Chrysler Is Next UAW Target

DETROIT (AP) — The United Auto Workers union announced today that the Chrysler Corp. will be the next target in negotiations for a new labor contract among the automotive Big Three.

The UAW said negotiations will be resumed this afternoon at the Chrysler headquarters in Highland Park, a suburb of Detroit. UAW President Walter Reuther is not expected to be on hand until next week.

Bargainers for the union and Ford Motor Co. reached agreement of a three-year national contract earlier this week, but production has not been resumed pending settlement of local grievances.

Ford workers went on strike at midnight Sept. 6, but UAW members continued on the job at Chrysler and General Motors even though contracts at all three companies expired at the same time.

Traditionally, the UAW regards the first contract settlement as a pattern for the industry and negotiates on that basis, sometimes asking for special concessions to meet special problems at individual companies.

After an agreement is reached with Chrysler, the union then will turn its full attention to GM, the world's No. 1 manufacturing corporation. Some 400,000 hourly rated workers are employed by GM.

In its terse announcement, the union said merely that the UAW's international executive board "has decided that the union will bargain to conclusion on a new contract with Chrysler Corp."

SLOPPY NIGHT—Center Greg Ballard of Waterford Township High School watches from the sidelines during a breather in last night's football game. Walled Lake won, 7-6, to take the Inter-Lakes League championship. The condition of Ballard's uniform was the order of the night on area gridirons.

Robber of Area Bank Sought

A bandit who held up the main office of the Birmingham-Bloomfield Bank in Birmingham and escaped with a $60,000 cash was being sought today by the FBI.

The gunman entered the bank on Maple at Adams about 3:20 p.m. yesterday, demanding the cash from two of the five women tellers on duty.

A spokesman for the FBI said that there were only a few customers in the bank, and that apparently they were unaware of the robbery until after the bandit fled out a rear door leading to a parking lot.

The robber was described to Birmingham police as "rugged looking," 25 to 30 years old, wearing a three-quarter length brown jacket, a green turtleneck sweater and a brown hunting cap.

His face was marked with acne scars and he needed a shave, witnesses told police.

ESCAPES IN CHEVROLET
It's believed that he may have escaped in a 1962 or 1963 Chevrolet with out-of-state license plates.

It was the first robbery in the seven-year history of the bank, and, according to one veteran Birmingham police officer, the first city bank holdup in its memory.

The robbery took less than two minutes, according to bank President S. Tenney McGraw.

"It's unfortunate, but we're most pleased that no one panicked and that no one was injured," said McGraw.

GTW to Open a 2nd Station

A second commuter station and a new place to switch morning trains were announced today by Grand Trunk Western Railroad. The changes should ease traffic jams often caused by trains blocking West Huron during the morning rush hour, officials said.

The new commuter station will open Monday at the end of Ingleswood. It will provide more convenient service for Grand Trunk commuters living on the north side of Pontiac, according to railroad officials. Free parking by the station is available.

Train departures will be 15 minutes earlier than from the regular Pontiac station.

Officials also announced plans to begin making up trains north of the original Pontiac station in the yards near Ingleswood. This is expected to ease the traffic situation caused at the crossing on Huron when switching crews had to block the intersection every time they had to change tracks.

Beginning tomorrow the four Detroit-Chicago passenger runs which stop in Pontiac will have slightly new schedules. There will be two runs each way.

NEW SCHEDULES

The Pontiac-Detroit commuter schedules will also be altered beginning Monday, a Grand Trunk official said.

The two daily Detroit-Chicago runs, westbound, will stop in Pontiac at 1:13 p.m. and 5:06 p.m., arriving in Chicago at 6:15 p.m. and 9:10 p.m., respectively.

Eastbound, the trains will stop in Pontiac at 5:15 p.m. and 10:55 p.m. and 11:10 p.m., respectively.

Beginning Monday, the weekday commuter schedule is as follows:

- Leave Pontiac 6:35 a.m., arrive Detroit 7:30 a.m.
- Leave Pontiac 7:05 a.m., arrive Detroit 8 a.m.
- Leave Pontiac 7:35 a.m., arrive Detroit 8:30 a.m.
- Return:
- Leave Detroit 5 p.m., arrive Pontiac 6 p.m.
- Leave Detroit 5:30 p.m., arrive Pontiac 6:30 p.m.
- Leave Detroit 6 p.m., arrive Pontiac 6:45 p.m.
- Leave Detroit 6:20 p.m., arrive Pontiac 7:05 p.m.

Scattered Flurries Possible in Area

There's a chance of a few brief scattered snow flurries again today, tomorrow night or Monday but no accumulation of snow is forecast.

Temperatures will hover around the freezing point tonight, according to the weatherman.

Here is the official U.S. Weather Bureau Report for the weekend:

TOMORROW — Variable cloudiness. A chance of some snow at night. A little warmer.

MONDAY — Chance of snow and little warmer.

Precipitation probabilities in per cent are: Today 10, tonight near zero, tomorrow 10.

The mercury tumbled to a low of 32 at 8 a.m. today in downtown Pontiac. Morning sunshine brought the recording to near 42 at 2 p.m.

County Safety Unit Hears Report on Tire Stud Law

The County Traffic Safety Committee yesterday heard a report on a new law on tire studs that will go into effect Wednesday.

Paul Riley, district traffic engineer for the State Highway department, said it will be legal, for the first time, to use tires in Michigan between Nov. 1 and May 1.

He pointed out a danger. If the tires are not put on the same wheels each year, the studs have a tendency to work loose.

This means they could shoot out of a tire "like a bullet," Riley warned.

He said the highway department had urged use of the tires in spite of tests which showed they did cause added road wear. "We felt the advantages outweighed the bad effects," he said.

TRIPLE EFFECTIVE

The new tires would be important in this county because of conditions on roads during winter, and studded tires proved three to four times more effective than snow tires on ice and snow, he said.

The committee also passed a resolution urging a pedestrian overpass for N. Perry and Kenilworth in Pontiac in the vicinity of Madison Junior High and Northern High.

Time Change Near

MARQUETTE (UPI) — Tomorrow Michigan trips through the throes of its twice-yearly time tangle, as parts of the Upper Peninsula again threatened to secede from the federally imposed time zones.

At 2 a.m. tomorrow clocks throughout the state will go back one hour.

The shift would put the Upper Peninsula, now on Central Daylight Time (EDT), on Central Standard Time (CST). The Lower Peninsula switches from Eastern Daylight (EDT) to Eastern Standard (EST).

But the three counties at the easternmost tip of the U.P. vow to stick with the lower part of the state, and go EST. The counties are Chippewa, most of Mackinac and part of Lapeer.

"There is no provision in the law for any counties exempting themselves from the Uniform Time Act passed by the U.S. Congress," Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley warned yesterday.

AN HOUR BEHIND

When Michigan switched to EDT last year, the Department of Transportation, bowing to protests from the Upper Peninsula, turned the U.P. over to EST, an hour behind the rest of the state.

The three counties promptly decided to stick with the Lower Peninsula. Now that it's time to turn the clocks back, the three counties again say they'll turn in tune with the Lower Peninsula.

State and federal offices will follow the federal ruling and stay on CST, putting them one hour behind local businesses and homes.

The time change will mean an hour more of drinking time.

When the 2 a.m. mark arrives tomorrow, bartenders may push the clocks back one hour, to 1 a.m., and stay open another hour.

State Snows Break Records

By The Associated Press

Record-breaking snowfalls blanketed large areas of Lower Michigan today after causing death, power failures, property damage, traffic tie-ups and cancellation of dozens of high school football games.

A death reported as a result of the snow was that of Walter M. Daniel Jr., 17, of Stevensville, killed yesterday when his car slid off a rain-swept, slushy road three miles south of St.

Joseph and slammed broadside into a tree.

The snow set several records. Grand Rapids recorded 8.3 inches by late yesterday afternoon, setting marks for the city's heaviest 24-hour fall in October and the heaviest snowfall for so early in the season.

In Lansing, 7.5 inches fell from midnight Thursday to early last night, setting a new 24-hour record and monthly snowfall record. And in Muskegon, a 4.7-inch snowfall yesterday set another 24-hour record.

In Chesaning, south of Saginaw, an unofficial measurement of 10 inches was reported.

More snow was forecast today for the central Lower Peninsula, with accumulations to four inches.

Roads throughout the area were covered with slush. Scores of cars and trucks skidded into ditches, and police reported numerous accidents resulting in property damage.

New Evidence Seen UAW to Quit AFL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Labor sources are claiming new evidence to support speculation Walter Reuther intends to yank his United Auto Workers out of the AFL-CIO, the giant labor federation he helped force 12 years ago.

The purported evidence is Reuther's postponement of a scheduled gathering next month of the AFL-CIO's Industrial Union Department. He's a member of the department's executive board. Reuther asked for postponement of the convention until early next year on grounds he's tied up with the UAW's auto industry negotiations.

"I don't believe it," said one source close to AFL-CIO President George Meany, a target for strong Reuther criticism over the past year.

The source said he and others in the AFL-CIO's hierarchy believe Reuther's plan is to pull the UAW out of the federation at the organization's general convention at Miami Beach, Fla., in December.

They reason Reuther didn't want the earlier scheduled convention to evolve into any showdown confrontation.

Reuther, 60, quit as an AFL-CIO vice president last February after attacking the 73-year-old Meany and other AFL-CIO leaders as "that private club of the ancient men of labor."

'Mystery' Ship Orbiting Earth

Soviet Craft Believed
Big Enough to Hold 5

LONDON (AP) — A giant Soviet spaceship is circling the earth in secrecy, the Evening Standard reported today.

The spaceship—believed to be large enough to accommodate a crew of five—is almost certainly a Soyuz, the type in which Col. Vladimir Komarov was killed in April, the newspaper said.

By account of the Standard, the spaceship was launched from Baikonur Cosmodrome in Central Kazakhstan Friday and announced Friday night as "No. 184 in the Cosmos series." This is a blanket name used by the Russians to cover the launching of scientific satellites and sometimes to mask their testing of new spacecraft.

The first clue to suggest it was not simply an instrument satellite came from Kettering Grammar School in Northants, where physics master Geoffrey Perry and a team of boys picked up signals from it Friday night.

Perry, who has monitored signals from nearly all Russian satellites, said the signals were not on the usual Cosmos frequency and were identical to those picked up when a Soyuz spaceship was launched under the cover name of Cosmos 140.

This Soyuz flight was a dummy run for Komarov's flight.

The new Russian rocket is in an egg-shaped orbit, angled at 51 degrees to the equator and 280 miles up. It is sending out signals in bursts every few minutes.

The Standard said the Russians are expected to attempt to recover it later today or Sunday as a dress rehearsal for a new "space spectacular" involving several cosmonauts next week to mark the 50th anniversary of the Bolshevik revolution.

TIPTOE THROUGH THE PROTEST—It was hardly the red carpet treatment this Oberlin College student received after completing an interview with U.S. Navy recruiting officers yesterday in Oberlin, Ohio. Instead he had to watch his step as he walked across a human carpet of student anti-war protesters staging a sit-down outside the door of the college counseling office where recruiters were conducting interviews. About six men entered the office.

Negro Militant Shot, Police Officer Killed

OAKLAND, Calif. (UPI)—One policeman was killed, another wounded and a leader of the militant "Black Panthers" was shot today in a street gun battle.

Officer John Frey, 23, was killed by gunfire and his partner, Herbert Heanes, hit three times—twice in the chest and once in the knee—in the exchange of shots. Heanes was in critical condition.

Hewey Newton, 25, described by police as a leader of Oakland's "Black Panther" organization, was arrested after he arrived at an Oakland hospital for treatment of a bullet wound in the stomach.

Police were hunting for a second suspect, who ran off as a second squad car approached the scene in predominantly Negro west Oakland.

The shooting apparently took place after the officers stopped a car carrying the two suspects and tried to issue a traffic citation, police said. They said the suspects opened fire on the two policemen. One of the officers managed to fire back twice before collapsing.

Members of the Negro "Black Panther party for Self-Defense" carry arms.

Waterford Board to Meet After Budget Hearing

Waterford Township Board's Monday night meeting will follow public hearing on the proposed $1.4-million 1968 operating budget. The hearing will start at 7:30 p.m.

The board is scheduled to consider the transfer of two liquor licenses and ordinances establishing the Pontiac Sewer and creating a tax assessment roll for it.

The board is expected to approve bids for sewer and fences for the department of parks and recreation.

Township officials, in discussing the proposed budget, have said a property tax increase of seven-tenths of a mill is necessary to provide all funds needed.

News Briefs at a Glance

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — Winds that blew in off Lake Erie with gusts up to 96 miles an hour pounded the Buffalo area last night and early today, sinking scores of small boats, felling power lines and driving some persons from flood-endangered homes. Three people, reported missing in the lake-front area, were found safe several hours after dawn.

U.S. Assailed by Ho

MOSCOW (AP) — Ho Chi Minh charged today that the United States intends to "destroy everything and exterminate everybody" in North Vietnam. American barbarism "exceeds even the Hitlerite Fascists," the president of North Vietnam wrote in Pravda, the newspaper of the Soviet Communist party.

Ford Remains Closed

DETROIT (AP) — Labor disputes between the Ford Motor Co. and United Auto Workers locals representing workers "at both ends of the production line" today kept Ford closed down again as bargainers for both sides continued their efforts to wrap up local contracts. Ford reported that 24 of the 101 UAW locals representing the company's 180,000 workers have not yet settled individual plant agreements.

Policies Held on 7 Dead

ARCADIA, Fla. (AP) — James Richardson, 22, father of seven children killed by insecticide poisoning, said in a sworn statement yesterday he took out $1,000 double indemnity life insurance policies on each child the night before the tragedy. But the insurance agent said the policies did not take effect because the father couldn't afford the first week's premium, slightly under $4, according to Asst. State Atty. John Treadwell.

Cities Set for Presidents

EL PASO, Tex. (AP) — El Paso, Tex., and Juarez, Mexico, were gallantly dressed sister cities today for the historic visit of their national presidents. Security precautions prevailed, but threats of violence were discounted. President Johnson and Gustavo Diaz Ordaz would be exposed to some form of demonstration resulting from hurt feelings in the Cabinet-level Mexican conferences.

Gas Tax Bill Revived

LANSDOWN (UPI) — House advocates of the "good roads" package of higher highway taxes yesterday blew some life back into the dead gas tax bill and hoped for a recovery Tuesday. That is when the House is scheduled to return to work and, Republican leaders hope, when they will be able to push through the penny increase in the gasoline tax that failed by one vote Thursday.

Guard Sent to College

GRAMBLING, La. (AP) — Gov. John J. McKeithen ordered 500 National Guardsmen to the Grambling College campus today to block any upsurge by rebellious students. McKeithen's action, at the request of college officials, came in the wake of a snowballing student protest against "academic mediocrity."

Rail Car Explosion Evacuates Town

DANBURY, Tex. (UPI) — A railroad car bound for a chemical plant derailed today near this small southern Texas town and exploded. Most of the 600 residents of the town were evacuated.

The Texas Department of Public Safety said the evacuation was ordered because poisonous chlorine gas was believed in other cars on the train.

A huge black smoke cloud which rose over the spot, about 30 miles south of Houston, could be seen miles away.

Manhunt Seeks Police Killers

Trio Gets $83,000 in Bloody Bank Holdup

NORTHLAKE, Ill. (AP) — A nationwide manhunt was under way today for three members of a holdup team who killed two Northlake policemen in a gun duel following a robbery at Northlake Bank Friday.

A detective said $83,000 was taken by the masked gunmen. Police, however, placed the figure at between $50,000 and $60,000. About $5,400 in bills was found scattered in front of the bank.

A fourth member of the team was wounded by police and was captured. Two other policemen were wounded. Police said one and possibly two of the three persons, who eluded police by using at least three getaway cars, may have been wounded. One of the three may be a woman, police said.

Martin W. Johnson, head of the Chicago office of the FBI, said he could not recall any similar robbery in which two policemen were killed and that he had issued a nationwide alert for the escaped killers.

Ronald Del Ranie, about 35, of St. Louis, was charged in a warrant issued Friday night with two counts of murder. Del Ranie was hospitalized with bullet wounds in the neck and back.

The Northlake policemen killed were Detective Sgt. John J. Nagle, 31, Bellwood, and Patrolman Anthony P. Perri, 41, Northlake.

A woman teller told police she saw one of the gunmen walk into the bank, a scarf around his face, a 30-caliber carbine in his hand. She triggered the bank's alarm which sounds in the suburb's police station but not in the bank as the first robber shouted to the customers and employees: "Get down!"

Seven customers and some 15 employees were in the bank.

Birmingham Area News

GTW Alters Schedules for New Shopper Trains

BIRMINGHAM — Four new Grand Trunk Western "Shopper Special" commuter trains which begin service between Birmingham and Detroit Monday (two each way) have new schedules even before they begin, announced railroad officials today.

The trains are being added on a three-month trial basis to test whether the service will be used. Approval was granted recently by the Michigan Public Service Commission.

The schedules for the new trains are as follows: Leave Birmingham at 9 a.m. and 1:20 p.m. arriving in Detroit at 9:40 a.m. and 2 p.m.; and returning, leave Detroit at 8 a.m. and 12:01 p.m. arriving in Birmingham at 8:40 a.m. and 12:40 p.m., respectively.

The special trains will run only Monday through Friday, said a Detroit spokesman. The regular morning and evening commuter trains which stop in Birmingham will have slightly altered schedules beginning Monday due to the Grand Trunk's efforts to provide more timely service, said the spokesman.

The Classic Guitar Society of Michigan, a nonprofit organization, will meet Nov. 14, at the Music and Arts at 772 E. Maple where six of Michigan's leading guitarists are expected to perform.

Train Kills Man

DURAND (UPI)—Carroll Hatfield, 69, of Bancroft was killed by a Grand Trunk train here yesterday as he stood at the crossing and warned cars to stop for the approaching train, State Police said.

The conservatory's students are invited to attend the special program which will be announced soon, said Director Cliff Morris. Performances that evening will be mainly classical and Flamenco pieces.

City Man Held in Two Holdups

Bloomfield Township police said today that they would seek warrants charging a Pontiac man with an armed robbery attempt of a motel yesterday and the holdup of the same motel two weeks ago.

Held in the Oakland County Jail for investigation of the crimes is Abraham Dawkins, 25, of 233 S. Marshall.

Dawkins was arrested at his home at 6 p.m. by Pontiac police after receiving a description and license number of the getaway car from Bloomfield Township police.

Detective Fred Bruegger of the Bloomfield Township department said Dawkins had been identified as the man who tried to hold up Charles Whitney, 61, the owner of the St. Christopher Motel, 3915 N. Telegraph, at 4:30 p.m. yesterday.

The suspect fled when Whitney began grappling with him for a knife and calling for his son, Michael, 24, who was in another room.

Harbruegger said that Whitney identified the bandit yesterday as the one who held him at knifepoint on Oct. 15 and stole $55.

Crash Hurts 2 in Waterford

Two Waterford Township drivers, Susan Drake, 20, of 8200 Pontiac Lake and Harold Jarvis, 39, of 2851 Williams Lake, are in serious condition at Pontiac General Hospital today.

Miss Drake and her sister, Danette, 14, were driving east on Williams Lake Road near Warringham in Waterford Township at 11:03 yesterday morning when hit by a pickup truck driven by Jarvis, according to township police.

Jarvis apparently came around a curve headed west, lost control of his vehicle and started sliding sideways, police said.

School Addition Open to Public

ORCHARD LAKE — The new wing of Our Lady of Relief Elementary School will be open to parishioners and the public tomorrow after each Mass.

The addition to the school at 3750 Commerce includes a library now holding 6,000 books, a teachers' lounge, and a large all-purpose room to be used as a science laboratory, art room and classrooms. The wing, financed by parishioners, was completed yesterday.

Blues to Boost Hospital Rates

LANSING (AP) — The State Insurance Department announced Friday approval of a 4.5 per cent increase in the basic rate schedule for Michigan Blue Cross hospital service. Senior citizens contracts will remain the same, the department said.

The new basic rate will go into effect Jan. 1 for Blue Cross Commissioner David Dykhouse said the increase will take a full year to affect the base rate of all groups insured.

Dykhouse said the increase was caused by a trend of constantly increasing costs for health care.

Blue Shield medical service only asked for approval of the same base rate schedule currently in effect, Dykhouse said of the financial positions of both health care organizations must be projected well in advance," Dykhouse said of the action.

$12,000 Blaze Hits in Waterford

A fire yesterday at the home of Eileen C. Garrett of 9948 Brightwood Court, Waterford Township, caused an estimated $12,000 damage to the building, according to Waterford Township Fire Department.

The blaze which started around 5:14 p.m. also caused some $4,000 damage to property. The cause is being investigated.

Service for Mrs. Francisco (Maria F.) Rodriguez, 68, of 60 W. Fairmount will be at 10 a.m. Monday at St. Vincent de Paul Catholic Church. Burial will follow at Mount Hope Cemetery by the Pursley-Gilbert Funeral Home.

Police on Lookout for Stolen Checks

Pontiac police warned city merchants today to be on the lookout for two men believed to be passing stolen payroll checks in this area.

Capt. Charles Gale said two checks have been cashed in the area. The checks were for amounts in the neighborhood of $200 each.

The checks, numbered from 016406 to 017000, were stolen from the Ingalls Iron Works Co. in Birmingham, Ala.

They are drawn on an account of the Exchange Security Bank of Birmingham, Ala.

Home. Rosary is 7:30 p.m. tomorrow at the funeral home.

Mrs. Rodriguez died yesterday. Surviving are two sons, Gilbert and Jose C., both of Pontiac; four daughters, Mrs. Jose Gonzales, Mrs. Rufino Zamora, Mrs. Thomas Lerma and Mrs. Pedro Gonzales, all of Pontiac; 31 grandchildren; and 12 great grandchildren.

She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. George Rall of Lake Orion.

Gov. Reagan Does It Again

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — It happened again: Gov. Ronald Reagan got someone else's message.

This time it was a letter from Florida Gov. Claude Kirk's extradition secretary to Michigan Gov. George Romney asking for the extradition of a prisoner to Titusville, Fla.

The letter came addressed to Reagan and presumably there was another one intended for Reagan which went to Romney. Both are considered potential candidates for the Republican presidential nomination.

During the recent National Governors Conference, a confidential White House message, concerning the conference's debate on Vietnam policy, wound up in Reagan's hands.

2 Women Injured in Area Auto Crash

Kathleen A. Carry of 576 Pike is in satisfactory condition and Mrs. Ann Sims of Highland Park is in fair condition at St. Joseph's Hospital after being injured in an auto accident in Bloomfield Township at 5:14 p.m. yesterday.

Miss Carry, 21, apparently hit a waterhole while driving south on Telegraph near West Quarter, according to Bloomfield Township police.

She apparently lost control of the car and crossed over the median hitting a northbound car driven by Brooks Newton Jr., 61, of 28 S. Anderson, police added.

Newton was treated and released. Mrs. Sims was a passenger in his car.

Count Basie Finds He's Counted Out

HENDERSON, Ky. (AP) — Count Basie and his 16-member band arrived Friday for a scheduled performance only to discover it had been canceled the night before.

Local promoter Harry Bremer said few tickets were sold because Henderson and Daviess County played a high school football game Friday night. The Gaslight Players opened "Everybody Loves Opal," the movie "Sound of Music" opened Thursday, and several civic groups held Halloween parties. "It's all an unfortunate happening," Bremer said.

Basie left after two hours and said, "My agency's taking care of this in any legal way it can."

Child-Cruelty Hearing Will Be Resumed

The preliminary court hearing for an Independence Township man and woman charged with cruelty to children will resume Nov. 15 before Waterford Township Justice of the Peace Kenneth Hempstead.

The hearing was adjourned yesterday until that time when the prosecution will end its case against Paul M. Maczek, 57, and his housekeeper, Mrs. Florence Lewis, 29, both of 9052 Orionville.

They are accused of cruelty involving four of Mrs. Lewis' five children, one of whom has testified that he was chained to a brother by Maczek.

Yesterday, Detective Max Little of the Michigan State Police, who is in charge of the case, testified that Mrs. Lewis had knowledge of the chaining.

Following the hearing, Hempstead will determine if there is sufficient evidence to bind the case over to Circuit Court for trial.

Pontiac Boy Struck by Car

A 7-year-old Pontiac boy is in fair condition at Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital after being struck by a car yesterday after noon on Auburn at Russell.

The youngster was identified by police as Michael O. Sullivan of 38 S. Astor.

The driver, Curtis B. Carnes, 26, of 71 Hillfield, told police he skidded into the boy when he stepped on the brake to avoid hitting him.

News in Brief

Two business machines with a total value of $100 were stolen in a break-in of the Oakland Chemical Co., 774 Woodward, it was reported to Pontiac police yesterday.

U.N. Split on Mideast Plans

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The Security Council is split over rival plans for sending a U.N. representative to the Middle East to try to open the way to a lasting Arab-Israeli peace settlement.

Informed sources said a drafting team of six nonpermanent council members had agreed in principle on a formula, but Canada and Denmark came in last night with a rival plan.

The six-nation draft outlined several basic principles for a settlement, including one saying Israel should withdraw from these parts of Egypt, Jordan and Syria it occupied in the June war and that the Arab states should abandon their 15-year-old state of belligerency toward Israel.

India, Argentina, Brazil, Ethiopia, Mali and Nigeria drafted that proposal.

When they showed it to the council's other four elected members—Bulgaria, Canada, Denmark and Japan—Danish Foreign Minister Hans Tabor introduced the rival Canadian-Danish plan.

INDICATED WITHDRAWAL

Diplomatic sources said that plan only indicated that Israel should withdraw from the captured territory, stating that countries should not keep troops on other countries' territories against their will.

The council president for October, Japanese Ambassador Senjin Tsunoka, said the 10 delegates would meet again Monday morning to discuss the two proposals.

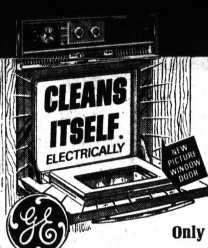

Efforts to obtain a permanent Arab-Israeli settlement have been spurred by Egypt's sinking of the Israeli destroyer Elath last Saturday and the Israeli shelling of Port Suez Tuesday which set fire to Egypt's two major oil refineries.

The council on Wednesday adopted a stopgap resolution condemning all violations of the cease-fire without fixing the blame for either the sinking of the destroyer or the shelling of Port Suez.

Council members have generally agreed that a U.N. representative should be sent to the Middle East, but they have differed on whether he should operate under a detailed mandate or under a set of general principles.

The Israelis strongly oppose a hard and fast mandate which might work against Israel's campaign for direct negotiations with the Arab governments.

Shot Dispute Delays Shah's Ex-Wife

SYDNEY, Australia (AP) — Two days after the Shah of Iran was crowned in Tehran, his former wife, Princess Soraya, was held at Sydney airport for 90 minutes today in a dispute over a cholera shot.

Soraya, who was in Bangkok on her ex-husband's coronation day, claimed she had the injection in the Thai capital, but the doctor there had not endorsed her medical papers.

She refused at first to have the shot here despite a threat that she would have to remain in quarantine for 14 days.

A reception committee of the Cornucopia Children's Medical Research Foundation, which aranged Soraya's 10-day visit, waited anxiously, fearing its arrangements would have to be canceled.

PERSUASION
Finally the committee chairman, Sir Lorimer Dodds, persuaded her to have the injection.

A round of charity functions has been arranged for the princess next week.

The princess left the airport with a grim face, refused to attend a reception arranged for her and was driven to the beach house where she is staying.

City Income Tax Exempts None

Who pays a city income tax?

It has come to the attention of The Press that there is considerable confusion over this question in various parts of the community.

It's a vital question because the Pontiac City Commission has enacted a city income tax which will become effective Jan. 1 unless a referendum is forced on the issue and the tax is defeated at the polls.

The answer is simple: The tax applies to both individual and corporate incomes. This means that businesses and industries pay an income tax just as individual taxpayers are taxed on their own personal income.

Some citizens seem to be under the misconception that the city income tax applies only to individual income. That's not true.

The income tax ordinance states it clearly: "The tax shall apply on the taxable net profits on a corporation doing business in the city..."

A good example of this is General Motors Corporation. GM will, in fact, pay more taxes under the city income tax than it would under a four-mill property tax increase, according to Mayor William H. Taylor Jr.

We hope this will clear up any misconceptions about a city income tax putting a greater load on individual taxpayers and no burden on business and industry.

Realism Tempers Youthful White House Hopes

Yes, Junior, your teacher is telling you true.

Any American boy CAN become president of the United States.

He must, of course, attend school regularly, study hard, get along with people, keep his nose clean, say the right things at the right time to the right folks, come into considerable money or have rich friends and admirers — and be loaded with luck.

If he can swing all this, it is possible that one of these days he may enter the White House as president.

Then, Junior, he has it made. Good wages, nice home (convenient to office), fancy automobile, free travel, a chance to meet interesting people (VERY interesting people), and hardly ever a dull moment.

Consider a day in the life of our President:

- The war in Vietnam (this alone will keep him from being bored).
- Steel price rises, auto price rises, various cost-of-living rises, all sorts of price rises — practically all of them in open defiance of presidential pleas.
- Auto strikes, rail strikes, airline strikes, teacher strikes, police and fire strikes, girl-dancer strikes — all launched despite the President's wisest wishes.

● Demonstrations, protests, riots and disturbances across the country — all blamed by their instigators on the man in the White House.

● Second-guessing the presidential action by leaders of both political parties and other groups — no two guessers guessing alike.

● The United Nations featuring action instead of action.

● Dr. Gaultle (That's all).

● A hard time in Congress on foreign aid, home aid, the tax hike, you name it.

● Bad news in the public opinion polls. The natives are restless!

Exciting and stimulating, eh, Junior? Think of the challenge to a man who craves action!

So study hard, keep your nose clean and...

Junior! Where are you going? 'Out to PLAY? What about your homework? You'll never get to be...

Nuts to WHAT?

Junior, is that any way to talk? Don't you realize...

guerrilla war over here, an army of some 6.5 million Vietnamese would be on our soil.

Should it seem to you that there's something wrong with this picture, it's because there is.

U.S. Forces in Vietnam Gaining on Population

With American troop strength in South Vietnam scheduled to top 500,000 early next year, this will mean that approximately every 32nd person in that country of 16 million is an American.

If a proportionate number of Vietnamese were aiding us in a guerrilla war over here, an army of some 6.5 million Vietnamese would be on our soil.

Should it seem to you that there's something wrong with this picture, it's because there is.

Sen. Wylie Held Vision of Future

By JAMES MARLOW

AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON — Alexander Wylie, who died Thursday, was not one of the most brilliant minds in the Senate where he served 24 years before being beaten in his bid for a fifth term in 1962.

But he did develop a vision of the future which he had to arrive at the hard way. And in the process, more than a decade ago, he was making statements which sound like President Johnson today.

He was a isolationist when he came to the Senate as a Wisconsin Republican in 1939. He was 55 then and found plenty of company in a Senate which was slowly and grudgingly emerging from a belief America could stand alone.

There was another midwestern Republican isolationist there when Wylie arrived — Sen. Arthur Vandenberg of Michigan — who, like Wylie, eventually became an internationalist after World War II.

Wylie never achieved the public stature or influence of Vandenberg, but both men in the early postwar years helped eliminate some of the political partisanship which had plagued American foreign policy.

DIM MEMORIES

For both, this was their greatest contribution to American history although today's generation has probably only a dim knowledge or none at all of either man.

Two shining examples of Wylie's early isolationism were his opposition to the draft in 1940 and to lend-lease in 1941.

But by the time the war ended, Wylie and Vandenberg had done a complete turn-around in foreign affairs. Both men helped win approval for American participation in the United Nations.

Yet, as ardent as Wylie and Vandenberg had become in their desire for international cooperation, each man had only two years as chairman of the Senate's Foreign Relations Committee. The reason was that since 1932 the Republicans have had majority control in the Senate only a total of four years.

DOMESTIC CONSERVATIVE

This forced both men to throw their weight around in American foreign policy mostly by their speeches and their votes. Wylie, outside the foreign field, was pretty much a conservative.

It wasn't until 1950, a few months after the Communists took over all mainland China, that the United States began to help the French in Vietnam where since 1946 they had been at war with Ho Chi Minh, now the Communist boss of North Vietnam.

The motivation: Fear that, unless stopped, Communism would take over Southeast Asia.

On Nov. 20, 1953, the French captured the Ho Chi Minh stronghold of Dien Bien Phu, which seemed like a great victory at the time but became a French disaster.

MUTUAL DEFENSE

On that same day Wylie said that if Vietnam fell to the Communists that "entire area of the world would sooner or later fall into Communist hands. He called for a mutual defense agreement to protect that area.

A year later the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization (SEATO) was created. The American pledge under that treaty to help a Southeast Asian country attacked by Communists is one reason why the United States is in Vietnam now.

The POWER of FAITH

By WOODI ISHMAEL

Mrs. Annie Musunga has spent her life in Christian commitment and the education of her people in Africa. The beginnings of her faith go back to her grandfather who became a Christian when he was a cook for the first Methodist missionaries in his native country at Zambia.

At the age of three Mrs. Musunga entered Mbereshi Missionary School in Zambia and upon the completion of her secondary education taught home economics, writing and arithmetic in a government school.

Mrs. Musunga is now headmistress of the Conference School for Women in Lubumbashi, the Congo. She and three other teachers give instruction in domestic skills, hygiene, language and religious training to native ministers' wives and others from villages and towns. Also, she is a devoted wife and mother of seven children.

In recognition of her work at the school and her interest in the future of African women, Mrs. Musunga was chosen by the World Federation of Methodist Women as its first intern to the Methodist office at the church center for the United Nations in New York City.

For the past year she has sat in on many meetings both at the U.N. and in various parts of the country. "The African people do not understand the words 'United Nations,'" Mrs. Musunga states. "It is my wish to go back and tell my people of all I have learned."

Confident Living:

Look on the Bright Side of Life

By NORMAN VINCENT

PEALE

One night years ago on a train between New York and Pittsburgh a friend came unexpectedly into the dining car and plumped into a chair across from me. "What are you eating?" he demanded. "Any good? I never did get a decent meal on a train."

This remark didn't check out, however. I never saw a man slow away so much food so fast. When he had finished eating everything in sight he asked, "Isn't this awful — a terrible train? We should have our heads examined for riding on these lumbering trucks," he growled.

"Oh, I wouldn't say that. Seems like a pretty good train to me. You might say it is a gleaming institution of shining steel speeding through the night, over mountains, rivers and plains, embodying romance in every detail of its operation. Just listen to that long, low, mournful whistle among the hills."

"Romance!" he snorted. "What do you mean, romance? There is no such thing in this lousy world."

"What is the matter with you, Fred?" I asked. "You didn't used to be so negative. How come these dark thoughts? Why so low and gloomy?"

"Oh, let's face it," he said. "I'm not up to par. I'm tired and nervous. No wonder I'm discouraged and gloomy, with all the aches and pains I've got about-half the time and..."

"Well," I grinned, "guess we had better go to work on you. When you sat down at this table you should have said, 'Gee, I'm glad to see you. I'm going to have a wonderful dinner!'"

"I'd have been dishonest."

"It must have been a good dinner the way you gobbled up every bit of it. Then you should have said, 'This is a wonderful train and a beautiful world and life is good and tomorrow is going to be a great day.'"

He stared at me. "Can't talk like that — sounds stupid, Polyanthus."

"Oh, yes, you can if you start reconditioning your mind. And, believe me, you'd better, or you're likely to become a sour, morose guy."

A pathetic look came into his eyes. I liked Fred, but he was struggling so hard with life — so unecessarily hard. I proceeded to give him quite a sales talk on the value of the cheerful attitude, reminding him of Samuel Johnson's statement that a bright attitude is worth a thousand pounds a year.

"In our money that would be about $2,000, Fred. Or on the basis of inflation, maybe $10,000. So you're losing money. Think and look on the hopeful and appreciative side," I said, "and things will go better and you will feel better. Better start practicing it right away."

Next morning when we arrived in Pittsburgh an overcast sky threatened rain. Leaving the train I heard the porter say to Fred, "Did you have a good night?"

"Not too good," was the reply. Then as I caught up with him he looked a bit sheepish, "Oh, hello, boy, isn't this a beautiful morning!" He was learning fast.

He really did follow through. His wife told me later that, to her astonishment, he practiced affirming happiness and health every morning. And it worked, too, for he did overcome his dullness and gloom.

He learned to live with vibrancy. He got over being dead while he lived.

Washington Notebook:

No Viet Duty Seen for 'Chuck'

By DAVE BURGIN

WASHINGTON (NEA) — A White House source says now that Marine Corps. Capt. Charles Robb, or Chuck, as Lyndon B. Johnson calls him, will not now go to Vietnam.

Before the couple announced their engagement, Robb had been (and still is officially) on orders to be shipped Vietnam, where he was scheduled to arrive sometime in February.

He and the President's daughter will be married in December.

But fate is fate. Robb has never said he wants to go to war, though he admits he was disappointed when he got the assignment a year ago as White House social aide. Of course, that was before he met Lynda Bird.

"It wouldn't be wise to send him there now," our source said. "Why make him

Replies to Comments on Attitudes of Youths

In reply to "F.A.M.'s" letter concerning the attitudes of today's young men, the young "men" he described make up a very small per cent of our total number. Most of us are taught as much patriotism today as the young men of 20 years ago. We have as much spirit of adventure as they did and we probably know more about the people of other countries.

F.A.M. should see the waiting list for the Navy and Air Force, Naval Reserve and Air Reserve. Then he would know how much patriotism, and spirit of adventure we have. I have several friends in service and I am proud to be going soon.

I would be in favor of changing the time of Halloween to start at 5 p.m. so the children could be in before dark. It's hard to see children at night and with masks on, it's hard for the children to see.

L. ETHEL POWLEY

In reference to changing the time for Halloweeners, with clocks being set back Sunday, it will still be light from 6 until 7 p.m. If we were to change the hours to 5 until 6 p.m., most mothers and fathers aren't home from work that early. Also, there is too much traffic at that time. If you don't want your children out alone after dark, go with them. I do, and I wouldn't miss it for anything.

MRS. DOUG COMBS

I am against all "Trick or Treat" time because all the fun has been taken out of Halloween. Every year we read of so many little ones getting hurt by people with a warped sense of humor. Churches, schools and other organizations or homes could have supervised parties and keep our children off the streets. We parents wouldn't have to worry about the larger children knocking the small ones down and taking their goodies from them.

'See No Need for Council of Governments'

I'm puzzled why any Oakland County village or city officials consider joining this so-called "council of governments." A community that is thrifty and operates an efficient and economical government would have to share with the wealthier communities. Why even consider any government unit that would require setting up another governing body, planners, department heads, typists, file clerks, bookkeepers, etc. We have the State units to handle any projects that cannot be handled by the County unit.

Curious quote department: "Adam should show a little more determination instead of sitting back and waiting for the courts to solve his problems. I've been a long-time advocate of his coming back to the United States."

So said Rep. John Conyers Jr., D-Mich., of Adam Clayton Powell, Conyers, a Negro, is one of the more respected younger members of Congress. It just seems odd one has to "advocate" Powell's return to his country, while his Harlem constituency goes unrepresented.

Now here's a remarkable congressman, a chap with a record which every member would do well to half match. Rep. Charles Bennett, D-Fla. hasn't missed a House vote of any kind since June 5, 1951. That's what you call representation.

However, Bennett didn't achieve this mark easily. Through those years he got to the floor despite two broken arms, three leg fractures, polio, two major Washington snowstorms, a missed plane and the likes of a dangler.

Last week, the record nearly was broken.

Reason: a stalled Capitol elevator.

GARY COTTER

Teen of Week Is Making a Big Splash

This week's top teen has made a big splash, both in the classroom and the swimming pool.

He's Pontiac Northern High School senior Gary Cotter who has an "A" minus grade average which does not dip when he dives into the pool on Northern's swimming team.

A member of the advisory board of the student council, Gary is secretary of the Varsity Club and was chairman of the halftime festivities during homecoming.

Next fall he hopes to attend the University of Notre Dame and study aeronautical engineering. Gary is the son of the Le-Land Cotters, 661 First.

"Every teen should form well-educated views and support them to the best of his ability whether they are conservative, liberal or radical," Cotter advised.

Hospital Offers New 'Lounge'

A new "lounge" service has been inaugurated at Pontiac General Hospital.

Object of the service is to make beds more readily available and also make it easier for the patient leaving the hospital.

Called a discharge unit, the new service consists primarily of a lounge area under the supervision of a nurse.

When a patient is ready to go home, but can not leave the hospital by himself or a bed is needed for an emergency before the discharge hour, the patient is taken to the special lounge to wait for his family or friends to come for him.

The newly decorated and comfortably furnished lounge is equipped with reading material, games and a television.

Medication or other treatment can be provided if the patient needs it.

In addition, the patient may be served his meal there if he is in the unit at meal time.

The new lounge is to be open from 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., according to hospital spokesmen.

Coeds From OU Will 'Beg' for Vietnamese Girl

Those "older kids" you may find trick or treating on Halloween in the Rochester and Pontiac areas may actually be pert college coeds in disguise.

A group of girls residing in Hill House dormitory at Oakland University will be out to raise money for support of a 7-year-old Vietnamese girl their residence hall has financially adopted.

The girls have also been baby sitting for faculty and staff members and sending the money to the girl in Vietnam.

OU students soliciting funds will wear identifying name tags and will carry college identification cards.

Congress Not Acting on Money Bills

U.S. Agencies Tighten Belts.

WASHINGTON (AP) Congressional inaction on some money bills has caused several federal agencies to begin economy drives which informed sources say could hurt various programs.

The spending hold-down has been ordered verbally in most agencies involved, but a written memo went out to employees of the Office of Economic Opportunity, the antipoverty agency.

Robert C. Cassidy, OEO's assistant director for management, wrote: "Pending passage of an appropriations resolution by Congress beyond Oct. 23, which marked the end of the last continuing resolution under which OEO had been operating, these restrictions apply:

"1. No grant, contract purchase order or interagency agreement shall be executed.

"2. Issuance of new travel authorization shall be curtailed to the maximum extent possible.

"3. No new employees will be placed on the roll except where firm commitments have been made prior to Oct. 23."

SIMILAR INSTRUCTIONS

Although there wasn't any formal memo, similar verbal instructions have been passed down through the ranks at the Agency for International Development AID, the Peace Corps and the Atomic Energy Commission.

Employees at four agencies have been working in effect without pay since Tuesday because spending authority by those agencies expired last Monday when Congress failed to pass another continuing resolution.

The resolution would permit the government agencies to keep functioning on a temporary basis until Congress votes them some money.

The House tied to the stopgap resolution a rider insisting that President Johnson slash his budget by $6 billion to $8 billion. But the Senate knocked it off, calling it back-passing on a job that is the duty of Congress.

The conferees deadlocked on the question at a meeting Thursday and an hour-long session Friday reportedly made little progress. Another meeting is scheduled for Tuesday.

'WORKING ON FAITH'

"Our employees are working on faith," said the AID spokesman. "The pay check they receive next Tuesday covers the period ending last Sunday. On Nov. 14—unless something happens in Congress—they'll receive a check for one day, Monday, the day the continuing resolution expired."

The antipoverty program appears to be the most seriously hurt by lack of authority to spend money.

"We have local community action agencies that will have to close down because we can't give them any money," said one source. "We would like to tell them to go and borrow the money from the bank but we can't do that because we theoretically can't obligate any money. We don't know what Congress is going to do."

At AID, work is continuing but no money is being spent. For instance, employees are evaluating loan agreements which are moving along the normal administration route. But when a contract reaches a point where it is ready for signature, it is being put aside until the agency receives money.

BID OPENINGS

Bid openings for construction projects are being held up at the Atomic Energy Commission. And the agency isn't inviting any new bids on projects other than those under the weapons program or involving the installation of radioactive waste storage tanks.

The foreign aid money bill, under which AID and the Peace Corps operate, and the controversial one to finance continuation of the antipoverty program are the main ones hanging.

A $4.6-billion public works bill, including funds for the AEC, needs only final Senate clearance before going to the President for signing. The only other bills pending are those covering the D.C. government and military construction.

The logjam of money bills cracked a bit more Friday when the Senate sent to the White House by voice vote—with only five members present—a $13.3-billion money bill to finance the Labor and the Health, Education and Welfare departments.

A $1-billion cut in funds below the administration's $3.2-billion foreign aid request was recommended by a House Appropriations subcommittee and will go to the full committee Nov. 6.

The word "wassall" originated when the 5th century princess Rowena went to King Vortigern bearing a cup of wine and saying "Waes Hael!" meaning good health.

25th Anniversary To Be Celebrated

A woman changed her mind back in 1942 — and Emmanuel Baptist Church was born.

It seems Dr. Tom Malone, then pastor of Marimont Baptist Church, and his wife were out calling on members of the congregation, and Mrs. Malone suggested they drive home a different way. So they did.

It was then they spied a small empty building known as the Castle Inn, 645 S. Telegraph.

Dr. Malone had dreams of building a church, school and hopefully a seminary.

The building was just about what he wanted, so the inn was purchased and this was the beginning of Emmanuel Baptist Church.

Dr. and Mrs. Malone will be honored at a tea from 3:30 to 5 p.m. in Fellowship Hall of the church tomorrow. The occasion will also mark the 25th anniversary of the church.

A special musical program consisting of guest quartets will precede the tea at 2 p.m.

The City of Pontiac honored Dr. Malone with a citation Tuesday evening commemorating his work in the religious field in Pontiac.

SEATS 1,200

Emmanuel Baptist Church has been enlarged to seat 1,200 in the sanctuary, and a Christian Education Building completed. It has a membership of more than 3,900 persons with 2,200 enrolled in the Sunday School.

DR. TOM MALONE

MRS. TOM MALONE

The average attendance each Sunday is near 1,500. The high attendance was 2,300.

There are 16 busses which pick up children and adults who need transportation to Sunday School and church services. The service is free to anyone who would like to attend.

The church has a choir of over 100 voices under the direction of Mrs. Malone who also directs the orchestra.

Mrs. Malone heads the music department of Midwestern Baptist College — an outgrowth of Emmanuel Church and founded by her husband.

FOUNDERS SCHOOL

Dr. Malone is founder of Emmanuel Christian School now in its 18th year and Midwestern College in its 14th year, both located at 825 Golf Drive.

A dormitory to house seminary students is under construction near the school and facing the Pontiac Golf Course.

Pastor Malone regularly participates in the weekly calling program which he states is one of the main factors in the growth of Emmanuel Baptist Church.

COURSE IN FLYING

Besides regular courses in Midwestern College, Dr. Malone offers a course in flying. Young men studying for the ministry and especially those planning to become missionaries are glad for the training.

Dr. Malone said he became a Christian at the age of 19 in a small country church in north Alabama.

A graduate of Bob Jones University and Baptist Bible Seminary, he has been preaching for 29 years. He is editor of a bimonthly Christian publication entitled "Baptist Vision" with a subscription list of 10,000.

For many years he has a daily broadcast over WCAR and still broadcasts every Sunday from the auditorium of Emmanuel Church.

Upon graduation from college, Dr. Malone went into the field of evangelism until he became pastor of the Methodist Church in Leonard in 1938. He left this church to serve as pastor of Marimont Baptist Church in 1939, then took up his present pastorate in 1942.

Besides serving the local community, Emmanuel Baptist Church supports eight missionary families.

What are future plans? Not on paper yet but in the thinking stage are a library, another dormitory and Sunday School building.

Protestants Seeking Brotherhood of Man

Ever since Martin Luther nailed his 95 theses on the door of Castle Church in Wittenburg, Germany on Oct. 31, 1517, the Protestant church has celebrated Reformation Day.

Each of these theses was a statement against the sale of indulgences by the Roman Catholic Church. Posting them on the door of the church was Luther's way of inviting scholars to debate these propositions with him.

Since the debates and controversies that followed hastened the forming of the Protestant Church, Martin Luther is looked upon as the major reformer, and Protestant beginnings date from the year 1517.

And now Detroit — Pontiac area Protestant churches are protesting again — this time against the separation of the church.

Here is the 1967 declaration: • We protest — The closed mind of man that is forever building and repairing fences, separating protestants into denominations, dividing Christians into Catholics, Orthodox and Protestants, separating Christians from Jews from Moslems — from God.

• We affirm — That Faith in God is the power which enables man to tear down artificial barriers, to make the Church an instrument for good and to convert man's moral responsibility into action.

• We seek — The spiritual renewal and rededication of all men to the concerns of Brotherhood, Justice and Peace.

The declaration was prepared by the Metropolitan Detroit Council of Churches.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN The congregation of First Presbyterian Church will observe the anniversary of the Reformation as Pastor Galen E. Hershey preaches on "The Reformation — Its Glory, Tragedy and Future."

Leaders for the 6:30 p.m. meeting of Senior High Fellowship are Mike Jercher, Karen Samiell, Carol Hoffman and Jim Humphries.

A delegation of women will attend Detroit Presbyterian Society in Lakeshore Church, Grosse Pointe to hear policy recommendations stated at the 1967 national session of women at Purdue.

Forty members of Senior Fellowship will leave on a chartered bus tour to Frankmouth Thursday.

Rev. Clyde E. Smith will preach on "The Faith of a Protestant" at Sunday morning worship in First Methodist Church tomorrow as the congregation observes Reformation Sunday.

A family night cooperative supper is scheduled for 6 p.m. in Fellowship Hall by the commission of social concerns.

Following supper a film entitled "A World On Fire" will be shown. Everyone is welcome, Pastor Smith said.

Boy Scouts Round Table is slated for 7:30 p.m. Thursday. World Community Day sponsored by Church Women United will be Friday with registration at 9:30 a.m.

In recognition of Reformation Sunday the Chancel Choir of Auburn Heights United Presbyterian Church will sing "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God" at 11 a.m. worship.

Elder Frank Pretznaw will present layman's view of Stewardship Sunday.

The Survey of the Bible Class will continue at 7 p.m.

Senior High Fellowship will continue at 6 p.m. with Margaret Carpenter of the Evangelical Teacher Training Association, the instructor.

ORCHARD LAKE The Rev. Edward S. Auchard will speak on "The Work of the Word" at the 9 and 11 a.m. services tomorrow in Orchard Lake Community Church, Presbyterian.

Sunday evening Bible Class stage a Halloween party at the home of Douglas Cayonova tonight. There will be no meeting tomorrow night.

Bible Way Church Celebrates Sunday

Women of the Bible Way Missionary Baptist Church will observe their first Women's Day services tomorrow.

Mrs. Mae B. Thompson will be the speaker for the 11 a.m. worship hour. Mrs. Alvin Hawkins, wife of the pastor of Friendship Baptist Church, will bring the message for the 3 p.m. program.

Guests for inspirational singing will be Pontiac Spirituals, Mrs. Robbie White and James Herring. Mrs. James Herring is chairman of the day.

Installation of Pastor Set for Sunday

The first pastor and officers of the newly founded St. Stephen's Baptist Church will be installed at the 3 p.m. service tomorrow in Franklin Elementary School, 661 Franklin Road, where services are presently held.

The Rev. Ezekiel Wright was called as pastor of the congregation. The sponsoring church is Columbia Avenue Baptist Church under the leadership of the Rev. E. Clay Polk.

More than 70 persons joined as charter members.

Speaker for the ceremony will be the Rev. Thomas H. Holt, pastor of Greater Mt. Calvary Baptist Church.

Other services are Sunday School at 9:35 a.m.; and worship at 10:45 a.m.

Members of the new St. Stephen's Church met with the Rev. Mr. Polk, the Rev. Vernon Wickliffe, area missionary; and the Rev. W. T. Moore of the Baptist State Convention in planning the church.

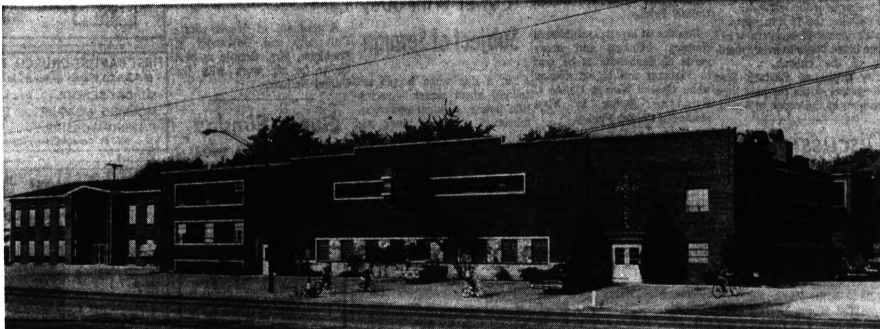

The congregation is affiliated with the Oakland County Baptist Association and Southern Baptist Convention.

HEADED FOR HOME—Leaving Emmanuel Christian School after a day of fun and study are boys and girls of grade and senior high school. A few may be attending Midwestern College, all part of Emmanuel Baptist Church, and founded by the church pastor, Dr. Tom Malone. The school is located at 825 Golf Drive, the church at 645 S. Telegraph. Young people will participate in the tea honoring Dr. and Mrs. Malone Sunday.

Convention at Kettering

Three-Day Sessions
Stress Bible Study

"In this age of pill takers, thrill seekers and hippies, teenage members of Jehovah's Witnesses set their moral standards high and associate with others who base their hopes for the future on Bible promises," said Edward C. Thornton when he spoke at the three-day convention which opened yesterday.

When asked "Why Bible training?" Thornton answered "So that teenagers be given hope, a reason for living, a reason for remaining moral."

"Teen-age witnesses have the goal of becoming ministers devoting more than 100 hours a month to the house-to-house preaching. So their training involves home study of the Bible. It also includes participating in the congregation's weekly ministry school and other meetings."

"If parents then set the right examples and devote their lives to doing God's will, teen-agers willingly share in God's service."

Harvest Festival Honors the Reids

The Harvest Home Festival at Newham AME Church tomorrow will honor the Rev. A. N. Reid and family. Gifts may be left in the all purpose room.

According to Mrs. Gertrude Gordon, the Stewardess Board is in charge of the festival. Following the 11 a.m. worship hour teams of workers will make home visits to every member of the church.

The Order of Eastern Star will sponsor a tea for long time members of the order at 5 p.m.

Discussion on Vietnam Scheduled

The New Temple of Bloomfield Hills will sponsor an evening of discussion concerning Vietnam with Mark Ethridge Jr., editor of the Detroit Free Press on Nov. 7 in Birmingham Unitarian Church, Woodward at Lone Pine, Bloomfield Hills. The time is 8 p.m.

The program is the first in the series of community education evenings planned by the temple congregation. Rose Vainstein is general chairman. Ethridge has just returned from Vietnam where he spent several weeks touring the war-torn areas speaking to men and women in all walks of life.

Collect Clothing for Vietnam

The worldwide lack of enough food and clothing for two-thirds of the world's people is a continuing concern of church women everywhere.

This fundamental problem will be projected on a global scale during the nationwide 1967 observance of annual World Community Day by Church Women United Friday.

Bundles of layettes, children's clothing, blankets and many yards of flannelette to be sent to Vietnam will be on display when Church Women United of Pontiac gather in First Methodist Church Friday.

Registration is scheduled for 9:30 a.m. with the program following at 10. "Who Shall Separate Us" is the theme.

Those participating include Mrs. Adolph Hornblad and Mrs. Stanley Kipp, leaders; Mrs. Fred Bohman, Mrs. James Covert and Margaret Steward, speakers; and Mrs. T. Warren Fowler, Mrs. Harry Rice, Mrs. Fred Manes, Mrs. L. C. Clack and Mrs. Roy C. Cummings, ushers.

Mrs. LaVon Ryden, soloist, will be accompanied by Mrs. Claude Kimler.

Halloween Funds Set for UNICEF

Young people of St. Paul's Methodist Church, Rochester will go Trick or Treating for the United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund with millions of other young Americans in the UNICEF Halloween program tomorrow from 3 to 6 p.m.

Official collections cartons will identify the trick or treaters. Shaped like half pint milk containers, they will show the emblem of a mother and child on an orange background.

Sponsored by the Rochester Ministerial Association, the UNICEF is endorsed by civic, religious and educational leaders. Youth of St. Paul are sponsoring a spaghetti dinner Thursday. Waiters and waitresses will be in costume of old Italy. Italian music will be played. The dinner open to the public is scheduled from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m.

To Ordain Minister, Deacon

The Rev. Stanley R. Stefancic, new assistant minister of Birmingham Unitarian Church, Woodward and Loos Pine, Bloomfield Hills, will be ordained according to Unitarian practice by the congregation under the leadership of Paul Reid, president of the church council at 8 p.m. tomorrow.

Dr. James L. Adams, professor of social ethics at Harvard Divinity School, will preach the sermon.

Stefancic, a graduate of Harvard Divinity School, did graduate work toward his doctorate degree at Southern Methodist University.

The Rev. and Mrs. Stefancic make their home at 1027 Forest, Birmingham.

Special music will include the Jack Breakensha Quintet playing "Noosphere I," a new work by Richard Feliciano for alto flute and electronic tape featuring Marilyn Jones, choir director, as flutist.

At 4 p.m. tomorrow Dr. Adams will lead a colloquial at the church on "Max Weber and the Protestant Ethic."

ST. PHILIP'S EPISCOPAL ROCHESTER
 Herbert Miller, manager of Rochester Detroit Edison office, will be ordained deacon in St. Philip's Episcopal Church at 7:30 Wednesday evening. A reception will follow in the undercroft.

The Rt. Rev. Archie H. Crowley, suffragan bishop of the Episcopal diocese of Michigan, will officiate.

Also participating in the service will be the Rev. Wilbur R. Schutze, rector of St. Philip's, who will present Mr. Miller.

The preacher will be the Rev. Canon Allen L. Ramsey, executive secretary of the diocese.

The Rev. Victor J. Lovett will serve as liturgist.

Voice Major

Accepts Choir Call

Serwind Netzler, a senior voice major at Oakland University and new choir master of Bethany Baptist Church, will conduct the Bethany Choir at the arrangement of Martin Luther's "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God" at 11 a.m. Sunday.

Netzler accompanied by Mrs. Marshall Rice will sing "How Great Thou Art," an old Swedish folk hymn by Stuart Hine.

A member of Oakland Singers and Oakland University Chorus, Netzler has been soloist with both groups. He was on the charter staff of the Meadow Brook School of Music in the summer of 1965, as student coordinator of programs.

In the summers of 1965 and 1966 he was escort and liaison for guest stars of the Meadow Brook Music Festival. The highlight of that position was escorting, by private plane, Van Cliburn to Milwaukee, Wis. for a haircut.

Netzler worked on the Opera Overture in 1965 as assistant stage manager, and with the Meadow Brook Theater at Oakland University since its inception.

While with the theater Guild he starred in Shakespeare's "Midsummer Night's Dream" and Pinter's "Birthday Party."

In 1966 Netzler appeared in a starring role and later worked as a script consultant with Will-O-Way Apprentice Theater.

He is the son of the late Capt. Sixten Netzler. His mother Mrs. Reba Netzler, former executive director of Pontiac YWCA, is a psychiatric social worker in the Pontiac State Hospital.

Revival Starts

Revival meetings will begin tomorrow at Calvary Missionary Church, 1361 Giddings, with the Rev. Richard Myers, the evangelist. Services are at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. on Sunday, and at 7:30 each evening of the week.

To Celebrate

The Bar Mitzvah of David F. Weiman will be celebrated in the Ida Kovinsky Chapel of Temple Beth Jacob at 8:30 p.m. Friday. David is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Weiman.

"THE CHURCH ON THE MARCH"

Queen Juliana of the Netherlands plays with her six-month-old grandson, Prince Willem Alexander, at the palace in the Hague. The prince, first male heir to the Dutch throne in 116 years, is the son of Crown Princess Beatrix. This official court picture was taken by the child's father, Prince Claus.

Southern Neighbors Pay Visit to Oakland Community College

At first, the seven women from South and Central America were disappointed in their visit to Michigan. It wasn't knowing.

With two interpreters from the state department, these representatives of volunteer women's organizations and government institutions with a special interest in education are on a 45-day jaunt.

Friday afternoon, they were at Oakland Community College.

Their visit is under the auspices of the Overseas Educational Fund with the assistance of the League of Women Voters of the United States.

"They're charming, simply charming," said Mrs. Richard Colegrove, public relations director for the League of Women Voters of Michigan, their official hostess and chauffeur for the day. Mrs. Colegrove, assisted by the International Institute of Detroit, was also accompanied by Mrs. George Malone of the Birmingham league.

"They want to see everything from stem to stern."

SEE EVERYTHING

Leaving no stone unturned, they covered everything at OCC from educational programs to the source of funds, instructor qualifications, cultural programs available and community affairs. OCC's involvement with activities outside the campus seemed to make the biggest impact on the women.

"I wish to congratulate the school on its one-to-one teaching program and ability to reach out to the community," said the woman from Ecuador.

The National Council of Women's representative from Guatemala likewise agreed. (All this through the interpreter, of course.)

Several noted that as the United States' educational philosophy is parallel to their own country's, programs such as those at OCC might be useful in their homeland.

While they complete their stay in Michigan, which ends Tuesday, the group will tour Detroit's library, meet with Mayor Cavanaugh's Committee on Human Resources, attend a local board of education meeting in Oak Park and take in Birmingham's Halloween parade.

Before they left Oakland County, the snow was falling thickly.

Place Settings Suit A "Lefty" Just Perfectly

By ELIZABETH L. POST

I received so many letters from irate left-handers regarding place settings that I can't resist printing the following one giving the opposite point of view. Thanks, Mrs. McGrew.

Dear Mrs. Post: I was one of three left-handed children in our family. It never occurred to us as we set the table to change the standard place setting. I find the place settings better suited to my needs than to a right-handed person's.

The fork is on the left where I use it; the knife on the right, where I need it except for spreading; the spoon is near the cup. What more could a left-handed person need? — Laura McGrew

Dear Mrs. Post: Forty years ago a mole on my waistline prevented me, temporarily, from wearing panties. I found this so comfortable that I have gone pantless ever since. Those of my friends who know, consider it improper. If not downright immoral, for a lady to go out in public sans underwear. What say you? Is the wearing of undergarments a question of propriety or a matter of personal preference?

— M. B. B.

Dear Mrs. B.: There is no guarantee that you're not going to fall down or your skirts aren't going to blow up, and how will you look then in your "pantless" state?

I've never considered the choice of underwear very much a question of etiquette, but modesty definitely is a part of good manners, and if you wear skirts of a length considered fashionable today, you are a genius if you can be sure that your pantlessness won't be evident.

Dear Mrs. Post: Should one tip a drug-prescription delivery boy? I have never heard pro or con on that subject. — Phil

DEAR PHIL: Since a drug store delivery boy is not a "regular" such as a newspaper boy who receives a substantial tip at Christmas — or sometimes more often — it is thoughtful to tip him 25 cents when he delivers your drugs.

Lynda Bird's Bridal Shower Goes On and On

NEW YORK — Lynda Bird Johnson was given some rare books, assorted recipes and a collection of kitchen utensils Friday night at a bridal shower that lasted nearly eight hours.

The affair for Lynda, who will marry Marine Corps Capt. Charles Robb in a White House ceremony Dec. 9, started out with the traditional hen party.

MALES ARRIVE

The males, among them her fiancé, began arriving two hours later and the party continued until 1:30 a.m.

Over the course of the evening, said host John F. Fleming, a book collector, there were 70 or 80 guests who dropped by his 14-room, 10th floor apartment on East 57th Street. It was all "gay, happy and magnificent," he said.

Among the gifts was a "quite valuable" copy of A. A. Milne's children's classic, "Now We Are Six," with the original drawings, said Fleming.

RECIPES FOR LYNDIA

Less rare but perhaps more practical was the collection of recipes assembled by Lynda's co-workers at McCall's magazine. Lynda, 32, has told reporters she is "not very domestic" but intends to learn to cook.

Fleming said that each of the McCall's girls also "gave Lynda a kitchen utensil used on one of the recipes."

Food for the evening included ham, turkey, and assorted salads topped off with a 10-inch-high cake. On the white icing was the message in pink: "To Lynda and Chuck."

Fleming said he met Lynda "about two years ago at the University of Texas chancellor's office" and they "sort of hit it off because we were both interested in books."

Among the guests were Arthur A. Houghton Jr., also a noted book collector and his wife, Edwin Weisel, Democratic National committeeman, and his wife; Mrs. Mary Lasker, the philanthropist, and the girls from McCall's.

Maurice Chevalier Tells of Plans for 'Retiring' After Year's Performance

NEW YORK (AP) — Taking the mike, chairman of the April-in-Paris Ball Cornelia Otis Skinner, smiling, told a chattering-clattering crowd of 1,000 diners to "shut up." You simply talk like mad. I'm infuriated.

Then guest of honor Maurice Chevalier, after telling how grateful he is to Americans, said he would retire after a year of one-night stands.

And A & P her Huntington Hartford was wistfully hoping aloud that his estranged wife, Diane, whom he accompanied to the charity benefit, would reconcile with him.

Real Friends Avoid Irritating Topics; This Individual Does the Opposite

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: A few years ago, a man who was employed in our retail business left us to open up his own shop

No particular ill will in competition with us was involved here, but naturally we were not overjoyed, as we felt we had taught him the business. Our business continues to do well, and this man has done very well, also.

A friend of ours is constantly pointing out our competitor's ads in the newspapers, and he seems to delight in discussing how "well" this man is doing. We are bewildered and somewhat hurt. Are we too touchy? Or is such talk in poor taste? We surely wouldn't run down a competitor, but we find it hard to applaud his success considering the background. How should this be handled?

DEAR BEWILDERED: A real "friend" avoids subjects that could be irritating. To deliberately bring up a subject that stings is mischievous. The Chinese put it this way, "Never speak of a rope in the home of one whose relative has been hanged." If I were you, I'd demote that "friend" to a nodding acquaintance.

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I recently were invited to a wedding. The invitation was called in by telephone. Would you call this a legitimate invasion? It seems to be a hurry-up sort of affair.

DEAR WONDERING: In my book, ANY invitation that is sincere is legitimate. Maybe it is a "hurry-up" sort of wedding.

DEAR ABBY: Am I being silly and childish, or is my husband at fault?

There is this young woman in our crowd who is peppy and cute and is always playing up to men. At a party, she's the first to say, "Let's sit by somebody else's husband." Or when we get into a car, she'll plunk herself down next to somebody else's husband, and his wife has to pair up with hers.

Now, Abby, I want to sit by my own husband, and I don't like all this swishing around.

Once when my husband and I were dancing together, this woman danced by with her husband and tried to change partners. I said, "No this is OUR song." We requested it. "My husband got angry with me and said I was rude. We have three children and a good marriage. Abby, and I don't want to take any chances with it."

If I am wrong, please tell me. If I am right, I need some support.

DEAR LIKES: The switcheroo game your cute and peppy friend is playing can lead to "spiltville." Hang on to your own husband. I'm with you all the way. Troubled? Write to Abby, in care of The Pontiac Press, Dept. E-4006, P.O. Box 9, Pontiac, Mich. 48066. For a personal reply, include a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

A half century of style change dramatically illustrates the escalation that has occurred in the war to set ladies' hemlines. Mrs. Pam Yates, (left) was visiting the Kansas City Museum when a photographer discovered her studying the floor length costume of the 1910 era on the mannequin (right).

State WNFGA Wins Big Award

The National Magazine Scholarship, an award of the National Woman's Farm and Garden Association, has been given this year to the Michigan Division, WNFGA, for its outstanding work in the field of education.

Michigan Division awards 40 scholarships annually to students of journalism, horticulture, landscape architecture, and other fields directly or indirectly related to farm and garden interests.

It also provides more than 60 conservation scholarships for teachers.

These each send a Michigan teacher to the Conservation Department's headquarters at Higgins Lake for a week's intensive training in all aspects of the state conservation program.

This knowledge, hopefully, is then incorporated into general classroom work. Announcement of the award was made at the recent fall council meeting of the Michigan Division at Oakland Hills Country Club.

Your Friendship Helps

The "little things in life" mean so much to children who are without parents, and have been neglected most of their young life.

Men and women, or even husband-wife teams, are needed as friend-counselors for these youngsters in a local children's institution.

In giving "the little things in life" you will be repaid in a great big way. Contact the Oakland County Volunteer Bureau in Birmingham.

Presents Arrive, Large and Small for Crowning

TEHRAN, Iran — The Emir of Kuwait sent the Shah of Iran and Empress Farah the biggest gift for their coronation and Indian Prime Minister Indira Gandhi sent the smallest—but both were horses.

A room in the Sqaadabad Summer Palace, glittered like a treasure museum today as the Shah inspected 351 of the 411 gifts that have arrived, from around the world. Foreign diplomats and their wives—some of whom had wrapped the presents—watched and accepted the royal thanks.

The rest still were being unpacked, and Argentina's was lost at fogbound London airport.

The ruler of Kuwait sent two live black Arabian stallions and Mrs. Gandhi sent a tiny gold model of a horse studded with rubies and diamonds. The second biggest present was a 3½-foot porcelain vase with portraits of the royal family from President Nikola Podgorny of the Soviet Union.

Other gifts ranged from a stamp album from U.N. Secretary-General U Thant to a polar bear rug from Prime Minister Lester Pearson, Mrs. Pearson and the Canadian government.

Britain's Queen Elizabeth II sent a gold-plated fruit basket and President and Mrs. Johnson gave a map case and a vermeil bowl inscribed with the U.S. eagle and the Iranian lion and sun.

Frankly faked but in the spirit of things, this picture depicts the mood of the Nov. 10 harvest dinner being planned by the Women's Guild and Ushers' Club of Grace Lutheran Church. From left are Mrs. Emery Mitchell of Baldwin Avenue, Pontiac Township, Robert Winkelman of Oregon Street and Mrs. Fred Zittel of Lakeward Lane. In connection with the 5 p.m. dinner, a bazaar will begin at 1 p.m. Reservations should be in before Nov. 7. Tickets are available through any member and at the church office.

Study Faster—6

Survey Reading Isolates Ideas

(EDITOR'S NOTE — This is the sixth article in a 13-part series designed to help students study faster and learn more.)

BY THE READING LABORATORY

After you've summarized the textbook, you're ready to start on the first chapter. Begin with a rapid survey of the main ideas in the chapter: look at the maps and graphs; read the picture captions; and read the largest size bold type. Even if you don't take you more than 5 or 10 minutes to survey for the main idea.

Stop for a minute after the first survey and try to place the chapter into the context of the book as a whole. Ask yourself how important the chapter is, what effects the material will have on the development of subsequent chapters.

Then survey again. Cover all of the bold print this time. You will begin to get a stronger grasp of the main ideas; it'll only take another couple of minutes. And then survey again, just reading the first sentences of each paragraph. You'll start to pick up the secondary ideas.

After your third survey, skim through the entire text very rapidly. Don't pay much attention to details; just get a stronger picture of the subordinate thought flows. Be sure you place them in the context of the main ideas.

One more skimming is all that's necessary. This time make a light pencil mark next to important details that may require memorization before an exam.

MAZE OF FACTS

And that's all there is to it. Notice, you should never read through every word of the chapter from beginning to end. Chances are, that kind of reading will take a long time and get you confused; you'll end up with a maze of facts and no idea what the entire chapter is about.

But by surveying the chapter several times, digging a little deeper each time, you'll always get a clear picture of everything in the chapter.

The best way to be sure you are reading actively is to develop yourself into a questioner. Before you start, quiz yourself: What do you think you know about the topic? What do you expect this chapter to add to your knowledge?

During your first survey, try to answer the questions, Who? What? Where? When? Why? How? On the second survey, ask the same questions, but answer the ones you didn't get the first time around.

READY FOR DETAILS

By your third chapter survey, you should have particular questions on the chapter to be answered. During the rapid reading of the entire text, turn the first sentence of each paragraph into a question — just invert it — and answer it from the body of the paragraph.

And then you're ready for the details. Ask yourself which details can you figure out for yourself. Which ones need to be memorized?

It's not really important which questions you ask. (Some students find role-playing very effective. If you were the Duke of Wellington, how would you attack Napoleon?) But it is important that you ask questions, that you're active, involved and thinking.

Junior Editors Quiz on TRAINS

QUESTION: What is the caboose of a freight train used for?

ANSWER: We've all probably seen the little red caboose hooked on behind a long freight train and thought how cozy it must be inside.

It is cozy inside, but more important, it's a place where work is done. A freight train must make long distance hauls, in all kinds of weather.

This requires quite a crew—the engineer, the fireman for manning the engine, various brakemen as well as the conductor who is responsible for the safe delivery of the freight cars and their contents.

The crew must sleep somewhere; their meals must be cooked and served. The caboose serves as the crew's living quarters, in addition to functioning as the conductor's office. On top of the caboose is a raised area with windows, which is used as a lookout. A two-way radio connects the watchman in the lookout with the engineer ahead.

State ACLU Joins NMU Firing Protest

MARQUETTE (AP) — The Michigan chapter of the American Civil Liberties Union has joined a growing protest against the firing of a Northern Michigan University history professor.

The dismissal of Dr. Robert McClellan "is one of the most flagrant violations of due process and academic freedom that has ever come to our attention," said ACLU Executive Director Ernest Mazey in Detroit.

Mazey said he was not certain "how the ACLU will intervene, but we definitely will get involved."

A week of demonstrations featuring burnings in effigy, public parades and student and faculty boycott of classes is in the offing at the university.

A source close to protesting faculty members said about half the university's 275 faculty members would resign unless Dr. Robert McClellan is rehired.

Nearly 3,000 students held an all-night protest meeting in support of McClellan Thursday night. NMU has an enrollment of about 7,000.

FACULTY MEETING

Faculty members, meanwhile, held a meeting of their own and decided to vote by secret ballot on a motion of "no confidence" in the university's administration and board of control.

McClellan is charged by the university with criticizing policies and curriculum and recommending that students seek dormitory fee refunds because the dorms allegedly were not completed in time.

The protest follows on the heels of a decision by the board of control to reaffirm retired university President Edgar Harden's decision to fire McClellan.

Ex-POW Unit Ousts Actor

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Because of complaints from the ex-prisoner of War Association of Portland about his television role, actor Werner Klemperer will not lead the city's Fairy Tale Parade on Thanksgiving.

Klemperer, originally scheduled to head the event, portrays a Nazi POW camp commandant on the series "Hogan's Heroes." The local Retail Trade Bureau which runs the parade said Friday it will get someone else.

In real life, Klemperer was a refugee from Nazi Germany.

Director of D. E. PURSLEY FUNERAL HOME

C. Byron Gilbert, Director

Since coming to Pontiac in 1961 as its Director, I have tried to maintain the same high caliber of service that has made the D. E. Pursley Funeral Home the friendliest and most thoughtful funeral home possible.

I have been active in fraternal organizations and church affairs and have taken an active interest in civic activities.

I now feel honored and privileged to add my name to this distinguished funeral home.

The D. E. Pursley Funeral Home, on and after November 1, 1967 will be known as the Pursley-Gilbert Funeral Home.

State to Review Pay Rates

LANSING (AP) — The State Civil Service Commission will hear from five state departments and eight employ groups Monday at a hearing designed to aid in determining pay rates for some 41,000 state classified workers.

The commission will use testimony, along with a current comparison of state pay rates in other public and private employers, in arriving at staff pay recommendations.

After determining the recommendations, probably in November, the commission will hold another hearing to get reaction from interested parties.

The commission then makes its final determination, usually in early December.

FACTS ABOUT PHARMACY
by HOWARD L. DELL
Your Neighborhood Pharmacist

IN ONLY 17 YEARS...
It's a fact: Seven out of every 10 prescriptions today are for drugs that were not even known 17 years ago. How come? Research is the answer. What of the future? The pharmaceutical industry this year will invest over $250 million in more research. That's nine times as much as was invested in 1950. And 98% of drug industry research is industry-financed... only 2% is government-financed. Quite a record! Quite a success!

Walled Lake Leaves I-L Foes Frustrated

Vikings Claim Another Title on 7-6 Victory

By JERE CRAIG

Frustrating... there's no other way to describe the feelings of Walled Lake's Inter-Lakes League rivals in discussing the Vikings' ninth straight finish atop the circuit's football standings.

Walled Lake clinched the grid title with a 7-6 triumph in the mud and mire of the Waterford Township gridiron last night.

The victory completed the fifth straight unbeaten league campaign for the Vikings and was their 22nd in a row in the I-L after losing to Farmington in 1962.

But this was perhaps the most frustrating title season by the perennial grid power. Three of its four league wins were one-point victories, and the other was a six-point conquest last week with 40 seconds remaining in the game.

Last night's win was another come-from-behind effort by the champions — who trailed in all four of their I-L outings this season.

Waterford took a 6-0 lead on the state's seventh-ranked Class A eleven (in the weekly Associated Press prep poll) by driving 99 yards in eight plays after halting the Vikings in four plays during a first-and-goal situation at the WTHS' three-yard line.

END ZONE GAMBLE

Skipper quarterback Greg Potter gambled with a third down pass from his end zone and hit Steve Lohff on a 77-yard play that carried to the Walled Lake 18.

After a first-down run by Bruce Saffron to the eight, Potter completed the drive by plunging over from two inches out. But Saffron's conversion try sailed wide of the uprights.

Walled Lake fought back by moving to the Skippers' 15 only to see Len Lovelless, who played a strong defensive game for the home team, intercept Dan Rafferty's pass at the three.

The Vikings returned for the second half and regained control of the game the second time they had the football. Starting at their own 47, they moved 53 yards in five plays plus a 15-yard roughing penalty that moved the ball to the Waterford 23.

On the initial play after the penalty, Rafferty found star halfback Greg Fogle alone on the left side and he darted over with the tying touchdown.

Rafferty then faked the dive play nicely to Fogle and romped untouched around the left side for the decisive PAT.

As the third quarter ended, the Skippers' Glen Bradsher pounced on a Walled Lake fumble at the visitors' 17. On two quick rushes, Saffron bulled his way to the two. Potter plunged the ball to within six inches of the final stripe.

But then the Skippers elected to try power slants with Steve Golt to the right side, and Vikings' Jim Thomas and Gary Ferguson hit the halfback for losses both times. The threat died at the Walled Lake three.

With Rafferty hitting George Emanuel expertly for key passing yardage, the winners used up much of the remaining time only to lose the ball again on a fumble.

But Pat Pilto's second interception of the contest killed Waterford's final desperation bid.

The weather didn't help Farmington's afternoon Homecoming festivities as Mt. Clemens (5-0-1) plowed to a 13-0 conquest of the Falcons (1-5-1).

After a blocked punt, Mount Clemens' John Stewart ran 10 yards in the opening period and Paul Duda added the PAT. In the last session, Sherrod Goudelock recovered a fumble in the end zone to conclude the scoring.

Scoreless Game Helps Lakers

Ground Lost by Clarkston in W-O Race

By FLETCHER SPEARS

Ties are just as good — well, almost as good — as victories at this stage of the football season for the Lakers of West Bloomfield.

The Lakers and Clarkston battled to a 0-0 standoff last night which put West Bloomfield within one game of the Wayne-Oakland League championship.

"We won, we won," were the shouts from the cold and wet West Bloomfield crowd after the final gun sounded.

And they're right in a way. The tie left the Lakers with a 5-0-1 record in league play and they can bag the title next week with a victory over Bloomfield Hills Andover.

Actually, the Lakers won by not losing. That's backyard logic and there's more. Clarkston, with a 4-1-1 mark, actually lost by avoiding defeat. The Wolves lost in that they didn't win. Get it?

CLARKSTON MEETS MILFORD

At any rate, the Lakers are only a game away from the championship, while Clarkston must get past Milford next week and hope that Andover upsets the Lakers just to earn a tie for the title.

Over-all, the Lakers and Clarkston own a 5-1-1 mark. Last night's score indicates a defensive struggle, but it was just the opposite.

The Lakers piled up 311 yards total offense, while the Wolves came up with 247, most of it in the second half when they gained the upper hand.

The Lakers, who went into the game with a scoring average of almost 29 points a game, blew four chances to put the contest away in the first half.

End Tim Brennan took the opening kickoff and ran it to the Clarkston 45, and with Robin Brennan directing the attack, the Lakers moved quickly to a first down at the Wolves seven-yard stripe.

FUMBLE HURTS

On first down at the seven, Robin Brennan bobbled the slippery ball and the Wolves recovered at the six.

After forcing a Clarkston punt, the Lakers took over at their foes' 42 and marched to the nine before losing the ball on downs. In the second period, they drove to the 14 and 11 yard lines before giving up the ball.

Clarkston, unable to get inside the West Bloomfield 45 in the first half, came to life and moved to the Lakers' 16 in the third before losing the ball on downs, and the Wolves had the best opportunity to score at the five-minute mark of the final period.

With quarterback Rich Johnson guiding the team, and halfback Steve Parker totting the ball, the Wolves moved from their own 16 for a first down at the Lakers' nine-yard line, but they managed to move the ball only to the five in four downs and the Lakers took over.

Despite the conditions, Brennan hit on five of 11 passes for 128 yards and Johnson connected on six of nine for 63 yards.

Fullback Rodney Arendsen was the workhorse for the Lakers. He carried the ball 15 times for 106 yards.

Parker did a similar job for the Wolves. He picked up 117 yards in 11 trips.

Milford Blanks Foe; Andover Rolls, 26-7

Milford's prospects for a share of the Wayne-Oakland League championship dimmed Friday night despite the Redskins' 19-0 romp past Northville.

The winners erupted for three touchdowns in the first half with Bob McFarland regaining the county prep scoring lead on two six-pointers and a PAT run.

But pacesetter West Bloomfield (5-0-1) managed a tie in its showdown with Clarkston (4-1-1) and hung onto the lead. Milford did move past the Wolves into second place at 5-1-0.

In the other W-O games, dethroned defending champ Bloomfield Hills Andover smashed Brighton, 26-7, and Holly grabbed a 13-6 victory at Livonia Clarenceville.

PRESSURE

The Redskins kept the pressure on and McFarland got loose on a 46-yard scoring dash to climax the scoring just before the intermission. Northville reached the Milford 20 in the second half for its only threat.

At Brighton, Andover's Barons also had a big first half. Greg Roche, returning after a lung injury three games ago, scored on a one-yard run.

Still in the first period, guard Bruce Godfrey picked off a Brighton pass and ran 18 yards. Roche's PAT made it 14-0.

Kevin Rossworn then cut the deficit to 14-7 on a one-yard run, but Roche returned the kickoff 85 yards to get back six of the points. The short senior capped the scoring with another one-yard plunge for the lone second-half tally.

'KNEE DEEP' IN MUD — Halfback Mike Shedd of Waterford sinks knee first into the mud after gaining seven yards on the first scrimmage play by Waterford's Skippers in the second half last night. Walled Lake defenders Greg Hethia and Jim Thomas are blocked out at the left while the Vikings' Gary Ferguson moves in behind the ball carrier.

Captains Scuttled, 19-14

Roseville Rally Nips Kettering

ROSEVILLE — A final quarter touchdown with six minutes to play saved host Roseville's Homecoming celebration Friday night with a 19-14 win over Waterford Kettering.

Hard-running Gene Pankner, with help from an alert Captains' defense, staged the visiting WKHS squad to a 14-13 edge entering the final period.

Fumbles played a major role as the two teams exchanged the lead in the opening three quarters.

Despite ankle deep mud in some places, Pankner ran very well in a sparkling duel with Roseville's outstanding passer Ken Flott.

Following a fumble recovery at the Wildcats' 40, the Captains took the lead as their 6-3, 210-pound senior fullback bulled his way over from the 12, and then ran the conversion.

2 BOBBLES

But two lost fumbles in the final two minutes of the first half hurt WKHS. The first one was dropped to Roseville at the losers' 35 and Flott hit end Bruce Vinson four plays later for a 28-yard touchdown.

The conversion kick sailed and Kettering continued ahead, 7-6. But its fumble on the first play after the kickoff was recovered at the 30.

With 32 seconds remaining, Flott connected with end Randy Matiyow (a 6-5, 210-pounder) from the 11 for the go-ahead tally.

In the third quarter, Kettering fell on a Roseville fumble at the Wildcats' 34. On the third try, Pankner romped 30 yards over tackle for the tying margin. He then ran the go-ahead point.

However, the host team and Flott weren't through. The Wildcats retaliated on a drive from midfield. Flott hit Vinson with a key first-down aerial, then found Matiyow on a 13-yarder for the payoff points.

The winners also had another star in linebacker Mike Logghe who participated in 32 tackles to break his own school record for the second time this season.

GOALIE WORKS LITTLE

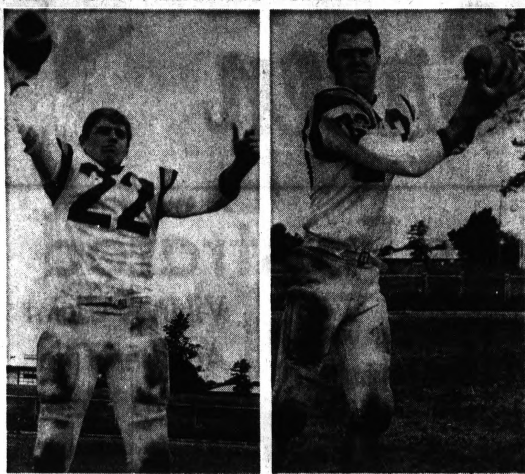

as Muskegon Wins

MUSKEGON (AP) — Muskegon goaltender Tim Taylor had to make only 10 saves Friday night as his team blanked Fort Wayne in an International Hockey League game, 3-0.

In the only other IHL contest, Columbus beat Des Moines 3-1.

All Muskegon's goals were scored in the second period, one each by Nick Iannone, Gary Ford and Joe Katicic. Muskegon bombarded Fort Wayne goalie Gerry Randall with 42 shots.

Muskegon now stands at 3-2 in IHL play; Fort Wayne at 2-1.

WARRIOR THREATS — Birmingham Brother Rice has compiled a 5-1 record with quarterback Bill Rose (left) and end Pat Lynch two primary reasons behind the successful record. Of the Warriors 18 touchdowns, Rose has run for six and passed to Lynch for four others. In addition, they have eight extra points between them. Tomorrow night, they'll attempt to help the Warriors to a berth in the Soup Bowl game when they meet unbeaten Harper Woods Notre Dame.

Hot Grid Action Slated

Brother Rice Duels Leader

Waterford OLL Host to Pontiac Catholic

Heated competition is expected to take some of the chill from the air tomorrow in three parochial league contests.

Two have title overtones while a third is strictly a prestige affair.

Birmingham Brother Rice (5-1), running second in the Central League of the Catholic League's First Division, enters unbeaten Harper Woods Notre Dame (6-0) at 7:30 p.m. in a showdown.

The unbeaten Eagles of Orchard Lake St. Mary (6-0) have already clinched a share of the Northwest Parochial crown, and they'll try to wrap it up tomorrow in a 2:30 p.m. game at Royal Oak St. Mary.

Locally, Pontiac Catholic (2-4) journeys to Waterford to meet Our Lady of Lakes (1-5) in a game that carries a lot of prestige but little else.

SHARP QUARTERBACK

Brother Rice has one of the area's top quarterbacks in Billy Rose and another outstanding performer in end Pat Lynch.

Rose leads the team in scoring with 41 points, while Lynch has posted 27, most of them coming off passes from Rose.

Fullback Mike Cymen, held out last week's game against Pontiac Catholic because of an injury, is expected to return this week and bolster the Orchard Lake St. Mary running game.

Pontiac Catholic and Waterford Our Lady have both shown steady improvement, and the Pontiac eleven is rated a slight favorite to take the game.

The Titans of Pontiac Catholic narrowly missed in their upset bid last week at OLSM, 14-12, and coach Mel Larsen is hoping the squad will pick up where it left off in that game.

After a slow start, the Titans switched to a short-punt formation and used it in two touchdowns drives with quarterback John Guillem tossing short scoring passes to Jim Benham and Tim Boyer.

Fitzgerald Roms Over Warren High

The Spartans of Warren Fitzgerald scored in every period last night as they ran their record to 4-2-1 with a 27-0 victory over Warren.

Quarterback Doug MacKenzie started the Spartans on the road to victory with a one-yard sneak in the first period. MacKenzie made it 13-0 in the second with an 8-yard flip to end Paul Krause.

Fullback Wally Russell scored on a five-yard drive play in the third and a scoring with a two-yard drive in the fourth.

New Haven Buries Dryden's Title Hopes

Dryden's title hopes in the Southern Thumb race were buried in the mud of the Almont gridiron Friday night as New Haven won the big showdown, 14-0, with two second-half touchdowns.

Richmond kept its slim hopes glimmering by registering a 19-13 conquest of Capac. Armada thumped Almont, 27-7, in the third contest. Anchor Bay and Memphis meet today.

Lynn Ryan assumed the scoring duties for New Haven and kept Dryden successfully defeated area co-scorer leader Gary Mack.

Ryan dashed 70 yards off tackle to break the scoreless tie in the third quarter. Lamont Ford ran the PAT. Ryan later hit Ford for a 10-yard scoring pass and ran the second conversion for the Rockets.

ENDS TIE

Lynn Ryan's second six-pointer for Richmond broke a 13-13 tie in the final period and left the Blue Devils still a half game behind New Haven with only one contest left.

At Armada, Almont's John Bachaly played one yard and Dennis Gardner kicked the conversion for a 7-0 Raider lead in the opening quarter.

But the Tigers rallied as Jim Voelker tallied on 37 and 12 yard runs (the latter following a blocked punt by teammate Dan Yohi) in the second quarter.

Voelker added a 25-yard scoring run and Connie Reiter went 26 yards for the final six-pointer.

League Title to Deckerville; Imlay Wins

Deckerville sewed up the South Central championship last night by downing Millington, 13-6.

In another league game, Imlay City (2-2-1) blanked North Branch (1-1-1), 7-0.

Both games were played in the wind and snow.

Terry McGregor put Deckerville ahead 7-0 in the first quarter with a two-yard sneak and a PAT pass to Mike Foss, and Foss raced 40 yards with four minutes left in the game for the other six-pointer.

Millington (4-2) came up with six points in the first on a one-yard plunge by Rich Castle.

Mike Dodge rolled over on a four-yard sneak midway in the first period and Chet Marcol booked the extra point to give Imlay City the victory.

North Branch's deepest penetration was the Imlay 20-yard marker in the second half.

Marcol tried a couple of field goals in the second half from the 25 and 35-yard lines but most fell short.

Randy Craven booted three PAT's.

Voelker had 123 yards in 12 carries for Armada. Almont could only muster 30 yards total in the final half.

Weather Halts SVC Contests

Delayed by snow and wind that raked Michigan yesterday, four Saginaw Valley Conference squads will try again tonight to continue their battle for league honors.

The storm wiped out the Saginaw at Bay City Central and the Bay City Hand at Saginaw Hill games last night, forcing a postponement until 7:30 p.m. this evening.

Another SVC game on the docket this evening finds Pontiac Central trying to end a four-game winless streak in a contest at Flint Central (7:30).

Flint Central is 3-2 in SVC play and still entertaining hopes of catching unbeaten Bay City Central (5-0).

PCH's Chiefs are just hopeful they can break a streak of losses and ties that began after they opened the season with a 21-0 win over Midland. Since then, they have lost two and played to a couple of 7-7 standoffs.

Women's Champion
TEL AVIV, Israel (U) Rites International of Britain won the women's Bobby Dobbs Israel International Tennis Championship Friday, defeating Almut Sturm of West Germany 6-4, 4-6, 6-2 in a match lasting nearly two hours.

By The Associated Press
The more things change in El Paso, Tex., the more they remain the same for the madcap Miners of Bobby Dobbs.

Texan Western, the home of close - to - the vest basketball, wide-open football and way-out publicity bluffs, became the University of Texas at El Paso last winter.

But brilliant Billy Stevens made certain the footballs kept flying this fall for the pass-happy Miners. He set an all-time collegiate record for career passing yards and, after firing six touchdowns passes a week ago, was zeroing in on another NCAA mark when a virus grounded him for Friday night's game against New Mexico.

So, back - up quarterback Brooks Dawson stepped in - and threw another half-dozen TD strikes as the Miners obliterated the Lobos 75-13.

Dawson, a 6-foot, 185-pound junior who fits Coach Dobbs' pro-type offense "like a bikini on Miss America," according to UTEP publicist Eddie Mullens, hit flanker Floyd Murphy with scoring bombs of 86-74 and 52 yards. He tossed three more TD passes covering 64, 25 and 10 yards and capped his night's work by running nine yards for another score.

The Texas-El Paso aerial circus at Albuquerque, N.M., overshadowed the Miami, Fla., Hurricanes' 7-0 triumph over Auburn in a defensive struggle under the lights at the Orange Bowl.

Defensive end Phil Smith picked off an Auburn pitchout in the third quarter and raced 35 yards for the game's only touchdown.

Rally in Fourth Helps Falcons to 19-7 Win

Mike Scally's Pass to Rigdon Produces Winning Touchdown

It was anything but a happy Homecoming for three periods at Rochester Friday night, but the Falcons erupted for two quick scores in the final quarter and a 19-7 victory over Avondale.

The visiting Yellow Jackets—decided underdogs in the Oakland A League encounter—had visions of their first win over Rochester since 1958 by taking a 7-0 lead last night in the third quarter.

After a scoreless first half in the mud and snow put a damper on the halftime festivities, Avondale's Bob Burt led the Yellow Jackets into the lead.

The lanky quarterback was back to punt on fourth down and he was roughed up by the Falcons after his boot. The ensuing penalty gave Avon a first down at the home team's 28-yard-line.

Burt then passed to Dennis McLaughlin for a first down at the 14, and hit John Mancho with a touchdown toss on the next play. Stu Fraser ran the conversion.

Big Pass
Rochester, still struggling to mount an offense, found the key with a daring gamble. On fourth-and-eight at his own 40, punter Mike Fitzwillson faked the kick and passed for a first down to Tom Rigdon at the visitors' 37.

Unnerved by the maneuver, the Yellow Jackets' defense let Dave Marr get loose on the next play for a six-pointer. The missed PAT left them ahead, however, 7-6 entering the last period.

But the host Falcons mounted a 12-play drive that went 60 yards for the winning touchdown. Mike Scally passed to Rigdon for the six points. Russ Giff caught the PAT aerial.

Then after the kickoff, Ned Wollmeyer picked off Burt's pass at the Avondale 30 and raced to the 14. From there, Mike Phillips moved into paydirt on the first carry.

The touchdown was Phillips' eighth of the season. Teammate Marr now has seven six-pointers, and led all ball carriers last night with 72 yards on 7 runs. Rigdon also was a key man for the Falcons, catching three passes for 50 yards.

The win kept the slim Rochester hopes alive for a share of the title. It is 4-2 in the league and tied for second place with Madison and Clawson. Avon is 3-3 and fifth.

Hazel Park Helps Kimball Take Title

Interception also in the final half. Earlier, Greg Anderson (seven yards) and Rocky Roe (two yards) had registered Southeastern six-pointers.

Jim Watts kicked three PAT's and Dave Sanders caught an extra point pass to wrap up Southfield's scoring.

Both Berkeley touchdowns came on long punt returns. Ian Rodpath went 78 yards to tie the score in the opening period, but the Bears couldn't score again until the final session.

Royal Oak Kimball again sits on the Southeastern Michigan Association football throne following two significant boosts in the closing two games of the league race.

Kimball captured its third straight championship by upending Birmingham Seaholm, 27-6, while clobbering Ferndale fell at Hazel Park, 13-0 Friday night.

Southfield shared a second place with Ferndale and Hazel Park's Vikings by routing winless Berkeley, 48-13.

Kimball's first boost was the late emergence of Gary Crocker as the strong runner to carry the offense. Then Hazel Park gave a final helping hand with its upset win last night against Ferndale.

Seaholm bid to stop the Knights' quest by scoring first, a three-yard plunge by Dick Trickey. But the PAT try failed. It was a 61-yard drive in the 15 plays following the opening kickoff.

Kimball took a 7-6 lead, though, at the half on Henry Capogna's PAT kick after Crocker scored on an eight-yard run to cap a 68-yard push in 16 plays.

THREE SCORES
It was the first of three Crocker touchdowns. The junior fullback blossomed last week as a ball carrier to give the needed punch.

He sewed up last night's title victory with five- and six-yard scoring runs in the last period. In all, Crocker gained 162 yards on 29 carries.

Fred Shellnut scored the other ROK six-pointer on a 14-yard pass by Jerry Wensen. Wensen's 25-yard run for a first down set up the score.

Hazel Park ended a 0-4 with Ferndale when Mickey Mick's two-yard plunge clinched a 90-yard drive in the third quarter.

Later, Jeff Federoff scored on a 36-yard play to ruin the Ferndale title dreams.

At Southfield, seven Blue Jays scored as only Jim Watts crossed the goal line more than once. He ran 55 yards for a 15-yard aerial from Paul Hunt to spark a 27-point second half for the home team.

Hunt scored on a 75-yard jump and Dave Wieland on a 25-yard drive.

United States Tankers Add Gold Medals

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The United States added four more gold medals, three by the girls, as nine swimming finals featured the second to last day of the Pre-Olympics Friday night.

Carl Robie of Philadelphia brought home the only U.S. gold medal among the men, winning the 200-meter butterfly for his second victory in the trials. He finished a length ahead of Sergio Knov of Russia in a time of 2:10.9.

Debbie Meyer, the 15-year-old sensation from Sacramento, Calif., and Claudia Kolb, a 17-year-old from Sacramento, led U.S. sweeps in the 400-meter freestyle and 200-meter individual medley, respectively.

Miss Meyer, who holds the two-month-old 400 world record at 4:29.0, finished ahead of Patty Caretto, 16, of Whittier, Calif., and Linda Gustavson of Santa Clara, Calif., in 4:45.1.

Miss Kolb, who holds the world record in her event, was timed in 2:31.2, ahead of Lynn Vidalli, 17, of Santa Clara, and Jane Barkman, of Wayne, Pa.

Miss Kolb, Miss Vidalli, Miss Barkman and Ellie Daniel of Elkins Park, Pa., then captured the 40-meter medley relay, beating Hungary in a time of 4:39.1.

Retired Coach Suffers Attack

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. (AP) — Ed Diddle, retired basketball coach at Western Kentucky University, was resting comfortably Friday after suffering a mild heart attack.

The former coach suffered a heart attack before his retirement in 1964.

Red Okays New Pact, Sees Cards as Team to Beat

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The team to beat in the 1968 major league baseball race? The St. Louis Cardinals, says the man who guided them to the World Series title as manager.

Robert J. Mehlbergs' Brick And Batten Trilevel Found In Pine Lake Subdivision

Couple Votes for Colonial

By JODY HEADLEE

Home Editor, The Pontiac Press

The colorful comfort of colonial furnishings won the vote of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Mehlberg when they decorated their new trilevel in West Bloomfield Township.

Avocado draperies, off-white walls and carpeting set the background for the formal living room. Assisted by the decorators at the Wiggs Colony Shop, the Mehlbergs chose matching off-white velvet swivel chairs, twin modified wing back chairs in a warm floral of bitter-sweet, daffodil, lavender peach and green on sand-beige and a pale avocado and gold sofa for color interest.

Furniture pieces include a walnut stereo, an antiqued white occasional table with a fruitwood top, a round pink marble cocktail table, an antiqued avocado chest table and a matching low cigarette table.

To tie the over-all picture into a complete whole Mrs. Mehlberg uses lamps in keeping with the period and accents of silver and brass.

In the adjoining dining room the cherry hutch and the side chairs repeat the spool detail of the coordinated banquet table.

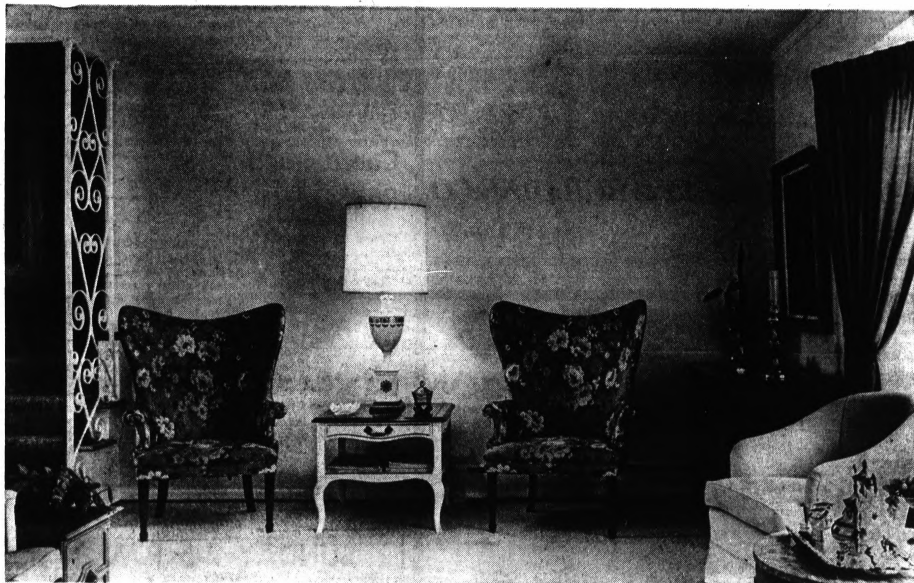

AVOCADO

Avocado is stressed in the flocked wallpaper above the off-white dado, the draperies, the wheeled serving table and in candles in the server's silver candelabrum.

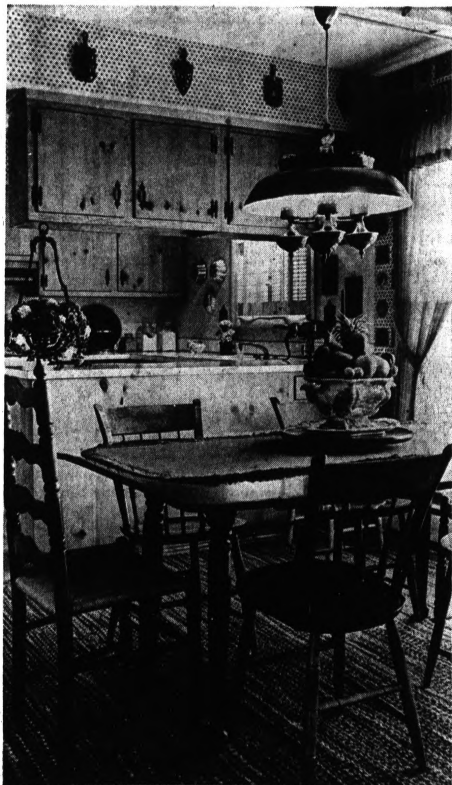

Knotty pine beams and cabinets blend with a colorful provincial print wallpaper and a braided rug to create a charming informal dining and kitchen area.

Wrought iron hinges, trivets and scale add to the area's colonial theme.

Centering the avocado felt throw on the room's maple table is a fruit arrangement in a soup tureen.

Put Pickets on the Inside

Ever try using a picket fence indoors?
Picture a section used as a headboard in a child's bedroom, painted yellow and teamed with a yellow and white checked bedspread.
Or how about picket fencing for a wainscot in child's playroom or a recreation room—yellow again over a wall painted mocha, or turquoise against avocado, raspberry over frosting pink, or black on white for a sophisticated treatment in an adult's den or party room.
Protection from high maintenance costs is important in remodeling.

'Living Wall' Saves Money

An exciting new wall concept that saves money, work and upkeep has been announced by Masonite Corporation, the pioneer hardboard manufacturer. The woodgrained panels of the Royale Living Wall are inconspicuously slotted to accept shelf brackets and hooks for a variety of decorative arrangements in any room.

The 4'x8' panels are available at building materials dealers in three rich woodgrains — Sable Walnut, Honeytone Cherry and Teak.

Their installation eliminates the need for vertical metal standards for shelving. No nails are required; instead, use durable cartridge-type adhesive available where the panels are sold.

Due to the load-bearing strength of hardboard, the slots present an economical, attractive solution to hanging shelves and art objects on walls.

Satin Walnut shelves, too, are available in five popular sizes. All shelf surfaces are of durable, woodgrained hardboard compatible with the paneling.

The versatile panels can convert an entire wall, or just a portion of it, into a functional area with a prefinished, beautiful woodgrained background that requires only occasional damp-wiping.

For a free folder on Living Wall panels, shelves, metal shelf brackets and hooks, send a postcard to Masonite, Box B, Chicago, Ill. 60689.

Coordinated Roof Colors

Color is now considered a building material by architects and designers.

Asphalt shingle roofs, for instance, which are seen on most new homes, now come in a wide range of blends and hues, including new "forest" and "earth" shades, to allow color coordination of exterior house features and the house site.

The shingle color is produced by a ceramic processing of mineral granules which are imbedded in the top coating of the shingle.

Children, Privacy, Comfort Determine the Family Home

A family chooses a house—a particular house at a particular time. Why?

What motivates the choice? Who chooses — husband, wife, or is it the children who really govern the decision?

The Project Home Committee — an association of major manufacturers of housing materials, engaged the Raymond Loewy/William Smith organization to delve deeply into motivation toward homes and housing.

The survey was an extensive one, involving a large nationwide sampling, and conducted by means of lengthy personal interviews in the respondents' own homes and, in the case of respondents known to be prospects for new housing, by interviews before, during and after a visit to different types of properties.

The findings, set forth in 170 pages of text with an additional 150 pages of tabular material, are destined, understandably, to help the housing industry pinpoint its markets, woo them and serve them.

For the layman, the study provides a wealth of interesting data on what makes people tick when it comes to their homes.

Not the least interesting data is that concerning the male vs. female approach or, as the study puts it, the "clear differences between men and women in the way they regard homes and housing."

Isolation and definition of "markedly different" motivations, the authors found, was the study's "most distinctive contribution."

The differences in approach to choosing a home were revealed most clearly in on-the-spot interviews conducted at the sites of typical model dwellings.

In general, model homes failed to fulfill the expectations and desires of would-be purchasers — but for different reasons.

Women registered greater general disappointment than men. They were most disappointed in the ability of the home to meet their standards for the children's care and upbringing and in convenience factors.

Men, on the other hand, saw the new dwelling as failing to serve the major masculine needs — ways to express individuality, protection of personal privacy, the display of possessions and the family itself.

Women's ideas

Women's discontent was directed at particular rooms and functions of these rooms in the home — the kitchen, entrance, recreation room — where men reacted to specific features of a home and were permissive of many general faults.

The study covered nine motivational factors as they operate in ten distinct housing markets — newlyweds, first house buyers, the up-grade market of families who already own homes, retirees, two-family house purchasers, house renters, apartment renters, purchasers of condominiums and cooperatives, the new community and the vacation home market.

Findings showed the point of greatest husband-wife agreement about housing occurs at the earliest stages of married life and family formation, and that the agreement diverges significantly as the family matures.

Divergent as their motivations may be when considering such factors as children, privacy, convenience, individuality and independence, use of time, investment, possessions outdoors and socializing in relation to housing choices, to buy housing, husbands and wives must come to reasonable agreement about what they want.

This agreement, according to the over-all sampling, gives greatest weight to children, privacy and convenience.

Children — concern for their health, security, social and educational opportunities — come first with both man and wife until their family has grown and left home.

HELLO — Adding screens and a low porch deck resulted in this distinguished entrance area. Screens are spaced Douglas fir 2x4s in a framework of 2x4s. They're screwed over existing bevel siding on either side of door; projecting sections give privacy to an adjacent window. Deck of fir 2x4s on edge raises porch to door sill level.

Hide Wall Cracks Low-Cost Way

A low-cost method of covering cracked walls with a quality surface that can be kept clean with an occasional wipe-down with a damp cloth has been announced by Masonite Corporation.

Panels 1/4" thick have been developed for this application. They are available in 4'x8' size and in three Royalecot Walnut grains — Glacier, Tawny and Sable.

These wall cover hardboard panels may be fastened with wallboard adhesive to a solid backing or existing walls in homes, apartments and offices.

No changes in trim moldings are required because the panels are so thin.

Stretch Blooming Season— Plant Early Tulip Varieties

While the giant Darwin, cottage and breeder tulips will always remain the backbone of spring bloom, you can stretch your flowering season by four weeks by the addition of the earlier sorts.

Being shorter and more ground-hugging, not over a foot, they escape the beating of early spring winds.

The best known of the Single Early tulips are the old favorites—General De Wet (yellow and orange), Diana (snow-white), Rose Louisante (deep rose) and Couleur Cardinal (crimson-scarlet). Slightly later and longer-lasting come the Double Early group such as Peach Blossom (soft pink that deepens with age), Scarlet Cardinal and Marechal Niel (copper-yellow).

Planted in solid masses of one color, these are particularly striking. One is the world famous, giant-flowering Red Emperor. Then there are the various species or wild tulips such as the red and white candystick, the long-pointed Tulipa acuminata and two-colored T. kaufmanniana. There are others, all dainty and in the right locations, last years but they are not as showy.

All these tulips should be planted from October on in the North, later southward. In the Deep South they, too, should be cold-treated before purchasing to ensure bloom. All look better when planted in large groups of one color.

TIME IS NOW

Prepare the soil well, with a green thumb spade or fork. Work in a good bulb food or root-vegetable fertilizer. After spading they can be planted individually with a long, narrow-bulb trowel.

However, if you want a more even planting with respect to height and time of blooming, dig out the whole bed to bulb depth—at least 8 inches and deeper in sandy soils—prepare the soil beneath, space the bulbs out carefully all at exactly the same depth and shovel the soil back over them.

While you can leave them in the soil after blooming, better blooming is assured by digging them up when leaves turn yellow and storing the bulbs in a cool, dry cellar until next October. This eliminates rotting, rodent eating and digging into accidentally but keep them cool.

OLD FASHIONED CHARM—The aura of comfort and warmth exuded by the traditional Early American house is evident in this two-story residence. Four bedrooms, 2 1/2 baths, a terrace, patio and second-floor balcony porch make it practical for a large family.

Z-12 STATISTICS

Design Z-12 has a living room, dining room, kitchen-dinette, family room, laundry, foyer, den and lavatory on the first floor, with a total living area of 1370 square feet. There are 960 square feet on the second floor, in the form of four bedrooms and two baths. Over-all dimensions are 70' by 36'. Twenty feet of the frontage is taken up by a two-car garage. Plans for the house include a full basement, which can be finished off to suit the needs and desires of the family.

Two-Story Reflects Tranquility, Charm and Dignity

The dignified and homey appearance of the two-story Early American design is part of the reason for its continued popularity throughout the years.

But home buyers these days undoubtedly place even more value on its ability to provide plenty of living room for a large family on a moderate budget.

The exterior of this latest House of the Week exudes old-time charm, with the square-columned entrance portico, the hand-split red cedar shingles and the dark, low-pitched, asphalt-shingled roof adding to the colonial motif.

Architect William Chirgottis has placed five rooms on the first floor, plus a laundry, a lavatory, an entrance hall with an impressive stairway, four closets and a two-car garage. There are four bedrooms, two complete baths and six spacious closets on the second floor.

What better welcoming sight than a large foyer with a sweeping grand circular staircase? That's the first look one gets at the interior after moving under the graceful entrance portico and past the double doors.

FOYER
The foyer is the key to the efficient circulation that permits easy and effective movement throughout the first floor and to the second-floor bedrooms. The open stairwell, with its wrought iron handrailing, prevents any feeling of congestion on the upper floor.

To the left of the entrance hall is the living room, with an attractive brick colonial fireplace and a length of 23' 6". The adjacent dining room features a pair of French doors opening to a rear terrace.

A peninsula counter separates the kitchen from an all-glass dinette. The two together are 18' 6" long, providing plenty of space for family meals as well as the ordinary kitchen chores.

The dinette provides a view of the garden to the rear, the terrace to the left and a patio to the right, making it an excellent place from which to keep an eye on the outdoor activities of the youngsters.

Just off a rear foyer is a full-paneled plywood family room, with a laundry between it and the kitchen.

The laundry room has a broom closet, a clothes closet and a rear access for the children to get rid of mud and dirt before entering any of the regular rooms of the house.

Sliding glass doors lead from the family room to the patio. A refreshment bar is in one corner of the room. Next to the family room and accessible from the front foyer is a den or guest room, which is adjacent to a lavatory.

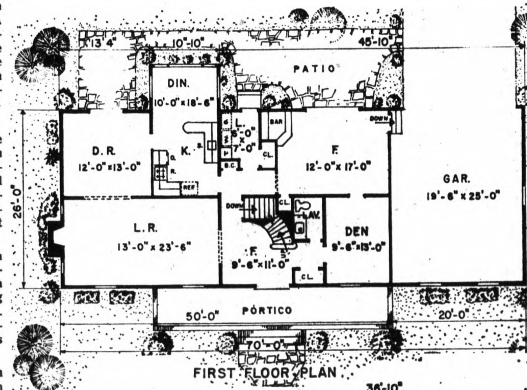

SECOND FLOOR
On the second floor, three bedrooms are close to the main family bathroom, which is compartmentalized. There is a full wall mirrored vanity with double lavatories in the outer section; a bathtub and water closet in the other.

The master bedroom has a sizable dressing area, two closets with sliding doors and a complete private bath featuring a sunken Roman-style bathtub. A private balcony porch provides additional glamor for this bedroom.

The rectangular design of both floors holds down construction costs. So does the plumbing arrangement, which is back-to-back for the kitchen and the laundry, and directly under the second floor master bathroom.

The plans call for garage doors at the rear, but these can be located at the front or side, depending on the width of the lot.

The house itself is 50' by 26', with 20' of frontage added for the garage. Yet there are 1,370 square feet of habitable area on the first floor and 960 square feet on the second.

FIRST FLOOR PLAN

Design Z-12 makes maximum use of every foot of space and has old-fashioned charm and dignity.

Aerosol Painting Not Too Difficult

Aerosol painting can be fun, the surface and press the button is easy to do, and you can turn all the way down, moving the can at a steady pace parallel to the surface.

Make sure the surface is clean and free from oil, wax and dust. Sand rough spots before you begin painting.

Try to have the object in a horizontal position to prevent runs and sags. Shake the can well and after a few practice sprays, begin painting. Hold the can about 10 to 12 inches from the surface and press the button at the end of each stroke. Once you have the feel of aerosol painting, you'll be delighted with the professional looking results!

Ceramic mosaic tiles, quarry tiles and now special, frost-proof, glazed wall tiles can be used as colorful, decorative surfacings outdoors in any climate.

DELIGHTFUL DINING—Featuring a table with a vinyl veneer top, patterned vinyl floor tiles and a washable rayon rug, this dining room provides an elegant atmosphere with the extra advantage of easy care. The furniture is from the new "Tribute" collection by Broyhill Premier of Le-noir, N.C. The table top is surfaced with tartan-clad vinyl veneer, developed by the SM Company. It combines the beauty of wood with the protective qualities of vinyl, resisting stains, burns and scratches. A painted pecky cypress wall and floral wall covering repeated on chair seats add to the elegance of the room. Setting is by Paul Krauss, AID.

Borders Accent Look of Panels

When paneling a room, some architects use a reverse picture frame technique.

Tongue- and-groove boards are installed horizontally over the surface of the wall, but leaving a border four inches or wider all around. The border is then finished with plaster or gypsum board painted white or a neutral putty-green.

Surfaces can be flush or the paneling can be brought out from the wall the thickness of the panel boards for an even more intriguing effect.

Mixed-grain boards that combine vertical and flat graining are the most interesting to use in this application. Douglas fir, western hemlock, cedar and pine are all good. A clear finish is recommended.

Options Raise Cost of Home

A principle used in the automobile business is being adapted to house sales.

Some builders are listing homes at a basic price and offering options such as air conditioning, gold door knobs, fancy lighting fixtures and expensive door chimes at extra cost.

1968 Rose Choices Europeans by Birth

By EARL ARONSON
AP Newsfeatures

All three All-America Rose Selections for 1968 are Europeans by birth.

The winners are "Miss All-American Beauty" and "Scarlet Knight," both from the House of Meiland at Cap d'Antibes near the French Riviera; and "Europeana," from the Dutch hybridizer Gerrit de Ruijter.

Conard-Pyle of Pennsylvania introduced all three to this country.

Miss All-American Beauty is a pink hybrid tea. Scarlet Knight is a true scarlet-red grandiflora, one of only two grandifloras given the honor in 27 years; and Europeana is a cardinal red floribunda.

The three were selected from among many varieties tested in 24 trial gardens across the country.

A BEAUTY

Miss All-American Beauty is an offspring of Chrysler Imperial X Independence X Peace, and has fragrant, five-inch double, cup shaped blooms with 50 to 60 petals.

The foliage is ivy green on the upper side and sage green on the underside.

Scarlet Knight comes from Happiness X Independence X Sutter's Gold. The deep red buds are resistant to fading. The blooms are 4 to 5 inches, double and high centered.

The plant is vigorous and the fragrance is subtle.

Europeana already has won four gold medals in international competition.

It is a cross between Ruth Leuwerik X Rosemary Rose and has bright, satiny red blooms, erect on long stems. The blossoms are 2½ to 3 inches across with 25 to 30 petals, growing in clusters.

The plant is quite disease resistant.

Stair Rail Storage for Paperbacks

How about a bookcase railing built around the head of the stairwell?

Shelves just five inches deep will house a library of paperback editions.

For hardboards. Sugar pine and vertical grain fir are easy to use, will take either paint or stain finish. Use screen molding to decorate shelf edges for traditional design.

Hide Scratch With Crayon

Serious damages to fine furniture may require a professional finisher to repair scratches and dents or cover large blemishes and stains.

To remedy scratches, try a coloring crayon that closely matches the color of the wood finish.

Simply rub into the scratch, wipe away excess wax and polish the entire surface.

SUPER STORAGE—Corner produces super storage in small bath. Shallow front-opening cabinets hold cosmetics. Deep shelves handy to washbasin take folded towels. Medicine chests above have combination locks. Below is laundry bin. Build fronts of ponderosa pine boards nailed over Z-braces.

Any color as long as it's black.

That's how they did it with the fabulous Model T. It was a unique car, it was in a price range all its own, and if you wanted one, that was your choice of color. And a lot of people wanted one.

Then, all of a sudden people wanted more of a choice. They didn't make speeches or write their Congressmen. They didn't even stop to think about it. They just went out and bought another color.

The one thing that hasn't changed from the good old days to the good new days is this: "You pay your money and you take your choice."

By OSWALD & JAMES JACOBY

Our old friend Charley Solomon of Philadelphia, president of the World Bridge Federation, has managed in his long career at the bridge table to win just about every trophy there is. Charley is noted for his excellent bidding.

In a recent JACOBY tournament, Charley was playing with a new partner when he picked up the South hand shown today. It would have puzzled him in any event, but he finally reached the spade slam by bidding in the box.

He opened with one spade only. They were playing waltz two bids but that did not matter. An expert does not bother to open with a forcing bid when he knows that someone will surely be in the bidding with or against him.

Charley's three club rebid was a force. Like all modern experts, he plays that after a two-over-one response a new suit bid is a one round force.

His five spade bid that followed is the one we really like. He clearly said, "I am very interested in a slam and I don't care about what you have in the red suits. I can play five spades anyway. Can you go to six?"

This put some pressure on North. He got the message that South did not care about the red suits, but how good were Charley's black suits? North finally decided that the combination of jack and one spade and ace of hearts for a discard would be enough.

They just were. Charley discarded a club on the ace of hearts at trick one, led a club to his ace, ruffed a club with dummy's jack of trumps, ruffed a diamond, played his ace of spades and claimed his slam.

Coed Sentenced on Drug Charge

EAST LANSING (AP)—Linda Surath, 20, of Bay City, has been placed on two years' probation, given a 30-day suspended sentence and ordered to pay $125 in fines and court costs after Michigan State University campus police seized some 3,000 amphetamine pills in her dormitory room.

Driver Implied Consent Law Goes Into Effect Thursday

LANSING (AP) — Motorists have been warned by Secretary of State James Hare that a stronger law aimed at curbing the alcoholic content of blood if he is stopped for drinking while driving will go into effect next Thursday.

The law provides that a driver is deemed to have given consent for chemical tests to determine the alcoholic content of his blood if he is stopped for drinking while driving.

If a motorist refuses blood, breath, urine or saliva tests, his license can be suspended for 30 days unless he can satisfy the License Appeal Board that the arresting officer was without grounds to ask him to take the test.

Several other tighter laws affecting motorists also take effect Thursday.

A license may be revoked if a motorist refuses to accept and sign a receipt of notification to appeal for license reexamination.

Licenses can be suspended for up to one year for use of a canceled registration, a suspended or altered license, lending another person a license or committing fraud on an application for a license.

The minimum jail sentence for driving without a license has been increased from two to three days for the first offense and from two to five days for a subsequent offense.

Forfeiture of bail on charges of driving while intoxicated or under the influence of drugs will carry a penalty of license suspension for at least 90 days and up until two years.

LAB RESEARCH — Two laboratory technicians study sore-throat specimens as part of a Michigan Heart Association project to reduce the toll of rheumatic fever. The microscope is equipped with a fluoroscopic attachment for quick identification of the streptococci, the only known cause of rheumatic fever, which can damage heart valves. The association, supported by the Pontiac Area United Fund, has financed several rheumatic-fever studies. The disease is a common cripple of children and young adults.

Development Firm Sued on Detroit Plans

DETROIT (AP) — A New York architect firm is suing in federal court for $5 million in damages against a Detroit firm whose plan won approval for developing a block in the heart of downtown Detroit.

The New York firm, Lieberman and Associates, charged that the Detroit firm, Harley, Ellington, Cowin & Stinton, used pirated "design concepts" in the plans it drew up for the winning developer, M.E. Arden Co. of Detroit.

John F. Langs, attorney for Arden and the Detroit architects, said, "The suit is nothing but a continuation of the harassment engaged in by the out-of-town developer." S. Pierre Bonan and Jay R. Shochet of Boston.

The suit brought Friday in U.S. District Court seeks $2 million in damages in lost fees and another $3 million for infringement of the New York firm's copyright on its designs.

IMPOUND PLANS

The suit also asks the court to impound all plans for Arden's development and to order the Arden group from any further use of them. No hearing date for the suit has been set.

The Lieberman firm is architect for Bonan and Shochet, who contend the city's housing commission acted illegally in allowing Arden to revise his proposal after the April 1 deadline for submitting plans.

The housing commission has approved the Arden plan for a $6 million, 60-story triangular skyscraper containing stores, offices, an 800-room hotel, and underground convention facilities.

The Bonan-Shochet plan is for a 78-story skyscraper with stores, offices, apartments and a 400-room hotel. A separate building would house a convention center.

PLAN UNCHANGED

Langs said the basic Arden plan has remained unchanged since it was submitted and that Arden and the Detroit architect firm did not see "any plan but our own prior to Oct. 19, when the out-of-town developer showed his proposal to the housing commission and to the press."

He added: "There is no foundation for a lawsuit, and they know it."

Dr. King Slaps Spending on Viet

BOSTON (AP) — Dr. Martin Luther King says, "It's a tragic mixup when the U.S. spends $500,000 for every enemy soldier killed and $53 annually on the victims of poverty."

King, who spoke Friday night at a fund raising concert for the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, said the war in Vietnam is "unjust and destroying the image of our great nation."

Mr. and Mrs. Claus, Instructors

Aussies to Learn to Ho-Ho-Ho

In real life, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Doan, they are due to be greeted by several hundred children when they disembark at Sydney next Tuesday.

Doan, 48, is dean of the Santa Claus school at Albion, N. Y. His wife, Mary Ida, is a graduate of the school.

Doan will spend three weeks in Australia teaching department store Santa Claus candidates some of the fine points of how the bewiskered gent behaves.

VACATION ACTIVITY

When not teaching the intricacies of the role of Santa Claus, Doan is director of the school supply warehouse of the Bay City Board of Education. He takes his holidays every December to portray Santa.

He is everybody's idea of what Santa should look like and he's been playing the part for 15 years. The Doans are one of few Mr. and Mrs. Santa Clauses in the United States.

Doan says it isn't easy to be a Santa Claus. What do you do with the sceptical children—the ones who don't believe in Santa?

Or the ones who pull your yak-hair beard? Even worse, the ladies who want to kiss Santa," says Doan. "Try getting non-smear lipstick off yak hair."

Children expect Santa to know everything, including their names and what they didn't get last Christmas, Doan explains.

DO'S AND DON'TS

Doan's list of do's and don'ts for would-be Santas:

—Be jolly, even if some ungrateful child is kicking your shins or pulling your beard.

—Be up on the latest toys, kids will "stick" you if they get a chance.

—Be ready to explain such questions as how Santa gets down small chimneys (even if it means carrying a chimney expander in your pocket).

—Never promise anything. A historical background of the St. Nicholas tradition in the fourth century in Asia Minor to teaching how to gift-wrap packages.

No scruffy looking Santa family are the Doans. Santa's de luxe outfit costs $325, with six inch fur trim, lined patent leather belt, and beard.

'SANTA' OFF TO AUSTRALIA — As snow fell, Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus, in the persons of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Doan of Bay City, left Michigan yesterday on a plane for Australia. Doan is to train Santas for an Australian department store chain.

Man Pays for Gas

'Borrowed' in '30s

LANSING (AP) — The State Highway Department has received $5 from an Oscoda County man in repayment for gasoline he took from a highway vehicle nearly 40 years ago.

The note attached to a $5 bill said:

"I am sending $5 to pay for about five gallons of gasoline I took from a Highway Department gravel-loading machine in the early 1930s when M72 was being graveled east of Fairview. I am sorry for this. Please pardon even the thought of such an act."

The $5 was deposited in the department's construction fund.

Girl's Gift of 'Ache Control'

Stems From Her Self Control

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Joanna Pettet can make any part of her body ache — she learned this in studying acting — and when she's tossing around in bed unable to sleep with an ache in her stomach or head, she may transfer the ache to her big toe.

So now you've got an ache in your big toe? "I asked her, 'Is that better?'"

"Yes! The ache is less in my big toe and I go to sleep."

Miss Pettet, a 23-year-old "gawky" and leggy blonde beauty from England and Montreal, is an outstanding example of the brainy actresses that are making movies today. She believes in the transcendental meditation that Mia Farrow and Shirley Maerli are going to pursue in India, and she says she transfers her aches and pains around to different parts of her body merely by "total relaxation."

However, while she's totally relaxed everywhere else she's concentrating on that big toe. "An actress has to learn to concentrate totally. Because if her mind wanders while she's acting, she's lost," Joanna said.

Sitting in her beautiful apartment in the Murray Hill section, wearing the shortest mini-skirt I've seen, her long hair falling down over her shoulders, Joanna played with her overgrown poodle, Bettina, and spoke of the Puritanism that still exists in America, especially in the movies.

"Everything that is should be said, and should be shown," she said.

Joanna's frankness sometimes scares an interviewer who tells her, "The country isn't ready for you just yet."

"The people who balk at showing frankness on the screen are the people who have guilt-feelings about participating themselves in the very things they don't want shown!" Joanna said.

Customer Meets

66-Year Custom

USTICK, Idaho (AP) — The Ustick Mercantile Co. has at least one satisfied customer. He has been trading with the firm for 66 years. Ralph Jackson was only 5 years old when the store opened and he used to buy penny candy.

The 71-year-old man is still trading at the same country store.

Road Draffees

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — Kentucky's first law concerning roads, passed five years after admission to the Union in 1792, required all able-bodied male citizens 16 and older to work on the roads for a specified period.

U.S. Troops Kill 131 Reds

SAIGON (AP) —American warplanes evidently hit the Hanoi area today for the fifth straight day. A North Vietnamese broadcast said five planes were shot down over the city and some of the pilots were captured.

SAIGON (AP) — U. S. troops killed 131 Red soldiers in a series of clashes yesterday south of Da Nang, the U.S. Command announced, while another day of intense raids on the Hanoi-Haiphong area raised the week's plane toll so far in North Vietnam to 14 U.S. jets shot down and 27 MIGs destroyed or damaged.

Reported American casualties in the ground fighting near Tam Ky and Hoi An, two provincial capitals south of Da Nang, totaled 19 dead and 75 wounded.

Communist shelling of Con Thien and other forward U.S. Marine outposts just below the demilitarized zone also increased, from a recent daily average of 100 or less rounds to an estimated 170 yesterday. Seven Marines were killed and 41 wounded, U.S. headquarters said.

Troops of the U.S. 1st Air Cavalry Division battled the Reds in a series of scattered actions near Hoi An and reported 78 of the enemy killed.

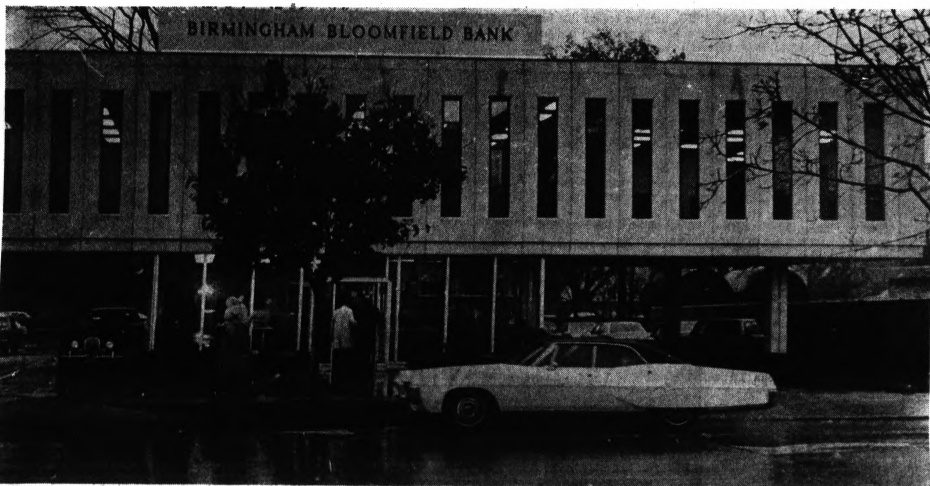

In the largest fight, eight miles south of the provincial capital, the U.S. Command said 35 Communists and 10 Americans were killed and 33 Americans wounded.

To the south on the coastal plains near Tam Ky, troops of the American 1st Division fought a series of clashes with North Vietnamese units and reported 53 of the enemy and nine Americans killed and 42 Americans wounded.

SLOPPY NIGHT—Center Greg Ballard of Waterford Township High School watches from the sidelines during a breather in last night's football game. Walled Lake won, 7-6, to take the Inter-Lakes League championship. The condition of Ballard's uniform was the order of the night on area gridirons.

Robber of Area Bank Sought

A bandit who held up the main office of the Birmingham-Bloomfield Bank in Birmingham and escaped with about $8,600 was being sought today by the FBI.

The gunman entered the bank on Maple at Adams about 3:20 p.m. yesterday, demanding the cash from two of the five women tellers on duty.

A spokesman for the FBI said that there were only a few customers in the bank, and that apparently they were unaware of the robbery until after the bandit fled out a rear door leading to a parking lot.

The robber was described to Birmingham police as "rugged looking," 25 to 30 years old, wearing a three-quarter length brown jacket, a green turtleneck sweater and a brown hunting cap.

His face was marked with acne scars and he needed a shave, witnesses told police.

ESCAPES IN CHEVROLET
It's believed that he may have escaped in a 1962 or 1963 Chevrolet with out-of-state license plates.

It was the first robbery in the seven-year history of the bank, and, according to one veteran Birmingham police officer, the first city bank holdup in his memory.

The robbery took less than two minutes, according to bank President S. Tenney McGraw.

"It's unfortunate, but we're most pleased that no one panicked and that no one was injured," said McGraw.

GTW to Open a 2nd Station

A second commuter station and a new place to switch morning trains were announced today by Grand Trunk Western Railroad. The changes should ease traffic jams often caused by trains blocking W. Huron during the morning rush hour, officials said.

The new commuter station will open Monday at the end of Inglewood. It will provide more convenient service for Grand Trunk commuters living on the north side of Pontiac, according to railroad officials. Free parking by the station is available.

Train departures will be 15 minutes earlier than the regular Pontiac station.

Officials also announced plans to begin making up trains north of the original Pontiac station in the yards near Inglewood. This is expected to ease the traffic situation caused at the crossing on Huron when switching crews had to block the intersection every time they had to change tracks.

Beginning tomorrow the four Detroit-Chicago passenger runs which stop in Pontiac will have slightly new schedules. There will be two runs each way.

NEW SCHEDULES

The Pontiac-Detroit commuter schedules will also be altered beginning Monday, a Grand Trunk official said.

The two daily Detroit-Chicago runs, westbound, will stop in Pontiac at 1:12 p.m. and 5:06 p.m., arriving in Chicago at 6:15 p.m. and 9:10 p.m., respectively.

Eastbound, the trains will stop in Pontiac at 5:15 p.m. and 10:55 p.m. and 11:10 p.m., respectively.

Beginning Monday, the weekday commuter schedule is as follows:

- Leave Pontiac 6:35 a.m., arrive Detroit 7:30 a.m.
- Leave Pontiac 7:05 a.m., arrive Detroit 8 a.m.
- Leave Pontiac 7:35 a.m., arrive Detroit 8:30 a.m.
- Return:
- Leave Detroit 5 p.m., arrive Pontiac 6 p.m.
- Leave Detroit 5:30 p.m.; arrive Pontiac 6:30 p.m.
- Leave Detroit 6 p.m., arrive Pontiac 6:45 p.m.
- Leave Detroit 6:20 p.m., arrive Pontiac 7:05 p.m.

Scattered Flurries Possible in Area

There's a chance of a few brief scattered snow flurries again today, tomorrow night or Monday but no accumulation of snow is forecast.

Temperatures will hover around the freezing point tonight, according to the weatherman.

Here is the official U.S. Weather Bureau report for the weekend:

TOMORROW — Variable cloudiness. A chance of some snow at night. A little warmer.

MONDAY — Chance of snow and little warmer.

Precipitation probabilities in per cent are: Today 10, tonight near zero, tomorrow 10.

The mercury tumbled to a low of 32 at 8 a.m. today in downtown Pontiac. Morning sunshine brought the recording to near 37 at 1 p.m.

County Safety Unit Hears Report on Tire Stud Law

The county traffic safety committee yesterday heard a report on a new law on tire studs that will go into effect Wednesday.

Paul Riley, district traffic engineer for the State Highway department, said it will be legal, for the first time, to use the tires in Michigan between Nov. 1 and May 1.

He pointed a danger. If the tires are not put on the same wheels each year, the studs have a tendency to work loose. This means they could shoot out of a tire "like a bullet," Riley warned.

He said the highway department had urged use of the tires in spite of tests which showed they did cause added road wear. "We felt the advantages outweighed the bad effects," he said.

TRIPLE EFFECTIVE

The new tires would be important in this county because of conditions on roads during winter, and studded tires proved three to four times more effective than snow tires on ice and snow, he said.

The committee also passed a resolution urging a pedestrian overpass for N. Perry and Kenilworth in Pontiac in the vicinity of Madison Junior High and Northern High.

State Snows Break Records

By The Associated Press

Record-breaking snowfalls blanketed large areas of Lower Michigan today after causing death, power failures, property damage, traffic tie-ups and cancellation of dozens of high school football games.

A death reported as a result of the snow was that of Walter M. Daniel Jr.,

17, of Stevensville, killed yesterday when his car slid off a rain-swept, slushy road three miles south of St. Joseph and slammed broadside into a tree.

The snow set several records. Grand Rapids recorded 8.3 inches by late yesterday afternoon, setting marks for the city's heaviest 24-hour fall in October and the heaviest snowfall for so early in the season.

In Lansing, 7.5 inches fell from midnight Thursday to early last night, setting a new 24-hour record and monthly snowfall record. And in Muskegon, a 4.7-inch snowfall yesterday set another 24-hour record.

In Chesaning, south of Saginaw, an unofficial measurement of 10 inches was reported.

More snow was forecast today for the central Lower Peninsula, with accumulations to four inches.

Roads throughout the area were covered with slush. Scores of cars and trucks skidded into ditches, and police reported numerous accidents resulting in property damage.

Crash Hurts 2 in Waterford

Two Waterford Township drivers, Susan Drake, 20, of 200 Pontiac Lake and Harold Jarvis, 39, of 2851 Williams Lake, are in serious condition at Pontiac General Hospital today.

Miss Drake and her sister,nette, 1½, were driving east on Williams Lake Road near Birmingham in Waterford township at 11:03 yesterday morning when hit by a pickup truck driven by Jarvis, according to township police.

Jarvis apparently came around a curve headed west, a control of his vehicle and slid sliding sideways, police said.

School Addition Open to Public

JRCHARD LAKE — The new age of Our Lady of Refuge elementary School will be open to parishioners and the public tomorrow after each Mass.

The addition to the school at 30 Commerce includes a library now holding 6,000 books, teachers' lounge, and a large purpose room to be used as science laboratory, art room and classrooms. The wing, completed by parishioners, was completed yesterday.

Blues to Boost Hospital Rates

LANSING (AP) — The State Insurance Department announced Friday approval of a 4.5 per cent increase in the basic rate schedule for Michigan Blue Cross hospital service. Senior citizens contracts will remain the same, the department said.

The new basic rate will go into effect Jan. 1 for Blue Cross. Commissioner David Dykhouse said the increase will take a full year to affect the base rate of all groups insured.

Dykhouse said the increase was caused by a trend of constantly increasing costs for health care. Blue Shield medical service only asked for approval of the same basic rate schedule currently in effect, Dykhouse said.

"The financial positions of both health care organizations must be projected well in advance," Dykhouse said of the action.

$12,000 Blaze Hits in Waterford

A fire yesterday at the home of Eileen C. Garrett of 6848 Brightwood Court, Waterford Township, caused an estimated $8,000 damage to the building, according to Waterford Township Fire Department.

The blaze, which started around 5:14 p.m. also caused some $4,000 damage to property. The cause is being investigated.

Police on Lookout for Stolen Checks

Pontiac police city merchants today to be on the lookout for two men believed to be passing stolen payroll checks in this area.

Capt. Charles Gale said two checks have been cashed in the area. The checks were for amounts in the neighborhood of $200 each.

The checks, numbered from 016406 to 017000, were stolen from the Ingalls Iron Works Co. in Birmingham, Ala.

They are drawn on an account of the Exchange Security Bank of Birmingham, Ala.

Home. Rosary is 7:30 p.m. tomorrow at the funeral home.

Mrs. Rodriguez died yesterday.

Gov. Reagan Does It Again

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — It happened again: Gov. Ronald Reagan got someone else's message.

This time it was a letter from Florida Gov. Claude Kirk's extradition secretary to Michigan's George Romney asking extradition of a prisoner to Titusville, Fla.

The letter came addressed to Reagan and presumably there was another one intended for Reagan which went to Romney. Both are considered potential candidates for the Republican presidential nomination.

During the recent National Governors Conference, a confidential White House message, concerning the conference's debate on Vietnam policy, wound up in Reagan's hands.

2 Women Injured in Area Auto Crash

Kathleen A. Garry of 576 Pike in satisfactory condition and Mrs. Ann Sims of Highland Park is in fair condition at St. Joseph's Hospital after being injured in an auto accident in Bloomfield Township at 5:14 p.m. yesterday.

Miss Carry, 21, apparently hit a waterhole while driving south on Telegraph near West Quarter, according to Bloomfield Township police.

She apparently lost control of the car and crossed over the median hitting a northbound car driven by Brooks Newton Jr., 61, of 28 S. Anderson, police added.

Newton was treated and released. Mrs. Sims was a passenger in his car.

CLIMBING WHEELCHAIR—Invented by Swedish physician Dr. Per Udden (left), a curb-climbing wheelchair is demonstrated by Countess Marianne Bernadotte of Sweden. The countess presented the wheelchair to America as a gift and token of good will from Technical Aids for the Handicapped, a nonprofit Swedish foundation that develops new technical aids for handicapped people.

Count Basie Finds He's Counted Out

HENDERSON, Ky. (AP) — Count Basie and his 16-member band arrived Friday for a scheduled performance only to discover it had been canceled the night before.

Local promoter Harry Brearley said few tickets were sold because Henderson and Daviess County played a high school football game Friday night, the Gaslight Players opened "Everybody Loves Opal," the movie "Sound of Music" opened Thursday, and several civic groups held Halloween parties. "It's all an unfortunate happening," Brearley said.

Basie left after two hours and said, "My agency's taking care of this in any legal way it can."

Child-Cruelty Hearing Will Be Resumed

The preliminary court hearing for an independent Township man and woman charged with cruelty to children will resume Nov. 15 before Waterford Township Justice of the Peace Kenneth Hempstead.

The hearing was adjourned yesterday until that time when the prosecution will end its case against Paul M. Maczeko, 57, and his housekeeper, Mrs. Florence Lewis, 29, both of 9052 Ortonville.

They are accused of cruelty involving four of Mrs. Lewis' five children, one of whom has testified that he was chained to a brother by Maczeko.

Yesterday, Detective Max Little of the Michigan State Police, who is in charge of the case, testified that Mrs. Lewis had knowledge of the chaining.

Following the hearing, Hempstead will determine if there is sufficient evidence to bind the case over to Circuit Court for trial.

Pontiac Boy Struck by Car

A 7-year-old Pontiac boy is in fair condition at Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital after being struck by a car yesterday afternoon on Auburn at Russell.

The youngster was identified by police as Michael O. Sullivan of 38 S. Astor.

The driver, Curtis B. Carnes, 26, of 71 Hillfield, told police he skidded into the boy when he stepped on the brake to avoid hitting him.

News in Brief

Two business machines with a total value of $100 were stolen in a break-in of the Oakland Chemical Co., 774 Woodward, it was reported to Pontiac police yesterday.

Reflections

THE START OF FUNERALS

The other day a young boy asked me, "Where did funerals start?" This was a question I didn't know and couldn't find the answer to.

That night as I lay there thinking, the answer came like a bolt of light. The funerals we know today started on Christmas Day over 1900 years ago.

If the Christ Child had not come into the world then the funerals we hold would be only a mockery for it is only because this child came that the world thru Him might be saved. This gives us hope and assurance of life ever-lasting beyond the door of death.
