FBI Cracks Brink's Robbery, Names 11 Men

Find 4 Missionaries Riddled by Arrows

Helicopter Pilot Lands at Bodies; All Unidentified

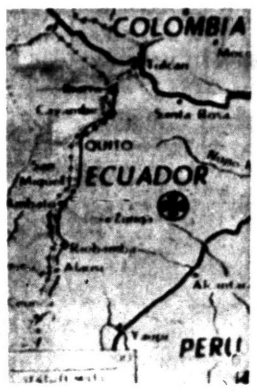

Hope Fades for Survival of Local Woman's Mate in Amazon Jungles

The mutilated bodies of four of five missionaries were found yesterday by a U. S. Air Force helicopter pilot who landed in the Amazon jungles of northwestern Ecuador after spotting the victims from the air.

The fate of the fifth man was not known as all four were horribly mutilated by arrows, apparently shot into their bodies by the fierce Aucas Indian tribe which is known to inhabit the region.

Because the bodies could not be identified, it was not known if T. Edward McCully Jr., husband of the former Marilou Hobolth, of Pontiac, is among the four victims.

Mrs. McCully is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold F. Hobolth, of 779 May Ct.

The bodies of two men were spotted by the wreckage of their plane earlier this week, but when the helicopter crew landed yesterday, they found the four.

Also in the group was Roger Youderian, of Lansing, husband of the former Barbara Orton, of Lansing. Mrs. McCully and Mrs. Youderian are in Shell-Mera, Ecuador, each with their two young children, awaiting word from a ground search party.

The search party was expected to reach the missionaries' camp today to undertake the grim task of identifying the four bodies.

ON RELIGIOUS MISSION

A search for the Protestant missionaries began last weekend after they disappeared in an area on the eastern slopes of the Ecuadorean Andes. They had flown in to Christianize the Auca tribesmen.

Other members of the missionary party were Peter Fleming, Seattle, Wash.; Nathaniel Saint, Huntingdon Valley, Pa. and James Elliot, Portland, Ore.

Entries in Fleming's diary, found at the base camp, indicated the missionaries were lured to the Curaray River by signs of friendship from some of the tribesmen. They apparently were seized Sunday just after radioing: "Here comes a group of Aucas we have not known before."

Schimmel Favors Program

Conference Opinion Seen in Ike's School Aid Plan

President Eisenhower's school-aid program, announced yesterday, "seems to reflect the majority opinion expressed at the White House Conference on Education," Pontiac School Board President Louis H. Schimmel said today.

Schimmel, while attending the recent conference in Washington, spoke out in favor of an aid plan similar in philosophy to the one now recommended by the President.

Eisenhower asked Congress for a federal outlay over five years of some two billion dollars with 750 million to be returned through eventual payments of bonds.

The states would be required to match the federal grants for construction. The matching, however, would be under a formula whereby the wealthiest states put up $2 for each $1 of federal money while the poorer states would get $2 for each $1.

"The proposed program recognizes that school needs exist in varying degrees of urgency throughout the nation," said Schimmel.

BRING ENCOURAGEMENT

"It would provide federal assistance to encourage states and local communities to increase their efforts and solve their own problems.

"Basically, I feel it is a sound program, but it will be a difficult one to put through Congress because it does not provide much in the form of grants for distribution regardless of need and effort.

"It is a good program for the schools, but a poor one for the politicians.

"It will be interesting in this election year to see if congressmen are more interested in the youth or the votes in America."

Japs Build 'Monster'

TOKYO (AP)—Japan is back in the torpedo business. The Mitsubishi Shipbuilding and Engineering Co. said today its Nagasaki yard has turned out a $278,000 pilot model of a 26-foot monster which hunts down its target with supersonic sound waves.

Floridans Grab Their Mufflers in Cold Spell

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The great Atlantic storm that has pumped arctic air into the tropics for six consecutive days is slowly breaking up, but weather forecasters can't see the end of one of the longest sustained cold spells in south Florida history.

In its five-day forecast released this morning, the Miami Weather Bureau said a slow warming trend will begin Sunday

Lowest reading at the midtown Miami bureau during the night was 42

Two-Hour Fire Hits School Being Built

A two-hour fire yesterday morning in the City's new junior high school, under construction at Madison Ave. and N. Perry St., caused $12,000 damage to the administrative area of the building, firemen said.

But Assistant Superintendent of Pontiac Schools J. Cecil Cox said the damage would not postpone opening of the $1,200,000 structure for classes next month.

The first started when a heating device overheated a nearby acetylene tank, causing safety plugs to melt and a jet of flaming propane gas to spray the ceiling of the one-story brick building, Assistant Fire Chief Max W. Wells said.

U.S. to Continue Atomic Tests in Pacific Area

Nuclear Blasts Set for Spring but Explosions to Be Toned Down

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States is going ahead this spring with more atomic weapons tests in the Pacific. Apparently heeding outcries from abroad, however, it will tone down the nuclear blasts.

In what amounted to an official rejection at this time of demands that all the big powers quit testing nuclear weapons, the Atomic Energy Commission and Defense Department announced last night:

1. Preparations are under way for a series of nuclear tests to begin this spring at the Eniwetok proving grounds in the Marshall Islands of the mid-Pacific.

2. Because there are no "effective international agreements" in effect to limit or control armaments, the United States must continually endeavor "to maintain the most modern, efficient military strength for the purposes of peace."

3. The tests will involve use of weapons for which the power will be "substantially below that of the maximum 1954 test."

'54 TESTS CAUSED TROUBLE

That explosion, unofficially estimated to have been equal to energy released by the detonation of about 17 million tons of conventional TNT, brought trouble. Radioactive material falling out from the bomb cloud drifted outside the proclaimed safety zone. It descended on a Japanese fishing boat. The Japanese said the crewmen developed radiation sickness. One died. In nations like India and even in some aligned in common defense with the United States, including England, there were protests against further tests.

In Tokyo, Foreign Minister Mamoru Shigemitsu said today Japan cannot protest the United States' new Pacific hydrogen bomb tests, but it will demand compensation in event of damage to Japanese.

Bed Safest Place for Superstitious, Warns Calendar

"Double, double, toil and trouble, Fire burn and cauldron bubble . . ."
—Macbeth

Beware of black cats, and shun ladders. Whatever you do, don't break a mirror. In fact if you possibly can, go home and spend the rest of the day in bed.

Because today is Friday, the thirteenth.

Witches and warlocks tonight will scream and curse at their tottering revels on the old-world mountain called the Brocken. The Devil himself will preside at the dance, perhaps in the form of a black goat.

And decent folk will cower respectably in their beds, praying for the stroke of midnight to end this dangerous day.

The unluckiest of the unlucky, if the superstitions are true, is John M. Dowdy of Syracuse, N. Y., who turned 13 today, has locker No. 13 at N. Syracuse High School and rode to classes on school bus 13.

State GOP Asks Attitude of Unity

Summerfield Keynotes Theme: 'Capture Seats on All Office Levels'

LANSING (AP)—Michigan Republicans pledged themselves to unity last night in a five-hour strategy meeting marked by sober recognition of past failures and charged with confidence for the coming campaign.

* * *

Against a muraled backdrop of Revolutionary battle scenes, speaker after speaker urged party members to close battle lines for the political forays of 1956.

The meeting, held in Lansing's Hotel Olds, brought together some 140 party leaders from national, state and local levels. Also present was the Republican's newly-established "supercampaign" committee.

Led by U. S. Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield, the Republican chieftains hit hard on the theme that the party must win 1956 elections in townships and counties in order to capture state and national offices.

COBO MAKES SPEECH

The meeting brought together Rep. Alvin M. Bentley and Detroit Mayor Albert E. Cobo, both mentioned frequently as top contenders for the Republican gubernatorial nomination.

Lauding legislators for cooperating with the city of Detroit, Cobo traced his accomplishments as mayor and carefully avoided any mention of his candidacy.

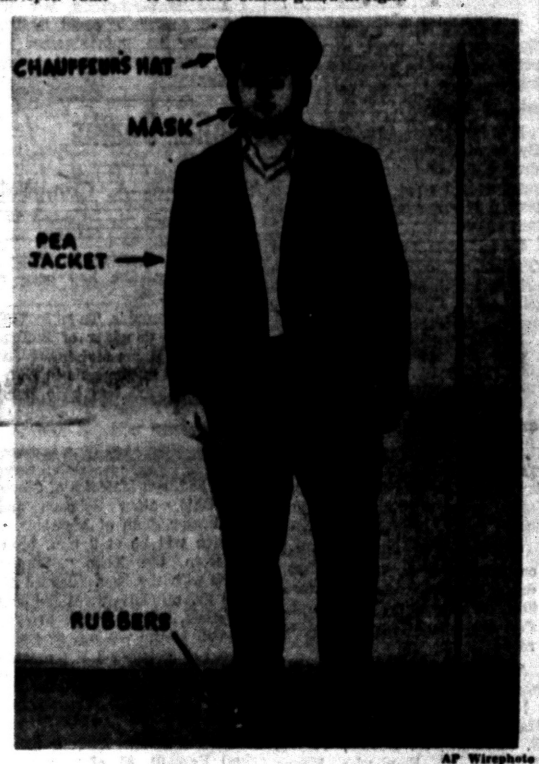

But he told the group that he had been elected mayor of Detroit 10 times—a statement which some took as a hint that he could get much-needed Wayne County votes if anyone could.

George W. Dean, president of the Michigan Federation of Labor, said the party must "dispel the idea that labor is anti-Republican and Republicans are anti-labor."

ARTIST'S CONCEPTION — This is an artist's conception of the description of gunmen who held up Brink's, Inc., and took more than a million dollars, Jan. 17, 1950.

Every Step Carefully Planned

Hoover Explains Plotting of Huge Brink's Robbery

WASHINGTON (INS) — FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover gives this explanation of the famous Brink's robbery:

"The Brink's robbery was a product of the combined thought and criminal experience of men who had known each other for many years.

"The gang spent more than a year in planning the robbery and they started a systematic study of the Brink's organization after it moved to its present location on Prince street in Boston.

"Before the robbery was carried out all the participants were well acquainted with the Brink's premises.

"Each of them had surreptitiously entered the building on several occasions after the Brink's employes had left for the day, and they made a study of Brink's schedules and shipments.

"The planning for the robbery included several trial runs in which the gang members practiced their approach to the building in a truck and their flight over the getaway route. The gang abandoned plans to carry out the robbery several times when conditions were not favorable.

"During these occasions, one gang member was stationed on the roof of a building on Prince Street overlooking Brink's. He signaled the others with a flashlight. The last of these approaches took place on the evening before the robbery."

Hoover then gave this graphic account of how the robbery actually was carried out:

"During the early evening of Jan. 17, 1950, members of the gang met in the Roxbury section of Boston and entered the rear of

Massachusetts to Prosecute 10 for Giant Crime

Suspects in $1.2 Million Case Include 2 Sought, 8 Held and 1 Dead

BOSTON (AP)—Massachusetts today began prosecution proceedings against 10 of the 11 ex-convicts named by the FBI as the gunmen who staged the nation's biggest cash robbery—the $1,218,211 Brink's haul of six years ago.

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover yesterday announced "solution" of the case, how the robbery was committed and the 11 men allegedly involved.

Shortly before Hoover's announcement, 6 of the 11 were rounded up by the FBI in Greater Boston. Two others already were in prison on other charges, two are still at large and one died last year of natural causes.

None of the loot was recovered.

Within hours of Hoover's announcement, the six newly arrested men were arraigned before a federal commissioner and held in bail totaling $870,000.

Joseph J. "Specs" O'Keefe, 47, one of 11 men named by the FBI as perpetrators of the robbery, went into Suffolk County Courthouse under heavy guard today to tell a grand jury what he knows about the nation's biggest haul.

* * *

Dist. Atty. Garrett H. Byrne told newsmen he would first address the grand jury himself.

ENTER JURY ROOM

Shortly before 11 a.m., Byrne and his two assistants, Frederick T. Doyle and John F. McAuliffe, walked into the jury room where 19 grand jurors, including three women, waited.

Asked if he got a full statement from O'Keefe last night, Byrne made it clear he could not disclose—except to the grand jury—anything O'Keefe said.

The FBI has been working on the case relentlessly since the men

Eight Dinners Scheduled in Michigan Saluting Ike

Michigan with eight dinners scheduled leads the states in number of events in the nationwide "Salute to Eisenhower" dinners Jan. 20.

Arrangements are being made in Washington for President Eisenhower to respond over a closed circuit telecast linking 53 cities.

The national Republican finance committee is sponsoring the dinners to kick off the party's 1956 fund raising campaign.

In addition to Washington and Detroit, television pickups are being planned from New York, Chicago, Los Angeles, Des Moines, Houston, Cleveland, Boston, Portland, Ore., and Atlanta.

Secretary of Defense Wilson will speak at Los Angeles. Postmaster General Summerfield will be the speaker at Portland.

Speaker for the dinner at Detroit's Masonic Temple will be Admiral Lewis W. Strauss, chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission.

Chairman of the Detroit committee for the "Salute to Eisenhower" is John S. Coleman, president of Burroughs Adding Machine Co.

Tickets for the Oakland County area are being distributed under the direction of Edward E. Wilson of Birmingham and Bruce Annett of Pontiac.

Good Samaritans Take This Warning

$100 Fine, Jail Term—Over Nickel Parking

Don't put that second nickel in that parking meter!

Don't even put another coin in a meter that is almost expired, to prevent another driver from getting a parking ticket.

It could cost you many times the price of both the nickel and the possible ticket.

Rewards for good samaritans who seek to cheat the city out of a parking ticket are not all in heaven. Some may be dispensed in the municipal court room. Other rewards may include time for meditation in the Oakland County Jail.

State and nation-wide messages of sympathy have been received by University of Michigan student Frank McLenon, who was fined $11.85 recently in Ann Arbor for thwarting justice by foiling a parking ticket with a penny.

A KINDLY ACT

He put it in an expiring meter to save an unknown motorist a fine. The police didn't think much of the idea.

They don't here, either. Police Chief Herbert W. Straley said today.

If McLenon had done the same thing locally, he could have received a maximum punishment of not more than $100 fine or 90 days in jail, or both.

The city parking ordinance states that residents may not occupy parking spaces for more than one nickel's worth. Then you must depart, if only to circle the block.

This is to insure parking turnover, and more availability of spaces. The limit in the municipal lots is three hours, but the same principle applies.

And you can get a ticket for trying to swindle the city by putting your nickel in another man's meter, just to show what a prince of a fellow you are.

Perhaps he will pay your $100 fine, though.

Chamber of Commerce Committee Tells Safety Goals

17 Objectives Listed for 1956

To Study Qualifications of Ambulance Drivers, Licensing Ordinance

The Chamber of Commerce 20-member safety committee outlined a 17-point objective program for 1956 at a meeting held yesterday noon.

Clyle R. Haskill, chairman of the group, told the luncheon gathering that the 1955 committee objectives were completely fulfilled and that every project undertaken by the committee was satisfactorily completed.

A three-man study committee was chosen to look into the qualifications and training of ambulance drivers and their assistants who care for injured in traffic accidents occurring within the city.

Sgt. Clayton Randolph, acting head of the Pontiac Police Traffic and Safety Bureau, discussed the points of a Flint ordinance pertaining to these drivers.

He said the ordinance requires that all ambulance drivers be licensed under the Flint Board of Health, and that each hospital record the name of the driver who brings a patient in, and his or her condition.

Any errors made by the drivers in treatment of the injured may result in suspension of the driver's license, Randolph said.

The committee will study the Flint ordinance and submit a letter to the City Commission based on their findings and recommendations.

Other objectives set down by the committee were:

1—Bring about a stricter enforcement policy in relation to the courts dealing with traffic violations.

2—Establish an award system in the city for citizens that perform meritorious safety service.

3—Work towards an Oakland County safety council.

4—Formulate a safety radio program.

5—Revise the driver education training film and recording.

6—Continue work on the home safety program with the Civitan Club.

7—Continue work on the Bicycle Safety Club along with the Optimist Club.

8—Automobile inspection program in coordination with the Automobile Dealers Assn.

9—Emphasis campaign to continue on "Slow Down and Live" program and Safe Driving Day.

10—Study analysis of city's fatal and serious accidents in 1955 in hopes of finding counter-measures.

11—Proposed study of city ordinances for possible revisions to bring them up to date.

12—Radar traffic control for the city.

13—Drag strip for hot rod club.

14—Issuance of school safety booklets.

15—Printing of safety questions and answers in The Pontiac Press.

Based on information supplied by the New York Weather Bureau, map traces course mountain of cold air has followed in extending from central Canada to Gulf of Mexico. FBI Cites Eleven as Brink's Robbers went through six locked doors of the Brink's money-carrying firm on the second floor of a waterfront garage and surprised five guards.

Hoover refused to disclose how the case was broken, saying the evidence must be protected for the trial.

DROPS HINT

However, Dist. Atty. Garrett H. Byrne of Suffolk County, Boston, dropped a hint that one of the men named as a participant has provided valuable information to law enforcers.

Byrne said Joseph (Specs) O'Keefe, 47, of Boston will be a principal witness before the Suffolk County jury, which begins hearing evidence today.

The federal government turned the case over to the state for prosecution because state penalties (up to life imprisonment) are heavier than federal law allows.

The six men arraigned yesterday were placed in Suffolk County Jail, Boston, pending grand jury action.

The other man already in prison is Stanley A. Gusciora, 36, doing 5 to 20 years in Western State Penitentiary, Pittsburgh, Pa., for a sporting goods store robbery.

Arrested in yesterday's FBI roundup were:

Henry Baker, 49, Natick; Adolph Maffie, 44, North Quincy; Joseph F. McGinnis, 52, Boston; Vincent J. Costa, 41, Pembroke, Mass.; Michael V. Geagan, 47, Milton; and Anthony Pino, 48, Boston.

STILL AT LARGE

Still at large are Thomas F. Richardson, 48, Weymouth, and James I. Faherty, 44, Boston.

* * *

Joseph F. Banfield, 45, Boston, the 11th man named by the FBI, died of natural causes last year.

All 11 have criminal records.

BOSTON (AP)—The roundup yesterday of six Brink's robbery suspects was completed by a crew of 30 FBI agents in 90 minutes.

* * *

"NOT GOING"

When approached by two agents, Maffie tried to push them away with the comment: "I'm not going with you."

* * *

"Oh yes you are," said one of the agents as he slapped handcuffs on Maffie's wrists. He was arrested at his home, 118 Billings St., North Quincy.

When the federal men arrived Maffie's son called police. The boy telephoned that someone was trying to put handcuffs on his daddy.

SHOW CREDENTIALS

A police cruiser sped to the Maffie home and the FBI agents had to show credentials before they could take their man away.

* * *

Anthony Pino, 48, who successfully fought deportation to Italy, and Vincent J. Costa, 41, were arrested together at Pino's home.

Michael V. Geagan, 47, of Milton, was arrested on the Boston waterfront while he was at work as a longshoreman.

CHECKING STOCK

Joseph McGinnis, 52, was checking the stock in his liquor store at Egleston Square, Roxbury district, when two FBI men quietly led him to their car.

Henry Baker, 49, was finishing lunch at his home when he was arrested.

The FBI apparently had been watching the moves of every man. The agents knew exactly where to find them.

Boston police knew nothing about it until the men were in FBI custody.

The federal complaints charged conspiracy to violate U. S. laws — bank robbery and theft of government property. The FBI's jurisdiction is based upon the fact that cash, checks, postal notes and United States money orders of the Federal Reserve Bank and the Veterans Administration district office in Boston were included in the loot.

Under Massachusetts law the men, if convicted, could be sentenced to life imprisonment because masks were used in the robbery.

Dailies Prepare for Publication

Unions Schedule More Meetings to Hurry Final Settlement of Terms

DETROIT (AP) — Detroit's three metropolitan newspapers prepared today to resume publication, possibly Monday, ending one of the longest big city shutdowns in history.

* * *

Publishers of the Detroit News, the Times and the Free Press reached tentative agreements yesterday with three striking craft unions to pave the way for a settlement of the 44-day-old strike.

But the agreements are yet to be ratified tomorrow by the membership of the striking stereotypers, printers and mailers unions and negotiations are still under way with three non-striking unions.

The publishers scheduled a meeting this afternoon with the photo-engravers. The Free Press and the Detroit Newspaper Guild, which bargains separately with the dailies, also scheduled a meeting.

Besides the photo-engravers and the guild, the teamsters (truck drivers) still have not reached agreement with the newspapers.

RECOMMEND ACCEPTANCE

Presidents of the stereotypers, printers and mailers unions announced they would recommend acceptance of agreements to end the shutdown.

As reports spread of settlements with striking unions, newspaper switchboards buzzed with queries as to when papers again will become available.

They haven't been available since Dec. 1 when 116 stereotypers, their contract expired, went on strike. Nearly three weeks later, printers and mailers joined the strike.

Dozens of meetings were held with the various unions.

Laid off guild members, and striking and laid off mechanical department employes started publication of "The Detroit Reporter" on Dec. 3. It claimed a circulation of 100,000, but put out 175,000 twenty-page editions before ceasing operations today.

The cost of the strike in lost newspaper advertising revenue was estimated unofficially at nine million dollars in the first six weeks.

Lost wages to striking or laid off employes were an estimated $3,500,000 during the first month of the strike.

All eight unions involved in the dispute provided some degree of strike benefits. Many members of craft unions found work in job printing plants.

Most guild members not employed full time by the Reporter found temporary jobs clerking in stores, getting out city and county tax bills or other forms of employment.

Almost unanimously, affected employes said they would be glad to "get back into the old routine."

Glorious Past, No Future

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Reporter, strike-born union daily newspaper published during the newspaper strike, carried this sub-line on the masthead of its final issue today:

"The paper with the glorious past, the biggest now, and no future."

The Reporter ceased publication with today's issue.

New Members Seated in U.N. Security Council

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (INS)—Yugoslavia, Australia and Cuba took their seats as new members in the U.N. Security Council yesterday.

Cuba and Australia will retain their seats for two years under the rotating system but Yugoslavia, under a special arrangement, will yield its seat after one year to the Philippines.

The new members were welcomed to the council by its January president, Victor A. Belaunde of Peru.

The Day in Birmingham

Producer and Lecturer Appears in 'Town Hall'

BIRMINGHAM — More than 100 spectators yesterday at Birmingham's Town Hall meeting learned of the unusual and colorful aspects of the South American republic of Colombia through color films at the Birmingham theater.

Aubert Lavastida, photographer and lecturer, explained the aspects of the country during the film. Scenes depicting what he termed the "Country of Contrasts," ranged from lush tropical coastal cities to the villages huddled on mountain heights thousands of feet high. Native industry, from primitive weaving of hand-dyed cloth to modern factory processes were shown.

There was also contrasts within the cities, as Lavastida pointed out, with some sections still standing that were built in the 1500's by the Spaniards and contrasting with ultra modern stores, apartments and industries.

Lavistida is a former University of Michigan instructor who has been responsible for the production of more than 30 travel and documentary films.

"Most Explosive" topic at the White House conference on education was Federal Aid to schools, Dr. Dana Whitmer and Louis Schimmel, Pontiac school officials, told members of the American Assn. of University Women at the Community House Wednesday.

Schimmel pointed out that Michigan problems stem from unscientific tax valuations, with school districts getting three different tax evaluations from local, county, and state, as contrast to Maryland's more equitable tax on only 24 school districts.

Queries of members and their guests, board of education members and school executives, brought out that federal aid would have no "strings" if given, and could be appropriated by Congress to states below minimum standards.

A bill to enable Waterford Township to vote on closing its area to hunting will be introduced in the State Legislature Monday, Sen. William S. Broomfield (R-Royal Oak) said today.

Bridges Might Run if State Is 'Cornered'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Bridges (R-NH) said today he will fight any attempt to "corner" New Hampshire's Republican delegation for any other candidate if President Eisenhower doesn't run again.

Bridges, chairman of the Senate GOP Policy Committee, told reporters that if persons close to the White House attempt to name a slate in the March 13 primary in his state, he may file his own name as a delegate candidate.

The New Hampshire vote is the first in the nation. Bridges said he expects the same results as in 1952, with Eisenhower sweeping the Republican preferential vote and Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee winning in the Democratic contest.

Wisconsin Vet Jailed; Says He Took Dope on Night of Shooting

SUPERIOR, Wis. (AP) — Duane Lattimer, 21, who said "I was drinking that night and smoking marijuana . . ." was held in the Douglas County jail today charged with first degree murder in the slaying of his 18-year-old sweetheart.

The warrant, issued yesterday afternoon by Douglas County Dist. Atty. John Chisholm, accused Lattimer in the slaying of Mildred Pederson who's body was found on a lonely, rural dump. She had been shot four times.

Lattimer, a former Air Force member discharged last July as undesirable, was named in a kidnaping warrant issued by officials in neighboring Ashland County. The warrant accuses him of terrorizing the Wallace Robnson fmily and forcingashrd Robinson family and forcing Robinson, 41, to drive him to Marshfield in Wood County 120 miles south of Ashland.

Lattimer, son of Mrs. Ernest Connell of Wentworth where his stepfather operates a filling station, was arrested in a road block at Marshfield early yesterday morning. He told Police Chief Walter Wohlfahrt, "I'm sorry I didn't get a chance to shoot it out with you." Lattimer carried two automatic pistols when arrested, one a .32 caliber, the other a .25.

March 5 Jury Trial to Decide Graham Fate

DENVER (AP)—A jury trial is set to start March 5 to determine if John Gilbert Graham was sane last Nov. 1 when he is accused of dynamiting an airliner that hurled his mother and 43 others to death.

Trial on the sanity issue was requested by court-appointed defense attorneys who rejected the findings of four psychiatrists that the 23-year-old defendant was sane. In effect, the doctors found Graham knew right from wrong and could refrain from doing wrong.

Leading Talent Scout Quitting Godfrey Gang

NEW YORK (AP)—Paul Blaufox, Arthur Godfrey's chief talent scout, says he planning to leave the Godfrey troupe—but not because of any trouble with the red-haired TV star.

In an interview last night, Blaufox, with Godfrey the past five years, said:

"I'm quitting because I want to do something better. I want to produce. I will stay with Godfrey until I find something else—and that might take two weeks or two years. Godfrey's been a swell guy to me but I'm capable of something better than fishing out talent in night clubs."

Tire, Gas Company Tieup Under Probe

WASHINGTON (AP)—Major tire and gasoline firms defended as legal and proper today agreements to push sales of the tire manufacturers' products at the oil companies' filling stations.

The Federal Trade Commission issued charges yesterday that three such agreements involving six firms were illegal. It set hearings starting March 20, and gave the companies 30 days to file answers.

The agreements, it said, involved the B. F. Goodrich Co. and the Texas Co.; Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co. and the Atlantic Refining Co.; and Firestone Tire and Rubber Co. and Shell Oil Co.

* * *

It said the arrangements "foreclosed a large and substantial amount of business" to other makers of tires, batteries and other accessories at filling stations controlled by the oil companies.

2 Back Red Demand for Israeli Payments

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Two small powers on the U.N. Security Council were lined up today with Russia's demand that Israel pay damages for her Dec. 11 attack on Syria.

The council scheduled a second round of debate today on rival Soviet and Western resolutions to censure Israel. Both condemn the raid on Syrian outposts near the Sea of Galilee, but only the Russians called for a demand on Israel for compensation.

Yugoslavia and Iran were the first supporters of the Soviet contention that Israel should pay damages for the killing of 56 Syrians and destruction of several buildings in the attack. Six Israelis also were killed.

Sir Hubert Wilkins made an attempt to explore the Arctic ocean in a submarine during 1931. He used an old American naval submarine, renamed the Nautilus.

Jehovah's Witnesses to Open Convention

Jehovah's Witnesses open their convention tonight at the Senior High School. This evening's program opens with the address of welcome in which Mr. M. S. Allen of Brooklyn, New York, will discuss the new and advanced Ministry training program just now beginning in all the 16,044 congregations of Jehovah's Witnesses World-wide. A typical classroom session in the advanced ministry training will follow the discussion.

Saturday afternoon, following a discourse on the meaning of baptism, many taking up the work of Jehovah's Witnesses will be baptized by water immersion. Evening sessions will be devoted to counsel and instruction on being "The Right Kind of Ministers."

While all sessions are open to the public, special invitation is given to attend the highlight of the convention, the address by Mr. Allen Sunday at 3 p.m. "Overcoming the Fears of This Generation."

Major Airlines Balk; Stay at Willow Run

YPSILANTI (AP) — Seven of the eight major airlines at Willow Run Airport told Wayne County and Detroit today that they have decided "once and for all" to stay where they are.

* * *

The only airline which has not stated the decision either to stay or to move to Detroit-Wayne major airport is American Airlines, one of Willow Run's largest operators.

The airlines said it would cost about 32 million dollars to convert Wayne-Major to commercial operation and "the benefits to the traveling public are not sufficient to warrant this expenditure."

Instead, the airlines suggested the real need would be met by the construction sometime in the future of a northeast airport.

Air traffic is increasing from 10 to 15 per cent yearly, they said, and the two airports will be "justified and warranted" by the time a new facility can be constructed.

Marilyn's Film Firm to Produce First Show

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Playwright Terrence Rattigan's "The Sleeping Prince" will be the first independent production for Marilyn Monroe Productions, Inc.

Marilyn will star in the part played by Vivien Leigh on the London stage. The picture may be filmed in England next summer or fall.

Miss Monroe's corporation recently signed a seven-year contract with 20th Century-Fox. Her first picture for them, "Bus Stop," will be made before "The Sleeping Prince."

Town, Country YMCA Installs Four Directors at Annual Meeting

Elected president of the Oakland County Town & Country YMCA at the annual meeting of the board last night was Dr. Milton Hathaway. The meeting saw the installation of four newly elected directors to the board, Horace W. Lodge, Wilbur C. Crawford, Robert V. Parenti and William Beer.

Other officers for the year are: Jack Habel, John A. Riley, John Faulkner, Eugene Cleland, and Gordon Walker.

Retiring President Ottis R. Briney Jr., gave the annual report of activities. He pointed out individual counseling work be carried on by Sidney N. Geal, Y Executive Director. This program is carried on in conjunction with the five Junior High Schools in Pontiac and also available to individuals through the Y office.

In his report of activities at Camp Mahn-Go-Tah-See Briney said that 343 boys attended camp this past year.

Committees for the coming year were announced by the incoming president.

Cliff Drury, Associate State Secretary of Physical Education and Camping for the State YMCA, spoke to the group about the value of the Y program in reaching boys and girls today when rapidly expanding communities and areas cannot provide wholesome recreational and guidance at the same pace as the growth of the area.

Milford Man Scheduled for Sentencing Today

Carl E. Elwing, 35, of Milford, pleaded guilty yesterday to an indecent act in the men's lounge of a downtown theater and was released on $300 bond by Municipal Judge Cecil McCallum.

McCallum said he would sentence Elwing today on a charge of disorderly conduct.

Acheson Hits Foreign Affairs 'Hucksterism'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Former Secretary of State Dean Acheson called last night for a revitalized foreign policy, imaginatively and vigorously pursued, and c[illegible]d against conducting forei[illegible]s by "hucksterism."

* * *

The evil of hucksterism, the Truman administration secretary of state said, is that it glamorizes a product while obscuring the fact that there is no product at all.

"This is the era of the huckster," he told some 200 hearers at a dinner given in his honor by the Woman's National Democratic Club. "If we go on as we have been doing we'll come to the ultimate slogan of 'weakness is strength.'"

* * *

Acheson said it might be well for this country to reappraise its whole foreign policy in view of a Russian shift in emphasis from political to economic methods of waging the cold war, and what he called the increased attention to uncommitted countries from North Africa across the Middle East to Indochina.

The first sight of land in Anarctica was logged in 1820 by an American whaling captain, Nathan Palmer.

5,078 High School Seniors Contest for Scholarships

CHICAGO (AP)—A total of 5,078 brilliant high school seniors will take second examinations tomorrow to determine which 2,500 of them will still be in the running for college merit scholarships next fall.

They are the survivors of nearly 80,000 hand-picked seniors who took the first examination Oct. 26 in the National Merit Scholarship Corp. talent search.

The second tests will be given at hundreds of testing stations throughout the nation, but no student will have to travel more than 90 miles.

* * *

The 2,500 finalists will be considered by a board of judges. The board will review their scholastic records and their activities records in and out of school. The students will be asked to submit statements of their plans for college and ambitions later.

At least 445 and possibly 500 will be given four-year scholarships to colleges of their choice. They also will get cost of living allowances based on need.

The scholarship program was made possible largely by a grant from the Ford Foundation. Nine major corporations subsequently announced plans to cooperate and increase the number of such scholarships.

Results will be known in about five weeks.

Arrest City Resident on Charge of Assault

A 24-year-old man, wanted in a felonious assault case here 1½ years ago, was arrested Wednesday when police identified him during investigation of another case.

Facing the charge is Leo Jones, 280 N. Paddock St., who police say hospitalizsd another man whom he struck over the head with a chair during a bar-room fight in August 1954.

A warrant for Jones' arrest was issued at the time, but he fled the city and later the state, according to police.

Gov. Williams Submits All Inclusive Program

If Michigan's Legislators are skeptical about Gov. Williams' promise of a balanced budget with no new taxes, it's understandable.

That is a natural reaction to the many sweeping proposals included in his 1956 legislative program and the delay of the budget message itself. This skepticism undoubtedly was increased by the Governor's announced plans to submit other supplemental messages on specific points.

Actually, there is much in the message we approve, more that deserves careful study by the lawmakers and other projects which strike us as more Federal than State in scope.

★ ★ ★

Certainly there is room for expansion of the State's recently enacted highway safety program and for plans to expedite highway construction. Weekly traffic death lists emphasize the need for more State Police and for return to two license plates for cars and trucks. Adoption of a compulsory automobile maintenance system though controversial and opposed by the American Automobile Association, nonetheless is worthy of searching examination.

★ ★ ★

As the Governor well knows, he can look for Republican opposition to his pet State corporation tax which he has submitted for the eighth consecutive year.

There may be doubt about the warmth of the reception awaiting his proposals for Commissions to study automation, peaceful uses of nuclear power and air pollution.

Because of steadily growing enrollments, the Governor's educational program merits study. Heading it is his proposal for a 20 per cent increase in operating budgets for state colleges and universities. Also proposed are a six year $150,000,000 college expansion program, a $4,000 minimum wage for teachers and a new formula for State aid to school districts.

Only time will tell how much of this all inclusive program will be written into law. But it is certain that there is enough in it to keep every member of the Legislature busy night and day from now until adjournment April 6.

Honored Guest of U.S.

Although Brazil's president-elect, Juscelino Kubitschek is little known in this country, he is being given a warm welcome during his short stay here.

★ ★ ★

After his election last October there was some question as to whether the powerful military faction would permit him to take office. Since then opposition has subsided and inaugural ceremonies are scheduled for January 31.

A surgeon, 52 years old, Dr. Kubitschek is regarded at home as a political moderate. His official experience includes service as Governor of Brazil's state of Minas Gervais.

★ ★ ★

A peculiarity of Brazilian politics is responsible for the fact that Dr. Kubitschek heads the Social Democrat party while vice presidential-elect, Joao Goulart is the leader of the leftist Labor Party.

Dr. Kubitschek's reception here appropriately reflects the cordial relations which exist between his country and ours.

Easing Customs Rules

Present indications are that President Eisenhower may have to fight for Senate approval of further customs simplification procedure.

That he was willing to make such a fight was apparent in his State of the Union message. What he wants is enactment by the upper chamber of a measure passed by the House last June and designed to carry out that purpose.

Back of this bill is the uncertainty many foreign producers feel about the rate of duty they will have to pay on their products. They can't be sure just how their products will be classified on arrival, what duties will be levied or how long they'll be detained by hearings, decisions and appeals.

The House accepted by a vote of 232 to 143 an Administration bill now before the Senate with some changes. Some supporters of the bill insist that its downward effect on import duties would be infinitesimal. Opponents argue that on certain commodities the downward effect would be considerable.

★ ★ ★

The President is right in seeking remedial changes. The more obstacles to the orderly flow of imports which Congress can remove, the more friendly governments will be able to spend for American products.

Time: What drags when we're young and scoots when we're old.

The water levels in most of Oakland County's 400 odd lakes now are substantially at normal, despite reports to the contrary. Cass Lake is only one and one-half inches below its average level. Last year at this time it was one and one-quarter inches below average. These findings are accurately determined by the quite elaborate installation near the home of

Ike's Reference to the 'Unexpected' on Re-election Overlooked by Politicos

WASHINGTON—What do members of the cabinet think about the chances of an announcement being made by President Eisenhower that he will accept nomination for a second term?

Most of them who talk about it at all do so privately to their friends and associates, and the preponderant opinion is that the President will take what is often called in military terms a "calculated risk" and will be willing to serve if the people wish him to do so.

Since the transcript of the President's conference with the press last Sunday at Key West was published, it develops that there are really two main groups in Washington, irrespective of party, who comment on it.

The first assumes that a personal decision is to be made, and many individuals, whether Republican or Democratic, say the same thing—that in their own cases and faced with the same circumstances, they wouldn't risk a second term or any other heavy duties in business or the professions.

PERSONAL RISK

The second assumes that, while there is a personal risk, a soldier is inclined to look at the national interest above self-interest and that, when all the facts and arguments are marshalled, Eisenhower, impelled by a sense of duty, will decide to serve on if re-elected.

But it is surprising that those who commented overlook one aspect of what could be involved in the President's reference to the "unexpected." He said in his press conference:

"It is a very critical thing to change governments in this country at a time that it is unexpected—we accustom ourselves, and so do foreign governments, to changing our government every four years but always something happens that is untoward when a government is changed at other times. It is a rather startling thing."

But, it may be asked, just what is going to happen in this country and in the world if the President announces that he isn't going to run?

The "unexpected" will then develop with intensity. American leadership will suddenly become uncertain and perhaps frustrated. If the President announces a negative decision at the end of February, for example, a period of uncertainty lasting through several months will inevitably follow.

As for the Communist governments, they might feel this period of uncertainty gave them a chance to do the "unexpected," too, and a flare-up in Formosan waters might be the result, with grave risks of war.

UNEXPECTED DEATH?

What Eisenhower doubtless had in mind when he talked to the reporters about the "unexpected" was the possibility that a president with a heart ailment might die unexpectedly and at a critical time. But, while indeed such a turn of fate would be a shock to the country and to the world, the period of uncertainty is short-lived.

The vice president takes the oath of office immediately. This was true when Presidents Lincoln, Garfield and McKinley were shot, and, in recent times, when Presidents Harding and Franklin Roosevelt died in office. When the next in line takes office, the incumbent administration usually continues on with the same cabinet and the same policies.

Comparing the consequences of sudden change due to death of a president in office and the confusion and uncertainty which would ensue in the United States if Eisenhower should in February or March announce that he will not run, there seems little doubt that the latter type of change would produce far more damage to world affairs in general and to the economic situation in the United States.

National policies toward business, which are of prime importance, would be left uncertain till a new president took office ten or eleven months later. This crisis would, in any event, last at least eight months—from March to November — even if the Republican candidate were successful in the election itself.

Lax Diagnoses of 'Colds' May Lead to Worse Ills

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

Diagnosis is the art of recognizing the presence of disease from its symptoms, and deciding as to its character; also the decision reached.

According to a survey of various urban and rural sections of the country by the U. S. Public Health Service some years ago, three-fourths of respiratory infections accounted for the everyday work of physicians, that is, illnesses and sequels.

That means not just the immediate illnesses from such ailments as measles, scarlet fever, tonsillitis, but also the complications or sequels of such infections, such as otitis media and mastoditis.

In most instances illnesses in this category are not diagnosed. Either the patient or the physician is content to call it a "cold" and gamble that it won't prove to be diphtheria, measles, infantile paralysis, meningitis or other serious respiratory infection.

Too often physicians who dare not tell the truth lest patients change doctors—dare not say, in the early stage of the illness, "I don't know yet what is developing."

They foster the practice of calling any respiratory infection "cold" in the early stage of the indisposition or illness—when the infection is most communicable—and thereby contribute to the spread of the infection, the undiagnosed disease.

SHOULD TELL

Not that a good doctor can diagnose a respiratory infection in the onset, when it is most likely to spread, but the doctor should at least instruct the patient how to avoid spreading what he has caught.

Physicians, specialists and health authorities have told people how to avoid "the common cold" and what to do when "threatened" or down with it.

But no physician or health authority can or will define or describe such an entity.

"Any fool knows what a common cold is."

Not just any fool, for indeed I don't. What's more, I don't believe any physician knows what a "cold" is, and that's why no one dares to define or describe it.

It is a tag which satisfies many a poor creature if the doctor doesn't know what ails him, but it isn't a diagnosis.

Signed letters, not more than one page of 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to the Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

'Don't Put Children Off Bus if They Lose Their Money'

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

I'm forced to wonder if the Pontiac City Bus Lines are so nearly bankrupt that they have to put kindergarten to sixth grade children off their buses if they have lost their money.

We don't like to have them ride free, but to put a child out in 20 degrees weather seems rather inhuman.

If the bus lines feel they are losing money, let them get the child's name and address and bill the parents. I'm sure any of us would gladly pay, if only to know the welfare of our children could be guaranteed.

There is a time in everyone's life that something is lost. A child is certainly no exception. And as we, the riders, pay the bus lines salaries, we would like just a small courtesy in exchange.

'Little Old Lady' Denies Teens' Defense Points

I believe the teenager who wrote in defense of her age group is in error regarding the small percentage of three per cent who are delinquent.

Anyway, in Pontiac it seems like 97 per cent are inflicting this childish cruelty: A teenage sailor and his friend, three teenagers riding in the back of a "learn to drive" car sponsored by the high school. I could go on and on.

These teenagers are very democratic. They'll criticize anybody, old, middleaged, young. I thought I'd make this clear, as my first letter was thought to refer only to the maligning of the aged.

This teenager also wrote that the members of her class never saw this persecution of which I speak. It is difficult to see the mote in one's own eye.

It's a wonder parents wouldn't teach teenagers common decency. None of us are so perfect we can criticize others. We all have an Achilles heel, and are vulnerable in at least one instance.

Our American Economy Doesn't Stay in One Spot

By MERRYLE S. RUKEYSER
INS Economic Commentator

Success in the business of living calls for ability to peer ahead into the fog of the future.

* * *

The limitation of the statistician, as once remarked to me by the sage Bernard M. Baruch, is that he specializes in telling you what has happened.

The commonest fallacy of the academic mind, in projecting thought into the more or less unknowable future, is the assumption that "all other factors will remain equal."

In this dynamic world, however, other factors do not remain equal.

Hence the continuation of current trends into the future is tainted with the erroneous premise that the creative mind will rest on its laurels.

* * *

The result is a comedy of errors.

For example, there are times when management at the bargaining table says that certain union proposals will destroy its ability to survive, yet life goes on.

It is wrong to assume that the management spokesman intended to deceive. What he meant to say was that the employer could not absorb the added cost if all other factors remained equal. But offsetting benefits have carried companies over hurdles which under static conditions would have proved to be insuperable.

FUTURE GROWTH

The continuance of the baby crop on a high level promises additional growth for the future. Informed observers expect domestic population to rise another 40 per cent, or about 60 million persons, in the next two decades.

* * *

But since the new population will not be self supporting for about 20 years, the 40 per cent increase in population will be accompanied by only a 20 per cent increase in the work force and perhaps 10 per cent in available man-hours.

Accordingly, instead of worrying about automation, it is essential to expand tools and energy sources to take care of the coming greater economic requirements. Industry sources estimate that with our electric capacity now at 500 million kilowatt hours the country will require a billion kilowatt hours by 1965 and two billion by 1975.

Industry has become a great sociological force in lifting popular standards of living. The credo of contemporary business is to link itself with the creative side of man in the realm of science, investment and energy.

* * *

Accordingly, obsolescence, which is a big word to describe the supplanting of old methods with new and better techniques, is continuously taking place, and nowadays a man or a company must run fast in order to remain where he is.

Case Records of a Psychologist

Many Husbands' Habits Offend Wives Even Though It's Never Mentioned

Janet is a typical devoted wife who is more tactful than her husband. He bluntly criticizes her, but she refrains from telling him why she can't grow as affectionate as he'd like when he kisses her. Send for the Rating Scales mentioned below, and see tomorrow's follow-up of this case.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case Q-347: Janet J., aged 27, presents an all too common problem.

"Dr. Crane, my husband thinks I am not as affectionate as I should be," she began.

* * *

"But he smokes incessantly and the smell of soured smoke on his breath, is quite repulsive to me.

'So how can a pregnant wife be loving when she is nauseated by her husband's halitosis?

"After having sent for some of your sex booklets, I am a much more satisfied wife than I used to be, but he still says I am far from perfect."

TESTS FOR HUSBANDS

Janet has brought out the fact that happy marriage is a 50-50 proposition, so husbands should do their part.

"But I bring home a good pay check and don't run around at night," Janet's husband might protest in self-defense.

* * *

That isn't enough in this advanced stage of human relations, although he does deserve credit for these two major virtues.

So I had a talk with Janet and her husband and let them rate themselves on my "Tests for Husbands and Wives."

If you readers don't have those rating scales, then you might profitably send for them, regardless of whether you are newlyweds or nearing your golden wedding day.

For many otherwise competent husbands, have one-track minds. They may fail to see themselves as others view them.

They don't even dream that a devoted wife of many years loyalty, still is squeamish because they have a shower of dandruff on their coat collar or pick their nose as a nervous habit, or have a repulsive breath.

SOCIAL INTELLIGENCE

In psychology we distinguish between your brain's basic horsepower (I.Q.), versus your social intelligence.

Some years ago Dr. Fred A. Moss developed an excellent Test of Social Intelligence.

Many introvertive and self-centered engineers, chemists, accountants, etc. may rate exceedingly high in general intelligence, yet fall down on social understanding or tact.

For example, many clergymen and singers in the church choir, will have halitosis after their sermon or solo, for the excessive drying of the throat during such vocal exercise, seems to produce bad breath.

After the church service is over, such a clergyman or musician may stand and receive compliments from dozens of the folks in the congregation, yet the bad breath of the clergyman or singer may almost asphyxiate his well-wishers.

This failure to look ahead and anticipate the social consequence of one's behavior, is not necessarily a sign of low I.Q., but it does illustrate lack of tact.

HUSBANDLY TACT

Many men alienate a sensitive, cultured wife even on the honeymoon by vulgar actions or vulgar speech, even though the husbands don't sense this fact.

And most wives don't protest, for they are usually more tactful than men. They sense the fact their husbands would grow angry at any slight criticism.

So a devoted wife may keep mum for years and take many affronts to her sensitive spirit, without striking back.

On these famous "Tests for Husbands and Wives," therefore, you can see the secret attitudes of wives, as well as husbands, and thus rate yourself.

Legion to Push for Pension Hike

Tells Solons Its Goal Is Half-Billion Increase and More Eligible Vets

WASHINGTON (AP) — The American Legion has told Congress its No. 1 legislative goal this year is a half-billion dollar boost in veterans' pensions.

The plan would increase individual pension payments and make more veterans eligible.

National Commander J. Addington Wagner said passage of the pension bill would "spell the difference between existing and living — between despair and hope" for thousands of veterans.

Chairman Olin E. Teague (D-Tex) of the House Veterans Affairs Committee, indicated in advance of Wagner's prepared testimony that the plan will face cool treatment.

TURNS BILL DOWN

Teague disclosed he had turned down an American Legion request that he introduce its bill. And he said the committee would not take up the plan before it has disposed of such other items as hospital repair, scholarships for veterans' orphans and "equalization" of various veterans' benefits.

The Veterans Administration figures the American Legion bill would cost 528 million dollars its first year, with the amount to increase 18 per cent a year for some years thereafter. The Veterans of Foreign Wars is understood to be giving top priority to a similar measure this year.

* * *

Wagner asked that Congress:

1. Raise the present monthly pension rates of $66.15, $78.75 and $135.45 to $85, $105 and $150 respectively.

2. Increase income limitations on veterans eligible for pensions from the present $1,400 and $2,700 to $1,800 and $3,000.

3. Presume for pension purposes that any veteran age 65 or over is totally disabled and unemployable, and thus automatically eligible for a pension.

HALF-MILLION VETS

About a half-million veterans are now getting pensions.

On other legislative matters Wagner said his group:

1. Favors 31 of the Hoover Commission's recommendations affecting veterans' services and opposes 46, especially those possibly involving cutbacks of federal medical services, compensation and pensions, veterans' job preference and Civil Service.

2. Wants the termination date of the World War II GI home loan guaranty program extended three more years, to July 25, 1960.

New Dulles Aide Arouses Opposition

WASHINGTON (AP)—Some Republican Senate leaders were reported to be angry today at President Eisenhower's selection of Robert R. Bowie as assistant secretary of state.

* * *

Bowie, a member of the State Department's Policy Planning Board since May 1953, was formally nominated yesterday. Secretary of State Dulles and Republican National Chairman Leonard W. Hall were said by informed sources to have tried in advance to soften opposition to him.

Some influential Republicans said they have been told that Bowie has said privately he favors admission of Communist China to the United Nations.

* * *

That is a Red flag for such senators as GOP Leader Knowland of California and GOP Policy Chairman Bridges of New Hampshire, who are outspoken opponents of recognition.

Envoy Luce Loses Watch

WASHINGTON (AP)—Clare Boothe Luce, the U.S. Ambassador to Italy, is afraid somebody else is going to spend her time. She told police she lost a $1,000 watch which outwardly resembles a Portuguese coin about the size of a half-dollar. A secret catch throws open one side of it to expose the watch dial.

Closed Hearings Reveal Indiscreet Actions in Chicago Contract

WASHINGTON (AP)—Hugh W. Cross, resigned chairman of the Interstate Commerce Commission, was quoted in testimony released today as admitting some "indiscreet" actions in connection with a Chicago contract.

"I have never had a finger or whisper of suspicion pointed at me before," he said. ". . . I cannot believe that my action in any way affected those contracts."

The Senate Investigations subcommittee made public the testimony given by Cross and others in a closed door hearing last Nov. 15.

BLASTS RELEASE

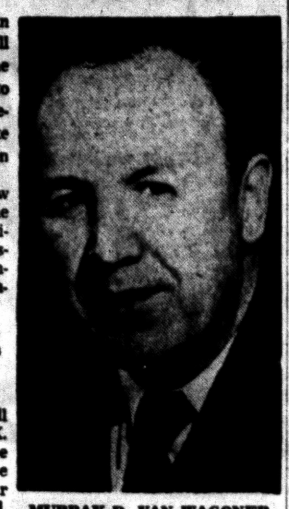

The subcommittee's Democratic majority overrode protests from its Republican members in releasing the transcript. Sen. Bender (R-Ohio), one of the members, denounced the release as "grossly unfair to Mr. Cross" without hearing more witnesses. Further hearings were abandoned after Cross resigned Nov. 23.

* * *

There was no immediate statement from Cross. He wrote to President Eisenhower in resigning that he had been the target of "baseless charges" which nevertheless would impair his service on the commission.

Cross, a Republican and former lieutenant governor of Illinois, was originally appointed to the ICC by former President Truman.

Murray D. Van Wagoner Will Speak at Installation

MURRAY D. VAN WAGONER

Former Gov. Murray D. Van Wagoner, of Birmingham, will present an analysis of what the Mackinac Bridge will mean to Michigan residents Monday evening at the Pontiac Real Estate Board's annual public installation of officers in the Elks Temple.

A member of the Mackinaw Bridge Authority, the onetime highway commissioner and military governor of Bavaria is associated with the Michigan Turnpike Authority as consulting engineer.

Van Wagoner is expected to voice his views on the bridge's significance in terms of state commerce and expansion.

Among the event's highlights will be the installation of Verne K. Archer as 1956 president of the real estate organization. More than 400 board members and their guests are expected to attend, according to General Chairman Cramer Partridge.

Van Wagoner will speak following the dinner, scheduled to begin at 6:30 p. m.

UM Employes Seek Increase

Legislature Will Debate Pay Boost for Faculty and Other Personnel

ANN ARBOR (AP)—The State Legislature goes to work shortly on a five to nine per cent wage increase for University of Michigan employes and faculty. It would cost $2,210,751.

University officials reported that $1,190,473 of their $27,730,720 budget request for 1956 will be set aside, if approved, for a five per cent general increase.

While the national per capita income has increaped 165 per cent since 1939, university officials said, per capita income of university employes has increased only 99 per cent in the same period.

If the Legislature approves the appropriation, two thirds of all university employes would get merit increases up to four per cent. This would cost $952,458.

An additional $115,000 would be needed to cover the university's portion of social security for the wage increase. The university is also asking $132,720 for hiring more personnel to meet increased enrollments.

Indignant Man Claims He's Burglar, Not Peeper

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—Police picked up Donald Erby, 25, as a peeping Tom suspect early yesterday on complaint of a woman.

At the police station, Erby indignantly denied the charge:

"I'm not a peeping Tom. I'm a burglar. I was waiting for the old lady to go to bed so I could steal her car."

Police said he admitted five local burglaries.

Heir Must Answer Paternity Suit Claim

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Grocery chain heir Huntington Hartford II has been directed to respond within 30 days to a paternity suit seeking to have him acknowledge that he is the father of Edward Barton Colt, 17.

Superior Judge Aubrey N. Irwin yesterday denied Hartford's motion to quash service of a summons in the suit which was made in New York City.

The suit, filed last November, seeks to have Colt established legally as Hartford's son so that he can obtain a passport for travel abroad.

Colt does not seek money, claiming he receives $800 a month from a $295,000 trust fund established for him by Hartford in 1939.

The complaint states the boy is the son of Hartford, 44, and the late Mary Barton, night club singer who died in New York in 1941.

Kansas has about 9,439 miles of railway trackage.

Engineers Study Runway Work

Project at Willow Run Aids UM Roadbuilder Students in Courses

MIAMI (AP)—A University of Michigan official told road builders yesterday how engineers are learning lessons of highway building from the runways of Willow Run Airport.

• • •

Floyd G. Wakefield, supervisor of the airport for the university, which owns it, told the American Road Builders Assn. meeting that the 400 daily aircraft landings and departures are providing the lessons.

The elementary lessons have shown, Wakefield said, that proper subgrade preparation and construction discipline make possible roads of thin slabs of concrete.

Since 1946, University engineers have been watching the runway paving, and there's enough of it to make 115 miles of highway.

FOOT BY FOOT

Foot by foot surveys and aerial photographs have been made and every slab of the runways numbered.

Last summer, Wakefield said, the university tried another experiment. They paved a 2,500 foot taxi strip and ramps with a wire-mesh reinforced layer of black top. Pavement and mesh specifications were varied for comparative purposes.

Although contractors have looked on the mesh as a time consuming hindrance, Wakefield said, university engineers did not find the operation took any longer. Engineers also expect that the new runway will not assume the cracks of the pavement underneath because of the mesh.

This one lesson, alone, Wakefield said, may lead to substantial savings in road repair.

Long Sault Canal Project Gets Low Bid

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP)—An apparent low bid of $20,172,451.17 for the first major U. S. construction project on the St. Lawrence Seaway was submitted yesterday by a three-company combination of contractors from New York City and Montreal.

• • •

The project is the Robinson Bay Lock. Scheduled for completion by May 15, 1958, it will be one of two major locks on the Long Sault Canal. The 10-mile-long channel south of the Long Sault Rapids will be the biggest man-made ditch on the Seaway.

Submitting the bid were Morrison Knudson Co. Inc. of New York City, Walsh Construction Co. of New York City, and Perini Quebec, Inc., of Montreal.

The only single bidder, Merritt, Chapman and Scott of New York City, was next lowest at $20,446,296.

• • •

The St. Lawrence Seaway Development Corp. reported in Washington that—in terms of cost—9 per cent of the seaway work was completed in the first construction season.

Policeman-Father Finds Stolen Pup for His Son, 7

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Gunner is back and 7-year-old Tommy Zichek remains convinced that his dad is the best sleuth on the police force.

Tommy called his dad Wednesday night at police headquarters and said two men had just stolen his beagle puppy.

"Papa, you're a policeman. Catch the people who stole Gunner."

His dad, officer John Zichek, had to turn the case over to sheriff's deputies. Since the dog was missing from in front of Zichek's East Pasadena home, it was out of his police jurisdiction.

Actor Donald Covert, 30, called Zichek yesterday. He said he had picked up the dog when he saw it wandering in traffic. Later he read about the missing dog and notified the officer. Zichek immediately picked up Gunner.

J. R. Hearst Tells of Multi-Million Miami Projects

MIAMI (INS) — John Randolph Hearst, explaining that "in these times you just can't stick to one field of business," revealed plans for a multi-million dollar building development in Miami.

He said he plans to build an 800-room hotel, an apartment building and stores on a five-acre tract currently owned by the Du Pont interests.

He estimated the cost at between 15 and 18 million dollars.

Hearst said he has no intention of going into the hotel business and will lease the buildings when they are completed.

Hearst, who is negotiating for leases which would give him control of the land for 70 years, disclosed that there are other persons in the project with him. However, he added: "I'd say it is mostly my project. It is my idea."

Hearst said he may build an office building but said Miami is "a little over-officed at the moment, and we don't want to get ahead of the market."

He said a meeting with the Du Pont interests will be held in a week or two to complete the transaction.

Musicians Meet at UM

ANN ARBOR (AP)—The 11th annual midwestern conference on school vocal and instrumental music is expected to bring about 1,800 persons from Michigan and other states to the University of Michigan Friday and Saturday.

Equals Grim Toll Set in 1951

Year's 16 Road Deaths Near-Record

During 1955, Pontiac just missed tying its all-time record number of traffic deaths.

Instead, the list of 16 dead last year ties the figure reached in 1951.

The peak year remains 1950, when 17 died, a report from Police Traffic and Safety Bureau indicates.

The report states 1,926 reportable accidents occurred here last year, in which 640 other persons were injured. The figures include only cases where injuries occur or automobiles cannot be driven away.

A comparison with 1954 shows only five persons died that year, and 100 fewer persons were injured during 1,844 accidents.

Last year, eight of the fatalities were pedestrians. Five others died when cars collided, and three died when cars rammed fixed objects.

There were 102 other pedestrians struck down. Cars colliding caused 1,471 non-fatal accidents, and cars hitting fixed objects caused 160 non-fatal accidents. Thirteen collisions involved trains and 14 were with bicycles. Two cars were reported overturned.

One item of the report indicated a trend of the times: No collision occurred with a horse-drawn vehicle. Last year, two such cases were reported.

Ben Franklin, Cornerstone of American Democracy

BOSTON (AP)—One of the astounding success stories of all time began just 250 years ago in a small house in Boston where, by his own words, Benjamin Franklin was born "in poverty and obscurity."

* * *

The 15th of 17 children, Franklin received only two years of formal education. He failed in arithmetic. But regardless of position or education, no child born anywhere in the British Empire in the year 1706 was to have a greater impact upon that Empire's destiny.

Of almost unbelievable breadth of interest, he became: athlete, printer, newspaperman, publisher, mechanic, author, civic leader, successful business man, renowned scientist and inventor, patriot, philosopher and a diplomat who helped to shape history.

Dedicated to all human freedoms, he was the first to petition Congress to end slavery. He helped write both the Declaration of Independence and the American Constitution.

Honored in Europe for his scientific achievements, he used this great prestige to win France's assistance when the Colonies revolted against the British.

POOR RICHARD

The proverbs Franklin assembled in "Poor Richard's Almanack" contributed mightily to building a lasting tradition of individual responsibility and enterprise in the struggling young American nation. They included:

"Early to bed and early to rise makes a man healthy, wealthy and wise . . . God helps them that help themselves . . . The worst wheel of a cart makes the most noise . . . A penny saved is a penny got."

Franklin rushed headlong into life after his humble birth. Apprenticed early to his printer-brother, he spent his spare moments reading and practicing writing. At 16 he was contributing to his brother's "New England Courant."

At 17 Franklin was off on his own—without the family blessing—first to New York and then to Philadelphia. He entered Philadelphia as a hungry runaway, munching one loaf of bread while carrying two others under his arm; but he was to have a mighty influence on that city's history.

IN PRINTING BUSINESS

At 22, Franklin was in the printing business with a partner. The next year they were publishing the Pennsylvania Gazette. At 28, Franklin owned the paper outright.

Franklin was 24 when he married Deborah Read, who seven years earlier had laughed at the sight of him eating his loaf of bread on the street. Into the new home he brought a son, William, whose mother's name he never divulged.

Poor Richard's Almanack was launched when Franklin was 26. And the next year he began spare time studies through which he was to improve his Latin and master the reading of French, Italian, Spanish and German.

Turning inventor, he devised the Franklin stove, which brought the fireplace out of the chimney—with vast savings in fuel and increased heating comfort. Then came Franklin's famed kite experiment, which ended the ancient mystery of thunder and lightning, and the lightning rod.

HELPED COLONIES

Through the years and in a dozen fields, the inventions continued: bifocal glasses, a device for removing objects from high shelves, the "armonica" which made music from spinning glasses, a clock, a flexible catheter.

Franklin was 70 when he helped the Colonies prepare for the war of independence. He had steadfastly hoped for American destiny as free states within the British Empire, but he fought against parliamentary interference. He helped to speed repeal of the Stamp Act, and presented the First Continental Congress to the king.

A member of the Continental Congress, Franklin proposed the Articles of Confederation and Union, helped draw up and signed the Declaration of Independence.

With war upon the Colonies, Franklin went to Paris, seeking French assistance. Knowing full well what he was doing, he wore a fur cap among the powdered heads of Europe, and his humility added to his tremendous following.

'MY OWN MASTER'

With independence won for its nation, Franklin pleaded, at 78, "to be, for the little time I have left, my own master."

Pain ridden and in failing health, he nevertheless wrote of the first balloon ascension in Paris and foresaw an important future for aviation. At 79, traveling home, he wrote of the cause and prevention of smoky chimneys.

To the end of his life, Franklin continued writing on public topics. And during his years of public service, he never took payment for what he wrote, nor did he ever seek patents on his inventions.

Still cheerful and keen of mind, he came to his closing days surrounded by friends and family. Death was near when he wrote to Ezra Stiles, president of Yale University:

"Having experienced the goodness of that being in conducting me prosperously through a long life, I have no doubt of its continuance in the next, without the smallest conceit of meriting it."

SEARCH FOR MISSING GIRL — Jacqueline Smith, a 20-year-old New York fashion designer missing since Christmas Eve may have been thrown into the Hudson River after she died of stab wounds, police believe. Her body has not been found, however. Police were questioning Thomas G. Daniels, who they said told them Miss Smith stabbed herself when he refused to marry her, and that he threw her body into the river.

Play by Play Burglary Eases Police Capture

NOGALES, Ariz. (AP) — Police were well informed about a burglary committed by Gregorio Guerrero. As he was looking over the house, cutting a window screen and climbing in a window, a State Highway Department employe in an office nearby gave a running account to officers over the telephone.

Guerrero was arrested as he carried household items out the door. He got a year to 18 months.

Gals' Curves Help Them Outlive Men, Says Expert

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Take it from a student of curves, the way American women are put together gives them a longer life expectancy than men.

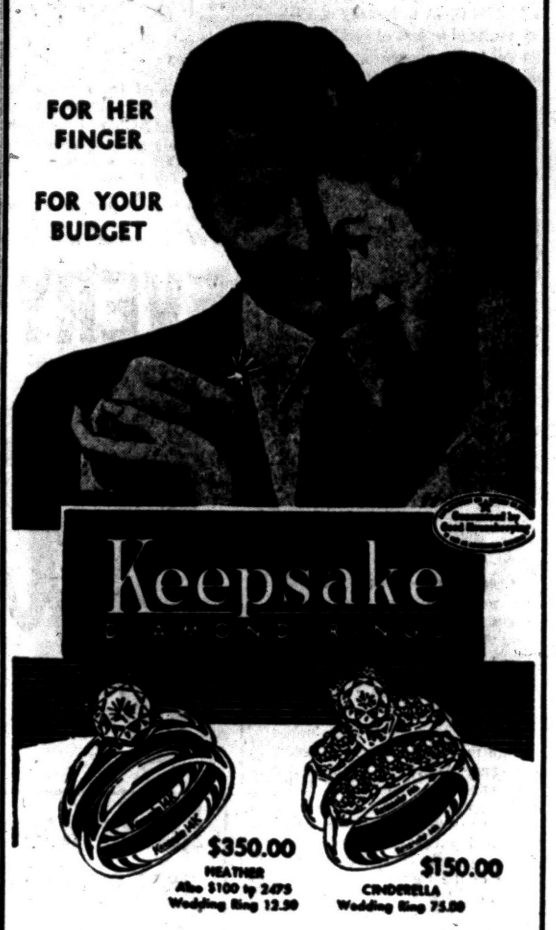

Louis I. Dublin, an actuary and longtime student of life expectancy curves, told an insurance group one reason for the longer lives of women is their basic bone structure and physiology.

Schedule Sylvan Hearing on Power Firm Contract

A public hearing will be held Feb. 8 in Sylvan Lake on the possible renewal of the city's contract with Consumers Power Co.

The 30-year-old agreement expires at the end of this year, City Manager Ernest L. Ethier said.

Other recent action taken by the city council was the enactment of an ordinance forbidding outdoor toilets in the city after Jan. 21, and the use of septic tanks after July 1.

A check will be made with the Michigan Inspection Bureau on the possible lowering of insurance rates on residential property pending acceptance by West Bloomfield Township of a necessary resolution.

The council was notified that application had been made Jan. 5 to the Municipal Finance Commission for permission to issue $50,000 worth of revenue bonds for completion of the city's new $275,000 water system.

Ethier also announced that 60 per cent of the county and school taxes had been paid in the amount of $51,583.05 as of Jan. 11.

A deadline of Jan. 20 has been set for payment of these taxes, after which a penalty of 4 per cent is tacked on.

The Coyote and the Bear

Today's story is an old Pueblo Indian legend that tells how the coyote and the bear once lived in harmony but now are enemies.

The coyote, a little brother of the wolf, can be colored grey and brown on top and white below. His tail has a black tip.

The bear is brown or black. The fish in the picture can be any color you desire. After coloring the picture, mount it on pasteboard for your animal collection.

As the legend goes, the coyote and the bear once planted potatoes. The shrewd bear said he would take the part of the crops that grew below ground. The coyote could have the part above. When the crop was ready the coyote had only vines.

The next season the pair agreed to plant corn. This time the coyote demanded to receive the part that grew underground. At harvest time again the coyote had nothing.

Then one day the coyote saw the bear carrying a big fish. When asked how he caught it, the bear said "just break the ice and hold your tail there until you get your fish." The poor coyote received nothing but a frozen tail and did not get loose until warm weather.

Ever since that time the coyote does not speak to the bear.

Wants Dime of $2.80 in Wages for Britain

LONDON—A plan for about 10 cents out of every pound ($2.80) of wages and salaries to be put into developing the Empire has been advanced in Britain. Robert Edwards, 49-year-old Socialist Member of Parliament, is the author of the plan.

As general secretary of the Chemical Workers' Union, he told the other members: "The future of full employment in Britain may well depend on development of the Commonwealth's tremendous untapped resources.

The 23,000,000 people employed here earn together nearly $25,000,000 in wages and salaries. A tiny percentage of this sum paid each week into a pool could launch great new projects." The union adopted his resolution by a big majority.

New Temple Enlarges Elk Activities

A $500,000 addition to their Orchard Lake Avenue Temple has provided increased facilities and enjoyment for 3,500 Pontiac Elks. The addition, only recently completed, was first used Oct. 24.

The addition, financed by a bond issue and treasury funds, comprises 12 bowling alleys, two cocktail lounger, a dining room and kitchen, check rooms and office space.

Ground-breaking ceremonies for the structure took place March 25.

A modern entrance and foyer runs the length of the addition's frontage on Orchard Lake Ave. It opens into a dining room which can seat 1,000, featuring disappearing partitions dividing the room into four sections.

The completely equipped kitchen is large enough to handle the dining room at capacity.

Adjacent to the dining room is a lounge bar, tropically decorated which seats 100.

In the basement are the 12 completely equipped bowling alleys, featuring semi-automatic pin setting, and a second cocktail lounge for bowlers.

The alleys, says Manager Ed Piloske, already are filled to capacity with league bowlers nearly every night. Open bowling for members and guests is scheduled Saturdays.

Assortment of Ailments Discovered in '55 Report

By WILMA GREENWAY

Names of singular strangeness—names so weird an apprehensive reporter might wonder if they were picked out of a witch's cauldron—obtrude themselves intermittently in a report of diseases treated at Oakland County Contagious Hospital during 1955. Some 838 persons were admitted for 35 types of illness, the report showed.

Lurking among the familiar chicken pox, mumps and measles and diarrhea are such formidable designations as infectious lymphocytosis, pyloric stenosis, mononucleosis, psoas abscess, empyema, gastro enteritis and pertussis.

A check of the medical dictionary gives further cause for alarm.

Mononucleosis, it states, is an excess of leukocytes in the blood. Lymphocytosis, on the other hand, is an excess of lymphocytes in the blood. Pyloric stenosis?—a spasm of the duodenum.

Fleeing the dictionary, your Press reporter took refuge in the prescence of Olivia Gladstone, medical secretary at the hospital. She was more reassuring.

Delving into her background of nurse's training, she came up with some down-to-earth, factual information.

"Pyloric stenosis — call it a stomach spasm," she said breezily. Lymphocytosis she disposed of with a flip "too many white corpuscles," and mononucleosis was reduced to a disease of the white blood cells.

Psoas abscess she pinpointed as an abscess of the leg muscle, empyema a chest infection, gastro enteritis a form of dysentery. Pertussis, 22 cases of it, turned out to be good old-fashhioned whooping cough.

But these diseases were in the minority. Tops on the list was diarrhea with 343 cases, followed by 73 cases of measles. Scarlet fever totaled 51; pneumonia, 41; chicken pox, 23; and mumps, 20.

Hepatitis — a jaundice-like disease, marked by inflamation of the liver, rare until recently, — had jumped to 48 cases.

Meningitis accounted for 15 admissions. There were nine cases of veneral diseases, 15 of polio, and 56 persons were hospitalized for observation of possible polio or other diseases.

Total patients admitted were 114 less than in the prevous year, according to James C. O'Connor, superintendent of the hospital.

No Israel-Arab War if-Says Ben-Gurion

JERUSALEM (AP) — Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion says there will be no war in the Middle East if Israel "can now be equipped well enough to counter attack the superiority of Egypt after the Czech arms deal."

But he adds that Israel would "pretty certainly" win any war with the Arabs if she can mobilize her total moral, economic and military strength.

Ben-Gurion's statement was made in a speech a week ago to trade union leaders in Tel Aviv. It was released here today.

No Fatalities Reported

Hen Tends Pups While Mother Hunts Rabbits

NASHVILLE (AP)—Being a rabbit dog, Belle likes to spend most of her time hunting rabbits.

She is the mother of four pups only three weeks old.

But the pups don't interfere with her rabbit hunting.

Belle has worked out an arrangement with a little Rhode Island red hen to serve as puppy-sitter.

So every day Belle roams the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Browne near this southern Michigan community, returning only at feeding time to nurse the pups.

While Belle is away, the little red hen spreads her wings over the pups as if they were a brood of chicks. The pups like it. The little red hen keeps them warm.

The little red hen started mothering the pups when they weren't much bigger than eggs. Now the pups are getting a bit large for the hen to mother and it's only a question of time when the little red hen will have to give up being a puppy-sitter.

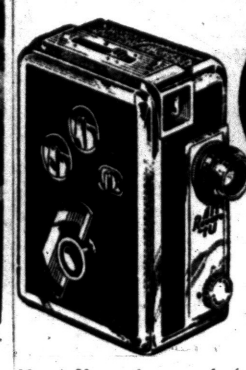

But that shouldn't cramp Belle's rabbit hunting. The pups soon should be able to fend for themselves.

Bob Considine Says:

Why Didn't Dulles Tell Us About Danger?

NEW YORK (INS)—That comparatively meager minority of the people of the United States who read Life magazine learned this week that they and the other 160,000,000 people nearly were in a full-sized war on three occasions in 1953 and 1954.

* * *

The enemy almost was Red China, according to exclusive word from Secretary of State John Foster Dulles to a Washington bureau Time-Life man, James Shepley.

It's a nice beat for Shepley, and more power to him. But why did the cat have Dulles' tongue at the time of the danger? Was he saving the information until he could reach Shepley some years later, at Republic 7-6050 in Washington? Was he saving it for his memoirs?

Wasn't it important for the people who would have to pay for such a war, one way and another, to be informed instantly of their danger and what they might expect?

* * *

In case anybody's interested now, war nearly came to us in June 1953, but it seems that Dulles told Nehru that if the Chinese Reds insisted on keeping the Korean truce negotiations in a stalemate we'd renew the war and bomb Manchuria with A-bombs—as MacArthur suggested some years before.

AGAIN IN APRIL '54

Then in April 1954 we asked Britain and France to join with us and friendly Asian nations to put down the war in Indochina. They said the British and Gallic equivalent of "nuts," but we sent two carriers to the South China Sea — with A-bombs aboard — and that saved Southern Viet Nam, Laos and Cambodia, Dulles says.

* * *

In the fall of 1954 the Red Chinese were making passes at Formosa. A congressional vote authorized the President to use U.S. military forces if the Chinese attacked.

But the clincher, according to the article now released, was not this so much as when Dulles told U Nu, the Burmese Prime Minister, that we "meant business."

"You have to take chances for peace . . ." Dulles says in his exclusive report.

* * *

Including, one must assume, the chances that the general public won't say, "Hey, Buster, we hire you to tell us when we might have to die. Stop saving yourself for the Junior Prom."

A BRAVE MAN

Deputy Ladislav Wait, Czechoslovak National Assembly, gets my vote as a brave man.

* * *

"The weak spot of our railroad transportation, especially passenger transportation, is the problem of cleanliness and hygiene," he told the Communist assembly. "I do not hesitate to say that we are lagging behind in this area.

"It is necessary to emphasize that aside from lateness most complaints concern the lack of cleanliness in our cars. This is a matter which could be overcome through good organization and care. I think that what is lacking on the part of our transportation offices is respect for man."

Nothing has been heard from Brother Walt since he sounded off last March 24. If he's alive, let him duck and come to a land where every man can tell a railroad president how to run his property.

Don't be so proud of your old cold. About 40,000,000 Americans —one in four—will have colds this month and next. Over a year's time 90 per cent catch at least one cold a year.

Two out of every three persons suffer an average of three colds per annum. Amounts up to $5,000,000,000 annually in lost wages, lost production and medical expenses.

The cause or causes of the common cold remain unknown, happily reports Grove Laboratories, maker of cold tablets. But there are strange facts in connection with same:

Rich people catch fewer colds than poor people. You can catch a cold from fear, excitement, shock, anger, sudden noise or a handshake — but seldom from a kiss.

Gesundheit!

Precious Deposits Found in New Mexico Mountain

PITTSBURGH (INS)—Discovery of a mountain of almost solid precious and valuable minerals in New Mexico has been reported by a Pennsylvania oil and gas well company.

The rich strike is located 47 miles southwest of Santa Fe, just five miles from the famed Oritz Mines—the fabulous Sierra Oro, or "Mountain of Gold."

First reports by the Onego Corporation of Uniontown, Pa., near Pittsburgh, claim the "mineral mountian" contains extensive deposits of gold, copper, silica, iron and silver.

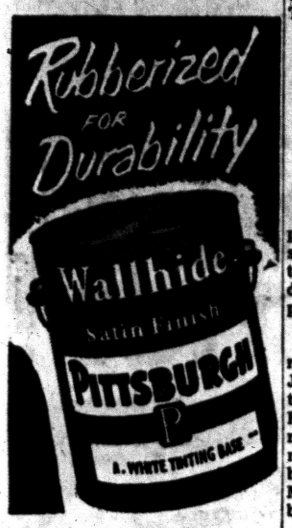

The find was made last October, at what is known as Orquay mountain. The Onego Corporation has established 40 claims over an 800-acre.

Edward James, Onego president, said that eventually the whole mountain will be honeycombed with gold mine shafts. Diggers at the present time are taking out between 30 and 35 tons of gold ore a day, which will be upped to about 200 tons daily by spring, with a minimum value of $100 a ton.

The gold, like the topping on an ice cream sundae, is said to be sitting upon one of the richest copper deposits yet located. The copper yield, with up to 70 per cent purity, is expected to outstrip the gold many times over.

Until it branched out into western mining about 18 months ago, Onego confined its chief activities to development of oil and gas fields in Pennsylvania and West Virginia.

James says that it is impossible at this time to estimate the ultimate value of the bonanza but added that Onego intends to develop the entire area.

BIGGEST OF THE BIG 3

-and mighty proud of it!

You certainly should look at the '56 Buick SPECIAL!

We've said it before, and we'll say it again:

If you can afford any new car, you can afford a Buick – and the sales figures make the proof of that stronger and stronger.

Just ask yourself: which cars would normally be in the top 3 of America's best sellers? The well-known smaller cars—naturally.

But which cars are in that Big 3? Two of the well-known smaller cars, and Buick—for over two years running now.

That means Buick prices are well within reach of more and more people—thanks primarily to the budget-tagged Buick Special, like the one pictured above.

And that's the whole point of the matter.

For this low-priced Buick Special—so close in cost to the smaller cars—is so much more automobile for the money, it's the stand-out buy of its field.

It's the biggest of the Big 3 in power thrill, in comfort, in size and breadth and luxury and sheer roadability.

It's the biggest of the Big 3 in the solidity and softness of its all-coil-spring ride—in the sweep of its styling—and in the pure thrill of its performance.

For where else but in Buick can you get the nimble getaway, the gas-saving mileage, the electrifying switch-pitch action and the absolute smoothness of the new Variable Pitch Dynaflow.*

Come in to see and drive the biggest bundle of high-powered beauty and energy ever offered in Buick's lowest-priced Series.

It's proud we certainly are to be able to offer so much car for the money – but nothing to how proud you'll be when you boss a new Special. Can you come in tomorrow?

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflow is the only Dynaflow Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

Showman Cassini Stages Lively Fashion Review

Much shorter in front—a spring 1956 Ben Reig cocktail dress of imported navy tissue taffeta. The intricately shaped skirt is cluster-pleated, and the bodice is detailed to match within an embroidered border of raffia and brilliants.

Anthony Blotta's contoured jacket suit of beige wool and silk is designed for spring 1956. Low wedged-in sleeves effect a smoothed-across shoulderline. The collar is inlaid with matching color velvet.

Slim Silhouette Starred

Emphasizes Youthful Sophistication

By JUDITH CLEMENCE

NEW YORK—The Oleg Cassini show got off to a rollicking start yesterday when one of the fashion editors attending the 26th annual Press Week here in New York asked Mr. Cassini if it were true that Grace Kelly had given away her entire wardrobe last year in order that this designer could create a complete new line for her.

* * *

Always quick at retorting, this well-known designer said that not only was this true, but that Miss Kelly had given up all other escorts at that time too.

But, "that was a year ago," Cassini wailed. (If there's anyone who didn't know, the film beauty and Cassini were reputed to be ready for the altar a few months ago.)

You are torn when previewing a Cassini show. You want to see every item of his exquisite collection, but you don't dare miss a bit of this showman's ad libbing.

For instance, when showing a beautiful sheath of chantilly lace, he quipped, "Don't buy it, it goes to pieces everytime you put it on." Another time he remarked, "This happens to be a dress."

NAMES FOR ALL

Every dress is named like "The Tender Trap," "Slippery When Wet" and "Rock and Roll." (At this point Cassini does a little dance, and later waltzes with one of the models.) There's certainly room for him in the entertainment world should he ever fail to sell dresses.

Aside from amusing the editors who are here by invitation of the Couture Group of the New York Dress Institute, Cassini shows a collection that is keynoted by youthful sophistication.

Here again the silhouette is slim, and belts and waistlines are sparse. Every line is graceful and fabrics are mixed and blended to give a luxurious look to every garment.

Cassini's trademark, "the little knit," again plays an important role in his spring collection. They are not the casual knits, they are strictly urbane.

* * *

He favors the costume for all around the clock. For afternoon it is the slim wool dress topped by an empire jacket. For late day he chooses silk peau de soie, Italian mohair or barathea.

EMPIRE LOOK

Brief boleros top slim or panel-pleated dresses.

Never departing from the empire look, Cassini raises waistlines to meet bodices, which often are of re-embroidered lace.

* * *

No fashion preview ever is complete without a glimpse of the Christian Dior collection. Every fashion editor knows when she enters his swank salon on Fifth avenue that something in the way of perfection is to be seen.

And this year's fashions are as elegant as we had expected.

Dior calls his silhouette the "Lily." Shoulders are broader and are highlighted by unusual details, collars and sleeves. Sleeves are fitted into the bodice almost like a yoke.

Camisoles replace blouses for suits, and skirts are slim, pleated or have roll-back panel pleats.

* * *

Open necks, portrait, stand-away or scooped are to be worn on the street this year, Mr. Dior declares, and he has done many daytime dresses and ensembles with this in mind.

Fabrics used in this grouping were tweeds, chiffon worsteds, basketweave novelties, linen and shantung, faille, tissue taffeta, satin organza, chiffon and embroidered eyelet.

NEW SKIRT LINE

Maurice Rentner's new skirt line widens from a very narrow hip. There is as much attention placed on the back of each dress in this collection as on the front.

* * *

Light, flowery gowns dominate, and sheath dresses with peacock ttains are newsworthy. The train actually lengthens and spreads much as a peacock walks and preens.

News in the Anthony Blotta line is the 4-inch circlet banded hem. It narrows the slim skirt, giving the appearance of tightness at the hemline. Actually this is more of an illusion. The band closes with a rhinestone button or a matching button.

Also news is the chaperon, a little cashmere wrap for many of the costumes. The sleeves in this wrap are not for use—they tie at the neck instead.

This evening we will be the guests of the Jewelry Industry Council when we will attend Offenbach's "Tales of Hoffman" at the Metropolitan Opera.

Travel Calls to Birmingham Folks

BIRMINGHAM — Conventions, sightseeing and skiing are among goals of Birmingham travelers this week. Among the travelers are the Charles Granaders of Beverly Hills, who are packing for a three-week flying trip abroad.

Leaving Sunday for New York, they'll be seeing Rome, Paris, Zurich, Monte Carlo, the Isle of Capri and London. It's their first trip to Europe, and they'll be crowding in every point of interest in all those foreign places.

* * *

The Jack Emmetts returned Sunday from Otsego Ski Club where they spent two weeks. Of their youngsters, Johnny, Carolyn and David, David showed most improvement in skiing know-how—he's only 5 and this was his first year on skis.

The Emmetts and a goodly crowd of enthusiasts are looking toward Jan. 28 for another ski trip.

MOTHERS GATHER

Mothers, who will march on Jan. 26 in Birmingham and later than that in Bloomfield Hills and Bloomfield Township, met at a kick-off dinner given by John Taylor at the Community House Wednesday night.

Toastmistress was Mrs. Howard Rieman, who is Oakand County chairman of fund-raising for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Birmingham's porch lights are to go on for the 7 to 8 p.m. march in neighborhoods on the 26th, but Mrs. Francis C. Gallaudet has christened her drive for funds in the township and Hills the "country mothers' march."

Because of unpaved streets and spread-out neighborhoods, mothers will contact residents in daylight sometime before the 26th.

Speakers at the dinner included Dr. Robert Mason, Mrs. John Erichson and Mrs. Ruth Weber Parshall, officials in the drive.

Models for the Birmingham Country Club's fashion show at the club on Jan. 25 will be Mrs. Leonard Jarosz, Mrs. Paul Thoriakson, Mrs. George Jaaksi, Mrs. Drew C. Hainline, Mrs. Charles J. Casey and Mrs. Neil M. Marshall.

Enliven Old Dress

Pretty braid and trimming, a stiff petticoat, a new belt and a little use of the scissors and needle can disguise an old dress completely. The standard pattern for the peasant drawstring blouse can be amended to add long sleeves for a very formal evening blouse.

Comic Gives Formula for Ignoring January

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS) — January — sometimes referred to as hangover or slump month — is really an excellent time for all sorts of activities. Like cold-catching, ice-skidding, nerve-snapping and hold-ing hate parties for people who are going to Florida.

As a Gregorian fixture, January could be classed alongside April 15th, the July dog days, and the autumnal hurricane season.

It is a menace and should, if possible, be deleted from the year.

"Ah, come on now," said Jackie Gleason, rotund philosopher and Saturday night sadist, "there's a way to enjoy January, you know.

"All you do is make a lot of resolutions. And then sit down and enjoy your piety till you go nuts."

Jackie was not speaking from personal experience. He is the kind of guy who does not make New Year's resolutions because his conscience cannot stand any more shocks.

NO FUTURE IN IT

"You make 'em,' he says, "then you suffer physically till you break 'em. At which point you suffer mentally.

"There's no future in it."

Gleason was seated in his mammoth New York office, animatedly admiring the lather on a beer, and he pointed out, "What do people resolve anyway? They decide to give up drinking, eating and carousing — all good resolutions that make you miserable.

"They stick to it maybe a few minutes, maybe a few weeks, but then they always get bored or miserable and go off 'em.

"I want to say this one thing: People who can stick to resolutions don't have to make 'em!"

Jackie has a few ideas on how to ignore January altogether, thus making it a less odious month than ordinarily it would turn out to be.

ACTOR'S APPROACH

"First of all, you take the actor's approach to things and get yourself in a position where you have to work on Christmas and New Year's," he says.

"Now, if your have to work on Christmas and New Year's, they don't seem like holidays to you and so there's no letdown following them."

"Then, you resolve to be no better than usual in the first month of the year. This gives you a sort of dull, rutted approach to the month and you can sort of drift through it as if it weren't there at all.

"And naturally there is always this 'out' — you can go to a hospital. Anything wrong with you, you get it taken care of in January, thus killing two birds.

* * *

"There's no point going into a hospital in April, when things are pretty fair outside." (Jackie enters the hospital any day for a minor operation — "something about a cyst removal.")

WORST REMEDY

But the worst remedy of all, as previously stated, is the January resolution.

"Making resolutions mean that you are pointing out to yourself your misdeeds, your mistakes. You are leveling with yourself for five minutes or so.

"Add that to the cold and the colds, and you are suffering unnecessary torture.

"January's not the greatest — but you don't have to provide yourself with problems and make it the worst!"

Add Interest to Fruit Pie With Spice

Sylvanite Cook Puts Touch of Cinnamon in Cherry Mixture

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

We saw pie cherries on sale just recently in our favorite store. Since cherry pie is a welcome dessert any time, we thought you would be ready for a new recipe. We got this one from Mrs. V. A. Lochmandy.

Mrs. Lochmandy has two young daughters for whom she loves to sew. She is also interested in interior decorating. But her leisure hours are devoted to gardening and house plants whenever possible. She has the gardener's green thumb.

Socially, Mrs. Lochmandy belongs to a small neighborhood club and to the New Sylvanites.

CINNAMON CHERRY PIE

By Mrs. V. A. Lochmandy

1 can (number 2) tart red cherries, drained
¾ to 1 cup sugar
4 tablespoons flour
½ teaspoon cinnamon

Mix cherry juice with rest of ingredients in a sauce pan. Add cherries and cook until mixture thickens. Pour into an unbaked pie shell. Cover with a top crust and bake 30-40 minutes in a 425 degree oven.

Interruption of Member Is Criticized

Chairman Feared There Wouldn't Be Time for Speaker

By EMILY POST

A reader writes: "Will you kindly give me your opinion on the following incident which took place at our PTA meeting the other evening. One of the political organizations here in town has graciously consented to let us hold our meetings in their clubrooms, but we must be out by a quarter of 11.

"This particular meeting was scheduled for 9 o'clock but did not get under way until 9:30. I am program chairman and had invited a guest speaker for the evening.

"During the business course of the evening one of the members got up and talked for almost half an hour on a certain proposal. Knowing how limited our time was and seeing our guest speaker growing impatient, I got up and said to this member that I was sorry to interrupt him but our guest speaker was waiting and would he please be brief.

"He immediately stormed off the platform without saying another word. I have been severely criticized by several members for my behavior and I would like to know if I was justified in doing what I did."

Answer: If the speaker was a prominent person and people had come to hear him, you were perfectly right to interrupt the member, but you should have done it very quietly by explaining that the time was running short and reminding him that you all had to be out of the rooms by a quarter of 11.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Is it proper when having a deckled edge commencement announcement to use a plain edge envelope with it? Our graduating class would like this information."

Answer: A plain envelope of the same quality and color of the announcement is correct.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Will you please tell me the correct way to eat a Napoleon?"

Answer: The "trick" is to turn the tines of the fork downward as you cut through the layers of the pastry.

Hal Boyle Says:

Girls, Don't Miss the Men's Bargain Sales

NEW YORK (AP)—Ladies, if you want a real belly laugh, I know how you can get it.

Men's clothing stores across the country now are featuring their semi-annual sales. Go to a few. They hold more real comedy than any show in town.

You don't have to buy anything. Just stand around and watch.

For generations the conduct of women at department store sales has been a stock joke in America. They are supposed to be as unreasoning as a herd of cattle in stampede.

But today the shoe is on the other foot. If the woman bargain hunter is a scream, the male bargain hunter is an absolute panic.

"Frankly, men act much crazier than women during a big sale," an elderly salesman said. "They are never at the game and don't know the rules. A lot of them would be ashamed to have their psychiatrists see the way they behave."

SAFE DISTANCE

Any woman who takes up watching men's clothing sales as a spectator sport should keep a safe distance away. A tug-of-war for a prized shirt between two maddened bucks can be physically dangerous to any bystander, however innocent.

* * *

The male bargain hunter breaks down into several common types, and here are a few:

1. The pirate raider — He is ruled by the philosophy that "whatever Lola wants, Lola gets." He waits until another customer picks out a good-looking necktie, then grabs it from his hand, throws down his cash and races for the elevator.

2. The lost soul — He never bought anything before in his life without the advice and consent of his mother, his father, his wife or his lawyer. He stands alone, his eyes crying help, while the big bullies shove him out of the way.

He ends up buying an overcoat the color of a mildewed fried egg (two sizes too large for him) and goes out the door murmuring to himself, "But all I wanted was a pair of knitted gloves."

3. The wandering destroyer—He paws through and wrecks eight shelves of shirts, paws a dozen neckties off the rack and onto the floor, paws half a dozen sport coats on and off. Then, without purchasing anything, he wades out of the wreckage waving a merry paw in goodby. He enjoys himself more than anybody.

4. The cautious investor — He begins by fingering the $200 cashmere polo coats marked down to $149.50. He wants to know the name of the manufacturer and whether the manufacturer is happily married. He wants to know what country the cloth came from and the condition of its economy.

He finally offers $99.50 for the coat, and when that offer is refused buys a four-bit handkerchief and leaves, blowing his nose in indignation.

5. The lord of the manor—This crisp fellow snaps his fingers imperiously at the salesman, demands the best of service—and for some reason gets it.

Awed members of the herd stand aside as he tries on half a dozen suits, loudly criticizing the cut, color and cloth of each. He winds up by taking a 95-cent pair of socks and walks out with the lordly air of a man who has just bought a yacht.

CHEERFUL MADMAN

6. The gay spendthrift — This cheerful madman seems to be the salesman's best friend, but actually is his worst enemy. He likes anything and everything he sees.

He selects a dozen shirts, three suits, two sport jackets, a couple of topcoats, and several pairs of shoes. The bill doesn't worry him. Why should it? Next Monday his wife will send every single thing back to the store.

Girls, don't miss the chance to see the American male at a men's bargain sale. It's your best bargain in entertainment.

All it will cost you is the price of the zipper on your girdle. You'll bust it laughing.

He Can Pick Hot Spots in New Texas Bank

ABILENE, TEX. (AP) — James Vanderveer, building engineer in Abilene's new Citizens National Bank, can tell the temperature at any of 13 points in the bank from his office.

By pressing a switch on an electrically-operated thermometer he can find out the outside temperature, the temperatures in the president's office, the board room, the lobby, and other rooms as well as in various ducts and pipes which carry hot and cold air and water.

Indian Priests Form Union to Better Work Conditions

NEW DELHI (AP) — In the Jain temples in Ahmedabad priests numbering about 100, have formed a union to fight for higher wages and improved working conditions.

Contending they are employes of an industry, the priests have asked the Bombay state government to bring them under the minimum wages act and allow them to take their cases before a state industrial tribunal.

The government boards of the temples have rejected the priests' demands.

Upon inheriting Little Creek plantation, Lawrence Washington renamed the place Mount Vernon, after the English admiral of that name under whom he had served.

PHS Spotlight on Basketball, Prom

By VICKY MICU

Senior prom time, basketball, club elections, initiations and a general windup of this semester's activities before final exam time provide news highlights at Pontiac High School this week.

Tomorrow night, the January graduating class will hold its "Parisian Rendezvous," theme of the senior prom this semester. Co-chairman Kay Chimloski and Art Scott, along with faculty advisor Elma Waterman and committees, have been working to make the dance a success.

The mood of Paris will prevail at the formal affair, to be held in the high school gym from 9 to 12 p.m. Jim Kenney and his band will provide the music.

Flint Northern will be invaded by the chiefs from Pontiac tonight. At the game, the PHS cheerleaders will show off their new orange and black skirts as the PHS basketball five encounters another SVC foe.

DEBATES AT FLINT

Flint Central played host to the Pontiac debaters yesterday, along with the other Saginaw Valley Conference debate squads. This was the final debate tournament before the state semi-finals and finals.

Pontiac High finished third among six teams, winning 27 out of 48 debates. Flint Northern was first with 32 wins; Flint Central second with 28. Trailing Pontiac were Bay City, 25 wins; Arthur Hill, 21; and Saginaw, 11.

Some students have objected to the judging system, which they feel puts Pontiac at a disadvantage, Each debate is judged by a single high school teacher. Since Pontiac has only one high school, the cities of Flint and Saginaw each have double the number of judges.

There is a feeling that in close decisions teachers might be prejudiced in favor of their own city schools, and that the debates should be judged by impartial college instructors or outside judges.

Initiation of new members and election of officers for the forthcoming semester was the chief order of business for many clubs and organizations this week.

* * *

The Ottawa Chapter of the Quill and Scroll Society, an international journalism honor society, met to elect officers and make plans for an informal tea. Vicky Micu was chosen president of the chapter, and Nancy Nicholson, vice president. Secretary is Dale Hannan, and treasurer is James Cornforth.

The group will formally initiate new members at a tea next Wednesday in the school cafeteria, and at this time new officers will be installed.

Next Wednesday the Playcrafters will hold their annual Parents' Reception in the PHS auditorium. At this time three one-act plays will be given by senior playcrafters —"Don't Feed the Animals," "Pink and Patches," and "Submerged."

INITIATE THESPIANS

A number of Playcrafters were welcomed into Thespians, national honor society, at a formal initiation Wednesday.

Those initiated were Donna Chilvers, Harold Cummings, Doris Enbody, Judy Lauckner, Deanna Dovre, Don North, Helen Prizant, Rosalie Richards, Bob Skinner, Bob Keavy, Sally Maier, Fred Roeser, Barbara Berg, Carl Venner and Sonja Ryan.

Sidelights of the news: Senior As and sophomore Bs viewed the National Honor Assembly Wednesday . . . Seniors this week paid rental fees for caps and gowns, which they will receive next week . . . PHS home economics girls are planning entries for Oakland County preliminaries of the Michigan Cherry Pie Baking Contest, to be held at Waterford High Jan. 21.

PTA MOVIE SET

Pontiac High students as well as parents have been invited to attend a movie and panel talk at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, sponsored by the school's Parent-Teachers Association.

The film, entitled "The High Wall," concerns a boy and the problems which prejudice creates in his life. The panel discussion which follows will be conducted by Dr. M. Soebel of the Anti-defamation League of Detroit.

PUSH PROM DECORATIONS — Pontiac High students working overtime to complete decorations for the senior prom are, left to right, Carolyn Hawn, Art Scott, Richard Neaves and Kay Chimilosld. The prom, "Parisian Rendezvous," will be held from 9 p. m. to midnight tomorrow in the girls' gymnasium.

St. Fred's Back to Class Routine

Students Boning Up on Semester's Work as Exams Near

By ANN SCHACHERN

Regular classes for the New year got under way at St. Frederick High School Monday, after having been discontinued last week for the annual retreat. With semester finals looking SFHS students right in the eye, it didn't take long to get down to business.

Underclassmen couldn't figure out what was coming off Tuesday and Wednesday when they saw the seniors dressed in their Sunday best. Seniors had their graduation pictures taken, and were very much reminded that June isn't far off.

Other flashbulbs could be seen all the rest of the week. Investigation proved it was yearbook photographers Jim Duren and Tom Lufkin who have been taking the pictures of our classes.

Aron Koenig launched the "patron drive" for the Ramrod last Monday. Each student is hoping to sell one patron, to insure a successful campaign. Student Council representatives are helping Aaron to collect the money which will be used to help finance the yearbook.

St. Frederick High is proud of its victorious girls basketball team which last Sunday beat St. James of Ferndale, 39-14.

The boys baksetball team had an off-night Tuesday. The cagers lost to St. Mary's of Mt. Clemens, 76-50. Last night the team played St. Benedict's on the home field. St. Benedict won, 46-35.

St. Michael 'Sweater Swing' Set Tonight With Proceeds to Benefit Athletic Assn.

By JANET ENGLISH

First and foremost on the agenda of extracurricular activities at St. Michael High this week is the Sweater Swing, behing held tonight from 8:30 to 11:30 in the hall.

This annual event is sponsored by the junior class for the benefit of the athletic association. If the number of tickets that have been passing through the hands of these busy juniors (at 75 cents stag and $1.25 drag) is any indication, this dance is sure to be a huge success.

Sessions of "watching the birdie" were the most important pursuits on the crowded schedules of the "elite" class—the seniors. Group pictures for the Senior Play Book were taken Tuesday morning.

Important decisions were bravely met and conquered—such as whether left or right profiles produced the more favorable results . . . whether light or dark colors photograph best . . . which accessories would be most striking . . . if a Mr. B. or an Italian collar would look more distinguished.

CRUSADERS FOR TRUTH

A school group that works hard all year is the Catholic Students Mission Crusade. The CSMS this semester has held several assemblies to promote the work of missions, sponsored a puzzles contest and collected funds for gifts and school supplies which it sent to the mission fields.

CSMC has its own banner, a blue and white flag quartered with red and white stripe to form a cross in the manner of the old crusaders' standards. In the center is an open book, symbolizing that the primary purpose of the Crusade is educational, with a Latin inscription meaning "You Shall know the truth.

The motto, from the Gospel according to St. John, was chosen because the purpose of CSMC members is to bring the truths of Christianity to all nations.

The St. Michael Girls varsity basketball team, after a series of meetings, has chosen senior Rosemary Haak and sophomore Joyce Dropps as co-captains of the team. All that is left now is for the team to come out on top. Think you can do it, girls?

St. Michael Boys varsity cagers chalked up a big win over St. Rita's last night, with a score of 69-35.

Sophomore modern history students are dolefully attempting to grasp the political and labor disputes of England during the Victorian Era, while at the same time the members of the senior American history classes are concentrating on the developments and progress of labor here in the United States.

Avondale Moves to New School

Junior Highs Keep 'on the Go' Despite Looming Exams

If end-of-the-semester exams held terror for junior high students in the Pontiac area, they didn't show it this week. Plenty of activities were still scheduled despite the approaching tests, and one school had the courage to take on a mass moving job to its new building.

AT AVONDALE

Avondale Junior High School moved into the new school at 2900 Washington St. in Auburn Heights last weekend, but the students don't expect to be settled until after the new semester begins, Jan. 23.

Now that the 390 students have finished exercising their muscles lugging all those books, supplies and equipment, they'll have to start exercising their brains. Final exams start next week.

The new school looks great, though, after being in temporary buildings and crowded classrooms at Auburn Heights elementary building, students say. A complete new schedule will be worked out as soon as the new semester starts, according to Principal Lawrence Scharer.

In addition to the junior high, 62 kindergarten children are having classes in the new building. The school includes 15 classrooms, a large gym, a library, a cafeteria which is already in operation, offices and other facilities. Only seventh and eighth grades are housed there — ninth graders go to the high school.

AT WEVER

The mammoth operation of moving to a new school still lies ahead for Wever Junior High students. They'll finish the semester where they are and move into their new building at Perry and Madison Sts. the first week of February.

Anticipation regarding two scheduled basketball games ran high this week, but one of the games scheduled for Thursday was postponed until next Tuesday. That is the "special event" of the semester — a game between the Girls Athletic Association and the women members of the faculty.

Last year the faculty beat the GAA and now the girls are really out for blood. The game is sponsored by the GAA, and a 25-cent admission will be charged.

The other important game was yesterday's game with Eastern Junior High.

Eastern beat Wever 56-18 in the varsity game; in the junior varsity, Eastern won by only 5 points, 42-37.

AT EASTERN

In addition to talk of scores and play in the basketball game with Wever yesterday, Eastern Junior High students had their minds on both elections and semester's end.

Final balloting in the election for president and vice president of the Student Council was held today, and everyone is anxious to know the results. The candidates made their campaign speeches Tuesday.

The 9As are filled with excitement as the semester draws to a close. Soon they will be in high school. Last minute reports, class work and preparations for their farewell program are keeping them busy.

AT WASHINGTON

Washington Junior High is in for some hearty laughs Monday morning when the Pioneer Players stage "While the Toast Burned" at an 8:45 a.m. assembly.

The action centers around the breakfast table. Herbert Canby, played by Mike Godwin, explodes when he finds his daughter (Diane Garrett) reading a love letter. All turns out well in the surprise ending, but not before Warren Norlund as the son, Sandy Ferguson as the mother and Lynn Anderson as grandmother Canby get involved in the complicated situation. Idelia Webb and Kay Justin are faculty advisers for the players.

All of Washington's homerooms have been helping Room 214 collect money, food and clothing for the John B. Draper family. Their house was destroyed by fire during the Christmas vacation and 10 children in the family were left homeless. More than $65 has been collected in addition to clothing.

John McHugh's Code Club members have been learning to send messages and are practising on code.

Next Wednesday an Athletic Awards Assembly will be held. Friday the honor students will receive awards in another special assembly.

Washington beat Jefferson 55-32 in yesterday's basketball game.

AT LINCOLN

Thursday and Friday Assemblies at Lincoln Junior High School were highlighted by a spirited spell-down by the seventh and eighth graders. Winners were presented with editions of Webster's Dictionaries.

The winners on Thursday were Judy Whitlock, first place, and Jeanette North, second. Friday Sylvia Mead won first place, with Ruth Bell second.

"WHILE THE TOAST BURNED" — A lot can happen while the toast burns, as Washington Junior High's Pioneer Players will show when they stage their one-act comedy in a morning assembly Monday. Here, rehearsing a scene, is Diane Garrett as the daughter reading the morning mail, and Sandy Ferguson who has the part of the mother. The play derives its humor from a family-situation plot in which father "blows his top" over a supposed love letter to his young daughter.

Music, Sports Spark Week at Waterford

By JEAN LIIMATTA

Music and sports highlighted activities at Waterford Township High School this week.

Next Thursday and Saturday at 8 p.m. the Juniors will present "Showboat TV" in the school auditorium. Dress rehearsal will be held Monday evening for the entire cast. Director is Patty Looman.

Waterford's band is in full swing rehearsing for its annual concert. Under the direction of Bruce Orr, the "blue and gold" musicians will present the concert on Feb. 1.

The Skippers traveled to Avondale Tuesday evening, defeating the Yellow Jackets by one point (72-73). Tonight Waterford meets Farmington at home. Student Council has planned a dance after the game.

Beth Rose, a Waterford High School junior and Michigan's Cherry Pie Queen for 1955, will give a speech at the Oakland County cherry pie baking contest to be held again at Waterford High Jan. 21. Beth, who placed second in the nation last year, will not compete ip this year's contest.

Vocal groups are working overtime preparing the operetta, "Pirates of Penzance." With double casting, some of the major roles are played by John Bersche and Tom Smith as Frederick; Carl Hillman and Dolores Kline, Mabel; Ken Young and Larry Peck, Major General Stanley; and Jack Nelson and Dan Revoir, the pirate king.

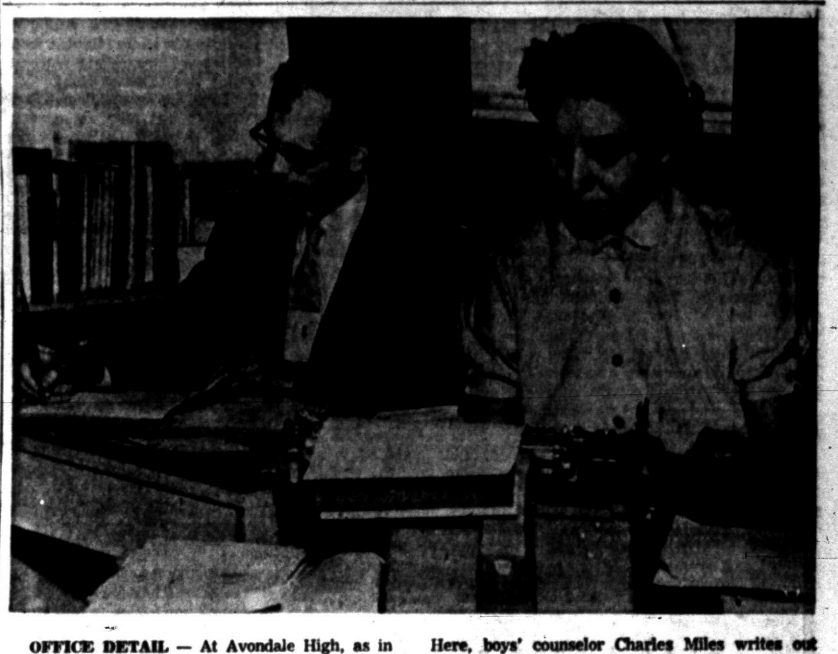

The March of Dimes Dance of Waterford has been planned by the Student Council for Jan. 25. Bob Maxwell, Detroit disc jockey, will be featured at this benefit affair. Students attending will be asked to contribute 40c if stag and 60c if accompanied by a friend.

Senior chairmen of the 1956 prom have begun planning the school's only formal dance of the year. Nancy Johnson heads the decorations committee; Larry Sampson, entertainment; John Woodman, tickets; Maureen Clark, invitations; Eleanor Passage, programs and favors; and Sylvia Clarke, refreshments. The dance is scheduled for May 12.

Study of Michigan

The senior history classes of St. Frederick High School have begun the study of our home state.

The city by city study of Michigan was started last Monday.

OFFICE DETAIL — At Avondale High, as in other schools, desk work keeps piling up, but this is one place where the student secretary can do a big job of keeping the wheels turning smoothly. Here, boys' counselor Charles Miles writes out special reports while student secretary Pat Hiller handles the typing detail with speed and dispatch.

News of Area Schools

'Hot Arguments' Heard

Arguments flew fast and furiously at area high schools this week, as debaters met in tournaments or separate competitions.

With competition at white heat, Walled Lake, Farmington and Southfield High Schools failed to break a three-way tie for the first place at the Inter-Lakes League debate tournament, held at Lincoln High in Van Dyke Monday.

Walled Lake's affirmative debaters defeated Southfield, and the negative lost to Waterford. Since Farmington also split, the tie continued.

Students of all three schools are on tenterhooks to see what will happen at the final tournament, scheduled Monday afternoon at Southfield. A banquet will follow the meet.

TALENT SHOW SLATED

The annual talent show will take place Wednesday at Walled Lake High, sponsored by the Student Council. Vocalists, instrumental groups, soloists and a pantomime will provide entertainment.

Theme of the program will be that of a TV show. The committee in charge is made up of Robin Perry, Barb Baker, Oliver Rose and Mrs. Ronald Lamontagne.

Walled Lake students reacted in various ways when they learned that semester exams are compulsory. The exams, which count for one-fourth of final grades, will be written Jan. 24 and 25. All senior high students will be excused from school the following two days.

Avondale High School's debaters traveled to Bloomfield Hills High Wednesday. Because of the illness of one of the affirmative debaters, only the negative team could debate. Bloomfield Hills won the match. However, the Avondale debaters still have one match scheduled and a chance to recoup.

The basketball team travels to Lake Orion tonight and then on to Clawson next Tuesday as the Oakland-B competition steps up. Avondale's girl cagers are at Harper Woods this afternoon.

Eye on Commissioners

Delegations of students from Donovan Gilmore's Community Problems class at Washington Junior High have been sitting in on City Commission meetings. Two to five volunteers attend each session, then report back to their class.

Plan Cherry Pie Contest

It's easy as pie?

Girls who say that and mean it might find it pays big dividends to enter the Oakland County preliminaries of the Michigan Cherry Pie Baking Contest.

The contest, open to any unmarried girl between ages 14 and 21, will be held at 9:30 a.m. Saturday, Jan. 21, at Waterford Township High School, M59 and Crescent Lake Rd. Registrations to enter, however, should be in before next Wednesday.

Winner of the county contest can go on to try for the state queen title, and from there to the nationals. Speaker will be Beth Rose, Waterford Township High student who won the state contest and placed second in the nationals last year. Beth will not compete for this year's title.

* * *

Entry registrations require that two typewritten, signed copies of the recipe to be used be turned in, along with the name of the contestant. These may be turned in to home economics teachers or directly to Mrs. Frieda Bennett, county home demonstration agent, at 1260 West Boulevard, Pontiac.

First prize in the Waterford contest will be an all-expense trip for the winner and her chaperone to Grand Rapids Feb. 9 and 10. There winners from the various counties will bake for the coveted Michigan Cherry Pie Queen title and the all-expense trip to the national finals at Chicago, Feb. 21.

A second and third prize also will be awarded in the Waterford contest, to be announced later. State prizes in addition to the trip are $150, $50 and $25 to apply on scholarships.

Contestants are required to bake one 8½ or 9 inch pie, 1¼ inches in depth, with a lattice top crust. Commerically canned cherries will be furnished by the Michigan Cherry Producers Association. All other supplies and baking utilities must be provided by the contestant.

The contest is sponsored by the Michigan Canners Assn., Michigan Cherry Producers Assn. and the Michigan Cherry Commission.

Case of Missing Girl, 20, Solved

Charge 2 Gotham Men With Fatal Operation; Admit Disecting Body

NEW YORK (AP)—Police say the mystery of missing Jacqueline Smith has been solved with the arrest of two men on charges of homicide. But authorities must now go through the gruesome process of finding the 20-year-old girl's body.

Held without bail yesterday for hearing next Thursday were Thomas G. Daniel, 24, the pretty blonde's boy friend, and Leo Pijuan, 46, accused of performing a fatal abortion. Both assertedly admitted they dissected the girl's body and dumped the dismembered parts in trash containers.

The case broke wide open with the questioning of a young Mexican doctor, Ramiro Morales, who said he was called in during the course of the alleged abortion in Daniel's Manhattan apartment, pronounced the girl dead and left.

Police said Morales, only recently arrived in this country, did not know it was the law to report the death himself.

Morales technically was placed under $25,000 bond last night and released to custody of police so long as he cooperated in the investigation.

Miss Smith came here from Lebanon, Pa., about a year ago with ambitions of becoming a fashion designer. She met Daniel last June and dated him steadily. She was never seen again after a Christmas Eve rendezvous in Daniel's apartment.

VIENNA CHOIR BOYS — These world-famous choir boys who have appeared in "Cinerama" and "Omnibus" will perform in the civic music series Monday, at Isaac E. Crary Junior High School, Waterford Township. Curtain time is 8:15 p. m.

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP—The twelfth group of Vienna Choir Boys to be presented in the U. S. and Canada will appear in concert at the Isaac E. Crary Junior High School, Monday, at 8:15 p.m. The choir is here under the auspices of Impresario S. Hurok and is being featured by the Waterford Township Civic Music Assn.

World-famous since its founding in 1458, the choir has become known to a wider audience than ever during the past two seasons with appearances in "Cinerama" on the Ford Foundation's "Omnibus," NBC - TV, Metropolitan Opera's gala performances of "Fledermaus" and numerous recordings.

Bond Refused Ann Arbor Dad

Charged in Pistol Killing of Wife, 2 Girls; Mental Test Results Held Off

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Charged with first degree murder in the pistol slayings of his 35-year-old wife and their two small children, 28-year-old Harold A. Johnson was held without bond today for Circuit Court trial.

Johnson waived examination in Ann Arbor Municipal Court yesterday

Authorities still have not uncovered a motive for the slayings Monday night of Johnson's wife, Marjorie, and their daughters, Barbara, 3, and Margaret, 1.

Prosecutor Edmond Devine has had a psychiatrist examine Johnson, but has refused to disclose his findings.

Devine, however, told newsmen that a statement by Johnson indicated that the first of a series of shots was accidental and that it struck his wife. After that, Devine said Johnson told him he shot five or six more times.

Johnson, unemployed at the time and a former radio-television repairmen, had claimed, Devine said, to be a physician and a physicist and to be an employe of the national research council. The council said he never had been an employe.

Minority Party Leader to Speak to Democrats

Ed Carey, minority party leader of the Michigan House of Representatives, will be the keynote speaker at a Democratic rally sponsored by the Orion Township Democratic organization Saturday evening, at 8 at the Orion Township Hall on South Broadway (M-24).

Topic of Carey's speech will be "Legislation to Assist Retarded Children," and he is expected to tell the ins and outs of the recent hot battle in Lansing between the governor and the Republican majority in the legislature, regarding plans to build or lease additional hospital space for the state's mentally handicapped children.

Medical Research Center Earmarked for Detroit

DETROIT (AP)—Parke, Davis & Co. announced plans yesterday to build a 10 million dollar medical research center.

The pharmaceutical firm said the center is expected to be completed in about three years.

An exact site hasn't been picked but it probably will be in the Detroit area, the company said.

The project is a part of a post-war expansion program, which the company said has involved about 100 million dollars for new buildings and improvements in the United States, Canada and England.

Mendes-France Given Setback

MRP Refuses Support Delaying Formation of New Government

PARIS (AP)—Formation of a new French government looked more remote than ever today after refusal of the Catholic MRP (Popular Republican Movement) to support a minority cabinet.

* * *

The MRP decision, spelled out by the party's honorary president Maurice Schuman and endorsed by its executive committee, was a blow to Pierre Mendes-France's new Republican Front.

The front, an alliance of Mendes-France's Radical Socialist supporters and the Socialists, control some 160 Assembly seats. This falls far short of a majority in the 627-member House, but leaders of the faction are trying to pick up enough extra votes to win a try at forming a cabinet.

NO MAJORITY

The front says it is not seeking the Communists' 151 votes in the new assembly, but Socialist leader Guy Mollet indicated Red support would not be refused.

Mollet, who appears to have some chance of being France's next premier, said in a speech that whoever gets the post should fly to Algeria for an on-the-spot investigation of the rebellion in that North African region.

Caretaker Premier Edgar Faure is expected to resign within the next week or so.

Boost in Costs Hampers Area Road Construction

Editor's Note: This is the fourth in a series of articles on the highway situation condensed from the booklet, "Wagon Roads to Expressways," to be published by the Oakland County Plan Commission.

While the money spent in the United States on roads has increased from about 2.3 billion dollars in 1941 to about 5.4 billion in 1953, inflation held the amount of actual work completed at almost the same level.

No more highway work was completed in 1953 than in 1941, although nearly 3 billion more dollars were spent.

The increase in cost of doing the same job over a period of years is shown by figures from the Oakland, Wayne and Macomb County Road Commissions.

In 1918-19 it cost Oakland County $20,582 per mile to construct Maple Road 16 feet wide with concrete surfacing. During the same period it cost an average of $9,420 to build a mile of gravel road.

Average maintenance expense per mile in 1924 was $599. In 1954, county primary road maintenance averaged $1,884 per mile. Resurfacing and widening of a two-lane concrete pavement now requires about $70,000 a mile.

Wayne County spent $64,912 for upkeep in 1918, $375,692 in 1926 and $3,680,157 last year.

The 1.4 miles of Town-Line Road built by Macomb County in 1913 graphically illustrates construction costs at that time.

Grading materials cost $9,377; labor, $5,838; tools, $435; some 2,060 cubic yards of stone, $3,082; gravel totaling 1,542 yards, $156; general expense and other material $292, and engineering salaries and expense, $1.50.

Macomb spent $16,609 for maintenance in 1918—$884,739 in 1954.

Ike's Name Entered in New Hampshire

CONCORD, N. H. (AP)—President Eisenhower's name will be formally entered next week in New Hampshire's first-in-the-nation presidential primary and the President will promptly inform his backers here that he has no objections, the Associated Press learned today.

This will be the first positive sign that the President, recovering from a September heart attack, will seek a scond term.

The President, through a highly placed spokesman in the White House, already has informed GOP leaders here that the move meets with his approval and that he will so state next week.

Quiz Needed to Break Into Jackson

JACKSON (AP)—It's hard to get out but it also takes some doing to get into Southern Michigan Prison these days.

That's because the big prison has put a new $100,000 reception center into operation which aims at doing a better job of rehabilitating prisoners.

The reception center, in effect, works as a kind of school where the new inmate learns about prison—and prison officials learn about him.

At the end of the 30-day "course," the prisoner is put in the state penal institution that officials believe will best fit him to return to free society.

On his part, the inmate learns about prison rules and facilities so he'll know what's expected of him and what he can do to improve himself while doing his time.

The reception center, which went into operation early this month, is a one-story building that will shortly include a remodeled cellblock with 495 cells.

It is divided into two sections, an inmate area and one for administrative personnel. To guard against escape attempts, six electrically operated steel doors stand between the inside and out.

The center accomplishes a long-termer from older men, parole violators and "repeaters" in the crucial first days of his prison stay.

On first arriving at the prison, the inmate turns in his personal property to the admitting clerk. His money is credited to his bank account. Valuables such as jewelry and watches are packaged and mailed to relatives.

GETS RULE BOOK

Next he receives his prison uniform, shave and haircut; is photographed, fingerprinted, given bedding, toiletries, tobacco, a cell and a book of rules.

During the 30-day screening period the inmate is given a thorough physical examination. He also takes tests to determine his intelligence quotient, average school grade placement, general aptitude and occupation.

Interviews are held with the psychiatrist, clinical psychologist, sociologist, vocational counselors and chaplains. Separate orientation classes are given for young first offenders, older first offenders, and parole violators and repeaters.

After his classification is set, a man may be sent to Ionia Reformatory, Cassidy Lake Training School, the Brighton Youth Camp, a conservation camp, prison farm or the main walled prison.

EASY CHANGE

Fred Bushko, director of the reception center, says the prison tries to keep men occupied during the quarantine period so their transition from free to institutional life will be as easy as possible.

Terming this period as "tremendously important" for the incoming inmate, Bushko said, "the whole program is aimed at just one thing to show the inmate how to make time serve him, not for him to serve time."

Lay Off 225 Workers

MONROE (AP)—The Monroe Auto Equipment Co. has laid off 225 workers in a production cutback caused by auto industry reductions in output. The company said the layoff, affecting the afternoon shift, is expected to last about eight weeks.

Be Your Own Lobbyist, Official Tells Businessmen

LANSING (AP) — Every businessman should be his own lobbyist, J. H. Creighton, legislative representative for the Michigan Manufacturers Association, told the annual meeting of the Michigan Milk Dealers Assn.

"It's not enough to just have a lobbyist working for your own organization," Creighton said. "It's just as important for each businessfan to cultivate his own legislator to make sure his views are properly represented."

Mississippi Hits Desegregation

Barrage of Bills Await Action by Legislature to Keep Race Barrier

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—A barrage of segregation bills waits today for action by the Mississippi Legislature.

One bill would place a fine of $1,000 a day against any railroad or bus company which failed to keep segregated waiting rooms for intra-state passengers.

Another bill is designated to prevent outside lawyers from handling segregation cases in state courts.

Three bills, taken together, apparently would form an attempt to prevent all integration in railroad and bus stations, whether passengers were traveling only within Mississippi or were crossing state lines.

Passengers who refuse to wait in rooms marked for their race could be fined a maximum of $1,000 and sent to jail for one year.

Some of the bills were introduced to combat the Interstate Commerce Commission ruling that interstate passengers cannot be segregated in waiting rooms.

Several cities moved without waiting for further legislative action. State laws already require segregation, but enforcement of the laws is left to the Public Service Commission or to the cities.

Drought Forces TVA Power Cut

Demands by Industries Also Lead to Shortage; AEC Not Affected

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Intense drought, plus drastically increased demand, have forced the Tennessee Valley Authority to cut down on power it supplies to a dozen industrial plants in the valley area.

The huge government power agency said yesterday the curtailment will not affect delivery of power to the average consumer, nor to its biggest customer, the government atomic plants at Oak Ridge, Tenn., and Paducah, Ky.

Affected industries include aluminum, steel alloy and chemical plants.

The Atomic Energy Commission's demand for TVA power has increased 11 times during the past five years. It now uses more than half TVA's output. During four of those years, there has been below-normal rainfall in the seven-state valley.

For Safer Travel

NEW YORK (AP)—Idlewild Airport put in operation yesterday a new lighting system aimed at making it easier for pilots to land during periods of poor visibility. The system, including 20 units each of more than 30-million candlepower, flashes in sequence to give the effect from the air of a moving arrow.

Hoover Tells Plot of Brink's Robbery

a Ford stake-body truck which had been stolen in Boston in November 1949 to be used in the robbery.

* * *

"Including the driver, this truck carried nine members of the gang to the scene of the robbery. During the trip from Roxbury, seven of the men donned Navy-type pea coats and chauffeurs' caps which were in the truck.

HALLOWEEN MASKS

"Each of the seven also was given a pistol and a Halloween-type mask; each had gloves and wore either crepe-soled shoes or rubbers so that their footsteps would be muffled.

* * *

"As the men approached the Brink's building, they looked for a signal from the lookout on the roof of a Prince Street building. The lookout previously had arrived in a stolen Ford sedan."

Hoover said that the seven members of the gang waited for a go-ahead signal, then left the truck and walked through a playground which led to the Prince Street entrance of Brink's.

The gang members, Hoover continued, used an outside door key they had previously obtained, quickly entered the building and donned the grotesque masks.

* * *

Hoover added:

"Other keys in their possession enabled them to proceed to the second floor where they took five Brink's employes by surprise.

SILENCED STAFF

"The seven robbers ordered the employes to lie face down on the floor, tied their hands behind them and placed adhesive tape over their mouths.

* * *

"Before fleeing with the loot, the seven armed men attempted to open a metal box containing the payroll of the General Electric Co.; but they had brought no tools and were unsuccessful.

"Immediately upon leaving, the gang loaded the loot into the stolen truck. As the truck sped away with nine members of the gang, the lookout departed in the stolen Ford sedan.

"The truck was unloaded at the home of one of the participants in Roxbury that same evening. Some members of the gang made a preliminary effort to count the loot, but they quickkly dispersed to establish alibis for themselves."

* * *

Hoover said that on the night of the robbery about $380,000 of the loot was removed from the house in Roxbury for "security reasons." Meanwhile, he said one of the gang disposed of all the equipment used in the robbery.

The FBI chief then said:

"On Jan. 18, 1950, another gang member took the remainder of the loot from the house, and several weeks later it was divided among the 11 men."

4 PISTOLS TAKEN

According to Hoover, the robbers took four pistols from Brink's and one of these was recovered by a Somerville, Mass., police officer after it had been found by a group of boys near the Mystic river.

Hoover said the description of the truck used in the robbery was obtained from persons in the vicinity of the crime scene and that pieces of an identical truck — cut up with an acetylene torch — were found at a dump in Stoughton, Mass., in March 1950.

He said that the FBI has turned over everything it knows about the case to Suffolk County District Attorney Garrett Byrne.

The FBI chief explained that the question of "ultimate prosecution" is a matter to be worked out between Byrne and U. S. Attorney Anthony Julian of Boston.

Hoover declared, "The FBI will continue to make its investigative facilities available to assist to the fullest extent the prosecuting officials."

Of the 83 counties in Michigan, there are only two that have no lakes.

Possible Coffee 'Crash' Revealed in Secret Report

WASHINGTON (INS)—A secret inter-American report has predicted "a disastrous decline" in coffee prices by 1958 unless an international agreement is reached to stabilize the market.

The report, drafted by representatives of the U. S., Brazil, Colombia and Nicaragua, said that increased coffee supplies may force prices down more than 40 per cent within the next few years.

The survey was made by a subcommittee of the Inter-American Coffee Commission at the behest of the finance ministers of the 21 American republics.

Although the study has been circulated among the 21 republics, it has been withheld from publication out of fear that it would cause a break in the market.

FEB. 29 DEADLINE

Each government is expected to state its views on the report by Feb. 29. The commission then will consider the feasibility of drawing up an agreement.

With present retail prices ranging from about 75 cents to $1 per pound, a market collapse or even a minor break could mean more bargains for housewives.

In view of the report's prediction for 1956, it appeared likely that retail prices would skid to a somewhat lower level this year.

As for the future, however, observers believe the outlook hinges on what action coffee producing and consuming nations take to shore up the market.

The investigators predicted that world exportable coffee production will rise from about 40 million bags in the 1955-56 and 1956-57 crop years to more than 47 million bags in 1958-59 and 1959-60.

By 1958, they said, demand may account for 34-34.5 million bags, leaving a surplus of more than six million bags.

Prices, they added, "would be expected to fall more than 40 per cent in order that the exportable portion of the crop be sold."

At a 40-mile an hour cruising speed the average fuel economy of 29 different makes of automobiles has been increased 30 per cent from 1930 to 1950.

Admit 96 Breakins

DETROIT (AP) — Police say $3,000 in loot has been recovered from three men who have admitted a total of 96 break-ins of cars and trucks. The trio, arrested in the theft of $800 worth of draperies from a cleaning truck, are Joseph Barnes, 30, John N. Lewis 29, and Ralph McAfee, 35, all of Detroit.

Pro Bowl Foes in Final Drills for Coast Tilt

Talent-Loaded Cast Offers Action Galore at Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The East and the West, opponents in the sixth annual post-season Pro Bowl football game, got in their last serious drill today for a contest that has in the past been as exciting as a regular season encounter in the National Football League.

* * *

The cast of talent automatically promises action, pass masters such as Norman Van Brocklin, Eddie LeBaron, Adrian Burk, Eddie Brown; pass catchers such as Harlon Hill, Darrell Brewster, Billy Wilson and Pete Pihos; ball carriers like Ollie Matson, Ron Waller, Alan Ameche and Johnny Olszewski, all have colorful backgrounds.

* * *

They will perform Sunday in Memorial Coliseum. It will be goodbye to football for at least two all-time stars of pro football, Pihos of the Philadelphia Eagles and Doak Walker of the Detroit Lions.

Just a year ago the West came from behind, 19-3 at one point, and won out in the last quarter, 26-19.

The inaugural game in 1951 was the closest, with the East winning, 28-27.

The West now holds a 3-2 lead.

Plan Stadium

City of Green Bay Wants Team to Stay

GREEN BAY, Wis. (INS) — Green Bay City officials, informed that they may lose the Packers pro football team, are planning action today on a possible million-dollar stadium.

Mayor Otto Rachals said yesterday the National Football League team feels they need a stadium of at least 32,000 seating capacity to remain in Green Bay.

* * *

The Packers now play three home games in the wooden city stadium which seats 24,500 and has poor parking facilities, and three in Milwaukee's county stadium where football capacity is about 40,000.

The 16 member citizens' committee, which is studying the problem, will act next Tuesday on proposals for a new home for the Packers.

Rachals said league opponents have been pressing to have all Packer home games in Milwaukee because of the greater seating capacity there. Last season, visiting teams received $161,000 at Packer home games while the Green Bay team collected $261,000 in road games.

Calvin Downs Hope, Claims MIAA Lead

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—Calvin College claimed undisputed possession of first place in the MIAA basketball race today.

Calvin has a 6-0 record after disposing of previously unbeaten Hope, 85-55, last night. The contest was close through the first half but Calvin built its one-point halftime edge into a runaway in the second half as five men hit in double figures. Jim Kok and Tony Diekema were high with 18 each.

Hope had won four conference games before last night's loss.

Wall Holds to 1-Stroke Lead

Pocono, Pa. Pro Has Five-Under-Par 67, in Panama Open

PANAMA (AP)—Art Wall of Pocono Manor, Pa., held a one-stroke edge over a tight cluster of leaders as the $7,500 Panama Open Golf Tournament entered the second round today.

* * *

Despite two bogies, Wall finished the opening 18 holes with a five-under-par 67 yesterday. One stroke behind were Arnold Palmer, Latrobe, Pa., and George Bayer, Cincinnati.

* * *

Ed Furgol of St. Louis, the 1954 National Open champion, was another stroke behind at 69. Sam Snead of White Sulphur Springs, W.Va., was seventh, but only four strokes off the pace at 71. Lew Worsham of Pittsburgh and Antonio Cerda, the defending champ and an Argentine pro, were tied for sixth with 70s.

* * *

Wall carded seven birdies in the opening tour of the 6,600-yard Panama Golf Club course. He bogied the 9th and 18th.

Ninety-six pros and amateurs are entered in the four-day test which ends Sunday.

Olympic Skaters Continue Win Streak With 2 More

CANTON, N. Y. (AP)—The U. S. Olympic hockey team remained unbeaten today after skating over two of the East's leading college squads in succession last night, defeating both in exhibition of two 15-minute periods each.

The Olympics blanked St. Lawrence, 6-0, and turned back Clarkson, 4-2.

The Olympics' speed and passing baffled the Larries. The Olympic squad netted three goals in each period. Gene Campbell netted two.

Willard Ikola turned in a top performance at the Olympic net. He stopped 13 shots. St. Lawrence used two goalies. They saved 19.

Clarkson's skating and passing proved more effective against the visitors, despite the fact the Olympics ran off to a 3-0 lead in the first period.

* * *

Clarkson goalie Don Cooper kept the margin down, stopping several lone bids by Bill Cleary, former Harvard star and last year's intercollegiate scoring champion.

Two Clarkson goalies turned back 13 tries. Ikola stopped 10.

The Olympics are unbeaten in 11 games.

Wolverine Quint Goes Traveling

Plays Two Road Games Against Big 10 Foes Over Weekend

ANN ARBOR—A stubborn University of Michigan basketball team that has scored two upset victories in three Big Ten starts will go on the road this weekend to face Northwestern and Wisconsin Saturday and Monday nights, respectively.

* * *

The Wolverines defeated Minnesota 81-79 in overtime at Minneapolis last Saturday and then came from behind to down Purdue here Monday night, 74-67, and thereby gain a second place tie with Indiana and Purdue behind league-leading Illinois.

Michigan was sparked by reserve guard, junior Jim Shearon from Toledo in both games.

It was Shearon's goal in the final seconds of the overtime period with the Gophers that won after he had picked up a total of 15 points. Against the Boilermakers, his 18 points 16 of them in the second half, plus some sparkling ball-hawking which again propelled the Wolverines.

The slender, 5-11, 160 pound Shearon scored 33 points in the two wins, 15 against Minnesota and 18 against the Boilermakers. Playing in 10 games he has scored 74 points for a 7.4 average.

Mikan Returns to Help Lakers

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—George Mikan, picked as the best basketball player of the half century in an Associated Press poll five years ago, is coming out of retirement. He will don a Minneapolis Laker uniform again tomorrow night in an NBA game here against Fort Wayne.

* * *

Mikan, who has been the Lakers' general manager since going onto the sidelines in 1954, said his decision was prompted by letters from some 1,500 fans in the past six months.

* * *

"The point was made that, since I had asked people of this area to back the Lakers, I should practice what I preach and try to give the team a boost," the 32-year-old Mikan said. "If I can just help to win a few games I will be contributing something toward winning back the support the team has had in the past."

* * *

Laker Coach Johnny Kundla said it would be up to Mikan how much he plays at the start, adding "I know he can help us win some games."

Real Hero of Skipper-Avon Game Heralded

Waterford Star John Bersche Due Credit for Winning Shot

John Bersche, Waterford High School basketball player, is probably the gloomiest boy in Waterford Township.

The Skippers' senior guard was the hero of Tuesday night's 73-72 victory over Avondale. But John didn't receive credit for it.

Wednesday's game report attributed the winning basket in the final six seconds of play to reserve guard Cecil Dumbrigue. The feat was performed by Bersche, and he was carried off the court on the shoulders of his teammates.

According to the game report received from Avondale to this office, Dumbrigue made the basket, when the glory really belonged to Bersche.

Our apologies to John.

Howe Sets Pace With Two Goals on Olympia Ice

Shutout Was 8th of Year of Hall; Loss NY's Worst Licking

DETROIT (INS) — The Detroit Red Wings, with big Gordie Howe setting the pace, are on the move again.

* * *

The flashy right wing scored twice last night as the Redshirts mauled 2nd place New York Rangers, 6-0, before 11,279 boisterous fans at Olympia Stadium.

* * *

The goals were the 20th and 21st of the campaign for Howe. He has now tallied nine times in Detroit's last ten games.

Howe's 1st goal, a long shot from the blue line, was the only 1st period marker. His 2nd a shot which slid slowly past New York netminder Lorne (Gump) Worsley, came at the seven-minute mark of the 2nd frame. Worsley had fallen to the ice and Howe's shot was just out of the plucky goalie's reach.

The contest was turned into a rout when the Wings scored three times in 3 minutes and 28 seconds midway in the same period.

* * *

Marty Pavelich clicked after stealing the puck from a scramble in the corner just past the 11-minute mark. Before two minutes had elapsed Real Chevrifils and Metro Prystai had also scored for Detroit. Chevrifils' goal was the first he had been able to chalk up on Olympia ice this season.

Len (Red) Kelly's final period marker enabled Detroit to hand New York its worst defeat of the season and move to within a game and a half of the Broadway Blues.

Rookie netminder Glenn Hall posted his 8th shutout of the season for Detroit. He turned back all 23 New York shots.

* * *

Detroit's next action comes Saturday when it meets 4th place Chicago in St. Louis.

The Wings return home for a Sunday contest with the pace-setting Montreal Canadiens.

Tavern 5 Falls to Independents

Louie's Nipped, 52-51; Stadium Easy Winner in City League Basketball

The Independents, trailing by two points entering the last quarter, came on to nip Louie's Tavern, 52-51, in a hectic National division basketball game Thursday night at Pontiac High's gym.

Stadium Inn rolled to a 73-61 victory over the Keego Merchants in last night's American loop nightcap as the city leagues wound up activity until next week.

The Independents thrilling win featured Thursday play in the adult circuit. They trailed the Tavern club by three points going into the 2nd quarter, but managed to tie the count at 27-27 at halftime. They slipped back again in the 3rd stanza before rallying to grab the verdict.

Three Independents posted double figures, led by Dick Dewling who made 16 points. Phil Hunter scored 15 and Bennie Stafford added 10. Harry Diehl paced Louie's with 15 points and teammate Ron Sandage picked up 10.

Stadium leaped off to a 24-6 1st quarter advantage in its triumph over the Merchants and was never threatened. H. Harrison pumped in 23 points for the winners while M. Hanes and R. Hobson each tallied 18 for Louie's.

City League action resumes Monday with Stone Front meeting GMC and Shaw's facing the Lakeside Royals at Pontiac High while Pulver Tire battles Central and the Lakesiders tackle the Boys Club at Lincoln Junior High.

Bing's Pro-Am Starts

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP) — It looks like bantam Ben Hogan may be the man to beat in Bing Crosby's national pro-amateur tournament, despite his smiling insistence that he is a strictly-for-fun golfer these days.

The Texas master earnestly tells one and all that there will be no more grim battling for sub-par scores, but his surprising practice rounds here, casual as they appear, are causing spectators to wonder.

* * *

His five-under-par 67 yesterday and the even fancier 65 he shot the day before have moved him right up alongside Lloyd Mangrum, sensational winner of the Los Angeles Open, and Dr. Cary Middlecoff as favorites. Middlecoff won the pro event here last year.

* * *

Ben was smiling happily as he finished his round with Bing Crosby at dusk yesterday. Sun-tanned Bing, not bothered in the least by his pedestrian 82, was actually whistling as Hogan ran down the final nine-foot putt.

Bing, incidentally, was so sick last year he couldn't even get out on the course as a spectator.

Spectators can't quite figure what goes with Hogan. They concede he isn't deliberately hiding in the weeds, for he made little or no preparations for the competition starting today. He played a few easy rounds, in San Francisco and elsewhere, mostly for pleasure.

* * *

He certainly hasn't tried to pull his punches, his shots have been true and his putts have been dropping, which observers say may be a tipoff on the "new Hogan," who is obviously playing a very relaxed game.

Actually, he appears to be in far better shape physically than when he put out everything he had last year in the National Open at Lakeside, San Francisco, and still found it wasn't enough to beat Jack Fleck, the Des Moines flash.

Having abandoned the tough pro circuit, Hogan has prospered physically. He is 15 pounds heavier and on him it looks good.

* * *

Starting this morning, 284 golfers tee off in the $15,000 pro-amateur. The players will be split between two courses—Cypress Point and Monterey Peninsula Country Club. Saturday they will change courses and Monday, for the finale, the top 60 pro-amateur teams will fight it out for cash and glory.

In this unique tournament, Bing picks up all the expense tabs. In 10 years more than a quarter of a million dollars have been raised for charitable causes.

Fisher Body Quint Wins in CIO Loop

Ed Ringold and Ken Tithrage scored 15 points apiece last night to spark Fisher Body Local 596 to an easy 64-45 victory over Local 594 in a UAW-CIO League basketball game at Lincoln Junior High.

The winners gradually pulled away from the 594 quintet and made things certain with a 23-point effort in the 4th quarter. Mel Taylor led a losing cause with 19 points.

Booth Homes of the city leagues blasted Local 898 in last night's 2nd attraction, 61-29. Ron Hetherington paced Booth with 15 points while Al Theriault scored 14 for the union team.

Fight for SVC's 2nd Place Holds League Interest

Chiefs, Vikings Scrap, Tonight, in Spotlight at Flint

Saginaw Valley's spotlight tonight will be turned full on the Pontiac High Chiefs—Flint Northern encounter in the Vikings' Wildanger Fieldhouse.

With Flint Central holding to the top spot, and not likely to lose that lofty perch in its game with Saginaw, tonight, the battle for 2nd place is rated the feature. Chiefs and Vikings share that place with 2-1 records. Central has won three straight, and Indians handed both PHS and Northern their only league defeats.

Indications pointed today to a red-hot, tight battle between the clubs coached by Art Van Ryzin and Jack Marlette. Down the years in the long rivalry between Pontiac and Northern, these annual cage events have usually been close and highly interesting.

Only three times in 18 games has the winning total been more than 60 points. And the overall point totals show only a margin of 89 for the Vikings (813 to 724).

Where the PHS mentor had settled on all but one of his starting five for tonight, Vikings' coach wasn't certain of more than two or three.

"There is only one question," Van Ryzin says. " I'm not sure whether we will use Dave Diehm, or Jim Skinner at the one guard post. The decision hinges on who will start for Northern, and if the need is for more height in the back court."

Van Ryzin named Willie Dewalt and Rod Treais as forwards; Hud Ray at the pivot, and Larry Peet at one guard.

49er's Name Albert Coach

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Frankie Albert, the erstwhile wizard of the T-formation, yesterday was named head coach of the San Francisco 49ers professional football club.

* * *

Frankie, in his first job as a head coach with only one season as an assistant to Red Strader, who bossed the 49ers to a disastrous season in 1955, told a news conference he would field a "colorful, representative team."

But, running the team—at least in the field—will be nothing new for Frankie. It was well known that Buck Shaw, the 49ers head coach until last year, gave his star quarterback a free rein at handling the offensive strategy. With left-handed Frankie, that meant passing when the other fellow expected you to kick, or vice versa, plus a mix up of quick openers, and hand-offs with a few quick kicks to keep the opposing safety men in place.

* * *

After the announcement yesterday Shaw said in Los Angeles:

"Albert has lots of potential as a coach. He has good football judgment, lots of imagination and he may do well in his new job. I sincerely wish him much success."

Albert will inherit three good assistants in Phil Bengston, Howard (Red) Hickey and Mark C. Duncan.

It also is being said that Frankie will come up soon with Vic Lindskog, who centered for him when they made the modern T-formation famous at Stanford, as a line coach. Frankie said yesterday he didn't know what Lindskog's commitments were in the Canadian League, but he didn't say he wasn't going to find out fast.

* * *

Players who could be reached were enthusiastic about Albert as their coach.

Dickie Moegle, getting ready for the East-West pro game, said "Frankie is a fine person . . . I expect a big improvement in team morale and I think we'll snap back to our old-time form."

NOW BASKETBALL—Increased efforts to provide safety has brought the full plastic face mask to basketball as well as football. Gene Booth of Dartmouth looks a little Man-from-Marsish in his armor.

NCAA Leaves 'Sucker Shift' Problem in Coaches' Hands

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—As far as the football rules committee of the NCAA is concerned, it is up to the coaches of the country to solve the false start or so-called "sucker shift."

The false start is a move by one team to draw another team offside and gain a 5-yard penalty.

Earlier this week in Los Angeles the American Football Coaches Assn. voted to let its committee on ethics deal with the culprits.

So the governing NCAA rulemakers in session here decided yesterday to let it go at that, and chairman H. O. (Fritz) Crisler of the University of Michigan declared the coaches are to be commended and his committee "supports them enthusiastically."

Today the committee delved further into 66 other suggestions for rule revisions, including coaching from the sidelines.

Also debated was a recommendation that clock time on a free kick start when the kicked ball touches the receiving team instead of at the moment of the kick.

Valuable time in the final seconds can be consumed, as the rule now stands, if the kicker punts long—and out of bounds, for instance.

* * *

The committee is also studying a situation where the official "loses the ball," meaning he thought the fullback had it, was stopped cold in the middle of the line and the whistle is blown, only to discover that the quarterback faked a hand-off and passed for a sizeable gain, if not a touchdown.

* * *

The coaches association itself did not make a single recommendation for a rule change. This is the 1st time this has happened since the NCAA began functioning in 1906. The 66 suggestions, screened from more than 200 by Frank McCormick of the Pacific Coast Conference, were offered from other sources.

* * *

The sessions end tonight or possibly tomorrow.

Tombstone Chills Foe

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Tombstone Smith, 147¾, of Los Angeles, stopped Giancario Garbelli, 145½, Milan, Italy, on a technical knockout in the seventh round of a scheduled 10-rounder at the Olympic Auditorium last night.

Boyce Takes 19 Men to Arthur Hill Test

A 19-man squad will represent Pontiac High School in tonight's Saginaw Valley swimming meet at Arthur Hill. The Saginaw meet will be held in the new Saginaw High pool, starting at 7:30 o'clock.

Coach Robert (Des) Boyce figures on a very hard battle, with the Hills as strong, or stronger than the Ann Arbor team.

Boyce made two changes in his lineup for tonight's meet, with Ted Wiersema going in the 50-yard freestyle and Dennis Simonson in the 100 freestyle. He will also present a sophomore diver, Gordon Bray, in his 1st varsity competition.

Tech Cagers Win 6th

HOUGHTON, Mich. (AP)—Michigan Tech triumphed 97-81 over St. Norbert's of De Pere, Wis., last night to run its string of home victories to 12 straight. For the season, home and away, however, the Huskies are 6-2.

Jenkins Seeking Olympic Crown

U. S., World Figure Skating Champion Is Confident He'll Win

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP)—This is the big one for three-time U.S. and world figure skating champion Hayes Alan Jenkins.

The 22-year-old Colorado College student wants the Olympic figure skating title so he can retire with the last of his coveted gold medals. Jenkins, a confident, straight-A student, figures he should bag the crown.

"I'm in the best shape I've ever been in," he said today. "I've matured since the last Olympics, when I was only 18. I have the confidence with this maturity, and I've improved considerably."

Jenkins finished fourth in the 1952 Olympic competition behind Dick Button, who has since turned professional; the European champion, and Jimmy Grogan.

He'll leave Colorado Springs on Sunday with five other local Olympic team figure skating members. The group includes Hayes' 19-year-old brother, David; Sully Kothman, Lucille Ash, Mary Ann Dorsey and Coach Edie Scholdan.

'Boston Tar Baby' Dies at Age of 72

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — Sam Langford, 72, who gained fame in boxing circles as the "Boston Tar Baby," died at a nursing home yesterday three months after he gained a spot in boxing's Hall of Fame.

Langford had fought 642 bouts from 1902 through 1923. A year after his final bout, he went blind and might have spent his sightless old age in obscurity if it weren't for the kindness of boxing fans.

League Leaders Get Tests Tonight

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Press Sports Editor

If everything follows form for tonight's prep games, the results may set the stage for "Big Friday" in all leagues next week.

Birmingham and Port Huron, leaders in the Eastern Michigan League get stern tests tonight before their clash on the Maple court a week from today.

The same holds true in the Inter-Lakes League. Pace setter Walled Lake should get by Van Dyke and Southfield is a slight favorite at Berkley ,and a win for both teams would turn the spotlight on the Jay-Viking game next week.

Other leagues where action tonight will have an important bearing for crucial games next Friday is in the Oakland B and Wayne-Oakland circuits..

Fitzgerald, Madison and Avondale, the front-runners of Oakland B, are not expected to run into trouble tonight, but lookout for Avondale's invasion of Fitzgerald seven days hence.

* * *

In the W-O loop, upstart Clarenceville and Clarkston tangle this evening and should the Trojans of Art Orloske come out on top, then the focus for next Friday will center on Milford where the Redskins host Clarenceville.

Milford sits back with an open date tonight watching the other members of Wayne-Oakland claw each other. Clarkston after dropping the first three, now owns a four game winning streak including a 3-1 league mark.

Brighton could break into the league win column at West Bloomfield and Northville is host to Holly in other W-O games tonight.

* * *

Southfield will have to reckon with arch-rival Berkley on the Bear court, while Inter-Lakes leader Walled Lake plays host to hapless Van Dyke. Waterford hopes to keep its title chances alive at home against Farmington.

A game with little bearing in Oakland B is at Troy where the Colts host neighboring Clawson, but at Lake Orion the ambitious Avondale Yellow Jackets had better heed the upset sign of the Dragons.

* * *

Birmingham will have to contend with big Dan Potter and Nick Kamenoff at Hazel Park to keep in front in the EML title race. Other games have East Detroit at Mt. Clemens and Ferndale at Port Huron in the EML.

Armada, riding high in the Southern Thumb, after vanquishing defending champion Almont Tuesday, has Capac as the obstacle tonight. Capac is 4-1 in the league and Armada 5-0.

Almont is at Brown City trying to shake a two-game losing streak and winless Dryden goes to New Haven.

In the South Central, Ortonville will try to make it 1-1 in the league against Millington, while Imlay City plays non-league Memphis.

Utica and Warren stage an early showdown in the Bi-County loop.

* * *

Cranbrook and Romeo take up where they left off before the holidays. The Cranes play their first game since December 13th when they defeated Romeo 67-56. Tonight they meet again on the Romeo court.

Unbeaten Lapeer, winner of six straight, looks for number seven at home against Rochester. Coach Burt Jackson may find Rochester troublesome despite the visitors 2-3 mark which came against somewhat stronger competition.

St. Michael's Shamrocks gave their Suburban Catholic League basketball title hopes another boost Thursday night with a runaway victory. But St. Frederick was slapped down for the 3rd straight time.

The undefeated Shamrocks gained their 3rd consecutive league triumph and 4th overall by overwhelming invading Hazel Park St. Rita, 69-35. The Mikes, driving for their 2nd successive SCL crown, now share the top spot with St. Mary of Royal Oak.

Meanwhile, on the south side of town, the visiting Ravens from Highland Park St. Benedict were overcoming an early deficit to defeat the Rams, 46-35, and spoil their home season opener.

The Bens spotted St. Fred's a 14-10 1st-quarter edge, then picked up steam to win going away and keep their SCL championship ambitions alive. Last night's victory earned them 3rd place on a 3-1 record and dropped St. Fred's into 4th position with a 2-2 mark.

Gene Wright's cagers faded after a good start. They ran steadily down hill after the 1st period, scoring eight points in the 2nd stanza, seven in the 3rd, and six in the 4th.

The Ravens, led by Martin Massucci, closed the gap in the 2nd quarter and took a narrow 24-22 halftime lead. St. Frederick never again held the lead.

Although he performed well around the backboards Dick Doyon had his poorest scoring night of the season. The rangy Ram star tallied only nine points, but still claimed scoring laurels for his team.

Massucci dumped in six field goals and six free throws for 18 points to spark the Ravens.

The St. Frederick JV's, coached by Al Serra, downed St. Benedict in the preliminary contest, 40-33.

The Vikings of St. Rita probably thought they had been struck by a tornado when they went home last night. The Hazel Park cagers were never in the game as the Mikes built up a commanding 60-22 margin before flooding the court with substitutes in the last quarter.

* * *

Ten Shamrocks scored, three of them in double figures. Scoring ace John Keller was high with 22 points, followed by Dan Dropps with 17 and Bill Hall with 11. Tom Pranger led the hapless Vikings with 10 points.

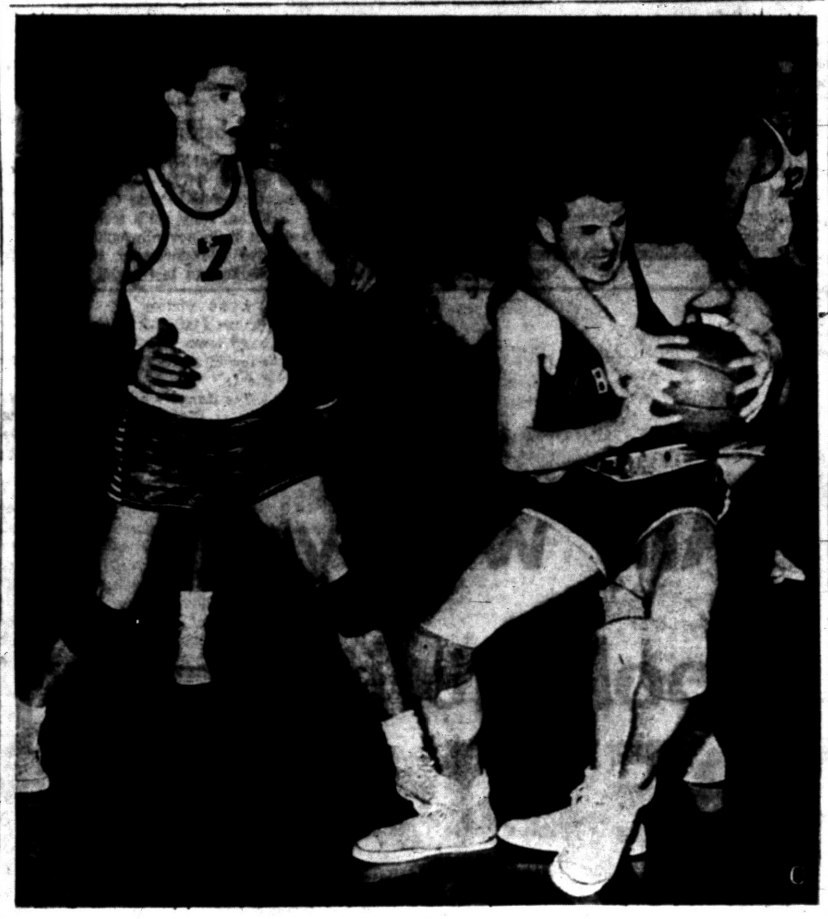

St. Michael's reserves romped over St. Rita in the preliminary game, 41-8.

Finnish Ski Stars in Big Norge Meet

FOX RIVER GROVE, Ill. (AP)—Two of Finland's leading ski jumpers have flown 5,000 miles from Helsinki to compete in the 51st annual Norge Ski Club meet Sunday.

The Finnish jumpers, Esko Johannes Mommo and Pentti Armas Uotinen, are among 85 entrants in the meet's four classes.

Norge officials have found little co-operation from the weatherman and will be required to use tons of crushed ice on the slide. There is no snow on the ground in the area.

The hill's record jump is 208 feet set by Art Tokle.

Top Seeded Handballer Moves Into Semi-Finals

DETROIT (INS)—Dr. John Scopis, top-seeded in Detroit's City Championship Handball Tournament, advanced to the semi-final round last night by defeating Stilson Ashe, 21-15, 21-18.

In tonight's semi-final Scopis will meet Paul Chapman, who defeated Al Hooberman last night. Other winners at the Knight's of Columbus courts were Carl Koch and Jim Pappas. They will meet in tonight's other match.

Cardinals Sign Musial, Schoendienst for 1956

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The St. Louis Cardinals have signed the backbone of their team—Stan (The Man) Musial and Red Schoendienst.

• • •

The long-time National League stars expressed satisfaction at the ceremony yesterday where they put their names to contracts calling for a reported $125,000 total.

• • •

For Musial it will be the sixth season at an estimated $80,000. Schoendienst will get a reported $45,000, believed to be the same as last year.

Said General Manager Frank Lane: "It wouldn't seem like a Cardinal team without Red and Stan."

• • •

The two are the only holdovers from the Redbirds' last championship club of 1946. For the 35-year-old Musial it will be his 14th season with the St. Louis team. Schoendienst is ready for his 12th year.

• • •

Musial will be trying to add to the many records he already holds. He has a .342 lifetime batting average, has won the National League batting crown six times, was the league's most valuable player three years and set a major league record by hitting five home runs in a doubleheader in 1954.

Schoendienst, who will be 33 next month, slumped in batting last year to .268, compared to a lifetime average of .289. He is regarded as the classiest fielding second baseman in the majors.

Vann Quits Canisius

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—Dick Vann, 6-3 basketball starter for Canisius College, withdrew from school yesterday. He said he was leaving to do photographic work with an uncle in California.

Devlin Rated Best Among U.S. Skiers

LAKE PLACID (AP)—This could be the year, Art Devlin has been dreaming about ever since he donned a pair of skis for the first time 29 years ago.

The 33-year-old veteran of two U.S. Olympic teams and countless world championships, never has been sharper than he is today—less than two weeks before the start of the winter games in Cortina D'Ampezza, Italy.

• • •

His coach, Olav Ulland, thinks he has the best chance of the Americans to win the grand jumping title—something no Yank ever has won in the face of the tough Scandanavians.

Devlin acknowledges that this is the strongest group of jumpers the United States ever has gotten together. But about his chances, he merely shrugs. He knows he's "on" now, but only hopes he can keep the fine edge.

• • •

"I won't say how we are going to do," said Devlin, who laid aside his running feud with the U.S. Ski Assn. to concentrate on the Olympics. "But I do know that this team is good. We have balance and that's important.

• • •

"In past years, we've sent teams to the Olympics with one or two aggressive jumpers. This team has six of them. Every guy thinks he can win."

With Norway's Torbjorn Falkanger injured and out of competition, Devlin said the Finns would be the toughest.

Devlin, who has beaten virtually every top European at one time or another, said he sincerely thinks this is the best team the United States could have put together.

The other members of the team are Ragnar Ulland, the coach's nephew from Seattle; national champion Rudy Maki of Ishpeming Mich.; Roy Sherwood of Salisbury, Conn.; Billy Olson of Eau Claire, Wis., and Dick Rahoi of Iron Mountain, Mich.

Bahama, weighing 153, spotted his Saginaw, Mich. opponent four pounds. Bahama fights out of Detroit.

PONTIAC JUNIOR HIGH LEAGUE

	W	L
Washington	3	0
Lincoln	2	0
Eastern	2	1
Wever	0	2
Jefferson	0	3

Washington Junior High School's basketball team moved into a tie for 1st place with idle Lincoln in the Pontiac Junior High League yesterday afternoon by easily whipping Jefferson, 55-32.

Em Ghianni's Braves never gave the visiting Warriors a chance. After being held to a 6-5 1st quarter lead, the Braves erupted with 20 points in the 2nd period to wrap up the decision. They also outscored the losers in the last two periods.

• • •

Harrison Munson and Henry Dewalt paced a balanced Washington attack with 14 and 12 points respectively. Larry Douglas topped Jefferson with 10 points.

Washington's Junior Varsity also triumphed, nipping the Warriors, 22-20, behind Kenny Shaw's 10 points.

Over in Wever's direction the invaders from Eastern Junior High crushed napless Wever, 56-18. Eleven Indians scored, headed by Bill Hayward with 14 points, as Eastern chalked up its 2nd league win in three games.

Eastern defeated Wever in the Junior Varsity game, 42-37, as Bob Babaja tallied 13 points for the winners.

Saddler Gets Back to Serious Training

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Sandy Saddler returns to serious training today for his featherweight championship bout against challenger Flash Elorde, pride of the Philippines.

Saddler took a short layoff when his manager, Charlie Johnston, decided the champ had reached his peak.

Elorde, who outpointed Saddler in an exhibition in the Islands last July, has been working steadily for weeks for his chance at the title.

Hawks Win to Move Into 4th

Chicagoans Score 5-0 Shutout Over Boston to Go Ahead of Leafs

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The New York Rangers are the most improved club in the National Hockey League in the opinion of most experts.

But can the Chicago Black Hawks be far behind?

The Hawks, a poor last in 1954-1955, picked up a new coach, Dick Irvin, and half a dozen new players in the off-season. Today, they were in fourth place, a position many observers didn't think they'd reach all year.

• • •

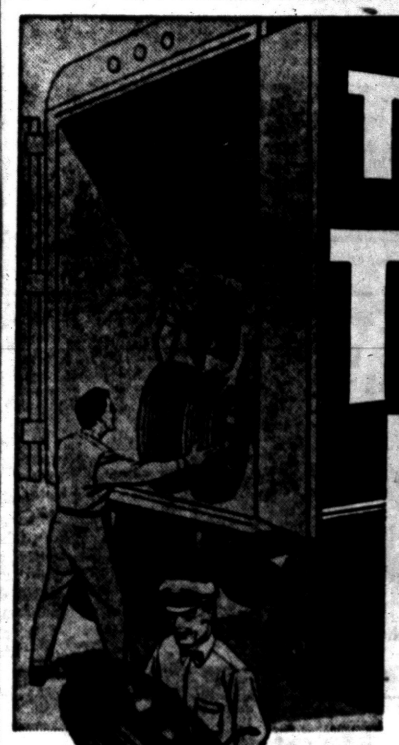

A 5-0 victory over the Boston Bruins last night moved the Chicago team into the No. 4 slot, 1 point in front of the Toronto Maple Leafs.

The Rangers got off on the wrong foot in the first game of a nine-game road trip, bowing to the Detroit Red Wings 60 in the night's only other action.

• • •

Rookie goalie Hank Bassen achieved the first shutout of his NHL career as the Hawks bombarded the Bruins. Hec LaLande got two of Chicago's goals with Red Sullivan, Gus Mortson and Glen Skov grabbing the others. The loss marked the Bruins' 11th straight winless game—tying a team record.

GRACE KELLY REPORTS AT STUDIO — Grace Kelly, back in Hollywood to star in a film before her marriage to Prince Rainier III of Monaco, checks over the sheet music to a song she will sing with Frank Sinatra in the movie. Grace's Royal Marriage Poses Citizenship Problem

PARIS (INS) — French legal and political officials disclosed they are giving serious thought to the problem of Grace Kelly's citizenship after her marriage to Prince Rainier of Monaco.

The question arose due to receipt of reports that the American film star hoped to retain her U.S. citizenship in some way even though she became the wife of the reigning Prince of the tiny state on the Riviera.

It was pointed out this could lead to a claim of U.S. citizenship for any children born of the royal marriage, involve Monaco in multiple citizenship complexities and perhaps even cause a jurisdictional dispute between the U.S. and France.

The French officials indicated that the Paris government will seek an agreement with Rainier to bar dual citizenship for his children, and make them Monacans exclusively.

EAGER FOR HEIR

It is no secret that Rainier is eager for an heir to keep his principality from reverting to France, which in 1861 became the protector of Monaco.

This is the way the situation shapes up under U.S. law, as interpreted by authoritative American sources:

. An American woman cannot claim dual citizenship, but under certain conditions a 1922 law permits her to retain U.S. citizenship if she marries a foreigner.

But if Grace accepts Monacan citizenship, she cannot retain her American citizenship.

Nor can she retain her U.S. citizenship if she makes a formal declaration or takes an oath of allegiance to a foreign state, or votes in a foreign land.

However, under U.S. law, any children born of the marriage of Grace and the Prince could be presumed to have dual citizenship, up to the age of 25.

This is the provision which apparently has French officials worried.

They say France should have a clear understanding with Monaco beforehand on the question of citizenship for its future princess.

Officials recalled that as a general rule, a woman marrying a reigning monarch or a prince of another nationality automatically took her husband's nationality, without any claim to retaining her former nationality.

Do-It-Yourself Craze Reaches Underworld

DENVER (AP)—The do-it-yourself craze has penetrated the underworld.

A Denver burglar entered a key shop early yesterday and took just three items: two code books identifying most known patterns of keys, and a machine with which to manufacture the keys.

Said Gene Crow, the shop manager: "He ought to be able to make keys to fit almost every lock in town."

To File Income Tax

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—Gov. J. Bracken Lee told a group of college journalism students he will file his 1955 income tax return today. That's the return Lee has promised will include no check to cover taxes due. The Republican governor said last fall he will refuse to pay the money in hopes of winning a court test of Congress' right to tax its citizens for foreign aid spending.

A swift pickup in the tourist trade is proving a boon to the Dominican Republic.

Commercial production of benzine from petroleum is now under way in plants in Texas. Benzine is important in the making of nylon, plastic and other synthetic products.

According to President Otto Milldebrandt, the course will be conducted Tuesday evenings, beginning at 6:15 p. m., through March 6. Members of the club will act as instructors.

The Toastmasters, one of 1,800 similar organizations in the U. S., meet weekly to practice public speaking. Meetings take place on the second floor of the YMCA building.

Details about the course are available at FEderal 5-6116.

Hollywood Headlines:

Janet and Tony Will Star in 'The Foolish Immortal'

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — With time on her hands awaiting the stork, Janet Leigh read "The Foolish Immortal," Paul Gallico's novel which was serialized in the Saturday Evening Post.

Janet gave it to Tony Curtis to read and he shared her enthusiasm, so they bought the film rights and will co-star in it as their first independent for the Curtleigh Productions.

The story is unusual. Janet plays a secretary who works for one of the richest women in the world who will spend any amount of money to get her youth back. Tony works for a man who claims to have that coveted recipe.

Tomorrow, Walter Wanger and his wife Joan Bennett leave for New York for two weeks to look at the shows. But before leaving Walter signed a contract with William Dozier to make six pictures for RKO in the next three years. He and his organization move to the RKO lot Feb. 1.

Although Dozier says the first Wanger picture has not yet been determined, Walter has agreed to make "Underworld, U.S.A." late in the year with Lauren Bacall and Humphrey Bogart for Mapleton Productions, which is Bogart's own company. The release will be through RKO.

LOYAL STAND-IN

Broderick Crawford's stand-in, Harry Wilson, swears by him and never will leave him. He's been with Brod for seven years and before that was Wally Beery's stand-in for 20 years.

Just before the holidays, Wilson entered St. John Hospital with the dreadful fear that he was losing his eyesight. When Brod heard about it he sent the best eye specialist available and he also picked up the hospital and nursing bills.

Now Wilson, his sight okay, is again with Crawford in "The Fastest Gun Alive" at MGM, and very grateful this new year to Brod—the man he believes gave him back his eyesight.

The first time Ann Fielder, wardrobe mistress at 20th Century-Fox, saw Patricia La Flan, she gave a big gasp. "She looks exactly like Gertrude Lawrence did at her age," said Miss Fielder, who was an old friend of Gertrude's and knew her in London.

"Do you think Miss La Flan could play Gertrude Lawrence in the Richard Aldrich biography?" I asked Miss Fielder when I talked with her on the set.

"I certainly think she could. She has Gertrude's marvelous spirit and spontaneity, and her personality is more like that of Miss Lawrence than anyone I've ever met."

Might be worth Aldrich's attention.

LETTER FROM PATTI

Such a nice letter from Patti Page. She writes from Minneapolis, where she's been appearing with an automibile show. She says it's really cold back in Minnesota.

Patti will be out here before long, and I happen to know that her marriage to Charles O'Curran is not off. I spent a lot of time with them over the New Year and they're deeply in love.

Both are busy career people, and Patti has so many engagements, and she doesn't want to marry until she's free to take a honeymoon.

Mutual Hikes Its Age for Retirement to 68

NEWARK, N. J. (AP) — Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Co. today boosted its mandatory retirement age for home office employes from 65 to 68.

The company said it was making the change because the increasing longevity of workers everywhere made 65 obsolete as a retirement age.

"Age 65 is outmoded as an inflexible retirement age. Our research in this area showed definitely that the trend is toward advancing retirement, a trend that is supported equally by management and the worker, as well as by organized labor.

"We are taking this step because we feel good management dictates an enlightened use of productive manpower in our company."

The first state insurance department in the United States was established by law in Massachusetts in 1855.

Grain Demand Grows Active

CHICAGO (AP)—An active demand developed for grains, particularly wheat and soybeans, on the Board of Trade today. Feed grains hesitated at the start and then inched upward with the market leaders.

It was a broad market with plenty of grain offered for sale on the way up. This limited gains to around a cent. A large Eastern commission house bought wheat while soybeans were purchased mainly by a house with headquarters at Minneapolis.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was ½ to 1 cent higher, March $2.11⅝; corn ⅛ to ½ higher, March $1.30⅛; oats unchanged to ¼ higher, March 65¼; rye ¼ to ¾ higher, March $1.24; soybeans ⅝ to 2 cents higher, January $2.43½, and lard 10 to 25 cents a hundred pounds higher, January $10.90.

Rails, Chemicals Brace Market

NEW YORK (AP)—Railroads and chemicals provided the main brace for the stock market today with prices slightly higher in the early afternoon.

* * *

The better gains ran to between 1 and 2 points. There were frequent losses, but they seldom went to as much as a point.

Trading wasn't very active at any time. It maintained a pace somewhat less than the 2,330,000 shares traded yesterday in a higher market.

* * *

Motors were fairly steady, although they subsided from their best. Both Chrysler and General Motors announced layoffs at some plants as a result of production cutbacks.

The market this week was lower in its first two sessions and higher in the next two.

* * *

Today it started higher in moderate trading and by noon the Associated Press average of 60 stocks was up 50 cents at $178.80. Yesterday the average gained $1.10.

There were few large blocks on the tape today. National Steel traded 98,800 shares at 67 off 1.

* * *

Howard Stores dropped back a fraction after directors cut the dividend payment to 25 cents from 37½ cents paid in previous quarters.

Reynolds Tobacco "B" was down on a few sales as directors declared the regular quarterly dividend of 70 cents.

Warner Lambert was up slightly on news of its plans to merge with Emerson Drug Co., traded over the counter.

Ford to Announce Stock Price Tuesday

NEW YORK (AP)—Announcement of the price at which 10,200,000 shares of Ford Motor Co. stock will be sold is expected Tuesday.

The seven investment firms which will co-manage the hugs offering are expected to set the price Monday in consultation with the Ford Foundation. The foundation is selling the shares.

Contracts will be signed Tuesday with the more than 700 firms which will take part in the underwriting. The signing will take place at the offices of Blyth & Co., chief underwriter.

A rapid oversubscription is expected when the shares are offered to the public Jan. 19. Brokers say the price should range between $60 and $70.

NEWEST CORVETTE—A completely re-styled body and features that range from a power-operated top to the most powerful engine ever built by Chevrolet have been announced for the latest Corvette sport car. Like the model which Chevrolet pioneered in 1953, the smart two-passenger body is built of reinforced glass fiber plastic. An optional removable top can turn the open car into a snug closed model. Also available is the floor-mounted manual shift for those who prefer this type of transmission to the automatic powerglide. Power plant is a V8 225 horsepower engine.

Board OKs Ford Listing of Stock

Exchange in New York to Get Only 10,847,100 Initial Trading Shares

NEW YORK (AP) — The listing of Ford Motor Co. common shares on the New York Stock Exchange has been authorized by the Board of Governors.

Exchange President Keith Funston said yesterday the governors authorized the listing of 56,689,970 shares of Ford stock of $5 par value, but only 10,847,100 shares will be eligible for trading on the exchange initially.

Of the 10,847,100 figure, 10,200,000 shares will be offered to the public next Wednesday. Fifteen thousand shares are treasury stock and 632,100 shares are held by directors, officers and employes of the company other than members of the Ford family.

The company filed with SEC a revised prospectus covering the public issue of 10,200,000 shares of stock owned by the Ford Foundation Inc.

The prospectus disclosed that the Ford Co. plans to invest about 250 million dollars within the next few years in the introduction of a new passenger car.

It also revealed that the production schedule for Fords has been reduced to eliminate substantially all overtime in assembly operations this month, while the schedule for Mercuries has been cut so that some operations are planned at less than straight-time capacity. The Lincoln schedule has been increased.

Another disclosure in the new prospectus was that the Ford Foundation will have expenses totaling about $1,910,000 in connection with the public offering.

The amendment gave no further clue as to the price at which the stock will be offered. The company has paid a registration fee which would permit a price of up to $75 a share.

American Motors Elects Treasurer to Veep Post

The election of Treasurer Roy D. Chapin Jr. to a vice presidency in the American Motors Corp. was announced yesterday by President George Romney. He was also appointed to the firm's policy committee.

Treasurer since May of last year, Chapin was an official of the Hudson Motor Car Co. when the company merged with Nash-Kelvinator in 1954. He then became a director and assistant treasurer of the new firm.

He is the son of one of Hudson's founders.

$2,000 Damage Caused in Frame House Fire

About $2,000 damage was caused by fire yesterday in a two-story frame house at 73 Stout St. firemen said.

Probable cause of the blaze was children playing with matches in the basement of the dwelling, they said. Owner of the home, Frances Tierman, said loss to the building was covered by insurance.

Predict Rise in Output

DETROIT (AP)—Motor vehicle output this week should come to 153,181 cars and 25,955 trucks, Automotive News said yesterday. This will compare with 125,253 cars and 19,226 trucks last week, when holidays held down schedules.

The trade paper notes that this week's indicated volume of cars is only slightly below the total of the comparable 1955 week. It reported also that average weekly car output last year was 152,732 cars.

Cars Crash at Corner

A driver who admittedly failed to yield the right of way at the corner of Michigan Ave. and Shelby St. yesterday was treated for minor injuries and released from Pontiac General Hospital.

Mervel P. Minnich, 43, of 124 N. Shirley St., suffered only a stiff neck, authorities said.

The other driver, Loren D. Hines, 56, of 754 Mt. Clemens St., was uninjured, according to Pontiac police.

E. L. SPARROW

H. M. WOODWORTH

Two Named to Top Posts in Ford Tractor Division

The appointments of E. L. Sparrow, of Berkley, and H. M. Woodworth, of Huntington Woods, to top posts in the management structure of the Ford Tractor and Implement Division have been announced by officials of the Birmingham plant.

Sparrow's promotion to maanger of the parts and accessories department was disclosed by David Meeker, assistant general sales manager of product sales and service.

Woodworth succeeds Sparrow as manager of the sales training department, according to W. T. Murphy, assistant general sales manager in charge of advertising, sales promotion and training.

Sparrow joined Ford in 1953 as manager of the sales training department after four years with the Dearborn Motors Corp., former marketing organization for the Ford tractor.

He became manager of the firm's education department in 1950.

A graduate of Ohio State University, Sparrow lives at 3978 Kenmore Rd., is married and the father of a daughter.

Before his appointment, Woodworth spent more than a year as supervisor of sales methods training. He joined the Dearborn Motors Corp. in 1947 as supervisor of service training and publications, becoming in 1950 supervisor of product training.

Woodworth was training manager for a Memphis, Tenn., Ford tractor and implement distributor between 1952 and Sept. 1954.

Married and the father of four children, he lives at 13309 Lincoln.

Layoff at Chrysler Cuts 1,000 Workers

DETROIT (AP)—Chrysler Corp., will lay off an additional 1,000 employes at two Detroit plants today.

The company announced the layoff's last night in connection with a 10 per cent production cutback planned to begin Monday in Kercheval and Jefferson plants of the corporation's Chrysler division.

Chrysler said the cutback was being made to maintain a balance between passenger car production and market demands.

Chrysler previously laid off 1,400 workders in its automotive body division and announced its Plymouth division operations were being cutback from an overtime to an 8-hour daily schedule.

Ford and General Motors, other members of the industry's "Big Three," also have announced some production cutbacks for 1956 models.

Chrysler's Jefferson and Kercheval plants employ a total of 10,500 hourly rated workers. Detroit has 130,000 of the company's nationwide force of 160,000 workers.

An 'F' Means Ford on Stock Exchange

NEW YORK (AP)—Ford Motor Co. stock will carry the symbol "F" when it begins trading on the New York Stock Exchange, informed sources said yesterday.

"F" used to be the symbol for Consolidated-Vultee, aircraft maker which was absorbed by Gen. eral Dynamics Corp.

Ford stock is expected to start trading on the "big board" in late February or early March. Until then, the shares to be sold next Wednesday will trade in the unlisted market.

The stock exchange's department of floor procedure decides what symbol a stock will carry. Generally, it tries to use one that bears a relation to the company's name—General Motors is "GM."

The selection of a single letter indicates that Ford stock is expected to be heavily traded. Less active shares usually have two or three letters.

The first auto to be equipped with the radio will be the Chevrolet Corvette, scheduled for introduction later this winter.

Taylor Says Missiles to Replace Canal's Guns

BALBOA, C. Z. (AP)—Gen. Maxwell Taylor, U. S. Army chief of staff, says antiaircraft artillery defenses in the Panama Canal Zone undoubtedly will be replaced entirely by guided missiles.

Taylor arrived here yesterday for a two-day meeting with the chiefs of U. S. military missions to 12 Latin-American countries.

He told reporters that in due course guided missile defense systems will be set up for any sensitive spot, such as the Canal Zone.

There are about 1,600,000 mentally deficient children in the U.S.

Long Popularity Surprises Daly

No One Expected Quiz to Last When It Began Six Years Ago

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS)—Not long ago a cab driver informed me, a catch in his voice, "Sometimes I wisht I was a chicken plucker."

* * *

This was scarcely unusual, as New York cabbies always wisht they was something they ain't. But there was a fervency about this one, so I said, "Why?"

"'Cause I'd like to get on that show, 'What's My Line?'"

Whether he knew it or not, this frustrated televiewer was speaking for millions of Americans who have made the easygoing Sunday night show, in which a panel guesses the profession of an assortment of guests, a favorite for a remarkable run of six years.

There is a sameness about each 'What's my Line?" program (only the gorilla hunters and pickle packers are changed), and yet week after week, year after year, it's one of the top shows.

* * *

"It still surprises me," admitted its moderator, John Daly, looking—as usual—like a bright, well-scrubbed Eton lad who is happy over something.

JUST A NOVELTY

'When we put it on the first time, none of us expected it to last. Just a novelty—13 weeks, maybe. And now, after 19 years as a broadcaster, here I am with more of a reputation for playing a bloody parlor game on Sunday nights."

About two years ago Daly began to figure, in earnest, that the show had about run its course as a TV format.

Then the ratings perversely picked up and, to Daly's delight, the last Trendex showed the lovable old show was in fourth position. Daly's given it a lot of thought and comes out with two secrets for its success.

"First," he says, "Its principal virtue is simplicity. Second, the viewer has two ways to enjoy it if he wants—he can elect to try the game himself, and see if he gets the profession of the guest before the panelists do, or he can just sit back and get a vicarious pleasure out of seeing intelligent people knock their brains out."

* * *

Of the more than 1,000 guests on past shows—in such obscure professions as Columbia River fish-counting and whistling teakettle-testing—the panel of four experts has succeeded in guessing 75 per cent correctly.

As for the 'mystery guests" (a celebrity who appears before the panel members while they are blindfolded), the record is almost 100 per cent corpect guesses.

REAL ATTITUDE

Although John Daly has been accused by fans' letters both of "giving too many hints" and of "being too tough" toward the experts—his real attitude as the moderator is this:

* * *

"I like to think that they won't guess the profession of the guest. But something inside me always tells me that they will.

"They're sharp."

Probably one of the greatest charms of "What's My Line" is that its participants are all successful in their occupations. This is a sideline, and they can all relax.

Daly, for instance, is a vice president in charge of TV news, public affairs, special events "and so on" for the American Broadcasting Co.

As he puts it:

"Salaried. Deal in services."

There are 30,000 diseases which menace U.S. farm crops.

Tars Have New Ailment — It's She-Sickness

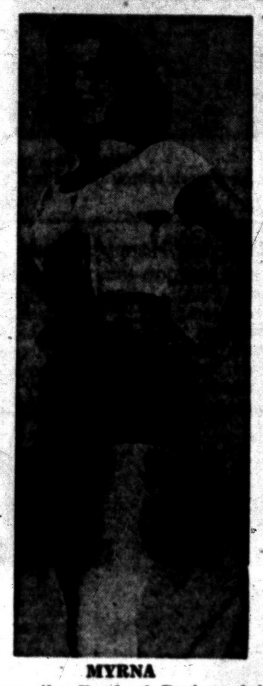

By EARL WILSON

AMERICA LAUGHS! . . .

"I remember," sighed a fortyish B'wayite, "when I thought anybody 25 was terribly old" . . . "Georgie Jessel," retorted Eddie Cantor, "still thinks so!"

Myrna Hansen, the ex-Miss United States, now in TV, is one of those girls, who might be a stuffed shirt but on her it looks good . . . Sailors are reporting a serious new disease: she-sickness.

MYRNA

Gene Tunney tripped over his walking cane Monday, fell, and split his head open. An old-timer who remembered the Jack Dempsey fight wanted to ask him, "Did you take a count of 14?"

"If I was alive tonight," claimed Comic Joe E. Lewis in a recent Chicago show, "I'd be a mighty sick man" . . . Hollywoodians, claims Skinny Johnson, are people who decline luncheon cocktails 'cause they might keep 'em awake all afternoon . . . In St. Louis a drop-in guest said to the host, "I hope we haven't kept you up past your bedtime." Yawned the host: "Oh, we'd have to be getting up pretty soon anyway."

It's so cold in Miami, Bernie Kamber flashes me, that the papers quit calling the weather "unusual" and refer to it as "freakish" . . . "The honeymoon's over when the wife doesn't care what dress she wears but how long it will," says the Bard of Boston, Art Moger . . . A Kansas paper reports that a woman shopping for a pair of shoes couldn't find a fit, but the clerk had one.

Pay-as-You-Steal Plan Set Up for Youngsters

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—A new pay-as-you-steal plan for thieving youngsters has been worked out in juvenile court.

He started his new policy by ordering two 15-year-olds to begin work to earn $108—the value of loot they took from a school break-in.

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — While actor Kirk Douglas, his wife and baby were vacationing in Palm Springs, burglars ransacked their home here of clothing, jewelry and even food. Value of the loot was not immediately determined.
