CHEMICAL FIRE—Thick smoke interspersed with bursts of flame billows from a chemical company plant at Kansas City. Two men are reported dead, and five injured in the spectacular blaze. It is believed the fire started with an explosion in a tank of weed killer.

Kansas City Blast Kills 2, Injures 5

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP)—A chemical tank containing a weed killer exploded early today. Two men were missing and presumed to be dead. Five others, including a fireman, were injured.

Great clouds of black smoke rolled from the scene near the Kansas-Missouri state line over downtown Kansas City, Mo., five miles away.

Intense heat hampered efforts to determine what set off the blasts and whether there were any casualties.

The plant is owned by Thompson-Haward Chemical Co.

For a time the fire threatened to spread to half a dozen other tanks, but after two and one-half hours firemen reported the fire was "contained," but would have to burn itself out.

First reports said there were four blasts. Motorists driving to work heard one deep, thunderous explosion about 6:45 a.m.

Firefighting and other emergency equipment converged on the scene. So did hundreds of spectators.

A fire department dispatcher said that "it is a two-alarmer; that means extra equipment is needed."

One of the first newsmen at the scene said he could not get close because of the heat.

The newsmen said it appeared 10 to 12 large storage tanks were ablaze.

The blast leveled a block-long concrete building and toppled a tall smoke stack. At least seven chemical tanks were destroyed and another half dozen were threatened.

WINDOWS SHATTERED

Windows were shattered in a nearby flour mill, but this facility evidently was not in danger from the fire.

Firemen were concentrating on pouring water on the tanks not yet ablaze, and on the ruins of the building. They had reports that large amounts of high explosives were stored in one end of this structure which had not yet ignited.

The plant is on top of a high hill near Southwest boulevard an Greystone avenue, just across the Missouri-Kansas state line from 29th and Southwest boulevard, in Kansas City, Mo.

Police Escort Workers to Mill

Henderson Plant Quiet After Clashes, Gunfire Last Night

HENDERSON, N.C. (AP) — Police and state troopers, outnumbering pickets, escorted a full shift of workers to their jobs at the Harriet-Henderson Cotton Mills today after another outbreak of violence.

The quiet scene contrasted sharply with Wednesday night when second - shift workers met small arms fire, homemade flares and firecrackers.

About 250 pickets ignored a steady drizzle at the company's two plants to jeer and shout defiance at the departing workers.

One picket was struck in the arm by a .38 caliber bullet. Officers said he received first aid treatment at a hospital and was released.

An unidentified woman reportedly suffered a slight head wound from a shot or a steel pellet hurled from a slingshot. An officer said she was treated at the South Henderson plant dispensary.

Floodlights were beamed at the pickets as the workers, most of them in autos, were escorted through the plant gates by 100 highway patrolmen.

There were a few minor incidents reported during the night.

Two persons were arrested and charged with illegal discharge of firearms, and carrying concealed weapons.

The strikers were angered at the small number of jobs left available to them after the strike apparently was settled last week.

When only 30 strikers were taken back Monday, the striking Textile Workers Union of America said it had been misled as to the number of jobs available to its members.

Pet Baby Lion Mauls Child Who Came Too Close

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UPI)—A baby lion yesterday severely mauled a two-year-old boy. A laborer pried open the cub's jaws and rescued the child.

The pet six-month-old lion cub, chained to a fence post in an open area, clawed little John Alvin Cox when the boy wandered too close.

John Alvin suffered fang and claw wounds on the head, right ear, face and stomach.

He was rescued by George Templeton, 28, an employe of a trailer firm that owned the animal. He said he forced open the lion's jaws with his hands and kicked the lion away.

Senate Votes to Curb Power of Union Chiefs

Passes 'Bill of Rights' Amendment to Kennedy Bill by 1 Ballot

WASHINGTON (AP) — Their 47-46 victory in adding a major provision to the Kennedy labor bill strengthened today the drive of senators seeking further restrictions on the power of union leaders.

By the one-vote margin, the Senate wrote into the bill a requirement that union constitutions and by-laws must contain a series of provisions designed to assure the rights of individual members.

It sets up criminal penalties for any union leader violating those rights.

The Senate takes up today an amendment by Sen. Barry Goldwater (R-Ariz) designed to assure that such labor groups as Teamsters Union conferences are covered by provisions of the bill.

The amendment adopted Wednesday was sponsored by Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark), who called it a bill of rights for labor. Among other things it would guarantee union members freedom of speech and equal voting rights, and require membership approval of any dues increase.

The vote on the amendment was a setback for Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass), who has argued from the start that any major floor change in his measure would endanger its chances of getting through Congress.

Kennedy said the amendment was poorly drawn and would mean "the federal government's

State Senators Vote No

Dulles Designated Consultant on Policy

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower today formally designated ailing John Foster Dulles as a special consultant for foreign policy on the White House staff.

Eisenhower drove to Walter Reed Army Hospital to attend a formal swearing-in ceremony for his former secretary of state.

Eisenhower at the time set out no specific task for the 71-year-old former secretary. He asked Dulles "to serve in the future, to whatever extent your health will permit, as a consultant to me and the State Department in international affairs."

The White House post pays $20,000 a year, and carries Cabinet rank.

For Crying Out Loud!

LUMBERTON, N. C. (UPI)—Moddie Mae Oliver, 50, a blind negro woman, told the court yesterday during a damage suit hearing that she was expecting to give birth to her 33rd child. She said she has given birth to 32 children in 35 years of marriage.

Mild Weather Due to Continue in Pontiac Area

Partly cloudy and a low of 44 is the forecast for the Pontiac area tonight.

It also will be partly cloudy tomorrow with temperatures a little cooler and a chance of showers. Tomorrow's high is expected to be near 56, the weatherman said.

Today's light variable winds will become southwesterly and increase to 10-20 miles an hour tonight. Partly cloudy and cooler with showers likely is the outlook for Saturday.

The lowest temperature in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. was 41 degrees. At 2 p.m. the recording was 65.

Concord Prison Revolt Quelled

Troopers Move In With Riot Guns and Gas; Free 15 Hostages

CONCORD, Mass. (AP)—Five convicts seized 15 hostages and staged a desperate revolt Wednesday night at Concord Reformatory housing some of Massachusetts' worst criminals.

Prison officials said the quintet could not have hoped to escape, although a leader, kidnaper Charles Bull Martin, told the prison superintendent on an institution telephone: "We want out."

For four hours, they held the hostages—13 guards and two civilians—before surrendering meekly, their eyes swollen by tear gas.

★ ★ ★

Their chances of getting out, from the start, were nil. Lt. Col. John C. Blake, executive officer of the state police, heading an assault force of 125 troopers, said when asked if negotiations were considered:

"I never negotiate with anyone; we were here to get them out and restore order."

The troopers swarmed in with military precision, many wearing campaign ribbons. They were steel-helmeted, carried riot guns and wore bandoleers of cartridges and tear gas charges.

The issue never was in doubt.

The troopers drove the malcontents from the first to third floor of a wing of the prison, like soldiers assaulting pill boxes. They opened steel doors with acetylene torches and finally pushed the rebels into an area from which there could be neither escape nor retreat.

Surrenders were accepted only after the prisoners stripped naked. Then they were marched to secure quarters. One trooper displayed a kitchen paring knife which he took from one of the recalcitrants.

A pistol, with which Martin subjugated the hostages and marched them to the segregation section, was not immediately found.

Guard Frederick Bobola, one of the hostages, said Martin held the gun against him and pulled the trigger. "It looked to me like the end, but the gun failed to go off," Bobola said.

The reformatory once was used for youthful offenders, but several years ago its use was turned over to hardened adult criminals, including murderers. It is 18 miles from Boston.

The revolt came during a recreation period between 4 and 5 p.m., while some of the prisoners were playing baseball.

Accused of Murder

HELPED INTO JAIL — Near collapse, Mrs. Sue Lawrence, 32-year-old Berkley beautician, is helped into the Oakland County Jail this morning after arraignment on charge of first degree murder. She is accused of fatally shooting the wife of her former boy friend Saturday at the victim's home near Clarkston.

Murder Arraignment Held at Door of Car

Choked with emotion and near collapse, Mrs. Sue Lawrence, accused of murdering the wife of her former boy friend, was arraigned by Independence Township Justice of the Peace William H. Stamp while she sat in the front seat of a sheriff deputy's car.

Justice Stamp said court was set up in the basement of the Township Hall, but Mrs. Lawrence was "so emotionally upset" she could not get out of the car and come into the hall.

So Justice Stamp went out and stood beside the car with its doors open to conduct the session.

She is charged with first degree murder in the fatal shooting of Mrs. Donald Crenshaw of 6230 Snow Apple Dr., Independence Township.

EXAMINATION SET

Mrs. Lawrence, of 2652 Oxford St., Berkley, demanded examination. It was set for May 14 by Justice Stamp.

An attractive Pleasant Ridge beautician, she was released from St. Joseph Mercy Hospital at 4:30 p.m. yesterday where she had been a police prisoner since Saturday.

Treasurer Says Cash Is Lacking to Meet Wages

Legislature to Take Vote Today on Use of Veterans Fund

LANSING (AP) — State Treasurer Sanford A. Brown said today the state will have to delay its May 7 payroll unless cash is provided quickly.

Brown said he will notify the Legislature of this situation. The lawmakers are the ones who must find the money.

He said payments to counties due "almost any day now" for the state's share of poor relief costs also will have to be held up.

The development, the most ominous yet in the state's cash crisis, came as the Senate made ready for a showdown vote this afternoon on a bill to cash veterans trust fund securities.

Republican and Democratic leaders agreed there was serious doubt as to the outcome.

Brown said his message to the Senate would serve notice that "direct welfare and payrolls no longer can be met in time unless additional money from the veterans trust fund or some other source is made available by the Legislature."

Asked if this meant the $5,200,000 state payroll would be skipped May 7, giving the state its first taste of long-threatened payless paydays, Brown said, "I would prefer to say delayed."

UNIVERSITIES ASSURED

He reiterated a promise that sufficient monies will be disbursed to the University of Michigan and Michigan State University to meet imminent payrolls.

As much as five million dollars might be required for this purpose. The next MSU payroll falls due April 30. Philip J. May, an MSU vice president, said the university presently lacks the wherewithal to meet it.

The state's 32,000 employes received their regular bi-weekly paychecks on schedule today, possibly for the last time until a cash emergency solution is found.

ONLY POOR RELIEF

Brown made clear that the threatened cessation in welfare payments involved only poor relief. The state's share in this program came to about four million dollars last month.

It would not apply, he said, to the so-called categorical programs in which there is financial participation by the federal government—old age assistance and aid to the needy, blind, disabled and dependent children.

As tension mounted in the capitol over deteriorating state finances, Gov. Williams said majority Republicans in the Senate must shoulder the blame if worse comes to worst.

As to the pending legislation for utilizing the 50-million-dollar veterans trust fund, he said:

"The Republicans have the power to pass this without a single Democratic vote. They have a tremendous responsibility. We will cooperate with them. They should not try to weasel out of it."

★ ★ ★

Williams had been asked at his news conference about reports that minority Democrats in the Senate were divided. There are 22 Republicans and 12 Democrats in the Senate, with 18 votes required to pass a bill. Williams continued:

"Their insistence on the Democrats standing firm while they do not is a position which the public certainly won't understand."

STAYS IN LANSING

The governor called off planned attendance at a "Princeton in Michigan" national conference today in Detroit to be present in Lansing when the critical Senate vote was taken.

The issue was whether to sell securities in the veterans trust fund with face value of 50 million dollars for 43 millions to pump badly needed cash into the state treasury.

The so-called Beadle plan called for restoring the body of the fund over seven years, starting in 1965. It represents a Republican substitute for Gov. Williams, trust fund mortgaging plan approved March 24 by the House.

Says Event Shows Michigan Means Business

State Promotion Group Views Launching

Michigan Industrial Ambassadors, a group dedicated to stimulating and promoting the growth of Michigan industrial and business economy, watched the 438-foot missile-carrying destroyer USS Henry B. Wilson slide down the ways at Bay City yesterday.

The launching was called "an excellent reminder to the rest of the United States that Michigan means business" by Merritt D. Hill, chairman of the Ambassadors' executive committee, and general manager of Ford Motor Company's Tractor and Implement Division.

Hill, of 965 E. Glengarry Circle, Bloomfield Township, spoke at a civic luncheon arranged by the Greater Bay City Chamber of Commerce and the Bay County Industrial Association.

Following an explanation of the background of the Ambassadors Corps, Hill cited several recent examples of industrial development and action by Michigan communities to attract new industry.

"Michigan," Hill said, "is now on the move and the Ambassadors will help keep it moving in the right direction."

Emphasizing that public approval and backing of the Ambassadors already has been clearly evidenced, Hill said: "It is extremely important that the Ambassadors know they are not a small band of men hemmed in by apathy or downright antagonism."

TIME FOR FRESH START

He declared that the point has been reached in the state's life and "possibly in its fight for survival as a progressive industrialized entity" where it is time to make a fresh start, "mending our economic fences so that our industrial organizations won't want or need to slip through to 'greener' pastures."

The Ambassadors, Hill said, "believe that we can be at the spearhead of a movement to get all groups within the state reunited for the common purpose of the state's and its citizenry's good."

He emphasized that the Ambassadors, as an organization composed of men from both political parties, will not be engaging in political activity but "will work to promote the state's advantages as they exist and as they can be further developed by actions of the Legislature and the other branches of State government."

The Ambassadors' program, Hill said, will focus collective attention on the need of Michigan industries to be competitive in all respects, and it will attempt to get a better understanding and degree of cooperation between government, business and industry, the labor force and all the people in the state.

"What the Ambassadors must have as salesmen for this product known as Michigan is a responsiveness on the part of government officials to the need for a progressive course of action which will interest outsiders in locating industry in Michigan and will encourage the expansion of industry now here," Hill declared.

The program also will aim at obtaining greater diversification of industry and at encouraging research activities which will help bring in some of the "exotic" new growth industries. The Ambassadors will continue to stress Michigan's advantages as a place to live and bring up a family.

Saying that there can be no room for complacency by Michigan's residents while Michigan's name is being "widely used as a synonym for 'Potter's Field'," Hill said "we have the liveliest bunch of dead men I've ever met, and the richest bunch of paupers to be found anywhere."

To Spend $2,428,141 on Oakland Roads

A $2,428,141 summer road building and maintenance program—including the construction of three bridges—has been announced by the Oakland County Road Commission.

The work, of which $1,252,586 will be paid for from the county's share of the state gas and weight tax receipts, will involve 30 projects covering some 40 miles of roads.

Robert O. Felt, commissioner, said one of the largest projects in the program will be the $77,000 widening and surfacing of Eight Mile road between Napier road to to a point in Lyon township.

"The projects are selected by traffic counts and by the condition of the roads," Felt said.

One bridge to be constructed will be on Adams road between Hamlin and Crooks roads, another on Franklin road north of 14 Mile road, and the third on East Long Lake Road east of John R road.

Residents of the Birmingham area will have to wait awhile longer, Felt said, for the paving of Quarton road between Lahser and Woodward.

HELD UP BY SEWER

"A sewer project has held us up in the past," the commissioner said, "and now we're ready at least, to do a grading, ditching and an eight-inch gravel base job on the road."

Felt said he did not know if the eventual blacktopping of the Bordertine road would be on the Commission's 1960 program.

In the same section, the Commission has scheduled putting in right hand turning lanes off Long Lake road by the widening of the Long Lake road-Woodward avenue intersection.

Nearly four miles of Indianwood road between Baldwin and M24 will be widened to 22 feet and receive a concrete surfacing job under this year's program, Felt said.

He said the Road Commission has been able to proceed with all its scheduled projects after it learned that costs for repairing county roads after the annual spring breakup "wasn't anywhere as bad as we thought it was going to be."

About $1,175,555 of the program is being financed through federal aid. Cities where widening projects will be completed will also pay a share of the work, Felt said.

Senate Votes Curb on Union Leaders

reaching its hands into the internal affairs of unions in a completely unnecessary way."

But McClellan insisted his amendment would give needed protection to union members against thugs, racketeers and power-hungry leaders who, he said, were infiltrating more and more unions.

The amendment apparently would have been defeated if all of the Democratic votes had been on hand. Five senators were missing, all Democrats.

Of those, three were announced against the amendment—Paul H. Douglas (Ill), Theodore F. Green (RI) and Hubert H. Humphrey (Minn). Only one, A. Willis Robertson (Va) was announced for it. J. Allen Frear Jr. (Del) did not list a position.

A test run to check the political temperature of the West came to an abrupt end today for Sen. Hubert Humphrey (D-Minn) as he flew to Washington.

Humphrey, a potential Democratic presidential nominee in 1960, said he was going to seek reconsideration on the Senate floor today of the bill of rights written into the labor bill.

However, any hope Humphrey may have had of reversing approval of McClellan's amendment appeared to be doomed from the start. Backers of the amendment, intending to seal the vote, used a tabling device which Senate parliamentarian Charles L. Watkins said would require suspension of the rules to upset.

A two-thirds vote is necessary to suspend the rules, and the 47-46 vote for the amendment indicated that such a margin would be impossible to attain.

As it was, a coalition of Republicans and Southern Democrats put over the amendment. Voting for it were 32 Republicans and 15 Democrats, 13 of them Southerners. Opposed were 44 Democrats and 2 Republicans.

The victory was clinched with the help of Vice President Nixon. In a parliamentary maneuver to nail down the vote, the Senate tied 45-45 on a motion to table reconsideration of the 47-46 tally. Nixon broke the tie to carry the motion.

The seven rights covered in the successful amendment are: identical voting rights and equal protection of union rules, freedom of speech, freedom of assembly, freedom from arbitrary dues increases, protection of the right to sue, safeguards against improper disciplinary action, and inspection of membership lists.

This would be enforced by criminal penalties against any union officer who sought to interfere with them. The penalties could run up to a $10,000 fine and two years in prison.

Also, the secretary of labor would be empowered to use injunctions and other lawsuits to enforce them.

City Couple Lose Custody of Their Six Children

Six children of a Pontiac couple were made wards of the court yesterday by Probate Judge Arthur E. Moore after police officers testified they were living in utter filth.

The condition of the home was called "terrifying."

The youngsters range from one to seven years of age.

Police officers said that the house at 89½ S. Parke St. was "not fit for humans to live in."

The names of the parents were withheld by the court, Judge Moore said, so as not to embarrass the children.

Murder Charged to Mrs. Lawrence

In her story to Assistant Oakland County Prosecutor James E. Roberts, Mrs. Lawrence said she was shot as she grappled with Mrs. Crenshaw, who grabbed for the gun when she noticed it in Mrs. Lawrence's purse.

Mrs. Lawrence claims she had gone to the Crenshaws to pay them money they demanded under threat of causing her to lose custody of her son.

An envelope containing $500 was found at the Crenshaw home after the slaying, police said.

Prosecutor Fredrick C. Ziem, however, has said Mrs. Lawrence's claim that she was being blackmailed is only hearsay.

Tape Recording Firm at Charlotte Reopens

CHARLOTTE (AP) — Some 250 persons will go back to work here Monday when the newly organized Recordio Corp. begins operations at the old Wilcox-Gay plant.

The Day in Birmingham

City Workers' Pay Hike Included in New Budget

BIRMINGHAM — City Manager L. R. Gare's suggested budget for 1959-60 has been presented to commissioners and will be submitted for its first official discussion Monday night.

The budget totals $1,681,065, an increase of $53,547 over the year ending June 30. Gare points out that this increase includes a proposed 3 per cent salary increase for all city employes except department heads.

To meet the budget, a tax increase of two-tenths of a mill will be necessary, over the 19.4 now in effect, Gare said. The budget last year dropped from 19.6 to the present rate.

According to the city manager, budget increases over the past five years have been approximately $91,000 annually.

He explained the salary increase is not based on any rise in living costs, which have remained nearly constant here during the year.

"It is to acknowledge the excellent work being done in the various city departments and the splendid cooperation received from all employes," he said.

Commissioners will have approximately five weeks for their study of the budget. During this time they are expected to make their decision as to whether the manager's recommendations will remain stable, be increased or reduced.

Gare also said that to hold to the proposed 19.6 tax rate, it will be necessary to delete a number of worthwhile projects which department heads have recommended.

Police Lt. Robert Schaule said today that plans are being completed for an automobile safety check in Birmingham. The tentative dates selected are early in June, probably the first two weekends.

"We will not have a positive schedule until the several service clubs which have been invited to participate have been able to make their plans," Schaule concluded.

Brakes, lights, steering and other mechanical features will be tested. Windshield stickers will be placed on satisfactory vehicles.

Because of their popularity, classes on gardening and floral arrangements will be repeated by the Community House.

Miss Myra Showman, crafts and hobby director at the House, said today the first of five gardening classes will be held Monday from 9:30 to 11 a.m. at the House. Mrs. William Burlingame is the gardening teacher.

Mrs. F. B. Slawson will instruct the floral arrangement group Tuesdays from 9:30 to 11 a.m. The series of seven lessons will start May 5.

Area Man Shoots Self Accidentally

A 35-year-old Bloomfield Township man, Donald Sheppard of 3966 Oakland Dr. accidentally shot himself in the chest at about 6 p.m. yesterday while examining an "empty" gun, township police reported today.

His condition is reported as only "fair" this morning at William Beaumont Hospital, Royal Oak. The bullet angled downward and ruptured Sheppard's spleen which was removed by surgery last night.

Bloomfield Township Police Chief Norman Dehnke said Sheppard had gone into his bedroom to examine his .22-caliber automatic pistol.

He had removed the clip but had neglected to eject the cartridge from the firing chamber.

Dehnke said the shot was heard by Sheppard's mother, Mrs. Earl Sheppard who was in another room. She rushed in to find her son lying on the floor and immediately called the police.

★ ★ ★

The victim will be questioned further by police today, Dehnke said.

Chases Girl With Gun

DETROIT (AP)—Frank Carr, 42, former Navy petty officer, was put on probation Wednesday for two years for chasing his girl friend with a gun. Recorder's Judge Frank G. Schemanske also ordered him not to see the girl, Mary Humphrey, any more. Carr said he was only trying to make Miss Humphrey "listen" after they had had a spat.

Flint Answers Need in Science

School Program Aims at Developing Talent as Fast as Possible

FLINT (NEA) — This Michigan city has found a way to turn out scientists as fast as the Russians do—or faster.

It all begins in the second grade. Teachers watch for boys and girls whose hands are always up asking questions.

In the fourth grade, the science-talented youngsters are pulled from their classrooms one morning and an afternoon a week. They work in pairs on whatever they want—ionic propulsion of rockets, space stations, what makes milk go sour.

By the seventh grade they're in special science experimental classes a double period every other day. In the 10th grade, the junior scientists take a year of biology the first semester, a year of chemistry in the second. In the 11th grade they push through two years of history in one year.

These talented young men and women will finish high school half way in their senior year. Then they'll begin junior college classes in mathematics, science and English.

In the next few years, youngsters of the "genius" class will move ahead even faster in hurry-up studies. They'll finish their high school work in the 11th grade. Then they'll complete one year of junior college before they "graduate" from high school.

Plans are being made to enable every one of these talented youngsters to go to college, no matter how short of money he is.

Any boy or girl in Flint—whether classified as specially talented or not—can get as much science as he wants.

In elementary school, there are special science workshops one afternoon a week or on Saturdays. Anyone can join. These continue through junior and senior high school. There are special voluntary science workshops 10 weeks in the summer for students who want them.

For high school young men and women there's a special chemistry workshop two hours every Saturday morning, a chemistry and biology workshop every Tuesday evening and an electronics workshop every Wednesday evening. Cost: 10 weeks for $1.

Any student who shows an interest in science or in being a technician can secure a scholarship in the night school and complete at least the first two years of advanced training without cost.

It's too early yet to tell the results of the Flint experiment. But already some strange things have developed.

Hundreds of students are staying after school on their own time, and are coming back on Saturdays and in the summer to study science voluntarily and without school credit.

TO SEARCH FOR CARL BRADLEY — This is the 38-foot steel-hulled boat that will search for the Bradley Transportation Co. ship the Carl D. Bradley that sank in Lake Michigan last November. The vessel is equipped with electronic devices to aid in the search. Ice outside the harbor, however, has delayed starting the search. AP Wirephoto

New Teamsters Union Urged Upon AFL-CIO

NEW ORLEANS (UPI) — The Louisiana State Labor Council (AFL-CIO) passed a resolution yesterday calling for a new teamsters union to replace James Hoffa's Teamsters.

The state group charged the present Teamsters have not cleaned house and are raiding other AFL-CIO unions.

Women Solons File Bill

LANSING (AP)—Michigan's three women lawmakers have filed a bill to bar employers from paying men more than women if the work done is the same. Violators could be sent to jail for a year and fined $1,000. The measure comes from Democratic Reps. Josephine D. Hunsinger and Charline White both of Detroit, and Lucille McCullough of Dearborn.

Health Agency Change Nears

Williams' Bill Enters Final Legislative Step Before Approval

LANSING (AP) — Another element in Gov. Williams' seven-ply state government reorganization program now needs only House agreement to a minor amendment to clear the Legislature.

Final approval of the bill, which increases the size of the State Council of Health, would bring to five the number of reorganization proposals finally approved.

Of the two remaining, one appeared destined to die and the other to emerge on a guinea pig basis to test constitutionality of the executive reorganization act of 1958.

A bill to transfer warrant writing functions of the State Auditor General to the State Treasurer's Office is hung up — probably for good—in the Senate Appropriations Committee after passing the House.

A proposal to merge the State Board of Alcoholism into the State Health Department was likely to survive through failure of either the Senate or House to disapprove an executive order calling for the merger.

A challenge to the constitutionality of the executive order then would be taken to court.

Junior Citizen Learns Who's Boss at Home

LAFAYETTE, Ind. (AP) — An underprivileged junior citizen got a discouraging lesson in law from Sgt. William W. Saylor at the State Police post here.

"It's nice outside and my mother won't let me go out and play," the young caller told the sergeant: "Is it legal? Can she do it?"

Sgt. Saylor had to tell the young prisoner that mother was the law in that area.

Colorado Offers Williams Gold to Save State

LANSING (AP) — Gov. Williams has declined a joking offer by a pair of Colorado promoters to bail Michigan out of debt by putting it on the gold standard.

Kenneth C. Schneider and C. Neal Scruggs of Boulder, Colo., appeared at the governor's office yesterday to invite him to the Colorado Centennial celebration.

The pair, dressed like TV cowboys, presented a safe pass through Indian country and a quarter ounce "poke" of gold.

Michigan could have all this gold dust it wanted, they promised.

Williams expressed interest until he learned the poke came from mine discards assaying at only about three per cent gold.

Michigan would have to build its own smelter, transport the stuff, and millions of tons would be needed before even a dent in the state's money problems was realized, the governor was advised.

Candidate for Governor Slashed by Plane Prop

COLDWATER, Miss. (AP) — A campaigning Democratic candidate for governor was slashed on the chest from shoulder to waist when he walked into a spinning airplane propeller Wednesday night.

Ross Barnett, 60-year-old Jackson lawyer, was taken to a hospital at Memphis, 40 miles to the north. He was reported in fair condition.

Physicians said the propeller fractured numerous ribs, but apparently there was no damage to the lungs or heart.

DOWN SHE GOES — Throwing up a white plume of spray in the Bay City Defoe Shipbuilding Co. yards, the USS Henry B. Wilson, the nation's first guided missile destroyer slides into the water. The 4,500 ton ship is the largest warship ever built on the Great Lakes, and its size was possible because of the completion of the St. Lawrence seaway providing deeper passages to the Atlantic. Launched at Bay City

First Missile Destroyer Sails Lakes

By A. F. MAHAN JR.

BAY CITY (AP)—The hull of America's first missile-carrying destroyer rode in Great Lakes waters today.

The USS Henry B. Wilson, described by the Navy as "potentially the most powerful destroyer in the world," was launched in colorful ceremonies to the cheers of 7,000 persons here yesterday.

A sister ship of the 4,500-ton, 438-foot Wilson is scheduled to be launched today at Seattle. Thirteen such vessels are on order.

The Wilson is the largest warship ever built on the Great Lakes, and it will join the ocean-going fleet only because of the St. Lawrence Seaway, which gives a 27-foot deep outlet to sea.

Instead of traditional champagne, the vessel was christened with symbolic water—from the Great Lakes, the Eisenhower locks of the St. Lawrence Seaway and the Atlantic Ocean.

Not far from the launching stage stands the second of three sisters of the Wilson which the Defoe shipyards is building under a 68-million-dollar contract.

The Wilson will get her armament here and her shakedown in Lake Huron before delivery, via the seaway, at Boston in November 1960. The Wilson will carry the Navy's Tartar, a surface-to-air guided missile, to fight aircraft. Against submarines it will be armed with a still-secret rocket-assisted missile, and for surface fighting it will have rapid-firing five-inch guns.

Rear Adm. Edmund B. Taylor, commander of destroyer forces in the Atlantic Fleet, said it may be possible to fit the Wilson with ballistic missiles and described her anti-submarine equipment as "infinitely superior to anything that we have had in the fleet before."

Given a sufficient number of these destroyers, Taylor said, "the United States will be more than a match for the 500 Soviet submarines which presently pose a serious threat to our control of the seas and to our national security."

The Wilson, which will have air-conditioned living quarters for its 24 officers and 330 enlisted men, will get aluminum superstructure.

The Wilson not only is the largest warship ever built on the Great Lakes, it also is the first U.S. destroyer ever launched sideways. The 47-foot wide vessel hit the 80-foot wide slip into which it was launched with a tremendous splash.

Mrs. Patrick J. Hurley christened the missile-carrying destroyer. The ship is named for her father who was an admiral.

Her husband, also on hand, was secretary of war under President Herbert Hoover and ambassador under President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Mr. Hurley, a dashing figure as an Army general and a secretary of war, still is a colorful figure at 76.

Tall, he carries himself ramrod straight. A wide-brimmed, Western style hat tops his grey hair and he still wears a mustache.

An outspoken and a standout figure in his public life, which also included being ambassador to China, Hurley described himself yesterday merely as "Mrs. Hurley's husband." And he signed a hotel register "Mrs. Patrick Jay Hurley and husband."

Prosecutor Is Bound Over

Morals Case Against Leelanau Official Goes to Circuit Court

TRAVERSE CITY (AP)—Prosecutor Glenn Aylsworth of Leelanau County, has been ordered to appear in circuit court on a morals charge involving his 15-year-old foster daughter.

Aylsworth was bound over to the May term of circuit court yesterday by Justice of the Peace Clyde Hazzard after an examination. He was released in $3,000 bond. He is expected to be arraigned May 1 in the higher court.

Aylsworth, 34, father of four children, is accused on the complaint of a ward of the Grand Traverse Probate Court. The girl had been staying at the Aylsworth home as a foster child. The warrant against Aylsworth was ordered by Atty. Gen. Paul L. Adams.

The charges are statutory rape and indecent liberties. Aylsworth has denied them. He said the girl apparently complained in an attempt to retaliate against himself and his wife because they refused to let her see a boy friend of whom they disapproved.

Aylsworth has been serving his second term as prosecutor. Pending the outcome of the case, he has been replaced.

Retiring Fire Chief Deserves Our Thanks

Fire Chief JOHN F. SCHROEDER retired last night after nearly 48 years of continuous service for the City of Pontiac. In relinquishing his badge the Chief has established a service record that will be hard to top.

Interestingly enough, Chief SCHROEDER is not old in years. His long service stems from starting with the Pontiac Fire Department when he was only 19.

Probably no man in the City today could give such a complete history of Pontiac fires as the retiring chief. To stick to one job for 47 years is proof in itself that the man must have liked his work.

This was certainly the case with SCHROEDER, who was nicknamed "Night Owl" because of his desire to stay up waiting for fire alarms. The Chief was a man of action, happiest when the siren whistled and they were off on a new "challenge." The Chief referred to fires as presenting a new challenge.

★ ★ ★

Pontiac citizens should feel indebted to Chief Schroeder for his years of tireless service. The experience he gained and imparted to younger men in the department undoubtedly has contributed to Pontiac's outstanding Fire record.

In leaving City service for a well-deserved rest, we as citizens can only say, "Thanks for a job well done, Chief SCHROEDER."

Jews Begin Eight-Day Festival of Passover

Jewish families in Pontiac have begun observance of one of the most important celebrations on the Jewish calendar, the eight-day Festival of Passover.

Rituals in homes and synagogues commemorate the freeing of the ancient Hebrews from Egypt. The holiday's name comes from the Biblical account of the Angel of Death passing over the homes of the Israelites to strike down the first-born of Egypt.

The Hagadah, a special Passover prayer book read in Jewish homes, carries a message for people of all faiths. For it not only tells of the struggle for freedom but urges rededication to the principles of liberty.

To all our Jewish friends, a very happy Passover.

Detroit School Officials Utilizing Funds Wisely

Detroit's schools are setting an example the whole country can well copy.

The electorate showed great confidence in the officials by passing a tremendous 90 million dollar bond issue in the face of considerable unemployment. This took courage on the part of the voters. They should be warmly applauded.

Then the authorities responded in the same spirit by declaring there would be no frills and no gingerbread. They propose to utilize this vast sum of money to provide the maximum educational hours possible. We applaud that warmly, also.

Beautiful schools are a civic asset and a joy to behold. But there are times when we simply lack the money to proceed on that basis. Detroit's school authorities have proven strictly top level in accepting the huge sum of money in the spirit in which it was voted.

Fortunately for this area, we will have the opportunity to study the Detroit building program. Construction costs are tremendous. However, careful planning can conserve cash.

Evidence of this is Birmingham's Junior Senior High School under construction. Cost of the building has been put at $3,183,434 based on a unit cost of $13.28 per square foot. The school is planned for 2000 pupils.

This entire area should benefit from the research and study that will result from Detroit's $90 million program in the months ahead.

"ABRUPTLY quitting work at age 65 may be a bad thing," says the Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare. Well, yes—it may be almost as bad as continuing to work.

The Man About Town

Do Not Pick Them

Wild Flowers Now Given Protection of State Law

Pedestrian: A traffic hazard that too many drivers appear to be trying to eliminate.

The wild flowers are beginning to appear, and advance warning is given that it is illegal to pick them. They now are protected by state law.

This applies to the flowers on both private and public property, including roadsides, wooded lots and marshes. Such action was necessary in order to preserve them for future growth.

In many cases the law was not enacted in time. Many varieties that formerly spread glory in abundance now are practically extinct.

A tragic example is the lady slipper, commonly called the wild orchid. Formerly found on most of the low ground in the Pontiac area, it was picked by the bushel. Today I know of but two places in Oakland County where it grows, and that in very limited quantities.

Before the auto age (in the trolley era), Pontiac suburban electric lines ran special cars into the country, labeled "To the wild flowers," and people garnered them unmercifully.

Although he made only one hit Wednesday, and his team is making such a miserable showing,

There's Nothing Like an Ambitious Rookie

David Lawrence Says:

Herter Displays Tact and Skill

WASHINGTON—Secretary of State Herter passed with flying colors his first examination. He handled with tact and skill the discussion of current problems with members of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

LAWRENCE

He revealed, moreover, that he has learned well the complex issues of foreign policy as they relate to national defense. For he reflected accurately the decisions of the National Security Council and particularly stressed the same points that have recently been made to Congress by Defense Secretary McElroy.

Anyone reading the transcript of the hearing before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee that preceded the unanimous vote of the Senate itself, confirming the nomination of Herter to be secretary of state, must have been impressed with his agility as well as frankness in answering questions and, above all, with his basic knowledge of American foreign policy as developed in recent years by Secretary Dulles with the support of President Eisenhower.

First there was the question of how a war might break out. Senator Morse, Democrat, of Oregon asked:

"Let's assume that in the Berlin crisis, with the Russians buzzing American airplanes above the 10,000-foot level, that some trigger-happy Russian, either by orders or disobedience of orders or conceivably by accident, shot down one of those planes, would you consider that an act of war on the part of Russia against the United States?"

"Not necessarily, Senator," was the reply. "I think that there is always a factor of the accidental or incidental event that can take place through miscalculation, misjudgment on one side or another."

Secretary Herter added that he felt sure "the Russians are realistic enough" not to want nuclear war any more than we do.

Senator Morse said, however, he prays the Russians are realistic, too, but "sometimes we get a little discouraged when we realize that their leaders apparently don't pray, and in the absence of that kind of moral basis for their philosophy, sometimes I wonder whether we can rely upon their not following a warlike course of action under such circumstances."

Secretary Herter declared, in answer to another question, that, if the Russians did deliberately shoot down our planes, he would consider it "an overt act of war," and the facts would in due course be laid before the Congress for a discussion of whether a declaration of war should issue.

"The only reservation," he added, "that I would put on that would be if on the other side we had actually seen in the scopes (radar screen) attacking planes or missiles that would require instant retaliatory power on our part."

Secretary Herter stated that the President would be authorized to order the military forces to proceed with a nuclear war "if it were essential to our defense."

Herter exhibited also a detailed knowledge of what led up to the current crisis over Berlin and showed sympathy for the idea of letting the United Nations take up the problem if the forthcoming foreign ministers' conference does not reach tangible results and if some good purpose could be served by further explorations through the efforts of the secretary-general of the U.N.

Altogether, it was a creditable performance for Secretary Herter and one that won the confidence of the members of Congress, where he is personally known to many senators because he served in the House with them for several years. They all joined in tributes to him, and it does look as if the new secretary will get along well with congressional committees.

Dr. William Brady Says:

Milk Is Still the Best for Children and Adults

On or about Feb. 22 a piece by a science writer was printed in newspapers far and wide under a variety of titles, such as "Alcohol Is Better than Milk for Oldsters," "Liquor Better for Adults than Milk, Scientist Says," "Bones Creak? Get Oiled" and "U.C. Doctor Blasts 'Milk' Philosophy."

DR. BRADY

In the last week of February and the first week of March about 280 readers sent me clippings of the various versions of the piece that was printed in their local papers.

Some asked for my opinion. Some urged me to get in there and fight—they assured me they'd hide in the bushes and hold my coat. And a score or more merely remarked that the U. C. research, bone or arthritis specialist evidently sides with 19th Century notions of the function of calcium.

One version of the U. C. doctor's piece—the one titled "U. C. Doctor Blasts 'Milk' Philosophy" begins thus:

"Milk can make young Johnny strong, but it may cripple his father."

What amazes me is that a university lends its prestige to such condemnation of the most nearly perfect health food and to recommendation, by inference, of the use of a narcotic, alcohol, by mature adults.

WHY SO SILENT?

What makes me sick at heart, concerning the future welfare of the country, is the frightening silence of the dairy people—perhaps they don't practice what they preach and so haven't what it takes.

It is my conviction, based on the newer knowledge of nutrition and 20th Century advances in physiology and pathology, that calcium deficiency, more widespread today than any other type of malnutrition, accounts for the wishy-washy character or lack of character that makes so many young Americans "chicken."

I am assured by the testimony of thousands of readers who have followed my advice about high calcium diet and/or supplementing the ordinary diet with a good daily ration of calcum and vitamin D, that calcium not only steadies the nerves and tones the heart but is a natural analgesic and tranquilizer besides.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Parents of Eight Believe Sales Tax to Be Fairest

I cannot understand the reasoning of Just Another Thinker. We raised a family of eight children and never felt pinched by the three-cent sales tax. We did by other taxes!

★ ★ ★

Collecting the one extra cent tax will not add to the cost of collecting, for it will be collected by the same people who are now collecting the three-cent tax. Anyone who has a dollar to spend will pay four cents out of it instead of three cents. The extra tax expense to a person earning $5,000 a year would be $50 and the person earning $20,000 would pay $200 more.

All out-of-state visitors and tourists would also pay it. It's the fairest of all taxes for those who have a dollar to spend.

Instead, she should have prodded his daddy to personally have fortified Teddy to meet the emergency when the river bank caved in. So send for the basic "Tests for Good Parents" named below and use them.

By Dr. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE B-416: Teddy J., aged 11, was a sheltered youngster.

"But he coaxed us to let him go on a hiking trip," his mother informed me, with tears in her eyes.

★ ★ ★

"He and his pals were walking along a river when the bank caved in and dropped three boys into the water.

DR. CRANE

"Well, Teddy couldn't swim, so he went down and before his comrades knew what was happening, he was drowned.

"Oh, Dr. Crane, I shall never forgive myself for letting him go on that hike!

"Teddy would be alive today if I had insisted that he stay home."

PARENTS, BEWARE

Teddy's mother did the right thing by letting him take the hike.

But she did the wrong thing in earlier years by not insisting that Teddy learn how to swim! Teddy's father should have done this, or else have farmed out the chore to the YMCA or some other helpful organization.

Drownings are far more frequent than you may think. For example, you know the terrific death toll on our auto highways over holiday weekends.

But do you realize that drownings are the second most common cause of death at such times?

Here in supposedly civilized America, millions of kids still can't swim!

It is a paradox that we fret about satellite and rockets to the moon, while ignoring practical, "horse sense" matters that could save lives of thousands of our people.

On the three major summer holidays last year, namely, Memorial Day, July 4th, and Labor Day, the auto traffic death toll reached 1,161, according to our National Safety Council figures.

Meanwhile, 438 drownings occurred! That means almost 38 per cent as many people died in the water as were killed on auto highways.

Fathers, take stock of yourself by the test below, which awards you special credit for teaching your children how to swim. As a rule, you don't need to be able to swim far to save your life when a canoe upsets or you step into deep water.

Often, it is a matter of only 5 or 6 strokes and you can get back to the overturned boat or shallower water.

But inability to swim even those 5 or 6 strokes levies a terrible death toll each year. And it is entirely unnecessary! That's what makes it so tragic.

In auto deaths, sometimes good drivers are struck by drunken motorists so their death is not due to their own faulty driving.

But drownings are usually due to a deficiency in the victim's habits. Dads, if you want to feel better on next Father's Day, then be sure your children can swim.

Also, teach them how to stop bleeding by pressure or a tourniquet. Show them how to give artificial respiration, both for near-drowning cases, as well as to people struck by lightning or shocked by a live wire.

Show them how to make a picnic fire and also cover that fire at the end of their outing so they will not set a forest aflame.

For other "horse sense" principles of parental psychology, send for the 200-point "Tests for Good Parents," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents (nonprofit).

Teddy's death shows he was not adequately prepared for life's problems.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 4c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

State Tax Study Critics Blasted

Store and Industry Groups Said Trying to Sabotage Report

LANSING (AP)—The Michigan Manufacturers' Assn. and the Michigan Retailers Assn. today stood accused of "attempts to sabotage and discredit" a much publicized citizen study of Michigan's tax structure.

Rep. Rollo G. Conlin (R-Tipton), chairman of the House Taxation Committee, leveled the charge yesterday in a statement read on the House floor.

Both organizations, he said, inaccurately "cast doubt on the validity of an economic study that is based upon the best available data which has been prepared by highly competent men."

Conlin appointed the 23-man committee last year to study the tax structure and recommend changes. Except for three dissenters, the committee proposed a graduated income tax, among other changes, to meet the state's long-range need for new revenue.

Conlin was aroused by wide publicity the MMA and retailers group gave to a statement by H. G. Ferris, Saginaw businessman, purporting to turn up a major flaw in the tax study.

Ferris, questioning statistics compiled by the study committee's staff, cited figures showing persons earning less than $2,000 a year paid 18 million dollars in sales taxes.

At the 3 per cent rate, he said, their income would total about 600 million dollars. In reality, it amounts to about 368 million dollars.

Thus, said Richard Cook, an official of the retailers association, the committee's figures were "inflated by perhaps 200 per cent." The "misleading and distorted" figures, he said, "cast doubt on validity of the entire study."

Using the same figures, John C. McCurry, MMA general manager, assailed the report as "statistical hogwash."

Professor to Speak at St. Joseph Hospital

Dr. Samuel J. Behrman, associate professor of obstetrics and gynecology at the University of Michigan, will speak before medical staff and residents of St. Joseph Mercy Hospital Friday noon on "Habitual Abortion."

Dr. Behrman's visit is a part of the U. of M. affiliation program under the direction of Harry A. Towsley, M.D., associate director, Department of Postgraduate Medicine at the U. of M.

PROPOSED COUNTY SEAL — This is the proposed seal for Oakland County. If approved Monday by the Board of Supervisors, it will become the county's official insignia. Its symbol will be the oak tree in the center.

Ready New County Seal With Oak Tree in Center

Oakland County has decided to dress up its ancient and great seal.

Officials are suggesting that a big, beautiful white oak tree be "planted" in the center of the present seal which is impressed on all official documents.

If the Board of Supervisors passes on the new seal Monday, the oak tree would become the county's official symbol.

"It's a natural," explained Daniel T. Murphy Jr., county clerk-register, who said the old seal has become so worn out it's barely readable. He said the oak tree was picked from the word Oak-land.

The old seal had the word "seal" in its center for lack of something better to be put there. So Murphy has decided on the tree.

He put the Planning Commission to work to find a perfect oak tree.

"We searched high and low throughout the county but each oak we came up with we discarded because it wasn't a perfect enough shape for the center of the seal," explained George N. Skrubb, commission director.

"We've had oak trees up to the elbows," he said.

So Skrubb sent Clayton S. Tibbals, engineering aide, over to the Pontiac City Library to comb through a batch of horticulture books. Tibbals ran across a plate of a white oak tree. He snapped a picture of it.

County officials, however, probably will never know whether the white oak selected did or still does exist in Oakland County.

Some supervisors don't even believe it's an oak tree.

"It's an elm right from the heart of man's country—West Bloomfield," said Hiland M. Thatcher, Board of Supervisors vice chairman, proudly.

"After we got this picture," Skrubb said, "we received another scare. Somebody said it looked like a head of cauliflower."

Cauliflower or oak tree, Oakland County has got a new and more attractive seal.

Thor Missile Fired With Data Capsule

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—A Thor ballistic missile shot aloft today reportedly carrying a tiny data capsule the Air Force hopes to recover from the Atlantic depths.

The capsule, set to pop out near the end of the Thor's journey, carries a report of the missile's performance. It was not known whether an announcement would be made on the recovery efforts.

Fired on a 1,500-mile mission, the powerful 65-foot rcket was hurled skyward on what appeared to be a perfect launching at 12:30 a.m.

It was the 28th firing of the versatile Thor, the intermediate range ballistic missie which is both a war weapon and a booster for space probes.

Col. Platt Gets Punishment

Bumping 7 GIs Costs Him Command, $340 Fine, Reprimand

TOKYO (AP)—The bumping of seven GIs from a military plane so he could take his family on vacation to Hawaii cost Lt. Col. Charles Platt Jr. his command and a $340 fine today.

The U.S. Air Force said that Platt, who had pleaded he was the victim of an administrative mixup in the March 26 incident, accepted the punishment meted out by his commanding officer without demanding a trial by court-martial.

The 49-year-old Brooklyn, N.Y., officer was commander of the big passenger terminal at Tachikawa air base west of Tokyo. He was reprimanded and assigned to new duties. The Air Force did not announce his new job.

Platt's punishment was ordered by Brig. Gen. Paul L. Barton of Rutland, Vt., commander of the Northern Air Material Command in the Pacific.

Platt was not available for comment.

The $340 fine imposed on him was half a month's pay, the maximum permitted without a trial.

Lt. Gen. Robert W. Burns, U.S. military comander in Japan, became a hero in the eyes of enlisted men for intervening on behalf of the bumped GIs.

TAKEN OFF PLANE

The seven enlisted men were hurrying on priority orders to sick or dying relatives in the United States when they were taken off a military plane. Platt, his wife and four children boarded it for a vacation flight to Hawaii.

One of the bumped GIs telephoned Burns. The general ordered the airborne plane back, yanked off the colonel and his family and gave six of the enlisted men the Platts' seats. The seventh had left the airport and flew home the next day.

An Air Force investigating board cleared Platt of direct blame for the bumping and said it was due to an administrative error. But Platt's "actions contributed to the confusion which caused the administrative error."

Apparently this is what happened:

The lieutenant colonel and his family arrived without advance notice at the air terminal, which he commanded. The station personnel, in their excited efforts to please their commanding officer, ordered the seven enlisted men off the plane to make room for the Platts. A check later showed that there was room for all, and the plane actually took off with eight empty seats.

★ ★ ★

The incident did not become public until days later after the enlisted men had already arrived in the United States. The men said Platt had cold-shouldered their appeals for help.

Five GM Scholarships Given MSU Students

EAST LANSING (AP)—Three Michigan students were among five winners of General Motors Corp. scholarships to Michigan State University announced today by MSU President John A. Hannah.

The scholarships range from $800 to $2,800, depending on the amount needed for educational expenses. They are renewable for three years if the students maintain B-plus averages.

Michigan winners were David W. Pumplin of Wyandotte, Gary D. Steinman of Flint and Thomas N. Tucker of Midland.

The other two winners were Thomas D. Cosgeren of Lawrence, Mass., and William W. Davolt of Milwaukee, Wis.

Hal Boyle Says:

Success Elusive?—Try Standing on Head!

NEW YORK (AP)—There's a new way for the tired businessman to get rid of nagging tension. He can stand on his head—yep, right in his own office.

This upside down posture might even clear his thinking, and help him close a million-dollar business deal.

Head standing in the modern American office as a quick way to relax is not a visionary dream. It is being done.

★ ★ ★

Two of the leading exponents of this form of office exercise are Hugo Peretti, 41, and Luigi Creatore, 37, two of the brightest geniuses in the music recording field.

"I can cure a blinding headache in five minutes by standing on my head," boasted Hugo.

He is a reformed trumpet player. His partner, Luigi, is a former free lance writer. Both have a special talent for finding and developing new recording stars.

It is a nerve-wracking industry, and its strains often drive the men in it to ulcers or the psychiatrist's couch—or both. Some time ago both Peretti and Creatore felt the pressures were getting them down.

"Then we heard of yoga, the Hindu system of mental and body discipline," Hugo said. "We decided it was worth a try."

Since then they have tossed away the tranquilizing pills, they say.

When the tensions of a fast-paced day begin to turn their nerves to twanging banjo strings, they simpy shut the door, turn off the phone, go to a small gym they have outfitted behind their office and practice their yoga exercises.

"The exercises are designed to bring you mental relaxation and improve your posture," explained Hugo.

Luigi usually does the head stand, because he is better at it. Hugo's favorite is the lion pose.

"In this," said Hugo, "you kneel, then sit back on your haunches like a lion. Your hands are stretched out past your knees. You let your tongue hang out, your eyes bulge—and then you stretch every muscle in your body, let them relax, then stretch them again."

Secretaries were at first unnerved when they entered the gym and saw Hugo, his eyes bulging, making like a lion. But in the music world you soon get used to anything.

In another favorite yoga position the partners simply stretch out on the floor and try as hard as possible, said Luigi, "to look like a piece of raw liver."

"After five to 15 minutes of these exercises," said Hugo, "we jump up completely refreshed. We are good then for another 10 hours of work."

Once a week the boys visit their guru, or yoga teacher, for an hour of advanced instruction.

The partners have taken considerable ribbing from friends. But they think the benefits in their own case have shown any worried executive might improve his health by a little judicious head sanding.

"You don't really need any equipment," said Hugo. "Just the office rug.

Of course, the average secretary would be moved to wild laughter if she came into the boss's office and caught him standing on his head. But later, feeling the need for escape from tension, too, she might be moved to join him.

He has triumphed over all other animals, subdued many of the diseases that attack him, found ingenious ways to wrest his sustenance from the earth's crust—and multiplied.

In a relatively short span of time, man has increased his population to a peak of some 2,700,000,000, the National Geographic Society says. In 1959 and 1960, according to a recent estimate, another 100,000,000 human beings will arrive. And therein lies a problem.

"Explosion" is the word used by demographers, or population analysts, to describe the upsurge. It took about 200,000 years for the species to number 2,000,000,000 at mid-20th Century. Now it seems inevitable that the 4,000,000,0000-mark will be reached in merely 30 years.

The rampant rise is due not to higher birth rates but to a fantastic decline in death rates, especially in poor countries already teeming with people. Modern medical science, with its vaccines, inoculations, DDT, and wonder drugs, is helping the rich and poor alike to stave off disease, disability and early death.

If population grows at the present explosive rate, the world will have 6,000,000,000 mouths to feed by A. D. 2000. This hypothesis is made nightmarish by the fact that even today very few people in the world will ever feast upon what Americans consider an ordinary square meal.

"With the present rate of increase," states a United Nations report on population, "it can be calculated that in 600 years the number of human beings on earth will be such that there will be only one square meter (1.2 square yards) for each to live on. It goes without saying that this can never take place, something will happen to prevent it."

What will happen is a matter of speculation. The gloomy sociologist Malthus, in his pioneering population study of 1798, maintained that war, pestilence and disease were needed to check the human race. In the present situation, no such macabre prospects are offered. Hopefully, the 15-nation U. N. Population Commission is concentrating on the dilemma, and making the public starkly aware of the peril.

The world's major physical resources already have been brought into use. And the giant hand of industry is digging deeper and deeper into known supplies of water, fuel, minerals and other basic materials. Water shortages, in particular, are a worldwide problem.

Pessimistic demographers fear that man will multiply himself into universal poverty. The optimistic believe that production can keep pace with need: new sources of power to replace fossil fuels; new raw materials for industry; new techniques of agriculture and processing to provide more food.

World regions that can and do support enormous concentrations of people are crowded now. Moreover such favored areas are few and far between.

By present standards relatively few people were living in Christ's time, in all, perhaps 250,000,000. That is the present population of North America alone.

Like death and taxes, however, the population problem has haunted mankind since antiquity. Citizens of countless states have feared becoming too numerous to exist on the food available, too few to protect themselves.

Plato's Greece was threatened with overpopulation; several centuries later it was fretting about underpopulation. European countries were seriously concerned, after World War I, with the decline in births.

Package Tours Simplify Travel

Plans Are Available to Fit Big Variety of Vacation Ideas

NEW YORK (UPI)—"Package" tours can help make your "dream trip" come true.

Worked out by experienced tour operators, these tours assume for the traveler the problem of how to get from air or train terminal to hotel. They have a local representative at each stop to assist with any problems and they carefully plan a sightseeing program that will utilize available time to the fullest.

Another feature: you pay in advance. This eliminates doling out money along the way.

You can select a package tour to fit not only the time you have, the price you want to pay, the place you want to visit, but almost any hobby you want to pursue.

Another variation is possible in the choice of traveling companions. Some prefer to travel in a group, accompanied by an experienced guide to take care of details.

Another type of escorted tour is one in which the group gets a guide for each city, but travels to the different cities on its own.

Independent package tours also are available for those who prefer to travel alone, or with friends or family.

Travel agents can show you many different types of tour and help select the one you will enjoy the most.

They can advise about the best time of year to make certain trips, the kind of clothing to take, the immunization "shots" and travel documents required. It's their job to know all the answers.

Blasts 'North Americanization'

Labor Party Leader Stirring Up Brazilians

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP) —A labor party speaker brought a heavy fist down on the table and told a meeting of the Brazilian dockworkers' union.

"It has got to stop. The Brazilian people brush their teeth with North American toothpaste. They have North American light, North American refrigerators, automobiles and soft drinks. They see North American movies. In the end everything is North American"

The speaker was Eloi Dutra a member of Parliament. Sitting on the platform, nodding in agreement, was the man Dutra said could put a stop to it: Joao (Jango) Goulart, fiery vice president of this rich nation and leader of the powerful Labor party.

The dockworkers roared approval. Their president predicted 42-year-old Goulart would be the next president of the new popular Republic of Brazil—a government of the masses.

This kind of talk is echoing around Brazil these days — days when prices are up and wages are down, when it costs a housewife more than twice as much to put a meal on the table as it did a year ago.

BRAZILIAN ANGRY

The little people of Brazil are angry. Leftists, ultra-nationalists and Communists are eagerly pointing to the United States. There's the fault, they are saying.

Goulart is riding fast in the dust they are kicking up.

What Brazil needs, he said, is "a white revolution" — a fundamental change from the constitution on down.

A disciple of the late dictator Getulio Vargas, Goulart became vice president through a political deal with the Social Democrats. He agreed back in 1955 to swing his Labor party behind Juscelino Kubitchek for president if he could be vice president. The alliance, never smooth, is now almost broken.

NOT ENOUGH EXPORTS

Kubitschek has gone the way of industrialization and with that came less emphasis on agriculture. With it, too, came inflation. With U.S. dollars, Kubitschek purchased materials needed for industrialization. But Brazil could not export enough to keep a firm monetary balance. At home, prices shot upward and wages always trailed.

Last January and February living costs rocketed 14 per cent. Demonstrations, riots and strikes broke out. Kubitschek's popularity began diving.

Amid the shouting, Goulart slipped quietly off to his southern ranch and sat on his veranda while Kubitschek struggled in the heat of the economic battle.

Goulart returned to Rio in March and announced his party would launch a program to put the farmer and laborer back on their feet. He denounced Brazil's constitution as reactionary and hailed what he called the "legal and popular constitution" that was junked after Vargas' first downfall in 1945.

★ ★ ★

Goulart blamed Brazil's present troubles on foreign enterprises in Brazil (there are many besides the United States). They extract great profits from Brazilian toil, he said. He called for reforms in business, industry and agriculture but did not spell them out.

Japanese Pick Themselves as Outstanding

TOKYO (AP)— Japanese think they are the most outstanding people in the world.

They rate Germans second, Americans third and British fourth.

An agency of the Education Ministry sampled opinions of 3,600 men and women from every part of the nation.

One question was:

"From the following select one you think is the most outstanding: Japanese, Chinese, Koreans, Indians, South Pacific natives, Arabians, Jewish, Russians, Germans, French English, Americans."

Results: Japanese 57 per cent, Germans 52 per cent, Americans 47, British 31, Russians 20, French 17 and Chinese 9.

The first road race was held on Long Island in 1900.

Veterans Owning Homes Jointly Can Be Exempt

LANSING (AP) — Suppose two veterans entitled to property tax exemptions under the Veterans Homestead Exemption Act own a piece of property jointly.

Is each eligible for deductions and if so, can each apply for the maximum $2,000 deduction.

That all depends, said Atty. Gen. Paul L. Adams in an opinion asked by Joseph A. Renihan, Kent County prosecutor.

Qualified veterans or their widows owning real and personal property assessed at less than $7,500 are eligible for exemptions.

In case of joint ownership, $2,000 is the maximum deduction allowed for all parties, Adams said. In multiple dwelling units where ownership is separated, however, each eligible occupant is entitled to as much as $2,000 in exemptions, he said.

If one joint owner has property worth more than $7,500 and the other property worth less than that, only the latter is entitled to exemptions, but they may total as much as $2,000, Adams said.

WARNS MOTORISTS — This is how new General Motors experimental low frequency system can be used to warn or guide motorists. Patrolman at accident scene (upper left) records warning message on magnetic tape. Taped message (upper right) is inserted in transmitter which automatically broadcasts repeated warning message to all oncoming drivers, either through their car radio loudspeakers or through a portable hang-on unit shown beside driver's left ear in lower photo. Known as Hy-Com (highway communications), the system doesn't interfere with standard radio broadcast bands and, if necessary, the transmitters can be buried in the roadside with ferrite antennas above ground or underground wire loop antennas.

Unveils Safety Invention

Radio Device Can Caution Motorists

DETROIT (AP) — It's an eerie, fog-shrouded night and you're driving along with your radio silent.

★ ★ ★

You peer through your wet windshield, on constant lookout for traffic ahead.

Suddenly a phantom voice cuts through the gloom.

"Emergency northbound U.S. 12," it says. "Single lane traffic ahead."

You're not startled. Automatically you slow down and edge ahead. You're ready when you reach the single-lane area.

The phantom voice — a sort of electronic backseat driver — comes to you through a low frequency radio system. Still in the experimental stage, the system was designed by General Motors Research Laboratories to provide information and safety instructions to motorists.

It was demonstrated today at the research lab in suburban Warren by GM's Delco Radio Division.

There are two basic parts to the system. One is a low frequency transmitter spaced along the highway to give advice to passing drivers. The other is a transistorized receiver in the cars.

The car receiver can be either separate unit or combined with the car radio.

The instrument is named the hy-com and works even when the radio is switched off. A transmitter signal instantly turns on the radio's transistorized output stage and the message pours through the loudspeaker.

If the radio is on, the sound it muted while the driver gets the advisory from the roadside transmitter.

★ ★ ★

General Motors says its system works in the 10-20 kilocycle range, far away from regular broadcast bands. The highly controlled signal, transmitted through an electro-magnetic induction system, can be detected only in the vicinity of the transmitter antenna. The antenna can be above ground or looped and buried in the roadside.

Astronaut Won't Fly Over Russia

WASHINGTON (AP)—The orbit of America's first man in space won't go over the Soviet Union because the Soviet "might try to bring him down," a top space agency official says.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Hugh L. Dryden, deputy chief of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, told the House Space Committee Wednesday this was one of the reasons the flight path of Project Mercury is mapped to pass over Africa.

★ ★ ★

President Eisenhower signed a bill Wednesday authorizing an additional $48,453,000 for NASA. A little more than 20 millions of this earmarked for the man-in-space project.

Hoaxer Due in Court

CADILLAC (AP) — Dave Chulick, 17, Cadillac High School senior, was scheduled for arraignment in Recorders Court here Thursday on a breach - of - peace charge stemming from a bomb hoax telephone call to Cadillac High School last week.

Cuba's U.N. Role to Be Independent

NEW YORK (AP) — The new Cuban regime will be independent in the United Nations, Prime Minister Fidel Castro says, and its delegates will "vote for human rights" and not in line with blocs.

But Cuba will honor her international obligations, he adds.

Castro made the statements at a correspondents' luncheon during a three-hour visit to the United Nations Wednesday.

The Prime Minister's schedule today includes a call on Mayor Robert F. Wagner at City Hall and a talk at a luncheon being given in his honor by the Overseas Press Club.

Castro told the U.N. correspondents that free elections in Cuba can be held only after a "basis for true democracy" has been laid through a wide program of land reform and social and economic development.

During a question-and-answer period at the luncheon, Castro also said there are no Communists in his government.

He said the Cuban revolution which he led is "not for export" to other Latin-American nations. Revolution comes as a result of internal conditions, he added, but Cuba's example may be helpful.

Tot Dies Under Train

SAGINAW (AP) — William Kushmaul, 2, died under a Chesapeake & Ohio freight train Wednesday. The boy had wandered away from his home two blocks from the tracks in a north suburban area.

Sale of Cookbook Builds Endowment

CHICAGO (AP)—A cookbook is sending Swedish coeds to college.

The American Daughters of Sweden presented the University of Chicago with $16,000 toward a $30,000 endowment fund for scholarships for coeds of Swedish descent.

Most of the fund was raised from the sale of a 180-page cookbook containing recipes for 22 different ways to prepare herring as well as many other Swedish delicacies.

Old Gun Has History

ARDMORE, Okla. (AP)—Fifty years ago Buck Garrett, sheriff of Carter County, left a .45 revolver with Polk Anderson, then a bank president. The weapon still is on display at the bank. It last was fired Nov. 11, 1918 — the first World War Armistice.

Plush Carpet Vetoed at Milwaukee Church

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Members of Zion Evangelical and Reformed Church considered the use of carpeting in their new contemporary church, but the architect, William P. Wenzler, objected.

"The church places great demands and responsibility on its members," Wenzler said. "This fact is likely to be forgotten in a plush carpet atmosphere."

His view prevailed. The floors will remain bare.

Hot News for Watcher

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Mrs. Joan Miles was watching a house fire in her neighborhood when a passerby rushed up and told her that her own home was burning. Hastily recruiting a couple of firemen, Mrs. Miles ran home and supervised while a blazing window curtain was extinguished.

Even Experts Not Sure How to Say Hawaii

HONOLULU (AP)—Gov. William F. Quinn of Hawaii says he has tried without success to solve one of the most baffling problems of his administration — how to pronounce Hawaii.

★ ★ ★

Is it "Ha-vy-ee" or is it "Ha-wy-ee?"

★ ★ ★

"The experts," says Quinn, "don't agree themselves."

Hurt Hitchhiker Found; He Was in Good Hands

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Sam Weisenberg of San Diego hitched a ride with three men in a jeep during a hunting trip in Utah. He fell off the jeep and injured his back before he was introduced to the trio and learned they were all from San Diego.

But by then he felt quite secure. One was a doctor. Another was a priest. And the third was an undertaker.

Power Firm Soon Can Buy State Plot

LANSING (AP) — Only Senate agreement on a minor amendment stood in the way today of final legislative action on a bill to sell a state-owned site on Lake Erie to the Detroit Edison Co.

The House approved the measure 98-0 yesterday but amended it to require that the $12,000 to be paid for the property go into the game and fish protection fund. The Senate approved version would put the money in the general fund.

The site, adjacent to the new Enrico Fermi nuclear power plant in Monroe County, is needed for a water intake channel.

Also passed were bills making minor changes in commercial fishing regulations and requiring a minimum two year jail sentence for persons convicted of committing aggravated assault during an armed robbery.

First American woman surgeon was Clemence Harned Lozier of New York. Born during the War of 1812, she was 40 when she got her medical degree.

Could Ease Property Levies

Local Income Tax Posed

LANSING (AP) — The new local income tax bill before the Legislature opens the way for city fathers to offer property tax reduction bait in exchange for authority to exercise excise taxing powers.

It could be one of the most important features of the bill introduced yesterday by Sens. Clyde H. Geerlings (R-Holland) and Lewis G. Christman (R-Ann Arbor) as an answer to city and village revenue problems.

The maximum one per cent tax provided on personal, professional and business incomes could be levied only after referendum approval of a charter amendment.

But ingeniously, the bill would allow incorporation into a single proposed amendment, to be voted on as one question, the proposition of reducing the maximum rate under the general property tax.

Often before the Legislature has rejected bids by cities for expanded local taxing powers. The Geerlings-Christman bill was offered in behalf of the Michigan Municipal League.

Geerlings is firmly opposed to a state income tax, pointing up the competitive situation presented by proposals for levies on the same revenue base at two levels of government.

* * *

Under the city tax bill, sums raised through excises could not exceed the amount produced by property taxation, effectively limiting the amount of property tax relief that could be offered voters.

Cities and villages, with voter consent, could levy on salaries, wages, commissions and other compensation and income, as well as on net profits earned by persons, firms or corporations from business, professional and other activities.

* * *

They would be allowed to levy the tax on non residents for work done or services performed or rendered within the city, thus enabling city governments to tap fringe dwellers outside the corporate limits and beyond the reach of the city's property tax.

Church Slates Health Program

St. Joseph Altar Society Plans Cancer Detection Meeting April 29

LAKE ORION—The Rosary Altar Society of St. Joseph Catholic Church will conduct the final program in its current health series at 8 p.m. April 29 at St. Joseph Parochial School.

It will be a cancer detection program to be presented through the aid of Mrs. Harry Slater, chairman of the Orion area branch of the American Cancer Society.

The local church organization has previously sponsored a polio clinic and a TB skin-testing program.

Guest narrator at the April 29 meeting will be Dr. John Marra, pathologist at Pontiac General Hospital and chairman of the Oakland County Branch of the American Cancer Society. He will answer questions concerning cancer detection after his talk.

There also will be a display of materials and supplies from the cancer office in the Orion Township Hall.

This office is open every Tuesday and is staffed by volunteer women in the community. Mrs. Harold Sitzes, service manager, will present a resume of the volunteers' work.

A business meeting will follow the cancer detection program after which refreshments will be served by St. Jude Guild members.

Oxford Rotary to Hold Annual Minstrel Show

OXFORD — The Oxford Rotary Club will stage its annual Minstrel Show at 8 tonight and tomorrow night in the junior high school auditorium.

Show chairman Ralph Curtis said there will be the traditional black-faced chorus, end men and "Mr. Interlocutor" to be portrayed by Harold Pickford.

Singers and dancers will perform to the music of Fred Gillam and his seven-piece orchestra.

A special added attraction will be the appearance of "Elvis Pelvis" in a pantomime act. The "Oxford Original Ten Rockettes" will also be featured.

"Deacon Jones" is returning this year to perform a "much-needed" wedding, Curtis said.

Not Another One!

BOSBURY, England (UPI) — Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Presley have a new baby. They have named him Elvis, Mrs. Presley said. "He has a good strong pair of lungs already."

PREPARE CAMPSITE — The installation of a new well near Tamarack Lake in the Bald Mountain Recreation Area near Lake Orion is the first step before construction of two frontier cabins in the northern section of the park. Work on the cabins which will sleep some 22 persons each in built-in bunks is scheduled to begin May 1. Cleaning up around the well are from left, Clifford C. Rathbun, Park Manager William N. Rathburg (indicating cabins site) and Bernard F. Parker.

Set for Another Season at Bald Mountain Area

By LEE WINBORN

ORION TOWNSHIP — "We're ready for another season," William N. Rathburg, manager of Bald Mountain Recreation Area, said today.

Rathburg was directing his remark to area sportsmen who are looking forward to the fishing season which opens at midnight tomorrow. He said that the three trout streams and Bald Mountain Trout Pond (for fly fishing only) are well stocked with fish and ready for eager anglers.

Each stream has been stocked with about 250 legal-size trout and the fly pond with 1,000 fish in preparation for opening day. The streams are Trout Creek, Spring Creek and Paint Creek.

There are generally two more fish plantings a year, Rathburg said. The trout are reared at the Wolf Lake Hatchery in Kalamazoo and are placed in the Bald Mountain waters by personnel from the Drayton Plains Fish Hatchery.

Bald Mountain Recreation Area covers 2,406 acres on M24, southeast of Lake Orion. It takes advantage of natural scenic features to offer picnic sites which will accommodate 200 people at most in any one location.

The picturesque lakes and streams, dense woods, open groves and hills combine to make the area attractive to all who like to drive out in the country for a picnic or camp-out.

There is no established camp site, but Rathburg said he will find places for campers upon request.

One of the facilities for rough, primitive camping is designed primarily for Scout and other youth groups who have day-camp programs.

The camp area for these units is isolated from other conflicting activities, and troops can carry on their programs without interference. It is "excellent" Rathburg said, for hiking, mapping, signaling and nature study.

A new well has just been put in near Tamarack Lake in the northern section of the park. Its installation paves the way for construction of two frontier cabins on the site.

The cabins, which will sleep about 22 in built-in bunks, will be erected by inmate labor from Camp Pontiac, where a joint corrections-conservation program is conducted. The inmate crew will begin work on the cabins about May 1.

SHOOTING OFFERED

Other facilities offered by the Park are rifle and trap-shooting ranges. Use of all firearms in any other part of the recreation area is prohibited from April 1 to Sept. 30. Last year it was closed only to rifles and pistols, but so much damage was done by shotguns, they were added to the list this season.

Rathburg said that he is anticipating the establishment of bridle trails for horsemen in the area sometime soon.

"When the money becomes available," he added, "we have a program of development planned which also will include a 50-acre lake on Trout Creek with beach, camping and additional picnic facilities."

★ ★ ★

"We aim for a neat, clean and attractive park," Rathburg said. "And right now, during the high hazard fire period, we need everyone's cooperation to see that this natural habitat for all types of wild life is not ravaged by fire."

The area manager stated that 68 varieties of trees and shrubs, 22 different species of animals and 76 of birds may be found in this rural setting.

Noted Organist to Play Sunday at Romeo Church

ROMEO—Charles Webb, member of the Fred Waring Music Workshop staff, will be featured in an organ concert at 8 p.m. Sunday at the First Methodist Church.

Webb was minister of music at Oaklawn Methodist Church in Dallas Tex., before going to the University of Indiana to work on his doctorate in performing arts.

Cited as one of the most outstanding young musicians in the Southwest in a recent issue of a national magazine, Webb is a graduate of Southern Methodist University. After graduation he served as assistant dean of music there in addition to training the university choir.

He served two years as an Air Force officer, during which time he organized a glee club that toured the country giving special concerts and programs under Air Force auspices.

County Civil Defense Welfare Head Named

Emergency welfare services of the Civil Defense program have taken another step forward with the appointment of Dr. Leif Hougen, superintendent of West Bloomfield Schools, as chairman of the lodging branch committee for Oakland County.

A committee has been appointed to assist Dr. Hougen. Included are Cramer Partridge, president of the Pontiac Real Estate Board; Right Rev. Msgr. Eugene Paddock of Holy Name Church, Birmingham; Mrs. Virginia Warren, coordinator of emergency welfare services for Oakland County, acting ex-officio on the committee; and Peter Tarapata of Smith-Tarapata-McMahon, Birmingham architectural firm.

Also on the committee are Rev. Paul Durham of Royal Oak, Rabbi Milton Rosenbaum of Oak Park, Robert Stevens of Madison Heights, motel chairman, and Edwin Dreyer, amusement building chairman.

The committee will study proper allocation of space in buildings of all types for shelter purposes.

Sets Benefit Card Party

CLARKSTON — A benefit card party has been scheduled for 8 p.m. tomorrow by the Clarkston Elementary School Library Board at the school.

All proceeds from the event will be used to purchase new books and equipment for the school library, according to Board Chairman Mrs. Paul Hood.

Walled Lake Takes Steps Leading to Water System

WALLED LAKE—The possibility of a city-owned water system here is moving closer to realization.

The City Council is sending George Shaw, city manager, and Robert Zumstein of Civil Engineers, Inc. to Chicago in the near future to discuss financing a preliminary survey for a water system.

They will seek answers to final questions from the Housing and Home Finance Agency before submitting an application to the firm for a grant of $20,000.

The grant would be used for the preliminary survey. It would determine the actual cost of a water system and provide for maps showing the location of water mains and wells.

★ ★ ★

After the survey is completed, the council will place the facts before the residents to authorize financing the construction of a city-owned water system.

If approved at the polls, the grant for $20,900 would have to be paid under the stipulations of a Congressional Act governing such grants.

At the present time, only the Carole Acres and the Tri-A subdivisions have water systems installed. All other residents are dependent on private wells.

★ ★ ★

"The grant is being asked with the exception that as a result of the survey a water system will be established for the city," City Manager Shaw said.

ANN ELIZABETH BROWN

Wedding plans for June 27 are being made by Ann Elizabeth Brown and Joseph P. Seidel. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack R. Brown of 316 Highland Ave., Rochester and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. Paul Seidel of Columbus, Ohio.

4 Romeo High Students Win Music Scholarships

ROMEO — Three Romeo Community High School juniors and one senior have been named winners of Summer scholarships to the National Music Camp at Interlochen.

Junior winners are Mary Halliwell, 16, band; Robert Galan, 17, band; and Norman Davis, 17, chorus. The senior class winner was Raymond Ritter Jr., 18, a band member.

The announcement was made during intermission of the 14th annual Interlochen Scholarship Concert at the high school by Mrs. Robert A. Hutton, vice-president of the Romeo Monday Club, which sponsored the event.

Four alternates include two juniors, Linda Brown, 17, and Ronald Waschull, 16, both band members; and seniors Nancy Stenvig, 17, chorus; and Gary Shovan, 18, band.

Full scholarships were given by the Romeo Rotary Club, Hamill Manufacturing Co., and the Romeo Savings Bank.

Partial scholarships were donated by the Romeo Lions Club and the Romeo Book Club. The proceeds from the concert are added to the total which will provide the four and possibly five scholarships.

The concert featured the high school concert band led by E. C. Ojala and Mixed Chorus under the direction of C. Lynn Brown.

Mrs. Gray and her husband, Irvin, live at 111 W. Fourth St. She succeeds York who has been serving in that capacity in addition to his managerial duties for several years.

Will Meet at Avon Park

Rochester Music Group Plans Membership Drive

ROCHESTER — The Rochester Civic Music Assn. will launch plans for a membership drive at a dessert and coffee hour to be held at 7:30 p.m. next Thursday at the pavilion in Avon Park Robert B. Harris, campaign chairman, announced today.

At this meeting a Civic Music representative from New York City will speak to the group. He will supervise the local campaign which will include a house-to-house drive designed to see that all Rochester residents are contacted personally, Harris said.

Frank Irish, association president, said during the past season he has received a number of requests for tickets to individual performances.

★ ★ ★

He told inquirers that admittance to the concerts is by season ticket or by membership card in other Civic Music Assns. in the area only.

★ ★ ★

An exchange plan is in effect in communities with Civic Music Assns. which entitles any member of one association to attend any or all concerts in the other towns—all for the price of one membership.

The Waterford, Lapeer, Wayne and Trenton Civic Music Assns. all welcome Rochester members to their concerts.

Harris said the local association's goal for next year is to double the membership. He added that only artists of national and international reputation are engaged to appear.

Area Expected to Lose Federal Help on Sewers

On the State Water Resources Commission's April 30 agenda will be a report on legal problems Oakland County has encountered with drain construction.

Chairman Milton P. Adams said Oakland County and Detroit are expected to lose federal aid for building sewage disposal projects by failing to put certain projects under contract before the May 1 deadline.

Oakland Department of Public Works officials are waiting on an amendment to its 1957 DPW act which supposedly will finally clear the way for the construction of the $5,748,000 Farmington and $6,919,000 Evergreen intercepter sewer systems.

The Water Resources Commission, along with the Michigan Department of Health, had set up a timetable for Oakland County to relieve sewage problems, especially in the southern part of the county.

Drain officials are still awaiting the 12-Town Drain, snarled in the courts.

Brazil's population July 1 totaled 63,101,627, exceeding the 63,000,000 mark for the first time. Five states now have more than 4,000,000 inhabitants each.

May Charge Slayer's Sister

Prosecutor Thinks She Knew of Boy's Murder in Detroit

DETROIT (UPI)—Wayne County Prosecutor Samuel H. Olsen considered pressing charges against the sister of an escaped mental patient who strangled a five-year-old boy.

Authorities believed Hilda Ritola, 56, sister of George Ritola, 47, may have had knowledge that her brother killed Marvin Zdanowski and hid his body in the loft of a garage.

Ritola was arrested early Tuesday in his sister's apartment in the same building in which the Zdanowskis lived.

Olsen said he would take a formal statement from Miss Ritola today and would either let her go, charge her with harboring an escaped mental patient, charge her as an accessory to her brother's crime, or make her a principal in the murder.

★ ★ ★

Olsen talked yesterday with officials at the hospital in Galesburg, Ill., where her brother was confined until his escape last September. But he said the officials refused to discuss the matter on the telephone and he would withhold his decision concerning Miss Ritola until he received documents from the hospital.

Bradley Debris Found on Shore of High Island

CHARLEVOIX (AP)—A land search party has picked up debris of the sunken freighter Carl D. Bradley on Lake Michigan's High Island, including gear and life jackets.

A party from the Bradley Transportation Lines, operators of the freighter, found the material yesterday. The Bradley sank in a Lake Michigan storm last Nov. 18 with the loss of 33 of her crew of 35.

Both Bradley Lines, which sailed the ill-fated ship for U. S. Steel Corp.'s Michigan Limestone Division, and the Seafarers International Union plan to explore for the sunken hull.

The Bradley searchers planned to complete their examination of High Island today and also work on Trout and Garden Islands, depending on the weather. Ice has delayed a search by boat of the lake itself.

Four men of the Bradley search group examined the north and northwest shore of High Island yesterday.

They found two life jackets, nine oars and a seat from a lifeboat. They also found the keel of a lifeboat, two sea anchors, a man's cap, a sounding board, and parts of hatch battens.

Legislators Honor Request

Students Win Hold Up on Mackinac Trail Bill

LANSING (AP)—Never underestimate the power of school children where the Legislature is concerned.

The House bowed to the wishes of pupils from seven Saginaw schools yesterday and held up a vote on a bill to christen portions of U.S. 131 and U.S. 31 "The Mackinac Trail."

In telegrams to Rep. Robert S. Gilbert (R-Saginaw) and House Speaker Don R. Pears (R-Buchanan), the youngsters asked for a chance to study the measure before it becomes law.

★ ★ ★

The proposal stirred up a ruckus in the House last week on the location of the original Mackinac Trail. Gilbert said it originated in Saginaw and objected to transferring the designation to a western Michigan highway.

★ ★ ★

Proposed chiefly as a tourist attention-getter for the Straits of Mackinac, it would start at the Indiana border and run north through Kalamazoo, Grand Rapids, Cadillac and Petoskey, ending at the Straits.

The House okayed the bill, then agreed to reconsider it.

Not all lawmakers took kindly to the Saginaw school kids' request.

"This is amazing," said Rep. Frank D. Williams with a smile. "Just what do you suppose these children are going to tell us to do?"

Said Rep. Emil Peltz (R-Rogers City):

"I suggest western Michigan legislators get their students to send telegrams; then we'll have a real battle."

New York Study Finds More Malformed Near Radioactive Rock

GRANVILLE, N.Y. (AP) — "If there's anything to this thing of radioactive rocks and malformed babies, there's nothing we can do about it."

★ ★ ★

That's the reaction of mountain folk to a report that the radioactive rock that surrounds them may account for a higher-than-average rate of deformities in babies.

★ ★ ★

The New York State Health Department announced last week a researcher had found that, in areas of the state having surface radioactive rock, the malformation rate among infants was higher than elsewhere.

In this northern New York area near the Vermont line, Hebron and Argyle are on the list with a high rate.

★ ★ ★

"What's got to be has got to be —nothing we can do about it," Martin Warner, 21-year old farmer who has had a bad hip since childhood, commented to this reporter. He farms 400 acres in North Huron, where heavy slate and shale deposits bother his tractor more than they do him, although the rock is naturally radioactive.

★ ★ ★

Many people discount the study — "They didn't prove anything definite, did they?"

Others just shrug.

Advertising Bureau Re-Elects Publisher

NEW YORK (UP) — Louis A. Weil Jr., publisher of the Lafayette (Ind) Journal & Courier, has been re-elected to a second one-year term as chairman of the board of directors of the Bureau of Advertising, American Newspaper Publishers Assn.

The board yesterday also re-elected Russ Stewart, vice president and general manager of the Chicago Sun-Times, as vice-chairman.

United Press International Telepsetter circuits now operate in Belfast, the capital of Northern Ireland, is on land which an Englishman named Sir Arthur Chichester offered to sell for five pounds in 1603. There were no takers.

$4½ Million Supplement to State Budget Backed

LANSING (UP) — A total of $4,568,792 in additional appropriations to further supplement legislative budgeting for 1958-59 today bore the endorsement of the Senate Appropriations Committee.

Assuming final approval, the new batch of money will balloon general fund spending authorized for the current fiscal year from the $332500,000 okayed in the spring of 1958 to about 380 millions.

Nearly 43 million dollars beyond the original budget already has been voted by the 1959 Legislature for state school aid and welfare purposes.

Twenty one separate items were represented in the bill reported yesterday, including one million dollars for care of afflicted and crippled children and $1150,000 for veterans homestead tax exemptions.

The tax exemption money is to reimburse local governments for in effect discounting tax bills of disabled veterans with homes valued at under $7500.

The bill had an item of $400,000 to carry work on the new boys vocational school at Whitmore Lake through June 30, $400000 more for work on the new Plymouth State Home and Training School and $595000 to complete construction of the power plant at Kalamazoo State Hospital.

Major sums for universities included $300,000 to continue construction of the mental research bulding at the University of Michigan and $85000 for operating expense, fire loss, supplies and equipment at Western Michigan University.

The Municipal Finance Commission, which has been ordered to curtail activities because of swindling funds was down for $500 instead of the $13,000 requested.

An item of $290596 was provided for tuberculosis subsidy grants to counties.

Report 59ers Moving On to 'Promised Land'

PETOSKEY (UP) — Most of Detroit's 59ers today were reported to move on from Alaska's Kenai Peninsula to a "promised land" across the Sustina River.

The report came by telephone call yesterday to Mr. and Mrs. Marino Sik Sr., at Petoskey from their son, Marino Jr., a leader of the caravan which trekked from Detroit to Alaska.

Sik said there is ample, good farming land in the new location about 380 miles north of Kenai for the pioneer group which left Detroit last March 5. The site is about 90 miles north of Anchorage.

The elder Sik couple were told by their son that there is a road into the new territory and equipment, including a bulldozer, electric generator and caterpillar tractor is en route with a second group from Detroit expected to arrive in June.

The younger Sik claimed all but two of the original caravan members were heading for the new site after peaceful settlement of reported differences.

Definition of Alcoholic

HARTFORD, Conn. (UPI) — Dr. C. F. Yeaher, medical director at Remington Arms, defines an alcoholic this way: "When a person stops bragging about how much he can drink, and starts lying about how little he's drinking—he's an alcoholic."

Sues Actor in Attack

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A 50-year-old businessman says actor John Carroll attacked him without provocation after a traffic argument. In a suit filed Wednesday, Ernest A. Dean sought $50,000 damages from the actor. He said both men were in cars and an argument erupted over the right of way last Dec. 14.

Held Prisoner by Estranged Mate, She Says

CASTAIC, Calif. (AP) — A bedraggled seamstress staggered into this ranch community and told authorities her estranged husband had held her prisoner 10 days. She said he beat and threatened to kill her.

"I was in fear of my life every minute," Mrs. Kathrein Roden, 38, told deputies. Her account:

Her husband Raymond, 44, forced her at gunpoint into his car, drove into nearby foothills and pitched camp. She escaped Wednesday and walked seven miles for help. She said her husband abducted her once before for 10 days. They have been separated seven months.

Roden, found sleeping in a tent, was booked on suspicion of kidnaping and assault with a deadly weapon. The husband, an unemployed tool and die maker, claimed his wife accompanied him voluntarily.

State Farmers 10 Days Behind Last Spring

LANSING (UP) — Michigan farmers are about 10 days behind last spring on their field work, the federal-state crop reporting service said today.

Lower Peninsula farmers were able to get into the fields last week but progress was slow.

At the end of the week, only 10 per cent of the oat crop had been planted in that area compared to 80 per cent last year at the same date.

Inattention Charged to Doused Motorist

HONOLULU (UP)—Edward L. Asbill was fined $20 in traffic court for backing his car off a pier into a boat harbor.

Suspect Plot to Kill Castro

Police, FBI Alerted by Fidel's Aides to Alleged Assassination Try

NEW YORK (AP) — New York police, the FBI and other agencies were alerted today to what was termed a plot by hired killers to assassinate Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro.

Castro has been in New York since Tuesday and is due to go to Boston Saturday. Hundreds of officers have been guarding him, and more were quickly assigned to the task.

Police said Castro aides notified them of the alleged plot early today and said it involved two groups totaling seven men, none of them Cubans.

One of these groups was described as comprised of five brothers, between 28 and 35 years old, originally from Philadelphia but now Chicago residents. The other was said to consist of two men, also brothers.

The five brothers in the former group, it was said, all have police records in Philadelphia for minor offenses such as disorderly conduct and assault.

It was reported that they might be riding in a 1957 black Chevrolet with a white top and bearing Florida license plates.

The second party of two brothers was said to be traveling in a dirty gray Cadillac with Michigan plates. One of them reportedly is called "Doc."

An alert sent to all police commands in the city stated in essence that the two groups had been paid to assassinate the Cuban revolutionary leader.

It also was said that the two sets of brothers have no direct association but that the plot probably stemmed from the same source.

A police official said it was not known where any of the alleged assassins are supposed to be, but the report was that they would seize the first opportunity to try to kill Castro.

Port of New York Authority officers were notified to watch for one or both cars approaching the city by way of the Port Authority's bridges and tunnels.

Collision Victim Dies

ANN ARBOR (AP) — John E. LaRosa, 21, of Dexter, died in University Hospital last night of injuries suffered Tuesday night in a car-truck collision on U.S. 12 just west of here.

'A Firefighter's Firefighter'

Honor Retiring Fire Chief

Eighty friends paid tribute to "Boots" last night.

"Boots" is John F. Schroder, who retired last night as the city's fire chief after almost 48 years of service with the Fire Department.

He was the guest of honor at a testimonial banquet last night at the Elks Temple.

Schroeder acquired his nickname by strolling through the central fire station with his boots always on, ready to answer any alarm.

He was described last night by Assistant City Attorney Sherwin E. Birnkrant as a "firefighter's firefighter, always leading his men into the fire himself."

Others who praised Schroeder were Mayor Philip E. Rowston, City Manager Walter K. Willman and Public Safety Director George D. Eastman.

Civil Service Commission Chairman Stuart A. Austin also spoke. Austin's father, the late Fire Chief John Austin, hired Schroeder as a firefighter in July of 1911.

Also attending the banquet were city department heads, city commissioners, Frank Kuhn, whom Schroeder succeeded as chief, fire chiefs from other cities and townships, and retired and volunteer firefighters.

Commander of city volunteer firefighters, James B. Foreman, and James R. White who will replace Schroeder presented gifts on behalf of the volunteer and regular firemen.

Schroeder was also presented with a resolution adopted by the City Commission Tuesday praising him for his many years of devoted service.

He worked for the city longer than any other employe in Pontiac's history.

Tax Shows People Buying Bigger Cars

LANSING (UPI) — People are buying bigger and more expensive cars, Secretary of State James M. Hare said today, causing a two-million dollar increase in vehicle sales taxes for the first quarter of 1959.

Hare said collections for the first quarter of last year were about $7,656,000 compared with $9,677,000 for this year.

He said there was also a five-dollar increase in the average tax per vehicle from $46.88 to $51.88. There was also 23,216 more vehicles sold during the 1959 first quarter than a year ago.

Data Capsule, Ejected From Thor, Recovered

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force announced today the recovery of an information capsule ejected from a Thor ballistic missile. The missile was launched from Cape Canaveral, Fla., early this morning.

Flashing lights permitted optical camera tracking of the rocket. The re-entry vehicle was sighted by an aircraft and two ships in the Atlantic as the missile came back into the earth's atmosphere.

The Air Force said this was the fourth recovery of a data capsule from a Thor missile.

Germans Report Khrushchev Has Fainting Spells

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP)—A West German newspaper said today that doctors have strongly advised Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev to cut down on his food—and drinks—or else.

The tabloid newspaper, 5-Uhr Blatt—Five O'clock Bulletin—in a dispatch dated Moscow, said he suffered fainting spells on March 10, 19, April 3 and 7, followed by temporary blackouts.

The paper said doctors work on the theory that the Kremlin's top man may have a brain tumor but Khrushchev declines to submit to a thorough checkup.

This is the third report on Khrushchev's health in the West German press this month. The Sueddeutsche Zeitung in Munich first reported Khrushchev having fainting spells. The mass-circulated Bild Zeitung had a similar story.

The Frankfurt tabloid said that Khrushchev may be refusing to follow doctors orders because he may be under the influence of persons interested in a deterioration of his health.

Khrushchev, said the report, now tips the scales at 235 pounds. His physicians urgently advised him to reduce his daily diet and drinking.

The paper quoted Khrushchev as saying that he does not have "to start dieting before reaching 260 pounds. Up to then I'll eat what I like."

Study Nominees for Trial Board

Expect City to Disclose Seven Appointments at Tuesday Meeting

Candidates for the city's new Trial Board were reviewed last night informally by the City Commission, including two nominees by rank-and-file members of the Police Department.

The commission's decision on the seven appointments probably will be disclosed Tuesday at the regular commission meeting, at which time the selections are scheduled to become official, said Mayor Philip E. Rowston.

At that time, it will be known whether either of the Police Department's candidates have been selected, he said.

In a department-wide vote requested by the mayor, policemen nominated Theodore Carlson and Philip R. Sauer.

Carlson, a member of the firemen's Civil Service Commission, was the police nominee on the policemen's Civil Service Commission which voters repealed April 6. Sauer is a former Pontiac mayor.

A mayor's committee charged with making the Trial Board more attractive to policemen, recommend that officers be allowed to submit names of candidates for the board.

The new Trial Board terms of office begin during the first week of May.

Gunmen Rob Ohio Bank of $40,000

WOOSTER, Ohio (AP)—Two men carrying snub-nosed revolvers robbed the north branch of the Commercial Banking and Trust Co. of more than $40,000 today.

Richard Tracy, manager of the branch bank, estimated the loot. He and a teller, Mrs. Arlene Hall, were in the branch bank when the men entered.

Sgt. James Wilson of the Wooster Police said it was not yet determined whether another man had waited for the pair in a getaway car.

Scouts to Visit Selfridge

MOUNT CLEMENS (AP)—Selfridge Air Force Base has invited Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts in southeastern Michigan to "Scouts Day" observance Saturday. A special five-hour show will include aerial demonstrations.

Child Receives Head Injury in Auto Mishap

Struck by a passing car, two-year-old Douglas A. Van Horn was reported in fair condition today at Pontiac General Hospital.

Douglas was playing near his home at 24 W. Fairmount Ave. yesterday afternoon when hit by a car driven by Bernice R. Smith, 43, of 161 W. Fairmount.

She told police she heard a noise when she struck the child, but did not see him until looking in her rear view mirror.

He was admitted to Pontiac General Hospital for treatment of a head injury.

Police said the driver's view was blocked by parked cars.

State Attorney General to Speak to City Dems

Michigan Attorney General Paul L. Adams will be guest speaker Sunday at the regular meeting of the Pontiac Democratic Club, Fisher Body Local Hall, 821 Baldwin Ave.

The meeting will begin at 2 p.m. Members will also discuss plans for its ninth annual spring dance scheduled for May.

10-Year-Old Injured in Auto Accident

Ten-year-old Michael Bahan of 36 Blaine Ave. was injured yesterday afternoon when struck by a car while trying to cross Oakland avenue west of Blaine.

He was reported in satisfactory condition at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital today where he is being treated for back and arm injuries.

Driver of the car, Donald Beach, 25, of 992 Arlene St., told police he slowed his vehicle for the boy standing in the middle of the street but released the brake thinking Michael spotted the car.

The boy then darted into the car's path, Beach told police.

Let's Name Him Gramps After His Grandfather

IOWA CITY, Iowa (AP) — A little girl was telling about the new arrival at her house.

"I think we're going to call him Gramps," she said.

The little girl had heard the baby was to be named after her grandfather.

The first atomic fire on earth was lighted in a reactor on the University of Chicago campus December 2, 1942.

Bob Considine Says:

Let's Drink to Al Steele, a Fine Man I Know

NEW YORK—A good man I know named Al Steele was buried yesterday. I think it is indecent to use the past tense in such cases. You shouldn't say, "A good man I knew . . ." The word is "know."

Good people stay with you in your mind and heart, and that's more reliable and inspiring sometimes than remaining with you in reach of your sight and sound and touch.

Al Steele ran a company named Pepsi-Cola. Makes a drink called soft. Before that he was with an even bigger soft named Coca-Cola.

He was an advertising man, a football player, a guy with an unending sense of good humor—but at the same time a man who, if pushed, would stand his own ground as bravely as anybody I've met. Al was all muscles, except in the brain. He was one of the best informed men of our time.

Al "bought the farm," as the flying blokes say, before he could see and take part in a big moment in his own and his company's life. The company juice will be on tap at the American exposition in Moscow which Vice President Nixon will open July 25.

Unless Mikoyan is bypassed and we slip in a doughnut-making machine—regarded by Mikoyan as subversive—the stuff will be the only edible portion of a U.S. trade fair which includes samples of our cars, houses, kitchens, time-savers, television, machinery, know-how.

* * *

The plan is to show everything we were too shy to show at the Brussels World Fair. There, we substituted General Motors, Ford and Chrysler for a modern art treatment of flotsam, jetsam and myosis. Now, in Moscow, we'd like to show our true colors.

REAL GIVE-AWAY

Part of those true colors is our penchant for giving something away for nothing. Steele's idea, as carried through by a Steele-like associate named Don Kendall, is this: Every Russian who comes to the exhibit and pays the equivalent of 10 cents to get into the grounds (the money goes to the Russian government), gets a drink. If he loses his ticket, he gets a drink. If he scales a wall and avoids the box office, at the risk of Siberia, he gets a drink.

It is estimated that somewhere between three and four million drinks will be served. The company has tested the Moscow water and the Moscow-made carbonation and found it excellent. It will ship the syrup, or whatever it's called, from Long Island City.

The stuff will be dispensed at kiosks in the fairgrounds, each armed with an American and 10 Russian girls. The Americans will be the overflow of the small army of collegians and others who have answered the call of Washington for Russian-speaking Americans between 20 and 35 who would like to serve as guides during the six-week exhibition.

* * *

Kendall was telling us the other night at Al's wake that the people who will go there from here will go by boat and be given a refresher course in what has become a little-known subject in this country: Democracy—precisely what it is, what it means, what it strives for. In case any Russian asks, after taking a Pepsi.

This, of course, is an off-beat obit. But I thought it best to write about the work and the people Al had to take leave of, rather than write one of those "a man who . . ." stories. Nobody wrote of my friend Al Steele as well as his mother, Fannie Barthem Steele.

Mrs. Steele was moved to pen many things about Al through her life. One thing, I think, written when he was a very small boy going off to school will appeal to all whose paths crossed Al's:

Where is our baby going today?
To the garden of knowledge awhile to stay.
What will he learn in this garden fair?
That sweetest crumbs are scattered there.
What will he do with these crumbs, we pray?
In his little brain cells store them away.
What good will they do in these cells to be?
Together become one grand symphony.
And who shall hear the symphony sweet?
Why, every soul whom he chances to greet.
And what will the greeting mean to each?
The best of life is within his reach.

Reds Enslaving Tibet; Chinese Whip Thousands Daily in Nation's Streets

By A. K. GUPTA

KATHMANDU, Nepal (UPI) — Communist Chinese troops have turned Tibet into a vast prison with thousands of Tibetans being whipped each day in the streets and Buddhist nuns sent to army camps for the pleasure of the troops, refugees fleeing to Nepal reported today.

They said nearly 2,500 Tibetan monasteries were damaged or destroyed by Communist artillery in the past month and nearly 8,000 monks killed, 12,000 arrested and about 800,000 Lamas forced to flee homeless and hungry into the mountains.

This correspondent traveled through the snow-covered 17,000-foot mountain passes to reach the border of Tibet and interview the refugees. At the Nepal-Tibet border a few miles north of the village of Tarke, I met some refugees who said some of 30 well-armed Chinese divisions in Tibet were led by Russians.

One English-speaking Tibetan named Thote, a 27-year-old graduate of Peiping University, said the Chinese killed 165 members of his clan in the village of Ghetumba in Kham Province. He said he saw his father machine-gunned for refusing to betray other Tibetan patriots.

Thote said that during his flight to Nepal he had passed through 65 villages that had been known as good trading centers and that every one was destroyed by the Communists with not a sign of life visible anywhere.

"Every Tibetan was a prisoner," he said. "The whole country was turned into a vast prison. Dusk to dawn curfews were imposed all over Tibet and did not allow normal living.

THOUSANDS WHIPPED

"Thousands of peaceful, innocent Tibetans were being whipped daily in open places in the course of questioning and inhumane methods were being applied for confession. Mostly the people preferred to confess as desired by the Chinese than stand tortures any longer.

"Markets are closed; essential consumer goods have disappeared; trade is finished, resulting in numberless deaths inside houses from artificial starvation caused by the Chinese. Any mention of devotion to the Dalai Lama was a serious crime and people were being forced to show their entire devotion to the Panchen Lama.

"Large numbers of nuns, who locally are called 'ennis,' have been forced to live in army camps at the pleasure of the Chinese. Several nuns reportedly committed suicide to escape Chinese brutalities," he said.

Lithon, another refugee, said 20,000 Chinese troops were searching each house and every person in search of offenders along the southwestern border of Tibet and that most of the people had fled to the barren plateaus and now were dying of hunger and cold.

"The Chinese have confiscated every ounce of corn available in the area and have scorch-earthed all the standing crops in the field, turning the entire vegetation into ashes," he said.

"Every person must beg food from the Chinese officer at the nearest camp, waiting hours in long unending lines and only those who could satisfy the Chinese of their loyalty managed to get one meal."

Anglani, who lost his wife and three children while escaping, said he saw Russians with the Chinese and believed they were helping the Communists build a big concentration camp at the 17,000-foot level at the northern base of Mt. Everest.

Despite this campaign of terror, the refugees said the Tibetans still were continuing their fight against the Communists and showing open defiance of their Red rulers.

They said lockets with the picture of the Dalai Lama were worn in spite of the fact that Chinese soldiers have orders to shoot on sight anyone wearing such a locket.

Woman Buys at Sale, Pays Later by Mail

McALESTER, Okla. (AP)—A women's hat shop here received a check in the mail with an explanatory note.

It explained that the sender, a woman, bought the hat during a sale and, unable to get a clerk to wait on her, merely walked out with the hat. It was easier that way, the note said.

2 Attendants Are Reinstated

Had Been Discharged for Abusing Patients at Lapeer State Home

LANSING (AP) — The State Civil Service Commission has ordered reinstatement and full back pay for two attendants at the Lapeer State Home and Training School discharged last fall on charges of abuse to patients.

The Commission ruled the charges were not proven. The decision overturned split decision rulings against the attendants by hearing boards.

Ordered rehired were Lucille Holman, a state employe for 23 years, discharged Oct. 27, and Russell O'Brien, a state employe for almost nine years, discharged Sept. 16.

The Commission also upheld Robert Jorgensen, a probation officer at Gladwin, who contended the Corrections Department had forced his resignation last Sept. 29 without specific charge. The Department was ordered to present specific charges at a hearing.

Taken under advisement was a request by the AFL-CIO State Employes Union that three holidays cut off this year by order of Gov. Williams be carried over until next year.

Three Houses Are Built

NORFOLK, Va. (UPI)—Builder David I. Levine constructed three new homes only to discover his carpenters had mistakenly erected them on property owned by the City of Norfolk.

The City Council came to Levine's rescue, however, by selling him the property on which he had built. It was almost identical to the lots he had purchased for the homes, but two blocks away.

Just Travel Through Michigan

Want to Take World Trip?

EAST LANSING (AP) — You can make an "around the world" tour without leaving Michigan, according to a Michigan State University sociologist.

Dr. John F. Thaden calls the Wolverine State a miniature United Nations within whose borders there are some 500 "culture islands" representing more than a score of nationalities.

He says Michigan is polka-dotted with 86 "Little Germanys," 65 "Little Polands," 46 "Little Finlands" and 44 "Little Swedens."

"Their children and grandchildren still exemplify the language, traditions, customs and folkways of their ancestors," Thaden adds.

Place names indicate the orig of early European settlers. Zeeland, Friesland, Drenthe, Zutphen, Posen, Westphalia, Hamtramck, Kaleva and Toivola.

To illustrate the melting pot character of Michigan, Thaden points out:

1. No state except New York has a larger foreign born and first generation population.

2. Up until 1880, more residents of Michigan were born in New York than all other states combined.

3. As recently as 1920, every other person in Michigan was still a foreigner or the son or daughter of one.

4. Half of the state's 20 members of Congress are natives of other states.

5. Eight of the 10 top chairmen in the Michigan Week organization were not born in Michigan.

6. During the past decade, California was the only other large state to experience a population increase topping that of Michigan.

"The large influx of people, both native-born and foreign-born, reflects Michigan's healthy industrial and economic condition since the transition from buggies to the horseless carriage," Thaden says.

Finishes Spree, Discovers $860 in Pouch Gone

A retired Pontiac worker reported to police yesterday he was robbed of $860 while on a drinking spree last weekend.

Ellis Weaver of 532 Franklin Rd. told police the money was taken sometime between 10 a.m. Sunday and 5 a.m. Monday.

Weaver said he did not know the time or place of the theft.

When he left home Sunday, he said, he was carrying $1,230 in a pouch he was wearing, but on his return he had only $370 left.

He was not able to tell police where he was, what he drank or who he was with.

Dems Fear It'll Hurt Plans

Jobs Study Embarrassing

WASHINGTON (AP)—An embarrassing legislative situation is delaying House action on a Senate-passed bill for a special commission to study unemployment and its remedies.

House Democratic leaders reportedly fear that establishment of such a commission now would strengthen oppositions to housing, aid to depressed areas, and other bills they are pushing to create jobs. Opponents could urge a delay until the commission had time to study the problem.

The proposal for an 11-member commission was sponsored by Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas. It passed by the Senate two weeks ago. Once it is allowed to go to floor, passage does not appear to be in doubt.

Republicans were taking obvious enjoyment in the embarrassment of their Democratic colleagues. They were not aware that the author of it was Johnson, a potential aspirant for the 1960 Democratic presidential nomination.

LANSING (AP)—Atty. Gen. Paul L. Adams today laid out rules and regulations for processing unemployment claims related to the state Supreme Court's recent decision on the Ford Motor Co. case.

The Supreme Court issued an order delaying payment of claims pending a decision by the U.S. Supreme Court.

The Ford decision, Adams said, set up new factors to be considered in awarding benefits. Basically, they determine whether a strike in one unit of a company causes a shutdown in another.

Iraq Almost Red Satellite

U.S. Officials Giving Up Hope That Kassem Can Resist Any Longer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Many U.S. officials have about given up hope that the revolutionary government of Iraq can resist Soviet Communist domination.

There is growing fear here that Iraq will soon become a hidden satellite of the Kremlin, if it has not done so already.

Since the Iraqi revolution last July 14, Premier Abdel Karim Kassem has become increasingly dependent on or allied with Communist support.

British and U.S. leaders are reported close to agreement that Kassem has probably gone beyond the point of no return.

The United States policy for dealing with this situation is one of waiting to see what happens. Officials interviewed privately say in effect, "What can any outsider do?"

Authorities are convinced that Egypt's President Nasser, whose goal is to become leader of the whole Arab world, has been behind a couple of attempts to stage some kind of anti-Communist bid for power in Iraq. But he has gotten nowhere.

★ ★ ★

McCarroll Cub Meeting Went 'Down on Farm'

"Down on the Farm" was the theme of Tuesday night's meeting of Cub Scout Pack 17 of McCarroll School.

A highlight of the meeting was square dancing by 4th and 5th graders. Prizes for the most original costumes went to Mr. and Mrs. Oren Clauson of 960 Spence St.

Charles Kline was awarded a wolf badge, two silver arrows and a gold arrow, and John Horton a gold arrow and a silver arrow.

Sidney Olson and his son, Paul, received two-year pins, and Dennis Graham a bobcat pin.

Four Area Men Will Attend K. of C. Assembly

The Pontiac area will be well represented at the annual ritual exemplification of the Detroit Archdiocesan assemblies of the Fourth Degree of the Knights of Columbus, to be held at Detroit's Pick-Fort Shelby Hotel this Sunday.

Four men from the Pontiac Assembly 600 will be inducted at the event.

They are Lionel R. Damphouse and Donald M. Smith, both of Pontiac; Thaddeus C. Klimowicz of Drayton Plains; and Leo P. Meagher of Southfield.

Wives of the members will join in a banquet in the hotel's Coral Room following the degree work. The Order's patriotic degree was founded in 1900.

Canada Sports Its Own Flavor

Money, Gas, Speech Among Items Tourists Find Different

OTTAWA (UPI) — Planning to visit Canada this summer?

If you travel by car, remember that Canada uses the "imperial gallon," which is 20 per cent bigger than the U. S. gallon.

Remember, also, that the U. S. dollar is valued at slightly less than the Canadian dollar, based on the Wall Street rate of exchange, which is determined by the law of supply and demand.

American travelers will find it convenient to obtain Canadian funds from their bank before entering Canada, thereby saving the bother of making calculations when spending money.

In Canada, only the major cities provide night club. Montreal has more nightspots in proportion to its population (1,700,000) than any other city in North America.

★ ★ ★

Don't think everyone in Canada speaks English. Residents in most of Quebec province, parts of New Brunswick and Ontario, speak French. Elsewhere, English is spoken.

The national holiday in Canada is Dominion Day, July 1. Victoria Day, May 18 this year, is another national holiday.

Because Canada, like the United States, is made up of people from many lands, festivities on special occasions range from Highland games to Ukrainian folk festivals.

American tourists will find Canada's climate similar to that in the United States. They'll also find, when shopping, familiar brand names in the stores. After all, Canada is a North American country, too.

Men to Serve Up Chicken Dinner at St. Michael's

A family-style chicken dinner will be served by St. Michael's Church Men's Club Sunday, with proceeds going to the church building fund.

Dinners will be served from noon to 6 p. m. in the church hall.

The food will be prepared and served by the men. Members in charge include Gayle Coulson, Harry Killian and Steve Turner.

Others working on the project include Harold Martin, Joe Rohrback, John Flanigan, James Campbell, John Cleaver and Dan Call.

Co-chairmen of the meal are Edwin Backus and W. F. Brown.

The national parks of Canada set a new attendance record during the past summer when 3,311,928 visitors entered the 18 scenic parks across Canada — 253,676 more than during the previous summer.

Security for You

Your Child Has Protection

A child under 18 can almost always collect monthly social security payments should the child's father die.

They are paid in addition to and separate from any payments the mother might be eligible to receive.

As a father, your child under 18 can collect social security on your death if:

1. The child is unmarried, and
2. Was dependent on you for support before your death, and
3. You worked a certain length of time under social security before your death.

The last two requirements need further explanation:

Dependency—Normally this is not difficult to prove. Your child is automatically considered your dependent if he was living with or receiving support from you at the time of your death.

What is considered support?

The law sets no minimum amount. And, in some cases, even where the father hasn't been living with his family, the social security law presumes the father was contributing to a child's support—even though he wasn't in fact.

CHECK WITH SS OFFICE

Because the cases where a father wasn't living with his children can be complicated, the mother of children under 18 in such cases should always check with her social security office to see if payments can be collected.

A child born after his father's death can qualify for payments because the social security law presumes an unborn child to be the father's dependent—unless, of course, it can be shown that he's not the father's legitimate child.

Social Security Coverage—A father qualifies his child for payments if he:

1. Worked under social security for at least 18 of the last 36 months before his death, or
2. Was fully insured when he died.

(In general, you're considered fully insured if at the time of your death you've worked under social security for 10 years, or the total of your time worked under social security equalled half the amount of time between Jan. 1, 1951 and your death.)

The size of the payments to your child upon your death can range from $33 to $95.30 a month.

Reds Reveal Data on Space Meteors

LONDON (AP) — Soviet scientists say an interplanetary space ship may fly for years without encountering a meteoric particle bigger than a grain of sand.

The government newspaper Izvestia, quoted by Moscow radio, said the scientists concluded this from reports radioed to earth by Sputnik III.

They computed that a space ship with a total surface area of 100 square meters might encounter a meteorite weighing one gram — three hundredths of an ounce — once in 14,000 flying hours.

However, the ship from time to time would run into swarms of dustlike micrometeorites which would strike its hull at the rate of scores per second, the broadcast said.

B47 Drones Set to Test Defenses

By ALTON BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Writer

MARIETTA, Ga. (AP) — The time is late summer 1959.

In a surprise "attack," a big jet-engine bomber speeds high in upon a sleeping American city — perhaps your own.

Defending rocket-missiles roar up to knock it down—if their aim is quick enough, and good enough.

It's a drone, automatically controlled, the biggest plane yet designed this way to give realistic combat-type training for America's air defense system.

The plane is a B47, powered by six jet engines, weighing 10 tons loaded, flying 600 miles an hour, ranging 3,000 miles nonstop. It can fly as high and fast as Soviet medium bombers.

Two of the swept-wing B47s are getting the finishing touches of the complex guidance and control systems here at Lockheed Aircraft Corp's Georgia Division so they can take off, maneuver and land again untouched by human hands. Sperry Gyroscope Co. is the major subcontractor.

After flight tests, the drones are expected by late summer to be making surprise probes of radar detection systems and missile defenses.

The drones could try, if desired, to seek soft spots in defense systems such as the Dewline and SAGE, and test the quickness and aim of missile crews operating the Nike-Hercules or Bomarc or other defenses fired either from the ground or from defending airplanes.

The swift ships, controlled by radar or radio from the ground or by a mother ship, can make it tough for defenders.

For they will be equipped to jam some ground radar and electronic firing systems, or spread metallic chaff to confuse radar sightings and trackings.

One plan presumably is to aim defending rockets for near misses intentionally, rather than to score direct hits. That's easier on the budget.

But actual knockdowns could be in the cards. And the drones will be rigged for blowup on command if they get dangerously out of control over cities.

Cameras and electronic devices in the drones can record how accurate the defensive aim was as a missile sails on by, explains D. J. Morrisey and A. D. Brown, chief systems engineer.

CAB Drops Request for Nonstop Flights

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Civil Aeronautics Board has dismissed an application by Eastern Air Lines for temporary authority to operate nonstop between Detroit and Atlanta, and between Cleveland and Atlanta.

Eastern had asked for an exemption from the rules to permit the service pending disposition of an earlier petition for reconsideration.

The CAB noted that Eastern's request for a certificate amendment to make possible the nonstop services was denied last September, and that the petition for reconsideration was still before it.

"Thus, in its exemption application, Eastern is duplicating its petition for reconsideration in a formal route proceeding," the CAB said yesterday. "Such filings are undersirable and should be discouraged."

Press Seeks Cut in Wire Rates

Wants FCC to Rescind Hike in Charges That Curtail News Flow

WASHINGTON (AP) — Newspapers have asked the Federal Communications Commission to restore lower rates on the wire systems which carry stories into newsrooms around the country.

The American Newspaper Publishers Assn. said such a cutback for private line teletypewriter service would be in the interest of providing the public with the widest possible knowledge of the world's daily happenings.

The ANPA described leased wires such as the teletypewriter service as the life line of news gathering and distribution which keep the public informed. It contended that higher rates for such service tend to curtail the flow of information.

The ANPA position was outlined in testimony by its general manager, Cranston Williams, in the lengthy investigation into private line charges.

oth American Telephone and Telegraph Co. and Western Union Telegraph Co. were permitted to raise their teletypewriter service rates last December. The revisions were designed to increase AT&T teletypewriter revenues by about 8½ million dollars a yar and those of Western Union by about $4,200,000.

★ ★ ★

The ANPA asked the Commission to take one of these steps: cancel the December increases; re-establish a press classification in which the rates would be no higher than those in effect before last December; establish a lower rate category for all services which only receive dispatches; order a lower rate classification for private line telephotograph services extensively used by the press.

Hire Ohio Contractors to Spray State Weeds

LANSING (AP) — Ohio contractors had to be hired to spray weeds along Michigan highways, the State Highway Department reported today.

The first three contracts for chemical spray control of weeds along highway right-of-way all went to Ohio chemical firms because of failure of Michigan outfits to submit competitive low bids.

Davey Tree Expert Co. of Kent, Ohio, won two of the projects on bids of $12,157 and $14,852. The next lowest bids by Michigan firms were isx thousand dollars more in one case and eight thousand more in another, the department said.

Chemi-trol Chemical Co., Gibonsburg, Ohio, took the third contract when no Michigan bids were entered.

CHICAGO (UPI)—The Continental Assurance Co. announced today it would insure persons who have recovered from heart attacks for up to $500,000.

No Major Concessions Seen

Soviets Plan Firm Stand at Geneva

LONDON (UPI)—The Soviet Union made it plan today the West can expect no major concessions in Berlin at the forthcoming foreign ministers conference in Geneva.

Soviet diplomats said Moscow was determined to stand fast by its plan to hand over West Berlin to the Communist East German regime regardless of any settlement for the western part of the city.

• A series of Soviet diplomatic moves emphasized the tough stand the Russians were taking before the May 11 conference begins. Already the Soviets were accusing the West of trying to torpedo the talks.

Yesterday Russia accused the United States of trying to wreck the Geneva conference by stepping up missile base construction in Europe although the missile program is two years old.

U.S. State Department spokesman Lincoln White called the accusation "devoid of substance" and noted that the Russians usually made such propaganda statements on the eve of important East-West meetings.

★ ★ ★

The Soviet Union, backed by East Germany, also built a major propaganda campaign around U.S. Air Force high level flights to and from Berlin although such flights have been going on for months.

U.S. GETS NOTE

Yesterday's accusations were contained in a note handed to U.S. Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson in Moscow by Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko.

It said the supply of U.S. missiles to West Germany, Turkey and Greece endangered success of the Geneva meeting. The Western position is that the NATO nations were strengthened only against Communist threats.

The day before the Soviet delivered a similar warning to West Germany.

The Soviets also took time out to castigate Sir Winston Churchill, the former British Prime Minister, who warned Monday night that the West must remain firm and united in the face of Soviet threats.

Moscow called him the "godfather of the cold war," making it clear it still resented his 1946 speech in Fulton, Mo., in which he said the Soviet Union had rung down an "Iron Curtain" across eastern Europe.

The Western allies still were working through an experts group in London to coordinate Berlin and German policies before the Geneva meeting.

Secretary of State Christian Herter is optimistic that the West will reach agreement on strategy, associates of the new secretary reported in Washington.

Washington officials acknowledged that American, British, French and West German diplomats still disagreed on the approach to the German problems but expressed belief the views would be narrowed by the time the Western foreign ministers meet in Paris next week.

Herter leaves Washington on Monday, greatly strengthened by the U.S. Senate's quick and overwhelming approval of his nomination and President Eisenhower's praise at his swearing in ceremony yesterday. The actions were intended to eliminate any doubts in the minds of the Allies or Russia concerning support of Herter.

Herter confers today in Washington with United Nations Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold, with U.S. Ambassador to the U.N. Henry Cabot Lodge sitting in on the session.

Expert Says Manuscript Is O. Henry Story

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — A handwriting expert says a yellowed 47-page manuscript found at a junk shop is a short story written by O. Henry 50 years ago.

E. E. Davenport said Wednesday he compared the manuscript, written in pencil on unlined paper, with facsimilies of O. Henry's handwriting provided by a research library.

The manuscript was found in an old leather trunk at the salvage store operated by the Roman Catholic St. Vincent DePaul Society.

★ ★ ★

H. E. Wilder, the store manager, said he had no idea where the trunk came from. He said the manuscript would be sold to the highest bidder.

High Speed Crash Kills Seven Persons

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP) — Seven persons were killed Wednesday when a car traveling an estimated 80 to 90 m.p.h. hit another making a left turn at a desert intersection east of here.

The dead were Jean M. F. De Luz, 51, Anaheim, Calif., and Gertrude Veitre, 51, Arcadia, Calif., in one car; Jack W. Friedman, 73, and his wife Ruth, Horace Porter, 74, and his wife Martha, and Mrs. Pearl Baker, all in the other car.

American families now own about 270,000,000 life-insurance policies, an average of five per family. This represents an increase of 50,000,000 in the past five years.

Russia's Baltic Navy Switching From Subs to N-Ships, Missiles

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (UP) — The Swedish Navy reported today a slowdown in Soviet submarine construction because the Russians are changing over to nuclear propulsion and missile armament.

It gave no other details on the Russian submarine fleet, estimated by Western allies at 450 or more submarines, but said other naval construction in the Baltic was proceeding rapidly.

★ ★ ★

"Marine News," official publication of the Royal Swedish Navy, also reported a series of Soviet missile bases from which rockets can reach almost any point in western Europe.

Marine News warned that Communist naval strength in the Baltic area is growing and that an East-West struggle for position is rapidly developing there.

"There will be literally an East-West race to secure military positions in the area" and neutral Sweden will be put on the spot by this maneuvering, it said.

★ ★ ★

It reported the navies of Communist East Germany and Poland "will have reached considerable strength" in the next few years to add to Russian sea power already in the Baltic.

★ ★ ★

Marine News said the area of Russian domination now stretches from Viborg near the Finnish border to the outskirts of Luebeck, West Germany.

INSTALL MISSILE BASES

Western countermoves in the territory still remaining clearly show the importance of the waters around Denmark and Southern Sweden to the NATO alliance, it added.

In its report on Soviet missile bases the magazine said Russia had installed the bases in the former German territory of East Prussia.

"The population has been evacuated," it said. "The area is bristling with missile bases, from which missiles can be fired to most points in western Europe."

Marine News said the East German island of Ruegen also is a missile strongpoint and that most Baltic ports are Soviet naval bases.

It estimated the Soviet Baltic fleet at seven cruisers, 50 destroyers, 100 submarines, 150 motor-torpedo boats, 125 escort ships, 200 minesweepers and at least 150 landing ships with more to be added.

STRONGER AIR FORCE

It said the Soviet land-based naval air force in the Baltic was 1,200 planes, an air force stronger than Sweden's.

The Polish Navy consists of four prewar destroyers plus two new Russian-built ones. In addition to some submarines, the Poles have about 20 PT boats of Soviet origin, 20 minesweepers, eight sub-chasers and 20 patrol boats.

The East German Navy consists of some old warships, some Soviet-built ones and some newer ships built by East German yards. They still have only one destroyer but six are under construction. There also are six submarines, 10 frigates, 79 minesweepers and 82 patrol boats.

The magazine said the Red forces will be strengthened in the near future. Ten fast mine-layers are under construction in Leningrad. They are of 4,300 tons armed with six 10-centimeter guns, eight antiaircraft missile platforms, several torpedo racks and 300 mines.

A new type of frigate of 1,800 tons with a top speed of 30 knots is also under construction. It is reported armed with two 10-centimeter guns, four torpedo racks and antiaircraft missiles.

Wake Up, Sleepyhead!

Snoozing Can Kill You

CHICAGO (UPI) — Too much sleep can make you sleepy, three scientists reported today.

Drs. Herbert O. Sieker, Albert Heyman and Richard I. Birchfield, all of Duke University, told the 40th annual convention of the American College of Physicians that it's a wonder Rip Van Winkle ever woke up from his 20-year snooze.

The Duke scientists said their studies show too much sleep can put you in a vicious circle and harm your health.

The sleeper breathes more slowly than the person awake, and does not throw off the carbon dioxide which builds up in his bloodstream.

This makes no difference for a normal night's sleep of 8 to 10 hours, the doctors said. But certain types of abnormality, such as obesity, make a person sleep as much as 16 hours a day and that is the beginning of the vicious circle.

The carbon dioxide acts like an anesthetic, the doctors explained. It makes the person sleepy and the more he sleeps the more persistently the level of the gas remains high and makes him want to sleep more.

The sleepy-head's breath becomes short, and fluids accumulate in his body, the scientists said. In extreme cases, death can follow, they said.

Another physician, Dr. Eugene D. Robin, associate in medicine at Harvard Medical School and Peter Bent Brigham Hospital at Boston, recommended continued studies on the effect of sleep on diseases.

Sleep and waking are part of the same process, he said, and no absolute distinction can be drawn between them.

Falling asleep is like turning down the volume of a radio, not turning it off, he said, for sleep is "a time of great physiological and metabolic activity."

The central nervous system may function differently during sleep, he said, but it functions. The regulation of diabetes by doses of insulin is more difficult during sleep, Robin said, and the diseases of persons suffering from some forms of lung trouble or anemia are modified by sleep.

The medical treatment then should vary according to the changes in the patient, according to Robin's report.

Fireman Just Wouldn't Be Stopped From Duty

SHEFFIELD LAKE, Ohio (UP) — Volunteer fireman Charles Miller, en route to a fire, was involved in a crash with another car, crossed a ditch on the opposite side of the road, and hit a tree.

Miller got out, hailed a passing milk truck and proceeded to the fire.

Venice Car Tunnel to Lido Beach Proposed

VENICE, Italy (UP) — This city of canals and gondolas is thinking of making a concession to the automobile.

The proposal is for a four-mile automobile tunnel running to the Lido Beach from the Venice end of a causeway now linking the mainland to the city.

Cars can use the causeway, but once on the island part of Venice must park. Then it's a half hour canal ride by motorboat — one hour by gondola — to the center of Venice. It takes another half hour or so across the lagoon to the Lido Beach on a large island.

The beach, grandfather of innumerable beaches of the same name, is having trouble. Tourists find it easier to drive right up to other Adriatic beaches where no boat ride is necessary.

Venetian officials are convinced the Lido needs a shot in the arm. Eugenio Miozzi says the tunnel would make the beach easily accessible for the motorized tourists.

He figures the tunnel can be completed in three years, will cost about nine million dollars, and bring in many times that amount in tourist revenue.

Miozzi earned a reputation by building the rail-automobile causeway to the mainland.

Many conservative Venetian citizens oppose any modernization. They say the centuries old city of canals will lose its character if it gives in. They also say the tunnel would cost three times more than engineer Miozzi estimates.

Tunnel supporters argue that automobiles would be neither seen nor heard as they passed under Venice.

Whether Venice gets its tunnel may depend more on Rome than on Venetian sentiments. Funds for its construction probably would have to come from the national government.

LeBaron School Pack Plans Picnic, Canoeing

Summer activities were discussed by Cub Scout Pack 66 of LeBaron School at the last formal pack meeting of the 1958-59 year Tuesday night.

The youngsters set Saturday, May 16, as the date of their scout picnic in Bloomer State Park.

Plans for a canoe trip July 11-12 were also discussed.

A skit was presented by Den 5 members showing the difference between driving in Cuba and Pontiac.

The bottle of milk was to persuade the pet to stay close to Mary's desk.

Hollywood Headlines

In Filmdom's Jungle It's Tarzan Vs. Tarzan

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Just who is the king of the jungle, anyway?

Ever since the early movies, there has been a Tarzan. Whether it was Elmo Lincoln, Johnny Weissmuller, Buster Crabbe, Herman Brix (Bruce Bennett) or Lex Barker, he ruled the jungle with interference only from an occasional lion, rhino, etc.

Now it's Tarzan vs. Tarzan.

One film company has been in Africa shooting "Tarzan's Greatest Adventure" with Gordon Scott as star. And Denny Miller is starring as "Tarzan, the Ape Man" on MGM's Lot 3. The explanation is evidence the movies are still a rough and tumble business.

Sy Weintraub took over the Tarzan series from its longtime producer, Sol Lesser, and launched a talent hunt for a new Tarzan to succeed Scott. Then he learned MGM intended to re-film the first of the Weissmuller-Maureen O'Sullivan films, "Tarzan, the Ape Man."

So Weintraub called off his search and convinced Scott to resume his loincloth despite his intention to seek less naked roles. Money talks in this jungle.

I dropped out to MGM to see the latest (No. 12) ape man and found him to be the neanderthal type. In the picture, that is. The son of a UCLA professor, Denny Miller is no dope. He is smart enough to know that acting can be precarious.

★ ★ ★

"I hope to get my degree in physical education this summer," he remarked. "So I can always become a coach if my acting career blows over."

I asked him if he worried about being typed as the jungle king.

"No," he replied. "I understand that MGM owns only two more of the Tarzan stories, so there couldn't be much of a series. I've done other roles. I had a bit in 'Some Came Running,' though you'd have to look pretty fast to see me. The part I'd like to do is Li'l Abner in the film version."

He's got the build for it. His 212 pounds are distributed on his 6 feet 4 inches with a sculptor's art. The muscles came not from lifting weights, which he considers too much work, but athletics. His father was a high school coach in Bloomington, Ind., when Denny was born. The lad was reared in sports and starred at basketball for UCLA.

Area Scouts to See Selfridge Air Base

More than 700 Boy and Cub Scouts from the Clinton Valley Council will travel to Selfridge Air Force Base Saturday for a special five-hour show to be conducted in their honor.

Among the visiting Scouts will be some from Pontiac.

Invitations were extended by 1st Fighter Wing and Base Commander Col. Glenn E. Duncan who further designated the day as "Scouts Day" and directed the planning of the big events.

There will be aircraft on display, exhibits of ground support equipment, movies and actual aerial demonstrations.

The show is scheduled to begin at 10 a. m. and will continue until 3 p. m.

Officers and airmen at Selfridge will stand by their equipment and aircraft to answer questions posed by the visiting scouts.

The honored guests will be allowed to walk through C47 and C119 aircraft; look in the cockpits of T33 jet trainers and supersonic F86 Sabrejets; and view Selfridge's newest fighter-interceptor—the F102 Delta Dagger.

Army and Air Force helicopters and AF sea rescue planes will be on display and fly maneuverability demonstrations. The movie, "New Sound of Freedom"—the story of America's air defense system, will be shown.

Firefighting equipment will be on display and rides offered on the base's large fire trucks.

Legislators Rapped for Big Phone Bills

LANSING (AP)—Several House members got their knuckles rapped yesterday for piling up big phone bills at state expense.

At a Republican caucus House Speaker Don R. Pears (R-Buchanan) asked the offenders, not identified, to cut down on telephone calls. A similar plea went out to Democrats.

Some lawmakers, Pears said, had monthly bills of "more than $100 — way out of proportion." Checks on calls he said, showed quite a few did not appear to be related to Legislative business.

From its annual appropriation, the House allocates funds for free phone calls by members. All must be made in connection with Legislative work.

If calls continue at their present rate, Pears said, the House "conceivably could exceed its budget."

Convicts Sleep Late With Uncovered Heads

COLUMBUS, Ohio (UPI) — Convicts at Ohio Penitentiary here have been given a break — they can sleep as late as they want to on Sundays and holidays.

The only catch is that they must keep their heads uncovered so that the guards counting the prisoners can be sure they are all there.

Higher Strontium Dose Found Safe

WASHINGTON (AP) — A committee of radiation experts says it believes the human body can safely tolerate twice the amount of radioactive strontium previously thought permissible.

The report came Wednesday from the National Committee on Radiation Protection and Measurement, a group of experts in the field.

The committee has no official status, but its recommendations have been followed by the Atomic Energy Commission and the U.S. Public Health Service.

The new report raised the recommended permissible values for some radioactive materials, lessened values for others and left some unchanged.

Radioactive strontium is the most-feared constituent of fallout from nuclear bomb explosions because it could cause bone cancer if present in the body in sufficient amounts. The material is also a potential hazard of working in working in atomic energy plants, and of any exposure to wastes from such plants.

★ ★ ★

The standards were based on some 2,000 separate research studies.

Russia Planning Trek to South Pole in Fall

MOSCOW (UPI) — Russia will send a new expedition to Antarctica next fall, it was reported today.

The Soviet Tass news agency quoted Russian polar explorer Evgeny Tolstikov as saying preparations already were under way for a new Soviet foray to the ice-bound continent. Tolstikov headed the third Soviet Antarctic expedition during the recently completed International Geophysical Year.

Americans May Soon Be Able to Tour Russia

HELSINKI (UPI) — American tourists may soon be able to buy a package tour that will include two weeks of luxury bus travel in the Soviet Union.

The arrangement—believed to be the first of its kind—is being worked out by Maupin Tours of Lawrence, Kansas, the Scandinavian Airlines system and the Kaleva Travel Bureau of Helsinki.

Passengers would fly to the Finnish capital, board a luxury bus and then spend two weeks sightseeing in Russia before coming out in Warsaw.

Or they can fly to Warsaw first, taken the bus trip to Helsinki and then take a plane back home.

The first bus is scheduled to leave Helsinkin May 20, and others will follow at one-week intervals. Altogether, five of the Finnish-built buses will be making the trip from May until October.

Their itinerary will include Leningrad, Novgorod, Kalinin, Moscow (where passengers will spend four days), Smolensk, Minsk and Warsaw.

Vaino Tervaskari, director of the Kaleva Travel Bureau, would not say what the tour will cost. But it is designed for Americans, who can be expected to pay a bit more for luxury travel.

"This will be limited to Americans, or people buying their tickets in America," said Tervaskari. "We won't sell any tickets in Europe.

"The Americans will buy their package tours at home, fly here, spend two days in Helsinki, then get on board a bus. After they come out in Warsaw, they fly on to other parts of Europe, then catch a plane home again."

Each bus will have room for 30 passengers and will include toilet facilities as well as a small pantry or kitchen for serving light lunches and snacks.

Two Escapees Sent Elsewhere

Pair at San Quentin Who Held Grandmother Hostage Are Moved

SAN QUENTIN, Calif. (AP)—Two San Quentin convicts who held a grandmother hostage at knifepoint in a dramatic escape atempt are being transferred today to other institutions.

Billy Joe Wright, 25, was ordered to Folsom, Califrnoias' maximum security penitentiary. William D. Werner, 24, goes to the California medical facility at Vacaville.

At a news conference Wednesday, both expressed anger at being sent from San Quentin Prison athough it meant they would not spend 29 days in solitary confinement.

Wright and Werner escaped from work details outside the walls Tuesday and seized Mrs. Louise Gschwend, 54, San Francisco beauty operator who was fishing on a long pier near the prison.

They also seized her companion Doug Harrison, 62.

For six long hours they kept police at bay by threatening the couple. After surrendering, Werner and Wright paid tribute to Mrs. Gschwend's courage.

Werner said the Vacaville institution is "no place for human beings. It's for nothing but nuts."

Newspaper Strikes Approach Record

NEW YORK (AP) — Strikes against American newspapers last year, a special industry committee said today, reached the second highest total since World War II and "if the record of 10 strikes in the first quarter of 1959 continues, this year will match the worst in the present century."

The report was made during final-day sessions of the 73rd annual convention of the American Newspapers Publishers Assn. by George N. Dale, chairman of the ANPA's Special Standing Committee on Labor Relations.

The four-day convention ends tonight with the annual dinner of the ANPA's Bureau of Advertising, Defense Secretary Neil H. McElroy will be the principal speaker.

McElroy's speech, described in advance as a major talk likely to include information on new developments in the missile program, will be heard by about 1,800 newspaper publishers, other newspaper executives and their guests.

Formal sessions of the convention will end earlier in the day with the election of new officers and directors.

Michigan Bell Paid Out $130,521,000 in Wages

Michigan Bell Telephone Co. reported today that its wage bill of $130,521,000 was shared by 24,291 employes throughout the state in 1958.

To its 605 employes in Pontiac, the company paid $3,013,788 in wages, according to Raymond H. Storm, district manager here for the company.

Hybrid Tree Grows Fast

PORTLAND, Ore. (UPI)—Ernie Kolbe, chief forester for the Western Pine Assn., has come up with a hybrid ponderosa tree. His tree, five years old, stands about 15½ feet tall. Ordinary ponderosa pines of this age would be about knee-high, Kolbe reports. His fast-growing ponderosa has been crossed with a Jeffrey pine from California and is growing in the rich ground of an old chicken yard.

Even Warmth Engulfs Hawaii

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

HONOLULU — The very old men of Hawaii remember with a nostalgic shiver the night, in 1902, when the mercury dropped to 52 degrees. They also recall, blushingly, an October afternoon when it rose to 90. That was in 1891, a year which they claim was freakish the world over.

Things have got back to normal the last 50 years, and the average year around temperature is 75. In deepest winter, when the 49th state is tucked in darkness and snow, the 50th state cozies up to the sun at 73 degrees.

If the natives feel chilly of a winter's night they can go swimming in the bath-like waters of Waikiki Beach, where the indolent white-caps are a tepid 78 to 81 degrees.

Of course it rains quite frequently in the islands (nature supports the flower-lei industry), but they call it "liquid sunshine," and they are right. The softest rain in the world is just enough to bring out the rainbows — not enough to take out the curl in a wahine's coiffure.

DAMP, NOT WET

"It is damp perhaps," explained a Hawaiian, "but never wet."

A haole (pronounced, quickly, "howly" and meaning white person) develops swift and contagious ennui from the moment he arrives in Honolulu airport. The air is pungent with the scent of ginger and gardenia, a sweet-spicy mixture that muddles the brain with more effectiveness than a good bartender.

You may think you know no one in Honolulu — yet someone is almost certain to meet you. Perhaps it is a representative of the hotel where you have reservations, or maybe a friend from the airline you've chosen, or possibly just one of the many, warm and generous citizens of Honolulu who muddle round the airport to make first-time visitors feel wanted.

I was met, for example, by Pan Am's handsome welcomer-coed representing the hotel, and executive Bill Bachran, by a pretty by Riley Allen of the Honolulu Star-Bulletin, surely the most cordial editor in the history of journalism. It had been eight years since I'd touched down in paradise — but Hawaiians never forget a once-friendly face.

By the time you are ready to leave the islands, if ever, there will be at least twice as many people to load your shoulders with leis, and weep in their planter's punches at your departure. There is more sentimental sniffling at the dock and airport of Honolulu than you'll find in a June Allyson movie.

For the tourist from the mainland, this is sweet and understandable; he has come, he has fallen in love with a place and a people, and he mourns the return to the crass business of making a living. But the puzzling thought is how the islanders can maintain equilibrium, not to mention their jobs, with this eternal round of ecstatic welcomes and damp farewells.

"We enjoy it," explained a local. "Our weather is always so equable, it would be a dull life if our emotions were the same."

The Hawaiian language is colorful and soft and gradually dying out.

Only in the university is it taught, and the course is elective, rather than compulsory. As a result, few Hawaiians except the elderly can speak or understand more than a scant dozen or so words.

To a malihini (newcomer), this is huhu-(angry)-making.

But certain delightful words and phrases will remain, because the 170,000 mainland visitors each year refuse to let them fall into disuse. One is pau, which means "finished," and is pronounced as in "pow — right in the kisser." Another is "okole," for derriere, as in the familiar toast, bottoms up.

And then there are the phrases one must always remember at the airport: Mahalo (thanks), aloha (hello and goodbye) and honi kana wikiwiki! (kiss me quick!)

Many Shapes Given to Earth

Hollow Globe, Perfect Circle, Oblate Spheroid All Ascribed To

WASHINGTON—Even in modern times, there have been strange ideas about the earth. In the late 19th century, an American group called Koreshans envisioned the universe as a finite hollow globe, with men living on its concave inner surface. The Koreshan sun had a dark and a bright side, and it revolved only 4,000 miles away.

For centuries, however, scholars have had realistic conceptions of the earth's shape. One of the first men to believe the earth spherical was the philosopher Pythagoras, who lived in the 6th century B.C., says the National Geographic Society.

Eratosthenes, a Greek philosopher of the 3rd century B.C., first measured the size of the earth, assuming it was a sphere. For centuries the earth was taken to be perfectly round—by those who didn't think it was flat. Sir Isaac Newton questioned its spherical perfection in the 17th century.

Newton theorized that gravitation and rotation would somewhat flatten the earth at the poles, giving it the shape of an "oblate spheroid." However, a group of French scientists in the early 18th century maintained the earth was egg-shaped and called the British Newtonians "earth flatteners."

★ ★ ★

The dispute was resolved after expeditions were sent to Peru and Lapland in 1735 and 1736 to measure the length of a meridian degree near the equator and near the North Pole. The measurements showed the earth's basic shape to be an oblate spheroid.

1959 Figures Herald New Baby Boom

WASHINGTON (AP) — A new baby boom apparently is under way. Marriages are in the increase, too.

A record number of births for the month was tallied in February, the national office of vital statistics reported today. This followed a record for any January a month earlier.

The 328,000 February births ran 3½ per cent higher than those in the same 1958 month.

Births in January and February totaled 679,000, up 2.3 per cent from the corresponding 1958 figures.

The upturn came after a drop in births last year. In 1958 there were 4,204,000 babies born, 1.2 per cent fewer than the record high of 4,254,000 in 1957.

Marriages have increased after a drop attributed in part to the 1957-58 recession.

There were 91,000 marriages in February, compared with 89,000 a year earlier. The January-February total of 187,000 compared with 180,000 in 1958.

Couples Wed Together to Note 50th Jointly

EFFINGHAM, Ill. (AP) — Two Effingham couples will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversaries Sunday in the church where their double wedding was held.

Mr. and Mrs. George Grunloh and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dust were married April 27, 1909, in St. Anthony's Catholic church.

The Grunloh's have 12 children, 57 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. The Dusts have three children and seven grandchildren.

World's Greatest Actor Likes Directing Better

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — The slim, neat, sensitive middle-aged Englishman who has been called the world's greatest actor sat eating his chop in a 12th St. restaurant with a broad-shouldered, open-shirted American director half his age who puzzles actors at rehearsals by shadowing them.

WILSON

Sir John Gielgud was sagely silent when director John Frankenheimer half laughingly said, "I find it good to get right on top of the actor."

"Actors usually say it's a relief when the camera is on them instead of me."

Gielgud had come from London to do "The Browning Version" and be bossed by this 29-year-old husky who likes to stick his face up in actor's faces at rehearsals to see if they're emoting properly. And though he had won a reputation as a director himself, Sir John had divined that the young brute had a point — and they were seeing eye to eye.

GIELGUD AND FRANKENHEIMER

"I don't like acting as much as I used to!" This was news! "I prefer directing," he said.

"But why?"

"You don't have to do it every night for one thing."

Still, he saw little chance of giving up acting to direct. "Directing is my hobby—that's why I like it more," he decided.

Sir John made his British debut a few weeks ago and they're still talking about it. When he does "The Browning Version" tonight on Du Pont "Show of the Month" opposite Margaret Leighton, he will be as trembly as an amateur—it'll be his second performance on American live TV.

"You can destroy your reputation so quickly," he said, "and they only see it one night. You're keyed up—you can't tell how it's going . . . you just know it's gone forever and you can't do it again . . ."

The American John looked quickly at his watch. He said to the English John, "Don't you think we'd better go? We're due at rehearsal." The two Johns strode out, the American John keeping a very close watch on the English John, the greatest actor known to man.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

They're such look-alikes you can't tell the difference . . . Carol Channing, a riotous hit before the American Society of Newspaper Editors, in Washington, was so busy getting costumed, she had to turn down an invitation to meet Vice Pres Nixon.

Boone, Weaver Put Over Steel Hour's 'Tin God'

By WILLIAM EWALD
United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI)—"Little Tin God," the U.S. Steel Hour's diversion on CBS-TV last night, was a moderately absorbing entry, timbered handsomely by two of its players, Richard Boone and Fritz Weaver.

Joe Palmer Jr.'s script—I believe it was his first TV effort—was set in a tuberculosis sanatorium and dealt principally with the efforts of one of its yea-saying patients to coax a withdrawn member into the fold.

The lineas of its plot were solid and Palmer's characterizations were deft — a nurse and several minor characters were penciled in with swift, clean strokes. Much of its dialogue worked well, too—it rang true and Palmer wisely sidestepped stiff speechmaking.

But despite all this, "Little Tin God" was not completely satisying. For one thing, it was a little too pat. For another, it had an occasional thinness—there was a feeling of padding, of repetition about some of its parts.

Palmer had two striking major characters going for him, but when they were not grappling with each other, the wires of the play went a trifle slack.

★ ★ ★

SHORT SHOTS: NBC-TV's Wagon Train last night was an improbable serving of squash, acted in a curiously gasping manner by Angie Dickinson.

The fellow who played the newspaperman was William Reynolds, who plays the title role in NBC-TV's new series, Pete Kelley's Blues.

THE CHANNEL SWIM: Ernie Kovacs will do a one hour special for NBC-TV May 22 . . . The Broadway play, "My Three Angels," will be seen as a Friday night special on NBC-TV next fall . . . A new half hour show, Troubleshooters, will take over the Thursday night spot of Masquerade Party on NBC-TV in the autumn.

Ike Asks More NATO Missiles

GOP Leaders Oppose This and Greater Aid to Economic Field

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower was reported determined today to increase the flow of missiles to NATO nations despite some strong Republican opposition.

He is understood to have told GOP leaders at a White House meeting Wednesday he is asking his foreign aid advisers to come up with more ammunition to support its proposals along that line.

A stepup in missiles and jet aircraft to European allies already has been recommended by the advisers, headed by William H. Draper, New York investment banker, boost.

The advisory group also suggested a billion-dollar boost by July 1961 in funds for loans to underdeveloped nations. Some Republican leaders engaged in a budget-balancing battle with the Democrats in Congress oppose the increase.

The Draper plan would not affect materially the 77-billion-dollar budget Eisenhower has submitted for the year starting July 1, since the spending involved is a year or two away.

But the submission of the plan would be a blow to the argument of Sen. styles Bridges of New Hampshire, chairman of the Senate GOP Policy Committee, and other Republicans that the Democrats are trying to put over programs that cost little at first but would enail vast fuure spending.

These Republicans obsviously think that a presidential recommendation for increased foreign aid—even if it involves no immediate spending — will mute the budget-balancing cry they feel is beginning to take hold in the country.

Eisenhower has contended in private conferences that unless steps are taken to arm U.S. allies adequately, additional billions will have to be poured into this country's defenses.

'Even When Caged, Bird Still Sings,' Says Card

WAUSAW, Wis. (AP)—When Marathon County Undersheriff Louis Gianoli was clearing a waste basket used by inmates at the county jail, he found a card from a wife on the outside to her husband on the inside. It read:

"There's cheer in the message
"This greeting brings—
"Even when caged,
"A bird still sings."

Grid Star Sells Plots

BALTIMORE, Md. (UPI)—Jim Parker, all league offensive tackle for pro football's Baltimore Colts, is selling cemetery plots during the off-season.

Balloon Trip to See Venus Is Cut Short

NEVERS, France (AP)—Strong winds today forced a young French astronomer to give up his balloon flight for a look at the planet Venus after he had soared 42,000 feet.

Andouin Dollfuss said the attempt was worthwhile for the scientific data collected even though he fell short of his goal of 82,500 feet. He made a safe landing after six hours aloft.

The adventurous 34-year-old scientist sought to rise into the stratosphere for observations of the planet free of distortion caused by the earth's atmosphere.

He rode in a sealed 1,000-pound aluminum gondola attached to a cluster of 100 10-foot balloons. He came down in a pasture on the outskirts of Premery in central France.

The pressurized, air-conditioned gondola floated down under a big parachute which opened after some of the balloons were cut loose.

Everything Happens on Buses These Days

CHICAGO (UPI) — Mrs. Delores Martin, 28, boarded a bus in Rockford, Ill., yesterday. Two Martins got off at the bus terminal in Chicago.

Mrs. Martin gave birth to a 7½-pound boy as the bus arrived. Policeman Cyril Kehoe and Fireman Norman Young assisted in the delivery.

Takes Stand Against Labor Abuses

Tie-Breaking Senate Vote Gives Nixon Official Voice

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon's tie-breaking Senate vote for a labor "bill of rights" placed him willingly on record today on a key issue of the 1960 presidential race.

His associates called it politically a "lucky break."

—It enabled Nixon as the GOP presidential front-runner to hand a defeat to Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass), the current leader in Democratic presidential polls.

—It gave Nixon a dramatic chance to show his stand on the general problem of controlling labor union abuses. Vice presidents may only vote in the Senate when there is a tie.

—It lined up the vice president with his own party on the issue. Thirty-two of the 34 Republican senators voted for the "bill of rights" amendment of Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark).

Nixon's vote putting over the McClellan amendment is certain to incur the wrath of labor leaders. But the vice president's backers expect any labor support he gets to come from rank-and-file members rather than union leaders in any event.

On balance, it appeared, he scarcely could have voted otherwise.

Before the 45-45 tie vote developed, the Senate had registered its will in favor of the McClellan amendment by a roll call vote of 47 to 46.

The tie came on a procedural followup motion designed to nail down the original vote. Thus Nixon's action could be rationalized as one of mere confirmation.

One of Nixon's recognized political handicaps is that the office of vice president offers too few opportunities for action, as opposed to mere speech-making.

While he has more administrative responsibility than any previous vice president, he cannot "execute" or originate policy like a governor such as New York's Nelson A. Rockefeller, another potential GOP presidential candidate.

Nixon may throw out the first ball, as he did for the American League on April 9, but he seldom gets to bat.

Glib Trio Preying on Farm Dwellers

ALLEGAN (UPI) — Authorities are on the lookout for a glib trio preying on solitary farm dwellers.

Two women, posing as nuns, and a man, driver of their car, stole money from two persons yesterday.

Mrs. Hattie Cushman, 78, of Laketa in Van Buren County yesterday reported the loss of her purse with $100 and Henry Sprague, 78, of the Hopkins area in Allegan, said he lost his billfold containing $39.

Both live alone. Their homes are about 50 miles apart.

Hardly Any Calories in It

There's no reason why you should look with longing at those luscious tall drinks that you crave. Sugar-free ginger ale and sparkling fruit-flavored beverages with scarcely a calorie per bottle are available in your market. Full bodied in flavor, they mix with fruit juices and fruits to make wonderful summer refreshers and you lose nothing in deliciousness, while not having to worry about that glamor girl waistline.

★ ★ ★

This combination of strawberries, grapefruit and low-calorie lemon soda is one you can enjoy often — and only 25 calories in a tall drink!

Three-Fruit Hi-Ball

1 cup strawberries
Juice of ½ grapefruit
Few grains cinnamon
2 16-oz. bottles dietetic lemon soda

Put strawberries through sieve or food mill. Add grapefruit juice and cinnamon; mix well. Divide among 4 tall glasses. Fill each glass with dietetic lemon soda. Stir gently to mix.

Barbecue Sauce Uses Little Oil—Is Different

NEW YORK (UPI)—Here's an easy barbecue sauce for chicken using very little oil.

Put ¼ cup prepared mustard in a 1-cup measure. Add ¼ cup unsulphured molasses and stir to blend. Add ¼ cup lemon juice, 2 tablespoons each salad oil and Worcestershire sauce, 1 teaspoon tabasco and ½ teaspoon each salt and monosodium glutamate. Mix for 2 broiler-fryers serving 4 persons.

DIETER'S DRESSING—A low-calorie salad dressing for the weight watcher . . . only 21 calories per tablespoonful.

Dieters Can Eat Dressing With Clear Conscience

Have you ever heard "It's not the potatoes that make you gain weight; it's the butter (or gravy)" . . . well the same is true of salads. Certainly salad greens and most vegetables are low enough in calories, but the dressing . . . there's the rub. Most dressings are an oil and vinegar base or have oil in them, and for every tablespoon of oil you rack up around 100 calories.

Any one of these dressings can be served on a dieter's salad with only a tiny dent in his calorie budget.

Basic Salad Dressing

2 tablespoons all-purpose flour.
2 tablespoons sugar
1 tablespoon butter
1 teaspoon salt
1 cup reliquefied instant nonfat dry milk crystals (according to package directions)
2 eggs, beaten
⅓ cup lemon juice

Combine flour, sugar, butter and salt; gradually stir in reliquefied instant crystals. Cook over boiling water, stirring frequently, until slightly thickened. Combine eggs and lemon juice; mix well. Add a little of hot mixture to egg mixture; blend. Add to remaining hot mixture.

★ ★ ★

Cook over boiling water until thickened, stirring frequently. Chill. Serve with fruit or vegetable salads, as desired. Makes about 1½ cups.

Variations:

Curry Dressing: Add ¼ teaspoon curry powder to ½ cup dressing; blend.

Russian Dressing: Add 2 tablespoons chili sauce and 1 tablespoon finely chopped onion to ½ cup dressing.

Cheese Dressing: Add 1 tablespoon crumbled American Blue cheese to ½ cup dressing.

Fluffy Fruit Dressing: Mix ¼ cup instant nonfat dry milk crystals with ¼ cup well-chilled pineapple juice. Whip until soft peaks form (3-4 minutes). Add 1 tablespoon lemon juice. Whip until stiff peaks form (3-4 minutes longer). Fold into ¾ cup dressing.

Rain and Cold Weather Affect Fresh Produce

Even, though cold weather and rain slowed the harvest of fresh produce in the South last week, you will find ample supplies. Wholesale pork prices are slightly higher than a week ago but several pork cuts are again on the economy list. You may choose fryers, stewers, roasters or turkeys at special prices this week.

PERKY PRODUCE

It's true. Fresh produce is generally increasing at this time of year, but cold rain did slow the quantity and influence the quality of last week's harvest.

Carrots, radishes and avocados are in good supply. Sweet corn, greenhouse tomatoes and pineapple supplies are gaining. You may find more CA (controlled atmosphere) apples with that "October fresh" flavor.

Last year's potato crop is almost gone. New potatoes from Florida and California are selling at about 6 to 8 cents per pound.

Cold weather slowed the ripening of Louisiana strawberries last week and reduced the volume picked. More berries are expected as warm weather returns. In California where weather has been dry and warm, strawberry supplies have been increasing.

LOOK FOR LETTERS

When you find the letters, CA on the apple bag, this tells you an important marketing story. CA apples have been hibernating in special air-tight storage rooms under carefully controlled temperature, humidity and atmosphere conditions since last fall. These apples are crisp, firm and flavor packed . . . taste as fresh as when they were picked. Into the refrigerator they must go for crisp keeping.

Asparagus prices may be a little higher than last week. Shipping from California's Delta district is almost over with canneries taking most of the supply. You can expect asparagus from New Jersey next. Michigan's crop is due in May.

Rain virtually halted shipments of onions for almost a week in south Texas. With fewer onions and the same number of customers, onion prices did advance. Supplies are expected to increase from now until June.

PROTEIN CHOICES

If thrift is one of your goals when protein shopping, you will stop at the dairy case for eggs and cottage cheese.

Large and extra large eggs are now the best egg values. If you check prices on a per pound basis, large eggs are 26 to 30 cents and extra large eggs are 26½ to 29 cents a pound in most markets. Medium size eggs are 29 to 34 cents a pound. Small eggs are 31 to 35 cents per pound.

A half-cup of cottage cheese contains about the same amount of protein as three ounces of cooked meat, fish or poultry. You can understand why cottage cheese is so often included in the weight-losing diets, for a half cup contains only 120 calories.

You may find regular bacon 49 to 69 cents a pound this week. This is possible because heavier hogs are yielding heavier sides from which bacon is sliced.

Picnics, Boston butt, ham, loin roasts and roll sausage are other attention getters in pork.

Bake Cookies in Big Sheet

Diamonds, they say, are a girl's best friend. Well, this certainly is true . . . if the girl is playing hostess to a festive get-together and the gems are Cinnamon Diamonds, a tasteful cookie treat which rates high praise with guests everytime they're served.

Easy to make, Cinnamon Circles combine the flavor of cinnamon and nutmeg with brown sugar, walnuts and nutritious whole wheat flakes. Serve them with mixed fresh fruit and watch your party menu sparkle.

Cinnamon Diamonds

2 cups whole wheat flakes
1½ cups sifted flour
1½ teaspoons cinnamon
¼ teaspoon nutmeg
1 cup brown sugar, firmly packed
¾ cup butter or margarine
1 egg, separated
1 cup chopped walnut meats

Crush cereal into fine crumbs. Sift together flour and spices; stir in brown sugar and cereal crumbs. Cut in butter until mixture is crumbly. Beat egg yolk; add to mixture blending well.

Knead dough to thoroughly blend ingredients. Place dough on ungreased baking sheet. Pat into 13x12-inch rectangle, about ¼ inch in thickness.

Beat egg white slightly; brush over top of dough. Sprinkle with nutmeats. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) about 20 minutes. Loosen edges; cool slightly. Cut into diamond shapes. Yield: about 3 dozen cookies.

CINNAMON DIAMONDS — Whole wheat flakes put extra nourishment into these nut-topped cookies. You bake these cookies in one large sheet, then cut them into diamonds after they are baked. Try them for your next tea party.

BAKED VEAL PAPRIKA — A baked veal paprika casserole serves as a hearty mainstay for chilly days. It has a mouth-watering flavor because it is made with a combination of onion soup mix and sour cream.

Yam Fritters Are Good Ham Mate

Nothing like a sweet potato dish to serve with ham. These fritters will make interesting eating on cold winter nights. You get a bonus too in the vitamins found in the yams—A comes in yellow vegetables.

Louisiana Yam Fritters

2 cups biscuit mix
½ teaspoon allspice
⅛ teaspoon nutmeg
1 egg, beaten
½ cup milk
1½ cups diced, cooked yams, or, 1 can (1-pound) yams, drained and diced
Vegetable oil

Combine biscuit mix, allspice, nutmeg, egg and milk, mix lightly. Fold in yams. Drop by spoonfuls into hot deep oil (375 degrees). Cook 2-4 minutes, or until lightly browned on all sides. Drain on absorbent paper. Makes 4-6 servings.

For Fruit Salads

NEW YORK (UPI)—Dressing au cognac is made to order for fruit salads. Simply add 1 teaspoon each of dry white wine and cognac and 1 tablespoon whipped cream to 1 cup basic mayonnaise. Blend well, chill and serve.

Veal Casserole Starts With California Dip

The average homemaker must, of necessity, steer a wise course between the intriguing but often complex cookery of the gourmet world and the very practical, frequently uninspired, school of basic 'homey' recipes.

For example, she can take something as simple as a casserole and yet give it a regal touch by the subtle use of seasonings or the addition of sour cream.

Baked Veal Paprika Casserole is such a dish. It is simple enough for a novice cook to accomplish and yet the end result is epicurean.

Made with the ubiquitous California Dip, a unique combination of sour cream and a package of union soup mix, this recipe also features boneless stewing veal and mushrooms. The onion soup mix lends a distinctive flavor to the other ingredients.

This Veal Paprika is particularly delicious served over fluffy mashed potatoes or buttered noodles.

Baked Veal Paprika Casserole

¼ pound salt pork, diced
2 pounds boneless stewing veal, cut into 1-inch cubes
Flour
2 3-ounce cans sliced mushrooms, drained
1 tablespoon paprika
1 cup sour cream
1 package onion soup mix
1 cup water
⅛ teaspoon pepper

Fry salt pork until crisp; remove. Roll veal in flour then brown in fat. Add mushrooms and saute 2 to 3 minutes. Blend in paprika, remove from heat. Combine sour cream and onion soup mix, stir in water and pepper; pour over veal. Place in a large 2-quart casserole and bake covered in a moderate oven, 375 degrees for 45 minutes.

Remove cover and continue baking 45 minutes longer. Garnish with salt pork pieces and chopped parsley. Serve with mashed potatoes or buttered noodles. Makes 6 servings.

Hawaiian Touch Given Ice Cream

What's more versatile than ice cream? Freeze it in a mold and it's an awe-inspiring creation . . . scoop it into cones and it's an everyday dessert. Both ways, it's delicious, especially if it's homemade. Here's a recipe that's due to become a favorite with your family. Evaporated milk's better blending qualities give it a uniformly smooth, creamy texture that's not possible with ordinary milk. It's easy on the budget, too . . . costs about 30 cents a quart to make.

Pineapple-Coconut Ice Cream

½ cup crushed pineapple (one 8¾-ounce can, drained)
½ cup pineapple syrup (drained from crushed pineapple)
½ cup flaked coconut
1½ cups (7½ to 8-ounce jar) marshmallow whip
1⅔ cups (large can) undiluted evaporated milk
¼ cup lemon juice

Combine pineapple, pineapple sirup, coconut and marshmallow whip. Allow to stand for 25 minutes. Stir occasionally until well blended.

Chill evaporated milk in refrigerator tray until soft ice crystals form around edges of tray (about 25 to 30 minutes). Whip evaporated milk until stiff (about 2 minutes longer). Add lemon juice. Whip very stiff (about 2 minutes longer).

Fold pineapple mixture into whipped evaporated milk. Spoon into refrigerator trays or 2-quart mold. Freeze until firm (about 3 hours).

Sour Cream Sauce Good for Potatoes

This recipe makes a dish different from both scalloped and creamed potatoes.

Potatoes Romanoff

5 cups diced, cooked potatoes (about 6 medium size potatoes)
2 teaspoons salt
2 cups creamed cottage cheese
1 cup dairy sour cream
¼ cup finely minced green onion
1 small clove garlic
½ cup shredded American cheese
Paprika

Cook unpeeled potatoes only until tender, then cool, peel, and cut into small cubes. Sprinkle with 1 teaspoon salt.

Combine cottage cheese, sour cream, onion and garlic which with the remaining teaspoon of salt. Fold in potato cubes and pour into a buttered 1½ quart casserole. Top with cheese and sprinkle lightly with paprika.

Bake in a moderate oven, 350 degrees, about 40 to 45 minutes, or until thoroughly heated and lightly browned on top. Makes 6 servings.

Fill Round Steak With Tangy Beans

Springtime "Teases our Appetite" with an enthusiastic flair toward new recipes. Yes, quick, tasty and easy-to-prepare foods are always a welcome addition . . . so, if you're looking for advance preparation with an hour of leisure, before meal time — prepare a Green-Bean-Bundle casserole. Add a perky gelatine salad and hot brown-and-serve rolls. Your family will love it.

It's so easy, why not invite guests and tease their appetites too! Be prepared — they'll want the recipe.

Green Bean Bundles

1 pound thinly sliced round steak
¾ teaspoon salt
Few grains pepper
¼ cup sweet pickle relish
1 can (1 lb.) small whole green beans
2 tablespoons fat or vegetable shortening
1 can (1 lb.) stewed tomatoes
½ cup onion, diced
1 teaspoon worchestershire sauce

Cut meat into four pieces. Sprinkle with salt and pepper. Spread one tablespoon pickle relish on one side of each piece of meat. Drain green beans, saving ¼ cup of the liquid. Put about a dozen green beans in the center of each piece of meat. Roll up and tie with a string.

Melt fat in heavy iron skillet; brown meat bundles. Add stewed tomatoes, onion and Worchestershire sauce. Cover; heat to the simmering point. Place skillet in 350 degrees F. oven. Cook, covered, for two hours.

Heat remaining green beans in vegetable liquid. Serve around the bean bundles with tomato sauce from skillet. Makes four servings. A dish that every homemaker will enjoy preparing.

'Country Cookbook' Will Tempt City Cooks

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Those readers who grew up on farms will find a nostalgic note when they leaf through the Farm Journal's Country Cookbook, recently published by Doubleday and Company (New York, $4.95).

This is no ordinary cookbook. Instead, it is a gathering together of the best recipes from farm kitchens across the nation and from the Farm Journal's Test Kitchens.

Even the chapter headings are different. The first one is titled, "Company Specials" and includes recipes for all parts of a meal. "Dishes to Tote" will appeal to the devotee of the potluck dinner.

FARM PRODUCTS

As you might expect from a cookbook which originated in part in country kitchens, there is an entire chapter devoted to good foods made with butter and cream and another to milk and cheese.

Not only does the Country Cookbook have recipes for large scale cooking, but it has a chapter on "Money-Maker Recipes."

One of the most interesting chapters is the one devoted to "Old-Fashioned Recipes."

If you acquired a fondness for pressed chicken back in your childhood when you went to grandmother's house for Sunday night supper, this chapter will bring back all those memories, as well as the recipe for the chicken.

Pressed Chicken

3 (3½ pounds) chickens
6-8 cups hot water
3 teaspoons salt
1 carrot, quartered
1 cup celery, chopped
12 parsley sprigs
¾ teaspoon savory
1 medium onion

Cut chicken in pieces. Put in large kettle and add remaining ingredients. Bring to boil; simmer until chicken is very tender.

Remove chicken from kettle and strain broth. Return broth to heat and simmer until reduced to half its measure. Remove meat from bones; leave it in small pieces.

Add chicken to cooked-down broth; simmer 5 minutes. Pour into 9x5x3 loaf pan, cover and weight down to press. Chill overnight. To serve, cut in ½-inch slices. Makes 18 slices.

Nell Nichols who edited this cookbook has spent a number of years touring the country talking with homemakers about food. A farm girl herself in her girlhood days, she recognizes the fact the both the kitchens and the food in them have changed greatly in the past few years. The Country Cookbook makes note of this change and gears its recipes to modern times.

★ ★ ★

But the old-fashioned flavor has not been lost. If you are like your reviewer, you will spend hours just reading this cookbook. It'll make your mouth water and you'll lose no time in trying out some of the recipes. How's this for a starter?

Grape-Cream Sherbet

1 cup thick sour cream
1 cup milk
1½ cups sugar
1 egg, well beaten
1 cup grape juice
¼ cup lemon juice

Combine all ingredients in bowl. Beat until sugar is dissolved.

Pour into 2 refrigerator trays and freeze nearly firm. Turn mixture into chilled bowl. Beat with chilled rotary or electric beater until fluffy smooth, but not melted.

Return to trays and freeze firm. Makes 6 servings.

Honey Eggnog Does Double Duty

For a real Honey-for-Breakfast treat for the children there is nothing that provides more lasting energy for their active day, nothing that is so attractively rich and smooth as honey eggnog used to pour over their favorite cereal. Follow this simple recipe for honey eggnog.

Prepare a pitcherful in advance and store it in the refrigerator for use at breakfast on a typically busy week-day morning. You will find the youngsters asking for second helpings.

Honey Eggnog

Simply beat two eggs well, gradually add three tablespoons of honey, and two cups of milk. Blend thoroughly. Add one-half teaspoon vanilla if desired. This makes enough for four cereal bowls.

Tri Color Dessert

Make individual shells from a package of meringue mix. Just before serving fill with drained canned apricot halves and whipped cream. Top with a garnish of unsweetened chocolate curls or chocolate shot.

Area Kitchen Tour Held Today

Pontiac Press Home Editor

Something new happened in Pontiac this afternoon—a Kitchen Tour. So far as members of the Barbara Norris Circle of Central Methodist Church can find out, this area has never had such a tour before.

Guests gathered at the home of Mrs. W. Henry Sink on Avondale in Sylvan Lake City to see a kitchen that was remodeled last year. Pontiac Press readers saw the remodeled kitchen in the Home Section last fall.

Next on the list was another Sylvan Lake City kitchen — the one in the home of the James Morrisseys on Lakeland. This kitchen you may see in the Builders Tab on April 29. You will also see the Charles Conat kitchen, number three in the tour. The Conats live on North Hammond Lake drive.

At the home of Mrs. Max Shane on East Hammond Lake drive guests were invited to participate in a "Tasting Bee" and to buy recipes for dishes they specially liked. The tour concluded with tea at the home of Mrs. John L. Flood, a neighbor of Mrs. Shane's. You saw the Flood kitchen in a Home Section story.

Although recipes for the goodies in the Tasting Bee were sold, the committee graciously turned them all over to us with permission to publish any we chose. We decided on one casserole and one dessert.

SPINACH, NOODLES AND CHEESE
By Mr. John Flood

2 cups cooked noodles
½ pound cheddar cheese, grated
2 cups chopped cooked spinach
1 cup milk
4 tablespoons shortening
1 tablespoon flour
½ teaspoon salt
Dash pepper and paprika

Place noodles in buttered baking dish and cover with half the cheese. Put spinach over the cheese. Make sauce of other ingredients and pour over spinach. Sprinkle rest of cheese on top. Bake at 450 degrees for 10 minutes, or until brown.

GRAHAM CRACKER CAKE
By Mrs. Dorothy Hatfield

1 cup graham cracker crumbs
1 cup sugar
½ cup chopped nuts
½ cup chopped dates
½ teaspoon vanilla
½ teaspoon baking powder
3 eggs, separated

Stir sugar into beaten egg yolks. Combine crumbs, nuts, dates and baking powder. Fold this mixture into egg and sugar mixture. Add vanilla. Gently fold in stiffly beaten egg whites.

Bake 30 minutes at 350 degrees. Serve with whipped cream.

Vegetables Lend Color to Filling

Confetti Turkey Salad Sandwiches are colorful, gala and festive.

* * *

To make turkey salad for 6 sandwiches, mix together 1 cup chopped cooked turkey, one-third cup chopped ripe olives, ¼ cup finely chopped green pepper, ¼ cup grated carrot, ½ teaspoon salt, ⅛ teaspoon pepper and 3 tablespoons salad dressing.

Spread 12 slices whole wheat bread with softened butter or margarine. Spread 6 slices with turkey mixture. Cover with lettuce and top with remaining bread slices. Makes 6 sandwiches.

When you want a changeover from potatoes for a meat or fish accompaniment, toast small bread squares in butter or margarine and mix with cooked drained noodles.

Old Time Favorite Still Excellent Dinner Salad

Transparent and colorless, unflavored gelatine is a showcase to display ingredients used with it to best advantage. It introduces no taste of its own so allows the true, natural flavors of other food ingredients to predominate.

* * *

This magic gelatine also blends foods of different textures and flavors into a harmonious whole. Thus, the shredded cabbage, diced celery and green papper or pimiento become a taste medley in perfection salad.

* * *

The perfection salad mixture can be molded in one fancy mold, or it can be chilled until firm in individual molds.

Perfection Salad

1 envelope unflavored gelatine
¼ cup sugar
½ teaspoon salt
1¼ cups cold water, divided
¼ cup vinegar or lemon juice
¾ cup finely shreded cabbage
1 cup diced celery
¼ cup diced green pepper or pimiento

Mix together gelatine, sugar and salt in a saucepan. Stir in ½ cup of the cold water. Place over medium heat, stirring constantly, until gelatine and sugar are dissolved. Remove from heat; stir in remaining ¾ cup water, vinegar or lemon juice.

Chill until mixture is the consistency of unbeaten egg white. Fold in cabbage, celery and green pepper. Turn into a 6 cup mold or individual molds. Chill until firm. If desired, unmold on salad greens; serve with mayonnaise.

Yield: 6 servings.

Note: If desired shredded carrot may be substituted for the cabbage. Diced cucumber may be substituted for all or half the celery.

PERFECTION SALAD CLASSIC—Perfection salad . . . a combination of shredded cabbage, diced celery and green pepper or pimiento in unflavored gelatin . . . is a classic of gel-cookery. It has been known and liked for decades in America. Unflavored gelatine in granulated form was first sold in America in 1890.

Butter Will Keep Bread From Soaking Up Filling

EAST LANSING, Mich. (UPI)—Instead of making sandwiches each day for school or work lunches, Michigan State University home economists suggest that you make several at a time and freeze them until you need them.

You will get best results by using butter as a spread, as mayonnaise or salad dressing tend to make sandwiches soggy when thawed.

Gay 90s Theme Marks Bosses Night

6th AWBA Banquet Is Top Event

Tipacon chapter of the American Business Women's Association returned to the Gay Nineties last evening. Members in authentic costumes of the period met their bosses at the door of Hi-Land Manor for their sixth annual Bosses Night.

* * *

Each boss had a decorated mug with his name on it for the cocktail hour which preceded the dinner and program.

President of Tipacon Chapter Mrs. Richard Veazey, and Mrs. Frances Snowden, vice president of the Northeast District, greeted the guests.

HANDLEBAR MUSTACHES

Handlebar mustaches were given to the men, and nosegays to the women. The Gay Nineties theme was carried out in the table and floral arrangements.

The group sang current (Gay Nineties, that is) songs, like "Down by the Old Mill Stream" and "Daisy" to the music of Burt Jerkiss, who kept up a rippling musical commentary throughout the evening.

* * *

Major Robert McMahan of the Salvation Army was guest speaker. His topic was "Therapeutic Risibility" and he demonstrated the value of laughter to a responsive audience.

Mrs. Virginia Sommerville, secretary to Dr. Dana P. Whitmer, superintendent of the Pontiac Board of Education, officially welcomed the guests, and Dr. Philip J. Proud, assistant superintendent in charge of personnel and public relations of the Pontiac school system, gave the response.

COPPERSMITH HONORED

Charles Coppersmith of the Pearce Floral Company became the first "honorary boss" when he was presented with the Elbert Hubbard Award.

* * *

A comedy skit starring Lillian Laska, Julie O'Brien and Mrs. Charles A. Stark drew a startling contrast between the modern secretary and one who toiled in the 1890s.

* * *

Frances Phillips was banquet chairman, Lillian Laska, cochairman. Mrs. Henry Healy was in charge of the programs.

Others were Mrs. Edward Furse, decorations; Mrs. Ruby Brusha, programs; Mrs. Elva Templeton, courtesy; and Mrs. Dorothy Brooks, tickets.

MRS. JOHN DUNCAN

Pontioak Chapter Names Secretary of the Week

To celebrate National Secretaries Week observed April 19 through 26 throughout the country, local chapters of the National Secretaries Association have selected secretaries of the week. These women are eligible to compete in the national secretary of the year contest sponsored by the NSA.

Mrs. John Duncan was selected secretary of the week for Oakland County by Pontioak chapter. She has been secretary to Clifford H. Smart, superintendent of Walled Lake Consolidated Schools for the past six years.

Mrs. Duncan was honored at the annual banquet of National Secretaries Association, Pontioak Chapter, Wednesday evening at Ted's Restaurant.

* * *

She has been active in Pontioak Chapter work, is immediate past president and was chairman of the first workshop. She also served as recording secretary. She is now serving on the Michigan Division Membership Committee of National Secretaries Association.

* * *

Mrs. Duncan is a member of Oakland Association of Educational Secretaries and the Twin Beach Country Club. She is now working on her CPS examination.

* * *

A crown, corsage, gift certificates and numerous gifts were presented by merchants of Oakland County to the new Secretary of the Week.

Mrs. Garland Woody was chairman for Secretaries Week. Mrs. Charlie Woody and Mrs. Garland Woody were hostesses for the evening.

The Pontioak Chapter received proclamations from Gov. G. Mennen Williams, Mayor Philip Rowston, Mayor Waldo C. Proctor of Walled Lake, Mayor Carl Ingraham of Birmingham and Mayor Bruce Garbutt of Ferndale, proclaiming April 19 to 25 as National Secretaries Week.

135 Attend Ascension Banquet

Mother-Daughter Affair Sponsored by Church Guild

One hundred and thirty-five members and guests attended the annual mother-and-daughter banquet of Women's Guild of Lutheran Church of Ascension, held Monday at Pontiac Federal Savings and Loan Building.

Mrs. William LaFountain opened the meeting. Mrs. Fred Sytz welcomed guests and read, "What Is a Daughter?" Mrs. Lawrence Colbeth was honored as a great-grandmother. Three generations of her family were represented at the banquet.

* * *

Mrs. Dallas Nelson was honored for having the youngest daughter present.

Church nursery and plans for daily vacation Bible school were discussed by the Rev. William LaFountain. Mrs. Robert Elert presented two musical selections.

Children were entertained with a puppet show.

* * *

On the serving committee were Mrs. Harold Wood, chairman; Mrs. Raymond Snell, Mrs. Conrad Kohn, Mrs. Herbert Rohn, Mrs. William Koggenhop, Mrs. Claude Slaght, Katherine Schey, Mrs. Everett Given, and Mrs. Oscar Forslund.

Table committee included Mrs. Gordon Carlson, chairman; Mrs. LeRoy Boelter, Mrs. John Klausmeyer, Mrs. Gerald Reed, Mrs. Albert Selberg, Mrs. Donald Grudt and Mrs. Gerald Hesse.

Russian Lauds U.S. Women

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—A Soviet woman touring the United States says American women's energy and vigor soon will give them equality with men. Soviet women, she says, already have achieved it.

Mrs. Olga Khvalebnova, vice president of the Soviet Union's Society of Dissemination of Scientific Knowledge, said Wednesday she was impressed with what she called "the sincerity of thought, strength and business heads" of U.S. women.

* * *

Mrs. Khvalebnova is ending a month-long tour of seven American cities with Mrs. Nina Orlova, a Soviet lawyer.

The tour was arranged by the National Council of Women, in co-operation with the U.S. Department of State.

The purpose: to establish friendly contacts with American women.

* * *

"We feel the tour has been very worthwhile," she said through an interpreter.

The women said they had been impressed with labor-saving devices available to women in America. They said that under the current Soviet seven-year economic plan, mass production of similar machines soon would make them everyday items to Soviet householders, too.

Dear Abby . . .

Now's Time to Clamp Down on 'Good Neighbor' Policy

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

"DEAR ABBY: A neighbor of mine asked me to keep her two-year-old child while she went on a trip to 'see her sick mother'—she said. When she got back she never mentioned her mother but told me how much fun she had with a soldier she met there.

ABBY

"She gave this soldier my name and address and now letters are coming addressed to me on the outside but when you open the envelope there is another one inside, sealed and addressed to her. I have no intention of helping a married woman carry on an affair like this. How can I keep out of it?"

NO GO-BETWEEN

DEAR NO GO: Tell your neighbor that you want no part of this monkey business and if any more letters come for her, addressed to you, you'll return them to the sender.

"DEAR ABBY: Can you hold a man responsible for what he says on his wedding night? My husband made all sorts of promises to me and never kept any of them. The minor ones like taking over the payments on my car did not hurt me so much, but he said he would never love anyone else but me, and he's been seen all over town with other girls. Can you help me?"

MARRIED SEVEN MONTHS

DEAR MARRIED: More important than what he "said" on his wedding night are the vows he took on his wedding day. You can hold him responsible, but you'd better start thinking seriously about how you can hold him, period.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: My best girl friend and her boy friend broke up after school at 3:30 and at 4 o'clock he asked me to go steady. I told him I would have to ask my mother and he should call me after supper. He called me at 7 p. m. and I told him I couldn't talk my mother into it yet but if he waited until tomorrow I would have the answer for him. In the meantime, my girl friend called me up and told me to hurry up and get permission because she had a chance to go steady with another guy, but she promised her old boy friend she wouldn't leave him with nobody. I can't get my mother's permission to go steady and my girl friend wants to change steadies, so what am I supposed to do?"

IN THE MIDDLE

DEAR IN: Tell your girl friend if she wants to change steadies to go ahead but she has no right promising her old boy friend a new girl friend and asking you to be it.

★ ★ ★

"DEAR ABBY: Why is it that every time you pick up a magazine or a newspaper there is an article or an ad telling you how to reduce but you never see anything about how to gain weight? I am five feet three and weigh a hundred pounds. I am so skinny you can see my ribs. Have you any suggestions as to how I can gain?"

SKINNY

DEAR SKINNY: The only sensible way to gain weight is to go to a doctor and let him give you a high calorie diet.

★ ★ ★

"DEAR ABBY: Is there any DEFINITE proof of the parentage of a baby if the mother has been with several different men? How conclusive is a blood test? Just what would one prove? Please give me an authoritative reply soon.

WORRIED

DEAR WORRIED: A blood test will prove only who the baby's father ISN'T . . .not who the baby's father IS.

★ ★ ★

CONFIDENTIAL TO SEVENTEEN AND TWENTY: You were married "jung" and easily "freudend" . . . now make the best of it.

Program Presented at Wever

Springtime Songs, Music Highlights Assembly

Students of Wever School presented an assembly of springtime songs and activities in the school gymnasium Wednesday.

The program was directed and accompanied by Mrs. Melvin Boersma, music teacher.

"Spring Rhythms" was presented by the kindergarten under the direction of Mrs. Byford Laur, kindergarten teacher.

First, second and third grades presented a song and pantomime, "Cottage in the Woods." The first grade did action songs, "Gray Pigeon," "Six Little Ducks" and "Pussy Willow."

The second grade's presentation was "Rain, Rain" and "Wind Elves," accompanied by rhythm instruments.

Third grade, accompanied by melody bells, sang "Springtime" and "Spring Carnival," and the fourth grade gave a comic western song, "Dr. Ironbeard," and a two-part round, "Susan Blue."

Fourth, fifth and sixth grades joined in "Cuckoo" and fifth and sixth grades closed the program with "I Like it Here" and "Swiss Walking Song."

Brushing Hair Gives It Body

NEW YORK—Brushing the hair increases the wave, says hair stylist John Bernard.

After a set, and especially after a permanent, women should brush the hair first in the opposite direction of the wave, then back in line, Bernard said. This makes the hair hold its shape. If hair is oily, brush vigorously before washing to clean it, but only lightly after the shampoo to prevent over-stimulation. The finer the hair, the finer the brush should be.

Theodora is the Greek word for "gift of God."

Gloves Feature Rainbow Hues

In gloves, we find bright, brilliant pinks, oranges and blues vying in popularity with paler tones of lavender, green, beige, and the always-acceptable white and off-white.

Novelties include tiny flowers made from the narrowest of narrow ribbon, small tucks, appliques, beading, eyelets, faggoting, and sheer nylon backs combined with featherweight-kid palms.

Check for Drainage When You Buy Lot

Newlyweds and apartment dwellers buying their first home shoud be certain the house is on a well-drained lot. This is especially important if a basement is involved.

Check the soil or have someone check the drainage for you. Well-drained soil generally is brown or yellowish brown two or three feet deep. Poorly drained soil is gray or pale brown.

What Young People Think:

Woman's Place Is in Home, Say Teenagers

By EUGENE GILBERT

Get out from behind that bulldozer, Mother, your place is still in the home.

So say a majority of the teenagers we contacted in a nationwide survey on the problem of working wives.

Nearly 6 out of 10 youngsters were opposed to wives taking either full or part time jobs, and even more when there were small children at home.

Women today may be emancipated to the point where they can become captains of industry, pilot jet planes, run banks and baseball teams, but as far as most teenagers are concerned, their main career is still piloting a baby carriage.

"I feel that a woman's place is still in the home," said 15-year-old Claire Valliere of Hartford, Conn., in a statement that just about represented the majority viewpoint.

Minority spokesman Lenore Castro, a 16-year-old Flushing, N. Y., dissenter, feels that wives should be allowed to work because "when they stay home they become fat and lazy."

Significantly, however, most of those who defend working wives do so only if the money they make is needed to help the family budget.

★ ★ ★

Answers to other questions in the survey underline the teenagers' concern for what happens to children in a home where the mother has to go out to work.

MOM, STAY HOME!

For instance:

Eighty per cent of the youngsters interviewed thought it was all right for brides to work before the children came along.

Seventy per cent were opposed to wives working if there were small children at home.

Sixty-six per cent saw no objection to wives working if the children were teenaged or older, although an outspoken minority argued that teenagers needed a mother's care and attention as much, if not more, than any other group.

How long should a bride continue to work?

Again, children were the primary concern. The biggest group, 42 per cent, thought she should quit when the first baby came.

Eighteen per cent thought she should work only as long as she had to, meaning only as long as the extra money was needed.

Twelve per cent figured that, at the outside, she should work no more than three years, lest her position become subordinate to her role as wife. And only 8 per cent were willing to let her work "as long as she cared to."

Of the total group interviewed, 28 per cent said they came from a home where their mother worked either full or part time. Interestingly enough, teenagers with working mothers did not vary as a group in their opinions on the subject from other teenagers.

Most were opposed to mothers working where small children were involved, were inclined to approve if the children were teenaged and saw no objection for a newlywed to work and help out the family income.

"My mother works and things are just fine," said 16-year-old James McClurg of St. Louis.

★ ★ ★

"If the wife enjoys working part time and the family can use the money, I see no objection as long as it doesn't take her completely away from her housework," said 15-year-old Mary Ann Martin of Indianapolis, whose mother has a part-time job.

TEENS NEED MOTHER

But 15-year-old Gail Corbett of Dallas, Tex., wished that her mother didn't have to work. "Teenagers," she commented, "need their mothers even more."

Teenagers whose mothers did not work were similarly divided on whether or not wives with teenage children should go out to work.

"Yes, she should be allowed to work when the children reach their teens," insisted 16-year-old Judy Chesus of St. Louis. "She has a right to get out sometime."

"Children have to learn to be independent sometime," put in Daniel Schrader, 16, also of St. Louis.

But to 16-year-old Marcia Rives of Detroit a mother's place is definitely in the home when teenagers are about, "for these are the years when they need guidance most of all."

"Teeners are at a very impressionable age," insisted Stephen Alexander, 17, of St. Louis. "Maybe there wouldn't be an juvenile delinquency problem if there wasn't also a working wife problem."

If both a wife and a husband work, who should control the purse string?

This question caused the widest division of opinion in the whole survey:

Thirty-eight per cent figured father should control the family finances.

Twenty-nine per cent delegated this chore to mother.

Eighteen per cent answered that either they should each keep their own checks or pool them and jointly rule the family budget.

Fifteen per cent refused to be drawn into a money argument at all.

But perhaps the most plausible solution was offered by 14-year-old Gloria Girard of Hartford, Conn.: "it all depends on who is the more capable."

Getting Ready for Wedding?

As spring arrives, many Pontiac area girls are in a whirl of busy preparation for fast approaching weddings.

We of The Pontiac Press Women's Department have several suggestions for prospective brides to assure them of complete, accurate and timely wedding stories.

And these suggestions hold true whether it be a wedding in the balmy spring or snowy wintertime.

The Press has prepared wedding forms to be filled out with all the necessary information for a complete and accurate wedding story.

The forms, which may be obtained from our office or from many of the local photographers who take the wedding pictures, should be returned to the Women's Department at least two days before the wedding. It takes this amount of time to handle such detailed stories.

Wedding stories received more than three days after a wedding will necessarily be cut and will not include such details as reception and bridal costumes.

Local photographers have been most cooperative in meeting our deadlines and usually see to it that we have the pictures within the specified time.

Pictures should be black and white glossy prints, as colored or sepia or snapshot pictures do not reproduce well. Because of our limited space, we can only use pictures of the bride alone and not of the couple.

Also because of space, brides-to-be may submit only one picture (either engagement or wedding) if they are to be married within two months of the engagement announcement.

We implore, once again, as we did regarding news stories, to write all information as clearly as possible taking special care to see that names are printed and spelled properly.

Here's List of Mechanical Danger Points

Car Needs a Spring Checkup, Too

Your automobile has suffered through a long, hard and cold winter ladies, and it is, figuratively speaking, as glad as you are to see more gentle weather on its way. So when you're in the process of doing your general spring cleaning and fixing, don't neglect your automobile.

Make an appointment now with a reliable automobile mechanic to have your car prepared for the summer driving ahead. Or, if you're married and your husband takes care of such things, you might tactfully remind him that it's time to take the car in for a spring checkup.

Following is a spring check list prepared by the driver education staff of the Michigan State University Highway Traffic Safety Center. When you take the car to the garage or service station, take the list with you.

That part of the list in parentheses is for the mechanic who will do the work on your car. Ask him to check off each item as completed.

1. (Drain and flush radiator and add rust inhibitor). This is advised even if you have permanent anti-freeze, because rust may develop and could harm your cooling system.

2. (Replace winter-weight oil with summer-weight oil. Check oil filter). A light-weight oil is used for winter driving and must be replaced with a heavier oil for summer.

3. (General lubrication of vehicle, including differential, universal joint and transmission).

4. (Inspect exhaust system). The chemicals used to melt snow and ice on our streets and highways during the winter months are likely to cause rust and damage to the exhaust system. If there are leaks in your exhaust system, you may be exposed to escaping carbon monoxide, a deadly gas.

5. (Check tires for wear and wheel alignment. Adjust headlights). Your vehicle is jolted around a good bit because of the conditions of winter driving, and your wheels and headlamps may have been jarred out of proper alignment.

6. (Inspect and adjust fan belt).

7. (Check horn).

8. (Make sure there is water in the windshield washer reservoir and check wiper blades). The blades may not do the job as they should because of the type of "freezing work" they have done during the winter.

9. (Tune-up motor).

10. (Wash car thoroughly, including in and around doors and underneath the vehicle). You may want to do this yourself or have it done at the garage or service station.

Follow Beauty Routine

Spring Calls for a Lighter Make-Up

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

It is impossible to think of a SPRING MAKEOVER without thinking of makeup. While your cosmetics always should match your own skin tone, nevertheless you probably will want to change some of the colors you have been using now that spring is here and summer is within 'speaking' distance.

Many of the shades which matched and enhanced darker winter garb look too heavy and are too great a contrast to the whtites and pastels we will be wearing from now on. The cosmeticians realize this and you will find lighter shade lipsticks blooming from every cosmetic counter. As a general rule makeup also should be applied with a lighter hand in springtime.

Do this exercise faithfully, along with the others that have been illustrated to insure a successful spring makeover.

There are several little beauty routines which seem unimportant but which add much to the charm of a woman's appearance. I am thinking of the rough heels and elbows which winter leaves behind. You are a rare woman if you do not now have this difficulty.

The use of a body lotion or a cream on the heels every night is essential. Also massage your cold cream into your elbows when you lubricate your face and neck. If you have not used an eye cream, pat one about your eyes before going to sleep each night.

Another much neglected habit is the use of a cuticle cream or oil. You can massage this into the skin about the nails of your hands with wonderfully rewarding results. As part of your SPRING MAKEOVER, adopt these measures even if only for a few weeks.

Of course figure faults are the main concern of most women who are getting ready for summer clothes. As those of you know who have been reading "Why Grow Old?" this week,. I am printing my 9-Day Reducing Diet as a part of your SPRING MAKEOVER. Here are the menus for tomorrow.

Breakfast

One egg
One thin dry slice of whole wheat toast
Black coffee

LUNCHEON

Fresh fruit salad
Two tablespoons cottage cheese
One glass skimmed milk
One thin dry slice of whole wheat toast

Dinner

Baked fish, medium portion
One-half cup cabbage, lightly cooked
One-half cup, spinach or greens
One glass skimmed milk
One orange

Here is your daily exercise. Sit on the floor with your legs resting on the floor in front of you (knees stiff). Clasp your hands behind you. Roll onto the right hip and thigh, keeping knees stiff and supporting yourself some with your hands. Now roll over onto the left side.

Continue rolling from side to side as far as you can while still keeping your balance. The legs remain on the floor throughout this exercise.

If you have missed some of the menus which have been printed in your newspaper, or would like to have my 9-Day Diet in booklet form, send 10 cents and a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for it. This diet gives you a loss of from five to 10 pounds in nine day's time.

Tomorrow: "Here's How To Get The Most Out of Exercises."

Do You End Praise With Critical Word

By RUTH MILLETT

Some women can't say anything complimentary about another woman without adding the "but" that turns the compliment into criticism—

Yes, her hair is pretty, but it's obviously a dye job.

She's a nice person, but a little too much of a do-gooder for my taste.

I'll admit she has been a good president, but she needn't act as though she's the only one who could have handled the job.

Her house is attractive, but it's not one I would choose for myself.

She always looks stunning, but, after all, anyone could if they had that kind of money to spend on clothes.

They seem to be happily married —but, of course, you never can tell.

It was a nice party, but she invited too many guests.

She's a popular girl, but I understand she's kind of wild.

She's young-looking, but she's not as young as she pretends to be.

She's a nice person, but she's such a poor housekeeper.

She's amusing, but don't tell her anything you don't want repeated.

She's a hard worker, but she irritates a lot of people by being so bossy.

Just listen next time you are in a group of women. If it's a group of any size there is almost sure to be one woman who turns every compliment into a criticism by adding that unkind little "but."

Better yet, listen to your own remarks about others to be sure you aren't doing it yourself.

Pillar Club Meets at Kirby Home

Mrs. Paul Taylor gave a book review at a meeting of the Pillar Club held Tuesday evening at the Cherokee road home of Mrs. Frank Kirby.

Taking part in the program were Mrs. A. L. Hulet, Mrs. W. H. Knudsen and Mrs. Fred Voelker.

PCH Students Present Skit

Pontiac Central High School's Radio Workshop, directed by Vera Mae Adams, presented a skit, "The Story of America," based on a brotherhood theme, at a meeting of the Sisterhood of Temple Beth Jacob Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Irving Steinman introduced the program.

Luncheonette was served under the chairmanship of Mrs. Barnard Anchor, assisted by Mrs. Charles Gersten, Mrs. Sherwin Birnkrant and Mrs. Irving Schlyfestone.

Standing committee chairmen gave annual reports at the meeting. Mrs. Irving Schlyfestone and Mrs. Harry Ackerman also participated in the afternoon's activities.

A price tag is not always indicative of quality. So don't rely on it as a sure guide when you shop for fashion. It's best to develop your own judgment.

A sleeveless, cape-collared dress of shades of green ushers in the spring weather. The dress is of printed raffia cotton. The cape and skirt feature soft fold-pleats.

Tell Dry Cleaners About Fabrics

Plastic foam is finding its way into quilted coat linings these days. And folks are finding that it takes special care in cleaning these garments.

Plastic foam should not be cleaned in synthetic solvents. Tell your dry cleaner what you have, and he'll use the dry cleaning solution suitable for the material.

Coffee Series Will Boost Hospital Scholarships

The first scholarship coffee series of the Women's Auxiliary to Pontiac General Hospital is scheduled for the month of May. Funds raised will go towards a medical technology scholarship and a nursing scholarship to be available to students in Pontiac area high schools:

Ten key hostesses from various areas served by the hospital each will invite four friends to coffee in their homes, at which time a small donation will be collected.

These four friends will be hostesses the next week, inviting four more friends to their homes for coffee. This "chain reaction" will continue for four weeks, by which time more than 800 women in the Pontiac area will have made contributions to the scholarship fund.

Mrs. Forest Wood is chairman of the fund raising series.

Hills Country Club to Mark 50th Birthday

By RUTH SAUNDERS

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — To celebrate its 50th anniversary year, Bloomfield Hills Country Club has planned a very special dinner dance for Saturday evening.

Golden decorations, including drapes for the ballroom windows, are being carried out in floral arrangements. Several small corners will represent Belle Isle, Woodward avenue when its beautiful trees almost met overhead, and interurban street cars of half a century ago.

Nostalgic members will remember the Windsor and Belle Isle ferry boats, and the old bridge which closed too early after the Boat Club dances.

Several home parties will precede the club party and among hosts will be Mr. and Mrs. John S. Kerr, Joseph Monaghan, club president; Mr. and Mrs. Lester L. Colbert, Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Moyer, the Edgar B. Klints, the Norman Fredericks, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Colman, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Downey, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Taylor, the James K. Campbells and others.

Starting today Princeton alumnae will enjoy a weekend filled with most interesting seminars as well as gay social events planned to honor Dr. and Mrs. Robert F. Goheen. Dr. Goheen is president of Princeton University.

Friday, alumnae will attend a dinner at Bloomfield Hills Country Club and Saturday a dinner dance at the Country Club of Detroit in Grosse Pointe. The Sheraton Cadillac Hotel will be Princeton headquarters over the weekend.

With all these nice affairs coming up, there is also the opening of trout season Saturday.

Among the many families going north for that big day are Mr. and Mrs. David M. Burnett. Besides donning hip boots (and baptizing Mrs. B.'s new rod and reel) they will help their hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin P. Hills, celebrate their wedding anniversary and Mrs. Hills' birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lou Walton of Traverse City also will be guests at the Hills' cabin, "Birchills," on the AuSable River.

At Mullett Lake the William L. Martins with Bunny and Billie (Mollie is at Denison University) will be hosts to Mr. and Mrs. Marc J. Parsons and their son, Jim.

★ ★ ★

Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Budd, who are moving in June to Charlottesville, Va., have planned to give a dinner party Saturday, May 2.

★ ★ ★

Announcement was made recently by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fraser E. Pomeroy, of the engagement of Mary Lou Pomeroy to Harry L. Buck Jr.

The bride-elect attends Bucknell University, where she is a member of Pi Beta Phi Sorority.

Mr. Buck, whose parents live in Bala-Cynwyd, Pa., also attends Bucknell. He is a member of Phi Kappa Psi.

★ ★ ★

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard E. Brown are spending a fortnight in Birmingham en route to their summer home at Glen Lake. They have spent the winter in Florida and before driving north visited their son-in-law and daughter, Lt. and Mrs. Charles F. Matheson at Winter Park.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Campbell Harvey of Orchard Lake and Mrs. George A. Beecher of Birmingham arrive home Friday after a motor trip to the West Coast.

★ ★ ★

Mr. and Mrs. C. Theron VanDusen have arrived home from Florida. They stopped off in Tryon, N.C., for a week.

★ ★ ★

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Breech arrived home early this week from a stay in Bellaire, Fla.

Their guests at the Aero Club dinner in Detroit Tuesday were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Forster Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Jeynes.

This pert and pretty fashion-minded customer is considering the color of her latest purchase, the synthetic wig sensation. The current craze for fashion wigs has received such enthusiastic consumer reaction it could conceivably rival the hula hoop craze. Available locally.

New 'Gamin' Wigs Bring Rush of Color to the Head

Made of celanese solution-dyed acetate yarns, treated with a fire-retardant chemical, these lustrous, wavy wigs, coifed in the "gamin" hairstyle, are easily manageable and can be combed, brushed, sprayed and reset into a number of styles by the owner.

Designers David & David, one of the world's largest manufacturers of doll wigs, are making the popular-priced fashion novelty available in 17 flight-of-fancy colors, including the natural shades.

Women of all ages and occupations, from school girls and secretaries to mothers and grandmothers, are cheering this rush of color to the head.

Gals with adventurous fashion ideas are buying the daring pastel shades of iceblue, mint green and platinum blondes—as well as the fantastic mad-hatter brights in purple, sapphire and shocking pink—to blend with their evening clothes for unique cocktail occasions or for daily use in matching hair to accessories or dresses.

The wigs can be worn just like a hat in the early morning to hide the pincurls underneath. They are also apropos for tricky hostess gifts and for beachwear fashions to color-coordinate with bathing suits.

Club Bids Farewell to Mrs. Essery

Mrs. William Essery who is moving to Canada, was honored with a farewell dinner Tuesday evening given by Xi Sigma Phi Sorority at the Mt. Alpha Nu Chapter of Beta Royal street home of Mrs. Douglas Menzel.

Assisting with the dinner were Mrs. Richard Benham, Mrs. William Cheal, Mrs. Harvey Kerr and Mrs. Edward Markham.

Officers were installed by Mrs. Benham. The next meeting will be a Mother's Day fete, to be held May 8 at the home of Mrs. Clarence Garden.

Don't Stop to Visit for Long

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: While my friend (male) of long standing and I were dining at a popular spot, another couple (man and wife) I know quite well entered and occupied a table nearby. My friend had met the gentleman on one previous occasion.

"On leaving, we had to pass their table. My friend knew I planned to stop and say "hello" to them and I expected he would stop with me, but he walked right by them.

"I think he showed very bad manners. He thinks he was right to walk on. What is your opinion?"

Answer: If the husband showed no sign that he remembered your friend, he would have been right in saying to you, "I'll go on ahead and get our coats and meet you in the lobby." But if he was recognized, he should have stopped with you, said good-evening, and been introduced to the wife. In any case, you should not have kept the husband standing for longer than necessary to introduce your friend and exchange a very few words of greeting.

"Dear Mrs. Post: I have been invited to a shower that is being given for twin sisters who are to be married shortly at a double wedding. I would like to know if it is necessary to take two presents, or would one present for the bride who is my particular friend, be sufficient?"

Answer: I suggest that you take an inexpensive token present for the twin you don't know well and something more important for the one who is your particular friend.

"Dear Mrs. Post: When a box of candy is passed around, is it proper for a guest to take two pieces, or must only one piece be taken. I would appreciate an answer to this question as there has been some discussion about it."

Answer: A guest should take one piece and then wait for the box to be passed again before taking a second piece.

Shines at Rome Party

Princess Meg Dances Till Dawn

ROME (UPI)—A vivacious Princess Margaret captivated Rome's aristocracy today by dancing till dawn at a champagne and scrambled eggs party in a nightclub decorated with nude paintings.

Margaret, radiant and beautiful in a biege, calf-length gown set off by a diamond necklace, arrived shortly after midnight and danced almost continuously until she left at 5 a.m.

She changed partners at almost every dance, pairing off with many of the princes and other Italian nobility attending the party. When she wasn't dancing, she was drinking champagne.

At about two a.m. white-coated waiters scurried around with steaming plates of risotto con funghi—rice with mushrooms—and bacon and scrambled eggs and sausages.

About 80 guests were invited to the party thrown by Judy Montagu, an old-time friend of the Princess now living in Rome. British Minister and Mrs. Henry Hohler were the official hosts.

The party was held in the Cabala night club, which features large, classic nude paintings in prominent places, including a voluptuous reclining nude over the bar.

An Italian police official suggested during an inspection tour last week that the picture might offend Margaret, but the management said former Queen Soraya of Iran and other foreign luminaries had not objected to the painting—and anyway it was a work of art. The picture remained.

Two orchestras, one specializing in rhumbas and sambas, Margaret's favorite dance music, played throughout the night.

The princess, who began the evening with a private dinner at Miss Montague's apartment on an island in the Tiber River, sat at a table for eight.

Her first dance was with Prince Nicola Pignatelli, the 36-year-old scion of an old Roman-Naples noble family and husband of one of Italy's most beautiful women.

Queen Mother Elizabeth, who accompanied Margaret to Rome, skipped the party.

Pythian Sisters Party Is Tonight

Pythian Sisters Mizpah Temple 7 is sponsoring a card party and style show at 8 p.m. this evening at Knights of Pythias Hall, instead of Saturday as reported.

Members and their husbands will model novelty styles in the fashion show. The public is invited and tickets may be purchased at the door.

Wife Keeps Promise: Two Boys, One Girl

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — There'll be no suit for breach of contract in the George N. Crowder household.

Crowder, clerk for District Judge William A. Black, said when he and his wife were married, she promised him two boys and a girl.

The boys are George, 11, and Gary, 9. Recently, there was a new addition to the Crowder household — a girl, Kristen Margaret.

Jury Duty Must Not Be Too Common There

PIKEVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Asked why she hadn't heeded a summons for jury duty served by a deputy sheriff, a woman told Judge F. Pierce Keesee, "I thought he was kiddin'."

The judge believed her and didn't fine her.

Herb Prolongs Life

LANCASTER, Ohio (AP)—Edward W. Springer credits a certain unnamed herb he ate as a young man for allowing him to reach his present age of 101. He says his father, who lived to be 95, ate the same herb but "he didn't eat enough of it."

Canada has increased its grants to universities by 50 per cent for the 1958-59 school year. The increase raises the total amount of grants to $25,600,000.

Ferrell Talks to Senators, Orioles, Yanks and A's

Battered Tigers Look for Trades as First Aid

From the Press Box

BY BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

The death knell of the Big Ten's appearance in the Rose Bowl will sound New Year's Day 1960.

The key decision, which came somewhat as a surprise, was Northwestern's public announcement that it would vote against renewal. A Big 10 school will make its 13th appearance in the colorful pageant next January.

In the past, Northwestern was traditionally the mum-mouthed representative of the conference, never announcing its position in voting until the ballots were taken.

It seemed certain that the Bowl pact would pass for renewal by a 6-4 margin this time. Northwestern's shift to the negative presents a 5-5 situation which will automatically veto renewal.

★ ★ ★

The official ballot will be made May 21-23 when faculty representatives meet at Ann Arbor.

Supporting renewal are Michigan, Michigan State, Purdue, Indiana and Iowa. The negative votes are expected from the other five members, including Ohio State for strange reasons.

The Buckeyes have appeared in the Pasadena Classic three times and the Big 10 has garnered over $10 million in 12 yearly appearances with OSU reaping the ripest fruits.

Actually, maybe the break with the Pacific Coast will be for the better. Amidst the splendor of Pasadena's roses, the game itself has not always been the best matched contest.

It got so that the second best and even the third best teams of the two conferences were facing each other and so often the Coast representative was a mismatch for the teams of the nation's toughest league.

The Southwest Conference could probably provide better competition for the Big 10 and there had been serious talk about setting up an agreement between the Midwest and Southwest.

Bowl receipts provide tremendous financial assistance to the athletic porgrams of the institutions. The Big Ten's prestige in football could be utilized to greater advantage financially if the conference would relax its bowl ruling by allowing more than one team to accept a bid.

Whether we want to accept the fact or not, football is also a constituent of the law of survival of the fittest and for many athletic programs, money is the big factor for survival.

Besides, a couple hundred grand from the bowls is a pretty good way to start the New Year, especially in view of the appropriation problems faced by some of the schools like the two here in our state.

Homers Again Rain on Detroit

AP Wirephoto

HIT THE SEATS — Cleveland continued to use the home run as a weapon against the Tigers. In two games in this series the Indians have hit seven homers by six different batters. Yesterday's blasts were by Gene Leek (left) with two RBI's, Jim Piersall (center) with four RBI's and Rocky Colavito with three RBI's.

Three Indians Hit the Seats in 10-1 Romp

Tribe Gets Heroics From Different Player Each Game

DETROIT (UPI) — Home runs fell like rain again at Briggs Stadium yesterday and as usual, it wasn't the Tigers hitting them. Tiger pitchers have given up 19 homers.

The Cleveland Indians, who have been operating on a hero-a-day plan, got the long ball from Jim Piersall, Rocky Colavito and rookie Gene Leek to account for seven of the Tribes' runs in the 10-1 victory.

Gail Harris prevented the Tigers from being shut out—the only misfortune that's escaped them so far — with a solo shot into the lower left field stands in the second inning that gave Detroit a brief 1-0 lead.

The turning point came early for the eighth Tiger loss against a lone victory. Frank Lary set Cleveland down in order in the first and second but walked Leek, who was substituting for Woodie Held at third base, to start the third. Then Billy Martin popped a single to left and pitcher Gary Bell got set to bunt.

Bell dropped a perfect sacrifice down the third base line. Both Eddie Yost and Lary went for it and Lary got it, straightened up and threw to Yost but the Tiger 3rd baseman hadn't gotten back to the bag and everyone was safe.

Piersall delivered a line single to left to make it 2-1 before Lary got the next three men.

Then Detroit muffed its chance. With one down Yost and Kuenn singled putting men on first and third with a chance to rally. But Larry Doby flied to short center and Al Kaline bounced out to Martin. Detroit never had another chance to get in the game.

Piersall smashed a two-run homer in the fifth and Colavito belted a three-run homer in the seventh before Tom Morgan took over. Hal Naragon greeted Morgan by cracking his first pitch for a triple and he scored on George Strickland's sacrifice fly.

Leek, who signed from the University of Arizona campus while the Indians were in spring training for something over $35,000, homered into the lower left field stands after Naragon doubled in the ninth off George Susce.

Bell spaced out seven Tiger hits, walked four and struck out six in winning his second game against no defeats.

TIGER OFFER — Washington's Roy Sievers is the objective of Detroit Tiger trade talks. The Tigers offered Jim Bunning and $100,000 for the Nat slugger, but the trade does not appeal to the Senators. Bunning (top photo) has an 0-1 record thus far and has given up 14 hits in eight innings.

Offer $100,000 Plus Bunning to Washington

Roy Sievers Is Object of Detroit Bid; Yanks Want Kaline, Lary

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Tigers, hungry to apply $100,000 in first aid to a battered team that lost eight of nine games, are shooting in all directions for a much-needed slugger.

So far the Tigers have been rebuffed everywhere they turned in an effort to trade for power. General Manager Rick Ferrell said last night he has had unsuccessful trade confabs with the Washington Senators, Baltimore Orioles and New York Yankees.

Ferrell said the Kansas City Athletics would be an early stop on his continuing agenda.

He said Washington had spurned his bid of $100,000 and a front line pitcher for Roy Sievers. Sievers, an outfielder-first baseman, belted 39 home runs and drove across 108 runs for Washington last year. The 32-year-old slugger could be a quick cure to Detroit's ills.

"I'm looking for someone who can swing that bat," Ferrell said.

The Tigers, in losing all but one of their first nine games, have left 74 base runners stranded. They have hit only eight homers while their pitchers yielded 19.

Ferrell said he has spoken three times this week to Calvin Griffith, the Senators' president, about Sievers.

He said two deals were discussed. One involved Sievers for $100,000 and the top pitcher. The other included these principals and second-line players on both teams.

Ferrell declined to name the pitchers he offered. But it was believed to be Jim Bunning, Paul Foytack or Billy Hoeft. The general manager said he would resume negotiations with Griffith later.

Griffith said in Washington the Chicago White Sox had offered him $250,000 in players and cash for Sievers, Pitcher Pedro Ramos and an unidentified third player. This deal also was turned down. The third player reportedly was Catcher Clint Courtney. Griffith didn't reveal the players Chicago offered.

Baltimore twice has refused Tiger attempts to pry loose Catcher Gus Triandos. Ferrell ruled out further efforts to get Triandos.

The Yankees wanted Pitcher Frank Lary or Outfielder Al Kaline from Detroit, But Lary and Kaline are regarded as Tiger untouchables.

New York would have been willing to give up Marv Throneberry, Bobby Richardson, Hank Bauer, Norm Siebern or players of equal ability, Ferrell said. He added:

"That seems to be the Yankee way of making a trade to offer you volume for quality. I'm not interested in talking about Lary or Kaline and I don't believe there's any chance of swinging a deal with the Yankees."

Ferrell will accompany the Tigers to Kansas City where they play a three-game series this weekend. Detroit long has been interested in Outfilder Roger Maris and Infielder Hector Lopez. It is expected Ferrell will include these nams in his discussions with General Manager Parke Carroll of the Athletics.

White Sox Blast A's, 20-6; Boston Triumphs

Ford 14-Inning Victor

By The Associated Press

Beer and booze were handed their stiffest jolt since prohibition last night in Washington. Stout-armed Whitey Ford went 14 innings for the first time in his major league career and beat the Senators 1-0.

It was Ford who unfortunately was represented as something less than the boy-next-door type by the New York Yankees last winter. And it wasn't until his bosses scrubbed their semantics that the stubby southpaw agreed to play ball and signed his contract.

All the Yankees wanted Ford to do for his $35,000, they finally announced, was to adhere to a special diet dished up to combat his chronic arm trouble. In passing, it was admitted that Whitey's particular ailment was brought on by red meat or alcohol.

There was nothing much wrong with Whitey's arm last night. He struck out 15 and gave up seven hits in a shutout duel with Bill Fischer and Chuck Stobbs that wasn't broken until Bill Skowron rapped his third home run with one out in the 14th.

That left the Yanks two games behind the clubbing Cleveland Indians, who again battered Detroit, 10-1. The Chicago White Sox stayed third, smothering Kansas City 20-6. Boston beat Baltimore 8-4.

Ford, 30, walked seven, but gave up just one single from the fifth until the 14th. Then, after Skowron had ended Stobbs' hitless relief job, Ford was touched for two hits before putting away his 13th victory over the Senators in 14 decisions going back to 1954. Stobbs (0-2) took over after Fischer, who gave up six of the Yankees' eight hits, was lifted for a pinch-hitter in the 10th.

The White Sox hustled from behind after the A's had chased Early Wynn with five runs in the second inning. They made it a rout with 11 runs in the seventh off three pitchers—needing but one hit while benefiting from 10 walks, a hit batter and the errors. Bud Daley (0-2) lost it in relief. Bob Shaw (1-0) won it with 7 1-3 innings of three-hit, shutout relief.

The Red Sox wrapped it up with five runs in the fourth on four singles, a walk and an error against loser Arnie Portocarrero (0-2). Vic Wertz, back after a bout with the flu, homered for Boston while Murray Wall (1-0) won it in relief by blanking the Birds on one hit for 4 1-3 innings.

'Welter' Crown at Stake Friday

Virgil Akins Attempts to Recapture Title He Lost to Jordan

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Don Jordan, the still-hungry champion, puts his welterweight title on the line against erratic but dangerous Virgil Akins tomorrow night in a revival of the ancient boxing argument of who's better — the slugger or the boxer.

The oddsmakers have done nothing to settle the argument which had divided ringside watchers into two vehement camps. They are calling the fight all even — 5 to 6 and take your choice. Akins, a somber and silent puncher, is ready for a desperate bid to regain the crown.

The 24-year-old champ is anxious to prove his December victory over Akins in Los Angeles was no fluke. Jordan, part-Apache and one of 19 children, has gathered in little loot in the way of endorsements and appearances.

The fight is hard to figure because the career of the 31-year-old St. Louis fighter is so checkered. Akins has been up and down all the way. When he's having a good night, he appears capable of knocking out any fighter in his class. But when he's having an off night, he looks terrible.

Jordan has won 44 of 55 fights, 15 by knockouts. Akins has won 49 of 69, 29 by knockouts, with 19 defeats and one draw. The champ has won 13 of 16 fights away from his hometown while Akins has lost only twice in 25 fights in St. Louis.

Nine Colleges in Track Meet

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Nine colleges and universities will compete Saturday in the second annual Michigan open track meet at Ferry Field.

The entry list numbers 242 with Ohio State, Ohio University, Eastern Michigan, Western Michigan, Michigan State, Baldwin-Wallace, Purdue, Detroit and the University of Michigan competing. Western Michigan leads with 64 entries.

The competition was designed last year by Michigan track coaches Don Canham and Elmer Swanson for those who do not make the trips to the Penn and Drake relays.

Hershey Skaters Seize 2-1 Edge

HERSHEY, Pa., (AP) — "We needed that win to stay in the running for our second consecutive title."

★ ★ ★

That's the way General Manager Lloyd Blinco sized up his Hershey Bears' 2-1 victory over the Buffalo Bisons last night in the American Hockey League Calder Cup championship playoffs.

The win gave the Bears a 2-1 edge in the best of seven series.

Detroit Scots Battle Harmarville Booters

DETROIT — St. Andrew Scots and the Harmarville (Pa.) Hurricanes will continue their bitter soccer rivalry in Detroit this Sunday as they battle to remain in the National Amateur soccer championships.

The teams battled to a 2-2 tie in a two-overtime, 2½ hour game in Harmarville last Sunday.

The replay will be at DeLaSalle Stadium, located at Glenfield and Conner, across from the City Airport. Game time is 2:30 p.m.

Sunday's game will send the winner into the Eastern semi-finals.

Hoad Beats Gonzales

NEW CASTLE, Pa. (AP)—Australian Lew Hoad defeated Pancho Gonzales 6-3, 6-3 Wednesday night in another professional tennis match on their current tour.

Hoad now holds a 12-5 edge over Gonzales in the series. Each has a 28-12 mark for the tour.

Bluth Wins Masters Title

ST. LOUIS (AP) — After living in the shadow of two teammates for years, Ray Bluth of the St. Louis Budweiser team, came into his own last night when he won the American Bowling Congress Masters tournament.

Bluth's previous accomplishments have been obscured by two of bowling's premier stars, Don Carter and Tom Hennessey. Major titles always seemed to elude the 31-year-old Bluth.

Bluth whipped six straight opponents in the double elimination finals which began last Sunday. His opponent in the last round, Billy Golembiewski, also was undefeated until he met Bluth in a match yesterday afternoon. Bluth took the crucial four game duel, 864 to 782, dumping the Detroit bowler into the losers bracket.

Golembiewski took the first game in the ultimate block, 201-191, the second 207 to 196 and the third 234 to 227. Bluth was behind 28 pins, but he rallied and won the last game 213 to 175 and the match 827 to 817.

Bluth picked up $1,210 and the huge Masters traveling trophy. He averaged 218 for 28 games in the finals, second best in nine years of Masters history. The record was set in the current tourney by John (Junior) Powell of Toledo, with an average of 219-13 pins for 28 games. Powell finished fourth.

Out-of-State Dogs Tops in Field Test

A field of 60 dogs, in the annual spring field trial held by the Irish Setter Club of Michigan, was dominated by out-of-state entries. Double winner was Cliff Bean of Athens, Ohio with his Willow Winds Tommy (open gun dog) and Willow Winds Baby (all age stakes).

Doug Squires' Brittany, Jiggs, won the open all-pointing-breed event. Squires is an area resident. Val, owned by Mark Gerbo of Wayne, won the puppy stake.

Tom Moffat's (Pontiac) Carolina Lady's Skyhigh (Irish setter) was 2nd in open gun dog and 4th in all-age. Moffat was marshal for the trial, held at Pontiac Lake Recreation area.

Friday Deadline for Softball Fee

Thirty men's teams currently are registered in the 1959 City League softball program and the Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department believes at this time that all of them can be accepted for membership.

★ ★ ★

Friday of this week has been set as the deadline for entry fees by the city recreation office. Teams not paying their entry fee by tomorrow night will be considered as no longer interested and dropped from the roster. The entry fee for city-sponsored teams is $60 while the out-of-city fee is $85.

★ ★ ★

The final meeting for managers or representatives will be held Monday, May 4, at 7:30 p.m. in the conference room of the health department at City Hall. Teams must be represented at this meeting to be considered as league entries.

Doctoring Your Golf

By DR. CARY MIDDLECOFF

PATIENT'S COMPLAINT: Putts are close but not IN.

DIAGNOSIS: Sidespin on the ball.

Treatment: If a putt is supposed to hold its line as it should — and fall into the cup readily instead of ringing the hole and lipping out — it should be hit squarely so that the ball can roll straight over and over. The idea here is to keep the ball from having any sidespin on it — as it's bound to have if the face of the putter is brought across the ball instead of squarely into it.

Think of taking the head of the putter straight back away from the ball on the backswing. Then straight back along the same line on the forward stroke. Then let the head of the putter follow straight THROUGH the ball and continue for several inches along the line toward the hole.

If the above strikes you as being pretty elementary and obvious advice, check some other players—you'll see that many habitually hit their putts a square blow or a slightly glancing one. Better still, check yourself on this important point.

And check yourself on a few other points about putting, while you're at it. Putting is a game in itself — there's lots for you to learn if you don't think so.

Northern, St. Mike and Skippers Win in Track

PCH Nine Defeats PNH

Pontiac Central added city rival Northern to its list of baseball victims gaining an 8-1 verdict in the 1st meeting between the schools in the diamond sport yesterday afternoon at Wisner Field.

Northern also bowed in golf, but it was not all gloom for Husky rooters yesterday as the track forces of Dick Marsh posted their 1st triumph 59-50 at Melvindale.

St. Michael and Waterford thinclads were also impressive. The Shamrocks beat out three schools in a meet at Detroit Cooley while Waterford was walloping Wayne.

A triple play, clutch hitting and the standout hurling of Dave Tillman featured the Chiefs 4th straight baseball triumph.

First sacker Bill Hayward started the three-out play when he speared a line drive in the 5th with two men on.

Each team had five hits but Central got them when they counted scoring all its runs in the middle frames after trailing 1-0. Bob Smith batted in the tying marker and Dave Jones' single with the bases loaded helped wrap it up as Tillman flipped shutout ball after the 1st.

Jan Lawrence won the high hurdles and took 2nds in the lows and pole vault to head PNH in track with 11 points. Mike Fedynik added 9 topped by his victory in the pole vault.

★ ★ ★

He and Dennis Vincent shared the high jump honor. Northern had four other first places.

St. Mike piled up 56½ points to 36 for Redford St. Mary, 19½ for St. Anthony and Shrine's 19 sparked by 7 winners.

George Drake took the high jump and low hurdles and Bill Flanigan won both dashes to lead the way. Mike Kesseling, Don Austreng and Chuck Steinhelper had the others.

Seven different boys won for Waterford in a 63½ to 45½ romp. The group included Barry Campbell, Mike Kaines and Mike Ewer.

Jack Newton totaled 16¼ points as West Bloomfield won a night triangular. Clarkston had 42 1-6 and Holly 25 as the host team took nine of 13 events.

In golf, Northern dropped its 2nd match in as many starts bowing to Walled Lake 335-390 at Pontiac Municipal. Bloomfield Hills drubbed Clarkston, 165-201.

All four Walled Lake boys bettered the PNH quartet paced by Bob Young with 80. Jim Miller's 93 was low for the Huskies. Bob Thompson fired 38 and Bruce Billings 40 to make it easy for Bloomfield.

Players-Owners in NFL Confab

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Some sort of pension plan appears in the wood for national football league players as they opened two days of meetings here today with pro owners.

★ ★ ★

A reliable source told the Associated Press that the talks among owners and the Players' Association, should evolve some type of plan. It won't however, be anything like the proposal presented at the league's annual meeting under which players would receive $100 a month at age 65, the source asserted.

★ ★ ★

In addition to pension problems, the owners were scheduled to take up airplane insurance plans, check over television contract language, arrange for a quick shift of any league game conflicting with baseball's world series, and consider a plea from Honolulu that the league sanction the Island's Hula Bowl game.

U. of D. Wins Again by Routing Hurons

YPSILANTI (AP)—Gerry Mettie gave up 10 hits but his teammates supported him with power at the plate as the University of Detroit beat Eastern Michigan 10-4 in a baseball game yesterday.

Bill Dando aided the Titans cause with a home run.

Four eastern Michigan pitchers gave up 13 hits as the Hurons went down to their third straight defeat of the season. Detroit now has an 8-1 record.

Pumpsie Figures He Just Didn't Make the Club

DALLAS (AP)—Jerry (Pumpsie) Green, center of a discrimination controversy involving the Boston Red Sox, said last night "I figured I just didn't make the club."

The National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People has charged bias by Boston in not keeping him on the major league club. The Red Sox have denied it.

Green said "Naturally I was disappointed when I didn't stick with the Red Sox this spring. But I figured I just didn't make the club. I'd rather be playing every day in Minneapolis than riding the bench in Boston."

Tokyo Olympic Bid--$16 Million

Detroit Bucks Big Obstacle for '64 Games

Japanese Present Huge Budget to International Olympic Committee

TOKYO (AP)—Detroit is bucking a 16-million dollar Japanese bid to hold the 1964 Olympics in Tokyo.

The two cities are considered the leading contenders in the bidding for the 1964 International athletic spectacle.

The Japan Travel News, publication of the National Tourist Assn., said yesterday a 16-million dollar budget has been presented to the International Olympic Committee. The committee meets next month in Munich to decide the site of the 1964 games.

The 16-million dollars would be raised from gate receipts and contributions each totalling $2,778,000 and from national and Tokyo metropolitan government grants totalling $11,112,000.

Japan reportedly has proposed the dates of July 25-Aug. 9 or Oct. 17-Nov. 1 for the games. The publication said Japan promised to enlarge the new 65,000-seat National Stadium to 100,000 seats. Japan is expected to provide accommodation for an Olympic village in the Tokyo outskirts at Camp Drake, now a U.S. army base.

Camp Drake is about 12½ miles from the stadium.

The Detroit Olympic Committee, headed by Fred C. Matthaei, will hold a press conference Wednesday, May 6th at which time the formal invitation will be presented.

Detroit's chances for getting the games will be reviewed at that time.

U-D Coach Sets Long Scrimmage

DETROIT (AP)—A two-hour scrimmage session Friday will wrap up the third week of spring football practice for the University of Detroit.

Saturday will be an off day, head coach Jim Miller has announced. The 20-day spring drills will end next week. The Titans' still are seeking a No. 1 quarterback and Miller is working the top six signal-callers with the first unit, in an effort to pick the top candidates.

Albion Prep Meet Takes A-D Entries

Although there are 60 high schools entered as of now, for the Albion College 20th invitational prep track carnival, May 9, there is still room for additional schools, particularly class A and class D teams.

Albion's Dale Sprankle says deadline for entries is Saturday, April 25.

Milford is one of the schools already entered. Pontiac's Central High, Northern High and Birmingham have by-passed the meet because of scheduled meets too close to that date.

Given a fair touch in the weather, the athletes are expected to come up with a radical revision of Drake records. And American and world marks are within reach.

★ ★ ★

For example, two Olympic champions, Glenn Davis and Bobby Morrow, will appea in a special 440-yard dash. In the same race will be Dave Mills, the spectacular Purdue freshman who twice defeated Davis only last Saturday, and Willie Atterbury, Michigan State's scholastically ineligible speedster.

★ ★ ★

Expected Northwestern Move

Rose Bowl Chairman Optimistic on Contract

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Northwestern's anticipated vote against continuance of the Rose Bowl football contract after 1960 does not have Rose Bowl officials pushing the panic button.

Lanthrop Leishman, chairman of the Tournament of Roses' football committee, said Northwestern's position has not killed the contract. "It may or may not be terribly vital. We will just have to wait and see.

"But I think the Western Big Four is well enough represented and respected in intercollegiate circles to go out and get a suitable opponent to make the game a high grade affair."

"We're very optimistic that the Big Ten will choose to continue a contract with us," said Jess Hill, athletic director at the University of Southern California. "We've had a pleasant relationship so far, but we will just have to wait the outcome of the Big Ten meeting next month before making other plans."

Added Wilbur Johns, UCLA athletic director:

"I don't think the Northwestern decision is necessarily the final action of the Big Ten. It is certainly our hope that a contract will be continued with the Western Conference."

Johns said that if the Big Ten does vote against the pact which expires in 1960, "We will have to find someone who will be happy to play.

"I'm not the least bit concerned with the future of the Rose Bowl."

In Berkeley, California's athletic director, Greg Englehard, said he won't believe the Big Ten pact is dead unless the Big Ten itself votes against renewal May 23.

With the break-up of the Pacific Coast Conference, the Tournament of Roses is now discussing—and probably will sign—a new contract with the charter members of its successor—the Athletic Assn. of Western Universities—UCLA, USC, California and the University of Washington.

* * *

T. Leroy Martin, chairman of Northwestern's faculty committee, Tuesday night reaffirmed Northwestern's "long standing opposition to all post-season games, including the Rose Bowl."

The decision apparently created a 5-5 stalemate among conference members over whether they will vote to continue or end the contract with the Pacific Coast universities. A 6-4 majority must be obtained to assure continued Big Ten participation.

Michigan Golfers Bow Out

PINEHURST, N.C. (AP)—Michigan was without a single representative today as the North and South Amateur Golf Championship entered the quarter-final stage at Pinehurst Country Club.

The state's last two hopefuls, 18-year-old Pete Green of Birmingham and Dr. Robert Corley from Jackson, were eliminated Wednesday in the 2nd round of match play.

Green, an unheralded youngster in this tournament who fired a 71 in Monday's qualifiers to share medal honors, ran into a real "toughie" yesterday after winning his first head-to-head battle on Tuesday.

* * *

A three-year golfing whiz at Birmingham High School and last year's state Jaycee champion, Green dropped a 3-2 decision to Gene Andrews, the veteran amateur campaigner from Pacific Palisades, Calif.

Dr. Corley, the Jackson heart specialist and a seasoned tourney performer, completed Michigan's exit from this event when he lost a 6-5 match to Jack Penrose of Miami, Fla.

An intriguing age mixture ranging from a teenager to men in their 40s made up the field for today's quarterfinal round.

* * *

The two "babies" among the survivors of yesterday's double-round shelling will appear in an upper bracket match, Jack Nicklaus, a long-hitting muscular 19-year-old from Columbus, Ohio, faced 20-year-old Don Essig of Indianapolis and Baton Rouge, La.

Nicklaus will represent the U. S. on the Walker Cup team facing the British in three weeks at Muirfield, Scotland. Essig, a student at LSU, won the National Public Links title two years ago.

The winner of their match goes into tomorrow's 18-hole semifinals against the victor of a duel between two veterans whose total age span covers 84 years.

* * *

Mal Galletta, 38-year-old limousine rental service operator from Old Westbury, N.Y., and 46-year-old Bob Cochran of St. Louis met to determine the opponent for the Essig-Nicklaus winner.

Galletta won here 15 years ago and was runnerup six years ago when he beat Cochran 1-up in the semifinals.

Andrews, 45-year-old insurance salesman, and John Guenther, 26, of Reading, Pa., who is in the hosiery business with his father and brother, met in the first match of the lower half.

Completing the schedule, the tall, balding 44-year-old Penrose met former champion Bill Campbell, 35-year-old insurance man and former legislator from Huntington, W. Va.

SECOND ROUND
Upper Half
Dr. Wendell Aldrich, Anzola, Ind., defeated Pvt. John Schubeck, Ft. Knox, Ky., 1-up.
Mal Galletta, Old Westbury, N. Y., defeated Dick Chapman, Pinehurst, 1-up.
Bob Cochran, St. Louis, defeated Alfred Sams, Macon, Ga., 7 and 5.
Howard Everett, Northfield, N. J., defeated Herb Durham, Dallas, Tex., 1-up.
John McCann Jr., Charlotte, N. C., defeated Arnold Blum, Macon, Ga., 5 and 3.
Don Essig, Baton Rouge, La., defeated Dr. John McKay, Orlando, Fla., 4 and 3.
Carl Lohren, Silver Spring, Md., defeated Dr. George Traynor, Rochester, N. Y., 7 and 5.
Jack Nicklaus, Columbus, Ohio, defeated Robert Ross, San Francisco, 5 and 4.
Lower Half
Gene Andrews, Pacific Palisades, Calif., defeated Peter Green, Birmingham, Mich., 3 and 2.
Dale Morey, Indianapolis, defeated Jake Heyard, Augusta, Ga., 2 and 1.
Bill Hyndman, Abington, Pa., defeated Larry McCrary, Augusta, Ga., 20 holes.
John Guenther, Reading, Pa., defeated Pete Dye, Indianapolis 20 holes.
Jack Penrose, Miami, defeated Dr. R. W. Corley, Jackson, Mich., 6 and 5.
Robert Gardner, New York, defeated George Fulton, Roanoke, Va., 3 and 4.
Cpl. Edward Ross, Camp Lejeune, N. C., defeated Claude Wild, Washington, D. C., 2 and 1.
Bill Campbell, Huntington, W. Va., defeated Paul Kelly, Ossining, N. Y., 3 and 2.

THIRD ROUND
Upper Half
Galletta defeated Aldrich, 3 and 2.
Cochran defeated Everett, 2 and 1.
Essig defeated McCann, 3 and 4.
Nicklaus defeated Lohren, 2 and 1.
Lower Half
Andrews defeated Morey, 2 and 1.
Penrose defeated Gardner, 4 and 3.
Campbell defeated Ross, 3 and 4.
Guenther defeated Hyndman, 3 and 1.

Favor Littler at Las Vegas

Golf Champs Start Firing

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Las Vegas' most respected sports event, the $40,000 Tournament of Champions, gets underway today with a crack field of 26 golfers on deck for the first 18 holes of the 72-hole, seventh annual event.

The betting favorite in this betting capital was Gene Littler of San Diego, who captured the $10,000 top money on sucessive years starting in 1955.

Latest figures on Littler were 5-1, while the "morning line" on Art Wall Jr., recent Masters champion and Arnold Palmer, the 1958 Masters ruler, quoted at 6-1.

Cary Middlecoff and Billy Casper Jr. the latter runner-up here last year, were listed at 8-1, while the surprise champion of the championship field, Stan Leonard of Canada, was no better than 10-1 to repeat.

Littler's victories at the Phoenix and Tucson opens this winter qualified him for this event, while Wall, the hottest golfer in the game, won five tournaments over the past 12 months.

The tournament is played at the Desert Inn Country Club, which can stretch out to 7,073 yards and has par 36-36—72.

Paul Harney, the long hitter from Worcester, Mass., had the lowest practice round, a 66.

Prep Shooters Buck Tradition May 25 at PCC

Many Past Standouts Attain More Stardom on Higher Level

Ontstanding high school golfers and the Pontiac Press Invitational golf tournament have always gone hand in hand since the inception of the event in 1952.

Many schoolboy golfers have made glittering contributions to the one-day 18-hole medal play tourney and a few have attained additional stardom on the collegiate level as well as in other competitive endeavors.

When prep teams from the Oakland County area gather at Pontiac Country Club on Monday, May 25, to compete in the 8th annual Press tournament, they will buck a par-shooting tradition established by numerous talented teenagers.

Among the several skilled shotmakers who have graced the Press tourney are Lloyd Syron of Pontiac; Jack Reynolds and John Wettlaufer of Waterford; Pete Green, Tim Baldwin and Mike Conroy from Birmingham, and Bud Badger of Bloomfield Hills.

Syron, who played his high school golf at Shrine in Royal Oak, starred for three years on the Notre Dame squad and hit the high point of his career in 1957 by winning the Michigan Amateur title at Charlevoix. He was Press Class B medalist in 1953.

Green, Conroy and Baldwin are three big reasons why Birmingham High has won five of the seven Press tourneys to date.

Reynolds and Wettlaufer paced Waterford to the Press crown in 1956 with the latter taking medal honors, Reynolds and Baldwin, both juniors at Michigan State, are teammates on the Spartan golf squad.

Green, a freshman at the University of North Carolina, won the State Jaycee crown last summer.

Badger captured medal honors four straight years in the Press tourney. He now attends MSU on a scholarship. Wettlaufer played one season of varsity golf at Western Michigan in Kalamazoo before leaving the sport to crack the books a little harder.

Braves Take 1st as Dodgers Lose: Pirates Leave Cellar

Burdette Wins 3rd With 'At Em' Ball

By The Associated Press

Lew Burdette has found his "at 'em" ball again. He misplaced it when he was unfrocked as a Yankee killer last October.

It was the "at 'em" pitch — the pitch that made it easy on the fielders because batters hit it right at 'em—that the big right-hander credited when he won three from the New York Yankees as Milwaukee won the 1957 World Series. He still had it last season, when he became a 20-game winner for the first time.

Then he lost it in last fall's World Series, twice taking his lumps while the Yankees staged a startling comeback by winning the last three games.

This season, Burdette has picked up where he left off last year, and so have the Braves, once more leading the National League. Burdette put them a game in front last night, giving up eight hits but out-dueling Robin Roberts, who allowed only four, for a 2-0 victory over Philadelphia.

It was Burdette's third victory — and his seventh in a row, all complete games, since last September 7.

Los Angeles fell out of a virtual tie for first as San Francisco ended the Dodgers' winning string at four 6-3. Pittsburgh came from behind twice and beat Cincinnati 9-8. That sprung the Bucs from the cellar and the St. Louis Cardinals dropped in, despite an 8-2 victory over the Chicago Cubs.

The Braves were held hitless by Roberts (1-1) until the seventh when consecutive singles by Wes Covington, Frank Torre and Del Crandall, who lined one off Robin's leg, broke the shutout duel. Billy Bruton added his first homer in the eighth.

★ ★ ★

The Giants, who had lost two in a row, dropped the Dodgers with a five-run fifth against losing starter Carl Erskine (0-1). A walk, four singles and Orlando Cepeda's double did the damage. Jack Sanford (2-1) won it, but needed a clutch relief job from Sam Jones, who struck out Don Demeter and pinch-hitting Carl Furillo with two on in the ninth.

★ ★ ★

The Pirates, blanked on two hits for six innings by Joe Nuxhall, tied it in a seven-run seventh capped by Bill Virdon's three-run homer. Then, after Gus Bell gave the Reds a new lead with a solo homer in the eighth, the Bucs put it away against losing reliever Orlando Pena in the ninth on a bases-loaded walk and Rocky Nelson's single. Elroy Face (1-0) won it in relief.

★ ★ ★

Wilmer (Vinegar Bend) Mizell gave up five hits and won his second for the Cards. Alex Grammas, Gino Cimoli and Curt Flood hit homers for St. Louis. Grammas, who hadn't homered since 1955, drove in four runs. Taylor Phillips (0-2), who hasn't completed any of his last 16 starts, lost it.

Wrong Date Listed

LANSING (AP)—The printed Michigan fish law digest erred in the listing of the opening date of the trout season for Michigan-Wisconsin boundary waters, the state conservation department admitted today.

The correct date is Saturday, April 25—the same as for the general season—not April 26, as listed in the digest.

Coming into this year Michigan swimming championships and 12 had won 21 baseball titles, 17 in golf in Big 10 conference circles.

Grain Futures Dealings Slow

CHICAGO (UP)—Dealings in grain futures were at a slow pace today with prices shifting mostly small fractions both above and below previous closes.

Rye and soybeans were slightly higher in early dealings, other grains steady to easier. Brokers said the new government figures on grains placed under loan and redeemed during March appeared to have no significant price influence immediately.

However, soybeans derived scattered support on the report that crushings during March hit a new record of 36 million bushels, up 2 million from February. It brought the total for the crop year to 208 million, compared with 174 million for the same period last year.

Wheat was ⅛ cent a bushel higher to ⅛ lower near the end of the first hour, May $2.00¾; corn ¼ to ⅝ lower, May $1.26⅜; oats ⅜ to ½ lower, May rye ⅜ to ¾ higher, May $1.38¼; soybeans ¼ to ⅝ higher, May $2.29⅛.

Ultimatum Issued to Clean Up Camp

WALLED LAKE—The City Council announced that it has given Mark Chessler, owner of the Willow Camp, until May 5 to clean up his property in compliance with city and county health ordinances.

"If it is not done by then, the council proposes to take legal action and have this sanitary nuisance abated," City Manager George Shaw said today.

Chessler has been under fire by the City Council for some time to take the necessary action.

He has stated his intention to clean up the property several times in the past, but the City Council has not been satisfied with his efforts and is now intent upon putting an end to the undesirable situation, Shaw concluded.

$500,000 Fire Hits Downtown Houghton

HOUGHTON (UP)—A spectacular fire, fanned by strong westerly winds, last night destroyed three downtown buildings housing seven business establishments and 10 second story apartments.

Preliminary estimates placed the total damage in excess of $500,000.

No one was injured in the fire which attracted more than 6,000 spectators to this Upper Peninsula community of 3,289. Firemen evacuated 10 families from the upstairs apartments. One 80-year-old invalid woman was carried out of a window.

Burroughs Profits Up

DETROIT (UP) — Burroughs Corp. reported Wednesday profits of $1,533,408 for the first quarter of this year compared with $1,100,414 for the same period of 1958. The company said incoming orders for commercial products were 25 per cent ahead of the same period last year.

Market Eases After Record

NEW YORK (UP) — The stock market continued to back away from record highs in moderately active trading early today. Selected issues gained.

Pivotal issues dropped fractions to a point or more.

American Telephone continued to decline on profit taking. It lost more than 2 while AT&T when-issued stock, based on the stock split, was off fractionally.

Thiokol added about 3 in a continued advance on the basis of its stock split.

★ ★ ★

American Motors was up a point to 38¼ on an opening block of 15,000 shares then erased the gain and showed a slight net loss. Earnings and dividend action are anticipated in Wall Street.

Zenith lost another 2 points. Eastman Kodak gained a point or more.

Most other changes were quite narrow. First quarter earnings reports continued favorable but the market's recent sustained upsurge was due for further correction, brokers said.

U. S. Steel was a 1-point loser. Fractional losses were taken by General Motors, Chrysler, Montgomery Ward, General Dynamics, Sperry Rand, Anaconda, General Electric, Southern Pacific, Texas Co. and Standard Oil of Indiana.

★ ★ ★

U. S. Gypsum was around a point to the good. Small gains were posted for Ford, U. S. Rubber, International Harvester, Raytheon, Union Carbide, Baltimore & Ohio, Royal Dutch and Pfizer.

The ticker tape was late for a five minute period at the opening.

Opening blocks included:

Studebaker-Packard up ¼ at 12½ on 7,700 shares; Sperry Rand off ⅜ at 22⅝ on 5,000; General Motors off ¼ at 49¼ on 4,000; and Bethlehem off ⅛ at 51 on 6,500.

Dedicate School Tonight

How Pierce Got Its Name

In naming new schools in Waterford Township, the Board of Education continued its policy of honoring famous early Michigan settlers when it named the John D. Pierce Junior High School.

Dedication ceremonies for the $2½ million school will get under way at 8 tonight.

The school has an enrollment of 1,200 pupils.

When Michigan was just beginning to develop in 1833, the Rev. John D. Pierce was appointed the first state superintendent of public instruction on recommendation of his friend, State Rep. Isaac Crary. Waterford Township's first junior high school was named after Crary. It opened in 1954.

Although Pierce came to Michigan as a Congregational missionary, his interest in school systems grew and his influence in educational ideals gradually became more pronounced than his church work.

★ ★ ★

Free schools did not come all at one time, nor for many years. However, history reports that Pierce's plan was finally reached and far surpassed.

Through Crary's efforts in Washington, Congress gave the 16th section of each township to the state, rather than to the township governments, for the benefit of all schools.

Superintendents were authorized to sell these small sections and all proceeds were put into a permanent primary school fund. Interest money from this fund was distributed to the districts for school operation.

The Rev. Pierce, who graduated from Brown University, was familiar with the most advanced principals of study and his thorough program of supervision welded the existing district schools into one effective system.

The composition on Crary and Pierce, written by David Wilson for the Isaac Crary dedication five years ago, will be presented tonight by Claudia Wagner.

Continental to Make Engines for New Tank

WASHINGTON (UP)— The Army yesterday awarded a contract for the first production of diesel engines to power a new line of tanks.

American Motors Corp. to Pay 60-Ct. Dividend

DETROIT (UP) — American Motors Corp. today declared a 60 cent a share quarterly dividend payable May 28 to stockholders of record May 7.

It was the first cash dividend for American Motors stockholders since the company formed in 1954 by the merger of Hudson Motor Car Co. and Nash Kelvinator.

Former prime minister Louis St. Laurent of Canada, who has returned to private law practice, says he would not again accept public office. It had been reported that he might succeed Governor-General Vincent Massey.

Teamsters, Hudson OK New Contract in Detroit

DETROIT (UP) — Teamsters Union Local 299 and the J. L. Hudson Co. signed a three-year contract yesterday covering some 600 warehouse, service and inside delivery employes.

The company estimated the new contract will bring wage increases averaging 32 cents an hour over the three-year period.

NOTICE OF SPECIAL ASSESSMENT. Two-inch concrete pavement on Pensacola Avenue.

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO construct sanitary sewer and related work on Court Drive.

You are hereby notified that at a regular meeting of the Commission of the City of Pontiac, Michigan held April 21, 1959 by resolution it was declared to be the intention of the City Commission to construct sanitary sewer and related work on Court Drive from Mt. Clemens Street to the existing sewer 325 ft. north of Mt. Clemens street at an estimated cost of $2,172.23, and that the plan, profile and estimate of said improvement is on file for public inspection.

It is further intended to construct said improvement in accordance with the plan, profile and estimate, and that the cost thereof shall be defrayed by special assessment according to frontage and that all of the lots and parcels of land fronting upon either side of Court Drive from Mt. Clemens Street to the existing sewer 325 feet north of Mt. Clemens Street shall constitute the special assessment district to defray $960.63 of the estimated cost and expenses thereof and that $1,211.60 of the estimated cost and expenses thereof shall be paid from the Capital Improvement Fund.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN

That the Commission of the City of Pontiac, Michigan will meet in the Commission Chamber on April 28, 1959 at 8 o'clock p.m. to hear suggestions and objections that may be made by parties interested.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF MR. Cornelius Jewell, who passed away 11 yrs. ago, April 23, 1948. The family of Mr. Cornelius Jewell.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF MY dear husband William H. Clement, who passed away April 25, 1957

No one knows the silent heartache
Only those who lose can tell.
The grief we bear in silence.
For the one we loved so well.
Someday sometime our eyes shall see,
The face we keep in memory.
And God will link the broken chain
Still closer when we meet again.
Sadly missed by his wife Mary.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF OUR dear mother, Grace L. Oxbun, who passed away April 23rd, 1950.
Peaceful be thy rest, dear mother
It is sweet to breathe thy name;
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same.
Sadly missed by her children & grandchildren.
