounds and Pulce, 185, picked up 865 pounds.

Jim Sheridan defeated Dr. Pitts Adams, 4 and 3, in the 36-hole finals to successfully defend his Orchard Lake Country Club championship yesterday.

Jim Ogle of Marquette, Mich., was runnerup in the National Log Rolling, finals Sunday at Hayward, Wis., losing two falls to Jubel Wickheim of Soles, B.C., who won his 5th title. Mark Olson of Escanaba and Bob Bizeau, Gladstone, Mich., were 2nd in trick and fancy birling.

Sunday 'Driver' Maxwell Bombs Yankee Pitchers

By The Associated Press
It is a good idea to get out of the way of Sunday drivers. The same goes for Sunday hitters.

Charlie Maxwell of the Chicago White Sox is a prize example of the latter, and the New York Yankees pitchers forgot to get out of his way again Sunday.

Maxwell hammered three home runs in a doubleheader, two in one, as the White Sox ended a five-game Yankee winning streak in the second game for a split with the league leaders. The Yankees won the first, despite a three-run Maxwell homer, 7-4 and the White Sox took the second 6-2.

SAME PLACE

Both the other doubleheaders on the American League program were divided, too, so the contending teams finished the day right where they started.

The second place Los Angeles Angels dropped the first game to the Detroit Tigers, 7-6, and won the second 12-8, to remain five games back of the Yankees and a half game in front of the Minnesota Twins.

The Twins lost the opener to Cleveland, 3-2, but won the nightcap, 7-5 in 11 innings.

Kansas City salvaged the last of a four-game set with Baltimore, 7-3, and the Boston Red Sox whipped Washington 4-2.

John Pizarro of the White Sox got a split, too. He was knocked out in the first inning of the opener with the Yanks, to take the loss, and then came back in relief of Mike Joyce in the fifth inning to win the nightcap.

BOOM-BOOM!

Maxwell hit a bases empty homer in the second inning of the nightcap, and another solo shot after Bob Sadowski's three-runner in the third inning.

Of Maxwell's 67 homers since 1959, he has hit 24 on Sunday. He has 17 against the Yankees, nine on Sunday.

Dick Donovan won his 14th, against four losses, in the opener against Minnesota. Vic Power ruined his shutout bid with a two-run homer in the ninth inning after Jerry Kindall dropped a pop fly. Power dropped the ball in a rundown play to allow the deciding run to score for the Indians in the eighth.

Relief pitcher Bill Daley threw the ball away on a bunt to allow the Twins to break the tie in the 11th inning of the second game.

BIG SWINGER

Jerry Lumpe was the big gun for Kansas City as he banged out four straight hits and drove in three runs. Bill Fischer went all the way for the victory.

No-hit pitcher Earl Wilson won his second straight for the Red Sox, who had lost three in a row to Washington by loaded scores. However, a big relief job by Dick Radatz saved it for him.

Radatz came on with two on and none out and struck out three Senators in the eighth inning and two more in the ninth.

Red Chinese Describe Tactics of Guerrillas

TOKYO (AP) — Mao Tse-tung used just 15 Chinese characters to spell out his principles of guerrilla warfare.

"When the enemy advances, we retreat," he said two decades ago. "When the enemy settles down, we harass him; when the enemy is tired, we attack him; when the enemy retreats, we pursue him."

These injunctions are carried out by Viet Cong who are guerrilla fighters in the jungles of South Vietnam.

U.S. advisers to President Ngo Dinh Diem's forces said the Communists texts to find a way of meeting the challenge they pose. The Chinese, who rarely keep their activities secret, have recently thrown new light on guerrilla warfare in their pattern.

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP)—The last 1,800 U.S. Marines have left Thailand in May when pro-Communist guerrillas in Laos had swept to the last border. That was the guerrillas' last big move before the formation of a coalition regime pledged to take Laos out of the cold war.

"One of the most important methods of fighting regularly employed by the militia was the 'sparrow war.' It was basically characterized by the sudden concentration and dispersal of militiamen, their sudden appearance and retreat, their ability to attack a point where the enemy least expected it, and their undetectable movement."

The guerrillas, some in groups of two or three, sometimes in companies, would move through mountainous areas and forests or lurk in the streets, on rooftops, in fields of sorghum, and by the roadside.

"Like sparrows pecking up grains, the militiamen would patiently bide their time, move in when the enemy least expected them, and deal him quick blows," the Daily said. Before the enemy had recovered from its surprise, they had vanished.

"But when the enemy was tired and returning to his quarters, war cries and rifle fire would come from all sides."

In general, Sparrow Warfare relies on three methods: raids against a stationary enemy; ambushes against a moving enemy column, and sniping at stragglers.

In carrying out another phase, encirclement, enemy troops are prevented from making raids — small parties annihilated, large ones harassed and their communications cut.

Another aspect of this phase is to evacuate people and supplies.

Winnie Doing OK but Move From Hospital Unsure

LONDON (UPI) — Sir Winston Churchill is "getting on nicely" but prospects of moving him from the hospital at present are "very indefinite," his wife said yesterday.

Lady Churchill said the 87-year-old former prime minister, recuperating from a broken thigh bone, was visited yesterday by Lord Privy Seal Edward Heath at Mid-dex Hospital.

Churchill broke the bone June 28 in a fall in his hotel suite at the state of a vacation in Monte Carlo.

Catholic Journalist Dies

CALVI, Canada (AP) — Mrs. Elie Sauvageot, 61, director of the Catholic magazine La Vie Catholique Illustrée, was found burned to death Sunday in the wake of a forest fire on the heights above this seaside resort.

Mrs. Sauvageot managed the Catholic Information Center and was president of the National Catholic Press Center.

WWII Hero's Wife Dies

LA JOLLA, Calif. (AP)—Mrs. Holland M. Smith, 77, wife of the famous World War II Marine general, died Friday. The retired general was at his wife's bedside at death. Mrs. Smith, an invalid for the last two years, was born in Phoenixville, Pa.

from an area, leaving it barren. Still another device is to kill off enemies, burn enemy stores, and upset morale by psychological war.

The article also listed rules that could be exploded at a distance by an attached string, contact mines, time mines, double mines, jumping mines, rolling and flying mines.

One way to conceal mines was to print wheel tracks over a concealed mine.

Another tactic was to disturb the earth in places where no mines existed, or place signs saying "beware of mines." Soldiers who took this warning lightly often found real mines buried under the signs.

"Tunnel warfare" involved digging giant systems of subterranean tunnels linking homes in a village and one village to another.

In the winter of 1944-45, the Chinese Reds dug miles of tunnels in the central Hanoi plains. These included false tunnels for trapping the unwary.

Sometimes, the enemy's Daily said, "thousands upon thousands of militiamen and civilians, armed with tools of all descriptions, would go to the enemy's railways and highways, wreck the roadbeds, take away sections of steel rails, burn the bridges, demolish enemy forts, pull down walls and cut telegraph and telephone wires.

"DIVERSE AND BRILLIANT"

The tactics used by the militia were diverse, brilliant and ever-changing. Their basic characteristics were dispersion and concealment, active initiative, and flexibility.

The militia would engage only in "profitable business" and would never fight at a disadvantage against a powerful enemy force. Militia units often beat off enemy which were numerically much stronger, fought with poor, inferior weapons against an enemy armed with modern weapons, and won great victories at small cost."

Then it argued: "The ingenious tactics of the militia were possible only when the great masses cooperated actively, and could be used only when the masses of the people were armed."

The antipopular, reactionary ruling class can never learn to use such tactics and will never be able to counter them successfully."

New Dome Cars for Rhine Sights

NEW YORK (UPI)—Something out of the American West will be added to passenger railroading in West Germany's Rhine Valley.

It is a dome car, something long familiar to travelers on railroads west of Chicago and just about the best way to get a look-see at beautiful countryside.

A factory-made train over the run of the famous Rheingold Express, which races from Hock van Holland, in the Netherlands, through the Rhine Valley to Basel, Switzerland.

Included in each of the seven-car trains—which will hit up to 100 miles an hour—will be an observation lounge car with a dome-shaped glass roof raised above the level of the other cars and with swivel chairs to make viewing easier.

The German Federal Railroad's Rheingold will make its swift run through the Rhine Valley in daylight and the dome car raised above the level of the other cars and with swivel chairs to make viewing easier.

The same car also will contain a bar, writing compartment and a telephone booth — for making either intra-Germany or international calls via short-wave radio.

The new light-weight steel cars will clip over the 49-mile run between Hock van Holland and Basel.

One of the three attracted him with a knife and then they drove away, Hyde said.

Probe Reports of Low-Flying Copter in Area

Oakland County Sheriff's deputies today were investigating a case of "reckless operation of aircraft."

Deputies said they received from 15 to 15 complaints from residents in the Union Lake area yesterday of a "low and reckless flying helicopter."

About 4:45 p.m., golfers were playing in mid-air as a helicopter came flitting down on Moppy's Golf Course, 6600 Golfside Road. Deputies were immediately dispatched to the scene.

Officers spoke to the pilot John J. Siskak, 41, 8578 Golfside Drive, Union Lake. He denied flying recklessly and said he had permission to land there because of the golf course owners.

However, the case was still up in the air today.

The owner's wife, Mrs. James Mory, said her husband had not given Siskak permission to land. Deputies were to speak to Mrs. Mory's husband today.

Boston Doctors Sew On Man's Severed Foot

BOSTON (AP)—Surgeons were guardedly optimistic today about an operation in which a motorcycle rider's severed left foot was sewn back on.

"Circulation was restored and the foot is warm and has a good pulse," a hospital bulletin said.

The patient is Joseph Scimone, 24, a truck driver, whose motorcycle was involved in a head-on collision with an automobile in nearby Revere Saturday.

Two months ago doctors at the same hospital reattached the severed right arm of 12-year-old Little League Everett Knowles of Somerville. Knowles is expected back at the hospital this week so surgeons can attempt to reconnect the nerves of the arm.

Vacation Is Over for TV Performers

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television Radio Writer
HOLLYWOOD—For most of the nation, it's the time for the beach, the hammock and the rubber neck tour. But in this industry, it's all work and no play as it furiously starts pumping out more than 90 per cent of next fall's and winter's television entertainment.
Production is at a peak. Performers are working 12-hour days—and devoting evenings and week ends to learning their lines—so to keep up with grueling shooting schedules.
More than 80 different television series are now on the production lines. At the Revue studios in the San Fernando Valley, where 10 different series are before the cameras, it is harder to find parking space than on Hollywood Boulevard.
The motion picture, once king of the community, quietly has abdicated and gone abroad. Only 13 feature films are in production here—but almost twice that number are being made by American companies abroad.
STILL BIG ROLE
Motion pictures, however, still loom large in the Hollywood scene. There is still more prestige in movie acting than in television, but television now is the main source of its acting supplies. Film cards, here and abroad are loaded with performers who made reputations in television and radio, usually with star or featured billing and handsome financial contracts.
Among the television alumni now usually working in movies are Cary Williams, Hugh O'Brian, Lee Marvin, Richard Lansing, Ty Hardin, Tony Randall and Mervyn Davis, all of whom made their reputations in small-screen shows now departed or moved into reruns.
Cost of producing shows seems to have increased slightly since last year. Variety, the authoritative show business paper, estimates that half-hour shows average a bit higher than $60,000 per episode while each hour show runs around $120,000.

Hail 'Turn Ban' in New Buffalo

Cite Restriction on Road as Success in Keeping I-94 Traffic Moving

NEW BUFFALO (UPI)—A ban on left-hand turns here in order to keep southbound traffic moving on I-94 has been termed "an unqualified success."

Michigan highway operations engineer Max Clyde commented on the State Highway Department expert finding after heavy weekend traffic was forced to move southward on U.S. 12 and 20 into Michigan City, Ind.

The restriction prevented usual bumper-to-bumper traffic from taking a hard-surfaced country road to connecting Indiana 30 and then on the Indiana tollroad at the La Porte exit.

The Automobile Club of Michigan (AAA) immediately hailed the Highway Department's decision, saying the action "may save the Indiana Highway Dept. to build its 30-mile portion of the I-94 freeway to connect the Michigan and Illinois segments."

Michigan Department engineers recommended closing the left-hand turn road after viewing a traffic snarl so heavy last Sunday that traffic was tied up for six miles.

A Highway Department spokesman said most of the traffic on I-94 moving southward toward Indiana and Chicago was returning to those areas after weekends at Michigan lakes.

Fred N. Rehm, general manager of the Michigan Auto Club, said the Indiana segment of I-94 "is probably the worst congested and most dangerous" of the 2,500-mile span of I-94 from Michigan to the Pacific Northwest.

The auto club's statement said: "We urge the Indiana Highway Dept. to live up to the promise of its governor (Gov. Matthew Welch, a Democrat) made during his last election campaign which was to build this road now."

Earl, Ex-Jockey Dies

AULGURTH, Scotland (AP)—The Earl of Liverpool, once a leading amateur jockey, died at his home here during the week. He was 81. As the Hon. Gerald, he was a well-known rider and later trainer of steeplechase horses. He served with distinction in the South African War and the First World War.

Unionists Wanted Payoff to Stop In-Sub Strike

McClellan Tells Senate, Begs OK on Hearings

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., told the Senate today that a powerful unionist has demanded a payoff to stop the price for settlement of a strike holding up work on 11 nuclear submarines for the Navy.

McClellan voiced the allegations in appealing for permission for his Senate investigations subcommittee to launch hearings.

Sensors "subverting" against the administration's communists, one of the leaders of the filibuster fight, refused to agree. Morse was cut off from an effort to explain his reasons for objecting.

McClellan asked unanimous consent for his committee to meet, but Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., one of the leaders of the filibuster fight, refused to agree. Morse was cut off from an effort to explain his reasons for objecting.

MAN NOT NAMED

In his Senate speech, McClellan did not name the man allegedly demanding a payoff as a price for allowing the settlement of the strike.

Candidate Asks Reshuffle Pie

Republican Advocates Wedge-Shaped Districts Radiating From Detroit

PAW PAW, (UPI)—A Republican candidate for the state legislature is advocating a senatorial reapportionment plan that would have Detroit and Upper Peninsula voters casting ballots for the same candidates.

Robert Falkner, States Lake, seeking a House seat, is pushing a plan which would also the state into a political pie with wedges radiating from Detroit.

Under Falkner's plan, the wedge-shaped area would be narrow in Detroit, where the population is heaviest, and would expand as it moved across the state and into the Upper Peninsula.

With Detroit as the center of the half pie, thirty-two pieces of varying sizes would be sliced.

"SMALL DEVIATIONS"

"Naturally," Falkner said, "small deviations would have to be made so that the straight lines would not bisect and make unnatural divisions of streets, villages, townships, etc."

"On this basis, we would have equal representation for the people in each district."

Under his plan, a senator from Traverse City could represent part of Detroit.

Falkner said redistricting would be "very difficult, or even impossible if we continue to view redistricting on the same basis that we have in the past."

SOVIETS PARADE SHIPS — Caption from Tass, official Soviet news agency, described these ships as a submarine and destroyers participating in Soviet Navy Day celebrations at Leningrad yesterday. The submarine, No. 325, resembles U.S. nuclear-powered subs and Russian officials spoke of their powerful nuclear subs. (Story on Page One).

Hoot Mon! Edinburg, Where?

Aye, JFK Doon Them Wrong

EDINBURGH, Scotland (AP)—A geographical goof in the White House has a number of Scots irked.

Someone in President Kennedy's office addressed a letter to "Edinburg, England."

Edinburg is, of course, the capital of Scotland.

Calling a Scotsman an Englishman is like calling an Albanian a Yankee.

What happened was this: A Scottish newspaper, the Weekly Scotsman, is running a series of Scottish clippings. When the story of the clan Kennedy was published, the editor sent a copy to the White House.

DELIGHTED — AT FIRST The editor was delighted to receive a letter from President Kennedy's office, thinking him for forwarding the information about the clan Kennedy.

But the address on the envelope was "The Weekly Scotsman."

a bit thick that Mr. Kennedy does not seem to realize that Edinburg is in Scotland, and has been for a long time.

John M. Hammerman, chairman of the Scottish National party and former president of An Comunn Gaidhealach, the Highland Association of Scotland, walking in his Loch Lomond-side garden in his last remark: "Good God!"

After recovering his composure he said: "Don't snub the Americans for this. Put the blame on the English. This is just in line with the emphasis which England puts on itself, and the fact that they never refer to Great Britain in their international relations."

While here for another weekend with Mrs. Kennedy and their children, the Chief Executive joined numerous other Kennedys in celebrating the First Lady's 33rd birthday on Saturday. Including youngsters with Kennedy sisters, Mrs. Kennedy, she was at least two dozen on the scene.

Both Saturday and Sunday, Kennedy took the tiller of his 22-foot sailboat Victoria for jaunts into rough waters of Nantuxet Sound and more placid Lanes Bay.

runs out in her Anglican tones, and the towels in her room readily join in.

Mrs. Findon lived in Oxford until 1916, when she went to Lexington, Ontario, to live with her niece for a few years.

Pine Knoll is the second nursing home she has lived in since 1953. She came to the Clarkson home in 1956, after living in the Bliss Convalescent Home in Ontario.

Although she is called "Grandma," Mrs. Findon never had any children or grandchildren. She married Mr. Findon in 1873, and was widowed in 1888.

With one century under her belt, she's looking forward to the next. She's extended an invitation to W. E. (Ernie) Haultwaite, her grandson, to dance with her on her 108th birthday.

Ex-Dogwood Pilot Dies

LAKE WALES, Fla. — Bud Shelton, 77, former Brooklyn Dodgers baseball team manager, died of a heart attack at his Camp Lester home last night, a funeral home reported.

James McGree, executive secretary of the Oakland County Democratic Committee, said it is his understanding that Kallenbach has changed his mind about seeking the Democratic nomination.

He attempted to withdraw his formal candidacy but Election Clerk Mabel Child said the request came after the withdrawal deadline.

Hitchcock is seeking his third term as the 6th District's representative in the State House of Representatives.

The 53-year-old Hazel Park politician, who lives at 438 E. Jarvis St., is a native of Sparta, Tenn. He was a school teacher in his home town before coming to Detroit in 1926 to begin a career as a real estate and insurance man.

Fun Over, Talks Await Kennedy

Soiling Weekend Ends as JFK Heads Back to Test Ban Meeting

WASHINGTON (AP) — Refreshed by a weekend of sailing, President Kennedy flew back to Washington today to open talks that may develop new U.S. proposals for a nuclear test ban treaty.

His plane landed at Andrews Air Force Base at 10:12 a.m. after a 62-minute flight from Hyannis Port, Mass. His brother, Arthur, Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, accompanied him here.

Besides the nuclear talks Kennedy also has scheduled a meeting with Lincoln Gordon, ambassador to Brazil, to discuss the role of the United States in the Alliance for Progress.

Gordon has returned for White House and State Department consultations on Brazil, where uncertainty over the government's stability prompted both Washington and Brasilia to postpone a visit by the President and Mrs. Kennedy originally had planned to begin today.

TO SEE DEAN

Kennedy is expected to confer with Arthur H. Dean on the possibility of modifying U.S. demands to safeguard a nuclear test agreement. Dean is the chief U.S. negotiator at disarmament and nuclear talks in Geneva. Kennedy asked him to come back for discussions. He arrived late Saturday and is due to return to Geneva by the end of the week.

New data turned up by U.S. underground tests may persuade the United States to reduce its demands for on-site inspections and control posts designed to enforce any nuclear agreement with the Soviet Union.

While here for another weekend with Mrs. Kennedy and their children, the Chief Executive joined numerous other Kennedys in celebrating the First Lady's 33rd birthday on Saturday. Including youngsters with Kennedy sisters, Mrs. Kennedy, she was at least two dozen on the scene.

DC3 Crashes in France; Four of 8 Are Killed

PARIS (AP) — A two-engine Air France training plane crashed today 25 miles west of Paris and officials at the airline headquarters abroad perished.

The plane, a DC3 type, crashed at the little town of Comblanchien.

It was France's second fatal plane crash in 24 hours. A two-engine plane, rented by a civilian parachute club, crashed into a hill near Gallie in southern France yesterday, killing the pilot and six of the eight persons aboard.

News Conference Set

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy will hold a news conference at 3 p.m. (Pontiac time) Wednesday. White House press secretary Pierre Salinger announced today. There was no immediate word on any broadcast plans.

The Day in Birmingham

Set New Way to Control Traffic at Intersection

BIRMINGHAM — Another method of educating southbound Woodward Avenue motorists to the danger of the Lincoln Road intersection will be considered by the City Commission tonight.

Police Chief Ralph W. Motley has recommended that overhead signs be installed above the two traffic lanes of Woodward in order to direct the motorist into the proper flow of traffic.

At the present time, he said, the motorist is sometimes in the wrong lane and can not change to the proper lane because of heavy traffic.

When this happens it results in six lanes of traffic (four from Woodward and two from Hunter Boulevard) attempting to merge into only four lanes just south of Lincoln Road, Motley explained.

The new signs would be installed at Landon St., giving motorist enough time to change lanes if they do not want to turn right.

Lettering on the pavement just north of Lincoln and roadside signs are in use now but haven't proved effective in directing motorists into the proper lane.

Motorists driving in the right hand lane on Woodward are required to turn right. Only the left lane of traffic can continue through.

The commission has been requested to appropriate $400 for the installation cost of the new signs.

The signs would be reflective aluminum, with green backgrounds and white lettering.

A $6,300 improvement plan for the Municipal Building parking lot will be presented to the City Commission for its approval at today's meeting.

In last year's budget the commission allocated $5,000 for improvements for the parking lot at the rear of the Municipal Building but it was never used because consideration was being given to an underground civil defense control shelter there.

The new layout for the parking lot, in addition to improving the appearance, would create four additional parking spaces. There are now 22 spaces.

The plan will be presented by City Engineer William T. Killen.

Integration Prayers Quiet in Albany hundred Negroes at the mass rally Sunday.

"Today is a fateful day," Walker said. "This is a decisive moment in the history of Albany." Then he called for volunteers for a demonstration.

Three men stood up. They later went to City Hall, offered prayers and left quietly. Police ignored them.

Walker said there will be syncretistic prayer vigils today before city halls or state capitols in at least nine cities to encourage the President to use his influence to get racial inequalities started.

Police Chief Laurie Pritchett said he believed that large scale demonstrations had ended.

The Albany Movement, Pritchett said, "to me is almost nonexistent." He said there was a lack of interest and "the people are tired of going to jail."

Archbishop in Moscow

MOSCOW (AP) — The Archbishop of Canterbury, spiritual leader of the Church of England, arrived in this Communist land today on a mission of friendship.

A member of the Madison Heights Democratic Club, Walker was educated at Ferndale schools, Highland Park Junior College and the University of Michigan.

Hitchcock and his wife Betty are the parents of three children.

Huffman, of 615 W. Barrett Ave., Madison Heights, is also a native of the south, born in Estelle, Ga.

He is currently serving his first term as mayor of Madison Heights and has spent two terms on the city council. As mayor, he is a member of the Vigilant Tax Committee opposing Detroit's income tax on nonresidents.

Huffman is a self-employed manufacturer's representative after spending eight years as a Fisher Body supervisor.

He is married to a Kentuckian girl, the former Betty Rife, and the couple has three children.

ELECTED TO CONCON
Walker, 41, of 31222 Kenwood, Madison Heights, was elected last year as the 6th District's representative to the constitutional convention.

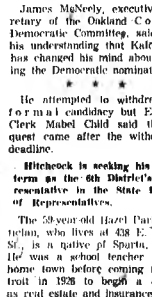

Body of Child, 8, Floats Ashore at Grand Haven

GRAND HAVEN (AP) — The body of Mary D. Herman, 8, of Grand Rapids, who drowned at Grand Haven State Park Wednesday, was found washed ashore late today.

The child was camping here with her mother, Mrs. Mary Ann Herman, when rolling surf knocked her down and carried her from the beach.

In Recess Waiting for U.S. Court Ruling

Michigan Legislature Will Hold Status Quo

LANSING (UPI) — The Michigan legislature remained in recess today and the chances of a session in the near future seemed dim.

But the emphasis remained on reapportionment. Sen. Carlton H. Morris, R-Kalamazoo, said Saturday his Senate Judiciary Committee would meet Thursday to "examine any and all (reapportionment) plans which must of necessity be confined to constitutional amendments or the adoption of a constitutional convention program."

RESTORED AT 14 LEVEL.

Morris said Saturday it would be unconstitutional to try to pass a reapportionment bill in the legislature in view of the fact U.S. Supreme Court Justice Potter Stewart's stay order restored the 1950 constitutional amendment that froze Senate districts at the 34-member level.

Other Republican leaders in the legislature indicated they wanted to avoid sessions to maintain the "status quo."

"The matter is in the hands of the U.S. Supreme Court. It is that court's decision to make and not our purpose to spend time and money to hear political speeches about the issue," he said.

Sen. Frank D. Beadle, R-St. Clair, said Saturday, "What boils down to is we want to maintain the status quo until we find out what the (U.S. Supreme) Court's decision is all about."

Justice Stewart's decision to stay the ruling of the Michigan Supreme Court gave the legislature respite from the task of reapportioning the Senate on a 32-seat basis by Aug. 20.

IN RECESS TO DECEMBER

Now, the legislature is in recess until Dec. 27.

Morris' committee will be meeting this week to study the reapportionment problem in light of Stewart's ruling.

With the December convening date, the power of recall rests in the hands of a legislative executive group and a special summons by Gov. John B. Swainson to convene can be avoided.

Following the Saturday meeting of his committee, Morris said the committee and the three senators that protected the ruling in the case filed to the State high court by August Scholle, Michigan AFL-CIO president, that the famous Tennessee case (Baker vs. Carr) had been interpreted broadly when it should have been viewed in a more restricted light.

He said it was the understanding of the four senators who went to Littleton, N. H., for the stay hearing that the U.S. high court had decided only that apportionment matters were within jurisdiction of the courts and that apportionment must have a rational basis.

There was no indication, he said, that this means apportionment on a strict population basis. This is the matter the U.S. Supreme Court will hear in the appeal, which must be filed by the senators defendant within 90 days.

Most lawmakers agreed that U.S. Supreme Court ruling is unlikely before next year.

More than 28,000 Indian children are enrolled in government-operated schools for the upper grades. There are 40 Indian high schools.

Donations Free Three Prisoners From Castro

MIAMI (UPI) — Three prisoners of the Fidel Castro government, ransomed for $175,000, returned to the United States yesterday and described treatment of rebels captured in last year's abortive invasion as "unbearable."

But they said morale among the imprisoned members of the Bay of Pigs Invasion Force is high, despite shabby treatment from guards and illness.

A cheering crowd of about 2,500 Cuban exiles welcomed the three prisoners when they landed at Miami International Airport, their freedom purchased through donations from family and friends.

They were Jorge Govin, 33, son of the former owner of the Havana Newspaper El Mundo; Ernest Fitzgerald Williams and Fabio Treysere Aguilera.

Khrushchev Blames Stalin for Farm Crisis

MOSCOW (UPI) — Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev yesterday blamed the "heritage" of Stalin for the Soviet Union's farm problems and said it must be "uprooted."

Khrushchev spoke at the opening of the Krenenchuk Power Station on the Dnieper River in the Ukraine and Moscow radio carried a recording of it.

The Soviet leader said Stalin had failed to appreciate the importance of cheap power and had forbidden the laying of power lines across the state and collective farms.

4 Alpinists, Missing 2 Days, Return OK

KLEINE SCHEIDEGG, Switzerland (AP) — Four Swiss mountain climbers—two of them women—who had been missing for two days on the storm-swept vertical Elger north wall returned unharmed and in good spirits today.

The four are Louisa Bouhar, Yvette Millard-Attlinger and their two male companions, Michel Vaucher and Michel Derbelloy.

Louisa took part in the first woman climbing expedition in the Himalayas two years ago. Yvette has climbed the Dolomites in northern Italy. The two men are both experienced alpinists.

The four said they abandoned their attempt yesterday morning because of bad weather and poor visibility and spent another night on the wall on the way down.

Tigers Worry After Angels Bomb Lary's 'Sound' Arm

L.A. Wins Cap With Home Runs Off Former Ace

Bengals Take Opener for Bunning by 7-0; Cash Clears Roof

DETROIT (AP) — The mysterious ups and downs of Frank Lary are a problem of increasing gravity for the Tigers.

The 23-year-old winner of 1961 says his sore shoulder no longer is a serious annoyance. Dr. Russell Wright, the club physician, says the pain in Lary's shoulder has diminished to almost nothing. Manager Bob Scheffing and pitching coach Tom Ferrick say Lary is throwing well.

Lary, so encouraging in his relief outing at Minnesota Wednesday, was bombed like a batting practice pitcher yesterday. He failed to hold a lead and was tagged for two runs and two homers in a five-inning loss to the Los Angeles Angels pitched out of a doubleheader.

The Tigers won the opener 7-0 for the third straight triumph over the second-place Angels.

Yet after the twinning, the Detroit clubhouse was filled with the most dejected atmosphere of the season. The Tigers had won three of four — but Lary's failure had crushed disappointment after he'd promised to rescue the pitching staff.

GOOD COMBINATION

Too bad, too. Al Kaline is back and ripping the ball. Norm Cash and Rocky Colavito again are providing power. With Lary, they comprised the core of a successful combination last summer. And he has the ability to return to that role. The seventh-place Tigers to respectability this year.

Scheffing has shunned every suggestion that Lary be given 30 days on the disabled list to rest his arm and shoulder. Again last night his condition was brought up after Scheffing huddled 15 minutes with Ferrick.

"What do you plan to do with Lary now?" Scheffing was asked with the thought Bill Freehan could be brought up from Denver to fill his spot on the roster.

"Nothing," barked Scheffing. "I thought Lary? Three well, they just were hitting him."

Lary yielded a two-run homer to Leon Wagner in the eighth. It erased Detroit's 3-1 lead. Lary was belted for a two-run homer by George Thomas in the Angels' three-run ninth. The loss was Lary's sixth against just two victories.

"He made a bad pitch to Wagner," groused Scheffing. "But nobody's even mentioned that he struck out a good hitter right in front of him."

Scheffing admits he'd like to bring up Freehan, bonus catcher at Denver, before the midweek tomorrow. But he refused to venture about the possibility.

"We've got till Tuesday to make a change," he said. "Ferrick and I didn't only discuss Lary. We talked about the pitching staff as a whole."

DETROIT (AP) — "It was going just fine, but for the last week it hasn't been worth a damn. Hank Aguirre's been the only pitcher who's done anything. I'm getting worried about Don Mossi. He hasn't pitched a real good game his last four times. We start hitting, get enough runs for a change and the pitching goes sour."

Moss had a two-hitter until the Angels drove him out with four runs in the sixth inning of the nightcap. The Angels followed him with two runs in the seventh, two more in the eighth and three in the ninth. Scheffing threw five pitchers into the game with little success.

The Tigers responded with three homers. Dick Brown hit one as they went ahead 3-1 in the fourth. Cash belted another one over the roof — his fourth — in the fifth. In the sixth with the Tigers suddenly behind, Colavito sent them back ahead with a three-run homer.

Kaline Late Pick for All-Star Team

From Our Wire Services
Al Kaline seemed a little surprised but "very pleased" yesterday when he was a last-minute choice to play in his 11th All-Star game.

"It was a pleasant surprise," Kaline said. "I am very pleased and consider it a great honor to be chosen."

The brilliant Tiger star, sidelined by injury in the first class, was named by American League manager Ralph Houk to replace Jim Landis of the White Sox. Landis injured his leg and couldn't play.

Houk called Tiger manager Bob Scheffing Sunday morning and confirmed that Kaline was his choice.

The 27-year-old flyhawk is a valuable addition to Houk's squad which was hampered by weak hitting in the first game loss to the Nationals. Kaline had a great All-Star tradition going for him.

In 10 previous "dream" games, he collected 10 hits in 25 times at bat for a robust .384 mark against some of the best pitchers around. His totals included two homers, one double and five runs batted in.

Kaline could not start but Houk seemed certain to call on him before the afternoon was over.

Three other Tigers, pitchers Jim Bunning and Hank Aguirre and outfielder Rocky Colavito, are members of the AL squad.

Bunning pitched Sunday, however, and was unlikely to see action.

Former Tiger pitcher Ray Herbert of the White Sox was another late addition as was Dodgers hurler Johnny Podres for the Nationals. Herbert replaced injured Ken McBride of the Angels and Podres took over for teammate Don Drysdale.

I also struck out my first time with Washington back in 1961," Yost recalled. "Don't let this get around, but the pitcher was Thornton Lee."

Lee's son, Don, was Yost's teammate with the Angels.

Yost was released to make room for George Thomas, just out of the Army.

He joined the Washington Senators in 1964 as a 17-year-old, fresh off the New York University campus. After a year in service, Yost rejoined the Senators late in 1966 and remained with them through 1968. He played two seasons with the Detroit Tigers, who let him go to the Angels in the expansion draft before last season.

In his last appearance Saturday, he was struck out as a pinch hitter by Detroit's Paul Foytack.

Had 1,614 Reasons for Playing in AL

DETROIT (AP) — Eddie Yost struck out his first and last at bat in the major leagues—but in 18 seasons in between he walked 1,614 times.

The playing-career of "the Walking Man" ended Sunday when he was released by the Los Angeles Angels. They quickly signed him as a coach.

"I knew I couldn't last forever, but I'm happy they're keeping me around," said the 35-year-old Yost, who played more games at third base than any other player in history, nearly 2,100.

Yost was released to make room for George Thomas, just out of the Army.

Roth Fails in Bid With Lions

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Clayton Roth, former Waterford High School graduate, failed in his bid to play pro football with the Detroit Lions.

Roth was among five rookies cut after Saturday's scrimmage and he admitted he saw it coming.

"I didn't think I could make it," he said, "even though I could do a good job kicking. When I was cut at offensive end, that was it. I'm not fast enough to be a pass receiver, and when you have guys like (Wayne) who is an important as a linemen as well as a kicker it's tough trying to make it just on kicking."

Roth, who plans on taking graduate work at Michigan State next fall, is hoping he can still play pro football but on a smaller scale with the Grand Rapids team of the United Football League.

He said he would go up to see former Lion Gene Gedman, now the new coach at Grand Rapids.

Roth said he was hitting the range from 50 yards out in his field goal kicking. "I think I could help a team that needs a specialist," Roth added.

The 6-foot, 205-pounder has a powerful set of legs and he would like to play in the NFL at Baltimore, where he was the outstanding prep kicker in Oakland County during his football days at Waterford.

FOUR OTHERS OUT
The Lions also cut rookies Dave Bell, Alan Smith, Gale Sprute, and Claude Watts, all free agents except Sprute a 220-pound guard who was the 12th choice from Winston State College in Winston.

In Saturday's scrimmage, Milt Plumb showed good passing form; rookie back Dick Compton took running honors and Larry Vargo and Pat Stupill were the top pass receivers.

Plumb connected on six of 11 passes for 131 yards, including a 60-yard pass to Compton, a speedy halfback from Texas. Compton also broke home for a 44-yard run, and went four yards for a touchdown.

Stupill grabbed five passes for 58 yards while Vargo, former U. of D. end was on the receiving end of 11 yard Plum touchdown pass.

Earl Morrall completed six of 13 passes for 73 yards.

Daily workouts are slated for 10 a.m. and 3 p.m.

WINNER SCHMIDTKE
The Blue-White intra-squad scrimmage will be held Saturday night at Winder Stadium, with the defensive team and offensive teams playing each other.

The game is expected to draw 5,000 people with pre-game activities featuring running, passing and kicking competition at 7:30 p.m.

Tickets for the game are on sale at numerous locations throughout Oakland County.

NET NOTES
The Dallas Cowboys obtained 6-foot-4, 230-pound offensive tackle John Strydom from the Green Bay Packers Sunday in exchange for an undrafted draft choice.

Two-year veteran Byron Bradfield, an offensive lineman, left camp, saying he had decided to quit football.

Veteran linebacker Rip Hawking reported to the Minnesota Vikings training camp here Sunday, having signed a contract.

Viking Coach Norm Van Brocklin hailed the signing of Hawkins as a coup. "The team's most active player," he said.

MAKE OVER Earnings Up

During First Half of '62

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK — The nation's

17 million shareholders may be happy about what happened in 1962, but most of their companies increased their earnings over the previous year and maintained the rate of dividend payments.

A number of the largest corporations reported striking gains in net income after taxes and some records.

True, much of the fame came in the first three months of this year. In the April-May-June quarter, 22.8 per cent of the first half of 1961 when the early months were in the bottom of the last recession. Only 148 of the 770 traded 1961 figures. There were 34 reporting a net loss this year, against a year in 1961 when after taxes of $5,636,500,000. In the first half of 1961, the same companies had total profits of $4,880,

$44,000.

Even so, many observers were disturbed by the showing. Mainly because of the slowdown in the second quarter from the first.

To them it seemed clear that profits for the entire year would fall short of the goal set by the billions of dollars in new investment, even when sales were expanding, and also showed the earnings outlook for the second half of the year.

ALSO CUTS PROFIT

Relaxation of profit rules that will permit companies to deduct more for wear and tear will also cut earnings by just what this change in bookkeeping will show up in the second half of this year.

One of these considerations doubtless will be among those weighed by the administration as it makes its decision as to whether to ask Congress to lower the tax rate on corporate incomes as a stimulus to business.

But six months earnings statements viewed by themselves are pretty reassuring.

Well ahead of a year ago was the modern group—General Motors, Ford, Chrysler and American. All reported substantial gains.

MOVED HIGHER

The oils, out of favor with many stock traders well before the big price break, mostly moved higher in net earnings. Jersey Standard and Esso, for example, reported earnings of $1.15 a share in the first half of 1962, up from $1.05 in the first half of 1961. Other oil companies, such as Gulf, Texaco, and Phillips, also reported gains.
