Michigan's Long Fiscal Crisis Possibly to Be Solved Today

Mercy Hospital Loses County Aid —'Too Crowded'

By PETE LOCHBILER

True to its principles, St. Joseph Mercy Hospital continued today to treat indigent patients — but without any county reimbursement.

Reimbursements — approximately $34 per welfare patient a day—halted Nov. 1 after the State Health department refused to certify the 338-bed institution to the State Department of Social Welfare.

State Health Commissioner Albert E. Heustis said that under rules enforced for the first time this year, St. Joseph is too crowded.

Certification is required by welfare statutes. "Certification or lack of it has nothing to do with the hospital's right to operate," Dr. Heustis emphasized.

Cut down on the bed complement or turn away welfare patients. So far, the hospital has taken neither step.

"We refuse to turn away any patient we can care for," said Sister Mary Xavier. "That would be against all our principles."

The hospital has admitted 15 welfare cases since Nov. 1, she said, with little expectation of any payment to offset costs of treatment — which average nearly $37 a day per patient.

Financial losses are regretable, said Sister Mary Xavier. "We simply have to try to make them up by cutting expenses elsewhere."

The administrator said a cutback in bed compliment — to meet State Health Department specifications — is being considered.

"But we do not want to do this, either," she said. "Our only purpose is to serve the community. We want to take care of as many people as we can.

"We believe there is a shortage of hospital beds here. We do not want to add to that shortage by cutting down on our beds."

But only when the hospital is back in the good graces of the State Health Department will it

Gets Sentence in Fake Robbery

Carry Must Serve Up to 4 Years for Part in Theft From Bank Here

Paul J. Carry, 21, of 114 E. Howard St., today faced up to four years in a federal reformatory for his part in the $2,500 fake robbery of the downtown Community Bank.

★ ★ ★

Carry was given an indeterminate sentence to the Chillicothe, Ohio Correctional Institute from U.S. District Judge Ralph M. Freeman in Detroit yesterday.

Carry admitted taking the money from the bank Oct. 20 with the help of Robert Crandall, 22, a teller at the bank. Crandall, who lives at 34 Murphy St., admitted handing the money to Carry, then telling bank officials there had been a robbery.

Crandall at first told Pontiac Police and FBI agents the money was taken from his cash drawer by an unidentified customer when he left the cage to check an account.

He broke down after hours of questioning and admitted the "customer" was Carry.

Carry was charged with aiding and assisting in the misapplication of bank funds. Crandall has not yet been sentenced. He is charged with mis-appropriation of bank funds.

The fake robbery was staged only a few minutes before the bank was due to close. The only other person on the bank's main floor was a guard.

Czech Envoy Charged With Giving Poison

Army Says He Aided Red Agent in Plot at Radio Free Europe

HEIDELBERG, Germany (AP)—The U.S. Army charged today that the Czechoslovak vice consul at Salzburg, Austria, provided a Communist agent with the poison found in salt shakers at the cafeteria of Radio Free Europe in Munich.

"The Army counterintelligence investigation shows that Jaroslav Nemec, a vice consul at the Czech consulate in Salzburg, Austria, on Nov. 16 gave a Communist agent salt shakers containing atropine for placement in the RFE cafeteria in Munich," an official Army statement said.

"The agent was told that the shakers contained a "mild laxative'," the Army said.

"Clinical analysis, however, proved that they contained atropine in sufficient quantity to cause serious illness, the degree of which would depend upon the age and physical condition of the individual and the amount of 'salt' consumed."

Disclosure of the plot against the private, American - financed station, which broadcasts anti-Communist propaganda, was made Wednesday by its European director, Erik Hazelhoff of Mount Kisco, N.Y.

He said he had notified U. S. and West German authorities after being tipped that the poison had been put in salt shakers at the station's cafeteria Nov. 21.

U. S. Army and West German officials at first denied they knew anything about the plot. But a spokesman later said the Army had been told about it.

Today's Army statement said the plot was discovered by counterintelligence agents during "normal security operations."

Hazelhoff said in his announcement that a "foreign Communist power" was behind the alleged poisoning but refused to identify

What? Snow? Well, Maybe a Little Bit

A few snowflakes may flurry around the Pontiac area tonight with northerly winds at 10-15 miles an hour.

The weatherman tells us temperatures will dip to 26 degrees tonight and rise to 34 Saturday.

For the next five days temperatures will average near the normal high of 26 to 33 and normal low of 10-20 with only minor day to day changes in temperature Sunday through Wednesday.

Little or no precipitation is predicted for the period.

Northerly winds at 20 miles an hour at 10:15 a.m. will continue at 10-20 miles through tomorrow. The lowest temperature in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. was 29 degrees. At 2 p.m. the reading was 38.

MSUO to Seek New Building

Asks Permission for Requesting $2 Million Structure in Future

Michigan State University Oakland officials yesterday asked the MSU Board of Trustees for permission to submit a request to the state budget director at some time in the future for a $2,000,000 engineering and science building.

MSUO also asked for $45,000 for three needs for the next school year. Of this, $15,000 was requested for movable partitions to provide additional faculty offices in the university's academic building, Foundation Hall.

Another $15,000 was asked for installation of an elevator in the classroom building, and the remainder to provide facilities for the recreation area in the Oakland Student Center.

Chancellor D. B. Varner said the request for permission to seek funds for an engineering-science building was a "legal technicality."

Such a request must be made before the university actually can ask for any capital outlay funds, he said.

Varner told the MSU Board of Trustees that the school would not be able to admit additional students without additional buildings.

He pointed out library and faculty office space were already crowded. Next year, he told Board members, some faculty members will occupy partitioned classrooms because of the office space shortage.

Clues Few in Probe of Touhy Murder

CHICAGO (AP)—Slim clues, many theories and an apparent dead end marked the early police investigation for motives in the shotgun slaying of Roger Touhy, prohibition era gang chief.

As police intensified their search today for the killers of the 61-year-old ex-convict Wednesday night, there appeared many motives that might have prompted the assassination. There were not many clues.

Touhy was shot down by two men with 12 gauge shotguns only 23 days after he finished serving more than 25 years in Stateville Prison for kidnaping.

He was assassinated from ambush, in typical gangland fashion, as he and a companion, a retired policeman, mounted the steps of Touhy's home on the West Side.

The ex-policeman, Walter Miller, 62, was seriously wounded but before he collapsed he fired at the fleeing gunmen. He was in critical condition in a hospital.

Some investigators theorized that the remnants of the old Al Capone gang may be responsible for Touhy's murder. They were certain he became a target for crime syndicate vengeance.

Veteran policemen, who recalled the days when the rival Touhy and Capone mobs engaged in open gang war, said the killers waited more than 25 years to prove that the crime syndicate never forgives an enemy.

CAPONE GANG GRUDGE

"Touhy definitely could have been shot in vengeance by surviving members of the Capone gang," said Virgil Peterson, former FBI agent and now head of the Chicago Crime Commission. "They had a grudge against him. Nobody except Touhy ever stood up successfully to Capone."

Progress Okay? No, Says Rocky

New York's Governor Unhappy Over Lag in School Integration

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller says, by implication, that the Eisenhower administration could have done more to speed up desegregation of the public schools.

He expressed this belief in Texas as he neared the end of a political fact-finding tour through seven states today.

"I won't be satisfied until we achieve our goal," he said.

He defined the goal as "ultimate equality for all."

In news conferences in the South, reporters questioned Rockefeller closely about his opinions on the bitter controversy over the schools.

He said he is not satisfied with the pace of desegregation. At the same time he counseled patience and said "understanding" is needed. He said parties of interest should be brought together. "A great deal can be done by a group sitting down informally, not in the glare of public attention."

PROGRESS OK?

"Q. Do you feel that progress made since the Supreme Court decision has been at a satisfactory rate?"

"A. I suppose satisfactory would depend on somebody's definition of the word. It's not satisfactory in terms of our goals of ultimate equality for all."

"Q. Are you satisfied then with the progress?"

"A. No. I won't be satisfied until we get our goal but I understand why in many areas why the pace hasn't been faster and I think understanding is a very important factor in this field."

Senate Bunches Three Proposals, Passes 'Em All

House Sure to OK Using Trust Fund, Add More Taxes Now and Later

LANSING (UPI)—Gov. G. Mennen Williams asked House Democrats today to help Republicans pass the Senate's plan for ending Michigan's fiscal crisis. Williams' appearance before a Democratic caucus spurred hopes that legislative leaders were correct in predicting there would be a settlement today.

LANSING (UPI) — Leaders of both parties predicted Michigan's fiscal crisis would be solved today.

"We'll have something before the end of the day," said House speaker Don R. Pears (R-Buchanan), as the house started caucus session at 11 a.m. on an 87-million-dollar revenue plan passed by the Senate last night.

"We'd better have something by them," said Democratic floor leader Joseph Kowalski (D-Detroit) before Democrats caucused for what was expected to be a plea from Gov. G. Mennen Williams for enough votes to pass the GOP plan.

House Republicans ended their caucus shortly after noon and floor leader Allison Green (R-Kingston) reported his party would deliver "lots of votes" for the plan, which includes immediate use of the veterans trust fund. However, he said substantial Democratic support was needed.

Many lawmakers were late in arriving but a full house was expected for the tax showdown as legislators stampeded to get in one day a fiscal settlement that has evaded them nearly a year.

The House within hours could put Michigan on the road to solvency by accepting the revenue plan passed by the Senate in a one-hour blitz of legislative activity last night.

— 18-12 with no votes to spare.

Thief Is Captured Through Alert Clerk

Alertness on the part of a Hazel Park police clerk was responsible today for the fast apprehension of a 17-year-old boy who had robbed a store less than an hour earlier.

Driving by the Family Party Store at 21836 John R., clerk Edith Hamilton saw a boy running from the store and get into a car. She took down the license number.

Forty-five minutes later, David G. Forbes, an escapee from the Oakland County Juvenile Home, was in the Hazel Park jail, police said.

Police said Forbes, of 26 W. Hayes, Hazel Park, was arrested at the home of his sister, 1026 E. Evelyn Rd., Hazel Park. Police said Hayes had used his sister's car to stage the robbery.

Hayes threatened the owner of the store, Sophia Bankowski, 52, with a blackjack wrapped in a handkerchief and fled with $21 taken from the cash register, police said.

Anti-Eastman 'Art' Rocks Pontiac Police

One cartoon contains obscene language.

The cartoons are unsigned. They were found on the walls of the patrolmen's recreation room this morning and quickly removed. Other copies were quietly being passed around the department. Their origin is unknown.

Appearance of the cartoons brought into the open the animosity existing between two groups in the department.

One camp contains supporters of Eastman; the other consists of officers sympathetic to Herbert W. Straley, whose court appeal for reinstatement as Pontiac police chief has been upheld.

Straley's firing by the Pontiac Civil Service Commission last spring ended—on the surface at least—feuding between the groups.

★ ★ ★

One of the cartoons shows a hairless man and a pair of hands holding a scalp. The name under the face reads "Sgt. Cooley"; the cartoon is entitled "Getting the Ax."

The scalped victim is quoted in the cartoon as saying: "But chief, I'm a full-blooded Cherokee. You shouldn't do that to me."

ONCE PPOA PRESIDENT

The cartoon is obviously a reference to Sgt. Herbert C. Cooley, one-time president of the Pontiac Police Officers Assn. (PPOA) which twice petitioned for Straley's ouster.

President Due in Paris Today

Special Train Carries Him to French Capital for De Gaulle Scrap

EN ROUTE WITH EISENHOWER (AP) — Fit and cheerful after his three - day Mediterranean cruise, President Eisenhower landed in France today for a Western sumit meeting that may need a peacemaker.

An echoing 21-gun salute greeted the U.S. heavy cruiser Des Moines as she brought the President into Toulon harbor.

French sailors snapped to attention as the President stepped down the gangway to French soil.

"France first came to our aid in 1777," Eisenhower said in reply. "The underlying affection and respect of the two nations each for the other has never stopped."

Secretary of State Christian A. Herter is in Toulon to accompany the President to Paris.

Other leaders of the North Atlantic alliance awaiting Eisenhower in Paris looked to him to do something about President Charles de Gaulle's newly reaffirmed stand against putting French military forces under control of the NATO command.

But there was considerable doubt that even the U. S. President's much vaunted powers of persuasion would make much headway with the strong-willed Frenchman.

CLARKSON PRESENTS PLAQUES — James Clarkson (left), chairman of the Pontiac General Hospital Board of Trustees, presents to Willis M. Brewer a plaque recognizing his six years service on the Board. To Brewer's right are three other former board members who received similar gifts at a banquet last night. They are Harold B. Euler, now hospital administrator who served three years on the Board; Edward P. Barrett, 1½ years, and T. W. Bradford, one year. There also were plaques honoring three others who retired from the Board since it was organized in 1952. They are Charles E. Yaeger, 6 years; Joseph Jones, 5 years, and the late William F. Maybury, first chairman of the Board, 3 years.

Courthouse Statue Being Pondered

County courthouse planning supervisors have another problem. They don't know what kind of statue to place at the new building.

The question popped up for the first time yesterday when the Board of Supervisors' Ways and Means Committee met to discuss, among other things, site completion projects which will be necessary for the $3,000,000 building in the Service Center.

Supervisors must have attached some importance to the meeting, as it was unscheduled and, at one time, conducted behind closed doors.

Included among some $363,000 additional projects outlined tentatively by Joseph Drueke, assistant county engineer, was $10,000 for a statue.

And other improvements which will require additional funds will be the re-location of West boulevard, parking lot, sidewalks leading to the courthouse and surface drains.

Robert Y. Moore, chairman of the Board of Auditors, appeared confident more money would be available for the projects. He said with the lowering of the county's welfare caseload, it appeared an anticipated deficit would be one million dollars less next year.

It wasn't too long ago when supervisors wondered whether they'd have the funds to award construction contracts.

Now it's a new problem. What kind of statue should be placed in the plaza at the new courthouse?

The Army statement said as soon as it learned of the plot, it passed on the information to RFE "as a matter of urgent concern" and also informed the West German Ministry of Justice.

Takes Welfare Cases Without County Aid

again be eligible for Social Welfare Department reimbursements.

"We would certify the hospital immediately upon learning that it meets the requirements," said Dr. Heustis.

The rule that St. Joseph is accused of violating requires that there be 80 square feet of hospital space for beds and 24 square feet for bassinets. The latter must also be three feet apart.

This was the first year that the Health Department enforced this rule, Dr. Heustis said.

It was among 200 rules and regulations for the improvement of hospital standards which Michigan hospitals and health agencies jointly adopted in 1951 and which have gradually been enforced since then.

The rule is a safeguard against the spread of infectious diseases among hospital patients, particularly the staphlococcus germ which defies miracle drugs, Dr. Heustis said.

"St. Joseph knew that enforcement of this rule was coming. Apparently, the hospital was in a quandry about what they think is the necessary quantity of care and the provisions we adopted concerning safety."

Heustis expressed sympathy with the hospital's dilemma. "I have great confidence in the management of the hospital and their ability to do the right thing," he said.

About 25 Michigan hospitals — including St. Joseph — were refused certification this summer. The State Department of Social Welfare granted several months grace period, then ordered county welfare departments to cease payments to hospitals that had not adjusted to meet rquirements.

Besides St. Joseph's, payments were also stopped to Ardmore Hospital in Ferndale, which was also judged too crowded.

St. Joseph had made no secret about its crowded conditions. The hospital generally operates at more than 100 per cent capacity, squeezing extra cots into wards and hallways when unforeseen emergency cases increase the patient load above expectations.

Most hospitals would like to operate at about 85 per cent capacity, leaving them some leeway to handle emergencies.

Because of its high case load, St. Joseph has planned an expansion program.

But 18 months ago, the Greater Detroit Area Hospital Council all but halted the hospitals plans by announcing that a survey showed no new beds would be needed in the Pontiac area after the Pontiac General Hospital expansion program was completed.

"We not only need more beds, we need to expand our service departments, too," she said.

"Perhaps our present predicament will lead the hospital council to change its mind."

Frisky Nuby Ready to Wrap . . .

Gift Woes? Give a Lion

★ ★ ★

For the man who already has everything else, for instance.

Hunt's Pet Shop at Miracle Mile Shopping Center has just the beast if you're in the market for a 140-pound kitty.

Nuby is only nine months old, yet he stands three feet tall and measures four feet in length. That's not including his tail.

GAINS 4 POUNDS WEEKLY

Nuby is gaining about four pounds a week on a daily diet of 4½ pounds of horsemeat. He likes it in chunks, raw.

Although it's not a very good selling point, the shop owner, Thomas Hunt, has to point out that Nuby's meal costs 33 cents a pound.

That comes to about $1.50 a day —or roughly $10.50 a week, $550 a year.

Circus-born Nuby's good for about 27 more months as a household pet—a dubious description at best—according to Hunt.

For instance, Nuby's attitude toward children rules out such pleasantries as patting "the nice little kitty" on the head.

★ ★ ★

Not fully comfortable in captivity, Nuby feels a "superiority" to children and small women, said Hunt. The lion is apt to claw or bite them, he admitted.

OCCASIONAL WHACKS

With Hunt, the beast is manageable.

"Of course, I've whacked him now and then, and he respects me now," the pet show owner allowed.

Hunt will have Nuby on display until tomorrow night.

At 7:30 p.m. the lion's owner, Peter Zylstra of Farmington, will put Nuby through a few simple tricks and wrestle with him a while.

Nuby's price? A mere $250.

Or how about a canary as a last-minute gift? They eat birdseed and grow old gracefully.

OKs Area Study of Local Units' Services, Powers

DETROIT (AP)—The Southeastern Michigan Metropolitan Community Research Corp. has authorized studies of community services and powers of local governments.

The studies were approved yesterday by the corporation's board of directors.

The first study of the six-county Detroit Metropolitan area will compare services given by different communities within the area. The second will concern the powers of local government in Michigan.

Kettering Facilities Okayed in Waterford

Tentative plans for the home-making facilities, shops and gymnasium of the new Waterford Kettering High School were approved by the Waterford Township Board of Education last night.

Costing some $2,500,000, the second senior high school in the school district will be constructed on a 55-acre site on Bender street off Hatchery road. It is scheduled for a 1961 opening.

In other business, Assistant Superintendent James Denherder presented a report on the high school football field lighting bond issue. Of the original $35,000 issue, $16,350 is still owing, he said.

The building and site committee reported on possible future school areas in the Huntoon Lake and Beaumont - Pontiac Lake school areas.

Principal of the Stringham School, Donald Smith, has been authorized by the Board to participate in a teacher-recruitment program for the 1960-61 school year. He was granted a leave of absence from his present position in order to serve in the new position. An acting principal for Stringham School will be named at the January Board of Education meeting.

MORE BOOKS, TEACHERS

The Board approved an added expenditure of $12,000 for library books and supplies for the current school year for all schools in the Waterford Township district.

Two new teachers were awarded contracts for the 1959-60 school year. Mrs. Grace Bates of 2445 Jones Rd., Waterford Township, will be the new kindergarten teacher at the Jayno Adams School, and Mrs. Mary Poag of 2503 Ivanhoe St., Waterford Township, will be the new kindergarten teacher at the John Monteith School.

Through the Student Council, a request from the student body of Waterford Township High School to meet with the Board of Education regarding the renaming of the high school was presented.

In the request, the council said it had met to evaluate student opinions and would like to ascertain the reasons for renaming the school, and to "see if the Board could possibly alter its decision."

★ ★ ★

A meeting date will be set following the holiday season, according to Superintendent William Shunck.

Goodfellow Trial Attracts 500

Again, as was the case yesterday when the trial opened, a large crowd estimated at well over 500 pushed its way into the Royal Oak Township Center's gymnasium to watch proceedings.

First to be tried is Police Sgt. James Gatewood. The charge is larceny by conversion, a misdemeanor. Conviction on the charge carries a maximum sentence of 90 days in jail plus $100 fine and two years," probation.

But the community reaction has created the atmosphere of a first degree murder trial. The alleged theft of money which was to be used for underprivileged children at Christmas has aroused the residents of this small but densely populated South Oakland County township.

State Police Sgts. Eugene Dinkel and Robert Neigebauer testified they gave Gatewood a marked five-dollar bill for a paper Monday. It was not in the $110 Gatewood handed in that night.

The prosecution said Gatewood couldn't have given it in change since he would have done so only for a larger bill and there were no larger bills in his collection.

Justice Cash is expected to hand down a verdict today. The trial of all those charged, including five policemen and three firemen, may last a week or more.

King's Arrival Stirs Up Orgy

Drunken Parties, Riots Rouse Fear for Belgian Monarch in Congo

STANLEYVILLE, Belgian Congo (UPI) — The arrival here of King Baudouin of Belgium has touched off such an orgy of happy drunken parties and fights between his loyal subjects and nationalists that officials today feared for the monarch's safety.

Rival groups of Africans staged drunken parties throughout the city because of Baudouin's presence.

Police moved in on the parties, whacking away with batons at drunken natives and confiscating banners with such diverse slogans as "complete independence for the Conga" and "long live the King."

AIRPORT BATTLEFIELD

The landing strip was strewn with the injured as well as drunks sprawled out with banners, spears and broken beer bottles beside them.

Baudouin said in a radio address yesterday that the legitimate aspirations of all Congolese inhabitants, including those who want independence and those who don't, will be considered by his government.

He said the transformation from colonial status to independence would take time and "we need your good faith and your desire to build a solid and durable country."

The Day in Birmingham

Sets Exam for 2 Women Charged With Shoplifting

BIRMINGHAM—Muncipal Judge John C. Emery has set Jan. 8 as the examination date for two Oakland County women charged by Birmingham police with shoplifting more than $1,000 in merchandise from area stores.

June Kulaga, 35, of 3964 Hillcrest Dr., Highland Township, and Louise Larue, 37, of 3840 Maiden Dr., Waterford Township, were arrested together as they left the Village Store, 250 Pierce St., by two Birmingham patrolmen and a store detective.

More than $250 in stolen merchandise was found on them when they were arrested by patrolmen Gordon Baker and Douglas Marble, police said.

The police were called when the store detective, employed by another Birmingham store, became suspicious of the two women and followed them into the Village Store.

She told police it was there that the actual shoplifting was seen.

Police said a good deal of the merchandise found on them included costume jewelry and other items from Himelhoch's and Danby's and merchandise from Northwood Shopping Center in Royal Oak.

A check by Birmingham police of the women's homes turned up more than $1,000 in stolen goods from stores in Oakland County, police said.

"Most of the items still had price tags from the stores where it had been taken," Holmquist said.

The two women at their arraignment before Judge Emery stood mute and asked examination. They were released on $1,000 bond each.

Revenue Service Wants 150 to 170 More on Staff

A recruitment drive has been started by the local district of the International Revenue Service for added strength for its enforcement staff.

Detroit District plans call for adding from 150 to 170 revenue agents, revenue officers and special agents by next August, according to Director R. I. Mixen.

Of these, some 10-12 persons who qualify will be assigned to the Pontiac Branch Office.

The candidates will first be schooled and then given practical training in the audit, collection and intelligence activities.

Information may be obtained locally from Lyle D. Russell, administrative supervisor of the Pontiac Branch, 65 Oakland Ave.

Will State Reach Answer to Financial Crisis Today?

for a long-mothballed House plan to ease the cash crisis with 40 million dollars from the veterans trust fund. (Sen. L. Harvey Lodge (R-Oakland County) voted against the bill.)

State Treasurer Sanford A. Brown said some money could be obtained from the fund next week but said he would rather wait a few weeks for the market to improve.

— 22-7 to raise 13 million dollars a year for two years with a one-mill increase in the corporation franchise tax that, along with the trust fund plan, would be linked to a 34-million dollar package of nuisance taxes passed earlier by the Senate. (Sen. Lodge voted for the bill.)

— 27-2 to send the House a resolution calling for a referendum on a constitutional amendment that would allow the Legislature to boost the 3 per cent sales tax to 4 per cent as a long-range solution.

House Republican leaders predicted passage but said Gov. G. Mennen Williams and Democrats held the key.

Williams, at a news conference shortly before midnight, said he was "not happy" with the Senate plan, which would provide 47 million dollars in new taxes the next 12 months instead of the 110 million he had sought.

However, he said, "Something is better than nothing."

"I will do nothing to block this Republican tax program because the alternative is another year of financial starvation," Williams said.

Williams was angered because "Republican senators are still holding the trust fund cash as a club in their game of politics. They have tied the release of this money to the passage of their nuisance tax program in the House."

Williams said last night he was undecided on whether to ask House Democrats to support the plan.

"It will go through," predicted House GOP floor leader Allison Green (R-Kingston). "I don't think there are that many Democrats stupid enough not to buy it."

Green urged news media to spread word that House members were being urged to return for today's session.

There was only a shred of hope for settlement last night when the Senate convened. The corporation franchise fee had been defeated by a 7-21 vote Wednesday and the trust fund had been shelved in committee since June 3.

Charge Neglect in Independence

Seek Parents of 4 Children

Oakland County juvenile authorities and sheriff's deputies today were looking for an Independence Township couple in connection with a child neglect charge.

They had been alone with a 15-year-old baby sitter "for several days," said deputies. The baby sitter is a sister of the children's mother, Mrs. Shirley Whiteagle, 21.

Their 32-year-old father works at a Detroit freight transport company and "gets home about once a week," deputies said.

'FILTHY' CONDITIONS

The mother's whereabouts are unknown. The four children, Mark, 2, Debbie, 3, Shirley, 1, and a six-month-old baby Marie Rose, were living in conditions described by deputies as "filthy."

All were taken to the Oakland County Children's Home as was the babysitter.

Officers said the baby had "sores on its body and a swollen ear." The infant was found sleeping partially clothed in a large basket.

"There were clothes, dirt, papers and diapers strewn all over the house," deputies said.

The only food in the house, they said, was some dried beans, hot peppers, relish, two ounces of deviled ham, a pint of milk and two tablespoons of hominy grits.

Neighbors had previously given the children some canned food. One noticed the older children playing in the cold early yesterday and invited them in for breakfast.

COULDN'T GET IN

The tots said they were trying to get into their house. The baby sitter was asleep, deputies reported.

Their mother was last seen Monday afternoon, according to deputies.

But the Killing Goes On in Algeria

De Gaulle Once Promised Peace

By FRED SPARKS

PARIS (NEA)—At five minutes before eight every television screen in France went briefly blank. Then focused on a clock with large second hands. Each tick-tock was amplified, like a heart beat, as the minutes slipped away. At exactly eight, a cryptic announcement:

"Sixteenth September 1959. Elysee Palace. General De Gaulle, President of the Republic, addresses the nation . . ."

And there is division between FLN's political leaders, living in Tunisia's Mediterranean - side villas, and guerrilla leaders who sleep in caves. Guerrillas are not convinced the politicos won't sell them down the desert.

Rebel extremists also are clouding cease-fire hopes. Sixty an endless dirge . . . French helicopter shot down, crew beheaded . . . Algerian band, caught in open desert, slaughtered by jets . . . 14 French civilians crippled in Algiers movie when grenade, rolled under seat, exploded . . .

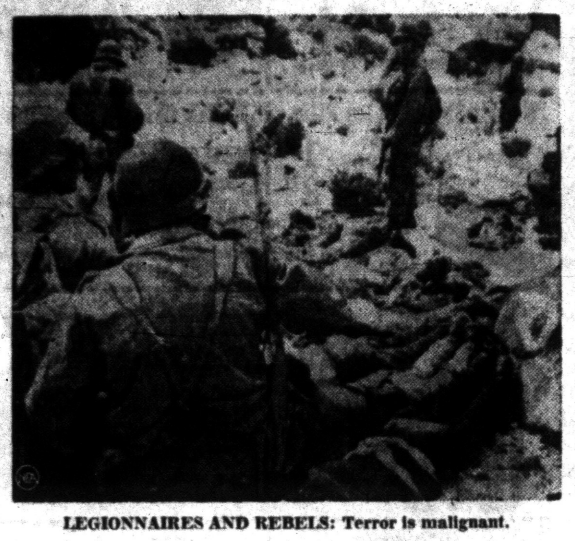

De Gaulle, the man in the middle, knows well the forces delaying cease-fire. He pleads with the colonialists:

"If a page has been turned by the great wind of history it is up to you to write another one."

He offers rebel leaders dignified safe conduct, free air-passage to Paris, and once there excellent hotel accommodations.

God has let him live. The people have lent him their ears. But the guns are still firing. Terror is malignant. There is no peace.

The birth of military aviation is said to have taken place at Fort Sam Houston in San Antonio, Texas, on March 2, 1910, when Benjamin Foulois, then a lieutenant in the Signal Corps and later a brigadier general, tested a Government-purchased Wright biplane.

LEGIONNAIRES AND REBELS: Terror is malignant.

The General, ever conscious of history, spoke:

"In the name of France and the Republic! If God will let me live and the people will lend me their ears. I propose . . ."

He proposed that the Algerian rebels come to see him, De Gaulle, to arrange a cease-fire, to stop the killing. Then, when all was peace, he would ask Algeria to determine its own tomorrow: independence, integration with France, or a state under French protection. He would notarize such a document with his honor.

After two months the rebels said De Gaulle should confer with five Algerian leaders who have been guests of the French since 1956—in jail. While some considered this a slap it's more likely a stall. De Gaulle said he wouldn't meet the quintet. The killing continues.

It is hard to stop regular armies from shooting, as we found in Korea. We negotiated two years before achieving a cease-fire. Old men talked as young men died.

★ ★ ★

It's harder to stop guerrilla war. The cannon of organized armies can be silenced by a commanding general's radio signal. The "armies" bleeding France in Algeria are small primitive bands, seldom more than 50 strong, operating in wild terrain with no true central control.

★ ★ ★

Their connection with the rebellion's political GHQ—the Algerian FLN "shadow government," in Tunis—is frail. Like juvenile delinquent gangs, the guerrilla band's loyalty is first to local warlords.

Even if the FLN desired immediate cease-fire, it would take weeks to contact all bands. Contact is by runner who must slip through the electrified barbed wire fence the French erected along the Tunisian border.

It's doubtful every rebel leader would approve peace. They see strings attached to De Gaulle's offer. And what if the General died or lost control? Wouldn't power return to right-wing colonialists who say: "The only good Arab is a dead Arab!"

Many warlords are convinced Paris can't crush their insurrection. The struggle should grind on until France evacuates all or citizens of a tiny hamlet near Constantine, who signed a petition urging acceptance of De Gaulle's offer, were rooted from their beds one night, marched to a lonesome field and strangled with their own belts.

I heard De Gaulle himself recite figures showing that in the year since he took office casualties have doubled preceding years. French dead, 7,200; rebels, 77,000.

And the daily ticker taps out

Chambers Endorse Tax Cut Measure

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Council of State Chambers of Commerce has endorsed a bill providing for a gradual reduction in federal, income and corporate taxes over a five-year period.

John L. Connolly, chairman of the council's federal finance committee, said the proposal would raise the national income and provide "the high level of employment and price stability required for national prosperity."

The bill would reduce income taxe rates over five years from their present range of 20 per cent to 91 per cent to minimum-maximum level of from 15 per cent to 47 per cent.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Teamsters President James R. Hoffa denies as "absolutely incorrect" a report that the union has approved a new pension plan that would boost his retirement benefits by $13,125 a year.

★ ★ ★

Actually, Hoffa said, the new plan would reduce his retirement payments by up to $200,000 if he left the union before serving 30 years.

★ ★ ★

The court-appointed watchdog monitors of the union, who are trying to oust Hoffa, are investigating the new plan. They have asked the Teamsters for details.

Child Is Born in Iron Lung; Mother in Coma

NEW YORK (UPI) — The hospital was quiet except for the mechanical wheezing of an iron lung and the whispered instructions of doctors to nurses.

Then the near-silence was shattered by a resounding slap and the first earthly cry of a newborn child.

A new life had been born in an iron lung and now doctors are striving to save the life of the young mother.

Mrs. Mary Materasso, 27, was seven months pregnant when she fell in the bathroom of her home last Saturday and struck her head on the bathtub.

She was rushed to Misericordia Hospital where doctors stood by on an around-the-clock basis to deliver the infant if death should claim the mother.

The mother, in a deep coma ever since the accident, yesterday went into labor.

TV Scandals May Have Filled Historic Purpose

Picking up the broken pieces of the TV mess is not an easy order, especially since it is so far-reaching and not exactly clear where the blame lies.

In the aftermath of the shocking and conflicting testimony showing fixes that leave a once trusting public groggy and distressed among the debris of its shattered idols, we find one explanation.

It comes from a former employe of the sponsor of one of the shows investigated. He described the shoddy business of "controlling" the $64,000 Question and the $64,000 Challenge as "an act of desperation" brought about by the skidding popularity of the high priced show.

The fact of the matter is they were not even sure of this, because even the polls and ratings for shows were questioned.

In explaining the "rigging" and why producers resorted to it, this employe said it was a case of "living between the mixed values of show business, all moral values were lost sight of." We can believe this.

The pity of it is that there was no cop on the TV corner; that the networks were too preoccupied with selling time to pay enough attention to what was done with it. That the responsibility of broadcasting as a public trust belongs to the networks seems obvious when these limited and priceless channels are given to them by Federal authority.

There is no question of the responsibility of the newspaper publisher who allows fraudulent advertising to appear in his columns.

★ ★ ★

If this scandal causes the owners of radio and TV broadcasting facilities to assume—voluntarily or otherwise—the full responsibility to the public, this "whole incredible mess," as President EISENHOWER called it, will have fulfilled an historic purpose.

Highhanded Dr. Rhee Causes Worry in U.S.

Next spring's election in South Korea will be watched with more than usual interest and anxiety on the part of the United States. Unfortunately, the prospects for a free and honest one are not bright.

Pres. SYNGMAN RHEE and his Liberal party running mate, LEE KI POONG, will be opposed by Democratic party representatives. Dr. CHOUGH PYONG OK for president and JOHN MYUNG CHANG for vice president.

★ ★ ★

Two years ago Dr. Rhee rammed through the Korean Assembly a so-called security law giving his government wide powers including arrest of political adversaries. It was passed only after the Democratic representatives were forcibly ejected and locked up. Newspaper editors and the Bar Association in Korea opposed the measure on the ground that it would infringe basic civil liberties. It has.

Since then Dr. RHEE has appointed mayors in city governments wherever the opposition party had won control by election. He has closed the largest opposition newspaper for "instigating rebellion against the government" and for being critical of the security law. This consisted of publishing an article by Prof. HERMENS of Notre Dame on the tyranny of the majority.

The national police force has been increased to 30,000 and the government is installing loudspeakers in every village for propaganda purposes. Unwittingly, perhaps, Dr. RHEE is adopting the very Communist technics he claims to abhor.

"It should be made unequivocally clear to all Korean political groups that repeated violations of human rights or assaults upon democratic institutions in Korea will have a sharply adverse effect upon American-Korean relations.

Dr. Rhee should be reminded that to keep his country free has cost 25,600 American lives and 15 billion U. S. dollars and that we are interested only in honest representative government not in parties or personalities.

A RUSSIAN official says all roads lead to communism. He's mistaken. The only roads that lead to communism are those that turn to the left.

The Shout Heard 'Round the World!

David Lawrence Warns:

Danger Lurks in Radio, TV Control

WASHINGTON — Television and the press have been performing an extraordinary service in bringing so quickly to the American people the pictures of President Eisenhower's trip abroad.

LAWRENCE

No other generation of Americans has been able to get so promptly a visual presentation of events of such international importance.

This is due largely, of course to invention—the electronic tape that records voices and pictures, the cable lines that now transmit photographs almost instantaneously and the airplane that brings films back to America in a few hours.

But there is something else involved—the alertness of private enterprise.

The competition in the press and among broadcasting companies—television as well as radio—inspired the news managers who did the planning weeks ahead of time.

Yet today there is talk of government control of the mediums of expression.

OWNS AIR WAVES

There are champions of government ownership of a radio network and advocates of government dictation on how programs on public affairs, educational subjects and everything else, including the most highly controversial questions, shall be handled by TV and radio.

The concept is advanced that the government owns the air waves and hence should control what goes out over them.

It's the same old argument that, because the government owns the waters and its dams, it must own electric-power plants, or that, because the government can commandeer the natural resources of the nation, it should go into the oil business or the coal business just as the Communist governments do.

But does the government of the United States own all the air, or is this something reserved to the people?

Originally, when radio came into being, it was discovered that there would be a collision of broadcasts on the air waves unless the available channels were allotted.

The government's role was that of a traffic cop. It set out to regulate the transmission of broadcasts through the issuance of licenses and the allocation of channels.

TAKES 'LIBERAL' DOCTRINE

But nobody thought at the time that this covered the prerogatives of ownership.

Unfortunately, the Supreme Court of the United States swallowed the so-called "liberal" doctrine—which in reality, if followed to its logical conclusion, often becomes totalitarian—and began issuing rulings that indicated wider and wider governmental powers over radio stations.

Instead of construing the language of the federal law as meaning control over mechanical conflicts in the air, the executive agencies concerned were told to regulate radio licenses on a broader basis.

The clause in the law covering "public interest, convenience and necessity" was interpreted to mean that the federal government has the power to go into program quality, qualifications of owners and sundry other questions that are never raised when government contracts are let in other fields.

The Country Parson

"When we make fun of dreamers, we've forgotten that nobody ever did a big thing without having thought a big thought."

Dr. William Brady Says:

Calcium Is Good Food; Can't Take 'Too Much'

"About three years ago that old devil rheumatism took over, in my right shoulder. I decided to put to the test your suggestion — six calcium capsules daily as a supplement to my diet, and today the pain has gone and I can swing that arm in any natural direction without a semblance of ache. . . (Signed) ——)"

DR. BRADY

You took calcium for three years? A lot of readers quit supplementing their diet with calcium after two or three weeks of it because some character warns them of the disastrous effects of "too much" calcium.

And some doctors are not above endorsing this misconception when they can do so without committing themselves. To the best of my knowledge not one of the experts, science authorities, research workers or eminent specialists who has cautioned the public about too much calcium has indicated how much would be too much.

Nor has any of them even mentioned how much calcium every man, woman or child must receive daily to keep well and prevent development of nutritional deficiency — malnutrition.

Even though the correspondent supplemented his diet with calcium capsules for just three months, it would be exceptional. That is, unless the ache, pain, rheumatim or whatever discomfort prompted him to "try" calcium capsules was unmistakably relieved within a week or so.

No matter how often I say that calcium, in capsules or any other form, is NOT medicine but food which is "more often deficient in the ordinary mixed diet of Americans than any other element," the poor souls who are in the greatest need of it fail to get their requirement of calcium because they regard it as "medicine" and "dangerous," at that.

Nutrition authorities generally agree that a normal adult needs not less than a dram (approximately 15 grains) and a strong growing boy or an athletic youth not less than 1½ grams (20 or 22 grains) of calcium daily.

If, because of faulty diet or other reason the daily intake falls below this level for a considerable period manifestations of nutritional deficiency disease are inevitable.

Unfortunately these manifestations (signs or symptoms) are multifarious and usually not recognized as nutritional deficiency and hence not properly treated. Anyway the correction of malnutrition takes time, time, and most victims prefer dope which kills ache or pain fast, fast.

Whether calcium deficiency is a factor of this painful, disabling condition I am not entirely convinced but I am impressed by the numerous reports of followers who have experienced such benefit as the correspondent describes.

In the booklet The Calcium Shortage (35 cents and stamped, self-addressed envelope) I mention many of the everyday ailments which are the manifestations of calcium deficiency, although doctors often muff the diagnosis, and tell you how to supplement your everyday diet and-or follow a high calcium diet, not for a week or two but through the years.

Signed letters not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

'Give Our Public Servants Christmas Day at Home'

With all the controversy over clerks and shopkeepers working Dec. 26, we should first get around to abolishing all sort of labor for gain on December 25. Shut down the service and non-emergency, such as operating departments of the telephone company, service department of gas and power companies, police department, fire department and all other work involving poor people that have to keep this city of ours running 365 days a year. Before getting a two-day vacation for clerks and shopkeepers, let's get Christmas at home for our public servants.

Readers Comment on Reinstatement

It's very gratifying to see the former police chief exonerated by the Circuit Court. It's unfortunate this blight should befall our city when it could have been neatly and quietly cleared up prior to any glaring publicity.

We can be proud of our Bill Willman and his statistical ability, but as he himself stated, he's the middle-of-the-roader when it comes to personnel problems, when he publicly reversed decisions made by his subordinate supervisor, and recognized a group as a bargaining agent, he took all authority and discipline away.

Had he, at the time, issued an ultimatum to Mr. Straley that this situation would have to be cleared up in a given amount of time, and he would back him to the hilt, I'm sure this wouldn't have happened. If these events still persisted, after such an ultimatum, the firing of Mr. Straley would have been uneventful and far less costly.

C. R. Elliott
951 Berwick Blvd.

Don't you think this fellow Eastman has caused enough embarrassment to our city? He tells his officers to write more tickets. That order is sure to make it hard on someone as it did on some of the people who were arrested in the big numbers raid, then turned loose for lack of evidence. We working people just don't have the money to take our cases to higher courts to prove he's wrong, as Mr. Straley did.

There should be a State law requiring all electric signs to be back away from the greens and reds of traffic signals. 'Woman as Veep Is Surefire Win'

If one of those two dumb political parties had enough common sense to nominate a woman for vice president, they would win the election easy. All the women in the country would flock to that ticket and enough of the party's regular men members to give that side a very easy victory. But, no, the thick-headed men have not got that far yet. In another 25 years they will and both sides miss a great chance in 1960 by not doing it right now.

Yes, a Woman

Reader Objects to Editorial View

In your editorial Saturday you revealed your normal thinking politically, and you smeared Mr. Truman and the rest of the Democrats. These same people that are coming out to meet our great Globe Trotter and Golf Artist, President Eisenhower, are the same that were fed by Mr. Truman and the rest of the Democrats.

★ ★ ★

And as for his Give-Em-Hell expression, he could apply that to some of the Michigan editorials and Pontiac would be a good place to start. If the working man did not have Mr. Reuther to represent him, he would be as ill-fed, ill-housed and ill clothed as those coolies are in China. The only war the working man wants and the only war he can win is war against poverty, ignorance, hunger and disease.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Christmas Isn't Just Mardi Gras

How would you reply to Kathy? These are crucial moments in the lives of youngsters, so learn how to handle such questions properly. And don't think Christmas is just a December Mardi Gras or secular circus. It realy means Christ-Mass, so keep Christ in Christmas and see that your greeting cards do likewise.

By GEORGE W. CRANE

★ ★ ★

"Billy says there isn't any Santa Claus," she solemnly announced early last December and her eyes were beginning to show tears.

CRANE

"But I told him there REALLY AND TRULY IS a Santa Claus, for Mommie told me so.

"There is a Santa Claus, isn't there?"

FACTS ABOUT SANTA

Yes, there certainly is a Santa Claus!

Some religious parents are beginning to feel that maybe it is unwise to let children sit on the lap of Santa Claus in the usual department store.

★ ★ ★

"Dr. Crane, doesn't that cheapen the idea of Christmas?" they ask me.

"And isn't it deceitful to let a child believe in such a weird tale as a Santa Claus with reindeer, who lives at the North Pole?"

Well, it is true that Christmas is being overly commercialized.

In fact, much of the religious sentiment has been squeezed out entirely, as witness your own greeting cards.

Christmas is rooted in the most famous religious event on this earth. The very word means "Christ-Mass."

Yet many modern Christmas cards, though often beautiful, fail to show the Bethlehem scene, or the Three Wise Men, or the Star or any symbol even remotely depicting the religious origin.

Instead, they depict a poinsettia or a pretty rural snow scene or we often reproduce the photographs of our children, but ignore Christ or our Christmas cards.

★ ★ ★

So don't unduly criticize the merchants if you yourself select Christmas cards that omit all reference to Christ and his Nativity.

REPLY TO KATHY

In my reply to Kathy, moreover, I told her that the very first Santa Claus was God.

★ ★ ★

And the first gift to mankind was Jesus.

The story about Santa at the North Pole is just a colorful narrative to represent the universality of God's love for all children, regardless of color and creed.

Then I informed her that she, too, could be an assistant Santa, for everybody who unselfishly tries to do something nice for others, is a "proxy" Santa Claus.

Jesus taught us about the Holy Trinity, which includes God, and Christ and the Holy Ghost.

The Holy Ghost is the effective functional spirit of God in universal action, so every child or adult who offers gifts to others, is really in tune with Almight God and an assistant Santa.

SANTA VS. GIMME

Tactfully urge your youngsters to widen their horizons so they don't overload the department store Santas with "gimme" requests.

A "gimme" attitude violates the true essence of Christmas. So train your tots to ask Santa to bring gifts to OTHER YOUNGSTERS, too.

At the age of 5 or 6, you cannot expect a child to be wholly self-less, but strive to get him to adopt a 50-50 outlook, where he divides his own requests with an equal amount for others.

Christmas is NOT a December Mardi Gras or tinsel-and-holly circus, so analyze your greeting cards accordingly.

Restore Christ to Christmas. Keep it a Christ-Mass.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan enclosing a long 4c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

FCC OKs Radio Units for Kalamazoo, Sturgis

WASHINGTON (UP)—The Federal Communications Commission tentatively approved yesterday the application of Kalamazoo Broadcasting Co. for a new standard station to operate on 1420 kilocycles, one kilowatt power, daytime, at Kalamazoo, Mich.

At the same time, it denied the application of WKIZ of Kalamazoo to change facilities from 1470 kilocycles, 500 watts power, to 1440 kilocycles, five kilowatts power.

The commission acted favorably on an application for assignment of license at Sturgis, Mich., to the Water Wonderland Broadcasting Co., Inc., (WWBC, Bay City). The consideration was $115,000.

Politics Doesn't Pay, Spanish Jails Reveal

MADRID, Spain (UPI) — More than twice as many Spaniards are in prison for political crimes than for robbery, according to reports in the Spanish press.

First Daylight in Two Weeks!

99 Conclude Test of Neighborhood Nuclear Fallout Shelter

PARKS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (UPI)—Ninety-nine hungry, grimy men walked blinking into the sunlight Thursday.

The steel door to a neighborhood-type nuclear fallout shelter swung open at 2 p.m. and the 99 volunteers ended a two-week underground existence at this base 35 miles east of San Francisco.

During their life as moles they didn't see daylight. They used electric lights, lived on concentrated diets and suffered cramped quarters.

TESTS ISOLATION ABILITY

Shelter commander Walmer E. Strope of the Naval Radiological Defense Laboratory said the experiment was undertaken to test the ability of humans to remain isolated from the outside world during the simulated fallout danger period after a nuclear blast.

It also was to test the shelter itself for strength, capacity and adaptability to the problem of housing 100 persons in event of atomic attack.

Strope termed the test "an unqualified success."

★ ★ ★

"If necessary, we could continue living here for a much more extended period without undue hardship," he said.

But most of the volunteers disagreed. They wanted their first baths in two weeks.

Two Navy doctors who alternated in the shelter said the men lost an average of three to six pounds during the test.

SPARCE DIETS

This, Strope said, was attributed to sparce survival diets.

One man was forced to leave the shelter last week for medical reasons.

Strope emphasized that the man easily could have been treated with shelter facilities, but it was decided not to expose the other men to the disease because all were volunteers.

Safety studies show that in 70 per cent of all fatal traffic accidents, one or both of the drivers had violated one or more safety laws.

Waterford Township High School
STUDENT COUNCIL
December 10, 1959

PONTIAC PRESS
Pontiac, Michigan

Dear Sir:

In the December 8 edition of the PONTIAC PRESS a letter appeared expressing resentment about the renaming of Waterford High School. The letter was signed by the "Junior Class, W.T.H.S."

We do not doubt that this is an expression of the feelings of a great many juniors; however, the letter itself is not an official one written by the junior class board.

The problem of renaming the high school is being handled by the Student Council, which is working in conjunction with the three class boards and with the student body at large through its home room representatives to the council. The Student Council recognizes that the Board of Education has full authority to rename the school. Members of the board have been elected by the people and are exercising their legal rights in making decisions on school problems. We know the board has the best interests of both students and parents in mind when these decisions are made. We can imagine it must be difficult at times to satisfy the wishes of everyone. It is impossible for us to believe the board would deliberately do anything to hurt any group which depends on its wisdom and good judgment.

In the past the Board of Education has been most cooperative in meeting and discussing problems with recognized student groups. The stadium lights project is a good example. It would take too much space here to list the many other suggestions and recommendations which the Student Council has made and had approved by the board. Unofficially, we have received word that the board is pleased by the genuine concern of students regarding the name of the school and is willing to meet with the council to clarify the decision made.

As we see it, the problem is based largely on sentiment: we do not want to lose our identity as Waterford students—a name of which we are justly proud. Whatever comes of the meeting of the two groups remains to be seen: however, we will be satisfied that the result will be a product of the democratic processes.

Sincerely,

FRED COOK
President

The above letter represents the feelings of the council so accurately that all of the officers and fifty-two members of the Student Council plus the Presidents of the Senior, Junior and Sophomore Classes have endorsed this letter with their signatures.

President Plans to Visit Brazil

Will Stop Off in 4 or 5 Other Latin Countries; No Schedule Set Yet

WASHINGTON (UPI) — High administration sources said Thursday that President Eisenhower is definitely planning to visit Brazil and four or five other Latin American countries next spring.

No definite dates have been set for the journey, it was learned, but April is considered a likely time if it does not conflict with the proposed Big Four summit meeting.

There had been persistent reports that the President was considering extending his good will travels to the areas south of the border before leaving office.

The President's brother, Dr. Milton S. Eisenhower, is known to have urged the Chief Executive to make the South American trip. Dr. Eisenhower has visited the area as a personal representative of the President and has been his adviser on South American matters.

No announcement of the Latin American trip is expected until after Eisenhower returns Dec. 22 from his current trip.

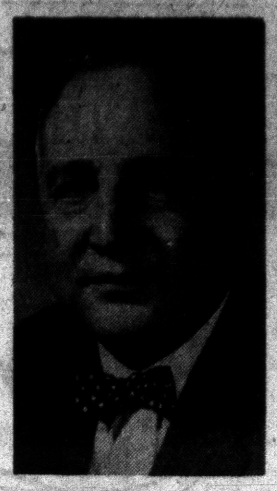

It was reported no definite decision has been made on whether the President will attend dedication ceremonies April 21 for Brazil's new capitol, now under construction at Brasilia.

Secretary of State Christian A. Herter said at his news conference last week that a South American trip was very much under consideration by Eisenhower.

Clothing Workers to Ask for 25-Cent Increase

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (UPI) — The Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America Union said yesterday it will ask for a 25-cent-an-hour package increase from the men's clothing industry when new contract negotiations begin next February.

The announcement was made during the second day of the union's three-day executive board meeting. The present contract expires next June 1.

Sen. Kennedy Says No '60 Decision Yet

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. John F. Kennedy's office says he has not yet made decision on whether to seek the Democratic presidential nomination in 1960.

★ ★ ★

The Massachusetts senator's office issued the statement Thursday after United Press International carried a report about a letter dated Dec. 28 saying Kennedy would announce his candidacy on Jan. 2.

★ ★ ★

Kennedy's office explained that several letters had been drafted "covering all possible eventualities concerning the senator's decisions." The letters all are unsigned, the statement said, and some are dated Dec. 28 and some have different dates. Kennedy is out of the country and won't return until after Jan. 1.

His office said the draft letters were prepared by his staff "because of the problem involved in sending a letter to a number of his supporters."

Auto Output to Reach Record

This Week Will Be 2-Year High as Plants Back to Normal

DETROIT (AP) — Auto production in the United States, booming back to normal a full week faster than expected, will set a two-year record this week, Automotive News reported today.

The trade paper said domestic factories will assemble 150,600 cars in the six days ending Saturday. Last week's total was only 86,566.

This is the first time since the week ended Nov. 5, 1957, that the industry has topped the 150,000 mark.

Chevrolet Division of General Motors reports an all-time production record this week of 47,000 cars including 8,700 Corvairs. Chevrolet's previous high was 45,866 regular cars in the same week last year.

Over-all production a year ago this week was 135,961 cars.

Automotive News said truck output this week also shows a sizeable increase, from 12,200 to 19,707. A year ago this week 23,395 trucks were built.

This week's high production came as all lines of all auto companies returned to action for the first time since steel production resumed.

In Canada 7,405 cars and trucks will be built this week compared with 5,036 last week and 9,037 a year ago.

But He Pleaded Mightily for the Miners

'John L.' Had Ups and Downs

By United Press International

John L. Lewis retiring chief of the United Mine Workers Union, once told the mine workers that he would plead their case "not in the quavering tones of a feeble mendicant asking for alms, but in the thundering voice of the captain of a mighty host, demanding the rights to which free men are entitled."

★ ★ ★

That voice thundered repeatedly through the 40 years Lewis has headed the union, denouncing all he considered enemies of his cause—including presidents.

During years of labor-management crises, the scowling face with the bushy brows was a familiar one to every newspaper reader.

His career as UMW president was launched in an era of bloodshed and conflict. His clash with government authority during that first year—1919—set a pattern that was to prevail until the late 1940s, when peace came to the coal fields.

Lewis went into the mines at the age of 12, and grew up in the Illinois and Iowa fields. Here he developed the burning devotion to miners' welfare that forged his career.

★ ★ ★

He was born Feb. 12, 1880, at Lucas, Iowa, the son of Welsh immigrants. He quit school in the seventh grade to take a job as a mule driver in a mine.

★ ★ ★

Be began attracting the union's notice at Palmyra, Ill. AFL President Samuel Gompers spotted the potential of this young man, and in 1917 he became UMW vice president. Two years later he was at the helm.

★ ★ ★

In 1921, he tried to unseat Gompers as AFL president. He lost by a 2 to 1 margin. Three years later he led a bloc that elected William Green to the presidency after Gompers' death.

During the early 1930s he made a big show of power with the mine workers. He won new contracts, including a seven-hour workday.

Then he split with the AFL during stormy conventions in 1934 and 1935, once knocking President William L. Hutcheson of the Carpenters Union to the floor with his fist.

★ ★ ★

In 1936 he led other dissident unions into a new organization—the CIO. And as this group's first president, he really began flexing his muscles.

SCOLDS ROOSEVELT

Franklin D. Roosevelt, whom Lewis had backed for the presidency, attacked both the union chieftain and industries with which he was quarreling.

Lewis snarled back. "It ill behooves one who has supped at labor's table and who has been sheltered in labor's house to curse with equal fervor and fine impartiality both labor and its adversaries when they become locked in dead embrace."

In 1942, Lewis quarreled with his CIO presidential successor, Philip Murray, and withdrew his mine workers. In 1946 he reaffiliated with the AFL. A year later he broke with the AFL again because that group went along with a Taft-Hartley non-Communist affidavit provision.

The fedreral courts dealt Lewis repeated setbacks. He defied court orders and was fined for contempt—$20,000 one time, $10,000 another.

He lives in the Washington suburb of Alexandria, Va. In addition to his union activities, he has followed the quieter career of banker.

★ ★ ★

The old spark is still there, though. During hearings on the new labor reform bill last summer he went to Capitol Hill to deliver a gravel-voiced denunciation of the measure.

New State Circuit Judge Sworn In at Cadillac

CADILLAC (UPI) — William R. Peterson was sworn in Thursday as judge of the 28th circuit by State Supreme Court Justice John R. Dethmers.

★ ★ ★

Peterson was elected to the circuit bench last April and will become a judge Jan. 1 after the retirement of Circuit Judge Howard L. Campbell.

Use Tax Refunds Starting to Return

LANSING (UP) — The State Revenue Department has started mailing the first refund checks for the short-lived penny boost in the use tax.

The department reported some 3,000 checks totaling about $87,000 have already been sent out.

These were part of the 6,600 claims which have been processed and approved to date. Another 7,000 claims remain to be checked out.

Most are for automobile purchases and the average refund check is for $28.90.

Clarence Lock, deputy revenue commissioner, said the refund operation is progressing smoothly. He added that a small, but steady, trickle of claims is continuing to roll into the department.

Re-Elect Chairman at Albion College

DETROIT (UPI) — Howard C. Lawrence, Grand Rapids, has been re-elected to his 26th term as chairman of the Albion College board of trustees.

All other officers of the board also were re-elected. They are Lawrence, who is also president, W. Clark Dean, vice president, Richard D. Mange, Detroit, as treasurer; and Paul R. Trautman of Albion, as business manager and assistant treasurer.

★ ★ ★

Three new members of the board were presented. They are H. Leslie Hoffman, Los Angeles, Calif.; Kenneth B. Holldge, Detroit; and D. Gordon Knapp, Kalamazoo.

Dr. Louis W. Norris of MacMurray College, who has been named to succeed Dr. William Whitcomb Whitehouse as president of Albion, addressed the board meeting here.

India Finds China Bars Attack Probe

NEW DELHI (UPI)—India announced Thursday the Chinese Communists have refused to cooperate in the investigation of an attack on U.S. Marine Sgt. James Armstrong of Los Angeles by members of their consular staff in Bombay.

Deputy Foreign Minister Laksmi Menon told Parliament that everyone else connected with the incident has been fully cooperative.

★ ★ ★ ★

"It's correct to say Armstrong was manhandled," she said. "Everybody who saw the American being ill-treated reported the matter to the police except the Chinese."

Angry legislators demanded that the Reds' Bombay consulate be stripped of its privileges and its staff expelled from India.

Ku Klux Klan Threats Wreck Yule Parade Plan

MONROEVILLE, Ala. (UPI) — Monroeville's annual Christmas parade was called off because the Ku Klux Klan threatened violence if a Negro high school band were included in the line of march.

Members of the parade committee of the two sponsoring civic clubs said they were warned several days ago that "violence might erupt if the Negro band marched, but we ignored the threats."

'Snowflake Swirl' Is Held to Assist Needy Families at Christmas

By PAULETTE KIMBALL

The Future Nurses Club of Clarkston High School is sponsoring a dance in the cafeteria after the Milford game tonight.

The Snowflake Swirl, as it has been named, will turn its proceeds into Christmas baskets of food, clothing and toys for needy families in the Clarkston area.

Working on the dance are Stella Chamberlain, Carolyn Talmage, Emily Harrison, Carolyn Ingersoll, Sharon Peege, Becky DeLong, Sandy Hollis and Barb Walker.

Officers of the club, Sandy Hollis, president; Delores DeNise, secretary; and Becky DeLong, treasurer; are assisted by their sponsor, Mrs. Evert Meyer, a former professional nurse.

The football awards assembly was held last week in honor of the players of the 1959 season.

MOST VALUABLE

Receiving an award for being the most valuable player was Bob Porritt, while Rich Mansfield was voted by the team as being the most improved player.

The co-captains for the 1959 season, John Parks and Bob Porritt, and the co-captains of the next season, Don Marsh and Mel Joseph, also accepted special letters.

At 8 p.m. on Dec. 22, the Senior Chorus, the Girl's Glee Club, the Junior Chorus and the newly-organized A Capella Choir will sing a beautiful selection of traditional carols. The dramatics class will put on seasonal tableaux throughout the program.

The National Honor Society, a high school organization sponsored by The National Association of Secondary School Principals, awarded membership to several seniors last week on the basis of scholarship, leadership, service, and character.

To become a member, the student must have a B average. Juniors can be admitted in the second semester initiation.

Eleven seniors made the grade. The are Marleen Payne, Gary Allen, Mary Baumunk, Stella Crosby, Frank Strother, Gay Ann Talmage, Sally Taylor, Jeanne Underwood, John Kieft, Barry Sparks and Judy Ellibee.

West Bloomfield Skiers Say Nix to Bone Doctor

By DODI DWYER

Anyone know a good bone specialist? The newly-formed Ski Club of West Bloomfield High School hopes that this question won't be necessary.

Louise Thomas and Warren Dolsen germinated the idea of a Ski Club and the response of about 60 students showed it to be a popular pastime.

A Ski Club was formed and members had their first taste of skimming along on the white slippery hills of Mount Holly on Dec. 9.

Officers were elected at the first meeting with Scott Giroux heading the ballot as president and Bonnie Urquhart as vice president.

It is the hope of a large group of teen-agers that there will be a lot of snow this winter so that the activities of the Ski Club can continue.

POSTERS AND TINSEL — These five Waterford Township High School students are doing their best to see that the school's Christmas dance, "Holiday in Modern," is a big hit when it gets under way 9 p. m. Dec. 26. Decorations, they agreed, are an important part of a social event of this magnitude. Busy with the work at hand are (from left) Sue Ott, Mary Grile, A. W. Lowe, John Watson and Pat Kidwell.

There'll Be Some Changes in Lake Orion Yearbook

By DAVE NORTON

Through the help of Dale Lopus, the new advisor, the book has increased from 88 to 128 pages, with only a small increase in price.

Replacing the gold and brown cover will be an attractive and appealing green and silver one.

The cover and its beautiful design are credited to Charles Crawford, the art editor, whose work is also displayed on the division pages which separate the varied sections.

An attempt has been made to add flavor and vividness to this year's book by emphasizing realism in the pictures rather than the antiquated "crows in rows" poses.

Band Boosters are fast becoming a common name around Orion. For the past two weeks, band members have been selling candy to raise money for new uniforms. The candy drive is expected to bring in about $600.

Peter Kohnen, band instructor, says the new uniforms will cost $75.75 each, or a total of $4,428.16. Only half of that amount has been raised to date.

Exchange Students to Take Free Trips

By KAREN TUTTLE

Efforts are being made by the journalism class of Walled Lake Senior High to raise funds for the exchange students' senior trips.

With each sale of a "Viking Ventures," the monthly paper edited by the class, Liisa Hintikka of Finland and Ingeborg Trovoté of Germany, will receive a portion of the proceeds.

The money being collected each day will be divided equally between the girls. Student Council alternates from each homeroom are in charge of the sales.

Monday was a long-awaited day for many excited seniors. A representative of Powell's Studio made delivery of nearly all of the class pictures. With Christmas not far away, many seniors had worried, "If my pictures don't come, what will I give for presents?"

★ ★ ★

Members of the Student Council's homecoming revision committee announced last week that they had arrived at several conclusions. There were many proposed changes, all of which will be voted on at later meetings.

★ ★ ★

JOIN IN SONG

The high school choirs, those which have sung in the community choirs, and the alumni members of the high school chorus will join in the singing of the "Messiah."

★ ★ ★

The guest accompanist for this particular part of the program will be Kay Jean Ladouceur.

★ ★ ★

Other accompanists for the evening will be Ann Pickford and Leslie McWilliams.

★ ★ ★

Quartets and other groups will also be included in the program.

Emmanuel Christian Sees Toy Shop Play

By EVELYN CHAPEL

The student body play for the students at Emmanuel Christian School was put on today. It was based on a toy shop ideal. There was Christmas caroling and a short skit.

★ ★ ★

The senior trio provided some special music, too. After the program, the class had a party the rest of the day.

Students and teachers will have a nice long rest for Christmas vacation. School will be out from Dec. 11 till Jan. 4.

The Junior Class is having a party tonight. The class will meet at the school and then go tobogganing.

Cheerleaders on the go this year are Carolyn Simpson, captain; Lillie Willison, Judy Jones, Faith Hover, Marilyn Wagner and Judy Carrie. They are really helping the basketball team to get out and win.

LOTS OF CHANGES — A lot of changes have been brought about by this Yearbook staff at Lake Orion High School. The gold and brown color of the past has been changed to green and silver. The book has been increased in size from 88 pages to 128 pages. Figuring up subscriptions here are (from left) Harry Rule, Mary Jo Parker, Dale Lopus and Mary Tompson.

Waterford High Preps for 'Holiday in Modern'

By JOHN TEEUWISSEN

Waterford's Christmas dance, "Holiday in Modern," will be held 9 p.m. Dec. 26.

One of the big social events of the school year, the annual dance is sponsored by the senior class.

Semi-formal dress will be worn. The students at Waterford High hope to welcome back many alumni for the dance. Dancing will be to the music of Irv LaDuc and his band.

General chairman for the event is Sue Ott. Chairmen of the many committees working toward the success of the dance are Mary Grile and Pat Kidwell, decorations; Janet Thomas, tickets; Sandy Beauregard, publicity; Bonnie Adair, refreshments; Carleen Cook, favors; and Bev Wells, music.

There will be two Christmas assemblies held Wednesday at Waterford. The morning assembly, for underclassmen and morning seniors, will feature a Mexican folk play, "Red Velvet Goat."

IRISH PLAY

The afternoon assembly for seniors on the afternoon shift will feature an Irish folk play, "The Table Set for Himself." Both plays are produced by the Play Production class.

The a cappella choir will sing several carols and the students will join in group singing of some of the favorite Christmas songs at both assemblies.

Literary Club held a Mexican Christmas party at their last meeting, featuring a talk on Latin America by a Pontiac Northern teacher who toured there recently and spent last Christmas in South America.

Carols were sung by the mixed chorus. The traditional pinata, present at all Latin American parties, provided entertainment for all before it was finally broken and the candy inside released.

The Dramatics Club's Christmas party will be held Monday at the high school. A play will be presented, and games and dancing will be enjoyed following dinner.

The Skippers are hosts of the Southfield cage team tonight in the last home game before a series of games away. There will be a dance following the basketball game.

Northern Elects Council Officers

By ED SANTALA

Pontiac Northern has elected its Student Council officers for the spring term.

Chosen in the extremely close election were Phyllis Dooley, president; Mal Oswalt, vice president; Kathleen Weitz, secretary; and Lynn Thompson, treasurer.

They will take over their positions when the new semester begins in February.

The debate team at Northern is well underway. The teams are comprised of Sharron Monroe and Charlotti Cole giving the negative side of the picture and Bill Ramsey and Hans Ackerle donating the affirmative slant.

Each team has won one debate and lost one.

The pep club at Northern is in high gear for the winter sports. They are planning posters and pep assemblies for basketball games, swimming meets and wrestling matches.

PEP OFFICERS

Seniors are busily exchanging their name cards which came last week.

Excitement is centered around the arrival of the senior pictures today. The time is short for the January grads and excitement is in the air.

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday the seniors took their finals. This will tell them positively whether they will graduate in January.

St. Michael High Students Begin Half-Day Classes

By BARBARA ARDELAN

Students of St. Michael School began half-day classes this week. Beginning Wednesday, half-hour classes ended by 11:30 a.m. This enabled many to obtain Christmas jobs.

★ ★ ★

The seniors are sponsoring their first dance of the season. Entitled "Winter Fantasy" the dance will be held Dec. 26 from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. Admission to the semi-formal will be $1.50 per couple.

Patrick Donahue, general chairman, heads the dance along with the chairmen of various committees. Among them are Sharon Daugherty, decorations; Bill Flanigan, coat check; Diana Adams, tickets at door; and refreshments, Dan Dunny.

MONTHLY PAMPHLET

The CSMC (Catholic Student Mission Crusade) has prepared a pamphlet called the "CSMCer" which will be printed monthly and will be given to the students the first Tuesday of every month.

Their first project will be buying books to send to overseas missionaries.

Strains of heavenly peace can be heard throughout the school as the girls choir practices for its recital at the Community National Bank sometime next week.

Under the leadership of Sister George, arrangements of old and new Christmas hymns and carols are being rehearsed. These will be sung also at the Midnight Mass on Christmas Eve.

Next week at a combined assembly the students will present their Christmas offerings to the Pastor Father Leon Kennedy and his assistants, Father O'Connell and Father Cushing.

St. Frederick's Maintains Spirit

By PAT VILLELLA

"Every good gift and every perfect gift is from Above." — St. James 1:17.

In this season of Advent we see a notable movement here at St. Frederick School to keep the true spirit of Christmas alive.

Throughout the third edition of the "RAMROD," we see that the well publicized commercialism has been generally rubbed out and the true spirit of Christmas brought back.

Articles such as "Keep Christ in Christmas," and "The True Spirit of Christmas" are highlighted.

It is the hope of the staff of the "RAMROD" that all will benefit by the thoughts put into this third edition.

As the second semester draws near, the seniors are putting forth all effort to finish the ferst half of the year with an air of accomplishment. Much thought and preparation is going toward their plans for the future.

At the special assembly held Tuesday afternoon, two movies were shown for the benefit of the entire student body. The first movie was mainly for the seniors. It was on careers and vocations.

Jet Dumps Fuel, Lands in Detroit

DETROIT (AP) — An Eastern Airlines four-engine jet prop Electra with 75 persons aboard circled over Lake Erie for half an hour in dumping its fuel before making a safe landing at Willow Run Airport Thursday night.

★ ★ ★

The pilot, Capt. Edward Rodam of Miami, radioed the tower that he was returning to the airport when he was about 40 miles out. He said he was dumping 10,000 pounds of fuel.

★ ★ ★

Coming in for a landing, the pilot radioed that emergency vehicles were not needed because he could make a normal landing with the wing flaps in their set position. Rodam retained just enough fuel to return and land.

Ground crews repaired the wing flap trouble, the plane was refueled and it took off again at midnight on the less-than-three-hour flight to Miami.

Bryant-Morrison Vows Spoken in Rochester

MRS. RICHARD M. BRYANT

AVON TOWNSHIP — Honeymooning on a trip through the East are newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Bryant. They were married Saturday in St. John's Lutheran Church, Rochester.

The bride is the former D'Lois Gene Morrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Morrison of 301 Castell street. Parents of the bridegroom are Mrs. Edward Siewert of 722 Renshaw St. and Merritt Bryant of Belding.

For her wedding the bride chose a floor-length gown of chantilly lace and tulle over satin. It featured a Queen Anne collar and a fitted bodice from which godets of lace extended downward over ruffles of tulle.

Her tiara was fashioned of seed pearls and tulle, and she carried a prayer book topped with a spray of stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

★ ★ ★

Gale Hood of Rochester was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Janet Abernathy of Rochester and Carol Morrison, sister of the bride.

Bernard Roberson of Romeo served as best man with Edward Dockery of Pontiac and James Knickerbocker of Rochester seating the guests.

Following the nuptials, the reception was held in Fellowship Hall of the church. The newlyweds' trip will end in Patuxent River, Md., where they will make their home.

Mailing Date Set for Tax Forms

First Lot Going Out Dec. 26; Millions to Get New 1040W

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The government is getting set to send out 59,300,000 reminders that the best things in life are not free.

Starting Dec. 26, postmen throughout the country will begin delivering federal income tax forms to people who filed returns for 1958. The deadline for reporting 1959 income is next April 15.

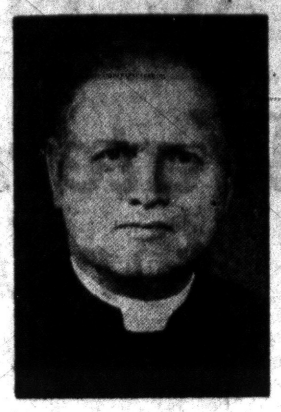

This year the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) is mailing out about 700,000 fewer than in 1958. Officials explained that the number of people filing declined last year, probably because of the 1958 business recession.

About 17,490,000 taxpayers will find that their envelope from the IRS contains the new buff colored Form 1040W, in use for the first time.

Form 1040W, the so-called middle form, is being introduced as an economy move. Consisting of two pages, it may be used by some taxpayers instead of the four-page form, 1040.

To use 104W your income must consist entirely of wages or salary and not more than $200 in dividends and interest. The new form is being sent to taxpayers who appear eligible on the basis of their 1958 return.

About 18,665,000 copies of the four-page Form 1040 and 17,490,000 short forms, 1040A, also are being distributed. The IRS expects all 59,300,000 returns will be in the mail by Jan. 10.

REV. F. P. WHIPPLE

The Rev. F. Plummer Whipple will be ordained priest at 10 a.m. tomorrow in a ceremony at St. Alfred's Episcopal Church in Lake Orion, where he serves as pastor. The ordination will be performed by the Rt. Rev. Archie H. Crowley, suffragan bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Michigan. The Rev. Mr. Whipple was ordained deacon a year ago at St. Philip's Church, Rochester, where he served six months as assistant minister.

Lansing Firm Will Build MSU Graduate Dorm

EAST LANSING (AP)— The general contract for construction of a $3,250,000 graduate dormitory at Michigan State University has been awarded to the Christman Co. of Lansing.

Revenue bonds will finance construction of the dormitory which will consist of two seven-story living units connected by a one-story service and dining unit.

The bonds will be retired by a monthly rental of about $60 per room to the 410 graduate students the facility will house.

Subcontracts accepted by the MSU Board of Trustees include Shaw Winkler, Inc., of Detroit, $581,886 for heating, ventilation, plumbing and mechanical equipment; Central Electric Motors Co. of Lansing, $224,500 for electric wiring; and the Detroit Elevator Co. $57,200 for elevators.

It All Adds Up

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — Attorney Travis Milsten, making conversation with two small boys in an automatic elevator, asked them where they were going. "Up to five," one replied, punching the No. 2 and 3 buttons.

Sales of Autos to Stay Level

December Will Equal November Despite Big Drop at Start

DETROIT (AP)—At least as many new cars will be sold in December as in November despite a big drop in sales in the first 10 days of this month, Ward's Automotive Reports said today.

November sales totaled 376,000.

Reflecting production cutbacks caused by the steel strike, retail sales of new cars during the first 10 days of this month dropped to the lowest point in 13 months.

Ward's said 113,500 domestic-built car sales Dec. 1-10 were the lowest since Nov. 1-10 of 1958 when sales totaled 94,000.

The agency said the industry now is returning to volume production with General Motors Corp., which was forced by steel shortages to close down most of its carmaking operations, attempting to recover its normal share of the market.

46,000 FOR CHEVY

Chevrolet plans to produce 46,000 cars this week.

Sales in the first 10 days of this month, Ward's said, were divided as follows: 24.6 per cent GM; 44 per cent Ford Motor Co.; 19.2 per cent Chrysler Corp.; 8.7 per cent American Motors, and 3.5 per cent Studebaker-Packard Corp.

Ward's said 29,600 U. S. compact cars were retailed Dec. 1-10, "portending an entire December volume of 85,000 units and a fourth-quarter total of 225,000 that is equivalent to a 1,020,000-unit annual rate."

★ ★ ★

Ward's said the Ford Falcon outsold Rambler 10,500 to 9,885 Dec. 1-10 and was the first compact car to do so.

Bridegroom Bouncy

MONTPELIER, Vt. (UPI) — Douglas Danningburg, 42, was sent to jail for passing phony checks to the justice of the peace who performed his wedding ceremony and also to the florist from whom he bought flowers for his bride.

Accidents kill more persons 2 to 28 years old than any single disease.

There were 1,336,000 cows of milking age on Minnesota dairy farms in 1958. The state's total milk production was 9,739,000,000 pounds and its total dairy industry dollar volume was nearly 400 million dollars.

World Chatting Champs

New States Phone-y

NEW YORK (AP)—The 49th and 50th states can claim to be the "talkingest" places in the world.

The 1959 issue of The World's Telephones, released by the American Telephone & Telegraph Co., said Alaska had 609 telephone conversations a person in 1958 and Hawaii had 536.

Canada, as a nation, led with 511 conversations. The United States had 472 and Sweden 346.

Other statistics, requiring about a year to compile, included:

Some 66,645,000 telephones in the United States at the start of 1959, more than 50 per cent of the world's total; 7,525,00 in the United Kingdom; 5,123,000 in Canada; 5,090,000 in West Germany; 3,700,000 in Russia. The A.T.&T. estimates there are now almost 71,000,000 in this country.

★ ★ ★

The statistics showed New York City had the most telephones—4,289,060—but that Washington, D.C., was first in telephone density with 71 for each 100 population. Nationally, telephone penetration is 38 per 100 against a world average of 4 per 100.

Sammy Davis Jr. to Wed White Dancer

NEW YORK (UPI) — Negro entertainer Sammy Davis Jr. said he and a white nightclub dancer from Montreal plan to get married in February despite her parents' opposition.

Davis said he recently met his fiancee Joan Stewart's parents and he hoped they would change their minds.

State to Take Over School for Retarded

NORTHVILLE (UPI) — The State Mental Health Commission has decided to take over the Wayne County training school for retarded children July 1, 1961.

Mental Health Director Charles Wagg said the school would be combined with the Plymouth State Home and Training School. One new 150-bed hospital at Plymouth has been finished but is not open under the present austerity program.

Wagg said eventually the combined Plymouth-Wayne facility would have 2,500 beds. The Wayne school has 800 and room for 1,700 will be built by the state.

The entire institution will be for retarded children.

Midland Tops Goal

MIDLAND (AP) — The drive to raise funds for expansion of the Midland Hospital went over the top. A goal of $975,000 was set and contributions and pledges totaled $978,211.47.

Shopping Centers Prove Ideal Auto Showcases

By BEN PHLEGAR
Automotive Writer

DETROIT—The auto companies have decided the vast suburban shopping centers provide ideal opportunities to display their wares.

The automobile, which boomed suburban living, is directly responsible for the huge growth of these shopping centers.

Few of the centers include actual auto dealerships but more and more of them are being used as temporary outdoor showrooms for new model cars.

It may be a single line of cars by a single dealer or group of dealers, a complete line by one company or super displays of a huge variety of makes and models.

This fall at Roosevelt Field shopping center in New York 16 dealers showed 75 foreign and domestic makes. At Westroads shopping center in St. Louis 26 dealers displayed more than 100 cars.

At Northland near Detroit American Motors showed its full line and Dodge displayed its models. Several other company promotions were cancelled when steel shortages hit car production.

Northland, whose 100 million dollar annual business volume makes it about the biggest such center anywhere, says it would be receptive to more of the elaborate auto promotions such as Ford has staged for the past three years.

Ford began in 1957 with a modest show called "Station Wagon Living." This was expanded on the same theme in 1958 and this past year Ford put four separate shows on tour simultaneously.

Two dealt with suburban living, one with station wagons and one with country living. These shows placed 47 shopping centers plus a farm progress show in Iowa and the Texas State Fair.

Ford estimates 5½ million people saw the shows—and the cars—this year. So far none of the other companies has tried anything quite so elaborate.

Frisco Heiress to Wed Prince

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Dolly Fritz, who owns some of Nob Hill's best dollar-yielding apartment castles, will be wed in April to Prince Gonzalo de Bourbon of the Spanish royal family.

The engagement was announced Wednesday by Mrs. Laurence Hanna Tharp, mother of Dolly, who is 24 and one of the nation's richest young women. Gonzalo, 29, is a nephew of Don Juan, pretender to the Spanish throne.

Mrs. Tharp said the wedding will be in the Vatican.

★ ★ ★

Dolly came into a fortune estimated at 6 million dollars following the death of her father, the late Eugene Nicholas Fritz Jr., in 1950. He died in Paris. Dolly's inheritance included such rich income properties as the Huntington Hotel, the Park Lane, and the Brocklebank all on the crest of San Francisco's swank Nob Hill.

Fails to Set Aside Contract With Disney

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Singer Annette Funicello has failed to get out of her seven-year contract with Disney Productions Inc.

★ ★ ★

Miss Funicello, 17, contended Thursday the 1955 contract was "inequitable" and that she signed it without the advice of an agent or lawyer.

★ ★ ★

Judge Benjamin Landis ruled he had no jurisdiction to set aside the earlier approval of the pact.

She got $160 a week to start. Her pay has risen to $325 and will increase to $500 in 1962 if all options are exercised.

★ ★ ★

The southwest has rocks representing almost all of the geological ages.

GARY WELLS

Former Resident May Score Big on New Record

Former Pontiac resident Gary Wells, 26, has cut a new record on the MGM label that looks like it might be a hit before long.

★ ★ ★

Wells, son of Mr. and Mrs. Garland S. Wells, 20 Ramona Ter., began singing in the Pontiac area when a youngster.

He has been under contract with MGM about six months. His new record, "Almost You," was written by famous songwriter Dick Adler, Wells' manager.

SELLING WELL

MGM officials have high hopes for both Wells and the record. The other side is "I'm Walking Away."

Wells is a graduate of Pontiac Central High School. He got his start singing with his sisters for many local events.

★ ★ ★

Sale of License Tabs Lagging by 100,000

LANSING (UPI) — Sale of 1960 license tabs are almost 100,000 behind those of a year ago, Secretary of State James M. Hare said today.

Hare said transactions through Dec. 5 show 209,758 licenses sold this year, a 99,080 drop below the the 308,836 issued in the 1959 plate year.

"If this lag continues it will cause us real trouble in February," Hare said. "We have cut and economized on staff to meet our bare-bones budget and we will have plenty of headaches if all of our 1960 tab business hits us at one time next year."

The world's largest ant is the "Dinoponera gigantea." It lives in the Brazilian rain forest and often measures more than an inch in length.

Fumes Seep From Many Car Spots

By JACK VANDENBERG
UPI Automotive Editor

would have ready for installation on 1961 model cars as smog control items.

DETROIT—A lot of Los Angeles civic leaders may be concentrating too much on one end of the car in attempts to eliminate the cause of smog.

But recent developments show that the exhaust system may be responsible for as little as one-third of the emissions from some cars.

A NEW DEVICE

The auto industry wasn't just trying to pacify Los Angeles officials with a toy instead of a weapon recently when they announced a device was available to control fumes from a car's crankcase.

That might have been the case a year ago but in the meantime the industry developed a new means of measuring the contamination from the crankcase of a car.

The results of more accurate measurements surprised even the auto industry engineers who developed the new measuring device.

It showed crankcase emissions account for anywhere from less than 20 to more than 65 per cent of the total emissions from a car, depending on the age and condition of the car and the conditions under which it is driven.

Unlike emissions from the exhaust system, which become higher as the car grows older, fumes from the crankcase of a new car are often greater than those from a car which has been driven through the break-in period.

Engineers explain that the pistons of a new car may not fit perfectly in the car's cylinders. This allows fumes to seep past the piston on the compression stroke of the engine and flow into the crankcase. The fumes escape into the atmosphere through a vent in the crankcase which is necessary to prevent too much back pressure from building up.

After the car has been broken in, the pistons wear to a point where they conform with the contours of the cylinder, or, in engineering terms, they become "seated." The fumes are then retained better in the cylinder until most of them have been burned or ejected through the exhause system.

When the car has been driven three to six years, piston wear may become excessive and fumes again seep past the piston into the crankcase, making crankcase fumes a severe problem again.

Once the industry found how serious the fumes from the crankcase were, however, it was a simple matter to develop more devices to feed them back into the cylinder.

These are the devices the industry recently announced it

In many areas this simple device, which retails for anywhere from $2-$10, will eliminate enough of the fumes from a car to solve the area's air pollution problems, an automobile manufacturers association spokesman said.

★ ★ ★

But areas like the Los Angeles basin, which have serious smog problems, probably will need something more than elimination of chankcase fumes.

★ ★ ★

Contrary to popular belief, the exhaust system and the crankcase aren't the only areas from which these fumes emanate. They also come from the gasoline tank and the carburetor. The auto industry is working on means of eliminating fumes from these sources, too.

Attired Spouse (in His Pajamas) Miffs Monika

LOS ANGELES (AP) — When friends visited them, Monika Korngold said, her husband would put on his pajamas and ask if she wasn't coming to bed, too.

★ ★ ★

That testimony helped her get a divorce Thursday from George L. Korngold, 30, studio music editor and son of the late Eric Wolfgang Korngold, composer and director of the Viennese State Opera Orchestra.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Korngold, 29, won custody of their two sons, $400 monthly support and alimony, a North Hollywood home and a station wagon.

Preston, who played the part for two years, leaves on Jan. 9 to make a film.

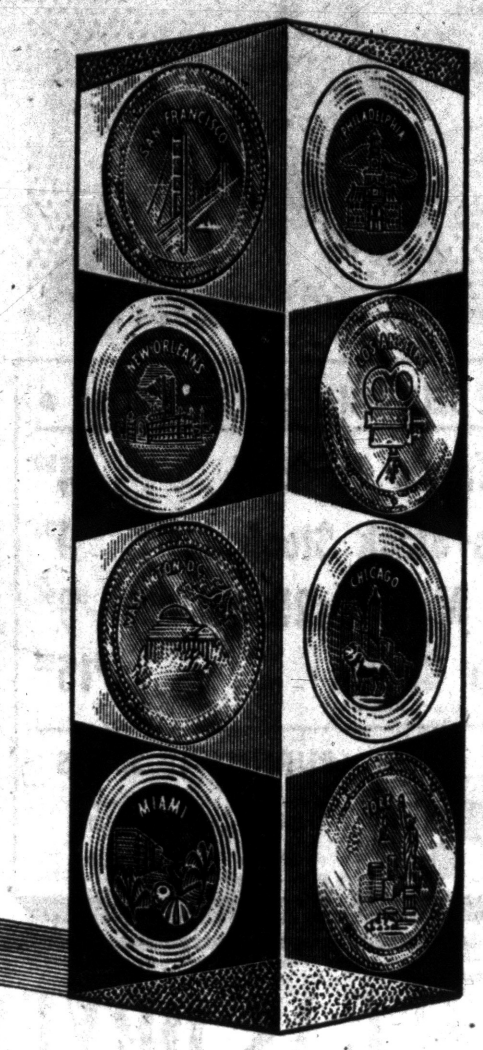

It's obvious that women are the weaker sex. They can't even hold their tongues . . . The shortest night of the year (relates Burton Hillis) is Christmas Eve, from sundown to son-up. —Earl Wilson

OK Now . . . but in the Future?

Health Official Worries About Water Pollution

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A housewife lets her dirty dishwater run down the drain, a factory spews industrial chemicals into a stream, rain washes a pesticide from a farmer's field into a river.

The actions mean little individually. But added together — and multiplied by literally thousands of similar occurrences each day—they pose a major threat to the nation's supply of safe drinking water.

Arthur S. Flemming, secretary of health, education, and welfare, is quoted in the January issue of Good Housekeeping Magazine as saying on water pollution:

"We may be confronted with a crisis of such gravity as to jeopardize the further growth and development of many areas of the country and even to the health and welfare of millions of Americans."

To bring the picture up to date and amplify on the Good Housekeeping article, United Press International questioned Arve Dahl, chief of the U.S. Public Health Service's division of water supply and pollution.

He said there was an increasing buildup of chemicals and wastes in tap water that cannot be removed by known purification methods.

Dahl quickly added that the presence of such pollutants in the nation's water supply still is "within safe levels." But he was unable to hold out any guarantees for the future.

He said the government is well aware of the public health problem and has started attacking it from many angles. "But more has to be done," he said.

Radioactive (?) Wrist Watches Being Called In

EL PASO, Tex. (AP) — Three wrist watches of a type thought to contain possible radioactive strontium were located Thursday in El Paso by the Atomic Energy Commission.

The watches are Rolex GMT-Master wrist watches and also bear the marking Oyster Perpetual on the face. They are manufactured by a Swiss company.

The AEC and the distributor are trying to get back all of this type watch because of the possibility that some may contain dangerous amounts of the radioactive material.

Two of the watches were located in an El Paso jewelry store, and the third was from a radio listener who heard of the search over station KROD in El Paso.

Christmas Spirit Puts Its Stamp on Postal Clerks

WORCESTER, Mass. (AP) — Postal clerks in Worcester are adding their bit to the Christmas spirit of giving.

Persons mailing cards to Mexico and Canada apparently don't realize that four-cent stamps are required rather than the customary three-cent stamps.

The National Federation of Postal Clerks, with the blessing of their superiors, agreed "it would not be in the proper Christmas spirit to forward mail bearing a 'one-cent postage due stamp.'"

Since its founding in 1948, the World Health Organization (WHO) has granted some 10,000 fellowships for advanced studies in many parts of the world.

Novi Names 13 Developers

Confer Monday on Constitution

Board of Directors to Help Village Planning Board Map Future

NOVI—A 13-member board of directors has been named to head the Novi Citizens' Development Committee, organized last month to aid the Village Planning Board in community development.

A 12-point constitution outlining objectives and principles of the development committee also has been approved by interested citizens.

The constitution will be reviewed at a public meeting called for 7 p.m. Monday at the Village Hall. Officers will be elected to nine subcommittees.

Formation of the Citizen's Committee had been recommended by village planning consultant Waldemar C. Johnson to obtain a cross section of ideas on long-range planning.

MEMBERS LISTED

Also, C. A. Smith, George Merwin, James Strauss, Donald Woodward, Roy Crites, Kalin Johnson and P. M. McElroy.

The adopted 12 rules and procedures include:

To provide for a central shopping area; reservation of school sites to best serve the neighborhood in which they are located; make adequate provisions for parks and playgrounds.

When plans for committee formation were drawn up, Village Manager Fred E. Olson said that the committee is strictly a citizens organization and that no member of Novi government could serve on any subcommittee.

"This is an honest and sincere attempt on the part of the Village Council and planning board to encourage all Novi citizens to participate in the planning and development of the community," Olson said.

CANDY FOR BUILDING — Hoping to raise funds for the construction of a $20,000 club house for the West Bloomfield Boys Club by selling boxes of chocolates, Carl R. Misfeldt, left, director of the club, and board member Jack King prepare to distribute the candy to 400 boys who will sell it from door to door starting Saturday and continuing to the end of the year.

Boys Club Will Sell Candy to Gain Building Funds

Beginning Saturday at 9 a.m. and continuing to the end of the year, some 400 boys and parents will canvass the Pontiac and West Bloomfield Township area, selling quality milk chocolates at $1 a box.

The proceeds will go toward construction of a $20,000 clubhouse at Willow Beach road and Summers street in Keego Harbor.

This, the first of four proposed units, will be built on property donated by VFW Post 2706.

"If the candy sale is successful the clubhouse should be ready for occupany in less than two years," said Carl Misfeldt, club director.

The group already has 10,000 boxes of chocolates on hand and plans to purchase 8,000 more before the year ends.

The boys, from 8 to 18 years old, will be assigned to teams, each team with an adult who will drive it to its selling area.

Every boy will carry a letter of introduction explaining the purpose of the sale.

Milk Producers to Vote on Marketing Order

DETROIT (UPI) — Milk producers selling to the Southern Michigan Milk Marketing Area will vote in a referendum in the next few weeks on ratification of a proposed federal minimum price milk marketing order.

★ ★ ★

The referendum was announced today by the U.S. Agriculture Department office here. The office said a notice of the referendum date will be mailed to each milk producer qualified to vote.

Yuletide Cantata Sunday Evening in Goodison

GOODISON — The combined choirs of the Paint Creek Methodist Church, Goodison, and of the Howarth Methodist Church on Silver Bell road will present their second performance of the Christmas cantata, "The Miracle of Bethlehem," Sunday evening.

Featured as soloists will be Ross Bunner, Jane Collins, Rose Cudnohussky, Nancy Kelly, Thelma Lewandowski, Ken Major, Bill Reeves, Caroline Phelps and Shirley O'Dean.

The public is invited to attend the cantata to be presented in the Goodison church.

Six billion tons of coal had been extracted from the mines of West Virginia by 1957 — but this was only 12 per cent of the state's estimated recoverable reserves.

Union Lake Lot Option Granted

Will Be Land for New Post Office, Oakland's Broomfield Says

Option to purchase a lot on which a new post office for Union Lake will be constructed has been granted the Post Office Dept., Congressman William S. Broomfield (R-Oakland County) announced today.

The 105 by 170-foot lot is on the south side of Cooley Lake road, 245 feet west of Union Lake road.

The department is presently drawing up plans and specifications for the new building, which will contain some 6,000 square feet of floor space.

Broomfield said he was informed that the department will advertise for construction bids in about six weeks.

Under the usual departmental plans, the successful bidder will construct and then rent the building to the department on a long-term lease basis.

Develops Cheaper Car Cruise Control

FLINT (AP)—General Motors' AC Spark Plug Division has developed an automatic cruise control system for passenger cars which could be sold for about half the price of current devices.

The system keeps a car at a predetermined speed. It can be disengaged by pressure on the gas pedal or brake.

Santa and the ICE KING

by LUCRECE HUDGINS BEALE

(SYNOPSIS: After a terrible fight, Santa, Oonik and Keotuk subdued the giant polar bear and made friends with him. Now the bear is taking them to the domain of the Ice King. Santa and Oonik hope to convince the Ice King that he must end the continuous winter that threatens to starve all who live in the North.

Chapter 11

Oonik dragged the big sled from the igloo and Santa harnessed it to the now gentle polar bear. Then Santa and Oonik and Keotuk got on the sled and the polar bear started away.

At first the bear walked slowly and kept looking behind as if trying to understand what he was pulling and why. But after a while he got used to it and even began to enjoy it. He felt that he was stronger and more powerful than these creatures, after all, for he was taking them somewhere, not they taking him.

He began to run and the heavy sled sped over the ice like a pebble skimming over water.

Keotuk was very pleased to be a rider. Every now and then he leaped from the sled and ran along beside the bear to make sure everything was all right. But now even Keotuk could not keep up with the fast bear and the dog always tired and jumped back on the sled to travel in style.

★ ★ ★

On and on they went until finally the day came when Santa touched Oonik on the shoulder and shouted, "There it is!"

★ ★ ★

Oonik poked his head out of his fur hood and looked where Santa pointed. He saw a lofty castle made all of ice shimmering behind veils of whirling snow.

The castle stood on a hill and its bluish white spires towered into the sky. Gale winds lashed around the hill, whipping at the castle walls and howling among the steeples.

"How strange it is!" shivered Oonik when they reached the castle. "Aren't you afraid?"

"I am, indeed," confessed Santa.

Even Keotuk and the polar bear when they arrived at the castle were overwhelmed by the eerie solitude. They huddled together, the dog between the bear's big paws, for warmth and company.

HEAR THUNDER

Looking fearfully to right and left, Santa and Oonik went up the icy path and through the icy door and into the icy hall of the icy castle. They san no sign of living creature but suddenly from some far away place above their heads came a rumbling, rattling, clattering thunder as if the whole castle was about to crash down on top of them.

Up and up, round and round, they went and the higher they went, the louder grew the hubbub until at last, nearly deafened, they arrived in a chamber at the top of the winding stairs and there they found the Ice King himself.

He was a giant of a king with deepset eyes and whitewashed hair that fell over his forehead and alabaster whiskers climbing his cheeks. Ice was on his eyebrows and icicles dripped from his whiskers. As he breathed, clouds of frost exploded from his nostrils.

With one hand he turned the handle of a colossal ice crusher while with the other hand he pumped an immense bellows up and down.

"WHO ARE you?" thundered the Ice King.

From the bellows came the howling winds, from the crushing came the avalanche of ice that covered the Northern lands. Santa took a deep breath and shouted from the door, "Do stop a moment!".

COULDN'T STOP

But the Ice King neither heard nor saw. He worked on like one possessed as if he would never, could never stop.

Santa crossed the room and laid his hand on the Ice King's shoulder. With a startled cry the Ice King threw up his arms and whirled around.

Instantly the pandemonium ceased and the room was hushed. "Who are you?" thundered the Ice King staring at the visitors from inflamed blue eyes.

Santa swallowed hard and fell back a step. Oonik peeped fearfully from behind Santa's back. Then Santa cleared his throat and bravely, said, "We're friends. Come to call."

The Ice King's mouth fell open and he stared and stared and then, with a cry, he burst into tears!

Symington Funds Hit 40 Per Cent of Goal

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Backers of Sen. Stuart Symington say they are approaching 40 per cent of $100,000 fund they seek to accumulate to help finance his expected bid for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Charles Hipsh, Kansas City, vice president of the club, said the organization now has 394 members.

★ ★ ★

Symington has not yet said whether he would be a candidate.

Not Dismayed by Iowa Loss

Dems Make This Clear: Benson Still a Target

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democrats left little doubt today they will continue to make Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson a political target despite their loss of an Iowa House seat.

★ ★ ★

Sen. Mike Mansfield (D-Mont) disputed the contention of GOP National Chairman Thruston B. Morton that the results in an Iowa corn-hog area showed farmers don't blame Benson solely for low prices and other agricultural ills. Mansfield is assistant Senate Democratic leader.

★ ★ ★

"Both candidates in the House contest said they were opposed to Benson's farm program so that hardly could have been the deciding issue," Mansfield said.

Instead, he conceded that a Republican upswing is on from the low mark the GOP reached when the Democrats won landslide victories in Senate and House races in 1958.

Morton and Vice President Richard M. Nixon saw the beginning of a GOP comeback in the election of Republican John Kyl over Democrat C. Edwin Gilmour in Iowa's fourth district special election.

Nixon called it "dramatic evidence" of a GOP upturn that should encourage the recruiting of strong party candidates and give incumbents in marginal districts a shot in the arm.

"I have felt there have been substantial gains in Republican strength beginning in the latter part of the summer and early fall," Nixon said. "This election demonstrates that that is the case."

LITTLE GABE AND THE GOLDEN STARS — A Christmas Story — By Walt Scott

Hal Boyle Says Even a Pause Talks

Stretch Your Language and You'll Grow

NEW YORK (AP) — Life has many languages.

You learn some of them as you go along.

How many languages are there in the world? Maybe 1,000, one might guess. Another would say 5,000.

BOYLE

It partly depends on what you call a language.

A language is a method by which one living thing by an effort, deliberate or not, brings or exchanges a message to another living thing.

Actually there are millions of languages, or variations of languages.

Every two people who approach each other in the world speak two different languages, and they get along only as their languages mesh—or stiffen in silence and retreat into individualism unexpressed.

So it is with nations, as it is with persons.

★ ★ ★

Every individual is, to some extent, a new and separate and fresh language in an old and tired world. He stamps upon the passing pageantry of his time his eternal say. Everybody does this, whether he does it by issuing decrees like Napoleon or by talking to himself like an old trapper in the field or a wife fixing breakfast in her kitchen.

★ ★ ★

Language is a marvelous arsenal made up of words, grunts, smells, gestures, sighs, movements—and pauses. It can be eloquent in each or all of these ways, and other ways.

ALWAYS A REACH

Sight, for example. How often is a falling tear a human battlefield. What two people in love in all history lacked a separate kind of signal for being together?

People being as various as they are, no dictionary could possibly sum up all the varieties of human languages though learned scholars do make periodic appraisals. Their efforts remain a reach, not a conclusion.

Shakespeare seized and shook the English language and made of it an arrow to his own meaning. So do, in their own ability, all individuals in all languages.

Language is every man's individual spear or arrow. This is true in every tongue. The poet spoke of the "mute, inglorious Milton."

The truth about language is that it grows by the multitudes of Miltons who may be inglorious by the measurement of fame but who are splendidly and colorfully unmute.

SKY GRAMMAR?

Science tries to find a grammar in the sky and the universe. It operates by that grammar, but now and again in time it has found it necessary to adjust its grammar to meet new concepts of old situations.

So it is with language.

All stars in time will probably swerve in their courses by the attrition of change. Few things are fixed forever, and probably none is. Language is particularly malleable and subject to change.

Grammar is a roadblock only to the false-educated, language itself is the real hurdle.

The only real rule of language is to force it to say exactly what you want it to say, no more, no less. And if you do this you can well afford to break every other rule in doing so.

The true majesty of language, as Shakespeare knew, is not to be a prisoner of a previous grammar and a limp, inherited vocabulary but to assail truth vigorously with both old and new words that create a fresh meaning—both for yourself and the other fellow.

As you stretch your language, you stretch yourself. Anyone can be in his own way his own Shakespeare.

Ethel Merman, Spouse Agree to Separate

★ ★ ★

"We have amicably agreed to go our separate ways," Miss Merman said Thursday. "I don't think there is going to be any reconciliation."

★ ★ ★

Princess Grace's Sister Divorces Hockey Chief

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Margaret (Peggy) Kelly Davis, sister of Princess Grace of Monaco, has been granted a divorce from George L. Davis Jr., president of the Philadelphia Ramblers of the Eastern Hockey League.

The action was disclosed Thursday. Grounds for the divorce were not disclosed. The suit was not contested.

Ike's Tour Unequaled

By BOB CONSIDINE

WITH EISENHOWER — There has never been a good will tour of this magnitude in the history of man.

The prophets and their apostles of old were stationary and rooted compared to President Eisenhower on this trip.

We can only pray that his flocks were listening.

His is almost an evangelical plea for peace, brotherhood, the dignity of man and freedom with—of course—security.

Watching him utilize the incredible variety of gear and materiel placed at his command has given us pause at times and made us wonder what Moses, Christ, Mohammed, Confucius or Buddha might have done with the same conveniences.

PREACHES TO MORE

In two weeks he has preached to more people than the founders of all the world's great religions faced in their combined lives.

His appeals have been spread to countless other millions by an attentive press, radio and television.

More to 'Badness' Than Meets the Eye

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

It's raining — and the baby has a bad cold. What with her fretfulness, my worry and broken sleep, I feel very tired and depressed.

In the kitchen I am preparing more juice for her when my 4-year-old grabs the unsqueezed half of the orange on the table, and runs out with it into the pelting rain. I follow. When I catch him, I bear him back into the house and there spank him as hard as I can.

I am unjust. I am behaving badly. I am using my little boy's outburst of jealous feeling as an excuse to explode my own frustrations.

Now, in my action, a person who did not love me would see only bad-tempered abuse of my little boy. But a person who loved me would see something else. He would say:

"You wanted more consideration from Bobby, and spanking him was the only way you could think of to get it."

★ ★ ★

And because the loving person would see through to the original meaning of my bad action, I might burst into tears of gratitude to him, and seek reconciliation with Bobby.

Grownups are not the only people whose bad actions have good meanings behind them.

Children's do, too. When Betty lies to us, her bad action is self-protective as well as cowardly. When Jimmy disobeys the rule against riding his bike in traffic, his misbehavior is enterprising as well as defiant. When Paula is rude to us before guests, her bad action is brave as well as impudent.

All these bad actions contain a good meaning that it is productive to discern.

If we see the original goodness behind them, and credit the children with it, they will cling to us in gratitude and relief as I cling to the friend who sees the truth behind my mistreatment of Bobby. And they will not lie, disobey or insult us so readily again.

The idea that we are sinners without any relieving grace in our sins has been a most profitable one for our moral authorities. Yet the Jesus they claim to follow never dealt in total sinfulness.

In the act of the prostitute who presented herself to Him, all the respectable people around Him saw only outrageous insolence. But in it, He saw something else. He saw humility.

So we have top authority for seeking the original virtue behind the misbehavior of children. We have it for seeking it in our own.

Abby Advises

Wife and Hubby Driving Each Other to Distraction

DEAR ABBY: My husband started to teach me to drive the car. So far we have been out three times and have come back every time not speaking to each other. He called me, "Stupid," and "Birdbrain" and "Knucklehead."

ABBY

When I drive slowly he tells me to "hurry up." When I go fast, he tells me to "slow down." He makes me nervous and my hands sweat and the wheel slips.

When I apply the brakes too suddenly and the car jerks, he really snaps my head off. Otherwise he is a wonderful husband. How come when we get in the car for a driving lesson his whole personality changes? Are all husbands like mine or did I get a lemon?

PATTI

DEAR PATTI: Most husbands lack the patience to teach their own wives how to drive. You would both be happier if you'd take driving instructions from a professional teacher. It is not expensive. But no matter what the cost — you can't afford not to.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: I heard that if a fellow kisses a girl 10 times in the state of Massachusetts, it amounts to a legal engagement and a promise to wed. Is this right?

"MUST KNOW" FROM BOSTON

DEAR MUST: Although the state of Massachusetts has done much to protect the fair flowers of womanhood, they have never gone to this extreme. A girl who gets kissed 10 times in Massachusetts is no closer to the altar than the girl who collects 10 kisses in Colorado.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: I am a girl who is 16 years old and I have never had a boyfriend because I can't talk to boys. I have read up on the "art of conversation" but that hasn't helped any. They tell you how to talk, but they never tell you what to say. Recently I had a good opportunity to get a boyfriend, but I couldn't think of one thing to say to him so I lost him. Please help me.

TONGUE-TIED

DEAR TONGUE-TIED: In order to be good enough company for a boy to want to see you again, you should know something about that boy's interests. Almost every boy likes sports. Read the sports section of this newspaper daily.

Know what's going on and you'll be able to discuss it intelligently. Read the front page news, too. If the boy has any brains he'll be interested in world affairs.

Then, talk about "ideas" and ambitions and dreams and before you know it, you won't be able to get a word in edgewise. Good luck!

CONFIDENTIAL TO UNJUSTLY ACCUSED: A blood test would prove nothing in your case. If Mr. X. and your husband had the same blood type, the results would be the same.

Lowering the Boom Benefits Mom, Tots

By RUTH MILLETT

It didn't look for a while as though mama was going to get junior, aged four or five, out of the supermarket without losing her poise or raising her reasonable, persuasive tone of voice. But she did.

When junior kept whining for her to let him have a candy bar she explained repeatedly that it was almost lunch time and that it wasn't good for little boys to eat sweets before a meal.

By the time she had patiently explained this to junior three times and he was still whining for the candy bar, I thought she might use an old-fashioned phrase like "You can't have it and that's that," or an even more uninhibited retort such as "Stop whining or I'm going to paddle you as soon as we get home," but she didn't.

She kept her tone of sweet reasonableness when junior started begging to stop by and see Billy on his way home. "But Billy has a cold, darling" junior's mother kept repeating. "You don't want to play with Billy and catch his cold and have to stay indoors, do you?"

WHAT A RUCKUS

But junior kept insisting, mama kept patiently explaining. The verbal tussle over first one thing and then another kept up until they were finally out of the store. As the door closed behind them, junior was still whining and mother was still holding her temper.

★ ★ ★

Now mama was just being a modern parent, playing the game according to the rules.

But I couldn't help but wonder while I listened to a spoiled child whine and tease and misbehave if both mama and junior wouldn't have benefited from mama's losing her patience and saying, "That's enough."

Somehow I have a sneaking suspicion that kids get just as tired of a mother's patient, reasonable, conciliatory response to their unreasonable demands as a mother gets of always keeping her temper under control.

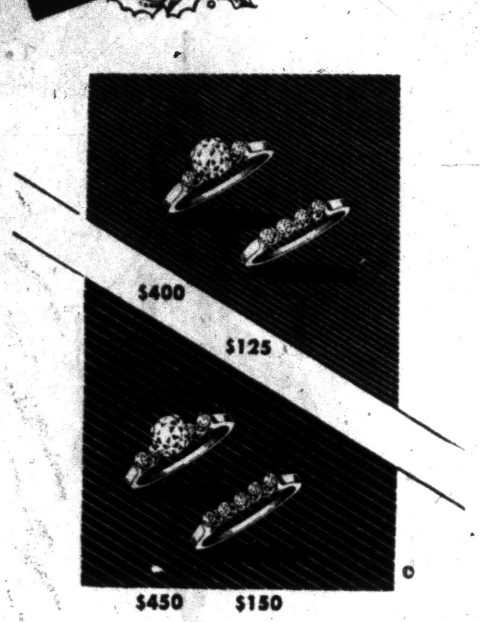

★ ★ ★

Common sense used to tell mothers when kids were "just asking for a spanking."

Here Are Two Methods to Use

Extra Hair Is a Problem

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Q. "I have hair on my face. Shall I use one of the hair removers? Will this make the hair come in thicker? Also is there any way to kill the roots?"

A. The only way to kill the roots or banish superfluous hair permanently is with electrolysis. You can use one of the depilatories on the hair on your face but this is temporary. There are some which were designed especially for this.

Q. "I have a problem. Every girl I know shaves her legs except me. My mother says that if I do the hair will grow in darker and twice as thick. Please help me."

A. So far as I have been able to discover there is absolutely no scientific basis for this belief. If there were, you certainly would have lots of company. I hope your mother will let you shave your legs because I know it must be embarrassing to you.

HOW TO BLEACH HAIR

Q. "Please put in the paper how to bleach the hair on my arms. It is getting very noticeable."

A. Make a mixture of peroxide and household ammonia in these proportions: four drops of ammonia to three tablespoons of peroxide. Pat this on with cotton and let it dry.

Q. "I am 14 years old, stand 5 feet tall and weigh 135 pounds. I have a very large frame but I weigh far over what I should. I have finally come to dieting and would like to know what my measurements and weight should be, and would appreciate it if you would suggest some exercises. My measurements are bust 35, waist 27 and hips 37 inches."

A. You have remarkably well-proportioned measurements for one of your age — in fact they are just about perfect. However, you are a lot overweight in spite of a large frame. In fact you are so much overweight that I think you should see your family physician and reduce under his guidance. Do not procrastinate because you will be much happier and enjoy life lots more if you lose those extra pounds.

ALWAYS YAWNING

Q. "I am constantly yawning and can't seem to help it. What causes this and what can I do to curb this habit?"

A. You may have low blood pressure. Sometimes nervous tension makes you crave more air. I suggest that you see a physician for a check-up.

Q. "I am almost 15 years old and I think I'm fat. I am 5 feet 4 inches tall and weigh 127 pounds. I have an average build. How much should I weigh?"

A. You should not weigh more than about 116 pounds.

Sturdy Enough

White fabric gloves, whether of cotton or nylon, generally are sturdy enough to be laundered in a machine. Don't be afraid to tackle particularly soiled finger tips with a brush. Use a well-lathered nail brush.

Program Presented at Malkim

Malkim school children presented the annual Christmas program at the December meeting of Malkim PTA Thursday. The program opened with instrumental music by A. R. Welton.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Ronald Gilmore directed a play, "The Christmas Wish." Presented in operetta fashion, the play was interspersed with musical numbers by choruses of first, second and third grade pupils, directed by Mrs. Royal Exline. Featured were solos by Paul Pfieffer and Janie Coote, also a duet by Melinda Zusack and Tom Williams.

★ ★ ★

Candlelight Gives Holiday Mood to Omega Alpha

A candlelight supper in a setting of burning Yule logs in the Franklin road home of Mrs. William C. McRath ushered in the holiday season for Omega Alpha sorority.

Assisting were Mrs. George Henry Ferguson and Mary Jane Fought.

Highlight was a jazz concert presented by two area percussion and bass artists.

Performing poodles were the center of attention when Oakland County youngsters who receive medical care through the Out-Patient Clinic at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital enjoyed a Christmas party open house Thursday.

Out Patient Clinic Children Feted

Oakland County children who receive medical care through the Out Patient clinic at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital were feted at a Christmas party open house Thursday afternoon.

Sponsored by the hospital's auxiliary, the annual affair was held in the nurses' home auditorium on Fulton street.

★ ★ ★

Youngsters of all ages in costume presented several ballet and dance selections. Employes and children joined in singing Christmas carols.

They Travel 8-10 Miles a Day

Take Care of Your Feet With Shoes, Exercise

Remember, good foot health starts with the shoes you wear. To avoid foot aches, foot specialists recommend that your shoes be made entirely of leather. Because of its resiliency, leather in the upper part of the shoe makes your feet feel free while still giving plenty of support. And in addition to being light on your feet, leather soles absorb the pounding your feet take from the eight to 10 miles you cover during the average day.

TRY THESE

To tone up your feet, here are a few exercises that'll do the trick if practiced for just a few minutes a day:

Curl and uncurl your toes, with shoes on or off. This strengthens muscles that normally support your metatarsal arch, and break down adhesions — invisible but harmful bands of fibrous tissue.

Walk on tiptoe as long as possible, before falling back on the feet. This exercise should be done with feet toeing in—it's good for the toes and also for developing balance.

Stand on one foot with toes placed straight ahead. Curl the other foot behind the standing ankle. Balance for one minute, then do the same on the other foot.

PICK UP FOR FEET

Finally, here's a foot treat that everyone in the family will enjoy — it'll keep feet healthy and improve circulation:

With a hand shampoo spray, spray your feet three minutes with hot water, then one minute with cold. Keep alternating for about 10 minutes, finishing with the cold. You can use the foot shower as a pick-up at the end of the day before dinner or for relaxing just before going to bed.

Women's Editor

Why do today's women wear hobble skirts and needle heels?

They may think they are selecting the latest fashions by their own free will, but actually they are victims of an ancient plot by the male sex, says Lawrence Langner, noted playwright, director of the Theatre Guild and author of a new book, "The Importance of Wearing Clothes." Says he:

"The differentiation in clothing between men and women arose from the male's desire to assert superiority over the female and to hold her to his service. This he accomplished through the ages by means of special clothing which hampered or handicapped the female in her movements."

Watch a woman trying to get into a taxicab in one of this season's hobble skirts and you'll see what he means. Watch her wobbling along a city sidewalk in a pair of stiletto heels, and the point is apparent. It would be much simpler for the ladies just to stay at home, which is what men have had in mind all the time.

Langner notes that from earliest times men's clothing has permitted freedom of action while women's garb has been designed to hamper her movements. He says:

"The female was forced to wear hampering skirts and dresses . . . In this way the male covered her and hobbled her at the same time. Later on he handicapped her still further in other ways, such as by dresses with hampering trains and by high-heeled shoes which made walking a kind of acrobatic feat."

In ancient China, where women customarily wore pantaloons, Langner points out that other means were adopted to hinder movement — their feet were bound, to make it impossible for them to wander far from the home fires.

Look at women's clothing through the ages. Rock paintings dating from 10,000 B.C. show prehistoric men wearing short pants and women wearing long skirts. In ancient Egypt, Greece and Rome both men and women wore robes, says Langner, but the men's usually were short, the women's long.

At various periods of history women have worn stilts on their shoes — a custom which has evolved into the high-heeled shoe of modern times.

There were the hoop skirts of Civil War days, the bustles and dust-ruffles of the gay 90s, the constricting corsets and multiple petticoats of the early 1900s. All worn in the name of fashion, but actually dictated by the scheming male, says Langner.

He notes with some concern the modern revolt of women against hampering dress, which began with the flapper era of the 1920s, when women shortened their skirts, cut their hair and rolled their stockings. Then came the era of slacks and shorts, introduced in the 1930s by Marlene Dietrich and still going strong. He cautions:

"Watch out for women! In our modern civilization some of them make far better men than we men do. And men hold on to your trousers, or you may end up wearing skirts!"

BUTTER HORNS
By Mrs. Russel Hare

2 packages yeast
¼ cup sugar
1 cup scalded milk
1 teaspoon salt
3 eggs
½ cup butter or margarine
4½ cups sifted flour

Mix yeast with sugar and let stand 20 minutes to dissolve. Add scalded milk to salt and butter and cool to lukewarm. Add yeast. Add beaten eggs. Beat in flour.

Put dough in a greased bowl that has stood in the refrigerator until is iced. Cover and let rise in refrigerator until dough is doubled.

Divide dough in 4 parts. Roll each on a floured board to a thin circle. Spread with melted butter. Cut each round in 8 wedges. Starting with the wide end, roll each wedge into a crescent shape, tucking the end under. Place on a greased sheet and let rise double. Bake 15 to 20 minutes in 375-degree oven This dough may be kept in refrigerator for several days.

Renault Is High on Sports Model

Hoping New Caravella Will Make Car Tops as U.S. Import Seller

DETROIT (UPI)—Renault officials said today they hope a new sports car, the Caravella, will help their firm become the top seller of imported cars in the United States next year.

Renault introduced the Caravella at simultaneous showings in 18 major cities in the U.S. Wednesday.

"With the Caravella, we'll be hard to catch," said Jay F. Walter, general manager of Lake States Imports, Inc., and Integrity Imports, Inc., Midwest Renault distributors.

"Until now, we've been handling only the regular passenger cars, and Renault sells more of these than anyone else in the import car business.

GAP CLOSING

"Despite the fact that our nearest competitor's (Volkswagen) sales total has included sports cars (Karmann Ghia) as well as passenger cars, we've still been able to close the gap and gain first place in September—on passenger car sales alone."

Walter, host for the Detroit showing of the Caravella, said it would "increase showroom traffic and stimulate sales of the Dauphine."

The Caravella will be available in three models—a hardtop coupe, a softtop convertible and a convertible with a detachable hard top and a folding soft top.

The Caravella engine, developed from the standard Dauphine 32-horsepower engine, produces 40-horsepower and is the most powerful ever built by Renault for a passenger car imported into this country.

Gasoline economy is expected to be comparable to that of the Dauphine.

About Wilson and Eisenhower

Headlines Same After 40 Years

WASHINGTON (UPI) — "President Hailed by Big Crowd in Turkey After Trip From Rome . . . Talks With Pope at the Vatican . . . Asks 'Worldwide War Against Hunger' . . ."

"Trip to Rome a Triumph . . . Confers With Pope . . . An Immense Crowd Welcomes President With the Greatest Enthusiasm . . . Calls for Millions to Check Starvation."

These also are newspaper headlines written during the visit of an American President overseas.

If they appear to have been written about the same event, it's just a case of history repeating itself. The first group came from newspapers published last week; the others from microfilm files in the Library of Congress, dated January 1919.

In one, the traveling President is Dwight D. Eisenhower; in the other, Woodrow Wilson.

A comparison of newspapers published 41 years apart points up a series of similarities between Eisenhower's current good will tour and the trip Wilson made after the World War I armistice.

Both were en route to important meetings in Paris—Eisenhower to the pre-summit Western conference and Wilson to the four-power Peace Congress.

Both were hailed as symbols of the world's hopes for peace in the capitals and byways of the nations they visited. Both received popular acclaim that far exceeded expectations.

After arriving in France in January 1919, Wilson set out to visit Rome. He was cheered along the way by French and Italian crowds with almost hysterical enthusiasm.

Newspaper accounts tell how "mountaineers and villagers swarmed from the hills and valleys to pay homage to America"—shouting "Vivas" and waving hats, handkerchiefs and flags as Wilson passed.

Gen. Schriever Says Warning Net Lacking

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Lt. Gen. Bernard A. Schriever, head of the Air Research and Development Command, says that present U.S. warning systems are "not quite good enough" to meet the threat of a "possibly decisive surprise attack."

He indicated he did not believe the warning system would be adequate until it includes an operating communications satellite.

Revives Safety Project

MUSKEGON (UP) — Muskegon County's crusade for safety program, founded in 1953, has been revived under leadership of its originators headed by retired Muskegon Chronicle editor C. D. McNamee as chairman. The group seeks to slash the toll of highway accidents and deaths.

Bradley Line Closes Lakes Sailing Season

ROGERS CITY (UP) — The eight ships of the Bradley Transportation Line are scheduled to close the 1959 sailing season this week, the line said.

The line said five ships would lay up at Rogers City and the other three at other ports.

CHICAGO (UP)—The shotgun slaying of Roger Touhy only 23 days after his release from Stateville Prison ended the career of one of the nation's most notorious Prohibition Era gang leaders.

A pair of shotguns wielded by two men cut down the diminutive 61-year-old leader of the one-time "Terrible Touhys" Wednesday night as he and a bodyguard mounted the steps of Touhy's temporary residence on Chicago's west side.

Gangland apparently had waited more than 25 years to avenge itself on the aging gang lord who had outlived his bitter foe of the Prohibition Era—Al Capone.

Touhy came out of prison Nov. 24, exactly 24 years and 9 months from the day he was imprisoned for a kidnaping he claimed he did not commit.

The story of the Touhys—Roger and his five brothers—is one of violence and crime, a saga of the Prohibition Era gang wars that seems incredible today.

It included murder, alcohol running, kidnaping, bank robbery, train robbery and a host of other crimes.

The six Touhy boys were the sons of James, a respected Chicago policeman. Their mother died in a fire. The father found his sons impossible to handle.

Four of the sons, including Roger, died by the gun.

James Jr., 17, was shot to death in a robbery attempt in 1917. John was slain in 1927 in the gang war between the Touhys and the old Capone mob. Joe Touhy was shot to death two years later.

Only one of the brothers, Eddie, died a natural death, in 1945. The only survivor of the six brothers is Tommy, nearing his 70s, a semi-invalid last reported living somewhere in Arizona. Tommy was released from Leavenworth Penitentiary in 1947 after serving 11 years for a Minneapolis robbery.

For years, the elder Touhy brothers, Roger and Tommy, together with a gang of criminals, ruled the suburban territory northwest of Chicago, brewing and distributing beer during prohibition days and frequently engaging in robbery and kidnaping at the same time.

ROGER BOSSED

Their ruthless methods of operation earned for them the sobriquet "The Terrible Touhys." Roger, soft-spoken and slight of build—he was about 5 feet 6 inches in height—dominated the gang.

For several years the Touhys had a working agreement with the Capone gang, each mob holding its activities within certain boundaries. But after Capone was sent to prison for income tax evasion in 1932, the agreement was broken and open gang war existed. Numerous gang slayings resulted.

To defend himself against inroads of the Capones, Roger surrounded himself with desperate men. His gang included at times the notorious Pretty Boy Floyd, Basil (The Owl) Ganghart, Willie Sharkey and others, then widely known.

With the repeal of prohibition, the gang concentrated on robbery and kidnaping.

Among the numerous crimes charged to the Touhys were these:

Chicago—The kidnaping of John (Jake the Barber) Factor on July 1, 1933. Roger Touhy, Gus Schaefer, Al Kator and Basil Banghart convicted and sentenced to 99 years in prison.

St. Paul—Kidnaping of William Hamm Jr., St. Paul brewer, on June 15, 1933. Roger Touhy, Schaefer, Willie Sharkey and Edward McFadden acquitted. Sharkey committed suicide in jail.

Charlotte, N.C.—A $105,000 mail robbery on Nov. 15, 1933. Isaac Costner, Banghart and Ludwig Schmidt convicted and sentenced to 30 to 36 years.

Other crimes attributed to the Touhys included a $78,417 mail robbery on Jan. 3, 1933 in Minneapolis and a $200,000 mail robbery in Sacramento, Calif., in 1933. In addition they were accused of murdering a Chicago saloon owner, shooting up the office of a Chicago teamsters local in an effort to seize control of the union, and half a dozen Chicago bank robberies, all in 1933.

The breakup of the Touhy mob commenced with their capture and trial for the kidnaping of Factor, a one-time Chicago barber who became wealthy through questionable deals that later got him into trouble.

Grant Dr. Sabin Antipolio Funds

March of Dimes Money Given for Research With Oral Vaccine

CINCINNATI, Ohio (UPI) — The National Foundation Thursday granted Dr. Albert B. Sabin another $123,608 for the Polish-born scientist's battle to eradicate polio from the face of the earth.

The March of Dimes money will be used to experiment with a new set of strains—"cold mutants"—for Sabin's live-virus polio vaccine. It also will finance completion of a mass vaccine test at Toluca, Mexico.

There the University of Cincinnati scientist and his associates gave 25,000 children the oral vaccine during Aug. 10-13. Before the vaccine was given, there were 30 cases of paralytic polio in the city of 75,000. There has not been a single case since.

The grant for 1960 brings to 1½ million dollars the total Dr. Sabin has received for his vaccine experiments. The live-virus vaccine has been given to more than 12 million people in the Soviet Union alone.

But it has not yet been approved by the U. S. Public Health Service to replace Salk vaccine in this country. Dr. Sabin has requested such approval.

Sabin said the Toluca experiment is aimed at possible eradication of polio among populations of poor sanitation and hygiene in subtropical and tropical regions of the world. More than 70 per cent of one- and two-year-old children in such areas have intestinal infections at any given time—including polio viruses.

The battle plan at Toluca is to feed a mixture of all three types of the Sabin vaccine to all children, newborn to 10 years of age, within one four-day period.

YMCA Carolers Will Sing for the Sick and Aged

Carolers from the YMCA will remember the ill and the aged.

A group of boys and girls will sing carols Saturday night at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital and at Evergreen Rest & Convalescence Home, 54 Seneca St.

The annual YMCA Christmas party for children in the Youth Department program will be 7-8:30 p.m. Monday. Only 'Y' members will be invited.

Activities will include a Christmas movie, carol singing, refreshments and games.

Price of admission will be an item of canned goods to go in a holiday basket for a needy family at Christmastime, said Robert Wisdom of the 'Y' Youth Department.

It's Christmas Everywhere on TV

Network Tinsel Jingles

NEW YORK (UPI) — Video baubles suited to the Christmas spirit are being dangled before the holiday-preoccupied viewing public this weekend and all of next week.

TONIGHT:

A Bell Telephone special on NBC-TV will feature a ballet by Agnes De Mille, "Cherry Tree Carol," and Christmas music by Rosemary Clooney, opera stars Lise Della Casa and Giorgio Tozzi, among others.

SATURDAY:

A one-hour special on ABC-TV, prepared by Yale University and called, "Christmas and Christianity in a Shrinking World," will be seen in the afternoon.

The ABC-TV nighttime offers

The ABC-TV nighttime schedule offers seasonal flavoring to the Dick Clark Show, John Gunether's High Road and Lawrence Welk's Dancing Party. The CBS-TV western, Wanted — Dead or Alive, repeats a Yuletide adventure featuring Steve McQueen and Jay North.

SUNDAY:

Benjamin Britten's "Cantata for St. Nicholas," will be presented on CBS-TV in the afternoon. Other afternoon shows with a Christmas message are: Bishop James A. Pike discussing "What Christmas Carols Tell Us," the University Glee Club appearing on Johns Hopkins File 7, a special production of "Pinocchio" on the Paul Winchell Show and a repeat of a Lone Ranger episode, all on ABC-TV.

The Sunday Showcase on NBC-TV offers, "After hours," a play that touches on holiday parties. The Loretta Young Show will present, "Christmas Stopover." The Ed Sullivan Show on CBS-TV offers noted performers in varied Christmas songs. Other CBS-TV shows, Dennis the Menace and the George Gobel Show, will be involved with the holiday, too.

MONDAY:

Steve Allen on NBC-TV will feature Christmas carols by Gene Autry. Shirley Temple's Storybook special on ABC-TV offers a musical treat for the kiddies: "Mother Goose." The CBS-TV series, Father Knows Best, will repeat a seasonal story called "The Angel's Sweater." Hennesey, starring Jackie Cooper on CBS-TV, goes into its first Christmas with an appropriate story.

TUESDAY:

Christmas Startime, an hour-long colorcast on NBC-TV, will consist of Christmas music performed by Marion Anderson, Leonard Bernstein and the New York Philharmonic, The St. Paul Cathedral Boys' Choir of London and the Schola Cantorum. On CBS-TV, Red Skelton presents his adaptation of O. Henry's "The Cop and the Anthem," and the Garry Moore Show will feature the songs of Mahalia Jackson. The Many Loves of Dobie Gillis, another CBS-TV show, also will have a Christmas theme.

WEDNESDAY:

The three networks will televise the annual White House Christmas tree lighting ceremony from 5 to 5:30 p.m. (EST). Wagon Train, the popular NBC-TV western, will present, "The St. Nicholas Story" and Perry Como's hour will feature a Christmas party for children. Christmas themes highlight CBS-TV's series, Men Into Space and ABC-TV's Ozzie and Harriet.

THURSDAY:

Buster Keaton portrays Santa Claus on ABC-TV's Donna Reed Show. The Pat Boone Show on ABC-TV will offer Christmas music. ABC-TV also will present the service from the Church of the Ascension in New York City, followed by midnight Mass from the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, D.C.

The 10th annual presentation of "Amahl and the Night Visitors" will be seen on NBC-TV. The Ernie Ford Show will honor Christmas and, at midnight (EST), NBC-TV will carry the Christmas Eve Mass from St. Patrick's Cathedral in New York. On CBS-TV, the Betty Hutton Show has a Christmas play.

"The Silver Whistle," a comedy in keeping with the spirit of the day, is the Playhouse 90 production and, in addition, CBS-TV will present Christmas music by the United Nations Singers, followed by the "Vigil of Christmas" service from the National Cathedral in Washington and Christmas music from St. George Catholic Church in St. Louis.

FRIDAY, CHRISTMAS DAY:

Walt Disney's ABC-TV hour will offer "Alice in Wonderland." The NBC-TV schedule includes a full-hour color special, "The Night of Christmas," originating in Hollywood and a half-hour program, "Christmas Night on Temple Square," featuring the 340-voice choir of the Mormon Tabernacle in Salt Lake City, Utah.

Call Escape of Seamen a Miracle

The distress call was heard in San Francisco. Then silence.

Fifteen crewmen of the Guam Pioneer scurried into two lifeboats and rowed desperately to escape the sinking ship's deadly whirlpool.

They watched the 3,500 - ton freighter, laden with scrap iron, slip under the water. They were about 340 miles southwest of Los Angeles.

The crew, including Americans, Cubans, Greeks and Spaniards, drifted in lifeboats for eight hours.

A heavy fog hung low, but two low - flying Coast Guard planes pierced the mist and sighted the lifeboats.

Another Navy vessel, the USS Picket, took the seaman aboard for the long trip back to San Francisco.

Antiwaste Body Sought by Lodge

Says His Committee Saved State a Million in Its 6-Month Search

LANSING (AP)—Senate investigators today called on the Legislature to set up a permanent committee to look for waste in state government.

Sen. H. Harvey Lodge (R-Oakland County), chairman, said his committee saved the state more than a million dollars in a six-month search for unnecessary government expenditures. A permanent committee, he said, could save many millions more.

The waste - hunters, submitting their report to the Senate, said they:

Promoted consolidation of Detroit and Wayne County Welfare Departments.

The committee said its "most amazing" find was an attitude by many state department heads, "that they could do anything with the funds the Legislature would provide." This, they said, is a "dangerous trend" in handling of public money.

★ ★ ★

The group also suggested possible creation of a State Building Department to supervise all state construction work, further study of "indiscriminate" use of state autos, a closer study of welfare programs and elimination of "political gravy" in the public administrator's division of the Attorney General's Office.

MSU Seeks to Start a Medical Center

EAST LANSING (AP)—Plans for a proposed medical center at Michigan State University, including a college of medicine and medical research center, were unveiled here yesterday.

The physical plant itself would cost 20 million dollars. It was estimated 10 million dollars a year, about 75 per cent of the money to come from the state general fund, would be needed to run the facility.

It was proposed that MSU ask the Legislature for the downtown Lansing Boys Vocational School property for the center. The correctional school eventually will be moved to a new facility at Whitmore Lake, near Ann Arbor.

The recommendation was contained in a faculty committee report given to the MSU Board of Trustees. President John A. Hannah concurred with the report and asked trustees to do everything they could to secure the vocational school site for the university.

Waterford Twp. Driver Unhurt as Car Hits 4 Others, Runs Wild

A Waterford Township motorist lost control of his car on M59 last night, struck four other cars, knocked down a gas pump, drove into a field — and stepped from his car without suffering a scratch.

Pontiac State Police said that Arnold J. Landsparger, 43, of 4850 Maycrest St., was "a very lucky man."

Landsparger told them he was driving west on M59 near Pontiac Lake road, Waterford Township, when a car ahead of him driven by Andrew L. Hollibaugh, 17, of 391 Dover St., Waterford Township, slowed to make a turn into a drive-in restaurant.

Landsparger said he pulled onto the road shoulder to avoid striking the car from behind. His wheels caught in a rut, ripping the steering wheel from his hands.

He struck the Hollibaugh car, and in his anxiety to apply the brakes, stepped on the gas pedal. Landsparger's car shot through the restaurant parking lot, striking three parked cars.

It careened wildly into a gas station next door smashing into a gas pump.

The auto then shot across Pontiac Lake road and finally came to a stop in a field, troopers said. There were no injuries.

Stomach Cancer Kills Christmas Card Boy

HOWELL (UPI) — Little David Daley, a four-year-old, won't see Christmas this year.

The child died at home yesterday. He had been ill for some time of stomach cancer.

Several months ago doctors treating him predicted David wouldn't live until Christmas. Appeals for Christmas cards to the boy brought truckloads of mail to his home.

Funeral service will be Saturday.

Papers Challenging Suppression Rule

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit News today challenged U.S. District Court judges to hold its editor in contempt by disclosing details of a suit four of six judges had ordered suppressed.

The Detroit Times and the Detroit Free Press, in effect, did the same thing.

All three Detroit dailies printed names and some other details in the suit. The News challenged contempt action in a page one editorial entitled "A Freedom Test."

Chief Judge Theodore Levin of the Eastern District of Michigan and three associates joined Wednesday in signing a formal rule authorizing suppression of all details in pending civil lawsuits.

Judge Levin said the judges acted under what he termed "the inherent power" of the court. The rule provides that attorneys may ask the court to suppress a suit and that if any judge so orders, the clerk:

"Shall prevent all persons from having access to any of the papers in the suit, except these persons designated in the suit."

The newspapers reported the suit involves an architectural and engineering firm, differences among its top executives and division of funds. A former bookkeeper for it faces embezzlement charges in state courts.

When its reporter asked the reason for the suppression rule, the News said that Judge Levin replied that attorneys from both sides had requested suppression and "because you raised the question (about with holding facts) in asking about this suit."

The suit had been ordered suppressed when it was filed last Feb. 28. The court then had no written rule.

About 400 people died in the eastern United States during the Great Blizzard of 1888.

PCH Quintet Gets Big Test at Flint Central Tonight

Chiefs Seeking Second Triumph in SVC Action

Indians Big Stumbling Block in Defense of League Title

By BILL CORNWELL

FLINT—There should be at least two good reasons for the Pontiac Central basketball team to desire victory here tonight when the Chiefs tangle with Flint Central at Ballenger Fieldhouse.

The first reason alone should be incentive enough.

It was on this same court last February that the Chiefs lost their only decision of the 1958-59 season, a heartbreaking 53-52 overtime setback at the hands of Flint Central in a game apparently all wrapped up.

PCH blew an eight-point lead in the final two minutes. The Indians tied the score on two foul shots with one second remaining, then won the contest in overtime and the Chiefs finished their regular schedule with a 14-1 record.

Coach Art Van Ryzin's cagers are gunning for their 2nd consecutive Saginaw Valley Conference title and 3rd in the last four years. Flint Central could be a big stumbling block to their ambitions.

Tonight's game will be their final outing until after the holidays when they resume Saginaw Valley warfare on Jan. 8 at home against Bay City Central.

A triumph this evening would enable them to relax on a 2-0 Valley record during the vacation and rest up for the grind still ahead.

Flint Central, which handed Bay City an 82-58 pasting last Friday on opening night in the SVC race, would like to lean back on the same 2-0 record during the holiday recess.

The Indians, PCH and Saginaw currently share the Valley lead with 1-0 records. Like the Chiefs, all other league teams will enjoy a vacation layoff after tonight's action.

Joe Dowdy's Indians will spot PCH an advantage in both height and experience, but they always have been troublesome for the Chiefs and particularly on their own floor where their fast-break attack often works to perfection.

Pontiac, which won its Valley opener last week at PCH with a 56-55 squeaker over Arthur Hill, will be risking a perfect 3-0 record against the Indians. Flint Central's over-all mark is 1-2.

★ ★ ★

The main event begins at 8 p.m.

READY TO FIRE — Gary Wikoff, left, Bill Allen, center, and Ken Johnson will be ready to fire away for Walled Lake when the Vikings entertain once beaten Farmington tonight. The trio has accounted for most of the Walled Lake points led by Allen with 57 while winning one of three.

Loop Play Features Final '59 Cage Slate

An all-out effort before the annual holiday layoff is expected tonight as the prep basketballers around the Oakland County area take part in the last big schedule of 1959.

Pontiac area fans can have their choice of games with Northern, Waterford, St. Michael, St. Fred, Birmingham Seaholm, Clarkston, Lake Orion, Bloomfield Hills and the new Birmingham Groves playing at home. The latter team met Country Day this afternoon at the Seaholm gym.

All but Groves will be involved in league games. Many of the contests will carry considerable importance although it is still early to tell how races are going to wind up.

Northern, with only one good showing for four starts, seeks its second Inter-Lakes victory at home against winless Berkley. Waterford, now 2-1 after Tuesday's walloping, tries to advance to 2-0 in the loop by beating Southfield at home. Walled Lake entertains favored Farmington in a make-or-break tussle for the Vikings.

Seaholm will be starting Eastern Michigan play following a split of outside games by playing Hazel Park. Ferndale and East Detroit will tangle in a big one while Port Huron vs Royal Oak Kimball rounding out that schedule.

Clarkston is 0-3 including two at home where the Wolves are supposed to be unbeatable. The Wolves will host Milford, also off to a slow start. Bloomfield Hills seeks an upset of Northville in the other local Wayne-Oakland tussle.

A battle for first place is set for Livonia where Holly and Clarenceville match 2-0 records. West Bloomfield attempts to pull another surprise at Brighton.

Troy has moved into the driver's seat for Oakland B honors and should finish this part of the season 3-0 by whipping Oak Park. Lake Orion tries to keep its hopes alive at home against Clawson. Fitzgerald should have too much for Madison. Orion, Fitzgerald and Avondale currently share 2nd. The Jackets are through until January.

Ortonville fans will learn how good their team is tonight when perennial South Central champion Imlay City visits the Blackhawk court. Ortonville has showed excellent scoring punch in three triumphs. North Branch meets Millington in the other league affair.

Anchor Bay and Armada share the Southern Thumb lead but will have trouble staying unbeaten. The Bay boys will be guests of tough Dryden while Armada is at home against Brown City, New Haven goes to Memphis and Almont travels to Capac.

In other games, up-and-down Rochester plays at Lakeview, Romeo and Oxford do battle at the Wildcat gym, Lapeer could get initial win as host to Davison. Royal Oak Dondero takes on Monroe, Shrine entertains Redford St. Mary, Lamphere plays its faculty, Farmington OLS is at Ann Arbor St. Thomas and Roseville vs Mt. Clemens.

★ ★ ★

Rochester has dropped two straight after a good opening showing. Romeo has yet to win. Lapeer keeps improving. Another Dondero victory could give the Oaks momentum for a big year.

★ ★ ★

Except for one or two games, the remaining prep cage action for 1959 will be in several area holiday tournaments. Bloomfield Hills, Holly, Brighton, Troy, Fitzgerald, South Lyon, L'Anse Creuse, Milford, Clawson, Farmington and Southfield will be among the schools taking part in meets between Christmas and New Year's.

SET SHAMROCK — Art Robak will be setting his aim on the hoops at Madison Junior High tonight as St. Michael hosts St. Benedict in an important SCL contest. Each team is 2-0.

Surprise Oliver Paces Wing Win

Scores Twice in 3-2 Victory Over Chicago

Aldcorn Starts Rally From 2-0 Deficit Late in 2nd Period

AP Wirephoto

IN THE GLOVE — Glenn Hall, Chicago Black Hawk goalie, waits with open glove to grab this shot by Red Wing Barry Cullen (8) for a first period save in their game last night at the Olympia. Elmer Vasko is the Hawk moving in on Cullen. The Wings defeated the Hawks, 3-2, for their 4th straight victory.

DETROIT (AP) — Murray Oliver was good enough as an infielder to get a baseball contract from the Cleveland Indians' organization, and good enough in hockey to make the Detroit Red Wings' club after only one year in the minor leagues.

Baseball's loss was Detroit's gain as far as the 22-year-old forward is concerned. Oliver never quite got over a broken arm suffered while playing in the Cleveland farm system, so gave up the game in favor of hockey.

When he clicked for a pair of goals in last night's 3-2 victory over the Chicago Black Hawks, it marked the second time the youngster has come through with a two-goal performance.

He is only 14 games out of the minor leagues, but already has scored seven goals. He got the tying goal and the winning goal last night, enabling the Wings to run their unbeaten string to six.

Oliver turned pro a year ago and in his first full season, scored 67 points for the Edmonton Flyers, Detroit's top farm club. He came to camp this year but coach Sid Abel and general manager Jack Adams felt he needed more seasoning.

"He played well in camp," said Abel, "but we just didn't feel he was quite ready. Back at Edmonton he was terrific. He was a crowd-pleaser and was scoring well, and we hated to take him away from that club. But the Red Wings needed a lift and we thought maybe Oliver could provide it. We're not sorry now."

Oliver described by Abel as a smart hockey player who diagnoses situations and anticipates his teammates' moves, is fast becoming a favorite with Red Wing fans. The Detroit club is running a surprising second in the National Hockey League race and the fans know Oliver has been a key man in the recent surge.

Oliver's first goal tied the game at 2-2 at 8:30 of the final period. He took a pass from Gary Aldcorn and scored from 12 feet.

Eight minutes later, taking another pass from Aldcorn, the rookie swept past the Chicago nets and tossed a shot into the far corner past the surprised Glenn Hall.

The Hawks had rushed out in front 2-0 on goals by Bobby Hull in the first period and Eric Nesterenko in the second. The Hawks outplayed the Wings decisively in the first two periods.

It was a bouncing goal by Aldcorn that shook some life into the Detroit club.

10 Penalties Follow Fight

Canadiens End Slump, 8-2

By The Associated Press

Bedlam broke out in Montreal last night with referee Eddie Powers assessing 24 penalties—including 10 after a second-period free-for-all that involved all the players on the ice except the goalies.

After the brawl was over, the Canadiens had drubbed the Toronto Maple Leafs 8-2 to snap a six-game National Hockey League winless streak.

Billy Harris of Toronto and Jean-Guy Talbot of Montreal ignited the big fracas. Then football player Gerry James, playing his first game of the season for the Leafs, and the Canadiens' Dickie Moore joined in.

Toronto's Tim Horton and Montreal's Jean Beliveau started swinging and scuffling. Both went to the ice along with linesmen Dave Clutsam, who was trying to separate the combatants.

Horton and Beliveau drew major penalties for fighting. Harris, Talbot, James and Moore, along with Johnny Wilson and Allan Stanley of the Leafs and Boom Boom Geoffrion and Tom Johnson of the Canadiens, all received minor penalties for roughing.

All 10 players were bunched into the overcrowded penalty box. The mass banishment were believed unprecedented in the league.

Of the 24 penalties over-all, 13 went to the Leafs. The record for more penalties in a game is 36, set by Montreal and Toronto on Dec. 9, 1953—26 coming in the third period.

Eight different players accounted for the Canadiens' goals as league-leading Montreal posted its first victory since Nov. 29. The Leafs went down to their fifth straight setback.

Ted Williams Shows Income of $83,000

The 41-year-old home run star said the Sox paid him only $60,000. He said his income from all sources was $83,000.

The Miami Herald asked Red Sox General Manager Bucky Harris about Williams' salary statement and quoted Harris as replying: "Well, I guess he knows what he was getting."

Williams said he hadn't received a 1960 contract and doubted whether injuries and age would let him play.

Williams made his statement during an appearance before Circuit Judge George Holt, in opposing an increase from $100 to $250 per month in support for his daughter.

Celtics Make It 10 Straight

Boston Trips Knicks by 137-126 to Lead by Five Games

By The Associated Press

The rampaging Boston Celtics are riding the crest of a 10-game winning streak in the National Basketball Assn., but they're still a long way from the record for most consecutive victories.

The Celts kept their skein intact by defeating the New York Knicks 137-125 in the only game played last night. In gaining its 23rd victory in 27 starts, Boston opened up a five-game lead over runnerup Philadelphia in the eastern division.

The Washington Caps of the old Basketball Assn. of America, the forerunner of the present NBA, set the mark of 17 in a row in the 1946-47 season.

Tommy Heinsohn and Bob Cousy supplied most of the scoring impetus as the Celts beat the hapless Knicks for the fifth consecutive time. Heinsohn sank 32 points and Cousy 31, but New York's Richie Guerin captured individual laurels with a 42-point harvest.

By BILLY WELU
THE CURVE

There are those who will argue about the sameness or difference between the hook and curve.

Some say a hook is a small, sharp-breaking curve. Others say it's only speed that constitutes the difference.

The curve is a slower delivery and rolls more. The curve covers more alley than the hook, because of the wide arc. You deliver it from a different position on the approach.

To roll a curve, the thumb has to be held in a 9 o'clock position, instead of 10 or 11 o'clock for the hook. It must be delivered from a stance closer to the center of the approach, although as in the hook, aim is taken at a spot or line about 10 to 12 inches in from the right.

The chief difference is in the degree of speed that causes the slower curve to roll and the faster hook to turn, and in the angle.

You can argue, too, about which delivery is better. I like the hook because it is easier to control. You can hold a tighter line with a hook ball, and don't have to worry about bringing the ball back from way out. An effective hook need only break the width of three or four boards on the lane.

The curve requires tremendous accuracy and knowledge of alley conditions. It will "take" on some alleys and fail on others. It is not as easy to adjust to alleys as a hook because it has a tendency to lose the working stuff needed to drive through for those important strikes.

Lions Expect to Renew 2 Contracts Today

He's a Free Agent Now

Toronto, Houston Pros Trying to Land Rote

TORONTO (AP)—The Toronto Argonauts would like to have Tobin Rote playing quarterback for them next season.

But the Canadian team, coached by former Michigan State aide Lou Agase, says it has only a remote possibility of luring Rote north of the border.

Rote technically is no longer the property of the Detroit Lions. He may sign with a Canadian team, one in the new American football League or any National Football League team he wishes.

Agase plans to huddle with Rote in Detroit next week.

"Rote apparently wanted to become a free agent for personal reasons having to do with his business," said Lew Hayman, managing director of the Argos. "We understand he'll play with Detroit next season if he plays pro football at all."

The Houston Oilers of the AFL also are known to be seeking Rote. The veteran quarterback played his college ball at Rice in Houston.

Rote never signed a 1959 contract with the Lions. He played with them under an option on his 1958 pact. He became a free agent last Sunday when the Lions ended their season.

It is understood Rote wishes to play next year for a team near Detroit if he doesn't return to the Lions. He resides and has a business in Detroit.

The Buffalo Bills of the AFL also reportedly are interested in Rote. Buster Ramsey, a Lion assistant until Wednesday, is head coach of the Bills. Ramsey may be able to convince Rote Buffalo is near enough Detroit to permit the quarterback to keep track of his business during the season.

Toronto, meanwhile, placed quarterback M. C. Reynolds of the Chicago Cardinals on its negotiation list. The Argos believe the Cardinals may try to get Reynolds waived out of the NFL because they plan to use George Izo of Notre Dame at quarterback next season.

George Wilson Almost Certain to Get Rehired

Wilson seems to have weathered the storm of a second straight losing season and a reported rift between two factions of the 13-man board.

The board's six-member executive committee last Friday recommended Wilson be retained for the 1960 National Football League season. The committee likewise suggested, Edwin J. Anderson, target of criticism from some directors, be given another term as president and general manager.

It's expected both Wilson and Anderson will be retained on a one-year-basis.

The directors may start the processing for a new defensive aide to Wilson at today's meeting. Buster Ramsey, defensive coach for eight years under Buddy Parker and later Wilson, resigned Wednesday. Ramsey became head coach of the Buffalo Bills of the rival American Football League.

But since then Lion fortunes have been on a steady decline. The Lions had a 4-7-1 record last year in defense of their championship. They slipped to 3-8-1 this season and wholesale rebuilding is in store for next year.

Prep Front

By BILL CORNWELL

Another Michigan high school football coach has been promoted to the collegiate coaching ranks. The latest one to take the big step upwards is Vince Carillot of East Lansing.

Carillot, who has enjoyed phenomenal success as head grid mentor at East Lansing High School, Thursday was named to the Michigan State University staff to replace the departing Lou Agase.

Agase, line coach at MSU for five years, resigned last weekend to accept a position as head coach of the Toronto Argonauts in the Canadian professional league.

Several candidates reportedly were under consideration for Agase's vacated post, including one from Duffy Daugherty's native Pennsylvania, but the search ended yesterday with the selection of Carillot.

Under Carillot's coaching, East Lansing has swept to three unbeaten-untied seasons, the last one this year in Class A status, three Twin Valley Conference titles and two mythical state Class B championships.

Two All-State gridders were developed by Carillot, end Art Brandstatter and quarterback Doug Miller, plus many other talented performers. Brandstatter was a promising sophomore this fall for the Spartans and Miller piloted the 1959 East Lansing powerhouse.

Three new faces joined the Spartan staff this year—Danny Boisture, Calvin Stoll and Hank Bullough—after Sonny Grandelius decided to head for Colorado with John Polonchek and Buck Nystrom as his escorts.

Boisture, like Carillot, became an assistant coach at MSU after tremendous success in the prep ranks at Redford St. Mary. His brother Tommy now is riding high as coach of Detroit St. Ambrose, the Motor City champ in 1959.

Doug Weaver, Kansas State; Dan Devine, Missouri; Earle Edwards, North Carolina State; Bob Devaney, Wyoming; Forest Evashevski, who has resigned as Iowa grid boss, and Steve Sebo, deposed Penn coach.

Unless someone else decides to promote himself before next season rolls around, the 1960 MSU staff will consist of Burt Smith, Bill Yeoman, Gordon Serr, Boisture, Stoll, Bullough, Carillot and, of course, Duffy.

NEW MADISON COACH

Speaking of football coaching changes, there will be a new head coach next fall at Madison High School. He's Edmund C. Consolo, who has been Don Scott's assistant for the last two years.

The Board of Education confirmed Consolo's appointment earlier this week. Consolo also will coach the Madison track squad. Scott resigned to become assistant principal of the new high school.

Consolo, 29 years old, stands only 5-4 and weighs 155 pounds. He was a small college All-State halfback at Manchester, Ind., and received honorable mention on Ivy Williamson's NAIA Little All-America team.

Spartans Edge Nebraska

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — Unbeaten Michigan State is having a good time while it can because the outlook is dim once the Big Ten basketball season starts.

The lame-duck Spartans whipped their third straight non-conference foe last night on the start of a four-game Western jaunt. They edged Nebraska 82-80 in double overtime on Horace Walker's 15-foot jump shot in the last second.

Jim Bechinski, a promising sophomore starter, and Bill Pauline, a reserve, were losers in the battle of the books. Some of Gowens' grades have been held up. Bechinski scored six points against Nebraska and Gowens hit for 15.

The Cornhuskers battled from a five-point halftime deficit to tie the Spartans 68-all at the end of regulation time. Each team played it safe in the first five-minute overtime, netting only four points apiece.

Bechinski broke the 72-72 stalemate at the start of the second overtime. Gowens boosted Michigan State's margin to four points with a pair of free throws. He then added a long field goal after Nebraska's Jan Wall had scored a bucket.

The Spartans stalled, waiting for the last shot. Just when it appeared they waited too long and a third overtime would be needed, Walker got the ball. He let loose from the free throw line and the ball swished through just ahead of the final gun. Walker finished with 20 points, one less than Spartan Capt. Lance Olson.

Mikes, Rams Here Tonight

Eaglets Win 3rd Straight

Getting away to a fast start on their holiday vacation, Thursday night, Orchard Lake St. Mary cagers thumped Ferndale St. James 59-43, for their third straight Suburban Catholic League success. They top the loop, at least until after tonight, the only 3-time winner, so far.

Eaglets, all of the squad, leave today for their homes and will be out of practice until just before the Jan. 8 resumption of the league schedule.

St. Michael's entertains top-rated St. Benedict club at Madison Junior High, starting at 8:15 p.m. The Shamrocks shoot for their third straight victory, as do the Ravens.

St. Frederick, loser of one game, aims for a 2nd victory in three starts, against St. Clement, on their own court, at the parish hall. Varsity tilt starts at 8:30.

Eaglets ran a 5-0 lead at the start, last night, on the OL floor, then went cold as the Dales tied it up at 5-5. But not for long, as Glen Hass and Don Duszynski came back, along with Milt Wojtowicz, to pile up a 18-10 first period margin.

OLSM led 30-22 at intermission, then added 14 and 15 counts in the 3rd and 4th frames to solidify their victory. Dales never came closer than seven points after the first half.

Hass fouled out in the 4th frame with three minutes to go, but Larry Sissen carried on OK.

Coach Jim Niebauer and Ravens' mentor, Art Massucci, said today their squads were at full strength for tonight's battle, which will provide a real clue to the hopes for both in the SCL title chase. Both are unbeaten in two starts. Shamrocks will make one change in starters. Art Robak will stay out at the start, with Al Tunny going for him, with Don Mountain at the other forward.

Rams' Gene Wright has decided to start Chuck Guibord, Ted Dobski at forwards, Phil Bieri at the pivot, and Jim Kennedy with hot-shooting little Mike Reed at guards. Crusaders will go as they started in last week's setto.

Liberty Bowl Is Feature of Early Starters

Alabama vs. Penn State on National TV From Philadelphia

By The Associated Press

Alabama (7-1-2) opposes Penn State (8-2) in the Liberty Bowl at Philadelphia. Clemson (8-2) meets Texas Christian (8-2) in the Bluebonnet bout at Houston. And Lenoir Rhyne (10-0) of North Carolina plays Texas A&I (11-1) in the NAIA Holiday Bowl at St. Petersburg, Fla.

CBS will telecast both the Holiday attraction, which starts at 12:30 p.m. (EST) and the Bluebonnet, beginning at 3:30 p.m. (EST). The Liberty Bowl will be seen at 1 p.m. (EST) on NBC.

The Liberty and Bluebonnet bowls are newcomers to post-season events. The promoters of the game, hoping for financial successes and good weather, have lined up four top teams despite keen competition from the established bowls.

TCU was the nation's seventh ranking team in the final Associated Press poll. Alabama was listed 10th, Clemson 11th and Penn State 12th.

The Holiday Bowl, sponsored by the National Assn. of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA), has been billed for the small survivors of a pair of preliminary playoffs.

The Liberty Bowl is expected to draw a crowd of 50,000 to Philadelphia Stadium. Both Alabama and Penn State are reported to be in fine physical shape and the game shapes up as a test of Alabama's strong defense against Penn State's productive offense, headed by Richie Lucas.

The Crimson tide, of the Southeastern Conference, fourth best defensively this season, has allowed only 95 points in 10 games. The Nittany Lions, an Eastern independent, accumulated 255 points in 10 games.

TCU, a co-champion of the Southwest Conference, rules an eight-point favorite to defeat Clemson, winner of the Atlantic Coast conference. Some 70,000 fans are expected at Rice Stadium.

Clemson's offense revolves about quarterback Harvey White. The Horned Frogs' attack is led by Jack Spikes, the Southwest's top rusher. Both teams led their conferences in defense.

The Tigers are 3-3 in previous bowl meetings. TCU holds a 4-5-1 record in past post-season games. Lenoir Rhyne eliminated Southern Connecticut 47-20 and Texas A&I ousted Hillsdale, Mich. 20-0 two weeks ago to gain the NAIA finals. Lenoir Rhyne, placing an 18-game winning streak on the line, is a slight choice. A turnout of 10,000 is expected at Al Lang Field.

Thurston Swimmers Sink Pontiac Northern, 64-32

Detroit Thurston stayed unbeaten in the North Suburban Swim League by defeating Pontiac Northern 64-32 in the PNH pool.

Northern took four firsts in the 10 events led by Bill Ratliff's victories in the 100 yard breaststroke at 1:15.7 and his diving.

Lee Barrie won the other individual event in the 200 yard freestyle in 1:13.7 and the Huskies got their other victory in the 200 yard speed relay with Barrie, Dick, Gould, Rick Stewart and Chuck Gress clocked at 1:52.

Tim Treacy was Thurston's double winner in the 100 yard backstroke and 200 idividual medley in times of 1:06.8 and 2:34.5.

Utica led in its meet 38-33 going into the final two relays which Warren won. Bernie Johnson and John DeShaze were individual double winners for Utica.

Johnson won the 50 freestyle and 100 freestyle and DeShazzo took the 100 butterfly and 200 individual medley.

Unbeaten Illini Meet Ohio U; Indiana Host to Detroit

CHICAGO (UPI)—Eight Big Ten basketball teams, including unbeaten Illinois, meet non-conference opposition tomorrow night.

The Illini, who have beaten Butler, Western Kentucky and Marquette, try for their fourth straight as hosts to Ohio University.

Iowa, which breezed to four straight wins before losing 76-68 to Colorado Monday night, will entertain Oklahoma, and Michigan State will continue its tour westward with a stop at Wyoming.

Minnesota with a 2-2 slate in the tune-up campaign, and Northwestern (1-2) both are at home. The Gophers meet Missouri, the Big Eight team which defeated Indiana last week, and the Wildcats, who lost to Notre Dame in double overtime in their last outing, face Boston University.

Wisconsin will seek its second victory in five starts in a clash with Marquette on the Warriors' court.

Dallas Signs Guard

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Bill Krisher, former All-America guard at Oklahoma, has signed a contract with the Dallas Texans of the American Football League.

Krisher played with Pittsburgh in 1958 but this year asked for and got his release because of injuries. He was assistant coach at Oklahoma.

TOP BILLING — Hailed as the best basketball player to come out of Detroit prep ranks in 20 years, Dave DeBusschere, sophomore star on the U. of D. unbeaten cage team, is getting top billing in collegiate ranks this year. New York writers called DeBusschere the best sophomore they had seen in Madison Square Garden since Oscar Robertson. The Titans, with a 5-0 record, meet Big Ten favorite Indiana at Bloomington Saturday night and then play Boston College, Sunday afternoon at the U. of D. fieldhouse.

Lawrence Tech Romps

DETROIT (AP)— Gene Lawson and 'Cap' Pethers each pitched in 27 points last night for Lawrence Tech as it handed winless Detroit Tech its 10th straight loss 105-92.

Tournament Set Dec. 28-29 at Detroit Court

Western Michigan Seen as Contender Against Titans for Title

DETROIT (UPI) —The proverb says "Youth will be served," but it's the youngsters who will do the serving in the eighth annual Motor City basketball tournament set for Dec. 28-29 at the University of Detroit fieldhouse.

Two of the four teams entered—Western Michigan University and the University of New Mexico—don't even have a senior on the roster.

The host school has two seniors on the squad list, but it is a pair of sophomores on the starting five that provides most of the scoring punch. Fourth entry in the tournament, Valparaiso University, lists four seniors but seldom starts them all.

But the young Western Michigan squad, high scoring at times even though slightly erratic, could be the most exciting team in the tourney. The Broncos, after a loss to Northwestern to open the season, scored 106 points in each of their next two games for runaway wins.

Western has the tallest team in the tournament with four men standing six-feet six-inches or better.

Sam Key is the top returnee from last year, averaging 14.5 points a game, but several of the top scorers from the 1958-59 season are gone. However, a crop of promising sophomores led by 6-7 Ron Emerich and 6-5 Ron Robinson could take up the slack.

Valparaiso has what looks like the solidest team entering the tournament with five lettermen back and three of them sporting double-figure averages for last year. But the Valpos have lost to Purdue, 70-57, while Detroit beat the Boilermakers easily 84-63.

Detroit, which if early games mean anything could wind up among the nation's top quintets this year, will command the Lion's share of attention.

Area Hunters Enjoy Missouri Quail Shooting

Five Pontiac area quail hunters recently enjoyed an unusually successful jaunt in southeast Missouri returning with a bag of more than 200 quail, plus some fat mallard ducks.

The hunting was done in the vicinity of Poplar Bluffs where Fred Edwards, 100 Moreland, reports the quail population was up more than 50 per cent.

Grain Dealings Even Up Again

CHICAGO (AP)—The grain futures market resisted further liquidation today and prices were mostly in a steady to firm range during the first several minutes after a weak opening.

Soybeans, hard hit in yesterday's selling, held gains of up to a cent or more on buying which appeared to include a good volume described as reinstatement of long positions.

Dealings all around, however, were largely evening up of commitments again.

Trade was slow near the end of the first hour with wheat unchanged to ⅝ cent a bushel higher, December $1.96½; corn ⅛ to ⅜ higher, December $1.08⅜; oats unchanged to ¾ higher, December 75⅛; rye unchanged to ¾ lower, December $1.24; soybeans 1 cent lower to ⅞ higher, January $2.09.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government today summoned both sides in the steel labor dispute to new peace meetings here Monday (3 p. m., EST).

★ ★ ★

Director Joseph F. Finnegan of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service said he would resume efforts to bring about a settlement in the eight-month-long contract dispute.

The government suspended mediation efforts Dec. 10 in order to permit officials of the Steelworkers Union to engage in contract bargaining sessions in Chicago with major aluminum producers.

Six-Day Week Due in Many Car Plants

DETROIT (AP) — Ward's Automotive Reports said today that 40 per cent of the nation's car assembly plants will work six days this week to boost output over the 150,000 mark.

Ward's estimated the week's production at a two-year high of 150,492 cars compared with 86,056 last week and 135,965 in the comparable week of 1958.

The statistical agency also predicted January production of 700,000 cars, an all-time record for the month.

This week, Ward's said, all but one of the Chevrolet assembly plants are working six days along with four Buick-Oldsmobile-Pontiac plants and five Ford Motor Co. plants.

Car production so far this year totals 5,375,971 against 4,069,241 at this time one year ago.

Mrs. Knight suffered two broken knees and a fractured hand, and Ganey lacerations of the scalp and neck and a severe concussion. Both were listed in fair condition today.

The others were treated for cuts and bruises and released.

★ ★ ★

The White House, announcing this today, said the Soviet government reported that the four-engined airplane is carrying maple, pine, linden, larch, lilac, pomegranate, birch and cedar plants.

★ ★ ★

Under U. S. plant quarantine regulations the trees and shrubs will be kept temporarily at the U. S. Plant Introduction Station at Glenn Dale, Md. Later they will be planted on the President's farm near Gettysburg, Pa.

Pick Up 2 Survivors of Ontario Air Crash

NORTH BAY, Ont. (AP)—Two survivors have been picked up from the wreckage of two U.S. Air Force planes which crashed in Northern Ontario.

The other three men in the B47 were Lt. Lloyd A. Horn of Boise, Idaho; Lt. Carleton W. Hunt of Oklahoma City and an observer. The fighter pilot was Lt. Gaylor B. Treu of Garner, Iowa.

Stock Market Stays Uneven

The market had a slight edge to the upside at the start when the ticker tape lagged briefly in a spate of heavy dealings. As trading slackened there was slight change in prices. The overall pattern was hardly better than mixed.

Although auto assemblies this week were reported the largest in more than two years, the Big Three automakers managed only small gains while the independents barely changed.

★ ★ ★

Oils were firmer as the Interior Dept. proposed to let West Coast companies import more unfinished oil and the Chase Manhattan Bank issued a moderately optimistic report on the oil industry.

Newport News shipbuilding advanced more than a point then erased most of the gain. The market responded belatedly to news of a $44,500,000 ship construction contract.

Avco raised the dividend to 12½ cents from 10 cents. The stock was active but only fractionally higher.

★ ★ ★

Alcoa added more than a point as the higher price situation in the industry attracted renewed buying.

★ ★ ★

Hercules Powder, a slow starter, picked up about a point. Scientists of the company said they have developed a way to produce chemicals by nuclear energy at competitive costs.

Gag Rule Called Very Dangerous

U.S. Judges Attacked in Newspaper Editorials for Suppression OK

DETROIT (UPI) — Federal judges here came under sharp attack today for their so-called "gag rule" that keeps certain cases from the press and public until they hit the open courtroom.

★ ★ ★

Sen. Thomas H. Hennings Jr., (D-Mo), chairman of the Senate subcommittee on constitutional rights, said he has ordered his staff to "look into" the new rule that cloaks some suit records in secrecy.

Judges Theodore Levin, Ralph M. Freeman, Thomas P. Thornton and Clifford O'Sullivan issued the order Wednesday "in the interest of justice."

★ ★ ★

The editorial, titled "We Give Notice," advised the federal district court of Eastern Michigan to ready a contempt of court citation because "we will challenge it with all the energy and by all the means at our command."

AGAINST IT

The chairman of the freedom of information committee of the American Society of Newspaper Editors called the rule dangerous and unnecessary.

Sevellon Brown, editor of the Providence (RI) Journal, said the rule is "susceptible to all kinds of abuse."

He said the rights of litigants against "irresponsible publication of charges in court suits are already amply protected."

★ ★ ★

On still another front, Fred S. Siebert, director of the division of mass communications at Michigan State University and an authority on freedom of information, said:

"The judges seem to have a new doctrine that action between private parties has no public interest . . . if people want to keep their affairs private, they should carry on their negotiations privately, not in a public court."

Siebert said he was afraid the "gag rule" which permits a judge to suppress records of a suit before trial, "might be extended to cover cases involving public money or public officials."

★ ★ ★

Judge Frank G. Fitzgerald of the Wayne County Circuit Court where they have had a similar rule for many years agreed with Federal Judge Levin that suppression of cases was "an inherent power of the court."

Fatal $100,000 Fire Caused by Sparks

The cause of the $100,000 Monday morning fire in Royal Oak that claimed a man's life was revealed today by Royal Oak Fire Chief Wilfred C. Speas.

★ ★ ★

Having completed his investigation yesterday of the blaze that swept the business corner at Rochester and 13-Mile roads, he blamed it on an overloaded electric circuit.

"Sparks from the circuit ignited wastepaper and cardboard boxes at the rear of the Sherman Drugstore, 3301 Rochester Rd.," said Chief Speas.

SHOP GETS FACELIFTING—Scarlett's Bike and Hobby Shop got a facelifting last week after 18 years in the building at 20 E. Lawrence St. Ernest R. Scarlett and his son Laird are partners in the store that has been in business in Pontiac for more than 30 years. The modern aluminum remodeling was done by the Hartford Roofing Co. at a cost of approximately $1,700 to owner of the building, Gordon Van Camp.

Four Children Abandoned in Darkness

Sheriff Trips Up Delinquent Dad

CENTERVILLE (AP) — St. Joseph County Sheriff Fred E. Lincoln played a hunch.

As a result, William Curtindale, 31, was held in jail here today for authorities in Chicago where he is wanted on a charge of abandoning his four children.

An appeal went out from Chicago yesterday to Michigan police to help locate the parents of the children after the oldest, Karen, 8, said they came from this state.

Sheriff Lincoln recalled that Curtindale, who lives near Sturgis, took two children to welfare officers here recently and asked help. Apparently he was turned down because he is not a legal resident of the county. He has no fixed address, the sheriff said.

DIVORCED 8 MONTHS AGO

"I put two and two together and started looking for Curtindale around Sturgis," the sheriff said.

Undersheriff George Dalman arrested Curtindale at the home of Mrs. Marie Frances Beers, 20, near Sturgis. He said Curtindale gave this account of the children:

Curtindale and his wife were divorced eight months ago. He was awarded custody of the children. They had been living in Arkansas and Oklahoma. He got acquainted with Mrs. Beers through a lonely hearts club while he was working in Brigham, Utah. He brought the children to Sturgis Dec. 4.

Mrs. Beers accompanied him on a trip to Chicago where police said he abandoned the children Wednesday night. He said he was looking for a comfortable place to put them when he saw several homes with lights on and decided to leave the children in the yard of one home. He said Mrs. Beers was asleep in the car and didn't see him abandon the youngsters.

' . . . AND STAY THERE'

Karen knocked at the back door of the Albert Losiniecki residence. Mrs. Losiniecki answered, and the girl said:

"Mommy and daddy told us to go into that yard (the one behind the Losiniecki home) and stay there."

Police took them to a children's home. Karen wasn't able to give any definite information where she lived except to say she and her brothers were driven to Chicago from Michigan and the children thought Mrs. Beers was their mother.

Dalman also questioned Mrs. Beers, but she was not held. He quoted her as saying she and Curtindale, with the children, had driven around Gary, Ind., before arriving in Chicago and that he told her he was looking for an adoption home. She said she was asleep in the car when the children were left behind in Chicago and Curtindale told her he had found a home for the children.

She said she is separated from her husband and has been living with her parents Mr. and Mrs. William Murdick. She is the mother of three children.

Jury in Second Day of Apalachin Debate

NEW YORK (AP) — A federal court jury began its second day of deliberations today in the case of 20 men present at the 1957 Apalachin gathering.

★ ★ ★

The jury of eight men and four women went out yesterday afternoon after Judge Irving R. Kaufman spent 3½ hours outlining the issues.

At 11 p.m., Kaufman ordered the jurors to recess until today.

★ ★ ★

All 20 defendants are charged with conspiracy to obstruct justice by lying to the government about the purpose of the meeting. If convicted, each defendant could receive up to five years in prison and a $10,000 fine. The government contends the meeting was an underworld convention.

Navy's Adm. Wright Will Retire March 1

NORFOLK, Va. (UPI) — The Navy Thursday announced the retirement of Adm. Jerauld Wright, commander of the vast Atlantic fleets of the United States and the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

★ ★ ★

Atlantic Fleet Headquarters said Wright, 61, would step down March 1, 1960. No reason was given for the admiral's retirment. The Navy said Wright's future plans were not known.

Wright's position is second in the Navy only to that of Adm. Arleigh Burke, chief of naval operations, the Atlantic fleet said.

ROMEO—During last night's annual Christmas Concert, the Romeo High School band presented a gift to Judy Engel, 17, a senior, in recognition of her work in making a 10- by 12-foot mural on plastic used as the backdrop for the program.

It will remain on display in the local high school gymnasium for several days, then be transferred to a local store for week-long public viewing.

Loving Owners Keep It Wound

Old Clock Is Evicted

★ ★ ★

"I've tried," said Carroll, "but I can't understand why he likes the clock so well. And why does it have to be on the street? Why doesn't he take it home and put it up in his back yard?"

Said Black: "Different people put values on different things."

Black, an electronics firm worker, said he and his wife bought the clock six months ago "for the simple pleasure of owning it." They paid $25 to a former jeweler, who had tried earlier to sell it to Carroll. Carroll wouldn't buy.

★ ★ ★

Jack Must Talk to Grand Jury

To Tell About 'Loan' for Fixing His Harlem Apartment

NEW YORK (AP) — Manhattan Borough President Hulan E. Jack goes before a grand jury today to tell about the much-publicized remodeling job on his seven-room Harlem apartment.

Jack admitted Thursday that the $5,500 renovation bill was paid for by real estate operator Sidney J. Ungar, who had been seeking sponsorship of a city slum clearance project.

He considered the transaction as only a loan not yet repaid, Jack said.

The jurors want to determine if the deal was intended as a political fix.

Mayor Robert F. Wagner said "it was not a proper act and it is now up to the district attorney to see if there is any violation of the law."

★ ★ ★

Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, the only official who can relieve a borough president, has asked the district attorney for a report on the situation.

At a joint news conference Thursday, Jack and Ungar gave the same version of the remodeling deal.

Ungar said Jack voted against him three times on the clearance project, once as late as two weeks ago.

Finch Would Admit to Shooting of Wife

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Dr. R. Bernard Finch's attorney has offered to stipulate Finch fired the shot that killed his estranged socialite wife.

The proffered stipulation and rejection came to light yesterday when the murder trial of Finch, 42, and his red-haired mistress, Carole Tregoff, 22, was recessed without a seating of a jury until Dec. 28 for the Christmas holidays.

Grant B. Cooper, Finch's attorney, said his proposal Wednesday to stipulate that Finch fired the gun which killed Barbara Finch, 33, July 18 in no way contradicted with Finch's plea of innocent.

Although Cooper refused to elaborate on his plans to defend Finch, court observers took the proffered stipulation to indicate Cooper would plead the shooting was accidental or in self-defense.

The prosecution said its reason for rejecting the stipulation was that it would prefer to let a jury decide on all the facts of Mrs. Finch's death.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY of Francis Harmes who left us Dec. 13, 1957.
Do not ask us if we miss him,
All the world would be like heaven,
Just to see him once again.
Sadly missed by his Mother, Dad & children.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF MY husband Armond Pace, who passed away three years ago December 16th.
He had a kindly word for each,
And died beloved by all;
Some day we hope to meet him,
Some day we know not when,
To clasp his hand in the better land,
Never to part again.

Tradition at Rochester Church

Plan Christmas Pageant

ROCHESTER — Members of the Church School of St. Philip's Episcopal Church will present their traditional Christmas pageant during the 9:15 a.m. service Sunday.

★ ★ ★

Pageant theme is "The World to Christ We Bring." The children will wear native costumes representing nations of the world coming to bring their gifts to the Christ Child in the manger.

The manger scene will be set up in the chancel. Appropriate music will be played to correspond with the nation the particular child is dressed to represent.

At the close, all of the children will come down the aisle bringing their Advent offering and a white gift to place at the foot of the Manger.

HELP BUY A REACTOR

The children's Advent offering this year will go toward the purchase of an atomic reactor for St. Luke's Hospital in Tokyo, Japan.

The white gifts of clothing and other needs will be sent to the Episcopal Mission in Ft. Defiance, Ariz., for needy Navajo Indians.

At 5 p.m. the Christmas carol service will be held with the combined junior choirs singing carols and special music, directed by Mrs. David Hackett.

Following the carol service the children will assemble in the undercroft for "Jesus' Birthday Party" when each child will be given a piece of "Jesus birthday cake," a Christmas stocking and an orange.

Kids Will Caper in Pontiac Twp.

Jolly Old St. Nick to Give Candy at Three Weekend Parties

The first party and tree-lighting ceremony will be held at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the Auburn Heights fire station on Auburn road.

Master of ceremonies will be Harold Davis.

★ ★ ★

The first party is sponsored by Hill-Gazette Post, American Legion, Auburn Heights; the Auburn Heights Lions Club; and firemen from Station No. 1.

At 1 p.m. Sunday, the second children's party will be held at Station 3 on Joslyn road. Santa will again be present to distribute candy to the children.

The same afternoon, at 2:30 p.m. firemen at Station 2 on Opdyke road will stage a party for youngsters in that area. Jolly Old St. Nick will be on hand with candy for the little ones, and movie cartoons will be shown.

Buy or I'll Sue, Michigan Man Warns Nevada

CARSON CITY, Nev. (AP) — A Michigan man has asked Nevada to buy his copyright on initiative petition laws.

Otherwise, he says, the state risks a $96,000 infringement suit whenever it puts a petition on the ballot.

Sec. of State John Koontz received the notice from Paul E. Chamberlain of Homer, Mich., yesterday. He passed it on to the attorney general.

Chamberlain said 17 other states also had picked up his copyright initiative petition process and he was sending them similar notices.

Gov. Grant Sawyer didn't appear too concerned.

"I think we just ought to wish this fellow a merry Christmas," he said.

Broadway's New Fad Is Bottled Sun Tans

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — You've probably heard about a pill you can take that'll give you a Florida tan. Now the Broadway set, from Tennessee Williams to Bert Wheeler, is applying a liquid concoction that'll give you a tropical tan while you're sitting in a dark night club, even though you haven't been south of Northern Blvd.

WILSON

Bert Wheeler, normally the complexion of a hospital sheet, was suddenly as tan as an elephant's tail. Everybody at the Lambs Club was talking.

So was Bert. "Look," he whimpered. "You're supposed to wash your hands when you put it on you. I forgot. I'm the only guy in New York with sun-tanned hands!"

Some guys said they were going to take a bottle to Florida—just in case of bad weather.

Its all over, girls! Beautiful Ballerina Noelle Adam was met at Idlewild by handsome Sydney Chaplin when she arrived from France — and he gave her a whopping diamond engagement ring. 'Twas too big (the ring was) and she took it back to Cartier's to be cut down. Noelle flew in to see Sydney emoting opposite Lauren Bacall in "Goodbye, Charlie." But for all the other beautiful girls after him, this news will be "Goodbye, Sydney."

NOELLE

Lenore Lemmon — whom George (Superman) Reeves named as beneficiary on some insurance — just collected on one policy in California. The insurance company carefully investigated her claim and Reeves' signature — thus the settlement is a big moral victory as well as financial. "Lem" is off to London, where she expects to do a movie . . .

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Have Otto Preminger and Hope Bryce called it off? . . . Phyllis McGuire (of the singing sisters) and comic Dan Rowan were handholders . . . Ingemar Johansson'll get 25Gs per appearance during his South American tour . . . Jose Ferrer's directing Herbert Berghof—now wed to Ferrer's ex, Uta Hagen . . . Debbie Reynolds signed Gower Champion to direct her three TV spectaculars . . . Actress Dina Merrill, who's movie-making in Australia, will spend Christmas in Europe with her husband and children.

Does Pat Boone Want Teens to Abandon Him?

By FRED DANZIG

NEW YORK (UPI)—The squeals that greet Pat Boone on his ABC-TV half-hour each Thursday night indicate the teen-agers still claim him as their own.

This also is borne out by the fan magizine stories and letters that square columnists receive:

Yet, as I watch Boone's show this season, I find myself wondering whether this teen-age adulation is still appreciated, or reciprocated, by Boone.

He now wears tuxedoes, not sweaters or white buckskin shoes. His guests are established adult entertainers, generally, and not the rover boys or rock 'n roll, such as Fabian, Frankie Avalon or Paul Anka.

Another point: Boone sings the standards now, and not the "top 10" tunes. (Last night, he worked on "I Won't Dance," "Laura," "I Feel a Song Coming On," among others.)

Boone, it seems, is reaching for a new niche in show business and I'd say the fellow he is patterning himself after is none other than Frank Sinatra.

And to think—Pat doesn't go near the spas of Las Vegas. Some of the dialogue Pat has been using betrays this ambition, I think.

He even was gracious when introduced to performers he was supposed to know as "familiar faces"—Peggy Lee and Benny Goodman.

THE CHANNEL SWIM

A weekly TV series based on the six-volume wartime memoirs of Sir Winston Churchill is going into ABC-TV's 1960-61 schedule. Acquired from Screen Gems and Jack Levien, who own the world TV rights, the series—in half-hour installments — will include interviews with major world figures.

Garry Moore, with CBS-TV's aid has purchased a 51 per cent interest in his Wednesday night panel show, I've Got a Secret, from Goodson-Todman.

Supersonic Jets Flash Over Site of Wrights' Flight

KILL DEVIL HILLS, N.C. (AP) —Air Force jets streaked over the sandy beach of Kill Devil Hills Thursday, marking 56 years since man made his first powered flight there.

It was Dec. 17, 1903, when Orville Wright, with a push from his brother Wilbur, piloted their frail craft 120 feet for 12 seconds. It was the first time an engine had pulled a man aloft.

The jets that flashed over the historic spot Thursday were in sharp contrast. Able to fly faster than the speed of sound, they took off only minutes before the flyover from bases in Ohio, Florida and Virginia.

Needed: Two Left Feet

OTTAWA, Ohio (AP) — The only things unaccounted for after David Spencer, Putnam County civil defense director, took inventory of more than $15,000 worth of equipment, were two shoes — both for right feet.

There is enough recoverable coal in Pennsylvania to last 250 years.

Can Extend, Modify, or Let Laws Die

Congress Faces 1960 Deadlines

WASHINGTON (AP)—If it does nothing else, Congress can keep itself pretty busy during the coming session dealing with a host of legislative deadlines.

The deadlines involve laws which have fixed expiration dates occurring in 1960. Congress may extend them, modify them, or let them die.

The next big deadline is June 30, when a long list of laws expires. They include:

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

On July 15, the temporary suspension of import duties on aluminum and bauxite expires, while on July 25 laws terminate that provide for direct and guaranteed housing loans to veterans and for vocational rehabilitation for eligible veterans.

★ ★ ★

Dec. 31 is the termination date for the Agricultural Conservation Reserve program and for authority to make repayment contracts under reclamation laws.

U.S. to Hash Out Russia's Debt

But Moscow Doesn't Answer Note Asking to Open Up Talks

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The State Department has proposed to Russia that talks on settling the Soviet Union's multi-million dollar lend-lease debt of World War II be reopened here on Jan. 11.

Informed sources said today that Secretary of State Christian A. Herter has designated Soviet expert Charles E. Bohlen to head U.S. negotiators at the new discussions.

It will be Bohlen's first big job since returning to Washington this fall as Herter's special adviser on Soviet affairs. Bohlen had been ambassador to the Philippine Republic after four years as top envoy to Moscow.

So far, the State Department has not had a reply from Moscow to the proposal, made in a note handed to Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko last week by U.S. Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson.

A general acknowledgment by the Soviet Union that such talks should be held was obtained from Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev on his September visit to this country.

The United States made it clear that Khrushchev's long-cherished wish for increasing trade with this country hinged on Russia's agreement to settle the World War II bill.

PARE DEMANDS

When negotiations were broken off in 1952, the United States had pared its demand from two and one-half billion dollars to 800 million dollars. The Soviet Union said it was willing to pay 300 million dollars.

U.S. officials told Khrushchev at Camp David, Md., that an agreement on lend-lease that was mutually acceptable would be necessary to create the proper atmosphere for removing discrimination against trading with the Soviet Union.

Another factor is the 1934 Johnson Act which forbids credit being extended to any nation that has not paid up its debts to the United States. Members of the World Bank are exempt from this requirement, but the Soviet Union is not a member of the bank.

Newsman to Stand Trial, Says Castro

HAVANA (AP)—Prime Minister Fidel Castro Thursday night told a nationwide television audience that American newsman James Buchanan would stand trial before a Cuban court.

Castro asserted that Cuban authorities have proof of the complicity of Buchanan, a correspondent for the Miami, Fla., Herald, in the case of Frank Austin Young.

Young, an American soldier of fortune, escaped from a jail in western Cuba after he was sentenced to 30 years in prison for anti-Castro activities. Buchanan interviewed him during his brief period of freedom, and the reporter was arrested a week ago, shortly after Young was recaptured in Havana.
