4,069 Pints in 24 Days

Blood Bank Sets Record on Visit to Pontiac Motor

The American Red Cross mobile blood collecting unit closed shop at Pontiac Motor Division this week after receiving 4,069 pints of blood from plant employes in 24 days.

It was the largest average yield per mobile blood collecting unit that has ever been recorded in the Detroit area Red Cross office.

More than 7,700 Pontiac Motor employes volunteered to give blood. All but 4,069 however were screened out during preliminary examinations.

A GM employes' blood bank has been set up in Pontiac covering the three GM plants in the city. Employes and members of their families can be supplied blood from the bank at no cost.

G. M. Watson, personnel director at Pontiac Motor, said, "The treatment the Red Cross workers gave our employes during this drive was excellent. The nurses, Grey Ladies and other volunteer workers displayed utmost kindness, considera-

Spellman Backs 'McCarthyism'

Cardinal Tells Critics Probes Hurt Only Those Contaminated by Reds

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP) — Francis Cardinal Spellman of New York today rebuked European critics of "McCarthyism," saying Americans would not be dissuaded from their determination to root out Communist subversion.

The New York archbishop, in a speech prepared for a Roman Catholic group sponsoring lectures by eminent personalities, defended the procedure of congressional committees investigating Communism:

"No American uncontaminated by Communism has lost his good name because of congressional hearings on un-American activities.

"It is impossible for me to understand why any American should refuse to declare himself free of Communist affiliation, unless he has something to hide. . ."

Cardinal Spellman dealt also with European criticism of the treatment of the Negro in the United States, and the handling of the Rosenberg case.

Chrysler Ready to Buy Briggs for $35 Million

Firm Will Be Detroit's Largest Employer After Purchase of Plants

From AP & UP Dispatches

DETROIT — Chrysler Corp., one of the automotive industry's "big three," will become even bigger with the $35,000,000 purchase of Briggs Manufacturing Company's principal plants, machinery and equipment.

President L. L. Colbert of Chrysler said officials of both firms already have agreed on the purchase, but that approval yet must be obtained from Briggs stockholders.

Briggs' 12 major plants in the Detroit area normally employ from 35,000 to 40,000 and its acquisition by Chrysler will make Chrysler the largest employer in the Detroit area with 130,000 to 140,000. Ford, now the largest, has 100,000 to 110,000.

Chrysler is not acquiring the Briggs Beautyware Division, which makes plumbing and kitchen fixtures.

Colbert said, however, Chrysler plans to acquire all principal plants of Briggs, plus machinery and equipment.

Briggs Manufacturing Co., was founded by the late Walter O. Briggs Sr., who died Jan. 17, 1952. He also was owner of the Detroit Tigers of the American League. W. O. (Spike) Briggs Jr., now is president of the Tigers. He resigned as a Briggs vice-president last May.

The Briggs family is believed to be the major stockholder in the manufacturing company, which has 1,979,000 shares of stock outstanding and which showed a 1952 profit of $5,709,529 on sales totaling $306,233,408.

The 1952 Briggs financial report listed current assets as $82,994,206.

Briggs makes all Plymouth bodies for Chrysler and also produces Packard's bodies, as well as both automobiles and airplane parts and assemblies.

A Packard spokesman said Chrysler's purchase of Briggs would have no immediate effect upon Packard.

When rumors of the purchase developed some time ago, he said that Packard president James J. Nance contacted both Briggs and Chrysler and was assured Packard would be supplied bodies until it could work out a new agreement with Chrysler or make other arrangements.

Packard, usually reliable sources reported, has been planning for months on building its own body plant at Utica, Mich.,

Pontiac Girl Named Homecoming Queen

BIG RAPIDS (AP) — Eighteen-year-old Jean Stark, of 930 Sarena Dr., Pontiac, a freshman in the commerce department, has been chosen queen of Ferris Institute's 25th anniversary homecoming celebration this weekend.

Miss Stark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sideny C. Stark, was elected by the student body.

Over Half Million Spent on Public Works in 1953

About $549,000 in street, sidewalk and sewer improvements have been completed in Pontiac so far this year, according to City Engineer Lewis M. Wrenn.

An additional $313,000 in street and sewer construction should be completed by the start of 1954, he said.

Some 112,000 square yards, on 34 gravel streets, were blacktopped at a cost of $140,000.

Another 50,000 square yards of old pavement on six streets were resurfaced with an asphalt and concrete mixture for $57,000, he added.

The city completed 100,000 feet of curb and gutter construction on 40 streets at a price of $300,000. It built 6,000 feet of sidewalk for $12,000 and finished a $40,000 sanitary sewer construction project.

Work on 4,100 square yards of concrete pavement, 12,000 square yards of recapping and 6,500 feet of curb and gutter construction is progressing on West Montcalm street, between Oakland and Baldwin avenues, according to Wrenn.

The project will cost about $93,000, he estimated.

On Baldwin avenue, from Walton boulevard north to the city limit, 8,100 square yards of pavement and 800 feet of curb and gutter are under construction at a projected cost of about $70,000, said Wrenn.

A $150,000 combined sewer building project should be completed this year, Wrenn added.

United Fund Gets $115,000 in First Four Days of Drive

Pontiac Area United Fund campaign leaders report $115,000 in contributions in the first four days of its annual drive to raise $487,200. The campaign opened Tuesday morning.

The first total includes about $25,000 in gifts reported before the drive started Tuesday and a $90,000 gift from General Motors Corp. on behalf of its three Pontiac plants—Pontiac Motor, Fisher Body and GMC Truck and Coach divisions.

Dwight S. Adams, United Fund executive director, said not many solicitors have reported in at campaign headquarters in Hotel Pontiac.

"We urge all canvassers to report at headquarters between 8:30 a.m. and 6 p.m. on weekdays or 9 and 5 on Saturday just as soon as possible," Adams said. "The campaign report luncheon is coming up next Wednesday. That's just a few days away."

Adams also announced some of the larger gifts already reported.

Going over $1,000 were Community National Bank, with a $4,600 donation; Pontiac Press, $1,800; S. S. Kresge Co., $1,600; Sears, Roebuck and Co., $2,000; and Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Beaudette, $1,200.

Donating $500 or more were Lewis Furniture Co., $500; Pontiac State Bank, $700; Harold A. Fitzgerald, $550; Home and Auto Loan Co., $500; WCAR, $575; Mrs. O. J.

Woman Injured in Home Blast

Water Heater Bursts This Morning, Smashing Walls, Spraying Glass

An exploding water heater in a one-story Pontiac home today showered the home with broken glass, knocked down part of a utility room wall and threw a piece of furnace metal through several walls, causing minor injuries to an occupant.

Mrs. Helen Clardy, 50, of 725 Auburn Ave., was cut on the head by flying glass, as she and her daughter, Mrs. Roy Smith, 23, of 939½ Boston St., were washing dishes. The blast occurred at the Clardy home.

Mrs. Smith and her two-year-old son, Danny, who also was in the kitchen, were un-injured.

A chunk of flying furnace "about as big as a telephone book" went through the utility and bedroom walls, and lodged in a living room wall, according to Mrs. Smith. The women were 15 to 20 feet from the flying metal.

The force of the explosion bulged out one cinder block wall of the utility room and ignited some clothing.

Pontiac Fire and Police Departments were called. Assistant Fire Chief Max W. Wells estimated damage at $8,000.

Fitzsimmons Added to List in Union Quiz

Detroit Trucking Official Tells of Giving Check to Local Vice President

DETROIT (AP) — The name of Frank E. Fitzsimmons was added late yesterday to the list of six defendents in the extortion-conspiracy examination of AFL Teamsters Union local leaders.

Fitzsimmons, vice president of Detroit Teamsters Local 299, was named by Ralph A. Posnik, an official of two Detroit trucking firms, just before the examination moved into its first weekend recess.

Posnik said he gave Fitzsimmons a check for $503.10 on March 11, 1952, "to alleviate matters with respect to our negotiations." That, he said, followed long company-union talks on a new contract.

Posnik also admitted giving Mike Nicoletti, president of Detroit Local 246, a check for $506.15 at the same time.

The checks were made out in uneven amounts, he said, to "cover up on the books."

Ten other checks totaling about $2,200 were given to Nicoletti in 1949-50-51, Posnik said.

Assistant Prosecutor Joseph Rashid sought to prove that these were payoffs but Posnik claimed that some of the money was for merchandise purchased from Nicoletti.

An invoice on $760 worth of silverware, toasters and other items was introduced as evidence. Posnik conceded under questioning, however, that "it's possible" the invoice was fake.

Earlier in the day two Oakland County employers told of being asked for $3,000 contributions by Louis Linteau, business agent for a Pontiac local.

Albert Pirtle, Pontiac trucker, said Linteau demanded the money in March, 1947, to "stop my labor troubles." He refused, he said, but

Police, Jaycees Volunteer Help at Grid Contest

Reserve city policemen and volunteers from the Junior Chamber of Commerce were stationed at Wisner Stadium for the Pontiac High School game last night to help direct traffic and keep football enthusiasm within bounds.

Six police in uniform and five plainclothes men were on duty, in addition to Jaycee members. Except for two police officers in charge, all men volunteered their time as a public service. In charge of the special detail were Sgt. Clayton A. Randolph and Sgt. William Nesbitt, of the police department.

The group again will be on duty tonight for the games between midget school teams.

Sgt. Randolph said that this is the first time that police reserves have been used in Pontiac. Thirty reserves were sworn in Oct. 6.

Saginaw won from Pontiac, 13 to 13. (See game report, page 14.)

Indians Given Time to Talk

Receive 48 Hours More to Persuade Reluctant PWs to Hear Reds

PANMUNJOM (AP) — The Indian Command today gained another 48 hours for its attempt to talk anti-Communist Korean war prisoners into listening to Red efforts to persuade them to return home.

The Neutral Nations Repatriation Commission is scheduled to make an announcement Monday that a reliable source said would postpone indefinitely the stalled explanations.

Only agreement by the Korean POWs to hear the Red explainers would break the deadlock and it appeared unlikely that the Indians could coax the Koreans to agree before the commission announcement is made.

The announcement was to have come Saturday, but was put off until Monday, giving the Indian Command two more days to talk with the stubborn leaders of the anti-Red Korean POWs.

The explanations were halted last Monday when the Koreans refused to leave their compounds to be interviewed by Communist agents.

Polish and Czech members of the commission demanded that Indian custodial troops use as much force as necessary to h[illegible] the POWs to the explanation tents.

The Swiss, Swedish and Indian delegates voted against using force.

That's the problem facing Indian Lt. Gen. K. S. Thimayya, chairman of the commission—to get the POWs to listen and thus heal the breach that threatens the Korean truce.

The governor has until 5:30 p.m. Sunday to pay off the ticket (circled above).

25-Bus Caravan on Protest Trip; Drought Critical

Ike, Benson, Advisers in Long Gabfest Over Parity Problem

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) — Livestock growers from Western states headed for Washington today in a caravan.

A spokesman said they would demand immediate drought aid and a federal government pledge to do something to boost prices for cattle and sheep.

A busload containing 41 cattle and sheep raisers from Utah and Idaho stopped at Springfield overnight. They said they were part of a caravan of about 25 busloads of Western farmers which would arrive in Washington by Sunday.

They said they would ignore Secretary of Agriculture Benson's appeal to halt their trip to Washington.

Heber Bennion Jr. of Salt Lake City, a spokesman for the group which arrived in Springfield late Friday night, outlined aims of the Western farmers.

He said Idaho and Utah had been hit hard by drought, and that shortage of feed threatens thousands of farmers in the region.

He said the group would urge Benson to declare sections of these states as a critical area, thereby making them eligible for immediate federal aid.

Bennion said also that Western livestock growers take the position that "so long as high support prices are paid on grain and other agricultural products, we should be given support prices on the livestock to which we feed the grain."

In Washington Sen. Mansfield (D-Mont) challenged President Eisenhower's assertion that he never promised during the 1952 presidential campaign to support 100 per cent parity price supports for major crops.

"At Kasson, Minn. last year, the President promised at least 90 per cent parity and as soon as possible full parity," Mansfield declared.

"If he now denies the import of that promise, he knows as little about the farm problem now as he did then."

Sen. George (D-Ga) said in a separate interview he believes farmers generally are "greatly disturbed" by price declines and "feel now that the Republicans have been in power too long."

These and other Democratic blasts came as Eisenhower summoned his 16-member agricul-

Cool Air Ends Balmy Weather

Light Rain in City Brings Measurable Relief From Extended Dry Period

Cool air sweeping down from Canada ended Pontiac area's shirt-sleeve weather yesterday and brought the first measurable rain since Oct. 6.

Cloudy skies are expected to blanket the area tonight, but generally fair weather is forecast for Sunday.

The mercury will drop to about 42 degrees tonight and rise to from 54 to 56 degrees Sunday, predicts the U. S. Weather Bureau. A low of 48 and a high of 70 degrees were recorded here yesterday.

About .06 of an inch of rain fell on Pontiac late last night and this morning.

The temperature rose from 51 at 8 a. m. today to 52 degrees at 2 p. m. in downtown Pontiac.

Birmingham to Re-route East Maple Road Traffic for Resurfacing Project

From Our Birmingham Bureau

BIRMINGHAM — Re-routing of East Maple road traffic probably will begin Tuesday when the paving crews working on Adams road reach the intersection, City Engineer L. R. Gare has announced.

"They have to build two manholes and a sewer right in the middle of the intersection, and it would be too dangerous to permit even one-way traffic,' Gare stated.

Westbound Maple traffic will detour north on Cambridge, to Dorchester, west on Dorchester to Poppleton, and south back to Maple. Eastbound will flow north on Worth to Yorkshire, east to Rugby, and back south to Maple.

Trucks will follow a different route, both eastbound and westbound, leaving Maple at Eton and Hunter, and detouring south via 14 Mile road.

Gare estimated the busy intersection will be torn up about three days.

Leading Christian laymen of the cooperating churches will assist in other portions of the service. Music will be provided by the host church, under the direction of Rodney Petersen.

Naming New Head Delayed by Probe

BIRMINGHAM — A routine Postal Department investigation is holding up the announcement of the successor to Birmingham Postmaster Bernard E. Fowler, dismissed Oct. 2.

Congressman George Dondero (R-Mich) said he wired his recommendation to Washington Tuesday, but can't divulge it until after the investigation. He stated his choice was well known locally, and a resident for the past 25 years.

Meanwhile Postmaster Fowler is investigating his rights to appeal the dismissal. He said his attorneys were "taking it up in Washington, under the Veteran's Preference Act."

Postmaster since 1948, 56 year old Democrat Fowler received official notification of his dismissal "for unsatisfactory conditions disclosed in a recent investigation of (his) office" a week after Dondero revealed the impending dismissal.

The blood drive at Pontiac Motor was kicked off by a meeting of supervisory personnel at which Mrs. Mildred Bennett, director of the local Red Cross office, was the principal speaker.

The Red Cross mobile units moved from plant to plant for the convenience of employes during the drive at Pontiac Motor. Dozens of volunteer workers, many of them wives of Pontiac employes, assisted in interviewing the lines of prospective donors.

The GM employes blood bank was made available on Oct. 1st in Pontiac and has been supplying blood for emergencies since that time.

When more blood is needed to maintain the Pontiac GM employes blood bank, the mobile blood unit will be moved to either GMC Truck & Coach Division or Fisher Body Division.

Patrolman Hurt in 2-Car Crash

Rochester Officer Gets Hit Pursuing Speeder, Has Concussion

A Rochester patrolman, pursuing a speeding auto early today, was seriously injured when his scout car was struck by an auto on Rochester road about two and one-half miles north of Rochester, according to Oakland County sheriff's deputies.

Police Officer William Woehl, 42, of 511 Harrison Rd., is in fair condition today at Pontiac General Hospital with a concussion, bruises and a fractured leg, the hospital reported.

Charles G. Long, 19, of 306 Drace St., Rochester, driver of the car which struck Woehl's auto as Woehl was slowing for a left turn, according to Deputy Ray Cushman, was treated for face cuts and a concussion at Pontiac General Hospital.

Rochester Police Chief Samuel Howlett said Woehl had just radioed for help from a second car, and was attempting a left turn to follow the speeder, when the collision occurred. The traffic violator escaped, Howlett said.

Friends Buying Pony for Boy Who Must Die

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Tommy will get his pony, but unless the prayers of countless Knoxvillians are answered, he won't live to ride it.

The blond, 5-year-old lad is in a Knoxville hospital suffering from leukemia, dread blood disease with no known cure. Tommy already has conquered two attacks of pneumonia. He wants a pony "more than anything in the world."

And he'll get it. AFL workers at the Fulton sylphon plant of the Robertshaw - Fulton Controls Co. here are raising money for the animal in a plant-wide appeal.

* * *

Ministers of all faiths have asked "every Christian to remember Tommy either by silent or public prayer at Sunday morning services."

Doctors have told Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Bolton of Habersham, Tenn. their son cannot live. But they refuse to abandon hope.

"We believe that as long as Tommy's alive there's hope," the father said today. "And we would like to ask people everywhere to join us in our prayers for his recovery."

At the Fulton sylphon plant, this notice was posted on bulletin boards:

* * *

". . . This boy is asking for a pony. We know that this is the height of every boy's desire and knowing that he owns one might give him strength to pull through. The money is already coming in. And the parents ask for your prayers."

* * *

The Boltons, who have four other children, maintain a constant watch at the boy's bedside.

"We just don't know how to thank these kind people for what they have done and are doing," Bolton said. "They're wonderful."

Escapee Pedals Bike 250 Miles for Drink at Bar

TOKYO (AP)—An escaped convict who bicycled 250 miles to Tokyo to have a cup of sake in his favorite bar is back in jail today—his thirst unslaked.

The convict slipped away from a work party at a prison 250 miles south of here, stole a bicycle and pedaled all the way to Tokyo. He explained he had a "burning thirst" for a cup of sake—Japanese rice wine—in his favorite bar.

The trip took two days and nights, but just when the convict was entering Tokyo, panting and perspiring, a policeman picked him up and sent him straight back to jail with an armed escort aboard a train.

didn't have any labor trouble anyway.

James McCavey, Royal Oak construction man, said Linteau asked him to make a $3,000 contribution to the union in May, 1947. He quoted Linteau as saying he could "chisel on the drivers" to make up for the contribution.

McCavey said he offered a $500 check which was refused. But Linteau did accept a total of $450 from him on two other occasions, he said.

Fitzsimmons' local is also the home local of James R. Hoffa, Detroit area teamster chief. Hoffa was indicted by a previous "labor rackets" grand jury in 1946, but the case never came to trial.

Police to Sponsor Dance

BENTON HARBOR (AP)—For the third straight year Benton Harbor police will sponsor a teen-age Halloween dance for local youngsters. They believe the dance is largely responsible for a two-year record of no teen-age vandalism on Halloween night.

CHARLES A. COHEN

DAVID KRONICK

Cohen Named City Sanitarian

New Appointee Comes From Federal Post in the Caroline Islands

Charles A. Cohen, 34, has been appointed city sanitarian by Dr. Charles A. Neafie, Pontiac public health consultant.

Cohen succeeds David Kronick, whose resignation became effective Friday. Kronick, 29, had assumed the post Aug. 10, upon the death of Vernon G. Wait, after acting as food and restaurant inspector since November, 1949.

He will become assistant chief in the milk and sanitation division of the Philadelphia Health Department starting Nov. 2. Kronick was given the post after placing on top in a nationwide exam.

Cohen was formerly employed here as Kronick's predecessor in the food and restaurant inspection job from 1947. He left in September, 1950, and obtained his Master's Degree in public health from the University of Michigan.

He then was employed until August of this year by the federal government as a district public health commissioner in the Caroline Islands. He will reside at 2626 W. Long Lake Rd.

Chrysler Will Buy Briggs Company

where it now has a partially utilized jet engine plant and large acreage.

The same sources said it was certain Packard would not continue long to get bodies from Chrysler, a competitor, since such an arrangement would force Packard to disclose model and styling changes in advance to Chrysler.

Colbert announced the Briggs purchase plan in this statment:

"After a series of negotiations over a period of the last several months the management of Chrysler Corporation and Briggs Manufacturing Company have agreed to the purchase by Chrysler of the equipment of Briggs for $35,000,000.

"Transfer of the properties will take place when the necessary aproval of all parties had been obtained, including that of the stockholders of Briggs Manufacturing Company, which it is estimated will take not more than 60 days.

"Until transfer is completed, the present Briggs management will continue to operate the properties.

"The transaction does not include the Briggs Beautyware Division nor the plants identified with that operation."

Driver Treated for Cuts After Hitting Utility Pole

Erwin F. Gates, 20, of 48 LeGrande Ave., was treated for head cuts at Pontiac General Hospital today after his car went out of control and hit a telephone pole at Pontiac Rd. and Perry St. Gates told Pontiac Police his auto slid on gravel after making a right turn onto Pontiac road.

Teachout Gets Probation on Burglary Charge

Gerald Teachout, 23, of 261 N. Perry St. was placed on three years probation and assessed $200 costs Friday by Oakland County Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty on a charge of breaking and entering in the nighttime.

Teachout pleaded guilty Oct. 2 to breaking into a drug store on Airport Rd. Aug. 31.

Godfrey 'Proud' of Lad He Fired

'Explains' Dismissal Is Abrupt Because of Lack of TV Time

WASHINGTON (AP) — IT sure does look as if all is sweetness and light again between Arthur Godfrey and Julius La Rosa, the Brooklyn boy he hoisted to stardom and then booted out of the Godfrey TV-radio empire in full view of a nationwide audience.

While crooner LaRosa listened, glued to a television set in Washington, Godfrey said last night on a coast-to-coast show that he's really very proud of the lad — "a charming rascal," he called him.

In his solemn aw-shucks fashion, Godfrey said he bounced the singing ex-sailor for La Rosa's own good—to give him a chance to make more money on his own.

Furthermore, he said, he wouldn't have announced La Rosa's departure to the public — and to La Rosa — so abruptly on a radio-TV show last Monday if the program had only run a little longer.

"I called him in Monday," Godfrey said, "and asked him to sing a song. I looked at the clock when he started. The song required a minute and 45 seconds normally.

"I had planned to say at the end, 'Thanks, Julius, that's wonderful. I'm glad you did such a good job. It's your last song for me . . . you've reached a point at which you can support a program bringing you 10 times as much as you are being paid.'"

Then, said Godfrey, fate stepped in:

"For some reason he sang the song at a slower tempo than usual and used nearly 2 minutes and 45 seconds, with the result that at the end I had only 11 seconds to say anything.

"I thought, 'It's going to look funny if I don't say something,' so I said, 'Thanks, Julie, that's your last one.' I didn't get to finish all I planned to say."

Not all of this gibed with Godfrey's earlier explanation that La Rosa had to go because he had lost his "humility."

But it seemed to satisfy La Rosa.

Promptly, the 23-year-old baritone donned his old blue sailor suit, went out and launched his Godfreyless career with a non-fee variety performance for the swank Navy relief benefit ball.

Clowning and adlibbing gaily, he also cut out of the show several mild cracks at Godfrey which had turned up in the dress rehearsal—attended by Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower — only a few hours before.

"Wonderful show!" she told him, clasping his hand. She said she was sure the President would be sorry he couldn't se it.

Gen. Mark W. Clark to Head The Citadel

CHARLESTON, S. C. (AP)—Gen. Mark W. Clark will be the new president of The Citadel, state military college.

Announcement of Clark's acceptance came yesterday from Gov. James F. Byrnes. The governor is an ex-officio member of The Citadel's Board of Visitors.

The 57-year-old, four-star general retires from the Army Oct. 31, and is expected to begin his new job next March.

Clark succeeds Gen. Charles P. Summerall, former U. S. Army chief of staff who retired last June after 22 years as head of the Citadel.

The general said that after retirement he will visit his daughter and complete a book on his war experiences before assuming The Citadel post; which pays $12,000 a year.

Drought May End Soon, Experts Say

WASHINGTON (AP)—Weather officials voice hopes that the drought—worst in history in some parts of the United States—may break up soon.

Some rain has already fallen in parts of the Southwest and Midwest and Jerome Namias, chief of long range weather forecasters, said yesterday: "The storm area has a good chance of coming East."

The forecasters, interviewed yesterday, hesitated to say whether this would be the end, or only an interruption, of the long drought that began developing in 1951.

In Missouri and parts of the Southwest, officials said, it was the worst drought ever. The fact that the worst rain shortages did not come during growing seasons, they said, kept it from being as destructive as some others.

Gets 10-Day Sentence

Leo B. Wolfington, 35, of 103 Mechanic St., was sentenced to 10 days in Oakland County Jail yesterday when he pleaded guilty to a charge of driving while his operator's license was revoked.

Appearing before Pontiac Judge Maurice E. Finnegan, Wolfington will be returned to trial Oct. 29 to face a drunk driving charge. He pleaded innocent when arraigned on the second charge.

ture advisory commission to the White House. Secretary Benson spent nearly four hours in White House conferences yesterday.

Benson, emerging from his talks with Eisenhower, told newsmen the administration will evolve a program including the principle of parity—a price calculated by law to be equally fair to farmers and consumers in relation to the prices farmers must pay.

The advisory committee, named in July, had been meeting behind closed doors in Washington for two days before being called to the White House to report on its progress.

The idea behind the conference is to put together a new farm program for presentation to Congress next January.

Benson said after luncheon with the President yesterday:

"We are not planning to wreck the present program. We are going to have some recommendations for improvements in the present program."

He added, however, that "we are not going to pull out anything entirely new."

Benson declined to discuss any details, on the ground that it was too early.

At his news conference last Thursday, Eisenhower defended Benson against criticism, saying the secretary was a dedicated man.

At the same time, the President said he never had promised price supports at 100 per cent of parity. He said the aim of any decent farm program is to get farmers on the basis where the prices they get for their crops, are comparable to the prices they pay for things they buy.

At Kasson on Sept. 6, 1952, Eisenhower said he stood behind the present 90 per cent parity supports, adding:

"All I know of farmers convinces me that they would rather earn their fair share than have it as a government handout. And a fair share is not merely 90 per cent of parity but full parity."

Sen. Mansfield said this had been widely interpreted and accepted by most farmers as a pledge eventually to attain 100 per cent parity supports.

"I favor full price supports and the sooner we get them the better off I believe the country will be," Mansfield declared.

Air Force Cuts to Affect GIs' Japan Leaves

TOKYO (AP)—The U. S. Air Force said today orders from Washington to cut flying time to save money forced temporary suspension of "rest and recuperation" flights to Japan for soldiers in Korea.

The Army announced Friday that "R & R" leaves would be halted temporarily because of a shortage of planes. An Army source said it would probably be announced next week that the leaves will be resumed but on a smaller scale. He predicted the number of soldiers given "R & R" each week would be cut in half.

* * *

The Army source said the "R & R" leaves had to be discontinued when the Air Force could no longer provide planes for the flights.

The Army officer said it was his personal opinion that the Air Force was hoping parents of soldiers denied leave would bring pressure on Congres to increase the Air Force budget.

A U. S. Air Force spokesman denied this emphatically, however.

* * *

Soldiers and airmen in Korea have been receiving seven - day "R & R" leaves. Since the armistice was signed the Air Force has been flying 2,000 men every day to Japan for leave.

An official Air Force statement quoted Maj. Gen. Kenneth P. McNaughton, vice commander of the Far East Air Force, as saying the Air Force here "has been ordered to reduce this extra airlift service to save funds in accordance with U. S. Air Force economy directives."

Demand for Homes as Strong as Ever

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Emanuel M. Spiegel of New York, president of the National Assn. of Home builders, says demands for home building are as strong as ever but that mortage credit is a hampering factor.

He told the Florida Home Builders Assn. yesterday there would continue to be a yearty demand for a million new home units "for the foreseeable future" and that residential construction this year alone will account for $11,700,000,000 of the nation's production.

Spiegel said the current tight mortgage credit was due to heavy defense spending brought on by the Korean War and efforts of the Eisenhower administration to reduce deficit spending and put the budget on a balanced basis.

Five Badly Injured as Train Is Derailed

FORT SCOTT, Kan. (UP) — Seven cars of the St. Louis-San Francisco Railroad's crack "Florida Special" were derailed near here early today, the Bourbon County sheriff's office reported.

Five persons, one crewman and four passengers, were injured seriously, but none was believed in critical condition. In addition, several others received treatment for minor injuries but were not hospitalized, hospital attendants said.

The southbound train, which had left Kansas City shortly before midnight, hit a broken rail, the sheriff's office said.

The seven derailed cars were located in about the middle of the train. The engine and rear cars remained on the tracks. One car completely overturned, officers said.

Thefts of Auto Parts Reported in Township

Two Waterford Township brothers filed sparate complaints with Oakland County Sheriff's Department today on thefts of parts from their autos.

Wilson Ballard of 247 Scott Lake Road, told deputies that a battery had been stolen from his new auto, and his brother, Felix, of 2559 Landsdowne St., Drayton Plains, reported that four hub caps had been removed from his car.

Detroiter Writes Michigan Saga

F. B. Woodford Tells of 1805 Trials, Triumphs of Justice Woodward

By GEMMA STRIFFLER

Mr. Jefferson's Disciple,
A Life of Justice Woodward

by Frank B. Woodford

Publishers:
Michigan State College Press
October 1953

Woodward Avenue, one of the most famous streets in Michigan!

How many of us know anything about the man who gave this beautiful thoroughfare its name — Justice Augustus Brevoort Woodward?

Frank B. Woodford, with his similar name, goes back to 1805 to make this strong figure come to life from our state's history.

It was in 1950 that Mr. Woodford (of Detroit) gave us the study of Lewis Cass, and now he enlarges that picture and fills in the details of our state's early story with this latest contribution, the Life of Justice Woodward.

Judge Woodward, tall, ungainly, with a big nose, long hair, a confirmed bachelor, a tireless worker, was a fearless disciple of Thomas Jefferson.

Sent to Detroit in 1805 by President Jefferson to be the first chief justice of the Supreme Court of the newly created Territory of Michigan, he laid out the plan for a model city.

It is a regrettable error that it was abandoned only ten years later, for, if followed, it would have made Detroit a dream city.

However we do have the University of Michigan as one result of his farsighted vision.

The village of Detroit had been founded 104 years earlier but had changed little up to 1805. In the whole territory there was a total white population of 4,000, most of them in and around Detroit.

In Judge Woodward's town plan, he himself named the main north and south street Woodward Avenue. Naturally he was accused of erecting a monument to himself. But with tongue in cheek he claimed, "Not so. I named it Woodward because it runs wood-ward, toward the woods."

And being a public figure, he was berated by many. To this day, most of the things generally remembered about the judge, are the unjust, untrue criticisms of his work.

The author of this biography brings us all the trials and triumphs of this able jurist in a small, most readable book.

Ohio Town Solves Firemen's Problem

DELTA, Ohio (UP)—This community of 2,000 had a metropolitan traffic problem every time the siren blew to summon the 32 volunteer firemen from factories and stores.

Swithchboard operators of the local telephone company took at least 10 minutes to notify the volunteers. Then the firemen had to battle their way through the many cars that pulled out to follow the fire truck.

Now, with a specially built alarm system in the telephone office, the operator pulls a master switch joining all the phones of the volunteers when she receives a fire report, alerting them all in less than 10 seconds. The town now gets reduced insurance rates.

Ft. William Henry Attracts Tourists

LAKE GEORGE, N. Y. (UP)—Ft. William Henry, whrere archaeologists are still uncovering skeletons from the French and Indian Wars, attracted some 21,000 visitors in one month when it was opened to the public for the first time this summer.

Restoration of the fort is still underway and is scheduled for completion next spring.

Of prime interest to visitors is a corner of the fort burial ground, which was unmarked and lost for 200 years. Archaeologists have recovered well-preserved skeletons in the grounds.

A chache of flints 2,000 years old was dug up from beneath the fort's foundation.

Michigan is the largest state east of the Mississippi.

Supt. Shunck Sees Need for Bond Issue

Talks to PTAs About Schools

Two Waterford Groups Learn of Space-Lack in Elementary Grades

By HAZEL A. TRUMBLE

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — "The State of Waterford Township Schools" is being discussed this month by Supt. William Schunck before the various district parent-teacher groups.

Appearing at Waterford Center and Donelson School PTAs Thursday night, Shunck explained "what should be done — not what must be done."

"Remember, these schools are your schools. They do not belong to the Board of Education and they do not belong to me. Your schools will be just as good as you want them to be," he declared.

"In order to maintain the quality of today's school system, a bond issue should be proposed for elementary building expansion and to increase millage to raise teachers' salaries," Shunck stated.

He declared it would be easier for him to tell the citizenry of all the fine things they had in their schools and to overlook the inadequacies.

"But facts have to be faced. Glowing accounts of parts of our educational program don't help the overcrowded classrooms we have," he said.

"At last four more children each day enroll in our already packed schools. This year's nearly 7,500 students will stretch beyond the 8,000 mark next year," he declared.

Current half-day sessions for seventh, eighth and ninth graders will be alleviated next year, he said if the new Waterford Township Junior High School can be completed.

Danger spot, in grade areas, he pointed out is in kindergarten, first and second grades.

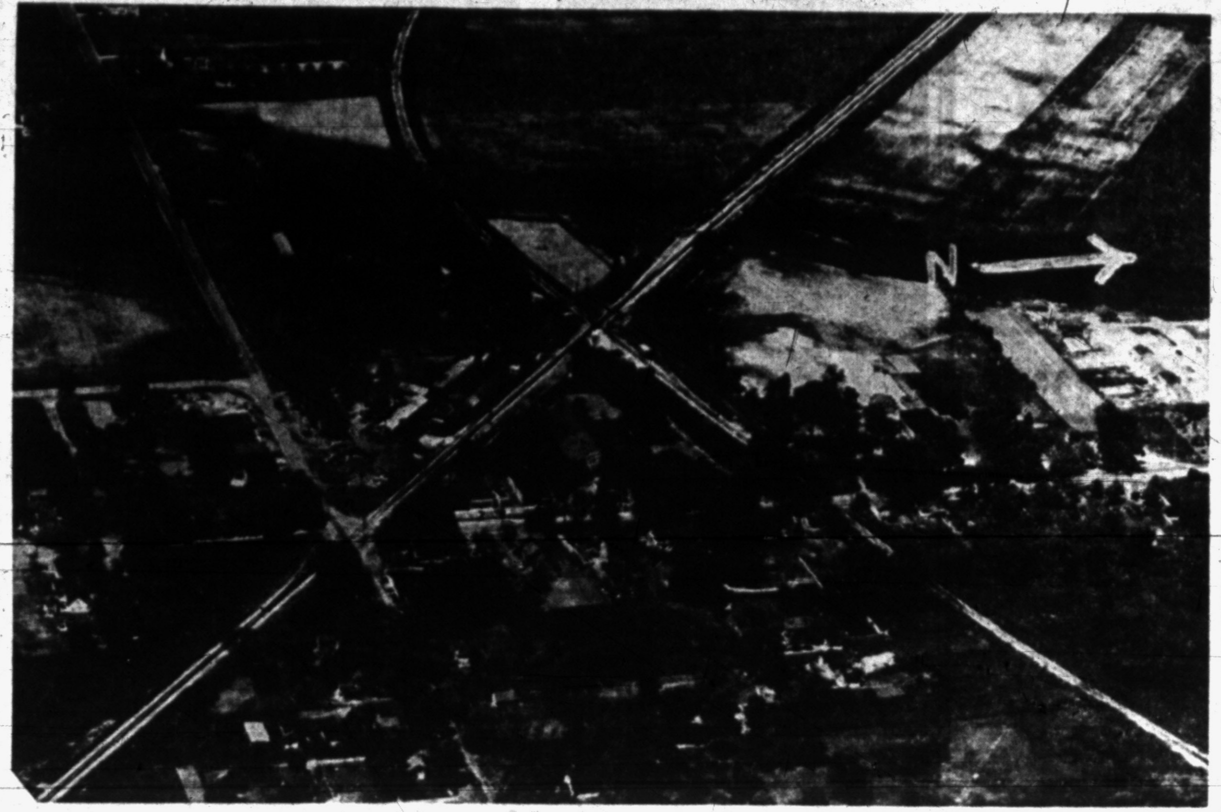
"Our greatest need is not in physical facilities," he said, explaining that the teacher shortage which hit the entire nation this year made it extremely difficult for Waterford to compete with higher paying school districts for the dwindling teacher supply.

Six positions in the elementary grades are still being filled by substitutes, he said.

"In one sense our district is poor. Only about 10 per cent of the tax load in this area is borne by business and industry. The remainder is carried by the residents," he explained.

Stating that it was his responsibility to give the community information on their schools, not to tell them what to do, Shunck said that an adequate education was a "life necessity."

He asked parents to let the board of education know how they felt about the situation, and suggested that an election would give the people an opportunity to speak.



Town of Wixom Named for Early Settler Family

The business section is near the left center, with the grain elevator just above the railroad tracks. The school is at the right center just under the arrow.

The Wixom community came into being when the Holly, Wayne & Monroe Railroad, now a part of the Chesapeake & Ohio System, was built through there in 1870. It is situated on both sides of the line between Commerce and Novi Townships, Pontiac Trail forming that line.

The community gets its name from the Wixom family, among the first settlers in that area.

A second impetus to its growth came in the completion over 60 years ago of the Michigan Air Line Railroad. This made it a railroad junction and transfer point for a great volume of shipping.

Situated in the heart of a good agricultural district, it long has been one of the largest grain shipping points in Oakland County.

Wixom has a good business section, substantial homes, and a serenity peculiar to communities away from the congested industrial areas. Its present residents find some employment in home industry, and others work in Pontiac, Milford, Novi, Northville and other factories.

It has good paved highway connections with the outside world. Wixom has never had any agitation to incorporate either as a village or city.

Vicar Presents Bishop's Talk

Religious Attitude on Possessions, Money Is Topic of Sermon

DRAYTON PLAINS — A sermon by the Right Rev. Richard S. Emrich, Episcopal Bishop of Michigan, called "Stewardship of Possessions," which has been attracting wide attention since first given at a synod meeting of Province of the Midwest of the Episcopal Church a year ago, will be presented by the Rev. W. R. Hunt, vicar, at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church Sunday at the 10:30 a.m. service.

This sermon which deals with the basic religious attitude toward possesions and money has been repeated by Bishop Emrich at several occasions. And in response to a growing demand he has now had it prepared to be given throughout the church.

This sermon will be given in connection with St. Andrew's member canvass which is scheduled to end November 8 when the Rev. C. G. Widdifield, rector of All Saints Episcopal Church, Pontiac, will be present to preach.

Mrs. I. R. Stevenson, chairman, and Kenneth Watson and Ralph Pascoe, subcommittee on recruiting canvassers, will make their visitations to St. Andrew's members that afternoon and evening.

KEEGO HARBOR — "Civil Defense: What it Is and Why?" will be the subject of Lewis Jarrendt, director in an address Monday at Roosevelt High School.

The program, scheduled for 8 p.m., will also feature a movie on the subject.

Sponsors, local Business and Professional Women's Club, have issued invitations to all interested residents to attend.

Keego Church Will Dedicate Chimes Sunday

KEEGO HARBOR — Dedication of the Schroder Memorial Chimes in an organ-chimes concert will take place Sunday at 8 p. m. in Trinity Methodist Church here.

Ole Foerch, will preside at the console of the new organ with chimes, has arranged a musical treat for the pleasure of all ages.

He is studio organist for a Detroit radio station and an instructor in organ and musical drama.

Among the numbers to be heard will be "The Hallelujah Chorus," "Pomp and Circumstance," "The Bells of St. Anne de Beaupre," "The Cuckoo," "The Flight of the Bumble Bee" and "Second Hungarian Rhapsody."

During an intermission, L. C. Schroder, a local man, will formally present the chimes to the church and community.

They will be heard each Sunday morning.

St. Martha's Group to Attend Meeting

DRAYTON PLAINS—Mrs. W. R. Hahn, president of St. Martha's Guild of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, and five other guild members are scheduled to attend the diocesan meeting of the women's auxiliary which is to be held at St. Paul's Cathedral, Woodward and Hancock, Detroit, Monday.

The meeting will begin with a Holy Communion service at 11 This will be Bishop's Day and the Rt. Rev. Richard S. Emrich will give his annual address to the women of the churches in the Michigan Diocese.

Past President Honored by Lions Club Members

ROCHESTER — Fred Maynard, past president and district governor, was honored by Lions Club members at their meeting Monday night in St. John's Lutheran Church.

A special program of music followed a dinner. Joe Sharra reported that 1,000 boxes of bulbs were sold by club members recently and orders were received for more.

Walled Lake Schools Now Give Fluoride Treatment

WALLED LAKE — Sodium fluoride treatments for healthy teeth are now regularly available to students of Walled Lake schools.

According to Clifford H. Smart, superintendent, "We consider the treatments a permanent part of our program."

Walled Lake and West Bloomfield Township schools jointly own the dental equipment needed for was purchased from surpluses in the sodium fluoride funds of both districts.

Treatments consist of four applications of sodium fluoride to the teeth following cleaning. They are given by Mrs. Frances Crosby, the hygienist, and are available to children in the kindergarten, second and fifth grades at a cost of $3.50 for the series.

Many students this year are receiving their second set of treatments. In all, some 150 students in Union Lake School are being treated this fall. Mrs. Roy Grinnell, health chairman of Union Lake PTA, and her committee are assisting with the program.

Commerce School students will be the next to receive the treatments, followed by other Walled Lake elementary schools in the spring.

The sodium fluoride program is sponsored by the schools in cooperation with the Oakland County and State Health Departments, the local dental society and the PTA.

Drayton Plans Clothing Drive

Halloween 'Tricksters' to Canvass Saturday for Korean Needy

DRAYTON PLAINS — Halloween "trick or treaters" here next Saturday may ask their victims for clothing for Korean boys and girls instead of the usual treat.

Under a plan sponsored by the Exchange Club all articles of apparel collected in trick-or-treat operations will be turned in by the youngsters at a Halloween party at Drayton Plains School.

The clothing collected, such as shoes, overshoes, sweaters, scarfs, jackets, will be sent to needy children in Korea.

The Halloween party will be staged by a Kids of Korea committee of the Exchange Club headed by Kenneth Watson.

Featuring cider and donuts and movies, the party will be held at 7 p.m.

Holly Area High School Debating Society Formed

HOLLY—A debating society has been organized in the Holly area high school.

Officers elected are: president, Janet Lynch; vice president, William Roberts; secretary, Helen Stoddard; treasurer, Americ Joslin.

Miss Harriett Myer is the group's sponsor, and about a dozen students are participating. They will debate with several other high schools in Oakland and surrounding counties.

Film-Sermon Is Tonight

WATERFORD—The public is invited to hear and see another in the series of sermons from films at 7:30. The theme is "The Prior Claim." The SOS club is working on the project.

Hal Boyle Says:

Unusual Loan Requests Recalled by Bank Official

NEW YORK (UP) — Some years ago a mild, professional looking man came into banker Garry Stolzberg's office and said he wished to borrow $5,000.

Asked the purpose of the loan, the visitor leaned forward and said with candid modesty:

"I want to start a revolution, and I can't do it for a penny less than $5,000."

Although the government he wanted to overturn was somewhere in middle Europe, he had to leave without the money.

But he appeared completely satisfied with Stolzberg's answer that a bank can't legally lend money even to finance a revolution in this country, let alone one abroad, where, of course, it would be harder to check up on the loan.

"That's the oddest request I've had in 33 years of banking," Stolzberg recalled. In that time Stolzberg, vice president of the Commercial State Bank and Trust Company, has checked on 300,000 loan applications involving $400,000,000.

Personal loans to the working man and the small businessman have become high finance in the last quarter century. American banks in 1952 made 100,000,000 such loans totaling $13,000,000,000. And this doesn't include the people still loyal to the pawn shops.

The mushrooming of the personal loan field has made the banker a student of human nature, and, as Stolzberg puts it amiably, "Bankers no longer bleed when they have to smile. In fact, we don't usually even dare frown until after the doors close.

"Sometimes I don't know whether I'm a banker or a football referee. Many customers come to me with family arguments and want me to settle them on the spot."

One such customer insisted that Stolzberg have a long chat alone with his fiancee in the bank office. Later the man anxiously inquired what he thought of her. Stolzberg said he thought she was very nice, and the fellow replied:

"Good. We've made arrangements to be married tomorrow, I just wanted to be sure you thought she was a good risk."

What factors influence a banker in considering personal loans?

"Character comes first," said Stolzberg. "When a man doesn't know exactly how much he needs, what he wants it for, or how he can pay it back — well, you have to be dubious.

"About 10 to 15 per cent of the applicants are turned down largely because they are over-extended. They owe too many people in too many places, and yet when they come in to borrow money they don't even have a list of their debts."

Men seeking personal loans outnumber women two to one. The reasons most often given for wanting the money are (1) To pay medical bills and (2) To set up housekeeping or buy household goods.

"The best piece of advice I can give a young married man," slaid Stolzberg, "is never to have financial secrets from his wife. If he will tell her the full truth about their situation, no matter how limited her mentality is she will know what she can afford and what she can't."

Within reason and the law Stolzberg said most bankers today are quite willing to help along romance.

"If a stenographer came to us and wanted to borrow $4,000 to buy a sports car to try to impress her boy friend, we would probably have to say no. But if she needed $400 to go to a vacation resort and land a fellow she had in mind, well — that is a constructive purpose."

He paused a moment, as if considering the loan, then said, eyes twinkling:

"If she wanted more than $400, we might ask her to bring in the boy friend so we could look him over. It is a banker's duty to his customers to see they don't get over-extended."

The origin of the teapot is the Chinese wine jug.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 24, 1953

U. N. 8 Years Old Today

Eight years ago today the United Nations came into being when Russia, last of the veto powers to take that action, deposited its ratification of the Charter.

On that day, October 24, 1945, fifty-one nations became members of the peace organization created to succeed the old League of Nations. Since then much has happened. Membership has grown to 60 and U. N. is well established in its magnificent home on the shore of New York's East River.

As might have been expected, U.N. couldn't have equalled the high hopes many held for it. Yet, there are good reasons for observance of this week and day as the anniversary of a notable milestone in human history.

★ ★ ★

It seems to us local observance was especially fitting because long controversy has tended to obscure U. N. accomplishments. These include getting Russian troops out of Northern Iran, helping Indonesia gain independence, ending the shooting war in Palestine and keeping the peace between India and Pakistan.

Most important of all, of course, was U. N.'s outstanding work in Korea. There, for the first time in history, international collective action was taken to repel aggression.

★ ★ ★

The United States as leader of the free world has played a dominant role in U. N. In fact one of the aims of the EISENHOWER Administration is to strengthen the organization. How best to accomplish that is under study by Secretary of State DULLES in preparation of 1955 when the Charter will be open to revision proposals.

Meanwhile, our President seems to be on solid ground in his belief that the United Nations is today our one best hope of achieving durable peace, and this nation is very ably represented by HENRY CABOT LODGE.

O'Brien Makes Port

There is good news at long last for MICHAEL PATRICK O'BRIEN, the modern man without a country who soon will be a resident of the Dominican Republic.

It has been O'BRIEN'S fate to sail the seven seas because so many countries didn't want him as a citizen. Nearly a year ago this wanderer quit his job as a Shanghai bartender and began one of the most unusual odysseys on record.

For 10 months he was a passenger on a ferry plying between Hong Kong and Portuguese Macao. The British wouldn't let him land in Hong Kong and the Portuguese closed the door on him at Macao.

Since mid July when he was permitted to leave the ferry, O'BRIEN has seen a lot of this troubled world. His trips include one air flight to Rome and three Atlantic voyages. He has been refused entry at Rio de Janeiro, Santos, Montevideo, Marseilles, Genoa and Naples.

★ ★ ★

O'Brien claims he is a citizen of the United States. But our immigration department insists he was born Stephen Stanley Ragan in Hungary and that he has an uninspiring record there.

In offering to admit him, the Dominican Republic is living up to its policy of granting asylum to the homeless. We hope his conduct will justify that country's willingness to let him in.

Branch Library Assured

When the City Commission voted to call for construction bids, Pontiac virtually was assured of its first public library branch.

Plans considered by the Commission call for a structure at Glenwood Avenue and Rundell Street. Total cost of the project including architect's fees, is estimated at $60,000.

Of this sum $48,000 already is on hand, according to City Manager WILLMAN, and the remainder of the money will come from the 1954 budget. Plans call for a community room and workshop in the basement and the site is large enough for ample parking space.

We believe this project not only is highly desirable but marks a turning point in Pontiac's municipal development. For many years our City administrations have been forced to concentrate attention on needed expansion of such essential facilities as water, sewer, sewage disposal, street lighting and paving.

This year, however, it became financially possible to launch a long needed program of improvements in our city park facilities. That this expenditure paid quick dividends was shown by the tenfold increase in park attendance. It is reasonable to expect that expanded library service will stimulate increased public interest in worthwhile reading.

Pontiac has done well in providing the material essentials of modern urban living. This progress in the recreation and cultural fields should do much to give us a well rounded community life.

"A SURVEY made in New York State shows that women drive faster than men." This isn't surprising, as a woman rarely departs for a place until she's due there.

The People's Business

Power Uncurbed

Committee Still Functions, Though Legality Is Doubted

By JACK I. GREEN

LANSING (AP)—The power of the Michigan Legislature apparently is not what it has authority to do, but what it can get away with.

This premise never was more clearly demonstrated than in the current fuss about the Legislature's right to allow one of its committees to suspend the rules and regulations promulgated by state agencies.

This constitutional issue appeared to be finally headed for a showdown this week and then—phhut!

To sketch in the background:

The Legislative Committee on Administrative Rules suspended the so-called "awards" rule of the State High School Athletics Association because Dr. Clair L. Taylor, state superintendent of public instruction, flouted the committee's demand that he reinstate 10 high school athletes who had violated the rule.

Dr. Taylor immediately asked the attorney general whether this committee had a right to suspend the rule.

His question, of course, had nothing to do with the merits of the case against the 10 boys, whether they were rightly or wrongly disciplined, whether the rule was good or bad. It was—and is—purely a constitutional question.

Atty. Gen. Frank G. Millard assigned two assistants to the question and they had pored over a lot of books and precedents. The opinion was about ready to be released.

Then Dr. Taylor withdrew his request for the opinion—and so did Rep. Clarke Davis (R-Vermontvillle) who had filed a similar request at the request of an outside group working on the rule case.

No one connected with the matter would explain the sudden shying away from the issue. But it was obvious that Millard was greatly relieved.

Such relief could only mean one thing—that he feared he would be forced to tell the Legislature it had no right to do what it has been doing for some six years.

Millard is too good an attorney general to duck the issue if it is presented to him. But, like a lot of officials faced with this problem, he obviously would prefer not to slap down the Legislature unless he had to.

Dr. Taylor, likewise, has shown an unusual firmness in this whole athletic row, but he, too, obviously wasn't anxious to tangle with the Legislature.

He probably noted that the chairman of the legislative rules committee is Rep. Harry J. Phillips (R-Port Huron) and that Phillips also is on the House Ways and Means Committee which will pass on Dr. Taylor's next appropriation.

There had been a lot of solid ground for Dr. Taylor's questioning the authority of Phillips' committee. For instance, a former attorney general, ruling on a procedural question concerning the committee, said pointedly that his opinion did not pass on the committee's constitutionality.

Then, Sen. Edward Hutchinson (R-Fennville), a member of the legislative rules committee and no slouch of an attorney himself, showed great public distress at the thought of what Millard's opinion must be.

Hutchinson was very anxious that the case of the 10 athletes be decided on any other basis than the question of the committee's constitutionality.

He indicated, as have others before him, a strong doubt that the Legislature can interfere with the executive branch of government. There's still a division of powers under our form of government.

Praise Three Fire Departments for Quick Action When Home Caught Fire Monday

(Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests, unless the letter is critical in its nature).

We would like to express our appreciation to the Auburn Heights, Pontiac Township and Rochester Fire Departments for their quick action when a fire started in the basement of our home Oct. 19.

Due to their swiftness in arriving at our home and in combating the fire, our home was saved. They were also very careful not to ruin our furniture with water.

Says Individual Becomes Slave Under Communism

Communism teaches that all is material and that when death comes all ends. Most intelligent Americans believe there is a divine mind or God that has planned this universe.

We in the United States believe in the right to think and say what we please, as long as we do not injure some one else. If Communism went no further than Atheism we would, under our Constitution, be obliged to tolerate them and they could do no great harm.

Communism, however, does not stop there. Its leaders advocate the violent overthrow of all other governments and setting up Communistic dictatorships. These dictatorships take over all property.

The individual becomes a slave. The few leaders at the top live upon the fat of the land.

Advocating overthrow of our government by anyone living here is treason and should be punished by death. We must, if we desire to save our country, stop our weak and timid handling of Communists.

Wake up America.

Days of All Faiths

Sunday, Oct. 25, Is a Special Day for Both Catholic and Protestant Churches

By CANON HOWARD V. HARPER

The last Sunday in October is the Feast of Christ the King in the Roman Catholic church, and has been so since 1925, when the day was established by Pope Pius XI.

The purpose of the feast is to place special emphasis on the Lord's earthly kingship. Sunday His authority over all of mankind's political structures will be asserted and homage paid to Him as the ruler of all nations.

Protestants have a day of the same name and for the same purpose on the last Sunday in August.

It is interesting that Sunday in Protestant churches is World Order Sunday, and that while Catholics will be worshiping Christ as King, Protestants will be doing almost the same thing in different language.

World Order Sunday is always the Sunday nearest Oct. 24, the date on which in 1945 the United Nations Charter was finally ratified and put into effect.

October 28 is a day dedicated to the honor of two Apostles, Simon and Jude.

St. Simon is called Simon Zelotes in the New Testament, which means that he was a member of the Zealots, a fanatical little band of Jewish patriots who resisted the Roman occupation of their country.

They believed that when the Messiah came He would lead their tiny forces to glorious victory over the mighty intruder.

It may have been that Simon joined with Jesus in the hope that the gentle Nazarene would turn out to be the long-awaited military leader from heaven.

While they were waiting for the Messiah the Zealots harassed the Romans in guerilla fashion.

Tradition has it that Simon and Jude both went to Persia to preach Christianity, and that they were martyred there together.

The three terms Jew, Hebrew, and Israelite are used interchangeably by most Americans, but actually each has its own special shade of meaning.

The word "Hebrew" is the oldest of the three. It refers especially to a people, rather than to a religion. We speak of the Hebrew race, the unorganized tribe that dwelt in slavery in the land of Egypt. And we speak of Hebrew literature, history, and the Hebrew language.

Nor does the word "Israelite" refer to religion. It seems to have more to do with political organization. When we speak of the Israelites we are speaking of a national group.

It is impossible to keep the idea of religion entirely separate from the government of this group, for Israel was a nation whose ruler was Jehovah.

In a general way when we say a person is an Israelite we are talking about his nationality and not about his religion.

The word "Jew" in its largest sense means both Hebrew and Israelite. It is preferred by Jews in America, who like to have it understood that they are Americans whose religion is Jewish, just as their neighbors are Americans whose religion is Christian.

A Gentile could, by accepting the religion, become a Jew. He could not become a Hebrew or an Israelite.

Case Records of a Psychologist

Some Adult Americans Actually Shun Bath Tubs

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Girls, read this Case Record and then you'll rejoice. Just imagine the tough time your mothers used to have. For men like Jim were far more common in previous generations. Pity Jim's wife, for his mother failed to housebreak him properly for modern marriage.

Case J-324: Jim T., aged 29, works in a rubber factory.

"Dr. Crane, I rented a room to Jim and his younger brother," his landlady informed me recently.

"I had never done so before but a campaign was on to get private citizens to open their homes to workers who needed rooms, so I thought I'd cooperate.

"Jim and his brother have been with me half a year. But they just seem to be allergic to bath tubs!

"Yet our bathroom is clean and we always have plenty of hot water. And I furnish them ample soap and towels.

"They don't take even one bath per week! So their clothes reek of perspiration and even their room is so smelly I can hardly stand it.

"What is wrong with adult men in this civilized country that they still shun the bath tub"?

Jim and his brother were not used to bath tubs on the farm where they grew up.

So they hadn't learned to take baths very often. Oh, in summer they'd wash off the dirt via a swim in the neighboring creek.

But that was sport. They didn't invade the water even then as a means of getting clean. No, it was as a game.

We Americans must not forget that it used to be customary to sew children into their underwear in the autumn and leave them sewed up till hot weather the next spring.

That isn't ancient history, either! Doctors still encounter some of these cases!

And many women still don't take a bath unless they are going to the physician's office for a medical check-up.

Then the main reason for the bath is fear of social censure rather than an inherent desire for cleanliness.

You readers don't fully appreciate your debt to modern American advertisers of soap, toothbrushes and toothpaste, perfumes, candy mints and chewing gum, safety razors and hair tonic.

At the beginning of this century, men wore beards and chewed tobacco, part of which usually drooled down their beards.

Pity the girls who had to submit to the kisses of such Lotharios. And the men were lacking many of their teeth. The rest were stained with tobacco or half decayed.

So is it any wonder that women have learned to close their eyes when they are being kissed by a man!

But the "halitosis" advertisements have snapped most American men into line so they now put some energy behind their toothbrushes and flavor their breath on a date with candy mints or gum.

"B. O." ads have made men employ soap far more freely, too, than ever before in human history. And "5 o'clock shadow" has eliminated the stubble on male chins.

Dandruff is now washed out via shampoos or masked with oil and grease jobs on the hair.

But you mothers will need to train your children to wash behind their ears and take a bath routinely. Then the habit will be duly ingrained long before they grow etiquette-conscious as they start dating in the middle teens.

For it is the job of all good mothers to housebreak their sons for happy marriage in later life.

But it takes two good women to make a good husband. The first of these should be his mother.

Portraits

By JAMES J. METCALFE

There is no stranger on the street . . . No matter where you go . . . Each individual is one . . . You do or ought to know . . . Each person is another soul . . . However old or new . . . And as a human, he or she . . . Is common unto you . . . For we are all created by . . . The same eternal God . . . And we must live our span of years . . . Together on this sod . . . Then why not walk together now . . . In heart and mind and soul . . . And strive with one another to . . . Attain the self-same goal? . . . To live in peace and happiness . . . As long as we may be . . . And by our goodness meet again . . . In God's eternity?

Baering Down

About time the Washington wisies stopped distributing phelonious information in the large economical guesses.

We pupils are going to get a lot of double-jointed lessons when teacher uses a weather vane for a blackboard pointer.

So bad that Ike registered an official beef against the Delphic oracles of the Potomac. Top drawer secrets are leaking 13 to the dozen.

Most of this talk is at the [illegible] with no more foundation than a mud hut.

But us citizens can still get sideswiped both ways like a man fishing off a trestle bridge.

Some officials think we should keep as agitated as the elbows in the Philharmonic orchestra. Others butter us with a pablum of soft-boiled malarkey.

It's like clipping a pup's tail. Too little is as bad as too much.

Ike has asked the bell-mouthed criers to button up their traps. Even the ignorant are liable to hit the nail on the thumb,

The people who actually know the insides from the out never crack. They don't talk. And they smile like they were hanging to a trapeze by their teeth.

Does shooting off your mouth have bad results? Well, even a bank can hurt you if you're walloped by the wad.

Most of the jabberwocky is fringe chatter mixed with the whites of eyes and served at rumor temperature.

And you cannot go through life living from mouth-to-ear.

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

Perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, supposing that gain is godliness: from such withdraw thyself.—I Timothy 6:5.

Grandmother Has Nothing Much to Do So She Would Like to Try Somersault

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

Keep Grandma Busy

I am a grandmother, but I want to learn to turn somersaults and keep young. I have 7 children, 20 grandchildren, work 5 days a week, care for 8-room house, spade, plant and tend my own garden, raise loads of flowers, age 61. Never tried somersaulting, only gardening and sawing wood. (Mrs. W. R. L.)

Answer — Pamphlet on Somersaults is available to any reader who asks for it (in writing) and provides stamped, self-addressed envelope. Aren't you ashamed, Ma'am, when you think of all the social activities of other women of your age — bridge and cocktail parties, gossip, fashion shows and matinees?

Acne

The acne lotion you recommend in your pamphlet did wonders for my teen-age daughter's complexion and I am so grateful . . . (Mrs. W. O.)

Answer — On written request (no clipping, please) I'll send any reader who provides stamped, self-addressed envelope the pamphlet on Acne — Blackheads and Pimples.

Buck Is Enough

Thanks from the bottom of my heart. Since I have been taking the iodin ration I feel like a million bucks. (Mrs. A. MacK.)

For years I had felt weary and morose . . . began taking your Iodin Ration when I was 68 . . . now feel like a young colt . . . (F. B. W.)

Took it 30 days. Felt so much better I continued another 30 days. Then noticed my hair was turning darker. Kept on another 30 days and my hair is regaining its natural color. Is there any danger of being kilt if I keep on . . .? (J. T.)

Answer — Every man, woman and child needs a daily ration of iodin, in the form of food from the sea or in the form I recommend in the pamphlet The Iodin Ration, for which send stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Old Time Hospitals

Why not explain to prospective mothers how much happier they will be in a modern hospital where "rooming-in" is in effect and the new mother is encouraged to nurse her baby? (Mrs. M. B. R.)

Answer—Lucky the woman who is confined in a modern hospital where "rooming-in" is practiced, and happy her baby who is fondled, loved, nursed and cared for as and when mama likes.

Development Defect

First child born without . . . Second physically perfect. Mother 35. Would it be foolish for her to try again. (O. A.)

Answer — No one knows what causes such accidents or defects of development. No reason why the mother may not bear normal children.

Misery Likes Company

At 34 expecting my first child. Because of my age friends have me worried . . . (Mrs. T. S. G.)

Answer — Send 25 cents and stamped, self-addressed envelope for booklet Preparing for Maternity and study with particular care the chapter titled Her First at Forty. Your friends are just envious and jealous.

Fish Liver Oil

One of your readers said her sister had obtained great relief for asthma by taking fish liver oil and calcium . . . (Mrs. W. M.)

Answer — In other words, vitamin D and calcium. Send stamped, self-addressed envelope and ask for pamphlet on Asthma. A spoonful of fish liver oil contains perhaps 375 U. S. P. units of vitamin D. As much as a calcicap. The vitamin D is essential for normal utilization of calcium. Makes no difference whether you get it in tasteless form or in fish liver oil. Remember, it is not a cure, but just a prophylactic. So don't just "try" it for a week or two and then quit.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. Brady if a stamped, self addressed envelope is enclosed, etc.

Palestine Report Ready for U.N.

Security Council to Get Neutral Summary of Arab-Israeli Incidents

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The U. N. Palestine truce supervisor drew up a report to the Security Council on threatening Arab-Israeli border incidents today as tension continued to rise in the Holy Land area.

Denmark's Maj. Gen. Vagn Bennike, the supervisor, was scheduled to give the 11-nation Council on Tuesday the truce commission's version of recent frontier bloodshed, including an Israeli attack on three Jordan border villages in which 66 Arabs reportedly were killed.

Israel and her neighbors have accused each other of aggression and violation of the armictice agreement. Syria also has charged the Israelis with illegally diverting the waters of the Jordan River.

* * *

As Bennike worked on his report, informed sources in London said Britain has informally advised the Arab states and Israel to avoid any military action that might upset Middle East stability.

These sources said the London government emphasized that the Western Powers still stand firmly on their 1950 declaration guaranteeing the integrity of frontiers in the area. Britain, the United States and France jointly called for the U. N. investigation into the border disturbances.

* * *

Jordan has officially denied Israeli charges that large concentrations of Jordan's Arab Legion have been moved into the Jerusalem area but Syria reportedly has moved troops up to the Israeli border with orders to inform Jordan of any possible Israeli aggression.

In a meeting at Amman, Jordan's capital, last night, two subcommittees of the eight-nation Arab League hammered out decisions on several political, economic and military aspects of the Arab-Israeli dispute.

No details were announced.

Ferndale Man Gets Year Probation for Assault

Onue year's probation and $50 costs were imposed on Clarence Carter, 50, of 20844 Parkside St., Ferndale, when he appeared Friday before Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty on a charge of felonious assaut.

Carter pleaded guilty Oct. 6 to threatening a companion with a gun after drinking.

Ex-Football Hopeful Demands Damages

EDINBURG, Tex. (UP)—A high school football player has filed suit for $42,000 in Texas' 93rd District Court here, contending that he was deprived of a college scholarship by an automobile accident.

Merle S. Shepherd, who played tackle for Weslaco, Tex., high School the past two seasons, filed suit against Francisco and Juan Villarreal. He said his motorcycle collided with a car driven by Francisco and owned by Juan.

Sherpherd said he suffered a brain concussion, a broken shoulder, four broken ribs and other injuries and would never be able to play football again.

The youth declared in the suit he had planned to play football at college and had lined up a scholarship that would have paid for his books, tuition, room and board. As a result of the accident, he added, he would not be able to take advantage of the scholarship.

New Machine Will Hoe Cotton Faster, Cheaper

ALEXANDRIA, La. (UP) — A new era in cotton farming may be heralded with the granting of a patent for a new machine to a farmer of Avoyelles Parish.

Jacob A. Deville has received a patent on a cross-row cultivator that is, in effect, a mechanical hoe.

Deville applied for a patent in 1948 and since then has just used the machine in his own field and has proven the machine effective and economical.

Attached to a tractor, the cultivator can hoe more than 15 acres a day. Deville said the cost of hoeing his 22 acres of cotton this year using the machine was $24.25. He added that the cost by hand would have been $500.

Deville said the patent was so slow reaching him because he had to prove the machine was unlike any other machines already patented, including 19 others, two from Australia.

He said his invention probably will eliminate the hard cultivation job in cotton fields and added that the machine can be manufactured for about $300.

Deville expects to manufacture the machine himself at a plant in Alexandria or Marksville.

Reflections

FAITH, DID IT.

By J. Lee Voorhees

J. L. VOORHEES

For forty years Emil Ladis, an American, worked for a Nationalized Latin American Railroad, the latter years as Supt. of Motive Power. He was retired. His pension money was subject to the vagaries of the Party in Power.

He came home, acquired an acre of ground with apple and peach trees, grape vines, chicken and rabbit runs; he was independent. A revolution! Politics changed. His checks stopped. Cold rain brought serious infestation to apples; they could not be sold. Hail ruined 60% of his peaches and grapes. His rabbits died and chickens stopped laying. Emil was destitute.

With tears streaming down his cheeks he kneeled under a tree and asked for Divine guidance. He and his wife had pledged $1.00 a week to their church; that Sunday he put their last dollar into the collection. After church a friend asked him, "Emil, I'm quitting my job. Want it ?"

On Monday, three checks came. Young chickens began laying. His fruit, not ruined, sold for high prices. He could have sold ten times as much grape juice as he had.

Emil, with a broad smile and ringing voice said, "Our faith never wavered. We knew our prayers would be answered."

CHURCH DEDICATED—Started last March, the First General Baptist Church, 249 Baldwin Ave., will be dedicated on Sunday afternoon. The Rev. Robert Garner, pastor, has personally superintended construction of the building.

Dedicate First General Baptist Church Sunday

Dedication services have been planned at First General Baptist Church 249 Baldwin Ave at 2 p.m. Sunday.

The church was started with the Rev. I. C. Hartsoe as first pastor. The first place of meeting was at 80 N. Paddock St. Later the congregation moved to a store on Baldwin avenue where the new church has been built.

For seven years the Rev. T. D. Davis, who will be present Sunday, served as pastor and for the past three years, the Rev. Robert Garner has served in that capacity.

The Rev. Mr. Garner came into the church as a layman soon after the church was organized, and was ordained a minister there. The church has 150 members.

While the Rev. Mr. Garner has supervised the construction of the building, several sub-contracts have been let for specialized work.

The church is 40x92 feet in size, the front being of Roman brick construction. The sanctuary will seat 350 and the choir 44. There is a pastor's study, cry room and a baptistry.

There are 12 Sunday School rooms in the building and a public address system has been installed.

The church is finished with plastered walls and weldtex with acoustic tile on the basement ceiling. The floors are covered throughout with asphalt tile.

Says Religions of Far East Have Lost Vigor

By Religious News Service

GREENWICH, Conn. —The old religions of the Far East "have lost any vitality and power they may once have had," the Rt. Rev. Henry Knox Sherrill, Presiding Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church, said here.

For this reason, Bishop Sherrill said, "the idea popular in some quarters" that the West is forcing Christianity upon people who already have a satisfactory religion of their own "is false."

The bishop made the observation in reporting to the Episcopal National Council on a 23,000-mile trip to the Far East from which he had just returned.

Newman AME Church to Observe Pew Rally Day

Sunday is being observed as Pew Rally Day at Newman AME Church on Auburn Avenue. Mrs. Gertrude Allen is chairman.

Ten captains are being chosen, specified number of pews in the church. They in turn make their offering to the team captains who hands the total amount to the chairman.

The current expenses of the chuch are taken care of in this way so that more time can be alloted to the building program now in progress.

2-Week Revival to End Sunday

Linton Moving On to Memorial Baptist After Serving at Marimont

Completing a two-week Evangelistic campaign at Marimont Baptist Church on Sunday, the Rev. John Linton, will begin a similar campaign Monday evening at Memorial Baptist Church on Prospect street.

The Rev. Mr. Linton, from Windsor, Ont., combines the Gospel message with "magic" to impress the truths upon his hearers.

Sunday, his subjects will be "Two Men—Which Are You?" and "What Is the Unpardonable Sin?" for morning and evening, respectively.

At the evening service he will give what he considers his most beautiful magic object lesson, "The Rosebush."

Missionary Is Guest Speaker

Guest speaker at Parkdale Nazarene Church Sunday at 7:30 will be the Rev. Harold Stanfield. The Rev. Mr. Stanfield has served two five-year terms as a missionary in Nicaragua. The Rev. Wayne E. Welton is pastor of the local church.

The Rev. Mr. Stanfield is in Michigan to attend mid-year gatherings of the missionary societies and preachers of the Eastern Michigan District, which will meet Oct. 26, 27, and 28 in the First Church of the Nazarene in Detroit.

Presiding will be Dr. W. M. McGuire of Pontiac, district superintendent. Guest speaker will be Dr. Samuel Young, who is general superintendent of the church.

Bray CME Temple Set to Mark Opening Sunday

Sunday will mark the opening of Bray Temple CME Church, 320 Rockwell St. An all-day 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. service will be held with the special decation service at 3 p.m.

Ministers from the Detroit District and many of their choirs will participate in the day's festivities.

The Rev. S. J. Elliott is pastor.

Churches are urging youngsters to solicit used clothing for overseas relief on Halloween instead of seeking the usual "handouts" for themselves.

Expect 60,000 at Detroit Rally

Pontiac Church People to Attend Festival in Briggs Stadium

Many Pontiac Protestant church people will go to Briggs Stadium Sunday afternoon to attend the Reformation Festival and the Billy Graham Crusade rally.

Church people in Detroit are expecting 60,000 to attend.

The festival portion of the program will be held from 2:30 to 3 o'clock with the Rt. Rev. Richard S. Emrich, bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Michigan presiding. The Billy Graham meeting will follow immediately.

The Very Rev. James A. Pike, dean of St. John the Divine Episcopal Cathedral in New York City, will be the principal speaker. Dr. Pike was a former lawyer in the legal division of the Federal Securities Commission.

A 3,000-voice choir will be led by Cliff Barrows of the Billy Graham team.

Seated in a specially reserved section behind home plate will be members of the Billy Graham Crusade committee, the 200-man sponsoring committee for the Reformation Festival and clergymen from the metropolitan area.

Billy Graham will speak on the subject "Will God Spare America?"

Statistics released from the Billy Graham office revealed a total attendance thus far of 234,661 with 2,464 Decisions for Christ.

1,500 Employes Take Communion in Philadelphia

By Religious News Service

PHILADELPHIA — Nearly 1,500 men and women employes of the Pennsylvania Railroad held one of the first united Protestant Communion breakfasts in the city's history.

It was sponsored by the St. George Association. Communion was served at 8 a.m. in the Arch Street Methodist Church, followed by a hotel breakfast at which Charles Colman Jr., president of the railroad chapter, and chief accountant in the freight traffic department, presided.

W. S. Levengood, state secretary of internal revenue, was the guest speaker.

Job's Daughters Attend Sunday Church Service

Two groups of Job's Daughters will attend First Presbyterian Church Sunday morning.

Bethel 5, with Caroline Sapp as queen and Mrs. Clarence Curry, guardian, and Bethel 40 of which Marilyn Shearer is queen and Mrs. Harry Vernon, guardian, will be the honored guests.

The Rev. Edward D. Auchard, associate pastor, will preach from the theme "The Way God Works."

Proof that Mount Kilimanjaro, Africa's highest point, is more than 20,000 feet above sea level was established by two government surveyors who were led to the mountain's summit by a 61-year-old Lutheran missionary.

Revival to Continue at Providence Baptist

The revival meeting at Providence Baptist Church will continue next week, closing Friday evening.

The Rev. E. A. Rundless, pastor of New Liberty Baptist Church, will be the speaker, said the Rev. T. Walker Harris, pastor of Providence Baptist Church.

Church to Mark 35th Birthday

2 Anniversary Sermons Will Aid Trinity Baptist to Celebrate Sunday

Trinity Baptist Church on Wesson street will observe its 35th anniversary Sunday. Two anniversary sermons will be preached; one by the pastor, the Rev. Richard H. Doxon, on "Spacious Living," at 11 a.m.; and the other at 3 p.m. by Dr. S. J. Murray of Detroit.

Dr. Murray and members of his congregation will be guests for this service.

Between these two services a co-operative dinner will be served in the dining room.

At 7:30 p.m. Newman A.M.E. Church, with its pastor, the Rev. J. Allen Parker, and New Bethel Baptist Church and its pastor, the Rev. W. H. Bell, will join the host church in a union service.

The church was started with 12 members in a home in 1917, later moving to a house that was converted into a frame church.

As the congregation grew, a modern brick church has replaced the earlier structures and a membership now of 800 is reported.

Mrs. J. A. Campbell is anniversary committee chairman.

When the Communists attacked Seoul, the manuscript for a Korean Bible was saved by concealing it in a sauerkraut jar.

THE HIDDEN DESIGN

Penniless and weary after a day of searching for a job, a man was on the lookout for a place to spend the night. On a dimly-lighted street he saw a door left ajar; he pushed it open and walked into the building.

It was black as pitch in there, and when he had taken a few steps he fell over something hard and cold. He picked himself up again; and feeling in front of him walked fifty yards or so without touching anything, only to fall up a small flight of steps. At the top of the steps he felt to his right, and discovered a long bench covered with a cushion. Stretching out on it, he was soon fast asleep.

He awoke at daylight; and the sun, streaming through the windows, showed him where he was. He was in a church. What he had stumbled over was the marble baptismal font; his seemingly endless walk had been up the middle aisle; he had stumbled up the chancel steps, and slept in a choir stall. All the while he had been groping in the darkness, he was surrounded by a beauty and architectural design he could not see.

All of us are born into a world we do not understand; and however wise and educated we may become, some things remain mysterious and confusing. But religious faith floods our existence with light, and makes us certain there is a divine design to the whole of life.

Confident Living

Never Say 'I Can't Do It;' Optimism Is the Answer

By NORMAN VINCENT PEALE

If you study the lives of people who do the most and the best things in life, you will notice that they have one thing in common. It occurs so often in such people that it might be said to have the effect of a law of successful living.

DR. PEALE

It is simply that they always have the quality of optimism. And the achievements of people who have this characteristic are so tremendous that I have come to think that optimism can work miracles.

Optimism is, of course, the philosophy that reality is essentially good. It is the conviction that the world itself is good.

It is the belief that, in the long run, good always over-balances evil. It is the belief that, if you expect the best, you can attain the best.

Ralph Waldo Emerson, certainly one of the wisest of our American sages, said: "Nerve us up with incessant affirmatives. Don't waste yourself in rejection, nor bark against the bad, but chant the beauty of the good."

And, of course, the Bible tells us that God is good, that hope and faith are essential factors in the attainment of the good life.

It is a dynamic fact that if you cast out pessimism and cultivate within your mind the attitude of optimism, that is, belief in the good, miracles can and will take place in your life and work.

The first step is to affirm through optimistic thinking—which is really only another word for faith—the tremendous resources within yourself.

Never hold the thought that you have no greater power within you. Never believe that you are limited.

You have capacities you have never realized, abilities you have never released. By accepting the idea of limitation, you can limit yourself.

One of the great facts about human nature is that in each of us is a capacity so tremendous that we do not fully comprehend it.

For example, not long ago a tornado swept a certain city doing great damage. One of my readers wrote to me about a mother, confined to her bed by an attack of infantile paralysis which had left her paralyzed from the waist down.

At the height of the tornado, she became concerned about her two children in the next room. There was no one to help her.

So this woman, whose legs had been unable to move, slowly and painfully got out of bed; made her way into the next room, took her two babies into her arms and walked out of the house with them to a safe place. According to last reports, she is still walking.

Love was more powerful than this woman's physical limitations; the need arising from the emergency brought her up out of a bed from which she had been told she might never rise.

Many other people are paralyzed, not in their bodies, but in their thoughts. They have accepted their limitations by saying, "I can't do more than this." And they fail to rise to the emergencies of life.

Such a self-appraisal is not true of any of us. With optimism and faith, we too can, in the words of the Bible, "rise up and walk." Don't let yourself be deceived by the falsehoods about your own abilities that you may have been carrying in your mind for years.

Get fixed in your soul and spirit this great quality of optimism, faith and confidence, and you will be astonished by what you can do and can be.

The miracle of optimism, like the other miracles offered by religious faith, is yours for the asking, and for the believing.

In the midst of all discouragement, pessimism or failure, practice the principles of faith, and a strong new force will be felt in your life. Optimism can work miracles for one who believes.

Laymen Fill Pulpits in Many Churches

By Religious News Service

NEW YORK—Laymen filled the pulpits of some 100,000 Protestant churches across the nation on Laymen's Sunday Oct. 18, it was estimated here by Wallace S. Speers, who said it was the largest number ever to participate in the annual observance.

Mr. Speers is chairman of the Laymen's Movement for a Christian World, which began in 1942 to promote the third Sunday of October as Laymen's Sunday. Since last year, the National Council of Churches' general department of United Church Men has joined in sponsoring the observance.

President Eisenhower, a member of the Laymen's Movement, sent a message in advance of the observance offering his best wishes for the success of "this inspiring program."

Dates Are Set for Current Religion School Classes

The planning committee for the Pontiac School of Religion met during the past week and announced the dates for this year's school.

The first five Monday evenings in Lent have been chosen and the school will meet at the Lutheran Church of the Ascension instead of First Presbyterian Church as in other years.

Innovations in this year's school will include the introduction of first series courses making it possible for students to attend two classes on different subjects on each of the five evenings.

Mrs. Maynard Johnson announced that a committee on curriculum is selecting teachers and arranging the program to include a variety of subjects.

The school has been held annually for many years.

Lutheran Home Head to Talk Here Sunday

Guest speaker at St. Paul Lutheran Church Sunday at 10:45 a.m. will be the Rev. Walter O. Kleinhans. The Rev. Mr. Kleinhans is director of the Home for the Ages (Lutheran) at Monroe.

His topic will be "Working While It Is Day.'

For 20 years the Rev. Mr. Lleinhans was pastor of Calvary Lutheran Church at Lincoln Park, and for three years he was a chaplain in World War II.

Inspiration May Prove Big Boon

Hope Housewife's Idea Will Bring Riches to Churches, Other Groups

By Religious News Service

NEW YORK — An inspiration that flashed into the mind of a Los Angeles housewife while she was attending a religious lecture may soon prove a financial boon to religious, educational and charitable organizations.

The housewife, Mrs. Olive Van Voorhis, was listening to a sermon on the Golden Rule at the Institute of Religious Science in Los Angeles when the thought came to her that people might be helped to remember the divine teaching if they had some tangible reminder, such as a ring or pin, with them at all times.

After the service, she broached the idea to Dr. Ernest Holmes, who founded the interdenominational institute more than 20 years ago, and Dr. William Hornaday, one of the institute's ministers.

Dr. Hornaday later introduced Mrs. Van Voorhis to a friend he believed could put it into action—Joan Joseff, a well-known jewelry designer and manufacturer under the name of Joseff of Hollywood.

Miss Joseff immediately set about designing a line of lapel pins, bracelets and key rings, each of which has attached to it a tiny gold two-inch rule bearing the words "Do Unto Others" on the reverse side.

She also volunteered to produce the jewelry in her factories, market them through her company's sales division and turn over all profits to a Golden Rule Advisory Council which would be set up for the purpose of distributing the funds to religious, educational and charitable groups.

Part-time Jobs May Be Worth While Even if They Are Not Profitable

Better Outlook on Life Among Benefits for Woman Who's Tired of Housework

By ANNE HEYWOOD

"I've examined the part-time job setup in my community," Ella K. announced, "and it's hopeless.

"Even if I do take one of the few jobs that are available, it will cost me just as much as I make to hire someone to take care of my children. That's a losing proposition, isn't it?"

Well, sometimes, it is. But sometimes it has a lot of hidden dividends.

For example, Lee S. is a young woman who gets real benefits from her part-time job. She used to be a bookkeeper. But then she married and had three children.

"I love the children," Lee told me, "but it does get monotonous—every day exactly like the day before. One day, I looked in the mirror and found to my horror that I looked like a drawn, tired drudge. And my hair was a mess.

"I began to remember how pruced up and and interested I had always been when I was a business girl. That's how I had been when George married me. I began to realize that I was slipping."

Lee was no girl to sit and mourn. She decided to get a part time job in bookkeeping again.

"Then, all of a sudden, I got a real brainstorm," she told me. "I went to the big beauty salon in town and asked if I could do their books one day a week. At first they said no, they couldn't afford it.

"The owner herself did the bookkeeping, but I could tell from talking with her that she was sick and tired of it.

"So I offered to do it six hours a week in exchange for $4, plus the works — a shampoo, fingerwave and a manicure. The owner leaped at the idea.

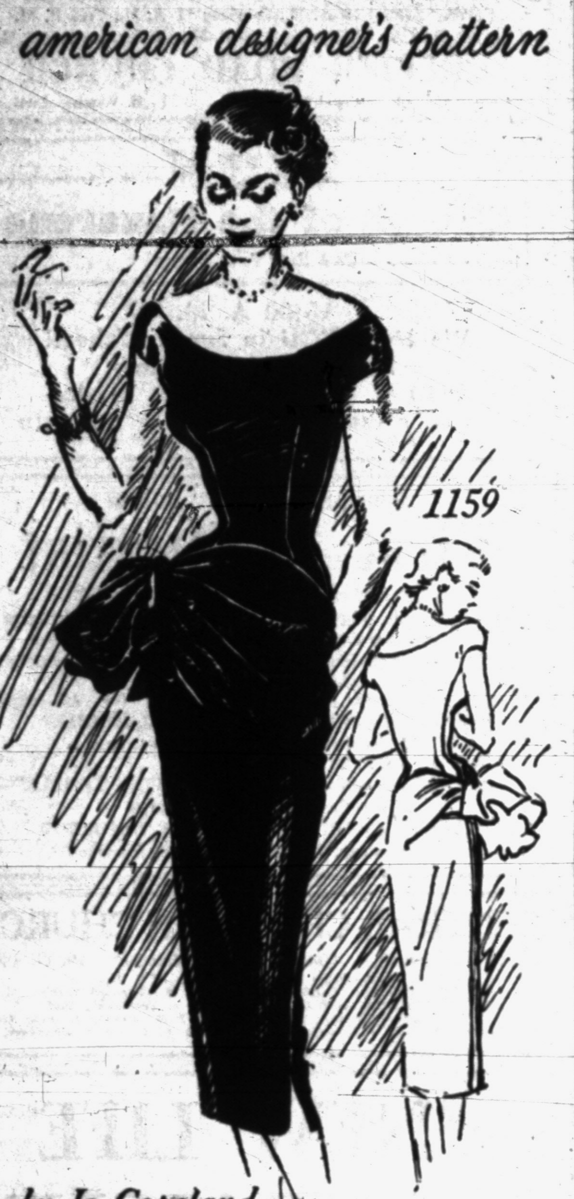
"Now I go every Tuesday, work on the books from 9 until 3:30, and then get beautified. I have to pay my baby-sitter the $4, but it gives me a new lease on life.

"I not only get all the improvement in my appearance and the feeling of being attractive, but I also get a break in the week's activity. It's wonderful to get away from the house for one day a week — makes me anxious to get back, and I appreciate my children more.

"And also, of course, I'm keeping my bookkeeping skill from rusting. So who cares whether I make a financial profit or not? Believe me, there are other kinds of profits!"

If you feel that domesticity has you in a rut—and if you have a marketable skill—sometimes it pays to get a part-time job and hire someone to replace you at home while you work, even if every penny you make goes to the replacement.

A change of pace can sometimes take years off your age.



Dress Captures Drama Without Loss of Dignity

American Designer Jo Copeland is known throughout this country and in several cities abroad for dramatic clothes that somehow maintain an attitude of dignified restraint.

Her European following (Americans who live there or Continentals who have come here and fallen under the spell) testifies to the fact that a dress with a Jo Copeland label has an inherent chic, is always in beautiful taste and does wonders for the figure.

This is no accident, for Jo Copeland herself is a typical woman of chic and society, and her clothes constantly reflect her mode of gracious living.

The model today was made originally in a stiff silk to give body to that standout hip pouf. The long line of the bodice does a beautiful job of torso molding, giving a lift to the bosom, an in-curve to the waist.

When selecting your pattern size, please use the guide below which represents the designer's own measurements:

Bust	Waist	Hips		Sizes
34½	24½	35	inches	10
35½	25½	36	inches	12
37	27	37½	inches	14
38½	28½	39	inches	16
40	30	40½	inches	18

Size 12 requires 3⅛ yards of 50-inch material.

To order Pattern 1159, address Spadea Syndicate, Inc., P. O. Box 535, Dept. 149, G. P. O., New York 1, N. Y. State size. Send $1. Airmail 25 cents extra.

Honeymooning in Wisconsin are Mr. and Mrs. William Charles Lewin who were married this morning in St. Benedict Church. She is the former Donna Louise Zimmerman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond J. Zimmerman of Ogemaw road, and the Guy Parchalls of Spokane, Wash., are his parents.

MRS. WILLIAM CHARLES LEWIN

Donna Zimmerman Wed in St. Benedict Ceremony

Before an altar decorated with large floral arrangements of white gladioli, chrysanthemums and palms, Donna Louise Zimmerman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond J. Zimmerman of Ogemaw road, became the bride of William Charles Lewin of Poplar street this morning in St. Benedict Church.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Paschall of Spokane, Wash.

The bride's strapless nylon lace gown with a fitted bodice featured a matching lace jacket and lace gauntlets. A double nylon tulle floor-length skirt over slipper satin was accented by a lace panel set in the front.

Her fingertip veil of nylon tulle was held in place by a Juliet cap of lace and satin. She carried a bouquet of white carnations, stephanotis, white pompons and variegated ivy in a cascade arrangement.

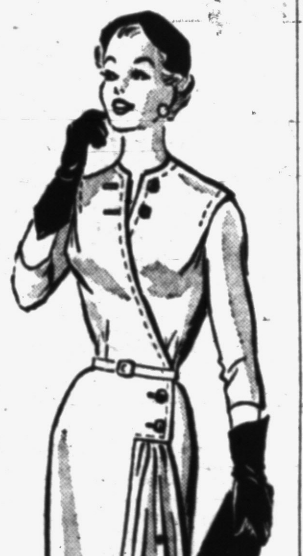
Her only attendant was Shirley Albrecht. Her floor-length gown of winter rose featured a shirred bodice, a full gathered skirt and a detachable capelet of net over velvet. Her bouquet was composed of white fugi chrysanthemums and variegated ivy.

Thomas E. Zimmerman, the bride's brother, was best man. The ushers were Jack Elden and Harold Lepisto.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Zimmerman wore a dress of gray lace and pink taffeta with a sorsage of pink cymbidium orchids.

A wedding breakfast was served at Devon Gables immediately following the ceremony and a reception is being held this afternoon in the home of the bride's parents.

For a honeymoon trip to Wisconsin the bride is wearing a cherry taffeta dress and navy accessories. Upon their return they will reside on Otsego drive in Cherokee Hills.



A young, smart, wearable line—and oh, how it flatters the short, fuller figure. Side-slanted bodice is dramatic in its simplicity; skirt has soft fullness at the side that flares gracefully as you walk. Proportioned to fit—no alteration worries.

Thoughtful Girl Declines Boy's Invitation Sweetly, Instead of Refusing Coldly

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

"Dear Miss Woodward: How can a girl refuse a date with a boy and still be her gentle, kind and sweet little self?"

The words "refuse a date" conjure up a picture of a girl with pug nose elevated high while she sniffs haughtily and points her thumb definitively down. It's hard to reconcile that picture with a girl who's trying to be gentle and kind.

But change the word to "decline an invitation" and it's easier. "Millie van Pinkerton regrets exceedingly that she is unable to accept" is the gentle approach to a boy's date invitation.

Millie is delighted to be asked. That shows all over her smiling face. Then she realizes what night it's to be, and her face clouds over with disappointment.

It's a bad night, she has already promised to do something else, and she's sorry, so sorry. What he proposes sounds like such fun, and her face dances with enthusiasm.

Then, hopefully, maybe they could do it some other night—with question marks galore in her eyes and the tilt of her head.

Such a performance is treating a boy's invitation with the respect it deserves. Most any boy would respond to this treatment with another invitation for another evening.

"Dear Miss Woodward: When I see him, my heart drops and I get butterflies in my tummy—and all he says is 'Hi'!

"When we were dating, we were together most of the time—now there are no more dates, though I see him two or three times a day passing my place of work, and I say 'Hello' every time. I feel miserable about it. Can you think of anything I can do?"

You can say more than "Hello" when you have a chance. You've been sitting back helplessly letting him get by you with no more than a "Hi".

Your lack of gumption may have convinced him that his not calling you any more suits you fine. You certainly made no protest of any kind, did no speaking up in your own defense, tried nothing to get the flame glowing again.

Next time you see him, slow him down for a chat. Ask how he is, what he's been doing, did he have any sort of vacation during the summer. Talk merrily of your own doings and plans, make them sound exciting.

Cheerfully tell him you'd love to see him sometime—and leave it right there. Then break away with a good-humored, "I'm glad things are going well with you—I'll be seeing you," then on your way.

When he sees you the next time, he may be more friendly and talkative. Then you can try inviting him to something when you're supposed to bring a boy along.

Maybe he's just been going through a lazy spell—and you might snap him out of it if you'll give him an encouraging prod.

"Dear Miss Woodward: My mother's beginning to think I'm seeing too much of Dick. She hasn't objected before now, and I can't understand what has suddenly made her change her mind.

"During the summer Dick went with us on my family's vacation, and I went with Dick's family on their vacation. We're together all day at school, and over weekends we eat at each other's houses.

"Dick's my best friend, and I can't see why my mother won't let us be together. To make matters worse, I'm the one who has to explain it to him—and I don't want to hurt him or make him mad. Please, have you any suggestions?"

It's possible to like a boy so much that you want to share his every waking minute. But I don't think it's practical. Apparently your mother has suddenly decided so, too.

She has become very much aware of the fact that you're seeing no one but Dick. She's not asking that you see no more of Dick. All she insists on is a balanced diet. Time for stretching your ideas, cultivating your ability to make friends, developing other sides of your personality.

Italian Cuts Are Adapted to All Types

Have Your Locks Trimmed, Shaped by Expert Stylist

The spectacular Italian cut which American brunettes have taken to so fondly in recent months has been modified this fall to suit most every type.

If you have been intrigued by it but hesitant to try the style in its extreme, ragged form, one of the new modifications might end your indecision.

In any case, the very best haircut you can get is a must. Splurge a little and go to a top hair stylist. At least, don't attempt it yourself; unless you are unusual, you will not be able to do the back.

While your hair is being set, watch closely to learn how the curls are placed. After this good beginning, you can go it alone.

If you do not have a natural curl, you will need a soft permanent to lend body to the hair. Lots of brushing will also help shape the style.

With styling know-how gleaned from the experts, you can defray the expense of the cut and setting by giving yourself a permanent.

One of the popular home permanents is said to save time as well as money for you. It features an instant neutralizing method developed to do away with clock-watching.

Besides eliminating repeated pourings of the neutralizer, the new method is claimed to give a softer and longer-lasting wave.

Navy Mothers Plan Dinner, Bazaar

Plans for the annual dinner and bazaar were made when members of the Navy Mothers Club 355 met Thursday evening in the Naval Training Center.

Mrs. William Christie will be general chairman for the event which will take place Nov. 6 in Wilson Avenue Methodist Church. Mrs. Christie replaces Mrs. Lucy Wright who is ill.

Plans for sending Christmas boxes to servicemen and women were made, with Mrs. Christie in charge.

Joan Evelyn Juett Speaks Her Vows

Berton Hilliker escorted his niece, Joan Evelyn Juett, down the aisle this morning when she became the bride of Howard V. Rummell of Oakland avenue.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Evelyn Juett of Murphy avenue, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Roy Wood of Detroit and George Rummell of Flint.

Married this morning in St. Benedict Church were Joan E. Juett and Howard V. Rummell. She is the daughter of Mrs. Evelyn Juett of Murphy avenue, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Roy Wood of Detroit and George Rummell of Flint.

MRS. HOWARD V. RUMMELL

For the 11 o'clock ceremony at St. Benedict Church, the bride wore a gown of nylon tulle with a handkerchief skirt peplum topped with embroidered hand-clipped lace, and featuring a chapel-length train.

Her three-tiered veil of illusion in a fingertip length was secured by a lace Juliet cap embroidered with seed pearls.

Autumn colors set the theme for her attendants' gowns. Mrs. Donald Wood of Berkley, matron of honor, was dressed in gold nylon tulle and velvet with a shrug jacket and matching cap. Her Shalimar bouquet was of Hibbard roses, green carnations and butterscotch pompons with green streamers.

In emerald green were Mrs. Gary Hetherington and Mrs. Dale Boman of Niagara Falls, N. Y. They carried Shalimar bouquets of Johanna Hill roses, green carnations, butterscotch pompons and yellow streamers.

Wilfred Smith was best man, and ushers were Mr. Wood and Tom Manion.

Carrying out the autumn theme, Mrs. Juett wore nut beige taffeta with brown and turquoise accessories and a corsage of brown cymbidium orchids.

Maroon velveteen was worn by the bridegroom's mother, with black accessories and a corsage of pink cymbidium orchids.

A breakfast at Rotunda Inn followed the ceremony, and a reception was held at Knights of Pythias Hall on Voorheis road.

For the wedding trip to Chicago, the bride changed to a black wool suit with black and white accessories and an orchid corsage from her bouquet.

She is a graduate of Cleary College and Howard attended Michigan State College where he was affiliated with Sigma Nu fraternity.

Asks Court to Reconcile Banker, Susan Hayward

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Jess Barker's lawyer has asked the Superior Court to aid in a reconciliation between the actor and his actress wife, Susan Hayward.

He asserted in his petition yesterday that the best welfare of their two sons is paramount and that the marriage can be saved, although "on occasions the behavior of the couple during nine years of matrimony has been injudicious."

Miss Hayward, suing for divorce, asked for custody of the twin boys, Gregory and Timothy, 8.

Payroll Padding Charge Stands

Western Lawmaker's Trial Will Start Dec. 2, Judge Decides

WASHINGTON (UP) — A payroll padding indictment still stood against Rep. Ernest K. Bramblett (R-Calif) today after a judge's denial of all defense attacks upon it.

Barring new defense moves, a ruling late yesterday by U. S. District Judge F. Dickinson Letts paved the way for Bramblett's trial to start Dec. 2.

* * *

Bramblett's attorney, Edward Bennett Williams, argued that all 18 counts against the lawmaker should be thrown out for one legal reason or another.

In addition to upholding the indictment in its entirety, Judge Letts denied as a "fishing expedition" a defense motion for permission to inspect the minutes of the grand jury which indicted Bramblett June 18. He denied, too, a defense request for permission to see statements made by Mrs. Olga Hardaway to FBI agents.

* * *

Bramblett is accused of putting Mrs. Hardaway of Santa Barbara, Calif., and Mrs. Margaret Swanson of Arlington, Va., on his office payroll and taking kickbacks from them. The government contends neither woman did any work to earn their salaries.

Williams said the first seven counts, concerned with the putting of Mrs. Swanson on the payroll, were barred by the statute of limitations because the indictment was returned more than three years after Bramflett certified her as a clerk.

Judge Letts, by his ruling, adopted the position of Asst. U.S. Dist. Atty. William Becker that the alleged offense continued each month Mrs. Swanson remained on the payroll. He said this brought the indictment well within the three-year limitation on legal action.

Chinese Nationalist Pair Lambaste Soviet Russia

TAIPEH, Formosa (UP)—Nationalist China officially observed the eighth anniversary of the United Nations today with ceremonies at which the two principal speakers lambasted Soviet Russia.

Chu Chia-Hua, a former Nationalist vice premier, called for the expulsion of Russia and her satellites from the world body. And O. K. Yui, governor of Formosa, declared that Soviet vetoes in the Security Council have paralyzed the U. N.

Short Session Is Hoped For

U.S. Envoy to U.N.-Red Meeting Says Decision Possible in 2 Weeks

SEOUL (AP)—Special U. S. Envoy Arthur Dean said today he is hopeful it will take no more than "10 days to two weeks" of discussions with the Communists to complete arrangements for a Korean political conference.

"If we can't get a decision in 10 days or two weeks we probably can't get any agreement at all," he added.

Dean, who opens the preliminary talks Monday, emphasized that he has no intention of letting the Reds maneuver the sessions into a "de facto political conference."

The U. S. State Department official, who will speak for the U. N. Command during the talks, told a news conference he has no idea who will represent the Communists.

He repeated that as far as he is concerned the talks will be limited to fixing a time and place for the full dress talks. But Dean said he would listen to anything new the Reds may have to say.

Dean met newsmen shortly after conferring here with South Korea's President Syngman Rhee. He said they agreed that South Korea will have an observer at the preliminary talks.

Informed quarters had reported earlier that the observer would be Col. Lee Soo Yung, a ROK staff officer during the prolonged armistice negotiations.

Dean flew to Korea from Japan Saturday for a round of top level conferences before going to the Allied truce headquarters at Munsan.

Ellis O. Briggs, U. S. ambassador to Korea, flew here with Dean and the two conferred with George Allen, U. S. ambassador to India, who also is in Korea. Accompanying Dean is Lt. Gen. William K. Harrison, who negotiated final details of the Korean truce.

Communist and Allied officers at Panmunjom finally agreed Saturday that the preliminary talks will be held on the armistice demarcation line. The Communists had insisted that the meetings be held in the village of Panmunjom, which is north of the demarcation line.

Agreement on the conference site still must be approved by the Allied and Communist high commands.

Ministry Confirms Desertion of Flier

SEOUL (AP)—The Defense Ministry today confirmed the defection of a South Korean pilot with an F51 Mustang fighter plane to Communist North Korea.

The ministry identified the deserter as Capt. Kim Sung Bai, 27, air instructor in the Republic of Korea Air Force.

The official announcement said the plane took off from a ROK air base at Sachon in southwest Korea. It did not say when it happened. But the flight was reported last Monday by Communist correspondents at Panmunjom.

The Defense Ministry said Kim had been grounded because of carelessness that had caused two crashes.

Haymes Is Tied Up Any Way He Turns

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (UP) — When Singer Dick Haymes failed to appear in court to explain the charge of his former wife, actress Joanne Dru, that he is almost $2,400 behind in payments for support of their three children, the court issued a bench warrant.

But service was deferred pending Haymes' appearance Oct. 28 at an immigration hearing on his deportation to Argentina, where he was born.

* * *

Haymes' lawyer, David Marcus, appeared in court yesterday and said the crooner has no funds because the federal government has levied on all his salary for back income taxes.

The government seeks to deport the singer on grounds he illegally reentered the continental limits last summer after visiting Rita Hayworth in Honolulu. She is now his wife.

Security Policy Lops Off 1,456

Eisenhower Program Is Forcing Workers Out of Government Jobs

WASHINGTON (UP)—The White House says 1,456 government employes have been fired or forced to resign under President Eisenhower's new security program since it went into operation May 27.

These removals from the government payroll are apart from the separation of 145,000 other federal employes for economy reasons, presidential Press Secretary James C. Hagerty told newsmen yesterday.

* * *

The number of security removals under the Eisenhower program compares with these figures for the old loyalty program which operated for five years under former President Truman.

Five hundred sixty persons were found ineligible for employment on loyalty grounds and either not hired or fired. While FBI investigations of applicants or employes were under way, 2,748 persons either quit or withdrew their job applications. In all, the FBI made 26,236 investigations. Another 3,634 persons quit their jobs after their cases went to a loyalty review board.

Officials say the security grounds for firing, or non-employment, under the Eisenhower program, are broader than the loyalty standards under the Truman program. The present directive provides for getting rid of persons classed as drunks, homosexuals, loose talkers and others considered bad security risks as well as outright subversives.

Hagerty said none of the security separations in the period covered by the report, May 27 through Sept. 30, was based on refusal to testify before congressional committees. He said all but five of those removed had been employed by previous administrations. The five had been fired pending investigation, he said.

Thief Gets $48 Just by Calling Cafe on Phone

DALLAS, Tex. — Police looked into a new crime wrinkle today and hoped the new practice wouldn't spread.

A 49-year-old cashier at a cafe told officers she took a call Thursday night and heard a voice say: "Ever hear of robbery by telephone? It's a new thing we're starting and we're going to make it work."

The male voice instructed the woman to package the money, take it half a block away and leave it in a doorway. The voice threatened the woman's life and told her she was being watched.

The robbers wound up with $48 for their nickel call.

Nixon in Singapore to Observe U.N. Day

SINGAPORE (UP) — U. S. Vice President Richard Nixon, on an official tour of the Far East, flew here today from Jakarta, Indonesia.

He was scheduled to speak at Victoria Memorial Hall during an observance of United Nations Day and confer with British Commissioner Gen. Malcolm MacDonald and other officials. He leaves next Tuesday for Bangkok, Thailand.

His visit to the British crown colony coincided with a goodwill visit by the U. S. aircraft carrier Lake Champlain. It docked with four destroyer escorts—the Caperton, Daskiell, Darteh and Gatling. The ships are enroute home from Korea.

Gen. Weyland, commander of U. S. Far East Air Forces, was another ranking American in Singapore today. He is here for top - level talks with British airmen.

'Caine Mutiny' Court Scene, 'Good Theater'

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "The Caine Mutiny Court Martial" is wending its way up the Pacific Coast on the first leg of a lengthy tour that will reach New York Jan. 13. It should meet with success all along the way.

I caught the play at Pomona College in Claremont, Calif., and can report that it is stirring theater. The magic touch of Paul Gregory, who brought forth "Don Juan in Hell" and "John Brown's Body," is as golden as ever.

Unlike the two previous attractions, "Court Martial" is offered with scenery and costumes. The scene is the bare court room on Mare Island, and the all-male cast wear naval uniforms. The playgoers arrive at the theater to find the curtain up, thus making them feel like observers at a trial. When the play is ready to begin, two sailors come onstage to straighten up the place. Then the other players begin to arrive.

The play starts slowly, with an exposition of facts that seem to tighten the ring of guilt around the defendent, Lt. Maryk (John Hodiak). Capt. Queeg (Lloyd Nolan), who was forcibly relieved at sea by Maryk, testifies his scorn for the action with apparent rationality.

The defense attorney (Henry Fonda) appears unwilling or unable to stem the flow of incriminating evidence. He is even admonished by the presiding officer of the court.

When then Fonda goes to work. He prowls tiger-like around the witness chair as he ensnarls naval physchiatrists in their own words. He brings Nolan back to the stand for the kill.

In one of the most beautifully sustained scenes of the theater, Nolan rants on, exposing Queeg as the irrational tyrant that he is.

Despite the static nature of the play—it remains in the court except for a brief hotel celebration afterwards—there is never a let down. Even though the majority of the hep Pomona College crowd had read "The Caine Mutiny," there was still an air of suspense. The laughs rocked the huge auditorium, and the dramatic moments brought pin-dropping silence.

Fonda, in a role that will be compared to "Mister Roberts," does a beautifully modulated job. There's nothing flashy in it until the final scene, when he blasts the real instigator of the mutiny. Nolan has the role of a lifetime and plays it to the hilt. Hodiak in a less showy part, is the perfect Maryk.

Much praise is due Herman Wouk, for a spare adaptation of his lengthy novel. Direction is credited to Dick Powell, although Charles Laughton finished up the job when Powell reportedly tiffed with Fonda. Whoever directed the show did a fine piece of work.

Skippers Shock Berkley, 41-7

By JACK SAYLOR

Waterford's surprisingly easy victory over Berkley featured a busy football day among Oakland County area preps Friday.

Berkley entered the game as co-leader in the Inter-Lakes Conference and a slight favorite over the Skippers. While the win itself by Walt Ashley's eleven was no shock, the victory margin was.

Skipper "Touchdown Twins," Ray Campbell and Kerry Keating, paced Waterford to a 41-7 rout. With this assist, Van Dyke took undisputed possession of first place in the I-L by downing Southfield, 14-3.

Walled Lake won its 1st game of the season, 13-0, over Farmington. Northville solidified its Wayne-Oakland lead with a 27-6 triumph over Clarkston. Improving Milford tripped Brighton, 20-6, while slumping Holly lost its 3rd straight at Clarenceville, 13-0.

Romeo blanked Oxford, 6-0, as the Bulldogs made its only drive of the night pay off. Bernie Carter scored from the two. Ed Leach's two touchdowns paced Lake Orion to a 15-0 homecoming victory over South Lake.

Rochester's homecoming against Lapeer, Friday, was a really successful affair. Falcons dumped their visitors, 19-0, with two TDs coming in the first half. The win gives Rochester a 4-2 record. Jerry LeBarre was the shining star both on offense and defense and scored one TD, ran for an extra point. Other tallies were counted by Max Powell, in the 2nd, on a pass from Rog Forbush, while Paul Dellaire's 30 yard dash on a handoff in the first minute of the same period accounted for the Falcon total.

Lapeer was never inside Falcons' 20 yard stripe.

A crowd of 2,900 saw the contest.

Waterford broke open its game in the second half. Keating scored on a five-yard run in the first period and Campbell went 30 yards for a 2nd-quarter TD, but Berkley opened the second half with a touchdown drive capped by Harry Berman.

After the kickoff, Keating broke away for 72 yards and a touchdown and that was the turning point.

In the 4th period, Dick Tims ran 25 yards with a fumble; Campbell scored from the six after Keating's interception; Steve Ryeson scooted 53 yards with a pass interception; and Chuck Schack nailed a Berkley runner in the end zone for a safety.

* * *

Jim Simmons' 24-yard field goal gave Southfield a 3-0 halftime lead over Van Dyke, but Johnny Malone & Co. got rolling in the 2nd half to preserve its unbeaten record.

Malone scored twice (he has 11 touchdowns this year) and passed for both extra points.

Jerry Winterhalter directed Milford's conquest of Brighton. He scored the 1st TD on a seven-yard run, then passed to Don Perkuchin and Don Colegrove for tallies on 30-yard plays.

Pass interceptions set up both Clarenceville touchdowns as Holly bowed for the 3rd straight time since its 13-game win streak was halted.

* * *

Avondale and Troy won Oakland-B Conference games. Johnny Engstrom and Marv Evans each scored twice as Avon dumped Clawson 26-6. Norm Norton had a pair of TD's in Troy's 38-0 win over Madison.

LUMBERJACK STOPPED — Safetyman Lee Quince (38) halts Arthur Hill halfback Bob Plater (12) after a short gain in the final period of Friday night's Pontiac-Arthur Hill game here. Coming in to assist on the tackle is George Thrasher (30), Pontiac tackle. Lumberjacks won the game, 18-13.

Engineers Confident They Can Halt ND Drive; 'M' Must Win Today to Stay in Big 10 Race

NEW YORK (AP)—Mighty Notre Dame, the No. 1 team in the country, meets its most formidable foe of the season today—Georgia Tech, nursing an undefeated streak of 31 games.

This is the big one of a day that could shed light on several conference races and perhaps even decide a couple of bowl participants. In the Big 10, Michigan must beat Minnesota to stay in the race, while in the Pacific Coast Conference the big one is Southern California and California.

And in the always-whacky Southwest Conference, Baylor, the shaky favorite rates only seven points over the Texas Aggies. Rice, the early season favorite, plays Texas. Baylor is No. 6 in the Associated Press poll but in the scramble for the Southwest Conference title and the Cotton Bowl bid that goes with it, any of the others could sneak in.

Maryland, rated No. 3 in the country right behind Notre Dame and Michigan State, won't have any worries. The Terps played Miami last night and enjoyed a brisk workout to the tune of 30-0.

Michigan State has a soft assignment in Purdue in a Big 10 meeting, Illinois, another league power, entertains Syracuse in an intersectional game. Oklahoma, the defending champion in the Big 7, plays Colorado in a conference game. West Virginia, No. 9, tackles Virginia Military Institute.

* * *

Of all the schools in the first 10, Navy seems to be in the most precarious position. The Middies, who slaughtered Princeton last week, tangle with Penn, a rugged crew despite a couple of defeats.

* * *

There is no one television game of the week. Instead, four games will be televised in a panoramic experiment with the scene shifting from one to another, wherever the action is hottest. The viewers around the country will get snatches of the Princeton-Cornell, Illinois-Syracuse, Iowa - Indiana and Arkansas - Mississippi games over NBC starting at 2:45 p.m. (EST).

Maples Win on Statistics, but Still Settle for Tie

Birmingham High School's football team won the battle of statistics Friday night but had to settle for a 0-0 tie with East Detroit in an Eastern Michigan League game on the Shamrocks' gridiron.

Maples dominated play throughout, but lacked the punch to put across the scoring play.

A second-quarter drive halted at the East Detroit 36 when wingback John Appleford fumbled. After intermission, Dave Allen sparked a drive which carried to the Shamrock 19.

However, with fourth down, one yard to go, a quarterback sneak failed to pick up the necessary yardage. East Detroit then put on its best sustained drive, marching to the Birmingham 15.

Appleford made up for his earlier fumble by dropping on a Shamrock bobble. Maples got another break on a punt exchange which put Birmingham on the East Detroit 40.

Appleford turned left end to the 29 and Tom Beck featured a push to the six. With only seconds remaining, Beck's fourth-down pass to Appleford in the end zone was broken up.

One play later, time ran out.

State Planning Probe of Bout

'No Contest' Ruling in Moore-Prado Fight to Be Investigated

DETROIT (AP)—Michigan athletic board of control plans to investigate a "no contest" ruling in a Thursday fight at Grand Rapids between Davey Moore and Chili Bean Prado of Detroit.

Moore's manager, Lenny Myers of Chicago, demanded the investigation and insisted Moore, 126-pound Olympic champion from Springfield, Ohio, should have been given a decision. Board secretary Bill Matney said he would get the investigation.

Referee Bill Rings declared the Moore-Padro bout "no contest" after Prado fell through the ring's exceptionally loose ropes and injured his back.

Matney said the board of control could take no action pending reports from rings and other officials at the fight. But, he added, the matter will be pursued.

Frustrated Viewers

Four-Game TV Panorama May Bring Wrath of Fan Upon NBC Director

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP)—For the first time on any planet, the sports fans of this nation will be privileged today to try to witness four football games at one and the same time, the only requirement being that they have kept up the installments on their television sets.

* * *

Many persons contend it is difficult to watch even one football contest and keep track of the ball in this day when the backfielders scattered like quail on nearly every play, but this has not deterred Tom Gallery, the sports director of NBC. He's going to put on four, or what he considers to be the best parts of same, and our prediction is that Tom also is going to have the cries of frustrated fans ringing in his ears for weeks to come.

In case you haven't read of it elsewhere, the plan is this: Cameras will be grinding away steadily at each of the four games scattered through the East, South and Midwest, and the images they pick up will be shown simultaneously on four screens in what the network calls its master control center.

* * *

So far, so good, but from there on it gets ticklish. Gallery, or somebody, has to sit there and look at all four screens and arbitrarily tell millions of televiewers which of the four games they want to see at any given time. That's where Tom and the NBC can't fail to run into trouble.

For the advent of such a scheme, it perhaps is fortunate that none of today's four is an especially hot game from the national viewpoint. They are, rather, what might be classified as program pieces—Arkansas vs. Mississippi, Cornell vs. Princeton, Syracuse vs. Illinois, and Indiana vs. Iowa.

We say this is a fortunate circumstance, for you can imagine what would happen if one of the day's mammoths, say Notre Dame vs. Georgia Tech, was one of the quartet and, along about the fourth period of that struggle, someone in the master control room should decide that a peek at the Cornell-Princeton fray was in order.

Illini Is Rated 3-TD Edge Over Orange

CHAMPAIGN, Il. (AP) — Illinois today throws the nation's best ground attack against Syracuse, a rugged defensive football team that could be much tougher than the three-touchdown underdog it is rated.

* * *

Syracuse has a line averaging 215 pounds per man and is ranked third in the nation defending against rushes. New Yorkers have lost only one game in four — a final-minute decision to Penn State last week. Pat Stark and Bruce Yancey spark a nifty passing attack.

Illinois is rated the country's No. 1 ground-gaining team, mostly because of the yardage reeled off by their sophomore stars, J. C. Caroline and Mickey Bates.

Panter Defeats Langlois; Pierre Ill, Says Managers

NEW YORK (AP)—Here you are folks, read all about the new French mystery, "cherchez la flu."

* * *

Did Pierre Langlois of France have the flu last night when he lost a split 10-round decision to Garth Panter in Madison Square Garden? Well, he did and he didn't.

* * *

"Pierre had the bad cold—the flu—yesterday," said co-manager Jean Bretonnel. "But we did not wish to—how you say—disappoint Monsieur Billy Brown. (Garden matchmaker)."

As George Kantor picked up the same chanson (song), and Langlois sat with his head down on a rubbing table, in came Dr. Vincent Nardiello, the New York State Athletic Commission physician, accompanied by Dan Dowd, executive secretary of the commission.

* * *

"Flu? Nuts," said the irate doctor. "He was in perfect physical condition, no temperature, no flu, no cold."

Kantor, alarmed at the sudden turn of events, said, "No, it wasn't the flu. Just a cold."

"Cold? Nuts," shouted the doctor as he stomped out.

"Fellows, it wasn't any cold," said Kantor to boxing writers. "He was in good shape. He just had heavy legs."

Then the word came that Langlois' purse had been held up and a hearing set for Monday morning.

Asked if this report was true, Bretonnel shook his head sadly. "Yes, it is big mistake. He was in fine condition."

* * *

The body punching Panter from Salt Lake City took the votes of the judges, Artie Aidala and Harold Bares, 5-4-1. Referee Ray Miller had Langlois on top 5-4-1. The AP card was 5-5.

Durando Beats Humez

PARIS, France (UP) — Ernie (the Rock) Durando of Bayonne, N. J., was yelling for a shot at the middleweight title today because of his thundering upset kayo over Charles Humez of France.

A non-winner in three previous fights this year in the United States, Durando shocked Humez and 12,000 fans at the Palais Des Sports Friday night by knocking out the favored Frenchman in the sixth round with a right-left combination.

Chiefs' Final-Quarter Rally Falls Short in 18-13 Defeat

By BILL MARTIN

Too little and too late!

That was the story of a 4th-quarter rally by Pontiac High's football team Friday night as the Chiefs dropped their 3rd consecutive Saginaw Valley Conference decision, 18-13, to Arthur Hill here.

Trailing 12-0 going into the final period, Coach Ed Graybiel's crew staged an inspired drive in the last 12 minutes of play to take a brief lead but lost it moments later when fleet Arthur Hill halfback Harvey Wolfe shook loose on a 69-yard scoring dash.

Chiefs bounced back to move to the Lumberjacks' 16 before an intercepted pass ended their threat.

Arthur Hill's 1st touchdown came early in the 2nd period, when Wolfe, the game's leading ground gainer, scampered 35 yards. 'Jacks capitalized on a Chief fumble late in the period to rack up another marker. Walt Poe fumbled on a line plunge, and guard Jim Rappuhn recovered to "lumber" 28 yards to the goal line. Both conversion kicks were blocked.

Pontiac staved off one Arthur Hill thrust in the 3rd quarter, and drove 56 yards after recovery of a Lumberjack fumble for its 1st tally in the finale. Homer Harrison cracked over from the two after quarterback Dick Ayling set up the score with a 16-yard run. Ayling's extra point try fell short.

Chiefs' 2nd touchdown was a repetition of Arthur Hill's 2nd score. Halfback Floyd Wright fumbled on his own 18. Bill Rose grabbed the bouncing ball and zipped into the end zone. Ayling's kick was good, and Pontiac had a short-lived 13-12 edge.

Wolfe iced the game on the 2nd play following the kickoff, rounding his right end and outrunning three PHS defensemen for 69 yards and the winning TD.

Pontiac made one more bid, reaching the Lumberjacks' 16-yard line with less than a minute to play. Losses and a penalty set the Chiefs back to the 26, and end Bill Feldt picked off Dick Ayling's pass to halt the drive.

Wolfe, with 134 yards in nine tries, paced the Lumberjacks. Ayling collected 41 yards in four option plays to lead Pontiac.

PHS eleven goes to Royal Oak for a non-league contest next Friday.

60,000 to See UM, Gophers in Battle of Jug

Wolverines Accorded Slight Edge; McDonald Rated Big Threat

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Undefeated Michigan hurled its classy offense against embattled Minnesota today in the 50th anniversary game of one of football's famed rivalries—the Little Brown Jug series.

Some 60,000 fans were expected to watch the sruggle in 60 degree weather.

Michigan unbeaten in the series since 1942 and at least a one touchdown favorite today, carried just the kind of weapons that have given the thrice-beaten Gophers loads of trouble.

Michigan's passing game packs authority and versatility. Wolverines were ready to probe Minnesota's none too stable pass defense with the aeriel thrusts of Duncan McDonald, Ted Kress and Lou Baldacci. McDonald could see considerably more action than last week against Northwestern, when he pitched three touchdown passes in around 10 minutes of playing time.

Minnesota, hurt and angry after losses to Southern California, Michigan State and Illinois, was firmly determined to short-circuit another Michigan Rose Bowl drive.

Gophers once more were tying their hopes to Paul Giel and a power attack which scared Illinois for one half and battered Northwestern.

Aside from one or two injuries, both teams were in near peak condition.

Midget Football Night Scheduled for Tonight

Midget Football Night, featuring six games involving teams from the city's junior grid leagues, will be held tonight at 7 p.m. at Wisner Memorial Stadium.

Advance ticket sales indicate a crowd of more than 1200 will turn out to watch the youngsters play. Tickets will go on sale at the stadium ticket office at 6:30 p.m.

Early-morning rain threatened to slow action, but the program will be held despite weather conditions.

Fifth-grade games match Bagley vs. Crofoot, Webster vs. McCarroll, Longfellow - Malkim vs. Wisner, and Emerson-Hawthorne-Owen - Roosevelt - Whittier -Willis vs. McConnell - Whitfield - Wilson. Jefferson will meet Washington and Lincoln will oppose Eastern-Wever in 7th-grade contests.

Michigan State Top Favorite to Rack Up No. 29

Winless Boilermakers Given Little Chance to Stop Spartan March

LAFAYETTE, Ind. (AP)—Michigan States powerful Spartans were an overwhelming favorite to run their victory to 29 today against winless Purdue's injury - hobbles Boilermakers.

The Spartans, ranked No. 2 in the nation, were reported in excellent physical condition. Billy Wells and Evan Slonac were expected to take over the major share of MSC's running duties with Tom Yewcic's arm guiding the passing game.

Purdue will be without its No. 1 quarterback, Roy Evans, and its top fullback, Max Schmaling. Evans suffered a shoulder separation in practice this week. Schmaling has been on the sidelines with injuries for two games.

Last year, under similar circumstances, Michigan State barely escaped with a 14-7 victory.

Crucial Games Slated Sunday

Four top teams in the Suburban Catholic League class Sunday in direct bearings on the conference's direct bearings on the conference's championship.

St. Michael's Shamrocks, who last week handed St. Rita its 1st loss in league play, go to Highland Park to meet once-beaten St. Benedict. St. Rita plays host to Royal Oak St. Mary in another meeting of once-beaten elevens.

St. Frederick and Orchard Lake St. Mary, tied for last place, clash at the Eaglets' home field.

Sunday's games are the last league contests before the annual St. Frederick-St. Michael meeting for the city's parochial championship next Friday night in Wisner Memorial Stadium.

Lions, 49er Tilt Pro Ball's Big Weekend Scrap

Detroit, 'Frisco Clubs Both Hit by Injuries to Key Players

By BEN OLAN

NEW YORK (AP) — Defending champion Detroit Lions tangle with the San Francisco 49ers tomorrow in what looms as the big National Football League game on a full slate of six week-end tilts.

The 'Frisco club, playing at home, will be out to reverse a 24-21 decision it dropped to the Lions in Detroit two weeks ago. This one should go a long way toward deciding winner of the Western Conference title. Both clubs, along with the powerful Los Angeles Rams, are tied for the lead with three wins and one loss apiece.

Tonight, Green Bay Packers take on Pittsburgh Steelers in Pittsburgh. Other action tomorrow pits the unbeaten Cleveland Browns against New York Giants, Chicago Bears and Los Angeles, the Philadelphia Eagles and Chicago Cardinals and Washington Redskins and Baltimore Colts.

San Francisco again will be minus the services of Y. A. Tittle, its pin-point passer who is out with a broken cheekbone. But the 49ers have an able replacement in Jimmy Powers and the league's leading ground-gainer, Joe Perry.

Lions, handed their first setback of the year last Sunday by Los Angeles, may be hampered by Bobby Layne's hand injury. Layne, their big aerial threat, is expected to see only limited action.

With Otto Graham at his peak, Cleveland rules a solid favorite to whip the thrice-beaten Giants.

Los Angeles, mainly depending on the pitches of Norm Van Brocklin, appears a good bet to continue on top in the Western Division. Bears have been a disappointment so far with only one victory in four starts.

Washington, which led Cleveland for most of the going last week, only to lose out in the final quarter, again will depend on the tosses of rookie Jack Scarbath and Eddie Lebaron. Baltimore will be anxious to look good before the home folks, particularly against their "neighborhood" rival.

Cardinals seek their first win of the season in their game with the Eagles.

Green Bay, off its resounding 37-14 victory over Baltimore last Sunday, may spring an upset over Pittsubrgh tonight. Steelers are listed as seven-point favorites.

Rams Opening Vital Home Stand Sunday

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Los Angeles Rams open a vital three-game home series tomorrow in Memorial Coliseum and the outcome will go a long way toward deciding the Western Conference championship of the National Football League.

Famed Chicago Bears are first in the string, followed by the Detroit Lions and then the San Francisco 49ers. Rams, Lions and 49ers are tied for the top spot in the division, each with three victories and one defeat.

Builder Uses Clean Lines in Own Home

By HAZEL A. TRUMBLE

When a mechanical drawing and architectural teacher deserts the classroom for other fields of endeavor, he doesn't pack up his compasses, scales, T-squares and triangles—he puts them to work.

This is what happened to Harry Stevens, of 1356 Fairfax Ave., Birmingham.

Several years ago Stevens went from the drawing board to the construction business. Today his own new house and others he is building testifies to his love for precision and correct perspection.

Fine building materials plus precise handling plus clean, simple design equals good building, claims Stevens.

Woods ranging from mahogany paneling in the den to pickled birch and pine in the kitchen highlight the house.

Korena, a rich honey-toned wood, is used in the wide hallway which connects the different areas of the house. Floor of this room is in soft tones of natural slate.

The living room has two scenic walls in soft gray-green. A pair of French countryside scenes sets the color scheme for this room. "La Mogue," with its gray-green background is flanked by two long walls of plain gray-green. Furnishings are in deeper green velveteen and tapestry pieces.

A mahogany breakfront faces one wall, and other pieces are in this same wood. A raspberry chair is the one high color picked up from the scenic wallpaper.

The fireplace, with its formal mantel, is faced with Vermont marble, and brass accessories are used.

The activity room, which Mrs. Stevens says is the favorite family room for fun, is located at the back of the house and has a large picture window looking into the living room and a group facing the backyard.

Ceiling of this knotty pine room is an intricate arrangement of rectangular and square pieces of pine. One wall has a corner ledgerock fireplace and an accompanying cupboard facility of pine. The sliding doors on this conceal a refrigerator and pantry storage.

Furnishings for the room are in red and brown. Twin chairs upholstered in plastic coated tapestry wipe off easily, says Mrs. Stevens.

A kitchen that faced the front of the house was Mrs. Stevens' request. Doors of the cupboards are in pickled pine and chair height paneling for this room is pickled birch.

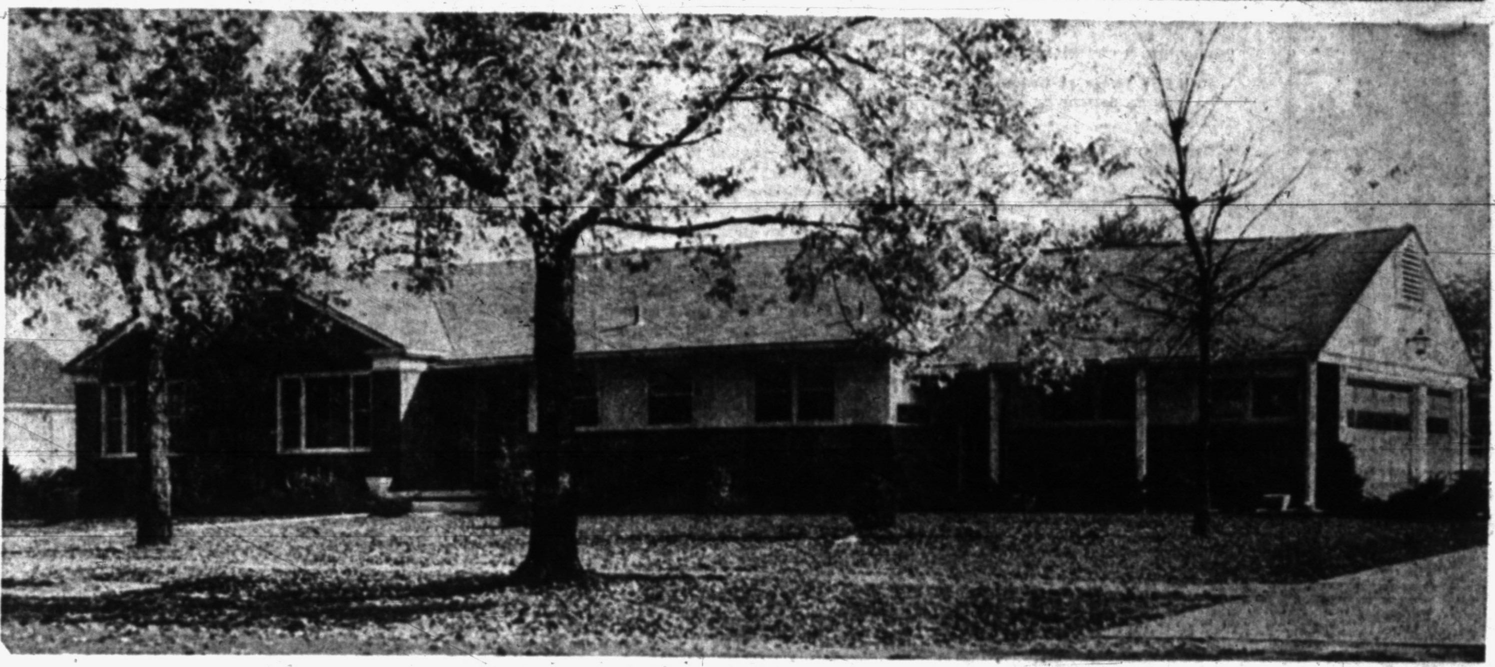
Green counters and walls provide color for this light room. To give extra light for the work counters, a rectangular window of frosted glass is inserted between the cupboard and the counter.

Three bedrooms and a tiled bath with shower and dressing room are located in the north wing of the house. A den paneled in mahogany is just inside the front entrance and another bathroom with dressing room.

A full basement with recreation room, laundry and furnace room is included in the Stevens' home and a three-car garage is attached to the house.

Enjoying their outdoors during the warm months of the year, Mr. and Mrs. Stevens have constructed a barbecue and outdoor fireplace with patio. To conceal this area from the street, a louvered redwood screen is placed along the driveway.

Measuring 86 by 36 feet, the exterior of the house is of brick, ledgerock and white wood. A semi-porch runs along the outside of the three-car garage.



ON BIRMINGHAM'S FAIRFAX—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stevens of 1356 Fairfax Ave., Birmingham, wanted a ranch style home, but they also wanted a touch of the colonial. With the help of white wood pillars along the semi-porch of the three-car garage, and the use of white wood siding placed to break the straight lines of brick and ledgerock, they succeeded in having a modified ranch style home. Seven rooms and two bathrooms, plus a full basement with recreation and laundry rooms, are contained in this structure.

Modern Styling in Door Handles

Porcelain Knobs Allow Wide Variety in Color and New Patterns

The poets have talked about "the hands you love to touch." Now the decorators are talking about "the door handles you love to clutch."

Door knobs — pedestrian and stereotyped in styling for years. —in popular price brackets — are no longer being neglected style-wise. An entire new line of door knobs within everyone's financial reach are created by designer Freda Diamond to encompass every style need for every room in the house — whether traditional or contemporary.

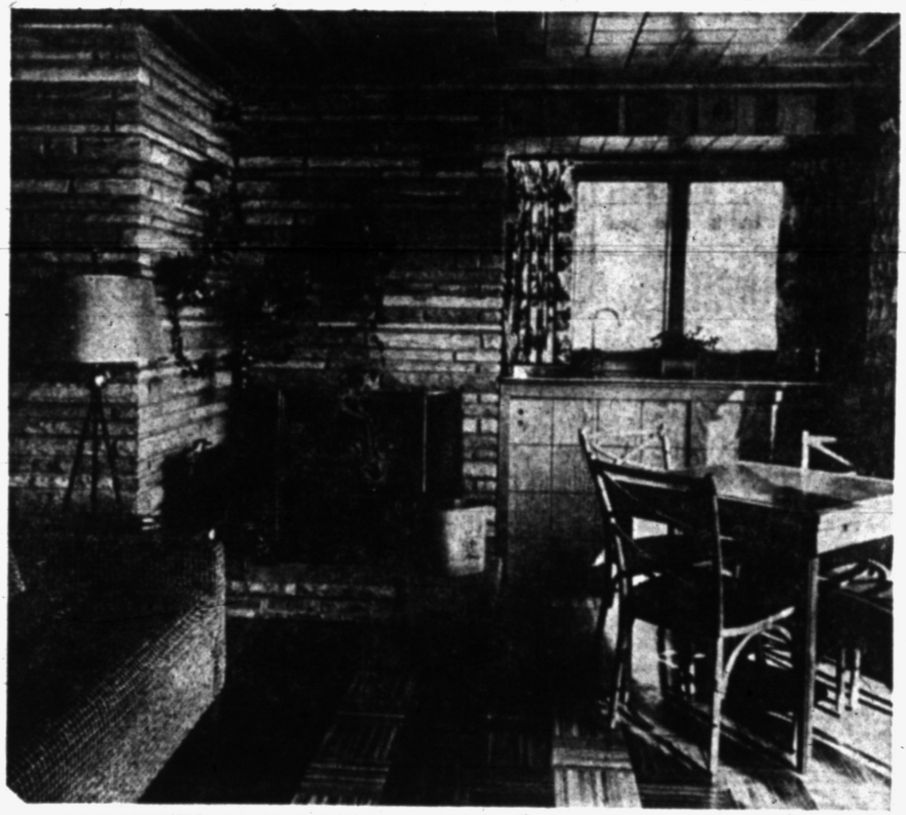
Known as Decor knobs, the new group includes twelve different patterns in three different shapes, accurately described as bell, tulip and ball.

All the knobs are porcelain, with designs ranging from charming hand-painted floral arrangements on white backgrounds with green trim and gold applique to solid greens, yellows, blues and muted Chinese reds.

Even black with speckled gold, black with gold spiral and a plaid motif are included, for those who fancy the exotic.

Special feature of the new line is the ease of installation. An all-purpose spindle, a rosette and a tube of special adhesive makes possible the elimination of screws in the simple installation procedure.

Colors, the manufacturer reports, are lasting because of a special fired-into-the-porcelain process. The durability of the porcelain, the concern states, compares favorably with those rich and rare old knobs created by English and French craftsmen of the 18th century, still in use in homes here as well as in England and France.



ACTIVITY ROOM CORNER—Room for family fun is what the Stevens' activity room is. Facing the backyard, with one large picture window looking into the living room and the others outside, it has a corner ledgerock fireplace and a knotty pine cupboard arrangement whose sliding doors conceal a refrigerator. Ceiling is an intricate pattern of square and rectangular pieces of pine. Upholstered chairs in this room are of plastic coated tapestry, which Mrs. Stevens says wipes off like oilcloth and are neither too cold nor too warm for comfortable seating.

Urban Areas Shrinking? No, Says Research Man

Our larger cities are not being decentralized and there is no indication that they will be, according to Max S. Wehrly, Executive Director, of the Urban Land Institute, of Washington, D. C., and independent research agency in the field of urban planning and development.

"Contrary to the dire predictions which have been made starting some 20 years ago, national population has not become static and urban areas have not, on the whole, lost population," Mr. Wehrly said.

"Two thirds of our population today is urban, and one half of the nation's people live in urban areas with a population of 50,000 or more. Between 1940 and 1950, the population of urban areas having 100,000 or more people increased by more than 6,000,000.

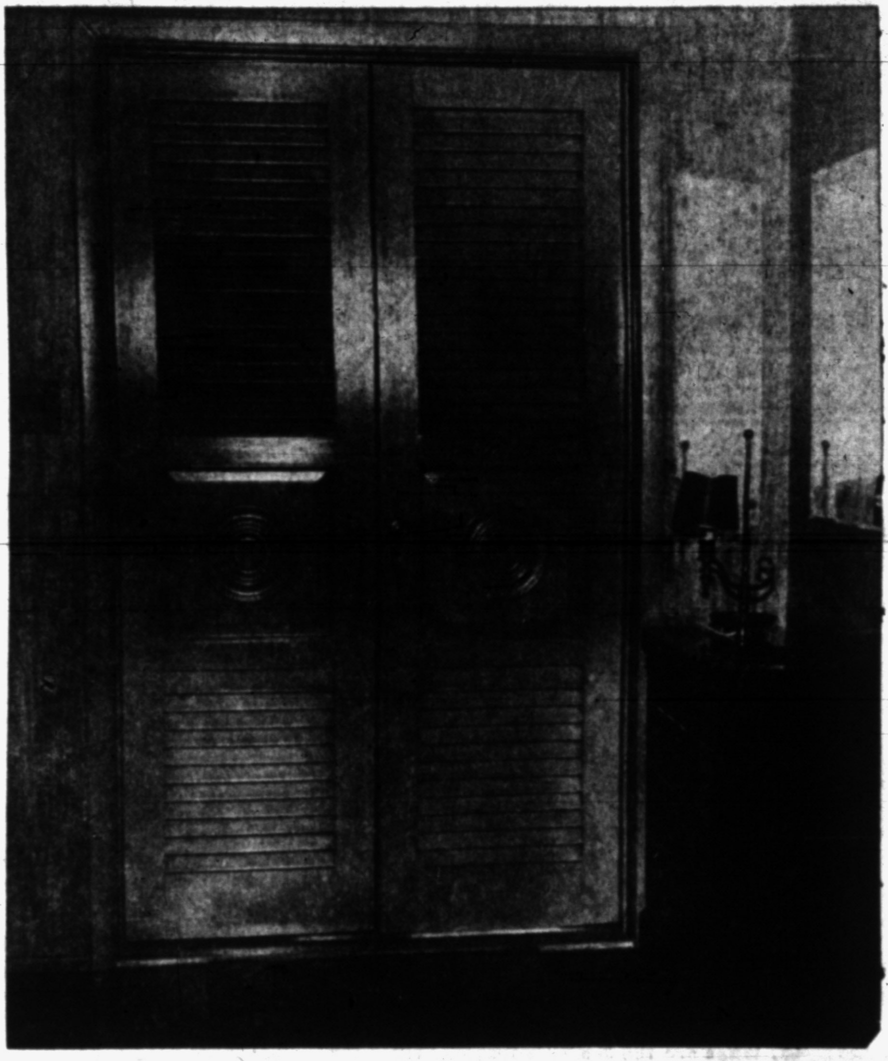
It is true that the form of our cities has been modified and that has come about because of improvements in transportation. The major change is seen in the rapid development of out-lying or fringe areas where so many of our new homes have been constructed in recent years.

"Actually this fringe development is principally urban growth which has been freed from limitations of location and distance formerly dictated by the streetcar line, the horse-drawn carriage, and the physical endurance of human legs.

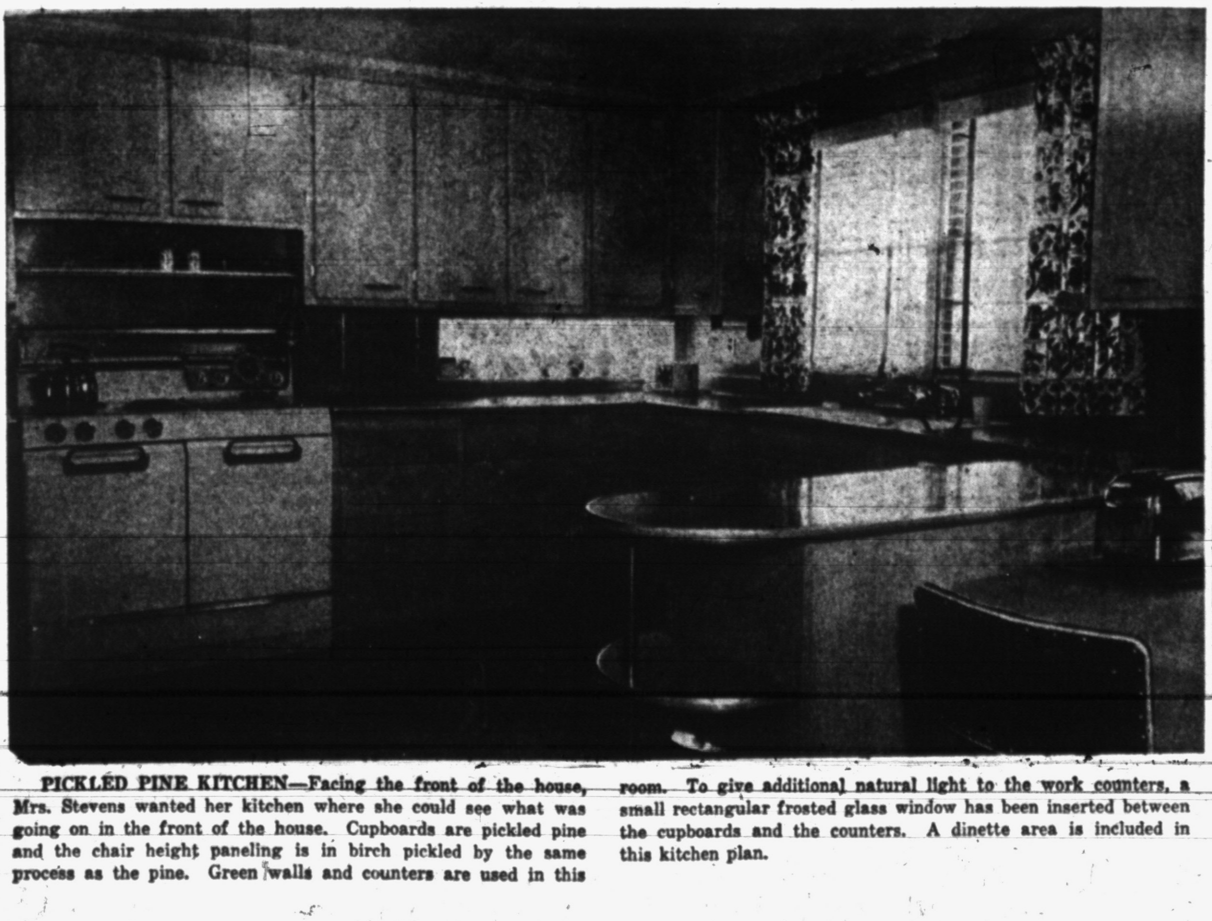
"These suburban or fringe areas contain some 21 million people, or less than one half as many as reside within corporate municipal boundaries.

"The fact is that our cities are continuing to grow, though at a slower rate than formerly, and that growth is creating a somewhat different city pattern, characterized by more openness and irregularity.

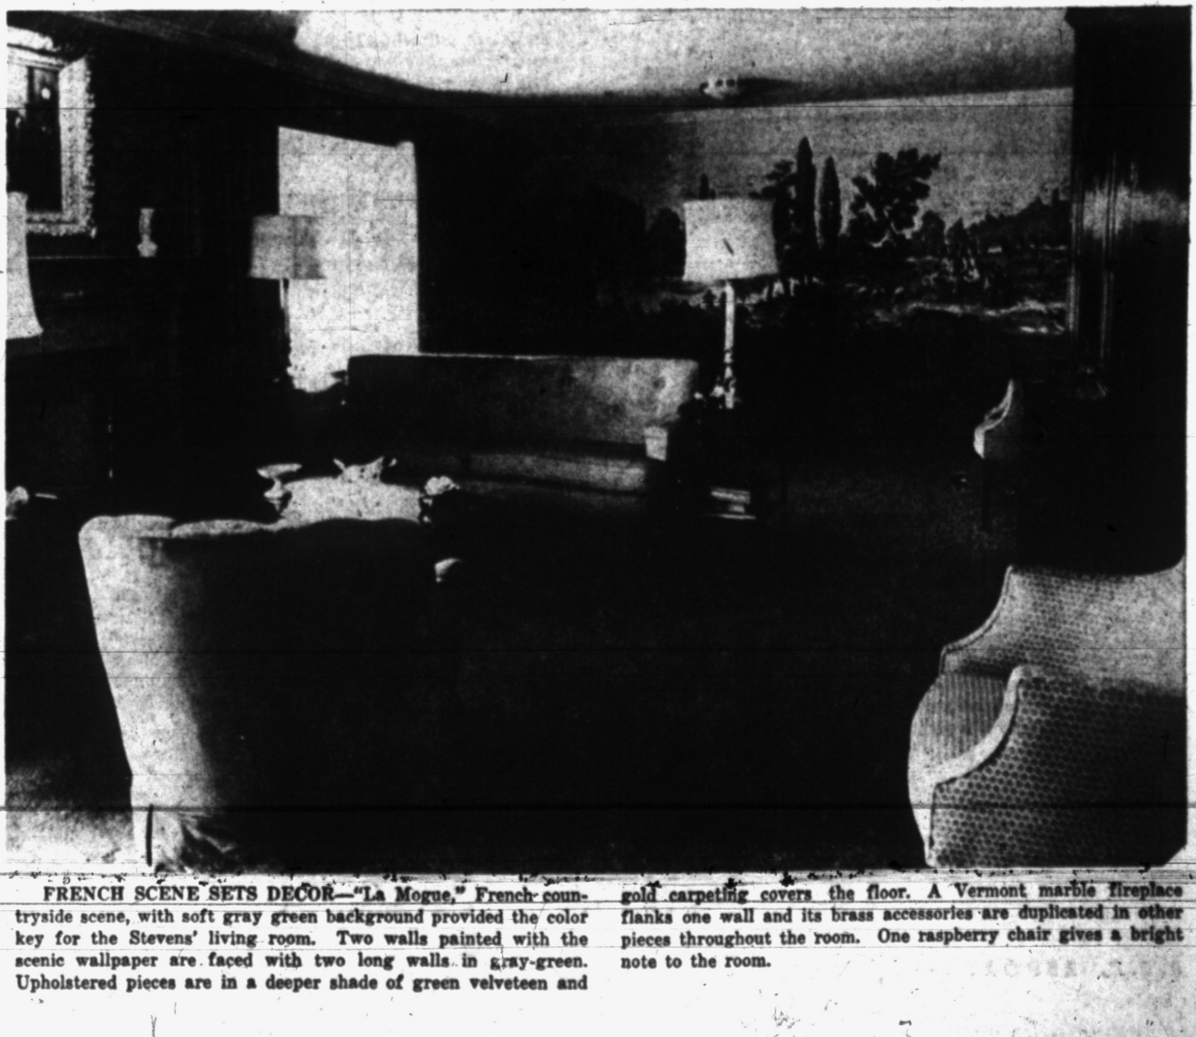
This pattern is being built into new industrial, commercial, and residential areas of cities.



DOORS FROM GODFREY—Arthur Godfrey's early TV appearances had sets which intrigued Harry Stevens so much he designed his living room doors along their lines. Made of pickled birch, they have louvered upper and lower sections with a center raised oval plate breaking the straight lines of the rest of the doors. Brass bars are used for opening and closing.



PICKLED PINE KITCHEN—Facing the front of the house, Mrs. Stevens wanted her kitchen where she could see what was going on in the front of the house. Cupboards are pickled pine and the chair height paneling is in birch pickled by the same process as the pine. Green walls and counters are used in this room. To give additional natural light to the work counters, a small rectangular frosted glass window has been inserted between the cupboards and the counters. A dinette area is included in this kitchen plan.



FRENCH SCENE SETS DECOR—"La Mogue," French countryside scene, with soft gray green background provided the color key for the Stevens' living room. Two walls painted with the scenic wallpaper are faced with two long walls in gray-green. Upholstered pieces are in a deeper shade of green velveteen and gold carpeting covers the floor. A Vermont marble fireplace flanks one wall and its brass accessories are duplicated in other pieces throughout the room. One raspberry chair gives a bright note to the room.

A single thickness of superfine fiber glass insulation quilted between drapes and liners will reduce cold down drafts around windows in winter and keep out heat in summer.

Bright Carpet 'Cozifies' Room

Certain Colors Bring Spirit of the Period Into the Home

If you have a large room with high ceilings and a northern exposure you may want to make the room look cozy and inviting. This can be done with a patterned carpet that has warm touches of color or with a solid color carpet in a bright shade: gold; turquoise; emerald green; lipstick red.

This kind of room seems to call for period furnishings and a rug or carpet in the spirit of the period.

A carpet with rose clusters framed by a silvery swirl motif on a gray ground would be a charming complement to 18th century furnishings. Bouquets of tulips, chrysanthemums, delphinium and roses on a warm beige ground would create an air of new warmth in a Victorian setting.

A bedroom would be so restful with a canopied and skirted four poster, billowy white curtains and a woven cotton rug adapted from an antique quilt pattern.

Mortgage Loan Merely Guarantee of Repayment

Unless you're an exceedingly rare person who can reach for the checkbook and calmly make out a check for several thousand dollars, a goodly chunk of your income for many years is committed when you sign a mortgage loan on a new home.

Finding the kind of loan that best fits the particular needs of your family isn't easy. There are many factors to be considered. Here are some pointers based on reports from government officials, banks and experts.

What is a mortgage loan? It's a string attached to your property by someone lending you money, as a guarantee that the loan will be repaid.

All loans are made to individuals by banks, savings and loan companies, and other institutions, or individuals. Even in FHA and GI loans the money actually comes from private sources, with the government providing insurance against loss for the lenders.

Because FHA and GI loans are guaranteed, the risk for lenders is decreased, allowing lower interest rates. At present, such rates are 4½ per cent on both FHA and GI loans. Rates on other loans usually run slightly higher; currently 5 per cent to 5½ per cent.

World War II and Korean veterans who have not used their GI loan rights are eligible for a GI loan. The Veterans Administration guarantees 60 per cent of the loan (of $7,500 — whichever is less), provided that credit and building requirements are met and that the purchase price does not exceed the VA appraisal.

Under the FHA plan, the maximum a person can borrow is 80 per cent of the appraised value of the house, with an absolute ceiling of $16,000, states the magazine. The maximum term for repayment is 25 years for new homes and 20 years for existing property.

Congress recently granted the President standby authority to allow more favorable FHA down payment and repayment rates when in his judgement conditions require it.

However, whether it's a GI, FHA or conventional mortgage loan, the lender ultimately determines the amount of the loan — within limits prescribed by the law. And the amount you can borrow will depend upon your income and credit standing.

First Glass Blocks Used 20 Years Ago

This year marks the 20th anniversary of the first commercial glass block.

Developed by the Owens-Illinois Glass Company for commercial use in 1933, more than 125,000,000 glass block, enough to fill 25 thousand freight cars, has since been used in all types of construction, including homes, factories, schools and farm buildings.

Lamps to Match Your Furniture

Makers to Coordinate Designs With the Other Features in Room

NEW YORK (INS) — Want a lamp that exactly matches the chair, the curtains or the ashtray?

For the first time in lamp manufacturing history, you can get that very thing.

Lamp makers are beginning to co-ordinate the design of lamps with other home furnishings, sometimes working directly with furniture manufacturers.

For instance, there's a colonial maple floor lamp with a wheel-type base — to match a colonial maple arm chair with a wheel-type base.

There's a ceramic lamp that exactly matches a set of ceramic ashtrays and serving plates.

There's another ceramic lamp with a "match-stick" shade which is a duplicate of the "match-stick" blind put out by a curtain company.

There's a set of lamps and occasional tables featuring identical bases and shades.

There are even lamp design-coordinated with large pieces of furniture, like cabinets and room dividers. One company makes brass and walnut lamps to match brass and walnut case pieces.

Questions and Answers about NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING

Q. What are the 3 most important rules for profitable newspaper advertising?

A. 1. Your advertising message should be newsy, friendly, informative, easy to read. Give facts and news about your merchandise and service.

2. Advertise regularly. Make your advertising do what successful salesmen do—call on customers and prospects consistently.

3. Insist on audited circulation reports that give you the FACTS about the audience that your sales messages will have when you buy newspaper advertising.

Q. Is there a measure for the value of newspaper circulation to an advertiser such as the standards a merchant uses in buying merchandise—for example, like STERLING on silver?

A. Yes—in the well known circulation standards of the AUDIT BUREAU OF CIRCULATIONS.

Q. What is the A.B.C.?

A. The A.B.C. is a cooperative, non-profit association of 3,450 advertisers, advertising agencies and publishers in the United States and Canada. Organized in 1914. Brought order out of advertising chaos by establishing a definition for paid circulation, rules and standards for measuring, auditing and reporting the circulations of newspapers and periodicals.

Q. What does A.B.C. do for me?

A. At regular intervals one of the Bureau's large staff of experienced circulation auditors makes a thorough audit of the circulation records of each publisher member. The results of each audit are published in an easy-to-read A.B.C. report for your use and protection when you buy newspaper advertising.

Q. What are the FACTS in A.B.C. reports?

A. A.B.C. reports tell you how much circulation, where it goes, how obtained and other FACTS that help you buy advertising as you would make any sound business investment—on the basis of known values and audited information.

Q. Are all publications eligible for A.B.C. membership?

A. No. Only those with paid circulation. This is important to advertisers because it is evidence that the paper is wanted and read.

Q. Is this newspaper a member of the Audit Bureau of Circulations?

A. Yes. We are proud of our circulation. We want you to know the FACTS about the audience your selling messages will have when they appear in these pages. Ask for a copy of our latest A.B.C. report.

To the FOLKS at HOME

Perhaps one of the best ways to make an easy dollar is to insert two or three lines in the classified section of any newspaper throughout the country offering housewives an easy chance to make money at home.

Housewives, shut-ins and others who have some extra time and are receptive to possibilities of part time work that they can do in their own homes are the ones most often fooled by these phony advertisements which read: "Earn money at home, our instructions will tell you how, send for free details." After sending the required money, prospective homeworkers learn that all they get for their money is a set of instructions, materials and equipment.

Few homework offers ever provide any real employment with pay. Some are rough on people who can least afford it; the widow, the shut-ins, the handicapped grasping after a means of self support.

Remember, don't be too fast to send money to unknown firms or individuals without making a reasonable investigation on the firm or project.

Building Down, GI Buying Up

September Was Month of Contrasts in U. S. Housing Picture

WASHINGTON (INS) — September was a month of contrasting ups and downs for the housing industry. GI home buying was way up but home building was down a little.

In separate reports, the government disclosed another moderate decline in housing output, the fifth in a row. But the 92,000 new homes started last month was larger in number than generally expected.

And the Veterans Administration reported another sharp nine per cent jump in applications for new home loans. The 34,084 applications filed was the highest number in 29 months.

Moreover, housing experts continued to voice optimism over an early easing of the shortage of mortgage financing which has seriously retarded housing output this summer.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics estimated September home building dropped two per cent from the 94,000 dwellings started in August. The decline was described as less than seasonal, meaning sharper drops have been experienced in past years.

In September, builders were constructing new homes at an annual rate of 989,000 units, slightly higher than the 970,000 recorded for August.

During the first nine months of this year, builders started work on 863,400 new homes and apartments. This is one per cent less than the total for 1952 and is due mainly to a sharp decline in public housing construction.

Veterans administration officials, pointing out that the rise in home loan applications is the second big jump in as many months, say they believe it may foreshadow a change for the better in the program.

It will take a little more time to establish a definite trend, but a sustained increase in G. I. lending could assure production of a million new homes next year.

Pre-Assembled Boiler Unit Now on Market

For rapid installation, a new boiler is a complete pre-assembled unit consisting of a boiler, a burner, controls, coil for heating domestic water, jacket and insulation, relief valve, water circulator, automatic air vent, draft regulator, flue brush, and chemical water treatment. Also included in the complete package is the necessary wiring and piping connections.

Select Correct Grade of Lumber for Each Project

A friend of ours just finished building a dog house for the pup he gave his kid and it's hard to tell which of the three is the most unhappy. The kid misses the dog at night, the pup doesn't like the idea of sleeping outdoors and the old man sits around brooding over how much the lumber for the dog house cost. And it cost plenty, too.

Of course, what our friend did was to build the house out of select lumber because he didn't know any better.

He didn't know that he could have cut the cost of that house down to almost nothing if he had used a less expensive—but just as strong—grade of lumber. Lumber as we all know comes in a good many different grades.

The most expensive is select and there isn't very much of this kicking around. You use this on only very special jobs where the wood is to be given a natural finish and you don't want any knots around.

If the wood is to be painted you are tossing money down the drain to use this ultra-expensive grade of lumber. No. 1 common lumber is almost as good as select but it does have a few knots here and there. No. 2 has a few more and No. 3 has quite a few. For most jobs about the house No. 3 common is plenty good. You may have to fool around with a loose knot here and there and there may be some tears in the wood but the money you save makes fussing with it worthwhile.

On lots of jobs about the house only a small portion of the woodwork is exposed as is the case with cabinets. Here you can use your less expensive grades of lumber for the interior and the finer grades for the exposed portions.

Los Angeles Leading U. S. in New Homes

Los Angeles is the nation's biggest producer of new homes.

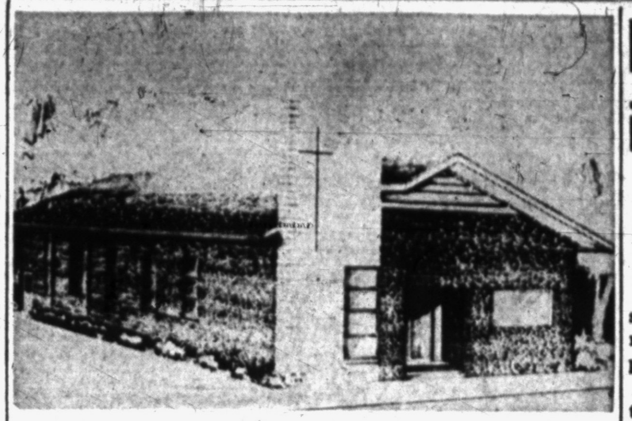
Latest government reports show 19,230 new homes — worth $156,755,000—have been started in the California city during the first seven months of this year.

New York City is second with 15,463 units, valued at $130,908,000, while Chicago follows with 5,759 worth $62,146,000.

Other major cities follow in this order: Houston, $42,155,000; Detroit, $40,870,000; Philadelphia, $38,602,000; San Diego, $38,499,000; Dallas, $35,047,000; New Orleans, $27,175,000 and Washington, D. C., $24,303,000.

Safe Cleanser Offered for Vitreous Surfaces

Harsh, abrasive cleansers may damage the surfaces of enameled and vitreous china plumbing fixtures. Available from plumbing contractors and dealers is a cleanser which cleans fixtures without injuring the surface. It is said to work equally well on glass and tile.



NEW BAPTIST ADDITION—The new addition to the First General Baptist Church of Pontiac gives the congregation 2,400 more square feet of floor area. Eight classrooms, a pastor's study, baptistry, elevated choir and a nursery are included. A public address system has been installed for the entire church building and an addition to the existing kitchen was constructed. W. B. Edwards of Ferndale was the architect. Exterior is of Roman brick lined with cinder block. Asphalt tile floors are employed with the altar area carpeted. Green, in several different shades, is the key color of the new church.

Know How to Use Brush to Do a Good Paint Job

How to use a paint brush is one of the top secrets of a good paint job. The wrong size or type of brush, or the right brush used in the wrong way, not only can ruin a quality paint job, but also can ruin the brush.

Take a flat brush and use it to paint pipes and similar round surfaces and you'll have a "fishtail" brush. t will look like that.

Use a flat brush edgewise to substitute for a narrow brush and you'll wind up with a "fingered" brush. Painting with the edge of a brush causes the fibers to divide into clumps, or fingers, which after a few hours become set in shape.

Squeeze a brush into tight corners and crevices and you get a matted brush with bristles curled and knotted hopelessly together.

Dip a brush too deeply into paint and the uncleanable heel will harden, swelling the ferrule and spoiling the brush.

Let your brush stand on its bristle-ends and the weight of the brush will permanently curl the bristles.

* * *

One sign of a good brush is the amount of "flagging" at the ends of the bristles. This means the splits in the bristle-ends. The number of "flags" add to the paint-holding capacity of the brush. Hog bristles are naturally "flagged." Synthetic bristles are artificially "flagged."

Then take a look at the ferrule, which holds the bristles. If it is stamped "vulcanized in rubber," that's a good sign against loosening bristles in the future.

Painters say they test a brush for "bounce" by brushing the bristles against the back of a hand. A springy and elastic feeling to them, with the bristles not fanning out too much, means a good brush.

* * *

What's the argument between painters' unions and contractors over the width of a brush? You've read about labor disputes over a half-inch in brush width. Well, obviously the wider the brush you use the faster the work goes, but the painters contend that quality of work depends on the right width for each specified task.

Brush manufacturers say that a brush ranging from 3 to 6 inches wide can be perfectly satisfactory for large flat surfaces. But they add that the 4-inch brush is the most popular. Brushes of this width are used for walls, flatting, stucco or calcimine.

Trim or sash, however, calls for brushes of 1 to 3 inches wide, with the most popular being 2 to 2½ inches. For enamel, an enamel brush is used.

Thin window sash, dadoes and trellises require a flat or oval sash brush of the same size—1 to 3 inches. Time can be saved by using the widest brush practical for the job.

But when you come to calcimine or whitewash, widths of 6 to 8 inches are entirely practicable.

Check Foundation Now

Now is a good time to carefully check the foundation walls of your house for faults that may cause you plenty of headaches when heavy fall rains and winter snows come along.

Ventilator Used for Bathroom

Exhaust Fan Replaces Window; Interior Room Now FHA-Approved

The bathroom need no longer be located against an exterior wall of the home.

A windowless, interior bathroom with adequate ventilation makes sense, especially when the exterior wall space can be used to better advantage for lighting another room.

In the past, however, it was often difficult to get a loan for a house planned with such a bathroom. Now, under new revisions, the Federal Housing Administration approves such planning and makes it practical for the average family.

An exhaust fan, operated in parallel with the light switch, removes odors and steam quickly from the interior bathroom.

Moistproof materials such as tile should always be used for the floor and walls, since water from the shower will not damage or penetrate a tile surface. The fan should have an exhaust capacity of 24 cubic feet a minute.

Mechanical ventilation, architects point out, actually is suprerior to that provided by the bathroom window. On a still day, the window provides no air movement. At other times, an incoming breeze may carry odors into adjacent rooms instead of outdoors.

Mechanical ventilation can also cut down drafts in the bathroom. The window, on the other hand, too often throws a current of cold air on a bather or a person in a light dressing gown.

No skylight is required for the interior bathroom, under the new FHA policy. Artificial lighting, working in conjunction with the ventilating devices, is sufficient.

Look Far Ahead in Landscaping

Select Home Planting Suitable When Full Growth Is Realized

Take a critical look at the landscaping in any neighborhood ten or more years old. See what's happened to almost every other house.

Those scrawny little shrubs and trees that were nothing more than a few dry twigs ten years ago have grown up. And how they've grown up! They hang over the walks, obscure the entrance, keep light out of the windows.

The homeowner either puts up with it or starts tearing out the shrubs and trees he spent so many dollars for ten years earlier.

Either way it's a needless waste of time and money.

This fall many owners of new homes will start landscaping their grounds.

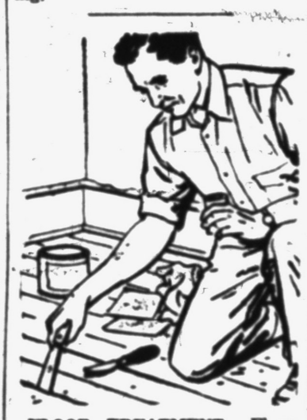
Many will make the same old mistakes. According to the American Association of Nurserymen, only one in four will proceed according to a sound plan.

There are many factors to consider in landscaping. First, what do you want the landscaping to accomplish? How can it give you and the family more privacy and enjoyment and at the same time augment the appearance of the house?

Think not only in terms of the size of the shrub or tree when you plant but in terms of its mature growth. And what do the color of its leaves or berries do for the color of the house?

Now that the trend is to more colorful home exteriors, all the colors of materials and plants should blend into a pleasing picture. The makers of roofing materials and of new siding materials like the pastel shades of insulating siding have carefully considered suitability to landscaping patterns in the selection of the colors. Make those colors work for you in your landscaping pattern.

It's important to develop an overall plan for landscaping just as you did for the building of your house. If you need advice, your local nurseryman can help you. He can put planning into your planting.



FLOOR TREATMENT — Floors shrink when the heat comes on, providing a good chance to seal gaps. Clean out the cracks with a knife and fill them with a paste mixture of sawdust, shellac, whiting and color.

Towel Ring Suggested as Extra Space Saver

A new space-saving idea for the bathroom is the towel ring.

Where space will not permit another towel bar, or when extra towel space is needed, the towel ring is the answer. The ring is made of lucite and the fitting which holds it to the wall is made of gleaming chromium.

Home Builders Back to School, Seek New Ideas

School bells soon will be ringing for 50 experienced home builders who are going back to college for a two-week rapid-fire course on latest construction techniques.

Beginning Nov. 9, the advanced course in home construction, the first of its kind ever offered, will be held at the unversity of Illinois in conjunction with the Research Institute of the National Association of Home Builders.

Those attending will pay a $150 fee to learn the last word on market analysis, land planning, design and construction, business management and labor relations.

Oil Heating Equipment Shows 6-Months Gain

Shipments of residential oil heating equipment by manufacturers in the first six months of 1953 were 9 per cent ahead of the same period in 1952, according to the Plumbing and Heating Industries Bureau.

During the first six months of this year a total of 345,913 conversion oil burners and oil-fired furnace and boiler units were shipped as compared with 317,377 in 1952.

Gas Light Still Used

NEW YORK (INS)— The horse and buggy may be a thing of the past but the gas light is still going strong. That's the claim of the Gas Appliance Manufacturers Association which reports that one of its members not only specializes in making gas lights but has so many orders that the company almost had to stop plugging them recently because production was so far behind.

SECOND—I painted the walls MYSELF with PEERLESS CEMENT PAINT (it's so easy to apply). Because of its high portland cement content, it produces a strong, durable coating that effectively seals out moisture.

Now my basement is BONE DRY and BEAUTIFUL, thanks to PEERLESS "DIKE" and PEERLESS CEMENT PAINT (12 bright decorator colors and gleaming white).

Use Metal Containers for Old Glass, Cans

Broken glass, tin cans, and bottles, whether empty or containing sesidual poisons or unwanted medicines, constitute serious accident hazards.

To keep such trash out of sight of and away from curious children while it is awaiting collection, safety officials advise that it be stored in tightly-covered steel cans instead of in open boxes or other containers.

STRICTLY FOR THE BIRDS—Mrs. P. L. Francis, of 1041 Oxford Rd., Pontiac, contrives a robust fall bird centerpiece from squash, gourds and a handful of cranberries. Cauliflower is used for the ruff around the neck and gold foil provides color for the tail. A non-perishable centerpiece, Mrs. Francis says this will keep for weeks to grace many fall dinner tables.

Centerpiece for Fall Table Uses Squash and Gourds

When a current magazine for women published a picture of a table setting featured in Wiggs New Colony Shop, Pontiac, Mrs. P. L. Francis made several varieties of the "vegetable bird."

Materials needed, she said, are: a squash for the body; small squash or gourds for the head and neck; green beans or palm leaves for wings; cranberries and cauliflower for trimmings; gold foil for the tail.

Assemble these, said Mrs. Francis, with skewers, pins, toothpicks or finishing nails (she used the nails.) Both gilt and red paint, as used to suit the designer, highlight the centerpiece.

Step by step, Mrs. Francis attached the gourds or small squash to the squash body, with nails. If necessary cut a slice from the base to make it sit level.

Arrange slivers of palm leaves or green beans for wings and decorate base of wings with cranberries. Dot splashes of gold, red, or green paint on the wings.

Put a ruff of the cauliflower around the neck and cut the foil for the graceful tail and attach. By using foil or artificial palm leaves for the wings, this centerpiece should last for weeks, she pointed out.

Lighter Trends for Upholstery

New Fabrics Designed for Modern Pieces and at Moderate Price

Silk-like textures with down-to-earth prices dominate the fall upholstery fabric mills rallied to lighter looking furniture designs so widely endorsed at every price level, fashion experts find that upholstry fabric mills rallied to the cause. Produced in profusion are new smooth, ombre and striated cloths boasting a silky iridescent sheen, often achieved by the combination of dark warp tones and pale or bold filler colors.

Prints return to favor. They've been introduced on heavyweight cloth exclusively designated for upholstery application. Small scale patterns that happily suit the Provincial or modern theme continue as the important pattern style Getting down to brass tacks, period design in the precise sense is secondary to the plan multiis secondy o the plan multistyle texture, Watch for more modern, however, as new linear and abstract motifs make headway.

Pile producers proudly play up three dimensional aspects of their particular kind of weave. They've used strategic black and white accents as well as metallic yarns for pronounced dimensional effects.

Colors to watch: The pink family, starting with blush, blatnat heliotrope, sophisticated mauve. Grape has arrived. There are a thousand of the bold medium blues in use—sky, cerulean, peacock, turquoise, meridian. Pumpkin has gone apricot. Yellow green moves away from dull olive to become sharper and shocking.

Red Paint Identifies 19th Century Helmet

Experts who appeared on a recent "What in the World" TV program were able to identify a seal-hunter's helmet that had originally belonged to a native of the South Bering Straits area in the 19th century.

The clue that tipped them off to its source was the presence of red paint on the helmet. They knew that there was red ochre available in the South Bering Straits region.

Steel Pails Replacing Wood in Maple Groves

Traditional sugar maple groves of Missouri and Vermont have gone modern.

The old wooden buckets which used to catch the sap coming out of the trees have been replaced by steel pails.

It takes plenty of pails, too, for 50 gallons of sap are necessary to make one gallon of maple syrup!

Realtors to Eye U. S. Economy

National Association to Meet in Los Angeles Nov. 8-13

Whats ahead for the home-seeker? What's the outlook for the whole economy?

Indications will come daily from the 46th convention of the National Association of Real Estate Boards as thousands of the brokers, managers, appraisers and developers of real estate, which comprises 60 per cent of the nation's wealth, meet in Los Angeles Nov. 8-13.

"Financing the Home in 1954" and "The Future of Our Cities" are two of the subjects to be considered by informed panels which will forecast the future.

"Federal Policies That Effect Housing" by Albert M. Cole, Housing and home finance administrator, and "Looking Ahead" by Walter Williams, under secretary of commerce, are included among the speeches by experts which will give still a further look into what's ahead.

A panel discussion of NAREB's Build America Better program, headed by Fritz B. Burns, Los Angeles, is expected to stimulate the greatest concentrated effort to clear slums ever attempted, giving a view of what is possible by an aroused nation.

Additional forecasts of the future will come from such speeches as "Aviation's Growing Effect on Our Cities" by William A. Patterson, president of United Airlines, and "Livestock and Farm Commodity Outlook" by Nelson R. Crow, publisher of the Western Livestock Journal and Farm Management Journal.

A panel discusion on "New Ideas in Building and Modernizing Obsolete Plants" and a speech on "Let's Give Our Government Back to the States" by J. Bracken Lee, governor of Utah, will paint still further prospects of things to come.

Charles B. Shattuck, Los Angeles, president of NAREB, will preside at the convention where new officers for 1954 will be elected and a statement of objectives will be adopted.

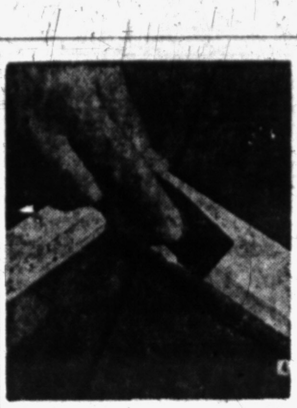
Place Plants in Tub for Efficient Watering

Indoor gardeners will save time watering their plants by taking this short cut: Put several potted plants in a steel wash tub and sprinkle them from above. Leaves and roots both will benefit and excess water and dirt will collect in the tub.

Rats Thrive on Refuse

Rats thrive on garbage and other refuse. So health officials point out that one of the best ways to keep the rodents away from your home is to dispose of refuse in rust-resistant steel cans which have close-fitting covers, thus keeping garbage safely out of reach of rats.

An insulated picnic box can be made by lining the sides, top and bottom of a cardboard carton with fiber glass.



CHECK — Get out storms and check their condition. If screens and storms aren't numbered, attach numbered nails to them and corresponding window frames. Replace all cracked glass and loose putty, then repaint. Store the storms and screens (hanging or flat) in a dry location.

Place mats help you to set a lovely table, but they're not much protection for the finish, unless you use them over a cloth. When serving hot dishes, place a potholder under each plate for protection.

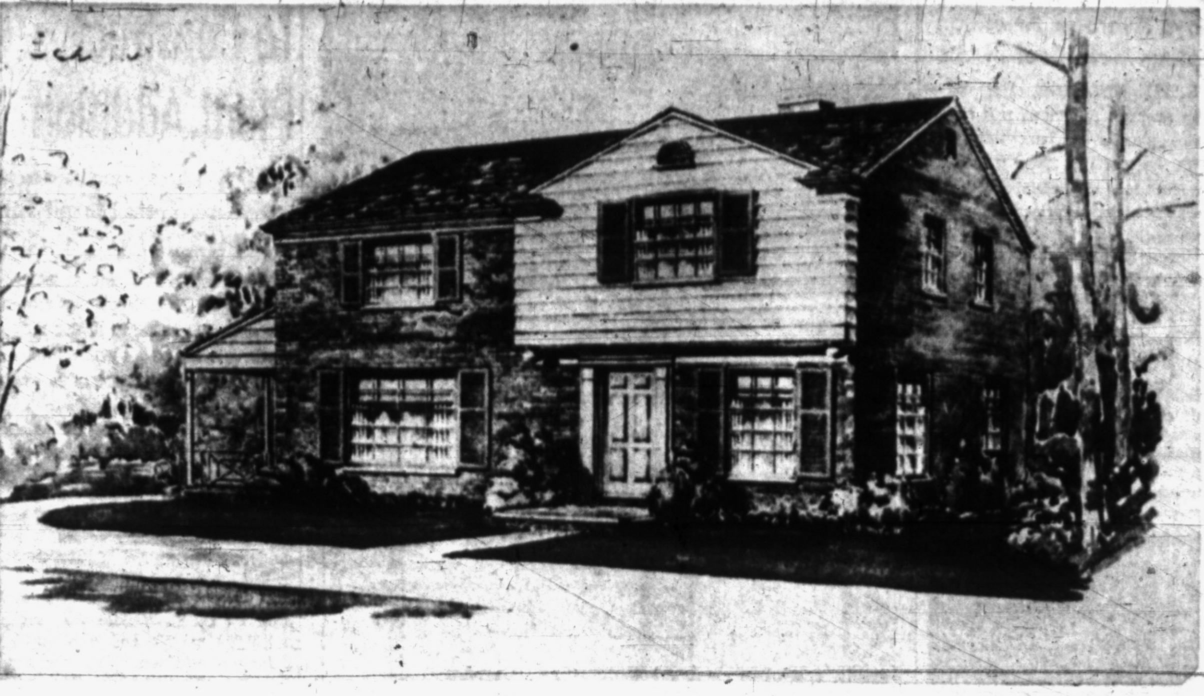
China Patterns Lean to Modern Shape, Design

Traditional or modern? Is a question prompted by this season's china patterns. One firm, for instance is showing traditional rim plates with coupe-shaped holloware. Another is offering new patterns on a choice of coupe or rim shapes. Design departures can be noted in a line of square-shaped china and a pattern consisting of whimsical line-drawn fishes.

Abstracts, line designs and Provincial patterns replace the textures of last season in earthenware according to Retailing Daily's analysis of new china patterns. The leaf is the favorite subject, often line-drawn in black on a solid-color body. Roses, snowflakes and stars follow in importance. As far as shape is concerned, the coupe remains the favorite.

Serving pieces are bursting upon the scene in great numbers and endless variety. This category, perhaps more than any other, reflects manufacturers' awareness of the changing dining habits of our populace.



NEW BIRMINGHAM DEVELOPMENT—The W. E. Reid Development Company will have 220 duplex units of this type along Adams Rd. in Birmingham when the new project is completed. To be known as Adams Village, a request has been made to have the former 40 acre Porritt property annexed to Birmingham. It is now part of Tory Township. The project also calls for 700 feet of business frontage along Adams Rd. and besides the duplex units there will be 20 single family residences constructed.

Designers Unite Old and Modern

American Provincial Is Given New Treatment in Furnishings

Out-and-out modernists among our designers have broken away from the rigid concepts of the early modern movement. Refuting oft-repeated opinions that modern is "cold and stark," they are now finding pleasure in surface ornamentation, conscious use of color and texture for ornamental reasons.

More obvious now is the trend to introduce designs that cannot be described accurately as modern or as traditional. Numerically prominent on the home furnishings scene are fundamentally traditional pieces, especially American provincial, interpreted unexpectedly on modern bases or teamed with modern materials. Modern pieces straddle the design line by turning to traditional legs and hardware, and concentrating on natural wood finishes.

This modern slant on old themes is a compromise that offers a solution to both the need for modern comfort and traditional familiarity, according to Retailing Daily.

Delving into the rich heritage of 18th Century design, manufacturers are retaining the essence of an age characterized by formality but they are modernizing these designs to answer today's demands for easier-to-care-for, more functional home furnishings.

Follow Color Psychology When Decorating Home

The basic aim of color psychology is to make us happier.

Although nervous people may go to pieces in a predominately red room, many individuals would find such a room highly stimulating. The high-strung, temperamental person should surround himself with cool, relaxing blues.

A morose and melancholoy personality needs a warmer environment. The emotionally stable individual chooses his room colors to suit his own needs and preferences and to decorate his home to best advantage.

Since walls are the largest one-color areas, they are of primary importance. Naturally, pure hues such as bright yellows and vivid reds are overwhelming in large areas. Tints are preferable—diluted warm colors for mild stimulation, diluted cool colors for relaxation.

If a light room is desired, light tints should be used on the walls. To give a room atmosphere, a deep shade is advised.

Shades, however, tend to advance and make a room look smaller, whereas tints recede and convey spaciousness. A blue tint is recommended for a larger looking room.

Be your own color decorator! Cover your floor to harmonize with your walls, a deep shade of rose would be most effective with lighter rose walls, or to complement, one of the yellow shades (tan, beige, brown) would be lovely with blue-green.

Use complementary colors in your accessories. A cool blue room is sparked with yellow touches in draperies, throw pillows and lamps. A warm rose room is given balance by green accents in furniture upholstery, pictures, and vases.

A third color is introduced in a tint or shade of one of these two basic color ingredients to provide contrast without loss of harmony.

Color costs nothing. Use it freely, but use it wisely. And use it to its best advantage in your home for your own general well-being!

Says Average American Eating More Beef in '53

STATE COLLEGE, Pa. (UP) — The average American will eat 12 more pounds of beef this year than he did in 1952, a college agricultural economist believes, because of lower prices compared with pork.

Gordon Bivens of Penn State College estimated that the 1953 average beef consumption would be 73 pounds per person.

Corporations Increase

BOSTON (UP) —During the first half of 1953, a total of 3,600 new corporations of all types of business were established in New England — about 600 more than in the corresponding period last year.

Fall Leaf Color Usually Result of Type of Soil

Trees don't necessarily wear the same wardrobe every place they go any more than humans do.

That's a good thing to remember in transplanting a tree, advises W. H. Knowles, field representative of a tree expert company.

At this time of year, prospective tree owners often pick out an arboreal pet because of its brilliant foliage. But the color may be lost in moving the tree.

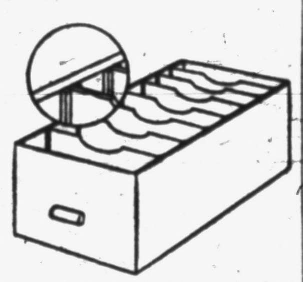
Leaf shades are determined by a combination of soils, moisture, sunshine and temperature. A change in any of these factors often causes changes in leaf coloring.

Under different soil and moisture conditions, or instance, the foliage may take on subdued or different hues; color changes sometimes occur when a tree is moved only a few yards.

With the majority of tree owners vivid red autumn foliage, such as offered by many oaks and maples, is most popular with the bright yellow and gold tints, typical of birches, hickories and others, following a close second.

The degree of color is often a matter of soil. Pin oaks, for example, which have been liberally fed with fertilizers high in nitrogen, will have a much deeper color than those grown in poor soil without the help of such tree foods.

Make Do



UTILITY DESIGN — A deep drawer is far more useful if outfitted with dividers. Metal or wood moldings can be fastened to the sides of the drawer at equidistant intervals. Cut-to-size panel of ¼-inch tempered hardboard fit into these slides. Dish out the tops of the panels for easy visibility.

One man can easily insulate a room, attic, garage or crawl areas under a house with fiber glass. The blanket-like insulating material is light, easy to handle and can be nailed up in a jiffy.

'Underworld' Couple Courted, Wed in Caves

ROANOKE, Va. (UP) — Camilla Sharitz and Michael Fisher were married under a dripping stalactite in the huge cathedral room of Dixie Caverns near here recently.

They figured it was a proper climax to their romance. It started when they met at a regional convention of the National Speleological Society, a scientific organization of cave enthusiasts. Their four-month courtship included frequent exploration of caves in western Virginia.

Samuel Morse, inventor of the telegraph, was a famed American painter.

Wildcats Hope to Regain Form

Expected to Rely on Dick Thomas' Passing Against Pitt

EVANSTON, Ill. (UP) — Northwestern Wildcats, who scored two impressive opening victories against nonconference football teams, then bogged down in Big Ten play, hoped to get back on the winning track today against Pittsburgh's Panthers.

The Wildcats are rated the nation's No. 2 passing team and were expected to rely on the overhead shots of Dick Thomas for the major share of their offensive effort.

Pittsburgh, seeking its second victory in five games, so far has been successful only on the ground. Fullback Bobby Epps, with a 4.1-yard average per carry, is the workhorse.

'Protected' Blue Herons Hunter Victims

Two of Rare Birds Found Dead, Killed by Gunshots

Some "gun-happy" hunter is going to find himself in difficulties, if the law ever catches up with him for shooting the beautiful blue heron. A non-game, protected bird, the blue heron is seen frequently in lake areas of Oakland County.

Two of the comparatively rare birds were killed within a few days this week, in Orion Township, and near Lapeer.

Shooting herons is in the same classification as any other misdemeanor, authorities said today. The maximum penalty is $100 fine or a jail term.

R. W. Pascoe, 6127 Harvard, Detroit, writes this department that he found the body of a heron floating in the small lake where he was fishing near Orion. "This bird," Pascoe wrote, "with its mate, had frequented our lake for several years. Another blue heron was found shot on the dock of a small lake near Lapeer. A lady told me of it when I mentioned our bird life tragedy."

Pioneers Win 21st

By the Associated Press

Ann Arbor High School won its 21st football victory in a row and its fifth straight Six-A League championship as it roared to a 45-0 triumph over Lansing Eastern at Ann Arbor last night.

Grand Haven took Muskegon Heights, 7-0, to remain unbeaten for the year and Port Huron trampled Ferndale, 34-0, for its 25th straight win, but little Morenci finally bowed, 7-0, to Clinton after going 48 games without a defeat.

Saginaw, which surprised Grand Rapids Catholic Central last week, was itself upended last night by Flint Northern, 20-6, and Grand Rapids Catholic rebounded with a 19-14 win over Grand Rapids Union.

Bay City Central, which has won five and rolled up 158 points to nothing for the opposition, meets Owosso tonight and then takes on Flint Northern next week in a game that likely will decide the Saginaw Valley championship.

Ann Arbor's one-sided win over Lansing Eastern was one of its easiest. It never was a contest, with Ann Arbor's Jack Lousma and Bill Royce scoring twice apiece.

Ann Arbor, incidentally, hasn't lost a Six-A League game in five years.

Saginaw played Flint Northern to a scoreless draw in the first half at Saginaw and then broke the scoring ice in the third period as halfback Bob Mauteren plunged over from the two to cap a 71-yard drive.

Mauteren, also a defensive bulwark, was hurt shortly thereafter and Flint Northern powered its way to three touchdowns. Art Johnson got two, after Jerry Miller had scampered 55 yards to tie the score and Tom Gendell had kicked the extra point to put Northern ahead 7-6.

Muskegon Heights, beaten once in five starts, was favored to take Grand Haven (5-0), but didn't, and Grand Haven remains one of the state's few unbeaten teams.

Clinton's quarterback, Ray Covell, pitched Morenci to its first defeat in 48 games — longest undefeated streak in state history. Covell hit Larry Hartman in the end zone with a 21-yarder to cap a drive from his own 30.

Shoemaker Eyes 450-Win Total

Top Jockey Will Ride Nine Mounts Today at Golden Gate Fields

ALBANY, Calif. (UP) — Close-mouthed Willie Shoemaker, riding higher than any jockey ever rode before, drew nine mounts today on top of 401 season wins and seemed well on his way to making true his modest admission of "might get 450" before 1954.

Willie, known variously as Wee Willie, the Silent Shoe or the Sphinz — the last to newsmen who've tried vainly to make him talk about himself—rode three winners at Golden Gate Fields yesterday to break the mystical 400 circle and go one beyond in a drive that still has two months to go.

The 22-year-old Texas-born demon passed the incredible figure displaying no more emotion than a week ago Friday, when he broke the recored of 390 winners set by Tony Despirito in 1952.

Then in answer to the question, how do you feel?, he said "fine."

Yesterday, it was "OK."

Iowa and Indiana Clash Before 50,000 Today

IOWA CITY, Ia. (UP) — Iowa and Indiana, both trying for their first Big Ten football victory of the season, meet today in the Hawkeye homecoming before an expected crowd of 50,000.

Hawkeyes put up stout battles before losing to Michigan State 21-7 and Michigan 14-13 in Big Ten games. Indiana has been beaten by Michigan State, 47-18, and by Ohio State, 36-12.

Tank Vehicle Drivers' Strike Ties Up London for Sixth Day

LONDON (AP)—Troops in full battle kit took over distribution of emergency gasoline supplies in the London area today as a strike of tank truck drivers that all but paralyzed road transport went into its sixth day.

But fresh troubles loomed in the wake of the government's order calling in the soldiers. Bus conductors and drivers at several of the London Transport Board's depots voted to walk out if their vehicles were filled with army-delivered gasoline.

The troops moved in as every garage within a 40-mile radius of London reported its fuel tanks dry.

* * *

The government has clamped on a rigid ration system giving essential public services first call on available gasoline and oil.

Prime Minister Churchill ordered all members of his Cabinet to remain in London over the weekend, standing to deal with any possible emergency.

The armed troops—1,600 soldiers and 1,000 men of the Royal Air Force—marched briskly into the city's gasoline depots at dawn today and swung aboard the fleets of idle tank trucks.

* * *

They had been ready since the strikers refused union appeals last night to end their wildcat walkout and submit their demands to arbitration.

The 2,600 drivers quit work Monday demanding the dismissal of all non-union co-workers, full union recognition by the industry and a 10 shilling ($1.40) weekly pay raise. They have been getting seven pounds, five shillings and six pence ($20.37) a week.

The strikers announced last night they were prepared to modify their demands but the proposed changes were not disclosed. At a police-guarded meeting later, leaders of the Transport and General Workers' Union refused to accept demands they termed unconstitutional.

* * *

Minister of Labor Walter Monckton told the House of Commons yesterday there were grounds for thinking the walkout is being kept alive by members of the Communist party and "those who are inclined to the Communist view."

The No. 1 task for the troops is to get food distribution trucks on the road again in order to deliver the sprawling city's vital food.

Local Airport Shipments Big

Manager Hoskins Says Cargo Flights Are Up for This Year

Air freight shipments got off to a flying start at Pontiac Municipal Airport this year and are still soaring.

Airport Manager Homer D. Hoskins said incoming and outgoing cargo have been increasing gradually throughout the year.

He cited Wednesday as a typical day of heavy cargo traffic.

A Kansas City-bound Douglas C-47 from Jackson was loaded with sheet metal parts from the Pontiac Motor Division. The cargo and plane, weighing a total of 26,000 pounds, was the heaviest single shipment ever recorded at the airport.

On the same day, Hoskins continued, a Twin Beach commercial plane from Wilmington, Del., brought a load of parts for Pontiac Fisher Body Division, enabling the plant to continue production.

Several other smaller shipments were made from the airport, marking that day as one of the most active in freight shipments this year.

"Several hundred cargo planes have used the airport this year," said Hoskins. Most of the freight shipments are for auto and truck plants and auto industry supplier plants.

Two new terminal managers have been appointed by the George F. Alger Co., a motor-carrier firm with headquarters in Detroit. They are Leonard J. Streeter, former traffic supervisor at Reo Motors, Inc., who will be in charge of the Cincinnati terminal, and Paul W. Morris, new Toledo terminal manager.

Joseph W. Narrin, Route No. 6, Milford, will lead a discussion of "Costing Fixed Assets for Federal Income Tax and Government Contract Purposes" before the fifth forum meeting of the Detroit Chapter of the National Association of Cost Accountants on Monday at 7:30 p. m. in the Park Shelton Hotel in Detroit.

Brownhoist Lowers Dividend to 50 Cents

NEW YORK (AP)—Directors of Industrial Brownhoist Co. called off their fractional war long enough to vote a dividend of 50 cents a share yesterday. It is payable Nov. 18 to stockholders of record Nov. 4.

The 50-cent dividend compares with a previous payment of 65 cents.

Silberstein and associates acquired control of Industrial Brownhoist through purchase of a large block of stock from Alleghany Corp. early this year. Since then they have been seeking to merge it with Pennsylvania Coal & Coke Corp., also controlled by Silberstein interests.

A group of Michigan and Ohio stockholders, with a minority on the board, have bitterly opposed the merger plans.

Silberstein told the board that Brownhoist's earnings for the first nine months of 1953 totaled $590,000 as compared with $470,000 in the same period a year previous.

Boards OK Merger of 2 Cigarette Firms

NEW YORK (AP) — A merger of Philip Morris & Co., Ltd., Inc. and Benson & Hedges, has been approved by the boards of directors of the two cigarette companies and will be voted upon by stockholders by the end of the year.

Alfred E. Lyon, chairman of the board of Philip Morris, and Joseph F. Cullman Jr., chairman and president of Benson & Hedges, made the announcement.

Business Sees Only Slight Dip

13 Leading Industrialists Predict 1954 Still to Be Above Normal

PEEBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP) — The long-feared "business letdown" of 1954 will be a dip averaging not more than 5 per cent under this year's "abnormal" business boom, in the opinion of 13 leading industrialists.

The forecast by members of the Commerce Department's Business Advisory Council (BAC) was described today as "very heartening" to members of President Eisenhower's cabinet who have sat in on the council's closed meeting here.

Cabinet representation grew to four with the arrival last night of Secretary of the Interior McKay. He joined Secretary of Commerce Weeks, Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey and Secretary of the Army Stevens.

The council's economic survey indicated that steel production may drop to 85 per cent of capacity next year. Autos are getting harder to sell, farm machinery is down but the industry is "not worried," and furniture sales will depend on new home building, which is declining.

But retail food sales should be strong and the oil and power industries still plan large expansions.

The forecasts also included reports from other corporation chiefs in basic fields. Council Chairman John D. Biggers summed up the speaker's findings for reporters as follows:

"Their combined judgment seemed to be that we could look for continued business in 1954 within 5 percent of the boom levels attained by the artificial impetus of war and other factors this year.

"We are now experiencing what I would consider a moderate adjustment from an abnormal to a normal (situation)—a very high normal.

"I would say that industrial production in 1954 will be higher than in any previous year with the exception of the artificially high year of 1953."

Atom Research Still to Be Done

Consumers Man Says Cheap Power Coming but Far in Future

JACKSON (AP)—James H. Campbell, a vice president of Consumers Power Co., says that "a tremendous amount of work remains before an atomic reactor can be built which will make power cheap enough to compete with present methods of generation."

Campbell, Consumers' chief of general construction and electrical engineering, said, however: "We anticipate great possibilities in the atomic power field. But we think its limitations should be faced realistically."

He continued:

"There is nothing glamorous to the electric utility industry about the use of atomic energy to general electricity. Right now to them it is merely a matter of costs—atomic power versus common fuel.

"When the atomic method of generating electricity can be brought down in cost, it may replace coal and other fuels. When it will take place is indefinite. It depends upon what utility companies come up with in their atomic research. z

"No immediate solution to the problem is in sight. It will take quite a number of years."

Foresees Future Plane Delivery of Newspapers

WASHINGTON (AP) — An airline executive said today he foresees the plane becoming a regular "newsboy of the air," serving coast-to-coast routes for scores of daily newspapers in all parts of the country.

The idea was projected by L. C. Burwell Jr., vice president of the Fying Tiger Line which is in process of merging with Slick Airways.

* * *

Both companies, exclusively cargo carriers, are among those petitioning the Civil Aeronautics Board for permits to participate in the Post Office Department's experimental air lift for — first class surface mail.

* * *

This plan, as conceived by Postmaster General Summerfield, would eventually include daily newspapers which, under their classification as "preferential mail," are eligible for expedited handling.

Burwell said it is his idea that intercity delivery of newspapers by air at the standard second class mailing rate should and will become a big time operation. But he said this will take large-scale airline participation.

"The key," he said, "will be the amount of space available and this undoubtedly will require participation by the air freight carriers, with their large fleets of large cargo aircraft and daily capacity.

* * *

"Peak loads in the passenger carriers over weekends might be a serious obstacle to everyday carriage of a big volume of newspaper traffic."

* * *

Current tests in flying surface mail between New York-Chicago and Chicago-Washington are on an "available space" basis. Burwell said Flying Tiger and Slick are prepared to offer "guaranteed space" for daily cross-country delivery of newspapers.

The inaugural flights, early this month by United, Capital, TWA and American airlines carried some newspapers on the first day only. But paper deliveries have not yet been worked into the plan on any regular basis.

Aircraft Strike Hits Second Coast Plant

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A strike spread today to North American Aviation Co.'s third plant — at Fresno, Calif.—increasing the total idle to an estimated 33,000 in what a union official called the start of an industry-wide struggle for higher wages.

The company said "about 99 per cent" of the night shift at Fresno walked out as the CIO United Automobile Workers contract expired at midnight. The shift joined strikers whose contract ran out 24 hours earlier at larger plants in Los Angeles and Columbus, Ohio.

With production of jet fighters and interceptors halted and with a union leader predicting a long strike, North American Board Chairman J. H. Kindelberger declared:

"The strike called by UAW-CIO leaders against our plants is a deliberate attempt to force unreasonable costs upon production of F86 Sabre jets and the national defense budget."

In Detroit, Director John W. Livingston of the UAW's aircraft department asserted in a statement it was a strike "the company repeatedly has attempted to force upon the union."

Milford Boy's Car Stolen and Wrecked in Detroit

MILFORD—Four Milford young people who attended a show at the Music Hall in Detroit last night found their car had been stolen from an adjacent parking lot when they called for it at 9:30. A short time later the car was found badly wrecked about a half mile away.

Witnesses reported that the driver ran from the machine after the crash. The young poeple in the party were Sue Howe, Lowell Rowe, Carol Brandelberry and Jerry Heitzelman. The car, a new hardtop model, belonged to Jerry's parents.

2 Metamora MOMS Attend Convention

METAMORA—Mrs. Cleve Raymond and Mrs. G. E. Eckel spent Thursday, Friday and Saturday of last week attending the convention of MOMS of America in Saginaw's Hotel Bancroft.

Mrs. Eckel attended as a delegate of the local unit and Mrs. Raymond, local president, was a member of the resolutions committee.

May Claim Garments

Because of the sudden death of Mrs. T. T. Hart, who did fur alteration work at 26½ West Huron St., persons who have repair work are asked to claim their garments from Mrs. Hart between Tuesday, Oct. 27, and Saturday, Oct. 31. After that date the customers may contact Mr. Hart at 795 S. Winding drive. The telephone number is FE 5-7226.

WALLED LAKE — The Walled Lake Methodist Church serivices will begin Sunday at 10 a.m. with the Rev. William Hill Collycott of Rochester speaking on "Three Outstanding Principles in the Life of Jesus." There will be reception of new members.

Army Weasels to Aid Hunters

Hundreds Marooned in Mountains; More Snow Predicted in Wyoming

SHERIDAN, Wo. (UP) —Four snow-going Army weasels were thrown into the drive today to rescue hundreds of hunters marooned by snowdrifts in the northern Big Horn Mountains.

Rescue operations were stepped up when it was learned that some of the hunters were women and elderly persons.

Two C119 Flying Boxcars of the 463rd troop carrier Wing stationed at Ardmore, Okla. Air Force Base were ordered to pick up the weasels at Camp Carson, Colo. Friday night and fly them here for the assault on the four to five-foot snowdrifts piled up by a blizzard.

As rescue operations went into the second full day, the U. S. Weather Bureau forecast scattered snow showers today and tonight.

The weasels were called in late Friday after officials reported that bulldozers and trucks were against the drifted snow on the narrow trails and side roads.

Sheridan County Sheriff Willard Marshall said ground parties were unable to "rescue a single hunter" Friday.

Marshall estimated that upwards of 300 hunters, "possibly as many as 1,000," might be marooned. Some of them, he said, were as far as 20 miles from the nearest open road or mountain trail.

Carol Williams, G. Richard Dean Wed in Detroit

WATERFORD — Carol Ann Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Williams of 3064 Lakewood, Detroit, became the bride of G. Richard Dean of Waterford yesterday morning in a double-ring ceremony in Church of Our Savior, Detroit.

Richard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Dean of 4339 Windiate.

The bride chose a fall gray suit with a white orchid for her wedding. Dorothy Zizle of Detroit served as her attendant.

Serving as best man for his brother was Robert Dean, also of Waterford.

A reception was held in Fort Shelby Hotel, Detroit. After a honeymoon in New York City, the couple will live in Waterford where the bride, a graduate of Wayne University, will teach in Waterford Township Schools.

Richard received his discharge from the U. S. Coast Guard this month after serving in the Far East.

Farmer Loses Case Over Wheat Acreage

OWOSSO (AP)—The first Shiawassee County farmer to protest his wheat acreage allotment has lost his case before a Production and Marketing Administration review board.

The PMA board, an agency of the Agriculture Department, turned down the protest of Clarence E. Ackerman of Durand, as ungrounded yesterday.

Ackerman, owner of 430 acres, claimed he had been allotted only 37 acres and that he would lose $7,000 at the present market price of wheat.

He termed the acreage allotment law dictatorial, unjust and unfair and declared that the recent wheat allotment elections were "a laugh." He claimed that 90 per cent of the farmers didn't vote.

Ackerman maintained that farmers should be allowed to raise all the wheat they could and still maintain soil fertility.

Meet to Set Up Nurses' District

LAPEER COUNTY — A Lapeer County District of Practical Nurses will be set up at a meeting Monday at 8 p. m. in the American Legion building of Lapeer.

Mrs. Edith Sutton, state association president, and Mrs. Margaret Cotsikas, state executive secretary, will be on hand to aid in establishing the new district.

All practical nurses of the county are urged to attend the meeting. Applications will be screened and submitted to the state board of directors for final acceptance.

Home Extension Club Has Workshop Lesson

WATERFORD—Mrs. Leslie Fitzgerald and Mrs. Owen O'Neil gave the first part of a lesson on Christmas Workshop for the Home Extension Club at the home of Mrs. Frank Minton Tuesday.

The leaders will continue this lesson at the home of Mrs. Gordon Parker on Nov. 17.

Ortonville Man Hurt

James W. Cameron, 50, of 111 Ball St., Ortonville, was treated for head and face cuts and elbow injuries at Goodrich Hospital Wednesday afternoon, suffered when his northbound car rolled over on M-15 in Brandon Township, according to Oakland County sheriff's deputies.

Shocking! Judge Declares of Teen Farm Pranksters

WOODSTOCK, Ill. (AP) — Fifteen teenagers, six girls and nine boys, got a corn-shocking sentence from a justice of the peace yesterday.

The youngsters appeared before Justice of the Peace Charles F. Hayes on charges of pushing over about 80 shocks of corn on F. V. Brautigan's farm. They admitted the charges, said the pre-Halloween hijinks happened after a high school party Sept. 25.

Hayes asked Brautigan what he thought about punishment. The farmer said he would be satisfied if the youngsters would re-shock the corn. They told Hayes they would do the job today.

Italy Devastated by New Floods

Boiling Torrents Cut Off Food Supplies to 3,000 Trapped in Mountains

OLIVETO, Italy (AP)—Heavy new rains sent wildly raging torrents boiling anew today through at least half a dozen flood-stricken villages in this mountain area above Reggio Calabria.

The storm added to the vast devastation caused the past two days when flash floods innundated a thousand-square-mile area.

The death toll remained officially at 55, but officials of Reggio Calabria province said the figure might reach 100.

Today's floods halted attempts of rescue workers to get food and other emergency supplies to an estimated 3,000 hungry, grief-stricken villagers trapped in their flooded mountain communities.

The delay increased the peril of possible disease spreading through the ravaged villages Last night a ministry of works official in charge of rescue operations said the authorities were watching closely for an outbreak of epidemics.

The hammering, violent downpour began early this morning, on the heels of a night-long light rain.

The new flood ripped out emergency roads built along river beds since the flash floods two days ago and tumbled more mud and rock into villages inhabitants and soldiers had cleared.

In Rome, Premier Guiseppe Pell announced he would leave tonight to inspect the ravaged region.

INDEPENDENCE TOWNSHIP ORDINANCE NO. 10

An Ordinance to prohibit the abandonment of ice boxes, refrigerators, deep freezes, and other devices with air-tight doors, and to provide penalties for violation of said Ordinance.

The Township of Independence ordains, whereas abandonment or indiscriminate location of ice boxes, refrigerators, deep freezes, and other devices with air-tight doors constitute an attractive nuisance to small children, and whereas, such small children are apt to conceal themselves within such devices and suffocate, it is deemed necessary that this problem be controlled and regulated;

I

Now therefore, it shall be illegal for any person, firm, association or corporation, to abandon any ice box, refrigerator, deep freeze, or other device with air-tight doors within the said Township of Independence unless all doors of said ice box, refrigerator, deep freeze, or device with air-tight doors shall have been removed prior to such abandonment, and likewise, it shall be illegal for any person, firm, association, or corporation, to keep or maintain any ice box, refrigerator, deep freeze, or device with air-tight doors in any place within the Township of Independence unless all doors of said ice box, refrigerator, deep freeze, or device with air-tight doors, shall have been removed or unless same shall be either kept or maintained in:

(a) An inhabited building or,

(b) Securely locked with a padlock or other locking device requiring a key, the key to which is, at all times, in the possession or under the control of an adult person, and in such manner as to be unavailable to a minor child of less than fourteen (14) years of age, or,

(c) In a structure securely locked with a padlock or other locking device, the key to which is, at all times, in the possession or under the control of an adult person, and in such manner as to be unavailable to a minor child of less than fourteen (14) years of age.

II

For the purpose of this Ordinance, officers and/or Board of Directors of any firm, association, or corporation, shall be charged with the responsibility for their respective firm, association, or corporation, complying with the provisions of this Ordinance.

III

Any person, firm, association, or corporation convicted of a violation of this Ordinance shall be punished by a fine not to exceed one hundred ($100.00) dollars, or by imprisonment in the Oakland County Jail for a period not to exceed ninety (90) days or both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the Court.

IV

This Ordinance shall become effective the 23rd day of November A.D. 1953.

Ayes: Andrews, Bauer, Doebler, Solby and Tucker

Nays: None.

Slaying Brings Peace to Mother

Bible Tells Woman in Inkster to Kill 2 Tots; Warrant Due Monday

DETROIT (AP)—A slight, 27-year-old mother accused of strangling her two children to death said today the act brought her "peace of mind."

Assistant Prosecutor John Mowatt said he would ask a first degree murder warrant against Mrs. Shirley Boyd of suburban Inkster, on Monday. In the meantime he ordered her confined to a hospital.

Police Chief Charles Deplanche of Inkster said Mrs. Boyd told him she strangled 18-month-old Mark Richard, and choked the life out of 7-year-old Terry Robert because "The Bible told me to do it."

"I loved my children but today I saw Satan in their eyes," Mowatt quoted the woman as telling him yesterday. "I've been in hell all my life. I feel wonderful now. I have peace of mind."

Her husband, Claude, 29-year-old factory worker and son of a Dearborn policeman, was not at home when the tragedy happened.

Mrs. Boyd called a Detroit doctor who had delivered both children and told his nurse of having killed them. Miss Barbara Guthrie, the nurse, called Inkster police.

Mowatt quoted the woman as saying she knew the devil was in the baby because he had hissed at her, and that she knew the devil was in Terry Robert, too, "otherwise he couldn't have fought against me so hard."

Evidence of Terry's fight was on his arm. There were three angry marks where the youngster appeared to have been bitten, Mowatt said.

Tennessee Tech Back Outdoes Talented Sis

COOKEVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Paul Anderson, halfback for Tennessee Tech, refuses to be outdone by his sister, Helen, a freshman at the school.

He turned to the fooball field after the first half against Murray recently in time to see a photographer snap a picture of Helen. She had just won a 100-yard dash, part of the halftime festivities.

Paul promptly took the second half kickoff and sprinted 94 yards for a touchdown.

Tartar Harriers Win

MT. PLEASANT (AP) — Central Michigan's cross country team bowed to Wayne University, 23-38, for the first time here yesterday. Don Witbrodt of Wayne led the harriers home.

Outstate Buying Brings Warning

Insurance Official Says Citizens Should Check on Unlicensed Firms

LANSING (AP) — State insurance commissioner Joseph A. Navarre said today Michigan residents should be wary of buying insurance from mail order firms outside the state.

Conceding that most insurance companies and agents use some mail advertising, Navarre said buyers should be careful of mail order proposals which do not bear the name and address of a licensed Michigan agent.

"Individuals who purchase insurance from unlicensed companies must do so at their own risk and consequently deprive themselves of the protection and assistance which the insurance department might render," Navarre said.

He suggested persons solicited for insurance solely by mail to contact his office or an established local insurance agent in their community for information on the status of the insurance offered.

W. O. Hildebrand, manager of the Michigan Association of Insurance Agents, added a warning to purchasers of auto insurance in unlicensed companies. These policies, he said, are not acceptable to the state and fail to satisfy the requirements of the Michigan financial responsibility law.

Persley Aims at Title

CHICAGO (UP) — Arthur Persley, Red Cross, La., lightweight, will be aiming for a shot at champion Jimmy Carter tonight when he meets ninth-ranked Henry Davis, of Hawaii, in a nationally televised 10-round fight at Rainbow Arena.

Owosso Man Shot While Out Hunting

OWOSSO (AP)—Albert Remenec, 19, of Owosso, is in critical condition today as the result of a hunting accident authorities haven't been able to learn exactly what happened.

Remenec's condition would not permit questioning.

Sheriff's officers reported that Remenec's companion, Tim McCarthy, 29, also of Owosso, was in such a state of shock he could not be questioned after the accident near Oakley yesterday. They surmised, however, the shotgun charge that struck Remenec came from McCarthy's gun.

The charge struck Remenec in the hip and he lost a dangerous amount of blood before reaching Memorial Hospital here.

Syracuse university fields varsity teams in 15 different sports.

Civil Defense Workers to Get Arm Markers

Some 6,800 civil defense arm bands are on their way to 11 cities and townships, Oakland County Civil Defense Director Lewis C. Jarrendt said today.

"All we need now," he said, "is active arms to get on the inside of those arm bands."

Jarrendt said the arm bands, costing up to 50 cents each in small quantities, cost only 10 cents because of the large quantity. Ordering bands were Addison, Troy, Novi, Commerce and Royal Oak townships, Rochester village and the cities of Berkley, Pontiac, Birmingham, Hazel Park and Huntington Woods.

Aggregate weight of the Dionne quintuplets at birth was 13 pounds 6 ounces.

Two-Year-Old Hurt in Fall From Car

A two-year-old Pontiac girl, who fell from her mother's backing auto on Gale Road in Waterford Township Friday night, is on good condition today, according to reports from Pontiac General Hospital.

Nancy Jean Goucher, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth I. Goucher, 26, of 29 Clarence St., suffered a possible concussion and internal injuries, and arm bruises in the all.

Mrs. Goucher told deputies she was backing out of a drive when her daughter pushed a safety latch on the door and fell out.

IS THE "BIRD" TO SEE
TALK TO THE RIGHT MAN WHEN YOU WANT TO BUY A BUSINESS

RING, RING, RING

Ring, ring, ring, is the music you'll be playing on your register in this busy little grill. Yes, it will average over $100 per day. It's a neat, well equipped spot with counter, tables and booths. Lease only $65 per month. Priced at only $4,200 on easy terms. See it today.

NOTHING TO BUY

Here is an established cleaning business with nothing to buy, just lease the equipment and building for only $100 per mo. for 3 years with first and last 3 month's rent in advance. Find out about this right away.

FRONTAGE WITH A FUTURE

A mere $2,800 down is all it takes to handle this valuable business frontage on the Dixie Hwy. You will have over 180 feet on the highway that's just perfect for a small motel, gas station or just about anything. Right now there's a small business building on the property that can easily be added to. Take advantage of this fine offer today.

Consider Cuts in Foreign Aid

Administration Heads Feel Europe Economic Health Improving

WASHINGTON (AP) — Administration officials are considering further cuts in foreign economic aid on the theory that, because of Europe's improving economic health, they would not weaken its defense effort.

This administration reasoning is expected to be reflected in budget proposals to Congress next year for appropriations for the fiscal year beginning July 1.

Economic improvements in Europe are measured, for example, by the expected achievement of a nine billion dollar total of gold and dollar reserves behind European currencies. Such gains are attributed not only to the prolonged U.S. assistance programs but to renewed confidence by the Europeans in themselves and to the cumulative effects of recovery from World War II destruction.

* * *

The economic prospects and outlook will be reviewed in Paris next week by the Organization for European Economic Cooperation (OEEC), which includes 17 nations. Harold E. Stassen, President Eisenhower' chief of foreign operations, will attend in the role of observer. He is expected to tell the Europeans they can count on a relatively stable American economy for a long time in the future.

Stassen and his advisers estimate that the next round of congressional appropriations will show:

1. A further gradual decline in economic assistance to Europe.
2. An increase in assistance and development programs in the Middle East and Far East and an unchanged continuation of U. S. aid to Latin America.

* * *

These estimates have not yet been reduced to publicly known figures. However, funds appropriated for aid to Europe in the fiscal year ending next June 30, including help to France to carry on the war in Indochina, total 790 million dollars. This compares with a total of $1,282,000,000 made available for the same general purposes in the previous fiscal year.

Is Dead at 103, Buried in Casket Built by Himself

BELEN, N. M. (AP) — Domingo Valles, 103, is dead—and buried in the coffin he built for himself.

As he put the finishing touches on the pine casket five years ago, he explained:

"If I'm going anywhere from here, I want to go in dignity."

The New Mexico pioneer was born in old Mexico May 15, 1850. He was nine when he came to Belen, and spent most of his life ranching in the area.

Domingo—who recalled the Lincoln County war in the days of Billy The Kid—long ago was acquitted in an unsolved murder case, the shooting of Col. Francisco Chavez, prominent early-day New Mexico political figure.

Search Gulf for Lost Michigan Boatman

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Plans were made to send out nine Coast Guard planes to scan the Gulf of Mexico today for a missing powerboat and its Grand Rapids, Mich., owner.

Three planes searched the Gulf yesterday in a vain effort to locate the cabin cruiser Ronnie Dee, reported six days overdue on a trip from Carradelle to Cedar Key, Fla. The 20-foot powerboat was owned and skippered by Jack Malone of Grand Rapids and had one other unidentified man aboard.

Malone had cruised down the Mississippi River into the Gulf and was last heard from on Oct. 17.

Two Coast Guard planes from St. Petersburg and another from Keesler Field, Biloxi, Miss., took part in yesterday's hunt.

Bandleader Jerry Gray Charged With Cruelty

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Cruelty is charged to bandleader Jerry Gray, 38, in a divorce suit filed yesterday by Barbara Anne Denby Gray, 20, formerly of Phoenix, Ariz.

She said his income is $4,000 a week and asked $1,050 a month in alimony and support for their 11-month-old son, Albert. Her complaint said they were married Dec. 1, 1951, in Los Angeles and separated last July 30. She asked for all community property, including their home in Sherman Oaks.

Crosby Is Sued for $1,051,400

3 Charge Crooner Was Intoxicated When Cars Collided Oct. 11

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Three persons filed suit yesterday for $1,051,400 damages from Bing Crosby, alleging he was "under the influence of intoxicating liquors" when his car and theirs collided about 5:30 a.m. Oct. 11.

Superior Court subpoenaed the crooner to give a deposition Nov. 2 in an attorney's office.

Crosby's $12,500 Mercedes-Benz sports car was damaged in the crash at Wilshire and Sepulveda Blvds. and he suffered a wrenched back.

* * *

The personal injury suit was filed by the driver of the other car, Frank Verdugo, 32, a city fireman; his wife, Lucy, 25, and her brother, Eulalio Perea, 25, a produce market clerk. They are still hospitalized.

They allege that Crosby was driving in a "wanton and reckless" manner and "while under the influence of intoxicating liquors." The suit asserts that Crosby's "faculties were substantially impaired" by liquor and by lack of a "reasonable amount of rest or sleep."

Verdugo contends he and his wife suffered injuries of a permanent nature and that their sedan was completely wrecked.

* * *

Deputy Dist. Atty. George H. Johnson told a reporter: "Investigation by our office and by the California highway patrol has produced no evidence to indicate any criminal offense on the part of either driver involved in the Crosby accident."

Savings Notes Sale Halted by Treasury

WASHINGTON (AP)—The treasury, trying to avoid being pushed up against the legal ceiling on the national debt, has stopped selling savings notes.

The notes—not to be confused with savings bonds, which can still be bought — were being snapped up by investors at a rate of more than 60 million dollars on some days. They pay 2.21 per cent interest and are used mostly by corporations which have cash reserves to invest for a short time.

The treasury took them off the market last night because every time one is sold it increases the national debt. The debt subject to limit is now about 2½ billion dollars below the statutory ceiling of 275 billion. The treasury expects to use up the greater portion of that leeway next week in marketing a 1½ to 2 billion dollar bond issue.

Sentence Anita O'Day for Possessing Narcotics

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Singer Anita O'Day has been sentenced to five months in jail and placed on five years' probation for possessing narcotics.

She was convicted last Aug. 25 on testimony of vice squad officers that they saw her inhale powder from a piece of paper in the rest room of a night club, and that tests showed the powder was heroin.

The singer's lawyer moved for a new trial yesterday on grounds of new evidence but the cour denied it.

Holly Auto Theft Brings Prison Sentence to Man

Delmar J. Butcher, 25, of 1201 Mary St., Mt. Morris, was sentenced to one-and-a-half to five years in prison by Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty Friday on an auto theft charge. Butcher pleaded guilty Oct. 2 to stealing an auto in Holly after his own car broke down.

Detroit Man Gets 1 to 5 Years Prison for Theft

A one to five year prison sentence was imposed Friday on Charles McGee, 33, of a Detroit hotel, when he appeared before Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty on a charge of larceny by conversion.

McGee pleaded guilty Oct. 2 to stealing an auto and converting it to his own use and will serve his sentence in Southern Michigan Prison at Jackson.

Elks Ruler to Be Guest

HOLLAND (AP)—Earl E. James, of Oklahoma City, Okla., grand exalted ruler of the Elks Lodge, will be guest of local Elks at a banquet in his honor Nov. 23.

Messerschmitt Sees U. S. Plane Factories

LOS ANGELES (AP) — If aircraft manufacture is ever permitted in Germaany again, Willy Messerschmitt hopes to return to plane designing.

Messerschmitt, whose World War II Luftwaffe fighters were the lance-point of Hitler's air power, now is engaged in furniture manufacturing in Augsburg. He is looking over the airplane factories in Southern California.

"Do you think Germany should be allowed to produce arms and aircraft?" a reporter asked.

"I'll leave that up to the politicians," answered the bushy-haired designer.

Gets 10 Days for Driving With Revoked License

Stephen Lutz, 33, of 22739 Middlebelt Rd., Farmington, was sentenced Friday to 10 days in Oakland County Jail on a charge of illegal possession of a gun by Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty. Lutz pleaded guilty to the charge Oct. 2.

Red Skelton Will Be Honored by Ornithologists

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The American Ornithologist's Union will honor Red Skelton tonight for his "extensive research on the linguistics of the sea gull."

The AOU, founded in 1883, is composed of university and museum experts on birds.

The movie and TV comedian will receive the citation at a banquet which closes the group's three-day meeting here.

Kenneth E. Steager, secretary of the AOU, said "Too many people take birds for granted. We just want to honor Skelton for telling those sea gull stories."

Besides, Steager said, the citation will "keep some of our members from taking themselves too seriously."

Skelton said he is preparing a dozen new sea gull stories to test on his learned audience, adding: "I hope they won't give me the bird."

3 Youths Sentenced for Night Breakins

Three Pontiac youths with good war records were placed on probation Friday by Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty when they appeared before him for sentencing on a charge of breaking and entering in the nighttime.

James Nickerson, 22, of 1371 N. Perry St., Albert McConnell, 24, of 787 Sterling Rd. and Thomas Miller, 23, of 578 E. Columbia St., each received two years probation and were assessed $200 costs.

They pleaded guilty Oct. 2 to stealing a truck and safe from a store at 239 Pontiac Rd.

Silent-Screen Star Files Alimony Suit

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A suit for $71,372 in back alimony was filed yesterday by silent screen star Bessie Love against movie writer-producer William B. Hawks.

Married in 1929, they were divorced in 1936. Miss Love, residing in London with their daughter, Patricia, 21, said her claim is based on a property agreement made at the time of their divorce. It gave her from a third to a half of Hawks' earnings, her suit said, minimum payment to be $250 and the maximum $1,000 monthly.

Hawks has since been married to actress Virginia Walker and socialite Mrs. Frances Koshland Judge.

Actor Burt Lancaster Hurt Making Movie

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Burt Lancaster has torn leg and hip ligaments and shooting of a movie has been suspended because a horse fell on him.

Actor and horse cartwheeled off a mountain trail during the filming of a scene, Lancaster's studio said esterday. They rolled 50 feet down a slope in the High Sierras, the horse landing on Lancaster. The ex-circus acrobat was reported en route back to Hollywood.

Church Women Plan Program

World Community Day to Be Observed Here Monday, Nov. 9

World Comunity Day, observed annually by United Church Women, will be held Nov. 9 this year at First Presbyterian Church. The event will begin at 12:30 with "Luncheon is Served."

The theme this year is "Building Lasting Peace."

The program will include several Will Build Peace," also, a panel discussion and worship service.

Mrs. Walter Willson is the local president and acting as program chairman is Mrs. John Garrison.

United Church Women was organized in Pontiac as Pontiac Council of Church Women. It is a group of church women from most of the churches who are united for Christian service. They seek to promote interracial goodwill and to promote a feeling of unity among the various denominations.

The group meet once a month for this purpose and the membership is open to anyone interested.
