Pioneer Moon Rocket Plunges to Fiery Death

End to Strike Nearing at GMC Truck, Coach

An end to the 12-day strike at GMC Truck & Coach Division neared today after company and union negotiators announced agreement on the terms of a three-year pact.

UAW local 594 membership will be asked to ratify the local seniority agreement and the national GM contract at a 6 p.m. meeting today in Pontiac Central High School auditorium, said Andrew Wilson, local president.

With ratification, it was believed that production at the plant could be back to normal by Wednesday. Maintenance crews were to return to work today in anticipation of a favorable vote tonight.

This morning's agreement came at about 4 a.m. at the end of a marathon 19-hour negotiating session. Details were to be spelled out to the local tonight.

A company official said that agreement was also reached on local wages, grievances and working conditions.

Maintenance workers were ordered to report back today on afternoon and night shifts, the company said; tool division, material handling, and parts and warehousing personnel were ordered to report on regular shifts tomorrow; and all other employes were ordered back Wednesday.

Truck & Coach has been idle since Oct. 2, when about 5,000 workers walked off the job in compliance with the national General Motors Corp. strike deadline. Although a national settlement was reached 12 hours later, the strike continued here over local issues.

Still unsettled were similar strikes at Pontiac Motor and Fisher Body divisions. Negotiations continued today but no breaks were reported.

Shiny New Pontiacs Well Received Here

Youngsters, oldsters, teenagers—just about everyone from housewives to the factory workers who help produce it—seem to think that the new 1959 Pontiac automobile is tops.

It was hard in a way for some folks to find words sufficient to express their praise. Pontiac Motor Division's latest styling and modeling effects have a visual beauty that's difficult to express verbally.

"It's trim and sleek, really a nice looking car" said C. E. Irwin, a mailman of 3037 Margaret St, Auburn Hgts.

IRWIN

"It's probably the best looking Pontiac I've seen yet with the best lines. I think they did a good job at the plant this year."

Irwin, whose job requires him to do a lot of walking inspected the new automobile and wished he could work one into his daily delivery schedule.

BUCHANAN

Tom was especially enthusiastic about the dramatic front-end styling, which has distinctive touches that set the car off from other 1959 automobiles.

"The grill and design are really out of this world. It looks as if the car could fly."

Mrs. Claude Childress, a housewife of 88 W. Longfellow, was enthusiastic about the automobile's appearance, but, practical minded, she noticed also that the interior was "big and roomy.

"I also like the bigger windshield this year. It gives better vision."

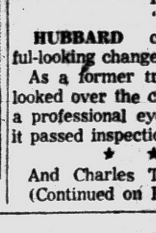

Mrs. Childress

Her daughter Regina, 9, fell in love with the new Pontiac easily. "Mama, look at the grill!" she exclaimed.

★ ★ ★

A Pontiac Motor Division machinist, John C. Landon, 135 Dwight St., had seen the new car in motion on the factory grounds.

LANDON

"I work at Pontiac myself and maybe I shouldn't be bragging, but this is a beautiful car all right. The nicest 1959 there is," Landon said.

She liked the split effect in the center of the grill, and thought that the whole car was "very, very pretty."

MISS PRIEST

Miss Priest also praised the wraparound rear window. "How well you can see out of it," she said.

★ ★ ★

A retired Pontiac Motor Division trimmer, Charles A. Hubbard, 2681 Sylvan Shores Dr., has seen a lot of progress in the automotive world since 1904, the year he first worked on a General Motors Corp. car.

HUBBARD

But he noticed that with this year's model, Pontiac has made "Some big changes, wonderful-looking changes."

As a former trimmer, Hubbard looked over the car's interior with a professional eye and announced it passed inspection "very nicely."

9,000 Return to Jobs After 4 Weekend Pacts; Oct. 20 Is Deadline

DETROIT (AP)—More than 100 continuing General Motors local strikes kept a brake on new 1959 car production today.

With GM, largest of the car makers, producing few cars, the industry's Big Three remained at subpar over-all performance despite national contract agreements with the United Auto Workers.

Four local-level agreements returned about 9,000 General Motors employes to the job over the weekend.

But with only about 44,000 of its 275,000 production workers available, GM stayed down insofar as production was concerned. Only 16 of the 126 plants in the GM nationwide operation were active.

Chrysler's situation eased with settlement of walkouts in Detroit and Evansville, Ind., affecting more than 9,000 men. However, there were still approximately 8,500 idle in Detroit and at the key stamping plant in Twinsburg, Ohio.

★ ★ ★

Only Ford was without a strike to interfere with new car production.

GM's local disputes date back to the general GM strike 12 hours before the national contract was arrived at Oct. 2.

While agreeing to the new auto industry wage pattern of an estimated 24 to 30 cents an hour increase over three years, the UAW authorized its GM locals to stay on strike until they local settled issues.

GM settlements Sunday were at a Chevrolet plant in Detroit and a diesel factory in Grand Rapids, together employing about 8,000 men.

In addition to the Chevrolet and diesel settlements, GM said operations resumed at the Oldsmobile Forge plant in Lansing and the Fabricast Division in Jones Mill, Ark. A total of 600 workers is involved.

The company said only membership ratification is needed to reopen other plants in Saginaw, Grand Rapids, Grand Blanc, Pontiac, Detroit, Buffalo and Meriden, Conn., where local settlements have been reached.

On the weekend the UAW's policy-making General Motors Council voted to recommend approval of the new three-year agreement by GM locals. The UAW locals of all the Big Three have until Oct. 20 to ratify the agreements.

Stock Quemoy in Cease-Fire

Reds Announce They'll Hold Off Bombardment Another Two Weeks

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — The Chinese Nationalists pushed their restocking of the Quemoys today as Red China stretched its cease-fire from one week to three.

Two LSTs discharged their ammunition and supply cargoes on Quemoy's beach a few hours after Peiping announced that the one-week cease-fire expiring last midnight was being extended for two more weeks.

Quemoy's civilians relaxed. More farmers went to their peanut, sorghum and vegetable fields than at any time since the Communists started their massive artillery siege Aug. 23.

The activity center may now shift to diplomatic talks in Warsaw between Red China and the United States. The eighth meeting of ambassadors is Wednesday.

The Chinese Nationalists hailed the second stage of the cease-fire as another Communist defeat, but were suspicious both of Communist intentions and of the talks in Warsaw.

Sampson Chen, government spokesman, declared "we should not let down our guard" because the Communists probably would use the next two weeks to prepare their next move.

There was speculation that the Nationalists were now prepared to reply with a massive bombardment of their own if the Red Chinese again open up.

During the cease-fire the Nationalists have landed bigger guns on Quemoy — including eight-inch howitzers and 155mm. Long Toms.

Weatherman Is Fair With His Prediction

Fair is the weatherman's forecast for Pontiac and vicinity tonight. The mercury is expected to settle at a comfortable evening low of 53 degrees.

Continued fair is the outlook for Tuesday. The temperature will climb near the 72 degree mark. Mostly fair with a low of 56 is the prediction for tomorrow night.

In downtown Pontiac the lowest temperature recorded preceding 8 a.m. was 49. At 2 p.m. the temperature downtown was 63.

Displays Model of Pioneer

AP Wirephoto

BIG BROTHER — Air Force Lieut. Col. John Powers shows newsmen a scale model brother of the U. S. space rocket Pioneer which failed to reach its destination of orbiting the moon. Pioneer nevertheless traveled farther into space than any known man-made object, before presumably returning to the earth's atmosphere and burning up over the Pacific.

Burns Up Over Pacific to End Record Journey

Air Force Lunar Thrust Goes Up 79,120 Miles Before Fatal Fall

From Our Wire Services

WASHINGTON —America's Pioneer moon rocket apparently crashed like a meteor into the atmosphere over the South Pacific about midnight last night after completing an unprecedented 43-hour exploration of outer space.

The heavily-instrumented rocket, which soared more than a third of the distance to the moon to reach an altitude of 79,120 miles, sent back a constant stream of radio signals until 10:46 p.m. (Pontiac time) last night.

The Air Force announced early today the pioneering space vehicle was assumed to have struck the atmosphere at a speed of nearly 25,000 miles per hour and to have been completely consumed by friction about 15 minutes after its last radio signal was received.

The instrument-laden vehicle didn't make it to the vicinity of the moon. But the Air Force claimed big gains in scientific information from the nearly two-day flight of the rocket.

The Pentagon announced early today that the world's first known moon probe plunged back into the atmosphere at about midnight Sunday.

NO SIGHTINGS REPORTED

Pioneer's final dive was believed to have come at a point over the south Pacific. There were no immediate reports of any visual sightings of the rocket's finish.

The Air Force issued this death notice for the moon missile it launched from Cape Canaveral, Fla., before dawn Saturday:

The 85-pound lunar probe fell short of the hoped-for goal of going into orbit some 50,000 miles from the moon.

But it achieved the deepest penetration yet by a man-made vehicle into the vast universe.

Scientists said it radioed valuable data back to earth on its lonely journey. Among other things the experience of Pioneer indicated that radiation in the outer reaches of space may not be as intense as had been thought.

CLAIMS FIRST

This could have strong bearing on future space flight by man, susceptible to possible radiation poisoning.

AF Eager to Try Again

Plans 3rd Lunar Rocket Soon

INGLEWOOD, Calif. (AP)— The Air Force is eager to try again to rocket an instrument package into orbit around the moon.

The Air Force has been authorized to make three lunar probes. Its first effort failed Aug. 17 when the rocket exploded after only 77 seconds in flight. The Pioneer launching was the second try.

Gen. Schriever, boss of the ballistics missile division, said that as a result of the moon rocket's two-day flight "I feel that manned space travel is something we can look forward to with greater confidence than before."

He also expressed confidence that an orbit around the moon "can be achieved in the not too distant future."

He told newsmen "We're not going to waste any time" in trying another moon shot.

Pioneer, a top-shaped package containing instruments reporting internal temperature, micrometeorite impacts and other data, was hurled into space on a three-stage rocket early last Saturday from Cape Canaveral, Fla.

Literally miles of electronic tape information were recorded by tracking stations in England, Hawaii, Singapore and Florida, said Dr. Ruben F. Mettler, senior advisor on the project. Many weeks must be spent analyzing them before a technical report can be published:

Pioneer has indicated this about radiation, he said: "It appears that at 10,000 miles altitude, radiation begins to diminish. At 60,000 miles it is one sixth what it is at 10,000."

The heavy band of radiation measures two or three roentgens per hour; Mettler said, and "one could not spend more than a few minutes in it unshielded."

★ ★ ★

Pope Solemnly Laid to Rest Near the Tomb of St. Peter

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Reverently the Roman Catholic Church today laid Pius XII to eternal rest near the tomb of St. Peter.

The church's 261st pontiff was consigned to the ages amid a scene of solemn medieval spendor.

While thousands of religious and lay dignitaries looked on in awed silence, the body of the pontiff, encased in a triple casket, was lowered into the crypts beneath the great Basilica of St. Peter.

The campanone, mighty master bell of St. Peter's, tolled the mournful signal to the Eternal City of Rome.

The casket was placed in a niche among the ancient crypts. It was here that Pius XII wanted to "repose in the august silence" near the resting place of St. Peter, whom Roman Catholics regard as the first Pope.

The burial took place in the chapel of Madonna della Bocciata, so called because of a 13th century sepulchre of the Madonna scarred centuries ago by a ball thrown by a Spanish soldier.

Vatican sources said this would not be the final resting place of the Pope. Final burial probably will be in the Grotto of St. Peter whose altar was consecrated by Pope Pius XII during the Holy Year of 1950.

A brilliant afternoon sun streamed through St. Peter's massive dome and cast a crown of light about the altar as the pontifical funeral began. An awed hush enveloped the religious and lay dignitaries present in the basilica, the world's largest church.

Clawson Mother Gives Birth to Quadruplet Girls

DETROIT (UPI) — Quadruplet girls, all born within 14 minutes, were reported doing fine today at the Northwest Branch of Grace Hospital. The mother, Mrs. Julia Ullman, 33, of Clawson, also was reported in excellent condition.

The babies, all of whom weighed four pounds or more, and described as strong and healthy, arrived between 7:41 and 7:55 last night.

They were delivered by Dr. L. H. Spencer, of Royal Oak, who discovered the approaching multiple birth through X rays about a month ago. Mrs. Ullman has two other children, Charles, 2½, and Louise, one.

PACES 2 HOURS

Chester H. Ullman, 34, a carpenter, the father, had taken his wife to the hospital and paced the floor for about two hours before he received the news.

All the infants were placed in an incubator and will remain there until their weight exceeds five pounds. Doctors said that should take between two and three weeks.

Dr. Spencer said the chances of having quads were about one in 750,000.

After Trip Behind Bamboo Curtain, Strohm Finds:

Red China Organized to Work and Hate

By JOHN STROHM

NEW YORK—Communist China is a nation organized to work and to hate.

STROHM

No human beings have ever taken on a more complete mental and physical bondage in order to leap forward into the 20th Century than the subjects of Mao Tse-tung.

Nor has human intelligence ever been brainwashed into a more violent hatred of United States leaders.

I have just traveled 7,500 miles behind the Bamboo Curtain which for 10 years has shielded from American view the massive state that calls itself the People's Republic of China.

At the height of the Quemoy crisis, I have witnessed a hate-America campaign that extends to the most remote peasant village. Was this what the Red Masters of Peiping wanted me to see when they granted me a visa? Or did they accept my statement that I wanted to visit the farms and factories of the New China—the China I had first seen 21 years ago—so I could report to the people of America?

Back home now, I ask myself these questions while sorting out impressions. But the answer is not clear and it may never be.

Enough that it happened that I, John Strohm of Illinois, walked with only minor incidents in the streets, fields and buildings of Red China, snapping pictures with four cameras, talking with whom I chose and visiting schools, farms, hospitals and landmarks without prior appointment.

For three weeks I traveled, by automobile, boat, train and airplane. My days began at dawn, ended at midnight.

Although I saw militiamen training everywhere to repel the U.S. Marines who were expected to storm ashore any day, I do not believe there is danger of full scale war in the Formosa strait.

This backward people has too much to do to hoist its vast expanding bulk upwards toward seemingly impossible social and industrial goals.

It cannot afford war, but in cocky self-confidence it is willing to risk war to infuse an apathetic peasantry with nationalistic pride to drive weary bone and muscle to accomplish prodigious works.

The Communists say over and over that they licked Uncle Sam in Korea. People who know nothing of the power of a modern sea and air fleet chatter loudly and arrogantly that America is a "paper tiger."

As one who traveled among the Chinese people 21 years ago I must report sadly that our once vast reservoir of goodwill built up in China by generations of good deeds by U.S. citizens and organizations is now being poisoned by a campaign unequaled in the history of the world.

Classes This Week Prepare Volunteers for Oct. 21 Drive

UF Solicitors to Begin Training

A series of training sessions for more than 2,000 UF solicitors highlights the final week of preparation for this year's Pontiac Area United Fund campaign.

On Oct. 21 the volunteer workers will begin making their calls for this year's Tenth Anniversary Appeal.

In order to insure a successful solicitation, the UF has scheduled a series of seven training sessions, beginning today with an afternoon meeting at the Community Activities Inc. Building in Waterford.

Today's session is the first of four to be held for the Women's Division workers. Women who will work in UF areas 1 and 2 in Waterford Township are scheduled to attend.

Additional Women's Division sessions will be held tomorrow, Wednesday and Thursday. The latter two will be held at the new Community Services Building on Franklin Blvd., for Pontiac solicitors.

★ ★ ★

Training for Commercial Division workers will be offered Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday mornings at the Waldron Hotel. E. W. McGovern, volunteer training chairman from GMC Truck & Coach Division will conduct all seven sessions.

An explanation of the 55 UF agencies and the services they render will supplement the demonstration of proper solicitation techniques.

Agency representatives and Karl W. Bradley, executive director of the fund, or a member of his staff will be on hand to answer any questions dealing with administration or agency service.

"We cannot overemphasize the importance of having each volunteer worker attend these meetings," stated Bradley. "It's a lot easier to do a good job when you know your product."

The meetings will offer the only opportunity for workers to pick up their tickets for next Monday's Gala Kickoff Show to be held 8:30 in the evening at Pontiac Central High School. Vocalist Fred Kendall and Miss Paddy Beach, female magician, will headline a star-studded show.

Flint Mourns Journal Editor

Newspaperman Suffers Fatal Hemorrhage at Ann Arbor Saturday

Gorman, 66, suffered a fatal cerebral hemorrhage while in Ann Arbor for two of his many interests — a University Press Club of Michigan meeting and the Michigan-Navy football game.

Funeral service will be held at 10 a.m. tomorrow in St. Matthew Roman Catholic Church in Flint. Bishop Joseph Albers of the Lansing diocese will sing a Pontifical Requiem Mass. Burial will be in the Gorman family plot at Mt. Olivet Cemetery in Saginaw.

Tributes and messages of condolence from people in all walks of life poured in for Gorman, who numbered his friends from former General Motors President Harlow Curtice to printers in the newspaper's back shop.

Tributes and condolences poured in from people in all walks of life. Among them were Vice President Nixon, Postmaster General Summerfield and Army Secretary Brucker; Thomas E. Dewey; Labor Secretary Mitchell; J. Edgar Hoover, and leaders of business and industry who were Gorman's friends.

He had served the Flint Journal as editor since 1928 after starting his newspaper career at the age of 18 on the old Saginaw Courier Herald.

Gorman never went to college, but he adopted the University of Michigan as his alma mater. In 1954 U. of M gave him an honorary Master of Arts degree. He had been made an honorary U. of M. alumnus in 1936.

Gorman was a strong force in the Flint college and cultural development drive. He served as chairman of a campaign committee which raised $20,000,000 for civic improvements.

Gorman also was a former director of the Associated Press Managing Editors Assn., a director of the American Society of Newspaper Editors and member of the National Boy Scout Council. He was a director of the Community Chest and the Red Cross in Flint.

To Discuss Plans for Gift of Land

A discussion of a possible long-range plan for development of land donated to Waterford Township will be one of the main topics when the township board meets at 7:30 p.m. tonight.

A narrow strip of land one mile long was donated by the Dodge family estate last year for recreational purposes and is located on Elizabeth Lake Rd. near Pontiac Lake Rd. The ten acres of heavily wooded property was formerly used as a CCC camp.

A request from recreational director Tom Belton for additional land for expansion of activities in the township will be considered, according to Clerk James Steerlin.

Action will be taken by the board on a request for final approval on the Furler-Cresthaven development plat located on Cooley Rd. near Elizabeth Lake Rd.

Pope Solemnly Laid to Rest

tolled slowly and mournfully as the time for the funeral service came. In the immediate area of St. Peter's Square, life came to a standstill.

A crowd estimated at 50,000 waited outside.

The throne bearers who carried the pontiff in life slowly bore the body on their shoulders toward the altar.

The ceremonies began precisely at 4 p.m. with a slow procession of the parish priests of Rome toward the Altar of the Confession. Behind them walked uniformed members of the papal household.

The dignitaries took up their positions in a great circle surrounding the catafalque which supported the body of Roman Catholicism's 261st pope.

Giant Swiss Guards in high-crowned helmets knelt reverently as the body passed.

Msgr. Enrico Dante, prefect of Vatican ceremonies, based the rites on a Vatican manuscript written in 1829 and followed since that time.

Msgr. Acanisius van Lierde, the sacristan to Pope XII and vicar for Vatican City, conducted the services. He was appointed by the archpriest of St. Peter's Federico Cardinal Tedeschini to bless the papal coffin.

He wore a black surplice. Attendants removed a white miter, and he began to chant the "Kyrie" before giving absolution to the remains. He sprinkled the bier slowly with holy water, and intoned in Latin: "And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil."

The celebrant then read a special "oremus" (let us pray) reserved for papal masses and then pronounced the blessing.

Now the body was wrapped in a red shroud and placed in the red-lined cypress coffin.

The choir again sang an ancient chant. The cardinals arose from their thrones. With Eugene Cardinal Tisserant, white-bearded dean of the college, at their head, they filed by the body. Each knelt and prayed before the coffin.

Some of the white-haired princes of the church had to be assisted to walk past the coffin. Francis Cardinal Spellman of New York appeared deeply grieved.

A blanket of red was drawn reverently over the pope's body and a white scarf placed over his face by two of the cardinals. Over this was placed another red silk shroud, tenderly tucked about the body by the assistants.

The celebrant intoned the Pater Noster once again. In Latin he consigned the pontiff's remains to eternal rest:

The words reverberated through the great basilica as he intoned: "We implore thee, O God, to have pity on this, thy servant."

Msgr. Nicolo Metta, chosen today by the cardinals for the task read in Latin the accomplishments of the pontiff's reign.

The script was intended as an historical legacy to future generations.

The script also described a bag of coins placed in the coffin, replicas of every coin and medal struck during the reign of Pius XII. On some distant day these will identify the remains if there is no other way.

Msgr. Antonio Bacci, the Vatican's secretary of leters to princes, read the eulogy. He recalled the frightening days of war and ruin and the "ray of light" Pius' election as Pope had brought to a frightened Catholic world.

Several cardinals wiped away tears.

The eulogy ended, the scroll and eulogy text were placed in the inner coffin of cypress, and it was sealed by members of the papal household.

The Pioneer, by penetrating into space more than 30 times farther than the highest known previous flight, gave the United States a potent new achievement to stack up against Russia's admittedly enormous satellite accomplishments, and thus further recoup this country's weakened prestige as a world science leader.

It also offered the Republicans some timely ammunition to counter Democratic campaign claims that the Eisenhower administration let this country fall behind Russia in space-scientific achievements.

Chinese officials assert that 300 million Chinese have demonstrated against American imperialism. From all I saw, I believe that figure.

Day after day newspapers devote 60 per cent of their space to stories bannered under headings like these: "Cairo Newspaper Refutes Dulles Policy," "New American Atrocities Uncovered in Korea," and "Demobilized Veterans Offer Services to Resist U.S. Aggression."

In factories, on trains, on farms and in the streets, loudspeakers constantly blared that the U.S. was talking peace at Warsaw while plotting war. And then the "commercial:" "Therefore we must work harder to produce more food, more goods, to stop the American attack."

Maj. Gen. Bernard A. Schriver, chief of the Air Force Ballistic Missile Division, said, "These measurements will be of great assistance in improving instruments for future space and lunar probes and for putting man into space."

Schriever, who has over-all responsibility for the Air Force moon rocket program, spoke at Inglewood, Calif., where the Air Force has been digesting worldwide tracking reports on Pioneer.

★ ★ ★

At the same time, Schriever claimed the rocket's 79,120-mile altitude mark is more than 27 times greater than any ever before achieved. The Air Force said this permitted the first direct measurements of the earth's magnetic field up to that height.

★ ★ ★

Rash of House Burglaries Investigated by Police

BIRMINGHAM — Police in Birmingham and Westwood Village are investigating a rash of house burglaries during the past week in which valuable fur pieces and coats were stolen.

Birmingham Detective Lt. Merlin Holmquist and Sgt. John Reed of Westwood said they believe the thefts are the work of the same person or persons.

Two of the Birmingham burglaries took place over the weekend. Sometime Friday or Saturday, a full-length mink coat, valued at $3,500, was taken from the home of George H. Bernheisel, 996 Poppleton Rd. A three-quarter length fur coat and a portable sewing machine also were discovered missing by the family when they returned home.

The home of Donald Brumke, 927 Abbey Rd., Birmingham, was ransacked during the family's absence over the weekend. It wasn't determined yet what is missing, police said.

A valuable mink scarf and stole, $100 worth of costume jewelry and $350 in coin and currency were taken early Saturday from the Westwood home of Mrs. Helen Krehling, 32035 Beverly Circle, according to Westwood Police.

Burglars last week took $3,000 in clothing, jewelry and other items from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Halstead, 1452 Dorchester Rd. Among the items missing were a $2,200 mink stole and $750 worth of silverware.

In each instance entry was gained by cutting the screen in the rear door of the house and breaking glass in the other door, police said.

Several suggested changes will be received by Birmingham city commissioners tonight on the city's open lot parking ordinance. They involve lots operated by business establishments without charge for customers.

Sub-surface drains for lots under 5,000 square feet also would be eliminated, according to Gare's recommendations. Larger lots, however, would still be subject to the requirement.

All lot plans should be approved by the city building inspector, Gare suggested.

Sixty-nine open lots presently are being operated in the city, according to a recent survey. Three more are under construction. Of this number, 50 have been paved and 40 drained.

Ten of the 11 property owners involved in the Brookside alley paving district have signed a petition asking that paving cost be equally divided.

Commissioners also will hold three hearings on requested zoning changes.

The city of Troy again has asked for water and sewage services for the development of 11 lots just north of the city limits. The single family development is planned by the Astron Co. of Oak Park.

An increase of almost $4,000 in auto property damages was noted in the September accident report of Police Ralph W. Moxley.

Accident damages jumped from $6,875 in August to $10,369 in September, Moxley reported.

Eight persons were injured, compared to five the previous month.

The Parent-Teacher organization of Vaughn Elementary School in Bloomfield Hills will hold a teachers reception at 8 this evening at the school.

A panel discussion will be presented by the visiting instructors at the school, moderated by Mrs. Katherine Flint. Each will discuss her subject.

Polio Epidemic Hits Four More

568 Cases in Detroit, With Nineteen Deaths for Year So Far

DETROIT (AP) — Detroit's polio epidemic resulted in four new cases yesterday, bringing the total for the year to 568.

At that date last year there were 175 cases of the disease.

The 19 deaths this year compare to two at the corresponding date in 1957.

As the city and Wayne County environs pressed on with mass inoculation programs, health authorities reported on their case evaluations and the effect of Salk vaccine.

Dr. Joseph G. Molner, city health commissioner, emphasized there are limitations to the vaccine's effectiveness.

"Nobody ever has claimed Salk vaccine will prevent polio," Dr. Molner said. "It was intended to eliminate paralytic polio. We have found this true about 90 per cent of the time."

Of Detroit's 561 evaluated cases so far 262 were paralytic and 299 non-paralytic.

Among these 245 had taken Salk vaccine. Of this group 65 got paralytic polio. The other 180 were non-paralytic.

The inoculated paralytic patients included 35 who had had one injection of the vaccine, 21 who had two injections and nine who had three shots. The 21 included one person who died.

The 180 non-paralytic cases included 28 persons who had one shot, 50 had two shots, 94 who had three, and eight who had four shots.

Capture Important Town in Sumatra

JAKARTA (AP) — Government troops have captured the important highway town of Muarabungo, in Central Sumatra, from the rebels, the army information chief announced today.

The announcement was the first indication that Muaranbunge, on the main highway link between the former rebel-held city of Padang on the west coast, and Palembang, in South Sumatra, had been in the hands of the rebels.

The spokesman, Maj. Harsono, said the town was taken Friday and the rebels fled in disorder. He said he had no further details.

Bulgaria, the Balkan republic, has less than half its 42,796 square miles under cultivation. However, one-third of the country is in forests.

Objects to Bond Issue

DETROIT (AP) — The Citizens Research Council of Michigan has added its objection to a Port of Detroit bond issue on the November election ballot in Wayne County. Like the Greater Detroit Board of Commerce which also opposes the project, the council said private terminal operators should build port facilities rather than use public tax funds.

New Zealand is encouraging farmers to grow more wheat. The idea is to grow more wheat domestically and thereby conserve foreign exchange reserves by importing less.

Bob Considine Says:

An American Pope Is Out of the Question

ROME — What has the Roman Catholic Church against American cardinals when it comes to the question of electing a new pope?

Well, it is a long and not readily comprehended story, at least not readily comprehended by American Catholics and non-Catholics.

In the first place there have never been enough American cardinals to constitute any substantial voting bloc within the Sacred College—presently composed of 55 cardinals. This is the electoral college of the ancient Church, the pios—equivalent at election time to the "smoke filled room" of lay politics.

It might thus be said in paraphrase that the three current American cardinals, though constitutionally eligible for elevation to the papacy during the conclave that begins Oct. 25, will lose out in an "incense-filled room."

There are now 18 Italian cardinals. Those in their late seventies, their eighties and even nineties still think of the United States as a mission country—not quite tamed.

They recall that it did not seem really important for the 1914 conclave that elected Benedict XV to await the arrival of Cardinal Gibbons of Baltimore. Cardinal O'Connell of Boston was similarly treated in 1922 when Pius XI succeeded.

His indignant protest to the new Pope resulted in an extension of the time allowed to cardinals to reach Rome after the death of a pontiff.

When the American armies rolled into Rome during the war, correspondent Reynolds Packard created something of a furore in Vatican circles with an interview in the Italian papers which asked in effect:

"When are you fellows going to wise up and elect an American pope? Are you ever going to be democratic? Are you ever going to realize that the United States has the strongest and most devout Catholics in the whole Church?"

The Vatican saw fit to answer unofficially. A "source" let it be known that the admiration for the American Catholic Church was enormous and the gratitude for what it had done for Italy during the war colossal. But it went on to say that it would be hard to believe that an American could lay aside his nationalism, his inherent patriotism, his heritage, as Italian popes have found it comparatively easy to do for generations. An American pope would be "too powerful" and "too strong."

That feeling still exists.

The old Italian cardinals were raised in a slow-moving Vatican and fear placing its destiny in a product of a country that skyrocketed to world leadership while ancient and cultured Italy took a brief siesta.

They have visions of an executive type pope, a tycoon pope, ready and eager to touch the button that starts the IBM "electric brain" he installed in the Sistine Chapel.

Anyway, there will be no serious consideration of an American pope until a new consistory adds to the present trio of cardinal princes the names of such men as Cushing of Boston, Mitty of San Francisco and Fulton Sheen. That would at least raise the U. S. to the stature of France, which is the second biggest voting bloc with six cardinals.

Divorced Couple to Try Again, Plan Wedding

SPRINGVILLE, Utah, (AP) — When Mr. and Mrs. Victor Greenlee announced their wedding last week, it was a familiar experience. They first were married in their native Oklahoma 46 years ago, but after 13 years and three children, they were divorced.

Corral Religious Strays on 'Western Sunday'

DALLAS (AP) — "Western Sunday" concluded a weeklong roundup of religious strays at the Hampton Place Church of God.

Members of the congregation, clad in cowboy garb, heard the Rev. C. C. Funk preach his morning sermon as usual. Then they adjourned to a city park for a big picnic.

Mrs. W. W. Stogner claimed an $11 bill—11 ones pasted together—as her prize for roping the biggest number of wayward worshipers. She gave it back to the church.

Quick Measuring Trick

There is an easier way of measuring shortening than packing it into a measuring cup. If you need ½ cup of shortening, fill a 1 cup measuring utensil with ½ cup of cold water; then drop in enough shortening to bring the water up to the 1 cup measurement. Pour out the water, and you're all set.

Regional Development Will Benefit the World

The World Bank's governors now meeting in New Delhi, are discussing among other matters the establishment of an International Development Corporation.

This organization would make long term, no-interest loans repayable in part in local currencies. Another economic development agency, the United National Special Projects Fund, is to begin operations the first of next year, says Editorial Research Reports. Its long term aim will be to promote large scale development projects. Both plans have found favor in Washington.

In the past the United States has had full control of its development aid abroad. Official policy insisted on repayment in scarce dollars which caused difficulties in countries whose own funds were "soft" currencies. For these reasons many Latin American nations felt they had no control over loans to themselves.

The United States is reported to be ready to advance $100 million for development in the Middle East and South America. The U.S. Special Projects Fund will have $100 million to loan in 1959, of which $38 million is pledged by this country.

Many of the projects will directly benefit only the countries in which they are located. Some of those being considered, however, have regional scope, such as the Jordan River Valley, the Nile Dam, the Indus River between India and Pakistan, and the Lower Mekong River in Southeast Asia.

This new program will extend international lending as opposed to unilateral lending and will permit use of local funds for local projects. It also will offer aid to underdeveloped nations on more practical and favorable terms and eventually will benefit the whole world.

Institute Offers Plan for Arab Resettlement

The recently formed Institute for Mediterranean Affairs has advanced a new proposal to solve the Arab Refugee problem.

A 10 year program to cost $400 million has been suggested for resettlement of refugees and payment of compensation for their property lost when Israel was formed.

The Institute would have Israel agree to a return of a limited number of refugees over a 10 year period so as not to disturb that country's internal security. Other refugees would be resettled in Arab nations which have land for resettlement and are in need of workers. By the end of 10 years the entire refugee problem in the Middle East would be solved.

★ ★ ★

Funds for the proposal would come from the Israeli government and from Arab oil royalties and United Nations economic development programs. Israel already has set aside funds as compensation for abandoned land or for resettlement in new areas, says the Near East report. Housing and easy term loans to buy livestock and agricultural equipment will be provided for those Arabs who are being admitted to rejoin their families in Israel.

★ ★ ★

Similar U. N. programs have met with resistance and the Institute's proposal probably will be no exception. But the problem of the growing refugee problem can't be ignored forever. It's an economic burden for everyone and a constant threat of war.

Boy Scouts Distribute Booklet for Emergencies

"Be Prepared," the Boy Scout motto, should be uppermost in all our minds. An educational program has recently been launched to prepare us to face a surprise attack from an enemy.

★ ★ ★

To help further this program sponsored by the office of Civil and Defense Mobilization, Boy Scouts from this area have delivered 4,000 copies of a civil defense publication, "Handbook for Emergencies."

The Scouts working on this project should be commended for participating in the worthwhile project.

They have done their part; now it's up to you.

The booklet that has been delivered to your house contains preparations we should make in case we are attacked. The information is brief, but to the point, and should be a must reading in all households.

Just Keeps Rolling Along

David Lawrence Tells:

Why Judge Disqualifies Himself

WASHINGTON — This is the story of a case that might be called "Frankfurter vs. Frankfurter." It concerns a struggle of conscience which justices of the Supreme Court undergo when they are faced with the question of whether or not they should disqualify themselves from judging any case in which they previously have had a personal interest or connection.

This very problem has arisen with respect to Justice Frankfurter before it came up a few days ago when "The Standard-Times" of New Bedford, Mass., published an exchange of letters with him about his 10-year affiliation with the legal committee of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Justice Frankfurter wrote that it was true he had for a long time, while a professor at Harvard Law School, given advice on "policy" matters to the legal committee of this organization. He wrote that the connection was terminated when he became a Supreme Court justice and added that he never had accepted any monetary compensation for such service.

Perhaps the best single statement of a judge's problem in meeting a "conflict of interest" where there has been no commercial or financial connection previously, but where emotions and personal feelings may be involved, was made by Justice Frankfurter himself.

He gave a public explanation on May 26, 1952, of why he had declined to participate in the decision of a case before the Supreme Court about the broadcasting of music that annoyed the passengers on a Capital Transit Company bus in Washington. It had caused some of them to bring suit to declare such broadcasting a violation of both the First and Fifth Amendments of the Constitution.

"The judicial process demands that a judge move within the framework or relevant legal rules and the covenanted modes of thought for ascertaining them. He must think dispassionately and submerge private feeling on every aspect of a case.

"There is a good deal of shallow talk that the judicial robe does not change the man within it. It does. The fact is that on the whole judges do lay aside private views in discharging their judicial functions.

This is achieved through training, professional habits, self-discipline and that fortunate alchemy by which men are loyal to the obligation with which they are entrusted.

But it is also true that reason cannot control the subconscious influence of feelings of which it is unaware. When there is ground for believing that such unconscious feeling may operate in the ultimate judgment, or may not unfairly lead others to believe they are operating, judges recuse themselves. They do not sit in judgment.

They do this for a variety of reasons. The guiding consideration is that the administration of justice should reasonably appear to be disinterested as well as be so in fact.

The Country Parson

"I can't see that religion is much good unless it makes a man live better at some time other than on Sunday morning."

Dr. William Brady Says:

Poor Nutrition Spurs Use of Aspirin, Alcohol, Dope

A man who got beastly drunk from time to time would sober up after such a spree and then go for weeks without a drink. Asked in such an interval why he behaved so badly said that he took to the bottle when he felt the need of a stimulant or when he just wanted to feel better.

DR. BRADY

This is virtually the same explanation or excuse users of morphine, heroin or other habit-forming drug give when they try to rationalize their indulgence. It is indeed the universal motive for using dope, be it alcohol or other narcotic sense-deadening drug, such as barbiturate, acetanilide or hashish (Cannabit indica, marijuana, goof butts).

Then, too, children or child-minded adults are easily induced to "try" one or another narcotic or sense-deadening drug by the taunts of addicts who, being miserable, want company.

By the same token, it seems to me that people who use aspirin whenever they want to feel better are reckless. I'm no Spartan—I took several doses of aspirin once for blessed relief of the pain of shoulder bursitis. But I am sufficiently aware of the toxicology of aspirin to endure ordinary aches and pains without it. I quote verbatim what one authority says about it:

"From aspirin, death has resulted from 5 and 10 grains, and 1 ounce has been recovered from. There may be petechial hemorrhages (minute hemorrhagic spots) in stomach or serous membranes, glomerulonephritis (kidney infalmmation), hepatic (liver) and cardiac (heart) damage.

". . . There are many reports of feelings of weakness, collapse, angioneurotic swellings (giant hives) of face and throat, skin rashes . . . even in small doses it produces nausea and heartburn in certain people . . ."

So taking an aspirin is not so trivial as you may think, and feeding "baby aspirins" to an ailing child is reprehensible, in my opinion, no matter who assures you it is harmless.

A young person in good nutritional condition feels just fine and dandy and therefore doesn't feel the need of a stimulant or a "lift" and doesn't want to feel better. Therefore he or she has no use for alcohol or any of the drugs mentioned above. Why benumb one's sense of wellbeing when one feels just fine and dandy?

Habitual users of alcohol or other narcotic will of course say I'm all wet about this. Even so, I contend that good nutrition is the strongest single factor of temperance.

I believe that the enormous consumption of alcohol and other narcotics in America today is due primarily to the national malnutrition and the failure of medical, health and government authorities to do anything about it.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Voice of the People

'Here's a Lesson in Math, UAW Style of Teaching'

This is a lesson in math with the UAW as instructor. In May, 1957, an offer was made to extend previous contract for two years. This was turned down flatly as ridiculous.

★ ★ ★

To the average production worker, who had been on short weeks for so long, this would have been like a shot in the arm had they accepted the offer. But, no, the union wanted more. So, after five months of being in a quandary as to what was going to happen, not knowing whether we would strike or not, we finally came up with a real good contract. But understand! You can't go back to work! We have local grievances.

The amount of raise a production worker will realize per year on the new contract will be approximately $187. Assuming this same worker is getting $3 per hour, which we know he is not, it will take him just nine days of strike to have completely lost his first year's raise.

If the strike is over in that time, he will have a year comparatively free of worries, then he can start the cycle all over, wondering what will happen when this one expires.

David Lawrence, in his Oct. 8 article, points out that our present system is one of private slavery, which millions of workers are compelled to accept and is conducted by the unions as a price for a job in a free America. It seems that neither party is brave enough or big enough to fight the denunciation of Right to Work laws, accepted by so many of our states, even though such denunciations are contrary to our Constitution.

★ ★ ★

It seems that, as Mr. Reuther said, this is a good contract for company, union and the economy of the country. That is, it would be if we could go to work. For every day we're out, the economy of the country is being damaged. Who is to say how much?

Union Member Since It Was Formed

'Where Does High Taxation Lead?'

Each year we're asked to vote for increased taxation for one thing or another. The past few years it's been for schools because "we have so many more children coming in and our population is growing. Our buildings are overcrowded, our teachers' classes are too large."

Let's also remind taxpayers and officials that, along with new people, we also receive more money from taxation. Revenue from residential property far exceeds vacant lots. We've been continually taxed and until people wake up to the fact that our taxes are already exceeding our purchasing power, we're certainly headed for socialism. While our government preaches against communism, it's gradually forcing us into the same pattern of government. At the pace we're going, even our people who are employed will be seeking aid to live because the government will be collecting more of their money for taxes than is left to live on.

Yes, let's increase foreign aid. (Don't look around and see how some of our own people live.) Let's abandon old buildings. They're not modern enough for our needs. Let's send our surpluses to far away places and increase taxes so those abroad will think all Americans live a life of luxury and ease.

Our taxes begin as a temporary tax to cover a special need. The need becomes permanent and each need requires a greater percentage of our income. What does all this lead to?

'Wisner Opening Excluded Children'

The Wisner Home open house was no doubt very interesting for those fortunate to be able to attend. However, the hours seemed arranged to eliminate children as much as possible.

★ ★ ★

My son has long been interested in seeing the home. We live in Drayton and would gladly have taken a bus into Pontiac, but there wasn't one in the hour between school closing and closing of the home.

★ ★ ★

Today's children will soon be adults to assume responsibility in maintaining this home in the future. Why not interest them now? Why not let all Oakland County residents enjoy this very historic spot? Donations for the upkeep would be easier to obtain.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Flattering Words Save Marriage

Husbands, scrapbook this case, for many of you will lose your wives before you know it if you don't wake up. John is a college trained engineer, but he fails to use the cardinal rule of feminine psychology in dealing with his wife. So he is now faced with a divorce although he admits he loves her. But he's been stingy with words!

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE Z - 343: John R., aged 31, has been married three years.

"But my wife and I don't get along very well," he began, morosely. "In fact, she thinks we better separate.

DR. CRANE

"But I really love her, Dr. Crane, although she says I don't.

"She also tells me I act as if she didn't have any brains. And that I am too self-sufficient.

"Well I am an engineer and was 28 when I married, so maybe I have been used to living alone a lot. But I don't want to lose her, so what can I do?"

DOMINANT MEN

Wives usually prefer dominant men. But not those who try to be 100 per cent that way.

★ ★ ★

In certain realms a woman expects a man to be the boss. That's especially true in the bedroom.

And she wants him to be able to earn a good salary or run his own business successfully.

But even in those fields she relishes being asked for advice. In fact, if you haven't sent for my "Compliment Club" booklet, then you husbands better do so pronto.

For a man who knows how to build up the ego of his wife, does not need feel jealous, even if he isn't as ardent and erotic as younger swains.

Women want to feel important to their men. So when a husband asks his wife's opinion, he indirectly pays her an even greater compliment than when he seeks her kisses!

For women want to be admired as "persons," not just as possessors of million dollar legs or a seductive chassis.

HEED ELIZABETH TAYLOR

Earlier this year Mrs. Michael Todd (Elizabeth Taylor) was interviewed concerning her marriage to the late Mike Todd.

She complained mildly that Mike was on the phone so much with reference to business matters that she felt almost as if she had married a telephone.

However, she added the following very revealing sentences:

"His preoccupation with business is fine because he discusses it with me, so I feel I'm a part of it.

"He asks for my opinion and he pays attention.

"I don't want to go into the past but it's nice to be married to someone who thinks I have a brain.

"That also contributes to making me feel like a woman."

At another time she said:

"Mike and I talk over almost everything he does. I'm even on the board of directors of the Michael Todd Company, Inc."

EGOTISTICAL HUSBANDS

Many an American male makes the mistake of thinking he must browbeat his wife into intellectual submission.

So he ridicules her ideas or ignores her suggestions, even though they may often be far superior to his own.

A smart husband SEEKS advice from his wife, even if it may prove inferior to his own. For women offer new slants from the feminine angle that often keep a man out of trouble and his business out of bankruptcy.

Even so, many business conventions still show the old-fashioned idea that women have no brains, for they omit the wives, at least from their actual business sessions, and fry to shunt them off on shopping tours or sightseeing trips.

Time and again I have warned you sales managers NOT to do this. Include the wives in your actual business or engineering or medical sessions!

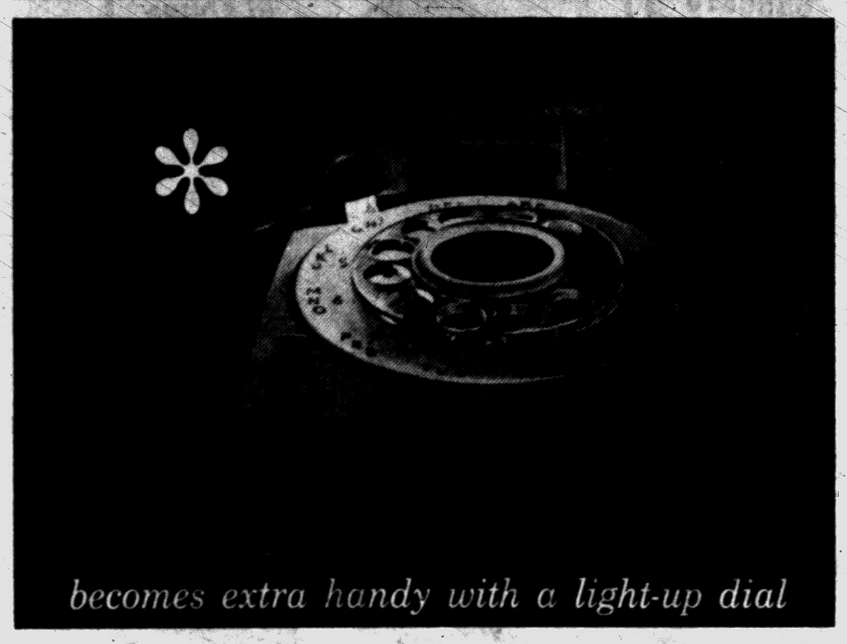

And send for my booklet on the "Compliment Club," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents (non-profit). It helps top business executives avoid John's trouble.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 4c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Strawberry plants can now be tested for invisible virus diseases that have previously gone undetected. By grating leaflets from the plant to be tested to a virus sensitive "indicator plant" of the strawberry species, scientists can determine whether the test plant is diseased. Social Security Questions

Correct Any Errors in Age

By RAY HENRY
Associated Press Writer

From Mrs. D.W. of Cleveland, Ohio: "At the beginning of the Social Security program, a relative through fear of losing her job falsified her age—making herself younger than she really was. Today, she is eligible for Social Security based on her right age. Is there any way she can get her age corrected on the Social Security records? She has her birth certificate."

Your relative is not alone with this problem. The Social Security people are confronted with it very often and have a set procedure for handling it. They'll change the age of a person on their records if the person can show proof—such as a birth certificate—that their records are in error. I suggest she correct the error immediately so she can start drawing the payments due her.

From Mrs. E.M. Decatur, Ala.: "My husband died seven years ago and my son and I have been getting Social Security based on his work. I'm 58. Recently, my son became 18 and both our checks stopped. Is this right?"

Yes. Under the Social Security law, you and your son were entitled to collect payments only until your son reached 18. But, there's a good chance that you'll once again be entitled to payments due to your husband's work when you reach 62.

From F.C.F. of Ridgefield, N.J.: "If a man and wife retire on Social Security after both being employed and paying full taxes, will each be entitled to full benefits?"

Yes.

From L.G.P. of Gillette, N.J.: "In May, I changed my place of employment and had paid Social Security tax on my earnings. When I started my new job, I was told by my employer he had to start deducting the tax from my earnings just as if I'd paid no tax on my previous job. Is this true? If so, will I be able to get a refund if I pay tax on more than $4,200 earnings this year?"

The answer to both questions is: Yes. If you switch jobs in mid-year, you have to start paying the Social Security tax on your second job as if you'd paid no tax on your first job. However, if you pay the tax on more than $4,200 in earnings, you can claim the excess tax on your income tax for the year.

From G.B.M. of Perkins, Okla.: "My wife and I collect compensation from the Veterans Administration because our son was killed in service in 1945. I also draw a small Social Security check. Does the fact that we're receiving the compensation have any bearing on my eligibility for the Social Security payments?"

No. Only actual earnings from work count toward the earnings limit of Social Security.

From Mrs. E.H.F. of Rochelle Park, N.Y.: "I've never worked in a job covered by Social Security, but my husband has ever since Social Security started in 1937. In order to collect any Social Security as a wife, must I wait until my husband reaches 65? I shall be 65 almost four years earlier than he."

One policy can insure this whole family

WITH the new Metropolitan Family Plan, you can have additional permanent insurance on yourself and provide insurance on the lives of your family all at the same time . . . and with just one policy.

Here are some of the provisions of this plan:

For you: Permanent Life insurance with regular cash and loan values . . . and the additional advantage of reduced premiums guaranteed for the first five years that the policy is in effect.

For your wife: Term insurance on her life of about one-fourth the amount of your insurance under this policy. It continues in effect until the time you are or would have been 85.

For your children between the ages of 14 days and 18 years—term insurance on each child until age 25. The premium is the same regardless of the number of children, and those born after the policy comes into effect will be automatically covered after they are 14 days old.

A further advantage for your children is that when each child reaches age 25, he or she can take out permanent insurance of up to five times the amount of the term insurance without medical examination.

Another feature of the Metropolitan Family Plan is this: in the case of your death, your wife and children receive the benefits from your insurance, and the insurance on their lives continues in effect without further premium payments.

You will find that this is an ideal policy to add to your present insurance, or to cover your wife and children. Ask your Metropolitan Representative to explain all of its many desirable features. He will be pleased to do so without any obligation on your part.

Metropolitan service is as local as Main Street . . . as close as your phone

'Breakfast Club' M.C. Proves Radio Alive

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK—The myriad positive men who have said that "radio, with the exception of news and music, is dead" would do well to cast their allegedly shrewd eyes upon a large and attractively unhandsome man named Don McNeill.

For 25 years now, McNeill has been causing otherwise normal, grouchy people to walk around their breakfast tables wearing brave smiles.

His "Breakfast Club" on ABC is the one long-standing radio fixture which the masterminds have been afraid to rip off the air in favor of that brand of music which sends man, woman and child to work with a jangled nerve and a jerky psyche.

Quite naturally, McNeill is proud of his record. In New York last week for a series of broadcasts ("Breakfast Club" usually emanates from Chicago), he said:

"If radio really is dead, 150-thousand people dropped in for the funeral of our show last year."

McNeill's zany, informal hour is now in its third generation of devout listeners. Last week, they had a four-year-old in the audience. Her grandmother was one of Don's first guests in its first year; "Breakfast Club" opened the same year as the Century of Progress in Chicago: 1933.

Because of its long duration, thousands of listeners have the impression that McNeill — with whose voice they've lived every weekday—is quite elderly. Actually, he's just 50. After a quarter-century of rising at 6 a.m. and forcing himself into a mood of early-morning cheeriness, he looks even younger.

On the subject of early-birding for a fat salary, he says: "The first few years it's really tough, but after you do it for 15 or 20 years, it gets worse."

The incredible popularity of young ol' Uncle Don can be attributed mainly to two factors. The show is, purposely, built on blunders made by audience members and by the informal cast. Its record is one blunder every two minutes.

The other factor is corn. Don readily admits he's the corniest man he knows—and "corn" to him is "old-fashioned friendliness, rather than the obvious joke." He built a log cabin near Chicago in 1940 and called it "Lumbago Manor because it has a creek in the back." This is what he means.

McNeill is in close touch with celebrities, as well as with his audience. When a mouse got loose in the theater, Frank Buck flew in from Texas to hunt it down.

Hollywood stars stop off in Chicago en route to New York, to get a laconic hearing on "B.C." Famous graduates of his show — Johnny Desmond, Johnny Johnston, Patti Page, Fibber McGee and Mollie—drop in frequently to perform free for their ex-boss.

It doubtless irks many "dead radio" experts that the "Breakfas Club" has remained solidly wedged on the network among the rocks and rolls. But every time a brooding eye is cast in his direction, McNeill says he likes lemon pie, and a couple hundred housewives bake him some; or he mentions a bad tooth, and the network is flooded with false teeth for their beloved sufferer.

Maybe his moments of silent prayer on the show have helped him through these critical times, when most live radio is dying.

It is also possible that McNeill's tenure proves that the moguls can't mastermind all of the people all of the time. And that the top 40 tunes, no matter how raucous, can never replace a friend.

The Sports Car Club of America, founded in Boston in 1944, now has a national membership of more than 10,000.

Though it was built in 1797, the Massachusetts capitol is known as the "new" State House to distinguish it from the "old" State House built in 1713 and still standing on Washington street, Boston.

DOES GETTING UP NIGHTS MAKE YOU FEEL OLD

NEW YORK—Special: Thanks to new, scientific laboratory formulation, thousands of men and women now escape feeling old, tired, irritable and depressed from losing sleep and worrying about "Bladder Weakness"—too frequent, burning and itching urination, Bed Wetting, Getting Up Nights—or Strong Cloudy Urine, due to common Kidney or Bladder Irritations, which often result in secondary Backache, Headache and Nervousness. In such cases New Improved CYSTEX usually gives quick, calming relief by combating irritating germs in acid urine; and by relaxing, analgesic pain relief. Safe for young or old. Female Has Fascinating Attitude Toward Telephone

NEW YORK (AP) — People, especially female people, pass through fascinating attitudes toward the telephone.

To an infant learning to use her fingers, the telephone is an object of curiosity, especially the holes in the dial ring. To the baby learning to walk and reach up, the phone is an enticing target to be pulled down with a crash. To a healthy girl of 10 or 11, the phone is a fine instrument of torture.

At this age, they call people with the oddest names in the directory to tease them. Or they call their school teacher, wait until she says hello several times before they giggle and hang up. Or they call a complete stranger and ask for Sam. The party at the other end says there's no Sam there and hangs up. They call again—for Sam, at the same number. They do this five or six times.

Finally after an hour, they call the same number and say:

"Hello, this is Sam. Were there any messages for me?"

But it is in the teens that a girl develops a passion for the phone from which she never recovers. To the teenager — as every rattled father knows—the phone is a way of life, a religion, an ever-widening avenue for her love, hatred, aggression and persecution, for her hopes, fears, dreams, plots, and counterplots.

At this age, using the phone involves three basic ground ruls. You never talk 10 minutes when you can talk 45. You must talk with your head down, knees or legs up, and the blood rushing to your head. Regardless of text, you must always, but always, talk in absolute, fool-proof, spy-proof, younger-sister-proof secrecy.

Thus when phoning a girl friend you saw only 20 minutes ago, you must drag the phone into the closet or bathroom and bolt the door. In extraordinary moments of crisis, you bolt the door in the hall, the door in the room, wedge the rug under the door, close the window and draw the blinds.

You whisper to the party of the second part: "Guess what?" Then pause. This is the signal for the other girl to bolt her doors and windows and set up a maximum security watch. Finally, she asks, "What?" and you say in hushed, sepulchral tones: "I saw HIM today."

Here, at least a full moment of silence must follow until the message sinks in, down to the last red and white corpuscle of both parties. Then, 38 minutes later, the situation becomes clearer. It turns out that she did see HIM but while HE may not have actually seen her, any reasonable person, given a knowledge of the wind direction, of the speed of sound and the force of osmosis, could safely assume that HE must have been aware of her presence.

★ ★ ★

For most of eternity, teenage girls talk to each other. But every now and then, like an awesome clap of thunder, HE calls. Inevitably, younger sister answers. Younger sister races hysterically up the stairs, screaming HE is on the phone. Older sister quickly composes herself. She wants to know why all the shouting. She is blase. She is detached. She is so indifferent and casual getting to the phone she falls down the stairs.

Younger sister races through the house, screaming: "He's going to ask her to marry him (at age 15)! I think they're too young. I think they ought to be annulled!"

Older sister asks casually, into the phone, who's calling, is told, asks again as though she can't place the name. They talk. She is oh so light and matter of fact. Then it turns out all he wanted was the algebra assignment for tomorrow.

★ ★ ★

Older sister races upstairs, bolts doors, weeps, plans glamorous suicid. Eight minutes later she is fully recovered and back on the phone, talking to her girl firend .... "Guess what?" ....

New Fords Go on Display at Dealerships Oct. 17

DETROIT — The 1959 Ford cars will go on display at Ford dealerships on Friday, Oct. 17, J. O. Wright, Ford Motor Company vice president and Ford division general manager announced today.

In addition to engines designed for greater fuel economy, Ford offers a new lighter Fordomatic transmission with 105 fewer parts than in 1958, Wright said.

"Every piece of body sheet metal in the 1959 Ford has been changed to reflect the good taste of the Thunderbird — America's most successfully-styled car."

The 1959 Ford line includes 17 models ranging from the Custom 300's which are six inches longer than in 1958, through the six station wagon models, to the Fairlanes and Fairlane 500's. Station wagon length has been increased more than five inches.

All 1959 Fords will be on a 118-inch wheelbase and will have an over-all length of 208 inches.

Windshield area has been increased 280 square inches, or 29 per cent, over 1958 models.

Ford's four modern engines are designed for efficiency, durability and economy with the added customer savings resulting from quick and easy servicing. The full-flow oil filter, standard equipment on all 1959 engines, permits Ford to recommend an oil change only every 4,000 miles.

Ford's safety concept of protecting passengers against injury, includes as standard features extra-rugged, five cross-member frames with wide-flared side rails, safety door locks and the Lifeguard steering wheel. Safety seat belts, padded instrument panel and padded sun visors are available as optional equipment. Laminated safety glass is used in the windshield and side windows.

Today's Young Recruit Troubled by Soft Heel

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — The softest thing about American youth today, in the opinion of Marine Corps recruit depot doctors, are their heels.

Dr. J. M. Dennis and Dr. A. C. Winfield say many young recruits develop heel fractures. "They didn't get enough walking or running while they were growing up and their bones were developing," said Dr. Dennis. "They come into the service with soft feet — soft heels espeically."

War Disturbs Balance Between Men, Women

PARIS — Largely because of war losses, there are now 1,364,000 more women than men in France's population of more than 44,000,000. There are 260,000 more males than females in the under 20 age group.

Nearly 25 per cent of the French today are under 15 and 31.6 per cent are under 20. Eleven per cent of the population is over 65 compared with 9.9 per cent before World War II.

Population of the U.S. has increased by about 20 per cent since 1940 and at the same time the number of children under the age of five has increased by about two-thirds.

Oppose Segregation

SAULT STE. MARIE (AP) — A resolution opposing segregation was approved by the Michigan Baptist Convention here over the weekend. The 435 delegates also expressed opposition to universal military training as "a permanent part of American life."

Tormenting Rectal Itch Stopped In Minutes

Science Finds New Healing Substance That Promptly Stops Itching and Pain of Piles

New York, N. Y. (Special) — One of the most common afflictions is a condition known as "itching piles". It is most embarrassing for the victim during the day and especially aggravating at night.

No matter what you've used without results — here's good news. For the first time, science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to promptly stop the burning itch and pain. It actually shrinks hemorrhoids — without surgery. Medical science has proved this substance produces a remarkably effective rate of healing. Its germ-killing properties also help prevent infection.

In one hemorrhoid case after another "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations. This improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of months! Among these sufferers were a wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' duration.

The secret is this new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — discovery of a world-famous research institution. This substance is now obtainable in ointment or suppository form known as Preparation H.® Ask for Preparation H suppositories (convenient to carry if away from home) or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Absolute satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

COMING OCTOBER 17th

You will get a new kind of economy in

THE WORLD'S MOST BEAUTIFULLY PROPORTIONED CARS

Beautifully new in proportions, beautifully new in build, the 59 Fords bring you a new kind of economy, too.

Ford thrift is engineered in. It starts with special Ford features like new aluminized mufflers that will normally last twice as long as conventional mufflers used on other cars. It includes a new Diamond Lustre Finish that is so durable you won't have to wax it—ever! It features an oil filtering system so efficient that you'll go 4000 miles — instead of the 1000 miles often recommended — before needing an oil change. For greater economy and safety, all 59 Fords are equipped with new, tougher, cooler-running Tyrex cord tires. Best of all, you'll find that all standard Ford engines — Six or Thunderbird V-8 — thrive on regular gas. You save up to 5 cents on every gallon!

To complete 59's most complete economy story, Ford has two separate automatic driving teams, each designed for its own special kind of economy. You pick the one that fits your driving exactly.

Team Number One makes automatic driving available within everyone's car budget. It consists of a completely new Fordomatic Drive combined with either the Mileage Maker Six or Thunderbird V-8 engine. You get a simpler, more efficient automatic drive teamed with the engine of your choice: the only modern, short-stroke, low-friction 6-cylinder engine offered today . . . or the world-famous Thunderbird V-8. Six or V-8, the gas savings are great!

Team Number Two is made up of new Cruise-O-Matic Drive with a new Thunderbird Special V-8 engine. It introduces you to an altogether new experience in fine-car performance—harnessing the world's most automatic "automatic" to the trigger-sharp reaction time of a new Thunderbird Special V-8. And still you get the gasoline savings of built-in overdrive. For '59 the short way to say "economy" is FORD!

In styling, the new Ford has already been awarded the Gold Medal of the Comité Français de l'Elégance for beautiful proportions and elegant lines, at the Brussels World's Fair. So this is the world's most elegant kind of economy! Soon—on October 17th—you can get that thrifty New Ford Feeling in the World's Most Beautifully Proportioned Cars.

To Defend Woman on Trial for Murder

MACON, Ga. (AP) — The defense prepared to present its case today at the start of the second week of Anjette Donovan Lyles' trial on a murder charge in the arsenic death of her 9-year-old daughter Marvia Elaine Lyles.

★ ★ ★

The 33-year-old former restaurant owner is being tried on that specific charge. She has also been indicted in the deaths of her two husbands, Ben F. Lyles Jr. and Joe Neal Gabbert, and her mother-in-law Mrs. Julia Young Lyles.

Angry Bear Now Lunch

BRYSON CITY, N.C. (AP) — Farmer Fred Ledford admitted shooting the bear out of season. But he explained it had been chasing him after being caught around the Ledford hogpen. So now bear meat, 125 pounds of it, will be on the menu for the first meal when the new cafeteria of the elementary school at nearby Alarka opens shortly.

Brundage to Speak

DETROIT (AP) — Percival F. Brundage, former director of the budget, is principal speaker at today's opening of the 71st meeting of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. Some 1,700 delegates are expected for the three-day session.

About the only trees on the French island of St. Pierre, off the coast of New Foundland, are dwarf balsam firs. They grow only a couple of feet tall.

Whitfield School Fair Set Friday

The annual Daniel Whitfield School Fair will be held Friday at the school on Orchard Lake road.

Richard Valuet, chairman of the outdoors activities, has arranged to have a hayride, ponies, carousel, and rides on a fire truck from the Bloomfield Auxiliary Fire department.

Chairman of games and sale items, Mrs. Laurence Reuther, has plans for booths, There will be a cake walk, bake sale, plants, white elephant, sale of games, books and toys, make-up, fish pond, cotton candy, popcorn, candy, candied apples, balloons, silhouettes and games.

The "Blue Plate" special will be the big item of the dining room, along with hot dogs.

Mrs. Robert Linton and Mrs. Fred Weist are in charge of the food.

Club Slates Dinner, Travelogue

Larry E. Sommerfeld, travel cameraman and lecturer of the Automobile Club of Michigan, will present a "California Travelogue" when the Pontiac Woman's Club sponsors a guests' cooperative dinner at 6:30 p.m. Oct. 20 at Pontiac Federal Savings and Loan Building.

Mr. Sommerfeld began his career as a travel counselor and later studied travelogue production. He has covered most of North America in search of film subjects. He has photographed Michigan, Arizona, the Gulf Coast, national parks, California, Florida, Europe and the Far East.

Mrs. Fred Gottschalk is program chairman for the meeting.

Present Watch to Mrs. Jackson at Luncheon

Mrs. T. W. Jackson was honored at a luncheon given by the managerial staff of the Pontiac Unit of Equitable Life Assurance Society, at Elks Temple.

The honoree was presented with a gold watch for 25 years of service with the society. The presentation was made by Martin J. Becker and congratulatory letters were read and presented by C. B. Clark. Among the guests present were Mrs. Jackson's family who had presented her with a corsage for the occasion.

Insist on the Hotel

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: For the last two years I have been a patient of a doctor in another city, going there every other month. I have become quite friendly with her during this time. She recently married and now has a house of her own. She insists that my husband and I stay in her house instead of a hotel when I go for my treatments.

"I appreciate her invitation very much but she is on a much higher social level than we and both my husband and I would feel much more comfortable at a hotel. Would it be ungracious not to accept her invitation and what can I say so that she will not misunderstand?"

Answer: Tell her that much as you appreciate her kind invitation, your husband thinks that you should go to a hotel rather than to feel that you are putting her to all the trouble of having you stay with her.

"Dear Mrs. Post: I would appreciate your straightening out a certain matter that has come up between two mutual friends. The daughter of one friend is being married. The other friend who is being invited to the wedding has, as a house guest, a sister visiting from the East. Is it necessary that an invitation be sent to the house guest, too?"

Answer: It is not necessary that the sister who is unknown to the bride's mother be invited, but if the wedding is a large one and an extra guest would make no difference, it would be kind to include her.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Do I register in a hotel as Miss Mary Blank or just Mary Blank? I mean in the case of an unmarried woman, is Mary Blank enough since I believe the title is generally understood to be Miss when the name is written like that?"

Dear Abby....

5 Hours Viewing Color Slides Like Castor Oil—Hard to Take!

"DEAR ABBY: Some relatives of my husband just came back from Europe where they took 6,500 feet of film and 200 colored slides. They invited all their relatives and friends over, locked the door and made us sit there and watch the whole boring thing. You couldn't even sleep through it because they took turns talking about every picture.

ABBY

"It was past midnight when they finished (they started at 7 p.m.) and then they insisted we stay for coffee, which took another hour. These relatives are supposed to be high society. Is this your idea of a party or am I crazy?"

BORED STIFF

DEAR BORED: Some family get-togethers are like castor oil. Hard to swallow—but necessary occasionally. Grin and bear it.

★ ★ ★

"DEAR ABBY: When that woman wrote to you saying her clergyman told her to give her husband another chance after he'd beaten her up a couple of times, I don't think you had any business telling her 'the clergyman didn't have to live with him,' and she should move out. Sometimes all a man needs is one more chance." JOHN S.

DEAR JOHN: The woman had been put in the hospital by her husband many times, and had already given him a hundred chances. Sometimes, "one more chance" is one too many. Please read on:

★ ★ ★

"DEAR ABBY: God bless you for advising that woman whose husband beat her so many times to move out. About 15 years ago a neighbor of ours was told by her clergyman to give her husband another chance after he beat her so bad she was on crutches. One night, for no reason at all, this man stabbed their 6-year-old baby to death with a butcher knife while he slept in his bed. When the wife struggled to save her baby, he killed her, too. He was adjudged insane and is now in a mental institution, but it cost the lives of two innocent people. I agree with you, Abby. If a man raises a hand against a woman he is not fit to live with. ROGER R.

"DEAR ABBY: I spent my vacation at a summer resort. I was interested in learning how to ride horseback, so I got a guide to take me out. After he took me up a mountain trail away from all human beings, he hugged me and suggested I get off my horse for a while. What should I have done, not knowing him very well?" DOUBTFUL

DEAR DOUBTFUL: When you're with a two-legged wolf, you're safer on a four-legged horse.

★ ★ ★

"DEAR ABBY: Ever since my best friend died four years ago I have been begging his widow to marry me. She says she respects me but she doesn't love me. I worship this woman and could give her and her children a fine home and all the material things she could want. She says I should find a woman who can return my love. I would be satisfied with just her respect and I am sure if she would give me a chance she would learn to love me. How can I change her mind? STILL HOPEFUL

DEAR STILL: You could change her mind but you can't change her heart. Her advice to you was sound. Take it.

★ ★ ★

"DEAR ABBY: My older sister likes to get the credit for being the best one in the family. We are in our forties and fifties but she still bosses us and dictates. An aunt celebrated her 75th birthday so our older sister said she'd bake the cake and we'd give her a party. All six of us went over there and our older sister brought the cake. She said she BAKED it and it took 4 eggs, 3 cups flour, 3 cups sugar, 1 cup buttermilk, etc. When my aunt cut it, she hit the cardboard that is underneath all bakery cakes. Nobody said anything. Should I tell my sister she didn't fool anybody?" NOT FOOLED

DEAR NOT: Your sister knows. Why pour salt (one teaspoon) on the wound?

Philip E. Rowston, mayor of Pontiac, and Dr. Samuel Chafets, president of the Pontiac Symphony Orchestra, look over the program for the opening concert of the symphony to be held Tuesday evening at Lincoln Junior High School. Mayor Rowston proclaimed last week as Pontiac Symphony Week.

Washington PTSA Has Election

Newly elected officers of Washington Junior High School PTSA are Mrs. Charles Coppersmith, president; Harrison Arterburn, father vice-president; Mrs. Roland Stephison, mother vice president; John Burton, teacher vice president; Sally Hamilton, student vice president; Mrs. Roy Cooley, secretary, and Mrs. Philip E. Rowston, treasurer.

Committee chairmen are Mrs. Stephison, program; Mr. and Mrs. William Coffing, membership; Mr. and Mrs. Thurley Allen, budget and finance; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Graybiel, hospitality, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Stark, homeroom parents.

Mrs. Gregg Dunlap, Mrs. George Grawley and Mrs. Arnold Thingstad are in charge of securing homeroom parents for the seventh, eighth and ninth grades respectively.

Dance Class Slated

Parks and Recreation Department's social dance class will meet each Monday starting Oct. 20 and continuing through Dec. 8, from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. in the multi-purpose room of Central School, Pike and Union street. There is a small charge for participation.

Says Husband of Top Designer

Career Gals Make Best Wives

Associated Press Feature

Career women make the best wives, says Wesley Simpson, who is married to one.

Despite the fact that his wife Adele is one of the world's busiest women, Wesley radiates husbandly happiness and pride. Says he: "I'm sick of hearing the old argument about whether a woman should choose between a career or home. My wife handles both with one hand."

A TOP DESIGNER

Adele Simpson, one of the top names among American fashion designers, is a tiny dynamo of 4 feet 10, who has managed to run a town house and a country estate, raise a son and a daughter, and conduct one of the country's biggest dress businesses, all without getting a hair out of place.

★ ★ ★

During the week, she gets to her office on Seventh Avenue shortly after dawn, has lunch at her desk, copes with temperamental models, buyers, fashion editors and store owners all day, and then goes home to entertain anywhere from two to a dozen guests at dinner.

Weekends she takes off for the Simpson country home at Greenwich, Conn., where the house usually is full of weekend guests from Paris, Rome, London, Los Angeles or points between.

In between times she always has time to help settle the problems of her 19-year-old daughter Joan or her 21-year-old son Jeffrey and welcome their friends at either domicile. Sometimes this amounts to an influx of 15 or 20 young people for dinner or overnight —but the Simpson menage takes them all in stride.

CHILDREN FIRST

"If I ever had had to make the choice between home and business, I would have given up the career without a second thought," Adele says. "But I never had to. Maybe I'm fortunate in having a well-adjusted family, or maybe I've just learned to budget my time, but I'm sure neither Wesley nor the children ever have felt neglected. In fact, they seem to thrive on all the excitement and the hectic kind of life we lead."

★ ★ ★

"I wouldn't want a wife who had no interests outside of cooking and housekeeping," says her husband, a banker. "The world's most glamorous women always have been the busiest ones. And they're the ones who know how to be wives, mothers and hostesses too—with no sweat."

For White House Social Season

5 State Dinners Planned

WASHINGTON (AP)—The 1958-59 White House social season will be shorter than ever—just five formal state dinners.

A special science-military dinner was held last winter after the Russians launched their Sputniks, and appeals were voiced for a stepup in American scientific tempo.

There was no explanation for why the scientists were dropped. The military also was omitted from the dinner list.

This year's social season will begin a month earlier with a Dec. 11 dinner honoring the Supreme Court. Dinners for diplomats will be held Dec. 17 and 18. The program will be rounded out with a Jan. 26 dinner for the vice president and one the following night for the speaker of the House.

The dinners are attended by some 80 guests. However, after-dinner musicales will swell the number to 150 or 200.

This Werle costume with its short loose wool jacket is ideal for dinner and theater wear. The dress, of novelty wool, features a fitted camisole bodice with an inverted poofed skirt in gros de londre.

Junior League to View Skit on State Constitution

Mrs. George N. Hilfinger of the League of Women Voters will direct a brief skit on constitutional revision presented by members of her group at the morning business meeting and luncheon of the Junior League of Birmingham to be held Wednesday at Forest Lake Country Club.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. William H. Baldwin, provisional chairman of the Junior League, reports that on Thursday 24 provisional members will finish their instructive course, which began in September. They are Mrs. James A. Aliber, Mrs. Glen W. Bailey, Barbara Barker, Mrs. William Crim and Mrs. Harry Dahlquist.

Other provisionals are Mrs. John E. Donalds, Mrs. John W. Eden, Mrs. Edward B. Emery, Mrs. Jeremiah Gillette, Mrs. Scott B. Hayes, Mrs. Elton R. Kerr, Mrs. James N. MacMillan, Mrs. Nicholas Martin, Clicquot Morton, Mrs. Frank W. Rockwell, Mrs. Lewis W. Saxby, Mrs. Walter H. Teninga and Mrs. William E. Underdown.

Others includes Mrs. G. Hunt Weber, Mrs. Frederick M. Warner, Mrs. Edward M. Weinfurtner, Mrs. John Irwin, Mrs. Stanford Stoddard and Mrs. Nell LaFaye.

July-August Group Name Officers

Officers of the July-August Group of First Presbyterian Church were elected when the group met Friday at the Ottawa drive home of Mrs. W. R. Eames. They are Vera J. Bassett, chairman; Mrs. Carroll L. Osmun, vice chairman; Mrs. Paul Rich, secretary, and Mrs. H. A. Miller, treasurer.

Problem Hair

by Rowena Wilson

Have you a problem? A hair problem, that is. Well, you're not entirely alone. Don't say "I can't do a thing with it." There is always a solution to this dilemma. For beautiful hair you must have a good hairbrush and make use of it daily. Be selective where your shampoo is concerned. They are formulated according to hair needs and are labeled as such. Last but not least, be faithful with your regular beauty appointments.

Your hair will always be lovely when you keep regular beauty appointments. Why not treat yourself to a shampoo and wave and we'll provide a haircut for just $1.00. Cut of Clothes Makes the Difference

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

The design and cut of clothes can make such a difference in the way a woman's figure looks. Yet we see so many of them make mistakes in these ways.

For instance, certain lines and cuts can make the bustline practically disappear. The dress with raglan sleeves is one example. Even a fairly good sized bust is lost in this. The woman with a small bust should never wear this style. On the other hand the woman who wishes to minimize a large bust can wear it but should decorate the bust with ruffles, embroidery or sequins.

One of the most usual errors we see over and over again, is the large woman with stripes going round and round her. This makes her look about twice as big as she is. Only a bean pole can get away with this!

Almost as often we observe the overweight woman wearing a dress with a large floral design, or maybe one with big checks. She should stick to plain materials, preferably without any design or any sheen.

If she does select print it should be a very small design. Also remember that dark colors are much more slimming than light ones.

There are only a few things to remember. Mainly, if you wish to look slimmer, cling to up and down lines and ornamentation. The opposite is true for the underweights. No belt at all makes your waist look smaller, if the dress or suit is fitted in at the waist. Beware of belts which are wide or of a contrasting color. All of these rules can be reversed if you want to look fatter.

One mistake women with fairly good figures often make is to wear their belts too tight. This may make the waist look small but it causes even good hips to flare out below the waistline in an unattractive way.

If you have a short neck, have your collars cut down at the back. Otherwise your neck will be lost when the collar touches your hairline. The opposite, if you have a neck which is too long.

Even if your figure is good, learn to know your own style. There are styles and cuts which are not flattering to even this woman. She must learn to know herself in these matters.

If you would like to have my leaflet, "Clothes to Suit Figure and Personality," send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 54. Address Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

Tomorrow: "Well Tested Rules Will Add Zest to Your Personality."

Congregational Units Meet

Afternoon groups of the First Congregational Church of Pontiac met Friday.

Mrs. A. C. Kirby of Maceday Lake entertained 35 members and guests of the Colonial Group for luncheon. Assitant hostesses were Mrs. Fred Voelker, Mrs. Claude Shoup, Mrs. Gordon Dickie, Mrs. E. C. Russell and Mrs. John Jewell.

The slate of new officers for the coming year was presented to the group. Guests of the day were Mrs. Max Sutton, Mrs. Leigh Hough of Newton, Iowa, and Mrs. Clair Travis.

Mrs. Oscar Lundbeck of Chippewa road will be hostess for the November meeting.

Plans were set up for Christmas craft workshops for the church bazaar during the meeting of the Saybrook Group. The luncheon meeting was held at the home of Mrs. William Miller of Elizabeth Lake road.

Mrs. William Hurlburt, Mrs. Helen Teitgen, Mrs. George Vincett, Mrs. Fred Raetzke and Mrs. Howard McIntyre served on the luncheon committee.

Rising Hem Draws Eye to Hosiery

With hemlines rising on the long-leg look for fall, and with the increasing emphasis on definite color in stockings, fashion is giving American women new incentive to take a long look at their stockings.

★ ★ ★

As skirts rise to the knee, women must take greater care to select stockings that fit smoothly all the way up to the gartering point, and down to the toe — with no sign of unsightly sagging at the knees or wrinkling around the ankles.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

With fashion's new short skirt silhouette, stockings make a major contribution to the total effect of the costume, and the color relativity between skirt, stocking and shoe becomes a prime consideration in coordinating the costume.

Colors Go on Frolic This Year

Color combinations that a few years ago would have paled the complexion of the clothing connoisseur are today just about the smartest things since sportswear for foreign cars.

Not long ago, the sages who warned that "blue and green should not be seen" had an almost universal following. But today it seems the folks who figure colors in apparel ran out of conventional combinations and decided to give the rainbow a thorough shake-up for a new idea or two.

A plaid shirt is a plaid shirt —and just a plaid shirt—until it appears in an unusual trio of hues. For instance, one plaid model uses royal blue, charcoal, and dull gold to color a new modern wash and wear fabric.

To serve on the nominating committee for election of officers are Lexie Williams, Walter Hill and Mrs. Gerald Barnhart. William Coffing was in charge of the evening program and Mrs. Howard Tanner participated. The MacCormack Group served refreshments.

Les Filles Name Project Chairmen

Chairmen for the money-making project of Les Filles Club to be held Oct. 25 are Dee Dee Kaiser, Virginia Norvell, Nancy Struckman and Judy Whitmer.

Other plans of the group include a hayride to be held in November, a food basket for a needy family at Thanksgiving and a Christmas dance to be held in December.

Central School PTA to Review Progress

Mrs. Lola B. King will speak on "The Old Days," when Central School PTA meets at 7:30 Thursday evening in the school gymnasium.

Rich Top Layer Spread on Partly Baked Cookie

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Rich nut and coconut-decorated cookie squares are enough to serve as dessert or a delight for mid-meal serving. Today's cook, Mrs. William Buckingham, makes them when her budget is flush, she says.

New in Oakland county, Mrs. Buckingham hasn't participated in any outside activities as yet. Two young children keep her home too. She does like fishing.

DREAM CAKE
By Mrs. William Buckingham

Part No. 1:
- 1 cup flour—not sifted
- ½ cup melted butter or margarine
- ¼ cup brown sugar
- ¼ teaspoon salt

Cream butter and sugar thoroughly. Add salt and flour. Spread on cookie sheet. Bake 10 minutes at 375 degrees.

Part No. 2:
- 1½ cups brown sugar
- 2 beaten eggs
- 1 cup moist coconut
- ½ to 1 cup chopped nuts
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- ½ teaspoon baking powder
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 2 tablespoons flour

Mix all together and spread over partly baked dough. Bake 20 minutes more. Cut in squares to serve.

Pumpkin Shell May Be Man's Solution

By RUTH MILLETT

"How do you keep a wife at home enough hours in the day to look after the children, keep the house clean, and get some decent meals on the table?"

A husband who reads this column asks that question and then explains, "My wife has so many irons in the fire that she spends far fewer daytime hours at home than I spend at my job. Though the kids often come home from schools to an empty house and dinner is likely to be cold cuts and potato chips, my wife always finds time for bridge, club meetings, community fund drives, teas, luncheons and the like.

"Please understand me. I want her to get out and enjoy herself," he recounts, "but I think she ought to stay at home long enough to handle her main job, which is supposed to be that of wife, mother, and homemaker."

I wish I had a ready answer for your question. Because there are a lot of husbands who would like to have it.

I don't have an easy answer for the simple reason that the woman who dislikes housework and whose children make her "nervous" can today find so many excuses for neglecting her main job.

She can go to work, become a clubwoman, lead a busy social life, or she can go in for time-consuming hobbies.

Whichever she chooses, she gets enough applause to keep her going. Very few regard her as a distinterested wife and mother. Instead she is referred to as an "active clubwoman," a "social leader," or an "expert" on anything from modern art to flower arranging. The fact that she's a dud as a homemaker doesn't seem to matter if she manages to shine somewhere else.

I'd advise you to put your foot down and demand that you wife spend more time at home. However, today's mail brought a letter from a husband who tried that. And a judge gave his wife a divorce on the grounds that he "criticized her housekeeping."

Until women themselves realize that a poor homemaker is a failure, and judge each other accordingly, there isn't too much you poor husbands can do if you happen to be married to a woman who won't stay at home.

Soak Venetian Blinds in Tub

Venetian blinds may be soaked in a sudsy detergent water in the bathtub for a few minutes to dissolve dirt and grease.

After they are cleaned and dry, give the blinds a coat of wax. This will make future dustings of them a much easier task.

Add a dash of cinnamon and a spoonful of instant coffee to hot chocolate. When hot, quickly fold in whipped cream. Serve in mugs with crispy cookies.

Bright Light Vital as You Apply Make-Up

Your face should be flooded with light from all sides when you apply make-up, say a world-famed Hollywood make-up authority. You are your own make-up artist; therefore, you should see what you are doing at all times.

If you are applying make-up for day, apply it near a window. If window-light is not possible, the brightest incandescent lighting should be used.

Then, check your make-up when you go out into the light and make any minor corrections. Surround your dressing table with light for evening make-up.

Two dressing table lamps equipped with high-power white bulbs placed at eye level will provide fine lighting. However, if you have the space, a dressing table mirror completely surrounded by bulbs is the ideal lighting.

Endless Penance Not Required of Anyone

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

This June, for the sake of 15-month-old Tim, the G.'s moved from the city to a suburb.

Tim didn't appreciate the favor. The very first night in his new home he howled determinedly against bedtime. Mr. G., noting the tired shadows under his wife's eyes, walked the floor with Tim until 10 p.m. The next night Mrs. G. walked, hummed and soothed until 10:15.

At the end of two weeks she phoned her city pediatrician who said, "Leave him alone. Let him discover he can fall asleep by himself."

But Mrs. G. could not take this advice — and is still spending an average of three hours a night trying to soothe Tim to sleep.

Why couldn't she take the advice?

Well, Mrs. G. used to get gold stars for spelling. Now she wants one for excellence in motherhood. The idea that she has produced a child so "insecure" that he howls at bedtime is intolerable to her. Rather than accept the possibility that she's committed some error contributing to Tim's "insecurity," she will sacrifice her own comfort and rest indefinitely.

In the Middle Ages, when someone got the idea that he had committed a sin, he'd go on a pilgrimage to some holy place. He would go barefoot, wearing sackcloth, carrying no money to buy comforts on his journey. For he'd been taught that the more harshly he afflicted himself, the more certain would be forgiveness of his sin.

Mrs. G., the sophisticated young mother who reads child psychology, closely resembles him.

Like the pilgrim, she will put up with anything to get away from the possibility that she's done something wrong.

Such pride in sinlessness is an awful thing because we don't know we suffer from it. As the pilgrim believed he suffered for a holy purpose, poor exhausted Mrs. G. thinks she's suffering for love of Tim. Both are very proud people, lacking true humility.

If we've committed some sin in treatment of a baby that produces howls at bedtime, humility does not require us to do penance for it night after night. It just requires us to accept ourselves as capable of mistake.

It was Jesus who said, "Thy sins are forgiven thee."

Jewelry Wanders for Fall

The roving jewel will provide the recipe for chic in this season of silhouette shenanigans. High on the head or low on the hip, in many unexpected places, it is purposely displaced jeweling that will spice the costume come autumn.

Necklaces take new directions and play many parts on fashion's stage. Ropes combining stones with delicate golden links, or with pearls and jewel-toned gems, turn the chemise into the Empire look when wound high under the bosom and anchored with a blazing pin smack in front.

Twisted many times at the throat, the rope becomes the massed bib so important in a season of high-rising fashions.

Flash-back necklaces, to be seen both coming and going, can reverse their direction at will. Wear them completely turned to the rear, with decorative pendants and tassels swinging down the back. Or give them a sideway glance by draping them in low cowl fashion from shoulder to shoulder.

Bracelets and earrings can convert into something they are not if you have a flair for fashion. Wide jeweled bracelets become tiaras fit for an Empress when they are mounted high on a covered bicycle clip.

Donna Marie Lidgey Wed to Doylan James Schneider

Donna Marie Lidgey and Doylan James Schneider were married Saturday evening at First Methodist Church, Birmingham. Dr. Arnold F. Runkel officiated at the ceremony before 300 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Lidgey of Birmingham and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Charles Kent of Midland and Howard James Schneider of Midland.

The dress worn by the bride was floor-length, of Chantilly lace over net and satin, featuring long sleeves and a scoop neckline. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was held by a lace cap and she carried a cascade bouquet of white fuji chrysanthemums, white roses and ivy.

Mrs. Celtis Melear was matron of honor. She wore a ballerina-length dress of powder blue chiffon over taffeta and carried yellow roses.

★ ★ ★

Bridesmaids were Elaine Nowak of Birmingham and Darlene Fisher. Pamela Lilly was junior bridesmaid. All wore dresses like the matron of honor's and carried bouquets of yellow roses and bronze chrysanthemums.

Best man was Celtis Melear, with ushers James Fisher, Donald Moody and Howard Schneider of Midland.

Following a reception held in the church parlors, the couple left for a honeymoon to Mackinaw City. The new Mrs. Schneider was wearing a powder blue suit with navy accessories and a pink rose corsage. They will live in Pontiac.

Consider, for instance, a cheerful clown pillow, which may be made from cotton feed bags, fabric scraps and bits of yarn, with a standard pattern, at a total cost of only about $1.25.

You'll need two 50-pound bags, one plain and one print, to make the clown, say local sewing center experts.

Follow pattern directions for making the pillow. The clown's eyebrows, nose and mouth may be appliqued with a satin stitch on an automatic sewing machine, or with an automatic zigzagger attachment.

Cotton yarn may be used for the hair and the tassel on his cap. If you want him washable, stuff him with shredded foam rubber.

White and gray hair need a rinse to overcome yellow or other discoloration.

Expert Offers Pointers for Lovely Lashes

Eye emphasis, which is high-fashion this year, largely depends on your eyelash make-up and its application, says a world-famed Hollywood beauty authority.

Therefore, select one which will provide you with the following glamour points.

Make sure that your eyelash make-up is flexible and will allow the lashes to bend. If they are brittle, they will often break off and their luxury will be gone.

Demand a make-up which will not burn your eyes.

Insist on one which is tear-proof and will not run.

Make certain your eyelash make-up applies easily so that each lash stands apart instead of sticking together in a mass.

Shift to Dark Hues in Hose

Legs are in for more of a build-up since skirts are shorter. More color in stockings will be seen with a move to dark hues.

If Parisians have any influence, black will be the chic shade, with delicate embroidery along the ankle.

GAIL MARIE HESSE

Charter Dinner Planned

Announcement was made of a charter dinner to be held Oct. 15 at Big Rapids when the Zonta Club met at Hotel Waldron.

President Mrs. Chad Mellinger and Mrs. Raymond Sampson reported on the District Five Conference held at Toledo. District Five is composed of 35 Zonta Clubs and has a membership of 1,600.

Members were notified of a reception and dinner to be held at Flint Nov. 1 for Dr. Nan Wolcott, newly elected governor of District Five. Reservations may be made with Mrs. Mellinger.

Guests attending the Thursday gathering were Anne Stumpenhorst of Hastings, Neb., and Marian Holden, Mrs. Dale Peele and Mrs. Frank Heatley, members of the Milford Zonta Club.

Today, one woman out of four has a life expectancy of 85, whereas only one man out of eight can expect to light 85 candles on his birthday cake, according to figures from the U. S. Bureau of Census.

Openings for Waves in Pontiac Reserves

The Pontiac Naval Reserve Training Center has announced that a limited number of openings for Waves are now available with Pontiac's Naval Organized Surface Division 9-104 (L).

Positions available are stenographers, clerk-typists, and typists. Under a direct rating program women can apply for advanced rates in the Naval Reserve and be assigned duties and receive pay commensurate with their training and professional abilities.

The reserve unit meets once a week on Wednesday evening from 7:30 to 9:30.

Women applicants must be high school graduates between the ages 18 and 44, unmarried, with no dependents under the age 18, and able to pass the required Wave medical exam. Details may be obtained at the Naval Reserve Training Center, 469 S. East Blvd.

Crusader for Safety Learned Hard Way

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP) — By a week from today 32-year-old Harry Blitz must decide whether he wants to spend the rest of his life standing or sitting.

Blitz shocked the seventh annual Kansas Governor's Safety Conference Thursday with the story of how an automobile accident wrecked his life.

It was the evening of Nov. 23, 1957, when his small foreign car crashed into a stalled truck west of Wichita as he was driving to his home at Colwich.

He lay unconscious in a Wichita hospital for 20 days. He suffered severe head and face lacerations, loss of his left eye and loss of sense of smell and taste. His right leg was fractured in 63 places. He suffered a nervous breakdown.

Blitz lost his job as a salesman and went on relief to feed and clothe his wife and nine children. He had been averaging about $9,000 a year before the accident.

An operation is scheduled at a Wichita hospital next week and Blitz hopes it will make it possible for him to resume work.

Blitz spends much of his time in traction to relieve painful muscle pressure on nerves in his legs and pelvis. Doctors think they can stop the pain by fusing his body in a sitting or standing position. Blitz must decide which he prefers.

Now a crusader for highway safety, Blitz stood on crutches and fired questions that stumped some law enforcement officers at the conference. The questions covered technical points of driving, such as braking distances at various speeds to the range of headlights.

"I've had a lot of time to think about it lying in bed," Blitz said. "I believe driver training courses on these technical points should be compulsory for both young and old before they are licensed. You should know exactly what you can expect from your car and the other driver. That is the best way to impress a driver with the killing potential of an automobile."

Quadruplets occur once in about 700,000 births.

Requests to Campaign Swamp Ike

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower was reported today to be swamped with requests for personal campaigning in behalf of Republican candidates.

Many Republicans fighting uphill battles for Senate and House seats now consider a presidential appearance in their states a political must. As a result, the GOP National Committee is having difficulty trying to sort out a flood of demands.

Several were said to have come from GOP candidates who did not always support Eisenhower's program in Congress, and who had counted largely on going their own way in their campaigns.

Some of these were reported to be among those most insistent on help from Eisenhower.

Republican National Chairman Meade Alcorn said in an interview he expects the White House to announce this week additional speaking dates for the President to supplement the five-day sortie to California and back starting Thursday.

Eisenhower is expected to schedule several appearances in the Midwest and the East. Alcorn said most of these are likely to be single-speech trips instead of a tour.

Republican campaigners said they felt recent declines in unemployment will help them in several vital states. Democrats generally thought the economic upturn had come too late.

The Republicans also pointed to forecasts of agricultural crop production nearly 11 per cent above the previous record as a hopeful sign.

These and other factors might alter the picture before election day. But a state-by-state survey by the Associated Press indicated that as of now Democrats stand to make substantial gains in both the Senate and House.

The two parties may exchange some of their holdings in governorships, with Democrats appearing likely to come out with a net gain.

In 25 states outside the South where 26 senatorial seats are at stake, local surveys give the Democrats a margin ranging from hairline to extremely wide in 19 contests and indicate the Republicans are ahead in only 7.

If this were the trend on election day, the Democrats would pick up a net of 13 Senate seats from the Republicans, including one they won in Maine in September. This would represent a gain Democratic strategists say privately they hardly hope to attain. Without counting their Maine victory, Democrats now outnumber Republicans 49-47 in the Senate.

States in which the Democratic candidates are given the advantage in the survey include Arizona, California, Connecticut, Indiana, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Washington, West Virginia (two) and Wisconsin.

The seven states where Republicans are credited with being ahead include Delaware, Nebraska, Nevada, Ohio, Utah, Vermont and Wyoming.

In House races, the survey indicated that Democratic gains may range anywhere from 10 to 40 seats. Counting vacancies on the basis of the party which last held the seat, the House division now is 235 Democrats, 200 Republicans.

Slump Stays Away

Home Building Still Brisk in Pontiac

"Ours is one of the few districts in the area where construction has not taken a nose-dive recently," said Carl F. Alt, city building inspector.

So far this month, the inspection department has issued 13 home construction permits, Alt said, while last month the figure totaled 43.

This latter will include eight new homes planned by builders on Victory and Vernon drives; 20 on Livingston street, and five on Astor street.

It was estimated that permits issued last month covered $279,500 worth of new home construction, slightly below August's figure when only 38 permits were issued.

Altogether, there were 134 building permits issued in August for $427,913 in construction.

A breakdown showed two new commercial buildings, a $15,000 restaurant planned for 43 Auburn Ave. and an $8,000 warehouse at 986 Oakland Ave. In addition there were two permits for a total $45,000 in repairs to buildings damaged in the W. N. McCandless, Inc. fire at 11 N. Perry St. in August.

There were 32 permits issued for residential garages totaling $24,786, and 43 for residential repairs and alterations totaling $41,224.

In August, there were a total 146 permits issued covering an estimated $510,117 in construction and repairs.

Murders Cousin of Ex-Premier

Sniper Guns Down Kin of Recent Lebanon Official Sami Solh

BEIRUT, Lbanon (AP)—Wahid Solh, a cousin of former Premier Sami Solh, was shot and killed by a sniper while driving through downtown Beirut today.

Solh was an official in the ministry of General Planning but was not otherwise active in politics.

Eyewitnesses said he was shot through the head by the sniper from a nearby building. Solh was driving down Bechara el Khoury Street near the heart of the business district.

Premier Solh left the country just before president Fuad Chehab took office and after several plots and attempts on his life. He narrowly escaped one plot at the height of the rebellion against President Camille Chamoun when a mine blew up the car ahead of his on a road outside Beirut.

The general strike called by Chamoun's militant supporters in the Phalangist party began its fourth week today with the Phalangists announcing thir determination to continue the strike until Premier Rashid Karami either resigns or forms a coalition cabinet. Intense political maneuvering over the weekend produced no satisfactory formula for ending the crisis.

See U.S. Fleet Quitting Formosa Strait Soon

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States is expected to begin reducing its naval forces in the Formosa Strait sometime soon, now that Red China has extended its Quemoy cease-fire for two more weeks.

Through a White House statement, they promised further efforts to seek a negotiated settlement of the Formosa problem.

The impression in official Washington is that the seven-week-old crisis which took the world to the brink of war has ended. Officials believe that with this new truce extension the Communists have shown they do not intend to resume the heavy bomardment of Quemoy which they began Aug. 23.

If future events confirm this, the United States will almost certainly begin cutting down the power of the re-enforced 7th Fleet in the Formosa area. Washington authorities commented that with the Communists not attacking, the military need for so powerful a force would decline.

Secretary of Defense Neil H. McElroy said on Formosa that U. S. forces would not remain in that area indefinitely, but added there were no plans to withdraw them at this time.

The United States would not begin withdrawal "until the position of the Communist Chinese is made clear," he said.

In Washington, Dulles conferred for an hour with Sen. Theodore F. Green of Rhode Island, Democratic chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee. Green has publicly criticized the administration's stand in defending the Nationalist-held offshore islands.

Though Dulles and Green did not settle their policy differences, they joined in a warning to the Communists not to be misled by political argument in this country.

Even with the danger of a shooting conflict apparently receding, U. S. officials said they foresee difficult times ahead for this country. Some allies have not been too happy with the U. S. Formosa policy, and may press harder for a change with the return of more peaceful conditions.

The United States may soon begin putting pressure on Nationalist China to start reducing its forces on the Quemoy and Matsu Islands near the Red China coast. But Nationalist President Chiang Kai-shek on Formosa has rejected the whole concept of cutting down his offshore garrison.

Causes 3-Car Crack-Up

Safety Display a Hazard

RIDGEFIELD, N. J.—(AP) — The local Lions Club put a badly smashed auto on display along the highway as part of the group's "Slow Down and Live" campaign.

Two cars slowed down to have a look. A third didn't. The result was a three-car collision. No one was hurt, but all three cars were damaged.

One of the drivers, Daniel Kelly of North Bergen, was on his way home from Kentucky, where he had been arranging a similar "Slow Down and Live" campaign.

Accuse Nazi Jailers

Try 2 for Killing 11,000 in Prison

BONN, Germany (AP) — Two former guards in German concentration camps went on trial today accused of murdering about 11,000 persons.

The prosecution is calling 160 witnesses to tell of the alleged killings in Sachsenhausen concentration camp by Gustav Sorge, 47, and Wilhelm Schubert, 41.

Sorge was a staff sergeant in the Nazi SS (Elite Corps) and Schubert a sergeant.

The prosecution charges they deliberately killed "with utmost cruelty" churchmen, Jews and former members of Parliament imprisoned in Sachsenhausen. They also are accused of being responsible for executing 10,000 Russian prisoners of war.

The two men were returned from Russian captivity as "non-amnestied war criminals" in 1956.

A Soviet military court condemned them to life imprisonment in 1947 on charges of murdering Russian captives. They served part of their term in the Siberian penal settlement at Vorkuta, then were returned to Germany under an agreemen on repatriation of prisoners of war.

They have been in detention ever since while German legal authorities have been preparing the case against them.

The trial opened with the reading to the court of the life histories of the two men.

It was disclosed that Sorge joined the Nazi party when unemployed in 1931 and rapidly won the name of "Iron Gustav" because of his prowess in street fighting. The court was told that Schubert was only 18 when he began committing the alleged atrocities.

THE SACK IS DEAD — Reasons for the demise of the French style "sack" are legion, but one of the leading ones was the displeasure of the male population. Press reporter Pete Lochbiler yawns in boredom as Judith L. Clemence, Press Women's Editor, models a special sack dress that marks the end of the all-encompassing style.

His Car Sideswiped, Man Injured in Face

ROMEO—A Romeo man suffered facial injuries when his car was sideswiped by another Saturday evening south of the intersection of 32-Mile road and North avenue, seven miles east of Romeo.

Lawerence Murray, 51, of 411 Benjamin St., was taken to Mount Clemens General Hospital after his car was struck by an auto driven by Alfred Cobb, 49, of 259 Dorsey St., Romeo.

Romeo State Police said Cobb apparently missed the curve and crossed the center line, hitting Murray's car in the side.

He was ticketed for speeding.

Leaving 8 Homeless

Fire Guts House in Orion

★ ★ ★

The nine-room house, at 44 W. Jackson St., was the home of Frank A. Gibniewski, 45, his wife, and their six daughters. Built by Ira Carpenter, a Lake Orion pioneer, it was considered a landmark.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Gibniewski discovered the blaze when she awoke about 2:30 a.m. and smelled smoke. She and her husband hurried to get their daughters, Judy, 18, Susan, 15, Cynthia, 10, Debra, 9, Rebecca, 5, and Jennifer, 15 months, out of the house. They spent the night at the home of a neighbor.

The fire apparently started in the electrical wiring in the basement, according to Lake Orion Fire Chief George Schick. He estimated damage at about $5,000.

Some of the family's appliances and downstairs furniture were saved. All of their clothing was destroyed, however.

Commerce Methodists Try to Build Up Choir

★ ★ ★

A Caravan of cars will form at 8 p.m. Wednesday in front of the church. From there they'll go to a "surprise destination," for an hour of song rehearsal. Refreshments will follow.

★ ★ ★

Goal of the group is to have a 50-member choir. Anyone interested in joining should be at the church Wednesday night, according to George Scott, director.

Orion Township Goal Is $6,850

Workers Still Needed for Community Chest Drive Starting Friday

ORION TOWNSHIP — The Community Chest goal for Orion Township has been set at $6,850. The drive will be conducted Oct. 17 to 21.

Leading the Women's Division campaign for the second year is Mrs. Alfred Dacey, 463 Park Island Rd. She and her aides presenly are conducting a telephone drive for workers.

"No woman should be asked to solicit more than 15 homes," she said. "We will need the cooperation of everyone to get the job done."

The Women's Division goal is $2,450. Mrs. Dacey also is secretary of the Orion Community Chest Board, a member of the Finance Committee for Orion's new Community Center, Inc., and for several years has served as financial chairman for the North Oakland County Girl Scout Council.

Assisting her in the chest drive will be Mrs. Dan Abbey of 11 Orion Rd.; Mrs. Halsey Davidson of 2307 Lapeer Rd., and Mrs. Bernard Espland of 456 N. Shore Rd.

Gingellville area chairmen are Mrs. Harold Van Camp of 3414 Gregory Rd. and Mrs. Allen Wickman of 3781 Waldon Rd.

MR. AND MRS. DONALD G. FITZGERALD

To Reside in Rochester After Trip Up North

ROCHESTER — Upon return from their honeymoon trip to northern Michigan, Mr. and Mrs. Donald G. Fitzgerald will make their home in Rochester.

The former Velma Lois Bishop, the bride is the daughter of Mrs. Mildred Bishop of 42 Second St., Rochester. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Harkins of 2821 Gravel Ridge Rd.

For her wedding, the bride chose a gown of embroidered Alencon lace with a chapel train. A pearl tiara held her fingertip veil. She carried a bouquet of carnations, red roses and lilies of the valley.

Maid of honor was Leatha Bishop of Rochester. Attending the bride were her sisters, Irene, Shirley and Eliza, all of Memphis, Mich., and Vivian of Pontiac.

George Berklish of Rochester was the best man. Assisting were the bridegroom's brothers, Marvin and Tony Fitzgerald, and Arthur McCratin of Clare, and the bride's brother, Elwins. Ushers were Howard and Paul Bishop, also brothers of the bride.

From ship Island, 14 miles offshore from Biloxi, a British fleet of 60 ships sailed for New Orleans in 1815. This was the last naval engagement in which Americans fought a foreign foe in American waters.

Rochester Garden Club to Meet at Historic Mill

ROCHESTER—Picturesque, historic old Clifton Mills, with an October setting, will open its doors to the Rochester Branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Assn. tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 for a combination tour and meeting on a conservation theme.

Located at 3140 31-Mile Rd., between Dequindre and Mound roads, the mill is one of the few left in the country that retains the buhrstone method of grinding whole grain into various flours and meal.

Founded in 1825 and rebuilt in 1850 after fire destroyed part of the original building, Clifton Mills still boasts the hand-hewn timbers put together with whittled wood pegs, antique hardware and the original millstones. A nearby dam supplying waterpower for this thriving operation is another favorite landmark for tourists.

The attractive old stone farmhouse, now the home of the Lawrence Weymouths will be opened for the business meeting and tea, at which time Dr. Roy J. Alexander, director of student services at Michigan State University Oakland will detail plans of the college. Special guests will be representatives to the State Conservation Camp and Girls' State this past summer.

Assisting Mrs. Weymouth as hostesses will be Mrs. James Clark, Mrs. James Headlee and Mrs. Frd Weihe. Tea chairman is Mrs. Luther Carter, and floral arrangements, Mrs. George Marquart.

Candidate Brown Busy in Oakland

Donald A. Brown, Republican candidate for lieutenant governor, visited many groups in Oakland County today during his campaign tour which is taking the former Royal Oak state representative from county to county.

Brown started off his tour here speaking before the Berkley Rotary Club at the First Methodist Church in that city. A rally was scheduled at 8:30 p.m. at the Waterford Township High School.

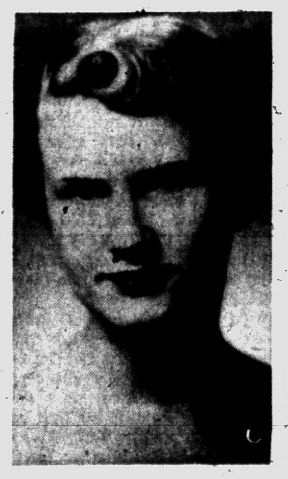

Stops were also made by Brown at a meeting of the Oakland County Republican Womens' Federation meeting at 2775 Sylvan Shores, the Miracle Mile Shopping Center, a church supper in New Hudson, and a meeting of the Walled Lake Rotary Club.

Almont Youth, 16, Hurt as Car Rams Into Tree

ALMONT—A 16-year-old Almont youth was injured Saturday afternoon when his car hit a tree and overturned on N. Van Dyke, one and a half miles south of here.

Carl W. Yoder, of 5776 Van Dyke, apparently lost control of his auto and went into a skid on the shoulder of the road, according to Romeo State Police. He suffered head and chest injuries, and was treated by an Almont physician.

Yoder was ticketed for speeding.

BARBARA MOSKOW

Romeo Beauty Vies for Crown at Albion College

Barbara, a junior, was chosen to represent Alpha Chi Omega sorority in the annual competition. The 1958 queen will be named between halves of the Albion-Olivet football game Saturday.

A blonde with gray eyes, Barbara was Romeo High School homecoming queen in 1955. In 1957, she was Romeo's candidate for the Peach Queen title, and subsequently was named second maid of honor.

Key Play Near Finish Foils Detroit Victory

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

DETROIT — The Detroit Lions put forth their best effort at Briggs Stadium, but the result was the same—they lost 42-28—and again they failed to take advantage of easy opportunities.

They just didn't have enough to contain the highly explosive Rams who scored twice in 31 of the last 55 seconds. Detroit's record now stands at two losses and a tie.

"It was our best game, we finally got a running attack moving," said Coach George Wilson, "but those three intercepted passes and three fumbles tell the story of how we lost."

Once again, however, just as in the Green Bay game with the score tied in the final minute, the Lions ran a play which lost them the ball and a possible victory.

Last week with the score at 13-13, Bobby Layne pitched out on the 14 yard line and caused a fumble which the Packers recovered, thereby killing the hope for a last second field goal.

Yesterday, the situation was similar. The game was tied at 28-28 with the ball on the 21 yard line and two minutes to play. Detroit's new quarterback, Earl Morrall, passed on a third down and it was intercepted by Jack Morris.

Should the Lions have run another play and stayed in field goal reach? This question was asked Wilson after the game.

Morrall was absolved of calling the play. "I sent the play down," said assistant coach Aldo Forte who was on the phones in the press box.

"We thought it was the right call. We saw a weak spot there at the time and we were going for the touchdown and 99 times out of a 100 it would have worked or the pass would have fallen to the ground instead of bouncing into their arms," said Wilson.

★ ★ ★

"Of course, we would have then tried a field goal if it was incomplete," he added.

When Harris intercepted on the 11, he raced 38 yards to the 49. Billy Wade then passed to Del Shofner on the Lion 35. Wade tried to pass to Leon Clarke but Jimmy David nearly intercepted as he and Joe Schmidt collided.

Wade's next pass to Jon Arnett got a first down on the 24, and then Joe Marconi tightroped the sidelines for the touchdown with the clock showing 14:05 gone in the quarter. Paige Cothren converted to make it 35-28.

On the kickoff, Danny Lewis fumbled on the 17. The Rams recovered and immediately Arnett ran exactly the same play as Marconi and scored standing up. Only 31 seconds elapsed as Cothren made it 42 for LA.

Hopalong Cassady, who finally got a chance at carrying the ball, was the Lions' top ground gainer. "Hoppy" picked up 70 yards rushing and 76 yards as a pass receiver, scoring one touchdown.

★ ★ ★

Detroit missed a golden opportunity in the first minute of play when LA fumbled the kickoff. Dave Whitsell fell on Tom Wilson's bobble on the 15.

Rote then fumbled on the first play but Stan Campbell regained the ball by falling on it on the 11. Rote's pass was then intercepted on the one by Harris.

The second quarter was a wild scoring affair with each team tallying 21 points. Detroit was on the four yard line as the quarter started following Jimmy David's interception of a pass on the Ram 40. Five running plays came at the end of the first period.

One play from scrimmage following the ensuing kickoff, Wilson ran wide around left end, picked up blocking in the secondary and raced 82 yards for the touchdown. Cothren knotted the count at 7-7.

Lewis then returned the kickoff to the 37 and 10 plays later Gedman drove one yard for the TD and with Martin's point it was 14-7. Rote's 15 yard pass to Cassady and Lewis' 19 yard sprint were the key plays in the series. It took LA only three plays to tie the score. Wade passed to Arnett for 17 and then 54 yards to Shofner on the Lions' 14. Arnett went around end to score and it was 14-14 with Cothren's point.

★ ★ ★

After Richter intercepted Rote's pass, the Rams started on the Lion 42 for the next score and it took only six plays with Arnett going the last eight yards. Cothren again converted to make it 21-21.

With only 1:12 remaining in the game, Morrall replaced Rote and from his own 46, the ex-MSU quarterback passed a long aerial to Cassady, who made a beautiful catch with outstretched arms on the 18. He scampered into the end zone untouched.

All told there were only 38 scrimmage plays to account for six touchdowns in the second quarter.

The lone scoring chance in the third quarter came when Schmidt recovered Wilson's fumble on the 33. Lewis then fumbled on the 19 and LA recovered and the threat ended.

RAM GETS RAMMED — Jon Arnett (26) of the LA Rams and Terry Barr of the Detroit Lions (41) ram into each other after Arnett took a pass from Billy Wade for a 17 yard gain in the second quarter yesterday. The Lions lost, 42-28.

'Never Dirtied Pants' Says Steelers' Layne

PITTSBURGH (AP) —"I never got the seat of my pants dirty when I went back to pass and that's just one of the reasons I know the Pittsburgh Steelers are a good team."

That's what Bobby Layne, the 31-year-old veteran quarterback, said in the dressing room yesterday after leading the Steelers to their first victory of the National Football League season.

Layne played all but a few minutes of the final quarter as the Steelers romped to a 24-3 win over the Philadelphia Eagles after dropping their first two games.

To a man, every member of the Steeler squad credited Layne with breathing new life into the Steelers who had lost their first two starts. Coach Buddy Parker, who obtained Layne from Detroit in a trade and who enjoyed huge success with Layne at Detroit, commented:

"It feels good to win. We finally have a guy who has shown he is a leader and can take charge. He certainly came through for us."

Layne, who had only a few days to practice with the Steelers, mixed up his plays expertly. He tried 20 passes, making good on 10 of them for a net gain of 81 yards. He came close to connecting on two long passes which might have gone for touchdowns.

End Ray Mathews, who seemed about to pull in one of the long aerials, said:

"I missed it, that's all. And what do I think of Layne? Well I think he's terrific. He's a leader. He has the self confidence we needed."

In addition to passing, Layne ran the ball 5 times, averaging 7 yards a carry. He sparked one touchdown drive with a key 11 yard run and helped set up another TD with a 9 yard pass to Richie Lucas which put the ball on the Eagles 1 yard line.

"This is a club that is hungry to win," Layne declared. "As I said, I had all kinds of protection when I went back to pass. The blocking was real good. Buddy Parker's system here is fundamentally the same he had at Detroit and that helped me immensely.

"I still have to learn the speed of my pass receivers but I'm very well pleased with my first game. After all, we won, and that is what counts — not so much how I did personally."

While his teammates were handing out the bouquets, someone reminded Layne that he had been quoted not long ago as saying this might be his last year of pro foot ball. Layne laughed and said no.

Cranbrook graduate Pete Dawkins had another big day for Army Saturday. He scored the clinching touchdown, passed for two-point conversion and ran well all day to earn a most valuable player award in the Cadets' triumph over Notre Dame. The game ended the current series between the old rivals but they hope to get together again by 1964.

Pontiac's Mike Andonian shot a one-under-par 69 to lead Sylvan Glen to a 18½-5½ victory over Idyl Wyld Saturday in a playoff for the White Division title of the Metropolitan Golf Association. Sylvan Glen will meet Sunnybrook, the Red Division winner, this Saturday at 1 p.m. for the MGA crown.

★ ★ ★

Walled Lake sophomore Johnny Walker turned in an impressive performance in his debut with Michigan Saturday. He ran well, made several tackles and recovered a fumble. John is expected to share the fullback duties with Tony Rio the rest of the season if starter John Herrnstein cannot play.

★ ★ ★

C. A. Smith of Jackson and Jack Reynolds of Waterford tied with 301 for honors in the MSU golf squad tourney which decides the team for Spartan Southern trip next spring.

★ ★ ★

The teams of Ken Parkins-Bob Brooks and Ray Cane-Jim McLaughlin each fired 64 Sunday to share 1st place in the Michigan Publinx Golf Association's 5th annual best-ball tournament at Highlands. Parkins and Brooks triumphed in a playoff on the 1st extra hole.

The Detroit Tigers, cutting corners after a slip at the gate last season, won't hire a coach to replace Don Lund who left to become baseball coach at Michigan. Tommy Henrich, Willis Hudlin and Billy Hitchcock, the other three coaches last season, will return in 1959.

Layne Fan Club Waves Banners at Lions' Game

DETROIT (AP)—Briggs Stadium had plenty of reminders of the Bobby Layne trade when the Detroit Lions played the Los Angeles Rams yesterday.

In left field was a smaller sign that said "we want Layne."

George Wilson, the Detroit coach, was concerned over more important matters after Sunday's loss to the Rams. He didn't even have time to talk about the signs. He said at the time he traded Layne to Pittsburgh he realized he would be criticized—"even by the same fans who nearly booed Bobby out of the stadium."

Gismo Wins at PYC

Next to the last of the Pontiac Yacht club "snowball" racing series was won Sunday afternoon by Claude Bennett in Gismo. One casualty was the capsizing of Mary Jo Goode's High-Dee-Ro. The crew was soaked in chilly water, but no damage resulted.

Second finisher was Les Huntwork's Judy-K and Bert Bouwkamp in Half-N-Half was third.

Bobby Layne Guides Steelers to Victory Over Eagles

By United Press International

The frisky Baltimore Colts, who hit the quarter pole of the season with a daylight lead, may be tough to catch in the National Football League's Western Division race.

Always regarded as good frontrunners, the Colts proved they also can come from behind when they spotted Green Bay a 17-0 lead Sunday and then galloped to a 24-17 victory on Andy Nelson's 52-yard touchdown run with an intercepted pass.

It was the unbeaten Colts' third straight victory and enabled them to remain one game ahead of the Chicago Bears and the Los Angeles Rams in the Western race. The Bears rolled to a 28-6 triumph over the San Francisco Forty-Niners.

The Cleveland Browns remained unbeaten in the Eastern Division by whipping the Chicago Cardinals, 35-28; the New York Giants took over undisputed possession of second place by edging the Washington Redskins, 21-14, and the Pittsburgh Steelers walloped the Philadelphia Eagles, 24-3, for their first victory of the season.

The Colts climaxed their thrilling comeback against the Packers at Milwaukee when Nelson intercepted a pass by Bart Starr on the Baltimore 48 and went all the way behind a mountain of blockers. Johnny Unitas also had a big hand in the triumph, plunging over for the Colts' first touchdown and tossing a 54-yard scoring pass to Jim Mutscheller.

The Bears whipped San Francisco behind the pass-catching of Harlon Hill and the ball-carrying of Willie Galimore and Rick Casares. Hill nabbed two touchdown passes while Galimore and Casares each gained 74 yards rushing. Galimore scored once on a 23-yard scamper.

A crowd of 65,403, the largest turnout for a Cleveland home opener in history, watched Jim Brown blast the Cardinals' line for three touchdowns. M. C. Reynolds, the Cardinals' brilliant rookie, tossed a pair of touchdown passes to all-America John Crowe and another to Gern Nagler. The awesome Browns totaled 332 yards rushing and 122 yards passing.

★ ★ ★

The Steelers looked like a new club with newly-acquired Bobby Layne at the controls. They turned three Philadelphia fumbles into touchdowns and held the Eagles to 72 yards rushing. Tom Tracy, one of Layne's teammates at Detroit earlier this season, scored twice for the Steelers.

★ ★ ★

A 10-yard touchdown pass from Charley Conerly to Ken MacAfee early in the fourth period provided the Giants with their winning margin at Washington. New York scored twice in the opening quarter on a six-yard run by Frank Gifford and a 41-yard pass from Don Heinrich to Bob Schnelker.

Rams, Shamrocks 'Set' for 'Big One'

St. Mike Wins in SCL Upset

By H. GUY MOATS

A mid-season upset and an unexpectedly difficult victory in the two-game Suburban Catholic League weekend Pontiac "gridiron package," could have a very strong bearing on the championship race, and inject a new and important flavor in this week's annual city parochial "title" battle.

A fired-up, keenly alert St. Michael club tossed in the surprise garnish for the fine-weather "dish." Jim Niebauer and Mike Slivensky watched their Shamrocks batter a favored St. Benedict club, 31-21. Shamrocks rose in the "book" as a title hope on the strength of this startling performance.

The St. Frederick eleven, which has rolled to two highly impressive victories, hit a real snag in St. Mary of Orchard Lake. The Rams got under way, in the 3rd period after a scoreless 1st half, rolled up four counters for a 28-0 win.

Eaglets put up such a determined scrap in the first half that the powerful Ram running backs were completely checked. Only an effective defense kept the Eaglets out of the scoring zone in that part of the tilt. Rams broke the game open in the third with one TD, added three more in the finale.

Rams and Shamrocks collide in what could be a real tipoff for the loop flag Sunday at 2:30 p.m. in Wisner Stadium. Off last weekend's results, from here it looks like anybody's game. These annual battles are always difficult to forecast.

The Shamrock victory was an especially sweet one, coming before the biggest crowd of the season (8CL) on this field. It was "dad's night" and proud parents lined up in a colorful feature at half-time, with their grid-togged sons. A queen and her court lent added flair to the program.

St. Michaels wasted little time getting off to their win.

They drove 72 yards after the opening kickoff, straight to a TD. Chuck Steinhelper, Mike Flynn and Bill Flanigan rushed the ball to the 10, where Tom Dabbs fired a corner pass to end Ron Call. Ravens put on a 45-yard drive of their own that failed on the 20, as the period ended. Shamrocks stopped several other Raven drives that appeared to be going in.

Three touchdowns in the 2nd session clinched the win, after Ravens' Dan Donar took a pass from Art Massucchi for the Highland Parkers' 1st marker. Art Storen's boot put Ravens ahead 7-6, but not for long. On the ensuing kickoff Jim Zugras grabbed the short kick, ran it to Ravens' 44. In five plays Mike Flynn was over.

Twice more Shamrocks drove across St. Benedict's goal in this period. Call scored his 2nd TD on a pass after Steinhelper intercepted a Raven pass to start the march. Carl Ganje, in his first action since an injury early in the season, intercepted another Raven aerial less than a minute after Call's tally, and in two Shamrock pass plays Stenhelper was over to give St. Michael a 25-7 lead it never relinquished.

Redford Snaps Maple Harrier String at 28

Redford High's track and harrier runners must have an "Indian sign" on Birmingham High.

Last spring a Redford track squad broke Maples' string of dual meet wins at 28 straight. Saturday, at Birmingham, a Redford harrier team cut Kermit Ambrose's cross country dual record at 28. And only a single point won, 28-29.

Redford's Terry Moore was home first in 10:27. He is a 2nd semester freshman. Fraser Cocks (10:38), Dave Pew (10:39) and Jim Reilly (10:40) gave Maples next three places, but Dan Reid's 8th wasn't enough to gain the win.

Maples host the EML Thursday, run Friday in the Albion invitational.

Surgery Considered

Herrnstein May Be Done

ANN ARBOR — Michigan faces six straight weeks of Big Ten infighting without its best all-around performer, John Herrnstein.

The often-ailing Wolverine captain and fullback entered University Medical Center yesterday for observation on his left knee. It was hurt in the first quarter of Saturday's 20-14 defeat by Navy. Herrnstein was clipped accidentally on the play and carried off the field on a stretcher.

"He's had misfortune after misfortune," said Oosterbaan, whose club travels to unbeaten Northwestern this weekend.

The Wolverines seldom have been more futile than they were against Navy. Seven times they let scoring opportunities slip away after advancing past the Middie 35. Michigan won the battle of statistics, but Navy had the necessary armament when it was needed.

The Wolverines were called on to punt only once. That fourth-quarter kick was the turning point. It was doubtful strategy, a quick kick on second down with Michigan protecting a 14-12 lead. The ball bounced to the Middie 15, but Navy wasn't hemmed in long.

Joe Tranchini, a slick quarterback, got the Middies rolling quickly on an 85-yard payoff drive. He passed and ran to the Michigan 36. Then Navy faked the off tackle play it was using all game.

Tranchini hid the ball, stepped back, and hit halfback Dick Zembrazuski on the Michigan five with a perfect aerial. Zembrazuski was all alone, having left three Wolverine defenders far behind. He waltzed into the end zone with 5:05 to play.

MSU Aerials Non-Existent

EAST LANSING — It looks as if the only practical call by a quarterback at Michigan State is a simple handoff to a halfback.

It was entirely the running game that enabled the football Spartans to beat Pittsburgh 22-8 Saurday. MSU passing was almost non-existent.

But State still ruined Pittsburgh's reputation as a great defensive team. Pittsburgh previously ranked fifth in the nation defensively, allowing an average of only 52.7 yards per game.

All the quarterbacks had minus yardage and the two fullbacks netted only 18 yards between them.

State completed only three of nine pass tries. The top echelon quarterback finally gave up altogether on that newfangled notion of throwing a football.

Larry Bielat, the fourth string quarterback, still was willing to give the idea a whirl, however. He tried one throw raw completed it for a touchdown in the closing minutes of the game — a five-yard hit to Dick Bowker.

RANGER GOALIE HURT — Bill Gadsby (right) of the New York Rangers trips up Gordie Howe (9) of the Detroit Red Wings who slams into New York goalie Lorne Worsley in the 3rd period of last night's game at Detroit's Olympia Stadium. Worsley was knocked into the net and had to be carried off the ice on a stretcher with an injured leg. X-rays in New York today will determine the extent of the injury. Detroit won, 3-0.

Howe Connects Twice to Spark Their 3-0 Win

By BILL CORNWELL

DETROIT — Gordie Howe, the old skating master of the Detroit Red Wings, hasn't lost his magic touch.

Already firmly established as one of the National Hockey League's all-time greats, Howe scored twice here Sunday night to lead the Redshirts to a 3-0 win over the New York Rangers.

Sandwiched between Howe's two goals was an unassisted tally by defenseman Marcel Pronovost as the Wings made a successful home debut before 10,633 pleased spectators at Olympia Stadium.

Victory evened Detroit's record at 1-1 in the infant NHL season. The Wings dropped a 2-0 decision to the Montreal Canadiens Saturday evening in the 1958-59 season opener at the Montreal Forum.

An injury to New York goalie Lorne (Gump) Worsley marred last night's win by the hustling Detroiters.

The 3rd period was only 70 seconds old when New York's Bill Gadsby tripped Howe as he skated toward the net. Howe barreled feet first into the cage, knocking Worsley flat on the ice.

He had to be carried from the arena on a stretcher and preliminary examination revealed badly torn tendons in the back of his left leg. X-rays in New York today were expected to tell the full extent of the injury.

Julie Klymkiw, who replaced Ross (Lefty) Wilson this year as the Red Wings' assistant trainer and practice goalkeeper, was summoned to the Ranger net for the balance of the game.

The Redshirts held a 1-0 edge at the time of Worsley's injury and the 25-year-old Klymkiw, who was a goaltender for three years with the Winnipeg Warriors, yielded two more before the final whistle.

Following a scoreless 1st period which saw Worsley turn back 13 Red Wing shots, the peerless Howe clicked at 8:55 of the 2nd stanza. He received Pronovost's perfect pass and rifled a sizzling 30-footer past the startled Worsley.

Pronovost scored his goal on a solo flight in the 7th minute of the 3rd period while teammate Red Kelly was serving a tripping penalty. Pronovost faked Andy Bathgate right out of his skates and zoomed a 30-foot backhander past the unprotected Klymkiw.

Less than two minutes remained in the game when Howe clicked for the 2nd time. Alex Delvecchio rescued the puck along the boards, sent it to Norm Ulman who in turn relayed it to Howe and the great right winger blazed a 45-foot shot into the net.

It was a relatively mild contest from the penalty standpoint with 10 infractions being called, six against the Rangers.

Aussies Win Golf Title

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland (UPI) —Australia broke a deadlock with the United States on the last three holes of an 18-hole playoff round today and won the first World Amatuer golf team championship with 222 strokes. The Yanks finished with 224.

Australia and the United States forced the playoff when they tied for first at the end of the regulation 72 holes Saturday with 918's.

The Aussies held a two stroke margin after the first nine as they battled the Yanks in brilliant sunshine on the famed St. Andrews old course. Then the Americans, led by Charley Coe of Oklahoma City, rallied to go ahead on the 10th. The Aussies tied it again and it was all-square until the Commonwealth team took charge in the last three holes.

The cocky Aussies predicted they would win and did it by taming the back nine on this rugged course.

Big Win Makes Army Title Threat

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Whatever the reason—the "lonesome end," a rock-ribbed defense or a flexible offense—Army today set its sights on winning its first peacetime national football championship.

There are problems for the slick Cadets from the West Point plains, not the least of which is Navy. The two meet in the final game of the season for both on Nov. 29 in Philadelphia and it's just possible that the national title could hinge on the outcome.

This Army team, which whipped Notre Dame, 14-2, last Saturday, certainly ranks as one of the greatest of Coach Earl Blaik's quarter-century career. His clubs won the national crown in 1944 and 1945, the war years.

If Army does go all the way, Blaik and Co. will have to bow toward the Soutwest, where fabled Oklahoma met its demise just an hour or so after the Cadets had licked Notre Dame.

Texas halted the mighty Sooners, 15-14, in the most startling upset of the season to date. It marked only the second defeat for Oklahoma in 54 games, and from here on, the coast appears clear for Bud Wilkinson's lads for they play only Big Eight opposition starting with Kansas Saturday. They've won the league title the last 10 years.

Possibly a defeat by Auburn, the national champion last year, and No. 1 team in the Associated Press poll last week, might be required for the Cadets to go all the way. Auburn won its third in a row, an 8-0 decision against Kentucky, Saturday night. The Tigers have a toughie on the agenda this week in Georgia Tech.

In the Midwest, meaning the Big 10, Ohio State and Wisconsin are riding at the top of the heap with 3-0 marks. The Buckeyes licked Illinois, 19-13 and the Badgers slaughtered Purdue, 31-6. They meet in two weeks, a little matter which should make Michigan State (2-0-1) happy.

In the Southwest, it's all Texas, the only undefeated team in the Southwest Conference. But in that league, uneasy is the head that wears the crown. The Longhorns play six straight games against SWC opponents starting this week with Arkansas.

The land of the expiring Pacific Coast Conference—the Far West—presents Oregon as its candidate for national ranking. The Bucks clubbed Southern California, 25-0, after losing a 6-0 spine-tingler to Oklahoma.

Black Hawks Set Early NHL Pace

'New Look' Chicagoans Hold First Place After 2 Wins Over Toronto

By The Associated Press

Something new has been added around the National Hockey League during this young season.

It is the "new look" Chicago Black Hawks—new in respect to key personnel and in league standings. Tod Sloan, former Toronto Maple Leaf, is the biggest — and brightest — new face, while first place is the newest—and strangest—position for the Hawks.

Chicago swept a pair of games from Toronto over the weekend, winning 5-2 last night, and 3-1 Saturday. Chicago has a 2-0-1 record, while second place Montreal, a 4-2 loser to Boston last night is 2-1-0. Montreal, defending Stanley Cup champ, shut out Detroit 2-0 Saturday.

The other weekend activity saw the Rangers play a 4-4 tie with Boston Saturday.

Sloan scored two goals last night, and two Saturday, in Chicago's surprise spurt. He cost the Hawks $15,000 this summer, but probably gained a bit more in prestige in beating his former teammates. He had 13 goals in 59 games last year for Toronto.

Maurice Richard scored the 509th goal of his NHL career for Montreal last night but Boston goals by Jerry Toppazzini, John Bucyck, and Don McKenny took care of the lead. All came within five minutes of the second period.

Boston forward Larry Regan will be lost to the National Hockey League Bruins for 10 days because of an eye injury suffered Saturday night.

Wayne Has Own Grid 'Big Man' in 33-20 Win

DETROIT — Even the de-emphasized Presidents' Athletic Conference has a few "big name" football players.

The "big man" they're talking about today at Wayne State is senior halfback Jim Macmillan who sparked the Tartars to a 33-20 upset win over the defending PAC champs Saturday.

Macmillan scored three touchdowns, kicked three extra points and gained more yards rushing than the entire Carroll team (105-104).

Macmillan started the romp over the favored crown wearers when he took a payoff pass from quarterback Mike Soluk after 4:41 of the first quarter. His three touchdown plays covered 30, 78 and 70 yards.

Farmington OLS Wins

First win of the season was scored, Sunday, for Our Lady of Sorrows School at Farmington, when St. Agatha bowed, 19-6. OLS led all the way, getting its first counter in the 2nd period when Tom Wade went over after a 55-yard march.

John Urbain scored in the 3rd on a 40-yard dash and John Hirzel ran for the point. Mike Sutter got the 3rd TD in the finale, on a pass play. Tim Lafferty scored for St. Agatha in the 4th, on a 52-yard jaunt.

Lions Lose

At the start of the 4th quarter rookie tackle Lou Michaels drove in to block Yale Lary's punt on the 21. Clarke picked up the ball on the seven and went over the goal line for the TD to make it 28-21 after Cothren converted.

The Lions then moved all the way to the Ram one yard line after 34 and 37 yard passes to Jim Doran. Gedman fumbled the handoff after Rote tried twice to go over. After Shofner had to punt, the Lions came back and Morrall hit Gedman with an 18 yard pass for the TD to tie the score when Martin converted, 28-28.

Detroit's next march to the Ram 21 then started with 3:55 remaining, then came Harris' interception which closed the victory gate for the Lions.

Hillsdale Bounces Back as Chips Keep Rolling

By United Press International

Hillsdale may be down this season, but Frank (Muddy) Waters' Dales aren't out.

The Dales proved it to upset-minded Albion in Hillsdale's Homecoming game Saturday, throwing off a 13-7 halftime deficit to grab a 20-13 victory on a third period scoring burst.

Now that the Dales have repelled the challenge of previously unbeaten Albion, they have to wait two weeks to meet Hope, the MIAA's only unbeaten, untied team.

Hope walloped Kalamazoo 27-0 to spoil the Hornets' Homecoming celebration and hand them their fourth straight defeat in as many starts. Pete Watt scored twice for the Dutchmen and Bill Huibregtse kicked three extra points.

The Hope-Hillsdale victories put the two schools in a tie for the MIAA lead with 2-0 records.

The Dales, in recording their 22th straight conference victory, became the first club to score on Albion this season. Hillsdale blitzed Albion with two touchdowns in seven minutes in the third quarter. Howie Rodgers capped a 77-yard march with a three-yard run to tie the score at 13-13 and four minutes later a fumble set up Earl O'Shaughnessy's one-yard plunge for the winning TD.

In the other MIAA game Len Pace ran for three touchdowns to give Alma a 27-12 victory over Adrian and Olivet lost a non-league game to Ferris, 6-0.

Central Michigan nipped Eastern on Bill Odykirk's conversion. The unbeaten Chips, ranked ninth in the UPI small college poll, scored in the first period. Oarie Lemanski set up the touchdown by firing a 56-yard pass to Frank Gawkowski that carried to the one and Walt Beach plunged over.

Eastern, defending IIAC champions, came back with an 80-yard third period drive, Dave Longridge going in from the one. But Don Mathews' placement attempt failed. Central tried five field goals but couldn't connect.

Bay City Central, Flint Central Tie

Flint Central, ranked No. 1 the past two weeks by the United Press panel of coaches, and Bay City Central played to a 13-13 tie Saturday night before 9,500 fans. Bay City was ranked second, only two points behind Flint last week.

Flint's chance to pull out a victory in the final minutes was snuffed out by the Wolfpack. Bay City halted a Tribe drive on its own 10-yard line.

Bay City moved to a 6-0 lead in the first period driving 57 yards after the opening kickoff with Butch Kikaly going in form the seven. But speedy Art Thrash pulled in a 30-yard pass to tie the game in the second period. Ron Watkins, another Flint speed-merchant, stunned Bay City by taking the second half kickoff and racing 89 yards for a touchdown. Keith Richardson converted.

Jerry Gross, Bay City's top-flight quarterback, passed the Wolfpack back into the game with a 30-yarder to John Young and Gross made good on the extra point attempt to knot the score.

Shrine Upsets First Division's Top Team

Third straight victory was chalked up Sunday night at River Rouge, for Ron Horvath's Shrine eleven, a 20-0 win over First Division Catholic league leader Lourdes. Shrine now holds top spot.

John Seymour's first period TD, another by Mike Glynn on a Ron Bishop pass, and McLaughlin's tally did the trick. Lourdes went to Shrine's five at the start but was stopped after which the Royal Oak club went all the way in.

Shrine made 307 yards rushing to 75 for losers.

Romeo 34-0 Winner in Tri-County Opener

Scoring in every quarter, Romeo ruined L'Anse Creuse's Homecoming in a 34-0 romp Saturday afternoon in the opening game of the Tri-County League season.

Reid Olszak scored three times, Tom Meyer and Ron Schmidt once each for the Bulldogs. Schmidt booted four extra points. Two of the scores were on long pass completions by Ray Ritter.

MADE POPE

RADIO AND PHONE

Cardinal Pacelli's conduct of the office of Papal Secretary of State and his popularity with his colleagues led to his election as Pope by the College of Cardinals on the third ballot. He was crowned March 12, 1939, in the colorful, ages-old ceremony.

Pius XII sometimes was called "the modern Pope." He did not hesitate to discard traditions. In a precedent-defying interview with the Associated Press on the eighth anniversary of his coronation, he said: "Men are commonly children of the age in which they live. Hence the church necessarily must have an alert interest in each age in which her members live."

He was the first Pope to use an electric razor, the first to write his speeches and church documents on a typewriter, the first to use the telephone regularly. He was the first Secretary of State ever to be elected Pope and the first Roman in more than two centuries. While Secretary of State he was instrumental in having installed the Vatican's first radio broadcasting station.

Pius XII seemed particularly at ease with Americans. In an address he once remarked that the Catholic faith seemed to do as well or better in democratic countries — a point of view contrasting to that of his predecessors.

Until late in life he slept only five or six hours a night. He ate sparingly, cared little for wine, and for many years kept fit in a gymnasium he had constructed in the Vatican. Electric elevators were installed in the apostolic palace during his regime. Once, to the consternation of everyone in the Vatican but himself, he got stuck between floors. When attendants finally reached him they found him calmly reading his breviary.

CARDINALS MADE

HOLY YEAR

RED FIGHT

Although Pius XII was known as "The Pope of Peace," it was his lot to reign in a time of bitter wars. World War II began shortly after he was crowned. There followed the "cold war" of ideologies between the East and the West and then the "hot war" in Korea. Meanwhile the Roman Catholic Church itself was engaged in a bitter and expanding war with communism.

Pope Pius tried in vain to dissuade Mussolini from taking Italy into the war. The war came close physically as well as spiritually to the tall, frail Pontiff.

When the Germans occupied Rome in September of 1943 he was isolated in the Vatican from most of the Catholic world except for radio and occasional diplomatic couriers. Bombs fell in and near the Vatican. After his appeal to both sides not to make Rome a battlefield, the city was spared.

As the cold war increased in intensity the Pope ordered major excommunication — denying the sacraments and comforts of the church — against militant Communists anywhere in the world who also were Catholics. In 1950 he called Catholics to Rome for a Holy Year dedicated to peace. While the Holy Year brought the war in Korea, it provided the setting for what history may consider Pius XII's most significant act — the proclamation of the Assumption Dogma.

This required Catholics to believe as a tenet of their faith that the Virgin Mary was taken into heaven in body as well as in spirit. It was the first Dogma in nearly 100 years to be proclaimed by a Pontiff.

Pope Pius met more people than any other Pontiff in the long history of the Church. He met millions in private and special audiences and in the greatest general audiences ever held by a Pontiff.

By BOB THOMAS

The smooth southpaw was the trailblazer of the new regime in the film industry. Now a dozen top stars hold the balance of power over the fading studio bosses.

"I was the first star to freelance," Grant recalled. "It was back in 1938 when I left Paramount. I had been doing pretty well there, but nothing sensational.

"Adolph Zukor wanted me to stay and he even offered to jump my salary from $2,500 a week to $3,500 instead of my next raise, $3,000. But I said no. I wasn't doing the kind of picture I wanted to do. If I stayed, I would be in the same position of having to take pictures that Gary Cooper, William Powell or Clive Brook turned down."

So Grant branched out on his own, and his services have been in demand by producers ever since. Largely a dramatic actor at Paramount, he established himself as the screen's best exponent of light comedy with films like "The Awful Truth," "Holiday" and "My Favorite Wife." His asking price was $300,000 a picture, and there were plenty of takers.

"Even though I had no contract ties, I had a certain appeal to the studios," he said. "You take a place like MGM. It had a great stable of stars, but they had all played opposite each other before—Spencer Tracy with Lana Turner, Clark Gable with Jean Harlow, etc.

"So it appealed to the studio bosses to bring this fellow in from the outside, no matter what they had to pay him. And that's how I got pictures like 'The Philadelphia Story.'"

Grant's bargaining power didn't diminish with the breakup of the studio contract player lists. In fact, he became an ever greater draw with the public's concentration on fewer big-name stars. And so he can exact not only great salaries—$750,000 is a common offer for a film — but an increasing share in ownership of his movies.

He owns 75 per cent of his current smash hit, "Indiscreet," and he'll take possession of the negative after eight years.

Bagwell Blames Williams, Governor Blames Ike

Economic Woes Main Issue in Michigan Election

(Economics and politics are thoroughly mixed in the election campaign in Michigan, the motor car state. This Associated Press story, one of a series, tells about it.)

By ROGER LANE

LANSING (AP) — Economic woes hold the key to the Michigan election. On Nov. 4, voters will decide whom to blame.

★ ★ ★

Though the unemployment situation has shown improvement lately, it is a big talking point between Democratic Gov. G. Mennen Williams and the man who is trying to unseat him, Republican Paul D. Bagwell.

An October tabulation showed 420,000 people were jobless, more than 14 per cent of the state's work force. This compares with 485,000 in mid-August.

Most of the unemployment was in the auto industry. Improvement has been due largely to 1959 model production, and auto firms say things will get progressively better if the new cars sell well.

Williams has centered his campaign for a sixth consecutive term on charges that President Eisenhower and Republican policymakers are responsible for the workers' woes.

Since last November, Williams has hammered at the theme that the hundreds of thousands with flattened pocketbooks and a backlog of rent and food bills owe their troubles to President Eisenhower and his policymakers. He's fond of talking about the "Eisenhower recession."

In a counter offensive, Bagwell has told Michiganders they are reaping the harvest of 10 years of Williams.

Bagwell says the governor has been hostile to business and partial to union labor. He says this has lost the state 200,000 factory jobs, mostly to its neighbors, between 1953 and 1957.

In Michigan, union labor is personified by Walter P. Reuther, United Auto Workers chief, a potent Williams ally and target of many Republicans nationally.

U. S. Sen. Charles E. Potter, Republican bidding for re-election is caught in the Williams-Bagwell crossfire, a kind of innocent bystander handicaped by the No. 7 position on the ballot.

The most interesting figure in the campaign is Bagwell, a 45-year-old Michigan State University speech professor who stepped forward to take the GOP nomination nobody else wanted.

A persuasive, friendly man, Bagwell quit a $17,000 a year job to make the try against staggering political odds and in the face of personal handicaps. Twenty-seven years ago, he suffered a football injury that was followed by polio and partial paralysis in both legs. He still walks with a cane.

His party, reeling from a series of crushing defeats, was dispirited, disorganized, defeatist and destitute. On Aug. 5, it pulled the lowest primary vote in modern GOP history.

Still, with tireless zeal, a ready handshake and an articulate voice Bagwell has infused life, hope and a new measure of cohesion into Michigan Republicans.

His campaign is expected to get a big lift toward the end, and a welcome bundle of cash, from two appearances of Vice President Nixon in the state Oct. 27, one a $100-a-plate dinner at Flint.

The fact remains that he is up against the all-time Democratic champ in Michigan. Williams, tall, handsome 47-year-old heir to a toiletries fortune, is making a typical whirlwind effort. From 6 a.m. until late at night, he has wrung hands at factory gates, crossroads, shopping centers, union halls and nationality group meeting places — calling square dances, eating kielbasa (Polish sausage), or crowning a queen as the occasion demands.

Like his GOP rival, Hart, father of eight children and part owner of the Detroit Tigers baseball club, has played a backseat role.

He ran about 150,000 votes behind Williams when Williams won by 290,000 in 1956, and generally is rated a good chance of victory if Williams wins this time by 175,000 or more.

Old Law Still Works

WARREN, Vt. (AP) — After a farmer said one of his cows had been stolen and butchered, police arrested Walter Lowe, 27, William J. Guyette, 32, and James W. Companion, 26, held them on an intoxication warrant and said they would be arraigned later on a seldom used charge of cattle rustling.

Hunters Bag 7 Bears

MENOMINEE (AP) — A nine-man hunting party in Menominee County thinks it has a national record for the largest single bear kill — seven animals at one time. The bears, the largest 350 pounds, were killed in the area where 4-year-old Kenneth Scott was lost recently and died of exposure.

Wyoming has about 1,925 miles of railway trackage.

Sneak Into Parking Lot

Little Cars Stymie MSU

EAST LANSING (AP)—Michigan State University has given up on trying to charge parking fees for low slung foreign sports cars.

MSU officials were aghast when they discovered the foreign jobs were sneaking in free under the gates of toll parking lots. They promised immediate changes.

But Richard Bernitt, MSU director of public safety, said a check showed there were only about half a dozen of the low cars among the 6,673 registered on the campus.

"It wouldn't be worth the expense to change the gates," he said.

Black and White Turn to Color

He Sees It but Can't Believe It

By DAVID W. CHUTE

DETROIT (UPI)—I saw it but I don't believe it.

Pictures in full, vivid color, projected from black and white transparencies.

The man said the trick was all in my own eyes. That they picked out the proper colors that were supposed to be there and transmitted them to my brain.

Of course, that's not exactly what he said—not a direct quote, that is. The man was Dr. Edwin H. Land, president of Polaroid Corp., of Cambridge, Mass., who has been making light do tricks in polaroid for many years.

What he actually said was scientific mumbledegook about the different wave lengths of the different colors of the spectrum, some long and some short, and that it wouldn't work on the wave lengths between 410 and 460 and that the wave length of 585 was a critical one because at that point trying to use the light above or below it would result in the complementary colors instead of the true colors.

PATIENT IN EXPLAINING

But I saw what I saw, even if I don't believe it.

Dr. Land was patient in trying to explain. Some in his audience perhaps could understand. He was giving his demonstration before a meeting of the American Optical Society yesterday. But understand or not, everybody was impressed.

Dr. Land had monochrome slides—that is, black and white slides—of various pictures of very colorful things—like flowers and candelabra and fruit and such.

But when the other picture was superimposed on it there burst forth on the screen a picture in magnificent color with all the hues in the rainbow.

BRILLIANT RED

The apple was a brilliant red, the avocado a deep green and the flame of the candle bright yellow. Yet there were no yellows in the filters nor on the monochrome transparencies that were projected.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Land said the big secret was in projecting the pictures with one filter having a color wave length longer than the other filter. The eye itself took it from there and supplied the colors as they were supposed to be.

By holding a green filter before the eyes, all the vivid colors of the pictures were visible. By holding a red filter in front of the eyes, the colors changed into the complementary colors. Reds became green, and greens became red, for example.

Dr. Land said there are some people who don't need any filter to see the full range of colors in the picture.

Those people, he said, are colorblind.

So help me, that's what the man said.

22 Area Men Join Marines in September

A total of 22 men from the Oakland County area enlisted in the U.S. Marine Corps through the Pontiac Marine Recruiting Station during the month of September, it has been announced.

Three of the recruits were Pontiac men. They were: Daniel L. Johnson, of 404 Edison St.; Grant E. Mapes, of 477 S. Marshall St.; and Kenneth W. Eubanks, of 242 S. Saginaw St.

Among the county enlistees were: Richard W. Hummel, Lloyd T. Conley, Gary K. Fromm, Wendell E. Trager, and Robert C. Baden, all of Waterford Township; and William C. Brown, of Pontiac Township.

Rounding out the list were: Donald E. Eubanks and Boyd H. Robinson, both of Ortonville; Otto O. Wright, of Drayton Plains; Dwight F. Hahnefeld, of Orchard Lake; Frederick A. Spencer, of Auburn Heights; and Robert J. Kowalski, of Utica.

The men were flown immediately to San Diego, Calif., for 12 weeks of recruit training. After this training period they will be transferred to Camp J. H. Pendleton at Oceanside, Calif., for five weeks individual combat training.

Social Workers Group Will Meet Tuesday

The first monthly meeting of the Oakland County Chapter of the National Assn. of Social Workers will be held Tuesday.

The meeting is scheduled to begin at 8 p.m. at the Community Services Building, 132 Franklin Blvd. Refreshments will follow the formal meeting. All social workers in the Pontiac area are invited to attend.

Try to Halt Cut of Judges' Pay

Supervisors of County Seek Lansing Sanction to Boost Salaries

Oakland County supervisors today looked to Lansing for sanction to boost circuit judge salaries back to $23,500.

Faced with a 1954 state law limiting pay on the circuit bench to $22,500, the board of supervisors grudgingly today reaffirmed its September decision to cut salaries $1,000 next year. The vote was 38 to 35.

Supervisor Carl Ingraham asked the county to ignore the law, saying that the attorney general had ruled it unconstitutional. But supervisors followed the recommendation of Novi Township Supervisor Frazer Stamen, salaries committee chairman.

"In view of the clear language of the act, we are obligated to follow it, despite the attorney general ruling," said Stamen.

At the same time, the board's legislative committee was asked to prepare legislation allowing the county to boost its share of the county to boost its share of the judges' salaries. The state law does not affect the $12,500 which the state contributes to circuit judge pay, but it does hold down the county share to a maximum $10,000 a year. Oakland has been paying $11,000.

★ ★ ★

Supervisors, in other business, approved the spreading of 1958 school, county and township taxes. Totaling $50,870,307, the taxes are collectable in December for the 1959 operating year.

The only objections came from Independence and Farmington Townships, which unsuccessfully tried to appeal their county equalizations this year.

SEWAGE DISPOSAL BOND ORDINANCE

To the electors of the City of Pontiac, Michigan.

Notice is hereby given that there shall be submitted to the electors of the City of Pontiac at the Special City Election to be held in conjunction with the General November Election Tuesday, November 4, 1958, Ordinance No. 1366, providing for the issuance of $3,300,000 Sewage Disposal System Bonds. The following is Ordinance No. 1366.

An Ordinance to provide for the borrowing by the City of Pontiac, Michigan, of the sum of $3,300,000 and for the issuance of the full faith and credit bonds of said City therefor, to defray the cost of improving, enlarging and extending the City's sewage disposal system.

The City of Pontiac Ordains:

Section 1. The City Commission of the City of Pontiac, Michigan is hereby authorized to borrow the sum of three million three hundred thousand dollars ($3,300,000) for the purpose of defraying the cost of improving, enlarging and extending the city's sewage disposal system, and to issue therefor the full faith and credit bonds of the city in the aggregate principal sum of three million three hundred thousand dollars ($3,300,000) bonds to be in the denomination of $1,000 each, to mature in the principal amount of $110,000 on the first day of April in each of the years 1960 thru 1989, to bear interest at a rate to be determined after competitive bidding for the purchase of said bonds but not to exceed 6% per annum, payable semi-annually, except that the first installment of interest may be for a period of less than six (6) months. The said bonds shall be paid from taxes to be levied therefor in each year beginning with the year 1959.

Section 2. The City Commission shall have power to adopt such resolutions and ordinances as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this ordinance. The bonds therein authorized may be issued in one or more series at the same or at different times.

Section 3. This ordinance shall be submitted to the electors of the city qualified to vote thereon at a special municipal election to be held on the 4th day of November, 1958, and if three-fifths of the votes cast at said election upon the question of the adoption of this ordinance and the issuance of said bonds shall be in favor thereof, then this ordinance shall be considered as adopted and shall take effect immediately upon its publication subsequent thereto.

JOHN A. DUGAN,
Mayor Protem
ADA R. EVANS,
City Clerk

Warns Residents in Oakland 'Get Polio Shots'

A warning to unvaccinated Oakland County residents to immediately take Salk polio shots was made today by the Rev. G. Burton Hodgson, chairman of the Oakland County chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

The current epidemic in Detroit is a vivid reminder that polio will remain a threat to every community in the nation as long as millions of Americans neglect vaccination, he said.

"What is happening in Detroit could happen here," the chapter chairman said. "There are far too many unvaccinated individuals in our county and many others who have had only one or two shots."

By the end of September more than 650 persons had been stricken with polio in Wayne County, half of them paralytic, with more cases being reported every day, he pointed out.

"While in Oakland County there has been a substantial increase in the number of polio cases, we have been fortunate that the polio rate has not approached the proportions of the Detroit epidemic," the Rev. Mr. Hodgson said.

Supreme Court Foils Faubus

Refuses Any Review of Legal Action Against Use of Troops

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Supreme Court, in a new rebuff to Arkansas Gov. Orval Faubus, today refused to review Federal Court actions forbidding him to use National Guard troops to keep Negroes out of Little Rock Central High School.

Technically, the high court rejected Faubus' request that it review an April ruling of the Eighth U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals in St. Louis. That ruling upheld a Federal District Court injunction against Faubus and his National Guard commanders.

In Little Rock, Ark., only a handful of Little Rock high school students attended their first day of private classes today while a new battle looms over the city's public schools.

Temporary academies of the Westover Hills Presbyterian Church and the Second Baptist Church announced they will accept about 60 students for a limited curriculum.

But there still was no indication when the Little Rock Private School Corp. would put into effect its plan to open all-white schools for the more than 3,000 students who have been without classes for six weeks.

Six Persons Die in State Traffic

Weekend Fatality Toll Includes Couple Burned to Death in Car

By The Associated Press

An unidentified man and woman who burned to death in their car were among six persons killed in Michigan traffic over the weekend.

★ ★ ★

State Police reported highways was crowded over the weekend, on Saturday by motorists at football games in East Lansing and Michigan, and on Sunday by people on color tours of fall foliage.

Two-year-old Steven Wiles, one of seven children in the Raymond Wiles family living northeast of Charlotte, was killed Sunday when struck by a car as he toddled out onto busy U.S. 27 near his home while playing with two sisters and a brother.

Rachel Gerig, 29, of Rte. 1, Spencerville, Ind., was killed Saturday night when she was struck by a car after stepping off a bus on M78 four miles north of Sturgis.

Staff Sgt. Rudolph Pena, 24, of Selfridge Air Force Base, was killed Friday night when his car ran off M59 north of Mount Clemens and overturned.

Valentine Bennetti, 73, of Pinconning was killed Friday night when he was struck by a car on U.S. 23 about 14 miles north of Bay City.

An unidentified man and woman, believed to be Indians, were burned to death when their halted car was hit from the rear Saturday night on U.S. 2 eight miles south of Sault Ste. Marie. The bodies were burned beyond recognition. The victims were thought to be Adam Spaniel Jr., 29, of Seney and his housekeeper.

Pope's Tomb Below Basilica

Lies in Grottoes Where Grave of St. Peter Was Uncovered in 1950

VATICAN CITY (UPI) — The tomb of Pope Pius XII lies below St. Peter's Basilica in the grottoes where the Pontiff himself announced discovery of the grave of St. Peter, the Galilean fisherman who is revered as the first pope.

The body will remain for a year in a temporary crypt near the remains of Pope Pius XI — then it will be moved to its final resting place, a tomb to be constructed during the coming year by Vatican workmen.

Both temporary and final graves are on the upper level of the grottoes, a subterranean church still following the outlines of the basilica of Emperor Constantine who built the first St. Peter's.

The Constantine basilica was covered up later by the renaissance architects who built the present church and is now 18 feet below ground level.

Another 32 feet below are the lower grottoes with the earliest relics of Christianity which Vatican archeologists explored by order of Pope Pius XII and where in 1950 they found the tomb of Peter.

★ ★ ★

It took 11 years of painstaking work, since the first days of Pius XII's reign, to uncover the crude grave of Peter. The work had to be done painstakingly in order not to damage brittle relics and to avoid undermining the huge basilica above.

Is Kind to Crowd at Airport

Truman Winds Up Visit

By ROGER LANE

DETROIT (AP)— Harry S. Truman boarded an airplane he knew wasn't going anywhere to avoid disappointing about 100 well wishers gathered to give him a send-off.

The incident at nearby Willow Run Airport last night came near the end of a brief but busy Truman visit to Michigan.

Earlier, the peppery 74-year-old former President stepped out of his limousine to march more than a mile on foot in a Pulaski Day parade and before that roasted Republicans in a news conference.

Shortly before takeoff time on his flight back to Kansas City, Truman was informed that a leak had been found in one of the plane's fuel tanks. A small crowd had assembled in a nearby hangar.

He went to the hangar, gave a brief talk, smilingly posed for amateur photographers and then boarded the plane. The crowd shouted and he reappeared at the plane door, posing with two stewardesses.

After 10 minutes, when the assemblage had dispersed, Truman quietly re-entered the air terminal, ate dinner in the maintenance manager's office, and departed on another flight two hours later.

"It's a good thing I saw you this time. If I hadn't, Mike would have disowned me," Truman remarked after they chatted in the air terminal.

At suburban Hamtramck, where Democrats outpoll Republicans 8 or 9 to 1, Truman departed from his prepared "non-political" text praising Casimir Pulaski, Revolutionary War hero, and the Polish people, to urged his listeners to vote on Nov. 4.

He told the news conference that Michigan unemployment was part of the national problem and not, as Republicans contend, largely due to the policies of Democratic Gov. G. Mennen Williams.

Grains Fall Off, Except Wheat

CHICAGO (AP)—With the exception of wheat, grain futures turned lower on general selling today on the Chicago Board of Trade.

★ ★ ★

Wheat futures, especially the nearby deliveries, held steady on a small amount of commercial buying and talk of increased export demand in the near future.

Thus far there has been little or no interest displayed by bakers in booking new wheat flour business, although mills continue to operate at or near capacity to fill orders on hand.

★ ★ ★

School Tax Hike Up for 3rd Vote

Troy Proposal Calls for 2½-3 Mill Increase in '58, 6 Mills in '59

TROY—Voters in the Troy School District will be asked tomorrow for the third time this year to approve a millage increase to raise funds for school operating expenses.

The proposal calls for increases of from 2½ to 3 mills for 1958, to 6 mills for 1959 and to 7 for 1960.

Voters also will be asked to decide a $2½ million bond issue for construction of a new high school, one new elementary school, additions to two other elementary schools and improvements of sewage and heating plants.

To meet the rapidly expanding enrollment, the Board of Education also is seeking a special one-mill tax for the purchase of future school sites.

School officials said this morning that should the vote fail the district soon would see half-day sessions in all schools. Transportation accommodations also would be cut drastically, they said.

Without the one-mill increase, future building sites will rise sharply in cost, quite probably at a time when there will be no question about delaying the purchase.

Similar proposals were rejected by voters last June and September.

2 Waterford Businesses Victims of Burglars

Two Waterford Township business establishments were broken into by burglars sometime last night. They entered by tearing a hole in the roof and climbing down into the buildings.

Some $85 in cash was taken from two cash registers in the Lakeland Pharmacy at 2518 Airport Rd. at Hatchery Rd.

Post Office Sets Later Closing

West Huron Station Now Open to 5:30 P.M. Monday Through Friday

Post office services will be offered at windows from 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Miller pointed out that the extra half-hour of service will give persons who work late an opportunity to get to the post office, 175 W. Huron St., before closing time.

Postal savings and money order services will still close at 5 p.m. because of federal regulations, he said.

★ ★ ★

Miller reminded Pontiac post office patrons that the old post office, now known as the Federal Station, is still open and offering the same services as before, with the exception of general delivery and postal savings.

Office hours at the Federal Station are from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. on weekdays. The Federal Station window for patrons with boxes is open at 8 a.m.

Coppers, Steels Pace Advance

NEW YORK (AP) — Coppers and steels were pacemakers as the Stock Market advanced in heavy early trading today.

Key stocks rose fractions to more than a point.

The ticker tape was late as a string of big opening blocks was traded. Turnover was exceptionally active in view of the semi-holiday conditions due to the Columbus Day observance. Banks and other businesses were closed.

A sharp upsurge in steel production and expectations that copper prices would be marked up again were background factors in the market's renewed advance into record high ground.

U. S. Steel, Bethlehem and Youngstown Sheet were ahead about a point or more. In a strong metals section, International Nickel was up about 3, Magma Copper 2, Kennecott and Anaconda around a point.

Kaiser Aluminum also tacked on a point. Aircrafts did well. Boeing and Douglas Aircraft rose around a point.

Motors showed smaller plus signs. Chemicals were mostly off. Du Pont, Allied Chemical and Eastman Kodak were down fractions to about a point.

Escapes Serious Injury When Struck by Car

Ten-year-old Phillip Caughlin, of 18 Dover Place, escaped serious injury when he was hit by a car driven by Gary Rollison, 17, of 465 Riviera St. at 7 p.m. last night.

Rollison told Waterford Township police that the boy darted out from behind a car parked on the shoulder of Elizabeth Lake Rd. near Dover Place in Waterford Township and there was no time to stop.

The boy was taken to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital with abrasions to the right side of his back and head, treated and released.

BLAST RIPS TEMPLE — Anti-Semitic sentiment reared its head Sunday in Atlanta, Ga. as 40 to 50 sticks of dynamite blasted apart a Jewish temple. Demolished two-foot thick concrete pillars lie in the foreground as police probe the wreckage for evidence.

Explosion at Synagogue Shatters Atlanta Calm

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—A massive dynamite explosion at a Jewish temple shattered Atlanta's racial calm Sunday and set off one of the most extensive investigations in the history of the Georgia capital.

The predawn blast caused damage estimated at $200,000 to a wall and the interior of The Temple, home of the Hebrew Benevolent Congregation, in a fashionable section on Peachtree Road.

It was the first such incident in Atlanta but the fourth at Jewish centers in the South since mid-March.

Debris rained down over a 150-yard area. Houses were shaken half a mile away. No one was hurt.

The dynamiters escaped in the darkness.

The explosion occurred just a week after three dynamite blasts wrecked much of the integrated high school at Clinton, Tenn. Damage there was estimated at $250,000.

Temple Beth El in Miami, Fla., and the Nashville, Tenn. Jewish Community Center were damaged by dynamite March 16. A Jacksonville, Fla. synagogue and a Negro school were dynamited April 28 and an attempt was made to blow up a temple in Birmingham, Ala. It failed when a fuse burned out.

★ ★ ★

President Eisenhower joined with political and religious leaders in deploring the Atlanta incident. He interrupted a speech about civil and religious liberties in New York to declare: "We must all share in the feeling of horror that anyone would want to desecrate a place of religion, be it a chapel, a cathedral, a mosque, a church or a synagogue," he said.

★ ★ ★

The explosion occurred about 3:35 a. m. Sunday and although police searched that section of the city, the scene of the blast went undetected for more than four hours.

Some windows in an adjacent apartment house and an insurance company building were torn out.

Biggest A-Blast in Series Fired

Visible for Hundreds of Miles Over Nevada Desert Wastelands

ATOMIC TEST SITE, Nev. (UPI)—The Atomic Energy Commission early today exploded the fifth and most powerful nuclear device in its current test series, a 10 kiloton blast dangling from a balloon 1500 feet over Yucca Flat.

Because of the height and size of the blast it was visible for several hundred miles over the western desert wastelands. Motorists were halted between nearby Las Vegas and Beatty, Nev., and advised not to look directly at the fireball.

The shot went off at 8:20 a.m. (Est).

Alcatraz Flight Didn't Work

Convict's Body Found Floating Face Down in San Francisco Bay

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The unrecognizable body of tough Alcatraz convict Aaron Walter Burgett of Potts Camp, Mo., was found Sunday circling The Rock, from which he escaped Sept. 29.

It was spotted by prison guard Lyndon M. Cropper, bobbing face down in San Francisco Bay 100 yards out. A Coast Guard cutter picked it up.

Warden Paul J. Madigan said he was convinced now that Ralph Coe and Theodore Cole, the only ones of 20 would-be escapees never accounted for, "drowned just as Burgett had. They just can't escape from here."

Burgett, 28, fortified himself with artificial aides for the swim. The Missouri post office robber was found still wearing a plastic bag inflated for water wings. He had a plywood fin strapped to one shin. He still carried the sharp knife with which he threatened guard Harold Miller. He and convict Clyde Johnson, once labled Public Enemy No. 1, gagged Miller and left him bound. Burgett entered the water, but Johnson didn't and was recaptured.

The tides and currents were too much for Burgett. His battered and gnawed head and body were nearly unidentifiable. But a thumb print and his numbered prison belt and his prison-issue clothing made identification positive.

The warden said the prison would provide a coffin and transportation of Burgett's remains to the small hamlet near Banner, Mo., where he once held up a post office. His parents live there now.

To Test Vaccine Against Colds on Students

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP) — A one-year study of a new anticold vaccine will begin tonight when some 2,600 University of Notre Dame students line up for vaccinations.

About two thirds of the students will receive vaccine containing several different strains of viruses associated with upper respiratory infections. The others will get a sterile solution and act as the control group.

Scientists hope the vaccine will prevent up to 70 per cent of common colds.

Officials said neither doctors administering the shots nor students will know which contains the vaccine. Code numbers will be used, and they will be decoded only at the end of the study.

The vaccine was produced by Dr. Thomas G. Ward, research professor of virology at Notre Dame's Lobound Institute, and scientists of the National Institute of Health.

Waterford Township Man Named to County Board

Donald F. Dodman, of 6630 Manson Dr., Waterford Township, has been named to the Oakland County Veterans Trust Fund committee, as a representative of the American Legion.

His Only Regret: Price of Glory

Red No Longer Able to Stroll Through Normal Life Unnoticed

By CHARLES MERCER

Each weekday morning on CBS Radio he presents a one-hour program from 10-11 a.m. From 11 to 11:30 a.m. he does his morning television show on CBS-TV. And recently he launched a new weekly night-time show on CBS-TV.

Why, a reporter asked him recently, does he continue to work so hard?

If he wished, he obviously could afford to retire at the age of 55 and spend his time at his greatest enjoyments — riding and showing his horses, flying airplanes, hunting. So why not quit?

"The reason I don't is because I think I would die," Godfrey replied.

"I like my work. I like it very much. The only part I don't like is what happens extra-curricularly. For instance, I can no longer just go into a store and buy a pair of socks."

If he could walk into a cafeteria again and have coffee and doughnuts without anybody paying any attention, he'd love it.

"Those are mundane things to the average person, but, boy, it would be a treat to me. And it's been too many years since I could do it.

"I've built my whole career on nothing but my knowledge of life. I saw the seamiest side of it, and yet it's been over 25 years since I knew what it was to be hungry. That's a long time to remember."

The only formula Godfrey says he knows for keeping going, even when you don't feel like it, is to "do your job and take a joy in doing it.

"Start out in the morning. You stand under the hot shower and it's so wonderful you could lie down and sleep in it. The last thing you want to do is turn on the cold water, but if you turn it on and really take the beating for 40 seconds, the rest of the day is easy."

Fear 75 Killed in Boat Sinking

45 Bodies Recovered From Sea Disaster at Philippines

MANILA (AP) — Seventy-five Filipinos today were believed drowned in the sinking of a small motor launch overloaded with fiesta celebrants.

Navy and coast guard ships recovered 45 dead and rescued 163 survivors, but 30 persons were missing. A navy spokesman said only a slim chance remained that any would be found alive.

It was the Philippines' worst sea disaster since World War II.

★ ★ ★

The boat was on a trip before dawn Sunday across the turbulent Visayan Sea from Masbate to a small island off northern Cebu, in the central Philippines. Battered by heavy seas, she sprang a leak and sank. Survivors said many persons were trapped below deck.

Says Dope Addiction's Worst Among Wealthy

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Barney Ross is making speeches charging that the worst drug addiction is not in the slums but among wealthy socialites here and in the lush California areas who can afford the narcotics — as well as the price of hushing up their violations . . . Bobo Rockefeller and Elsa Maxwell had a bitter clash at Aly Kahn's Pakistanian party. It concerned something Elsa wrote about Bobo in a book. When Elsa said they'd never met, Bobo said, "How could you write anything about me if you didn't know me—and then it got violent.

As a guy who had to drink 2 bottles of scotch in 12 hours, he played it so believably that I asked him if he'd been rehearsing. "Me drink!" he said, using an old but still good line. "Only when I'm alone or with somebody." (Jack Benny, out on the sidewalk, praised Tom's performance, too. Steve Allen, Tom's employer, arriving from Hollywood late, couldn't get tickets.)

Pacific Storm Erases View of Sun Eclipse

BOULDER, Colo. (AP) — Long preparations and hopes for valuable scientific data were thwarted in the south Pacific Sunday when a thunderstorm drew a curtain over a total eclipse of the sun.

But Dr. Walter Orr Roberts, director of the high-altitude observatory here, said he was informed that the storm obliterated all view of the eclipse, which lasted about four minutes. The scientists were stationed at the Danger Islands, 500 miles east of Samoa.

Car Fumes Kill Driver

MUSKEGON (AP) — Joseph C. Tariske, 44, Hart, was found dead yesterday of carbon monoxide poisoning. Coroner Basil J. Young ruled death was accidental. He said Tariske apparently fell asleep in his parked car with the motor running.

Chain Drugstores to Open in Britain

LONDON (UPI) — The British, who now buy cigarettes from a tobacconist, candy from a confectioner and aspirins from a chemist, prepared today to welcome their first chain of American-style drugstores.

★ ★ ★

The project is the brainchild of Eric Rhodes, a movie magnate whose movies face increasingly tough competition from television. The South African-born Rhodes reported excellent business in a "pilot" drugstore he opened recently in the southwest London suburb of Streatham.

★ ★ ★

"I believe the drugstore idea will catch the imagination of the public," Rhodes, whose holding company owns stores, offices, apartment buildings and coffee bars besides the cinema chain, told reporters.

He said he planned 50 drugstores with service from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. weekdays and on Sunday afternoons and evenings throughout Britain.

4 GOP Candidates Will Speak in City

Congressman William S. Broomfield, Sen. L. Harvey Lodge, Oakland County Treasurer Charles A. Sparks, and Mrs. Hope Gorman, candidate for state representative from Pontiac, will speak tomorrow night at a Republican political rally in Pontiac.

The Oakland County Republican Committee will put on the rally at 8 p.m. at the LeBaron School, 595 E. Beverly Ave.

Following brief talks by the four, all candidates in the Nov. 4 election, there will be a question and answer period. The public is invited free of charge, a committee spokesman said.

The United States ranks first among world nations which grant scholarships to students from abroad, offering about 20,000. France is second with 13,000 scholarships available to foreign students.

Alaskan Farmers Can't Get Rich Quick

(This is the last of four articles on the cities of Alaska, and the opportunities they afford for would-be settlers.)

By HAL WOOD

PALMER, Alaska (UPI) — Lettuce sells for 17 cents a pound, tomatoes 33 cents and strawberries 55 cents a basket in this area. And milk sells for 25 cents a glass.

So the farmers in the fabled Matanuska Valley should be getting rich. But they aren't.

Palmer is the "city" of Matanuska, the valley that was settled during the depression days of the 1930's by farmers from the U.S. It has been damned and blessed, in turn, during the past quarter of a century.

But today it is the greatest thing that has happened to the boom city of Anchorage—outside of government spending in this area.

"The over-all cost of production here is so high that there is no chance to get rich quick," said Irvin Schomburg, manager of the Matanuska Co-Op.

"There is a chance to make a good living—and if you stick it out 15 or 20 years you have a chance to become comfortably well off. But any farmer with an idea of settling here for a year or two and making enough to retire on is doing the wrong "thinking."

★ ★ ★

Without the Matanuska Valley, which is 40 miles north of Anchorage, the people of Anchorage would be paying twice as much for food as they do now.

Here is what Matanuska furnishes in the way of agricultural economy to the territory of Alaska:

"If we could get about 200 more good truck farms, we could furnish nearly all the green vegetables in the summer months," said Schomburg.

"Out of the state's total farm crop of $4,500,000, the Matanuska Valley furnishes $2,700,000. Of this amount, $1,034,240 comes from our dairy, where we have about 2,000 cows. The other 10 cows in the state are in the Fairbanks area."

There are 16,000 acres of land under cultivation in the Matanuska Valley. About 5,500 persons live in the city of Palmer.

"We find that the settlers here are quite contented," said the co-op manager. "They have raised families and now their children are growing up. I would say that more children of farmers stay on the farms here than do in the midwest.

★ ★ ★

"We have practically no juvenile delinquency. Oh, somebody needs a spanking once in a while. But if the kids want to get tough around here, they can just walk into the nearest woods and try wrestling a bear."

★ ★ ★

According to Schomburg, there are very few really prosperous farmers. Most of the men here plow whatever money they make right back into the improvement of their land. Loans on land are short — four to six years. And interest is high—about eight per cent.

There are 51,000 acres of land here still not under cultivation—but already home-steaded. Prices for improved land vary, but may average around $500 an acre. A local farmer is asking $150,000 for 120 acres of land. But this price also includes 50 head of cattle at $500 per head, tractors, farm equipment, irrigation setup, house, barns, etc.

"It's a good life," said Schomburg, "but it's not for sissies. Hard work is the only road to success in the Matanuska Valley."

RUSSIA'S MOST DELUXE AUTO — Highly reminiscent of the now defunct Packard is this latest entry in the Russian automobile field, called the "ZIL-111." Built in Moscow, the auto has an eight-cylinder engine developing 220 horsepower, with a top speed of 105 m. p. h. It features button-controlled transmission, power brakes and steering and a windshield washing device. One of the most deluxe autos in Russia, it also boasts power windows, heater, and two-speaker radio. Some models will also have air-conditioning. Slays Hunter-Husband

FLINT (AP)— A Flint woman is held in the fatal shooting of her husband after she objected to his plans to go hunting. State Police said Mrs. Esther Boylan, 24, admitted she shot her husband James, 26, eight times Saturday night with a .22 caliber automatic pistol.

Vanilla is the nation's favorite ice cream flavor, followed by chocolate and strawberry, in that order.

Fuel Exceeds Demand

NEW YORK — The American Petroleum Insitiute reports that the nation produced 1,433,000,000 barrels of motor fuel in 1957 and used 1,388,000,000 barrels.

Ike Campaigns in New York

Boosts GOP Candidates in Effort to Unseat Gov. Harriman

NEW YORK (AP) — President Eisenhower used a visit to New York City Sunday to boost Republican office seekers in their effort to unseat the Harriman administration and to elect a U.S. senator.

From the moment the President stepped from his plane to his departure about 6½ hours later, Nelson Rockefeller and Rep. Kenneth Keating were not far from his side.

Eisenhower also discussed the situation in the Formosa Strait by phone with Secretary of State Dulles, sent a message of congratulation to the Air Force on its moon rocket and directed the FBI to aid the investigation into the dynamiting of a Jewish temple in Atlanta, Ga.

Rockefeller later told a news conference he had informed the President, "Things look good; the whole ticket is optimistic."

Three Persons Injured in Three-Car Smashup

Three persons were injured Saturday afternoon in a three-car smashup on Auburn Rd., just east of Opdyke Rd., in Pontiac Township, according to Oakland County Sheriff's Deputies.

Admitted to Pontiac General Hospital was one of the drivers, Bernard C. Blay, 34, of 60 Douglas St. He is reported in satisfactory condition.

Treated for minor injuries and released were James B. Angel, 39, of 2370 Auburn Rd., Pontiac Township, and his wife Hazel, 29.

Deputies said the Blay auto struck the rear of an eastbound car driven by Walter H. Carpenter, 79, of 418 Auburn Heights, and then hit the Angel car headon. Carpenter was uninjured, deputies reported.
