But Total Drive Lags

UF Women's Section Speeds Past Its Goal

The Pontiac Area United Fund today announced its Women's Division, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Donald E. White, has surpassed its quota by $2,040.

Latest returns indicate that more than 1,200 door-to-door solicitors in the division have collected $22,830 or 109.8 per cent of their $20,790 goal.

"We are extremely pleased with the fine performance turned in by these women," stated Philip J. Monaghan, campaign chairman. "However, we are also disappointed with the returns presently registered by our two large divisions."

The Industrial Division, chairmaned by Semon E. Knudsen stands at 60 per cent complete with $165,000 turned in.

The Commercial Division is lagging even farther behind with $88,759, or 49 per cent of its $179,371 quota, audited at Fund headquarters.

Judge Clark J. Adams and Berkeley Voss, the two chairmen of the Commercial Division have urged workers to redouble their efforts, recheck their call lists, and speed their returns to the United Fund office.

Only four days remain until the conclusion of this year's Tenth Anniversary Appeal and the Fund still lacks $224,410 of reaching its goal.

Mrs. White and her three co-chairmen, Mrs. Noel Buckner, Mrs. Robert Giroux and Mrs. J. S. Tuttle, are very happy with the results of the Women's Division.

PROUD OF WOMEN

"We are extremely proud of the fine individual efforts turned in by our workers," stated Mrs. White. "Their performance has enabled this year's reorganized Women's Division to exceed anything the door-to-door solicitors have ever achieved in the nine-year history of the Fund."

Goodby Kiss Proves Fatal to Detroiter

DETROIT (UPI) — William J. Garner, 31, leaned over to kiss his wife Geraldine goodby as he stood alongside his car, parked on the shoulder of the road.

Mrs. Garner, in the car with their 5-year-old son Martin, heard only a "swoosh"—and her husband was gone.

She found him lying half a block down the road, his skull fractured in six places. He had been caught and tossed 146 feet when a car ran off the road and sideswiped the Garner auto.

The driver, Charles Hessen, 23, told police he must have fallen asleep on his way home from work. He was held for investigation of negligen. homicide.

Garner died en route to a hospital.

Question Was Complex

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (UPI) — "What time do the polls close?" the man on the telephone asked the Knox County election commission at 7:58 p.m., Tuesday. "I've got a bunch of people standing in line out here." "Everybody in line at 8 p.m. can vote," the clerk told him. "Who wants to vote?" roared the caller. "I want to sell beer."

Supervisors to Study Merger - Promotion as Corporation Counsel

Oakland County supervisors Monday will be asked to consider the appointment of Norman R. Barnard as corporation counsel, in a move to consolidate his old duties as committee clerk-legislative agent with those of the counsel's office.

Barnard, 43, former Troy Township justice of the peace, clerk, and supervisor, has been in charge of the Board of Supervisors' 27 committees and legislative agent since 1956.

Letters went out to 82 county supervisors today asking them to study Barnard's possible elevation as the county's top legal advisor, a post made vacant with the death last month of Harry J. Merritt.

Missing Airliner Believed Stolen by Cuban Rebels

American, 10 Women Aboard; Plane Vanishes During Short Flight

HAVANA (UPI) — A Cubana airliner carrying 29 persons, including an American and 10 women, was missing today over rebel-ridden Eastern Cuba, and there were strong indications it was hijacked by the insurgents.

Four unidentified men who boarded the twin-engined DC3 in Manzanillo were believed to be rebel agents like those who have stolen two other Cuban airliners in little more than two weeks. One of the stolen planes crashed in Nipe Bay, killing 7 Americans and 10 Cubans.

The missing plane was flying from Havana to Santiago on a route including several intermediate stops. It left Manzanillo at 4:29 p.m. yesterday on a half-hour hop to Holguin and has not been seen since.

The lone American aboard, Robert Montgomery (hometown unknown), was believed to be a sailor on the way to the U.S. Navy's big Guantanamo base.

The U.S. government is taking an increasingly sharp interest in the rebels' plane-snatching tactics because of the threat to American lives. U.S. Navy divers recovered the bodies of 8 of the 17 Nipe victims last night, and U.S. investigators have been ordered to look into the crash.

The identity of the Nipe hijackers was established positively last night, when the body of one of the victims was found to be clad in the green fatigues affected by the rebels.

A cartridge belt carrying a holster for a .45 automatic was strapped around the rebel's body, as was a bandolier containing .45 caliber ammunition. The butt of a broken .30 caliber rifle was found near the body.

Customary plane-snatching procedure, in Cuba as elsewhere, is for a number of gunmen masquerading as passengers to board the airliner chosen as a target. When the plane is in the air, they force the pilot at gunpoint to fly

GOING HOME — Premature baby Tina Marie Stowe is being held by her mother for the first time since her birth three months ago at Pontiac General Hospital. The tiny baby weighed one pound and nine ounces at birth, dropped down to one pound four ounces, and upon her release Tuesday, tipped the scales at 5 pounds seven ounces. She set a record as the longest-staying premature baby at the hospital.

Violent Storm Breaks 'Island' Into 2 Sections

Howling Winds Lash Scientists, AF Crew in Arctic Ocean

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP) — Twenty-one men, marooned when a violent polar storm broke their ice island in half, awaited rescue today as howling winds tore at their tiny, exposed floe in the Arctic Ocean.

The Alaskan Air Command, ready to make its rescue as soon as the storm abates, said the 21 men on the International Geophysical Year station were in no immediate danger.

The ice island, known as Drifting Station A, broke in two Sunday.

The island was 960 miles northeast of Barrow, Alaska, and 600 miles northwest of Thule, Greenland.

The 21 men were on the campsite half of the island when it broke apart. The rescue was complicated because the 2,000-foot aircraft runway was on the other half of the mile-long, mile-wide floe.

Before the rescue could be completed, the 11 Air Force men, nine scientists and Father Tom Cunningham, a noted Barrow expert on the polar regions had to make a dash by small boat across a mile and a half of open water to the runway half of the island.

The huge ice floe, 10 feet thick, was first manned as a floating Arctic scientific station in the spring of 1957. It has served as a base for a variety of scientific observations.

Hoffa Prepared to Talk Today

Lawyers Ready to Tell Union Side of Debate With Monitors

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Teamster President James R. Hoffa and his lawyers were ready today to tell a federal judge their side of a long-standing argument with monitors the judge named to keep an eye on them.

The court-appointed monitors asked Judge F. Dickinson Letts yesterday to force the Teamsters to comply with clean-up orders and to postpone a scheduled March convention which would elect new officers.

The Hoffa group's reply could come today.

Martin F. O'Donoghue, chairman of the three-man board of monitors, told Letts that the union had refused to carry out a series of clean-up directives.

He said Hoffa and other officials had ignored the monitors' orders to bring corruption charges against Teamster Vice President Owen B. Brennan of Detroit, and to audit books of locals in New York and Springfield, Mo.

The judge appointed the monitors last January after 13 rank-and-file Teamsters sued for the ouster of Hoffa, who is provisional president until the monitors set up bylaws, voting and auditing reforms and a new convention is held.

O'Donoghue said yesterday the union's plans for a March 17 convention in Chicago would allow time for only a "skimpy" auditing system to be installed "which they could overthrow the day we are out of office.

20 Ounces at Birth, Chubby Baby Home

By REBA HEINTZELMAN

Tiny Tina Marie Stowe, a premature baby who weighed only 20 ounces at one time, left a crew of dewy-eyed nurses at Pontiac General Hospital, when she was taken home Tuesday.

From the time the baby was born—14 weeks too soon—she has been the "premie-donna" of the second floor nursery, and her three months of life has set a record for premature babies' stay at the hospital, according to attendants.

Doctors had held little hope for Tina's survival, as her heart had stopped beating several times after her arrival.

However, there was one nurse or another hovering over the baby constantly, and Tina's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Stowe of 4410 White Lake Rd., sincerely believe that this attention saved their baby.

From a mere speck of life, Tina has grown into a well developed chubby, five pound-seven ounce baby, so that now her parents are able to hold her for the first time.

Nurses explained that most premature babies do not have any hair on their heads at birth. Not so with Tina — she had thick black curls, which added to her doll-like appearance.

FED EVERY 3 HOURS

Every three hours the baby will receive a formula packed with vitamins and body building elements designed to speed her future development.

For her going-home outfit, Mrs. Stowe's mother, Mrs. Kenneth Barber of Clarkston, made a miniature bonnet, sweater and boots.

Fully clothed and ready to go, Tina was off for home like any other baby, except she was three months late — — not unusual for women, really.

Welfare Funds to Hit $744,000

Will Ask Supervisors for $200,000 More at Monday Session

Approval to transfer another $200,000 from other county funds to meet an ever-increasing social welfare load—which has necessitated the borrowing of half a million dollars already this year — will be requested from the Oakland County Board of Supervisors Monday.

This borrowing will have to be stopped in a month, Robert Y. Moore, chairman of the Board of Auditors, said, because funds and surpluses have been drained dry.

Throughout the year Oakland County's biggest fiscal headache has been the search for funds to off-set the record number of families on relief rolls due to poor economic conditions.

This number today stands at 2,901 families or roughly 12,184 county residents subsisting entirely from welfare receipts. This includes 923 families in the city of Pontiac, according to George H. Burt, director of the Department of Social Welfare.

County supervisors Monday will be asked to approve another $200,000 loan from medical care facility and indigent housing funds. This proposed loan is included in the total $744,019, Moore said.

He said the many funds from which monies have been borrowed are expected to be reimbursed in the future. One source of reimbursement, to provide roughly $440,000 Moore said, is the freed one-quarter mill which used to be a part of the 15-mill constitutional taxing limitation, for the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority.

55 Republicans and 55 Dems in House to Square Off in January

Which Political Party Will Rule in Lansing?

By TOM SHAWVER

LANSING (AP) — Fifty-five Republicans and 55 Democrats will square off in the Capitol next January to decide who will run the House of Representatives for the next two years.

It has all the makings of a first class row.

Michigan voters set up the unprecedented situation in Tuesday's election when they elected an equal number of Republicans and Democrats to occupy the 110 seats in the House.

Now the puzzler is which party will organize the lower chamber when it convenes two months from now, and thus take over the reins of authority.

If there's to be a compromise, as there almost certainly must be, what form will it take?

Leaders of both parties agreed today that election of six Democratic legislators in districts now Republican created a devilishly complex situation fraught with potential word battles and stalemates that could throw a monkey wrench in legislative machinery.

GOT TO GIVE

"Something's got to give somewhere," said House clerk Norman E. Philleo, who as an employe of the Republican-dominated House might lose his job if Democrats take command.

Philleo recalled a similar situation 25 years ago when several legislators lost their lives in a fire at Lansing's Hotel Kerns. Democrats were numerically stronger but without a majority of total House seats.

House members solved that dilemma, he said, by electing as their two top officers a Democratic speaker and a Republican speaker pro-tem. Democrats, however, retained the upper hand.

Rep. George M. Van Peursem (R-Zeeland), House speaker and the likely candidate to succeed himself if Republicans win control, thought leaders of both parties ought to get together before January to lay out the framework for compromise.

"With a Democratic state administration and a Republican Senate, the House could very well serve as a balance of power in state government," he said.

"We have a choice of working out an agreement for the best of all concerned or fighting each other in the most ineffective legislature ever seen."

Rep. Louis Mazzano (D-Wakefield), House minority leader, called for such a meeting within a week.

Compromise also was the solution offered by Rep. Joseph J. Kowalski (D-Detroit), generally the Democratic parliamentarian in inter-party hassles.

But when the time for a showdown comes, he said, Democrats by virtue of their vote plurality in the total state vote should rate first consideration.

Democrats, he said, have been trying unsuccessfully for two decades to regain House control lost in the 1938 election and "aren't in the mood to take a back seat."

One political writer offered a simple solution—flip a coin.

With Republicans dominating the Senate 22-12, there's bound to be considerable "horse-trading" between the two chambers in order to block or push through various programs.

Gov. Williams and fellow Democrats sought House control as a wedge in pushing through some of the Democratic programs repeatedly turned down by Republicans in his 10-year reign.

Oscar Stirs Up Paar Nighter

Levant On – What a Show!

By WILLIAM EWALD

NEW YORK (UPI) — Oscar Levant, the flayboy of the Western world, appeared on the NBC-TV "Jack Paar Show" last night for a half-hour.

It was unquestionably one of the most provocative, fascinating, intoxicating, piquant, mad-brained, splendiferous half hours of the TV year.

There's not much point in my getting in the way of Levant. So, here are some of the things he said:

On Zsa Zsa Gabor: "She's discovered the secret of perpetual middle age . . . she's morally inspiring to me. She does social work among the rich."

On Minnie Guggenheim (a Paar regular): "She's a good friend. As long as you're on top, she'll stick by you. Is that snide?"

On Disneyland Park: "I have my own hallucinations. I don't have to go to Disneyland."

On a fellow patient in a mental institution: "He was euphoric. He thought everything was wonderful all the time—you know, like Dinah Shore?"

On Dody Goodman (a former Paar regular): "I thought she was slightly overrated. For a while, I thought she was a goose caller on a hunt."

On Oscar Levant: "I'm the Boris Pasternak of Los Angeles . . . "

More on Oscar Levant: "I'm in the middle of a breakdown. It's my fifth in two years . . . even the ambulance driver is scared of me."

On Levant's children: "They have good reason to hate me. And to hate your father is quite therapeutic."

On Levant's marriage: "My wife is Irish and we have quite an emotional range. It's from begorrah to oy-vey."

On the difference between Republicans and Democrats: "The Democrats give the poor a chance to become corrupt."

Accused Slayer Ruled as Sane

Raymond Alyea to Face Trial on July Murder of Southfield Man

Raymond Leo Alyea will stand trial for the first-degree murder of a Southfield night watchman as two Pontiac psychiatrists today ruled him sane at the time of the July 31 slaying.

Oakland County Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty said he would sign an order finding Alyea, 35, part-time gardener, sane, after hearing the testimony of Drs. Ivan A. LaCore and Clinton J. Mumby.

Both doctors, who examined Alyea at the request of his attorney, said they found no signs of mental disorders, and believed Alyea was sane when he allegedly killed Anthony J. Jasinski, 51, who was employed by a landscape nursery.

William E. Lang, assistant Oakland County prosecutor, said Alyea probably will be tried for the murder during the December term of court. Alyea is confined in the county jail.

William R. Beasley, Alyea's attorney, asked for the sanity hearing believing Alyea might have been suffering from the effects of battle fatigue he suffered in World War II at the time of the alleged killing.

56-Mile Gales Hit Detroit Area, Cause Damage

By The Associated Press

Winds up to 56 m.p.h.—gale force — battered the Detroit area last night. Several cars were damaged by windblown debris and one man was hurt slightly.

A construction barricade 10 feet high and 40 feet long toppled on a row of parked cars.

At least one other car was damaged when wind blew a tree down.

Cyril Dolan, of 6545 McGraw, was cut by flying glass when wind broke a plate glass window. He was treated for cuts on the right leg.

Stiff cold winds sent temperatures tumbling across most of the mid-continent today and fanned the cold air into Eastern sections of the country.

Wind gusts from 45 to 65 m.p.h. churned waters of most of the Great Lakes during the night as the storm center moved north-eastward behind the storm center and extended into the Appalachians and west Gulf Coast region.

The cool air was expected to move into the Atlantic states during the day after Wednesday's comparatively mild weather. But winds were expected to diminish sharply in the Northeast as the storm center north of the Great Lakes moves farther into Canada.

HOWARD F. SIMMONS

MMPA Chief Plans to Retire

Manager to Quit Jan. 1 After 34 Years Service in Association

After 34 years with the Michigan Milk Producers' Assn., Howard F. Simmons, presently its manager, will retire effective Jan. 1, he reported today.

Simmons, of 130 E. Iroquois Rd., announced his plans at the conclusion of his annual report to delegates attending the 42nd annual meeting of MMPA in East Lansing. He said he would continue as a milk producer on his farm near Ortonville.

The manager of the 15,000 member farmer's cooperative, Michigan's largest, began his career with the group in 1925 as a butterfat tester. Then he was one of the 18 employes compared to today's 450.

In 1942 he was named secretary-manager. Previously he served as a fieldman, director of field service and association secretary.

During his job as manager he was instrumental in welding the major milk markets of Michigan into a state-wide organization and developed the farmer-owned system for receiving, transporting and manufacturing milk.

During World War II, he was special advisor to the Office of Defense Transportation and consultant to the War Food Administration.

He served as director of the National Milk Producers Federation and the National Dairy Council, director of the Detroit Dairy Council, the Michigan Allied Dairy Assn., the Michigan Assn. of Farmer Cooperatives, the Michigan Dairy Memorial Scholarship Foundation and the Michigan Dairy Farmers Federation, a group he founded.

board's committees on financing and salaries.

Besides appointing Barnard as counsel, the proposal, if approved by supervisors, would mean that assistant corporation counsel Charles A. Davis would be retained in this position, and Robert P. Allen, presently attorney with the drain office, would become a full-time second assistant under Barnard and Davis.

"The proposal that is being suggested offers the special advantages that we will always have one or more attorneys available at all times," said Fred W. Smith, chairman of the Ways and Means Committee.

Smith said the two-way consolidation would not cost the county any more money than what is being expended now.

He said the selection of Barnard, "a qualified and practicing attorney," to work with Davis and Allen would create "an outstanding team to completely handle all of the functions of the office."

As committee clerk, Barnard supervises the meetings of all of the board's committees, as they meet to study matters before the full board acts on them.

The position as legislative agent requires that Barnard be in Lansing a great deal to watch all proposed laws which might affect Oakland County.

The latest proposed consolidation, Smith said, was not a part of two steps this year which merged the offices of county clerk and register of deeds, and suggested the drain commission office be consolidated with the Department of Public Works, if needed legislation can be enacted.

UF Women's Section Speeds Past Its Goal

this year's Women's Division, have surpassed their quotas.

Pontiac turned in a total of $13,633 including advance gift donations from $100-and-over givers in the city. Moreover, the door-to-door workers topped 130 per cent of their $6,776 quota with $8,987 collected.

Waterford Township, under Mrs. Giroux's guidance, turned in $7,047 or 104 per cent of quota.

The workers in Lake Angelus under Mrs. J. S. Tuttle have also exceeded their quota, with $2,150 or 116 per cent of quota.

Three of the four Pontiac areas under Mrs. Buckner have passed the 100 per cent mark. They are: Area I, chairmanned by Mrs. Roderick Taylor, $2,282 or 141 per cent of quota; Area II, chairmanned by Mrs. Meyer Simon, $3,435 or 123 per cent of quota; Area III, chairmanned by Mrs. Merle Voss, $1,725 or 121 per cent of quota; and Area IV, chairmanned by Mrs. Glen Hartung, $1,543 or 150 per cent of quota.

In addition, 25 district chairmen in Pontiac surpassed their respective quotas to become eligible for the 1958 Indian Brave Oscar award.

All four area chairmen and 28 of the 52 district chairmen have surpassed their quotas in Waterford, according to Mrs. Giroux. The area chairmen are: Mrs. Duane Lemaux, Area I, $1,688 or 107 per cent of quota; Mrs. Jack Dorman, Area II, $936 or 106 per cent of quota; Mrs. Milton Harrington, Area III, $2,440 or 102 per cent of quota and Mrs. Alan Howe, Area IV, $1,982 or 103 per cent of quota.

the plane to some point not on its original route.

The first of the recent hijackings occurred Oct. 21, when a Cubana Airlines DC3 was seized over Eastern Cuba and forced to land at a rebel-held airstrip in the Maestra Mountains. The pilot was wounded by the hijackers.

The passengers of that plane were eventually released and allowed to make their way back to government territory.

The plane that crashed in Nipe Bay was a four-engined, British-made Viscount prop-jet on a flight from Miami to Varadero Beach, a Cuban resort. The hijackers tried to divert the plane to an airstrip at Preston, but it overshot the field and plunged into the bay.

The Cuban government appealed to the United States yesterday to tighten security precautions at Miami and other international take-off points to keep rebel gunmen off Cuba-bound planes.

The one American survivor of the Nipe crash, Osiris Martinez, of Calhoun, Tenn., was brought here by special plane last night. His father and other relatives were waiting to meet him.

Cvijanovich, a physicist, is a member of Columbia University's Lamont Geological Observatory staff and is one of a number of Columbia scientists who have worked in relays on the floating island.

The scientists have, among other things, made the first photographs of the ocean bottom in the central polar regions. They also have collected samples of the sediment on the Arctic Ocean floor.

It had been hoped that the ice island would drift across the North Pole and at one time was within 300 miles of it. However, seasonal changes in wind and current reversed the island's direction.

Junior Achievement Units Organized for Business

BIRMINGHAM — Reorganization of this year's eight Birmingham Junior Achievement companies has been completed and all are busy at their project, according to JA Director James F. Driver of 1654 Stanley St.

About 175 Birmingham High School boys and girls are active in the program, meeting at their center, 177 S. Woodward Ave., for two-hour weekly sessions and conferences with adult advisers.

Sponsoring the clubs are banks, a utility company, an advertising firm and other businesses.

The goal of each JA company is to operate as a profitable business, while providing its members with valuable experience they can use when they go out into business world or to their professions, according to Driver.

All money earned is put back in the business, except for a nominal dividend paid to stockholders. The clubs are open to all high school students. The only requirement is that they be ambitious, he said.

Off to a head start this year is the Jasem group, sponsored by the Birmingham Kiwanis Club. Jasem (Junior Achievement of Southeastern Michigan) presently is manufacturing table coasters for the Christmas season.

The company also is planning to sell stock to the public at 50 cents a share. Members expect to realize about $100 from the sale for working capital.

A meeting of the Federated Civic Associations of Bloomfield Township has been called for 8 tonight at Bloomfield Hills High School.

Discussion of the possibility of Home Owners Assn. as a single federated organization is scheduled according to FCA President George Fetzer. The Home Owners Assn. is comprised of nine civic groups in the Bloomfield area.

Both have similar objectives in protecting property values and promoting interests of all township residents, Fetzer said.

The combined organization would represent a majority of the township's residents, he said.

Gerald Taple of the Michigan State Police will show a sound movie on State Police work at tomorrow's meeting of the Birmingham Senior Men's Club at the Community House.

Discussion after the luncheon will be on literature and the current trends in reading.

According to the monthly report of Birmingham Fire Chief Park H. Smith, there was no fire damage in the city last month. The department answered 34 alarms, 25 for investigation of reported fires and five for first aid.

---

The Supper Club of the Congregational Church of Birmingham will meet at 6:45 p.m. tomorrow at the church. Dr. Alfred Gray, interim minister at the church, will tell of his experiences as chaplain of a women's prison in California.

---

Rebekah District 6 is holding its annual meeting today at Novi, under the direction of Mrs. Kathryn Bechert of Pontiac. At 7:30 this evening, Mrs. Ina Nixon, captain of Birmingham Lodge 445, will preside during the memorial service presented by the Birmingham group.

7-Pound Baby Found in Detroit Trash Can

DETROIT (UPI)—A 7-pound infant boy believed to be less than one day old, was found in a rubbish can here today. He was taken to a hospital where his condition was described as fair.

The baby was discovered by Earl Miller (418 Holbrook) and Harrison Smith (302 Owen) when they heard cries coming from a rubbish can while they chatted.

Laingsburg Man Killed

LANSING (UPI) — Thomas Coe, 56, of Laingsburg, was killed Wednesday when he walked into the path of a southbound car on U.S. 27, about eight miles north of here.

Sewage Disposal Problem Up Tonight

A canvass of Tuesday's votes and a discussion of what the city can do now that voters have again rejected a sewage disposal system bond issue, will get top billing at a meeting of Pontiac city commissioners tonight.

The required canvass of how the city voted in the fall election was expected, but commissioners had hoped to canvass a passed bond issue instead of a defeated one.

The $3,300,000 general obligation bond issue, to enlarge the city's system by constructing a second plant, failed by 556 votes of the 60 per cent needed from city property owners.

"We're getting closer everytime," declared City Manager Walter K. Willman. "There's a spring election and always revenue bond financing." Voters in 1957 also rejected a like proposal.

Gas Company Seeks to Extend Service

WASHINGTON (AP) — Michigan Wisconsin Pipe Line Co. has advised the Federal Power Commission it plans to continue efforts to extend natural gas service to Menominee, Mich., and 23 Wisconsin communities.

In a letter of intention filed with the FPC, the company again said it wishes to extend its facilities to serve Michigan's Upper Peninsula. It said that while such service may be provided initially with gas from the United States, the company is willing to cooperate with a Canadian gas importer to serve the Upper Peninsula.

The Wisconsin communities and Menominee have contracted to buy all their gas from Michigan Wisconsin.

The company said that although it can deliver the gas promptly from pipeline supplies which have been reserved for the purpose, it is willing to buy Canadian gas from any conomic pipeline importer that desires to pipe the gas into Wisconsin.

Menotti Musical Drama Impressive Theater Work

By JACK GAVER
UPI Drama Editor

NEW YORK (UPI)—So simple—so impressive—such fine theater!

That sums up "Maria Golovin," the latest of the musical dramas of Gian Carlo Menotti which David Merrick presented last night at the Martin Beck Theater with an assist from the National Broadcasting Co. and Byron Goldman.

This welding of music and drama, which Menotti (and his box-office-minded producer) prefer not to call opera, is as effective a piece of theater as there is in town both in its conception and execution.

Menotti, the librettist, has contrived the most simple sort of love story and kept it uncluttered. As his own director, he has staged it with a sure and theater-wise hand.

As composer, he has tailored the music in perfect fit to the dramatic need, mostly solos and duets, but with one memorable trio.

The new work would seem to be much more impressive all around than Menotti's "The Medium" and "The Consul," and it is in much sharper dramatic focus than was "The Saint of Bleecker Street," although the latter was a much more ambitious job musically.

The cast is superb throughout. Richard Cross, with only about a year of professional experience, and Franca Duval, a native of Brooklyn who went to Italy to build her career, have the two top roles. They are singers who can act.

Patricia Neway, no stranger to Menotti's works; William Chapman, Ruth Kobart, Norman Kelley and a non-singing tike from Italy, seven-year-old Lorenzo Muti, round ou the cast.

Rouben Ter-Arutunian's sets are little short of sensational.

The fact that there is little doubt about the general, if not the specific, outcome of the tragedy almost from the beginning in no way lessens the interest or suspense.

The setting is the villa of war-blinded Donato and his mother "near a frontier in a European country a few years after a recent war."

They rent part of the villa for the summer to a wealthy woman and her small son, whose tutor accompanies them.

The woman's husband is one of Europe's still unreleased prisoners of war. She can't even be quite sure he is still alive. The blind man becomes her lover. Eventually the husband does return.

The ending may seem a little over-contrived and unrealistic in retrospect, but Menotti gets away with it.

The work, which NBC commissioned, had its world premiere at the Brussels Fair last summer and all of the present cast except Kelley were in it at that time.

Days Lost in Strikes Hit New Low in '57

WASHINGTON — There has been a steady decline since 1947 in the number of man-days lost because of strikes in the United States. In that year 34,600,000 man-days were lost for that reason; in 1949 the loss totaled 30,500,000 man-days.

But since then the loss has declined, dropping to 16,500,000 man-days in 1957, the lowest since World War II. That represented 14 per cent of the estimated working time of all workers, the lowest percentage in many years.

And the 3 per cent of the total number of workers employed that were involved in work stoppages during 1957 was the lowest percentage since the days of World War II.

Violence Mars British Holiday

Fireworks, Riots, Mobs of Vandals Celebrate Guy Fawkes Day

LONDON (AP) — Guy Fawkes caused the biggest commotion Wednesday night since he tried to blow up Britain's Parliament 353 years ago.

British children of all ages ever since have marked the event with an annual barrage of firecrackers and back yard blazes on which Guy is burned in effigy.

Wednesday night in London's London's Trafalgar Square, more than 90 youths and girls were arrested in a violent firecracker riot which took more than 100 bobbies two hours to quell.

In nearby Paddington, a firecracker lobbed through a shop door landed on a pile of fireworks and exploded the lot. The shop was burned out.

At Lewes, Sussex County, 65 people were arrested for exploding fireworks in the street.

The traditional custom of burning an effigy of Pope Paul V — who reigned at the time of the pro-Catholic Gunpowder Plot — ran into opposition. There were running fights between rival factions.

A mob of 2,000 youths rampaged through a street in the south coast resort of Worthing, smashing shop windows with bricks and milk bottles, attacking police and overturning cars. Boys — many with "Teddy boy" ducktail haircuts and Edwardian clothes — dragged barricades across streets to stop cars and buses.

Thousands thronged the streets in the university towns of Oxford and Cambridge. More cars were overturned, more people hurt.

In Glasgow, Scotland, Police Chief Tom Kelly called it the worst Guy Fawkes Night in memory. An 11-year-old boy was killed when he tried to retrieve a firework from under the wheels of an automobile. Nine people were burned in other incidents.

Ten families fled from their homes when a motorcycle was set on fire. The burning gasoline threatened a row of houses.

King of Jordan Plans to Leave for Vacation

AMMAN, Jordan (AP)—Young King Hussein, who has weathered the summer's threat of a pro-Nasser revolt, plans to start a vacation abroad next week.

Officials said he will fly to Switzerland Monday or Tuesday for a rest and medical checkup, leaving the kingdom's affairs temporarily in the hands of his ministers.

Premier Samir Rifai has expressed confidence in the ability of the government to maintain order.

The officials denied rumors that Hussein did not intend to return. They said he would be back in less than a month.

The 23-year-old monarch will have a reunion in Switzerland with his mother Zeine, his 2-year-old daughter Alia and his brother Prince Mohammed, 16.

The king is winding up a series of visits to various sectors of this small, impoverished country and to units of the tough, 30,000-man army whose continued support is vital to his reign.

A Cairo newspaper, Al Akhbar, asserted yesterday Israel may attack Jordan when Hussein leaves. It said Arab armies had taken up positions to guard against that. Support was reported pledged by Iraq and Lebanon.

Official sources here said there were no signs of an Israeli mobilization on Jordan's western frontier, as charged in Cairo and Moscow radio broadcasts recently.

Prime minister David Ben-Gurion denied the charges in Israel's parliament Monday, calling them the work of "conscienceless and irresponsible slanderers".

Friends, Neighbors Aid Burned-Out Family

Friends and neighbors of the Leon Adams family of Waterford Township have organized to help the family after their home at 1165 Coshocton Ave. was destroyed by fire Sunday night.

Adams, an unemployed carpenter, his wife and three baby girls under three were not home when the fire occurred. Mrs. Robert Klein, of 1165 Coshocton Ave., is heading the drive.

Big Crops This Year Add to Farm Problem

Although 25 million acres were taken out of production by the Soil Bank, the United States has the biggest glut of wheat, corn and other crops in its history.

The huge increase is due to modern equipment, use of higher yielding seed, better fertilizers and insecticides and factory-like management. This year's crop is 117 per cent above the 1947-49 average. Corn accounts for 3.68 billion bushels, soybeans 572 million and wheat 1.5 billion, 16 per cent above last year.

All this bountiful harvest was grown on 330 million acres, the lowest planted in 40 years. On top of this the Government already owns $2.5 billion worth of surplus wheat.

One of Secretary Benson's aides asserts that if not one bushel of wheat were grown in this country in 1959, the 1.3 billion bushel carryover from 1958 and previous years would be enough to fill all our domestic and export needs and still leave a carry-over on July 1, 1960 of at least 300 million bushels.

The fact seems to be that a system of subsidies adopted to save distressed small farmers isn't necessary for the big business farming has become. Sec. BENSON repeatedly has pointed out that so long as artificial price supports keep U.S. wheat 60 per cent higher than the world market, the glut will continue. Only a free market can bring stability to U.S. agriculture.

America Sells to Japan Twice What It Buys

In a recent New York talk Japan's Ambassador ASAKAI, asking for understanding of his country's trade position, pointed out some interesting facts.

Each year Japan ships $600 million worth of goods to this country but we sell $1.2 billion of trade goods to Japan. When the $600 million worth reaches our retail outlets the value is greatly increased and, says Ambassador ASAKAI, "this increased portion of value will stay in American pockets in the form of wages, salaries, fees for services, freight charges, custom duties and profits."

Much of the goods we buy is manufactured from raw materials Japan buys in this country. In addition the finished products frequently are made with American machines lubricated with American oil and powered by American generators.

The textile industry complains of Japanese imports and under an agreement with Japan when its textile sales reach 1.8 per cent of U.S. production, reductions in purchases are made. This often causes severe economic depression in Japan's textile areas but causes scarcely a ripple in this country. It might be pointed out here that Japan buys much of its raw cotton from our Southern States.

So when we hear complaints of Japanese or other foreign goods flooding our markets, we must remember that foreign trade isn't so foreign after all. Restrictions on such trade narrow our own export markets.

New University for Atheists in Russia

"Tass, the Soviet news agency, reported that a University of Atheism has opened in Ashkhabad to further the spread of 'scientific-atheistic knowledge.' Ashkhabad is the capital of Soviet Turkmenistan, near the Russian-Iranian border, once a predominantly Moslem area."

Well, the Russians are doing everything possible to separate themselves from enduring world peace, world understanding and the fellowship of man. The depths to which the nation can sink has not been completely plumbed but we must be approaching the ultimate limit.

Pravda recently suggested that the atheists should not "jeer at the believers nor make scornful references to those empty fairy tales about God and heaven." Rather, these religious people should be made to feel ashamed and they should be shown that "only communism brings true happiness."

Largest in State

Oakland County Has Lead Over Wayne in New Plats

Politics: A game that the politicians work at 365 days in the year—and 366 in leap years.

The first issue of "Planning Quarterly," new publication of the Oakland County Planning Commission, put out by its Director, shows that we topped all of Michigan's 83 counties in the number of recorded plats filed during the past six years.

George N. Skrubb,

In that period, 987 Oakland County plats were recorded. Wayne County is in second place with 627, while Macomb had 608 and Genesee 547, our county having 13.4 per cent of all the plats filed in the entire state.

The figures also show that the overplatting of the 1920s is not being repeated in Oakland County. Building permits issued here during the past six years outnumber the lots subdivided, 55,918 to 45,948.

From 1950 to 1957 a total of 28,963 acres was platted in the county, over four-fifths of which was outside the limits of any city or village.

There is a tendency toward wider building lots outside the cities and villages, and for narrower ones within them.

Another Pontiac resident who refuses to accede to the whim of Father Time is of 139 Illinois Ave., who celebrates her 101st birthday in a few days.

Oakland County's delegates at the last Michigan Constitutional Convention were

, Kleber P. Rockwell,

Pontiac attorney, and

also a Pontiac attorney, both now deceased. It convened at Lansing on Oct. 22, 1907, and adjourned on March 3, 1908.

An old shepherd dog of

Mr. and Mrs. Orson Wealthy

of Waterford dives into the Clinton River and catches fish, and brings them to the house. In recent days he has buried some of them in a sand bank, probably preparing for the time when the river is frozen over.

The eight-year old parakeet of

of Keego Harbor escaped from the house the other day for the first time in its life. It returned two days later, and now makes every possible attempt to take another fling.

David Lawrence Says:

Recession, Resentment Beat GOP

WASHINGTON — Discontent—blamed on the party in power in the White House—has won another congressional election in the middle of a presidential term. It happened against Taft in 1910, against Hoover in 1930 and against Eisenhower in 1954, as well as against Wilson in 1918 before the end of World War I, and against Truman in 1946 just after World War II ended.

LAWRENCE

This time it was a two-fold discontent. It involved not only economic issues such as unemployment, cost of living and high taxes, but also emotional resentments over several questions unrelated to the economic controversies of the day.

Millions of conservatives on the Republican side didn't vote. They were alienated by so-called "modern Republican" doctrines which they consider radical, or by the use of federal troops in the Little Rock schools or by bitterness stirred up in some states during the anti-McCarthy battle. New Jersey lost a chance to elect a Republican senator and so did Wisconsin because of the deep-seated friction over some of these emotional questions.

In Utah, due to a party split, Senator Watkins, Republican, who was chairman of the Senate committee that "censored" the late Senator McCarthy, was defeated. The combined vote of the two Republican candidates exceeded that of the winning Democrat.

Several members of the House on the Republican side lost votes in those rural districts of Missouri, Kentucky, West Virginia and Maryland where voters condemned the Republican administration attitude on enforced integration in the schools.

At Little Rock, Ark., by a remarkable "write-in" vote launched in the last 10 days of the campaign, a segregationist candidate, Dr. Dale Alford of the school board, running as an independent, defeated Representative Brooks Hays, Democrat, a veteran of eight terms in the House.

As for any gains for the Republican Party among the Negro voters in the North, these were almost negligible.

The "recession" really beat the Republicans. Farm income has declined in recent years. This hurt the Republicans in the Middle West.

Although business has been improving slowly, the upward movement still wasn't adequate to overcome the economic discontent, especially in farm states like Nebraska, Iowa, Minnesota and Wisconsin, and also in California, Michigan, Indiana, Ohio and Illinois, where the unemployment issue was almost as much a vote-getter for the opposition party as it was when Franklin Roosevelt swept the country in 1932 due to the depression of that period.

None of this can be said to have been unexpected. When the "recession" began to make its appearance in 1957, and the Federal Reserve Board started curtailing bank credit, this correspondent in May, August, September and October 1957 wrote several dispatches predicting that the 1958 election would certainly be lost to the Republicans.

The Republican Party's wounds will not soon be healed. Nelson Rockefeller's victory in New York State for governor—due largely to his winning personality—will give the promoters of dissension among Republicans still more opportunity to cry out that a new deal or "modern Republican" approach and a big spending program is the best way for the Republican Party to get votes and not by the sound economies preached by the conservatives.

The Republicans did not have enough money in the national campaign this time. Many conservatives who have contributed generously in the past were alienated. Some came back at the last minute.

Money, of course, cannot buy a national election. But the labor unions which poured millions of dollars into the campaign in key areas throughout the country in the form of services of precinct workers and expensive publicity on television, radio and billboards, did an effective job in getting indifferent voters to the polls.

The Country Parson

Dr. William Brady Says:

Teeth Need Nourishment Just Like Rest of Body

By quirks of custom and the law, Americans may be qualified to make contracts, pay taxes, vote, hold office, bear arms, inherit, own or bequeath property, serve on juries or marry at the age of 16, 17, 18, 19, 20 or 21.

DR. BRADY

Be that as it may, the fact remains that individuals attain full growth and development — become adults in fact—at the average age of 22, or at anywhere from 18 to 25 years. This is the age at which Americans cut their wisdom teeth — if at all.

Approximately 50 per cent of the population never cut all their wisdom teeth. Why not is an academic question and therefore over my head, but I have a notion that we do not use our teeth enough to preserve them.

In my pamphlet Yankee Stomach (hyperacidity, hunger pain, heartburn, acid eructations, waterbrash, uneasiness from fullness or bloating by gas — for copy send stamped, self-addressed envelope) — I harp on the importance of keeping all your teeth or your dentist's in good functional condition. A significant part of the digestion of carbohydrate is salivary digestion, which begins in the month while the food is being chewed and continues a half-hour or longer after the food has been swallowed.

Dentists — the old times at any rate — seem to think that once a permanent tooth has fully developed it is no longer dependent on nutrition. This is a mistake.

PEAK AT 40

One who has good nutrition grows new cells to replace worn-out cells up to his or her peak of growth. Each likes to think that his peak is a plateau from, say, 22 to 50, though it is at best a mesa for three or four years around 40.

All plant and animal life grows and developes up to the peak of perfection — and having attained the peak begins immediately to decline. This is the point at which the generation or growth of new cells can no longer keep up with the degeneration and death of the old cells — and so the worn out cells are replaced with inert, non-functioning, fibrous or fatty or scar tissue.

This is degeneration. It is the way of all flesh on the other side of the peak. In the jaw, gums and teeth, it means what is commonly called pyorrhea. In the arteries, it is arteriosclerosis. In the joints it is — oh, oh, here we go again — the rheumatiz.

Wherever it may be most obvious, degeneration is fundamentally due to nutritional deficiency through the years, in my opinion.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Crane Doesn't Excuse Ignorance

This week I have been offering you some advice straight from the shoulder, with no punches pulled! For I feel much like Biblical Abraham who denied the rich man's plea for personal attention, when the latter had plenty of access to published advice on such matters. Don't think this column is trivial just because I use 2-syllable words! Newspapers are great educators. Get hep!

By—DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

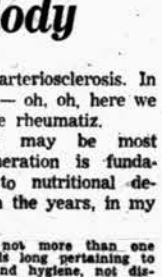
"But my wife has left me," he telephoned a few days ago.



DR. CRANE

"When I got home from the office that night, I found a note on the table, saying she was taking our little boy and returning to her mother.

"She said I was too dictatorial and she felt it was no use for us to try to stay married.

TEST FOR HUSBANDS

Now I don't wish to seem unsympathetic, but when I have used scores and scores of clinical cases in this column, I get irked at the sophisticates who turn up their noses at such wise newspaper advice.

"Have you ever tested yourself on my "Test for a Successful Husband'?" I asked over the telephone, and he said he hadn't.

Yet that is probably the most widely employed Rating Scale for husbands on the North American continent!"

Wouldn't you think that a doctor, of all people, would realize the value of vaccination in marriage matters, as well as for smallpox?

Yet I have been deluged by the wives of professional men, as well as their husbands, who could easily have prevented their entire feuding by reading this column and using a few of the non-profit booklets offered herewith.

This colleague wanted to see me in person, and as a courtesy I consented, but I grumbled to my wife about such a waste of time.

"If he'd just read my column for a few weeks and especially yesterday's list of the 10 Rules for Happy Marriage," I told Mrs. Crane, "he wouldn't need to see me at all."

BUCK PASSERS

Alas, this modern age is typified by buck-passing. People don't like to think for themselves.

No, they want to consult some "expert" who will miraculously remedy their own stupid defects for them.

They want Uncle Sam to handle their welfare problems and a doctor to keep them well and a dentist to guarantee them sound teeth and a Scout Master to offset their own parental short comings.

Then they expect us psychiatrists and Marriage Counsellors to snatch them back from the brink of divorce after they have deliberately set the stage for marital bankruptcy by 10 or 20 years of failure to play the game by the rules.

You must get hep to the "horse sense" laws of life, which demand that you earn your own health and sound teeth and even your entrance to heaven by your own moral efforts.

Read and think a little; then spend some elbow grease working at the jobs facing you on this earth.

Quit asking "experts" to bail you out of your dilemmas.

MODERN LAZARUS

The Bible tells about a sick man named Lazarus who begged crumbs from the table of a certain rich man.

After death, Lazarus was received by Abraham, but the rich man burned in Hades. Looking up, the rich man saw Lazarus and begged Abraham to let Lazarus bring him even a drop of water to cool his charred tongue.

This being impossible, the rich man then wanted Lazarus sent back to earth to warn his five wealthy brothers of what lay ahead.

But the rich man said his brothers would REALLY believe if they saw a dead man rise from the dead. But Abraham disagreed.

I feel much like Abraham when patients ignore the non-profit booklets offered via this column and then high-pressure me for PERSONAL interviews!

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 4c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Voice of the People

'We're Making a Mockery of the Gettysburg Address'

I've just read Lincoln's Gettysburg address through the first time in quite a while, and it strikes quite a contradictory note to the present American life, as I see it. Lincoln said "all men are created equal." This is his opening sentence and after 95 years 10,000 children are out of school because of an issue supposedly bought and paid for with human blood.

Who has the right to breathe clean, free air? Who has the right to vote? Who has the right to die on some battlefield so his children can grow up in a land where the Bill of Rights has some meaning, regardless of race, creed or color?

Let us take heed to the cause of wars and hold in remembrance the thousands who have given their lives, and those that yet live and suffer from wounds inflicted on the battlefield for so noble a cause. We, too, could quite possibly experience the desolation that comes from an invasion within that eats and destroys and promotes behavior towards our individual rights.

Why isn't something done about mine disasters? We hear about civil defense and being prepared for any kind of disasters. Why don't mines have food, water and medical supplies stored at convenient locations throughout the mines? Those men trapped would have a chance to survive longer.

Portraits

By JAMES J. METCALFE

There are those special memories . . . We cherish through the years . . . The most of them are happy ones . . . A few are touched by tears . . . They all become more beautiful . . . The older now they grow . . . And with their age they take their place . . . As days of long ago . . . They are the pictures of a past . . . For which we sometimes yearn . . . But which we know so well is gone . . . And which cannot return . . . They have no market value in . . . Our commerce of today . . . They are not even anything . . . That we can give away . . . And yet those memories can play . . . A most important part . . . As they inspire or console . . . Or elsewise help the heart.

Second Writer Roots for Coach

It took the article on Bob Mineweaser to get me to write. I'd like to know what's the matter with parents of St. Michael students to let a coach like Bob get away.

Spirit has always been instilled in us and also sportsmanship, by a great guy. He used to say, "Play hard, clean football, do your best and they'll know you're from St. Mike's." That spirit was inspired in me from Coach Mineweaser as a freshman eight years ago. It was strong even after I graduated. Now he's gone and, believe me, he took the spirit of the Big Blue with him. I lost it and so has every other alumnus.

I'm still plugging for Bob, and there are a lot of us, but there are four times that amount that didn't have the guts to do anything about it.

Blarney Is Truth Magnificently Garnished

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK — "Blarney" is a system of romantic semantics whereby a man—using only his vocal chords and natural optimism—can make a woman with buck teeth and pimples feel beautiful.

The Irish lay claim to the formula for "blarney" and insist that it bears no resemblance to recent Americanized versions of the technique:

Like outright flattery, kiss-blowing, and streetcorner whistling.

"A pimply, buck-toothed woman may feel beautiful when she is whistled at unexpectedly, and she may blush pleasurably if she is flattered," said Timothy J. O'Driscoll profoundly.

"But at best, the reaction is only temporary. Flattery and uncalled-for wolf whistles are out-and-out lies, however kindly they are intended.

"Blarney, on the other hand, is the truth — magnificently garnished."

Timothy O'Driscoll, sometimes known as the "County Corker," came to New York this week to urge more Americans to travel to Ireland. As director of the Irish Tourist Board, his motive is business. As a kindly, debonair adviser to whimsical mankind, however, his object is to promote love and laughter and well-being for all.

In the former capacity, he points out that Ireland offers the visitor beautiful scenery, ancient castles with the best in ghosts, historic shrines, graves dating back to 4,000 B.C., more than 200 golf courses, and some of the friendliest folk in Christendom. He adds, "I don't know if cheapness interests Americans, but good steak filets in Ireland go for $1."

In the latter capacity, as liaison between leprechaun and 20th Century man, his message is even more important.

"To be light hearted—this is the way to live," said Timothy J. "Drop the superficial appearance of rush and bluster. One can get where one is going quietly, and without exaggeration. In this way, with quiet in one's soul, one can see the good in the people before him.

"And only when one sees the good can he speak the blarney with grace and delicacy, so that it brightens the heart."

The story goes that the word "blarney" was invented by Queen Elizabeth I, who had been trying to obtain back rent from a chieftain named McCarthy. McCarthy lived in Blarney Castle in County Cork. He was clever at complimenting, wheedling and cajoling the queen out of her royal due for months, until finally she realized she was being conned.

"I've had enough of this blarney!" she said. But presumably, she said it with good humor, because to this day a stone at the top of Blarney Castle (a six-floor walkup) is the thing one kisses to assure a long, loquacious life.

O'Driscoll was born in County Cork, in the shadow of Blarney Castle, but never has kissed the stone ("a rather arduous trip; no elevators"). This omission has not dimmed his imagination, nor stifled his glorious vocabulary.

"You do not need to kiss the stone to speak blarney," he said. "You need only look at a person, seek out his very best quality, and speak of it admiringly, in poetic phrases. Americans can learn to do it—but scarcely without coming to Ireland to expose themselves to the atmosphere.

"I can see that you, a brilliant woman, can visualize . . ."

And that's how it goes.

Ike Doesn't Favor President Over 70

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower said that he feels that 70 is the age limit for American presidents. He will be three months past 70 when his term ends.

At his news conference yesterday he was asked whether, if the Constitution didn't bar a third term, a possible campaign would strengthen his hand with Congress in the next two years.

The President replied that no man of more than 70 should be in his office—he was certain of that.

To Move Andy Wilson to St. Joseph Hospital

Army Honors 19

U. S. Army Ordnance Corps yesterday recognized an aggregate 260 years of service to its department, through award of service pins to 19 local Detroit Ordnance District employes.

The pins were awarded by John Patterson and Lawrence Cook of the Detroit Ordnance District on behalf of the Department of the Army. The award ceremony was the first to take place in this area since initiation of the service award program by the Department of the Army.

The recipients of the awards serve at the Military Division of Pontiac Motors Division, as government inspectors on the 20MM, M39A2, automatic weapons. The weapon is used in jet interceptor type aircraft.

As civilian employes of the government, the group is responsible for administering government inspection functions on government materiel manufactured under multi-million dollar defense contracts currently in effect at Pontiac Motors Division.

The service award group includes Lawrence Cook, Chief, Inspection Branch; Peter Marino, Resident Inspector, 10 years service; Lance Crick, 34 years; Joseph Gomolak, 19 years; Loyd Town, 14 years; Wilson Roback, 12 years; Charles Sarnecki, 12 years; Isaiah Patterson, 13 years; Bastiano Geluso, 10 years; Loran Davis, 12 years; Robert Brown, 16 years; John Tomayko, 11 years; Robert Daly, 13 years; Robert Buttorff, 10 years; Frank Paruch, 13 years; Clifford Edwards, 12 years; Benjamin Matthews, 11 years; John Guy, 13 years; Fred Lyon, 12 years; Michael Swiastyn, 13 years; and John Patterson, Chief, Inspection Division.

Still No Agreement but Greyhounds Roll

CLEVELAND (AP) —A day-long wildcat strike that partially crippled Eastern Greyhound Lines' operations in 20 northeastern states appeared ended today and buses were rolling throughout the system.

A. C. Wood, director of publicity, said the strike ended the way it started — with no notice. He said no agreement has been reached on a new contract with the union.

Negotiators for both sides talked far into the morning today, and a federal mediator worked with them in an effort to reach agreement. They adjourned at 5:30 a.m. (EST).

Further meetings have been scheduled.

One source said officers of the international had ordered the strikers to get back to work.

Operations resumed throughout the system amid reports that a contract settlement had been reached.

Correctional Device Added

Moon Rocket Due Friday

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force's new moon rocket — which may go aloft early Friday — will be equipped with a device designed to correct any deviation from its planned trajectory.

Such a deviation was a key factor in keeping the last moon rocket, fired Oct. 11, from reaching the vicinity of the moon.

But even with the new device, chances of success in the coming moonshot are put at no better than 1 in 25.

The new wrinkle is a special modification of the moon rocket's radio system. Its function is to encourage more speed if the rocket deviates from its planned trajectory in the early stages of flight.

In the Oct. 11 shot, the rocket began its trajectory 3½ degrees higher than intended. The result was it had a tougher fight with the earth's gravitational pull. Its ultimate speed thus fell some 500 miles an hour short of what it needed to reach the vicinity of the moon, some 222,000 miles away.

The new corrective device will ride in the second of the four stages of the rocket. If there is an error in trajectory pitch, its job would be to automatically delay the cutting off of the second stage's engine.

The system wouldn't be expected to change the course of the rocket. But the hope would be that the added speed would enable it to zoom its instrumented payload to a point in space where the gravity of the moon might take off.

Publicity Given Education Cheers Yale Professor

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (UPI)—Yale Philosophy Professor John E. Smith told a group of freshmen that the subject of education has finally captured the American fancy.

"When a topic reaches the place where it competes with newspaper space in America with the accounts of politicians and embezzlers, it has indeed arrived," he said.

Fight a Quiet 'War'

GREENWICH, Conn. (UPI) — When a detachment of 40 Marine reserves announced its intention of holding maneuvers in the woods near here one recent Sunday, residents protested that the gunfire would shatter the Sabbath quiet. So, instead of firing fake ammunition, the Marines went around pointing their rifles and shouting—but not too loudly, "Bang! Bang!"

Malaya Small but Rich

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaya — The Federation of Malaya is a rich little country. It is no larger than New York State, but with its rubber and tin it is the largest net dollar earner in the British Commonwealth and it enjoys standards of living which are the envy of much of Asia.

Walled Lake Committee Checks Merits

Studies Police, Fire Department Merger

WALLED LAKE — Possibility of combining the Walled Lake police and fire departments is under under study by city officials.

Attempting to determine the merits of integrating the two departments, something that was done in Oak Park with success, is a committee made up of City Manager George Shaw and Councilmen Marshall Taylor, Arnold Mahrens and Jerry Meade.

The city presently has a full-time police department and a fire department augmented by volunteers.

The Council has scheduled a meeting for 7:30 p.m. Friday to purchase a police car to replace the one wrecked recently. Councilmen were informed that the wrecked vehicle is worth only $1,100.

TO CHECK PETITIONS

Waldo Proctor was named to see whether rezoning petitions are being circulated in the West Maple road area.

The Council indicated that if this is being done, it would want to be prepared to handle the matter when it comes up.

Councilman Mahrens has been named to determine whether it is feasible to extend Decker Heights street to Hawk Lake as requested by the Urban Development Corp.

The city will assume control of Walled Lake Cemetery as soon as its attorney and the lawyer for the Walled Lake Cemetery Assn. can work out transfer of the title.

Other matters discussed resulted in the Council ordering City Attorney Albert Herzog to send a letter to a heating contractor who allegedly doesn't follow city codes, advising him he cannot operate in the city.

Also discussed were the results of a survey concerning the paving of Beverly street, which residents claim was promised by the contractor.

City officials have discovered that most of the residents have only verbal agreements that the contractor would pave the street. The matter is still being studied.

Old-Style Store Utica Feature

Will Hold Christmas Fair

UTICA — An old-fashioned country store will be a feature attraction at St. Luke's Country Style Christmas Fair to be held Saturday in the Parish Hall, on 22-Mile road, one block west of Van Dyke. Booths will be open from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m.

The Women's Auxiliary of the church is sponsoring the event, with Mrs. William King and Mrs. Perry Harlow serving as co-chairmen.

They said members of the organization have been working on gift items since last spring to tempt early Christmas shoppers.

The two women who will sell the tempting homemade delicacies at the country store will wear early American costumes made especially for the fair by Mrs. Irene Garbarini.

The store will also feature Vermont maple sugar, jams, jellies and preserves, in addition to pies, cakes and home-baked bread.

There will be needlecraft, comic book, plant, Christmas decoration and white elephant booths. The snack bar will be open all during the day and early evening, and gifts will be auctioned off at the parcel post table.

The auxiliary will use proceeds from the fair to add to the fund for payments on the vicarage, which is the group's current project.

ANTOINETTE YOUNG

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Young of 2810 Indian Lake Rd., Oxford, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Antoinette, to Bruce S. White, son of Mrs. Michael Gilbert of North Miami Beach, Fla., and I. J. White of Miami. The bride-elect is a junior at Michigan State University. Her fiance is a graduate of Colgate University and a graduate student at Michigan State University.

RAISE CHURCH STEEPLE — Climaxing completion of an $80,000 addition to the Auburn Heights United Presbyterian Church was the raising this week of this steeple, 80 feet above the ground. Started last July by the contracting firm of Shelby Lockamy of Auburn Heights, the new building includes a sanctuary and Sunday School classrooms. The church is located at Juniper and First streets. Dedication ceremonies will take place sometime before Dec. 15, according to the Rev. William Palmer, pastor.

Writer Apologizes to Reds

Pasternak Denies All, Begs for Forgiveness

LONDON (AP) — Boris Pasternak, the Soviet Nobel Prize-winning author, today denied that he had intended to express anti-Communist views in his controversial novel "Doctor Zhivago."

Writing to the Soviet Communist party neswpaper Pravda, Pasternak expressed regret at the interpretation placed on his book and pleaded with his country's leaders for a chance to "restore my good name."

The 68-year-old poet-novelist's confession of error was in the pattern familiar in Communist countries, made apparently to avoid the expulsion from the Soviet Union demanded by Young Communist League leaders and others. In a personal appeal to Premier Khrushchev five days ago, the writer said exile "is to me equal to death."

In his letter to Pravda, which was quoted by Moscow radio, Pasternak said he had been accused of giving vent in "Doctor Zhivago" to views that the Communist Revolution was illegal and brought unhappiness to the Soviet Union.

"It is clear to me I cannot endorse such clumsy allegations," Pasternak said. "At the same time my work which has received the Nobel Prize gave cause to this regrettable interpretation and this is the reason I finally gave up the prize."

He added that he had tried to halt his book's publication abroad, and had his request been heeded, "it is likely I should have been able at least in part to correct this."

"In my letter to Nikita Khrushchev I have said I am tied to Russia by my birth, life and work and that to leave and go into exile abroad was unthinkable to me," Pasternak continued.

"Speaking about this tie I had in mind not only the kinship of its earth and nature but also of her people, her past, her glorious present and her future. . .

"With bright faith in my own future and in the future generally, being proud of the times in which I live and of the people who surrounded me, I believe I shall find in myself the strength to restore my good name and the lost trust of my comrades."

Pasternak's novel is interpreted in the West as an account of the failure of the Soviet system to produce the freedom sought by mankind. A bestseller abroad, it is banned in the Soviet Union.

Pasternak said he had first agreed to accept the $41,420 Nobel Prize, awarded him Oct. 18 by the Swedish Royal Academy of Letters, because he thought it was a literary distinction.

"When I saw the scope of the political campaign around my novel," he continued, "I realized myself that this aawrd was a political measure which has now resulted in monstrous consequences, and on my own initiative without being compelled by anybody I sent my voluntary refusal."

Pasternak also denied that he had been subjected to any persecution.

"I definitely risked neither my life, my freedom nor anything else," he wrote. "I want to stress once more all my actions are being undertaken voluntarily. People who are close acquaintances of mine know full well nothing in the world will compel me to act hypocritically or to act against my conscience."

Find Utica Man Dead in Auto

45-Year-Old Father of 3 Believed Victim of Heart Attack

UTICA — A 45-year-old Utica father of three was found dead yesterday in his car in a ditch along Van Dyke, about a half mile from here.

Donald Malcolm, who was on his way to work in Detroit, is believed to have suffered a fatal heart attack. Passing motorists found him slumped over at the wheel.

A warhouse foreman for Montgomery Ward, he had not complained of being ill, according to his wife, Ruth.

Service will be held at 1 p.m. Saturday at the Milliken Funeral Home, Utica, with burial in Utica Cemetery.

Surviving besides his wife, are two daughters, Bonnie and Sharon, and a son, Bobby, all at home. He also leaves a brother.

Minstrel Show Opens Tonight at Lake Orion

LAKE ORION — An old-time minstrel show will be staged tonight at the Lake Orion Junior High gymnasium to raise money for the Orion Community Center Building Fund.

Curtain time is 8 p.m.

California Retains Cow Milking Title

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—John Pusch of Hollister, Calif., successfully defended his world cow milking title yesterday during the Grand National Livestock Exposition at the Cow Palace.

Busch, using the "thumb-knuckles" method, squirted seven pounds, six ounces of milk in two minutes. The "four finger" method of his opponent, Geert H. Keur, Richmond, Vancouver Island, B.C., netted an even six pounds.

Each man milked two Ayreshire cows one minute each.

Judges said the contest came as a surprise to both cows—who were used to machine milking.

He had been making his home in Cuernavaca, Mexico, since leaving Rochester two years ago.

He was a life member and past master of Rochester Lodge 5, F&AM; and past master of Wabon Lodge, F&AM, in Mt. Pleasant.

Community Hospital Contract Awarded

ROMEO—The contract for construction of an 18-bed addition to the new Community Hospital, located between Romeo and Almont, has been awarded to the Walter L. Couse Co. of Detroit. Thomas K. Richards, president of the Hospital Board, announced today.

The firm's bid of $84,000 was lowest of 12 received by the board last week, he said. This is the same company that constructed the original 30-bed structure, completed Oct. 24.

Construction of the new unit will begin immediately, Richards said. Completion is expected within 26 weeks.

New Stars Emerging on Political Horizon

By The Associated Press

Here is a quick look at some of the nation's new political figures catapulted into national prominence in Tuesday elections.

Nelson A. Rockefeller — This easy-going, genial heir to one of the world's vastest fortunes ranks easily as the brightest new star among Republican office holders. A self-styled liberal who played down his party label, the 50-year-old Rockefeller staged the nation's most spectacular victory. In his first try for elective office he wrecked the second term bid and White House ambitions of Democratic Gov. Averell Harriman.

Edmund G. Pat Brown — In the country's second most closely watched contest, this one-time Republican smashed the traditional GOP hold on California to become the Golden State's second Democratic governor of the 20th century. In overcoming U.S. Senate Republican Leader William F. Knowland, the 53-year-old state attorney general, who defines himself as a moderate, emerged as one of his party's most impressive vote getters.

Michael V. DiSalle — Best remembered as the roly-poly federal price stabilizer during the Korean War, this 50-year-old former mayor of Toledo cracked another GOP bastion. DiSalle, his figure now down to almost svelte proportions easily beat Republican Gov. C. William O'Neill.

Eugene J. McCarthy—This former economics professor knocked off Sen. Edward J. Thye, Minnesota Republican. McCarthy, 42, described as one of the most scholarly members of Congress, is one of the first Roman Catholics to win a top office in heavily Lutheran Minnesota. Democrat McCarthy has been in the House for five terms.

Clair Engle — A country lawyer, this colorful, hard campaigning Democrat easily defeated one of California's most fabulous vote-getters, Gov. Goodwin J. Knight, in a contest for the U.S. Senate. Engle, perhaps the leading reclamation specialist in the House, has represented California's mammoth but sparsely populated 2nd District in Congress since 1944.

Philip A. Hart — Michigan's youthful looking lieutenant governor bowled over his state's last remaining GOP statewide official. Sen. Charles E. Potter, Hart, 43, the father of eight children, is a ranking member of Gov. G. Mennen Williams' potent Democratic organization. Like Potter, who lost both legs in World War II combat, Hart suffered a 60 per cent disability in the invasion of Normandy.

Mark Hatfield — Bucking the Democratic tide that has almost disintegrated the onetime GOP stronghold of Oregon, this 36-year-old former college dean smashed Democratic Gov. Robert D. Holmes' bid for a second term.

Hatfield, a ruggedly handsome campaigner with a voter appeal that has been compared to Rockefeller's, became a state senator at 28 and Oregon secretary of state at 34.

No Change Seen in Farm Policy

Benson Says Democrat Win Not Vote Against Agriculture Program

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Agriculture Benson gives no indication he will retreat in any major degree from his present views on farm legislation, despite the sharply increased Democratic strength of the new Congress.

Benson has had the support of President Eisenhower for his farm proposals since he took over as secretary in January 1953. Eisenhower told his news conference yesterday he foresees no change in his administration's farm policies.

In numerous speeches this fall, Benson said economic factors and not the price support levels were responsible for a dip in farm income in recent years.

At the same time, the secretary contends that farm income has risen sharply this year and will continue up. He views that as vindication of his program.

Looking at the results of Tuesday's election in which the Democrats made sweeping gains, Benson said he saw no evidence of a vote against the administration farm program.

Benson said supporters and opponents of administration farm policy in both parties won and lost, "indicating that agriculture was not a prime issue."

He said the election results were a challenge to the Republican Party to intensify its fight for the principles of freedom and free enterprise.

Business Women's Club to See Europe Slides

ROCHESTER — The Business Women's Club of Rochester will meet at 4 p.m. Sunday in the Avon Park Pavilion.

Sarah Van Hoosen Jones and Alice Serrell will show colored slides of their European trip this year.

Proceeds will go into the scholarship fund. Refreshments will be served.

Troy Youth Fellowship to Hold Annual Hayride

TROY — The Senior Methodist Youth Fellowship of Troy Methodist Church will hold its annual hayride Saturday beginning at the church at 7:30 p.m.

The group will return to the home of Helen Miles, 5610 Coolidge St., for games and refreshments.

Nixon to 'Revive' GOP

WASHINGTON (AP)—Vice President Nixon is taking charge of efforts to rejuvenate the disorganized Republican party. He is likely to put the accent on youth in doing so.

Although Nixon won't bear any such official designation as party commander, President Eisenhower obviously is stepping out of the way to let his second man direct the drive. Its aim is to lift the party back into contention in the 1960 presidential contest, after its shattering defeat in Tuesday's election.

Committee Posts Remain Same

Southern Democrats Hold on Congressional Jobs Unchanged

WASHINGTON (AP) — Southern Democrats will retain the bulk of Senate and House committee chairmanships in the new 86th Congress but Southern conservatives probably will find their influence diluted.

With the Democrats sharply increasing their control of both branches in Tuesday's voting, the top committee posts in nearly all cases will remain firmly in the hands of the men who held them in the 85th. In many instances, these men have been chairmen for years.

In the Senate, this means that 9 of the 16 standing committee chairmanships will remain with Southerners. In the House, the South will keep 12 of the 19 posts. The chairmanships go strictly by seniority.

The only change in chairmanships forced by the election in either branch involves the House Interior Committee. Rep. Clair Engle (D-Calif), who headed it in the 85th Congress, was elected to the Senate. Expected to replace him is Rep. Wayne N. Aspinall (D-Colo).

The election of many more Democrats from the North and West seems certain to cut down the power of the South in the committees, which can make or break legislation.

Particularly this will be true in the Senate, where the Democrats have had only one-vote margins on committees for four years. In such a situation a conservative Southern Democrat often is a swing man; by voting with the Republicans he could help to bottle up or win changes in legislation.

But with the Democrats holding a 62-34 edge in the 1959 Senate, not counting the two seats from Alaska to be filled Nov. 25, their committee margins will increase materially.

In most cases, these will be 10-5 or 9-6 on the 15-member committees. With such a lineup, the vote of one dissenter from party policy will not be too important.

County's CD Director to Discuss Disasters

COMMERCE TOWNSHIP — Louis Jerrendt, Oakland County Civil Defense director, will show movies and speak on disasters at 8 this evening at Commerce Elementary School.

The meeting is being sponsored by the Carroll Lake Heights Civic Assn. to create interest in civil defense courses planned for Commerce residents, according to Leo Eichler, president.

Campbell-Stiller Vows Exchanged at Clarkston

CLARKSTON — First Methodist Church of Clarkston was the scene Saturday evening of the marriage of Constance Stiller to John G. Campbell. Performing the double-ring, candlelight rite was the Rev. William Richards.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Stiller of 7619 Sashabaw Rd., Clarkston. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Campbell of 5478 W. Ellis Rd., Davisburg.

For her wedding, the new Mrs. Campbell chose a gown of Chantilly lace over satin. Her fingertip veil fell from a pearl crown and she carried a bouquet of white roses.

Maid of honor was Janet Brewer of Clarkston. Bridesmaids were Linda Groves of Pontiac and Delores Klins of Clarkston.

Ray Dawley of Clarkston was the best man. Ushers were Jay and Dave Campbell of Davisburg, brothers of the bridegroom.

Ships Retreat Before Gales on Great Lakes

SAULT STE. MARIE (AP)—Great Lakes ships were forced to seek shelter in the St. Mary's River last night when winds of up to 70 miles an hour pounded the Sault Ste. Marie area. Gale warnings were posted for Lakes Huron, Michigan and Superior.

At the Mackinac Bridge, attendants said the high winds did not impede traffic.

Jim Devereaux, head of the bridge toll offices, said a bridge bus was sent across the span as an escort for one vehicle, shielding it from the wind.

A similar windstorm buffeted the northern Michigan area about a year ago, with winds at that time reaching 80 mph in gusts.

Believe Arrests of 4 End Burglary String

ROYAL OAK TOWNSHIP — A series of burglaries in Detroit, Oak Park and Royal Oak Township were believed cleared with the arrest of two men and two juveniles by Royal Oak Township Police early yesterday.

Sgt. Henry Berk and Officer Edward Watkins said they were checking doors at a shopping district when the burglar alarm went off in a store at 20730 Wyoming.

They called the owner, who let them in the store, where they found a 15-year-old boy hiding in the washroom. On questioning the boy implicated another 15-year-old youth and Sylvester Kennedy, 18, of 10557 Danvers Ct., and Albert Moore, 17, of 20474 Mendota, Detroit.

The latter pair was picked up that night. Police said they had $350 worth of clothing believed stolen from a township store.

All four have admitted 17 burglaries during he past two months, officers said. They are being held for investigation of breaking and entering in the nighttime.

Old Timers Go On Making Horseshoes

JOLIET, Ill. (UPI) — Luke Benedick, 76 years young and tough, as the horseshoes he helps to manufacture, spat disdainfully in the general direction of the new steel rolling mill.

"Broke down again," he grinned. "Stopped more than it's running. Damned machinery!"

He spat again and pointed proudly to his own crew guiding long bars of molten steel by hand through successive molds that narrowed and lengthened the fiery snakes.

"We keep rolling," he said proudly.

Benedick, for all his years, is head roller of the Phoenix Manufacturing Company's horseshoe division.

He and some 60 colleagues are dedicated to the sometimes questionable proposition that the horse is not vanishing from the American scene.

Chris I. Lennon, sales manager of the division, reckoned that Phoenix fashions 90 per cent of the nation's supply of horseshoes.

If they're a dying breed; the horseshoe makers are in no hurry to write their own obituaries.

Benedick, dean of the crew with almost 63 years of horseshoe rolling behind him, is 200 pounds of muscle. His helpers look equally hearty, though a dozen have been with the company more than 45 years and most of the others have been turning out horseshoes at least 30 years.

Joseph Gregorash, at 50 one of the "youngsters," beamingly told a reporter he had been feeding "blanks" — short lengths of rolled steel ready for final bending—into the same furnace for 35 years.

Gregorash pointed to a tilted mirror at the far end of his furnace. It was improvised 15 years ago so the feeder could adjust his pace to that of the workman who takes white-hot blanks from the furnace and puts them into a machine that bends them into horseshoe shape

The mirror is one of the few changes that have been made in the essentially hand-operated process since Phoenix was founded 76 years ago. The only other bows to progress are the use of electric power in place of steam and the addition of an electric welding machine to attach toe calks.

Faced with a steady decline in horseshoe sales, Phoenix gradually added other products and built, under the same roof with the horseshoe mill, the modern, automatic rolling mill.

The big mill isn't used to make horseshoes, Lennon explained, because it isn't economically feasible to change molds in it as often as they must be changed to make the shoes.

The company turns out more than 300 sizes and styles of horseshoes, compared with about 725 during the heyday of the horse. But horses and mules still come in assorted shapes and sizes, and the plant produces horseshoes ranging from six to 45½ ounces in weight.

California buys more horseshoes than any other state. Texas ranks second. The Army, which bought 4,400 kegs as recently as 1945, no longer is a customer.

Benedick admitted sadly that times have changed.

"We rolled as high as 125 tons a day for shoes back in 1913-14," he said. "Maybe 15 tons in a good day today."

He recalled that he played hookey from school to start work as a billet boy at 13. "Made 50 cents a day," he said. "The guy that does my old job now gets $16 a day, has a helper yet and think's he's working too hard."

UP ON THE FARM — Farm prosperity is reflected in reported farm equipment industry earnings, as farmers continue to invest sizable chunks of their incomes in new tractors and implements. Industry spokesmen estimate 10 to 15 per cent higher sales in 1958, continuing three-year climb as shown on newschart above.

Venezuela Oil Profit Up

CARACAS—Venezuela's petroleum industry reported a net profit of about $829,500,000 in 1957, a $160,000,0000 increase over 1956. Gross income amounted to $2,450,000,000, a $390,000,000 rise over 1956. The government's income from oil amounted to $1,230,000,000 compared with $973,200,000 in 1956. This included concessions, royalties, taxes, and import duties.

Pennsylvania had the largest number of nonresident hunters with 35,503, and Wyoming the highest percentage — more than 33 per cent.

California GOP Rift Continues

New Dem Governor Heads for Vacation as Backing Grows

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Scars of the Republican party rift still were being laid bare as Gov.-elect Edmund G. Brown headed for a Palm Springs vacation today after a Democratic sweep.

Republican Goodwin J. Knight, whom Brown will replace Jan. 5 as the first Democrat governor since 1942, offered his hand for a smooth transition. Then he fired another shot at Sen. William F. Knowland, the man Brown walloped.

Knight, still fuming because Knowland switched to the governor's race, said he was staying in politics despite his own thumping defeat by Democratic Rep. Clair Engle in the race for Knowland's Senate seat.

"Just because Knowland ruined things for the Republican party in California in 1958," Knight snapped, "is no reason why I should get out of politics."

Knowland said he had no immediate plans other than to resume work as assistant publisher of the Oakland Tribune.

Around him Brown could see a state Democratic victory still growing in proportions. It appeared Brown would have a Democratic lieutenant governor as well as attorney general and possibly a treasurer and controller. An estimated 80,000 absentee ballots could figure in the ultimate outcome.

Brown already was assured a Democratic-controlled State Legislature, first such in 69 years.

California's delegation in Congress swung from 17-13 Republican to 17-13 Democratic. A Democratic victory in Vice President Nixon's former district helped turn the tide.

Proposition 18, an initiative which would have banned the union shop, went down to defeat after figuring in the GOP party rift. Knight opposed it; Knowland favored it.

Knight also insisted that the election result would have been different had he and Knowland run for re-election to the offices they held.

Also defeated were propositions which would have imposed property taxes on parochial and private schools of less than college standing and have revised taxes. The tax measure would have reduced the state sales tax and increased income taxes in the higher brackets.

Pope Receives 500 Newsmen

Urges Truthful Writing in Jovial Audience Held for World Press

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope John XXIII received some 500 representatives of the world press in a jovial special audience today and urged them to write truthfully.

The Pope chuckled as he commented on reporters' efforts to pry into the secrets of the conclave that elected him the 262nd pontiff of the Roman Catholic Church Oct. 28.

"The efforts of the press have been formidable, but the silence (of the conclave) has been even better," said the 76-year-old pontiff.

The newsmen laughed with him at that.

Seated on the throne in the Vatican's Clementine Hall, Pope John spoke in rapid French, without notes, and with considerably less formality than his predecessor, Pope Pius XII, used in his audiences for the press. Frequently he looked up from the microphone and smiled broadly at his listeners.

"I am still a novice at this job of universal fatherhood," he said, using the familiar first person singular instead of the "we" popes normally use.

"I will confess to you," he continued with a smile, "that reading as I do all the newspapers, I even find it agreeable to read all those stories about myself. . .and those allegedly revealing the secrets of the conclave put me in a truly good mood for the entire day."

The Pope criticized articles which "can be construed as advice to us on how to run things. You must remember that we stick to the traditions and rules of the church."

The Pope said he hoped his listeners would not feel insulted at his urging them to report truthfully.

"This," he said, "was intended as a fatherly—or even better — as brotherly advice aimed at helping you in your work."

Here's One Railroad That Makes Money

ARCADE, N.Y. (UPI) — Such railroad titans as the New York Central and the Pennsylvania might well envy the "short line" Arcade and Attica Railroad.

The 15-mile long A-and-A boasts more than $100,000 in liquid reserves. And the line, which winds its way through Wyoming County hills, paid a $10 dividend on its stock in 1957.

The tiny railroad specializes in the same kind of freight it has carried for years—powdered milk, last blocks for shoe manufacturers and bowling pins.

Equipment consists of two diesel-electric locomotives and two cabooses, operated by 15 employes. Freight cars are all the property of other railroads.

President Going to Shoot Ducks This Weekend

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower is going duck shooting this weekend with George Humphrey, his first secretary of the Treasury.

The White House said he would stop off in Ohio on his way to Seattle to speak Monday to diplomats of Colombo Pact nations.

Flying from here Friday, the President will go to the exclusive Cedar Point Club on Lake Erie near Toledo. There he will be the overnight guest of Humphrey.

After leaving Ohio, the President will fly to Tacoma, Wash., Saturday to spend the rest of the weekend with his brother Edgar.

On Monday, he will travel to Seattle to speak to the Consultative Committee of the Colombo Pact group which was organized to promote economic development of South and Southeast Asia.

He is scheduled to return to Washington Monday night.

Kansas Bans Union Shop

WASHINGTON (AP)—Five of six states which voted on the controversial issue Tuesday rejected proposals to bar compulsory union membership.

Only Kansas voted to outlaw the union shop, joining 18 other states which already have such laws on the books.

California—For 616,416, against 1,011,778.
Ohio—For 1,154,384, against 1,976,298.
Washington—For 289,267, against 510,573.
Colorado—For 184,279, against 297,783.
Idaho—For 115,765, against 120,977.

Cobalt Pellets Yield Minerals Cattle Need

ADELAIDE, Australia — Researchers at the University of Adelaide have found that cattle and sheep grazing on cobalt-deficient pasture, which is wide-spread throughout the world, may be supplied with the missing mineral through use of a pellet of cobaltic oxide mixed with clay or powdered iron. The pellet, when swallowed, remains in the rumen for life, giving off continuously the minute amounts of cobalt needed by rumen bacteria, according to the researchers. They say that pellets are cheaper and simpler than other methods of administering cobalt.

The Perfect Answer

DENVER (AP) — Mrs. Cora Belle Cox, 80, won a divorce in court by answering just one question. Asked Judge Marshall Quiat: "Did your husband ever abuse you?" Said Mrs. Cox: "Heavens, no, judge. He was always too drunk."

GM Heads See Business Gain

Donner, Gordon Speak in Boston Prior to Motorama Opening

BOSTON, Mass.—Business is "on the uptrend" both in New England and nationally, and 1959 should be a year of "substantially increased volume" for the automobile industry, Chairman Frederic G. Donner of General Motors said today.

Donner and GM President John F. Gordon spoke to approximately 300 New England newsmen at a conference and luncheon in the Sheraton Plaza Hotel here. The news conference, which preceded the opening Saturday of the General Motors Motorama of 1959 for a nine-day showing in Commonwealth Armory, was the first in New England for the two executives since they assumed their top GM posts Sept. 1.

In a ceremony at the luncheon, both Donner and Gordon were awarded plaques by the Greater Boston Chamber of Commerce expressing appreciation for their part in bringing the Motorama to Boston.

"Currently we are on the uptrend," Donner said, "climbing steadily toward the record highs of the third quarter of 1957. Even now consumers, business and government as a whole are spending at a record rate. This spending should translate itself into rising levels of industrial activity and employment."

The "renewed feeling of confidence in the air" is especially important to the auto industry, Donner said.

"When the trend is up and the outlook appears brighter, confidence picks up and new car sales rise rapidly," he said.

Man Confesses Sacrifice Killing

Handyman Says Voices Compelled Him to Slay Young Mother

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — A young mother is dead—her throat slit open in an apparently senseless killing. All authorities can say is that a 23-year-old handyman told them he heard voices compelling him to make a human sacrifice.

Sheriff's Sgt. Bob Griffin said Jack Rainsberger told the story after the body of Erline Folker, 23, was found in the desert Wednesday.

Griffin said Rainsberger told him the voices compelled him to come to Las Vegas last week from Los Angeles to make the sacrifice.

Last Monday, Griffin said, Rainsberger roamed the streets here looking for a victim, and spotted Mrs. Folker working in a stationery store.

"I decided that she would be my victim," Rainsberger was quoted as saying.

When she got off work Griffin said, Rainsberger followed her to her car, forced her at knife point to drive to the desert.

"Then," he told officers, "I sacrificed her. It was all part of a regular ritual but I can't tell you how I go through it."

For some unexplained reason, Griffin said, Rainsberger came to the police station the night of the slaying and made a phony robbery report. Rainsberger could not explain why he came to the station, the officer said.

After the body was found, Rainsberger told his story, Griffin said. He was booked on suspicion of murder.

Mrs. Folker, a divorcee, had a 3-year-old son.

Excited Stool Pigeons

IONIA (AP)—A couple of 19-year-old inmates at the Michigan State Reformatory know what it is to get the bird. Their escape attempt yesterday failed because of a block of excited "stool" pigeons.

Guards noted the pigeons flying around near the five-story "J" block building and decided to investigate.

On the roof they found eraGld Kriesche Jr. of Mt. Pleasant, and Richard Hart of Phelps, Wis., both armed with filed-down kitchen knives. The would-be escapees surrendered without resistance.

Surveying Wreckage Before Rebuilding

GOP Leaders Hunt for Answers

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Republican leaders surveyed the wreckage of their 1958 campaign today and prepared for an agonizing reappraisal of their party organization and campaign tactics.

Party professionals voiced belief that the recession, weak or divided GOP organizations and the political power of organized labor contributed much to the national Democratic trend in Tuesday's election. Some also talked of a need for more colorful, personable and aggressive candidates.

Nearly complete returns showed the dimensions of the Democratic landslide — the Democrats' greatest congressional victory since their peak in the 1936 election of President Roosevelt.

The Democrats elected 26 senators, taking eight seats from Republicans and losing none of their own. With the 36 Democratic senators whose seats were not at stake this year, the Democrats will hold 62 seats, 12 more than a majority. Republicans elected only eight senators, leaving them a total of 24 in the new Congress.

Alaska elects its first two senators Nov. 25 and this could increase the Democratic majority even further. Democrats are favored to win at least one and possibly two Alaskan seats.

In the house the Democrats elected 278 of 435 members and led in three unsettled races for an indicated total of 281, compared with 219 needed for a majority. The GOP elected 153. Alaska elects its first house member Nov. 25.

In the contests for governorships the Democrats elected 24 and led in one unsettled race for an indicated total of 34, counting nine holdovers. Republicans elected eight and had six holdovers for a total of 14.

Democrats gave an extraordinary show of strength in gubernatorial races in the midwest where the GOP hold on what was once the hard core of Republicanism. Democratic governors were elected or re-elected in Minnesota, Wisconsin, South Dakota, Iowa and Kansas and the Democratic nominee held a narrow lead in the still unsettled contest in Nebraska.

In contrast Republican Nelson A. Rockefeller unseated Gov. Averell Harriman in New York and thereby made himself a potential challenger to Vice President Richard M. Nixon for the 1960 presidential nomination.

Another to buck the trend with conspicuous success was Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona who long ago stepped out in front of fellow Republicans to challenge the power of organized labor. Running uphill to re-election he assured himself a front seat among GOP conservatives whose ranks recently have been thinned.

The defeat of Senate Republican Leader William F. Knowland, running for governor of California, and of Sen. John W. Bricker of Ohio retired two of the most prominent conservative Republican spokesmen.

There was no clear pattern this year in the election or defeat of conservatives compared with so-called Eisenhower Republicans. Among conservatives Goldwater and Sen. John J. Williams (R-Del) were re-elected while Knowland, Bricker, Sen. Frank A. Barrett (R-Wyo) and Gov. Harold W. Handley, senatorial nominee in Indiana, were defeated.

Along with Rockefeller's victory Eisenhower Republicans were elected to the senate in New York, Maryland, Pennsylvania and Vermont. Administration supporters were defeated in Senate races in New Jersey, Maine, Connecticut, Minnesota, Michigan and Utah.

President Eisenhower seemed mystified by the election results. He told his news conference yesterday that if the voters wanted his administration to follow a different course he did not know what it was. He thought they had voted for big spenders in Congress and he intended to resist any big spending policy.

Republican National Chairman Meade Alcorn asked state party leaders to send him confidential reports on what happened and why.

House Republican Leader Joseph W. Martin blamed these factors for the Republican defeat: The business recession, opposition from "strong and well-financed labor unions"; GOP feuds in some states, a shortage of campaign funds, "lack of attractive candidates in several instances" and a failure to sell the administration record.

Some party professionals said the GOP organization was hurt by feuds like those in California and Indiana and lack of support from disenchanted Republicans who had expected the administration to do more to cut taxes, the federal budget and the size of the federal government.

One veteran said some state and local organizations still do not realize they must fight not only the Democratic party but the political instruments of labor and that new tactics are needed.

Another said the GOP was hurt by the fact that some of its candidates were supporting right-to-work proposals and that this damage was felt nationally, not just in the six states where these propositions were on the ballot. It is a good bet many Republicans will try to free themselves and their party from identification with this issue. Right-to-work proposals, to outlaw union shop contracts, pull out a large labor vote which is usually weighted heavily against Republican candidates.

Flint Youth May Face Assault Trial as Adult

FLINT (AP)—A 15-year-old boy who admitted shooting a Flint housewife in the back may face trial as an adult.

The Genesee County prosecutor's office has asked the probate court to waive jurisdiction over William J. Miller of Fenton, an escapee from the Starr Commonwealth home for boys at Albion, so he can be tried in circuit court for assault with intent to murder.

Miller admitted to police that he shot Mrs. Irene J. Leiter, 36, with a .22 caliber rifle after she refused to grant him permission to hunt on her property. The victim is reported in satisfactory condition with a bullet lodged in her spine.

Long Wait Gets Longer

HARTFORD, Conn (UPI) — Three years after Joseph Vita filed a damage suit against Richard Standow, it finally reached the Superior Court docket. But then the case had to be postponed because someone had stolen all the evidence from Vita's lawyer.

Calls for Coordinator in County

Bill Would Improve Justice Courts

By MAX E. SIMON

Dissatisfied with the inaction of the State Supreme Court in supervising justice courts, leaders of the Oakland County Judicial Association have drawn up a bill which they hope will alleviate criticisms of the JP system.

They seek to include the bill in the legislative program being drafted by the Michigan Justice of the Peace Assn.

The bill provides for a justice court coordinator in each court circuit, named by the circuit judges. County boards of supervisors would provide the necessary funds for the support of the post upon receiving requests from the circuit judges.

The bill proposes that coordinators be paid not less than $8,500 yearly.

Such officials would be empowered to supervise and examine administrative methods employed by justice courts and make recommendations for improvements to the circuit judges.

They also would examine and make performance audits of justice court files, make recommendations to circuit courts on the need to carry out improvements in the functioning of justice and municipal courts, and handle other miscellaneous duties assigned by the circuit courts.

James Renfrew, Huntington Woods justice and president of the county justices group, said today the Michigan Supreme Court could put such a program into effect throughout the state by exercising its supervisory powers, granted by the state constitution.

"But nothing has been done," he complained.

In a recent speech before the county justices, State Supreme Court Justice Eugene F. Black proposed an administrative court staff on the state level, equipped with field assistants who could work with circuit court judges in administrative matters for attaining uniformity of methods of work and other improvements among JPs.

LEGISLATURE REFUSED

Black complained that the Legislature refused to appropriate funds for his suggested program.

"Why flog the legislature?" Renfrew asked. "If the high tribunal used our plan, there would be no need for more funds on the state level," he said.

He pointed out that justice court coordinators appointed by the judges in a circuit would have better knowledge of justice courts in their area than would officials in Lansing.

"The Supreme Court would still be administering the justice courts through the circuit courts, and that's the way the court system is set up in the constitution," he explained.

Renfrew said that the plan has been discussed with Meredith Doyle, court administrator for the state, but no word of any action had been received from the county.

"If we have to try to work through the legislature, we will," Renfrew said. "We don't care how we get the improvements in JP courts. But we're going all out to get them."

Nixon Gets Royal Invite

LONDON (AP) — Queen Elizabeth II and Prince Philip today invited U.S. Vice President Nixon and his wife to lunch at Buckingham Palace when they visit London Nov. 26.

The Educational Exchange Service of the State Department brought more than 340 visiting teachers from Free World countries to the United States during the 1957-58 academic year.

Dems Helped by Farm Vote

Victory in Agriculture States Leaves Benson in Shaky Position

WASHINGTON (AP) — Politically important farm belt states contributed heavily to Democratic successes in Tuesday's elections.

This put Ezra Taft Benson, President Eisenhower's secretary of agriculture, in perhaps the shakiest position he has occupied in a political career marked by controversy over his farm policies.

Republicans lost Senate and House seats in such big agricultural states as Ohio, Minnesota, Iowa, Indiana, Illinois and Michigan. Further, they failed in efforts to recapture statehouses in traditionally Republican Kansas and Iowa.

Democratic farm leaders can be expected to raise new demands for Benson's resignation—and for a congressional turn-about on government farm policies. Benson has been leading the way toward less and less government money for farmers.

Democrats undoubtedly will be joined by farm-belt Republican critics of the secretary—some of whom went down to defeat.

Friends expected Benson to stand just as firm in face of the election setback as he has when attacked in the past.

Just how much the farm issue contributed to Democratic victories in farming areas was a matter of conjecture. Democrats made the most of the fact that farm prices continued below levels of previous Democratic administrations. Benson contended that the farm economy was making marked improvement.

Democratic successes were particularly striking in midwestern dairy states. There Benson's action in reducing government price supports for dairy products had brought bitter criticism.

Songfest Set by Barbershop Quartet Group

That local group with the long name, the Pontiac Chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America, Inc., will move into Pontiac Central High School auditorium for its annual songfest Dec. 6.

This year's "Holiday of Harmony" has a lineup of vocal groups that members feel should make it one of the best shows in recent years.

Headlining the event will be "The Confederates" of Memphis, Tenn., 1956-57 international SPEBSQSA champions, according to Leonard Barnes, president of the local chapter.

Barnes also has announced the appearance of "The Sharpkeepers" (1957-58 Michigan champs): "The Cracker Jills" (1957-58 international Sweet Adeline champs); and local quartets "The Key Knights" and "HY-FYS."

Tickets for the event are on sale at Hallman Drug Store, Telegraph and Elizabeth Lake Rds.

Twenty-eight hospitals will be completed in Egypt this year at a cost of about $24,000,000, according to Treasury Minister Hassan Abbas Zaki.

Another United Fund Agency at Work

Salvation Army Aid Rebuilds Family

Mr. Wright worked hard to support his wife and family of eight children, ranging in age from 15 years to 6 months. He was steadily employed but earned only a nominal income, just enough to provide a very modest life for his large family.

The Pontiac area family was "getting along" and looking forward to their father's long overdue raise in pay when suddenly a tragedy befell them.

One day when Mrs. Wright was home alone with the baby and her two youngest children, a fire of unknown origin started in the basement. By the time Mrs. Wright smelled smoke, the blaze had a good start.

She managed to call the fire department and get her baby and children from the house, but the flames succeeded in engulfing the wood frame structure. Their home, with all its contents, burned to the ground.

With nothing left and no insurance, the family was scattered among relatives and thoughtful neighbors. But their need for a new start was urgent. This was where the Pontiac Salvation Army Corps entered the picture.

The Salvation Army, a United Fund agency, brought the parents into their office for an interview designed to designate their degree of need and devise a plan to help them.

Through the efforts of the Salvation Army, the entire family was sufficiently clothed. Then Salvation Army cases workers began looking for a suitable house for rent which the family could use as their temporary shelter.

The rent was paid. Fuel, light, and other bills were arranged for. A food order was issued to supply their needs and bedding and sufficient furniture was provided for the Wright family.

Unfortunately, two of the children had come down with colds and high fevers due to the exposure. To meet their problems a doctor was authorized to treat them, with the Salvation Army again footing the bill.

Drugs and medicines needed were also obtained from a local druggist at no expense to the Wrights. Mr. Wright began building all over again—a task that seemed impossible before the Salvation Army volunteered its aid.

After some time, the family made their final appearance at the Salvation Army office for their last interview. They had succeeded in finding new living quarters and were again able to get along on Mr. Wright's income.

Naturally, this is just one of the many ways in which the Salvation Army has continually served Oakland County. Case workers and all Salvation Army employes, with the support of United Fund contributions, devote themselves to finding a happy solution to a seemingly tragic event.

SMILE OF REASSURANCE — A Salvation Army case worker, Geordа Kearney, of 78 S. Johnson St., smiles understandingly and reassuringly at a woman who has come to the local office for help. Her problem might be one of many solved by Salvation Army services, or if the situation can be remedied more easily elsewhere, the Salvation Army will refer the woman to another county service organization. The Salvation Army, a United Fund agency, never turns anyone away if their need is one which cannot be handled by any other welfare agency better suited to the particular need.

ATHENS — St. Christopher's fame as protector of travelers dates from a Sixth Century Greek legend. The saint, a giant of a man, carried people on his back across a swift stream. One day he was carrying a small child and his burden grew much heavier with every step.

Successfully across, the boy said, "You have carried the Creator of the world on your shoulders and have felt the weight of the sins of mankind for which I suffered and died."

Little is known about St. Christopher except that he lived in the Third Century, was noted for his sanctity, and died a martyr. His name means "Christ-bearer."

Soak-the-Rich Plan Also Licked

Private School Tax Plan Rejected in California

WASHINGTON (AP)—A controversial proposal to tax parochial and other private schools was beaten in California Tuesday.

California voters also rejected a soak-the-rich income tax proposal.

These were among a wide variety of issues submitted to voters in 39 states.

New Hampshire made it official that women have the right to vote. Voters there adopted a state constitutional amendment changing voting eligibility to read "every inhabitant" instead of "every male inhabitant."

Actually women have been voting in New Hampshire, just as they have elsewhere, since adoption of the 19th Amendment to the U. S. Constitution in 1920.

The proposal to end tax exemption for private schools below college level in California attracted nationwide attention. It brought charges from sponsors that the Roman Catholic Church fought it on orders from Rome. Both Catholics and others opposing the proposal contended these charges were designed to stir up religious hatred.

In the end, California voters rejected the proposal decisively, and by a margin of 4-1, they turned thumbs down on the tax-the-rich tax proposal. Under it, the state sales tax would have been reduced from 3 to 2 per cent and the income rate on income below $5,000 cut in half.

To compensate for the loss of revenue, the tax rate on income above $50,000 would have been upped to 46 per cent. The maximum income tax rate now is 6 per cent.

In Colorado, where tales abound of poker and faro in the wild west days, an amendment legalizing bingo and raffles was one of five proposed changes in the state constitution approved by the voters.

In Illinois, a proposal for a 75-million-dollar bond issue to pay a bonus to Korean veterans was trailing.

Michigan voters rejected a proposal for a state constitutional convention to overhaul its 1908 basic charter.

In Pennsylvania the voters authorized the Legislature to exempt timberland from the constitutional requirement of uniform taxation on all real estate. It is aimed at encouraging lumbermen to let trees grow to maturity.

New Jersey voters approved 3-1 a 45-million-dollar bond issue to finance construction of two reservoirs to assure northern New Jersey an adequate water supply.

No Plans to Revitalize Party Now

Eisenhower Appears Puzzled

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower—in his first news conference after the Republicans' smashing defeat Tuesday—gave no indication he knows how to revitalize the party or even that he will be active in trying to.

He not only appeared puzzled as to why the Democrats won by a landslide but at times in his meeting with newsmen Wednesday seemed to contradict his own thinking on how to plan to win in the 1960 elections.

Asked what he thought caused the Democratic victory, he said the people apparently didn't pay any attention to his warning about the "spender wing" of the Democratic party. He renewed his pledge to fight unnecessary federal spending.

But it was Eisenhower himself who in 1957 and again in 1958 asked the Democratic-run Congress to approve record peacetime spending budgets.

Although he hammered repeatedly on his determination to reduce spending—and was repeatedly asked where he'd make the cuts—he didn't name a single area that would feel the ax.

He said frankly he didn't know when asked what factors he thought caused the Republican defeat.

But he said he agreed with Vice President Nixon that the Republicans "are prone to campaign very hard the last week or two weeks, or two months of an election, and they don't fight between elections."

Then he added he agrees with Republican Chairman Meade Alcorn that: "If the Republicans don't start fighting this morning, this very day for the next election, they're going to be in a bad way, and I believe this is true throughout the country."

The very fault he found with the Republicans—that they fight only the last few weeks before an election and not between elections — is the same course he has followed himself.

Between elections he has taken a position above the political strife, trying to get along with Democrats and Republicans alike, and to avoid partisan political bickering.

Then, just before each election, he gets very active and goes out to campaign.

A few minutes after saying the Republicans ought to start right now fighting to win the 1960 election, he was asked what he thought his role in the 1960 campaign would be. He said: "I am not even thinking about that election at this time."

And he said further: "My role for the next two years is to do exactly my very best to carry on the responsibilities and duties of the presidency."

While agreeing Republicans should start fighting at once he indicated he hopes to get along well with the Democrats running Congress.

This is the opposite of the way former President Truman performed: he played politics between elections by banging away at the Republicans and then looking forward eagerly to coast-to-coast campaigning before elections. He's still doing that.

Eisenhower explained he will try to get along with the Democrats for the good of the country.

He told the newsmen he doesn't see in the election returns anything that indicates the people of the country want his administration to do anything differently.

He added: "If I'm wrong, I'd like to know what it is."

All's Quiet on Quemoy

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Quiet returned again today to the Quemoy front. Nationalist defense headquarters said in midafternoon there were no reports of any Communist shelling.

This was one of the even-numbered days on which the Reds are pledged to avoid firing on Nationalist supply areas. The Peinping pledge, however, does not cover other sectors.

Red mainland batteries bombarded the islands with 5,700 shells Wednesday and Nationalist guns returned the fire. Tha exchange ended shortly before midnight.

The Nationalist Defense Ministry calimed the counterfire destroyed 17 Communist guns, 8 artillery positions, 5 pillboxes, an ammunition depot and a military barracks.

Rough weather in the Formosa Strait cost the Nationalists the 320-ton freighter Yung Hsin and its cargo of supplies. The ship sank off Northern Formosa when its main engine broke down and the hull cracked on a voyage to Matsu, off Red China's coast 150 miles north of Quemoy. A naval vessel rescued all 19 crewmen.

The Nationalist high command warned again that the Communists might use poison gas against the offshore islands.

Gen. "Tiger" Wang Shu-ming, chief of the general staff, said the Communists "may be paving the way for adopting such inhumane weapons" in charging that the Nationalists fired poison gas shells against the mainland Monday.

Bank Opens Branch at Temporary Site

The Community National Bank of Pontiac opened a new branch office in temporary quarters yesterday at 5830 Andersonville Rd., one block west of Dixie Highway in Waterford. This is the tenth Community National Bank in the Pontiac area.

Within six months, bank officials hope to have a permanent business operation established in the newly leased Jacober building, according to Branch Manager Robert L. Shueller.

Pontiac architect William Zimmerman is now working on blueprint drawings for remodeling and renovating the entire building, located at the corner of Dixie Highway and Andersonville Rd.

Bids for the construction work will be asked within the next month, Shueller said.

Pilot Dies, 3 Injured in Crash of AF Plane

TOWN CREEK, Ala. (AP)—An Air Force C45 crashed in rough country two miles west of this northwest Alabama village late Wednesday night. The pilot was killed and three other airmen were injured.

An official at Maxwell Air Force Base in Montgomery, where the twin-engine craft was stationed, identifiel the victim as Lt. Col. Ralph W. Mitchell. He was attending the Air University at Maxwell.

The injured, taken to a hospital at Sheffield, were listed as Lt. Col. Fred P. Wright, Lt. Col. Stanley H. Bear and M. Sgt. Archie M. Golson, all passengers and stationed at Maxwell.

Rescuers found the three injured airmen more than an hour before they found the main fuselage section, which contained Mitchell's body.

The Maxwell spokesman said the plane was en route from Orlando, Fla., and had been rerouted to nearby Muscle Shoals because of adverse landing conditions at Maxwell.

He said the cause of the crash had not been learned.

How Will Congress Treat Deficit, Wage-Price Spiral?

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—With a new Congress elected, business and financial circles are asking today what it will do about two questions worrying a lot of people:

1. Still another federal deficit with all its inflationary pressures.

2. The wage-price spiral which can bring about the same thing—a further boost to the cost of living.

The old Congress which officially turns over the reins in a couple of months raised government spending at a time when tax collections were falling because of the recession. The result is a 12-billion-dollar Treasury deficit.

It talked a little about voting standby wage and price controls but did nothing about this.

At the moment the cost of living is rising slowly in some sectors, such as transportation, medical care and other services, but is being held on an over-all level keel by lower food prices.

The first stages of financing the U.S. Treasury deficit are being worked out without as much inflation of the money supply as first feared, because nonbanking concerns are taking up a sizable hunk of the new securities (due to their sharply higher yields), and because the Federal Reserve Board is trying to keep credit as tight as it can without discouraging the business recovery.

But banking circles aren't sure how long this can last—especially if the new Congress should prove even more generous than the old one in appropriating money for government agencies to spend.

While part of the spending this year was earmarked for combating recession, the November survey of the Guaranty Trust Co. of New York—thinks this is doing more harm than good.

"The deficit, instead of combating recession, is aiding and abetting inflation," it said. "Fiscal policy and monetary policy are working at cross purposes. And thoughtful businessmen and others, contemplating the possible implications of the deficit and the other inflationary influences that are only too clearly present, are apprehensive that healthy recovery may quickly develop into a runaway boom."

It puts the blame strictly up to Congress, thus: "Both in law and in fact, the duty of regulating the value of money falls upon Congress, not upon private individuals or groups."

Bank economists hold that as long as deficits continue, speculation will be a strong force, especially in the stock market. They point out that "the expectation of inflation tends to encourage the buying of stocks, commodities, real estate, or anything else that is free to rise in price as money depreciates."

The second aspect of a rising cost of living — continuing wage and price boosts—leads some to advocate controls. This brings a strong protest from many bankers. They hold controls just won't work (except partially during times of emergency like war).

The Guaranty notes: "As far back as recorded history goes, rulers have tried to prevent their people from protecting themselves against the ruinous consequences of the rulers' abuse of money." In the long run it has never worked.

Stop building up inflationary pressures by deficit spending, the bankers urge the income Congress. Prices themselves are the natural expressions and the natural regulators of the strongest forces that exist in economic life. Don't tamper with them—say the bankers.

Burglars Practice, Too!

Bad Side Effects Challenge Study

Energizer Peps Up Mentally Depressed

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Scientists have shattered the blissful age of the tranquilizer with a revolutionary type of happiness pill. It's the energizer.

This is the name of a special group of drugs that is becoming as effective in pepping people up as tranquilizers are in calming

The reason is that it's the first drug that has been successful in helping cure severely depressed mental patients. It works best on people who suffer from a special type of depression that often immobilizes them or makes them want to commit suicide.

Dr. Jonathan Cole, top drug expert for the U.S. Public Health Service's National Institute of Mental Health, declares, "This is the hottest development of the year."

The new drugs are not panaceas for the average person who feels he needs a boost. They can be obtained only on prescription.

New Jersey psychiatrist Dr. Theodore R. Robie reports that 53 out of 87 patients were recently restored to useful happy lives by the drug. Two Michigan doctors credit iproniazid with producing marked improvement in the condition of 16 of their most severely depressed patients. Similar successes have been reported by doctors throughout the country.

REPLACE SHOCK

Some doctors believe that iproniazid's startling effects indicate that it may some day replace the frightening electro-shock treatment used to treat extreme depressions. In fact, doctors report that the drug has aroused patients who never reacted to electric shock.

But iproniazid's startling benefits are not the only reason for the intense interest that it's receiving among medical specialists.

Almost as much excitement has been triggered by the drug's frightening side effects.

Doctors report that iproniazid has caused some patients to become uncooperative, belligerent, noisy and impulsive. Others have been thrown into convulsions.

Several patients have become so excited that they suffered fractures. Insomnia, dizziness, constipation and urinary trouble also have been blamed on the drug. Dr. Cole explains that a high level dose often causes a striking drop in blood pressure.

Recently, iproniazid has been accused of causing fatal liver damage. About 184 cases of liver disease have appeared in the more than 480,000 patients receiving the drug. Of these cases, 28 have been fatal.

EXPERTS DUBIOUS

But some medical experts believe that there is little or no proof to back up these charges. They explain that the liver disease may have been completely unrelated to the drug treatments.

Normal persons, taking the drug reported that it boosted their energy and enabled them to work better. They also claim that it enabled them to get along with less sleep.

Medical experts explain, however that there is little scientific evidence to support these claims.

A number of scientific projects are under way to increase the effectiveness and safety of present energizers and to develop better ones.

Iproniazid was first used in the treatment of tuberculosis. It was soon adopted by psychiatrists, however, when startled hospital personnel noticed the extreme activity it caused in TB patients.

More than five billion dollars will be spent for oil, gas, coal and electricity to heat more than 46,200,000 American homes this winter, according to the National Fueloil Council.

Georgia Jails State Woman

Released After Posting Bond in Tieup With Arsenic Murder Case

MACON, Ga. (AP)—Mrs. Jewell Almond, 46, of Grand Rapids, Mich., was jailed briefly and then released under $5,000 bond Wednesday in connection with a perjury charge in the Anjette Lyles arsenic murder case.

Bibb County deputies brought Mrs. Almond to Macon from Columbus, Ga., where she had appeared unexpectedly Tuesday and offered to post bond on the charge.

Earlier she had been with her son, Eddie Lynch, in Grand Rapids. She said then she would fight extradition to Georgia.

Bibb Sheriff James Wood protested Mrs. Almond's attempt to post bond in Muscogee County and succeeded in having her brought here.

Along with the perjury charge, Mrs. Almond also is awaiting the outcome of an autopsy on her late husband, Muscogee Deputy Sheriff Robert Almond.

Sheriff E. F. Howell requested the autopsy, saying he had information which led him to believe Almond had met with foul play.

Mrs. Almond was a friend of Mrs. Anjette Lyles during her residence in Macon. She was one of two witnesses to a purported will of Mrs. Julia Young Lyles, Anjette's mother-in-law.

The state contends the will is a forgery and has indicted both Mrs. Almond and the other witness, Mrs. Gladys Briant.

Anjette Lyles was convicted of killing her 9-year-old daughter, Marcia Elaine Lyles, and sentenced to the electric chair. However, that sentence has been appealed.

She also was indicted in the deaths of Mrs. Julia Lyles, and Anjette's two husbands, Ben F. Lyles Jr. and Joe Neal Gabbert.

Dodge's Mother Files Foreclosure on Florida Home

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—The mother of Horace E. Dodge Jr. has filed a foreclosure petition on his home, contending her mortgages totaling $227,839 have prior lien over other claims.

Mrs. Anna Thomson Dodge yesterday asked Circuit Court to appoint a receiver who would rent the palatial home until is could be sold to satisfy the mortgages on which she said payments had lapsed.

A list of Dodge's creditors, named as codefendants, was included, with a statement that their liens are subordinate to hers.

Dodge, of the automobile family, and his wife, former showgirl Gregg Sherwood, occupied the Palm Beach house during several recent winter seasons. They are not living in it at present.

American Cars Cost $15,000 in Argentina

BUENOS AIRES (UPI) — The government has ruled that any Argentine who wants to import an automobile must post a deposit amounting to about 500 per cent of the delivered price for six months.

This is in addition to customs duties and other taxes which have pushed the cost of a "low-priced" American car up to about $15,000.

Deaths Elsewhere

Guessing Spotlight Shines on Strong State Dem Hare

By ROGER LANE

DETROIT (AP) — The spotlight of political speculation swung today on Secretary of State James M. Hare in the wake of his smashing victory for a third term.

A professor turned politician, the 48-year-old dispenser of state driver licenses and auto tags pleasantly shrugged off questions about the future.

But a look at the political record book establishes Hare as a possibility for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination in 1960, assuming Gov. Williams steps out and shoots for bigger things.

Hare swamped Republican Raymond A. Plank by 295,047 votes Tuesday, the biggest plurality run up in any statewide race.

The secretary of state's office, the second most important politically in state government, is the only one with any patronage to speak of, one of the main instruments of political power.

SERVES AS SPRINGBOARD

In the past 25 years, it has served as a springboard to propel four occupants toward the governor's chair, with two making the grade—Republicans Frank D. Fitzgerald in 1934 and Harry F. Kelly in 1944.

Fred M. Alger Jr. set sail for the top spot in 1952, only to become Williams' third victim by 10,812 votes after a recount.

Owen W. Cleary tried to make the jump in 1954, but got cut down in the Republican primary of that year.

Hare seemed amazed yesterday at the size of his win.

"I didn't have a single poster, billboard or leaflet or anything else," he said.

He conceded it's in the nature of the office to get wholesale good advertising available in due course to no other state official short of the governor, and that his activity as chairman of the State Safety Commission might have helped—although he said he was by no means sure.

But Democrats casting about for the man that can win at the head of the state ticket will have it all figured out when the time comes 18 months from now.

THINK WILLIAMS THROUGH

Few of those around him think Williams would try for a seventh term. They believe he has his eye on a national ticket spot in 1960, and possibly failing that might interest himself in the U. S. Senate seat now held by Patrick V. McNamara, who never has been particularly popular with Democratic organization leaders.

McNamara won the nomination in a fluke four years ago when former U. S. Sen. Blair Moody, then attempting a comeback, died during the primary campaign. His term is up in two more years.

In discussions of a possible state leader to take Williams' place when he goes, the name of George Edwards, now on the state Supreme Court, often is heard.

Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie is another who probably would receive consideration.

By two years from now, Mackie will have supervised the building of another half billion dollars or so in state highways.

Pressed as to his future plans, Hare would say only that he wanted to get on with his job, that he doesn't know what Williams may decide and "we have a whole set of possible candidates, if they're needed in the state ad board."

Hare said that in his campaigning he found a good deal of interest in his so far unsuccessful advocacy of an unsatisfied judgment act for protection of motorist victims in accidents where the fault lies with uninsured persons.

'SAVES $50 MILLION'

And he said he would like to see what he can do about promoting creation of the office of "consumer council representative" in the state. He described it as a "kind of better business bureau on the statewide level."

"In the few years since one was set up in New York it has saved the consumers of the state 50 million dollars," he said.

He said the office handles complaints about such things as the price of milk, price of gasoline, adulteration of foods and so forth.

Nearly as impressive a winner Tuesday was State Treasurer Sanford A. Brown. Bay Port farmer elected to a third term. Brown piled up a 252,726 margin over Republican Allan G. Weatherwax.

Hare carried 26 counties Tuesday to 20 for Williams and 18 for Lt. Gov. Philip A. Hart, winner of the U. S. Senate race.

Laborer, 21, Admits Fatal Gang Shooting

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Police say a 21-year-old laborer has admitted firing the shot that killed Theodore McIntosh, 17, Tuesday night in a street gang fight.

Detective Sgt. Benjamin Massey said Glover Major Cody told officers:

Cody and McIntosh were members of rival gangs. Tuesday, three of Cody's friends were shot at by the other group, but were not hit.

That night Cody and four companions, each armed, went into their rival's territory. Cody accosted McIntosh and hit him. At that moment some shots were fired at Cody's gang. Cody fired once. McIntosh "grabbed his belly" and Cody's gang fled in a waiting car.

All the youths involved are Negroes. Cody was held without charge.

Chevrolet Head Sees More Car Challenges

DETROIT (AP)—Edward N. Cole, general manager of General Motors Chevrolet Division, says numerous careers.

Cole, former chief engineer of Cadillac and Chevrolet, told the Detroit section of the Society of Automotive Engineers last night that the challenges are going to have a great influence on the direction of the automotive industry in the next 10 or 20 years."

The areas in which there is room for improvement, Cole said, include:

More effective use of weight; greater directional stability on poor road surfaces and in gusty winds; protection of body and sheet metal from corrosion; complete elimination of noise and vibration and brake performance and reliability in relation to car speed.

He described today's automobile as giving the average American a quality of transportation, comfort, convenience and safety on wheels unmatched anywhere in the world.

Election Losers Can Get Pension

Several Congressmen Eligible for Involuntary Retirement Benefits

WASHINGTON (AP) — Many members of Congress knocked out of political jobs in Tuesday's elections will get hefty pensions in their years of involuntary retirement.

Under the pension plan through which members can qualify for annuities by paying 6 per cent of their annual $22,500 salary, pensions up to about $18,000 are possible.

Generally speaking, the pension is based on 2½ per cent of the average of a member's five highest congressional pay years, multiplied by his number of years of service, with a top of close to 80 per cent of full pay.

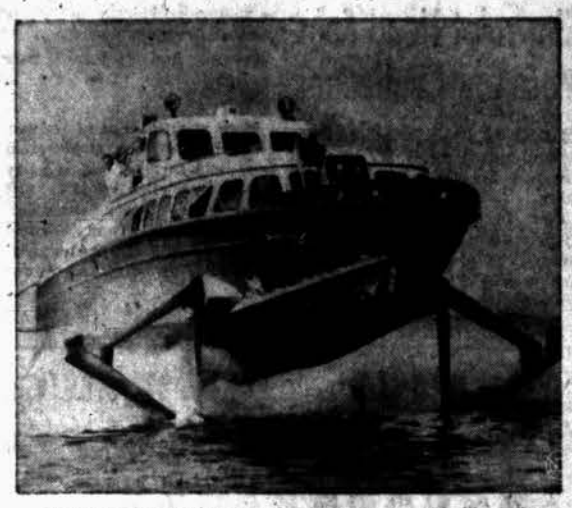
The normal age requirement for retirement is 62 years, with a minimum of 5 years of service required. Members may draw reduced annuities at lower ages if they are retired involuntarily as quite a few were Tuesday, but they must have had at least 5 years of congressional service. Added to that 5 years for pension purposes, is any time a member spent in the armed services or in any other federal job covered by the government pension plan. The pension provisions apply equally to senators and representatives.



SEA LEGS — Rising out of the water on spiderlike stilts, a new passenger boat races full speed ahead in a test run at San Juan, Puerto Rico. Called the "Flying Fish," the craft is constructed with a hydrofoil system that elevates the hull out of the water, thereby reducing drag and permitting speeds of nearly 50 m.p.h. The 20-ton boat can carry as many as 72 passengers plus considerable cargo with a smooth motion that virtually eliminates seasickness.

Rails Use Third of Coal

BOMBAY — The Indian Railways system consumes more than 13,000,000 tons of coal a year — one third of India's total coal output.

Note Diesel Centennial

NEW YORK — Dr. Rudolf Diesel, father of the engine that bears his name, was born in Paris 100 years ago. The first diesel-electric locomotive in the United States was developed in 1923. The first one sold to an American railroad was a 300-horsepower road engine used for switching in New York City in October, 1925.

SPECIAL BAKED EGGS — Here is a different way to serve eggs. Baked in the center of a hollowed-out roll and served with a delicious chef-inspired spaghetti sauce with mushrooms, these eggs will tempt jaded family appetites.

Eggs With Sauce Baked in Rolls

It's the simplest thing in the world for the skillful cook to add great appetite appeal to the plainest meal. It is done with the secret of the greatest chefs: sauces.

Today the most delicious sauces are available in canned form so that even the beginning cook can use them to the most flavorful advantage in her cooking.

To help the home cook, there is a spicy, savory spaghetti sauce with either meat or mushrooms. It comes in a small eight ounce size or a larger fifteen and a half ounce can that is ideal for company meals.

With its tantalizing base of long-simmered tomatoes, the sauce with meat is especially good poured over macaroni, noodles or spaghetti. The sauce with mushrooms adds zest to hamburgers, meat loaf and a variety of fish and egg dishes.

Here is one way to add the chef's touch to a simple egg dish. Slice hamburger or onion rolls in half and butter. Put back together. Then scoop out the center of the top half.

Break an egg into each hollow. Sprinkle with salt and pepper. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) until the eggs set, about fifteen to twenty minutes. Serve with canned spaghetti sauce with mushrooms.

This is an easy-to-make but highly nutritious meal for the family. Keep several cans of these sauces handy to add flavor and relish to ordinary dishes.

Cold Potatoes Are Beginning of Good Meal

Boiled, baked or mashed, we often have leftovers at our house because when it comes to properly prepared potatoes, the cook never knows what ceiling will be zero! In the New England tradition of waste-not, want-not, they are carefully put aside in a covered dish in a cool place.

They rapidly find a use. The mashed are mixed with eggs and formed into cakes for frying. The boiled are good in a salad, as creamed, au gratin, hashed-brown, or fried with onions.

When lunch comes unexpectedly, as it usually does, a favorite is the potato-egg scramble.

The cook quickly dices half-a-dozen boiled potatoes. Then she dices six slices of bacon and fries 'em until crisp; and pours off half the fat. She adds the potatoes and a chopped onion or a bunch of green ones and fries the whole until lightly browned.

Add four eggs and seasoning and stir until the eggs are lightly set.

Keep Frosting Firm

Heating some of that good frosted coffee cake that comes frozen in a foil plate with a see-through plastic top? Cut as many portions as you plan to serve and put them on a round wire rack in a skillet. Allow to stand over moderate heat, without being covered, for about five minutes or until hot through. The frosting won't melt!

California, New England Contribute Cook Books

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

From opposite ends of the country cook books came to my desk this past week. From California came Jane Benet's "San Francisco Cook Book" (Fearon Publishers, San Francisco, $3.50); and from New England "Rain, Hail and Baked Beans" by Duncan MacDonald and Robb Sagendorph (Ives Washburn, Inc., New York, $3.95).

After a pleasant hour of scanning both books, I find myself very hungry. If this were my day to work at home, I'd probably go to the kitchen and try out some of the yummy recipes.

Jane Benet, the author of the San Francisco Cook Book, is a colleague I know and like from meeting her at Food Editors' Conferences. Her book sounds just like her — informal and chatty, yet with a core of good sound common sense.

Most of the recipes are for entrees. She devotes a chapter to menus with a foreign flavor. Here she gives recipes for all the dishes. In the Chinese menu we find this good-sounding Chow Mein.

BEEF-TOMATO CHOW MEIN

2-3 flank steaks, depending on size
1 cup soy sauce
¼ cup brandy
2 cloves garlic, minced
Peanut oil for cooking
2 large dry onions, cut up
2 large sweet green peppers, cut up
2 cans (No. 2½) solid-pack tomatoes
Cornstarch and water to thicken
Salt

Slice meat across the grain into the thinnest possible strips. Place in a large bowl and pour over it the soy sauce, brandy and minced garlic. Let marinate 3-4 hours, turning occasionally.

At cooking time, saute meat very fast in hot peanut oil in a large heavy skillet. When evenly browned and cooked, remove from pan and keep warm. Saute onion and green pepper in oil until just barely tender. Add marinade and tomatoes which should be broken up with a fork and cook rapidly 2-3 minutes.

Thicken sauce with a mixture of cornstarch and water until it is the right consistency to serve over crisp fried noodles (the canned kind). Return meat to pan, heat through and serve. Serves 8.

Both the chapters on desserts and on wine are excellent. We like the idea of a pyramid of tiny cream puffs, dribbled over with chocolate sauce, as an unusual birthday cake.

"Rain, Hail and Baked Beans" is an interesting mixture of food and philosophy, as well as comments on the weather. Instead of breaking the recipes down into the usual categories, the authors put them together by seasons.

Duncan MacDonald is a food expert on the air and in Yankee magazine; Duncan is a woman, by the way. Robb Sagendorph edits both The Old Farmer's Almanac and Yankee magazine. His comments on the passing of the seasons borders on the poetic.

This cook book, like the first one, has a great many regional recipes. People who like New England cooking will love this book. Anadama bread, Beach Plum Jelly, Codfish Balls, Indian Pudding, Baked Stuffed Lobster, Red Flannel Hash and Yankee Clam Chowder are but a few of the typical recipes. There is one chapter containing favorite recipes from 41 famous New England inns.

A recipe for an uncooked fruit cake appeals to me. How about it?

Uncooked Fruit Cake

1½ cups dates
¾ cups raisins
2 tablespoons orange juice
½ cup candied cherries
1 cup candied pineapple
1½ cups walnuts or pecans
⅛ teaspoon salt

Cut dates and raisins very fine. Combine in mixing bowl. Add orange juice. Cut up cherries, pineapple and nut meats and add to mixture. Add salt. Line pan with wax paper.

Press mixture firmly into pan. Put weight on top and let stand in cold place for 48 hours. Yield: 1½ pounds. Keeps indefinitely.

"... there is nothing," says one of the authors, "quite like New England food for the enjoying of New England weather."

Hot Nog Appeal on Cold Day

Hot Mocha Nog is a souped-up version of French cafe au lait. It is suggested that you mix the eggs, reliquefied instant crystals and other ingredients in a pan before guests arrive . . . then store in the refrigerator. That leaves only a heat-and-beat job before serving.

Hot Mocha Nog

1½ quarts reliquefied instant nonfat dry milk crystals (according to package directions)
3 eggs, beaten
3 tablespoons instant coffee powder
¼ teaspoon nutmeg
⅓ cup sugar

Combine all ingredients; mix well. Heat to serving temperature over low heat, stirring occasionally. Beat until foamy before serving. Makes 6 servings.

Party Touch a la Orient

Pineapple Bacon Crisps are easy to make and delicious with beverages: Wrap a half slice of bacon around a halved, drained, canned water chestnut and a pineapple chunk. Fasten with a wooden pick. Place on a rack or broiler pan and broil slowly for about 10 to 15 minutes.

Sponge Cake Layer Tops Fruit Medley

Fruit-Nut Bars

⅓ cup sifted cake flour
½ teaspoon baking powder
⅛ teaspoon salt
2 eggs
1 cup sifted confectioners sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 tablespoon butter (melted)
½ cup seedless raisins (rinsed in hot water and drained then finely chopped)
½ cup pitted dates (cut in thin strips)
¾ cup finely chopped pecans

Sift together the flour, baking powder and salt. Beat eggs until thick and pale yellow; add sugar, vanilla and melted butter; beat well. Fold in raisins, dates and pecans. Turn into buttered cake pan (9 by 9 by 1¾ inches).

Bake in slow (325 degrees) oven 25 minutes or until cake tester inserted in center comes out clean. Place pan on wire rack to cool; cut into bars; dust with extra confectioners sugar. Store in tightly covered container.

Precook Before Broiling

Of the meats that can be broiled, don't forget that sweetbreads and brains, well-known variety meats can also be served broiled. However, these variety meats must be precooked before being placed in the broiler.

Did you know that deviled ham was first canned during Civil War days and almost the same formula is used to make the deviled ham we eat today.

"What a joy it was to learn that my family's favorite orange juice—TreeSweet—is naturally pure and gives us all the vitamin C we need! Guess that's why TreeSweet's so naturally fresher-tasting...and just 2 small glasses give us our daily vitamin C—naturally."

IT'S FRUIT CAKE TIME—Mrs. Roger Cuneo of Liberty street has already made some of her holiday fruit cakes. Her recipe is a family one. Although it takes hours of preliminary work to get all the fruit and nuts ready, it is definitely worth the time and effort. Get some of your friends together and have a Fruit Cake Bake.

It's time to make your fruit cake for Christmas. As you know, fruit cake improves with age and this is not too far ahead of the holidays.

This year we have a new suggestion for you. Why don't you have a fruit cake party? By that we mean, why don't you get together with other homemakers who want to have some of the traditional cakes ready for the holidays and spend a day making them?

The work will go faster, will be more pleasant and you'll have something to show for it. Plan a simple lunch for noon. This is the sort of occasion when you really get to know people.

Mrs. Roger Cuneo who lives on Liberty street makes pounds and pounds of fruit cake from a recipe given her by her grandmother. The mother of two young children, she is active in a number of community affairs. She is treasurer of the Pontiac Newcomers Club and is a member of the Oakland County Mental Health Board. Reading and music are her hobbies.

There is a great deal of preliminary work to be done before the actual mixing of the fruit cake. This is the sort of chore that is more fun shared with others. Mrs. Cuneo says you may vary the proportions of the various fruit and nuts in her recipe, using up to two or three pounds more of them.

A strong arm, a huge bowl or dishpan and a big wooden spoon are essential for mixing. An electric mixer helps too.

GRANDMA'S DARK FRUIT CAKE
By Mrs. Roger Cuneo

8 cups sifted flour
1 teaspoon soda
½ teaspoon each salt, cinnamon, cloves and mace
1 pound butter or other shortening
1 pound sifted brown sugar
8 big eggs
½ pound each, finely sliced candied cherries, citron, orange peel and lemon peel
1 pounded almonds, blanched and shredded
1 pound seedless raisins
1 pound currants
½ cup water
1 cup honey
½ cup molasses

Beat eggs uitil they are almost as thick as whipped cream. This will take about ten minutes.

Sift and measure flour. Add dry ingredients and sift three times more. Cream butter until light and lemon colored. Add sugar gradually, beating after each addition. Slowly add the the beaten eggs. This is as far as you can go with the electric mixer.

Put above mixture into a very large bowl. Add fruit and nuts, then water, honey and molasses. Add sifted dry ingredients gradually, beating until smooth after each addition.

Pour into pans lined with wax paper. You may use two tube pans or a number of small pans, coffee cans or fruit juice cans. Bake at 250 degrees for 3½ hours.

The smaller cakes will take almost as long as the larger ones. Test with a toothpick. when it comes out clean, the cake is done.

Place a shallow pan of water in the oven under the cakes as they bake. This makes a very moist cake that keeps well and improves with age. Store in covered tins or wrapped in foil.

A chocolate orange fruit cake comes to us from the orange people in California. It has a different tang.

Chocolate Oange Fruit Cake

2 medium California oranges
2 tablespoons fresh lemon juice
1½ cups candied cherries, cut
1 cup pitted dates, cut
¾ cup candied orange peel, cut
½ cup citron, cut
1 cup walnuts, chopped
2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
½ teaspoon soda
½ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon allspice
½ cup butter
¾ cup sugar
3 eggs, beaten
2 squares chocolate, melted

Squeeze juice from oranges. Add lemon juice. Set aside. Grind orange peel of 1 orange and combine with cherries, dates, peel, citron and nuts. Sift flour, soda, salt and spices. Mix thoroughly with the fruits.

Cream butter with sugar. Add beaten eggs and melted chocolate. Blend in the orange and lemon juices. Add the floured fruit. Pour into well oiled 10-inch angel food pan. Bake in slow oven (275) for 2 hours or until done. Cool.

Encase in a cloth which has been soaked in orange juice, then wrap tightly in aluminum foil. Store in a covered container. When ready to serve, a powdered sugar glaze (water, powdered sugar) may be dribbled over the top of the cake and then sprinkled with chopped candied orange peel.

One of our Walled Lake readers, Mrs. Theo Selby sent us this light fruit cake recipe.

Florida Fruitcake

½ cup shortening
1 cup sugar
3 eggs
1½ teaspoons soda in
1 cup buttermilk
1 teaspoon vanilla
3 cups sifted flour
1 cup chopped nuts
2 cups chopped dates
1 pound glazed cherries
1 pound raisins

Mix in order given. Bake in tube cake pan for at least one hour at 325 degrees.

Mix ½ cup fresh orange juice with ¾ cup sugar and bring to a boil. While both cake and juice mixture are still warm, glaze both top and bottom of cake. Let rest of juice soak into cake.

Reminder for summer cooks: When you turn the oven on in order to bake potatoes, make up a batch of muffins (from scratch or a mix), too. Both potatoes and muffins may be baked at a hot (425 degrees) temperature.

Pick Out Choice Salad Dressing

Here are two recipes for tangy dressings that will perk up the salads you serve. The first is for those who count their calories, and the second for those who enjoy a zesty topping combining their favorite taste treats.

Weight Watcher's Salad Dressing

1 cup cottage cheese
1 can (10½ ounces) condensed tomato soup
1 tablespoon sweet pickle relish
2 tablespoons lemon juice

Blend all ingredients; chill. Stir well and serve over crisp salad greens. Makes about 2 cups of dressing.

Lemon-Tomato Salad Topping

1 can (10½ ounces) condensed tomato soup
1 cup mayonnaise
½ cup sweet pickle relish
1 hard cooked egg, chopped
2 tablespoons lemon juice
½ teaspoon grated onion
½ teaspoon prepared mustard

Blend soup and mayonnaise. Add remaining ingredients; mix well. Chill. Serve with cooked shrimp or crisp salad greens. Makes about 2½ cups of dressing.

Talk Turkey at Tel-Huron on Nov. 13

Want to be right up to date on the latest turkey information? The place to get the word on Mr. Gobbler is the Tel-Huron Community Center on Thursday, November 13.

Mrs. Josephine Lawyer, Oakland County Marketing Information Agent, will present the food part of the demonstration, entitled "Turkey Hospitality from Door to Table." Mrs. Ruby Dunstan will show how the floral theme for Thanksgiving and other holiday occasions can start at the front door and follow through to the table and the wall behind it.

1958 turkey supplies, price predictions.

Turkey sizes and cost comparison between sizes.

Thawing, stuffing and baking turkey.

Carving turkey.

Ways to use leftover turkey.

Two sessions are scheduled in order to accommodate all who wish to attend. Each will be preceded by a coffee hour. Sessions will begin at 9:30 and again at 1:30 and will last about two hours.

The meetings will take place in Pontiac's newest community center room which is available seven days a week to all non-profit groups. Mrs. Barbara Sellman is the director.

Extra Nourishment Comes From Banana

From your own soda fountain!

2 small or medium-sized fully ripe bananas
2 tablespoons instant chocolate-flavored sweetened malted milk powder
2 cups homogenized milk
¾ teaspoon vanilla

Bananas should be speckled with brown and not green at the tip. Peel bananas and mash fine with a fork. Add malted milk powder, milk and vanilla; beat well with rotary beater (hand or electric). Makes 4 medium-sized servings.

Most small fry do not like very cold drinks so serve this as is; for oldsters pour each serving over an ice cube.

Note: If you have an electric blender make this drink in two batches, adding half of all the ingredients at one time. Run blender until mixture is smooth each time.

STOP RUBBING use—
ROMAN BLEACH

It's easy to wash white anklets spotlessly clean, snowy white with Roman Bleach. It removes stains, grimy spots without the work or wear of extra rubbing. Just try it.

Speedy Dessert Appeals to Men

Using instant coffee right from the jar is the ideal way to add coffee flavor to recipes. Here, instant coffee is used to add a new and delightful taste to one of the all-time favorites in the dessert line, Charlotte Russe.

This is the dessert to keep in mind for two good reasons: (1) men like it and (2) it takes less than 10 minutes to make from start to finish.

Coffee Charlotte Russe

8 lady fingers
2 teaspoons instant coffee
1½ cups heavy cream
¼ cup sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla
Dash salt
4 maraschino cherries

Split lady fingers. Cut about ¾ inch from one end of each lady finger half. Arrange four of the ends on bottom of each of 4 dessert dishes, placing two cut ends together, then the two lengths side by side.

Combine instant coffee with heavy cream. Whip cream until thickened; add sugar, vanilla and salt and continue beating until stiff. Turn into pastry bag with large rosette tube and press out a mound about 2 inches high onto lady fingers; or spoon onto lady fingers.

Arrange 4 of the lady-finger lengths upright around each mound of cream to form a pyramid. Press out more cream between and on top of lady fingers, or spoon it on.

Butternut Squash Diced for Boiling

A comparative newcomer to the culinary scene, butternut squash is both delicious and nutritious.

Butternut Squash

2 medium-sized butternut squash (about 1 pound each)
½ cup boiling water
¾ teaspoon salt
3 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 tablespoon lemon or lime juice
½ teaspoon grated lemon or lime rind

Pare squash; cut in half lengthwise; scoop out seeds. Dice into 1-inch pieces. Cook rapidly, covered, with boiling water and salt just until tender—about 10 minutes. Drain well if there is any liquid left; shake over heat to dry. Add butter; sprinkle with lemon juice and rind; mix gently so as not to break up. More salt may be added if needed; pepper and sugar may also be added for seasoning. Makes 6 servings.

Freeze Whipped Cream

Small peaked mounds of whipped cream can be frozen for instant use at a later date? Formed whipped cream mounds on a cooky sheet or flat pan; set in freezer until solid. Then remove frozen mounds and wrap in freezer wrap.

Stewing Hens, Turkeys Good Budget Balancers

Fall brings more stewing hens than other seasons of the year. It might pay to think of how you could use one. Stewers have a large amount of lean meat in relation to bone. Stewers will serve two people from each pound compared with fryers which serve only 1 and one-third portions per pound.

Beef, lamb, veal and fryers show little change compared with last week's prices. You may find some beef steak and fryer part features.

Fresh perch prices decreased this week. Whitefish is higher due to decreasing supplies.

EGGS — Large size eggs are increasing in supply, and it is predicted they will drop 4 to 6 cents a dozen by the end of the month. Some retailers expect slightly lower prices on this size by the week-end. Even so, your money buys more eggs by weight if you choose the medium size again this week.

FRUITS AND VEGETABLES — According to the October report of the U.S. Agricultural Marketing Service, supplies of vegetables for fresh market this fall are expected to be slightly larger than either last fall or the 1949-56 average. A large part of the increase over last year is cabbage. But potatoes, sweet corn, spinach and cauliflower supplies are quite a big larger also.

Alert shoppers will notice increasing supplies of sweet corn and spinach. Heavier shipments of hothouse tomatoes brought lower prices this week. A decrease in lettuce prices is related to better weather conditions in the growing areas.

The 1958 crop of deciduous fruits is about 4 per cent larger than the 1957 crop and 3 per cent above the 1947-56 average. The larger crop this year is the result of more apples, peaches, grapes and cranberries.

Apples are slightly higher this week as storage costs are now added. Grapefruit is increasing in quantity and improving in flavor. Five pound bags of grapefruit are available. The Bartlett pear season is ending.

Planning your weekly trip to market? Chances are you'll buy some pork. Looking for poultry? Then check stewing hens and large size turkeys for a "most for the money" buy in lean meat. Add plenty of fall fruits and vegetables, your weekly quota of eggs, dairy products, cereals and breads. You'll come home with a market order filled with good foods for the family.

MEATS FOR YOUR CHOOSING — Plenty of pork in the fall market is your cue to check and compare pork cuts with other red meats. Wholesalers report that both bacon and ham are coming from heavier hogs, that light animals are scarce.

When checking, compare prices and consider difference between partially boned and de-fatted hams and the large nine or ten pound canned hams. The canned ham will serve 4 to 6 people per pound depending upon how thick you cut the slices. The partly boned, de-fatted smoked ham will serve about 3 persons from each pound.

Ham will spoil when stored at room tmeperature. The only exception to this rule is the small canned ham which has been completely sterilized in the canning process. This means that all fresh and smoked ham and most canned ham should be stored in the refrigerator.

Fresh ham will keep 3 or 4 days, smoked ham 7 to 10 days, and canned ham for as long as 6 months (if unopened) in the refrigerator. It will pay to read the label concerning storage on all canned hams.

Pickles Add Zest to Dips for Potatoes

Dill Pickle Shrimp Dip

½ cup finely chopped dill pickles
1 cup sour cream
1 4½ oz. can shrimp, deveined, drained, and chopped
¼ teaspoon garlic salt
¼ teaspoon horseradish

Blend ingredients well. Chill at least 1 hour before serving. Serve with crackers, potato chips or hot crisp French fries. Yield, about 2 cups.

Sweet Pickle Dip

¾ cup finely slivered sweet sour pickles
1 cup sour cream
½ to ½ cup smoky process cheese spread
⅛ teaspoon paprika

Blend ingredients well. Chill at least 1 hour before serving. Serve with crackers, potato chips, or hot crisp French fries. Yield, 1⅓ to 1½ cups.

Pickle-Beef-Cheese Dip

½ cup well drained sweet pickle relish
1 3 oz. package cream cheese, room temperature
¼ teaspoon worcestershire sauce
1 cup sour cream
1 cup finely chopped dried beef

Mix pickle relish and cream cheese together until smooth. Add remaining ingredients and mix well. Chill at least 1 hour before serving. Serve with crackers, potato chips or hot crisp French fries. Yield, 2 cups dip.

Pimiento Dots Eggs Scrambled With Cheese

Eggs with a difference!

Special Scrambled Eggs

4 eggs
¼ teaspoon salt
White pepper
½ cup homogenized milk
½ cup very lightly packed grated cheddar cheese
1 drained canned pimiento (diced)
2 tablespoons butter

Beat egg with rotary beater just until yolks and whites are combined. Beat in salt, pepper to taste and milk just until mixed.

Melt butter in top of double boiler; add egg mixture. Cook over hot (not boiling) water; occasionally stir the cooked portion of the egg from the bottom and sides of the pan so there are creamy lumps. Shortly before eggs are finished cooking, fold in cheese and pimiento.

If eggs have to be held for 10 minutes or so, leave over hot water but not over heat. Makes 2 to 4 servings.

Wrapping Paper Will Do

Ordinary brown wrapping paper, with a dull surface, may be used for lining cake pans. No need to grease the pan before putting the paper into it; just grease the upper surface of the aper lightly.

Combine Two Cheese to Fill Pear Cavity

Stuffed Pear Salad

½ cup (lightly packed) finely grated Swiss Cheese
¼ cup cream-style cottage cheese
Salt
2 ripe firm pears
Paprika
4 pecan halves
4 fresh purple plums
Romaine and chicory (or a combination of other salad greens)
Salad dressing

Mix together the Swiss and cottage cheese; add salt to taste. Pare pears; cut in half lengthwise; remove stem structure. Spoon cheese mixture over pear cavities; sprinkle with paprika; garnish with pecan halves. Pit plums and halve.

Arrange stuffed pears and plums on salad greens. Serve with salad dressing — old-fashioned boiled dressing is particularly good with this. Makes 2 servings.

Surprise in a Muffin

Here's a new and different way to serve cornmeal muffins. Remove the center of a baked muffin, fill with deviled ham, sprinkle the top with grated cheese and bake until the cheese melts.

You can usually count on getting two cups of walnut meats out of a pound of walnuts in the shell.

Pineapple Nut Bread Calls for Biscuit Mix

Pineapple Nut Bread is an "extra" that will fit into every occasion from lunch box to party fare.

Here's how: Stir together 2 eggs, ¾ cup sugar and 1 cup chopped walnuts till blended. Mix in 1¼ cups of undrained pineapple tidbits. Add 3 cups of biscuit mix all at one time, stirring quickly only until mix is thoroughly blended. Turn into well-greased loaf pan (9x5x2½").

Allow to set approximately 20 minutes before baking. Bake in 350 degree oven for approximately one hour. Cool 10 minutes. Turn out on rack.

Labels on Cans of Food Reveal Many Facts

You cannot see into a can of food, but you can be guided by what you read on the label reminds the Marketing Information Agent.

There are many can sizes but only eight are commonly used. Most fruits and vegetables are packed in the 303 or pound size can.

Read the label for style of pack. It tells whether the product is whole, cut, sliced or in some other form.

Read the label to see the kind of liquid in which the food is packed. For example, the label tells whether fruit is packed in light, heavy or extra-heavy syrup or in water.

Read the label for grade. This is not required, but when grades are listed, they must meet government standards.

Read the label for the name of the packer and brand.

Next time you make pastry for a fruit pie, or use a pastry mix, substitute chilled orange juice for the water. The juice brings out extra flavor in the filling.

11 Cities Along Seaway Ready Port Facilities for 4th Coast

(This is the second of two dispatches telling what the St. Lawrence Seaway will mean to the previously "landlocked" Middle West.)

By EVERETT R. IRWIN

CHICAGO (UPI) — The Great Lakes are humming with activity as never before in the closing weeks of their eight-month-long shipping season.

America's new "fourth seacoast" is preparing for the opening of the long-dreamed-of St. Lawrence Seaway next April and the arrival of larger, deep-sea cargo vessels from foreign pots.

Most of the major lake cities are rushing construction of new piers or development of other marine terminal facilities, a United Press International survey showed.

Milwaukee and Cleveland each is constructing two new piers Duluth is pressing to complete a 10-million-dollar public marine terminal by May 1, 1959. Work is going full blast on first phase development of a new terminal at Toledo, Ohio.

The Chicago office of the Army Corps of Engineers has approved, in interim reports, harbor improvement projects totaling 53 million dollars at 11 Great Lakes cities.

The engineers' recommendations, which still must undergo final consideration in Washington, cover the ports of Cleveland, Toledo, Lorain, Sandusky and Ashtabula, Ohio; Marquette and Presque Isle, Mich.; Buffalo, N. Y.; Two Harbors, Minn.; Ashland, Wis.; and the Duluth, Minn.-Superior, Wis., harbor.

Milwaukee: In the midst of an 11-million-dollar harbor expansion program. The No. 1 project is a six-million-dollar, 1,100-feet-long pier with two sheds, a truck dock and railroad facilities. Now under construction, it is expected to be finished by 1960. Also under construction is a $1,300,000 pier for passengers and autos, with showplace terminal and restaurant.

Duluth—The Duluth Port Authority is building its 10-million-dollar marine terminal, complete with berthing space, warehouse sheds and two 65-ton gantry cranes, on a 120-acre plot reclaimed from Lake Superior, Port Director Robert T. Smith calls it "the best investment the state of Minnesota has ever made."

TWO HUGE PIERS

Cleveland—Two huge piers, now under construction at a cost of more than four million dollars, are expected to be ready for the Seaway opening. The area around the piers will be dredged to a 27-foot depth and the harbor entrance, now 23 feet deep, will be deepened to 27 feet by late 1959 or 1960. Port Director William Rogers recently proposed construction of a 60-million-dollar road to serve the waterfront area and facilitate transshipment of cargoes.

20 ACRE SITE

Toledo—Land development has started on a 20-acre terminal site on Presque Isle at the mouth of the Maumee River. A $1,549,547 contract calls for construction of 800 feet of bulkhead, steel piling for wharf space, construction of two connecting dikes and placing of fill. When land development is completed, construction of general cargo facilities, storage sheds, a tank farm and bulk storage area are planned.

CHICAGO—$8 MILLION

Chicago—City authorities have launched a four-million-dollar improvement program at antiquated Navy Pier, on the downtown Lake Michigan shore, Mayor Richard J. Daley said the city plans to spend eight million dollars on Navy Pier by 1965.

Meanwhile, the privately financed Chicago Regional Port District is seeking 25 million dollars to expand the Lake Calumet harbor on Chicago's Far South Side. Heart of the expansion program would be construction of a 3,000-foot-long, 400-foot-wide berthing slip for Seaway-size vessels.

Buffalo—Work scheduled to start soon on a project to deepen and move the north entrance to the harbor to accommodate deep-draft vessels. The Federal government has approved the first two million dollars of the 13 millions needed to complete the project, which also entails construction of a new breakwater and lighthouse.

New York State has turned over to the Niagara Frontier Port Authority, without cost, the four-million-dollar former Erie Barge Canal terminal building for general cargo handling.

'58 High Fever Follies Draws Laugh a Minute

By MARGARET BROWN

Members of the audience of the High Fever Follies, which opened at Pontiac Central High School Wednesday evening, became real cosmopolites as performers escorted them "Around the World in 80 Ways."

The production's plot concerned two school teachers who thought they had purchased tickets for the late Mike Todd's spectacle "Around the World in 80 Days" and instead found themselves whisked away on a world tour.

We're offering you, not only the greatest show on earth, but ". . . the earth itself," exclaimed the show's barker, and with that, the high-spirited, high-stepping High Fever Follies cast ushered in an evening of sheer "highlarity" and cordiality, heightened by the fact that almost all of the faces behind the footlights were familiar to the audience.

FAVORITE SCENES

Among scenes Follies first-nighters seemed to relish particularly were a "Carnival in Venice," featuring some very graceful waltzes with highly professional touches, and a jolly rendition of the "Italian Street Song" which rang of a delightful operetta.

A trip to "The Windy City" in the year 1925 and an encounter with a flapper named Maisie, and her boy friend, Creepie—with the added interest of two gangsters, the "Boss" and his crony, "The Shadow," who bumped off "bothersome" actors at the slightest provocation—kept the audience laughing on nearly every line.

The proverbial house-bringer-downer — and we're sure the first nighters will agree if they have stopped laughing yet—was a "Portrait of a Pacific Paradise," starring a number of local "lovelies" who hula danced about exotically, clad in grass skirts with mop-head locks flowing.

PLENTY OF VARIETY

Several perfectly blended barbershop quartet numbers were offered, and New York's renowned "Rockettes" had nothing on the nimble footed chorus dancers who presented routines ranging from quaint highland flings and Old Dutch Garden themes to pulsating South American and perky cowgirl numbers.

So much credit is due so many for the successful performance. The hours of planning, rehearsing, set designing, costuming, and just plain hard work that went into the show were evident as the smooth running, fast-paced show progressed. Character contrasts were exceptionally well incorporated into the script.

Congratulations to the Women's Auxiliary to Pontiac General Hospital, the cast, committees, patrons, and all who made possible last night's enjoyable production. Doors will open at 8:30 again this evening.

A mother and son act, co-starring Mrs. P. Eugene Miller and Dr. Lynn Allen Jr., kept Wednesday night's High Fever Follies audience laughing. The "youngster," armed with a much too diminutive hula hoop, and his stage mother played in a satire on the book, "I Remember Mama."

Makeup man Robert Morse and other members of this important committee faced many faces in readying the large Follies cast for the Pontiac Central High School stage last night. Here, Ralph Coin's makeup job gets a few final touches just before curtain time.

Church to Hold Fall Fair

The third annual Fall Fair of Pine Lake Episcopal Church of the Advent will be held from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. Wednesday at Holiday House, Middlebelt road.

Even the men of the parish are participating. Robert Kent heads a group of couples making candies.

There will be needlework, toys, home baked articles and Christmas decorations. Also featured will be a snack bar. All proceeds will go to the church's new building.

Fair chairman is Mrs. John Hart with Mrs. Clarence Suhr as cochairman. Other committee heads are Mrs. Bernard Head, baked goods; Mrs. J. Robert Kent, candy; Jean Arnoldi, children; Mrs. C. Sanborn Hutchins, needlework; and Mrs. Rogers Marquis, special foods.

Others are Mrs. Lyle Passmore, Christmas decorations; Mrs. Hugh Macduff, snack bar; Mrs. Robert MacGonigal, evening group; Mrs. Clements White, nursery; Mrs. John Black and Mrs. Russell Meyer, publicity and Mrs. Frank Arnoldi, advisor.

Shapeless Sweaters in Vogue

Even sweaters make high-fashion news this fall. The schoolgirl's standby has a different look — big, bulky, loose and chemise-styled.

New for teens is the hip-length bulky pullover, so loose that it hardly touches the body, often with a wide, straight-across neckline.

Coat sweaters are likely to be styled with a long V-neckline, hip-length, fastened with three low-placed buttons below the waist. These are boyish-looking and often have contrast ribbed-knit bandings accenting the V-neckline and front closing.

Berates Wife for 'Hanging On'—Abby

She'd Push Children Aside to Grab Another's Husband

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

"DEAR ABBY: I want to ask you a question. Why do women who suddenly discover husbands have found somebody else try to hold onto them by 'using' the children? How can a woman be so lacking in pride as to try to hang onto a man who doesn't want her any more and tells her so?

ABBY

"You only live once, and I don't think a man should pass up a chance for happiness just because he made a mistake in his first marriage. So, Abby, if a man finds a woman he really and truly loves and wants to leave his wife for her, do you think it is fair for his wife to fall all over him by using that old line, 'What about the children?'"

LUCILLE

DEAR LUCILLE: There is nothing prideless in a woman trying to hold her marriage together. Now let me ask YOU a question. What ABOUT the children?

"DEAR ABBY: My problem concerns the Christmas card list. I don't mind for economical reasons but each year we send cards to cousins who never even call us when going through our town. The only time we see them is at funerals. They never accept any of our invitations and never extend any to us. We don't get Christmas cards from them until past Christmas, which shows it was in repayment of ours in case they have any left over. I thank you in advance for your opinion."

UNDECIDED

DEAR UNDECIDED: There is obviously no "good will toward men" in the exchange of Christmas cards between you and the relatives you mention. Unless you sincerely enjoy sending Christmas cards to these "in-name-only" cousins, drop them from your list.

"DEAR ABBY: I am 16 years old and I am going steady with a boy who lives 1600 miles away. I don't go out with anybody else because when you are going steady you aren't supposed to. My friends say I am foolish and my mother thinks I am out of my mind. Do you think there is anything wrong with going steady with a boy who lives in a different town?"

GOING STEADY

DEAR GOING: With 1600 miles between you, it's a pretty long wait between "dates." If you are going to BURY yourself, you might as well call a spade a spade. This is not "going steady" — it's "sitting-home steady." A pretty sour idea for Sweet 16!

"DEAR ABBY: Oh, why, oh why, wasn't I lucky enough to read advice like you gave Hjalmer about marrying someone you fell in love with through letters? I had a romantic correspondence with a man for two years. He said he was a good Christian man, did not drink, owed no bills and had a steady job and money in the bank. I quit a good job and traveled 2,000 miles at my own expense to meet him.

"Everyone knew I went to marry him so before I gave myself a chance to know him very well, we were married. On our wedding night he drank himself to sleep. Later on he told me he was married once for six years but never had marital relations with his wife so she divorced him. Two months after we were married he ups and walked out, leaving me $2,000 in bills to pay. It's too late for me, but Hjalmer, take Abby's advice, and don't marry a pen pal until you know her better than I knew him."

New Interests Banish Loneliness

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

I know that there are many lonely folks in the world because I get a lot of letters from them. I often wish that they could all get together.

Many lonely people are shy and that is one of the main reasons for their procrastination about taking the first step toward making friends. They do not make the effort which would put them in a position to meet new people.

Then there are the many married women who find themselves lost and bewildered at middle age when their children leave home and they have new leisure on their hands. Many of these women have not had time during the busy child-rearing years to build even a social life for themselves.

All this makes me think of the many splendid adult education programs which are now in effect. Women in either position must add new interests to their lives if they wish to remain well and youthful in outlook and in body.

I have often suggested joining a local YWCA as a means of finding new interests and new friends. I have just received a brochure from a YWCA which gives a list of its activities. I am sure that the opportunities are similar in most Young Women's Christian Associations.

This particular one offers classes in drawing and painting, bridge, hand crafts, citizenship, driver's education, figure toning, knitting and crocheting, millinery, sewing, parliamentary procedure, swimming, social dancing, modern dancing, charm and modeling, cake decoration, Christmas, do-it-yourself.

It is easy to make friends through a mutual hobby. Also there are co-ed swim sessions open to members of the YWCA and the YMCA. There are also clubs open to business women and wives.

Why not take that first step away from loneliness? Your happiness and your health will reflect your effort.

Tomorrow: "Author Has the Answer To Two Beauty Problems."

Pontiac association's Y-Teens will raise its World Fellowship quota in several ways.

Junior High club girls will compete to fill rolls of adhesive tape with pennies. Senior High Y-Teens are planning a Fun Fair to be held at the YWCA from 4 to 9 p.m. Nov. 22.

What Young People Think

Are Teenagers Really Mixed Up, Illogical?

By EUGENE GILBERT
Gilbert Youth Research Co.

What are you teenagers really like? Sometimes I wonder if you know yourselves.

Most of you speak up readily to my survey takers, but now and then your answers are contradictory. Take our recent nationwide poll on happiness.

Half of a representative group told me they were very happy and another 42 per cent described themselves as fairly happy. Only 3 per cent said they were unhappy.

But this picture of joy contrasts sharply with earlier polls when 55 per cent said you feared the atomic future and 42 per cent said you worried a great deal about grades.

Despite your claims to happiness now, most of you said you expected to be happier some time in the future.

CONFUSED ON RELIGION

Are you happy kids just whistling in the dark? Or does all this mean that your worries aren't as serious as you make them sound in the statistics?

Speaking of contradictory answers, take the matter of religion.

Whatever your outlook now, most of you appear confident you will be heading for Heaven when you die.

But with rather charming lack of logic, three-quarters of one group of those questioned said they believed in life after death and in heaven—but only 16 per cent said they believed in hell!

A sweeping majority (88 per cent) said they believed in God—although only 54 per cent claimed they attended their church every week and 20 per cent did not answer a question on how often they went to church.

ON FOREIGNERS 100

In another poll, almost all teenagers (94 per cent) said they had friends who were not of the same national background while 95 per cent said they do not hesitate to make friends with other nationalities.

Yet despite this cosmopolitan outlook, these same teenagers showed they had very definite preconceived ideas of national characteristics.

While a majority were still clinging to your beloved blue jeans, practically all said you keep the jeans for after-school sportswear around the neighborhood.

JEANS AT HOME

As John Carew of Baltimore explained:

"I like to wear jeans at home, when I'm driving, or just 'messing around' with some tools. I know I'm not supposed to wear them to a wedding."

Only a third of the boys were still wearing jeans to school, then, and only a few of the girls. About one-fifth of the teenagers reported their schools had established clothing standards—mostly barring jeans in the classrooms. Half even agreed that such rules were fair.

"When you dress sloppy, you think sloppy," said Karen Alt of West Los Angeles.

Whatever they wear and however they think, teenagers are big business.

In a recent survey, many of the teeners questioned reported that they have their own telephones. Some families even have a telephone per teenager, plus one for the adults.

The reason is that you teeners figure 45 minutes is par for a telephone conservation—and you have several conversations a day.

Incidentally, Leap Year seems to be arriving on the telephone. A few years ago, a girl just didn't telephone a boy. But in a recent survey, 15 per cent of the teenagers said it was perfectly all right for a girl to call a boy any time, just to chat.

Most teeners (81 per cent) felt it was all right for a girl to call a boy on something special. Only four per cent are still holding the old line of not allowing a girl to call a boy at all.

On the survey, 21 per cent of the girls admitted they actually do telephone boys—but 36 per cent of the boys claimed that girls telephone them. Somebody cheating?

Parents Don't Have to Be Wishy-Washy

By RUTH MILLETT

The problem of steady dating in most families puts the parents on one side of the fence and the teen-age member of the family on the other.

Since modern parents can't bear to be on the opposite side of any fence from their children, even temporarily, the parents usually make some such remark as, "All right, you can go steady. But I still don't approve of it."

BE FIRM

Whether the fence is raised by the question of steady dating, late hours, or the teenage demand to be allowed to do what "all the other kids" get to do, parents today are making a big mistake in not sticking to their side of the fence when they know it is the right one.

There have always been fences between kids and their parents. There were when I was growing up. In fact, I remember quite a few of them.

The difference is that parents of a generation ago weren't so quick to hop over the fence in order to make their children happy.

If they believed they were right they stood their ground on their own side of the fence and said "No, you can't, and there's no use arguing" or "When you're older, but not now."

Another attitude: "If you're going to sulk because you can't have your way, go to your room and keep yourself company. When you feel like being good-natured come back and join the family.

In time the storm passed, and the momentarily frustrated adolescent climbed over the fence to be with his parents. He didn't say "You're right." He probably didn't even think it until years of living taught him respect for the firm convictions that gave substance to his parents' love for him.

But the important point is, he climbed the fence, and adult standards and opinions ruled the family. Now the parents climb the fence and then ask each other, "I don't approve, either—but what can you do about it?"

You can, of course, keep your feet on firm ground and stick to your own side of the fence—the side that experience has taught you is the right one.

The annual fair of Malkim PTA will be held from 6 to 9 p.m. Friday in the school multipurpose room. Mrs. Joseph Walters is chairman of the event.

Mrs. Russel Hunt, chairman of outdoor activities, has arranged a hayride and pony rides.

Among the concessions featured will be a bake sale, candy sale, country store, hats, a game room, a spook house, fish pond and an auction sale.

A teen dance in the form of a "sock hop" will be held. In charge of this event will be Mrs. Howard McConnell, Mrs. Stanley Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Al May.

It's Fluff Enough

Those fluffy fox hats are stunning toppers for daytime dresses and late-day suits and dresses, too. But they are attention-getting in themselves, so the rest of the costume should be kept simple.

When there's a little ground coffee left over, don't mix it with your new supply.

You Take Chance at Party

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: When invited to a friend's house for lunch or dinner, would it be proper to tell the hostess beforehand what foods I can and cannot eat, rather than run the risk of having her prepare something that I will not be able to eat? I would greatly appreciate your answering this question for me."

Answer: If you are lunching alone with a freind you might tell her the certain foods you cannot eat. But if you are going to a lunch party you certainly can't interfere with what she is intending to serve to other people, and surely there will be some part of the lunch you can eat.

"Dear Mrs. Post: My nephew is going to be married soon and I have been asked to be one of the ushers. Although I would be pleased to accept I hesitate to do so without first seeking your advice. I am well past my forties and I think I am too old to fill this position.

"I have always thought that ushers were very young men, or doesn't it matter as far as age is concerned? I certainly don't want to appear foolish or out of place if it is customary for only young men to participate as ushers. Please advise me."

Answer: It is unusual for a bridegroom to choose an uncle but as your nephew is evidently very close to you and has asked you to be one of his ushers, you may certainly accept. There is no reason for you to appear foolish.

Piggy-Bank Price

The fake fur jacket is a sound teen-age investment. It may resemble broadtail or ermine and, in some designs, is cropped just at the waistline. It carries a piggy-bank price tag.

About 63 per cent of the U.S. farm families own a television set.

Mrs. George Crisman of Dwight avenue and Kenneth Kindig of Minton road, who are helping plan the fair admire a colorfully frosted cake which was served when PTA members gathered for a work session at Malkim school. The affair will be held in the school's multipurpose room.

SHE HAS HE[illegible]ANDS FULL...

FULL O[illegible]VALUES!

TODAY'S FOOD SHOPPER gets more value in more food products than ever before. Supplying her increasing needs and satisfying her love of values is one of the biggest jobs in the country. Yet the nation's $47 billion food distribution business does it daily and does it well.

This year an important segment of the industry marks a milestone in its history. The National Association of Food Chains—a group of 240 companies that operate 12,000 food stores and super markets in the U. S., Canada and other countries—celebrates its 25th year as a vital link between producer and consumer.

Your daily newspaper hails the NAFC for its contribution to our high standard of living. Through better methods of warehousing and marketing, the NAFC's members and other food firms offer shoppers the highest values consistent with costs.

Because they must move tons of merchandise rapidly, food retailers invest 80 to 90% of their advertising budgets in the daily newspaper. They know that the newspaper, with its daily coverage of food news and features, and its advertising effectiveness, is a natural and vital link to you, their valued customer.

Police Bribery Case Continues

City Patrolman Testifies Fellow Officer 'Paid' for Tipoff on Raids

Examination of a veteran Pontiac police officer and two other men accused of bribery and conspiracy to obstruct justice continued this morning before Municipal Judge Maurice E. Finnegan.

Vice Squad Patrolman Richard Navarre testified that the accused patrolman, Jess W. Quick, 43, of 502 E. Beverly St. approached him the evening of May 2 behind the front desk of the police station.

Quick asked him to supply advance information on any raids of a gambling game at 822½ Baldwin Ave., Navarre said.

Navarre said Quick told him that he had a "little piece" of business in the gambling. Navarre said that he was not offered any compensation directly, but was told indirectly that he would receive something for his tips.

He said he told Quick to get in touch with his brother, Patrolman Gerald Navarre, who would be in a better position to know of vice squad raids on gambling.

SET UP PLAN

That evening he told his brother of the conversation with Quick, he testified, in order that they might set up a plan to gain more information on the establishment.

Patrolman Gerald Navarre testified that he was approached by Quick the next day, and was told Quick and Charley B. Johnson, 57, of 26 W. Kennett Rd. were running a gambling game at the Baldwin address.

He said he was asked to tip off Quick on any raids. Navarre said a tape recording was made of that talk, held in a police car.

In the morning's testimony, Navarre told of receiving two payments from Quick—one of $15 in the police station on June 2 and the other of $10 in a coffee shop on South Saginaw street.

Both payoffs were turned over to his superior officers, he testified.

THE NEWS WAS SAD — Sen. William F. Knowland is shown as he talked with reporters and party workers in San Francisco Tuesday night moments before he conceded defeat in his race for the governorship to his Democratic opponent Edmund G. Pat Brown. It was Knowland's first defeat in 25 years of political campaigning.

U.S. to Handle Crash Claims

Britain to Pay 75 Pct. of Damages Caused by RAF Jet in Detroit

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States will handle damage claims arising out of the Oct. 24 crash of a British bomber in Detroit.

Britain will reimburse the United States for 75 per cent of claims paid. This country will pay the remaining 25 per cent.

The defense department says that under the "status of forces" agreement by members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization American military authorities will process and settle claims "in the same manner as would be the case if the plane had been a United States military aircraft."

The status of forces agreement among 13 NATO allies contains a provision under which local authorities handle civil suits against a member NATO country.

The Royal Air Force Vulcan bomber crashed and exploded in a residential area of Detroit, destroying several houses and damaging a number of others. Its six man crew was killed.

The defense department said persons who seek damage settlement should procure forms at the 5th precinct police station in Detroit. Claims investigators from the army, the air force and other government agencies are examining damage and destroyed property.

Father Admits Strangling Child

Retired Accountant Held After Leading Officer to Daughter's Body

KANSAS CITY (AP) — A retired accountant has admitted strangling his 2½-year-old daughter in his Johnson County home, officers say.

C. Mason Weeden, 53, was charged with first degree murder in the death of his child, Jane. He was to be arraigned today.

The girl's body was found on a bed in the luxurious Weeden home in suburban Mission Hills yesterday after Weeden's wife ran to a neighbor's house screaming for help.

Sheriff Lynn Thomas of Johnson County, Kan., quoted Mrs. Weeden as saying her husband tried to strangle her but she fought him off and escaped.

Breaking into the house, Police Sgt. Charles Williams said he encountered Weeden inside. He quoted Weeden as saying: "I think I have done something terrible."

Then the man led Williams upstairs to the child's body.

Weeden retired eight years ago and he and his wife moved here from Rhode Island. They have another child, Nancy, 7. She was in school when Jane was killed.

Mrs. Weeden told officers her husband had been mentally ill and had visited a psychiatrist twice.

Quite an Idea

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UPI) — Anna Brown won a dismissal of a gambling charge yesterday when she explained to the judge she and her friends weren't playing for money but just "for a drink or a smell." Winners got a drink from the bottle of whisky, Mrs. Brown explained; losers got only a smell.

U. of M. Student Takes Snooze Under Train

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Stehlen C. Betteridge, a 21-year-old University of Michigan graduate student, felt sleepy when he left an Ann Arbor tavern at about 1:30 a.m. So he decided to take a nap.

"The next thing I knew," he told Police Lt. Walter Krasny, "I was looking up at a freight car's bottom and air brakes were hissing something awful.

Betteridge, it turned out, had chosen to take this snooze between tracks of the New York Central Railroad. The locomotive and several cars of a freight train passed over him—but the only damage was some torn clothes.

Police, summoned by the train crew's report of a body on the tracks, found Betteridge stumbling toward the University campus. They took him home to sleep it off.

Detroit Athletic Club Kept Shut by Strike

DETROIT (AP) — The plushy Detroit Athletic Club, home away from home for Detroit's wealthy, was shut down completely today in the second day of a strike.

The 30 overnight guests who had to go elsewhere for their breakfast yesterday were gone today.

No members appeared at the door in their limousines, surprised to find a picket line around the palatial club in downtown Detroit.

Eton School Boys of 16 Given Their Own Pub

ETON, England (UPI)—Famed Eton Public School has opened its own "pub" where boys over 16 can get a drink of beer between or after classes.

It is believed to be the only licensed bar in any secondary school in the world.

For many years senior boys were allowed to drink at the Christopher Tap Inn which recently closed afger the death of its landlord.

Eton authorities then decided to take over the inn and turn it into a club for teachers and students.

When It Comes to Woe, Man Is 3-Time Loser

SPARTANBURG, S.C. (AP)—J. L. Dunagin's troubles began about three months ago when he suffered severe burns trying to light a barbecue fire.

Returning from a hospital a few days later, he wrecked his car and was hospitalized again for internal injuries.

Hollywood Headlines

Film Tries to Capture 'the Beat Generation'

By BOB THOMAS
AP Motion Picture Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Attention, Beatniks! You'll flip your berets over what's happening to you in the movies.

The first screen saga of the Beat Generation is being filmed today with the logical title of "The Beat Generation." Enterprising Al Zugsmith is making it, and he beat out three other producers for the title.

The first day of shooting brought out a motley crowd of actors. The scene was a typical beat joint in which Louis Armstrong was singing a song titled "The Beat Generation."

Through the smoke-pot haze you could discern a variety of goateed males and mop-haired women. There was Charles Chaplin Jr. wearing a faded blue turtleneck sweater and shredded walking shorts and sandals. There was Vampira, TV's "Ghoul of My Dreams," attired in blue jeans with a white rat named Elmer climbing on her dirty sweatshirt.

"She reads poetry," Zugsmith explained.

Along the walls were huge canvases which looked, according to cast member Jackie Coogan, as if they were "finger-painted by a drunken octopus."

The producer said he had thoroughly researched the Beatniks in their native habitats. He sent writer Lou Meltzer to track them down in the North Beach joints of San Francisco where the B.G. was apparently born. Zugsmith himself prowled the coffee houses of the Sunset Strip and other areas of infiltration.

"Between you and me," he said for publication, "I don't see any difference between this Beat Generation and the kind of people that hung out in Greenwich Village in the 20s and 30s."

How to Spend Money New University Course

RICHMOND, Va. (UPI)—Dr. Thomas C. Sanders, director of the University of Richmond's school of business administration, says it offers 62 courses in how to make money and this year will offer one in how to spend it.

He says most folks don't think they need any instruction in how to spend but that they do.

Marine Oddities Keep Staff Busy

Phone Call May Mean Lost Baby Whale, Sick Seal, Ailing Albatross

MARINELAND, Calif. (UPI) — A combination of science and fiction features telephone calls made to experts in the field of marine life at Marineland of the Pacific—and the trouble is that the huge outdoor tank's scientists don't dare ignore the calls.

Reports of sea serpents are common throughout the world. In southern California the number of such calls is large. That makes the job of Marineland curator Ken Norris uneasy at best; he never knows when he might be passing up a scientific find.

"Once we got the regular kind of sea serpent call," he said. "It came from a guy at Malibu Beach. We drove up in about 90 minutes, expecting to find nothing.

"Instead it was a serpent of sorts. It was an oar fish which is six feet long, slender as an eel with a bright red dorsal fin running the length of its back and fire-colored streamers a foot and a half long on its head.

"I guess that's a serpent in anyone's book. Sometimes they grow to 35 feet in length. It's easy to see why fishermen and others at sea swear they saw a sea serpent with the get-up the oar fish has."

Some of the calls to Marineland have involved alleged lost baby whales, motherless seals, sick surf scoters, numerous serpents and one ailing albatross. The organization's scientists answer most calls which invariably take them to spots on beaches of the adjacent Pacific Ocean. And the scientists often come back with some peculiar bits of marine life.

The albatross, incidentally, got its rigging fouled on some phone wires in nearby Long Beach. It was rescued, treated and now lives in a garden next to Marineland's large tank. The bird has a six-foot wingspan and has been named Clop-Clop because of the noise it makes with its large yellow beak while preening itself.

Marineland personnel say they are most proud of their favorite female, Bubbles, who measures 94-94-94 on a 1,000-pound frame. She's said to be the only trained whale in the world.

Wedding Bells Out, According to Anna Maria

NEW YORK (AP)—Anna Maria Alberghetti, Italian actress and singer, says she is not marrying songwriter Buddy Bregman and that she is not quarreling with her mother about it.

The 22-year-old brown-eyed blonde announced on the West Coast Monday that she was marrying Bregman, 28, divorced from actress Gloria Haley. Miss Alberghetti has never been married.

Her mother Mrs. Vittoria Alberghetti, commenting on the West Coast announcement, had said in Hollywood: "I am not happy. I don't like a divorced man for my daughter."

Here to open a night club act, Miss Alberghetti told newsmen "I never was engaged to Buddy. Yes, I'm very fond of him. Yes, even in love with him."

However, she added: "But I'm not getting married. I took this engagement to be away from Buddy. My mother and I are not quarreling. We are a very close family. We discussed the whole question of religion."

Miss Alberghetti is a Catholic and Bregman a Jew.

Ruled Nation's Rails for Century

Steam Passenger Trains Give Way to Sleek Diesel

WASHINGTON—The great steam engines that puffed and hooted across the country have reached the end of the track.

Though some survivors of the storied breed work on freight trains and on smaller lines, the last steam passenger train on the "high iron" — the main lines — chugged into memory in July.

The steamers were derailed by diesel-electric engines that move the goods more cheaply. But the diesels seem to lack the appeal that inspired generations of poets, song-smiths and small boys yearning for adventure, the National Geographic Society observes.

Diesels rarely call forth such tributes as Thoreau's:

"When I hear the iron horse make the hills echo with his snort like thunder, shaking the earth with his feet, and breathing fire and smoke from his nostrils . . . it seems as if the earth had got a race now worthy to inhabit it."

RULED A CENTURY

The race reigned on the nation's rails more than 100 years. The first experimental steam locomotive in the United States was built by Colonel John Stevens of Hoboken, New Jersey, in 1825. It ran on a circular track on his lawn.

In 1829 two British locomotives were delivered in New York. One of them, the Stourbridge Lion, was put to work in Honesdale, Pennsylvania — the first steamer to operate on a commercial railroad in this country.

The Lion worked well enough, but its wooden track couldn't handle the weight. The road reverted to horses and stationary engines. Experiments and testing continued, bringing such well-remembered scenes as the Baltimore and Ohio's Tom Thumb losing a race to a horse-drawn car.

The first steam locomotive to make a regularly scheduled run in the United States was the Best Friend of Charleston, which pulled 141 passengers on Christmas Day, 1830. Only six miles of track extended from the South Carolina port. By 1833, the road had reached Hamburg, 136 miles away.

COASTS ARE LINKED

Then came a rash of locomotives, bearing names that are still remembered: The DeWitt Clinton, John Bull, Pioneer, Rocket, Samson and Lion. Trackage snaked farther and farther. In 1869, a golden spike driven at Promontory, Utah, linked the Atlantic and Pacific coasts.

Trailing a pillar of smoke by day and a shower of sparks by night, the Iron Horse thundered back and forth across the country, its great wheels and rods pounding in plain sight unlike the hidden drive of the sleek diesel.

The railroads "changed the United States from a small country with a few seaports, and with towns and settlements little farther inland than river navigation permitted, to a great nation covered with cities and spanning a continent," the Smithsonian Institution recalls.

Little noticed at the time, on October 22, 1925, a commercially successful diesel-electric went into operation in the Bronx, New York, yards of the New Jersey Central Railroad. "Old No. 1,000," a switcher, it stayed in service until 1957.

By then there were only 2,404 steam locomotives in service in the United States—and 27,211 diesel-electrics. Although the scattered remnants of the proud species are still at work, they are rapidly being retired. The best place to show a child one of these wonders is in a museum or park, where their hulks are displayed like dinosaur skeletons.

Japan's Exports Gain

TOKYO — Japan's exports continued to rise in 1957 and closed the year with a total value of $2,860,000,000, a $358,000,000 increase over 1956 for a gain of 14 per cent. The increases in 1955 and 1956 had been $380,000,000 (23 per cent) and $490,000,000 (24 per cent). Machinery exports increased by 29 per cent, chemicals by 18 per cent, and sundries by 15 per cent; metals dropped by 5 per cent.

Doom Is Feared for Asia Airlines

Will Be Unable to Match Competition of Ocean Jet Service

SEATTLE (AP)—Jet air travel across the Pacific by the spring of 1960 may bring the end to a number of Asian national airlines which cannot afford the luxurious aircraft — nor meet its competition.

This was the opinion today of a number of Colombo Plan officials from Ceylon and Indonesia who took time off from committee meetings to windowshop at the nearby Boeing Airplane Co.'s vast Renton, Wash., assembly plant for jet transports.

It is here that several hundred million dollars worth of 707 jet transports are on assembly line production schedules.

A Ceylon delegate said: "Already we are discussing the coming of jet planes to Asia. I think it will lead some of our national carriers to abandon international flights.

"The underdeveloped countries cannot afford to buy the jet airliners but we can afford to build first-class airports to accommodate them."

This official whose opinion was shared by others, said that as the big jets become a fixture on the Pacific run, passengers will shun travel on the slower, conventional propeller aircraft of the smaller national airlines.

HE WON — Andres Rivero Aguero, above, government-backed candidate in the Cuban elections, was winner despite rebel opposition to the election of any candidates.

Pocket-Size Meter Tells Yield of Blast

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. — A pocket-size blast meter has been developed by an Albuquerque engineer to take the place of trailers of equipment now used to establish nuclear-weapon yield automatically.

The device, said to cost less than $100 to mass-produce, can be used for military or civil-defense purposes.

At the time of detonation the meter sounds a warning tone, detects and measures the nuclear explosion, and displays the blast yield on its dial in kilotons or megatons. No calculations or knowledge of the distance from the burst are needed to obtain a correct reading.

Danger for Child in Brutal Cruelty of Horror Movies

HOLLYWOD (UPI) — A noted child psychologist says the current rash of horror movies forms "a patchwork of cruelty and brutality designed only to inflict pain on the audience."

Dr. Paul Brodsky, a counselor at the Alfred Adler Counseling Center here, said these films are completely unnecessary and can do untold harm to children.

"The horror film offers nothing but a hodge-podge of frightening situations designed to scare the audience in an unhealthy way," he said.

"A strong, healthy child might survive an occasional horror show without harm, but for children who are over-timid, defiant or too dependent, these films can be dynamite. They can sow the seeds of juvenile delinquency and twisted adults."

1 Ullman Quad Home

DETROIT (AP) — The first of Mrs. Chester Ullman's quadruplet girls, born Oct. 12, has arrived at the family's home. Mrs. Ullman says she plans to bring the others home soon. The quads now weigh more than five pounds each, a hospital requirement for their release.

Hal R. Cooper Writing for Hal Boyle:

Shoeshine Pitch Another English Tradition

LONDON (AP)—Tradition? You even get tradition with your shoeshine in England.

In the days when the sun never set on the British empire, Londoners regarded Piocadilly Circus as the hub of the world. Some of them still do.

It is therefore fitting that the shoeshine pitch on the Shaftesbury Ave. side should be held by Dave Pearce, 75. He is one of two surviving members of the Central Reds Shoe Blacking Society, which goes back 109 years.

Britain was not then the welfare state it is today, and there were a lot of orphans and deserted children about. They were officially described as waifs and strays. They had no fixed abode and they made a living the best they could. A lot of them picked pockets and rolled drunks.

In 1851 a group of public-spirited citizens came to grips with this juvenile delinquency problem.

They persuaded police to set aside 1,000 corners on busy streets as shoeshine pitches for the waifs and strays. In order to qualify for a pitch, the waifs and strays had to enroll in the Central Reds Shoe Blacking Society. They were called Reds because of their jackets.

"I shared the pitch at the Charing Cross railway station with Alfred Harvey for 58 years," Pearce recalls.

"We're the last two members of the society. Waifs and strays began to get scarce about the time of the first world war. So in 1917 the society's functions were taken over by the police.

"The fellow who had the Piccadilly Circus pitch died about six months ago. There wasn't enough business for Alf and me both at Charing Cross, so I applied for the Piccadilly pitch and got it.

"Piccadilly is one of the few pitches where you can make a living blacking shoes. Fact is, the police only have 12 occupied pitches on their rolls these days.

"People who used to black shoes now sell newspapers. That guarantees thm 3 pounds 10 shillings —$9.80—a week. Shoe blacking is chancy because of the weather."

Dave has no fixed price for a shine. People give him anything from 7 cents to 35 cents, depending on how they feel. Occasionally some high flier will pop for a 10-bob note — $1.40. This happens rarely.

The red jackets are provided these days by a shoe polish firm and bear on the collar the words "Cherry Red."

Enough Is Too Much

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—Roger Langford, a school bus driver, said the noisy playfulness of his passengers got to be too much. He stopped his vehicle on the spot and resigned. A relief driver delivered the children to school.

Poultry Exports Soar

NEW YORK—The United States sent a record 50,000,000 pounds of poultry aboard during the 1956-57 shipping season, an increase of 66 per cent over the year before.

Treasury School Teaches How to Trap Dope Pusher

(One of the grimmest battles fought by law enforcement agents is that waged unceasingly against the illegal narcotics trade. This dispatch provides a closeup of a little known government "school for narcotics agents.")

By EDWARD COWAN

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A well-dressed, respectable looking man slips out of the lobby of a famous Washington hotel.

Up one street, down another, he moves along quickly, occasionally looking back over his shoulder, frequently changing direction. He darts in one entrance of a big department store, out another and jumps into a taxi.

Not far behind him are five other equally ordinary looking men.

They, the "hounds," are students at the Treasury's Narcotics Training School for state, local and foreign enforcement officers.

Shadowing the "hare," a Treasury agent, is part of their training.

Surveillance is only one of many subjects covered during the two-week, 80-hour course at the Treasury school. The curriculum also includes such topics as undercover work, narcotics smuggling, identification of drugs, seizures and arrests, interrogation, and organization of the narcotics underworld.

Equipped with this special knowledge, Federal authorities say, local officers will be better able to help the Federal government's 275 narotics agents break world wide dope smuggling rings. The students are expected to pass on what they learn to their fellow officers back home.

Since it was established two years ago, the school has graduated 376 officers from 33 states and 10 foreign countries.

The course is given six or seven times a year with an average of about 25 students in each class. There is no tuition fee. Students, or their governments back home, must pay their own living costs.

According to the school's director, Patrick P. O'Carroll, the course "is open to any police officer who will benefit from the training." Students are usually detectives, O'Carroll said, "because narcotics work is mostly investigating — not the sort of thing uniformed officers are best suited for."

The instructors, O'Carroll explained, are mostly Treasury agents "with long experience in the field of enforcement — men who know right now what's happening on the street."

Veteran narcotics agents will tell you that the toughest part of the business is not catching the corner dope peddler but tracing his drug supply to its source — a chain that may lead from Texas to the Orient.

As O'Carroll put it: "What we want to show the students is that getting one little capsule of heroin is not the end of the case. We want them to learn to track that capsule all the way back to where it originally came from."

To this end, the course includes a unit on the narcotics underworld — the international smuggling rings.

The fact that virtually all narcotics used in this country does come from overseas explains why most of the school's students have been from coastal cities. That's where narcotics control work proves most fruitful.

But some shipments do slip through and so police officers everywhere know, for example, the best way to seize a quantity of narcotics hidden in a home. To learn forcible entry, the students study the school's "fortified room" problem.

They are told, for example, that upon announcing that they are "police officers with a search warrant" it is vital to get inside quickly, before the drugs can be dumped down a drain. But before they break down a door they must be sure that it is not painted glass or that they will not thud their shoulders against hidden nails.

The surveillance problem is highly realistic. The "hounds" get a look at the "hare" through a one-way window, then are told where they are to pick up his trail.

In following him they must notice where he goes, what he does, to whom he talks. Sometime during the hour-and-a-half chase he will pass a supposed package of drugs to someone else. But he may do it very slyly — by leaving it in a phone booth or in a newspaper dropped on a park bench.

When the problem is over, the "hounds" and the "hare" attend a critique with other members of the class. The "hare" tries to pick out the men who followed him. Then the team leader reads a report on what the "hare" did. He points out where it is right and where deficient.

In the two years since it was authorized by Congress in the Narcotics Control Act of 1956 the school has already proved of value, O'Carroll said. "Our graduates have made some excellent cases."

He credited the fastest application of school training to three students from Afghanistan. Heading home, they stopped off in Beirut, Lebanon, where they visited the U.S. Treasury agent there.

He told them he had no case pending but suggested that if they "hit the street" they might turn up something. Within 24 hours one of them made a "contact" which eventually led to the breakup of a smuggling ring.

County Deeds Office Has Busy Month

Records from the Oakland County Register of Deeds office show that 13,739 new papers and six new land plats were recorded in the office during October.

The monthly total of papers, which brought in $22,353 in revenue to the county, compares with the 12,845 papers ($19,360) recorded in that office in October of 1957.

Last month's figures include: 3,543 property deeds ($5,771); 1,818 home mortgages and 4,964 chattel mortgages (total for both $11,522); 762 photos, ($779); eight bills of sale ($8); and 2,646 miscellaneous items ($4,273).

National Board Selects 2 Pontiac Legionnaires

Two Pontiac area Legionnaires have received appointments to National Committees of the American Legion for 1958-59, it has been announced.

Louis Dorman, owner of the Old Mill Tavern, was appointed to the Veterans' Preference Committee and Rolin F. Becker, of 2512 Pontiac Dr., has been named to the National Security Training Committee.

The men were part of 149 appointees throughout Michigan. All the appointments were made in due recognition of the distinguished service of these Legionnaires in their respective communities, the announcement said.

Bay City Juggernaut Meets PCH Friday

Upstate Eleven Has Jerry Gross and Great Speed

Chiefs Head Northward to Play Mighty Wolves in Valley Game

By BILL CORNWELL

An apparently lost cause will confront Pontiac Central's football team Friday night when the Chiefs tackle powerful Bay City Central in a Saginaw Valley Conference duel at Bay City.

No situation could seem more hopeless than the one facing the Chiefs as they come to grips with the high-scoring Wolves who have devoured nearly everything in sight this fall.

Coached by Elmer Engel, a shrewd tactician and astute judge of football talent, the Wolves have breezed to six victories in seven games.

The only blot on their record was a 13-13 tie with Flint Central, currently sharing the Valley lead with Bay City and also unbeaten in six contests. Aside from a narrow 12-7 decision over strong Midland, all Bay City wins have been by runaway margins and achieved with almost ridiculous ease.

Just what kind of a gridiron juggernaut is this Bay City machine that goes against PCH tomorrow evening.

For one thing, the Wolves are fast, perhaps the speediest collection of gridders ever assembld by Engel. They have explosive, breakaway strength in the backfield and fleet-footed linemen to do the blocking.

Engel has coached bigger and heavier teams in the past at Bay City, but he has never coached a swifter one.

And then, of course, there's quarterback Jerry Gross, a prime All-State candidate in his senior year with the Wolfpack.

Gross, undoubtedly one of the best passers in the history of the Saginaw Valley, can thread a needle with his trusty right arm.

In seven outings, Gross has pitched the pigskin 76 times and completed 44 of them for 945 yards and 11 touchdowns. That's a completion average of 58 per cent.

Gross is also an outstanding runner. When he can't pass the ball, he tucks it under his arm and runs with it. Exercising the option and rollout, he has gained 181 yards in 31 carries for nearly six yards a try.

Kokaly is the Wolfpack's leading scorer with a total of 56 points on nine touchdowns and two conversions. He is also one of Gross' favorite aerial targets.

Archer is the team's leading rusher with 579 yards in 65 attempts and he is the 2nd leading point-maker with nine touchdowns and one conversion.

Bob Bishop, a rangy end who hauls in his share of the aerials, is Bay City's 3rd highest scorer with seven touchdowns.

Despite the great aerial bombardment fired by Gross, the Wolves have made most of their yardage on the ground this season. It is probably the finest running team ever fielded by Engel.

From the Press Box

BY BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Five years ago, George A. Cavanaugh, member of the board of directors of the Detroit Lions, took time one Saturday afternoon to watch a couple of teams made up of 9-10-11 year olds play a football game on a field near Birmingham.

They were the little leaguers of the Jack Lowther Football League and they wore all the necessary equipment for protection just like any high school, college or pro team.

"There's no reason why boys should be endangering themselves when they can compete in well organized teams and be fully equipped like these kids," Cavanaugh told this writer.

"I'll get some backing and you help us with the organization," he said, and this writer agreed and the program was on its way.

A dozen men in the Birmingham-Bloomfield area each threw in a 100 dollars, and that started what today is the Birmingham Little Football League. The league grew from two to six and now to 12 teams for 360 boys.

The critics, including several high ranking members of Birmingham Board of Education at one stage, openly renounced competitive football for boys at this age.

In Pontiac when the Pee Wee football leagues were being organized the same thing took place. There was criticism from all sides, and hesitance on the part of parents to allow their sons to compete.

They are learning to compete and play the game against boys in their own age and weight classes. This is another danger which is eliminated—that is, having a 90 pounder bump heads against a 180 pound lad.

What happened to 17-year-old Harry Klimushyn Sunday is exactly what these organized programs try to avoid. Here was a 135-pound boy who was not permitted to play high school football. He turned to the sandlots to fulfill his desire.

Without any protective equipment he went into the sandlot game, threw a tackle against another boy 75 pounds heavier and died as result of an injury.

"He was our 10th grade quarterback three years ago," said Birmingham coach Carl Lemle, "he was on the same team of players who now make up our varsity."

"He did not go out for football the past two years," said Lemle.

Let's not blame football for many such accidents and deaths. As we have mentioned so often let's go to the parents of every boy of football playing age and ask, "Do you forbid your boy to play football with an organized city or school team?"

Many parents will someday finally realize that if a boy wants to play football, he's going to do it slyly on the open fields or openly in a supervised program.

Let's face it, they will never quit making footballs nor will they ever outlaw the game. And there will be boys who will play the game one way or the other.

DEFENDER—One of the best defensive records of the season, in the Suburban Catholic League, against opponents' aerial efforts, is owned by speedy, wiry Chuck Steinhelper, St. Michael halfback. He also is Shamrocks' top point-maker, with 7 TDs and 4 conversions for 46 points. Chuck has compiled around a dozen interceptions, three in last Sunday's win over St. Clement, two of them setting off Shamrock scoring drives. He's averaged several interceptions each game, scored in all but the St. Frederick tilt. Chuck's a senior, is 5-11 tall, weighs 155. He's also a good target for Mike Flynn's or Tom Dabb's tosses.

Parochials End Season Sunday Afternoon

Three-Way SCL Tie in Offing

By H. GUY MOATS

One of the most hectic campaigns in years for the Suburban Catholic League winds up Sunday afternoon, with every loop club engaged in its seventh contest.

There appeared little chance that the unprecedented 3-way title knot would be snipped as a result of these final battles.

Only Pontiac home game for the league will be the St. Frederick-St. Rita set to at Wisiner field, starting at 2:30 o'clock. St. Michael will move into Royal Oak St. Mary's bailiwick for its "curtain" test and the Orchard Lake Eaglets travel to Center Line for their finishing game, against St. Clement.

St. Benedict, one of the three claimants to the title, along with Shamrocks and Rams, entertains the last-place St. James club.

League observers today saw only two possible "spoilers" opportunities. A St. Rita club that has been up and down this year after leading the circuit in 1957, could give the Rams a bad time if the Pontiac club has been hit by any kind of a depression following it's first loop loss, to St. Benedict. However, Ram followers believe such a chance is remote.

One of the most improved SCL teams was favored to hand the Orchard Lake 11 it's 3rd straight reverse, at St. Clement's field. Crusaders held Shamrocks to a 20-7 count last week, Mikemen defeated Eaglets 12-6.

There was some question today regarding Shamrocks' probable starters. Selections will depend, coach Jim Niebauer says, upon how well the four or five injured players from last week have recovered.

Gene Wright's Rams will probably go with about the same lineup that opened against the Ravens, except for the opening minutes at least, when an all-senior eleven will take the field.

Ram seniors include top scorer Jack Lyon, ace halfbacks Tom Derocher and Tom Nesbitt, tackle Chuck Deschaine (fine place kicker), center Bill Cassidy, Phil Landry, Dave Blake, Brown, Gary and Jere Dirker, Frank Palopli, all first stringers.

Clinic for Cage Officials Is Set

Rec Department Holds 3 Basketball Sessions at Pontiac Central

A rules clinic for basketball officials will be conducted by the Pontiac Parks and Recreation department in Room 103 at Pontiac Central High School next Tuesday at 7:00 p.m.

This will be the first of three sessions. Other clinics will be held on successive Wednesdays, Nov. 19 and Nov. 26 in the PCH Boys' gym.

Rule interpretations, changes and officiating procedures will be discussed. Persons desiring to get officiating assignments in the city recreation program are urged to attend these sessions.

Final sessions will be devoted to practical application of officiating procedures.

Duncan, Thornton in Statistical Duel

Official Big Ten football statistics showed today that Thornton is the total offense leader with 147 yards rushing and 420 passing for 567 in all. Duncan has only 26 on the ground but 501 in the air for 527.

In average yards a play, however, Duncan has 6.8 and Thornton 5.5. Duncan has an edge in passing with 35 completions in 62 tosses for a sparkling .565 average. In addition to his 501 aerial yards, he has pitched 4 touchdowns.

Sparrow Plays Against Pistons Friday Night

Heartened by the play of center Phil Jordon, who coach Red Rocha says holds the key to the team's success this season, the Detroit Pistons play a pair of home games this weekend.

Currently perched in second place in the Western Division, the Pistons could push the leading St. Louis Hawks for the top spot with a pair of victories and a couple Hawk losses.

Friday night the Detroit cagers meet the New York Knicks and Sunday afternoon the Boston Celtics visit the Olympia.

The afternoon game Sunday will be the first of six "Basketball for Kids" programs in which each youngster 15 and under will be admitted free to an adjacent seat when accompanied by an adult who purchases a reserve seat.

The Knickerbockers currently lead the Eastern Division of the NBA with a 3-1 record while the Celtics are close behind in second place.

Making his first appearance of the new season locally with the Knicks will be Pontiac's Guy Sparrow, who last year finished a close second to Woodie Saulsbury of the Philadelphia Warriors for "Rookie of the Year" honors in the NBA.

Sparrow has helped the New York position in the race to date. He has a 10.0 average with a total of 30 points.

He has made 12 field goals out of 34 attempts for a .353 percentage but is 4th on the team in rebounds with 22.

After last Sunday's 107-91 win over Philadelphia, thereby snapping a four game losing streak on the road, Rocha said, "We finally put four quarters together, and that made the big difference."

Dick McGuire is leading all regulars in the percentage department with a .490 mark on 25 for 51 from the floor. He also sets the pace in assists with 55.

Black Hawks, Maple Leafs Visit Detroit

Wings Home for 2

Well rested from five days away from the National Hockey League wars, the Detroit Red Wings go into action at Olympia Stadium twice over the coming weekend.

Chicago Black Hawks, tied with Detroit for third place in the standings, is the opponent here Saturday in a nationally televised matinee game. The starting time for the afternoon affair is 2:00 p.m.

The cellar-dwelling Toronto Maple Leafs visit the Red Wings Sunday night in Detroit's final home appearance for over a week.

Coach Sid Abel's crew has split two games each with the weekend opponents. The Chicago-Detroit series has seen each team win once on foreign ice. The Black Hawks took the first meeting at Olympia, Oct. 16, handing the Redshirts' their most decisive loss, 7-2.

The Wings turned the tables just two days later in Chicago, winning 3-1 in another nationally televised matinee game. Alex Delvecchio tallied all Detroit's goals for a hat trick.

Toronto, winner of only three games in the first ten, defeated Detroit 3-0 in Maple Leaf Gardens, Oct. 25. This victory evened the rivalry as the Red Wings had taken an earlier 3-1 triumph on local ice.

Coach Rudy Pilous' Chicago tribe sports the N.H.L.'s leading scorer in right winger Ed Litzenberger. The tall flanker took over the top spot by scoring twice and gaining one assist in Tuesday's 4-2 win over New York.

Two Hawk centermen, Tod Sloan and Bobby Hull, are running close behind Litz in the tight race. Detroit's scoring honors go as usual to Captain Gord Howe on four goals and six assists. Four other Wings follow Howe at one-point intervals.

Norm Ullman has eight points on four and four, Delvecchio shows seven points on five scores and two helpers, Johnny Wilson has three goals and three assists for six points and defenseman Marcel Pronovost has totaled five points on a pair of tallies and three assists.

Sunday's visitor, Toronto, is the league's lowest scoring team with 19 goals in ten games. Ron Stewart and Captain George Armstrong are the top point-getters with six apiece. Goalie Johnny Bower has faced Detroit in both previous contests, getting his only shutout this year in the Leafs 3-0 victory at Toronto.

Consider Jerry Coleman Successor to MacPhail

NEW YORK (UPI) — Jerry Coleman, 35-year-old ex-second baseman, is considered the No. 1 candidate to succeed Lee MacPhail who is leaving his post as director of player personnel for the New York Yankees to become general manager of the Baltimore Orioles.

Coleman has been assistant director of player personnel for the last year. Johnny Johnson, an assistant director of the Yankees' farm system, is another leading candidate.

Michigan State Expecting No Easy Time at Indiana

EAST LANSING (UPI) — The Michigan State football squad, proving last week it had the spirit, this week attempted to sharpen its grid weapons for Saturday's fight with the Hoosiers of Indiana at Bloomington.

The Spartans were seeking their first Big Ten win of the season but the Hoosiers are taking on stature after their 6-0 win over Minnesota last weekend.

Bill Yeoman, the Spartan scout who has viewed the Indiana squad in action, said the team was charged-up and tough and warned against any let-down the MSU squad might suffer after going all out last week against Wisconsin, only to lose 9-7.

The Hoosiers' primary strong men are fulback Vic Jones and tailback Ted Smith. The pair was largely responsible for Indiana's win over Minnesota.

Tackle George Perles won't be seeing action for the Spartans Saturday because of a severe knee injury which has sidelined him for the season. Larry Cundiff has moved into the spot.

At quarterback, MSU coach Duffy Daugherty will put in Mike Panitch, the first-of-the-season number one signal caller who was later moved down to the second unit. However, the effort of Panitch in engineering State's lone touchdown against Wisconsin earned him the starting berth.

At stake, besides improved standing in the Big Ten, will be the old brass spittoon, a trophy put into circulation a few years ago. The trophy is more than 100 years old and came from one of the State's early trading posts.

Sugar Bowl a Sellout

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The final 6,000 tickets to the 1959 Sugar Bowl football game available to the public were sold within four hours after being placed on sale Wednesday.

Claude Simons, president of the New Orleans Mid - Winter Sports Assn., which sponsors the Sugar Bowl, said, to his knowledge, "This is the earliest sellout in Sugar Bowl history."

WEDNESDAY'S FIGHTS

MIAMI BEACH, Fla.—Johnny Busso, 139¼, New York, outpointed Joe Brown, 140½, New Orleans, 10.
LOUISVILLE, Ky.—Henry Hank, 160, Detroit, knocked out Sherman Williams, 162, Louisville, 8.

Rams Sight Another Crowd Mark Sunday

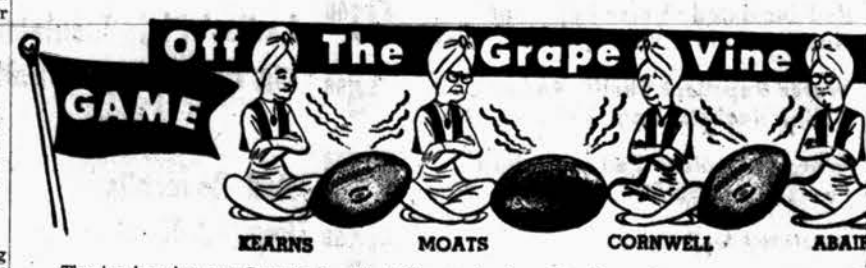
LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Los Angeles Rams, hoping to set another National Football League attendance record when they meet the San Francisco 49ers Sunday, may set up additional bleachers in Memorial Coliseum.

Ram officials talked yesterday with Coliseum Manager Bill Nicholas about installing bleachers in the east end of the big bowl.

If they decide to set up the bleachers, they might come up with a crowd the size of the one that watched Notre Dame and Southern California in 1947. That one—105,236—set an all-time Coliseum record. About 5,000 temporary seats were used.

The existing NFL record was set last year by the 49ers and Rams, who played before 102,368 at the Coliseum. Thousands more were turned away for lack of room.



They're hanging our Swamis in effigy! Or maybe for real! After taking a nosedive on Pontiac Central's loss to Melvindale and Birmingham's tie with Port Huron, last Friday's favorites came through pretty well.

Of course in hopes of trying to catch the leader Swami Cornwell, the others have tried the long shots but to no avail so as the politicians said this week, "we concede." Next week is the end of the grapevine and hopes of catching the leader are remote.

MEMBERS OF NO. 1 TEAM — These are the Wolves who Pontiac Central will have to contain Friday night. They are the members of number one Class A team in the state, Bay City Central. Quarterback Jerry Gross, second team all-stater last year, hands off to Butch Kokaly, the team's top runner with center Jim Kanicki in blocking position.

A New Switch: Students Hang Self in Effigy

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Here's a switch: The student body hanged itself in effigy.

It happened at the University of Houston Wednesday.

Above a door at the campus recreational center was a dummy with a placard that read: "The coach doesn't need it and the team doesn't need it. The Cougar student body should be hanged for the following crimes:

"Failure to back the best team in the country all the way, failure to turn out in force at pep rallies, failure to fill the stadium and yell, for being 'fair-weather' fans in general."

Coach Hal Lahar's football team hasn't been doing so well of late.

Minor Loops Seek Realignment

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — "The entire realignment plan depends upon the Texas League and the American Assn."

Baseball coordinator Bill DeWitt volunteered this opinion today as the two circuits met jointly in an effort to arrive at some agreement which would advance either one or three double A Texas League clubs to the triple A American Assn.

The two leagues agreed Wednesday night to consider two proposals offered by DeWitt. If accepted, they could result in revamping the structure of anywhere from five to seven minor leagues.

Under DeWitt's first proposition, the Texas League would give up Houston, it's largest city, to the American Assn. for a specified sum. In return, the Texas League would acquire the Amarillo, Tex., franchise from the Class A Western League, which is considering dissolving.

Proposition No. 2 would switch Texas cities Dallas and Ft. Worth, along with Houston, to the AA in return for Albuquerque, N. M., and Amarillo along with another Western League franchise as yet not identified.

The reason for the two propositions is this. The American Assn., which has virtually decided to drop debt-ridden Louisville, has offered its Charleston, W. Va., club to the International League. The latter circuit, under DeWitt's realignment program, would then incorporate Jacksonville of the South Atlantic League and expand to 10 teams. The Sally League is willing to let Jacksonville go.

The trouble with this scheme is that the International League does not want Charleston. It would agree to enlarge provided it could obtain Atlanta. The Southern Assn. is opposed to letting go its largest city. Sounds complicated? It is.

All is not hopeless, however. Should Charleston remain in the American Assn., that circuit may consider expanding to 10 teams by adding Dallas and Fort Worth along with Houston, and dropping Louisville. It is understood then that the St. Louis Cardinals, which operate Houston as well as Omaha, Neb., of the AA, would sell the Houston franchise to the highest bidder.

What would the Texas League get out of it? Besides the three new cities, they would be guaranteed eight working agreements with major league clubs. Currently, only three of its clubs have such working agreements. According to a reliable source, the Texas League has been offered $25,000 for each of the three clubs but is holding out for $40,000 per club.

WHOOOA, BALL! — Joe Kirkwood of Hollywood, Calif., uses some body English in telling his ball to stop rolling as he misses a birdie putt on the 18th hole in the first round of the $25,000 Atlanta Open which started yesterday. He had an 80 for the round.

8 Teams Enter Waterford Loop

Eight teams have registered for admission in the 1958-59 Waterford Township men's basketball program, it was announced today by the Recreation Department.

The entries represent a school faculty group, several subdivisions and teams which competed last year. Others interested in taking part must register by Nov. 21. Games will start the 1st week of December.

Current plans call for the organization of two divisions. One will comprise teams made up of advanced players and the other will be for intermediates.

Any players seeking more information can call the Recreation office at OR 3-9152.

Four Japanese Pitchers Can't Stop Cardinals

TOKYO (AP) — The St. Louis Cardinals will battle the Japan All-Stars with golf clubs instead of bats next Tuesday.

Stan Musial is on a 10 - man Cardinals team that will tangle with 18 Japanese baseball players at Yu-No-Hana Golf Course in Hakone, a hot spring resort southwest of Tokyo.

The goodwill match is sponsored by the sports newspaper "Sports Nippon."

Champ Upset in Non-Title Go

By GENE PLOWDEN

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Lightweight champion Joe Brown still holds his title but sixth-ranked Johnny Busso of New York put a blot on Brown's record with a scorching 10-round decision last night.

Busso, 12 to 5 underdog at fight time, won the non-title, nationally televised affair by a comfortable margin with a fine mixture of left jabs and hooks coupled with right crosses that kept Brown backing away.

Busso, who had been promised a chance at the title if he won this fight, was definitely in line for it. Brown has successfully defended his championship against Ralph Dupas and Kenny Lane and no other lightweight in sight could have put up a better fight than the New Yorker.

Brown said he wasn't surprised by Busso's performance and had no kick on the decision. The champion said his weight, a surprising 140½ to Busso's 139¾, wasn't a factor in his defeat.

Federal Judge Says Senators Can Leave

WASHINGTON (AP) — Federal Judge David A. Pine ruled Wednesday the Washington Senators can move to another city if economic necessity demands it.

The judge refused to go along with a plea by H. Gabriel Murphy, 40 per cent stockholder in the baseball team, that the Senators be barred from moving to Minneapolis or anywhere else outside of Washington.

Comiskey Wants Sox Obstacle? ONLY 2 Million

CHICAGO (UPI) — Two million dollars appeared today the major obstacle in Charles Comiskey Jr.'s plans to buy out his sister, Dorothy, and thus gain full control of the Chicago White Sox.

It was believed that Dorothy, Mrs. John D. Rigney, would want up to three million dollars for her half share. The figure was based on alleged offers of six million dollars for other major league franchises, some financially inferior to the White Sox.

Charles, it was understood, currently was offering Dorothy one million dollars. Thus, two million dollars seemed the big difference between the pair.

Negotiations between the two already are under way, it was learned yesterday. Price seemed the chief stumbling block.

Moriarty Is Named Yale's Swim Coach

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP) — Philip E. Moriarty was named Wednesday night to succeed Robert J. H. Kiphuth as head swimming coach at Yale University.

Kiphuth, internationally renowned for his coaching accomplishments, will retire from his current duties June 30, 1959. Moriarty will assume his new position at that time. Kiphuth reaches the mandatory retirement age of 68 later this month.

Moriarty, 44, a native of New Haven, came to Yale in 1932 and ever since has been associated with Yale's phenomenal success in swimming.

No Ties in Michigan-Illinois Series

Rivals Play 43 Games Without One Deadlock

'M' Has Been Winner Just Twice in Last Eight Against Illini

ANN ARBOR (AP) — The year was 1924, a memorable one in Michigan football.

Iowa beat the Wolverines, a feat it couldn't repeat until last Saturday. Bennie Oosterbaan was a Michigan freshman, and at Champaign, Ill., a gridiron legend was born at Michigan's expense.

The legend has to do with a carrot-topped youth with mercury legs. He ran like a ghost for Illinois that day against Michigan, a galloping ghost. His name was Red Grange.

The Illini's Memorial Stadium hardly had been dedicated when Grange made it a site of football lore. Six times in the first 10 minutes he lugged the ball. He scored four touchdowns. Grange bewildered the Wolverines with a 95-yard run. Then he streaked 66 yards for another, 55 yards for a third and 40 yards a fourth.

But the game had 50 minutes left. Grange, leg weary by now, didn't score again until the third quarter. He pitched a pass for Illinois' final touchdown in the last quarter. Grange and Illinois had beaten Michigan 39-14. The statistics at game's end showed Grange had carried 21 times and gained 402 yards. His six passes were worth 64 more.

There'll be no Red Grange on the field Saturday when Illinois and Michigan meet in Michigan Stadium for the 44th time. This traditional game has degenerated into a clash of Big Ten have-nots.

But it's a game that normally produces something to remember. Upsets have been frequent in the series that began in 1898.

There was the game three years ago when sophomore Bobby Mitchell staged a mild imitation of Grange. Michigan again journeyed to Champaign. The Wolverines, coached by Oosterbaan, were unbeaten, ranked first nationally, bound for the Rose Bowl.

Mitchell's running killed off all Wolverine hopes. He averaged 8.6 yards per carry as the Illini romped 25-6.

Only one thing seems sure when Illinois and Michigan clash. There will be a winner and loser. None of the previous 43 games has ended in a tie.

QB BEAT — Larry Makarevich and Frank Lugossy, a pair of quarterbacks at Rutgers, practice calling signals with a metronome knocking off 92 beats per minute. The device is used to train quarterbacks to call signals to accurate cadence.

Harbert Among Them With 68

3 Share Lead in Atlanta

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — An old pro and two comparative newcomers to the tournament circuit held the lead Thursday as the Atlanta Open golf tournament headed into the second round.

Chick Harbert, winless in major tournament play since his 1954 National PGA victory; J. C. Goosie, a personable youngster with a keen putter; and Bill Collins, marking his first year on tour, each posted a 68 over the hilly Cherokee Town and Country Club course Wednesday.

The 7,002-yard layout has a par of 36-36—72 and although opened about a year ago many of the 221 entered in this tournament don't consider it a polished course yet.

The 43-year-old Harbert, of Northville, Mich., had a steady 34-34 which included three birdies and an eagle to balance a bogey on the par 4 10th hole.

Ten other players crowded in under par and there was a 12-way tie at par itself.

Six players were tied at 70. Arnold Palmer of Latrobe, Pa., the current Masters champ, made it in 37-33. Others were Gay Brewer of Paradise, Fla., Walter Burkemo of Franklin, Mich., Fred Hawkins, of El Paso, Tex., Ernie Vossler of Midland, Tex., and Marty Furgol of Lemont, Ill.

Bears Figure Shaw Top Performer

No Colt Tailspin Expected

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago Bears don't expect the undefeated Baltimore Colts to falter in the National Football League's Western Division race even with injury to quarterback Johnny Unitas.

Assistant Bear Coach Luke Johnsos Wednesday said the Colts are a high spirited and high scoring football team. Unitas is reported out indefinitely with cracked ribs.

"I don't believe the Colts will take a tailspin," said Johnsos. "They look too solid. Even with Unitas injured, they still have George Shaw a quarterback. If you'll remember, it was an injury to Shaw that gave Unitas his big break. Shaw is a good quarterback."

The Colts (6-0) and the Bears (4-2) clash here a week from Sunday.

"Injuries, of course, can hurt a club, but they even off around the league," said Johnsos. "We're plenty worried now about Shaw—that is, after we finish playing Green Bay next Sunday."

U.S. Horsemen Strong Threats in '60 Olympics

NEW YORK (AP) — Make no mistake about it, the United States will be a definite contender in the equestrian events in the 1960 Olympics.

Even the most skeptical observers are shaking their heads today at the amazing performance of the American riders in the National Horse Show in Madison Square Garden. So far, Capt. Bill Steinkraus, Hugh Wiley and George Morris have been sensational.

Of the three International jumping events to date, they have won two and the West Germans, who boast both the 1956 Olympic champion, and the current European champion, have captured one.

Galimore's Speed Fascinates Halas

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO — One of the most feared, game-breaking runners in the National Football League is the Chicago Bears' Willie Galimore.

At times he is so spectacular that even Papa Bear George Halas —who has seen them come and go for more than 35 years—is held fascinated by the leggy, 190-pound halfback from the collegiate hinterland of Florida A&M.

Galimore's technique has been studied by Halas—and undoubtedly other NFL coaches—by means of slow-motion films taken of him in action. The Bears have made an analysis of his style and Halas is willing to volunteer this scouting report:

"It is very distinctive. He runs with a long-legged, flat-footed, reaching stride which gives him firm purchase with each step and enables him to twist and turn between strides to make him doubly elusive to potential tacklers."

Halas takes a breath and continues:

"Of course he is very fast—he was a 9.6 track man in the 100-yard dash in college—but he always has speed in reserve. He uses this in sudden bursts to break away from defensive men who think they have him gauged for a tackle shot or trapped near the sidelines."

Halas won't be drawn into any comparison.

"Whether Willie can be rated with the greatest in pro ranks only time will tell," he says. "A player must be judged on a 4 or 5 year basis really to merit a 'great' rating."

As a rookie last year, Galimore scored 42 points. With this season only at the halfway point, he has streaked to 10 touchdowns for 60 points. Seven of them have come on runs from scrimmage and three on pass catches.

Used only as a spot player, he has gained 358 yards in 56 carries for a 6.4 average and has added 148 more on 6 pass receptions.

Says Willie of his style:

"When I see daylight, I turn on the gas. And the blocking and hole-opening of my teammates makes that daylight possible."

The 23-year-old father of two children is a relaxed, smiling player but not very talkative. He is one of the most popular men among his teammates.

One of his greatest joys comes from driving a gleaming white semi-sports car.

Recently, he was asked by assistant coach Paddy Driscoll: "How fast can it go, Willie?"

"Oh, about 140 miles an hour," he replied.

"That's too fast, Willie," kidded Driscoll. "Maybe, 125 would be more like it."

Willie chuckled: "Why, that's just walkin', Mr. Driscoll."

Cincinnati Bows Again

Only 989 Watch Royals

By The Associated Press

The Cincinnati Royals cleaned house to make way for a youth movement. Now they're playing before near-empty houses and making a premature old man of coach Bobby Wanzer.

Last night only 989 persons turned out at the Royals' home court. The take was barely enough to pay the guy who added up the points which, at the game's end, read: New York Knickerbockers 108, Cincinnati 97.

The Boston Celtics edged the Syracuse Nationals 117-115 on Sam Jones' jump shot in the final second in the only other National Basketball Assn. game.

The Royals, with Jack Twyman and Dave Piontek the only holdovers from last season, took an 83-82 lead over New York with eight minutes left. But Richie Guerin broke a deadlock a minute later with a three-point play and the Knicks pulled away for their third victory in four starts.

Cincinnati has now won only one of six games. Twyman led the Royals with 26 points. Rookie Vern Hatton had 14. Ken Sears topped New York with 22 points followed by Carl Braun's 20 and Guerin and Ron Sobie, 16 each.

The Boston-Syracuse game was hard fought, literally and figuratively Playing Coach Paul Seymour of the Nats and Tom Heinsohn of Boston exchanged blows and Heinsohn suffered a cut on the top of his head just prior to the fracas.

Jones' winning basket came eight seconds after Bob Hopkins of Syracuse had tied the score at 115-115 with a three-pointer. Bill Russell had 28 points for Boston while Hopkins led his team with 26.

Lions Next for Top Runner in NFL

Detroit's Task at Cleveland Is to Stop Brown

Big Fullback Leads One of Pro Football's Best Offensive Teams

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Lions will face the National football League's most effective runner when they meet the Browns in Cleveland Sunday afternoon.

Fullback Jim Brown of Cleveland has rolled up 928 yards, and needs only 218 yards to equal the NFL record of 1146 yards established by Steve Van Buren with the 1949 Philadelphia Eagles.

Brown is averaging about 155 yards a game, and the Lions have not been particularly effective in stopping any kind of a good offense this season. Even in their single victory, the Lions yielded 24 points.

Six opponents have outscored the Detroit club 171 to 132, and this week the Lions will meet one of the league's finest offenses.

The Browns will turn Brown, Leroy Bolden and Bobby Mitchell against George Wilson's club.

Though Brown is a devastating power runner, he can go for the long gainers, too. His long gain this season is 62 yards and his per-carry average is 7.1 yards. Mitchell has gained little more than half Brown's yardage in about half as many carries for a 7.3 average.

Brown has 15 touchdowns this year and is within three of the league record for 10 games, and within two of the league record for 11 and 12 games. Van Buren scored 18 touchdowns in 10 games in 1945. Don Hutson of Green Bay scored 17 in 11 games in 1942, while Gene Roberts with the 1949 New York Giants and Elroy (Crazy Legs) Hirsch of the 1951 Los Angeles Rams each scored 17 touchdowns in 12 games.

Michigan College Grid Roundup:

MIAA Has Crucial Contest

By The Associated Press

A match between two ground-eating offenses highlights the weekend football activity in Michigan — and the crucial game between Hope and Albion for the MIAA title looms as a toss-up.

Rob Beklus, Pete Watt and Duane Voskuil lead the Hope Dutchmen into the top small college game of the year — and pitted against these three powerful runners will be Don Vangilder, Jim Hurd and Tom Taylor.

Vangilder and Hurd lead the Albion running game while Taylor, a Little All-America selection last season, is one of the state's finest pass-catchers and a brilliant defensive player from his linebacking position.

Hope has a 7-0 record and Albion has a 5-2 mark, one of the Briton losses being a 20-13 loss to Hillsdale. Albion also bowed to Wooster of Ohio.

This is the final weekend of activity in the MIAA, and capping the season's card will be Hope at Albion, Kalamazoo at Olivet in a battle of victory-less teams and Adrian at Hillsdale.

At the moment, Hope has a 5-0 league mark. Albion and Hillsdale have 4-1 marks. Should Albion beat Hope and Hillsdale win — as expected — over Adrian, the title would be shared three ways among Hope, Hillsdale and Albion.

Hillsdale's only league defeat was a 16-13 loss to Hope, which last won the championship in 1953. Hillsdale has won the title four straight years. Albion last won the crown in 1952.

The last season the honors were shared was in 1951, when Alma and Hope deadlocked for the title.

By comparative scores — and no one believes those any more — Hope rates a slight edge over Albion. Hope defeated Alma 32-12 while Albion beat the Scots 25-14. Both teams dumped Kalamazoo by 27-0 scores.

Hope routed Olivet 61-0 while Albion did it 46-0. Hope beat Hillsdale 16-13, but the Dales turned back Albion 20-13. Albion holds an edge in the games against Adrian, having beaten the Bulldogs 39-0 while Hope did it 41-7.

Central Michigan can get at least a share of another interstate conference title by beating Southern Illinois in a game at Mt. Pleasant. Southern has a 3-1 league mark and beat Washington & Lee 36-7 last weekend.

The other interstate conference game finds Western Illinois at Eastern Michigan. In non-league action, Buffalo is at Wayne State and should win haidily, Western Reserve steps out of the Presidents' Conference to take on Mid-American Conference opponent Western Michigan as Lovell Coleman gets a chance to hike his state scoring lead, Milwaukee is at Ferris, Northern Michigan at Findlay (Ohio) and Ohio Northern at Alma.

The University of Detroit renews its rivalry with Boston College at Boston and the Eagles are given a slight edge, because of the great passing of Boston quarterback Don Allard.

This will be the 13th meeting between these two clubs, Boston holding a 7-5 edge the Eagles have a 4-2 record and beat the Titans 20-16 last season.

Steeler End Sidelined by Torn Knee Cartilage

PITTSBURGH (AP) — End Richie Lucas of the National Football League's Pittsburgh Steelers appeared Wednesday to be lost for the remainder of the season due to a torn knee cartilage.

The former Boston College star sustained the injury in the Steelers' game against the Cleveland Browns Oct. 5. He was hobbling about recently trying to get back into shape when he re-injured the knee.

77 Good Enough

PINEHURST, N.C. (AP) — A four-over-par 77 was good enough to give Mrs. John Pennington of Buffalo, N.Y., the first round lead in the 36-hole inaugural North and South Invitational Senior golf tournament for women Wednesday.

Michigan Ice Team Ready for Season

ANN ARBOR — Michigan's hockey squad opened practice this week in the Wolverine Coliseum in preparation for its season which opens Nov. 27, with an Eastern road trip.

Starting his second season, ex-Wolverine Al Renfrew is working with a nucleus of ten lettermen plus several outstanding sophomores to ready them for the opening jaunt which will include St. Lawrence University, Nov. 27-29; Clarkson College, Nov. 28 and University of Toronto, Dec. 1.

Avondale in Favorite Role Friday

By CHUCK ABAIR

All is in readiness for the big Avondale-Troy Oakland B championship game which will highlight the Oakland County area schedule on the last big Friday of the 1957 prep football season tomorrow.

The 8 p.m. contest will be the only actual title game of the night with most of the other league crowns either settled or delayed until Nov. 14.

Over half of the teams in this sector will be concluding play this week end while most of the others finish on the 14th.

Avondale and Troy tapered off with light drills today prepping for their duel at Auburn Heights. Each team has the chance to better any previous league finish by its school.

"We have won two co-championships but none alone," said Yellowjacket Coach Frank Crowell today. He is already assured of at least another tie for the title regardless of what happens since Troy already has one league setback.

Troy, on the other hand, would be very happy with a share of the crown. The Colts have never even had that much in seven previous years in the Oakland B.

The showdown appears to be a case Avondale's stronger offense against the better defensive forces of Joe Bechard. The Jackets have averaged 20.7 points per game in seven starts with a high of 58 and a low of six. Troy has scored 16 per game with a high of 35 and one pointless effort.

Defensively, Troy has allowed only eight digits a game while posting two shutouts. Avondale has given up at least two touchdowns to each opponent for an average of 16.4

The home team rates the advantage on the basis of its 28-13 verdict over Madison plus a great weight advantage. Madison defeated Troy 6-0. Avondale will have a better than 20-pound-per man edge along the line topped by 200-pound Walt Cooley. Troy center Gary Schultz goes 190. The visitors will have the bigger backfield.

Crowell has been somewhat worried because his contingent has "not looked sharp" in drills. Key back Ken Mather remains a question mark due to a knee injury. Dick Smith, Gary Acker, Larry Douglas and Dennis Shaw are the likely starters. A boy who could have much to say about the final outcome is AHS tackle Bill Jennings, who starred for Troy last fall in the 7-7 tie.

Passer Rick McKinnon, hard-running Dave Stokes and swift Jim DePauw are the backs the Yellowjackets must stop.

The rest of the league teams have ended loop play but will be in action anyway. Lake Orion goes to Romeo, Madison is at home against Oak Park and Fitzgerald visits Warren.

It's all over in the Inter-Lakes but Walled Lake is keyed up for a successful finish at Plymouth. Waterford travels to Wayne, Farmington attempts to become the county's only unbeaten eleven at Clarenceville and Southfield is host to Livonia Bentley.

Non-league action involving Eastern Michigan teams will have Birmingham guest of Royal Oak Kimball, East Detroit at home to play Hamtramck, Ferndale visiting Royal Oak Dondero Saturday, Mt. Clemens at Berkley and Hazel Park host to Garden City.

West Bloomfield will try to hold on to its very slim hope for a Wayne-Oakland title share as John Lucadams tests his ailing shoulder against rugged Holly. Clarkston will invade Bloomfield Hills in the afternoon. Milford closes at home against Brighton. Northville is idle.

Ortonville tries for the upset of the year in the South Central final at Imlay City. Oxford meets Clawson and Millington attempts to stop Frankenmuth's 23-game win string outside the loop.

The final day in the Southern Thumb will have champion Almont at Dryden, Capac at Armada, and New Haven at Memphis. Brown City meets North Branch.

Other action will have Country Day taking on Lutheran West for the list Central Suburban crown, Rochester at L'Anse Creuse Saturday in the Tri-County final, unbeaten Lapeer at Flint St. Michael, Port Huron at Grosse Pointe, Utica at Lakeview, Van Dyke at Roseville, and South Lyon at Pinckney.

Altitude Halts Air Force 11

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP)—Negotiations for Air Force Academy home-and-home football series with Army and Navy have run into a stone wall — a mile high.

Col. George Simler, director of athletics at the new service school said Wednesday the mile-high altitude here is the reason why the Eastern academies have refused to agree to play at Colorado in alternate years.

Air Force will play Army at West Point in 1959 and Navy at Annapolis in 1960.

Simler said, "The strange thing about it is this: We've been negotiating with the biggest football teams in the nation and not one of them even so much as mentioned the altitude except Army and Navy.

* * *

"We have to insist on Army and Navy coming here in order to be fair to our cadets and the people of the Denver area. So we couldn't go any farther in our scheduling with the service academies. We have no other choice."

Simler said dates on the Air Force 1961 and 1962 schedules are being held open in the hopes Army and Navy can be enticed West.

He said home-and-home series have been arranged with Stanford, Missouri, UCLA, Baylor and Miami, and games will be played annually with Colorado and Denver universities.

The Falcons will meet Southern Methodist in the Cotton Bowl in 1961 and 1962 on opening days of the Texas State Fair.

Strikes and Spares

By JOE WILMAN

Whenever I teach a class of student bowlers, I'm amazed at how much more accurate their second ball is than their first. The first ball might miss the pocket by a wide margin and leave four or five pins to pick up; but the second ball is right on the target to convert the pins for a spare.

The wildness on the first ball in a frame comes partly, I think, from trying too hard. The bowler sees all 10 pins which must be knocked down, so he gets tense. He tries to get a lot of stuff on the ball, and he tenses up a bit more.

What's the solution? Try relaxing! If you get your ball into the 1-3 pocket, you have a fine chance for a strike. So, why not concentrate only on that? Pretend that the 1 and 3 pins are the only ones up, and try to knock them down. Don't worry about the other 8 pins.

Relax, and get that first ball into the 1-3 pocket as the drawing shows today. Relaxing and concentrating on just those two pins should prevent the tightening up which hits too many bowlers on their first ball in each frame.

Bouts Tuesday Night

DETROIT (AP) — Two unbeaten fighters, Gene Gresham and Leroy Jeffrey, meet Tuesday night in a 10-round bout at Greystone Ballroom. The bout is billed as a contest for the state lightweight title, relinquished by Kenny Lane of Muskegon. Gresham has 15 straight victories, Jeffrey 17. Jeffrey won 187 of 210 amateur bouts by knockouts and has 9 knockouts in his 11 pro fights.

AIMS AT AVONDALE—Rick McKinnon will handle the Troy passing chores tomorrow night when the Colts invade Avondale hoping to win a share of the Oakland B title. Avondale is only unbeaten league team.

Rickenbacker Looks Ahead 10 Years

Predicts 4-Hour Flights to Europe

(While the world marvels over the inauguration of the jet air age, the men of aviation already are looking forward to fantastically greater speed of travel, and laying plans for commercial flights through space. This is the first of two dispatches in which one of the great men in U.S. aviation tells what lies ahead.)

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN

NEW YORK (UPI)—Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker predicts that 10 years from now we'll be flying to Europe in four hours or less—in supersonic planes.

I asked Rickenbacker about jet flying, in view of the fact that jet-powered commercial planes are now flying from New York to Paris in the almost incredible time of a little over 7 hours. What's coming off?

The 68-year-old chairman of the board of Eastern Air Lines, one of the great figures of aviation, smiled. In effect, he said, we haven't seen anything yet.

"The possibilities of the future of aviation defy the human imagination," Rickenbacker declared.

He said aviation will set the pace for travel the world over in the future and went so far as saying he believed space flights —to the planets—may be available in the next 25 years.

Rickenbacker, interviewed in his office at 10 Rockefeller Plaza, was asked what is the most significant thing about the jet flying age we are now entering. He replied:

"The shrinking of the world for the benefit of mankind. Today all countries are being brought closer together. As time goes on they are going to get better and better acquainted.

"This will have a tremendous influence on political and economic situations of the future. It could solve politics in this troubled world. Don't forget—transportation is the transportation of ideas."

Rickenbacker said that while jet planes are now making Europe in 7 hours, the speed of commercial travel will not be much different in the next five years.

"Maybe in 10 years you can cut the speed down to four hours or less," he explained. "Then you'll have the supersonic airplane that will go anywhere from 1,000 to 2,000 miles an hour."

Asked how soon commercial air lines in the United States will have complete fleets of jet planes operating within our own country, he replied:

"It will take 10 to 15 years—because of inability to finance them. The present air lines are not allowed to accumulate enough profit for reinvestment in such planes. You can't obsolete planes to get new ones unless you have the money to do it. It was this kind of rebuilding and reinvestment that made America."

Rickenbacker said, however, that the United States will have commercial jet transportation in this country next year.

"We will be flying the Lockheed electric prop jet," he said of his own company. "We've got a fleet of 40 coming. We'll have 12 this fall and the balance by September 1959. In the fall of next year we'll get the large straight turbo jet, with a capacity of 150 to 160 passengers."

Some airports in the United States will have to lengthen their runways to accommodate these big jet planes, he said—but not too much.

"Most big cities in America and throughout the world have runways long enough to handle them," he added.

Does jet flying mean cheaper travel in the future?

"No, not the way things are going," replied Rickenbacker. "The rub is inflation. As everybody knows, costs are going up.

"You can't lower fares with costs rising all the time. Every kind of business has to grapple with this problem. Newspapers have had to raise their prices. The subway fare which used to be a nickel is now 15 cents and threatening to go up. Costs keep climbing. That's what inflation is doing."

On the safety angle, Rickenbacker said the new 575-mile-per-hour jets are as safe as the commercial planes now in general use and will be more so as time goes on.

"Aviation is developing new systems of control that are more efficient. Science is taking away the human element from operation."

Rickenbacker was asked if the jets will be as practical on short runs, such as from New York to Pittsburgh, as on long flights from coast to coast.

"Not for a long time," he replied. "The straight jets have got to get up into altitude in order to be economical. Today the distance has to be 700 to 800 miles minimum to be efficient. The longer the run the more economical the flight."

2 Crises Await Action in U.N.

Middle East, Formosa Issues Untouched by 13th General Assembly

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The 13th U.N. General Assembly opened in the midst of two international crises. It has passed the halfway mark without taking action on either one.

The Assembly started off last September amid predictions that it would plunge at once into debate on the tense Middle East and would put out a call for a cease-fire in the Formosa Strait.

Action on the Middle East has been limited so far to a progress report by Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold, who is setting up a small observation-liaison staff in the area to try to keep trouble from erupting, particularly in Jordan.

The Formosa crisis was taken out of the U.N.'s orbit when the Warsaw talks began between U.S. and Red Chinese ambassadors.

So far the Assembly has taken no steps on any political question except disarmament. And there the main spotlight has been on the Big Three talks at Geneva.

The proposal for a U.N. standby force, put before an emergency Assembly session last August by President Eisenhower, has wound up on the shelf. Hammarskjold finally dropped his proposal that the Assembly endorse principles under which he could summon troops from member governments for use in case of trouble.

The bitter Algerian independence issue may also be kept out of the U.N. this year, due to France's offer to negotiate a cease-fire with the Algerian government in exile.

Most delegates are wary, however, of predicting that the calm will last throughout the Assembly session. They note that trouble could break out in several spots.

If the Warsaw talks break down, the United States is expected to bring the Formosa Strait fighting before the Assembly. The Soviet Union has also indicated it might demand an airing of the Far East situation.

Pro-Egyptian riots and arrests of a pro-Nasser extremist in Iraq this week could presage another flareup in the smoldering Middle East.

Grain Futures Moving Slowly

CHICAGO (AP)—The grain futures market moved rather slowly and mostly within a narrow range in early board of trade transactions today.

There were no major influences although some dealers said there appeared to be a moderate volume of scattered commercial buying and hedge lifting.

Market Again Gains Strongly

NEW YORK (AP)— The stock market advanced strongly in heavy early trading today.

Leading issues rose fractions to about 2 points.

Prices were higher at the start in a continuation of yesterday's rise, one of the best of the year. A bullish mood continued in the wake of the Democratic election victory which was regarded as a sign of increased government spending.

Steels, motors, chemicals and rails were in the forefront. The ticker tape fell behind transactions as big blocks were traded.

Gains of about 2 points were made by Du Pont, Eastman Kodak, Allied Chemical and Jones & Laughlin. Up more than a point were American Telephone, Youngstown Sheet, Illinois Central and Lorillard.

Air Reduction was delayed in opening for about a half hour and then rose 2% at 74% on an opening block of 4,000 shares.

Advances by rails were accompanied by news that income of class I carriers in September topped year ago figures for the first time since July 1957.

The market was striding toward another record high after posting one yesterday.

Shocking Study of Evil in Man

Joseph Conrad's Story Follows Pure Youth in Search for Peace

NEW YORK — One of the most shockingly penetrating dramas of morality to be presented on the CBS television network's "Playhouse 90" is the special 90-minute production of Joseph Conrad's story, "Heart of Darkness," tonight, 9:30 to 11.

As adapted for television, this dramatic study of a man struggling for his true soul is a stark, terror-laden attack on the evil in mankind. It is a vivid declaration that peace of mind is found not by ignoring evil, but by fighting it.

"Heart of darkness" will present a multiple-star cast in a collection of television's most unusual characterizations. Roddy McDowall is cast as a young sailor who has lived a life of purity because he was taught by his foster father, played by Boris Karloff, that he must not acknowledge the existence of evil in man.

Tormented by his inability to find peace of mind, the young sailor returns home for advice after six years at sea, only to find that his childhood benefactor has gone to Africa.

He traces him into the wildest and blackest heart of cannibal Africa to discover terrorizing truths not only about his father, but about all mankind. And led to temptation there, he finally faces the reality of evil in himself.

Others in the starring cast include Eartha Kitt as a native queen, Oscar Homolka as a weak doctor, Richard Haydn as an amoral accountant, Cathleen Nesbitt as an old crone, and Inga Swenson as the girl in love with the young sailor.

The entire production of "Heart of Darkness" is being staged with some of television's most startling and uncanny effects to fulfill the demands of Conrad's searing treatise on mankind.

From the dark dampness of the jungle to the uncivilized patterns of the cannibals and their orgiastic rituals, "Heart of Darkness" will present a series of indelible episodes underscoring its theme: That man must recognize evil in order to understand and choose good.

Precious Metals Lie Beneath Sea

Miners of Tomorrow May Dredge Ocean for Vital Ore

BERKELEY, Calif. (UPI) — The miner of tomorrow may head for his diggings by ship and use a vacuum-cleaner contraption to dredge up a bonanza of minerals from the ocean floor.

This is envisioned by two University of California mineral engineers who report that loosely-lying rock containing such vital metals as manganese may be found in some areas of the ocean floor to be worth as much as $1,500,000 per square mile.

Present technology probably could manage such deep-sea mining today, according to Dr. Herbert E. Hawkes and John Mero.

The metals are contained in spherical deposits usually less than six inches in diameter and called nodules. These small brown-black stones began to grow millions of years ago from materials washed into the oceans from the land, such as volcanic glass, pumice and clay.

Scientists at the University of California's Scripps Institution of Oceanography in La Jolla early this year found a rich store of nodules off the coast of the French-owned Tuamotu islands in the South Pacific.

Analysis showed that these deposits contained 25 per cent manganese, 15 per cent iron and lesser amounts of nickel, copper and cobalt. A number of rare earth metals also were found.

One dredge haul brought in nearly 500 pounds of the nodules from a depth of 4,000 feet.

The United States has no important deposits of manganese, necessary for the manufacture of steel. Before 1948 it was imported mainly from Russia but now comes from India, Brazil, Ghana and South Africa.

Hawkes and Mero estimated that one square mile of ocean floor could yield enough nodules to provide 6,000 tons of manganese, worth about $750,000; 4,000 tons of iron, worth $40,000; and 125 tons each of nickel, copper and cobalt worth, respectively, $180,000, $60,000 and $500,000.

EVIL CLASHES WITH PURITY — Roddy McDowall stars as the young sailor seeking peace of mind, who falls on the path of evil in mysterious Africa, and Eartha Kitt co-stars as the native queen who holds the key to adventure in the "Playhouse 90" dramatization of Joseph Conrad's celebrated story, "Heart of Darkness" on TV tonight.

"I'd heard of these things happening. So I said, 'I'll play first.' And I played a piece for the guests the likes of which they'd never heard—sharps and flats for naturals, and naturals for sharps and flats. Then without a drink I left.

Penalty to Write Essay

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — State Police arrested a 14-year-old girl—too young for a driver's license—after a chase at over 100 miles per hour on the new Richmond-Petersburg Expressway. She said she had damaged a fender on her father's car and, fearing punishment, drove off. Juvenile Judge J. H. Montgomery sentenced her to write a 1,000-word essay on the cause of automobile accidents.

'Herr Fixit' Rare on Home Repairs in West Germany

BONN, Germany (UPI)—Known as they are throughout the world for their industry and enterprise, the Germans haven't taken to "do-it-yourself" as have Americans. But there are reasons.

The absence of a "do-it-yourself" spirit in Germany was noted recently by Dr. H. Kolbenschlag, business manager of the German Craftsmen Guild, upon his return from a visit to the United States.

Dr. Kolbenschlag said he believes there are three reasons for the "do-it-yourself" movement in the U.S.:

—Many persons live far from a large city so they have to do their own repair work if it is to be done at all.

—Others live in large, mushrooming cities where there is a shortage of skilled repairmen.

—American products generally aren't made to last, but only just good enough so they will function.

He said only recently have the American people begun to demand, and get, more skilled craftsmen.

He said that in West Germany, as in the U.S., there is a shortage of skilled repairmen, but that is the only similarity.

The fact that there is this shortage in West Germany has caused many Germans to consider "doing it themselves," Dr. Kolbenschlag stated, but most fear they will smash their thumbs and anyway they "don't have a pioneering, adventurous spirit as do the Americans."

Most Germans solve the problem by hiring a technician to do what is called here "black work" — that is, work done by some craftsman on his own, without his employer's knowledge and after legal working hours.

Pony Express Needed 10 Days for Winter Run

ST. JOSEPH, Mo. — The Pony Express postal service was started when riders set out from both ends of the 1,900-mile St. Joseph-to-Sacramento, Cal., route April 3, 1860. The first runs took about 10 days and that became the average time for winter delivery.

In summer the time was cut to about eight days. The fastest Pony Express trip ever made was seven days, 11 hours, carrying President Lincoln's inaugural address to California in March, 1861.

Biologists Trap Grouse Near Drumming Logs

MADISON, Wis. (UPI) — As part of a study of grouse habits, biologists here set up a camouflaged trap with a mirror in it on the drumming logs where the birds came to find their mates in the spring.

When the grouse arrived, he saw his own image. Believing it to be a "rival," the bird would rush at him to drive him off. Instead, he was caught in the trap, banded and released to resume his courtship.

France Fifth in Steel

PARIS — France ranks fifth in the world in steel production. Since 1949 her crude-steel output has increased from 9,000,000 tons a year to 14,600,000 tons in 1957. In the next five years about $240,000,000 will be invested annually in France's iron and steel industries to increase production capacity.
