GONE — In a cloud of dust that marked the end of manufacturing gas locally, Consumers Power Co. downed the stack from its plant on Wessen Street Saturday. A wedge (upper picture) was cut in one side, and down it came. The advent of natural gas via pipeline made the move necessary. The stack has been a landmark since the early 1920's.

Sewer Contract Lawsuit Begins With Arguments

City Claims Waterford Drainage Connection Was Made Illegally

Opposing interpretations of a 1935 contract allowing Waterford Township to hook into the Pontiac sewer system were aired this morning in a special courtroom set up in the Oakland County Office Building.

Pontiac City Attorney William A. Ewart and Waterford counsel Clark J. Adams presented opening arguments before Port Huron Circuit Judge Eugene Black.

Judge Black was called in to hear the case when it was found the three Oakland County circuit judges were too busy to give it immediate attention.

In the suit filed Aug. 31 Pontiac contends Waterford illegally seeks to connect a sewer line from a planned shopping center to the Elizabeth Lake road sewage line in violation of an agreement between the two governmental units.

The city alleges that under the agreement all plans for changes, enlargements or additions to the system must be submitted to the City Commission for approval and says this was not done in the current dispute.

This morning, Ewart said the agreement did not commit Pontiac to giving uninterrupted service. "We intend to prove this sewage system was designed for residential use, not for use as a shopping center."

He claimed no notice was given Pontiac that the work was going to commence. The 8-inch line, now 293 feet long, could be extended to a half mile in length to service the whole 80 acres owned by the shopping center, Ewart declared.

This could overload the city system and pose a threat to the basements of city homes, he asserted.

Adams said the township had issued a permit for the sewer's construction to bring action which would see the debate settled. He said discussions about the project had been carried on between the two units previously.

The township, he stated, maintains that the project is a connection to the city system, not an enlargement and is allowable under the contract without city approval.

The line, which has not been tied into Pontiac's network as yet, will service only one building, he declared.

Pontiac has charged Waterford with fraud, said Adams, who stated, "Pontiac's effort to show fraud by Waterford perhaps is an effort to cover its own bad faith."

The charge that city sewers would be overloaded is not a part of the contractural dispute at issue, Adams alleged.

The case was slated to continue this afternoon with both sides expected to call expert witnesses.

Girl Hurt as Father Swerves to Avoid Car

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — Dawn Deverter, 13, suffered a fractured right arm Sunday when a car driven by her father, Leo, 1060 Bird St. Birmingham, ran off Groton road just south of West Long Lake road into a ditch.

Police said the brakes on Deverter's car gave out and he swerved into the ditch to avoid hitting another car. His daughter was treated at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Pontiac.

Getting Ready for Geneva

Big 3 Face New Problems; Saar Says No to Europe; Bao Dai Out in Viet Nam

PARIS (AP)—The Western Big Three foreign ministers completed work today on the first part of a joint memorandum they will submit at the Big Four conference at Geneva.

The first point concerns proposals for German reunification within a European security system.

The ministers, U. S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, British Foreign Secretary Harold Macmillan and French Foreign Minister Antoine Pinay met with experts until shortly after 1 p.m.

They were to meet again to examine the remaining points of the memorandum, concerning disarmament and East-West relations.

U. S. Secretary of Defense Charles Wilson, who is on his way to the Geneva meetings, also sat in on today's talks.

The big issues at the Geneva conference will be German reunification, European security, and disarmament. But side issues were coming to the fore to plague the Western trio.

Moshe Sharett, Israel's prime minister, was all set to toss in their laps a frying-hot issue: What are they going to do about the sale of arms by the Soviet bloc to Egypt?

SAAR SAYS 'NO'

Overnight two other thorny problems arose and were likely to be thrust into their consultations. These were:

1. The collapse in the Saar vote yesterday of Western plans to "Europeanize" that frontier valley as a keystone of French-German reconciliation.

The outcome of the plebiscite toppled the Saar's pro-French Premier and heightened German demands for return of the coal and

Murder Suspect Nabbed in Dixie

Man, 27, Scheduled for Lie Test in Slaying of Three Chicago Boys

CHICAGO (INS) — The dragnet for the killers of three Chicago youths reached into Tennessee as police left no stones unturned in their effort to solve the horror murders.

The suspect brought back yesterday from Tazewell, Tenn., was described as a 27-year-old Chicagoan with "scuffed knuckles and stains on his shirt."

He was arrested in Tennessee for being drunk on a public highway and was returned to Chicago when his story contained "doubtful features" which had to be checked out.

The suspect, whose late model sedan was studied by crime laboratory specialists, will undergo a lie detector test today.

LIE-TESTS SLATED

Also slated to undergo lie tests in the murders of Robert Peterson., 14, John Schuessler, 13, and his 11-year-old brother, Anton, were two alleged members of a youthful gang which staged weird sex orgies.

One of them, a 17-year-old sailor stationed at the Great Lakes Naval Training Center, surrendered to police yesterday after learning he was sought as a member of the "sex gang."

The third suspect to be given a lie test was picked up in the round-up of an 18-year-old girl and three boy friends.

Board to Ponder Courthouse Plan

Revenue Bond Power Would Be Placed in Construction Authority

Articles incorporating an authority with power to issue revenue bonds to finance construction of a new Oakland County Courthouse are scheduled for submission to the Board of Supervisors tomorrow.

The board will meet at 9:30 a.m. in the County Office Building at 1 Lafayette St.

A Special Building Committee, headed by Oak Park Supervisor Harold K. Schone, was authorized Sept. 19 to proceed with plans for the authority.

The incorporation articles were drawn up by Detroit bonding attorney Claude Stevens, said Schone.

If approved by the supervisors, the authority would have power to issue revenue bonds to construct the building, probably in the County Service Center on North Telegraph Road.

The authority would then lease the structure to the county and pay off the bonds through county-paid rentals. When the bonds were retired the courthouse would revert to county ownership.

Other scheduled action includes reports from the Legislative, Miscellaneous, Retirement, Salaries and Ways and Means Committees.

Terms of nine men in county governmental posts have expired and the positions are slated to be filled.

Attention Men! Dig Dese Crazy Barber People

BOSTON (INS)—Glamorous haircuts for men was the promise today of the Associated Master Barbers and Beauticians of America.

Fancy haircuts for men were on display as the association's 15th national triennial convention got under way. These included:

The "Tony Curtis," named after the movie star — long in back and short in front; "The Chicago Box," squarecut in the back; the "DA," which resembles the tail of a duck, and the "Flat Top," which describes it completely.

Abner B. Griffith, second general vice president of the organization, declared: "We're definitely trying to glamorize men. After all, they're now paying $1.50 for a haircut and they're calling for barbers to pay more attention to the style of the cut."

Young Dems Chief Elected

DETROIT (AP)—Charles P. Lockwood, a Wayne County assistant prosecutor, is new president of Michigan Young Democrats, who voted in closing their convention yesterday to lower the maximum membership age from 40 to 35.

President Faces Loaded Work Schedule Today

Declares Full Support of Dulles' Geneva Policy as He Awaits Advisers

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—President Eisenhower embarked today on his busiest work schedule since he was stricken with a heart attack.

A stepped-up list of callers followed encouraging weekend check-ups and issuance of a declaration of unqualified support for Secretary of State Dulles in advance of the Geneva conference.

The President said Dulles "speaks for me with authority for our country" in the foreign ministers meeting opening Thursday.

Gabriel Hague and Dr. Arthur F. Burns started a parade of official visitors to Fitzsimons Army Hospital for a conference on economic problems.

Burns, chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisers, and Hauge, Eisenhower's personal economic adviser, will precede Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. into the President's sickroom today. Lodge is chief U. S. delegate to the United Nations.

The President was well enough yesterday to stand upright unaided and step onto a pair of scales. They showed he had dropped to 172½ pounds, four less than when he entered the hospital. This, News Secretary James C. Hagerty said, "is all to the good."

Afterwards, the President made public a letter to his Cabinet spelling out Dulles' role of full authority in foreign affairs and calling for the full support of his colleagues in the administration. It was addressed to Vice President Nixon and read to the Cabinet in Washington Friday.

Eisenhower's decision to make it public served as a notice to diplomats abroad and politicians at home that any voice raised in disagreement with Dulles can be disregarded insofar as administration policy is concerned.

They weer identified as Lt. William J. Contratto, 36, of Bessemer, and Lt. Augustine J. Botens, 22, of Berkley. Both previously had been listed as from Bessemer. No street addresses were available.

Police said the men apparently enlisted the same time. Their serial numbers were identical except for the last digit which was only one number apart.

Three-year-old Steven Dilno, of 170 N. Opdyke Rd., Pontiac Township, was run over and killed Saturday afternoon while he was playing in the driveway of the Auburn Heights Trailer Park.

Oakland County Sheriff's Deputies said the driver of the fatal car was Mrs. Florina Matakas, 52, of 5217 Dixie Highway, Drayton Plains.

Mrs. Matakas said she didn't see the child and didn't know what had happened.

Steven was pronounced dead on arrival at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

Statements will be taken today at the Oakland County Prosecutor's Office to determine whether a charge will be lodged against Mrs. Matakas.

The brothers held him at gunpoint and hailed a passing state police car.

Prewitt has resumed serving 5 to 15 years for armed robbery.

Road Accidents Continue Rise; Up 13 Per Cent

Battle Creek Teenager Crash Takes 3 Lives; 5 Others Injured

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Three teen-agers were pulled dead from tangled wreckage Sunday after their vehicle missed a curve 10 miles north of Battle Creek and hurtled 25 feet through the air into a bridge abutment.

Five other young passengers, the oldest 18, were injured in the crash. Two are in critical condition.

Killed were Jan Bedford, 15; Suzy Cooper, 15, and David Rounds, 17, the driver. All were from Battle Creek.

Their deaths brought to 20 the number of persons who died in traffic accidents in Michigan this weekend. A fire fatality was Mrs. Violet Gajor, 39, of Center Line.

Critically injured in the Battle Creek crash were Carol Knoblock, 16, and Robert Haster, 18. Carol Running, 26, and David Anderson, 17, were hurt seriously. Betty Lou Sass, 16, the eighth passenger, escaped with lesser injuries.

Barry County Sheriff Walter Donovan blamed the mishap on speed.

"It's a wonder that all eight of them weren't killed," Donovan said. "You couldn't tell what kind of a car it was, or even that the mass of junk had once been a car."

The weekend's high traffic count put Michigan highway fatalities 13 per cent above last year. It also came as state legislators were preparing to meet in special session November 1st to discuss, among other things, how to cut down the state's accident rate.

TRAFFIC VICTIMS

Other traffic victims included Andrew Babish, 58, Detroit, killed Saturday when hit by a car crossing a street in Wyandotte.

Jack R. Hutchinson, 16, Detroit, killed Saturday in the Greyhound bus accident on U.S. 24 near Monroe.

Dale B. Titus, 39, Harbor Beach, Sunday when his car struck an abutment on U.S. 25 north of Port Hope in Huron County.

Increased Gifts Rolling In; UF Drive $200,000 Short

Greatly increased United Fund contributions have come from several firms and their employes this year, but the total pledged still lacks nearly $200,000 of reaching the $562,175 goal, Campaign Manager Robert M. Critchfield said today.

Only nine business days remain before the drive's end Nov. 11.

Leaders of the Commercial and Residential Divisions urged workers to speed up returns, asking that all possible pledges be reported by this Friday.

Employes of Boice Builders' Supply chalked up a 242 per cent increase over their 1954 total by contributing $699.72, nearly $10 apiece.

Arthur's Apparel Store workers gave $235.70 for an 84 per cent gain over 1954. The firm gift was $150.

Among auto dealers, Matthews-Hargreaves employes registered an 88 per cent increase by giving $564. The firm gave $300, or 50 per cent more.

Pontiac Retail Store employes gave $831, an 84 per cent increase, while workers at Oliver Motor Sales climbed 48 per cent over last year by donating $217. The firm's gift was $200.

The Simms Bros. company gift was $325, with employes pledging $717, a 29 per cent increase.

Marilyn Monroe Wants Out of 'Stereotype Sex' Jail

(Editors note: The first in a series of articles on Marilyn Monroe begins today with the below story. The star's fight for a change in roles, and the publicity that has made her a topic of conversation and comparison throughout the country will be treated in several other articles.)

By HELEN DUDAR and JIM COOK

The walk, a blend of side sway and forward movement which possesses the rhythm of a metronome on a slow beat, is the same old walk.

The platinum of the hair is still a shock to the eye.

The talk, a misty, murmuring thing which hints of dear distractions and double beds, sounds just the same.

Familiar is the face, and so is the figure.

All these things—the walk, the shock of hair, the talk, the face and the figure—still identify the phenomenon called Marilyn Monroe.

But New York is currently being re-educated to the fact that although the trademarks have not been altered, there has been a change in the merchandise.

Marilyn Monroe, America's mid-century Sex Symbol, is waging a private rebellion.

SHE'S FIGHTING

She is fighting to break out of the prison of Stereotyped Sex, where she had been confined by Hollywood publicists working in league with an overly generous Mother Nature. She is rebelling against biology, bearing forward the banner of intellect.

And New York is her battleground.

For nine months, the love goddess of the movies has conducted a revolutionary love affair with New York City and—platonically to be sure—with its groundlings.

SHE TICK TOCKS

Marilyn Monroe, unnoticed, has crossed the Brooklyn Bridge on foot into Brooklyn Heights to wander, fascinated, among shades of old world gentility; pedaled a bicycle down Ocean Parkway and leaned on Nathan's counter downing Coney Island frankfurters.

Marilyn Monroe, noticed and nearly mobbed, has tick-tocked down the corridors of the Metropolitan Museum of Art examining Goya etchings and has sat among the literati, possibly as confused and puzzled as most by a one-night performance of one of William Butler Yeats' more esoteric plays.

SHE HAS HALTED

During at least a part of that period, in dour and nervous secrecy, Twentieth Century-Fox has conducted contract renewal negotiations with Marilyn Monroe Productions Inc., a new, complex business arrangement which is probably less sinister and less foolish than it has been made to sound.

At mid-stream in success, she has halted for what one admiring friend sees as a canny "consolidation of career."

More than ever before, she seems acutely aware of the passage of time and conscious of her own perishability.

"She gives you the feeling she's

Princess Spends Quiet Weekend With Queen; Peter Stays in London

LONDON (AP)—Princess Margaret was due back in London today after a quiet weekend with her sister Queen Elizabeth II and the Duke of Edinburgh at Windsor Castle.

Peter Townsend also spent a quiet Sunday. He left his London apartment only once, just long enough to put a letter in a mailbox in the street outside.

What plans the princess and the divorced commoner might have for further meeting were not disclosed. When Townsend had tea with Margaret Saturday at Clarence House, her London home, it was their ninth date in 10 days.

The impression grew, meanwhile, that the 25-year-old Princess still had not made up her mind definitely whether to marry Townsend, 40, a Royal Air Force group captain and the divorced father of two sons.

The Rev. Douglas Lockhart, rector of old St. Paul's Episcopal Church of Scotland, spoke out strongly against such a marriage in a sermon in Edinburgh.

Prisoner From City Foiled in Breakout

A Pontiac man was among four prisoners placed in solitary confinement today at Ingham County Jail, after their escape attempt was foiled by a special deputy sheriff.

William F. Smith, 29, who was arrested Oct. 10 and turned over to the Lansing police on a forgery charge, was listed by Sheriff Willard P. Barnes as one of the group who beat the deputy and threatened him with a homemade knife.

The deputy, A. J. Snyder of Mason, delayed the four until help arrived. He said the men jumped him while he was counting inmates on the jail's second floor.

Snyder's yells were heard in the jail kitchen, and help was summoned. Smith's addresses here are 4010 Silver Birch Dr., and 184 Raeburn St., according to police.

United Air Lines Keeps Schedule Despite Walkout

NEW YORK (AP) — United Air Lines says it expects all its planes to fly on schedule today despite a strike by flight engineers.

The engineers walked out yesterday, claiming their job security is threatened by a new company rule that all newly hired engineers be qualified pilots.

The strike caused the airline to cancel one flight last night and several others were delayed 30 to 90 minutes. However, a company spokesman predicted today's operations would be "100 per cent normal."

The company said all planes taking off since the strike have had full crews, with qualified supervisory personnel filling in for engineers on strike.

Hunting Season Death Toll: Five

Latest Fatalities Died After Tripping on Guns While Chasing Game

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The gunfire death toll stood at five today in the fifth day of the Michigan small game hunting season.

Latest reported fatalities included Thomas Woodwaski, 63, of Utica, and Norman Johnson, 46, of Grand Rapids.

Woodwaski's wife, Josephine, 60, found her husband's body 100 yards from their farm home Sunday. Sheriff's deputies said he apparently tripped over his own shotgun, discharging it. Woodwaski had been dead since Friday. His wife had been visiting relatives and did not return home until Sunday.

Johnson's body was found in a wooded area halfway between Grand Rapids and Grand Haven. Sheriff Gerald Vanderbeek said Johnson was shot through the stomach with his 12-gauge shotgun. He appeared to have stumbled over a log.

TRIPPED ON RIFLE

A similar accident took the life of Joseph Lee Davis, 14, of Vermontville. The boy was found dead Saturday with a bullet wound in his chest.

Sheriff Everett Peck said Davis was hunting alone on his uncle's farm near his home and apparently tripped over his rifle.

At least 50 other hunters have been wounded in gunfire accidents since the season opened last Thursday. Three have died of heart attacks while hunting.

Meanwhile, no trace has been found of three duck hunters, one of them an 18-year-old girl, missing since Thursday.

Sheriff Meritt R. McBride said he feared the girl, her fiance and her brother, drowned in Saginaw Bay. Their empty boat was found near Port Austin.

Burglar Takes Rings, Cash From Home

BIRMINGHAM — Two rings, worth $3,750, and $115 in cash were taken Saturday night in a burglary from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Al Sherman, 898 Woodlea Dr., police reported today.

Detective Lieut. Merlin Holmquist said the thief had removed five jalousie windows at the rear of the house, forced his way through a back porch screen, and then forced open a sliding door to gain entry.

Holmquist said one ring, valued at $3,500, contained a 4.38 carat diamond with two baguettes on either side, set in platinum. The other was a star sapphire and five small diamonds mounted in gold. Both were taken from Mrs. Sherman's jewel box.

The Shermans were robbed of $1,088 in cash when their home was broken into last July.

Neither was able to make a statement as to the cause of the accident.

THE WAKE OF THE QUAKE — A clerk in the large supermarket in the small town of Danville, Calif. finds his way completely blocked by merchandise thrown from the shelves by last night's earthquake. He found this scene when he investigated reports of damage from the temblor. Danville is a small community behind the Oakland hills.

San Francisco Quivers as Earthquake Hits Area

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A swaying earthquake hit San Francisco and the East Bay tonight and was blamed for an explosion and fire that caused $3,000 worth of damage to an Oakland house.

Windows shattered, telephone lines went dead, statues fell from niches in a chapel, dishes fell from shelves and overhead lights swayed dizzily.

At Oakland, an apartment house fire started soon after the quake and burned to death an 85-year-old woman, Ora Bell. Tom Dolan, a battalion fire chief, estimated damage at $25,000 and said the fire was "definitely caused by a gas explosion."

Ruth Aldinger, 49, jumped out of a second story window during the fire and suffered serious injuries.

Oakland firemen also blamed the quake for a $3,000 house fire. Battalion Chief Bernard Dooley said it either cracked gas pipes or extinguished a pilot light, causing an explosion. Manuel Ortega was hit by flying glass and injured slightly.

At Sonoma, the Buena Vista Winery said the jolt shifted a 1,200-gallon wine cask in its cradle. A seam split and, until workmen caulked it, a geyser of wine sprayed out. There was not much loss.

STATUES TUMBLE

Statues of the Virgin Mary and of St. John Baptist de la Salle fell some 25 feet from niches in the chapel wall at St. Mary's University, across the bay from San Francisco. Plumbing cracked in a university dormitory.

Two large windows shattered at the Anglo California Bank on San Francisco's Market Street.

At Walnut Creek, near Oakland, telephone lines went dead temporarily although Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. at San Francisco reported no damage.

Most of the damage was in the East Bay near Oakland. At suburban Orinda dishes fell from shelves and windows were broken.

A crack appeared in the city room of the San Francisco Examiner. Plaster cracked in a number of San Francisco homes.

The quake was felt as far south as San Jose, although not too heavily, and as far west as Sacrament and Stockton.

Thorne Plane Crash Deaths Now Total 8

NORTH HOLLYWOOD, Calif. (AP) —Two more deaths have brought to eight the total killed by the crash of millionaire sportsman Joel Thorne's plane into an apartment house last Monday night.

Miss Anna Presincano, 41, Lyndhurst, N. J., and Mrs. Laura Marchica, 38, succumbed yesterday to burns.

They were sisters of Mike Preston, 31, who is still in critical condition as is Mrs. Marchica's daughter Patricia, 9.

Patricia and Preston are the only survivors of a family group of eight who were celebrating the baptism a few hours earlier of 7-week-old Sheryll Preston. The celebration was at the Preston apartment.

Killed in the crash were the baby, Thorne and an 18-year-old bride of two months, Mrs. Betty Wolf. Then Patricia's brother Johnny Marchica, 6, died. Friday night Mrs. Shirley Preston, 25, wife of Mike and mother of the baby, died. So did Frank Marchica, 38, Preston's brother-in-law.

Olympic Park Boasts Year-round Recreation

SEATTLE — Olympic National Park, a vast preserve in the heart of the isolated Olympic Peninsula of Washington State, is the only United States park that holds both snow-capped mountains and ocean beaches, says the National Geographic Society. Majestic peaks offer some of the finest alpine scenery on the continent, yet no point in the park is more than 60 miles from the sea.

Big Three Facing 2 New Problems

steel valley they held before World War II.

A whopping 96.72 per cent of all eligible Saarlanders went to the polls yesterday and turned down the European status plan 423,434 (67.7 per cent) to 201,973 (32.3 per cent).

Within minutes after the final returns were reported early today, Premier Johannes Hoffman announced he was resigning "out of respect for the will of the people."

He promised immediate parliamentary elections certain to set up a new government pledged to work for speedy reunion of the Saar with Germany.

By defeating the Europanization statute—which had taken five years to work out in Paris and Bonn—the Saarlanders inflicted a bitter humiliation on the French and raised a grim question mark over French-German relations.

BAO DAI OUT

2. The overwhelming victory of Premier Ngo Dinh Diem of South Viet Nam over chief of state Bao Dai in a referendum.

This virtually eliminated any possibility of a unification election in Indochina as provided by the 1954 Geneva armistice conference at which the British and Russian foreign ministers were cochairmen.

Proclamation of a South Viet Nam republic with Diem as its first president is expected to come soon. Another referendum probably will be held next month to approve the nation's first constitution.

The U.S. State Department has already said it will recognize the election outcome. Britain and France are believed certain to do likewise.

But new trouble between the Western Big Three and the Soviet Union loomed as a result.

Broomfield Backs Debt Firm Laws

State Senator William H. Broomfield (R-Royal Oak) says a Senate subcommittee will recommend that the 1956 Legislature pass a law to control debt pool firms.

Broomfield's statement followed two days of hearings in Detroit on the question of state regulation of firms which offer to settle claims against a debtor by pro-rating his pay among creditors for a fee.

Broomfield said that while some debt pool firms have performed real service, others have milked clients for exorbitant fees, failed to pay creditors and garnisheed wages of clients.

The Senator said the subcommittee would recommend that debt pool firms be prohibited from garnisheeing wages.

Broomfield said the subcommittee would hold hearings next in Grand Rapids and Muskegon. No date, however, has been set.

William C. Hall Hurt in Two Car Collision

William C. Hall, 29, of 3056 Hall Ct., was reported in "fair" condition today at Pontiac General Hospital after a two-car collision Saturday morning.

Hall suffered head lacerations when the car in which he was riding, driven by Chester Williford, 43, of 3020 Hall Ct., struck one driven by Lawrence P. Stellmack, 42, of 360 N. Saginaw St.

Police said Williford had been driving on the wrong side of the street, and Stellmack had not succeeded in avoiding the accident.

The Day in Birmingham

Short Agenda Scheduled for Commission Meeting

BIRMINGHAM—A fairly short agenda will find the City Commission discussing hockey and skating boards for the Eton Park ice skating rink, a proposed disaster control plan, an assessment procedure chart and swimming pool regulations at tonight's session.

In connection with the city's efforts to improve parking conditions on U.S. 10, the lawmakers will receive further information, particularly in regard to an access drive on Hunter between Hazel and Bowers.

Annexation will be in the picture not once but twice, first when the commission is asked for its opinion on annexing Southfield Township property south of 14 Mile road. The subject will again receive attention through a resolution passed by the Bloomfield Township Board in which it agrees to annex Socony Vacuum Oil Company property which will help expedite the extension of Oak street.

A reminder that the polio vaccine program is being resumed here was made today when kindergartners and first graders were sent home with blue cards giving interested parents the choice of securing the shots through their own physicians or, if impossible, through clinics which will be set up for this purpose.

City Health Nurse Anyce Gillette said cards, which must be returned to school or doctor by Nov. 7, will be sent to the doctor indicated, permitting him to secure the vaccine from the health department. Another form will be sent home to those parents who cannot arrange for inoculation by private physicians.

When there is sufficient vaccine, cards will be given to second, third and fourth graders, plus nine-year old fifth graders who did not complete the series this summer.

Mrs. Gillette said the first clinic will be for those receiving their first shot; the second for the second shot, including those children with an incomplete series; and the third clinic will take care of all third inoculations and incomplete boosters.

After only one week of general visitation to parishioners, the St. Columban Catholic Church building fund has reached $70,000 of the minimum $100,000 needed, the Rev. Thomas M. Kenny, pastor and honorary chairman of the drive, has announced.

The campaign is being conducted to reduce the parish debt in order to construct a parochial school.

A roof fire started by sparks from an incinerator Saturday caused an estimated $2,000 damage at the Irving Taylor home, 756 Abbey Rd., Fire Chief Park Smith said today.

The blaze, which was covered by insurance, was confined to the roof structure with some water damage inside, Smith said.

Starting its 36th year at 10 a.m. at the Community House tomorrow will be the Ruth Shain Class in International Affairs. Mrs. Charles Shain again stressed that the class is not invitational but open to all.

Recently returned from the annual Herald Tribune forum, with this year's theme on, "Dynamic Forces at Work on World Problems," Mrs. Shain will distribute newspapers carrying a full account of the meetings.

City Man Honored by Singing Society

C. D. Sanborn, of 131 Thorpe St., has been named "Area Governor of the Year" by the Michigan District of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barbershop Quartet Singing in America, Inc.

The award, which is presented annually, was announced in Jackson Saturday at the district convention and quartet championship contest.

The Treblemakers of Detroit were judged as the district champions, the Fourtune Tellers of Jackson placing second and the Onchords of Saginaw, third.

Both the Treblemakers and Onchords will appear in Pontiac December 3 when the local club presents its annual "Holiday of Harmony" show at Pontiac High School.

Seek Murder Warrant

DETROIT — Detroit police said a first degree murder warrant would be sought today against Mrs. Ruth Easter, 37, who shot her brother-in-law, Kenneth Easter, after she ordered him out of her home.

Presented Art Work

DETROIT (AP)—Mrs. K. T. Keller, wife of the chairman of the board of Chrysler Corp., has presented a painting by Sir Joshua Renolds to the Detroit Institute of Arts. Titled "The Cottagers," the painting is considered one of the finest works by the 18th Century English portraitist.

In botany the name annuals applies to plants which complete their life within one year; biennials require two years; and perennials may live on for an indefinite number of years.

CADILLAC for 1956

Top to bottom—Eldorado Seville, Sedan de Ville, Sixty Special

Presenting the Most Inspiring Motor Cars the World Has Ever Seen!

You are looking at three of the most magnificent and inspiring creations ever to issue from the drawing boards of Cadillac's designers and engineers. They are the Eldorado Seville and the Sedan de Ville—two entirely new and exciting additions to Cadillac's royal family of motor cars—and the brilliant new Series Sixty Special.

These spectacular new Cadillacs—in company with the other Cadillac models for 1956—introduce a standard of automotive excellence that will find no counterpart on the highways of the world.

Where, for instance, could you find anything to match them for beauty and elegance? Their low, sweeping lines . . . their jewel-like grille and rear-fender designs . . . their exciting new colors . . . their sparkling highlights of chrome and gold . . . all combine to create a beauty that is truly unique.

Where could you find anything to equal them in luxury? Inside are fabrics of rare richness and pattern . . . appointments that are beautiful and regal almost beyond description . . . and features of comfort and convenience that will delight even the most experienced Cadillac owner.

And where could you find anything to rival them in performance? There's a completely redesigned Cadillac engine developing 285 and 305 horsepower . . . an entirely new, controlled-coupling Hydra-Matic Drive . . . advanced Cadillac Power Steering . . . and improved Cadillac Power Braking.

This extraordinary new Cadillac beauty . . . and this brilliant new Cadillac luxury . . . and this dynamic new Cadillac performance . . . have been interpreted in four separate series and in nine individual body styles.

We sincerely urge you to stop in for a personal inspection and demonstration at your earliest convenience.

We know you will agree that, from every standpoint, these are the most inspiring Cadillacs of all time. And that, of course, means that they are the most inspiring motor cars the world has ever seen!

President Must Watch These Tell-Tale Signs

NEW ORLEANS (INS) — These are the tell-tale signs Dr. Paul Dudley White said he will be checking in President Eisenhower during the next two to three months:

Shortness of breath, pain under the "neck-tie region," enlarged heart, and swelling of the feet.

If these signs are observed or determined by X-ray in the President, they will tell the doctors that recovery has not been successful. The reverse also holds true.

Dr. White, the Boston heart specialist and consultant in the President's case, gave his views in a panel discussion and subsequent news conference yesterday at the American Heart Association meeting in New Orleans.

CONVALESCING WELL

He had flown to the meeting after giving the Chief Executive a complete medical checkup at Fitzsimons Army Hhospital Saturday morning. Following the checkup, Dr. White told newsmen in Denver the President is "convalescing well" and that the healing of the heart has been speeded up.

Dr. White said:

"When there is myocardinal infarction (scarring of the heart) secondary to coronary thrombosis a few weeks are needed to heal the scar, after which if the scar is small a normal life may be resumed.

Dr. White offered this explanation of his remarks later when pressed at the news conference:

NO TWO CASES THE SAME

"While no generalities hold since no two cases are the same, still it is necessary to test the rest of the heart capacity to determine how much of the functions it can take over from the scarred tissue.

"This takes several months to determine. You allow the person gradually to become more active and take on more mental and physical burdens. If this proves too much of a drain on the heart reserve you get certain symptoms.

Dr. White emphasized in his Denver statement that it would "probably" be Jan. 1 before the President could return to the White House, if recovery continues.

He said recovery would be checked from "fortnight to fortnight" and added:

"In coronary cases it may take from one week to one year or longer to determine if recovery is complete."

Two Undersize Robbers Flee With Pillowcase

LONG BRANCH, N.J. (INS) — Two rather undersized "Jesse Jameses" were arrested for robbing the Long Branch mails.

Two brothers, aged 10 and 8, broke into a sealed boxcar carrying mail and made off with one item—a pillowcase.

In February 1947 it was 82 degrees below zero at Snag Airport in the Yukon, one of the lowest marks in North American records.

Dem Solon Blasts GOP on Reclamation Setup

WASHINGTON (INS) — Senate Interior Chairman James E. Murray (D-Mont), charged today that the Eisenhower administration is trying to "liquidate" the nation's reclamation programs.

He declared in a letter to the National Reclamation Association's 24th annual convention opening in Lincoln, Neb., that government officials' "sweet promises stand betrayed by . . . performance."

Coast Guard Speeding to Save Stricken Yacht

HARBOR BEACH, (INS) — The Coast Guard at Harbor Beach sent a rescue boat into stormy Lake Huron early today in answer to a distress call from a yacht said to be sinking five miles east of Port Austin.

The signal from the stricken craft was received at 3:30 a.m. but no radio contact had since been made with the vessel.

An oil tanker and a Canadian packet freighter were reported standing by the yacht.

WHY? Your skin is oily. You switch from one treatment preparation to another, yet blackheads and blemishes still persist. Why?

BECAUSE! The answer is the same in either case, as Max Factor scientists have now proved. There's a chemical barrier in the skin which keeps creams and lotions "on the outside looking in"—as though they were smoothed on glass! This barrier develops when skin lacks correct pH* balance and is either too acid or too alkaline.

WHAT? But now Max Factor has perfected the way to bring about normal acidity-alkaline balance characteristic of young skin . . . puts in your hands the SECRET KEY—a remarkable liquid which prepares your skin for treatment by breaking through the stubborn chemical barrier. The SECRET KEY now actually opens the way for treatment creams and lotions to do their beautifying work!

Having discovered the SECRET KEY, Max Factor has formulated exclusive corrective creams and lotions to follow right behind . . . complete beauty treatment groups for Dry Skin, for Oily Skin, for Disturbed Skin, for Normal Skin.

And we are proud to invite you to realize your skin's fullest beauty potential, beginning here and now with the SECRET KEY!

U.N. Starts Eleventh Year With Expanded Influence

It is fitting on this United Nations Day, the climax of United Nations Week, to look at the world peace body in the light of its 10-year growth.

Few, we believe, would deny that the organization has grown not only in number of members but in strength and influence. Though still far from perfect, and called by some nothing more than a debating society, U. N. itself and its various agencies have many achievements to their credit.

In its first decade it survived in Korea the kind of a crisis which wrecked the League of Nations by meeting the challenge to use force in the interest of collective security. During this same period U. N. has grown in effectiveness far more than its founders had dared to hope.

Among other things the organization has done much to reduce the causes of war by attacking the evils of want, ignorance, misunderstanding and disease in many parts of the world. At the same time it has faced courageously the violence bred by those evils in such areas as Berlin, Kashmir and Iran.

Since 1945 U. N. membership has grown from 51 nations to 60, and 21 other nations are eagerly awaiting the opportunity to join. Quite properly this list does not include Communist China which was an aggressor against U. N. itself. Most member nations, including the United States, feel that Red China hasn't qualified for membership as a peace loving nation.

It is worth noting that many of the nonmember nations have U. N. ties through membership in from one to half a dozen of its subsidiary agencies. This undoubtedly has helped to increase the organization's influence and justify belief that its next 10 years will be as fruitful as the last.

Wisconsin Badgered by Oleo Bootleggers

Wisconsin's Senate is seeking ways to prevent bootlegging of oleomargarine into the Nation's greatest dairying State.

Existing law requires merchants who sell this butter substitute to pay high license fees and purchasers to pay a tax of 15 cents a pound.

Besides this, persons who bring in margarine from other States for their own use are supposed to buy annual import licenses at one dollar each. They also are supposed to send six cents to Madison for each pound so imported.

In a tongue-in-cheek editorial the Milwaukee Journal asks if anybody knows anybody who complies with this section of the law. Then, for the benefit of the Senate, it proceeds to discuss three possible courses of action.

One suggestion is to close the border. This, of course, would be very expensive. It also would be unconstitutional and Wisconsin might have to secede from the Union.

A second proposal is that Wisconsin persuade neighboring States to adopt similar punitive laws. The flaw in that idea is that these might persist in their belief that margarine is a food which should be sold without excessive taxes.

Having gone through a margarine fight in Michigan, we believe the Journal's third suggestion most sensible and to the point. It is that Wisconsin "repeal the whole unconscionable and muddleheaded law."

First Williamsburg Award

It is especially fitting that the trustees of restored Colonial Williamsburg should create an award to be given from time to time to persons whose words and deeds have promoted liberty and justice.

In describing the award the trustees said it should go to "a person who has influenced the course of national or world events significantly by expressing in sustained action or eloquent and persuasive statement a dedication to liberty and justice for all men."

These words make the choice of Sir Winston Spencer Churchill to be the first recipient of the award of $10,000 and a plaque, a happy one indeed. Moreover, the words and acts of the great wartime Prime Minister make it seem as though this distinction were designed for him alone.

Beyond doubt no one in this era more completely deserves the honor the trustees have decided to confer on him. By written and spoken word as well as sustained deed during freedom's struggle with the Axis, Sir Winston did as much to shape events as anyone since the Magna Charta.

Already it has been well said that his published history of the conflict is to a considerable extent autobiographical.

Pheasants Doing Good Job at Outwitting the Hunters

Marriage: What if it was not for, some men and women might have to go outside the family for their fights.

Before the hunting season opened,

Jack Tireman

says numerous pheasants could be seen every day in the tall weeds along Cass Ave. near the Wisner Stadium, not far from his home. But now they're keeping out of sight, although protected by the ordinance which prohibits hunting inside the city limits. The same situation is reported by who lives out Oakland Ave., near the woods next to the railway viaduct, and also within the city limits, where the birds are taking no chances on pot hunters. Less than 10 minutes after the season opened Thursday, the family of

in Bloomfield Hills had a beautiful ring necked cock that had been shot directly over their home, and died in their front yard, the hunter speeding away, as he had broken a number of laws. A cock and his harem which had become quite domesticated around the home of

in White Lake Township, now have taken refuge in his garage, and are being fed by the family. A cock that had been coming up from the nearby woods and fighting with the roosters in the poultry yard of at Lake Orion, now has become very friendly and freely mixes with them, rather than return to his customary haunts.

The 3,273 good sports who entered the MAT Football Contest now have all been eliminated but three. Previous to the Pontiac-Arthur Hill game Friday 63 survived, and when Arthur Hill won 36 remained. In the Michigan State-Illinois game Saturday the survivors were reduced to 15. After the Detroit-Los Angeles game Sunday only three were left. On the next contest game two of these pick Georgia and the other Alabama.

A cactus of an unusual variety is reported by

of 625 Going St. It now is in its annual blooming period, having striped flowers about the size and shape of an orange.

Zinnias in seven colors still are blooming in the garden of

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Lightfoot

in Drayton Plains. She says they keep fresh for several weeks after being picked.

A pair of Canadian honker wild geese are on their semi-annual migration stopover near the home of

at Cass Lake. They have been doing this several years. He always feeds them well.

Quite positive that the same pair of robins have raised three sets of birds near her home this year is of Keego Harbor. She says they built a new nest for each brood.

David Lawrence Says:

U. S. Should Adopt British Procedure for Naming Successor to Chief of State

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — When Representative Joseph W. Martin, Republican, former speaker of the House of Representatives, said the other day that he had a hunch President Eisenhower would accept renomination, he was really pointing up what is rapidly becoming known as "the Jan. 20 dilemma."

For, on Jan. 20, 1956, Eisenhower will be faced with the question of whether to resign the presidency or whether to begin the fourth year of his term without objecting to the decision of political leaders of his party to enter his name in the presidential preference primaries shortly thereafter in various states.

If it is improper for a man with heart trouble to continue in the presidency after Jan. 20, 1957, the query will be why isn't it also improper for him to remain in the White House a whole year prior to that date? The Constitution says specifically that in case of "inability to discharge the powers and duties of said office (the presidency), the same shall devolve on the vice president."

IKE CONSCIENTIOUS

Dwight Eisenhower is a conscientious man with a deep respect for the spirit as well as the letter of the Constitution. He would not feel right about it if the doctors told him he could not function actively in discharging "the powers and duties" of the presidency. He would be inclined to resign.

But if he is assured that he can fully carry out the "powers and duties" during his fourth year as President, it will be asked what reason is there to suppose he could not serve in the same way during the fifth and sixth years or during all of a second term?

Politically speaking a decision to run for a second term, now that everybody knows about the heart attack, would not affect adversely his chances for reelection if the people have confidence in the candidate chosen by the Republicans for the vice presidency.

Most persons, on the other hand, with long experience and background in national politics are beginning to say realistically that for Eisenhower to serve in the presidency during the fourth year of his term in a position of retirement and detachment would raise more political problems than it would solve.

GOP SPLIT POSSIBLE

In the first place, if the President doesn't run and allows a scramble for the nomination to develop, it will tend to split the Republican Party into factions and make a shambles of the Eisenhower program in the 1956 session of Congress.

For Eisenhower to remain silent altogether would be politically hazardous and full of embarrassments. It would open the way to suspicion and the maneuverings behind the scenes of persons on the White House staff and by others supposedly high in the presidential councils and thus add fuel to the flames of factionalism in the party.

field day the Democrats would have with that one!

With due respect to the right of any man past middle age to consult his own personal convenience where service to his country is involved, logic seems to point either to a resignation or a decision to accept renomination. Winston Churchill, who had suffered a slight stroke, faced the same dilemma last year. He bowed out and the people of Great Britain had a chance immediately to pass judgment on his successor in a specially called election.

With all the talk in this country recently about the need for a Constitutional amendment to clarify the provision about the possible "inability" of a president to serve, no better solution of the whole problem of succession will be found than in the principle of joint responsibility of the legislative and executive branches of the government in choosing the leader and submitting the choice to the people instantly in an election. The principle, imbedded in the British parliamentary system, has long been advocated by this writer. It was once championed by Woodrow Wilson. It affords the best basis for free government in a democracy because in essence it rests on the continuous consent of the governed.

Brady Suspects His Dad Suffered Lack of Calcium

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

Father had more fractures, all at one time, than I have had in all my life, but I feel competent to tell what I think was wrong with the treatment of father's fractures. Although my fractures were comparatively trifling injuries—one a mere chipping of the tip of the shoulder in an automobile accident and an impacted Colles fracture (wrist) in a fall off a slippery porch. Father stepped off the sidewalk to point out the North Star and Little Dipper to a group of boys one night and fell into an excavation.

I'm at a loss to account for the extent of the injuries he sustained in such a fall—less than five feet. He was only about 36 years old. Yet he came up with some broken ribs, broken collar bone, broken leg.

Anyway such injuries should disable a man fifty or sixty years old three months at the longest.

Not father. He was down and out for a year or more—in fact he never was rehabilitated. That is to say, he never got back at his trade —blacksmith, horse shoeing. Not strong enough or some such vague reason, the doctor decided.

RECALLS TREATMENT

I remember how the doctor would pay his daily visit and get out his hypodermic syringe and administer a dose of, I can only guess it was morphine and atropine. Shortly afterward father would carry on deliriously for a while, and then quiet down until the next shot.

Aside from the inadequate practical training of the doctor—most doctors in those days went directly into practice from medical school, without the finest possible post-graduate course — a year or two of internship—it is certain that the doctor hadn't the faintest notion, in fact no doctor had, in those days, that nutrition particularly calcium metabolism, had anything to do with the fragility of bones or with the healing of broken bones and the restoration of function.

In the light of our present knowledge of nutrition it is conceivable that a healthy young man might sustain a broken rib or two, even a broken leg, falling into a five-foot hole in the ground, but three separate fractures in such a mishap today would or should strongly suggest calcium deficiency—a precarious state which is widely prevalent but seldom recognized unless or until the individual seeks treatment for one or another manifestation, such as I describe in Little Lesson 26, "The Calcium Shortage," for which send 25 cents and stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Besides the everyday complaints which I ascribe to calcium deficiency, retarded or unsatisfactory healing of fractures and incomplete rehabilitation after such injuries are commonly due to calcium deficiency, in my opinion.

If by chance you ever crack a bone that doesn't bear the imprimatur of the AMA brain that does your thinking, you may learn that in any illness or injury that necessitates prolonged confinement to bed or prolonged inactivity there is inevitably a steady loss of calcium from the body, unless the patient receives an adequate daily ration of calcium and vitamin D to supplement the diet.

This explains not only the susceptibility of such patients to fracture from slight injury in the first days or weeks of convalescence, but more important, it explains their discouragingly slow convalescence and rehabilitation.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to the Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Mich.

Voice of the People

Urges UF Contributions to Help Obtain Boys' Club

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters, but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

Because of the crowded conditions and closed membership at the Pontiac Boys' Club, there is a definite need for one in the north end of the city.

Even if it weren't overcrowded, many parents don't like to have their sons ride the buses at night and go that far to participate in activities. My sons attend the Pontiac schools, but living outside the city limits would probably bar them from becoming members.

As a parent, I am very interested in the welfare of all youth.

Let's all give freely to the United Fund drive and aid the Wever-Owen-Hawthorne Community Club in obtaining a north side Boys' Club.

Labor's 'Business' Charge Called Unjust Affront

By MERRYLE S. RUKEYSER
INS Economic Commentator

The stock market slump after President Eisenhower's surprise heart attack has been described as a $14 billion illness.

The behavior of buyers and sellers of stocks not only reflected confidence in the Eisenhower economic policies, but fear of a return to the "planned economy" drift of the New Dealers and Fair Dealers.

If this is the $14 billion illness, then perhaps James B. Carey, secretary-treasurer of the CIO, in a recent TV debate on The American Forum with this writer, committed a $14 billion libel when he loosely charged that the government is dominated by a big business monopoly. He tried to support the charge by saying that the members of the Cabinet have been businessmen since Secretary Durkin, the plumber, resigned.

Carey's remark about alleged big business control of the Federal Government should be carefully audited. It is not the mere spontaneous expression of one critic of the President, but is part of a propaganda line, which doubtless will be raised during the forthcoming presidential and congressional campaign of 1956.

PRESIDENT ISN'T PUTTY

In order to clear the air, it should be pointed out that the Cabinet is an extra legal, advisory body. It does not legislate, and cannot even advise Congress without clearing with the Chief Executive, for whom the Cabinet is a consulting body.

Even if, for the sake of argument, the President was putty in the hands of this cabinet—then this would still be a far cry from a government controlled by big business. For the sitting Congress—the 84th Congress—is not a rubber stamp for the President.

On the contrary, it is controlled by the Opposition Party — the Democrats — in both houses. In the circumstances, the President can't say dictatorially "take a law." On the contrary, he cannot get through even non-controversial laws unmistakably in the public interest without important support from the Democratic Party.

BUSINESS EXISTS TODAY

So that while a goodly number of the Cabinet members have had business experience, no special wing of business, big, small or moderate, is represented by the Cabinet. Several of them have been identified with what would be classed as small business. Two —the Attorney General and the Secretary of State—are lawyers, and Attorney General Brownell's practice has not been exclusively with big enterprises. Dulles has been with an eminent law firm, with important corporate clients, but his philosophy of government and of foreign affairs is not a class theory.

Since business is a principal activity in our contemporary civilization, it would be difficult to recruit a Cabinet of competent and successful personalities without including those who in one way or another had touched business.

But from the start the President has tried to be executive of all the people, not a partisan of a single wing of business enterprise. He has embraced in his policies the needs and desires of farmers, workers, housewives, and all others, as well as of businessmen.

But be that as it may, the businessmen in the Cabinet do not control the government, which under the Constitution, consists of the Executive, the Legislative, and the Judicial Department. Not even Carey would argue big business is dictating to the Supreme Court and the rest of the Federal judiciary. And, if big business is calling the shots in this Democratic Congress, then the vast amounts spent by the labor lobby are indeed being wasted.

Even raising the charge is an affront to the American system. For the essence of our way of life is a classless philosophy, as contrasted with Marxian internal class warfare. It would be un-American to create a point of view that would ultimately reflect itself in a union of soviets each speaking for a special interest.

The charge that big business controls the government is a $14 billion false alarm.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Encourage Youngsters to Perpetuate Free Enterprise With News Routes

Ed Keefe and his fellow CM's are better teachers of practical economics and our American "free enterprise" system, than all our professors of economics in colleges. Encourage your children to operate their own private business as independent newspaper carriers. It ranks side by side with Boy Scout training in character development.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case P-373: Ed Keefe is circulation manager of the Tribune at La Crosse, Wis.

"Dr. Crane, we have a law in Wisconsin permitting 12-year-old boys to operate their own newspaper routes," he began.

"But a new bill has been introduced to prohibit all boys under 14 from having such newspaper jobs.

"We are much interested in this arbitrary distinction. How much difference is there, mentally and physically, that would make it wise to prevent ambitious 12-year-olds and 13-year-olds from doing this work?

"Do you think the average 12-year-old is too juvenile to handle a local newspaper route?"

IMITATE SCOUTS

The Boy Scouts don't think a 12-year-old boy is too juvenile to handle similar responsibility.

For young Boy Scouts rescue drowning adults all alone. They also camp under the skies and acquire many other valuable experiences.

A 13-year-old lad of my acquaintance recently received his Eagle Scout award, and that represents study and discipline equivalent to college education.

Indeed, if I were an employer, I'd rate an Eagle Scout award as equal to at least two years of college.

Besides, it isn't a matter of the calendar that counts, for there are wide individual variations. Some boys of 12 are far more mature and conscientious than playboy husbands I've met who were twice that age.

Jesus was only 12 years of age when he indirectly launched upon his world mission by arguing with the professors in the Temple.

It is just as fallacious to designate all boys of 12 as immature and juvenile, as to assume that all men and women, aged 65, are senile and thus incapable of doing a full day's work.

BRAVO TO CM'S

The circulation managers of newspapers are doing a splendid job of instructing boys in our American "free enterprise" system.

They train 500,000 lads each year in buying, merchandising and selling, as well as credit.

No other group of boys obtains this vital drill in the broad, threefold aspects of our economy.

Most people are simply salaried workers in mining, manufacturing, farming or other fields of producing goods and services.

Others are salaried employes in sales and advertising or merchandising and distribution realms.

A third group derive their pay from the credit phase of our American economy, either in banks or finance companies and the bookkeeping or credit department of stores.

But newspaper carriers act as independent merchants who buy their papers at wholesale. Then they merchandise them. They must sell and mollify their irate old customers, as well as try to win new subscribers.

Finally, they collect weekly and balance their books so they can compute their net profit, something many American adults still don't understand.

As a psychologist, physician and father of four sons who have carried newspapers long before the age of 14, I do not approve of a set minimum age limit of 14 years for newspaper boys.

Let them work as soon as they want to, and be doggone grateful when kids nowadays want to work. Don't discourage such leaders of tomorrow by sissy "do-gooder" legislation.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane, in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Scouts Get Ketch

DETROIT (AP)—The 52-foot ketch, Panchara III, has been donated to Detroit Boy Scouts by Judge Robert S. Marx, of Cincinnati. Once a competitor in Port Huron-to-Mackinac Island yacht races, the vessel will be renamed "Resolute" and used to train Sea Explorer Scouts. She has been berthed in recent years at Charlevoix, where Judge Marx has a summer residence.

About 75 per cent of the U. S. commercial carrot crop is now weeded by the use of weed-killing sprays.

Cleaners Kept Busy

DETROIT (AP)—Detroit's new city-county building has 3,500 windows. They get washed every two months and each go-around costs $1,048. The job is let by contract. Except for those in the 13th floor auditorium, all windows can be reversed and both sides cleaned from the inside.

It's been estimated that the value of white pine lumber cut in Michigan exceeds by 10 times all the gold ever taken out of Alaska and triples the value of all the gold dug in California.

Take Doctor's Advice

DETROIT (AP)—"Worry about sickness makes people really ill," a California doctor says, "then doctors get credit for developing treatments for the conditions they have created."

Dr. Robert K. Schiefer, chairman of candidate training for the American College of Osteopathic Internists, made the remark in advising against frightening people unnecessarily about ailments such as cancer and heart attacks. He spoke at the annual conference of the college here.

See Hike of '55 Sales in Canned Soft Drinks

NEW YORK — Consumption of canned soft drinks in 1955 will be approximately double a year ago, the American Can Co. reported here today.

J. Whitmey King, Canco marketing manager, estimates that about 500 million cans of carbonated beverages will have passed into consumer hands by the year's end, compared with some 250 million cans during 1954, the first year in which canned soft drinks were marketed in any volume.

Plaque Marks Home of Ike's Granddad

ELIZABETHVILLE, Pa. (AP)— A bronze plaque now marks the farm home built by President Eisenhower's grandfather 101 years ago in this central Pennsylvania town.

The plaque was unveiled by the President's brother Dr. Milton S. Eisenhower, president of Pennsylvania State University, at ceremonies yesterday. He said:

"If they (the Eisenhower brothers) have lived and strengthened just a little such principles as fear of God, freedom, justice and opportunity, if the family has symbolized these fundamentals, this tablet has a value."

The home is now owned by Mr. and Mrs. Lee W. Phillips. Most of the original house is intact although it has been enlarged and renovated.

Texas Editor Calls Meg in the Middle of Night

VICTORIA, Tex. (AP) — John Moran of the Victoria Advocate decided to telephone Buckingham Palace last night to see what he could find out about the romance of Princess Margaret and Peter Townsend.

He forgot one detail.

When it's 9:40 p.m. in Texas, it's 3:40 A. M. in London.

And "Her Majesty's secretary is abed, and can't be disturbed at this time."

Oldest Flier in U.S. Wants to Run Blimp

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — "There's just one more thing to fly and that's a blimp. I'm working on that now."

So declared James W. Montee—believed to be the nation's oldest flier—after celebrating his 93rd birthday Saturday by taking three generations of his family for a plane ride.

Montee, a veteran of 4,000 hours in the air, said he has piloted 53 different types of aircraft, including a jet. He established Clover Field here in 1922.

Pikes Peak record shattered! '56 Chevrolet in top-secret test!

It streaked up dizzying grades to an altitude of 14,110 feet! Slashed around back-breaking hairpin turns! Sprinted along treacherous stretches of road that cling to the mountainside like a coiled and twisted snake. And when the dust cleared away, and the NASCAR* officials checked and certified the time, the '56 Chevrolet had set a new record for the Pikes Peak climb! Here's proof of championship road-action, of nailed-down stability, of cat-footed cornering. Record-breaking proof of qualities that put more safety and pleasure in your driving! Soon, you can see and drive this great new '56 Chevrolet. Watch for it.

BOXED LOCKS — Four-year-old Christine Marie Duval of Detroit takes some of her hair out of a washing machine gear box after doctors separated her from the apparatus. Christine was "helping" her mother with the washing when her hair was caught in the uncovered gears. Firemen took the machine apart and rushed Christine and gear box to the hospital. Bandage covers two stitches in her scalp.

Siamese Twin Girls Born in Wisconsin

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — Siamese twin girls were born yesterday at Madison General Hospital to a 36-year-old Dane County woman.

The girls are joined at the abdomen, but apparently are normal in all other respects. The physician, who would not reveal the name of the parents, said it would take four or five days study to determine what might be done surgically to separate the girls.

The parents have one other child, the physician said. Both the mother and twins are reported in good condition.

Survey of Jap Children Shows Spanking Vogue

TOKYO (AP)—Maybe you've heard Japanese children are well behaved.

Anyway, a poll conducted by Tokyo primary teacher Takefumi Totani among his students shows:

Forty-five per cent of the boys and 39 per cent of the girls said they got frequent spankings at home. More girls than boys said it made them angry and some said they talked back.

Twenty-eight per cent said they felt lying couldn't be helped. Almost all said they thought they were misunderstood.

Voting on Hospital Today

Lapeer Deciding on Addition

Election to Tell Story of Proposed 35 Bed Wing Now Needed

LAPEER—A special election today for voters of Lapeer County will decide whether to build a 35-bed addition to the present Lapeer County General Hospital.

The proposal is on two ballots. Both must carry by a simple majority.

One ballot permits the tax limitation to be raised one-half mill. The other authorizes bonds up to $190,000 to be sold.

Although the permission to raise the tax limitation has to be voted on, actually the tax bill will be no higher if the measure carries.

The present hospital tax is one mill, or $1.00 per $1,000 of valuation. The reserves in the bond fund are now high enough so this tax can be reduced, according to County Treasurer, Lyle Goodrich.

The Supervisors plan to cut this old tax to one-half mill next year. Thus, when a new tax of one-half mill for a new addition is added, the total will still be one mill, the same as it is now.

The money from the bond issue, plus Federal funds, plus money already given the hospital by private citizens, will be enough to put up a 35-bed addition, plus a basement for storage.

Nearly 6,000 patients have been treated at the hospital since it opened.

In recent months it has been necessary to have from four to eight beds in the halls to handle overcrowding from the present 52-bed facilities.

Clifford Man Killed in Headon Collision

MARLETTE — George L. Harmon, 61, of Clifford died Saturday in Marlette Community Hospital after he was injured in a headon collision north of Marlette.

A lifetime area resident, Harmon leaves his wife, Lydia, three daughters, Mrs. Kenneth Ener, Mrs. Nathan Balze and Mrs. Gerald Edgar all of Pontiac; three brothers, Ray of Goodells, Frank of Oxford and Floyd of Ortonville; eight grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Service will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday from the Marsh Funeral Home in Marlette, with the Pontiac Eagle Lodge 1230 conducting rites. Burial will be in Maplegrove Cemetery in North Branch.

Turk Flies Greek Flag at Ceremony in Izmir Consulate

IZMIR, Turkey (AP)—Turkish communications Minister Muammer Cavusoglu hoisted the Greek flag over the new Greek consulate today in a ceremony designed to smooth Turkish-Greek relations, strained by anti-Greek riots here and in Istanbul Sept. 6.

Turkish and Greek army units stationed at this southeastern Europe NATO headquarters participated in the ceremony and many NATO officers were witnesses. The old Greek consulate was gutted by fire and its flag torn down in the rioting.

Greek Ambassador John Kalergis, who returned to Turkey only yesterday for the first time since the riots, called the occasion "the first happy" step toward reconciliation of the two countries.

2 Detroiters Injured

Gloria A. Trerice Weds at Kirk in the Hills Rite

MRS. ROBERT D. FRITZ

PLEASANT RIDGE—Gloria Ann Trerice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Trerice of 46 Fairwood Blvd., and Robert Dotterer Fritz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Fritz Jr., were united in marriage Saturday in Kirk in the Hills.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a gown of Chantilly lace and nylon tulle over satin. The sweetheart neckline featured a nylon tulle insert. The floor length skirt fell into a chapel length train. Gloria's lace headpiece held securely her fingertip veil of illusion.

Mrs. Robert J. Trerice of Pleasant Ridge was matron of honor, the bride's only attendant.

Charles B. Fritz III of Pennsylvania was best man and Robert J. Trerice seated the guests.

After a supper for the immediate family at Devon Gables, a reception was held at the bride's home. The couple left for a wedding trip to Bermuda for two weeks.

On their return they will reside in Hidden Valley, Pa.

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — The United Nations marked its 10th birthday today — the anniversary of the day the U.N. charter went into effect. The event was observed with celebrations around the world.

An international concert in the General Assembly hall tonight was a part of the celebration at the U.N. itself.

Hal Boyle Says:

Incidental Intelligence Items Interest Me

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open the morning mail:

That more than 1,200,000 Americans are blind in one eye.

That, while the U. S. dollar may not be worth 100 cents, it has been worth a lot less many times in the past than it is now. In 1787, the year the American Constitution was drafted, national credit was down to zero and a dollar was worth just two cents.

That adults average three colds a year, but children have nearly twice that many. (Don't let the little runny-nosed monsters near you. Carry an umbrella, if necessary, to fend them off.)

GOOD NEWS, LADS

That, on the other hand, tests have shown you can kiss your sweetheart when she has a cold—and the odds are nine to one you won't catch a cold yourself.

That Japan's cement industry is now fifth largest in the world. Banzai!

That one way to help hold down your weight is to eat more slowly. This enables your blood sugar to rise and satisfy your hungry feeling before you finish your plate and start reaching for a second helping.

That a Scottish book firm which has published nearly 2,500,000 copies of the classics reports the all-time favorite is "David Copperfield," by Charles Dickens. Next in popularity is "Pride and Prejudice," by Jane Austin.

That while America needs more trees, the world itself still has more than enough timber to supply its present population. As a matter of fact, only a third of the earth's wooded areas are now being exploited.

MEN'S FASHIONS

That more than 100 American newspapers now run weekly fashion columns for men telling them how to dress well. (Wonder who read them most—wives or husbands?)

That the West Coast film colony is serving as the guinea pig for the introduction of a new drink called "The Matador." The recipe: a jigger of tequila, two jiggers of pineapple, a squeeze of lime, and crushed ice. Stir like crazy, then serve, Chico.

That our revolutionary forebears liked a drink called "The Stone Fence"—made of cider and applejack.

That many Americans like to pretend to have things they don't actually own. A survey by popular electronics magazine found that of 100 homes with TV antennas 7 had no TV sets, and that of every 100 cars sporting aerials 12 had no radios!

That a survey on the employment of women found more were dismissed for being discourteous or uncooperative than for not doing their work well. (This could start an argument!)

That the National Assn. of Gagwriters is advising aspiring young comedians: "Don't let your mother edit your jokes." (Personally, we have the opposite opinion. Some of the jokes comedians tell are enough to make their mothers cry.)

That French champagne producers believe the 1955 grape harvest was one of the best vintage crops of the 20th century—but they won't be certain until 1959 or 1960, when tasting time comes around.

That two out of three people who are seriously worried because they feel they have symptoms of heart disease have nothing organically wrong with their hearts at all.

That it was actor Paul Coates of "Confidential File" who remarked: "Many people think when they're thinking, when they're really only rearranging their prejudices."

Michigan was first in the nation in the development of roadside parks and picnic tables.

Wayne University in Detroit was named after General Anthony Wayne.

German Reunification Bloc Looms for Big 4

(This is the last of three articles analyzing the prospects for success in easing the cold war when the Big Four Foreign Ministers meet Oct. 27 in Geneva.)

By HOWARD HANDLEMAN

WASHINGTON (INS) — Britain and the United States go into the vital foreign ministers talks with the Russians at Geneva with a patched-up compromise on a European security system.

The British, under the so-called "Eden Plan," favored a demilitarized area between East and West across Europe. The U. S. favored a gradual "thinning out" of military forces on either side of a line that would be created after Germany was unified, and, probably, in the Western camp.

The American view prevailed and the West will propose a gradual "thinning out."

American objections to the British ideas were that they might tend to perpetuate the division of Germany and thereby lead almost inevitably to at least neutralism in Germany.

Secretary of State John Foster Dulles made it clear in his Miami speech on Oct. 10 that the U. S. wants no neutralism for Germany or any other major nation.

A basic difference in the U. S. and British viewpoints remains on the importance and timing of German reunificatiln.

UNIFICATION LOOMS

The U. S. position is that reunification is of overwhelming importance and must be accomplished before there can be a workable European security system.

The British, closer to Russian bombers, feel the security system can come first and reunification of Germany later.

Another question interjected into the foreign ministers meeting was that of the effect of the illness of President Eisenhower on Soviet tactics.

The high point of this effort came when Dulles flew to Denver and talked with the President about eight major points of foreign policy. During the meeting the President signed a letter to Soviet Premier Nikolai A. Bulganin on the disarmament problem.

Actually, top thinkers at the State Department never thought the illness of Eisenhower would have any effect on the tactics of Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov at Geneva.

One official was asked whether the Russians might be concerned about the policies of a possible successor to the President and therefore might want to get things done in a hurry.

"Get what done?" he asked. "What can they do to get their way on German reunification? We won't submit to their terms to ban Germany from NATO and, in effect, turn all Germany neutral at best, a satellite at worst.

"What new can they offer on disarmament? They could accept the President's 'Open Sky' plan for aerial inspection and an exchange of military blueprints. I doubt that they will. I also doubt that they will have any counter plans beyond those they already have proposed.

"I do expect them to talk a lot about trade and contacts between East and West. They may feel that they can make some headway at Geneva on this."

As one official put it:

"During the 'Summit' meeting in Geneva the Russians carefully confined their talk to European problems.

"I think what they will do at Geneva this month and at future conferences next year and the year after is to keep talking about Europe while continuing their regional programs of expansion of influence into the Middle East and Asia."

RED CHINA TO KILL PRIVATE FARMS — Communist China, short of grain and other agricultural products, plans to end almost all private farming. Small farms will be merged into "agricultural producers' cooperatives" like that pictured above, where co-op members are winnowing rice in western Szechwan province. Hint of serious crop trouble came in a Peiping Radio broadcast sharply criticizing private farmers for non-cooperation. It announced an "all-embracing" plan for transforming nearly all the many privately owned Chinese farms into co-op projects. Peiping said it is "quite possible that China's 500 million peasants, with the exception of a section of peasants in the border areas, will in the main have taken up cooperative farming before 1960."

Free Poles Demand Prisoners' Release

LONDON (AP) — More than 1,000 Polish exiles met in London last night to demand release of Poles held in the Soviet Union.

Gen. Wladyslaw Anders, commander of Free Polish forces in World War II, told the meeting there has been no word of 20,000 Polish soldiers taken to Russia as prisoners in 1939 and 1944.

He added that 1½ million Polish civilians were deported to Russia in 1939-40—"And a negligible number have returned to their homes."

The meeting adopted a resolution appealing to world opinion and democratic governments "to work for our countrymen."

Poor Bulls Just Can't Win Once They Enter Ring

HUNTSVILLE, Tex. (AP)—Texas laws forbid killing bulls in bullfights.

But the Mexican fighting bull on which Bette Ford, former model, demonstrated her bullfighting prowess yesterday at the Texas prison rodeo didn't seem to benefit very much.

The bulls learn quickly and are extremely dangerous if used a second time in the arena. So even though this one survived the guest performer's demonstration — he's ticketed for the prison stewpot.

Announce New Way To Shrink Painful Piles

Science Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne*)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called *Preparation H. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drugstores. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

Love Slave Case Ready for Jury

Oregon Will Ask Death Verdict for 'Mastermind' in Husband Killing

McMINNVILLE, Ore. (AP) — The state prepared today to demand death in the gas chamber for Mrs. Marjorie Smith, an attractive 34-year-old mother of two children, accused of master-minding the bomb death of her attorney husband, Kermit Smith. Dist. Atty. William Langley said the prosecution will demand the maximum penalty.

Victor L. Wolf, 45, a handyman who lived in a rooming house owned by Mrs. Smith, has admitted that he wired a bomb in Smith's car last April 21. The car was blown to bits in a Portland golf course parking lot when Smith touched the starter button.

Wolf, who has confessed in court, said he committed the slaying at Mrs. Smith's urging and because he was her "love slave." He said they planned to collect Smith's $21,000 life insurance and start life anew in Alaska.

Mrs. Smith, who is pleading innocent, has denied all this. Her attorneys have characterized Wolf as "an unfortunate person who apparently dreamed that Mrs. Smith wanted to have her husband done away with."

Life-in-Prison Term Cut, Ex-Panzer Chief Freed

LANDSBERG, Germany (AP) — Former Col. Gen. Sepp Dietrich, commander of the 6th SS Panzer army involved in the Malmedy massacre of American troops, was secretly released from the U. S. war crimes prison here Saturday, it was learned today.

Dietrich had been sentenced to life imprisonment by a U. S. military tribunal after the war.

After being freed, Dietrich left by automobile for Ludwigsburg, where he will make his home.

Train Jumps Track; 6 Injured in Crash

OTTER POINT, Md. (AP)—Twenty-six persons were injured when part of a Pennsylvania Rail Road train was derailed in this northeastern Maryland section yesterday, but only four of them were still hospitalized last night.

Fourteen cars left the tracks. Two were passenger coaches. The rest carried mail.

The train was on its way to Washington from New York. Investigators are seeking the cause.

Forest fires in the U. S. each year, 90 per cent of them manmade, destroy enough usable timber to build approximately 86,000 new homes.

TODAY'S ASSIGNMENT FOR:

JUNIOR EDITORS

THE FLYING MOUSE

The French call the bat a "flying mouse." That's really a very good description of the little fellow with his sharp pointed nose, bright beady eyes and big ears.

Although they fly, bats are not birds. They are small animals. They live in colonies, spending their days hanging upside down in caves and barns. At night they hunt their food.

Most of the spooky stories about bats are not true. The bats of our country are real little policemen of our crops and gardens because they eat great quantities of harmful moths and beetles.

Here is a bat whirligig for you. Paste this picture on stiff orange or yellow paper. Color it with crayons, making the sky a bright blue with a yellow moon and star.

Put a long pin through the four holes in the point, one after another, then put it through the hole in the center. Push the pin into the end of a pencil, and let it twirl around in the wind so the little "flying mice" can go sailing about.

JUNIOR EDITOR pays $10 for any reader's idea that is used. Write your suggestion to "Junior Editors" in care of this newspaper; it cannot be acknowledged or returned.

Faulty Jet Plane Probe Starting

Westinghouse, Aircraft Firm Cited for Passing 60 Under-Par Engines

WASHINGTON (AP)—House investigators slated hearings today to find out why 60 jet planes were built for the Navy without enough engine power to fly right.

Chairman Holifield (D-Calif) said his House Government Operations subcommittee would begin with reports from committee investigators who visited the plants of the McDonnell Aircraft Co., which built the F3H-1 fighter airplane, and Westinghouse Electric Corp., producer of its jet engine found not powerful enough.

Holifield said his group probably will then go into closed session for that part of the testimony the Navy classes as secret.

The F3H project got under way early in the Korean War.

Secretary of the Navy Thomas, one of those invited to testify, said over the weekend that 60 of the early model Demon F3H-1s costing some 154 million dollars have been grounded because they can't be refitted with sufficiently powerful engines.

But he said the Navy hopes to see 220 of a later model, the F3H-2, equipped with a redesigned Allison J71 engine so that it will be a good all-weather plane. He said the later model has passed most of its suitability tests and delivery is expected in 1956.

Thomas renewed an earlier statement that the original Demon program was a hurry-up job under Korean War pressure.

Exhausted Motorists May Get Oxygen Aid

BONN, Germany — Judging by the way a new experiment at Luneburg, Germany, is working out, that last "one for the road" may hereafter be a whiff of oxygen.

At the suggestion of a local physician a hotel there opened the first oxygen "filling station" for tired drivers.

For one mark (about 25 cents) motorists are given a 10-minute lungfull of pure oxygen. The new "bracer" has attracted wide attention in West Germany and stations may be set up along the autobahns.

Some physicians claim that the inhaling of carbon monoxide poison in a closed car is mainly responsible for accidents—symptoms being tiredness and a tendency to fall asleep.

Homeowners Reminded of Burning-Leaves Law

Police Chief Herbert Straley yesterday reminded homeowners that under a new ordinance, it is illegal to burn leaves in city streets.

"The heat from the fires melts asphalt and cracks pavements," Chief Straley explained. "Therefore violators will be ticketed."

X-Way Work Held Up

DETROIT (AP) — Engineers say it will be next summer before a one and an eighth mile stretch of the John C. Lodge Expressway between Dexter and James Couzens Highway will be opened. Originally the stretch was scheduled to open next Jan. 1. Bad weather and other factors threw work behind schedule.

Michener Weds Nisei Librarian in Chicago Rites

CHICAGO (AP) — Author James Michener, 48, whose books often deal with better understanding between East and West, yesterday married Mari Sabusawa, an American-born woman of Japanese ancestry.

The Rev. Jitsuo Morikawa, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Chicago, performed the ceremony at the Graham Taylor Chapel on the University of Chicago campus.

Mrs. Michener, 35, was born at Las Animas, Colo. It was her first marriage. She is assistant editor of the American Library Assn.

Michener, author of "Tales of the South Pacific" and other books, has been married twice previously, both marriages ended in divorce.

The couple plans a world honeymoon tour, stopping first in Australia.

New Zealand Schools Jammed With Pupils

WELLINGTON, N. Z. — New Zealand's bumper crop of postwar babies is causing consternation to teachers.

It is not the few delinquents who like to skip school but those who show up regularly in steadily increasing numbers who cause the trouble.

The Department of Education in Wellington figures that school rolls will leap by nearly 50 per cent between 1953 and 1960, and by 1965 one in every five secondary school classes will be without a teacher, if the present shortage continues. And by 1965, at this rate, one class in every three may be teacherless.

The irony is that the newer educational trend calls for better trained teachers and smaller classes.

Report Good Condition of Wounded Hunter

John L. Moffatt, 47, of Auburn Heights was reported in "good" condition today at Pontiac General Hospital after a hunting accident in which he was shot by his 14-year-old son.

Moffatt received multiple wounds in the neck, right arm, abdomen and chest, Sheriff's Deputies said, when his son swung his .410 shotgun to shoot at a bird.

Medics Probe Mystery of Heart Ills

Medical research into coronary artery disease—the major cause of heart attacks—already has brought advances in diagnosis and treatment, but underlying causes remain one of the foremost puzzles of modern medicine.

Thus coronary heart disease is a primary target of heart research, according to Dr. E. Cowles Andrus, president of the American Heart Assn.

Hundreds of medical scientists are now pursuing new clues, with ultimate goals of control, prevention and even cure

"We know what happens when an individual has a heart attack," Dr. Andrus explained. "The walls of the heart consist very largely of a special kind of muscle, which receives its entire supply of blood through two coronary arteries. When one of these arteries—or a branch of one of them—becomes obstructed, a portion of the heart muscle is deprived of its all-important nourishment.

"The severity of the attack depends largely on where the obstruction occurs. As a rule if only a tiny branch is blocked, the attack may not be severe; if the main trunk is affected, the attack will be severe and possibly fatal.

"We also know that a heart attack occurs when a blood clot forms in a diseased artery of the heart. The disease is atherosclerosis. It thickens the walls and narrows the channel of the artery until the blood flows with difficulty. Blood clots readily when the circulation is slowed, setting the stage for a heart attack."

During the past decade, said Dr. Andrus, an important new concept has gained wide acceptance: Formerly, atherosclerosis was regarded as a normal process of wear, tear and aging; today, it is seen as a disease which can unquestionably be explained and prevented if sufficient research can be developed and continued on the problem.

The association supports a nation-wide research program together with many universities, hospitals and other institutions. Dr. Andrus pointed out that the search is moving in many directions, and has two broad objectives:

"1. To gain knowledge which will enable medical science to prevent coronary artery disease, and thus the process which leads to heart attack.

"2. To gain knowedge which will permit restoration of diseased arteries to normal functioning."

In furtherance of these objectives, said Dr. Andrus, research scientists are pursuing many lines of inquiry and have developed a number of leads which seem to hold great promise.

Poor Alphonso — He's a Pup Who Loves the Pubs

BROCKTON, Mass. (AP)—Alfonzo today has the biggest doggone hangover in town.

The 70-pound canine is in the doghouse after making a spectacle of himself last night during a trot of the local pubs. Friendly patrons helped him to his favorite beer and, well, Alfonzo just did not know when to stop.

The boxer tried to wander alone down one of Brockton's main streets. In obvious distress, he wobbled, weaved, stopped, leaned against a utility pole for support and finally collapsed.

Amused or just curious spectators called police, who classified the boxer as a drunk and took him home.

The dog's owner, Harry Alphonse explained that people like Alfonzo and Alfonzo likes beer, and they all usually get along fine.

But after last night's spree, Alfonzo might well bark: "It's a dog's life."

Coward Debut Called 'Smart'

Mary Martin Acts Role in 'Perfect, Gracious and Confident' Manner

By JACK O'BRIAN

NEW YORK (INS)—Noel Coward made his television debut in as smartly designed, directed and produced an intimate revue as would seem possible.

It was magnificently, simply, richly charming.

Mary Martin co-starred, and though Mary in her own charming fashion is just as much the darling of international sophisticates, there still is the touch of Texas in her open, outgoing friendliness.

Contrasted thus in the intimacy of television, in a production geared perfectly for the closest intimacy of the medium, Mary Martin and Noel Coward could not have been paired off with smarter material or delivery.

SPECIOUS ENNUI

Coward is the epitome of the deceptively languid drawing room exquisite. Beneath that specious ennui beats the stubborn instincts of a dedicated British bulldog.

Coward has fantastic equipment for his trade—an incisively literate imagery, a trained diction and vocal machinery which ticks off his speediest and craftiest lyrics in a disciplined Niagara of rills and runs of syllables and amuing detail.

His beautifully precise British diction keeps the tiniest verbal detail clear and understandable, a precision instrument able to shift any gear of verbal diversion.

OFFHANDEDLY GAY

In hs literary and musical creations he has the same trained instincts as in performing; his melodies have the "constantly surprising refrains" Lorenz Hart mentioned, and he employs delicate use of unusual words in rhymes and lyrical notions seldom encountered in popular songs.

His pure elegance ven in burlesques of American songs remains always perfect, exquisite, offhandedly gay.

Mary Martin's personality was perfect, manner gracious, talent and attitude straightforward and confident without a hint of arrogance and if we write less about her part of this gala, it's because Coward's fancies and flights are totally unlike TV's customary fare, and Mary has been on TV before.

2nd Round of Negotiations to Test 'Spirit of Geneva'

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

GENEVA (AP)—The second round of this year's East-West negotiations at Geneva almost certainly will produce sharp clashes between Western spokesmen and Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov — with Germany at the center of the controversy.

In the encounters following up the summit conference last July, the Big Four foreign ministers are expected to put to severe test the "spirit of Geneva" developed when President Eisenhower and Soviet Premier Bulganin met here with British Prime Minister Eden and French Premier Faure.

The July conference succeeded mainly in establishing a courteous, top-level contact between the Soviet and Western governments and in dramatizing the fact that both sides would rather find ways of easing world tensions than let their 10-year-old conflict drift along toward atomic disaster.

But the July conference actually did not solve any of the out-standing problems. The heads of government assigned their foreign ministers the task of detailed negotiations on German reunification, European security, some aspects of disarmament and freer contacts between Russia and the Western Powers.

UP TO BOTH SIDES

Now, in the meetings opening here Thursday, it is up to both sides to find out how much of the good will displayed here in July can be translated into action.

U.S. Secretary of State Dulles, British Foreign Secretary Macmillan and French Foreign Minister Pinay will be prepared to insist that the first and greatest problem before the conference is that of reuniting West and East Germany. They will argue that there can be no secure peace in Europe until unification is achieved.

Molotov, following the line already laid down by Bulganin, is expected to contend that the time for unifying Germany has not arrived and will not come so long as West Germany remains a member of the North Atlantic Alliance.

According to all the evidence to date, he will insist that first the Atlantic Alliance must be replaced by an all-European security system.

The Western Powers are seeking to reserve and strengthen the Atlantic Alliance. They want East and West Germany merged under conditions which will permit the unified nation to join NATO. They want to eliminate any possiblty of a future Communist Germany, or a German alliance with Russia.

Western officials believe Russia, on the other hand, wants both to destroy the Western alliance and to create the opportunity for communizing Germany sometime in the future. Failing that, Russia apparently is determined to hold onto her position in East Germany.

Chances of winning Soviet agreement to unification of Western terms appear nil.

Boy, Father and Uncle Drown in Georgia Gorge

TALLULAH FALLS, Ga. (AP)—A 12-year-old boy, his father and a relative drowned in a pool in Tallulah Gorge while on a sightseeing trip yesterday.

Members of the families said Ronald Elrod toppled into the 10-foot-deep pool first. His father Carlton Louis Elrod, 34, jumped in to get him, but was unable to climb out over the slippery rocks. Thomas Greemon, 33, Elrod's brother-in-law leaned down to help them, lost his balance and fell in.

Other members of the families were unable to reach them.

Ike Must Decide Before February

Ohio Primary Election Date Will Force Action on Ailing President

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican leaders tentatively have set the first week in February as the time they believe President Eisenhower will say whether he will run again.

This timetable reportedly has been worked out by GOP National Chairman Leonard W. Hall and other GOP strategists on the basis of progress reports on the President's health.

One of the governing factors is the need to know 90 days before the May 8 Ohio presidential preference primary whether the President's name will go on the ballot in that state.

Ohio law requires the written consent of the candidate before delegates pledged to him can be entered on the ballot. While there are a number of ways Eisenhower could still avoid committing himself for this primary, Eisenhower aides have noted the historical significance of the late Sen. Robert A. Taft's action in announcing his 1952 presidential candidacy by writing Ohio election officals.

So all may know . . .

Two 9-Year-Olds Trapped in Steel Drum 15 Hours

CHICAGO (AP)—Thirst and hunger were the only ill effects suffered by two 9-year-old boys trapped for 15 hours in the steel drum of an old laundry machine.

The boys, Robert Houk and James E. Hardcastle Jr., stopped at the display lot of a laundry equipment company Saturday afternoon on their way to a movie. With them was 8-year-old Billy Stephens.

Robert and James decided to investigate the interior of a big commercial laundry machine stored on the lot. They climbed inside. Billy playfully closed the door on the perforated drum.

The door would not open. Billy said nothing to anyone until early yesterday when he was pressed by the frantic parents of the missing boys.

He finally told police and firemen.

Rescuers found both boys calmly sleeping in the giant tub.

Mrs. Huttenlocher marks her talent ballot, which is the public's means of concert selection. During this campaign week which ends at 5 p.m. Saturday, citizens of Oakland County will be invited to join the association.

Acting Helps Her to Help Others

By ANNE HEYWOOD

Marjorie K. came from one of those old-fashioned families, where children should be seen but not heard.

* * *

All through her childhood and youth, it was "Yes, Ma'am" and "No, Sir" and little else. As a result, she was a very much inhibited young woman, with all kinds of hatred and resentment bottled up inside.

FLAIR FOR ACTING

By the time she reached her early 20s, Marjorie was in such shape that she consulted a psychologist—a wise and good one.

Among other things, he suggested that she take up amateur theatricals. She had quite a flair for acting, but had never been permitted to develop it.

"That was the beginning of everything good that has ever happened to me," Marjorie told me. "While I was acting in those plays, after work, I met George and we fell in love.

"After we were married, I continued my work with the community theater, even when I was pregnant. There's always work to be done behind the scenes. But it's the actual acting that I like the best and, after our children began in school, I went back to it again.

"My youngest daughter, had a friend, a little girl of 6, who used to come to the house all the time.

"I got interested in the child because she was so ingrown, so much the way I had been. I could see that her parents never let her really express herself and it broke my heart.

"One day, I suggested that we put on a play—my four, this other little girl and three of the neighbors' children.

"It was a revelation. The little inhibited girl, Susie, began to come out of her shell. Acting did for her the same thing it had done for me—gave her a chance to get things out of her system.

"That was the beginning of the most wonderful activity I've ever had, a children's theater. I work with them three afternoons a week, and the community lets me use their facilities. We now have dozens of children of all ages.

"Maybe the plays we put on are not the best in the world but we are building well-integrated little personalities. It is the most gratifying and absorbing work you can imagine!"

If you want a hobby working with people and helping them, dig into your own past life and see if some need of your own, which was filled, might not be the clue to the thing you should be doing for others.

Mrs. Green Entertains Garden Club

The Board of Directors of the Bloomfield Hills Garden Club were guests of Mrs. Leslie H. Green at her estate, Turtle Lake Farms.

Cowls on Campus

The suede vest is seen this year with flannel skirts, Bermuda shorts and even a-top the new pleated campus kilts. Some are V-shaped, others flatteringly cover the waist-line; some have mandarin collars, some cowl collars; all are news on campus and any place where sports clothes lovers linger.

Pauline Brutus Weds Wendell Doolin

Before an altar banked with arrangements of white chrysanthemums, carnations and palms, Pauline Brutus became the bride of Wendell M. Doolin Saturday evening at First Congregational Church.

The Rev. Malcolm Burton performed the seven o'clock candlelight ceremony in the presence of 300 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Brutus of Crawford street, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Doolin of East Pike street.

Folds of white tulle appliqued with pearl and sequin-embroidered roses of lace, formed the portrait neckline of the crystal white Chantilly lace gown worn by the bride.

The full skirt flared from a dropped waistline and swept into a brief train.

Her illusion veil was secured by a small coronet of seed pearls, and she wore a single strand of pearls with matching earrings. The bridal bouquet was of white roses and stephanotis.

ATTENDANTS NAMED

Lillian Lazaroff was maid of honor and Pauline Dequis, Mrs. Richard Allen and Mrs. Stanley R. Dudek were the bride's other attendants.

All of the attendants wore waltz-length gowns of emerald green velveteen fashioned in a Princess style with matching cloche hats and white gloves. They carried arrangements of bronze chrysanthemums and wheat.

Wayne Long performed the duties of best man. Seating the guests were Ted Lazaroff, Robert Begu, and Eugene Simpson.

Mrs. Brutus wore a navy blue dress with a pink satin hat and pink orchid corsage for her daughter's wedding.

Mrs. Doolin chose a blue lace dress with navy blue accessories. Her corsage also was of pink orchids.

Following a reception at the Knights of Columbus Hall the couple left for a two-week honeymoon trip to Florida. The bride was wearing a charcoal gray suit with light blue accessories and the corsage from her bridal bouquet.

Upon their return they will reside on State avenue.

MRS. WENDELL M. DOOLIN

Pauline Brutus became the bride of Wendell M. Doolin Saturday evening in the First Congregational Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Brutus of Crawford street, and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Doolin of East Pike street are parents of the bridegroom. The couple will reside on State avenue.

Sorority Greets Pledges

Mrs. George R. Oliver, sponsor of the group since its origin, and Mrs. Alex Morris, president, presided at the blue and gold decorated tea table.

Serving on the social committee for the afternoon was Chairman Mrs. Elmer O. Johnson and Betty Lou DeGroot, assisted by Mrs. Edmund Smith, Mrs. Don Murphy and Mrs. Sidney Savage.

Allemanders Hold Halloween Party

Donelson School was the setting of the Allemanders Square Dance Club party Saturday evening.

Traditional Halloween decorations of corn shocks, pumpkins and skeletons were arranged by Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur MacFayden.

Lester McKinney, president, welcomed Mr. and Mrs. John Kline as new members. Caller for the evening was Sam Joan.

Add Sewing Area for Room Charm

Every woman needs a sewing corner of her own. When this corner adds a pretty decorator note to the room, the entire family takes pleasure in it.

A typical setting makes good use of small space, blending period and modern decor. A formica top converts a sliding door shelf unit and chest of drawers unit into a kneehole desk.

Cottage curtains made of pink cotton fishnet and hung from black curtain rings harmonize well with a pink wall and modern couch cover.

Birth Is Announced

Mr. and Mrs. William G. Aebersold (nee Mary Maze) of Ross drive are receiving congratulation on the birth of a son, Mark Curtis, born Oct. 21 at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

Grandparents of the infant are Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Baldwin of North Perry street and Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Aebersold of Tecumseh.

Dual Purpose Bedding Serves Smaller Homes

Limited space is the problem that is most frequently found in homes today. That's why dual purpose bedding has become so popular in the years since World War II.

With dual purpose bedding, any room in the house can quickly be converted to a guest bedroom.

A sofa bed, studio couch, or other type of dual purpose furniture piece equipped with a comfortable cotton innerspring mattress can provide extra sleeping space at a moment's notice.

Dual purpose bedding is so smartly styled today that it is difficult to tell the convertible piece equipped with a cotton innerspring mattress from an ordinary piece of furniture.

Sofa beds come in a variety of styles that fit into almost any decorating scheme, from traditional to modern.

Would-Be Guest Gets No Invitation

Shouldn't Assume That Bid Was Lost in the Mail

By EMILY POST

"I am faced with a very ticklish situation. A friend of mine recently has moved to a new house and is having quite a large housewarming party. The invitations to this party have been sent out but I did not receive one and I can't imagine why.

"I'm sure there must be some mistake as she has talked about the party to me on several occasions and intimated that I was to be invited.

"Would it be proper for me to go on the assumption that the invitation was lost in the mail, or must I stay away. I was anxiously looking forward to seeing her new house."

Answer: You cannot go on the assumption it was lost without saying something beforehand. You can say: "You told me you were inviting me to your party but I haven't received my invitation."

"Dear Mrs. Post: A short while ago I went to the funeral of a relative. The family of the deceased hired several funeral cars. I was in one of them along with my husband and other relatives. When we got back from the cemetery my husband was asked to contribute something toward a tip for the chauffeur.

"He refused, saying that he had never heard of tipping the driver of a funeral car. I never had either. Quite a discussion arose from this and so I am writing to ask if such a tip is customary."

Answer: I agree with your husband; such a tip is unheard of.

"Dear Mrs. Post: I have been a widow for five years. I am in the mid-40s. I would like to know if it would be proper to invite a widower, who is a couple of years older than I, to lunch or dinner at my house, I live alone."

Answer: Certainly!

Care of Bedding Assures Comfort in Cleanliness

It takes more than fresh sheets to make a bed restful and inviting. Fresh cleanliness should pervade the entire bed—mattress, cover, pad and pillows.

The old-fashioned habit of airing the family bedding every day is still a good practice, advises the Cleanliness Bureau.

Bedding manufacturers emphasize that proper cleaning and care are essential to obtain maximum wear and comfort from a mattress. Every two weeks, cotton inner-spring mattresses—the most popular type with modern homemakers—should be turned.

The mattress should be shifted end for end one time, and side for side the next.

Be sure to use a mattress pad, which adds to the life of the bedding. Once a month clean the mattress and bedspring with a vacuum cleaner attachment.

At regular intervals during the year, every mattress needs an all-over scrubbing with soap jelly whipped into a lather, preferably out in the sunshine.

Gay 'Kerchiefs Brighten Windows

Here's a handkerchief trick—any smallish window can be outfitted with cafe or tier curtains made out of gay printed handkerchiefs.

Get large cotton handkerchiefs—they come in 14 to 19 inch squares—and use two or three tiers with two, three, or four handkerchiefs to a tier, according to the size of the window.

Put them up with rings or ornamental clips. These are designed to go on and off like clothespins—making it easy to take hankie curtains down for laundering.

In kitchen or dinette try a lively red and white lobster pattern. For recreation rooms there are horoscopes with zany verses, bottles of Italian chianti, wistful poodles.

For a girl's room there are lacy styles; for a boy's room, woven plaids.

Trick With Perfume Creates Scent Aura

When it comes to fragrance . . . it takes two . . . meaning perfume and cologne, and the deed is matched to the word.

The effect to create with perfume is to seem to be surrounded with an aura of fragrance . . . remember, perfume should compliment, not dominate. In applying fragrance, diffusion is important and it depends on the skin, the warmth of it, which releases and holds the true essence. Hence, the more skin surface fragranced, the greater the diffusion. And this is where the cologne comes in.

Clean House Brush Is More Efficient

The purpose of a household brush is to gather and hold dust. To serve this purpose, it must be kept clean by frequent washing with hot water and soap.

After rinsing, shake the brush well. If the bristles are twisted in wire, hang it to dry; if they're set in wood, dry the brush with the bristles down.

It's here—the book which has created the biggest furor in years in publishing circles is 1955's most talked-about novel. Set in a desert resort frequented by film stars, producers and their hangers-on, THE DEER PARK is frankly sexual in its preoccupation and sensationally frank. It treats such absorbing questions as what is sex? What is love? What is the connection between the two? Many are shocked by it. Others call it American fiction at its best. Everybody will be reading it. $4.00

New Parisian Party Jewelry Brandishes Pearl Spiders

PARIS (INS) — Fancy jewelry gadgets including mink heads and pearl spiders will be eye-catchers for Parisian glamor girls during the party season.

One amusing and practical new gimmick is a charm bracelet that doubles as a make-up kit. A miniature lipstick in a jeweled tube, a tiny pill box for rouge, a small drum for powder, an eye-pencil and a little mirror are attached to a large silver chain bracelet instead of charms.

The latest clip, to be worn on a coat, suit or cocktail dress, is made of the head of a mink. It has sparkling jewel-eyes and wears a miniature jewel coronet. A dark brown mink head seems to be the thing for daytime. Blonde or sapphire mink heads are used as dressy clips for cocktail or evening wear.

The oddest necklace in Paris is shown by designer Geramine LeComte. A "spider-web" made of gold-wire is rounded off to bib-necklace.

Several pearl-bodied jewel-spiders dangle from it on fine gold threads. While unusual and striking, this necklace is not advisable for girls with a spider-phobia.

Fanny Crosby Unit Plans Style Show

"The Season Between," a floral and fashion demonstration sponsored by the Fanny Crosby Unit of Central Methodist Church, will be held Tuesday at 8 p.m.

The show will feature a fashion display showing appropriate flowers to be worn with each costume. Wedding fashions will also be shown.

Refreshments will be served following the program. Mrs. Glenn Werner is acting as general chairman with Mrs. Arthur Lake in charge of tickets which can be obtained in the church office or at the door. Mrs. Lyle Saum and Mrs. Irwin Brockie are supervising refreshments.

Girlish Gertie Destroys Her Son

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

When her son was a small boy, he started to call her "Gertie."

And she, imagining herself very modern, delightfully encouraged it.

Later, after her divorce, she found other ways to deny the age difference between herself and her son. When gray appeared in her sleek black hair, she routed it by getting it dyed. She learned how to spend an hour in facial make-up.

She went in for "health foods" guaranteed to forestall middle-age. She cultivated a girlish laughter with which to greet the witticisms of her son and his admiring young male friends.

He never made any female friends. Sooner or later, any healthy girl his own age gave up trying to decide what he and Gertie wanted to be to one another—and walked out of their lives.

Self-respecting girls found they couldn't tolerate the confusions created by a mother who didn't want to be a mother.

They just couldn't put up with the sound of that lilting, jealous, middle-aged voice saying, "What you young people must seek are finer things than sex and marriage. Every religion teaches us, you know, that sex is a waste of our creative energies. . . ."

The woman who denied age difference from her child destroyed him. Today, he is an alcoholic, his creative energies wasted on something else.

No, I do not like our modish custom of encouraging children to call us by our first names.

I do not mean to imply that all parents who encourage it are moved by Gertie's destructiveness. I mean that it's a sentimental and unrealistic custom.

In America, we're all a little too quick with other people's first names.

It's pretty childish of us. We do not make a friend out of an acquaintance by slapping him on the back and calling him, "Bill, old boy, old boy."

Friends are not got that way. Our eagerness to pretend they are is made of the same stuff as our eagerness for children to call us by our first names.

No parent can be his child's contemporary. It's sticky nonsense to pretend that we can. No matter how you love your child, the difference in your ages will always make his needs different from yours. No matter how I love mine, the block of time between us denies us intimacy on equal terms.

It is wholesome to accept this reality. It is healthy to teach children to acknowledge our difference in generation, experience and authority by calling us "Mother" and "Father"—the titles of our true relationship to them.

Chop Suey Fine Dish in Autumn

Mrs. Longbrake Uses Ground Beef for American Style

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

If your family is fond of Chop Suey, they will probably like this version given us by Mrs. Arthur Longbrake. Since it uses chopped beef, it is a less expensive dish than ordinary Chop Suey is.

Mrs. Longbrake is a busy person; she says "hard work" is her hobby! Seriously, though, she is an active member of the Boys' Club Mothers Club, also the Twentieth Club. She enjoys crocheting and sewing.

CHOP SUEY, AMERICAN STYLE
By Mrs. Arthur O. Longbrake

1 pound ground steak
1 cup sliced onions
2 cups sliced celery
1½ cups water
1 can drained bean sprouts

Brown ground meat in a little fat, add onions and brown again. Add celery and water and cook until tender. Make thickening of 3 tablespoons of cornstarch, 3 tablespoons chop suey sauce and a dash of catsup. 1 tablespoon molasses, salt and pepper to taste.

When celery and onions are tender, add drained bean sprouts and cook 3 minutes before adding thickening mixture. Cook until smooth. Serve over rice with toasted noodles.

With this shapely sheath in your wardrobe, you'll never have another "what-to-wear" worry! It's so versatile, smart new-looking! Note the easy squared armhole, squared hip pockets. Sew this now in faille, wool jersey, or winter cotton—you'll love it!

Pattern 4560: Misses' sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20; 40. Size 16 takes 4 yards 39-inch fabric.

Send 35 cents in coins for this pattern—add 5 cents for each pattern for first-class mailing. Send to Anne Adams, care of 137 Pontiac Press Pattern Dept., 243 West 17th St., New York 11, N.Y. Print plainly name, address with zone, size and style number.

Girl's Announcement of Love May Fall Flat

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

"Dear Miss Woodward: I went with him for about a month, then we broke up and he started going with another girl. We haven't spoken since—but I still like him, only he doesn't know it.

"I want to let him know somehow. Do you think if he knew I still liked him, he'd go with me again? He's been going with her now for six months!"

Answer: When a boy is very young he is flattered, encouraged and prodded into liking a girl when he is told that she likes him. The news makes her special. Immediately he sees her through new eyes. Likely as not a kindred interest is sparked in his heart.

But as a boy grows older and does more dating around, he's flattered (and that's all) to know that one or another girl likes him. He feels no sense of obligation toward her.

He has spread his wings and is free to fly where he wills. Result: He goes after girls he's not sure of, girls he wants to make fall, girls who interest him for one reason or another.

You could see that the news of your continuing affection for him gets to him. But dollars to doughnuts it won't do any good. He has a steady deal going at the moment that has lasted a while and may go on lasting.

Memories of your month of dating together may not be intriguing enough to make him break off a habit that has become pleasant and comfortable.

But take the chance, if you must. Broadcast by special beam to him the news that you still care. See what comes of it, if and when he breaks up with his current girl. If you have the patience to wait it out.

"Dear Miss Woodward: I like him very much but he doesn't know it yet. My best girl friend intends to tell him. He'll certainly believe her, but he'll almost hate me for it.

"I show that I like him, so it doesn't make any difference, I guess. Please, what else can I do?"

Answer: If you've already showed that you like him, you've spilled the beans. He has caught on. He won't really need your girl friend to tell him to make your point clear.

On the other hand, he may be particularly shy of believing what he sees. Her corroboration may be just what he needs to convince him.

If you know him well enough to suspect that your girl friend's interference would spoil the sauce, tell her to keep out of it. Let your own actions continue to prove your point, without outside publicity. And wait to see what he does about it.

Rhinestone Tiaras Glitter

NEW YORK (INS)—Tiaras on top and shoulder-dusting earrings below will make a lady flash from hairline to neckline next winter.

Rhinestones are definitely in again for dress-up jewelry, and "rhinestones-all-round-the-face" is the latest way to wear them.

At the huge 50th annual trade show of the American National Retail Jewelers Association, held in New York, the big news in holiday costume jewelry was tiaras.

Booth after booth showed $5 to $10 copies of what the well-dressed duchess wears on her head. The rhinestone tiara for stylish commoners looks just as glittery as the diamond ones, but it's lighter and easier to wear. Most of the new rhinestone tiaras are set on springy head-clips of very light aluminum.

"Shoulder-dusters" are the new and bigger 1955 version of chandelier earrings. These enormous rhinestone earbobs also will sell in the $5 to $10 class.

The earrings range in length from three to six inches, and really brush the shoulder of the gal who wears them. The new earrings are wider as well as longer—one $5 pair was fully six inches long, two inches across and made up of eight ropes of rhinestones.

Economy Inspired Hitchcock's Trade Mark

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS)—If a man has a problem—and it's a matter of life and death—the one to see about it is Alfred Hitchcock.

After 32 years of directing the top films of any given amum, he is a specialist on such things. He can advise on how to live whimsically, die dramatically, laugh at despair, despair at laughter and simultaneously make love and atomize a city.

"And if one is really depressed," adds Hitchcock, "I can also introduce him to a jolly game called grave-robbing . . .

"Pulls a man right out of it, really."

The movie suspense king, a rotund man with the face of a cosmopolitan kewpie, was seated in his suite at the St. Regis among wires of congratulation on his latest film, "The Trouble With Harry," which is about a corpse of that name who is frequently pulled out of it.

He—Hitchcock, not Harry—was in his usual droll and compatiable mood when asked why it is that he insists upon inserting a glimpse of himself into every movie he makes.

It has become traditional these days, when attending an Alfred Hitchcock production, to look for the face of the director among the extras.

DENIES BEING HAM

"There have been some slight implications," he said quietly, "that I have pretentions at being a ham because I allow myself to appear—no matter how unobtrusive my appearance may be. I am certain that this is not the least bit true.

"As a matter of fact, I believe that I began the whole business by trying to save money."

This was in 1926 when he was directing a film in London called "The Lodger." There was a scene in a newspaper office which called for a number of reporters, "and it seemed wasteful at the time to spend those extra guineas for extras to just sit around. So I simply went onto the set and sat."

The film was a tremendous success and Hitchcock—an unsuperstitious man in most ways—went into the next picture and stood. In succeeding pictures, he has walked, run, wound clocks and otherwise been "as unobtrusive as possible." Never has he been on film for more than 15 seconds.

It is no longer necessary to save the money on an extra's salary. "In fact, now I have to hire a standby extra for myself in these brief appearances—union regulations."

But it has become what he calls "a sort of good omen thing."

Since his fans have come to expect a snatch of Hitchcock in his movies, it has forced him to stretch his imagination ("sometimes rather fiercely") to figure new ways of workng himself in without intruding upon the movie.

In "Rear Window," he was a man who wound a grandfather's clock. In "Dial M for Murder," he was pictured in a college reunion photograph.

In "Lifeboat," which featured only six actors—at sea in a raft—everybody was saying, he remembers, "How the hell is Hitchcock going to get into this picture?"

But he arranged it, by having William Bendix read a soggy newspaper. "On the back of which there was an ad for a product called 'Reduco.' And there," he smiles modestly, "was the form of Hitchcock—before and after."

The director says it is quite difficult to spot him in the new "Harry" movie, as he is about as unobtrusive as old unobtrusive himself can be. "They wanted me to play Harry, and it seemed like a charming idea," he says. "But it is almost impossible to direct on your back."

Emily Post Locks Horns With Law, Loses Case

CHICAGO (INS) — Etiquette Authority Emily Post bumped heads with Illinois law on the ownership of wedding presents. Miss Post lost.

Chicago Judge George M. Fisher dismissed an attempt by Mrs. Carla Dvorschak, 21, to regain wedding gifts held by her former husband on Miss Post's opinion that "Wedding gifts are sent to the bride and are . . . her property."

Said Judge Fisher: "Miss Post is not Illinois law."

GOP Joins Farm Fight

METEOROLOGICAL NOTE — Updrafts are not uncommon in New York, but this artificial one drew quite a bit of attention from photographers who "happened" to be present when Marilyn Monroe did a scene for "The Seven Year Itch." AP Photo

Hall Criticizes Dem Candidates

Party Chairman Claims Stevenson 'Flip-Flops' Over Parity Stand

WASHINGTON (AP)—The political storm over the farm issue has gathered intensity with a Republican blast at two possible Democratic presidential candidates and an official report of a further farm price drop.

Leonard W. Hall yesterday accused Adlai E. Stevenson of bowing to pressure from Democratic leaders and doing a complete "flip-flow" in endorsing 90 per cent of parity farm price supports.

And he said New York's Gov. Averell Harriman, in recommending the 90 per cent system, "has also advocated return to an unworkable program which piled up seven billion dollars worth of price-depressing farm surpluses in government warehouses."

The report of a further setback in farm prices came from the Agriculture Department. It said prices declined between mid-September and mid-October under the influence of a record output of crops and livestock. The exact amount will be issued in a formal report Friday.

Farm prices already average 4 per cent below a year ago, the department said, while prices of nonfarm goods have climbed.

Neither Stevenson nor Harriman offered an immediate reply to Halls statement. A Stevenson said that before Hall "starts interpreting Gov. Stevenson's position on agriculture, I would think he would try to explain Secretary (of Agriculture) Benson's."

Benson heads the Eisenhower administration program aimed at trimming surplus production and supporting farm prices mainly through a sliding scale of federal price props. This took the place of a Democratic program of 90 per cent of parity payments. Parity is the price said by law to be fair for farm products in relations to farmers' costs.

Harriman, speaking Saturday to the same Midwest conference of Democratic leaders at Des Moines, Iowa, which Steveenson messaged, also recommended 90 per cent supports and other farm aids. He said the Republicans are treating the farmer "like some kind of economic delinquent."

In St. Paul, Minn., however, chairman Ellender (D-La) of the Senate Agriculture Committee said he believes there is not a "ghost of a chance" that Congress will restore the fixed 90 per cent of parity system next year.

Ellender commented as his group began a nationwide tour to find out how the farmer's feel about the Eisenhower administration farm program.

ELDORADO SEVILLE — Setting a new trend in hardtop styling is Cadillac's Eldorado Se ville, a new body style presented for the first time for 1956. The car's finely tailored roof panel, custom trimmed in padded Vicodec material, blends smartly with the characteristic Eldorado swept back fin effect and new oval exhaust ports. The Seville is powered by a newly developed 305 horsepower engine and features Cadillac's "controlled coupling" hydramatic transmission which is completely new in principle. New Cadillacs will be shown here by Jerome Motor Sales Co., 280 S. Saginaw St.

Cadillac Slates Highest Output

Record 156,000 Autos Will Include Ten Body Styles in Three Series

DETROIT (AP) — Cadillac Motors is scheduling a record 156,000 cars for production during the next 12 months.

This figure, 15,000 greater than the 1955 model year output, was announced by Cadillac as it disclosed details of its 1956 cars.

The new line includes two new body designs, the Sedan deVille, a four-door hardtop, and the Eldorado Seville, a limited production model. The additions give Cadillac 10 body styles in three series.

A more powerful engine, improved transmission, new front and rear bumpers, new hood, new grille, new front and rear fenders, a new instrument panel and new interior styling are among the numerous changes.

The new engine will develop 285 horsepower. It is stepped up with multiple barrel carburetion to 305 horsepower for the Eldorado models. Both will have 9.75 to 1 compression ratio. The transmission is the improved hydra-matic, redesigned to make gear shifting smoother and acceleration control more effective. It is standard on all models.

Front fenders are wider and the hood is lower. Rear fenders feature a new chrome treatment and dual exhaust outlets are located at the outer ends of the restyled rear bumper.

The Cadillac name-plate on the sides of the front fenders is replaced with a new Cadillac crest. There is a chrome trim molding on the top edge of the rear fenders and new fluted chrome vertical sashes on the forward edge of the rear fenders.

The projected Eldorado Brougham, a highly customized, limited production car, is scheduled to be presented during 1956. The car made its first appearance as a "dream model at General Motors' Motorama. It will carry a price tag of around $8,500.

'Borrowed' Hearts, Lungs Reported Fighting Children's Congenital Defects

By FRANK CAREY
Associated Press Science Reporter

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—"Borrowed" hearts and lungs look promising as aides in the surgical treatment of congenital heart defects in children, a team of University of Minnesota surgeons reported today.

They told the 28th annual scientific meeting of the American Heart Assn., that since March, 1954, a total of 43 children has undergone surgery with the aid of "controlled cross circulation"—a method in which the patient, in effect, "borrows" the heart and lungs of a donor lying alongside him in the operating room. The method was developed by a Minnesota team.

WITHIN THE HEART

The idea of the technique is to interconnect the blood systems of patient and donor in such a way that the blood supply to the patient's heart can be cut off without endangering his life. This allows surgeons to operate within the heart in a virtually bloodless field.

* * *

Dr. H. E. Warden and several colleagues said two-thirds of the 43 children survived and now have comparatively normal hearts. Most of the operations were defects in the muscular wall separating the heart's right and left chambers.

In another report to the meeting, Dr. Mario Stefanini of Boston reported encouraging results in attacking clots in blood vessels of the legs, abdomen and eye with a chemical enzyme derived from bacteria of the streptococcal family.

At a news conference yesterday, Dr. E. Cowles Andrus of Baltimore, president of the American Heart Assn., said that 65 to 70 per cent of the men who suffer a first "coronary" heart attack—such as President Eisenhower has had—can "return to their original occupation." But he said they must live and work "in moderation," and he excluded any return to "heavy" physical labor.

Adlai Greets Dems Visiting His Farm

LIBERTYVILLE, Ill. (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson did a little political fence mending yesterday at his 70-acre farm.

He entertained Lake County Democratic precinct committeemen and others—about 200 in all.

But the 1952 Democratic presidential nominee did not divulge his 1956 plans to his neighbors. He is expected to make the announcement next month.

Sen. John Sparkman of Alabama, who was the nominee for vice president on the ticket headed by Stevenson, was an overnight guest at the farm.

Stevenson made no speech. He mingled with the visitors and showed them around his place.

Marilyn Monroe Would Like Hollywood to Drop Her 'Stereotyped Sex' Facade

trying desperately to break out of this mold that was created for her," said the friend. "She wants so badly to be more than a mannequin and one wonders whether she will be allowed to—or whether she can."

The nine-month sabbatical has been observed by some with a good deal of cynicism.

SHE'S NOT DIFFERENT?

From time to time it has been chronicled in terms either nauseating doting or cruelly derisive—unwarranted but inevitable treatment for a figure engaged at once in fulfilling and fighting the promise of the made-in-Hollywood label.

Some say the East Coast edition of Marilyn Monroe is not essentially different from the West Coast edition. It is, however, certainly a more determined version.

Poured into a custom-designed gown an artful half-size too small, armed with baby stare and moist open mouth, Marilyn Monroe is the movie queen, openly enjoying the modest pandemonium her appearance creats at the entrance to a Westport, Conn., summer theafer.

SHE HAS HERO

But hidden under a polo coat, hurrying into Malin Studios, a midtown rehearsal building where Strasberg conducts his drama classes, she is the eternal student, awed by the educated and too frightened to participate in group sessions, but rebelliously earnest and enthusiastic.

The hero of her flight from Hollywood had been seen as Milton L. Greene, her good friend and photographer, who has often been singled out recently as "Marilyn's Svengali."

He's one of New York's most harassed and telephoned individuals because evidently almost as many people want to see Marilyn as would normally want to see the President of the United States.

Greene appears to have offended a sizeable number of people around New York, beginning with the preparations for the "Person-to-Person" telecast last March. During the course of that production he antagonized an entire CBS camera crew by insisting that the elaborate lighting set-up was incorrect for Marilyn and must be changed.

SHE NEEDS BOUNCE?

In his defense, he wanted to use what cameramen call "bounce" lighting which gives a softer, more flattering effect. He's told friends he was trying to help his client.

He stoutly denies any hypnotic talents, however, and even on brief acquaintance hardly fits the role. A successful photographer, Greene is a slight, boyish-looking young man who appears to lack the polish and the cunning to mastermind the capture of a top box office figure.

Greene and Marilyn met when he was photographing her for Look. Marilyn reportedly gasped:

"Why you're just a boy!"

"And you're just a girl," he answered.

SHE'S NO DODO

In any case, those who know her well, report that the long, arduous climb to recognition has made her diamond-hard on the subject of business affairs.

During some negotiations for a movie role a Broadway actor was startled to find "Marilyn giving me the kind of advice I'd only expect to get from a Hollywood lawyer. She knew the ins and outs and the fine-print tricks better than an agent."

A former business associate calls her "self-protectively smart."

"On the important things," he says, "she knows instinctively what's good for her even when she doesn't know why."

SHE ASKS HELP

It was in this frame of reference that she turned to Greene for advice last year when her contract came up for renewal. Greene put her in touch with two knowing New York attorneys, Frank Delaney and Irving L. Stein.

The two of them, according to an acquaintance, found enough holes in the old agreement to be able to say: You have no contract but we'll welcome discussions of a new one, on our own terms.

"We" had become a Monroe corporation, headed by its namesake, with Greene as vice president and the two lawyers as members of the board along with an accountant named Joseph Carr.

SHE'S BIG BUSINESS

Financially, turning Marilyn Monroe into a big business will eventually pay off. Under the tax laws, as a corporation, she will be able to keep a good deal more of the money she makes than she could as an individual.

Artistically, it has already paid off in the sense that the corporation has financed her during the long holdout while her new agents at MCA have so far battered Twentieth Century into agreeing to allow Marilyn to alternate four appearances for the studio with an equal number of independent productions.

The last hurdle is still to be scaled: Marilyn wants script and directorial approval. With time and the studio's biggest box-office draw on its side, MM Productions seems to feel the company will eventually unbend.

By December, the corporation expects to be financing TV productions, most likely without Marilyn, and eventually, films and possibly plays, probably with Marilyn.

A business acquaintance who has had occasion to attend board meetings of MM productions reports they are both real and sincere.

SHE GETS BORED

"Marilyn attends," he says, "and I've seen her, after listening to somebody spout for an hour, get to the heart of the matter with a three-word question.

"On the other hand, she gets pretty bored after a while. It's hard to keep her attention after an hour, even on matters that concern her vitally. She sort of stops listening and stops absorbing."

Professionally, the corporation president is only now beginning to show signs of unrest.

She has, in single-minded devotion to her studies, turned down in the past half-year in the neighborhood of $250,000 for what amounted to 14 days work in Australia, a role in an Italian movie spectacle on Goya and, reportedly, the lead in a Broadway musical hit.

SHE'S MAKING BREAK

Ask her, as some have, "Marilyn, what are your plans?" and she will answer, "I live here," a non-sequitur that is fully understandable to those who have been following the workings of her mind.

"It means," interprets a good friend, "that she's making the break. New York is the place she calls home. She's got a new circle of friends and a way of life she enjoys."

As if to prove her determination, last month, still comfortably settled in the Waldorf Towers and on the brink of a contract settlement which will mean return to film work, she rented a handsomely-furnished apartment on W. 57th St.

The lady, it appears, means what she says and New York is getting a permanent addition to its scenic delights.

Mothers Make Their Children Into Southpaws

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—A school man said today that a three-year survey convinced him that, contrary to popular belief, southpaws get that way in their first few months of life.

"Left-handedness positively is not inherited, as most people think," said H. M. Wiley, president of Wheeler County, Tex., School Board.

Wiley has interviewed 17,662 pupils in the schools of Amarillo and other Texas cities.

He says left-handedness rises during war and depression years because "times of tension bring neglect in the training of children."

"Mothers should begin teaching right-handedness from the day a baby can grasp a toy."

A southpaw himself, Wiley says he hopes to reduce left-handedness because it "handicaps a person throughout life."

"That's because we live in a right-handed culture — tools, machinery, instrument boards, scissors, pencil sharpeners and other devices," he said.

"Our country never had a more tranquil period than this period," he said. "Parents gave their babies more and better attention then."

Nation's Foreign Aid Down $760 Million

WASHINGTON (AP)—United States net foreign aid dropped 760 million dollars in the 12 months ended la stJune 30. The total net foreign aid spending figure was 4½ billion dollars.

The Commerce Department attributed the decrease to a 28 per cent decline in military aid. Most of this drop affected Western European countries.

Nonmilitary aid reversed a five-year downward trend and increased by 23 per cent during the 12 months.

Mongrel Dog Nips Leg of Mexican Comedian

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — A mongrel dog that nipped Mexico's famed comedian Cantinflas has been placed under observation to determine if it has rabies.

Cantinflas, whose real name is Mario Moreno, was running on a film set Saturday when the dog, rented for the movie, grabbed him by the leg. The comic was treated by a studio physician.

Careening Trucks Terrifying Raton Citizens

RATON, N. M. (AP)—Recent runaway truck disasters have citizens more concerned than before over a traffic shotgun pointed down the community throat of this northern New Mexico city.

Just any time now, the fear is, the next runaway heavily-loaded truck may come roaring death down off Raton Pass straight into the heart of the city.

Just as the fear exists, so does a certain amount of controversy over what has been done—or can be done—about the situation.

Raton is situated at the very foot of Raton Pass, a drop from the mountains of almost 1,200 feet in less than seven miles.

Last year two men were in a loaded vegetable truck which screamed out of control down the the pass. The brakes failed and the huge vehicle then ripped into a Y at the northern edge of the city, attempted to take a truck bypass but couldn't make the 45-degree turn. It scattered cabbage and lettuce over half an acre of railroad right-of-way and killed the two occupants.

LEADS FIGHT

Truck stop operator Jim Elliott is one of the leaders in a battle to have something done.

Elliott operates a combination restaurant-service station, popular with truckers who stop here for rest and food.

"There's no law of averages that says a truck has to go out of control because of brake failure in the middle of the night," he contends, "It could happen when those intersections are jamed with kids going home from school. It could happen in the business rush hours."

There was a mass protest meeting after the two deaths.

Elliott says all the New Mexico Highway Department did was to put up larger and better signs calling attention of truckers to a truck trap—or safety lane—on the mountainside where they could steer their runaway trucks.

Elliott doesn't think much of the truck traps—or the highway department's insistence they be called safety lanes.

"Most drivers," he says, "would rather take the risk of avoiding killing someone down in Raton than drive themselves into almost certain suicide."

DESIGNED TO STOP

The two traps are inclines designed to bring the trucks to a comparatively safe stop—off the main highway. But Elliott contends a speeding truck couldn't be kept on the narrow traps and drivers would face almost certain death.

State Highway Engineer L. D. Wilson disagrees. He says the traps have saved the lives of several truckers.

The New Mexico port of entry is being moved from the foot of the pass to the top of the mountain. Truckers, required by law to stop, will be warned there may be trouble ahead.

The Raton Pass has been described as the most notorious runaway section in the United States. Raton residents don't care for the notoriety.

There have been no recent incidents, but escapades elsewhere with runaway trucks aren't easing the situation. Local residents are concerned, for they contend the shotgun is still loaded and pointing.

War Elephant Arrives at East German Zoo

BERLING (AP)—Visitors to the Warsaw zoo now can feed candy to a Red veteran decorated in the Indochina battle of Dien Bien Phu.

The hero is Jasio, a big elephant donated by the Communist Vietminh government of North Viet Nam.

"During the famous battle of Dien Bien Phu, he carried weapons, ammunition and food under a hail of enemy bullets to advanced lines," the East German news service ADN summed up Jasio's combat activities.

Wouk Wanting $1 Million for 'Morningstar' Rights

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — One of the biggest deals ever made in our town is Milton Sperling's purchase of "Marjorie Morningstar," number one plus on the best seller lists.

Herman Wouk, the author, asked for one million dollars. He will get a percentage, which could amount to more. Jack Warner, who bought the property, made the deal through Harold Matson and Ray Stark.

When I asked Milton how much of a percentage Wouk was getting he refused to tell, but I did hear that it is 50 per cent. If "Marjorie Morningstar" grosses as much as "Caine Mutiny," Warners won't mind the big Wouk share.

The critics tore "Marjorie Morningstar" to bits, but the public still bought the book. Today its sales are enormous.

Meeting Slated to Study Vote

School Officials Plan Discussion in Lapeer on Annexation

LAPEER — Former school officials and residents of all rural school districts now annexed to the Lapeer Schools have been invited to a meeting in Lapeer Tuesday to be held in the E. E. Erwin school.

Similar to a meeting held several months ago, this is meant to give people from the enlarged area an opportunity to present their problems to the Board of Education.

Dick Loubser, president of the Board and other officials will tell what has been accomplished thus far as a result of annexation, and what is being planned.

People living in school districts in the Lapeer area, not yet ready to vote on annexation, are especially invited. Metamora district No. 4, in which the Metamora elementary school is located, is one of those districts still undecided on what to do. The question is being studied.

Better Health for Fatties Up to Wise Housewives

By FRANK CAREY
AP Science Reporter

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Doctors were urged today to "set your sights on the housewife" as a means of curbing overeating—and overweight — among the nation's people.

"It is she, to a large extent, who shapes the food habits and practices of the nation," declared Dr. W. H. Sebrell Jr., former director of the National Institutes of Health and now a research consultant for the American Cancer Society.

"She buys and prepares the food, times the meals and fixes the quantities of food to be served," he said in an address to the 28th annual scientific meeting of the American Heart Assn.

He said overweight "is one of the most serious health hazards of our times—at least 20 per cent, perhaps as many as 25 per cent, of all adults in this country today are overweight to an extent that may impair their health."

And "all obesity," he declared flatly, "results from overeating—that is, eating more calories than are needed for energy."

"There is a common notion that to be big is to be strong and healthy," he said.

"It is this misguided view which causes mothers to provide an excess of food for their children, insist on its being eaten, and so, in some cases, develop habits of overeating which persist into adulthood."

Sebrell said a lot of people erroneously place reliance on drugs as a means of reducing weight.

"In the great majority of cases," he said, "these drugs—whether nonspecific fillers, appetite depressants or metabolic stimulators—have relatively little, and then only temporary, value since use of them tends to obscure the main problem, overeating. In any case, drugs should be used in obesity control only upon the advice of physicians."

Architects Hope to Get Dominican Fair Ready for December Opening

CIUDAD TRUJILLO (INS) — Twenty-five Dominican Republic architects seeking to break the tradition that world's fairs never are ready by opening day, are feverishly setting construction records.

They aim to have all 22 buildings and pavilions on the 125-acre site of the Dominican Republic International Fair for Peace and Progress of the Free World ready by December 20, 1955. The Fair will run through February 27th.

Veteran Dominican architect Guillermo Gonzalez, Yale '30 (he built the Hotel Jaragua, pride of the capital city of his country, and other hotels) was told by Generalissimo Rafael L. Trujillo in late May to build "overnight" a luxury hotel to house more than 200 visitors.

Gonzalez got busy and the next morning had machinery chipping away at the hard coral rock for a foundation.

After seven weeks of three-shifts-a-day labor, he had built not only a five-story, 154-room structure but, for good measure, blasted a big swimming pool hole out of the hard rock.

The rooms are now being plastered and the Hotel Paz (Peace), as it will be known, is scheduled to a full month earlier than originally schedued.

Ghouls Open Old Grave in Center Line Cemetery

CENTER LINE — State Police reported today that bones of an early Sterling Township settler have been disinterred by grave robbers.

A woman mushroom hunter came upon the opened grave in an all-but-forgotten cemetery on Schoenherr Rd., between the Rambler and Plumbrook golf courses.

United Nations Delegates Renew Talks on Organization of Atomic Energy Unit

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Spurred by a State Department call for a 12-nation conference in December on the makeup of an international atomic energy agency, U. N. delegates renewed consultations here today in an attempt to get general endorsement of the agency.

The question is before the U. N. Assembly political committee. So far there have been differences over what countries should be in the agency, how it should operate, whether it should be formed inside the U. N. or outside, and whether the Security Council should have a veto on its operation.

The United States, Britain, Australia and other Western sponsors of one resolution have insisted the Assembly should ratify a decision to go ahead and form the agency, and determine its U. N. relationship later. The Soviet Union insisted on Security Council veto power and also proposed that Red China be included in the agency.

India brought forward a number of amendments to harmonize proposals modified by the West. One sounded praise for the State Department action in calling the special conference. India also proposed that U. N. Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold set up a special group to outline possible relations of the agency with the U. N. before the Washington conference is held.

Shortly after the Political Committee recessed last Friday, not to meet again until tomorrow afternoon, the State Department announced it had included the Soviet Union, Czechoslovakia and India in its bid to the December parley.

Other countries invited were Brazil, Portugal and the United States' cosponsors in the original agency proposal — Australia, Britain, Belgium, Canada, France and the Union of South Africa.

Tight Squeeze for 'M'; Spartans Spank Illini

ANN ARBOR (AP) — "There's no doubt about it," coach Bennie Oosterbaan said." It's the 1st time this season we've put together effective offense."

So his top-rated Michigan Wolverines, after going unbeaten for four games on enemy mistakes, jelled in 45 minutes of frightening football.

They defeated Minnesota's fired-up Gophers, 14-13, by coming from two touchdowns behind Saturday to stun a capacity crowd of 64,434 in Memorial Stadium, Minneapolis.

Even Michigan's leading rusher, Tony Branoff, said, "It was the 1st time we worked a real unit."

It took adversity to make the boys act like men.

Minnesota, hammered at all week long by coach Murray Warmath, was spoiling for a fight. Gophers charged onto the field and didn't stop until they had pounded out a quick 1st period two-touchdown lead.

Then Michigan began to contain the Gopher attack. Wolverines put together two passes to travel 59 yards in the 2nd period so halfback Terry Barr could gallop five yards more for Michigan's 1st touchdown. Branoff converted.

In the 3rd period, they moved 45 yards, covering the last nine on a pass from Jim Van Pelt to Tom Maentz for the score.

Van Pelt's conversion was the margin of victory. It pointed up even more the poise and precision that Michigan exhibited under the most rattling circumstances.

In gaining its 5th and narrowest victory, Michigan had an impressive statistical edge for the 1st time this season.

Michigan outgained Minnesota 256-187, and made more 1st downs, 19-7. In fact the only place Minnesota topped the Wolverines was in punting.

From the 2nd period on, Michigan was master of the situation. In that period Minnesota pushed to the Michigan 39 once, the last time they were to see Michigan territory that afternoon.

In the whole 2nd half, Minnesota made only 28 yards on the ground, 19 in the air, and never got past its own 42-yard line.

Besides its touchdown drives, Michigan pushed to the Minnesota 6, 10 and 12 yard lines on power and passes.

Michigan State	7	0	14	0	—21
Illinois	0	7	0	0	— 7

By H. GUY MOATS

EAST LANSING—In a typical Michigan State roaring comeback, after a fast start had petered out in the 1st period, the ambitious and improving Spartans Saturday afternoon spanked Ray Eliot's Fighting Illini, 21-7. The Big 10 contest drew an audience of some 51,851 fans, a sellout.

It was homecoming day for Michigan State, and many former Spartan gridiron greats were among the well-pleased homecomers.

Saturday's victory was the 4th for the Spartans, only Michigan's close win marring the slate in five starts.

State hit the scoring column on its 1st possession of the ball.

Illini was stopped cold after the opening kickoff, and punted.

Walt Kowalczyk, MSU speedster, ran it back to the 35. Two plays later quarterback Earl Morrall fired the 1st of two spectacular aerials he engineered during the afternoon. The ball hit end John (Big Thunder) Lewis on the 20. Kowalczyk slipped over the right side for the TD. Gerry Planutis booted the 1st of 3 perfect conversions.

Then, as quickly as they had started Duffy Daugherty's men hit the skids. The Illini, spearheaded by flashing Harry Jefferson, Abe Woodson and quarterback Lindbeck, outplayed the Spartans and gave the crowd, and the MSU bench itself a worrisome time until the start of the 2nd half.

Illini knotted the count early in the 2nd period after driving down to the 12 at the close of the opener. A pass from Linbeck to Nitschke went to the 8. On the 4th play Lindbeck skirted MSU's right side for the tally and Dick Miller converted, tying the score.

Right at the start of the 2nd half, State got a break that proved to be important. Planutis slipped on the 8, starting to run back the kickoff. But Illini was offside. Musetti ran the next one to the 40, and immediatey Morrall launched his "long one." The 40-yarder sailed into Dave Kaiser's hands on the 20 and he went in all alone.

Late in the period MSU struck again. After a punt to its own 44, State banged into scoring position on 7 plays. The last stage was a Morrall pass to "loneome" end Jewett in the end zone, with not an Illini within 10 yards.

Sparks 'New Look'

Hergesheimer Stars to Lead N. Y. Rangers

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A little less than a year ago it looked like Wally Hergesheimer's National Hockey League career was finished, but today, the little rightwinger is sparking the "new look" New York Rangers to their fastest start since pre-war years.

Hergesheimer, who fractured his left leg twice within a period of nine months, flipped in a pair of goals last night in the Rangers' 5-4 victory over the Chicago Black Hawks, the only NHL game played.

Ranger Manager Muzz Patrick called Hergy's performance his best of the season. His second goal, the winning tally, came at the end of a beautiful passing pattern which he and young Dean Prentice executed on a two-on-one break late in the last period.

Chicago, down 3-1 at one stage, pulled even on Nick Mickoski's second goal of the night and went ahead on Tony Leswick's solo tally.

Ron Murphy's goal evened it again at 4-4 before Hergesheimer's winner.

Hergesheimer's agility and "hockey sense"—being in the right place at the right time—are responsible for his success. He is not the fastest skater nor is hi shot particularl yhard. Standing 5-8 and weighing a mere 155 pounds, he certainly cannot rely on power. But size has been no handicap at all compared to Wally's bad breaks.

'Gator Mentor Says Kentucky Violated Code

Collier Denies His Team Feigns Injury as Trick to Stop Clock

GAINESVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Bob Woodruff, Florida football coach, says there is considerable evidence Kentucky violated the code of ethics to stop the clock Saturday night and beat Florida 10-7 with a field goal. But Kentucky Coach Blanton Collier denied any violation.

Delmar Hughes kicked the three-pointer with only 34 seconds left to play.

Collier was able to substitute Hughes in the game and send in the rubber tee he used for the 20-yard place kick only because the clock was stopped for a player injury timeout.

Woodruff raised the question of whether it was a bona fide injury that stopped the clock and let Hughes, a quarterback, go into the lineup for Bob Collier, a guard.

At Lexington, Coach Collier denied there was any violation of the Southeastern Conference code of ethics.

"On my word of honor, I did not at any time, nor have I at any time, instructed or suggested to any of my players that they fake an injury or use any unfair means to win a football game," the Kentucky coach said.

The code says the feigning of injury for the purpose of gaining time "and other practices of deceit . . . are dishonest, unsportsmanlike and contrary to the spirit of the rules."

Woodruff said his assistant coaches saw Kentucky's staff on the sidelines signaling to the players on the field by bending over and holding their stomachs and legs, apparently wig-wagging them to fake an injury.

"According to our players and coaches, No. 67 (Bob Collier) was one of the first to run out on the field after the game was over," Woodruff said.

Discussing Woodruff's accusation, Coach Collier said, "This comes as a big surprise to me. It is an unjust thing for any coach to make such an accusation. I defy anyone to say that I did what Coach Woodruff charges, and will permit anyone who desires to interview all of my players and ask them whether or not they have been taught to use such tactics."

Rams' Aerials Trip Lions

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Los Angeles Rams turned in a spectacular aerial and ground game yesterday that pushed them to a 24-13 victory over the Detroit Lions and the top of the National Football League's Western Conference.

Passing of veteran Norm Van Brocklin and the running of rookie Ron Waller dropped Detroit deeper in the conference cellar with its 5th straight defeat of the season.

Rams came from behind a 3-point deficit early in the 4th quarter on a game - winning touchdown pass play from Van Brocklin to halfback Elroy (Crazy Legs) Hirsch. The play went 7 yards and put Los Angeles ahead 17-13.

Waller, a rookie from Maryland decorated the victory by starting the Rams on a 71-yard march with a brilliant 32-yard gallop and finishing with a 12-yard touchdown sprint.

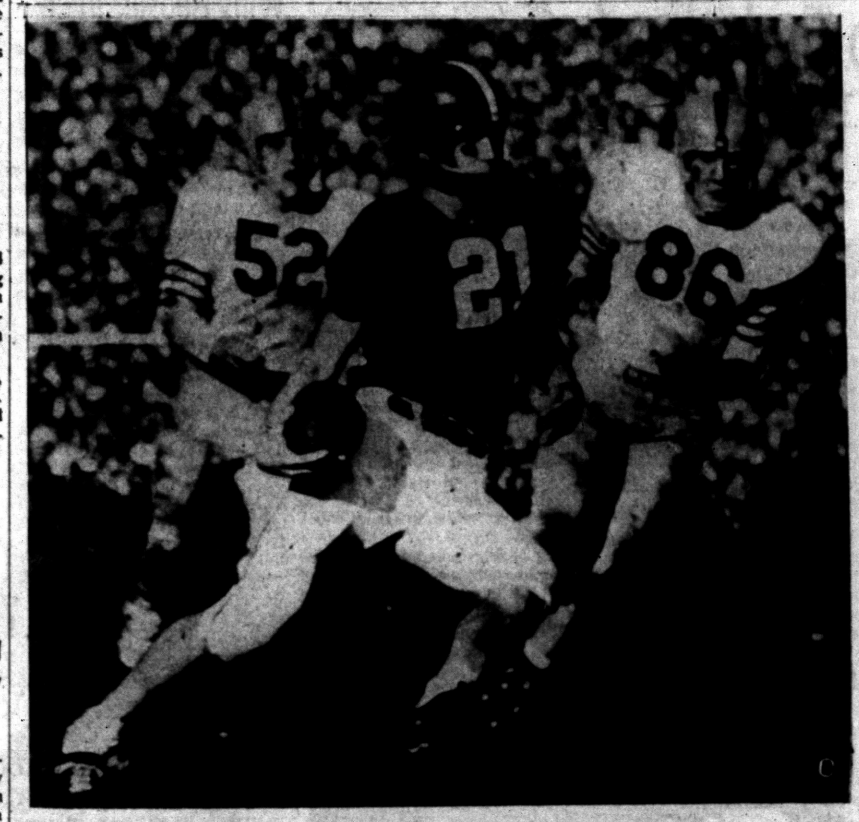

As in their past four games, Lions lost in the final quarter. Doak Walker kicked his 2nd field goal early in the period to put Detroit momentarily in front.

Walker's 1st goal that gave Detroit a 3-point margin in the 1st period was wiped out by Van Brocklin's arching pass to end Bob Boyd that went for 68 yards and a touchdown.

Los Angeles boosted its margin to 10-3 in the 2nd quarter when Les Richter kicked a field goal from the 15.

Lions moved into a 10-10 tie in the 1st three minutes of the 3rd quarter in surprising fashion. Rams appeared to be headed for a touchdown when Detroit halfback Lee Riley intercepted a pass and returned it 15 yards to the Lion 40. Harry Gilmer passed for 34 to Jug Girard, fullback Lew Carpenter went through left tackle for 26 yards and a touchdown.

Walker's field goal gave Detroit its short-lived margin.

FAKER! — Here's how Earl Morrall (21), Michigan State quarterback faked the Illini out of a lot of defensive action, Saturday at East Lansing. This was a 3rd period shot, with Morrall making a 1st down. No. 52 is Illini Jim Minor, and No. 86 is Illinois end, Gary Francis. Morall's play was outstanding in the 21-7 victory for State.

Cassady Retains Scoring Lead

Planutis 2nd, Ellwood of Wisconsin Third; Kramer Now 5th

CHICAGO (AP) — Ohio State All-America Howard Cassady maintained his lead in the Big Ten scoring race while teammate Frank Ellwood jumped into a tie for 3rd with his three touchdowns against Wisconsin.

Cassady scored once against the Badgers to run his 1st place total to 42 points with Gerry Planutis of Michigan State 2nd with 35 points.

Ron Kramer, Michigan's injured end, dropped to 5th place with 25 points. Totals are for all games played.

The group is expected to make preparations for the association's 50th annual convention to be held in Los Angeles Jan. 9-11.

Among other matters on the agenda is the report of the committee on infractions, the fact-gathering agency for the NCAA's enforcement program.

Albion Invitational Meet Added to PHS Harrier List

One more important cross-country crown has been added to the list of victories hung up this fall by Pontiac's all-winning distance runners.

Chiefs took the Albion College Invitational Class A title Saturday, but only by the closest of margins over Battle Creek's team and a good Jackson high school outfit. Only 10 points separated Chiefs and 3rd place Jackson, with the Creekite squad in between.

Pontiac compiled a 76 point total, highest it has turned in this season (lower the total the higher the team finishes). Battle Creek had 79 and Jackson 86. Other Class A teams, in order, were Kalamazoo 91, Lincoln Park 138 and Midland 163.

Winner was Bob Lake, Kalamazoo, with a fast 10:14. He is also state half-mile champion (in other heat from Bill Douglas, PHS at last spring's MHSAA meet.)

Perry Williams of Pontiac was second, with 10:18. Bill Douglas finished 3rd, 15 yards back at 10:20. Gene Cretal, Pontiac, was No. 16, Rod Treais, No. 19, Pete Cox, 36th (Pete had more points than other four PHS men ahead of him), Don Evans was No. 40, and Alex Barge No. 53.

There were 15 teams in the class, Coach Wally Schloerke reported today.

Lansing Eastern won its Five-A League meet over Kalamazoo, Battle Creek and Jackson, but Lansing was not in Saturday's meet. Schloerke figures the Eastern team is the toughest competition Pontiac will face in the state.

Chief Harriers this week get their biggest test, to this time, when they run in the state high school regional at Birmingham, on Oct. 29.

After this one, if the team qualifies, it will try for the state crown over the rolling Washtenaw Country Club, at Ypsilanti, Nov. 5.

Cranes Salvage Tie in Inter-State Tilt

Two 2nd period touchdowns, one by Pontiac's George Gary on a 49-yard pass interception, Saturday salvaged a 13-13 tie for Cranbrook's eleven. Cranes, playing Nichols School at Buffalo, in an Inter-State Prep conference game, collected their 2nd TD with a 8-yard end sweep by Pete Huber.

Nichols scored in the 1st period, and again in the finale, but failed the conversion try, as did Cranbrook on its 2nd counter. Smith made Nichols' 1st tally, on a 5-yard drive. Webb went 62 yards for the 2nd TD.

Machus booted the Crane's only conversion.

'Ragamuffins' Ride High

Texas Aggies Go From Rags-to-Riches on Gridiron, Thanks to 'Bear' Bryant

COLLEGE STATION, Tex., Oct. 24 (AP)—The Texas Aggies, given the affectionate tag of "Ragamuffins" because of their rags to riches foot ball story, ride high, wide and grinning in the Southwest Conference today.

The spindly-shanked kids who couldn't beat anybody last season are licking almost everybody this year. They have won five in a row, including two conference games in which they lashed the league's acknowledged leaders — Texas Christian and Baylor—and they go up to Fayetteville Saturday to swipe at tough, vengeful Arkansas.

What happened to turn this squad of misfits into the finest football machine in the Southwest—a team Coach George Sauer of Baylor says will compare favorably with mighty Maryland? Sauer made the statement after his Bears had taken a decisive licking from the "Ragamuffins" Saturday. He was qualified to speak. Baylor was beaten by almost the same score by Maryland a few weeks ago.

Well, the answer hereabouts is Paul (Bear) Bryant, the man who came from Kentucky last year to take up the tattered strings of Aggieland football and piece them back together. Bryant has a 194-pound line, which he says is the smallest in college football (There are high school teams in Texas with lines that big), and he has a fullback who played six-man football before coming to college. And there's a one-armed guard named Murry Trimble, who's doing quite a job for Bryant.

The line that relieves the starters averages 189 pounds to the man. When it meets Southern Methodist it will be outweighed about 20 pounds to the player. But it's the line, a blocking, gang-tackling combination, that has brought the Aggies where they are today.

They marvel around here at the indefatigable energy of the man Bryant. It's football every waking minute of every day. He says "I am dedicated to football."

Bryant's philosophy is "Why be a show or place, let's be the winner!"

Bryant tells his players they should want to win "because those other guys have on different colored jerseys."

Little Gridders Show Spirit, Determination

By BILL CORNWELL

It may not have been football at its very best, but spirit and determination were certainly present when the 9th annual Midget Football All-Star Night was held Saturday under the Wisner Stadium lights.

Upwards of 250 elementary and junior high boys competed in six rotating games to conclude a six-week football training program. Midget Night was co-sponsored by the Board of Education, Junior Chamber of Commerce, and Parks and Recreation Department, with the latter two evenly splitting the proceeds.

A dozen elementary schools, comprised of 5th and 6th graders, played four games on 45-yard fields. Wisner's team recorded the most lopsided victory, whitewashing Webster No. 2 by a 25-0 margin.

Bagley trimmed Whitfield, 27-7, to post the next biggest runaway. A squad composed of youths from St. Frederick, St. Michael, Keego Harbor, and Walled Lake was blanked by Malkim and Crofoot, 14-0, while the McConnell-Wilson combination defeated Webster No. 1 by a 13-7 count.

Five junior high schools, consisting entirely of 7th grade youngsters, took part in two contests. Young warriors from Wever, Eastern, and Washington No. 2 were downed by Lincoln, 14-7, Jefferson nosed out Washington No. 1 by the extra point, 7-6, but needed a break to do it.

In the waning moments of the last quarter a Jefferson punt from the five-yard line went behind the kicker and was caught by a charging Washington lineman in the end zone for a touchdown. But a penalty nullified the play and the winners held possession balance of the game.

Jack Cole managed the Whitfield team; Bruce Baker the Malkin-Crofoot squad; Tony Pizza McConnell-Wilson and Wisner; John Sluka and Dick Neaves coached the St. Fred, St. Mike, Keego, and Walled Lake squad; Ray White and Charles Spann coached Bagley; Em Ghianni and Bob Casteel handled Webster No. 1, and Ghianni doubled with Webster No. 2.

In the junior high ranks, Ghianni, Sluka, Cole, and Spann managed the Wever, Eastern, and Washington No. 2 team, while Washington No. 1 was handled by Ghianni and Spann. White and Casteel mentored Jefferson and Pizza and Neaves coached Lincoln.

Ralph Allen, Chuck Deschaine, Arky James and Jim Fink officiated the Midget games. Larry Sherwood was in charge of the Wisner Stadium program.

No Count for Wings, Boston

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Red Wings posted their 1st scoreless tie in 91 National Hockey League games battling the Boston Bruins to a 0-0 deadlock in Olympic Stadium Saturday.

Sawchuk made 28 saves while Hall pushed 19 tries from the net.

Browns Impressive in 41-10 Victory

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Pro football fans in Cleveland and Los Angeles can be glad Otto Graham and Crazy Legs Hirsch aren't the retiring type.

The two old pros called it quits at the end of last season, then changed their minds and today their respective clubs are atop the National Football League's conference standings. True, the surprising Pittsburgh Steelers are keeping pace with Cleveland in the Eastern Conference with the season nearing the half-way point, but they were far less impressive yesterday in a 19-17 victory over the New York Giants than the Browns were in walloping Green Bay 41-10.

Graham, completing 7 of 12 passes for 187 yards, guided the Browns on touchdown marches of 74, 97 and 71 yards and scored once himself.

The Chicago Bears won their second straight game, after a miserable start, as Ed Brown ran for two touchdowns and passed for a third in a 34-23 victory over the San Francisco 49ers. Philadelphia, the September choice to battle Cleveland for the Eastern crown, was left with a 1-3-1 mark after being held to a 24-24 tie by the Chicago Cardinals.

Although the Green Bay-Cleveland game was close on the scoreboard for three quarters, the statistics tell a far different story. Cleveland rolled up 454 yards and the Browns' hard-hitting defensive platoon held the Packers in check except for one play, a 100-yard kickoff return by Al Carmichael for Green Bay's only touchdown. It was the longest in the NFL this season. After that, however, Green Bay never passed the Cleveland 42.

The Giants at one point had completed 14 passes in succession and they enjoyed a 17-13 lead until the Steelers slugged out an 81-yard march in 15 plays for the winning touchdown, scored by Lynn Chandnois on a 5-yard end sweep. The loss was the fourth in five starts for the Giants.

Some 58,201, the second biggest crowd in a day that saw 281,745 at the six NFL games, watched in dismay at San Francisco as the 49ers fell two games behind their arch rivals from Los Angeles in the Western Conference race.

The Bears pulled even with San Francisco at 2-3, while Los Angeles has a 4-1 mark and Baltimore and Green Bay are tied for second at 3-2. Detroit is 0-5.

The 49ers, who had dropped two in a row before the home folks, started with a 28-yard field goal by Gordy Soltau and a 37-yard touchdown pass from Y. A. Tittle to Billy Wilson in the first period, but they couldn't match the Bears in the second half. Brown hit Bill McColl for a 9-yard touchdown pass seconds before the first half ended to cut San Francisco's lead to 17-10. He rammed over touchdowns on runs of 5 and 32 yards in the second half and Bobby Watkins plunged 4 yards for the other Chicago tally.

Bert Rechichar booted 43 and 19-yard field goals for Baltimore, but he set up one Washington touchdown by deflecting a pass that was certain to be incomplete right into the arms of the Redskins' Johnny Carson on the Baltimore 1. Eddie LeBaron went over for the first of his two quarterback sneak touchdowns and the accurate toe of Janowicz did the rest as Washington won, 14-13.

The Cardinals got a tie with Philadelphia on another weirdie. With the ball on the Eagles' 13, Chicago halfback Ollie Matson ran back 24 yards trying to escape Philadelphia tacklers. In desperation, he shoved the ball to Dave Mann as though it was a hot potato. The startled Mann ran for the sidelines, then saw Don Stonesifer all alone on the 3 and whipped the ball to him for a touchdown.

Shamrocks' Hopes Fading After 12-7 Sunday Loss

St. Michael's football team saw its chances for 2nd place in the Suburban Catholic League fade Sunday afternoon at Wisner Stadium when St. James of Ferndale came from behind to administer a 12-7 setback.

Ferndale's underrated squad punched over a 3rd-period touchdown to wipe out the Mikes' 7-6 halftime lead and virtually eliminate them from entertaining any hopes of gaining the runner-up position.

Defeat gave the Shamrocks a 2-3 mark in the SCL and 3-3 overall. St. James, enjoying a surprisingly good season, boosted its league stock to 4-1 for a 2nd-place deadlock with St. Clement and a 4-2 record in all.

Visitors scored 1st near the end of the 1st quarter following the recovery of a Shamrock fumble. St. James took possession on the Mikes' 32 and went the distance in five plays, with Fromm, left halfback, running the final five yards for the tally. Kick for the extra point was wide.

Shamrocks reached pay-dirt midway in the 2nd period. Despite the handicap of 20 yards in penalties along the route, the Mikes' marched 64 yards in 13 plays for a touchdown, highlighted by halfback Dan Dropps' 32-yard end sweep. Quarterback Bob Mineweaser sneaked over from two feet out and Dropps added the point from placement to hand St. Michael a 7-6 advantage at intermission.

St. James scored its game-winning touchdown toward the close of the 3rd quarter. A 48-yard pass from qurterback Dick Bordnowski to Tunnelcleft, left end, and a 16-yard end run to the Mikes' four by Steinel, workhorse fullback, were the key plays in the attack.

Drive covered 70 yards in six plays, erasing the 7-6 deficit and spelling curtains for St. Mike. Bordnowski plunged across from the one-foot line for the touchdown. A bad pass from center ruined the conversion attempt, but it didn't matter.

Neither team threatened to score after that. Nearest thing to a threat came in the last quarter when the Shamrocks advanced to the St. James 38 before losing the ball on downs.

Rams Set Up Early Lead, but Clements Take It Away

St. Frederick's victory-starved gridders experienced 15 minutes of glory Sunday afternoon at Center Line, but when the action subsided the result was the same—failure No. 22 in their efforts to win a football game.

The 15 minutes of football heaven came during the halftime intermission when the Rams boasted a 7-6 lead over strong St. Clement and seemed destined to chalk up an astounding Suburban Catholic League upset.

But the sleeping giant came to life in the 2nd half and scored four touchdowns, three of them in the last quarter, to bury St. Federick, 31-7.

St. Clement opened the scoring with a sustained drive of 70 yards in the 1st quarter. Dick Daledine, outstanding candidate for all-league fullback honors, dashed the final 20 yards.

Rams struck back with one quick thrust to take their halftime advantage. Halfback Dick Doyon cut through tackle and rambled 60 yards for a 2nd-period TD. Doyon added the extra point.

Clements got a 3rd-quarter touchdown on a 55-yard romp by Daledine. Then Clements broke the game wide open in the last period.

Phil Van Hulle threw a 50-yard touchdown pass to Ed Ignash and Joe Vigneau converted. Jim Fortin rammed over from the five to complete an 85-yard drive in 10 plays for the 2nd score of the quarter and Van Hulle went across from the six to end a 30-yard push in only three plays.

St. Fred's only 2nd-half threat was in the 3rd period when John Bradley ran 47 yards on a pass from Tom Derocher before being tackled from behind on the Clements' 43. Two plays later the Rams lost the ball on a fumble.

The University of North Dakota conducted what was believed to be the first international hockey clinic for boys of ages 12 to 18.

MISSED! — It was a double miss that Donald Priebe (34) St. Michael's player ran into as the camera caught the action, Sunday, at Wisner Stadium. Don not only missed a pass (he had a lot of help missing it, from the outstretched arm of an unidentified St. James player) but an almost sure TD. Play was on the 10.

Amazing Aggies Surprise of '55 Season

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Texas A&M won't play in any bowl game this year, but no matter what happens between now and the end of the season, the amazing Aggies certainly will go down as the surprise of the 1955 college football season.

Most of the September hotshots have faded and the top teams are beginning to seek their own level as the campaign swings into the second half. But the sophomore-laden Aggies, winners of only one game last year, persist in astounding their opposition in the Southwest Conference — perhaps the roughest league in the country.

Bear Bryant's lads were penalized by the conference for recruiting too vigorously and one of their punishments was being barred from post-season competition this year. That didn't bother Bryant because even he thought his team was a year or two away.

No provision has been made by the conference for a substitute team to act as host in the Cotton Bowl New Year's Day, so if the Aggies win the title there will be some hasty executive sessions.

Most of the other conferences are going according to form with the possible exception of the Southeastern. Auburn, one of the few remaining major unbeatens, is riding atop the standings despite a tie with Kentucky, and Georgia Tech, the favorite, is no better than fourth.

Here's how the other major conferences stand:

PACIFIC COAST — UCLA, the choice, is riding high, the only unbeaten, untied team in league play.

BIG 10—Michigan, another favorite, is out front, but its 14-13 squeaker over Minnesota last Saturday gave a measure of encouragement to Ohio State, which all but eliminated Wisconsin 26-16. Michigan and Ohio State meet on Nov. 19, and that could decide the crown.

BIG 7—Oklahoma took care of Colorado, the only team figured to give it a run, 56-21. The Sooners now have won 24 in a row and the end isn't in sight.

ATLANTIC COAST CONFERENCE—Maryland seems certain to sail through undefeated and untied and play Oklahoma in the Orange Bowl.

IVY LEAGUE—Yale was rated No. 1 at the start but has been unable to shake Princeton. They're tied for the lead and meet Nov. 12.

SOUTHERN CONFERENCE — West Virginia, the eighth-ranking team in the country, is tied for the lead with little Davidson, each with 3-0. They don't meet.

The big game this week will pit unbeaten, untied Navy against once-defeated Notre Dame. The Middies played under wraps in crushing Penn 33-0 Saturday by way of confusing the Notre Dame scouts in Franklin Field who were busily taking notes. Middie ace George Welsh was kept out of the lineup.

The Irish rebounded from their defeat at the hands of Michigan State with a vengeance by clubbing Purdue 22-7.

For the first time since 1944, when they last won 33-13, the Middies probably will be slightly favored. Still, the Irish hold an emphatic 23-4 edge in the series that started in 1927. Notre Dame won last year 6-0.

Parade of TDs Gives Eaglets Fifth Straight

St. Mary's 11 Blasts RO Squad 39-6 in SCL Engagement

Orchard Lake St. Mary's football team piled up five touchdowns in the 1st half, then coasted to an easy 39-6 victory over Royal Oak St. Mary in a Suburban Catholic League game Saturday afternoon at Orchard Lake.

It was the 5th straight win for Rev. John Rakoczy's Eaglets, who continue unabated their drive for their 1st SCL championship.

Gerry Leszczynski was the big gun for the unbeaten Eaglets. The big fullback tallied four touchdowns and lugged the leather six times for 217 yards and a lusty 36.1 yard average per carry.

Orchard Lake scored three times in the 1st period. Paul Franckowiak passed to Ted Kopaski for a 33-yard touchdown to start the point-making and Leszczynski recorded No. 2 on a 32-yard gallop around left end. Pete Madelans kicked the extra point. Moments later Leszczynski scored again, this time on an end run totaling 22 yards.

Eaglets added two more in the 2nd period. Franckowiak talled the 1st TD on a plunge from the one-yard line and added the point from placement. Then Leszczynski got back into the act with a 45-yards to score. Frankowiak con-

After a scoreless 3rd quarter the Eaglets scored their final touchdown midway in the last stanza. Leszczynski took a pitch-out from Kopacki and raced 90 yards to score. Francowiak converted.

Royal Oak St. Mary's Irish finally reached pay-dirt in the fading minutes of the game. Fullback Johnny Pfeiffer bucked over from the one to climax a 35-yard drive in 11 plays. Tom Gardocki blocked the conversion attempt.

SEVEN-YARD GAIN — Minnesota's Pinky McNamara (24) circles right end for seven yards despite a valiant attempt by End Mike Rotunno of Michigan to bring him down. Lionel Sigman (70) Michigan tackle talls the play. McNamara's gain came in the first of Minnesota's two touchdown drives in the first period against the nation's top-ranked Wolverines Saturday, at Minneapolis. Michigan won 14-13.

Former SMU Star Critical After Texas Auto Crash

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—Frank Eidom, 23, former Southern Methodist University football star, was reported in critical condition with a skull fracture at Brooke Army Medical Center after an auto crash near Gonzales, Tex., yesterday.

Police at Gonzales said Eidom apparently fell asleep at the wheel and hit a tree alongside Highway 90 about 25 miles northeast of Gonzales. Eidom, now in the Army was alone.

He was found unconscious by a passing motorist and was taken to Gonzales' Holmes Memorial Hospital for emergency treatment. Later, a helicopter from a San Antonio Army hospital landed in the Gonzales city park, across the street from the hospital, and brought Eidom here for treatment.

At the Ft. Sam Houston medical center, Eidom was listed as in critical condition with a skull fracture. He was stationed at Ft. Sam Houston.

Eisom, of Port Arthur, was an all-state schoolboy star at Port Arthur High School. He was noted for his hard running and pass receiving. In 1954, his senior year that saw him play the greatest game of his career against Arkansas, Eidom was named to the All-Southwest Conference team.

Bowling Clinic

KEY TO TIMING — Experience teaches top bowlers the value of footwork and how important it is to set themselves meticulously for every delivery, both strike (first) and spare (second ball). They know that as their feet go, so go their scores. That's why they carefully pick a spot on the runway and "hold" that spot in taking their stance.

Covering exactly the same distance from stance to finishing slide at the foul line is the key to timing. It's what gives stars rhythm; that picture of ease and relaxation as they blend footwork perfectly with the swinging ball.

All alleys have a black cross-line approximately 15 feet from the foul line, as sketch shows. That's about the stride taken normally in 4-step footwork. Length of footwork must, of course, be worked out in practice by each individual to fit his or her stature, or to match it with the amount of push-away of the ball that's used. But be particular about setting yourself. It'll soon pay off.

Grains Absorb Heavy Selling

CHICAGO (AP) — Grains absorbed fairly heavy selling pressure on the Chicago Board of Trade today without much price loss.

Dealings were active in corn and soybeans but not in other cereals. Corn lost major factions at the start, recovering a good part of this later. Soybeans moved ahead more than a cent. In wheat the most strength was shown by 1956 crop futures.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was ⅝ to 1¼ higher, December $2.01⅝; corn ⅛ lower to ⅛ higher, December $1.24¾; oats unchanged to ⅜ higher, December 62¾; rye ¼ lower to ¼ higher, December $1.06⅝; soybeans 1½ to 2¼ higher, November $2.31¾, and lard 2 cents lower to 13 cents a hundred pounds higher, November $10.95.

GM's Workers Given More Pay

Quarter Report Reveals Rise in Number, Wages Over Former Years

DETROIT—General Motors had more employes and higher payrolls in the third quarter and first nine months of 1955 than for any comparable periods in the company's history, Harlow H. Curtice, president, and Alfred P. Sloan Jr., chairman of the board, announced today in a statement preliminary to their quarterly report.

An average of 621,958 men and women were working for General Motors throughout the world and payrolls totaled $2,321 million during the first nine months. In the same period last year average employment was 577,069 and payrolls totaled $1,930 million.

For the third quarter this year average employment was 615,966 and payrolls amounted to $758 million. These figures compare with 538,619 and $601 million in the third quarter of 1954.

A continuation of overtime operations in United States plants during the third quarter of 1955 to meet the sustained demand for General Motors products increased the average work week during the first nine months to 42.7 hours from 39.9 hours a year ago. Average weekly earnings rose to $102.21 in the first nine months this year from $89.85 in 1954.

Weekly earnings averaged $104.91 in GM's car, truck, body and assembly divisions during the first nine months of 1955.

The average number of wage earners employed by GM in the United States during the first nine months of 1955 rose to 405,562 from 368,205 a year ago. During the third quarter of 1955 the number of wage earners averaged 398,820, an increase from 332,297 last year.

Chevrolet Prices Up $49 to $82 for 1956

DETROIT (AP)—A price increase averaging 4.4 per cent on 1956 model Chevrolets was announced today by T. H. Keating, general manager of General Motors' Chevrolet Division.

The new cars go on dealer display Nov. 4.

The suggested factory list price increase, ranging from $49.25 to $84.25, was dictated by higher labor and materials costs, Keating said.

The new price does not include federal excise, state or local taxes or handling and delivery charges. Directional signals become standard equipment. They were sold at extra cost in 1955.

Newsprint Talks On; 2nd Firm Ups Price

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Justice Department's antitrust division today held the first of a series of planned conferences with U.S. newsprint producers in an announced effort to prevent any concerted advance in newsprint prices.

The department said in response to an inquiry that the talks with American producers began this morning, but declined to say who participated in them.

The opening of the talks coincided with the announcement that a second major Canadian producer, Abitibi Power & Paper Co., will advance its newsprint price by $5 a ton on Nov. 1.

St. Lawrence Corp. of Montreal, announced the first hike of that amount last week.

Deputy Atty. Gen. William P. Rogers, speaking in the absence of Atty. Gen. Brownell, said Friday night that the department had arranged to confer with U.S. producers as one means of keeping abreast of a possible new round of price hikes, based on the Canadian advance. Rogers said that many U.S. newspapers "will be hard-pressed to continue in business if newsprint costs are increased."

WASHDAY
yet the living is easy!
...she has an ELECTRIC dryer

Be wise! Live Electrically!

An electric dryer takes the blues out of "blue Monday." Wet wash goes in . . . fluffy dry laundry comes out. There are no heavy wet clothes to haul up the stairs, hang on the line.

You'll discover, too, that an electric dryer seems to add more hours to your day. At last you can get started on those never-have-time-for tasks, or devote more time to your family, community and friends.

Plan to make your next washday truly an "easy livin'" day with an electric clothes dryer.

HE'S FOR IKE — This four-week-old Weimaraner puppy is being raised for President Eisenhower. A male, it was requested by the President to breed with a Weimaraner female he already has on his Gettysburg, Pa., farm. It's being raised by Dr. Richard T. Street, a Long Beach, Calif., dentist who is an authority on the exclusive European breed of dogs. Dr. Street's son, four-year-old Johnny, is shown holding the puppy.

New Judge Bill Seen as Failure

Dem Predicting GOP Move to Reduce Court Jams to Stall in '56

WASHINGTON (INS) — A ranking Democratic legislator predicted today that an administration bill to create a score of new federal judgeships will not get far in the 1956 election-year Congress.

This source indicated the Democrats, in control of Congress and fighting to regain the presidency, would not give a GOP president such key appointments in the last year of his term.

Creation of about 20 more federal judgeships is the first objective in a six-point administration program to ease the jam in the federal courts. Attorney General Herbert Brownell, Jr., laid the program before President Eisenhower in Denver last week, and it won the President's approval.

Filling additional judicial posts was one of the major inner-party headaches of the Eisenhower administration. Congress provided extra judges to help carry the work-load in the federal courts, but in some instances there were long squabbles between senators and Brownell over selection of the judges. Pennsylvania had the sharpest hassle.

Brownell's program included, in additio to more judgeships, these other proposals:

1. Dispatching legal "task forces" from Washington to help whittle down backlogs of federal court work.

2. Construction of a new $9,000,000 "maximum security" prison like Alcatraz somewhere in the Middle West.

3. Establishment of a $7,500,000 correctional institution in the western states to aid in rehabilitation of young offenders.

4. Enactment of a "public defender" law whereby legal counsel could be provided with certainty for defendants in poor financial circumstances.

5. Hodling a national parole conference next April to improve procedures in parole rehabilitation.

ROK Reminds U.N. of Korea Promises

SEOUL (AP) — South Korea commemorated the 10th United Nations Day today with a renewed bid for unification of the divided peninsula at the earliest possible date.

"We demand unification of Korea and re-emphasize that it should not be delayed any longer from the standpoint of our survival," the U. N. Assn. of Korea declared in a resolution to the U. N. General Assembly.

President Syngman Rhee paid tribute to the Allied dead of the Korean War in a message:

"Real peace will come to the world if the men buried here are not forgotten."

Gen. I. D. White, commander of the U. S. 8th Army in Korea, told the anniversary crowd of more than 2,000 in Seoul:

"The victory is not secure so long as there remain those who would enslave their fellowmen."

New Rector at Mariners'

DETROIT (AP) — The Rev. Elmer B. Usher will become rector of Mariners' Church, a Detroit landmark, next Jan. 1. He has been assistant rector at St. John's Episcopal Church since last January. Rev. Usher, 36, is a graduate of Michigan State University and formerly was rector of St. Paul's Church at Corunna.

Cadillac Prices Up $200-$300 on 1956 Models

DETROIT (INS) — Price tags $200-$300 higher were hung on 1956 model Cadillacs which went on public display today.

However, power brakes, which were optional equipment at extra cost in 1955, are now standard equipment on all 1956s.

List prices for the 1956 models were boosted $200 on the 62 series and 60 special sedan to $300 on the 75 series.

Cadillac General Sales Manager J. M. Roche said the list prices run from $3,814 for a series 62 coupe to $6,240 for the series 75 Imperial Sedan.

A new Cadillac Brougham, to compete with Ford's Continental Mark II, will be priced "around $8,500," Roche said.

Michigan produces nearly half of all the timber marketed in the Great Lakes states.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF NOAH W. Stapleton, who passed away 3 years ago today, Oct. 23rd, 1952.
This day we do remember,
Loving thoughts we give to one no longer with us.
But in our hearts still live
Sadly missed by his wife Edith and family.

IN MEMORY OF OUR BELOVED son Jack Cline who died 2 years ago today.
There is a home not made by hands,
Beyond its golden door
Awaits the son who's now away,
Not lost, just gone before
And in that home not made by hands,
The master will prepare
A place for us and when he calls,
We'll meet our loved son there.
Forever in our hearts.
Mom and Pop.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF HERbert Bell, husband and father who left us 10 years ago October 24. A silent thought, a secret tear, Keeps his memory ever dear.
Time takes away the edge of grief but,
Memories turn back every leaf.
Sadly missed by wife and children, Mrs. Herbert Bell, Azel and Harold.

George Battles 2nd-Year Jinx

Comedian Expected to Make Grade Despite Poor Beginning

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Will Lonesome George Gobel break the "sophomore jinx" and keep his popularity during his second year in the big time? Or will he fade, like Red Buttons and other unfortunates? Tune in next Saturday and try to find out.

My guess is that George will make it. This is based on his own great and diverse talents, not on his showing thus far this season. The shows have been far from the high standard he set in his freshman year.

Aside from the lack of bright sketches, there's another disturbing factor about the new Gobel show. It's Mom.

Now I have nothing against motherhood, in its place. Some of my best friends are mothers. But the device of having Mrs. Gobel interrupt the program is irritating and unfunny. I am more alarmed about what it does to the character of George Gobel. It makes him a pantywaist.

I have a theory that TV comedians: They must be manly.

Some comedy historians will dispute this. They point out that the father of modern comedy was Charlie Chaplin, the little fellow who always got kicked around. So were other greats of the silent screen—Harold Lloyd, Buster Keaton, Harry Langdon, etc.

But even though they were wistful, they could also fling a brick now and then.

TV comedians are different from the movie kind. They are seen every week, not occasionally at a movie. To remain popular, TV comics must be really liked and admired by the viewers, who see the funnymen as often as they do most of their friends.

Americans like their male friends to be forceful and effective, not fellows who are afraid to speak up.

I feel that this dwelling on the "little fellow" concept is what has eclipsed the TV careers of Red Buttons, Alan Young, Wally Cox and Dennis Day. Even Jack Carson, though big in size, allowed himself to play the patsy.

All of these are good performers. Perhaps they would still have regular shows if they had been allowed to kick the boss or talk back to their wives and girl friends now and then.

So watch it, George. Don't let Mom push you around. (The real Mrs. Gobel is a fine woman who would never think of interfering with her son's show.)

The Gobel charm was based on his sly gibes at convention and his ability to close the curtains and walk blithely away from rough situations. Let's keep him that way.

Manila Reports No-Fight Offer

Red China Plan Comes on Hints of 'Liberation' for Nationalist Formosa

MANILA (AP) — Manila Chronicle correspondents in Peiping reported today that Red China's Premier Chou En-lai, describing the "liberation" of Formosa as "inevitable," is dangling a nonaggression pact before the Philippines.

The Chronicle said Chou told the two correspondents in an interview that a "liberated" Formosa will not be used as a springboard for aggression against the Philippines. Only 230 miles of water separates the Nationalist-held island from Luzon, the northernmost Philippine island.

No official reaction was reported here.

(In Washington, no comment was forthcoming last night from the State Department on Chou's reported proposal.)

The correspondents quoted Chou as saying, "Aggression will never happen (between the Philippines and China) because we've both suffered from foreign aggression and know from experience that aggressors always fail."

Desperate Mine Fire Crews Call for Veteran Mule

WALTONVILLE, Ill. (AP) — Officials at Orient mine No. 3 have brought in Pee Wee, a veteran pit mule, to help fight a two-week-old fire in the big southern Illinois coal mine.

All electric power underground has been cut off since the fire started at the mine owned by the Freeman Corp. of West Frankfort, Ill.

Pee Wee, pressed into service Saturday, is helping the handful of men, working without gas masks, to move material and supplies for state mine rescue crews advancing into the area in which the fire is confined.

Pit mules gave way to electric motors at most big mines over 30 years ago.

The 13-year-old Pee Wee was recruited from a little mine.

"She's a pretty smart old coal miner," one miner said. "You can't fool her and she knows what to do."

Starting in 1917 congress required literacy tests to restrict immigration.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Sam Allison, pastor of the Beverly Hills Presbyterian Church. Mrs. David Rose was matron of honor. Elmo Glorio of Detroit was best man.

This is the second marriage for the 29-year-old actress. She was married to William P. Moss Jr., Texas cattleman, in 1946. They were divorced in 1954. They have three children.

Errair, also 29, has not been married previously. He is a member of the singing group called the "Four Freshmen."
